1 Los cuatro hijos de Isacar fueron Tola, Fúa, Jasub y Simrón. 2 Los hijos de Tola fueron Uzi, Refaías, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam y Samuel. Ellos fueron las jefes de las casas paternas, de los descendientes de Tola y fueron enlistados como poderosos guerreros entre su generación. Su número era 22, 600 en los días de David. 3 El hijo de Uzi fue Israhías. Sus hijos eran Micael, Obías, Joel e Isías, todos los cinco de ellos eran líderes de clanes. 4 Junto con ellos tenían treinta y seis mil tropas para batalla, de acuerdo a las listas que pertenecian a los clanes de sus ancestros, porque tenían muchas esposas e hijos. 5 Sus hermanos, la tribu de Isacar, tenían ochenta y siete mil hombres de guerra, de acuerdo a la listas que pertenecian a los clanes de sus ancestros. 6 Los tres hijos de Benjamín eran Bela, Bequer y Jediael. 7 Los cinco hijos de Bela eran Ezbón, Uzi, Uziel, Jerimot e Iri. Ellos eran soldados y originadores de clanes. Su gente sumaban 22, 034 hombres de guerra, de acuerdo a la listas que pertenecían a los clanes de sus ancestros. 8 Los hijos de Bequer fueron Zemira, Joás, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremot, Abías, Anatot y Alamet. Todos estos eran sus hijos. 9 Las listas de sus clanes enumeraban 20, 200 líderes de familia y hombres de guerra. 10 El hijo de Jediael fue Bilhán. Los hijos de Bilhán fueron Jeús, Benjamín, Aod, Quenaana, Zetán, Tarsis y Ahisahar. 11 Todos estos eran hijos de Jediael. Enlistado en sus listas del clan habían 17, 200 líderes y hombres de guerra aptos para el servicio militar. 12 (Supim y Hupim eran hijos de Hir, y Husim era hijo de Aher.) 13 Los hijos de Neftalí fueron Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer y Salum. Estos fueron nietos de Bilha. 14 Manasés tuvo un hijo varón llamado Asriel, a quien su concubina aramea dio a luz. Ella también dio a luz a Maquir, padre de Galaad. 15 Maquir tomó una esposa de Hupim y Supim. El nombre de una hermana era Maaca. Otro descendiente de Manasés era Zelofehad, que solo tuvo hijas. 16 Maaca, esposa de Maquir, dio a luz un hijo y lo llamó Peres. El nombre de su hermano fue Seres, y sus hijos fueron Ulam y Requem. 17 El hijo de Ulam fue Bedán. Estos eran los descendientes de Galaad, hijo de Maquir, hijo de Manasés. 18 Hamolequer, hermana de Galaad, dio a luz a Isod, Abiezer y Mahala. 19 Los hijos de Semida fueron Ahián, Siquem, Likhi y Aniam. 20 Los descendientes de Efraín fueron asi: El hijo de Efraín era Sutela. El hijo de Sutela era Bered. El hijo de Bered era Tahat. El hijo de Tahat era Elada. 21 El hijo de Elada era Tahat. El hijo de Tahat fue Zabad. El hijo de Zabad era Sutela. (Ezer y Elad fueron muertos por hombres de Gat, nativos en la tierra, cuando ellos fueron a robar su ganado. 22 Efraín, su padre, hizo duelo por ellos por muchos días, y sus hermanos vinieron a consolarlo. 23 Él durmió con su esposa. Ella concibió y dio a luz a un hijo. Efraín lo llamó Bería, porque la tragedia había llegado a su familia. 24 Su hija fue Seera, quien edificó a Bet Horón Baja, Bet Horón Alta y Uzen Seera.) 25 Su hijo fue Refa. El hijo de Refa fue Resef. El hijo de Resef fue Telah. El hijo de Telah fue Tahán. 26 El hijo de Tajan fue Laadán. El hijo de Laadán fue Amiud. El hijo de Amiud fue Elisama. 27 El hijo de Elisama fue Nun. El hijo de Nun fue Josué. 28 Sus posesiones y residencias fueron Betel y sus aldeas de alrededor. Se extendieron hacia el oriente hasta Naarán y hacia el occidente hasta Gezer y sus aldeas, y a Siquem con sus aldeas hasta Aya y sus villas. 29 En la frontera con Manasés estaban Bet Seán y sus aldeas, Taanac y sus aldeas, Meguido y sus aldeas, y Dor y sus aldeas. En estos pueblos vivieron los descendientes de José, hijo de Israel. 30 Los hijos de Aser fueron Imna, Isúa, Isúi, y Bería. Sera era su hermana. 31 Los hijos de Bería fueron Heber y Malquiel, que fue el padre de Birzavit. 32 Los hijos de Heber fueron Jaflet, Somer, y Hotam. Súa era su hermana. 33 Los hijos de Jaflet fueron Pasac, Bimhal y Asvat. Estos fueron los hijos de Jaflet. 34 Somer, hermano de Jaflet, tuvo a estos hijos: Rohga, Jehúba y Aram. 35 El hermano de Somer, Helem, tuvo estos hijos: Zofa, Imna, Seles y Amal. 36 Los hijos de Zofa fueron Súa, Harnefer, Súal, Beri e Imra, 37 Beser, Hod, Sama, Silsa, Itrán y Beera. 38 Los hijos de Jeter fueron Jefone, Pispa y Ara. 39 Los hijos de Ula fueron Ara, Haniel y Rezia. 40 Todos estos fueron descendientes de Aser. Ellos eran los ancestros de los clanes, líderes de sus familias, hombres distinguidos, hombres guerreros, y jefes entre los líderes. Había veintiseis mil hombres en lista que eran aptos para el servicio militar, de acuerdo a sus listas enumeradas.

---

1 Chronicles 7:1

Información general:
See: and

Su número era 22,600
"Había veintidós mil seiscientos hombres"

en los días de David TA: "durante la vida de David"

1 Chronicles 7:4

Junto con ellos tenían TA: "Entre ellos estaban"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

thirty-six thousand troops for battle seis mil tropas para la batalla - "36,000 soldados que estaban listos para la batalla"

1 Chronicles 7:6

Información general:
See: and

originadores
"padres" o "ancestros"

1 Chronicles 7:8

Información general:
See: and

1 Chronicles 7:11

Jediael ... Hir ... Aher
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Enlistado en sus listas del clan habían 17,200
"Las listas de clanes contenían diecisiete mil doscientos"

Supim ... Hupim ... Husim
Estos son nombres de hombres.

1 Chronicles 7:13

Jahzeel ... Guni ... Jezer ... Salum
Estos son nombres de hombres.

nietos de Bilha
TA: "los hijos del hijo de Bilha"

1 Chronicles 7:14

Información general:
See:

aramea
Esto se refiere a una persona de Aram, una región de Siria.

concubina aramea dio a luz TA: "concubina aramea dio a luz"

1 Chronicles 7:17

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 7:20

Información general:
See:

Ezer y Elad fueron muertos por hombres de Gat, nativos en la tierra TA: "Los hombres de Gat, los nativos de la tierra, mataron a Ezer y Elad" ellos fueron a robar su ganado

TA: "los hermanos fueron a robar el ganado a la gente de Gat"

1 Chronicles 7:23

Ella concibió y dio a luz a un hijo
"Ella quedó embarazada y dio a luz a un hijo"

lo llamó
"lo nombró"

Bería ... Seera
Estos son nombres de personas.

Bet Horón Baja, Bet Horón Alta y Uzen Seera
Estos son nombres de lugares.

1 Chronicles 7:25

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 7:28

Información general:
See:

residencias fueron
TA: "las casas estaban en"

En estos pueblos vivieron los descendientes de José, hijo de Israel TA: "Los descendientes de José, hijo de Israel, vivían en estas ciudades"

1 Chronicles 7:30

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 7:33

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 7:36

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 7:39

Información general:
See:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hombres distinguidos "hombres importantes"
Había veintiseis mil hombres en lista que eran aptos para el servicio militar, de acuerdo a sus listas enumeradas. seis mil hombres en la lista que eran aptos para el servicio militar, de acuerdo con sus listas	numeradas - TA: "Según los registros del clan, había 26,000 hombres que podían servir en el ejército"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Los cinco hijos de Benjamín fueron, su primogenito Bela, Asbel, Ahara, 2 Noha y Rafa. 3 Los hijos de Bela fueron Adar, Gera, Abiud, 4 Abisúa, Naamán, Ahoa, 5 Gera, Sefufán e Hiram. 6 Estos eran los desendientes de Aod quienes eran los jefes de los clanes de los habitantes de Geba, que fueron obligados a mudarse a Manahat: 7 Naamán, Ahías y Gera. El último, Gera, los guió cuando se mudaron. Él era el padre de Uza y Ahiud. 8 Saharaim se convirtió en el padre de hijos en la tierra de Moab, después que se había divorciado de sus esposas Husim y Baara. 9 Por su esposa Hodes, Saharaim se convirtió en el padre de Jobab, Sibia, Mesa, Malcam, 10 Jeúz, Saquías y Mirma. Estos fueron sus hijos, jefes en sus clanes. 11 Él ya se había convertido en el padre de Abitob y Elpaal de Husim. 12 Los hijos de Elpaal fueron Heber, Misam y Semed (que construyeron Ono y Lod con sus aldeas cercanas). 13 También estaban Bería y Sema. Ellos fueron jefes de clanes que vivían en Ajalón, que expulsaron los habitantes de Gat. 14 Bería tuvo estos hijos: Ahío, Sasac, Jeremot, 15 Zebadías, Arad, Ader, 16 Micael, Ispa, y Joha. 17-18 Elpaal tuvo estos hijos: Zebadías, Mesulm, Hizqui, Heber, Ishmerai, Jezlías y Jobab. 19 Simei tuvo estos hijos: Jaquim, Zicri, abdi, 20 Elienai, Ziletai, Eliel, 21 Adaías, Beraías y Simrat. 22 Sasac tuvo estos hijos: Ispán, Heber, Eliel, 23 Abdón, Zicri, Hanán, 24 Hananías, Elam, Anatonías, 25 Ifdaías y Peniel. 26 Jeroham tuvo estos hijos: Samserai, Seharías, Atalías, 27 Jaresías, Elías y Zicri. 28 Estos eran jefes de los clanes y líderes que vivieron en Jerusalén. 29 El padre de Gabaón, Jehiel, cuyo nombre de su esposa fue Maaca, vivía en Gabaón. 30 Su primer hijo era Abdón, seguido de Zur, Cism Baal, Nadab, 31 Gedor, Ahío y Zequer. 32 Otro de los hijos de Jehiel Miiclot, que se convirtió en el padre de Simea. También vivieron cerca de sus familiares en Jerusalén. 33 Ner era el padre de Cis. Cis el padre de Saúl. Saúl fue el padre de Jonatán, Malquisúa, Abinadab y Es Baal. 34 El hijo de Jonatán fue Merib Baal. Merib Baal fue el padre de Micaía. 35 Los hijos de Micaía fueron Pitón, Melec, Tarea y Acaz. 36 Acaz se convirtió en el padre de Joada. Joada fue el padre de Alemet, Azmavet y Zimri. Zimri fue el padre de Mosa. 37 Mosa el padre de Bina. Bina fue el padre de Rafa. Rafa fue el padre de Eleasa. Eleasa fue el padre de Azel. 38 Azel tuvo seis hijos: Azricam, Bocru, Ismael, Searías, Obadías y Hanán. Todos estos fueron hijos de Azel. 39 Los hijos de Esec; su hermano, fueron Ulam, su primer hijo, Jehús el segundo y Elifelet el tercero. 40 Los hijos de Ulam fueron guerreros y arqueros. Tuvieron muchos hijos y nietos, un total de 150. Todos estos pertenecían a los descendientes de Benjamín.

---

1 Chronicles 8:1

Información general:
See: and

1 Chronicles 8:6

Información general:
See:

que fueron obligados a mudarse
"necesitaba mudarse" o "tenía que mudarse"

1 Chronicles 8:8

Saharaim ... Jobab ... Sibia ... Mesa ... Malcam ... Jeúz ... Saquías ... Mirma ... Abitob ... Elpaal
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Husim ... Baara ... Hodes
Estos son nombres de mujeres.

Por su esposa Hodes, Saharaim se convirtió en el padre de TA: "Saharaim y su esposa Hodes tuvieron los siguientes hijos:"

1 Chronicles 8:12

Elpaal ... Heber ... Misam ... Semed ... Bería ... Sema
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Ono ... Lod ... Ajalón
Estos son nombres de lugares.

1 Chronicles 8:14

Información general:
See:

Elpaal ... y Jobab
La información en 8:14 se ha reorganizado para que su significado se pueda entender más fácilmente.

1 Chronicles 8:19

Información general:
La información en 8:19 se ha reorganizado para que su significado se pueda entender más fácilmente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 8:22

Información general:
La información en 8:22 se ha reorganizado para que su significado se pueda entender más fácilmente.

1 Chronicles 8:26

Información general:
See:

Estos eran jefes de los clanes y líderes
Las palabras "jefes de clanes" y "líderes" significan lo mismo.

1 Chronicles 8:29

Información general:
See:

El padre de Gabaón, Jehiel, cuyo nombre de su esposa fue Maaca, vivía en Gabaón Aquí "padre de" se refiere al estatus de Jewel como la persona principal en la ciudad de Gabaón. TA: "Jehiel, el líder de Gabaón, vivía en Gabaón. El nombre de su esposa era Maaca".

Su primer hijo
"El primogénito de Jehiel"

1 Chronicles 8:32

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 8:35

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 8:38

Información general:
See: and

Jehús el segundo y Elifelet el tercero
TA: "Jehús, el segundo hijo, y Elifelet, el tercer hijo"

Tuvieron muchos hijos y nietos, un total de 150
TA: "Tuvieron un total de ciento cincuenta hijos y nietos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Así que todo Israel fue registrado en genealogías. Ellos fueron registrados en el libro de los reyes de Israel. En cuanto a Judá, ellos fueron llevados en exilio a Babilonia por sus pecados. 2 Los primeros en ser reubicados en sus ciudades fueron algunos israelitas, sacerdotes, Levitas, y siervos del templo. 3 Algunos descendientes de Judá, Benjamín, Efraín, y Manasés vivían en Jerusalén. 4 Las reubicaciones incluían a Utai hijo de Amiud, hijo de Omri hijo de Imri, hijo de Bani, uno de los descendientes de Pérez hijo de Judá. 5 Entre los Silonitas estaba Asaías el primer hijo y sus hijos. 6 De entre los descendientes de Zera estaba Jeuel. Sus descendientes eran 690. 7 Entre los descendientes de Benjamín estaba Salú hijo de Mesulam, hijo de Hodavías hijo de Asenúa. 8 También estaba Ibenías hijo de Jeroham; Ela, hijo de Uzi, hijo de Micri; y Mesulam hijo de Sefatías hijo de Reuel hijo de Ibnías. 9 Sus parientes escritos en las listas de genealogías eran 956. Todos estos hombres eran líderes en los clanes de sus ancestros. 10 Los sacerdotes eran Jedaías, Joiarib, y Jaquín. 11 También estaba Azarías hijo de Hilcías hijo de Mesulam hijo de Sadoc hijo de Meraiot hijo de Ahitob, el que estaba a cargo de la casa de Dios. 12 Ahí estaba Adaía hijo de Jeroboam, hijo de Pasur, hijo de Malquías. Ahí estaba también Masai hijo de Adiel, hijo de Jazera, hijo de Mesulam, hijo de Mesilemit, hijo de Imer. 13 Sus parientes, que fueron líderes en el clan de sus ancestros, eran 1, 760. Ellos fueron hombres muy capaces en el trabajo en la casa de Dios. 14 Entre los levitas estaba Semaías, hijo de Hasub, hijo de Azricam, hijo de Hasabías, entre los hijos de Merari. 15 También estaba Bachacar, Heres, Galal y Matanías hijo de Micaía, hijo de Zicri, hijo de Asaf. 16 También estaba Obadías, hijo de Semaías, hijo de Galal, hijo de Jedutún y Berequías hijo de Asa, hijo de Elcana que vivió en las aldeas de los Netofatitas. 17 Los porteros eran Salum, Acub, Talmón, Ahimán y sus descendientes. Salum era su líder. 18 Anteriormente ellos hicieron guardia en las puertas del lado este para los campos de los descendientes de Leví. 19 Salum hijo de Coré hijo de Ebiasafel que era hijo de Corá, y sus parientes de la casa de su padre, los Coraítas, estaban a cargo del trabajo del servicio, ellos guardaban la puerta de la tienda, asi como sus ancestros habían guardado el campamento del SEÑOR, y ellos también guardaban la entrada. 20 Finees hijo de Eleazar estuvo a cargo de ellos en el pasado, y el SEÑOR estuvo con él. 21 Zacarías hijo de Meselemías era guardia de la entrada al templo," la carpa de reunión." 22 Todos los que fueron escogidos como guardianes de las entradas contaban 212. Sus nombres fueron registrados en los archivos del pueblo en sus villas. David y Samuel el vidente los pusieron en sus posiciones de confianza. 23 Asi que ellos y sus niños guardaban las puertas de la casa del SEÑOR, el tabernáculo. 24 Los guardianes eran puestos en los cuatro lados, hacia el este, oeste, norte, y sur. 25 Sus hermanos, quienes vivían en sus villas, vinieron en turnos de rotaciones de siete-días. 26 Pero los cuatro líderes de los guardias de las entradas que eran Levitas, eran asignados a guardar los cuartos y almacenes en la casa de Dios. 27 Ellos debían pasar la noche en sus puestos alrededor de toda la casa de Dios, ya que eran responsables de guardarla. Ellos la abrirían cada mañana. 28 Algunos de ellos estaban a cargo del equipamiento del templo; ellos contaban los artículos cuando eran traídos y cuando eran sacados fuera. 29 Algunos de ellos también eran asignados para cuidar las cosas sagradas, los utencilios y los suministros incluyendo la harina fina, el vino, el aceite, el incienso y las especias. 30 Algunos de los hijos de los sacerdotes mezclaban las especias. 31 Matatías, uno de los Levitas, que era el primer hijo de Salum Coreíta, estaba a cargo de preparar el pan para las ofrendas. 32 Algunos de sus hermanos, descendientes de los Coatitas, estaban a cargo del pan de la presencia, para prepararlo cada Sábado. 33 Los cantantes y los líderes de la familia Levita vivían en cuartos en el santuario cuando ellos estaban libres del trabajo porque ellos tenían que llevar a cabo sus tareas asignadas día y noche. 34 Estos eran líderes de familia entre los Levitas como estaba mencionado en los registros genealógicos. Ellos vivían en Jerusalén. 35 El padre de Gabaón, Jehiel, cuya esposa se llamaba Maaca, vivía en Gabaón. 36 Su primogenito fue Abdón y sus hijos Zur, Cis, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahío, Zacarías y Miclot. 38 Miclot fue el padre de Simeam. Ellos también vivían cerca de sus hermanos en Jerusalén. 39 Ner fue el padre de Cis. Cis fue el padre de Saúl. Saúl fue el padre de Jonatán, Malqisúa, Abinadab; y Esbaal. 40 El hijo de Jonatán fue Meril Baal. Meril Baal fue el padre de Micaía. 41 Los hijos de Micaía fueron Pitón, Melec, Tarea y Acaz. 42 Acaz fue el padre de Jara, Jara fue el padre de Alemet, Azmavet, y Zimri. Zimri fue el padre de Mosa. 43 Mosa fue el padre de Bina. Bina fue el padre de Refaías. Refaías fue el padre de Eleasa. Eleasa fue el padre de Azel. 44 Los seis hijos de Azel Azricam, Bocru, Ismael, Searías, Obadías, y Hanán. Estos fueron los hijos de Azel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 9:1

Así que todo Israel fue registrado en genealogías
Una genealogía se refiere a un registro de descendientes de una familia o antepasados de una persona.

el libro de los reyes de Israel
Esto se refiere a un libro que ya no existe.

1 Chronicles 9:4

Información general:
See: and

Silonitas
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas descendientes de Shelah. Es una variación ortográfica para los Silonitas.

1 Chronicles 9:7

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 9:10

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 9:12

Información general:
See: and

Ellos fueron hombres muy capaces en el trabajo en la casa de Dios TA: "Estos hombres capaces trabajaron en la casa de Dios"

1 Chronicles 9:14

Semaías ... Elcana
Estos son nombres de hombres.

entre los hijos de
"uno de los descendientes"

Netofatitas
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas.

1 Chronicles 9:17

Información general:
See:

porteros
"guardias" o "guardianes"

ellos hicieron guardia en las puertas del lado este para los campos de los descendientes de Leví
"Los descendientes de Levi vigilaban la puerta del rey en el lado este de su campamento"

la puerta de la tienda ... la entrada
Estas frases se refieren a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, o el tabernáculo.

1 Chronicles 9:20

a cargo de ellos
TA: "a cargo de los guardias"

1 Chronicles 9:22

Información general:
See:

Sus nombres fueron registrados en los archivos del pueblo en sus villasAT: "The records in peoples' villages included the names of these men"
TA: "Los registros en las aldeas de los pueblos incluían los nombres de estos hombres" sus niños

"sus descendientes"

guardianes eran puestos TA: "los hombres vigilaban las entradas"

en los cuatro lados, hacia el este, oeste, norte, y sur TA: "todo alrededor"

1 Chronicles 9:25

Sus hermanos
"Los hermanos de los guardias"

vinieron en turnos de rotaciones de siete-días rotaciones de días, en turnos - TA: "vendría a ayudar durante períodos de 7 días, tomando turnos"

eran asignados a guardar los cuartos TA: "vigilaba las habitaciones"

1 Chronicles 9:28

Algunos de ellos
"Algunos de los guardias"

ellos contaban los artículos cuando eran traídos y cuando eran sacados fuera TA: "contaron los artículos que la gente sacó para usar y contaron los artículos cuando la gente los trajo de vuelta"

eran asignados para cuidar TA: "hacerse cargo de" o "cuidar de"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 9:30

Matatías ... Salum
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Coreíta ... Coatitas
Estos son nombres de grupos de personas.

pan de la presencia
Consulte la página de la palabra de traducción sobre "pan" para obtener la definición específica de "pan de presencia".

1 Chronicles 9:33

ellos estaban libres del trabajo TA: "no tenían que hacer otro trabajo"

tenían que llevar a cabo sus tareas asignadas TA: "tenían que completar sus tareas asignadas"

día y noche
Esto significa "en todo momento" y se puede traducir usando una frase o palabra de su idioma o cultura que le dé el mismo significado.

Estos eran líderes de familia entre los Levitas como estaba mencionado en los registros genealógicos
TA: "Las listas de historia familiar incluían los nombres de estos líderes familiares levitas"

1 Chronicles 9:35

Información general:
See:

Gabaón
La primera mención de Gabaón se refiere a la persona, pero la segunda mención de Gabaón se refiere a la ciudad.

1 Chronicles 9:38

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 9:41

Información general:
See: and

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Ahora, los filisteos pelearon contra Israel. Cada hombre de Israel huyó delante los filisteos y cayó muerto en el Monte Gilboa. 2 Los filisteos persiguieron de cerca a Saúl y sus hijos. Los filisteos mataron a Jonatán, Abinabad y Malquisúa, sus hijos. 3 La batalla fue difícil en contra de Saúl, y los arqueros lo dominaron. Él estaba en un dolor severo por causa de los arqueros. 4 Luego, Saúl le dijo a su escudero:
"Saca tu espada y traspásame con ella. Sino, estos incircuncisos vendrán y me abusarán." Pero su escudero no quería hacerlo porque él tenía mucho miedo. Así que Saúl agarró su propia espada y cayó sobre ella. 5 Cuando su escudero vio que Saúl estaba muerto, él al igual que Saúl cayó sobre su espada y murió. 6 Así que Saúl murió, sus tres hijos y todos los miembros de su casa murieron juntos. 7 Cuando cada hombre de Israel en el valle vio que ellos habían huído, y que Saúl y sus hijos estaban muertos, ellos abandonaron sus ciudades y huyeron. Luego los filisteos vinieron y vivieron en ellas. 8 Y ocurrió que al siguiente día, cuando los filisteos fueron a despojar a los muertos, ellos encontraron a Saúl y a sus hijos caídos en el Monte Gilboa. 9 Ellos lo desnudaron y tomaron su cabeza y su armadura. Ellos enviaron mensajeros por Filistea a llevar las noticias a sus ídolos y a la gente. 10 Ellos pusieron su armadura en el templo de sus dioses y ataron su cabeza en el templo de Dagón. 11 Cuando todo Jabes de Galaad escucharon todo lo que los filisteos le habían hecho a Saúl, 12 todos los hombres guerreros fueron y se llevaron el cuerpo de Saúl y de sus hijos y los llevaron a Jabes. Ellos enterraron sus huesos bajo el árbol de cedro en Jabes y ayunaron por siete días. 13 Así murió Saúl porque le fue infiel al SEÑOR. Él no obedeció las instrucciones del SEÑOR, si no que pidió consejo de alguien que hablaba con los muertos. 14
Él no busco la dirección del SEÑOR, entonces el SEÑOR lo mató y le entregó el reino a David, hijo de Isaí.

---

1 Chronicles 10:1

Información general:
See:

Cada hombre de Israel huyó delante TA: "El ejército de Israel se escapó de"

cayó muerto TA: "murió"

1 Chronicles 10:4

traspásame con ella
TA: "mátame con eso"

Sino, estos incircuncisos vendrán
La referencia a los "incircuncisos" aquí es un insulto, lo que indica que estas personas son extranjeras y no tienen relación con Dios.

cayó sobre ella
TA: "se suicidó con eso"

1 Chronicles 10:5

sus tres hijos
TA: "y sus 3 hijos murieron"

1 Chronicles 10:7

Cuando cada hombre de Israel TA: "Cuando los hombres de Israel"

vivieron en ellas
"vivieron en las ciudades israelitas"

Y ocurrió que
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

a despojar a los muertos
TA: "quitar algo de valor de los cadáveres"

Saúl y a sus hijos caídos
"Saúl y sus hijos muertos"

1 Chronicles 10:9

Ellos lo desnudaron
TA: "Los filisteos sacaron todo del cuerpo de Saúl"

Ellos pusieron su armadura
"Los filisteos pusieron la armadura de Saúl"

Dagón
Este es el nombre de un dios falso.

1 Chronicles 10:11

Información general:
See: and

Cuando todo Jabes de Galaad escucharon todo lo que los filisteos TA: "Cuando la gente de Jabes de Galaad escuchó lo que los soldados del ejército filisteo" (See:)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sus huesos TA: "sus cuerpos" o "sus restos"

hablaba con los muertos
TA: "afirmó hablar con los que murieron"

1 Chronicles 10:13

entregó el reino a TA: "cedió el control del pueblo de Israel a" consejo

Esta es una opinión o sugerencia sobre lo que la persona debe hacer.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Luego todo Israel vino a David en Hebrón y dijo: "Mira, nosotros somos tu carne y hueso. 2 En el pasado reciente, cuando Saúl fue rey sobre nosotros, fuiste tú quien guió al ejército israelita. El SEÑOR tu Dios te dijo: 'Tú pastorearás mi pueblo Israel y tú te volverás un gobernante sobre mi pueblo Israel.'" 3 Así que todos los ancianos de Israel fueron al rey en Hebrón y David hizo un juramento con ellos ante el SEÑOR. Ellos ungieron a David rey sobre Israel. De esta manera, la palabra del SEÑOR que había sido declarada por Samuel se volvió realidad. 4 David y todo Israel fueron a Jerusalén (que es, Jebús). Los jebuseos, los habitantes de la tierra, estaban allí. 5 Los habitantes de Jebús le dijeron a David: "No vendrás aquí." Pero David tomó la fortaleza de Sión, o seas, la ciudad de David. 6 David había dicho: "Quien sea que ataque los jebuseos primeros se volverá un comandante." Así que Joab hijo de Sarvia atacó primero y fue declarado comandante. 7 Luego David comenzó a vivir en la fortaleza asi que la llamaron la ciudad de David. 8 Él fortificó la ciudad desde Milo hasta el muro que ya la rodeaba. Joab fortificó el resto de la ciudad. 9 David se volvió más y más grandioso porque el SEÑOR de los ejércitos estaba con él. 10 Estos fueron los líderes que David tenía que se demostraron fuertes con él en su reino junto con todo Israel, para hacerlo a él rey, obedeciendo la palabra del SEÑOR en cuanto a Israel. 11 Ésta es una lista de los soldados exclusivos de David: Jasobeam, el hijo de Hacmoni, fue comandante de los treinta. Él mató a trescientos hombres con su lanza en una ocasión. 12 Después de él estaba Eleazar hijo de Dodo, el ahohíta, que fue uno de los tres hombres poderosos. 13 Él estaba con David en Pasdamim, y allí los filisteos se reunieron todos juntos para la batalla, donde había un campo de cebada y el ejército huyó de los filisteos. Ellos se pararon en medio del campo. 14 Ellos lo defendieron y disminuyeron a los filisteos y el SEÑOR los rescató con una gran victoria. 15 Luego, tres de los treinta líderes bajaron hacia la roca donde estaba David, en la cueva de Adulam. El ejército de los filisteos estaba acampando en el Valle de Refaim. 16 En ese tiempo David estaba en su fortaleza, en la cueva, mientras los filisteos habían establecido su campamento en Belén. 17 David anhelaba agua y dijo: "¡Si tan sólo alguien me diera agua para beber del pozo en Belén, el pozo que está en la puerta!" 18 Así que estos tres hombres poderosos entraron a través del ejército de los filisteos y sacaron agua del pozo de Belén, el pozo en la puerta. Ellos tomaron el agua y se le llevaron a David, pero él se negó a beberla. En cambio, él la derramó al SEÑOR. 19 Luego él dijo: "SEÑOR, aleja ésto, lejos esté mí, que yo beba eso. ¿Debería beber de la sangre de hombres que han arriesgado sus vidas?" Porque ellos habían puesto sus vidas en riesgo, él se negó a beberla. Estas son las cosas que los tres hombres poderosos hicieron. 20 Abisai hermano de Joab, fue capitán sobre los Tres. Una vez él usó su lanza en contra de trescientos hombres y los mató. Él es mencionado junto con los Tres. 21 De los Tres, a él se le dio doble honor y se convirtió en su capitán. Aunque él no era uno de ellos. 22 Benaía hijo de Joiada fue un hombre fuerte que hizo grandes acciones. Él mató a los dos hijos de Ariel de Moab. El también bajó al foso y mató un a león mientras estaba nevando. 23 Él incluso mató a un egipcio, un hombre de cinco codos de alto. El egipcio tenía una lanza como la viga de un tejedor, pero él lo confrontó a él con sólo una vara. Él arrebató la lanza de la mano del egipcio y lo mató con su propia lanza. 24 Benaía hijo de Joiada hizo estas grandes acciones, y él fue nombrado junto a los tres hombres poderosos. 25 Él fue más reconocido que los treinta soldados en general, pero él no fue reconocido tan altamente reconocido como los tres soldados exclusivos. Aún así David lo puso a cargo de su guardaespaldas. 26 Los hombres poderosos eran Asael hermano de Joab, Elhanan hijo de Dodo de Belén, 27 Samot el harodita, Heles el pelonita, 28 Ira hijo de Iques el tecoíta, Abiezer el anatotita, 29 Sibecai el husatita, Ilai el ahoíta, 30 Maharai el netofatita, Heled hijo de Baana el netofatita, 31 Itai hijo de Ribai de Guibeá de los descendientes de Benjamín, Benaía el piratonita, 32 Hurai de los arroyos de Gaas, Abiel el arbatita, 33 Azmavet el barhumita, Eliaba el saalbonita, 34 los hijos de Hasem el gizonita, Jonatán hijo de Sage el ararita, 35 Ahíam hijo de Sacar el ararita, Elifal hijo de Ur, 36 Hefer el megueratita, Ahías el pelonita, 37 Hezro el carmelita, Naarai hijo de Ezbai, 38 Joel hermano de Natán, Mibhar hijo de Hagrai, 39 Selec el amonita, Naharai el beerotita (el escudero de Joab hijo de Sarvia), 40 Ira el itrita, Gareb el itrita, 41 Urías el hitita, Zabad hijo de Ahlai, 42 Adina hijo de Siza el rubenita (un jefe de los rubenitas) y treinta con ellos, 43 Hanan hijo de Maaca, y Josafat el mitnita, 44 Uzías el astarotita, Sama y Jeheil hijos de Hotam el aroerita, 45 Jediael hijo de Simri, Joha (su hermano el tizita), 46 Eliel el mahavita, Jerebai y Josavía hijos de Elnaam, Itm el moabita, 47 Eliel, Obed y Jaasiel el mesobaíta.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 11:1

nosotros somos tu carne y hueso TA: "somos tus parientes" o "tenemos los mismos antepasados que tu"

la palabra del SEÑOR
"el mensaje del SEÑOR"

1 Chronicles 11:4

Información general:
See:

Jebús
Este fue el nombre temporal de Jerusalén después de que los jebuseos conquistaron la ciudad, antes de que los israelitas la conquistaran.

Pero David tomó
TA: "Pero el ejército de David derrotó"

o sea, la ciudad de David TA: "y lo llamaron la ciudad de David"

y fue declarado comandante
TA: "entonces David convirtió a Joab en comandante"

1 Chronicles 11:7

Él fortificó la ciudad desde
TA: "Los israelitas fortalecieron el muro alrededor de la ciudad"

Milo
Esto se refiere a una fortaleza en Jerusalén, probablemente construida por los jebuseos.

estaba con él
TA: "lo ayudó"

1 Chronicles 11:10

Información general:
See: and

los líderes que David tenía TA: "los líderes bajo David"

que se demostraron fuertes con él en su reino TA: "quien ayudó al reino de David a mantenerse fuerte"

los treinta
TA: "los 30 hombres poderosos"

en una ocasión
TA: "a la vez"

1 Chronicles 11:12

Información general:

y disminuyeron a los filisteos
"y mató a muchos filisteos". -

1 Chronicles 11:15

Información general:
See:

tres de los treinta
"3 de los 30"

En ese tiempo David estaba en su fortaleza, en la cueva, mientras los filisteos habían establecido su campamento en Belén TA: "David estaba en un lugar seguro en una cueva mientras los soldados filisteos vigilaban a Belén"

los filisteos habían establecido su campamento en Belén
"los filisteos habían colocado soldados en Belén"

1 Chronicles 11:18

tres hombres poderosos
"3 hombres poderosos"

pozo de Belén, el pozo en la puerta Estas dos frases se refieren al mismo pozo. El segundo especifica qué pozo en Belén.

aleja ésto, lejos esté mí, que yo beba eso
TA: "Dios, por favor, ¡nunca me permitas beber semejante sacrificio a costa de mis hombres!"

¿Debería beber de la sangre de hombres que han arriesgado sus vidas?"
David dice con esta pregunta que el agua es preciosa debido al sacrificio hecho por quienes la obtuvieron. TA: "No bebería la sangre de los hombres que están dispuestos a morir por mí" o "No beberé agua por la que los hombres arriesgaron sus vidas"

1 Chronicles 11:20

Información general:
See:

los Tres
"los Tres guerreros poderosos"

fue capitán sobre los Tres
AT: "Abisai era un líder de los tres guerreros poderosos"

él se le dio doble honor y se convirtió en su capitán TA: "los soldados tenían un gran respeto por Abisai y lo convirtieron en su líder, a pesar de que no lo consideraban uno de los Tres guerreros"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 11:22

Información general:
See:

acciones
Estos son actos que muestran coraje, fuerza o habilidad.

mientras estaba nevando TA: "durante una tormenta de nieve"

cinco codos

él lo confrontó a él TA: "Benaías se encontró con el egipcio"

una lanza como la viga de un tejedor TA: "una lanza muy grande"

1 Chronicles 11:24

Información general:
See:

él fue nombrado junto a los tres hombres poderosos
"Era tan famoso como los 3 hombres poderosos"

Él fue más reconocido que los treinta soldados en general, pero él no fue reconocido tan altamente reconocido como los tres soldados exclusivos TA: "La gente lo respetaba más que los 30 soldados, pero no tanto como los 3 soldados más hábiles"

guardaespaldas
Esta es una persona o un grupo de personas responsables de proteger a alguien importante.

1 Chronicles 11:26

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 11:30

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 11:34

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 11:38

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 11:42

Información general:
See:

treinta con ellos
"30 hombres con él"

1 Chronicles 11:45

Información general:
See:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Estos fueron los hombres que vinieron a David a Siclag, mientras él aún estaba desterrado de la presencia de Saúl, hijo de Cis. Ellos estaban entre los soldados, sus ayudadores en batalla. 2 Ellos estaban armados con arcos y podían usar tanto la mano derecha como la izquierda, en lanzar piedras y disparar flechas del arco. Ellos eran benjamitas, compañeros de tribu de Saúl. 3 El jefe fue Ahiezer, luego Joás, ambos hijos de Semaa el guibeatita. Allí estaban Jeziel y Pelet, hijos de Azmavet. También estaban Beraca y Jehú el anonita, 4 Ismaías el gabaonita, un soldado entre los treinta (y en comando de los treinta); Jeremías, Jahaziel, Johanán, Jozabad el gederatita, 5 Eluzai, Jerimot, Bealías, Semarías, Sefatías el harufita, 6 los coreítas Elcana, Isías, Azareel, Joezer, Jasobeam, y 7 Joela y Zebadías hijos de Jeroham de Gedor. 8 Algunos gaditas se unieron a David en la fortaleza en el desierto. Ellos fueron hombres de guerra, hombres entrenados para batalla, que podían manejar un escudo y lanza; cuyas caras eran tan feroces como las caras de los leones. Ellos eran tan rápidos como gacelas en las montañas. 9 Allí estaban Ezer el líder, Obadías el segundo, Eliab el tercero, 10 Mismana el cuarto, Jeremías el quinto, 11 Atai el sexto, Eliel el séptimo, 12 Johanán el octavo, Elzabad el noveno, 13 Jeremías el décimo, Macbanai el undécimo. 14 Estos hijos de Gad fueron líderes del ejército. El más insignificante dirigió cien y el mejor dirigió mil. 15 Ellos cruzaron el Jordán en el primer mes, cuando se desbordó sus riveras, y persiguieron a todos los que vivían en los valles, tanto hacia el este como hacia el oeste. 16 Algunos de los hombres de Benjamín y Judá vinieron a la fortaleza de David. 17 David salió a reunirse con ellos y se dirigió a ellos: "Si ustedes han venido en paz a mí para ayudarme, ustedes pueden unirse a mí. Pero si ustedes han venido a traicionarme a mis adversarios, que el Dios de nuestros ansestros vea y los reprenda a ustedes, ya que yo no he hecho nada malo." 18 Luego el Espíritu vino a Amasai, que fue jefe de los treinta. Amasai dijo: "Nosotros somos tuyos, David. Nosotros estamos de tu lados, hijo de Isaí. Paz, que la paz sea con quien te ayude. Que la paz sea con tus ayudadores, pues tu Dios te está ayudando." Luego David los recibió a ellos y los hizo a ellos comandantes sobre sus hombres. 19 Algunos de Manasés también desertaron para unirse a David cuando él vino con los filisteos en contra de Saúl a batalla. Sin embargo, no ayudaron a los filisteos porque los señores de los filisteos consultaban entre ellos para alejar a David. Ellos dijeron: "Él nos abandonará para ir con su amo Saúl a riesgo de nuestras vidas." 20 Cuando él fue a Siclag, los hombres de Manasés que se unieron a él fueron Adnas, Jozabad, Jediaiel, Micael, Jozabad, Eliú, y Ziletai, capitanes sobre miles de Manasés. 21 Ellos ayudaron a David a pelear contra las bandas de ladrones, pues ellos fueron hombres de guerra. Luego ellos se convirtieron en comandantes en el ejército. 22 Día tras día, hombres venían a David para ayudarle a él, hasta que tuvieron un gran ejército, como el ejército de Dios. 23 Este es el registro de los soldados armados para la guerra, que vinieron a David en Hebrón, para entregarle el reino de Saúl a él, lo que cumplió la palabra del SEÑOR. 24 De Judá aquellos que cargaron escudo y lanza fueron 6, 800 armados para la guerra. 25 De los simeonitas habían 7, 100 hombres de guerra. 26 De los levitas habían 4, 600 hombres de guerra. 27 Joiada fue el líder de los descendientes de Aarón, y con él habían 3, 700. 28 Con Sadoc, un hombre joven, fuerte y valiente, habían veintidos líderes de la familia de su padre. 29 De Benjamín, tribu de Saúl, habían tres mil. La mayoría de ellos habían permanecido fieles a Saúl hasta este tiempo. 30 De los efraimitas habían 20, 800 hombres de guerra, hombres famosos en las familias de sus padres. 31 De la media tribu de Manasés habían dieciocho mil hombres famosos que vinieron para hacer a David rey. 32 De Isacar habían doscientos líderes que tenían el entendimiento de los tiempos y sabían lo que Israel había jurado hacer. Todos sus parientes estaban bajo sus comandos. 33 De Zabulón habían cincuenta mil hombres de guerra, preparados para la batalla con todas las armas de guerra y listos para dar completa fidelidad. 34 De Neftalí habían mil oficiales y con ellos treintisiete mil hombres con escudos y lanzas. 35 De los danitas habían 28, 600 hombres preparados para la batalla. 36 De Aser habían cuarenta mil hombres preparados para la batalla. 37 Del otro lado del Jordán, de los rubenitas, gaditas y la mitad de la tribu de Manasés habían 120, 000 hombres armados con todo tipo de armas para la batalla. 38 Todos estos soldados equipados para la batalla vinieron a Hebrón con intenciones firmes de hacer a David rey sobre todo Israel. Todo el resto de Israel estaba también de acuerdo para hacer a David rey. 39 Ellos estaban allí con David tres días comiendo y bebiendo pues sus parientes les habían enviado provisión. 40 Ademas, aquellos que estaban cerca de ellos, como Isacar, Zebulón y Neftalí trajeron pan en burros, camellos, mulas y bueyes, ademas de pasteles de higos, racimos de pasas, vino, aceite, bueyes, y ovejas, pues Israel estaba celebrando.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 12:1

Información general:
See:

mientras él aún estaba desterrado de la presencia de TA: "durante el tiempo en que no pudo estar en presencia de"

Ellos estaban armados con arcos y podían usar tanto la mano derecha como la izquierda TA: "Sus armas incluían arcos, y podían usar el arco con su mano derecha o izquierda"

lanzar piedras
La honda era una tira de cuero que permitía a una persona arrojar una piedra a una gran distancia. Se colocaba una piedra en el medio mientras la persona sostenía los extremos y la giraba en círculo. Cuando se soltaba un extremo, la piedra volaba hacia el objetivo.

1 Chronicles 12:3

Información general:
See:

los treinta
TA: "los 30 soldados"

1 Chronicles 12:5

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 12:8

Información general:
See:

cuyas caras eran tan feroces como las caras de los leones
TA: "que eran muy feroces"

Ellos eran tan rápidos como gacelas TA: "Eran muy rápidos"

gacelas
Estos son animales pequeños que son elegantes y rápidos, similares a los ciervos.

1 Chronicles 12:9

Información general:
See:

segundo ... undécimo
Esto enumera a estos hombres en orden de liderazgo. "2º ... 3º... 4º... 5º... 6º... 7º... 8º... 9º... 10º... 11º"

1 Chronicles 12:14

El más insignificante dirigió cien
Esto significa que el grupo más pequeño del ejército que lideró un líder fue de 100.

el mejor dirigió mil
Esto significa que el grupo más grande del ejército que lideró un líder fue de 1.000.

primer mes
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales. Es al comienzo de la temporada de primavera cuando llegan las lluvias tardías.

1 Chronicles 12:16

hombres de Benjamín y Judá TA: "hombres de las tribus de Benjamín y Judá"

1 Chronicles 12:18

Información general:
See:

el Espíritu vino a TA: "El Espíritu le dio poder"

los treinta
TA: "los 30 soldados"

Nosotros somos tuyos, David. Nosotros estamos de tu lados, hijo de Isaí Estas frases comparten significados similares y enfatizan su compromiso de seguir a David.

1 Chronicles 12:19

Información general:
See:

desertaron para
TA: "dejaron a sus líderes para unirse" sobre miles de

"sobre más de 1.000 hombres"

1 Chronicles 12:21

bandas de ladrones
TA: "grupos de hombres que robaban a personas en todo el país"

Día tras día
TA: "Cada día"

como el ejército de Dios Esto compara el tamaño del ejército de David con el ejército de los ángeles de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 12:23

Información general:
See:

para entregarle el reino de Saúl a él TA: "para dar el control del reino de Saúl a David"

cumplió la palabra del SEÑOR
TA: "hizo verdadera la palabra del SEÑOR" o "cumplió la palabra del SEÑOR"

De Judá
TA: "De la tribu de Judá"

1 Chronicles 12:26

Información general:
See: and

1 Chronicles 12:29

Información general:
See: and See:

De Benjamín, tribu de Saúl
TA: "De la tribu de Saúl, la tribu de Benjamín" media tribu

Mire cómo tradujo esto en 1CH 5:18

1 Chronicles 12:32

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 12:34

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 12:36

Información general:
See: and

armados con todo tipo de armas TA: "portando todo tipo de armas"

1 Chronicles 12:38

intenciones firmes TA: "planes"

equipados para la batalla TA: "con sus armas para la batalla" tres días

"3 días"

pasas
Estas son uvas secas, una pequeña fruta que crece en una vid.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 David consultó con los comandantes de miles y cientos con cada líder. 2 David dijo a toda la asamblea de Israel: "Si les parece bien a ustedes y si esto viene del SEÑOR nuestro Dios, permítanos enviar mensajeros a todas partes a nuestros hermanos que permanecen en todas la regiones de Israel y a los sacerdotes y levitas que están es sus ciudades. Díganle que se unan a nosotros. 3 Permítanos traer el arca de nuestro Dios de vuelta a nosotros, porque nosotros no buscamos su voluntad en los días del reinado de Saúl. " 4 Toda la asamblea estuvo de acuerdo con hacer estas cosas, porque les pareció correcto ante los ojos de todas las personas. 5 Entonces David reunió y unió a todo Israel, desde el río Sihor en Egipto ha Hamat, para traer el arca de Dios desde Quiriat Jearim. 6 David y todo Israel subieron a Baala, que es, Quiriat Jearim, que pertence a Judá, para traer desde el arca de Dios, que es llamada por el nombre del SEÑOR, SEÑOR, que se sienta en el trono sobre los querubines. 7 Entonces ellos colocaron el arca de Dios en una carreta nueva. Ellos la trajeron de la casa de Abinadab. Uza y Ahío estaban guiando la carreta. 8 David y todo Israel estaban celebrando ante Dios con todas sus fuerzas. Ellos estaban cantando con instrumentos de cuerda, tamborines, címbalos y trompetas. 9 Cuando ellos vinieron al campo de trillar de Quidón, Uza extendió su mano para agarrar el arca porque los bueyes tropezaron. 10 Entonces la ira del SEÑOR ardió en contra de Uza y el SEÑOR lo mató, porque Uza había extendido su mano al arca. Él murió allí ante Dios. 11 David estaba enojado porque el SEÑOR había atacado a Uza. Ese lugar es llamado Pérez Uza hasta este día. 12 David le temió a Dios ese dia. Él dijo: "¿Cómo yo puedo traer el arca de Dios a casa conmigo?" 13 Así que David no movió el arca a la ciudad de David, pero la puso a un lado en la casa de Obed Edom el Geteo. 14 El arca de Dios permaneció en la casa de Obed Edom por tres meses. Entonces el SEÑOR bendijo su casa y todo lo que él poseía.

---

1 Chronicles 13:1

de miles y cientos
El ejército tenía comandantes que lideraban grupos de soldados de diferentes tamaños. TA: "más de 1.000 hombres y más de 100 hombres"

les pareció correcto ante los ojos de todas las personas Aquí los "ojos" representan los pensamientos y opiniones de las personas. TA: "toda la gente pensaba que estas eran las cosas correctas para hacer"

1 Chronicles 13:5

Información general:
See:

Baala
Este es otro nombre para Quiriat Jearim.

que se sienta en el trono sobre los querubines
TA: "quien gobierna entre las estatuas de criaturas aladas en el arca del pacto"

1 Chronicles 13:7

Información general:
See:

una carreta nueva
Este es un vehículo con ruedas tirado por un animal que nunca se ha usado antes.

tamborines instrumentos musicales con una cabeza como un tambor que puede golpearse y con piezas de metal alrededor del lado que suenan cuando se sacuden los instrumentos

címbalos
dos placas metálicas delgadas y redondas que se unen para hacer un sonido fuerte

1 Chronicles 13:9

Información general:
See:

la ira del SEÑOR ardió en contra de Uza TA: "El SEÑOR estaba muy enojado con Uza"

ante Dios
TA: "en presencia de Dios"

David estaba enojado
David estaba enojado con el SEÑOR.

hasta este día
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:42

1 Chronicles 13:12

Información general:
See:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Cómo yo puedo traer el arca de Dios a casa conmigo?
David está expresando su enojo por la muerte de Uza cuando intentaba llevar el arca de regreso a su ciudad. TA: "No puedo devolver el arca de Dios a mi ciudad" o "Dime cuáles son las Leyes sobre cómo mover el arca, no sé cómo hacerlo"

tres meses
"3 meses"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 Entonces Hiram, el rey de Tiro, envió mensajeros a David y árboles de cedro, carpinteros y albañiles. Ellos construyeron una casa para él. 2 David sabía que el SEÑOR lo había establecido como rey de Israel y que su reino fue exaltado en lo alto por el bien de su pueblo de Israel. 3 En Jerusalén, David tomó más esposas y se convirtió en el padre de más hijos e hijas. 4 Estos fueron los nombres de los hijos que le nacieron a él en Jerusalén: Samúa, Sobab, Natán, Salomón, 5 Ibhar, Elisúa, Elpelet, 6 Noga, Nefeg, Jafía, 7 Elisama, Belliada y Elifet. 8 Ahora cuando los filisteos escucharon que David había sido ungido como rey sobre todo Israel, todos ellos fueron en busca de él. Pero David escuchó sobre ello y fue en contra de ellos. 9 Los filisteos habían venido y saquearon el valle de Refaim. 10 Entonces David pidió ayuda a Dios. Él dijo: "¿Debería de atacar a los filisteos? ¿Me entregarás victoria sobre ellos?" El SEÑOR le dijo: "Ataca, porque Yo ciertamente te los entregaré a ti." 11 Así que ellos subieron a Baal Perazim y allí él los venció. Él comentó: "Por mi mano el SEÑOR ha penetrado a mis enemigos como un torrente de agua." Así que el nombre de ese sitio se convirtió en Baal Perazim. 12 Los filisteos abandonaron a sus dioses allí y David dio una orden que debían de ser quemados. 13 Entonces los filisteos saquearon el valle una vez más. 14 Así que David le pidió a Dios ayuda otra vez. Dios le dijo a él: "No debes de atacarlos de frente, sino más bien rodealos por detrás y ven sobre ellos a través de los bosques de bálsamo. 15 Cuando escuches el sonido de marcha en el viento que sopla a través de las copas de árboles de bálsamo, luego ataca con fuerza. Haz esto porque Dios habrá salido por delante de ustedes para atacar al ejército de los filisteos." 16 Así que David hizo como Dios ordenó. Él venció el ejército de los filisteos desde Gabaon todo el camino hasta Gezer. 17 Entonces la fama de David se extendió por todas las tierras y el SEÑOR provocó que todas las naciones le temieran.

---

1 Chronicles 14:1

Hiram
Este es el nombre del rey.

carpinteros
Estas son personas cuyo trabajo es hacer cosas con madera.

albañiles
Estas son personas cuyo trabajo es hacer cosas con piedra o ladrillo.

lo había establecido como TA: "lo hizo"

su reino fue exaltado en lo alto por el bien de su pueblo de Israel TA: "El SEÑOR dio honor al reino de David para ayudar al pueblo de Israel"

1 Chronicles 14:3

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 14:8

David había sido ungido como rey sobre todo Israel TA: "el pueblo de Israel había ungido a David como su rey"

valle de Refaim
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

1 Chronicles 14:10

los entregaré a ti
TA: "darte la victoria sobre ellos"

Baal Perazim
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Por mi mano
Esto se refiere a los recursos de David. TA: "usando mi ejército" como un torrente de agua El poder y la victoria del ejército de David se compara con una inundación de agua. TA: "fácilmente"

que debían de ser quemados TA: "quemar a sus dioses falsos"

1 Chronicles 14:13

el valle
"el valle de Refaim"

atacarlos de frente TA: "atacarlos desde el frente"

rodealos por detrás y ven sobre ellos a través de los bosques de bálsamo TA: "atraviesa el bosque de bálsamos y ataca desde atrás"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

bálsamo
Este es un tipo de árbol.

1 Chronicles 14:15

Información general:
Dios continúa su respuesta a la pregunta de David.

salido por delante de ustedes
TA: "salió delante de ti para luchar por ti"

Gezer
Este es el nombre de un pueblo.

la fama de David se extendió por todas las tierras TA: "La gente de lejos escuchó sobre la victoria de David sobre los filisteos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 David construyó casas para si mismo en la ciudad de David. Él preparó un lugar para el arca de Dios y levantó una tienda para ella. 2 Entonces David dijo: "Sólo los levitas pueden cargar el arca de Dios porque ellos han sido escogidos por el SEÑOR para cargar el arca del SEÑOR y para servirle a Él por siempre." 3 Entonces David reunió a todo Israel en Jerusalén para subir el arca del SEÑOR al lugar que él había preparado para ella. 4 David reunió a los descendientes de Aarón y los levitas. 5 Desde los descendientes de Coat estaba Uriel, el líder, y sus parientes, 120 hombres. 6 De los descendientes de Merari estaba Asaías, el líder, y sus parientes, 220 hombres. 7 De los descendientes de Gersón estaba Joel, el líder, y sus parientes, 130 hombres. 8 De los descendientes de Elizafán estaba Semaías, el líder, y sus parientes, 200 hombres. 9 De los descendientes de Hebrón estaba Eliel, el líder, y sus parientes, ochenta hombres. 10 De los descendientes de Uziel estaba Aminadab, el líder, y sus parientes, 112 hombres. 11 David llamó a Sadoc y Abiatar, los sacerdotes; y a los levitas Uriel, Asaías, Joel, Semaías, Eliel y Aminadab. 12 Él les dijo: "Ustedes son los líderes de las familias levitas. Santifíquense a sí mismos, a ustedes y sus hermanos, para que puedan subir el arca del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, al lugar que yo le he preparado a ella. 13 Ustedes no la cargaron la primera vez. Por eso fue que el SEÑOR estalló contra nosostros, porque nosotros no lo buscamos a Él ni obedecimos su decreto." 14 Así que los sacerdotes y los levitas se consagraron a sí mismos para poder subir el arca del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 15 Entonces los levitas cargaron el arca de Dios con las barras sobre sus hombros, como Moisés había ordenado-- siguiendo las reglas dadas por la palabra del SEÑOR. 16 David habló a los líderes de los levitas para asignarle a sus hermanos que fueran músicos con instrumentos músicales, intrumentos de cuerda, harpas y címbalos, tocando en voz alta y levantando sus voces con alegría. 17 Entonces los levitas nombraron a Hemán, hijo de Joel, y a uno de sus hermanos, Asaf, hijo de Berequías. Ellos también nombraron parientes de los descendientes de Merari y Etán, hijo de Cusaías. 18 Con ellos estaban sus parientes de segundo rango: Zacarías, Jaazielm Semiramot, Jehiel, Uni, Eliab, Benaía, Maasías, Matatías, Elifelehu, Micnías, Obed Edom y Jeiel, los guardianes. 19 Los músicos Hemán, Asaf y Etán fueron ordenados que tocaran en voz alta címbalos de bronze. 20 Zacarías, Aziel, Semiramot, Jehiel, Uni, Eliab, Maasías, Benaía tocaron los instrumentos de cuerda, preparados para Alamot. 21 Matatías, Elifelehu, Micnías, Obed Edom, Jeiel y Azazías dirijieron el camino con las arpas preparadas para Seminit. 22 Quenaías, líder de los levitas, él era el director de canto porque era maestro de música. 23 Berequías y Elcana eran guardianes del arca. 24 Sebanías, Josafat, Natanael, Amasai, Zacarías, Nebaía y Eliezer, los sacerdotes, tocarían las trompetas ante el arca de Dios. Obed Edom y Jehías eran guardianes del arca. 25 Entonces David, los ancianos de Israel y los comandantes sobre miles fueron a sacar el arca del pacto del SEÑOR de la casa de Obed Edom con gozo. 26 Mientras Dios ayudaba a los levitas que cargaban el arca del pacto del SEÑOR, ellos sacrificaron siete bueyes y siete carneros. 27 David estaba vestido con una túnica de lino fino, como lo estaban los levitas que cargaban el arca, los cantantes y Quenanías, el líder de la canción, con los cantantes. David estaba usando un efod de lino. 28 Entonces todo Israel subió el arca del pacto del SEÑOR con gritos de alegría, y con el sonido de cuernos, con címbalos y con intrumentos de cuerdas y arpas. 29 Pero cuando el arca del pacto del SEÑOR vino a la ciudad de David, Mical, la hija de Saúl, miró por la ventana. Ella vió al rey David bailando y celebrando. Entonces ella lo despreció en su corazón.

---

1 Chronicles 15:1

David construyó casas para si mismo TA: "La gente construyó casas para David"

preparó un lugar
AT: "ordenó que se hiciera un lugar especial"

reunió a todo Israel TA: "ordenó que todo el pueblo de Israel se uniera"

para subir el arca
TA: "para celebrar mientras los levitas llevan el arca"

1 Chronicles 15:4

Información general:
See: and

parientes
personas que son parte de la misma familia o tribu

1 Chronicles 15:7

Información general:
See: and

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 15:11

Información general:
See:

yo le he preparado
TA: "He ordenado a los levitas que se preparen"

1 Chronicles 15:13

Ustedes no la cargaron la primera vez
"No llevaron el arca antes"

nosotros no lo buscamos a Él TA: "no le pedimos instrucciones"

estalló contra nosostros TA: "nos castigó"

los levitas se consagraron a sí mismos para poder subir TA: "Los levitas se limpiaron para llevar"

1 Chronicles 15:16

Información general:
See:

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13: 7.

levantando sus voces TA: "cantando"

segundo rango
TA: "una posición inferior de poder" o "2do rango"

guardianes
personas que protegen puertas

1 Chronicles 15:19

Información general:
See:

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13: 7.

Alamot ... Seminit
El significado de estas palabras no está claro, pero puede referirse a un estilo de música.

dirijieron el camino
"dirigió a los otros músicos" o "dirigió a los procesionales"

1 Chronicles 15:22

Información general:
See:

1 Chronicles 15:25

sobre miles
TA: "de más de 1.000 hombres"

Obed Edom
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

1 Chronicles 15:27

David estaba vestido con una túnica de lino fino, como lo estaban los levitas que cargaban el arca, los cantantes y Quenanías, el líder de la canción, con los cantantes.
TA: "David, los levitas y los cantantes llevaban túnicas de lino"

lino
Este es un tipo de tela suave y resistente.

Quenanías
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

Entonces todo Israel subió el arca del pacto del SEÑOR TA: "Entonces una gran multitud de israelitas trajo el arca del pacto del SEÑOR de la casa de Obed Edom a Jerusalén"

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:7.

1 Chronicles 15:29

el arca del pacto del SEÑOR vino a la ciudad de David TA: "el pueblo trajo el arca del pacto del SEÑOR a la ciudad de David"

Mical
Este es el nombre de la esposa de David.

despreció en su corazón TA: "le faltó el respeto profundamente en su pensamiento"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 Ellos trajeron el arca de Dios y la pusieron en el medio de la tienda que David había arreglado para ella. Entonces ellos ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz. 2 Cuando David terminó de sacrificar las ofrendas quemadas, bendijo las personas en el nombre del SEÑOR. 3 Él distribuyó a todo israelita, a ambos, mujeres y hombres, un pedazo de pan, un pedazo de carne y un pastel de pasas. 4 David señaló a ciertos levitas para servir frente al arca del SEÑOR, para celebrar, agradecer y alabar al SEÑOR el Dios de Israel. 5 Estos levitas fueron Asaf, el líder, y el segundo después de él, Zacarías, Jeiel, Semiramot, Jehiel, Matatias, Eliab, Benaía, Obed-Edom y Jeiel. Estos debían tocar instrumentos de cuerda y arpas. Asaf hacía sonar los címbalos fuertemente. 6 Benaía y Jahaziel, los sacerdotes, sonaban los cuernos regularmente frente al arca del pacto de Dios. 7 Entonces, en ese día, David primero señaló a Asaf y a sus hermanos para cantar este cántico de agradecimiento al SEÑOR. 8 Den gracias al SEÑOR, invoquen su nombre; den a conocer sus obras entre las naciones. 9 Cánten a Él, cánten alabanzas a Él; hablen de todas sus obras maravillosas. 10 Gloríense en su santo nombre; que el corazón de aquellos que buscan al SEÑOR se regocije. 11 Busquen al SEÑOR y su fuerza; busquen su presencia contínuamente. 12 Recuerden las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho, sus milagros y los decretos de su boca, 13 ustedes descendientes de Israel sus siervos, ustedes pueblo de Jacob, sus elegidos. 14 Él es el SEÑOR nuestro Dios. Sus decretos están en toda la Tierra. 15 Mantengan su pacto en mente por siempre, la palabra que Él ordenó para mil generaciones. 16 Recuerden el pacto que Él hizo con Abraham y su juramento a Isaac. 17 Esto fue lo que Él confirmó a Jacob como estatuto y a Israel como su pacto eterno. 18 Él dijo: "Yo les daré la tierra de Canaán como parte de su herencia." 19 Yo dije esto cuando ustedes eran pocos en números, muy pocos y extranjeros en la tierra. 20 Ellos iban de nación en nación, de un reino a otro. 21 Él no permitió que nadie los oprimiera; Él castigó a reyes por su bien. 22 Él dijo: "No toquen a mis ungidos y no le hagan daño a mis profetas". 23 Canten al SEÑOR, toda la Tierra; anuncien su salvación día tras día. 24 Declaren su gloria entre las naciones, sus maravillosas obras entre las naciones. 25 Porque el SEÑOR es grande y debe ser alabado grandemente y debe ser temido sobre todos los otros dioses. 26 Porque todos los dioses de las naciones son ídolos, pero Él es el SEÑOR que hizo los cielos. 27 Esplendor y majestad hay en su presencia. Fuerza y gozo en su lugar. 28 Den al SEÑOR, ustedes los clanes de personas, den al SEÑOR gloria y fuerza; 29 Den al SEÑOR la gloria que merece su nombre. Traigan una ofrenda y vengan delante de Él. Inclínense delante del SEÑOR en su santo esplendor. 30 Tiemble delante de Él, toda la Tierra. El mundo también es establecido; no puede ser sacudido. 31 Que los cielos se alegren y que la Tierra se regocije; que digan entre las naciones: "El SEÑOR reina." 32 Que ruja el mar y todo lo que lo llena grite de alegría. Que los campos se alegren y todo lo que hay en ellos. 33 Entonces dejen que los árboles del bosque griten de alegría delante del SEÑOR, porque Él viene a juzgar la Tierra. 34 Denle gracias al SEÑOR, porque Él es bueno, porque la fidelidad de su pacto dura para siempre. 35 Entonces digan: "Sálvanos, Dios de nuestra salvación. Júntanos y rescátanos de las otras naciones, para que podamos dar gracias a tu santo nombre y gloria en tus alabanzas." 36 Que el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, sea alabado desde la eternidad hasta la eternidad. Todo el pueblo dijo: "Amen" y alabaron al SEÑOR. 37 Así que David dejó a Asaf y a sus hermanos allí frente al arca del pacto del SEÑOR, para servir contínuamente frente al arca, de acuerdo a su trabajo requerido a diario. 38 Obed-Edom con los sesenta y ocho familiares estaban incluidos. Obed-Edom, hijo de Jedutún, juntamente con Hosa, fueron los porteros. 39 Sadoc, el sacerdote, y sus compañeros sacerdotes estaban para servir frente al tabernáculo del SEÑOR en el lugar alto en Gabaón. 40 Ellos tenian que ofrecer ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR contínuamente mañana y noche, de acuerdo con todo lo escrito en la ley del SEÑOR, que fue entregada como mandato a Israel. 41 Hemán y Jedutún estaban con ellos juntamente con el resto que fueron escogidos por nombre, para dar gracias al SEÑOR, por su eterno pacto de fidelidad. 42 Hemán y Jedutún estaban a cargo de tocar las trompetas, címbalos y otros instrumentos para la música sagrada. Los hijos de Jedutún guardaban la puerta. 43 Entonces todo el pueblo regresó a sus casas y David regresó y bendijo a su propia familia.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 16:1

Ellos trajeron el arca TA: "Los israelitas trajeron el arca" pedazo de pan

una porción de pan horneado con levadura

pasas
Estas son uvas secas, una pequeña fruta que crece en una vid.

1 Chronicles 16:4

Información general:
See:

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:7.

1 Chronicles 16:7

Entonces, en ese día
Esto se refiere al día en que el arca del pacto fue trasladada de la casa de Obed Edom a Jerusalén.

cántico de agradecimiento TA: "canción dando gracias"

invoquen su nombre TA: "reza al SEÑOR"

1 Chronicles 16:10

en su santo nombre
TA: "en quien es Dios"

que el corazón de aquellos que buscan al SEÑOR
AT: "deja que aquellos que quieran conocer al SEÑOR mejor"

Busquen al SEÑOR y su fuerza; busquen su presencia contínuamente Estas frases comparten significados similares y se usan para enfatizar. TA: "Busca al SEÑOR y su poder; busca estar siempre cerca de él"

1 Chronicles 16:12

Recuerden las cosas maravillosas TA: "Recuerden las cosas estupendas"

de su boca TA: "que él habló"

ustedes descendientes de Israel sus siervos, ustedes pueblo de Jacob, sus elegidos Estas frases comparten significados similares y se usan para enfatizar.

Sus decretos están en toda la Tierra
TA: "Sus leyes son para todas las personas de la tierra"

1 Chronicles 16:15

Mantengan su pacto en mente TA: "Recuerda el pacto del SEÑOR"

mil generaciones
"1.000 generaciones"

Recuerden
TA: "El SEÑOR recuerda" como parte de su

"como su parte de"

1 Chronicles 16:19

Yo dije esto cuando ustedes eran pocos en números, muy pocos TA: "El SEÑOR dijo esto cuando los israelitas eran un grupo muy pequeño de personas" extranjeros en la tierra

"extraños en la tierra"

de nación en nación, de un reino a otro
Estas frases comparten significados similares y enfatizan cuán lejos habían vagado los israelitas.

Él no permitió
"El SEÑOR no permitió"

por su bien
"para ellos"

1 Chronicles 16:23

Información general:
See:

toda la Tierra
Todo en la tierra trae gloria a Dios.

día tras día
TA: "todos los días"

1 Chronicles 16:25

Esplendor y majestad hay en su presencia
TA: "el esplendor y la majestad están a su alrededor".

Fuerza y gozo en su lugar TA: "El SEÑOR muestra claramente su poder y gozo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 16:28

Den al SEÑOR
"Alabado sea el SEÑOR por" que merece su nombre

"Se lo merece o es digno de recibir"

1 Chronicles 16:30

Tiemble delante de Él
TA: "Mostrar temor respetuoso al pensar en Él"

Que los cielos se alegren y que la Tierra se regocije TA: "Que todos estén contentos en todas partes".

1 Chronicles 16:32

Que ruja el mar
TA: "El mar hará un grito muy fuerte".

lo que lo llena TA: "las criaturas del mar"

dejen que los árboles del bosque griten de alegría
Esto habla de los árboles como si fueran personas que pudieran gritar de alegría.

1 Chronicles 16:36

desde la eternidad hasta la eternidad
TA: "para siempre"

Todo el pueblo
TA: "La gente" o "Todos los que están allí"

1 Chronicles 16:37

Información general:
See:

de acuerdo a su trabajo requerido a diario TA: "como se requería todos los días en la ley mosaica" para servir frente al tabernáculo TA: "para servir en o cerca del tabernáculo"

1 Chronicles 16:40

Información general:
See:

Ellos
"Los sacerdotes"

1 Chronicles 16:42

Información general:
See:

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:7.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 Pasó que después que el rey había arreglado su casa, él le dijo a Natán el profeta: "Mira, yo estoy viviendo en una casa de cedro, pero el arca del pacto del SEÑOR se está quedando bajo una tienda." 2 Entonces Natán le dijo a David: "Ve, haz lo que está en tu corazón, pues Dios está contigo." 3 Pero aquella misma noche la palabra de Dios vino a Natán diciendo: 4 "Ve y dile a David mi siervo: 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: Tú no vas a construirme una casa en la cual vivir. 5 Pues Yo no he vivido en una casa desde el día que Yo traje a Israel hasta el día presente. De lo contrario, Yo he estado viviendo en una tienda, un tabernáculo, en varios lugares. 6 En todos los lugares yo me he movido entre todo Israel, ¿Acaso yo alguna vez dije algo a alguno de los líderes de Israel a quienes Yo he determinado como pastor de mi pueblo diciendo:"¿Por qué no me has construido una casa de cedro?"" 7 "Entonces, dile a mi siervo David: 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice: Yo te saqué de los pastizales, de pastoriar ovejas, para que tú fueras el gobernante sobre mi pueblo de Israel. 8 Yo estuve contigo dondequiera que fuiste y derroté a todos tus enemigos delante de tí, y Yo voy a hacer un nombre para ti como el nombre de los grandes que están en la Tierra. 9 Yo te asignaré un lugar para mi pueblo Israel y voy a plantarlos a allí para que ellos puedan vivir en su propio lugar y no sean más molestados. No serán más oprimidos por personas malvadas, como lo hacían antes, 10 como ellos lo hicieron desde los días que Yo ordené jueces sobre mi pueblo Israel. Entonces Yo voy a dominar a todos tus enemigos. Además, Yo te digo que Yo, el SEÑOR, voy a construirte una casa. 11 Sucederá que cuando tus días se cumplan para que vayas a tus padres, Yo voy a levantar a un desendiente después de ti; y a uno de tus propios desendientes, Yo voy a establecer su reino. 12 Él me va a construir una casa, y Yo voy a establecer su trono para siempre. 13 Yo voy a ser un padre para Él y Él será mi Hijo. Yo no voy a quitar mi pacto de fidelidad de Él, como lo quité de Saúl, que reinó antes de ti. 14 Yo lo estableceré sobre mi casa y en mi reino para siempre, y su trono será establecido para siempre."' 15 Natán le habló a David y le reportó todas estas palabras, y él le contó sobre la visión completa. 16 Entonces David el rey entró y se sentó ante el SEÑOR; él dijo: "¿quién soy yo, SEÑOR Dios, y qué es mi familia para que tú me hallas traído hasta este punto? 17 Pues esto era una asunto pequeño en tu vista, Dios. Tú has hablado de la familia de tu siervo sobre un gran tiempo por venir, y me has mostrado futuras generaciones, SEÑOR Dios. 18 ¿Qué más yo, David, puedo decirte a Ti? Tú has honrado a tu siervo. Tú le has dado a tu siervo un reconocimiento especial. 19 SEÑOR, por el bien de tu siervo, y para cumplir tu propio propósito, tú has hecho esta gran cosa de revelar todas tus grandes obras. 20 SEÑOR, no hay nadie como tú, y no hay nadie fuera de ti, justo como nosotros hemos escuchado siempre. 21 Pues ¿qué nación en la Tierra es como tu pueblo Israel, quien como tú, Dios; los rescataste de Egipto como personas solo para tí, para hacer un nombre para tí mediante grandes y asombrosas obras? Tú sacaste naciones delante de tu pueblo, a quienes tú rescataste de Egipto. 22 Tú hiciste de Israel tu propio pueblo para siempre, y tú, SEÑOR, te convertiste en su Dios. 23 Así que, SEÑOR, que la promesa que tú hiciste conforme a tu siervo y su familia sea establecida por siempre. Haz como tú has hablado. 24 Que tu nombre sea establecido para siempre y sea grande, para que la gente diga: 'El SEÑOR de los ejércitos es el Dios de Israel', mientras mi casa, David, tu siervo sea establecida delante de tí. 25 Pues tú, mi Dios, has revelado a tu siervo que tú le construirás una casa. Es por esto que yo, tu siervo, he encontrado valor para orarte a tí. 26 Ahora, SEÑOR, Tú eres Dios, y has hecho esta buena promesa a tu siervo: 27 Te ha complacido bendecir la casa de tu siervo, para que continúe por siempre delante tí. Tú, SEÑOR, la has bendecido, y será bendecida para siempre."

---

1 Chronicles 17:1

arreglado
estar cómodo y feliz, sin el deseo de moverse o cambiar.

una casa de cedro
La madera de los cedros se consideraba la mejor madera para la construcción.

haz lo que está en tu corazón
David se refiere a la parte del cuerpo asociada con las emociones. TA: "haz lo que te gustaría hacer"

Dios está contigo
Estar de acuerdo con Dios es como trabajar con él porque Dios te ayudará a tener éxito. TA: "Dios está de acuerdo con lo que quieres hacer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 17:3

la palabra de Dios vino
"Dios habló su palabra"

que Yo traje a Israel TA: "que traje a los israelitas a la tierra prometida desde la tierra de Egipto" una tienda, un tabernáculo

Las palabras "tienda" y "tabernáculo" describen lo mismo y enfatizan que había vivido en un lugar que no era un edificio permanente.

¿Por qué no me has construido una casa de cedro?
TA: "Deberías haberme construido una casa con madera cara".

1 Chronicles 17:7

Yo te saqué de los pastizales Se habla del trabajo de David como pastor del lugar de donde cuidaba de sus ovejas. TA: "Te saqué de tu trabajo como pastor"

pastizales
Vea cómo tradujo esta palabra en 4:39.

1 Chronicles 17:9

Información general:
Dios continúa hablando el mensaje que se supone que Natán debe darle a David.

voy a plantarlos a allí Dios se refiere a poner a Israel en la tierra prometida como una planta que él ha puesto en la tierra. TA: "Los ubicaré allí" See:

desde los días que Yo ordené Se refiere a los días como a un período de tiempo de muchas generaciones. TA: "cuando ordené" o "de las generaciones que ordené"

sobre mi pueblo Israel
Se refiere al estar en autoridad como estar por encima de alguien. TA: "para mandar a mi pueblo Israel"

todos tus enemigos ... Yo te digo Las palabras "tus" y "te" se refieren a David.

dominar
hacer que una persona o animal no pueda atacar.

voy a construirte una casa
El SEÑOR se refiere a darle a David muchos descendientes para gobernar sobre Israel como construirle una casa.

1 Chronicles 17:11

cuando tus días se cumplan
La vida se conoce como un cierto número de días. TA: "cuando mueras"

Información general:

vayas a tus padres
Esta frase se refiere a la muerte como un lugar donde están los antepasados de David porque ya están muertos.

Yo voy a levantar a un desendiente
Poner a alguien en el liderazgo se entiende como elevarlo más alto.

Yo voy a establecer su trono
El derecho a gobernar como rey se describe por el lugar donde se sienta un rey.

1 Chronicles 17:13

y su trono
El derecho de un rey a gobernar se refiere al lugar donde se sienta un rey. TA: "y su derecho a gobernar"

le reportó
"le dijo"

1 Chronicles 17:16

él dijo
"David dijo"

¿quién soy yo, SEÑOR Dios, y qué es mi familia para que tú me hallas traído hasta este punto?
David hace esta pregunta para expresar su gratitud porque Dios ha elegido bendecirlo a pesar de que no lo merece.

esto era una asunto pequeño
Se habla de pequeño como algo que no es importante.

en tu vista
La vista del SEÑOR se usa para referirse a su comprensión. TA: "para ti" ¿Qué más yo, David, puedo decirte a Ti?

David usa esta pregunta para expresar que no puede expresar completamente su agradecimiento a Dios. TA: "Si pudiera decir más para expresar mi gratitud, lo haría, pero no sé qué más decir".

tu siervo
David se refiere a sí mismo como el siervo del SEÑOR.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú has honrado a tu siervo. Tú le has dado a tu siervo un reconocimiento especial.
Ambas frases tienen el mismo significado. Si su idioma solo tiene una forma de expresar "honor" y "reconocimiento", entonces esto se puede traducir como una frase.

1 Chronicles 17:19

por el bien de tu siervo TA: "mi beneficio"

los rescataste de Egipto TA: "rescatado de la esclavitud en Egipto.

grandes y asombrosas obras
Las palabras "grandes" y "asombrosas" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad de la grandeza. TA: "hechos muy impresionantes".

1 Chronicles 17:22

sea establecida por siempre TA: "continuar para siempre"

1 Chronicles 17:25

le construirás una casa
Se describe como construir una casa a tener hijos y desarrollar una familia numerosa.

he encontrado valor TA: "ser lo suficientemente valiente"

la has bendecido, y será bendecida para siempre Significa lo mismo, se repite aquí para enfatizar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Después de esto, acontenció que David atacó los a filisteos y los derrotó. Él tomó a Gat y sus aldeas fuera del control de los filisteos. 2 Luego él derrotó a Moab, y los moabitas se volvieron sirvientes de David y le pagaron tributo. 3 Luego, David derrotó a Haded Ezer, rey de Soba en Hamat, mientras Hadad Ezer estaba viajando para establecer su gobierno en el río Éufrates. 4 David se apoderó de mil carros, siete mil hombres de a caballo y veintemil sirvientes de Haded. David laceró una pata a todos los caballos de los carruajes, pero reservó suficientes de ellos para cien carruajes. 5 Cuando los arameos de Damasco vinieron a ayudar a Hadad Ezer rey de Soba, David mató veintidos mil hombres arameos. 6 Luego David puso tropas en Aram de Damasco, y los arameos se convirtieron en sirvientes de él y le trajeron tributo a él. El SEÑOR le dio la victoria a David por donde quiera que él iba. 7 David tomó los escudos de oro que estaban sobre los sirvientes de Hadad Ezer y los trajeron a Jerusalén. 8 Desde Tibhat y Cun, ciudades Hadad Ezer, David tomó muchísimo bronce. Fue con este bronce que Salomón luego hizo el mar de bronce, los pilares y las herramientas de bronce. 9 Cuando Tou, rey de Hamat, escuchó que David había derrotado a todo el ejército de Hadad Ezer rey de Soba, 10 Tou mandó Adoram, su hijo, al rey David para saludarlo y bendecirlo porque David peleó contra Hadad Ezer y lo derrotó y porque Hadad Ezer había preparado guerra contra Tou. Adoram trajo con él objetos de plata, oro y bronce. 11 El rey David separó estos objetos para el SEÑOR junto con la plata y el oro que él cargó desde todas las naciones: Edom, Moab, la gente de Amón, los filisteos y Amalec. 12 Abisai, hijo de Sarvia, mató dieciocho mil edomitas en el Valle de Sal. 13 Él ubicó tropas en Edom y todos los edomitas se volvieron sirvientes de David. El SEÑOR le dio victoria a David por donde quiera que él iba. 14 David reinó sobre todo Israel y él administró justicia y juicio a todo su pueblo. 15 Joab, hijo de Sarvia, fue el comandante del ejército y Josafat, hijo de Ahilud, fue registrador. 16 Sadoc, hijo de Ahitob, y Abimelec, hijo de Abiatar, fueron sacerdotes y Savsá fue escriba. 17 Benaía, hijo de Joiada, estuvo sobre los cereteos y peleteos, y los hijos de David fueron los consejeros principales del rey.

---

1 Chronicles 18:1

Después de esto
"Después de la promesa de Dios de bendecir a David"

1 Chronicles 18:3

Haded Ezer
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

Soba
Este es el nombre de un país.

mil carros
"1.000 carros"

siete mil hombres de a caballo Estos son soldados que montaban a caballo. "7.000 jinetes"

veintemil sirvientes Estos son soldados que caminaban. "20.000 lacayos"

laceró una pata lisiar a una persona o animal cortando el músculo isquiotibial en la parte posterior del muslo

reservó para un uso especial

cien carruajes
"100 carruajes"

1 Chronicles 18:5

mató veintidos mil dos mil - "mató a 22.000".

tropas
grupos de soldados asignados a un área en particular.

1 Chronicles 18:7

Hadad Ezer
Vea cómo tradujo su nombre en 18:3.

Tibhat ... Cun
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

el mar de bronce
Este es un gran tazón de bronce, de unos 5 metros de diámetro, que se mantuvo en el templo para el lavado ceremonial.

1 Chronicles 18:9

Tou ... Adoram
Estos son nombres de hombres.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

peleó contra
"estado en guerra con"

1 Chronicles 18:12

Abisai ... Sarvia
Estos son nombres de hombres.

dieciocho mil edomitas
"18.000 edomitas"

Valle de Sal
Este es el nombre de un valle entre Edom y Judá que se utilizó como campo de batalla.

tropas
grupos de soldados asignados a un área en particular.

todos los edomitas se volvieron sirvientes de David
"La gente de Edom se vio obligada a aceptar a David como su rey y a pagar dinero al gobierno de David todos los años"

1 Chronicles 18:14

Sarvia ... Ahilud ... Ahitob ... Abiatar ... Savsá ... Benaía ... Joiada
Estos son nombres de hombres.

registrador
la persona que escribe detalles de eventos especiales.

Abimelec
Esta ortografía representa una corrección de la ortografía "Abimelech", que siguen algunas versiones. La ortografía corregida hace que este versículo concuerde con 8:15.

Sadoc, hijo de Ahitob, y Abimelec, hijo de Abiatar, fueron sacerdotes Algunas versiones corrigen esto para decir que Ahitob y Abimelec fueron sumos sacerdotes.

cereteos ... peleteos
Estos son los nombres de los grupos de personas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 Ocurrió que después de esto Nahas, rey de los Amonitas murió, y su hijo fue rey en su lugar. 2 David dijo: "Mostraré bondad a Hanún hijo de Nahas porque su padre demostró bondad conmigo." Así que David envió mensajeros a él para consolarlo respecto a su padre. Los siervos de David entraron a la tierra de los Amonitas y fueron a Hanún, para poder consolarlo. 3 Pero los príncipes de los amonitas dijeron a Hanún: "Crees tú que David está honrando a tu padre porque envió hombres a consolarte? ¿No será que sus siervos vienen a ti para explorar y examinar la tierra para derrocarla?" 4 Así que Hanún agarró a los siervos de David, los rapó, cortó sus ropas desde la cintura hasta la cadera y los envió de regreso. 5 Cuando le explicaron esto a David, envió a mensajeros para que se ruenieran con ellos con un mensaje porque los hombres estaban profundamente avergonzados. El rey dijo: "Quédense en Jericó hasta que sus barbas crezcan otra vez, y entonces regresen." 6 Cuando los amonitas se dieron cuenta que se habían convertido en una molestia para David, Hanún y los amonitas enviaron mil talentos de plata para alquilar carruajes arameos y hombres de a caballo de Aram, Maaca y de Soba. 7 Ellos le alquilaron a los arameos treintidos mil carruajes con el rey de Maaca y su gente, que vinieron y acamparon antes de Medeba. Los amonitas se reunieron y juntos desde sus ciudades salieron para la guerra. 8 Cuando David escuchó sobre esto, él envió a Joab y su ejército completo para encontrarse con ellos. 9 La gente de Amón salieron y se alinearon para la batalla en la puerta de la ciudad mientras los reyes que habían venido estaban solos en el campo. 10 Cuando Joab vio las filas de batalla al frente y en la retaguardia, escogió algunos de los mejores guerreros de Israel y los organizó contra los arameos. 11 En cuanto al resto del ejercito, él puso al mando a Abisai su hermano y los puso en filas de batalla en contra del ejército de Amón. 12 Joab dijo: "Si los arameos son muy fuertes para mi, entonces tú, Abisai, debes rescatarme. Pero si el ejército de Amón es demasiado fuerte para ti, entonces yo vendré y te rescataré. 13 Sé fuerte y deja que nosotros demostremos ser fuerte para nuestro pueblo y para las ciudades de Dios porque el Señor hará lo que es bueno para su propósito." 14 Así que Joab y los soldados de su ejército avanzaron a la batalla en contra de los arameos, que fueron forzados a huir del ejército de Israel. 15 Cuando el ejército de Amón vio que los arameos habían huído, ellos también huyeron del hermano de Joab, Abisai, y regresaron a la ciudad. Entonces Joab regresó de la gente de Amón y regresó a Jerusalén. 16 Cuando los arameos vieron que ellos estaban siendo derrotados por Israel, ellos enviaron por refuerzos desde el Rio Eufrates con Sofac el comandante de Hadad Ezer. 17 Cuando esto le fue dicho a David, el reunió a todo Israel y juntos cruzó el Jordán y vino sobre ellos. Él organizó el ejército para la batalla en contra de los arameos y ellos pelearon contra él. 18 Los arameos huyeron de Israel, y David mató a siete mil arameos de los carruajes y cuarenta mil soldados de a pie. También mató a Sofac, el comandante del ejército. 19 Cuando todos los reyes que eran siervos de Hadad Ezer vieron que habían sido derrotados por Israel, ellos hicieron la paz con David y le sirvieron. Así que el pueblo de Aram ya no estaba dispuesto a ayudar a los amonitas.

---

1 Chronicles 19:1

Nahas ... Hanún
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Mostraré bondad ... demostró bondad TA: "Seré amable ... fui amable" consolarlo

"confortar"

Crees tú que David está honrando a tu padre porque envió hombres a consolarte?
TA: "No debes pensar que David está honrando a tu padre porque ha enviado hombres para consolarte".

¿No será que sus siervos vienen a ti para explorar y examinar la tierra para derrocarla?
TA: "Seguramente sus sirvientes vienen a ti a explorar la tierra para derrocarla".

1 Chronicles 19:4

ropas
"vestidos"

envió a mensajeros para que se ruenieran con ellos
"envió algunos mensajeros para alentarlos"

profundamente avergonzados
La vergüenza se describe como profunda para mostrar que los ha afectado enormemente. TA: "muy avergonzado"

1 Chronicles 19:6

se habían convertido en una molestia para David La palabra "molestia" se refiere a un mal olor. Esto describe a los amonitas como algo desagradable y no deseado.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mil talentos
"1.000 talentos"

talentos

Aram ... Maaca ... Soba ... Medeba
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

1 Chronicles 19:8

escuchó sobre esto
"escuchó que los amonitas estaban saliendo para la guerra"

para encontrarse con ellos
"luchar contra ellos"

1 Chronicles 19:10

Abisai
Este es el nombre del hermano de Joab.

1 Chronicles 19:12

Sé fuerte
"Sé valiente"

deja que nosotros demostremos ser fuerte
TA: "comportémonos audazmente".

1 Chronicles 19:14

avanzaron a la batalla
TA: "siguieron adelante a la batalla" o "se acercó a los soldados enemigos en la batalla"

1 Chronicles 19:16

los arameos vieron
"los arameos entendieron"

refuerzos
"más soldados"

Sofac ... Hadad Ezer
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Cuando esto le fue dicho a David TA: Cuando sus mensajeros le dijeron esto a David organizó

"ordenó"

ellos pelearon contra él
"Los arameos lucharon contra David y sus soldados"

1 Chronicles 19:18

mató a siete mil
"mató a 7.000"

cuarenta mil soldados de a pie
"40.000 soldados de a pie"

Sofac ... Hadad Ezer
Estos son nombres de hombres.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Y sucedió que en la primavera, en el tiempo en que normalmente los reyes van a la guerra, Joab guió el ejército a la batalla y devastó la tierra de los amonitas. Él fue y sitió a Rabá. David se quedó en Jerusalén. Joab atacó a Rabá y la derrotó. 2 David tomó la corona de la cabeza del rey de ellos y notó que pesaba treinta y cuatro kilogramos de oro y que en ella había piedras preciosas. La corona fue puesta en la cabeza de David y él sacó el botín de la cuidad en grandes cantidades. 3 Él sacó a la gente que estaba en la cuidad afuera y los forzó a trabajar con sierras, picos de hierro y hachas. David le exigió a todas las ciudades de la gente de Amón a hacer este trabajo. Entonces David y todo el ejército regresó a Jerusalén. 4 Y sucedió que después de esto hubo una batalla en Gezer con los filisteos. Sibecai, el husatita, mató a Sipai, uno de los descendientes de los gigantes; y los filisteos fueron dominados. 5 Pasó otra vez en una batalla con los filisteos en Gob, que Elhanán, hijo de Jair el betlemita, mató a Lahmi, hermano de Goliat el hitita, de que el bastón de su lanza era como una viga de tejer. 6 Y sucedió que en otra batalla en Gat había un hombre de gran altura que tenía seis dedos en cada mano y seis dedos en cada pie. Él también fue descendiente de los gigantes. 7 Cuando él se burló del ejército de Israel, Jonatán, hijo de Simea, hermano de David, lo mató. 8 Estos eran descendientes de los gigantes de Gat; y ellos fueron asesinados por la mano de David y por la mano de sus soldados.

---

1 Chronicles 20:1

devastó la tierra
"destruyó la tierra" Esto se refiere a cuándo un ejército iba a arruinar la tierra donde sus enemigos cultivaban alimentos.

1 Chronicles 20:2

talento

La corona fue puesta en la cabeza de David TA: "Los hombres de David le pusieron la corona en la cabeza"

botín
objetos valiosos tomados en la guerra.

David le exigió a todas las ciudades de la gente
Las personas son referidas por su ciudad. TA: "David exigió a todos los pueblos de las ciudades"

1 Chronicles 20:4

Gezer ... Gob
Estos son nombres de ciudades. (See:

Sibecai ... Sipai ... Elhanán ... Jair ... Lahmi Estos son nombres de hombres. (See:

husatita ... gigantes ... betlemita ... hitita Estos son nombres de grupos de personas.

dominados
controlar a alguien o algo mediante el uso de la fuerza.

bastón
Un poste largo y delgado.

una viga de tejer
un trozo de madera usado para estirar cuerdas mientras los hilos de una alfombra se tejen a su alrededor.

1 Chronicles 20:6

gigantes
Este es el nombre dado a una raza de personas que eran muy altas y fuertes.

Jonatán ... Shimea
Estos son nombres de hombres.

ellos fueron asesinados por la mano de David y por la mano de sus soldados
David y sus soldados se refieren a la parte de sus cuerpos utilizada para sostener una espada. TA: "David y sus soldados mataron a los descendientes de los gigantes"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 Un adversario se levantó contra Israel e incitó a David a hacer un conteo de Israel. 2 David le dijo a Joab y a los comandantes del ejército: "Vayan y hagan conteo del pueblo de Israel desde Beerseba hasta Dan y reportenlo a mí para que yo sepa su número." 3 Joab dijo: "Que el Señor haga su ejército cien veces mayor de lo que es. Pero mi amo, el rey, ¿no le sirven todos a mi amo? ¿Por qué mi amo desea esto? ¿Por qué traer culpa sobre Israel?" 4 Pero al final la palabra del rey fue en contra Joab. Por tanto, Joab se fué y cruzó por todo Israel. Entonces, él regresó a Jerusalén. 5 Entonces Joab reportó el total de el conteo de de todos guerreros de David. Habían en Israel 1, 100, 000 hombres que sacaban la espada. Judá sólo tenía 470, 000 soldados. 6 Pero Leví y Benjamín no estaban contados entre ellos, ya que la orden del rey había disgustado a Joab. 7 Dios se ofendió por esta acción, por lo tanto atacó a Israel. 8 David le dijo a Dios: "Yo he pecado grandemente al hacer esto. Ahora quíta la culpa de tu siervo porque he actuado muy neciamente." 9 El Señor dijo a Gad, profeta de David: 10 "Ve dile a David: 'Esto es lo que el Señor dice: Te voy a dar tres alternativas. Escoje una de ellas."' 11 Entonces Gad fue a David y le dijo: "El Señor dice esto: 'Escoje uno de estos: 12 tres años de hambruna, tres meses siendo perseguido por sus enemigos y siendo atrapados por sus espadas, o tres días de la espada del Señor, eso es, una plaga en la tierra, con el ángel del Señor destruyendo toda la tierra de Israel.' Ahora pues, decide cual respuesta le llevaré al que me envió." 13 Entonces David le dijo a Gad: "Yo tengo un grave problema. Déjame caer en la mano del SEÑOR en vez de la mano del hombre ya que Sus acciones de misericordia son muy grandes." 14 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR envió una plaga sobre Israel y setenta mil personas murieron. 15 Dios envió un ángel a Jerusalén para destruirlo. Cuando ya estaba a punto de destruirla, el SEÑOR miró y cambió de parecer sobre el daño. Le dijo al ángel destructor: "¡Basta! Ahora retirá tu mano." En ese momento el ángel del SEÑOR estaba parado en el campo de trillar de Ornán, el Jebuseo. 16 David alzó su mirada y vió al ángel del SEÑOR parado entre la Tierra y el cielo; tenía en su mano una espada extendida sobre Jerusalén. Entonces David y los ancianos, vestidos de cilicio, se acostaron boca abajo sobre la tierra. 17 David le dijo Dios: "¿No fui yo el que ordenó que el ejército fuese contado? Yo hice esta cosa malvada. ¿Pero estas ovejas, qué han hecho? ¡SEÑOR mi Dios! Deja que tu mano me golpee a mí y a mi familia, pero que tu plaga no repose sobre tu pueblo." 18 Entonces el ángel del SEÑOR ordenó a Gad que le dijera a David, que David debería subir y edificar un altar para el SEÑOR en el campo de trillar de Ornán, el Jebuseo. 19 Entonces David subió tal como Gad le instruyó que hiciera en el nombre del SEÑOR. 20 Mientras Ornán trillaba el trigo, se giró y vió al ángel. Él y sus cuatro hijos se escondieron. 21 Cuando David vino a Ornán, Ornán miró y vió a David. Él dejó el campo de trillar y se inclinó a David con su rostro sobre tierra. 22 Entonces David dijo a Ornán: "Véndeme este el campo de trillar para que yo pueda edificar un altar para el SEÑOR. Yo pagaré el precio completo para que la plaga pueda ser removida de mi pueblo." 23 Ornán le dijo a David: "Tómalo como tuyo, mi amo el rey. Haz con él lo que es bueno antes tus ojos. Mira, te daré bueyes para las ofrendas quemadas, y los trineos de trillar para madera, y trigo para la ofrenda de grano; te lo daré todo a ti." 24 El rey David le dijo a Ornán: "No, yo insisto en comprarlo por el precio completo. No tomaré lo que es tuyo y ofrecerlo como ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR si no me cuesta nada." 25 Por tanto, David pagó seis siclos de oro por el lugar. 26 David edificó un altar para el SEÑOR allí y ofreció sobre el ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz. Llamó al SEÑOR, que le contestó con fuego desde el cielo sobre el altar para las ofrendas quemadas. 27 Entonces el SEÑOR dió una orden al ángel, y el ángel regresó su espada a la vaina. 28 Cuando David vió que el SEÑOR le había contestado en el campo de trillar de Ornán, el Jebuseo, él llevó a cabo el sacrificio allí a la misma vez. 29 Para ese tiempo, el tabernáculo del SEÑOR que Moisés había hecho en el desierto y en el altar para las ofrendas quemadas, estaban en el lugar alto en Gabaón. 30 Sin embargo, David no podía ir allí para pedir la dirección de Dios porque le temía a la espada del ángel del SEÑOR.

---

1 Chronicles 21:1

Un adversario se levantó contra Israel
Ser más alto describe ser más poderoso. TA: "Un enemigo de Israel se volvió más poderoso"

incitó
Haber causado que alguien actúe.

desde Beerseba hasta Dan
Los israelitas consideraban estas dos ciudades sus ciudades más al sur y más al norte. David usa estas ciudades para referirse a todo Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

cien veces mayor de lo que es
Joab expresa el deseo de un ejército del tamaño de 100 ejércitos para decir que le gustaría que el ejército tenga más soldados y sea más poderoso.

Pero mi amo, el rey, ¿no le sirven todos a mi amo? ¿Por qué mi amo desea esto? ¿Por qué traer culpa sobre Israel?"
TA: Pero mi señor el rey, todos ya te sirven. Mi amo no debería pedir esto. Solo traerá culpa al pueblo de Israel por su deseo de poder militar ".

¿Por qué mi amo desea esto?
La palabra "esto" se refiere al plan de David para contar a todos los hombres de Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:4

Pero al final la palabra del rey fue
Esta frase se refiere a la orden del rey David de ser final porque no cambiaría su orden después de que fuera dada. TA: "la orden del rey no iba a cambiar"

hombres que sacaban la espada
Los soldados en Israel son descritos por la acción de sacar una espada para luchar.

1 Chronicles 21:6

Pero Leví y Benjamín no estaban contados entre ellos TA: "Pero Joab no contó a los hombres de las tribus de Leví y Benjamín"

por esta acción
"esta acción" se refiere al plan de David de contar a todos los hombres de Israel que pueden luchar.

take away your servant's guilt
El perdón se describe como tener la culpa quitada. TA: "perdóname"

la culpa de tu siervo
David se refiere a sí mismo como el siervo de Dios. TA: "mi culpa"

1 Chronicles 21:11

siendo atrapados por sus espadas
Esta frase es una forma leve de describir ser asesinado por el enemigo.

la espada del Señor
Esta frase describe el método de matar del SEÑOR mediante la herramienta que un soldado usaría para matar.

destruyendo
TA: "matando"

1 Chronicles 21:13

Yo tengo un grave problema
TA: "Estoy en una gran cantidad de problemas"

Déjame caer en la mano del SEÑOR en vez de la mano del hombre ya que Sus acciones de misericordia son muy grandes TA: "Déjame estar bajo el control del SEÑOR, en lugar de estar bajo el control de la gente, porque el SEÑOR es muy misericordioso".

y setenta mil personas murieron
"y 70.000 personas murieron"

cambió de parecer Cambiar una decisión.

retirá tu mano
El SEÑOR le dice al ángel destructor que deje de matar a la gente.

el ángel del SEÑOR estaba parado
El ángel del SEÑOR se describe como algo que se pararía como lo haría una persona.

Ornán
Esto es el nombre de un hombre.

1 Chronicles 21:16

tenía en su mano una espada extendida TA: "listo para atacar"

¿No fui yo el que ordenó que el ejército fuese contado?
TA: "Yo fui quien ordenó que se contara el ejército".

Pero estas ovejas
David describe al pueblo de Israel como un tipo de animal que confiará y seguirá a un líder.

¿qué han hecho?
TA: "Ciertamente no han hecho nada que merezca castigo".

1 Chronicles 21:18

Ornán
Vea cómo tradujo su nombre en 21:13.

tal como Gad le instruyó que hiciera en el nombre del SEÑOR TA: "como Gad, hablando con la autoridad del SEÑOR, le había dicho a David que hiciera".

1 Chronicles 21:21

con su rostro sobre tierra Esta frase describe que Ornán se inclinó hacia adelante. Hacer una reverencia ante alguien es una forma de mostrar humildad y respeto. Una reverencia más profunda muestra mayor humildad y respeto.

precio completo
TA: "Pagaré el precio completo que vale este piso de trilla"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 21:23

Tómalo como tuyo
TA: "Tómalo como un regalo"

lo que es bueno antes tus ojos
La comprensión de David se describe como su vista.
TA: "lo que te parece bien"

trineos de trillar
un trineo de madera con rocas o metal colocado debajo, que se usa para separar el grano de sus tallos tirando de él sobre el trigo colocado en el piso de engrase.

1 Chronicles 21:25

seis siclos de oro
"600 siclos de oro"

siclos

Llamó al SEÑOR
"Oró al SEÑOR por ayuda"

el ángel regresó su espada a la vaina TA: el ángel dejó de matar gente ".

vaina
Una funda para una espada o un cuchillo.

1 Chronicles 21:28

Ornán
Vea cómo tradujo su nombre en 21:13.

dirección de Dios TA: Dios le diga lo que debe hacer "

temía a la espada del ángel del SEÑOR TA: "miedo de que el ángel del SEÑOR lo matara"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 Entónces David dijo:" Aquí es donde la casa del SEÑOR Dios va a estar con el altar para las ofrendas quemadas de Israel." 2 Así que, David ordenó a sus siervos que reunieran a todos los extranjeros que estaban viviendo en la tierra de Israel. Él los asignó como cortadores de piedras para cortar bloques de piedra con el fin de construir la casa de Dios. 3 David suplió una gran cantidad de hierro para los clavos de las puertas que van en las entradas y para las bisagras. Él también suplió más bronce del que se podían pesar, 4 y más árboles de cedro de los que se podían contar. (Los sidonios y los tirios trajeron a David muchos troncos para contar.) 5 David dijo:" Mi hijo Salomón es joven y sin experiencia, y la casa que se va a construir para el SEÑOR debe ser especialmente magnífica, para que sea famosa y gloriosa en todas las otras tierras. Así que, yo me prepararé para su construcción." Así que David hizo extensos preparativos antes de su muerte. 6 Entónces él llamó a Salomón, su hijo, y le encargó que construyera una casa para el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 7 David le dijo a Salomón:"Hijo mio, era mi intención construir la casa yo mismo para el nombre del SEÑOR mi Dios. 8 Pero el SEÑOR vino a mi y me dijo: 'Tú haz derramado mucha sangre y haz peleado muchas batallas. Tú no construirás casa en Mi nombre porque a mi vista, has derramado mucha sangre en la tierra. 9 Sin embargo tendrás un hijo que será un hombre de paz. Le daré descanso de todos sus enemigos por todos lados. Su nombre será Salomón y le daré paz y quietud a Israel en sus días. 10 Él construirá una casa para Mi nombre. Él será Mi hijo y Yo seré su Padre. Yo estableceré el trono de su reino sobre Israel por siempre.' 11 Hijo mio, El SEÑOR esté contigo y te permita tener éxito. Que puedas construir la casa para el SEÑOR tu Dios así como Él dijo que harías. 12 Soló el SEÑOR podrá darte visión y entendimiento para que puedas obedecer la ley del SEÑOR tu Dios cuando Él te ponga a cargo sobre Israel. 13 Entonces tú tendrás éxito, si tú cuidadosamente obedeces los estatutos y decretos que el SEÑOR le dió a Moisés concernientes a Israel. Se fuerte y valiente. No tengas temor ni te desanimes. 14 Mira, con gran esfuerzo he preparado para la casa del SEÑOR 3, 400 toneladas métricas de oro, 34, 000 toneladas métricas de plata, y bronze y hierro en grandes cantidades. También he provisto madera y piedra. Tú debes añadir más a todo esto. 15 Tú tienes muchos trabajadores contigo: cortadores de piedras, carpinteros, albañiles y numerosos artesanos diestros de cada tipo, 16 que pueden trabajar con oro, plata, bronze y hierro. Así que comienza a trabajar y que el SEÑOR esté contigo." 17 David también ordenó a todos los líderes de Israel que ayudaran a Salomón su hijo, diciendo: 18 "El SEÑOR tú Dios está contigo y te ha dado paz en todos lados. Él me ha dado el poder sobre los habitantes de la región. La región estará sometida ante el SEÑOR y Su pueblo. 19 Busca al SEÑOR tu Dios con todo tu corazón y tu alma. Levántate y construye el lugar santo del SEÑOR tu Dios. Entonces, tú podrás traer el arca del pacto del SEÑOR y las cosas que pertenecen a Dios a la casa que se construirá para el nombre del SEÑOR."

---

1 Chronicles 22:1

cortadores de piedras
Estas eran personas que juntaban piedras grandes y las cortaban al tamaño correcto para que los constructores pudieran usar las rocas en paredes y edificios.

1 Chronicles 22:3

bisagras
"abrazaderas" o "bisagras". Estos son elementos que conectan dos cosas juntas.

que se podían pesar TA: "de lo que cualquiera podría pesar"

que se podían contar TA: "de lo que cualquiera podría contar"

la casa que se va a construir para el SEÑOR TA: "La casa del SEÑOR" o "la casa que él construirá para el SEÑOR"

1 Chronicles 22:6

él llamó
"David llamó"

le encargó que construyera ... mi intención construir
"ordenó a los trabajadores que construyeran ... mi plan era contratar trabajadores para construir"

para el nombre del SEÑOR mi Dios
"para honrar al SEÑOR mi Dios"

Tú haz derramado mucha sangre
"has matado a mucha gente"

Tú no construirás casa en Mi nombre
"No construirás un templo para honrarme"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

porque a mi vista, has derramado mucha sangre en la tierra
"porque sé que has matado a mucha gente"

1 Chronicles 22:9

Información general:
David continúa diciéndole a Salomón lo que el SEÑOR le dijo.

por todos lados
Esto significa en todos los lugares que rodean a Israel.

en sus días
"mientras él gobierna sobre Israel"

una casa para Mi nombre TA: "un templo para honrarme"

Él será Mi hijo y Yo seré su Padre
Dios tratará a Salomón como si fuera el propio hijo de Dios.

Yo estableceré el trono de su reino sobre Israel por siempre Aquí "trono" se refiere a la autoridad para gobernar como rey. TA: "Haré que sus descendientes gobiernen sobre Israel para siempre"

1 Chronicles 22:11

Información general:
David continúa hablando con Salomón.

Ahora
David usa esta palabra para presentar algo importante que está a punto de decir.

Que puedas construir TA: "Que tengas éxito en dirigir el edificio"

cuando Él te ponga a cargo sobre Israel
"cuando te haga rey de Israel"

1 Chronicles 22:14

Información general:
David continúa hablando con Salomón.

Ahora
Esto introduce algo importante que David está a punto de decir.

talentos
Un talento es una unidad de peso. Es igual a 33 kilogramos.

un millón
"1.000.000"

1 Chronicles 22:15

Información general:
David continúa hablando con Salomón.

cortadores de piedras, carpinteros
Ambos son trabajadores que cortan piedra y la preparan para que los constructores la utilicen en paredes y edificios.

carpinteros
Estas son personas que trabajan con madera.

1 Chronicles 22:17

tu ... tú
Estos pronombres son plurales en 22: 18-19.

te ha dado paz en todos lados
"te ha dado la paz de la guerra en todos los lugares de Israel"

Él me ha dado el poder sobre los habitantes de la región
"Me ha dado poder sobre todos los que viven a nuestro alrededor"

La región estará sometida ante el SEÑOR y Su pueblo
"El SEÑOR y su gente controlan su tierra"

Ahora
Esta palabra introduce algo importante que David está a punto de decir.

Busca al SEÑOR tu Dios TA: "intenta que el SEÑOR tu Dios te preste atención" todo tu corazón y tu alma

"sinceramente" o "de todo corazón"

Levántate y construye el lugar santo TA: "Levántate y dirige a los trabajadores mientras construyen el lugar sagrado"

la casa que se construirá para el nombre del SEÑOR
"el templo que construirás para honrar al SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 Cuando David estaba viejo y cerca del fin de su vida, hizo a Salomón, su hijo, rey sobre Israel. 2 Él reunió a todos los líderes de Israel, con los sacerdotes y levitas. 3 Los levitas que tenían 30 años o más fueron contados. Su total fue de treinta y ocho mil. 4 "De estós, veinticuatro mil les tocaba vigilar el trabajo de la casa del SEÑOR y seis mil eran oficiales y jueces. 5 Cuatro mil eran guardianes y cuatro mil les tocaba adorar al SEÑOR con los instrumentos que yo hice para adorar", dijo David. 6 Él los dividió a ellos en grupos que correspondían a los hijos de Leví: Gersón, Coat y Merari. 7 Laadán y Simeí eran de los clanes descendientes de Gersón. 8 Habían tres de los hijos de Laadán: Jehiel, el líder, Zetam y Joel. 9 Habían tres de los hijos de Simeí: Selomit, Haziel y Harán. Estos fueron los líderes de los clanes de Laadán. 10 Habían cuatro de los hiijos de SImeí: Jahat, Zina, Jeús y Beríá. 11 Jahat fue el mayor y Zina el segundo, pero Jeús y Bería no tuvieron muchos hijos asi que fueron considerados como un mismo clan con las mismas responsabilidades. 12 Habían cuatro de los hijos de Coat: Amram, Izhar, Hebró y Uziel. 13 Estos fueron los hijos de Amram: Aarón y Moises. Aarón fue escogido para separar las cosas más sagradas y él y sus descensientes ofrecerían incienso ante el SEÑOR, para servirle a Él y para bendecir su nombre por siempre. 14 Pero en cuanto a Moisés, el hombre de Dios, sus hijos fueron considerados ser levitas. 15 Los hijos de Moisés eran Gersón y Eliezer. 16 Los descendientes de Gersón era Sebuel, el mayor. 17 El descendiente de Eliezer fue Rehabías. Eliezer no tenía más hijos, pero Rehabías tuvo muchos descendientes. 18 El hijo de Izhar fue Selomit, el líder. 19 Los descendientes de Hebrón fueron Jerías, el mayor, Amarías, el segundo, Jahaziel, el tercero y Jecamán, el cuarto. 20 Los hijos de Uziel fueron Micaía, el primero e Isaía, el segundo. 21 Los hijos de Merari fueron Mahli y Musi. Los hijos de Mahli eran Eleazar y Cis. 22 Eleazar murió sin tener ningún hijo. Soló tuvo hijas. Los hijos de Cis se casaron con ellas. 23 Los hijos de Musi fueron Mahli, Eder y Jeremot. 24 Estos fueron los descendientes de Leví correspondiente a sus clanes. Ellos eran los líderes, contados y listados por nombres, de los clanes que hicieron el trabajo en la casa del SEÑOR, de veinte años y más. 25 Por cuanto David dijo: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, le ha dado descanso a su pueblo. Él hace su hogar en Jerusalén para siempre. 26 Los levitas no tendrán que cargar más el tabernáculo ni todo el equipo utilizado en su servicio." 27 Por las últimas palabras de David los levitas de veinte años y más fueron contados. 28 Su deber fue asistir a los descendientes de Aarón en el servicio de la casa del SEÑOR. Ellos iban a cuidar de los patios, los cuartos, la ceremonia de purificación de todas las cosas que le pertenecían al SEÑOR y otros trabajos en la casa de Dios. 29 También se encargaban del pan de la precencia, la harina fina para las ofrendas de trigo, el pan sin levadura, las ofrendas horneadas, las ofrendas mescladas con aceite y todas las medidas de los tamaños y las cantidades de las cosas. 30 También ellos se levantaban cada mañana para agradecer y adorar al SEÑOR. También hacían esto todas las tardes 31 y cada vez que ofrecieran ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR en el día de reposo y en los festivales de luna nueva y días de fiestas. Un número fijo asignado por decreto siempre tenía que estar presente ante el SEÑOR. 32 Ellos estaban a cargo de la tienda de reunión, el lugar santo, y ayudaban a sus parientes descendientes de Aarón en el servicio de la casa del SEÑOR.

---

1 Chronicles 23:1

Información general:
David nombra a Salomón como su sucesor y organiza sacerdotes levíticos y personal para el servicio en el templo.

Los levitas que tenían 30 años o más fueron contados
TA: "Algunos de los hombres de David contaron a los levitas que tenían 30 años o más"

Su total fue de treinta y ocho mil
ocho mil- TA: "Hubo 38.000"

1 Chronicles 23:4

De estos, veinticuatro mil cuatro mil - TA: "De estos levitas, 24.000"

seis mil
"6.000 levitas"

oficiales y jueces
Estos levitas escucharon argumentos legales y administraron justicia de acuerdo a la ley de Moisés.

cuatro mil
"4.000 levitas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

guardianes
Estos levitas vigilaban la entrada del templo para que nadie inmundo entrara.

que correspondían a "basado en" o "según los descendientes de"

Gersón, Coat y Merari
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Levi.

1 Chronicles 23:7

Información general:
Esta es la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

1 Chronicles 23:10

Información general:
Esta es la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

asi que fueron considerados como un mismo clan TA: "entonces David los consideró como un clan"

1 Chronicles 23:12

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

Habían cuatro de los hijos de Coat
TA: "Coat tuvo 4 hijos"

Aarón fue escogido para separar las cosas más sagradas TA: "El SEÑOR eligió a Aaron para dedicar las cosas más santas" para bendecir su nombre por siempre TA: "bendecir a la gente como representantes de Dios para siempre" sus hijos fueron considerados ser levitas TA: "sus hijos eran parte del clan levita". Los hijos de Moisés fueron levitas.

1 Chronicles 23:15

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

1 Chronicles 23:19

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

1 Chronicles 23:21

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de levitas según sus clanes.

1 Chronicles 23:24

Estos fueron los descendientes de Leví correspondiente a sus clanes. Ellos eran los líderes, contados y listados por nombres, de los clanes TA: "Estos eran los nombres de los descendientes de Levi y sus familias, a quienes los hombres de David contaron y enumeraron. Eran los líderes de los clanes"

de veinte años y más
TA: "de 20 años y más"

todo el equipo utilizado en su servicio
TA: "todos los equipos que utilizaron en su servicio"

1 Chronicles 23:27

Por las últimas palabras de David los levitas de veinte años y más fueron contados TA: "Porque la última orden de David fue que sus hombres contaran a los levitas"

de veinte años y más
TA: "de 20 años o más"

pan de la precencia
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 9:30.

harina
un polvo que una persona hace al moler el grano

las ofrendas mescladas con aceite
TA: "las ofrendas que alguien mezclaba con aceite"

1 Chronicles 23:30

También ellos se levantaban
"Los levitas también se levantaban"

cada vez que ofrecieran ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR TA: "cada vez que los sacerdotes ofrecían holocaustos al SEÑOR"

festivales de luna nueva
Estos festivales marcaban el comienzo de cada nuevo mes.

Un número fijo asignado por decreto siempre tenía que estar presente ante el SEÑOR TA: "Era el deber de cierto número de levitas estar siempre presentes al hacer ofrendas al SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 Los grupos de trabajo basados en los descendientes de Aarón fueron estos: Nadab, Abiú, Eleazar e Itamar. 2 Nadab y Abiú murieron antes que su padre muriera. No tuvieron hijos así que Eleazar e Itamar sirvieron como sacerdotes. 3 David, junto con Sadoc, un descendiente de Eleazar, y Ahimelec, un descendiente de Itamar, los dividió en grupos para su trabajo como sacerdotes. 4 Habían más hombres líderes entre los descendientes de Eleazar que entre los descendientes de Itamar así que ellos dividieron los descendientes de Eleazar en dieciséis grupos. Ellos hicieron esto por las jefes de clanes y por los descendientes de Itamar. Estas divisiones eran ocho en número, correspondiente a sus clanes. 5 Ellos los dividieron imparcialmente por lote porque ellos eran oficiales santos y oficiales de Dios de ambos descendientes de Eleazar y descendientes de Itamar. 6 Semaías, hijo del escriba Natanael, un levita, escribió sus nombres en la presencia del rey, los oficiales, Sadoc el sacerdote, Ahimelec, hijo de Abiatar, y los líderes de las familias sacerdotales y levitas. Un clan fue tomado al hechar suerte entre los descendientes de Eleazar y entonces el próximo sería tomado al hechar suerte entre los descendientes de Itamar. 7 El primer sorteo de suerte le tocó a Joiarib, el segundo a Jedaías, 8 el tercero a Harim, el cuarto a Seorim, 9 el quinto a Malquías, el sexto a Mijamín, 10 el séptimo a Cos, el octavo a Abías, 11 el noveno a Jesúa, el décimo a Secanías, 12 el undécimo a Eliasib, el duodécimo a Jaquim, 13 el decimotercero a Hupa, el decimocuarto a Jesebeab, 14 el decimoquinto a Bilga, el decimosexto a Imer. 15 el decimoséptimo a Hezir, el decimoctavo a Afisés, 16 el decimonoveno a Petaías, el vigésimo a Hezequiel, 17 el vigesimoprimero a Jaquín, el vigesimosegundo a Gamul, 18 el vigesimotercero a Delaía, y el vigesimocuarto a Maazías. 19 Éste fue el orden de su servicio cuando ellos venían a la casa del Señor siguiendo el procedimiento dado a ellos por Aarón, su ancestro, según el Señor, el Dios de Israel, le había instruído a él. 20 Estos fueron el resto de los levitas: de los hijos de Amram, Subael; de los hijos de Subael, Jehedías. 21 Los hijos de Rehabías: de los hijos de Rehabías, Isías el líder. 22 De los Izharitas, Selomot; de los hijos de Selomot Jahat. 23 Los hijos de Hebrón: Jerías, el líder, Amarías el segundo, Jahaziel el tercero, y Jecamán el cuarto. 24 Los hijos de los descendientes de Uziel incluía a Micaía. Los descendientes de Micaía incluía a Samir. 25 El hermano de Micaía fue Isías. De los hijos de Isías incluían a Zacarías. 26 Los hijos de Merari: Mahli y Musi. El hijo de Jaazías, Beno. 27 Los hijos de Merari: Jaasías, Beno, Soham, Zacur e Ibri. 28 Los hijos de Mahli: Eleazar, que no tenía hijos. 29 Los hijos de Cis, los hijos de Cis: Jerameel 30 Los hijos de Musi: Mahli, Edar y Jerimot. Estos fueron los levitas enlistados según sus familias. 31 Estos hombres que fueron los jefes de cada casa paterna y cada uno de sus hermanos más jóvenes echaron suerte delante de la presencia del rey David, de Sadoc y Ahimelec, junto a los líderes de las familias de los sacerdotes y los levitas. Echaron suerte tal y como los descendientes de Aarón habían hecho.

---

1 Chronicles 24:1

Nadab, Abiú, Eleazar e Itamar.
Vea como se ha traducido estos nombres en el 6:1.

Ahimelec
Este es un nombre masculino.

Los dividió en grupos
"Dividimos a los descendientes de Eleazar e Itamar en grupos"

1 Chronicles 24:4

Ellos dividieron
"David, Sadoc y Ahimelec dividieron"

Dieciséis grupos
"16 grupos"

Estas divisiones eran ocho en número, correspondiente a sus clanes.
"Había 8 divisiones basadas en los clanes de los descendientes de Itamar"

1 Chronicles 24:6

Semaías
Este es un nombre masculino

Natanael
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 15:22.

Ahimelec
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 18:14.

Un clan fue tomado al hechar suerte entre los descendientes de Eleazar y entonces el próximo sería

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tomado al hechar suerte entre los descendientes de Itamar.
Traducción Alterna: " Ellos eligieron al azar a uno de los descendientes de Eleazar, luego eligirían al azar a uno de los descendientes de Itamar"

1 Chronicles 24:7

Información general
Este es el orden de servicio que David, Sadoc y Ahimelec eligieron por sorteo para los descendientes de Eleazar e Itamar.

1 Chronicles 24:11

Información general
Este es el orden de servicio que David, Sadoc y Ahimelec eligieron por sorteo para los descendientes de Eleazar e Itamar.

1 Chronicles 24:15

Información general
Este es el orden de servicio que David, Sadoc y Ahimelec eligieron por sorteo para los descendientes de Eleazar e Itamar.

1 Chronicles 24:19

Siguiendo el procedimiento dado a ellos por Aarón, su ancestro Traducción Alterna: "siguiendo las reglas que Aarón su ancestro les dio"

1 Chronicles 24:20

Información general
Esto comienza con la lista de nombres de los otros hijos de Levi. Esta lista terminará en el 24:29.

Amram
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 6:1.

Subael
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 23:15.

1 Chronicles 24:23

Hebrón ... Jerías ... Amarías ... Jahaziel ... Jecamán
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres masculinos en el 23:19.

Uziel ... Micaía ... Isías
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 23:19.

Samir ... Zacarías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1 Chronicles 24:26

Merari ... Mahli ... Musi ... Eleazar
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres masculinos en el 23:21.

Jaazías ... Beno ... Soham ... Zacur ... Ibri
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1 Chronicles 24:29

Cis ... Musi
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres masculinos en el 23:21.

Jerameel ... Mahli ... Edar ... Jerimot
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Ahimelec
Vea como se ha traducido este nombre en el 18:14.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 David y los líderes del trabajo del tabernáculo seleccionaron a algunos de los hijos de Asaf, Hemán y Jedutún para este trabajo. Estos hombres profetizaban con arpas, instrumentos de cuerdas y címbalos. Aquí está una lista de hombres que hicieron este trabajo. 2 De los hijos de Asaf: Zacur, José, Netanías y Asarela, bajo la dirección de Asaf, que profetizaban bajo la supervisión del rey. 3 De los hijos de Jedutún: Gedalías, Zeri, Jesaías, Simei, Hasabías y Malatatías, seis en total, bajo la dirección de su padre Jedutún, que tocaba el arpa para darle gracias y alabando al SEÑOR. 4 De los hijos de Hemán: Buquías, Matanías, Uziel, Sebuel, Jeremot, Hananías, Hananí, Eliata, Gidalti, Romanti Ezer, Josbecasa, Maloti, Hotir y Mahaziot. 5 Todos estos fueron los hijos de Hemán, rey de los profetas. Dios le dio a Hemán catorce hijos y tres hijas con el fin de honrarlo. 6 Todos estos estaban bajo la dirección de su padre. Ellos eran músicos en la casa del SEÑOR con címbalos e intrumentos de cuerdas mientras ellos servían en la casa de Dios. Asaf, Jedutún y Hemán estaban bajo la supervisión del rey. 7 Ellos y sus hermanos que fueron expertos y entrenados para hacerle música al SEÑOR sumaron a 288. 8 Ellos echaron suerte a sus tareas, todas iguales, las mismas para los jóvenes así como para los ancianos, los maestros asi como para los estudiantes. 9 Respecto a los hijos de Asaf: la primera suerte cayó sobre familia de José; la segunda sobre familia de Gedalías, doce personas en total; 10 la tercera cayó sobre Zacur, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 11 la cuarta cayó sobre Izri, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 12 la quinta cayó sobre Netanías, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 13 la sexta cayó sobre Buquías, sus hijos y sus parintes, doce personas en total; 14 la séptima cayó sobre Jesarela, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 15 la octava cayó sobre Jesahías, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 16 la novena cayó sobre Matanías, sus hijos y sus parientes doce personas en total; 17 la décima cayó sobre Simei, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 18 la undécima cayó sobre Azareel, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 19 la duedécima cayó sobre Hasabías, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 20 la décimotercera sobre Subabel, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 21 la décimocuarta cayó sobre Matatías, sus hijos y a sus parientes, doce personas en total; 22 la décimoquinta cayó sobre Jeremot, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 23 la décimosexta cayó sobre Hananías, sus hijos y parientes, doce personas en total; 24 la decimoséptima cayó sobre Josbecasa, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 25 la decimoctava cayó sobre Hananí, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 26 la decimonovena cayó sobre Maloti, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 27 la vigésima cayó sobre Eliata, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 28 la vigesimoprimera cayó sobre Hotir, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 29 la vigesimosegunda cayó sobre Gidalti, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 30 la vigesimotercera cayó sobre Mahaziot, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total; 31 la vigesimocuarta cayó sobre Romanti, sus hijos y sus parientes, doce personas en total.

---

1 Chronicles 25:1

Címbalos
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 13:7.

Hemán ... Jedutún
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 16:40.

Zacur ... Malatatías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Seis en total
"6 en total"

1 Chronicles 25:4

Información general
Este continúa con la lista de líderes del trabajo del tabernáculo iniciado en el 25:1

Buquías ... Matanías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Hemán
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 16:40.

Catorce hijos y tres hijas
"14 hijos y 3 hijas"

1 Chronicles 25:6

Címbalos
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 13:7.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Jedutún ... Hemán
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 16:40

Sumaron a 288
"fueron doscientos ochenta y ocho hombres"

todas iguales, las mismas para los jóvenes así como para los ancianos, los maestros asi como para los estudiantes.
Esto esta describiendo los extremos. Traducción Alterna: " Todos ellos"

1 Chronicles 25:9

Información general:
Esto comienza con la lista de los 24 sorteados que fueron escogidos para elegir el orden en que las familias servirían. Esta lista termina en 25:29.

La primera ... la quinta
Esto muestra el orden en que fueron elegidas las familias. Traducción Alterna: "número 1 ... número 2 ... número 3 ... número 4 ... número 5" o use "el inicial" para "el primero" y "el siguiente" para todos los siguientes.

la primera suerte cayó sobre familia de José Para todas las demás personas en la lista, el texto especifica que había "doce personas en número". Como esto está implícito, es posible que desee agregar esta declaración sobre José, como lo hace la UDB. Traducción Alterna: "el primer sorteo recayó en la familia de José, doce personas en número"

José ... Zacur ... Netanías
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 25:1.

Gedalías
Vea como se ha traducido este nombre en el 25:1.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Izri
Este nombre se deletrea Zeri en 25:1.

1 Chronicles 25:13

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista comenzada en 25: 9.

sexta ... novena
Esto muestra el orden en que fueron elegidas las familias. Traducción Alterna: "número 6 ... número 7 ... número 8 ... número 9"

Buquías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Jesarela
Esta es otra ortografía para "Asharelah" en 25: 1.

Jesahías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:1.

Matanías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

1 Chronicles 25:17

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista comenzada en 25:9.

Décima ... decimotercera
Su muestra el orden en que fueron elegidas las familias. Traducción Alterna: "número 10 ... número 11 ... número 12 ... número 13"

Simei
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:1.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Azareel
Esta es otra ortografía para "Uzziel" en 25: 4.

Hasabías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:1.

Subabel
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:1.

1 Chronicles 25:21

Información General:
Esto continúa la lista comenzada en 25: 9.

Decimocuarta ... decimoséptima
Esto muestra el orden en que fueron elegidas las familias. Traducción Alterna: "número 14 ... número 15 ... número 16 ... número 17"

Matatías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:1.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Jeremot
Esta es otra ortografía para "Uzziel" en 25:4.

Hananías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Josbecasa
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 25:25

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista comenzada en 25:9.

Decimoctava ... vigésimo primera primero : muestra el orden en que se eligieron las familias. "número 18 ... número 19 ... número 20 ... número 21"

Hanani
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Maloti
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Eliata
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Hotir
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

1 Chronicles 25:29

Información general:
Con esto concluye la lista comenzada en 25:9.

Vigésimo segunda ... vigésimo cuarta segundo ... vigésimo cuarto - Esto muestra el orden en que se eligieron las familias. "número 22 ... número 23 ... número 24"

Gidalti
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Doce personas
"12 personas"

Mahaziot
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

Romanti Ezer
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:4.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Estas fueron las divisiones de los porteros: desde los coreítas, 2 Meselemías, hijo de Coré, un descendiente de Asaf. Meselemías tuvo hijos: Zacarías el primer hijo, Jediael el segundo, Zebadías el tercero, Jatniel el cuarto, 3 Elam el quinto, Johanán el sexto, Elioneai el séptimo. 4 Obed-Edom tuvo hijos: Semaías, el primer hijo, Jozabad el segundo, Joa el tercero, Sacar el cuarto, Natanael el quinto, 5 Amiel el sexto, Isacar el séptimo, y Paultai el octavo porque Dios había bendecido a Obed-Edom. 6 A Semaías, su hijo, le nacieron hijos que se enseñorearon sobre sus familias; ellos fueron hombres con muchas habilidades. 7 Los hijos de Semaías fueron Otni, Rafael, Obed y Elzabad. Sus parientes Eliú y Samaquías fueronn también hombres con muchas habilidades. 8 Todos estos eran descendientes de Obed-Edom. Ellos y sus hijos y sus parientes fueron hombres capaces de hacer sus deberes en el servicio del tabernáculo. Habían sesenta y dos de ellos relacionados a Obed-Edom. 9 Meselamías tuvo hijos y parientes, hombres capaces, dieciocho en total. 10 Hosa, un descendiente de Merari, tuvo hijos: Simri, el líder (aunque él no fue el primer hijo, su padre lo hizo líder), 11 Hilcías el segundo, Tebalías el tercero y Zacarías el cuarto. Todos los hijos de Hosa y sus parientes fueron trece en total. 12 Estas divisiones de los porteros, según sus líderes, tenían responsabilidades, así como sus parientes, para servir en la casa del SEÑOR. 13 Ellos echaron suerte tanto a jóvenes como a ancianos, correspondiendo a sus familias, para cada puerta. 14 Cuando la suerte fue echada por la puerta del este, cayó sobre Selemías. Ellos luego echaron suerte para la puerta del norte; la suerte cayó sobre Zacarias, su hijo, un consejero prudente. 15 A Obed-Edom le fue asignada la puerta del sur y a sus hijos le fueron asignados los almacenes. 16 Supim y Hosa estaban asignados a la puerta del este, cerca de la puerta de Salequet, en la carretera superior. Vigilias fueron establecidas para cada familia. 17 En el este habían seis levitas, en el norte, cuatro por día, en en el sur, cuatro por día y en los almacenes, dos pares. 18 En la corte al oeste fueron puestos cuatro, cuatro en el camino y dos en la corte. 19 Estas fueron las divisiones de los porteros. Fueron llenas por los descendientes de Coré y Merari. 20 Entre los levitas, Ahías estaba a cargo de los tesoros de la casa de Dios y de los tesoros de las cosas que pertenecían al SEÑOR. 21 Los descendientes de Laadán que descendieron de Gersón por medio de él y que fueron líderes de las familias de Laadán, el gersonita, fueron Jehieli y sus hijos, 22 Zetam y su hermano Joel, que supervisaron el almacén de la casa de SEÑOR. 23 También había guardias de los clanes de Amram, Izhar, Hebrón y Uziel. 24 Sebuel, hijo de Gersón, hijo de Moisés, fue supervisor sobre los almacenes. 25 Sus parientes del clan de Eliezer fueron sus hijos Rehabías, el hijo de Rehabías, Jesaías, el hijo de Jesaías, Joram, el hijo de Joram, Zicri y el hijo de Zicri, Selomit. 26 Selomit y sus parientes fueron sobre todos los almacenes guardando las cosas que le pertenecían al SEÑOR, que el rey David, los líderes de las familias, comandantes sobre miles y cientos y los comandantes del ejército habían separado. 27 Ellos separaron el botín ganado en las batallas para el mantenimiento de la casa de SEÑOR. 28 Ellos también estaban a cargo de todo lo que estaba separado para el SEÑOR por el profeta Samuel, Saúl hijo de Cis, Abner hijo de Ner y Joab hijo de Sarvia. Todo aquello que estaba separado para el SEÑOR estaba bajo la guardia de Selomit y sus parientes. 29 De los desciendentes de Izhar, Quenanías y sus hijos estuvieron a cargo de casos civiles de Israel. Ellos fueron oficiales y jueces. 30 De los descendientes de Hebrón, Hasabías y sus hermanos, 1, 700 hombres capaces, estuvieron a cargo del trabjo del SEÑOR y del trabajo del rey. Ellos estuvieron en el lado oeste del Jordán. 31 De los descendientes de Hebrón, Jerías fue el líder de sus descendientes, contados de las listas de sus familias. En el decimocuarto año del reinado de David ellos examinaron los registros y encontraron entre ellos hombres de habilidad en Jazer de Galaad. 32 Jerías tenía 2, 700 parientes que fueron líderes de familia capaces. David los hizo supervisores sobre las tribus de rubenitas, gaditas y la mitad de la tríbu de Manasés, por cada asunto perteciente a Dios y por los asuntos del rey.

---

1 Chronicles 26:1

Información general:
Esto comienza la lista de los porteros.

Coreítas
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 9:17.

Meselemías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 9:20.

Coré
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 9:17.

Asaf
Esta es una ortografía alternativa a "Ebiasaph" en 9:17.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Zacarías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 9:20.

Jediael ... Zebadías ... Jatniel ... Elam ... Johanán ... Elioneai
Estos son nombres masculinos.

El segundo ... tercero ... cuarto séptimo
Esto muestra el orden en que nacieron los hijos. Traducción Alterna: "número 2 ... número 3 ... número 4 ... número 7" o "el siguiente" para cada uno.

1 Chronicles 26:4

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de porteros que comenzaron en 1CH 26:1.

Obed-Edom
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 16:37.

Semaías ... Jozabad ... Joa ... Sacar ... Natanael ... Amiel ... Isacar ... Paultai
Estos son nombres masculinos.

el segundo ... el octavo
Esto muestra el orden en que nacieron los hijos. Traducción Alterna: "número 2 ... número 3 ... número 4 ... número 5 ... número 6 ... número 7 ... número 8" o "el siguiente" para cada uno.

1 Chronicles 26:7

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de guardianes que comenzaron en 1CH 26:1.

Semaías ... Obed-Edom
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:4.

Sus parientes
"Los parientes de Semaías" o "Miembros de la familia de Semaías"

Otni ... Rafael ... Obed ... Elzabad ... Eliú ... Samaquías ... Meselamías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Sesenta y dos de ellos dos de ellos - "62 hombres"

Dieciocho en total
"18 en total"

1 Chronicles 26:10

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de guardianes que comenzaron en 1CH 26:1.

Hosa ... Merari ... Simri ... Hilcías ... Tebalías ... Zacarías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

El segundo ... tercero ... cuarto
Esto muestra el orden en que nacieron los hijos. Traducción Alterna: "número 2 ... número 3 ... número 4" o "el siguiente" para cada uno.

Todos los hijos de Hosa y sus parientes fueron trece en total.
Traducción Alterna: "Había 13 de los hijos y parientes de Hosah".

1 Chronicles 26:12

Tanto a jóvenes como a ancianos
Traducción Alterna: "cada persona" u "hombres de todas las edades

Selemías
Esta es otra ortografía para "Meshelemiah" en 26:1.

Zacarías
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:1.

Cuando la suerte fue echada Traducción Alterna: "Cuando tiraron suerte"

Un consejero prudente
Esta es una persona que muestra buen juicio al tomar decisiones.

1 Chronicles 26:15

A Obed-Edom le fue asignada la puerta del sur y a sus hijos le fueron asignados los almacenes.
"Obed Edom era responsable de vigilar la puerta sur, y sus hijos custodiaban los almacenes".

Obed-Edom
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:4.

Supim
Este es un nombre masculino.

Hosa
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:10.

Salequet
Este es el nombre del portón.

Vigilias fueron establecidas para cada familia.
Traducción Alterna: "Cada familia era responsable de cuidar algo".

1 Chronicles 26:17

seis Levitas
"6 Levitas"

cuatro por día
"4 hombres cada día"

dos pares
"2 pares de hombres" o "2 hombres a la vez"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

En la corte al oeste fueron puestos cuatro
Traducción Alterna: "4 hombres custodiaban la corte hacia el oeste"

Cuatro en el camino y dos en la corte.
"4 hombres vigilaban la carretera, y dos hombres vigilaban la corte"

Fueron llenas por Traducción Alterna: "Ellos fueron"

Merari
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:10.

1 Chronicles 26:20

Los descendientes de Laadán que descendieron de Gersón por medio de él y que fueron líderes de las familias de Laadán, el gersonita, fueron Jehieli y sus hijos
"Jehieli y sus hijos eran descendientes de Ladan, que descendían de Gersón y pertenecían a Laadán. Jehieli y sus hijos eran líderes de las familias de Ladan el Gersonita. Fueron los hijos de Jehieli"

Laadán ... Gersón
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 23:7.

Gersonita
Los descendientes de Gersón.

Jehieli ... Zetam ... Joel
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 23:7.

que supervisaron
"que inspeccionaron"

1 Chronicles 26:23

También había guardias de los clanes
"Los líderes también seleccionaron guardias de los clanes".

Amram ... Izhar ... Hebrón ... Uziel
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 23:15.

Sebuel ... Gersón ... Eliezer ... Rehabías
Vea como se han traducido estos nombres en el 23:15.

Jesaías ... Joram ... Zicri ... Selomit
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1 Chronicles 26:26

miles y cientos
"más de 1,000 hombres y más de 100 hombres"

Botín
Cosas que un ejército toma de sus enemigos después de una victoria.

Cis ... Ner ... Sarvia
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Todo aquello que estaba separado
"Todo lo que los líderes apartaron"

1 Chronicles 26:29

Izhar ... Hebrón
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 23:12.

casos civiles de Israel
Esto se refiere al negocio regular del pueblo de Israel, no conectado con los militares o con el templo. Traducción Alterna: "asuntos diarios del pueblo de Israel".

Quenanías ... Hasabías
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1,700 hombres capaces
"mil setecientos hombres capaces"

del trabajo del SEÑOR y del trabajo del rey.
Traducción Alterna: "Obra realizada para el SEÑOR y el rey".

1 Chronicles 26:31

Hebrón
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 23:12.

Jerías
Esta es otra manera de deletrear "Jeriah". Vea cómo se ha traducido esto en el 23:19.

contados de las listas
Traducción Alterna: "sus nombres estaban en las listas"

En el decimocuarto año del reinado de David "Cuando David había sido rey por 40 años"

Jazer
Este es un nombre masculino.

2700 parientes
"dos mil setecientos familiares"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Esta es la lista de los líderes de las familias israelitas, comandantes de miles y cientos, así también como oficiales del ejército que sirvieron al rey de varias maneras. Cada división militar sirvió mes tras mes durante el año. Cada división tenía veiticuatro mil hombres. 2 Sobre la división para el primer mes estaba Jasobeam hijo de Zabdiel. En su división fueron veinticuatro mil hombres. 3 Él estaba entre los descendientes de Pérez y a cargo de todos los oficiales del ejército por el primer mes. 4 Sobre la división para el segundo mes estaba Dodai, del clan descendiente de Ahoa. Miclot era segundo en rango. En su división habían veinticuantro mil hombres. 5 El comandante del ejército para el tercer mes era Benaía, hijo de Joiada, un sacerdote y líder. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 6 Este es el Benaía que fue el líder de los treinta y sobre los treinta. Amisabad su hijo estaba en su división. 7 El comandante para el cuarto mes fue Asael, hermano de Joab. Zebadías, su hijo, se volvió comandante después de él. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 8 El comandante para el quinto mes fue Samhut, un descendiente de Izra. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 9 El comandante para el sexto mes fue Ira hijo de Iques, de Tecoa. En su división habían veitucuatro mil hombres. 10 El comandante para el séptimo mes fue Heles el pelonita, del pueblo de Efraín. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 11 El comandante para el octavo mes fue Sibecai el husatita, del clan descendiente de Zera. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 12 El comandante para el noveno mes fue Abiezer el anatotita, de la tribu de Benjamín. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 13 El comandante para el décimo mes fue Maharai de la ciudad de Netofa, del clan descendente de Zera. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 14 El comandante para el undécimo mes fue Benaía de la ciudad de Piratón, de la tribu de Efraín. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 15 El comandante para el duodécimo mes fue Heldai de la ciudad de Netofa, del clan descendente de Otoniel. En su división habían veinticuatro mil hombres. 16 Estos fueron los líderes de las tribus de Israel: para la tribu de Rubén, Eliezer, hijo de Zicri, fue el líder. Para la tribu de Simeón, Sefatías, hijo de Maaca, fue el líder. 17 Para la tribu de Leví, Hasabías, hijo de Kemuel, fue el líder y Sadoc lideró a los descendientes de Aarón. 18 Para la tribu de Judá, Eliú, uno de los hermanos de David, fue el líder. Para la tribu de Isacar, Omri, hijo de Micael, fue el líder. 19 Para la tribu de Zabulón, Ismaías, hijo de Abdías, fue el líder. Para la tribu de Neftalí, Jerimot hijo de Azriel fue el líder. 20 Para la tribu de Efraín, Oseas, hijo de Azazías, fue el líder. Para la mitad de la tribu de Manasés, Joel, hijo de Pedaías, fue el líder. 21 Para la mitad de la tribu de Manasés en Galaad, Iddo, hijo de Zacarías, fue el líder. Para la tribu de Benjamín, Jaasiel, hijo de Abner, fue el líder. 22 Para la tribu de Dan, Azareel, hijo de Jeroham, fue el líder. Estos fueron los líderes de las tribus de Israel. 23 David no contó aquellos de veinte años de edad o más jóvenes porque el SEÑOR había prometido aumentar a Israel como las estrellas del cielo. 24 Joab, hijo de Sarvia, comenzó a contar a los hombres, pero no terminó. La ira cayó sobre Israel por esto. Este número no fue escrito en las Crónicas del Rey David. 25 Azmavet, hijo de Adiel, estaba a cargo de las tesorerías. Jonatán, hijo de Uzías, estaba a cargo de los almacenes en los campos, en las ciudades y en las aldeas, y en las torres fortificadas. 26 Ezri, hijo de Quelub, estaba a cargo de los granjeros, aquellos que araban la tierra. 27 Simei de Ramá estaba a cargo de los viñedos, y Zabdi de Sifmot estaba a cargo de las uvas y las bodegas de vino. 28 A cargo de los árboles de olivo y los árboles de sicómoro que estaban en las tierras bajas estaba Baal Hanán de Geder, y a cargo de los almacenes de aceite estaba Joás. 29 A cargo de las manadas que eran pastoreadas en Sarón estaba Sitrai, de Sarón, y a cargo de las manadas que estaban en los valles estaba Safat, hijo de Adlai. 30 A cargo de los camellos estaba Obil el ismaelita, y a cargo de las asnas estaba Jehedías, de Meronot. A cargode los rebaños estaba Jaziz, el agareno. 31 Todos estos fueron encargados de la propiedad del rey David. 32 Jonatán, tío de David, fue un consejero ya que él fue un hombre sabio y un escriba. Jehiel, hijo de Hacmoni, y cuidó a los hijos del rey. 33 Ahitofel fue el consejero del rey, y Husai, del pueblo arquita, fue consejero privado del rey. 34 La posición de Ahitofel fue tomada por Joiada hijo de Benaía, y por Abiatar. Joab fue un comandadnte del ejército del rey.

---

1 Chronicles 27:1

Esta es la lista
Traducción Alterna: "Estos son los nombres"

de varias maneras.
"en diferentes maneras" o "de muchas formas"

Cada división militar
"Cada grupo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

veiticuatro mil hombres cuatro mil hombres - "24.000 hombres"

Durante el año
Traducción Alterna: "Todo el año"

Primer mes
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

Jasobeam hijo de Zabdiel.
Estos son nombres masculinos.

A cargo
"El líder"

1 Chronicles 27:4

el segundo mes
Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de abril y la primera parte de mayo en los calendarios occidentales.

Dodai ... Amisabad
Estos son nombres masculinos.

En su división
"En su grupo militar" o "En su grupo de soldados" veinticuantro mil hombres.

cuatro mil hombres - "24.000 hombres "

El tercer mes
Este es el tercer mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de mayo y la primera parte de junio en los calendarios occidentales.

Los treinta
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 11:10.

1 Chronicles 27:7

El comandante para el cuarto mes fue Asael, hermano de Joab.
"Asael, hermano de Joab, fue el comandante durante el cuarto mes".

Cuarto mes
Este es el cuarto mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de junio y la primera parte de julio en los calendarios occidentales.

Asael ... Iques
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Su división
" su grupo militar"

veinticuatro mil hombres.
cuatro mil hombres - "24.000 hombres "

Quinto mes
Este es el quinto mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de julio y la primera parte de agosto en los calendarios occidentales.

Sexto mes
Este es el sexto mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de agosto y la primera parte de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales.

Tecoa
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

1 Chronicles 27:10

El comandante para el séptimo mes fue Heles el pelonita, del pueblo de Efraín
"Heles, el pelonita, de la gente de Efraín, fue el comandante durante el séptimo mes".

Séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de septiembre y la primera parte de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

Heles ... Sibecai ... Zera ... Abiezer
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Pelonita ... husatita ... anatotita
Estos son nombres de las tribus o clanes.

veinticuatro mil hombres.
cuatro mil hombres - "24.000 hombres "

Octavo mes
Este es el octavo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de octubre y la primera parte de noviembre en los calendarios occidentales.

Noveno mes
Este es el noveno mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de noviembre y la primera parte de diciembre en los calendarios occidentales.

1 Chronicles 27:13

Décimo mes
Este es el décimo mes del calendario hebreo.

Maharai ... Zera ... Heldai ... Otoniel
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Netofa ... Piratón
Estos son nombres de lugares. Es durante la última parte de diciembre y la primera parte de enero en los calendarios occidentales.

veinticuatro mil hombres
cuatro mil hombres - "24.000 hombres "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Undécimo mes
Este es el undécimo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de enero y la primera parte de febrero en los calendarios occidentales.

Duodécimo mes
Este es el duodécimo y último mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de febrero y la primera parte de marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

1 Chronicles 27:16

Eliezer ... Micael
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1 Chronicles 27:19

Ismaías ... Jeroham
Estos son nombres masculinos.

1 Chronicles 27:23

aquellos de veinte años de edad o más jóvenes
"personas de 20 años o menos"

Aumentar a Israel
"Aumentar la población de Israel"

como las estrellas del cielo.
El número de personas de Israel se compara con el número de estrellas para mostrar que había tantas.

La ira cayó sobre Israel
Traducción Alterna: "Dios castigó al pueblo de Israel"

Este número no fue escrito Traducción Alterna: "Nadie escribió este número"

1 Chronicles 27:25

Azmavet ... Zabdi
Estos son nombres masculinos.

A cargo de
"responsable de la custodia"

torres fortificadas
"Torres fuertes"

araban la tierra
Esto significa cavar o romper la tierra antes de plantar.

Sifmot
Este es el nombre de un lugar

Bodegas
Estas son las partes de un edificio que se encuentran debajo del suelo y se utilizan para almacenar vino.

1 Chronicles 27:28

Sicómoro
Este es un tipo de árbol.

Baal Hanán ... Sitrai ... Adlai
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Geder ... Safat
Estos son nombres de lugares.

que eran pastoreadas
"que comía pasto en los campos"

1 Chronicles 27:30

Obil ... Jehedías ... Jaziz
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Ismaelita ... Agareno
Estos son nombres de tribus o clanes.

Merenot
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Todos estos
"Estos hombres"

1 Chronicles 27:32

Jonatán ... Joiada
Estos son nombres masculinos.

Arquita
Este es el nombre de la tribu del clan

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 David reunió a todos los oficiales de Israel en Jerusalén: los oficiales de las tribus, los oficiales de las divisiones que servían al rey en sus trabajos asignados, los comandantes de miles y de cientos, los administradores de todas las propiedades y posesiones del rey y sus hijos, y los oficiales y hombres de guerra incluyendo a los más hábiles de ellos. 2 Entonces David, el rey, se puso de pie y dijo: "Escúchenme, mis hermanos y mi gente. Fue mi intención el construir un templo para el arca del pacto del SEÑOR, un banquillo para nuestro Dios y yo he hecho las preparaciones para construirlo. 3 Pero Dios me dijo: 'Tú no construirás un templo para Mi nombre porque eres un hombre de guerra y has derramado sangre.' 4 Sin embargo, el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, me escogió a mí entre toda la familia de mi padre para ser rey sobre Israel para siempre. Él ha escogido a la tribu de Judá como líder. En la tribu de Judá y en la casa de mi padre, de entre todos los hijos de mi padre, Él me ha escogido a mí para ser rey sobre todo Israel. 5 De los muchos hijos que el SEÑOR me ha dado, Él escogió a Salomón, mi hijo, para sentarse en el trono del reino del SEÑOR, sobre Israel. 6 Él me dijo a mí: 'Salomón, tu hijo, me construirá mi casa y mis patios porque Yo lo he escogido para que sea mi hijo, y yo seré su Padre. 7 Yo estableceré su reino por siempre, si él se mantiene comprometido a obedecer mis mandamientos y decretos, como estás tú en este día.' 8 Entonces, a la vista de todo Israel, esta reunión para el SEÑOR, y en la presencia de nuestro Dios, todos ustedes deben mantener y tratar de cumplir todos los mandamientos del SEÑOR su Dios. Hagan esto para que ustedes puedan poseer esta buena tierra y dejarla como una herencia a sus niños después de ustedes para siempre. 9 En cuanto a ti, Salomón mi hijo, obedece al Dios de tu padre y sírvele a Él con todo tu corazón y con un espíritu dispuesto. Haz esto porque el SEÑOR busca en todos los corazones y entiende cada motivación en los pensamientos de todos. Si tú lo buscas, Él será encontrado por ti, pero si tú lo abandonas, Él te rechazará permanentemente. 10 Date cuenta que el SEÑOR te ha escogido a ti para construir este templo como su sanctuario. Se fuerte y hazlo." 11 Entonces David le dio a Salomón su hijo los planos para la entrada del templo, los edificios del templo, los almacenes, los cuartos superiores, los cuartos interiores, y el cuarto con la tapa de la expiación. 12 Él le dio los planos que había dibujado de los patios de la casa del SEÑOR, todos los cuartos de alrededor, los almacenes de la casa de Dios y las tesorerías para las cosas que le pertenecen al SEÑOR. 13 Él le dio órdenes para las divisiones de los sacerdotes y los levitas, para las responsabilidades asignadas para el servicio de la casa del SEÑOR y para todos los objetos para el servicio en la casa del SEÑOR. 14 Él le dio el peso de todas las vasijas de oro para cada tipo de servicio y de todas las vasijas de plata, para todos los objetos de cada tipo de servicio. 15 Estos detalles fueron dados por peso incluyendo los detalles para los candelabros y lámparas de oro, los detalles según el peso de cada candelabro, para los candelabros de plata y los detalles para el uso adecuado de cada candelabro. 16 Él dio el peso del oro para las mesas del pan de la presencia, para cada mesa y el peso de la plata para las mesas de plata. 17 Él dio el peso del oro puro para los tenedores de carne, vasijas y copas. Él dio el peso de cada uno de los envases de oro y el peso de cada uno de los envases de plata. 18 Él dio el peso del oro refinado para el altar de incienso y del oro para el diseño de los querubines que extienden sus alas y cubren el arca del pacto del SEÑOR. 19 David dijo: "He puesto todo esto en este escrito como el SEÑOR me dirigió y me dio el entendimiento respecto al diseño." 20 David le dijo a Salomón su hijo: "Se fuerte y valiente. Haz el trabajo. No tengas miedo o ansiedad porque el SEÑOR Dios, mi Dios, está contigo. Él no te dejará ni te abandonará hasta que todo el trabajo para el servicio del templo del SEÑOR esté terminado. 21 Mira, aquí están las divisiones de los sacerdotes y levitas para todo el servicio en el templo de Dios. Ellos estarán contigo, junto con todos los hombres dispuestos y diestros, para asistirte en el trabajo y realizar el servicio. Los oficiales y toda la gente están listas para seguir tus órdenes."

---

1 Chronicles 28:1

Oficiales
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 24:4.

trabajos asignados
Trabajo que necesita repetirse, por ejemplo, todos los días o todos los meses.

miles y de cientos
"1,000 y de 100"

propiedades y posesiones
Estas dos palabras comparten significados similares y se refieren a todos los elementos y tierras que poseía el rey.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 28:2

se puso de pie
Traducción Alterna: "se levantó"

Mis hermanos y mi gente.
Estas dos frases comparten significados similares y enfatizan que David y el pueblo de Israel son familia.

El arca del pacto del SEÑOR, un banquillo para nuestro Dios
La segunda frase define la primera frase. El SEÑOR a menudo se refiere al "arca del pacto" como su "taburete".

un templo para Mi nombre Traducción Alterna: "Un templo para mi"

Un hombre de guerra y has derramado sangre.
Ambas descripciones enfatizan lo mismo, a saber, que David había matado personas.

has derramado sangre.
Traducción Alterna: "has matado gente"

1 Chronicles 28:4

Información general:
Davin continúa hablando a los israelitas

rey sobre Israel para siempre Los posibles significados son 1) David y sus descendientes gobernarán a Israel para siempre o 2) David continuará siendo el rey de Israel después de que resucite de entre los muertos.

Toda Israel
Traducción Alterna: "toda la tierra de Israel" o "todos los israelitas"

sentarse en el trono del Traducción Alterna: "gobernar sobre" o "ser el rey de"

reino del SEÑOR, sobre Israel.
Traducción Alterna: "Israel, que en realidad es el reino de Jehová".

1 Chronicles 28:6

Información general:
David continúa hablando a los israelitas

Él me dijo a mí
Traducción Alterna: "Dios me dijo a mi"

Mi casa
La palabra "casa" se refiere al templo del SEÑOR.

Yo lo he escogido para que sea mi hijo, y yo seré su Padre.
Esto no significa que Salomón se convierta en un verdadero hijo de Dios, sino que describe la relación personal que él y Dios tendrán. Traducción Alterna: "He elegido tratarlo como a un hijo, y seré como un padre para él"

mis mandamientos y decretos Estas dos palabras básicamente significan lo mismo y se refieren a todo lo que Yahweh había ordenado.

como estás tú en este día.
La palabra "tú" aquí se refiere a David. Traducción Alterna: "tal como estás comprometido este día"

1 Chronicles 28:8

Información general:
David continúa hablando a los israelitas

Entonces
Esto indica que David comienza una nueva fase en su discurso.

Deben mantener y tratar de cumplir
La frase "llevar a cabo" significa básicamente lo mismo que "mantener". Juntas, las palabras enfatizan la importancia de hacer lo que Dios manda.

sus niños después de ustedes Traducción Alterna: "tus hijos que tomarán tu lugar después de que mueras"

1 Chronicles 28:9

al Dios de tu padre
David se llama a sí mismo "tu padre" porque esta es una ocasión muy formal. EN: "Dios mío"

con todo tu corazón Traducción Alterna: "Completamente"

un espiritu dispuesto Traducción Alterna: "Voluntariamente"

busca en todos los corazones y entiende cada motivación en los pensamientos de todos.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que el SEÑOR conoce los pensamientos y motivos de cada persona.

Si tú lo buscas, Él será encontrado por ti Traducción Alterna: "Si intentas que el Señor te preste atención, él lo hará"

Date cuenta
"Ver ahora" Traducción Alterna: "Recordar" o "Ser consciente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Se fuerte y hazlo
La palabra "fuerte" aquí se refiere a la fuerza de voluntad y la fuerza de carácter.

1 Chronicles 28:11

Entrada del templo
"pórtico del templo" o "entrada del templo". Esto se refiere a las columnas que sostenían el techo en la entrada del templo.

Tesorerías
almacenes para cosas valiosas

1 Chronicles 28:13

Órdenes
Estas eran reglas específicas sobre cómo los sacerdotes y los Levitas deberían trabajar en el templo.

Divisiones
Esto se refiere a los grupos en los que los sacerdotes y otros obreros del templo se organizaron para cumplir con sus deberes. Vea cómo se ha traducido este término en el 24: 1.

1 Chronicles 28:18

Oro refinado
Traducción Alterna: "oro purificado" u "oro extra valioso"

He puesto todo esto en este escrito Traducción Alterna: "Escribí todo esto abajo" me dio el entendimiento respecto al diseño Traducción Alterna: : "me ayudó a entender los detalles de"

1 Chronicles 28:20

Se fuerte y valiente
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que Salomón debe ser valiente.

No tengas miedo o ansiedad
Estas dos palabras básicamente significan lo mismo y enfatizan que Salomón nunca debe rendirse. Traducción Alterna: "Sé valiente" o "Sé confiado".

Está contigo
Traducción Alterna: "Te ayudará"

Él no te dejará ni te abandonará Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que el SEÑOR siempre estará con Salomón. Traducción Alterna: "Él siempre estará contigo"

las divisiones de los sacerdotes y levitas
Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 28:13.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 El rey David le dijo a toda la asamblea: "Salomón, mi hijo, a quien solo Dios ha escogido, todavía es joven y sin experiencia, y la tarea es grande. Porque el templo no es para la gente sino para el SEÑOR Dios. 2 Así que yo he hecho lo mejor para proveer para el templo de mi Dios. Estoy dando oro para las cosas hechas de oro, plata para las cosas hechas de plata, bronce para las cosas hechas de bronce, hierro para las cosas hechas de hierro y madera para las cosas hechas de madera. También estoy dando piedras de ónice, piedras para ser puestas, piedras de varios colores para incrustar --todo tipo de piedras preciosas-- y piedra de mármol en abundancia. 3 Ahora, debido a mi deleite en la casa de mi Dios, yo estoy dando mi tesoro personal de oro y plata para eso. Estoy haciendo esto en adición a todo lo que he preparado para este santo templo: 4 tres mil talentos de oro de Ofir y siete mil talentos de plata refinada, a fin de que se revistan las paredes de los edificios. 5 Estoy donando oro para las cosas que serán hechas de oro, plata para las cosas que serán hechas de plata y cosas para todo tipo de trabajo que sean hechos por los artesanos. ¿Quién más quiere hacer una contribución al SEÑOR hoy y darse a sí mismo a Él?" 6 Entonces ofrendas voluntarias fueron hechas por los líderes de las familias de los ancestros, los líderes de la tribus de Israel, los comandantes de miles y cientos, y por los oficiales sobre el trabajo del rey. 7 Ellos dieron para el servicio de la casa de Dios cinco mil talentos y diez mil dracmas de oro, diez mil talentos de plata, dieciocho mil talentos de plata y 100, 000 talentos de hierro. 8 Aquellos que tenían piedras preciosas las dieron para el tesoro de la casa del SEÑOR, bajo la supervisión de Jehiel, un descendiente de Gersón. 9 El pueblo se regocijó por estas ofrendas voluntarias porque habían contribuído de todo corazón al SEÑOR. El rey David también se regocijó grandemente. 10 David bendijo al SEÑOR delante de toda la asamblea. Él dijo: "Que Tú seas alabado, SEÑOR, Dios de Israel nuestro ancestro, por siempre y siempre. 11 Tuya, SEÑOR, es la grandeza, el poder, la gloria, la victoria, y la majestad. Porque todo lo que hay en los cielos y en la tierra es tuyo. Tuyo es el reino, SEÑOR, y Tú eres exaltado como soberano sobre todo. 12 Las riquezas y el honor vienen de ti, y tú reinas sobre toda la gente. En tu mano está el poder y la fortaleza. Tú posees la fuerza y el poder para hacer al pueblo grande y para dar fuerzas a cualquiera. 13 Ahora pues, nuestro Dios, nosotros te damos gracias y alabamos tu glorioso nombre. 14 ¿Pero quién soy yo, y quién es mi pueblo, que debamos ser capaces de ofrecer tan voluntariamente estas cosas? En verdad, todas las cosas vienen de ti, y nosotros simplemente te hemos devuelto lo que es tuyo. 15 Porque nosotros somos extranjeros y peregrinos ante ti, como todos nuestros ancestros lo fueron. Nuestros días en la tierra son como sombra y no hay esperanza de mantenernos en la tierra. 16 SEÑOR nuestro Dios, hemos recogido toda esta riqueza a fin de construir un templo en honor de tu santo nombre-- viene de ti y te pertenece a ti. 17 Yo sé también, mi Dios, que tú examinas el corazón y te complaces en la rectitud. En cuanto a mí, en la rectitud de mi corazón he ofrecido voluntariamente todas estas cosas, y ahora observo con gozo a tu pueblo que está aquí presente ofrecer voluntariamente ofrendas a ti. 18 SEÑOR, el Dios de Abraham, Isaac e Israel --nuestros ancestros-- mantén esto para siempre en los pensamientos de las mentes de tu pueblo. Dirige sus corazones hacia ti. 19 Dale a Salomón mi hijo un deseo sin reservas de cumplir tus mandamientos, tus decretos del pacto y tus estatutos, y llevar a cabo todos estos planes para construir el palacio por el cual yo he hecho provisión." 20 David dijo a toda la asamblea: "Ahora bendigan al Señor su Dios." Toda la asamblea bendijo al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, inclinaron sus cabezas y adoraron al SEÑOR y se postraron ante el rey. 21 Al siguiente día, ellos hicieron sacrificios al SEÑOR y ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas a Él. Ofrecieron mil toros, mil carneros y mil ovejas, con sus ofrendas de vino y sacrificios en abundancia para todo Israel. 22 En ese día, ellos comieron y bebieron delante del SEÑOR con gran celebración. Ellos hicieron a Salomón, hijo de David, rey por segunda vez y lo ungieron con la autoridad del SEÑOR para ser gobernante. También ungieron a Sadoc como sacerdote. 23 Entonces Salomón se sentó en el trono del SEÑOR como rey en vez de David su padre. Él prosperó y todo Israel lo obedeció. 24 Todos los líderes, soldados y los hijos de David juraron alianza al rey Salomón. 25 El SEÑOR honró grandemente a Salomón ante todo Israel y le otorgó a él mayor poder del que jamás le haya dado a otro rey ante él en Israel. 26 David, hijo de Jesé, reinó sobre todo Israel. 27 David había sido rey de Israel por cuarenta años. Él reinó por siete años en Hebrón y treinta y tres años en Jerusalén. 28 Él murió en buena vejez luego de disfrutar una larga vida, riqueza y honor. Salomón su hijo lo sucedió a él. 29 Los logros del rey David están escritos en la historia de Samuel el profeta, en la historia de Natán el profeta y en la historia de Gad el profeta. 30 Registrados allí, están los hechos de su gobierno, sus logros y los sucesos que lo afectaron a él, a Israel y a todos los reinos de otras tierras.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 29:1

piedras de ónice
Estas son piedras con líneas blancas y negras que se utilizan para hacer joyas.

piedras de varios colores para incrustar
Esto se refiere a los hermosos y decorativos diseños o patrones formados por las piedras.

1 Chronicles 29:3

Información general:
David continúa hablando con el pueblo sobre sus provisiones para la construcción del templo.

tres mil talentos
"3.000 talentos" -

oro de Ofir
El oro más valioso y de la mejor calidad.

1 Chronicles 29:6

Información general:
Ver:

Dramas ... talentos

1 Chronicles 29:8

Tesoro
Este es un lugar donde se guardan el dinero y objetos valiosos.

Jehiel
Este es un nombre masculino.

Gersón
Este fue el hijo primogénito de Leví. (Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1CH 23:7)

Voluntarias
De buena gana y sin ninguna duda ni duda.

1 Chronicles 29:10

Que Tú seas alabado, SEÑOR, Dios de Israel nuestro ancestro, por siempre y siempre.
Traducción Alterna: "Sea alabado, Jehová nuestro padre, Dios de Israel, por los siglos de los siglos".

1 Chronicles 29:12

Información general:
David continúa su oración de alabanza al SEÑOR.

En tu mano está el poder y la fortaleza
Las palabras "poder" y "fortaleza" significan lo mismo y enfatizan la grandeza del poder de Yahweh.

1 Chronicles 29:14

Información general:
David continúa su oración de alabanza al SEÑOR.

¿Pero quién soy yo, y quién es mi pueblo, que debamos ser capaces de ofrecer tan voluntariamente estas cosas?
David quiere decir que él y su gente no merecen ningún elogio por dar algo a Dios.

nosotros somos extranjeros y peregrinos ante ti Traducción Alterna: "Tu sabes lo insignificantes que somos"

Nuestros días en la tierra son como sombra
Las sombras aparecen y desaparecen rápidamente.

1 Chronicles 29:16

en la rectitud de mi corazón
"porque quiero ser honesto y honorable en todo lo que hago por ti"

1 Chronicles 29:18

mantén esto para siempre en los pensamientos de las mentes de tu pueblo.
Traducción Alterna: "Mantén esto en los pensamientos y mentes de tu gente para siempre"

1 Chronicles 29:20

Información general:
Ver:

se postraron
Acuéstate de cara al suelo como una forma de mostrar respeto extremo.

1 Chronicles 29:22

Delante del SEÑOR
Para honrar al SEÑOR.

por segunda vez
La primera vez se describe en 23: 1.

lo ungieron con la autoridad del SEÑOR para ser gobernante.
"lo ungió para que gobernara sobre Israel en nombre del SEÑOR"

1 Chronicles 29:24

Alianza
Traducción Alterna: "su lealtad"

El SEÑOR honró grandemente a Salomón ante todo Israel y le otorgó a él mayor poder Estas dos frases enfatizan que Salomón recibió un favor especial del SEÑOR, lo que lo convirtió en el rey más poderoso y poderoso de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

1 Chronicles 29:29

escritos en la historia de Samuel el profeta, en la historia de Natán el profeta y en la historia de Gad el profeta.
Esta es una obra que ya no existe.

Registrados allí, están los hechos Traducción Alterna: "Alguien escribió allí los hechos"

los hechos de su gobierno
"Las cosas que sucedieron mientras David era rey".

los sucesos que lo afectaron a él Traducción Alterna: "Los eventos en otras naciones que afectaron a Israel"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: 2 Chronicles

2 Chronicles

Chapter 1

1 Salomón, hijo de David, fue fortalecido en su reinado y el SEÑOR su Dios estaba con él y lo hizo muy poderoso. 2 Salomón le habló a todo Israel, a los comandantes de miles y cientos, y a los jueces y a todos los príncipes en todo Israel, los jefes de las casas paternas. 3 Así que Salomón y toda la asamblea con él fueron al lugar alto que estaba en Gabaón, porque allí estaba la tienda de reunión de Dios la cual Moisés, el siervo del SEÑOR, había hecho en el desierto. 4 Pero David había traído el arca de Dios de Quiriat Jearim al lugar que él había preparado para ella, porque él había levantado una tienda para ella en Jerusalén. 5 Además, el altar de bronce hecho por Bezalel, hijo de Uri, hijo de Hur, estaba allí delante del tabernáculo del SEÑOR; Salomón y la asamblea se acercaron a él. 6 Salomón fue allí, al altar de bronce delante del SEÑOR, que estaba en la tienda de reunión y ofreció mil ofrendas quemadas en él. 7 Dios se le apareció a Salomón esa noche y le dijo: "¡Pide! ¿Qué debería darte Yo?" 8 Salomón le dijo a Dios: "Has mostrado una gran fidelidad al pacto con mi padre David y me has hecho rey en su lugar. 9 Ahora, SEÑOR Dios, permite que tu promesa a mi padre David sea cumplida, porque me has hecho rey sobre un pueblo tan numeroso como el polvo de la tierra. 10 Ahora dame sabiduría y conocimiento para que yo pueda guiar este pueblo, porque ¿quién puede juzgar a tu pueblo, que son tantos en número? 11 Dios le dijo a Salomón: "Porque esto estaba en tu corazón y porque no me has pedido riquezas, ni bienes, u honor, ni por la vida de aquellos que te odian, ni por vida en abundancia para ti, pero has pedido por sabiduría y conocimiento para ti, para que puedas guiar a mi pueblo, de los que te he hecho rey, y esto es lo que Yo haré. 12 Ahora yo te daré sabiduría y conocimiento. También te daré riquezas, bienes y honor, como ninguno de los reyes antes de ti, ni después de ti tendrán." 13 Así que Salomón vino a Jerusalén desde el lugar alto que estaba en Gabaón, de delante de la tienda de reunión, y él reinó sobre Israel. 14 Salomón juntó carruajes y jinetes y tenía mil cuatrocientos carruajes y doce mil jinetes que él colocó en las ciudades de los carruajes y consigo mismo, el rey en Jerusalén. 15 El rey hizo que la plata y el oro en Jerusalén fueran tan comunes como las piedras, y la madera de cedro tan común como los árboles de sicómoro que están en las tierras bajas. 16 En cuanto a la importación de caballos de Egipto y Coa para Salomón, sus mercaderes los traían de Coa a un precio. 17 Ellos importaban un carruaje de Egipto por seiscientos siclos de plata y un caballo por 150 siclos. Ellos también los exportaban a los reyes hititas y a los arameos.

---

2 Chronicles 1:1

fue fortalecido en su reinado Traducción Alterna: "Salomón ejerció gran poder sobre Israel"

el SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página de traducción de el SEÑOR sobre cómo traducir esto.

Dios estaba con él
Traducción Alterna: "Dios lo apoyó" o "Dios lo ayudó"

2 Chronicles 1:2

Quiriat Jearim
Un pequeño pueblo a unos 9 millas al oeste de Jerusalén.

levantado una tienda Traducción Alterna: "armar una tienda"

Bezalel, hijo de Uri, hijo de Hur

2 Chronicles 1:6

fue allí, al altar de bronce
Salomón fue a Gabaón donde estaba el altar en la tienda de reunión.

2 Chronicles 1:8

sea cumplida Traducción Alterna: "hecho" o "completado"

un pueblo tan numeroso como el polvo de la tierra Traducción Alterna: "innumerables personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿quién puede juzgar a tu pueblo, que son tantos en número?
Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede juzgar a tu pueblo innumerable"

2 Chronicles 1:12

de delante de la tienda de reunión Traducción Alterna: "frente al tabernáculo".

2 Chronicles 1:14

en las ciudades de los carruajes Esta es una referencia a las ciudades que almacenaron sus carros.

la plata y el oro en Jerusalén fueran tan comunes como las piedras
"Metales raros y valiosos para ser abundantes"

la madera de cedro tan común como los árboles de sicómoro que están en las tierras bajas Traducción Alterna: "madera importada rara y valiosa para ser abundante"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Ahora Salomón ordenó la construcción de una casa para el nombre del SEÑOR y la construcción de un palacio para su reino. 2 Salomón asignó setenta mil hombres para llevar la carga, y ochenta mil hombres como carpinteros en las montañas y 3, 600 hombres para supervisarlos a ellos. 3 Salomón envió un mensaje a Hiram, el rey de Tiro, diciendo: "Como hiciste con David mi padre, enviándole a él maderos de cedro para construir una casa en la cual vivir, haz lo mismo conmigo. 4 Mira, yo estoy a punto de construir una casa para el nombre del SEÑOR mi Dios, para consagrarla a Él, para quemar incienso de especias aromáticas delante de Él, para poner el pan de la presencia, y para las ofrendas quemadas mañana y tarde, en el Sábado y en las lunas nuevas, y en las fiestas designadas para el SEÑOR nuestro Dios. Para Israel, esto es para siempre. 5 La casa que yo voy a construir será muy grande, pues nuestro Dios es más grande que todos los demás dioses. 6 Pero ¿quién es capaz de construirle a Dios una casa, ya que el universo entero y el cielo mismo no lo pueden contener? ¿Quién soy yo para construirle una casa, excepto para quemarle sacrificios para Él? 7 Así que, envíame a un hombre que sea experto en el trabajo de oro, plata, bronce, hierro y en lana púrpura, carmesí y lana azul, un hombre quien sepa hacer todo tipo de grabado en madera. Él va a estar con los hombres expertos quienes están conmigo en Judá y Jerusalén, quienes David mi padre proveyó. 8 Envíame también árboles de cedro, ciprés y sándalo del Líbano, pues yo sé que tus siervos saben como cortar madera en el Líbano. Mira, mis siervos van a ser tus siervos, 9 con el fin de prepararme madera en abundancia, pues la casa la cual yo estoy a punto de construir va a ser grandiosa y maravillosa. 10 Mira, yo voy a darle a tus siervos, los hombres quienes van a cortar la madera, veinte mil coros de trigo molido, veinte mil coros de cebada, veinte mil batos de vino, y veinte mil batos de aceite." 11 Entonces Hiram, rey de Tiro, contestó por escrito, el cual le envió a Salomón: "Porque el SEÑOR ama a su pueblo, él te ha hecho rey sobre ellos." 12 Además, Hiram dijo: "Bendito sea el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel quien ha hecho los cielos y la tierra, quien le ha dado a David el rey un hijo sabio, bendecido con prudencia y entendimiento, quién le va a construir una casa para el SEÑOR y una casa para su reino. 13 Ahora, yo he enviado a un hombre con habilidades, bendecido con entendimiento, Hiram Abí, mi experto. 14 Él es el hijo de una mujer de las hijas de Dan. Su padre fue un hombre de Tiro. Él es experto en el trabajo con oro, plata, bronce, hierro, piedra y en madera, lana púrpura, lana azul, carmesí, y lino fino. Él también es experto haciendo cualquier tipo de grabado y haciendo cualquier tipo de diseño. Deja que un lugar sea hecho para él entre tus trabajadores expertos y con aquellos de mi señor, David, tu padre. 15 Ahora entonces, el trigo y la cebada, el aceite y el vino de los cuales mi señor ha hablado, envía estas cosas a sus siervos. 16 Nosotros vamos a cortar madera del Líbano, tanta madera como necesites. Nosotros te la vamos a llevar como balsa por mar a Jope y tú la cargarás hasta Jerusalén." 17 Salomón contó todos los extranjeros quienes estaban en la tierra de Israel, siguiendo el método que David, su padre, les había contado a ellos. Se encontró que ellos eran 153, 600. 18 Él le asignó a 70, 000 de ellos que llevaran las cargas, 80, 000 que fueran carpinteros en las montañas y 3, 600 que fueran supervisores para poner a las personas a trabajar.

---

2 Chronicles 2:1

Hiram

2 Chronicles 2:4

el pan de la presencia
Esta es una referencia a las 12 hogazas de pan que se colocaron frente al altar.

lunas nuevas
Este era el momento en el que un festival coincidía con el movimiento de la luna.

Dios es más grande
Esta es una referencia a que Dios es más importante que otros dioses, no se refiere a grande en tamaño

2 Chronicles 2:6

¿quién es capaz de construirle a Dios una casa, ya que el universo entero y el cielo mismo no lo pueden contener? ¿Quién soy yo para construirle una casa, excepto para quemarle sacrificios para Él?
Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede construir una casa para Dios porque nada puede contenerlo. ¡Yo no soy nadie! Solo una persona que puede ofrecerle sacrificios.

2 Chronicles 2:8

sándalo
Este era un tipo de árbol probablemente utilizado para hacer instrumentos musicales o tallar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Coros

Trigo molido
Es decir, harina de trigo.

Batos

2 Chronicles 2:11

bendecido con prudencia Traducción Alterna: "dado un regalo de discreción"

una casa para su reino
Traducción Alterna: "un palacio para sí mismo".

2 Chronicles 2:13

Hiram

2 Chronicles 2:15

Líbano
Líbano es una hermosa región montañosa ubicada a lo largo de la costa del mar Mediterráneo, al norte de Israel. En tiempos bíblicos, esta región también estaba densamente arbolada de abetos, como cedro y ciprés.

- El rey Salomón envió trabajadores al Líbano para cosechar cedros para usar en la construcción del templo de Dios.
- El antiguo Líbano estaba habitado por personas fenicias que eran hábiles constructores de barcos que se utilizaron para una exitosa industria comercial.
- Las ciudades de Tiro y Sidón estaban ubicadas en el Líbano. Fue en estas ciudades donde se usó por primera vez un valioso tinte púrpura.

Ver también: cedro, ciprés, abeto, Fenicia

Jope
En tiempos bíblicos, la ciudad de Jope era un importante puerto comercial ubicado en el mar Mediterráneo, al sur de la llanura de Sharon.

- El antiguo sitio de Joppa es la ciudad actual de Jaffa, que ahora forma parte de la ciudad de Tel Aviv.
- En el Antiguo Testamento, Jope era la ciudad donde Jonás se subió a un bote que iba a Tarsis.
- En el Nuevo Testamento, una mujer cristiana llamada Tabita murió en Jope y Pedro la devolvió a la vida.

Ver también: el mar, el gran mar, el mar occidental, el mar Mediterráneo, Jerusalén, Sharon, llanura de Sharon, Tarsis

Jerusalén
Jerusalén fue originalmente una antigua ciudad cananea que más tarde se convirtió en la ciudad más importante de Israel. Se encuentra a unos 34 kilómetros al oeste del Mar Salado y justo al norte de Belén. Sigue siendo la capital de la actual Israel. * El nombre, "Jerusalén" se menciona por primera vez en el libro de Josué. Otros nombres del Antiguo Testamento para esta ciudad incluyen "Salem", "ciudad de Jebus" y "Sion". Tanto "Jerusalén" como "Salem" tienen el significado básico de "paz". * Jerusalén fue originalmente una fortaleza jebusea llamada "Sion" que el rey David capturó y convirtió en su ciudad capital. * Salomón, el hijo de David, construyó el primer templo en Jerusalén, en el monte Moriah, que era la montaña donde Abraham había ofrecido a su hijo Isaac a Dios. El templo fue reconstruido allí después de que fue destruido por los babilonios. * Debido a que el templo estaba en Jerusalén, las principales festividades judías se celebraban allí. * La gente normalmente se refería a subir a Jerusalén porque estaba ubicada en las montañas.

Ver también: Babilonia, babilonico, Cristo, Mesías, David, Jebuseos, Jebus, Jesús, Jesucristo, Cristo Jesús, Salomón, templo, Sion, Monte Sion,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Entonces, Salomón comenzó a construir la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén en el Monte Moriah, donde el SEÑOR se le apareció a David su padre. Él preparó el lugar que David había planificado para ello, en el piso de trillar de Ornán el jebusita. 2 Él comenzó a construir en el segundo día del segundo mes, en el cuarto año de su reinado. 3 Ahora estas eran las dimensiones del fundamento que Salomón preparó para la casa de Dios. Usando el estilo antiguo de codo, el largo de sesenta codos y de anchura era veinte codos. 4 La longitud del pórtico frente a la casa era de veinte codos, igual a el ancho del edificio. Su altitud era también veinte codos, y Salomón cubrió su interior con oro puro. 5 Él diseñó el techo del salón principal con cipreses, el cual cubrió con oro fino y lo esculpió con palmas y cadenas. 6 Él decoró la casa con piedras preciosas; el oro era oro de Parvaim. 7 Él también cubrió las vigas, los umbrales, las paredes y las puertas con oro; él esculpió querubines en sus paredes. 8 Él construyó el Lugar Santísimo. Su longitud era igual a la anchura de la casa, veinte codos, y su anchura era también veinte codos. Él lo cubrió con oro fino, que sumaba a seiscientos talentos. 9 El peso de los clavos era de cincuenta ciclos de oro. Él cubrió las superficies altas con oro. 10 Él hizo dos imágenes de querubines para el Lugar Santísimo; los artesanos los cubrieron con oro. 11 Las alas de los querubines eran de veinte codos de largo todo junto; las alas de un querubín eran de cinco codos de largo, alcanzando la pared de la habitación; la otra ala era igualmente de cinco codos, alcanzando la otra ala del otro querubín. 12 El ala del otro querubín era también de cinco codos, alcanzando la pared de la habitación; su otra ala era también de cinco codos, tocando el ala del primer querubín. 13 Las alas de esos querubines se extendían a un total de veinte codos. Los querubines estaban de pie, con sus rostros en dirección al salón principal. 14 Él hizo una cortina de lana azul, púrpura y carmesí, y de lino fino; y él diseño querubines en ella. 15 Salomón hizo también dos columnas, cada una de treinta y cinco codos de alto, para el frente de la casa; los capiteles que estaban sobre ellas eran de cinco codos de altitud. 16 Él hizo cadenas para las columnas y las colocó en la parte superior de éstas; él también hizo cien frutas de granada y las unió a las cadenas. 17 Él colocó las columnas frente al templo, una a mano derecha y otra a mano izquierda; el nombró la columna de la mano derecha Jaquín y la columna de la mano izquierda Boaz.

---

2 Chronicles 3:1

Monte Moriah
Este es el lugar donde Abraham ofreció a su hijo, Isaac, a Dios.

Ornán el jebusita

el segundo día del segundo mes
Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. El segundo día es cerca de mediados de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

en el cuarto año

Sesenta ... veinte
"60 ... 20"

Codos
Un codo mide 46 centímetros.

2 Chronicles 3:4

Pórtico
Traducción Alterna: "entrada"

Codos

Él diseñó Traducción Alterna: "Él hizo" salón principal

Esto hace referencia a una habitación grande, no a un pasillo.

2 Chronicles 3:6

Piedras preciosas
Piedras que eran hermosas, muy valoradas y utilizadas para decoraciones.

Parvaim
Un término general para la Pascua.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 3:8

Codos

Talentos

Ciclos

2 Chronicles 3:10

dos imágenes de querubines
Algunos interpretan que el texto significa que las figuras de querubines fueron fundidas en metal.

2 Chronicles 3:13

Lino fino Traducción Alterna: "tela de alta calidad" o "tela buena"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Además, él hizo un altar de bronce; su largo era veinte codos, de ancho era veinte codos. Su altura era de veinte codos. 2 Él también hizo el mar redondo de metal fundido, diez codos de borde a borde. Su altura era de cinco codos, y el mar era de treinta codos en circunferencia. 3 Bajo el borde circulando el mar había toros, diez por cada codo, fundidos en una sola pieza con el mar cuando el mar mismo fue fundido. 4 El mar descansaba sobre doce bueyes, tres mirando hacia el norte, tres mirando hacia el oeste, tres mirando hacia el sur, y tres mirando hacia el este. El mar estaba sobre ellos, y toda la parte trasera de ellos estaba en dirección al interior. 5 El mar era tan grueso como el ancho de una mano, y su borde fue forjado como el borde de una copa, como un lirio florecido. El mar aguantó tres mil batos de agua. 6 Él hizo también diez vasijas para lavar las cosas; él puso cinco en la mano derecha, y cinco en la izquierda; cosas utilizadas para el acto de las ofrendas quemadas eran para lavarse allí. El mar, sin embargo, era para que el sacerdote se lavara en él. 7 Él hizo los diez candelabros de oro que fueron hechos a partir de las instrucciones de su diseño; él los ubicó en el templo, cinco a la mano derecha y cinco a la mano izquierda. 8 Él hizo diez mesas y las ubicó en el templo, cinco en el lado derecho, y cinco en el izquierdo. Él hizo cien tazones hondos de oro. 9 Además, él hizo la corte para los sacerdotes y la gran corte, y las puertas para la corte; él cubrió las puertas con bronce. 10 Él ubicó el mar en el lado derecho de la casa, en el este, mirando hacia el sur. 11 Hiram hizo los calderos, las palas, y los tazones de rociar. Así que Hiram terminó el trabajo que él hizo para el rey Salomón en la casa de Dios: 12 las dos columnas, los capiteles como cuencos que estaban sobre las dos columnas, y dos pares de celosías decorativas para cubrir los dos capiteles como cuencos que estaban sobre las columnas. 13 Él había hecho cuatrocientas frutas de granada para los dos pares de celosías decorativas: dos filas de granadas para cada celosía para cubrir los dos capiteles como cuencos que estaban sobre las columnas. 14 Él también hizo los estantes y los tazones que iban en los estantes; 15 un mar y los doce toros bajo él, 16 también las ollas, palas, tenedores para carnes, y todos los demás utensilios. Hiram el experto los hizo para el rey Salomón, para la casa del SEÑOR, de bronce pulido. 17 El rey los había fundido en la llanura del Jordán, en el barro del suelo entre Sucot y Seredata. 18 Así Salomón hizo todas las vasijas en gran abudancia; ciertamente, el peso del bronce no se podía saber. 19 Salomón hizo todo el mobiliario que estaba en la casa del SEÑOR, el altar dorado también, y las mesas en las cuales el pan de la presencia estaba ubicado; 20 el candelabro con sus lámparas, que estaban designadas a quemarse ante el cuarto interno--estas eran hechas de oro puro; 21 y las flores, las lámparas, y las tenazas, de oro puro. 22 También los recortadores de mecha de las lámparas, vasijas, cucharas y el quemador de incienso fueron todos hechos de oro puro. Así como la entrada a la casa, sus puertas interiores hacia el lugar santísimo y las puertas de la casa, esto es, del templo, fueron hechas de oro.

---

2 Chronicles 4:1

Codos

el mar redondo de metal fundido
Este es un tanque de metal muy grande.

Borde
Este es el borde superior del contenedor.

Circunferencia
Esta es la distancia alrededor del exterior de un círculo.

diez por cada codo
Traducción Alterna: "diez por codo"

2 Chronicles 4:4

Trasera
Este es el cuarto trasero del cuerpo de un animal con cuatro patas. Vea la misma palabra usada (solo otra referencia en el Antiguo Testamento Vea: 7:25)

mano

su borde fue forjado como el borde de una copa, como un lirio florecido Traducción Alterna: El borde era suave y curvado "

Batos

2 Chronicles 4:7

Tazones
Este es un recipiente poco profundo que se usa para lavar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 4:9

Patio, corte
Los términos "patio" y "corte" se refieren a un área cerrada que está abierta al cielo y rodeada de paredes. El término "tribunal" también se refiere a un lugar donde los jueces deciden asuntos legales y penales.

- El tabernáculo estaba rodeado por un patio que estaba rodeado por paredes hechas de gruesas cortinas de tela.
- El complejo del templo tenía tres patios interiores: uno para los sacerdotes, uno para los hombres judíos y otro para las mujeres judías.
- Estos patios interiores estaban rodeados por un muro bajo de piedra que los separaba de un patio exterior donde a los gentiles se les permitía adorar.
- El patio de una casa era un área abierta en el medio de la casa.
- La frase "corte del rey" puede referirse a su palacio o a un lugar en su palacio donde hace juicios.
- La expresión "cortes del SEÑOR" es una forma figurativa de referirse al lugar donde habita El SEÑOR o al lugar donde la gente va a adorar al SEÑOR.

Sugerencias de traducción

- El término "patio" podría traducirse como "espacio cerrado" o "terreno amurallado" o "terrenos del templo" o "recinto del templo".
- A veces, el término "templo" puede traducirse como "patios del templo" o "complejo del templo" para que quede claro que se hace referencia a los patios, no al edificio del templo.
- La expresión "tribunales del SEÑOR" podría traducirse como "lugar donde El SEÑOR vive" o "lugar donde El SEÑOR es adorado".
- El término usado para la corte de un rey también podría usarse para referirse a la corte del SEÑOR.

Ver también: Gentil, juez, Rey, tabernáculo, templo

2 Chronicles 4:11

Hiram

los tazones de rociar Tazones que se usaron en la casa de Dios para rociar el altar

los capiteles como cuencos como capiteles - La parte superior de un pilar se llama capital. Traducción Alterna: "la cima en forma de tazones" o "partes superiores en forma de tazones"

celosías decorativas
Esto se refiere a la talla decorativa o las marcas en la parte superior de los pilares.

2 Chronicles 4:14

Los tazones Traducción Alterna: "las cuencas"

un mar
Este es un gran recipiente de lavado decorativo.

los demás utensilios
otras herramientas u objetos utilizados para el altar

Bronce pulido
Bronce que los trabajadores pulieron para que reflejara la luz.

2 Chronicles 4:17

Seredata

Así Salomón hizo todas las vasijas Salomón no hizo personalmente las vasijas, pero ordenó que se hicieran.

el peso del bronce no se podía saber Traducción Alterna: "la cantidad de bronce era muy grande"

2 Chronicles 4:19

Salomón hizo
Los trabajadores de Salomón hicieron las cosas a sus órdenes.

todo el mobiliario
todos los tazones y herramientas que se usaron en la casa de Dios.

el pan de la presencia
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 2: 4.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Cuando todo el trabajo que Salomón hizo por la casa del SEÑOR estuvo completo, Salomón trajo adentro las cosas que David, su padre, había separado para este próposito, incluyendo la plata, el oro, y todos los muebles-- él los puso dentro de los tesoros de la casa de Dios. 2 Entonces Salomón convocó a los ancianos de Israel, todas las cabezas de las tribus y a todos los líderes de las familias del pueblo de Israel, en Jerusalén, para subir el arca del pacto del SEÑOR de la ciudad de David, que es, Sion. 3 Todos los hombres de Israel se reunieron ante el rey en un festín, el cual fue en el séptimo mes. 4 Todos los ancianos de Israel vinieron, y los levitas tomaron el arca. 5 Ellos subieron el arca, la tienda de reunión, y todos los santos muebles que estaban en la tienda. Los sacerdotes quienes eran de la tribu de Leví subieron estas cosas. 6 El rey Salomón y toda la asamblea de Israel se juntaron ante el arca, sacrificando ovejas y bueyes que no pudieron ser contados. 7 Los sacerdotes subieron el arca del pacto del SEÑOR a su lugar, en el cuarto interior de la casa, al Lugar Santísimo, bajo las alas de los querubines. 8 Para que los querubines extendieran sus alas sobre el lugar del arca, ellos cubrían el arca y las barras por las cuales era cargada. 9 Las barras eran tan largas que sus puntas eran vistas desde el lugar santo, al frente del cuarto interno, pero no podían ser vistas desde afuera. Ellas están ahí hasta éste día. 10 No había nada en el arca, excepto las dos tablas que Moisés había puesto ahí en Horeb, cuando el SEÑOR hizo un pacto con la gente de Israel, cuando ellos salieron de Egipto. 11 Y sucedió, que los sacerdotes salieron del Lugar Santo. Todos los sacerdotes que estaban presentes se habían santificado a sí mismos al SEÑOR, no ordenándose a sí mismos de acuerdo a sus divisiones. 12 También los levitas quienes eran los cantores, todos ellos, incluyendo a Asaf, Hemán, Jedutún y a sus hijos y hermanos, vestidos en lino fino y tocando címbalos, arpas y liras, se pararon al lado este del altar. Con ellos habían 120 sacerdotes soplando trompetas. 13 Y pasó que los trompetistas y cantores hicieron música juntos, haciendo que un sonido se escuchara para alabar y agradecer al SEÑOR. Ellos levantaron sus voces con las trompetas y címbalos y otros instrumentos, y ellos alabaron al SEÑOR. Ellos cantaron: "Porque Él es bueno, porque su pacto de lealtad dura para siempre." Entonces la casa; la casa del SEÑOR, se llenó con una nube. 14 Los sacerdotes no podían pararse para servir por la nube, porque la gloria del SEÑOR llenó Su casa.

---

2 Chronicles 5:1

tesoros
Esta es un área donde las cosas se guardan o almacenan.

2 Chronicles 5:2

en un festín, el cual fue en el séptimo mes.
Este es el Festival de los Refugios que se celebra el decimoquinto día del séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. Esto es cerca de principios de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

2 Chronicles 5:4

muebres
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 4:19

ovejas y bueyes que no pudieron ser contados.
Traducción Alterna: "muchas ovejas y bueyes"

2 Chronicles 5:7

a su lugar
Traducción Alterna: "a su lugar designado"

2 Chronicles 5:9

hasta éste día.
Esto se refiere a un momento en que se escribió el libro de 2 Crónicas.

2 Chronicles 5:11

Asaf, Hemán, Jedutún
Los mismos tres lideraron la adoración cuando David trasladó el arca a Jerusalén. Más tarde, David los nombró músicos del templo.

hijos y hermanos
Traducción Alterna: "sus parientes" o "sus descendientes"

Címbalos
Son dos placas metálicas delgadas y redondas que se unen para hacer un sonido fuerte

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Entonces Salomón dijo: " el SEÑOR ha dicho que Él iba a vivir en una oscuridad gruesa 2 pero yo te he construído para tí una noble residencia, un lugar para ti en que vivas siempre." 3 Luego el rey se volteó y bendijo a toda la asamblea de Israel, mientras toda la asamblea de Israel estaba en pie. 4 Él dijo: "Que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, sea alabado, quien habló a David mi padre, y lo ha cumplido con sus propias manos, diciendo: 5 'Desde el día que Yo traje a mi pueblo fuera de la tierra de Egipto, Yo no escogí ninguna ciudad fuera de todas las tribus de Israel en la cual construir una casa, con el fin de que mi nombre esté allí. Yo tampoco escogí a cualquier hombre para ser príncipe sobre mi pueblo Israel. 6 Sin embargo, Yo he escogido a Jerusalén, para que mi nombre pueda estar allí, y yo he escogido a David para que esté sobre mi pueblo Israel.' 7 Ahora, estaba en el corazón de David mi padre, el construir una casa para el nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 8 Pero el SEÑOR le dijo a David mi padre: 'En el sentido de que estaba en tu corazón construir una casa para mi nombre, hiciste bien en tenerlo en tu corazón. 9 No obstante, tú no debes construir la casa; en lugar de ello, tu hijo, uno que vendrá de tus lomos, va a construir la casa para Mi nombre.' 10 El SEÑOR ha cumplido la palabra que Él ha dicho, pues yo me he levantado en el lugar de David mi padre, y me siento en el trono de Israel, como el SEÑOR prometió. Yo he construído la casa para el nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 11 Yo he colocado el arca allí, en la cual está el pacto del SEÑOR, el cual Él hizo con el pueblo de Israel." 12 Salomón se paró ante el altar del SEÑOR en la presencia de toda la asamblea de Israel y extendió sus manos. 13 Pues él había hecho una plataforma de bronce, cinco codos de largo, cinco codos de ancho y tres codos de alto. Él la colocó en el medio del patio. Él se paró en ella y se arrodilló ante toda la asamblea de Israel, y luego él extendió sus manos hacia los cielos. 14 Él dijo: "SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, no hay Dios como tú en los cielos ni en la tierra, quien mantiene el pacto y firme amor a sus servidores quienes caminan ante ti con todo su corazón; 15 Tú quien has mantenido a tu siervo David mi padre, lo que le prometiste. Sí, tú has hablado con tu boca y lo has cumplido con tu mano, así como es hoy. 16 Ahora entonces, SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, cumple lo que le prometiste a tu siervo David mi padre, cuando Tú dijiste: 'Tú no fallarás en tener a un hombre en mi vista para que esté sentado en el trono de Israel, si solo tus descendientes son cuidadosos de caminar en mi ley, así como tú has caminado delante de mí.' 17 Ahora entonces, Dios de Israel, yo oro que la promesa que tú hiciste a tu siervo David se haga realidad. 18 Pero ¿Realmente vivirá Dios con la humanidad en la tierra? Mira, el universo entero y el cielo mismo no pueden contenerte--¡Mucho menos este templo que yo he construido! 19 Aún por favor respeta esta oración de tu siervo y su pedido, SEÑOR mi Dios; escucha el llanto y la oración que tu siervo clama delante de Ti. Que Tus ojos puedan estar abiertos hacia este templo día y noche, el lugar donde Tú prometiste poner Tu nombre. 20 Escucha, pues la oración que tu siervo clama hacia este lugar. 21 Así que, escucha las peticiones de tu siervo y de tu pueblo Israel cuando nosotros orermos hacia este lugar. Sí, escucha desde el lugar donde Tú vives, desde los cielos; y cuando Tú escuches, perdona. 22 Si un hombre peca contra su vecino y se requiere que jure un juramento, y si él viene y jura un juramento delante de tu altar en esta casa, 23 entonces oye desde los cielos y actúa y juzga a tus siervos, pagándole al malvado, al traer su conducta sobre su propia cabeza. Declara al justo inocente, para darle a él su recompensa por su justicia. 24 Cuando Tu pueblo Israel sea derrotado por un enemigo, porque ellos hayan pecado contra Ti, si ellos se vuelven a Ti, confiesan Tu nombre, y oran y piden perdón delante de Ti en este templo-- 25 entonces por favor, escucha desde los cielos y perdona los pecados de tu pueblo Israel; tráelos de vuelta a la tierra que Tú le has dado a ellos y a sus ancestros. 26 Cuando los cielos estén cerrados y no haya lluvia porque el pueblo ha pecado contra ti-- si ellos oran hacia este lugar, confiesan Tú nombre, y se vuelven de sus pecados cuando Tú los hayas afligido-- 27 entonces escucha en los cielos y perdona los pecados de tus siervos y de todo tu pueblo Israel, cuando Tú los dirijas a ellos al buen camino en el cual ellos deben caminar. Envía lluvia sobre tu tierra, la cual Tú has dado a tu pueblo como heredad. 28 Supongamos que hay hambruna en la tierra o supongamos que haya enfermedad, tizón u hongos, langostas u orugas; o supongamos que sus enemigos ataquen las puertas de la ciudad en sus tierrras o que allí haya cualquier plaga o enfermedad-- 29 y supongamos luego que oraciones y las peticiones sean hechas por una persona o por todo el pueblo de Israel-- cada uno sabiendo la plaga y sufrimiento en su propio corazón según extiende sus manos hacia el templo. 30 Entonces escucha desde los cielos, el lugar donde Tú vives; perdona y recompensa cada persona por todos sus caminos; Tú conoces su corazón, porque Tú y solamente Tú conoces los corazones de los seres humanos. 31 Haz esto para que ellos puedan temerte, para que ellos puedan caminar en Tus caminos todos los días que ellos vivan en la tierra que Tú le entregaste a nuestros ancestros. 32 En cuanto al extranjero quien no pertenece a tu pueblo Israel, pero quien-- por Tu gran nombre, Tu mano misericordiosa, y Tu mano extendida-- venga y ore hacia esta casa, 33 entonces por favor oye desde los

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

cielos, el lugar donde vives, y haz todo lo que los extranjeros te pidan a Ti, así que, todos los pueblos de la tierra puedan conocer Tú nombre y temerte a Ti, así como lo hiciste con tu pueblo Israel y que ellos puedan saber que esta casa que yo he construído es llamada por Tu nombre. 34 Supongamos que Tu pueblo vaya a la batalla contra sus enemigos, por cualquier camino que Tú pudieras enviarlos, y supongamos que ellos te oren a Ti dirigidos a esta ciudad que Tu has escogido, y hacia la casa que yo te he construído para Tu nombre. 35 Entonces oye desde los cielos sus oraciones, sus peticiones y ayúdalos en su causa. 36 Supongamos que ellos pequen contra Ti-- ya que no hay nadie que no peque-- y supongamos que Tú estás enojado con ellos y los entregaste en las manos de sus enemigos, para que así el enemigo los lleve lejos y los tome como cautivos en sus tierras, sean distantes o cercanas. 37 Entonces, supongamos que ellos se den cuenta que ellos están en la tierra donde ellos hayan sido exiliados y supongamos que ellos se arrepienten y buscan favor de Ti en la tierra de su cautividad. 38 Supongamos que ellos dijeren: 'Nosotros hemos actuado perversamente y hemos pecado. Nosotros nos hemos comportado malvadamente.' Supongamos que ellos se volvieren a Ti con todos sus corazones y con toda sus almas en la tierra de su cautividad, donde a ellos los tomaron como cautivos, y supongamos que ellos oran hacia su tierra, la cual Tú le diste a sus ancestros y hacia la ciudad que Tú escogiste y hacia la casa que yo he construído para Tu nombre. 39 Entonces, oye desde los cielos, el lugar donde Tú vives, a sus oraciones y a sus peticiones y ayuda su causa. Perdona a Tu pueblo, quien ha pecado contra Ti. 40 Ahora, mi Dios, yo te ruego, deja que Tus ojos sean abiertos, y deja que Tus oídos estén atentos a la oración que es hecha en este lugar. 41 Ahora entonces, levántate, SEÑOR Dios, a Tu lugar de descanso, Tú y el arca de tu fuerza. Deja que tus sacerdotes, SEÑOR Dios, sean vestidos con salvación y permite que tus santos se regocijen en tu bondad. 42 SEÑOR Dios, no voltees la cara de tu ungido lejos de Ti. Mantén en tu mente tus actos del pacto leal para David, tu siervo."

---

2 Chronicles 6:1

una noble residencia Traducción Alterna: "un lugar exaltado para vivir"

toda la asamblea de Israel estaba en pie.
Traducción Alterna: "mientras la gente estaba parada"

2 Chronicles 6:4

ha cumplido con sus propias manos ha causado que suceda o se ha asegurado de que se cumplieron sus promesas con el fin de que mi nombre esté allí Traducción Alterna: "Para darme a conocer allí".

2 Chronicles 6:7

en el corazón de David Traducción Alterna: "un deseo de David."

para el nombre del SEÑOR
El nombre del SEÑOR representaba su presencia total.

2 Chronicles 6:10

en la cual está el pacto del SEÑOR
Traducción Alterna: "en el que están las tablas de piedra que muestran el pacto que el SEÑOR hizo con nosotros, el pueblo israelita". (UDB)

2 Chronicles 6:12

en la presencia de toda la asamblea de Israel Traducción Alterna: "Frente al pueblo de Israel que se había reunido allí".

Codos

él extendió sus manos hacia los cielos.
Salomón levantó las manos y las sostuvo en alto mientras se arrodillaba en la plataforma para orar.

2 Chronicles 6:14

servidores quienes caminan ante ti con todo su corazón Traducción Alterna: "nosotros que realmente intentamos hacer lo que tú quieres que hagamos.

tú has hablado con tu boca y lo has cumplido con tu mano
Esto se refiere a la promesa que Dios le hizo a David de que su hijo construiría el templo.
Traducción Alterna: "has cumplido tu promesa".

2 Chronicles 6:16

Cumple
Esta es una solicitud. Traducción Altnera: "por favor hazlo"

Tú no fallarás en tener a un hombre en mi vista para que esté sentado en el trono de Israel Traducción Alterna: "siempre tendrás a uno de los descendientes de David como rey"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

así como tú has caminado delante de mí Traducción Alterna: "en la forma en que lo hizo David"

2 Chronicles 6:18

Pero ¿Realmente vivirá Dios con la humanidad en la tierra?
Traducción Alterna: "Pero Dios, seguramente no vivirás con la humanidad en la tierra".

el universo entero y el cielo mismo
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 2:6.

escucha el llanto y la oración
Las palabras "llorar" y "oración" tienen significados similares. Juntos enfatizan la seriedad de su oración. Traducción Alterna: "por favor conteste mi solicitud sincera".

Que Tus ojos puedan estar abiertos hacia este templo día y noche
"Por favor, ayuda a los que vienen a ti al templo, en cualquier momento, de día o de noche"

el lugar donde Tú prometiste poner Tu nombre Traducción Alterna: "donde dijiste que harías que la gente te conociera" pues la oración que tu siervo clama hacia este lugar.

El escritor ora en dirección al templo

2 Chronicles 6:21

cuando Tú escuches, perdona.
Traducción Alterna: "cuando escuches las oraciones, por favor perdona sus pecados"

2 Chronicles 6:22

al traer su conducta sobre su propia cabeza.
Traducción Alterna: "castigándolo como merece ser castigado"

2 Chronicles 6:24

por favor, escucha desde los cielos y
Traducción Alterna: "Por favor, honren su oración"

Tú le has dado a ellos Traducción Alterna: "les prometiste"

2 Chronicles 6:26

Cuando los cielos estén cerrados y no haya lluvia
La frase "los cielos están cerrados" significa que no cae lluvia del cielo. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando no permites que llueva".

confiesan Tú nombre Con sus palabras y con sus acciones, honran a Dios y su autoridad.

se vuelven de sus pecados Traducción Alterna: "detener sus malos caminos " dirijas a ellos al buen camino en el cual ellos deben caminar Traducción Alterna: "muéstrales cómo vivir rectamente"

2 Chronicles 6:28

cada uno sabiendo la plaga y sufrimiento en su propio corazón
Los significados posibles son: "conocer el pecado en su propio corazón" o "saber en su corazón que la peste y la tristeza son el resultado de su propio pecado".

según extiende sus manos
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 6:12

todos sus caminos
Traducción Alterna: "lo que ha hecho"

2 Chronicles 6:32

Tu gran nombre, Tu mano misericordiosa, y Tu mano extendida Traducción Alterna: "eres muy grande y poderoso"

llamada por Tu nombre Traducción Alterna: "conocida como la casa del SEÑOR, tu posesión".

2 Chronicles 6:34

yo te he construído
Traducción Alterna: "La gente ha construido bajo mi liderazgo"

2 Chronicles 6:36

Información general:
Ver:

el enemigo los lleve lejos y los tome como cautivos en sus tierras el enemigo los toma como cautivos y los lleva a la tierra de sus enemigos "

oran hacia su tierra Esto se refiere a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "y ora frente a esta tierra que le diste a sus antepasados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Ahora, cuando Salomón había terminado de orar, fuego bajó desde el cielo y consumió las ofrendas quemadas y sacrificios, y la gloria del SEÑOR llenó la casa. 2 Los sacerdotes no podían entrar a la casa del SEÑOR, porque Su gloria llenó Su casa. 3 Todo el pueblo de Israel vio cuando el fuego bajó y la gloria del SEÑOR estaba sobre la casa. Ellos se inclinaron con sus rostros hacia el suelo en el pavimento de piedra, adoraron y dieron gracias al SEÑOR. Ellos dijeron: "Porque Él es bueno, porque Su lealtad al pacto permanece para siempre." 4 Así, el rey y todo el pueblo ofrecieron sacrificios al SEÑOR. 5 El rey Salomón ofreció un sacrificio de 22, 000 bueyes y 120, 000 ovejas y cabras. Así, el rey y todo el pueblo dedicaron la casa al SEÑOR. 6 Los sacerdotes se pusieron en pie, cada uno parado donde ellos servían; los levitas también con los instrumentos de música del SEÑOR, los cuales David el rey había hecho para dar gracias al SEÑOR en la canción: "Porque su fidelidad al pacto permanece para siempre." Todos los sacerdotes sonaron trompetas delante de ellos y todo el pueblo se puso en pie. 7 Salomón separó el medio del patio en frente de la casa del SEÑOR. Allí él ofreció las ofrendas quemadas y la grasa de las ofrendas de paz, porque el altar de bronce que él había hecho no era capaz de sostener las ofrendas quemadas, las ofrendas de grano y la grasa. 8 Así fue que, Salomón llevó a cabo el festival en ese tiempo por siete días, y todo Israel con él, y una asamblea grande, desde Lebo Hamat hasta el arroyo de Egipto. 9 En el octavo día ellos llevaron a cabo una reunión solemne, porque ellos mantuvieron la dedicación del altar por siete días y el festín por siete días. 10 En el vigésimo tercer día del mes séptimo, Salomón envió al pueblo a sus hogares con corazones contentos y gozosos por la bondad que el SEÑOR había demostrado a David, Salomón e Israel, su pueblo. 11 Así, Salomón terminó la casa del SEÑOR y su propia casa. Todo lo que vino al corazón de Salomón para hacer en la casa del SEÑOR y en su propia casa, él lo completó exitosamente. 12 El SEÑOR se le apareció a Salomón en la noche y le dijo a él: "Yo he escuchado tu oración, y Yo he escogido este lugar para Mí mismo como una casa de sacrificio. 13 Supongan que Yo cierre los cielos para que no haya lluvia, o si ordeno a las langostas devorar la tierra, o si envío una enfermedad entre mi pueblo, 14 entonces si mi pueblo, quienes son llamados por Mi nombre, se humillan a sí mismos, oran, buscan mi rostro y se vuelven de sus caminos malvados, Yo escucharé desde el cielo, perdonaré sus pecados y sanaré su tierra. 15 Ahora, Mis ojos estarán abiertos y Mis oídos atentos a las oraciones que son hechas en este lugar. 16 Porque Yo ahora he escogido y separado esta casa para que Mi nombre pueda estar ahí para siempre. Mis ojos y Mi corazón estarán ahí cada día. 17 En cuanto a ti, si caminas delante de Mí como David tu padre caminó, obedeciendo todo lo que Yo te he ordenado y guardando Mis estatutos y Mis decretos, 18 luego Yo estableceré el trono de tu reino, como dije en un pacto con David tu padre, cuando dije: 'Un descendiente tuyo nunca fallará en ser gobernante de Israel.' 19 Pero si te alejas, y abandonas Mis estatutos y Mis mandamientos que Yo he colocado delante de ti, y si vas y adoras otros dioses y te inclinas a ellos, 20 entonces Yo los arrancaré de raíz de Mi tierra que Yo les he dado a ellos. Esta casa que Yo he separado para Mi nombre, yo la echaré lejos de Mí, y Yo la haré un proverbio y una broma entre los pueblos. 21 Aunque este templo está tan elevado ahora, todo el que pase por él estará sorprendido y murmurará. Ellos preguntarán: '¿Por qué el SEÑOR ha hecho esto a esta tierra y a esta casa?' 22 Otros contestarán: 'Porque ellos abandonaron al SEÑOR, su Dios, quien había traído a sus ancestros fuera de la tierra de Egipto, y ellos se sujetaron de otros dioses y se inclinaron a ellos y los adoraron. Este es el por qué el SEÑOR ha traído todo este desastre sobre ellos.'"

---

2 Chronicles 7:1

con sus rostros hacia el suelo
Esta es una posición de oración. Traducción Alterna: "se postraron con sus caras tocando el pavimento de piedra".

Su lealtad al pacto
Traducción Alterna: "La fidelidad del pacto de Dios" o "Dios ha prometido amar al pueblo de Israel para siempre"

2 Chronicles 7:4

cada uno parado donde ellos servían Traducción Alterna: "cada uno de pie en el lugar designado"

2 Chronicles 7:7

no era capaz de sostener las ofrendas quemadas Traducción Alterna: "no pudo contener la gran cantidad de holocaustos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 7:8

y todo Israel con él
Vinieron personas de todo Israel.

2 Chronicles 7:11

Terminó
"Acabado"

Yo he escuchado tu oración Traducción Alterna: "He escuchado tu oración"

2 Chronicles 7:13

Yo cierre los cielos para que no haya lluvia, Traducción Alterna: "detuvo la lluvia"

devorar la tierra
La palabra "tierra" se usa para referirse a "todas las plantas y cultivos vivos".

buscan mi rostro
Traducción Alterna: "busca a Dios" o "intenta que Dios te preste atención"

Mis ojos estarán abiertos ... Mis oídos atentos
Las palabras "ojos" y "oídos" se refieren a Dios, quien elige ver y escuchar sus oraciones.
Traducción Alterna: "Los veré y escucharé"

2 Chronicles 7:16

Mis ojos y Mi corazón
"Mi amor, cuidadosa vigilancia y protección" si caminas delante de Mí como David tu padre caminó Traducción Alterna: "Si me obedeces como lo hizo David, tu padre".

estableceré el trono
Traducción Alterna: "Me aseguraré de que tus descendientes siempre sean reyes" (UDB)

2 Chronicles 7:19

Yo los arrancaré de raíz de Mi tierra que Yo les he dado a ellos Traducción Alterna: "Voy a sacarlos de mi tierra". Compara arrancar las plantas del suelo con sus raíces, con la eliminación del pueblo de Israel de Dios de su tierra. Los resultados serían la destrucción de la nación y la tristeza de la gente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Ocurrió que al cabo de veinte años, durante los cuales Salomón había construído la casa del SEÑOR y su propia casa, 2 que Salomón reconstruyó los pueblos que Hiram le había dado a él, y estableció al pueblo de Israel en ellos. 3 Salomón atacó a Hamat y la derrotó. 4 Él construyó a Tadmor en el desierto, y todos las ciudades de almacenamiento, las cuales construyó en Hamat. 5 También él construyó a Bet Horón de arriba y a Bet Horón de abajo, ciudades fortificadas con paredes, puertas y barras. 6 Él construyó a Baalat y todas las ciudades de almacenamiento que él poseía, y todas las ciudades para sus carruajes y las ciudades para sus jinetes, y cualquier cosa que él deseó construir para su placer en Jerusalén, en Líbano, y en todas las tierras bajo su dominio. 7 En cuanto a todas las personas que habían quedado de los hititas, amorreos, ferezeos, heveos y los jebuseos, quienes no pertenecían a Israel, 8 sus descendientes quienes fueron dejados después de ellos en la tierra, a quienes el pueblo de Israel no había destruído--Salomón los hizo obreros forzados, lo cual son hasta este día. 9 Sin embargo, Salomón no hizo obreros forzados del pueblo de Israel. En cambio, ellos se hicieron sus soldados, sus comandantes, sus oficiales y comandantes de sus fuerzas de carruajes y sus jinetes. 10 Estos también eran oficiales líderes dirigiendo a los supervisores quienes pertenecían al rey Salomón, 250 de ellos, quienes supervisaban a las personas que hacían el trabajo. 11 Salomón trajo a la hija de Faraón fuera de la ciudad de David a la casa que él había construído para ella, porque él dijo: "Mi esposa no debe vivir en la casa de David, rey de Israel, porque donde sea que el arca del SEÑOR ha estado es santo." 12 Entonces Salomón ofreció ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR en su altar que él había construído al frente de la puerta. 13 Él ofreció sacrificios tal como se requería a diario; él los ofreció, siguiendo las instrucciones encontradas en los mandamientos de Moisés, en los días Sábados, las lunas nuevas y en los festivales establecidas tres veces cada año: el Festival del Pan sin Levadura, el Festival de las Semanas, y el Festival de los Tabernáculos. 14 Manteniendo los decretos de su padre David, Salomón asignó las divisiones de los sacerdotes para su trabajo, y los levitas para sus posiciones, para alabar a Dios y servir ante los sacerdotes, como se requerí a diario. Él también asignó porteros por sus divisiones para cada puerta, porque David, el hombre de Dios, también había ordenado esto. 15 Estas personas no se apartaban de los mandamientos del rey para los sacerdotes y levitas en cuanto a cualquier asunto, o en cuanto a los almacenes. 16 Todo el trabajo ordenado por Salomón fue completado, desde el día que los fundamentos de la casa del SEÑOR fueron colocados hasta que fue terminada. La casa del SEÑOR fue completada. 17 Luego Salomón fue a Ezión Geber y Elot, en la costa en la tierra de Edom. 18 Hiram le envió barcos dirigidos por oficiales quienes eran marineros con experiencia. Ellos navegaron con los siervos de Salomón a Ofir. Ellos llevaron de allí 450 talentos (16, 000 kilogramos) de oro los cuales ellos trajeron al rey Salomón.

---

2 Chronicles 8:1

Ocurrió que al cabo de veinte años
Traducción Alterna: Después de 20 años,"

Hiram

2 Chronicles 8:3

Salomón atacó a Hamat
Salomón representa a todo su ejército de combate. Traducción Alterna: "El ejército de Salomón atacó la ciudad de Hamat"

Tadmor ... Hamat
Ciudades en Siria.

2 Chronicles 8:5

Información General:

2 Chronicles 8:7

quienes fueron dejados después de ellos en la tierra Traducción Alterna: "quienes se quedaron en la tierra"

obreros forzados
Traducción Alterna: "Esclavos"

Hasta este día
Vea como se tradujo esto en el 5:9

2 Chronicles 8:9

250
Ver:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 8:12

Puerta
Este es un porche cubierto o pasarela sostenido por columnas, unidas a un edificio.

tal como se requería a diario
Traducción Alterna: "según los requisitos diarios de la ley de Moisés"

2 Chronicles 8:14

Estas personas no se apartaban de los mandamientos
Traducción Alterna: "la gente siguió los mandamientos"

2 Chronicles 8:16

Fundación, Fundado
El verbo "fundado" significa ser construido o basado en algo. Es la base sobre la cual se construye algo.

- La base de una casa o edificio debe ser fuerte y confiable para soportar toda la estructura.
- El término "fundamento" también puede referirse al comienzo de algo o al momento en que algo se creó por primera vez.
- En un sentido figurado, los creyentes en Cristo son comparados con un edificio que se basa en las enseñanzas de los apóstoles y profetas, siendo Cristo mismo la piedra angular del edificio.
- Una "piedra fundamental" era una piedra que se colocó como parte de la base. Estas piedras se probaron para asegurarse de que fueran lo suficientemente fuertes como para soportar todo un edificio.

Sugerencias de traducción

- La frase "antes de la fundación del mundo" podría traducirse como "antes de la creación del mundo" o "antes del tiempo en que el mundo existió por primera vez" o "antes de que todo fuera creado por primera vez".
- El término "fundado en" podría traducirse como "construido de manera segura" o "firmemente basado en".
- Dependiendo del contexto, "fundamento" podría traducirse como "base sólida" o "soporte sólido" o "principio" o "creación".

Ver también: piedra angular

Casa de Dios, Casa del SEÑOR
En la Biblia, las frases "casa de Dios" y "casa del Señor" se refieren a un lugar donde se adora a Dios.

- Este término también se usa más específicamente para referirse al tabernáculo o al templo.
- Algunas veces "la casa de Dios" se usa para referirse al pueblo de Dios.

Sugerencias de traducción

- Al referirse a un lugar de culto, este término podría traducirse como "una casa para adorar a Dios" o "un lugar para adorar a Dios".
- Si se refiere al templo o al tabernáculo, esto podría traducirse como "el templo"

Ver también: tabernáculo, templo

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Cuando la reina de Sabá escuchó de la fama de Salomón, ella vino a Jerusalén para probarlo con preguntas difíciles. Llegó con una larga caravana, con camellos cargados con especies, mucho oro, y muchas piedras preciosas. Cuando ella hubo llegado a Salomón, ella le dijo todo lo que había en su corazón. 2 Salomón le contestó todas sus preguntas; nada era muy difícil para Salomón; no había ninguna pregunta que él no contestara. 3 Cuando la reina de Sabá vió la sabiduría de Salomón y el palacio que él había edificado, 4 la comida sobre la mesa, el acomodo de sus siervos, el trabajo de sus sirvientes y sus vestiduras, también sus coperos y sus vestiduras, y la manera en la cual ofrecía ofrenda quemada en la casa del SEÑOR, no había más espíritu en ella. 5 Ella le dijo al rey: "Es verdad, el reporte del cual escuché en mi propia tierra de tus palabras y sabiduría. 6 Yo no creía lo que había escuchado hasta que vine aquí, y ahora mis ojos lo han visto. ¡Ni la mitad se me dijo de tu sabiduría y tus riquezas! Tú has excedido la fama que yo he escuchado. 7 Cuán bendecido es tu pueblo, y cuán bendecidos son tus siervos quienes constantemente están de pie ante ti, porque ellos escuchan tu sabiduría. 8 "Bendecido sea el SEÑOR tu Dios, quien tiene complaciencia en ti, quien te colocó en su trono, para ser rey para el SEÑOR tu Dios. Porque tu Dios amó a Israel, con el fin de establecerlos para siempre, Él te hizo rey sobre ellos, para que hagas justicia y rectitud". 9 Ella le dió al rey 120 talentos (4, 080 kilogramos) de oro y una cantidad grande de especias y piedras preciosas. Ninguna cantidad mayor de especias como estas que la reina de Sabá le dio al rey Salomón alguna vez le fue dada a él otra vez. 10 Los sirvientes de Hiram y los sirvientes de Salomón, quienes trajeron oro de Ofir, también compraron madera de sándalo y piedras preciosas. 11 Con la madera de sándalo, el rey hizo gradas para la casa del SEÑOR y para su casa y también arpas y liras para los músicos. Ninguna madera como esta había sido vista anteriormente en la tierra de Judá. 12 El rey Salomón le dió a la reina de Sabá todo lo que ella deseaba, todo lo que ella pidiera, sumado a aquello que ella le había traído al rey. Así que ella regresó a su propia tierra, ella y sus sirvientes. 13 Ahora el peso del oro que había llegado a Salomón en un año fue de 666 talentos (23, 000 kilogramos) de oro, 14 aparte del oro que los comerciantes y mercaderes habían traído. Todos los reyes de Arabia y los gobernadores en el país también le trajeron oro y plata a Salomón. 15 El rey Salomón hizo doscientos escudos grandes de oro batido. Seiscientos siclos de oro estaban contenidos en cada uno. 16 Él también hizo trescientos escudos de oro batido. Tres siclos de oro estaban contenidos en cada escudo; el rey los colocó en el Palacio del Bosque del Líbano. 17 Entonces el rey hizo un gran trono de márfil, y lo cubrió con el oro más fino. 18 Habían seis gradas hacia el trono, y el tope del trono era redondo atrás. Habían reposabrazos en cada lado del asiento, y dos leones de pie al lado de los reposabrazos. 19 Doce leones estaban parados en las gradas, uno a cada lado de cada una de las seis gradas. No había otro trono como éste en ningún otro reino. 20 Todas las copas de beber del rey Salomón eran de oro y todas las copas para beber en la Casa del Bosque del Líbano eran de oro puro. Ninguna era de plata porque la plata no era considerada valiosa en los días de Salomón. 21 El rey tenía en el mar una flota de barcos de alta mar, junto con la flota de Hiram. Cada tres años la flota traía oro, plata y marfil, así como simios y mandríles. 22 Así que, el rey Salomón excedió a todos los reyes en riquezas y en sabiduría. 23 Toda la tierra buscaba la presencia de Salomón para así escuchar su sabiduría, la cual Dios había puesto en su corazón. 24 Aquellos que visitaban traían tributo, vasijas de plata y de oro, vestiduras, armas, y especias, así también como caballos y mulas, año tras año. 25 Salomón tenía cuatro mil establos para caballos y carruajes, y doce mil jinetes, los cuales él situó en las ciudades para los carruajes con él mismo en Jerusalén. 26 El reinó sobre todos los reyes desde el río Eufrates hasta la tierra de los filisteos y hasta la frontera de Egipto. 27 El rey tenía plata en Jerusalén, tanto como las piedras en el piso. Hizo que la madera de cedro fuera tan abundante como los sicómoros que estaban en las tierras bajas. 28 Ellos trajeron caballos para Salomón desde Egipto y de todas las tierras. 29 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Salomón, primero y último, ¿No están escritos en la historia de Natán el profeta, en la profecía de Ahías el silonita, y en las visiones de Iddo el vidente, concerniente a Jeroboam hijo de Nabat? 30 Salomón reinó en Jerusalén sobre todo Israel por cuarenta años. 31 Él durmió con sus ancestros y el pueblo lo enterró en la ciudad de David su padre. Roboam, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 9:3

el palacio que él había edificado, la comida sobre la mesa, el acomodo de sus siervos, el trabajo de sus sirvientes y sus vestiduras, también sus coperos y sus vestiduras Sabá vio todo lo de Salomón

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Coperos
Estos eran sirvientes que probaron una bebida antes que el Rey para probarlo en busca de veneno.

no había más espíritu en ella.
Traducción Alterna: "ella ya no estaba llena de orgullo"

2 Chronicles 9:5

ahora mis ojos lo han visto
Traducción: "ahora lo he visto por mí mismo"

Ni la mitad se me dijo de tu sabiduría y tus riquezas Traducción Alterna: "Eres extremadamente sabio y rico"

2 Chronicles 9:7

quienes constantemente están de pie ante ti Traducción Alterna: "que esperan tus órdenes en tu presencia"

quien tiene complaciencia en ti Traducción Alterna: "quien está contento contigo"

2 Chronicles 9:9

Talentos

2 Chronicles 9:10

Hiram
El rey de Tiro.

Ofir
Un lugar desconocido, conocido por su oro.

madera de sándalo
Este es un tipo de madera

2 Chronicles 9:13

666
Ver:

2 Chronicles 9:15

Seiscientos siclos de oro estaban contenidos en cada uno.
"Estaban hechos de seiscientos siclos de oro".

Siclos ... minas

el Palacio del Bosque del Líbano.
Probablemente este era un lugar de almacenamiento cerca del palacio hecho de muchas piezas grandes de madera del Líbano. Esto también podría llamarse un arsenal.

2 Chronicles 9:17

Marfil
Este es otro nombre para el colmillo o cuerno de un animal, como un elefante o un rinoceronte.

el tope del trono era redondo atrás
Traducción Alterna: "la parte superior del trono estaba detrás de donde estaba sentado el rey"

2 Chronicles 9:19

Ninguna era de plata porque la plata no era considerada valiosa en los días de Salomón
La plata era tan común en los días de Salomón que tenía muy poco valor.

Simios y mandriles
Animales de muy lejos, probablemente África.

2 Chronicles 9:22

la cual Dios había puesto en su corazón Traducción Alterna: "que Dios le dio"

Año tras año
Traducción Alterna: " Todos los años"

2 Chronicles 9:25

Información General:

Establos
Este es un pequeño recinto donde se guardan los caballos.

2 Chronicles 9:27

tanto como las piedras en el piso Traducción Alterna: "tanta plata"

Hizo que la madera de cedro fuera tan abundante como los sicómoros que estaban en las tierras bajas Traducción Alterna: "muy abundante"

De todas las tierras Traducción Alterna: "de todos lados" o "de todas partes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Roboam fue a Siquem, porque todo Israel iba a Siquem para hacerlo rey. 2 Sucedió que Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, escuchó de esto (porque el estaba en Egipto, de donde él había huído de la presencia del rey Salomón, pero Jeroboam regresó de Egipto). 3 Así que enviaron por él y lo llamaron y Jeroboam y todo Israel vinieron; le hablaron a Roboam y dijeron: 4 "Tu padre hizo nuestro yugo difícil. Por lo tanto, ahora haz el trabajo de tu padre más fácil y aligera el yugo pesado que colocó sobre nosotros y nosotros te serviremos." 5 Roboam les dijo a ellos: "Vengan otra vez a mi luego de tres días." Así que el pueblo se fue. 6 El rey Roboam consultó con los ancianos que habían estado delante de Salomón su padre, mientras él estaba vivo; el dijo: "¿Cómo me aconsejan para traer una respuesta a estas personas?" 7 Ellos le hablaron a él y dijeron: "Si eres bueno con este pueblo y los complaces y les dices palabras buenas a ellos, entonces ellos siempre serán tus sirvientes." 8 Pero Roboam ignoró los consejos que le habían dado a él los ancianos y consultó con los hombres jóvenes que habían crecido con él, que estaban delante de él. 9 Él les dijo a ellos: "¿Qué consejo me dan para que nosotros podamos contestarle a las personas que me hablaron y dijeron: 'Aligera el yugo que tu padre colocó sobre nosotros'?" 10 Los hombres jóvenes que habían crecido con Roboam le hablaron, diciendo: "Así es como tú deberás hablarle a las personas que te dijeron que tu padre Salomón les hizo su yugo difícil, pero que tú debes hacerlo ligero. Esto es lo que debes decirle a ellos, 'Mi dedo pequeño es más grueso que la cintura de mi padre. 11 Así que ahora, aunque mi padre los cargó con un yugo difícil, yo añadiré a su yugo. Mi padre los castigó con látigos, pero yo los castigaré con escorpiones.'" 12 Así que Jeroboam y todo su pueblo vinieron a Roboam en el tercer día, como el rey dijo: "Vuelve a mí en el tercer día." 13 Roboam les habló a ellos fuertemente, ignorando el consejo de los ancianos. 14 Él les habló a ellos siguiendo el consejo de los hombres jóvenes, diciendo: "Mi padre les hizo su yugo difícil, pero yo le añadiré a él. Mi padre los castigó con latigos, pero yo los castigaré con escorpiones." 15 Así que el rey no escuchó al pueblo, porque era un giro de eventos provocados por Dios, para que el SEÑOR cumpliera su palabra que Ahías el Silonita había hablado a Jeroboam hijo de Nabat. 16 Cuando todo Israel vió que el rey no los escuchó, el pueblo le contestó diciendo: "¿Qué parte tenemos en David? ¡No tenemos ninguna heredad en el hijo de Isaí! Cada uno de ustedes debe volver a su tienda, Israel. Ahora cuida a tu propia casa, David." Así que todo Israel regresó a sus tiendas. 17 Pero en cuanto al pueblo de Israel que vivía en las ciudades de Judá, Roboam reinó sobre ellos. 18 Entonces el rey Roboam envió a Adoram, quien estaba sobre los trabajadores forzados, pero el pueblo de Israel lo apedreó hasta la muerte con piedras. El rey Roboam huyó rápidamente en su carruaje a Jerusalén. 19 Así que Israel ha estado en rebelión contra la casa de David hasta este día.

---

2 Chronicles 10:1

Todo Israel
"Todo el pueblo de la nación de Israel".

Hijo de Nabat

2 Chronicles 10:8

Roboam ignoró los consejos Traducción Alterna: "Roboam no siguió el consejo"

hombres jóvenes
Los "hombres jóvenes" se refieren a su falta de sabiduría y experiencia en comparación con los viejos que habían aconsejado a Salomón.

que habían crecido con él, que estaban delante de él quienes fueron sus viejos amigos, le aconsejaron

2 Chronicles 10:10

Mi dedo pequeño es más grueso que la cintura de mi padre
El punto de Roboam es que es más duro y exigente que su padre.

yo los castigaré con escorpiones
Traducción Alterna: "pero te azotaré con látigos que tienen pedazos de metal".

2 Chronicles 10:12

Todo su pueblo Traducción Alterna: "Todos los líderes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El tercer día

2 Chronicles 10:15

Ahías el Silonita ... Jeroboam hijo de Nabat.

2 Chronicles 10:16

¿Qué parte tenemos en David?
"¡No queremos tener nada que ver con este descendiente del rey David!"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Cuando Roboam llegó a Jerusalén, él reunió la casa de Judá y Benjamín, 180, 000 hombres escogidos quienes eran soldados, para pelear contra Israel, para restaurar el reino a Roboam. 2 Pero la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Semaías, el hombre de Dios, diciendo: 3 "Dile a Roboam, hijo de Salomón, rey de Judá, y a todo Israel en Judá y Benjamín: 4 'El SEÑOR dice esto: "Tú no debes atacar o hacer guerra contra tus hermanos. Todos deben regresar a su propia casa, porque Yo he causado que esto suceda.'" Así que ellos obedecieron las palabras del SEÑOR y retrocedieron de atacar a Jeroboam. 5 Roboam vivió en Jerusalén y construyó ciudades en Judá para defensa. 6 Él construyó a Belén, Etam, Tecoa, 7 Bet Sur, Soco, Adulam, 8 Gat, Maresa, Zif, 9 Adoraim, Laquis, Azeca, 10 Zora, Ajalón y Hebrón. Estas son ciudades fortificadas en Judá y Benjamín. 11 Él fortificó las fortalezas y puso comandantes en ellas, con almacenes de comida, aceite y vino. 12 Él puso escudos y lanzas en todas las ciudades y las hizo muy fuertes. Así que Judá y Benjamín le pertenecían a él. 13 Los sacerdotes y levitas quienes estaban en todo Israel fueron a él desde dentro de sus fronteras. 14 Pues los levitas dejaron sus pastizales y propiedades para ir a Judá y Jerusalén, porque Jeroboam y sus hijos los habían sacado, así que ellos ya no podían realizar los deberes sacerdotales para el SEÑOR. 15 Jeroboam asignó para sí mismo sacerdotes para los lugares altos y para los ídolos de cabra y becerro que él había hecho. 16 Personas de todas las tribus de Israel vinieron tras ellos, aquellos quienes establecieron en sus corazones buscar al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel; ellos vinieron a Jerusalén para sacrificar al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres. 17 Así que ellos fortalecieron el reinado de Judá e hicieron a Roboam, hijo de Salomón, fuerte durante tres años, y ellos caminaron durante tres años en el camino de David y Salomón. 18 Roboam tomó una esposa para sí mismo: Mahalat, la hija de Jerimot, hijo de David, y de Abigail, la hija de Eliab, hijo de Jesé. 19 Ella le dio hijos: Jeús, Semarías y Zaham. 20 Después de Mahalat, Roboam tomó a Maaca, hija de Absalón; ella le dio a luz a Abías, Atai, Ziza y Selomit. 21 Roboam amó a Maaca, la hija de Absalón, más que a todas sus otras esposas y sus concubinas (él tomó dieciocho esposas y sesenta concubinas, y fue el padre de veintiocho hijos y sesenta hijas). 22 Roboam escogió a Abías, hijo de Maaca, para ser jefe, un líder entre sus hermanos; él tenía el pensamiento de hacerlo rey. 23 Roboam gobernó sabiamente; él distribuyó a todos sus hijos por toda la tierra de Judá y Benjamín, por cada ciudad fortificada. También les dio comida en abundancia y buscó muchas esposas para ellos.

---

2 Chronicles 11:1

hombres escogidos quienes eran soldados Traducción Alterna: " de sus mejores soldados"

2 Chronicles 11:2

la palabra del SEÑOR vino
"El SEÑOR habló su palabra"

Semaías

2 Chronicles 11:5

Información General:

2 Chronicles 11:11

Judá y Benjamín le pertenecían a él.
Roboam tenía el control de los territorios de Judá y Benjamín.

2 Chronicles 11:13

Los sacerdotes y levitas quienes estaban en todo Israel fueron a él Traducción Alterna: "Los sacerdotes y levitas huyeron de Israel, el reino del norte para ir a Judá".

Pastizales
Tierras utilizadas para animales.

2 Chronicles 11:16

Personas de todas las tribus de Israel vinieron tras ellos
La gente de las tribus pertenecientes al reino del norte que todavía adoraban al Señor Dios huyeron a Judá.

quienes establecieron en sus corazones buscar al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "quienes decidieron adorar al SEÑOR" ellos caminaron durante tres años en el camino de David y Salomón Traducción Alterna: "siguieron el ejemplo de David y Salomón durante tres años"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 11:18

Información General:

2 Chronicles 11:20

Información General:

2 Chronicles 11:22

Información General:

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Ocurrió, cuando el reino de Roboam fue establecido y él era fuerte, que él abandonó la ley del SEÑOR-- y todo Israel con él. 2 Y sucedió en el quinto año del rey Roboam, que Sisac, rey de Egipto, vino contra Jerusalén, porque el pueblo le había sido infiel al SEÑOR. 3 Él vino con mil docientos carruajes y sesenta mil jinetes. Soldados sin número vinieron con él desde Egipto: libios, suquienos y etíopes. 4 Él conquistó las ciudades fortificadas que le pertenecían a Judá y vino a Jerusalén. 5 Ahora, Semaías el profeta vino a Roboam y a los líderes de Judá quienes se habían reunido en Jerusalén a causa de Sisac. Semaías les dijo a ellos: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: 'Ustedes me han dejado, así que Yo también los he entregado en las manos de Sisac.'" 6 Luego los príncipes de Israel y el rey se humillaron a sí mismos y dijeron: "El SEÑOR es recto." 7 Cuando el SEÑOR vio que ellos se habían humillado a sí mismos, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Semaías, diciendo: "Ellos se han humillado a sí mismos. Yo no los destruiré a ellos; Yo los rescataré hasta cierto punto, y mi ira no se derramará sobre Jerusalén por medio de las manos de Sisac. 8 Sin embargo, ellos serán sus siervos, para que puedan entender lo que es servirme a Mí, y servir a los gobernantes de otras naciones." 9 Así que Sisac, rey de Egipto, vino contra Jerusalén y tomó los tesoros de la casa del SEÑOR, y los tesoros de la casa del rey. Él se llevó todo; también se llevó los escudos de oro que Salomón había hecho. 10 El rey Roboam hizo escudos de bronce en su lugar y los confió en las manos de los comandantes de la guardia, quienes protegían las puertas de la casa del rey. 11 Y sucedía que cada vez que el rey entraba en la casa del SEÑOR, los guardias los cargaban con ellos; luego, ellos los traerían de vuelta a la casa de los guardas. 12 Cuando Roboam se humilló a sí mismo, la ira del SEÑOR se alejó de él, para no destruirlo completamente; además, todavía quedaba algún bien para ser encontrado en Judá.
13 Así que el rey Roboam hizo su reinado fuerte en Jerusalén, y así reinó. Roboam tenía cuarenta y un años cuando comenzó a reinar, y reinó por diecisiete años en Jerusalén, la ciudad que el SEÑOR había escogido de todas las tribus de Israel para Él poner Su nombre allí. El nombre de su madre era Naama, la amonita. 14 Él hizo lo malo, porque no dispuso su corazón para buscar al SEÑOR. 15 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Roboam, primeros y postreros, ¿no están escritos en los libros de Semaías el profeta y de Iddo el vidente, quién también tiene registros de genealogías y las constantes guerras entre Roboam y Jeroboam? 16 Roboam durmió con sus ancestros y fue enterrado en la ciudad de David; Abías su hijo vino a ser rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 12:1

Ocurrió, cuando
"Sucedió" marca un punto de especial importancia en la historia.Traducción Alterna: "En el mismo momento en que"

y todo Israel con él.
Traducción Alterna: "Y tanto Israel como Judá lo siguieron en su pecado". Israel también incluye a Judá aquí.

2 Chronicles 12:2

Información General:

Vino contra Traducción Alterna: "vino para atacar"

Soldados sin número Traducción Alterna: "Muchos soldados"

2 Chronicles 12:5

Información General:

así que Yo también los he entregado en las manos de Sisac Traducción Alterna: "así que te he dado a Sisac como cautivo"

2 Chronicles 12:7

ellos se habían humillado a sí mismos Traducción Alterna: "El rey y los otros líderes de Israel se habían humillado", el rey y otros líderes son un símbolo de todo el pueblo de Israel.

la palabra del SEÑOR vino
El SEÑOR dijo su palabra". Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 11: 2.

Yo los rescataré hasta cierto punto Traducción Alterna: "Los rescataré de la destrucción completa" mi ira no se derramará sobre Jerusalén Traducción Alterna: "No expresaré completamente mi ira contra Jerusalén"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 12:9

los confió en las manos de los comandantes Traducción Alterna: "se los dio a los comandantes"

2 Chronicles 12:11

Y sucedía que cada vez marca un momento de especial importancia en la historia. Muchos idiomas tienen una manera de marcar esta importante frase de tiempo.

la ira del SEÑOR se alejó de él, para no destruirlo completamente Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ya no estaba enojado con él y, por lo tanto, no lo destruyó por completo"

Además
"Adicionalmente"

2 Chronicles 12:13

para Él poner Su nombre allí Traducción Alterna: "para que siempre sea honrado allí".

no dispuso su corazón para buscar al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "no tenía el deseo ni la fuerza para obedecer a Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 En el décimo octavo año del rey Jeroboam, Abías comenzó a reinar sobre Judá. 2 Él reinó por tres años en Jerusalén; el nombre de su madre era Micaías, la hija de Uriel de Guibeá. Y hubo guerra entre Abías y Jeroboam. 3 Abías fue a la batalla con un ejército de soldados fuertes y valientes, 400, 000 hombres escogidos. Jeroboam se alineó contra él con 800, 000 hombres escogidos, soldados fuertes y valientes. 4 Abías se levantó en el monte Zemaraim, el cual está en el país montañoso de Efraín, y dijo: "¡Eschúchenme, Jeroboam y todo Israel! 5 ¿No saben ustedes que el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, le dio el dominio a David sobre Israel por siempre, a él y a sus hijos por medio de un pacto oficial? 6 Aún así, Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, el siervo de Salomón, hijo de David, se levantó y se rebeló en contra de su amo. 7 Hombres indignos, compañeros corruptos, se unieron a él. Ellos vinieron en contra de Roboam, hijo de Salomón, cuando Roboam era joven e inexperto, y no podía resistirlos. 8 Ahora, ustedes dicen que pueden resistir el poder soberano del SEÑOR en la mano de los descendientes de David. Ustedes son un ejército grande, y con ustedes están los becerros dorados que Jeroboam hizo como dioses para ustedes. 9 ¿No han sacado a los sacerdotes del SEÑOR, los descendientes de Aarón y a los levitas? ¿No han hecho sacerdotes para ustedes en la forma de los pueblos de otras tierras? Cualquiera que venga a santificarse a sí mismo con un novillo y siete carneros, puede convertirse en sacerdote de lo que no son dioses. 10 Pero para nosotros, el SEÑOR es nuestro Dios, porque no lo hemos abandonado. Nosotros tenemos sacerdotes, descendientes de Aarón, sirviendo al SEÑOR, y a los levitas, quienes hacen su trabajo. 11 Cada mañana y cada tarde, ellos queman para el SEÑOR ofrendas quemadas y dulce incienso. Ellos también ponen el pan de la presencia en la mesa pura; ellos también ponen los candelabros de oro con sus lámparas, para que ellas se quemen cada tarde. Nosotros mantenemos los mandamientos del SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, pero ustedes lo han abandonado. 12 Miren, Dios está con nosotros, a nuestra cabeza, y sus sacerdotes están aquí con las trompetas para sonar la alarma contra ustedes. Pueblo de Israel, no peleen en contra del SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, porque ustedes no ganarán." 13 Pero Jeroboam preparó una emboscada detrás de ellos, su ejército estaba en frente de Judá, y la emboscada estaba atrás de ellos. 14 Cuando Judá miró hacia atrás, he aquí, la pelea estaba al frente y detrás de ellos. Ellos clamaron al SEÑOR, y los sacerdotes sonaron las trompetas. 15 Entonces los hombres de Judá dieron un grito, mientras gritaban, sucedió que Dios golpeó a Jeroboam y todo Israel delante de Abías y Judá. 16 La gente de Israel huyó ante Judá, y Dios los entregó a ellos en la mano de Judá. 17 Abías y su ejército los mató con una gran masacre; 500, 000 hombres escogidos de Israel cayeron muertos. 18 De esta manera, el pueblo de Israel fue sometido en aquel tiempo, el pueblo de Judá ganó porque ellos confiaron en el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. 19 Abías persiguió a Jeroboam; él (Abías) tomó ciudades de él (Jeroboam): Betel con sus aldeas, Jesana con sus aldeas y Efraín con sus aldeas. 20 Jeroboam nunca recuperó poder otra vez durante los días de Abías; el SEÑOR lo golpeó, y él murió. 21 Pero Abías se volvió poderoso; él tomó catorce esposas y se convirtió en el padre de veintidós hijos y diesciséis hijas. 22 El resto de los hechos de Abías, su comportamiento y palabras, están escritos en la narración del profeta Iddo.

---

2 Chronicles 13:1

Micaías, la hija de Uriel de Guibeá.

2 Chronicles 13:4

Monte Zemaraim

¿No saben ustedes ... pacto oficial?
Traducción Alterna: "Lo sabes muy bien ... pacto".

2 Chronicles 13:6

hijo de Nabat

compañeros corruptos Traducción Alterna: "Corruptos, hombres inmorales"

se unieron a él
Traducción Alterna: "Se unieron a Jeroboam"

2 Chronicles 13:8

los becerros dorados que Jeroboam hizo como dioses
Esto hace referencia a los ídolos

¿No han sacado ... Levitas?
Traducción Alterna: "Has conducido ... levitas".

¿No han hecho ... tierras?
Traducción Alterna: "Has hecho ... tierras".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cualquiera que venga a santificarse a sí mismo con un novillo y siete carneros, puede convertirse en sacerdote de lo que no son dioses.
Traducción Alterna: "Cualquiera que ofrezca un toro joven y siete carneros puede convertirse en sacerdote de estos becerros de oro que no son dioses".

2 Chronicles 13:10

quienes hacen su trabajo.
Traducción Alterna: "Quienes están trabajando"

el pan de la presencia
El "pan de la presencia" era un tipo especial de pan que se hizo como un símbolo de la presencia de Dios y de su comunión con su pueblo.

ellos también ponen los candelabros
Traducción Alterna: "Ellos también cuidan el candelabro"

2 Chronicles 13:12

no peleen en contra del SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "no te rebeles contra el SEÑOR"

2 Chronicles 13:13

emboscada detrás de ellos Traducción Alterna: "Un ataque sorpresa detrás del ejército de Judá" la emboscada estaba atrás de ellos.

Traducción Alterna: "El ataque sorpresa estaba detrás del ejército de Judá"

Ellos clamaron al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "llamaron en voz alta al Señor"

sucedió que Dios golpeó Traducción Alterna: "Dios golpeó"

2 Chronicles 13:16

500.000

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 Abías durmió con sus ancestros, y lo enterraron en la cuidad de David. Asa, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. En sus días la tierra estuvo tranquila por diez años. 2 Asa hizo lo que era bueno y correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR su Dios, 3 porque él quitó los altares extranjeros y los lugares altos. El rompió los pilares de piedra y derribó las columnas de Asera. 4 Él ordenó a Judá buscar al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, y que llevaran a cabo la ley y los mandamientos. 5 También, él quitó los lugares altos y los altares de incienso de todas la ciudades de Judá. El reino tuvo descanso bajo él. 6 Él construyó cuidades fortificadas en Judá, porque la tierra estuvo tranquila, él no tuvo guerra en aquellos días, porque el SEÑOR le había dado paz. 7 Asa le dijo a Judá: "Vamos a construir estas ciudades y hacer los muros alrededor de ellas, y torres, puertas, y barrotes; la tierra aún es nuestra porque hemos buscado al SEÑOR nuestro Dios. Nosotros lo hemos buscado, y Él nos ha dado paz en cada lado." Así que ellos construyeron y tuvieron éxito. 8 Asa tenía un ejército que cargaba escudos y espadas; de Judá él tenía 300, 000 hombres, y de Benjamín tenía 280, 000 hombres quienes cargaron escudos y tensaron arcos. Todos estos hombres fuertes y valientes. 9 Zera el etíope vino contra ellos con un ejército de un millón de soldados y trescientos carruajes; él vino a Maresa. 10 Entonces, Asa salió a encontrarlo, y formaron las líneas de batalla en orden en el Valle de Sefata en Maresa. 11 Asa gritó al SEÑOR, su Dios, y dijo: "SEÑOR, no hay nadie, sino Tú para ayudar a uno que no tiene fuerzas cuando está enfrentando a muchos. Ayúdanos, SEÑOR nuestro Dios, porque dependemos de Tí, y en Tu nombre hemos venido contra este vasto número. SEÑOR, Tú eres nuestro Dios; no dejes que el hombre te derrote." 12 Así que el SEÑOR derrotó a los etíopes delante de Asa y Judá; los etíopes huyeron. 13 Asa y los soldados con él los persiguieron hasta Gerar. Así que muchos etíopes sintieron que no se podían recuperar, porque estaban completamente destruídos ante el SEÑOR y su ejército. El ejército cargó con mucho botín. 14 El ejército destruyó todas las aldeas alrededor de Gerar, porque el terror del SEÑOR había venido sobre los habitantes. El ejército saqueó todas las aldeas, y era mucho botín. 15 El ejército también destruyó el asentamiento de las tiendas de los nómadas que pastoreaban; ellos cargaron con ovejas en abundancia, como también camellos y luego regresaron a Jerusalén.

---

2 Chronicles 14:1

Abías durmió con sus ancestros
Traducción Alterna: "Abías murió"

En sus días
Traducción Alterna: "Durante su reinado"

la tierra estuvo tranquila por diez años.
Traducción Alterna: "hubo paz en la tierra durante diez años"

ante los ojos del SEÑOR su Dios Traducción Alterna: "Según el SEÑOR"

2 Chronicles 14:5

él quitó los lugares altos y los altares de incienso de todas la ciudades de Judá Traducción Alterna: Asa destruyó todos los santuarios y altares que se usaban para adorar dioses falsos en Judá "

2 Chronicles 14:7

Información General:

Asa le dijo a Judá Traducción Alterna: "Asa dijo al pueblo de Judá"

hemos buscado al SEÑOR nuestro Dios.
Traducción Alterna: "le hemos pedido al Señor nuestro Dios que nos ayude"

2 Chronicles 14:9

Información General:
Ver: y

Maresa
Esta era una ciudad de Judá

no dejes que el hombre te derrote Traducción Alterna: "no dejes que otros derroten a tu gente"

2 Chronicles 14:12

etíopes huyeron Traducción Alterna: "Los Etíopes murieron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 El espíritu de Dios vino sobre Asarías hijo de Obed. 2 Él salió a encontrarse con Asa y le dijo a él: "Escúchame a mí, Asa, y toda Judá y Benjamín: El SEÑOR está contigo, mientras tú estés con Él. Si lo buscas a Él, Él será encontrado por ti; pero si tú lo abandonas a Él, Él te abandonará a ti. 3 Ahora por un periodo de tiempo largo, Israel estuvo sin un verdadero Dios, sin un sacerdote maestro y sin la ley. 4 Pero cuando en aflicción, ellos se volvieron al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, y lo buscaron, Él fue hallado por ellos. 5 En esos tiempos no había paz para aquél que viajaba, ni para aquél que viajó hasta aquí; en lugar de ello, grandes problemas estaban sobre los habitantes de las tierras. 6 Estaban rotos en pedazos, nación contra nación, y ciudad contra ciudad, porque Dios los perturbó con todo tipo de sufrimiento. 7 Pero sean fuertes, y no permitas que tus manos sean débiles, porque tu trabajo será recompensado. 8 Cuando Asa oyó estas palabras, la profecía de Obed el profeta, él tomó valentía y quitó las cosas repugnantes de toda tierra de Judá y Benjamín, y de las ciudades que él había capturado de la zona rural montañosa de Efraín, y él reconstruyó el altar del SEÑOR, que estaba de frente al pórtico de la casa del SEÑOR. 9 Él reunió a toda Judá y Benjamín, y aquellos que se quedaron con ellos -- personas de Efraín, Manasés y Simeón. Porque ellos vinieron de Israel a él en grandes números, cuando vieron que el SEÑOR su Dios estaba con él. 10 Así que, se reunieron en Jerusalén en el mes tercero, en el décimo quinto año del reinado de Asa. 11 En ese día le sacrificaron al SEÑOR parte del saqueo que ellos habían traído: setecientos bueyes y siete mil ovejas y cabras. 12 Ellos entraron dentro de un pacto para buscar al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, con todo su corazón y con toda su alma. 13 Ellos estaban de acuerdo que cualquiera que no buscara al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, debería de morir, aunque la persona fuera pequeña o grande, aunque fuera hombre o mujer. 14 Ellos juraron al SEÑOR con una voz fuerte, con gritos, y con trompetas y cuernos. 15 Toda Judá se regocijó con el juramento, porque ellos habían jurado con todo su corazón, y buscaban a Dios con todo su deseo, y Él fue encontrado por ellos. El SEÑOR les dió paz por todas partes a su alrededor. 16 También removió a Maaca, su abuela, de ser reina, porque ella había hecho una figura repugnante de Asera. Asa cortó la figura repugnante, la pulverizó y la quemó en el arroyo de Cedrón. 17 Pero los lugares altos no fueron sacados de Israel. Sin embargo, el corazón de Asa estaba completamente consagrado todos sus días. 18 Él trajo a la casa de Dios las cosas de su padre y sus propias cosas que le pertenecían al SEÑOR: objetos de oro y plata. 19 No hubo más guerras hasta el trigésimo quinto año del reinado de Asa.

---

2 Chronicles 15:1

El espíritu de Dios vino sobre Asarías
Traducción Alterna: "El espíritu de Dios le dio a Azarías la capacidad de profetizar"

Obed

2 Chronicles 15:3

Israel estuvo sin un verdadero Dios Israel había dejado de obedecer a Dios.

sin un sacerdote maestro
Traducción Alterna: "sin un sacerdote capaz de enseñarles"

Él fue hallado por ellos
Traducción Alterna: "Dios respondió a la búsqueda de los israelitas por él".

2 Chronicles 15:6

Estaban rotos en pedazos, nación contra nación, y ciudad contra ciudad Traducción Alterna: "Fueron derrotados por otras naciones y ciudades"

2 Chronicles 15:8

la profecía de Obed Muchas versiones, incluida la UDB, hacen que este pasaje se lea, "la profecía de Azarías, el hijo del profeta Obed". Hacen esto para que el sentido coincida con el 15: 1. Los traductores probablemente querrán hacer lo mismo en sus versiones.

quitó las cosas repugnantes Traducción Alterna: "Quitaron los ídolos"

el SEÑOR su Dios estaba con él Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR estaba ayudándolo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 15:10

Así que, se reunieron
"Ellos" aquí se refiere a las tribus de Judá e Israel que estaban con Asa.

el mes tercero
Este es el tercer mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de mayo y la primera parte de junio en los calendarios occidentales.

tercero ... décimo quinto

setecientos ... siete mil
"700 ... 7,000"

2 Chronicles 15:12

con todo su corazón y con toda su alma Traducción Alterna: "honestamente y completamente"

Debería de morir
Traducción Alterna: "ser asesinados"

2 Chronicles 15:14

Él fue encontrado por ellos.
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en II Crónicas 15: 4

Toda Judá se regocijó Traducción Alterna: "Muchas de las personas que vivieron en Judá se regocijaron"

2 Chronicles 15:16

Información General:

una figura repugnante Traducción Alterna: "Un ídolo"

el corazón de Asa estaba completamente consagrado todos sus días Traducción Alterna: "Asa obedeció y siguió al Señor toda su vida"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 En el año treinta y seis del reinado de Asa, Baasa, rey de Israel, actuó agresivamente contra Judá y construyó Ramá, para no dejar que nadie saliera o entrara en la tierra de Asa, rey de Judá. 2 Entonces Asa trajo la plata y oro fuera de los almacenes en la casa del SEÑOR y de la casa del rey, y lo envió a Ben Adad, rey de Aram, quien vivía en Damasco. Él dijo: 3 "Hagamos un pacto entre tú y yo, así como lo hubo entre mi padre y tu padre. Mira, yo te he enviado plata y oro. Rompe tu pacto con Baasa, rey de Israel, para que él me deje tranquilo." 4 Ben Adad escuchó al rey Asa y envió los comandantes de sus ejércitos contra las ciudades de Israel. Ellos atacaron Ijón, Dan, Bel Maín y todos los lugares de almacenamiento en las ciudades de Neftalí. 5 Sucedió que cuando Baasa escuchó esto, él detuvo la construcción de Ramá, e hizo que el trabajo cesara. 6 Entonces Asa el rey llevó a toda Judá con él. Ellos llevaron fuera las piedras y troncos de Ramá con los cuales Baasa estaba construyendo la ciudad. Entónces el rey Asa usó ese material para levantar a Geba y Mizpa. 7 En ese tiempo Hananí el vidente fue donde Asa, rey de Judá, y le dijo:"Porque tú has confiado más en el rey Aram, y no has confiado en el SEÑOR tu Dios, el ejército del rey de Aram ha escapado fuera de tu mano. 8 ¿No eran los etíopes y los libios un gran ejército, con muchísimas carrozas y hombres de caballo? Aún así porque confiaste en el SEÑOR, Él te dio la victoria sobre ellos. 9 Porque los ojos del SEÑOR recorren todo lugar a través de toda la tierra, para mostrarse a Sí mismo fuerte en nombre de todos aquellos cuyos corazones son perfectos delante de Él. Pero tú has actuado tontamente en este asunto. Desde ahora en adelante, tendrás guerra." 10 Entonces Asa se enojó con el vidente; lo puso en la cárcel, porque estaba enojado con él sobre todo este asunto. Al mismo tiempo, Asa oprimió algunos del pueblo. 11 He aquí los hechos de Asa, desde el primero hasta el último, están escritos en el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel. 12 En el año treinta y nueve de su reinado, Asa tenía una enfermedad en sus pies; su enfermedad era muy severa. Aún así, él no pidió ayuda del SEÑOR, sólo de los médicos. 13 Asa durmió con sus ancestros; el murió en el año cuarenta y uno de su reinado. 14 Ellos lo enterraron en su propia tumba, la que él había cavado para sí mismo en la ciudad de David. Ellos lo pusieron en un féretro que estaba lleno de olores dulces y varias clases de especias preparadas por perfumistas diestros. Entonces ellos hicieron un gran fuego en su honor.

---

2 Chronicles 16:1

y construyó Ramá
Aquí "construido" significa construir muros alrededor de una ciudad para que la ciudad pueda ser defendida de los atacantes.

2 Chronicles 16:2

Ben Adad

él me deje tranquilo.
Traducción Alterna: "no me ataques"

2 Chronicles 16:4

envió los comandantes de sus ejércitos contra las ciudades
"envió a sus ejércitos a atacar las ciudades"

Ijón, Dan, Bel Maín ... almacenamiento en las ciudades de Neftalí Estas son ciudades en Israel.

hizo que el trabajo cesara
"ordenó a sus tropas que dejaran de fortificar a Ramah y de hacer otro trabajo allí"

Troncos
Las maderas son grandes piezas de madera utilizadas para construir casas o muros.

2 Chronicles 16:7

Hananí

¿No eran los etíopes y los libios un gran ejército, con muchísimas carrozas y hombres de caballo?
Traducción Alterna: "Los etíopes y los libios eran un ejército enorme, con muchos carros y jinetes".

2 Chronicles 16:9

los ojos del SEÑOR recorren todo lugar Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR ve lo que está sucediendo en toda la tierra ".

para mostrarse a Sí mismo fuerte en nombre de Traducción Alterna: " y el SEÑOR protege con su fuerza "

aquellos cuyos corazones son perfectos delante de Él Traducción Alterna: "Los que están completamente comprometidos a seguirlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 16:11

desde el primero hasta el último Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que hizo"

el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel
Este es un libro que ya no existe.

Asa tenía una enfermedad en sus pies
Traducción Alterna: "Asa tenía una enfermedad en los pies"

2 Chronicles 16:13

Asa durmió con sus ancestros Traducción Alterna: "Asa murió".

féretro
Un féretro es una mesa en la que se coloca un cadáver en un funeral.

olores dulces y varias clases de especias preparadas por perfumistas diestros Poner plantas que huelen bien con el cadáver era una de las costumbres funerarias del pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "plantas de olor dulce preparadas por personas expertas en esta costumbre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 Josafat, hijo de Asa, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. Josafat se fortaleció a sí mismo en contra de Israel. 2 Él colocó fuerzas en todas las ciudades fortificadas de Judá, y puso guarniciones en la tierra de Judá y en las ciudades de Efraín, las cuales su padre Asa había capturado. 3 El SEÑOR estaba con Josafat porque él caminó en los primeros caminos de su padre David, y no buscó a los baales. 4 En su lugar, él confió en el Dios de su padre, y caminó en sus mandamientos, no tras el comportamiento de Israel. 5 Así que, el SEÑOR estableció el reinado en su mano; toda Judá le trajo tributo a Josafat. Él tenía riquezas y honor en abundancia. 6 Su corazón estaba comprometido con los caminos del SEÑOR. Él también removió los lugares altos y los postes de Asera de Judá. 7 En el tercer año de su reinado, él envió a sus oficiales Ben Hail, Abdías, Zacarías, Natanael y Micaías a enseñar en las ciudades de Judá. 8 Con ellos estaban los levitas: Semaías, Netanías, Zebadías, Asael, Semiramot, Jonatán, Adonías, Tobías y Tobadonías; y con ellos estaban los sacerdotes Elisama y Joram. 9 Ellos enseñaron en Judá, teniendo el libro de la ley del SEÑOR con ellos. Ellos fueron a través de todas las ciudades de Judá y enseñaron entre la gente. 10 El temor del SEÑOR cayó sobre todos los reinos de la tierra que estaban alrededor de Judá, así que ellos no hicieron guerra en contra de Josafat. 11 Algunos de los filisteos trajeron regalos a Josafat, y plata como tributo. Los árabes también le trajeron rebaños, 7, 700 carneros y 7, 700 cabras. 12 Josafat se volvió muy poderoso. Él construyó fortalezas y ciudades de almacenaje en Judá. 13 Él tenía muchos suministros en las ciudades de Judá, y soldados --hombres fuertes y valientes-- en Jerusalén. 14 Aquí hay una lista de ellos, en orden por el nombre de las casas de sus padres: de Judá, los comandantes de miles; Adnas el comandante, y con él 300, 000 hombres de guerra; 15 junto a él, Jonahán el comandante, y con él 280, 000 hombres; 16 junto a él, Amasías, hijo de Zicri, quien voluntariamente se ofreció a servirle al SEÑOR; y con él, 200, 000 hombres de guerra. 17 De Benjamín: Eliada, un poderoso hombre de valor, y con él, 200, 000 armados con arcos y escudos; 18 junto a él, Jozabad, y con él, 180, 000 listos para la guerra. 19 Estos fueron aquellos que sirvieron al rey, además de aquellos quienes el rey puso en ciudades fortificadas a través de Judá.

---

2 Chronicles 17:1

e fortaleció a sí mismo en contra de Israel.
La idea de "sí mismo" está aquí para el ejército del rey. Traducción Alterna: "preparó al ejército para poder luchar contra Israel"

guarniciones
Estos son campamentos militares para protección.

2 Chronicles 17:3

caminó en los primeros caminos de su padre
Se habla de comportarse como si estuviera caminando. Traducción Alterna: "vivió en los caminos justos de su antepasado"

no buscó a los baales
No adoraba a los ídolos de Baal, ni buscaba ayuda de ellos.

2 Chronicles 17:5

postes de Asera
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14: 1

2 Chronicles 17:7

En el tercer año

Ben Hail, Abdías, Zacarías, Natanael y Micaías ... Semaías, Netanías, Zebadías, Asael, Semiramot, Jonatán, Adonías, Tobías y Tobadonías ... Elisama y Joram
Estos son nombres masculinos.

2 Chronicles 17:10

temor del SEÑOR cayó sobre todos los reinos de la tierra Traducción Alterna: "La gente en todos los reinos que rodeaban a Judá tuvo mucho miedo de lo que el SEÑOR podría hacer para castigarlos"

2 Chronicles 17:14

Adnas ... Jonahán ... Amasías, hijo de Zicri

300,000 ... 280,000 ... 200,000

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Ahora, Josafat tenía grandes riquezas y honores; él mismo se alió con Acab al casar a uno de su familia con una de sus hijas. 2 Luego de unos años, él bajó donde Acab en Samaria. Acab mató muchas ovejas y bueyes para él y las personas quienes estaban con él. Acab también lo persuadió a él a atacar a Ramot Galaad con él. 3 Acab, rey de Israel, le dijo a Josafat, rey de Judá: "¿Irás conmigo a Ramot Galaad?" Josafat le contestó: "Yo soy como tú y mi pueblo es como tu pueblo; nosotros estaremos contigo en la guerra." 4 Josafat le dijo al rey de Israel: "Por favor, primero busca la palabra del SEÑOR para tu respuesta." 5 Entonces, el rey de Israel reunió a los profetas, cuatrocientos hombres y les dijo: "¿Deberíamos ir a Ramot Galaad a la guerra, o yo no debería?" Ellos dijeron: "Ataca, porque Dios los entregará en la mano del rey." 6 Pero Josafat dijo: "¿No hay aquí todavía otro profeta del SEÑOR con quien podamos buscar consejo?" 7 El rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat: "Todavía queda un hombre por el cual nosotros podemos buscar consejo del SEÑOR, Micaías hijo de Imla, pero lo odio porque nunca profetiza bien concerniente a mí, sino siempre maldad." Pero Josafat dijo: "El rey no debería decir eso." 8 Entonces el rey de Israel llamó a un oficial y dijo: "Rápido, trae a Micaías hijo de Imla." 9 Ahora Acab el rey de Israel y Josafat el rey de Judá estaban sentados cada uno en un trono, vestidos en sus túnicas, en un lugar abierto en la entrada de las puertas de Samaria y todos los profetas estaban profetizando ante ellos. 10 Sedequías hijo de Quenaana se hizo cuernos de hierro y dijo: "El SEÑOR dijo esto: 'Con éstos ustedes empujarán los arameos hasta que ellos sean consumidos.'" 11 Todos los profetas profetizaron lo mismo, diciendo: "Ataca a Ramot Galaad y gana, pues el SEÑOR los ha entregado en las manos del rey." 12 El mensajero que fue a llamar a Micaías le habló diciendo: "Ahora mira, las palabras de los profetas declaran cosas buenas al rey con una boca. Por favor, deja que tu palabra sea como las de una de ellos y diga cosas buenas." 13 Micaías respondió: "Mientras el SEÑOR viva, lo que Dios diga es lo que diré." 14 Cuando el vino al rey, el rey le dijo a él: "Micaías, ¿debemos nosotros ir a Ramot Galaad para guerra o no?" Micaías le respondió: "¡Ataquen y sean victoriosos! Porque será una gran victoria." 15 Entonces el rey le dijo a él: "¿Cuántas veces tengo yo que requerir de ti que jures para decirme la verdad en el nombre del SEÑOR?" 16 Así que Micaías dijo: "Vi a todo Israel disperso en las montañas, como ovejas que no tienen pastor y el SEÑOR dijo: 'Estos no tienen pastor. Permite que cada hombre regrese a su casa en paz.'" 17 Así que, el rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat: "¿No te dije yo que él no iba a profetizar bien concerniente a mí, sino sólo desastre?" 18 Entonces Micaías dijo: "Por lo tanto, todos ustedes escuchen la voz del SEÑOR: Yo vi al SEÑOR sentado en su trono y todos los ejércitos del cielo estaban de pie a su mano derecha y a su izquierda. 19 El SEÑOR dijo: '¿Quién puede seducir a Acab, rey de Israel, para que él suba y caiga en Ramot Galaad?' Uno dijo esto y otro aquello. 20 Y entonces un espíritu vino y se puso en pie ante el SEÑOR y dijo: 'Yo voy a seducirlo.' El SEÑOR le dijo a él: '¿Cómo?' 21 El espíritu contestó: 'Yo iré y me convertiré en un espíritu de mentira en la boca de todos sus profetas.' El SEÑOR respondió: 'Tú lo seducirás y también serás exitoso. Ve ahora y hazlo.' 22 Ahora, el SEÑOR ha puesto un espíritu de mentira en la boca de estos profetas tuyos y el SEÑOR ha decretado desastre para ti." 23 Entonces Sedequías hijo de Quenaana, vino, golpeó a Micaías en la mejilla y le dijo: "¿De qué manera el Espíritu del SEÑOR se fue de mí para hablarte a ti?" 24 Micaías dijo: "Mira, tú sabrás eso en ese día, cuando corras a una habitación interior para esconderte." 25 El rey de Israel le dijo a unos sirvientes: "Ustedes tomen a Micaías y llévenlo a Amón, el gobernador de la ciudad y a Joás, mi hijo. 26 Ustedes le dirán a él: 'El rey dijo: Pongan a este hombre en prisión y sólo aliméntenlo con un poco de pan y sólo un poco de agua, hasta que yo regrese en paz.' 27 Entonces Micaías dijo: "Si tú regresas en paz, entonces el SEÑOR no ha hablado a través de mi." Y luego añadió: "Escuchen esto, todos ustedes." 28 Así que, Acab, el rey de Israel y Josafat, el rey de Judá, fueron en contra de Ramot Galaad. 29 El rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat: "Yo me disfrazaré e iré a la batalla, pero tú vístete con tus túnicas reales." Así que, el rey de Israel se disfrazó a sí mismo y ellos fueron a la batalla. 30 Ahora, el rey de Aram había ordenado a los capitanes de sus carruajes, diciendo: "No ataquen los soldados insignificantes o importantes. En lugar de ello, sólo ataquen al rey de Israel." 31 Sucedió que cuando los capitanes de los carruajes vieron a Josafat dijeron: "Ese es el rey de Israel." Se voltearon para atacarlo, pero Josafat clamó y el SEÑOR lo ayudó. Dios los alejó de él. 32 Sucedió que cuando los comandantes de los carruajes vieron que no era el rey de Israel, dejaron de perseguirlo. 33 Pero cierto hombre sacó su arco al azar y le disparó al rey de Israel entre las articulaciones de su armadura. Entonces, Acab le dijo al conductor de su carruaje: "Da la vuelta y llévame fuera de la batalla, porque estoy gravemente herido." 34 La batalla empeoró ese día y el rey de Israel estuvo retenido en su carruaje enfrentándose a los arameos hasta la tarde. Para el tiempo en que el sol estaba bajando, él murió.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 18:1

él mismo se alió con Acab Traducción Alterna: "se alineó con Acab" o "se hizo amigo de Acab"

Yo soy como tú y mi pueblo es como tu pueblo Josafat declara su lealtad a Acab. Traducción Alterna: "Me ofrezco a mí y a mis soldados para que los uses de la forma que quieras".

2 Chronicles 18:6

No hay aquí ... consejo?
"Estoy seguro de que debe haber aquí ... consejos".

Micaías hijo de Imla
Fue un profeta del Señor.

2 Chronicles 18:9

hijo de Quenaana

cuernos de hierro
Esta es una referencia a los cuernos de un toro, pero están hechos de metal.

ustedes empujarán los arameos hasta que ellos sean consumidos Traducción Alterna: "Los vencerás"

el SEÑOR los ha entregado en las manos del rey.
Traducción Alterna: "El Señor te dará la victoria"

2 Chronicles 18:12

Micaías
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 17: 7

que tu palabra
Esta es una referencia a todo el mensaje de los profetas.

Con una boca Traducción Alterna: "con una opinión" o "y todos estuvieron de acuerdo"

el SEÑOR viva
Traducción Alterna: "Te lo aseguro"

O no
"o no deberíamos ir"

2 Chronicles 18:15

¿Cuántas veces tengo yo que requerir de ti que jures para decirme la verdad en el nombre del SEÑOR?
Traducción Alterna: "Te dije que solo dijeras la verdad en nombre del SEÑOR" como ovejas que no tienen pastor

Traducción Alterna: "sin buen liderazgo"

2 Chronicles 18:17

¿No te dije yo que él no iba a profetizar bien concerniente a mí, sino sólo desastre?
Traducción Alterna: "Te dije que profetizaría que el desastre vendría a mí"

2 Chronicles 18:19

Seducir
Esto significa atraer a alguien ofreciéndole algo atractivo.

Caiga
Traducción Alterna: "ser gravemente herido" o "morir"

Uno dijo esto y otro aquello.
Esto indica que hubo más de una opinión.

2 Chronicles 18:20

un espíritu de mentira en la boca de todos sus profetas Traducción Alterna: "un espíritu que hace mentir a los profetas"

2 Chronicles 18:22

ha decretado desastre para ti
Traducción Alterna: "ha determinado que te sucederán cosas terribles"

2 Chronicles 18:23

Sedequías hijo de Quenaana
Este no es el mismo Sedequías mencionado anteriormente, sino un profeta leal a Acab.

¿De qué manera el Espíritu del SEÑOR se fue de mí para hablarte a ti?
Traducción Alterna: El espíritu de Dios no me dejó hablar contigo " cuando corras a una habitación interior para esconderte Traducción Alterna: "cuando corras, con miedo, para esconderte"

2 Chronicles 18:25

El rey de Israel
Esta es una referencia a Acab.

Amón

Si tú regresas en paz, entonces el SEÑOR no ha hablado a través de mi Micaías sabe que El SEÑOR ha hablado a través de él.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 18:28

fueron en contra Traducción Alterna: "luchó contra"

Ramot Galaad
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 18:1

disfrazó
Esto significa cambiar la apariencia habitual para no ser identificado.

No ataquen los soldados insignificantes o importantes Traducción Alterna: "No ataque a ninguno de los soldados"

2 Chronicles 18:31

Ese es el rey de Israel
Josafat fue identificado erróneamente como el rey de Israel porque Acab había insistido en que vistiera túnicas reales.

Dios los alejó de él
Traducción Alterna: "Dios hizo que dejaran de perseguirlo".

2 Chronicles 18:33

entre las articulaciones de su armadura
Este es un lugar donde se encuentran dos piezas de armadura y es susceptible a las flechas y espadas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 Josafat el rey de Judá regresó en paz a su casa en Jerusalén. 2 Entonces Jehú hijo de Hananí, el vidente, fue a encontrarlo y le dijo al rey Josafat: "¿Debes estar ayudando al malvado? ¿Debes amar aquellos que odian al SEÑOR? Por tus obras, ira del SEÑOR es sobre ti. 3 Sin embargo, hay algo bueno en ti, en que has quitado los postes de Asera fuera de la tierra, y tú has dispuesto tu corazón para buscar a Dios." 4 Josafat vivía en Jerusalén; y él salió nuevamente entre el pueblo desde Beerseba hasta la región montañosa de Efraín y los trajo de nuevo al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres. 5 Él puso jueces en la tierra en todas las ciudades fortificadas de Judá, ciudad por ciudad. 6 Él le dijo a los jueces: "consideren lo que deben hacer, porque no están juzgando para el hombre, sino para el Señor; Él está con ustedes en el acto de juzgar. 7 Ahora entonces, dejen que el temor del Señor sea sobre ustedes. Sean cuidadosos cuando juzguen, porque no hay iniquidad con el Señor, ni ninguna clase de favoritismos o toma de sobornos." 8 Además, en Jerusalén Josafat designó a algunos de los levitas y de los sacerdotes, y algunos de los jefes de las casas ancestrales de Israel, para llevar a cabo el juicio por el SEÑOR, y por el bien de los conflictos. Ellos vivían en Jerusalén. 9 Él les instruyó, diciendo: "ustedes deben servir con reverencia al SEÑOR, fielmente, y con todo su corazón. 10 Cuando cualquier pleito venga a ustedes desde sus hermanos quienes viven en sus ciudades, ya sea sobre derramamiento de sangre, ya sea sobre leyes y mandamientos, estatutos o decretos, ustedes deben advertirles, para que ellos no vengan a ser culpables delante del SEÑOR, o ira venga hacia ustedes y hacia sus hermanos. Ustedes deben hacer esto y no serán culpables. 11 Miren, Amarías el jefe de los sacerdotes está sobre ustedes en todos los asuntos del SEÑOR. Zebadías hijo de Ismael, el líder de la casa de Judá, está a cargo de todos los asuntos del rey. También, los levitas serán oficiales sirviéndoles a ustedes. Sean fuertes y obedezcan sus instrucciones, y que el SEÑOR sea con aquellos quienes son buenos."

---

2 Chronicles 19:1

Hijo de Hananí

¿Debes estar ayudando al malvado? ¿Debes amar aquellos que odian al SEÑOR?
Traducción Alterna: "¡No deberías ayudar a los malvados! ¡No debes amar a los que odian al SEÑOR!"

los postes de Asera
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

y tú has dispuesto tu corazón Traducción Alterna: "firmemente decidido"

2 Chronicles 19:4

los trajo de nuevo al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "restauraron su fe en el SEÑOR"

2 Chronicles 19:6

Dejen que el temor del Señor sea sobre ustedes Traducción Alterna: "Debes recordar temer al SEÑOR cuando juzgues"

2 Chronicles 19:8

casas ancestrales de Israel Traducción Alterna: "familias antiguas de Israel"

por el bien de los conflictos Traducción Alterna: "para ayudar a resolver argumentos"

con todo su corazón.

2 Chronicles 19:10

ira venga hacia ustedes y hacia sus hermanos Traducción Alterna: "Dios se enojará contigo ante tus hermanos"

2 Chronicles 19:11

Amarías

Zebadías hijo de Ismael

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Acontenció después de esto, que el pueblo de Moab y Amón, y con ellos algunos meunitas vinieron en contra de Josafat para batallar. 2 Entonces vinieron algunos a Josafat, diciendo: "Una gran multitud viene contra ti de más allá del Mar Muerto, de Edom. Mira, ellos están en Hazezon Tamar", esto es, En Gadi. 3 Josafat se asustó y se propuso buscar al SEÑOR. Él proclamó un ayuno en toda Judá. 4 Toda Judá se reunió para buscar al SEÑOR; ellos vinieron a buscar al SEÑOR desde todas las ciudades de Judá. 5 Josafat estuvo de pie en la asamblea de Judá y Jerusalén, en la casa del SEÑOR, en frente del nuevo patio. 6 Él dijo: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de nuestros ancestros, ¿acaso no eres Dios en el cielo? ¿Acaso no eres el gobernador sobre todos los reinos de las naciones? Poder y fuerza están en Tu mano, así que nadie es capaz de resistirte. 7 Nuestro Dios, ¿no sacaste Tú a los habitantes de esta tierra delante de tu pueblo Israel, y se la diste para siempre a los descendientes de Abraham? 8 Ellos vivieron en ella y en ella te construyeron un lugar para Tu nombre, diciendo: 9 'Si desastre viene a nosotros--la espada, juicio, o enfermedad, o hambruna--nosotros nos vamos a levantar delante de esta casa, y delante de Ti (pues Tu nombre está en esta casa) y nosotros clamaremos en nuestra aflicción, y Tú nos oirás y nos salvarás.' 10 Mira ahora, aquí está el pueblo de Amón, Moab y Monte Seir a quienes Tú no dejaste que Israel invadiera cuando ellos salieron de la tierra de Egipto; de lo contrario, Israel se alejó de ellos y no los destruyó. 11 Mira como ellos nos recompensan; ellos están viniendo para sacarnos de Tu tierra, la que nos has dado como herencia. 12 Nuestro Dios, ¿no los vas a juzgar? Pues nosotros no tenemos poder contra este gran ejército que viene contra nosotros. Nosotros no sabemos que hacer, pero nuestros ojos están en Ti." 13 Toda Judá estuvo de pie delante del SEÑOR, con sus pequeños, esposas e hijos. 14 Entonces en el medio de la asamblea, el espíritu del SEÑOR vino sobre Jahaziel, hijo de Zacarías, hijo de Benaía, hijo de Jeiel, hijo de Matanías, el levíta, uno de los hijos de Asaf. 15 Jahaziel dijo: "Escuchen, toda Judá y ustedes habitantes de Jerusalén, y el rey Josafat. Esto es lo que el SEÑOR le dice a ustedes: 'No tengan miedo; no estén desanimados por este gran ejército, pues esta batalla no les pertenece a ustedes, sino a Dios. 16 Ustedes deben enfrentarse mañana contra ellos. Miren, ellos están subiendo por el paso de Sis. Usteden los encontrarán a ellos al final del valle, antes del desierto de Jeruel. 17 Ustedes no van a necesitar pelear en esta batalla. Párense en sus posiciones, estén quietos y verán el rescate del SEÑOR con ustedes, Judá y Jersualén. No tengan miedo ni estén desanimados. Vayan contra ellos mañana, pues el SEÑOR está con ustedes." 18 Josafat inclinó su cabeza con su rostro hacia el suelo. Toda Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén se inclinaron delante del SEÑOR adorándole a Él. 19 Los levitas, aquellos de la descendencia de los Coatitas y los Coretitas, se pusieron de pie para adorar al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, con una voz muy fuerte. 20 Temprano en la mañana ellos se levantaron y fueron al desierto de Tecoa. Mientras ellos salían, Josafat se levantó y dijo: "¡Escúchenme a mí, Judá y ustedes habitantes de Jerusalén! Confíen en el SEÑOR su Dios, y ustedes serán respaldados. Confíen en sus profetas, y ustedes serán exitosos." 21 Cuando él hubo consultado con el pueblo, él señaló a aquellos quienes cantarían al SEÑOR y darían a Él adoración por su gloria santa, mientras ellos salían precediendo al ejército, y diciendo: "Den gracias al SEÑOR, porque su fidelidad al pacto perdura para siempre." 22 Cuando ellos comenzaron a cantar y a adorar, el SEÑOR estableció hombres en una emboscada contra el pueblo de Amón, Moab y Monte Seir, quienes vinieron contra Judá. Ellos fueron derrotados. 23 Pues el pueblo de Amón y Moab se levantaron a pelear con los habitantes de Monte Seir, a fin de matarlos completamente y destruirlos. Cuando ellos terminaron con los habitantes de Monte Seir, todos ellos ayudaron a destruirse el uno al otro. 24 Cuando Judá llegó a un lugar con vista al desierto, ellos miraron hacia el ejército. He aquí, ellos estaban muertos, caídos al suelo; ninguno había escapado. 25 Cuando Josafat y su pueblo fueron a tomar el botín de ellos, encontraron bienes en abundancia, ropa, y artículos de valor, los cuales ellos tomaron para sí mismos, más de lo que ellos podían cargar. Les tomó tres días para cargar todo el botín, había mucho de ello. 26 En el cuarto día ellos se reunieron en el Valle de Beraca. Allí ellos adoraron al SEÑOR, así que el nombre de aquel lugar es el "Valle de Beraca" hasta este día. 27 Luego ellos regresaron, todo hombre de Judá y Jerusalén, y Josafat frente a ellos, para ir otra vez a Jerusalén con alegría, pues el SEÑOR los había hecho regocijarse sobre sus enemigos. 28 Ellos fueron a Jerusalén y a la casa del SEÑOR con liras, arpas y trompetas. 29 El terror de Dios estaba en todos los reinos de las naciones cuando ellos escucharon que el SEÑOR había peleado contra los enemigos de Israel. 30 Así que, el reino de Josafat estaba tranquilo, porque su Dios le dio paz en todo sus alrededores. 31 Josafat reinó sobre Judá; Él tenía treinta y cinco años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar, y él reinó en Jerusalén por veinticinco años. El nombre de su madre era Azuba, la hija de Silhi. 32 Él caminó en los caminos de Asa, su padre; él no se alejó de ellos; él hizo lo que era correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR. 33 Sin embargo, los lugares altos no fueron quitados. Las personas aún no habían dirigido sus corazones al Dios de sus ancestros. 34 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Josafat, primero y último, mirad, ellos fueron escritos en las historias de Jehú hijo de Hananí, las cuales están registradas en el libro de los reyes de Israel. 35 Después de esto Josafat, rey de Judá, se alió con Ocozías, rey de Israel, quien cometió mucha maldad. 36 Se alió con él para construir barcos que fueran a Tarsis. Ellos construyeron los barcos en Ezión Geber. 37 Entonces, Eliezer hijo de Dodava de Maresa, profetizó contra Josafat; él dijo: "Porque tú te has aliado con Ocozías, el SEÑOR ha destruído tus proyectos." Los barcos fueron destruídos así que ellos no fueron capaces de navegar a Tarsis.

---

2 Chronicles 20:1

Meunitas
Este era un grupo de personas que probablemente vivía cerca de Edom, al este del río Jordán.

Hazezon Tamar
Este es otro nombre para En Gadi.

2 Chronicles 20:3

se propuso Traducción Alterna: "se determinó"

para buscar al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "para tratar de hacer que Dios les preste atención"

2 Chronicles 20:5

¿acaso no eres Dios en el cielo? ¿Acaso no eres el gobernador sobre todos los reinos de las naciones?
Traducción Alterna: "De hecho, eres Dios en el cielo y el gobernante sobre todos los reyes de la tierra".

Poder y fuerza están en Tu mano
Las palabras "Poder" y "fuerza" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la grandeza del poder del SEÑOR. La palabra "mano" se refiere a la posesión. Traducción Alterna: "Posees un gran poder".

¿no sacaste Tú a los habitantes de esta tierra delante de tu pueblo Israel, y se la diste para siempre a los descendientes de Abraham?
Traducción Alterna: "Fuiste tú quien expulsó a los que vivían en esta tierra por el bien de tu pueblo Israel y quien lo dio permanentemente a los descendientes de Abraham".

2 Chronicles 20:8

Tu nombre está en esta casa
Traducción Alterna: "Tu presencia está aquí en esta casa"

2 Chronicles 20:10

Monte Seir
Este era un lugar donde vivían los edomitas.

Mira como ellos nos recompensan; ellos están viniendo para sacarnos de Tu tierra Traducción Alterna: "Así es como nos 'pagan' por la misericordia que les mostramos; vienen a echarnos de tu tierra" Ver:

2 Chronicles 20:12

¿no los vas a juzgar?
Traducción Alterna: "por favor juzgarlos".

nuestros ojos están en Ti.
Traducción Alterna: "Estamos buscando tu ayuda"

2 Chronicles 20:14

el espíritu del SEÑOR vino
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 15:1

Jahaziel ... Zacarías ... Benaía ... Jeiel ... Matanías ... Asaf Nombres Masculinos.

2 Chronicles 20:16

deben enfrentarse
Traducción Alterna: "ir a" o "ir a la batalla" paso de Sis

Este es un valle estrecho entre dos montañas al sureste de Jerusalén.

el rescate del SEÑOR
Dios peleará la batalla y rescatará a la gente

2 Chronicles 20:18

Toda Judá
Traducción Alterna: "Toda la gente de Judá"

Coatitas y los Coretitas

2 Chronicles 20:20

Tecoa
Esta era una ciudad al sur de Jerusalén.

serás apoyado
Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR te ayudará"

Confía en sus profetas, y tendrás éxito Traducción Alterna: "Si confías en los profetas del Señor, entonces tendrás éxito"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 20:22

Monte Seir
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 20:10.

estableció hombres en una emboscada Traducción Alterna: "preparó un ataque sorpresa"

a fin de matarlos completamente y destruirlos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. El segundo intensifica al primero. Traducción Alterna: "aniquilarlos completamente"

2 Chronicles 20:24

He aquí, ellos estaban muertos Esto fue una sorpresa. Todos sus enemigos se habían destruido mutuamente.

ellos estaban muertos, caídos al suelo
La frase "caído al suelo" es una forma idiomática de decir que "estaban muertos". Traducción Alterna: "estaban todos muertos en el suelo".

2 Chronicles 20:25

Hasta este día
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 5:9

2 Chronicles 20:27

todo hombre de Judá y Jerusalén
Esta es una referencia a todos los luchadores

Josafat frente a ellos
El rey Josafat estaba frente a todo el ejército cuando regresaron a Jerusalén.

2 Chronicles 20:29

El terror de Dios estaba en todos los reinos de las naciones
"Todos los reyes de las naciones temieron mucho a Dios"

Reinos
Esto se refiere a gobiernos con un solo gobernante.

2 Chronicles 20:31

Azuba, la hija de Silhi.

Él caminó en los caminos
Traducción Alterna: "siguió el ejemplo de su padre"

él hizo lo que era correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR.
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1.

2 Chronicles 20:34

hijo de Hananí

el libro de los reyes de Israel.
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 16:11

2 Chronicles 20:35

Barcos
Estos son barcos capaces de viajar en grandes cuerpos de agua.

Ezión Geber
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 8:17

Maresa
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 11:5

Eliezer
Vea cómo tradujo este mismo nombre de otro hombre en el 7: 8.

Dodava
Nombre masculino.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 Josafat durmió con sus ancestros y fue sepultado con ellos en la ciudad de David; Joram, su hijo, vino a ser rey en su lugar. 2 Joram tenía hermanos, hijos de Josafat: Azarías, Jehiel, Zacarías, Azaryahu, Micael y Sefatías. Todos ellos eran hijos de Josafat, rey de Israel. 3 Su padre les había entregado grandes regalos de plata, oro y otras cosas preciosas, también fortificó ciudades en Judá, pero le entregó el trono a Joram, porque él era su primer hijo. 4 Ahora cuando Joram se levantó sobre el reino de su padre y se estableció con firmeza como rey, él asesinó a todos sus hermanos con espada y también a otros varios líderes de Israel. 5 Joram tenía treinta y dos años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar y reinó por ocho años en Jerusalén. 6 Él caminó en los caminos de los reyes de Israel, como lo estaba haciendo la casa de Acab, porque él tenía como esposa a la hija de Acab, y él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR. 7 Sin embargo, el SEÑOR no deseó destruir la casa de David, por causa del pacto que había hecho con David; Él le prometió que siempre le daría vida a él y a sus descendientes. 8 En los días de Joram, Edom se reveló contra el control de Judá, y ellos pusieron un rey sobre ellos mismos. 9 Entonces Joram cruzó con sus comandantes y todos sus carruajes. Era de noche cuando se levantó y peleó contra los edomitas quienes lo habían rodeado a él y a sus comandantes de carruajes. 10 Así Edom ha estado en rebelión contra el control de Judá hasta este día presente. Libna también se rebeló al mismo tiempo contra su control, porque Joram había abandonado al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. 11 Además, Joram también construyó lugares altos en las montañas de Judá y él hizo que los habitantes de Jerusalén vivieran como prostitutas, y guió a Judá por el mal camino. 12 Una carta del profeta Elías vino a Joram. Ésta decía: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, Dios de David, tu ancestro, dice: 'Porque tú no has caminado en los caminos de Josafat, tu padre, ni en los caminos de Asa, rey de Judá, 13 pero has caminado en los caminos de los reyes de Israel, y has hecho que Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén actúen como prostitutas, como lo hizo la casa de Acab-- y porque también mataste a tus hermanos en la familia de tu padre con espada, hombres quienes eran mejores que tú-- 14 mira, el SEÑOR herirá con una gran plaga a tu pueblo, tus hijos, tus esposas y toda tu riqueza. 15 Tú mismo tendrás mucha dolencia a causa de una enfermedad en tus intestinos, hasta que tus intestinos se salgan a causa de la enfermedad, día tras día." 16 El SEÑOR agitó en contra de Joram los espíritus de los filisteos y de los árabes quienes estaban cerca de los etíopes. 17 Ellos atacaron Judá, la invadieron, y se llevaron todas las riquezas que habían hallado en la casa del rey. Ellos también se llevaron a sus hijos y a sus esposas. Ningún hijo se le dejó, excepto Joacaz, su hijo menor. 18 Después de todo esto, el SEÑOR lo hirió en sus intestinos con una enfermedad incurable. 19 Vino a ser a su debido tiempo, al final de dos años, que sus intestinos se salieron por causa de su enfermedad, y él murió con severo dolor. Su pueblo no hizo fuego en su honor como lo habían hecho por sus ancestros. 20 Él había comenzado a reinar cuando tenía trenta y dos años de edad; el reinó en Jerusalén por ocho años, y murió sin que nadie lo lamentara. Ellos lo enterraron en la ciudad de David, pero no en las tumbas de la realeza.

---

2 Chronicles 21:1

durmió con sus ancestros
Traducción Alterna: "Murió" ciudad de David Esta es la ciudad de Jerusalén.

Azarías, Jehiel, Zacarías, Azaryahu, Micael y Sefatías

Josafat, rey de Israel.
Técnicamente, el reino del sur se llamaba "Judá", pero el escritor de este libro aparentemente quería señalar que el reino del sur era, en su obediencia a Dios, el verdadero Israel.

entregó el trono
Josafat decidió que Joram debía ser el rey después de su muerte

2 Chronicles 21:4

se levantó sobre el reino de su padre Traducción Alterna: "tomó el control completo sobre el reino de su padre"

2 Chronicles 21:6

Él caminó en los caminos
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 20:31

a la vista del SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "de acuerdo con el SEÑOR"

Él le prometió que siempre le daría vida a él y a sus descendientes.
Traducción Alterna: "había prometido que los descendientes de David siempre serían los que gobernarían a Judá".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 21:8

En los días de Joram Traducción Alterna: "Mientras Joram era rey"

contra el control de Judá
"En contra del control de Judá"

Cruzó
Traducción Alterna: "cruzó la frontera hacia Edom"

hasta este día presente
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 5:9

Libna
Esta era una ciudad en Judá.

2 Chronicles 21:12

hasta que tus intestinos se salgan a causa de la enfermedad Traducción Alterna: "hasta que esta enfermedad cause su muerte"

2 Chronicles 21:16

agitó en contra de Joram los espíritus de los filisteos y de los árabes Traducción Alterna: "causó que los filisteos y los árabes se enojaran mucho con Judá"

2 Chronicles 21:18

lo hirió en sus intestinos con una enfermedad incurable Traducción Alterna: "le dio una enfermedad incurable en sus intestinos"

a su debido tiempo Traducción Alterna: "en el momento adecuado" o "cuando era el momento adecuado"

no hizo fuego en su honor Traducción Alterna: "No lo honró con una hoguera" sin que nadie lo lamentara Traducción Alterna: "sin tristeza"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 Los habitantes de Jerusalén hicieron a Ocozías (Joacaz), hijo más joven de Joram, rey en su lugar, porque la banda de hombres que vinieron con los árabes al campamento habían matado a sus hijos mayores. Así que Ocozías (Joacaz) hijo de Joram, rey de Judá, se hizo rey. 2 Ocozías (Joacaz) era de veintidos años cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó por un año en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Atalía; ella era la hija de Omri. 3 Él también anduvo en los caminos de la casa de Acab porque su madre era su consejera en hacer las cosas malas. 4 Ocozías (Joacaz) hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR, como la casa de Acab había hecho, porque ellos eran sus consejeros después de la muerte de su padre, hasta su destrucción. 5 Él también siguió sus consejos; él fue con Joram el hijo de Acab, rey de Israel, a pelear contra Hazael, rey de Aram, en Ramot de Galaad. Los Arameos hirieron a Joram. 6 Joram regresó a ser curado en Jezreel de las heridas que le habían dado en Ramot, cuando peleó contra Hazael, rey de Aram. Así que Ocozías (Joacaz) hijo de Joram, rey de Judá, bajó a Jezreel a ver a Joram hijo de Acab, porque Joram había sido herido. 7 Ahora la destrucción de Ocozías (Joacaz) fue traída por Dios por su visita a Joram. Cuando él llegó, él fue con Joram a atacar a Jehú, hijo de Nimsi, a quien el SEÑOR había escogido para destruir la casa de Acab. 8 Sucedió, que cuando Jehú estaba llevando a cabo la justicia de Dios en la casa de Acab, que él encontró a los líderes de Judá y los hijos del hermano de Ocozías (Joacaz), que servían a Ocozías (Joacaz); por lo tanto, Jehú los mató. 9 Jehú buscó a Ocozías (Joacaz); ellos lo encontraron escondido en Samaria, lo trajeron a Jehú, y lo mataron. Entonces ellos lo enterraron, porque él dijo: "Él es un hijo de Josafat, quien buscó al SEÑOR con todo su corazón. "Así la casa de Ocozías (Joacaz) no tuvo más poder para gobernar el reino. 10 Ahora cuando Atalía, la madre de Ocozías (Joacaz), vió que su hijo estaba muerto, ella se levantó y mató a todos los niños de la realeza en la casa de Judá. 11 Pero Josabet, la hija del rey, tomó a Joás, un hijo de Ocozías (Joacaz) y lo sacó a escondidas de entre los hijos del rey que habían sido muertos. Ella lo puso a él y a su nodriza en un cuarto. Así Josabet, una hija del rey Joram, la esposa de Joiada, el sacerdote (porque ella era hermana de Ocozías), lo escondió de Atalía para que no lo matara. 12 Él estuvo, con ellos, escondido en la casa de Dios por seis años, mientras Atalía reinaba sobre la tierra.

---

2 Chronicles 22:1

Atalía

Él también anduvo en los caminos
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 20:31

2 Chronicles 22:4

ante los ojos del SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "en la opinión del SEÑOR"

Hazael

2 Chronicles 22:7

Nimsi

2 Chronicles 22:10

Josabet, Joiada
Son nombres masculinos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 En el séptimo año, Joiada demostró su fuerza y entró en un pacto con los comandantes de cientos: Azarías hijo de Jeroham, Ismael hijo de Johanán, Azarías hijo de Obed, Maasías hijo de Adaía y Elisafat hijo de Zicri. 2 Ellos entraron en Judá y reunieron a los levitas de todas las ciudades de Judá, como también a los jefes de las casas ancestrales de Israel, y ellos vinieron a Jerusalén. 3 Toda la asamblea hizo un pacto con el rey en la casa de Dios. Joiada les dijo: "Miren, el hijo del rey reinará, como el SEÑOR había dicho en cuanto a los descendientes de David. 4 Esto es lo que tienen que hacer: un tercio de sus sacerdotes y de los levitas que vienen a servir en el Sábado, serán los guardias en las puertas. 5 Otro tercio estará en la casa del rey, y el otro tercio estará en la Puerta del Fundamento. Todo el pueblo estará en el patio de la casa del SEÑOR. 6 No permitan entrar a nadie en la casa del SEÑOR, excepto a los sacerdotes y los levitas quienes están sirviendo. Ellos pueden entrar porque ellos están consagrados, pero todas las demás personas tienen que obedecer los mandamientos del SEÑOR. 7 Los levitas tienen que rodear al rey en todos lados, cada hombre con su arma en su mano. A quien sea que entre en la casa, dejen que sea asesinado. Permanezcan con el rey cuando él entre y cuando él salga." 8 Así que los levitas y todo Judá sirvieron en toda forma de la manera que ordenó Joiada el sacerdote. Cada uno tomó sus hombres, aquellos quienes iban a entrar a servir en el Sábado, y aquellos quienes se iban por haber servido en el Sábado, porque Joiada, el sacerdote, no había excusado a ninguna de sus divisiones. 9 Luego Joiada, el sacerdote, les trajo a los comandantes lanzas y escudos pequeños y grandes que habían sido del Rey David que estaban en la casa de Dios. 10 Joiada colocó a todos los soldados, cada hombre con su arma en su mano, desde el lado derecho del templo hasta el lado izquierdo del templo, junto al altar y el templo, rodeando al rey. 11 Entonces, ellos trajeron al hijo del rey, pusieron la corona sobre él, y le dieron los decretos del pacto. Entonces ellos lo hicieron rey, y Joiada y sus hijos lo ungieron. Entonces ellos dijeron: "Larga vida al rey." 12 Cuando Atalía escuchó el ruido del pueblo corriendo y alabando al rey, ella vino al pueblo en la casa del SEÑOR. 13 Y ella vió, y, contempló al rey que estaba de pie junto a los pilares en la entrada, y los comandantes y los trompeteros estaban junto al rey. Todo el pueblo de la tierra se estaba regocijando y sonando trompetas, y los cantores estaban tocando instrumentos musicales y liderando la canción de alabanza. Entonces, Atalía desgarró sus vestiduras y gritó: "¡Traición! ¡Traición!" 14 Entonces Joiada, el sacerdote, trajo a los comandantes de cientos quienes estaban sobre el ejército y les dijo: "Tráiganla de entre las filas; cualquiera que la siga a ella, dejadlo que sea asesinado con espada." Porque el sacerdote había dicho: "No la maten en la casa del SEÑOR." 15 Así que ellos hicieron camino para ella, y ella fue por el camino de la Puerta de los Caballos a la casa del rey, y allí ellos la mataron. 16 Entonces Joiada hizo un pacto entre él, todo el pueblo y el rey, que ellos serían el pueblo del SEÑOR. 17 Así que todo el pueblo fue a la casa de Baal y la derribaron. Ellos rompieron los altares de Baal y sus imágenes en pedazos, y ellos mataron a Matán, el sacerdote de Baal, en frente de aquellos altares. 18 Joiada asignó oficiales para la casa del SEÑOR bajo el mando de los sacerdotes, quienes eran levitas, a quienes David había asignado para la casa del SEÑOR, para ofrecer las ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR, como estaba escrito en la ley de Moisés, juntos con regocijo y canto, como David había dado dirección. 19 Joiada estableció guardias en las puertas de la casa del SEÑOR, para que nadie que no estuviese limpio de ninguna manera pudiera entrar. 20 Joiada se llevó con él a los comandantes de cientos, los hombres nobles, los gobernadores del pueblo y todas las personas de la tierra. Él bajó al rey de la casa del SEÑOR; el pueblo vino a través de la Puerta Superior de la casa del rey y sentó al rey en el trono del reino. 21 Así que todas las personas de la tierra se regocijaron, y la ciudad estaba quieta. En cuanto a Atalía, ellos la habían matado con la espada.

---

2 Chronicles 23:1

Joiada
El sacerdote principal que sirvió en el templo y fue fiel a Dios. Fue asesor de Joash.

Obed ... Maasías ... Adaía ... Elisafat ... Zicri

2 Chronicles 23:4

Todo el pueblo
Traducción Alterna: "mucha gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 23:6

cuando él entre y cuando él salga.
Los significados posibles son 1) "en todo momento" o 2) "donde quiera que vaya".

2 Chronicles 23:8

todo Judá sirvieron en toda forma de la manera que ordenó Joiada el sacerdote Traducción Alterna: "la mayoría de la gente obedeció los mandamientos del sumo sacerdote"

aquellos quienes se iban por haber servido en el Sábado Traducción Alterna: "estaban terminando su trabajo en ese día de reposo"

2 Chronicles 23:10

le dieron los decretos del pacto Traducción Alterna: "Recitado los términos del pacto"

2 Chronicles 23:12

Todo el pueblo de la tierra
Traducción Alterna: "Casi todas las personas"

2 Chronicles 23:14

Joiada

quienes estaban sobre el ejército Traducción Alterna: "quienes eran líderes en el ejército"

de entre las filas
Traducción Alterna: "en medio de los soldados"

2 Chronicles 23:16

todo el pueblo fue a la casa de Baal
Traducción Alterna: "Casi toda la gente fue al templo de Baal"

Matán

2 Chronicles 23:18

bajo el mando de los sacerdotes Traducción Alterna: "bajo la dirección de los sacerdotes"

nadie que no estuviese limpio de ninguna manera pudiera entrar Traducción Alterna: "a nadie inmundo se le permite entrar por ningún motivo"

2 Chronicles 23:20

Él bajó al rey de la casa del SEÑOR
El templo fue construido en la colina más alta de Jerusalén.Traducción Alterna: "Trajo al rey del templo en la cima de la colina al palacio"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 Joás tenía siete años cuando comenzó a reinar; el reinó cuarenta años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Sibia de Beerseba. 2 Joás hizo lo recto en los ojos del SEÑOR todos los días de Joiada, el sacerdote. 3 Joiada tomó para él dos esposas, y él se convirtió en padre de hijos e hijas. 4 Sucedió después de esto, que Joás decidió restaurar la casa del SEÑOR. 5 Él reunió a los sacerdotes y los levitas, y les dijo: "Vayan cada año a las ciudades de Judá y reúnan de todo Israel dinero para reparar la casa de su Dios. Asegúrense de empezar de inmediato." Los levitas no hicieron nada al principio. 6 Así que el rey llamó a Joiada, el sacerdote principal, y le dijo: "¿Por qué no has requerido de los levitas que traigan desde Judá y Jerusalén los impuestos asignados por Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR y por la asamblea de Israel, para la tienda de los decretos del pacto?" 7 Por cuanto los hijos de Atalía, esa perversa mujer, habían destrozado la casa de Dios y habían dado todas las cosas santas de la casa del SEÑOR a los Baales. 8 Así que el rey ordenó, e hicieron un cofre y lo colocaron fuera en la entrada a la casa del SEÑOR. 9 Entonces hicieron una proclamación a través de Judá y Jerusalén, para que la gente trajera para el SEÑOR el recaudo que Moisés el siervo de Dios impuso sobre Israel en el desierto. 10 Todos los líderes y todo el pueblo se regocijaron y trajeron dinero y lo colocaron en el cofre hasta que terminaron de llenarlo. 11 Sucedió que cuando el cofre era traído a los oficiales del rey en manos de los levitas, y siempre que veían que había mucho dinero en él, el escriba del rey y el oficial del sacerdote principal venían, vaciaban el cofre, y lo tomaban y lo llevaban de regreso a su lugar. Ellos hicieron esto día tras día, reuniendo grandes cantidades de dinero. 12 El rey y Joiada dieron el dinero a aquellos que hicieron el trabajo sirviendo en la casa del SEÑOR. Estos hombres contrataron albañiles y carpinteros para restaurar la casa del SEÑOR, y también aquellos que trabajaban el hierro y bronce. 13 Así que los obreros hicieron su trabajo, y el trabajo de reparar progresó en sus manos; ellos levantaron la casa de Dios en su diseño original y la fortalecieron. 14 Cuando terminaron, trajeron el resto del dinero al rey y a Joiada. Este dinero fue usado para hacer muebles para la casa del SEÑOR, utensilios con los cuales servir y hacer ofrendas- cucharas y utensilios de oro y plata. Ellos ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas en la casa del SEÑOR continuamente durante todos los días de Joiada. 15 Joiada envejeció y estaba lleno de días, y entonces murió; él tenía 130 años cuando murió. 16 Ellos lo enterraron en la ciudad de David entre los reyes, porque él había hecho bien en Israel, hacia Dios y a la casa de Dios. 17 Ahora después de la muerte de Joiada, los líderes de Judá vinieron y honraron al rey. Entonces el rey les escuchó. 18 Ellos deshonraron la casa del SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, y adoraron los dioses de Asera y sus ídolos. La ira de Dios vino sobre Judá y Jerusalén por este mal de ellos. 19 Aún así Él les envió profetas para atraerlos nuevamente al SEÑOR; los profetas testificaron en contra de la gente, pero ellos se negaron a escuchar. 20 El Espíritu de Dios vino sobre Zacarías hijo de Joiada el profeta; Zacarías se levantó sobre el pueblo y les dijo: "Dios dice así: ¿Por qué quebrantan los mandamientos del SEÑOR, de manera que ustedes no puedan prosperar? Por cuanto ustedes han abandonado al SEÑOR, Él también los ha abandonado." 21 Pero ellos conspiraron contra él; a la orden del rey, ellos lo apedrearon en el patio de la casa del SEÑOR. 22 De esta manera, Joás, el rey, ignoró la bondad que Joiada, padre de Zacarías, le había hecho a él. En vez de esto, él mató al hijo de Joiada. Cuando Zacarías estaba muriendo, él dijo: "Que el SEÑOR vea esto y te llame a cuentas." 23 Ocurrió al final del año que el ejército de Aram se levantó en contra de Joás. Ellos vinieron a Judá y Jerusalén; ellos mataron a todos los líderes del pueblo y enviaron todo el botín de ellos al rey de Damasco. 24 El ejército de los arameos había venido con un pequeño ejército, pero el SEÑOR les dio victoria sobre un gran ejército, porque Judá había abandonado al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. De esta manera los arameos trajeron juicio sobre Joás. 25 Para el tiempo que los arameos se habían ido, Joás había sido severamente herido. Sus propios siervos conspiraron contra él debido al asesinato de los hijos de Joiada, el sacerdote. Lo mataron en su cama, y murió; lo enterraron en la ciudad de David, pero no en las tumbas de los reyes. 26 Estas fueron las personas que conspiraron contra él: Zabad hijo de Simeat, la amonita, y Jozabad hijo de Simrit, la moabita. 27 Ahora los hechos acerca de sus hijos, las importantes profecías que fueron habladas acerca de él, y la reconstrucción de la casa de Dios, están escritos en el comentario del libro de los reyes. Amasías su hijo vino a ser rey en su lugar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 24:1

Sibia

hizo lo recto en los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

todos los días de Joiada, el sacerdote Traducción Alterna: "mientras Joiada estuvo viva"

2 Chronicles 24:4

De inmediato
Traducción Alterna: "inmediato"

2 Chronicles 24:6

¿Por qué no has requerido de los levitas ... los decretos del pacto
"Te has portado malvadamente. Te dije que exigieras a los levitas ... decretos de pacto, pero no lo has hecho".

para la tienda de los decretos del pacto
Aunque se refiere al templo que construyó Salomón, es un recordatorio de que la "tienda de reunión" fue el primer lugar sagrado para el pueblo de Dios.

las cosas santas
Esto se refiere a los artículos usados en el templo.

2 Chronicles 24:11

albañiles y carpinteros
Traducción: "los que construyeron con piedra y los que construyeron con madera" que trabajaban el hierro y bronce Traducción Alterna: "los que trabajaban con metal"

2 Chronicles 24:13

progresó en sus manos Traducción Alterna: "Lo hicieron con sus manos"

continuamente durante todos los días de Joiada Traducción Alterna: "everyday during the life of Jehoiada"

2 Chronicles 24:17

honraron al rey
Traducción Alterna: "dio honor al rey"

este mal de ellos
Traducción Alterna: "su pecado"

2 Chronicles 24:20

ignoró la bondad que Joiada, padre de Zacarías, le había hecho a él Joiada no prestó atención ni recordó la gran amabilidad de Joiada, el padre de Zacarías.

te llame a cuentas.
Traducción Alterna: "Pagarás por el mal que has hecho"

2 Chronicles 24:25

Zabad hijo de Simeat, la amonita, y Jozabad hijo de Simrit, la moabita.

2 Chronicles 24:27

el comentario del libro de los reyes.
Este es un libro que ya no existe.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 Amasías tenía veinticinco años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó veinticinco años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Joadán de Jerusalén. 2 Él hizo lo que estaba correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR, pero no con un corazón perfectamente devoto. 3 Ocurrió que tan pronto como su gobierno estaba bien establecido, él mató a los sirvientes que habían asesinado a su padre, el rey. 4 Pero él no puso a los hijos de los asesinos a muerte, pero actuó de acuerdo a lo que estaba escrito en la ley, en el libro de Moisés, como el SEÑOR había ordenado: "Los padres no pueden morir por sus hijos, ni los hijos pueden morir por sus padres. En cambio, cada persona tiene que morir por su propio pecado." 5 Además, Amasías reunió a Judá y los registró según las casas de sus ancestros, bajo los comandantes de miles y comandantes de cientos, todos los de Judá y Benjamín. El los contó desde veinte años de edad en adelante, y encontró que eran 300, 000 hombres escogidos, capaces para ir a la batalla, quienes podían manejar lanza y escudo. 6 Él contrató también 100, 00 hombres de guerra de Israel por cien talentos de plata. 7 Pero un hombre de Dios vino a él y dijo: "Rey, no permita que el ejército de Israel vaya con usted, porque el SEÑOR no está con Israel, y ninguno del pueblo de Efraín. 8 Pero aún si usted va y es valiente y fuerte en batalla, Dios lo derribará delante del enemigo, porque Dios tiene poder para ayudar y poder para lanzar." 9 Amasías le dijo al hombre de Dios: "¿Pero qué haremos con la gran cantidad de plata que yo le he dado al ejército de Israel?" El hombre de Dios contestó: "el SEÑOR es capaz de darte mucho más que eso." 10 Así que, Amasías separó el ejército que había venido a él desde Efraín; y lo envió a casa otra vez. Así que, la ira de ellos fue grandemente encendida en contra de Judá, y ellos regresaron a casa en ira feroz. 11 Amasías tomó valentía y lideró a su pueblo para salir al Valle de la Sal; allí él derrotó a diez mil hombres de Seir. 12 El ejército de Judá cargó vivos a otros diez mil. Ellos los llevaron al tope del acantilado y los lanzaron hacia abajo desde allí, para que todos ellos fueran despedazados. 13 Pero los hombres del ejército el cual Amasías envió de regreso, para que ellos no pudiesen ir con él a batallar, atacaron las ciudades de Judá desde Samaria hasta Bet Horón. Ellos atacaron a tres mil del pueblo y agarraron mucho botín. 14 Ahora, acontenció, que después que Amasías había regresado de la masacre de los edomitas, que él trajo a los dioses del pueblo de Seir, y los estableció para que fuesen sus propios dioses. Él se inclinó ante ellos y les quemó incienso. 15 Así que, la ira del SEÑOR fue encendida en contra de Amasías. Él envió un profeta a él, quien dijo: "¿Por qué has buscado a los dioses de un pueblo quienes ni siquiera salvaron a su propio pueblo de tu mano?" 16 Ocurrió que mientras el profeta estaba hablando con él, el rey le dijo: "¿Te hemos hecho un consejero del rey? ¡Detente! ¿Por qué habrías de ser muerto?" Luego el profeta se detuvo y dijo: "Yo sé que Dios ha decidido destruirte porque has hecho esta acción y no has escuchado mi consejo." 17 Entonces, Amasías rey de Judá consultó con sus consejeros y envió mensajeros a Joás hijo de Joacaz hijo de Jehú, rey de Israel diciendo: "Ven, encontrémonos cara a cara en batalla." 18 Pero Joás el rey de Israel envió mensajeros a Amasías rey de Judá, diciendo: "Un cardo que estaba en Líbano le envió un mensaje a un cedro en Líbano, diciendo: 'Dale tu hija a mi hijo por esposa,' pero una bestia salvaje en Líbano pasó y aplastó al cardo. 19 Tú has dicho: 'Mira, yo he golpeado a Edom.' y tu corazón te ha engrandecido. Toma orgullo en tu victoria, pero permanece en casa, pues ¿por qué deberías causarte problemas a ti mismo y caer, ambos, tú como Judá contigo?" 20 Pero Amasías no escuchó, porque este evento era de Dios, para que Él pudiera entregar al pueblo de Judá en la mano de sus enemigos, porque ellos habían buscado consejo de los dioses de Edom. 21 Así que, Joás, rey de Israel, atacó; él y Amasías, rey de Judá, se encontraron cara a cara en Bet Semes, la cual le pertenece a Judá. 22 Judá fue golpeado ante Israel, y cada hombre huyó a casa. 23 Joás, rey de Israel, capturó a Amasías hijo de Joás hijo de Joacaz, rey de Judá, en Bet Semes. Él lo trajo a Jerusalén y derribó el muro de Jerusalén desde la Puerta de Efraín hasta la Puerta del Ángulo, cuatrocientos codos de distancia. 24 Él tomó todo el oro y plata, todos los objetos que fueron encontrados en la casa de Dios con Obed Edom, y las cosas de valor en la casa del rey, también con rehenes, y regresó a Samaria. 25 Amasías hijo de Joás, rey de Judá, vivió quince años después de la muerte de Joás, hijo de Joacaz, rey de Israel. 26 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Amasías, primero y último, mirad, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel? 27 Ahora, desde el tiempo que Amasías se alejó de seguir al SEÑOR, ellos comenzaron a hacer una conspiración en contra de él en Jerusalén. Él huyó a Laquis, pero ellos enviaron hombres detrás de él hasta Laquis y lo mataron allí. 28 Ellos lo trajeron de regreso en caballos y lo enterraron con sus ancestros en la ciudad de Judá.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 25:1

Joadán
Este es un nombre femenino

lo que estaba correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

2 Chronicles 25:3

el libro de Moisés
Esta es una referencia a los libros de Génesis, Éxodo, Levítico, Números y Deuteronomio.

2 Chronicles 25:5

los registró
Tenía sus nombres escritos en una lista oficial.

300,000 ... 100,000
Ver:

talentos

2 Chronicles 25:9

Así que, la ira de ellos fue grandemente encendida Traducción Alterna: "Entonces comenzaron a arder de ira en ira feroz

Traducción Alterna: "Muy enojados"

2 Chronicles 25:11

al Valle de la Sal
Esta es un área cerca del Mar Muerto.

para que todos ellos fueran despedazados Traducción Alterna: "para que todos murieran"

2 Chronicles 25:13

Bet Horón
Este era un pueblo cerca de Jerusalén en Efraín.

atacaron
Traducción Alterna: "Mataron"

2 Chronicles 25:14

los estableció para que fuesen sus propios dioses Traducción Alterna: "adoraba a estos dioses falsos"

¿Por qué has buscado a los dioses de un pueblo quienes ni siquiera salvaron a su propio pueblo de tu mano?
Traducción Alterna: "Has adorado a los dioses de un pueblo que ni siquiera salvó a su propia gente de ti, el rey Amasías".

2 Chronicles 25:16

¿Te hemos hecho un asesor del rey? Detener. ¿Por qué deberías matarte?
Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente no te nombramos como uno de mis asesores. ¡Así que deja de hablar! ¡Si dices algo más, les diré a mis soldados que te maten!"

2 Chronicles 25:17

Joás ... Joacaz

2 Chronicles 25:18

Información General:
Esta historia es una.

Cardo
Este es un pequeño arbusto.

Cedro
Un tipo de árbol muy grande. Aquí representa a los soldados de Israel.

¿por qué deberías causarte problemas a ti mismo y caer, ambos, tú como Judá contigo?"
Traducción Alterna: "No deberías causarte problemas y caer, tanto tú como Judá contigo".

2 Chronicles 25:20

golpeado ante
Traducción Alterna: "derrotado por"

2 Chronicles 25:23

Codos

Obed Edom

2 Chronicles 25:25

primero y último
Traducción Alterna: "todo"

¿no están escritos ... Israel?
Traducción Alterna: "están escritos ... Israel".

2 Chronicles 25:27

Laquis
Una ciudad en Judá.

Ciudad de Judá
otro nombre para la ciudad de David o Jerusalén

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Toda la gente de Judá tomó a Uzías, quien tenía dieciséis años de edad, y lo hicieron rey en lugar de su padre, Amasías. 2 Fue él quien reconstruyó Elot y lo restauró a Judá. Luego de eso, el rey durmió con sus ancestros. 3 Uzías tenía dieciséis años cuando comenzó a reinar. Él reinó por cincuenta y dos años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Jecolías; ella era de Jerusalén. 4 Él hizo lo correcto en los ojos del SEÑOR, siguiendo el ejemplo de su padre, Amasías, en todo. 5 Él se propuso a sí mismo el buscar a Dios en los días de Zacarías, quien le dio instrucciones para obedecer a Dios. Mientras él buscó al SEÑOR, Dios lo hizo prosperar. 6 Uzías salió y peleó en contra de los filisteos. Él derribó los muros de la ciudad de Gat, Jabnia y Asdod; él construyó ciudades en el país de Asdod y entre los filisteos. 7 Dios lo ayudó en contra de los filisteos, en contra de los árabes que vivían en Gurbaal y en contra de los meunitas. 8 Los amonitas le pagaron tributo a Uzías, y su fama se esparció, hasta la entrada de Egipto, porque él se estaba volviendo más poderoso. 9 Además, Uzías construyó torres en Jerusalén, en la Puerta del Ángulo, en la Puerta del Valle y en la esquina de la muralla, y las fortificó. 10 Él construyó torres de vigilancia en el desierto y cavó muchas cisternas, porque él tenía mucho ganado, tanto en las tierras bajas como en las llanuras. Él tenía agricultores y labradores de viñas en el terreno montañoso y en los campos fructíferos, porque a él le encantaba sembrar. 11 Además, Uzías tenía un ejército de hombres de guerra que iban a la guerra en grupos, los cuales estaban organizados por su número, que eran contados por Jeiel, el escriba, y Maasías, el oficial, bajo la autoridad de Hananías, uno de los comandantes del rey. 12 La suma total de los líderes de las familias ancestrales, hombres de guerra, era de 2, 600. 13 Bajo su mando, había un ejército de 307, 500 hombres que hacían guerra con gran poder para ayudar al rey contra el enemigo. 14 Uzías preparó para ellos-- para todo el ejército-- escudos, lanzas, cascos, capas de malla, arcos, y piedras para lanzar. 15 En Jerusalén, él construyó máquinas, inventadas por hombres hábiles, para estar en las torres y en las murallas, con las cuales disparar flechas y piedras grandes. Su fama se dispersó a tierras distantes, porque él fue enormemente ayudado hasta que se volvió muy poderoso. 16 Pero cuando Uzías se había vuelto poderoso, su corazón se enorgulleció tanto que actuó corruptamente; él pecó en contra del SEÑOR, su Dios, porque él entró en la casa del SEÑOR a quemar incienso en el altar de incienso. 17 Azarías, el sacerdote, fue detrás de él, y con él ochenta sacerdotes del SEÑOR, quienes eran hombres valientes. 18 Ellos resistieron a Uzías, el rey, y le dijeron: "No es para ti, Uzías, el quemarle incienso al SEÑOR, pero para los sacerdotes, los hijos de Aarón, quienes están santificados para quemar incienso. Sal fuera del lugar santo, porque has sido infiel y no serás honrado por el SEÑOR Dios. 19 Entonces, Uzías se enojó. Él estaba sosteniendo un incensario en su mano para quemar incienso. Mientras él estaba molesto con los sacerdotes, lepra brotó de su frente ante los sacerdotes en la casa del SEÑOR, al lado del altar de incienso. 20 Azarías, el jefe de los sacerdotes, y todos los sacerdotes lo miraron, y vieron, que se había vuelto leproso en su frente. Ellos rápidamente lo sacaron de allí. En efecto, él se apresuró a salir, porque el SEÑOR lo había golpeado. 21 Uzías, el rey, fue leproso hasta el día de su muerte y vivió en una casa separada ya que era leproso, porque él fue cortado de la casa del SEÑOR. Jotam, su hijo, estuvo sobre la casa del rey y gobernó a las personas de su tierra. 22 En cuanto a otros asuntos acerca de Uzías, lo primero y lo último, están en lo que Isaías, hijo de Amoz, el profeta, escribió. 23 Así que, Uzías durmió con sus ancestros; ellos lo enterraron con sus ancestros en un terreno cerca del cementerio el cual le pertenecía a los reyes, porque ellos dijeron: "Él era un leproso." Jotam, su hijo, llegó a ser rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 26:1

dieciséis ... cincuenta y dos dos - "16 ... 52"

Elot
Esta era una ciudad en el Golfo de Aqaba.

el rey durmió con sus ancestros
Traducción Alterna: "el rey murió"

2 Chronicles 26:4

Él hizo lo correcto en los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

En todo
Traducción Alterna: "de la misma manera"

Él se propuso a sí mismo el buscar
"Estaba decidido a complacer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 26:6

Jabnia
Esta era una ciudad en el norte de Judá.

Gurbaal
Esta era una ciudad en Arabia.

Meunitas
Este es probablemente el reino de los pueblos principales cerca del monte Seir.

la entrada de Egipto Traducción Alterna: "la frontera de Egipto"

2 Chronicles 26:9

Cisternas
Una cisterna es una gran sala subterránea utilizada para almacenar agua de la lluvia.

2 Chronicles 26:11

Jeiel, el escriba, y Maasías, el oficial, bajo la autoridad de Hananías, uno de los comandantes del rey.

2,600 ... 307,500

2 Chronicles 26:14

cascos
Un casco es una cubierta protectora para la cabeza.

capas de malla
Esta es una cubierta para el cuerpo hecha de eslabones o cadenas de metal.

2 Chronicles 26:16

su corazón se enorgulleció Traducción Alterna: "Se enorgulleció"

los hijos de Aarón Traducción Alterna: "los descendientes de Aaron"

2 Chronicles 26:19

incensario
Esta es una sartén o tazón especial que se usa para quemar incienso.

Ellos rápidamente lo sacaron de allí Traducción Alterna: "Rápidamente lo hicieron irse"

el SEÑOR lo había golpeado Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR lo enfermó"

2 Chronicles 26:21

vivió en una casa separada
Esto indica que vivía lejos de otras casas y otras personas.

2 Chronicles 26:22

lo primero y lo último Traducción Alterna: "Toda"

hijo de Amoz

Así que, Uzías durmió con sus ancestros Traducción Alterna: "Asi que Uzías murió"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Jotam tenía veinticinco años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó dieciséis años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Jerusa; ella era la hija de Sadoc. 2 Él hizo lo que era correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR, siguiendo el ejemplo de su padre, Uzías, en todo. Él también se abstuvo de entrar al templo del SEÑOR. Pero el pueblo todavía se comportaba de manera malvada. 3 Él construyó la puerta superior de la casa del SEÑOR, y en la colina de Ofel él construyó mucho. 4 Además él construyó ciudades en la zona montañosa de Judá, y en los bosques él construyó castillos y torres. 5 Él peleó también con el rey del pueblo de Amón y los derrotó. En ese mismo año, el pueblo de Amón le dio alrededor de cien talentos de plata, diez mil medidas de harina, diez mil medidas de cebada. El pueblo de Amón le dio lo mismo en el segundo y tercer año. 6 Así que Jotam se volvió poderoso porque él caminó firmemente ante el SEÑOR su Dios. 7 En cuanto a los otros asuntos en relación a Jotam, todas sus guerras, y sus caminos, vean, ellos están escritos en el libro de los reyes de Israel y Judá. 8 Él tenía veinticinco años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó por dieciséis años en Jerusalén. 9 Jotam durmió con sus ancestros, y ellos lo enterraron en la ciudad de David. Acaz, su hijo se volvió rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 27:1

Jerusa

Él hizo lo que era correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

En todo
Traducción Alterna: "de la misma manera"

2 Chronicles 27:3

la colina de Ofel
Esta es una colina en Jerusalén.

2 Chronicles 27:5

Talentos

medidas

en el segundo y tercer año.
Traducción Alterna: "En el segundo y tercer año después de que los derrotó"

2 Chronicles 27:6

él caminó firmemente ante el SEÑOR su Dios Traducción Alterna: "obedeció al SEÑOR sin desviarse" o "vivió completamente dedicado al SEÑOR"

el libro de los reyes de Israel y Judá
Este es un libro que ya no existe.

2 Chronicles 27:8

Jotam durmió con sus ancestros
Traducción Alterna: "Jotam murió",

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 Acaz tenía veinte años cuando el comenzó a reinar, y reinó dieciséis años en Jerusalén. Él no hizo lo que era correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR, como David su ancestro había hecho. 2 En cambio, el caminó en los caminos de los reyes de Israel; él también hizo figuras fundidas de metal para los Baales. 3 Además, él quemó incienso en el Valle de Ben Hinom y colocó a sus hijos en el fuego, de acuerdo a las prácticas idólatras de la gente que el SEÑOR forzó a salir de sus tierras delante del pueblo de Israel. 4 Él sacrificó y quemó incienso en los lugares altos y en los montes y debajo de cada árbol verde. 5 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR, el Dios de Acaz, le entregó en la mano del rey de Aram. Los aramitas lo vencieron y se llevaron de él una gran multitud de prisioneros, trayéndolos a Damasco. Acaz también había sido entregado en las manos del rey de Israel quien lo venció en una gran masacre. 6 Pues Peka hijo de Remalías, mató en Judá 120, 000 soldados en un día, todos ellos hombres valientes, porque habían abandonado al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. 7 Zicri, un hombre poderoso de Efraín, mató a Maasías hijo del rey Azricam, el oficial del palacio, y Elcana, quien era próximo al rey. 8 El ejército de Israel se llevó cautivos de sus familiares 200, 000 esposas, hijos e hijas. Ellos también tomaron mucho botín, que llevaron de vuelta a Samaria. 9 Pero un profeta del SEÑOR estaba allí, su nombre era Obed. Él salió a recibir al ejército que venía a Samaria. Él les dijo a ellos: "Porque el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, estaba enojado con Judá, Él se los entregó en sus manos. Pero ustedes los han masacrado en una furia que llegó hasta los cielos. 10 Ahora ustedes intentan quedarse con los hombres y mujeres de Judá y Jerusalén como sus esclavos. Pero, ¿no eres culpable de tus propios pecados en contra del SEÑOR tu Dios? 11 Ahora pues, escúchenme a Mí: Envíen a los prisioneros de vuelta, aquellos que ustedes han tomado de sus propios hermanos, porque la ira del SEÑOR está sobre ustedes." 12 Entonces ciertos líderes de la gente de Efraín--Azarías hijo de Johanán, Berequías hijo de Mesilemot, Ezequías hijo de Salum, y Amasa, hijo de Hadlai, se levantaron en contra de aquellos que regresaron de la guerra. 13 Ellos le dijeron a ellos: "Ustedes no deben traer a los prisioneros aquí, porque ustedes intentan algo que traerá sobre nosotros pecado contra el SEÑOR, para añadir a nuestros pecados y transgresiones, porque nuestra transgresión es grande, y hay ira feroz contra Israel." 14 Así que, los hombres armados dejaron los prisioneros y el botín ante los líderes y toda la asamblea. 15 Los hombres que eran asignados por nombre se levantaron y tomaron a los prisioneros, y los vistieron a todos los que estaban desnudos entre ellos con el botín. Los vistieron y les dieron sandalias. Les dieron comida para comer y bebida. Ellos curaron sus heridas y colocaron los débiles sobre asnos. Los llevaron de regreso a sus familias en Jericó, (llamada la Ciudad de las Palmeras). Entonces ellos regresaron a Samaria. 16 En aquel tiempo el Rey Acaz envió mensajeros a los reyes de Asiria para pedirles ayuda. 17 Porque una vez más los edomitas habían venido y habían atacado a Judá, llevando prisioneros con ellos. 18 Los filisteos también invadieron las ciudades de las tierras bajas y del Neguev de Judá. Ellos tomaron a Bet Semes, Ajalón, Gederot y Soco con sus aldeas, Timna con sus aldeas, y también Gimzo con sus aldeas. Ellos fueron a vivir en esos lugares. 19 Pues el SEÑOR trajo humillación a Judá por Acaz, rey de Israel; pues él había actuado con maldad en Judá y había pecado contra el SEÑOR muy fuertemente. 20 Tilgat Pilneser, rey de Asiria, vino a él y lo perturbó en vez de fortalecerlo. 21 Pues Acaz había saqueado la casa del SEÑOR y las casas del rey y de los líderes, para darle las cosas valiosas a los reyes de Asiria. Pero hacer esto no lo benefició a él. 22 Este mismo rey Acaz pecó aún más contra el SEÑOR en su tiempo de sufrimiento. 23 Pues, él sacrificó a los dioses de Damasco, dioses que lo habían derrotado. él dijo: "Porque los dioses de los reyes de Aram los ayudaron, yo sacrificaré a ellos, para que ellos me ayuden." Pero ellos fueron la ruina de él y de todo Israel. 24 Acaz reunió todo el mobiliario de la casa de Dios y lo cortó en pedazos. Él cerró las puertas de la casa del SEÑOR y él hizo para sí mismo altares en cada esquina de Jerusalén. 25 En cada ciudad de Judá él hizo lugares altos para quemar sacrificios a otros dioses. Él provocó al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, a ira. 26 Ahora, el resto de sus hechos, y de todos sus caminos, primeros y postreros, mirad, están escritos en el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel. 27 Acaz durmió con sus ancestros, y ellos lo enterraron en la ciudad, en Jerusalén, pero ellos no lo trajeron adentro de las tumbas de los reyes de Israel. Ezequías, su hijo, fue rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 28:1

Él no hizo lo que era correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 14:1

el caminó en los caminos de los reyes de Israel Traducción Alterna: "pecó como los reyes de Israel antes que él"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 28:3

el Valle de Ben Hinom Este es un Valle en Jerusalén.

debajo de cada árbol verde.
Traducción Alterna: "en todas partes"

2 Chronicles 28:5

Peka hijo de Remalías

2 Chronicles 28:7

Zicri ... Maasías ... Azricam ... Elcana

2 Chronicles 28:9

Obed

Él se los entregó en sus manos
Traducción Alterna: "él te ayuda a derrotarlos"

Pero, ¿no eres culpable... en contra del SEÑOR tu Dios?
Traducción Alterna: "Pero recuerda, eres culpable ... contra el SEÑOR tu Dios".

2 Chronicles 28:12

Azarías hijo de Johanán, Berequías hijo de Mesilemot, Ezequías hijo de Salum, y Amasa, hijo de Hadlai

2 Chronicles 28:14

Sandalias
Este es un tipo de zapato

Ellos curaron sus heridas Traducción Alterna: "Les dieron atención médica"

colocaron los débiles sobre asnos Traducción Alterna: "dio burros a los que no podían caminar"

2 Chronicles 28:16

Bet Semes, Ajalón, Gederot y Soco con sus aldeas, Timna con sus aldeas, y también Gimzo

2 Chronicles 28:19

el SEÑOR trajo humillación a Judá por Acaz Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR humilló a Acaz")

Tilgat Pilneser
Este es Tilgath Pileser III, también conocido como Pul.

2 Chronicles 28:22

en su tiempo de sufrimiento Traducción Alterna: "cuando estaba sufriendo" yo sacrificaré a ellos Traducción Alterna: "Me sacrificaré por ellos"

2 Chronicles 28:24

Mobiliario
"muebles y otros objetos"

en cada esquina de Jerusalén.
Traducción Alterna: "En toda Jerusalén"

2 Chronicles 28:26

todos sus caminos, primeros y postreros Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que hizo"

el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel
Este es un libro que ya no existe.

Acaz durmió con sus ancestros
"Acaz murió"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 Ezequías comenzó a reinar cuando tenía veinticinco años de edad; él reinó veintinueve años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Abías; ella era la hija de Zacarías. 2 Él hizo lo que era bueno ante los ojos del SEÑOR; tal como su padre David había hecho. 3 En el primer año de su reinado, en el primer mes, Ezequías abrió las puertas de la casa del SEÑOR y las reparó. 4 Él trajo a los sacerdotes y a los levitas, y los reunió en el patio del lado este. 5 Él les dijo: "¡Escúchenme, ustedes levitas! Santifíquense a ustedes mismos y santifíquen la casa del SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, y llevénse lejos la suciedad de este lugar santo. 6 Porque nuestros ancestros pecaron e hicieron lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR, nuestro Dios; ellos lo abandonaron a Él, voltearon sus rostros del lugar donde el SEÑOR vive, y le dieron sus espaldas. 7 También, ellos cerraron las puertas de la entrada y apagaron las lámparas; ellos no quemaron incienso ni ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas en el lugar santo al Dios de Israel. 8 Por lo tanto, la ira del SEÑOR había caído sobre Judá y Jerusalén, y Él los ha hecho un objeto de terror, de horror y de desprecio, como ustedes pueden ver con sus propios ojos. 9 Por esto es que nuestros padres han caído por la espada, y nuestros hijos, nuestras hijas y nuestras esposas están en cautividad por esto. 10 Ahora, está en mi corazón el hacer un pacto con el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, para que su feroz enojo pueda irse lejos de nosotros. 11 Mis hijos, no sean perezosos ahora, porque el SEÑOR los ha escogido a ustedes para estar ante Él, para adorarlo a Él, para que ustedes sean sus siervos y quemen incienso." 12 Entonces, los levitas se levantaron: Mahat, hijo de Amasai, y Joel, hijo de Azarías, de la gente de los coatitas; y de la gente de Merari, Cis, el hijo de Abdi, y Azarías, hijo de Jehalelel; y de los gersonitas, Joa, hijo de Zima, y Edén, hijo de Joa; 13 y de los hijos de Elizafán, Simri y Jeiel, y de los hijos de Asaf, Zacarías y Matanías; 14 de los hijos de Hemán, Jehiel y Simei; y de los hijos de Jedutún, Semaías y Uziel. 15 Ellos reunieron a sus hermanos, ellos se santificaron a sí mismos, y ellos entraron, tal como el rey ordenó, siguendo las palabras del SEÑOR, para limpiar la casa del SEÑOR. 16 Los sacerdotes entraron al interior de la casa del SEÑOR para limpiarla; ellos sacaron toda la inmundicia que encontraron en el templo del SEÑOR al patio de la casa. Los levitas lo tomaron para cargarlo al arroyo de Cedrón. 17 Ahora, ellos comenzaron la santificación en el primer día del mes primero. Para el octavo día del mes, ellos llegaron al pórtico del SEÑOR. Entonces, por ocho días más, ellos santificaron la casa del SEÑOR. En el día dieciséis del primer mes, ellos terminaron. 18 Entonces, ellos fueron a Ezequías, el rey, dentro del palacio y dijeron: "Nosotros hemos limpiado la casa del SEÑOR, el altar para las ofrendas quemadas con todos sus instrumentos, y la mesa del pan de la presencia, con todos sus instrumentos. 19 Así hemos preparado y hemos santificado todos los objetos que el rey Acaz removió cuando actuó deslealmente durante su reino. Ahora, ellos están al frente del altar del SEÑOR." 20 Entonces, Ezequías, el rey, se levantó temprano en la mañana y reunió a todos los líderes de la ciudad; él subió a la casa del SEÑOR. 21 Ellos trajeron siete toros, siete carneros, siete ovejas y siete machos cabríos como una ofrenda por el pecado del reino, por el santuario, y por Judá. Él ordenó a los sacerdotes, los hijos de Aarón, a ofrecerlos en el altar del SEÑOR. 22 Entonces, ellos mataron a los toros, y los sacerdotes recibieron la sangre y la salpicaron en el altar. Ellos mataron a los carneros y salpicaron la sangre en el altar; ellos también mataron a las ovejas y salpicaron la sangre en el altar. 23 Ellos trajeron los machos cabríos para la ofrenda por el pecado ante el rey y la asamblea; ellos pusieron sus manos sobre ellos. 24 Los sacerdotes los mataron, y ellos hicieron una ofrenda por el pecado con su sangre (la de los machos cabríos) en el altar para hacer expiación por todo Israel, porque el rey había ordenado que una ofrenda quemada y una ofrenda por el pecado fuera hecha por todo Israel. 25 Ezequías puso a los levitas en la casa del SEÑOR con címbalos, arpas, liras, organizándolos por la orden de David, Gad, el vidente del rey, y Natán, el profeta, ya que la orden venía del SEÑOR por medios de sus profetas. 26 Los levitas se pararon con los instrumentos de David, y los sacerdotes con las trompetas. 27 Ezequías les ordenó a ellos el ofrecer una ofrenda quemada en el altar. Cuando la ofrenda quemada comenzó, la canción del SEÑOR también comenzó, con las trompetas, junto con los instrumentos de David, el rey de Israel. 28 Toda la asamblea adoró, los cantores cantaron, y los trompetistas tocaron; todo esto continuó hasta que la ofrenda estuvo terminada. 29 Cuando ellos habían terminado las ofrendas, el rey y todos los que estaban presentes con él se inclinaron y adoraron. 30 Más aún, Ezequías, el rey, y los líderes ordenaron a los levitas que cantaran alabanzas al SEÑOR con las palabras de David y de Asaf, el vidente. Ellos cantaron alabanzas con alegría, y ellos se inclinaron y adoraron. 31 Entonces, Ezequías dijo: "Ahora, ustedes se han santificado a ustedes mismos al SEÑOR. Vengan aquí y traigan sacrificios y ofrendas de agradecimiento a la casa del SEÑOR." La asamblea trajo sacrificios y ofrendas de agradecimiento, y todo el que tenía un corazón dispuesto trajo ofrendas quemadas. 32 El número de las ofrendas quemadas que la asamblea trajo era setenta toros, cien carneros y doscientos corderos machos. Todos estos eran para una ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR. 33 Las ofrendas santificadas eran seiscientos bueyes y tres mil ovejas. 34 Pero los sacerdotes eran muy pocos para despellejar todas las ofrendas quemadas, así que sus hermanos, los levitas, los ayudaron hasta que el trabajo estaba hecho, y hasta que los sacerdotes pudieron santificarse a sí mismos, porque los levitas habían sido más cuidadosos que los sacerdotes al santificarse a sí mismos. 35 Además, habían muchísimas ofrendas quemadas; ellas fueron hechas con la grasa de las ofrendas de hermandad, y hubo ofrendas de vino para cada ofrenda quemada. Así que, el servicio de la casa del SEÑOR fue puesto en orden. 36 Ezequías se alegró, y toda la gente también, por lo que Dios había preparado para la gente, porque el trabajo había sido hecho rápidamente.

---

2 Chronicles 29:1

Abías
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Él hizo lo que era bueno ante los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

2 Chronicles 29:3

en el primer mes
Éste es el primer mes del calendario Hebreo. Es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

llevénse lejos la suciedad
Traducción Alterna: "remuevan la impureza" o "remuevan la suciedad".

2 Chronicles 29:6

hicieron lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 21:6.

donde el SEÑOR vive
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 18:12.

2 Chronicles 29:8

terror, de horror y de desprecio

como ustedes pueden ver con sus propios ojos Traducción Alterna: "como ustedes pueden ver por ustedes mismos"

Por esto es que nuestros padres han caído por la espada
Traducción Alterna: "Por esto es que nuestros padres han sido asesinados en batalla."

2 Chronicles 29:10

su feroz enojo pueda irse lejos de nosotros Traducción Alterna: "Él no actuará en su ira contra nosotros"

2 Chronicles 29:12

Información General:
Ver:

2 Chronicles 29:15

arroyo de Cedrón
Un pequeño cuerpo de agua que fluye en el lado este de Jerusalén. A veces fue usado como vertedero de basura

el primer día del mes primero
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día marca el día cuando El SEÑOR sacó al pueblo de Egipto. Esto está cerca del mes de marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

el octavo día del mes
Esto es cerca del final de marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

día dieciséis del primer mes
Esto es cerca del inicio de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

2 Chronicles 29:18

durante su reino
Traducción Alterna: "durante el tiempo cuando él reinó"

2 Chronicles 29:25

címbalos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

2 Chronicles 29:31

ofrendas de agradecimiento
Éstas eran ofrendas de acción de gracias.

que tenía un corazón dispuesto Traducción Alterna: "que deseaba"

2 Chronicles 29:32

Información General:
Ver:

2 Chronicles 29:34

habían sido más cuidadosos que los sacerdotes al santificarse a sí mismos Traducción Alterna: "habían sido más cuidadosos en seguir las reglas para purificarse a sí mismos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 29:35

ellas fueron hechas con la grasa de las ofrendas de hermandad Traducción Alterna: "los sacerdotes quemaron la grasa de los animales acompañantes que eran sacrificados para mantener buena hermandad con El SEÑOR". (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Ezequías envió mensajeros a todo Israel y Judá, y también escribió cartas a Efraín y Manasés, que ellos pudieran venir a la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén, para celebrar la Pascua al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 2 Porque el rey, sus líderes, y toda la asamblea en Jerusalén lo habían consultado juntos, decidiendo celebrar la Pascua en el segundo mes. 3 Ellos no podían celebrarla de inmediato, porque no habían suficientes sacerdotes que estuviesen consagrados, ni el pueblo se había reunido en Jerusalén. 4 Esta propuesta pareció correcta a los ojos del rey y de toda la asamblea. 5 Así que, ellos acordaron hacer la proclamación por todo Israel, desde Beerseba hasta Dan, que el pueblo pudiera venir a celebrar la Pascua al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, en Jerusalén. Pues ellos no la habían observado con grandes números de personas, de acuerdo a lo que estaba escrito. 6 Así que, mensajeros fueron con las cartas del rey y sus líderes por todo Israel y Judá, por el mandato del rey. Ellos dijeron: "Ustedes, pueblo de Israel, regresen al SEÑOR, el Dios de Abraham, Isaac e Israel, para que Él pueda regresar al remanente de ustedes quienes han escapado de la mano de los reyes de Asiria. 7 No sean como sus ancestros o sus hermanos, quienes pecaron contra el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, que los entregó a la destrucción, como ustedes ven. 8 Ahora, no sean tercos, como sus ancestros lo fueron; en cambio, entrégense al SEÑOR y vengan a Su lugar santo, el cual Él ha consagrado para siempre, y adoren al SEÑOR su Dios, para que Su ira feroz pueda alejarse de ustedes. 9 Porque si ustedes regresan al SEÑOR, sus hermanos e hijos encontrarán compasión ante aquellos que los llevaron lejos como prisioneros, y ellos regresarán a su tierra. Porque el SEÑOR su Dios, es misericordioso y lleno de gracia, y no alejará Su rostro de ustedes, si regresan a Él." 10 Así que, los mensajeros pasaron de ciudad en ciudad por todas las regiones de Efraín y Manasés, todo el camino hacia Zabulón, pero el pueblo se rió y burló de ellos. 11 Sin embargo, ciertos hombres de Aser y Manasés y de Zebulón se humillaron y vinieron a Jerusalén. 12 La mano de Dios también vino sobre Judá, para darles un corazón, para cumplir el mandamiento del rey y líderes por la palabra del SEÑOR. 13 Muchas personas, una gran asamblea, se reunieron en Jerusalén para celebrar el Festival de los Panes Sin Levadura en el segundo mes. 14 Ellos se levantaron y quitaron los altares que estaban en Jerusalén, y todos los altares para incienso; ellos los arrojaron al arroyo de Cedrón. 15 Luego, ellos mataron los corderos de la Pascua en el día catorce del segundo mes. Los sacerdotes y Levitas estuvieron avergonzados, así que se consagraron y trajeron ofrendas quemadas a la casa del SEÑOR. 16 Ellos estuvieron de pie en sus lugares por sus divisiones, siguiendo las instrucciones dadas en la ley de Moisés, el hombre de Dios. Los sacerdotes rociaron la sangre que ellos recibieron de la mano de los Levitas. 17 Porque habían muchos en la asamblea quienes no habían sido consagrados. Por lo tanto, los Levitas mataron los corderos de la Pascua para todo aquel que no estaba purificado y no podía consagrar su sacrificio al SEÑOR. 18 Pues una gran multitud del pueblo, muchos de ellos de Efraín y Manasés, Isacar y Zabulón, no se habían purificado, aún así comieron de la comida de la Pascua, en contra de las instrucciones escritas. Porque Ezequías había orado por ellos, diciendo: "Que el buen SEÑOR perdone a todo aquel 19 que establezca en su corazón buscar a Dios, el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, aunque no esté purificado por los criterios de purificación del lugar santo." 20 Así que, el SEÑOR escuchó a Ezequías y sanó al pueblo. 21 El pueblo de Israel que estaba presente en Jerusalén mantuvo el Festival de los Panes Sin Levadura por siete días con gran gozo. Los Levitas y los sacerdotes alabaron al SEÑOR día tras día, cantando con intrumentos ruidosos al SEÑOR. 22 Ezequías habló animadamente a todos los Levitas quienes entendieron el servicio del SEÑOR. Así que ellos comieron durante todo el festival por siete días, ofreciendo sacrificios de ofrendas de paz, y haciendo confesiones al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. 23 Toda la asamblea luego decidió celebrar por otros siete días, y ellos lo hicieron con gozo. 24 Pues, Ezequías rey de Judá le dio a la asamblea mil toros y siete mil ovejas como una ofrenda; y los líderes le dieron a la samblea mil toros y diez mil ovejas y cabras. Un gran número de sacerdotes se consagraron. 25 Toda la asamblea de Judá, junto con los sacerdotes y los Levitas, y todo el pueblo que se reunió de Israel, así como los extranjeros quienes vinieron desde la tierra de Israel y aquellos quienes vivián en Judá--todos ellos se regocijaron. 26 Así que, había gran gozo en Jerusalén, porque desde el tiempo de Salomón hijo de David, rey de Israel, no había habido nada como esto en Jerusalén. 27 Luego, los sacerdotes y los Levitas, se levantaron y bendijeron al pueblo. Sus voces fueron escuchadas, y sus oraciones subieron al cielo, el santo lugar donde Dios vive.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 30:1

decidiendo celebrar la Pascua en el segundo mes
Los israelitas normalmente celebraban la Pascua durante el primer mes del calendario hebreo. El primer mes es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

segundo mes
Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de abril y la primera parte de mayo en los calendarios occidentales

2 Chronicles 30:4

a los ojos del
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

Beerseba hasta Dan
Traducción Alterna: "todo el pueblo de Israel"

2 Chronicles 30:6

mensajeros
Esta era una persona que llevaba un mensaje.

2 Chronicles 30:7

los entregó a la destrucción Traducción Alterna: "Él causó que fueran destruidos"

entrégense al SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "obedezcan al SEÑOR" o "dedíquense al SEÑOR".

2 Chronicles 30:13

segundo mes
Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de abril y la primera parte de mayo en los calendarios occidentales

arroyo de Cedrón
Esta era una pequeña corriente de agua en el Valle de Cedrón.

el día catorce del segundo mes
Esto era cerca del comienzo de mayo en los calendarios occidentales.

2 Chronicles 30:16

Ellos estuvieron de pie en sus lugares por sus divisiones Traducción Alterna: "Ellos estuvieron de pie en sus lugares asignados".

mataron los corderos de la Pascua Traducción Alterna: "mataron ritualmente los corderos de la Pascua"

2 Chronicles 30:21

intrumentos
Esta es una referencia a instrumentos musicales.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 Ahora cuando todo esto estuvo terminado, todo el pueblo de Israel que estaba allí, salieron a las ciudades de Judá y rompieron en pedazos los pilares de piedra y cortaron las columnas de Asera, y rompieron los lugares altos y los altares en toda Judá y Benjamín, y en Efraín y Manasés, hasta que lo destruyeron todo. Entonces todo el pueblo de Israel regresó cada uno a su posesión y a su propia ciudad. 2 Ezequías asignó las divisiones de los sacerdotes y los Levitas organizados por sus divisiones, cada hombre asignado a su trabajo, ambos sacerdotes y Levitas. Él les asignó que hicieran ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de hermandad, para servir, para dar gracias, y para alabar en las puertas del templo del SEÑOR. 3 Él también asignó la porción del rey para las ofrendas quemadas, de sus propias posesiones, eso es, para las ofrendas quemadas de la mañana y de la tarde, y las ofrendas quemadas de los días de reposo, las lunas nuevas y los festivales fijos, como estaban escritos en la ley del SEÑOR. 4 Más aún, él ordenó que el pueblo que vivía en Jerusalén diera la porción para los sacerdotes y para los Levitas, para que así ellos se pudieran concentrar en obedecer la ley del SEÑOR. 5 Tan pronto como salió la orden, el pueblo de Israel dio generosamente sus primeros frutos de cereal, vino nuevo, aceite, miel y de todo lo que habían cosechado en el campo. Ellos traían un diezmo de todo, lo cual era una gran cantidad. 6 El pueblo de Israel y Judá, que vivían en las ciudades de Judá, también trajeron el diezmo del ganado y ovejas, y el diezmo de las cosas sagradas que fueron apartadas para el SEÑOR su Dios, y las amontonaron en montones. 7 Fue en el tercer mes cuando ellos comenzaron a amontonar sus contribuciones en montones, y terminaron en el séptimo mes. 8 Cuando Ezequías y los líderes vinieron y vieron los montones, ellos bendijeron al SEÑOR y a su pueblo Israel. 9 Entonces Ezequías cuestionó a los sacerdotes y los Levitas acerca de los montones. 10 Azarías, el sumo sacerdote, de la casa de Zadoc, le contestó y dijo: "Desde que la gente comenzó a traer ofrendas a la casa del SEÑOR, hemos comido y tenido lo suficiente, y muchísimos sobrantes, ya que el SEÑOR ha bendecido a su pueblo. Lo que ha sobrado es esta gran cantidad. 11 Entonces Ezequías ordenó que los almacenes fueran preparados para la casa del SEÑOR y ellos lo prepararon. 12 Entonces ellos fielmente trajeron sus ofrendas, diezmos y las cosas que pertenecían al SEÑOR. Conanías, el Levita, era el encargado de ellos y Simei, su hermano, era segundo a él. 13 Jehiel, Azarías, Nahat, Asael, Jerimot, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismaquías, Mahat y Benaía eran los encargados bajo el mando de Conanías y Simei su hermano, asignado por Ezequías, el rey, y Azarías, el oficial sobre la casa de Dios. 14 Coré, hijo de Imna el Levita, el portero de la puerta del este, estaba sobre la ofrenda voluntaria de Dios, a cargo de distribuir las ofrendas al SEÑOR y las ofrendas más sagradas. 15 Bajo su mando estaban Edén, Miniamín, Jesúa, Semaías, Amarías, y Secanías, en las ciudades de los sacerdotes. Ellos ocupaban puestos de confianza, para así dar estas ofrendas a sus hermanos división por división, tanto para importantes como para no importantes. 16 Ellos también dieron a los varones de tres años en adelante, quienes estaban puestos en los archivos de sus ancestros que entraban a la casa del SEÑOR, como era requerido diariamente, para trabajar en sus puestos y en sus divisiones. 17 Ellos distribuyeron a los sacerdotes de acuerdo a los archivos de sus ancestros, y lo mismo a los Levitas de veinte años o más, de acuerdo a sus puestos y sus divisiones. 18 Ellos incluyeron a sus niños pequeños, sus esposas, sus hijos y sus hijas, por toda la comunidad, ya que eran fieles manteniéndose santos ellos mismos. 19 Para los sacerdotes, los descendientes de Aarón, quienes estaban en los campos de las aldeas pertenecientes a las ciudades, o en cada ciudad, habían hombres asignados por nombre para dar porciones a los varones entre los sacerdotes, y a todos los que estaban anotados en los archivos de sus ancestros como estando entre los Levitas. 20 Ezequías hizo esto en toda Judá. Él realizó lo que era bueno, correcto y fiel ante el SEÑOR, su Dios. 21 En cada proyecto que él comenzó en el servicio de la casa de Dios, la ley, y los mandamientos, para buscar a su Dios, él actuó con todo su corazón, y tuvo éxito.

---

2 Chronicles 31:1

todo el pueblo de Israel regresó
Es posible tomar esto como. Traducción Alterna: "casi todo Israel"

2 Chronicles 31:2

asignó la porción del rey para las ofrendas quemadas, de sus propias posesiones Ezequías tomó la carne y el grano usado para las ofrendas quemadas de sus propias posesiones.

lunas nuevas
Esto era un festival que coincidía con el movimiento de la luna.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los festivales fijos
Esto se refiere a los festivales que ocurrían en fechas específicas.

2 Chronicles 31:4

un diezmo de todo
"un décimo de todas sus cultivos"

2 Chronicles 31:6

tercer mes
Este es el tercer mes del calendario hebreo. Es al final de la temporada de cosecha y el comienzo de la temporada seca. Es durante la última parte de mayo y la primera parte de junio en los calendarios occidentales.

séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la temporada temprana de lluvia, que ablandaba la tierra para la siembra. Es durante la última parte de septiembre y la primera parte de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

2 Chronicles 31:9

Lo que ha sobrado es esta gran cantidad
El sacerdote jefe habría estado señalando la gran pila.

2 Chronicles 31:14

Coré, hijo de Imna... Edén, Miniamín, Jesúa, Semaías, Amarías, y Secanías

Bajo su mando
"bajo su autoridad"

tanto para importantes como para no importantes
"todos"

2 Chronicles 31:16

de tres años en adelante Traducción Alterna: "de tres años de edad y mayores" como era requerido diariamente Traducción Alterna: "como era requerido cada día".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Después de todas estas cosas, y de estos actos de fidelidad, Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, vino y entró en Judá. Él acampó para atacar las ciudades fortificadas, pues tenía el próposito de capturarlas para sí mismo. 2 Cuando Ezequías vió que Senaquerib había venido y que quería luchar contra Jerusalén, 3 él consultó con sus líderes y sus hombres poderosos para detener las aguas de los manantiales que estaban fuera de la ciudad; ellos le ayudaron a hacerlo. 4 Tanta gente se juntó y detuvo toda el agua de los manantiales y arroyos, que estaban fluyendo a través del centro de la tierra. Ellos dijeron: "¿Por qué deberían los reyes de Asiria venir y encontrar mucha agua?" 5 Ezequías tomó valentía y construyó toda la muralla que había sido destruída. Él construyó las torres altas, y también la otra muralla afuera. Él también fortificó El Milo en la ciudad de David, y él hizo una gran cantidad de armas y escudos. 6 Él colocó comandantes militares sobre el pueblo. Él los reunió junto a él en el lugar ancho a la puerta de la ciudad y les habló animadamente a ellos. Él dijo: 7 "Sean fuertes y de buena valentía. No tengan miedo ni se desalienten a causa del rey de Asiria y todo el ejército que está con él, porque Alguien está con nosotros que es más grande que los que están con él. 8 Con él sólo hay un brazo de carne, pero con nosotros está el SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, para ayudarnos, y para pelear nuestras batallas." Entonces las personas se consolaron entre ellas con las palabras de Ezequías, rey de Judá. 9 Después de esto, Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, envió a sus siervos a Jerusalén (ahora él estaba en frente de Laquis, y todo su ejército estaba con él), a Ezequías, rey de Judá, y a todo Judá que estaba en Jerusalén. Él dijo: 10 "Esto es lo que Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, dice: '¿En qué están confiando para que soporten un sitio en Jerusalén? 11 ¿No está Ezequías engañándolos, para entregarlos a ustedes a morir de hambre y de sed, cuando él les dice: 'El SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, nos rescatará de la mano del rey de Asiria?' 12 ¿Éste mismo Ezequías no ha quitado sus lugares altos y sus altares y ordenado a Judá y Jerusalén, 'En un altar deben adorar, y sobre él ustedes deben quemar sus sacrificios?' 13 ¿No saben ustedes lo que yo y mis ancestros hemos hecho a todos los pueblos de estas tierras? ¿Fueron los dioses de estos pueblos capaces en alguna manera de rescatar su tierra de mi poder? 14 Entre todos los dioses de esas naciones que mis ancestros completamente destruyeron, ¿hubo algún dios que pudiera rescatar a su gente de mi mano? ¿Por qué su Dios podría ser capaz de rescatarlos de mi poder? 15 Ahora, no dejen que Ezequías los engañe o los convenza de esta manera. No le crean, porque ningún dios de ninguna nación o reino ha sido capaz de rescatar a su pueblo de mi mano, o de la mano de mis ancestros. ¿Cuánto menos su Dios los rescatará a ustedes de mi mano?" 16 Los siervos de Senaquerib hablaron aún más en contra del SEÑOR Dios y contra su siervo Ezequías. 17 Senaquerib también escribió cartas para burlarse del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, y para hablar en Su contra. Él dijo: "Como los dioses de las naciones de la tierra no han rescatado a sus pueblos de mi mano, así el Dios de Ezequías no rescatará a Su pueblo de mi mano." 18 Ellos gritaron en el lenguaje de los judíos al pueblo de Jerusalén que estaba en la muralla, para asustarlos y molestarlos, para que así ellos pudieran capturar la ciudad. 19 Ellos hablaron del Dios de Jerusalén como habían hablado de otros dioses de otros pueblos de la tierra, que son meramente el trabajo de las manos de los hombres. 20 Ezequías, el rey, e Isaías, hijo de Amoz, el profeta, oraron por esta situación y él clamó a los cielos. 21 El SEÑOR envió un ángel, quien mató a los hombres de guerra, a los comandantes y a los oficiales del rey en el campo. Entonces, Senaquerib regresó avergonzado a su propia tierra. Cuando él entró en la casa de su dios, algunos de sus propios hijos lo mataron allí con la espada. 22 De esta manera, el SEÑOR salvó a Ezequías y a los habitantes de Jerusalén de la mano de Senaquerib, el rey de Asiria, y de la mano de todos los otros y les dió descanso por todos lados. 23 Muchos trajeron ofrendas al SEÑOR en Jerusalén, y regalos preciosos a Ezequías rey de Judá, así que fue levantado en los ojos de todas las naciones desde ese tiempo en adelante. 24 En esos días, Ezequías estaba enfermo a punto de morir. Él oró al SEÑOR, quien le habló y le dió una señal que sería sanado. 25 Pero Ezequías no le agradeció al SEÑOR por la ayuda que le dió, porque su corazón estaba enorgullecido. Así que la ira vino sobre él, y sobre Judá y Jerusalén. 26 Sin embargo, Ezequías luego se humilló a sí mismo por el orgullo en su corazón, tanto él, como los habitantes de Jerusalén, así que, la ira del SEÑOR no vino sobre ellos durante los días de Ezequías. 27 Ezequías tuvo muchas riquezas y mucho honor. Él se proveyó a sí mismo con almacenes para plata, oro y piedras preciosas, y para especias, también para escudos y para todo tipo de objetos valiosos. 28 Él también tenía almacenes para la cosecha de grano, vino nuevo, y aceite, y establos para toda clase de animales. Él también tenía rebaños en sus corrales. 29 Además, él se proveyó a sí mismo con ciudades y posesiones de rebaños y manadas en abundancia, porque Dios le había dado muchísimas riquezas. 30 Fue este mismo Ezequías quien también detuvo el alto manantial de las aguas de Gihón, y quien las trajo directamente abajo en el lado oeste de la ciudad de David. Ezequías tuvo éxito en todos estos proyectos. 31 Sin embargo, en el asunto de los embajadores de los príncipes de Babilonia, quienes fueron enviados a él solo para hacer preguntas a los que sabían, sobre la señal milagrosa que había sido hecha en la tierra, Dios lo dejó a él, para probarlo, y para saber qué había en su corazón. 32 En cuanto a otros asuntos acerca de Ezequías, incluyendo sus acciones de lealtad al pacto, ustedes pueden ver que están escritos en la visión del profeta Isaías, hijo de Amoz, y en el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel. 33 Ezequías durmió con sus ancestros, y ellos lo enterraron en la colina de las tumbas de los descendientes de David. Todo Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén lo honraron en su muerte. Manasés su hijo reinó en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 32:1

estos actos de fidelidad
Estos actos fueron hechos por Ezequías.

2 Chronicles 32:2

para detener las aguas de los manantiales que estaban fuera de la ciudad Ellos cerraron los manantiales que estaban fuera de la ciudad para que la gente no tuviera acceso al agua.

¿Por qué deberían los reyes de Asiria venir y encontrar mucha agua?
Los reyes de Asiria no deberían y encontrar mucha agua. Los traductores podrían querer traducir: "el rey de Asiria", pero ellos deberían traducir "los reyes de Asiria", porque no hay soporte para una lectura textual de "el rey".

2 Chronicles 32:5

tomó valentía
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 15:8.

Ezequías tomó valentía y construyó
Traducción Alterna: "Ezequías se animó a sí mismo para construir"

El Milo
Esta es una parte del muro que da resistencia.

2 Chronicles 32:6

porque Alguien está con nosotros que es más grande que los que están con él Traducción Alterna: "porque nuestro Dios está con nosotros y es más poderoso que ellos"

un brazo de carne Traducción Alterna: "fuerza humana"

2 Chronicles 32:9

Laquis
Esta era una ciudad en Judá.

¿En qué están confiando para que soporten un sitio en Jerusalén?
Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes no son capaces de soportar un sitio en Jerusalén."

2 Chronicles 32:11

¿No está Ezequías engañándolos... cuando él les dice: 'El SEÑOR... Asiria'?
Traducción Alterna: "Ezequías está engañándolos... cuando les dice: 'El SEÑOR... Asiria.'"

¿Éste mismo Ezequías no ha quitado Traducción Alterna: "Este mismo Ezequías ha quitado"

2 Chronicles 32:13

¿No saben ustedes lo que... tierras?
"Ustedes saben muy bien que... tierras!"

¿Fueron los dioses de estos pueblos capaces... poder?
"Los dioses de los pueblos de la tierra no uferon capaces... poder?

Entre todos los dioses... ¿hubo algún dios que... mano?
"No hubo algún dios entre todos los dioses... que... mano!"

¿Por qué su Dios podría ser capaz... poder?
"No hay razón para que su Dios pudiera ser capaz... poder!"

2 Chronicles 32:18

para asustarlos y molestarlos
Estas dos frases signican básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan la intensidad del temor. Traducción Alterna: "para hacerlos muy temerosos".

Ellos hablaron del Dios de Jerusalén como habían hablado de otros dioses de otros pueblos de la tierra
Traducción Alterna: "Ellos se burlaron del Dios de Jerusalén como se burlaron de los dioses de los otros pueblos de la tierra" (Ver:)

2 Chronicles 32:20

clamó a los cielos Traducción Alterna: "rogaron a Dios"

avergonzado
Traducción Alterna: "abochornado".

la casa de su dios
Traducción Alterna: "el templo de su dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 32:22

les dió descanso por todos lados
Aquí "decanso" significa "paz". Traducción Alterna: "les dio paz con todas las naciones vecinas" (Ver:)

en los ojos de todas las naciones Traducción Alterna: "para que todos los pueblos de alrededor supieran"

2 Chronicles 32:24

su corazón estaba enorgullecido
Traducción Alterna: "se volvió orgulloso"

2 Chronicles 32:27

establos
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 9:25.

corrales
Un lugar para tener animales pequeños.

2 Chronicles 32:30

aguas de Gihón

2 Chronicles 32:32

la visión del profeta Isaías, hijo de Amoz... el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel Estos libros ya no existen.

durmió con sus ancestros
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 9:29.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 Manasés tenía doce años cuando comenzó a reinar; el reinó cincuenta y cinco años en Jerusalén. 2 Hizo lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR, como las cosas desagradables de las naciones que el SEÑOR había echado de delante de la gente de Israel. 3 Pues el reconstruyó los lugares altos que su padre Ezequías había derribado, y construyó altares para los Baales, hizo postes a Asera, e hizo reverencia a todas las estrellas de los cielos y las adoró. 4 Manasés construyó altares paganos en la casa del SEÑOR, aunque el SEÑOR había ordenado: "Es en Jerusalén que mi nombre será conocido para siempre." 5 El construyó altares para todas las estrellas del cielo en dos atrios de la casa del SEÑOR. 6 En el Valle de Ben Hinom el echó a sus hijos en el fuego. El practicó la adivinación y la brujería; leyó augurios; y consultó con aquellos que hablaban con los muertos y con aquellos que hablaban con los espíritus. Practicó mucha maldad a la vista del SEÑOR y provocó la ira de Dios. 7 La figura tallada de Asera que él había hecho, la colocó en la casa de Dios. Fue acerca de esta casa que Dios había hablado a David y Salomón su hijo; Él había dicho: "Es en esta casa y en Jerusalén, que Yo he escogido de todas las tribus de Israel, que Yo pondré mi nombre para siempre. 8 Yo no moveré a la gente de Israel fuera de la tierra que Yo asigné a sus ancestros, si ellos sólo tienen cuidado de guardar todo lo que He ordenado, siguiendo todas las leyes, estatutos, y decretos que Yo le di a ellos a través de Moisés." 9 Manasés guió a Judá y a los habitantes de Jerusalén a hacer lo malo aún más que las naciones que el SEÑOR había destruído ante el pueblo de Israel. 10 El SEÑOR habló a Manasés, y a su pueblo, pero ellos no prestaron atención. 11 Así que el SEÑOR trajo sobre ellos los comandantes del ejército del rey de Asiria, quien tomó a Manasés en cadenas, amarrándolo con grilletes, y lo llevó a Babilonia. 12 Cuando Manasés estaba angustiado, el imploró al SEÑOR, su Dios, y se humilló a sí mismo grandemente ante el Dios de sus ancestros. 13 El oró al SEÑOR; y Dios fue conmovido por éste, y Dios escuchó su ruego y lo trajo de vuelta a Jerusalén, a su reino. Entonces Manasés supo que el SEÑOR era Dios. 14 Después de esto, Manasés construyó una pared externa a la ciudad de David, en el lado oriental de Gihón, en el valle, a la entrada de la Puerta del Pescado. El rodeó el monte de Ofel con ella y elevó la pared a una muy grande altura. Él puso comandantes valientes en todas las ciudades fortificadas de Judá. 15 Eliminó los dioses extranjeros, el ídolo fuera de la casa del SEÑOR, y todos los altares que él había construído en el monte de la casa del SEÑOR y en Jerusalén, y los lanzó fuera de la ciudad. 16 Él reconstruyó el altar del SEÑOR y ofreció en él sacrificios de paz y ofrendas de gratitud; el ordenó a Judá servir al SEÑOR el Dios de Israel. 17 Sin embargo, la gente todavía sacrificaba en los lugares altos, pero sólo al SEÑOR, su Dios. 18 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Manasés, su oración a su Dios, y las palabras de los videntes que le hablaron en el nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, están escritas entre los hechos de los reyes de Israel. 19 En esa narración está la historia de su oración, y como Dios fue movido por ella. También hay una narración de todos sus pecados y sus transgresiones, y los lugares donde el había construído lugares altos y levantado los postes de Asera y tallado figuras, antes de humillarse a sí mismo, están escritas en las Crónicas de los videntes. 20 Manasés durmió con sus ancestros, y ellos lo enterraron en su propia casa. Amón, su hijo, vino a ser rey en su lugar. 21 Amón tenía veintidos años cuando comenzó a reinar; el reinó dos años en Jerusalén. 22 Él hizo lo malo a los ojos del SEÑOR, como Manasés, su padre había hecho. Amón sacrificó a todas las figuras talladas que Manasés su padre había hecho, y las adoró. 23 Él no se humilló a sí mismo ante el SEÑOR, como Manasés su padre había hecho. En su lugar, este mismo Amón transgredió más y más. 24 Sus siervos conspiraron contra él y lo mataron en su propia casa. 25 Pero la gente de la tierra mató a todos los que habían conspirado contra el Rey Amón, y ellos hicieron a Josías, su hijo, rey en su lugar.

---

2 Chronicles 33:1

Hizo lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

como las cosas desagradables de las naciones que el SEÑOR había echado de delante de la gente de Israel Traducción Alterna: "como hicieron otros pueblos a los que El SEÑOR hizo que fueran derrotados por el pueblo de Israel".

2 Chronicles 33:4

mi nombre será conocido Traducción Alterna: "Yo me haré conocido al pueblo"

echó a sus hijos en el fuego Esto se refiere a la práctica de quemar niños vivos como sacrificios a ídolos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Valle de Ben Hinom
Un lugar cerca de Jerusalén también conocido como Gehena.

2 Chronicles 33:7

Judá y a los habitantes de Jerusalén Traducción Alterna: "la gente de Judá y Jerusalén"

2 Chronicles 33:10

trajo sobre ellos
Traducción Alterna: "trajo un ataque sobre ellos"

tomó a Manasés en cadenas, amarrándolo con grilletes, y lo llevó a Babilonia Traducción Alterna: "se apoderó de Manasés y lo tomó como prisionero a Babilonia."

2 Chronicles 33:12

El oró al SEÑOR; y Dios fue conmovido por éste
La segunda frase intensifica la primera parte y enfatiza la seriedad de la oración de Manasés. Traducción Alterna: "Él oró a Dios y le imploró".

a su reino
Esto significa "gobernar sobre la nación."

2 Chronicles 33:14

Información General:
Ver:

los dioses extranjeros
Traducción Alterna: "los dioses de otros países."

2 Chronicles 33:16

el ordenó a Judá
Traducción Alterna: "él mandó a la gente de Judá"

2 Chronicles 33:18

escritas entre los hechos de los reyes de Israel
Esto es un relato de la historia de Israel que no existe más.

las Crónicas de los videntes
Este es un libro que ya no existe.

Manasés durmió con sus ancestros, y ellos lo enterraron Traducción Alterna: "Así que Manasés murió, y su familia lo enterró"

Amón

2 Chronicles 33:21

Él hizo lo malo a los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

este mismo Amón transgredió más y más Traducción Alterna: "Amón pecó más"

2 Chronicles 33:24

conspiraron
Traducción Alterna: "planearon en secreto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 Josías tenía ocho años cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó treinta y un años en Jerusalén. 2 Él hizo lo correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR, y caminó en los caminos de David su ancestro, y no se volvió ni a la derecha ni a la izquierda. 3 Porque en el año octavo de su reinado, mientras aún era jóven, él comenzó a buscar al Dios de David, su ancestro. En el año duodécimo, él comenzó a limpiar Judá y Jerusalén de los lugares altos, los postes de Asera, las figuras talladas y figuras de metal fundido. 4 El pueblo destruyó los altares de los Baales en su presencia; él cortó en pedazos los altares de incienso que estaban sobre ellos. El rompió en pedazos los palos de Asera y las figuras talladas, y las figuras de metal fundido hasta que fueron polvo. Él esparció el polvo en las tumbas de aquellos que habían sacrificado a ellos. 5 Él quemó los huesos de sus sacerdotes en sus altares. De esta manera, él limpió a Judá y Jerusalén. 6 Él hizo lo mismo en las ciudades de Manasés, Efraín y Simeón, hasta Neftalí, y en las ruinas que las rodeaban. 7 Él destruyó los altares, golpeó los postes de Aseras y las imágenes talladas hasta convertirlas en polvo, y quitó todos los altares de incienso a través de toda la tierra de Israel; entonces regresó a Jerusalén. 8 Ahora en el décimo octavo año de su reinado, después que Josías había limpiado la tierra y el templo, él envió a Safán hijo de Azalía, y a Maasías, el gobernador de la ciudad, y a Joa, hijo de Joacaz el secretario, para reparar la casa del SEÑOR su Dios. 9 Ellos fueron a Hilcías, el sumo sacerdote, y le confió a él el dinero que se había traído a la casa de Dios, que los Levitas, los guardias de las puertas, habían recogido de Manasés y Efraín, de todos el remanente de Israel, de toda Judá y Benjamín, y los habitantes de Jerusalén. 10 Ellos le confiaron el dinero a los hombres que supervisaban el trabajo en el templo del SEÑOR. Estos hombres le pagaron a trabajadores quienes repararon y restauraron el templo. 11 Ellos le pagaron a los carpinteros y constructores para comprar cortes de piedras y madera para los soportes, y para hacer columnas para las estructuras que algunos reyes de Judá habían permitido que se decayeran. 12 Los hombres hicieron el trabajo fielmente. Sus supervisores Jahat y Abdías, los Levitas, de los hijos de Merari; y Zacarías y Mesulam, de los hijos de lo Coat. Otros Levitas, todos los cuales eran muy buenos músicos, dirigieron a los trabajadores de cerca. 13 Estos Levitas estaban a cargo de los que cargaban materiales de construcción y todos los otros hombres que trabajaban de alguna manera. También habían Levitas que eran secretarios, administradores y guardias de puertas. 14 Cuando ellos trajeron el dinero que había sido llevado a la casa del SEÑOR, Hilcías el sacerdote encontró el Libro de la Ley del SEÑOR que se habían entregado a través de Moisés. 15 Hilcías le dijo a Safán el escriba: "He encontrado el Libro de la Ley en la casa del SEÑOR." Hilcías le trajo el libro a Safán. 16 Safán le llevó el libro al rey, y también le reportó, diciendo: "Tus siervos están haciendo todo lo que se les ha confiado a ellos. 17 Han vaciado el dinero que se había encontrado en la casa del SEÑOR, y se lo entregaron en las manos de los supervisores y de los trabajadores." 18 Safán el escriba le dijo al rey: "Hilcías el sacerdote me ha entregado un libro." Entonces Safán lo leyó al rey. 19 Aconteció que cuando el rey hubo escuchado las palabras de la Ley, rompió sus vestiduras. 20 El rey le ordenó a Hilcías, Ahicam hijo de Safán, a Abdón hijo de Micaías, Safán el escriba y Asaías, su propio sirviente, diciendo: 21 "Vayan y pregunten acerca de la voluntad de Dios para mí, y para aquellos que queden en Israel y en Judá, debido a las palabras del libro que ha sido encontrado. Porque es grande la ira del SEÑOR que ha sido derramada sobre nosotros. Es grande, porque nuestros ancestros no han escuchado a las palabras de este libro para obedecer todo lo que fue escrito en él." 22 Así que, Hilcías y aquellos a quienes el rey había ordenado, fueron a Hulda la profetiza, la esposa de Salum hijo de Ticva hijo de Harhas, guardador de vestimentas (ella vivía en Jerusalén en el segundo distrito) y ellos hablaron con ella de este asunto. 23 Ella les dijo: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: Dile al hombre que los envió a mí, 24 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: 'Mira, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre sobre este lugar y sobre sus habitantes, todas las maldiciones que han sido escritas en el libro que ellos han leído ante el rey de Judá. 25 Porque ellos me han abandonado y han quemado incienso para otros dioses, así que, ellos me provocaron a Mí al enojo con todas sus andanzas que ellos han cometido, por lo tanto mi enojo va a ser derramado en este lugar, y no va a ser extinguido.' 26 Pero para el rey de Judá, quien los ha enviado a ustedes a preguntarle al SEÑOR lo que él debía hacer, esto es lo que ustedes le van a decir a él, el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice esto: 'Acerca de las palabras que tú has escuchado, 27 porque tu corazón es tierno, y tú te has humillado a tí mismo ante Dios cuando escuchaste Su palabra contra este lugar y sus habitantes, y porque te has humillado a tí mismo ante Mí y has roto tu ropa y has gemido ante Mí, Yo también te he escuchado,' esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 28 'Mira, Yo voy a reunirte con tus ancestros. Tú vas a ser recogido a tu sepulcro en paz, y tus ojos no van a ver ninguno de los desastres que Yo voy a traer a este lugar y sus habitantes.' " Los hombres llevaron este mensaje de vuelta al rey. 29 Luego el rey envió mensajeros y reunió a los ancianos de Judá y Jerusalén. 30 Entonces, el rey subió a la casa del SEÑOR, y todos los hombres de Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén, y los sacerdotes, Levitas, y todas las personas, de grande

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a pequeños. Luego él leyó en presencia del pueblo todas las palabras del libro del Pacto que había sido hallado en la casa del SEÑOR. 31 El rey se puso en pie en su lugar e hizo un pacto ante el SEÑOR, de caminar tras el SEÑOR, y de mantener Sus mandamientos, Sus regulaciones, y Sus estatutos, con todo su corazón y con toda su alma, para obedecer las palabras del pacto que habían sido escritas en este libro. 32 Él hizo que todos quienes habían sido encontrados en Jerusalén y Benjamín se unieran al pacto. Los habitantes de Jerusalén actuaron en obediencia al pacto de Dios, el Dios de sus ancestros. 33 Josías quitó todas las cosas asquerosas de las tierras que le pertenecían al pueblo de Israel. Él hizo que todos en Israel adoraran al SEÑOR, su Dios. Por todos sus días, ellos no se alejaron de seguir al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros.

---

2 Chronicles 34:1

Él hizo lo correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

no se volvió ni a la derecha ni a la izquierda Traducción Alterna: "no dudó en obedecer a Dios en ninguna forma", o "él obedeció los mandamientos de Dios"

2 Chronicles 34:4

hasta que fueron polvo
Traducción Alterna: "hasta que fueron piezas muy pequeñas que podían ser llevadas por el viento"

2 Chronicles 34:6

en polvo
Traducción Alterna: "estaban completamente destruidas" (Ver:)

2 Chronicles 34:8

Información General:
Ver:

le confió a él
"le dió la responsabilidad de usar el dinero"

2 Chronicles 34:10

habían permitido que se decayeran
Traducción Alterna: "habían permitido que se pudrieran"

2 Chronicles 34:12

Información General:
Ver:

Estos Levitas estaban a cargo de los que cargaban materiales de construcción y todos los otros hombres que trabajaban de alguna manera
Traducción Alterna: "Estos levitas estaban a cargo de los hombres que hicieron cualquier tipo de trabajo de construcción."

2 Chronicles 34:14

Información General:
Ver:

Cuando ellos trajeron el dinero que habÍa sido llevado a la casa del SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "Cuando los supervisores estaban recibiendo el dinero en el templo.'' todo lo que se les ha confiado a ello Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que les diste la responsabilidad de hacer."

2 Chronicles 34:17

Han vaciado
Traducción Alterna: "Ellos han reunido"

Aconteció que cuando
Esta frase es un marcador; indica que lo que sigue es un evento importante en esta historia. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora, note lo que sigue a continuación."

2 Chronicles 34:20

Información General:
Ver:

pregunten acerca de la voluntad de Dios para mí Traducción Alterna: "pregunten al SEÑOR lo que quiere que haga" debido a las palabras del libro

Traducción Alterna: "de acuerdo a lo que está escrito en el libro"

Porque es grande la ira del SEÑOR que ha sido derramada sobre nosotros. Es grande Emociones como la ira son, a menudo, referidas en la Escritura como si fueran líquidos. Traducción Alterna: "Porque la ira del SEÑOR hacia nosotros es grande, como agua que pudiese limpiarnos totalmente."

2 Chronicles 34:22

Información General:
Ver:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

guardador de vestimentas Traducción Alterna: "quien cuidaba las ropas sacerdotales" ellos hablaron con ella de este asunto Traducción Alterna: "ellos tuvieron la siguiente conversación con ella"

2 Chronicles 34:23

ellos me provocaron a Mí al enojo con todas sus andanzas que ellos han cometido
"el resultado es que ellos me han molestado extremadamente por lo que han hecho"

me provocaron a Mí al enojo
"me hicieron enojar"

por lo tanto mi enojo va a ser derramado en este lugar, y no va a ser extinguido Emociones como el enojo son mencionados en la Escritura como si fueran líquidos. Traducción Alterna: "Por lo tanto será como un fuego que arrojo sobre ellos, y nada podrá detener este fuego"

2 Chronicles 34:26

el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice esto: 'Acerca de las palabras que tú has escuchado, porque tu corazón es tierno Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice esto acerca de las palabras que has escuchado, porque tu corazón era dócil para cambiar"

has roto tu ropa
Esta era una señal de lamento y arrepentimiento.

Yo voy a reunirte con tus ancestros. Tú vas a ser recogido a tu sepulcro Traducción Alterna: "morirás"

tus ojos no van a ver Traducción Alterna: "no experimentarás"

2 Chronicles 34:29

todas las personas, de grande a pequeños Traducción Alterna: "todos"

leyó en presencia del pueblo Traducción Alterna: "les leyó"

2 Chronicles 34:31

se puso en pie en su lugar Traducción Alterna: "se paró donde se suponía que él debía pararse en la entrada al templo"

con todo su corazón y con toda su alma Juntas, estas dos frases forman una expresión idiomática que se refiere al ser entero de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "con todo su ser" o "incondicionalmente''.

todos quienes habían sido encontrados en Jerusalén y Benjamín Traducción Alterna: "todos los que vivían en Jerusalén y Benjamín"

se unieran al pacto
Traducción Alterna: "obedecieran el pacto"

2 Chronicles 34:33

las cosas asquerosas
Estos son los ídolos que eran repulsivos para Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 Josías celebró la Pascua al SEÑOR en Jerusalén y mataron los corderos de la Pascua en el décimo cuarto día del primer mes. 2 Él colocó los sacerdotes en sus posiciones y los animó en el servicio de la casa del SEÑOR. 3 Él le dijo a los Levitas que enseñaban a todo Israel y quienes estaban apartados para Él SEÑOR: "Pongan el arca sagrada en la casa que Salomón hijo de David, rey de Israel edificó. No la lleven alrededor de sus hombros más. Ahora adoren al SEÑOR su Dios, y sirvan al pueblo de Israel. 4 Organícense ustedes mismos por el nombre de las casas de sus ancestros y sus divisiones, siguiendo las instrucciones escritas de David, rey de Israel, y aquellas de Salomón, su hijo. 5 Párense en el lugar santo, tomen sus posiciones con sus divisiones entre las casas de los ancestros de sus hermanos, descendientes del pueblo, y tomen sus lugares con sus divisiones entre las casas de los ancestros de los Levitas. 6 Maten los corderos para la Pascua, conságrense ustedes mismos, preparen los corderos para sus hermanos, para hacer de acuerdo a la palabra del SEÑOR que fue dada por las manos de Moisés. 7 Josías dió a todo el pueblo treinta mil corderos y cabritos del rebaño para la ofrenda de la Pascua a todos los que estaban presentes. Él también dió tres mil toros; éstos eran de las posesiones del rey. 8 Sus líderes dieron una ofrenda voluntaria al pueblo, sacerdotes, y Levitas. Hilcías, Zacarías, y Jehiel, los oficiales encargados de la casa de Dios, dieron a los sacerdotes para la ofrenda de la Pascua dos mil seiscientos becerros y trescientos bueyes. 9 También Conanías, Semaías y Natanael, su hermano, y Hasabías, Jeiel y Josabad, el jefe de los Levitas le dió a los Levitas para la ofrenda de la Pascua cinco mil becerros y quinientos bueyes. 10 Así que, el servicio fue preparado, y los sacerdotes se pararon en sus lugares, con los Levitas por sus divisiones, en respuesta a las órdenes del rey. 11 Ellos mataron los corderos de la Pascua y los sacerdotes rociaron la sangre que ellos recibieron de las manos de los Levitas y los Levitas deshollaron a los corderos. 12 Ellos removieron las ofrendas quemadas, para poder distribuirlas a las divisiones de las tiendas de los ancestros del pueblo, para ofrecerlas a Él SEÑOR, como está escrito en el libro de Moisés. Ellos hicieron lo mismo con los toros. 13 Ellos asaron los corderos de la Pascua con fuego siguiendo las instrucciones. En cuanto a las ofrendas de consagración, ellos las hirvieron en ollas, calderos y sartenes y rápidamente ellos los llevaron a la gente. 14 Ellos más tarde prepararon ofrendas por ellos mismos y por los sacerdotes, porque los sacerdotes, los descendientes de Aarón, estaban ocupados ofreciendo los holocaustos y la grasa hasta que cayó la noche, así que los Levitas prepararon las ofrendas por ellos mismos y por los sacerdotes, los descendientes de Aarón. 15 Los cantores, los descendientes de Asaf, estaban en su lugar, como fue indicado por David, Asaf, Heman y Jedutún el vidente del rey, y los guardias estaban en todas las puertas. Ellos no tenían que dejar sus puestos, porque sus hermanos los Levitas hicieron preparación para ellos. 16 Así que, para ese tiempo el servicio completo del SEÑOR fue entregado para la celebración de la Pascua y para ofrecer las ofrendas quemadas en el altar del SEÑOR, como ordenó el rey Josías. 17 El pueblo de Israel que estaba presente celebró la Pascua, en ese tiempo, y luego la Fiesta de los Panes Sin Levadura por siete días. 18 Tal celebración de la Pascua nunca había sido llevada acabo en Israel desde los días del profeta Samuel, ni ningún otro rey de Israel celebró una Pascua como lo hizo Josías, junto con los sacerdotes, Levitas y todo el pueblo de Judá e Israel que estaban presentes, y los habitantes de Jerusalén. 19 Esta Pascua se llevó a cabo en el décimo octavo año del reinado de Josías. 20 Después de todo esto, después que Josías dejó el templo en orden, Neco, el rey de Egipto, subió a pelear contra Carquemis en el Río Eufrates y Josías fue a pelear contra él. 21 Pero Necao le envió embajadores diciendo: ¿Qué tengo yo que ver contigo, rey de Judá? Yo no vengo contra ti hoy, sino contra la casa con la cual estoy haciendo guerra. Dios me ha ordenado avanzar, por tanto, deja de interferir con Dios, que está conmigo, o él puede destruirte". 22 Sin embargo, Josías rehusó retirarse de él. Él se disfrazó a sí mismo para pelear con él. Él no escuchó las palabras de Necao que vinieron de la boca de Dios; así que, él fue a pelear en el valle de Meguido. 23 Arqueros le dispararon al rey Josías, y el rey le dijo a sus sirvientes: "Llévenme aparte, porque estoy malamente herido." 24 Así que, sus sirvientes lo sacaron de su carruaje y lo pusieron en un carruaje adicional. Ellos lo llevaron a Jerusalén, donde él murió. Él fue enterrado en la tumba de sus ancestros. Toda Judá y Jerusalén se lamentó por Josías. 25 Jeremías se lamentó por Josías; todos los cantores masculinos y femeninos se lamentaron por Josías hasta este día. Estas canciones se convirtieron en costumbres en Israel; miren, ellas están escritas en las canciones de lamentaciones. 26 Sobre los otros asuntos concernientes a Josías, y sus buenas obras hechas en obediencia a lo escrito en la Ley del Señor- 27 y sus obras, desde el principio hasta el fin, están escritas en el libro de los reyes de Judá e Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

2 Chronicles 35:1

el décimo cuarto día del primer mes
Este es el primer día del calendario hebreo. El décimo cuarto día está cerca del inicio de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

Él colocó los sacerdotes en sus posiciones Traducción Alterna: "Él dijo a los sacerdotes qué trabajos hacer"

2 Chronicles 35:3

que Salomón hijo de David, rey de Israel edificó Traducción Alterna: "la gente la construyó bajo el liderazgo del rey Salomón" las casas de sus ancestros y sus divisiones Traducción Alterna: "sus tribus y familias"

2 Chronicles 35:5

Párense en el lugar santo Aquí "lugar santo" parece referirse al área general del templo. Traducción Alterna: "tomen sus posiciones en el área del templo."

sus divisiones
Esto se refiere al grupo de trabajo asignado a cada levita.

las casas de los ancestros
Esto se refiere a los diversos clanes entre los levitas. Parece que los levitas estaban asignados a diferentes grupos de trabajo en base al tipo de trabajo asignado a cada clan o casa ancestral.

2 Chronicles 35:7

Información General:
Ver: y

cabritos
Estos son cabras bebés.

2 Chronicles 35:10

el servicio fue preparado
"ellos prepararon todo para celebrar la Pascua."

la sangre que ellos recibieron de las manos de los Levitas
"la sangre que los levitas les dieron"

2 Chronicles 35:13

Ellos asaron Traducción Alterna: "ellos cocinaron"

ellos las hirvieron en ollas, calderos y sartenes Traducción Alterna: "ellos las cocinaron en agua en muchas ollas diferentes"

por ellos mismos

2 Chronicles 35:15

Información General:
Ver:

en su lugar
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 30:16.

2 Chronicles 35:16

el servicio completo
Todo lo asociado con la preparación, sacrificio y adoración del SEÑOR durante la Pascua puede ser referido como un "servicio" de adoración.

2 Chronicles 35:18

Israel
El primer uso de Israel referencia la nación como un todo, pero el segundo uso de Israel se refiere específicamente a las tribus del norte del reino de Israel.

2 Chronicles 35:20

Información General:
Ver:

dejó el templo en orden
Traducción Alterna: "restauró la albanza apropiada en el templo"

¿Qué tengo yo que ver contigo, rey de Judá?
Traducción Alterna: "No tienes razón para atacarme, rey de Judá."

Yo no vengo contra ti Traducción Alterna: "Yo no estoy luchando contra tu reino."

contra la casa con la cual estoy haciendo guerra Traducción Alterna: "contra Babilonia, contra la cual estoy haciendo la guerra"

2 Chronicles 35:22

pelear con él
"pelear con el ejército de Babilonia"

que vinieron de la boca de Dios
"de Dios" o "que Dios le había dicho"

2 Chronicles 35:25

hasta este día
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:9.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Luego las personas de la tierra tomaron a Joacaz hijo de Josías, y lo hicieron rey en el lugar de su padre en Jerusalén. 2 Joacaz tenía veintitres años cuando él comenzó a reinar, y el reinó tres meses en Jerusalén. 3 El rey de Egipto lo removió de Jerusalén, y multó a la tierra por mil talentos de plata y un talento de oro. 4 El rey de Egipto hizo a Eliaquim, su hermano, rey sobre Judá y Jerusalén, y cambió su nombre a Joacim. Luego Necao tomó al hermano de Eliaquim y lo llevó a Egipto. 5 Joacim tenía veinticinco años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar, y él reinó once años en Jerusalén. Él hizo lo que era malo ante la vista del SEÑOR su Dios. 6 Luego, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, lo atacó y lo ató en cadenas para llevarselo a Babilonia. 7 Nabucodonosor también se llevó algunos de los objetos de la casa del SEÑOR a Babilonia, y las puso en su palacio en Babilonia. 8 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Joacim, las cosas asquerosas que él hizo, y lo que fue encontrado en contra de él, vean, ellas están escritas en el libro de reyes de Judá e Israel. Luego, Joaquín, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 9 Joaquín tenía ocho años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar; el reinó tres meses y diez días en Jerusalén. Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR. 10 En la primavera, el rey Nabucodonosor envió a hombres y lo trajo a Babilonia, con las cosas de valor de la casa del SEÑOR, e hizo a Sedequías, su pariente, rey sobre Judá y Jerusalén. 11 Sedequías tenía veintiún años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó once años en Jerusalén. 12 Él hizo lo que era malo ante la vista del SEÑOR su Dios. Él no se humilló a sí mismo ante Jeremías el profeta, quien hablaba de la boca del SEÑOR. 13 Sedequías también se rebeló contra el rey Nabucodonosor, quien lo había hecho jurar su lealtad ante Dios. Pero Sedequías endureció su cuello y endureció su corazón contra el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 14 Además, todos los líderes de los sacerdotes y las personas eran horrorosamente infieles, y ellos seguían las prácticas asquerosas de las naciones. Ellos contaminaron la casa del SEÑOR la cual Él había consagrado en Jerusalén. 15 El SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, envió una palabra a ellos por sus mensajeros una y otra vez, porque Él tenía compasión de su pueblo y del lugar donde Él vive. 16 Pero ellos se burlaban de los mensajeros de Dios, despreciaban Su palabra, y se burlaban de sus profetas, hasta que la ira del SEÑOR se levantó contra su pueblo, hasta que no hubo ayuda para ellos. 17 Así que, Dios les trajo al rey de los Caldeos, quien mató a sus jóvenes con la espada en el santuario, y no tuvo compasión de los jóvenes o las vírgenes, viejos o los de pelo gris. Dios entregó a todos en su mano. 18 Todos los objetos de la casa de Dios, grandes y pequeños, los tesoros de la casa del SEÑOR, y los tesoros del rey y sus oficiales, todas estas cosas él se las llevó a Babilonia. 19 Ellos quemaron la casa de Dios, rompieron las paredes de Jerusalén, quemaron todos sus palacios, y destruyeron todas las cosas hermosas que estaban en ella. 20 El rey se llevó a Babilona a aquellos quienes se habían escapado de la espada. Ellos se convirtieron en sirvientes para él y sus hijos hasta el dominio del reino de Persia. 21 Esto pasó para el cumplimiento de la palabra del SEÑOR por la boca de Jeremías, hasta que la tierra hubo disfrutado de su dia de reposo. Ésta observó sus días de reposo durante todo el tiempo que permaneció abandonada, de manera que pasaran setenta años de esta forma. 22 Ahora, en el primer año de Ciro, rey de Persia, para que la palabra del SEÑOR por la boca de Jeremías se llevara a cabo, el SEÑOR motivó al espíritu de Ciro, rey de Persia, para que él hiciera proclamaciones a través de todo su reino, y las pusiera también por escrito. Él dijo: 23 "Esto es lo que Ciro, rey de Persia, dice: 'el SEÑOR, el Dios de los cielos, me ha dado todos los reinos de la tierra. Él me ha ordenado construirle una casa para Él en Jerusalén, la cual está en Judá. Quienquiera de entre ustedes que sea de Su pueblo, suba a la tierra, y que el SEÑOR su Dios sea con él.' "

---

2 Chronicles 36:1

Joacaz

2 Chronicles 36:3

Información General:
Ver:

talentos

lo llevó a Egipto
Traducción Alterna: "lo tomó a Egipto como prisionero"

2 Chronicles 36:5

Él hizo lo que era malo ante la vista del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 21:6.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo atacó
Traducción Alterna: "atacó Jerusalén"

Nabucodonosor también se llevó
Los sirvientes de Nabucodonosor se llevaron.

2 Chronicles 36:8

las cosas asquerosas que él hizo Esto usualmente se refiere a adorar falsos dioses, lo cual El SEÑOR odiaba.

que fue encontrado en contra de él Esto podría referirse a su carácter.

el libro de reyes de Judá e Israel
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 35:26.

2 Chronicles 36:9

Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:1.

2 Chronicles 36:11

Él no se humilló a sí mismo ante Jeremías el profeta Traducción Alterna: "Él no se humilló a sí mismo ni obedeció al escuchar a Jeremías el profeta"

de la boca del SEÑOR
"de las palabras que Dios le había dado"

2 Chronicles 36:13

endureció su cuello y endureció su corazón Estas dos frases son formas idiomáticas para referirse a la testarudez de una persona. Juntas enfatizan la rebelión de Sedequías contra Dios.

prácticas asquerosas
Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 15:8.

contaminaron la casa del SEÑOR Traducción Alterna: "ellos hicieron profano lo que debía ser santo"

2 Chronicles 36:15

una y otra vez
Traducción Alterna: "muchas veces"

no hubo ayuda para ellos Traducción Alterna: "no hubo manera de evitarlo"

2 Chronicles 36:17

Dios entregó a todos en su mano
Traducción Alterna: "Dios permitió al ejército caldeo vencerles."

2 Chronicles 36:18

él se las llevó
Sus soldados tomaron

Ellos quemaron
"Ellos" se refiere a los soldados babilonios.

2 Chronicles 36:20

El rey se llevó
"Sus soldados tomaron"

2 Chronicles 36:22

en el primer año

Él me ha ordenado construirle una casa Traducción Alterna: "Él me había señalado que ordenara que mis trabajadores construyeran un templo para Él en Jerusalén"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Ezra

Ezra

Chapter 1

1 En el primer año de Ciro, rey de Persia, el SEÑOR cumplió Su palabra que salió de la boca de Jeremías y movió el espíritu de Ciro. La voz de Ciro se escuchó sobre su reino entero. Ésto es lo que fue escrito y hablado: 2 Ciro, rey de Persia dice: "El SEÑOR, Dios del cielo, me dió todos los reinos de la tierra y Él me señaló para construir para Él una casa en Jerusalén en Judea. 3 Cualquiera que sea de Su pueblo (que su Dios sea con él) puede subir a Jerusalén y construir una casa para el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, quien es el Dios de Jerusalén. 4 Personas de cualquier parte del reino donde estén viviendo sobrevivientes de esa tierra deben proveerles plata y oro, posesiones y animales, como tambien una ofrenda voluntaria para la casa de Dios en Jerusalén." 5 Entonces los jefes de los clanes ancestrales de Judá y Benjamín, los sacerdotes y los Levitas, y todo aquel cuyo espíritu Dios despertó para ir y construir Su casa se levantó. 6 Aquellos alrededor de ellos apoyaron su trabajo con objetos de plata y oro, posesiones, animales, cosas de valor y ofrendas voluntarias. 7 También el rey Ciro sacó los objetos de la casa del Señor que Nabucodonosor había traído desde Jerusalén y había puesto en las casas de sus dioses. 8 Ciro los puso en la mano de Mitrídates el tesorero, quien los contó para Sesbasar, dirigente de Judea. 9 Éste fue su número: treinta vasijas de oro, mil vasijas de plata, veintinueve otras vasijas, 10 treinta tazones de oro, cuatrocientos diez tazones pequeños de plata, y mil objetos adicionales. 11 Había cinco mil cuatrocientos objetos de oro y plata en total. Sesbasar los trajo todos cuando los exilados fueron de Babilonia a Jerusalén.

Ezra 1:1

el primer año
Refiriendose al inicio del reino del Rey Ciro

El SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios el cual le ha sido revelado al pueblo en el antiguo testamento. Ver como la página de TranslationWord

El SEÑOR cumplió Su palabra
"El SEÑOR hizo lo que dijo que haría"

que salió de la boca de Jeremías Jeremías había hablado o escrito estas palabras.

SEÑOR ... movió el espíritu de Ciro.
"Movió su espíritu" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para "hacer que alguien quiera actuar o hacer algo". "El SEÑOR ... hizo que Cirus quiera actuar."

La voz de Ciro se escuchó sobre su reino entero
"La voz" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para "la voz que da el mensaje", y el reino es una figura literaria (metonimia) para el pueblo al que un Rey gobierna. Traducción alterna: ''Ciro envió un mensaje a todos bajo su reinado''

lo que fue escrito y hablado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Puede ser mejor traducirlo de manera que el lector entienda que otras personas puedieron haber ayudado a Ciro a llevar el mensaje a las personas bajo su reinado. Traducción alterna: "Lo que Ciro escribió y lo que sus mensajeros leyeron para que las personas pudieran oírlo"

Todos los reinos de la tierra
Esta es una hipérbole, porque habían reinos que Ciro no gobernaba.

construir para Él una casa en ... Judea.
Probablemente necesites expresar explícitamente que la casa era para que las personas adoren al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Una cada en ... Judea donde las personas puedan adorarlo a ÉL."

Ezra 1:3

Su pueblo
El pueblo que pertenece al SEÑOR.

sobrevivientes de esa tierra ... deben proveerles Aquellos Israelitas que decidían quedarse donde estaban debía ayudar a aquellos que decidían ir a Jerusalem fisica y financieramente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 1:5

su trabajo
Esto se refiere al trabajo de las personas que en el versículo previo habían sido despertadas por Dios.

todo aquel cuyo espíritu Dios despertó para ir Mover el espíritu es una figura literaria para hacer a alguien querer actuar o hacer algo. Traducción alterna: "Todo aquel a quien Dios ha hecho querer ir" Palabras similiares aparecen en 1:1

Ezra 1:7

los puso en la mano de Mitrídates el tesorero Poner un objeto en la mano de alguien es una metáfora para permitir a esa persona hacer lo que quiera con ese objetp. Aquí el lector debería entender que Ciro esperaba que Mitríades haga lo que Ciro quería que él haga. Traducción alterna: "Pon a Mitríades, el tesorero, encargado de ellos." o "Haz a Mitríadez el tesorero responsable de ellos."

tesorero Encargado oficial del dinero

los contó para Sesbasar
Se aseguro de que Sesbasar supiera exactamente que eran todos los objetos.

Ezra 1:9

Información general:
Esta es una lista de los enumerados objetos.

treinta ... mil ... veintinueve nueve - "30 ... 1,000 ... 29"

vasijas ... tazones objetos usados para contener agua para lavar.

cinco mil cuatrocientos objetos de oro y plata en total El número total de objetos retornados a Jerusalem de Babilonia, listados arriba individualmente

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Ésta es la gente en la provincia que subió de la cautividad del Rey Nabucodonosor quien los exilió en Babilonia, la gente que regresó a cada una de sus ciudades de Jerusalén y en Judea. 2 Ellos vinieron con Zorobabel, Jesúa, Nehemías, Seraías, Reelaías, Mardoqueo, Bilsán, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum y Baana. Este es el registro de los hombres del pueblo de Israel. 3 Los descendientes de Paros: dos mil ciento setenta y dos 4 Los descendientes de Sefatías: trescientos setenta y dos. 5 Los descendientes de Ara: setecientos setenta y cinco. 6 Los descendientes de Pahat Moab, por medio de Jesúa y Joab: dos mil ochocientos doce. 7 Los descendientes de Elam: mil doscientos cincuenta y cuatro. 8 Los descendientes de Zatu: novecientos cuarenta y cinco. 9 Los descendientes de Zacai: setecientos sesenta. 10 Los descendientes de Bani: seiscientos cuarenta y dos. 11 Los descendientes de Bebai: seiscientos veintitrés. 12 Los descendientes de Azgad: mil doscientos veintidos. 13 Los descendientes de Adonicam: seiscientos sesenta y seis. 14 Los descendientes de Bigvai: dos mil cincuenta y seis. 15 Los descendientes de Adín: cuatrocientos cincuenta y cuatro. 16 Los hombres de Ater por medio de Ezequías: noventa y ocho. 17 Los descendientes de Bezai: trescientos veintitrés. 18 Los descendientes de Jora: ciento doce. 19 Los hombres de Hasum: doscientos veintitrés. 20 Los hombres de Gibar: noventa y cinco. 21 Los hombres de Belén: ciento veintitrés. 22 Los hombres de Netofa: cincuenta y seis. 23 Los hombres de Anatot: ciento veintiocho. 24 Los hombres de Azmavet: cuarenta y dos. 25 Los hombres de Quiriat Jearim, Cafira y Beerot: setecientos cuarenta y tres. 26 Los hombres de Ramá y Geba: seiscientos veintiuno. 27 Los hombres de Micmas: ciento veintidos. 28 Los hombres de Betel y Hai: doscientos veintitrés. 29 Los hombres de Nebo: cincuenta y dos. 30 Los hombres de Magbis: ciento ciencuenta y seis. 31 Los hombres del otro Elam: mil doscientos cincuenta y cuatro. 32 Los hombres de Harim: trescientos veinte. 33 Los hombres de Lod, Hadid y Ono: setecientos veinticinco. 34 Los hombres de Jericó: trescientos cuarenta y cinco. 35 Los hombres de Senaa: tres mil seiscientos treinta. 36 Los sacerdotes: descendientes de Jedaías, de la casa de Jesúa: novecientos setenta y tres. 37 Los descendientes de Imer: mil cincuenta y dos. 38 Los descendientes de Pasur: mil doscientos cuarenta y siete. 39 Los descendientes de Harim: mil diecisiete. 40 Los levitas: descendientes de Jesúa y Cadmiel, descendientes de Hodavías: Setenta y cuatro. 41 Los cantores del templo, descendientes de Asaf: ciento veinticocho. 42 Los descendientes de los porteros: descendientes de Salum, Ater, Talmón Acub, Hatita y Sobai: ciento treinta y nueve en total. 43 Aquellos que fueron nombrados para servir en el templo: descendientes de Ziha, Hasufa, Tabaot, 44 Queros, Siaha, Padón, 45 Lebana, Hagaba, Acub, 46 Hagab, Salmai y Hanán. 47 Los descendientes de Gidel, Gahar, Reaía, 48 Rezín, Necoda, Gazam, 49 Uza, Paseah, Besai, 50 Asena, Mehunim, y Nefusim. 51 Los descendientes de Bacbuc, Hacufa, Harhur, 52 Bazlut, Mehida, Harsa, 53 Barcos, Sísara, Tema, 54 Nezía y Hatifa. 55 Los descendientes de los sirvientes de Salomón: descendientes de Sotai, Soferet, Peruda, 56 Jaala, Darcón, Gidel, 57 Sefatías, Hatil, Poqueret Hazebaim, y Ami. 58 Hubo un total de 392 descendientes de aquellos nombrados a servir en el templo y descendientes de los sirvientes de Salomón. 59 Aquellos que partieron de Tel Mela, Tel Harsa, Querub, Addán e Imer, pero que no pudieron probar su linaje de Israel, 60 incluyeron a seiscientos cincuenta y dos descendientes de Delaía, Tobías y Necoda. 61 Además, de los descendientes del sacerdote: los descendientes de Habaía, Cos, y Barzilai (quien tomó su esposa de las hijas de Barzilai de Gilead y fue llamado por su nombre). 62 Ellos buscaron sus registros genealógicos pero no los encontraron, así que fueron excluídos del sacerdocio como inmundos. 63 Así que el gobernador les dijo que ellos no debían comer ninguno de los sacrificios sagrados hasta que un sacerdote con Urim y Tumim lo aprobara. 64 El grupo entero era un total de cuarenta y dos mil trescientos sesenta, 65 sin incluir a sus sirvientes y sus sirvientas (éstos eran siete mil trescientos treinta y sieta) y sus cantores y cantoras del templo (doscientos). 66 Sus caballos: Setecientos treinta y seis. Sus mulas: Doscientos cuarenta y cinco. 67 Sus camellos: Cuatrocientos treinta y cinco. Sus asnos: Seis mil setecientos veinte. 68 Cuando ellos fueron a la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén los jefes patriarcas ofrecieron ofrendas voluntarias para construir la casa. 69 Ellos dieron de acuerdo a su capacidad para los fondos de la obra: sesenta y un mil dracmas de oro, cinco mil minas de plata y cien túnicas sacerdotales. 70 Así que los sacerdotes y los levitas, el pueblo, los cantores del templo y los porteros, y aquellos nombrados a servir en el templo habitaron sus ciudades. Todo la gente en Israel estaban en sus ciudades.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 2:1

Información general:
Esto empieza una lista de nombres de las personas que retornaron del exilio.

que subió
Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a viajar hacia Jerusalem. Traducción alterna: ''retornaron'' o ''volvieron a''

Ezra 2:3

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo.

Ezra 2:7

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo.

Ezra 2:11

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo.

Ezra 2:15

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo.

noventa y ocho
ocho - ''98''

Ezra 2:19

Información general:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo. Nótese que desde 2:21 estos son los nombres de los lugares de donde ellos vinieron originalmente.

noventa y cinco ... cincuenta y seis cinco ... cincuenta y seis - ''95 ... 56''

hombres de Belén
Esto comienza a listar el número de personas cuyos ancestros habían vivido en pueblos de Judá.

Netofa
Este es el nombre de un pueblo en Judá.

Ezra 2:23

Información General:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo cuyos antepasados provenían de los lugares listados.

cuarenta y dos dos - ''42''

Ezra 2:27

Información General:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo cuyos antepasados provenían de los lugares listados.

cincuenta y dos
2 - ''52''

Ezra 2:31

Información General:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo cuyos antepasados provenían de los lugares listados.

Ezra 2:34

Información General:
Esto continúa la lista de personas que regresaron del exilio junto con el número en cada grupo cuyos antepasados provenían de los lugares listados.

Ezra 2:36

Información General:
Esta sección enlista los nombres de los sacerdotes cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio junto con el número de cada grupo.

Harim
El ''Harim'' en 2:31 es el nombre de un lugar, pero aqui ''Harim'' es el nombre de un hombre.

Ezra 2:40

Información General:
Esta sección enlista los nombres de los levítas cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio junto con el número de cada grupo.

setenta y cuatro cuatro - ''74''

porteros
Aquellos encargados de quien pasa por las puertas del templo.

Ezra 2:43

Información General:
Esta sección continúa enlistando los nombres de los levítas cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 2:47

Información General:
Esta sección continúa enlistando los nombres de los levítas cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio. Estos son todos nombres de hombres.

Ezra 2:51

Información General:
Esta sección continúa enlistando los nombres de los levítas cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio. Estos son todos nombres de hombres.

Ezra 2:55

Información General:
Esta sección continúa enlistando los nombres de los levítas cuyos descendientes retornaron del exilio.

Hubo un total de 392 descendientes
Este es el número total de todas las personas en este grupo que retorno del exilio.

Ezra 2:59

Información General:
Esta es una lista de personas que habían regresado a Israel desde varias ciudades babilónicas pero no pudieron demostrar su linaje.

Tel Mela, Tel Harsa, Querub, Addán e Imer
Lugares en Babilonia que ya no existen en la actualidad.

Ezra 2:61

sus registros genealógicos
Los registros que dicen quienes eran sus ancestros.

no los encontraron
''No pudieron encontrar sus nombres en los registros de los sacerdotes.

fueron excluídos del sacerdocio como inmundos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. El sustantivo abstracto ''sacerdocio'' puede ser traducido como el verbo ''el trabajo de un sacerdote.'' Traducción alterna: ''Los otros sacerdotes los trataron como si ellos fuesen inmundos y no les permitieron trabajar como sacerdotes'' inmundos

no apto para ser sacerdote

Urim y Tumim
Dos elementos como dados que los sacerdotes usaban para decidir lo que Dios quería que hicieran.

Ezra 2:64

El grupo entero
El grupo entero que retorno a la tierra de Juda del exilio doscientos

"200"

Ezra 2:66

Información General:
Esta es una lista de los animales junto con los números de cada especie que retornó con las personas del exilio.

Ezra 2:68

sesenta y un mil ... cinco mil ... cien mil ... cinco mil ... cien - "61,000 ... 5,000 ... 100"

dracmas de oro
una ''dracma'' era una pequeña moneda de oro usada por el imperio Persa.

minas
una ''mina'' es la unidad de peso. Una mina equivale a 550 gramos. Las minas son normalmente relacionadas con la medición de plata.

túnicas
Prendas que usan junto a la piel

Ezra 2:70

Todo la gente en Israel estaban en sus ciudades Todos volvieron a sus ciudades natales en Judea. No todos fueron reasentados en Jerusalén.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Fue el séptimo mes después que el pueblo de Israel regresó a sus ciudades, cuando se reunieron juntos como un solo hombre en Jerusalén. 2 Jesúa, hijo de Josadac y sus hermanos los sacerdotes y Zorobabel, hijo de Salatiel y sus hermanos se levantaron y construyeron el altar del Dios de Israel para ofrecer ofrendas quemadas como se ordena en la ley de Moisés, el hombre de Dios. 3 Entonces ellos establecieron el altar sobre su base, porque el temor estaba sobre ellos a causa de la gente de la tierra. Ellos ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR al amanecer y al anochecer. 4 Ellos también observaron la Fiesta de las cabañas como está escrito y ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas día tras día según el decreto, el deber de cada día en su día. 5 En conformidad hubo ofrendas quemadas diarias y mensuales y ofrendas para todas las fiestas fijas del SEÑOR, junto a las ofrendas voluntarias. 6 Ellos comenzaron a ofrecer ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR en el primer día del séptimo mes, aunque el fundamento del templo no había sido puesto. 7 Así que dieron plata a los canteros y a los artesanos; y comida, bebida y aceite a la gente de Sidón y Tiro, para que enviaran árboles de cedro desde el Líbano a Jope por mar, conforme les fue autorizados por Ciro, Rey de Persia. 8 Entonces en el segundo mes del segundo año después que vinieron a la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén, Zorobabel, Jesúa, hijo de Josadac, el resto de los sacerdotes, los levitas, y aquellos que vinieron de la cautividad de vuelta a Jerusalén, comenzaron el trabajo. Ellos asignaron a los levitas de veinte años y mayores a supervisar la obra de la casa del SEÑOR. 9 Jesúa puso a sus hijos y a sus hermanos, Cadmiel y sus hijos y los descendientes de Judá a supervisar a la gente haciendo la obra en la casa de Dios. Junto a ellos estaban los descendientes de Henadad, sus descendientes y también sus compañeros levitas. 10 Los constructores pusieron el fundamento para el templo del SEÑOR. Esto permitió a los sacerdotes a pararse, con sus vestimentas y trompetas, y a los levitas, hijos de Asaf, a alabar al SEÑOR con címbalos, así como la mano de David, rey de Israel había ordenado. 11 Ellos cantaron con alabanza y acción de gracias al SEÑOR, "¡Él es bueno! Su pacto, fiel a Israel, permanece para siempre." Todo el pueblo clamó con un gran grito de júbilo en alabanza al SEÑOR porque los fundamentos del templo se habían puesto. 12 Pero muchos de los sacerdotes, levitas, jefes patriarcas y ancianos que habían visto la primera casa, cuando los fundamentos de esta casa fueron puestos delante de sus ojos, ellos lloraron en alta voz. Pero muchos daban gritos de gozo con alegría y un sonido emocionante. 13 Como resultado la gente no pudo distingir los sonidos gozosos y alegres del sonido del llanto de la gente, porque la gente estaba clamando con gran gozo y el sonido se escuchó desde lejos.

Ezra 3:1

el séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario Hebreo. Es al final de la estación seca y al comienzo de la estación de lluvias tempranas. Dura desde la parte final de setiembre hasta la primera parte de octubre en los Calendarios occidentales.

como un solo hombre
Un sólo hombre es en un sólo lugar y tiene un sólo propósito. Traducción alterna: ''Por un propósito'' se levantaron y construyeron

'' Se levantaron'' es una metáfora para ''empezaron a actuar y a contrunstruir''

como se ordena en la ley de Moisés
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Probablemente se necesite expresar explicitamente a quién y qué mandó a hacer El SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: ''Como El Señor los ha mandado a hacer en el ley Moisés''

Ezra 3:3

establecieron el altar sobre su base
''montado en el altar sobre su base'' o ''puesto en el altar encima de su base para que permanezca allí''

temor estaba sobre ellos Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción alterna: ''Ellos estaban muy asustados'' a causa de la gente de la tierra Probablemente se necesite expresar explícitamente que esto se refería al pueblo de esas tierras a quienes los Judíos tenían miedo. Traducción alterna: ''Porque ellos pensaron que la gente de la tierra querían atacarlos''

Ellos ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR al amanecer y al anochecer Una de las primeras cosas que el pueblo hizo fue empezar a ofrecer sacrificios. Esto fue antes de que el templo fuera recontruído.

la Fiesta de las cabañas Este era un festival que se celebraba por 8 días de seguido en el séptimo mes del calendario Hebrero.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Se asoció con la época del éxodo cuando los israelitas vivían en tiendas de campaña

Ezra 3:6

el primer día del séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario Hebreo. El primer día es cerca de la mitad de setiembre en los calendarios occidentales.

fundamento del templo no había sido puesto
Los judíos empezaron las ceremonias de alabanza incluso antes de que hayan empezado a construir el templo. Traducción alterna: ''Aún no habían sentado los cimientos del templo.''

conforme les fue autorizados por Ciro, Rey de Persia
Las cartase enviadas por el Rey Ciro otorgaba a los Judíos permiso para comprar materiales y construír el templo.

Ezra 3:8

segundo mes
Este es el segundo mes del calendario Hebreo. Esto es durante la estación cálida cuando la gente cosecha sus cultivos. Es durante la última parte de abril y la primera parte de mayo en los calendarios occidentales.

segundo año
Este es un año después del año en el que habían regresado.

a la casa del SEÑOR Probablemente sea necesario expresar explícitamente que no había una casa de Dios de pie cuando ellos llegaron. Traducción alterna: "a donde la casa de Dios había estado" o "a donde iban a construir la casa de Dios"

veinte años
''20 años de edad"

Ezra 3:10

pusieron el fundamento
El "fundamento" en este sentido era más que solo los bloques de piedra para sostener las paredes del templo. Incluía todo el piso del templo en piedra. Esto permitió a todos los adoradores del templo llevar sus vestimentas especiales y mantenerlas limpias.

sus vestimentas
''sus sotanas especiales''

címbalos
Dos finos y rodondos platos de metal que son golpeados uno contra el otro para producir un sonido fuerte.

la mano de David ... había ordenado La mano de un Rey es una menotonima para el poder de dar mandatos u órdenes. Traducción alterna: ''Como David ... había ordenado'' acción de gracias

Un sentimiento y expresión de aprecio y gratitud por la amabilidad de otro.

Ezra 3:12

la primera casa
esto se refiere a la primera cada que Salomón construyo, la casa de Dios.

delante de sus ojos
Los ojos representan la vista. AT: "a su vista" o "y lo vieron"

lloraron en alta voz
Esto se refiere a la expresión emocional de tristeza que incluye lágrimas y sonidos vocales.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Ahora algunos enemigos de Judá y Benjamín escucharon que el pueblo que había sido llevado al exilio ahora estaban construyendo un templo para el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 2 Entonces se acercaron a Zorobabel y a los jefes de las familias de sus ancestros. Ellos les dijeron: "Déjannos construir con ustedes, pues, igual que ustedes, nosotros buscamos a su Dios y hemos sacrificado a Él desde los días cuando Esar Hadón, rey de Asiria, nos trajo a este lugar." 3 Pero Zorobabel, Jesúa y los jefes de las casas de sus ancestros dijeron: "No son ustedes, sino nosotros, quienes debemos construir la casa de nuestro Dios, pues somos nosotros quienes construiremos para el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, tal como el Rey Ciro de Persia ordenó." 4 Así que el pueblo de la tierra hicieron debilitar las manos de los de Judá; Ellos hicieron que los de Judá tuvieran miedo de construir. 5 Ellos también sobornaron a consejeros para que frustraran sus planes. Ellos hicieron esto durante todos los días de Ciro y hasta el reinado de Darío, Rey de Persia. 6 Entonces al principio del reinado de Asuero ellos escribieron una acusación en contra de los habitantes de Judá y Jerusalén. 7 Fue durante los días de Artajerjes que Bislam, Mitrídates, Tabeel y sus compañeros escribieron a Artajerjes. La carta fue escrita en arameo y traducida. 8 Rehum el comandante y Simsai el escriba escribieron de esta manera a Artajerjes acerca de Jerusalén. 9 Entonces Rehum, Simsai y sus compañeros, quienes eran jueces y otros oficiales en el gobierno de Erec, Babilonia y Susa en Elam, ellos escribieron una carta 10 y se les unieron el pueblo que el gran y noble Asnapar obligó a asentarse en Samaria, junto a los demás que estaban en la Provincia más Allá del Río. 11 Esta es una copia de la carta que ellos enviaron a Artajerjes: "Sus siervos, hombres al otro lado del río, escriben esto: 12 Que sepa el rey que los judíos que salieron de usted se han levantado contra nosotros en Jerusalén para construir una ciudad rebelde. Ellos han completado los muros y han reparado los fundamentos. 13 Ahora que sepa el rey que si esta ciudad es construida y el muro es completado, ellos no darán ningún tributo ni impuestos, sino que le harán daño a los reyes. 14 Ciertamente por cuanto nosotros hemos comido de la sal del palacio, no es apropiado que nosotros veamos que ninguna deshonra le acontezca al rey. Es debido a esto que estamos informando al rey 15 para que investigue en el registro de su padre y constate que ésta es una ciudad rebelde que le hará daño a reyes y provincias. Ha causado muchos problemas a los reyes y provincias. Ha sido un centro para la rebelión desde hace mucho tiempo. Fue por esta razón que la ciudad fue destruida. 16 Le estamos informando al rey que si esta ciudad y muralla son construidas, entonces no quedará nada para ti más allá de la provincia del rio." 17 Entonces el rey envió una respuesta a Rehum y Simsai y a sus compañeros en Samaria y al resto que estaban más allá del Río: "Que la paz sea vuestra. 18 La carta que ustedes me enviaron ha sido traducida y leida ha mi. 19 Por lo tanto, ordené una investigación y descubrí que en días anteriores ellos se habían rebelado y sublevado contra reyes. 20 Poderosos reyes han gobernado sobre Jerusalén y tuvieron poder sobre todo más allá del Río. Se les pagaron tributos e impuestos. 21 Ahora, decreten para que estos hombres se detengan y no construyan esta ciudad hasta que yo haga un decreto. 22 Tengan cuidado de no ser negligentes en esto. ¿Para qué permitir que crezca esta amenaza y cause más pérdida para los intereses reales? 23 Cuando el decreto del Rey Artajerjes fue leido ante Rehum, Simsai y sus compañeros, ellos salieron rápidamente a Jerusalén y obligaron a los judíos a detener la construcción. 24 Así que la obra en la casa de Dios en Jerusalén se detuvo hasta el segundo año del reinado de Darío, Rey de Persia.

Ezra 4:1

Información General:
Las personas no Judías ofrecían ayuda para construir el templo que había sido llevado al exilio Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "a quienes los babilonios habían tomado en el exilio"

Esar Hadón, rey de Asiria él reinaba en Asiria antes de que Ciro reinara en Persia.

Ezra 4:3

No son ustedes, sino nosotros, quienes debemos construir
Los posibles significados son 1) Los líderes judíos sentían que Ciro los había autorizado sólo a ellos para construir el templo o 2)Construir el templo era trabajo exclusivo para los Judíos y ninguna persona no Judía podía contribuir en el trabajo.

Ezra 4:4

pueblo de la tierra
''las personas quienes estaban viviendo en la tierra en ese momento'' lo que podría incluir Judíos y no

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Judíos cuyas familias no habían sido llevadas al exilio por los Babilonios

debilitar las manos de los de Judá Desanimaron a los Judíos (Ver:)

los de Judá
Personas que regresaron de Babilonia y asentaron en la tierra de Judá para que frustraran sus planes

''Para impedir que los Judíos puedan construir el templo como ellos lo habían planeado'' escribieron una acusación en contra de los habitantes de Judá y Jerusalén El sustantivo abstracto ''acusación'' puede ser traducido como el verbo ''acusar'' y el verbo ''vivir en'', respectivamente. Probablmente sea necesario expresar explícitamente lo que los enemigos acusaron a los judíos de hacer. Traducción alterna:''Escribieron una carta en la cual se acusaba a aquellos que vivían en Judá y Jerusalem de haber desobedecido al Rey''

Ezra 4:7

La carta
Esta es la carta de la que se habla en 4:4

arameo
El idioma utilizado en esa área al momento de asuntos oficiales.

y traducida
al idioma persa

Ezra 4:9

Rehum ... Simsai
nombres de Ciudades

Elam
nombre de una gran región de tierra

Provincia más Allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa.

Ezra 4:11

Esta es una copia
Esdrás incluye en su escrito el contenido de la letra enviada al Rey Artajerjes.

Provincia más Allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Ver como se ha traducido en 4:9

una ciudad rebelde
La ciudad es una figura literaria (metonimia) para las personas que viven en ella. Traducción alterna: "una ciudad en la que planean vivir y rebelarse contra ti"

reparado los fundamentos
''arreglado los simientos'' o ''reparado los simientos''

Ezra 4:13

si esta ciudad es construida y el muro es completado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: '' Si ellos construyen la ciudad y completan el muro'' sino que le harán daño a los reyes

La palabra ''daño'' se refiere a que los Judíos ya no darían dinero a los reyes

Ezra 4:14

nosotros hemos comido de la sal del palacio Los posibles significados para esta referencia son 1)Los escritores siendo leales al Rey

una ciudad rebelde
La ciudad es una figura literaria

la ciudad fue destruida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa, en tal caso será necesario expresar explícitamente quien había destruído la ciudad. Traducción alterna: ''Los babilonios destruyeron la ciudad.''

si esta ciudad y muralla son construidas Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Si ellos construyen la ciudad y la muralla'' Palabras similares aparecen en 4:13.

entonces no quedará nada para ti
Esta es una hipérbole o exageración para hacer que el Rey piense que va a perder mucho dinero de impuestos si los Judíos fueran a rebelarse.

más allá de la provincia del rio
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Traducir como en 4:19.

Ezra 4:17

más allá de la provincia del rio
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Traducir como en 4:19.

La carta que ustedes me enviaron ha sido traducida y leida Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa en este caso será necsario expresar explícitamente quién ha traducido y leído la carta al Rey. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

alterna: "He hecho que mis sirvientes traduzcan y lean la carta que me enviaste"

el río
el río Éufrates

Ezra 4:20

más allá de la provincia del rio
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Traducir como en 4:19.

Se les pagaron tributos e impuestos Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Las personas en Jerusalem pagan tributos e impuestos a esos reyes'' o "Esos reyes pudieron cobrar tributos e impuestos"

decreten
''hacer una ley''

Tengan cuidado de no ser negligentes en esto
''Sean cuidadosos de no hacer esto''

¿Para qué permitir que crezca esta amenaza y cause más pérdida para los intereses reales?
Artajerjes usa una pregunta para decirles que él entendía que perdería impuestos y honor si la ciudad era construída. Traducción alterna: ''Tienen que asegurarse de que esta amenaza no siga creciendo y cause más perdida para los intereses reales.''

crezca esta amenaza
Se habla de ''amenaza'' como si esta fuera una planta que pueda crecer en tamaño. Traducción alterna: ''La amenaza podría volverse peor'' cause más pérdida para los intereses reales

Las palabras ''los intereses reales'' es una figura literaria

Ezra 4:23

el decreto del Rey Artajerjes fue leído
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa, en tal caso será necesario expresar explícitamente quien leyó el decreto del Rey a los oficiales. Traducción alterna: ''Los mensajeros del Rey Artajerjes leyeron este decreto''

la obra en la casa de Dios en Jerusalén se detuvo hasta el segundo año del reinado de Darío Este retraso duró como 16 años.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Entonces Hageo el profeta y Zacarías, hijo de Iddo el profeta, profetizaron en el nombre del Dios de Israel a los judíos en Judá y Jerusalén. 2 Zorobabel, hijo de Salatiel y Jesúa, hijo de Josadac, se levantaron y comenzaron a construir la casa de Dios en Jerusalén con los profetas que los animaron. 3 Entonces Tatnai, el gobernador de la provincia Más Allá del Río, Setar Boznai y sus compañeros vinieron y les dijeron: "¿Quién les dio un decreto para construir esta casa y completar estas murallas?" 4 Ellos también dijeron: "¿Cuáles son los nombres de los hombres que están construyendo este edificio?" 5 Pero el ojo de Dios estaba sobre los ancianos judíos y sus enemigos no les detuvieron. Ellos estaban esperando que se le enviara una carta al rey y que un decreto se les regresara concerniente a ésto. 6 Ésta fue la carta de Tatnai, Setar Boznai y sus compañeros oficiales a Darío el Rey. 7 Ellos enviaron un informe escribiéndole ésto al Rey Darío: "Sea suya toda la paz. 8 Dejen saber al rey que nosotros fuimos a Judá a la casa del gran Dios. Se está construyendo con grandes piedras y maderas puestas en las murallas. Esta obra se está haciendo exhaustivamente y está progresando bien en sus manos. 9 Nosotros les preguntamos a los ancianos: '¿Quién les dio un decreto para construir esta casa y estas murallas?' 10 Nosotros también les preguntamos sus nombres para que tu pudieras saber el nombre de cada hombre que les ha dirigido. 11 Ellos respondieron y dijeron: 'Nosotros somos siervos de Aquél que es el Dios del cielo y la tierra y estamos reconstruyendo esta casa que había sido construida hace muchos años cuando el gran rey de Israel lo construyó y lo completó. 12 Sin embargo, cuando nuestros ancestros se enfurecieron con Dios del cielo, Él los entregó en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, quien destruyó esta casa y llevó al pueblo al exilio en Babilonia. 13 No obstante, en el primer año en que Ciro fue rey de Babilonia, Ciro emitió un decreto para reconstruir la casa de Dios. 14 El Rey Ciro también devolvió el oro y los objetos de plata pertenecientes a la casa de Dios que Nabucodonosor había traido del templo en Jerusalén al templo en Babilonia. Él los restauró a Sesbasar, a quien él hizo gobernador. 15 Él le dijo: "Toma estos objetos. Vé y colócalos en el templo en Jerusalén. Que la casa de Dios sea reconstruida allí." 16 Entonces este Sesbasar vino y puso el fundamento para la casa de Dios en Jerusalén; y se está construyendo pero aún no está completa.' 17 Ahora, si le agrada al rey, que sea investigado en la casa de los archivos en Babilonia si un decreto del Rey Ciro existe allí para construir esta casa de Dios en Jerusalén. Entonces que el rey envíe su decisión a nosotros."

Ezra 5:1

a construir la casa de Dios Este era el templo de Dios.

Ezra 5:3

la provincia Más Allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Traducir como en 4:19.

el ojo de Dios estaba sobre El ojo es una figura literaria

se le enviara una carta al rey y que un decreto se les regresara Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Para que un oficial envie una carta al Rey y para que el Rey envíe una carta devuelta a ellos con el decreto''

Ezra 5:6

Ésta fue la carta
Esdrás incluye el contenido de las cartas al Rey Darío con respecto al trabajo del templo.

la provincia Más Allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Traducir como en 4:19.

Ezra 5:8

Información general:
La carta de Tatnai para el Rey que empieza en 5:6 continua.

madera
madera para construír

Ezra 5:11

Información General:
La carta de Tatnai para el Rey que comienza en 5:6 continúa.

Nosotros somos siervos de Aquél
Los posibles significados son 1)Están llamando a los Judíos sirvos de Dios ó 2)Los que respondiero eran de la tribu de Leví y Aaron, quienes eran los actuales responsables de la alabanza y los sacrificios del templo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

que había sido construida hace muchos años cuando el gran rey de Israel lo construyó y lo completó Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: '' que el gran Rey de Israel ha construído y proveído de todos los equipamientos''

lo completó
''proveído de todos los equipamientos''

Ezra 5:12

Información general:
La carta a Tatnai al Rey continúa. Tatnai continua diciendo al Rey lo que los de Judea habían dicho al comenzar el 5:11.

enfurecieron con Dios del cielo
''hicieron que el Dios del Cielo se enoje mucho con nosotros.''

Él los entregó en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, quien destruyó esta casa y llevó al pueblo La mano es una figura literaria

destruyó esta casa
''echó abajo esta casa''

Ciro emitió un decreto para reconstruir la casa de Dios
Ciro ordenó que el pueblo reconstruya el templo de Dios.

Ezra 5:14

Información General:
La carta a Tatnai al Rey continúa. Tatnai continua diciendo al Rey lo que los de Judea habían dicho al comenzar el 5:11.

devolvió el
El Rey Ciro devolvió los objetos del templo.

Que la casa de Dios sea reconstruida allí.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Quiero que los Judeanos reconstruyan la casa de Dios.''

Ezra 5:16

Información General:
La carta a Tatnai al Rey continúa. Tatnai continua diciendo al Rey lo que los de Judea habían dicho al comenzar el 5:11.

se está construyendo pero aún no está completa Esto puede ser traudcido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''El pueblo está ahora construyendolo, pero aún no han terminado el trabajo'' construyendo edificar

Ezra 5:17

Información general:
La carta de Tatnai al rey que empieza en 5:6 continúa. Tatnai ha terminado de decir al rey lo que los Judeanos le habían dicho a él y ahora pide al rey que verifique si lo que los Judeanos le habían dicho era verdad.

que sea investigado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Me gustaría que hagas a alguien investigar este asunto'' si un decreto del Rey Ciro existe allí

''Si había ahi un registro de que el Rey Ciro había escrito una ley ahí''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Entonces el Rey Darío ordenó una investigación en la casa de los archivos en Babilonia. 2 En la ciudad amurallada de Acmeta en Media un rollo fue encontrado; éste fue el registro: 3 En el primer año del Rey Ciro, él proclamó un decreto acerca de la casa de Dios en Jerusalén: "Que se reconstruya la casa como un lugar para el sacrificio. Que se coloquen sus fundamentos. Que su altura sea de sesenta codos y su anchura de sesenta codos, 4 con tres hileras de piedras grandes y una hilera de madera nueva. Y que el costo sea pagado por la casa del rey. 5 Además, regresen el oro y los objetos de plata pertenecientes a la casa de Dios que Nabucodonosor trajo del templo en Jerusalén al templo en Babilonia. Envíenlos al templo en Jerusalén y deposítenlos en la casa de Dios.' 6 Ahora Tatnai, Setar Boznai, y sus compañeros oficiales que están más allá del Río, manténganse lejos. 7 No molesten la obra de esta casa de Dios. El gobernador y los ancianos judíos construirán esta casa de Dios en ese lugar. 8 Estoy ordenando que ustedes tienen que hacer lo siguiente para estos ancianos judíos que construyen la casa de Dios: Fondos del tributo del rey más allá del Río serán usados para pagar a estos hombres para que no tengan que detener su labor. 9 Lo que se necesite, novillos, carneros, o corderos para los sacrificios quemados al Dios del Cielo, trigo, sal, vino o aceite según el comando de los sacerdotes en Jerusalén, denles estas cosas cada día sin fallar. 10 Hagan esto para que ellos traigan la ofrenda al Dios del Cielo y oren por mí, el rey, y mis hijos. 11 Estoy ordenando que si alguno quebranta este decreto, una viga debe ser sacada de su casa y esa persona será traspasada con ella. Su casa entonces deberá ser convertida en una pila de escombros debido a ésto. 12 Que el Dios que mora allí derroque cualquier rey y pueblo que profane esta casa de Dios en Jerusalén. Yo, Darío, estoy ordenando ésto. ¡Que sea hecho diligentemente!" 13 Entonces Tatnai, Setar Boznai, y sus compañeros hicieron todo lo que el Rey Darío había ordenado. 14 Así que los ancianos judíos construyeron a la manera que Hageo y Zacarías habían instruido mediante la profecía. La construyeron de acuerdo al decreto del Dios de Israel y Ciro, Darío y Artajerjes, reyes de Persia. 15 La casa fue completada en el tercer día del mes de Adar, en el sexto año del reinado del Rey Darío. 16 El pueblo israelita, los sacerdotes, los Levitas y el resto de los cautivos celebraron la dedicación de esta casa de Dios con gozo. 17 Ellos ofrecieron cien toros, cien carneros, y cuatrocientos corderos para la dedicación de la casa de Dios. Doce machos cabríos también fueron ofrecidos como ofrenda por el pecado de todo Israel, uno por cada tribu de Israel. 18 Ellos también asignaron a sacerdotes y Levitas para trabajar por divisiones para el servicio de Dios en Jerusalén, como estaba escrito en el Libro de Moisés. 19 Así que aquellos que habían estado en el exilio celebraron la Pascua en el día catorce del primer mes. 20 Los sacerdotes y los Levitas todos se purificaron a sí mismos y mataron los sacrificios de la Pascua por todos aquellos que habían estado en el exilio, incluyéndose a si mismos. 21 Los Israelitas que comieron algo de la carne de la Pascua fueron aquellos que habían regresado del exilio y se habían separado de la impureza de la gente de la tierra y buscaron al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 22 Ellos celebraron gozosamente la Fiesta de los Panes Sin Levadura por siete días, pues el SEÑOR les había traído gozo y había convertido el corazón del rey de Asiria para fortalecer sus manos en la obra de Su casa, la casa del Dios de Israel.

Ezra 6:1

ordenó una investigación
El sustantivo abstracto ''investigación'' puede ser expresado con los verbos ''investigar'' o ''indagar''. Traducción alterna: ''Ordenó a sus oficiales que investiguen'' o ''ordeno a sus oficiales a indagar''

ordenó una investigación
Lo que ellos debían investigar puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: ''ordenó a sus oficiales que investigaran los registros'' o ''ordeno a sus oficiales que indagaran y encuentren si había un registro del rey Ciro diciendo a los Judíos que construyeran la casa de Dios en Jerusalem''

casa de los archivos
Este era un edificio donde los oficiales del Rey guardaban los registros importantes del gobierno.

Acmeta
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

un rollo fue encontrado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Ellos encontraron un rollo'' o ''ellos encontraron un rollo que hablaba acerca de Dario y Jerusalem''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 6:3

Información general:
Aquí comienza el registro del comando del rey Ciro que los Judíos reconstruyan el templo de Dios en Jerusalem.

En el primer año del Rey Ciro
Esto puede ser expresado claramente que es el primer año de su reinado. Traducción alterna: ''En el año uno del reinado del Rey Ciro''

Que se reconstruya la casa Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Dejen que los Judíos reconstruyan la casa'' o '' Los judíos deben reconstruir la casa'' sesenta codos

''60 codos''. Esto puede ser convertido a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: ''veintisiete metros con tres hileras de piedras grandes y una hilera de madera nueva Los posibles significados son 1) esto describe como construir los fundamentos. Traducción alterna: ''Construir en tres hileras de piedras grandes cubiertas con una hilera de madera nueva'' o 2)Esto describe como construir las paredes. Traducción alterna: ''Construir las paredes con tres hileras de piedras grandes alternando con una hilera de madera nueva'' que el costo sea pagado por la casa del rey

La frase ''la casa del rey'' representa la riqueza del rey Ciro en el tesoro real. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Yo lo pagaré con el dinero del tesoro real''

Ezra 6:6

Información general
Aquí comienza el registro del comando del rey Ciro que los Judíos reconstruyan el templo de Dios en Jerusalem, que empieza en 6:3.

La provincia más allá del río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Ver como se ha traducido en 4:9

Ezra 6:8

Información general
Aquí comienza el registro del comando del rey Ciro que los Judíos reconstruyan el templo de Dios en Jerusalem, que empieza en 6:3.

Fondos del tributo del rey más allá del Río serán usados para pagar a estos hombres
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Utilizen los fondos del tributo del rey más allá del Río para pagar a estos hombres''

Fondos del tributo del rey más allá del Río
''el tributo del rey'' se refiere a los impuestos que el pueblo pagaba al rey. Traducción alterna: ''Dinero de los impuestos que han sido colectados por el rey para las personas más allá del río''

Lo que se necesite
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Lo que sea que ellos necesiten''

Ezra 6:11

Información general
Aquí comienza el registro del comando del rey Ciro que los Judíos reconstruyan el templo de Dios en Jerusalem, que empieza en 6:3.

una viga debe ser sacada de su casa y esa persona será traspasada con ella. Su casa entonces deberá ser convertida en una pila de escombros Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna; '' Yo comando que mis oficales extraigan una viga de su casa y luego empalarlo en él. Después ellos deben convertir su casa en un montón de basura''

Viga
una larga y robusta pieza de madera, que soporta el techo de una casa.

empalar atravesado

quien levanta una mano para cambiar ... o para destruir Levantar la mano representa intentar o atreverse a hacer algo. Traducción alterna: "quién intenta cambiar ... o destruir" o "quién se atreve a cambiar ... o destruir"

para cambiar este decreto
El sustantivo abstracto "decreto" se puede expresar con la frase "lo que he decretado". Traducción alterna: "para cambiar lo que he decretado" o "para decir que he decretado algo más"

Ezra 6:13

Tatnai, Setar Boznai
Traduzca los nombres de estos nombres como lo hizo en 5:3.

La casa fue completada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Probablemente sea necesario expresar explicitamente qué casa habíann completado.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción alterna: ''Ellos completaron la casa de Dios'' o ''Ellos terminaron de construir el templo''

tercer día del mes de Adar
''Adar'' es el nombre del duodécimo y último mes del calentario Hebreo. Estos es durante la temporada fría. El tercer día es cerca de la mitad de Febrero en los calentarios occidentales.

sexto año
El Rey Darío había estado gobernando por cinco años, entonces se encontraba ahora en el año número seis de su reinado.

Ezra 6:16

el resto de los cautivos Estas personas habían sido capturadas y llevadas a Babilonia, pero ellos retornaron a Jerusalem. Traducción alterna; ''el resto de las personas que fueron llevadas capturadas a Babilonia y han retornado a Jerusalem'' o ''el resto de las personas que han retornado del cautiverio'' cien toros ... cuatrocientos corderos

''100 toros ... 400 corderos''

asignaron a sacerdotes y Levitas para trabajar por divisiones El sustantivo abstracto ''divisiones de trabajo'' puede ser expresado con esta frase ''dividirse en grupos de trabajo.'' Traducción alterna: ''Dividieron a los sacerdotes y levitas en grupos de trabajo''

trabajar por divisiones
''grupos qeu trabajan juntos''

Ezra 6:19

día catorce del primer mes
Este es el primer mes del calendario Hebreo. El día catorce se encuentra cercano al inicio de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

se purificaron a sí mismos
''se hicieron puros a ellos mísmos'' Ser puro representa ser aceptable para Dios. Traducción alterna: ''Se hicieron aceptos para Dios''

Ezra 6:21

se habían separado de la impureza de la gente de la tierra Separarse asi mismos de la impureza representa rechazar hacer cosas que hacen las personas impuras. Traducción alterna: ''Ellos se negaron a hacer todas las cosas que la gente de la tierra hacía y los volvía impuros'' la impureza de la gente de la tierra Aquí impuresa represenra

buscaron al SEÑOR Buscar al SEÑOR representa elegir conocer, adorar y obedecerlo a él. Traducción alterna: ''decidieron obedecer al SEÑOR'' había convertido el corazón del rey de Asiria Haber convertido el corazón del Rey represanta hacer que él piense diferente acerca de la obra del templo. Traducción alterna: ''Había cambiado la actitud del rey de Asiria'' o ''hicieron que el rey de Asiria quisiera'' para fortalecer sus manos en la obra de Su casa Fortalecer sus manos en el trabajo, representa ayudar en el trabajo. El rey de Asiria hizo esto diciendoles que hagan el trabajo y provean el dinero para ello. Traducción alterna: ''Para ayudarlos a hacer la obra de su casa'' o ''para hacer posible paa ellos hacer la obra de su casa''

la obra de Su casa
Esto se refiere a la construcción del templo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Ahora después de esto, durante el reinado de Artajerjes, rey de Persia, Esdras subió de Babilonia. Los ancestros de Esdras fueron Seraías, Azarías, Hilcías, 2 Salum, Sadoc, Ahitob, 3 Amarías, Azarías, Meraiot, 4 Zerahías, Uzi, Buqui, 5 Abisúa, Finees, Eleazar, quien fue el hijo de Aarón el sumo sacerdote. 6 Esdras subió desde Babilonia y él era un escriba diestro en la ley de Moisés que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, había dado. El rey le dio cualquier cosa que él pidiera ya que la mano del SEÑOR estaba con él. 7 Algunos de los descendientes de Israel y los sacerdotes, los Levitas, los cantores del templo, los porteros, y los que estaban asignados para servir en el templo también subieron a Jerusalén en el séptimo año del Rey Artajerjes. 8 Él llegó a Jerusalén en el quinto mes del mismo año. 9 Él salió de Babilonia en el primer día del primer mes. Fue en el primer día del quinto mes que él llegó a Jerusalén, puesto que la mano buena de Dios estaba con él. 10 Esdras había dispuesto su corazón para estudiar, poner por obra y enseñar los estatutos y decretos de la ley del SEÑOR. 11 Este fue el decreto que el Rey Artajerjes le dió a Esdras el sacerdote y escriba de los mandamientos y estatutos del SEÑOR para Israel: 12 "El Rey de reyes Artajerjes, al sacerdote Esdras, un escriba de la ley del Dios del cielo: 13 Yo estoy ordenando que cualquiera de Israel dentro de mi reino, junto a los sacerdotes y Levitas, que desee ir a Jerusalen, puede ir contigo. 14 Yo, el rey, y mis siete consejeros, les enviamos a todos ustedes a investigar acerca de Judá y Jerusalén conforme a la ley de Dios que ustedes entienden, 15 y a traer a Jerusalén, su morada, la plata y el oro que ellos han ofrendado libremente al Dios de Israel. 16 Den libremente toda la plata y el oro que toda Babilonia ha dado junto a lo que libremente es ofrendado por el pueblo y los sacerdotes para la casa de Dios en Jerusalén. 17 Pues compra todo lo necesario de bueyes, carneros, corderos, trigo y ofrendas de bebidas. Ofrécelos en el altar que está en la casa de tu Dios en Jerusalén. 18 Haz con el resto de la plata y el oro lo que les parezca bien a ti y a tus hermanos, para agradar a su Dios. 19 Coloca los objetos que te fueron dados libremente delante de Él para el servicio de la casa de tu Dios en Jerusalén. 20 Cualquier otra cosa que se necesite para la casa de tu Dios que requieras, toma su costo de mi tesoro. 21 Yo, Rey Artajerjes, proclamo un decreto a todos los tesoreros más allá del Rio, que cualquier cosa que Esdras pida de ustedes, debe dársele completamente, 22 hasta cien talentos de plata, cien coros de trigo, cien batos de vino, cien batos de aceite, y también sal sin límites. 23 Cualquier cosa que venga del decreto del Dios del Cielo, háganlo con devoción para su casa. Pues, ¿por qué ha de caer su ira sobre el reino mío y de mis hijos? 24 Nosotros les estamos informando a ellos acerca de ustedes para que no les impongan ningún tributo o impuestos sobre ninguno de los sacerdotes, Levitas, músicos, porteros, ni sobre el pueblo asignado al servicio del templo y sirvientes de la casa de este Dios. 25 Esdras, con la sabiduría que Dios te ha dado, tienes que nombrar jueces y hombres con discernimiento para servir a todo el pueblo más allá del Río, y para servir a cualquiera que conoce la ley de tu Dios. Tienes que enseñar a aquellos que no conocen la ley. 26 Castiga a cualquiera que no obedezca completamente la ley de Dios o la ley del rey, sea por muerte, destierro, confiscando sus bienes, o encarcelamiento." 27 Esdras dijo: "Alaben al SEÑOR, el Dios de nuestros ancestros, Quien puso ésto en el corazón del rey para glorificar la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén, 28 y Quien extendió su pacto fiel a mí delante del rey, sus consejeros y todos sus poderosos ofiiales. Yo he sido fortalecido por la mano del SEÑOR mi Dios y reuní jefes de Israel para ir conmigo."

Ezra 7:1

Información general
La genealogía de Ezra se remonta a Aarón, el primer sumo sacerdote.

Esdras subió de Babilonia
A dónde Esdreas subió puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: '' Esdrás subió a Jerusalem de Babilonia''

Ezra 7:6

El rey le dio cualquier cosa que él pidiera
''El Rey dió a Esdrás todo lo que él pedía''

la mano del SEÑOR estaba con él La ''mano'' del SEÑOR representa la bendición o la ayuda del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: ''La bendición del SEÑOR estaba con Esdrás'' o ''El SEÑOR estaba bendiciendo a Esdrás'' en el séptimo año del Rey Artajerjes Esto se refiere al séptimo año de su reinado. Traducción alterna: ''En el séptimo año en en cual Artajerjes era rey''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 7:8

el quinto mes
Este es el quinto mes del calendario Hebreo. Se encuentra en la última parte de julio y la primera parte de agosto en los calendarios occidentales.

el primer día del primer mes
Esto es cerca de la mitad del mes de Marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

el primer día del quinto mes
Esto es cerca de la mitad del mes de Julio en los calendarios occidentales.

la mano buena de Dios
''mano'' representa el poder o control que Dios utiliza para obtener buenos resultados.

Esdras había dispuesto su corazón para estudiar disponer su corazón representa decidir firmemente o entregarse a hacer algo. Traducción alterna: ''Esdrás compometió su vida al estudio''

poner por obra
''obedecer''

los estatutos y decretos de la ley del SEÑOR
Estas eran las leyes que Dios pasó a Israel através de Moisés.

Ezra 7:11

Este fue el decreto
El texto que sigue a esta declaración fue el decreto dado por el rey Artajerjes.

El Rey de reyes Artajerjes
''El rey de reyes'' era un título que significaba que era el más grande de los reyes, el rey a los que otros reyes obedecian. Traducción alterna: ''El gran rey artajerjes'' o ''artajerjes, el rey más grande''

Yo estoy ordenando que cualquiera ... que desee ir a Jerusalen
En aquellos días las personas necesitaban permiso del Rey para reasentarse y reconstruir en un área previamente destruída por una nación conquistadora.

puede ir contigo
Aquí ''contigo'' se refiere a Esdrás.

Ezra 7:14

Oración de enlace
Esto continua el decreto que el rey Artajerjes dió a Esdras.

Yo, el rey, y mis siete consejeros
La palabra ''yo'' y la frase ''el rey'' se refieren a la misma persona. El rey está recordando a las personas que escuchaban esta carta que él era el autor de esta carta.

a investigar acerca de Judá y Jerusalén conforme a la ley de Dios Lo que ellos debían investigar puede ser declarado claramente. Traducción alterna: ''para investigar la situación en Judá y Jerusalén, para saber si están obedeciendo o no la ley de Dios''

a traer la plata y el oro
A dónde debían llevarlo puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: ''A traer la plata y el oro a Jerusalem''

a plata y el oro que ellos han ofrendado libremente
''libremente'' significa que ellos no fueron forzados a ofrecer el dinero. Ellos lo dieron porque ellos así lo querían. Traducción alterna: ''la plata y el oro que ellos ofrecieron voluntariamente'' lo que libremente es ofrendado por el pueblo y los sacerdotes Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Lo que el pueblo y los sacerdotes habían ofrecido libremente''

Ezra 7:17

Oración de enlace
Esto continúa el decreto que el Rey Artajerjes ñe dió a Esdras.

compra todo lo necesario ... ofrendas
La frase "en su totalidad" significa tantos como sea necesario para completar la tarea. Debían usar el oro y la plata para comprar todo lo que necesitaban para adorar a Dios en el templo. Traducción alterna: "Compre tantas ofrendas de bueyes, carneros, corderos, granos y bebidas como sea necesario"

ti y a tus hermanos
La frase "tus hermanos" se refiere a las personas que estaban haciendo este trabajo con Ezra. Traducción alterna: "sus compañeros de trabajo" o "sus compañeros"

Ezra 7:19

Oración de enlace
Esto continúa el decreto que el Rey Artajerjes le dió a Esdras.

los objetos que te fueron dados libremente
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''los objetos que nosotros te entregamos libremente''

Coloca los objetos ... delante de Él
la palabra ''él'' se refiere a Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para el servicio de la casa de tu Dios El sustantivo abstracto "servicio" puede ser expresado con los verbos "servir" o "usar" "trabajar" o "adorar". Traducción alterna: "usar en la casa de tu Dios" o "servir en la casa de tu Dios"

tesoro
Un lugar seguro donde el dinero es guardado.

Ezra 7:21

oración de enlace
Esto continúa el decreto que el Rey Artajerjes le dió a Esdras.

más allá del Rio
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Eufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río de la ciudad de Susa. Vea cómo se ha traducido en 4: 9.

que cualquier cosa que Esdras pida de ustedes, debe dársele completamente Esto puede ser expreado en forma activa. ''Denle a Esdras en totalidad todo lo que él pida a ustedes.''

debe dársele completamente
La frase "en su totalidad" aquí representa cualquier cantidad necesaria para hacer el trabajo. Traducción alterna: "se le debe dar todo lo que necesita"

cien talentos de plata
''100 talentos de plata'' Esta medida puede ser convertida a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: '"3.400 talentos de plata" o "tres toneladas métricas y media"

cien coros de trigo
Esta medida puede ser convertida a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: '' 22,000 litros de grano'' o '' veintidos mil litros de grano''

cien batos de aceite Esta medida puede ser convertida a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: '' 2,200 litros de aciete'' o ''dos mil doscientos litros de aceite''

su casa
Esto se refiere al templo de Dios.

Pues, ¿por qué ha de caer su ira sobre el reino mío y de mis hijos?
El rey usa esta pregunta para decir que no quiere que la ira de Dios venga sobre ellos. La información implícita es que si no le dan a Ezra lo que necesita, entonces Dios castigará al reino. Traducción alterna: "Porque no queremos que la ira de Dios venga sobre el reino de mí y mis hijos" o "Porque si no haces estas cosas, la ira de Dios vendrá sobre el reino de mí y mis hijos".

Pues, ¿por qué ha de caer su ira sobre el reino mío y de mis hijos
La ira de Dios representa a Dios castigandolos. Traducción alterna: ''¿por qué debería Dios de castifar al reino mío y a mis hijos? o ''Porque si no haces estas cosas, Dios castigará el reino de mí y de mis hijos"

Ezra 7:24

oración de enlace
Esto continúa el decreto que el Rey Artajerjes le dió a Esdras.

Nosotros les estamos informando a ellos acerca de ustedes para que no les impongan ningún tributo o impuestos
''Nosotros estamos diciendoles que no impongan ningún tributo'' músicos

personas que ejecutan instrumentos musicales.

Ezra 7:25

oración de enlace
Este es el final del decreto que el rey Artajerjes dió a Esdras.

con la sabiduría que Dios te ha dado, tienes que nombrar jueces y hombres con discernimiento El sustantivo abstracto ''sabiduría'' puede ser expresado conlas palabras ''sabio'' y ''sabiamente''. Traducción alterna: ''Dios te ha hecho sabio, por lo que debes designar sabiamente jueces y hombres exigentes'' sea por muerte, destierro, confiscando sus bienes, o encarcelamiento El sustantivo abstracto puede ser traducido con verbos. Traducción alterna: ''Sea por matarlos, desterrarlos, confiscando sus bienes o encarcelandolos.'' o ''puedes matarlos, enviarlos lejos, tomar sus pertenencias, o arrojarlos en prisión''

Ezra 7:27

Oración de enlace
Esdras alaba a Dios por lo que decretó el rey Artajerjes.

puso ésto en el corazón del rey para glorificar la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén Colocar cosas en el corazón del rey representa hacer que tenga ciertos pensamientos y deseos. Traducción alterna: "causó que el rey quisiera glorificar la casa del SEÑOR en Jerusalén"

casa del SEÑOR
Esto se refiere al templo del SEÑOR''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Yo he sido fortalecido
Ser fortalecido representa ser alentado. Traducción alterna: ''Soy alentado'' por la mano del SEÑOR mi Dios Aquí la mano del SEÑOR representa lo que hizo para ayudar a Esdras. Traducción alterna: ''Porque el SEÑOR me ha ayudado''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Estos son los líderes de las familias de sus antepasados quienes salieron de Babilonia conmigo durante el reinado del Rey Artajerjes. 2 De los descendientes de Finees, Gersón. De los descendientes de Itama, Daniel. De los descendientes de David, Hatús, 3 quien era de los descendientes de Secanías, que era de los descendientes de Paros; y Zacarías, y con el fueron anotados ciento cincuenta varones enumerados en los registros de su genealogía. 4 De los descendientes de Pahat Moab: Elioenai, hijo de Zerahías. Con él fueron registrados doscientos varones. 5 De los descendientes de Secanías: Ben Jahaziel. Con él fueron registrados trescientos varones. 6 De los descendientes de Adín: Ebed, hijo de Jonatán. Con él fueron registrados cincuenta varones. 7 De los descendientes de Elam: Jesaías, hijo de Atalías. Con él fueron registrados setenta varones. 8 De los descendientes de Sefatías: Zebadías, hijo de Micael. Con él fueron registrados ochenta varones. 9 De los descendientes de Joab: Obadías, hijo de Jehiel. Con él fueron registrados doscientos dieciocho varones. 10 De los descendientes de Selomit, hijo de Josifías. Con él fueron registrados ciento sesenta varones. 11 De los descendientes de Bebai: Zacarías, hijo de Bebai. Con él fueron registrado veintiocho varones. 12 De los descendientes de Azgad: Johanán, hijo de Hacatán. Con él fueron registrado ciento diez varones. 13 Aquellos de los descendientes de Adonicam vinieron luego. Estos fueron sus nombres: Elifelet, Jeiel, y Semaías. Con ellos vinieron sesenta varones. 14 De los descendientes de Bigvai: Utai y Zabud. Con él fueron registrados setenta varones. 15 Esdras dijo: "Yo reuní a los viajeros en el canal que sale hacia Ahava, y acampamos allí tres días. Examiné al pueblo y a los sacerdotes, pero no pude encontrar descendientes de Leví allí. 16 Entonces mandé a buscar a Eliezer, Ariel, Semaías, Elnatán, Jarib y Elnatán y Natán, Zacarías, y Mesulam, quienes eran jefes y a Joiarib y el Natán, quienes eran maestros. 17 Entonces los envié a Iddo, el jefe en Casifia. Yo les dije qué decirle a Iddo y a sus parientes, los sirvientes del templo que vivían en Casifia, ésto es, que nos enviaran sirvientes para la casa de Dios. 18 Así que nos enviaron por medio de la bondadosa mano de nuestro Dios un hombre llamado Serebías, un hombre prudente. Él era descendiente de Mahli, hijo de Leví, hijo de Israel. Él vino con dieciocho hijos y hermanos. 19 Con él vino Hasabías. También estaban Jesaías, uno de los hijos de Merari, con sus hermanos y sus hijos, veinte hombres en total. 20 De aquellos asignados para servir en el templo, a quienes David y sus oficiales dieron para que sirvieran a los Levitas: doscientos veinte cada uno de ellos asignado por nombre. 21 Entonces yo proclamé un ayuno en el Canal de Ahava para humillarnos delante de Dios, para buscar un camino recto de parte de Él para nosotros, nuestros pequeños y todas nuestras posesiones. 22 Sentí vergüenza de pedirle al rey un ejército o caballería para protegernos contra enemigos en el camino, ya que le habíamos dicho al rey: 'La mano de nuestro Dios está sobre aquellos que lo buscan para el bien, mas su poder e ira están sobre todos los que lo olvidan.' 23 Así que ayunamos y buscamos a Dios acerca de ésto y le rogamos. 24 Entonces yo seleccioné a doce hombres de entre los oficiales sacerdotales: Serebías, Hasabías y diez de sus hermanos. 25 Pesé para ellos plata, oro y los objetos y ofrendas para la casa de Dios que el rey, sus consejeros y oficiales y todo Israel habían ofrecido libremente. 26 Así que pesé en su mano seiscientos cincuenta talentos de plata, cien talentos de objetos de plata, cien talentos de oro, 27 veinte tazones valorados en mil dáricos y dos vasijas de bronce bien pulidas, preciosas como el oro. 28 Entonces yo les dije: 'Ustedes están consagrados al SEÑOR y estos objetos también. Y esta plata y oro son una ofrenda voluntaria al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros. 29 Vélenlos y guárdenlos hasta que ustedes los pesen delante los oficiales sacerdotales, los Levitas, y los jefes de las familias de los ancestros de Israel en Jerusalén en las cámaras de la casa de Dios. 30 Los sacerdotes y los Levitas aceptaron la plata y el oro pesados y los objetos a fin de llevarlos a Jerusalén, a la casa de nuestro Dios. 31 Salimos del Canal de Ahava en el duodécimo día del primer mes para ir a Jerusalén. La mano de nuestro Dios estaba sobre nosotros; Él nos protegió de la mano del enemigo y de los que deseaban tendernos una emboscada por el camino. 32 Entonces entramos a Jerusalén y nos quedamos allí por tres días. 33 Entonces en el cuarto día la plata, el oro, y los objetos fueron pesados en la casa de nuestro Dios en la mano de Meremot, hijo de Urías el sacerdote. Con él estaban Eleazar, hijo de Finees, Jozabad, hijo de Jesúa, y Noadías, hijo de Binúi el Levita. 34 El número y el peso de todo fue determinado; todo el peso fue anotado en ese tiempo. 35 Los que regresaron del cautiverio, el pueblo del exilio, ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas al Dios de Israel: doce novillos por todo Israel, noventa y seis carneros, setenta y siete corderos y doce machos cabríos como ofrenda por el pecado. Todo fue una ofrenda quemada para el SEÑOR. 36 Entonces ellos le dieron los decretos del rey a los altos oficiales del rey y a los gobernadores más allá del Río y ellos ayudaron al pueblo y a la casa de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 8:1

Información general
hay un cambio aparente en la autoría que comienza aquí. Los capítulos 1-7 se escribieron como si el autor estuviera escribiendo sobre Esdras. El capítulo 8 fue escrito como si el autor fuera Esdras.

Información general
Los versos 2-14 son una lista de líderes y sus ancestros. Todos estos son hombres.

descendientes de Finees, Gersón Este es el primer elemento de la lista. Se puede escribir con el verbo "fue". Traducción alterna: "El líder de los descendientes de Finees fue Gersón" o "Gersón fue el líder de los descendientes de Finees" descendientes de Itama, Daniel Este es el segundo elemento de la lista. Esto se puede escribir con el verbo "era". TRaducción alterna: "El líder de los descendientes de Itamar era Daniel" o "Daniel era el líder de los descendientes de Itamar"

De los descendientes de David, Hatús, quien era ... Paros; y Zacarías Este es el tercer elemento de la lista. Se puede escribir con el verbo "fueron". Traducción alterna: "Los líderes de los descendientes de David fueron Hatús que era ... Paros; y Zacarías" o "Los líderes de los descendientes de David fueron Hatús y Zacarías. Hatús era de ... Paros"

Hatús, quien era de los descendientes de Secanías, que era de los descendientes de Paros Esto puede ser escrito como oraciones separadas después de ''Zacarías''. Traducción alterna: ''Hatús era descendiente de Secanías, quien era descendiente de Paros''

y con el fueron anotados ciento cincuenta varones enumerados en los registros de su genealogía
''Con Zacarías fueron 150 hombres enlistados en el registro de su genealogía''

Ezra 8:4

Información general:
La lista de los nombres de los hombres continúa.

De los descendientes de Pahat Moab: Elioenai, hijo de Zerahías
Este es el próximo elemento de la lista. Esto puede ser escrito con el verbo ''fue''. Traducción alterna: ''El líder de los descendientes de Pahat Moab fue Elioenai hijo de Zerahías'' o ''Elioenai hijo de Zerahías fue el líder de los descendientes de Pahat Moab'''

Con él fueron registrados doscientos varones
'' y con Elioenai fueron 200 hombres'' doscientos ... trescientos ... cincuenta ... setenta

''200 ... 300 ... 50 ... 70''

Ezra 8:8

información general
la lista de nombres continúa.

De los descendientes de Sefatías: Zebadías, hijo de Micael
Este es el siguiente elemento de la lista. Puede ser escrito con el verbo ''fue''. Traducción alterna: ''El líder de los descendientes de Sefatías fue Zebadías hijo de Micael'' o ''Zebadías hijo de Zebadías fue el líder de los descendientes de Sefatías''

Con él fueron registrados ochenta varones
''y con Zebadías fueron enlistados ochenta varones''

80 ... 28
8 - ''80 ... 28''

Ezra 8:12

información general:
Este es el final de la lista de los nombres de los hombres.

De los descendientes de Azgad: Johanán, hijo de Hacatán
Este es el siguiente elemento de la lista. Se puede escribir con el verbo "fue". Traducción alterna: "El líder de los descendientes de Azgad era Johanán, hijo de Hacatán" o "Johanán, hijo de Hacatán, era el líder de los descendientes de Azgad"

Con él fueron registrado ciento diez varones
'''y con Johanán fueron enlistados 110 varones''

Aquellos de los descendientes de Adonicam la frase ''aquellos'' se refiere a los líderes. Traducción alterna: ''Los líderes de los descendientes de Adonicam'' sesenta... setenta

''60 ... 70''

Ezra 8:15

Información general
La palabra ''yo'' enel capítulo 8 se refiere a Esdras. Él es el autor.

Información general
El verso 16 contiene una lista con los nombres de los hombres.

Elnatán ... Elnatán ... Elnatán
Estos fueron aparentemente tres hombres con el mismo nombre.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el canal que sale hacia Ahava Los posibles significados son que el "canal" era 1) un canal que los hombres construyeron o 2) un río común. Se puede traducir de una manera más general. Traducción alterna: "la vía fluvial que va en dirección a Ahava"

Ezra 8:17

Entonces los envié a Iddo
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los nueve líderes y dos maestros escritos en 8:15. Traducción alterna: "Luego envié a esos hombres a Iddo"

Casifia
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Yo les dije qué decirle a Iddo ... ésto es, que nos enviaran sirvientes para la casa de Dios
Las palabras "esto es" presentan lo que les dijo que dijeran. Traducción alterna: "Les dije que le dijeran a Iddo ... que nos enviaran sirvientes para la casa de Dios"

Ezra 8:18

Serebías ... Mahli ... Hasabías ... Jesaías ... Merari
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Así que nos enviaron por medio de la bondadosa mano de nuestro Dios La "buena mano" de Dios representa su amabilidad al proveerlos a ellos. Traducción alterna: "Porque Dios fue amable con nosotros, nos enviaron un hombre"

un hombre prudente
Este es un hombre de entendemiento y sabiduría.

hijo de Leví, hijo de Israel Aquí ''israel'' es el nombre de un hombre. Es el nombre que Dios le dió a Jacob.

diesiocho ... veinte 18, 20.

Oficiales
personas con autoridad específica dentro de un sistema de gobierno

Ezra 8:21

el Canal de Ahava
Este es el nombre del canal que fluye al lugar llamado Ahava. Mira cómo se ha traducido Ahava y canal en 8:15.

para buscar un camino recto de parte de Él para nosotros, nuestros pequeños y todas nuestras posesiones
La palabra "buscar" representa pedirle a Dios que haga algo por ellos. Aquí un "camino recto" representa la seguridad mientras viajan. Traducción alterna: "pedirle a Dios que nos dé seguridad a nosotros, a nuestros pequeños y a todas nuestras posesiones mientras viajamos" o "pedirle a Dios que nos proteja a nosotros, a nuestros pequeños y a todas nuestras posesiones mientras viajamos"

La mano de nuestro Dios está sobre aquellos que lo buscan
El poder y la ira de Dios sobre las personas es una metonimia para castigar a las personas. Olvidar a Dios es una metáfora para negarse a servirle. Traducción alterna: "pero él castiga a todos los que se niegan a servirle"

mas su poder e ira están sobre todos los que lo olvidan
El poder y la ira de Dios

Así que ayunamos y buscamos a Dios acerca de ésto Aquí buscar a Dios es una metáfora para pedir a Dios que haga algo para ellos. Traducción alterna: ''Entonces nosotros ayunamos y pedimos a Dios que nos ayude''

Ezra 8:24

Serebías, Hasabías
Traduzca los nombres de estos hombres como lo hizo en 8:18.

Ezra 8:26

seiscientos cincuenta talentos de plata
''650 talentos de plata'' Esto puede ser convertido a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: ''22,000 kilogramos de plata'' o ''veintidos mil kilogramos de plata''

cien talentos de objetos de plata Esto puede ser convertido a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: ''3,400 kilogramos de objetos de plata''

cien talentos de oro Esto puede ser convertido a una medida moderna. Traducción alterna: ''3,400 kilogramos de oro''

mil dáricos
Un "daric" era una pequeña moneda de oro que usaban las personas en el Imperio Persa. Puede traducir esto en términos de la cantidad de monedas o su peso. Traducción alterna: "mil monedas de oro persas" u "ocho kilogramos y medio de oro"

vasijas de bronce
El bronce es una mezcla de cobre y otro metal. Es más fuerte que el cobre puro.

Ezra 8:28

Entonces yo les dije
''Entonces yo les dije a los 12 sacerdotes oficiales''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hasta que ustedes los pesen delante los oficiales sacerdotales, los Levitas, y los jefes Cuando llegaron a Jerusalén, pesarían la plata, el oro y el bronce para demostrar que no se habían llevado nada.

Los sacerdotes y los Levitas
Según la ley de Moisés, la tribu de Leví tenía la tarea de cuidar el templo, sus posesiones y las ofrendas.

Ezra 8:31

Salimos del Canal de Ahava
"Salimos del Canal de Ahava" o "Comenzamos a viajar desde el Canal de Ahava"

Canal de Ahava
Este es el nombre del canal que fluye al lugar llamado Ahava. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 8:21.

duodécimo día del primer mes
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. El duodécimo día es cercano a la mitad de marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

La mano de nuestro Dios estaba sobre nosotros
La mano de Dios sobre las personas es una metonimia para expresar la ayuda de Dios a esas personas. Traducción alterna: ''Dios nos estaba ayudando''

Él nos protegió de la mano del enemigo y de los ... camino
La mano representa lo que esas personas podrían hacer. Específicamente se refiere a ellos atacando al grupo que viajaba. Traducción alterna: "nos protegió del ataque del enemigo y de los que deseaban emboscarnos en el camino" o "evitó que el enemigo nos atacara y evitó que los ladrones nos emboscaran en el camino"

de los que deseaban tendernos una emboscada por el camino
Esto se refiere a los asaltantes o ladrones que querían atacarlos por sus tesoros.

Ezra 8:33

la plata, el oro, y los objetos fueron pesados Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Doce sacerdotes oficiales pesaron la plata, el oro y los objetos''

fueron pesados ... en la mano de Meremot
fueron pesados ... en la mano de Meremot

Meremot ... Urías ... Eleazar ... Finees ... Jozabad ... Jesúa ... Noadías ... Binúi
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Jesúa
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como lo hizo en 2:3.

Ezra 8:35

Los que regresaron del cautiverio, el pueblo del exilio Estas dos frases se refieren a las personas judías que vivían como exiliados en Babilonia y a aquellos que dejaron Babilonia y retornaron a Jerusalem en Juda. Traducción alterna: ''Aquellos que volvieron a Jerusalem del cautiverio en Babilonia, la gente del exilio'' doce ... noventa y seis ... setenta y siete ... doce seis ... setenta y siete ... doce - ''12, 96 ... 77 ... 12''

los gobernadores más allá del Río Estos eran los funcionarios babilónicos que manejaban a la gente al oeste del río Eufrates, que incluía a las personas que vivían en Judea.

más allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Éufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río desde la ciudad de Susa. Incluía a Judea. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 4:9

la casa de Dios.
el templo

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Cuando estas cosas fueron acabadas, los oficiales se me acercaron y dijeron: 'El pueblo de Israel, los sacerdotes y los Levitas no se han separado de los pueblos de las otras tierras y de sus abominaciones: cananeos, hititas, ferezeos, jebuseos, amonitas, moabitas, egipcios y amorreos. 2 Pues ellos han tomado algunas de sus hijas e hijos y han mezclado el pueblo santo con los pueblos de otras tierras. Y los oficiales y jefes han sido los primeros en esta infidelidad.' 3 Cuando oí esto, rasgué mi ropa y manto y halé el pelo de mi cabeza y barba, y me senté, devastado. 4 Todos los que temblaron ante las palabras del Dios de Israel acerca de esta infidelidad se reunieron junto a mí mientras estaba sentado avergonzado hasta la hora del sacrificio de la tarde. 5 Pero durante la ofrenda de la tarde, me levanté de mi posición de humillación en mis ropas y manto rasgados, y me arrodillé y levanté mis mando al SEÑOR mi Dios. 6 Dije: 'Mi Dios, estoy avergonzado y deshonrado de levantar mi rostro hacia ti, porque nuestros pecados aumentan sobre nuestra cabeza, y nuestra culpa crece hasta los cielos. 7 Desde los días de nuestros ancestros hasta ahora hemos estado en gran culpa. En nuestros pecados, nosotros, nuestros reyes, y nuestros sacerdotes fuimos entregados en las manos de los reyes de este mundo, a la espada, al cautiverio, y al saqueo y rostros avergonzados, como lo estamos hoy. 8 Sin embargo, ahora por un corto tiempo, la misericordia del SEÑOR nuestro Dios ha venido para dejarnos unos pocos sobrevivientes y para darnos un punto de apoyo en su lugar santo. Esto fue para que nuestro Dios alumbrara nuestros ojos y para darnos un poco de alivio en nuestra esclavitud. 9 Porque somos esclavos, pero nuestro Dios no nos ha olvidado sino que ha extendido su fidelidad hacia nosotros. Él ha hecho esto en la vista del rey de Persia a fin de darnos nuevas fuerzas, para que pudiéramos reconstruir la casa de nuestro Dios y levantar sus ruinas. Él hizo esto para que pudiera darnos un muro de seguridad en Judá y Jerusalén. 10 Pero ahora, nuestro Dios, ¿qué podemos decir luego de esto? Nosotros hemos olvidado tus mandamientos, 11 Los mandamientos que tú diste a tus siervos los profetas cuando dijiste: "Esta tierra a la que ustedes están entrando para poseer es una tierra inmunda. Está contaminada por los pueblos de las tierras con sus abominaciones. Ellos la han llenado de un extremo a otro con su inmundicia. 12 Así que, ahora, no den las hijas de ustedes a los hijos de ellos; no tomen las hijas de ellos para los hijos de ustedes, y no procuren su paz y bienestar duraderos, para que ustedes sean fuertes y coman del bien de la tierra, para causar que sus hijos la posean para siempre." 13 Aún después de todo lo que nos ha sobrevenido por nuestros actos malvados y por nuestra gran culpa, ya que Tú, nuestro Dios, has retenido lo que nuestros pecados merecen y nos has concedido sobrevivientes, 14 ¿violaremos nuevamente Tus mandamientos y formaremos matrimonios mixtos con estos pueblos abominables? ¿No te enojarás y nos aniquilarás hasta que no quede nadie, que no haya quien escape? 15 SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, Tú eres justo, pues hemos quedado como unos pocos sobrevivientes hasta este día. ¡Mira! Estamos aquí delante de ti, en nuestra culpa, pues no hay quien pueda estar delante de ti debido a esto."

Ezra 9:1

no se han separado
se han casado con personas de otras tierras y habían adoptado su religión

Ezra 9:3

Cuando oí esto
Cuando Esdras se enteró de que muchos Israelitas se habían casado con mujeres extranjeras y estaban adorando a sus dioses

asgué mi ropa y manto y halé el pelo de mi cabeza y barba Esdras estaba mostrando a todos cuanto le molestaba que las personas estaban haciendo estas cosas que ofendian a Dios.

sacrificio de la tarde
un sacrificio que los sacerdotes ofrecerían alrededor del tiempo en que se ponía el sol

Ezra 9:5

mi posición de humillación Otra manera de decir que él ''se sentía avergonzado'' (9:3). ''donde estaba sentado en el suelo para mostrar lo avergonzado que estaba"

me arrodillé y levanté mis mando
''me puse de rodillas y estiré mis brazos con mis manos abiertas al cielo''

nuestros pecados aumentan sobre nuestra cabeza, y nuestra culpa crece hasta los cielos Estas palabras son dos formas de hablar de la iniquidad y la culpa como si fueran objetos físicos que podrían llegar a ser más grandes que las personas. Los sustantivos abstractos "iniquidad" y

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"culpa" se pueden expresar como un sustantivo y un adjetivo, respectivamente. Traducción alterna: "hemos cometido actos malvados y somos muy culpables"

Ezra 9:7

días de nuestros ancestros
''el tiempo donde nuestros ancestros estaban vivos''

en gran culpa ... En nuestros pecados Los sustantivos abastractos ''culpa'' y ''pecados'' pueden ser traducidos como un adjetivo y un verbo respectivamente. Traducción alterna: ''muy culpable ... por las malas acciones que hicimos"

nosotros, ... fuimos entregados en las manos de los reyes Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''tú nos entregaste ... a las manos de los reyes'' en las manos de los reyes de este mundo El escritor habla de Dios permitiendo que los reyes hagan lo que quieran hacer con los judíos como si Dios hubiera puesto pequeños objetos en las manos de los reyes de este mundo.

a la espada
La espada es una metonimia para las personas matando a otras personas. Dios permitió que las personas maten a los judíos.

al cautiverio
El sustantivo abstracto puede ser traducido como una frase verbal.Dios permitió que las personas tomen a los Judíos y los lleven.

y al saqueo
El sustantivo abstracto puede ser traducido como una frase verbal.Dios permitió que las peronas tomen las propiedades de los Judíos.

rostros avergonzados
La cara es una metonimia para la vergüenza que siente la persona y que otros que ven la cara de esa persona y saben que siente.

Ezra 9:8

misericordia del SEÑOR nuestro Dios ha venido Se dice que Dios decide ser misericordioso como si la misericordia fuera una persona capaz de moverse. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR nuestro Dios ha decidido ser misericordioso con nosotros y"

ha extendido su fidelidad hacia nosotros
Se habla de la fidelidad al pacto como si fuera un objeto que alguien podría sostener en su mano y sostener para que otra persona lo tome. Traducción alterna: "se ha ofrecido a ser fieles a nosotros y mantener su pacto"

en la vista del rey de Persia El rey no podía literalmente ver el templo, pero sabía acerca de lo que estaba pasando en Jerusalem. Aquí ''vista'' es una metonimia para lo que sabe una persona.Traducción alterna: ''Para que el Rey de Persia sepa acerca de esto.''

casa de nuestro Dios
el templo

pudiera darnos un muro de seguridad
El muro que mantiene a las personas a salvo es una metafóra para el SEÑOR protegiendo a su pueblo. Traducción alterna: ''podría mantenernos a salvo''

Ezra 9:10

para siempre
''hasta el final de los tiempos''

Ezra 9:13

por nuestros actos malvados y por nuestra gran culpa
Los sustantivos abstractos ''actos'' y ''culpa'' pueden ser traducido com un sustantivo y un adjetivos, respectivamente. Traducción alterna: "Por las cosas malas que hicimos y porque éramos tan culpables" has retenido lo que nuestros pecados merecen y nos has concedido sobrevivientes

"Serías justo si nos mataras a todos, pero no nos has castigado y en cambio nos has dejado con vida".

¿violaremos nuevamente Tus mandamientos y formaremos ... pueblos abominables?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Está muy mal que algunos de nosotros hayamos roto tus mandamientos y hayamos hecho ... personas".

¿No te enojarás ... escape?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Me temo que estarás enojado ... escapa".

Ezra 9:15

Mira
''Presta atención a lo que estoy por decir''

Estamos aquí delante de ti, en nuestra culpa
''Puedes ver que todos nosotros somos culpables''

pues no hay quien pueda estar delante de ti
"no crees que ninguna persona sea inocente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Mientras Esdras oraba y se confesaba, él lloró y se postró delante de la casa de Dios. Una gran asamblea de hombres, mujeres y niños israelitas se unieron a él, pues la gente estaba llorando muy fuertemente. 2 Secanías, hijo de Jehiel de los descendientes de Elam, dijo a Esdras: "Nosotros hemos sido infieles a nuestro Dios y nos hemos casado con mujeres extranjeras de la gente de las otras tierras. Pero, a pesar de esto, todavía hay esperanza para Israel. 3 Pues, ahora hagamos un pacto con nuestro Dios para echar fuera a todas las mujeres y sus hijos según las instrucciones del Señor y las instrucciones de aquellos que tiemblan ante los mandamientos de nuestro Dios, y que sea hecho de acuerdo a la ley. 4 Levántate, pues este asunto es para que tú la cumplas, y nosotros estamos contigo. Sé fuerte y haz esto." 5 Entonces Esdras se levantó y obligó a los oficiales sacerdotales, los Levitas y a todo Israel prometer a actuar de esta manera. Asi que todos hicieron un juramento solemne. 6 Entonces Esdras se levantó de delante de la casa de Dios y fue a las habitaciones de Johanán, hijo de Eliasib. Él no comió ningún pan ni tomó agua, ya que estaba haciendo duelo por la infidelidad de aquellos que habían estado en el cautiverio. 7 Entonces enviaron palabra en Judá y Jerusalén a todo el pueblo regresado del exilio a reunirse en Jerusalén. 8 Cualquiera que no viniera en tres días conforme a las instrucciones de los oficiales y ancianos perdería todas sus posesiones y sería excluido de la gran asamblea del pueblo que había regresado del exilio. 9 Así pues, todos los hombres de Judá y Benjamín se reunieron en Jerusalén en tres días. Era el noveno mes y el día veinte del mes. Todo el pueblo estaba de pie en la plaza frente a la casa de Dios y temblaban debido a la palabra y la lluvia. 10 Esdras el sacerdote se levantó y dijo: "Ustedes mismos han cometido traición. Ustedes vivieron con mujeres extranjeras para así aumentar la culpa de Israel. 11 Mas ahora den alabanza al SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, y hagan su voluntad. Sepárense del pueblo de la tierra y de las mujeres extranjeras." 12 Toda la asamblea contestó con voz fuerte: "Nosotros haremos como has dicho. 13 Sin embargo, hay mucha gente, y es la temporada de lluvia. No tenemos fuerzas para estar de pie afuera, y esto no es solamente uno o dos días de trabajo, ya que hemos pecado grandemente en este asunto. 14 Deja, pues, que nuestros oficiales representen a toda la asamblea. Que todos los que han permitido que mujeres extranjeras vivan en nuestras ciudades vengan a la hora que será fijada con los ancianos de las ciudades y los jueces de las ciudades hasta que la ira furiosa de nuestro Dios se aparte de nosotros." 15 Jonatán, hijo de Asael y Jahazías, hijo de Ticva se opusieron a esto, y Mesulam y Sabetai el Levita los apoyaron. 16 Entonces el pueblo que regresó del exilio hizo ésto. Esdras el sacerdote seleccionó hombres, los líderes en sus clanes y casas ancestrales- todos ellos por nombre- y vieron el asunto en el primer día del décimo mes. 17 Para el primer día del primer mes ellos habían terminado de descubrir cuáles hombres habían vivido con mujeres extranjeras. 18 Entre los descendientes de los sacerdotes había unos que habían vivido con mujeres extranjeras. Entre los descendientes de Jesúa, hijo de Josadac, y sus hermanos estaban Maasías, Eliezer, Jarib y Gedalías. 19 Asi que determinaron enviar fuera a sus esposas. Ya que eran culpables, ellos ofrecieron un carnero de su rebaño por su culpa. 20 Entre los descendientes de Imer: Hananí y Zebadías. 21 Entre los descendientes de Harim: Maasías, Elías, Semaías, Jehiel, y Uzías. 22 Entre los descendientes de Pasur: Elioenai, Maasías, Ismael, Natanael, Jozabad y Elasa. 23 Entre los Levitas: Jozabad, Simei, Kelaía, es decir, Kelita, Petaías, Judá, y Eliezer. 24 Entre los cantores: Eliasib. Entre los porteros: Salum, Telem, y Uri. 25 Entre el resto de los israelitas, entre los descendientes de Paros: Ramía, Jezías, Malquías, Mijamín, Eleazar, Malquías, y Benaía. 26 Entre los descendientes de Elam: Matanías, Zacarías, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremot, y Elías. 27 Entre los descendientes de Zatu: Elioenai, Eliasib, Matanías, Jeremot, Zabad, y Aziza. 28 Entre los descendientes de Bebai: Johanán, Hananías, Zabai, y Atlai. 29 Entre los descendientes de Bani: Mesulam, Maluc, Adaía, Jasub, y Seal Ramot. 30 Entre los descendientes de Pahat Moab: Adna, Quelal, Benaía, Maasías, Matanías, Bezalel, Binúi, y Manasés. 31 Entre los descendientes de Harim: Eliezer, Isías, Malquías, Semaías, Simeón, 32 Benjamín, Maluc, y Semarías. 33 Entre los descendientes de Hasum: Matenai, Matata, Zabad, Elifelet, Jeremai, Manasés y Simei. 34 Entre los descendientes de Bani: Madai, Amram, Uel, 35 Benaía, Bedías, Quelúhi, 36 Vanías, Meremot, Eliasib, 37 Matanías, Matenai, y Jaasai. Entre los descendientes de Binúi: Simei 38 Bani, Binúi, Simei, 39 Selemías, Natán, Adaía, 40 Macnadebai, Sasai, Sarai, 41 Azareel, Selemías, Semarías, 42 Salum, Amarías, y José. 43 Entre los descendientes de Nebo: Jeiel, Matatías, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, Joel, y Benaía. 44 Todos estos habían tomado mujeres extranjeras y habían tenido hijos con algunas de ellas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 10:1

Mientras Esdras oraba y se confesaba ... se postró Esdras habla de sí mismo como si fuese alguien más.

se postró
pasó rápidamente de estar de pie a estar boca abajo

delante de la casa de Dios enfrente al templo

Nosotros hemos sido infieles a nuestro Dios
Esto se hizo como una confesión pública, no como un reclamo jactancioso.

Ezra 10:3

nosotros estamos contigo
''nosotros te ayudaremos''

Ezra 10:5

Johanán ... Eliasib
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Ezra 10:7

Cualquiera que no viniera ... perdería todas sus posesiones y sería excluido
"Los oficiales le quitarían todas las posesiones a cualquiera que no viniera ... y lo excluirían'' o "El pueblo de Judá y Jerusalén quitaría todas las posesiones a cualquiera que no viniera ... y los excluiría "

tres días
3 días

Ezra 10:9

en tres días
''tres días después''

noveno mes y el día veinte del mes
Este es el noveno mes del calendario hebreo. El día número veinte del mes se encuentra cerca de la mitad de diciembre en los calendarios occidentales.

en la plaza
Un gran patio abierto frente al templo

cometido traición el sustantivo abstracto ''traición'' puede ser traducido como un verbo. Traducción alterna: ''ayudaron a los enemigos de tu pueblo''

para así aumentar la culpa de Israel
''y ahora DIOS nos considera culpables de pecados peores que antes''

Ezra 10:11

Sepárense del
mantenerse lejos de, ser diferente de

Ezra 10:12

esto no es solamente uno o dos días de trabajo
Este litote puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Necesitaremos más tiempo para hacer todo este trabajo''

Ezra 10:14

a la hora que será fijada con los ancianos de las ciudades y los jueces de las ciudades esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. traducción alterna: ''la hora que los ancianos de las ciudades van a fijar''

Jonatán, hijo de Asael y Jahazías, hijo de Ticva se opusieron a esto Los posibles significados son, 1) estos hombres no querian que los oficiales de la ciudad investiguen las ofensas o 2) ellos nos querían que nadie investigue los matrimonios de las personas

Ezra 10:16

hizo ésto
el pueblo investigó quienes se habían unido a esposas no judías.

el primer día del décimo mes
Este es el décimo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de la mitad de diciembre en los calendarios occidentales.

el primer día del primer mes
Esto es cerca de la mitad de marzo en los calendarios occidentales

Ezra 10:18

Jesúa
Traducir como en 2:1.

Josadac
Traducir como en 3:1.

Maasías ... Gedalías
nombres de hombres

Eliezer ... Jarib
Traducir como en 8:15.

Ezra 10:20

Información general:
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezra 10:23

Información general:
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

Ezra 10:26

Información general:
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

Ezra 10:30

Información General:
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

Ezra 10:33

Información general:
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

Ezra 10:37

información general
Esdrás continua la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres no judías.

Ezra 10:41

información general
Esdrás finaliza la lista de hombres que se habían casado con mujeres que no eran judías.

Todos estos
todos los hombres en la lista que empieza en 10:20

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Nehemiah

Nehemiah

Chapter 1

1 Las palabras de Nehemías, hijo de Hacalías: Ahora, ocurrió en el mes de Quisleu, en el año vigésimo, mientras estaba en la ciudad fortificada de Susa 2 que uno de mis hermanos, Hananí, vino con algunas personas de Judá y yo les pregunté acerca de los judíos que habían escapado, el remanente de los judíos que estaban allí y acerca de Jerusalén. 3 Ellos me dijeron: "Aquellos en la provincia que sobrevivieron a la cautividad están en un gran problema y desgracia, porque el muro de Jerusalén ha sido derribado y sus puertas han sido quemadas." 4 Tan pronto como yo escuché estas palabras, yo me senté y lloré, y por días continué lamentando y ayunando y orando ante el Dios del cielo. 5 Luego yo dije: "Tú eres EL SEÑOR, Dios del cielo, el Dios que es grande e impresionante, quien guarda el pacto de amor firme con aquellos quienes lo aman y guardan sus mandamientos. 6 Escucha mi oración y abre tus ojos, para que puedas escuchar la oración de tu siervo que ahora ora delante de ti día y noche por el pueblo de Israel, tus siervos. Estoy confesando los pecados del pueblo de Israel, quienes hemos pecado en contra de ti. Ambos, yo, y la casa de mi padre hemos pecado. 7 Hemos actuado muy perversamente en contra tuya y no hemos guardado tus mandamientos, los estatutos y las reglas que Tú le ordenaste a tu siervo Moisés. 8 Por favor, trae a tu mente las palabras que le ordenaste a tu siervo Moisés, 'Si actúas de manera infiel, te dispersaré entre las naciones, 9 pero si regresas a Mí y sigues mis mandamientos y los llevas a cabo, aunque tu pueblo sea esparcido bajo los cielos más lejanos, Yo los recogeré de allí y los traeré al lugar que Yo he escogido para que mi nombre permanezca.' 10 Ahora, ellos son tus siervos y tu pueblo, a quienes Tú has rescatado por tu gran poder y por tu mano poderosa. 11 SEÑOR, yo te suplico, escucha ahora la oración de tu siervo y la oración de tus siervos quienes se deleitan en honrar tu nombre. Ahora, da éxito a tu siervo y concédele misericordia ante los ojos de este hombre." Yo servía como copero del rey.

Nehemiah 1:1

Nehemías...Hacalías...Hananí
Estos son nombres de hombres.

en el mes de Quisleu
"Quisleu" es el noveno mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de noviembre y la primera parte de diciembre en los calendarios occidentales.

en el año vigésimo
Nehemías se refiere a la cantidad de años que Artajerjes había estado reinando como rey. Traducción Alterna: "en el vigésimo año del reinado de Artajerxjes, Rey de Persia"

ciudad fortificada de Susa Esta fue una de las ciudades reales de los reyes persas, ubicadas en el país de Elam. Era una gran ciudad fortificada con altos muros que la rodeaban.

uno de mis hermanos, Hananí Hananí era el hermano biológico de Nehemías.

Hananí, vino con algunas personas de Judá
"Hanani vino de Judá con otras personas"

Los judíos que habían escapado, el remanente de los judíos que estaban allí Estas dos frases se refieren al mismo grupo de personas. Los posibles significados son 1) los pocos judíos que fueron llevados como exiliados a Babilonia pero escaparon y regresaron a vivir en Jerusalén o 2) los pocos judíos que habían escapado de aquellos que intentaban llevarlos al exilio en Babilonia y así permanecieron en Jerusalén. Como no está claro de dónde escaparon, puede ser mejor no especificar en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "los judíos que habían escapado del exilio y que se quedaron en Jerusalén"

Nehemiah 1:3

Ellos me dijeron
Aquí "Ellos" se refiere a Hananí y las otras personas que vinieron de Judá.

la provincia
Aquí, "provincia" se refiere a Judá como un distrito administrativo bajo el Imperio Persa. Traducción Alterna: "la provincia de Judá" o "Judá"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el muro de Jerusalén ha sido derribado y sus puertas han sido quemadas Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los ejércitos han roto el muro de Jerusalén y han incendiado sus puertas"

Nehemiah 1:4

Luego yo dije
Nehemías dice lo que él oró. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces le dije a El SEÑOR" quienes lo aman y guardan sus mandamientos.

Como Nehemías le está hablando a El SEÑOR, los pronombres "él" y "su" pueden traducirse como "tú" y "tu". Traducción Alterna: "quien te ama y guarda tus mandamientos"

Nehemiah 1:6

abre tus ojos
Nehemías habla de Dios prestandole atención mientras ora como si Dios abriera los ojos y lo mirara. Traducción Alterna: "mírame" o "ponme atención" para que puedas escuchar la oración de tu siervo

"para que pueda escuchar la oración que yo, su siervo, estoy orando". La palabra "siervo" se refiere a Nehemías. Así es como una persona se dirigiría a su superior para mostrar humildad y respeto.

día y noche
Al decir que ora tanto durante el día como durante la noche, Nehemías enfatiza la frecuencia de sus oraciones. Traducción Alterna: "todo el tiempo"

Ambos, yo, y la casa de mi padre
Aquí la palabra "casa" representa a la familia. Traducción Alterna: "Tanto yo como mi familia"

Nehemiah 1:8

Oración de Enlace:
Nehemías continúa orando a Dios

Por favor, trae a tu mente
"Llamar a la mente" es una expresión idiomática que significa recordar. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor recuerda"

las palabras que le ordenaste a tu siervo Moisés
Los pronombres "tú" y "tu" se refieren a Dios.

Si actúas de manera infiel...si regresas ...tu pueblo
Los pronombres "tú" y "tu" son plurales y se refieren al pueblo Israelita.

te dispersaré entre las naciones
EL SEÑOR habla de hacer que los israelitas vivan en otras naciones como si los dispersara tal como si uno dispersara semillas. Traducción Alterna: "Te haré vivir entre las naciones"

aunque tu pueblo sea esparcido Incluso si su ciudad está dispersa, esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "aunque disperse a tu gente"

bajo los cielos más lejanos
EL SEÑOR habla de lugares en la tierra que están muy lejos como "debajo de los cielos más lejanos". Traducción Alterna: "hacia lugares muy lejanos"

al lugar que Yo he escogido...permanezca Esta frase se refiere a Jerusalén, donde se encontraba el templo. Traducción Alterna: "a Jerusalén, donde he elegido ... permanecer" que Yo he escogido para que mi nombre permanezca Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa a EL SEÑOR mismo. Traducción Alterna: "donde he elegido habitar"

Nehemiah 1:10

Información general
Nehemías continúa su oración

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en la oración de Nehemías. Aquí él comienza a hacer su pedido basado en la promesa de EL SEÑOR

ellos son tus siervos
La palabras ellos se refiere al pueblo israelita

por tu gran poder y por tu mano poderosa Aquí "mano" representa fuerza o poder. Juntas, estas dos frases forman un doblete que enfatiza la intensidad del poder de EL SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "por tu gran poder y por tu fuerza poderosa" o "por tu fuerza muy poderosa"

la oración de tu siervo Aquí "siervo" se refiere a Nehemías. Así es como una persona se dirigiría a su superior para mostrar humildad y respeto. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1: 6.

la oración de tus siervos
Aquí "siervos" se refiere al resto del pueblo israelita que habrían estado orando para que EL SEÑOR actuara en nombre de su pueblo y en nombre de Jerusalén.

quienes se deleitan en honrar tu nombre Aquí "nombre" representa al propio SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "que se deleita en honrarte" concédele misericordia ante los ojos de este hombre Aquí "él" se refiere a Nehemías, quien se refiere a sí mismo en tercera persona para expresar su humildad ante Dios, y "este hombre" se refiere a Artajerjes, el rey de Persia.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ante los ojos de este hombre
Nehemías habla de la actitud o disposición del rey como si fuera la forma en que el rey veía algo. Traducción Alterna: "concede que el rey tenga misericordia de mí"

Yo servía como copero del rey
Esta es información de trasfondo sobre el papel de Nehemías en la corte del rey. Su idioma puede tener una forma especial de marcar información de trasfondo. (Ver: escritura_fondo)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 En el mes de Nisán, en el año vigésimo de Artajerjes el rey él seleccionó vino y yo agarré el vino y se lo di al rey. Ahora, yo nunca había estado triste en su presencia. 2 Pero el rey me dijo a mí: "¿Por qué tu rostro está tan triste? Tu no aparentas estar enfermo. Ésto tiene que ser tristeza del corazón." Entonces tuve mucho miedo. 3 Yo le dije al rey: "¡Que el rey viva para siempre! ¿Por qué mi rostro no debería estar triste? La ciudad, el lugar de la tumba de mis padres, está en ruinas y sus puertas han sido destruídas por fuego." 4 Luego el rey me dijo a mí: ''¿Qué quieres que haga?" Así que yo oré al Dios del cielo. 5 Yo le respondí al rey: "Si le parece bien al rey y si su siervo ha hecho bien delante de sus ojos, usted me puede enviar a Judá, a la ciudad de las tumbas de mis padres, para que yo pueda reconstruirla." 6 El rey me contestó (y la reina también estaba sentada al lado de él): "¿Cuánto tiempo estarás fuera y cuándo regresarás?'' El rey estuvo contento de enviarme cuando yo le indiqué las fechas. 7 Entonces yo le dije al rey: "Si le place al rey permita que las cartas me sean dadas a mí para los gobernadores más allá del Río para que ellos me permitan pasar a través de sus territorios en mi camino hacia Judá. 8 Permita que también haya una carta para Asaf, el guardián del bosque del rey, para que me pueda dar madera para hacer vigas para las puertas de la fortaleza al lado del templo, para el muro de la ciudad, y para la casa en la cual yo viviré." Así que, a causa de que la buena mano de Dios estaba sobre mí, el rey me concedió mis solicitudes. 9 Yo fui a los gobernadores más allá del Río y les di las cartas del rey. Ahora el rey había enviado conmigo oficiales del ejército y jinetes. 10 Cuando Sanbalat el Horonita y Tobías el sirviente Amonita escucharon ésto estuvieron grandemente disgustados porque alguien había venido buscando ayudar al pueblo de Israel. 11 Así que fui a Jerusalén y estuve allí tres días. 12 Me levanté en la noche y algunos hombres conmigo. No le dije a nadie lo que mi Dios había puesto en mi corazón que hiciera por Jerusalén. No había ningún animal conmigo, aparte del que yo estaba montando. 13 Salí de noche por la Puerta del Valle, hacia la Fuente del Chacal y hacia la Puerta del Estiércol e inspeccioné los muros de Jerusalén, las cuales habían sido abiertas y rotas y las verjas de madera fueron destruídas por fuego. 14 Luego fui a la Puerta de la Fuente y al Estanque del Rey. El lugar era muy reducido para el animal que yo estaba cabalgando para poder pasar. 15 Así que yo subí esa noche por el valle e inspeccioné el muro, regresé y entré por la Puerta del Valle y así regresé. 16 Los gobernantes no sabían a dónde fui ni tampoco lo que hice y todavía yo no le había informado a los judíos, ni a los sacerdotes, ni a los nobles, ni a los gobernantes, ni al resto quienes habían hecho el trabajo. 17 Yo les dije a ellos: "Ustedes ven el problema en el que estamos, cómo Jerusalén está en ruinas y sus puertas fueron destruídas por fuego. Vengan, vamos a reconstruir el muro de Jerusalén, para que ya no estemos en vergüenza." 18 Yo les dije a ellos que la mano buena de mi Dios estaba sobre mí y también acerca de las palabras que el rey me había hablado a mí. Ellos dijeron: "Permítenos levantarnos y reconstruir." Así que ellos fortalecieron sus manos para el buen trabajo. 19 Pero cuando Sanbalat el Horonita y Tobías el sirviente Amonita y Gesem el Árabe escucharon acerca de ésto se burlaron y nos ridiculizaron y dijeron: "¿Qué están haciendo? ¿Ustedes se están rebelando en contra el rey?" 20 Entonces yo les contesté a ellos: "El Dios del cielo nos dará el éxito. Nosotros somos sus sirvientes y nos levantaremos y construiremos. Pero ustedes no tienen acciones ni derecho y ninguna reclamación histórica en Jerusalén."

Nehemiah 2:1

En el mes de Nisán
Nisán es el nombre del primer mes de calendario Hebreo.

en el año vigésimo de Artajerjes el rey
"en el vigésimo año en el que Artajerjes era rey"

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en la historia principal. Aquí Nehemías cuenta información de trasfondo acerca de su comportamiento ante el rey.

Pero el rey
Entonces el rey

¿Por qué tu rostro está tan triste?
Aquí se hace referencia a Nehemías y su rostro porque el rostro muestra las emociones de uno. Traducción Alterna: "¿Por qué estás tan triste?"

Ésto tiene que ser tristeza del corazón
Esto habla de Nehemías estando triste como si su corazón estuviera triste, ya que el corazón a menudo se considera el centro de las emociones. Traducción Alterna: "Debes estar muy triste"

Entonces tuve mucho miedo Mientras Nehemías se prepara para responder, tiene miedo porque no sabe cómo responderá el rey.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 2:3

¡Que el rey viva para siempre!
Nehemías está mostrando honor al rey Artajerjes. Aquí "para siempre" es una exageración que se refiere a una larga vida. Traducción Alterna: "¡Viva el rey!" o "¡Que el rey tenga una larga vida!"

¿Por qué mi rostro no debería estar triste?
Aquí Nehemías usa esta pregunta retórica para decirle al rey que él tiene una razón para estar triste. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo muy buenas razones para estar triste".

el lugar de la tumba de mis padres
"El lugar donde están enterrados mis antepasados".

sus puertas han sido destruídas por fuego
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el fuego ha destruido sus puertas" o "nuestro enemigo ha quemado sus puertas"

Nehemiah 2:4

Yo le respondí al rey
"Entonces le respondí al rey"

su siervo
Nehemías se refiere a sí mismo de esta manera para mostrar su sumisión al rey.

delante de sus ojos
Aquí la vista representa juicio o evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "a su juicio"

a la ciudad de las tumbas de mis padres
"La ciudad donde están enterrados mis antepasados"

para que yo pueda reconstruirla
Nehemías no planea hacer todo el edificio él mismo, pero será el líder del trabajo. Traducción Alterna: "para que yo y mi gente podamos reconstruirlo"

Nehemiah 2:7

que las cartas me sean dadas Esto puede afirmarse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "puede darme cartas"

los gobernadores más allá del Río
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Eufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río de la ciudad de Susa.

Asaf
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

la buena mano de Dios estaba sobre mí
La "buena mano" de Dios representa su "favor". Traducción Alterna: "El favor de Dios estaba sobre mí"

Nehemiah 2:9

Sanbalat el Horonita... Tobías
Sanballat es el nombre de un hombre, y los Horonitas eran un grupo de personas.

Tobías el sirviente Amonita
Este hombre probablemente era un esclavo liberado que ahora servía como oficial en Ammon.

escucharon ésto
"escuché que había llegado" (UDB)

Nehemiah 2:11

había puesto en mi corazón
Aquí el "corazón" de Nehemías se refiere a sus pensamientos y voluntad. Traducción Alterna: "me había inspirado" o "me había guiado"

No había ningún animal conmigo
"No había animales conmigo"

Nehemiah 2:13

Información general:
Algunos hombres acompañaron a Nehemías en esta inspección, pero él habla en primera persona porque era la persona principal.

Salí de noche por la Puerta del Valle
"Por la noche, salí por la puerta del valle"

Chacal
un perro salvaje

Puerta del Estiércol
Presumiblemente, los desechos fueron retirados de la ciudad a través de esta puerta.

las cuales habían sido abiertas y rotas y las verjas de madera fueron destruídas por fuego Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que los enemigos de Israel se habían destrozado, y las puertas de madera que sus enemigos habían destruido con fuego"

Nehemiah 2:15

Así que yo subí...regresé
Los otros hombres con Nehemías también lo siguieron. Traducción Alterna: "Así que subimos ... y volvimos" por la Puerta del Valle

"a través de la puerta del valle"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ni al resto quienes habían hecho el trabajo Esto se refiere a los hombres que luego reconstruirían los muros. Traducción Alterna: "los otros que luego harían el trabajo de reconstruir los muros"

Nehemiah 2:17

Ustedes ven el problema
Aquí "ustedes" es plural, refiriéndose a todas las personas mencionadas en 2:15.

y sus puertas fueron destruídas por fuego Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "cómo nuestros enemigos destruyeron sus puertas con fuego" para que ya no estemos en vergüenza

"Así ya no estaremos avergonzados"

la mano buena de mi Dios estaba sobre mí La "buena mano" de Dios representa su "favor". Traducción Alterna: "el favor de mi Dios estaba sobre mí" levantarnos y reconstruir.

Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "comenzar a construir"

Así que ellos fortalecieron sus manos para el buen trabajo
La frase "fortaleció sus manos" significa prepararse para hacer algo. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces se prepararon para hacer este buen trabajo"

Nehemiah 2:19

Sanbalat...Tobías
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 2: 9.

Gesem
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

¿Qué están haciendo? ¿Ustedes se están rebelando en contra el rey?
Estas preguntas retóricas se usan para burlarse de Nehemías. Estos pueden ser escritos como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "¡Estás actuando tontamente! ¡No deberías rebelarte contra el rey!"

el rey
Esto se refiere a Artajerjes, el rey de Persia.

nos levantaremos y construiremos
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "comenzará a reconstruir"

Pero ustedes no tienen acciones ni derecho y ninguna reclamación histórica en Jerusalén
"Pero no tienes ninguna participación, derecho legal o reclamo religioso sobre Jerusalén"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Entonces Eliasib, el sumo sacerdote, se levantó con sus hermanos sacerdotes y ellos construyeron la Puerta de las Ovejas. Ellos la consagraron y estabecieron las puertas en su lugar. Ellos la consagraron tan lejos como desde la Torre de los Cien hasta la Torre de Hananeel. 2 Próximo a él los hombres de Jericó trabajaron y junto a ellos trabajó Zacur, hijo de Imri. 3 Los hijos de Senaa construyeron la Puerta del Pescado. Ellos colocaron sus vigas en su lugar y establecieron sus puertas y sus cerrojos y sus barras. 4 Meremot reparó la próxima sección. Él es el hijo de Urías hijo de Cos. Y próximo a ellos Mesulam reparaba. Él es el hijo de Berequías hijo de Mesezabeel. Próximo a ellos Sadoc reparó. Él es el hijo de Baana. 5 Y próximo a ellos los Tecoítas reparaban, pero sus líderes se rehusaron a hacer el trabajo ordenado por sus supervisores. 6 Joiada hijo de Paseah y Mesulam hijo de Besodías repararon la Puerta Vieja. Ellos establecieron las vigas y sus puertas y sus cerrojos y sus barras. 7 Próximo a ellos Melatías el Gabaonita y Jadón el Meronotita, quienes eran hombres de Gabaón y de Mizpa, hicieron reparaciones en la porción donde el gobernador de la provincia vivía, más allá del Río. 8 Próximo él Uzie, hijo de Harhaía, uno de los orfebres, reparó, y junto a él estaba Hananías, un hacedor de perfumes. Ellos reconstruyeron Jerusalén tan lejos como hasta la Muralla Ancha. 9 Próximo a ellos Refarías, hijo de de Hur, reparaba. Él era el gobernante de la mitad del distrito de Jerusalén. 10 Próximo a ellos, Jedaías, hijo de Harumaf, reparaba al lado de su casa. Próximo a él reparaba Hatús hijo de Hasabnías. 11 Malquías hijo de Harim y Hasub hijo de Pahat Moab reparaba otra sección en conjunto con la Torre de Hornos. 12 Próximo a ellos Salum, hijo de Halohes, el gobernante de la mitad del distrito de Jerusalén, reparaba en conjunto con sus hijas. 13 Hanún y los habitantes de Zanoa reparaban la Puerta del Valle. Ellos lo reconstruyeron y pusieron sus puertas, sus cerrojos y sus barras. Ellos repararon mil codos tan lejos hasta la Puerta del Muladar. 14 Malquías hijo de Recab, dirigente del distrito de Bet Haquerem, reparó la Puerta del Muladar. Él la construyó y estableció sus puertas, sus cerrojos y sus barras. 15 Salum hijo de Col Hoze, el gobernante del distrito de Mizpa, reconstruyó la Puerta de la Fuente. Él la construyó y puso una cubierta sobre ella y estableció sus puertas y sus cerrojos y sus barras. Él también reconstruyó el muro del Estanque de Siloé cerca del jardín del rey, tan lejos como hasta las escaleras que descienden de la ciudad de David. 16 Nehemías hijo de Azbuc, el gobernante de la mitad del distrito de Bet Sur, reparó hasta el lugar de a través de la tumba de David, hasta el estanque hecho por el hombre y hasta la casa de los hombres poderosos. 17 Después de él, los Levitas repararon, incluyendo a Rehum hijo de Bani y próximo a él, Hasabías el gobernante de la mitad del distrito de Keila, para su distrito. 18 Después de él, sus compatriotas repararon, incluyendo a Bavai hijo de Henadad, el gobernante de la mitad del distrito de Keila. 19 Próximo a él reparaba Ezer hijo de Jesúa, el gobernante de Mizpa, quien reparó otra sección opuesta a la subida al arsenal, en la esquina del muro. 20 Después de él, Baruc hijo de Zabai con devoción reparó otra sección, desde la esquina de la muralla hasta la puerta de la casa de Eliasib, el sumo sacerdote. 21 Después de él, Meremot hijo de Urías hijo de Cos, reparó otra sección, desde la puerta de la casa de Eliasib hasta el final de la casa de Eliasib. 22 Próximo a él los sacerdotes, los hombres del área alrededor de Jerusalén repararon. 23 Después de ellos Benjamín y Hasub repararon opuesto a sus propias casas. Después de ellos Azarías hijo de Maasías hijo de Ananías, reparó próximo a su propia casa. 24 Después de él Bunúi hijo de Henadad reparó otra sección, desde la casa de Azarías hasta la esquina del muro. 25 Palal hijo de Uzai reparó contra la esquina de la pared y la torre que se extiende desde la casa superior del rey en el patio del vigilante. Después de él Pedaías hijo de Faros reparó. 26 Ahora los siervos del templo que vivían en Ofel repararon hasta el punto opuesto de la Puerta de Aguas al este de la torre sobresaliente. 27 Después de él los Tecoítas repararon otra sección, opuesta a la gran torre que sobresalía, tan lejos como hasta la muralla de Ofel. 28 Los sacerdotes repararon arriba de la Puerta de los Caballos, cada uno opuesto a su propia casa. 29 Después de ellos Sadoc hijo de Imer reparó la sección opuesta a su propia casa. Y después de él, Semaías hijo de Secanías, el portero de la puerta del este, reparó. 30 Después de él Hananías hijo de Selemías, y Hanún el sexto hijo de Salaf, reparó otra sección. Después de ellos Mesulam hijo de Berequías reparó al lado opuesto de sus viviendas. 31 Después de él, Malquías, uno de los orfebres, reparó hasta la casa de los sirvientes del templo y de los mercaderes que estaban opuesto a la Puerta de la Inspección y a las viviendas superiores en la esquina. 32 Los orfebres y los mercaderes repararon entre vivendas superiores de la esquina y la Puerta de las Ovejas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 3:1

Entonces Eliasib, el sumo sacerdote, se levantó con sus hermanos sacerdotes
"Entonces Eliashib el sumo sacerdote se adelantó con sus hermanos, los sacerdotes"

Eliasib...Zacur, hijo de Imri.
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Torre de los Cien
"Torre de los 100"

Torre de Hananeel
Este es el nombre de una torre. Probablemente lleva el nombre de un hombre llamado "Hananel".

hombres de Jericó
Esto significa que los hombres eran de Jericó. Traducción Alterna: "hombres de Jericó"

Nehemiah 3:3

Senaa...Meremot..Urías...Cos...Mesulam...Berequías...Mesezabeel...Sadoc...Baana.
Estos son nombres de hombres.

establecieron sus puertas
"instaló sus puertas" o "colocó sus puertas en su lugar"

y sus cerrojos y sus barras
"Sus cerraduras y rejas". Estas cerraron las puertas de forma segura.

Meremot reparó la próxima sección...Mesulam reparaba...Sadoc reparó...Tecoítas reparaban.
Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "Meremot reparó la siguiente sección del muro ... Mesulam reparó el muro ... Sadok reparó el muro ... los Tecoítas reparaban el muro"

los Tecoítas
Estas son personas de la ciudad de Tecoa.

ordenado por sus supervisores
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que sus supervisores les habían ordenado hacer"

Nehemiah 3:6

Joiada...Paseah y Mesulam...Besodías...Melatías...Jadón
Estos son nombres de hombres.

establecieron sus puertas
"instaló sus puertas" o "colocó sus puertas en su lugar"

y sus cerrojos y sus barras
"Sus cerraduras y rejas". Estas cerraron las puertas de forma segura.

Gabaonita...Merotonita
Gabaonitas y Merotonitas son grupos de personas

Gabaón y Mizpa
Estos son nombres de lugares.

la provincia , más allá del Río.
Este es el nombre de la provincia que estaba al oeste del río Eufrates. Estaba al otro lado del río de la ciudad de Susa. Traduce como en 2: 7.

Nehemiah 3:8

Uzie...Harhaía...Hananías...Refarías...Hur..Jedaías...Harumaf, ...Hatús...
Estos son nombres de hombres:

orfebres
Un orfebre es una persona que hace joyas de oro y otros objetos de oro.

orfebres , reparó...Hur reparaba...Harumaf reparaba...Hasabnías reparaba Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "los orfebres repararon el muro ... Hur reparó el muro ... Harumaf reparó el muro ... Hasabnías reparó el muro"

y junto a él estaba Hananías, un hacedor de perfumes Hananías también reparó la pared. Traducción Alterna: "junto a él, Hananías, un fabricante de perfumes, reparó la pared"

Perfumes
Sustancias líquidas que las personas ponen en su cuerpo en pequeñas cantidades para oler agradable.

Gobernante
Jefe administrador o líder

Mitad del distrito
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

Nehemiah 3:11

Malquías...Harim...Hasub...Pahat Moab...Salum...Halohes
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

reparaba otra sección...reparaba en conjunto con sus hijas.
Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "reparó otra sección de la pared ... reparó la pared, junto con sus hijas"

Salum, hijo de Halohes, el gobernante
El gobernante era Salum , no Halohes.

Gobernante
Jefe administrador o líder

mitad del distrito
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 3:13

Hanún
Este es el nombre de un hombre

los habitantes de Zanoa personas de Zanoa (UDB)

Zanoa
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Puerta del valle
"la Puerta del Valle" o "la Puerta que Conduce al Valle" Intente traducir esta expresión como un nombre, no solo como una descripción.

pusieron sus puertas
"instaló sus puertas" o "colocó sus puertas en su lugar"

Sus cerrojos y sus barras
"Sus cerraduras y rejas". Estas cerraron las puertas de forma segura.

Ellos repararon mil codos tan lejos hasta la Puerta del Muladar.
Repararon la parte de la pared entre la Puerta del Valle y la Puerta del Muladar. Traducción Alterna: "Repararon mil codos del muro, desde la puerta del valle hasta la Puerta del Muladar"

Ellos repararon mil codos
Las palabras que faltan "de la pared" se pueden agregar. Traducción Alterna: "Repararon mil codos del muro" "Repararon otros mil codos del muro más allá de la Puerta del Valle"

mil codos
"1.000 codos". Esto puede escribirse en unidades de medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "460 metros"

Puerta del muladar
Presumiblemente, los desechos fueron retirados de la ciudad a través de esta puerta. Trate de traducir esta expresión como un nombre, no solo como una descripción.

Nehemiah 3:14

Malquías...Recab...Shallun...Col Hoze
Estos son nombres de hombres

Malquías hijo de Recab, dirigente Malquías era el dirigente, no Recab.

dirigente
El jefe "administrador" o "líder"

Bet Haquerem
Este es el nombre de un lugar

El...estableció sus puertas
"instaló sus puertas" o "colocó sus puertas en su lugar"

sus cerrojos y sus barras
"sus cerraduras y rejas". Estos cerraron las puertas de forma segura.

Salum hijo de Col Hoze, el gobernante Salum era el gobernante, no Col Hoze.

el muro del Estanque de Siloé Esto significa que la pared estaba al lado del estanque de Siloé. Traducción Alterna: "el muro que rodeaba el estanque de Siloé"

Nehemiah 3:16

Nehemías hijo de Azbuc, el gobernante
Nehemías era el gobernante , no Azbuc

Nehemías
Este es un hombre diferente de la persona que escribió este libro llamado también Nehemías.

gobernante
Jefe administrador o líder

mitad del distrito
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

Nehemías...Azbuc...Rehum...Bani...Hasabías
Estos son nombres de hombres

Bet Sur ...Keila
Estos son nombres de lugares.

reparó hasta el lugar...los Levitas repararon Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "reparó la pared hasta el lugar ... los levitas repararon la pared"

hombres poderosos
"guerreros"

para su distrito
"representando a su distrito" o "en nombre de su distrito"

Nehemiah 3:18

Después de él
Al lado de él

sus compatriotas repararon...reparó otra secció
Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "Junto a él, sus compatriotas repararon el muro ... repararon otra sección del muro"

Bavai...Henadad...Ezer...Jesúa
Estos son nombres de hombre

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Bavai hijo de Henadad
Bavai era el gobernante, no Henadad.

Keila...Mizpa
Estos son nombres de lugares

Ezer hijo de Jesúa, el gobernante Ezer era el gobernante , no Jesúa

a la subida al arsenal
"Frente a los escalones que subían a la armería" (UDB)

arsenal
el lugar donde se guardan las armas

Nehemiah 3:20

Después de él
junto a él

Baruc..Zabbai...Eliasib...Meremot....Uriah...Cos
Estos son nombres de hombres

reparó otra sección
Esto se refiere a reparar la pared. Traducción Alterna: "reparó otra sección de la pared"

Nehemiah 3:22

alrededor de Jerusalén, repararon...Benjamín y Hasub repararón...Azarías reparó...Bunúi reparó Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "alrededor de Jerusalén, reparó el muro ... Hashub reparó el muro ... Azarías reparó el muro ... Bunúi reparó el muro"

Benjamín...Hasub...Azarías..Maasías...Ananías...Bunúi...Henadad reparó
Estos son nombres de hombres

opuesto a sus propias casas
"en frente de su propia casa"

Después de ellos ...Después de él
Junto a ellos... Junto a él

Nehemiah 3:25

Palal...Uzai...Pedaías...Faros
Estos son nombres de hombres

Uzai reparó...Faros reparó...
Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. AT: "Uzai reparó el muro ... Parosh reparó el muro ... los sirvientes repararon el muro ... repararon otra sección del muro"

Después de él
A su lado

la torre que se extiende desde
"la torre que se levanta"

casa superior del rey
"palacio superior del líder de Israel"

el patio del vigilante
Este es el lugar donde se quedaron los guardias.

Ofel
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

punto opuesto de la Puerta de Aguas
"frente a la puerta del agua"

la torre sobresaliente... la gran torre que sobresalía
"la torre alta ... la torre alta". La frase "la torre sobresaliente" significa una torre alta que sobresale de la pared. Es probable que ambas frases se refieran a la misma torre.

Los tecoítas
Estas son personas del pueblo de Tecoa. Traduzca esto de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:3.

Nehemiah 3:28

sacerdotes repararon...reparó la sección...puerta del este,reparó..reparó otra sección...reparó al lado opuesto Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "los sacerdotes repararon la pared ... repararon la sección de la pared ... puerta del este, repararon la pared ... repararon otra sección de la pared ... repararon la pared de enfrente"

arriba de la Puerta de los Caballos La palabra "arriba" se usa aquí porque las casas de los sacerdotes probablemente estaban ubicadas en una elevación más alta que la Puerta de los Caballos.

opuesto a su propia casa
"frente a su propia casa"

Después de ellos... después de él
Al lado de elos... al lado de él

Sadoc...Imer...Semaías...Secanías...Hananías...Selemías...Hanún...Salaf..
Estos son nombres de hombres

Semaías hijo de Secanías, el portero de la puerta Semaías era el guardián de la puerta este, no Secanías.

el portero de la puerta del este
"la persona que se ocupó de la puerta este" o "la persona que abrió y cerró la puerta este"

el sexto hijo
"el sexto hijo"

al lado opuesto de sus viviendas.
"En frente de las habitaciones donde se quedó". La palabra "su" se refiere a Mesulam.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 3:31

Después de él
"Al lado de él"

Malquías
Este es el hombre de un hombre

orfebres
Un orfebre es una persona que fabrica joyas de oro y otros objetos de oro.

reparó hasta la casa ... los mercaderes repararon Estas frases se refieren a la reparación de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "reparó la pared de la casa ... los comerciantes repararon la pared" mercaderes

"vendedores" o "comerciantes" vivendas superiores

las habitaciones de nivel superior donde se alojaban las personas

Puerta de las Ovejas
Este es el nombre de una entrada en la pared

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Ahora cuando Sanbalat oyó de que estábamos construyendo la muralla, algo se encendió dentro de él y estaba muy furioso y comenzó a burlarse de los Judíos. 2 En presencia de sus hermanos y del ejército de Samaria, él dijo: ¿Qué están haciendo estos débiles Judíos? ¿Podrán restaurar la cuidad ellos mismos? ¿Podrán ofrecer sacrificios? ¿Podrán terminar el trabajo en un día? ¿ Podrán traer a la vida las piedras de los montones de ruinas que resultaron cuando fueron quemadas? 3 Tobías el Amonita estaba con él y dijo:"Si solo una zorra se sube a donde ellos están construyendo, derribaría su muralla de piedra". 4 Escucha, nuestro Dios, que nos menosprecian. Devuelve sus burlas a sí mismos y entrégalos a que sean saqueados en la tierra donde son prisioneros. 5 No cubras su iniquidad ni borres sus pecados delante de Tí, porque ellos han provocado a ira a los que construyen. 6 Así que construimos el muro y todo estaba construido hasta la mitad de su altura porque la gente tenía deseos de trabajar. 7 Pero cuando Sanbalat, Tobías, los Árabes, los Amonitas y los Asdodeos oyeron que el trabajo de reconstrucción del muro de Jerusalén avanzaba y que las partes rotas estaban siendo cerradas, una gran ira se encendió en ellos. 8 Todos se juntaron para conspirar y vinieron a pelear en contra de Jerusalén y a causar confusión en ella. 9 Pero nosotros oramos a nuestro Dios y asignamos a un guardia para protegernos de ellos día y noche a causa de sus amenazas. 10 Luego la gente de Judá dijo:" La fuerza de los que transportan la carga se está debilitando. Hay demasiado escombros y no somos capaces de reconstruir la muralla." 11 Y nuestros enemigos dijeron:" Ellos no sabrán ni verán hasta que vayamos a ellos y los matemos y detengámos el trabajo 12 En ese tiempo los Judíós que vivían cerca de ellos vinieron de todas direcciones y hablaron con nosotros diez veces, advirtíendonos de los esquemas que estaban tramando en contra de nosotros. 13 Entonces yo coloqué personas en la parte más baja de la muralla, en las áreas expuestas. Coloqué a cada familia con sus espadas, lanzas y arcos. 14 Y yo miré, me levanté y les dije a los nobles, a los dirigentes y al resto del pueblo: "No le tengan miedo". Traigan a su memoria al Señor, quién es grande e impresionante. Luchen por sus familias, por sus hijos e hijas, sus esposas y sus casas. 15 Sucedió que cuando nuestros enemigos oyeron que sus planes fueron revelados a nosotros y Dios había frustrado sus planes, todos nosotros volvimos al muro cada uno a su tarea. 16 Así que para ese tiempo la mitad de mis siervos trabajaron sólo en la reconstrucción del muro, la otra mitad sostenían lanzas, escudos, arcos y usaban armadura, mientras los líderes se mantenían detrás de todo el pueblo de Judá. 17 Entonces los mismos trabajadores que estaban construyendo el muro y llevando la carga también vigilaban sus posiciones. Todos trabajaban con una mano y con la otra sostenía sus armas. 18 Todo constructor portaba su espada en su lado y así era que trabajaban. El que tocaba la trompeta se quedaba en mi lado. 19 Yo le dije a los nobles, a los oficiales y al resto del pueblo: "El trabajo es grande y extensivo y estamos separados en el muro lejos uno del otro. 20 Deben moverse rápido al sitio donde oigan el sonido de trompeta y reunirse allí. Nuestro Dios peleará por nosotros. 21 Así nosotros estábamos haciendo la obra. La mitad de nosotros sosteníamos las espadas desde el amanecer hasta que salida de las estrellas. 22 También le dije al pueblo:" Permitan a cada hombre y su sierviente pasar la noche dentro de Jerusalén, para que nos sirva de guardia durante la noche y constructor durante el día. 23 Así que ni yo, ni mis hermanos, ni mis sirvientes, ni los hombres de la guardia que me siguen, ninguno de nosotros cambió nuestras ropas, cada uno de nosotros cargó sus armas, aún si fuéramos a buscar agua.

Nehemiah 4:1

Ahora cuando Sanbalat
Aquí Nehemías usa la palabra "ahora" para señalar una nueva parte de la historia.

Sanbalat...Tobías
Estos son nombres de hombres. Traducir como en 2:9

algo se encendió dentro de él y estaba muy furioso Aquí "algo" se refiere a la comprensión de Sanbalat de que los judíos están reconstruyendo los muros. Esto se refiere a que Sanbalat se enojó mucho como si su ira fuera un fuego ardiente. Traducción Alternativa: "se enojó furiosamente" o "se enojó mucho"

En presencia de sus hermanos
"En presencia de sus parientes" o "En presencia de su clan"

Qué están haciendo estos débiles...Podrán restaurar...Podrán ofrecer ...¿Podrán terminar el trabajo en un día?
Sanbalat plantea estas preguntas para burlarse de los judíos. Estos pueden ser escritos como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Estos débiles judíos no pueden lograr nada. Nunca restaurarán la ciudad por sí mismos. No ofrecerán sacrificios. No terminarán el trabajo en un día".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

débiles judíos
débiles Judíos

en un día
Esto se refiere a no terminar algo rápidamente al decir que no se puede lograr en un día. Tranducción Alterna: "rápidamente"

¿ Podrán traer a la vida las piedras de los montones de ruinas que resultaron cuando fueron quemadas?
Sanbalat también plantea esta pregunta para burlarse de los judíos. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No volverán a dar vida a las piedras de las pilas de escombros que se quemaron".

traer a la vida las piedras de los montones de ruinas que resultaron cuando fueron quemadas Esto habla de las personas que reconstruyen la ciudad como si la devolvieran a la vida. Traducción Alterna: "restaurar la ciudad y reconstruir sus muros con las piedras inútiles que fueron quemadas y convertidas en escombros"

de los montones de ruinas que resultaron cuando fueron quemadas Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "de pilas de escombros que alguien había quemado"

Si solo una zorra se sube a donde ellos están construyendo, derribaría su muralla de piedra Sanabalat se burla de la pared y exagera lo débil que es al decir que un zorro podría derribarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Ese muro que están construyendo es tan débil que incluso si un pequeño zorro trepara sobre él, su muro de piedra se caería al suelo"

Nehemiah 4:4

Escucha, nuestro Dios,...porque ellos han provocado a ira a los que construyen Aquí Nehemías está orando a Dios. Esto se puede establecer claramente y escrito con comillas. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces oré," Escucha, Dios nuestro ... porque han provocado la ira de los constructores ""

Escucha, nuestro Dios, que nos menosprecian Aquí la palabra "nosotros" se refiere a los judíos. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Escucha, Dios nuestro, porque nuestros enemigos nos desprecian".

entrégalos a que sean saqueados
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "deja que sus enemigos los roben"

Devuelve sus burlas a sí mismos
La frase "sus burlas" se refiere a los insultos de Sanballat y Tobiah. Aquí la palabra "cabezas" se refiere a todo el pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Convierta sus burlas en sí mismos" o "Haga que sus palabras insultantes se burlen de sí mismos"

No cubras
Esto habla de perdonar los pecados de una persona como si fueran un objeto que podría estar físicamente oculto. Traducción Alterna: "No perdonar"

ni borres sus pecados delante de Tí Esto habla de olvidar los pecados de una persona como si fueran algo escrito que pudiera borrarse. Traducción Alterna: "no olvides sus pecados

ellos han provocado a ira a los que construyen
"Han enojado a los constructores"

Así que construimos el muro
"Así que reconstruimos el muro"

todo estaba construido hasta la mitad de su altura Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "unimos la pared y tenía la mitad de su altura total"

la mitad de su altura
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

Nehemiah 4:7

una gran ira se encendió en ellos Esto habla de que la gente está muy enojada como si su ira fuera algo que ardiera dentro de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "se enojaron mucho" o "se enfurecieron"

en contra de Jerusalén Aquí "Jerusalén" se refiere a las personas que viven allí. Traducción Alterna: "contra el pueblo de Jerusalén" asignamos a un guardia para protegernos

"poner hombres alrededor del muro para proteger la ciudad" (UDB)

Nehemiah 4:10

Hay demasiado escombros
Los escombros son "piedra quemada" o "roca rota" o "piedra inutilizable".

Ellos no sabrán ni verán hasta que vayamos a ellos
"No nos verán venir hasta que estemos a su lado"

Nehemiah 4:12

de todas direcciones Esto representa muchas direcciones. La palabra "todos" representa "muchos". Traducción Alterna: "desde muchas direcciones"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hablaron con nosotros diez veces Aquí el número 10 se usa para representar "muchos". Traducción Alterna: "nos habló muchas veces"

en las áreas expuestas en las áreas vulnerables

Coloqué a cada familia
Esto se refiere a varias personas de cada familia, esto probablemente no incluye a las mujeres y los niños. Traducción Alterna: "Coloqué personas de cada familia"

Traigan a su memoria la frase "Traigan a su memoria" significa recordar. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda al Señor"

Nehemiah 4:15

Sucedió que
"Sucedió eso"

sus planes fueron revelados a nosotros Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "sabíamos sobre sus planes" mis siervos trabajaron

"mis hombres jóvenes trabajaron"

mitad de mis siervos...la otra mitad
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

Nehemiah 4:17

Todos trabajaban con una mano y con la otra sostenía sus armas
Esto es una exageración. No siempre trabajaban con una sola mano, pero siempre llevaban su arma con ellos para estar preparados para protegerse y proteger a quienes los rodeaban.

Nehemiah 4:19

Yo le dije
Aquí, "Yo" se refiere a Nehemías

los nobles...los oficiales
Estos son los líderes mencionados en 4:15.

El trabajo es grande
Aquí la palabra "grande" significa "a gran escala" o "enorme".

el sonido de trompeta
Esto se refiere a alguien que toca una trompeta. Traducción Alterna: "alguien tocando una trompeta"

Nehemiah 4:21

La mitad de nosotros
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales.

desde el amanecer hasta que salida de las estrellas Esto se refiere a todo el día, mientras hay luz afuera. Traducción Alterna: "desde la primera luz del día hasta el comienzo de la noche"

el amanecer
Es el momento en que sale el sol que es "amanecer". Traducción Alterna: "la salida del sol" o "amanecer"

dentro de Jerusalén
"dentro de Jerusalén"

cambió nuestras ropas
"nos quitamos la ropa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Entonces los hombres y sus esposas levantaron una gran clamor en contra de sus compañeros judíos. 2 Pues habían algunos allí que dijeron: "Con nuestros hijos e hijas somos muchos. Así que permítanos obtener grano para que podamos comer y mantenernos vivos." 3 Habían otros más que dijeron: "Estamos empeñando nuestros campos, nuestros viñedos, y nuestras casas para obtener grano durante la hambruna." 4 Otros también dijeron: "Hemos tomado dinero prestado para pagar los impuestos del rey sobre nuestros campos y nuestros viñedos. 5 Todavía ahora nuestra carne y sangre es la misma como la de nuestros hermanos y nuestros hijos son los mismos como sus hijos. Somos forzados a vender nuestros hijos y nuestras hijas para que sean esclavos. Algunas de nuestras hijas ya han sido esclavizadas. Pero no está en nuestro poder ayudar, porque otros hombres ahora poseen nuestros campos y nuestros viñedos." 6 Yo estaba muy airado cuando escuché su gran clamor y estas palabras. 7 Entonces yo pensé sobre ésto y levanté cargos contra los nobles y oficiales. Les dije a ellos: "Ustedes están exigiendo interés, cada uno de su propio hermano." Llevé a cabo una gran asamblea contra ellos 8 y les dije a ellos: "Nosotros, tanto como somos capaces, hemos vuelto a comprar de la esclavitud a nuestros hermanos judíos, quienes han sido vendidos a las naciones, porque incluso ustedes venden sus hermanos y hermanas para que ellos puedan ser vendidos de vuelta a nosotros!" Ellos estaban en silencio y nunca encontraron una palabra para decir. 9 También dije: "Lo que ustedes están haciendo no es bueno. ¿No deberían andar en el temor de nuestro Dios para prevenir las burlas de las naciones que son nuestras enemigas? 10 Yo y mis hermanos y mis siervos les estamos prestando dinero y grano a ellos. Pero debemos parar de cobrar interés sobre estos préstamos. 11 Devuélvanle en este mismo día sus campos, sus viñedos, sus olivares y sus casas y el porcentaje del dinero, el grano, el vino nuevo y el aceite que ustedes exigieron de ellos." 12 Luego ellos dijeron: "Devolveremos lo que tomamos de ellos y no requeriremos nada de ellos. Haremos como usted dice." Entonces llamé a los sacerdotes y los hice jurar hacer como ellos habían prometido. 13 Yo sacudí el pliegue de mi túnica y dije: "Que Dios sacuda fuera de su casa y posesiones a todo hombre que no mantiene su promesa. Que él sea sacudido y vaciado." Toda la asamblea dijo: "Amén", y ellos alabaron a EL SEÑOR. Y el pueblo hizo como ellos habían prometido. 14 Así que desde el tiempo que fui señalado para ser su gobernador en la tierra de Judá, desde el año veinte hasta el año treintidos de Artajerjes el rey, doce años, ni yo ni mis hermanos comimos la comida provista por el gobernador. 15 Pero los antiguos gobernadores que estuvieron antes de mí, pusieron cargas pesadas sobre el pueblo y tomaron de ellos cuarenta siclos de plata para su porción diaria de comida y vino. Incluso sus siervos oprimieron al pueblo. Pero yo no lo hice, por el temor a Dios. 16 Yo continué trabajando en el muro, y no compramos tierras. Y todos mis siervos se reunieron allí para el trabajo. 17 En mi mesa estaban los judíos y los oficiales, ciento cincuenta hombres, aparte de aquellos que vinieron a nosotros de entre las naciones que nos rodeaban. 18 Ahora lo que estaba preparado cada día era un buey, seis ovejas escogidas y también aves y cada diez días toda clase de vino en abundancia. Y aún para todo ésto yo no exigí la remesa de alimento del gobernador, porque las exigencias eran demasiado pesadas sobre el pueblo. 19 Trae a mi memoria, mi Dios, para bien, por todo lo que he hecho por este pueblo.

Nehemiah 5:1

Entonces los hombres y sus esposas levantaron una gran clamor en contra de sus compañeros judíos
Como trabajaban en el muro, los trabajadores no tenían tiempo suficiente para comprar y cultivar alimentos para sus familias. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar.

los hombres y sus esposas
Esto se refiere a los hombres que estaban trabajando en la construcción del muro.

levantaron una gran clamor
La palabra "clamor" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "gritó en voz alta"

Estamos empeñando nuestros campos
"Tenemos que comprometernos" o "Tenemos que dar una promesa"

Nehemiah 5:4

Todavía ahora nuestra carne y sangre es la misma como la de nuestros hermanos y nuestros hijos son los mismos como sus hijos.
Aquí los judíos están insinuando que son de la misma ascendencia judía que los otros judíos y que tienen la misma importancia que los demás. El significado de esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Sin embargo, nuestras familias son judías al igual que las familias de los otros judíos, y nuestros hijos son tan importantes para nosotros como sus hijos lo son para ellos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

nuestra carne y sangre
Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a los miembros de su familia. Traducción Alterna: "nuestra familia"

Algunas de nuestras hijas ya han sido esclavizadas.
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ya hemos vendido a algunas de nuestras hijas como esclavas"

Pero no está en nuestro poder ayudar, porque otros hombres ahora poseen nuestros campos y nuestros viñedos.
Como los campos y viñedos de los hombres no están en su poder, no pueden producir el dinero que necesitan para mantener a sus familias. El significado completo de esto se puede aclarar .Traducción Alterna: "Pero no podemos cambiar esta situación porque otros hombres ahora son dueños de nuestros campos y nuestros viñedos que necesitamos para mantener nuestras vidas".

no está en nuestro poder
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa que no tienen los recursos para hacer algo. Traducción Alterna: "no podemos"

Nehemiah 5:6

cuando escuché su gran clamor
La palabra "clamor" puede ser expresada como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando los escuché gritar"

Ustedes están exigiendo interés, cada uno de su propio hermano
Todo judío habría sabido que es incorrecto según la Ley cobrar intereses a otro judío. El significado completo de esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Cada uno de ustedes está cobrando intereses a su propio hermano, y eso está mal bajo la Ley"

Llevé a cabo una gran asamblea contra ellos Esto significa que reunió a un gran grupo de personas y presentó estos cargos contra ellos. El significado de la declaración esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Realicé una gran asamblea y presenté estos cargos contra ellos" o "Los mantuve en juicio frente a la asamblea"

porque incluso ustedes venden sus hermanos y hermanas para que ellos puedan ser vendidos de vuelta a nosotros Esto significa que están vendiendo a sus familiares como esclavos a sus compañeros judíos. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora estás vendiendo a tu propia gente para ser esclavos de tus compañeros judíos, para que luego nos los vuelvan a vender"

quienes han sido vendidos a las naciones
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quién la gente había vendido como esclavo a las naciones"

Nehemiah 5:9

También dije
El pronombre "yo" se refiere a Nehemías.

Lo que ustedes están haciendo
"Usted" aquí se refiere a los nobles judíos.

¿No deberían andar en el temor de nuestro Dios para prevenir las burlas de las naciones que son nuestras enemigas?
Esta es una pregunta retórica que Nehemías está usando para regañar a los nobles. Se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Debes caminar en el temor de nuestro Dios para evitar las burlas de las naciones que son nuestros enemigos".

andar en el temor de nuestro Dios Esto es una expresión idiomática. Aquí "caminar" se refiere al comportamiento de una persona y la forma en que vive. Traducción Alterna: "vive tu vida de una manera que honre a Dios". .

para prevenir las burlas de las naciones que son nuestras enemigas La palabra "burla" significa "calumnia" o "burla" y se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "las naciones que son nuestros enemigos de burlarse de nosotros" o "las naciones enemigas de burlarse de nosotros"

prestando
pedir prestado o dar algo a alguien que espera un reembolso

préstamos
Este es cualquier dinero, comida o propiedad que una persona podría dejar que otra persona pida prestada para pagar deudas. El prestatario estaría entonces en deuda con el prestamista

porcentaje
Una parte del valor del préstamo que se le cobró al prestatario en intereses.

ustedes exigieron de ellos
"les cobraste" o "les hiciste pagar"

Nehemiah 5:12

Luego ellos dijeron
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a Líderes Judíos

Devolveremos lo que tomamos de ellos y no requeriremos nada de ellos
Los líderes judíos dicen que devolverán el dinero que los judíos más pobres pagaron en intereses.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los hice jurar
Aquí la palabra "ellos" se refiere a los líderes judíos.

Entonces llamé
"Yo" se refiere a Nehemías.

Yo sacudí el pliegue de mi túnica
"Sacudí los bolsillos de mi túnica". Muchas veces en el Antiguo Testamento, los juramentos se demostraron físicamente como testigos de lo prometido. Nehemías está demostrando a los líderes judíos lo que sucederá si rompen la promesa que hicieron.

Que Dios sacuda fuera de su casa...Que él sea sacudido y vaciado Aquí Nehemías habla de Dios quitando todas las posesiones de un hombre como si Dios lo estuviera sacudiendo de su hogar y posesiones como Nehemías sacudieron su túnica. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces, que Dios le quite a cada hombre que no cumple su promesa todas sus posesiones y su hogar como si hubiera sacado todo del pliegue de mi túnica"

Nehemiah 5:14

desde el tiempo que fui señalado Aquí "fui" se refiere a Nehemías desde el año veinte hasta el año treintidos segundo año - "desde el vigésimo año hasta el año 32"

de Artajerjes el rey,
"que Artajerjes era rey"

doce años
"12 años" o "durante esos 12 años". Nehemías está reafirmando el número de años para enfatizar que hizo esto continuamente durante todo el tiempo que fue gobernador.

la comida provista por el gobernador Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "comió la comida que la gente le proporcionó al gobernador"

por su diaria
"todos los días por su"

antiguos gobernadores
"gobernadores anteriores" o "gobernadores del pasado". Nehemías no fue el primer gobernador de Judá.

cuarenta siclos
"40 séquels" o "40 monedas de plata"

Pero yo no lo hice, por el temor a Dios.
"Pero debido a mi temor a Dios, no tomé la comida" o "Pero no tomé la comida porque temía a Dios"

Nehemiah 5:16

Yo continué
"Yo" Se refiere a Nehemías

compramos
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a Nehemías y sus sirvientes.

Y todos mis siervos se reunieron Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Reuní a todos mis servidores allí"

para el trabajo
"trabajar en la pared"

En mi mesa estaban los judíos...de entre las naciones que nos rodeaban Nehemías fue responsable de proporcionar alimentos a todas estas personas. Esto se puede afirmar claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Además, todos los días era responsable de alimentar en nuestra mesa a los judíos y los funcionarios, 150 personas; y también alimentamos a los visitantes que vinieron de otros países que nos rodean mi mesa

Esto se refiere a la mesa del gobernador. Era una mesa comunal para la comunidad y para la discusión de temas.

oficiales
"líderes del gobierno"

Nehemiah 5:18

Información general

Ahora lo que estaba preparado cada día Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cada día les decía a mis sirvientes que se prepararan" o "Cada día les decía a mis sirvientes que nos sirvieran la carne" vino en abundancia suficiente vino para todos

Y aún para todo ésto yo no exigí la remesa de alimento del gobernador
"Sin embargo, nunca pedí la asignación de alimentos del gobernador"

Trae a mi memoria
Esta es una expresión idiomática.Es una petición para que Dios piense en él y lo recuerde. Traducción Alterna: "Recordarme" para bien

Este modismo es una solicitud para que Dios lo recompense con cosas buenas por el bien que ha hecho por la gente. Traducción Alterna: "y recompensarme" o "hacer que me pase algo bueno"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Ahora cuando Sanbalat, Tobías y Gesem el Árabe y el resto de nuestros enemigos escucharon que yo había reconstruído el muro y que ya no quedaba ninguna sección rota, aunque todavá yo no había puesto las puertas. 2 Sanbalat y Gesem me enviaron a decir: "Vengan, vamos a encontarnos en algún lugar en el llano Ono." Pero ellos intentaron hacerme daño. 3 Yo envié mensajeros a donde ellos diciendo: "Estoy haciendo una gran obra y no puedo bajar. ¿Por qué la obra debería detenerse mientras la dejo para bajar a donde ustedes?" 4 Ellos me enviaron el mismo mensaje cuatro veces, y yo les contesté de la misma forma cada vez. 5 Sanbalat envió su sirviente a donde mí de la misma manera la quinta vez, con una carta abierta en su mano. 6 En ella estaba escrito: "Ha sido reportado entre las naciones, y Gesem también lo dice, que tú y los Judíos están planificando rebelarse, por eso es que están reconstruyendo el muro. Según lo que dice este reporte, tú serás el rey de ellos. 7 Y tú también has designado profetas que proclamen acerca de ti en Jerusalén, diciendo: '¡Hay rey en Judá!' Tú puedes estar seguro que el rey escuchará estos reportes. Por lo tanto, permítannos hablar los unos con los otros." 8 Entonces yo envié palabra a él diciendo: "Ninguna que tales cosas han ocurrido como tú dices, porque dentro de tu corazón tú las inventaste." 9 Porque todos querían hacer que tuviéramos miedo, pensando: "Ellos dejarán de hacer el trabajo, y no será hecho." Pero ahora, Dios, por favor fortalece mis manos. 10 Yo fui a la casa de Semaías, hijo de Delaía, hijo de Mehetabel, que estaba confinado en su casa. Él dijo: "Vamos a reunirnos en la casa de Dios, dentro del templo, y cerremos las puertas del templo, porque ellos vienen a matarte. En la noche ellos vendrán a matarte." 11 Yo respondí: "¿Un hombre como yo huiría? Y un hombre como yo, ¿entraría al templo sólo para poder vivir? Yo no entraré!" 12 Me di cuenta que no fue Dios quien lo envió, sino que él había profetizado en mi contra. Tobías y Sanbalat lo habían contratado. 13 Ellos lo contrataron para que yo tuviera miedo, para que yo hiciera lo que él decía y pecara, para que así ellos pudieran desacreditarme y de esta manera humillarme. 14 Trae a tu mente a Tobías y Sanbalat, mi Dios, y todo lo que ellos hicieron. También trae a tu mente la profetiza Noadías y al resto de los profetas quienes trataron de intimidarme. 15 Así que el muro fue terminado en el día veinticinco del mes de Elul, después de cincuenta y dos días. 16 Cuando todos nuestros enemigos escucharon de ésto, todas las naciones alrededor nuestro se sintieron atemorizados y ellos decayeron grandemente en su propia estima. Porque sabían que la obra había sido hecha con la ayuda de nuestro Dios. 17 En este tiempo los nobles de Judá enviaron muchas cartas a Tobías, y las cartas de Tobías llegaron a ellos. 18 Porque habían muchos en Judá quienes estaban atados a él por un juramento, porque él era el yerno de Secanías hijo de Ara. Su hijo Johanán había tomado como su esposa a la hija de Mesulam hijo de Berequías. 19 Ellos también me hablaron acerca de sus buenas obras y reportaron mis palabras a él. Cartas de Tobías fueron enviadas a mí para asustarme.

Nehemiah 6:1

Sanbalat, Tobías, y Gesem
Estos son nombres de hombres. Traducir esto como en el 2:9

yo había reconstruído el muro...aunque todavía Nehemías supervisó la reconstrucción del muro. No lo construyó solo. Traducción Alterna: "habíamos reconstruido el muro ... todavía no"

ninguna sección
Esto se refiere a secciones de la pared. Traducción Alterna: "cualquier sección de la pared deja abierta" o "cualquier espacio en la pared de la ciudad"

me enviaron
Esto significa que enviaron un mensajero con un mensaje. Traducción Alterna: "me envió un mensajero"

Ono
Este es el nombre de un lugar

Nehemiah 6:3

Estoy haciendo una gran obra
Nehemías estaba supervisando la reconstrucción del muro. No lo estaba construyendo él mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy supervisando un gran trabajo"

¿Por qué la obra debería detenerse mientras la dejo para bajar a donde ustedes?
Esta pregunta retórica se utiliza para desafiar la solicitud de Sanbalat. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No puedo dejar que el trabajo se detenga y llegue a ti"

bajar a donde ustedes
La palabra "abajo" se usa aquí porque la llanura de Ono, donde estaban pidiendo a Nehemías que

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

venga, se encuentra a una altura más baja que Jerusalén.

Nehemiah 6:5

Sanbalat envió su sirviente a donde mí de la misma manera la quinta vez
"Sanbalat me envió a su sirviente de la misma manera por quinta vez". Identificar este mensaje por separado significa que es distinto de alguna manera de los cuatro mensajes anteriores y, por lo tanto, debe tenerse en cuenta.

la quinta vez
"la quinta vez"

una carta abierta
La carta era una comunicación diplomática no sellada. Esto fue un insulto para el destinatario porque el servicio de mensajería era libre de leerlo y difundir su contenido entre la gente de la región.

en su mano
Esto significa que tenía la carta en su poder, pero no necesariamente la llevaba en la mano en todo momento. Traducción Alterna: "en su poder"

Ha sido reportado entre las naciones Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El rumor en la región es".

están planificando rebelarse
Esto significa que planean rebelarse contra Artajerjes, el rey rey persa, que actualmente estaba oprimiendo a los judíos. Traducción Alterna: "planean rebelarse contra Artajerjes"

Nehemiah 6:7

el rey escuchará
"el rey Artajerjes oirá"

Por lo tanto
"Por lo tanto, ven a conocernos"

Nehemiah 6:8

Entonces yo envié palabra a él
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Nehemías y "él" a Sanbalat.

Ninguna que tales cosas han ocurrido como tú dices
"Ninguna de las cosas que dices ha ocurrido"

porque dentro de tu corazón tú las inventaste Aquí el "corazón" se refiere a la "mente", es decir, a los deseos y pensamientos de uno. Traducción Alterna: "porque dentro de tu mente los invertiste" o "porque lo inventaste en tu propia imaginación"

Porque todos querían hacer que tuviéramos miedo
Aquí "ellos" se refieren a los enemigos de Nehemías, Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem y sus seguidores. La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a los judíos.

Ellos dejarán de hacer el trabajo Esta es una frase descriptiva que significa que están deteniendo su trabajo en la pared. Traducción Alterna: "Los trabajadores en la pared dejarán de hacer el trabajo" fortalece mis manos.

Aquí Nehemías le pide a Dios que lo fortalezca al pedirle que fortalezca sus "manos". Traducción Alterna "fortaléceme" o "dame coraje"

Nehemiah 6:10

Semaías...Delaía...Mehetabel
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

que estaba confinado en su casa
El escritor no da la razón de su confinamiento, por lo que es mejor decir que se quedó en casa usando las palabras más generales posibles. Traducción Alterna: "a quien las autoridades habían ordenado quedarse en su casa"

¿Un hombre como yo huiría? Y un hombre como yo, ¿entraría al templo sólo para poder vivir?
Nehemías usa estas preguntas retóricas para enfatizar que él no hará lo que Semaías ha sugerido. Estas preguntas pueden escribirse como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre como yo no huiría. Y un hombre como yo no iría al templo solo para esconderse para mantenerse con vida".

Nehemiah 6:12

sino que él había profetizado
"porque él había profetizado"

y pecara
Usar el templo como un lugar para esconderse era pecaminoso. Puede ser útil hacer esto explícito. Traducción Alterna: "y pecar haciendo mal uso del templo

desacreditarme
Esta es una expresión idiomática.Traducción Alterna: "para que puedan darme una mala reputación" o "para que puedan dar un mal informe sobre mí"

Trae a tu mente
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

Noadías
Este es el nombre de una mujer

Nehemiah 6:15

Así que el muro fue terminado Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Terminamos el muro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en el día veinticinco del mes de Elul, quinto día del mes de Elul - "el día 25 del mes de Elul". "Elul" es el sexto mes del calendario hebreo.

después de cincuenta y dos días dos días - "52 días"

ellos decayeron grandemente en su propia estima
"pensaban mucho menos de sí mismos" o "perdieron la confianza en sí mismos"

la obra había sido hecha con la ayuda de nuestro Dios.
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "fue nuestro Dios quien nos ayudó a completar este trabajo"

Nehemiah 6:17

enviaron muchas cartas
Los nobles enviaron mensajeros para llevar estas cartas a Tobiah. Traducción Alterna: "envió muchos mensajeros con letras"

las cartas de Tobías llegaron Aquí las cartas de Tobías se personifican como si vinieran solas, cuando en realidad fueron traídas por mensajeros. Traducción Alterna: "Tobiás envió cartas" o "Tobías envió muchos mensajeros con cartas"

Tobías
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como lo hizo en

quienes estaban atados a él Esto habla de personas que son leales a Tobías porque le habían hecho un juramento como si su juramento fuera una cuerda que ataba sus cuerpos. Traducción Alterna: "que le hizo un juramento" o "que hizo un juramento y fue leal a él"

porque él era el yerno de Secanías cuñado de Secanías - Esto significa que Tobías estaba casado con la hija de Secanías. Traduzca el nombre "Secanías" como lo hizo en 3:28.

Ara…Jonahán
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Mesulam…Berequías
Estos son los nombres de hombres. Traduce como en 3: 3. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Ellos también me hablaron acerca de sus buenas obras y reportaron mis palabras a él
"Los nobles judíos me contaron sobre las buenas obras de Tobías y luego le contaron sobre mis respuestas"

Cartas de Tobías fueron enviadas Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Tobías envió mensajeros para llevar las cartas a Nehemías. Traducción Alterna: "Tobías me envió cartas" o "Tobías envió mensajeros para traerme cartas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Cuando la muralla fue terminada y yo coloqué las puertas en su lugar, y los porteros, y los cantantes y los levitas fueron designados, 2 Puse a mi hermano Hananí a cargo sobre Jerusalén, junto a Hananías, quien tenía la vigilancia de la fortaleza, pues él era un hombre fiel y temía a Dios más que muchos. 3 Y yo le dije a ellos: "No abran las puertas de Jerusalén hasta que caliente el sol. Mientras los porteros estén de guardia, pueden cerrar y asegurar las puertas. Designen guardias de los que viven en Jerusalén, algunos en la estación de guardia, y algunos en frente de sus casas." 4 Ahora, la ciudad era amplia y grande, pero había poca gente adentro de ella, y ninguna casa se había reconstruído. 5 Mi Dios puso en mi carazón que reuniera los nobles, los oficiales y el pueblo para enlistarlos por sus familias. Yo encontré El Libro de la Genealogía de aquellos que regresaron primero y encontré lo siguiente escrito en él. 6 "Estas son la personas de la provincia que subieron de la cautividad de esos exiliados a quien Nabucodonosor, el rey de Babilonia, tomó cautivo. Ellos regresaron a Jerusalén y a Judá, cada uno a su ciudad. 7 Ellos vinieron con Zorobabel, Jesúa, Nehemías, Azarías, Raamías, Nahamani, Mardoqueo, Bilsán, Misperet, Bigvai, Nehum y Baana. El número de los hombres del pueblo de Israel incluía lo siguiente: 8 Los descendientes de Paros, dos mil ciento setenta y dos. 9 Los descendientes de Sefatías, trescientos setenta y dos. 10 Los descendientes de Ara, seiscientos cincuenta y dos. 11 Los descendientes de Pahat Moab, a través de los descendientes de Jesúa y Joab, dos mil ochocientos dieciocho. 12 Los descendientes de Elam, mil doscientos cincuentra y cuatro. 13 Los descendientes de Zatu, ochocientos cuarenta y cinco. 14 Los descendientes de Zacai, setecientos sesenta. 15 Los descendientes de Binúi, seiscientos cuarenta y ocho. 16 Los descendientes de Bebai, seiscientos veintiocho. 17 Los descendientes de Azgad, dos mil trescientos veintidós. 18 Los descendientes de Adonicam, seiscientos sesenta y siete. 19 Los descendientes de Bigvai, dos mil sesenta y siete. 20 Los descendientes de Adín, seiscientos cincuenta y cinco. 21 Los descendientes de Ater, de Ezequías, noventa y ocho. 22 Los descendientes de Hasum, trescientos veintiocho. 23 Los descendientes de Bezai, trescientos veinticuatro. 24 Los descendientes de Harif, ciento doce. 25 Los descendientes de Gabaón, noventa y cinco. 26 Los hombres de Belén y Netofa, ciento ochenta y ocho. 27 Los hombres de Anatot, ciento veintiocho. 28 Los hombres de Bet Azmavet, cuarenta y dos. 29 Los hombres de Quiriat Jearim, Cafira y Beerot, setecientos cuarenta y tres. 30 Los hombres de Ramá y Geba seiscientos veintiúno. 31 Los hombres de Micmas, ciento veintidós. 32 Los hombres de Betel y Hai, ciento veintitrés. 33 Los hombres del otro Nebo, cincuenta y dos. 34 El pueblo del otro Elam, mil doscientos cincuenta y cuatro. 35 Los hombres de Harim, trescientos veinte. 36 Los hombres de Jericó, trescientos cuarenta y cinco. 37 Los hombres de Lod, Hadid y Ono, setecientos veintiúno. 38 Los hombres de Senaa, tres mil novecientos treinta. 39 Los sacerdotes: Los descendientes de Jedaías (de la casa de Jesúa), novecientos setenta y tres. 40 Los descendientes de Imer, mil cincuenta y dos. 41 Los descendientes de Pasur, mil doscientos cuarenta y siete. 42 Los descendientes de Harim, mil diecisiete. 43 Los Levitas: los descendientes de Jesúa, de Cadmiel, de Binui y de Hodavías, setenta y cuatro. 44 Los cantantes: los descendientes de Asaf, ciento cuarenta y ocho. 45 Los porteros de los descendientes de Salum, los descendientes de Ater, los descendientes de Talmón, los descendientes de Acub, los descendientes de Hatita, los descendientes de Sobai, ciento treinta y ocho. 46 Los sirvientes del templo: los descendientes de Ziha, los descendientes de Hasufa, los descendientes de Tabaot, 47 los descendientes de Queros, los descendientes de Siaha, los descendientes de Padón, 48 los descendientes de Lebana, los descendientes de Hagaba, los desciendientes de Salmai 49 los descendientes de Hanán, los descendientes de Gidel, los descendientes de Gahar. 50 Los descendientes de Reaía, los descendientes de Rezín, los descendientes de Necoda, 51 los descendientes de Gazam, los descendientes de Uza, los descendientes de Paseah, 52 los descendientes de Besai, los descendeintes de Mehunim, los descendientes de Nefisesim. 53 Los descendientes de Bacbuc, los descendientes de Hacufa, los descendientes de Harhur, 54 los descendientes de Bazlut, los descendientes de Mehída, los descendientes de Harsa, 55 los descendientes de Barcos, los descendientes de Sísara, los descendientes de Tema, 56 los descendientes de Nezía, los descendientes de Hatifa. 57 Los descendientes de los siervos de Salomón: los descendientes de Sotai, los descendientes de Soferet, los descendientes de Perida, 58 los descendientes de Jaala, los descendientes de Darcón, los descendientes de Gidel, 59 los descendientes de Sefatías, los descendientes de Hatil, los descendientes de Poqueret- hazebaim, los descendientes de Amón. 60 Todos los sirvientes del templo y los descendientes de los sirvientes de Salomón, eran trescientos noventa y dos. 61 Estas fueron las personas que subieron de Tel-Mela, Tel-Harsa, Querub, Adón e Imer. Pero ellos no pudieron probar que ellos o que las familias de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sus antepasados eran descendientes de Israel: 62 los descendientes de Delaía, los descendientes de Tobías y los descendientes de Necoda, 642. 63 Y eran de los sacerdotes: Los descendientes de Habaía, Cos y Barzilai (quien tomó a su esposa de las hijas de Barzilai de Galaad y era llamado por sus nombres). 64 Estos buscaron sus registros entre los enlistados por su genealogía, pero ellos no pudieron ser encontrados, así que fueron excluídos del sacerdocio como inmundos. 65 Y el gobernador les dijo que a ellos no se les debía permitir comer de la porción de comida de los sacerdotes de los sacrificios hasta que allí se levantara un sacerdote con Urim y Tumim. 66 La asamblea completa era de cuarenta y dos mil trescientos sesenta, 67 aparte de sus siervos y sus siervas, de los cuales allí había siete mil tres cientos treinta y siete. Ellos tenían doscientos cuarenta y cinco cantantes hombres y mujeres. 68 Sus caballos eran setecientos treinta y seis en número, sus mulas, doscientos cuarenta y cinco, 69 sus camellos, cuatrocientos treinta y cinco, y sus burros, seis mil setecientos veinte. 70 Algunos de entre los jefes de de las familias de los antepasados dieron regalos por el trabajo. El gobernador dio al tesoro, mil dracmas de oro, cincuenta tazones y quinientos treinta vestiduras sacerdotales. 71 Algunos de los jefes de las familias de los ancestros dieron al tesoro por el trabajo, veinte mil dracmas de oro y dos mil doscientos minas de plata. 72 El resto del pueblo dio veinte mil dracmas de oro y dos mil minas de plata y sesenta y siete túnicas para los sacerdotes. 73 Así que los sacerdotes, los levitas, los porteros, los cantantes, algunos del pueblo, los sirvientes del templo y todo Israel vivió en sus ciudades. Para el séptimo mes, el pueblo de Israel estaba establecido en sus ciudades."

Nehemiah 7:1

Cuando la muralla fue terminada Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando terminamos el muro" yo coloqué las puertas en su lugar Esto se realizó con ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "Yo y otros colgamos las puertas" (Ver: higos synecdoche)

y los porteros, y los cantantes y los levitas fueron designados Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Los posibles significados son: 1) Nehemías los designó. Traducción Alterna: "Asigné a los porteros, cantantes y levitas a sus tareas" o 2) Alguien más los nombró. Traducción Alterna: "asignaron a los porteros, cantantes y levitas a sus tareas"

porteros
personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador

cantantes
músicos vocales que lideraron el culto, las procesiones y ceremonias, produciendo música y cantos que enfatizaron y mejoraron la ocasión

Hananí...Hananías
Estos son nombres de hombres. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Puse a mi hermano Hananí a cargo
"Le di la orden a mi hermano Hanani de ser el gerente"

quien tenía la vigilancia de la fortaleza
"quien estaba a cargo de la ciudadela"

ciudadela
fortaleza

temía a Dios más que muchos
"temía a Dios más que muchas otras personas"

Nehemiah 7:3

yo le dije a ellos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a Hananí y Hananías

No abran las puertas de Jerusalén hasta que caliente el sol. Mientras los porteros estén de guardia, pueden cerrar y asegurar las puertas Los posibles significados son 1) estas acciones fueron realizadas por Hananí y Hananías o 2) estas acciones fueron realizadas por Hananí y Hananías con la ayuda de los guardianes o 3) los guardianes hicieron estas acciones bajo la dirección de Hananí y Hananías caliente el sol

"el sol está alto en el cielo"

Mientras los porteros estén de guardia,pueden cerrar y asegurar
"Cierra las puertas y ciérralas mientras los guardianes aún están en guardia"

porteros
Traduzca esto como en 7: 1

cerrar y asegurar las puertas
"cierra las puertas y trabalas"

Designen guardias de los que viven en Jerusalén,
"Asignar guardias a las personas que viven en Jerusalén"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

estación de guardia
"puesto de guardia" o "lugar de guardia"

y ninguna casa se había reconstruído.
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente aún no había reconstruido las casas"

Nehemiah 7:5

puso en mi carazón
Aquí el "corazón" de Nehemías se refiere a sus pensamientos y voluntad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:11. Traducción Alterna: "me inspiró" o "me guió"

para enlistarlos
"para enumerarlos y registrarlos"

El Libro de la Genealogía Este era un libro que ya no existe.

y encontré lo siguiente escrito en él
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y descubrió que alguien había escrito lo siguiente"

Nehemiah 7:6

Estas son la personas de la provincia
"Estos son los descendientes de esta región" que subieron de

"regresó de" o "regresó de"

subieron
Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a viajar hacia Jerusalén, que estaba en un terreno más alto que el área circundante.

a quien Nabucodonosor, el rey de Babilonia, tomó cautivo
"a quien Nabucodonosor, gobernante de Babilonia, se llevó de su país de origen". El ejército de Babilonia hizo esto bajo el mando de Nabucodonosor.

Zorobabel...Jesúa...Nehemías...Azarías...Raamías..Nahamani...Mardoqueo...Bisán...Misperet...Bigvai...Nehum...Baana
Éstos son nombres de hombres. .

El número de los hombres
Se había realizado un censo cuando los israelitas volvieron por primera vez a Jerusalén después del exilio. Los números representan cuántos hombres pertenecían a cada grupo familiar. Esta oración introduce la información en los siguientes versículos.

Nehemiah 7:8

Oración de Enlace
Nehemías está contando la cantidad de personas que regresaron del exilio. Las personas fueron agrupadas por familias según el nombre de sus patriarcas. El número representa el número de hombres en cada familia. (Ver número_traductores)

Paros...Sefatías...Ara
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Nehemiah 7:11

Oración de Enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio. (Ver número_traductores)

a través de los descendientes de Jesúa y Joab
"es decir, los descendientes de Jesúa y Joab"

Pahat Moab...Jesúa...Joab...Elam...Zatu...Zacai
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Nehemiah 7:15

Oración de Enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Binúi...Bebai...Azgad...Adonicam
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Nehemiah 7:19

Oración de Enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Bigvai...Adín...Ater...Ezequías
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Los descendientes de Ater, de Ezequías
El escritor ha acortado esta frase. Traducción Alterna: "los descendientes del agua, que es descendiente de Ezequías" (Ver: puntos suspensivos de higos)

Nehemiah 7:23

Oración de Enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Bezai...Harif...Gibeon
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Belén y Netofa
Estos son los nombres de lugares en Judá.

Nehemiah 7:27

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Anatot...Bet Azmavet...Quiriat Jearim, Cafira,y Beerot...Ramá y Geba
Todos estos son nombres de lugares. Ver

Nehemiah 7:31

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio. (Ver número_traductores)

Micmas...Betel y Hai...Nebo...Elam
Todos estos son nombres de lugares.

Nehemiah 7:35

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio. (Ver número_traductores)

Harim...Jericho...Lod,Hadid y Ono...Senaa
Todos estos son nombres de lugares.

Nehemiah 7:39

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Jedaías...Jesúa...Imer...Pasur...Harim
Todos estos son nombres de hombre .

de la casa de Jesúa
La palabra "casa" es una figura literaria

Nehemiah 7:43

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Jesúa...Cadmiel...Binui...Hodavías...Asaf...Salum...Ater...Talmón...Acub...Hatita...Sobai
Todos estos son nombres de hombre .

cantantes
Traduzca esto como en 7:1

porteros
Traduzca esto como en 7:1

Nehemiah 7:46

Información general
Estos versículos continúan los nombres de las personas cuyos descendientes regresaron del exilio.

Ziha...Hasufa...Tabaot...Queros...Siaha...Padón...Lebana...Hagaba...Salmai...Hanán...Gidel...Gahar.
Estos son nombres de hombres. .

Sia
Este es el mismo hombre conocido por el nombre de Siaha en Esdras 2:44.

Nehemiah 7:50

Información General
Estos versículos continúan los nombres de las personas cuyos descendientes regresaron del exilio.

Reaía...Rezín...Necoda...Gazam...Uza...Paseah...Besai, ...Mehunim...Nefis
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Nehemiah 7:53

Información General
Estos versículos continúan los nombres de las personas cuyos descendientes regresaron del exilio.

Bacbuc...Hacufa...Harhur...Bazlut...Mehída...Harsa...Barcos...Sísara, ...T
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Bazlut
Este es el nombre de un hombre que también se llama Bazlut en Esdras 2:52.

Nehemiah 7:57

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

Sotai...Soferet...Perida...Jaala...Darcón...Gidel...Sefatías, ...Hatil...Poquer hazebaim...Amón
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Soferet
Este es el nombre de un hombre que se llama Soferet en Esdras 2:55.

Perida
Este es el nombre de un hombre que también se llama Peruda en Esdras 2:55

Nehemiah 7:61

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

subieron
Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a viajar hacia Jerusalén, que estaba en un terreno más alto que el área circundante. Traducción Alterna: "volvió" o "regresó"

Tel-Mela...Tel-Harsa...Querub...Adón...Imer
Estos son nombres de lugares.

Delaía...Tobías...Necoda...Habaía...Cos...Barzilai
Estos son nombres de hombres.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 7:64

Estos buscaron sus registros entre los enlistados por su genealogía
"Buscaron sus registros genealógicos escritos" o "Inspeccionaron sus registros genealógicos escritos"

Estos buscaron
"Estos" se refiere a los descendientes de Habaía,Cos,Barzilai. (Ver: 7:61)

pero ellos no pudieron ser encontrados Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero no pudieron encontrar sus registros"

fueron excluídos del sacerdocio como inmundos
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. El sustantivo abstracto "sacerdocio" se puede traducir como el verbo "trabajar como sacerdotes". Traducción Alterna: "el gobernador los trató como si fueran impuros y no les permitió trabajar como sacerdotes" hasta que allí se levantara un sacerdote con Urim y Tumim.

Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que un sacerdote con Urim y Tumim aprobado"

Urim y Tumim.
Estas eran piedras sagradas que el sumo sacerdote llevaba en su peto y las usaba a veces para determinar la voluntad de Dios.

Nehemiah 7:66

Oración de enlace
Nehemías continúa contando el número de personas que regresaron del exilio.

La asamblea completa
"Todo el grupo junto"

era de cuarenta y dos mil trescientos sesenta eran 42.360 personas

cantantes hombres y mujeres.
"Cantantes masculinos y cantantes femeninas"

Nehemiah 7:68

736...245...435...6.720
Estos son números de animales traídos de vuelta.

Nehemiah 7:70

los jefes de de las familias de los antepasados
"los principales patriarcas" o "los líderes de los clanes" (UDB)

dio al tesoro
"poner en el tesoro"

mil dracmas

1. 000 dracmas

dracmas de oro
Un dragma era una pequeña moneda de oro que usaban las personas en el Imperio persa.

tazones
bochas grandes vestiduras prendas de ropa

veinte mil dracmas 20.000 dragmas

minas de plata
Una mina pesa aproximadamente la mitad de un kilogramo.

dos mil minas
2.000 minas

sesenta y siete túnicas siete túnicas- 67 túnicas

Nehemiah 7:73

porteros
Traduzca esto como en 7:1

cantantes
Traduzca esto como en 7:1

algunos del pueblo
La información implícita es que esto se refiere a algunos de los israelitas que no eran sacerdotes u otros trabajadores del templo.

y todo Israel
Los significados posibles son: 1) todos los grupos de israelitas que se enumeran en este versículo o 2) el resto de los israelitas que no trabajaban en el templo.

el séptimo mes
"mes 7." Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de septiembre y la primera parte de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

estaba establecido en sus ciudades
"vivían en sus propias ciudades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Todo el pueblo se reunió como un solo hombre en el área abierta al frente de la Puerta de Agua. Le preguntaron a Esdras el escriba que trajera El Libro de la Ley de Moisés, el cual EL SEÑOR había dado a Israel. 2 En el primer día del séptimo mes, Esdras el sacerdote trajo la ley ante la reunión del pueblo, tanto hombres como mujeres y todos los que podían oír y entender. 3 Él se colocó frente al área abierta de frente a la Puerta de Agua y leyó de el desde temprana mañana hasta mediodía, ante hombres, mujeres y cualquiera que pudiera entender. Y toda la gente escuchaba atentamente el Libro de la Ley. 4 Y Esdras, el escriba, se paró sobre una plataforma alta la cual el pueblo había hecho con ese propósito. Parados al lado de él estaban Matatías, Sema, Anías, Urías, Hilcías y Maasías, a su derecha y Pedadías, Misael, Malquías, Hasum, Hasbadana, Zacarías y Mesulam estaban parados a su izquierda. 5 Esdras abrió el libro a la vista de todo el pueblo, ya que él estaba parado por encima del pueblo y cuando él lo abrió toda la gente se levantó. 6 Esdras dió gracias a EL SEÑOR, el gran Dios, y todo el pueblo levantó sus manos y contestaron: "¡Amen! ¡Amen¡" Entonces ellos bajaron sus cabezas y alabaron a EL SEÑOR con sus rostros en el suelo. 7 También Jesúa, Bani, Serebías, Jamín, Acub, Sabetai, Hodías, Maasías, Kelita, Azarías, Jozabed, Hanán, Pelaías y los levitas ayudaron al pueblo a entender la ley, mientras el pueblo permanecía en su lugar. 8 Leyeron en el libro, La Ley de Dios, haciéndola clara con interpretación y dando el significado para que el pueblo entendiera la lectura. 9 Nehemías el gobernador y Esdras el sacerdote y escriba y los levitas quienes estaban interpretando al pueblo, le dijeron al pueblo: "Este día es santo para EL SEÑOR tu Dios. No se entristezcan ni lloren." Pues el pueblo lloró cuando escucharon las palabras de la ley. 10 Entonces Nehemías le dijo a ellos: "Vayan, coman la grasa y tomen algo dulce, y envíen un poco a uno que no tiene nada preparado, ya que este día es santo para nuestro Señor. No se entristezcan, ya que el gozo de EL SEÑOR es nuestra fortaleza. 11 Entonces los levitas hicieron que el pueblo hiciera silencio diciendo: "¡Callen!" ya que este día es santo. No se entristezcan." 12 Y todo el pueblo se fue por su camino para comer, tomar, compartir alimentos y a celebrar con gran gozo porque entendieron las palabras que le fueron enseñadas. 13 En el segundo día los líderes de los ancestros de las familias de todo el pueblo, los sacerdotes y los levitas, llegaron juntos a Esdras, el escriba, para ganar entendimiento de las palabras de la ley. 14 Y ellos encontraron escritas en la ley cómo EL SEÑOR había ordenado a través de Moisés que el pueblo de Israel debería vivir en tiendas durante el festival del séptimo mes. 15 Deberían hacer una proclamación en todas sus ciudades y en Jerusalén, diciendo: "Salgan a los montes y traigan de regreso ramas de olivos, de olivo silvestre, de mirto, de palmeras y árboles de sombra, para hacer refugios temporeros, como está escrito." 16 Y el pueblo salió y regresaron con las ramas y se hicieron tiendas para ellos mismos, en sus propios techos, en sus patios, en los patios de la casa de Dios, en el área abierta cerca de la Puerta de Agua y en la plaza de la Puerta de Efraín. 17 Toda la asamblea de aquellos que habían regresado de la cautividad hicieron sus tiendas y vivieron en ellas. Desde los días de Josué, hijo de Nun, hasta ese día, el pueblo de Israel no había celebrado este festival. Y su gozo era muy grande. 18 También día tras día, desde el primer día hasta el último, Esdras leyó del Libro de la Ley de Dios. Y mantuvieron el festival por siete días y en el octavo hubo una asamblea solemne, en obediencia al decreto.

Nehemiah 8:1

Todo el pueblo se reunió como un solo hombre
Esta es una generalización que indica que la gente en su conjunto se unió. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas se reunieron todas juntas"

Puerta de Agua
Este era el nombre de una gran abertura o puerta en la pared.

El Libro de la Ley de Moisés
Esto habría sido todo o parte de los primeros cinco libros del Antiguo Testamento.

En el primer día del séptimo mes Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día del séptimo mes es cerca de mediados de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales. Traducción Alterna: "El día 1 del mes 7"

trajo la ley
"trajo El libro de la ley"

todos los que podían oír y entender
Esto incluiría a niños que tenían la edad suficiente para comprender lo que se estaba leyendo.

y leyó de el aquí "eso" se refiere al Libro de la Ley de Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 8:4

Matatías, Sema, Anías, Urías, Hilcías y Maasías... Pedadías, Misael, Malquías, Hasum, Hasbadana, Zacarías y Mesulam
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

Esdras abrió el libro a la vista de todo el pueblo El sustantivo abstracto "vista" se puede expresar con el verbo "ver". Traducción Alterna: "Todos vieron a Ezra abrir el libro"

el libro
El libro de la Ley

él estaba parado por encima del pueblo
"Estaba parado más alto que la gente"

cuando él lo abrió toda la gente se levantó
La gente se levantó por respeto a la palabra de Dios.

Nehemiah 8:6

Esdras dió gracias a EL SEÑOR,
El sustantivo abstracto "gracias" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Esdras agradeció a EL SEÑOR"

Jesúa, Bani, Serebías, Jamín, Acub, Sabetai, Hodías, Maasías, Kelita, Azarías, Jozabed, Hanán, Pelaías
Todos estos son nombres de hombres. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Leyeron en el libro
La palabra "ellos" aquí se refiere a los Levitas

haciéndola clara con interpretación y dando el significado Los sustantivos abstractos "interpretación" y "significado" se pueden traducir como verbos. Traducción Alterna: "claramente interpretándolo y explicándolo"

la lectura
"lo que se leyó"

Nehemiah 8:9

Pues el pueblo lloró
Esta es una generalización que indica que hubo un gran llanto entre la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Para la gente lloró mucho"

coman la grasa y tomen algo dulce
La información implícita es que a las personas se les dijo que festejaran con alimentos ricos y bebidas dulces. Traducción Alterna: "come comida rica y bebe algo dulce" (Ver: higos explícitos)

No se entristezcan
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No llores" ya que el gozo de EL SEÑOR es nuestra fortaleza.

Los sustantivos abstractos "alegría" y "fuerza" pueden expresarse como verbos o adjetivos. Traducción Alterna: "regocijarse en EL SEÑOR te protegerá" o "estar alegre en EL SEÑOR será tu fuerte refugio"

Nehemiah 8:11

¡Callen!
"¡Silencio!" o "¡Cállate!"

No se entristezcan
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No lloren" celebrar con gran gozo

El sustantivo abstracto "alegría" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "regocíjate mucho" las palabras que le fueron enseñadas.

Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las palabras que les declaró"

Nehemiah 8:13

En el segundo día
"El día 2" o "Al día siguiente" para ganar entendimiento de El sustantivo abstracto "entendimiento" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "para entender"

séptimo mes
"mes 7." Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de septiembre y la primera parte de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

Deberían hacer una proclamación
"Deberían anunciar"

mirto
una especie de arbolito con flores de colores

árboles de sombra
"árboles frondosos"

para hacer refugios temporeros
"hacer tiendas"

como está escrito
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como Moisés escribió al respecto"

Nehemiah 8:16

se hicieron tiendas
"construyeron sus propias carpas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Puerta de Agua...Puerta de Efraín
Estos son nombres de grandes aberturas o puertas en la pared.

en la plaza de la Puerta de Efraín
"en el lugar abierto junto a la Puerta de Efraín"

Desde los días de Josué
"Desde los días de Josué"

hijo de Nun,
Nun es el nombre de un hombre.

Y su gozo era muy grande.
El sustantivo abstracto "alegría" se puede expresar como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "la gente estaba muy alegre"

Nehemiah 8:18

día tras día
cada día

desde el primer día hasta el último La información implícita es que fue durante toda la semana del festival. Traducción Alterna: "desde el primer día hasta el último día de la semana"

mantuvieron el festival
"Hicieron una fiesta" o "Celebraron el festival"

en el octavo
"el día 8"

asamblea solemne
Esta fue una reunión religiosa especial.

en obediencia al decreto.
La información implícita es que "el decreto" fue el mandato de EL SEÑOR sobre cómo iba a terminar el Festival de Refugios. Traducción Alterna: "como Dios había mandado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Ahora en el día veinticuatro del mismo mes, el pueblo de Israel fue convocado y estaban ayunando vestidos de cilicio y se pusieron polvo en sus cabezas. 2 Los descendientes de Israel se separaron de todos los extranjeros. Se pararon y confesaron sus propios pecados y las acciones malignas de sus antepasados. 3 Se pararon en sus sitios y durante una cuarta parte del día leyeron del Libro de la Ley de EL SEÑOR su Dios. Durante otra cuarta del día estuvieron confesando y inclinándose ante EL SEÑOR su Dios. 4 Los levitas, Jesúa, Bani, Cadmiel, Sebanías, Buni, Serebías, Bani y Quenani se pararon en los escalones y clamaron en voz alta a EL SEÑOR su Dios. 5 Entonces los levitas, Jesúa y Cadmiel, Bani, Hasabnías, Serebías, Hodías, Sebanías y Petaías, dijeron: "Levántense y den alabanza a EL SEÑOR su Dios por siempre y para siempre." "Que bendigan Tu glorioso nombre, y que sea exaltado sobre toda bendición y alabanza. 6 Tú eres EL SEÑOR. Solo tú. Tú has hecho el cielo, los más altos cielos, con todo su ejército y la tierra con todo lo que está en ella. Sus mares y lo que está en el. Tu das vida a todos ellos y el ejército del cielo te adora. 7 Tú eres el SEÑOR, el Dios que escogió Abram y lo sacó de Ur de los caldeos y le diste el nombre Abraham. 8 Encontraste que su corazón era fiel ante Ti, e hiciste con él un pacto de darle a sus descendientes la tierra de los cananeos, de los hititas, de los amorreos, de los ferezeos, de los jebuseos y de los gergeseos. Tú has cumplido tu promesa porque Tú eres Justo. 9 Tú viste la aflicción de nuestros antepasados en Egipto y oíste sus llantos junto al Mar de las Cañas. 10 Diste señales y maravillas contra Faráon, todos sus sirvientes y sobre toda la gente de su tierra, porque Tú sabías que los egipcios actuaron con arrogancia contra ellos. Pero Tú te hiciste un nombre que permanece hasta este día. 11 Entonces, Tú dividiste el mar delante de ellos, para que ellos pasaran por el medio del mar en tierra seca y arrojaste a aquellos que los perseguían a las profundidades, como una piedra en aguas profundas. 12 Los guíaste con una columna de nube durante el día y con una columna de fuego durante la noche, para alumbrales el camino y que así pudieran caminar en su luz. 13 En el Monte Sinaí Tú bajaste y hablaste con ellos desde el cielo y les diste decretos justos y verdaderas leyes, buenos estatutos y mandamientos. 14 Les hiciste conocer Tu santo día de reposo y les diste mandamientos, estatutos y una ley por medio de Tu siervo Moisés. 15 Les diste pan del cielo para su hambre y agua de una roca para su sed y les dijiste que fueran a poseer la tierra que juraste en juramento darle a ellos. 16 Pero ellos y nuestros ancestros actuaron sin respeto y fueron tercos, no escucharon Tus mandamientos. 17 Ellos rehusaron escuchar y no pensaron en las maravillas que habías hecho entre ellos, sino que se volvieron testarudos, y en su rebelión nombraron un líder para regresar a su esclavitud. Pero Tú eres un Dios que estás lleno de perdón, clemente y compasivo, lento para la ira y abundante en constante amor. Tú no los abandonaste. 18 Tú no los abandonaste ni si quiera cuando hicieron un becerro de metal fundido y dijeron: "Éste es tú Dios que te sacó de Egipto," mientras ellos cometían grandes blafemias. 19 Tú, en tu compación, no los abandonaste en el desierto. La columna de nube para guíarlos por el camino no los dejó durante el día, ni tampoco la columna de fuego de noche para iluminarles el camino por donde caminarían. 20 Tú diste tu buen Espíritu para que los instruyera y no retiraste tu maná de sus bocas, le diste agua para su sed. 21 Por cuarenta años Tú les proveíste en el desierto y no les faltó nada. Sus ropas no se desgastaron y sus pies no se hincharon. 22 Les diste reinos y pueblos y les asignaste tierras en cada esquina distante. Así que tomaron posesión de la tierra de Sehón, rey de Hesbón, y la tierra de Og, rey de Basán. 23 Tú hiciste a sus hijos tan numerosos como las estrellas del cielo y los trajiste a la tierra. Le dijiste a sus antepasados que entraran y la poseyeran. 24 Así que el pueblo fue y poseyó la tierra y Tú sometiste ante ellos los habitantes de la tierra, los cananeos. Tú se los entregaste en sus manos, con sus reyes y los pueblos de la tierra, para que Israel hiciera con ellos como quisieran. 25 Ellos capturaron las ciudades fortificadas y una tierra productiva y capturaron casas llenas de muchas cosas buenas, cisternas ya excavadas, viñedos y huertos de olivo y árboles de frutas en abundancia. Así que comieron y se llenaron y estuvieron satisfechos y se deiletaron en Tu gran bondad. 26 Entonces ellos se volvieron desobedientes y se revelaron contra Ti. Echaron Tú Ley detrás de sus espaldas. Ellos mataron a Tus profetas, quienes les advirtieron que regresaran a Ti, ellos cometieron grandes blasfemias. 27 Así que Tú los entregaste en las manos de sus enemigos quienes los hicieron sufrir. Y durante el tiempo de su sufrimiento ellos clamaron a Ti y Tú los oíste desde el cielo y muchas veces Tú los rescataste de la mano de sus enemigos por causa de tus grandes misericordias. 28 Pero después de ellos haber descansado volvieron a hacer lo malo ante Ti, y Tú los abandonaste en las manos de sus enemigos, así que sus enemigos gobernaron sobre ellos. Pero cuando ellos regresaron y clamaron a Ti, los escuchaste desde el cielo y muchas veces por Tú compasión los rescataste. 29 Tú les advertiste para que pudieran que regresar a Tu ley. Pero actuaron con arrogancia y no escucharon Tus mandamientos. Ellos pecaron contra Tus decretos, los cuales dan vida a cualquiera que los obedezca. Ellos no los obedecieron, sino que no le pusieron atención y ellos rehusaron escuchar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

30 Por muchos años tu los soportaste y les avisaste por tu Espíritu mediante tus profetas. Sin embargo ellos no escucharon. Así que los entregaste en las manos de los pueblos vecinos. 31 Pero en tus grandes misericordias tu no los terminaste por completo, ni los abandonaste porque eres un Dios compasivo y misericordioso. 32 Ahora pues, nuestro Dios, el grande, el poderoso, y el increíble Dios, el que mantiene su pacto y constante amor, no dejes que todas estas aflicciones que nos han sobrevenido a nosotros, a nuestros reyes, príncipes, sacerdotes, profetas; y sobre nuestros ancestros, y toda Tu gente desde los días de los reyes de Asiria hasta hoy, parezcan insignificantes ante Ti. 33 Tú eres justo en todas las cosas que nos han sobrevenido, pues Tú has actuado con fidelidad y nosotros hemos actuado con maldad. 34 Nuestros reyes, principes, sacerdote, y ancestros no han mantenido tu ley, ni han puesto atención a tus mandamientos o a los decretos de tu pacto por los cuales Tu les advertiste. 35 Hasta en su propio reino, mientras gozaban de tu gran benevolencia hacia ellos, en la grande y productiva tierra que Tu pusiste ante ellos, no te sirvieron ni se regresaron de sus malos caminos. 36 Ahora somos esclavos, en la tierra que le diste a nuestros ancestros para disfrutar de sus frutos y sus buenos regalos, ¡ahora somos esclavos en ella! 37 El gran rendimiento de nuestra tierra va a los reyes que Tú has puesto sobre nosotros por causa de nuestros pecados. Ellos gobiernan sobre nuestros cuerpos y sobre nuestro ganado como ellos quieren. Estamos en gran angustia. 38 Por causa de todo esto, nosotros hicimos un pacto firme por escrito. En el documento sellado están los nombres de nuestros princípes, levitas y sacerdotes."

Nehemiah 9:1

el día veinticuatro del mismo mes, cuarto día del mismo mes - "el vigésimo cuarto día del séptimo mes" Esto es casi a mediados de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

el pueblo de Israel fue convocado
"el pueblo de Israel se unió"

vestidos de cilicio y se pusieron polvo en sus cabezas
Esto fue para mostrar cuánto lamentaban las cosas equivocadas que ellos y sus antepasados habían hecho.

Los descendientes de Israel los israelitas

se separaron de todos los extranjeros
"Ya no tenía nada que ver con los que no eran israelitas"

Se pararon y confesaron sus propios pecados y las acciones malignas de sus antepasados.
"Admitieron las cosas incorrectas que habían hecho y también las cosas incorrectas que habían hecho sus antepasados"

Nehemiah 9:3

Se pararon
Todos los israelitas se pusieron de pie

estuvieron confesando
"admitían las cosas equivocadas que habían hecho"

y inclinándose ante
"y adorando" o "y alabando"

Los levitas, Jesúa, Bani... se pararon en los escalones Algunas versiones traducen: "Jesúa, Bani... estaban parados en las escaleras construidas para los levitas"

Jesúa, Bani, Cadmiel, Sebanías, Buni, Serebías, Bani y Quenani nombres de hombre

Nehemiah 9:5

Entonces los levitas..dijeron,"Levántense...siempre.
Aquí los levitas están hablando al pueblo de Israel.

den alabanza a EL SEÑOR
"bendigan a EL SEÑOR "

Jesúa...Cadmiel...Bani...Serebías...Sebanías
nombres de hombres. Traduce como en 9:3.

Hasabnías...Hodías...Petaías
nombres de hombres.

Que bendigan Tu glorioso nombre
Los levitas le están hablando a EL SEÑOR. "Que el pueblo de Judá bendiga tu glorioso nombre, SEÑOR" los más altos cielos,con todo su ejército...el ejército del cielo te adora.

Una hueste es un ejército. Las "huestes del cielo" habla en una metáfora de las muchas estrellas como si fueran un ejército. Las estrellas a su vez son una metáfora de los muchos ángeles. Las estrellas que adoran a EL SEÑOR son una metáfora de los ángeles que adoran a EL SEÑOR

Nehemiah 9:7

Oración de enlace
Los levitas continúan su oración ante toda la gente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ur de los caldeos
"Ur, donde vivía el grupo de pueblos caldeos"

Encontraste que su corazón era fiel ante Ti,
El corazón, el ser interno de la persona, representa a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Viste que fue completamente fiel a ti"

Cananeos...Hititas...Amorreos...Ferezeos...Jebuseos...Gergeseos nombres de grupos de personas

Nehemiah 9:9

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Tú viste
EL SEÑOR vió

oíste sus llantos
La información implícita es que Dios fue llevado a la acción debido a los gritos de ayuda de los israelitas.

señales y maravillas contra Faráon
Las plagas pusieron a prueba el corazón de el Faraón, y se convirtieron en testigos contra su dureza de corazón. Traducción Alterna: "signos y maravillas que testificaron contra el Faraón" o "signos y maravillas que condenaron a Faraón" toda la gente de su tierra todos los egipcios

actuaron con arrogancia contra ellos
"fueron arrogantes hacia los israelitas" o "maltrataron al pueblo elegido de Dios"

Tú te hiciste un nombre
Esta es otra forma de decir "le mostraste al mundo tu caracter" o "demostraste tu poder".

que permanece hasta este día
"which people still remember"

Nehemiah 9:11

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Tú dividiste el mar Dios dividió

tu...arrojaste a aquellos que los perseguían a las profundidades, como una piedra en aguas profundas.
En esta figura retórica

Nehemiah 9:12

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Los guíaste
EL SEÑOR guió a los israelitas

Tú bajaste
Cuando Dios habla con su pueblo, a menudo se lo describe como "bajando" o "bajando del cielo". Esta es una manera descriptiva de decir que Dios se le apareció a esa persona. Traducción Alterna: "apareciste" o "bajaste del cielo" decretos justos y verdaderas leyes, buenos estatutos y mandamientos.

Ambas frases dobles describen la misma cosa, la ley de Moisés.

Nehemiah 9:14

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

mandamientos...estatutos...ley
Cada una de estas tres palabras se refiere a la ley de Moisés.

Nehemiah 9:16

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

ellos y nuestros ancestros los israelitas en el tiempo de Moisés y el pueblo de Israel después del tiempo de Moisés

y fueron tercos...se volvieron testarudos La declaración literal es "endurecieron sus cuellos". Si su idioma tiene un idioma diferente para ser terco, puede usarlo aquí.

las maravillas que habías hecho entre ellos
"los milagros que habías hecho entre ellos" nombraron un líder para regresar a su esclavitud

"designaron un líder para llevarlos de regreso a la tierra donde habían sido esclavos".

que estás lleno de perdón
Se habla del deseo de perdonar como si fuera un líquido que podría llenar un recipiente. Traducción Alterna: "quién está listo para perdonar"

abundante en constante amor
Se habla del amor como si fuera un cultivo alimenticio que EL SEÑOR podría compartir con la gente. Traducción Alterna: "ama mucho a su gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 9:18

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Tú...no los abandonaste
EL SEÑOR no abandonó a los Israelitas

becerro de metal fundido metal fundido y moldeado en forma de ternero columna de nube...columna de fueg

Traducir como en 9:12

Nehemiah 9:20

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

tu buen Espíritu... tu maná...agua El escritor cambia el orden habitual de las palabras para enfatizar las cosas buenas que EL SEÑOR le dio a su pueblo. Su idioma puede tener otra forma de enfatizar estos elementos.

intruyera
"enseñar"

y no retiraste tu maná de sus bocas, Esta figura retórica

de sus bocas
"La boca" es una figura literaria

Nehemiah 9:22

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Les diste reinos
EL SEÑOR dio a los reinos israelitas.

diste reinos y pueblos
"enabled them to conquer kingdoms and peoples"

asignaste tierras en cada esquina
"permitiéndoles poseer cada parte de la tierra"

Sehón...Og
Estos son los nombres de los reyes.

Hesbón...Basán
Estos son nombres de lugares.

Nehemiah 9:23

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Tú hiciste a sus hijos
EL SEÑOR hizo los descendientes de los israelitas en el tiempo de Moisés.

se los entregaste en sus manos
Se hablae de los cananeos como si fueran pequeños objetos que una persona podría colocar en la mano de otra persona. Dar algo en la mano de una persona es darle a esa persona un control completo sobre esa cosa. Traducción Alterna: "permitió a los israelitas tener un control completo sobre ellos"

Nehemiah 9:25

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Ellos capturaron
Los israelitas en la época de Moisés capturaron una tierra productiva una tierra fértil

cisternas
agujeros en el suelo donde las personas almacenan agua se deiletaron

Esto podría ser una metáfora de "dejó de pensar en EL SEÑOR" o "se volvió complaciente".

Nehemiah 9:26

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Echaron Tú Ley detrás de sus espaldas
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Echaron Tú Ley
Los israelitas arrojaron la ley de EL SEÑOR

Tú los entregaste en las manos de sus enemigos
Aquí la palabra "mano"

Tú los rescataste de la mano de sus enemigos
Aquí la palabra "mano" (una parte) significa el poder de los "enemigos" (como personas completas) para hacer daño. Traducción Alterna: "enviaste gente para evitar que sus enemigos los dañen"

Nehemiah 9:28

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pero después de ellos haber descansado volvieron a hacer lo malo ante Ti
Aquí "ellos" se refieren a los israelitas y "ti" a EL SEÑOR

Tú los abandonaste en las manos de sus enemigos
Aquí la palabra "mano"

no escucharon Tus mandamientos
Si su idioma tiene una palabra para "escuchar" que también significa "obedecer", úsela aquí.

Tus decretos, los cuales dan vida a cualquiera que los obedezca
Se habla del propio SEÑOR como si fuera él mismo los decretos. Traducción Alterna: "aunque le des vida a todos los que obedecen tus decretos"

Nehemiah 9:30

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

los entregaste en las manos de los pueblos vecinos.
Aquí la palabra "mano"

entregaste
EL SEÑOR dió

tu no los terminaste por completo
"no los destruiste"

Nehemiah 9:32

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

no dejes que todas estas aflicciones que nos han sobrevenido a nosotros,hasta hoy Es posible dividir esto en dos oraciones. "No dejes que todas estas dificultades te parezcan pequeñas. Las dificultades nos han sobrevenido ... hasta hoy" aflicciones...que nos han sobrevenido...

La frase "vengan a nosotros" habla de cosas malas que suceden como si fueran personas que causan daño. Traducción Alterna: "daño ... hemos sufrido ... todo lo que hemos sufrido" (Ver: higos metonimia)

Nehemiah 9:35

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

mientras gozaban de tu gran benevolencia hacia ellos
"Mientras disfrutaban de las cosas buenas que les diste"

ellos, no te sirvieron
"Ellos no fueron obedientes a su ley o enseñanza "

Nehemiah 9:36

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

buenos regalos
"todas las cosas buenas que contiene" o "todas las cosas buenas que podemos obtener de él"

El gran rendimiento de nuestra tierra va a los reyes
"Rendimos homenaje a los reyes por trabajar nuestra propia tierra"

"Rendimos homenaje a los reyes por trabajar nuestra propia tierra"
Los reyes mandan.

Nehemiah 9:38

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, los levitas continúan alabando a EL SEÑOR en presencia del pueblo de Israel.

Por causa de todo esto porque la gente había desobedecido y EL SEÑOR los había castigado

En el documento sellado están los nombres
El lector debe entender que los hombres escribieron sus nombres en el documento antes de que se sellara

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Los que pusieron sus nombres en los documentos sellados fueron: Nehemías, hijo de Hacalías, el gobernador, y los sacerdotes que firmaron fueron Sedequías, 2 Seraías, Azarías, Jeremías, 3 Pasur, Amarías, Malquías, 4 Hatús, Sebanías, Maluc, 5 Harim, Meremot, Obadías, 6 Daniel, Ginetón, Baruc, 7 Mesulam, Abíás, Mijamín, 8 Maazías, Bilgaí, y Semaías. Estos eran los sacerdotes. 9 Los Levitas eran: Jesúa, hijo de Azanías, Binúi, de la familia de Henadad, Cadmiel; 10 y sus compañeros Levitas, Sebanías, Hodías, Kelita, Pelaías, Hanán, 11 Micaía, Rehob, Hasabías, 12 Zacur, Serebías, Sebanías, 13 Hodías, Bani y Beninu. 14 Los líderes del pueblo eran: Paros, Pahat, Moab, Elam, Zatu, Bani, 15 Buni, Azgad, Bebai, 16 Adonías, Bigvai, Adín, 17 Ater, Ezequías, Azur, 18 Hodías, Hasum, Bezai, 19 Harif, Anatot, Nebai, 20 Magpías, Mesulam, Hezir, 21 Mesezabeel, Sadoc, Jadúa, 22 Pelatías, Hanán, Anaías, 23 Oseas, Hananías, Hasub, 24 Halohes, Pilha, Sobec, 25 Rehum, Hasabna, Maasías, 26 Ahías, Hanán, Anán, 27 Maluc, Harim y Baana. 28 Y el resto del pueblo que eran sacerdotes, Levitas, porteros, cantores, sirvientes en el templo, y todos los que se habían separado de los pueblos de las tierras vecinas y habían jurado lealtad a la ley de Dios, incluyendo a sus esposas, sus hijos e hijos, todos los que tienen conocimiento y entendimiento, 29 se reunieron con sus hermanos, sus nobles y se comprometieron igualmente con una maldición como con un voto para caminar en la ley de Dios la cual fue dada por Moisés el siervo de Dios y para observar y obedecer todos los mandamientos de el SEÑOR nuestro Dios, sus decretos y sus estatutos. 30 Nosotros prometimos que no daríamos a nuestras hijas a los pueblos de la tierra ni tomaríamos sus hijas para nuestros hijos. 31 También prometimos que si los pueblos de la tierra traen bienes o cualquier grano para vender en el día de reposo, no le compraríamos ni en el día de reposo ni ningún día santo. Cada séptimo año dejaremos que descansen nuestras tierras y cancelaremos todas las deudas contraídas por otros Judíos. 32 Aceptamos los mandatos de dar un tercio de un siclo cada año para el servicio de la casa de nuestro Dios, 33 para proveer para el pan de la presencia, la ofrenda regular de grano, las ofrendas quemadas en los días de reposo, las fiestas de luna nueva y las fiestas señaladas, para las ofrendas santas y las ofrendas de pecado para hacer expiación por Israel, igualmente por todo el trabajo de la casa de nuestro Dios. 34 Y los sacerdotes, los Levitas y el pueblo echaron suertes para la ofrenda de madera. Las suertes seleccionarían cuáles de nuestras familias traerían la madera a la casa de nuestro Dios en los tiempos señalados cada año. La madera sería quemada en el altar de EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios, como está escrito en la ley. 35 Prometimos traer a la casa de EL SEÑOR los primeros frutos cultivados de nuestra tierra, y los primeros frutos de todo árbol cada año. 36 Y tal como está escrito en la ley, nosotros prometimos traer a la casa de Dios y a los sacerdotes que allí sirven, los primeros de nuestros hijos y de nuestras manadas y rebaños. 37 Nosotros traeremos lo primero de nuestra masa de harina y nuestras ofrendas de granos, y el fruto de todo árbol, y el vino nuevo y el aceite traeremos a los sacerdotes, a las despensas de la casa de nuestro Dios. Traeremos a los Levitas los diezmos de nuestra tierra porque los Levitas recogen los diezmos en todos los pueblos donde trabajamos. 38 Un sacerdote, un descendiente de Aarón, debe estar con los Levitas cuando ellos reciban los diezmos. Los Levitas deben traer una décima parte de los diezmos a la casa de nuestro Dios a las despensas del tesoro. 39 Porque el pueblo de Israel y los descendientes de Leví han de traer las contribuciones de grano, vino nuevo, y aceite a las despensas donde se guardan los utensilios del santuario y donde los sacerdotes que están sirviendo, y los porteros, y los cantores se quedan. No descuidaremos la casa de nuestro Dios.

Nehemiah 10:1

en los documentos sellados fueron
Es posible que deba completar las palabras que faltan. "En los documentos sellados estaban los nombres de las siguientes personas:"

documentos sellados
Los documentos fueron sellados después de que los nombres habían sido firmados en los documentos.

Nehemías
Algunas personas creen que Nehemías escribió este libro

Hacalías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 1:1.

Sedequías, Seraías...Jeremías, Pasur, Amarías
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Azarías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Tradúcelo como en 3:22.

Malquías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Tradúcelo como en 3:11.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 10:4

Información general
En estos versículos, Nehemías enumera los nombres de los sacerdotes que firmaron el documento sellado. (Ver 10: 1)

Hatús
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:8.

Sebanías...Mesulam
Éstos son los nombres de los hombres . Traducir como en 9:3.

Maluc...Obadías, Daniel,Ginetón...Abías,Mijamín,Maazías,Bilgaí
Éstos son los nombres de los hombres.

Harim
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:11.

Meremot
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:3.

Baruc
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:20.

Semaías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:28.

Estos eran los sacerdotes
Esto se refiere a la lista anterior de hombres que firmaron el documento. Traducción Alterna: "Estos fueron los nombres de los sacerdotes que firmaron el documento"

Nehemiah 10:9

Información general
En estos versículos, Nehemías continúa enumerando los nombres de las personas que firmaron el documento sellado.

Los Levitas eran
Esto se refiere a aquellos que ponen sus nombres en los documentos sellados. Traducción Alterna: "Los levitas que pusieron sus nombres en los documentos sellados fueron"

Jesúa...Henadad
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 3:18.

Azanías...Rehob...Beninu
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Binúi
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 3:22.

Cadmiel
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 7:43.

Sebanías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 9:3.

Hodías...Kelita...Pelaías...Serebías
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 8:6.

Hanán
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 7:46.

Micaía
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 10:9.

Hasabías...Bani
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 3:16. (Ver: Translate_names)

Zacur
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 3:1.

Los líderes del pueblo eran
Esto se refiere a aquellos que ponen sus nombres en los documentos sellados. Traducción Alterna: "Los líderes de las personas que pusieron sus nombres en los documentos sellados fueron"

Paros
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 3:25.

Pahat Moab
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduce como en 3:11.

Elam...Zatu
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 7:11.

Nehemiah 10:15

Información General
En estos versículos, Nehemías continúa enumerando los nombres de las personas que firmaron el documento sellado.

Buni
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 9:3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Azgad,Bebai
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 7:15.

Adonías...Azur...Nebai,Magpías,Magnías...Hezir...Jadúa
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Bigvai
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 7:6.

Adín,Ater,Ezequías...Hasum
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 7:19.

Hodías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 8:6.

Bezai,Hariph
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 7:23.

Anatot
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 7:27.

Mesulam...Mesezabel,Zadoc
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 3:3.

Nehemiah 10:22

Información General
En estos versículos, Nehemías continúa enumerando los nombres de las personas que firmaron el documento sellado.

Pelatías...Oseas...Pilha...Sobec...Hasabna...Ahías...Anán...Harim...Baana
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Hanán
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 7:46.

Anaías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 8:4.

Anaías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:8.

Hasub...Halohes
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 3:11.

Rehum
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:16.

Maasías
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 3:22.

Maluc,Harim
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Traducir como en 10:4.

Baana
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en 7:6.

Nehemiah 10:28

porteros
Esto se refiere a las personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7: 1.

cantores
"cantantes del templo"

todos los que tienen conocimiento y entendimiento Esta frase puede hacerse explícita. Traducción Alterna: "todos los que tenían la edad suficiente para comprender lo que significaba la promesa de obedecer a Dios"

sus hermanos, sus nobles
"sus hermanos hermanos los nobles" o "sus hermanos los líderes". Estas frases se refieren a las mismas personas.

se comprometieron igualmente con una maldición como con un voto Esto habla de las personas que hicieron un juramento y una maldición como si el juramento y la maldición fueran una cuerda que los ataba físicamente. Traducción Alterna: "se hicieron un juramento y una maldición" o "hicieron un juramento y pidieron que se hiciera una maldición si no cumplían"

para caminar en la ley de Dios Esta es una expresión idiomática.Traducción Alterna: "vivir según la ley de Dios" u "obedecer la ley de Dios"

la cual fue dada por Moisés el siervo de Dios Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que Moisés el siervo de Dios le había dado a Israel" para observar para seguir

Nehemiah 10:30

Información General
En estos versículos, la gente describe el contenido del juramento que estaban haciendo en 10:28.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no daríamos a nuestras hijas a los pueblos de la tierra ni tomaríamos sus hijas para nuestros hijos Esto significa que no permitirían que sus hijos e hijas se casaran con ellos. T:raducción Alterna "no daría a nuestras hijas para casarse con la gente de la tierra o tomaría a sus hijas para casarse con nuestros hijos"

los pueblos de la tierra Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en su tierra que no adoran a EL SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "la gente de esta tierra que no adora a EL SEÑOR" prometimos... no daríamos...no le compraríamos...dejaremos... cancelaremos El pronombre "nosotros" aquí incluye a Nehemías y al pueblo judío, pero no al lector de este libro.

séptimo año
"7º año"

dejaremos que descansen nuestras tierras Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "no araremos nuestros campos" o "no cultivaremos nada en nuestros campos"

cancelaremos todas las deudas contraídas por otros Judíos
"cancelaremos todas las deudas a otros judíos" o "perdonaremos todas las deudas que nos pertenecen otros judíos"

Nehemiah 10:32

Información General
En estos versículos, la gente continúa describiendo el contenido del juramento que estaban haciendo en Neh 10:28.

Aceptamos los mandatos
"Prometimos obedecer la orden"

Aceptamos
El pronombre "nosotros" aquí incluye a todos los israelitas, incluido Nehemías, excepto el sacerdote y los levitas, y no incluye al lector de este libro

un tercio de un siclo
"1/3 de un siclo". "Un tercio" significa una parte de tres partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en unidades de medida modernas. Traducción Alterna: "5 gramos de astilla"

para el servicio
"pagar por el cuidado de"

el pan de la presencia
Esto se refiere a los 12 panes horneados sin levadura en el templo y que solían simbolizar la presencia de Dios con su pueblo.

las fiestas de luna nueva
Estas fueron celebraciones festejadas cuando la luna era solo una pequeña media luna en el cielo.

Nehemiah 10:34

Información general
En estos versículos, la gente continúa describiendo el contenido del juramento que estaban haciendo en 10:28.

sería quemada
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "para que ardan los levitas"

Y tal como está escrito Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como dice"

de nuestra tierra
"en nuestro suelo" o "en nuestra tierra"

Nehemiah 10:37

Información General
En estos versículos, la gente continúa describiendo el contenido del juramento que estaban haciendo en Neh 10:28.

Nosotros traeremos ... traeremos
El pronombre "nosotros" aquí incluye a Nehemías y a los israelitas a excepción de los sacerdotes y los levitas, y tampoco incluye al lector de este libro

lo primero de nuestra masa
La masa es "harina gruesa" o "grano molido".

y el vino nuevo y el aceite
Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción Alterna: "y lo primero del vino nuevo y el aceite" o "y lo mejor del vino nuevo y el aceite"

las despensas de la casa de nuestro Dios
"los lugares donde se almacenan las cosas en el templo"

los diezmos de nuestra tierra Aquí "nuestro suelo" se refiere a todo lo que se cultiva en el suelo. Traducción Alterna: "los diezmos de lo que cultivamos en el suelo"

recogen los diezmos Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente les da los diezmos"

una décima
Esto significa una parte de cada diez partes iguales.

las despensas del tesoro
"los almacenes en el templo" (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 10:39

Información general:
En estos versículos, la gente termina de describir el contenido del juramento que estaban haciendo en Neh 10:28.

las despensas donde se guardan los utensilios del santuario Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las habitaciones donde los sacerdotes guardan las cosas que se usan en el templo"

No descuidaremos la casa de nuestro Dios Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Nos preocupamos por el templo" descuidaremos

El pronombre "nosotros" aquí incluye a Nehemías y a todo el pueblo de Israel, pero no incluye al lector de este libro

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Los líderes del pueblo vivían en Jerusalén y el resto del pueblo echaban suertes para traer uno de diez a vivir en Jerusalén, la ciudad santa, y los otros nueve permanecían en otros pueblos. 2 Y el pueblo bendecía a todos los que de buena voluntad se ofrecían para vivir en Jerusalén. 3 Estos son los oficiales de provincia que vivían en Jerusalén. Sin embargo, en los pueblos de Judá todo el mundo vivía en su propia tierra, incluyendo a algunos Israelitas, sacerdotes, Levitas, sirvientes del templo y descendentes de los sirvientes de Salomón. 4 En Jerusalén vivían algunos de los descendientes de Judá y algunos de los descendientes de Benjamín. La gente de Judá incluía: Ataías, hijo de Uzías, hijo de Zacarías, hijo de Amarías, hijo de Sefatías, hijo de Mahalaleel, un descendiente de Fares. 5 Y estaba Maasías, hijo de Baruc, hijo de Col Hoze, hijo de Hazaías, hijo de Adaías, hijo de Joiarib, hijo de Zacarías, el hijo de la Silonita. 6 Todos los hijos de Fares que vivían en Jerusalén eran 468. Eran hombres sobresalientes. 7 Estos son de los descendientes de Benjamín: Salú, hijo de Mesulam, hijo de Joed, hijo de Pedaías, hijo de Colaías, hijo de Maasías, hijo de Itiel, hijo de Jesaías. 8 Y después de él, Gabai y Salai, un total de novecientos veintiocho hombres. 9 Joel, hijo de Zicri, fue su supervisor, y Juda, hijo de Senúa, fue el segundo en mando sobre la ciudad. 10 De entre los sacerdotes: Jedaías, hijo de Joiarib, Jaquín, 11 Seraías, hijo de Hilcias, hijo de Mesulam, hijo de Sadoc, hijo de Meraiot, hijo de Ahitob, jefe de la casa de Dios, 12 y sus asociados que hicieron el trabajo para la casa, ochocientos veintidoós hombres, junto a Adaías, hijo de Jeroham, hijo de Pelalías, hijo de Amsi, hijo de Zacarías, hijo de Pasur, hijo de Malquías. 13 Sus hermanos eran jefes de familias, doscientos cuarenta y dos hombres, y Amasai, hijo de Azareel, hijo de Azai, hijo de Mesilemot, hijo de Imer, 14 y sus hermanos, valientes hombres de guerra, 128 en total; su oficial dirigente fue Zabdiel, hijo de Gedolim. 15 Y de los Levitas: Semaías, hijo de Hasub, hijo de Azricam, hijo de Hasabías, hijo de Buni, 16 y Sabetai y Jozabad, quienes eran de los jefes de los Levitas y estaban a cargo de la obra exterior de la casa de Dios. 17 Estaba Matanías, hijo de Micaía, hijo de Zabdi, un descendiente de Asaf, quien era el director que comenzó la acción de gracias en oración, y Bacbuquías, el segundo entre sus asociados, y Abda, hijo de Samúa, hijo de Galal, hijo de Jedutún. 18 En toda la ciudad santa habíá doscientos ochenta y cuatro Levitas. 19 Los porteros: Acub, Talmón, y sus asociados, que velaban en las puertas, ciento setenta y dos hombres. 20 Y el resto de Israel y de sus sacerdotes y de los Levitas estaban en todos los pueblos de Judá. Cada uno vivía en su propia propiedad heredada. 21 Los trabajadores del templo vivían en Ofel, y Ziha y Gispa estaban a cargo de ellos. 22 El jefe oficial sobre los Levitas, que estaban sirviendo en Jerusalén, era Uzi, hijo de Bani, hijo de Hasabías, hijo de Matanías, hijo de Micaía, de los descendientes de Asaf, quienes eran cantores sobre la obra en la casa de Dios. 23 Ellos estaban bajo las órdenes del rey y órdenes firmes fueron dadas para los cantores según requería cada día. 24 Y Petaías, hijo de Mesezabeel, un descendiente de Zera, hijo de Judá, estaba al lado del rey en todos los asuntos que concernían al pueblo. 25 En cuanto a las aldeas y sus campos, alguna de la gente de Judá vivía en Quiriat Arba y sus aldeas, y en Dibón y sus aldeas, y en Jecabseel y sus aldeas. 26 Ellos también vivían en Jesúa, en Molada, Bet Pelet, 27 Hazar Sual, y Beerseba y sus aldeas. 28 Y vivían en Siclag, Mecona y sus aldeas, 29 En Rimón, Zora, Jarmut, 30 Zanoa, Adulam y sus aldeas, en Laquis, sus campos y Azeca y sus aldeas. Así que vivían desde Beerseba hasta el valle de Hinom. 31 La gente de Benjamín tambíén vivían desde Geba en adelante, en Micmas, Aía, Betel y sus aldeas. 32 También vivían en Anatot, Nob, Ananías, 33 Hazor, Ramá, Gitaim, 34 Hadid, Seboim, Nebalat, 35 Lod y Ono, el valle de los artesanos. 36 Algunos de los Levitas que vivían en Judá fueron asignados a la gente de Benjamín.

Nehemiah 11:1

el resto del pueblo echaban suertes
"La gente arrojó piedras marcadas para decidir quién sería el responsable" para traer uno de diez

"traer una familia de cada diez familias"

Nehemiah 11:3

en su propia tierra, incluyendo a algunos Israelitas
"en su propia tierra: israelitas"

algunos de los descendientes de Judá y algunos de los descendientes de Benjamín
"Algunas personas de Judá y algunas personas de Benjamín"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La gente de Judá incluía:
"De los descendientes de Judá:"

Benjamín...Ataías...Uzías...Zacarías...Amarías...Sefatías...Mahalaleel...Fares
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

un descendiente de Fares.
"De los descendientes de Pérez"

Nehemiah 11:5

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, Nehemías continúa enumerando a los oficiales provinciales que vivieron en Jerusalén.

Maasías...Baruc...Col Hoze...Hazaías...Adaías...Joiarib..Zacarías...Fares
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Silonita
una persona del pueblo de Siló

los hijos de Fares
"los descendientes de Fares"

468. Eran hombres sobresalientes
"468 hombres valientes" u "468 hombres valientes"

Nehemiah 11:7

Oración de enlace
En estos versículos, Nehemías continúa enumerando a los oficiales provinciales que vivieron en Jerusalén.

Estos son de los descendientes
Es posible que su idioma necesite especificar que esta no es una lista de todos los descendientes. "Estos son algunos de los descendientes"

Benjamín...Salú...Mesulam...Joed...Pedaías...Colaías...Maasías...Itiel...Jesaías. ...Gabai...Salai...Joel..Zicri...Juda...Senúa
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Nehemiah 11:10

Jedaías...Joiarib...Jaquín...Seraías...Hilcias...Mesulam...Zadoc...Meraiot...Ahitob...Allaías...Jehohanat...Pahalías...Amsi...Zacarías...Pas
Estos son nombres de hombres.

que hicieron el trabajo para la casa
La "casa" es la "casa de Dios" (11:11). "quien trabajaba en el templo"

sus asociados
"sus hermanos" o "sus parientes"

Nehemiah 11:13

Sus hermanos
los hermanos de Adaías, hijo de Jeroham (11:10).

hermanos
Esta palabra es una metáfora para 1) compañeros israelitas o 2) personas que hicieron el mismo trabajo. Traducción Alterna: "asociados" o "compañeros de trabajo"

Amasai...Azareel...Azai...Mesilemot...Imer...Zabdiel...Gedolim
Estos son nombres de hombres.

valientes hombres de guerra
"valientes guerreros " o "guerreros corajudos "

Nehemiah 11:15

Semaías...Hasub...Azricam...Hasabías...Buni...Sabetai...JOzabad
Estos son nombres de hombres.

quienes eran de los jefes de los Levitas y estaban a cargo
"de los líderes de los levitas, estaban a cargo"

Nehemiah 11:17

Matanías...Micaía...Zabdi...Asaf...Bacbuquías...Abda...Samúa...Galal...Jed
Estos son nombres de hombres. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

que comenzó la acción de gracias en oración Es decir, quién dirigió a los cantantes (ver UDB).

Bacbuquías, el segundo entre sus asociados Los significados posibles son 1) Bacbquías fue el pariente de Matanías y el segundo en autoridad a Matanías (ver UDB) o 2) "Bacbquías dirigió un segundo grupo de cantantes".

asociados
Otro posible significado es "asociados" o "compañeros de trabajo" (ver UDB).

la ciudad santa
Esta expresión se refiere a la ciudad de Jerusalén.

Nehemiah 11:19

porteros
personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador. Traduce como en 7: 1.

Acub...Talmón...Ziha...Gispa
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Ofel
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Nehemiah 11:22

El jefe oficial
el capataz

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Uzi...Bani...Hasabías...Matanías...Micaía...Asaf...Petaías...Mezabeel...Judá
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Ellos estaban bajo las órdenes del rey
"El rey les había dicho qué hacer"

órdenes firmes fueron dadas para los cantores Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el rey les había dicho específicamente qué hacer con los cantantes" al lado del rey en todos los asuntos que concernían al pueblo

"al lado del rey persa como asesor en todos los asuntos relacionados con el pueblo judío"

Quiriat Arba...Dibón...Jecabseel...Jesúa...Molada, Bet Pelet...Hazar Sual...Beerseba
Estos son nombres de lugares.

Nehemiah 11:28

vivían
Aquí "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Judá.

Siclag...Mecona...Rimón...Zora...Jarmut...Zanoa...Adulam...Laquis...Azec valle de Hinom
Estos son nombres de lugares.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Estos fueron los sacerdotes y Levitas que subieron con Zorobabel, hijo de Salatiel y con Jesúa: Seraías, Jeremías, Esdras, 2 Amarías, Maluc, Hatús, 3 Secanías, Rehum, Meremot, 4 Estaban Iddo, Ginetón, Abías, 5 Mijamín, Maadías, Bilga, 6 Semaías, y Joiarib, Jedaías, 7 Salú, Amoc, Hilcías, y Jedaías. Estos fueron los jefes de los sacerdotes y sus asociados en los días de Jesúa. 8 Los Levitas fueron Jesúa, Binúi, Cadmiel, Serebías, Judá y Matanías, quienes estaban a cargo de las canciones de acción de gracias, junto a sus asociados. 9 Bacbuquías y Uni, sus asociados, se pararon frente a ellos durante el servicio. 10 Jesúa fue el padre de Joiacim, Joiacim, fue el padre de Eliasib, Eliasib fue el padre de Joiada, 11 Joiada fue el padre de Jonatán, y Jonatán fue el padre de Jadúa. 12 En los días de Joiacim, éstos fueron los sacerdotes, los jefes de familias: Meraías fue el jefe de Seraías, Hananías fue el jefe de Jeremías, 13 Mesulam fue el jefe de Esdras, Johanán fue el jefe de Amarías, 14 Jonatán fue el jefe de Melicú, y José fue el jefe de Sebanías. 15 Para continuar, Adna fue el jefe de Harim, Helcai fue el jefe de Meraiot, 16 Zacarias fue el jefe de Iddo, Mesulam fue el jefe de Ginetón, y 17 Zicri fue el jefe de Abías... de Miniamín. Piltai fue el jefe de Moadías. 18 Samúa fue el jefe de Bilga, Jonatán fue el jefe de Semaías, 19 Matenai fue el jefe de Joiarib, Uzi fue el jefe de Jedaías, 20 Calai fue el jefe de Salai, Eber fue el jefe de Amoc, 21 Hasabías fue el jefe de Hilcías, y Natanael fue el jefe de Jedaías. 22 En los días de Eliasib, los Levitas Eliasib, Joiada, Johanán y Judúa fueron inscritos como jefes de familias, y los sacerdotes fueron inscritos durante el reinado de Darío el Persia. 23 Los descendientes de Leví y sus jefes de familias fueron inscritos en el Libro de las Crónicas hasta los días de Johanán, hijo de Eliasib. 24 Los jefes de los Levitas eran Hasabías, Serebías y Jesúa hijo de Cadmiel, con sus asociados quienes se pararon frente a ellos para dar alabanza y dar gracias, respondiendo sección por sección, en obediencia al mandato de David, el hombre de Dios. 25 Matanías, Bacbuquías, Obadías, Mesulam, Talmón y Acub eran los porteros vigilando en los almacenes junto a las puertas. 26 Ellos sirvieron en los días de Joiacim hijo de Jesúa hijo de Josadac, y en los días de Nehemiás el gobernador y de Esdras el sacerdote y escriba. 27 En la dedicación del muro de Jerusalén, el pueblo buscó a los Levitas dondequiera que vivían, para traerlos a Jerusalén para celebrar con gozo la dedicación, con acciones de gracias, cantando con címbalos, arpas y con liras. 28 La fraternidad de cantores se reunió del distrito alrededor de Jerusalén y de las aldeas de los Netofatitas. 29 También vinieron de Bet Gilgal y de los campos de Geba y Azmavet, pues los cantores se habían construído aldeas alredeor de Jerusalén. 30 Los sacerdotes y los Levitas se purificaron, y luego purificaron al pueblo, las puertas y el muro. 31 Entonces hice que los jefes de Judá supieron a la cima del muro, y yo nombré dos coros grandes para que dieran gracias. Uno fue a la derecha en el muro hacia la Puerta del Muladar. 32 Osaías y la mitad de los jefes de Judá les siguieron, 33 y tras de ellos iban Azarías, Esdras, Mesulam, 34 Judá, Benjamín, Semaías, Jeremías, 35 y algunos de los hijos de los sacerdotes con trompetas, y Zacarías, hijo de Jonatán hijo de Semaías, hijo de Matanías, hijo de Micaías, hijo de Zacur, un descendiente de Asaf. 36 También estaban los parientes de Zacarías, Semaías, Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Natanael, Judá, Hanani, con los instrumentos de la música de David el hombre de Dios. Escras el escriba iba delante de ellos. 37 Por la Puerta de la Fuente subieron directo por las escaleras de la ciudad de David en la subida del muro, sobre el palacio de David, a la Puerta de las Aguas al oriente. 38 Y el otro coro de los que daban gracias fue en la otra dirección. Yo los seguí encima del muro con la mitad de la gente, sobre la Torre de los Hornos, al Muro Ancho, 39 y sobre la Puerta de Efraín, y por la Puerta Vieja, y por la Puerta del Pescado y la Torre de Hananeel, y la Torre de los Cien, hasta la Puerta de las Ovejas, y se detuvieron en la Puerta de la Guardia. 40 Así que ambos coros de los que daban gracias tomaron sus lugares en la casa de Dios, y yo también tomé mi lugar con la mitad de los oficiales conmigo. 41 Y los sacerdotes tomaron sus lugares: Eliacim, Maasías, Miniamín, Micaías, Elioenai, Zacarías y Hananías, con las trompetas, 42 Maasías, Semaías, Eleazar, Uzi, Johanán, Malquías, Elam y Ezer. Los cantores cantaban con Izrahías como director. 43 Ellos ofrecieron grandes sacrificios ese día, y se regocijaron, porque Dios hizo que se regocijaran con gran gozo. También las mujeres y los niños se regocijaron. De manera que el gozo de Jerusalén se oía desde lejos. 44 Ese día fueron nombrados hombres para estar a cargo de los almacenes para las contribuciones, las primicias y los diezmos, para recogerlos en las porciones requeridas por la ley para los sacerdotes y para los Levitas. Cada uno fue asignado para trabajar en los cambos cerca de los pueblos. Pues Judá se regocijó sobre los sacerdotes y los Levitas que estaban delante de ellos. 45 Ellos ministraron el servicio de su Dios, y el servicio de la purificaión, según el mandato de David y de Salomón su hijo, y así lo hicieron los cantores y porteros. 46 Por mucho tiempo, en los días de David y Asaf, había directores de los cantores, y había canciones de alabanzas y de acción de gracias. 47 En los días de Zorobabel y en los días de Nehemías, todo Israel daba las porciones diarias para los cantores y los

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

porteros. Separaban la porción que era para los Levitas, y los Levitas apartaban una porción para los descendientes de Aarón.

Nehemiah 12:1

que subieron
"quienes llegaron de Babilonia"

con Zorobabel
"bajo el liderazgo de Zorobabel"

Zorobabel...Salatiel...Jesúa...Seraías...Jeremías...Esdras...Amarías...Maluc...Hatús...Secanías...Rehum...Meremot
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Nehemiah 12:4

Oración de enlace
La lista que comenzó en 12:1 continúa.

Estos fueron
Estas palabras se han agregado para esta traducción. Si continúa la lista que comenzó en 12:1, puede omitir estas palabras.

Iddo...Ginetón...Abías...Mijamín...Maadías...Bilga...Semaías...Joiarib...Jedaías...Salú...Amoc...Hilcías...Jedaías...Jesúa
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

Ginetón
Ginetoi puede ser otra forma del nombre "Ginetón".

Nehemiah 12:8

Jesúa...Binúi...Cadmiel...Serebías...Judá...Matanías...Bacbuquías...Uni
Estos son nombres de hombres.

se pararon frente a ellos durante el servicio
Los posibles significados son 1) esto fue durante un servicio de adoración y estos eran dos grupos de cantantes (ver UDB) u otros adoradores, o 2) estos grupos vigilaban el templo en diferentes momentos, o "se turnaban para proteger el templo".

Nehemiah 12:10

Jesúa...Joiacim...Eliasib...Joiada...Jonatán...Jadúa
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Jesúa fue el padre de Joiacim
Si su lector necesita saber que este Jeshua había sido sumo sacerdote muchos años antes de este tiempo, puede seguir el ejemplo de la UDB. Traducción Alterna: "Jesúa muchos años antes era el sumo sacerdote. Era el padre de Joiacim,".

Nehemiah 12:12

Joiacim...Meraías...Hananías...Mesulam...Johanán..Jonatán...José
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Seraías...Jeremías...Esdras...Amarías...Melicú...Sebanías
Estos son nombres de familias con nombres de hombres.

Nehemiah 12:15

Oración de enlace
La lista que comenzó en 12:12 continúa.

Adna ... Helcai ... Zacarías ... Mesulam ... Zicri ... Piltai ... Samúa ... Jonatán ... Matenai ... Uzi ... Calai ... Eber... Hasabías ... Natanael
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

Harim ... Meraiot... Iddo ... Ginetón ... Abijah ... Miniamin ... Moadiah ... Bilgah ... Shemaiah ... Joiarib ... Jedaiah ... Sallai ... Amok ... Hilkiah ... Jedaiah Todos estos son nombres de familias que llevan nombres de hombres.

fue el jefe de
"era el líder de la familia de" o "era el líder de los descendientes de"

Mesulam fue el jefe de Ginetón Ginetón puede ser otra forma del nombre Ginetoi de Miniamín

El texto hebreo omite erróneamente el nombre del líder de la familia de Miniamín. Algunas versiones modernas dejan la expresión incompleta, como lo hace la ULB. Otras versiones proporcionan una breve explicación para compensar la omisión del nombre del líder (ver UDB).

Moadías
Maadías puede ser otra forma del nombre Moadías

Nehemiah 12:22

Eliasib ... Joiada, Johanán ... Judúa
nombres de hombres

durante el reinado de Darío Otro posible significado es "hasta el reinado de Darío" fueron inscritos en el Libro de las Crónicas Esto puede referirse al Libro de las Crónicas. Los escribas escribieron las palabras de los versículos anteriores en un libro que registraba los eventos de cada día.

hasta los días de Johanán, hijo de Eliasib Los registros en el templo solo se registraron hasta Johanán.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 12:24

quienes se pararon frente a ellos para dar alabanza y dar gracias, respondiendo sección por sección Esto se refiere a cómo cantaron algunas de sus canciones en adoración. Un líder o un grupo cantaría una frase, luego uno o dos grupos que "se pararan frente a ellos" cantarían una frase en respuesta.

en obediencia al mandato de David El rey David había ordenado a los levitas cómo debían organizarse y dirigir la adoración.

en los días de Joiacim...Josadac, y en los días de Nehemías el gobernador y de Esdras....escriba La fecha se fijó enumerando a aquellos que lideraban a los judíos en ese momento. "cuando Joiacim... Josadac era sumo sacerdote, y cuando Nehemías era gobernador y Esdras ... era el escriba"

Hasabías, Serebías ... Jesúa ... Cadmiel ... David ... Matanías, Bacbuquías, Obadías, Mesulam, Talmón, and Acub... Joiacim ... Jesúa ... Josadac ... Nehemías ... Esdras
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Nehemiah 12:27

En la dedicación del muro de Jerusalén Los posibles significados son 1) "En el momento en que dedicaron el muro de Jerusalén" o 2) "Para que la dedicación del muro de Jerusalén pudiera tener lugar".

címbalos
dos placas metálicas delgadas y redondas que se unen para hacer un sonido fuerte

Nehemiah 12:29

Bet Gilgal..Geba y Azmavet
Estos son los nombres de los lugares.

Nehemiah 12:31

los jefes de Judá
Los líderes de las personas que vivían en la región de Judá

Nehemiah 12:32

Osaías ... Azarías, Esdras, Mesulam, Judá, Benjamín, Semaías, Jeremías, ... Zacarías ... Jonatán ... Semaías... Matanías ... Micaías ... Zacur ... Asaf
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

y tras de ellos iban
"y detrás de ellos siguieron"

y algunos de los hijos de los sacerdotes con trompetas, y Zacarías Algunas versiones dicen, "y de entre los sacerdotes con trompetas, Zacarías"

Zacarías, hijo de Jonatán hijo de Semaías, hijo de Matanías, hijo de Micaías, hijo de Zacur, un descendiente de Asaf.
Todos los nombres después de "Zacarías" son los antepasados de Zacarías. Esta lista conecta a Zacarías con el famoso cantante Asaf. "Zacarías, hijo de Jonatán, hijo de Semaías, hijo de Matanías, hijo de Micaías, hijo de Zacur, hijo de Asaf".

Nehemiah 12:36

También estaban
"Junto con ellos fueron"

Zacarías ... Semaías, Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Natanael, Judá, Hanani...David...Esdras
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Escras el escriba iba delante de ellos.
Esdras el escriba los guió

Puerta de la Fuente...Puerta de las Aguas
Estos son los nombres de las aberturas en la pared.

Nehemiah 12:38

coro
"grupo de cantantes"

Yo los seguí
Nehemías los siguió

Torre de los Hornos...Torre de Hananeel... Torre de los Cien Nehemías los siguió. Estos son los nombres de estructuras altas donde la gente vigilaba el peligro.

Muro Ancho
Este es un nombre para parte del muro

Puerta de Efraín...Puerta Vieja...Puerta del Pescado...Puerta de las ovejas...Puerta de la guardia
Estos son los nombres de las aberturas en la pared.

Nehemiah 12:40

también tomé mi lugar
Nehemías está hablando aquí. Traducción Alterna: "Yo, Nehemías, también ocupé mi lugar"

Eliacim...Maasías...Miniamín...Micaías ... Elioenai ... Zacarías ... Hananías ... Maasías... Semaías ... Eleazar ... Uzi ... Johanán ... Malquías...Elam...Ezer Estos son los nombres de los hombres que eran sacerdotes en ese momento.

Izrahías
Este es el nombre de un hombre que fue el líder de los cantantes

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

cantaban
"cantó en voz alta"

Nehemiah 12:43

regocijaran con gran gozo gran regocijo

De manera que el gozo de Jerusalén se oía desde lejos.
"Jerusalén" es una figura literaria

Nehemiah 12:44

fueron nombrados hombres para estar a cargo Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. No está claro quién designó a los hombres. Traducción Alterna: "nombraron hombres para estar a cargo"

las contribuciones
cosas que la gente daba a los sacerdotes

Pues Judá se regocijó sobre los sacerdotes y los Levitas Parece que la gente nombró a los hombres porque la gente de Judá estaba agradecida por los sacerdotes y levitas que estaban sirviendo.

que estaban delante de ellos
Los levitas y los sacerdotes no solo estaban de pie, sino que servían en sus roles. El significado puede ser explícito. Traducción Alterna: "quienes estaban parados delante de ellos sirviendo a Dios".

porteros
personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador. Traducir como en 7: 1.

Nehemiah 12:46

había directores de los cantores
Esta oración dice por qué las personas hicieron lo que hicieron en 12:44 y nos da más información sobre el momento en que David les dijo a las personas cómo adorar en el templo.

En los días de Zorobabel Zorobabel era descendiente del rey David y uno de los gobernadores de la región de Judá.

Separaban la porción
"Todo Israel apartó la porción"

porteros
personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador. Traducir como en 7: 1.

los descendientes de Aarón.
los sacerdotes en Israel, que descendieron de Aarón, el hermano de Moisés

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 Ese día leyeron el Libro de Moisés a oídos del pueblo. Se halló escrito en él que ningún Amonita ni Moabita debía entrar jamás en la asamblea de Dios. 2 Esto se debió a que no habían venido al pueblo de Israel con pan y agua, sino que habían contratado a Balaam para maldecir a Israel. Sin embargo, nuestro Dios convirtió la maldición en bendición. 3 Tan pronto oyeron la ley sacaron de Israel a toda persona extranjera. 4 Ahora, antes de esto, Eliasib el sacerdote, fue encargado sobre los almacenes de la casa de nuestro Dios. Era pariente de Tobías. 5 Eliasib preparó para Tobías un almacén grande, donde antes guardaban la ofrenda de granos, el incienso, los artículos, y los diezmos del grano, del vino nuevo y del aceite, que estaban designados para los Levitas, los cantores, los porteros y las contribuciones para los sacerdotes. 6 Pero en todo este tiempo, yo no estaba en Jerusalén. Porque en el año treinta y dos de Artajerjes, rey de Babilonia, yo fui al rey. Después de algún tiempo, le pedí permiso al rey para salir, 7 y regresé a Jerusalén. Yo entendí el mal que Eliasib había hecho al darle a Tobías un almacén en los atrios de la casa de Dios. 8 Me enfadé grandemente y eché todos los artículos caseros de Tobías fuera del almacén. 9 Dí la orden de que purificaran los almacenes y coloqué alli nuevamente los artículos de la casa de Dios, las ofrendas de granos y el incienso. 10 Y me enteré de que las porciones asignadas para darle a los Levitas no se les había distribuído, y que cada uno se fue a su campo, los levitas y los cantores que hicieron el trabajo. 11 Así que confronté a los oficiales y dije: "¿Por qué está descuidada la casa de Dios?" Los reuní y los asigné a sus puestos. 12 Entonces todo Judá trajo el diezmo de los granos, del vino nuevo y del aceite a los almacenes. 13 Designé como tesoreros sobre los almacenes a Selemías, el sacerdote y a Sadoc, el escriba, y de los Levitas, a Pedaías. Al lado de ellos estaba Hanán, hijo de Zacur, hijo de Matanías, porque se les consideró confiables. Sus deberes eran distribuir las provisiones a sus asociados. 14 Acuérdate de mí, mi Dios, acerca de ésto y no borres las buenas obras que he hecho por la casa de mi Dios y sus servicios. 15 En aquellos días yo vi en Judá a personas pisando los lagares en el día de reposo y trayendo montones de grano y cargándolos sobre los asnos, y también vino, uvas, higos y toda clase de cargas pesadas, que traían dentro de Jerusalén en el día de reposo. Yo protesté que estaban vendiendo alimentos en ese día. 16 ¡Hombres de Tiro que vivían en Jerusalén trajeron pescado y toda clase de víveres, y los vendían en el día de reposo a la gente de Judá y en la ciudad! 17 Entonces confronté a los jefes de Judá: "¿Cuál es este mal que ustedes están haciendo, profanando el dia de reposo? 18 ¿No hicieron esto sus padres? Y nuestro Dios, ¿no trajo todo este mal sobre nosotros y sobre esta ciudad? Ahora ustedes están trayendo más ira sobre Israel al profanar el dia de reposo." 19 Tan pronto anocheció en las puertas de Jerusalén antes del día de reposo, mandé que las puertas fueran cerradas y que no se debían abrir hasta después del día de reposo. Estacioné a algunos de mis sirvientes en las puertas para que ninguna carga pudiera ser traída en el día de reposo. 20 Los mercaderes y vendedores de toda clase de mercancías acamparon fuera de Jerusalén una o dos veces. 21 Pero yo les advertí: "¿Por qué acampan fuera del muro? Si lo vuelven a hacer, los agarraré con mis manos!" Desde ese día en adelante, no volvieron en el día de reposo. 22 Y mandé a los Levitas a que se purificaran, y vinieran a vigilar las puertas, para santificar el día de reposo. Acuérdate de mí por esto también, mi Dios, y ten misericordia de mí por la fidelidad que tienes hacia mí por causa del pacto. 23 En aquellos días también vi a Judíos que se habían casado con mujeres de Asdod, Amón y Moab. 24 La mitad de sus hijos hablaba la lengua de Asdod, pero no podían hablar la lengua de Judá, sino solo la lengua de uno de los otros pueblos. 25 Y los confronté, los maldije, le pegué a algunos de ellos, y les arranqué el pelo. Les hice jurar por Dios, diciendo: "No darán las hijas de ustedes a sus hijos, ni tomarán sus hijas para los hijos de ustedes ni para ustedes mismos. 26 ¿No pecó Salomón, rey de Israel, por causa de estas mujeres? Entre muchas naciones, no había rey como él, y fue amado por su Dios. Y Dios lo puso por rey sobre todo Israel. No obstante, sus esposas extranjeras le hicieron pecar. 27 ¿Debemos, entonces, escucharlos a ustedes y hacer este gran mal, actuando deslealmente en contra de nuestro Dios al casarnos con mujeres extranjeras?" 28 Uno de los hijos de Joiada, hijo de Eliasib, el sumo sacerdote, era yerno de Sanbalat el Horonita. Por lo tanto, lo removí físicamente de mi presencia. 29 Acuérdate de ellos, mi Dios, porque han profanado el sacerdocio, y el pacto del sacerdocio y de los Levitas. 30 Así, los purifiqué de toda cosa extranjera, y establecí los deberes de los sacerdotes y de los Levitas, cada uno a su propia tarea. 31 Hice provisión de leña para la ofrenda de madera para los tiempos designados y para las primicias. Acuérdate de mí, Dios mío, para bien.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nehemiah 13:1

oídos del pueblo
los sacerdotes en Israel, que descendieron de Aarón, el hermano de Moisés

debía entrar jamás en la asamblea de Dios
"nunca debería venir a la asamblea de Dios"

Esto se debió a que
"No pudieron entrar a la asamblea porque"

Nehemiah 13:4

Eliasib el sacerdote, fue encargado
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nombraron al sacerdote Eliasib" o "los líderes nombraron al sacerdote Eliasib"

Era pariente de Tobías
"Eliasib y Tobías trabajaron estrechamente juntos"

Eliasib preparó para Tobías un almacén grande
"Eliasib preparó un gran almacén para Tobias"

porteros
personas asignadas a cada puerta, responsables de controlar el acceso a la ciudad o al templo, así como a abrir y cerrar las puertas a veces y por razones establecidas por el administrador. Traducir como en 7:1

Nehemiah 13:6

Pero en todo este tiempo, yo no estaba en Jerusalén
"Durante el tiempo que sucedió todo esto, estuve lejos de Jerusalén"

el mal que Eliasib había hecho al darle a Tobías un almacén en los atrios de la casa de Dios Esta era una habitación que previamente había sido purificada para almacenar suministros de oferta (13: 4).

Nehemiah 13:10

a los Levitas no se les había distribuído Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente no había estado trayendo a los almacenes sus diezmos y ofrendas de comida para los sacerdotes del templo"

cada uno se fue a su campo, los levitas y los cantores que hicieron el trabajo
"Los levitas y los cantantes que hicieron el trabajo habían salido del templo, cada uno yendo a su propio campo"

Por qué está descuidada la casa de Dios?
Esta es una pregunta retórica ya que Nehemías la usa para desafiar o incluso ridiculizar a los funcionarios que no habían hecho su trabajo.

Nehemiah 13:12

todo Judá
El nombre de la tierra es un metonimo para la gente de la tierra. Esta es probablemente una generalización. Traducción Alterna: "todas las personas que vivieron en Judá"

Selemías...Sadoc...Pedaías...Hanán...Zacu...Matanías
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

porque se les consideró confiables
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. El sustantivo abstracto "confiable" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Sabía que podía confiar en ellos"

Acuérdate de mí, mi Dios, acerca de ésto
"Dios mío, recuérdame acerca de esto".

Nehemiah 13:15

pisando los lagares
La palabra "prensa de vino" es una metonimia para las uvas que estaban en la prensa de vino. La gente caminaba sobre las uvas para sacarles el jugo y hacer vino. Traducción Alterna: "caminando sobre las uvas en los lagares"

pisando
caminar sobre algo para aplastarlo o presionarlo

Nehemiah 13:16

Tiro
nombre de una ciudad

¿Cuál es este mal que ustedes están haciendo, profanando el dia de reposo?
Nehemías está regañando a los líderes de Judá. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Estás haciendo algo malo al profanar el día de reposo". o "Dios te castigará por hacer esta cosa malvada, por profanar el día de reposo".

¿No hicieron esto sus padres?
Nehemías está regañando a los líderes de Judá. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Sabes que tus padres hicieron esto, y es por eso que Dios trajo todo este mal sobre nosotros y sobre esta ciudad".

Nehemiah 13:19

Tan pronto anocheció...antes del día de reposo
"Cuando se puso el sol ... y era hora de que comenzara el sábado"

que las puertas fueran cerradas y que no se debían abrir Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: que los guardias cierran las puertas y no las abren hasta "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para que ninguna carga pudiera ser traída Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nadie podía traer cosas que quería vender"

vendedores de toda clase de mercancía
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nadie podía traer cosas que quería vender"

Nehemiah 13:21

¿Por qué acampan fuera del muro
Nehemías plantea esta pregunta no para recibir una respuesta, sino para reprender a los comerciantes y enfatizar su orden. Traducción Alterna: "Estás acampando fuera de la pared contra lo que te ordené".

los agarraré con mis manos
La palabra "manos" es una figura literaria

Nehemiah 13:23

Oración de enlace
Oración de enlace: estos versículos presentan la acción que sigue.

Judíos que se habían casado con mujeres de Asdod, Amón y Moab
"Judíos que se habían casado con mujeres extranjeras" Dios había prohibido los matrimonios mixtos.

Asdod
nombre de ciudad

Amón...Moab
nombres de naciones

La mitad de sus hijos
"Como resultado, la mitad de sus hijos"

Nehemiah 13:25

Y los confronté
"Les hablé directamente sobre lo que habían hecho"

le pegué a algunos de ellos con sus manos

Les hice jurar por Dios
"Les hice decir una promesa ante Dios"

¿No pecó Salomón, rey de Israel, por causa de estas mujeres?
Nehemías está regañando a los hombres. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Sabes que Salomón, rey de Israel, pecó a causa de estas mujeres".

¿Debemos, entonces, escucharlos a ustedes y hacer este gran mal, actuando deslealmente en contra de nuestro Dios al casarnos con mujeres extranjeras?
Nehemías está regañando a los hombres. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No te escucharemos ni haremos este gran mal ni actuaremos con traición contra nuestro Dios al casarnos con mujeres extranjeras".

Nehemiah 13:28

Joiada...Eliasib...Sanbalat
Estos son nombres de hombres.

El horonita
una persona de la ciudad de Bet-horón

lo removí físicamente de mi presencia
"Lo expulsé" o "Lo hice salir de Jerusalén"

Acuérdate de ellos
"Piensa en ellos" o "Recuerda lo que han hecho"

porque han profanado el sacerdocio
"te han hecho pensar en los sacerdotes y su trabajo como si fueran impuros"

y el pacto del sacerdocio y de los Levitas
"te han hecho pensar en el pacto que hiciste con los sacerdotes y levitas como si fuera inmundo"

Nehemiah 13:30

Así, los purifiqué
"De esta manera los purifiqué" establecí los deberes de los sacerdotes y de los Levitas

"les dijo a los sacerdotes y levitas lo que debían hacer"

Hice provisión de leña para la ofrenda
"Arreglé un suministro de madera para las ofrendas de madera"

para las primicias
"para la ofrenda de primicias en la época de la cosecha"

Acuérdate de mí, Dios mío, para bien.
"Piensa en todo lo que he hecho, Dios mío, y bendíceme por las cosas buenas que he hecho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Esther

Esther

Chapter 1

1 En los días de Asuero (este es el Asuero que reinaba desde la India hasta tan lejos como Etiopía, sobre ciento veintisiete provincias), 2 en aquellos días el Rey Asuero se sentó en su trono real en la fortaleza de Susa. 3 En el tercer año de su reinado, él dio un banquete a todos sus oficiales y sirvientes. El ejército de Persia y Media, los nobles y los gobernadores de las provincias estaban en su presencia. 4 Él mostró la riqueza del esplendor de su reino y el honor de la gloria de su grandeza por muchos días, por ciento ochenta días. 5 Cuando se completaron estos días, el rey ofreció un banquete que duró siete días. Fue para todas las personas del palacio de Susa desde el más grande hasta el menos significante. Fue celebrada en el patio del jardín del palacio del rey. 6 El patio del jardín estaba decorado con cortinas de algodón blanco y violeta, con cordones de lino fino y púrpura, colgados en unos anillos de plata en pilares de mármol. Había sofás de oro y plata en un pavimento de mosaico de porfirio, mármol, madreperla (nácar) y de adoquines. 7 Las bebidas eran servidas en copas de oro. Cada copa era única y había mucho vino real a causa de la generosidad del rey. 8 El tomar del vino se llevó a cabo de acuerdo al decreto: "No se debe obligar." El rey le había dado órdenes a todo el personal de su palacio de hacer por los invitados lo que cada uno deseara. 9 Tambíen la Reina Vasti había ofrecido un banquete para las mujeres del palacio real del Rey Asuero. 10 En el día séptimo, cuando el corazón del rey se estaba sintiendo alegre por el vino, él le dijo a Mehuman, Bitza, Harbona, Bigta, Abagta, Zetar y a Carcas (los siete oficiales que servían en presencia del rey), 11 que trajeran ante él a la Reina Vasti con su corona real. Él quería mostrarle a la gente y a sus oficiales su belleza, pues sus facciones eran impresionantes. 12 Pero, la Reina Vasti se negó a obedecer al mandato del rey que había sido traído por los oficiales. Entonces el rey se enojó mucho, su rabia se encendió dentro de él. 13 Así que el rey consultó con los hombres quienes eran reconocidos como sabios, los que entendían los tiempos (porque éste era el procedimiento del rey hacia todos los que eran expertos en la ley y el juicio). 14 Ahora, los que eran más cercanos al rey eran Carsena, Setar, Admata, Tarsis, Meres, Marsena y Memucán, los siete príncipes de Persia y Media. Ellos tenían acceso al rey y ejercían los mayores oficios dentro del reino. 15 "En cumplimiento de la ley, ¿qué habría de hacerle a la Reina Vasti por no querer obedecer el mandato del Rey Asuero, que le fue llevado por los oficiales?" 16 Memucan dijo en presencia del rey y los oficiales: "No sólo en contra del rey la Reina Vasti ha hecho mal, sino también en contra de todos los oficiales y las personas que viven en todas las provincias del Rey Asuero. 17 Porque el asunto de la reina será conocido a todas las mujeres. Causará que ellas traten a sus esposos con menosprecio. Ellas dirán: 'El Rey Asuero ordenó que la reina fuese llevada delante de él, pero ella se negó.' 18 Antes de que terminara ese día, las mujeres nobles de Persia y Media quienes hayan oído del asunto de la reina, le dirán lo mismo a todos los oficiales del rey. Habrá mucho desprecio y enojo. 19 Si le complace al rey, permita que se envíe un decreto real de su parte, y que sea escrito en las leyes de los Persas y Medas, el cual no será removido, que Vasti ya no pueda venir delante de usted. Que el rey de la posición de reina a otra mujer que sea mejor que ella. 20 Cuando el decreto del rey sea proclamado en todo su vasto reino, todas las esposas harán honor a sus maridos, desde los más grandes a los menos significativos." 21 El rey y sus príncipes estaban complacidos por este consejo, y el rey hizo como Memucan propuso. 22 El envió cartas a todas las provincias reales, a cada provincia en su propia escritura. Él ordenó que cada hombre fuese amo de su propia casa. Este decreto fue dado en el idioma de cada pueblo del imperio.

Esther 1:1

En los dias de Asuero
"En el tiempo de Asuero"o "Cuando Asuero estaba gobernando como rey

(este es el Asuero que reinaba desde la India hasta tan lejos como Etiopía, sobre ciento veintisiete provincias)
Esto es información de tranfondo para ayudar al lector a indentificar a Asuero ciento veintisiete 127 generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

provincias
Una "provincia"es un área grande en el cual algunos países se dividen para propositos de gobrenar.

se sentó en su trono real Aquí "trono real" podría referise a su gobernar sobre su reino. AT. "gobernó el imperio la fortaleza

Un castillo, baluarte, o ciudad fortificada.

Susa.
Una ciudad real de los reyes de Persia.

Esther 1:3

En el tercer año de su reinado
"Después de haber reinado por 2 años (Ver:

El ejército
Ësto puede referirse a los líderes del ejército. AT: Los oficiales del ejército" la riqueza del esplendor de su reino Estas palabras tienen significado similar y enfatizan cuan grandioso era su reino. AT: "la riqueza de su reino"

el honor de la gloria de su grandeza Estas palabras tienen significado similar y enfatizan cuan grande era él. AT: "el esplendor de su grandeza

180
"ciento ochenta"

Esther 1:5

Cuando se completaron estos días,
"Al finalizarse el festín

un banquete que duró siete días.
Esto fue una segundo fiesta solo para los oficiales en Susa. AT. "otra asagajo que duró siete días siete

"7 "

palacio
traduzca esto como en 1: 1

Susa
traduzca esto como en 1:1

un pavimento mosaico
"moisiaco"consiste en piedras de color aregladas en un patrón atractivo.

pórfido
Esto es un tipo de pierdra roja y púrpura que contiene cristal.

Esther 1:7

Las bebidas eran servidas en copas de oro Esto se puede decir en forma activa. AT: "Los invitados bebían vino en copas de oro había mucho vino real a causa de la generosidad del rey.

"El rey fue muy generoso con el vino real"

generosidad
""gran deseo de regalar

No se debe obligar
"A nadie se le debe obligar a beber"

El rey le había dado órdenes a todo el personal de su palacio de hacer por los invitados lo que cada uno deseara.
Esta aseveración significa que el rey le había dado instrucciones a sus obreros que los invitados podían beber tanto vino como querían.

Esther 1:9

En el día séptimo,
"Después de 6 días"

el corazón del rey se estaba sintiendo alegre por el vino Aquí "corazón" se refiere al rey y "sintiendose alegre"es una expresión idiomática que quiere decir que el estaba borracho. AT:"el rey estaba borracho con vino"

Mehuman, Bitza, Harbona, Bigta, Abagta, Zetar, y a Carcas

los siete oficiales que servían en presencia del rey Esto es información de trasfondo que explica quienes eran estos hombre.

pues sus facciones eran impresionantes.
"ella era muy hermosa"

Esther 1:12

al mandato del rey que había sido traído por los oficiales Esto se puede decir en forma activa. AT: cuando"los oficiales del rey le digueron su orden"

mandato
Aquí "palabra"se refiere a la orden completa. AT: "al mandato" su ira se encendió dentro de él.

La intesidad del eojo de rey por así decirlo como si fuera un fuego adentro de él. AT: "su enojo era tan intenso como si fuera un fuego dentro de él"

Esther 1:13

los que entendían los tiempos entendian las cosas que pasaban en sus vidas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

porque este era el procedimiento del rey hacia todos los que eran expertos en la ley y el juicio Esta información de transfondo expica porque el rey llamó a estos hombres.

Carsena, Setar, Admata, Tarsis, Meres, Marsena y Memucán
Esto son nombres ed hombres.

siete
"7 "

Para que se cumpla la ley, Puede ser de ayuda decir quien hizo esta pregunta. AT: En cumplimiento de la ley...por los oficiales?"

en cumplimiento de la ley
"observación de la ley" o "en obediencia a la ley"

Esther 1:16

Memucan
Traduzca su nombre tal como en 1: 13.

todos los oficiales y las personas... todas las provinvias...todas las mujeres Esto son exagoraciones para enfatizar el daño hecho por la negación de la reina.

provincias
traduzca como en 1:1

Habrá mucho desprecio y enojo.
"Estarán enojadas con sus esposos y los tratarán con desprecio"

Esther 1:19

Oración de enlace:
Memucan continua contestando al rey.

Si le complace al rey...de su parte... delante de usted...decreto del rey... su vasto reino Mer\mucan le habla al rey en tercera persona como una forma de respeto. Traducción alterna: Si le complace a su Majestad...de su parte...delante de usted... decreto del rey ...su vasto reino"

no será removido
Esto puede ser dicho en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el cual nadie puede cambiar"

Cuando el decreto del rey es proclamado
Esto puede ser dicho en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cuando escuchen el decreto del rey"o "cuando escuchen lo que ha ordenado"

vasto grande o enorme

desde los mas grande a lo menos significativo
Esto es un conjunto que hace referencia a ambos extremos y a todos entre medio. Esto probablemente se refiere a no solo a los esposos pero también es posible que se refiera a las esposas.

Esther 1:21

Memucan
traduzca su nombre como en 1:1.

provincias
traduce esto como en1:1

cada hombre fuese amo de su propia casa.
"todos los hombres debe tener autoridad completa sober sus esposas y sus hijos(UDB)

Este decreto fue dado Esto puede decirse de forma activa. Traduccion alterna: Ellos escriben este decreto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Después de éstas cosas, cuando el enojo del Rey Asuero disminuyó, el pensó en Vasti y en lo que ella había hecho. Él también pensó sobre el decreto que él había hecho en contra de ella. 2 Entonces los hombres jóvenes que servían al rey dijeron: "Que se haga una búsqueda de bellas jóvenes vírgenes para el rey. 3 Permite que el rey asigne oficiales en todas las provincias de su reino, para reunir a todas las bellas jóvenes para el harén en el palacio en Susa. Deja que sean puestas bajo el cuidado de Hegai, el oficial del rey, quien está a cargo de las mujeres y que les dé sus cosméticos. 4 Deja que la joven que agrade al rey se convierta en la reina en lugar de Vasti." Este consejo le agradó al rey, y así lo hizo. 5 Había cierto judío en la ciudad de Susa cuyo nombre era Mardoqueo hijo de Jair, hijo de Simei hijo de Cis, quien era Benjamita. 6 Él había sido alejado de Jerusalén con los exiliados, en conjunto con aquellos deportados con Jeconías, rey de Judá, a quien Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, había llevado cautivo. 7 El estaba cuidando a Hadasa, eso es, Ester, la hija de su tío, porque ella no tenía ni padre ni madre. La joven mujer tenía una bella figura y era de hermosa apariencia. Mardoqueo la tomó como su propia hija. 8 Cuando la orden del rey y su decreto fue proclamado, muchas mujeres jóvenes fueron llevadas al palacio en Susa. Fueron colocadas bajo el cuidado de Hegai. Ester también fue llevada al palacio del rey y puesta bajo el cuidado de Hegai, encargado de las mujeres. 9 La joven le agradó a él, y ella ganó su favor. Inmediatamente él le proveyó a ella cosméticos y su porción de comida. Él le asignó a ella siete sirvientas del palacio del rey y la movió a ella y a sus sirvientas al mejor lugar en la casa de las mujeres. 10 Ester no le había dicho a nadie cuál era su pueblo o sus parientes, porque Mardoqueo le había instruido que no lo dijera. 11 Cada día Mardoqueo caminaba de un lado a otro al frente del patio del jardín, fuera de la casa de las mujeres, para saber sobre el bienestar de Ester, y qué pasaría con ella. 12 Cuando le llegó el turno a cada joven de ir al Rey Asuero, obedeciendo las regulaciones para las mujeres, cada joven tenía que completar doce meses de tratamientos de belleza, seis meses con aceite de mirra, y seis con perfumes y cosméticos- 13 cuando una joven mujer iba a donde al rey, cualquier cosa que ella deseara se le daba de la casa de las mujeres, para que ella lo llevara al palacio. 14 Al atardecer ella entraba, y en la mañana regresaba a la segunda casa de las mujeres, y a la custodia de Saazgaz, el oficial del rey, quien estaba a cargo de las concubinas. Ella no regresaría al rey otra vez a menos que él hubiera quedado grandemente complacido con ella y la llamara otra vez. 15 Ahora, cuando llegó el tiempo para que Ester (hija de Abihail, el tío de Mardoqueo, quien la había tomado a ella como su propia hija) fuera al rey, ella no pidió nada excepto lo que Hegai el oficial del rey, quien estaba a cargo de las muejeres, le sugirió. Ahora, Ester ganó el favor de todos los que la veían. 16 Ester fue llevada al Rey Asuero dentro de la residencia real en el décimo mes, el cual es el mes de Tebet, en el séptimo año de su reinado. 17 El rey amó a Ester más que a todas las otras mujeres y ella ganó favor y bondad delante de él, más que todas las otras vírgenes, así que puso la corona real sobre la cabeza de ella y la hizo reina en lugar de Vasti. 18 El rey dio un gran banquete para todos sus oficiales y sus sirvientes, "el banquete de Ester", y concedió alivio de impuestos a las provincias. También dió regalos con generosidad real. 19 Ahora, cuando las vírgenes habían sido reunidas una segunda vez, Mardoqueo estaba sentado a la puerta del rey. 20 Ester aún no le había dicho a nadie acerca de sus familiares o su pueblo, como Mardoqueo le había instruído. Ella continuó siguiendo el consejo de Mardoqueo, como ella había hecho cuando fue criada por él. 21 En esos días, mientras Mardoqueo estaba sentado a la puerta del rey, dos de los oficiales del rey, Bigtán y Teres, quienes guardaban la entrada, se enojaron y buscaron hacerle daño al Rey Asuero. 22 Cuando el asunto fue revelado a Mardoqueo, él le dijo a la Reina Ester, y Ester le habló al rey en nombre de Mardoqueo. 23 El informe fue investigado y confirmado y ambos hombres fueron colgados en la horca. Y el suceso fue escrito en el Libro de las Crónicas en la presencia del rey.

Esther 2:1

Después de estas cosas
Esto introduce un nuevo evento que ocurrió un tiempo después.

el enojo del Rey Asuero disminuyó
"El rey estuvo menos enojado"

el decreto
Esto se refiere al decreto en 1:19.

Que se haga una búsqueda Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dile a tus sirvientes que busquen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para el rey
Los hombres le hablan al rey en tercera persona como una señal de respeto. Traducción Alterna: "en su nombre"

Esther 2:3

Oración de enlace
Los jóvenes sirvientes continúan hablándole al rey.

Permite que el rey... el oficial del rey... que agrade al rey
Los sirvientes le hablaban al rey en tercera persona como señal de respeto. Traducción Alterna: "Tú deberías... tu oficial... te agrada"

provincias
Traduzca esto como en 1:1.

harén
"lugar donde guardan las esposas de un gobernante" (UDB)

palacio
Traduzca esto como en 1:5

Susa
Traduzca esto como en 1:1.

Deja que sean puestas bajo el cuidado de Hegai, el oficial del rey, quien está a cargo de las mujeres
Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Permite que Hegai, el oficial del rey, que está acargo de las mujeres, las cuide"

Hegai
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

sus cosméticos
Un "cosmético" es una sustancia como una crema, loción, o polvo que las mujeres usualmente ponen en sus caras o cuerpo para mejorar su apariencia.

Esther 2:5

Había un cierto judío
Esto introduce a Mardoqueo como un personaje nuevo en la historia.

Susa
Traduzca el nombre de esta ciudad como en 1:1.

hijo de Jair, hijo de Simei hijo de Cis
"Jair", "Simei", "Cis" son hombres de quienes "Mardoqueo" era el hombre descendiente.

Benjamita
"de la tribu de Benjamín" (UDB)

Él había sido alejado... rey de Babilonia, había llevado cautivo Esta información de trasfondo explica como Mardoqueo llegó a vivir en Susa. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, lo alejó a el y a los otros exiliados junto con Jeconías, rey de Judá"

Él había sido alejado de Jerusalén
El texto hebreo no deja claro de quien se habla aquí. Probablemente habla de Cis, que parece ser el bisabuelo de Mardoqueo. Si es Mardoqueo, pues el sería muy anciano al tiempo de los eventos concernientes a Ester. Muchas versiones modernas no dejan este asunto claro. Pocas versiones, incluyendo la UDB, escogen asumir que era Mardoqueo quien fue llevado de Jerusalén.

Jeconías, rey de Judá

Esther 2:7

Oración de enlace:
Esto continúa la información de trasfondo de Mardoqueo y explica su relación a Ester.

Hadasa
Este es el nombre hebreo de Ester.

la hija de su tío
"su prima" (UDB)

ella no tenía ni padre ni madre
"su padre y su madre habían muerto"

la tomó como su propia hija
"la cuidó como si fuera su propia hija"

Esther 2:8

Cuando la orden del rey y su decreto fue proclamado
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Luego de que el rey ordenara que buscaran algunas jóvenes hermosas" proclamado

"anunciado"

muchas mujeres jóvenes fueron llevadas Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ellos trajeron muchas jóvenes"

palacio
Traduzca esto como en 1:5.

Fueron colocadas bajo el cuidado de Hegai Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hegai comenzó a cuidarlas"

Ester también fue llevada al palacio del rey y puesta bajo el cuidado de Hegai, encargado de las mujeres Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hegai, el supervisor de las mujeres, también comenzó a cuidar a Ester cuando la trajeron al palacio del rey"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La joven le agradó a él, y ella ganó su favor
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan cuanto ella le agradaba. Traducción Alterna: "La joven lo agradaba grandemente"

La joven
"Ester"

Esther 2:10

sobre el bienestar de Ester
"como estaba Ester" o "del bienestar de Ester"

Esther 2:12

Información General:
Los versículos 12-14 son información de trasfondo sobre las costumbres para las mujeres que se convertían en esposas del rey.

obedeciendo las regulaciones para las mujeres
"actuando de acuerdo a los requisitos de las mujeres"

tratamientos de belleza
Cosas hechas para que las mujeres se vean más hermosas y huelan bien.

cosméticos
Utilice la misma palabra o frase utilizada en 2:3.

cualquier cosa que ella deseara se le daba Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ella podia tomar cualquier cosa que ella deseara"

palacio
Traduzca esto como en 1:5

Esther 2:14

Oración de enlace:
Esto continúa con la información de trasfondo que comenzó en 2:12 sobre las costumbres de las mujeres que se convertían en esposas del rey.

en la mañana
Está implícito que esta es la siguiente mañana. Esta información puede ser hecha clara. Traducción Alterna: "la próxima mañana" segunda casa

"una casa diferente"

custodia
"supervisión" o "protección" (UDB)

Saazgaz
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

Esther 2:15

cuando llegó el tiempo
Esto introduce una nueva parte de la historia.

hija de Abihail, el tío de Mardoqueo, quien la había tomado a ella como su propia hija Esta información de trasfondo le recuerda al lector de la relación de Ester y Mardoqueo.

Abihail
"Abihail" era el padre de Ester y el tío de Mardoqueo.

ella no pidió nada excepto
Esto se puede declarar de manera positiva. "ella pidió solo"

Hegai
Traduzca este nombre como lo hizo en 2:3.

ganó el favor de todos Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "agradó a todos"

el décimo mes, el cual es el mes de Tebet
"Tebet" es el nombre del décimo mes en el calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de Diciembre y la primera parte de Enero en los alendarios occidentales.

séptimo año
"año número 7"

Esther 2:17

El rey amó
Este es el uso romántico de la palabra "amor"

ella ganó favor y bondad delante de él Estas expresiones idiomáticas significan lo mismo y enfatizan cuanto Ester agradaba al rey. Traducción Alterna: "lo agradaba grandemente"

puso la corona real sobre la cabeza de ella
El rey hizo esto para demostrar que la estaba haciendo su reina.

"el banquete de Ester" Puede ser de ayuda declarar que este era el nombre de la fiesta. Traducción Alterna: "él la llamó, "el banquete de Ester"

impuestos
"colección de impuestos"

provincias
Traduzca esto como en 1:1.

generosidad real
"generosidad que solo un rey puede dar" (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esther 2:19

cuando las vírgenes habían sido reunidas una segunda vez
No está claro cuando esta segunda reunión ocurrió, y por qué. Por ende algunas versiones han alterado el texto un poco. Es probablemente mejor traducirlo como está escrito.

una segunda vez
"una vez más" o "una vez adicional"

Mardoqueo estaba sentado a la puerta del rey
Los significados posibles son 1) Mardoqueo estaba sentado ahí para escuchar como le iba a Ester por la mucha gente que pasaba por la puerta o 2) "sentado a la puerta del rey" es una expresión idiomática que significa que a Mardoqueo le fue dado una posición de autoridad por el rey.

la puerta del rey
"la puerta al palacio del rey"

como Mardoqueo le había instruído Mardoqueo le dijo que no le dijera a nadie sobre su familia.

En esos días
Esto introduce un evento nuevo en la historia.

Bigtán y Teres
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Esther 2:22

Cuando el asunto fue revelado a Mardoqueo Esto se puede declarar de manera activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando Mardoqueo se enteró de lo que estaban planificando"

en nombre de Mardoqueo Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "de parte de Mardoqueo"

El informe fue investigado y confirmado, y ambos hombres fueron colgados de la horca Esto puede ser declarado de manera activa. Traducción Alterna: "El rey investigó y confirmó el informe, y ordenó a sus sirvientes a que ahorcaran a los dos hombres"

la horca
Esto era una estructura utilizado para matar gente atando un lado de la soga a la parte superior de la estructura y el otro lado alrededor del cuello y colgándolos. Traducción Alterna: "un marco para colgar personas"

el suceso fue escrito Esto puede ser declarado de manera activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos documentaron este suceso"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Después de estas cosas, el Rey Asuero promovió a Amán hijo de Hamedata el Agagueo, y lo colocó en asiento de autoridad sobre todos los oficiales que estaban con él. 2 Todos los siervos del rey que estaban en la puerta del rey siempre se arrodillaban y se postraban ante Amán, como el rey había ordenado que hicieran. Pero Mardoqueo ni se arrodilló ni se postró. 3 Entonces los siervos del rey que estaban en la puerta del rey le dijeron a Mardoqueo: "¿Por qué desobedeces la orden del rey?" 4 Ellos hablaban con él día tras día, pero él se negaba a obedecer sus demandas. Así que ellos hablaron con Amán sobre el asunto de Mardoqueo para ver si se quedaba así, ya que Mardoqueo les había dicho que él era judío. 5 Cuando Amán vió que Mardoqueo no se arrodilló ni se postró ante él, Amán se llenó de ira. 6 El consideró la idea de matar sólo a Mardoqueo, ya que el siervo del rey le había dicho quien era el pueblo de Mardoqueo. Amán quería exterminar a todos los judíos, el pueblo de Mardoqueo, que estaban en el reino de Asuero. 7 En el primer mes (que es el mes de Nisán) en el año duo-décimo del rey Asuero, ellos echaron el Pur, es decir echaron la suerte ante Amán, suerte para cada día y mes, hasta que la suerte calló sobre el duo-décimo mes (el mes de Adar). 8 Entonces Amán le dijo al rey Asuero: "Hay cierto pueblo esparcido y disperso entre todas tus provincias de tu reino. Sus leyes son diferentes a las de otros pueblos, y no obedecen los decretos del rey, por lo cual no es conveniente dejarlos que se queden. 9 Si le complace al rey, dé la orden para matarlos, y yo pagaré diez mil talentos de plata en las manos de aquellos que están encargados de los negocios del rey para ponerlos en los tesoros del rey." 10 Entonces el tomó el anillo de sellar de su mano y se lo dió a Amán hijo de Hamedata el Agagueo, enemigo de los judíos. 11 El rey le dijo a Amán: "Veré que el dinero se te devuelva a tí y a tu pueblo. Tu harás con el como tu quieras." 12 Entonces los escribas del rey fueron convocados en el día trece del primer mes, y fue escrito un decreto que contenía todo lo que Amán había ordenado a todos los gobernadores de las provincias del rey, aquellos que estaban sobre las provincias, a los gobernadores de todos los puebos y a los oficiales de todos los pueblos, a cada provincia en su idioma y a cada pueblo en su propio lenguaje. Fue escrito en el nombre del rey Asuero y sellado con su anilo. 13 Los decretos fueron entregados por correo a todas las provincias del rey, para aniquilar, matar, y destruir a los judíos, desde los pequeños hasta los ancianos, niños y mujeres, en un día - el décimo tercer día del duo-décimo mes (el cual es el mes de Adar) y saquearles sus posesiones. 14 Una copia del decreto fue hecha ley en cada provincia. En cada provincia fue conocido a todo el pueblo que ellos deberían prepararse para ese día. 15 Los corredores salieron a toda prisa para distribuir las órdenes del rey. El decreto también fue distribuído en el palacio de Susa. El rey y Amán se sentaron a tomar, pero la ciudad de Susa estaba en gran confusión.

Esther 3:1

Después de estas cosas
Esto introduce un evento nuevo en la historia.

Amán hijo de Hamedata el Agagueo
Este es el nombre y descripción de Amán, uno de los oficiales del rey.

colocó en asiento de autoridad sobre todos los oficiales que estaban con él.
Aquí "asiento de autoridad" representa su posición o estatus en el gobierno. Traducción alterna: "lo promovió sobre los demás oficiales" o "le dio más autoridad que a los todos los demás oficiales"

se arrodillaban... se postraban
Estas acciones representan sumisión a la autoridad de Amán.

postraban ante Amán
"se humillaron a sí mismos y se acostaron de forma plana sobre el suelo ante Amán"

Esther 3:3

el asunto de Mardoqueo para ver si se quedaba así
"para averiguar qué Amán haría sobre las acciones de Mardoqueo"

Esther 3:5

no se arrodilló ni se postró
No haciendo estas acciones, Mardoqueo mostró falta de respeto de la posición en el gobierno de Amán.

Amán se llenó de ira Aquí se habla de la ira de Amán como algo que lo podía llenar. Traducción alterna: "Amán se volvió muy enojado"

Él consideró la idea de matar sólo a Mardoqueo
"Él rechazó la idea de matar sólo a Mardoqueo." Esto también puede ser declarado de forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "Él quería matar más que sólo a Mardoqueo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

exterminar a todos los judíos,
"deshacerse de todos los judíos" o "matar a todos los judíos"

Esther 3:7

En el primer mes
"En el mes primero"

que es el mes de Nisán
"Nisán" es el nombre del primer mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

en el año duo-décimo del rey Asuero
"en el año número 12 del rey Asuero" o "cuando el rey Asuero había reinado por alrededor de doce años"

el Pur, es decir echaron la suerte
"ellos lanzaron el Pur -- esto es el lote o sorteo--"

duo-décimo mes
"mes doce"

el mes de Adar
"Adar" es el nombre del doce y último mes del calendario hebreo. Es durante la última parte de febrero y la primera parte de marzo en calendarios occidentales.

Esther 3:8

cierto pueblo
"un grupo de gente". Esto se refiere a los judíos como un grupo étnico.

esparcido y disperso
"que viven en muchos diferentes lugares"

provincias
Traduce esto como en 1:1.

no es conveniente dejarlos que se queden
"el rey no debe dejarlos permanecer". Esto puede ser declarado de forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "el rey debe removerlos"

del rey... rey
Amán habló al rey en tercera persona como una señal de respeto. Traducción alterna: "tu... tú"

yo pagaré... en las manos de aquellos Aquí "manos" se refiere a los hombres. "Pagaré" significa pagarles. Traducción alterna: "Yo pagaré... a los hombres"

diez mil talentos de plata
"340 toneladas métricas de plata"

Esther 3:10

anillo de sellar
un anillo especial que puede ser usado para imprimir el sello oficial del rey en una proclama.

Veré que el dinero se te devuelva a tí
El significado de la frase no está clara. Significado posible son 1) "yo te retornaré el dinero a ti" 2) "toma el dinero y dáselolo a los hombres así como has dicho."

Esther 3:12

los escribas del rey fueron llamados... un decreto que contenía todo lo que Amán había ordenado Esto puede ser escrito de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El rey llamó sus escribas... ellos escribieron el decreto conteniendo todo lo que Amán había mandado"

día trece del primer mes
Este es el primer mes del mes en el calendario hebreo. El día trece está cerca el comienzo de abril en calendario occidentales.

gobernadores de las provincias del rey
"gobernantes de las provincias." Traduce "provincia" como en el 1:1.

Fue escrito en el nombre del rey Asuero y sellado con su anillo Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos escribieron el decreto en el nombre del rey Asuero y Amán lo selló con el anillo del rey"

en el nombre del
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos escribieron el decreto en el nombre del rey Asuero y Amán lo selló con el anillo del rey.

entregados por correo entregado -- Esta expresión idiomática significa que ellos personalmente entregaron las cartas. Traducción alterna: "entregaron personalmente"

aniquilar, matar, y destruir Estas palabras significan la misma cosa y enfatizan la destrucción completa. Traducción alterna: "destruirán completamente"

décimotercer día del duo-décimo mes
"el día trece del mes doce."

el cual es el mes de Adar
"Adar" es el nombre del mes doce y último del calendario hebreo. El día trece está cerca del comienzo de marzo en el calendario occidental.

saquearles
"tomarles", "llevarles"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esther 3:14

Una copia del decreto fue hecha ley en cada provincia
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Los oficiales en cada provincia hicieron la copia de la carta convertirse en ley"

provincia
Traduce esto como en el 1:1.

En cada provincia fue conocido a todo el pueblo
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Ellos le dijeron a todas las personas en cada provincia"

ese día
"este día"

El decreto también fue distribuído
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Ellos también distribuyeron el decreto"

Susa

estaba en tumulto.
"estaba en estado de gran confusión"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Cuando Mardoqueo supo todo lo que se había hecho, se desgarró la ropa y se puso cilicio y cenizas. El salió al centro de la ciudad, y gritó con un grito fuerte y amargo. 2 El sólo fue hasta el portón del rey, porque no se permitía a nadie entrar vestido en ropa de cilicio. 3 En todas las provincias donde la ordenanza y el decreto del rey llegaban, había un gran luto entre los judios, con ayuno, duelo y lamento. Muchos de ellos estaban acostados en cilicio y cenizas. 4 Cuando las mujeres jóvenes y las sirvientas de Ester vinieron a ella y se lo dijeron, la reina se angustió. Ella envió vestiduras a Mardoqueo (para que se quitara su cilicio), pero él no las aceptó. 5 Entonces, Ester llamó a Hatac, uno de los oficiales del rey que habia sido asignado a servirle. Ella le ordenó que fuera a Mardoqueo para investigar que había pasado y cuál era el significado. 6 Entonces Hatac fué a Mardoqueo en la plaza al frente del portón del rey. 7 Mardoqueo le reportó lo que le había pasado, y la cantidad de plata que Amán había prometido pesar y poner en el tesoro del rey para conseguir matar a los judios. 8 También le dió una copia del decreto que fué dado en Susa para la destrucción de los judíos. Hizo esto para que Hatac pudiera mostrárselo a Ester, y hacerla responsable de ir al Rey a rogar en su favor, y suplicarle en favor de su pueblo. 9 Entonces Hatac fué y le dijo a Ester lo que Mardoqueo había dicho. 10 Y Ester habló con Hatac y le dijo que regresara a Mardoqueo. 11 También le dijo: "Todos los sirvientes del Rey, y el pueblo de las provincias del Rey, saben que cualquier hombre o mujer que entra al patio interior sin ser convocado, una sola ley hay al respecto: tiene que morir - a menos que el Rey le extendiere el cetro de oro para que el viva. Yo no he sido llamada para que vaya al Rey en los ultimos treinta días." 12 Entonces Hatac le reportó las palabras de Ester a Mardoqueo. 13 Mardoqueo envió este mensaje:"Tu no debes pensar que por vivir en el palacio del Rey, tu escaparás sobre todos los otros judios. 14 Si tu te quedas callada en este tiempo, alivio y rescate subirá para los judios de otro sitio, pero tu y la casa de tu padre perecerá. ¿Quién sabe si tu has venido a esta posición real para un tiempo como éste?" 15 Entonces Ester envió este mensaje a Mardoqueo, 16 "ve y reune a todos los judíos que viven en Susa, y ayunen por mi. No coman ni beban por tres días, noche y día. Mis muchachas jóvenes y yo, ayunaremos de la misma manera. Entonces yo iré al rey, aunque sea contra la ley. Y si yo perezco, que perezca." 17 Mardoqueo se fue, e hizo todo lo que Ester le dijo que hiciera.

Esther 4:1

supo todo lo que se había hecho
"supieron sobre esas cartas"

se desgarró la ropa y se puso cilicio y cenizas Estos actos son signos de severa tristeza. TA: "desgarraron sus vestiduras y se vistieron de cilicio y ceniza para mostrar su sufrimiento"

provincias
Traduce esto como en 1:1.

había un gran luto entre los judios
"los judíos sufrieron grandemente"

acostados en cilicio y cenizas
"recostados, vestidos en cilicio y cenizas" (UDB)

Esther 4:4

las mujeres jóvenes y las sirvientas
"sirvientas y sirvientes" (siervas y siervos)

vestiduras a Mardoqueo
"para Mardoqueo vestirse"

Hatac

uno de los oficiales del rey que habia sido asignado a servirle Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "uno de los oficiales al cual el rey había asignado a servirle a ella"

Esther 4:6

Hatac
Traduce el nombre de este hombre como en 4:4.

en la plaza al frente
"la plaza de la ciudad"

Amán
Traduce el nombre como en 3:1.

También le dió
"Mardoqueo también dió a Amán"

suplicarle en favor
"suplicarle por el favor del rey"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esther 4:9

cualquier hombre o mujer que entra al patio interior ... a menos que el Rey le extendiere el cetro de oro Esta clausura condicional puede ser expresada como una declaración. También puede ser de ayuda dividirlos en dos oraciones. Traducción Alterna: "ningún hombre ni mujer está permitido ver al rey adentro del patio interior a menos que el rey los llame. La persona que rompa esta ley será ejecutado a menos que el rey extienda su cetro de oro a ellos"

treinta días
"30 días"

Esther 4:13

alivio y rescate subirá para los judíos de otro sitio Aquí se habla de "alivio"y "rescate" como si fueran cosas vivas que puedan levantarse. Traducción Alternativa: "alguien más se levantará de otro sitio y rescatará a los judíos" ¿Quien sabe si tu has venido a esta posición real para un tiempo como este?

El propósito de esta pregunta es hacer que Ester piense profundamente sobre su rol en esta situación. Traducción Alterna: "¿Quién sabe? A lo mejor era para un tiempo como este que fuistes coronada como reina".

Esther 4:15

Susa
Traduce como en 1:1.

ayunen por mi ... ayunaremos Ayunar era un acto simbólico que los judíos hacían cuando estaban orando intensamente. Esto puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "ayunen y oren por mi ... oraré y ayunaré

tres días
"3 días"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Después de tres días, Ester se puso sus ropas reales y estuvo de pie en el jardin interior del palacio del rey, en frente de la casa del rey. El rey estaba sentado en su trono real, en la casa real, de frente a la entrada de la casa. 2 Cuando el rey vió a la Reina Ester de pie en la corte, se ganó su favor. El extendió el cetro de oro que tenía en su mano hacia ella. Ester se acercó y tocó la punta del cetro. 3 Luego el rey le dijo a ella: "¿Qué quieres, Reina Ester? ¿Cúal es tu petición? Hasta la mitad de mi reino te será dado." 4 Ester dijo: "Si le place al rey, permita que el rey y Amán vengan hoy a un banquete que tengo preparado para el rey." 5 Luego el rey dijo, "Traigan a Amán rápidamente, para hacer lo que Ester dice." Así que el rey y Amán fueron al banquete que Ester había preparado. 6 Mientras el vino estaba siendo servido en el banquete, el rey le dijo a Ester: "¿Cúal es tu petición? Ésta te será concedida. ¿Cuál es tu solicitud? Hasta la mitad del reino te será entregado." 7 Ester contestó: "Mi petición y solicitud es ésta: 8 si he hallado favor ante los ojos del rey y si le place al rey conceder mi petición y honrar mi solicitud, venga el rey y Amán al banquete que prepararé mañana para ustedes, entonces contestaré la pregunta del rey." 9 Amán salió aquel día gozoso y con corazón contento. Pero cuando Amán vio a Mardoqueo en el portón del palacio del rey, y éste ni se levantó ni se atemorizó ante él, Amán se llenó de ira contra Mardoqueo. 10 Sin embargo, Amán se controló y se fue a su casa. Envió a buscar a sus amigos y los reunió con su esposa, Zeres. 11 Amán les contó sobre el esplendor de sus riquezas, el número de sus muchos hijos, todas las promociones con que el rey lo habia honrado; y cómo él había superado a todos los oficiales y sirvientes del rey. 12 Amán dijo: "La Reina Ester no ha invitado a otra persona, sino a mí, para ir con el rey al banquete que ella preparó. E incluso mañana, volví a ser invitado por ella para estar junto al rey. 13 Pero todo esto no vale nada para mí mientras vea a Mardoqueo el Judío sentado en el portón del palacio del rey." 14 Y le dijeron Zeres su esposa y todos sus amigos: "Que construyan una horca de cincuenta codos de alto. En la mañana habla al rey para que cuelguen a Mardoqueo en ella. Luego vete gozoso con el rey al banquete." Esto complació a Amán e hizo que se construyera la horca.

Esther 5:1

se gano su favor
él le agrado ella o él la aprobó a ella.

El extendió el cetro de oro que tenía en su mano hacia ella.
El hizo esto para mostrat que él estaba complacido con ella.

tocó la punta del cetro.
Ella probablemente hizo esto para mostar que ella respetaba su autoridad y que estaba agradecida de su amabilidad para con ella.

Esther 5:3

Hasta la mitad de mi reino te será dado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "si tu me lo pides yo te daré la mitad de mi reino, yo te lo daría".

"Si le place al rey, permita que el rey y Amán vengan hoy a un banquete que tengo preparado para el rey."
Traducción alterna: "Oh, Rey, si te place, venga y traiga a Amán...para usted" o "Si usted desea, Señor, venga y deje que Amán venga con usted..."

Amán
Traducir según en 3:1.

Esther 5:5

¿Cúal es tu petición?
El nombre abstracto de petición se expresar con el verbo pideme o preguntame. Traducción alterna: ¿Qué es lo que me preguntas? o ¿Qué es lo que tu quieres?

Te será concedida"
Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: Yo te daré lo que has pedido o Yo haré lo que has pedido.

Hasta la mitad del reino te será entregado.
Traducción alterna: Si tu me pides la mitad del reino, yo te la daría.

Esther 5:7

Mi petición y solicitud
Las palabras petición y solicitud significan la misma cosa. Ella probablemente utilizo estas palabras juntas de manera que su hablar fuera formal y respetuoso al rey.

si he hallado favor ante los ojos del rey Hallar favor significa ser aprobado o que él está complacido con ella. "Ante los ojos del rey", es una metáfora que representa su evaluación. Traducción alterna" "si el rey me evalúa y aprueba" o "si el rey se complace conmigo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

si he hallado favor ante los ojos del rey y si le place al rey Para mostrar respeto al rey, la gente no le decia tú, sino usted.

venga el rey y Amán Traducción alterna: Por favor venga y traiga a Amán o Por favor venga y deje que Amán venga con usted.

entonces contestaré la pregunta del rey
Esto puede ser traducido añadiendo su u otras palabras para mostrar respeto. Traducción alterna: y yo contestaré a su pregunta.

Esther 5:9

Mardoqueo no se levantó Levantarse era un signo de respeto. Mardoqueo no le dió a Amán un respeto especial.

se llenó de ira
Estar lleno de ira, representaba el estar muy enojado. Traducción alterna: el estaba extremadamente enojado.

Sin embargo
Aquí se puede traducir en una frase su significado. "A pesar de estar muy enojado..."

Amán se controló
Controlarse a si mismo significa rehusarse a hacer algo que desea mucho hacer. Amán no quería demostrar a Mardoqueo que el estaba muy enojado. Traducción alterna: Amán se negó a mostrar cúan enojado él estaba.

Zeres
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Amán les contó sobre el esplendor de sus riquezas Esplendor y riquezas son nombres abstractos. Traducción Alterna: Amán les contó a ellos cuan grande era su riqueza o Amán les contó sobre todas las grandes cosas que él poseía.

todas las promociones con que el rey lo habia honrado
El nombre abstracto de promoción se puede expresar como un verbo "promover". Traducción alterna: Como el rey lo había promovido a él de muchas maneras y lo había honrado o como el rey lo ha honrado por mucho tiempo dando importancia a su trabajo.

cómo él había superado a todos los oficiales y sirvientes del rey Superar a otros representaba que era mas importante que ellos. Traducción alterna: como el se había hecho mas importante que todos los oficiales y los sirvientes del rey.

Esther 5:12

no ha invitado a otra persona, sino a mí Esto se puede expresar positivamente. Traducción alterna: solo yo esto no vale nada para mí esto no me hace feliz o no me satisface

Esther 5:14

horca
Una estructura usada para matar a alguien amarrando el final de una soga alrededor de la parte de arriba de la estructura y el otro final de la soga alrededor del cuello de la persona, colgandolo. Vea como tradujo esto en 2:22.

cincuenta codos
"50 codos de alto'' Debe convertir esta medida en una moderna. Traducción alterna: 23 metros de alto.

Esto complació a Amán Esto le gustó a Amán.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Esa noche el rey no pudo dormir y ordenó a sus siervos traerle los archivos de los eventos de su reino, y estaban siendo leídos en voz alta al rey. 2 Se encontró grabado allí que Mardoqueo había dicho acerca de Bigtán y Teres, dos de los oficiales del rey que guardaban la entrada, que habían intentado hacerle daño al rey Asuero. 3 El rey preguntó: "¿Qué fue hecho para darle honor o reconocimiento a Mardoqueo por haber hecho esto?" Entonces los hombres jóvenes del rey, sus siervos, dijeron: "Nada fue hecho por él." 4 El rey dijo: "Quién está en el patio?" En ese momento Amán había entrado a los atrios del patio de la casa del rey para hablar con él acerca del ahorcamiento de Mardoqueo en la horca que él había preparado. 5 Los siervos del rey le dijeron: "Amán está parado en el patio." El rey djo: "Déjenlo que entre." 6 Cuando Amán entró, el rey le dijo: "¿Qué se le debería hacer al hombre en quién el rey tiene complacencia en honrar?" Entonces Amán dijo en su corazón: "¿A quién le complacería al rey honrar más que a mí?" 7 Amán le dijo al rey: " Para el hombre en quien el rey tiene complacencia en honrar, 8 que le traigan vestidos reales, vestiduras que el rey ha vestido, y un caballo en el que el rey haya cabalgado y en cuya cabeza está la diadema real. 9 Entonces que los vestidos y el caballo sean dados al más noble de los oficiales del rey. Dejen que vistan al hombre en quien el rey tiene placer en honrar y que lo escolten a caballo por las calles de la ciudad. Que proclamen ante él: '¡Esto es lo que se hace a aquel en quien el rey toma placer en honrar!'" 10 Entonces el rey le dijo a Amán: "De prisa, toma las vestiduras y el caballo, como tu has dicho, y haz esto a Mardoqueo, el judío que está en la puerta del rey. No falles en un detalle de lo que tu hayas dicho." 11 Entonces Amán tomó las vestiduras y el caballo. Vistió a Mardoqueo y lo escoltó a caballo por las calles de la ciudad. Y proclamó ante él: "¡Esto es lo que se hace a aquel en quien el rey toma placer en honrar!" 12 Mardoqueo regresó a la puerta del rey. Pero Amán se apresuró a su casa, lamentandose, con su cabeza cubierta. 13 Amán dijo a Zeres, su esposa, y a todos sus amigos todo lo que le había sucedido. Entonces sus hombres que eran conocidos por su sabiduría, y su esposa Zeres, le dijeron: "Si Mardoqueo, ante el cual has comenzado a caer, es judío, no podrás con él, pero ciertamente caerás ante él." 14 Mientras hablaban con él, llegaron los oficiales del rey, y se apresuraron a llevar a Amán al banquete que Ester había preparado.

Esther 6:1

Bigtán y Teres
Estos son los nombres de dos hombres. Se hablan de ellos en el 2:19, pero el nombre de Bigtana, allí se deletrea como "Bigtán". Usted puede traducir su nombre como lo hizo allí

Entonces se encontró en las memorias
Aquí "encontró" es una metáfora para aprendizaje. Ambos "encontró"y "memorias" pueden ser expresados en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos encontraron que los escritores se habían memorizado allí" o "Ellos aprendieron lo que los escritores habían escrito"

¿Qué fue hecho para darle honor
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.Traducción alterna: "¿Qué yo hice para darle honor?" o "¿Qué hicimos nosotros para darle honor?"

Nada fue hecho por él
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Sin embargo, puede ser bueno encontrar una manera que no les dé la impresión que los siervos estaban acusando al rey. Traducción alterna: "Nadie hizo nada por Mardoqueo"

Esther 6:4

Amán
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como lo hiciste en el 3:1.

los atrios del patio
"el primer patio de afuera"

ahorcamiento de Mardoqueo Puede aclararse cuál fue el propósito de ahorcarlo. Traducción alterna: "matar a Mardoqueo ahorcándolo" (Ver:

la horca que él había preparado
La horca era una estructura que era usada para matar a las personas ahorcándolas de ellas. Vea cómo tradujo "horca"en el 5:14. Traducción alterna: "la estructura que él colocó para ahorcarlo" había preparado

"construido"

el rey tiene complacencia en honrar Tomar placer en hacer esto es una expresión idiomática de estar contento en hacer aglo o querer hacer algo. Traducción alterna: "el rey está contento de honrar" o "el rey quiere honrar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

dijo en su corazón
El corazón representa los pensamiento y actitudes. Traducción alterna: "pensó" o "se dijo a sí mismo"

¿A quién le complacería al rey honrar más que a mí?
Esto puede ser expresado como una oración. "Seguramente no hay nadie a quien el rey le complacería honrar mas que a mí"

Esther 6:7

que le traigan vestiduras reales Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "dejen que alguien les traiga vestiduras reales" o "díganle a sus siervos que traigan vestiduras reales"

en cuya cabeza está la diadema real La palabra "en cuya" se refiere al caballo. La diadema real es un símbolo especial que representa a la familia del rey.

Entonces que los vestidos y el caballo sean dados
Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. "Entonces dejen que les den los vestidos y el caballo"

Y que proclamen
"Dejen que el noble oficial y los siervos proclamen"

Esther 6:10

No falles en ningún detalle que tu hayas dicho.
La frase "en ningún detalle"enfatiza que él debe hacer absolutamente todo lo que él dijo. Puede expresarse positivamente. Traducción alterna: "Asegúrate de hacer todo lo que has dicho"

Esther 6:12

con su cabeza cubierta.
Las personas a menudo se cubrían su cabezas para mostrar que ellos estaban, o extremadamente tristes o avergonzados. (Ver:

Zeres
Traduzca el nombre de esta mujer como lo hiciste en el 6:12.

ante el cual has comenzado a caer Ellos hablan como si Amán y Mardoqueo estuvieron en una batalla. y Amán estaba comenzando a perder la batalla. Perder la batalla representa ser deshonrado. Traducción alterna: "ante quien te estás volviendo menos honrado" o "ante quien estás siendo humillado"

no podrás con él
"tú no ganarás contra él." Ellos hablaron de Amán y Mardoqueo como si ellos estuvieran en batalla. Superar a alguien representa tener más honor que él. Traducción alterna: "tú no tendrás más honor que el que él tiene"

pero ciertamente caerás ante él Ellos hablaron de Amán y Mardoqueo como si ellos estuvieran en batalla. Caer o perder una batalla, representa ser deshonrado. Traducción alterna: "tú ciertametne serás deshonrado ante él" o "tú ciertamente serás humillado ante él"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Así que el rey y Amán fueron al banquete con la Reina Ester. 2 En este segundo día, mientras estaban sirviendo vino, el rey le dijo a Ester: "¿Cuál es tu petición, Reina Ester? Te será concedido. ¿Cuál es tu solicitud? Hasta la mitad del reino te será concedido." 3 Entonces la Reina Ester respondió: "Si he hallado gracia en tus ojos, rey, y si te complace, que mi vida me sea dada a mí- esta es mi petición, y pido esto también para mi pueblo. 4 Porque hemos sido vendidos, yo y mi pueblo, para ser destruidos, asesinados y aniquilados. Si sólo hubiéramos sido vendidos a esclavitud, como esclavos varones y hembras, yo hubiera permanecido callada, pues ninguna aflicción como ésta, justificaría molestar al rey." 5 Entonces el Rey Asuero le dijo a Ester, la reina: "¿Quién es? ¿Dónde se halla esa persona que ha llenado su corazón para hacer tal cosa?" 6 Ester dijo: "¡El hombre hostil, ese enemigo, es éste malvado Amán!" Entonces Amán estaba aterrorizado ante el rey y la reina. 7 El rey, enfurecido, se puso de pie del lugar donde bebían vino en el banquete, y se fue al jardín del palacio pero Amán se quedó para rogarle por su vida a la Reina Ester. El se dio cuenta que el desastre estaba siendo decidido en contra suya. 8 Entonces el rey regresó desde el jardín del palacio al salón donde el vino se había sido servido. Amán acababa de caer sobre el sofá donde Ester estaba. El rey dijo: "¿Él atacará a la reina en mi presencia, en mi propia casa?" Tan pronto como estas palabras salieron de la boca del rey los siervos cubrieron el rostro de Amán. 9 Entonces Harbona, uno de los oficiales que servía al rey, dijo: "Una horca de cincuenta codos de alto se levanta al lado de la casa de Amán. El la levantó para Mardoqueo, el que habló para proteger al rey." El rey dijo: "Cuélguenlo en ella." 10 Así que ellos colgaron a Amán en la horca que él había preparado para Mardoqueo. Entonces el enojo del rey se redujo.

Esther 7:1

Amán
Traduce el nombre de este hombre como hiciste en 3:1.

En este segundo dia
"en este segundo dia de ayuno"

mientras estaban sirviendo vino
"mientras los sirvientes estaban sirviendo el vino y dándolo a ellos" o "mientras el vino estaba siendo servido"

Cual es tu petición
El nombre abstracto "petición"puede ser expresado con el verbo "lo que pidas" o "desea." Traducción Alterno: "¿Que tú pides?" o ¿Qué tú quieres?" (Ver:

Te será concedido
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activo. Traducción Alterno: "Yo de daré lo que tu pidas" o "Yo haré por ti lo que pidas"

Hasta la mitad del reino, y te será concedido Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Activa: "Si pides hasta la mitad de mi reino, te lo daré" (Ver:

Esther 7:3

Si he hallado favor en tus ojos, rey
"Encuentra favor" es un modismo que significa ser aprobado de o que está complacido con ella. "En tus ojos" es una metáfora representando su evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "si tu me evaluas y aprueba" o "si tu estás complacido conmigo"

que mi vida me sea dada Dar vida representa rescatando una persona de ser asesinada. Traducción Alterna: "salva mi vida"

esta es mi petición El nombre abstracto "petición" puede ser expresado con el verbo "lo que pidas". Traducción Alterna: "esto es lo que yo pido"(Ver:

por cuanto hemos sido vendidos
Ser vendido representa ser traicionado. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "porque alguien nos ha traicionado" o "Porque alguien nos ha puesto en peligro de nuestros enemigos"

para ser destruido, asesinado y aniquilado Aquí las tres palabras tienen el mismo significado y son usados para énfasis. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "para que nuestros enemigos nos destruyan, maten y nos aniquilen"

Donde está el que ha llenado su corazón para hacer estas cosas Llenar el corazón para hacer algo es un modismo significando atreverse hacer algo. Traducción Alterna: "Dónde está aquel que se atrevió hacer tal cosa"

Esther 7:6

aterrorizado
"extremadamente asustado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El rey se levantó airado Estar airado es un modismo para estar extremadamente enojado. Traducción Alterna: "El rey estaba extremadamente enojado y se levantó"

para rogarle por su vida a la Reina Ester
"para rogarle a la Reina Ester que salvara su vida"

Se dio cuenta que el desastre estaba siendo decidido Aquí viendo representa dándose cuenta o entendiendo. Traducción Alterna: "Él entendió que desastre estaba siendo decidido"

desastre se estaba decidiendo en contra suya por el rey Esto puede declararse en forma activa. El nombre abstracto "desastre" puede expresarse con verbos mas concretos "destruir" o "matar." Traducción Alterna: "el rey estaba decidiendo causarle desastre encontra de él" o "el rey estaba decidiendo destruirlo"

Esther 7:8

donde el vino se había servido Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "donde los sirvientes habían servido el vino"

lecho
una pieza larga de mueble donde una persona puede sentarse o acostarse

¿Él atacará la reina en mi presencia en mi propia casa?
El rey usa esta pregunta para mostrar su asombro y enojo de lo que Amán estaba haciendo. Traducción Alterna: "¡Él aún se atreve atacar la reina en mi presencia y en mi propia casa!"

atacar la reina
"atacar la reina". Esta frase es un aforma respetuosa para referirse a ultraje.

Tan pronto como esta oración salió de la boca del rey
Las palabras que salen de la boca representan hablar. Traducción Alterna: "Tan pronto como el rey dijo esto"

los sirvientes cubrieron el rostro de Amán Aparentemente ellos hicieron esto porque entendieron que el rey quería matar a Amán. Traducción Alterna: "los sirvientes cubrieron el rostro de Amán como señal que él sería asesinado"

Esther 7:9

Harbona
Este es el nombre de un hombre. (Ver:

una horca de cincuenta codos de alto
Puedes convertir "cincuenta codos"a una medida moderna. Traduce esto como lo hicste en una frase similar en 5:14. Traducción Alterna: "veintitres metros alto"

Entonces el enojo del rey se redujo
Se habla del enojo del rey como si fuera un fuego grande que se volvió mas pequeño. Traducción Alterno: "Entonces el enojo del rey se redujo" o "Entonces el rey no estaba tan enojado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 En ese día el rey Asuero le dio a la reina Ester la propiedad de Amán, el enemigo de los judíos. Y Mardoqueo comenzó a servir delante del rey, porque Ester le dijo al rey cómo Mardoqueo estaba relacionado con ella. 2 El rey tomó su anillo de sellar, el cual él había recuperado de Amán, y se lo dio a Mardoqueo. Ester designó a Mardoqueo estar a cargo de la propiedades de Amán. 3 Entonces Ester le habló otra vez al rey. Ella se postró boca abajo en tierra y lloró mientras le suplicaba a él ponerle fin al plan malvado de Amán el Agagueo, al que él había ideado en contra de los judíos. 4 Entonces el rey extendió su cetro dorado a Ester, ella se levantó y se puso de pie delante del rey. 5 Ella dijo: "Si agrada al rey, y si he hallado favor ante tus ojos, si esto pareciere correcto ante el rey, y yo soy agradable ante tus ojos, que se escriba un decreto para revocar las cartas escritas por Amán, hijo de el Hamedata el Agagueo, las cartas que él escribió para destruir a los Judíos quienes están en todas las provincias del rey. 6 Porque, ¿cómo podría yo resistir y ver desastre caer sobre mi pueblo? ¿Cómo podría yo soportar viendo la destrucción de mis familiares?" 7 El rey Asuero le dijo a la reina Ester y a Mardoqueo, el Judío: "Mira, le he dado a Ester la casa de Amán, y ellos lo han colgado en la horca, porque él iba a atacar a los Judíos. 8 Escribe otro decreto para los Judíos en nombre del rey y séllalo con el anillo de sellar del rey. Porque el decreto que ya ha sido escrito en nombre del rey y sellado con el anillo del rey no puede ser revocado." 9 Luego los escribas del rey fueron llamados en ese tiempo, en el tercer mes, el cual es el mes de Siván, en el día veintitrés del mes. Un deccreto fue escrito conteniendo todo lo que Mardoqueo estaba ordenando sobre los Judíos. Estaba escrito para los gobernadores de las provincias, los gobernadores y oficiales de las provincias que estaban localizados desde India hasta Etiopía, 127 provincias, a cada provincia escrito en su propia escritura, y a cada pueblo en su idioma, y a los Judíos en su propia escritura e idioma. 10 Mardoqueo escribió en nombre del rey Asuero y lo selló con el anillo de sellar del rey. Él envió los documentos con mensajeros montados sobre caballos veloces que eran usados en el servicio del rey, criado por el semental real. 11 El rey le dio a los judíos quienes estaban en cada ciudad, permiso para reunirse y ponerse de pie para proteger sus vidas: para aniquilar, para matar, y destruir cualquier fuerza armada de cualquier pueblo o provincia que pudiera atacarlos, niños y mujeres incluídos, o saquear sus posesiones. 12 Esto estaría en efecto en todas las provincias del rey Asuero, en el día trece del duodécimo mes, el cual es el mes de Adar. 13 Una copia del decreto debía ser emitido como una ley y públicamente expuesto a todas las personas. Los judíos debían estar listos ese día para tomar venganza sobre sus enemigos. 14 Así que los mensajeros corrieron sobre los caballos reales que eran usados en el servicio del rey. Ellos fueron sin demora. El decreto del rey también fue emitido desde el palacio de Susa. 15 Entonces Mardoqueo dejó la presencia del rey vestido de ropas reales de azul y blanco, con una gran corona de oro y una túnica púrpura de lino fino. Y la ciudad de Susa gritó y se regocijó. 16 Los judíos tenían luz y contentamiento, gozo y honor. 17 En cada provincia y en cada ciudad, dondequiera que llegó el decreto del rey, había contentamiento y gozo entre los judíos, un banquete y día de fiesta. Muchos de entre la variedad de personas de la tierra se volvieron judíos, porque el miedo de los judíos había caído sobre ellos.

Esther 8:1

Amán
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como lo hizo en 3:1.

anillo de sellar
Este anillo tenía el nombre o la marca del rey. Cuando ponía un sello de cera en los papeles importantes, el presionaba la marca en el sello. Si un papel tenía esta marca en su sello, la gente sabía que lo que estaba escrito en el papel estaba escrito con la autoridad del rey y debía ser obedecido. Vea como tradujo esto en 3:10.

se lo dio a Mardoqueo
Al darle su anillo de sellar a Mardoqueo, el rey le dio a Mardoqueo la autoridad de escribir papeles importantes que la gente tendría que obedecer.

finca de Amán
Esto se refiere a las cosas que le habían pertenecido a Amán y que el rey le había dado a Ester.

Esther 8:3

suplicaba
"rogar"

ponerle fin al plan malvado de Amán el Agagueo
"Ponerle fin" es una expresión idiomática que significa detener algo. Traducción Alterna: "detener

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el plan malvado de Amán el agagueo" o "prevenir que ocurrieran las cosas malvadas que Amán el agagueo había planificado"

el Agagueo
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 3:1.

la estrategia que él había ideado
"la trama que él se había inventado" o "la trama que Amán había inventado"

el rey extendió su cetro dorado a Ester
El hizo esto para demostrar que estaba contento con ella. Vea como tradujo una frase similar en 5:1.

Esther 8:5

Si agrada al rey
"Si lo que pido le agrada al rey"

si he hallado favor ante tus ojos
"hallar favor" es una expresión idiomática que significa ser aprobado por él o que a él le place. "ante tus ojos" es una metáfora que representa su evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "si me evalúas y apruebas" o "si yo te agrado"

si esto pareciere correcto ante el rey
"ante el rey" es una metáfora que representa su evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "si lo que yo pido se ve bien en la evaluación del rey"

y yo soy agradable ante tus ojos
"ante tus ojos" es una metáfora que representa su evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "y si tú me evalúas y te agrado" o "si estas contento conmigo"

revocar
"cancelar oficialmente"

Hamedata

provincias
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 1:1.

¿cómo podría yo resistir y ver desastre caer sobre mi pueblo? ¿Cómo podría yo soportar, viendo la destrucción de mis familiares?
Ester utilizó estas preguntas para demostrar que ella estaría extremadamente triste si su gente fuera destruída. Traducción Alterna: "no puedo soportar ver el desastre caer sobre los judíos. No puedo resistir ver a mis familiares morir."

Esther 8:7

la casa de Amán Esto representa todo lo que Amán había tenido. Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que le perteneció a Amán" o "toda la propiedad de Amán"

la horca
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 6:4.

Escribe... en nombre del rey
Escribir algo con el nombre del rey representa escribirlo con su autoridad, o escribirlo como su representante.

Porque el decreto... el anillo del rey no puede ser revocado
Esto puede ser declarado de manera activa. Traducción Alterna: "Pues nadie puede revocar el decreto" o "Pues nadie puede cancelar el decreto"

Porque el decreto... el anillo del rey no puede ser revocado
La información dada entre las palabras "decreto" y "no puede" es la razón por la cual el rey no puede revocar el decreto de Amán. Puede ser demostrado claramente que esa fue la razón por la palabra "Porque." Traducción Alterna: "Pues yo no puedo revocar el decreto que ya ha sido escrito, porque fue escrito con el nombre del rey y sellado con el anillo del rey."

el decreto que ya ha sido escrito en nombre del rey Escribir algo con el nombre del rey representa escribirlo con su autoridad, o escribirlo como su representante.

Esther 8:9

llamados
"convocados"

en el tercer mes, el cual es el mes de Siván, en el día veintitrés del mes tercer día del mes- "Siván" es el nombre del tercer mes en el calendario hebreo. El día veintitrés está cerca del medio de Junio en los calendarios occidentales.

Un decreto fue escrito Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos escribieron un decreto"

provincias
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 1:1.

escrito en su propia escritura
"escrito con su propia letra." Hay diferentes sistemas de escrituras alrededor del mundo.

Esther 8:10

escribió en nombre del rey Asuero Escribir algo con el nombre del rey representa escribirlo con su autoridad, o escribirlo como su representante.

anillo de sellar
traduzca esto como lo hizo en 8:1

mensajeros
"gente que lleva el mensaje"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

criado por el semental real El semental real era el mejor caballo del rey. Los caballos que se utilizaban para el servicio del rey eran sus crías. Traducción Alterna: "la cría del mejor caballo del rey"

permiso
"derecho"

ponerse de pie
Esto es una metáfora para luchar y no huir. Traducción Alterna: "luchar" el día trece del duodécimo mes, el cual es el mes de Adar.

Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 3:12

Esther 8:13

tomar venganza sobre sus enemigos
Tomar venganza es una expresión idiomática que significa herir a alguien que te ha herido. Traducción Alterna: "luchar contra sus enemigos"

Ellos fueron sin demora
"Sin demora" es una expresión idiomática que significa que no se demoraron o no esperaron. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos se fueron inmediatamente"

Susa
Esta es la ciudad donde estaba el palacio del rey. Vea como lo tradujo en 1:1.

Esther 8:15

la ciudad de Susa gritó y se regocijó La "ciudad" representa a la gente que vive en ella. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de la ciudad de Susa gritó y se regocijó"

gritó y se regocijó La palabra "regocijó" dice como gritaron. Traducción Alterna: "gritaron con regocijo" tenían luz y contentamiento Los significados posibles son 1) tener luz es una metáfora de tener felicidad. Traducción Alterna: "estaban felices y contentos" o 2) tener luz es una metáfora de sentirse próspero y salvo. Traducción Alterna: "se sentían salvos y estaban contentos"

y honor
Los significados posibles son 1) otra gente honraba a los judíos. Traducción Alterna: "y otra gente los honraba a ellos" o 2) los judíos se sentían honrados"

dondequiera que llegó el decreto del rey Llegar a lugares representa ir a lugares. Traducción Alterna: "dondequiera que los hombres del rey llevaron su decreto" o "dondequiera que el decreto de el rey fue leído"

provincia
Traduzca como en 1:1.

día de fiesta
"celebración"

el miedo de los judíos había caído sobre ellos Miedo cayendo sobre gente representa a la gente teniendo mucho miedo. Traducción Alterna: "ellos se habían vuelto muy temerosos de los judíos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Ahora, en el duodécimo mes, el cual es el mes de Adar, en el décimo tercer día, cuando la ley del rey y su decreto estaban a punto de ejecutarse, en el día cuando los enemigos de los judíos anhelaban ganar poder sobre ellos, fue revertida. Los judíos ganaron poder sobre aquellos que los odiaban a ellos. 2 Los judíos se reunieron en sus ciudades a través de todas las provincias del rey Asuero, para poner sus manos sobre aquellos quienes intentaron traer desastre sobre ellos. Nadie podía estar de pie en contra de ellos, ya que el temor de ellos había caído sobre todos los pueblos. 3 Todos los oficiales de las provincias, los gobernadores de las provincias, los gobernadores y los administradores del rey, ayudaron a los judíos porque el temor de Mardoqueo había caído sobre ellos. 4 Pues Mardoqueo era grande en la casa del rey, y su fama se había esparcido a través de todas las provincias, porque el hombre Mardoqueo se estaba engrandeciendo. 5 Los judíos atacaron a sus enemigos con la espada, matando y destruyéndolos e hicieron lo que deseaban con aquellos que los odiaban. 6 En la misma fortaleza de Susa, los judíos mataron y destruyeron a quinientos hombres. 7 Ellos mataron a Parsandata, Dalfón, Aspata, 8 Porata, Adalía, Aridata, 9 Parmasta, Arisai, Aridai, Vaizata 10 y los diez hijos de Amán hijo de Hamedata, el enemigo de los judíos. Pero ellos no tomaron botín alguno. 11 Aquel día el número de los que mataron en Susa, la ciudad fortificada, fue reportado al rey. 12 El rey le dijo a la reina Ester: "Los judíos han matado a quinientos hombres en la ciudad de Susa, incluyendo a los diez hijos de Amán. ¿Qué pues han hecho ellos en el resto de las provincias del rey? Ahora, ¿cuál es tu petición? Te será concedida a ti. ¿Cuál es tu solicitud? Te será concedida." 13 Ester dijo: "Si le place al rey, permita que los judíos que están en Susa les sea permitido llevar a cabo este decreto mañana también, y permita que los cuerpos de los hijos de Amán sean colgados en la horca." 14 Así que el rey ordenó que esto fuera hecho. El decreto fue dado en Susa, y colgaron a los diez hijos de Amán. 15 Los judíos que estaban en Susa se juntaron en el décimocuarto día del mes de Adar, y mataron trescientos hombres más en Susa, pero no echaron mano sobre los bienes. 16 El resto de los judíos que estaban en las provincias del rey se juntaron para defender sus vidas, y se aliviaron de sus enemigos y mataron setenta y cinco mil de aquellos quienes los odiaban, pero ellos no echaron mano sobre los objetos de valor de aquellos quienes mataron. 17 Esto ocurrió en el día trece del mes de Adar. En el día catorce ellos descansaron e hicieron de ese un día de banquetes y de regocijo. 18 Pero los judíos que estaban en Susa se reunieron en el décimotercer y décimocuarto día. En el décimoquinto día ellos descansaron e hicieron día de banquete y regocijo. 19 Es por esto que los judíos de la aldeas, quienes hacían sus casas en áreas rurales, observaban el décimocuarto día del mes de Adar como un día de regocijo y de banquete, y como un día en el cual ellos se enviaban regalos de alimentos los unos a los otros. 20 Mardoqueo registraba estas cosas y enviaba cartas a todos los judíos que estaban en todas las provincias del rey Asuero, tanto cercano como lejano, 21 obligándolos a guardar los días catorce y quince de Adar todos los años. 22 Estos fueron los días cuando los judíos se aliviaron de sus enemigos y el mes cuando su tristeza se convertía en gozo y su luto en un día de celebración. Debían de hacerlos días de banquete y de regocijo y de enviarse regalos de alimentos los unos a los otros y regalos a los pobres. 23 Así que los judíos continuaron la celebración que habían comenzado, haciendo lo que Mardoqueo les había escrito a ellos. 24 Para ese tiempo, Amán el hijo de Hamedata, el enemigo de todos los judíos, había conspirado en contra los judíos para destruirlos, él echó la Pur (esto es que echó la suerte), para arruinar y destruirlos. 25 Pero cuando el asunto llegó ante el rey, él dio órdenes por cartas de que el plan malvado que Aman había desarrollado en contra de los judíos debería recaer sobre su propia cabeza, y que sus hijos debían ser colgados en la horca. 26 Por lo tanto llamaron estos días Purim, por el nombre Pur. A causa de todo lo que estaba escrito en esta carta, y todo lo que ellos habían visto y que les había sucedido a ellos, 27 los judíos aceptaron una nueva costumbre y tarea. Esta costumbre sería para ellos mismos, sus descendientes, y todos los que se unieran a ellos. Sería que ellos celebrarían estos dos días cada año. Lo celebrarían de cierta manera y al mismo tiempo cada año. 28 Estos días eran para ser celebrados y observados en cada generación, cada familia, cada provincia, y cada ciudad. Estos judíos y sus descendientes no dejarían de observar fielmente estos días del Purim, para que así nunca se olvidaran. 29 La reina Ester, hija de Abihail y Mardoqueo el judío escribieron con plena autoridad y confirmaron esta segunda carta acerca de Purim. 30 Cartas fueron enviadas a todos los judíos a las 127 provincias del reino de Asuero, deseando para los judíos seguridad y verdad. 31 Estas cartas confirmaron los días del Purim en su tiempo asignado, como Mardoqueo el judío y la reina Ester obligaron a los judíos. Los judíos aceptaron esta obligación para ellos mismos y sus descendientes, como también aceptaron los tiempos de ayuno y de lamentaciones. 32 La orden de Ester confirmó estas regulaciones concernientes al Purim, y fue escrita en el libro.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esther 9:1

el duodécimo mes, el cual es el mes de Adar traduce esto como lo hizo en la frase similar en el 3:12

cuando la ley del rey y su decreto estaban a punto de ejecutarse Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuando el pueblo estaban a punto de llevar a cabo le ley y decreto del rey"

cuando la ley del rey y su decreto estaban a punto de ejecutarse
"a punto de" es una expresión idiomática que significa hacer algo que fue mandado o planifiado. Traducción alterna: "cuando las personas estaban a punto de obedecer la ley y decreto del rey"

ganaron poder sobre aquellos Ganar poder sobre personas es una expresión idiomática para vencerlos. Traducción alterna: "vencer a los judíos" fue revertida.

"la situación fue revertida." La situación siendo revertida es una metáfora que significa que sucedió lo opuesto a lo esperado. Traducción alterna: "lo opuesto sucedió"

provincias
Traduce como en el 1:1.

poner sus manos sobre aquellos quienes intentaron traer desastre sobre ellos Poner las manos en las personas es una metonimia de pelear en contra de ellos. Traducción alterna: "pelear con sus enemigos"

quienes intentaron traer desastre sobre ellos Traer desastre a las personas es una expresión idiomática que significa causar que un desastre les suceda. En este caso se refiere a destruirles. Traducción alterna: "quien trató de destruirles"

Nadie podía estar de pie en contra de ellos estar de pie en contra de personas representa resistir su ataque. Traducción alterna: "nadie podía pelear en contra los judíos con éxito"

el temor de ellos había caído sobre todos los pueblos temor caído sobre las personas representa tener mucho miedo. Traducción alterna: "todas las personas tuvieron mucho miedo de los judíos"

Esther 9:3

oficiales de las provincias
"gobernantes de las provincias"

el temor de Mardoqueo había caído sobre ellos Temor cayendo en las personas representa personas teniendo mucho miedo. Traducción alterna: "Ellos tenían mucho miedo de Mardoqueo" era grande en la casa del rey

"era bien importante en el palacio del rey"

su fama se había esparcido a través de todas las provincias Fama esparciéndose a través de los lugares representa personas en esos lugares conociendo sobre cuán grande él era. Traducción alterna: "a través de las provincias las personas conocieron cuán grande él era"

Esther 9:6

Susa
traduce el nombre de esta ciudad como lo hizo en el 1:1

fortaleza
"la ciudad fortificada"

quinientos hombres
"500 hombres"

Parsandata, Dalfón, Aspata, Porata, Adalía, Aridata, Parmasta, Arisai, Aridai, Vaizata

diez hijos
"10 hijos"

Amán
Traducir el nombre de este hombre como lo hiciste en el 3:1.

Hamedata
Traducir el nombre de este hombre como lo hizo en el 3:1.

el enemigo de los judíos
Esta frase nos habla sobre Amán.

Esther 9:11

quinientos hombres
"500 hombres"

diez hijos
"10 hijos"

¿Qué pues han hecho ellos en el resto de las provincias del rey?
El rey utiliza esta pregunta para mostrar que él cree que los judíos deben haber matado también muchas personas en las demás provincias. Traducción alterna: "¡Qué habrán hecho ellos en el resto de las provincias del rey!" o "Ellos deben haber matado muchos más en el resto de las provincias del rey."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿cuál es tu solicitud?
El sustantivo abstracto "solicitud" o "pedido" puede ser expresado con el verbo "pide" o "desea" Traducción alterna: "¿Qué tú pides?" o "¿Qué tú deseas?"

Te será concedida a ti
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Yo te daré lo que me pidas" o "Yo haré por ti lo que tú me pidas"

¿Cuál es tu petición?
El sustantivo abstracto "petición" puede ser expresado con el verbo "pide" o "desea". Traducción alterna: "¿Qué tú me pides?" o "¿Qué tú deseas?"

Esther 9:13

llevar a cabo este decreto mañana también
"Llevar a cabo" es una expresión idiomática que significa hacer algo que fue ordenado o planificado. Traducción alterna: "obedecer el decreto de hoy mañana también" o "hacer mañana también lo que fue decretado que ellos debían hacer hoy"

diez hijos
"10 hijos"

la horca.
Traduce esto como lo hizo en el 5:14.

Esther 9:15

el décimocuarto día del mes de Adar
"Adar" es el nombre del duodécimo y último mes del calendario hebreo. El día catorce está cerca del comienzo de marzo.

no echaron mano sobre los bienes poner las manos sobre cosas representa llevárselas. Traducción alterna: "se llevaron ningunos bienes" o "no se llevaron nada de los bienes" trescientos

"300"

setenta y cinco mil
"75,000"

no echaron mano sobre los objetos de valor de aquellos quienes mataron Echar mano sobre las cosas representa llevárselas. Traducción alterna: "ellos no se llevaron ninguno de los objetos de valor de las personas que mataron"

objetos de valor
"cosas que son valiosas" o "poseciones"

Esther 9:17

el día trece del mes de Adar Traduce esto como hizo frase similar en el 3:12.

en el día catorce, ellos descansaron
"En el día catorce de Adar, los judíos quienes estaban en las provincias descansaron"

los judíos que estaban en Susa se reunieron
Por qué se reunieron se puede declarar claramente. Traducción alterna: "los judíos quienes estaban en Susa se reunieron para pelear en contra de sus enemigos"

Esther 9:20

guardar los días catorce y quince de Adar todos los años Para guardar el día es una expresión idiomática que significa celebrarlo. Traducción alterna: "celebrar el día catorce y quince de cada año"

su tristeza se convertía en gozo convertirse representa cambio. El sustantivo abstracto de tristeza y gozo puede ser expresado con "triste" y "gozoso". Traducción alterna: "ellos cambiaron de estar tristes a estar bien gozosos"

Esther 9:23

Información general:
Este pasaje resume mucha de la historia de Ester para explicar la razón del festival de Purim.

Amán el hijo de Hamedata el agagueo Traduce estos nombres como lo hizo en el 3:1.

él echó la Pur
"Pur" era la palabra persa para "sorteo". La frase "echó suertes" explica lo que "echó Pur" significa.

echó la suerte
Por qué él echó suerte puede ser clarificado. Traducción alterna: "él echó suertes para averiguar cuál sería el mejor día para atacar a los judíos"

Pero cuando el asunto llegó ante el rey
El texto hebreo puede también ser interpretado para significar, "Pero cuando Ester vino ante el rey." Algunas versiones modernas escogen esta interpretación.

el plan malvado que Aman había desarrollado en contra de los judíos debería recaer sobre su propia cabeza
"recaer sobre su propia cabeza" significa que debería ser hecho a Amán. Traducción alterna: "el plan malvado de Amán desarrollado para los judíos debería hacérsele a él."

Esther 9:26

llamaron estos días Purim, por el nombre Pur Para llamar algo por otra cosa es una expresión idiomática que significa darle el mismo nombre o uno similar. Traducción alterna: "Ellos llamaron estos días Purim, como la palabra Pur"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Purim
Este es el festival que conmemora la salvación del pueblo judío en la antigua Persia de el complot de Amón para destruir y matar todos los judíos en un mismo día.

el nombre Pur
Puede ser clarificado lo que "Pur" significa. Traducción alterna:

Estos días eran para ser celebrados y observados Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los judíos debían celebrar y observar estos días"

no dejarían de observar fielmente
Esto puede ser declarado de forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "siempre observarían fielmente"

Esther 9:29

reina Ester, hija de Abihail y Mardoqueo el judío escribieron... esta segunda carta Ester era la hija de Abihail. Ester y Mardoqueo escribieron la carta.

Abihail
Traduce este nombre de hombre como en el 2:15.

segunda carta
"carta adicional"

Esther 9:30

Cartas fueron enviadas a todos los judíos Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos enviaron cartas a todos los judíos"

deseando para los judíos seguridad y verdad Los sustantivos abstractos de "seguridad" y "verdad" pueden ser expresados con frases. Traducción alterna: "deseando que los judíos estén seguros y las personas fueran fieles a los judíos")

Los judíos aceptaron esta obligación para ellos mismos y sus descendientes Aceptando una obligación es una metáfora por estar de acuerdo con la obligación. El sustantivo abstracto "obligación" puede ser expresado con el verbo "obligar." Traducción alterna: "Los judíos estuvieron de acuerdo y dijeron que ellos y sus descendientes estaban obligados a celebrar los días de Purim"

aceptaron los tiempos de ayuno y de lamentaciones Aceptando tiempos de ayuno y lamentación es una metáfora para estar de acuerdo con ayunar y lamentarse durante ciertos momentos. Traducción alterna: "ellos estuvieron de acuerdo de ayunar y lamentarse en ciertos momentos")

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Luego el rey Asuero impuso un impuesto en la tierra y en la zona costera a lo largo del mar. 2 Todos los logros de su fuerza y poderío, junto con toda la cuenta de la grandeza de Mardoqueo a quien el rey había levantado, están escritos en el Libro de las Crónicas de los reyes de Media y Persia. 3 Mardoqueo, el Judío, era el segundo en rango al rey Asuero. Él era grande entre los Judíos y popular con sus muchos hermanos Judíos, pues el buscó el bienestar de su gente y habló para la paz de toda su gente.

Esther 10:1

impuso un impuesto en la tierra y en la zona costera a lo largo del mar Imponer un impuesto significa hacer que las personas paguen un impuesto. La tierra y zonas costeras representan a las personas que viven allí. Traducción alterna: "hizo que las personas viviendo en la tierra y en las zonas costeras junto al mar, pagaran un impuesto"

Todos los logros
El sustantivo abstracto de "logros"puede ser expresado con el verbo "lograr" o la frase "hacer grandes cosas." Traducción alterna: "Todo lo que él había logrado" o "todas las grandes cosas que él hizo"

toda la cuenta de la grandeza de Mardoqueo a quien el rey había levantado Levantar a alguien en grandeza representa hacer grande a alguien. Traducción alterna: "la cuenta entera de cómo el Rey ha hecho a Mardoqueo grande" o "la cuenta entera de cómo fue Mardoqueo porque el rey lo ha hecho grande" (Ver:

Esther 10:3

segundo en rango al rey Asuero
"la persona más importante después del Rey Asuero"

hermanos Judíos
La palabra "hermanos" representa a las personas que son como él. Traducción alterna: "compañeros judíos"

él buscó el bienestar de su gente Buscar algo es una metáfora para trabajar duro por algo. El sustantivo abstracto "bienestar" puede ser traducido con una frase con el verbo "prosperar" e el adjetivo "asegurar." Traducción alterna: "él trabajó duro para que su pueblo prosperara" o "él trabjó duro para que su pueblo se asegurara" habló para la paz de toda su gente.

"él representó al pueblo para que ellos puedan tener paz"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Job

Job

Chapter 1

1 Había un hombre en la tierra de Uz cuyo nombre era Job; y Job era sin culpa y recto, uno que le temía a Dios y se apartaba del mal. 2 Le nacieron a él siete hijos y tres hijas. 3 Él poseía siete mil ovejas, tres mil camellos, quinientos pares de bueyes, quinientos burros y muchísimos siervos. Este hombre era el más grande de toda la gente del este. 4 En el día asignado de cada hijo, él daría un festín en su casa. Ellos mandaban a buscar y a llamar a sus tres hermanas para comer y beber con ellos. 5 Cuando los días del festín se acababan, Job enviaba por ellos y él los consagraba. Él se levantaba temprano en la mañana y ofrecía ofrendas quemadas por cada uno de sus hijos, porque él decía: "Puede ser que mis hijos hayan pecado y maldecido a Dios en sus corazones." Job siempre hacía esto. 6 Y entonces vino el día en que los hijos de Dios vinieron a presentarse a sí mismos ante el SEÑOR. Satanás vino también con ellos. 7 El SEÑOR le dijo a Satanás: "¿De dónde vienes?" Entonces Satanás le respondió al SEÑOR, y dijo: "De vagar por la tierra, y de ir de un lado a otro en ella." 8 El SEÑOR le dijo a Satanás: ¿Has considerado a mi siervo Job? Porque no hay nadie como él en la tierra, un hombre sin culpa y recto, uno que le teme a Dios y se aparta del mal." 9 Entonces Satanás le respondió al SEÑOR y dijo: "¿Acaso Job le teme a Dios sin razón? 10 ¿No has puesto una barrera alrededor de él, alrededor de su casa, y alrededor de todo lo que es suyo por todos lados? Tú has bendecido la obra de sus manos, y su ganado has aumentado en la tierra. 11 Pero extiende tu mano ahora y toca todo lo que él posee, y ve si él no te maldice en Tu rostro." 12 El SEÑOR le dijo a Satanás: "Mira, todo lo que él tiene, está en tu mano. Solo no extiendas tu mano contra el mismo." Entonces Satanás se fue de la presencia del SEÑOR. 13 Y pasó que en cierto día, sus hijos e hijas estaban comiendo y bebiendo vino en la casa de su hermano mayor. 14 Un mensajero vino a Job y dijo: "Los bueyes estaban arando y los burros estaban comiendo junto a ellos. 15 Los sabeos los atacaron y se los llevaron. De hecho, ellos han matado a los siervos a filo de espada. Solo yo escapé para decirtelo." 16 Mientras él todavía hablaba, otro también vino y dijo: "El fuego de Dios cayó de los cielos y quemó a las ovejas y a los siervos. Solo yo he escapado para decirtelo." 17 Mientras él todavía hablaba, otro también vino y dijo: "Los caldeos formaron tres grupos, atacaron los camellos, y se los han llevado. Sí, y ellos han matado a los siervos con el filo de la espada. Solo yo he escapado para decirtelo." 18 Mientras él todavía hablaba, otro también vino y dijo: "Tus hijos y tus hijas estaban comiendo y bebiendo vino en la casa de su hermano mayor. 19 Un gran viento vino del desierto y golpeó las cuatro esquinas de la casa. Esta cayó sobre los jóvenes, y ellos muerieron. Solo yo he escapado para decirtelo." 20 Entonces Job se levantó, rasgó su túnica, afeitó su cabeza, se acostó boca abajo en el suelo, y adoró a Dios. 21 Él dijo: "Yo estaba desnudo cuando vine del vientre de mi madre, y estaré desnudo cuando regrese allá. Es el SEÑOR quien dió, y es el SEÑOR quién ha quitado. Que sea el nombre del SEÑOR bendecido." 22 Y en todo este asunto, Job no pecó, ni acusó a Dios de hacer lo malo.

Job 1:1

Tierra de Uz
Posibles ubicaciones son: 1) un lugar en Edom al este del río Jordán algún lugar en el moderno oeste de Jordania o 2) un lugar al Este del río Éufrates en el moderno Irán.

Sin culpa y recto
Las palabras "sin culpa" y "recto" comparten significados similares y enfatizanque Job era un hombre justo. Traducción Alterna:"El hizo lo que era correcto ante Dios"

Uno que le temía a Dios
"Uno que honraba a Dios"

Se apartaba del mal
Aca se habla del mal como de un lugar al cual una persona puede evitar ir, en lugar de hacer malas acciones.

Siete hijos y tres hijas
"7 hijos y 3 hijas"

Poseía siete mil ovejas
"El tenía 7 000 ovejas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tres mil camellos
" 3 000 camellos"

Quinientos pares de bueyes
"500 pares de bueyes"

El más grande
"El más rico"

Toda la gente del Este
Se refiere a lugares que estaban al Este de Canaán. Traducción Alterna:"Toda la gente que vivía en las tierras que estaban al Este de Canaán"

Job 1:4

En el día asignado de cada hijo, él daría
La palabra "día" capaz hace referencia a el dia en que se celebra el nacimiento del hijo. Pero al menos se refiere a la idea de que los hijos tomaron turno para celebrar una fiesta. Traducción Alterna:" En el cumpleaños de cada hijo, el hijo dará" o "Cada hijo por turno dará"

Él daba... Ellos mandaban ... Job mandaba ... El los consagraba .. El se levantaba temprano
" Él habitualmente daba .. Ellos habitualmente enviaban ... Job habitualmente enviaba ... Él habitualmente consagraba ... Él habitualmente se levantaba temprano ... Él habitualmente decía"

Él los consagraba
Aquí "consagraba" significa que pedía a Dios que elimine cualquier impureza ritual que los hijos de Job podrían haber traido sobre sí mismos mientras festejaban juntos. Job hizo esto haciendo sacrificios por ellos a Dios

Con ellos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a sus siete hijos y tres hijas pero no le incluye a Job.

Cuando los días del festín se acaban
"Cuando el fetín acababa" o "depués del festín"

Job enviaba por ellos
"Job habitualmente enviaba alguien para llamarlos para que vayan a él"

Maldecido a Dios en sus corazones
Amenudo tales pensamientos pueden venir sin intención, sin que la persona quiera pensar en ellos. Traducción Alterna:"Maldecido a Dios en sus pensamientos"

Job 1:6

El día en que
Este no es un día específico. La reunión sucedió a menudo. Traducción Alterna:" En el momento en que" o "un día cuando"

Hijos de Dios
Esto se refiere a los ángeles, seres celestiales

A presentarse a sí mismos ante el SEÑOR
"a permanecer juntos ante el señor COMO Él les ordenó que hicieran"

De vagar por la tierra, y de ir de un lado a otro en ella.
las frases "vagabundeo" y "yendo y viniendo" hace referencia a la misma actividad para enfatizar su integridad. Traducción Alterna:"de ir a todas partes en la tierra".

¿Has considerado a mi siervo Job?
"¿Has pensado en mi siervo job?" Aqui Dios está empezando a hablar con Satanás sobre Job. "Considera a mi siervo Job".

Un hombre sin culpa y recto
Traduce esto como en 1:1

Uno que teme a Dios y se aparta del mal
Traduce esto como lo hiciste en 1:1

SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que Él ha revelado a su pueblo en el antiguo testamento. Ve la página de traducción sobre el SEÑOR con respecto a cómo traducir esto.

De ir y venir en él
""de ida y vuelta" se refiere a viajar en toda la tierra.

Job 1:9

¿Acaso Job le teme a Dios sin razón?
"¿Acaso Job respeta a Dios sin razón?" Satanás responde a Dios presentando y cuestionando su propia pregunta. El dice que Job sólo obedece a Dios porque lo bendice. Traducción Alterna:"Job tiene una razón para obedecer a Dios"

¿No has puesto una barrera alrededor de él, alrededor de su casa, y alrededor de todo lo que es suyo por todos lados?
Satanás declara los hechos para para apoyar su argumento. Traducción Alterna:" Has protegido a él, su familia y todo lo que le pertenece"

Puesto una barrera alrededor de él, alrededor de su casa
Al igual que una barrera como una pared o un seto rodea y protege la tierra de uno, Dios a rodeado a Job con su protección. Traducción Alterna: "Protegido a él y a su casa"

La obra de sus manos
"Todo lo que él hace"

Su ganado has aumentado en la tierra
"Él tiene más y más ganado en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pero extiende tu mano ahora y toca todo lo que él posee, y ve si él no te maldice en Tu rostro Satanás se refiere si Dios ataa a Job, él verá como Job responde. Traducción Alterna:"Pero ahora, si extiendes tu mano y tocas todo lo que él tiene, vas a ver que el te maldecirá en el rostro"

Pero ahora extiende tu mano
Aqui "mano" se refiere a el poder de Dios para actuar. "Pero ahora usa tu podr"

Toca todo lo que él tenga Aqui "toca" representa a la acción de dañar o destruir. Traducción Alterna:"Ataca todo lo que él tenga" o "Destruye todo lo que él tenga"

En tu cara
Se refiere a el tiempo en que Dios está prestando atención. Traducción Alterna:"En tu audiencia"

Observar
"Mirar" o "Prestar atención a todo lo que Yo te voy a decir"

Todo lo que tiene en tu mano
Aquí "mano" representa el poder de uno de controlar algo. Traducción Alterna:"

Contra él mismo
"Contra su cuerpo" Traducción Alterna:"Pero no le hagas daño físico" o "No lastimes su cuerpo"

Se fue de la presencia del SEÑOR
"Se fue del Señor" o "Dejó AL SEÑOR"

Job 1:13

Saba
Esta era una ubicación situada en la moderna Yemen. Aca esto representa a un grupo de asaltantes o bandidos de Saba.

Los atacaron
Acá "cayó" representa la idea de atacar. Traducción Alterna:" Atacaron a ellos"

Han Matado
Aqui herir representa matar.

filo de espada
Aqui "boca" representa a la parte de la espada que mata a las personas, que es, ya sea el punto o el borde afilado. También, todas las espadas de los hombres de Saba esta hablado como si fuera solo una espada.

Job 1:16

Mientras él todavía hablaba
"Él" se refiere al primer mensajero

Otro también vino
"Otro mensajero también vino"

Solo yo he escapado para decirtelo
Traduce esto como en 1:13.

Sí, y ellos han matado a los siervos con el filo de la espada. Solo yo he escapado para decirtelo
Traduce esto como en 1:13.

Job 1:18

Tus hijos y tus hijas estaban comiendo y bebiendo vino en la casa de su hermano mayor.
Traduce esto como en 1:13

Un gran viento
"Un tornado" o "una tormenta del desierto"

Las cuatro esquinas de la casa
"El soporte estructural de la casa"

Cayó sobre los jóvenes
"La casa cayó sobre tus hijos e hijas "

Soólo yo he escapado para decirtelo
Traduce esto como en 1:13

Job 1:20

Rasgó su túnica, afeitó su cabello
Estos eran rituales matutinos, simbolizando profundo dolor.

Yo estba desnudo en el vientre de mi madre, y estaré desnudo cuando regrese allá
"En mi nacimiento, no traje nada al mundo, y en mi muerte voy a retornar a la tierra sin nada"

En todo este asunto
""Respecto a todo lo que ha pasado"

Acusó a Dios de hacer lo malo
"Dicho que Dios hizo mal"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Entonces ocurrió el día cuando los hijos de Dios llegaron a presentarse ante el SEÑOR. Satanás vino también entre ellos para presentarse ante el SEÑOR. 2 El SEÑOR le dijo a Satanás: "¿De dónde vienes?" Entonces Satanás respondió al SEÑOR y dijo: "De vagar sobre la tierra, de ir y venir en ella." 3 El SEÑOR le dijo a Satanás: "¿Has considerado a mi siervo Job? Pues nadie hay como él sobre la tierra, un hombre sin culpa y recto, uno que teme a Dios y se aparta del mal. Él todavía se mantiene firme en su integridad, aunque me incitaste para actuar contra él, para destruirlo sin causa." 4 Satanás le contestó al SEÑOR y dijo: "Piel por piel, ciertamente; un hombre dará todo lo que tiene por su vida. 5 Pero extiende tu mano ahora y toca sus huesos y su carne, y ve si él no te maldice en Tu rostro." 6 El SEÑOR le dijo: "Mira, él está en tu mano; es sólo que debes preservar su vida." 7 Así que Satanás se fue de la presencia del SEÑOR. El golpeó a Job con llagas severas desde la planta de sus pies hasta el tope de su cabeza. 8 Job tomó un pedazo de cerámica rota para rasparse a sí mismo con ella, y se sentó en medio de cenizas. 9 Luego, su esposa le dijo: "¿Todavía te aferras a tu integridad? Maldice a Dios y muérete." 10 Pero él le dijo a ella: "Tú hablas como una mujer tonta. ¿Deberíamos recibir el bien de Dios y no recibir el mal?" En todo este asunto, Job no pecó con sus labios. 11 Ahora, cuando tres amigos de Job escucharon de todo este mal que había venido sobre él, cada uno de ellos vino desde su propio lugar: Elifaz el temanita, Bildad el suhita y Zofar el naamatita. Ellos establecieron una hora para venir y llorar con él y consolarlo. 12 Cuando ellos levantaron sus ojos a la distancia, ellos no le reconocieron. Ellos alzaron sus voces y lloraron; cada uno rasgó su ropa y arrojaró polvo al aire y sobre su propia cabeza. 13 Entonces ellos se sentaron con él sobre la tierra siete días y siete noches. Nadie le habló una palabra, pues ellos vieron que su pena era muy grande.

Job 2:1

Información General
Estos versiculos son exactamente iguales a 1:6 y probablemente pueden ser traducidos de la misma manera

Entonces ocurrió el día
Traduce esto como en 1:6

El día cuando
Este no es un día específico. La reunión sucedió a menudo. Traducción Alterna:"Al tiempo que" o "Un dia cuando"

hijos de Dios
Traduce esto como en 1:6

Presentarse ante el SEÑOR
Traduce esto como en 1:6

De vagar sobre la tierra, de ir y venir en ella
Traduce esto como en 1:6

Job 2:3

Información General
Este verso es el mismo que 1:6, excepto por la adición de " Él todavía se mantiene firme en su integridad, aunque me incitaste para actuar contra él, para destruirlo sin causa."

¿Has considerado a mi siervo Job?
Esta pregunta retórica en realidad hace una declaración. Traduce esto como en 1:6. Traducción Alterna:"Considera a mi siervo Job."

Un hombre sin culpa y recto
Traduce esto como traduciste una frase similar en 1:1.

Uno que teme a Dios y se aparta de el mal
Traduce esto como en 1:1

El todavía se mantiene firme en su integridad
"Permanece completamente dedicado a hacer lo que es bueno y correcto"

Aunque me incitaste para actuar contra Él
Me persuadió sin cautela para atacarlo

Para destruirlo
Aquí "destruirlo" representa "Hacerlo pobre". Traducción Alterna:" Para hacerlo un hombre pobre"

Job 2:4

piel por piel, ciertamente
"piel" es un metónimo para la vida de Job. Traducción Alterna:" Una persona hará lo que sea para salvar su propia vida, incluso aceptar la pérdida de posesiones y seres queridos."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pero extiende tu mano y toca sus huesos y su carne, y ve si él no te maldice en tu rostro
Satanás se refiere a que si Dios ataca a Job, el va a ver como Job responde. Traducción Alterna:"Pero ahora, si extiendes tu mano y tocas sus huesos y carne, verás que Él te maldecirá en tu rostro"

Extiende tu mano
Aquí "mano" se reifere a el acto del poder de Dios. "Pero ahora usa tu poder". Traduce esto como en 1:9.

toca
Aquí "toca" representa la acción de dañar. Traducción Alterna:"Atacar"

Sus huesos y su carne
Esta expresión representa el cuerpo de Job.

Te maldice en tu rostro
Traduce esto como en 1:9

En tu rostro
Esto se refiere al tiempo en que Dios esta prestando atención. Traducción Alterna:"En tu oir".

Job 2:7

Así que Satanás se fue de la presencia del SEÑOR.
Traduce esto como en 1:9.

Golpeó
"Atacó" o "Aflijido con"

Llagas severas
Largas, picazón e infecciones dolorosas de la piel

Un pedazo de cerámica rota para rasparse a sí mismo
El raspado rasca la piel para disminuir la picazón

Se sentó en medio de cenizas
Esto probablemente se refiere a un lugar donde el desperdicio y la basura fueron arrojados y quizás quemados. Sentado en tal lugar era un canto de luto profundo. Traducción Alterna:"Se sentó en el montículo de basura".

Job 2:9

¿Todavía te aferras a tu integridad?
Esta pregunta retórica representa una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"No deberías aún aferrarte a tu integridad".

Maldice a Dios
"Rechazar a Dios"

Tu hablas como una mujer tonta
"Job dice que ella habla como tonta. Traducción Alterna:"Tu hablas como si fueras una mujer estúpida" ¿Deberíamos recibir el bien de Dios y no recibir el mal?

Esta pregunta retórica representa una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Ciertamente debemos recibir lo malo de Dios así como también lo bueno".

Recibir lo bueno
"Beneficio de todas las cosas buenas"

Lo bueno
Esto representa a todas las cosas que Dios nos da.

Recibir lo malo
"Sufrir todas las cosas malas sin quejas"

lo malo
Esto representa a todas las cosas malas que Dios hace o permite que experimentemos.

Pecó con sus labios
Aquí "labios" representa al acto de hablar. Traducción Alterna:"Peco hablando encontra de Dios"

Job 2:11

Elifaz el temanita, Bildad el suhita y Zofar el naamatita.
Elifaz, Bildad, y Zofar son nombres de hombres. Teman era una ciudad en Edom. Suhitas eran los descendientes de Abraham y Cetura

Establecieron una hora
"Acordaron una hora"

Para llorar con él y consolarlo
Aquí las palabras "llorar con él" y "consolarlo" comparten similares significados. Los amigos trataban de consolar a Job llorando con el. Traducción Alterna:" Afligirse con Job para ayudar a aliviar su sufrimiento".

Job 2:12

Ellos levantaron sus ojos
"Ellos miraron atentamente" o "Ellos miraron cuidadosamente"

Ellos no le reconocieron
Esto probablemente significa que los visitantes de Job no lo reconocieron al principio, cuando lo vieron en la distancia. Job se veia diferente porque debido a su dolor y debido a las llagas que cubrían su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna:"Ellos con dificultad lo reconocieron"

Ellos alzaron sus voces y lloraron
"Ellos lloraron fuerte" o "Ellos lloraron ruidosamente"

rasgó su túnica
Esto era un signo de luto

Arrojaron polvo en el aire y sobre sus propias cabezas Estos eran signos de Luto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Después de esto, Job abrió su boca y maldijo el día en que nació. 2 Él dijo: 3 "Que el día en el cual yo nací perezca, la noche que dijo: 'Un niño ha sido concebido.' 4 Que ese día sea oscuro; que Dios desde arriba no lo llame a memoria, ni que los rayos del sol brillen sobre él. 5 Que la oscuridad y la sombra de muerte lo reclamen para sí. Que una nube viva sobre él; que todo lo que hace al día negro verdaderamente lo aterrorice. 6 En cuanto a aquella noche, que la densa oscuridad la agarre. Que no se regocije entre los días del año; que no se cuente en el número de los meses. 7 Vean, que esa noche sea estéril; que ninguna voz alegre entre en ella. 8 Puedan ellos maldecir ese día, aquellos quienes saben cómo despertar a Leviatán. 9 Puedan las estrellas del amanecer de aquel día ser oscuras. Que ese día busque luz, pero no la encuentre; ni pueda ver los párpados del amanecer, 10 porque no cerró las puertas del útero de mi madre, ni escondió problema a mis ojos. 11 ¿Porqué no morí cuando salí del vientre? ¿Porqué no rendí mi espíritu cuando mi madre me dio a luz? 12 ¿Porqué sus rodillas me dieron la bienvenida? ¿Porqué sus pechos me recibieron para que yo mamara? 13 Pues ahora yo hubiese estado acostado calladamente. Yo hubiese dormido y estado en descanso 14 con los reyes y los consejeros de la tierra, quienes construyeron tumbas para ellos que ahora están en ruinas. 15 O hubiese estado acostado con príncipes, quienes alguna vez tuvieron oro, quienes habían llenado sus casas con plata. 16 O quizás hubiese nacido muerto, como los infantes que nunca ven la luz. 17 Allí, el malvado cesa de ser problema; allí los fatigados están en descanso. 18 Allí, los prisioneros están relajados juntos; ellos no escuchan la voz del encargado de los esclavos. 19 Allí están ambos, las personas pequeñas y grandes; allí el siervo es libre de su amo. 20 ¿Porqué la luz le es dada a él quien está en miseria? ¿Porqué la vida le es dada al que es amargado en el alma; 21 a alguien que anhela la muerte sin que venga; a alguien que cava por la muerte más que por un tesoro escondido? 22 ¿Porqué la luz le es dada a alguien que se regocija mucho y se complace cuando halla la tumba? 23 ¿Porqué la luz le es dada a un hombre de quien su camino está escondido, un hombre a quien Dios ha cercado? 24 Pues mi suspiro ocurre en lugar de comer; mi gemir es derramado como agua. 25 Pues la cosa que yo temía ha venido sobre mí; de lo que yo tenía miedo ha llegado a mí. 26 No estoy tranquilo, no estoy callado, y no tengo descanso, en lugar de eso tengo problemas.

Job 3:1

Abrió su boca
"Empezó a hablar"

Que el día en el cual yo nací perezca, la noche
Job habla del día y la noche como si fueran personas. Traducción Alterna:" Desería no haber nacido".

La noche que dijo:"Un niño ha sido concebido"
Esta expresión intensifica la declaración del dolor de Job al retroceder aún más desde su nacimiento hasta su concepción. Traducción Alterna:"La noche que dijo, "un niño ha sido concebido" perezca".

La noche que dijo
Aquí la noche es como decir que hay una persona que puede hablar. El traductor puede elegir, sin embargo, traducirlo de una manera menos metafórica. Traducción Alterna:"La noche sobre la cual la gente decía".

Un niño ha sido concebido
Esto debe ser puesto en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:" Su madre ha concebido un niño".

Job 3:4

Información General
Las expresiones en estos versos son todos deseos que el día del nacimiento de Job ya no existiría. Esto implica que el día, aunque en el pasado, todavía existía de alguna manera. Los traductores pueden decidir traducir como lo hace la UDB: "Desearía que el día en que naciera pudiera haber sido oscuro".

Que ese día sea oscuro ... tampoco puede brillar el sol sobre ella
Estas dos cláusulas describen la oscuridad del día del nacimiento de Job, repitiendo así el arrepentimiento de Job por haber nacido.

Que ese día sea oscuro
Este es un deseo de que ese día no exista más. Traducción Alterna:" Que ese día desaparezca"

Que la oscuridad y la sombra de la muerte lo reclamen para si Aquí la oscuridad y la sombra d la muerte es como decir que ellas son personas que pueden clamar algo como su propia posesión. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a el día de nacimiento de Job.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La sombra de la muerte
Aquí sombra representa a la muerte misma. Traducción Alterna:"Muerta como una sombra"

Que una nube viva sobre él
Aquí se habla de una nube como si fuera una persona que podría vivir el día del nacimiento de Job. Traducción Alterna:"Que una nube lo cubra para que nadie pueda verlo".

Todo lo que hace el día negro
Esto se refiere a las cosas que bloquean la luz del sol y crea la oscuridad. Aquí "negro" representa la oscuridad.

Lo aterrorice
"Aterrorice ese día". El dia se refiere como si fuera una persona que podría estar aterrorizada por la oscuridad.

Job 3:6

Que la densa oscuridad la agarre
Esta oscuridad es como decir devuelta como si fuera una persona que puede agarrar y sostener la noche. Traducción Alterna:"Que la densa oscuridad la haga desaparecer"

Densa Oscuridad
"Oscuridad profunda" o "completa oscuridad"

Que no se regocije
La palabra "se" sse refiere a la noche de nacimiento o concepción de Job. La noche de concepcion de Job es como si fuera una persona que no debe regocijarse. Traducción Alterna: "Que ese día desaparezca de el calendario".

Que no se cuente en el número
Esa noche es como si fuera un apersona que puede caminar. Traducción Alterna:" Que nadie lo cuente en el número"

Que esa noche sea estéril
La noche del nacimiento de Job es como decir que era una mujer. Traducción Alterna:" Que ningún niño nazca en esa noche"

Que ninguna voz alegre entre en ella
Aquí que la noche del nacimiento de Job es como si hubiera un tiempo que puede ser posible para alguien ser feliz. Traducción Alterna:"Que nadie escuche el llorar feliz al nacer un hijo .

Alegre voz entre
Aquí la voz representa a una persona que es feliz. Traducción Alterna:"Que nadie sea feliz en ello otra vez"

Job 3:8

Aquellos quienes saben cómo despertar a leviatán
Job probablemente se está refiriendo aquí a hechiceros y magos, que el cree que son capaces de inclusive provocar a Leviatán en esparcir caos. Leviatán era un animal bien conocido en la antigua mitología del cercano oriente, que sepensaba que era el responsable de toda clase de destrucción, desorden, y caos

Que las estrellas del amanecer de ese día sean oscuras Esto se refiere a los planetas que a menudo son visibles justo antes del amanecer. Traducción Alterna:"Que las estrellas que aparecen antes de las primera luz de ese día sean oscuras"

que ese día busque luz, pero no encuentre ninguna
El día del nacimiento de Job es como si se trtara de una persona que busca algo. Traducción Alterna:"Que ese día espere luz, pero no tenga ninguna"

Tampoco puede ver los párpados del amanecer
Se habla del amanecer como si tuviera párpados como una persona tiene. Traducción Alterna:" Ni ver la primera luz del amanecer"

Porque no cerró las puertas del útero de mi madre
Se refiere al útero de una mujer como que contiene puertas. Traducción Alterna:"Porque ese día no cerró el vientre de mi madre"

Porque no escondió problema a mis ojos
El día de nacimiento de Job se habla aquí como si fuera una persona que puede ocultar algo.

A mis ojos
Aquí "ojos" representa a la persona que ve a traves de ellos. Traducción Alterna:"De mi"

Job 3:11

Información General
Este pasaje contiene cuatro preguntas retóricas, que Job pide para realmente hacer una serie de declaraciones.

¿Porqué no morí cuando salí del vientre?
"¿Porque no morí en mi nacimiento?" Job se apropia de esta pregunta en orden a maldecir el día de su nacimiento y para expresar su angustia. Traducción Alterna: "Desería haber muerto el día que nací"

¿Porqué no rendí mi espíritu cuando mi madre me dió a luz?
Job quiere decir que no debría haber nacido. Traducción Alterna:" Desearía haber muerto cuando salí del útero".

Renunciar a mi espíritu Esto se refiere a morir.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Porque sus rodillas me dieron la bienvenida?
Esto capaz se refiere al regazo de la madre de Job. Las rodillas de su madre es como si ellas fueran personas que podrían dar bienvenida a un bebé recién nacido. Traducción Alterna:"Desearía que no hubiera regazo que me reciba"

¿Porqué sus pechos me recibieron para que yo mamara?
Los pechos de la madre de Job es como si ellos fueran personas que puedan dar la bienvenida a un bebé recién nacido. Traducción Alterna:"Desería que no habido senos para amamantar".

Job 3:13

Pues ahora yo hubiese estado acostado calladamente. Yo hubiese dormido y estado en descanso Job usa dos oraciones para pensar en cómo sería si él nunca hubiera nacido o hubiera muerto al nacer.

Yo hubiese estado acostado calladamente
Job se imagina algo que pudo haber pasado en el pasado pero no ha sucedido, como se señaló anteriormente. Traducción Alterna:"Debería haber estado acostado en silencio"

Acostado calladamente
"dormido, descansando pacíficamente" (UDB)

Y estado en descanso
Aquí la palabra "descanso" quiere decir dormir pacíficamente, pero tambien que Job no iba a experimentar el dolor que sentía.

Con reyes y consejeros de la tierra
"Con reyes y sus asesores"

Job 3:15

Información General
Job continúa sus pensamientos sobre morir antes de nacer.

O hubiese estado acostado ... que nunca ven la luz
Esto describe algo que podría haber pasado pero no ha pasado.

Hubiese estado acostado con príncipes
"estaría acostado con los príncipes".

Quienes alguna vez tuvieron oro, quienes habían llenado sus casas con plata
Job usa paralelismo para enfatizar que él está diciendo.

O quizás hubiese nacido muerto, como los infantes que nunca ven la luz Job usa paralelismo para enfatizar que el está diciendo

Hubiese nacido muerto
"Hubiese muerto en el vientre de mi madre"

Como los infantes que nunca vieron la luz
"Como bebés que nunca habían nacido"

Infantes
"Bebés" o "niños muy chicos"

Job 3:17

Información General
Job cambia su charla de morir a vida después de la muerte

Allí, el malvado cesa de ser problema; allí los fatigados están en descanso Job usa paralelismo para enfatizar que los humildes encontrarán descanso de aquellos que les causan dificultades.

El malvado cesa de ser problema Job está hablando sobre el lugar donde las personas van después de que dejan de vivir. Traducción Alterna:"En ese lugar, la gente malvada deja de causar problemas"

La voz del encargado de los esclavos
Aquí "voz" es una metonimia del poder que los encargados de los esclavos tienen sobre los esclavos. Traducción Alterna:"Ellos ya no están debajo de el control de los encargados de los esclavos"

Pequeñas y grandes personas
Esta es una forma figurada que significa "toda la gente, ambas personas pobres y ricas.

El siervo es libre de su amo
El sirviente ya no está obligado a servir a su amo

Job 3:20

¿Porqué la luz le es dada a él quien está en miseria? ¡Porqué la vida le es dada al que es amargado en el alma;
Las dos preguntas de Job significan basicamente la misma cosa. El se pregunta porqué los que enfrentan dificultades continúan viviendo.

¿Porqué la luz le es dada a él quien está en miseria?
Aquí Job se está preguntando porque la gente debe mantenerse viva y sufrir. Traducción Alterna:"Yo no entiendo porqué Dios da vida a una persona que está sufrinedo"

Luz
Aquí luz representa vida.

¿Porqué la vida le es dada al que es amargado en el alma ... tesoro escondido?
"¿Porque Dios da vida a una persona miserable?" Traducción Alterna:"Yo no entiendo porque Dios da vida a una persona que es muy infeliz ... tesoro escondido"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

A alguien que anhela la muerte sin que venga Aquí muerte es como si fuera un objeto viniendo hacia alguien. Traducción Alterna:" A una persona que ya no quiere seguir viva, pero sigue viviendo"

A alguien que cava por la muerte más que por un tesoro escondido
Una persona esperando morir es como decir que él estuviera cavando en búsqueda de tesoros enterrados. Traducción ALterna:"Para una persona que quiere parar de vivir más que buscar riquezas ocultas.

¿Porqué la luz le es dada a alguien que se regocija mucho y se alegra cuando encuentra una tumba Aquí Job usa una pregunta para hacer una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Yo no entiendo como Dios permite que una persona continúe viviendo cuando la persona estaría muy feliz enterrada en la tierra"

Alguien que se regocija mucho y se alegra la frase "se regocija mucho" significa básicamente la misma cosa como "está alegra". Juntas, como dos frases enfatizan la intensidad de alegría. Traducción Alterna:"Alquien que está extremadamente feliz

Cuando él encuentra la tumba
Esta una forma sutil de referirse a la muerte. Traducción Alterna:"Caundo él está muerto y puede ser enterrado"

La tumba
Aquí la tumba representa muerte.

Job 3:23

¿Porqué la luz le es dada a un hombre de quien su camino está escondido, un hombre a quien Dios ha cercado?
Job hace esta pregunta para hacer una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Dios no debe dar vida a un hombre y luego quitarle su futuro y confinarlo"

Porqué la luz le es dada a un hombre
Aquí luz representa vida. Traducción Alterna:"Porque Dios mantine a un hombre vivo"

De quién su camino está escondido
Aquí Job habla de su futuro, que no sabe de antemano, como si Dios lo estuviera ocultando de él.

Un hombre a quien Dios ha cercado
Aqui estando en dificultades y peligros es como decir que ellos fueron confinados dentro de límites estrechos.

Pues mi suspiro ocurre en vez de comer; mi gemido es derramado como agua Job expresa su angustia de dos maneras.

Mi suspiso ocurre en lugar de comer
"En lugar de comer, yo lloro"

Mi gemido es derramado como agua Cualidades morales y emocionales como el dolor a menudo se comparan como si fueran agua.

Job 3:25

Pues la cosa que yo temía ha venido sobre mi; de lo que tenía miedo ha llegado a mí.
Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa.Traducción Alterna:"Lo que más me temía eso me pasó" o "Mi peor miedo se hizo realidad".

No estoy tranquilo,no estoy callado, y no estoy cansado
Job expresa su angustia en tres frases separadas. Traducción Alterna:"Estoy muy ansioso" o "Estoy emocionalmente y psicologicamente atormentado"

Problemas vienen en su lugar problemas esta dicho como si fuera un objeto que puede ir a Job. Traducción Alterna:"Angustia me atormenta en su lugar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Entonces, Elifaz el temanita le contestó y dijo: 2 "Si cualquiera trata de hablar contigo, ¿serás impaciente? Pero, ¿quién puede impedirse a sí mismo de hablar? 3 Mira, tú has instruído a muchos; tú has fortalecido a manos débiles. 4 Tus palabras lo han sostenido a quien estaba cayendo, tú has hecho firme las rodillas débiles. 5 Pero ahora que el problema ha venido a ti, y estas cargado; te toca y estás atribulado. 6 ¿No es tu temor confianza, y la integridad de tus caminos tu esperanza? 7 Piensa sobre esto, por favor: ¿quién ha perecido siendo inocente? O ¿cuándo los rectos fueron cortados? 8 Basado en lo que yo he observado, aquellos que aran iniquidad y siembran problemas, los cosechan. 9 Por el aliento de Dios ellos perecen; por la explosión de Su ira ellos son consumidos. 10 El rugir del león, la voz del león feroz, los dientes de los leones jóvenes - ellos son rotos. 11 El león viejo perece por falta de víctimas; los cachorros de la leona son esparcidos por todos lados. 12 Ahora, un cierto asunto fue secretamente traído a mí, y mi oído recibió un susurro acerca del ello. 13 Entonces vinieron pensamientos de visiones en la noche, cuando el sueño profundo cae sobre la gente. 14 Fue en la noche cuando el miedo y el temblor vinieron sobre mí, e todos mis huesos estremecieron. 15 Luego un espíritu pasó ante mi cara y el pelo de mi carne se levantó. 16 El espírtu se quedó quieto, pero yo no pude discernir su apariencia. Una forma estaba ante mis ojos; había silencio, y escuché una voz que dijo: 17 "¿Puede un hombre mortal ser más justo que Dios? ¿Puede un hombre ser más puro que su Creador? 18 Mira, si Dios no pone confianza en sus siervos; si Él acusa a sus ángeles de insensatez, 19 ¿cuánto más es esto cierto de aquellos quienes viven en casas de barro, quienes su fundamento está en el polvo, quienes son aplastados más rápido que una polilla? 20 Entre la mañana y la tarde ellos son destrozados; ellos perecen para siempre sin que alguno los note. 21 ¿No son las cuerdas de sus tienda arrancadas de ellos? Ellos mueren; ellos mueren sin sabiduría.

Job 4:1

Elifaz
Elifaz es el nombre de un hombre

Temanita
Un temanita pertenece a la tribu de Teman.

¿Será impaciente?
Elifaz hace esta pregunta en orden a hacer una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Vos seguramente vas a ser impaciente.

¿Serás impaciente?
"¿Eso te molestará?"

Pero, ¿quién puede impedirse a sí mismo de hablar?
Elifaz hace esta pregunta para decir que ninguno que vea a un amigo sufriendo puede permanecer en silencio. Traducción Alterna:"Nadie puede contenerse de hablar (a un amigo en el mismo estado en que te encuentras)" o "Debo hablarte (viendo que estas en un estado de dolor)."

Mira, tu has instruido a muchos; tu has fortalecido a manos débiles
Este verse declara una sola idea en dos diferentes maneras.

Tu has fortalecido a manos débiles
Aquí "manos débiles" representa a personas que necesitan ayuda. Traducción Alterna:"Tu has ayudado a otros cuando ellos necesitaban ayuda".

Job 4:4

Información General
El escritor usa paralelismo en cada uno de estos versos hace una idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar 1) El soporte que Job ha dado a otros en el pasado 2)el efecto en el de sus problemas presentes, y 3) Su piedad ante Dios.

Sostenido
Se dice como de alguien que ha sido alentado como si se le impidiera caerse.

Cayendo
Aquí se dice que desanimandose es como si se estuviera cayendo.

Tu has hecho firme las rodillas débiles
Aquí se habla del desaliento como si fuera una persona cuyas rodillas débiles no pudieran mantenerlo erguido.

Pero ahora el problema ha venido a ti Aqui problema es como si fuera un objeto que puede venir a una persona. Traducción Alterna:"Pero ahora tu sufrirás de desastres"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Estas cansado
"estas desmotivado"

Tu temor
"El hecho de que honras a Dios"

¿No es tu temor confianza, y la integridad de tus caminos tu esperanza?
Elifaz pregunta estas preguntas para decir a Job que su pecado le ha causado sufrimiento. Traducción Alterna:"Todos piensan que tu honras a Dios; todos piensan que sos un hombre honesto. Pero estas cosas deben no ser ciertas, porque ya no confias en Dios.

Tu temor
Elifaz quiere decir el temor de Job a Dios. Traducción Alterna:"Tu temor a Dios"

Tus caminos
Aquí "tus caminos" representa "tu conducta", "como te comportas"

Job 4:7

¿Qiuen ha perecido siendo inocente?
Elifaz usa esta pregunta para pedir a Job que busque en su vida el pecado ¿Cuándo los rectos fueron cortados?

Esta pregunta también significa hacer una dclaración, y puede ponerse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Ninguno a cortado nunca a una persona recta"

Cortado
Aquí ser cortado representa ser destruido.

Aran iniquidad ... siembran problemas ... cosechan
Aqui las acciones de arar y sembrar representan causar problemas a otras personas. Aqui la cción de cosechar representa sufrimiento de problemas que uno se ha causado a sí mismo.

Por el aliento de Dios ellos perecen; por la explosión de su ira ellos son consumidos
El escritos explica una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones. Esta es una forma de poesía hebrea usada para enfasis, claridad, enseñanza, o todas las tres.

El aliento de Dios
Esto puede representar la acción de Dios dando un mandato.

La explosión de su ira Esta expresión sugiere la respiración agitada que una persona a veces pasa por la nariz cuando está muy enojada.

respiración ... explosión
El segundo se basa en el primero. Ellos hacen el mismo punto al usar significados que incrementan el resultado. "Por el soplo de la boca de Dios ellos mueren; el fuerte viento de su ira los devasta"

perecer .. son consumidos
La segunda frase se basa en la primera. Ellas hacen el mismo punto. "Por el soplo de la boca de Dios ellos mueren, el fuerte viento de su ira los devasta"

Ellos son consumidos
Aqui ser consumidos o comidos representa ser asesinados

Job 4:10

Información General
El escritor usa paralelismo en estas frases, transmitiendo una sola idea usando diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar la destrucción de Dios de las personas malvadas.

El rugir del león, la voz del león feroz, los dientes de los leones jóvenes-ellos son rotos.
Aquí el rugir del León, su voz, y sus dientes siendo rotos son usados como imágenes de como los malvados sereán destruidos

Ellos son rotos
Esto debe ser puesto en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Algo los rompe "

El león viejo perece por falta de víctimas; los cachorros de la leona son esparcidos por todos lados
Elifaz usa la imagen de un león viejo muriendo de hambre y de la familia de un león siendo dispersada como metáfora para los malvados siendo destruidos son esparcidos

"Algo dispersa a los cachorros de la leona"

Job 4:12

Ahora un cierto asunto fue secretamente traído a mí ... mi oído recibió un susurro acerca de ello Estas frases expresan la misma idea en diferentes formas. Transmiten la idea de que Elifaz escuchó un mensaje que le susurró. Esta repetición es una forma de poesía hebrea que se usa con frecuencia para enfatizar, enseñar o aclarar.

Fue secretamente traído
"Algo trajo un cierto asunto a mi de manera secreta"

Visiones en la noche
"sueños"

Cuando el sueño profundo cae sobre la gente
"Cuando las personas duermen muy profundo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 4:14

Información General
El escritos usa paralelismo en estos versos, para transmitir una sola idea usando diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar el temor de Elifaz.

El miedo y el temor vinieron sobre mí.
Aquí miedo y temor son dichas como si fuesen objetos que pueden ir a una persona. Traducción Alterna:"Yo empecé a tener miedo y temer."

El pelo de mi carne se levantó
Esto indica un gran miedo

El pelo de mi carne
"El pelo en mi cuerpo"

Job 4:16

Información General
El escritor usa paralelismo en el verso 17, para transmitir una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar una pregunta acerca de la pureza del hombre ante Dios.

Una forma estaba ante mis ojos
"Algo estab ante mis ojos," "Yo vi algo"

Y escuché
"Entonces escuché"

¿Puede un hombre mortal ser más justo qque Dios?
Elifaz posee esta pregunta para que Job puede considerar, "¿me considero mas justo que Dios?" o "¿Estoy justificado ante Dios?" Traducción Alerna:"Un hombre mortal no puede ser más justo que Dios" o "Un hombre mortal no puede ser justo ante Dios" ¿Puede un hombre ser más puro que su creador?

Esta pregunta tiene el mismo propósito como la pregunta anterior. Traducción Alterna:"Un hombre no puede ser más puroi que su creador" o "Un hombre no puede ser más puro ante su creador"

Hacedor
"Creador"

Job 4:18

Aquellos quienes viven en casa de barro, quienes su fundamento está en el polvo
Esta es una manera figurada de describir a los seres humanos, que fueron creados del polvo de la tierra y que sus cuerpos son como casas, que son echas de barro y tienen fundamentos sucios.

Aplastado más rápido que una polilla
La frase "más rápido que" es normalmente traducida como "antes". Traducción Alterna:"aplastado antes que una polilla" o "Aplastado como una polilla"

Son aplastados
"Algo los aplasta"

Son aplastados
"Son asesinados"

Job 4:20

Información General
Estos versículos continúan el uso anterior del paralelismo, enfatizando aquí de diferentes maneras la idea de que las personas mueren repentinamente sin haber logrado la sabiduría y sin la preocupación de los demás.

Entre la mañana y la tarde ellos son destrozados
Esto se refiere a la idea de algo que esta pasando rápido

Ellos son destrozados
Esto puede ser también puesto en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Ellos mueren"

¿No son las cuerdas de sus tiendas arrancadas de ellos?
Esto debe ser puesto en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"¿No han sus enemigos arrancado las cuerdas de sus tiendas de ellos?"

Las cuerdas de su tienda
Aquí cuerdas de tienda representa a la tienda. A veces la casa o familia d una persona son demostradas como tiendas, que puede también representar todas sus posesiones.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Clama ahora; ¿hay alguien que te contestará? ¿A quién de los santos recurrirás? 2 Pues la ira mata al hombre insensato; los celos matan al tonto. 3 Yo he visto a una persona insensata echando raíces, pero de repente yo maldije su hogar. 4 Sus hijos están lejos de la seguridad; ellos son aplastados en la puerta de la ciudad. Nadie hay para rescatarlos. 5 Los hambrientos se comen sus cosechas; ellos aun las toman de entre los espinos. Los sedientos suspiran por sus riquezas. 6 Pero las dificultades no surgen de la suelo; ni el problema brota de la tierra. 7 En cambio, la humanidad nace para el problema, así como las chispas vuelan hacia arriba. 8 Pero, en cuanto a mí, recurriré a Dios mismo; a Él yo encomendaría mi causa-- 9 Él quien hace cosas grandes y profundas, cosas maravillosas sin número. 10 Él da lluvia sobre la tierra y envía agua sobre los campos. 11 Él lo hace para colocar en lugares altos a aquellos que están en lugares bajos; para hacer subir a seguridad a quienes están de luto. 12 Él rompe las planes de la gente astuta, para que sus manos no puedan tener éxito. 13 Él atrapa a la gente sabia en sus propias astucias; los planes de la gente torcida se apresuran a su fin. 14 Ellos encuentran oscuridad en pleno día, y al mediodía andan a tientas como si fuese de noche. 15 Pero Él salva a la persona pobre de la espada en sus bocas y a la persona necesitada de la mano de la gente poderosa. 16 Para que el pobre tenga esperanza, y la injusticia cierre su propia boca. 17 Mira, el hombre a quien Dios corrige es bendecido; por lo tanto, no desprecies la corrección del Todopoderoso. 18 Porque Él hiere y luego venda; Él hiere y luego Sus manos sanan. 19 Él te rescatará de seis problemas; ciertamente, en siete problemas ningún mal te tocará. 20 En hambruna Él te rescatará de la muerte, y en la guerra de las manos de aquellos quienes usan la espada. 21 Tú serás escondido del azote de la lengua; y no tendrás miedo de la destrucción cuando venga. 22 Tú te reirás de la destrucción y la hambruna, y no tendrás miedo de las bestias salvajes. 23 Pues tú tendrás un pacto con las piedras en tu campo, y las bestias del campo estarán en paz contigo. 24 Tú sabrás que tu tienda está a salvo; visitarás tu redil y nada te faltará. 25 Tú también sabrás que tu semilla será grande, que tu descendencia será como el pasto sobre la tierra. 26 Tú vendrás a tu tumba a una edad completa, como una pila de gavillas que sube a su tiempo. 27 Mira, hemos examinado este asunto; es así; escúchalo, y conócelo por ti mismo."

Job 5:1

¿A quién de los santos recurrirás?
Elifaz plantea esta pregunta para señalar que nadie Job puede acudir en busca de ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "¿Hay alguien santo a quien puedas recurrir?" o "No hay nadie santo a quien puedas pedir ayuda".

Santos
Esto se refiere a seres sobrenaturales o de algún tipo, ya sea ángeles u otros espíritus

El tonto .. una persona tonta
Esto se refiere a cualquier persona tonta y cualquier persona necia.

Los celos matan al tonto
"Los celos mata a cualquiera que actúa ignorante e impulsivamente"

Una persona tonta echando raices
Aquí se habla de una persona como si fuera una planta, quizás volviendose más tonta con el tiempo. Traducción Alterna:"Una persona tonta que se castiga con la tontería"

Su hogar
esto se refiere a la familia de la persona y toda su propiedad

Job 5:4

Información General
Estos versos continúan el uso anterior del paralelismo, aqui enfatizando en diferentes maneras la idea que los niños de personas necias nunca están seguras.

Sus hijos están lejos de la seguridad
"sus" se refiere a la persona necia o a las personas necias en 5:1. Traducción Alterna:"Sus hijos nunca están seguros"

Son aplastados
Aquí siendo aplastados representa siendo oprimidos, aprovechado,en la corte. Esta idea debe ser puesta en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Alguien los aplasta"

Puerta de la ciudad
La puerta de la ciudad, funcionando como una corte, era el ñugar donde las disputas eran resueltas y donde las sentencias son dadas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Nadie hay para rescatarlos
"No hay nadie para que ayude a los niños de las personas necias fuera de sus dificultades"

Incluso lo toman de entre sus espinas
Esto quizás se refiere a partes de un campo donde crecen los peores cultivos, debido a las plantas de espinas presentes.

Los sedientos suspiran por sus riquezas
Aquí se habla de personas codiciosas como si tuvieran sed, y se habla de la riqueza de la persona necia como si fuera algo que pudieran beber.

Job 5:6

Pero las dificultades no viene de la tierra; ni el problema brota del suelo Aquídificultades y problemas son tratados como si fuesen plantas.

La humanidad naca para el problema, así como las chispas vuelas hacia arriba
Es natural para las personas, un dia nacen, para tener problemas como lo son las chispas para volar desde un incendio

Job 5:8

Información General
En estos versos, Elifaz continúa el discurso de 4:1. El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada verso, transmitiendo una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones que enfatizan que Job necesita alegar su caso a Dios que hace cosas maravillosas.

Cosas grandes y profundas, cosas maravillosas sin número
"Grandes cosas que no pueden ser entendidas, maravillas que no pueden ser contadas"

Cosas profundas
Se refiere a cosas que la humanidad no puede entender

Grandes y cosas profundas
Aquí el escritor usa dos palabras independientes conectandolas con "y" para enfatizar la grandeza de las acciones de Dios. Traducción Alterna:"Cosas muy profundas"

Cosas maravillosas
"Maravilla de cosas" o "maravillas"

Job 5:11

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada verso, transmitiendo una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar como Dios levanta a los que son humildes y degrada a los que son astutos.

Él lo hace para colocar en lugares altos a aquellos que están en lugares bajos
Se habla de personas humildes en peligro como si estuvieran en una posición baja. Cuando Dios los rescata, reciben honor. Cuando esto sucede, se dice que se levantan y se colocan en una posición alta. Traducción Alterna:"Dios hace esto para rescatar y honrar al humilde que ha estado sufriendo.

El rompe los planes
Aqui parando los planes de las personas astutas es como decir que ellos fueran cosas que pueden ser rotas físicamente.

El atrapa a la gente sabia en sus propias astucias
Aquí hacer que las personas sabias sufran por sus propias acciones malvadas se dice como si se las atrapara en trampas. Se habla de sus propias acciones como si fueran esas trampas.

Gente torcida
Aquí se habla de ser malvado de una manera inteligente como si se estuviera retorciendo. Traducción Alterna: "los que son astutos" o "los que son tortuosos" o "los que son astutos".

Job 5:14

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada verso, transmitiendo una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar como Dios degrada a aquellos que son astutos y salva a aquellos que son pobres.

Ellos encuentran oscuridad en pleno día Aquí se habla de las personas astutas y malvadas a quienes Dios confunde como si inesperadamente estuvieran en la oscuridad al mediodía, cuando el sol está en su posición más alta en el cielo. No pueden hacer nada de lo que desean hacer, porque no pueden ver. Traducción Alterna:"Aquellos que son astutos estan en la oscuridad, inclusive al mediodía" .

tientas
Sentirse como una persona ciega

Mediodía
"Al mediodía"

Pero Él salva a la persona pobre de la espada de sus bocas
Aqui el insulto y se habla de cosas amenazantes que la gente dice como si fueran una espada en la boca. Traducción Alterna:"Pero salva a la persona pobre de las amenazas de los poderosos" o "Pero el salva a la persona pobre cuando las amanezas de los poderosos los acechan o insulta"

La injusticia cierre su propia boca Personas que dicen cosas injustas es como si ellas fueran al injusticia misma, que debe parar de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hablar. Traducción Alterna:"Es como si la misma injusticia tapara su propia boca"

Job 5:17

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en los versos 18 y 19, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar los actos de Dios de castigo y curación

Dios corrige... Correción del Todopoderoso
Dios es descrito como un padre corrigiendo o instruyendo a su niño.

Bendecido
"Beneficiado"

No desprecies
"No rechazes" o "Jamás consideres sin valor"

Corrección
"Instrucción" o "corrección" o "disciplina" (UDB)

Porque ÉL hiere y luego venda; ÉL hiere y luego sus manos sanan Porque ÉL hiere pero venda; ÉL aplasta pero sus manos sanan"

Sus manos sanan
Aquí "sus manos" representa a Dios.

ÉL te rescatará de seis problemas; ciertamente, en siete problemas, ningún problema te tocará.
El uso de números crecientes como "seis" y "siete" representa la idea de muchas, muchas veces. Traducción Alterna:"ÉL te rescatará de los problemas una y otra vez; de hecho, una y otra vez, ningún mal te tocará"

Job 5:20

Información General
El cambio en el pronombre "el" a "tu" que comienza en 5:17 continúa através de el final de el discurso de Elifaz es 5:26.

En hanbruna ÉL te rescatará
"En hambruna Dios te redimirá"

te rescatará
"te rescatara" o "te redimirá" o "te salvará del peligro"

Destrucción
"Mal de los enemigos"

No tendrás miedo de las bestias salvajes
"Tu no tendrás miedo de las bestias salvajes"

Bestias salvajes
Animales que no han sido domesticados o entrenados

Job 5:23

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada uno de estos versos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar la seguridad con respecto al mundo natural, la granja, y algunos descendientes.

Tu tendrás un pacto con las piedras en tu campo
Esta oración usa lenguaje figurado para transmitir armonia con el mundo natural. Traducción Alterna:"Tu pacto es con las piedras del campo"

Las bestias del campo tendrán paz contigo
"Los animales salvajes van a estar en paz contigo"

Bestias salvajes
Animales que no han sido domesticados o entrenados.

Tu sabrás que tu tienda esta a salvo
"Tu sabrás que tu tienda es pacífica"

Visitarás tu redirl y nada te hará falta
"Vas a visitar tu rebaño y no vas a encontrar nada perdido"

Tu también sabrás que tu semilla será grande, que tu descendencia será como el pasto sobre la tierra
En este simil, se representa a la "desv¿cendencis" tan numerosa como la briznas de hierba. "También sabrás que tus descendientes serán muchos, que tu descendencia será como la hierba que crece en la tierra"

Job 5:26

Tu vendrás a tu tumba a edad completa
"Vas a morir a una edad bastante avanzada"

Como una pila de gavillas que sube a su tiempo
Elifaz está utilizando el símil para señalar que Job morirá cuando sea hora de que muera. Traducción Alterna: "Así como el grano se cosecha a la hora señalada, así morirás cuando sea la hora señalada.

Mira, hemos examinado este asunto; es así; escúchalo, y conócelo por ti mismo
"Nosotros" se refiere a los amigos de Job, incluido Elifaz, que está hablando. Traducción Alterna:"Mire, hemos pensado en este asunto. Escuche lo que estoy diciendo y sepa que es verdad".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Entonces Job contestó y dijo: 2 "Oh, si solo mi angustia fuera pesada; ¡si solo toda mi calamidad fuera puesta en la balanza! 3 Porque ahora sería más pesada que la arena de los mares. Es por esto que mis palabras fueron imprudentes. 4 Pues las flechas del Todopoderoso están en mí, mi espíritu bebe el veneno; los terrores de Dios se han arreglado en conjunto contra mí. 5 ¿Acaso el asno salvaje rebuzna en desespero cuando él tiene pasto? ¿O acaso muge el buey con hambre cuando tiene forraje? 6 ¿Puede eso que no tiene sabor ser comido sin sal? ¿O hay algún sabor en la clara de un huevo? 7 Me rehuso a tocarlos; ellos son como comida asquerosa para mí. 8 Oh, si yo pudiera tener mi pedido; oh, si Dios me concediera lo que ahnelo: 9 ¡si se complaciera Dios en aplastarme de una vez, si Él dejara soltar su mano y me cortara de esta vida! 10 Pueda ésta todavia ser mi consolación—aún si yo me regocijo en dolor que no disminuye: que yo no he rechazado las palabras del Santo. 11 ¿Qué es mi fuerza, que yo debo intentar esperar? ¿Cuál es mi final, para que yo deba prolongar mi vida? 12 ¿Mi fuerza es la fuerza de las piedras? ¿O es mi carne hecha de bronce? 13 ¿No es verdad que yo no tengo ayuda en mí mismo, y que la sabiduría ha sido sacada fuera de mí? 14 Para la persona que está a punto de desmayarse, la fidelidad debe ser mostrada por su amigo; aún para aquel que abandona el temor del Todopoderoso. 15 Pero mis hermanos han sido tan fieles a mí, así como un lecho de arroyo del desierto, como canales de agua que pasan a ser nada, 16 los cuales son oscurecidos a causa del hielo sobre ellos, y a causa de la nieve que se esconde a sí misma en ellos. 17 Cuando ellos se descongelan, se desvanecen; cuando está caliente, ellos se derriten de su lugar. 18 Las caravanas que viajan por su camino se desvían por agua; ellos vagan en tierra estéril y luego perecen. 19 Caravanas desde Tema miraron allí, mientras compañías de Sabá tenían esperanza en ellos. 20 Ellos estaban desilusionados porque habian estado confiados en encontrar agua. Ellos fueron allá, pero ellos fueron engañados. 21 Ahora, ustedes amigos son nada para mí; ustedes ven mi terrible situación y están asustados. 22 ¿Le dije yo, 'Demen algo;' u, 'ofrézcanme un regalo de sus riquezas;' 23 o 'sálvenme de la mano de mi adversario;' o, 'rescátenme de la mano de mis opresores?' 24 Enséñenme, y yo voy a mantener mi paz; háganme entender dónde yo he estado equivocado. 25 ¡Cuán dolorosas son las palabras verdaderas! Pero sus argumentos, ¿cómo es que realmente me reprenden? 26 ¿Ustedes planifican ignorar mis palabras, tratando las palabras de un hombre desesperado como al viento? 27 Ciertamente, ustedes echan suertes por un niño sin padre, y regatean sobre su amigo como por mercancía. 28 Ahora, por lo tanto, por favor mírenme, pues seguramente yo no mentiría en sus caras. 29 Cedan, yo les ruego; no permitan que haya injusticia en ustedes. De hecho, cedan, pues mi causa es justa. 30 ¿Hay maldad en mi lengua? ¿No puede mi boca detectar cosas malignas?

Job 6:1

Si sólo mi angustia fuera pesada; ¡si sólo mi calamidad fuera puesta en balanza!
Aquí el escritor usó dos diferentes dclaraciones para transmitir una simple idea, la cargo del sufrimiento de Job.

En la balanza
"En una balanza"

Porque ahora sería más pesada que la arena de los mares
Job compara la carga de su sufrimiento a el peso de la arena mojada; ambas pueden aplastar a una persona. "La carga de mi angustia y problemas es mas pesada que la arena en la orilla mar.

Job 6:4

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada uno de estos versos, transmitiendo una simple idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar el intenso sufrimiento de Job como fundamento de su queja.

Pues las flechas del Todopoderoso están en mí
Esta metáfora para el sufrimiento de Job. El compara sus muchos problemas con flechas que atraviesan su cuerpo.

Mi espíritu bebe el veneno
La metáfora continúa. El sufrimiento a penetrado el corazón de Job. Traducción Alterna:"Siento el dolor hasta el fondo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los terrores de Dios se han arreglado en conjunto contra mí Traducción Alterna: "Todas las cosas feas que pueden pudieron haber pasado me han venido en contra de una vez"

En formación
"como un regimiento del ejercito" o "como una banda d soldados"

¿Acaso el asno salvaje rebuzna en desespero cuando él tiene pasto? ¿O acaso muge el buey con hambre cuando tiene forraje?
Job plantea estas preguntas para enfatizar que el tiene una buena razón para quejarse. Traducción Alterna:"¿Me estaría quejando si todo estuviera bien?" o "No me voy a quejar sin razón"

rebuznar
el sonido que un asno hace

muje
el sonido que un buey hace

Forraje
comida de animales

¿Puede eso que no tiene sabor ser comido sin sal? ¿O hay algún sabor en la clara de un huevo?
Incluso la comida, o circunstancias, en la vida de Job eran dolorosas. Job conpara su vida con la comida que no tiene sabor o condimiento. "Mi vida no tiene sabor; es como la clara insípida de un huevo".

Puede eso que no tiene sabor ser comido
Esta pregunta pasiva se puede traducir como una declaración activa:" Una persona no puede comer una comida de mal sabor sin sal".

Job 6:7

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cad uno de estos versos, transmitiendo una idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar las declaraciones de intenso sufrimiento de Job y su deseo de muerte.

Me rehúso a tocarlos
"Ellos" se refiere a alimentos de mal sabor. Aquí Job continúa usando la imagen de la mala comida como una metáfora de sus circunstancias desagradables.

Oh, si yo pudiera tener mi pedido; oh, si Dios me concediera lo que anhelo Traducción Alterna:"Que Dios haga lo que le he pedido que haga"

Que se complaciera Dios en aplastarme de una vez Traducción Alterna:"Que Dios seguiría adelante y me aplastaría"

si Él dejara soltar su mano y me cortara de esta vida Traducción ALterna:"Que ÉL actuaría rápidamente y acortaría mi vida"

Suelta su mano
"Actúa rápido"

Job 6:10

Pueda ésta todavía ser mi consolación
"Que esta todavía pueda ser mi consolación" o "Que esto me pueda dar consuelo"

Aún si yo me regocijo en el dolor que no disminuye
"Saltaría de alegría en un dolor interminable" o "Soportaría un dolor que no disminuye"

Regocijo
"regocijo"

Que no Disminuye
"Que no disminuye"

Que yo no he rechazado las apalabras del Santo
"Que no he rechazado a Dios"

¿Qué es mi fuerza, que yo debo intentar esperar? ¿Cuál es mi final, para que yo deba prolongar mi vida?
Job plantea estas preguntas para enfatizar que no tiene sentido seguir viviendo. Traducción Alterna:"Además, ¿Que más hay para mi para vivir y esperar?" o "No tengo fuerzas para seguir viviendo; no tengo motivos para ser paciente"

Job 6:12

Información General
El escritor utiliza preguntas retóricas paralelas en cada uno de estos versículos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos declaraciones diferentes para enfatizar la falta de fuerza de Job para soportar el sufrimiento.

¿Mi fuerza es la fuerza de las piedras? ¿O es mi carne hecha de bronce?
Job contrasta la debilidad de su cuerpo con materiales de construcción resistentes y duraderos para enfatizar su falta de fuerza. Traducción Alterna:"No soy tan fuerte como las rocas. Mi cuerpo no está hecho de metal"

¿No es verdad que yo no tengo ayuda en mí mismo .. de mí?
Traducción Alterna:"Es cierto que no me quedan fuerzas ... a mí".

¿La sabiduría ha sido sacada fuera de mí?
"Mi éxito me ha sido quitado" o "la fuerza interior ha sido expulsada de mí" Esto pued ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Mi fuerza interior se fue"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 6:14

Para la persona que está a punto de desmayarse, la fidelidad debe ser mostrada por su amigo
"Un amigo debe ser amable con la persona que se siente sin esperanza"

Aún para aquel que abandona el temor del Todopoderoso
"Incluso si para de honrar al Dios Todopoderoso" (UDB) Posibles significados son 1) la persona no teme a Dios o 2)Su amigo no teme a Dios.

Pero mis hermanos han sido tan fieles a mí, así como un lecho de arroyo del desierto Job describe a sus amigos como un "cause" que es una corriente que puede secarse repentinamente y no es confiable.

Como canales de agua que pasan a ser nada
"Como corrientes de agua que se secan"

los cuales son oscurecidos a causa del hielo sobre ellos
"Los cuales son oscuros como el hielo"

y a causa de la nieve que se esconde a sí misma en ellos
"Y la nieve se esconde en ellos" o "La nieve desaparece en ellos"

Cuando ellos se descongelan, se desvanecen
"Cuando ellos se calientan, ellos desaparecen" cuando está caliente, ellos se derriten de su lugar.

"Caundo está caliente, ellos se secan"

Job 6:18

Las caravanas que viajan por su camino se desvían por agua Job continúa con su descripción de que sus amigos son tan poco confiables como las corrientes que se secan. Traducción Alterna:" Los caminos de los viajeros cambian de rumbo buscando agua"

Las caravanas
Esta frase también puede ser traducida como "los caminos de las caravanas" o "los caminos de los viajeros" o "viajeros".

Ellos vagan en tierra estéril y luego perecen
"Ellos van en ningún sitio y mueren"

Tema
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Las personas de ese lugar usan caravanas para intercambiar cosas con personas de otras tierras.

mientras compañías de Sabá tenían esperanza en ellos
"mientras los viajeros de Sheba los esperaban"

Sabá
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Las personas de este lugar usaban caravanas para intercambiar cosas con las personas de otras tierras.

Esperanza en ellos
""los esperaba" o "ponía su esperanza en ellos"

Ellos estaban desilusionados porque habian estado confiados en encontrar agua.
"Ellos estaban confundadidos porque ellos estaban confiados en que iban a encontrar agua" pero ellos fueron engañados.

Traducción Alterna:" pero estaban decepcionados" o pero no estaban satisfechos

Job 6:21

Información General
En estos versículos, Job plantea cuatro preguntas para reprender a sus amigos y enfatizar que no pidió ayuda a ninguno de ellos.

Ahora
Job utitliza esta frase para introducir la parte principal de lo que está diciendo.

Ustedes amigos no son nada para mí
"Ustedes no actúan como mis amigos"

Están asustados
"y tienes miedo de que Dios pueda hacerte cosas similares ". (UDB) Aquí la UDB hace más explícita la información implícita de que los amigos temen que Dios los castigue

¿Le dije yo 'Demen algo'?
Traducción Alterna:"No le pedi a nadie algo"

ofrézcanme un regalo de sus riquezas Traducción Alterna:"No les pedí dinero" o " "No les pedí que ofrecieran de sus riquezas una desposada en mi cuenta"

sálvenme de la mano de mi adversario
"La mano de mi adversario" es una metonimia que representa el poder de alguien que está fuertemente en contra de Job. Traducción Alterna:"Nunca le pedí a ninguno de ustedes que me rescatara de mis enemigos" rescátenme de la mano de mis opresores?

"Mano de mis opresores" es una metonimia que representa el poder de los hombres que tratan mal a Job. Traducción Alterna:"No te pedí que me rescatases de los que me trataron mal".

Salvenme
"Rescátenme"

Job 6:24

Enséñenme
El verbo "enseñar" es en segunda persona de la forma plural.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y yo voy a mantener mi paz
"Y yo voy a estar en silencio".

Háganme entender
Traducción Alterna:"Tu me haces entender". El verbo es en segunda persona de la forma plural.

Cuán dolorosas son las palabras verdaderas
La ULB y la UDB tienen significados opuestos para esta frase. Esto se debe a que los posibles significados en hebreo son 1) Las palabras verdaderas son dolorosas de escuchar o 2) Las palabras de una persona veraz no son dolorosas de escuchar.

Pero sus argumentos, ¿Cómo es que realmente me reprenden?
Job está usando esta pregunta para reprender a sus amigos y enfatizar que lo que dicen no se aplica a él.Traducción Alterna:"Sus razones no se aplican a mí aunque me corrija severamente"

Tus argumentos
"Tus razones" o "tus reclamaciones". "Tus" es en segunda persona de la forma plural.

Job 6:26

¿Ustedes planifican ignorar mis palabras, tratando las palabras de un hombre desesperado como al viento?
Job usa esta pregunta para regañar a sus amigos. Traducción Alterna "Ignoras mis palabras y las tratas como si no fueran nada".

Ustedes
"Ustedes" es en la segunda forma plural

tratando las palabras de un hombre desesperado como al viento
Job compara las desesperadas palabras de un hombre desesperado por ayuda con el vacío del viento; ambos son inútiles.

Ustedes echan suertes por un niño sin padre
"incluso juegas para ganar un huérfano"

echas mucho ... regateas con tu amigo Aquí "usted" y "su" están en segunda persona en forma plural

y regatean sobre su amigo como por mercancía
"y cava un hoyo para tu amigo"

Job 6:28

Ahora
Job usa esta palabra para introducir nueva información.

Porfavor mírenme
El verbo "mirar" está en forma plural en segunda persona.

Sus caras
"Tus" es en segunda persona de la forma plural.

Cedan, yo les ruego
"Por favor, sé misericordioso conmigo" o "Por favor, regresa"

Cedan
Este verbo está en segunda persona en forma plural.

Que no haya injusticia en ustedes
"Tratenme justamente"

De hecho, cedan, pues mi causa es justa
"Cambia la forma en que me estás tratando nuevamente; estoy en lo cierto en esto" o "Cambia la forma en que me estás tratando; todavía estoy en lo cierto en esto"

Cedan
Este verbo es en segunda persona de la forma plural

¿Hay maldad en mi lengua?
"¿Digo cosas malvadas?" Job usa esta pregunta para reprender a sus amigos y enfatizar que no es malo. Traducción Alterna: "No digo cosas malas".

¿Hay maldad en mi lengua?
Una lengua no puede tener mal físicamente, por lo que esta es una metonimia utilizada para describir el discurso perverso.

¿No puede mi boca detectar cosas malignas?
Job usa esta pregunta para reprender a sus amigos y para enfatizar que puede distinguir entre lo correcto y lo incorrecto. Traducción Alterna:""Puedo notar la diferencia entre lo bueno y lo malo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 ¿No tiene el hombre dura labor en la tierra?¿No son sus días como los días de un hombre contratado? 2 Como un esclavo ansiosamente anhela las sombras de la tarde, como un hombre contratado mira por su paga— 3 así, he sido hecho para soportar meses de miseria; me han sido dadas noches llenas de problemas. 4 Cuando me acuesto, me digo a mí mismo: ¿Cuándo me levantaré y cuándo se irá la noche? Estoy cansado de dar vueltas hasta que amanece. 5 Mi carne esta cubierta de gusanos y de costra de polvo; las llagas en mi piel se endurecen luego se disuelven y supuran. 6 Mis días son mas rápidos que la lanzadera del tejedor; se pasan sin esperanza. 7 Dios, recuerda que mi vida es solo un respiro; mis ojos no verán mas el bien. 8 El ojo de Dios, quien me ve, no me verá más; los ojos de Dios estarán sobre mi, pero yo no existiré. 9 Como la nube es consumida y se desvanece, así el que baja al Seol no subirá más. 10 Él no volverá más a su casa; ni su lugar le conocerá otra vez. 11 Por lo tanto no refrenaré mi boca; yo hablaré en la angustia de mi espíritu; yo me quejaré en la amargura de mi alma. 12 ¿Soy yo el mar o un monstruo marino para que tú pongas guardia sobre mí? 13 Cuando yo digo: 'Mi cama me consolará, y mi lecho suavizará mi queja,' 14 entonces, tú me asustas con sueños y me aterrorizas a través de visiones; 15 así que, yo escogería el estrangulamiento y la muerte en lugar de preservar estos huesos míos. 16 Yo detesto mi vida; no desearía estar vivo para siempre; déjenme solo porque mis días son inútiles. 17 ¿Quién es el hombre para que Tú le prestes atención, para que te acuerdes de él, 18 para que Tú lo observes cada mañana y lo pruebes cada momento? 19 ¿Cuánto tiempo pasará antes de que quites Tu mirada de mí, antes de que me dejes solo el tiempo suficiente para que trague mi propia saliva? 20 Aún si he pecado, ¿qué te haria eso a Tí, Tú que vigilas a los hombres? ¿Porqué has hecho de mi un blanco, hasta convertirme en una carga para Tí? 21 ¿Porqué no perdonas mi transgresión y quitas mi iniquidad? Pues pronto me acostaré en el polvo; Tú me buscarás cuidadosamente, pero yo no existiré.

Job 7:1

Información General
El escritor continúa usando el paralelismo en cada uno de estos versículos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos declaraciones diferentes para enfatizar que su sufrimiento .

¿No tiene el hombre dura labor en la tierra?
Job plantea esta pregunta para enfatizar su conciencia de que todas las personas experimentan sufrimiento. Traducción Alterna: "¿No todos tienen trabajos forzados en la tierra?" o "Todos tienen trabajos forzados en la tierra"

¿No son sus días como los días de un hombre contratado?
Job plantea esta pregunta para enfatizar su conciencia de que todas las personas luchan en la vida. Traducción Alterna: "Y sus días son como los días de un hombre contratado".

Como un esclavo ... Como un hombre contratado Job se compara a sí mismo

las sombras de la tarde
"Sombra"

Un hombre contratado
Este es un hombre que trabajaba un día a la vez y le pagaban al final de cada día. "un jornalero"

así, he sido hecho para soportar meses de miseria; me han sido dadas noches llenas de problemas.
noches llenas - "así que soporto meses de miseria y noches llenas de problemas"

Mese de miseria
"Meses desastrozos" o "Meses vacio"

Job 7:4

¿Cuándo me levantaré y cuándo se irá la noche?
Job plantea esta pregunta para enfatizar su intenso sufrimiento durante las horas en que debería estar durmiendo. Traducción Alterna: "Desearía poder levantarme, pero la noche continúa".

Estoy lleno de sacudidas de aquí para allá
Esto indica que Job se ha movido en su cama toda la noche sin descansar. "Estoy tan cansado de dar vueltas y de la inquietud".

costra de polvo
trozos de tierra

Job 7:6

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en cada uno de estos versículos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos declaraciones diferentes para enfatizar el sentido de Job de la brevedad de la vida.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Mis días son más rápidos que la lanzadera del tejedor
"Mi vida va pasando rápidamente" tejedor

una persona que hace ropas cruzando hilos o Hilados

La lanzadra del tejedor
Una parte que se mueve muy rápido en una maquina o aparato para hacer ropa

Se pasan sin esperanza
"Ellos pasan y terminan absolutamente sin esperanza"

Dios, recuerda
La palabra "Dios" fue adherida a esta frase porque las personas que escucharon "recuerda" han tenido claro que fue a Dios dirirgido

Mi vida es sólo un respiro
En esta metáfora, Job compara lo corto de su vida a un respiro. "Mi vida es muy corta como un respiro"

Mis ojos no verán más el bien
"Nunca volveré a experimentar felicidad"

Job 7:8

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paraelelismo en cada uno de estos versículos, transmitiendo una idea usando dos diferentes dclaracioes para enfatizar el pensamiento de Job que, despues d la muerte, ni Dios ni las personas que conocía lo volverán a ver.

El ojo de Dios, quien me ve, no me verá más
La palabra "Dios" se agregó a esta frase porque el contexto implica que Job está habalndo con Dios. "El ojo que me ve no me verá más".

Los ojos de Dios estarán sobre mí, pero yo no existiré
"Tus ojos estrán en mi, pero yo no voy a existir"

Como la nube es consumida, así el que baja al Seol no subirá más Job está describiendo la muerte en terminos como la nube consumida. "A medida que la nube se desvanece, el que muere desvaneces" o "Una vez que estás en la tumba, no puedes levantarte".

Como la nube es consumida
"Como una nube se desvanece"

Job 7:11

Yo hablaré en la angustia d mi espíritu; yo me quejaré en la amargura de mi alma Job transmite una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar la razón por la cual no se mantendrá en silencio.

No refrenaré mi boca
"No voy a dejar d hablar"

La angustia de mi espíritu
"El tormento d mi espíritu" o "La gonía de mi sufrimiento"

La amargura de mi alma
"El resentimiento de mi alma"

¿Soy yo el mas o un mounstro marino para qeu tú pongas guardia sobre mí?
Job plantea esta pregunta para expresar su enojo con Dios. Al compararse con el mar o un monstruo marino, Job sugiere que Dios lo considera una criatura horrible. "No soy el mar o un monstruo marino que necesita un guardia para vigilarlo".

Job 7:13

Información General
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en los primeros dos versos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos diferentes dclaraciones para enfatizar el intenso sufrimiento de Job.

Mi cama me consolará, y mi lecho suavizará mi queja
Aquí"cama" y "lecho" son metonimos para "dormir". En recostarse para dormir, Job esperaba tener consuelo. Los metónimos también tienen atributos humanos; tienen la habilidad de consolar y calmar a una persona.

Tú me asustas
"Tú" se refiere a Dios a quién Job esta haciendo su queja

estrangulamiento
Matar a una persona apretando su garganta y deteniendo su respiración

Estos huesos míos
Aquí Job usa la palabra "huesos" para referirse a su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna:"Este cuerpo mío" .

Job 7:16

Declaración de Conexión
El escritor continúa usando paralelismo en estos versículos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar el impacto de la miseria de Job en su sentido de autoestima.

Yo detesto mi vida
"Yo desprecio mi vida"

Estar vivo para siempre
"Vivir por siempre"

Mis días son inútiles
"Mis días sin sentido" o "Mis días no tienen valor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú debes prestarle atención
"Que debes observarlo"

Para que te acuerdes de él
"Que dirijas tu atención a él"

Para que lo observes
"Que le inspecciones cuidadosamente a él"

Job 7:19

¿Cuánto tiempo pasará antes de que quites tu mirada de mí, antes de que me dejes solo el tiempo suficiente para que trague mi propia saliva?
Aquí Job transmite una simple idea usando dos diferentes preguntas retóricas para enfatizar su deseo que Dios deje de mirarlo "¡Mira lejos de mi! ¡Déjame en paz lo suficiente para que trague mi propia saliva!"

Aún si he pecado, ¿Que haría eso a tí, tú que vigilas a los hombres?
Job plantea esta pregunta para reprender a Dios. "Incluso si he pecado, eso no te haría nada, a ti quien cuida a la gente" (Ver:

¿Porque me has hcho un blano .. tú?
"¿Porque me has convertido en un objetivo para tí ... tú?"

Job 7:21

¿Porque no perdonas mi transgreción y quitas mi iniquidad?
Aquí Job usa dos diferentes cláusulas sin una pregunta retórica para enfatizar su deseo de que Dios perdone su pecado. El plantea esta pregunta para reprender a Dios por hacerlo sufrir. Traducción Alterna:"Perdona mis transgresiones y remueve mi iniquidad"

Porqué no perdonas mi transgresión
"¿porque no perdonas mi transgresión?"

Quitas
"remueve"

Ahora me acostaré en el polvo
La frase "Acostarse en el polvo" es una suave o cortés de decir "morir" "Ahora voy morir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Entonces Bildad el suhita respondió y dijo: 2 "¿Hasta cuándo dirás tú estas cosas? ¿Hasta cuándo las palabras de tu boca serán viento poderoso? 3 ¿Pervierte Dios la justicia? ¿Pervierte el Todopoderoso la rectitud? 4 Tus hijos han pecado contra Él; nosotros sabemos esto, por cuanto Él los entregó en las manos de sus pecados. 5 Pero supón que tú diligentemente buscaste a Dios y presentaste tu pedido al Todopoderoso. 6 Si tú eres puro y recto, entonces Él seguramente se moveriá a tu favor y te restaurariá a tu justo lugar. 7 Aunque tu comienzo fue pequeño, aún así tu condición final sería más grande. 8 Por favor, pregunta a las generaciones pasadas, y dale tu atención a lo que nuestros ancestros aprendieron. 9 (Nosotros solo nacimos ayer y nada sabemos porque nuestros días en la tierra son una sombra). 10 ¿No te enseñarán ellos y te dirán? ¿No hablarán palabras de sus corazones? 11 ¿Puede el papiro crecer sin pantano? ¿Pueden las cañas crecer sin agua? 12 Mientras ellas aún están verdes y no cortadas, ellas se marchitan antes que cualquier otra planta. 13 Así tambien son los senderos de todos los que se olvidan de Dios, la esperanza de los impíos perecerá. 14 Su confianza se romperá, y su seguridad es tan débil como una telaraña. 15 El se recuesta sobre su casa, pero ella no le sostendrá; él la agarra, pero ésta no se sostiene. 16 Debajo del sol él es verde, y sus brotes salen sobre todo su jardín. 17 Sus raíces están entrelazadas alrededor de montones de piedras; ellas buscan buenos lugares entre las rocas. 18 Pero si esta persona es destruída fuera de su lugar, entonces ese lugar lo negará y dirá: 'Yo nunca te vi.' 19 Mira, este es el "gozo" de la conducta de tal persona; otras plantas germinarán de la misma tierra en su lugar. 20 Mira, Dios no desechará a un hombre inocente; tampoco tomará la mano de malhechores. 21 Él aún llenará tu boca de risa, tus labios con gritos de júbilo. 22 Aquellos que te odian serán vestidos de vergüenza; la tienda de los malvados ya no será más.

Job 8:1

Información General
En cada verso de su discurso, Bildad transmite una ideausando dos declaraciones iferentes, primero reprende a Job y luego defiende a Dios.

Entonces el Bildd el suhita respondió
"Bildad" es el nombre de un hombre que era miembro de la tribu Suhita.

¿Hasta cuándo dirás tú estas cosas?¿Hasta cuándo las palabras de tu boca serán viento poderoso?
Bildad plantea esta pregunta para reprender a Job por quejarse a Dios. En esta metáfora,tanto las palabras de Job como el viento están vacías e insustanciales. Traducción Alterna:"Las palabras de tu boca serán viento poderoso".

¿Pervierte Dios la justicia?¿Pervierte el Todopoderoso la rectitud?
Aquí el escritor usa dos preguntas retóricas paralelas, que Bildad transmite para reprender a Job. Traducción Alterna:"Dios no actúa injustamente; el Todopoderoso no falla para hacer lo que es correcto."

Job 8:4

Él los entregó en las manos de sus pecados
"Es porque Dios ha permitido que el poder de su pecado los controle" o "Él los catigó con las consecuencias de sus pecados"

Pero supó que tú diligentemente buscaste a Dios y presentaste tu pedido al Todopoderoso Ambas frases se refieren a Job pidiendo ayuda a Dios, o suplicando misericordia a Dios.

Diligentemente buscaste a Dios
"Sinceramente pediste a Dios ayuda"

Job 8:6

supone que eres puro y recto
"Si tan solo fueras puro y recto" o "Si tu corazón y tus acciones fueran rectas"

Aunque tu comienzo fue pequeño, aún así tu condición final sería más grande
"Aunque antes no eras muy próspero, durante la ultima parte de tu vida te volverás muy rico"

Job 8:8

Información General
El escrito continúa usando paralelismoen cada uno de estos versos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones enfatizando la capacidad de las personas para aprender de sus ancentros, dando la brevedad de la vida y la disposición de los ancestros para impartir enseñanzas

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Dale tu atención a lo que nuestros ancestros aprendieron
"Estudia cuidadosamente lo que nuestros ancestros descubrieron" o "Considera lo que nuestros antepasados aprendieron"

Nuestros días en la tierra son una sombra
En este simil, la vida es comparada con una sombra, ambas pasan rápidamente.

¿No te enseñarán ellos y dirán?¿No hablarán palabras de sus corazones?
Bildad transmite estas preguntas para reprender a Job. Tradcucción Alterna:"Ellos te enseñarán y te dirán, y para su comprensión traerán palabras"

Job 8:11

¿Puede un papiro crecer sin pantano?¿Pueden las cañas crecer sin agua?
Bildad transmite dos preguntas retóricas para enfatizar su punto echo en 8:8: Las personas necesitan las enseñanzas de sus ancentros. Traducción Alterna:"Las plantas de papiros no pueden crecer lejos de pantanos. Las cañas no pueden crecer sin agua.

marchitar
secarse

Job 8:13

Información General
En estos versos continúan los discursos de Bildad. En los versos 14-15, el escritor usa paralelismo, transmitiendo una sola idea con dos diferentes declaraciones para enfatizar la destrucción de aquellos que no construyen sus vidas en las enseñanzas de sus ancestros.

Así también son los senderos de todos los que se olvidan de Dios
"Caminando un camino" es un modismo común que se refiere a la vida de una person y su dirección. Frecuentemente se refiere a las personas que siguen su propio camino o el camino de Dios.

Su seguridad es tan débil como una telaraña
Aquí Bildad compara compara la vida de las personas sin Dios con una telaraña; la ligera fuera va a romper ambas.

Él la agarra
"El tratará de sontenerla"

Job 8:16

Información General
En los versos 16-17, el escritor continúa usando paralelismo, ransmitir una sola idea utilizando dos declaraciones diferentes para imaginar la base pedregosa y temporal de los impíos.

Debajo del sol él es verde, y sus brotes salen sobre todo su jardín
Aquí Bildad compara a los impíos con las plantas que florecen durante el día; ambos incialmente parecen vivos, frescos y saludables.

Sus raíces están entrelazadas alrededor de montones de piedras
Las raíces de la persona impía no se aferran al suelo fértil sino a las rocas. El suelo rocoso no puede ayudar a las plantas a crecer. Las raíces de esta persona pronto morirán. "Sus raíces se aferran al suelo rocoso"

Ellas buscan Buenos lugares entre las rocas
La palabra "ellas" se refiere a las raices de las personas impías. "Buscan tierra fértil entre las rocas" o "Buscan tierra rica entre las rocas"

Si esta persona es destruida fuera de sus lugar, entonces ese lugar, lo negará y dirá: "Yo nunca te ví"
La persona impía se comparaa una planta que, cuando se retira de su base rocosa, es irreconocible en otro lugar porque no puede florecer en ningún lugar fértil. "Si es desarraigado de su lugar, lo repudiarán diciendo: nunca te he visto"

Este lugar lo negará y dirá
La habilidad humana de negar y hablar es aplicada al suelo rocoso

Su lugar
"El suelo rocoso"

Job 8:19

Gozo
La recompensa, el resultado del mal comportamiento de una persona que Bildad expresa despectivamente como "alegría"

Conducta
"Acciones" o "modo de vida"

Otras plantas germinarán de la misma tierra en su lugar
Aquí el escritor continúa la metáfora de 8:16. Las personas impías son comparadas a las plantas que toman el lugar de las primeras y crecen entre las rocas. Traducción Alterna:"Cuando un hombre malvado muere, otro tomará su lugar" o "De el suelo, otro crecerá"

Brotar
"crecer"

Mismo suelo
"El suelo rocoso"

En su lugar
"En el lugar del hombre impío"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tampoco tomará la mano de los malhechores
"Mano" representa a la persona completa. "El no apoyará a los malhechores" o "EL no consolidará a los malhechores"

Job 8:21

Él aún llenará tu boca de risa, tus labios con gritos de júbilo
Bildad continúa hablando a Job. La palabra "Él" se refiere a Dios , y "tu" se refiere a Job. El escritor transmite una sola idea usando dos diferentes declaraciones para transmitir la alegría que Job va a experimentar. "Dios te hará feliz devuelta"

Tus labios con gritos de Júbilo
El completo significado de esta frase puede ser entendido desde el principio de la oración. "

Tus labios con gritos de alegría"
El significado completo de esta frase puede ser entendido desde el principio de la oración. "Dios llenará tus labios con gritos de alegría"

Aquellos que te odian serán vestidos de verguenza; la tienda de los malvados ya no será más.
"Los impios serán llenos de verguenza; La maldad cesará de existir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Entonces Job contestó y dijo: 2 "Yo verdaderamente sé que esto es así. Pero, ¿cómo una persona puede estar en lo correcto con Dios? 3 Si él quiere discutir con Dios, no puede contestarle una vez en mil veces. 4 Dios es sabio de corazón y poderoso en fuerza; ¿quién alguna vez se ha endurecido contra Él y ha tenido éxito? — 5 Él quien remueve las montañas sin avisar a nadie, cuando Él las vuelca en Su ira— 6 Él, que sacude la tierra fuera de su sitio y pone sus soportes a temblar. 7 Es el mismo Dios que le dice al sol que no se levante, y no lo hace; y el que cubre las estrellas, 8 el que por Sí solo extiende los cielos y pisotea las olas del mar, 9 quien hace a la Osa, al Orión, las Pleyades, y las constelaciones del sur. 10 Es el mismo Dios que hace cosas grandes, cosas incomprensibles—de hecho, cosas maravillosas sin número. 11 Mira, Él pasa cerca de mí, y yo no lo veo; además, Él pasa de largo, pero no lo percibo. 12 Si Él quita algo, ¿quién lo puede detener? ¿Quién le puede decir a Él: '¿Qué estás haciendo?' 13 Dios no retirará su irá; los ayudantes de Rahab se humillan delante de Él. 14 ¿Cuánto menos podría contestarle, podría elegir palabras para razonar con Él? 15 Aunque yo fuera justo, no podría contestarle; solamente podría rogar por misericordia a mi Juez. 16 Aún si yo llamara y Él me respondiera, yo no creería que Él estuviera escuchando mi voz. 17 Porque Él me quiebra con una tempestad y multiplica mis heridas sin causa. 18 Él ni siquiera me permite recuperar mi aliento, en cambio, Él me llena con amargura. 19 Si es un asunto de fuerza, ¡miren, Él es poderoso! Si es un asunto de justicia, ¿quién puede convocarlo? 20 Aunque yo estoy en lo correcto, mi propia boca me condenaría; y aunque estoy libre de culpa, mis palabras me probarían ser culpable. 21 No soy culpable, pero ya no tengo cuidado de mi mismo; yo desprecio mi propria vida. 22 No hace diferencia, por eso es que digo que Él destruye a la gente inocente junto a la gente impía. 23 Si una plaga de repente matara, Él se reiría ante las aflicciones de personas inocentes. 24 La tierra es puesta en la mano de los impíos; Dios cubre las caras de sus jueces. Si no es Él quien lo hace, entonces, ¿quién? 25 Mis días son más veloces que un mensajero que corre; mis días huyen; ellos no ven nada bueno en ningún sitio. 26 Son tan rápidos como botes hechos de caña de papiro, y tan rápidos como el águila que se lanza hacia bajo encima de sus víctimas. 27 Si yo dijera que yo me olvidaría de mis quejas, que me quitaría mi cara triste y sería feliz, 28 yo tendría miedo de todas mis penas porque yo sé que tú no me considerarás inocente. 29 Yo seré condenado; entonces, ¿porqué yo trataría en vano? 30 Si me lavara a mí mismo con agua de nieve e hiciera mis manos tan, tan limpias, 31 Dios me hundiría en una zanja, y mis propias ropas estarían disgustadas conmigo. 32 Porque Dios no es un hombre, como yo, que yo pudiera contestarle, que pudíeramos venir juntos a la corte. 33 No hay juez entre nosotros que pueda posar su mano sobre los dos. 34 No hay otro juez que pueda quitar la vara de Dios de encima de mí, que pueda impedir que Su terror me espante. 35 Entonces, yo hablaría y no le temería. Pero como están las cosas ahora, yo no puedo hacer eso.

Job 9:1

Yo verdaderamente sé que esto es así
"Sé que lo que dices es verdad"

Esto es asi
Aquí la palabra "esto" se refiere a lo que Bildad estaba diciendo ¿Cómo una persona puede estar en lo correcto con Dios?

"¿Cómo puede alguien ser inocente ante Dios?"

Discutir
"Disputar"

No puede contestarle una vez een mil veces
"Un en mil veces" es un modismo que significa "en absoluto" los posibles significados son:1) "El no puede dar una respuesta a Dios" o 2) "Dios no le responderá en absoluto"

En mil veces
"1,000 veces"

Job 9:4

Sabio de corazón
Aquí el corazón representa los pensamientos o el ser interior. Traducción Alterna:"Sabio en lo que el decide"

Poderoso en la fuerza
El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" puede ser expresado como el adjetivo "fuerte". Traducción Alterna:"Poderoso en que tan fuerte es".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Quién alguna vez se ha endurecido contra Él y ha tenido éxito?
Esta pregunta retórica que espera una respuesta de "Nadie". Traducción Alterna:"Nadie se ha endurecido ante Él y ha tenido éxito"

se ha endurecido encontra de ÉL endurecerse significa ser terco. Traducción Alterna:"resistido a Él" o "desafiarlo"

Él que remueve las montañas
"Dios remueve las montañas"

En su ira
El sustantivo abstracto "ira" puede ser expresado como el adjetivo "enojado". Traducción Alterna:" Porque el está enojado"

Él que sacude la tierra
"Dios sacude la tierra"

Pone sus soportes a temblar
"Pone sus bases a temblar"

Job 9:7

El que cubre las estrellas
"Quien bloquea las estrellas de la vista"

El que por si mismo extiende los cielos
Se habla de Dios creador de los cielos sin ayuda, como si los cielos fueran tela que Él extiende

Pisotea las olas del mar
Se habla de Dios que calma con sus pies el mar. Traducción Alterna:"Pone sus pies en las olas del mar" o "Calma las olas del mar".

La Osa, el Orión, Las Pleyades
Esto se refiere a las constelaciones, que son grupos de estrellas que parece que forman formas particulares en el cielo.

Orion
Un famoso cazador en la mitología Griega

Pleyades
varias estrellas brillantes que parecen estar juntas en el cielo

Constelaciones
Grupos de estrellas que parece que forman una forma particular en el cielo

Job 9:10

Información General
El escritor usa paralelismo en cada uno de esos versos, transmitiendo una sola idea usando declaraciones dobles para enfatizar que Dios es grandioso, invisible, y soberano.

Cosas incomprensibles
"Cosas inescrutables" o "Cosas inentendibles"

Sin número
"Que no puede ser contado"

Ver
"Mirar" o "Prestar atención"

Él pasa
"ÉL pasa por" o "El sigue adelante"

Si Él quita algo, ¿Quién lo puede detener?¿Quién le puede decir a Él: qué estás haciendo?
Estas son preguntas retóricas que esperan repuestas de "Nadie". Pueden ser puestas como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna:"Si el quita algo, nadie puede detenerlo. Nadie puede preguntale, ¿Que estás haciendo?"

Si Él quita algo
"Si Él quita a alguien algo" o "Siel quiere arrebatar algo"

Job 9:13

Los ayudantes de Rahab se humillan delante de Él Aquí "humillan delante de Él" simboliza sumisión o derrota. Traducción Alterna:"El aplasta a los ayudantes de Rahab"

Rahab
La palabra "Rahab" se refiere a el mounstro del mar.

¿Cuánto menso podría constestarle, podría elegir palabras para razonar con ÉL?
Job utiliza dos preguntas similares para enfatizar su renuencia para confortar a Dios. Pueden ser reelaborados como una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Así que ciertamente no podría responderle o elegir palabras para razonar con él".

Job 9:16

Él me quiebra con una tempestad
Job compara sus problemas de Dios con los efectos de la tempestad. Traducción Alterna:"Mi hiere con una tempestad"

Tempestad
Una poderosa o violenta tormenta

Multiplica mis heridas
"Me da muchas heridas" o "me hiere una y otra vez"

Sin causa
"Aun si no le diera razón para hacerlo" o "Aunque fuera inocente"

Recuperar mi aliento
Este es un modismo que significa "Tomar aliento" o "respirar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él me llena con amargura
Este verso imagina a Dios llenando la vida de Job con cosas que le dan amargura. el sustantivo abstracto "amargura" puede ser expresado como el adjetivo "amargo". Traducción Alterna:"Él me llena con cosas amargas"

Job 9:19

Si es un asunto de fuerza
"Si es una contienda de fuerza"

Mirar
"Mira" o "presta atención a lo que estoy por decirte"

Él es poderoso
"Él es el poderoso"

¿Quién puede convocarlo?
Esta pregunta espera la respuesta de "Ninguno" para hacer el punto de que nadie es capaz de llevar a Dios a juicio. Esto se puede reformular como una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Nadie puede convocarlo"

Aunque yo estoy en lo correcto
Aquí "estoy en lo correcto" significa que yo soy el que hace cosas buenas. Traducción Alterna:"A pesar de que hice cosas buenas" o "Incluso aunque soy inocente"

Aunque yo estoy en lo correcto, mi propia boca me condenaría; y aunque estoy libre de culpa, mis palabras me probarían ser culpable.
Este verso expresa la misma idea dos veces para enfatizar.

Mi propia boca me condenaría
Aqui "boca" representa las palabras de Job. Traducción Alterna:"Mis propias palabras me acusarán" o "Lo que diga me condenará"

Irreprochable
"Impecable"

Mis palabras me probarían ser culpable
Aquí "Mis palabras" son habladas como si ellas pudieran tomar acción. Traducción Alterna:"Dios usará lo que diga para probarme culpable"

Culpable
La palabra aquí tiene el significado de "retorcido" o "encorvado".

Job 9:21

No soy culpable
"Soy impecable"

De mi mismo
"Que pasa a mi"

No hace diferencia
"Es todo lo mismo" o "No importa"

Él destruye a la gente inocente junto a la gente impía
"Él lleva a todos a su fin, ya sean inocentes o malvados"

Si una plaga de repente matara
"Si una cosa terrible de repente mata personas"

Ante las aflicciones de personas inocentes
El sustantivo abstracto "Aflicción" puede ser traduccido como el verso "Aflijir". Traducción Alterna:" Cuando personas inocentes son afligidas"

La tierra es puesta
Esto puede ser declarada en forma activa. Tarducción Alterna:"Dios da la tierra"

La tierra es
Aquí "la tierra" es usada para representar a las personas en la tierra. Traducción Alterna:"Las personas del mundo son"

En la mano de Aquí "mano" es un metónimo para "control". Traducción Alterna:"En el contrlo de"

Dios cubre las caras de los jueces
Esta expresión significa que Dios evita que los jueces de la tierra puedan juzgar la diferencia entre lo correcto y lo incorrecto. Traducción Alterna:"Dios hace a los jueces ciegos" o "Dios guarda a sus jueces para que juzguen correctamente"

Si Él no es quién lo hace, ¿entonces quién?
"Si no es Dios que hace estas cosas, entonces quien las hace"

Job 9:25

Mis días son más veloces que un mensajero que corre
Job compara que tan rápido pasan sus días con un corredor rápido. Traducción Alterna:"Mis días pasan rápidamente"

Mensajero corredor
"corredor" o "Hombre que corre"

Mis días huyen
Esto representa los días de la vida de Job como capaces de escapar como una persona.

Ellos no ven nada bueno en Ningún sitio
Esto representa los días de la vida de Job como capaces de ver como una persona.

Nada bueno
"Ninguna cosa buena"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Son tan rápidos como botes hechos de caña de papiro
Job compara como de rápido sus días están pasando con la velocidad de los botes rápidos. Traducción Alterna:"Ellos pasan rapido asi como los bote de caña de papiro"

Botes de caña de papiro
"Botes hechos de cañas".La caña de papiro es una hierba hueca que crece a lo largo de las orillas de los ríos.

Tan rápidos como el águila que se lanza hacia bajo encima de sus víctimas.
Job compara como sus días pasan rápidamente con un gran pájaro que se zambulle hacia su presa. Traducción Alterna:"Rápido como el águila que vuela bajo velozmente para atrapar a su comida"

se lanza Hacia bajo
"se apresura"

Job 9:27

Me olvidaría de mis quejas
El sustantivo abstracto "queja" puede ser traducidi como el verbo "quejarse". Traducción Alterna:"Voy a parar de quejarme" o "Me Voy a parar de quejar contra Dios"

Mis quejas
La información Implícita se puede agregar. Tarducción Alterna:"Mis quejas contra Dios"

Me quitaría mi cara triste y sería feliz
Aquí se habla de la cara trsite de Job como si fuera algo que podría eliminarse. Traducción Alterna:" Voy a parar de verme infeliz y sonreiré"

Yo tendría miedo de todas mis penas
Los versos 28 y 29 expresan las consecuencias si Job hace lo que dice en el verso 27. Traducción Alterna:"Entonces tendré miedo de todas mis penas"

Todas mis penas
El ssutantivo abstracto "penas" puede ser expresado como verbo. Traducción Alterna:"Que me herirá"

Yo seré condenado
"Seré acusado y castigado". Esto puede ser declaro en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Dios me condenará"

Entonces, ¿porqué yo trataría en vano?
Job usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que él no piensa que sea de ninguna utilidad tratar de llamar la atención de Dios. La información implícita sobre lo que Job está intentando puede hacerse explícita. Traducción Alterna:"No es de ninguna utilidad intentar llamar la atención de Dios"

Job 9:30

Si me lavara a mi mismo con agua de nieve
"Si me bañara en pura, agua limpi"

Hiciera mis manos muy limpias
"Hace mis manos extremadamente clean". Algunas otras versiones de la biblia traducen esto con el significado de "limpié mis mano con un jabón muy fuerte"

Dios me hundiría en una zanja
"Me tiraría a un hoyo"

Mis propias ropas estarían disgustadas conmigo
Se habla de la ropa de Job como si tuviera una respuesta negativa a Job después de que Dios lo hundió en un zanja. Traducción Alterna:"Estaría demasiado sucio para mi ropa".

Job 9:32

Contestarle
La información implícita se puede agregar. Traducción Alterna:"Responde sus acusaciones sobre mí" o "defiéndeme" o "discute mi inocencia con Él"

Juntos a la corte
"reunirse para el juicio". Aquí "corte"es un lugar donde la gente puede venir y un juez resaolverá las disputas. "Reunirse en la corte" es una metonimia enfrentarse entre sí en un tribunal de justicia "

No hay juez entre nosotros
Esto significa que no hay juez que es más grande que Dios que podría decidir que es lo correcto entre el y Job

Posar su mano sobre aqui "Posar su mano sobre" significa gran poder o autoridad sobre. Traducción Alterna:"tomar2 o "tener autoridad sobre"

Job 9:34

Declaración de conexión
Estos versos continúan el argumento previo de que nadie es mas grande que Dios que puede actuar como juez entre Dios y Job

Quitar la vara de Dios de encima de mí Aqui "vara de Dios" es una metonimia para la corrección o castigo de Dios a Job. Traducción Alterna:"Evita que Dios me castigue" impedir que su terror me espante

El sustantivo abstracto "terror" puede ser traduccido como el verbo "aterrorizar". Traducción Alterna:"Evitar que me aterrorice y asuste"

Entonces yo habalarías entonces yo voy a hablar

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Como están las cosas ahora.
"Porque asi es como están las cosas"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Estoy hastiado de mi vida. Daré rienda suelta mi queja. Hablaré en la amargura de mi alma. 2 Le diré a Dios: 'No solamente me condenes; enséñame porque me acusas. 3 ¿Te parece bien que me oprimas, despreciar la obra de tus manos mientras te sonries de los planes de los malvados? 4 ¿Tienes ojos de carne? ¿Vez Tú como ve el hombre? 5 ¿Son tus días como los días de la humanidad o tus años como los años de las personas, 6 que Tú inquieres sobre mi iniquidad y andas tras mi pecado, 7 aunque Tú sabes que yo no soy culpable y no hay nadie quien me pueda rescatar de tu mano? 8 Tus manos me han enmarcado y han formado mi entorno, y todavia me estás destruyendo. 9 Recuérdate, yo te ruego, que como barro me formastes; ¿me llevarás Tú al polvo otra vez? 10 ¿No me has derramado Tú, como leche y como queso me cuajaste? 11 Tú me has vestido con piel y carne, y me tejiste con huesos y tendones. 12 Me has concedido vida y fidelidad de pacto; Tu ayuda ha guardado mi espíritu. 13 Sin embargo, estas cosas escondiste en tu corazón—Yo sé que esto es lo que estabas pensando: 14 que si yo pecaba, Tú lo notarías; Tú no me absolverías de mi iniquidad. 15 Si yo fuese malvado,! ay de mí! aunque yo fuera justo, yo no podría levantar mi cabeza, ya que estoy lleno de desgracia y mirando mi propio sufrimiento. 16 Si mi cabeza misma se levanta, Tú me cazas como león; una vez más, Tú te muestras poderoso para mi. 17 Tú traes nuevos testigos contra mí y aumentas Tu enojo contra mí; me atacas con nuevos ejércitos. 18 ¿Porqué pues, me sacaste de la matriz? Yo desearia que yo hubiera dado mi espíritu y que ningún ojo me hubiera visto. 19 Yo hubiera sido como si yo nunca hubiese existido. Habría sido cargado de la matriz al sepulcro. 20 ¿No son mis días sólo unos pocos? Detente entonces, déjame solo, para que yo pueda tener un poco de descanso 21 antes que yo vaya a de donde no regresaré, a la tierra de oscuridad y de la sombra de muerte, 22 la tierra que es oscura como la media noche, la tierra de sombras de muerte, sin ningun orden, donde la luz es como la media noche."

Job 10:1

Estoy hastiado de mi vida
"Estoy cansado de vivir"

Daré rienda suelta a mi queja.
Los sustantivos abstractos "expresión" y "queja" pueden ser traducidos como "expresar" y "quejar". Traducción Alterna:"Expresaré libremente de qué tengo que quejarme" o "Discutiré libremente"

Hablaré en la amargura de mi alma
Como Job se siente es comparado con el sabor amargo. El sustantivo abstracto "amargo" puede ser traducido como el adverbio "amargamente". Traducción Alterna:"Mi ser interior hablará amargamente" o "Amargamente hablaré"

¿Te parece bien que me oprimas, despreciar la obra de tus manos mientras te sonries de los planes de los malvados?
Esta pregunta espera un "no" de respuesta y puede ser cambiada por una declaración. Tarducción Alterna:"No es bueno que me oprimas, que desprecies la obra de tus manos, muestras sonries en los planes de los planes

El trabajo de tus manaos
Aqui de tus manos representa el poder creativo de Dios. Traducción ALterna:"Lo que has creado"

Sonríes de los planes de los malvados
Aquí la expresión "sonriendo" representa la aprobación de Dios. Tarducción Alterna:"Aprueba los planes de los malvados"

Job 10:4

¿Tienes ojos de carne?¿Ves tú como ve el hombre?
Estas dos preguntas tienen cerca el mismo resultado. Estas preguntas esperan una respuesta negativa para enfatizar que Dios no ve o entiende cosas de la misma manera que el hombre lo hace. Pueden ser expresadas como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna:"Tu no tienes ojos de carne, y no ves como el hombre lo hace"

¿Son tus días como los días de la humanidad ... y no hay nadie quien me pueda rescatar de tu mano?
Esta pregunta espera una respuesta negativa para enfatizar que Dios es eterno y los días del hombre son limitados. Puede ser expresado como una declaración. Traducción Alterna:"Tus días no son como los días de la humanidad y tus años no son como los años de la gente ... y no hay nadie que pueda rescatarme de tu mano."

Tus días como los días de la humanidad .. tus años como los de la gente
Estas dos frases tienen casi el mismo significado.

Tus días
"El número de tus días"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tus años
"El número de tus años"

Inquiere sobre mi iniquidad.. andas tras mi pecado estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado.

preguntar después
"buscar"

De tu mano
Aquí "tu mano" representa el poder de Dios. Traducción Alterna:"De tu poder"

Job 10:8

Tus manos
Aquí "manos" representa a Dios y su acción creativa. Tarducción Alterna:"Tu"

Tus manos me han enmarcdo y han formado mi entorno Job está usando una metáfora de un alfarero formando arcilla para describir como Dios cuidadosamente lo creó.

enmarcado y han me han formado
"me han moldeado y formado". Las palabras "enmarcar" y "modelar" tienen significados similares

Recuérdate
"Remember"

Me llevarás al polvo otra vez
"Retornanrme al polvo devuelta"

Job 10:10

Información General
En estos versos, Job usa el lenguaje de la poesía para describir como Dios lo ha formado en el vientre.

¿No me has derramado Tú, como leche y como queso me cuajaste?
Esta es una pregunta que espera una respuesta positiva. Traducción Alterna:"Me vertiste como leche y me cuajaste como queso2 o "Me formaste en el útero como si la leche vertida se convirtiera en queso"

Tu
Aqui "Tu" se refiere a Dios

mI
Aquí "mi" se refiere a Job

Tu me has vestido con piel y carne
Dios poniendo piel y carne en el cuerpo de Job es como decir que Job estuviera poniendo ropa en él. Traducción Alterna:"Has puesto piel y carne sobre mi cuerpo"

Me tejiste
"me entrelazaste". Dios poniendo el cuerpo de Job juntos en el vientre es como decir que Dios este entrelazando o tejiendo un pedazo de tela. Tarducción Alterna:"Me puso junto".

Tendones
"Tendones". Esto son las partes que conectan los músculos a los huesos u otras partes de otros cuerpos y son como el pensamiento, bandas o cordones.

Job 10:12

Me has concedido vida y fidelidad de pacto
Aquí el sustantivo abstracto "Vida" vida física y "Fidelidad de pacto" se refiere a Dios siendo fiel a sus promesas. Pueden ser traducidas como verbos. Traducción Alterna:"Me has permitido vivir y me has protegido fielmente"

Tu ayuda
"Tu ciudado"

Guardado mi espíritu
Aquí "espíritu" representa la vida de Job. Tarducción Alterna:"Me has guardado" o "Me has vigilado cuidadosamente" o "me mantenía a salvo"

Estas cosas escondiste en tu corazón
Aquí "estas cosas" se refiere a las cosas habladas en los versos que siguen.

Estas cosas escondiste en tu corazón
Aquí "escondiste en tu corazón" significa que Dios las guardó en secreto o las escondió. Traducción Alterna:"Estas cosas que las mantuviste en secreto"

Tu lo notarías
"Tú me mirarías"

Job 10:15

Si yo fuese malvado
"Si fuese culpable" o "Si hiciera cosas malas"

Ay de mí
"que terrible sería para mí" aunque yo fuera justo

"aun si yo siempre hiciera las cosas correctas"

levantar mi cabeza
este modismo significa estar seeguro o confiado. Traducción Alterna:"Soten mi cabeza" o "sé confiado" o "Sé seguro de mi"

Estoy lleno de desgracia
El sustantivo abstracto "desgracia" puede ser traducido usando el adjetivo "degraciado". Tarducción Alterna:"Estoy lleno de desgracia"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Desgracia
"Verguenza"

Mirando mi propio sufrimiento
El sustantivo abstracto "sufrimiento" puede ser traducido usando el verbo "sufrir" Traducción Alterna:"Estoy viendo en como sufro"

Mirando
La palabra que falta puede ser suministradaa. Traducción Alterna:"y estoy mirando"

Si mi cabeza misma se levanta
Este modismo significa volverte confiado y orgulloso. Tarducción Alterna:"Si me vuelvo orgulloso"

Tu me cazas como león
Posibles significados de este simil son:1)Dios caza a Job como un león a su presa 2) Job es como un león siendo cazado por Dios

Tú te muestras poderoso para mí
Esta frase espresa la ironía en como el poder maravilloso de Dios se visualiza en como el va encontra de Job

Job 10:17

Tú traes nuevos testigos contra mí
Se habla de los problemas de Job como si fueran personas que fueron testigos en su contra.

Aumentas tu enojo contra mí
El sustantivo abstracto "enojo" puede ser traducido como el adjetivo "enojar" Tarducción Alterna:"Más y más enojado conmigo"

Me atacas con nuevos ejércitos
Dios enviando problemas en contra de Job es como decir que Dios esta constantemente enviando nuevos ejércitos encontra de él".

Job 10:18

Me sacaste de la matriz
Aqui sacar de la mtriz significa ser nacido en este mundo. Traducción Alterna:"Quitado de la matriz de mi mamá" o "Traído a este mundo"

Dado mi espíritu
Dando un espíritu representa morir. Traducción Alterna:"morir"

Que ningún ojo me hubiera visto
Job usa "ojo" aquí para referirse a la pesona completa. el desea haber muerto en el nacimiento, antes de que nadie le viera. Tarducción Alterna:"Antes de que cualquier persona me viera" o "Antes de que haya nacido"

Existido
"vivido"

Habría sido cargado
"Mi cuerpo hubiese sido cargado"

Job 10:20

¿No son mís días sólo unos pocos?
Aquí "mis días" represnta la duración de la vida de Job. Esta pregunta espera una respuesta positiva, para enfatizar que Job sólo espera vivir unos días más. Puede ser traducida como una delcaración. Traducción Alterna:" Tengo sólo unos días para vivir" o "Mi vida pronto terminará".

la tierra
Aqui el lugar donde los espíritus de las personas muertas van es como decir que fuera un terreno. Traducción Alterna:"El lugar"

De oscuridad y de la sombra de muerte
La frase "sombra de muerte" intensifica la idea de "oscuridad". Ambas frases describen cdonde los espíritus de las personas muertas van

La sombra de muerta
Traduce esto como en 3:4

Oscura como la media noche
La oscuridad del lugar donde los espíritus de la gente muerta va es comparado a la oscuridad de la media noche.

Sin ningún orden
Esta frase negativa puede expresarse en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna:"llana de confusión" o "donde todo es confuso"

Donde la luz es como la media noche
La luz del luagar donde los espíritus de las personas muertas van es comparado a la media noche. Traducción Alterna:"Donde no hay muerte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Entonces Zofar el naamatita contestó y dijo: 2 "¿No debería tal multitud de palabras ser contestada? ¿Debería este hombre, tan lleno de palabras, ser creído? 3 ¿Debería tu jactancia hacer que otros permanezcan en silencio? Cuando te burlas de nuestras enseñanzas, ¿nadie hará que te sientas avergonzado? 4 Pues le dices a Dios: 'Mis creencias son puras, soy sin culpa ante Tus ojos.' 5 Oh, pero si Dios hablara y abriera Sus labios en contra de ti; 6 ¡que te enseñara los secretos de la sabiduría! Pues Él es grande en entendimiento. Conoce entonces, que Dios demanda de ti menos de lo que tu iniquidad merece. 7 ¿Puedes entender a Dios buscándolo? ¿Puedes comprender al Todopoderoso perfectamente? 8 El asunto es tan alto como el cielo; ¿que puedes hacer tú? Es más profundo que el Seol; ¿que puedes saber tú? 9 Su medida es más largo que la tierra, y más ancho que el mar. 10 Si Él pasa y calla a cualquiera, si Él llama a juicio a cualquiera, entonces ¿quién lo puede detener? 11 Pues Él conoce a la gente falsa; ¿cuando Él ve iniquidad, no la nota? 12 Pero la gente tonta no tiene entendimiento; ellos lo tenderán cuando un burro salvaje dé a luz a un hombre. 13 Pero supón que hubieras puesto tu corazón en el lugar correcto y hubieras estirado tus manos hacia Dios; 14 supón que la iniquidad estuviera en tu mano, pero que entonces la pones muy lejos de ti, y no permitiste que la injusticia viviera en tus tiendas. 15 Entonces seguramente levantarías tu rostro sin un signo de vergüenza; en efecto, estarías firme y no temerías. 16 Olvidarías tu miseria; la recordarías solo como aguas que han fluído y se fueron. 17 Tu vida sería más brillante que el mediodía; aunque hubiese oscuridad, se convertiría como la mañana. 18 Tú estarías seguro porque hay esperanza; en efecto, encontrarías seguridad alrededor de ti y tomarías tu descanso en seguridad. 19 También te acostarías en descanso, y nadie te asustaría; de hecho, muchos buscarían tu favor. 20 Pero los ojos de la gente malvada fallarán; no tendrán manera de escapar; su única esperanza será un último suspiro de vida.

Job 11:1

Zofar el naamatita
Traduce el nombre de este hombre como en 2:11 Traducción ALterna:"Zofar de la region de Naama"

¿no debería tal multitud de palabras ser contestada?
Zofar esta haciendo una pregunta en negativo para enfatizar que las palabras de Job deben ser cambiadas. Traducción Alterna:"¡debemos responder a todas estas palabras!" o "Alguien debe responder a todas estas palabras"

¿Debería este hombre lleno de palabras , ser creido?
Zofar usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que no deben creer en lo que Job dice. Traducción Alterna:"Este hombre esta tan lleno de conversación que la gente no deberian de creeerle" o "Tus muchas palabras por si solas no significan que sos inocente"

¿Debería tu jactancia hacer que otros permanezcan en silencio?
Zofar usa esta pregunta para reprender a Job. "Solo porque has dicho muchas palabras, no significa esto que otros deben permanecer en silencio"

Cuando te burlas de nuestras enseñanzas, ¿nadie hará que te sientas avergonzado?
Zofar usa esta pregunta para reprender a Job. Traducción Alterna:" Te has burlado de nuestra enseñanza. ahora te haremos sentir avergonzado"

Job 11:4

Mis creencias son puras
"Mi entendimiento es correcto"

Soy sin culpa ante tus ojos
Los ojos representan visión, que es una metafora de la evaluacion de Dios a Job. Los posibles significados son:1)Que Job dice que Dios lo juzga como sin culpa. Traducción Alterna:"dices que soy sin culpa" 2) Que Job cree que ha sido irreprochable y que Dios debe juzgarlo como inocente. Traducción Alterna:"Debes reconocer que soy inocente"

Que Dios va a hablar ... abriera sus labios en contra de ti Las palabras "abriera sus labios" es una metonimia para el significado hablar. Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y son usadas juntas para enfatizar el deseo de Zofar que Dios pueda hablar duramente encontra de Job. (Ver: y y)

te enseñará ... secretos de sabiduría que los "secretos de sabiduría" son puede ser declarado claramente. Traducción ALterna:" que el te mostrará que estas sufriendo acausa de tu pecado"

Dios demanda de ti menos de lo que tu iniquidad merece.
Demanda de Job representa castigar a Job Traducción Alterna:"Dios te está castigando menos de lo que mereces"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 11:7

¿Puedes entender a Dios buscándolo? ¿Puedes comprender al Todopoderoso perfectamente?
Estas dos preguntas paralelas estan preguntando la misma cosa. El escritor usa la forma de pregunta para añadir énfasis. Traducción Alterna:"No puedes entender a Dios Buscándolo, y no vas a entenderlo completamente al Todopoderoso"

El asunto
Esto se refiere entendiendo a Dios. Tarducción Alterna:"Entender a Dios"

Es tan alto como el cielo ... profundo que el Seol
Se habla de la imposibilidad de entender a Dios como si fuera imposible ir a este lugar extremadamente lejano. AT: "es tan inaccesible como los lugares más altos del cielo ... es más inaccesible que los lugares más profundos del Sheol"

¿Que puedes hacer?
Zofar usa estas preguntas para mostrar que una persona no puede hacer nada para atender completamente a Dios. Traducción Alterna:"No puedes hacer nada" o "No puedes entenderlo completamente"

Que puedes saber
Zofar usa esta pregunta para mostrar wue una persona no puede hacer nada para conocer completamente a Dios. Tarducción Alterna:"No puedes conocer a Dios completamente" o "No puedes saber todo lo que es concido"

Su medida
Los posibles significados son que esto se refiere a 1)La grandeza de Dios o 2) La grandeza de la sabiduría de Dios más largo que la tierra ... y ancho que el mar.

La grandeza de Dios o su sabiduría es como decri que pudiera ser medido en distancia

Job 11:10

Si él .. Calla a cualquiera
"Si Dios ... calla a cualquiera en prisón"

Si Él llama a cualquiera a juicio
El sustantivo abstracto "juicio" puede ser traducido con el verbo "juzgar". Traducción Alterna:"Si Dios llama a alguien para ir a él para que Dios pueda juzgarlo" ¿Quién lo puede detener?

Esta pregunta enfatiza que nadie puede parar a Dios. Traducción Alterna:"Nadie puede detenerlo"

¿No la nota?
Esto enfatiza que Dios nota pecado. Traducción Alterna:"El seguramente lo nota"

Pero la gente tonta no tiene entendimiento
El sustantivo abstracto "entendimiento" puede ser expresado con el verbo %entender". Tarducción Alterna:"Pero la gente tonta no entiende".

ellos lo tenderán cuando un burro salvaje dé a luz a un hombre.
Dado que un burro salvaje nunca puede dar a luz a un hombre, esto significa que las personas tontas nunca entenderán. Traduccion Alterna: "solo si un burro salvaje pudiera dar a luz a un hombre, las personas tontas podrían entender" o "es tan imposible para una persona tonta entender como lo es para un burro dar a luz a un hombre"

Job 11:13

supón que hubieras puesto tu corazón en el lugar correcto El corazon reprensenta los pensamientos y actitudes. Ponerlos en el lugar correcto representa corregirlos. Traducción Alterna:"Aunque has corregido tu actitud"

y hubieras estirado tus manos hacia Dios
Esta es una acción Simbólica que representa pedir ayuda a Dios. Traducción Alterna:"y haber hecho una apelación y orado a Dios"

Supón que la iniquidad estuviera en tu mano La mano representa lo que una persona hace. traducción Alterna:"incluso si has hecho cosas malas en el pasado" (Ver:

pero que entonces la pones muy lejos de ti poniendo el pecado detrás representa parar de pecar. Traducción Alterna:"pero que dejaste de hacer cosas malas" no permitiste que la injusticia viviera en tus tiendas.

Vida injusta representa a las personas haciendo cosas incorrectas. Traducción Alterna:"Y no permites a los miembros de tu familia hacer cosa incorrectas"

Job 11:15

levantarías tu rostro sin un signo de vergüenza
"Levantar tu rostro" representa la actitud de una persona que es confiaday valiente"

recordarías solo como aguas que han fluído y se fueron Zofar esta comparando la miseria como agua que fluye contra corriente y se va. Traducción Alterna:"te recordarás, pero la miseria se irá, como aguas que han fluido lejos."

Tu vida seria ... como la mañana Zofar repite la misma idea para enfatizar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tu vida será más brillante que el medio día Brillante representa ser próspero y feliz. Traducción Alterna:"Tu vida será próspera y feliz como el mediodía"

Aunque hubiese oscuridad
Oscuridad representa problemas y tristezas. Traducción Alterna:"Aunque hubiere problemas oscuros y tristezas"

Se convertiría como la mañana
La mañana representa Luz, que representa prosperidad y felicidad. Traducción Alterna:"Será próspero y feliz como la mañana"

Job 11:18

Estarías seguro ... tomarías tu descanso en seguridad
Zofar repite la misma idea para enfatizar y describe la posibilidad.

Tomarías tu descanso en seguridad
"Tomarías tu descanso" es un modismo para "descanso". La frase "en seguridad" puede ser expresado con la palabra "seguridad" Traducción Alterna:"Va descansar en seguridad"

También te acostarás en descanso ... tu favor
Zofar repite la misma idea para enfatizar y describir la posibilidad.

Te acostarás en descanso
El sustantivo abstracto "descanso" puede ser expressado con el verbo "descanso" Traducción Alterna:"Van a acostarse y descansar"

Job 11:20

Los ojos de las personas malvadas fallarásn los ojos representan sus entendimientos. Traducción Alterna:"el entendimiento de las personas malvadas van a fallar" o "las personas malvadas no van a ser capaces de entender"

Su única esperanza será un último suspiro de vida el sustantivo abstracto "esperanza" puede ser expresado como el verbo "esperar". El último suspiro de vida representa morir. Traducción Alterna:"su única esperanza sería repirar su último suspiro" o "Ellos solo esperan morir".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Entonces Job contestó y dijo: 2 "No hay duda que ustedes son el pueblo; la sabiduría morirá con ustedes. 3 Pero yo tengo entendimiento al igual que ustedes; No soy inferior a ustedes. Ciertamemente, ¿quién no conoce cosas tales cómo éstas? 4 Yo soy algo para que mi vecino se ría—yo, uno que llamó a Dios, ¡y quien fue respondido por Él! Yo, un justo y hombre sin culpa—yo, ahora soy algo de que reírse. 5 En el pensamiento de alguien que está cómodo, hay desprecio por la desgracia; él piensa de una forma que trae más desgracia para aquellos cuyo pie se esta resbálando. 6 Las tiendas de los ladrones prósperan, y aquellos que provocan a Dios se sienten seguros; sus propias manos son sus dioses. 7 Pero ahora, pregúntenle a las bestias, y ellas les enseñarán a ustedes; pregúntenle a los pájaros de los cielos, y ellos les dirán a ustedes. 8 O háblenle a la tierra, y les enseñará a ustedes; los peces del mar les declararán a ustedes. 9 ¿Qué animal entre todos estos no conoce que la mano del SEÑOR ha hecho esto? 10 En Su mano esta la vida de toda cosa viviente y el aliento de toda la humanidad. 11 ¿No prueba el oído las palabras tal como el paladar saborea su comida? 12 Con los hombres ancianos esta la sabiduría; en la largura de días está el entendimiento. 13 Con Dios están la sabiduría y el poder; Él tiene consejo y entendimiento. 14 Mira, Él derrumba, y no puede ser construido de nuevo; si Él encarcela a alguien, no puede haber liberación. 15 Mira, si Él aguanta las aguas, ellas se secan; y si Él las envía fuera, ellas cubren la tierra. 16 Con Él están la fuerza y la sabiduría; las personas que son engañadas y el engañador están ambos en Su poder. 17 Él guía a los consejeros lejos, descalzos en pena; Él convierte a los jueces en tontos. 18 Él quita la cadena de autoridad de los reyes; Él envuelve un paño alrededor de sus cinturas. 19 Él lleva lejos a los sacerdotes, descalzos en pena y destituye a gente poderosa. 20 Él remueve el discurso de aquellos que han sido de confianza y quita el entendimiento de los ancianos. 21 Él derrama menosprecio sobre los príncipes y desata el cinturón de los fuertes. 22 Él revela cosas profundas de la oscuridad y saca a la luz las sombras donde están las personas muertas. 23 Él hace a las naciones fuertes, y Él también las destruye; Él engradece a las naciones, y Él también los guía como prisioneros. 24 Él quita el entendimiento de los líderes de las personas de la tierra; Él los hace vagar en un desierto donde no hay camino. 25 Ellos andan a tientas en la oscuridad sin luz; Él los hace tambalear como un hombre borracho.

Job 12:1

No hay duda
"seguramente"

Son el pueblo
"Son las personas importantes que saben todo"

"No hay duda que ustedes son el pueblo; la sabiduría morirá con ustedes.
Job se burla de como actua y demuestra como suenan ridículos. Traducción Alterna:"Seguramente son personas tan importantes que la sabiduría no puede existir sin ustedes" o "Todos actúan como si fueran las únicas personas sabias y que cuando mueran, la sabiduría desaparecerá."

Ustedes
Aqui es plural y en las próximas dos preguntas

Ciertamemente, ¿quién no conoce cosas tales cómo éstas?
Job usó esta pregunta para expresar una verdad que debería ser obvia para sus oyentes. Se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "De hecho, no hay nadie que no sepa cosas como estas" o "De hecho, todos saben estas cosas"

Job 12:4

Yo soy algo para que mi vecino se ría—yo, uno que llamó a Dios, ¡y quien fue respondido por Él!
La relación entre estas frases se puede aclarar con las palabras "aunque". Traducción Alterna: "Soy algo de lo que mi vecino se ríe, aunque soy uno que invocó a Dios y él me respondió"

Yo, un justo y hombre sin culpa—yo, ahora soy algo de que reírse.
Claramente la relacion entre estas frases pueden hacerse claras con las palabras "auqneu" Traducción Alterna:"aunque soy un hombre sin culpa, la gente se rie de mi"

En el pensamiento de alguien que está cómodo, hay desprecio por la desgracia
Los sustantivos abstractis "pensar", "cómodo", "contentar", y "desgracia" pueden ser expresadas con otras frases. Traducción Alterna:"Una persona que vive una vida facil desprecia a una persona que sufre"

Trae más desgracia Trayendo más desgracia causando que pase. Traducción Alterna:"Causando que mas cosas malas le pasen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Para aquellos cuyos pies se están resbalando
Los pies rebalosos representa estar en peligro o en probleas. Traducción Alterna:"A aquellos que se encuentran en problemas"

La tiendas d los ladrones prospera
Sus tiendas properan representa la prosperidad en la tiendas de los ladrones. Traducción Alterna:"Los ladrones viven en rpoperidad en sus propias tiendas"

Sus propias manos son sus dioses
"Sus propias manos" es una metonimia para fuerza, y "sus dioses" es una metáfora para su orgullo. Traducción Alterna:"Son extremadamente orgullosos de sus propias habilidades"

Job 12:7

Pero ahora preguntenle ... ellos dirán a ustedes todas estas 4 declaraciones expresan la idea que las bestias, pájaros, tierra y el pez entienden mejor a Dios que los amigos de Job.

Pero ahora preguntenle a las bestias, y ellas enseñarán a ustedes
El imperativo en la primera parte de esta oración funciona como una condición hipotética. Traducción Alterna:"Pero si preguntas a kas bestias, ellas te enseñarán" pregúntenle a los pájaros de los cielos, y ellos les dirán a ustedes.

El imperativo en la primera parte de esta oración funciona como una condición hipotética. Traducción Alterna:"Si preguntas a los pájaros del cielo, ellos te dirán"

O háblenle a la tierra, y les enseñará a ustedes
El imperativo en la primera parte de esta oración funciona como una condición hipotetica. Traducción Alterna:"O si tu habla a la tierra, te enseñará" los peces del mar les declararán a ustedes.

El imperativo "pregunta a los peces del mar" es entendido de la anterior oración. Traducción Alterna:"SI preguntas al pez del mar, ellos te delcrarán a ti"

Job 12:9

¿Qué animal entre todos estos no conoce ... esto?
esta pregunta enfatiza el punto que todos los animales saben que EL SEÑOR ha hecho eso. Significa, "Todo animal sabe ... esto" (Ver:|Rhetorical Question)

La mano de EL SEÑOR ha hecho esto
La mano de EL SEÑOR representa su poder. Traducción Alterna:"EL SEÑOR ha hecho esto con su poder" (Ver:|Metonymy)

En su mano está la vida .. y el aliento de toda la humanidad.
La mano de EL SEÑOR representa su control o poder. Cosas en sus manos representa la habilidad de controlarlas. Traducción Alterna:"Quién controla la vida de todo ser vivivente y da aliento a toda la humanidad" (Ver:|Metonymy)

El aliento de toda la hmanidad
"aliento" representa la habilidad de vivir. (ver:|Metonymy)

Job 12:11

¿No prueba el oído las palabras tal como el paladar saborea su comida?
Job usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que la gente escucha a lo que otros dicen y juzgan sin importar si es bueno ono. El oido y paladar son metonimias para el oir y el saborear. Traducción Alterna:"Escuchamos lo que la gente dice y probamos asi como probamos la comida"

Con los hombres ancianos esta la sabiduría
"Los ancianos tienen sabiduría". el sustantivo abstracto "sabiduría" puede ser expresado comn "sabio".La palabra "hombre" se refiere a las personas en general. Traducción Alterna:"Las personas mayores son sabias"

En la largura de días está el entendimiento
La frase largura de días es una metonimia para vivir un largo tiempo. Entender estar en días largos representa a las personas que adquieren comprensión cuando viven mucho tiempo. El sustantivo abstracto "comprensión" se puede expresar con la frase "entender mucho". Traducción Alterna: "Las personas adquieren comprensión cuando viven mucho tiempo" o "Las personas que viven mucho tiempo comprenden mucho.

Job 12:13

Información General
El Verso 13 dice que Dios es sabio y poderoso. El resto de este capítulo muestra que esto es verdad contando acerca de las sabias y todopoderosas cosas que Dios hace

Con Dios está la sabiduria y el poder
EL sustantivo abstracto "sabiduria" y "poder" pueden ser expresados con los adjetivos "sabio" y "poderoso". Traducción Alterna:"Dios es sabio y poderoso"

Ver
Esta palabra marca donde Job quiere que el que escucha preste atención especial

No puede ser construido devuelta Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"nadie puede reconstruirlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

si Él encarcela a alguien, no puede haber liberación El sustantivo abstracto "libera" puede ser expresado con el verbo "liberar" Traducción Alterna:"Si Dios encierra a alguien, nadie puede liberarlo"

si Él aguanta las aguas, ellas se secan; Los posibles significados son que aguanta las aguas representa 1) prevenir a la lluvia caer. Traduccion Alterna:"Si el no deja la lluvia caer la tierra se seca" o 2) evitando que fluya agua corriente. Traducción Alterna: "si él detiene el flujo del agua, la tierra se seca" si Él las envía fuera, ellas cubren la tierra.

Los posibles significados son que enviarlos es una metáfora que significa 1) hacer que llueva. Traducción Alterna: "si él hace que caiga mucha lluvia, inunda la tierra" o 2) haciendo que las aguas fluyan. Traducción Alterna: "si hace mucho flujo de agua, inunda la tierra"

Job 12:16

Con Él están la fuerza y sabiduría
Los sustantivos abstractos "fuerza" y "sabiduría" pueden ser expresados con las palabras "fuerte" y sabio. Traducción Alterna:"Dios es fuerte y sabio" las personas que son engañadas y el engañador están ambos en Su poder.

Estar en el poder de Dios representa a Dios gobernando sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que creen en una mentira y las personas que engañan a los demás están en su poder" o "Dios gobierna sobre las personas que creen mentiras y las personas que engañan a los demás"

El guía a los consejeros lejos desclazos
Guiar a los consejeros lejos descalzos representa tomar su sabiduría y autoridad.

En pena
El sustantivo abstracto "pena" puede ser expresado con las palabras "triste" o "afligido". Traducción Alterna:"Y ellos se sentían my tristes" o "Y ellos se afligen"

Él convierte a los jueces en tontos
"Él hace a los jueces convertirse en tontos"

Él quita la cadena de autoridad de los reyes Los posibles significados son:1) Este es una metonimia para hacer a los reyes sin más autoridad.Traducción Alterna:"toma la autoridad de los reyes" o 2) Este es una metonimia de hacer libres a las personas de las cadenas que los reyes pone en ellas. Traducción Alterna:"El toma el cautiverio que los reyes ponen en las personas"

Él envuelve un paño alrededor de sus cinturas.
Esta ropa es probablemente lo que un esclavo usa. Poner estas ropas en los reyes representa convertirr a los reyes en esclavos. Traducción Alterna:"El hace que los reyes se pongan ropas de los esclavos" o "Ellos los hace esclavos"

Job 12:19

Él lleva lejos a los sacerdotes descalzos en pena
Llevar a los sacerdotes fuera descalzos representa llevar su autoridad

En pena
El sustantivo abstracto "en pena" puede ser expresado con palabras "triste" o "afligido" Traducción Alterna:" Y ellos se sienten muy tristes" o "Y ellos se afligen"

Destruye a gente poderosa
"derrota a gente poderosa"

Él remueve el discurso de aquellos que han sido de confianza Remover su discurso representa hacerlos inhabiles para hablar. Traducción Alterna:" Hace a aquellos que son inhábiles para hablar" o "Silencia a personas en quienes otros confiaban"

quita el entendimiento de los ancianos Tomar el entendimiento representa hacerlos inhabiles para entender o hacer buenas desiciones. Traducción Alterna:"Hacer a los ancianos inhabiles para entender"

Los ancianos
Los posibles significados son 1) La gente anciana 2) Los líderes

Él derrama menosprecio sobre los príncipes Verter desprecio sobre los príncipes es una metáfora para hacer que las personas sientan desprecio por ellos. Traducción alterna: "Hace que las personas falten al respeto a los que reglan" desata el cinturón de los fuertes.

El cinturón es un simbolo de fuerza. Desatar el cinturón de una persona fuerte representa tomar su fuerza y hacerla débil. Traducción Alterna:"Hacer a las personas fuertes débiles"

Job 12:22

Él revela cosas profundas de la oscuridad
Revelar cosas representa hacerlas conocer. Las "cosas profundas de la oscuridad" representan secretos que la gente no conoce. Traducción Alterna: "Da a conocer secretos que la gente no conoce"

Saca a la luz las sombras donde están las personas muertas Traer las cosas a la luz representa hacerlas conocidas. Traducción Alterna:"Hacer conocida el lugar donde la gente muerte esta"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él hace a las naciones fuertes
"Él hace que la extensión de la tierra de los grupos de personas se haga más grande" o "Él causa que las naciones tomen más tierra"

Él también los guía como prisioneros
Dios guiando a las naciones representa a Dios causando que naciones enemigas los lideren. La palabra "ellas" representan a las naciones, que aquí representan a las personas de estas naciones. Traducción Alterna:"También causa a sus enemigos que los lidere a lo largo como prisioneros"

Job 12:24

ÉL quita el entendimiento de ls líderes de las personas de la tierra
Tomar el sus entendimientos representa cuasar a ellos inhabilidad para entender. Traducci+on Alterna:" El causa que los líderes de las personas de la tierra sean inhábiles para entender"

Él los hace vagar en un desierto donde no hay camino
Vagando en el desierto donde no hay camino representa estar en una situación difícil y no saber que hacer. Traducción Alterna:"No estar seguros de que hacer como una persona preguntando en una tierra baldía sin camino"

Ellos andan a tientas en la oscuridad sin luz Estar en la oscuridad sin luz representa falta de conocimiento. Traducción Alterna:"Luchan por tomar decisiones sin conocimiento mientras la gente lucha por caminar en la oscuridad sin luz"

Él los hace tambalear como un hombre borracho.
El tambalearse o deambular como un hombre borracho representa vivir sin un propósito. Traducción Alterna: "los hace vivir sin propósito como una persona borracha que se tambalea mientras camina"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 Mira, mi ojo ha visto todo esto; mi oído ha escuchado y lo entendió. 2 Qué tú sabes, lo mismo sé yo tambien; yo no soy inferior a tí. 3 De todas formas, yo preferiría hablar con el Todopoderoso; yo deseo razonar con Dios. 4 Pero ustedes blanquean la verdad con mentiras; ustedes todos son médicos sin valor. 5 ¡Oh, si todos ustedes se mantuvieran en silencio! Eso sería su sabiduría. 6 Ahora escuchen mi propio razonamiento; presten atención a los argumentos de mis propios labios. 7 ¿Hablarán ustedes injustamente por Dios, y hablarás engañosamente por Él? 8 ¿Ustedes le mostrarían realmente bondad a Él? ¿Ustedes argumentarían realmente en corte como abogados por Dios? 9 ¿Sería bueno realmente para ustedes cuándo ÉL los investigue? ¿Podrán ustedes engañarlo como ustedes engañan a los hombres? 10 Él seguramente los reprobaría a ustedes si en secreto mostraran parcialidad. 11 ¿No te haría Su majestuosidad estar asustado? ¿No caería Su miedo sobre ustedes? 12 Los dichos memorables de ustedes son proverbios hechos de cenizas; sus defensas son defensas hechas de arcilla. 13 Mantengan silencio, déjenme solo, para que así yo pueda hablar, que suceda lo que me tenga que suceder. 14 Yo tomaré mi propia carne en mis dientes; yo tomaré mi vida en mis manos. 15 Miren, si Él me mata, no tendré esperanza; no obstante, defenderé mis caminos ante Él. 16 Esta será la razón para mi absolución, que yo no vengo ante Él como un hombre impío. 17 Dios, escucha cuidadosamente a mi discurso; permite que mi declaración llegue a tus oídos. 18 Míra ahora, yo he puesto mi defensa en orden; yo se que soy inocente. 19 ¿Quién es el que argumentaría en mi contra en la corte? Si Tu vienes a hacerlo, y si fuese probado que estoy equivocado, entonces estaría en silencio y rendiría mi vida. 20 Dios, solo haz dos cosas por mí, y entonces no me esconderé de tu rostro: 21 quita Tu mano opresora de sobre mi, y no permitas que tus terrores me me causen miedo. 22 Entonce llámame, y contestaré; o dejame hablarte a Tí, y Tú contéstame. 23 ¿Cuántas son mis iniquidades y pecados? Dejame saber mis transgresiones y mis pecados. 24 ¿Porqué escondes Tu rostro de mi y me tratas como Tu enemigo? 25 ¿Perseguirás Tú una hoja suelta? ¿Buscarás Tú matojos secos? 26 Pero Tú escribes amargas cosas contra mí; Tu me haces heredar las iniquidades de mi juventud. 27 Tambien pusiste mis pies en el cepo; Tú vigilas de cerca mis caminos; Tú examinas la tierra donde las plantas de mis pies han caminado; 28 si bien, soy como una cosa pudrida que se deshace, como una vestimenta que la polilla ha comido.

Job 13:1

Declaración de conexión
Declaración de conexión: Job continúa hablando a sus amigos.

Ver
"prestar atención" o "Escuchar". esta palabra marca donde Job quiere que los tres amigos escuchen cuidadosamente

Mi ojo ha visto todo esto
Job se refiere a él mismo como su ojo ya que con sus ojos fue que el vio esas cosas. Traducción Alterna:"Yo he visto todo esto"

Mi oido ha escuchado y lo entendió
Job se refiere a el mismo como su oído, ya que es con sus oídos que escuchó estas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "Lo escuché y lo entendí".

Que tú sabes, lo mismo sé yo también
"Lo que sabes, yo también lo sé" (UDB) o "Yo sé asi como tu"

Job 13:3

Yo deseo razonar con Dios
Los amigos de Job lo juzgan, pero no hablan la verdad. Job prefiere discutir con Dios a solas acerca de su queja ustedes blanquean la verdad con mentiras poniendo cal o yeso en la verdad representa ignorar la verdad. Traducción Alterna: "escondes la verdad con mentiras" o "mientes e ignoras la verdad"

Son médicos sin valor ser un medico representa ser una persona que conforta a otras. ser de no valor significa que no saben como hacer lo que deberían. Traducción Alterna:"Todos ustedes son como médicos que no saben cómo curar a las personas" o "todos vienen a consolarme, pero no saben cómo, como médicos no calificados"

Mantuvieran en silencio
Esta expresión significa "estar en silencio" o "parar de hablar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Eso sería su sabiduría
Pensaban que decían cosas sabias, pero Job decía que serían más sabios si dejaran de hablar. El sustantivo abstracto "sabiduría" se puede expresar con la palabra "sabio". Traducción Alterna: "Si hicieras eso, serías sabio" o "Si dejaras de hablar, parecerías sabio"

Job 13:6

declaración de conexión
Job continúa hablando a sus amigos

presten atención a los argumentos de mis propios labios AquÍ "labios" representa a la persona que está hablando. Traducción Alterna:"escucha lo que yo mismo alego"

Hablarán ustedes injustamente ... engañosamente por Él?
Job usa estas dos preguntas para reprender a sus amigos por hablar incorrectamente. Traducción Alterna:"Creen que están hablando por Dios, pero están hablando injustamente. Están hablando engañosamente."

Hablar engañosamente
"mentir" o "decir mentiras"

¿Ustedes de verdad ... como abogados por Dios?
Mostrar amabilidad con Dios representa ayudar a Dios o defenderlo de las quejas de Job. Job usa estas preguntas para reprender a sus amigos por pensar que pueden defender a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Creen que pueden defender a Dios. Creen que pueden defender a Dios como abogados en la corte".

Job 13:9

¿Sería bueno realmente para ustedes cuándo ÉL los investigue?
Aquí "buscarte" es una metáfora que significa "examinarte". Job usa esta pregunta para advertir a sus amigos que si Dios los examinara, diría que lo que están haciendo está mal. Traducción Alterna: "Si Dios te examinara, no sería bueno para ustedes".

¿Podrán ustedes engañarlo como ustedes engañan a los hombres?
Job usa esta pregunta para advertir a sus amigos que Dios sabe la verdad sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Pueden engañar a los hombres, pero no pueden engañar a Dios".

Los repobaría
"Los reprendería"

Si en secreto mostraran parcialidad
Mostrando parcialidad se refiere a decir solo cosas buenas acerca de alguien para que el juez diga que la persona es buena.hacer esto en secreto significa pretender hablar justamente, pero en verdad favoreciendo a una persona sobre la otra. Traducción Alterna:"Si secretamente muestras favor a otro"

Job 13:11

¿No te haría Su majestuosidad estar asustado? ¿No caería Su miedo sobre ustedes?
Job usa estas preguntas para reprender a sus amigos. Los posibles significados son 1)Job dice que ellos deben temer a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Su majestad debería asustarte, y su temor debería caer sobre ti" o 2) Job dice que temerán a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "¡Su majestad te hará sentir miedo, y su temor caerá sobre ti!"

no caeria su miedo sobre ustedes
La muerte que cae sobre las personas representa que están terriblemente asustados. Traducción Alterna: "¿No estarías terriblemente asustado?" O "¿No estarías aterrorizado?" ¿No te caería su temor?

Los dichos memorables de ustedes son proverbios hechos de cenizas cenizas representa cosas que son sin valor y no duran. Traducción Alterna:" "Tus dichos memorables no valen nada como las cenizas" o "Tus dichos memorables serán olvidados como las cenizas que soplan" sus defensas son defensas hechas de arcilla.

Job habla de lo que dicen como si fuera un muro alrededor de una ciudad hecha de arcilla; no puede defender a la gente porque la arcilla se rompe fácilmente. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que dices en defensa es tan inútil como un muro de arcilla"

Tus defensas
Los posibles significados a los que esto se refiere son:1) Loq ue dicen para defenderse a ellos mismos 2) Lo que dicen apra defender a Dios.

Job 13:13

Mantengan silencio
Este es un modismo que significa "Mantén silencio" o "para de hablar"

Déjenme solo
Este es un modismo que significa "dejen de molestarme" o "Paren de estorme"

Que suceda lo que me tenga que suceder
Lo que viene a una persona representa lo que le sucede a una persona. Esta expresión que comienza con "Deja" significa que no le importa lo que le pueda pasar. Traducción Alterna: "deja que pase lo que me pase" o "No me importa lo que me pase"

Tomaré mi propia carne .. en mis manos
"Carne" es una metonimia para la vida. "Dientes" y "manos" son metonimias para su propio control.

Estas dos frases juntas enfatizan que Job está dispuesto a arriesgar su vida al discutir su caso con Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy listo para arriesgar mi vida"

Job 13:16

Esta será la razón para mi absolución
El sustantivo abstracto "absolución" se puede expresar con el verbo "absolver". Traducción Alterna: "Esta es la razón por la que Dios me absolverá" o "Esta es la razón por la que Dios dirá que no soy culpable"

Dios, escucha cuidadosamente Job empieza a dirigir su discurso directamente a Dios escucha cuidadosamente a mi discurso; permite que mi declaración llegue a tus oídos.

estas dos lineas significan básicamente la misma cosa e intensifica el requerimiento de Job a Dios que le escuche permite que mi declaración llegue a tus oídos.

El sustantivo abstracto "declaración" puede ser expresado con el verbo "declarar". Los oidos representan escuchar. Traducción Alterna:"Escucha mi delcaración" o "Escucha a lo que yo declaro"

Job 13:18

Información General
Job continúa hablando a Dios

Mira ahora
Esto enfatiza lo que sigue. "Escucha ahora" o "Porfavor presta especial atención"

Yo he puesto mi defensa en orden; yo se que soy inocente.
Establecer su defensa en orden representa decidir qué dirá para defenderse. Traducción Alterna: "He pensado cómo me defenderé" o "He decidido cómo me voy a explicar"

¿Quién es el que argumentaría en mi contra en la corte?
Job utiliza esta pregunta para expresar su creencia de que, dado que tiene razón, nadie discutirá en su contra. Traducción Alterna: "No creo que nadie discuta en mi contra en la corte"

Si tu vienes a hacerlo
"Si tu vienes a discutir encontra mía"

Si tu
"tu" aqui se refiere a Dios mismo

Si fuese probado que estoy equivocado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si fueras a demostrar que estoy equivocado"

Rendiría mi vida
rendir la vida de uno es una metáfora para morir. Traducción Alterna:" morir"

Job 13:20

Información General
Job continúa hablando a Dios

De tu rostro
"Rostro" representa a la persona. Traducción Alterna:"De ti"

Quita tu mano opresora de sobre mi
Una mano opresiva es una metonimia para hacer cosas que oprimen a alguien. Retirar la mano es una metáfora para dejar de hacer esas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "deja de oprimirme"

No permitas que tus temores me cuasen miedo
La frase "tus terrores" se refiere a lo que causa a la gente estar aterrorizada de Dios. Traducción Alterna:"No me aterrorices"

Job 13:23

Información General
Job continúa hablando a Dios

¿Porqué escondes .. como tu enemigo?
Job hace esta pregunta para quejarse acerca de como Dios esta tratándolo. El probablemente espera por una respuesta.

Esconde tu rostro de mi
Esconder el rostro de uno de alguien representa rehusarse a ver a el o ignorarlo Traducción Alterna:"Te rehusas a mirarme" o "Tu me ignoras" ¿Perseguirás .. perseguiras matojos secos?

Job usa estas preguntas para decir a Dios que desde que Job es tan insignificante y débil, es inútil perseguirlo.

Hoja conducida ... Matojo seco
"Hoja y "Matojo" son metáforas para describir la debilidad de Job, insignificancia y fragilidad. Traducción Alterna:"Tu me persigues, pero soy débil como una hoja que vuela con el viento y insignificante como un matojo seco"

Job 13:26

Información General
Job termina presentando su caso a Dios

Pero tu escribes amargas cosas contra mí
"cosas malas" representa acusaciones. Tradcucción Alterna:" Tu escribees acusaciones contra mi"

Tu me haces heredar las iniquidades de mi juventud Heredar las iniquidades de su mano es como una metáfora. Los posibles significados son los que representan 1)ser culpable por los pecados de su boca.Traducción Alterna:" Tu dices que todavia soy culpables por los pecados de mi boca. 2)Ser castigado por los pecados de su boca. Traducción Alterna:"Me castigaste por los pecados de mi boca

Las iniquidades de mi juventud
El sustantivo abstracto "juventud" puede ser traduccido con la palabra "juventud" Traducción Alterna:" Los pecados que he cometido cuando fui joven"

También pusiste mis pies en el cepo
Hacer esto representa castigar a Job y no dejarlo vivir libremente como si Job ha cometido un crimen y fue un prisionero. Traducción Alterna:"Es como si pusieras mis pies en el cepo"

El cepo
Los significados posibles son 1) un marco que mantiene los pies de un prisionero en su lugar para que no pueda moverse, o 2) cadenas alrededor de los pies de un prisionero que le dificultan caminar. Estos se usan como una forma de castigo.

Tu vigilas mis caminos
Caminos representa las cosas que Job hace. Traducción Alterna:"Todo lo que hago"

Tú examinas la tierra donde las plantas de mis pies han caminado
Las plantas de sus pies representa a la persona que camina. Traducción Alterna:" Examinas la tierra donde he caminado"

Tú examinas la tierra donde las plantas de mis pies han caminado Examinar este terreno representa examinar todo lo que Job ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si examinaras el suelo por donde he caminado" o "Examinas todo lo que hago como si una persona examinara los pasos de alguien en el suelo"

como una cosa podrida que se deshace Job compara su vida a algo que está decayendo. El está muriendo despacio.

como una vestimenta que la polilla ha comido.
Job se compara a sí mismo con ropas que estan llenas de agujeros porque los gusanos de las polillas se han comido partes de ella.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 El hombre, quien es nacido de mujer, vive solamente unos pocos días y está lleno de problema. 2 Él brota desde el suelo como una flor y es cortado; él huye como una sombra y no permanece. 3 ¿Tú miras a cualquiera de estos? ¿Tú me traes a juicio contigo? 4 ¿Quién puede sacar algo limpio de algo no sucio? Nadie. 5 Los días del hombre están determinados. El número de sus meses está contigo; Tú has señalado sus límites para que él no puede pasar. 6 Aparta Tu mirada de él, para que él pueda descansar, para que él pueda disfrutar su día como un hombre contratado, si es que lo puede hacer. 7 Puede haber esperanza para un árbol; si es cortado, podría brotar de nuevo, para que su tallo tierno no desaparezca. 8 Aunque su raíz envejece en la tierra y su tocón muere en el suelo, 9 aún así, si tan solo huele agua, brotará y sacará sus ramas como una planta. 10 Pero el hombre muere; él se vuelve débil; en efecto, el hombre deja de respirar, y luego, ¿dónde está él? 11 Como el agua desaparece de un lago y como un río pierde agua y se seca, 12 así las personas se acuestan y no se levantan otra vez. Hasta que los cielos no sean más, ellos no se despertarán ni tampoco se levantarán de su sueño. 13 ¡Oh, que Tú me escondieras en el Seol lejos de los problemas, y que Tú me mantuvieras en privado hasta que Tu ira se acabe, que Tú me establecíeras un tiempo fijado para permanecer allí y que luego te acuerdes de mí! 14 Si un hombre muere, ¿vivirá de nuevo? Si es así, desearía esperar todo mi tiempo agotador allí hasta que mi liberación deba venir. 15 Tú llamarías, y yo te contestaría. Tú tendrías un deseo para el trabajo de Tus manos. 16 Tú numerarías y cuidarías mis pisadas; Tú no mantendrías registro de mi pecado. 17 Mi transgresión sería sellada en un saco; Tú cubrirías mi iniquidad. 18 Pero aún las montañas caen y se vuelven nada; aún las rocas son movidas de su lugar; 19 las aguas desgasatan las piedras; sus inundaciones lavan el polvo de la tierra. De esta manera, Tú destruyes las esperanzas del hombre. 20 Tú siempre lo derrotas, y él muere; Tú cambias su rostro y lo despides para que muera. 21 Si sus hijos son honrados, él no lo sabe; y si ellos son humillados, él no lo ve. 22 Él solamente siente el dolor de su propio cuerpo, y se lamenta por sí mismo.

Job 14:1

Información General
En este capitulo continúa el discurso de Job, que empezó en 12:1. Job está hablando a Dios.

El hombre, que es nacido de un mujer
Esto se refiere a todas las personas, ambas hombres y mujeres; todos han nacido en este mundo.

Vive solamente unos pocos días
Esta es una exageración Para enfatizar que la gente vive solo un corto tiempo. Traducción Alterna:" Vive solo un corto tiempo"

Está lleno de problema
Ser "lleno de problemas" representa experimentar muchos problemas. Tradcucción Alterna:" Tiene muchos problemas" o " Sufre mucho"

Él brota desde el suelo como una flor y es cortado
Como la vida de una flor, la vida de una persona es corta y es facil morir.

él huye como una sombra y no dura
La vida corta de una persona es comparada a una sombra que desaparece rápidamente.

¿Tu miras a cualquiera de estos?
Job da a entender que no quiere que Dios le preste mucha atención a él. Traducción Alterna:"No mires a nada de esto" o "no prestes mucha atención a esto. Por favor no prestes mucha atención a mi"

Miras a Aqui mirar a algo representa prestar atención a él ppara juzgarlo. Traducción Alterna:"Presatr atención a" o "Buscar fallas en "

¿Tú me traes a juicio contigo?
Job usa esta pregunta para mostrar su sorpresa que Dios lo juzga a pesar de que Job es tan insignificante como las flores. Traducción Alterna:" Pero me juzgas"

Job 14:4

Información General
Información General: Job continúa hablando a Dios

¿Quién puede sacar algo limpio de algo no sucio? Nadie.
Job usa esta pregunta para persuadir a Dios a aplicar lo que el sabe acerca de las cosas sucias de Job. Traducción Alterna:"Nadie puede traer algo limpio fuera de algo sucio"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los días del hombre están determinados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:" Tu determinas los días del hombre" o "Tu decides cuanti vive un hombre"

El número de sus meses está contigo
El número de meses que el hombre está con Dios representa a Dios decidiendo el número de meses que el hombre vivirá. "Tú decides cuántos meses vivirá"

Tú has señalado sus límites para que él no puede pasar
Pasar un límite representa vivir más allá de un tiempo que Dios ha establecido para que una persona muera. AT: "usted ha designado el tiempo en que morirá, y no puede vivir más que eso

Hombre contratado
Un hombre que fue contratado para hacer un trabajo y va a casa después

Job 14:7

Puede haber esperanza para un árbol
El sustantivo abstracto "esperanza" puede ser expresado con el verbo "esperanza". La esperanza es explicada en los versos 7-9 Traducción Alterna:"Podemos esperar que un árbol puede vivir otra vez"

podría brotar de nuevo
"Podría comenzar a crecer devuelta"

Para que su tallo tierno no desaparezca
Desaparezca significa muera. Traducción Alterna:"para que sus jóvenes brotes no mueran"

Aunque
"Aunque" o "Aún si"

Tocón
La parte del árbol que queda sobresaliendo del suelo después de que alguien ha cortado la mayor parte del árbol.

aún así, si tan solo huele agua Esto describe el tocón muerto como si pudiera oler el agua para representar el agua que está cerca de él. Traducción Alterna: "aunque solo haya un poco de agua cerca"

Brotará
"Empezará a crecer"

Secará sus ramas como planta
El árbol que envía ramas representa las ramas que crecen en el árbol. Traducción Alterna:"y las ramas comenzarán a crecer como una planta"

Job 14:10

y luego, ¿donde está él?
Job usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que cuando una persona muere, no está presente. Traducción Alterna:"Y nadie sabe donde está" o "y se ha ido"

Como el agua desaparece de un lago ... y no se levantan otra vez
El hecho de que la muerte no puede ser revertida es comparada a el agua que se seca y no puede retornar.

Como el agua .. como un río pierde
Estas dos frases describen el mismo pensamiento y repiten para enfatizar el hecho de que la muerte es final.

Así las personas se acuestan
Estas dos frases están describiendo el mismo pensamiento y son repetidas para enfatizar el hecho de que la muerte es final.

Y no se levantarán otra vez Levantarse devuelta representa vivir devuelta. Traducción Alterna:"No volver a vivir" ellos no se despertarán ni tampoco se levantarán de su sueño.

Estas dosfrases significan la misma cosa y son usadas juntas para enfatizar que la uerte es final. Dormir representa morir y despertar representa vivir devuellta. Traducción Alterna:"Las personas que mueren no volverán a vivir devuelta ni serán levantadas de la muerte"

Job 14:13

Información General
Job continúa hablando a Dios

Oh, que tu me escondieras
Esta esuna exclamación mostrando que Job quiere bastante pero no espera verdaderamente que pase. Traducción Alterna:" Desearía que me escondieras".

Mantuvieras en privado
"Me encerrarías" o "me tendrías escondido"

Y luego te acuerdes de mí
Llamar a alguien en la mente es un modismo que significa pensar acerca de él. Traducción Alterna:"Y entonces piensan acerca mio" o "Y entonces se recuerdan de mi"

Si un hombre muere, ¿vivirá de nuevo?
La respuesta implícita es "no". Traducción Alterna:"Si un hombre muere, el no volverá a vivir "

Si es asi
A lo que se refiere "si" se entiende de la frase anterior. AT: "Si volviera a vivir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

esperar todo mi tiempo agotador allí la frase "mi tiempo agotador" representa un tiempo en donde Job estaría agotado. Traducción Alterna:"Para esperar todo mi tiempo allí aunque yo esté agotado"

Hasta que mi liberación deba venir
El sustantivo abstracto "Liberación" puede ser expresado con el verbo "liberar". Traducción Alterna:"Hasta que yo sea liberado" o "Hasta que me liberes"

Job 14:15

Información General
Información General:Job continúa hablando a Dios

Voy a contestar
"Yo voy a responder"

Tú tendrías un deseo para
El sustantivo "deseo" puede ser expresado con los verbos "deseos" o "querer" Traducción Alterna:"tu vas a desear" o "Tu vas a querer"

El trabajo de tus manos Aquí las manos de Dios representa a Él haciendo cosas. Job se refiere a si mismo como el trabajo de las manos de Dios. Traducción Alterna:" Para mi, a quién has hecho"

numerarias y cuidarías
Estos dos verbos juntos expresasn una simple acción. Traducción Alterna:"Cuidar atentamente"

Mis pisadas pisadas representa su vida o lo que el hace. Traducción Alterna:" Mi vida" o " las cosas que yo hago"

No mantendrías ... Mi transgresión sería ...tu cubrirías
Estas tres líneas expresan la misma idea y son usadas para enfatizar su confianza que Dios le perdonará.

Tú no mantendrías registro de mi pecado
Hacer un seguimiento del pecado de Job representa pensar en su pecado. AT: "no mirarías mi pecado" o "no pensarías en mi pecado"

Mi transgresión sería sellada en un saco
Sellar la transgresión en una bolsa representa esconderlo y negarse a pensar en ello. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Activa: "Te negarías a pensar en mi transgresión como alguien que esconde algo en una bolsa"

Tu cubrirás mi iniquidad
Encubrir algo iniquidad para que no se pueda ver representa negarse a pensar. Traduccción Alterna: "esconderías mi iniquidad" o "ignorarías mi iniquidad"

Job 14:18

Información General
Información General: Job continúa hablando a Dios.

Montañas caen y se vuelvan nada
"Venir a nada" es un modismo que significa estar completamente destruido. Esta frase se expande en la palabra "caer" y enfatiza la destrucción completa. Traducción Alterna: "las montañas se desmoronan por completo"

Rocas son movidas de su lugar
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Rocas caen de su lugar"

Tú destruyes las esperanzas del hombre.
Si es más fácil en su idioma, puede poner esta frase al comienzo del versículo 18 y ajustar el texto acorde. Traducción Alterna: "Destruyes las esperanzas del hombre, como ... polvo de la tierra".

Tú destruyes las esperanzas de los hombres
Destruir esperanzas representa hacer que las cosas que la gente espera no sucedan. Traducción Alterna: "Evitas que las esperanzas del hombre sucedan"

Las esperanzas del hombre
El sustantivo abstracto "esperanzas" se puede expresar con el verbo "esperanza" Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que el hombre espera"

Job 14:20

Información General
Job continúa hablando a Dios

Tu siempre lo derrotas
La palabra "El" se refiere a cualquier persona. Traducción Alterna:" Tu siempre derrotas al hombre" o "Tu siempre derrotas a la gente"

muere
Pasar de largo representa morir. Traducción Alterna:" El muere"

Tú cambias su rostro
Los posibles significados son 1) el dolor justo antes de morir hace que su cara se contraiga o 2) cuando una persona muere, Dios hace que la cara de la persona se vea diferente.

lo despides para que muera.
Esto significa causarle la muerte

Si ellos son humillados.
Ser rebajado representa ser avergonzado. Traducción Alterna: "si están en desgracia" o "si la gente los avergüenza"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 Entonces Elifaz el temanita contestó y dijo: 2 "¿Debe un hombre sabio responder con conocimiento inútil y llenarse a sí mismo con el viento del este? 3 ¿Debe razonar él con habladurías sin sentido o con discursos con los cuales no puede hacer ningún bien? 4 En efecto, tú disminuyes el respeto hacia Dios; tú obstruyes la devoción hacia Él, 5 pues tu iniquidad le enseña a tu boca; tú escoges tener la lengua de un hombre astuto. 6 Tu propia boca te condena, no la mía; de hecho, tus propios labios testifican en tu contra. 7 ¿Eres tú el primer hombre que nació? ¿Fuiste traído a existencia antes que los montes? 8 ¿Has escuchado el conocimiento secreto de Dios? ¿Limitas la sabiduría a ti mismo? 9 ¿Qué sabes tú que nosotros no sabemos? ¿Qué entiendes tú que no está también en nosotros? 10 Con nosotros están ambos, los hombres de cabellera gris y los de mucha edad, quienes son mucho más viejos que tu padre. 11 ¿Son las consolaciones de Dios demasiado pequeñas para ti, las palabras que son tiernas para contigo? 12 ¿Porqué te arrebata tu corazón? ¿Porqué tus ojos destellan, 13 para que tú tornes tu espíritu contra Dios y salgan tales palabras de tu boca? 14 ¿Qué es el hombre para que deba ser limpio? ¿Qué es aquel quién es nacido de mujer para que deba ser justo? 15 ¡Ves, Dios no pone confianza ni aún en Sus santos; de hecho, los cielos no están limpios a Su vista; 16 cuán menos limpio es uno que es abominable y corrupto, un hombre que bebe iniquidad como agua! 17 Yo te mostraré; escúchame; Yo te anunciaré las cosas que Yo he visto, 18 las cosas que hombres sabios han pasado de sus padres, las cosas que sus ancestros no escondieron. 19 Estos eran sus ancestros, a quienes solamente se les dio la tierra, y entre los cuales ningún extraño pasó nunca. 20 El hombre malvado se retuerce en su dolor todos sus días, el número de años que son añadidos para que el opresor sufra. 21 El sonido de terrores está en sus oídos; mientras él está en prosperidad, el destructor vendrá sobre él. 22 Él no piensa que él regresará de la oscuridad; la espada espera por él. 23 Él va a varios lugares por pan, diciendo: '¿Donde está?' Él sabe que el día de oscuridad está cerca. 24 Ansiedad y angustia le hacen temer; ellos prevalecen en contra de él, como un rey listo para la batalla. 25 Porque él ha extendido su mano contra Dios y se ha conducido arrogantemente en contra del Todopoderoso, 26 este hombre malvado corre hacia Dios con un cuello rígido, con un escudo grueso. 27 Esto es verdad, aunque él ha cubierto su rostro con su grosura y juntó grasa en sus lomos, 28 y ha vivido en ciudades desoladas; en casas en las cuales ningún hombre habita ahora y que estaban listas para convertirse en ruinas. 29 Él no será rico; su riqueza no durará; ni siquiera su sombra durará en la tierra. 30 Él no saldrá de la oscuridad; una llama secará sus tallos; al aliento de la boca de Dios él se irá. 31 Que no confíe en cosas vanas, engañándose a sí mismo, pues, la vanidad será su recompensa. 32 Ocurrirá antes de que deba llegar su tiempo para morir; su rama no estará verde. 33 El dejará caer sus uvas verdes como una vid; el sacudirá sus flores como a un árbol de olivo. 34 Pues la compañia de personas impías será estéril; el fuego consumirá sus tiendas de soborno. 35 Ellos conciben malicia y dan a luz iniquidad; su vientre concibe engaño."

Job 15:1

Elifaz el temanita
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Personas de Temán son tconocidas como temanitas. Traduce esto como en: 2:11.

¿Debe un hombre sabio responder con conocimiento inútil y llenarse a sí mismo con el viento del este?
Elifaz usa esta pregunta retórica para reprender a Job. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna:" Un hombre sabio no debe responder con con conocimiento inútiles ni llenarse con el viento del este"

Llenarse a sí mismo con el viento del este
El viento representa el vacío. Esta frase habla de una persona que habla palabras vacías y sin sentido como si esa persona estuviera llena del viento. Traducción Alterna: "llenarse de palabras vacías" o "solo tener palabras sin sentido"

Viento del este
"Aire caliente" (UDB) o "El viento del desierto"

¿Debe razonar él con habladurías sin sentido o con discursos con los cuales no puede hacer ningún bien?
Elifaz usa esta pregunta retórica para reprender a Job. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No debe razonar con charlas no rentables ni con discursos con los que no pueda hacer ningún bien" o "No debe discutir usando conversaciones no rentables ni hacer discursos que no logren nada bueno"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 15:4

Disminuye
"destruye" o "invalida"

Obstruyes
"disminuyes" o "tomas"

Devoción hacia
"Meditación en" o " concerniente a"

Tu iniquidad le enseña a tu boca Esto describe la "iniquidad" como si fuera un maestro y la boca de Job se describe como si estuviera aprendiendo. Esto significa que su discurso está muy influenciado por su iniquidad. Traducción Alterna: "tu iniquidad es como un maestro y tu boca es como su estudiante" o "es por tu pecado que hablas como lo haces"

Tu boca
Esto habla de Job, pero se refiere a su "boca" para poner énfasis en lo que dice. Traducción Alterna: "usted para hablar" o "usted para decir lo que dice".

tener la lengua de un hombre astuto
El se refiere a la forma en que un hombre astuto habla como su "lengua". Traducción Alterna: "hablar en la forma de un hombre astuto"

Astuto
"mentiroso"

Tu propia boca te condena, no la mía
Esto se refiere a Job y Elifaz por sus "bocas" para poner énfasis en lo que dicen. Traducción Alterna: "Estás condenado por lo que dices, no por lo que digo" o "Te condenas por lo que dices, no soy yo quien te condena"

Tus propios labios testifican
Esto habla de Job, pero se refiere a sus "labios" para poner énfasis en lo que dice. Traducción Alterna: "tus propias palabras" o "testificas".

Job 15:7

Información General
Cada verso es un paralelismo que contiene dos preguntas retóricas.

¿Eres tú el primer hombre que nació?
La respuesta implícita aquí es "no". Esta pregunta retórica puede ser escrita como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No eres el primer hombre que nació"

¿Fuiste traído a existencia antes que los montes?
La respuesta implícita aquí es "no". Esta pregunta retórica se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No fuiste creado antes de las colinas" o "Dios no te trajo a la existencia antes de que él creara las colinas"

Fuiste traído
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Dios te trajo"

¿Has escuchado el conocimiento secreto de Dios?
La respuesta implícita aquí es "no". Esta pregunta retórica se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No has escuchado el conocimiento secreto de Dios"

¿Limitas la sabiduría a ti mismo?
Esta pregunta retórica enfatiza que no puede limitarse la sabiduría a sí mismo. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No puedes limitar la sabiduría a ti mismo" o "No eres la única persona sabia"

¿Qué sabes tú que nosotros no sabemos?
La respuesta implícita aquí es "nada". Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No hay nada que sepa que no sepamos" o "Todo lo que sabe, también sabemos".

¿Qué entiendes tú que no está también en nosotros?
Esto habla de que los hombres tienen entendimiento como si fuera algo "dentro" de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Todo lo que entiendes, también entendemos" o "Entendemos todo lo que entiendes"

Job 15:10

Con nosotros están ambos, los hombres de cabella gris y los de mucha edad con cabeza y los hombres muy ancianos - Elifaz habla de él y de los otros hombres que tienen la sabiduría de los hombres muy ancianos de quienes habían aprendido como si estuvieran físicamente presentes con ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Hemos adquirido sabiduría tanto de los hombres canosos como de los muy viejos"

Hombres de cabellera gris y los de mucha edad con cabeza y los hombres muy mayores - La frase "cabezas grises" es una descripción física de los "hombres muy viejos". Traducción Alterna: "los hombres muy viejos que tienen canas".

mucho más viejos que tu padre.
Esta es una exageración. Traducción Alterna:"Mas viejo que tu padre"

Son las consolaciones de Dios ... gentil hacia ti?
Esta pregunta retórica es una acusación, y la respuesta implícita a la pregunta es "sí". Esta pregunta puede ser escrita como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Debes pensar que los consuelos de Dios son demasiado pequeños para ti, las palabras que son amables contigo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Consolaciones
"conforta" o "simpatiza"

Job 15:12

¿Porqué te arrebata tu corazón?
Aquí el "corazón" representa las emociones de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "¿Por qué te quitan tus emociones?" o "¿Por qué permites que tus emociones guíen tus decisiones?"

Porque tus ojos destellan
Esto probablemente se refiere a que Job parece enojado, específicamente la apariencia de sus ojos. Traducción Alterna: "¿Por qué tus ojos se ven enojados?" O "¿Por qué estás enojado?"

Tornes tu espíritu
Aquí "espíritu" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna:"Volverte"

Salgan tales palabras de tu boca Esto lo describe hablando. Traducción Alterna:"Entonces dices cosas duras contra él"

Que es hombre ... es aquel quién es nacido
Estas dos preguntas son básicamente las mismas y son usadas juntas para enfatizar que un hombre no puede ser perfecto.

¿Qué es el hombre para que deba ser limpio?
Se hace esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que un hombre no puede estar completamente "limpio". Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre, no puede estar completamente limpio".

Limpio
Una persona que Dios considera aceptable espiritualmente es como decir que la persona se encuentra limpia físicamente.

¿Qué es aquel quién es nacido de mujer para que deba ser justo?
Se hace esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que un hombre no puede ser completamente "justo". Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre que nace de una mujer no puede ser completamente justo".

Job 15:15

Ves
Esta palabra se usa aquí para llamar la atención de Job sobre lo que se dice a continuación. Traducción Alterna: "Escucha"

Sus santos
"Sus angeles" (UDB)

Limpios
Algo que Dios considera espiritualmente aceptable se habla como si fuera físicamente limpio.

A su vista
Aqui vista representa juicio o evaluación. Traducción Alterna:"En su juicio"

Abominable y corrupto Estas dos palabras significan Básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan que débiles son los humanos.

Que bebe iniquidad como agua!
Esto describe la iniquidad como si fuera agua que puedes beber. Compara cómo el hombre malvado desea cometer pecado con la facilidad con que desea beber agua fría. Traducción Alterna: "que aman la iniquidad tanto como aman una taza de agua dulce" o "que cometen actos malvados con tanta frecuencia como beben agua" (UDB)

Job 15:17

Te mostaré
Este es un modismo. Traducción Alterna:"Te voy a explicar" o "Yo te lo dejaré claro"

Yo te anunciaré
"Yo te declararé"

Sus ancestros no escondieron
Elifaz enfatiza que sus antepasados les enseñaron estas cosas a propósito. Traducción Alterna: "sus antepasados enseñaron abiertamente"

Job 15:19

a quienes solamente se les dio la tierra Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Aquienes solamente Dios le dió la tierra"

entre los cuales ningún extraño pasó nunca
Esto significa que ningún extranjero vivió entre ellos, específicamente para que no fueran influenciados por las religiones paganas. Traducción Alterna: "nadie de otro país vino y les hizo pensar mal de Dios"

Se retuerce en su dolor
"sufre mucho dolor". Esto es dolor físico o emocional.

el número de años que son añadidos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:"Todos los años que Dios ha añadido"

Que son añadidos
Este es un modismo. Traducción Alterna:"que son preparados" o "que son puestos a un lado"

El sonido de terrores está en sus oídos
"El constantemente escucha sonidos que lo aterroriza"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 15:22

Declaración de conexión
Elifaz continúa describiendo al malvado hombre el empezo a describir en 15:19.

Regresará de la oscuridad
Aqui "oscuridad" es una metáfora para problema o infortunio. Traducción Alterna:" Escapar de la desgracia"

La espada espera por él
Aquí "la espada" es una metonimia que representa a un enemigo que está esperando matar al hombre malvado. Los posibles significados son 1) le preocupa que alguien lo mate. Traducción Alterna: "le preocupa que alguien esté a punto de asesinarlo" o 2) es seguro que va a ser asesinado. Traducción Alterna: "alguien está esperando asesinarlo".

Por pan
Aquí "pan" se refiere a comida en general. Traducción Alterna:"para comida"

El día de oscuridad
Este es un modismo. Traducción Alterna:"el dia de desastre" o "el momento de su muerte"

Está cerca
Es un modismo. Traduccción Alterna:"esta viniendo pronto"

Prevalecen en contra
"sobreponerse" o "derrota"

Como un rey listo para la batalla
Esto compara cómo su anflicción y angustia lo dominan a cómo un rey, que está listo para la batalla, prevalecería contra él. Traducción Alterna: "al igual que un rey, que está listo para una batalla, prevalecería contra él"

Job 15:25

Él ha extendido su mano sontra Dios
"Ha sacudido su puño contra Dios". Esta es una señal de agresión.

Corre hacia Dios
Esto habla del hombre malvado que actúa agresivamente contra Dios como si estuviera corriendo hacia él para atacarlo.Traducción Alterna: "ataca a Dios" o "actúa violentamente contra Dios") con un escudo grueso.

"Con un escudo grueso"

Job 15:27

Esto es verdad
"Esto" se refiere al hombre malvado que corre hacia Dios desde el versículo anterior.

él ha cubierto su rostro con su grosura y juntó grasa en sus lomos, Este hombre malvado se describe como gordo y débil, mientras se cree lo suficientemente fuerte como para vencer a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "él es débil con una cara gorda y lomos gordos"

ningun hombre habita
"Que son abandonadas"

Ruinas
"Ruinas" o "desolado"

Job 15:29

Él no será rico; su riqueza no durará
Estos dos litotes expresan que él será lo opuesto a rico, que será pobre. Traducción Alterna: "será pobre; todo su dinero desaparecerá"

Ni siquiera su sombra durará en la tierra
Esto repite la idea de que todas las posesiones de los malvados desaparecerán. En otras traducciones se pueden leer: "ni sus posesiones se extenderán por la tierra".

saldrá de la oscuridad Oscuridd aqui representa la muerte. Traducción Alterna:"Fuera de la oscuridad de la muerte)

una llama secará sus tallos Aquí la llama representa el juicio de Dios y el secado de sus tallos representa el hecho de que sus posesiones desaparecen o que morirá. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se llevará todo lo que posee, como un fuego seca las ramas húmedas de un árbol"

al aliento de la boca de Dios Aquí el "aliento" de Dios representa a su juicio. Traducción Alterna:"aliento de Dios" o "El juicio de Dios"

Él se irá
esto se refiere a el muriendo. Traducción Alterna:" El va a morir".

Job 15:31

La vanidad será su recompensa
Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción Alterna: "porque si él confía en ellos, la inutilidad será su recompensa"

Su rama no estará verde
Esto habla del hombre que parece pálido y muerto como si fuera un tallo seco o una rama de árbol.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción Alterna: "se verá muerto, al igual que la rama de un árbol muerto no se ve verde"

Él dejará caer su .. sacudirá sus
Estas dos líneas dan una imagen similar, que se repite para enfatizar que esto seguramente sucederá.

Dejará caer sus uvas verdes como una vid
Esto habla del hombre malvado que se debilita y muere como si fuera una vid que deja caer uvas inmaduras. Traducción Alterna: "Al igual que una vid deja caer sus uvas verdes, así el hombre malvado dejará caer su fuerza" el sacudirá sus flores como a un árbol de olivo.

Esto habla del hombre malvado que se debilita y muere como si fuera un olivo que deja caer sus flores. Traduccion Alterna (o A): "al igual que un olivo pierde sus flores, así el hombre malvado perderá su fuerza"

Job 15:34

La compañia de personas impias
"el grupo de personas impías"

El fuego consumirá sus tiendas de soborno
La frase "tiendas de soborno" significa que las personas malvadas compraron estas tiendas con el dinero que ganaron por el soborno. Traducción Alterna: "las carpas que compraron con sus sobornos serán quemadas por el fuego"

Ellos conciben malicia y dan a luz iniquidad; su vientre concibe engaño.
El mismo pensamiento se repite tres veces para enfatizar cuánto mal producen estas personas. Esto habla de una persona que planea hacer cosas malas y hacerlas como si la persona estuviera concebiendo y dando a luz estas cosas como una mujer concibe y da a luz a un hijo. Traducción Alterna: "Planean causar travesuras y hacer cosas malas; siempre planean engañar a los demás"

Su vientre concibe Aquí el "útero" se usa para referirse a la persona para enfatizar la concepción, ya que es en el útero donde tiene lugar la concepción. Traducción Alterna: "conciben" (Ver: Aquí el "útero" se usa para referirse a la persona para enfatizar la concepción, ya que es en el útero donde tiene lugar la concepción. AT: "conciben"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 Luego, Job respondió y dijo: 2 "Yo he escuchado muchas cosas como esas; todos ustedes son consoladores miserables. 3 ¿Será que las palabras inútiles tendrán un final? ¿Qué les pasa a ustedes, que ustedes responden así? 4 Yo también podría hablar como ustedes, si ustedes estuvieran en mí lugar; yo podría coleccionar y juntar palabras contra ustedes y sacudir mi cabeza en burla. 5 ¡Oh, cómo yo los alentaría con mi boca! ¡Cómo el consuelo de mis labios podría aligerar su dolor! 6 Si yo hablo, mi dolor no es disminuído; si yo evito hablar, ¿cómo soy ayudado? 7 Pero ahora, Dios, Tú me has agotado; Tú has hecho a toda mi familia desolada. 8 Tú me has hecho secar, lo que por si mismo es un testigo en mi contra; la flacura de mi cuerpo se levanta en mi contra, y testifica contra mi cara. 9 Dios me ha desgarrado en Su ira y me ha perseguido; Él me ha rechinado con Sus dientes; mi enemigo sujeta sus ojos en mí, mientras me destroza. 10 La gente se ha quedado asombrada y boquiabierta hacia mí; me han golpeado reprochablemente en la mejilla; ellos se han reunido en mi contra. 11 Dios me entrega a gente impía, y me lanza a las manos de la gente malvada. 12 Yo estaba a gusto, y Él me rompió. Ciertamente, Él me ha tomado por el cuello, y me aplastó en pedazos; y Él también me estableció como Su objetivo. 13 Sus arqueros me rodean por todo mi alrededor; Dios perfora mis riñones y no se apiada de mi; y derrama mi bilis sobre el suelo. 14 Él rompe a través de mi pared una y otra vez; Él corre hacia mí como un guerrero. 15 He cocido cilicio sobre mi piel; he empujado mi cuerno dentro del suelo. 16 Mi cara está roja con el llanto; en mis párpados está la sombra de muerte 17 aunque no hay violencia en mis manos, y mi oración es pura. 18 Tierra, no cubras mi sangre; no dejes que mi llanto tenga lugar de descanso. 19 Incluso ahora, verás, mi Testigo está en el cielo; Él, quien testifica por mí, está en lo alto. 20 Mis amigos se burlan de mí, pero mi ojo derrama lágrimas para Dios. 21 ¡Yo pido por ese testigo en el cielo, que argumente por este hombre con Dios, como lo hace un hombre con su vecino! 22 Pues cuando algunos años hayan pasado, yo iré a un lugar del cual yo no regresaré.

Job 16:1

Todos ustedes son consoladores miserables
"en lugar de consolarme, todos me hacen más miserable"

¿Se´ra que las palabras inútiles tendrás fin?
Job usa esta pregunta retórica para expresar que desea que dejen de hablar palabras inútiles. Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Cómo desearía que tus palabras inútiles terminaran!"

¿Que les pasa a ustedes, que ustedes responde así?
Job usa esta pregunta retórica para reprender a Elifaz. Aquí la palabra "usted" es singular y se refiere a Elifaz que acaba de terminar de hablar con Job. Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Elifaz, deberías dejar de responderme así!"

Job 16:4

Yo podría coleccionar y juntar palabras Job habla de pensar en cosas inútiles que decir como si sus palabras fueran elementos aleatorios que reunió y unió. Traducción Alterna: "Se me ocurren cosas que decir"

sacudir mi cabeza
Esta es una acción qu muestra desaprobación.

En burla
La palabra "burla" puede ser expresado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna:"Para golpearte"

¡Oh, cómo yo los alentaría con mi boca! ¡Cómo el consuelo de mis labios podría aligerar su dolor!
Aquí habla sarcásticamente y significa lo contrario de lo que dice. Traducción Alterna: "Mis palabras seguramente no te alentarán" Seguramente no aligerarán tu dolor "o" Al hablar contigo como me hablaste antes, ¡no te animaría ni aligeraría tu dolor! "

Con mi boca
Aquí la "boca" de Job representa lo que él dice. Traducción Alterna:" Con lo que digo" consuelo de mis labios

Esto se refiere a palabras de consuelo que él habla. Traducción Alterna: "mis palabras de consuelo"

Aligerar su dolor
Esto habla del dolor como si fuera una pesada carga física. Traducción Alternar: "disminuiría tu dolor" o "te ayudaría a sentir menos dolor"

Job 16:6

Dolor
Job ha experimentado una gran pérdida de familia y salud que es inexplicable y, por lo tanto, le causa "gran dolor y dolor emocional".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿comó soy agotado?
Job usa esta pregunta retórica para expresar que quedarse callado no disminuye su dolor. Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "no me ayuda en absoluto".

Pero ahora, Dios, tú me has agotado
Job ahora dirige su queja a Dios.

Tú has hecho a toda mi familia desolada
"destruyó a toda mi familia" (UDB)

Tú me has hecho secar Esto significa que el cuerpo de Job se ha encogido y arrugado. Traducción Alterna: "Has hecho que mi cuerpo se encoja" es un testigo en mi contra Job describe el encogimiento de su cuerpo como si fuera un acusador en su contra. Traducción Alterna: "y la gente piensa que eso me demuestra ser un pecador" la flacura de mi cuerpo se levanta en mi contra Job describe la delgadez de su cuerpo como si fuera un acusador en su contra. Traducción Alterna: "Ven lo delgado que es mi cuerpo y piensan que eso prueba que soy culpable"

Contra mi cara
Aquí Job es referido por su "rostro". Traducción Alterna: "contra mí".

Job 16:9

Dios me ha desgarrado en Su ira y me ha perseguido ... mientras me destroza
Esto habla de Dios causando dolor a Job como si fuera un animal salvaje y Job fuera su presa que estaba matando. Traducción Alterna: "Como Dios está muy enojado conmigo, es como si fuera un animal salvaje que destrozó mi cuerpo con los dientes porque era mi enemigo"

Mi enemigo
Job se refiere a Dios como su "enemigo" cuando describe cómo le ha causado un gran dolor.

sujeta sus ojos en mí
Esto es un modismo. Traducción Alterna: "me fulmina con la mirada"

La gente se ha quedado asombrada y boquiabierta
"Boquiabierta" significa mirar con asombro con la boca abierta

Job 16:11

me entrega a gente impía, y me lanza a las manos de la gente malvada.
Estas dos líneas significan Básicamente la misma cosa. Juntas ellas enfatizan los sentimientos de Job de haber sido traicionado por Dios.

Me entrega a Esto es un modismo Traducción Alterna: "me pone bajo el control de"

me lanza a las manos de Aquí las "manos" de una persona se refieren a su "control". Tradcucción Alterna: "me entrega al control"

me rompió
Job habla de su dolor y desesperación como si él mismo fuera algo que se rompió en pedazos. Traducción Alterna: "pero luego sentí como si me hubiera separado"

Me aplastó en pedazos
Job habla de Dios causándole dolor y desesperación como si fuera algo que Dios había tomado y hecho pedazos. Traducción Alterna: "es como si me hubiera tomado del cuello y me hubiera destrozado"

Él también me estableció como Su objetivo.
Job habla de sí mismo siendo el foco de los ataques de Dios como si Dios lo hubiera establecido como un objetivo para disparar flechas. Traducción Alterna: "es como si él me hubiera configurado como un objetivo" (UDB)

Job 16:13

Sus arqueros me rodean por todo mi alrededor
Job speaks of himself being the focus of God's attacks as if God has set him up as a target and God had arches surrounding him to attach him. Traducción Alterna: "It is as though his archers have me surrounded"

Dios perfora mis riñones y no se apiada de mi; y derrama mi bilis sobre el suelo.
Job habla del dolor que siente al compararlo con Dios perforando su cuerpo con una flecha. Aquí "Dios" representa las flechas que dispara. Traducción Alterna: "Parece que las flechas de Dios han perforado mis riñones y mi hígado, derramando mi bilis en el suelo. Él no me deja libre"

Él rompe a través de mi pared
Job habla del dolor que siente al compararse con un muro que Dios atraviesa. Traducción Alterna: "Me siento como un muro que Dios atraviesa" o "Me siento como un muro que Dios rompe"

Él corre hacia mí como un guerrero.
Job describe a Dios como un soldado que lo ataca. Traducción Alterna: "es como si fuera un guerrero que corre hacia mí para atacarme"

Job 16:15

He cocido cilicio sobre mi piel
Job habla de usar ropa hecha de tela de saco como si la tela estuviera unida a su cuerpo. Las personas a menudo usaban cilicio para expresar luto o gran dolor. Traducción Alterna: "Porque estoy de luto, he cosido tela de saco para usar como mi ropa" o "Uso ropa que hice de tela de saco, porque estoy de luto"

he empujado mi cuerno dentro del suelo El "cuerno" de Job representa el poder y la autoridad que tenía antes, pero ahora ya no existe. Traducción Alterna: "Me siento aquí en la tierra, muy deprimido"

en mis párpados está la sombra de muerte Aquí los ojos de Job están representados por sus "párpados". Job habla de sus ojos de aspecto oscuro como si los ojos parecieran los ojos de una persona muerta. Traducción Alterna: "hay círculos oscuros alrededor de mis ojos" o "mis ojos son oscuros, como los ojos de una persona muerta"

no hay violencia en mis manos Manos" se refiere a la capacidad y actividad de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "No he actuado violentamente"

Job 16:18

Tierra, no cubras mi sangre
Jobs le habla directamente a la "tierra" a pesar de que no puede escucharlo, para agregar fuerza a su declaración. La tierra se personifica como cubriendo a propósito su sangre después de su muerte. Traducción Alterna: "Desearía que mi sangre no se empapara en el suelo, sino que permaneciera encima del suelo como prueba de cómo morí"

Tierra, no cubras mi sangre
Job habla de sí mismo muriendo como si fuera asesinado. Aquí su "sangre" es una metonimia que se refiere a su muerte. Traducción Alterna: "Tierra, cuando muera, no escondas cómo muero injustamente" o "No se oculte cómo muero injustamente"

dejes que mi llanto tenga lugar de descanso Job habla de querer que todos sepan lo que le sucedió como si su "llanto" fuera una persona que nunca dejó de testificar sobre lo que le sucedió y nunca descansó. Traducción Alterna: "Que todos escuchen lo que me ha pasado"

Verás
Job usa esta palabra para llamar la atención sobre lo que dice a continuación. Traducción Alterna : "escuchar" mi Testigo está en el cielo;

Job confía en que alguien hablará por él ante Dios.

Testifica
"testifica"

En lo Alto
Esto es un modismo Traducción Alterna: "en el cielo" o "en el cielo en lo alto"

Job 16:20

burlar"
"desdén" o "sidiculizar"

mi ojo derrama lágrimas Job describe cuán fuertemente siente su dolor. Aquí exagera cómo llora a menudo al decir que las lágrimas brotan de sus ojos. Traducción Alterna: "mis ojos están llenos de lágrimas mientras lloro"

por este hombre
Aquí Job se refiere a sí mismo en tercera persona. "para mí"

¡como lo hace un hombre con su vecino!
"como lo hace un hombre por su prójimo". Job describe cómo quiere que aquel en el cielo ruegue por él.

yo iré a un lugar
Aquí Job se refiere a sí mismo muriendo. Traducción Alterna: "Moriré e iré a un lugar".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 Mi espíritu esta consumido, y mis días están terminados; la tumba está lista para mi. 2 Seguramente hay burladores conmigo; mi ojo debe siempre ver su provocación. 3 Dame una promesa, sé Tú una garantía para mí contigo; ¿quién más está ahí que pueda ayudarme? 4 Porque Tú, Dios, has aislado sus corazones del entendimiento; por lo tanto, Tú no los exaltarás a ellos sobre mi. 5 Aquel que denuncia sus amigos por una recompensa, los ojos de sus niños fallarán. 6 Pero Él me ha convetido un dicho de la gente; ellos escupen en mi cara. 7 Mi ojo también está nublado por la pena; todas las partes de mi cuerpo estan tan delgadas como sombras. 8 Los hombres rectos estarán aturdidos por esto; el hombre inocente se volcará contra los hombres impíos. 9 El hombre recto se mantendrá en su camino; aquel que tiene manos límpias se volverá fuerte y más fuerte. 10 Pero en cuanto a todos ustedes, vengan ahora; yo no encontraré un hombre sabio entre ustedes. 11 Mis días son pasado; mis planes están destrozados, y así están los deseos de mi corazón. 12 Estas personas, estos burladores, cambian la noche en día; la luz está cerca de la oscuridad. 13 Desde que miré al Seol como mi hogar; desde que he tendido mi cama en la oscuridad; 14 desde que dije al pozo: 'Tú eres mi padre,' y al gusano: ' Tú eres mi madre o mi hermana,' 15 ¿Entonces dónde está mi esperanza? ¿En cuanto a mi esperanza, quién puede ver alguna? 16 Puede la esperanza bajar conmigo a las puertas del Seol cuando descendamos al polvo? "

Job 17:1

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

Mi espíritu esta consumido Job se refiere a sí mismo por su "espíritu" para enfatizar sus emociones internas. Él habla de que no le quedan fuerzas como si fuera algo que se ha agotado. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy consumido" o "He perdido toda mi fuerza"

mis días están terminados Job se refiere a su vida como sus "días". Traducción Alterna: "mi tiempo ha terminado" o "voy a morir pronto"

la tumba está lista para mi
Esta frase describe "la tumba" como si fuera una persona que recibirá a Job como invitado. Traducción Alterna: "pronto estaré muerto y enterrado"

Seguramente hay burladores conmigo
"Los que están a mi alrededor se están burlando de mí"

Seguramente
"En efecto"

mi ojo debe siempre ver Job se refiere a sí mismo por sus "ojos" para enfatizar lo que ve. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre debo ver" o "Siempre debo escuchar"

su provocación
"sus insultos". La palabra "provocación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "ellos me provocan" o "ellos, tratando de hacerme enojar"

Dame una promesa, sé Tú una garantía para mí contigo
Job comienza a hablarle a Dios. Aquí habla de su situación como si estuviera en prisión. Le está pidiendo a Dios que le proporcione una promesa para que pueda ser liberado. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, haz una promesa ahora para que pueda ser liberado de esta prisión" o "paga mi liberación de la prisión" ¿quién más está ahí que pueda ayudarme?

Job usa esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que no hay nadie más para ayudarlo. Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "no hay nadie más que pueda ayudarme"

Job 17:4

Información General:
Job continua hablando

has aislado sus corazones
La palabra "sus" se refiere a sus amigos. Son referidos por sus "corazones" para enfatizar sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "los he conservado" o "he mantenido a mis amigos"

Tú no los exaltarás a ellos sobre mi
"No permitirás que triunfen sobre mí"

Aquel que
"Cualquiera que"

denuncia sus amigos por una recompensa
"acusa falsamente a sus amigos para obtener ganancias" o "traiciona a sus amigos para recibir una recompensa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los ojos de sus niños fallarán
Aquí se hace referencia a los hijos de la persona por sus "ojos". Esta frase describe a los niños que sufren por lo que hizo su padre o madre. Traducción Alterna: "sus hijos sufrirán por ello"

Job 17:6

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

Pero Él me ha convetido un dicho de la gente Esto significa que la gente habla de él de manera burlona y usa su nombre como un insulto. Traducción Alterna: "debido a él, la gente usa mi nombre como un insulto" o "debido a ellos, la gente usa mi nombre como sinónimo"

ellos escupen en mi cara
"La gente me escupe en la cara". En esta cultura, escupir a alguien era un gran insulto. Si escupir tiene un significado diferente en su cultura, puede escribir esto de manera diferente. Traducción Alterna: "la gente me insulta mucho, escupiendo en mi cara"

Mi ojo también está nublado por la pena
Job habla de su visión como sus "ojos". Traducción Alterna: "Mi visión se ha debilitado porque estoy muy triste" o "Estoy casi ciego debido a mi dolor"

todas las partes de mi cuerpo estan tan delgadas como sombras Las sombras no tienen grosor y son infinitamente delgadas. Esa es una exageración de lo delgadas que son las partes del cuerpo de Job. Traducción Alterna: "todas las partes de mi cuerpo son muy delgadas"

todas las partes de mi cuerpo
Esta es una generalización utilizada para enfatizar que todo su cuerpo es delgado, pero se refiere específicamente a sus brazos y piernas. Traducción Alterna: "mis brazos y piernas"

Aturdidos
"sorprendido" u "horrorizado"

por esto
"por lo que me ha pasado"

volcará contra los hombres impíos
Esto es una expresión idiomática: "estará angustiado por" o "estará muy enojado con"

Job 17:9

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

se mantendrá en su camino Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "continuará viviendo de manera justa"

aquel que tiene manos límpias Esto habla de una persona inocente que tiene las manos limpias. Traducción Alterna: "el que hace lo correcto" o "el que es inocente" se volverá fuerte y más fuerte.

Esto no se refiere solo a la fuerza física, sino también a la fuerza de la voluntad y las emociones de una persona.

todos ustedes
Job está hablando con Elifaz, Bildad y Zofar.

vengan ahora
Job invita a sus amigos a debatir lo que ha dicho. Traducción Alterna: "vamos, discute conmigo otra vez"

Job 17:11

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

Mis días son pasado
Esto es una expresión idiomática.Traducción Alterna: "Mi tiempo ha pasado" o "Mi vida ha terminado"

mis planes están destrozados
"mis planes nunca se realizarán" o "mis planes nunca sucederán"

así están los deseos de mi corazón Aquí el "corazón" de Job se refiere a sus mayores deseos. Traducción Alterna: "En cuanto a las cosas que más he deseado"

de mi corazón
Aquí Job no completa su oración para expresar que no tiene ninguna esperanza para sus deseos. Traducción Alterna: "de mi corazón, no hay hogar de que sucedan"

Estas personas, estos burladores
Estas dos frases se refieren a las mismas personas, a saber, los amigos de Job, Elifaz, Bildad y Zofar. La segunda frase enfatiza su actitud hostil.

cambian la noche en día
Esto habla de las personas que afirman que la noche es día como si realmente cambiaran la noche en día. Traducción Alterna: "afirman que es de día cuando es de noche" o "lo que dicen es lo contrario de lo que es verdad, así como la noche es lo contrario del día"

la luz está cerca de la oscuridad Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción Alterna: "afirman que la luz está cerca de la oscuridad" o "afirman que cuando oscurece, se está poniendo la luz"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 17:13

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

miré al Seol como mi hogar
"Mirar" algo de cierta manera significa "pensarlo" de esa manera. Traducción Alterna: "Pienso en Seol como mi hogar" o "Ahora considero a Seol mi hogar"

he tendido mi cama en la oscuridad Aquí Job habla de estar preparado para morir como haber acostado su cama en la oscuridad. Traducción Alterna: "me he preparado para ir a dormir entre los muertos"

he tendido mi cama
"he hecho mi cama"

desde que dije al pozo ... y al gusano
Estas dos líneas son una variación entre sí y se usan juntas para enfatizar cuán desesperado es Job.

al pozo
"la tumba"

Tú eres mi padre
Job habla de la cercanía que pronto tendrá con su tumba comparándola con la cercanía que un hombre tiene con su padre. Traducción Alterna: "Estás tan cerca de mí como mi padre" o "Cuando esté enterrado, estarás tan cerca de mí como un padre"

al gusano
"el gusano". Los gusanos son las pequeñas criaturas que comen cadáveres.

Tú eres mi madre o mi hermana
Job habla de la cercanía que pronto tendrá con los gusanos en su tumba al compararlo con la cercanía que un hombre tiene con su madre y sus hermanas. Traducción Alterna: "Estás tan cerca de mí como mi madre o mi hermana" o "Estarás tan cerca de mí como mi madre o hermana"

¿Entonces dónde está mi esperanza?
La respuesta implícita es "en ninguna parte", porque no tiene esperanza. Esta pregunta retórica se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No tengo esperanza" ¿En cuanto a mi esperanza, quién puede ver alguna?

Esta pregunta retórica se usa para enfatizar que nadie espera que él tenga ninguna esperanza. Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie puede ver ninguna esperanza para mí" o "No espera que tenga más esperanza"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Luego Bildad el suhita contestó y dijo: 2 "¿Cuándo vas a detener tu hablar? Considera, y después nosotros vamos a hablar. 3 ¿Porqué somos considerados como bestias; porqué nos hemos convertido estúpidos en tu visión? 4 Tú quién te desgarras a ti mismo en tu enojo, ¿Debe la tierra ser abandonada por ti o las rocas ser removidas fuera de sus lugares? 5 En efecto, la luz de las personas malvadas va a ser apagada; la chispa de su fuego no va a brillar. 6 La luz va a ser oscura en su tienda; su lámpara sobre él va a ser apagada. 7 Los pasos de su fuerza se harán cortos; sus propios planes van a derrumbarlo. 8 Pues él va a ser echado en una red por sus propios pies; él va a caminar a la trampa. 9 Una trampa lo va a tomar por el talón; un lazo lo sujetará. 10 Una soga está escondida para él en la tierra; y una trampa para él en el camino. 11 Terrores lo harán temer en cada lado; ellos van a perseguirlo en sus talones. 12 Su riqueza va a convertirse en hambre, y la calamidad va a estar preparada a su lado. 13 Las partes de su cuerpo van a ser devoradas; en efecto, el primer hijo de muerte va a devorar sus partes. 14 Él es arrancado de la seguridad de su tienda y hecho marchar hacia el rey de los terrores. 15 No su propria gente va a vivir en su tienda después de que ellos vean que el azúfre es dispersado en su casa. 16 Sus raíces se secarán debajo; arriba se cortarán sus ramas. 17 Su memoria va a perecer de la tierra; él no tendrá nombre en la calle. 18 Él será conducido de la luz a la oscuridad y será expulsado fuera de este mundo. 19 Él no tendrá hijo o hijo de sus hijos de entre su gente, ni ningún pariente restante donde el se había quedado. 20 Aquellos quienes viven en el oeste van a ser horrorizados con lo que le pasará a él un día; aquellos quienes vivan en el este van a ser asustados por esto. 21 Seguramente así son las casas de las personas injustas, los lugares de aquellos quienes no conocen a Dios."

Job 18:1

Información General:
Ver: y

Información General:
Bildad el shuita le está hablando a Job.

Luego Bildad el suhita contestó y dijo:
"Bildad" es el nombre de un hombre que es miembro de la tribu de Shuah. Se traduce como en el 8: 1.

¿Cuándo vas a detener tu hablar?
Esta pregunta retórica significa que Job ha estado hablando durante demasiado tiempo. Esto puede estar escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Deja de hablar!"

Considera
"Sea razonable" o "Piense en estas cosas"

Job 18:3

Información General:
Bildad continúa hablando con Job.

Porqué somos considerados como bestias
Bildad usa esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar a Job que no debería considerarlo tonto. Él habla de ellos siendo considerados tontos llamándolos "bestias". Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No debes pensar que somos como bestias". o "No debes pensar que somos tontos como los animales".

Porqué somos
La palabra "nosotros" probablemente se refiere a Bildad y los otros amigos de Job.

porqué nos hemos convertido estúpidos en tu visión Bildad usa esta pregunta retórica de que no debería considerarlos estúpidos. Traducción Alterna: "No somos estúpidos como crees que somos".

en tu visión
Aquí la vista representa juicio o evaluación. Traducción Alterna: "a su juicio"

Tú quién te desgarras a ti mismo en tu enojo Aquí Bildad está afirmando que es por la ira y la desobediencia de Job que la suya ha sido herida, no por la ira de Dios como Job ha afirmado anteriormente. La palabra "rasgar" aquí significa "herir". Traducción Alterna: "Tú que has causado tus propias heridas debido a tu ira"

Debe la tierra ser abandonada
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "todos deberían abandonar la tierra"

¿Debe la tierra ser abandonada por ti o las rocas ser removidas fuera de sus lugares?
Esta pregunta retórica sugiere que dejar en libertad a Job, a quien consideran un hombre culpable, sería como cambiar el mundo entero. Bildad usa estas enormes exageraciones aquí para enfatizar lo indignante que cree que es esto. Esto

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Pedirle a Dios que te deje libre, un hombre culpable, es tan tonto como pedir que la tierra sea abandonada por tu bien o que Dios saque las rocas de sus lugares para complacerte!"

Debe la tierra ser abandonada
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "todos deberían abandonar la tierra"

las rocas ser removidas fuera de sus lugares
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. La palabra "rocas" aquí se refiere a rocas grandes, como las de las montañas. Traducción Alterna: "si Dios quita las rocas de sus lugares" o "si Dios mueve montañas alrededor"

Job 18:5

Información General:
Bildad continúa hablando con Job.

En efecto, la luz de las personas malvadas va a ser apagada; la chispa de su fuego no va a brillar.
Bildad habla de una persona malvada que muere como si su lámpara se hubiera apagado. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que sucederá es que las vidas de personas malvadas como tú terminan tan rápido como podamos apagar una luz o apagar la llama de un fuego" va a ser apagada.

Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "saldrá"

La luz va a ser oscura en su tienda; su lámpara sobre él va a ser apagada.
Bildad continúa hablando de la persona malvada muriendo. Su habla de la vida del malvado como si fuera la luz de su tienda. Traducción Alterna: Será como si la luz de su tienda se hubiera convertido en oscuridad, como si la lámpara sobre él se hubiera apagado "

Job 18:7

Información General:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

Los pasos de su fuerza se harán cortos
Esto habla de la persona malvada que repentinamente experimenta un desastre como si ya no tuviera fuerzas para caminar. Traducción Alterna: "Será como si ya no tuviera la fuerza para caminar"

sus propios planes van a derrumbarlo
"Su propio consejo lo hace caer". Esto habla de la persona malvada que sufre un desastre como si se sintiera deprimido. Traducción Alterna: "sus propios planes lo llevarán al desastre"

Pues él va a ser echado en una red por sus propios pies; él va a caminar a la trampa
"Sus propios pies lo llevarán a una red". Bildad usa esta imagen para decir que la forma en que una persona malvada vive su vida lo lleva a un desastre repentino. Traducción Alterna: "Será como si se hubiera metido en una red, como si hubiera caído en una trampa"

red
cordones o cuerdas que las personas tejen para crear una malla. La gente usaba redes para atrapar animales.

Trampa
Es un hoyo que tiene ramas y hojas sobre él para que un animal camine sobre las ramas y hojas y caiga en el hoyo.

Job 18:9

Información General:
Bildad continúa hablando y usa tres imágenes paralelas para describir cuán repentinamente la persona malvada experimentará un desastre.

Una trampa lo va a tomar ... un lazo lo ... Una soga está... y una trampa para él en el camino Estas cuatro frases hablan del hombre malvado que experimenta el desastre como si estuviera atrapado en una trampa. Traducción Alterna: "Será como si una trampa lo llevara ... un lazo lo ... Una soga es ... y una trampa para él en el camino"

Una trampa
La gente usaba este tipo de trampa para atrapar pájaros. La trampa se cerró de golpe y se aferró al pie del pájaro.

lo va a tomar por el talón Aquí el "talón" se refiere a todo el pie. Traducción Alterna: "se apoderará de su pie"

Una soga está escondida para él en la tierra
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien ha escondido una soga en el suelo para atraparlo"

Una soga
Una cuerda con un lazo que agarra la pata de un animal cuando el animal pisa el centro del lazo.

y una trampa para él
Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción Alterna: "y una trampa está oculta en el camino para atraparlo" o "y alguien ocultará una trampa para atraparlo en el camino"

Terrores lo harán temer en cada lado
"Los terrores por todas partes lo harán temer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos van a perseguirlo en sus talones
Esto habla de las cosas que aterrorizan a la persona malvada como si fueran enemigos que lo persiguieron. Traducción Alterna: "será si los terrores lo perseguirán por todas partes"

Job 18:12

Información general:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

Su riqueza va a convertirse en hambre
Esto habla del hombre malvado que se vuelve pobre y hambriento como si la riqueza fuera algo que se convirtió en algo más. Traducción Alterna: "En lugar de ser rico, se volverá pobre y hambriento"

y la calamidad va a estar preparada a su lado
La frase "listo a su lado" es una expresión idiomática, significa que algo está continuamente presente. Traducción Alterna: "y él experimentará continuamente un desastre" o "y no podrá evitar la calamidad"

Las partes de su cuerpo van a ser devoradas Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Además, esto habla de una enfermedad que destruye su cuerpo como si fuera un animal que lo atacó y se lo estaba comiendo. Traducción Alterna: "La enfermedad se comerá su piel" o "La enfermedad destruirá su piel"

el primer hijo de muerte va a devorar sus partes Aquí una enfermedad que mata a muchas personas se conoce como "el primogénito de la muerte". Esto habla de esa enfermedad que destruye su cuerpo como si fuera un animal que lo atacó y se lo estaba comiendo. Traducción Alterna: "una enfermedad mortal destruirá las diferentes partes de su cuerpo"

Job 18:14

Información General:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

Él es arrancado de la seguridad de su tienda Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "El desastre lo saca de su tienda, donde está a salvo"

y hecho marchar
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y lo hace marchar" o "lo obliga a ir"

el rey de los terrores
Esta es una referencia al "Rey Muerte", un dios pagano que se creía que gobernaba sobre la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "el que gobierna sobre los muertos"

No su propia gente
"Gente que no es su familia"

después de que ellos vean que el azúfre es dispersado en su casa Las personas usaban azufre para deshacerse de cualquier enfermedad de una persona moribunda. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "después de que esparcieron azufre por toda su casa"

Job 18:16

Información General:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

Sus raíces se secarán debajo ... se cortarán sus ramas.
Esto habla del hombre malvado que muere y no tiene descendientes como si fuera un árbol cuyas raíces se secaron y las ramas se marchitaron, sin producir fruto. Traducción Alterna: "Morirá y no dejará descendientes, será como un árbol cuyas raíces se han secado y cuyas ramas se han marchitado"

arriba se cortarán sus ramas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "sus ramas se marchitarán"

Su memoria va a perecer de la tierra; él no tendrá nombre en la calle Estas frases tienen el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar el hecho de que nadie lo recordará después de su muerte.

Su memoria va a perecer de la tierra
Esto habla de la "memoria" del hombre malvado como si fuera una persona que murió. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie en la tierra lo recordará" él no tendrá nombre en la calle.

Esto es una Expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "nadie caminando por la calle recordará su nombre"

Job 18:18

Información General:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

Él será conducido de la luz a la oscuridad ... y será expulsado fuera de este mundo Estas frases juntas enfatizan el hecho de que la persona malvada será enviada al Seol, el lugar de los muertos.

Él será conducido de la luz a la oscuridad
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios conducirá a la persona malvada de la luz a la oscuridad".

de la luz a la oscuridad
La palabra "luz" se refiere a la vida, y la palabra "oscuridad" se refiere a la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "de la luz de la vida a la oscuridad de la muerte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y será expulsado fuera de este mundo.
Esto habla de Dios haciendo que abandone la tierra y vaya a donde va la gente muerta, como si lo estuviera persiguiendo. Traducción Alterna: "y Dios lo hará abandonar este mundo" o "y Dios lo enviará al lugar donde van los muertos"

expulsado fuera
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios lo perseguirá"

Él no tendrá hijo ... ni ningún pariente restante donde el se había quedado Juntas, estas dos frases enfatizan que no le quedarán familiares ni descendientes.

hijo de sus hijos
"nieto" o "nieto"

pariente
"familiares"

Aquellos quienes viven en el oeste ... aquellos quienes vivan en el este van a ser asustados por esto.
Las frases "en el oeste" y "en el este" son juntas un merismo que se refiere a todas las personas que viven en todas partes. Esto es una exageración ya que no todos en la tierra escucharán lo que le sucedió a una persona malvada específica. Traducción Alterna: "Todos en el mundo entero se horrorizarán y se asustarán cuando vean lo que le sucede a la persona malvada" o "Muchas personas que viven en el este y en el oeste se horrorizarán y se asustarán cuando vean lo que le sucede a la persona malvada". "

un día
"Algún día"

Job 18:21

Información General:
Bildad continúa describiendo a la persona malvada.

las casas de las personas injustas, los lugares de aquellos quienes no conocen a Dios.
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y se refieren a las mismas personas. Aquí se hace referencia a estas personas por los lugares donde viven. Traducción Alterna: "gente injusta, aquellos que no conocen a Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 Entonces Job respondió y dijo: 2 "¿Cuánto más ustedes me harán sufrir y me romperán en pedazos con palabras? 3 Estas diez veces que ustedes me han reprochado; ustedes no se avergüenzan de haberme tratado duramente. 4 Si ciertamente es verdad que yo he errado, mi error sigue siendo mi propia preocupación. 5 Ciertamente si ustedes se enaltecen a sí mismos sobre mí y usan mi humillación en contra mía, 6 entonces ustedes deben saber que Dios me ha hecho mal a mí y me ha atrapado en su red. 7 Miren, yo clamo: '¡Violencia!' pero yo no recibo respuesta. Yo grito por ayuda, pero no hay justicia. 8 Él ha amurallado mi camino para que yo no pueda pasar, y Él ha puesto oscuridad en mi camino. 9 Él me ha despojado de mi gloria, y Él ha quitado la corona de mi cabeza. 10 Él me ha derribado en cada lado, y yo estoy destruido; Él ha arrancado mis esperanzas como a un árbol. 11 Él también ha encendido su ira en mi contra; Él me considera como a uno de sus adversarios. 12 Sus tropas vienen juntas; ellas forman colinas de asedio en contra mía y acampan alrededor de mi tienda. 13 Ha puesto a mis hermanos lejos de mí; mis conocidos están completamente enajenados de mí. 14 Mis parientes me han fallado; mis amigos cercanos me han olvidado. 15 Aquellos que una vez se quedaron como huéspedes en mi casa, y mis siervas me consideran como a un extraño; soy un extranjero a su vista. 16 Yo llamo a mi siervo, pero él no me da respuesta, a pesar de que yo le suplique con mi boca. 17 Mi aliento es ofensivo para mi esposa; incluso soy asqueroso a aquellos que nacieron del vientre de mi madre. 18 Hasta los niños jóvenes me desprecian; si yo me levanto para hablar, ellos hablan en mi contra. 19 Todos mis amigos cercanos me aborrecen, aquellos a quienes yo amo se han vuelto en mi contra. 20 Mis huesos se pegan a mi piel y a mi carne; yo sobrevivo solamente por la piel de mis dientes. 21 Tengan piedad de mí, tengan piedad de mí, mis amigos, porque la mano de Dios me ha tocado. 22 ¿Por qué me persiguen como si ustedes fueran Dios? ¿Por qué ustedes no están satisfechos con consumir mi carne? 23 ¡Oh, que mis palabras sean ahora escritas! ¡Oh, que ellas sean inscritas en un libro! 24 ¡Oh, que con un lápiz de hierro y plomo sean grabadas en una roca para siempre! 25 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo sé que mi Redentor vive, y que al final Él se parará sobre la tierra; 26 después de mi piel, eso es, este cuerpo, sea destrozado, entonces en mi carne yo veré a Dios. 27 Yo lo veré con mis propios ojos—yo, y no alguien más. Mi corazón falla dentro de mí. 28 Si ustedes dicen: '¡Cómo nosotros lo perseguiremos a él! La raíz de sus problemas están en él,' 29 entonces tengan miedo de la espada, porque la ira trae el castigo de la espada, para que ustedes puedan saber que hay un juicio."

Job 19:1

Oración de Enlace:
Job habla con sus tres amigos.

Información general:
Ver: y

¿Cuánto más ustedes me harán sufrir y me romperán en pedazos con palabras?
Job usa esta pregunta para quejarse de cómo lo tratan sus amigos. Traducción Alterna: "Deja de hacerme sufrir y romperme en pedazos con palabras".

me romperán en pedazos con palabras?
Job usa esta imagen para decir que sus palabras lo hacen sentir muy triste y sin esperanza. Traducción Alterna: "y atormentarme con tus palabras"

Job 19:3

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Estas diez veces que ustedes me han reprochado
La frase "Estas diez veces" se refiere a la forma en que los amigos han reprendido por completo a Job. Traducción Alterna: "Me has reprochado completamente" o "Me has reprochado muchas veces" ustedes no se avergüenzan de haberme tratado duramente.

Job los está reprendiendo por esto. Traducción Alterna: "Deberías avergonzarte de haberme tratado tan duramente" haberme tratado duramente.

"me han despreciado" o "me han ridiculizado públicamente"

he errado
"ha pecado por accidente" o "ha pecado por error"

mi error
"mi pecado" o "mi equivocación"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi error sigue siendo mi propia preocupación Job implica que sus amigos no son responsables de continuar reprendiéndolo. Traducción Alterna: "mi error es mi propia responsabilidad, por lo que no debe continuar reprendiéndome" o "mi error no le hizo daño, por lo que no debe continuar reprendiéndome"

Job 19:5

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Ciertamente si ustedes se enaltecen a sí mismos sobre mí
"Si crees que eres mejor que yo" o "Ya que actúas como si fueras mejor que yo"

y usan mi humillación en contra mía Cómo lo harían esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "y afirmar que mi humillación es una prueba en mi contra" o "y usar mi humillación como evidencia de que soy culpable"

usan mi humillación en contra mía El sustantivo abstracto "humillación" se puede expresar con el verbo humillar. Traducción Alterna: "afirmar que lo que sucedió para humillarme, prueba que soy culpable" me ha atrapado en su red.

Job habla como si Dios fuera un cazador que ha atrapado a Job en su red. Esta metáfora representa a Dios tomando el control de Job y el sentimiento de impotencia de Job. Traducción Alterna: "me ha atrapado" o "me ha tomado el control" o "tiene el control de lo que me pasa, de modo que estoy indefenso"

Job 19:7

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Miren
La palabra "Miren" aquí agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "De hecho" ¡Violencia!

Este es un grito de ayuda. Esto se puede expresar claramente. Traducción Alterna: "¡Violencia! ¡Ayuda!" o "¡Ayuda! ¡Estoy siendo atacado!"

Yo grito por ayuda
"Grito por ayuda" o "Lloro por ayuda"

pero no hay justicia
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" se puede traducir con una frase. Traducción Alterna: "pero nadie me protege de aquellos que me hacen mal"

Él ha amurallado ... oscuridad en mi camino
Job usa estas imágenes para decir que Dios lo ha hecho sentir impotente y sin esperanza.

Él ha amurallado mi camino para que yo no pueda pasar
"Dios ha puesto un muro en el camino por el que estoy caminando" o "Él ha bloqueado el camino para que no pueda seguir"

Él me ha despojado ... la corona de mi cabeza
Job usa estas imágenes para decir que Dios le ha quitado su buena reputación, riqueza y prosperidad.

Él me ha despojado de mi gloria Job habla de su gloria como si fuera una túnica que da Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Me ha quitado mi gloria"

Él ha quitado la corona de mi cabeza.
La corona se refiere a la dignidad u honor de Job. Traducción Alterna: "me ha quitado mi corona de dignidad" o "es como si me hubiera quitado la corona de la cabeza"

Job 19:10

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Él me ha derribado en cada lado Job habla de Dios arruinándolo como si Job estuviera construyendo algo y Dios lo está destruyendo. Traducción Alterna: "Me ha arruinado en todos los sentidos" o "me ha atacado en todos los sentidos"

y yo estoy destruido
Estar "desaparecido" representa estar completamente destruido. Traducción Alterna: "y estoy completamente destruido"

Él ha arrancado mis esperanzas como a un árbol
Job habla de Dios haciendo que Job no tenga esperanza como si la esperanza de Job fuera un árbol y, en lugar de cortar el árbol, Dios sacó todo el árbol con sus raíces del suelo. Traducción Alterna: "se ha llevado completamente toda mi esperanza" o "debido a lo que ha hecho, ya no puedo esperar nada bueno"

Él también ha encendido su ira en mi contra
Job habla de Dios atacándolo, como si Job fuera una ciudad y el ejército de Dios estuviera acumulando tierra contra el muro de la ciudad para trepar por el muro y atacar la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "los soldados acumulan tierra para trepar sobre mi muro"

Él me considera como a uno de sus adversarios
"él piensa en mí como un enemigo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus tropas vienen juntas
Job habla de Dios atacándolo como si Job fuera una ciudad y Dios enviara un ejército para atacarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios envía su ejército para atacarme" ellas forman colinas de asedio en contra mía

Job habla de Dios atacándolo como si Job fuera una ciudad y el ejército de Dios estuviera acumulando tierra contra el muro de la ciudad para trepar por el muro y atacar la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "los soldados acumulan tierra para trepar sobre mi muro"

y acampan alrededor de mi tienda.
Job habla de Dios atacándolo como si Job estuviera en su tienda y el ejército de Dios estuviera acampando a su alrededor y preparándose para atacarlo. Traducción Alterna: "acampan alrededor de mi tienda y se preparan para atacarme"

Job 19:13

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Ha puesto a mis hermanos lejos de mí
Estar "lejos de" alguien representa no estar dispuesto a relacionarse con él o ayudarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios ha hecho que mis hermanos se mantengan alejados de mí" o "Dios hizo que mis hermanos se nieguen a ayudarme"

mis conocidos están completamente enajenados de mí
Estar "lejos de" alguien representa no estar dispuesto a relacionarse con él o ayudarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios ha hecho que mis hermanos se mantengan alejados de mí" o "Dios hizo que mis hermanos se nieguen a ayudarme"

Mis parientes me han fallado
"Mis familiares me han dejado sin ayuda"

mis amigos cercanos
"mis amigos íntimos"

me han olvidado
Esto significa que se niegan a tratarlo de acuerdo a cómo él y ellos se habían relacionado en el pasado. Implica que lo abandonen. Traducción Alterna: "me han abandonado" o "me descuidan"

Job 19:15

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

me consideran
"considerame"

soy un extranjero a su vista Su vista representa su actitud hacia él. Traducción Alterna: "piensan en mí como un extranjero"

pero él no me da respuesta La respuesta es una respuesta a la llamada de Job. Traducción Alterna: "pero él no me responde" o "pero él no viene a mí"

a pesar de que yo le suplique con mi boca
La frase "con mi boca" se refiere a Job hablando. Traducción Alterna: "a pesar de que le hablo y le suplico".

le supliqué
"le rogué a él"

Job 19:17

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Mi aliento es ofensivo para mi esposa Aquí "aliento" representa el olor de su aliento. Si algo es ofensivo para alguien, significa que lo odia. Traducción Alterna: "Mi esposa odia el olor de mi aliento" incluso soy asqueroso a aquellos que nacieron del vientre de mi madre.

Job se refiere a sus hermanos y hermanas de esta manera para implicar que son personas que deberían amarlo. Traducción Alterna: "mis propios hermanos" o "mis hermanos y hermanas"

me desprecian
"me odian" o "me detestan"

ellos hablan en mi contra.
"me ridiculizan" o "se burlan de mí"

Todos mis amigos cercanos Esto se refiere a sus amigos más cercanos. Traducción Alterna: "Todos mis amigos más cercanos" o "Todos mis amigos con quienes compartí mis secretos"

me aborrecen
"me disgustan"

se han vuelto en mi contra.
"me has traicionado"

Job 19:20

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

Mis huesos se pegan a mi piel y a mi carne Job habla de sus huesos, piel y carne para describir su apariencia. Era extremadamente delgado y la gente podía ver fácilmente la forma de sus huesos. Algunos idiomas tienen modismos para esto. Traducción Alterna: "Solo soy piel y huesos" o "Mi piel se adhiere a mis huesos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

yo sobrevivo solamente por la piel de mis dientes.
Esta espresión idiomática significa que apenas estaba sobreviviendo, que casi no sobrevive. Traducción Alterna: "Apenas estoy vivo" o "Casi no sobrevivo"

Tengan piedad de mí
"Tengan compasión de mí"

porque la mano de Dios me ha tocado Aquí "me tocó" es una metonimia para "pegarme". Esta es una metáfora para las cosas que causan que Job sufra. Traducción Alterna: "porque Dios me ha afectado" ¿Por qué me persiguen ... Dios?

Job usa esta pregunta para quejarse de cómo lo tratan sus amigos. Traducción Alterna: "No me persigas ... ¡Dios!"

¿Por qué ustedes no están satisfechos con consumir mi carne?
Job usa esta pregunta para quejarse de cómo lo tratan sus amigos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Has consumido mi carne lo suficiente!" o "¡Deja de consumir mi carne!"

¿Por qué ustedes no están satisfechos con consumir mi carne?
Job habla de sus amigos que le hablaron tan cruelmente como si fueran bestias salvajes comiendo otro animal. Traducción Alterna: "Deja de calumniarme violentamente". o "Deja de atacarme con tus palabras".

Job 19:23

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

¡Oh, que mis palabras sean ahora escritas!
Esta exclamación dice lo que Job desea. Esto puede ser expresado de manera activa. Traducción Alterna: "Deseo que alguien escriba mis palabras"

mis palabras
Esta frase representa lo que dice Job. Traducción Alterna: "lo que estoy diciendo"

¡Oh, que ellas sean inscritas en un libro!
Esta exclamación dice lo que Job desea. Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Deseo que alguien los escriba en un libro"

¡Oh, que con un lápiz de hierro y plomo sean grabadas en una roca para siempre!
Esta exclamación dice lo que Job desea. Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. "Desearía que alguien usara una pluma de hierro y plomo para tallarlos en la roca para siempre"

un lápiz de hierro
Esta fue una herramienta utilizada para escribir. Estaba hecho de hierro para que las personas pudieran tallar palabras en la roca. Traducción Alterna: "un cincel de hierro"

Plomo
El plomo es un metal blando. No sabemos cómo la gente usaba plomo al tallar roca. Es posible que hayan llenado las letras de la inscripción con plomo para que la inscripción dure más.

Job 19:25

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

mi Redentor
Aquí "Redentor" se refiere a una persona que rescatará a Job demostrando su inocencia, restaurando su honor y dándole justicia. Traducción Alterna: "Mi defensor"

al final Él se parará sobre la tierra Esto se refiere a estar de pie para hablar en la corte. Los posibles significados son 1) el Redentor será el último en hablar en la corte. Traducción Alterna: "juzgará si soy culpable o no" o 2) el Redentor se presentará en esta corte final para defender a Job. Traducción Alterna: "por fin me defenderá en la corte"

después de mi piel ... sea destrozado Los posibles significados son que 1) su cuerpo siendo destruido por una enfermedad o 2) su cuerpo en descomposición después de su muerte.

en mi carne yo veré a Dios
Su carne representa su cuerpo, y "en mi carne" representa el estar vivo. Traducción Alterna: "Mientras viva en mi cuerpo, veré a Dios"

Yo lo veré con mis propios ojos—yo, y no alguien más
La frase "mis ojos" representa a Job. Las frases "Mis ojos" y "y no alguien más" enfatizan que Job realmente verá a Dios. No es que alguien más vea a Dios y le diga a Job sobre él.

Mi corazón falla dentro de mí.
La gente pensaba que en el corazón estaban las emociones. Entonces, la falla del corazón representa que está teniendo muchas emociones. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy muy emocionado al respecto" o "Mis emociones me abruman al pensar en eso"

Mi corazón falla dentro de mí.
Los posibles significados son que 1) Job se siente muy esperanzado, agradecido y feliz o 2) Job se siente exhausto esperando ver a su Redentor.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 19:28

Información General:
Job continúa hablando con sus tres amigos.

¡Cómo nosotros lo perseguiremos a él!
Esta es una exclamación. Los posibles significados son 1) que ciertamente perseguirán a Job o 2) que lo perseguirán severamente.

La raíz de sus problemas están en él
La "raíz" representa la fuente. Traducción Alterna: "Él es la fuente de todos sus problemas" o "Él tiene todos estos problemas debido a lo que ha hecho"

entonces tengan miedo de la espada Los significados posibles son que la espada representa 1) Dios juzgándolos. Traducción Alterna: "entonces ten miedo de que Dios te juzgue" o 2) Dios los está matando. Traducción Alterna: "entonces ten miedo de que Dios te mate"

porque la ira trae el castigo de la espada Aquí "trae" es una metáfora de "resultados en" o "causas". Los sustantivos abstractos "ira" y "castigo" se pueden expresar con el adjetivo "enojado" y el verbo "castigar". Los posibles significados son que 1) la ira de Dios resulta en castigo. Traducción Alterna: "porque Dios se enojará contigo y te castigará" o 2) la ira de los amigos de Job resulta en castigo. Traducción Alterna: "si estás tan enojado conmigo, Dios te castigará"

hay un juicio
El sustantivo abstracto "juicio" se puede expresar con el verbo "juzgar". Traducción Alterna: "Dios juzga a las personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Entonces Zofar el naamatita respondió y dijo: 2 "Mis pensamientos me hacen responder rápidamente a causa de la preocupación que está en mí. 3 Yo escucho una reprensión que me deshonra, pero un espíritu de mi entendimiento me contesta. 4 ¿No conoces este hecho de tiempos antiguos, cuando Dios colocó al hombre en la tierra: 5 el triunfo de un hombre malvado es corto, y el gozo de un hombre impío dura solamente un momento? 6 Aunque su altura alcance los cielos, y su cabeza alcance las nubes, 7 aún así, tal persona perecerá permanentemente como sus propias heces; aquellos quienes lo han visto dirán: '¿Dónde está él?' 8 Él desaparecerá como un sueño y no será encontrado; ciertamente, él será perseguido como a una visión de la noche. 9 El ojo que lo vio no lo verá más; su hogar no lo verá más. 10 Sus hijos se disculparán con las personas pobres; sus manos tendrán que devolver su riqueza. 11 Sus huesos están llenos de fuerza juvenil, pero ella será enterrada con él en el polvo. 12 A pesar de que la maldad es dulce en su boca, a pesar de que él la esconde debajo de su lengua, 13 a pesar de que él la sostiene allí y no la deja ir pero la mantiene todavía en su boca-- 14 la comida en sus intestinos se vuelve amarga; se convierte en el veneno de áspides dentro de él. 15 Él traga riquezas, pero él las vomitará otra vez; Dios las sacará de su estómago. 16 Él chupará el veneno de áspides; la lengua de víbora lo matará. 17 Él no gozará las corrientes, las torrentes de miel y mantequilla. 18 Él devolverá el fruto de su labor y no será capaz de comerlo; él no gozará la riqueza ganada por su comercio. 19 Pues él ha oprimido y ha descuidado a las personas pobres; él ha tomado violentamente casas que él no construyó. 20 Porque él no ha conocido satisfacción en sí mismo, él no será capaz de salvar nada en lo cuál él tome placer. 21 No queda nada que él no haya devorado; por lo tanto su prosperidad no será permanente. 22 En la abundancia de su riqueza él caerá en tribulación; la mano de todos quienes están en pobreza vendrán en contra de él. 23 Cuando él esté a punto de llenar su estómago, Dios lanzará la ferocidad de Su ira sobre él; Dios la hará llover sobre él mientras esté comiendo. 24 Aunque ese hombre huirá del arma de hierro, un arco de bronce le disparará. 25 La flecha le perforará a través de su espalda y surgirá; ciertamente, la punta brillante saldrá a través de su hígado; terrores vienen sobre él. 26 Completa oscuridad está reservada para sus tesoros; un fuego no avivado lo devorará; consumirá lo que quede en su tienda. 27 Los cielos revelarán su iniquidad y la tierra se levantará contra él como un testigo. 28 La riqueza de su casa se desvanecerá; sus bienes fluirán en el día de la ira de Dios. 29 Esta es la porción del hombre malvado de parte de Dios, la herencia reservada para él por Dios."

Job 20:1

Información General:
Zofar responde a Job.

Zofar el naamatita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como lo tradujo en el 2:11. Como esta es la segunda vez que Zofar habla, algunas traducciones omiten "el Naamatita" aquí.

Mis pensamientos me hacen responder rápidamente
Los pensamientos de Zofar haciéndole hacer algo representan su fuerte deseo de hacer algo. Traducción Alterna: "Quiero responderle rápidamente"

a causa de la preocupación que está en mí
El sustantivo abstracto "preocupación" se puede expresar con el adjetivo "preocupado". La razón de la preocupación se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: "porque estoy muy preocupado por ti" o "porque estoy muy preocupado por lo que dijiste"

Yo escucho una reprensión que me deshonra
El sustantivo abstracto "reprensión" se puede expresar con el verbo "reprender". Traducción Alterna: "Te escucho reprenderme, y lo que dices me deshonra" o "Me insultas por cómo me reprendes"

un espíritu de mi entendimiento me contesta.
Aquí "espíritu" probablemente se refiere a un pensamiento o idea. Traducción Alterna: "un pensamiento desde mi entendimiento me responde"

un espíritu de mi entendimiento me contesta.
Se habla de este "espíritu" o pensamiento como si fuera una persona que pudiera responder a Zofar. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo un pensamiento de mi comprensión y ahora sé lo que quería saber"

un espíritu de mi entendimiento me contesta.
El contenido de la respuesta se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: "un pensamiento de mi entendimiento me responde acerca de cómo puedo responderte" o "Tengo un pensamiento de mi

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

entendimiento, y ahora sé cómo puedo responderte"

un espíritu de mi entendimiento me contesta.
Los sustantivos abstractos "espíritu" y "comprensión" pueden expresarse con los verbos "pensar" y "comprender". Traducción Alterna: Porque entiendo las cosas, pensé, y ahora sé cómo puedo responderte.

Job 20:4

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

¿No conoces este hecho de tiempos antiguos ... un momento?
Zofar usa una pregunta para hacer que Job piense profundamente sobre lo que ahora dirá. Traducción Alterna: "Seguramente sabes lo que ha sido verdad desde la antigüedad ... por un momento".

el triunfo de un hombre malvado es corto
El sustantivo abstracto "triunfo" se puede expresar con los verbos "triunfar" o "celebrar". Traducción Alterna: "el hombre malvado triunfa por poco tiempo" o "la persona malvada solo celebra por un momento"

el gozo de un hombre impío dura solamente un momento
El sustantivo abstracto "alegría" se puede expresar con el verbo "regocijar" o el adjetivo "feliz". La palabra "momento" es una exageración para enfatizar que el tiempo es muy corto. Traducción Alterna: "un hombre impío se regocija por un momento" o "el hombre impío está feliz por muy poco tiempo"

Job 20:6

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

Aunque su altura
"Aunque la altura de la persona malvada"

Aunque su altura alcance los cielos
el sustantivo abstracto "altura" se puede expresar con el adjetivo "alto". Traducción Alterna: "Aunque es tan alto como el cielo"

Aunque su altura alcance los cielos
La altura del malvado representa su reputación o su orgullo. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque su reputación llegue a los cielos" o "Aunque su orgullo llegue a los cielos"

Aunque su altura alcance los cielos
Aquí "llegar a los cielos" representa ser muy grande. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque su reputación es grandiosa" o "Aunque su orgullo es grandioso"

Aunque su altura alcance los cielos
El sustantivo abstracto "altura" representa su reputación u orgullo. Ambas ideas se pueden expresar con otros tipos de frases. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque la gente piensa que es un gran hombre" o "Aunque está muy orgulloso"

y su cabeza alcance las nubes
"aunque su cabeza es tan alta como las nubes". Esto también representa que su reputación u orgullo es grandioso. Esto significa lo mismo que la frase anterior.

perecerá permanentemente como sus propias heces
Las heces se mezclan con el suelo y desaparecen. La referencia a las heces también puede implicar que la persona malvada no vale nada. Traducción Alterna: "perecerá permanentemente como sus heces, que desaparecerán completamente en el suelo"

perecerá permanentemente como sus propias heces
Si la gente está avergonzada por la palabra heces, los traductores pueden referirse a otra cosa que desaparece por completo. Traducción Alterna: "desaparecerá permanentemente como el polvo que sopla el viento"

Job 20:8

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

Él hará
"La persona malvada lo hará"

Él desaparecerá como un sueño ... él será perseguido como a una visión de la noche Aquí "volar lejos" y "ser perseguido" representan la desaparición. También pueden implicar ser olvidados, ya que los sueños y las visiones desaparecen cuando las personas los olvidan. Traducción Alterna: "Él desaparecerá como un sueño ... será olvidado como una visión de la noche"

y no será encontrado
Esto se puede expresar de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "y nadie lo encontrará"

El ojo que lo vio
El ojo representa a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquiera que lo haya visto" o "Las personas que lo han visto"

su hogar
La frase "su lugar" representa a los que vivieron en su lugar. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que viven en su lugar" o "su familia"

Job 20:10

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus hijos
"Los hijos de la persona malvada"

sus manos tendrán que devolver su riqueza.
Aquí "manos" se refiere a los hijos del malvado. Cuando muera, sus hijos tendrán que devolver todo lo que tomó de los demás.

Sus huesos están llenos de fuerza juvenil
Sus "huesos" representan su cuerpo. Estar "lleno" de fuerza juvenil representa ser fuerte como una persona joven. Traducción Alterna: "Su cuerpo es fuerte como el cuerpo de una persona joven"

pero ella será enterrada con él en el polvo
La palabra "ello" se refiere a su fuerza juvenil. El metonimo "acostarse en el polvo" representa morir. La fuerza de morir es una metáfora para desaparecer. Traducción Alterna: "pero su fuerza juvenil morirá con él" o "pero su fuerza juvenil desaparecerá cuando muera"

Job 20:12

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

A pesar de que la maldad es dulce en su boca Aquí "la maldad es dulce" representa a una persona que disfruta haciendo cosas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque hacer cosas malvadas es placentero como probar comida dulce en la boca"

a pesar de que él la esconde ... no la deja ir Esto representa querer seguir disfrutando de la maldad como uno quiere continuar disfrutando de una comida sabrosa manteniéndola en la boca.

la comida en sus intestinos se vuelve amarga Cuando la comida se vuelve amarga en el estómago, causa dolor y un sabor amargo. Esta es una metáfora para una persona que experimenta las dolorosas consecuencias de hacer cosas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "esas cosas malvadas se vuelven como la comida que se ha vuelto amarga en el estómago" o "las consecuencias de esas cosas malvadas son dolorosas como la comida que se vuelve amarga en el estómago"

se convierte en el veneno de áspides dentro de él Esta imagen es uso peor que la comida agria en el estómago. Esta es una metáfora para una persona que experimenta las terribles consecuencias de hacer cosas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "las consecuencias de hacer esas cosas malvadas son dolorosas como el veneno de los áspides dentro de él"

áspides
"veneno de serpientes"

Job 20:15

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

Él traga riquezas ... las sacará de su estómago
Zofar habla de ganar y perder riqueza como si fuera comida que una persona come y vomita. Traducción Alterna: "La persona malvada se vuelve muy rica, pero pierde su riqueza como una persona que vomita su comida. Dios hace que lo pierda todo"

Él traga riquezas
Los posibles significados de "traga riquezas" representa 1) acumular riquezas y almacenarlas de manera egoísta. Traducción Alterna: "El hombre malvado gana mucha riqueza y se lo guarda todo para sí mismo" o 2) acumula riquezas de maneras malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "El hombre malvado roba mucha riqueza"

Dios las sacará de su estómago
Aquí "las sacará de su estómago" es una metonimia para hacer que el hombre los vomite. Esta es una metáfora para hacer que el hombre pierda sus riquezas.

Sacará
"lanzará

Él chupará el veneno de áspides Aquí "chupar el veneno de los áspides" representa hacer cosas malas. Ambos son muy peligrosos. Traducción Alterna: "Hacer cosas malas es como chupar el veneno de los asps" o "Hará cosas malas y pondrá en peligro su vida como una persona que chupa el veneno de los asps"

áspides
Serpientes venenosas

la lengua de víbora lo matará.
La víbora es una serpiente venenosa. Su lengua representa su mordedura venenosa. Traducción Alterna: "la picadura venenosa de la víbora lo matará" o "la víbora lo morderá y morirá"

la lengua de víbora lo matará.
La víbora representa la maldad del hombre. Traducción Alterna: "su maldad lo matará como la mordedura de una víbora"

Job 20:17

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

las corrientes, las torrentes de miel y mantequilla.
Las corrientes y torrentes son metáforas que representan la abundancia. La miel y la mantequilla son metonimos que representan las cosas buenas que Dios le da a las personas. Traducción Alterna:

"la abundancia de cosas buenas que Dios le da a su pueblo"

el fruto de su labor Normalmente "el fruto de su trabajo" simplemente se refiere a los resultados de su trabajo. En este caso se refiere a las cosas que el malvado había robado. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que había trabajado para conseguir" o "las cosas que había robado"

y no será capaz de comerlo Aquí "comer" el fruto de su trabajo representa disfrutar de las cosas que había robado. Traducción Alterna: "y no podrá disfrutarlos"

Job 20:20

No queda nada que él no haya devorado
Esto se puede reformular con solo uno de los aspectos negativos. Traducción Alterna: "Devoró todo, y no queda nada" o "No queda nada porque lo devoró todo"

No queda nada que él no haya devorado
Aquí "devorar" representa tomar cosas para sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "No queda nada que no haya tomado para sí" o "Se ha llevado todo para sí y no queda nada"

él caerá en tribulación
"De repente experimentará problemas"

la mano de todos quienes están en pobreza vendrán en contra de él Aquí "mano" representa poder, y "mano ... vendrá contra él" representa a las personas que lo atacan. El sustantivo abstracto "pobreza" se puede expresar con el adjetivo "pobre". Traducción Alterna: "todos los que están en la pobreza lo atacarán" o "todos los pobres lo atacarán"

Job 20:23

Información General:
Zofar continúa hablando con Job.

llenar su estómago
Aquí "llenar su estómago" es una metonimia que significa comer mucho.

Dios lanzará la ferocidad de Su ira sobre él
La "ferocidad de su ira" representa la ira y el castigo de Dios. Lanzar el castigo sobre él representa castigarlo severamente. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se enojará y arrojará su castigo sobre él" o "Dios se enojará y lo castigará severamente"

Dios la hará llover sobre él
"Dios hará que llueva sobre él". Aquí "llover sobre él" representa causarle mucho castigo al hombre. "Dios lo castigará severamente"

huirá del arma de hierro
El arma de hierro representa a la persona que lo porta. Traducción Alterna: "huirá de la persona que lleva un arma de hierro"

un arco de bronce le disparará El arco representa a la persona que dispara una flecha con él. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien con un arco de bronce le disparará"

hígado
Esta es una parte grande e importante del cuerpo. Si alguien dispara a través de él con una flecha, la persona que recibe el disparo moriría.

terrores vienen sobre él.
Esto lo representa repentinamente muy asustado. Traducción Alterna: "está aterrorizado"

Job 20:26

Completa oscuridad está reservada para sus tesoros
La "oscuridad total" es una metáfora de la destrucción. Traducción Alterna: "La destrucción está reservada para sus tesoros" o "Sus tesoros serán destruidos"

un fuego no avivado lo devorará
Aquí "devorará" es una metáfora que significa destruir. Traducción Alterna: "un fuego que no se aviva lo destruirá"

un fuego no avivado lo devorará
La frase "no avivado" implica que ningún humano iniciará el fuego. Más bien Dios causará el fuego. Traducción Alterna: "un fuego que no es iniciado por humanos lo destruirá" o "Dios causará que un fuego lo destruya"

consumirá
Aquí "consumir" es una metáfora que significa destruir. Traducción Alterna: "el fuego destruirá"

Los cielos ... la tierra
Los significados posibles son: 1) los que viven en los cielos y la tierra , o 2) Zofhar está describiendo los cielos y la tierra como si fueran humanos que testificarán en la corte contra la persona malvada.

Job 20:28

Información General:
Esto concluye el discurso de Zofar a Job.

desvanecerá
"desaparecer" o "irse"

sus bienes fluirán
Aquí "fluirán" representa ser quitado de él. Traducción Alterna: "sus bienes le serán quitados, como bienes que flotan en una inundación"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sus bienes
"sus posesiones"

El día de la ira de Dios
Aquí "ira" representa el castigo. El sustantivo abstracto "ira" se puede expresar con el verbo castigar. Traducción Alterna: "el día en que Dios castiga a las personas"

Esta es la porción del hombre malvado de parte de Dios Aquí "de parte de Dios" representa lo que Dios ha decidido que debería pasarle a alguien. Se habla como si fuera algo que Dios le daría. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que Dios decidió que debería pasarle al hombre malvado"

a herencia reservada para él por Dios Esto representa lo que Dios ha decidido que debería pasarle a alguien. Se habla como si fuera algo que Dios le daría como herencia. Traducción Alterna: "lo que Dios ha planeado darle" o "lo que Dios ha planeado debería sucederle"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 Entonces Job contestó y dijo: 2 "Escucha cuidadosamente mis palabras y permite que éstas sean el consuelo que tú me ofreces a mí. 3 Sopórtame y yo también hablaré; después de que yo haya hablado, sigue mofándote. 4 En cuanto a mí, ¿es mi queja a una persona? ¿Por qué yo no debería ser impaciente? 5 Mírame y espántate y coloca tu mano sobre tu boca. 6 Cuando yo pienso acerca de mis sufrimientos, yo estoy aterrorizado, y temblores se apoderan de mi cuerpo. 7 ¿Por qué gente malvada continúa viviendo, envejecen, y crecen podesoros en poder? 8 Sus descendientes están establecidos con ellos a su vista y su descendencia está establecida delante de sus ojos. 9 Sus casas están protegidas del temor; tampoco está la vara de Dios sobre ellos. 10 Su toro engendra; no falla al hacerlo; su vaca pare y no pierde su becerro prematuramente. 11 Ellos envían a sus pequeños como a un rebaño y sus hijos bailan. 12 Ellos cantan al tamborín y al arpa y se regocijan con la música de la flauta. 13 Ellos pasan sus días en prosperidad y ellos bajan silenciosamente al Seol. 14 Ellos le dicen a Dios: 'Aléjate de nosotros porque no deseamos ningún conocimiento de Tus caminos. 15 ¿Qué es el Todopoderoso, que nosotros deberíamos adorarlo? ¿Qué ventaja nosotros tendríamos si oramos a Él? 16 Ves, ¿no está su prosperidad en sus propias manos? Yo no tengo nada que ver con el consejo de personas malvadas. 17 ¿Cuán a menudo es que la lámpara de personas malvadas se apaga, o que su calamidad viene sobre ellos? ¿Cuán a menudo ocurre que Dios distribuye penas a ellos en Su ira? 18 ¿Cuán a menudo es que ellos se vuelven como el residuo de la cosecha delante del viento o como paja que la tormenta se lleva lejos? 19 Tú dices: 'Dios amontona la culpa de uno para que sus hijos paguen.' 20 Deja que él mismo la pague para que él pueda conocer su culpa. Deja que sus ojos vean su propia destrucción y deja que él beba de la ira del Todopoderoso. 21 Pues, ¿qué le importa a él su familia después de él, cuando el número de sus meses se ha cortado? 22 ¿Puede alguien enseñarle a Dios conocimiento, puesto que Él es quien juzga incluso a aquellos que están en lo alto? 23 Un hombre muere en su completa fuerza, estando completamente callado y en quietud. 24 Su cuerpo está lleno de leche y la médula de sus huesos está húmeda y en buena salud. 25 Otro hombre muere en amargura de su alma, uno quien nunca ha experimentado nada bueno. 26 Ellos se acuestan igual en el polvo; los gusanos los cubren a ambos. 27 Ves, yo conozco tus pensamientos y las maneras en las cuales tú deseas hacerme daño. 28 Pues tú dices: '¿Dónde está ahora la casa del príncipe? ¿Dónde está la tienda en la cual el hombre malvado una vez vivió?' 29 ¿Nunca le has preguntado a personas viajeras? ¿No conoces la evidencia que ellos pueden contar, 30 que el hombre malvado es guardado del día de calamidad, y que él es llevado lejos del día de la ira? 31 ¿Quién condenará el camino del hombre malvado a su cara? ¿Quién le pagará el mal que él ha hecho? 32 Sin embargo, él será llevado al sepulcro; hombres mantendrán vigilancia sobre su tumba. 33 Los terrones del valle les serán dulce; todas las personas seguirán tras él, así como hubo innumerables personas delante de él. 34 ¿Cómo entonces tú me consuelas con tonterías, si en tus respuestas no hay nada más que falsedad?"

Job 21:1

Oración de Enlace
Job comienza a responder las acusaciones de Zophar.

Sopórtame
"Permítame" o "Sea paciente conmigo"

sigue mofándote
"Puedes seguir burlándote de mí". Job está usando el sarcasmo para dar a entender que sus amigos ignorarían lo que él diría y continuarían burlándose de él.

Job 21:4

Oración de enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

En cuanto a mí, ¿es mi queja a una persona? ¿Por qué yo no debería ser impaciente?
Job usa preguntas para enfatizar que él piensa que es justo que él se queje ante Dios. Traducción Alterna: "No me estoy quejando con una persona. Tengo derecho a ser impaciente"

coloca tu mano sobre tu boca
"Cúbrete la boca con la mano". Los posibles significados son que 1) esta es una respuesta al asombro. Traducción Alterna: "cúbrase la boca con la mano" o 2) este es un símbolo que la persona no hablará. Traducción Alterna: "no digas nada"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

temblores se apoderan de mi cuerpo.
"el miedo hace temblar mi cuerpo" o "tiemblo de miedo"

Job 21:7

Oración de enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

¿Por qué gente malvada continúa viviendo, envejecen, y crecen podesoros en poder?
Job usa esta pregunta para mostrar que sus amigos están equivocados al pensar que los hombres malvados siempre sufren. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas malvadas de hecho continúan viviendo, envejeciendo y enriqueciéndose".

Sus descendientes están establecidos con ellos a su vista ... su descendencia está establecida delante de sus ojos.
Estas dos cláusulas significan lo mismo y enfatizan que esto es cierto.

a su vista ... delante de sus ojos.
Estas frases significan lo mismo porque "ojos" se refiere a la vista. Las personas malvadas pueden ver a sus descendientes hacerse fuertes y ricos.

Sus casas
Aquí "casas" se refiere a los miembros de la familia que viven en ellas. Traducción Alterna: "Sus familias"

vara de Dios
Esto se refiere al castigo de Dios.

Job 21:10

Oración de enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

no pierde su becerro prematuramente
"ella no aborta" o "su cría nace sana y fuerte"

sus pequeños como a un rebaño
Job compara a estos niños con los corderos para enfatizar que corren, juegan y son felices.

Tamborín
Un instrumento musical con una cabeza como un tambor que puede ser golpeado y con piezas de metal alrededor del lado que suenan cuando se sacude el instrumento

Job 21:13

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

sus días
"su vida"

ellos bajan silenciosamente al Seol Esta es una manera educada de decir que mueren. Traducción Alterna: "mueren pacíficamente"

Tus caminos
Esto se refiere a cómo Dios quiere que las personas se comporten.

¿Qué es el Todopoderoso, que nosotros deberíamos adorarlo? ¿Qué ventaja nosotros tendríamos si oramos a Él?
La gente malvada usa estas preguntas para burlarse de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "No creemos que este Dios Todopoderoso sea digno de nuestra adoración. No puede hacer nada por nosotros".

Job 21:16

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

Ves, ¿no está su prosperidad en sus propias manos?
Aquí "manos" se refiere a su poder o control. Job usa esta pregunta para desafiar a sus amigos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Mira, estas personas malvadas afirman que se hacen prosperar!"

¿Cuán a menudo es que ... su calamidad viene sobre ellos?
Se habla de la muerte de los malvados como si fueran inútiles, menos que la paja y rastrojos que se desvanecen. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se los lleva como el viento sopla la paja"

la lámpara de personas malvadas se apaga Job compara apagar la lámpara con una persona que muere. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que Dios hace que mueran repentinamente"

la lámpara de personas malvadas
Job compara la vida de los impíos con una lámpara encendida.

¿Cuán a menudo ocurre ... en Su ira?
Job usa esta segunda pregunta para enfatizar que le parece que Dios no castiga a los malvados muy a menudo. Traducción Alterna: "No es frecuente ... en su ira".

¿Cuán a menudo ocurre ... la tormenta se lleva lejos?
Job usa esta tercera pregunta para enfatizar que le parece que Dios no castiga a los malvados muy a menudo. Traducción Alterna: "No es frecuente ... la tormenta se lleva?"

ellos se vuelven como el residuo de la cosecha delante del viento o como paja que la tormenta se lleva lejos?
Se habla de la muerte de los malvados como si fueran inútiles, menos paja y rastrojos que se desvanecen. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se los lleva como el viento sopla la paja"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 21:19

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

Tú dices:
La mayoría de las versiones agregan estas palabras para dejar en claro que Job está citando a sus amigos en la siguiente declaración.

Dios amontona la culpa de uno para que sus hijos paguen
Se habla de culpa como algo que se puede almacenar para su uso posterior. Aquí "paguen" se refiere al castigo por el pecado. Traducción Alterna: "Dios lleva un registro de los pecados de una persona, luego castiga a los hijos de la persona por sus malas acciones"

Deja que él mismo la pague
Job ahora comienza a expresar su propia opinión. Puede ser útil declarar esto explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "Pero yo digo, 'que lo pague él mismo'"

Deja que sus ojos vean Aquí "ojos" se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna : "Déjalo ver"

deja que él beba de la ira del Todopoderoso
Aquí se habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera una bebida que una persona puede saborear, y probar es una metonimia para experimentar la bebida. Job quiere que la persona malvada experimente el castigo de Dios.

Pues, ¿qué le importa a él su familia después de él, cuando el número de sus meses se ha cortado?
Job usa esta pregunta para mostrar que castigar a los hijos del malvado no es efectivo. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "¡Porque el hombre malvado no se preocupa por su familia después de su muerte!"

el número de sus meses se ha cortado Esta es una manera educada de decir que él muere.

el número de sus meses
esto se refiere a la duración de su vida

Job 21:22

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

¿Puede alguien enseñarle a Dios conocimiento, puesto que Él es quien juzga incluso a aquellos que están en lo alto?
Job hace esta pregunta para enfatizar que Dios lo sabe todo. Traducción Alterna: "Obviamente, nadie puede enseñarle nada a Dios, ya que incluso juzga a los que están en el cielo".

aquellos que están en lo alto?
Los significados posibles son 1) "los que están en el cielo" (UDB) o 2) "personas poderosas".

Un hombre muere en su completa fuerza
Job contrasta a este hombre que muere en salud y paz con el hombre que muere en pena y dolor en el 21:25. Puedes hacer esto explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Si hay dos hombres, uno puede morir en toda su fuerza"

Su cuerpo está lleno de leche
Ambos significan que la persona es muy saludable.

Su cuerpo está lleno de leche ... la médula de sus huesos está húmeda y en buena salud.
Ambas frases significan que la persona es muy saludable.

Su cuerpo está lleno de leche
La palabra para "leche" puede significar "grasa". Cualquiera de las dos representaciones significa que está bien alimentado. Traducción Alterna: "Su cuerpo está lleno de grasa"

la médula de sus huesos está húmeda y en buena salud.
Esta expresión significa que su cuerpo es juvenil y saludable.

Job 21:25

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

Otro hombre muere
Job contrasta a este hombre con el hombre que muere en paz en 21:22.

en amargura de su alma Aquí se habla del dolor como si supiera amargo, y "alma" se refiere al hombre completo. Traducción Alterna: "con ira y resentimiento" o "después de vivir una vida triste"

nunca ha experimentado nada bueno Esto puede ser expreado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "ha experimentado solo cosas malas"

Ellos se acuestan igual en el polvo Esta es una manera educada de decir que murieron. Traducción Alterna: "Ambos mueren y la gente los entierra" los gusanos los cubren a ambos.

Los gusanos están asociados con la descomposición de los cuerpos muertos. Traducción Alterna: "los gusanos en la tierra se comen sus cadáveres"

Job 21:27

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ves
Job usa esta frase para llamar la atención sobre la declaración que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "He aquí"

¿Dónde está ahora la casa del príncipe? ¿Dónde está la tienda en la cual el hombre malvado una vez vivió?
Job cree que sus amigos harán estas preguntas para regañarlo. Ambas preguntas significan lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Mira, la casa del malvado gobernante se ha ido. La tienda del malvado ha desaparecido".

Job 21:29

Oración de Enlace
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

¿Nunca le has preguntado a personas viajeras? ¿No conoces la evidencia que ellos pueden contar ... del día de calamidad Job usa estas preguntas para reprender a sus amigos por no aprender de las personas que viajan. Traducción Alterna: "Deberías escuchar a aquellos que han viajado a lugares distantes. Incluso ellos te dirán ... desde el día de la ira".

que el hombre malvado es guardado del día de calamidad ... y que él es llevado lejos del día de la ira Job usa estas preguntas para reprender a sus amigos por no aprender de las personas que viajan. Traducción Alterna: "Deberías escuchar a aquellos que han viajado a lugares distantes. Incluso ellos te dirán ... desde el día de la ira".

Job 21:31

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando con sus amigos.

¿Quién condenará el camino del hombre malvado a su cara?
Job usa esta pregunta para contradecir la creencia de sus amigos de que los malvados siempre son juzgados. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie condena al malvado a la cara".

a su cara
Esto significa que nadie irá directamente a la persona malvada y lo condenará personalmente.

¿Quién le pagará el mal que él ha hecho?
Job usa esta pregunta para contradecir la creencia de sus amigos de que los malvados siempre son juzgados. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie le paga por las cosas malas que ha hecho".

él será llevado al sepulcro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente lo llevará"

Los terrones del valle les serán dulce
Job imagina que la persona muerta incluso disfrutará de la suciedad que se le pone. Esto significa que la persona malvada incluso tendrá una buena muerte y un buen entierro después de una vida plena. Los "terrones" se refieren a la tierra que cubre la tumba. Traducción Alterna: "Disfrutará estar cubierto con la tierra del valle" o "Disfrutará ser enterrado en la tierra del valle" todas las personas seguirán tras él, así como hubo innumerables personas delante de él.

Job enfatiza que una gran multitud de personas estará en la procesión fúnebre de este hombre malvado imaginario para honrarlo. Traducción Alterna: "una gran cantidad de personas van a la tumba; algunos van delante de la procesión y otros van detrás"

Job 21:34

Oración de Enlace:
Esto concluye el discurso de Job a sus amigos.

¿Cómo entonces tú me consuelas con tonterías, si en tus respuestas no hay nada más que falsedad?"
Job usa una pregunta para regañar a sus amigos. Traducción Alterna: "No puedes consolarme con tonterías. Todas tus respuestas son falsas".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 Entonces Elifaz el temanita contestó y dijo: 2 "¿Puede un hombre ser útil para Dios? ¿Puede un hombre sabio ser útil para Él? 3 ¿Es de placer para el Todopoderoso si eres recto? ¿Es de ganancia para Él si haces tus caminos sin culpa? 4 ¿Es a causa de tu reverencia hacia Él que te reprende y te lleva a juicio? 5 ¿No es tu maldad grande? ¿No hay fin a tus iniquidades? 6 Pues tú has demandado garantía de un préstamo de tu hermano sin razón y has quitado ropa de los desnudos. 7 Tú no has dado agua a la gente cansada para que beba; has retenido pan de la gente hambrienta 8 aunque tú, un hombre fuerte, poseíste la tierra, aunque tú, un hombre de honor, viviste en ella. 9 Has echado a las viudas lejos y sin nada; los brazos de los huérfanos han sido rotos. 10 Por lo tanto, hay trampas a tu alrededor, y el miedo repentino te aflige. 11 Hay oscuridad, para que no puedas ver; una abundancia de aguas te cubre. 12 ¿No está Dios en las alturas del cielo? ¡Mira la altura de las estrellas, cuán alto están! 13 Tú dices, '¿Qué sabe Dios? ¿Puede Él juzgar a través de la espesa oscuridad? 14 Las nubes espesas son una cobertura para Él para que no nos vea; Él camina en la bóveda del cielo.' 15 Guardarás el antiguo camino que los hombres malvados han caminado- 16 aquellos que fueron arrebatados antes de su tiempo, aquellos cuyos cimientos se han eliminado como un río, 17 aquellos que dijeron a Dios: 'Apártate de nosotros;' aquellos que dijeron: '¿Qué nos puede hacer el Todopoderoso a nosotros?' 18 Sin embargo, Él llenó sus casas de cosas buenas; los planes de la gente malvada están lejos de mí. 19 La gente recta ve su destino y está alegre; la gente inocente se ríe de ellos con desdén. 20 Ellos dicen: 'Seguramente aquellos que se levantaron en contra de nosotros son cortados; el fuego ha consumido sus posesiones.' 21 Ahora ponte de acuerdo con Dios y ten paz con Él; de esa manera, el bien vendrá a ti. 22 Recibe, te suplico, instrucciones de Su boca; guarda Sus palabras en tu corazón. 23 Si regresas al Todopoderoso, serás edificado, si pones la injusticia lejos de tus tiendas. 24 Deposita tu tesoro en el polvo, el oro de Ofir entre las piedras de los arroyos, 25 y el Todopoderoso será tu tesoro, plata preciosa para ti. 26 Pues entonces tendrás placer en el Todopoderoso; levantarás tu rostro a Dios. 27 Harás tu oración a Él y Él te escuchará; pagarás tus votos a Él. 28 Tú también decretarás cualquier cosa y será confirmada para ti; la luz brillará en tus caminos. 29 Dios humilla a un hombre orgulloso y salva al que tiene sus ojos bajos. 30 Él rescatará hasta al hombre que no es inocente; quien será rescatado a través de la limpieza de tus manos."

Job 22:1

Elifaz el temanita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como en el 2:11.

¿Puede un hombre ser útil para Dios? ¿Puede un hombre sabio ser útil para Él?
Elifaz usa preguntas para enfatizar que las acciones o la sabiduría de una persona no benefician a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre no puede ser útil para Dios. Un hombre sabio no puede ser útil para él".

¿Es de placer para el Todopoderoso si eres recto? ¿Es de ganancia para Él si haces tus caminos sin culpa?
Ambas declaraciones significan lo mismo. Elifaz usa preguntas para enfatizar que las acciones de Job no ayudan a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "El Todopoderoso no recibe ningún placer si eres justo. No gana nada si haces que tus caminos sean irreprensibles".

Job 22:4

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

¿Es a causa de tu reverencia hacia Él que te reprende y te lleva a juicio?¿No es tu maldad grande? ¿No hay fin a tus iniquidades?
Elifaz usa preguntas para regañar a Job y acusarlo de cometer pecados terribles. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ciertamente no es porque te hayas dedicado a él que Dios te reprenda y te lleve a juicio! ¡No, como sabes, él te juzga porque tu maldad es grande y sigues pecando!"

Job 22:6

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

Pues tú has demandado garantía de un préstamo
Esto se refiere a un prestamista que toma algo del prestatario para asegurarse de que el prestatario le devuelva el dinero.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

has quitado ropa de los desnudos Elifaz está acusando a Job de quitarle la ropa a los pobres que le pidieron prestado.

has retenido pan
Aquí "pan" se refiere a la comida en general. Traducción Alterna: "comida retenida" poseíste la tierra ... viviste en ella.

Elifaz está acusando a Job de quitarle la tierra a la gente pobre y no permitirle vivir de ella. Está enfatizando este punto repitiéndolo dos veces.

poseíste la tierra
Elifaz está exagerando sobre la cantidad de tierra que Job poseía para retratar a Job como codicioso. Traducción Alterna: "poseía una gran cantidad de tierra"

Job 22:9

Oración de Enlace:
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

Has echado a las viudas lejos y sin nada
"Hiciste que las viudas se fueran sin nada"

viudas
mujeres cuyos maridos han muerto

los brazos de los huérfanos han sido rotos Aquí "brazos" se refieren al poder. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "incluso oprimiste a los huérfanos" hay trampas a tu alrededor ... Hay oscuridad ... una abundancia de aguas Cada una de estas metáforas significa que hay problemas y peligros en todo Job debido a su pecado.

una abundancia de aguas
"una inundación"

Job 22:12

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

¿No está Dios en las alturas del cielo?
Elifaz usa esta pregunta para sugerir que Dios vea el pecado de Job y lo juzgue. Traducción Alterna: "Dios está en las alturas del cielo y ve todo lo que sucede en la tierra".

¡Mira la altura de las estrellas, cuán alto están!
Elifaz implica que Dios es más alto que las estrellas. Esto puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Mire qué tan altas son las estrellas. Dios está incluso por encima de ellas" ¿Qué sabe Dios? ¿Puede Él juzgar a través de la espesa oscuridad?

Elifaz usa estas preguntas para implicar que Job ha dicho estas cosas en contra de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no sabe lo que sucede en la tierra. Se sienta en las nubes oscuras y no puede juzgarnos".

Él camina en la bóveda del cielo.
Aquí "bóveda" se refiere a la barrera que la gente antigua creía que separaba la tierra del cielo. Traducción Alterna: "vive demasiado lejos en el cielo para ver lo que sucede aquí"

Job 22:15

Oración de Enlace:
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

Guardarás el antiguo camino que los hombres malvados han caminado Aquí el hacer actos malvados se compara con caminar en un camino. Traducción Alterna: "¿Continuarás haciendo las cosas que hacen los malvados"

aquellos que fueron arrebatados Aquí se habla de morir como si Dios se los arrebatara. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los que murieron" o "los que Dios se llevó"

aquellos cuyos cimientos se han eliminado como un río
Se habla de la muerte de las personas malvadas como si fueran edificios que tuvieron sus cimientos arrastrados por una inundación.

¿Qué nos puede hacer el Todopoderoso a nosotros?
Las citas de Elifaz cuestionan a las personas malvadas que se burlan de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "¡El Todopoderoso no puede hacernos nada!"

Job 22:18

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

los planes de la gente malvada están lejos de mí
La expresión idiomática "lejos de mí" significa que Elifaz los rechaza. Traducción Alterna: "pero no escucharé sus planes malvados"

ve su destino
"saber qué pasará con los malvados"

se ríe de ellos con desdén
"burlarse de los malvados"

aquellos que se levantaron en contra de nosotros son cortados Aquí "que se levantaron" se refieren a las personas malvadas. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción Alterna: "Dios ha destruido a las personas malvadas que nos hicieron daño"

Job 22:21

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

Ahora
Elifaz usa esta palabra para presentar algo importante que está a punto de decir.

instrucciones de Su boca Aquí "de su boca" representa lo que Dios ha hablado. Traducción Alterna: "la instrucción que Dios ha hablado"

guarda Sus palabras Aquí se habla de las palabras de Dios, ya que son tesoros que Job podría guardar en un almacén. Traducción Alterna: "atesora sus órdenes" en tu corazón.

Aquí "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos de Job. Traducción Alterna: "tu mente" (UDB)

Job 22:23

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

serás edificado
Elifaz compara la restauración de Job con la reconstrucción de una casa que ha caído. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "él te curará y te hará prosperar de nuevo" si pones la injusticia lejos de tus tiendas Aquí la injusticia es representada como una persona que está viviendo en la tienda de Job que debe ser removida. Traducción Alterna: "si usted y todos en su casa dejan de pecar"

Deposita tu tesoro en el polvo Poner un tesoro en el polvo es tratarlo como sin importancia. Traducción Alterna: "Considera que tus riquezas no son tan importantes como el polvo"

el oro de Ofir entre las piedras de los arroyos Poner oro en la corriente es tratarlo como si no tuviera más valor que las piedras. Traducción Alterna: "tu oro será tan inútil como las piedras en una corriente"

Ofir
Este es el nombre de una región famosa por su oro.

el Todopoderoso será tu tesoro, plata preciosa para ti.
Esto significa que Dios será más valioso para Job que cualquier tesoro.

Job 22:26

Oración de Enlace
Elifaz continúa hablando con Job.

levantarás tu rostro a Dios Esto significa que Job ya no se avergonzará, sino que confiará en Dios. Traducción Alterna: "podrás acercarte a él con confianza"

será confirmada para ti Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios hará que tengas éxito"

la luz brillará en tus caminos
Se habla de la bendición de Dios como si hubiera una luz en todos los caminos de Job. Traducción Alterna: "será como si una luz estuviera brillando en la carretera frente a ti"

Job 22:29

Oración de enlace
Esto concluye el discurso de Elifaz a Job.

al que tiene sus ojos bajos.
Aquí "ojos bajos" se refiere a la humildad. Traducción Alterna: "la persona humilde"

al hombre que no es inocente Algunas versiones dicen, "incluso un hombre que no es inocente".

quien será rescatado a través de la limpieza de tus manos Algunas versiones dicen, "será rescatado a través de la limpieza de sus manos". Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios te rescatará por la limpieza de tus manos"

a través de la limpieza de tus manos Aquí "limpieza" se refiere a la inocencia y "manos" se refiere a lo que hace una persona. Traducción Alterna: "porque haces lo correcto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 Entonces Job contestó y dijo: 2 "Incluso hoy mi queja es amarga; mi mano es pesada a causa de mi gemir. 3 ¡Oh, si yo supiera dónde yo pudiera encontrarlo! ¡Oh, que yo pueda venir a Su lugar! 4 Yo pondría mi caso en orden delante de Él y llenaría mi boca con argumentos. 5 Yo aprendería las palabras con las cuales Él me contestaría y entendería lo que Él me diría a mí. 6 ¿Él argumentaría en mi contra en la grandeza de su poder? No, Él me prestaría atención a mí. 7 Allí la persona recta puede argumentar con Él. En esta manera yo sería perdonado para siempre por mi juez. 8 Vean, yo voy hacia el este, pero Él no está ahí, y hacia el oeste, pero yo no Lo puedo percibir. 9 Al norte, donde Él está trabajando, pero yo no puedo verlo, y al sur, donde Él se esconde para que yo no pueda verlo. 10 Pero Él conoce el camino que yo tomo; cuando Él me ha probado, yo saldré como el oro. 11 Mi pie se ha mantenido rápido a Sus pasos; yo me he mantenido en Su camino y no me he volteado a un lado. 12 Yo no he retrocedido del mandamiento de Sus labios; yo he atesorado las palabras de Su boca más que mi porción de comida. 13 Pero Él es único en su clase, ¿quién puede hacerle cambiar? Lo que Él desea, Él hace. 14 Pues Él lleva a cabo Su decreto en contra de mí; hay muchos como esos. 15 Por lo tanto, yo estoy aterrorizado en Su presencia; cuando yo pienso en Él, yo tengo miedo de Él. 16 Pues Dios ha hecho mi corazón débil; el Todopoderoso me ha aterrorizado. 17 Yo no he sido llevado a un final por causa de la oscuridad, a causa de la oscuridad espesa que cubre la melancolía de mi rostro.

Job 23:1

Incluso hoy mi queja es amarga Aquí "Incluso hoy" enfatiza que los argumentos de sus amigos no han cambiado la situación de Job en absoluto. Traducción Alterna: "A pesar de lo que has dicho, mi queja sigue siendo amarga"

mi queja es amarga
Job habla de su queja sin respuesta contra Dios como si fuera un sabor amargo en su boca. Traducción Alterna: "mi queja sin respuesta es tan mala como la comida amarga en mi boca" mi mano es pesada a causa de mi gemir.

Los posibles significados son 1) "Apenas puedo levantar mi mano debido a mi sufrimiento" o 2) "su mano continúa haciéndome sufrir a pesar de mi gemido" donde "mano" se refiere al poder de Dios para castigar.

Job 23:3

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

¡Oh, si yo supiera dónde ... ¡Oh, que yo pueda venir Estas dos líneas significan lo mismo y enfatizan el deseo de Job de encontrarse con Dios.

yo pudiera encontrarlo
"Podría encontrar a Dios"

Yo pondría mi caso ... llenaría mi boca
Estas dos líneas significan lo mismo y enfatizan el deseo de Job de explicar su situación a Dios.

llenaría mi boca con argumentos Aquí "llenaría mi boca" se refiere a hablar. Traducción Alterna: "Yo hablaría todos mis argumentos"

Yo aprendería las palabras ... cuales Él me contestaría Estas dos líneas significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan el deseo de Job de escuchar la respuesta de Dios.

las palabras con las cuales Él me contestaría
"la respuesta que me daría"

Job 23:6

Oración de Enlace
Job sigue hablando.

Él argumentaría
"Haría Dios"

Allí
Esto se refiere al lugar donde está Dios.

yo sería perdonado para siempre por mi juez.
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "mi juez me absolvería para siempre" o "Dios, que es mi juez, diría que soy inocente de una vez por todas"

Job 23:8

Oración de Enlace
Job sigue hablando.

este ... oeste ... norte ... sur
Al mencionar estas cuatro direcciones, Job enfatiza que ha buscado en todas partes.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 23:10

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

Él conoce el camino que yo tomo
Se habla de las acciones de Job como un camino por el que camina. Traducción Alterna: "Dios sabe lo que hago"

yo saldré como el oro
Job cree que la prueba demostrará que es tan puro como el oro refinado. Traducción Alterna: "verá que soy tan puro como el oro cuyas impurezas se han quemado"

Mi pie se ha mantenido rápido a Sus pasos Aquí "Mi pie" se refiere a Job. Traducción Alterna: "He seguido el camino que me ha mostrado" yo me he mantenido en Su camino Se habla de la obediencia de Job como si estuviera caminando en un camino que Dios le mostró. Traducción Alterna: "He hecho lo que me dijo que hiciera"

no me he volteado
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "lo siguió con precisión"

Yo no he retrocedido Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "obedeció lo que ordenó" (UDB)

de Sus labios
Esta frase se refiere al mensaje que Dios habló. Traducción Alterna: "que Él habló" yo he atesorado Aquí "mi corazón" se refiere al ser interior de Job. Traducción Alterna: He almacenado en mi ser interior "o" Pienso constantemente en "

las palabras de Su boca Esto se refiere al discurso de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "lo que dijo"

Job 23:13

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

Pero Él es único en su clase, ¿quién puede hacerle cambiar?
Job usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que Dios es único. Traducción Alterna: "Pero no hay nadie como Él, y nadie puede hacer que cambie de opinión". o "Pero él solo es Dios, y nadie puede influir en él"

Lo que Él desea, Él hace.
"Él logra hacer lo que quiera"

Él lleva a cabo Su decreto en contra de mí
"Me está haciendo lo que dijo que haría"

hay muchos como esos.
"Él tiene muchos planes similares para mí"

Job 23:15

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

Información General:
Cada uno de estos versículos tiene la forma de un paralelismo para enfatizar el punto principal que Job hace allí.

Pues Dios ha hecho mi corazón débil; el Todopoderoso me ha aterrorizado.
Estas dos líneas significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que Job tiene mucho miedo de Dios.

ha hecho mi corazón débil
Una persona cuyo corazón es débil es una persona tímida o temerosa. Traducción Alterna: "me hizo tener miedo"

Yo no he sido llevado a un final por causa de la oscuridad Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Los posibles significados son 1) Traducción Alterna: "La espesa oscuridad frente a mí no me ha hecho callar"

Mi rostro
Esto se refiere a Job. Traducción Alterna: "Mi"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 ¿Por qué los tiempos para juzgar a la gente malvada no son establecidos por el Todopoderoso? ¿Por qué aquellos que son fieles a Dios no ven venir Sus días de jucio? 2 Hay personas malvadas que remueven los marcadores de límites; hay personas malvadas que se llevan los rebaños a la fuerza y los ponen en sus propios pastos. 3 Ellos se llevan el burro de aquellos sin padres; ellos se llevan al buey de la viuda como seguridad. 4 Ellos fuerzan a la gente necesitada afuera de su senda; la gente pobre de la tierra se esconde a sí mismos de ellos. 5 Mira, esta gente pobre sale a sus trabajos como burros salvajes en el desierto, buscando cuidadosamente por comida; quizás los árabes le provean comida para sus hijos. 6 La gente pobre recoge en la noche en los campos de otras personas, ellos espigan uvas de la cosecha de aquella gente malvada. 7 Ellos se acuestan desnudos toda la noche sin ropa; ellos no tienen cubierta en el frío. 8 Ellos están mojados con las lluvias de las montañas; ellos se acuestan al lado de grandes rocas porque no tienen refugio. 9 Hay gente malvada que arranca a los huérfanos del pecho de sus madres, y gente malvada quienes llevan niños como seguridad de la gente pobre. 10 Pero la gente pobre anda desnuda, sin ropa; aunque andan hambrientos, ellos cargan las gavillas de granos de otros. 11 La gente pobre hace aceite dentro de las paredes de aquellos hombres malvados; ellos pisan los lagares de los hombres malvados, pero ellos mismos sufren sed. 12 En la ciudad la gente gime; la gente herida llora, pero Dios no presta atención a sus oraciones. 13 Algunos de esos hombres malvados se rebelan en contra de la luz; ellos no conocen sus caminos; ni tampoco ellos se quedan en sus senderos. 14 Antes de la luz del día el asesino se levanta y mata a la gente pobre y a la gente necesitada; en la noche él es como un ladrón. 15 También, el ojo del adúltero espera por el atardecer; él dice: 'Ningún ojo me verá.' Él disfraza su rostro. 16 En la oscuridad la gente malvada busca en las casas; pero ellos se encierran en el día; a ellos no les importa la luz. 17 Para todos ellos, la gruesa oscuridad es como la mañana; pues ellos son amigos con los terrores de la gruesa oscuridad. 18 Rápidamente ellos fallecen, sin embargo, como espuma en la superficie de las aguas; su porción de la tierra está maldita; nadie va a trabajar en sus viñedos. 19 Como la sequía y el calor derriten la nieve en aguas, así el Seol se lleva a aquellos quienes han pecado. 20 El vientre que lo concibió lo olvidará; el gusano se alimentará dulcemente de él, él no será recordado más; de esta forma, la maldad será rota como un árbol. 21 El malvado devora a la mujer estéril que no ha concebido hijos; él no hace ningún bien a la viuda. 22 Aún Dios arrastra a la gente poderosa con Su poder; Él se levanta y no los fortalece en su vida. 23 Dios les permite pensar que están seguros, y ellos están felices acerca de eso, pero Sus ojos están en sus caminos. 24 Estas personas son exaltadas; aún, en sólo poco tiempo, ellos se irán; ciertamente, ellos serán traídos abajo; ellos serán reunidos como todos los demás; ellos serán cortados como las puntas de orejas de grano. 25 Si no es así, ¿quién puede probarme ser un mentiroso?; ¿quién puede hacer que mi discurso no valga nada?"

Job 24:1

Oración de Enlace
Job sigue hablando.

¿Por qué los tiempos para juzgar a la gente malvada no son establecidos por el Todopoderoso?
Job usa esta pregunta para expresar su frustración porque Dios no ha juzgado el mal. Esto se puede expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No entiendo por qué Dios no establece un tiempo para juzgar a las personas malvadas". o "El Todopoderoso debe establecer un tiempo en el que juzgará a las personas malvadas".

¿Por qué aquellos que son fieles a Dios no ven venir Sus días de jucio?
Job usa esta pregunta para expresar su frustración porque los justos no han visto a Dios juzgar el mal. Traducción Alterna: "Parece que quienes lo obedecen nunca llegan a verlo juzgar a los malvados". o "Dios debe mostrar el día que juzgará a los malvados a los que lo conocen".

Job 24:2

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

marcadores de límites Estas son piedras u otros objetos para marcar el límite entre las tierras de diferentes personas.

rebaños
"campos de hierba" o "zonas de pastoreo"

Ellos se llevan
"Roban"

aquellos sin padres
"huérfanos" o "niños cuyos padres han muerto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos se llevan al buey de la viuda como seguridad.
"toman los bueyes de las viudas para garantizar que las viudas devolverán el dinero que prestaron a esas viudas" (UDB)

viuda
una mujer cuyo esposo ha muerto

como seguridad
Un prestamista tomaría algo de un prestatario para asegurarse de que el prestatario le devuelva el dinero.

afuera de su senda
"fuera de su camino" o "fuera del camino"

todos los pobres de la tierra se esconden
Esto es una exageración para mostrar que muchas personas pobres tienen miedo de estas personas malvadas.

Job 24:5

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

esta gente pobre sale a sus trabajos como burros salvajes en el desierto, buscando cuidadosamente por comida
Se habla de estas pobres personas como si fueran burros salvajes que no saben dónde encontrarán comida. Traducción Alterna: "estas pobres personas salen a buscar comida como si fueran burros salvajes en el desierto"

burros salvajes
"burros que nadie posee o cuida"

La gente pobre recoge en la noche ... ellos espigan uvas
Estas dos líneas describen lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que estas personas tienen tanta hambre que se ven obligadas a robar comida por la noche.

Ellos se acuestan desnudos ... ellos no tienen cubierta
Estas dos líneas describen lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que estas personas no tienen suficiente ropa para mantenerse calientes.

Job 24:8

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

Ellos están mojados con las lluvias de las montañas
"Se mojan cuando llueve en las montañas"

huérfanos del pecho de sus madres Aquí "pecho" se refiere a la madre. Esto implica que estos huérfanos aún son muy jóvenes. Esto puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "jóvenes huérfanos fuera de los brazos de sus madres" o "bebés huérfanos de sus madres"

huérfanos
Esto generalmente se refiere a niños sin padres. Aquí, sin embargo, se usa para niños que tienen madres pero que no tienen padres.

llevan niños como seguridad de la gente pobre
"llevar a los hijos de los pobres para garantizar que los pobres devolverán el dinero que tomaron prestado de los malvados"

como seguridad
Un prestamista tomaría algo de un prestatario para asegurarse de que el prestatario le devuelva el dinero. Traduzca esto como en el 24: 2.

aunque andan
"dar una vuelta"

desnuda, sin ropa
Las palabras "sin ropa" significan lo mismo que "desnudo". Traducción Alterna: "completamente desnudos" o "desnudos porque no tienen ropa" ellos cargan las gavillas de granos de otros.

Esto significa que su trabajo proporcionará alimentos para otros pero no para ellos mismos.

Job 24:11

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

La gente pobre hace aceite exprimieron las aceitunas para extraerles el aceite de oliva

entro de las paredes de aquellos hombres malvados Aquí "paredes" se refiere a toda la casa. Traducción Alterna: "en las casas de esos hombres malvados"

ellos pisan los lagares de los hombres malvados Puede ser útil afirmar que hacen esto para producir jugo para hacer vino. Traducción Alterna: "pisan las uvas para hacer jugo para el vino"

ellos mismos sufren sed
"sufren sed" o "tienen sed"

Job 24:13

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

se rebelan en contra de la luz Los posibles significados de "luz" son 1) luz visible o 2) luz espiritual, que se refiere a Dios o vivir con rectitud. Traducción Alterna: "odian la luz del día" o "no quieren hacer las cosas abiertamente" o "se rebelan contra Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos no conocen sus caminos; ni tampoco ellos se quedan en sus senderos Estas dos líneas describen lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que no quieren seguir los caminos de la luz. Traducción Alterna: "no saben cómo vivir una vida moral; se mantienen lejos de vivir una vida justa".

gente pobre y a la gente necesitada
Las palabras "pobre" y "necesitado" se refieren al mismo grupo de personas y enfatizan que se trata de personas que no pueden ayudarse a sí mismas.

él es como un ladrón.
El asesino mata en secreto como un ladrón roba sin que nadie vea lo que hace. Traducción Alterna: "él mata a las personas en secreto, al igual que un ladrón roba en secreto"

Job 24:15

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

el ojo del adúltero Aquí "ojo" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "el adúltero" por el atardecer

"para el atardecer"

Ningún ojo me verá
Aquí "ojo" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie me verá" gente malvada busca en las casas Excavan en las casas para robarles. Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva . Traducción Alterna: "las personas malvadas cavan en las casas para robarles"

ellos se encierran
"se esconden dentro"

Para todos ellos, la gruesa oscuridad es como la mañana
La espesa oscuridad es tan cómoda para los malvados como la luz de la mañana para las personas normales.

los terrores de la gruesa oscuridad
"Las cosas aterradoras que suceden de noche"

Job 24:18

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

como espuma en la superficie de las aguas
La espuma dura poco tiempo. Esto enfatiza cuán rápido Dios hará que los malvados desaparezcan.

su porción de la tierra está maldita
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios maldice la parte de la tierra que poseen"

Como la sequía y el calor derriten ...aquellos quienes han pecado.
Job dice que los pecadores desaparecerán en el Seol de la misma manera que la nieve se derrite y desaparece cuando se calienta.

sequía y el calor
Estas dos palabras describen esencialmente el mismo clima y se usan juntas para describirlo completamente.

Job 24:20

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

El gusano
Esto se refiere a la madre. Traducción Alterna: "La madre"

el gusano se alimentará dulcemente de él Esto significa que morirá y las lombrices se comerán su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "el gusano disfrutará comiendo su cadáver" o "morirá y luego su cuerpo será comido por los gusanos"

él no será recordado más Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. T: "ya nadie lo recordará" la maldad será rota como un árbol.

La destrucción de Dios del hombre malvado se describe como si estuviera cortando un árbol. Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Dios destruirá al impío como si fuera un árbol"

El malvado devora
Esta metáfora enfatiza cuán despiadado es el hombre malvado. Traducción Alterna: "Al igual que un animal salvaje mata a su presa, la persona malvada le hace daño"

la mujer estéril que no ha concebido hijos
La gente de ese día consideró que una mujer que era estéril fue maldecida por Dios. Por lo tanto, esto representa a las mujeres más desafortunadas.

Viuda
una mujer cuyo esposo ha muerto

Job 24:22

Oración de Enlace:
Job sigue hablando.

con Su poder
"usando su poder" o "porque es poderoso"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él se levanta y no los fortalece en su vida Aquí "no los fortalece en la vida" significa que Dios no los mantiene vivos. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se levanta y no da a las personas malvadas la fuerza para vivir" o "Dios se levanta y hace que mueran" pero Sus ojos están en sus caminos.

Aquí "ojos" se refiere a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "pero él siempre está mirando lo que hacen"

Job 24:24

Oración de Enlace:
Esto concluye el discurso de Job.

ellos serán traídos abajo Esto se puede ser expresado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Dios los derribará" o "Dios los destruirá"

ellos serán reunidos como todos los demás
Algunas traducciones se basan en un texto inicial diferente, que dice "se marchitan y se desvanecen como las malas hierbas".

ellos serán reunidos como todos los demás
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. A lo que se refiere "los otros" se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Dios los juntará como él reunió a las otras personas malvadas" Ver: y

ellos serán cortados como las puntas de orejas de grano Estas personas malvadas serán cortadas de la misma manera que se cortan las espigas durante la cosecha. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios los cortará como un granjero corta la parte superior de un tallo de grano"

Si no es así, ¿quién puede probarme ser un mentiroso?; ¿quién puede hacer que mi discurso no valga nada?"
Job usa esta pregunta para expresar la certeza de su argumento. La respuesta implícita es: "nadie". Traducción Alterna: "Esto es cierto, y nadie puede probar que soy un mentiroso; nadie puede probar que estoy equivocado".

que mi discurso no valga nada
"prueba que lo que digo está mal"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 Luego Bildad el suhita contestó y dijo: 2 "Dominio y temor están con Él; Él hace orden en los lugares del cielo. 3 ¿Hay algún final para el número de Sus ejércitos? ¿Sobre quién Su luz no brilla? 4 ¿Cómo entonces el hombre puede ser justo con Dios? ¿Cómo puede el que es nacido de una mujer ser limpio, aceptable para Él? 5 Mira, hasta la luna no tiene resplandor para Él; las estrellas no son puras en Su vista. 6 ¡Cuánto menos el hombre, quien es un gusano-- un hijo de hombre, quien es un gusano!"

Job 25:1

Bildad el suhita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como en el 2:11.

Dominio y temor están con Él Aquí "él" se refiere a Dios. Los sustantivos abstractos "dominio" y "miedo" pueden expresarse como verbos. Traducción Alterna: "El dominio y el miedo están con Dios" o "Dios gobierna sobre todo, y las personas deberían temerle solo a él"

en los lugares del cielo
"en el cielo" o "en el cielo"

¿Hay algún final para el número de Sus ejércitos?
Bildad usa esta pregunta para expresar cuán grande es Dios. La respuesta implícita es "no". Esto se refiere a los ejércitos de los ángeles de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "El número de ángeles en su ejército no tiene fin". o "Sus ejércitos son tan grandes que nadie puede contarlos".

¿Sobre quién Su luz no brilla?
Bildad usa esta pregunta para expresar que Dios da luz a cada persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tampoco hay nadie sobre quien su luz no brille". o "Dios hace que su luz brille sobre todos".

Job 25:4

Oración de enlace
Bildad continúa hablando.

¿Cómo entonces el hombre puede ... Dios? ¿Cómo puede el que es nacido ... Él?
Estas dos preguntas se usan juntas para enfatizar que es imposible que un hombre sea lo suficientemente bueno para Dios.

¿Cómo entonces el hombre puede ser justo con Dios?
La reacción implícita es que no puede. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre nunca puede ser justo para Dios".

¿Cómo puede el que es nacido ... aceptable para Él?
La reacción implícita es que no puede. Traducción Alterna: "El que nace de una mujer no puede ser limpio o aceptable para él".

ser limpio, aceptable para Él
"limpio, es decir, aceptable para él"

el que es nacido de una mujer
Esta expresión idiomática incluye a todos. Traducción Alterna: "cualquier hombre"

Mira
La palabra "Mira" aquí agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "De hecho" la luna no tiene resplandor para Él

El sustantivo abstracto "brillo" puede expresarse como un adjetivo.Traducción Alterna: "la luna no es lo suficientemente brillante para Dios"

las estrellas no son puras en Su vista Aquí "puro" significa "perfecto". Traducción Alterna: "él cree que incluso las estrellas son perfectas"

¡Cuánto menos el hombre ... un hijo de hombre, quien es un gusano
Estas dos líneas dicen lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que el hombre no es perfecto.

quien es un gusano
Bildad afirma que los seres humanos tienen tan poco valor como los gusanos. Traducción Alterna: "¿Quién es tan inútil como un gusano"

un hijo de hombre
Esta es otra forma de referirse a un hombre. Traducción Alterna: "un hombre"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Luego Job contestó y dijo: 2 "¡Cómo tú has ayudado a uno quien no tiene poder! ¡Cómo tú has salvado el brazo que no tiene fuerza! 3 ¡Cómo tú has aconsejado a uno quien no tiene sabiduría y anunciaste a él el sonido del conocimiento! 4 ¿Con la ayuda de quién tu has hablado estas palabras? ¿De quién fue el espíritu que vino de ti? 5 Los muertos son hechos para temblar, aquellos quienes están debajo de las aguas y todos los que habitan en ellas. 6 El Seol está desnudo ante Dios, destrucción en sí misma no tiene cobertura contra Él. 7 Él expande los cielos del norte sobre los espacios vacíos, y Él cuelga la tierra sobre nada. 8 Él une las aguas en sus gruesas nubes, pero las nubes no se rasga bajo ellas. 9 Él cubre la superficie de la luna y esparce sus nubes en ella. 10 Él ha grabado una frontera circular en la superficie de las aguas como la línea entre luz y oscuridad. 11 Los pilares de los cielos tiemblan y están sorprendidos en Su reprensión. 12 Él calma el mar con su poder; por su entendimiento Él destrozó a Rahab. 13 Por su aliento Él hizo los cielos despejados; Su mano perforó a la serpiente que huía. 14 Mira, estos son solo los márgenes de sus caminos; ¡Cuán pequeño el susurro que nosotros escuchamos de Él! ¿Quién puede entender el estruendo de Su poder?"

Job 26:1

¡Cómo tú has ayudado a uno ... el brazo que no tiene fuerza!
En estas declaraciones, Job está acusando a Bildad. La palabra "uno" se refiere a sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Soy impotente y no tengo fuerzas, pero actúas como si me hubieras ayudado, ¡pero realmente no me has ayudado en absoluto!"

el brazo que no tiene fuerza
Job usa esta frase para describirse a sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "yo, que es como un brazo que no tiene fuerza" o "el que es tan débil" ¡Cómo tú has aconsejado a uno quien no tiene sabiduría y anunciaste a él el sonido del conocimiento!

Job dice que Bildad no le ha brindado buenos consejos y conocimientos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Actúas como si no tuviera sabiduría y que me has aconsejado, que me has dado buenos consejos!"

anunciaste a él el sonido del conocimiento
"le di buenos consejos"

Con la ayuda de quién tu has hablado estas palabras? ¿De quién fue el espíritu ... de ti?
En estas preguntas, Job sigue burlándose de Bildad. Ambas son preguntas retóricas y tienen básicamente el mismo significado. Se usan juntos para fortalecerse mutuamente. Traducción : "Debes haber tenido ayuda para pronunciar estas palabras. ¡Quizás algún espíritu te ayudó a pronunciarlas!"

Job 26:5

Los muertos
Esto se refiere a personas muertas. Traducción Alterna: "Los que están muertos" o "Los espíritus de los muertos" temblar

Tiemblan porque tienen miedo de Dios. Esto se puede afirmar claramente. Traducción Alterna: "temblar de miedo" o "temblar de temor de Dios"

aquellos quienes están debajo de las aguas
Esto cuenta sobre los muertos que tiemblan. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a las aguas.

todos los que habitan en ellas
Esto cuenta sobre los muertos que tiemblan. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a las aguas.

El Seol está desnudo ante Dios , destrucción en sí misma no tiene cobertura contra Él.
Se habla del Seol como si fuera una persona. Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado. Estar "desnudo" o "sin cobertura" es estar completamente expuesto y no poder ocultar nada. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si el Seol estuviera desnudo ante Dios, porque nada en el Seol, el lugar de destrucción, está escondido de Dios"

destrucción
Este es otro nombre para Seol. Traducción Alterna: "el lugar de la destrucción"

Job 26:7

Él expande los cielos del norte sobre los espacios vacíos
Los cielos del norte representan el cielo, el lugar donde Dios habita con los seres que creó para vivir allí.

Él une las aguas en sus gruesas nubes
Se habla de las nubes como si fueran una gran manta en la que Dios envuelve el agua de lluvia. Traducción Alterna: "Envuelve el agua en sus gruesas nubes."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

pero las nubes no se rasga bajo ellas.
Esto se puede afirmar activamente. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a las aguas. Traducción Alterna: "pero el peso de las aguas no rasga las nubes"

Job 26:9

y esparce sus nubes en ella
Esta frase cuenta cómo cubre la superficie de la luna. Traducción Alterna: "extendiendo sus nubes frente a él"

Él ha grabado una frontera circular
Esto habla del horizonte como si Dios hubiera marcado un límite en el océano.

Job 26:11

Los pilares de los cielos tiemblan y están sorprendidos en Su reprensión.
La gente pensaba que el cielo o el cielo descansaban sobre pilares. Job habla como si los pilares fueran humanos que tiemblan de miedo cuando Dios está enojado. Traducción Alterna: "Los pilares que sostienen el cielo tiemblan de miedo cuando Dios los reprende" o "Los pilares que sostienen el cielo tiemblan como las personas que tienen miedo cuando Dios los reprende"

Él destrozó a Rahab.
él destruyó a Rahab

Rahab
Este es el nombre de un monstruo aterrador que vivió en el mar. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en [JOB 9:13]

Job 26:13

Por su aliento Él hizo los cielos despejados
El sustantivo abstracto "aliento" se puede traducir con el verbo "respirar" o "soplar". Esta imagen representa a Dios haciendo que el viento sople las nubes. Traducción Alterna: "Al respirar, Dios despejó los cielos" o "Dios sopló las nubes para que los cielos estuvieran despejados"

Su mano perforó a la serpiente que huía Aquí "su mano" representa la espada de Dios y "perforado" representa matar. Traducción Alterna: "Con su espada atravesó a la serpiente que huía"

la serpiente que huía
"la serpiente que intentaba escapar de él". Esto se refiere a Rahab, el monstruo en el mar. Ver en el 26:11.

Mira, estos son solo los márgenes de sus caminos
Aquí "márgenes" representa una pequeña parte que podemos ver de algo que es mucho más grande. Traducción Alterna: "Mira, estas cosas que Dios ha hecho muestran solo una pequeña parte de su gran poder"

¡Cuán pequeño el susurro que nosotros escuchamos de Él!
Esta es una exclamación que expresa el asombro de Job de todas las grandes cosas que hace Job que ni siquiera sabemos. Traducción Alterna: "Solo escuchamos su silencioso susurro"

Cuán pequeño el susurro que nosotros escuchamos de Él
Al ver lo que Dios hace se habla de escuchar la voz de Dios. Escuchar un pequeño susurro de él representa ver solo un poco de las grandes cosas que hace. Traducción Alterna: "Es como escuchar solo un susurro de su poderosa voz" ¿Quién puede entender el estruendo de Su poder?

El "trueno de su poder" representa la grandeza de todo lo que Dios hace. Job usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que el poder de Dios es tan grande que nadie puede entenderlo. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nadie puede entender la grandeza de su poder!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Job continuó hablando y él dijo: 2 "Tan cierto como que Dios vive, Quien se ha llevado mi justicia, el Todopoderoso, Quien hizo mi vida amarga, 3 mientras mi vida todavía esté en mí, y el aliento de Dios está en mi naríz, esto es lo que haré. 4 Mis labios no hablarán maldad, tampoco mi lengua hablará engaño; 5 yo nunca admitiré que ustedes tres tienen la razón; hasta que yo muera nunca negaré mi integridad. 6 Yo me mantendré firme a mi justicia y no la dejaré ir; mis pensamientos no me reprocharán mientras yo viva. 7 Que mi enemigo sea como un hombre malvado; que él, quien se levanta en mí contra, sea como un hombre injusto. 8 Pues, ¿cuál es la esperanza de un hombre impío cuando Dios lo corta, cuando Dios se lleva su vida? 9 ¿Escuchará Dios su llanto cuando el problema venga sobre él? 10 ¿Se deleitará él mismo en el Todopoderoso y clamará a Dios en todo tiempo? 11 Yo le enseñaré a ustedes acerca de la mano de Dios; yo no ocultaré los pensamientos del Todopoderoso. 12 Miren, todos ustedes han visto esto ustedes mismos; ¿por qué entonces han hablado todas estas tonterías? 13 Este es el destino de un hombre malvado con Dios, la herencia del opresor que él recibe del Todopoderoso: 14 Si sus hijos se multiplican, es por la espada; sus descendientes nunca tendrán comida suficiente. 15 Aquellos quienes le sobrevivan serán enterrados por plaga, y sus viudas no harán lamento por ellos. 16 Aunque el hombre malvado acumule plata como el polvo y acumule ropa como barro, 17 él puede acumular ropa, pero las personas justas se las pondrán, y las personas inocentes dividirán la plata entre ellos. 18 Él construye su casa como una araña, como un refugio que un guardia hace. 19 Él se acuesta en cama de rico, pero él no seguirá haciéndolo así; él abre sus ojos y todo se ha ido. 20 Los terrores le alcanzan como las aguas; una tormenta se lo lleva en la noche. 21 El viento del este se lo lleva lejos y él se va; lo barre fuera de su lugar. 22 Este se lanza a sí mismo sobre él y no se detiene; él intenta huir fuera de su mano. 23 Aplaude sus manos a él en burla; lo saca de su lugar con silbidos.

Job 27:1

Tan cierto como que Dios vive
Esta frase muestra que Job está haciendo un juramento. Job compara la certeza de que Dios está vivo con la certeza de lo que está diciendo. Esta es una forma de hacer una promesa solemne. Traducción Alterna: "Juro por Dios"

se ha llevado mi justicia Se habla de justicia como si fuera un objeto que podría ser quitado o dado. Quitarlo representa negarse a tratar a Job con justicia. Traducción Alterna: "se ha negado a tratarme con justicia"

hizo mi vida amarga
La "vida" de Job siendo amarga representa a Job sintiéndose resentido hacia Dios. Traducción Alterna: "me ha hecho sentir resentido" o "me ha hecho enojar por la forma injusta en que me ha tratado"

mientras mi vida todavía esté en mí
Esto se refiere a la duración del resto de su vida. Traducción Alterna: "durante todo el tiempo que mi vida todavía está en mí" o "mientras mi vida todavía esté en mí"

mientras mi vida todavía esté en mí
El sustantivo abstracto "vida" se puede expresar con el adjetivo "vivo" o el verbo "vivir". Traducción Alterna: "mientras siga vivo" o "mientras aún vivo"

el aliento de Dios está en mi naríz La respiración en las fosas nasales representa la capacidad de respirar. Y "aliento de Dios" representa a Dios que lo hace capaz de respirar. Traducción Alterna: "Dios me permite respirar"

nariz
"fosas nasales"

Job 27:4

Mis labios no hablarán maldad, tampoco mi lengua hablará engaño Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar que él no hablará de esa manera. Las frases "mis labios" y "mi lengua" representan al propio Job. Traducción Alterna: "Seguramente no hablaré maldad o engaño"

hablarán maldad ... hablará engaño
Los sustantivos abstractos "maldad" y "engaño" pueden expresarse con "malvadamente" y "engañosamente".Traducción Alterna: "habla malvadamente ... habla engañosamente"

yo nunca admitiré que ustedes tres tienen la razón
"Nunca voy a estar de acuerdo contigo y decir que ustedes tres tienen razón"

ustedes tres tienen la razón
La palabra "ustedes" aquí es plural. Se refiere a los amigos de Job.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

nunca negaré mi integridad.
"Nunca diré que no soy inocente" o "Siempre diré que soy inocente"

Job 27:6

Yo me mantendré firme a mi justicia Aquí "sujetar" es una metáfora que representa estar determinado a seguir diciendo algo. El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" se puede expresar con "justo". Traducción Alterna: "Estoy decidido a seguir diciendo que soy justo"

no la dejaré ir Aquí "no lo dejaré ir" es una metáfora que representa dejar de decir algo. Traducción Alterna: "no deja de decir que soy justo" o "no deja de decirlo"

mis pensamientos no me reprocharán Aquí "mis pensamientos" representa a Job. Traducción Alterna: "incluso en mis pensamientos, no me reprocharé"

Que mi enemigo sea ... que él, quien se levanta en mí contra Las dos cláusulas que comienzan con estas palabras comparten el mismo significado. Se usan juntos para enfatizar el fuerte deseo de Job de que esto suceda.

Que mi enemigo sea como un hombre malvado
Se puede establecer claramente cómo quiere que su enemigo sea como una persona malvada. Traducción Alterna: "Deje que mi enemigo sea castigado como un hombre malvado" o "Deje que Dios castigue a mi enemigo como castiga a las personas malvadas" que él, quien se levanta en mí contra, sea como un hombre injusto.

Cómo se quiere que esta persona sea como un hombre injusto se puede decir claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Que el que se levanta contra mí sea castigado como un hombre injusto" quien se levanta en mí contra Aquí "se levanta contra mí" es una metáfora que significa oponerse a él. Toda la frase se refiere al adversario de Job. Traducción Alterna: "el que se opone a mí" o "mi adversario"

Job 27:8

Pues, ¿cuál es la esperanza de un hombre impío cuando ... cuando Dios se lleva su vida?
Job usa esta pregunta para decir que tal hombre no tiene esperanza. Traducción Alterna: "No hay esperanza para los impíos cuando Dios ... le quita su alma".

cuando Dios lo corta, cuando Dios se lleva su vida?
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado. Traducción Alterna: "cuando Dios lo interrumpe y le quita la vida" o "cuando Dios lo hace morir"

lo corta
Esta es una metáfora que significa "matarlo" o "hacer que muera"

se lleva su vida
Esta es una metáfora que significa "matarlo" o "hacer que deje de vivir"

¿Escuchará Dios su llanto cuando el problema venga sobre él?
Job usa esta pregunta para decir que Dios no ayudará a esa persona. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no escuchará su grito cuando surjan problemas". o "Cuando surgen problemas y él pide ayuda, Dios no lo escuchará".

Escuchará Dios su llanto
Aquí "escuchar su grito" representa responder al grito del impío y ayudarlo. Traducción Alterna: "¿Responderá Dios a su clamor?"

¿Se deleitará él mismo en el Todopoderoso y clamará a Dios en todo tiempo?
Job usa esta pregunta para decir que el hombre impío no hará estas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "No se deleitará en el Todopoderoso e invocará a Dios en todo momento". o "No estará contento con lo que hace el Todopoderoso y no orará a Dios a menudo".

Job 27:11

Yo le enseñaré a ustedes
Cada aparición de "ustedes" en estos versículos es plural y se refiere a los tres amigos de Job

la mano de Dios
La "mano" de Dios representa su poder. Traducción Alterna: "el poder de Dios" yo no ocultaré los pensamientos del Todopoderoso.

El sustantivo abstracto "pensamientos" se puede expresar con el verbo "pensar". Traducción Alterna: No voy a esconder de ti lo que piensa el Todopoderoso "

¿por qué entonces han hablado todas estas tonterías?
Job usa esta pregunta para reprender a sus amigos por decir cosas tan tontas. Traducción Alterna: "sin embargo, has dicho todas estas tonterías". o "¡No deberías haber hablado tan tontamente!"

Job 27:13

Este es el destino de un hombre malvado con Dios
El destino de un hombre malvado con Dios se refiere a lo que Dios ha planeado para él.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que Dios ha planeado para el hombre malvado"

la herencia del opresor que él recibe del Todopoderoso Aquí "la herencia del opresor" es una metáfora que representa lo que le sucederá al opresor. Se habla de lo que Dios le hará como si fuera una herencia que Dios le estaba dando. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que el Todopoderoso le hará al opresor"

es por la espada
Aquí la espada representa morir en la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "morirán en la batalla"

Job 27:15

Aquellos quienes le sobrevivan
"Los que continúan viviendo después de su muerte". Esto se refiere a los hijos del malvado. Esto se puede afirmar claramente. "Aquellos que continúan viviendo después de la muerte de su padre malvado"

serán enterrados por plaga Aquí "ser enterrado" representa morir. Traducción Alterna: "morirá por la peste"

sus viudas ... ellos
Aquí "ser enterrado" representa morir. Traducción Alterna: "morirá por la peste"

acumule plata como el polvo Aquí "amontonar" es una metonimia que significa reunir mucho. Job habla como si la plata fuera tan fácil de obtener como el polvo. Traducción Alterna: "reúne grandes pilas de plata" o "recoge plata tan fácilmente como podría recoger polvo"

él puede acumular ropa Aquí "amontonar" es una metonimia que significa reunir mucho. Job habla como si la ropa fuera tan fácil de conseguir como la arcilla. Traducción Alterna: "reúne grandes montones de ropa" o "reúne ropa tan fácilmente como podría recoger arcilla"

Job 27:18

Él construye su casa como una araña
Después de "araña" se entiende la frase "construye su red". Traducción Alterna: "como una araña construye su red"

Él construye su casa como una araña
"Es rico cuando se acuesta en la cama". Esto se refiere a él acostado en la cama por la noche y durmiendo.

como un refugio
Una cabaña es una casa temporal que tampoco es muy fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "como una cabaña temporal"

Él se acuesta en cama de rico
"Es rico cuando se acuesta en la cama". Esto se refiere a él acostado en la cama por la noche y durmiendo.

pero él no seguirá haciéndolo así
"pero no seguirá rico acostado en la cama" o "pero no seguirá siendo rico cuando se acueste en la cama"

él abre sus ojos
Abrir los ojos representa despertarse por la mañana. Traducción Alterna: "se despertará" y todo se ha ido.

"todas sus riquezas se habrán ido" o "todo habrá desaparecido"

Job 27:20

Los terrores le alcanzan Aquí "adelantarlo" representa de repente sucederle. Los posibles significados son que "terrores" 1) es una metonimia de cosas que causan miedo a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Cosas terribles le suceden de repente" o 2) miedo. Traducción Alterna: "De repente se aterroriza"

como las aguas
La palabra "aguas" se refiere a una inundación. Las inundaciones pueden ocurrir muy repentinamente cuando las personas no las esperan, y son peligrosas y aterradoras. Traducción Alterna: "como una inundación" o "como aguas que se elevan repentinamente"

una tormenta se lo lleva
"un viento violento lo vuela"

lo barre fuera de su lugar.
Job habla del viento que sopla al hombre malvado fuera de su casa como si el viento fuera una persona barriendo el polvo de una casa con una escoba. Traducción Alterna: "el viento lo saca de su lugar como una mujer que barre la suciedad de una casa" o "el viento lo saca fácilmente de su lugar"

su lugar.
"su casa"

Job 27:22

Información General:
En los versículos 22-23, Job habla del viento como si fuera una persona atacando a la persona malvada.

Este se lanza a sí mismo sobre él Aquí "se arroja sobre él" representa el viento que sopla fuerte contra él como un atacante. Traducción Alterna: "Sopla fuerte contra él como si alguien lo atacara" (Ver:

él intenta huir fuera de su mano
Aquí "mano" representa el poder o control que el viento tiene sobre el hombre malvado. Traducción Alterna: "trata de huir de su control"

Aplaude sus manos a él en burla Aplaudir es una forma de burlarse de alguien. Aquí representa el viento haciendo ruidos fuertes. Traducción Alterna: "Hace ruidos fuertes como si alguien aplaudiera para burlarse de él" lo saca de su lugar con silbidos.

El viento hace un ruido cuando lo saca de su lugar. Suena como el silbido que hace la gente para burlarse de alguien. Traducción Alterna: "hace un ruido sibilante ya que lo hace salir de su casa" o "lo saca de su lugar y hace un ruido sibilante como alguien que le sisea para burlarse de él"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 Seguramente hay una mina de plata, un lugar donde ellos refinan oro. 2 El hierro es sacado de la tierra; el cobre es fundido fuera de la piedra. 3 Un hombre pone fin a la oscuridad y busca hasta los límites más lejanos, las piedras en oscuridad y densa tiniebla. 4 Él abre pozos lejos de donde viven las personas, lugares que son olvidados por el pie de cualquiera. Él se queda lejos de la gente; él se columpia de un lado a otro. 5 En cuanto a la tierra, de la cual viene el pan, se voltea debajo como por fuego. 6 Sus piedras son el lugar donde los safiros son encontrados, y su polvo contiene oro. 7 Ninguna ave de rapiña conoce el camino hacia él, ni el ojo del falcón le ha visto. 8 Los animales orgullosos no han caminado tal camino, ni el león feroz ha pasado por ahí. 9 Un hombre pone su mano en la roca del pedernal; Él vuelca las montañas por sus raíces. 10 Él corta los canales entre las rocas; Su ojo ve toda cosa de valor allí. 11 Él ata las corrientes para que no puedan correr; lo que está escondido allí, Él lo trae a la luz. 12 ¿Dónde será encontrada la sabiduría? ¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento? 13 El hombre no sabe su precio; ni se encuentra en la tierra de los vivientes. 14 Las aguas profundas bajo la tierra dicen: 'No está en mí;' el mar dice: 'No está conmigo.' 15 No puede ser obtenido por oro; ni tampoco puede la plata ser medida como su precio. 16 No puede ser valorada con el oro de Ofir, con preciado ónix o safiro. 17 El oro y el cristal no puede igualarlo en valor; tampoco puede ser cambiado por joyas de oro fino. 18 Ninguna mención es digna de hacerse del coral o jazpe; ciertamente, el precio de la sabiduría es más que los rubíes. 19 El topacio de Etiopía no la iguala; tampoco puede ser valuado en términos de oro puro. 20 ¿De dónde, pues, viene la sabiduría? ¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento? 21 La sabiduría está escondida de los ojos de todas las cosas vivientes y se mantiene escondida de las aves de los cielos. 22 La Destrucción y la Muerte dicen: 'Nosotros hemos escuchado solo un rumor sobre eso con nuestros oídos.' 23 Dios entiende el camino hacia eso; Él conoce su lugar. 24 Pues Él mira los confines de la tierra y ve bajo todos los cielos. 25 Él hizo la fuerza de los vientos y la cantidad de agua por medida. 26 Él hizo un decreto a la lluvia y un camino al rayo del trueno. 27 Entonces Él vió sabiduría y la anunció; la estableció, de hecho, y Él la examinó. 28 A personas Él dijó: 'Vean, el temor del Señor- que es sabiduría; para apartarse del mal es entendimiento.'

Job 28:1

Mina
Este es un lugar donde la gente cava rocas de la tierra. Estas rocas tienen metal en ellas.

Refinan
Este es el proceso de calentar un metal para eliminar todas las impurezas que contiene.

El hierro es sacado de la tierra Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente saca el hierro de la tierra"

el cobre es fundido fuera de la piedra
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente olía el cobre de la piedra" o "la gente calienta la piedra para derretir el cobre"

Cobre
un importante metal de color rojo-marrón

Fundido
Este es un proceso de calentamiento de rocas para derretir el metal en ellas con el fin de sacar el metal de las rocas.

Job 28:3

Un hombre pone fin a la oscuridad Aquí "establece y termina en la oscuridad" representa brillar una luz en la oscuridad. La gente usaría una llama, ya sea en una linterna o en una antorcha. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre lleva la luz a lugares oscuros"

los límites más lejanos
"a las partes más lejanas de la mina"

Oscuridad ... densa tiniebla
Estas dos frases se usan juntas para enfatizar que la oscuridad es extremadamente oscura.

pozos
un hoyo profundo y estrecho excavado en el suelo o roca. La gente baja por el hoyo para extraerlo.

lugares que son olvidados por el pie de cualquiera
Se habla de lugares donde las personas no caminan como si los pies de cualquiera que hubiera caminado allí hace mucho tiempo hubiera olvidado los lugares. Traducción Alterna: "donde nadie camina"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él se queda lejos de la gente
Cómo y dónde cuelga se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Lejos de la gente, él cuelga de una cuerda en el eje"

Job 28:5

la tierra, de la cual viene el pan Aquí "pan" es una metonimia para la comida en general. Los alimentos que salen del suelo son una metáfora de los alimentos que crecen en el suelo. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra, donde crece la comida"

se voltea debajo como por fuego Los significados posibles son que 1) las personas hicieron fuegos debajo del suelo para romper la roca. Traducción Alterna: "se divide a continuación por los fuegos que hacen los mineros" o 2) "girar" es una metáfora del cambio. Traducción Alterna: "está dividido tanto que es como si hubiera sido destruido por el fuego"

se voltea ... Sus piedras ... su polvo
Las palabras "Se" y "Su" se refieren a la tierra.

Safiros
Esta palabra se refiere a un tipo de gema azul rara y costosa.

Job 28:7

Ninguna ave de rapiña conoce el camino hacia él ... ni el ojo del falcón le ha visto Estas cláusulas expresan un significado similar. Traducción Alterna: "Ningún ave rapaz o halcón conoce o ha visto el camino que va a la mina"

ave de rapiña
un pájaro que come otros animales

falcón
Esto también se puede traducir como "buitre". Ambos son grandes aves voladoras que comen animales más pequeños. Puedes traducir esto con un ave similar de tu cultura que es grande y come otros animales.

Los animales orgullosos no han caminado tal camino ... ni el león feroz ha pasado por ahí.
Estas cláusulas también expresan un significado similar.

Los animales orgullosos
Esto se refiere a animales salvajes muy fuertes.

Job 28:9

pone su mano en la roca del pedernal Esto representa romper la roca. Traducción Alterna: "cava en la roca de piedra" roca del pedernal

"piedra dura"

vuelca las montañas por sus raíces
"da vuelta las montañas al arrancar sus raíces". Esta hipérbole representa desenterrar las montañas y el suelo debajo de ellas.

Él vuelca las montañas por sus raíces
Se habla del suelo debajo de las montañas como si las montañas fueran un árbol y el suelo debajo de ellas fueran las raíces.

Su ojo ve
Aquí "su ojo" lo representa. Traducción Alterna: "Él ve"

Él ata las corrientes para que no puedan correr Aquí "atar las corrientes" representa represar o bloquear las corrientes. Traducción Alterna: "Bloquea las corrientes para que no fluyan"

lo que está escondido allí
Esto se refiere a cosas que las personas normalmente no ven porque están en el suelo o bajo el agua.

Job 28:12

Información General:
En el 28: 12-28, se habla de la sabiduría y la comprensión como si fueran objetos preciosos que están en algún lugar y la gente quiere encontrarlos. Encontrar sabiduría y comprensión representa volverse sabio y aprender a entender bien las cosas.

¿Dónde será encontrada la sabiduría? ¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento?
Estas preguntas significan lo mismo y se usan para mostrar que es muy difícil encontrar sabiduría y comprensión. Traducción Alterna: "Pero es muy difícil encontrar sabiduría y comprensión".

¿Dónde será encontrada la sabiduría? ¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento?
Llegar a ser sabio y comprender se habla de encontrar sabiduría y comprensión. Traducción Alterna: ¿Cómo se vuelven sabias las personas? ¿Cómo aprenden las personas a entender bien las cosas? "

El hombre no sabe su precio Los posibles significados son 1) se habla de la sabiduría como si fuera algo que la gente podría comprar. Traducción Alterna: "La gente no sabe lo que vale" o 2) la palabra traducida como "precio" significa "lugar". Traducción Alterna: "La gente no sabe dónde está" ni se encuentra en la tierra de los vivientes.

"y no se encuentra en la tierra de los vivos". La "tierra de los vivos" se refiere a este mundo donde vive la gente. Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "y nadie puede encontrar la sabiduría en este mundo"

Las aguas profundas... dicen: 'No está en mí;' el mar dice: 'No está conmigo.'
Las aguas profundas y el mar se presentan como si fueran personas que pudieran hablar. Traducción Alterna: "La sabiduría no está en las aguas profundas debajo de la tierra, ni está en el mar"

Job 28:15

No puede ser obtenido por oro
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Esto implica que la sabiduría vale mucho más que el oro. Traducción Alterna: "La gente no puede pagar por la sabiduría con oro" ni tampoco puede la plata ser medida como su precio.

Esto implica que la sabiduría vale mucho más que la plata. Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "y la gente no puede pesar suficiente plata para pagar por la sabiduría"

No puede ser valorada ... safiro
Esto implica que la sabiduría es mucho más valiosa que el oro de Ophir, el precioso ónice y el zafiro.

Ofir
Este es el nombre de una tierra donde había oro fino.

ónix
una valiosa piedra negra

Safiro
una valiosa piedra preciosa azul

El oro y el cristal no puede igualarlo en valor
Esto implica que la sabiduría es mucho más valiosa que el oro y el cristal.

Cristal
una piedra preciosa valiosa que es clara o ligeramente coloreada tampoco puede ser cambiado por joyas de oro fino.

"y no se puede cambiar por joyas de oro fino ". Esto implica que la sabiduría es mucho más valiosa que las joyas de oro fino.

Cambiado
"negociado"

Job 28:18

Ninguna mención es digna de hacerse del coral o jaspe
"No vale la pena mencionar el coral y el jaspe". Esto implica que la sabiduría vale mucho más que el coral y el jaspe que Job no necesita decir nada al respecto. Traducción Alterna: "No me molestaré en mencionar el coral o el jaspe" o "El coral y el jaspe no valen nada en comparación con la sabiduría"

Coral
Esta es una sustancia hermosa y dura que crece en el fondo del océano.

Jaspe ... rubíes ... Topacio
Estas son piedras muy caras.

El topacio de Etiopía no la iguala
Esto implica que la sabiduría es mucho más valiosa que el topacio.

tampoco puede ser valuado en términos de oro puro.
"y la sabiduría no se puede valorar en términos de oro puro". Esto implica que la sabiduría es mucho más valiosa que el oro puro.

Job 28:20

¿De dónde, pues, viene la sabiduría? ¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento?
Job utiliza estas preguntas para presentar cómo las personas obtienen sabiduría y comprensión. Traducción Alterna: "Te diré de dónde viene la sabiduría y dónde está la comprensión". o "Te diré cómo ser sabio y cómo aprender a entender las cosas"

¿De dónde, pues, viene la sabiduría?
Se habla de la sabiduría como si estuviera en un lugar y llega a las personas. Su venida representa personas que se vuelven sabias. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces, ¿de dónde obtienen sabiduría las personas?" O "Entonces, ¿cómo pueden las personas volverse sabias"

¿Dónde está el lugar del entendimiento?
Se habla de comprensión como si estuviera en un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "¿De dónde entienden las personas?" O "Cómo aprenden las personas a entender las cosas"

La sabiduría está escondida de los ojos de todas las cosas vivientes Esto representa que los seres vivos no pueden ver la sabiduría. Se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Ningún ser vivo puede ver la sabiduría"

y se mantiene escondida de las aves de los cielos.
Esto representa que las aves no pueden ver la sabiduría. Esto se puede expresar de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "e incluso las aves que vuelan en los cielos no pueden ver la sabiduría"

La Destrucción y la Muerte dicen Aquí "Destrucción" y "Muerte" son metonimos para el lugar al que van las personas cuando mueren. Se habla de ellos como si fueran personas que pudieran hablar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 28:23

Dios entiende el camino hacia eso; Él conoce su lugar.
Se habla de la sabiduría como si estuviera en cierto lugar. Traducción Alterna: "Dios sabe cómo encontrar la sabiduría. Él sabe dónde está"

los confines de la tierra
"los lugares más lejanos de la tierra"

la cantidad de agua por medida.
Esto representa a Dios decidiendo cuánta agua debería haber en cada lugar. Los significados posibles son que esto se refiere a decidir 1) cuánta lluvia debería haber en cada nube o 2) cuánta agua debería haber en cada mar. Traducción Alterna: "decidió cuánta agua debería haber en cada lugar" o "ponga la cantidad de agua que planeó para cada lugar"

Job 28:26

un camino al rayo del trueno.
Los significados posibles son 1) decidió cómo deberían golpear los rayos o 2) decidió dónde debía ir la tormenta.

el temor del Señor- que es sabiduría El sustantivo abstracto "miedo" se puede expresar con los verbos "miedo" o "respeto". El sustantivo abstracto "sabiduría" se puede expresar con la palabra "sabio". Traducción Alterna: "si temes al Señor, serás sabio"

para apartarse del mal es entendimiento Aquí "apartarse del mal" representa negarse a hacer cosas malas. El sustantivo abstracto "comprensión" se puede expresar con el verbo "entender". Traducción Alterna: "negarse a hacer cosas malas es entender" o "si se niega a hacer cosas malas, podrá entender bien las cosas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 Job continuó y dijo: 2 "Oh, si pudiera estar como en los pasados meses cuando Dios cuidaba de mí, 3 cuando Su lámpara brilló sobre mi cabeza, y cuando caminé entre la oscuridad por Su luz. 4 ¡Oh, que yo fuera como en la madurez de mis días, cuando la amistad de Dios estaba en mi carpa, 5 cuando el Todopoderoso todavía estaba conmigo, y mis hijos estaban alrededor mío, 6 cuando mi camino estuvo cubierto de crema, y las piedras me brotaban corrientes de aceite! 7 Cuando iba a la puerta de la ciudad, cuando yo me sentaba en mi lugar en la plaza de la ciudad, 8 los hombres jóvenes me miraban y mantenían su distancia de mí en respeto, y la gente envejecida se levantaban y se paraban por mí. 9 Los príncipes se abstenían de hablar cuando yo venía; ellos ponían sus manos sobre sus bocas. 10 Las voces de los nobles fueron silenciadas, y sus lenguas se pegaban al techo de sus bocas. 11 Pues, después que sus oidos me oían, ellos luego me bendecían; después que sus ojos me veían, luego ellos daban testimonio de mí, y me aprobaban 12 porque yo rescaté a aquel que era pobre cuando clamó, y aquel que no tenía padre cuando no tenía quien le ayudara. 13 La bendición de aquel quien estaba a punto de perecer, vino a mí; yo causaba que el corazón de la viuda cantara por gozo. 14 Me puse justicia y me cubrió; mi justicia fue como una túnica y turbante. 15 Fui ojos para personas ciegas; fui pies para personas cojas. 16 Fui un padre de personas con necesidad; yo examinaba el caso de personas quienes aún yo no conocía. 17 Yo quebré las quijadas de los hombres injustos. Yo le saqué a la víctima de entre sus dientes. 18 Luego dije: 'Yo moriré en mi nido; yo multiplicaré mis días como los granos de arena. 19 Mis raíces están esparcidas hacia las aguas, y el rocío se encuentra toda la noche en mis ramas. 20 El honor en mí es siempre fresco, y el arco de mi fuerza es siempre nuevo en mi mano.' 21 A mí los hombres me escuchaban; ellos esperaban por mí; ellos se quedaban en silencio para escuchar mi consejo. 22 Después que mis palabras terminaban, ellos no hablaban más; mi discurso caía como agua sobre ellos. 23 Ellos siempre esperaron por mí como ellos esperaban por la lluvia; ellos abrieron ampliamente sus bocas para beber mis palabras, como harían con la lluvia tardía. 24 Yo sonreí sobre ellos cuando ellos no se lo esperaban; ellos no rechazaron la luz de mi rostro. 25 Yo decidía su camino y me senté como su jefe; viví como un rey en su ejército, como uno que consuela a los que sufren.

Job 29:1

Oh, si pudiera estar como en los pasados meses Job usa esta exclamación para expresar un deseo. Traducción Alterna: "Desearía ser como era en los últimos meses"

cuando Su lámpara brilló sobre mi cabeza La lámpara de Dios que brilla en Job representa a Dios bendiciendo a Job. Traducción Alterna: "cuando la bendición de Dios fue como una lámpara que ilumina su cabeza" cuando caminé entre la oscuridad por Su luz Caminar a través de la oscuridad representa experimentar situaciones difíciles.

Job 29:4

en la madurez de mis días Job habla de cuando era joven y fuerte como si sus días fueran la época en que la cosecha está madura. Traducción Alterna: "cuando era joven y fuerte"

cuando la amistad de Dios estaba en mi carpa El sustantivo abstracto "amistad" se puede expresar con el sustantivo "amigo". La palabra "tienda" representa el hogar de Job. Traducción Alterna: "cuando Dios era mi amigo y protegía mi hogar"

cuando mi camino estuvo cubierto de crema
"Cuando mi camino fluía con crema". Job usa esta hipérbole para expresar que tenía muchas vacas y que producían mucha más crema de la que él y su familia necesitaban. Traducción Alterna: "cuando mis vacas proporcionaban abundante crema"

y las piedras me brotaban corrientes de aceite!
"y la roca derramaban chorros de aceite para mí". Job usa esta hipérbole para expresar que tenía muchas vides de olivo y grandes cantidades de aceite de oliva. La roca es donde sus sirvientes sacaban el aceite de las aceitunas. Traducción Alterna: "cuando mis sirvientes extrajeron una gran cantidad de aceite de oliva" o "cuando el aceite fluyó como corrientes de la roca prensadora"

Job 29:7

plaza de la ciudad
Esta es un área abierta en un pueblo o ciudad donde se encuentran dos o más calles.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

levantaban y se paraban por mí
Este es un símbolo de respeto. Se puede decir claramente. Traducción Alterna: "se levantó y se levantó respetuosamente por mí"

Job 29:9

Los príncipes se abstenían de hablar cuando yo venía
Esta era una señal de respeto.

ellos ponían sus manos sobre sus bocas
Hicieron esto para mostrar que no hablarían. Esta era una señal de su respeto por Job.

Las voces de los nobles fueron silenciadas Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Los nobles silenciaron sus voces" o "Los nobles dejaron de hablar"

y sus lenguas se pegaban al techo de sus bocas.
Esto representa que ellos tenían mucho respeto por Job, tanto que no tenían nada para decirle. Traducción Alterna: "y sintieron que no podían hablar" o "y no tenían nada que decir"

Job 29:11

después que sus oidos me oían ... después que sus ojos me veían Los oídos representan a quienes lo escucharon, y los ojos representan a quienes lo vieron. Traducción Alterna: "después de que escucharon lo que les dije ... después de que me vieron"

luego ellos daban testimonio de mí, y me aprobaban
"Serían testigos de mi aprobación"

yo rescaté a aquel que era pobre cuando clamó Aquí "la persona pobre" se refiere a cualquier persona pobre. Traducción Alterna: "Solía rescatar a los pobres que gritaban"

La bendición de aquel quien estaba a punto de perecer, vino a mí
La bendición de alguien que viene sobre otro representa a esa persona bendiciendo a otro. Traducción Alterna: "El que estaba a punto de perecer me bendeciría"

aquel quien estaba a punto de perecer Esto representa a cualquiera que estaba a punto de morir. Traducción Alterna: "los que estaban a punto de morir" yo causaba que el corazón de la viuda cantara por gozo.

Aquí "el corazón de la viuda" representa a cualquier viuda. Traducción Alterna: "Hice que las viudas cantaran alegremente"

Job 29:14

Me puse justicia y me cubrió
La gente a menudo hablaba de la justicia como si fuera ropa. Traducción Alterna: "Hice lo que era justo, y fue como la ropa que me puse" mi justicia fue como una túnica y turbante.

La gente a menudo hablaba de la justicia como si fuera ropa. Traducción Alterna: "Hice lo que era justo, y fue como una túnica y un turbante sobre mí"

turbante una tela larga que los hombres se envuelven alrededor de la cabeza y usan como sombrero

Fui ojos para personas ciegas Esto representa ayudar a las personas ciegas. Traducción Alterna: "Yo era como los ojos de las personas ciegas" o "Guié a las personas ciegas"

fui pies para personas cojas
Esto representa ayudar a las personas ciegas. Traducción Alterna: "Yo era como pies para personas cojas" o "Yo apoyaba a personas cojas"

Fui un padre de personas con necesidad quí "yo era un padre" representa proveer a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Proporcioné a personas necesitadas como un padre proporciona a sus hijos"

Job 29:17

Información general:
En los versículos 18-20, Job cuenta las cosas que solía decir antes de que le pasaran cosas malas.

Yo quebré las quijadas ... Yo le saqué a la víctima
Job habla de personas injustas que persiguen a otros como si fueran animales salvajes que atacan a sus víctimas al levantarlas entre los dientes. Traducción Alterna: "Hice que la gente injusta dejara de perseguir a la gente, como alguien que rompe la mandíbula de un animal salvaje y rescata a su víctima de entre los dientes"

Yo moriré en mi nido Aquí "nido" representa el hogar y la familia de Job. Job solía hablar como si fuera un pájaro que vivía en un nido con sus pajaritos. Traducción Alterna: "Moriré en casa con mi familia" yo multiplicaré mis días como los granos de arena.

Job solía hablar como si los días de su vida fueran tantos como los granos de arena en la orilla. Es una exageración expresar que viviría mucho tiempo. Traducción Alterna: "Viviré mucho tiempo" o "Viviré muchos años"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Mis raíces ... mis ramas
Job solía hablar de su fuerza como si fuera fuerte como un árbol bien regado.

Job 29:20

El honor en mí es siempre fresco
El sustantivo abstracto "honor" se puede expresar con el verbo "honor". Aquí "fresco" representa el honor que se otorga constantemente. Traducción Alterna: "La gente me da honor constantemente" o "La gente siempre me honra"

el arco de mi fuerza es siempre nuevo en mi mano Un nuevo arco es muy fuerte. El arco de fuerza de Job en su mano representa su fuerza física. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre soy fuerte como un nuevo arco" mi discurso caía como agua sobre ellos.

Aquí "caer como agua sobre ellos" representa refrescar a las personas que lo escucharon. El sustantivo abstracto "habla" se puede traducir con el verbo "hablar" o "decir". Traducción Alterna: "Mi discurso refrescó sus corazones mientras las gotas de agua refrescaban los cuerpos de las personas" o "Lo que les dije les refrescó como gotas de agua"

Job 29:23

Ellos siempre esperaron por mí como ellos esperaban por la lluvia
La gente esperaba pacientemente a Job y esperaba escuchar cosas buenas.

ellos abrieron ampliamente sus bocas para beber mis palabras Esto representa que esperaban ansiosamente a que Job hable para beneficiarse de lo dicho. Traducción Alterna: "esperaban ansiosamente que yo hablara para beneficiarse de lo que dije"

como harían con la lluvia tardía
"Mientras los agricultores esperan ansiosos la lluvia tardía"

la lluvia tardía
Esto se refiere a la gran cantidad de lluvia que cae justo antes de la estación seca.

Yo sonreí sobre ellos
Se puede afirmar claramente que el propósito de sonreír era alentarlos. Traducción Alterna: "Les sonreí para alentarlos" la luz de mi rostro.

Esto representa la amabilidad que vieron en la cara de Job.

Job 29:25

Yo decidía su camino
Aquí "seleccionar sus caminos" representa decidir qué deben hacer.

me senté como su jefe
Aquí "senté" representa gobernar o liderar. Los jefes se sientan cuando tomaron decisiones importantes. Traducciones Alternas : "los guió como su jefe"

me senté como su jefe
Job era su jefe. Traducción Alterna: "los guié porque yo era su jefe" viví como un rey en su ejército Job habla de cómo dirigió al pueblo y cómo lo obedecieron como si fuera un rey y ellos fueran su ejército.

como uno que consuela a los que sufren.
Esta frase significa que Job realmente era alguien que consolaba a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Los consolé cuando lloraron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Ahora aquellos que son más jóvenes que yo no tienen nada sino burlas para mí, estos jóvenes a cuyos padres yo reusaría permitir que trabajaran al lado de los perros de mi rebaño. 2 En realidad, ¿cómo podría ayudarme la fuerza de las manos de sus padres, hombres quiénes a causa de su edad avanzada su fuerza ha perecido? 3 Ellos estaban flacos a causa de su pobreza y hambre; ellos roían la tierra seca en la oscuridad del desierto y la desolación. 4 Ellos arrancaban yerbas amargas y hojas de arbustos; las raíces de retama eran su alimento. 5 Ellos fueron expulsados de entre los pueblos quienes gritaron detrás de ellos como uno lo haría detrás de un ladrón. 6 Así que ellos tuvieron que vivir en los valles de los ríos, en hoyos en la tierra y en las rocas. 7 Entre los arbustos ellos rebuznaban como burros; se reunían bajo los arbustos. 8 Ellos eran hijos de tontos, en realidad, hijos de gente sin nombre. Ellos fueron expulsados de la tierra a latigazos 9 Pero ahora, para sus hijos yo he venido a ser motivo de una canción de burla; en efecto, ahora yo soy una broma para ellos. 10 Ellos me aborrecen y se paran lejos de mí; ellos no se retraen de escupir en mi cara. 11 Pues Dios ha aflojado la cuerda a mi arco y me ha afligido, y aquellos que se burlan de mí lo hacen en mí cara sin ninguna restricción. 12 Sobre mi mano derecha se levanta la chusma; ellos me llevan lejos y apilan contra mí sus montículos de asedio. 13 Ellos destruyen mi camino; y empujan hacia adelante el desastre para mí, hombres quienes no tienen a nadie que los detenga. 14 Ellos vinieron contra mí como un ejército a través de un hoyo ancho en el muro de una ciudad; en medio de la destrucción ellos rodaron sobre mí. 15 El terror se tornó sobre mí; mi honor es llevado lejos como por el viento; mi prosperidad se discipa como una nube. 16 Ahora mi vida se está derramando en mí; muchos días de sufrimiento me han agarrado. 17 En la noche mis huesos son perforados; los dolores que roen en mí no descansan. 18 La gran fuerza de Dios ha agarrado mis vestidos; me ha envuelto como el collar de la túnica. 19 Él me ha lanzado al lodo; he venido a ser como polvo y cenizas. 20 Yo ruego a Tí, pero Tú no me respondes; me pongo de pie, y Tú apenas me miras. 21 Tú has cambiado y has sido cruel conmigo; con la fuerza de tu mano me persigues. 22 Tú me has levantado al viento y haces que me lleve lejos; me tiras adelante y hacia atrás en la tormenta. 23 Pues yo se que Tú me llevarás a la muerte, a la casa destinada para todas las cosas vivientes. 24 Sin embargo, ¿quién no extiende sus manos para rogar por ayuda cuando cae? ¿Quién en problemas no pide ayuda? 25 ¿No lloré yo por el que estaba en problemas? ¿No me afligí por el hombre en nesecidad? 26 Cuando yo buscaba el bien, entonces vino el mal; cuando yo esperaba la luz, en su lugar vino oscuridad. 27 Mi corazón está angustiado y no descanza; días de aflicción me han sobrevenido. 28 Yo he ido de aquí para allá como uno que estaba viviendo en la obscuridad, pero no a causa del sol; Yo me levanté en la asamblea y grité por ayuda. 29 Yo soy un hermano para los chacales, una compañía de avestruces. 30 Mi piel es negra y se me cae; mis huesos están quemados con calor. 31 Por lo tanto, mi arpa esta afinada para canciones de luto, mi flauta para el canto de aquellos que lloran.

Job 30:1

tienen nada sino burlas para mí
El sustantivo abstracto "burla" se puede expresar como verbo "burlarse". Traducción Alterna: "solo se burlan de mí"

cuyos padres yo reusaría permitir que trabajaran al lado de los perros de mi rebaño Esto muestra cuánto despreciaba a esos padres. Ni siquiera eran lo suficientemente buenos como para estar con sus perros. Traducción Alterna: "cuyos padres despreciaba y no habría permitido trabajar al lado de los perros de mi rebaño"

los perros de mi rebaño
La relación del perro con el rebaño se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: los perros que custodiaban mi rebaño "

En realidad, ¿cómo podría ayudarme la fuerza de las manos de sus padres ... perecido?
Job usa esta pregunta para burlarse de la debilidad de esos hombres. Traducción Alterna: "La fuerza de las manos de sus padres no podrían haberme ayudado ... perecido". o "

hombres quiénes a causa de su edad avanzada su fuerza ha perecido Su fuerza que perece es una metáfora que representa ya no son fuertes sino débiles. La frase "edad madura" se refiere a que son viejos. Traducción Alterna: "hombres que se habían vuelto

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

viejos y no tenían fuerza" u "hombres que se habían vuelto viejos y débiles"

Ellos estaban flacos a causa de su pobreza y hambre
La palabra "Ellos" se refiere a los padres de los jóvenes burladores.

Ellos estaban flacos a causa de su pobreza y hambre
El sustantivo abstracto "pobreza" se puede expresar con la palabra "pobre". El sustantivo abstracto "hambre" se puede expresar con las palabras "hambriento" o "hambriento". Traducción Alterna: "Eran muy delgados porque eran pobres y se morían de hambre"

ellos roían la tierra seca
Los posibles significados son que 1) "tierra seca" es una metonimia para las raíces secas que crecen en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "masticaron las raíces secas que encontraron en el suelo" o 2) "roeron el suelo seco" es una metonimia para comer lo que puedan encontrar en el suelo seco.

Job 30:4

Oración de Enlace:
Job continúa hablando de los padres de los burladores.

yerbas amargas ... hojas de arbustos ... las raíces de retama Estas son plantas que las personas comerían solo si no pudieran encontrar nada mejor.

las raíces de retama eran su alimento
Los significados posibles son 1) las personas comieron las raíces del árbol de la escoba o 2) las personas se calentaron quemando las raíces de los árboles de la escoba.

Ellos fueron expulsados de entre los pueblos quienes gritaron detrás de ellos ... un ladrón La frase "fueron expulsados" significa "se vieron obligados a irse". Estas frases pueden reordenarse y expresarse manera positiva. Traducción Alterna: "La gente les gritaba como ... un ladrón y los obligaba a irse" gritaron detrás de ellos como uno lo haría detrás de un ladrón

"les grité como si fueran ladrones"

Job 30:7

rebuznaban como burros
Traducción Alterna: "Vocearon en su necesidad";

Ellos eran hijos de tontos, en realidad, hijos de gente sin nombre Traducción Alterna: "Actuaron como personas sin sentido común".

Ellos fueron expulsados de la tierra a latigazos
Traducción Alterna: "fueron expulsados de la tierra como criminales"

Job 30:9

ellos no se retraen de escupir en mi cara Traducción Alterna: "¡incluso me escupieron en la cara!"

Dios ha aflojado la cuerda a mi arco y me ha afligido
Traducción Alterna: "Dios ha tomado conciencia de mi poder para defenderme".

Job 30:12

Sobre mi mano derecha se levanta la chusma
"Las pandillas de jóvenes atacan mi fuerza" o "Las turbas atacan mi honor"

apilan contra mí sus montículos de asedio
Job sabe que sus enemigos se están preparando para atacarlo, al igual que un ejército se prepara para atacar un muro de protección alrededor de una ciudad.

Job 30:14

como un ejército a través de un hoyo ancho en el muro de una ciudad Job compara su situación con una ciudad bajo ataque con un agujero en su muro defensivo.

mi honor es llevado lejos como por el viento Traducción Alterna: "el viento ha soplado lejos mi honor";

mi prosperidad se discipa como una nube.
Las pertenencias de Job han desaparecido como una nube que aparece de repente y luego desaparece del cielo.

Job 30:16

Ahora mi vida se está derramando en mí
Job siente que está a punto de morir.

los dolores que roen en mí no descansan.
Job habla de su dolor como si estuviera vivo.

Job 30:18

Él me ha lanzado al lodo
Job dice que Dios lo ha humillado.

Job 30:20

cruel
Esta palabra significa severo.

con la fuerza de tu mano me persigues.
La palabra "mano" representa el poder de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 30:22

Tú me has levantado al viento ... me tiras adelante y hacia atrás en la tormenta.
Estas expresiones representan el sufrimiento extremo que Dios hizo que Job perdurara.

la casa destinada para todas las cosas vivientes.
La "casa" representa el lugar donde van las personas muertas.

todas las cosas vivientes.
Es decir, todas las cosas ahora están vivas, pero eso morirá algún día.

Job 30:24

Sin embargo, ¿quién no extiende sus manos para rogar por ayuda cuando cae? ¿Quién en problemas no pide ayuda?
Los significados posibles son 1) "Ayudé a las personas que se habían caído cuando rogaban por mi ayuda. Ayudé a los que tenían problemas cuando me pidieron ayuda". o 2) "He caído, y por eso Dios no debería pensar que estoy haciendo mal cuando le suplico su ayuda. Estoy en problemas, ¡así que por supuesto que pido ayuda!"

¿No lloré yo ... problemas? ¿No me afligí ... hombre?
"Sabes que lloré ... problemas, y me entristecí ... ¡hombre!"

cuando yo esperaba la luz ... vino oscuridad.
Aquí "luz" representa la bendición y el favor de Dios y "oscuridad" representa problemas y sufrimiento.

Job 30:27

Mi corazón está angustiado y no descansa
Job habla de su corazón como si fuera una persona.

Yo he ido de aquí para allá como uno que estaba viviendo en la obscuridad, pero no a causa del sol Aquí Job relaciona la oscuridad con su tristeza y desesperación. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre estoy en la penumbra y la oscuridad".

Un hermano para los chacales, una compañía de avestruces.
Job compara su llamado en la miseria con los gritos de los chacales y las avestruces.

Job 30:30

mis huesos están quemados con calor.
Aquí "huesos" se refiere a todo el cuerpo, que sufre de fiebre.

lloran
Un "gemido" es un fuerte y largo grito de tristeza o dolor.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 He hecho yo un pacto con mis ojos; ¿cómo debo mirar con deseo una virgen? 2 Pues, ¿cuál es la porción del Dios de arriba, la heredad del Todopoderoso en las alturas? 3 Yo pensaba que la calamidad es para personas injustas, y el desastre para los hacedores de maldad. 4 ¿No ve Dios mis caminos y cuenta todos mis pasos? 5 Y si he caminado con falsedad, y si mis pies se han apresurado al engaño, 6 déjame ser juzgado honestamente para que Dios conozca mi integridad. 7 Si mis pasos se han vuelto fuera del camino recto, si mi corazón se fue detrás de mis ojos, si alguna mancha ha contaminado mis manos, 8 entonces, déjame sembrar y permite que otro coma; de hecho que la cosecha sea arrancada de mi campo. 9 Si mi corazón ha sido engañado por una mujer, si he estado esperando a la puerta de mi vecino, 10 entonces, deja que mi esposa muela grano para otro, y deja que los otros se postren ante ella. 11 Lo que sería un terrible crimen; de hecho, sería un crimen para ser castigado por los jueces. 12 Porque eso es un fuego que consume todo para el Seol y que quemaría toda mi cosecha. 13 Si yo ignoré el pedido por justicia de parte de mi sirviente masculino o femenino cuando ellos discuteron conmigo, 14 ¿entonces, qué podré hacer cuando Dios se levante para acusarme a mí? ¿Cuándo Él venga a juzgarme, cómo le voy a contestar a Él? 15 ¿Acaso el que me hizo en el vientre de mi madre no los hizo a ellos tambien? ¿No fue el mismo quien nos moldeó a todos en el vientre? 16 Si yo he impedido el deseo de los pobres, o he causado que los ojos de la viuda se oscurezcan de tanto llorar, 17 o si he comido mi bocado solo y no he permitido que aquellos sin padres lo puedan comer también- 18 porque desde mi infancia el huérfano creció conmigo como con un padre, y he guiado a su madre, una viuda, desde el vientre de mi madre. 19 ¡Si he visto a alguien perecer por falta de ropa, o si he visto que un hombre necesitado no tenía ropa; 20 si en su corazón no me ha bendecido porque él no ha sido calentado con la lana de mis ovejas, 21 si he levantado mi mano contra personas huérfanas porque he visto mi apoyo en la puerta de la ciudad, entonces traigan cargos contra mí! 22 Si yo he hecho estas cosas, entonces dejen que mi hombro se caiga del omóplato, y dejen que mi brazo sea roto de su articulación. 23 Porque temía la destrucción por parte de Dios; por Su majestad, no fuí capaz de hacer esas cosas. 24 ¡Si he hecho del oro mi esperanza, y si he dicho al oro fino, 'Tú eres en quien confio;' 25 si yo me he regocijado porque mi salud es grandiosa, porque mi mano ha obtenido muchas posesiones, entonces traigan cargos contra mí! 26 Si yo he visto el sol cuando brilló, o la luna caminando en su brillantez, 27 y si mi corazón ha sido secretamente atraído, de modo que mi boca ha besado mi mano en adoración a ellos- 28 esto también sería un crimen a ser castigado por los jueces, por cuánto yo he negado el Dios de las Alturas. 29 ¡Si yo me he regocijado ante la destrucción de alguien que me odie o yo he sentido felicidad cuando un desastre le ha sobrevenido a él, entonces traigan cargos contra mí! 30 De hecho, yo nunca he permitido que mi boca peque pidiendo que en su vida le vaya mal. 31 Si los hombres de mi carpa nunca han dicho, '¿quién puede encontrar uno que no haya sido llenado con los alimentos de Job?' 32 (aún el extranjero nunca ha tenido que quedarse en la plaza de la ciudad, porque yo siempre he abierto mis puertas al viajero), y si eso no es así, ¡entonces traigan cargos contra mí! 33 Si, como la humanidad, yo he escondido mis pecados por ocultar mi culpa en mi túnica 34 (porque tuve temor de las grandes multitudes, porque el desprecio de las familias me aterroriza, así que me quedé callado y no salí afuera), ¡entonces traigan acusaciones contra mí! 35 ¡Oh, si yo tuviera alguien que me escuche! Ves, aquí esta mi firma; deja que el Todopoderoso me conteste! ¡Si yo solo tuviera la acusación que mi oponente ha escrito! 36 Seguramente yo lo cargaría abiertamente en mi hombro; yo me lo pondría como una corona. 37 Yo le declararía a Él una suma de mis pasos; como príncipe confidente yo iría a Él. 38 Si mi tierra siempre llora contra mí, y sus surcos lloran juntos, 39 y si he comido sus cosechas sin haber pagado por ellas o he causado que sus dueños pierdan la vida, 40 entonces deja que crezcan cardos en lugar de trigo y hierba en lugar de cebada." Las palabras de Job son finales.

Job 31:1

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

He hecho yo un pacto con mis ojos Traducción Alterna: "Me prometí a mí mismo que no miraría con lujuria a una mujer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿cómo debo mirar con deseo una virgen?
Job usa una pregunta para enfatizar que nunca romperá su promesa. Traducción Alterna: "Así que ciertamente no miraré con lujuria a una virgen"

Pues, ¿cuál es la porción del Dios de arriba, la heredad del Todopoderoso en las alturas?
Ambos significan lo mismo. Job usa una pregunta para enfatizar que Dios no le daría nada bueno si peca y rompe su promesa.

Job 31:3

Información General:
Job sigue hablando.

¿No ve Dios mis caminos y cuenta todos mis pasos?
Aquí "mis caminos" y "mis pasos" se refieren al comportamiento de Job. Job usa una pregunta para enfatizar. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente Dios me mira y sabe todo lo que hago".

Job 31:5

Información General:
Job sigue hablando

Y si he En el 31: 5-40, Job describe diferentes situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios. Pero, él sabe que no son ciertas y que es inocente.

caminado con falsedad, y si mis pies se han apresurado al engaño Traducción Alterna: "hizo algo falso o engañó deliberadamente a alguien"

déjame ser juzgado honestamente
La gente usaba balanzas para pesar artículos y determinar su valor. Traducción Alterna: "Deje que Dios me juzgue honestamente"

Job 31:7

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

Si mis pasos se han vuelto fuera del camino recto Traducción Alterna: "Si he dejado de hacer lo correcto"

si mi corazón se fue detrás de mis ojos Traducción Alterna: "si he hecho algo malo"

si alguna mancha ha contaminado mis manos Traducción Alterna: "si soy culpable de algún pecado"

entonces, déjame sembrar y permite que otro coma Traducción Alterna: "deje que alguien más venga y tome la cosecha de mi campo"

Job 31:9

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

Si mi corazón ha sido engañado por una mujer Traducción Alterna: "Si hubiera deseado la esposa de otro hombre" si he estado esperando a la puerta de mi vecino por su esposa

"y he esperado que salga de su casa para poder dormir con ella"

entonces, deja que mi esposa muela grano para otro
Los posibles significados son 1) esta es una forma de decir que otro hombre se acostará con la esposa de Job o 2) significa que se convertirá en esclava y trabajará para otro hombre.

Job 31:11

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

sería un crimen para ser castigado por los jueces.
Traducción Alterna: "sería un crimen por el cual los jueces tendrían razón en castigarme"

Porque eso es un fuego que consume todo para el Seol y que quemaría toda mi cosecha.
Job enfatiza cuán terrible y destructivo es el pecado del adulterio.

Job 31:13

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

¿entonces, qué podré hacer cuando Dios se levante para acusarme a mí? ¿Cuándo Él venga a juzgarme, cómo le voy a contestar a Él?
Job usa una pregunta para enfatizar. Traducción Alterna: "entonces no habría absolutamente nada que pudiera decir para defenderme cuando Dios venga a juzgarme"

¿Acaso el que me hizo en el vientre de mi madre no los hizo a ellos tambien? ¿No fue el mismo quien nos moldeó a todos en el vientre?
Traducción Alterna: "Dios, quien ciertamente me hizo de la misma manera que él los hizo, debería juzgarme con el mismo sentido de justicia que a ellos".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 31:16

Información General:
Job comienza a describir situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios

he causado que los ojos de la viuda se oscurezcan de tanto llorar Aquí "ponerse oscuro" se refiere a la viuda que tiene mala vista debido a cuánto llora. Traducción Alterna: "He causado que una viuda llore de gran tristeza" mi bocado

"mi alimento"

porque desde mi infancia el huérfano creció conmigo como con un padre, y he guiado a su madre, una viuda, desde el vientre de mi madre.
Job describe cómo realmente trató al huérfano y a la viuda. Traducción Alterna: "He cuidado de huérfanos y viudas desde que era muy joven"

Job 31:19

Información General:
Job comienza a describir situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios

si en su corazón no me ha bendecido porque él no ha sido calentado con la lana de mis ovejas Traducción Alterna: "Le he dado a esas personas ropa de lana que las ha mantenido abrigadas, por lo que me han bendecido; pero si no hubiera hecho eso" si he levantado mi mano contra Traducción Alterna: "He amenazado con dañar"

en la puerta de la ciudad Aquí es donde los hombres importantes de la ciudad se reunirían para tomar decisiones.

Job 31:22

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

entonces dejen que mi hombro se caiga del omóplato, y dejen que mi brazo sea roto de su articulación.
Traducción Alterna: "entonces deja que alguien me arranque el hombro y me rompa el brazo"

Job 31:24

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

si he dicho al oro fino, 'Tú eres en quien confio Esta línea significa lo mismo que la línea anterior. Juntos enfatizan que Job no ha confiado en la riqueza para brindarle seguridad.

mi mano ha obtenido muchas posesiones Traducción Alterna: "He ganado muchas posesiones por mi propia habilidad"

Job 31:26

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

la luna caminando en su brillantez Traducción Alterna: "la luna se mueve a través del cielo"

si mi corazón ha sido secretamente atraído Traducción Alterna: "si secretamente he deseado adorarlos"

mi boca ha besado mi mano en adoración a ellos Esta es una señal de amor y devoción.

a ser castigado por los jueces
Traducción Alterna: "por lo cual los jueces tendrían razón en castigarme"

Job 31:29

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

De hecho, yo nunca he permitido que mi boca peque pidiendo que en su vida le vaya mal.
Job describe cómo realmente trató a quienes lo odiaban. Traducción Alterna: "En realidad, ni siquiera me permití pecar maldiciendo su vida"

Job 31:31

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

Si los hombres de mi carpa nunca han dicho, '¿quién puede encontrar uno que no haya sido llenado con los alimentos de Job?'
Traducción Alterna: "Mis hombres siempre han podido decir, '¡Todos los que conocemos han tenido tanta comida de Job como él quiere!' Si eso no fuera cierto, "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el extranjero nunca ha tenido que quedarse en la plaza de la ciudad, porque yo siempre he abierto mis puertas al viajero Job explica cómo realmente trató a los extranjeros. Traducción Alterna: "los viajeros nunca tuvieron que dormir en la calle. Siempre los recibí en mi casa"

Job 31:33

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

porque tuve temor de las grandes multitudes, porque el desprecio de las familias me aterroriza Estos significan lo mismo. Enfatizan que una persona puede ocultar su pecado porque teme lo que otras personas puedan decir.

Job 31:35

aquí esta mi firma
Job está describiendo su queja a Dios como si la hubiera escrito en un documento legal. Escribiría su nombre en él como una promesa de que todo en el documento es verdadero.

¡Si yo solo tuviera la acusación que mi oponente ha escrito!
"¡Si tan solo pudiera leer la queja de mi oponente en mi contra!"

Seguramente yo lo cargaría abiertamente en mi hombro; yo me lo pondría como una corona.
Esto significa que si Dios escribiera sus quejas contra Job, Job pondría el documento donde todos pudieran leerlo.

de mis pasos
Esto se refiere a las acciones de Job.

como príncipe confidente
Esto significa que Job se acercaría a Dios sin ningún temor.

Job 31:38

Información General:
Job continúa describiendo situaciones en las que merece el castigo de Dios, pero sabe que no son ciertas.

Si mi tierra siempre llora contra mí, y sus surcos lloran juntos Job describe la tierra como una persona que llora porque Job se la ha robado a su dueño.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Así que estos tres hombres dejaron de contestarle a Job porque él era recto en sus propios ojos. 2 Entonces se encendió la ira de Eliú, hijo de Baraquel el buzita, de la familia de Ram; se encendió en contra de Job porque él se justificó a sí mismo en vez de a Dios. 3 La ira de Eliú también se encendió en contra de sus tres amigos porque no encontraron contestación para Job, y aún así ellos habían condenado a Job. 4 Ahora Eliú había esperado para hablar con Job porque los otros hombres eran mayores que él. 5 Sin embargo, cuando Eliú vió que no había contestación en las bocas de estos tres hombres, su ira se encendió. 6 Entonces Eliú, hijo de Baraquel el buzita, habló y dijo: "Yo soy joven, y ustedes son muy viejos. Es por eso que me aguanté y no me atreví a decirles mi propia opinión. 7 Dije: "El largo de los días debería hablar; una multitud de años debería enseñar sabiduría. 8 Pero hay un espíritu en un hombre; el aliento del Todopoderoso le da entendimiento. 9 No es solo la gente grandiosa que es sabia, ni la gente envejecida los únicos que entienden la justicia. 10 Por lo tanto, les digo a ustedes: 'Escúchenme a mí; yo también les diré mi conocimiento.' 11 Vean, esperé por sus palabras; yo atendí sus argumentos mientras ustedes pensaban qué decir. 12 Ciertamente, les presté atención, pero, vean, no hubo ninguno de ustedes que pudiera convencer a Job o que pudiera responder a sus palabras. 13 Tengan cuidado de no decir: '¡Hemos encontrado la sabiduría!' Dios tendrá que derrotar a Job; meramente el hombre no puede hacerlo. 14 Pues Job no ha dirigido sus palabras en contra de mí, así que no le contestaré con las palabras de ustedes. 15 Estos tres hombres están pasmados; ya no pueden contestarle a Job; no tienen una palabra más que decir. 16 ¿Debería yo esperar porque no están hablando, porque están ahí parados en silencio y no contestan más? 17 No, yo también contestaré de mi parte; yo también les diré mi conocimiento. 18 Pues estoy lleno de palabras; el espíritu dentro de mí me obliga. 19 Vean, mi pecho es como el vino fermentándose sin ventilación; como odres nuevos, está listo para estallar. 20 Yo hablaré para que así pueda ser refrescado; abriré mis labios y contestaré. 21 No mostraré favoritismo; ni tampoco otorgaré títulos honoríficos a cualquier hombre. 22 Pues yo no sé cómo otorgar tales títulos; si así lo hiciera, mi Hacedor pronto me llevaría.

Job 32:1

en sus propios ojos
Los ojos representan ver, y ver representa pensamientos o juicio. Traducción Alterna: "se consideraba justo a sí mismo"

Entonces se encendió la ira de Eliú, hijo de Baraquel el buzita, de la familia de Ram; se encendió en contra de Job Esto compara la ira de Eliú con alguien que inicia un fuego. Además, esto puede expresarse de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Luego Eliú, hijo de Baraquel el buzita, de la familia de Ram, se enojó mucho con Job"

Eliú ... Baraquel ... Ram
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Buzita
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas.

él se justificó a sí mismo en vez de a Dios Esto significa que él se consideraba a sí mismo inocente y creía que Dios se había equivocado al castigarlo. Traducción Alterna: "se justificó a sí mismo y afirmó que Dios se había equivocado al castigarlo"

Job 32:3

La ira de Eliú también se encenció en contra de sus tres amigos Esto compara la ira de Eliú con alguien que inicia un fuego.Esto puede expresarse de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Eliú se enojó mucho con sus tres amigos"

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar un descanso en la historia principal. Esto cuenta información de antecedentes sobre Eliú.

no había contestación en las bocas de estos tres hombres Esto significa que los hombres habían terminado de hablar con Job. Esto habla de los hombres posiblemente teniendo una respuesta como si la respuesta fuera un objeto que estaría en sus bocas. Traducción Alterna: "que estos tres hombres no tenían nada más que decir" o "y estos tres hombres no tenían más respuestas para darle a Job"

su ira se encenció
Esto compara la ira de Eliú con alguien que inicia un fuego. Esto puede expresarse de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "se enojó mucho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 32:6

ustedes son muy viejos
Aquí "ustedes" es en plural y se refiere a Job y sus tres amigos.

El largo de los días debería hablar; una multitud de años debería enseñar sabiduría.
Estas dos líneas significan la misma cosa. Eliú enfatiza que las personas mayores son más sabios que la gente jóven, ellos deberían ser los primeros para hablar de lo que saben. Traducción Alterna: "Él que había vivido muchos años debería hablar; él que es mayor debería enseñar sabiduría"

Job 32:8

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job y sus amigos.

hay un espíritu en un hombre ... el aluento del Todopoderoso le da entendimiento.
Ambas frases significan la misma cosa. Eliú enfatiza que la sabiduría del hombre viene de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "hay un espíritu en un hombre, que es, el aliento del Todopoderoso que"

el aliento del Todopoderoso Aquí el espíritu es representado por "aliento". Traducción Alterna: "el espíritu del Todopoderoso"

Job 32:11

vean
Eliú usa esta palabra aquí para dibujar a la atención de los hombres a lo que él dice después. Traducción Alternativa: "Escuchen"

esperé por sus palabras La palabra "sus" se refiere a los amigos de Job. Sus "palabras" se refiere a lo que ellos deberían decir. Traducción Alternativa: "Esperé a escuchar lo que debían decir" (Ver: y que pudiera responder a sus palabras

Aquí la palabra "responder" no sólo significa contestar, sino responder con una respuesta provechosa.

Job 32:13

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a los amigos de Job.

Hemos encontrado la sabiduría
"Descubrimos qué es sabiduría." Esto significa que ellos creían que habían descubierto qué es la sabiduría.

derrotar a Job
Esta palabra de Dios responde a Job y lo corrige como si fuese derrotado en una batalla. Traducción Alternativa: "para refutar a Job" o "para responder a Job"

con las palabras de ustedes
"diciendo lo que deben decir"

Job 32:15

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

pasmados
"sin palabras"

¿Debería yo esperar porque no están hablando, porque están ahí parados en silencio y no contestan más?
Eliú usaba una pregunta para enfatizar que él no esperaría más para hablar. Eliú se responde esta pregunta a sí mismo en el siguiente verso.

Job 32:17

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando usando paralelismos.

Yo también contestaré de mi parte
"Ahora tomaré mi turno para responder"

Estoy lleno de palabras
Eliú habla de tener mucho para decir como estar lleno de palabras. Traducción alterna: "Tengo mucho para decir"

El espíritu dentro de mí me obliga
"mi espíritu me fuerza a decirlo" (UDB).

Mi pecho es como el vino fermentándose sin ventilación; como odres nuevos, está listo para estallar.
Mientras el vino está fermentándose, el gas se colecta en el contenedor. Si el gas no sale del contenedor estallará. Eliú se refiere a que él tiene demasiado para decir que si no habla siente que estallará. Además, hay dos frases en paralelo y tiene el mismo significado. Traducción alternativa: "Siento que mi pecho está por estallar, como un contenedor de vino fermentado sin ventilación."

mi pecho es
Esto representa a Eliú, específicamente su espíritu. Traducción alternativa: "Mi espíritu es" y "Yo soy"

Job 32:20

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando usando paralelismos para énfasis.

Pueda ser refrescado
Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Pueda sentirme mejor"

Abriré mis labios
Aquí los "labios" representan la boca. Traducción Alternativa: "abriré mi boca"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ni tampoco otorgaré títulos honoríficos a cualquier hombre
"ni tampoco alabaré a cualquier hombre o le daré títulos de honor"

Mi Hacedor
"Dios quien me hizo." Este es un nombre refiriéndose a Dios.

Me llevaría
Esto significa que él lo destrozaría. Traducción Alterna: "destruyeme"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 Así que ahora, Job, yo te ruego, escucha mi discurso; atiende a todas mis palabras. 2 Mira ahora, yo he abierto mi boca; mi lengua ha hablado en mi boca. 3 Mis palabras salen de la rectitud de mi corazón; mis labios hablan conocimiento puro. 4 El Espíritu del Señor me ha hecho; el aliento del Todopoderoso me ha dado vida. 5 Si tú puedes, contéstame; pon en orden tus palabras ante mí y párate. 6 Mira, yo soy igual que tú a la vista de Dios; yo también he sido formado del barro. 7 Mira, el terror de mí no te dará miedo; tampoco mi presión va a ser pesada sobre ti. 8 Tú ciertamente has hablado en mi escuchar; yo he escuchado el sonido de tus palabras diciendo: 9 'Yo soy limpio y sin transgresión; Yo soy inocente, y no hay pecado en mí. 10 Mira, Dios encuentra oportunidades para atacarme; Él me considera como su enemigo. 11 Él pone mis pies en trampas; Él vigila todos mis caminos.' 12 Mira, en esto tú no tienes la razón--Yo te voy a contestar, pues Dios es más grande que el hombre. 13 ¿Por qué tú luchas contra Él? Él no rinde cuenta por cualquiera de sus acciones. 14 Pues Dios habla una vez-- sí, dos, aunque el hombre no lo note. 15 En un sueño, en una visión de la noche, cuando el sueño profundo cae sobre los hombres, en el sueño en la cama-- 16 entonces Dios abre los oídos de los hombres, y los asusta con amenazas, 17 con el fin de sacar al hombre de sus propósitos pecaminosos, y mantener el orgullo lejos de él. 18 Dios mantiene la vida del hombre lejos del abismo, su vida de cruzar a la muerte. 19 El hombre es castigado también con dolor sobre su cama, con constante agonía en sus huesos, 20 para que su vida aborrezca la comida, y su alma aborrezca las delicias. 21 Su carne es consumida para que no pueda ser vista; sus huesos, que no se veían, ahora sobresalen. 22 Ciertamente, su alma se acerca al abismo, su vida hacia aquellos quienes desean destruirla. 23 Pero si hay un ángel quien pueda ser un mediador para él, un mediador, uno de entre los miles de ángeles, para demostrarle a él lo que es correcto hacer, 24 y si el ángel es amable con él y le dice a Dios: 'Salva a esta persona de caerse al abismo; yo he encontrado un rescate para él,' 25 entonces su carne va a convertirse más fresca que la de un niño; él volverá a los días de la fuerza de su juventud. 26 Él va a orarle a Dios, y Dios será amable con él, para que él vea la cara de Dios con gozo. Dios le dará a la persona su triunfo. 27 Luego esa persona cantará frente a otras personas y dirá: 'Yo pequé y pervertí eso que era correcto, pero mi pecado no fue castigado. 28 Dios ha rescatado mi alma de irse por el abismo; mi vida seguirá viendo la luz.' 29 Mira, Dios hace todas estas cosas con una persona, dos, sí, incluso tres veces, 30 para traer de regreso su alma del abismo, para que él pueda ser iluminado con la luz de vida. 31 Presta atención, Job, y escúchame a mí; guarda silencio y yo hablaré. 32 Si tienes algo que decir, contéstame; habla, pues yo deseo probar que tú estás en lo correcto. 33 Si no, entonces escúchame a mí; permanece en silencio, y yo te enseñaré sabiduría."

Job 33:1

Información General:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Escucha mi discurso; atiende a todas mis palabras Estas dos frases significa la misma cosa. Eliú está enfatizando que Job debe escuchar con atentamente.

yo he abierto mi boca... mi lengua ha hablado en mi boca Esto significa la misma cosa. Eliú está enfatizando que ahora está listo para hablar. Su "lengua" hablando representa a él mismo hablando. Traducción Alternativa: "Abrí mi boca y empecé a hablar"

Mis palabras salen de la rectitud de mi corazón
Aquí Eliú se refiere a sí mismo por su "corazón" cuando habla de ser recto. Además, él habla de sí mismo hablando como sus "palabras" hablasen. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo hablaré con rectitud" o "Yo hablaré con completa honestidad"

Mis labios hablan conocimiento puro
Aquí Eliú se refiere a sí mismo por sus "labios" para enfatizar su discurso. Traducción Alterna: "Hablaré sinceramente a ti las cosas que sé"

Job 33:4

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

El Espíritu de Señor ... me ha hecho Estas dos líneas significan la misma cosa. Eliú está enfatizando que Dios la hizo a él y entonces le da autoridad para lo que está diciendo.

pon en orden tus palabras ante mí y párate Esto habla de que Job preparó lo que iba a decir como si estuviera preparando y organizando objetos físicos. Traducción Alternativa: "prepara lo que dirás, y levántate y respóndeme"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 33:6

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

Mira
Eliú usa aquí esta palabra para llamar la atención de Job a lo que él dirá a continuación. Traducción Alternativa: "Escuchen" yo soy igual que tú a la vista de Dios Aquí la vista representa su juicio o evaluación. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo soy igual que tú ante el juicio de Dios" o "Dios te juzga de la misma manera que él me juzga a mí" yo también he sido formado del barro Aunque las personas no están hechas de arcilla, Dios ha hecho a todos como un alfarero cuidadosamente hace cosas de arcilla. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios nos hizo a los dos así mismo como un alfarero forma cosas de la arcilla"

yo también he sido formado Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios también me formó a mí" o "Dios nos ha formado a los dos" el terror de mí no te dará miedo

"tú no necesitas tenerme miedo" (UDB)

tampoco mi presión va a ser pesada sobre ti Esto significa que él no obstacularizará a Job ni lo cargará. Él habla de una carga emocional como si fuera una pesada carga física. Traducción Alternativa: "tampoco te cargaré" o "Yo no te oprimiré con lo que digo"

Job 33:8

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

en mi escuchar
"donde pude escucharte"

yo he escuchado el sonido de tus palabras diciendo Esto habla de Job hablando como si fueran sus "palabras" hablando. Traducción Alternativa: "Te he escuchado decir"

limpio
Una persona quien Dios considera espiritualmente aceptable se habla como si una persona estuviera físicamente limpia.

no hay pecado en mí
"Yo no he pecado"

Job 33:10

Información general:
"Eliú continúa citando lo que escuchó decir a Job"

Mira
El hablador usa esta palabra aquí para llamar la atención de lo que dirá a continuación. Traducción Alternativa: "Escuchen"

Él pone mis pies en trampas
"Trampas" son bloques de madera que un carcelero pone al rededor del pie de un prisionero para restringir su movimiento. Job habla de sentirse prisionero al decir que está en trampas. Traducción Alternativa: "Siento que me ha hecho un prisionero"

mis caminos
Estas palabras se refieren a donde él va. Aquí donde él va representa lo que él hace. Traducción Alternativa: "todo lo que hago"

Yo te voy a contestar Eliú está hablando a Job.

Job 33:13

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

¿Por qué tú luchas contra Él?
Eliú usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que Job no debería luchar contra Dios. Esta pregunta puede ser escrita como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No deberías luchar contra Dios" o "No deberías intentar discutir con Dios"

Él no rinde cuenta por cualquiera de sus acciones
"Él no tiene que explicarnos nada de lo que hace"

Dios habla una vez-sí, dos Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios habla otra vez y otra vez en diferentes maneras" en sueño ... en una visión en la noche Esta frase tiene el mismo significado.

cuando el sueño profundo cae sobre los hombres, en el sueño en la cama Esto habla de las personas que estaban en un sueño profundo como si el sueño cayera sobre ellos o los venciera. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando las personas estaban completamente dormidas en sus camas"

Job 33:16

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

entonces Dios abre los oídos de los hombres Esto habla de Dios haciendo que las personas se den cuenta de las cosas como si estuvieran abriendo sus oídos para que pudieran escuchar. Traducción Alternativa: "entonces Dios revela cosas a las personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

con el fin de sacar al hombre
Esto habla de que Dios evita que alguien haga algo como si lo estuviera alejando físicamente del daño. Traducción Alternativa: "con el fin de alejarlo"

Dios mantiene la vida del hombre lejos del abismo, su vida de cruzar a la muerte.
Ambas de estas declaraciones significan la misma cosa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios salva a las personas de la tumba y de la muerte"

el abismo
El lugar donde las personas van cuando mueren es referido aquí como "el abismo". Traducción Alternativa: "el lugar donde las personas muertas están"

vida del hombre lejos ... su vida Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "del hombre de morir y ... él lo mantiene"

de cruzar a la muerte Aquí "muerte" representa el lugar donde las personas van cuando mueren, eso es, el Seol. Traducción Alternativa: "de ir al Seol"

Job 33:19

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

El hombre es castigado también Esto puede ser fijado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios también castiga a una persona"

con dolor sobre su cama Esto significa que la persona está experimentando tanto dolor que debe acostarse en la cama. Traducción Alternativa: "con dolor entonces él debe acostarse en la cama"

para que su vida aborrezca la comida, y su alma aborrezca las delicias Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa, que la persona está con tanto dolor que ni puede comer. La persona está representada por su "vida" y su "alma". Traducción Alternativa: "El resultado es que él no desea ninguna comida, ni siquiera una comida especial"

aborrezca las delicias
"incluso odia la comida muy especial"

Job 33:21

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job

Su carne es consumida para que no pueda ser vista; sus huesos, que no se veían, ahora sobresalen Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. "Su carne" se refiere a sus gordos músculos, no a la piel externa de su cuerpo. Traducción Alternativa: "La enfermedad debilita y adelgaza su cuerpo para que una persona puede ver sus huesos"

su alma se acerca al abismo Aquí una persona es representada por su "alma". Traducción Alternativa: "él está cerca de ir a la tumba"

el abismo
El lugar donde las personas van cuando mueren es referido aquí como "el abismo". Traducción Alternativa: "el lugar donde las personas muertas están"

su vida hacia aquellos quienes desean destruirla Aquí la persona es representada por "su vida". La frase "aquellos quienes desean destruirla" se refiere al lugar donde las personas van después de morir. Traducción Alternativa: "y él está cerca de ir al lugar donde las personas muertas van" o "y él irá pronto al lugar de la muerte"

Job 33:23

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

para él
Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Eliú continúa hablando acerca de cualquier persona en general.

de entre los miles de ángeles En algunos idiomas quizás sea más natural referirse a "un gran número" en vez de "miles." Traducción Alternativa: "de entre el gran número de ángeles"

el abismo
El lugar donde las personas van cuando mueren es referido aquí como "el abismo". Traducción Alternativa: "el lugar donde las personas muertas están"

yo he encontrado un rescate para él
Esto significa que el ángel encontró una manera de pagar por los pecados del hombre entonces él no tenía que morir. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo he encontrado una manera para ti para alejarlo de morir"

Job 33:25

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

entonces
La palabra "entonces" es usada aquí para marcar lo que pasaría si Dios otorga la petición del ángel. Traducción Alternativa: "entonces como resultado" o "como resultado de la petición del ángel a Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

su carne va a convertirse más fresca que la de un niño Esto habla del hombre que está siendo sanado y su cuerpo se fortalece nuevamente como si su cuerpo se volviera nuevo como el cuerpo de un niño. Traducción Alternativa: "el cuerpo enfermo del hombre se volverá nuevo otra vez como el cuerpo de una persona jóven"

más fresca que la de un niño En esta comparación, la palabra "más fresco" es una exageración. Traducción Alternativa: "fresco como la de un niño"

de un niño
La palabra perdida quizás debe ser agregada. Traducción Alternativa: "la carne de un niño" él volverá a los días de la fuerza de su juventud Esto habla de un hombre siendo fuerte otra vez como cuando era joven como si de hecho fuera actualmente joven otra vez. Traducción Alternativa: "él se hará fuerte otra vez, como cuando era jóven"

él vea la cara de Dios con gozo Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "él adora a Dios gozosamente"

la cara de Dios
Aquí Dios es representado por su "cara". Traducción Alternativa: "Dios"

Dios le dará a la persona su triunfo
"Dios salvará a la persona" o "Dios hará cosas correctas para la persona otra vez"

Job 33:27

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

pero mi pecado no fue castigado Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "pero Dios no me castigó por pecar"

ha rescatado mi alma de irse por el abismo Aquí la persona es referida por su "alma". Traducción Alternativa: "me ha rescatado de morir e ir al abismo"

el abismo
El lugar donde va las personas cuando mueren es referido aquí como "el abismo". Traducción Alternativa: "el lugar donde están las personas muertas"

mi vida seguirá viendo la luz Aquí la persona está representada por su "vida". Además, se habla de vivir como ver la luz. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo seguiré viviendo y viendo la luz del día" o "Yo seguiré viviendo"

Job 33:29

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

Mira
Eliú usa esta palabra aquí como un modismo para dibujar la atención de Job hacia lo que él dice después. Traducción Alternativa: "Escuchen"

dos, sí, incluso tres veces Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "otra vez y otra vez" su alma

La persona está representada por su "alma". Traducción Alternativa: "su" para traer de regreso su alma del abismo Aquí habla de salvar al hombre de morir como si él murió y fue traído de vuelta a la vida. Traducción Alternativa: "para evitar que muera y vaya al abismo"

el abismo
El lugar donde las personas van cuando mueren está referido aquí como "el abismo". Traducción Alternativa: "el lugar donde las personas muertas están"

para que él pueda ser iluminado con la luz de vida Esta es una expresión idiomática y puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "él puede ser feliz por seguir vivo"

Job 33:31

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando a Job.

Presta atención, Job, y escúchame a mí Estas frases significan la misma cosa. Traducción Alternativa: "Escúchame con cuidado, Job" que tú estás en lo correcto Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "que tú eres inocente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 Por otra parte, Eliú continuó hablando: 2 "Escuchen a mis palabras, ustedes hombres sabios;
escúchenme, ustedes que tienen conocimiento. 3 Pues el oído trata palabras como el paladar prueba comida. 4 Escogeremos para nosotros mismos lo que es justo: descubramos entre nosotros mismos lo que es bueno. 5 Pues Job ha dicho: 'Yo soy justo, pero Dios se ha llevado mis derechos. 6 Independientemente de mis derechos, yo soy considerado un mentiroso. Mi herida es incurable, aunque yo estoy sin pecado.' 7 ¿Cúal hombre es como Job, que bebe burla como agua, 8 que camina en la compañía de aquellos que hacen mal, y que camina con hombres malvados? 9 Pues él ha dicho: 'Es inútil para una persona tomar placer en hacer lo que Dios quiere.' 10 Así que escúchenme, ustedes hombres de entendimiento: lejos esté de Dios que Él haga maldad; lejos esté del Todopoderoso que Él cometa pecado. 11 Pues él devuelve el trabajo de una persona; Él hace a cada hombre encontrar la recompensa de sus propios caminos. 12 En efecto, Dios no hace nada malvado, y el Todopoderoso nunca pervierte la justicia. 13 ¿Quién lo puso a cargo sobre la tierra? ¿Quién puso el mundo entero bajo Él? 14 Si alguna vez Él estableció sus intenciones solamente en Él mismo, y si Él alguna vez juntó para sí mismo Su espíritu y Su aliento, 15 entonces toda carne perecería junta; la humanidad regresaría al polvo de nuevo. 16 Si ahora tú tienes entendimiento, escucha ésto; escucha el sonido de mis palabras. 17 ¿Puede uno que odie justicia gobernar? ¿Tú condenarías a Dios, quien es justo y poderoso? 18 Dios, quien le dice a un rey: 'Tú eres vil', o dice a nobles: '¿Ustedes son malvados?' 19 Dios, quien no muestra favoritismo a líderes y no reconoce a personas ricas más que a las pobres, pues todos ellos son el trabajo de sus manos. 20 En un momento ellos morirán; a medianoche las personas serán sacudidas y pasarán; personas poderosas serán llevadas lejos, pero no por manos humanas. 21 Pues los ojos de Dios están sobre los caminos de una persona; Él ve todos sus pasos. 22 No hay oscuridad, ni espesa penumbra donde los hacedores de iniquidad puedan esconderse a sí mismos. 23 Pues Dios no necesita examinar más a una persona; no hay necesidad para que cualquier persona tenga que ir delante de Él en juicio. 24 Él quiebra a hombres poderosos en pedazos pues por sus caminos no se necesita más investigación; Él pone a otros en sus lugares. 25 De esta manera Él tiene conocimineto de sus obras; Él derroca a estas personas en la noche; ellos son destruidos. 26 A la vista de otros, Él los mata como criminales, por sus obras malvadas 27 porque ellos se alejaron de seguirle y se negaron a reconocer cualquiera de sus caminos. 28 De esta manera, ellos hicieron que el llanto de personas pobres vinieran a Él; Él escuchó el llanto de personas afligidas. 29 Cuando Él se mantiene en silencio, ¿quién lo puede condenar? Si Él esconde su rostro, ¿quién puede percibirlo? Él gobierna sobre nación e individuo por igual, 30 para que así un hombre impío no pueda gobernar, para que así no pueda haber ninguno que entrampe a las personas. 31 Supongamos que alguien le dice a Dios:
'Yo soy ciertamente culpable, pero yo no pecaré más nunca, 32 enséñame lo que no puedo ver; yo he cometido pecado, pero yo no lo haré más.' 33 ¿Ustedes piensan que Dios castigará el pecado de esa persona, ya que a ustedes le desagrada lo que Dios hace? Ustedes deben escoger, no yo. Así que digan qué es lo que ustedes saben. 34 Hombres de entendimiento me dirán, en efecto, cada hombre sabio que me escucha dirá: 35 'Job habla sin conocimiento; sus palabras son sin sabiduría.' 36 Si tan solo Job estuviera puesto en juicio en los más pequeños detalles de su caso a causa de su hablar como hombre malvado. 37 Pues él añade rebelión a su pecado; en medio nuestro él aplaude sus manos en burla; él amontona palabras contra Dios."

Job 34:1

Por otra parte, Eliú
"Luego, Eliú"

Eliú
Traduce este nombre de hombre igual que en 32:1.

Escuchen a mis palabras
"Escuchen lo que voy a decir"

ustedes hombres sabios ... ustedes que tienen conocimiento Eliú está criticando a Job y a sus amigos. Él no piensa que sean realmente sabios.

Pues el oído trata palabras como el paladar prueba comida
Eliú se refiere a que las personas escuchen atentamente para determinar qué está bien o mal al igual que nosotros probamos la comida para determinar si es buena o mala. Aquí las personas están referidas por su "oído" y su "paladar" para

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

enfatizar que ellos están probando y escuchando. Traducción Alternativa: "Pues nosotros escuchamos palabras para saber qué es bueno y malo, así como saboreamos alimentos para saber qué es bueno comer"

Job 34:4

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Escogeremos
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Eliú, Job, y sus tres amigos.

se ha llevado mis derechos
"se rehusó a darme justicia"

yo soy considerado un mentiroso Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios me considera mentiroso"

Mi herida es incurable
Aquí la enfermedad y el sufrimiento de Job se habla como si fuera una "herida". Traducción Alternativa: "Estoy enfermo y nadie puede curarme"

Job 34:7

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Cúal hombre es como Job
Eliú usa esta pregunta retórica para regañar a Job. Esta pregunta puede ser escrita como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No hay nadie como Job"

que bebe burla como agua Eliú está acusando a Job de burlarse de los demás tan amenudo como una persona bebe agua. Traducción Alternativa: "quien se burla de otras personas con tanta frecuencia como bebe agua"

que camina con hombres malvados
Aquí "camina" es una expresión idiomática de cómo actúa una persona. Traducción Alternativa: "quien se comporta como hombres malvados"

Job 34:10

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando. Cada uno de estos versos contienen frases paralelas.

ustedes hombres de entendimiento
Eliú está criticando a Job y sus amigos. Él no cree realmente que sean sabios.

lejos esté de Dios ... lejos esté del Todopoderoso que Él cometa pecado Estas dos frases tiene el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar que Dios nunca hará nada equivocado. La frase "lejos esté de" es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "El Dios Todopoderoso nunca considera hacer nada malvado o equivocado"

Pues él devuelve el trabajo de una persona
Esto significa que él da a una persona lo que merece por el trabajo que ha hecho. Aquí "trabajo" es una metáfora de lo que la persona hace. Traducción Alternativa: "Pues él da a una persona lo que merece en recompensa por lo que ha hecho"

Él hace a cada hombre encontrar la recompensa de sus propios caminos
La frase "sus propios caminos" es una expresión idiomática para cómo una persona vive su vida. Eliú enfatiza que Dios da a las personas lo que merecen. Traducción Alternativa: "él causa a cada hombre para recibir en recompensa lo que merece por cómo vive" (Ver: fisg_idiom)

Job 34:13

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

¿Quién lo puso a cargo sobre la tierra? ¿Quién puso el mundo entero bajo Él?
Ambas preguntas retóricas tienen el mismo significado para enfatizar que nadie necesitaba otorgarle a Dios autoridad porque ya era suya. Estas preguntas pueden ser escritas como declaraciones. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie necesitaba dar permiso a Dios para tomar la responsabilidad sobre toda la tierra. Él es el legítimo para gobernar el mundo."

Si alguna vez Él
Eliú está describiendo una situación que no cree que alguna vez puede ocurrir.

Su espíritu y Su aliento
El "espíritu" y "aliento" o Dios son los que dan vida a todos los seres vivos. Traducción Alternativa: "su espíritu y aliento que nos da vida"

toda carne
Aquí todos los seres vivos se hablan como "toda carne". Traducción Alternativa: "todos los seres vivos" regresaría al polvo de nuevo

Esto significa que todas las personas morirían y sus cuerpos se pudrirían y volverían polvo. En el principio Dios creó al hombre del barro. Traducción Alternativa: "los cuerpos de la humanidad pronto volverían a ser tierra"

Job 34:16

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ahora
Eliú usa esta palabra para dar atención a algo importante que él está a punto de decir.

tú tienes
Aquí "tú" es singular y se refiere a Job.

escucha el sonido de mis palabras
Esto significa lo mismo que la parte anterior de la oración. Traducción Alternativa: "Escuchen lo que voy a decir" ¿Puede uno que odie justicia gobernar? ¿Tú condenarías a Dios, quien es justo y poderoso?

Eliú usa esta pregunta para reprender a Job por implicar que Dios odia la justicia. Traducción Alternativa: "No se puede esperar que alguien que odia la justicia gobierne sobre las personas. Entonces realmente no puedes criticar a Dios, quien es justo y poderoso, y tú no puedes decir que lo que él ha hecho está mal.

¿Puede uno que odie justicia gobernar?
La respuesta implícita a esta pregunta retórica es "no". Esta pregunta implica que Dios no puede gobernar al mundo si odiara la justicia. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "El que odia la justicia no puede gobernar el mundo" o "Dios ciertamente nunca podría odiar lo que es correcto y seguir gobernando al mundo"

¿Tú condenarías a Dios, quien es justo y poderoso?
Esta pregunta retórica es usada para enfatizar que Job no tiene la autoridad o razón para condenar a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "No puedes condenar a Dios, quien es justo y Todopoderoso!"

Job 34:18

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Dios, quien le dice a un rey: 'Tú eres vil', o dice a nobles: '¿Ustedes son malvados?'
Esto continúa la pregunta retórica del verso previo, enfatizando que Job no puede condenar a Dios. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Él dice a algunos reyes, 'Tú eres vil' y él dice a algunos nobles, 'Ustedes son malvados.'"

Dios, quien le dice a un rey Esto es parte del verso previo. Las palabras perdidas pueden ser agregadas. Traducción Alternativa: "Condenarás a Dios, que le dice a un rey"

vil
"malvado" o "sin valor" (UDB)

pues todos ellos son el trabajo de sus manos Aquí "manos" se refiere a poder. Traducción Alternativa: "pues Dios hizo a todos ellos"

a medianoche
Aquí "medianoche" es el tiempo cuando un día termina y otro empieza. Aquí, sin embargo, es usado como una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "de noche" o "de repente, en la noche"

las personas serán sacudidas y pasarán Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. La frase "serán sacudidas" es una expresión idiomática que significa ser "golpeado." Traducción Alternativa: "Dios los golpea y mueren" personas poderosas serán llevadas lejos, pero no por manos humanas Esto significa que es Dios quien causó la muerte de personas, no las personas. Además, esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Es Dios y no los humanos quienes causaron la muerte de personas poderosas"

no por manos humanas Aquí las personas son representadas por sus "manos." Traducción Alternativa: "no por humanos" o "no por personas"

Job 34:21

Pues los ojos de Dios están sobre los caminos de una persona
Los ojos de Dios son representados por su vista. La frase "los caminos de una persona" es una expresión idiomática para lo que él hace y cómo vive. Traducción Alternativa: "Pues Dios ve todo lo que una persona hace"

Él ve todos sus pasos.
Esto significa que él siempre sabe dónde la persona está y donde irá. Traducción Alternativa: "él lo ve donde sea que vaya"

No hay oscuridad, ni espesa penumbra
Las palabras "espesa penumbra" basicamente significa lo mismo e intensifica la palabra "oscuridad".

en juicio.
"entonces lo puede juzgar" o "ser juzgado"

Job 34:24

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Él quiebra a hombres poderosos en pedazos Esto habla de Dios destruyendo a estos hombres como si realmente rompiera sus cuerpos en pedazos. Traducción Alternativa: "Él destruye al hombre poderoso" o "Él destruye a gente importante"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

por sus caminos no se necesita más investigación Él no necesita investigar lo que han hecho porque ya sabe todo acerca de ellos. Traducción Alternativa: "sin necesidad investigar más, porque él ya conoce sus caminos"

sus lugares
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "por las cosas que hicieron"

Él pone a otros en sus lugares Esto significa que él nombra a otras personas para gobernar en sus posiciones. Traducción Alternativa: "y elige a otras personas para gobernar en sus lugares"

en la noche
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando no estén esperándolo"

ellos son destruidos
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "y los destruyó"

Job 34:26

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

A la vista de otros, Él los mata como criminales, por sus obras malvadas Esta frase compara la manera que estas personas mueren como los criminales mueren. Traducción Alternativa: "Él los mata por sus malas acciones, a la vista de otros como si fueran criminales"

Él los mata
Esto habla de Dios causando a estas personas la muerte, sin embargo él realmente no los golpea con una espada. Él puede hacer que alguien más los mate o que les venga un desastre. Traducción Alternativa: "él les causó la muerte"

A la vista de otros Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "En un lugar donde todos pueden ver" sus caminos

Esto se refiere a las instrucciones de Dios por cómo la gente debería comportarse.

ellos hicieron que el llanto de personas pobres vinieran a Él
La palabra "llanto" puede ser expresada como verbo. Esto habla de Dios escuchando sus gritos como si lloraran como una persona que vino a Él. Traducción Alternativa: "hicieron llorar a las personas pobres, y Dios los escuchó"

Job 34:29

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Cuando Él se mantiene en silencio, ¿quién lo puede condenar? Si Él esconde su rostro, ¿quién puede percibirlo?
Estas dos preguntas hablan de Dios no castigando a las personas malvadas como si estuviera en silencio y escondiendo su rostro.

Cuando Él se mantiene en silencio, ¿quién lo puede condenar?
Eliú usa esta pregunta retórica para enseñar a Job. Esta pregunta puede ser escrita como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede criticar a Dios si él decide permanecer en silencio"

Si Él esconde su rostro, ¿quién puede percibirlo?
Eliú usa esta pregunta retórica para enseñar a Job. Esta pregunta puede ser escrita como declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede ir y verlo si él decide esconder su rostro"

su rostro
Aquí Dios es representado por su "rostro". Traducción Alternativa: "a sí mismo"

no pueda haber ninguno que entrampe a las personas Esto compara a un gobernante impío que castiga a las personas como un cazador atrapa a su presa. Traducción Alternativa: "nadie para castigar a las personas"

Job 34:31

Información general:
Eliú continúa hablando.

enséñame lo que no puedo ver
Aquí para "ver" significa para saber. Traducción Alternativa: "enséñame lo que he hecho mal de lo que no estoy al tanto"

¿Ustedes piensan que Dios castigará el pecado de esa persona, ya que a ustedes le desagrada lo que Dios hace?
"ya que a ustedes le desagrada lo que Dios hace, ustedes piensan que Dios castigará el pecado de esa persona?" Eliú usa esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que no debería pensar que Dios no castigará a este hombre. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Aunque no te gusta lo que Dios hace, seguramente ni siquiera crees que Dios castigará a esta persona"

el pecado de esa persona
Aquí castigar a la persona por su pecado es referido como castigar el "pecado de una persona" Traducción Alternativa: "a la persona por su pecado"

ya que a ustedes le desagrada
"porque a ustedes no les gusta"

qué es lo que ustedes saben
"qué están pensando acerca de esto" (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 34:34

Información general
Eliú continúa hablando.

que me escucha
"quien me escucha hablando"

Job 34:36

Si tan solo Job estuviera puesto en juicio Esto puede ser establecido en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Si tan solo pudiéramos poner a Job en juicio" o "Si tan solo pudiéramos llevar a Job a la corte para que un juez pueda escucharlo"

en los más pequeños detalles de su caso Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "para escuchar su caso a fondo" o "para escuchar todos los detalles de su caso"

de su hablar como hombre malvado
"de cómo habló como si fuera un hombre malvado"

él añade rebelión
Esto se refiere a la rebelión en contra de Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "él añade rebelío en contra de Dios"

él aplaude sus manos en burla En esta acusasión, significa que Job aplaudió sus manos para fortalecer su burla de Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "él aplaude sus manos mientras se burla de Dios en medio de nosotros" o "él se burla de Dios justo frente a nosotros"

él amontona palabras contra Dios Eliú habla de "palabras" como si fueran objetos y de decir muchas palabras como si estuviera amontonando esos objetos uno encima de otro. Traducción Alternativa: "él habla tantas palabras en contra de Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 Además Eliu continuó diciendo: 2 "¿Crees que esto es justo cuando dices: 'Mi derecho delante de Dios'? 3 Pues preguntas, '¿Qué útil es esto para mí? y, '¿Estaría yo mejor si hubiera pecado?' 4 Yo les contestaré, a ambos, a tí y a tus amigos. 5 Alza tu vista al cielo, y míralo; observa el cielo, el cual es más alto que tú. 6 Si tú has pecado, que daño le haces a Dios? ¿Si tus transgresiones se amontonan alto, que le haces a Él? 7 ¿Si tú eres recto, qué le puedes dar a Él? ¿Qué recibirá Él de tu mano? 8 Tú maldad puede dañar a un hombre, así como tú eres un hombre, y tu rectitud puede beneficiar a otro hijo de hombre. 9 Debido a muchos actos de opresión, el pueblo grita; ellos claman por ayuda de manos de hombres poderosos. 10 Pero ninguno dice: '¿Dónde está Dios mi Hacedor, quién da canciones en la noche, 11 quién nos enseña más a nosotros que a las bestias de la tierra, y quién nos hace más sabios que las aves del cielo?' 12 Allí ellos claman, pero Dios no da respuesta por el orgullo del hombre malvado. 13 Dios ciertamente no escuchará un clamor tonto; el Todopoderoso no prestará atención a él. 14 ¡Cuánto menos te escuchará Él si dices que no lo ves, que tu caso está delante de Él, y que estás esperando por Él! 15 Cuánto menos te responderá Él si tú dices que Él nunca castiga a alguno en ira, y que Él no esta muy preocupado por el orgullo del pueblo. 16 Así que Job sólo abre su boca para hablar tonterias; él acumula palabras sin conocimiento."

Job 35:1

¿Crees que esto es justo cuando dices: 'Mi derecho delante de Dios'?
Eliú usa preguntas para desafiar a Job. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú quizás piensas que estás en lo correcto ... "Mi derecho delante de Dios"

Crees que esto es justo cuando dices
"Crees que está bien para ti decir"

Crees
Aquí "tú" es singular y se refiere a Job.

Mi derecho delante de Dios Posibles significados son 1) Job está afirmando ser inocente delante de Dios o 2) Job está afirmando que él, en lugar de Dios, tiene razón.

Pues preguntas, '¿Qué útil es esto para mí? y, '¿Estaría yo mejor si hubiera pecado?'
Eliú cita a Job diciendo estas dos preguntas retóricas. Traducción Alternativa: "Pues dices, 'No me beneficia' y, 'No estoy mejor que si hubiera pecado'"

Job 35:4

Declaración de conexión:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Job 35:6

Declaración de conexión:
Eliú continúa hablando.

Si tú has pecado ... que le haces a Él?
Estas dos líneas comparten significados similares. La segunda línea intensifica el significado de la primera línea.

Si tú has pecado, que daño le haces a Dios?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que los pecados de Job no pueden realmente hacer nada a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "Si has pecado, no le has hecho daño alguno a Dios"

¿Si tus transgresiones se amontonan alto, que le haces a Él?
Eliú habla de "transgresiones" como si fueran objetos, y de cometer muchas transgresiones como si amontonara estos objetos uno encima de otro. Él pregunta esto para enfatizar que Job no hizo nada a Dios por sus transgresiones. Traducción Alternativa: "Si has cometido muchas transgresiones, aún no le haces nada"

¿Si tú eres recto, qué le puedes dar a Él? ¿Qué recibirá Él de tu mano?
Las dos preguntas retóricas significan básicamente lo mismo, que la rectitud de Job no añade nada a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "Si eres recto, eso no te permite darle nada a Él, y no hay nada que Él recibirá de tu mano."

recibirá Él de tu mano Aquí la palabra "mano" representa a Job. Traducción Alternativa: "recibirá de ti" otro hijo de hombre

"otro ser humano" u "otra persona"

Job 35:9

Información general
Eliú continúa hablando.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Debido a muchos actos de opresión
La palabra "opresión" puede ser traducida como una frase verbal. Traducción Alternativa: "Debido a muchas cosas que las personas hacen para oprimir a otros"

ellos claman por ayuda de manos de hombres poderosos Aquí "manos" se refiere al poder o la fuerza. Traducción Alternativa: "ellos claman por alguien que les libere del poder de los hombres poderosos"

quién da canciones en la noche
Eliú habla de Dios permitiendo que las personas tengan esperanzas en circunstancias problemáticas como si les estuviera dando canciones con las que pueden cantar durante la noche.

Job 35:12

Declaración de conexión
Elipu continúa hablando.

ellos claman
"la gente oprimida clama"

¡Cuánto menos te escuchará Él si dices que no lo ves ... y que estás esperando por Él!
Cuánto Dios no escuchará las oraciones del orgulloso, hombre malvado, es menos de lo que escuchará a Job, quien se queja contra él. Traducción Alternativa: "Entonces ciertamente él no te responderá ... que estás esperando por Él!"

que tu caso está delante de Él
"tú has presentado tu caso a él"

que estás esperando por Él
"estás esperando por él que responda"

Job 35:15

Información general
Eliú continúa hablando.

Cuánto menos te responderá Él ... preocupado por el orgullo del pueblo Eliú dice que es aún menos probable que Dios responda las oraciones de Job, ya que Job está diciendo estas cosas que no son ciertas sobre Dios.

Él nunca castiga a alguno en ira
"él nunca castiga a nadie porque está enojado"

él acumula palabras sin conocimiento Eliú habla de "palabras" como si fuesen objetos y habla de muchas palabras como si se acumularan esos objetos uno encima de otro. La palabra "conocimiento" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alternativa: "él dice muchas palabras sin conocimiento de lo que está hablando"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Eliú continuó y dijo: 2 "Permíteme hablar un poco más, y yo te mostraré algunas cosas porque yo tengo un poco más que decir en defensa de Dios. 3 Yo obtendré mi conocimiento desde lejos; yo reconoceré que la justicia le pertenece a mi Creador. 4 Porque de hecho, mis palabras no serán falsas; alguien que es maduro en conocimiento está contigo. 5 Mira, Dios es poderoso, y no desprecia a nadie; Él es poderoso en fuerza de entendimiento. 6 Él no preserva la vida de la gente maligna pero en su lugar, hace lo que es correcto para aquellos quienes sufren. 7 Él no quita sus ojos de la gente justa pero en su lugar, los pone en tronos como reyes por siempre, y ellos son levantados. 8 Si ellos están amarrados en cadenas y atrapados en cuerdas de sufrimiento, 9 entonces Él les revela a ellos lo que han hecho, y sus transgresiones y su orgullo. 10 Él también les abre sus oídos a Sus instrucciones, y les ordena a ellos a alejarse de la iniquidad. 11 Si ellos lo escuchan y lo adoran a Él, ellos pasarán sus días en prosperidad, sus años en alegría. 12 Sin embargo, si ellos no escuchan, ellos morirán por la espada; ellos morirán porque no tienen conocimiento. 13 Esos que son impíos de corazón guardan su enojo; ellos no claman por ayuda aún cuando Dios los amarra. 14 Ellos mueren en su juventud; sus vidas terminan entre las prostitutas de culto. 15 Dios rescata a la gente afligida por medio de sus aflicciones; Él abre sus oídos por medio de su opresión. 16 De hecho, a Él le gustaría sacarlos de la angustia a un amplio lugar donde no hay dificultades y donde su mesa sería preparada con comida llena de grasa. 17 Pero tú estás lleno de juicio en las personas malignas; juicio y justicia te han atrapado a ti. 18 No dejes que tu enojo te lleve a burlarte, o que la grandeza de un rescate te lleve a un lado. 19 ¿Puede tu riqueza beneficiarte, para que no pases angustias, o puede todo el poder de tus fuerzas ayudarte? 20 No desees la noche, para cometer pecado en contra de otros, cuando la gente es cortada en su lugar. 21 Ten cuidado de no girarte al pecado porque estás siendo probado al sufrir para que te mantengas alejado del pecado. 22 Mira, Dios es exaltado en Su poder; ¿Quién es un maestro como Él? 23 ¿Quién alguna vez lo ha instruído a Él en su camino? ¿Quién puede alguna vez decirle a Él: 'Tú has cometido injusticia?' 24 Recuerda alabar Sus obras, de las cuales ha cantado la gente. 25 Toda las personas han mirado esas obras, pero ellos ven esas obras solo desde muy lejos. 26 Mira, Dios es grande, pero nosotros no lo entendemos bien a Él; el número de sus años es incalculable. 27 Pues Él dibuja las gotas de agua que Él filtra como lluvia de Su vapor, 28 la cual las nubes echan abajo y caen en abundancia sobre la humanidad. 29 De hecho, ¿puede alguien entender la extensa cantidad de las nubes y el trueno desde su choza? 30 Mira, Él esparce Su rélampago sobre él y cubre las raíces del mar. 31 En Su camino, Él juzga la gente y da comida en abundancia. 32 Él llena Su mano con el relámpago hasta que Él le ordena que caíga contra su objetivo. 33 Su trueno advierte de la tormenta, el ganado también escucha que viene.

Job 36:1

yo te mostraré algunas cosas
Eliú habla de explicar algunas cosas a Job como si él estuviese por ir a mostrar esas cosas a Job. Traducción Alternativa: "Te explicaré algunas cosas"

Yo obtendré mi conocimiento desde lejos Eliú habla de tener conocimiento de muchos temas diferentes como si estuviera obteniendo su conocimiento de lugares alejados. Traducción Alternativa: "Te mostraré mi gran conocimiento"

la justicia le pertenece a mi Creador Aquí la palabra "justicia" puede ser traducida como un adjetivo. Traducción Alternativa: "que mi Creador es justo"

Job 36:4

mis palabras no serán falsas
"lo que diré no será falso"

alguien que es maduro en conocimiento está contigo
La palabra "alguien" se refiere a él mismo, Eliú. él habló de ser muy conocedor como si estuviera siendo maduro en conocimiento. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo, que estoy contigo, soy muy conocedor"

Mira
"En efecto". La palabra "mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue.

Él es poderoso en fuerza de entendimiento
La frase "poderoso en fuerza" forma doble significado que es "muy fuerte". Eliú habla de Dios entendiendo todo perfectamente como si su

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

entendimiento fuera muy fuerte. Traducción Alternativa: "él es muy fuerte en entendimiento" o "él entiende todo completamente"

Job 36:6

Él no preserva la vida de la gente maligna Eliú habla de Dios protegiendo a las personas justas como si Dios estuviera viéndolos con sus ojos, y de Dios dejando de protegerlos como si él apartase sus ojos de ellos. Traducción Alternativa: "Él no deja de proteger a las personas justas"

los pone en tronos como reyes Eliú habla de Dios honrando a las personas justas como si Dios estuviera haciéndolos sentar en tronos como lo hacen los reyes.

ellos son levantados
Eliú habla de Dios honrando a las personas justas como si los levantara en un lugar alto. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Él los levanta" o "Él los honra"

Job 36:8

Si ellos están amarrados en cadenas Aquí la palabra "ellos" se refiere a los justos quienes Dios disciplinará si pecan. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Si alguien los amarra en cadenas" o "Si alguien los hace prisioneros"

y atrapados en cuerdas de sufrimiento Eliú habla de un ser humano hecho para sufrir como si esa persona estuviera atrapada en cuerdas que le causan sufrimiento. Traducción Alternativa: "y alguien les causó sufrimiento"

sus transgresiones y su orgullo
El verbo puede ser suministrado de la frase previa. Traducción Alternativa: "él les revela sus transgresiones y su orgullo"

Job 36:10

Él también les abre sus oídos Eliú habla de causar a una persona que escuche como si estuviera abriendo el oído de la persona. Traducción Alternativa: "él también los hace escuchar"

a Sus instrucciones El sustantivo "instrucciones" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alternativa: "lo que él les instruye"

alejarse de la iniquidad Eliú habla de parar una acción como si estuviere alejándose de ella. Traducción Alternativa: "parar de cometer iniquidad"

ellos pasarán sus días en prosperidad, sus años en alegría Las palabras "días" y "años" ambas se refieren al tiempo de vida de una persona. Traducción Alternativa: "ellos gastarán sus vidas en prosperidad y contentamiento"

ellos morirán por la espada
Eliú habla de una persona muriendo violentamente como si alguien lo haya matado con una espada. Traducción Alternativa: "ellos morirán con una muerte violenta"

Job 36:13

que son impíos de corazón Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos y emociones. La frase puede indicar que la persona tercamente se rehúsa a confiar en Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "que se rehúsan a confiar en Dios"

guardan su enojo
Eliú habla de una persona permaneciendo enojada como si la persona guardara su enojo como alguien que guarda un tesoro. Traducción Alternativa: "están siempre enojados"

aún cuando Dios los amarra Eliú habla de Dios disciplinando a las personas como si Dios estuviera amarrándolas con cuerdas. Traducción Alternativas: "aún cuando Dios les castiga" sus vidas terminan entre las prostitutas de culto Aquí "prostitutas de culto" se refiere a jóvenes que sirven en templos paganos realizando actos de inmoralidad sexual como parte de sus rituales. Posibles significados para esta frase son 1) el impío muere por su comportamiento inmoral o 2) el impío muere en vergueza y desgracia.

Job 36:15

Él abre sus oídos
Eliú habla de Dios haciendo a una persona escuchar como si Dios estuviera abriendo sus oídos. Observe cómo traduce esto en 36:10. Traducción Alternativa: "él les hace escuchar"

a un amplio lugar donde no hay dificultades Eliú habla de vivir sin problemas como si estuviera en un espacio abierto donde no hubiera dificultades.

donde su mesa sería preparada con comida llena de grasa
Eliú habla de vivir prósperamente como si estuviere teniendo una mesa preparada con los mejores platos de comida.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

su mesa sería preparada Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "tus sirvientes prepararán tu mesa"

comida llena de grasa
La carne que tiene mucha grasa es señal de prosperidad porque los animales son sanos y bien alimentados. Traducción Alternativa: "la muy buena comida"

Job 36:17

tú estás lleno de juicio en las personas malignas Posibles significados son 1) "Dios te castigará como castiga a las personas malignas" (UDB) o 2) "estás obsesionado con el juicio que los malignos merecen"

juicio y justicia te han atrapado a ti
Eliú habla de Dios juzgando a Job y dandole justicia como si el juicio y la justicia fuesen personas que se apoderaron de Job. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios te ha llevado a juicio y teha dado justicia"

No dejes que tu enojo te lleve a burlarte
Algunas versiones de la Biblia traduce esto como "Ten cuidado de que las riquezas no te atraigan"

Job 36:19

¿Puede tu riqueza beneficiarte ... o puede todo el poder de tus fuerzas ayudarte?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que el dinero y el poder no estarán disponibles para ayudar a Job si él actúa con injusticia. Traducción Alternativa: "tus riquezas no pueden beneficiarte ... toda la fuerza de tu poder no puede ayudarte"

todo el poder de tus fuerzas ayudarte
"toda tu gran fuerza" o "todos tus esfuerzos poderosos"

cuando la gente es cortada en su lugar Posibles significados son 1) que "personas" se refiere a personas en general y "cortada en su lugar" es una metáfora de oprimir a otros arrastrándo a otros lejos de sus casas. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando las personas arrastran fuera de sus casas a otras personas" o 2) las "personas" representa naciones y "cortada en su lugar" es una metáfora para naciones siendo destruidas. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando naciones perecerán"

estás siendo probado al sufrir
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios te está probando haciéndote sufrir"

Job 36:22

Mira
La palabra "mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alternativa: "En efecto"

Dios es exaltado en Su poder Posibles significados son 1) "Dios es extremadamente poderoso" o 2) "Las personas exaltan a Dios porque es poderoso" ¿Quién es un maestro como Él?

Eliú pregunta esta retórica pregunta para enfatizar que nadie es maestro como Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "nadie es maestro como Él" o "nadie enseña como Él lo hace" ¿Quién alguna vez lo ha instruído a Él en su camino?

Eliú pregunta esta retórica pregunta para enfatizar que nadie nunca le ha enseñado a Dios qué hacer. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie nunca lo ha instruído acerca qué debe hacer"

¿Quién puede alguna vez decirle a Él: 'Tú has cometido injusticia?
Eliú pregunta esta retórica pregunta para enfatizar que nadie puede acusar a Dios de haber cometido lo injusto. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede decirle, 'Tú has cometido injusticia'"

Job 36:25

ellos ven esas obras solo desde muy lejos
Eliú habla de las personas que no están completamente capacitadas para comprender las obras de Dios como si las personas sólo estuvieran capacitadas para ver esas obras desde lejos. Traducción Alternativa: "ellos no lo entienden completamente"

Mira
"En efecto". La palabra "Mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue.

el número de sus años es incalculable
Esto se refiere a hace cuánto Dios ha existido. Traducción Alternativa: "las personas no pueden saber hace cuánto Él ha vivido" o "las personas no pueden saber su edad"

Job 36:27

Él filtra como lluvia de Su vapor
La palabra "filtra" puede también significar "refina" o "destila". Eliú describe cómo Dios convierte las gotas de agua, o vapor, que él lo forma en lluvia. Traducción Alternativa: "él convierte en lluvia" ¿puede alguien entender la extensa cantidad de las nubes y el trueno desde su choza?

Eliú pregunta esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que nadie puede hacer estas cosas. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alternativa: "nadie puede entender la extensa cantidad de nubes y el trueno desde su choza"

la extensa cantidad de las nubes
La frase "la extensa cantidad" puede ser traducida como una frase verbal. Traducción Alternativa: "como la cantidad de nubes a través del cielo"

desde su choza
Eliú habla del cielo como si fuese una "choza" donde Dios vive. Traducción Alternativa: "del cielo, donde Dios vive"

Job 36:30

Mira
"En efecto". La palabra "Mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue.

y cubre las raíces del mar
Eliú habla de las profundas partes del mar como si fuesen plantas y es hondo donde las raíces están. Posibles significados son 1) Aunque el rayo causa luz en el cielo, las partes profundas del mar permanecen oscuras. Traducción Alternativa: "pero lo profundo del mar permanece oscuro" o 2) los rayos en el cielo causan luz hasta en la profundidad del mar. Traducción Alternativa: "e ilumina las profundidades del mar"

Job 36:32

Él llena Su mano con el relámpago
Eliú habla de la luz que las tormentas ocasionan como si Dios estuviera sosteniendo los relámpagos en su mano y dirigiéndolo para golpear donde él quiere. Posibles significados 1) Dios tiene los rayos en sus manos para tirárlos, o 2) Dios esconde los rayos de luz en sus manos hasta que esté listo para usarlos.

Su trueno
"El trueno causado por los relámpagos" o "El trueno"

escucha que viene
"Escucha que la tormenta viene"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 37

1 En efecto, mi corazón tiembla ante esto; y se mueve de su lugar. 2 Oye, oh, oye el ruido de su voz, el sonido que sale de su boca. 3 Él lo envia bajo todo el cielo, y manda su relámpago a los bordes de la Tierra. 4 Una voz ruge detrás de el; truena con la voz de su majestad; no contiene los rayos cuando se escucha su voz. 5 Dios truena maravillosamente con Su voz; Él hace grandes cosas que no podemos comprender. 6 Pero Él le dice a la nieve. 'Cae sobre la tierra'; igual a la lluvia, 'Conviértete en una gran lluvia.' 7 Él detiene la mano de todos de trabajar, para que la gente, que Él ha hecho, pueda ver Sus obras. 8 Entonces, la bestias se van a esconder y se quedan en sus refugios. 9 La tormenta sale de su cámara en el sur y el frío de los vientos dispersados en el norte. 10 Por el aliento de Dios, el hielo es dado; la expansión de la aguas congeladas son como metal. 11 Ciertamente, Él pesa la densa nube con la humedad; Él esparse sus relámpagos a través de las nubes. 12 Él mueve las nubes bajo su dirección, para que ellas hagan lo que Él les manda sobre la superficie del mundo entero. 13 Él hace que todo esto suceda; a veces sucede para correción, a veces para su tierra, y a veces como actos de fidelidad para el convenio. 14 Escucha esto, Job; detente y piensa de los hechos maravillosos de Dios. 15 ¿Sabes tú como Dios obliga su voluntad sobre las nubes y hace que los rayos destellen en ellos? 16 ¿Tú entiendes como flotan las nubes, las obras maravillosas de Dios, que es perfecto en conocimiento? 17 ¿Tú entiendes como tus ropas se ponen caliente cuando la tierra está quieta porque el viento viene del sur? 18 ¿Puedes tu extender el firmamento como Él puede- el cielo que es tan fuerte como un espejo de metal? 19 Enséñanos lo que debemos decirle, porque nosotros no podemos exponer nuestros argumentos en orden a causa de la oscuridad de nuestras mentes. 20 ¿Debo decirle que deseo hablar con Él? ¿Habrá una persona que desea ser tragada? 21 Ahora, la gente no puede mirar al sol cuando brilla en el cielo después que el viento pasa a través de las nubes y lo despeja. 22 Del norte viene el dorado esplandor - sobre Dios es majestad temible. 23 En cuanto al Tododeroso, ¡no podemos encontrarlo! Él es grande en poder; Él no oprime la justicia y abundante rectitud. 24 Por eso, la gente Le teme. Él no le presta atención aquellos que son sabios en sus propios pensamientos.

Job 37:1

mi corazón tiembla ante esto ... y se mueve de su lugar Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo para enfatizar e intensificar su temor.

mi corazón tiembla ante esto La palabra "esto" se refiere a la tormenta en 36:32

y se mueve de su lugar Eliú habla de su corazón bombeando violentamente como si fuera a saltar fuera de su pecho. Traducción Alternativa: "se mueven fuera de su lugar" o "bombea violentamente"

oye el ruido de su voz, el sonido que sale de su boca Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Eliú habla del trueno como si fuera la voz de Dios.

a los bordes de la Tierra Eliú habla de los lugares más alejados de la tierra como si fueran las fronteras de la tierra. Traducción Alternativa: "en todas partes del mundo"

Job 37:4

Una voz ruge detrás de el ... la voz de su majestad Eliú continúa hablando sobre el trueno como si fuera la voz de Dios.

ruge detrás de el
"ruge detrás de los rayos"

la voz de su majestad
"su voz majestuosa"

cuando se escucha su voz Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando las personas escuchan su voz"

igual a la lluvia
El verbo puede ser suministrado de la frase anterior. Traducción Alternativa: "así mismo le dijo a la lluvia"

Job 37:7

Él detiene la mano de todos
Aquí la palabra "mano" representa a la persona entera. Traducción Alternativa: "Él detiene a todo hombre"

La tormenta sale de su cámara en el sur y el frío de los vientos dispersados en el norte En Israel, las fuertes tormentas de vientos soplan desde el sur y el clima frío se acerca desde el norte.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La tormenta sale de su cámara en el sur
Eliú habla de la tormenta soplando desde el sur como si la tormenta tuviera un lugar donde reside antes de venir.

Job 37:10

Por el aliento de Dios, el hielo es dado Eliú habla de viento frío del norte como si fuera la respiración de Dios. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "El aliento de Dios crea hielo" congeladas son como metal.

Eliú compara la dureza del hielo con la dureza de un metal. Traducción Alternativa: "helado, tan duro como un metal"

Él pesa la densa nube con la humedad
Eliú habla de Dios haciendo que las nubes de tormenta estén llenas de agua como si el peso de la humedad pesara a las nubes. Traducción Alternativa: "Él hace que las densas nubes estén llenas de humedad"

Job 37:12

a veces sucede para correción La palabra "corrección" puede ser traducida como una frase verbal. El objeto de su "corrección" son las personas. Traducción Alternativa: "a veces sucede para corregir a las personas"

a veces para su tierra
Esto significa que la lluvia moja el suelo y hace crecer la vegetación. Traducción Alternativa: "a veces para mojar la tierra"

Job 37:14

¿Sabes tú como Dios obliga su voluntad sobre las nubes y hace que los rayos destellen en ellos?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que Job no sabe esto. Traducción Alternativa: "No puedes entender cómo Dios obliga su voluntad sobre las nubes y hace que los rayos destellen en ellos"

obliga su voluntad sobre las nubes
"controla las nubes" o "hace que las nubes le obedezcan"

Job 37:16

¿Tú entiendes como flotan las nubes, las obras maravillosas de Dios, que es perfecto en conocimiento?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que Job no sabe estas cosas. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no entiendes como flotan las nubes, las maravillosas obras de Dios, que es perfecto en conocimiento."

flotan las nubes
"como flotan las nubes"

las obras maravillosas de Dios
El verbo puede ser suministrado de la frase anterior. Traducción Alternativa: "o entiendes las maravillosas obras de Dios" o "y tú no entiendes las maravillosas obras de Dios"

¿Tú entiendes como tus ropas se ponen caliente ... del sur?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que Job no sabe estas cosas. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no entiendes cómo tus ropas se ponen caliente ... del sur"

como tus ropas se ponen caliente
"como te calientas en tus ropas" o "como sudas en tus ropas"

porque el viento viene del sur
En Israel, los vientos calientes soplan a través del desierto del sur y causan temperaturas calientes. Traducción Alternativa: "porque el calor, viento seco que viene del sur"

Job 37:18

¿Puedes tu extender el firmamento ... un espejo de metal?
Eliú pregunta esto para enfatizar que Job no puede hacer esto. Traducción Alternativa: "No puedes extender el firmamento ... un espejo de metal"

tan fuerte como un espejo de metal En días bíblicos, los espejos estaban hechos de metal. Eliú habla del firmamento no dando lluvia como si fuera duro como un metal sólido.

espejo de metal
Esto se refiere al metal que es derretido, se vierte en un molde, y luego se endurece cuando se enfría.

Enséñanos lo que debemos decirle Aquí el plural en las palabras "enséñanos" o "debemos" se refiere a Eliú, Elifaz, Bildad, y Zofar, pero no a Job. Eliú usa esta frase sarcásticamente.

a causa de la oscuridad de nuestras mentes Eliú habla de la inhabilidad de entender como si fuera tener una oscuridad en la mente. Traducción Alternativa: "porque no entendemos"

¿Debo decirle que deseo hablar con Él?
Eliú pregunta esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que no hay nadie que haga esto. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo no puedo permitir que alguien le diga que deseo hablar con él"

Debo decirle
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "¿Debería hacer que alguien le dijera?"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Habrá una persona que desea ser tragada?
Eliú hace esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que nadie querría que esto pase. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie querría ser tragado"

ser tragada
Eliú habla de una persona siendo destruída como si la persona fuera tragada. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "para que Dios lo destruya"

Job 37:21

Del norte viene el dorado esplandor
Esta frase "dorado esplandor" describe la gloria de Dios. Esto puede ser más explicito en la traducción. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios viene del norte con dorado esplandor"

sobre Dios es majestad temible
La palabra "temible" significa que causa miedo. Eliú habla de la majestad de Dios como si fuera algo que descansa sobre Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "La majestad de Dios provoca miedo a la gente"

Job 37:23

¡no podemos encontrarlo!
Posibles significados son 1) "no podemos acercarnos a Él" o 2) esto es una metáfora con la cual Eliú habla de una persona siendo incapaz de entender totalmente a Dios como si no pudiera encontrarlo. Traducción Alternativa: "no podemos comprenderlo"

aquellos que son sabios en sus propios pensamientos Aquí "mentes" representa a los pensamientos de las personas. Traducción Alternativa: "aquellos que son sabios en sus propios pensamientos" o "aquellos que se consideran sabios a sí mismos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 38

1 Luego, el SEÑOR llamó a Job desde una tormenta feroz y dijo: 2 "¿Quién es este que trae oscuridad a los planes por medio de palabras sin conocimiento? 3 Ahora, ciñe tus lomos como un hombre, pues yo te haré preguntas y tú tienes que contestarme. 4 ¿Dónde estabas tú cuando Yo establecí los cimientos de la tierra? Dime, si tienes tanto entendimiento. 5 ¿Quién determinó sus dimensiones? Dime, si tú sabes. ¿Quién estiró la línea de medida sobre ella? 6 ¿Sobre qué fueron establecidos sus cimientos? ¿Quién estableció su piedra angular 7 cuando las estrellas de la mañana cantaron unidas y todos los hijos de Dios gritaron de alegría? 8 ¿Quién cerró al mar con puertas cuando estalló, como si hubiese salido del vientre--- 9 cuando Yo le hice a las nubes sus vestidos, y a la densa oscuridad sus envolturas de vendas? 10 Eso fue cuando Yo le marqué al mar Mi límite, y cuando Yo coloqué sus barras y puertas, 11 y cuando Yo le dije: "Tú puedes llegar hasta aquí, pero no más lejos; aquí es donde Yo pondré Mi límite al orgullo de tus olas.' 12 ¿Alguna vez, desde que tus propios días comenzaron, le has dado órdenes a la mañana para que comience y causado al amanecer de la mañana saber su lugar en la esquema de las cosas, 13 para que pueda sostener los lados de la tierra a fin de que las personas malvadas puedan ser sacudidas fuera de ella? 14 La tierra es cambiada en apariencia como el barro cambia bajo un sello; todas las cosas sobre ésta sobresalen claramente como los dobleces de una pieza de vestidura. 15 De las personas malvadas su 'luz' le es quitada; su brazo levantado es roto. 16 ¿Has ido a las fuentes de las aguas del mar? ¿Has caminado en las partes más bajas de la profundidad? 17 ¿Las puertas de la muerte te han sido reveladas? ¿Has visto las puertas de la sombra de la muerte? 18 ¿Has entendido a la tierra en su expansión? Dime, si lo sabes todo. 19 ¿Dónde está el camino al lugar de descanso de la luz--- en cuanto a la oscuridad, dónde está su lugar? 20 ¿Puedes tú guiar a la luz y a la oscuridad a sus lugares de trabajo? ¿Puedes tú encontrar el camino de regreso a sus casas por ellos? 21 Sin lugar a dudas tú sabes, pues habías nacido entonces; ¡el número de tus días es tan grande! 22 ¿Has entrado a las casas de almacén para la nieve, o has visto las casas de almacén para el granizo, 23 estas cosas que Yo he guardado para tiempos de problema, para días de batalla y guerra? 24 ¿Cuál es el camino a donde los relámpagos son distribuídos o donde los vientos son esparcidos desde el este sobre la tierra? 25 ¿Quién ha creado los canales para las inundaciones de lluvia, o quién ha hecho las rutas para los estruendos de rayo, 26 para causar que llueva sobre tierras donde ninguna persona existe, y sobre el desierto, en el cual no hay nadie, 27 para así encontrar las necesidades de las regiones estériles y solitarias, y para hacer brotar a la hierba tierna? 28 ¿Hay un padre de la lluvia? ¿Quién ha engendrado las gotas de rocío? 29 ¿Del vientre de quién el hielo provino? ¿Quién dio a luz a la escarcha blanca del cielo? 30 Las aguas se esconden y se vuelven como una piedra; la superficie de las profundidades se congela. 31 ¿Puedes atar las cadenas sobre las Pléyades o deshacer las cuerdas de Orión? 32 ¿Puedes guiar a las constelaciones para aparecer en sus propios tiempos? ¿Puedes guiar a la Osa con sus hijos? 33 ¿Sabes las regulaciones del cielo? ¿Podrías poner en lugar la regla del cielo sobre la tierra? 34 ¿Puedes levantar tu voz hacia las nubes para que una abundancia de agua de lluvia pueda cubrirte? 35 ¿Puedes enviar rayos de relámpago para que puedan salir, que ellos te digan, 'Aquí estamos?' 36 ¿Quién ha puesto sabiduría en las nubes o ha dado entendimiento a las neblinas? 37 ¿Quién puede numerar las nubes por su destreza? ¿Quién puede derramar cántaros de agua del cielo 38 cuando el polvo se vuelve una masa dura y los terrones de tierra se aglomeran apretadamente juntos? 39 ¿Puedes tú cazar una víctima para una leona o satisfacer el apetito de sus cachorritos 40 cuando ellos están rugiendo en sus guaridas y refugiándose, escondiéndose para reposar y esperar? 41 ¿Quién provee víctimas para los cuervos cuando sus jovencitos claman a Dios y se tambalean por falta de comida?

Job 38:1

Luego
"Y luego." La palabra "luego" empieza una nueva parte del libro que describe lo que pasa a continuación. Mira si tu idioma tiene una manera similar de introducir una nueva escena.

llamó a Job
"contestó a Job" o "respondió a Job"

una tormenta feroz
"de una tormenta poderosa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Quién es este que trae oscuridad a los planes por medio de palabras sin conocimiento?
El SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que Job habló se temas que no conocía. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Traes oscuridad a mis planes por medio de palabras sin conocimiento"

trae oscuridad a los planes
"oscureces mis planes" o "confundes mis propósitos". Como Job confunde los planes de Dios se habla como si estuviera haciendo más difícil de ver los planes de Dios. El sustantivo abstracto "oscuridad" puede ser traducido como el verbo "oscurece". Traducción Alternativa: "oscureces los planes" o "haces difícil ver los planes"

por medio de palabras sin conocimiento
"por medio de hablar cosas de las cuales no conoces"

palabras sin conocimiento
El sujeto abstracto "conocimiento" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo. Traducción Alternativa: "palabras desconocidas" o "palabras ignorantes"

ciñe tus lomos como un hombre
"ata tu túnica alrededor de tu cintura como un hombre." Los hombres se ataron la túnica alrededor de la cintura para que sus piernas pudieran moverse más libremente. La expresión idiomática "ciñe tus lomos como un hombre" significa prepararse para hacer algo que implique acciones tales como trabajo, un concurso o una batalla, y Job debía prepararse para el arduo trabajo de responder a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "prepárate para el arduo trabajo"

Job 38:4

Información general
El SEÑOR empieza a desafiar a Jon con una serie de preguntas.

¿Dónde estabas tú cuando Yo establecí los cimientos de la tierra? Dime, si tienes tanto entendimiento Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime dónde estabas cuando establecí los cimientos de la tierra, si tienes tanto entendimiento.

Yo establecí los cimientos de la tierra
El SEÑOR describe la creación de la tierra como si Él estuviera construyendo una estructura.

si tienes tanto entendimiento
El sujeto abstracto "entendimiento" puede ser traducido como verbo "entender". Traducción Alternativa: "si entiendes tanto" ¿Quién determinó sus dimensiones? Dime, si tú sabes.

Puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime quién determinó sus dimensiones, si sabes" dimensiones

"medidas"

¿Quién estiró la línea de medida sobre ella?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime quién estiró la línea de medida sobre ella"

la línea de medida una soga o cuerda que las personas usan para hacer algo a la medida correcta y forma

Job 38:6

Declaración de conexión
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Información General
La palabra "sus" se refiere a la tierra.

¿Sobre qué fueron establecidos sus cimientos?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime sobre qué fueron establecidos sus cimientos."

Sobre qué fueron establecidos sus cimientos
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. "Sobre qué establecí sus cimientos"

¿Quién estableció su piedra angular cuando ... los hijos de Dios gritaron de alegría?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime quién estableció su piedra angular cuando ... los hijos de Dios gritaron de alegría" cuando las estrellas de la mañana cantaron unidas y todos los hijos de Dios gritaron de alegría Estas dos líneas son similares en significado.

cuando las estrellas de la mañana cantaron unidas Las estrellas de la mañana son mencionadas como cantando como personas cantando. Posibles significados son 1) las "estrellas de la mañana" son lo mismo que "los hijos de Dios" en la siguiente línea o 2) "las estrellas de la mañana" se refiere a las estrellas en el cielo

las estrellas de la mañana
"la luz de las estrellas que brillan en la mañana"

los hijos de Dios Esto se refiere a los ángeles, seres celestiales. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 1:6.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

gritaron de alegría
El sujeto abstracto "alegría" puede ser traducido como un adverbio "alegremente". Traducción Alternativa: "gritaron alegremente"

de alegría
"porque ellos estaban llenos de alegría"

Job 38:8

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

¿Quién cerró al mar con puertas cuando estalló ... y a la densa oscuridad sus envolturas de vendas?
Esto puede ser traducido como declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dime quién cerró al mar con puertas cuando estalló ... y a la densa oscuridad sus envolturas de vendas."

cerró al mar con puertas
El SEÑOR compara la forma que evitó que el mar cubriera toda la tierra y la frenara con puertas. Traducción Alternativa: "evitó que el agua se inundara sobre la tierra"

como si hubiese salido del vientre
El SEÑOR compara su creación del mar con el nacimiento de un niño.

sus envolturas
"como la vestimenta del mar" y a la densa oscuridad sus envolturas de vendas El sujeto abstracto "oscuridad" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo "oscuro". Traducción Alternativa: "e hizo nubes oscuras sus envolturas de vendas"

envolturas de vendas largas piezas de ropa que las personas usan para enropar al bebé cuando nace.

Job 38:10

Yo le marqué al mar Mi límite
"hice un límite para el mar"

límite
El SEÑOR colocó un límite en el cual no permitió al mar pasar.

Yo coloqué sus barras y puertas
El SEÑOR compara la manera que hizo el límite para el mar para contenerlo con barras y puertas. Traducción Alternativa: "Coloqué sus barreras"

barras
Largas piezas de madera o metal que se usan para mantener la puerta cerrada.

cuando Yo le dije
"y cuando Yo le dije al mar". El SEÑOR habla del mar como si fuera una persona.

Tú puedes llegar hasta aquí, pero no más lejos
Las palabras "hasta aquí" sólo significan hasta el límite que El SEÑOR colocó. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú puedes llegar hasta este límite, pero no más lejos"

al orgullo de tus olas
"al poder de tus olas". Las olas son mencionadas como si pudieran tener orgullo. El sujeto abstracto "orgullo" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo "orgulloso". Traducción Alternativa: "para tus orgullosas olas" o "para tus poderosas olas"

Job 38:12

Declaración de conexión
El SEÑOR continua desafiando a Job.

¿Alguna vez ... ser sacudidas fuera de ella?
Esta pregunta espera una respuesta negativa. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nunca ... ser sacudidas fuera de ella"

desde que tus propios días comenzaron
"desde que habías nacido" o "desde los días que has vivido"

le has dado órdenes a la mañana para que comience y causado al amanecer de la mañana saber su lugar en la esquema de las cosas Estas dos frases son similares en su significado.

causado al amanecer de la mañana saber su lugar en la esquema de las cosas
El SEÑOR describe la mañana como el comienzo apto para recibir órdenes y saber cosas como una persona.

amanecer
la luz del día que aparece en el cielo de mañana antes que los rayos del sol para que pueda

La palabra "pueda" está hablando del amanecer.

sostener los lados de la tierra
La luz del amanecer habla de como si se apoderara de los horizontes de la tierra. Traducción Alternativa: "agarrar los extremos de la tiera"

a fin de que las personas malvadas puedan ser sacudidas fuera de ella La luz del día se representa como causando que las personas malvadas se vayan como sacudir algo para eliminar cosas no deseadas. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "y sacude a la gente malvada de la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 38:14

La tierra es cambiada en apariencia como el barro cambia bajo un sello Por la noche, la gente no puede ver con claridad, pero por la mañana la luz revela la forma distinta de todo, al igual que un sello crea imágenes distintas en arcilla.

todas las cosas sobre ésta sobresalen claramente como los dobleces de una pieza de vestidura Aquí "ésta" se refiere a la tierra. Estas frases tienen similar significado para la primera frase en este verso.

De las personas malvadas su 'luz' le es quitada Esto puede ser establecido de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "La mañana quita la 'luz' de las personas malvadas" su 'luz'

El malvado considera que la oscuridad es su luz, porque hacen obras malvadas en la oscuridad y están familiarizados con la oscuridad.

su brazo levantado es roto
El brazo levantado del malvado representa su poder e intención de hacer cosas malas, pero el malvado se detiene de hacer esas cosas malas cuando la luz de la mañana llega.

Job 38:16

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Información general:
Versos 16 y 17 cada uno tiene dos frases con similar significado.

¿Has ido ... en su expansión?
Estas preguntas esperan respuestas negativas. Ellas pueden ser expresadas como declaraciones. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú nunca has ido a las fuentes de las aguas del mar, o caminado en las partes más bajas de la profundidad. Las puertas de la muerte no te han sido reveladas, y no has visto las puertas de la sombra de la muerte. Tú no entiendes la expansión de la tierra."

las fuentes de las aguas
"los muelles"

la profundidad
Esto se refiere al mar u oceano donde el agua es muy profunda. Traducción Alternativa: "el profundo mar" o "la profundidad del oceano" o "las profundas aguas"

¿Las puertas de la muerte te han sido reveladas?
La muerte habla como si fuera una ciudad que tiene puertas por las que las personas pasan para entrar. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Alguien te ha mostrado las puertas de la muerte?"

la sombra de la muerte
Traduce esto como en 3:4

la tierra en su expansión
"los grandes lugares amplios de la tierra"

si lo sabes todo
"si tú sabes todo acerca estas cosas"

Job 38:19

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Información general:
Cada uno de estos versos tienen dos frases paralelas.

¿Dónde está el camino al lugar de descanso de la luz--- en cuanto a la oscuridad, dónde está su lugar?
Esta pregunta puede ser expresada como declaración. Traducción alternativa: "No sabes el camino al lugar de descanso de la luz o el lugar de la oscuridad"

el camino al lugar de descanso de la luz
"la morada de la luz" Luz se habla como si tuviera un lugar donde sale cada día.

luz
"luz del día" o "luz del sol"

¿Puedes tú guiar a la luz y a la oscuridad a sus lugares de trabajo? ¿Puedes tú encontrar el camino de regreso a sus casas por ellos?
Estas preguntas esperan una respuesta negativa. Pueden ser expresadas como declaraciones. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no puedes guiar a la luz y a la oscuridad a sus lugares de trabajo, o encontrar el camino de regreso a sus casas por ellos."

a sus lugares de trabajo
"a sus territorios". Luz y oscuridad se hablan como si fueran conducidos de ida y vuelta cada día para cumplir los propósitos del SEÑOR.

Sin lugar a dudas ... tan grande!
El SEÑOR usa la burla irónica para enfatizar que Job no entiende luz ni oscuridad. Traducción Alternativa: "Es obvio que no sabes, porque no naciste aún cuando fueron creadas, y no eres tan viejo."

pues habías nacido entonces
"porque ya estabas viviendo entonces". La palabra "entonces" se refiere al tiempo cuando la luz fue creada y separada de la oscuridad. Traducción Alternativa: "porque ya naciste cuando los creé"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¡el número de tus días es tan grande!
"has vivido tantos años"

Job 38:22

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

¿Has entrado a las casas de almacén para la nieve, o has visto las casas de almacén para el granizo ... y guerra?
Estas preguntas esperan una respuesta negativa. Pueden ser traducidas como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nunca has entrado a las casas de almacén para la nieve, o has visto las casas de almacén para el granizo ... y guerra."

¿Has entrado a las casas de almacén para la nieve, o has visto las casas de almacén para el granizo Estas dos frases son similares en significado.

almacén para la nieve ... almacén para el granizo Nieve y granizo son descriptas como si fuesen guardadas por medio de la voluntad del SEÑOR.

granizo
bolas de nieve (pequeñas usualmente) que a veces se caen del cielo durante una tormenta.

¿Cuál es el camino a donde los relámpagos son distribuídos o donde los vientos son esparcidos desde el este sobre la tierra?
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "¿Cuál es el camino hacia donde distribuyo los rayos o donde esparzo los vientos del este sobre la tierra?"

los vientos son esparcidos
"los vientos soplan"

Job 38:25

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Información general
El SEÑOR pregunta a Job para enfatizar que él es mayor que Job porque El SEÑOR causa la lluvia y el trueno y Job no.

¿Quién ha creado los canales para las inundaciones de lluvia, o quién ha hecho ... la hierba tierna?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Solo Yo creé los canales para las inundaciones de lluvia, y solo Yo creé ... la hierba tierna."

las inundaciones de lluvia
"los torrentes de lluvia"

las rutas para los estruendos de rayo
"los caminos para la luz y los truenos" Posibles significados son 1) El SEÑOR decide cómo los rayos de luz deben golpear o 2) Él decide dónde los estruendos de rayo deben ir.

tierras donde ninguna persona existe, y sobre el desierto, en el cual no hay nadie Estas dos frases tiene cercanamente el mismo significado.

donde ninguna persona existe
"donde no hay personas"

para así encontrar las necesidades La información implícita es que es la lluvia que encuentra las necesidades. Traducción Alternativa: "para así la lluvia pueda satisfacer las necesidades de"

estériles y solitarias
"arruinados y vano" Estas dos palabras tienen cercano significado y enfatizan las ruinas y la naturaleza vacía de esta región.

hierba tierna
"la hierba nueva" o "la hierba fresca". Esto es hierba que está empezando a crecer.

brotar
"empezar a crecer"

Job 38:28

Declaración de conexión
El SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

¿Hay un padre de la lluvia? ¿Quién ha engendrado las gotas de rocío?
El SEÑOR usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que Job no entiende cómo El SEÑOR hace la lluvia, el rocío, el hielo y la escarcha.

Hay un padre de la lluvia
El SEÑOR describe la lluvia como si fuera una persona.

engendrado
el rol que tiene el padre en el nacimiento de un hijo.

gotas de rocío
las gotas de rocío son de la condensación en plantas y otras cosas

de quién el hielo provino
"quien ha dado origen al hielo"

Las aguas se esconden durante el invierno el hielo esconde debajo al agua las profundidades

se refiere a la profundidad del agua como en lagos, ríos y oceanos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 38:31

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

¿Puedes atar las cadenas ... sobre la tierra?
EL SEÑOR usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que Job no sabe controlar las estrellas.

atar las cadenas
"enlazar las cadenas" o "atar los lazos"

Pléyades ... Orion ... Osa
Son nombres de constelaciones. Ver cómo se tradujo en 9:7

deshacer las cuerdas de Orión
"romper las cuerdas que sostienen a Orion"

las constelaciones
Se refiere a las doce diferentes constelaciones que aparece detrás del sol cuando se pone. Una constelación diferente aparece detrás del sol cada mes.

para aparecer en sus propios tiempos
"para que aparezcan en el tiempo correcto"

sus hijos
sus cachorros

Job 38:34

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Puedes levantar ... Aquí estamos
EL SEÑOR usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que Job no tiene control de las nubes, la lluvia, o los rayos.

para que una abundancia de agua de lluvia pueda cubrirte
"para que mucha agua te cubra"

Puedes enviar rayos de relámpago para que puedan salir
"puedes enviar rayos de relámpago para que vayan donde tú quieres y acualmente van"

que ellos te digan
"y ellos te dirán"

Aquí estamos
Esta frase significa, "Nostros estamos acá entonces puedes decirnos lo que quieres decirnos"

Job 38:36

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑO continúa desafiando a Job

Quien ha puesto sabiduria ... apretadamente juntos
EL SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que él tiene control de las nubes y Job no.

Ha puesto sabiduria en las nubes
"él ha dado sabiduría en las nubes" EL SEÑOR describe las nubes como si fueran personas y da sabiduría a ellas como si ellas supieran qué hacer.

Quién puede numerar las nubes por su destreza Esta frase significa "Quien puede sabiamente controlar cuan finas nubes hay en el cielo"

cántaros de agua pieles que las personas cosieron juntas para poder retener agua. Yahvé se refiere a las nubes gruesas como "piel de agua" porque retienen mucha agua al igual que las pieles de agua.

cuando el polvo se vuelve una masa dura
"Cuando la lluvia moldea la tierra en una sola pieza". La lluvia hace que la tierra suelta y seca se pegue como una pieza de tierra.

los terrones de tierra se aglomeran apretadamente juntos
"los trozos de tierra se unen"

Job 38:39

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Puedes tú cazar ... para reposar y esperar
EL SEÑOR usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que ÉL sabe cómo alimentar a los leones, pero Job no.

una víctima
"presa" Este es un animal que el león podría comer.

una leona Posiblemente "un león"

satisfacer el apetito de sus cachorritos
"o dar a los jóvenes leones suficiente comida para que ellos puedan vivir"

de sus cachorritos
"de sus cachorritos" Estos son jóvenes leones lo suficientemente grandes para cazar por sí solos.

en sus guaridas
"en los lugares donde viven" o "en sus viviendas" refugiándose

"reposar en la espesa vegetación"

para reposar y esperar
"cuál es su lugar de emboscada" o "cuál es el lugar donde se esconden para atrapar a otros animales". Los leones se esconden en las gruesas plantas y esperan a que pase un animal para poder saltar y atrapar a ese animal.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 38:41

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Quién provee víctimas
EL SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que él provee comida para los cuervos y Job no lo hace.

victimas
animales que los cuervos buscan y pueden comerlos

cuervos
"cuervos"

claman a Dios
"claman a Dios por ayuda" o "claman a Dios para que los salve"

se tambalean
"deambular"

por falta de comida
"porque no tienen comida" o "porque no tienen nada para comer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 39

1 ¿Sabes tú en qué tiempo las cabras salvajes en las rocas llevan a sus pequeños? 2 ¿Pueden ustedes ver luego las ciervas teniendo sus cervatillos? ¿Puedes tú contar los meses que ellos gestan? ¿Sabes tú el tiempo cuando llevan a sus pequeños? 3 Ellas se agachan hacia abajo y dan a luz sus pequeños, y luego ellas terminan sus dolores de parto. 4 Sus pequeños se hacen fuertes y crecen en los campos abiertos; ellos salen y no regresan de nuevo. 5 ¿Quién permitió que el burro salvaje fuera libre? ¿Quién ha desatado los lazos del burro veloz, 6 cuya casa Yo he hecho en Arabah, su casa en la tierra salada? 7 Él ríe con indiferencia a los ruidos en la ciudad; él no escucha los gritos del conductor. 8 Él vaga por las montañas como sus pastos; allí él busca por cada planta verde para comer. 9 ¿Podrá el buey salvaje ser feliz de servirte? ¿Podrá él aceptar quedarse en tu pesebre? 10 ¿Con una cuerda puedes tú controlar el buey salvaje para arar los surcos? ¿Podrá él recorrer los valles por ti? 11 ¿Podrás tú confiar en él porque su fuerza es grande? ¿Podrás tú dejar tu trabajo para él hacerlo? 12 ¿Podrás tú depender en él para traer tu grano a casa, para reunir el grano para tu piso de trilla? 13 ¿Las alas del avestruz aletean orgullosamente, pero ellos son piñones y plumaje de amor? 14 Porque ella deja sus huevos en la tierra, y ella deja que ellos se mantengan calientes en el polvo; 15 ella olvida que un pie puede aplastarlos o que una bestia salvaje pueda pisotearlos. 16 Ella trata a sus pequeños rudamente, como si ellos no fueran de ella; ella no teme que su trabajo puede haber sido en vano, 17 porque Dios la ha privado de sabiduría y no le ha dado a ella ningún entendimiento. 18 Cuando ella corre rápidamente, ella se ríe con indiferencia hacia el caballo y su jinete. 19 ¿Le has dado tú al caballo su fuerza? ¿Has vestido tú su cuello con su fluída melena? 20 ¿En algún momento tú lo has hecho brincar como una langosta? La majestad de su resoplido es temible. 21 Él patea con poder y se regocija en su fortaleza; él se apresura para enfrentar las armas. 22 Él se burla del temor y no desmaya; él no retrocede de la espada. 23 La bolsa de las flechas se estremece contra sus flancos, junto con la lanza parpadeando y la jabalina. 24 Él se traga el suelo con furia y coraje; en el sonido de la trompeta, él no puede mantenerse en un solo lugar. 25 Cuando la trompeta suena, él dice, '¡Aja!' Él huele la batalla desde muy lejos-- los estruendosos gritos de los comandante y los gritos de batalla. 26 ¿Es por tu sabiduría que el águila vuela, que ella expande sus alas para el sur? 27 ¿Es a tus órdenes que el águila sube y crea su nido en lugares altos? 28 Él vive en las colinas y hace su casa en la punta de los acantilados, una fortaleza. 29 Desde ahí él busca por víctimas; sus ojos las ven desde lo muy lejano. 30 Sus pequeños también beben sangre; donde las personas muertas están, allí está él."

Job 39:1

Declaración de conexión:
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Información general:
EL SEÑOR usa cuatro preguntas para enfatizar que él es mejor que Job porque EL SEÑOR tiene cuidado de las cabras salvajes de montaña y ciervos y Job no lo hace.

Sabes tú en qué tiempo ... llevan a sus pequeños
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Seguro tú no sabes cuándo ... llevan a sus pequeños!"

Pueden ustedes ver luego las ciervas teniendo sus cervatillos Esto puede ser traducido como declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No estás apto para ver que todo vaya bien cuando las ciervas tengan a sus cervartillos!"

están teniendo sus cervatillos
"pariendo a sus cervatillos"

Puedes tú contar los meses que ellos gestan Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no puedes contar los meses de embarazo"

que ellos gestan
"que completan su embarazo"

ellos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a las cabras y los ciervos.

gestan
"están embarazadas"

Sabes tú el tiempo cuando llevan a sus pequeños Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Por su puesto que no sabes cuándo darán a luz a sus pequeños"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 39:3

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Ellas se agachan hacia abajo
La palabra "ellas" se refiere a las cabras salvajes de montaña y las ciervas.

dan a luz sus pequeños
"dar a luz a sus cachorros"

luego ellas terminan sus dolores de parto Posibles significados son 1) sus dolores de parto terminan cuando dan a luz o 2) "dolores de parto" es una metonimia que se refiere a la descendencia de las cabras y los ciervos porque son el resultado del trabajo y el dolor de la madre. Traducción alternativa: "enviar fuera de sus vientres a sus cachorros"

los campos abiertos
"el campo" o "lo salvaje"

no regresan de nuevo
"no vuelven a ellos" o "vuelven a sus madres"

Job 39:5

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Quién permitió ... la tierra salada
EL SEÑOR usa dos preguntas para enfatizar que él es mejor que Job porque EL SEÑOR tiene cuidado de los burros salvajes y Job no.

Quién permitió que el burro salvaje fuera libre Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo soy el que libera al burro salvaje" el burro salvaje ... el burro veloz Son diferentes nombres para el mismo tipo de burro.

Quién ha desatado los lazos ... en la tierra salada?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Desaté los lazos ... en la tierra salada".

lazos
cuerdas, cadenas, o correas que sostienen al animal y lo mantienen de escaparse

cuya casa Yo he hecho en Arabah EL SEÑOR describe al burro como si fuera una persona que tiene casa. "Yo le di un lugar para vivir en Arabah"

la tierra salada
la tierra alrededor del Mar Salado que tiene mucha sal

Job 39:7

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Él
La palabra "Él" se refiere al burro salvaje,

ríe con indiferencia
EL SEÑOR describe al burro como si fuera una persona. El burro ríe porque aquellos en la ciudad escuchan ruidos, pero él vive en un lugar silencionso.

el conductor
alguien que obliga al animal a trabajar

sus pastos
Lugares donde los animales pueden comer plantas que crecen en el campo.

Job 39:9

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Información general
Aquí EL SEÑOR usa cuatro preguntas para enfatizar que Job no es como EL SEÑOR porque Job no puede controlar un buey salvaje.

Podrá el buey salvaje ser feliz de servirte Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "El buey salvaje no puede ser feliz para servirte"

el buey salvaje Posibles significados son 1) un tipo de buey que vive en lo salvaje o 2) un tipo de bufalo que se ve como un buey.

ser feliz
"ser complaciente"

Podrá él aceptar quedarse en tu pesebre Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No aceptará quedarse en tu pesebre"

quedarse en tu pesebre
"quedarse en tu pesebre durante la noche" pesebre

algo que ataja la comida entonces los animales pueden comer

Con una cuerda puedes tú controlar el buey salvaje para arar los surcos Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no puedes controlar al buey salvaje con cuerdas para arar surcos en tus campos."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

con una cuerda una cuerda fue atada a la cabeza o cuello del animal para guiarlo

surcos
Largos canales hechos en la tierra al arar. Traduzca esto como en 31:38.

Podrá él recorrer los valles por ti
Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nunca desgarrará los valles por ti".

recorrer
para alisar y romper el suelo

Job 39:11

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Información general
Aquí EL SEÑOR usa tres preguntas para continuar su argumento que Job no es como EL SEÑOR porque Job no puede controlar al buey salvaje.

Podrás tú confiar en él porque su fuerza es grande Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No puedes confiar en él porque su fuerza es grande"

confiar en él
La palabra "él" se refiere al "buey salvaje"

Podrás tú dejar tu trabajo para él hacerlo Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no estás apto para hacer que haga el trabajo por ti" dejar tu trabajo para él hacerlo

"haz que haga tu trabajo duro por ti"

Podrás tú depender en él ... el grano para tu piso de trilla
Estas dos cláusulas básicamente significan la misma cosa. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No podrá depender de él ... grano para su trilla"

Job 39:13

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Las alas del avestruz ... piñones y plumaje de amor
EL SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que Job no puede explicar por qué las avestruces se comportan como lo hacen. Traducción Alternativa: "No sabes si los piñones y el plumaje del avestruz representan amor cuando agitan sus alas con orgullo" (Ver:|Rhetorical Question)

avestruz
un ave muy alagardo que puede correr muy rápido pero no vuela

aletean orgullosamente
"mueven con gozo"

piñones
las muy largas plumas en las alas de los pájaros plumaje

las plumas más pequeñas que cubren el cuerpo del ave

de amor
La palabra hebrea es incierta. Los significados posibles son 1) "de fidelidad" o 2) "de una cigüeña". El nombre de la cigüeña significaba "el fiel" o "el amoroso" porque la gente sabía que las cigüeñas cuidan muy bien a sus polluelos.

en la tierra
"en el suelo"

puede aplastarlos
La palabra "aplastarlos" se refiere a los huevos.

pueda pisotearlos
"pisar encima de ellos"

Job 39:16

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Ella trata a sus pequeños rudamente
La palabra "ella" se refiere al avestruz hembra

su trabajo
el trabajo que ella hace cuando pone huevos

puede haber sido en vano
Si sus polluelos mueren, todo su trabajo será inútil. Traducción Alternativa: "quizás sea inútil si sus polluelos mueren"

la ha privado de sabiduría
"hizo que se olvide de su sabiduría" o "no le dio sabiduría"

entendimiento
Traduce como en 11:4

Cuando ella corre rápidamente
Este verso es en contraste con su debilidad en cuidar a sus polluelos. Traducción Alternativa: "Como siempre, cuando ella corre"

ella se ríe ... su jinete
Se da a entender que ella se ríe porque es más rápida que el caballo. Traducción Alternativa: "ella se ríe ... su jinete porque puede correr más rápido que el caballo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 39:19

Declaración de conexión:
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Información general:
EL SEÑOR usa tres preguntas para enfatizar que Job no es como EL SEÑOR porque Job no puede controlar al caballo salvaje.

¿Le has dado tú al caballo su fuerza?
Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú nunca has dado al caballo su fuerza"

¿Has vestido tú su cuello con su fluída melena?
Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no puedes vestir el cuello con su fluída melena"

vestido tú su cuello con su fluída melena
La "melena" del caballo se habla como si fuera ropa para el cuello del caballo. Traducción Alternativa: "hecho su fluída melena para cubrir su cuello como ropas"

su fluída melena
El cabello largo en la parte superior del cuello del caballo has hecho brincar como una langosta Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "No eres capaz de hacerlo brincar como una langosta"

una langosta
un gran tipo de saltamontes que puede saltar muy lejos y muy rápido resoplido

un muy fuerte sonido que el caballo hace con su nariz

Job 39:21

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

Él patea
La palabra "él" se refiere al caballo. El caballo patea el suelo porque estaba muy emocionado por empezar una pelea. Traducción Alternativa: "Él patea con emoción"

patea
"cava el suelo con sus pezuñas"

para enfrentar las armas
Aquí las "armas" representan la batalla en la cual estaban. Traducción Alternativa: "para unirse a la batalla"

Él se burla del temor
"Él no está asustando en absoluto"

burla
"se ríe de"

desmaya
"desanimado"

él no retrocede
"él no huye"

bolsas
un contenedor que contiene flechas

estremece
"sacude y hace ruido"

flancos
el lado del caballo

jabalina
un palo largo con un extremo afilado que la gente arroja a sus enemigos

Job 39:24

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Él
La palabra "Él" se refiere al caballo.

se traga el suelo
El caballo corre sobre el suelo tan rápido que el suelo pasa por el agua que la persona toma. Traducción Alternativa: "corre tan rápido sobre el suelo"

con furia y coraje
El caballo está muy emocionado, entonces se mueve rápido y fuerte.

en el sonido de la trompeta Puede ser declarado que alguien sople la tormenta. Traducción Alternativa: "cuando alguien sopla la trompeta para anunciar que la batalla ha empezado"

él no puede mantenerse en un solo lugar
"él está muy emocionado por estar quieto"

él dice, '¡Aja!'
La palabra "¡Ajá!" es un sonido que las personas hacen cuando descubren algo. El caballo hace un sonido porque ha descubierto la batalla.

los estruendosos gritos
Se da a entender que el caballo escucha estas cosas. Traducción Alternativa: "él escucha los gritos atronadores"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los gritos
"los gritos de batallas". Las personas tienen un sonido especial que ellos usan en la guerra para mostrar su gran fuerza y coraje para asustar al enemigo.

Job 39:26

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Es por tu sabiduría ... para el sur
EL SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para probar que Job no es grande como EL SEÑOR. La pregunta implícita para esta pregunta es "no". Traducción Alternativa: "No es por tu propia sabiduría ... por el sur"

expande sus alas para el sur Aquí el expandir sus alas se refiere a volar. Traducción Alternativa: "vuela al sur" para el sur

En la geografía bíblica, las aves vuelan al sur durante el invierno para vivir en climas más cálidos.

Job 39:27

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job.

Es a tus órdenes ... su nido en lugares altos
EL SEÑOR usa esta pregunts para probar que Job no es lo suficientemente poderoso para ordenar a las águilas. La respuesta implícita a esta pregunta es "no". Traducción Alternativa: "No estás apto para ordenar a las aguilas que suban y construyan sus nidos en lugares altos."

a tus órdenes
El sujeto abstracto "órdenes" pueden ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "porque yo te ordeno que hagas eso"

sube
Esto significa volar hacia arriba. Traducción Alternativa: "volar arriba hacia el cielo"

una fortaleza
Los altos acantilados son fortalezas para las águilas porque los animales que quisieran comerlas no pueden alcanzarlas

Job 39:29

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa desafiando a Job

él busca por víctimas Aquí la palabra "él" se refiere al águila

víctimas
"animales que él puede matar y comer"

sus ojos las ven
"Aquí "sus ojos" se refiere a los del águila. Traducción Alternativa: "él los ve"

Sus pequeños
"Las águilas bebés." Puede ser de ayuda afirmar que esto pasa después de que las águilas matan y al animal. Traducción Alternativa: "Después un águila mató a un animal, el águila bebé"

beben sangre
"beben la sangre del animal que mataron"

donde las personas muertas están
"donde están personas muertas" Esta frase se refiere a los cadáveres que yacen en la superficie, no los cuerpos que están enterrados en el suelo.

allí está él
Se puede hacer explícito que él viene a comer los cadáveres. AT: "él está allí para comerlos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 40

1 El SEÑOR continuó hablándole a Job; Él le dijo: 2 "¿Debe alguno quien desea criticar, tratar de corregir al Todopoderoso? El que discute con Dios, deje que Él le conteste.'' 3 Entonces Job le contestó al SEÑOR y dijo: 4 "Mira, yo soy insignificante; ¿cómo puedo yo contestarte? Yo pongo mi mano sobre mi boca. 5 Yo hablé una vez, y no contestaré; de hecho, dos veces, pero no procederé mas allá.'' 6 Entonces el SEÑOR le contestó a Job desde la tormenta feroz y dijo: 7 "Ahora ciñe tus lomos como un hombre, porque Yo preguntaré, y tú me debes contestar. 8 ¿En realidad dices que Yo soy injusto? ¿Me condenarás para poder decir que estás en lo correcto? 9 ¿Tienes tú un brazo como el de Dios? ¿Puedes tronar con una voz como Él? 10 Ahora vístete a ti mismo en gloria y dignidad; arréglate a ti mismo en honor y majestad. 11 Esparce alrededor el exceso de tu ira; mira a todo el que sea soberbio y derríbalo. 12 Mira a todo el que es soberbio y tráelo abajo; pisotea a la gente malvada donde se para. 13 Entierrálos en la tierra juntos; aprisiona sus rostros en el lugar escondido. 14 Entonces Yo también te reconoceré a ti que tu propia mano derecha puede salvarte. 15 Mira ahora al Behemot, al que Yo hice como te hice a ti; él come pasto como un buey. 16 Mira ahora, su fuerza está en sus lomos; su poder está en los músculos de su vientre. 17 Él mueve su rabo como un cedro; los músculos de sus muslos están unidos. 18 Sus huesos son como tubos de bronce; sus piernas son como barras de hierro. 19 Él es el jefe de las criaturas de Dios. Solo Dios, quien lo hizo, puede derrotarlo. 20 Pues las colinas le proveen alimento; las bestias del campo juegan cerca. 21 Él descansa bajo las plantas de loto en los refugios de las cañas, en los pantanos. 22 Las plantas de loto lo cubren con su sombra; los sauces del arroyo lo rodean a él. 23 Mira, si las corrientes del río inunda sus bancos, él no tiembla; él tiene confianza, aunque el río Jordán pueda surgir hasta su hocico. 24 ¿Podrá alguien capturarlo con un gancho, o perforar su naríz a través de una trampa?

Job 40:1

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR empieza otra vez a reprender a Job por preguntas a él.

Debe alguno quien desea criticar, tratar de corregir al Todopoderoso
EL SEÑOR está reprendiendo a Job. Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie que quiera criticarme debería intentar disctuir conmigo, porque soy Dios Todopoderoso." o "Tú, una persona, quieres criticarme, al Dios Todopoderoso, pero no deberías intentar corregirme."

El que discute con Dios, deje que Él le conteste
EL SEÑOR hablo de Job y de sí mismo como si ellos fueran otras dos personas recordando a Job que ninguna persona donde sea debería discutir con Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "Quieres discutir conmigo, entonces respóndeme."

Job 40:3

Mira
"En efecto" La palabra "mirad" aquí añade énfasis para lo que sigue.

yo soy insignificante
"no soy importante"

cómo puedo yo contestarte
Job usa esta pregunta para disculparse por cuestionar a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "No puedo responderte"

Job 40:6

ciñe tus lomos como un hombre
Un hombre que se pone la bata debajo de la faja o el cinturón se está preparando para un trabajo físico duro, y Job se estaba preparando para el trabajo duro de responder a Dios. Traduce como en 38: 1

Job 40:8

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa para reprender a Job haciéndole preguntas.

En realidad dices que Yo soy injusto
La palabra "en realidad" indica que EL SEÑOR está sorprendido de que Job diga que EL SEÑOR es injusto y que Job debe asegurarse de que realmente quiera decir eso. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Me sorprende que estés diciendo que soy injusto". o "Debes estar seguro de que quieres decir que soy injusto, porque eso es lo que estás diciendo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Me condenarás para poder decir que estás en lo correcto
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú me estás condenando para entonces poder decir que eres inocente"

un brazo como el de Dios
El brazo es una metonimia de la fuerza en el brazo. Traducción Alternativa: "fuerza como la fuerza de Dios"

Puedes tronar con una voz como Él Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú ciertamente no puedes causar tronar con tu voz de la manera que Dios hace"

una voz como Él
"una voz de la forma que él hace" La mayoría de las traducciones leídas, "una voz como su voz" (ver UDB)

Job 40:10

vístete a ti mismo en gloria y dignidad; arréglate a ti mismo en honor y majestad
El sujeto abstracto "gloria", "dignidad", "honor" y "majestad" se hablan de como si fueran vestimentas que una persona puede ponérse. Pueden ser traducidas como adjetivos o verbos. Traducción Alternativa: "hazte glorioso; haz algo grande y las personas te respetarán y honorarán; haz que las personas piensen que eres un gran rey"

Esparce alrededor el exceso de tu ira
El sujeto abstracto "ira" se habla como si fuera algo más de lo que un contenedor podría contener de modo que una persona necesitara difundirlo. También es una metonimia para las acciones que una persona toma cuando está enojada. Es posible que necesite hacer explícito por qué la persona está enojada. Traducción Alternativa: "Estar enojado porque la gente está orgullosa y castigarlos"

derríbalo
"quítale todo de lo que está orgulloso"

Job 40:12

sus rostros
La cara es una parte de la persona completa. Traducción Alternartiva: "ellos" el lugar escondido

un eufenismo para el lugar donde los espíritus de las personas van cuando mueren.

Job 40:15

Behemot
un largo animal de agua, posiblemente el hipopótamo (ver UDB)

él come el behemot come come pasto como un buey Ambos, el hipopótamo y el buey comen pasto.

lomos ... músculos de su vientre
Estas dos frases se refieren a la misma parte del cuerpo.

Job 40:17

como un cedro
cedro es una madera muy dura, y su tallo se vuelve muy duro.

como tubos de bronce Aquíl, su bronce es comparado con tubos de madera hechos de bronce para mostrar cuan dificil es este animal como barras de hierro

La última comparación describe la fuerza de este gran animal.

Job 40:19

jefe de las criaturas
"el más importante de las criaturas" o "el más fuerte de las criaturas"

las criaturas de Dios. Solo Dios EL SEÑOR habla como si él fuera otra persona. Traducción Alternativa: "de mis criaturas. Solo yo, Dios."

las colinas le proveen alimento El autor habla acerca de las colinas cmo si fueran personas capaces de proveer comida. Traducción Alternativa: "El alimento crece en las colinas para ellos"

plantas de loto floración de plantas que flotan en la parte superior del agua en zonas pantanosas cañas

hierbas altas que se encuentran en ciénagas o pantanos

Job 40:22

planta de loto floración de plantas que flotan en la parte superior del agua en zonas pantanosas. Traduce como en 40:19

sauces del arroyo
Los sauces son árboles largos que crecen en el suelo humedo. Si son desconocidos en tu cultura, puedes usar un término general para árboles que crecen cerca del agua.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

bancos bordes del río

aunque el río Jordán pueda surgir hasta su hocico
"incluso si la inundación llega a su nariz"

Podrá alguien capturarlo con un gancho ... una trampa?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que nadie puede capturarlo con un gancho o una perforación en su nariz con una trampa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 41

1 ¿Puedes tú sacar al Leviatán con un anzuelo? O, ¿amarrar sus quijadas con una cuerda? 2 ¿Puedes poner una soga en su nariz, o perforar su quijada con un anzuelo? 3 ¿Hará él muchos ruegos a ti? ¿Hablará él palabras suaves a ti? 4 ¿Hará él un pacto contigo, para que tú debas tomarlo a él por un sirviente para siempre? 5 ¿Jugarás con él como jugarías con un ave? ¿Lo amarrarás para tus siervas? Los grupos de pescadores, ¿negociarán por él? 6 ¿Lo dividirán para intercambiarlo entre los mercaderes? 7 ¿Puedes tú llenar su piel con arpones o su cabeza con lanzas de pescar? 8 Pon tu mano sobre él solo una vez, y tú recordarás la batalla y no lo harás más. 9 Mira, la esperanza de cualquiera que haga eso es una mentira; ¿no será arrojado al suelo cualquiera con solo verlo? 10 Ninguno es tan feroz que se atreva agitar al Leviatán; ¿quién, entonces, es aquel que pueda pararse frente a Mí? 11 ¿Quién Me ha dado algo a Mí primero de manera que tenga Yo que pagarle? Lo que sea que esté debajo de todo el cielo es Mío. 12 Yo no me mantendré en silencio con relación a las piernas del Leviatán, ni acerca del asunto de su fuerza, ni acerca de su forma elegante. 13 ¿Quién puede desnudarlo de su cubierta exterior? ¿Quién puede penetrar su armadura doble? 14 ¿Quién puede abrir las puertas de su rostro, anillado con sus dientes, los cuáles son un terror? 15 su espalda está hecha de hileras de escudos, apretados juntos como con un sello cerrado. 16 Uno está tan cerca del otro que ningún aire puede venir entre ellos. 17 Ellos están unidos unos a otros; ellos se mantienen juntos, para que así ellos no puedan ser separados. 18 La luz destella de su resoplo; sus ojos son como los párpados del amanecer. 19 Fuera de su boca salen antorchas encendidas, chispas de fuego saltan fuera. 20 De sus fosas nasales sale humo como una olla hirviendo en un fuego que ha sido abanicado para estar muy caliente. 21 Su aliento enciende carbones en llamas; fuegos salen de su boca. 22 En su cuello hay fuerza, y el terror baila frente a él. 23 Los dobleces de su carne están unidos; ellos están firmes sobre él; ellos no pueden ser movidos. 24 Su corazón es tan duro como una piedra, de hecho, tan duro como una piedra de molino inferior. 25 Cuando él se levanta, incluso los dioses se vuelven miedosos; por causa del miedo, se retiran. 26 Si una espada le golpea, no hace nada, ni tampoco lo hace una lanza, una flecha, o cualquier otra arma puntiaguda. 27 Él piensa del hierro como si fuera paja, y del bronce como si fuera madera podrida. 28 Una flecha no puede hacerlo huir; para él las piedras de hondas se vuelven paja. 29 Los mazos son considerados como paja; él se ríe del zumbido del vuelo de una lanza. 30 Sus partes bajas son como pedazos filosos de vasijas rotas; él deja un rastro que separa el lodo como si fuera un trineo de trilla. 31 Él hace la profundidad espumarse como una olla de agua hirviendo; él hace del océano una olla de ungüento. 32 Él hace una brillante estela detrás de él; uno pensaría que la profundidad tenía cabello gris. 33 En la tierra no hay ninguno igual a él, el que ha sido hecho para vivir sin miedo. 34 Él ve todo lo que es orgulloso; él es rey sobre todos los hijos del orgullo."

Job 41:1

Información general
Dios continúa hablando. Él está usando muchas preguntas retóricas para desafiar a Jonas.

Puedes tú sacar al Leviatán con un anzuelo Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Sabes que no puedes sacar al Leviatán con un anzuelo"

sacar sacar del agua

su ... él
la palabra "su" o "él" se refiere al Leviatán.

amarrar sus quijadas con una cuerda?
Esta no es una oración completa, pero el significado puede entenderse del contexto como "O puedes amarrar sus quijadas con una cuerda?" Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Y tú sabes que no puedes amarrar sus quijadas con una cuerda"

Puedes poner una soga en su nariz ... con un anzuelo
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Sabes que no puedes poner una soga en su nariz ... con un anzuelo."

¿Hará él muchos ruegos a ti?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Sabes que no hará ruegos pa¿or ti."

¿Hablará él palabras suaves a ti?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Sabes que no te hablará palabras suaves"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Job 41:4

Declaración de conexión:
EL SEÑOR continúa reprendiendo con preguntas a Job.

Hará él un pacto contigo, para que tú debas tomarlo a él por un sirviente para siempre?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que él no hará un pacto contigo, que tú deberías tomarlo a él por un sirviente para siempre."

Jugarás con él como jugarías con un ave?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que no puedes jugar con él como jugarías con un ave"

Lo amarrarás para tus siervas?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que no puedes amarrar para tus sirvientes"

Los grupos de pescadores, ¿negociarán por él?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que los grupos de pescadores no negociarán por él."

¿Lo dividirán para intercambiarlo entre los mercaderes?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú sabes que ellos no lo dividirán para intercambiarlo entre los mercaderes."

Lo dividirán
"Los grupos de pescadores dividirán"

Job 41:7

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa reprendiéndole a Job haciéndole preguntas

Puedes tú llenar su piel con arpones o su cabeza con lanzas de pescar Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú no puedes perforar su piel con arpones, ni puedes perforar su cabeza con lanzas de pescar" arpones

largas lanzas con puntos de púas que las personas usan para cazar largas criaturas

Mira
"Presta atención a la cosa importante que diré"

¿no será arrojado al suelo cualquiera con solo verlo?
Esta generalización se puede traducir como una declaración en forma activa. Las palabras "con solo verlo", la razón por la cual la persona se arrojará al suelo, es un metonimo para la persona que tiene miedo y para la persona que se arroja al suelo. Traducción Alternativa: "Cualquiera que lo mire estará tan asustado que se arrojará al suelo"

Job 41:10

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa reprendiéndo a Job haciéndole preguntas.

Ninguno es tan feroz que se atreva agitar al Leviatán; ¿quién, entonces, es aquel que pueda pararse frente a Mí?
Sería más fácil despertar a Leviatán que pararse delante del SEÑOR. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Como sabes que ninguna persona es tan feroz que se atreva a despertar a Leviatán, ciertamente debes saber que nadie puede pararse delante de mí".

¿Quién Me ha dado algo a Mí primero de manera que tenga Yo que pagarle?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Sabes que nadie ha dado nada primero, así que no hay nadie a quien deba devolver "

Yo no me mantendré en silencio Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo ciertamente hablaré" las piernas, ni acerca del asunto de su fuerza, Quizás debas añadir las palabras omitidas. Traducción Alternativa: "piernas. También hablo acerca de la importancia de su fuerza" fuerza, ni acerca de su forma elegante.

Quizás debas añadir las palabras omitidas. Traducción Alternativa: "fuerza. También hablaré acerca de su forma elegante"

Job 41:13

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continúa repreniéndo a Job preguntandole.

¿Quién puede desnudarlo de su cubierta exterior?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede desnudarlo de su cubierta exterior."

¿Quién puede penetrar su armadura doble?
La palabra "armadura" es una metáfora por las escamas duras o esconder en su espalda. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede penetrar su muy gruesa piel".

¿Quién puede abrir las puertas de su rostro ... terror?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Nadie puede abrir sus mandíbulas ... terror"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

escudos
Tanto los escudos como la piel de Leviatán protegen bien y mantienen alejadas las flechas y otras armas.

apretados juntos como con un sello cerrado
Esto significa los "escudos" son muy cercanos uno de otro y nada puede interponerse entre ellos.

Job 41:16

Uno está tan cerca del otro
Una fila de escudos (41:13) está tan cerca de otra

ellos ... ellos
Las palabras "ellos" y "ellos" se refiere a la fila de escudos (41:13)

ellos no puedan ser separados Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "nadie puede separarlos" de su resoplo

"cuando resopla". Un resoplido es un sonido como un ronquido corto. Otro posible significado es "por sus estornudos" o "cuando estornuda".

sus ojos son como los párpados del amanecer
Sus ojos son ojos y el amanecer es rojo.

Job 41:19

Fuera de su boca salen antorchas encendidas, chispas de fuego saltan fuera.
"De su boca salen antorchas encendidas, chispas de fuego saltan de su boca". Dios expresa la misma idea de dos maneras diferentes para enfatizar la aterradora apariencia del Leviatán.

humo como una olla hirviendo
Ambos, el humo y la olla hirviendo son muy calientes.

fosas nasales
las dos aberturas de la nariz

enciende carbones en llamas
"hace que las brasas se encienden"

Job 41:22

su ... él
Leviatán

el terror baila frente a él
El sujeto abstracto "terror" se puede traducir como el verbo "tener miedo", Traducción Alternativa: "cuando la gente lo ve venir, tienen mucho miedo"

ellos no pueden ser movidos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "nadie puede moverlos"

Su corazón es tan duro como una piedra Una roca no cambia y se vuelve suave. Los posibles significados son 1) el cofre físico de Leviatán y los órganos dentro de él son físicamente duros o 2) Leviatán no tiene miedo de nada o 3) se habla de Leviatán como una persona que mata sin lamentarlo.

molino inferior
La más grande y dura de las dos rocas solía moler el grano. Sería la roca más dura que la gente podría encontrar. "la más dura de las rocas"

Job 41:25

los dioses
Otra posibile significado es "personas poderosas" o "personas muy fuertes" (Ver UDB)

Él piensa del hierro como si fuera paja
"Piensa en las armas hechas de hierro como si fueran armas hechas de paja". La paja no atravesaba su piel, y las armas de hierro no atraviesan su piel.

y del bronce como si fuera madera podrida
"Piensa en las armas hechas de bronce como si fueran armas hechas de madera podrida" La madera podrida no atravesaba su piel, y las armas de bronce no atraviesan su piel.

Job 41:28

para él las piedras de hondas se vuelven paja
Chaff no puede lastimar a Leviatán, y las hondas no pueden lastimarlo.

Los mazos son considerados como paja Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Un mazo hecho de paja no lo lastimaría, y un mazo hecho de madera no lo lastimaría. AT: "Él piensa en los mazos como si fueran paja"

él se ríe del zumbido del vuelo de una lanza
La persona que arroja la esfera espera que la lanza mate a Leviatán, pero el escritor habla como si Leviatán supiera que la esfera no lo matará y se ríe.

él deja un rastro que separa el lodo como si fuera un trineo de trilla
Un trineo trillando sobre grano en un piso trillando y convierte en polvo lo que pasa, y su cola deja un rastro en el barro mientras lo mueve mientras camina.

Job 41:31

Él hace la profundidad espumarse como una olla de agua hirviendo
"Cuando él pasa por el agua, deja un rastro de burbujas detrás de él, como el burbujeo del agua hirviendo en una olla"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

él hace del océano una olla de ungüento
El ungüento en una olla es nublado si alguien lo sacude, y el mar está lodoso cuando Leviatán nada en él.

uno pensaría que la profundidad tenía cabello gris por las burbujas a sus pasos son blancas

Job 41:33

no hay ninguno igual a él
"ninguna otra criatura es como Leviatán"

Él ve todo lo que es orgulloso
"Él es muy, muy orgulloso" él es rey sobre todos los hijos del orgullo Se habla de Leviatán como si fuera una persona capaz de enorgullecerse y convertirse en rey. Tradcción Alternativa: "Leviatán tiene más razones para estar orgulloso que cualquier otra persona en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 42

1 Entonces Job le contestó al SEÑOR y dijo: 2 "Yo sé que Tú puedes hacer todas las cosas, que ningún propósito Tuyo puede ser detenido. 3 '¿Quién es este que sin conocimiento encubre planes?' En efecto, yo he hablado cosas que no entendía, cosas muy difíciles para yo entenderlas, de las cuales yo no sabía. 4 Tú me dijiste: 'Escucha, ahora, y Yo hablaré; Te preguntaré cosas, y tú me dirás.' 5 Yo había escuchado de Ti por el oír de mis oídos, pero ahora mi ojo te ve. 6 Así que me desprecio; me arrepiento en polvo y cenizas." 7 Sucedió que después de haber dicho estas palabras a Job, el SEÑOR le dijo a Elifaz el temanita: "Mi ira se ha encendido contra ti y en contra de tus dos amigos, pues no han hablado de Mí lo correcto, como Mi siervo Job ha hecho. 8 Ahora por lo tanto, traigan para ustedes mismos siete toros y siete carneros, vayan a Mi siervo Job, y ofrezcan para ustedes mismos una ofrenda quemada. Mi siervo Job orará por ustedes, y Yo aceptaré su oración, para que así Yo no tenga que tratar con ustedes luego de su disparate. Ustedes no han dicho lo que es correcto sobre Mí, como Mi siervo Job ha hecho." 9 Así que Elifaz el temanita, Bildad el suhita y Zofar el naamatita fueron e hicieron como el SEÑOR los había ordenado, y el SEÑOR aceptó a Job. 10 Cuando Job oró por sus amigos, el SEÑOR restauró sus fortunas. El SEÑOR le dio el doble tanto como él había poseído antes. 11 Entonces todos los hermanos de Job, y todas sus hermanas, y todos aquellos que habían sido sus conocidos antes- fueron donde él y comieron alimento con él en su casa. Ellos se afligieron con él y lo consolaron por todos los desastres que el SEÑOR había traído sobre él. Cada persona le dio a Job un pedazo de plata y un anillo de oro. 12 El SEÑOR bendijo la parte final de la vida de Job más que la primera; tuvo catorce mil ovejas, seis mil camellos, mil yugos de bueyes, y mil burras. 13 También tuvo siete hijos y tres hijas. 14 Nombró a la primera hija Jemina, a la segunda Cesia, y a la tercera Keren Hapuc. 15 En toda la tierra no fueron encontradas mujeres tan hermosas como las hijas de Job. Su padre les dio una herencia junto a sus hermanos. 16 Luego de esto, Job vivió 140 años; vio a sus hijos y a los hijos de sus hijos, hasta cuatro generaciones. 17 Entonces Job murió, siendo viejo y lleno de días.

Job 42:1

Yo sé que Tú puedes hacer todas las cosas, que ningún propósito Tuyo puede ser detenido Es posible que deba repetir las palabras "Lo sé". Traducción Alternativa: "Sé que puedes hacer todas las cosas. Sé que ningún propósito tuyo puede ser detenido".

ningún propósito Tuyo puede ser detenido Esto puede ser traducido de forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "nadie puede parar ninguno de tus planes"

Quién es este que sin conocimiento encubre planes
La mayoría de las versiones modernas están de acuerdo en que Job cita libremente las propias palabras de Dios de 38: 1. Los traductores deben, por lo tanto, decidir como lo hace la UDB, dejar en claro que Dios hizo esta pregunta a Job y que Job ahora la está recordando. Traducción Alternativa: "Me dijiste, '¿Quién es este que no tiene conocimiento, pero que se atreve a ocultar mis planes a la gente?'" O, "Me dijiste, 'No tienes conocimiento; no debes decir mentiras sobre mi planes. '"

encubre planes
Es decir, oculta o tergiversa los planes y consejos de Dios.

Job 42:4

pero ahora mi ojo te ve
El lector no debe entender que esto significa que Job literalmente vio al SEÑOR. Ver con los ojos es una metonimia para comprender. Traducción Alternativa: "pero ahora realmente te entiendo".

me desprecio
El yo de Job es una metonimia de lo que dijo. Traduccion alternativa: "Desprecio las cosas que dije"

desprecio
"me disgusta intensamente" o "soy infeliz con"

me arrepiento en polvo y cenizas
No está claro si Job realmente se sentó o se cubrió de polvo y cenizas. Esto puede ser una metáfora para lamentar sus pecados. Traduccion alternativa: "Lamento tanto mis pecados que debería sentarme en polvo y cenizas"

Job 42:7

Sucedió que después
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Elifaz el temanita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como en 2:11.

Mi ira se ha encendido contra ti
El fuego es una metáfora de la ira, y encender un fuego es una metáfora para enojarse. Traducción alternativa: "Me he enojado mucho contigo"

siete toros
"7 toros"

así Yo no tenga que tratar con ustedes luego de su disparate El sustantivo abstracto "disparate" se puede traducir como un adjetivo. Traducción Alternativa: "a pesar de que has sido muy tonto y mereces que te castigue severamente, no haré eso"

Bildad el suhita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como en 2:11.

Zofar el naamatita
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre como en 2:11.

el SEÑOR aceptó a Job
La persona es un metonimo para la oración que ora. Traducción alternativa: "Dios aceptó la oración de Job por sus tres amigos"

Job 42:10

poseído
Los términos "poseer" y "posesión" generalmente se refieren a poseer algo. También pueden significar ganar control sobre algo u ocupar un área de tierra.

- En el Antiguo Testamento, este término se usa a menudo en el contexto de "poseer" o "tomar posesión" de un área de tierra.
- Cuando el SEÑOR ordenó a los israelitas que "poseyeran" la tierra de Canaán, eso significaba que debían ir a la tierra y vivir allí. Esto implicó primero conquistar a los pueblos cananeos que vivían en esa tierra.
- EL SEÑOR les dijo a los israelitas que les había dado la tierra de Canaán como "su posesión". Esto también podría traducirse como "su lugar legítimo para vivir".
- El pueblo de Israel también fue llamado "posesión especial" del SEÑOR. Esto significa que le pertenecían a él como su pueblo a quien había llamado específicamente para adorarlo y servirlo.
- Sugerencias de traducción: Los términos "poseer" también podrían traducirse como "propio" o "tener" o "tener más cargo".
- La frase, "tomar posesión de" podría traducirse como "tomar el control de" u "ocupar" o "vivir", dependiendo del contexto.
- Al referirse a cosas que las personas poseen, las "posesiones" podrían traducirse como "pertenencias" o "propiedad" o "cosas de propiedad" o "cosas de su propiedad".
- Cuando el SEÑOR llama a los israelitas, "mi posesión especial", esto también podría traducirse como "mi pueblo especial" o "gente que me pertenece" o "mi pueblo a quien amo y gobierno".
- La frase, "se convertirán en su posesión" cuando se refiera a la tierra, significa "ocuparán la tierra" o "la tierra les pertenecerá".
- La expresión "encontrado en su poder" podría traducirse como "que estaba sosteniendo" o "que tenía con él".
- La frase "como su posesión" también podría traducirse como "como algo que le pertenece" o "como un lugar donde vivirá su gente".
- La frase "en su poder" podría traducirse como "que poseía" o "que le pertenecía".

consolaron
Los términos "comodidad" y "consolador" se refieren a ayudar a alguien que sufre dolor físico o emocional.

- Una persona que consuela a alguien se llama "consolador".
- En el Antiguo Testamento, el término "consuelo" se usa para describir cómo Dios es amable y amoroso con su pueblo y los ayuda cuando están sufriendo.
- En el Nuevo Testamento, dice que Dios consolará a su pueblo a través del Espíritu Santo. Aquellos que reciben el consuelo están capacitados para dar el mismo consuelo a otros que sufren.
- La expresión "consolador de Israel" se refería al Mesías que vendría a rescatar a su pueblo.
- Jesús se refirió al Espíritu Santo como el "Consolador" que ayuda a los creyentes en Jesús.

Sugerencias de traducción: Dependiendo del contexto, "comodidad" también podría traducirse como "aliviar el dolor de" o "ayudar

oro
El oro es un metal de alta calidad de color amarillo que se usaba para hacer joyas y objetos religiosos. Era el metal más valioso en la antigüedad.

- En los tiempos bíblicos, muchos tipos diferentes de objetos estaban hechos de oro macizo o estaban cubiertos con una fina capa de oro.
- Estos objetos incluían aretes y otras joyas, ídolos, altares y otros objetos usados en el tabernáculo o templo, como el arca del pacto.
- En los tiempos del Antiguo Testamento, el oro se usaba como medio de intercambio en la compra y venta. Se pesó en una escala para determinar su valor.
- Más tarde, el oro y otros metales como la plata se usaron para hacer monedas para comprar y vender.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

- Cuando se refiere a algo que no es oro sólido, sino que solo tiene una cubierta delgada de oro, también podría usarse el término "dorado" o "cubierto de oro" o "cubierto de oro".
- A veces, un objeto se describe como "dorado", lo que significa que tiene el color amarillo del oro, pero en realidad no puede estar hecho de oro.

Job 42:12

más que la primera
Es posible que deba agregar las palabras omitidas. Traducción Alternativa: "más que la primera parte de su vida"

catorce mil ovejas 14.000 ovejas

seis mil camellos
6.000 camellos.

mil yugos de bueyes

1. 000 yugos de bueyes.

siete hijos y tres hijas
7 hijos y 3 hijas

Jemina ... Cesia ... Keren Hapuc nombre de mujeres

Job 42:15

no fueron encontradas mujeres tan hermosas como las hijas de Job
"las hijas de Job eran más hermosas que todas las demás mujeres"

siendo viejo y lleno de días Las palabras "lleno de días" significa básicamente la misma cosa que "siendo viejo". Las dos frases forman un mismo idioma. Traducción alternativa: "un muy viejo hombre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Psalms

Psalms

Chapter 1

1 ¡Bienaventurado es el hombre que no camina en el consejo del malvado, o camina en el sendero con pecadores, o se sienta en la asamblea de burladores. 2 Pues su deleite está en la ley del SEÑOR, y en su ley, él medita de día y de noche! 3 Él será como un árbol plantado junto a las corrientes de agua, que produce su fruto en su temporada, cuyas hojas no se marchitan; lo que sea que Él hace, prosperará. 4 No así los malvados, que son como la paja que el viento se lleva lejos. 5 Así que los malvados no se mantendrán en el juicio, ni tampoco los pecadores en la asamblea de los rectos. 6 Pues el SEÑOR aprueba el camino de los rectos, pero el camino de los malvados perecerá.

Psalms 1:1

Información General:
Paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

que no camina en el consejo del malvado
El "consejo del malvado" es referido como si fuera un camino que seguir. Traducción Alterna: "'que no sigue el camino del malvado"

camina en el sendero con pecadores Aquí la palabra "sendero" representa la manera en que vive la gente. La palabra "permanece" está en paralelo con "camina". Traducción Alterna: "imitar la conducta de la gente pecadora"

o se sienta en la asamblea de burladores Sentarse con gente que se burla de Dios representa unirse con gente que se burla de Él. Traducción Alterna: "o se une a esos que se burlan de Dios" o "se burlan de Dios con otros que lo hacen"

deleite
"contentamiento" o "gozo"

El SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que Él reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página de translatioWord sobre El Señor concerniente a cómo traducir esto.

Psalms 1:3

Información General:
Este pasaje introduce una imagen elaborada en la cual se piensa de una persona justa en términos de un árbol floreciente.

Él será como un árbol... fruto en su temporada En la Biblia, a menudo se habla de la gente como árboles. La gente que se deleita en la ley del Señor pueden hacer todo lo que Dios quiere que hagan justo como un árbol que es plantado junto al agua produce buen fruto. Traducción Alterna: "Él será próspero como un árbol... fruto en su temporada" plantado junto a las corrientes de agua Un árbol que es plantado junto a una corriente de agua puede recibir suficiente agua para ser saludable.

que produce su fruto en su temporada
Los árboles saludables producen buen fruto en el tiempo correcto.

cuyas hojas no se marchitan
Si un árbol recibe suficiente agua, sus hojas no se secan y mueren.

lo que sea que Él hace, prosperará
"Él será exitoso en cualquier cosa que haga"

Psalms 1:4

No así los malvados
Como ellos no son así puede ser expresado claramente. "Los malvados no son prósperos" o "'los malvados no prosperan"

que son como la paja Como son como paja puede ser claramente. Traducción Alterna: "pero, en cambio, ellos no tienen valor como la paja"

no se mantendrán en el juicio Sobrevivir cuando Dios juzga es referido como "mantenerse." Traducción Alterna: "no sobrevivirán cuando Dios les juzgue" o "serán condenados cuando Dios los juzgue"

ni tampoco los pecadores en la asamblea
Los traductores pueden suplir el verbo "mantenerse." Traducción Alterna: "tampoco los pecadores se mantendrán en la asamblea"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ni tampoco los pecadores en la asamblea de los rectos Ser aceptados por Dios como justo es referido como permanecer con el grupo de gente justa. Traducción Alterna: "y Dios no aceptará pecadores junto con gente justa"

Psalms 1:6

Pues el SEÑOR aprueba el camino de los rectos, pero el camino de los malvados perecerá Estas dos cláusalas contrastan lo que le pasa a la gente justa con lo que le pasa a la gente malvada.

el camino de los rectos Como vive la gente es referido como si fuera un ''camino" o "ruta" en la que ellos están caminando. Traducción Alterna: "como los justos viven"

el camino de los malvados perecerá Aquí "camino" aplica a los malvados, quienes están figuradamente caminando en el camino. Traducción Alterna: "los malvados perecerán debido a su camino" o "los malvados morirán debido a la manera en que viven"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 ¿Por qué están las naciones en tumulto, y por qué las personas hacen conspiraciones que fallarán? 2 Los reyes de la tierra se posicionan juntos y los gobernantes se juntan para conspirar contra el SEÑOR y contra Su Mesías, diciendo: 3 "Arrancanquémonos los grilletes que ellos nos pusieron y lanzar lejos sus cadenas." 4 Aquel que se sienta en los cielos se burlará de ellos; el Señor se burla de ellos. 5 Entonces Él les hablará en Su enojo y los aterrorizará en Su furor, diciendo: 6 "Yo mismo he ungido a Mi rey en Sion, Mi monte santo." 7 Yo anunciaré el decreto del SEÑOR. Él me dijo: "¡Tú eres mi hijo! Yo soy tu padre. 8 Pídeme, y Yo te daré las naciones para tu herencia y las regiones más lejanas de la tierra para tu posesión. 9 Tú las quebrarás con una vara de hierro; como una jarra de un alfafero, tú los aplastarás en pedazos." 10 Así que ahora, ustedes reyes, sean advertidos; sean corregidos, ustedes gobernantes de la tierra. 11 Adoren al SEÑOR en temor y regocíjense con temblor. 12 Honra el hijo o él se enojará contigo, y ustedes morirán en el camino cuando Su enojo queme por solo un momento. Cuán bendecidos son todos aquellos que buscan refugio en Él.

Psalms 2:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

¿Por qué están las naciones en tumulto... por qué las personas hacen conspiraciones que fallarán?
Estas dos cláusalas tienen significados similares, y las "naciones" y "gentes" se refieren al mismo pueblo. Las palabras "naciones" y "gentes" puede representar a sus gobernantes. Traducción Alterna: "¿Por qué están los líderes de las naciones en tumulto y haciendo conspiraciones que fallarán?

¿Por qué están las naciones en tumulto, y por qué las personas hacen conspiraciones que fallarán?
Estas preguntas son usadas para mostrar sorpresa acerca de que la gente esté haciendo algo tan mal y tonto. Traducción Alterna: "Las naciones están en tumulto y las personas están haciendo conspiraciones que fallarán."

están las naciones en tumulto Esto probablemente significa que las naciones estaban haciendo una gran y ruidosa conmoción.

conspiraciones que fallarán
Estas son probablemente conspiraciones contra Dios y su pueblo.

Los reyes de la tierra se posicionan juntos... los gobernantes se juntan para conspirar
Estas dos cláusalas tienen significados similares

se posicionan juntos
"juntos para pelear" o "unidos y preparados para una revuelta"

Arrancanquémonos los grilletes... lanzar lejos sus cadenas
La gente de otras naciones habla del gobierno del SEÑOR y del Mesías sobre ellos como si fuera grilletes y cadenas. Traducción Alterna: "Nos liberaremos de su control; no debemos permitir que gobiernen más sobre nosotros"

Psalms 2:4

Él... El Señor
Estas frases se refieren al SEÑOR. El SEÑOR es llamado, a menudo, "El Señor" pero las palabras para "El SEÑOR" y "El Señor " son diferentes.

se sienta en los cielos Aquí sentarse representa gobernar. En donde se sienta puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "gobierna en los cielos" o "se sienta en su trono en el cielo"

el Señor se burla de ellos
"El Señor se burla de esa gente." Traducción Alterna: El Señor se burla de ellos por sus tontos planes"

y los aterrorizará en Su furor
"furor" se puede referir a estar extremadamente molesto o estar furioso.

aterrorizará
"asustar"

Psalms 2:6

Yo mismo
El SEÑOR está enfatizando que Él, y nadie más, ha ungido su rey.

he ungido a Mi rey
"establecí a Mi rey para gobernar"

Yo anunciaré el decreto del SEÑOR
La persona diciendo esto es el rey. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "El rey dice 'yo anunciaré un decreto del SEÑOR'"

Él me dijo
"El SEÑOR me dijo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¡Tú eres mi hijo! Yo soy tu padre
Entre muchos pueblos en esa parte del mundo de entonces, los hombres podían decidir adoptar legalmente niños, quienes se convertirían en sus herederos. Aquí El SEÑOR adopta a un hombre y lo hace rey de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Te hago mi hijo. En este día me he convertido en tu padre" o "ahora tú eres mi hijo y yo soy tu padre"

Psalms 2:8

Oración de Enlace:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al nuevo rey de Israel.

las naciones para tu herencia... las regiones más lejanas de la tierra para tu posesión
Estas frases expresan ideas muy similares.

las regiones más lejanas de la tierra
"las tierras que están muy lejos"

Tú las quebrarás con una vara de hierro; como una jarra de un alfafero, tú los aplastarás en pedazos
Estas frases expresan ideas muy similares.

Tú las quebrarás con una vara de hierro Derrotar a las naciones es expresado como quebrarlos, y su poder es expresado como una vara de hierro. Traducción Alterna: "Tú los derrotarás completamente por tu poder"

tú los aplastarás en pedazos Destruir naciones es expresado como si ellas pudieran ser rotas como una jarra. Traducción Alterna: "tú los destruirás completamente como una jarra de arcilla"

una jarra de un alfafero
Un alfarero es una persona que hace ollas y jarras de arcilla. Éstas son frágiles y pueden ser rotas fácilmente. Traducción Alterna: "una jarra de arcilla" o "una olla de arcilla"

Psalms 2:10

Así que ahora, ustedes reyes, sean advertidos; sean corregidos, ustedes gobernantes de la tierra
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Traducción Alterna: "Así que ahora, ustedes reyes y gobernantes de la tierra, sean advertidos y corregidos"

sean advertidos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "oigan esta advertencia" o "sean sabios"

sean corregidos
Esto puede ser expresado con una forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "oigan esta corrección" o "tomen esta corrección"

Psalms 2:12

Honra al hijo
La gente mostraría a su rey que era leal a él besándolo, quizás en los pies. Traducción Alterna: "Muestra al hijo que eres verdaderamente leal a él" o "Inclínate humildemente delante de su hijo"

ustedes morirán en el camino Esto se puede referir a morir justo allí, antes de que la persona tenga oportunidad de irse. Traducción Alterna: "morirás inmediatamente"

cuando Su enojo queme por sólo un momento La ira del rey es expresada como si fuera un fuego que podría quemar. Traducción Alterna: "cuando él súbitamente se enoje mucho"

buscan refugio en Él Pedir refugio al rey es expresado como buscar refugio en él. Traducción Alterna: "piden al rey que los proteja"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 SEÑOR, ¡cuántos son mis enemigos! Muchos se han levantado en mi contra. 2 Muchos dicen sobre mí:
"No hay ayuda de Dios para él." 3 Pero Tú, SEÑOR, eres un escudo a mi alrededor, mi gloria, y Aquel que levanta mi cabeza. 4 Yo levanto mi voz al SEÑOR, y Él me contesta desde su colina santa. 5 Yo me acosté y dormí; me desperté, pues el SEÑOR me protegió. 6 Yo no tendré miedo de las multitudes de personas que se han puesto a sí mismas en contra mi a mi alrededor. 7 ¡Levántate, SEÑOR! ¡Sálvame, mi Dios! Pues Tú golpearás a todos mis enemigos en la quijada; Tú romperás los dientes de los malvados. 8 La salvación viene del SEÑOR. Que tus bendiciones sean sobre tu pueblo.

Psalms 3:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebreo.

Un Salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el Salmo o 2) el Salmo es sobre David o 3) el Salmo es en el estilo de los Salmos de David.

SEÑOR, ¡cuántos son mis enemigos!
Esta exclamación muestra que David está temeroso de sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Oh SEÑOR, tengo tantos enemigos!"

se han levantado en mi contra Luchar contra alguien es expresado como levantarse contra él. Traducción Alterna: "vienen contra mí"

Selah
Esto podría ser un término musical que le dice a las personas cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas no la incluyen.

Psalms 3:3

Tú, SEÑOR, eres un escudo a mi alrededor
Un escudo protege a un soldado. David habla como si Dios fuera un escudo protegiéndolo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú, SEÑOR, protégeme como un escudo"

mi gloria
"Tú eres mi gloria". Al llamar a Dios su gloria, David dice que Dios es el que le da gloria. Dado que David ha hablado acerca de sus enemigos y Dios siendo su protector, él, probablemente, quiere decir que Dios le da gloria al darle la victoria sobre sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "Tú eres el que me da gloria" o "Tú eres el que me das la victoria"

Aquel que levanta mi cabeza
"Tú eres Aquel que levanta mi cabeza." Dar a alguien valentía es expresado como levantar su iglesia. Traducción Alterna: "Aquel que me da valentía"

Yo levanto mi voz
Usar la voz de uno para clamar es expresado como levantar la voz. Traducción Alterna: "Clamo"

Selah
Esto podría ser un término musical que le dice a las personas cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

Psalms 3:5

se han puesto a sí mismas en contra mi a mi alrededor
"me han rodeado para destruirme"

Psalms 3:7

Levántate
David habla de comenzar algo como levantarse. Traducción Alterna: "Toma acción" o "Haz algo" golpearás a todos mis enemigos... romperás los dientes de los malvados

Estas frases dicen cosas muy similares. Las frases "mis enemigos" y "los malvados" se refieren al mismo grupo de personas.

Pues Tú golpearás a todos mis enemigos en la quijada
Esta era una manera de insultar a las personas. David habla como si El SEÑOR vendría y golpearía físicamente a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "Pues Tú insultarás a todos mis enemigos como alguien que los golpea en la mandíbula"

Tú romperás los dientes de los malvados
Los animales atacan con sus dientes. Romper sus dientes les quita su poder para atacar. David habla como si El SEÑOR vendría y pelearía físicamente contra los malvados. Traducción Alterna: "Tú harás a los malvados incapaces de dañarme como alguien que rompe los dientes de un animal feroz"

La salvación viene del SEÑOR
El nombre abstracto "salvación" puede ser expresado con el verbo "salvar". Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR salva a su pueblo"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Contéstame cuando yo llame, Dios de mi justicia; dame espacio cuando yo esté cercado. Ten misericordia de mí y escucha mi oración. 2 Ustedes pueblos, ¿por cuánto tiempo volverán mi honor en vergüenza? ¿Por cuánto tiempo amarán lo que no tiene valor e irán tras las mentiras? 3 Pero conozcan que el SEÑOR separa al piadoso para Él mismo. El SEÑOR escuchará cuando yo le llame. 4 Tiemblen de miedo, ¡pero no pequen! Mediten en su corazón, en su cama, y callen. 5 Ofrezcan sacrificios de justicia y pongan su confianza en el SEÑOR. 6 Muchos dicen: "¿Quién nos mostrará algo bueno?" SEÑOR, levanta la luz de tu rostro sobre nosotros. 7 Tú haz dado a mi corazón más felicidad, que la que otros tienen cuando su grano y vino nuevo abundan. 8 Es en paz que yo me acostaré y dormiré, pues solamente Tú, SEÑOR, me haces estar seguro y me guardas.

Psalms 4:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el jefe de los músicos
"Esto es para el director de música para usar en la alabanza"

en instrumentos de cuerda
"la gente debería tocar instrumentos de cuerda con esta canción"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Contéstame cuando yo llame
"Respóndeme cuando llame" o "Ayúdame cuando llame"

Dios de mi justicia
"Dios, quien muestra que soy justo"

dame espacio cuando yo esté cercado
Estar en peligro es expresado como estar en un lugar estrecho. Traducción Alterna: "rescátame cuando esté en peligro"

Psalms 4:2

Información General:
David canta esta parte de la canción como si estuviera hablando de sus enemigos.

Ustedes pueblos, ¿por cuánto tiempo volverán mi honor en vergüenza?
David usa esta pregunta para reprender a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ustedes pueblos continuamente vuelven el honor en vergüenza!"

¿Por cuánto tiempo amarán lo que no tiene valor e irán tras las mentiras?
David usa esta pregunta para reprender a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ustedes continúan amando cosas que no tienen valor y van tras mentiras"

amarán lo que no tiene valor... irán tras las mentiras Estas dos frases son muy similares en significado. Las mentiras no tienen valor. Traducción Alterna: "aman mentiras sin valor"

El SEÑOR separa al piadoso para Él mismo
"El SEÑOR escoge personas piadosas para Él mismo"

Psalms 4:4

Tiemblen de miedo
La relación entre "temblar" y "temer" y a quién la gente debería temer puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Teman al SEÑOR tanto que tiemblen" o "Permanezcan asombrados del SEÑOR"

Tiemblen
"Agítense"

Mediten en su corazón
El corazón representa los pensamientos de una persona. Pensar cuidadosamente es expresado como meditar en el corazón de uno. Traducción Alterna: "Piensen cuidadosamente"

Ofrezcan sacrificios de justicia
"Ofrezcan los sacrificios correctos"

pongan su confianza en el SEÑOR
La confianza es expresada como si fuera un objeto que pudiera ponerse en algún lugar. Traducción Alterna: "confíen en El SEÑOR"

Psalms 4:6

¿Quién nos mostrará algo bueno?
Esta pregunta es usada ya sea para preguntar por algo o para expresar un deseo sobre algo que no ha sucedido. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor muéstrennos algo bueno" o "Deseamos que alguien nos muestre algo bueno"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Quién nos mostrará algo bueno?
Mostrar algo bueno representa ya sea traer cosas buenas o decir que han sucedido cosas buenas. Traducción Alterna: "¿Quién nos traerá cosas buenas?" o "Quién dirá que han sucedido cosas buenas?"

levanta la luz de tu rostro sobre nosotros
El escritor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si Su rostro hizo brillar una luz sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "actúa favorablemente hacia nosotros"

Tú haz dado a mi corazón más felicidad
El corazón representa a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tú me has dado más felicidad"

Tú haz dado a mi corazón más felicidad, que la que otros tienen Se habla de la felicidad como si fuera un objeto que pudiera ser dado. Traducción Alterna: "Tú me has hecho más feliz que a otros" cuando su grano y vino nuevo abundan

"Vino nuevo" podría representar uvas. Traducción Alterna: "cuando ellos recogen cosechas abundantes de grano y uvas"

Es en paz que yo me acostaré y dormiré
La paz es expresada como si fuera un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "Yo estaré en paz cuando me acueste y duerma" o "Yo no estaré temeroso del peligro cuando me acueste y duerma" me haces estar seguro y me guardas.

Las palabras "seguro" y "guardas" significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan una seguridad completa. Traducción Alterna: "me haces estar completamente seguro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Escucha mi llamado a tí, SEÑOR; piensa sobre mis gemidos. 2 Escucha al sonido de mi llamado, mi Rey y mi Dios, pues es a Tí a quien yo oro. 3 SEÑOR, en la mañana Tú escuchas mi llanto; en la mañana yo traeré mi petición a Tí y expectante esperaré. 4 Ciertamente Tú no eres un Dios que apruebas la maldad; las personas malvadas no serán tus invitados. 5 El arrogante no se mantendrá en tu presencia; Tú odias a todos los que se comportan malvadamente. 6 Tú destruirás a los mentirosos; el SEÑOR desprecia a los hombres violentos y engañadores. 7 Pero en cuanto a mí, a causa de Tu gran pacto de fidelidad, yo entraré a Tu casa; en reverencia me inclinaré hacia Tu santo templo. 8 Oh Señor, dirígeme en Tu justicia a causa de mis enemigos; haz Tu sendero derecho delante de mí. 9 Pues no hay verdad en su boca; su ser interior es malvado; su garganta es una tumba abierta; ellos halagan con su lengua. 10 Decláralos culpables, oh Dios; ¡que sus planes sean su caída! Sácalos por sus muchas transgresiones, pues ellos se han rebelado contra tí. 11 Pero que todos aquellos que toman refugio en Tí, se regocijen; permite que ellos siempre griten de alegría, porque Tú los defiendes; permite que ellos estén gozosos en Tí, aquellos que aman tu nombre. 12 Pues Tú bendecirás al recto, SEÑOR; Tú los rodearás con favor como con un escudo.

Psalms 5:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el jefe de los músicos
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

con instrumentos de viento
"Esta canción debería ser acompañada por personas que tocan instrumentos de viento"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Escucha mi llamado a ti Este es un llamado de ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "Escúchame mientras te llamo ahora por ayuda"

gemidos
Sonidos bajos que la gente hace con la voz cuando están sufriendo.

en la mañana Tú escuchas mi llanto... en la mañana yo traeré mi petición a Ti Estas dos frases son muy similares en significado.

traeré mi petición a Ti
"Haré mi requerimiento" o "Te preguntaré por lo que necesito" expectante

"esperanzado"

Psalms 5:4

el SEÑOR desprecia a los hombres violentos y engañadores
Como David está hablando a Dios en este salmo, esta oración puede ser expresada con la palabra "Tú". "SEÑOR, Tú desprecias a los hombres que cometen actos violentos y engañan a otros"

Psalms 5:7

Tu casa
Esto se refiere al templo de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Tu templo"

dirígeme en Tu justicia
David habla de la justicia como si fuera un camino y de enseñar como dirigir. La frase "Tu justicia" significa que es justo. Traducción Alterna: "enséñame a hacer lo que es justo como Tú lo haces"

haz Tu sendero derecho delante de mí
David habla de la justicia como si fuera un camino. Un camino recto es fácil de ver o de andar. Traducción Alterna: enséñame claramente cómo vivir en el camino correcto" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada" o "haz fácil para mí el obrar lo que es correcto")

Psalms 5:9

Información General:
"David habla sobre sus enemigos.

Pues no hay verdad en su boca
La verdad estando en la boca representa hablar verázmente. Traducción Alterna: "Porque ellos nunca dicen lo que es verdad"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

su ser interior es malvado
El ser interior representa los pensamientos y deseos de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "sus pensamientos y deseos son malvados"

su garganta
La garganta representa el hablar de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "su hablar" o "lo que dicen"

su garganta es una tumba abierta Se habla de su garganta como si fuera una tumba abierta, lista para colocar cuerpos muertos en ella. Los posibles significados son: 1) ellos dicen que matarán gente" o 2) "lo que ellos dicen mata gente"

ellos halagan con su lengua
"ellos dicen cosas buenas acerca de la gente sin desearlo realmente"

su lengua
La lengua representa lo que la gente dice.

que sus planes sean su caída
"que sus planes les lleven a experimentar desastres" o "que se vuelvan menos importantes a causa de sus planes"

planes
planes de dañar personas

caída
Esto es algo que lleva a una persona a experimentar desastres o a perder poder. Se habla de experimentar un desastre o volverse menos importante como de caer.

Psalms 5:11

que todos aquellos que toman refugio en Tí, se regocijen Se habla de Dios como si fuera un refugio, un lugar donde la gente puede ser protegida. Traducción Alterna: "que todos aquellos que van a Ti por protección se regocijen"

aquellos que toman refugio en Tí, se regocijen... griten de alegría, porque Tú los defiendes Estas dos cláusalas expresan pensamientos similares.

toman refugio en Tí
Se habla de ir al SEÑOR por protección como tomar refugio en Él. Traducción Alterna: "van a Ti por protección"

aquellos que aman tu nombre
El nombre de Dios le representa. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que te aman"

Tú los rodearás con favor como con un escudo
Se habla del favor de Dios como si fuera un escudo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú los favorecerás y los protegerás así como un soldado se protege a sí mismo con su escudo" o "porque eres bueno con ellos, los protegerás"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 SEÑOR, no me reprendas en Tu enojo o ni me disciplines en Tu ira. 2 Ten misericordia de mí, SEÑOR, pues yo soy frágil; sáname, SEÑOR, pues mis huesos están temblando. 3 Mi alma también está muy atribulada. Pero tú, SEÑOR, ¿por cuánto tiempo continuará ésto? 4 ¡Regresa, SEÑOR! Rescátame. ¡Sálvame a causa de tu fidelidad al pacto! 5 Pues en la muerte no hay recuerdo de Tí. ¿Quién te dará gracias en el Seol? 6 Yo estoy fatigado con mi gemido. Toda la noche yo empapo mi cama con mis lágrimas; yo lavo mi lecho con mis lágrimas. 7 Mis ojos se oscurecen por mi dolor; ellos se debilitan a causa de todos mis adversarios. 8 Aléjence de mí, todos ustedes que practican la iniquidad; pues el SEÑOR ha escuchado el sonido de mi llanto. 9 El SEÑOR ha escuchado mi reclamo por misericordia; el SEÑOR ha aceptado mi oración. 10 Todos mis enemigos serán avergonzados y atribulados grandemente. Ellos retrocederán y serán humillados repentinamente.

Psalms 6:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el jefe de los músicos
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

en instrumentos de cuerda
"la gente debería tocar instrumentos de cuerda con esta canción"

dispuestos al estilo Seminit
Esto se podría referir a un estilo de música.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

mis huesos están temblando
Los huesos representan al cuerpo entero. Su cuerpo pudo haber estado temblando porque estaba enfermo o extremadamente cansado. Traducción Alterna: "Todo mi cuerpo está temblando"

Psalms 6:3

muy atribulada
"aterrorizada" o "preocupada"

¿por cuánto tiempo continuará ésto?
David usa esta pregunta para mostrar que no quiere continuar sintiéndose débil y atribulado. Traducción Alterna: ¡por favor, no permitas que esto continúe"

Regresa, SEÑOR
David habla de Dios siendo bueno con él como si Dios regresara a él. Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR, regresa a mí" o "Ten misericordia de mí, SEÑOR"

Pues en la muerte no hay recuerdo de Ti. ¿Quién te dará gracias en el Seol?
Estas dos frases expresan significados similares.

Pues en la muerte no hay recuerdo de Ti
El recuerdo representa alabanza. Traducción Alterna: "Porque cuando la gente muere, ya no te alaban"

¿Quién te dará gracias en el Seol?
David usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que en el Seol nadie agradece a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie en el Seol te dará gracias" o "¡Los muertos no pueden alabarte!"

Psalms 6:6

Yo estoy fatigado con mi gemido
Su gemido representa el dolor y la aflicción que siente. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy muy cansado debido a mi dolor"

yo empapo mi cama con mis lágrimas; yo lavo mi lecho con mis lágrimas Estas dos frases expresan el mismo significado.

yo empapo mi cama con mis lágrimas
"hago que mi cama se moje con mis lágrimas" o "mi cama está muy mojada a causa de mis lágrimas"

yo lavo mi lecho con mis lágrimas
"Hago que mi cama se moje con mis lágrimas"

Mis ojos se oscurecen
Se habla de la habilidad de ver en términos de los ojos. Traducción Alterna: "Mi visión está borrosa" o "No puedo ver claramente"

por mi dolor
El dolor representa el llanto. Traducción Alterna: "por llorar" o "debido a que lloro mucho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 6:8

El SEÑOR ha escuchado mi reclamo por misericordia... El SEÑOR ha aceptado mi oración
Estas dos líneas tienen significados muy similares

El SEÑOR ha aceptado mi oración Estar dispuesto a hacer lo que David ha pedido en oración es expresado como aceptar su oración. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR responderá a mi oración"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 SEÑOR mi Dios, ¡yo tomo refugio en ti! Sálvame de todos aquellos que me persiguen, y rescátame. 2 Si no, ellos me destrozarán como un león, desgarrándome en pedazos, sin nadie más capaz de llevarme a seguridad. 3 SEÑOR, mi Dios, yo nunca hice lo que mis enemigos dicen que hice; no hay injusticia en mis manos. 4 Nunca he hecho mal a nadie que está en paz conmigo, o sin sentido lastimado a cualquiera que está en mi contra. 5 Si no estoy diciendo la verdad, entonces deja que mi enemigo persiga mi vida y la tome; déjalo pisotear mi cuerpo viviente en el suelo y que me deje derribado deshonrado en el polvo. 6 Levántate, SEÑOR, en tu enojo; levántate en contra de la ira de mis enemigos; despiértate por mi bien y lleva a cabo los decretos rectos que Tú has ordenado para ellos. 7 Los países están reunidos en asamblea alrededor de Tí; toma una vez más el lugar que te corresponde sobre ellos. 8 SEÑOR, juzga las naciones; reinvindícame, SEÑOR, porque yo soy recto e inocente, oh Altísimo. 9 Que las obras malignas de los malvados lleguen a un fin, pero establece las personas rectas, Dios recto, Tú, quien examinas corazones y mentes. 10 Mi escudo viene de Dios, aquel que salva al íntegro de corazón. 11 Dios un juez recto, un Dios que se indigna cada día. 12 Si una persona no se arrepiente, Dios afilará su espada y preparará su arco para la batalla. 13 Él se prepara para usar armas en contra de él; Él hace sus flechas llameantes. 14 Piensa sobre aquel que está preñado con maldad, que concibe planes destructivos, que da a luz mentiras dañinas. 15 Él cava un pozo y lo ahueca y entonces cae al hoyo que él ha hecho. 16 Sus propios planes destructivos regresan a su propia cabeza, pues su violencia se cae en su propia cabeza. 17 Yo daré gracias al SEÑOR por su justicia; Yo cantaré alabanza al SEÑOR, el Altísimo.

Psalms 7:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Una composición musical de David "Esta es una canción que escribió David"

concerniente a las palabras de Cus el benjamita La frase "palabras de Cus" representan lo que él dijo. Traducción Alterna: "sobre lo que Cus, un hombre de la tribu de Benjamín, dijo"

tomo refugio en ti
Ir al SEÑOR por protección es expresado como tomar refugio en Él. Traducción Alterna: "¡voy a Ti por protección!"

ellos me destrozarán como un león, desgarrándome en pedazos David habla de sus enemigos atacándolo como si ellos destrozarían su cuerpo y lo desgarrarían en pedazos como haría un león. Traducción Alterna: "ellos me matarán violentamente como un león destrozando el cuerpo de su víctima y desgarrándolo en pedazos" o "ellos me matarán violentamente"

sin nadie más capaz de llevarme a seguridad
"y nadie más será capaz de salvarme"

Psalms 7:3

no hay injusticia en mis manos
Las manos representan lo que una persona hace. Tener injusticia en ellos representa haber hecho algo que no es justo. Traducción Alterna: "no hay injusticia en lo que he hecho" o "no he hecho nada injusto a nadie"

Psalms 7:5

mi vida
La vida representa a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "yo"

la tome
"la atrape" o "la alcance". Esto representa capturarle. Traducción Alterna: "capturarme"

déjalo pisotear mi cuerpo viviente en el suelo Aquí "mi cuerpo viviente" representa al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "permite a mis enemigos destruirme"

derribado deshonrado en el polvo
Esto significa quedar muerto y desenterrado en desgracia.

Psalms 7:6

Levántate, SEÑOR, en tu enojo Levantarse representa hacer algo o tomar acción. Traducción Alterna: "Haz algo en Tu ira" o "Enójate con mis enemigos y toma acción"

levántate en contra de la ira de mis enemigos Se habla de luchar contra la gente como de levantarse contra ellos. Traducción Alterna: "lucha contra la ira de mis enemigos" o "ataca a mis enemigos que se aíran contra mí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

la ira de mis enemigos Su ira representa sus ataques. Traducción Alterna: "los ataques de mis enemigos" o "mis enemigos quienes me atacan"

levántate
Levantarse representa comenzar a hacer algo o tomar acción. Traducción Alterna: "toma acción" o "haz algo"

por mi bien
"por mí" o "para ayudarme"

Los países están reunidos
Aquí la palabra "países" representa a todos los ejércitos que se han reunido para atacar.

toma una vez más el lugar que te corresponde sobre ellos
Se habla de gobernar a la gente como estar sobre ellos. El lugar justo del SEÑOR se refiere al cielo o a gobernar en general. Traducción Alterna: "gobierna sobre ellos desde el cielo" o "gobierna sobre ellos"

Psalms 7:8

reinvindícame
"muéstrales que no soy culpable"

establece las personas rectas
"fortalece a la gente recta" o "haz prosperar a la gente recta"

examinas corazones y mentes
Los corazones y mentes representa los deseos y pensamientos de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Tú que conoces nuestros pensamientos internos"

Psalms 7:10

Mi escudo viene de Dios
La palabra "escudo" representa la protección de Dios.

un Dios que se indigna cada día Con quién está enojado Dios puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "un Dios que está enojado con los malvados cada día"

Psalms 7:12

Dios afilará su espada y preparará su arco para la batalla
En los versos 12 y 13, David habla de Dios decidiendo castigar a los malvados como si Dios fuera un guerrero preparándose para luchar contra ellos con armas. Traducción Alterna: "Dios tomará acción contra ellos como un guerrero que afila su espada y prepara su arco para la batalla"

Psalms 7:14

aquel que está preñado con maldad... concibe planes destructivos... da a luz mentiras dañinas
David habla de las cosas que una persona malvada hace como si estuviera preñado y la maldad fuera el bebé. Traducción Alterna: "la persona malvada. Él hace planes para destruir a la gente y produce mentiras dañinas"

Sus propios planes destructivos regresan a su propia cabeza, pues su violencia se cae en su propia cabeza
Se habla de la destrucción y la violencia como si golperan la cabeza de una persona o cayeran sobre él. Traducción Alterna: "Sus propios planes destructivos lo destruyen, porque su violencia lo ataca" o "Cuando él planea destruir a otros, otros lo destruyen; cuando ataca a otros, otros lo atacan"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Oh SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, cuán magnífico es Tu nombre en toda la tierra, Tú que revelas tu gloria arriba en los cielos. 2 De la boca de los bebés e infantes Tú has creado alabanza a causa de tus adversarios, a fin de silenciar a ambos, al vengador y al enemigo. 3 Cuando yo miro a tus cielos, los cuales tus dedos han hecho, la luna y las estrellas, las cuales Tú has acomodado en su lugar. 4 ¿De qué importancia es la raza humana para que Tú la notes, o la humanidad para que Tú le prestes atención? 5 Sin embargo, Tú los has hecho un poco menores que los seres celestiales y los has coronado con gloria y honor. 6 Tú lo haces gobernar sobre las obras de tus manos; Tú has puesto todas las cosas bajo sus pies: 7 todas las ovejas y bueyes e incluso los animales del campo, 8 las aves de los cielos y los peces del mar, todo lo que pasa a través de las corrientes de los mares. 9 ¡Oh SEÑOR nuestro Dios, cuán magnífico es tu nombre en toda la tierra!

Psalms 8:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

dispuestos al estilo guitita
Esto podría referirse a un estilo musical.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

cuán magnífico es Tu nombre en toda la tierra
El "nombre" de Dios representa su ser completo. Traducción Alterna: "la gente alrededor del mundo sabe que Tú eres muy grande"

De la boca de los bebés e infantes Tú has creado alabanza
Se habla de hacer que los bebés alaben a Dios como si la alabanza fuera un objeto que Dios creó en la boca de los bebés y lo hizo salir. Traducción Alterna: "Haz dado a los bebés y a los infantes la habilidad de alabarte"

Psalms 8:3

tus cielos, los cuales tus dedos han hecho
Los dedos de Dios le representan. Traducción Alterna: "los cielos que Tú has hecho"

¿De qué importancia es la raza humana para que Tú la notes, o la humanidad para que Tú le prestes atención?
Estos señalamientos han sido expresados en la forma de una pregunta para añadir énfasis. Traducción Alterna: "¡Es increíble que Tú pienses en la gente y estés preocupado por ellos!

la raza humana... humanidad
Cada una de estas frases se refieren a la gente en general.

los has coronado con gloria y honor
Se habla de la gloria y honor como si fueran coronas. Las palabras "gloria" y "honor" son similares en significados. Traducción Alterna: "les has dado gloria y honor" o "has hecho que sean como reyes"

Psalms 8:6

Tú lo haces gobernar sobre las obras... Tú has puesto todas las cosas bajo sus pies Estas dos cláusalas expresan significados similares.

Tú lo haces... bajo sus pies
"Tú lo haces... bajo sus pies". Las palabras "lo" y "sus" aquí se refieren a la gente.

las obras de tus manos
Las manos representan lo que Dios ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que Tú hiciste"

Tú has puesto todas las cosas bajo sus pies
Se habla de tener autoridad para gobernar a otros o controlar las cosas como si se tuvieran esas cosas bajo los pies de uno. Esto significa que Dios le dio a la gente la autoridad sobre toda la creación. Traducción Alterna: "Tú le has dado autoridad sobre todas las cosas"

Psalms 8:9

cuán magnífico es tu nombre en toda la tierra
Con esta exclamación, David muestra su gozo y asombro sobre cuán grande es Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Tu nombre es maravillosamente magnífico en toda la tierra" o "la gente en toda la tierra sabe cuán magnífico eres"

tu nombre
El "nombre" de Dios lo representa a Él y Su reputación"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

magnífico
"excelente" o "grandioso"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Yo le daré gracias al SEÑOR con todo mi corazón; yo hablaré sobre todas tus maravillosas obras. 2 Yo estaré contento y me regocijaré en Tí; ¡yo cantaré alabanza a tu nombre, oh Altísimo! 3 Cuando mis enemigos retroceden, ellos tropiezan y perecen delante de Tí. 4 Pues Tú has defendido mi causa justa; ¡Tú te sientas sobre tu trono, juez justo! 5 Tú reprendes a las naciones; Tú has destruido a los malvados; Tú has borrado su nombre por siempre y para siempre. 6 El enemigo se desmorona como ruinas cuando tu derribas sus ciudades. Todo recuerdo de ellos ha perecido. 7 Pero el SEÑOR permanece por siempre; Él ha establecido su trono por justicia. 8 Él juzgará el mundo con justicia, y Él ejecutará juicio para las naciones con rectitud. 9 El SEÑOR será una fortaleza para el oprimido, una fortaleza en tiempos de problemas. 10 Aquellos que conocen Tu nombre confían en Tí, pues Tú, SEÑOR, no abandonas a aquellos que te buscan. 11 Canten alabanzas al SEÑOR, quien gobierna en Sion; díganle a las naciones lo que Él ha hecho. 12 Pues el Dios que venga el derramamiento de sangre, lo recuerda; Él no olvida el llanto del oprimido. 13 Ten misericordia de mí, oh SEÑOR; ve cómo yo soy oprimido por aquellos que me odian, Tú puedes arrebatarme de las puertas de la muerte. 14 Oh, que yo pueda proclamar toda tu alabanza. ¡En las puertas de la hija de Sion yo me regocijaré en tu salvación! 15 Las naciones se han hundido en el pozo que ellas han hecho; sus pies están atrapados en la red que ellos escondieron. 16 El SEÑOR se ha hecho a Sí mismo conocido; Él ha ejecutado juicio; el malvado es atrapado por sus propias acciones. 17 Los malvados son regresados y enviados al Seol, el destino de todas las naciones que olvidan a Dios. 18 Pues los necesitados no serán siempre olvidados, ni tampoco las esperanzas del oprimido serán defraudadas para siempre. 19 Levántate, oh SEÑOR; no permitas que el hombre gane contra Tí; que las naciones sean juzgadas a Tu vista. 20 Aterrorízalos, SEÑOR; que las naciones conozcan que ellos son solo hombres.

Psalms 9:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

sobre Mut Labén
Esto podría referirse a un estilo musical.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Yo le daré gracias al SEÑOR con todo mi corazón Como esta canción está dedicada a El SEÑOR, se puede referir a Él como "Tú". Traducción Alterna: SEÑOR, daré gracias a Ti con todo mi corazón"

todas tus maravillosas obras
El sustantivo "obras" puede ser expresado con el verbo "hacer". Traducción Alterna: "todas las cosas maravillosas que Tú haces" o "todas las cosas maravillosas que Tú has hecho" yo cantaré alabanza a tu nombre Aquí el nombre de Dios representa a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "yo cantaré alabanza a Ti"

Psalms 9:3

retroceden
"se retiran" o "se van por temor"

Tú te sientas sobre tu trono, juez justo
Los reyes tienen autoridad para juzgar a la gente, y ellos se sentarán en su trono cuando ellos juzgan. David habla como si Dios fuera un rey terrenal. Traducción Alterna: "Tú juzgas como un rey que se sienta en su trono, y eres justo"

Psalms 9:5

Tú has borrado su nombre por siempre y para siempre
Se habla de hacer olvidar a la gente como de borrar su nombre. Traducción Alterna: "Has hecho que sean olvidados como si su nombre fue borrado" o "nadie los recordará de nuevo"

borrado
"

El enemigo se desmorona como ruinas
Se habla del enemigo como si fuera una ciudad llena de edificios destruidos. Traducción Alterna: "nuestros enemigos fueron destruidos"

cuando tu derribas sus ciudades
"cuando Tú destruiste sus ciudades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Todo recuerdo de ellos ha perecido
Se habla del recuerdo como si fuera un animal vivo que pudiera morir. Traducción Alterna: "Todo recuerdo de ellos se ha detenido" o "No hay más recuerdo de ellos"

Todo recuerdo de ellos ha perecido
El recuerdo puede ser expresado con el verbo "recordar". Traducción Alterna: "Nadie los recuerda del todo"

Psalms 9:7

el SEÑOR permanece por siempre
"Permanecer" probablemente representa sentarse en el trono como rey. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR se sienta en su trono para siempre" o "El SEÑOR gobierna por siempre"

Él ha establecido su trono por justicia
La frase "su trono" representa el gobierno de Dios. Los posibles significados son: 1) "Él gobierna para juzgar a la gente" o "Él gobierna sobre la gente con justicia"

Él juzgará el mundo con justicia... Él ejecutará juicio para las naciones con rectitud
Estas dos cláusulas expresan la misma cosa.

Él juzgará el mundo con justicia
Aquí "el mundo" se refiere a toda la gente en el mundo. Traducción Alterna: "Él juzgará a toda la gente del mundo justamente"

Psalms 9:9

El SEÑOR será una fortaleza para el oprimido
Se habla de Dios como si Él fuera un lugar al que la gente pudiera ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR también protegerá a los oprimidos" o "El SEÑOR también proveerá seguridad para aquellos que son oprimidos"

fortaleza
"refugio"

Aquellos que conocen Tu nombre Aquí las palabras "Tu nombre" representan a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellos que te conocen"

no abandonas
"no desamparas" o "no dejas"

Psalms 9:11

quien gobierna en Sion
"quien vive en Jerusalén"

díganle a las naciones
Aquí "las naciones" representa a toda la gente.

Pues el Dios que venga el derramamiento de sangre, lo recuerda
Lo que Él recuerda puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Pues el Dios que venga el derramamiento de sangre recuerda a todos los que fueron asesinados" o "Pues Dios recuerda a aquellos que fueron asesinados y castiga a los asesinos"

Él no olvida el llanto del oprimido
"Él no ignora el llanto"

Psalms 9:13

ve cómo yo soy oprimido por aquellos que me odian
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ve cómo aquellos que me odian me oprimen" o "ve cuán mal mi enemigo me trata"

Tú puedes arrebatarme de las puertas de la muerte
Se habla de la muerte como si fuera una ciudad que tuviera puertas a través de las cuales la gente entra. Si alguien está cerca de las puertas de las muerte, significa que morirá pronto. Se habla de evitar que alguien muera como tomarlo fuera de las puertas de esa ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Tú que puedes rescartarme de la muerte" o "Tú que puedes evitar que muera"

Psalms 9:15

Las naciones se han hundido en el pozo que ellas han hecho La gente cava hoyos para atrapar animales que caen en ellos. Aquí cavar un hoyo representa hacer planes para destruir a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Las naciones son como la gente que cava un hoyo para otros y luego cae en él"

sus pies están atrapados en la red que ellos escondieron La gente esconde redes para atrapar animales que quedan atrapados en ellas. Aquí, esconder una red representa hacer planes para destruir gente. Traducción Alterna: "son como la gente que esconde una red y queda atrapada en ella"

apresados
"atrapados" o "capturados". Esto representa ser destruido. Traducción Alterna: "destruidos"

Psalms 9:17

regresados
"rechazados"

el destino de todas las naciones que olvidan a Dios
"donde todas las naciones que olvidan a Dios estarán"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pues los necesitados no serán siempre olvidados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no siempre olvidará a los necesitados" o "Dios recordará a los necesitados" ni tampoco las esperanzas del oprimido serán defraudadas para siempre

Se habla de las esperanzas como si fueran objetos que pudieran ser rotos o destruidos. Destruir las esperanzas representa las cosas que la gente espera que nunca sucedan. Traducción Alterna: "y los oprimidos no esperarán para siempre sin resultados" o "y un día lo que los oprimidos esperan sucederá"

Psalms 9:19

Levántate
Levantarse representa empezar a hacer algo. Traducción Alterna: "Haz algo" o "Toma acción" hombre

"gente"

sean juzgadas
Aquí juzgar representa castigar. Traducción Alterna: "sean castigadas"

a Tu vista Aquí la vista representa la presencia. Traducción Alterna: "en Tu presencia" que las naciones sean juzgadas a Tu vista Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "juzga a las naciones en Tu presencia" o "toma a las naciones a Tu presencia y castígalas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 ¿Por qué, SEÑOR, te quedas lejos? ¿Por qué te escondes a Ti mismo en tiempos de problemas? 2 A causa de su arrogancia, las personas malvadas persiguen a los oprimidos; pero por favor deja que el malvado sea atrapado por sus propios esquemas, los que ellos han ideado. 3 Pues la persona malvada presume de sus deseos más profundos; él bendice a los codiciosos y maldice e insulta al SEÑOR. 4 El hombre malvado tiene un rostro alzado; él no busca a Dios. Él nunca piensa sobre Dios, porque a él no le interesa para nada Él. 5 Él está seguro en todo tiempo, pero Tus decretos rectos son muy altos para él; él desprecia a todos sus enemigos. 6 Él dice en su corazón: "Yo nunca fallaré; a través de todas las generaciones yo no encontraré adversidad." 7 Su boca está llena de maldiciones y de engaños, fraude; su lengua lastima y destruye. 8 Él espera en emboscada cerca de las aldeas; en los lugares secretos él asesina al inocente; sus ojos buscan alguna víctima indefensa. 9 Él acecha en secreto como un león en el matorral; él se recuesta en espera de atrapar al oprimido. Él atrapa al oprimido cuando él saca su red. 10 Sus víctimas son aplastadas y derrotadas; ellos caen en sus fuertes redes. 11 Él dice en su corazón: "Dios se ha olvidado; él cubre su rostro; él no se molestará en mirar." 12 ¡Levántate, SEÑOR! ¡Levanta tu mano, oh Dios! No olvides al oprimido. 13 ¿Por qué el hombre malvado rechaza a Dios y dice en su corazón: "Tú no me pedirás cuentas"? 14 Tú has tomado nota, pues Tú siempre ves aquel que inflige la miseria y pena. Los indefensos se confían a sí mismos a Tí; Tú rescatas al que no tiene padre. 15 Rompe el brazo del hombre malvado y malo. Házlo responsable de sus obras malvadas, las cuales él pensó que Tú no descubrirías. 16 El SEÑOR es Rey por siempre y para siempre; las naciones son sacadas de su tierra. 17 SEÑOR, Tú has escuchado las necesidades del oprimido; Tú fortaleces su corazón, Tú escuchas su oración; 18 Tú defiendes al que no tiene padre y al oprimido para que ningún hombre en la tierra cause terror otra vez.

Psalms 10:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

¿Por qué, SEÑOR, te quedas lejos? ¿Por qué te escondes a Ti mismo en tiempos de problemas?
Quien habla usa estas preguntas para expresar su pesar porque Dios no le ha ayudado. Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR, parece como si estás lejos de mí y te escondes de mí siempre que estoy en problemas"

esquemas
"planes"

la persona malvada
Esto se refiere a gente malvada en general. Traducción Alterna: "gente malvada" sus deseos más profundos

El sustantivo "deseos" puede ser expreado con el verbo "querer". Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que él quiere hacer mucho"

los codiciosos
"gente codiciosa"

Psalms 10:4

El hombre malvado
Esto se refiere a gente malvada en general. Traducción Alterna: "la persona malvada" tiene un rostro alzado

Un rostro alzado representa orgullo y arrogancia. Traducción Alterna: "tiene una actitud arrogante" o "es orgulloso" él no busca a Dios Buscar a Dios puede representar 1) pedir a Dios ayuda o 2) pensar en Dios y obedecerle. Traducción Alterna: "él no le pide ayuda a Dios" o "él no piensa en Dios"

Él está seguro en todo tiempo
"Él está seguro en todo tiempo". Él no está seguro realmente, pero cree que lo está.

Tus decretos rectos son muy altos para él
Se habla de algo que es difícl de entender como si fuera muy alto para alcanzarlo. Traducción Alterna: "él no puede entender Tus justos decretos"

él desprecia a todos sus enemigos
La gente desprecia a sus enemigos cuando creen que sus enemigos son débiles y sin valor. Traducción Alterna: "él cree que todos sus enemigos son débiles y sin valor" o "él desprecia a todos sus enemigos"

él desprecia
Esto significa que él sopla aire ruidosamente por su nariz.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 10:6

Él dice
"El hombre malvado dice"

a través de todas las generaciones Esto probablemente simplemente significa "para siempre".

yo no encontraré adversidad
Se habla de experimentar adversidad como de encontrarla. Traducción Alterna: "No tendré ningún problema"

Su boca está llena de maldiciones y de engaños
Se habla de lo que la gente dice como estando en su boca. Traducción Alterna: "Él siempre maldice a la gente y dice cosas que son engañosas y dañinas" o "Él siempre maldice a la gente, dice mentiras y amenaza con lastimar a la gente"

su lengua lastima y destruye Aquí la lengua representa el hablar. Traducción Alterna: "lo que él dice daña y destruye a la gente" o "él dice palabras que amenazan e hieren a la gente"

Psalms 10:8

Él espera en emboscada
La palabra "él" se refiere al hombre malvado.

sus ojos buscan alguna víctima indefensa
Los ojos le representan a él. Traducción Alterna: "él busca alguna víctima indefensa"

Él acecha en secreto como un león en el matorral
Esto habla de la persona malvada como si fuera un león. Traducción Alterna: "Él se esconde mientras espera que el débil camine cerca de él, de la misma manera que un león quietamente espera en la maleza al animal que quiere atacar"

acecha
Esto significa esconderse y esperar con la intención de dañar o matar.

él se recuesta en espera
"se recuesta esperando" o "él se esconde y espera"

Él atrapa al oprimido cuando él saca su red El escritor habla de la persona malvada atrapando gente como si fuera un cazador usando una red para atrapar animales. Traducción Alterna: "Él atrapa al oprimido como un cazador atrapa un animal en una red y lo arrastra"

ellos caen en sus fuertes redes
El escritor continua hablando de la persona malvada que atrapa gente como si fuera un cazador, sus planes fueran redes y la gente fuera como animales que caen en su red. Traducción Alterna: "sus víctimas son capturadas por sus planes como animales que caen en las redes fuertes de un cazador"

Psalms 10:11

Él dice
La palabra "Él" se refiere a la persona malvada, y a la gente malvada en general.

Dios se ha olvidado
Se habla de negarse a prestar atención a lo que la gente hace como de olvidar. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no presta atención" o "a Dios no le importa lo que yo hago"

Él cubre su rostro
Se habla de negarse a prestar atención a lo que alguien hace como de cubrirse la cara de uno. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se niega a ver lo que está sucediendo"

él no se molestará en mirar
Se habla de prestar atención a lo que alguien hace como de observarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Él no se molestará en prestar atención" o "a él no le importará"

Levanta
Se habla de iniciar algo como de levantarse. Traducción Alterna: "Haz algo"

Levanta tu mano
Aquí levantar la mano para golpear a alguien representa castigarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Golpéalo fuerte" o "Castiga a la persona malvada"

Psalms 10:13

¿Por qué el hombre malvado rechaza a Dios y dice
Quien habla usa esta pregunta para mostrar que está muy triste por la gente mala que hace esas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "La gente mala siempre está rechazando a Dios y diciendo... 'Tú no me pedirás cuentas'"

Tú no me pedirás cuentas
"Tú no me pedirás que te diga por qué hago lo que hago". Pedir cuentas a alguien aquí representa castigarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú no me castigarás"

Psalms 10:15

Rompe el brazo del hombre malvado y malo Aquí "brazo" representa poder. Traducción Alterna: "Destruye el poder del hombre malvado y malo" o "Haz débil al hombre malvado y malo"

malvado y malo
Estas palabras tienen el mismo significado. Usted puede usar una sola palabra para expresar ambos conceptos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Házlo responsable de sus obras malvadas Hacer a alguien responsable d esus malas obras representa castigarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Castígalo por las cosas malas que ha hecho"

las naciones son sacadas de su tierra
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. "El SEÑOR fuerza a la gente de otras naciones a dejar Su tierra"

Psalms 10:17

Tú has escuchado las necesidades del oprimido
Se implica que la gente oprimida clamó a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "cuando la gente oprimida clamó a Ti, Tú los escuchaste decirte lo que necesitaban"

Tú fortaleces su corazón
Un corazón fuerte representa coraje, y hacer fuerte el corazón de la gente representa animarlos. Traducción Alterna: "Tú los animaste" o "Tú los hiciste confiados"

ningún hombre... cause terror otra vez
"nadie... cause que la gente esté temerosa otra vez"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Me refugio en el Señor; ¿Cómo me dirás: "Huye como un pájaro a la montaña"? 2 ¡Miren! Los malvados preparan sus arcos. Preparan sus flechas en las cuerdas para disparar en la oscuridad a los justos de corazón. 3 Porque si los cimientos se arruinan, ¿qué pueden hacer los justos? 4 El Señor está enSu santo templo; Sus ojos examinan a los hijos de los hombres. 5 El Señor examina tanto a los justos como a los malvados, pero Él odia a los que aman hacer violencia. 6 Él llueve carbones encendidos y azufre sobre los malvados; un viento abrasador será la porción de Su copa para ellos. 7 Porque el Señor es justo y Él ama la justicia; los rectos verán Su rostro.

Psalms 11:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Me refugio en el Señor
Se habla de ir a El SEÑOR por protección como de tomar refugio en Él. Traducción Alterna: "voy al SEÑOR por protección" ¿Cómo me dirás: "Huye como un pájaro a la montaña"?

Esta pregunta es hecha para proveer énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡Así que no me pidas huir!"

¡Miren! Los malvados preparan sus arcos. Preparan sus flechas en las cuerdas para disparar en la oscuridad a los justos de corazón
"¡Miren! Los malvados se están preparando para atacar gente justa"

justos de corazón
Aquí "justos de corazón" se refiere a gente piadosa o justa.

Psalms 11:3

Porque si los cimientos se arruinan, ¿qué pueden hacer los justos?
Aquí "cimientos" puede referirse a la ley ty el orden. Esta pregunta retórica se hace para añadir énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡La gente justa no puede hacer nada cuando la gente mala no es castigada al desobedecer las leyes!"

Sus ojos examinan a los hijos de los hombres
El SEÑOR está al tanto de todo lo que acontece. Traducción Alterna: "Él examina todo lo que hace la humanidad"

hijos de los hombres
"la humanidad"

Psalms 11:5

examina
"observa cuidadosamente"

hacer violencia
"dañan a otros"

Él llueve carbones encendidos y azufre sobre los malvados; un viento abrasador será la porción de Su copa para ellos El castigo de Dios es descrito como si fueran carbones encendidos y azufre de un volcán. Traducción Alterna: Él castiga a los malvados; ¡no habrá alivio para ellos!"

azufre
Este es otro nombre para el sulfuro.

verán Su rostro
"estarán en Su presencia"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Ayuda, oh SEÑOR, pues el piadoso ha desaparecido; el fiel se ha desvanecido. 2 Todos dicen palabras vacías a su vecino; todos hablan con labios halagadores y un doble corazón. 3 SEÑOR, corta todos los labios halagadores, cada lengua que habla grandes cosas. 4 Estos son aquellos quienes han dicho: "Con nuestras lenguas nosotros prevaleceremos. Nuestros labios dirán: ¿quién puede ser señor sobre nosotros? 5 "Por causa de la violencia en contra del pobre, por causa de los gemidos del necesitado, Yo me levantaré," dice el SEÑOR. "Yo proveeré la seguridad la cual ellos anhelan." 6 Las palabras del SEÑOR son palabras puras, como plata purificada en un horno sobre la tierra, refinada siete veces. 7 ¡Tú eres SEÑOR! Tú los mantienes. Tú guardas a las personas piadosas de esta generación malvada y para siempre. 8 El malvado camina en cada lado cuando el mal es exaltado entre los hijos de los hombres.

Psalms 12:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

dispuestos al estilo Seminit
Esto se podría referir a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:1.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Ayuda, oh SEÑOR
"SEÑOR, ven en mi ayuda"

el fiel se ha desvanecido
"tada la gente fiel se ha desvanecido"

Psalms 12:2

Todos dicen... todos hablan
Las dos ocurrencias de "todos" son exageraciones, usadas para enfatizar que el problema es serio.

labios halagadores
"falsa alabanza"

un doble corazón
"palabras que engañan"

corta todos los labios halagadores
"deténlos de hablar falsa alabanza"

cada lengua que habla grandes cosas Aquí la "lengua" representa al discurso jactansioso. Traducción Alterna: "cada persona que se jacta"

Con nuestras lenguas nosotros prevaleceremos Aquí las palabras "nuestras lenguas" representan muchas palabras que ellos dicen. Traducción Alterna: "hablar muchas palabras nos hará victoriosos"

nosotros prevaleceremos
"nosotros triunfaremos" o "nosotros ganaremos"

¿quién puede ser señor sobre nosotros?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para enfatizar que ellos creían que nadie podría gobernar sobre ellos. Puede ser traducido como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡nadie puede gobernar sobre nosotros!"

Psalms 12:5

gemidos
Estos son sonidos profundos que la gente hace debido al dolor o alguna emoción fuerte.

Yo me levantaré," dice el SEÑOR
Esto significa que El SEÑOR hará algo para ayudar a la gente.

Psalms 12:6

como plata purificada en un horno sobre la tierra, refinada siete veces Las palabras del SEÑOR son comparadas a la plata siendo purificada. Traducción Alterna: "ellos son sin ninguna imperfección"

Tú los mantienes
"Tú mantienes segura a la gente justa"

camina en cada lado
"nos rodea"

cuando el mal es exaltado entre los hijos de los hombres Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "cuando la gente en cualquier parte está alabando el mal"

hijos de los hombres
"seres humanos" o "gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 ¿Cuánto tiempo, oh SEÑOR, seguirás olvidándote de mí? ¿Cuánto tiempo esconderás Tu rostro de mí? 2 ¿Cuánto tiempo tengo que preocuparme y tener tristeza en mi corazón todo el día? ¿Cuánto tiempo mi enemigo triunfará sobre mí? 3 ¡Mírame y contéstame, oh SEÑOR Dios mío! Da luz a mis ojos o dormiré de muerte. 4 No permitas que mi enemigo diga: "Yo lo he derrotado a él", para que mi enemigo no pueda decir: "Yo he prevalecido sobre mi adversario," de lo contrario mis enemigos se regocijarán cuando yo sea derribado. 5 Pero yo he confiado en Tu pacto de fidelidad; mi corazón se regocija en Tu salvación. 6 Yo cantaré al SEÑOR porque Él me ha tratado muy generosamente.

Psalms 13:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

¿Cuánto tiempo, oh SEÑOR, seguirás olvidándote de mí?
Esta pregunta es hecha para captar la atención del lector y para añadir énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡SEÑOR, parece que te has olvidado de ,mí!"

¿Cuánto tiempo... Tu rostro de mí?
Las palabras "Tu rostro" representan todo el ser de Dios. Esta pregunta retórica es hecha para añadir énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡parece como si Te estuvieras escondiendo de mí!"

¿Cuánto tiempo mi enemigo triunfará sobre mí?
Esta pregunta retórica es hecha para añadir énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡Seguramente mis enemigos no me dorratarán siempre!"

Psalms 13:3

¡Mírame y contéstame
"Dame Tu atención y escúchame"

Da luz a mis ojos
Esta es una manera de pedir fortaleza. Traducción Alterna: "Házme fuerte de nuevo"

o dormiré de muerte
"dormiré de muerte" significa morir.

No permitas que mi enemigo diga... para que mi enemigo no pueda decir
"No permitas que mi enemigo diga de mí... para que mi enemigo no pueda decir de mí" cuando yo sea derribado

"cuando caiga" o "cuando me derroten"

Psalms 13:5

yo he confiado en Tu pacto de fidelidad Al hablar del pacto de fidelidad del SEÑOR, David está confiando en que El SEÑOR siempre le amará. Traducción Alterna: "Confío en que me amarás fielmente") mi corazón se regocija en Tu salvación Aquí "mi corazón" representa a la persona entera. Traducción Alterna: "Me regocijaré porque me has rescatado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 El necio dice en su corazón: "No hay Dios." Ellos son corruptos y han hecho iniquidades abominables, no hay ninguno que haga el bien. 2 El SEÑOR mira hacia abajo desde el cielo a los hijos de los hombres para ver si hay alguno que entienda, alguien que lo busque a Él. 3 Todos ellos se han vuelto atrás. Ellos juntos se han vuelto corruptos. No hay ninguno que haga el bien, no hay ni uno solo. 4 ¿Ellos no saben nada, aquellos que cometen iniquidad, aquellos que se comen a mi pueblo como si comieran pan, y que no llaman al SEÑOR? 5 ¡Ellos tiemblan de pavor, pues Dios está con la asamblea de los justos! 6 Ustedes quieren humillar a las personas pobres a pesar de que el SEÑOR es su refugio. 7 ¡Oh, si la salvación de Israel viniera de Sión! ¡Cuando el SEÑOR traiga a su pueblo de regreso de la cautividad, entonces Jacob se regocijará e Israel estará gozoso!

Psalms 14:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

El necio dice en su corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa decirse a uno mismo o pensar para uno mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Una persona necia se dice a sí misma"

Ellos son corruptos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a todos los seres humanos que dicen que no hay Dios.

Psalms 14:2

hijos de los hombres
Esta frase se refiere a todos los humanos.

alguien que lo busque a Él Esto describe a aquellos que desan conocer a Dios como si le estuvieran siguiendo por un camino. Traducción Alterna: "quien desea conocerle"

Todos ellos se han vuelto atrás
Esto describe a la gente que ha rechazado a Dios como si hubieran parado de caminar por el camino correcto y hubiesen ido en otra dirección. Traducción Alterna: "Todos ellos se han apartado del SEÑOR"

Psalms 14:4

¿Ellos no saben nada... que no llaman al SEÑOR?
Esta pregunta retórica es hecha para añadir énfasis. Puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "Actúan como si no supieran nada... que no llaman al SEÑOR. ¡Pero ellos saben lo hacen!"

aquellos que cometen iniquidad Aquí "iniquidad" se refiere a hacer malas obras. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que se comportan de malas maneras" aquellos que se comen a mi pueblo

Esto se refiere a aquellos que hacen cosas malas y destruyen al pueblo de Dios como si estuvieran comiendo.

Psalms 14:5

Ellos tiemblan
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a aquellos que hacen cosas malas.

Dios está con la asamblea de los justos
Decir que "Dios está con" los justos significa que los ayuda. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "Dios ayuda a los que actúan con rectitud"

Ustedes quieren
La palabra "ustedes" se refiere a la gente malvada.

humillar a las personas pobres
"hacer sentir avergonzada a la persona que es pobre"

el SEÑOR es su refugio Esto habla de la protección que El SEÑOR proporciona como si fuera un refugio que uno podría buscar en una tormenta. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es como un refugio de protección para él"

Psalms 14:7

¡Oh, si la salvación de Israel viniera de Sión!
El escritor dice que anhela que Dios venga de Jerusalén para ayudar a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "¡Desearía que El SEÑOR viniera de Jerusalén y rescatara a su pueblo!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

entonces Jacob se regocijará e Israel estará gozoso Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Aquí tanto "Jacob" como "Israel" representan al pueblo de Israel. Las dos frases se pueden combinar en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "entonces todo el pueblo de Israel se alegrará mucho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 Señor, ¿quién habitará en Tu tabernáculo? ¿Quién puede vivir en Tu monte santo? 2 Quienquiera que camine sin culpa, haga lo que es correcto y hable verdad desde su corazón. 3 El que no calumnia con su lengua, el que no hace daño a otros, y el que no insulta a su vecino. 4 La persona malvada es despreciada en sus ojos, pero él honra aquellos que temen al Señor. Él jura por su propia desventaja y no toma de vuelta sus promesas. 5 Él no carga con intereses cuando presta dinero. Él no toma chantaje para testificar en contra del inocente. El que haga estas cosas nunca será sacudido.

Psalms 15:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

¿Quién puede vivir en Tu monte santo?
El "monte santo" aquí representa el templo de Dios, que estaba en el Monte de Sión. Traducción Alterna: "¿Quién puede vivir en tu lugar sagrado?"

hable verdad desde su corazón
"hable honestamente"

Psalms 15:3

El
Esto se refiere a la persona justa en 15:1.

El que no calumnia con su lengua Aquí "lengua" representa el discurso malvado. Traducción Alterna: "Él no dice cosas malas sobre personas inocentes"

daño
"hiere" o "daña"

Psalms 15:4

La persona malvada es despreciada en sus ojos, pero él honra aquellos que temen al Señor
"Las personas justas odian a los que han rechazado a Dios, pero honran a los que respetan a Dios"

La persona malvada
"La persona mala" o "La persona que ha rechazado al SENOR"

nunca será sacudido
Aquí "ser sacudido" representa no vivir con seguridad por más tiempo. Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "vivirá en seguridad"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 Protégeme, Dios, pues yo tomo refugio en Ti. 2 Yo digo al SEÑOR: "Tú eres mi Señor; mi bondad es nada fuera de Ti. 3 En cuanto a las personas santas quienes están sobre la tierra, ellos son personas nobles; todo mi deleite está en ellos. 4 Será aumentados las aflicciones, de aquellos quienes buscan otros dioses. Yo no derramaré ofrendas de bebida de sangre a sus dioses o elevaré sus nombres con mis labios. 5 SEÑOR, Tú eres mi porción escogida y mi copa. Tú sostienes mi futuro. 6 Las cuerdas de medición han sido puestas para mí en lugares agradables; ciertamente es hermosa mi herencia. 7 Yo bendeciré al SEÑOR, quien me consuela; aún en la noche mi mente instruye. 8 ¡Al SEÑOR he puesto delante de mí en todo tiempo, así yo no seré quitado de Su mano derecha! 9 Por lo tanto, mi corazón está contento; mi gloria es regocijarme. Verdaderamente yo viviré en seguridad. 10 Pues Tú no abandonarás mi alma al Seol. No dejarás que Tu fiel vea al hoyo. 11 ¡Tú me enseñas el camino de vida; gozo abundante reside en Tu presencia; deleites permanecen en Tu mano derecha para siempre!"

Psalms 16:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un michtam de David
El significado de la palabra "michtam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió".

tomo refugio en Ti
Se dice que ir al SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en él. Traducción Alterna: "voy a Ti por protección"

las personas santas quienes están sobre la tierra Aquí "pueblo santo" se refiere al propio pueblo de Dios que confía en Él. Traducción Alterna: "Tu gente que vive en esta tierra"

Psalms 16:4

Será aumentados las aflicciones... dioses Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Las aflicciones de aquellos que buscan otros dioses aumentarán"

derramaré... sangre a sus dioses
"hacer sacrificios a sus dioses" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

elevaré sus nombres con mis labios
Elevar "sus nombres con mis labios" representa alabar a los otros dioses u orar a ellos.

Psalms 16:5

mi porción escogida
Aquí David habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una porción de tierra que le ha sido dada.

mi copa
Aquí David habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una copa que contiene muchas bendiciones. Traducción Alterna: "El que me bendice"

Tú sostienes mi futuro
"Tú determinas mi futuro"

Las cuerdas de medición... en lugares agradables
Se habla de las bendiciones de Dios para David como si fueran una sección de tierra que había sido inspeccionada para que él la poseyera. Las "cuerdas de medición" representan las cuerdas del topógrafo. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El lugar que me has proporcionado es agradable"

ciertamente es hermosa mi herencia Aquí David habla de las bendiciones del SEÑOR como si fueran una herencia que él ha recibido. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy fascinado con todas las cosas que me ha dado" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 16:7

Al SEÑOR he puesto delante de mí en todo tiempo
"Yo siempre recuerdo que el SEÑOR está conmigo"

así yo no seré quitado de Su mano derecha Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nada me alejará de su lado"

Psalms 16:9

Información General:
David continúa hablando con Dios.

Por lo tanto, mi corazón está contento; mi gloria es regocijarme Quien habla dice que le da honor poder alabar a Dios. Ambas cláusulas expresan significados muy similares. Traducción Alterna: "Por lo tanto, me alegro; tengo el honor de alabarlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi corazón
Aquí el "corazón" representa los pensamientos y emociones de quien habla.

mi gloria
Muchas versiones, incluida la Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada, interpretan "mi gloria" como el corazón del escritor, quien se siente honrado en alegrarse a causa de Dios.

Psalms 16:11

abundante
"grande" o "una gran cantidad de"

gozo abundante reside en Tu presencia
El escritor habla del "gozo" como si fuera una persona.

en Tu mano derecha
Las palabras "mano derecha" indican estar en la presencia especial de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "cuando estoy cerca de Ti"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 ¡Escucha a mi súplica por justicia, oh SEÑOR; presta atención a mi llamada por ayuda! Dale oído a mi oración de unos labios sin engaño. 2 ¡Qué mi vindicación venga de Tu presencia; que Tus ojos vean lo que es correcto! 3 Tú pruebas mi corazón, Tú vienes a mí en la noche, me purificas y no encuentras ningún plan malvado; mi boca no transgredirá. 4 En cuanto a las obras de la humanidad, por la palabra de Tus labios, yo me he guardado de los caminos del ilegal. 5 Mis pasos se han mantenido firmes a Tus caminos; mi pies no han resbalado. 6 Yo clamo a Tí, pues Tú me contestas, oh Dios; vuelve Tu oído hacia mí y escucha cuando yo hablo. 7 ¡Muestra tu pacto de fidelidad de una manera maravillosa, Tú Quien salvas por medio de Tu mano derecha a aquellos quienes toman refugio en Tí de sus enemigos! 8 Protégeme como la pupíla de tu ojo; escóndeme bajo la sombra de Tus alas 9 de la presencia de los malvados quienes me atacan, mis enemigos que me rodean. 10 Ellos no tienen misericordia de nadie; sus bocas hablan con orgullo. 11 Ellos han rodeado mis pasos. Ellos establecieron sus ojos para herirme hasta el suelo. 12 Ellos son como león ansioso por una víctima, como cachorro de león agachándose en lugares escondidos. 13 ¡Levántate, oh SEÑOR! ¡Atácalos! ¡Derríbalos con sus caras para abajo! ¡Rescata mi vida del malvado por Tu espada! 14 ¡Rescátame de los hombres por Tu mano, oh SEÑOR, de los hombres de este mundo cuya prosperidad está en esta vida solamente! Tú llenas sus vientres con lo atesorado de Tus riquezas; ellos tendrán muchos hijos y dejarán sus riquezas a sus hijos. 15 En cuanto a mí, yo veré Tu cara en rectitud; yo estaré satisfecho, cuando me levante, y vea tu semblante.

Psalms 17:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Una oración de David
"Esta es una oración que David escribió".

Dale oído a mi oración de unos labios sin engaño
El término "dale oído" se refiere a escuchar, y la palabra "labios" se refiere a las palabras que una persona habla. Traducción Alterna: "Escucha mi oración que no proviene de labios mentirosos"

Qué mi vindicación venga de Tu presencia Aquí "presencia" se refiere al ser del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Declárame inocente" que Tus ojos vean lo que es correcto!

Aquí "Tus ojos" se refiere a lo que El SEÑOR sabe que es verdad. Traducción Alterna: "¡sabes que estoy diciendo la verdad!"

Psalms 17:3

Tú pruebas mi corazón, Tú vienes a mí en la noche Aquí "pruebas mi corazón" significa examinar mis pensamientos y motivos. Traducción Alterna: "Si examinas mis pensamientos en la noche"

mi boca no transgredirá
Aquí se habla de la boca como si fuera capaz de actuar por sí sola. También representa las palabras que habla una persona. Traducción Alterna: "No diré mentiras ni pecaré con mis palabras"

Psalms 17:4

por la palabra de Tus labios, yo me he guardado de los caminos del ilegal Aquí "la palabra de tus labios" representa la instrucción de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Tus instrucciones me han hecho evitar hacer cosas malas"

Mis pasos se han mantenido firmes a Tus caminos; mis pies no han resbalado Ambas cláusulas significan lo mismo. La repetición agrega énfasis.

mis pies no han resbalado
El escritor habla de su obediencia a Dios como si estuviera caminando por un sendero. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy decidido a seguir tus caminos"

Psalms 17:6

vuelve Tu oído hacia mí... escucha cuando yo hablo Estas frases significan lo mismo. Aquí "Tu oído" se refiere a la voluntad de Dios de escuchar a alguien que ora a Él. Traducción Alterna: "pónme atención... escucha cuando hablo"

Tu mano derecha
La "mano derecha" se refiere al poder de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Tu gran poder"

toman refugio en Ti
Se habla de ir al SEÑOR para protegerse como de refugiarse en Él. Traducción Alterna: "van a Ti por Tu protección"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 17:8

Protégeme como la pupíla de tu ojo
La "pupíla de tus ojos" se refiere a algo que es valioso. Traducción Alterna: "Protégeme como lo harías con algo muy valioso y precioso"

escóndeme bajo la sombra de Tus alas
David habla de la protección de Dios como si fuera un pájaro protegiendo a sus crías bajo sus alas. Traducción Alterna: "Mantenme a salvo como una madre pájaro protege a sus bebés reuniéndolos bajo su ala"

sus bocas hablan con orgullo Aquí "sus bocas hablan" se refiere a lo que la gente dice. Traducción Alterna: "ellos siempre se están jactando"

Psalms 17:11

Ellos han rodeado mis pasos Aquí "rodeado mis pasos" representa cómo los enemigos de David lo han seguido a todas partes para capturarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Mis enemigos me han rodeado" como león ansioso por una víctima, como cachorro de león agachándose en lugares escondidos Estas dos frases expresan ideas muy similares. La repetición agrega intensidad.

Ellos son como león... como cachorro de león
El escritor se siente perseguido de la manera que un león caza su presa.

Psalms 17:13

Rescata mi vida del malvado por Tu espada... ¡Rescátame de los hombres por Tu mano, oh SEÑOR, de los hombres de este mundo Estas dos cláusalas tienen significados similares. La repetición agrega intensidad a las palabras del escritor.

por Tu espada... por Tu mano
Aquí tanto "espada" como "mano" representan el poder del SEÑOR.

Tú llenas sus vientres con lo atesorado de Tus riquezas El texto antiguo es corrupto aquí. Los posibles significados son 1) El SEÑOR proporcionará grandes bendiciones a su pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Bendecirás a tu pueblo ricamente" o 2) El SEÑOR castigará grandemente a los malvados, a sus hijos y nietos.

Psalms 17:15

yo veré Tu cara en rectitud Tu cara, se refiere al rostro del Señor. David estaba confiado de que vería el rostro del Señor. Traducción alterna: " porque yo he actuado rectamente, yo te veré un día".

yo estaré satisfecho, cuando me levante, y vea tu semblante.
David creía que despues de su muerte, él estaría con el Señor. Traducción alterna: " Después que muera, yo estaré muy contento de despertar en su presencia".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Te amo, SEÑOR, mi fuerza. 2 El SEÑOR es mi roca, mi fortaleza, Quien me lleva a la seguridad; Él es mi Dios, mi roca; yo tomo refugio en Él. Él es mi escudo, el cuerno de mi salvación y mi fuerte. 3 Yo clamo al SEÑOR, Quien es digno de ser adorado, y yo seré salvado de mis enemigos. 4 Las cuerdas de muerte me rodearon, y la corriente de las aguas de iniquidad me inundaron. 5 Las cuerdas del Seol me rodearon; las trampas de la muerte me atraparon. 6 En mi aflicción clamé al SEÑOR; yo clamé por ayuda a mi Dios. Él escuchó mi voz desde Su templo; mi clamor de ayuda entró en Su presencia; entró en Sus oídos. 7 Luego la tierra se agitó y tembló; las fundaciones de las montañas también temblaron y fueron estremecidas porque Dios estaba enojado. 8 El humo salió de Sus fosas nasales y un fuego intenso salió de Su boca. Los carbones fueron encendidos por Él mismo. 9 Él abrió los cielos y bajó; y una oscuridad gruesa estaba bajo Sus pies. 10 Él se montó sobre un querubín y voló; Él se deslizó sobre las alas del viento. 11 Él hizo de la oscuridad una tienda alrededor de Él, pesadas nubes de lluvia en los cielos. 12 Piedras de granizo y carbones de fuego cayeron desde el rayo delante de Él. 13 ¡El SEÑOR resonó desde los cielos! La voz del Más Alto gritó. 14 Él disparó Sus flechas y esparció Sus enemigos; muchos rayos los dispersaron a ellos. 15 Luego los canales de agua aparecieron; las fundaciones del mundo fueron expuestas a Tu reprensión. Oh SEÑOR, a la explosión del aliento de Tus fosas nasales. 16 ¡Él extendió Su mano desde arriba; Él me agarró! Él me sacó del agua creciente. 17 Él me rescató de mi enemigo fuerte, de aquellos quienes me odiaban, pues ellos eran demasiado fuertes para mí. 18 ¡Ellos vinieron en contra mía en el día de mi aflicción, pero el SEÑOR fue mi apoyo! 19 Él me libertó en un lugar amplio y abierto; Él me salvó porque Él estaba complacido conmigo. 20 El SEÑOR me ha recompensado a causa de mi rectitud; Él me ha restaurado porque mis manos estaban limpias. 21 Pues yo he guardado los caminos del SEÑOR y no me he apartado malvadamente de mi Dios. 22 Pues todos Sus decretos rectos han estado delante de mí; en cuanto a Sus estatutos, yo no me he apartado de ellos. 23 Yo también he sido inocente delante de Él, y me he guardado del pecado. 24 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR me ha restaurado a causa de mi rectitud, porque mis manos estaban limpias ante Sus ojos. 25 A cualquiera que es fiel, Tú te muestras fiel; a un hombre que es libre de culpa, Tú te muestras libre de culpa. 26 A cualquiera que es puro, Tú te muestras puro; pero Tú eres listo hacia cualquiera que es torcido. 27 ¡Porque Tú salvas a las personas afligidas, pero Tú humillas aquellos que son orgullosos, de ojos levantados! 28 Pues Tú das luz a mi lámpara; el SEÑOR mi Dios ilumina mi oscuridad. 29 Porque por Ti yo puedo correr sobre una barrera; por medio de mi Dios yo puedo saltar sobre un muro. 30 En cuanto a Dios: Su camino es perfecto. ¡La palabra del SEÑOR es pura! Él es un escudo a todo aquel que toma refugio en Él. 31 Pues, ¿quién es Dios sino el SEÑOR? ¿Quién es una roca sino nuestro Dios? 32 Es Dios Quien pone fuerza sobre mí como un cinturón, Quien coloca a la persona libre de culpa en Su camino. 33 ¡Él hace mis pies ligeros como un venado y me coloca en las alturas! 34 Él entrena mis manos para la guerra y mis brazos para tensar un arco de bronce. 35 Tú me has dado el escudo de Tu salvación. Tu mano derecha me ha apoyado, y Tu favor me ha hecho grande. 36 Tú has hecho un lugar amplio para mis pies debajo de mí, así mis pies no se han resbalado 37 Yo perseguí a mis enemigos y los atrapé; yo no regresé hasta que ellos fueron destrozados. 38 Yo los hice añicos para que no pudieran levantarse; ellos han caído bajo mis pies. 39 Pues Tú pusiste fuerza sobre mí como un cinturón para la batalla; Tú pusiste debajo de mí aquellos quienes se levantaron en contra mía. 40 Tú me diste la parte de atrás de los cuellos de mis enemigos; yo aniquilé aquellos quienes me odiaban. 41 Ellos clamaron por ayuda, pero nadie los salvó; ellos clamaron al SEÑOR, pero Él no les contestó. 42 Yo los molí a piezas finas como polvo delante del viento; yo los tiré en las calles como barro. 43 Tú me rescataste de las disputas de la gente. Tú me has hecho cabeza sobre las naciones. Personas que no he conocido me sirven. 44 Tan pronto ellos escucharon de mí, me obedecieron; extranjeros fueron forzados a inclinarse ante mí. 45 Los extranjeros vinieron temblando de sus fortalezas. 46 El SEÑOR vive; que mi roca sea alabada. Que el Dios de mi salvación sea exaltado. 47 Él es el Dios que ejecuta venganza por mí, Quien somete a las naciones debajo de mí. 48 ¡Yo soy libertado de mis enemigos! Ciertamente, ¡Tú me levantaste por encima de aquellos quienes se levantaron en contra mía! Tú me rescataste de los hombres violentos. 49 Por lo tanto, ¡yo te daré las gracias a Tí, SEÑOR, entre todas las naciones; yo cantaré alabanzas a Tu nombre! 50 Dios da gran victoria a Su rey, y Él le muestra Su pacto de lealtad a Su ungido, a David y a sus descendientes para siempre.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 18:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

él cantó al SEÑOR las palabras de esta canción
"él cantó esta canción al SEÑOR"

el día que Yahweh lo rescató
"después de que El SEÑOR lo rescató"

de la mano de Saúl
Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder de Saúl. Traducción Alterna: "del poder de Saúl"

Psalms 18:2

El SEÑOR es mi roca
David habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una roca. La palabra "roca" es una imagen de un lugar seguro.

mi roca, mi fortaleza
Aquí las palabras "roca" y "fortaleza" comparten significados similares y enfatizan que El SEÑOR brinda seguridad contra los enemigos.

tomo refugio en Él
Se dice que ir al SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en Él. Traducción Alterna: "voy a Él por protección"

mi escudo, el cuerno de mi salvación y mi fuerte
David habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un "escudo", "el cuerno" de su salvación y su "fortaleza". El SEÑOR es quien lo protege del daño. Aquí una idea similar se repite de tres maneras para enfatizar.

yo seré salvado de mis enemigos
"Seré rescatado de mis enemigos"

Psalms 18:4

Las cuerdas de muerte me rodearon
David habla de la muerte como si fuera una persona que pudiera capturarlo y atarlo con cuerdas. Traducción Alterna: "Estaba a punto de ser asesinado"

corriente de las aguas de iniquidad
David está tan indefenso como si se lo llevara un torrente de aguas. Traducción Alterna: "Me sentí completamente indefenso"

Las cuerdas del Seol me rodearon; las trampas de la muerte me atraparon Aquí se habla del "Seol", el lugar de los muertos, y de "muerte" como si fueran personas que pudieran rodearlo y atraparlo. Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares y la idea se repite para enfatizar. Traducción Alterna: "Me sentí atrapado y pensé que iba a morir"

Psalms 18:6

En mi aflicción
"En mi gran necesidad" o "En mi desesperación"

mi clamor de ayuda entró en Su presencia Aquí David habla de su "clamor por ayuda" como si fuera una persona que pudiera venir a la presencia del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Oré a a Él"

entró en Sus oídos
Aquí David habla de cómo El SEÑOR escuchó su grito de ayuda. La idea se repite para enfatizar. Traducción Alterna: "escuchó mi llamado"

Psalms 18:7

Luego la tierra... temblaron y fueron estremecidas porque Dios estaba enojado Se habla de Dios estando enojado como si hubiera un terremoto terrible. Traducción Alterna: "Dios estaba tan enojado que era como si la tierra... temblara"

la tierra se agitó y tembló
Las palabras "agitó" y "temblar" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan cuán grandemente tembló la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra se movió de un lado a otro" o "el suelo se movió de arriba a abajo" o "hubo un terremoto violento" las fundaciones de las montañas también temblaron y fueron estremecidas Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los cimientos de las montañas también temblaron y se estremecieron"

El humo salió de Sus fosas nasales... Los carbones fueron encendidos por Él mismo David habla del SEÑOR como si Él estuviera respirando fuego. Esta es una imagen de lo enojado que estaba Dios.

fuego intenso salió de Su boca Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "fuego ardiente salió de su boca y encendió carbones"

Psalms 18:9

Él abrió
La palabra "Él" se refiere al SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

oscuridad gruesa estaba bajo Sus pies Aunque El SEÑOR no tiene pies, el salmista le da características humanas. Traducción Alterna: "una espesa oscuridad estaba debajo de Él"

alas del viento
Aquí el salmista habla del viento como si tuviera alas como un ángel.

Psalms 18:11

Él hizo de la oscuridad... Él
Aquí ambas palabras "Él" se refieren al SEÑOR.

Él hizo de la oscuridad una tienda Aquí se habla de la oscuridad como si fuera una tienda. Traducción Alterna: "Él hizo de la oscuridad una cubierta" o "Él hizo de la oscuridad un lugar de escondite"

pesadas nubes de lluvia
"nubes cargadas de lluvia" o "densas y oscuras nubes de lluvia"

Piedras de granizo
"piedras hechas de hielo"

Psalms 18:13

El SEÑOR resonó desde los cielos
La voz del SEÑOR sonó como un trueno.

del Más Alto
"del Más Alto" se refiere al SEÑOR.

Él disparó Sus flechas y esparció Sus enemigos... rayos los dispersaron a ellos Ambas cláusulas tienen significados similares.

Él disparó Sus flechas y esparció Sus enemigos
Aquí se habla del impacto de los rayos como si fueran flechas.

Psalms 18:15

Información General:
El autor continúa hablando del gran poder del SEÑOR.

Luego los canales de agua aparecieron; las fundaciones del mundo fueron expuestas Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces aparecieron los canales de agua y el fondo del océano se hizo visible; expusiste los cimientos del mundo"

a la explosión del aliento de Tus fosas nasales Aunque Dios no tiene características físicas humanas como se describe aquí, esto representa su poderosa fuerza. Aquí se habla del viento como si viniera como una poderosa explosión de las fosas nasales de Dios.

Psalms 18:16

Él extendió... Él me agarró... Él me sacó La palabra "Él" en estos versos se refiere al SEÑOR.

agua creciente
Aquí el salmista habla de los peligros de sus enemigos como si fueran enormes olas o aguas poderosas, de las cuales El SEÑOR lo ha rescatado.

Psalms 18:18

Ellos vinieron en contra mía
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los poderosos enemigos del verso 17.

Ellos vinieron en contra mía en el día de mi aflicción, pero el SEÑOR fue mi apoyo
La palabra "angustia" describe la condición de alguien que tiene muchos problemas. Traducción Alterna: "Fuertes enemigos me atacaron en un día en que tuve muchos problemas, pero El SEÑOR me protegió"

Psalms 18:20

mis manos estaban limpias.
Aquí poseer "manos limpias" significa que uno es inocente de haber actuado mal. Traducción Alterna: "todas mis acciones fueron correctas"

yo he guardado los caminos del SEÑOR Se habla de las leyes del SEÑOR como si fueran los caminos por los cuales uno debe caminar. Traducción Alterna: "He obedecido las leyes del SEÑOR"

no me he apartado malvadamente de mi Dios Aquí se habla de ser malvado como si uno dejara el camino correcto y tomara el camino equivocado. Traducción Alterna: "no he hecho malvadamente alejándome de mi Dios"

Psalms 18:22

Pues todos Sus decretos... yo no me he apartado de ellos Ambas cláusulas tienen significados similares. El escritor repite estas ideas para enfatizar.

han estado delante de mí
"me han guiado" o "los he recordado"

Yo también he sido inocente... me he guardado del pecado
Ambas cláusulas tienen significados similares. El escritor repite estas ideas para enfatizar.

inocente delante de Él
"inocente de acuerdo a Él"

me he guardado del pecado
"no he pecado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mis manos estaban limpias
Tener "manos limpias" significa que uno es inocente de haber actuado mal. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 18:20. Traducción Alterna: "todas mis acciones fueron correctas"

ante Sus ojos
Esto se refiere a la presencia de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "ante Él" o "según Él"

Psalms 18:25

Información General:
El autor habla del SEÑOR.

A cualquiera que es fiel Aquí "fiel" significa hacer lo que Dios le ordena a uno que haga. Puede decir esto claramente. Traducción Alterna: "a los que obedecen fielmente Tus mandamientos" o "a los que fielmente cumplen Tu pacto"

a un hombre que es libre de culpa... Tú te muestras puro Ambas cláusulas tienen significados similares. El escritor repite estas ideas para enfatizar.

Tú eres listo hacia cualquiera que es torcido
"Tú burlas a cualquiera que no sea honesto"

Psalms 18:27

Tú humillas
"

orgullosos, de ojos levantados
Esta expresión idiomática se refiere a aquellos que son orgullosos. Traducción Alterna: "quienes son orgullosos"

Pues Tú das luz a mi lámpara; el SEÑOR mi Dios ilumina mi oscuridad
El escritor habla de la presencia del SEÑOR Él fuera una luz. Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares.

Porque por Ti yo puedo correr sobre una barrera
'Porque con Tu ayuda yo puedo cruzar cualquier obstáculo"

Psalms 18:30

Él es un escudo a todo aquel que toma refugio en Él
Un escudo protege a un soldado. David habla como si Dios fuera un escudo que lo protege. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:3. Traducción Alterna: "Tú, SEÑOR, protege como un escudo a todos los que se refugian en Ti"

Pues, ¿quién es Dios sino el SEÑOR? ¿Quién es una roca sino nuestro Dios?
La respuesta implícita es nadie. Traducción Alterna: "¡Sólo El SEÑOR es Dios! ¡Sólo nuestro Dios es una roca!

una roca
David habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una roca que él pudiera escalar para escapar de sus enemigos. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 18:2.

pone fuerza sobre mí como un cinturón Dios le da fuerza a David como si fuera una prenda de vestir.

coloca a la persona libre de culpa en Su camino
Aquí David habla de vivir una vida que le agrada a Dios como si lo pusieran en el camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "hace que la persona sin culpa viva una vida justa"

Psalms 18:33

hace mis pies ligeros
Esto se refiere a permitir que una persona corra rápido. Traducción Alterna: "me hace correr muy rápido"

como un venado y me coloca en las alturas
El ciervo es especialmente rápido y estable en las montañas.

Él entrena mis manos p Aquí "mis manos" se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Me entrena" mis brazos

Esto se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "yo"

Psalms 18:35

el escudo de Tu salvación Aquí el escritor habla de la protección de Dios como si fuera un escudo. El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar con el verbo "salvar". Traducción Alterna: "Tu protección y me salvaste"

Tu mano derecha... Tu favor Ambos términos son una figura literaria

un lugar amplio para mis pies debajo de mí El escritor habla de la seguridad que Dios ha provisto como si fuera un lugar amplio para él poder ponerse de pie. Traducción Alterna: "un lugar seguro para mí"

mis pies no se han resbalado
Aquí "mis pies" se refiere a la persona. El escritor se refiere a la seguridad de la protección de Dios como si estuviera parado en un lugar donde no resbalará ni se caerá. Traducción Alterna: "No he resbalado" o "Estoy bien"

Psalms 18:37

Yo los hice añicos
"Los desmenucé" o "Los rompí en pedazos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no pudieran levantarse
"no pudieran mantenerse de pie"

ellos han caído bajo mis pies
Esta expresión idiomática significa que el salmista ha derrotado a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "Los he derrotado a todos"

Tú pusiste fuerza sobre mí como un cinturón
El salmista dice que El SEÑOR le ha dado la fuerza que lo rodea y lo sostiene como un cinturón. Mire cómo tradujo esto en 18:30.

Tú pusiste debajo de mí Aquí el salmista habla de la derrota de sus enemigos como si estuviera parado sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Tú derrotaste por mí" aquellos quienes se levantaron en contra mía.

Esto se refiere a aquellos que se oponen al salmista. Traducción Alterna: "los que son mis enemigos"

Psalms 18:40

la parte de atrás de los cuellos de mis enemigos Esto representa la victoria sobre los enemigos de uno. Traducción Alterna: "la victoria sobre mis enemigos" yo aniquilé aquellos quienes me odiaban

"Derroté a los que me odiaban" o "Destruí por completo a los que me odiaban"

pero Él no les contestó Esto significa que El SEÑOR no proporcionó ninguna ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "pero Él no los ayudó"

Yo los molí a piezas finas como polvo delante del viento
Los enemigos de los salmistas son comparados con el polvo para mostrar cuán derrotados están.

yo los tiré en las calles como barro
Los enemigos del salmista se comparan con el barro en las calles para mostrar cuán derrotados están.

Psalms 18:43

disputas
"desacuerdos" o "discusiones"

me has hecho cabeza sobre las naciones Aquí "cabeza" representa al gobernante. Traducción Alterna: "me designó para ser el gobernante sobre muchas naciones" extranjeros fueron forzados a inclinarse

Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios obligó a los extranjeros a inclinarse"

Los extranjeros vinieron temblando
Aquí "temblando" muestra que tenían mucho miedo. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "los extranjeros vinieron temblando, mostrando que tenían mucho miedo"

Psalms 18:46

que mi roca sea alabada Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Él es mi roca y debería ser alabado" o "que la gente alabe mi roca"

mi roca
Aquí el escritor habla de la protección del SEÑOR como si fuera una roca que impedía que sus enemigos lo alcanzaran. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 18:2.

Que el Dios de mi salvación sea exaltado Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que la gente exalte al Dios de mi salvación"

el Dios de mi salvación
Esto significa que es Dios quien lo ha rescatado. Traducción Alterna: "el Dios que me rescató"

Él es el Dios que ejecuta venganza por mí
"Ejecutar venganza" significa castigar a las personas por sus malas acciones. Traducción Alterna: "el Dios que castiga a las personas por las cosas malas que me han hecho"

Psalms 18:48

Yo soy libertado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios me ha liberado"

Tú me levantaste por encima
Se habla de la protección del SEÑOR sobre el escritor como si Él lo hubiera elevado tan alto que sus enemigos no pudieran alcanzarlo para dañarlo. Traducción Alterna: "me pusiste en un lugar seguro muy alto "

quienes se levantaron en contra mía
"quienes me atacaron" o "quienes se rebelaron contra mí"

hombres violentos
"hombres crueles" o "hombres salvajes"

entre todas las naciones Aquí el escritor quiere decir que dará gracias al SEÑOR para que todas las personas escuchen de la grandeza del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "para que todas las naciones se enteren"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a Tu nombre
Aquí "nombre" representa a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "en honor a Tu nombre" o "para Ti"

Psalms 18:50

victoria a Su rey
Al usar las palabras "Su rey", David se refiere a sí mismo como rey.

Él le muestra Su pacto de lealtad a Su ungido... a sus descendientes para siempre
"Él me ama fielmente como lo prometió en su pacto, y amará a mis descendientes para siempre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 ¡Los cielos declaran la gloria de Dios, los cielos dan a conocer su obra! 2 Día tras día el discurso se derrama; noche tras noche revela conocimiento. 3 No hay discurso o palabras habladas; su voz no se escucha. 4 Aunque sus palabras van por toda la tierra, y su discurso hasta el fin del mundo. Él ha puesto una tienda para el sol entre ellos. 5 El sol es como un novio saliendo de su cuarto y como un hombre fuerte que se alegra cuando corre su carrera. 6 El sol se levanta desde un horizonte y cruza el cielo hasta el otro; nada escapa de su calor. 7 La ley del SEÑOR es perfecta, restaurando el alma; el testimonio del SEÑOR es confiable, haciendo sabios a los simples. 8 Las instrucciones del SEÑOR son correctas, alegrando el corazón; el mandato del SEÑOR es puro, trayendo luz a los ojos. 9 El temor al SEÑOR es puro, dura para siempre; ¡los justos decretos del SEÑOR son verdaderos y completamente correctos! 10 Son de más valor que el oro, hasta más que mucho oro fino; son más dulces que la miel y la miel que gotea del panal. 11 Sí, por ellos tu siervo es advertido; en obedecerlos hay gran recompensa. 12 ¿Quién puede discernir sus propios errores? Límpiame de errores ocultos. 13 Retén a tu siervo también de los pecados arrogantes; no los dejes que gobiernen sobre mí. Entonces yo seré perfecto, y seré inocente de muchas transgresiones. 14 Que las palabras de mi boca y los pensamientos de mi corazón sean aceptables a Tu vista, SEÑOR, mi Roca y mi Redentor.

Psalms 19:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Los cielos declaran
Los cielos son descritos como si fueran una persona. Traducción Alternativa: "Los cielos muestran" o "Los cielos parecen declarar"

los cielos dan a conocer su obra Los cielos son descritos como si fueran un maestro. Traducción Alternativa: "Los cielos parecen hacer conocida la obra de DIos"

su obra
"Su creación" o "el mundo que Él ha hecho"

el discurso se derrama
Lo que es hermoso sobre la creación es comparado al hablar, como si la creación fuera una persona. Entonces, esas palabras son comparadas al agua que fluye donde sea. Traducción Alternativa: "la creación es como una persona hablando a todo el mundo"

No hay discurso o palabras habladas; su voz no se escucha Estas frases expresan claramente que los primeros dos versos eran una metáfora. Traducción Alternativa: "No hay discurso real o palabras habladas; nadie oye una voz real con sus oídos" su voz no se escucha.

Otras traducciones leen "donde su voz no es oída", enfatizando que el "discurso" está disponible en todas partes.

Psalms 19:4

Información General:
David ha dicho que la creación muestra la gloria de Dios.

sus palabras... su discurso
Esto se refiere a las "palabras" no habladas de la creación que muestran la gloria de Dios.

sus palabras van Las palabras son descritas como si fueran personas que van con un mensaje. Traducción Alternativa: "las palabras que la creación habla son como personas que van"

su discurso hasta el fin del mundo Las palabras implicadas pueden ser incluidas en la traducción. Traducción Alternativa: "su discurso va hasta el fin del mundo"

Él ha puesto una tienda para el sol Aquí el escritor habla del lugar que El SEÑOR creó para el sol como si fuera una tienda. Traducción Alternativa: "Él creó un lugar para el sol"

entre ellos
La palabra "ellos" probablemente se refiere a los cielos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El sol es como un novio saliendo de su cuarto
El escritor habla de la salida del sol como si fuera un novio. Traducción Alternativa: "El sol es como un novio caminando gozosamente hacia su novia"

como un hombre fuerte que se alegra cuando corre su carrera Esto compara al sol con un atleta para enfatizar la fortaleza y brillo del sol.

un hombre fuerte
"un corredor rápido"

horizonte
La línea donde la tierra y el cielo se encuentran.

hasta el otro
Aquí "otro" se refiere al otro horizonte. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alternativa: "hasta el otro horizonte"

nada escapa de su calor
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "todo siente su calor"

Psalms 19:7

el alma... el corazón... los ojos Cada una de estas palabras se refiere a la persona entera. Traducción Alternativa: "una persona"

los simples
"aquellos que no tienen experiencia" o "aquellos que no han aprendido"

son correctas
"son verdad" o "son correctas"

trayendo luz
"trayendo entendimiento"

Psalms 19:9

completamente correctos
"completamente correctos"

Son de más valor que el oro... son más dulces que la miel
Se habla de los decretos del SEÑOR como si pudieran comprarse y probarse. Traducción Alternativa: "Si pudieras comprarlos, serían de mayor valor que el oro... si pudieras probarlos, serían más dulces que la miel"

hasta más que mucho oro fino
La palabra implícita "valioso" se puede agregar en la traducción. Traducción Alternativa: "aún más valioso que mucho oro fino"

oro fino
"oro puro" u "oro costoso"

Psalms 19:11

Sí
"También" o "En efecto"

por ellos tu siervo es advertido Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "advierten a Tu siervo" o "son una advertencia para Tu siervo"

por ellos... en obedecerlos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los decretos justos del SEÑOR.

tu siervo es advertido
David se llama a sí mismo "Tu siervo" cuando le habla a Dios como señal de respeto. Traducción Alternativa: "Estoy advertido"

¿Quién puede discernir sus propios errores?
Esto aparece en forma de una pregunta para agregar énfasis y puede traducirse como una declaración fuerte. Traducción Alternativa: ¡Nadie puede ser consciente de sus propios errores! "

de errores ocultos
"De los errores secretos que he cometido"

Psalms 19:13

Retén a tu siervo también de Esta expresión idiomática representa al siervo como siendo removido de los pecados que no desea cometer. Traducción Alternativa: "Además, protege a Tu siervo de hacer" o "Además, asegúrate de que no cometa"

tu siervo
David se llama a sí mismo "Tu siervo" cuando le habla a Dios como señal de respeto. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 19:11.

no los dejes que gobiernen sobre mí
Los pecados se describen como si fueran un rey que pudiera gobernar sobre alguien. Traducción Alternativa: "no dejes que mis pecados se vuelvan como un rey que gobierne sobre mí"

inocente de muchas transgresiones
"inocente de rebelarme contra ti" o "inocente de cometer muchos pecados"

las palabras de mi boca y los pensamientos de mi corazón Estas expresiones juntas describen todo lo que una persona dice y piensa. Traducción Alternativa: "lo que digo y lo que pienso"

sean aceptables a Tu vista
"reciba aprobación a Tu vista" o "sean agradables para Ti"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a Tu vista
Esto se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción Alternativa: "para ti"

SEÑOR, mi Roca
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una roca que uno podría escalar y estar protegido de sus enemigos. Traducción Alternativa: "SEÑOR, eres como mi roca"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Que el SEÑOR te ayude en el día de dificultades; que el nombre del Dios de Jacob te proteja 2 y envíe ayuda desde el lugar santo para apoyarte desde Sion. 3 Que Él recuerde todas tus ofrendas y acepte tu sacrificio quemado. 4 Que te conceda los deseos de tu corazón y complete todos tus planes. 5 Entonces Él se alegrará en tu victoria, y, en el nombre de nuestro Dios, levantáremos bandera. Que el SEÑOR conceda tus peticiones. 6 Ahora yo sé que el SEÑOR rescatará a Su ungido; Él le responderá desde Su santo cielo con la fuerza de Su mano derecha que puede rescatarlo. 7 Algunos confían en carros y otros en caballos, pero nosotros clamamos al SEÑOR, nuestro Dios. 8 Ellos serán derribados y caerán, ¡pero nosotros nos levantáremos y estaremos erguidos! 9 SEÑOR, rescata al rey; ayúdanos cuando nosotros llamemos.

Psalms 20:1

Información General:
Este salmo comienza con un grupo de personas hablando al rey de Israel.

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

te ayude
La palabra "te" en este salmo se refiere al rey.

el día de dificultades Aquí "día" representa un período de tiempo más largo. Traducción Alternativa: "tiempos de dificultades"

el nombre del Dios de Jacob Aquí "nombre" representa a Dios mismo. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios"

del Dios de Jacob
Esto se refiere a su antepasado Jacob, que adoraba al SEÑOR.

envíe ayuda desde el lugar santo Se habla de Dios ayudando desde su lugar santo como si Dios estuviera enviando ayuda. Traducción Alternativa: "que El SEÑOR te ayude desde su lugar sagrado" lugar santo... Sion

Ambos se refieren al templo de Dios en Jerusalén.

Psalms 20:3

Que Él recuerde (traer a la mente)
La frase "traer a la mente" es una forma de decir "recordar". No significa que Dios lo olvidó. Significa considerar o pensar. Traducción Alternativa: "Que se acuerde"

Que Él
La palabra "Él" se refiere al SEÑOR.

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

Que te conceda "Que te de"

los deseos de tu corazón
Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. El sustantivo abstracto "deseo" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "lo que deseas" o "lo que quieres"

complete todos tus planes
El sustantivo abstracto "planes" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "que Él te ayude a lograr todo lo que planeas hacer"

Psalms 20:5

Él se alegrará en tu victoria
Aquí "nos" se refiere a las personas. Se regocijarán en la victoria del rey.

en el nombre de nuestro Dios Aquí "nombre" significa honor o reputación. Traducción Alternativa: "en honor a nuestro Dios" o "por la reputación de nuestro Dios"

levantáremos bandera
"izaremos banderas" o "iremos levantando pancartas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

conceda tus peticiones
"te dé todo lo que le pidas"

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en el salmo. Marca una transición de la gente hablando al rey hablando.

yo sé
La palabra "yo" probablemente se refiere al rey que está hablando en esta sección.

Su ungido... le responderá... rescatarlo
El rey habla de sí mismo en tercera persona. Esto se puede expresar en primera persona. Traducción Alternativa: "yo, Su ungido ... respóndeme... rescátame"

desde Su santo cielo
Dios habita tanto en el cielo como en el templo de Jerusalén. (Ver: 20:1)

con la fuerza de Su mano derecha que puede rescatarlo
La mano derecha de Dios representa Su poder para rescatar al rey. Traducción Alternativa: "con Su gran fuerza lo rescatará"

Psalms 20:7

Algunos confían en carros y otros en caballos
Aquí "carros" y "caballos" representan el ejército de un rey.

y otros en caballos
La palabra "confían" se sobrentiende. Traducción Alternativa: "y otros confían en caballos"

nosotros clamamos
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere al rey y su pueblo.

Ellos serán derribados y caerán
La palabra "Ellos" se refiere a las personas que confían en carros y caballos. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios los derribará y los hará caer"

derribados y caerán Ambos verbos significan básicamente lo mismo. Ambos representan perder en la batalla.

nos levantáremos y estaremos erguidos
"Nos levantaremos y nos pararemos derechos". Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Ambas representan la victoria en la batalla.

Psalms 20:9

SEÑOR, rescata al rey
Las posibles interpretaciones son: 1) la gente le pide a Dios que proteja al rey (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueda) o 2) el rey continúa hablando de sí mismo en tercera persona.

al rey; ayúdanos cuando nosotros llamemos Algunas traducciones entienden el hebreo de manera diferente. Algunos lo traducen como que las personas le hablan al SEÑOR su rey. Traducción Alternativa: "Rey, ayúdanos cuando te llamemos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 ¡El rey se alegra en Tu fuerza, oh SEÑOR! ¡Que mucho se alegra en la salvación que Tú provees! 2 Le has dado los deseos de su corazón y no haz retenido la petición de sus labios. 3 Porque Tú le traes ricas bendiciones; has puesto en su cabeza una corona del más puro oro. 4 Él te pidió vida; Tú se la diste; Tú le diste largos días por siempre y para siempre. 5 Su gloria es grande por Tu victoria; Tú has puesto sobre él esplendor y majestad. 6 Pues Tú le concedes bendiciones duraderas; Tú lo alegras con el gozo de Tu presencia. 7 Pues el rey confía en el SEÑOR; a través de la fidelidad del pacto del Altísimo, él no será movido. 8 Tu mano tomará a todos Tus enemigos; Tu mano derecha tomará a aquellos que Te odian. 9 Al momento de Tu enojo, Tú los quemarás a ellos como en un horno ardiente. El SEÑOR los consumirá a ellos en su ira, y el fuego los devorará. 10 Tú destruirás a sus retoños de la tierra y a sus descendientes de entre la raza humana. 11 Porque ellos pretendieron el mal en tu contra; ¡ellos concibieron una conspiración con la cual no tuvieron éxito! 12 Pues Tú los hará huir; Tú tirarás Tu arco contra ellos. 13 Se exaltado, oh SEÑOR, en Tu fuerza; nosotros cantaremos y alabaremos Tu poder.

Psalms 21:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

en Tu fuerza, oh SEÑOR
Está implícito que esta es la fuerza que El SEÑOR le ha dado al rey para derrotar a sus enemigos. Traducción Alternativa: "porque Tú, SEÑOR, lo has hecho lo suficientemente fuerte como para derrotar a sus enemigos"

Que mucho se alegra
"Él se regocija grandemente"

en la salvación que Tú provees Está implícito que Dios ha salvado al rey de sus enemigos. El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "porque lo has salvado de sus enemigos"

los deseos de su corazón
"el deseo de su corazón". Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona entera. Traducción Alternativa: "su deseo" o "lo que él deseaba"

no has retenido
"No lo has rechazado". Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "le has dado"

la petición de sus labios Aquí "labios" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alternativa: "su petición" o "lo que él Te pidió"

Selah
Este podría ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

Psalms 21:3

Tú le traes ricas bendiciones
El sustantivo abstracto "bendiciones" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "lo bendices mucho" o "le das muchas cosas buenas"

has puesto en su cabeza una corona del más puro oro Colocar una corona en la cabeza de una persona es un símbolo de convertirlo en rey.

una corona del más puro oro
Aquí el "oro más puro" representa el gran honor otorgado al rey.

Él te pidió vida; Tú se la diste
El sustantivo abstracto "vida" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alternativa: "Te pidió que le hicieras vivir mucho tiempo; hiciste que sucediera"

largos días por siempre y para siempre
Los significados posibles son 1) una vida muy larga o 2) vida eterna o 3) una larga línea de descendientes.

Psalms 21:5

Su gloria
"El honor del rey" o "La fama del rey"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú has puesto sobre él esplendor y majestad
"Has puesto en él esplendor y majestad". Se habla de hacer que el rey sea rico y poderoso como si el esplendor y la majestad fueran objetos que se le ponen. Traducción Alternativa: "lo has hecho rico y poderoso"

Tú le concedes
"le permites tener" o "aceptas darle"

bendiciones duraderas
"una bendición que durará" o "una bendición que se mantendrá"

el gozo de Tu presencia
"la alegría de estar en tu presencia" o "la alegría que proviene de que estés cerca de ti"

Psalms 21:7

a través de la fidelidad del pacto del Altísimo
"porque el Altísimo es fiel a su pacto"

él no será movido
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "nadie lo eliminará como rey"

Tu mano tomará
Aquí "mano" representa el poder. Traducción Alternativa: "Su poder se apoderará" o "Se apoderará poderosamente"

Tu mano... odian
El posible significado de todas las ocurrencias de "tu" y "tú" son 1) se refieren al rey o 2) se refieren a Dios.

Tu mano derecha tomará a aquellos que Te odian
Esto significa lo mismo que la primera parte de la oración. Hace hincapié en que Dios le dará al rey el poder de detener a sus enemigos.

Psalms 21:9

Al momento de Tu enojo
"Cuando apareces en Tu ira"

Tu enojo... Tú destruirás
El posible significado para todas las ocurrencias de "tu" y "tú" son 1) se refieren a Dios o 2) se refieren al rey.

Tú los quemarás a ellos como en un horno ardiente
Se habla del SEÑOR o del rey destruyendo a sus enemigos como si sus enemigos fueran madera y El SEÑOR o el rey los arrojaran a un horno.

El SEÑOR los consumirá a ellos en su ira, y el fuego los devorará Ambas cláusulas significan básicamente lo mismo. Se habla de que El SEÑOR destruye completamente a sus enemigos como si su ira fuera un fuego que quema por completo a sus enemigos.

de la tierra... de entre la raza humana
Ambas frases significan lo mismo. Destacan que absolutamente ninguno de sus enemigos sobrevivirá.

Psalms 21:11

ellos pretendieron
"ellos planearon." La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los enemigos de Dios y del rey.

el mal en tu contra
"hacerte cosas malas"

ellos concibieron una conspiración
"hicieron un plan" o "crearon un esquema"

Pues Tú los hará huir; Tú tirarás Tu arco contra ellos Los significados posibles para "Tú" y "Tu" son 1) se refieren al rey o 2) se refieren a Dios y hablan de Él como si fuera un guerrero con arco y flechas.

Tú los hará huir
Esta es una manera de decir que Dios y el rey vencerán a sus enemigos en la batalla.

Tú tirarás Tu arco contra ellos
Esto implica que realmente dispara sus flechas a sus enemigos.

Psalms 21:13

Se exaltado, oh SEÑOR, en Tu fuerza
Los significados posibles son 1) "SEÑOR, muéstranos que eres muy fuerte" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) o 2) "SEÑOR, porque eres fuerte te exaltaremos"

nosotros cantaremos y alabaremos Tu poder Las palabras "cantar" y "alabar" comparten significados similares. Aquí la palabra "poder" representa a Dios y Su poder. Traducción Alternativa: "cantando te alabaremos porque eres poderoso"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿por qué me haz abandonado? ¿Por qué estás tan lejos de sálvarme y lejos de las palabras de mi angustia? 2 Dios mío, yo clamó de día, pero Tú no me contestas, ¡y en la noche no estoy en silencio! 3 Pero Tú aún eres Santo; Tú te sientas como Rey con las alabanzas de Israel. 4 Nuestros ancestros confíaron en Ti, ellos confíaron en Ti, y Tú los rescatastes. 5 Ellos clamaron a Ti y ellos fueron rescatados. Ellos confíaron en Ti y no fueron decepcionados. 6 Pero yo soy un gusano y no un hombre, una desgracia para la humanidad y despreciado por la gente. 7 Todos esos que me ven, me insultan; ellos se burlan de mí; ellos sacuden sus cabezas a mí. 8 Ellos dicen: "Él confió en el SEÑOR, deja que lo rescate el SEÑOR. Deja que Él lo rescate, porque él se deleita en Él." 9 Pues Tú me traíste desde el vientre; Tú me hiciste confíar en Tí cuando yo estaba en los pechos de mi madre. 10 He sido entregado a Tí desde el vientre; ¡Tú eres mi Dios desde que yo estaba en el vientre de mi madre! 11 No estés lejos de mí, porque los problemas están cerca; no hay nadie que ayude. 12 Muchos toros me rodean; fuertes toros de Basán me rodean. 13 Ellos abren sus anchas bocas en contra mía, como un léon rugiente despedázando sus víctimas. 14 Estoy siendo derramado como agua, y todos mis huesos son dislocados. Mi corazón es como cera; se derrite junto con mis partes internas. 15 Mi fuerza se ha secado como un pedazo de barro; mi lengua se pega al paladar de mi boca. Me haz puesto en el polvo de la muerte. 16 Pues los perros me han rodeado; una compañía de malhechores me ha cercado; ellos han traspazado mis manos y mis pies. 17 Puedo contar todos mis huesos. Ellos me miran y observan. 18 Ellos dividen mis ropas entre ellos, ellos hechan suertes por mi ropa. 19 No estés muy lejos, oh SEÑOR; ¡por favor, apúrate a ayudarme, mi Fortaleza! 20 Rescata mi alma de la espada, mi única vida de las garras de los perros salvajes. 21 Sálvame de la boca del león; réscatame de los cuernos del buey salvaje. 22 Yo declararé Tu nombre a mis hermanos; en medio de la asamblea yo te alabaré a Ti. 23 ¡Ustedes los que temen al SEÑOR, alábenlo! ¡Todos ustedes descendientes de Jacob, honrénlo a Él! ¡Estén asombrados de Él, todos ustedes descendientes de Israel! 24 Porque Él no ha despreciado, ni aborrecido, el sufrimiento del afligido; el SEÑOR no ha escondido Su rostro de él; cuando el afligido clamó a Él, Él escuchó. 25 Mi alabanza será por Tí en la gran asamblea; yo cumpliré mis votos ante los que le temen a Él. 26 El oprimido comerá y será satisfecho, aquellos quienes buscan al SEÑOR lo alabarán a Él. ¡Viva para siempre sus corazónes! 27 Toda la gente de la tierra recordará y volverá al SEÑOR; todas las familias de las naciones se inclinarán ante Tí. 28 Porque el reino es del SEÑOR; Él es el gobernante sobre todas las naciones. 29 Toda la gente próspera de la tierra comerá y adorará; todos los que descienden al polvo se inclinarán ante Él, aún esos que no pueden preservar sus propias vidas. 30 La generación que viene le servirá a Él, ellos le hablarán a la próxima generación sobre el SEÑOR. 31 Ellos vendrán y hablarán de Su justicia; ¡ellos dirán a gente que aún no ha nacido lo que Él ha hecho!

Psalms 22:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

El ritmo del venado
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Dios mío, Dios mío
El escritor repite "Dios mío" para enfatizar que está desesperado por que Dios lo escuche.

Dios mío, ¿por qué me has abandonado?
El escritor usa una pregunta para enfatizar que siente que Dios lo ha abandonado. Puede ser mejor dejar esto como una pregunta. También se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "Dios mío, ¡siento que me has abandonado!"

me has abandonado
"me dejaste completamente solo"

¿Por qué estás tan lejos de sálvarme y lejos de las palabras de mi angustia?
Nuevamente, el escritor usa una pregunta para enfatizar que siente que Dios está lejos de él. Puede ser mejor dejar esto como una pregunta. También se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "¡Estás lejos de salvarme y lejos de las palabras de mi angustia!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lejos de las palabras de mi angustia Se habla del escritor sintiendo que Dios no lo está escuchando como si Dios estuviera lejos de sus palabras de angustia. Aquí "palabras" representa lo que el escritor ha dicho. Traducción Alternativa: "¿por qué no escuchas cuando te hablo de la angustia que siento?" o "te he dicho sobre mi sufrimiento pero no vienes a mí"

de día... en la noche
El escritor usa las palabras "día" y "noche" para significar que ora a Dios todo el tiempo.

no estoy en silencio
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "Todavía hablo"

Psalms 22:3

Tú te sientas como Rey con las alabanzas de Israel
"Las alabanzas de Israel son el trono en el que te sientas como rey". Las alabanzas de Israel se describen como si fueran un trono sobre el cual Dios puede sentarse y gobernar, o como una casa en la que Dios puede vivir. Traducción Alternativa: "eres rey y el pueblo de Israel te alaba"

de Israel
Aquí "Israel" representa al pueblo de Israel.

y no fueron decepcionados
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "y no los decepcionaste" o "no les fallaste"

y no fueron decepcionados
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "y los salvaste" o "e hiciste por ellos lo que necesitaban que hicieras"

Psalms 22:6

yo soy un gusano y no un hombre
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera un gusano. Esto enfatiza que se siente inútil o que la gente lo trata como si no valiera nada. Traducción Alternativa: "Pero es como si yo fuera un gusano y no un hombre"

desgracia para la humanidad y despreciado por la gente Ambas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. La frase "despreciado por la gente" puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "todos piensan que no valgo nada y la gente me odia"

me insultan; ellos se burlan de mí; ellos sacuden sus cabezas a mí Estas tres frases comparten significados similares y enfatizan la falta de respeto de la gente.

ellos sacuden sus cabezas a mí
Esto describe una acción utilizada para burlarse de alguien.

Él confió en el SEÑOR... se deleita en Él
La gente dice esto para burlarse del escritor. Realmente no creen que El SEÑOR lo rescatará.

Deja que Él lo rescate
"Deja que El SEÑOR lo rescate"

porque él se deleita en Él Los significados posibles son 1) "porque El SEÑOR se deleita en él" o 2) "porque él se deleita en El SEÑOR"

Psalms 22:9

Pues Tú
El escritor usa la palabra "Pues" para comenzar a explicar por qué está confundido y preguntarle a Dios por qué no le viene a ayudar.

Tú me traíste desde el vientre
Esta es una manera de decir "me hiciste nacer".

cuando yo estaba en los pechos de mi madre
Esto significa que él ha estado confiando en El SEÑOR desde que era muy joven. Traducción Alternativa: "incluso desde el momento en que bebí leche de los senos de mi madre"

He sido entregado a Tí desde el vientre
La frase "He sido arrojado" es una manera de decir que El SEÑOR lo ha cuidado como si lo hubiera adoptado como su propio hijo. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Fue como si me hubieras adoptado justo cuando nací"

Tú eres mi Dios
Esto implica que El SEÑOR siempre se ha ocupado del escritor. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú, Dios, me has cuidado" desde que yo estaba en el vientre de mi madre

"desde antes de que yo naciera"

Psalms 22:11

No estés lejos de mí
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "Acércate a mí" porque los problemas están cerca

El escritor habla de "problemas" como si fueran objetos que están cerca de él. Traducción Alternativa: "porque mis enemigos están cerca de mí"

no hay nadie que ayude
"no hay quien ayude"

Muchos toros me rodean; fuertes toros de Basán me rodean
El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran toros. Esto enfatiza cuán peligrosos y poderosos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

son sus enemigos. Traducción Alternativa: "Tengo muchos enemigos y son como toros que me rodean; son como toros fuertes de Basán que me rodean"

Ellos abren sus anchas bocas en contra mía
El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran leones con la boca abierta listos para comerlo. Sus enemigos pueden estar hablando mentiras para desacreditarlo. O pueden estar amenazándolo y atacándolo.

como un léon rugiente despedázando sus víctimas
El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran leones. Esto enfatiza cuán poderosos y peligrosos son sus enemigos.

Psalms 22:14

Estoy siendo derramado como agua
Esto se puede expresaren forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Es como si alguien me estuviera derramando como agua"

Estoy siendo derramado como agua
El escritor habla de sentirse completamente exhausto y débil como si él fuera agua de un frasco.

todos mis huesos son dislocados
"Todos mis huesos están fuera de lugar". Es posible que el escritor tenga algún tipo de dolor físico. O puede estar hablando de su dolor emocional como si fuera dolor físico.

Mi corazón es como cera... partes internas
El escritor habla de no tener más coraje como si su corazón se derritiera como cera. Aquí "corazón" significa "coraje".

cera
Una sustancia blanda que se derrite a una temperatura relativamente baja.

dentro de mis partes internas
"dentro de mí"

Mi fuerza se ha secado como un pedazo de barro
El escritor habla de sentirse débil como si su fuerza fuera como una pieza seca de cerámica que se puede romper fácilmente.

un pedazo de barro
Un objeto hecho de arcilla cocida que se puede usar en la casa mi lengua se pega al paladar de mi boca

"Mi lengua se pega a la parte superior de mi boca". El escritor puede estar describiendo su sed extrema. O puede continuar hablando de ser débil como si estuviera completamente seco.

Me has puesto en el polvo de la muerte
Los significados posibles para "polvo de muerte" son 1) se refiere a una persona que se convierte en polvo después de morir. Traducción Alternativa: "Estás a punto de dejarme morir y convertirme en polvo" o 2) es una forma de hablar sobre la tumba, lo que significaría que Dios está causando la muerte del escritor. Traducción Alternativa: "Me has puesto en mi tumba"

Me has puesto
Aquí se refiere a que es Dios quien lo puso.

Psalms 22:16

los perros me han rodeado
El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran perros. Sus enemigos se acercan a él como los perros salvajes a un animal moribundo. Traducción Alternativa: "mis enemigos son como perros que me han rodeado"

una compañía de malhechores
"un grupo de malhechores" o "una pandilla de malvados"

cercado
"rodeado"

ellos han traspasado mis manos y mis pies Esto continúa la metáfora del perro. El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran perros que muerden y perforan sus manos y pies con los dientes.

traspasado
apuñalado a través de algo con un objeto afilado

Puedo contar todos mis huesos
Los posibles significados son 1) el escritor es tan delgado que puede ver sus huesos. Traducción Alternativa: "Puedo ver todos mis huesos" o "Puedo sentir cada uno de mis huesos" o 2) esto continúa la metáfora del perro y el escritor puede ver sus huesos después de que los perros le hayan desgarrado la carne.

me miran y observan.
Las palabras "miran" y "observan" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que la gente lo mira de manera incómoda y se burla de él.

Psalms 22:18

No estés muy lejos
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "Permanece muy cerca"

mi fortaleza
Aquí "fortaleza" representa al SEÑOR quien le da fuerza. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú que me das fuerzas" o "Tú que me ayudas"

Psalms 22:20

Rescata mi alma
Aquí "alma" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alternativa: "Rescátame"

la espada
La espada es una forma común de referirse a un enemigo violento. Traducción Alternativa: "los que quieren matarme" o "mis enemigos"

mi única vida
"mi preciosa vida" o "la única vida que tengo"

garras de los perros salvajes... boca del león... cuernos del buey salvaje El escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran perros, leones y bueyes salvajes para enfatizar lo peligrosos que son. Además, las garras, la boca y los cuernos representan a los animales en su conjunto en una figura literaria

perros salvajes... buey salvaje
La palabra "salvaje" aquí significa que nadie ha capturado y domesticado al animal.

Psalms 22:22

Yo declararé Tu nombre
"Daré a conocer tu nombre". Aquí "nombre" representa el carácter o la reputación de Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "Hablaré de Tu carácter "

mis hermanos
Aquí "hermanos" significa "mis compañeros israelitas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) o "mis compañeros adoradores del SEÑOR"

en medio de la asamblea
"cuando mis compañeros israelitas y yo nos reunimos" o "cuando estoy rodeado de mis compañeros adoradores del SEÑOR"

ustedes descendientes de Jacob... ustedes descendientes de Israel Ambos se refieren al mismo grupo de personas.

Estén asombrados de Él
"Estén llenos de asombro por Él" o "Dejen que el poder de Dios les sorprenda"

Psalms 22:24

Él no ha despreciado, ni aborrecido
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "ha admirado y apreciado"

no ha despreciado, ni aborrecido, el sufrimiento del afligido Aquí "el sufrimiento" representa a la persona que está sufriendo. Traducción Alternativa: "no ha despreciado ni aborrecido al que está sufriendo"

despreciado, ni aborrecido
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que Dios no ha olvidado al escritor.

despreciado
"detestado" u "odiado"

aborrecido
"rechazado" o "despreciado"

el sufrimiento del afligido... de él... el afligido clamó Esto puede afirmarse para que se refiera a cualquiera que sufra. Traducción Alternativa: "los que sufren... de ellos... los que sufren lloraron"

no ha escondido Su rostro Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alternativa: "no ha desviado su atención" o "no ha ignorado"

Él escuchó
"El oyó." Está implícito que respondió cuando escuchó su llanto. Traducción Alternativa: "respondió" o "ayudó"

por Tí
Aquí "Tí" se refiere al SEÑOR.

yo cumpliré mis votos
Esto se refiere a los sacrificios que el escritor prometió ofrecer a Dios.

ante los que le temen a Él Aquí "Él" se refiere al SEÑOR. Se puede expresar como "Te". Traducción Alternativa: "en presencia de quienes te temen"

Psalms 22:26

El oprimido comerá y será satisfecho
Esto se refiere a la comida de compañerismo que ocurre después de que el escritor le ofrece a Dios los sacrificios que prometió. Invitará a los que sufren a comer una parte del animal que sacrificó.

aquellos quienes buscan al SEÑOR
Se habla de aquellos que quieren conocer al SEÑOR y complacerlo como si estuvieran literalmente buscando encontrar al SEÑOR.

Viva para siempre sus corazónes Aquí los "corazones" representan a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Que vivas para siempre" sus corazónes

Aquí "sus" se refiere a las personas oprimidas.

recordará y volverá al SEÑOR
Se habla de comenzar a obedecer al SEÑOR como si la gente se volviera físicamente hacia Él. Traducción Alterna: "recordará al SEÑOR y lo obedecerá"

todas las familias de las naciones se inclinarán ante Tí Esto significa lo mismo que la primera parte de la oración. El escritor está enfatizando que todos los lugares adorarán y obedecerán al SEÑOR.

se inclinarán ante Tí
Esta es una señal de honrar y respetar a alguien.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ante Tí
Aquí "Tí" se refiere al SEÑOR. Se puede traducir en tercera persona para que coincida con la primera parte de la oración. Traducción Alterna: "ante Él"

Psalms 22:28

Porque el reino es del SEÑOR
"Porque el reino le pertenece al SEÑOR". Aquí "reino" representa el gobierno de Dios como rey. Traducción Alterna: "Porque Jehová es rey")

Él es el gobernante sobre todas las naciones Aquí "naciones" representa a la gente de las naciones. Traducción Alterna: "Él gobierna a los pueblos de las naciones"

comerá
La gente comerá junta en la fiesta. Traducción Alterna: "comerán juntos" o "comerán juntos una comida festiva" todos los que descienden al polvo... esos que no pueden preservar sus propias vidas Ambas frases se refieren al mismo grupo. Ambas se refieren a todas las personas porque todas las personas morirán.

los que descienden al polvo Aquí "polvo" representa la tumba. La frase "descender al polvo" es una forma de referirse a alguien que muere. Traducción Alterna: "los que están mueriendo" o "los que mueren".

esos que no pueden preservar sus propias vidas
"aquellos que no pueden salvar sus propias vidas" o "aquellos que no pueden evitar morir"

Psalms 22:30

La generación que viene
Aquí "Una generación" representa a las personas de una generación. La frase "por venir" habla de un tiempo futuro como si fuera algo que viaja y llega a algún lado. Traducción Alterna: "Gente en las generaciones futuras"

la próxima generación Aquí "generación" representa a las personas de esa generación. Traducción Alterna: "la gente de la próxima generación" o "sus hijos"

sobre el SEÑOR
"sobre el Señor" o "sobre lo que el Señor ha hecho"

hablarán de Su justicia
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" se puede expresar como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "contarán las cosas justas que ha hecho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 El SEÑOR es mi pastor; no me faltará nada. 2 Él hace que me recueste en pastos verdes; Él me guía al lado de aguas tranquilas. 3 Él trae de vuelta mi vida; él me guía a través de caminos correctos por el bien de Su nombre. 4 Aunque camine por un valle de sombra más oscura, no temeré al daño ya que Tú estás conmigo, tu vara y tu bastón me confortan. 5 Tú preparas mesa delante de mí, en presencia de mis enemigos; Tú haz ungido mi cabeza con aceite; mi copa rebosa. 6 Seguramente la bondad y la fidelidad del pacto me perseguirán todos los días de mi vida, ¡y yo viviré en la casa del SEÑOR por muy largo tiempo!

Psalms 23:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

El SEÑOR es mi pastor
El escritor habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un pastor. Esto enfatiza cómo Dios se preocupa por las personas como un pastor se preocupa por sus ovejas. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es como un pastor para mí" o "El SEÑOR se preocupa por mí como un pastor se preocupa por sus ovejas"

no me faltará nada
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo todo lo que necesito"

Él hace que me recueste en pastos verdes
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera una oveja, y habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un pastor. Traducción Alterna: "Me da descanso como un pastor que lleva a sus ovejas a acostarse en pastos verdes"

Él me guía al lado de aguas tranquilas.
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera una oveja, y habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un pastor. Traducción Alterna: "Él proporciona lo que necesito como un pastor que lleva a sus ovejas al lado del agua tranquila"

aguas tranquilas
"agua tranquila" o "agua que fluye suavemente". Esta agua es segura para beber.

Psalms 23:3

Información General:
Este salmo continúa contando cómo Dios se preocupa por nosotros como un pastor se preocupa por sus ovejas.

Él trae de vuelta mi vida
Esto significa que Dios hace que una persona que está débil y cansada sea fuerte y descanse nuevamente.

Él me guía a través de caminos correctos
Se le muestra a una persona cómo vivir de una manera que agrada a Dios como si fuera un pastor que le muestra a las ovejas el camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "Me muestra cómo vivir bien" por el bien de Su nombre.

La frase "Su nombre" aquí se refiere a su reputación. Traducción Alterna: "por su reputación" o "para que la gente lo honre"

Psalms 23:4

Información General:
Este salmo continúa contando cómo Dios se preocupa por nosotros como un pastor se preocupa por sus ovejas.

Aunque camine por un valle de sombra más oscura
El escritor describe a una persona que experimenta terribles problemas como si fuera una oveja caminando por un valle oscuro y peligroso. Allí una oveja podría perderse o ser atacada por un animal salvaje. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque mi vida es como caminar por un valle oscuro y peligroso"

no temeré al daño
El sustantivo abstracto "daño" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "No tendré miedo de que algo me dañe"

Tú estás conmigo
Aquí "Tú " se refiere al SEÑOR.

Tu vara y Tu bastón me confortan
La vara y el bastón representan protección porque los pastores los usan para proteger a sus ovejas del peligro. Traducción Alterna: "No tengo miedo porque me proteges como un pastor que protege a sus ovejas con su vara y su bastón"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 23:5

Información General:
Ahora el escritor cuenta cómo Dios es como alguien que recibe a un invitado en su hogar y lo protege.

Tú preparas mesa delante de mí
Una mesa representa una fiesta porque la gente pondría toda la comida en una mesa.

en presencia de mis enemigos
El significado aquí es que el escritor no está preocupado por sus enemigos porque es un invitado de honor del SEÑOR y, por lo tanto, está protegido contra daños. Traducción Alterna: "a pesar de la presencia de mis enemigos"

ungido mi cabeza con aceite
La gente a veces pone aceite en la cabeza de sus invitados para honrarlos.

mi copa rebosa
Aquí una copa de vino que se desborda representa muchas bendiciones. Traducción Alterna: "Llenas tanto mi copa que se desborda" o "Me das muchas bendiciones"

Psalms 23:6

Seguramente la bondad y la fidelidad del pacto me perseguirán Se habla del SEÑOR siendo bueno y fiel a una persona como si la bondad y la fidelidad al pacto son cosas que persiguen a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Seguramente serás bueno y fiel conmigo"

todos los días de mi vida El sustantivo abstracto "vida" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "mientras viva"

la casa del SEÑOR
Los posibles significados son que 1) esto se refiere al hogar eterno del SEÑOR, o 2) esto se refiere al templo del SEÑOR en Jerusalén. Si es posible, traduzca de modo que ambos significados puedan ser entendidos.

por muy largo tiempo
Los significados posibles son 1) "para siempre" o 2) "mientras viva".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 La tierra es del SEÑOR, y su plenitud, el mundo y todo lo que vive en él. 2 Él lo fundó sobre los mares y lo estableció en los ríos. 3 ¿Quién subirá al monte del SEÑOR? ¿Quién se pondrá en pie en Su lugar santo? 4 Aquel que tiene las manos limpias y el corazón puro; quien no se ha levantado en falsedad y no ha jurado un juramento con la intención de engañar. 5 Él recibirá bendición del SEÑOR y justicia del Dios de su salvación. 6 Así es la generación de aquellos que lo buscan a Él, aquellos quienes buscan el rostro del Dios de Jacob. 7 ¡Levanten sus cabezas, ustedes puertas; sean levantadas, puertas eternas, para que el Rey de gloria pueda entrar! 8 ¿Quién es éste Rey de gloria? El SEÑOR fuerte y poderoso; el SEÑOR, poderoso en batalla. 9 ¡Levanten sus cabezas, ustedes puertas; sean levantadas, puertas eternas, para que el Rey de gloria pueda entrar! 10 ¿Quién es éste Rey de gloria? El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, él es el Rey de gloria.

Psalms 24:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

y su plenitud
El sustantivo abstracto "plenitud" puede expresarse con el verbo "llenar". Traducción Alterna: "y todo lo que lo llena"

Él lo fundó sobre los mares y lo estableció en los ríos Aquí "lo fundó sobre los mares" y "lo estableció en los ríos" significa básicamente lo mismo. Los hebreos de esa época creían que su tierra estaba sustentada por los océanos y los ríos subterráneos profundos. Traducción Alterna: "Porque Él formó su fundamento en los mares y la construyó en las aguas profundas"

los mares... los ríos
Estas frases se usan juntas para referirse al enorme océano profundo debajo de la tierra.

en los ríos
"El agua que está muy por debajo" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 24:3

¿Quién subirá al monte... en Su lugar santo?
Ambas preguntas significan básicamente lo mismo. Quien habla pregunta quién puede ir a adorar al SEÑOR.

subirá
"ir arriba" o "escalar"

al monte del SEÑOR
Esto se refiere al Monte de Sión en Jerusalén.

Su lugar santo Esto se refiere al templo del SEÑOR. Su templo está en el Monte de Sión en Jerusalén.

Aquel que tiene... quien no... y no ha Aquí "Aquel" no se refiere a una persona específica. Traducción Alterna: "Los que tienen... que tienen... y no tienen"

que tiene las manos limpias La palabra "manos" representa lo que hace una persona. Para que sus "manos" estén limpias significa que hace lo correcto. Traducción Alterna: "quién hace lo correcto"

el corazón puro
Aquí "corazón" representa los pensamientos o motivos de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "tiene buenos pensamientos" o "no piensa en hacer lo que está mal"

quien no se ha levantado en falsedad Aquí "falsedad" representa un ídolo falso. "Levantarse" significa adorar. Traducción Alterna: "quien no ha adorado a un ídolo"

Psalms 24:5

Él recibirá bendición del SEÑOR
La palabra "él" no se refiere a una persona específica. Se refiere a los que tienen corazones puros mencionados en el verso anterior. El sustantivo abstracto "bendición" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los bendecirá"

y justicia del Dios de su salvación El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" puede expresarse como "rectamente". Y "salvación" puede ser expresada como "salvar". Traducción Alterna: "y Dios tratará rectamente con él y lo salvará"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Así es la generación de aquellos que lo buscan a Él Aquí "generación" representa a las personas en general. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas que lo buscan son así" aquellos que lo buscan a Él, aquellos quienes buscan el rostro del Dios de Jacob Ambas declaraciones significan lo mismo. Se refieren a aquellos que van al templo a adorar a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "los que se acercan a Dios, ellos son los que pueden adorar a Dios, a quien adoramos los israelitas"

aquellos que lo buscan a Él
Se habla de que ir al templo para adorar al SEÑOR es como si la persona estuviera literalmente buscando encontrarlo.

el rostro del Dios de Jacob Aquí "rostro" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "el Dios de Jacob"

Psalms 24:7

Levanten sus cabezas, ustedes puertas; sean levantadas, puertas eternas
Las dos frases son muy similares en significado. Las palabras "portones" y "puertas" se refieren a las puertas del templo. El escritor está hablando a las puertas como si fueran una persona. Un portero sería el que abriría las puertas. Traducción Alterna: "Ábranse, portones antiguos" o "Abran estos portones antiguos"

Levanten sus cabezas
No está claro qué parte específica de la puerta es la "cabeza". Pero representa a la puerta en su conjunto.

El SEÑOR fuerte y poderoso; el SEÑOR, poderoso en batalla
El escritor habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un poderoso guerrero que pelea en batallas.

Psalms 24:9

Levanten sus cabezas, ustedes puertas; sean levantadas, puertas eternas
Las dos frases son muy similares en significado. Las palabras "portones" y "puertas" se refieren a las puertas del templo. El escritor está hablando a las puertas como si fueran una persona. Un portero sería el que abriría las puertas. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 24:7. Traducción Alterna: "Ábranse, puertas antiguas" o "Abran estas puertas antiguas"

Levanten sus cabezas
No está claro qué parte específica de la puerta es la "cabeza". Pero representa a la puerta en su conjunto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 ¡A tí, SEÑOR, yo levanto mi vida! 2 Mi Dios, yo confío en Ti. No permitas que sea humillado; no permitas que mis enemigos se regocigen triunfantes sobre mí. 3 ¡Que ninguno que tiene su esperanza en Ti sea deshonrado, que aquellos que actúan traicioneramente sin causa sean avergonzados! 4 Hazme conocer Tus sendas, oh SEÑOR; enséñame Tus caminos. 5 Guíame en Tu verdad y enséñame, porque Tú eres el Dios de mi salvación; en Ti espero todo el día. 6 Trae a memoria, oh SEÑOR, Tus actos de compasión y Tu pacto de fidelidad; porque ellos han existido siempre. 7 ¡No pienses en los pecados de mi juventud o en mi rebeldía; piensa en mí con pacto de fidelidad por causa de tu bondad, oh SEÑOR! 8 El SEÑOR es bueno y recto; por lo tanto le enseña el camino a los pecadores. 9 Él guía al humilde en lo que es correcto y le enseña Su camino. 10 Todos los caminos del SEÑOR son firmes en amor y fidelidad para aquellos que guardan Su pacto y sus mandamientos solemnes. 11 Por causa de tu nombre, SEÑOR, perdona mi pecado, porque es grande. 12 ¿Quién es el hombre que teme al SEÑOR? El SEÑOR lo instruirá en el camino que debe escoger. 13 Su vida será próspera y sus descendientes heredarán la tierra. 14 La amistad del SEÑOR es para aquellos que le honran y les hace conocer Su pacto. 15 Mis ojos están siempre en el SEÑOR, porque Él librara mis pies de la red. 16 Vuélvete a mí y ten misericordia porque estoy solo y afligido. 17 ¡Las angustias de mi corazón se han engrandecido; sácame de mi angustia! 18 Mira mi aflicción y mi fatiga; perdona mis pecados. 19 Mira mis enemigos, porque ellos son muchos; ellos me odian con odio cruel. 20 ¡Proteje mi vida y rescátame; no permitas que sea humillado, porque en Ti me refugio! 21 Que la integridad y la rectitud me preserven; porque en Ti confío. 22 Rescata a Israel, oh Dios, de todas sus dificultades.

Psalms 25:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

yo levanto mi vida
La frase "levanto mi vida" es una metáfora. Los posibles significados son 1) el escritor se entrega al SEÑOR, lo que significa que depende completamente de Él. Traducción Alterna: "Me entrego a ti"

No permitas que sea humillado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que mis enemigos me humillen"

humillado
"avergonzado"

se regocigen triunfantes sobre mí
"se regocigen triunfantes sobre mí". La frase "sobre mí" implica que sus enemigos lo han derrotado y se mantienen arriba en victoria. Traducción Alterna: "me derroten y se regocijen sobre eso"

Que ninguno que tiene su esperanza en Ti sea deshonrado
"No dejes que los que esperan en ti sean deshonrados". La desgracia podría venir de ser derrotado por sus enemigos. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que los enemigos derroten a los que esperan en ti"

que esperan en ti
"que confían en Tí"

actúan traicioneramente
"actúan con engaño" o "actúan con engaño"

sin causa
"sin ninguna razón"

Psalms 25:4

Hazme conocer Tus sendas, oh SEÑOR; enséñame Tus caminos Ambas declaraciones significan lo mismo. Se habla de Dios enseñando a una persona cómo deben comportarse como si le estuviera mostrando a la persona el camino correcto en el que una persona debe andar.

en Ti espero
"Yo dependo de Ti" o "Te espero pacientemente"

Guíame en Tu verdad y enséñame Guiar y enseñar significa lo mismo, dar instrucciones. Traducción Alterna: "Instrúyeme para que conduzca mi vida obedeciendo tu verdad"

el Dios de mi salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como "salva". Traducción Alterna: "el que me salva"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 25:6

Trae a memoria
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Esto no significa que Dios olvidó algo. El escritor le pide a Dios que piense y considere sus actos de compasión y fidelidad. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda" o "Piensa sobre"

Tus actos de compasión y Tu pacto de fidelidad
Los sustantivos abstractos "compasión" y "fidelidad" pueden expresarse como adjetivos. Traducción Alterna: "cómo has sido compasivo y fiel conmigo por tu pacto"

porque ellos han existido siempre Aquí "ellos" personifican la compasión de Dios y la fidelidad al pacto. Traducción Alterna: "porque así es como siempre has sido"

No pienses en los pecados de mi juventud
El sustantivo abstracto "pecados" se puede expresar como "pequé". Traducción Alterna: "No pienses en cómo pequé contra ti cuando era joven"

o en mi rebeldía
El sustantivo abstracto "rebeldía" se puede expresar como "rebelado". Traducción Alterna: "o sobre cómo me he rebelado contra Ti"

piensa en mí
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Esto no significa que Dios olvidó algo. El escritor le pide a Dios que piense en él. Traducción Alterna: "Recuérdame" o "Piensa en mí"

con pacto de fidelidad por causa de tu bondad
Los sustantivos abstractos "fidelidad" y "bondad" pueden expresarse como adjetivos. Traducción Alterna: "y sé fiel a mí por tu pacto, porque eres bueno"

Psalms 25:8

el camino... Su camino
Se habla de cómo Dios quiere que una persona se comporte como si fuera un camino o ruta por donde viaja una persona.

al humilde
Este adjetivo nominal puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "gente humilde" o "aquellos que son humildes"

Psalms 25:10

Todos los caminos del SEÑOR son firmes en amor y fidelidad
La palabra "caminos" es una metáfora de maneras. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR siempre nos ama por su pacto y siempre es confiable"

Por causa de tu nombre
La frase "tu nombre" aquí se refiere a la reputación del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Por tu reputación" o "Para que la gente te honre"

perdona mi pecado, porque es grande
El sustantivo abstracto "pecado" se puede expresar como "he pecado". Traducción Alterna: "por favor perdóname, porque he pecado mucho"

Psalms 25:12

¿Quién es el hombre que teme al SEÑOR?
Esta pregunta presenta al "hombre que teme al SEÑOR" como un nuevo tema. Traducción Alterna: "Te contaré sobre el hombre que teme al SEÑOR".

es el hombre que teme... lo instruirá... que debe... sus descendientes Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Traducción Alterna: "son los que temen ... los instruirás... ellos deberían ... Sus vidas ... sus descendientes"

El SEÑOR lo instruirá en el camino que debe escoger
Se habla de que El SEÑOR enseña a las personas cómo deben comportarse como si le estuviera enseñando a las personas qué camino o ruta deben tomar.

Su vida será próspera
"Dios lo hará prosperar" o "Dios los hará prosperar"

Psalms 25:14

La amistad del SEÑOR es para aquellos
"El SEÑOR es un amigo para aquellos". Algunos lo traducen como "El SEÑOR confía en aquellos". Su confianza en ellos muestra la amistad íntima que tiene con ellos.

Mis ojos están siempre en el SEÑOR
Aquí "ojos" representa mirar. Mirar al SEÑOR es una manera de decir que le está pidiendo ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre miro al SEÑOR" o "Siempre le pido al SEÑOR que me ayude" porque Él librara mis pies de la red Una red es una trampa. Se habla de una persona que está en peligro como si sus pies estuvieran enredados en una red. Traducción Alterna: "Él me rescatará del peligro"

Vuélvete a mí
Se habla del SEÑOR prestando atención a una persona y considerándola como si el SEÑOR se volviera físicamente hacia la persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 25:17

Las angustias de mi corazón se han engrandecido Aquí "corazón" representa las emociones de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Me siento cada vez más preocupado" sácame de mi angustia

"sácame de mi angustia". Esto habla de la angustia como si fuera un lugar del que se puede sacar a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "rescátame de mi angustia" o "líbrame de mi angustia"

mi angustia
La palabra "angustia" es un sustantivo abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que me angustian" o "las cosas que me dan miedo"

Mira mi aflicción
"Nota mi aflicción"

mi aflicción
La palabra "aflicción" es un sustantivo abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que me afligen" mi fatiga

La palabra "fatiga" es un sustantivo abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que me preocupan" ellos me odian con odio cruel

"me odian cruelmente" o "me odian ferozmente"

Psalms 25:20

no permitas que sea humillado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que mis enemigos me humillen"

en Ti me refugio
Se habla de ir al SEÑOR para protegerse como de refugiarse en Él. Traducción Alterna: "¡Voy a Ti por protección!"

Que la integridad y la rectitud me preserven Esto habla de "integridad" y "honestidad" como si fueran personas que pudieran mantener a salvo a otra persona. Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden expresarse como adjetivos. Traducción Alterna: "Que ser sincero y hacer lo correcto me preserven" o "Presérvame, SEÑOR, porque soy honesto y hago lo correcto"

me preserven
"me mantengan a salvo"

Psalms 25:22

Rescata a Israel
"Salva a Israel" o "Redíme a Israel"

Israel... sus dificultades Aquí "Israel" representa al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Israel... nuestras dificultades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Júzgame, SEÑOR, porque he andado en integridad; yo he confiado en el SEÑOR sin dudar. 2 ¡Examíname, oh SEÑOR, pruébame; prueba la puerza de mis íntimos pensamientos y de mi corazón! 3 Pues Tu pacto de fidelidad está ante mis ojos y yo camino en tu fidelidad. 4 No me asocio con gente engañadora, tampoco me uno con gente deshonesta. 5 Odio la reunión de los malhechores y no vivo con el malvado. 6 Lavo mis manos en inocencia y así caminaré alrededor de tu altar, oh SEÑOR, 7 para cantar en voz alta una canción de alabanza y declarar todos tus hechos maravillosos. 8 oh SEÑOR, yo amo la casa donde vives, el lugar donde habita Tu gloria. 9 No me barras junto con los pecadores, o mi vida con la gente que está sedienta de sangre, 10 en cuyas manos hay conspiración y cuya mano derecha está llena de sobornos. 11 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo caminaré en integridad; redímeme y ten misericordia de mí. 12 Mi pie está sobre tierra firme; en la asamblea bendeciré al SEÑOR.

Psalms 26:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

he andado
La palabra "andado" es una metáfora del comportamiento. Traducción Alterna: "Me he comportado"

en el SEÑOR
El uso en tercera persona de "SEÑOR" se puede establecer en segunda persona. Traducción Alterna: "en ti"

sin dudar
Se habla de la duda como si estuviera perdiendo el equilibrio y saludando de un lado a otro. Traducción Alterna: "sin dudar"

Examíname
"Pruébame"

prueba la puerza de mis íntimos pensamientos y de mi corazón Aquí "íntimos pensamientos" y "corazón" significan motivos. Traducción Alterna: "prueba si mis motivos son buenos"

Pues Tu pacto de fidelidad está ante mis ojos Aquí los "ojos" representan los pensamientos de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Porque siempre pienso en lo fiel que eres conmigo por tu pacto"

yo camino en tu fidelidad
La palabra "caminar" es una metáfora del comportamiento. Traducción Alterna: "Conduzco mi vida de acuerdo con tu fidelidad" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) o "Me comporto como lo hago por tu fidelidad"

Psalms 26:4

No me asocio con
"No mantengo compañía con" o "No me siento con"

con gente deshonesta
"con los que engañan a los demás"

tampoco me uno con gente deshonesta Esto significa lo mismo que la primera parte de la oración. Traducción Alterna: "y no me uno a personas deshonestas"

gente deshonesta
"hipócritas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) o "aquellos que mienten a otros"

la reunión de los malhechores
"los que se juntan para hacer el mal"

el malvado
Este es un adjetivo nominal. Traducción Alterna: "gente malvada" o "aquellos que son malvados"

Psalms 26:6

Lavo mis manos en inocencia
Esto parece referirse a un lavado ritual de manos en agua para simbolizar la libertad del pecado y la culpa.

caminaré alrededor de tu altar
Esta fue una acción de adoración que los israelitas estaban acostumbrados a hacer.

la casa donde vives
Los posibles significados son 1) si una persona escribió esto después del tiempo de David, entonces el escritor se refiere al templo en Jerusalén o 2) si David escribió esto, entonces esto se refiere a la tienda que Dios le dijo a su pueblo que estableciera para que pudieran adorarlo allí.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el lugar donde habita Tu gloria Aquí "gloria" representa la presencia y el poder de Dios, que es similar a una luz muy brillante. Traducción Alterna: "el lugar donde la gente puede ver la gloriosa luz de tu presencia"

Psalms 26:9

No me barras junto con los pecadores
"Barrer" es una metáfora de la destrucción. Traducción Alterna: "No me destruyas junto con los pecadores"

o mi vida
Se sobrentiende la palabra "barrido". Traducción Alterna: "o barrer mi vida" la gente que está sedienta de sangre

La frase "sedienta de sangre" representa a una persona que quiere matar a otras personas. Traducción Alterna: "personas que están ansiosas por derramar la sangre de otros" o "personas que son asesinas"

en cuyas manos
"Manos" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "personas en las que" conspiración

"un plan malvado"

Psalms 26:11

Pero en cuanto a mí
Esta frase muestra que el escritor está cambiando de hablar sobre personas malvadas a hablar de sí mismo.

yo caminaré en integridad;
"Caminar" es una metáfora del comportamiento. Traducción Alterna: "Me comportaré con integridad"

Mi pie está
Aquí "pie" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Me paro" tierra firme

Los significados posibles son que "tierra firme" representa 1) un lugar seguro o 2) comportamiento correcto en la asamblea bendeciré al SEÑOR

"Cuando me reúna con el pueblo de Israel, te alabaré"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 El SEÑOR es mi luz y mi salvación; ¿a quien yo debo temer? El SEÑOR es el refugio de mi vida; ¿A quién debería temer? 2 Cuando los hacedores de maldad se acercaron a mí para devorar mi carne, mis adversarios y mis enemigos tropezaron y cayeron. 3 Aunque un ejercito acampe contra mí, mi corazón no temerá; aunque guerra se levante en mi contra, aún así yo me mantendré confiado. 4 Una cosa yo le he pedido al SEÑOR, y yo buscaré esto: que yo pueda vivir en la casa del SEÑOR todos los días de mi vida, para ver la belleza del SEÑOR y para meditar en Su templo. 5 Pues en los días de dificultades Él me esconderá en Su refugio; en la cobertura de Su tienda el me esconderá. ¡Él me levantará alto en una roca! 6 ¡Entonces mi cabeza será levantada en alto sobre mis enemigos alrededor de mí, y yo ofreceré sacrificios de alegría en Su tienda! ¡Yo cantaré y haré canciones al SEÑOR! 7 ¡Oye, oh SEÑOR, mi voz cuando yo a Ti clamo! ¡Ten misericordia de mí, y contéstame! 8 Mi corazón dice de Tí: "Busca Su rostro" ¡Tu rostro yo busco, oh SEÑOR! 9 ¡No escondas Tu rostro de mí, no apartes a Tu siervo en ira! ¡Tu has sido mi ayudador, no me dejes ni me abandones, Dios de mi salvación! 10 Aún si mi padre y madre me dejaren, El SEÑOR me tomará. 11 ¡Enséñame Tus caminos, oh SEÑOR! Guíame por sendas llanas a causa de mis enemigos. 12 ¡No me entregues a los deseos de mis enemigos, porque falsos testigos se han levantado contra mí, y ellos respiran violencia! 13 ¿Qué me hubiera pasado si yo no hubiera creído que yo vería la bondad del SEÑOR en la tierra de los vivientes? 14 ¡Espera al SEÑOR; se fuerte, y que tu corazón sea valiente! ¡Espera al SEÑOR!

Psalms 27:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

El SEÑOR es mi luz
Aquí la "luz" representa la vida. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es la fuente de mi vida"

¿A quién debería temer?
Esta pregunta enfatiza que no hay nadie a quien David deba temer. Traducción Alterna: "No le tendré miedo a nadie"

El SEÑOR es el refugio de mi vida
Esto habla de El SEÑOR como si fuera un lugar donde la gente puede ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es quien me mantiene a salvo"

¿A quién debería temer?
Esta pregunta enfatiza que no hay nadie a quien David deba temer. Traducción Alterna: "No temeré a nadie"

Psalms 27:2

para devorar mi carne
Se habla de destruir a alguien por completo como si se estuviera devorando la carne de una persona. Él no quiso decir que quisieran comer su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "para destruirme"

mis adversarios y mis enemigos Estas palabras significan lo mismo. Estos son los malvados que se le acercaron.

tropezaron y cayeron
Esto representa a los enemigos del escritor que no cumplen con sus planes de dañar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "no tuvieron éxito" o "fallaron"

Aunque un ejercito acampe contra mí
"aunque un ejército me rodee" o "aunque un ejército ponga sus tiendas a mi alrededor"

mi corazón no temerá Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "No tendré miedo"

aunque guerra se levante
Se habla de los enemigos del escritor como si ellos mismos fueran una guerra. Traducción Alterna: "aunque mis enemigos vengan a pelear conmigo"

me mantendré confiado
"Seguiré confiando en que Dios me ayudará"

Psalms 27:4

le he pedido al SEÑOR
"Le pedí al SEÑOR que me dejara hacer"

yo buscaré esto
Se habla de una persona que realmente quiere algo y que continuamente se lo pide a Dios como si estuviera buscando algo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para ver la belleza del SEÑOR Se habla del maravilloso carácter de Dios como si fuera belleza física. Traducción Alterna: "para ver cuán maravilloso es El SEÑOR"

para meditar en Su templo Los posibles significados son 1) "preguntarle a Dios qué quiere que haga" o 2) "pensar cuidadosamente acerca de Dios en su templo".

Psalms 27:5

en los días de dificultades
Aquí "día" representa un período de tiempo más largo. Traducción Alterna: "en el tiempo de problemas" o "cuando tengo problemas"

Él me esconderá
"Él me protegerá"

Su refugio... Su tienda Ambos se refieren al tabernáculo donde el escritor está adorando a Dios.

en la cobertura de Su tienda
La palabra "cubrir" representa algo que oculta y protege.

Él me levantará alto en una roca
Se habla de que Dios mantiene al escritor a salvo de sus enemigos como si Dios lo estuviera colocando en una roca alta donde sus enemigos no pueden alcanzarlo.

mi cabeza será levantada en alto sobre mis enemigos
Esto representa al escritor que recibe orgullo u honor cuando derrota a sus enemigos. Se puede indicar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente me honrará cuando gane la lucha contra mis enemigos" o "Dios me honrará al permitirme derrotar a mis enemigos"

Psalms 27:7

Oye, oh SEÑOR, mi voz Aquí "voz" representa lo que dicen los escritores. Traducción Alterna: "Escúchame, SEÑOR"

contéstame
Esto implica que El SEÑOR escucha la oración del escritor y que hará lo que el escritor le pida. Traducción Alterna: "responde mi oración"

Mi corazón dice
Aquí "corazón" representa la mente o los pensamientos de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "En mi corazón digo" o "Me digo a mí mismo"

Tu rostro yo busco
Se habla de una persona que va al templo a orar al SEÑOR como si estuviera buscándolo. Aquí "rostro" representa a Dios como tal. Traducción Alterna: "Ve y ora al SEÑOR"

Tu rostro yo busco, oh SEÑOR!
Se habla de una persona que va al templo a orar al SEÑOR como si estuviera buscándolo. Aquí "rostro" representa a Dios como tal. Traducción Alterna: "Iré a tu templo a orar a Ti" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 27:9

No escondas Tu rostro de mí
El rostro aquí representa la atención del SEÑOR. La frase "no escondas tu rostro" es una forma de pedirle a Dios que no lo rechace. Traducción Alterna: "No me rechaces" o "No dejes de cuidarme"

no apartes a Tu siervo en ira David dijo "Tu siervo" para referirse a sí mismo de una manera humilde. Traducción Alterna: "no te enfades conmigo"

dejes ni me abandones
Las palabras "dejes" y "abandones" significan lo mismo. El escritor enfatiza que no quiere que Dios lo deje.

ni me abandones
Se sobrentienden las palabras "y no". Traducción Alterna: "y no me abandones" o "y no me dejes"

Dios de mi salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como "salva". Traducción Alterna: "Dios que me salva" o "porque Tú eres el Dios que me salva"

Aún si mi padre y madre me dejaren
"Incluso si mi padre y mi madre me abandonaran". No está diciendo que realmente hayan hecho esto o que lo harían. Su punto es que incluso si hicieran eso, Dios no lo abandonaría.

El SEÑOR me tomará
"El SEÑOR me cuidará" o "El SEÑOR me cuidará"

Psalms 27:11

Enséñame Tus caminos
Se habla de cómo debe comportarse una persona como si fuera un camino o senda que esa persona debería recorrer. Traducción Alterna: "Enséñame cómo quieres que viva" o "Enséñame a hacer lo que quieres que haga"

Guíame por sendas llanas
Se dice que El SEÑOR mantiene al escritor a salvo de sus enemigos como si lo guiara por un camino llano donde no tropezará ni caerá. Traducción Alterna: "Mantenme a salvo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

No me entregues a los deseos de mis enemigos El sustantivo abstracto "deseos" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que mis enemigos me hagan lo que deseen"

se han levantado contra mí
"levantado" es una expresión idiomática que significa que un testigo se presentó en la corte para presentar testimonio. Traducción Alterna: "se han puesto de pie para hablar en mi contra"

ellos respiran violencia
Aquí se habla de la violencia como si fuera algo que una persona pudiera exhalar. Traducción Alterna: "dicen que me harán cosas violentas"

Psalms 27:13

Qué me hubiera pasado
Esta pregunta retórica puede formularse positivamente. Traducción Alterna: "Algo malo me hubiera pasado"

la bondad del SEÑOR
El sustantivo abstracto "bondad" puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas buenas que hace El SEÑOR"

en la tierra de los vivientes
Esto se refiere a estar vivo. Traducción Alterna: "mientras estoy vivo"

Espera al SEÑOR... ¡Espera al SEÑOR!
Este versículo puede ser 1) el escritor que se habla a sí mismo o 2) el escritor que habla a los demás o 3) alguien que habla al escritor.

que tu corazón sea valiente
Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "sé valiente" ¡Espera al SEÑOR!

Esta línea se repite al final del salmo como una forma de terminarlo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 A tí, oh SEÑOR, yo clamo, roca mía, no me ingnores. Si Tu no me respondes, yo acompañaré a aquellos que bajan a la sepultura. 2 ¡Escucha el sonido de mi súplica cuando pido por Tu ayuda, cuando yo levanto mis manos hacia Tu lugar santísimo! 3 No me arrastres lejos con los malvados, aquellos que hacen iniquidad, quienes hablan paz con sus vecinos pero tienen maldad en sus corazones. 4 Dale a ellos lo que sus obras merecen y págales lo que su maldad demanda, págales por el trabajo de sus manos y devuelve a ellos lo que se merecen. 5 Porque ellos no entienden las obras del SEÑOR o el trabajo de Sus manos, Él los derrumbará y nunca los reconstruirá. 6 ¡Bendito sea El SEÑOR porque ha escuchado el sonido de mi ruego! 7 El SEÑOR es mi fuerza y mi escudo; mi corazón confía en Él, y yo soy ayudado. Por esto mi corazón se regocija grandemente, y yo Le adoraré con canciones. 8 El SEÑOR es la fuerza de su pueblo y Él es el refugio de salvación de Su ungido. 9 Salva a Tu pueblo y bendice Tu heredad. Sé su pastor y guíalos por siempre.

Psalms 28:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

yo clamo
"Llamo ruidosamente"

roca mía
Esta es una metáfora de la fuerza. Traducción Alterna: "mi fuerza"

no me ingnores
"no te quedes callado" o "no me dejes solo"

yo acompañaré a aquellos que bajan a la sepultura Se habla de las personas que mueren como si fueran a la tumba. Traducción Alterna: "Moriré como los que están en la tumba"

Escucha el sonido de mi súplica Aquí "sonido" se refiere al contenido de su solicitud. Traducción Alterna: "Escucha mi fuerte petición" yo levanto mis manos hacia Tu lugar santísimo Levantar las manos es un símbolo de adoración. El escritor no está adorando al lugar santo, sino al SEÑOR que vive en el lugar santo.

Tu lugar santísimo
Los significados posibles son 1) si David escribió esto, entonces esto se refiere a la tienda que Dios le dijo a su pueblo que creara para que pudieran adorarlo allí, o 2) si una persona escribió esto después del tiempo de David, entonces el escritor está refiriéndose al templo en Jerusalén.

Psalms 28:3

No me arrastres lejos
Se habla de que Dios castiga a las personas como si físicamente las arrastrara. En esta metáfora, El SEÑOR puede estar arrastrándolos a prisión, al exilio o la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "No me quites"

quienes hablan paz con sus vecinos Aquí "vecinos" se refiere a las personas en general. Traducción Alterna: "que hablan pacíficamente con otras personas"

pero tienen maldad en sus corazones Aquí "corazones" representa la mente o los pensamientos de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "pero están pensando en algo malvado sobre ellos"

Dale a ellos lo que sus obras merecen... págales lo que su maldad demanda Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Se usan juntos para enfatizar que merecen que Dios los castigue.

el trabajo de sus manos
Aquí las "manos" representan lo que la persona ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que han hecho"

Dale a ellos lo que sus obras merecen
"dales lo que se merecen"

Porque ellos no entienden... nunca los reconstruirá
No está claro si el versículo 5 se entiende mejor como una declaración (como en la Biblia Literal Desbloqueada) o como una solicitud (como en la Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada).

ellos no entienden las obras del SEÑOR
Se da a entender que "no entienden" significa que ignoran o no honran las obras del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "no consideran con honor lo que Yahweh ha hecho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el trabajo de Sus manos
Aquí "manos" representa lo que El SEÑOR ha hecho o creado. Traducción Alterna: "lo que ha creado"

Él los derrumbará y nunca los reconstruirá
Se habla del castigo de las personas malvadas como si fueran un edificio o una ciudad que sería destruida.

Psalms 28:6

ha escuchado el sonido de mi ruego
Aquí "sonido" representa lo que dijo el escritor. Traducción Alterna: "escuchó lo que dije cuando le supliqué"

El SEÑOR es mi fuerza
El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" puede ser expresado como "fuerte". Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR me hace fuerte"

mi escudo
Esto representa al SEÑOR protegiendo al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Él me protege" mi corazón confía Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Confío" yo soy ayudado

Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Él me ayuda" mi corazón se regocija grandemente Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Me alegro mucho"

El SEÑOR es la fuerza de su pueblo El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" se puede expresar como "fuerte". Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR fortalece a su pueblo"

y Él es el refugio de salvación de Su ungido Se dice que El SEÑOR que mantiene al rey a salvo como si fuera un lugar al que el rey podría ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "mantiene a salvo al que designó para ser rey"

Su ungido
Representan al rey.

Psalms 28:9

Tu heredad
Esto habla del pueblo de Dios como si ellos fueran algo que Dios heredó. Traducción Alterna: "Tu posesión" o "aquellos que Te pertenecen"

Sé su pastor y guíalos por siempre
El escritor habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un pastor y el pueblo sus ovejas. Un pastor cargaría una oveja si necesitara ayuda o protección. Traducción Alterna: "Sé como su pastor y protégelos para siempre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 ¡Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, ustedes hijos de Dios! Den alabanzas al SEÑOR por su gloria y su fortaleza. 2 Den al SEÑOR la gloria que su nombre merece. Inclínense ante el SEÑOR en el esplendor de la santidad. 3 La voz del SEÑOR es escuchada sobre las aguas; la gloria de Dios truena, El SEÑOR truena sobre muchas aguas. 4 La voz del SEÑOR es poderosa; la voz del SEÑOR es majestuosa. 5 La voz del SEÑOR rompe los cedros; el SEÑOR rompe en pedazos los cedros del Líbano. 6 Él hace al Líbano saltar como un becerro y a Sirión como un búfalo joven. 7 La voz del SEÑOR envía llamas de fuego. 8 La voz del SEÑOR estremece el desierto; el SEÑOR estremece el desierto de Cades. 9 La voz del SEÑOR hace que los robles se tuerzan y desnuda el bosque. Todos en Su templo dicen: "¡Gloria!" 10 El SEÑOR se sienta como el Rey sobre la inundación; el SEÑOR se sienta como el Rey para siempre. 11 El SEÑOR da fuerza a su pueblo; el SEÑOR bendice a su pueblo con paz.

Psalms 29:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

hijos de Dios
La frase "hijos de" es una manera de decir "teniendo las características de". Traducción Alterna: "ustedes hombres poderosos"

Den alabanzas al SEÑOR por su gloria y su fortaleza
Los nombres abstractos "gloria" y "fortaleza" pueden ser expresados como adjetivos. Traducción Alterna: "Den alabanza al SEÑOR porque Él es glorioso y fuerte"

Den al SEÑOR la gloria que su nombre merece
El nombre abstracto "honor" puede ser expresado como un verbo o adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Honren al SEÑOR como Su nombre merece" o "Proclamen que El SEÑOR es glorioso como Su nombre merece"

que su nombre merece
La frase "Su nombre" se refiere al SEÑOR o Su reputación. Traducción Alterna: "como es apropiado por quién Él es"

Psalms 29:3

Información General:
El salmo muestra el poder del SEÑOR y gloria.

La voz del SEÑOR es escuchada sobre las aguas
La voz de Dios es más alta y fuerte que todos los demás sonidos y ruidos. Puede ser oída sobre otros sonidos fuertes como el sonido de las aguas. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando El SEÑOR habla Su voz es más fuerte que el sonido del mar" o "El SEÑOR grita más fuerte que el sonido de las aguas"

sobre las aguas
Esto se refiere a los mares o al océano. Estas aguas hacen un ruido fuerte mientras las olas se elevan y caen.

La voz del SEÑOR
Todas las ocurrencias de "voz" aquí representan al SEÑOR hablando. El escritor está enfatizando que cuando El SEÑOR habla, el sonido es tan alto que es oído sobre las aguas, y es tan poderoso que puede destruir grandes árboles. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando El SEÑOR habla, Su voz"

la gloria de Dios truena Esto habla acerca de Dios hablando como si fuera el sonido de un trueno. Como el sonido del trueno, la voz del SEÑOR puede ser oída por largas distancias. Traducción Alterna: "La voz del glorioso Dios es fuerte como un trueno" o "Cuando el Dios glorioso habla retumba como un trueno"

sobre muchas aguas
"sobre los grandes cuerpos de agua"

Psalms 29:6

Declaración de Conexión:
El escritor continúa describiendo el poder de la voz de Dios.

Él hace al Líbano saltar como un becerro
Se habla del Líbano como si fuera un ternero joven. Esto enfatiza que cuando El SEÑOR habla, el poder de su voz sacude el suelo. Traducción Alterna: "Hace temblar la tierra del Líbano como un ternero saltando"

saltar
saltar ligeramente de un lado a otro

Sirión como un búfalo joven
Se habla del Sirión como si fuera un buey joven. Esto enfatiza que cuando El SEÑOR habla, el poder

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

de su voz sacude el suelo. Puede ser útil agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción Alterna: "hace que el Sirión salte como un buey joven"

Sirión
Esta es una montaña en el Líbano. También se llama Monte Hermón.

La voz del SEÑOR envía llamas de fuego Todas las ocurrencias de "voz" aquí representan al SEÑOR hablando. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando El SEÑOR habla hace que un rayo destelle en el cielo"

llamas de fuego
Esto se refiere al rayo.

Psalms 29:9

La voz del SEÑOR hace
Aquí "voz" representa al SEÑOR hablando. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando El SEÑOR habla, el sonido hace"

los robles se tuerzan
"los árboles grandes tiemblen" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

desnuda el bosque
Se habla de remover las hojas de los árboles como si fuera remover su ropa. Traducción Alterna: "desnuda las hojas de los árboles"

El SEÑOR se sienta como el Rey Esto significa que El SEÑOR gobierna. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR gobierna" o "El SEÑOR es rey"

sobre la inundación
Aquí "inundación" se refiere a las aguas que cubren la tierra.

Psalms 29:11

el SEÑOR bendice a su pueblo con paz
La palabra "paz" es nombre abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR bendice a Su pueblo al hacerlos prosperar y vivir pacificamente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Yo te exaltaré, oh SEÑOR, porque me has levantado y no has permitido que mis enemigos se alegren sobre mí. 2 SEÑOR, mi Dios, yo clamé a Ti por ayuda, y Tú me sanaste. 3 SEÑOR, Tú has levantado mi alma del Seol; haz guardado mi vida de bajar a la tumba. 4 ¡Canten alabanzas al SEÑOR, ustedes su gente fiel! Den gracias cuando ustedes recuerden Su santidad. 5 Porque Su enojo dura solo un momento; pero Su favor es para toda la vida. El llanto viene por una noche, pero en la mañana viene la alegría. 6 Confiadamente dije: "Jamás seré sacudido." 7 SEÑOR, por Tu favor me has establecido a mí como una montaña fuerte; pero cuando escondíste Tu rostro, yo estaba turbado. 8 ¡Yo clamé a Ti, oh SEÑOR, y el favor de mi SEÑOR busqué! 9 ¿Qué ventajas hay allí en mi muerte, si yo bajo a la tumba? ¿Te alabará el polvo? ¿Declarará Tu confiabilidad? 10 Escucha, oh SEÑOR, ¡ten misericordia de mí! SEÑOR, sé Tú mi Ayudador. 11 Has cambiado mi luto por baile; has removido mi tela de saco y me haz vestido con alegría. 12 Por tanto así ahora cantaré gloria mía alabanzas a Tí y no estaré callado; SEÑOR Dios mío, ¡por siempre te daré gracias a Tí!

Psalms 30:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

una canción para la dedicación del templo
"Esta canción fue cantada cuando el templo fue dedicado"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

me has levantado
El escritor habla del SEÑOR rescatándolo y guardándolo de morir como si Dios lo hubiera sacado de un pozo profundo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú me rescataste"

levantado mi alma del Seol Dado que el "Seol" era el lugar a donde iban las personas muertas, se refiere a la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "evitó que me muriera" levantado mi alma Aquí "mi alma" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "me trajiste" de bajar a la tumba

La "tumba" representa la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "de morir"

Psalms 30:4

Den gracias cuando ustedes recuerden Su santidad
El nombre abstracto "santidad" puede ser expresado como "santo". Traducción Alterna: 'Recuerden que Dios es santo y agradézcanle"

Su enojo dura solo un momento
"Su ira dura solo un momento". El nombre abstracto "ira" puede ser expresado como "molestia". Traducción Alterna: "Él está molesto sólo por un momento"

un momento
Aquí "momento" representa una corta cantidad de tiempo. Traducción Alterna: "un corto tiempo" pero Su favor es para toda la vida

El nombre abstracto "favor" puede ser expresado como adjetivo "bueno". Traducción Alterna: "pero Él es bueno con nosotros todas nuestras vidas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

El llanto viene por una noche, pero en la mañana
Esto habla sobre "llanto" y "alegría" como si fueran algo que viaja y llega en un momento determinado. Traducción Alterna: "Podríamos llorar durante la noche, pero a la siguiente mañana estaremos gozosos"

Psalms 30:6

Confiadamente
La palabra "confiadamente" es un nombre abstracto. El escritor recuerda un tiempo cuando él estaba prosperando y se sentía confiado y seguro. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando yo estaba confiado" o "Cuando me sentía seguro"

Jamás seré sacudido
La palabra "sacudido" es una metáfora para derrota. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie me derrotará"

por Tu favor
El nombre abstracto "favor" puede ser expresado como el verbo "favorecido" o el adjetivo "bueno". Traducción Alterna: "cuando me favorecías" o "cuando eras bueno conmigo"

me has establecido a mí como una montaña fuerte
Se habla de la seguridad del escritor como si fuera una gran montaña. Traducción Alterna: "me hiciste tan seguro como una alta montaña"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

cuando escondíste Tu rostro Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "cuando dejaste de ayudarme" o "cuando me rechazaste" yo estaba turbado

"yo estaba temeroso" o "yo estaba preocupado"

favor de mi SEÑOR busqué
La frase "busqué favor" significa pedir ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "Te rogué que me ayudaras" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

de mi SEÑOR
El escritor se está refiriendo al SEÑOR en tercera persona. Puede ser expresado en segunda persona. Traducción Alterna: "de Ti, mi Señor"

Psalms 30:9

Qué ventajas... sé Tú mi Ayudador
Esto puede expresarse como una cita directa como en la Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada.

¿Qué ventajas hay allí en mi muerte, si yo bajo a la tumba?
El escritor usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que no tendría ningún valor para Dios si estuviera muerto. Traducción Alterna: "No hay ninguna ventaja en mi muerte y en bajar a la tumba"

¿Te alabará el polvo? ¿Declarará Tu confiabilidad?
El escritor usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que su cuerpo muerto y en descomposición no puede alabar a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Mi polvo ciertamente no te elogiará ni le contará a los demás lo confiable que eres"

el polvo
Esto se refiere al cuerpo del escritor que se descompondrá y se convertirá en polvo cuando esté muerto. Traducción Alterna: "mi cuerpo descompuesto"

Psalms 30:11

Has cambiado mi luto por baile
Era costumbre que los judíos bailaran cuando estaban muy felices. Los sustantivos abstractos "luto" y "baile" pueden expresarse como verbos. Traducción Alterna: "has hecho que deje de llorar y que baile con alegría" has removido mi tela de saco

La tela de saco estaba asociada con el duelo y la tristeza. Traducción Alterna: "has hecho que ya no esté triste"

vestido con alegría
El escritor habla de la alegría como si fuera una prenda que pudiera ponerse. Traducción Alterna: "me hizo alegrarme"

cantaré gloria mía alabanzas a Tí Aquí "mi gloria" se refiere al alma del escritor, al corazón o al ser interior. Esto representa a toda la persona del escritor, que adora a Dios porque Dios lo ha alegrado. Traducción Alterna: "Te cantaré alabanzas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 En Tí, SEÑOR, yo tomo refugio; jamás me dejes ser humillado. Réscatame en tu justicia. 2 Escúchame, réscatame pronto; se mi Roca de refugio, una fortaleza para salvarme. 3 Porque Tú eres mi Roca y mi fortaleza; por lo tanto, por el bien de Tu nombre, llévame y guíame. 4 Sácame de la red que han escondido para mí, porque tú eres mi refugio. 5 En tus manos yo encomiendo mi espíritu; Tú me redimirás, oh SEÑOR, Dios digno de confianza. 6 Yo odio a aquellos quienes sirven a ídolos inútiles, pero yo confío en el SEÑOR. 7 Yo me alegraré y gozozaré en la fidelidad de tu pacto, pues Tú viste mi aflicción; Tú conocías la angustia de mi alma. 8 Tú no me has entregado a la mano de mi enemigo. Tú has plantado mis pies en un lugar ancho y abierto. 9 Ten misericordia de mí, oh SEÑOR, pues estoy angustiado; se consumen de pena mis ojos, mi alma y mi cuerpo. 10 Pues mi vida está gastada de tristeza y mis años en suspiros. Mis fuerzas fallan por causa de mi pecado, y mis huesos se desgastan. 11 Debido a mis enemigos, la gente me rechaza; mis vecinos se asombran con mi situación, y aquellos que me conocen están horrorizados. Aquellos que me ven en las calles huyen de mí. 12 Estoy olvidado como un muerto en quien nadie piensa. Soy como un vaso roto. 13 Pues he escuchado las murmuraciones de muchos, espantosas noticias desde todos lados, mientras ellos hacen planes en mi contra. Ellos conspiran para quitarme la vida. 14 Pero yo confío en Tí, oh SEÑOR; yo digo: "Tú eres mi Dios." 15 Mi destino está en tus manos. Réscatame de las manos de mis enemigos y de aquellos que me persiguen. 16 Haz Tu rostro resplandecer sobre tu siervo; sálvame en la fidelidad de tu pacto. 17 No permitas que sea yo humillado, oh SEÑOR; ¡pues estoy clamando a Ti! ¡Que los malvados sean humillados! Que ellos estén silenciados en el Seol. 18 Que los labios mentirosos que desafiantemente hablan en contra de los justos con arrogancia y desprecio, sean silenciados. 19 ¡Cuan grande es Tu bondad, que Tú haz guardado para esos quienes te reverencian, que Tú haces por aquellos quienes toman refugio en Tí, ante todos los hijos de los hombres! 20 En el refugio de Tu presencia, Tú los escondes de las conspiraciones de los hombres. Tú los escondes en un refugio de la violencia de las lenguas. 21 Bendito sea el SEÑOR, pues me enseñó Su maravillosa fidelidad del pacto cuando yo estaba en ciudad sitiada. 22 Aunque yo diga en mi prisa: "Yo estoy cortado de Tus ojos," aún así Tú escuchas mi súplica por ayuda cuando a Tí clamo. 23 Oh, amen al SEÑOR, todos ustedes fieles seguidores. El SEÑOR protege a los fieles, pero Él paga abundantemente a los arrogantes. 24 Sean fuertes y seguros, todos ustedes quienes confían y esperan por la ayuda del SEÑOR.

Psalms 31:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

En Tí, SEÑOR, yo tomo refugio
Se habla de ir al SEÑOR por protección como de refugiarse en él. Traducción Alterna: "Voy a Ti, SEÑOR, por protección"

jamás me dejes ser humillado Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "no dejes que otros me humillen"

sé mi Roca de refugio, una fortaleza para salvarme La frase "sé mi roca de refugio" es una solicitud de protección. La segunda frase enfatiza la primera.

mi Roca de refugio
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una gran roca que protegería al escritor de ataques. Traducción Alterna: "como una gran roca en la que puedo estar seguro" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

una fortaleza para salvarme
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una fortaleza en la que el escritor estaría protegido de sus enemigos.

Psalms 31:3

mi Roca
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una gran roca que protegería al escritor de ataques. Traducción Alterna: "como una gran roca en la que puedo estar seguro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi fortaleza
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una fortaleza en la que el escritor estaría protegido de sus enemigos.

por el bien de Tu nombre
En esta frase "nombre" representa al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "para que se honre Tu nombre" o "para que pueda adorarte"

llévame y guíame
Las palabras "llévame" y "guíame" significan básicamente lo mismo y fortalecen la solicitud de que el SEÑOR lo guíe. Traducción Alterna: "llévame a donde quieres que vaya"

Sácame de la red que han escondido para mí
Se habla del escritor como si fuera un pájaro atrapado en una red oculta, y espera que el SEÑOR lo libere de la trampa.

tú eres mi refugio.
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un lugar donde el escritor pudiera esconderse de las personas que lo están atacando. Traducción Alterna: "siempre me proteges" o "me das protección constante"

Psalms 31:5

En tus manos
Dios es espíritu, pero aquí se habla de Él como si tuviera manos. Aquí "Tus manos" se refiere al cuidado del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "A Tu cuidado"

encomiendo mi espíritu
Aquí "mi espíritu" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "me pongo"

Dios digno de confianza
"eres un Dios en el que puedo confiar"

Yo odio a aquellos quienes sirven a ídolos inútiles
"Los ídolos no valen nada. Odio a quienes los sirven"

Tú viste mi aflicción... Tú conocías la angustia de mi alma Ambas frases expresan la idea de que Dios sabe acerca de los problemas del escritor.

la angustia de mi alma Aquí "mi alma" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "mi angustia"

Psalms 31:8

Tú has plantado mis pies
Aquí "mis pies" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Me has puesto"

un lugar ancho y abierto
Los hebreos pensaban que los espacios abiertos eran una metáfora de la seguridad y la libertad. Traducción Alterna: "un lugar donde soy libre"

estoy angustiado
"Estoy sufriendo mucho"

mi alma y mi cuerpo
Los términos "alma" y "cuerpo" se utilizan para describir a la persona completa.

Psalms 31:10

Pues mi vida está gastada Aquí "mi vida" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Me he vuelto muy débil"

de tristeza... en suspiros
"por mi dolor... por mi gemido"

mis años en suspiros
Falta la frase "están cansados", pero está implícita. Traducción Alterna: "mis años están cansados de gemir"

Mis fuerzas fallan
Aquí "Mi fuerza" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Me he vuelto débil" mis huesos se desgastan Aquí "mis huesos" se refiere a la salud física del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "mi salud está fallando"

la gente me rechaza
"la gente me insulta"

se asombran con mi situación
"están conmocionados por mi condición"

Psalms 31:12

como un muerto en quien nadie piensa
El escritor dice que la gente lo ha olvidado tanto que es como si ya estuviera muerto.

como un vaso roto
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera completamente inútil. "tan inútil como una olla rota"

las murmuraciones de muchos
Se da a entender que "muchos" se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "mucha gente habla de mí" espantosas noticias desde todos lados

"informes terroríficos de muchas fuentes"

quitarme la vida
Este modismo significa matar a alguien. Traducción Alterna: "matarme"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 31:14

Mi destino está en tus manos Aquí "Tu mano" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Tienes el poder de decidir mi futuro" de aquellos que me persiguen.

"de personas que intentan capturarme"

Haz Tu rostro resplandecer sobre tu siervo
El escritor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia él como si la cara del SEÑOR le iluminara. Traducción Alterna: "Actúa favorablemente hacia tu sirviente"

Psalms 31:17

No permitas que sea yo humillado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que otros me hagan sentir avergonzado" Ver:

Que los malvados sean humillados
"¡Desearía que Dios deshonrara a las personas malvadas!"

los malvados
Esto se refiere a "personas malvadas".

Que ellos estén silenciados en el Seol. Que los labios mentirosos... sean silenciados.
Esta idea se repite para enfatizar el deseo del escritor de que no se escuchen las voces de los malvados.

Que ellos estén silenciados en el Seol Aquí "en el Seol" representa la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "Déjalos morir para que no puedan hablar"

labios mentirosos
Estos representan personas mentirosas. Traducción Alterna: "gente que miente" que desafiantemente hablan en contra de los justos Aquí "el justo" se refiere a las personas que son justas. Traducción Alterna: "que dicen cosas terribles sobre las personas justas"

con arrogancia y desprecio
Estos términos tienen significados similares. Traducción Alterna: "con total falta de respeto"

Psalms 31:19

es Tu bondad
Esto se puede expresar con un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "son las cosas buenas que haces"

que Tú haz guardado Se habla de la bondad del SEÑOR como si fuera algo que podría almacenarse como una cosecha. Traducción Alterna: "que tienes listo para usar" esos quienes te reverencian

"los que te respetan mucho"

toman refugio en Ti
Se habla de ir al SEÑOR para protegerse como de refugiarse en Él. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 31: 1. Traducción Alterna: "los que acuden a Ti por protección"

En el refugio de Tu presencia, Tú los escondes... Tú los escondes en un refugio Estas frases significan que Dios los protege.

En el refugio
Se habla de la presencia del SEÑOR como si fuera un edificio fuerte donde el escritor estaría a salvo.

Tú los escondes en un refugio Aquí un "refugio" representa un lugar seguro. Traducción Alterna: "Proporcionas un lugar seguro para ellos"

de la violencia de las lenguas Aquí "lenguas" se refiere a las personas que hablan cosas violentas contra el escritor. Traducción Alterna: "donde sus enemigos no puedan hablar mal de ellos"

Psalms 31:21

Yo estoy cortado de Tus ojos Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Me has sacado de Tu presencia"

Tus ojos
Aquí "ojos" se refiere a la presencia del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Tu presencia"

Tú escuchas mi súplica por ayuda
Aquí "súplica" se puede expresar con un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "me escuchaste suplicar por ayuda"

Psalms 31:23

los fieles
Esto se refiere a las personas fieles. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que son fieles"

Él paga abundantemente a los arrogantes Aquí "pagar" es una expresión idiomática que se refiere al castigo. Traducción Alterna: "le da a la gente orgullosa todo el castigo que se merece"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Bendita es la persona cuya transgresión es la perdonado, cuyo pecado es cubierto. 2 Bendito es el hombre a quien el SEÑOR no le reconoce culpa y en cuyo espíritu no hay engaño. 3 Cuando permanecí callado, mis huesos se gastaron, mientras me quejaba todo el día. 4 De día y noche Tu mano estaba pesaba sobre mí. Mi fuerza se marchitó como en sequía de verano. 5 Entonces reconocí mi pecado ante Tí, y ya no oculté mi iniquidad. Yo dije: "Confesaré mis trasgresiones al SEÑOR," y Tú perdonaste la culpa de mi pecado. 6 Por esto, todos los que son piadosos ore a Tí en tiempos de gran angustia. Entonces, cuando las aguas crecientes se desborden, estas no alcanzarán a estos. 7 Tú eres mi refugio; Tú me guardarás del problema. Tú me rodearás con canciones de victoria. 8 Yo te instruiré y te enseñaré el camino que debes seguir. Yo te instruiré con Mi ojo sobre ti. 9 No seas como un caballo o como una mula, que no tienen entendimiento; es solo con freno y embocadura para controlarlos que ellos irán a donde tú quieres que vayan. 10 Los malvados tienen muchas penas, pero la fidelidad del pacto del SEÑOR rodeará a aquellos que confían en Él. 11 Alégrensen en el SEÑOR, y regocígense, ustedes los justos; griten de alegría, todos ustedes que son rectos de corazón.

Psalms 32:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Un masquil
Esto podría referirse a un estilo de música.

cuya transgresión es la perdonado, cuyo pecado es cubierto Estas frases tienen significados similares. Se pueden expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quien Dios perdona su transgresión y cubre su pecado"

cuyo pecado es cubierto Aquí se habla del pecado que se perdona como si estuviera cubierto para que no se pueda ver. Traducción Alterna: "cuyo pecado es ignorado" o "cuyo pecado es olvidado deliberadamente"

a quien el SEÑOR no le reconoce culpa Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quien El SEÑOR ve como inocente" o "quien no es culpable según El SEÑOR"

en cuyo espíritu no hay engaño Aquí "espíritu" se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "en quien no hay engaño" o "quién es completamente honesto"

Psalms 32:3

mis huesos se gastaron Aquí "mis huesos" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Me estaba consumiendo" o "Me estaba debilitando"

todo el día
Esta expresión idiomática significa "continuamente". Traducción Alterna: "todo el tiempo"

día y noche
Estos extremos incluyen todo en el medio. Traducción Alterna: "todo el tiempo"

Tu mano estaba pesaba sobre mí
Aquí "mano" se refiere al SEÑOR. Toda la frase es una expresión idiomática que significa "me afligiste". Traducción Alterna: "me hiciste sufrir mucho"

Mi fuerza se marchitó como en sequía de verano
La fuerza de David se compara con una pequeña planta verde que se vuelve marrón y se desmorona en la estación seca.

Psalms 32:5

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

en tiempos de gran angustia
"Cuando estén en grandes problemas".

Entonces, cuando las aguas crecientes se desborden, estas no alcanzarán a estos Se habla de las dificultades como si fueran una inundación de agua. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces, cuando surjan dificultades como una inundación de agua, esas personas estarán a salvo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 32:7

Tú eres mi refugio
Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un lugar seguro de los ataques de los enemigos del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Eres como un lugar donde puedo esconderme de mis enemigos"

Tú me rodearás con canciones de victoria
Esta metáfora aparentemente significa que la protección del SEÑOR al escritor es la causa de que se canten canciones de victoria. Traducción Alterna: "Por ti cantaré canciones de victoria"

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

Yo te instruiré y te enseñaré el camino
Las palabras "instruir" y "enseñar" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan una instrucción cuidadosa. Traducción Alterna: "Te enseñaré todo sobre el camino"

Yo te instruiré
Aquí el "Yo" es, probablemente, El SEÑOR que habla directamente con David.

el camino que debes seguir
Se habla de vivir de la manera correcta como si fuera un camino que el escritor debe recorrer. Traducción Alterna: "cómo debes vivir tu vida"

con Mi ojo sobre ti Aquí "mi ojo" se refiere a la atención del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "y dirigiré mi atención hacia ti" o "y velaré por ti"

Psalms 32:9

No seas como un caballo... no tienen entendimiento
El escritor compara a las personas sin entendimiento con los caballos y las mulas. Los posibles significados son 1) el escritor está hablando las palabras del SEÑOR a sus lectores, "Todos ustedes no deben ser como un caballo... sin entendimiento" o 2) El SEÑOR está hablando al escritor como a un grupo de personas.

freno y embocadura
Dos herramientas que utilizan las personas para guiar a los caballos y las mulas a donde el jinete quiere que vayan.

donde tú quieres que
"a donde alguien quiera que vayan". El "tú" aquí no se refiere a nadie en particular.

rodeará
La fidelidad del SEÑOR que lo "rodeará" le causa protección y guía. Traducción Alterna: "guiará" o "protegerá".

Psalms 32:11

Alégrensen en el SEÑOR
Aquí "en El SEÑOR" se refiere a lo que El SEÑOR ha hecho por ellos. "Alégrense por lo que El SEÑOR ha hecho"

ustedes los justos
Esto se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes, personas justas" griten de alegría

"griten alegremente" o "griten por la alegría"

que son rectos de corazón Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "personas que son rectas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 Regocíjense en el SEÑOR, ustedes los justos; la alabanza es apropiada para los rectos. 2 Dénle gracias al SEÑOR con el arpa; cántenle alabanzas a Él con el arpa de diez cuerdas. 3 Cántenle a Él una nueva canción; toquen hábilmente y canten con alegría. 4 Pues la palabra del SEÑOR es recta, y todo lo que Él hace es justo. 5 Él ama la rectitud y la justicia. La tierra está llena del pacto de fidelidad del SEÑOR. 6 Por la palabra del SEÑOR los cielos fueron hechos, y todas las estrellas del cielo fueron hechas por el aliento de Su boca. 7 Él junta las aguas del mar como con una pila; Él pone los óceanos en almacenes. 8 Que toda la tierra le tema al SEÑOR; que todos los habitantes del mundo se admiren frente de Él. 9 Pues Él habló y fué hecho; Él ordenó, y todo se colocó en su lugar. 10 El SEÑOR frustra las alianzas de las naciones; Él derroca los planes de los pueblos. 11 Los planes del SEÑOR son eternos, los planes de Su corazón para todas las generaciones. 12 Bendita es la nación cuyo Dios es el SEÑOR, el pueblo que Él ha escogido como Su propia herencia. 13 El SEÑOR mira desde el cielo; Él ve a toda la gente. 14 Desde el lugar donde Él vive, Él mira abajo a todos los que viven en la tierra. 15 Él, Quien da forma a los corazones de todos ellos, observa todas sus obras. 16 El rey no se salva por un enorme ejército; un guerrero no se salva por su gran fuerza. 17 Un caballo es seguridad falsa para la victoria en; a pesar de su gran fuerza, él no puede rescatar. 18 Mira, el ojo del SEÑOR está sobre aquellos que le temen, en aquellos que cuentan con su pacto de fidelidad 19 para rescatar sus vidas de la muerte y mantenerlos vivos en tiempos de hambruna. 20 Nosotros esperamos en el SEÑOR; Él es nuestra ayuda y nuestro escudo. 21 Nuestros corazones se regocijan en Él; porque nosotros confiamos en Su santo nombre. 22 Deja que Tu pacto de fidelidad, oh SEÑOR, esté con nosotros mientras ponemos nuestra esperanza en Tí.

Psalms 33:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Regocíjense en el SEÑOR
Aquí "en El SEÑOR" se refiere a lo que el SEÑOR ha hecho por ellos. "Alégrense por lo que El SEÑOR ha hecho"

la alabanza es apropiada para los rectos
"alabar al SEÑOR es apropiado para la gente recta"

Psalms 33:4

Información General:
Cada verso consta de dos líneas que tienen significados muy similares.

la palabra del SEÑOR es recta
Aquí "recta" se usa como una metáfora de algo que es verdadero. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR siempre hace lo que dice que hará"

Él ama la rectitud y la justicia
Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden expresarse como acciones. Traducción Alterna: "Él ama hacer lo que es correcto y justo" o "Él ama a quienes hacen lo que es correcto y justo"

La tierra está llena del pacto de fidelidad del SEÑOR
Aquí "La tierra está llena" es una expresión idiomática que significa que su fidelidad al pacto se puede ver por toda la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "La fidelidad al pacto del SEÑOR se puede experimentar en todo el mundo"

Por la palabra del SEÑOR los cielos fueron hechos Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Al usar Su palabra, El SEÑOR hizo los cielos"

por el aliento de Su boca Esto se refiere a la palabra del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "por Su palabra"

Psalms 33:7

Información General:
Cada verso consta de dos líneas que tienen significados muy similares.

como con una pila
"como detrás de un dique". El escritor describe la creación del mar como si Dios acumulara todas las aguas juntas.

Él pone los óceanos en almacenes
El escritor describe la creación de los océanos como si Dios los pusiera en un depósito. Traducción Alterna: "Él pone los océanos en su lugar, como un hombre pone granos en un almacén"

Que toda la tierra
Esto se refiere a las personas en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "Que todos en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tema al SEÑOR
Aquí "se pare en asombro" es una expresión idiomática que significa "estar asombrado". Traducción Alterna: "lo honre"

colocó en su lugar
Aquí "se paró en el lugar" es una expresión idiomática que significa "fue creado". Traducción Alterna: "comenzó a existir"

Psalms 33:10

Información General:
Cada verso consta de dos líneas que tienen significados muy similares.

El SEÑOR frustra
"El SEÑOR destruye" o "El SEÑOR rompe"

las alianzas de las naciones Aquí "naciones" se refiere a la gente de estas naciones. Traducción Alterna: "las alianzas de personas de diferentes naciones"

alianzas
Una alianza es un acuerdo entre dos o más naciones para apoyarse mutuamente en una guerra contra un enemigo común.

los planes de los pueblos
"las intenciones de los pueblos". Traducción Alterna: "los planes malvados de los pueblos"

son eternos
Aquí "permanecen" es una expresión idiomática que significa "duran".

los planes de Su corazón para todas las generaciones El término que falta "permanecen" está implícito. Traducción Alterna: "los planes de Su corazón son para todas las generaciones"

los planes de Su corazón Aquí "Su corazón" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Sus planes" para todas las generaciones

"para todas las generaciones futuras". Este es una expresión idiomática que significa "para siempre".

Bendita es la nación Aquí "la nación" se refiere a la gente de la nación. Traducción Alterna: "Bienaventurados los pueblos de la nación"

cuyo Dios es el SEÑOR
"que adora al SEÑOR como Dios"

como Su propia herencia
Las personas que El SEÑOR ha elegido para adorarlo se describen aquí como si fueran una herencia que Él ha recibido.

Psalms 33:13

Él mira abajo
Se habla del lugar donde El SEÑOR vive como si estuviera sobre la tierra donde vive la gente.

da forma a los corazones de todos ellos
Aquí "corazones" se refiere al pensamiento de estas personas. El escritor habla del SEÑOR guiando el pensamiento de la gente como si fuera un alfarero que estaba formando una vasija. Traducción Alterna: "guía su pensamiento como un alfarero que da forma a una vasija"

Psalms 33:16

El rey no se salva por un enorme ejército
Esto podría expresarse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Un gran ejército no es lo que salva a un rey"

Un caballo es seguridad falsa
Aquí "un caballo" representa la parte más fuerte del ejército. Traducción Alterna: "Tener un ejército con caballos fuertes no proporciona seguridad"

Psalms 33:18

Mira
Esta palabra muestra que un nuevo tema comienza en este salmo. Traducción Alterna: "Ve" o "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que voy a decirte"

el ojo del SEÑOR
Aquí "ojo" se refiere a la atención del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "La atención del SEÑOR" que cuentan con

"quienes esperan por" o "quienes tienen esperanza por"

para rescatar sus vidas de la muerte Aquí "sus vidas" se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "para evitar que mueran"

Psalms 33:20

Nosotros esperamos en el SEÑOR
Aquí "esperar" es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a la confianza. Traducción Alterna: "Confiamos en El SEÑOR"

Él es nuestra ayuda y nuestro escudo
Aquí se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un escudo que protege a los soldados en la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "Él es nuestro ayudador y nos protege como un escudo"

Nuestros corazones se regocijan Aquí "corazones" se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Nos regocijamos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en Su santo nombre
Aquí "santo nombre" se refiere al carácter sagrado del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "en Su carácter sagrado" o "en Él porque es santo"

Psalms 33:22

esté con nosotros
Esta expresión idiomática significa "ayúdanos". Traducción Alterna: "trabaja por nuestro bien" o "ayúdanos" o "protégenos"

mientras ponemos nuestra esperanza en Ti
"mientras esperamos Tu ayuda"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 Yo alabaré al SEÑOR en todos los tiempos, Su alabanza estará por siempre en mi boca. 2 ¡Yo alabaré al SEÑOR! Que los oprimidos escuchen y se regocigen. 3 Alaben al SEÑOR conmigo, vamos a levantar juntos Su nombre. 4 Yo busqué al SEÑOR y Él me respondió, y Él me dió la victoria sobre todos mis temores. 5 Los que Lo miraron quedaron radiantes, y sus rostros no será avergonzados. 6 Éste hombre oprimido clamó y lo escuchó el SEÑOR y lo salvó de todos sus dificultades. 7 El ángel del SEÑOR acampa alrededor de aquellos que Le temen y los rescata. 8 Prueben y vean que el SEÑOR es bueno. Bendito es el hombre que toma refugio en Él. 9 Teman al SEÑOR, ustedes Sus santos. Nada le falta a aquellos que Le temen. 10 Los leones jóvenes a veces les falta comida y sufren hambre, pero a esos que buscan al SEÑOR no les faltará nada bueno. 11 Vengan, hijos, escúchenme. Yo les enseñaré a ustedes el temor del SEÑOR. 12 ¿Qué hombre hay que desee vida y ame muchos días, para que él pueda ver lo bueno? 13 Entonces, guarda tu lengua del mal y guarda tus labios de hablar mentiras. 14 Aléjate del mal y haz el bien. Busca la paz y ve tras ella. 15 Los ojos del SEÑOR están sobre los justos y Sus oídos están dirigidos hacia sus llantos. 16 El rostro del SEÑOR está contra aquellos que hacen maldad, para cortar la memoria de ellos de la tierra. 17 Los justos claman y el SEÑOR les escucha y Él los rescata de todos sus dificultades. 18 El SEÑOR está cerca de los quebrantados de corazón, y Él salva a aquellos que están abatidos en espíritu. 19 Muchas son las dificultades de los justos, pero el SEÑOR los libra de todos ellos. 20 Él guarda todos sus huesos, ni uno solo de ellos será roto. 21 El mal matará a los malvados. Esos que odian a los justos serán condenados. 22 El SEÑOR rescata la vida de Sus siervos. Ninguno de los que toman refugio en Él serán condenados.

Psalms 34:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

fingió estar loco
"actuó como un loco"

ante Abimelec
Esto se refiere a un evento histórico específico que los hebreos conocían bien. Traducción Alterna: "cuando estaba en la casa de Abimelec" o "cuando era prisionero de Abimelec"

lo expulsó
"lo envió a la fuerza"

su alabanza siempre estará en mi boca Aquí "en mi boca" se refiere a David hablando del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre lo alabaré en voz alta"

Psalms 34:2

los oprimidos
Esto se refiere a las personas que están oprimidas. Traducción Alterna: "los oprimidos"

Alaben al SEÑOR conmigo
El verbo "alabar" es una orden para un grupo. Traducción Alterna: "Todos deberían alabar al SEÑOR conmigo"

levantar juntos Su nombre Aquí "levantar" es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a exaltar al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "decirle a la gente lo grande que Él es"

Su nombre
Aquí "Su nombre" se refiere al carácter del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Su carácter"

Psalms 34:4

Yo busqué al SEÑOR
Aquí "busqué al SEÑOR" significa que David le estaba pidiendo ayuda al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Oré al SEÑOR"

Los que Lo miraron
Aquí "miraron" representa buscar ayuda de Él. Traducción Alterna: "Los que lo buscan por ayuda" o "los que esperan ayuda solo de Él.

quedaron radiantes
Esta expresión idiomática se refiere a su apariencia de estar alegres. Traducción Alterna: "están alegres"

sus rostros no será avergonzados Aquí "sus rostros" se refiere a las personas que miran al SEÑOR. También se puede expresar en

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "no son avergonzados" o "están orgullosos"

Éste hombre oprimido
David se describe a sí mismo como un hombre oprimido. Traducción Alterna: "Yo estaba oprimido y"

lo escuchó el SEÑOR
Aquí "escuchó" significa que El SEÑOR lo ayudó. Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR me escuchó" o "El SEÑOR lo ayudó"

Psalms 34:7

acampa alrededor
Se habla del ángel del SEÑOR como si fuera un ejército que acampa alrededor de alguien para protegerlo. Traducción Alterna: "guarda"

Prueben y vean que el SEÑOR es bueno
Se habla de la bondad del SEÑOR como algo que se puede saborear y ver. Traducción Alterna: "Prueben y experimenten que El SEÑOR es bueno" toma refugio

Se habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un lugar donde las personas pueden esconderse para protegerse de sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "confía en Él para protegerles"

Nada le falta a aquellos que Le temen
Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Los que Le temen siempre tendrán lo que necesitan"

Psalms 34:10

no les faltará nada bueno Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "siempre tendrán las cosas buenas que necesitan"

hijos
Aquí esto no se refiere a los hijos literales del escritor, sino a las personas a las que está enseñando sobre El SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "mis alumnos" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 34:12

¿Qué hombre hay que desee vida y ame muchos días, para que él pueda ver lo bueno?
La respuesta implícita a esta pregunta es "todo hombre". Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Todo hombre desea la vida y desea vivir muchos días y tener una buena vida"

guarda tu lengua del mal... guarda tus labios de hablar mentiras
Estas dos frases se refieren a lo mismo y se dice de diferentes maneras para enfatizar su importancia.

Entonces, guarda tu lengua del mal Aquí "lengua" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Por lo tanto, no hables mal"

guarda tus labios de hablar mentiras Aquí "labios" se refiere a la persona que habla. Traducción Alterna: "no hables mentiras"

Aléjate del mal
Aquí "Aléjate" es una metáfora de evitar el mal. Traducción Alterna: "Negarse a hacer el mal"

Busca la paz
Aquí "buscar" significa preocuparse por la paz. Traducción Alterna: "Esfuérzate por vivir en paz con otras personas"

Psalms 34:15

Los ojos del SEÑOR están sobre los justos
Aquí "los ojos del SEÑOR " se refiere a su cuidadosa observación. "Los justos" es una referencia a las personas justas. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR observa cuidadosamente a los justos"

Sus oídos están dirigidos hacia sus llantos Aquí "Sus oídos" se refiere al deseo del SEÑOR de responderles. Traducción Alterna: "Él presta atención a sus llantos" o "Él responde a sus llantos" para cortar la memoria de ellos de la tierra El SEÑOR hará que las personas los olviden tan completamente cuando mueran que es como si usara un cuchillo para cortar cualquier recuerdo de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "para que cuando estén muertos, la gente los olvide por completo"

el SEÑOR les escucha
Aquí "escucha" significa que El SEÑOR desea responderles. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR les presta atención"

Psalms 34:18

El SEÑOR está cerca
Aquí "está cerca" significa "listo para ayudar". Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR siempre está listo para ayudar"

los quebrantados de corazón
Se habla de una tristeza profunda como si el corazón de la persona estuviera roto. Traducción Alterna: "personas que están muy tristes"

aquellos que están abatidos en espíritu
Se habla de personas profundamente desanimadas como si sus espíritus estuvieran aplastados. Traducción Alterna: "personas que están profundamente desanimadas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los justos
Esto se refiere a personas que son justas. Traducción Alterna: "los justos"

Él guarda todos sus huesos, ni uno solo de ellos será roto Aquí "todos sus huesos" es literal, pero también implica que El SEÑOR cuida a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Proporciona protección completa para él, no será dañado de ninguna manera"

Psalms 34:21

El mal matará a los malvados
El mal se describe como si fuera un hombre que puede matar personas. Traducción Alterna: "Los hechos malvados de las personas malvadas los matarán"

los malvados
Esto se refiere a personas malvadas.

Esos que odian a los justos serán condenados
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR condenará a los que odian a los justos"

Ninguno de los que toman refugio en Él serán condenados Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. También se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR perdonará a todos los que se refugian en Él"

toman refugio en Él
Se dice que ir al SEÑOR para protegerse es como refugiarse en Él. Traducción Alterna: "van a Él por protección"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 SEÑOR, trabaja contra aquellos quienes trabajan en mi contra; pelea contra aquellos quienes pelean contra mí. 2 Agarra Tu escudo pequeño y escudo grande; levántate y ayúdame. 3 Usa Tu lanza y hacha de batalla contra aquellos quienes me persiguen; dile a mi alma, "Yo soy tu salvación." 4 Haz que aquellos quienes persiguen mi vida sean avergonzados y deshonrados. Haz que aquellos quienes planifican dañarme se vuelvan atrás y confudidos. 5 Que ellos sean como paja frente al viento, cuando el ángel del SEÑOR los expulse. 6 Que su camino sea oscuro y resbaladizo, cuando el angel del SEÑOR los persiga. 7 Sin causa me pusieron una red; sin causa cavaron un pozo para mi vida. 8 Que la destrucción se les adelante por sorpresa. Que la red que pusieron los atrape. Que caigan en ella, hacia su destrucción. 9 Pero me alegraré en el SEÑOR y me regocijaré en su salvación. 10 Todos mis huesos dirán: "SEÑOR, quien como tú, quien rescata al oprimido de aquellos quienes son muy fuertes para ellos y al pobre y al necesitado de aquellos quienes tratan de robarles?" 11 Testigos injustos se levantaron; ellos me acusaron falsamente. 12 Ellos me pagaron mal por bien. Yo estoy en tristeza. 13 Pero, cuando ellos estaban efermos, yo vestí ropa de saco; yo ayuné por ellos con mi cabeza inclinada sobre mi pecho. 14 Me dolí como por mi hermano; me incline en luto como por mi madre. 15 Pero cuando yo tropecé, ellos se regocijaron y se juntaron, se juntaron en mi contra y yo fui sorprendido por ellos. Ellos me desgarraron sin parar. 16 Sin respeto alguno se mofaron de mí; ellos rechinaron sus dientes contra mi. 17 Señor, ¿Hasta cuando mirarás? Rescata mi alma de sus ataques destructivos, mi vida de los leones. 18 Entonces yo te agradeceré en la gran asamblea; te alabaré entre muchas personas. 19 No dejes que mis enemigos engañosos se regocijen sobre mí; no dejes que lleven a cabo sus planes malvados. 20 Porque ellos no hablan paz, ellos inventan palabras engañosas contra aquelllos en nuestra tierra quienes viven en paz. 21 Ellos abren sus bocas anchas en mi contra; ellos dicen: "Ajá, ajá, nuestros ojos han visto ésto." 22 Tú lo haz visto, SEÑOR, no hagas silencio; Señor, no estés lejos de mí. 23 Despierta y levántate en mi defensa; Dios mío y Señor mío, defiende mi causa. 24 Defiéndeme, SEÑOR Dios mío, por causa de tu justicia; no dejes que se regocijen sobre mí. 25 No permitas que digan en su corazón: "Ajá, tenemos lo que queremos."No permitas que digan: "lo hemos devorado." 26 Llévalos a verguenza y confunde a aquellos quienes quieren hacerme daño. Que aquellos que se burlaron de mí sean cubiertos de vergüenza y deshonra. 27 Que aquellos que desearon mi vindicación griten de alegría y se gocen; que digan continuamente: "El SEÑOR sea alabado, El que se deleita en el bienestar de su siervo." 28 Entonces yo hablaré de tu justicia y te alabaré todo el día.

Psalms 35:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

Agarra Tu escudo pequeño y escudo grande... Tu lanza y hacha de batalla Estas frases describen a Dios como un guerrero que se está preparando para la batalla.

Tu escudo pequeño y escudo grande estas son armas defensivas

lanza y hacha de batalla estas son armas ofensivas

aquellos quienes me persiguen;
Los significados posibles son 1) estos enemigos están literalmente persiguiendo al escritor, o 2) esta es una metáfora de las personas que son enemigos del escritor.

dile a mi alma
Esto se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "dime"

Yo soy tu salvación
Esto se puede afirmar sin el sustantivo abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "Soy tu salvador" o "Te salvaré"

Psalms 35:4

Haz que aquellos quienes persiguen mi vida sean avergonzados y deshonrados Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que El SEÑOR avergüence y deshonre a los que buscan mi vida"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Que
"deseo que"

quienes persiguen mi vida
Aquí "persiguen mi vida" significa que desean matar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "que están tratando de matarme"

Haz que aquellos quienes planifican dañarme se vuelvan atrás y confudidos Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que El SEÑOR retroceda y confunda a aquellos que planean dañarme"

se vuelvan atrás
"se vuelvan atrás" es una metáfora de no poder lograr su objetivo. Traducción Alterna: "no tengan éxito"

confudidos
"confundidos" o "perplejos"

como paja frente al viento
Se habla de los enemigos del escritor como si fueran paja que se puede hacer volar fácilmente. Traducción Alterna: "arrastrados por el viento como paja"

su camino
Aquí "su camino" se refiere a sus vidas. Traducción Alterna: "sus vidas"

oscuro y resbaladizo Esto se refiere a unacamino que está oculto y es peligroso. Traducción Alterna: "escondido y lleno de peligros" los persiga

Esto se refiere al ángel del SEÑOR que se opone a los enemigos del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "trabaje contra ellos" o "se oponga a ellos"

Psalms 35:7

me pusieron una red Se habla de los planes de los malvados como si fueran una red que pusieron para atrapar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "quieren atraparme en una red como un animal pequeño"

cavaron un pozo para mi vida
Se habla de los planes de los malvados como si fueran un hoyo que cavaron para atrapar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "querían capturarme en un pozo como a un gran animal"

mi vida
Esto se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "mí"

Que la destrucción se les adelante por sorpresa.
Se habla de la destrucción como si fuera un animal peligroso que los atacaría de repente. Traducción Alterna: "Que sean destruidos de repente" o "Que se sorprendan porque los destruyes de repente"

Que la red que pusieron
Se habla de los planes de los malvados como si fueran una red que colocan para atrapar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "la red que colocaron para capturarme como un animal y hacerme daño"

Que caigan en ella
Esta es la misma metáfora que en el versículo 7. La red está destinada a atrapar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Déjalos caer en el pozo que cavaron para mí"

caigan en ella
Los significados posibles son: 1) caer en el pozo del versículo 7, o 2) caer en la destrucción.

hacia su destrucción
El sustantivo abstracto "destrucción" puede expresarse en otras formas. Traducción Alterna: "para que sean destruidos" o "así es como debes destruirlos"

Psalms 35:9

en su salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "porque me salvas"

Todos mis huesos
Aquí "huesos" se refiere al ser interior más profundo de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Todo mi ser interior"

SEÑOR, quien como tú... aquellos quienes tratan de robarles?
La respuesta implícita a esta pregunta es que nadie es como El SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR, no hay nadie como Tú... aquellos que intentan robarles".

al pobre y al necesitado
Las palabras "pobre" y "necesitado" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que El SEÑOR salva a muchos que necesitan su ayuda.

Psalms 35:11

se levantaron
Esto significa que testifican en un juicio. Traducción Alterna: "se hacen voluntarios para dar un testimonio"

Ellos me pagaron mal por bien
Esta es una metáfora que significa que devuelven mal a cambio del bien que han recibido. Traducción Alterna: "A cambio de las cosas buenas que hago por ellos, me hacen cosas malas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mal... bien
Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden expresarse en otras formas. Traducción Alterna: "cosas malas ... cosas buenas"

Yo estoy en tristeza
"Estoy extremadamente triste"

Psalms 35:13

cuando ellos estaban efermos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los "testigos injustos" (35:11).

yo vestí ropa de saco
"Mostré que estaba triste" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

con mi cabeza inclinada sobre mi pecho
Este fue un símbolo de oración. "Con la cabeza inclinada en oración"

Me dolí como por mi hermano
El escritor estaba tan triste como si su propio hermano hubiera muerto. Traducción Alterna: "llorando como si mi hermano estuviera enfermo" me incliné en luto como por mi madre El escritor lloró como si su propia madre hubiera muerto. Traducción Alterna: "Lloré como si mi propia madre hubiera muerto"

me incliné
Esta era una señal de dolor y sufrimiento.

Psalms 35:15

se juntaron
"se reunieron" o "vinieron juntos"

en mi contra Esto significa que se unieron con el propósito de atacar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "para hacer planes contra mí" o "para planear mi destrucción

Ellos me desgarraron
Aquí trataban al escritor como si fuera un trozo de tela que podrían romper en pedazos. Traducción Alterna: "Me atacaron"

Sin respeto alguno se mofaron de mí
"Con las personas sin valor me ridiculizaron" o 2) "Sin respeto se burlaron de mí"

ellos rechinaron sus dientes contra mi
Esta es una señal de ira y odio. "Hicieron ruidos de molienda con sus dientes hacia mí"

Psalms 35:17

¿Hasta cuando mirarás?
Esta pregunta retórica indica que el escritor quiere que Dios deje de simplemente mirar y comience a ayudarlo. Traducción Alterna: "¿durante cuánto tiempo solo los verás haciendo esto?"

Rescata mi alma
Aquí "alma" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Rescátame" mi vida de los leones La palabra "salva" está implícita. Traducción Alterna: "salva mi vida de los leones"

mi vida
Esto se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "a mí"

de los leones
Aquí el escritor habla de sus enemigos como si fueran leones despiadados. Traducción Alterna: "de mis enemigos que me atacan como animales salvajes"

Psalms 35:19

No dejes que mis enemigos engañosos
"No dejes que mis enemigos, que dicen mentiras sobre mí"

sus planes malvados
"sus planes malvados"

ellos no hablan paz
El sustantivo abstracto "paz" puede expresarse en otras formas. Traducción Alterna: "no le hablan pacíficamente a la gente"

inventan palabras engañosas
"buscan maneras de decir mentiras" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

aquelllos en nuestra tierra quienes viven en paz
"Los que viven en paz en nuestra tierra"

viven en paz
El sustantivo abstracto "paz" puede expresarse en otras formas. Traducción Alterna: "no hagas daño a nadie"

Psalms 35:21

Ellos abren sus bocas anchas en mi contra La razón por la que abren la boca es para acusar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Me gritan para acusarme"

Ajá, ajá
Esta es una exclamación que se usa cuando algo se ve o se entiende de repente. Destaca la declaración que sigue.

nuestros ojos han visto esto Aquí "nuestros ojos" se refiere a los ojos de los enemigos. Se da a entender que están diciendo que vieron al escritor hacer algo mal. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "lo hemos visto" o "vimos las cosas incorrectas que hiciste"

Tú lo haz visto
Aquí "lo" se refiere a las falsas acusaciones de los enemigos del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Has visto cómo me acusaron falsamente"

no hagas silencio
"No ignores lo que hicieron". Esto puede expresarse en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "júzgalos por lo que hicieron"

no estés lejos de mí
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "permanece muy cerca de mí"

Despierta y levántate Esto no significa que Dios esté realmente dormido. El escritor quiere que Dios intervenga. Ambas palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la urgencia de esta solicitud. Traducción Alterna: "¡Siento que estás durmiendo! Despierta"

en mi defensa
Este sustantivo abstracto puede expresarse de otra forma. Traducción Alterna: "para defenderme" mi causa

Esto se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "me"

Psalms 35:24

no dejes que se regocijen sobre mí
"no dejes que se alegran porque estoy sufriendo"

digan en su corazón
Este es una expresión idiomática que significa decirse a uno mismo. Traducción Alterna: "se digan a sí mismos"

Ajá
Esta es una exclamación que se usa cuando algo se ve o se entiende de repente. Enfatiza lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "Sí"

tenemos lo que queremos
Se da a entender que los enemigos del escritor querían que fuera declarado culpable. Traducción Alterna: "¡ha sido declarado culpable tal como lo deseamos!"

lo hemos devorado
Los enemigos del escritor hablan de su destrucción como si fueran animales salvajes que se lo hubieran comido. Traducción Alterna: "Lo hemos tragado" o "Lo hemos destruido"

confunde
"humilla" o "déjalos perplejos"

Que aquellos que se burlaron de mí sean cubiertos de vergüenza y deshonra Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que cubras con vergüenza y deshonres a los que se burlan de mí"

se burlaron
insultar a alguien para hacerlo enojar

cubiertos de vergüenza y deshonra Aquí se habla de vergüenza y deshonra como si fueran prendas vergonzosas que el escritor podría usar. Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden expresarse como verbos. Traducción Alterna: "avergonzados y deshonrados"

vergüenza y deshonra
Estos términos significan casi lo mismo y se usan para enfatizar cuán degradados serán.

Psalms 35:27

mi vindicación
Aquí "vindicación" se refiere al SEÑOR que proclama o juzga inocente al salmista.

que digan continuamente
"que siempre digan"

El SEÑOR sea alabado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alabemos al SEÑOR" que se deleita en

"con quien está feliz" o "con quien está contento"

bienestar
prosperidad, felicidad

hablaré de tu justicia
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" puede expresarse con un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "proclamaré que actúas de la manera correcta"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Un hombre malvado habla de su pecado desde lo profundo de su corazón; no hay temor de Dios en sus ojos. 2 Pues él se conforta a sí mismo, pensando que su pecado no será descubierto y odiado. 3 Sus palabras son pecaminosas y engañosas; no quiere ser sabio ni hacer el bien. 4 Mientras se acuesta en su cama, él planifica formas de pecar; él se encamina por un camino malvado; él no rechaza lo malo. 5 Tu pacto de fidelidad, SEÑOR, llega hasta los cielos; Tu lealtad llega hasta las nubes. 6 Tu justicia es como las montañas de Dios; Tus juicios son como el gran abismo. SEÑOR, Tú preservas a ambos, seres humanos y los animales. 7 ¡Cuán precioso es Tu pacto de fidelidad, Dios! La humanidad se refugia bajo la sombra de Tus alas. 8 Ellos seran abundantemente saciados con la riqueza de la comida de Tu casa; Tú los dejarás beber del río de Tus preciosas bendiciones. 9 Porque contigo está la fuente de vida; en Tu luz nosotros veremos luz. 10 Extiende Tu pacto de fidelidad completamente a aquellos que Te conocen, Tu defensa a los rectos de corazón. 11 No dejes que el pie del hombre arrogante se acerque a mí. No dejes que la mano del malvado me ahuyente. 12 Allí los malvados han caído; ellos son derribados y no son capaces de levantarse.

Psalms 36:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Para el músico jefe
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la alabanza"

Un salmo de David el siervo del SEÑOR
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

El pecado habla como un oráculo
El pecado se describe como si fuera un falso profeta. Traducción Alterna: "El pecado es como un falso profeta que habla"

en el corazón del hombre malvado Aquí "corazón" se refiere al ser interior de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "al ser interior del hombre malvado"

el hombre malvado
Esto no se refiere a un hombre específico, sino a personas malvadas en general. Traducción Alterna: "los malvados"

en sus ojos Aquí "ojos" se refiere a la persona malvada. Traducción Alterna: "en él" él se conforta a sí mismo, pensando

"él prefiere creer" o "quiere pensar"

su pecado no será descubierto y odiado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no descubrirá ni odiará su pecado"

Psalms 36:3

Sus palabras son
Esto se refiere a sus declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que dice es" hacer el bien

"bueno" puede expresarse de otra forma. Traducción Alterna: "hacer cosas buenas"

él se encamina por un camino malvado
Se habla de las acciones pecaminosas del hombre como si estuviera caminando por un camino malvado. Traducción Alterna: "comienza a hacer cosas malas"

él no rechaza lo malo
"lo malo" se puede expresar de otra forma. Traducción Alterna: "no rechaza el mal comportamiento".

Psalms 36:5

llega hasta los cielos
Se habla de la grandeza de la fidelidad del pacto de Dios como si fuera muy alta. Traducción Alterna: "es tan alto como el cielo" o "es enormemente grandioso"

llega hasta las nubes
Se habla de la grandeza de la lealtad de Dios como si fuera muy alta. Traducción Alterna: "es tan alta como las nubes" o "es enormemente grande"

como las montañas de Dios... como el gran abismo Estas frases describen la grandeza de la justicia y los juicios de Dios como si fueran muy altos y profundos. Traducción Alterna: "tan alta como las montañas más altas... tan profundos como el mar más profundo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú preservas
"ayudas" o "salvas"

Psalms 36:7

Cuán precioso es Tu pacto de fidelidad
Se habla de la fidelidad del pacto de Dios como si fueran joyas raras y caras. Traducción Alterna: "La fidelidad de tu alianza es tan valiosa como las joyas raras"

La humanidad se refugia
"La gente buscará protección"

La humanidad se refugia bajo la sombra de Tus alas
Dios realmente no tiene alas. Esta es una metáfora de la protección de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "La humanidad se refugia contigo como las aves jóvenes buscan protección bajo las alas de su madre"

Ellos seran abundantemente saciados Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los satisfarás abundantemente" con la riqueza de la comida de Tu casa Esto no significa que Dios tenga una casa con comida. Esta es una metáfora de la provisión abundante. Traducción Alterna: "como si estuvieran comiendo la rica comida de Tu casa" o "con Tus ricas bendiciones"

Tú los dejarás beber del río de Tus preciosas bendiciones Hay dos metáforas aquí. Se habla de las abundantes bendiciones de Dios como si fueran el agua en un río que fluye. Además, se habla de aquellos que reciben esas bendiciones como si las bebieran como agua. Traducción Alterna: "tus preciosas bendiciones son como un río del que les dejarás beber"

fuente de vida
"origen de vida"

en Tu luz nosotros veremos luz Aquí la "luz" es una metáfora del verdadero conocimiento. Traducción Alterna: "cuando nos ilumines, sabremos la verdad" o "Tu luz es lo que nos permite saber la verdad sobre Ti" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 36:10

Extiende Tu pacto de fidelidad completamente
"Continúa tu fidelidad al pacto"

Tu defensa a los rectos de corazón
El sustantivo abstracto "defensa" puede expresarse como un verbo. "Continúa" está implícito en la frase anterior. Traducción Alterna: "Continúa protegiendo a los rectos de corazón"

los rectos de corazón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "los rectos" o "personas que actúan con rectitud"

el pie del hombre arrogante... la mano del malvado Aquí "pie" y "mano" se refieren a las personas malvadas. Estos no son hombres específicos. Esto se refiere a las personas malvadas en general. Traducción Alterna: "gente arrogante... gente malvada" me ahuyente

"me envíe lejos" o "me haga dejar mi lugar"

los malvados han caído; ellos son derribados y no son capaces de levantarse Las tres frases describen a los malvados como derrotados.

ellos son derribados Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los has derribado" o "los has destruido"

no son capaces de levantarse
"no pueden levantarse"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 37

1 No seas irritado por causa de los malhechores; no tengas envidia de aquellos que actúan injustamente. 2 Porque ellos pronto se secarán como la yerba y se marchitarán como las plantas verdes. 3 Confía en el SEÑOR y haz lo que es bueno; establécete en la tierra y apacienta en fidelidad. 4 Entonces deléitate en el SEÑOR y Él te dará los deseos de tu corazón. 5 Entrégale tus caminos al SEÑOR; confía en Él y Él actuará en tu favor. 6 Él exhibirá tu justicia como la luz del día y tu inocencia como el día al medioda. 7 Está quieto delante del SEÑOR y espera pacientemente por Él. No te enojes si alguien tiene éxito en lo que hace, o cuando hace conspiraciones malvadas. 8 No te enojes ni te frustres. No te preocupes. Ésto solo crea problemas. 9 Los malhechores serán cortados, pero los que esperan por el SEÑOR heredarán la tierra. 10 En poco tiempo, el hombre malvado desaparecerá; mirarás su lugar, pero el se habrá ido. 11 Pero los mansos heredarán la tierra y se deleitarán en gran prosperidad. 12 El hombre perverso conspira contra el recto y cruje los dientes contra él. 13 El Señor se ríe de él, porque Él ve que su día está llegando. 14 Los malvados han sacado sus espadas y han tensado sus arcos para derribar al oprimido y al necesitado, para matar a aquellos que son rectos. 15 Sus espadas atravesarán sus propios corazones y sus arcos serán rotos. 16 Mejor es lo poco que tiene el justo que la abundancia de muchas personas malvadas. 17 Pues las armas de las personas malvadas se romperán, pero el SEÑOR sostiene a las personas justas. 18 El SEÑOR vela por los inocentes día tras día y su herencia será para siempre. 19 Ellos no serán avergonzados cuando los tiempos sean malos. Cuando venga la hambruna, ellos tendrán suficiente para comer. 20 Pero los hombres malvados perecerán. Los enemigos del SEÑOR serán como la gloria de los pastos; serán consumidos y desaparecerán en el humo. 21 La persona perversa toma prestado pero no devuelve, mas la persona recta es generosa y da. 22 Aquellos que son bendecidos por Dios heredarán la tierra; aquellos que son maldecidos por Él serán cortados. 23 Es por el SEÑOR que los pasos del hombre son establecidos, el hombre cuyo camino es admirable a la vista de Dios. 24 Aunque él tropiece, no caerá, porque el SEÑOR lo está sosteniendo con su mano. 25 Yo fui joven y ahora soy viejo; yo nunca he visto a una persona justa abandonada o sus hijos mendigando pan. 26 Durante todo el día él es amable y presta, y sus hijos vienen a ser una bendición. 27 Apártate del mal y haz lo que es bueno; entonces estarás seguro por siempre. 28 Porque el SEÑOR ama la justicia y no abandona a sus fieles seguidores. Ellos son preservados por siempre, pero los descendientes de los perversos serán cortados. 29 Los justos heredarán la tierra y vivirá allí por siempre. 30 La boca de la persona justa habla sabiduría y aumenta la justicia. 31 La ley de su Dios está en su corazón; sus pies no resbalarán. 32 La persona perversa vela a la persona justa y busca cómo matarle. 33 El SEÑOR no lo abandonará a la mano de la persona malvada ni lo condenará cuando sea juzgado. 34 Espera por el SEÑOR y guarda Su camino y Él te levantará para poseer la tierra. Verás cuando los malvados sean cortados. 35 Yo he visto a la persona perversa y aterradora extendida como un árbol verde en su terreno nativo. 36 Pero cuando pasé nuevamente, él no estaba. Lo busqué pero no pudo ser hallado. 37 Observa el hombre de integridad y fíjate en el recto; hay un buen futuro para un hombre de paz. 38 Los pecadores serán totalmente destruidos; el futuro del hombre perverso es cortado. 39 La salvación de los justos viene del SEÑOR; Él los protege en los tiempos de problemas. 40 El SEÑOR les ayuda y los rescata. Él los rescata de los hombres malvados y los salva porque ellos se han refugiado en Él.

Psalms 37:1

Información General:
Los paralelismos son comunes en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son: 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) El salmo es sobre David o 3) El salmo es en el estilo de los salmos de David.

No seas irritado por causa de los malhechores
"No dejes que las personas malvadas te hagan molestar" o "No te molestes por lo que hacen las personas malvadas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

se secarán como la yerba... se marchitarán como las plantas verdes Se habala de los malhechores como si fuesen como hierba y plantas que se secan y mueren cuando hace calor. Estos dos símiles significan que morirán. Traducción Alterna: "morirán" o "llegarán a su fin"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 37:3

apacienta en fidelidad
Se habla de la fidelidad como si se tratara de un animal que se fortalecería al alimentarse en buenos pastos. Traducción Alterna: "alimenta la fidelidad" o "aumenta tu fidelidad"

los deseos de tu corazón
Aquí "corazón" representa el ser interno y los pensamientos de la persona. Traducción Alterna: "tus deseos más profundos e internos" o "las cosas que más deseas"

Psalms 37:5

Entrégale tus caminos al SEÑOR
Aquí "Entrégale tus caminos" es una expresión idiomática que significa pedirle a Yahweh que controle tu vida. Traducción Alterna: "Pídele al SEÑOR que guíe tus acciones en la vida"

actuará en tu favor
Esto es representar a otro en asuntos legales. Aquí, cuando alguien confía en El SEÑOR, defenderá a esa persona y le obtendrá justicia.

como la luz del día... como el día al medioda Ambas frases significan casi la misma cosa.

como la luz del día Esto significa "a la vista de todos". Traducción Alterna: "tan claro de ver como la luz del día"

como el día al mediodía
Esto significa "tan visible como el sol de mediodía. Traducción Alterna: "tan visible como la luz en la hora más luminosa del día"

Psalms 37:7

Está quieto
"Está tranquilo"

Psalms 37:8

serán cortados
Se habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran una rama de una planta que fue cortada y desechada.

pero los que esperan por el SEÑOR
"pero los que confían en el SEÑOR"

heredarán la tierra
Se habla de la posesión de la tierra como si fuera recibida como una herencia. Traducción Alterna: "recibirán la tierra como su propia posesión" o "vivirán de manera segura en la tierra"

desaparecerá
Esta expresión idiomática se refiere a la muerte del hombre malvado. Traducción Alterna: "morirá y ya no lo verás"

Psalms 37:11

los mansos
Esto se refiere a las personas que son mansas. Traducción Alterna: "la gente mansa"

heredarán la tierra
Se habla de la posesión de la tierra como si fuera recibida como una herencia. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37:8. Traducción Alterna: "recibirá la tierra como su propia posesión" o "vivirá de manera segura en la tierra"

El hombre perverso
Esto no se refiere a un hombre específico. Se refiere a personas malvadas en general. Traducción Alterna: "La persona malvada"

el recto
Esto no se refiere a personas específicas. Esto se refiere a personas que son rectas. Traducción Alterna: "la persona recta"

cruje los dientes
El hombre malvado odia tanto a la persona justa que rechina los dientes para mostrar su enojo.

su día está llegando
Está implícito que "su día" será un día de juicio. Traducción Alterna: "se acerca el día en que El SEÑOR lo juzgará y castigará" o "se acerca el día en que El SEÑOR juzgará y castigará a la persona malvada"

Psalms 37:14

Los malvados
Esto se refiere a las personas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "La gente malvada" han sacado sus espadas... han tensado sus arcos Tanto las "espadas" como los "arcos" son armas utilizadas para atacar a las personas. El hecho de que los han "sacado" y "tensado" significa que están listos para comenzar a atacar. Traducción Alterna: "han preparado sus armas para atacar" para derribar

Se habla de esta destrucción de los necesitados como si fueran ollas de barro que se romperían en pedazos cuando se arrojaran al suelo. Traducción Alterna: "para destruir"

al oprimido y al necesitado Estos términos se refieren a personas que no tienen poder para defenderse. Traducción Alterna: "personas que no pueden resistirlos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus espadas atravesarán sus propios corazones
Las espadas son ejemplos de armas y los "corazones" representan a las personas. "atravesar el corazón" es una expresi'on idiomática que significa "matar". Traducción Alterna: "Sus armas se volverán contra ellos y se matarán a sí mismos"

Psalms 37:16

Mejor es lo poco que tiene el justo que la abundancia de muchas personas malvadas Aquí, la segunda línea contrasta con la primera. Traducción Alterna: "Es mejor ser justo, incluso si eso significa ser pobre, que ser malvado con gran riqueza". (Ver: Parallelism)

Mejor es lo poco que tiene el justo
"Es mejor ser justo, incluso si eso significa ser pobre"

lo poco
Esto se refiere a tener pocas posesiones.

tiene el justo
Esto se refiere a la persona que es justa. Traducción Alterna: "la persona justa tiene" la abundancia

Esto se refiere a la riqueza de las personas malvadas.

Pues las armas de las personas malvadas se romperán
Aquí las "armas" representan la fuerza de los malvados. Romper sus armas representa quitarles su poder. Esto podría expresarse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Porque El SEÑOR quitará la fuerza de los malvados"

Psalms 37:18

vela por los inocentes
"velar" significa proteger a alguien. Aquí "los inocentes" se refiere a las personas sin culpa. Traducción Alterna: "protege a las personas sin culpa"

día tras día
"todos los días" o "continuamente"

cuando los tiempos sean malos
Esta frase se refiere a desastres, como el hambre. Traducción Alterna: "cuando ocurran calamidades" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Psalms 37:20

Los enemigos del SEÑOR serán como la gloria de los pastos
El escritor compara a los enemigos del SEÑOR con las flores que florecen en los campos.

serán consumidos y desaparecerán en el humo
El escritor habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran malas hierbas o flores marchitas en el campo que se queman después de la cosecha. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los destruirá como el fuego convierte las malezas del campo en humo"

es generosa y da
Estos significan lo mismo y enfatizan la generosidad de los justos.

Psalms 37:22

Aquellos que son bendecidos por Dios
"Aquellos que son bendecidos por Dios". Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellos a quienes Dios bendice"

heredarán la tierra
Se habla de la posesión de la tierra como si hubiera sido recibida como una herencia. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37:8. Traducción Alterna: "recibirán la tierra como su propia posesión" o "se les permitirá vivir de manera segura en la tierra"

aquellos que son maldecidos por Él Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos a quienes El SEÑOR maldice"

serán cortados
Se habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran una rama de una planta que fue cortada y desechada. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37:8.

Es por el SEÑOR que los pasos del hombre son establecidos... admirable a la vista de Dios Esto se puede expresar de modo de mostrar la conexión lógica y aclarar la cláusula pasiva. Traducción Alterna: "Si un hombre vive de una manera encomiable a la vista del SEÑOR, Él establecerá sus pasos"

Es por el SEÑOR que los pasos del hombre son establecidos Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es el que permite que un hombre tenga éxito"

un hombre... el hombre
Esto no se refiere a un hombre específico, sino a las personas en general.

los pasos del hombre
Los pasos representan la forma en que vive una persona. Traducción Alterna: "la manera en que vive un hombre"

Aunque él tropiece, no caerá Aquí "tropezar" y "caer" se refieren a la reacción del hombre ante los tiempos difíciles. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque tenga momentos difíciles, no fallará por completo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo está sosteniendo con su mano
Aquí "Su mano" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR, y "sosteniéndolo" se refiere a protegerlo. Traducción Alterna: "protegiéndolo con su poder"

Psalms 37:25

una persona justa abandonada Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR abandona a la persona justa"

una persona justa
Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Es una declaración general.

mendigando pan
Aquí "pan" representa la comida en general. Traducción Alterna: "mendigando comida"

Durante todo el día él es Esta expresión significa que esta acción es un hábito de su vida. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre está" sus hijos vienen a ser una bendición

"sus hijos crecen para bendecir a otros"

Apártate del
Se habla de dejar de hacer algo como si la persona se hubiera alejado de eso. Traducción Alterna: "Deja de hacer"

Psalms 37:28

Ellos son preservados por siempre Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los protegerá para siempre"

serán cortados
Se habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran una rama de una planta que fue cortada y desechada. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37:8.

Los justos
Esto se refiere a las personas que son justas. Traducción Alterna: "la gente justa"

heredarán la tierra
Se habla de la posesión de la tierra como si hubiera sido recibida como una herencia. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37:8. Traducción Alterna: "recibirán la tierra como su propia posesión" o "se les permitirá vivir de manera segura en la tierra"

La boca de la persona justa Aquí "boca" representa a toda la persona que habla. Traducción Alterna: "La persona justa"

habla sabiduría
El sustantivo abstracto "sabiduría" puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "da sabios consejos a los demás"

aumenta la justicia
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "alienta a otras personas a vivir correctamente"

Psalms 37:31

La ley de su Dios está en su corazón Aquí "en su corazón" se refiere a su ser interior más profundo. Traducción Alterna: "Atesora los mandamientos de su Dios en su ser interior"

sus pies no resbalarán
Aquí se habla de no obedecer al SEÑOR como de deslizarse de un camino seguro y caer. Traducción Alterna: "caminará con seguridad de la manera que Dios quiere que camine" o "hará con seguridad las cosas que Dios quiere que haga"

La persona perversa... la persona justa... la persona malvada Estas no son personas específicas. Se refieren a este tipo de personas en general.

vela a la persona justa Aquíel velar implica observar a los justos para hacerles daño. Traducción Alterna: "espera en una emboscada a la persona justa"

la mano de la persona malvada Aquí "mano" representa poder o control. Traducción Alterna: "el poder de la persona malvada"

cuando sea juzgado
Esto se refiere al SEÑOR juzgando al hombre justo. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando El SEÑOR lo juzgue"

Psalms 37:34

Él te levantará para poseer la tierra Aquí "levantará" se refiere a Dios dando honor a aquellos que lo esperan. Traducción Alterna: "te honrará dándote la tierra"

los malvados
Esto se refiere a personas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "la gente malvada"

sean cortados
Se habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran una rama de una planta que fue cortada y desechada. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 37:8.

Psalms 37:35

la persona perversa y aterradora
Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Es una declaración general.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

extendida como un árbol verde en su terreno nativo Aquí se habla de la prosperidad del malvado como si fuera un árbol sano que creciera en buena tierra.

no pudo ser hallado
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No pude encontrarlo" o "El SEÑOR se lo había llevado"

Psalms 37:37

el hombre de integridad
Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Es una declaración general.

fíjate en el recto
"observa cuidadosamente a las buenas personas" o "nota las buenas personas"

el futuro del hombre perverso es cortado Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios terminará su línea familiar" o "no tendrá descendientes"

el futuro
Esto se refiere a sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "sus descendientes"

del hombre perverso
Esto no se refiere a una persona específica. Es una declaración general.

es cortado
Se habla de la destrucción de los malvados como si fueran una rama de una planta que fue cortada y desechada. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 37:8.

Psalms 37:39

La salvación de los justos viene del SEÑOR
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR rescata a los justos"

los justos
Esto se refiere a las personas que son justas. Traducción Alterna: "la gente justa"

ayuda... rescata... salva
Esta misma idea se repite de varias maneras diferentes para enfatizar que El SEÑOR es confiable y capaz de brindar ayuda.

ellos se han refugiado en Él Se habla de ir al SEÑOR para protegerse como de refugiarse en Él. Traducción Alterna: "han ido a Él por protección"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 38

1 SEÑOR, no me reprendas en Tu enojo; no me castigues en Tu ira. 2 Pues Tus flechas me traspasan, y Tu mano me presiona hacia abajo. 3 Todo mi cuerpo está enfermo por causa de Tu enojo; no hay salud en mis huesos por causa de mi pecado. 4 Pues mis iniquidades me abruman; ellas son una carga muy pesada para mí. 5 Mis heridas están infectadas y huelen mal por mis pecados tontos. 6 Yo estoy encorvado y humillado cada día; yo me estoy lamentando durante todo el día. 7 Porque dentro de mí, yo estoy lleno de ardor, no hay salud en mi carne. 8 Estoy adormecido y completamente destrozado; yo gimo por la angustia de mi corazón. 9 SEÑOR, Tú entiendes los ahnelos más profundos de mi corazón, y mis gemidos no están escondidos de Ti. 10 Mi corazón palpita, mi fuerza se desvanece, y mi vista se oscurece. 11 Mis amigos y compañeros me esquivan por mi condición; mis vecinos se quedan muy lejos. 12 Esos que buscan mi vida me ponen trampas. Aquellos que buscan hacerme daño hablan palabras destructivas y dicen palabras engañosas todo el día. 13 Pero yo, yo soy como un hombre sordo y no oigo nada; yo soy como un hombre mudo que no dice nada. 14 Yo soy como un hombre que no oye y que no tiene ninguna respuesta. 15 Ciertamente espero por Ti, SEÑOR; Tú responderas, SEÑOR mi Dios. 16 Yo digo esto para que mis enemigos no se jacten sobre mí. Si mi pie resbala, ellos me harán terribles cosas. 17 Pues estoy a punto de tropezar, y yo estoy en dolor constante. 18 Yo confieso mi culpa; yo estoy preocupado por mi pecado. 19 Pero mis enemigos son numerosos; esos que me odian equivocadamente son muchos. 20 Ellos me pagan mal por bien; ellos me lanzan acusaciones aunque yo he procurado lo que es bueno. 21 No me abandones, SEÑOR; mi Dios, no permanezcas alejado de mí. 22 Ven rápido a ayudarme, SEÑOR, mi salvación.

Psalms 38:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de david
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

no me reprendas en Tu enojo...no me castigues en Tu ira.
Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo y la idea se repite para enfatizar.

Tus flechas me traspasan
Se habla de la severidad del castigo de EL SEÑOR al escritor como si EL SEÑOR hubiera disparado flechas al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Tu castigo es tan doloroso como si me hubieras disparado flechas"

Tu mano me presiona hacia abajo
Se habla del castigo de EL SEÑOR al escritor como si EL SEÑOR estuviera aplastando al escritor con su mano. Aquí, "mano" se refiere al poder de EL SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "tu poder me derriba"

Psalms 38:3

Información General
David continúa describiendo lo que su culpa y vergüenza le hacen a su cuerpo. Él usa la hipérbole para enfatizar los efectos de esta lección.

no hay salud en mis huesos por causa de mi pecado Aquí "mis huesos" representa el cuerpo del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "todo mi cuerpo está enfermo debido a mi pecado"

mis iniquidades me abruman
Se habla de las iniquidades del escritor como si fueran una inundación de agua que lo cubre. Traducción Alterna: "mis iniquidades me cubren como una inundación"

ellas son una carga muy pesada para mí
Se habla de las iniquidades del escritor como si fueran una carga pesada que no puede levantar. Traducción Alterna: "son como una carga que es demasiado pesada para que pueda levantarla"

Psalms 38:5

Información General
David continúa describiendo lo que su culpa y vergüenza le hacen a su cuerpo. Él usa la hipérbole para enfatizar los efectos de esta lección.

Mis heridas están infectadas y huelen mal
Aquí "olor" se refiere a sus llagas que tienen un mal olor asociado con la carne podrida. Traducción Alterna: "Mis heridas están infectadas y apestan cuando se pudren"

Yo estoy encorvado
El dolor de las heridas del escritor lo ha hecho inclinarse como si fuera un hombre viejo y débil. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy doblado por el dolor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 38:7

yo estoy lleno de ardor El escritor está tan enfermo de fiebre que es como si estuviera ardiendo por dentro. Traducción Alterna: "Mi cuerpo está ardiendo de fiebre"

no hay salud en mi carne Aquí "mi carne" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy completamente enfermo"

completamente destrozado
La enfermedad del escritor es tan grave que es como si un gran peso lo estuviera presionando.

angustia de mi corazón
Aquí "mi corazón" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "mi angustia"

Psalms 38:9

los ahnelos más profundos de mi corazó Aquí "mi corazón" se refiere al escritor. Puede ser útil afirmar que el escritor desea buena salud. Traducción Alterna: "Mis deseos más fuertes" o "que deseo que me sanes"

mis gemidos no están escondidos de Ti
Aquí "mi corazón" se refiere al escritor. Puede ser útil afirmar que el escritor desea buena salud. Traducción Alterna: "Mis deseos más fuertes" o "que deseo que me sanes"

Mi corazón palpita
Esta expresión idiomática significa que su corazón late intensamente. Traducción Alterna: "Mi corazón late fuerte" mi fuerza se desvanece

"Me vuelvo muy débil"

mi vista se oscurece
"Ya no puedo ver bien"

Psalms 38:11

me ponen trampas
Se habla de las tramas de los enemigos del escritor como si fueran trampas que habían puesto para atraparlo como un animal. Traducción Alterna: "establecer trampas para atraparme"

hablan palabras destructivas y dicen palabras engañosas
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la naturaleza hiriente de lo que dicen estas personas.

Psalms 38:13

yo soy como un hombre sordo...no oigo nada...que no oye
Las primeras líneas de los versículos 13 y 14 usan un símil para presentar la misma imagen del hombre sordo. El escritor está tan enfermo que no puede escuchar.

yo soy como un hombre mudo... no dice nada...que no tiene ninguna respuesta
Las primeras líneas de los versículos 13 y 14 usan un símil para presentar la misma imagen del hombre sordo. El escritor está tan enfermo que no puede escuchar.

un hombre mudo
una persona que no puede hablar

Psalms 38:15

Tú responderas
Los posibles significados son 1) "me responderás" o 2) "responderás a mis enemigos".

no se jacten sobre mí
"no se deleitará con mi problema"

Si mi pie resbala
Aquí "mi pie" representa al escritor. El deslizamiento de su pie es una metáfora que se refiere a los problemas y desgracias del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Si cometo errores que me causan problemas"

Psalms 38:17

estoy a punto de tropezar Los posibles significados para esta metáfora son 1) "Estoy tan enfermo que estoy a punto de morir" o 2) "Pronto me arruinaré". Puede ser mejor no interpretar la metáfora en el texto.

yo estoy en dolor constante
"Siempre tengo dolor"

Psalms 38:19

Pero mis enemigos son numerosos...son muchos
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo.

0Ellos me pagan mal por bien
Se habla de las acciones de los enemigos del escritor como una transacción financiera donde le dieron cosas malas a cambio de cosas buenas. Los sustantivos abstractos "mal" y "bien" se pueden expresar como acciones. Traducción Alterna: Me dan malas acciones a cambio de mis buenas acciones para ellos "

me lanzan acusaciones
Se habla de la forma en que los enemigos del escritor lo acusan como si le estuvieran lanzando acusaciones como rocas.

procurado lo que es bueno
Se dice que los escritores desean lo que es bueno como si estuviera persiguiendo cosas buenas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 38:21

No me abandones...no permanezcas alejado de mí
Estas dos frases tienen significados muy similares.

no permanezcas alejado de mí
Debido a que EL SEÑOR aún no ha respondido a la solicitud del escritor, él habla de EL SEÑOR como si EL SEÑOR estuviera lejos del escritor.

Ven rápido a ayudarme
Se habla de Dios como si estuviera corriendo hacia el escritor para ayudarlo.

mi salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "usted es quien me salva"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 39

1 Decidí: "Yo velaré por lo que digo, para no pecar con mi lengua. Yo amordazaré mi boca mientras esté en la presencia de un hombre malvado." 2 Mantuve silencio; mantuve mis palabras aún de decir lo bueno, y mi dolor empeoró. 3 Mi corazón se hizo ardiente; cuando pensé en estas cosas, se quemaba como un fuego. Entonces, finalmente hablé. 4 "SEÑOR, hazme saber cuando será el final de mi vida y la extensión de mis días. Muéstrame cuán fugaz soy. 5 Mira, Tú has hecho mis días tan sólo como el ancho de mi mano, y mi vida es como nada frente a Ti. Ciertamente, cada hombre es sólo un aliento. 6 Ciertamente, cada hombre camina por la vida como una sombra. Ciertamente todos se apresuran a acumular riquezas aunque ellos no saben quien las recibirá. 7 Ahora, SEÑOR, ¿por qué estoy esperando? Tú eres mi única esperanza. 8 Rescátame de mis pecados; no me conviertas en el reproche de los tontos. 9 Estoy callado y no puedo abrir mi boca, porque eres Tú quien lo ha hecho. 10 Deja de herirme; estoy agobiado por el golpe de Tu mano. 11 Cuando Tú disciplinas a la gente por su pecado, Tú consumes las cosas que ellos desean como una polilla; ciertamente, toda la gente son nada sino vapor. 12 Oye mi oración, SEÑOR, y escúchame; ¡escucha mi lamento! No seas sordo hacia mí, pues soy como un extranjero Contigo, un refugiado como mis ancestros lo fueron. 13 Vuelve Tu mirada hacia mí, para que yo pueda sonreír otra vez antes de morir.

Psalms 39:1

Información General
Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

Jedutún
Uno de los principales músicos de David tenía este mismo nombre. Esto puede referirse a él. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

Yo velaré por lo que digo Aquí "mirar" es una expresión idiomática que significa "prestar atención". Traducción Alterna: "Prestaré atención a las cosas que digo"

para no pecar con mi lengua Aquí "lengua" se refiere al discurso del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "para que no diga un delito contra EL SEÑOR" amordazaré

"amordazaré" significa mantener la boca cerrada. Aquí David quiere decir que no hablará mientras esté con una persona malvada.

Psalms 39:2

Mantuve silencio;mantuve mis palabras
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que el escritor no habló en absoluto. Traductor Alterna: "Estaba completamente en silencio"

mantuve mis palabras
Aquí "mis palabras" se refiere al discurso del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "No hablé"

Mi corazón se hizo ardiente...se quemaba como un fueg
Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Se habla de los pensamientos ansiosos del escritor como si fuera un fuego ardiendo dentro de él. Traducción Alterna: "Me puse muy ansioso cuando pensé en estas cosas"

Psalms 39:4

el final de mi vida...extensión de mis días
Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo.

Muéstrame cuán fugaz soy
"Muéstrame cuán breve es mi vida" o "Muéstrame qué tan pronto moriré"

sólo como el ancho de mi mano
El escritor habla de su esperanza de vida si se pudiera medir por el ancho de su mano. Traducción Alterna: "muy poco tiempo"

mi vida es como nada frente a TI Este símil establece que la duración de la vida del escritor es tan corta que no existe. Esto es una exageración para enfatizar lo corto que es. Traducción Alterna: "la duración de mi vida es apenas en cualquier momento"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ciertamente, cada hombre es sólo un aliento
Se habla de la brevedad de la vida como si fuera solo el tiempo que le toma a una persona respirar una respiración. Traducción Alterna:: "El tiempo que viven los humanos es tan corto como el aliento de una persona".

Psalms 39:6

Ciertamente, cada hombre camina por la vida como una sombra
Se habla de la vida de las personas como si fueran tan insignificantes como las sombras. Traducción Alterna: "Todos desaparecen como lo hacen las sombras"

aunque ellos no saben quien las recibirá
Aquí se da a entender que no saben qué pasará con su riqueza después de su muerte. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito.

Ahora, SEÑOR, ¿por qué estoy esperando?
El escritor hace esta pregunta para enfatizar que la gente no puede ayudarlo. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora, EL SEÑOR, no puedo esperar recibir nada de nadie más".

Psalms 39:8

Estoy callado...no puedo abrir mi boca
Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo.

porque eres Tú quien lo ha hecho
"porque mi castigo viene de ti"

Psalms 39:10

Deja de herirme
Se habla del castigo de Dios al escritor como si Dios lo estuviera hiriendo con un arma. Traducción Alterna: "¡por favor deja de castigarme!"

estoy agobiado
"Estoy derrotado por completo"

por el golpe de Tu mano.
Se habla del castigo de Dios al escritor como si Dios lo estuviera golpeando con el puño. Aquí "mano" representa el juicio de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "tu juicio sobre mí" consumes las cosas que ellos desean como una polilla Dios quitará las cosas que valoran de la misma manera que una polilla come un paño. Traducción Alterna: "consumen las cosas que desean como una polilla se come la ropa"

toda la gente son nada sino vapor
El escritor habla de la fragilidad de las personas como si fueran niebla que desaparece rápidamente. Traducción Alterna: "todos son completamente frágiles"

Psalms 39:12

Oye mi oración...escúchame...¡escucha mi lamento!
Estas tres frases significan básicamente lo mismo y muestran cuán fuertemente el escritor quiere que Dios le responda.

No seas sordo hacia mí
El escritor habla de la falta de respuesta de EL SEÑOR hacia él como si EL SEÑOR fuera sordo. Traducción Alterna: "No me ignores como si no pudieras oírme"

pues soy como un extranjero Contigo, un refugiado
El escritor habla de la falta de respuesta de EL SEÑOR como si EL SEÑOR lo considerara un extraño total para él. Traducción Alterna: "Soy como un completo desconocido para ti"

Vuelve Tu mirada hacia mí Aquí "tu mirada" representa el castigo de EL SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor, deja de castigarme" para que yo pueda sonreír otra vez Aquí "sonrisa" se asocia con ser feliz. Traducción Alterna: "para que pueda ser feliz otra vez"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 40

1 Esperé pacientemente al SEÑOR; Él me escuchó y oyó mi llanto. 2 Él me sacó del horrible pozo, fuera del fango arcilloso, y Él puso mis pies sobre la roca e hizo mis pasos seguros. 3 Él ha puesto una canción nueva en mi boca, alabanzas a nuestro Dios. Muchos lo verán y lo honrarán a Él y confiarán en el SEÑOR. 4 Bendito el hombre que pone en el SEÑOR su confianza y no honra a los orgullosos ni a aquellos que se vuelven de Él a la mentira. 5 Muchas, SEÑOR mi Dios, son las maravillosas obras que Tú has hecho, y Tus pensamientos acerca de nosotros no pueden ser contados; si yo los declaro y los hablo, ellos serían más de lo que se pueden contar. 6 Tú no te deleitas en sacrificios u ofrendas, pero Tú has abierto mis oídos; Tú no has pedido ofrendas quemadas ni sacrificios por el pecado. 7 Entonces, yo dije: "Mira, yo he venido; está escrito acerca de mí en el rollo del documento. 8 Yo me deleito en hacer Tu voluntad, mi Dios; Tus leyes están en mi corazón." 9 Yo he proclamado las buenas noticias de Tu justicia en la gran asamblea; SEÑOR, Tú sabes que mis labios no se han detenido de hacer esto. 10 Yo no he ocultado Tu justicia en mi corazón; yo he declarado Tu lealtad y Tu salvación; yo no he ocultado de la gran asamblea Tu fidelidad al pacto ni Tu confiabilidad. 11 No mantegas lejos de mí Tus actos de misericordia, SEÑOR; deja que Tu fidelidad al pacto y Tu confiabilidad siempre me preserven. 12 Innumerables problemas me rodean; mis iniquidades me han alcanzado, pues ya no soy capaz de ver nada; ellas son más que los pelos de mi cabeza, y mi corazón me ha fallado. 13 Complácete, SEÑOR, en rescatarme; apúrate para ayudarme, SEÑOR. 14 Deja que ellos estén avergonzados y completamente decepcionados, esos que persiguen mi vida para tomarla. Deja que se vuelvan y sean puestos en deshonor, esos que se deleitan en lastimarme. 15 Deja que sean sorprendidos a causa de su vergüenza, esos que me dicen a mí: "¡Ajá, ajá!" 16 Pero que todos esos que Te buscan se alegren y se regocijen en Ti; deja que todo el que ama Tu salvación diga continuamente: "Sea el SEÑOR alabado." 17 Yo soy pobre y necesitado; sin embargo, el SEÑOR piensa en mí. Tú eres mi Ayuda y Tú vienes a rescatarme; no te tardes, mi Dios.

Psalms 40:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: escritura_poesía e higo_paralelismo)

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

Esperé pacientemente al SEÑOR
Esto significa que el escritor esta esperando que EL SEÑOR lo ayude

Él me escuchó...oyó mi llanto.
Estos significan lo mismo y se pueden combinar en una sola declaración. Traducción Alterna: "me escuchó cuando lo llamé"

me sacó del horrible pozo...fuera del fango arcilloso
Estas dos metáforas significan lo mismo. Se habla del peligro del escritor como si fuera un pozo mortal lleno de lodo. Esto enfatiza el peligro. Traducción Altena: "por estar atrapado en un pozo horrible lleno de lodo pegajoso"

Él puso mis pies sobre la roca
Aquí "mis pies" se refiere al escritor, y "una roca" se refiere a un lugar seguro. Traducción Alterna: "me brindó seguridad"

Psalms 40:3

Él ha puesto una canción nueva en mi boca Los posibles significados son 1) "Me ha enseñado las palabras de una nueva canción" o 2) "Me ha dado una nueva razón para cantar".

en mi boca
Aquí "mi boca" se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "en mí"

alabanzas a nuestro Dios
El sustantivo "alabanza" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "una canción para alabar a nuestro Dios"

Muchos lo verán
Aquí "verlo" se refiere a escuchar al escritor cantar su canción sobre lo que Dios ha hecho por él. Traducción Alterna: "Mucha gente me escuchará decir lo que EL SEÑOR ha hecho"

Bendito el hombre que pone en el SEÑOR su confianza
"Bienaventurado el hombre que confía en EL SEÑOR" o "Los que confían en EL SEÑOR son bendecidos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los orgullosos
Esto se refiere a las personas que están orgullosas.

la mentira
La palabra hebrea no está clara. Los significados posibles son 1) "mentiras" o 2) "dioses falsos" (UDB).

Psalms 40:5

y Tus pensamientos acerca de nosotros no pueden ser contado Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede contar todas las cosas que piensas sobre nosotros"

no pueden ser contados...más de lo que se pueden contar
Estas frases significan esencialmente lo mismo. El primero se declara en forma negativa, y el segundo se declara en forma positiva.

Tú no te deleitas en sacrificios u ofrendas
Esto es una exageración para mostrar que estas cosas no eran lo más importante para Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Los sacrificios y otras ofrendas no son las cosas que te deleitarán"

pero Tú has abierto mis oídos Aquí "oídos" se refiere a la capacidad de oír. Traducción Alterna: "me has permitido escuchar tus órdenes "

Tú no has pedido ofrendas quemadas ni sacrificios por el pecado
Esto es una exageración para mostrar que estas cosas no eran lo más importante para Dios. Traducción Alterna: "los animales quemados en el altar y otras ofrendas por nuestros pecados no son lo que más se necesita"

Psalms 40:7

el rollo del documento
Esto se refiere a un pergamino en el que se escribió la palabra de EL SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "el pergamino escrito"

Tus leyes están en mi corazón
Aquí "mi corazón" se refiere al ser interior del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre estoy pensando en tus leyes en mi interior"

Yo he proclamado las buenas noticias de Tu justicia en la gran asamblea
"Le he dicho a una gran asamblea de personas las buenas noticias de tu justicia".

las buenas noticias de Tu justicia Esto se refiere a las buenas noticias de que Dios rescata a su pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "buenas noticias de que porque eres justo, rescatas a tu pueblo" que mis labios no se han detenido de hacer esto Aquí "mis labios" se refiere al discurso del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "No me he detenido a proclamar estas cosas"

Psalms 40:10

Yo no he ocultado Tu justicia en mi corazón
"No he guardado tu justicia en secreto". Esto también se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Les he contado abiertamente a todos acerca de su justicia"

en mi corazón
Aquí esto se refiere al ser interior del escritor.

yo no he ocultado de la gran asamblea Tu fidelidad al pacto ni Tu confiabilidad Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Les he contado a todos en la gran asamblea acerca de su fidelidad al pacto o su confiabilidad"

Tu fidelidad al pacto
Este sustantivo abstracto puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "cuán fiel eres para cumplir tus promesas"

Tu confiabilidad
Este sustantivo abstracto puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "qué tan confiable eres"

deja que Tu fidelidad al pacto y Tu confiabilidad siempre me preserven Aquí se habla de "fidelidad al pacto" y "confiabilidad" como si fueran personas vivas que pudieran proteger al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Quiero que tu fidelidad al pacto y tu confianza siempre se conserven"

Psalms 40:12

Innumerables problemas me rodean
Aquí se habla de problemas como si fueran objetos que rodean y atrapan al hablante. Traducción Alterna: "hay más problemas a mi alrededor de los que puedo contar" o "se me ocurren más problemas de los que puedo contar"

innumerables
Esto se afirma en forma negativa para intensificar el número. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40:5. Traducción Alterna: "que son vastos en número"

mis iniquidades
Esto se refiere a las consecuencias de su pecado. Traducción Alterna: "las consecuencias de mis iniquidades" me han alcanzado

Se habla de las iniquidades del escritor como si fueran sus enemigos quienes lo estaban lastimando.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ya no soy capaz de ver nada
Las versiones difieren en cómo entender este difícil pasaje. Puede significar que el hablante está llorando tanto que no puede ver nada debido a sus lágrimas.

mi corazón me ha fallado
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la confianza interna del escritor. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy muy desanimado" (UDB)

Psalms 40:14

deja que ellos...esos que persiguen mi vida para tomarla Esto puede reordenarse y establecerse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor, haz que los que intentan matarme se avergüencen y decepcionen"

esos que persiguen mi vida para tomarla Aquí "perseguir mi vida" significa que desean matar al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "quienes están tratando de matarme"

deja que ellos...esos que se deleitan en lastimarme
Esto puede reordenarse y establecerse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor, detengan a aquellos que se deleitan en hacerme daño y los deshonren"

Deja que se vuelvan
Se dice que ser detenido o frustrado es rechazado de su ataque. Traducción Alterna: "parado"

deja...esos que me dicen a mí: "¡Ajá, ajá!
"Que los que me digan, ¡Ajá, ajá! se sorprenderá por su vergüenza "

Deja que sean sorprendidos a causa de su verguenza
"Espero que se sorprendan cuando los avergüences"

esos que me dicen a mí: ¡Ajá, ajá!
"¡Ajá, ajá!" es algo que la gente dice cuando ridiculiza a alguien. Si su idioma tiene algo que la gente dice cuando ridiculiza a alguien, puede usarlo aquí. Esto también se puede traducir con un verbo como "ridículo".

Psalms 40:16

se alegren y se regocijen Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad de la alegría. Traducción Alterna: "sé muy alegre"

ama Tu salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "te amo porque los salvaste"

pobre y necesitado
Estas palabras significan lo mismo y enfatizan cuán indefenso es el escritor. Traducción Alterna: "muy necesitado"

el SEÑOR piensa en mí
"el Señor se preocupa por mí"

Tú eres mi Ayuda...Tú vienes a rescatarme Estas frases significan lo mismo.

Tú eres mi Ayuda
"Tú eres quien me ayuda"

Tú vienes a rescatarm
"vienes a salvarme"

no te tardes
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "responde rápidamente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 41

1 Bendito es él que se preocupa por los débiles; en el día del problema, el SEÑOR lo rescatará. 2 El SEÑOR lo preservará y lo mantendrá vivo, y él será bendito en la tierra; el SEÑOR no lo entregará a sus enemigos. 3 El SEÑOR lo sostendrá en la cama del sufrimiento; Tú convertirás su cama de enfermedad en una cama de sanación. 4 Yo digo: "SEÑOR, ¡ten misericordia de mí! Sáname, pues he pecado contra Ti." 5 Mis enemigos hablan el mal en contra mía, diciendo: '¿Cuándo morirá y su nombre perecerá?' 6 Si mi enemigo viene a verme, él me dice cosas inútiles; su corazón recoge mi desastre por sí mismo; cuando él se aleja de mí, él le habla a otros de ello. 7 Todos los que me odian susurran juntos en mi contra; juntos ellos esperan mi dolor. 8 Ellos dicen: "Una enfermedad maligna se agarra fuertemente de él; ahora que él está acostado, ya no se levantará." 9 De hecho, aún mi amigo más cercano, en quien confiaba, que comió mi pan, él ha levantado su talón en mi contra. 10 Pero Tú, SEÑOR, ten misericordia de mí y levántame para que yo pueda responderles. 11 Por esto sé que Tú estás complacido en mí, para que mi enemigo no triunfe sobre mí. 12 Mientras tanto, Tú me apoyas en mi integridad y me mantienes en Tu presencia por siempre. 13 Sea el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, alabado por siempre y para siempre. Amén y amén. Segundo libro.

Psalms 41:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

él...lo...sus
Estas palabras se refieren a cualquiera que esté preocupado por los débiles.

los débiles
"gente débil" o "gente pobre"

El SEÑOR lo sostendrá en la cama del sufrimiento
La frase "la cama del sufrimiento" se refiere a cuando una persona se acuesta en la cama porque está enferma. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando esté enfermo y en la cama, EL SEÑOR lo apoyará"

Tú convertirás su cama de enfermedad en una cama de sanación
La frase "una cama de curación" se refiere a cuando una persona descansa en la cama y se recupera de su enfermedad. Traducción Alterna: "tú, EL SEÑOR, lo sanará de su enfermedad"

Psalms 41:4

su nombre perecerá
Si el nombre de una persona muere, significa que la gente olvida que alguna vez vivió. Traducción Alterna: "cuándo perecerá su nombre" o "cuándo la gente se olvidará de él"

Si mi enemigo viene a verme
Las palabras "mi enemigo" se refieren a cualquier enemigo en general, y no a un enemigo específico.

él me dice cosas inútiles Los significados posibles son 1) "dice cosas sin sentido" o 2) sus enemigos dicen cosas para hacerle pensar que son sus amigos cuando no lo son. Traducción Alterna: "dice cosas engañosas" o "fingen estar preocupados por mí"

su corazón recoge mi desastre por sí mismo
Sus enemigos intentan aprender todas las cosas malas de él. Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a toda la persona. Se habla de malas circunstancias como si fueran objetos que se pueden recoger. Traducción Alterna: "trata de aprender sobre todos mis desastres" en mi contra; juntos ellos esperan mi dolor.

Psalms 41:7

Los posibles significados son 1) "esperan que me sucedan cosas muy malas" (UDB) o 2) "planean hacerme daño".

Una enfermedad maligna...de él
Sus enemigos hablan de "enfermedad" como si fuera una persona que lo ha capturado. Traducción Alterna: "Está enfermo de una enfermedad mortal"

Una enfermedad maligna Los significados posibles son 1) "Una enfermedad mortal" o 2) "Algo malo"

ahora que él está acostado, ya no se levantará Aquí las palabras "acostado" se refieren a acostarse en la cama debido a una enfermedad. Que no se "levante" significa que continuará acostado, lo cual es un eufemismo para la muerte. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "ahora que está enfermo en la cama, morirá allí"

él ha levantado su talón en mi contra Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa que su amigo lo traicionó. Traducción Alterna: "me ha traicionado" o "se ha vuelto contra mí"

Psalms 41:10

Pero Tú, SEÑOR,en misericordia de mí y levántame Esta es una solicitud. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor, SEÑOR, ten piedad de mí y levántame"

levántame
Esto significa levantarlo de su cama o hacer que se recupere de su enfermedad. Traducción Alterna: "hazme bien" para que yo pueda responderles

El escritor habla de venganza contra sus enemigos como si les estuviera pagando lo que debe. Traducción Alterna: "para que pueda vengarme de ellos"

Por esto sé que Tú estás complacido en mí, para que mi enemigo no triunfe sobre mí
La palabra "esto" se refiere a lo que el escritor dirá a continuación. Para mayor claridad, las cláusulas pueden ser revocadas. Traducción Alterna: "Debido a que mi enemigo no triunfa sobre mí, sé que te deleitas en mí"

Por esto sé que Tú estás complacido en mí, para que mi enemigo no triunfe sobre mí Esto también se puede traducir en tiempo futuro, ya que EL SEÑOR aún no lo ha sanado. Traducción Alterna: "Si me permites hacer eso, con el resultado de que mis enemigos no me derrotan, sabré que estás satisfecho conmigo" me apoyas en mi integridad

"me apoyas por mi integridad"

me mantienes en Tu presencia por siempre.
El escritor habla de estar en la presencia del SEÑOR como estar en un lugar donde EL SEÑOR puede verlo y él puede ver la cara del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "me mantendrá contigo"

Psalms 41:13

Información General
Este versículo es más que el final de este salmo. Es la declaración final para todo el Libro 1 de los Salmos, que comienza en el Salmo 1 y termina con el Salmo 41.

por siempre y para siempre
Esto se refiere a dos extremos y significados para todos los tiempos. Traducción Alterna: "por toda la eternidad"

Amén y amén
La palabra "Amén" se repite para enfatizar la aprobación de lo que se ha dicho. Traducción Alterna: "Que ciertamente sea así"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 42

1 Así como el ciervo anhela los arroyos de agua, así yo tengo sed de Ti, Dios. 2 Yo tengo sed de Dios, del Dios viviente, ¿cuándo vendré y apareceré delante de Dios? 3 Mis lágrimas han sido mi comida día y noche, mientras que mis enemigos siempre me están diciendo: "¿Dónde está tu Dios?" 4 Estas cosas traigo a mi mente mientras derramo mi alma: cómo yo fui con la multitud y los dirigí a la casa de Dios con la voz de gozo y alabanza, una multitud celebrando una fiesta. 5 ¿Por qué te postras, mi alma? ¿Por qué estás molesta conmigo? Espera en Dios, porque otra vez yo lo alabaré quien es mi salvación. 6 Mi Dios, mi alma está postrada dentro de mí, por lo tanto, te traigo a mi memoria desde la tierra del Jordán, desde los tres picos del Monte Hermón, y desde la colina de Mizar. 7 La profundidad llama a la profundidad al ruido de tus cataratas; todas tus ondas y tus olas se han venido sobre mí. 8 Mas el SEÑOR mandará su misericordia durante el día; en la noche Su canción estará conmigo, una oración al Dios de mi vida. 9 Yo diré a Dios, mi roca: "¿Por qué te has olvidado de mí? ¿Por qué sigo de luto debido a la opresión del enemigo?" 10 Como con una espada en mis huesos, mis adversarios me reprenden, mientras me dicen siempre: "¿Dónde está tu Dios?" 11 ¿Por qué estás postrada, alma mía? ¿Por qué estás molesta conmigo? Espera en Dios, porque una vez más lo alabaré a quien es mi salvación y mi Dios.

Psalms 42:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

un Masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1

Así como el ciervo anhela los arroyos de agua, así yo tengo sed de Ti, Dios El autor compara su deseo de Dios con el deseo de un venado sediento de agua.

anhela
respiración pesada de un animal o persona que está muy cansada o sedienta yo tengo sed de Ti, Dios... sed de Dios

El autor habla de su fuerte deseo de Dios como si fuera una fuerte sed de agua.

¿cuándo vendré y apareceré delante de Dios?
El autor no hace esta pregunta para obtener una respuesta, sino para mostrar su fuerte deseo de estar ante Dios.

Psalms 42:3

Mis lágrimas han sido mi comida
El autor se refiere a sus lágrimas como si fueran comida que él come. Esto significa que está tan triste que no puede comer. Traducción Alterna: "Mis lágrimas son como mi comida y no como nada más"

día y noche
El autor se refiere a sus lágrimas como si fueran comida que él come. Esto significa que está tan triste que no puede comer. Traducción Alterna: "Mis lágrimas son como mi comida y no como nada más"

mis enemigos siempre me están diciendo Esta frase se refiere a todo el día al referirse tanto a su comienzo como a su final. Traducción Alterna: "todo el día"

¿Dónde está tu Dios?
Los enemigos del autor usan esta pregunta para burlarse de él y expresar que no ven a su Dios ayudándolo. Traducción Alterna: "Tu Dios no está aquí para ayudarte"

traigo a mi mente
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa recordar o pensar en algo. Traducción Alterna: "recordar"

derramo mi alma Aquí la palabra "alma" se refiere a las emociones. El autor habla de su alma como si fuera un líquido que derrama. La frase significa que está expresando su dolor emocional. Traducción Alterna: "Expreso mi dolor"

la multitud
"la multitud de personas"

gozo y alabanza
Esta frase usa dos palabras diferentes para expresar una idea. Traducción Alterna: "alabanza alegre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 42:5

¿Por qué te postras, mi alma? ¿Por qué estás molesta conmigo?
El autor se refiere a su ser interior como su "alma". Él hace estas preguntas para reprenderse a sí mismo. AT: "No debería inclinarme. No debería preocuparme"

está postrada
El escritor habla de depresión o desánimo como si su alma estuviera doblada. Traducción Alterna: "desanimado"

Espera en Dios
El escritor continúa hablando a su propia alma y le ordena que confíe en Dios.

Mi Dios, mi alma
El escritor comienza a hablarle a Dios sobre su alma.

te traigo a mi memoria Esta frase significa recordar o pensar en algo. Traducción Alterna: "Pienso en ti"

la tierra del Jordán Esta es probablemente una referencia al norte de Israel, donde se origina el río Jordán. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra donde comienza el río Jordán"

picos cimas de las montañas

colina de Mizar
Este es el nombre de una colina en la base del Monte Hermón.

Psalms 42:7

La profundidad llama a la profundidad al ruido de tus cataratas
La palabra "profundo" se refiere a aguas profundas, que aquí son probablemente las corrientes que corren por el monte Hermón. El escritor habla de ellos como si fueran personas que se gritan mientras escuchan el sonido de su propio descenso desde la montaña.

todas tus olas...se han venido sobre mí
El autor habla de su gran desgracia y tristeza como si fueran aguas profundas que lo ahogan con una ola tras otra.

todas tus ondas y tus olas
La palabra "olas" es otra palabra para "ondas". Juntas, las dos palabras enfatizan la grandeza de las olas. Traducción Alterna: "todas tus grandes olas"

el SEÑOR mandará su misericordia
El escritor habla de la fidelidad del pacto de EL SEÑOR como si fuera una persona a quien él ordena que esté con él. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR me mostrará su fidelidad al pacto"

Su canción
Los significados posibles son 1) "la canción que me da" o "la canción sobre él"

al Dios de mi vida.
"El Dios que me da la vida"

Psalms 42:9

Yo diré a Dios, mi roca
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una gran roca que proporcionaría protección contra el ataque enemigo.

Por qué sigo de luto
"Ir de luto" es realizar costumbres relacionadas con estar muy triste.

Como con una espada en mis huesos
El escritor describe las reprimendas de sus adversarios cuando recibió una herida mortal.

me dicen siempre
Esto es una exageración; sus enemigos no dicen esto constantemente, pero lo dicen a menudo.

¿Dónde está tu Dios?"
Los enemigos del escritor usan esta pregunta para burlarse de él y expresar que no ven a Dios ayudándolo. Traducción Alterna: "Tu Dios no está aquí para ayudarte"

Psalms 42:11

¿Por qué estás postrada, alma mía? ¿Por qué estás molesta conmigo?
El autor se refiere a su ser interior como su "alma". Él hace estas preguntas para reprenderse a sí mismo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5. Traducción Alterna: "No debería inclinarme, no debería preocuparme"

postrada
El escritor habla de depresión o desánimo como si su alma estuviera doblada. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5. Traducción Alterna: "desanimado"

Espera en Dios
El escritor continúa hablando a su propia alma y le ordena que confíe en Dios. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 43

1 Tráeme justicia, Dios, y defiende mi causa en contra de una nación impía. 2 Pues Tú eres el Dios de mi fuerza. ¿Por qué me has rechazado? ¿Por qué iré de luto debido a la opresión del enemigo? 3 Oh, envía Tu luz y Tu verdad, deja que me dirijan. Que me lleven a Tu monte santo y a Tu morada. 4 Entonces yo iré al altar de Dios, a Dios quien es mi gozo supremo. Yo Te alabaré con el arpa, Dios, mi Dios. 5 ¿Por qué estás postrada, alma mía? ¿Por qué estás confundida dentro de mí? Espera en Dios, porque lo volveré a alabar quien es mi salvación y mi Dios.

Psalms 43:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. y

el Dios de mi fuerza
Los significados posibles son 1) "el Dios que me protege" o 2) "el Dios que me da fuerzas".

¿Por qué me has rechazado? ¿Por qué iré de luto debido a la opresión del enemigo?
El escritor hace estas preguntas para quejarse ante Dios y expresar sus emociones, no para recibir una respuesta.

Por qué iré de luto
"Ir de luto" es realizar costumbres relacionadas con estar muy triste.

debido a la opresión del enemigo
La palabra "opresión" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "porque mi enemigo me oprime"

Psalms 43:3

envía Tu luz y Tu verdad, El escritor habla de la liberación de Dios como si fuera una luz que le muestra el camino y la verdad que le enseña cómo vivir. Traducción Alterna: "guíame con tu luz y tu verdad"

monte santo
Esto se refiere a la colina en Jerusalén donde se encuentra el templo y, por lo tanto, al templo mismo.

Tu morada
"al lugar donde vives"

Dios quien es mi gozo supremo
"Dios, que es mi gran alegría" o "Dios, que me da una gran alegría"

Psalms 43:5

¿Por qué estás postrada, alma mía? ¿Por qué estás confundida dentro de mí?
El autor se refiere a su ser interior como su "alma". Él hace estas preguntas para reprenderse a sí mismo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5. Traducción Alterna: "No debería inclinarme. No debería preocuparme"

postrada
El escritor habla de depresión o desánimo como si su alma estuviera doblada. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5. Traducción Alterna: "desanimado"

Espera en Dios
El escritor continúa hablando a su propia alma y le ordena que confíe en Dios. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 42:5.

mi salvación y mi Dios
La frase "mi salvación" se refiere a Dios. Si es necesario, las dos frases se pueden combinar. Traducción Alterna: "Dios mío quien me salva"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 44

1 Nosotros hemos escuchado con nuestros oídos, Dios; nuestros padres nos han contado la obra que Tú hiciste en sus días, en los días de antaño. 2 Tú sacaste las naciones con Tu mano, pero estableciste nuestro pueblo; Tú afligiste a los pueblos, pero extendiste a nuestro pueblo a través de la tierra. 3 Pues ellos no obtuvieron la tierra para su posesión por su propia espada, ni tampoco los salvó su propio brazo; sino que Tu mano derecha, Tu brazo y la luz de Tu presencia, porque fuiste favorable a ellos. 4 Dios, Tú eres mi Rey; ordena la victoria para Jacob. 5 Por medio de Ti nosotros someteremos a nuestros adversarios; por medio de Tu nombre los pisotearemos, los que se levanten contra nosotros. 6 Pues yo no confiaré en mi arco, ni tampoco me salvará mi espada. 7 Pero Tú nos has salvado de nuestros adversarios, y has puesto en vergüenza a aquellos que nos odian. 8 En Dios nos hemos gloriado todo el día, y daremos gracias a Tu nombre por siempre. 9 Pero ahora Tú nos has rechazado y nos has traído deshonra, y Tú no sales con nuestros ejércitos. 10 Tú nos haces volver del adversario; y aquellos que nos odian toman despojos para sí. 11 Tú nos has hecho como ovejas destinadas a ser alimento y nos has dispersado entre las naciones. 12 Tú vendes a Tu pueblo por nada; no has aumentado Tu riqueza al hacerlo así. 13 Tú nos haces motivo de reproche ante nuestros vecinos, burlados y mofados por aquellos alrededor nuestro. 14 Tú nos haces un insulto entre las naciones, algo por lo cual los pueblos mueven sus cabezas. 15 Todo el día entero mi deshonra está delante de mí, y la vergüenza de mi rostro me ha cubierto 16 debido a la voz de Aquel que me reprende y me insulta, debido al enemigo y al vengador. 17 Todo esto nos ha sobrevenido; sin embargo, nosotros no Te hemos olvidado ni hemos obrado falsamente con Tu pacto. 18 Nuestro corazón no se ha retractado; nuestros pasos no se han ido de Tu camino. 19 Mas Tú nos has quebrantado severamente en el lugar de chacales y nos has cubierto con la sombra de la muerte. 20 Si nos hemos olvidado del nombre de nuestro Dios o levantado nuestras manos a un dios extraño, 21 ¿no lo sabría Dios? Pues Él conoce los secretos del corazón. 22 Ciertamente, por causa Tuya nos están matando todo el día entero; se nos considera como ovejas para el matadero. 23 Despierta, ¿por qué duermes, Señor? Levántate, no nos rechaces permanentemente. 24 ¿Por qué escondes Tu rostro y Te olvidas de nuestra aflicción y nuestra opresión? 25 Porque nos hemos derretido en el polvo; nuestros cuerpos están aferrados a la tierra. 26 Levántate para ayudarnos y redímenos por causa de Tu fidelidad al pacto.

Psalms 44:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: escritura_poesía e higo_paralelismo)

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un salmo de los hijos de Coré
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré".

un masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1

Nosotros hemos escuchado con nuestros oídos, Dios
La palabra "oídos" agrega énfasis a la afirmación de que han escuchado y entendido las cosas que el escritor está a punto de describir. El escritor dirige esta declaración a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, hemos escuchado claramente"

en sus días, en los días de antaño
Ambas frases usan la palabra "días" para referirse al período de tiempo en que los antepasados del pueblo de Israel estaban vivos.

Tú sacaste las naciones con Tu mano
"Forzaste a la gente de otras naciones a irse"

con tu mano
Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere al poder de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "por tu poder" pero estableciste nuestro pueblo

El escritor habla de que Dios está causando que los israelitas vivan en la tierra como si los estuviera plantando en la tierra como si fuera un árbol. Traducción Alterna: "causaste que nuestra gente viviera allí"

Psalms 44:3

por su propia espada
La palabra "espada" se refiere al poder militar. Traducción Alterna: "luchando con sus propias espadas" o "por la fuerza de su propio ejército"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

su propio brazo
Aquí la palabra "brazo" se refiere al poder. Traducción Alterna: "su propio poder"

y la luz de Tu presencia Puede proporcionar un verbo para esta frase. Traducción Alterna: "y la luz de tu rostro obtuvo la tierra para su posesión"

Tu mano derecha, Tu brazo Aquí las palabras "mano" y "brazo" se refieren al poder de Dios. Combinados, enfatizan la grandeza del poder de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "tu gran poder"

la luz de Tu presencia El escritor habla de EL SEÑOR mirándolos con favor y siendo amable con ellos como si el rostro de EL SEÑOR los iluminara. Traducción Alterna: "su amabilidad" o "su buen favor"

victoria para Jacob
Se hace referencia al pueblo de Israel por el nombre de su antepasado "Jacob".

Psalms 44:5

Por medio de Ti...Por medio de Ti por ti..por tu

someteremos...los pisotearemos...los que se levanten
El escritor habla de la derrota de sus enemigos como si estuvieran "abajo" y de que se prepararan para luchar como si estuvieran "arriba".

por medio de Tu nombre Aquí la palabra "nombre" se refiere al poder y la autoridad de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "por tu poder"

los pisotearemos
"pisarlos bajo nuestros pies" o "caminar sobre ellos"

Psalms 44:7

nos hemos gloriado
La palabra "alardear" se puede traducir con un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "nos hemos jactado"

daremos gracias a Tu nombre Aquí la palabra "nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "te daremos gracias"

Psalms 44:9

nos has rechazado
El escritor habla del rechazo de Dios a Israel como si estuviera desechando una pieza de ropa no deseada. Traducción Alterna: "nos rechazó"

despojos
recursos y tesoros que un ejército recoge después de ganar una batalla

Tú nos has hecho como ovejas destinadas a ser alimento
El escritor compara a los israelitas con las ovejas que la gente mata y come. Como las ovejas están indefensas ante los que las matan, los israelitas están indefensos ante sus enemdestinadas a ser alimento y nos has dispersado entre las naciones.igos. Traducción Alterna: "Has permitido que nuestros enemigos nos maten como si mataran una oveja y se la comieran" destinadas a ser alimento y nos has dispersado entre las naciones.

"destinado a convertirse en comida que la gente come"

nos has dispersado entre las naciones
"nos hizo vivir en muchas naciones diferentes"

Psalms 44:12

Tú vendes a Tu pueblo por nada
El escritor habla de EL SEÑOR permitiendo que los enemigos de Israel los conquisten como si estuviera vendiendo al pueblo de Israel a sus enemigos pero no requiere ningún pago por parte de sus enemigos.

Tú nos haces motivo de reproche ante nuestros vecinos, burlados y mofados por aquellos alrededor nuestro Estas dos frases son paralelas y enfatizan cómo las personas entre quienes viven se burlan de ellos.

Tú nos haces motivo de reproche ante nuestros vecinos
La palabra "reproche" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Tu das motivo a nuestros vecinos para que nos reprochen"

burlados y mofados por aquellos alrededor nuestro Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los que nos rodean se mofan de nosotros y se burlan de nosotros"

insulto entre...mueven sus cabezas
Estas frases son paralelas y enfatizan cuán intensamente se burlan las naciones a su alrededor.

Tú nos haces un insulto entre las naciones, La palabra "insulto" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Haces que las naciones que nos rodean nos insulten"

algo por lo cual los pueblos mueven sus cabezas La frase "mueven la cabeza" se puede traducir en forma verbal.Traducción Alterna: "algo ante lo cual los pueblos mueven la cabeza"

mueven la cabeza
Esto fue un gesto que la gente solía mostrar para despreciar a los demás.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 44:15

mi deshonra está delante de mí
El escritor habla de su deshonra como si fuera un objeto que siempre está frente a él para que lo vea. La frase significa que él siempre está pensando en su deshonra. Traducción Alterna: "Pienso en mi deshonra"

la vergüenza de mi rostro me ha cubierto
El escritor habla de su vergüenza como si fuera un objeto que lo cubre como una manta lo cubriría. Traducción Alterna: "la vergüenza de mi cara me ha abrumado"

la vergüenza de mi rostro
"La vergüenza que se nota en mi cara". Esto se refiere a sus expresiones faciales que causa su vergüenza.

debido a la voz de Aquel que me reprende y me insulta Aquí las palabras "la voz" se refieren a lo que dice la persona. Traducción Alterna: "por lo que dice la persona que me reprende y me insulta"

reprende y me insulta
Estas palabras tienen significados similares y enfatizan la naturaleza severa de lo que dice esta persona.

Psalms 44:18

Nuestro corazón no se ha retractado... no se han ido de Tu camino
Estas dos frases son paralelas. El escritor habla de la lealtad a Dios como si lo estuviera siguiendo, y la deslealtad como si se estuviera alejando de él.

Nuestro corazón no se ha retractado
Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a las emociones, y específicamente a la lealtad y la devoción. Traducción Alterna: "No hemos dejado de serle fieles"

Mas Tú nos has quebrantado severamente
El escritor habla del castigo de Dios como si estuviera rompiendo un objeto frágil. Ttraducción Alterna: "nos has castigado severamente"

en el lugar de chacales
El escritor habla de Israel después del castigo de Dios como si fuera un lugar salvaje e inhabitable. Traducción Alterna: "e hizo nuestra tierra como un lugar donde viven los chacales"

chacales
un tipo de perro salvaje

nos has cubierto con la sombra de la muerte
El escritor habla de la muerte como si fuera un objeto que arroja una sombra sobre aquellos que están a punto de morir. Traducción Alterna: "nos cubrió para que estemos a punto de morir"

Si nos hemos olvidado del nombre de nuestro Dios Aquí la palabra "nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. Olvidar a Dios es dejar de adorarlo. Esto es algo que no sucedió. Traducción Alterna: "Si hubiéramos olvidado a nuestro Dios" o "Si hubiéramos dejado de adorar a nuestro Dios"

levantado nuestras manos a un dios extraño
Extender las manos es un gesto que la gente solía usar para adorar y orar a un dios. Traducción Alterna: "adoró a un dios extraño" o "oró a un dios extraño"

¿no lo sabría Dios?
El escritor usa esta pregunta para expresar que Dios sabría si adoraran a otro dios. Traducción Alterna: "Dios ciertamente lo descubriría"

Él conoce los secretos del corazón Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a la mente y los pensamientos. Traducción Alterna: "él sabe lo que una persona piensa en secreto" nos están matando todo el día entero

La frase "todo el día" es una exageración para enfatizar que sus personas son asesinadas con frecuencia. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente nos está matando todo el tiempo"

se nos considera como ovejas para el matadero Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente nos considera ovejas para el mataderp"

ovejas para el matadero
El escritor compara a los israelitas con las ovejas que la gente mata y come. Como las ovejas están indefensas ante los que las matan, los israelitas están indefensos ante sus enemigos.

Psalms 44:23

Despierta, ¿por qué duermes, Señor?
Esto no significa que Dios esté realmente dormido. El escritor habla de la aparente inactividad de Dios como si Dios estuviera durmiendo. Hace la pregunta para reprender a Dios por parecer que no le preocupan sus problemas. Traducción Alterna: "¡Despierta! ¡Siento que estás durmiendo, Señor!"

no nos rechaces
El escritor habla del rechazo de Dios a Israel como si estuviera desechando una pieza de ropa no deseada. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 44:9. Traducción Alterna: "no nos rechaces"

¿Por qué escondes Tu rostro...nuestra opresión?
El escritor usa esta pregunta para quejarse de que Dios parece estar ignorándolos .Traducción Alterna: "No escondas tu rostro ... nuestra opresión".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

escondes Tu rostro
El escritor habla de Dios ignorándolos como si Dios estuviera escondiendo su rostro para que no pudiera verlos. Traducción Alterna: "ignóranos"

Te olvidas de nuestra aflicción y nuestra opresión
Las palabras "aflicción" y "opresión" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la severidad de su aflicción. Estas palabras también pueden traducirse como verbos. Traducción Alterna: "olvidas que las personas nos afligen y nos oprimen" u "olvidas que las personas nos afligen mucho"

Psalms 44:25

Porque nos hemos derretido en el polvo; nuestros cuerpos están aferrados a la tierra
Estas frases paralelas comparten significados similares. El escritor describe a su gente como tirada en el suelo en una postura de derrota y humillación.

Porque nos hemos derretido en el polvo
El escritor habla de su humillación como si sus cuerpos fueran objetos, como el hielo, que se derriten y se sumergen en la tierra.

nuestros cuerpos están aferrados a la tierra.
El escritor habla de su humillación como si sus cuerpos estuvieran pegados al suelo y no pudieran levantarse.

Levántate
Este es un comando para estar de pie. Esta frase se refiere a comenzar a actuar sobre algo. Traducción Alterna: "Actúa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 45

1 Mi corazón se emociona con un tema bueno; yo leeré en voz alta las palabras que he compuesto acerca del Rey; mi lengua es la pluma de un escritor que está presto. 2 Tú eres más hermoso que los hijos de la humanidad; la gracia es derramada sobre Tus labios; por lo tanto, nosotros sabemos que Dios Te ha bendecido para siempre. 3 Pon Tu espada a Tu lado, Poderoso, en Tu gloria y Tu majestad. 4 En Tu majestad cabalga adelante triunfalmente debido a la confiabilidad, la mansedumbre y la justicia; Tu mano derecha Te enseñará cosas grandes y terribles. 5 Tus flechas son afiladas; los pueblos caen debajo de Ti; Tus flechas están en los corazones de los enemigos del rey. 6 Tu trono, Dios, es para siempre y siempre; un cetro de justicia es el cetro de Tu reino. 7 Tú has amado la justicia y has odiado la maldad; por lo tanto, Dios, Tu Dios, Te ha ungido con el aceite de alegría más que a Tus compañeros. 8 Todas tus vestimentas huelen a mirra, áloe y casia; desde palacios de marfil Te han alegrado instrumentos de cuerdas. 9 Las hijas de reyes están entre Tus mujeres honorables; a Tu mano derecha está de pie la reina vestida de oro de Ofir. 10 Escucha, hija, considera e inclina tu oído; olvida tu propio pueblo y la casa de tu padre. 11 De esta manera el Rey deseará tu belleza; Él es tu Señor, muéstrale reverencia. 12 La hija de Tiro estará allí con un obsequio; los ricos entre el pueblo rogarán por tu favor. 13 La hija real en el palacio es toda gloriosa; su ropa está trabajada con oro. 14 Ella será llevada al Rey en traje bordado; las vírgenes, las compañeras que la siguen, serán traídas a Ti. 15 Ellas serán llevadas con alegría y regocijo; ellas entrarán al palacio del Rey. 16 En el lugar de Tus padres estarán Tus hijos a quienes Tú harás príncipes en toda la tierra. 17 Yo haré que Tu nombre sea recordado en todas las generaciones; por lo tanto, los pueblos Te darán las gracias por siempre y siempre.

Psalms 45:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: escritura_poesía e higo_paralelismo)

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

al son de Sosanim
Esto puede referirse a un estilo o la melodía de la música. A veces se traduce como "ajustado a la melodía de Lirios"

Un salmo de los hijos de Coré.
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré".

un masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32: 1.

canción de amores
"Una canción de amor"

Mi corazón se emociona con un tema bueno
El escritor habla de su corazón como si fuera un recipiente que se desborda de líquido. La palabra "corazón" representa sus emociones, que están emocionadas por la canción que canta. Traducción Alterna: "Mis emociones están entusiasmadas con un buen tema"

un tema bueno
"un tema noble" o "una bella palabra". Esto se refiere a la canción que ha escrito.

compuesto
haber escrito o creado una canción

mi lengua es la pluma de un escritor que está presto
El escritor habla de su lengua como si fuera un bolígrafo. Habla palabras tan hábilmente como un escritor experimentado escribe palabras. Tradución Alterna: "mi lengua es como la pluma de una persona que escribe bien" o "hablo palabras tan hábilmente como un escritor experimentado puede escribir palabras"

Tú eres más hermoso que los hijos de la humanidad Esta frase es una exageración que enfatiza que el rey es más guapo que nadie. La frase "hijos de hombres" es una expresión idiomática y se refiere a todos los humanos. Traduccion Alterna: "Eres más guapo que cualquier otro hombre"

la gracia es derramada sobre Tus labios
El escritor habla de la gracia como si fuera un aceite que alguien ha usado para ungir los labios del rey. La palabra "labios" se refiere al discurso del rey. La frase significa que el rey habla elocuentemente. Traducción Alterna: "es como si alguien ungiera tus labios con aceite" o "hablas elocuentemente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 45:3

Pon Tu espada a Tu lado
Los guerreros llevaban sus espadas en una funda que colgaba de un cinturón alrededor de su cintura. La espada descansaría contra su costado. Esta frase describe una acción de alguien preparándose para la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "Prepárate para la batalla"

cabalga adelante triunfalmente
El escritor le dice al rey que monte su caballo o carro hacia la victoria.

debido a la confiabilidad, la mansedumbre y la justicia Los significados posibles son 1) estas son cualidades del poderoso. Traducción Alterna: "porque eres confiable, manso y justo" o 2) estas son virtudes que él lucha por defender para las personas que gobierna. Traducción Alterna: "para mantener la confianza, la mansedumbre y la justicia"

Tu mano derecha Te enseñará cosas grandes y terribles
La mayoría de los soldados sostenían sus espadas con sus manos derechas cuando luchaban. Aquí, la frase "mano derecha" se refiere a su habilidad para pelear, de la cual el escritor habla como si fuera una persona que puede enseñarle al rey a través de la experiencia que gana en la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "Aprenderás a lograr grandes hazañas militares luchando en muchas batallas"

cosas grandes y terribles
"hechos asombrosos". Esto se refiere a victorias militares que hacen que sus enemigos le teman y que sus aliados lo veneren.

Psalms 45:5

los pueblos caen debajo de Ti Esta frase se refiere al rey que derrota a sus enemigos. Los significados posibles son 1) "los pueblos caen a tus pies en señal de rendición" o 2) "los pueblos caen muertos a tus pies".

Tus flechas están en los corazones de los enemigos del rey
"Tus flechas han perforado los corazones de tus enemigos". El escritor le habla al rey mientras se refiere al rey en tercera persona.

Tu trono...para siempre y siempre;
La palabra "trono" representa el reino y el gobierno del rey. Traducción Alterna: "Tu reino...es eterno y para siempre" o "Reinarás...eternamente y para siempre"

Tu trono, Dios,
Los posibles significados son que la palabra "Dios" 1) es un título para el rey, que es el representante de Dios o 2) modifica la palabra "trono" y significa "Tu reino que Dios te ha dado" (UDB).

un cetro de justicia es el cetro de Tu reino
La palabra "cetro" representa la autoridad del rey para gobernar su reino. Traducción Alterna: "gobiernas tu reino con justicia"

Dios, Tu Dios, Te ha ungido con el aceite de alegría
El escritor habla de alegría como si fuera un aceite que Dios usó para ungir al rey. Que Dios lo haya ungido es una acción simbólica que representa que Dios lo eligió para ser rey. Traducción Alterna: "cuando Dios te nombró rey, te hizo muy feliz"

Psalms 45:8

Información general
Aquí el escritor comienza a describir lo que parece ser la ceremonia de la boda del rey y su novia.

mirra ,áloe y casia
Estas son sustancias vegetales aromáticas que la gente solía hacer perfumes.

palacios de marfil
El marfil es una sustancia blanca dura que forma los colmillos de los animales. Esta frase describe un palacio con paredes y muebles que la gente ha decorado con marfil.

Te han alegrado instrumentos de cuerdas
Las palabras "instrumentos de cuerda" se refieren a la música que la gente hace tocando los instrumentos de cuerda. Traducción Alterna: "la música de los instrumentos de cuerda te ha alegrado"

Tus mujeres honorables
Estas mujeres son esposas del rey que reciben su aprobación.

la reina
Esta es una referencia a la mujer que se convertirá en reina. Traducción Alterna: "tu novia, la reina"

Ofir
Este es el nombre de un lugar que tenía fama por su oro fino. La ubicación es desconocida. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Psalms 45:10

Escucha, hija
El escritor comienza a hablar con la reina y se refiere a ella como "hija" porque es una mujer joven.

inclina tu oído
El escritor habla de escuchar atentamente algo como si estuviera inclinando la oreja hacia la persona que está hablando. Traducción Alterna: "escucha atentamente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

olvida tu propio pueblo
La escritora habla de que la reina ya no sigue las creencias y costumbres de su gente nativa como si las estuviera olvidando. Traducción Alterna: "ya no sigas las costumbres de tu gente"

la casa de tu padre Aquí la palabra "casa" se refiere a la familia. Traducción Alterna: "tus parientes"

De esta manera
"y" o "entonces"

el Rey deseará tu belleza
Esta es una manera educada de decir que el rey querrá acostarse con la reina como su esposa.

Psalms 45:12

Información general
El escritor continúa hablando con la reina.

La hija de Tiro
El escritor habla de las personas que viven en Tiro como si fueran hijos de Tiro. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de Tiro"

La hija real Esta es una referencia a la mujer con quien se casará el rey. Traducción Alterna: "La novia del rey"

toda gloriosa
"muy hermosa." Esto se refiere a la apariencia de la mujer.

su ropa está trabajada con oro
Su ropa está decorada o bordada con oro. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ella usa ropa que alguien ha bordado con hilo dorado"

Psalms 45:14

Información General
El autor continúa hablando sobre la reina pero comienza a dirigirse nuevamente al rey.

Ella será llevada al Rey en traje bordado Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente la llevará al rey mientras usa un vestido bordado"

bordado
un diseño hecho cosiendo hilos de colores en tela

las vírgenes, las compañeras que la siguen, serán traídas a Ti Aquí la palabra "usted" se refiere al rey. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente te traerá a las vírgenes, sus compañeras que la siguen"

Ellas serán llevadas con alegría y regocijo Esta frase describe "alegría y regocijo" como una persona que lleva a otros a celebrar. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La alegría y el regocijo los guiarán" o "Procederán con alegría y regocijo"

alegría y regocijo
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad de la alegría. Traducción Alterna: "gran alegría"

Psalms 45:16

Oración de enlace
El escritor continúa dirigiéndose al rey.

En el lugar de Tus padres estarán Tus hijos
Esto significa que los hijos del rey lo reemplazarán como rey, así como él reemplazó a sus antepasados como rey.

Tú harás príncipes en toda la tierra.
La frase "en toda la tierra" es una exageración para enfatizar que gobernarán sobre muchas naciones. Traducción Alterna: "harás gobernantes sobre muchas naciones"

Yo haré que Tu nombre sea recordado en todas las generaciones Aquí la palabra "yo" se refiere al escritor. La palabra "nombre" se refiere al carácter y la reputación del rey. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Haré que las personas de cada generación sepan sobre tu grandeza"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 46

1 Dios es nuestro refugio y fortaleza, una ayuda muy presente en los problemas. 2 Por lo tanto, nosotros no temeremos, aunque la tierra pueda cambiar, aunque las montañas fueran sacudidas hasta el corazón de los mares, 3 aunque sus aguas rujan y se enfurezcan y aunque las montañas tiemblen con su hinchazón. 4 Hay un río, cuyas corrientes hacen alegrar la ciudad de Dios, el lugar santo de los tabernáculos del Altísimo. 5 Dios está en el medio de ella; ella no será movida; Dios la ayudará, y lo hará al amanecer. 6 Las naciones se enfurecieron y los reinos fueron sacudidos; Él alzó Su voz, y la tierra se derritió. 7 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos está con nosotros; el Dios de Jacob es nuestro refugio. 8 Vengan, contemplen las obras del SEÑOR, la destrucción que Él ha causado en la tierra. 9 Él hace que las guerras cesen hasta los fines de la tierra; Él rompe el arco y parte la lanza en pedazos; Él quema los escudos. 10
Hagan silencio y conozcan que Yo soy Dios; Yo seré exaltado entre las naciones; Yo seré exaltado en la tierra. 11 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos está con nosotros; el Dios de Jacob es nuestro refugio.

Psalms 46:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: escritura_poesía e higo_paralelismo)

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un salmo de los hijos de Coré
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré"

sobre Alamot
Esto se refiere a un estilo de música.

Dios es nuestro refugio y fortaleza
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera un lugar donde la gente puede ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "Dios nos da seguridad y fortaleza"

las montañas fueran sacudidas hasta el corazón de los mares El escritor habla de la parte más profunda del mar como si fuera el corazón del mar. Aquí describe un terremoto que hace que las montañas se desmoronen y caigan al mar. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las montañas deben temblar tan violentamente que caen en las profundidades del mar"

aunque sus aguas rujan y se enfurezcan
"aunque las aguas del mar rujan y se enfurezcan". Las palabras "rugido" y "rabia" describen los movimientos violentos del mar durante una fuerte tormenta.

montañas tiemblen con su hinchazón
La frase "su hinchazón" se refiere a las aguas del mar cuando se elevan y chocan contra las montañas. Traducción Alterna: "las aguas crecientes hacen temblar las montañas"

Psalms 46:4

Hay un río, cuyas corrientes hacen alegrar la ciudad de Dios
"Hay un río cuyas corrientes hacen feliz a la ciudad de Dios". Las imágenes de un río que corre simboliza la paz y la prosperidad de la ciudad de Dios.

alegrar la ciudad de Dios
La frase "ciudad de Dios" se refiere a Jerusalén, de la cual el escritor habla como una persona que puede ser feliz. Traducción Alterna: "haga felices a las personas que viven en Jerusalén"

el lugar santo de los tabernáculos del Altísimo Esta frase describe la "ciudad de Dios". Los "tabernáculos" plurales intensifican la idea de que esta es la morada especial de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "el lugar sagrado donde vive el Altísimo" está en el medio de ella; ella no será movida....la ayudará, Las palabras "ella" y "la" se refieren a la "ciudad de Dios".

ella no será movida
Aquí, la palabra "movido" es la misma palabra traducida como "sacudido" en 46:1. El escritor habla de la destrucción de Jerusalén por ejércitos como si un terremoto fuera a destruirla. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nada podrá destruirla"

Psalms 46:6

Las naciones se enfurecieron
Aquí, la palabra "furioso" es la misma palabra que el escritor usó en 46:1 para describir las aguas del mar. El escritor habla del miedo a las naciones como si fueran los movimientos violentos del mar durante una fuerte tormenta. Traducción Alterna: "Las naciones están aterrorizadas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los reinos fueron sacudidos
Aquí, la palabra "sacudido" es la misma palabra que el escritor usó en 46:1 para describir el efecto de un terremoto en las montañas. El escritor habla del derrocamiento de reinos por ejércitos como si un terremoto los destruyera. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los ejércitos derrocaron a los reinos"

Él alzó Su voz
"Dios levantó su voz". El escritor habla de la "voz" como un objeto que una persona puede levantar y elevar en el aire. Esto significa que la voz se vuelve más fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "Dios gritó"

la tierra se derritió
El escritor habla de la tierra como un objeto, como el hielo, que puede derretirse. Aquí "la tierra" representa a la humanidad, y fundirse representa miedo. Traducción Alterna: "la gente de la tierra tiembla de miedo" el Dios de Jacob es nuestro refugio.

El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera un lugar donde la gente puede ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "el Dios de Jacob nos da seguridad"

el Dios de Jacob
Los posibles significados son 1) "el Dios a quien Jacob adoró" o 2) "Jacob" es una metonimia para la nación de Israel y significa "el Dios de Israel".

Psalms 46:8

Él hace que las guerras cesen
"Hace que las naciones dejen de pelear guerras"

hasta los fines de la tierra
"Hace que las naciones dejen de pelear guerras"

Él rompe el arco... Él quema los escudos
Una forma en que EL SEÑOR hará cesar todas las guerras es destruyendo las armas que los ejércitos usan para luchar entre sí.

Psalms 46:10

Hagan silencio y conozcan que Yo soy Dios
Aquí, Dios comienza a hablar.

Hagan silencio
En este contexto, estas palabras son probablemente un comando para que las naciones detengan sus guerras. Traducción Alterna: "Deja de pelear"

conozcan que Yo soy Dios Aquí la palabra "saber" significa entender y confesar que Jehová es el Dios verdadero.

Yo seré exaltado entre las naciones; Yo seré exaltado en la tierra
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que las personas de todas las naciones del mundo exaltarán a Dios. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de todas las naciones me exaltará; la gente de toda la tierra me exaltará"

El SEÑOR de los ejércitos está con nosotros; el Dios de Jacob es nuestro refugio.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que las personas de todas las naciones del mundo exaltarán a Dios. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de todas las naciones me exaltará; la gente de toda la tierra me exaltará"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 47

1 Aplaudan con sus manos, ustedes todos los pueblos; griten a Dios con el sonido de triunfo. 2 Porque el SEÑOR Altísimo es terrible; Él es un gran Rey sobre toda la tierra. 3 Él somete a los pueblos debajo de nosotros y naciones debajo nuestros pies. 4 Él escoge nuestra herencia para nosotros, la gloria de Jacob a quien Él amó. 5 Dios ha subido con un grito, el SEÑOR con el sonido de una trompeta. 6 Canten alabanzas a Dios, canten alabanzas; canten alabanzas a nuestro Rey, canten alabanzas. 7 Porque Dios es el Rey sobre toda la tierra; canten alabanzas con entendimiento. 8 Dios reina sobre las naciones; Dios se sienta en Su trono santo. 9 Los príncipes de los pueblos se han reunido con el pueblo del Dios de Abraham; pues los escudos de la tierra le pertenecen a Dios; Él es exaltado grandemente.

Psalms 47:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: escritura_poesía e higo_paralelismo)

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

un salmo de los hijos de Coré
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré"

Aplaudan con sus manos Aplaudir se asocia con la celebración. Traducción Alterna: "Aplauda en celebración" griten a Dios con el sonido de triunfo

"grita a Dios con voces alegres". Aquí la palabra "triunfo" se refiere a la alegría asociada con la victoria.

Psalms 47:3

Él somete a los pueblos debajo de nosotros y naciones debajo
Estas dos frases son paralelas y significan que Dios permitió a Israel conquistar a sus enemigos.

somete
para conquistar y colocar bajo la autoridad de otro debajo de nosotros...debajo de nuestros pies

El escritor habla de conquistar otras naciones como si estuviera poniendo a esas naciones debajo de sus pies.

Él escoge nuestra herencia para nosotros
El escritor habla de la tierra de Israel como si fuera una herencia que Dios le ha dado al pueblo como una posesión permanente. Traducción Alterna: "Él elige esta tierra como una herencia para nosotros"

la gloria de Jacob
Aquí la palabra "gloria" se refiere a una fuente de orgullo y representa la tierra que Dios le ha dado a su pueblo como herencia. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra de la que Jacob se enorgullece"

Jacob a quien Él amó
La palabra "Jacob" se refiere a la nación de Israel.

Dios ha subido con un grito
El escritor habla de que Dios conquistó a las naciones como si Dios fuera un rey que ascendía a su trono, que estaba ubicado en el templo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios ha subido al templo como la gente gritaba" el SEÑOR con el sonido de una trompeta.

Esta frase es paralela a la frase anterior. El verbo se puede suministrar para mayor claridad. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR ha subido mientras la gente tocaba las trompetas"

Psalms 47:6

Canten alabanzas a Dios, canten alabanzas; canten alabanzas a nuestro Rey, canten alabanzas La frase "cantar alabanzas" se repite para enfatizar. Puede omitir la repetición si es incómodo en su idioma. Traducción Alterna: "Canta, canta alabanzas a Dios; canta, canta alabanzas a nuestro Rey"

Psalms 47:8

Los príncipes de los pueblos
"Los gobernantes de todas las naciones"

se han reunido con el pueblo del Dios Los posibles significados son que los gobernantes de las naciones 1) "se reúnen frente al pueblo" (UDB) o 2) "se juntan con el pueblo" para que todos puedan adorar a Dios como rey.

los escudos de la tierra le pertenecen a Dios Los posibles significados son que "escudos" 1) se refiere a instrumentos de guerra. Traducción Alterna: "Dios tiene más poder que las armas de todos los reyes en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 48

1 Grande es el SEÑOR y digno de ser alabado, en la ciudad de nuestro Dios en Su monte santo. 2 Hermoso en su elevación, la alegría de toda la tierra, es el Monte de Sion, a los lados del norte, la ciudad del gran Rey. 3 En sus palacios, Dios se ha hecho conocer como un refugio. 4 Pues, mira, los reyes se reunieron ellos mismos, ellos pasaron juntos. 5 Ellos lo vieron; entonces ellos se asombraron, se espantaron y avanzaron a huir. 6 Temblor se apoderó de ellos allí, dolor como cuando una mujer está de parto. 7 Con el viento del este Tu rompiste los barcos de Tarsis. 8 Como hemos oído, así hemos visto en la ciudad del SEÑOR de los ejércitos, en la ciudad de nuestro Dios; Dios la establecerá para siempre. 9 Hemos pensado en tu misericordia, Dios, en medio de Tu templo. 10 Así como tu nombre es, Dios, así es tu alabanza hasta los fines de la tierra; Tu mano derecha está llena de justicia. 11 Que el Monte Sion se alegre, que las hijas de Judá se regocijen a causa de tus justos decretos. 12 Caminen alrededor del Monte de Sion, rodéenlo; cuenten sus torres, 13 noten sus muros, y vean a sus palacios para que así puedan contarlo a la siguiente generación. 14 Pues este Dios es nuestro Dios para siempre y siempre; Él será nuestro guía hasta la muerte.

Psalms 48:1

Información General
Este salmo es una canción sobre Jerusalén como la morada de Dios.

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

un salmo de los hijos de Coré
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré"

digno de ser alabado Esto se puede afirmar en activo desde. Traducción Alterna: "la gente debe alabarlo mucho" en la ciudad de nuestro Dios en Su monte santo Esta es una referencia a Jerusalén, que fue construida en el Monte Sión.

en la ciudad de nuestro Dios Los significados posibles son 1) "la ciudad donde vive nuestro Dios" o 2) "la ciudad que pertenece a nuestro Dios"

Hermoso en su elevación
"Hermoso y alto". La palabra "elevación" se refiere a cuán alto es el monte Sion.

la alegría de toda la tierra, es el Monte de Sion Aquí la palabra "tierra" se refiere a todos los que viven en la tierra. La palabra "alegría" puede traducirse como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "El Monte Sión da alegría a todos en la tierra" o "todos en la tierra se regocijan por el Monte Sión"

a los lados del norte
Los posibles significados son que esta frase 1) se refiere a la dirección del norte o 2) es otro nombre para el Monte Sión que significa "la montaña de Dios".

Dios se ha hecho conocer como un refugio.
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera un lugar donde la gente puede ir por seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "Dios se ha dado a conocer como alguien que da seguridad a la gente en los palacios del Monte Sión"

Psalms 48:4

mira
La palabra "ver" aquí nos alerta para prestar atención a la sorprendente información que sigue.

se reunieron ellos mismos Esto significa que los reyes de otras naciones reunieron sus ejércitos. Traducción Alterna: "reunieron a sus ejércitos"

ellos pasaron juntos
"juntos pasaron por Jerusalén"

Ellos lo vieron
"Vieron Jerusalén"

espantaron
"muy preocupado"

Temblor se apoderó de ellos
El escritor habla del miedo de los reyes como si fuera una persona que hizo temblar a los reyes y a sus ejércitos. Traducción Alterna: "Allí temblaron de miedo"

dolor como cuando una mujer está de parto
El escritor habla del miedo de los reyes como si fuera el dolor que experimenta una mujer durante el parto y habla de ese dolor como si fuera una persona. El verbo se puede suministrar de la cláusula anterior. Traducción Alterna: "el dolor se apoderó de ellos, como cuando una mujer está en trabajo de parto" o "se asustaron, como una mujer tiene miedo de experimentar dolores de parto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 48:7

Con el viento del este Tu rompiste los barcos de Tarsis Los posibles significados son 1) esta es una metáfora en la que el autor describe a los reyes asustados como si fueran barcos que se sacuden porque Dios los destruye con un fuerte viento. Traducción Alterna: "Temblaron de miedo, mientras las naves de Tarsis se sacudían cuando las rompías con el viento del este" o 2) este es un apóstrofe en el que el autor describe el gran poder de Dios.

el viento del este
Los significados posibles son 1) "un viento que sopla del este" o 2) "un viento fuerte".

los barcos de Tarsis
Los posibles significados son que esto se refiere a 1) barcos que navegan o se construyen en la ciudad de Tarshish o 2) cualquier barco grande que vaya al océano.

Como hemos oído
Está implícito que lo que han escuchado son las grandes cosas que Dios ha hecho en el pasado. Traducción Alterna: "Como hemos escuchado sobre las grandes cosas que Dios ha hecho"

así hemos visto
Esto significa que han visto la prueba de que las cosas que han escuchado son ciertas. Traducción Alterna: "ahora hemos visto a Dios hacer grandes cosas"

en la ciudad del SEÑOR de los ejércitos, en la ciudad de nuestro Dios Ambas frases se refieren a Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "en la ciudad de nuestro Dios, Yahvé de los ejércitos" establecerá

"hazlo seguro". Aquí la palabra "establecer" significa preservar y hacer algo seguro.

Psalms 48:9

en medio de Tu templo
"como estamos en tu templo"

Así como tu nombre es... así es tu alabanza hasta los fines de la tierra Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa el carácter y la reputación de Dios. Las dos frases comparan la grandeza de la reputación de Dios con lo mucho que la gente lo alaba. Traducción Alterna: "Tu nombre es muy bueno ... y la gente de todo el mundo te alaba en gran manera" o "La gente de todo el mundo ha oído hablar de ti ... así que la gente de todo el mundo te alaba"

hasta los fines de la tierra
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa en todas partes de la palabra. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 46:8.

Tu mano derecha está llena de justicia
El escritor habla de la justicia como si fuera un objeto que Dios podría tener en su mano. Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere al poder y la autoridad de Dios para gobernar. Traducción Alterna: "gobiernas con justicia" o "eres justo como gobiernas"

Psalms 48:11

Que el Monte Sion se alegre
El escritor habla del Monte Sión como si fuera una persona que podría alegrarse. La frase se refiere a las personas que viven en Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "Que se alegren los que viven en el Monte Sión" que las hijas de Judá se regocijen

El escritor habla de los pueblos de Judá como si fueran hijos de Judá. La frase se refiere a las personas que viven en esos pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "deje que las personas que viven en las ciudades de Judá se regocijen"

Psalms 48:12

Caminen alrededor del Monte de Sion, rodéenlo Estas dos frases son paralelas. Traducción Alterna: "Camina alrededor del Monte Sión" noten

"aviso en detalle"

Psalms 48:14

Él será nuestro guía
La palabra "guía" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "él nos guiará"

hasta la muerte
Los significados posibles son 1) "hasta que muramos" o 2) "para siempre".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 49

1 Escuchen esto, ustedes todos los pueblos; presten oído, 2 ambos bajos y altos, ricos y pobres juntamente. 3 Mi boca hablará sabiduría y la meditación de mi corazón será de entendimiento. 4 Yo inclinaré mi oído a la parábola; comenzaré mi parábola con el arpa. 5 ¿Por qué yo debería temer los días de maldad, cuándo la iniquidad me rodee mis talones? 6 ¿Por qué he de temer a los que confían en sus riquezas y alardean acerca de la cantidad de sus riquezas? 7 Es cierto que nadie puede redimir a su hermano ni dar a Dios rescate por él, 8 pues la redención de una vida es costosa, y nadie puede pagar lo que nosotros debemos. 9 Nadie puede vivir para siempre para que su cuerpo no decaiga. 10 Pues el verá decaimiento. El hombre sabio muere; el tonto y el necio igualmente perecen y dejan su riqueza a otros. 11 Su pensamiento interno es que sus familias continuarán para siempre, y los lugares donde ellos viven, para todas las generaciones; ellos llaman sus tierras por sus nombres. 12 Pero el hombre, teniendo riquezas, no permanece vivo; él es como las bestias que perecen. 13 Este, su camino, es su locura; y aun luego de éstos, también los hombres que aprueban sus dichos. 14 Como ovejas ellos están designados para el Seol, y la muerte será su pastor. Los rectos gobernarán sobre ellos en la mañana, y sus cuerpos serán consumidos en el Seol, sin un lugar para ellos vivir. 15 Pero Dios redimirá mi vida del poder del Seol; Él me recibirá. 16 No temas cuando alguien se vuelva rico, y la gloria de su casa aumente. 17 Pues cuando él muera, él no se llevará nada; su gloria no bajará detrás de él. 18 Él bendijo su alma mientras él vivía, y los hombres te alaban cuando vives para tí mismo, 19 él irá a la generación de sus padres y ellos no verán la luz otra vez. 20 Uno que tiene riqueza pero no entendimiento es como las bestias, las cuales perecen.

Psalms 49:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

Un salmo de los hijos de Coré
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré"

Escuchen esto, ustedes todos los pueblos; presten oído, Estas dos frases son paralelas. Juntos fortalecen el comando para que todas las personas escuchen.

presten oido
Esta expresión idiomática significa usar los oídos para escuchar. Traducción Alterna: "escuchar"

ambos bajos y altos
El escritor habla de personas que son débiles o insignificantes en la sociedad como bajas y de personas que son importantes y poderosas como altas. Juntas, las palabras "bajo" y "alto" representan a todas las personas. Traducción Alterna: "personas importantes y personas sin importancia"

ricos y pobres juntamente
En conjunto, las palabras "rico" y "pobre" se refieren a todas las personas, independientemente de la riqueza. Traducción Alterna: "todas las personas"

Psalms 49:3

Mi boca hablará sabiduría Aquí la palabra "boca" se refiere a toda la persona que habla. Traducción Alterna: "Hablaré palabras sabias"

la meditación de mi corazón será de entendimiento Aquí la palabra "corazón" representa la mente y los pensamientos. La palabra "meditación" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "los pensamientos sobre los que medito conducirán a la comprensión"

Yo inclinaré mi oído
El escritor habla de escuchar atentamente algo como si estuviera inclinando la oreja hacia la persona que está hablando. Traducción Alterna: "escucha atentamente"

con el arpa
"mientras toco el arpa"

¿Por qué yo debería temer ...talones?
El escritor hace esta pregunta para enfatizar que no tiene motivos para temer cuando suceden cosas malas. Traducción Alterna: "No tengo motivos para temer ... talones".

los días de maldad
"Cuando suceden cosas malas". Aquí la palabra "días" se refiere a períodos generales de tiempo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

cuándo la iniquidad me rodee mis talones?
Los significados posibles son 1) el escritor habla de los malos deseos de sus enemigos como si fuera un depredador listo para alcanzarlo. Traducción Alterna: "cuando la iniquidad de los hombres pecaminosos está lista para vencerme" o 2) los enemigos del escritor lo rodean mientras cometen su iniquidad (UDB). Traducción Alterna: "cuando mis enemigos me rodean"

Psalms 49:6

a los que confían en sus riquezas
Estas personas confían en que su riqueza les impedirá sufrir.

acerca de la cantidad de sus riquezas una gran cantidad de algo

Es cierto que nadie
"No hay forma de que ninguno de ellos pueda" o Traducción Alterna: "Nadie puede"

nadie puede redimir a su hermano ni dar a Dios rescate por él Ambas frases expresan que una persona no puede darle a Dios suficiente dinero para evitar la muerte. Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede pagarle dinero a Dios para que su hermano no muera"

la redención de una vida es costosa
La palabra "redención" se puede traducir con un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "tiene un costo muy alto redimir la vida de una persona"

Psalms 49:9

para que su cuerpo no decaiga
Esto se refiere al cuerpo que se descompone en la tumba.

el verá decaimiento
El escritor habla de experimentar algo como si estuviera viendo esa cosa. Traducción Alterna: "morirá y su cuerpo decaerá"

El hombre sabio muere; el tonto y el necio igualmente perecen
El autor se refiere a todas las personas al referirse a aquellos que tienen la mayor y menor sabiduría.

necio
Esto significa una persona que es estúpida o poco inteligente.

Psalms 49:11

Su pensamiento interno
"Su creencia"

y los lugares donde ellos viven, para todas las generaciones El verbo se puede suministrar de la frase anterior. Traducción Alterna: "y los lugares donde viven continuarán por todas las generaciones"

ellos llaman sus tierras por sus nombres
"nombran a sus tierras por ellos mismos". Esta frase expresa propiedad. Traducciones Alterna: "son dueños de sus propias tierras"

Psalms 49:12

Pero el hombre, teniendo riquezas
"Pero hombre, incluso si tiene riqueza"

Este, su camino, es su locura
El escritor habla del destino de los necios como si fuera el destino al final del camino por el que caminan. Traducción Alterna: "Este es el destino de aquellos que practican la locura"

y aun luego de éstos
"aún después de que mueran"

Psalms 49:14

Información General
El autor continúa describiendo personas que creen que su riqueza los salvará.

Como ovejas
El escritor compara a las personas que morirán con un rebaño de ovejas. Así como las ovejas no pueden escapar cuando el carnicero decide matarlas, los hombres no escaparán cuando sea el momento de morir.

ellos están designados Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios los ha designado"

la muerte será su pastor
El escritor habla de hombres que mueren personificando la muerte como un pastor que los conduce a la tumba. Traducción Alterna: "la muerte se los llevará como un pastor lleva a las ovejas para ser sacrificadas"

en la mañana
Aquí la palabra "mañana" es una metáfora que se refiere a un momento en que Dios reivindicará a los justos y los salvará de los malvados.

sus cuerpos serán consumidos en el Seol
El escritor habla de Seol, el lugar de los muertos, como si fuera una persona o un animal. Habla de la descomposición de los cadáveres como si el Seol se los estuviera comiendo. Traducción Alterna: "sus cuerpos se descompondrán en la tumba"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Dios redimirá mi vida del poder del Seol
El escritor habla de Seol como si fuera una persona que tiene poder sobre los que mueren. Desde el contexto, está implícito que este poder se refiere al consumo de los cuerpos de los muertos.

Dios redimirá mi vida del poder del Seol
Aquí la palabra "vida" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Dios me redimirá"

Psalms 49:16

la gloria de su casa aumente La palabra "gloria" aquí se refiere a riqueza o riqueza. Los posibles significados son 1) "cuando gane más riqueza en su casa" o 2) "cuando su familia se enriquezca".

él no se llevará nada
"No llevará nada con él a la tumba"

su gloria no bajará detrás de él
La frase "bajará" se refiere a cuando el hombre muere. Traducción Alterna: "su gloria no irá con él cuando muera" o "no mantendrá su reputación cuando muera"

Psalms 49:18

Él bendijo su alma
Aquí la palabra "alma" se refiere a toda la persona. Esta frase significa que se consideraba feliz y exitoso debido a sus riquezas. Traducción Alterna: "Se felicitó a sí mismo"

los hombres te alaban cuando vives para tí mismo Aquí el escritor ofrece una declaración general sobre cómo las personas hablan de otras personas que tienen éxito de acuerdo con los estándares mundanos.

vives para tí mismo
Esta frase se refiere a vivir con éxito de acuerdo con los estándares mundanos. Traducción Alterna: "hazlo bien por ti mismo" o "vive con éxito" él irá a la generación de sus padres

"Irá a donde está la generación de sus padres". Este es un eufemismo que significa que el hombre rico morirá y se unirá a sus antepasados en la tumba. Traducción Alterna: "se unirá a sus antepasados en la tumba"

ellos no verán la luz otra vez
La palabra "ellos" se refiere al hombre rico y sus antepasados. La palabra "luz" puede referirse al sol o puede ser una metáfora de la vida. Traducción Alterna: "nunca volverán a ver el sol" o "nunca volverán a vivir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 50

1 El Poderoso, Dios, SEÑOR, ha hablado y ha llamado a la tierra desde la salida del sol hasta su ocaso. 2 Desde Sion, la perfección de la belleza, Dios ha brillado. 3 Nuestro Dios viene y no se queda en silencio; un fuego devora delante de Él, y es muy tormentoso a su alrededor. 4 Él llama a los cielos arriba y a la tierra, para que así Él pueda juzgar su pueblo: 5 "Reúnan a mis fieles a Mí, aquellos que han hecho un pacto conmigo por sacrificio." 6 Los cielos declararán su rectitud, pues Dios mismo es juez. 7 "Escuchen, mi pueblo, y Yo hablaré; Yo soy Dios, tu Dios. 8 Yo no te reprobaré por tus sacrificios; tus ofrendas quemadas están siempre delante de Mí. 9 Yo no sacaré ningún toro de tu casa, o cabros de tus rediles. 10 Pues cada bestia del bosque es mía, y el ganado en unas mil colinas. 11 Yo conozco todas las aves de las montañas, y las bestias salvajes del campo son mías. 12 Si estuviese hambriento, yo no te lo diría; pues el mundo es mío, y todo lo que está en él. 13 ¿Comeré yo la carne de toros o beberé la sangre de las cabras? 14 Ofrece a Dios el sacrificio de acción de gracias, y paga tus votos al Altísimo. 15 Llámame en el día de problemas; Yo te rescataré, y Tú me glorificarás." 16 Pero a los malvados Dios les dice: "¿Qué tienes que ver con declarar mis estatutos, que has tomado mi pacto en tu boca, 17 ya que tú odias la instrucción y tiras mis palabras? 18 Cuando tú ves un ladrón, tú te pones de acuerdo con él; tú participas con aquellos que cometen adulterio. 19 Tú le das tu boca al mal, y tu lengua expresa engaño. 20 Tú te sientas y hablas contra tu hermano; tú calumnias a los propios hijos de tu madre. 21 Tú has hecho estas cosas, pero yo he mantenido silencio, así que tú pensaste que Yo era alguien igual a ti. Pero yo te reprobaré y traeré, justo delante de tus ojos, todas las cosas que tú has hecho. 22 Considera esto cuidadosamente, tú que olvidas a Dios, de otra manera te haré pedazos, ¡y no habrá nadie que venga a ayudarte! 23 Aquel que ofrece un sacrificio de acción de gracias me alaba, y cualquiera que planifica su camino en la manera correcta, Yo le mostraré la salvación de Dios."

Psalms 50:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver: y

Información General
Este salmo es una canción que enseña a las personas.

un salmo de Asaf
este es un salmo que escribió Asaf

El Poderoso, Dios, SEÑOR
El autor usa tres nombres diferentes para hablar de Dios.

ha llamado a la tierra Aquí la palabra "tierra" se refiere a las personas que viven en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "llamó a todas las personas"

desde la salida del sol hasta su ocaso
Esta frase se refiere a las direcciones al este, donde sale el sol, y al oeste, donde se pone el sol. El escritor usa estos dos extremos para representar en todas partes en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "en todas partes en la tierra"

Sion, la perfección de la belleza
Los significados posibles son 1) "Sión, cuya belleza es perfecta" o 2) "Sión, la ciudad más bella".

Dios ha brillado
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una luz que brilla. Esto se refiere a Dios haciendo que las personas sepan acerca de su gloria. Traducción Alterna: "La gloria de Dios brilla como una luz"

Psalms 50:3

no se queda en silencio
El escritor usa esta afirmación negativa para enfatizar lo positivo. Traducción Alterna: "habla para que todos puedan escucharlo"

un fuego devora delante de Él, El escritor habla de un fuego que quema cosas como si las estuviera comiendo. Traducción Alterna: "un fuego arde delante de él"

es muy tormentoso a su alrededor
"hay una gran tormenta a su alrededor"

Él llama a los cielos arriba y a la tierra
Los posibles significados son 1) Dios está llamando a todos los que viven en el cielo y en la tierra a ser testigos mientras juzga a su pueblo o 2) Dios está hablando al cielo y a la tierra como si fueran personas, y los está llamando a ser testigos como él juzga a su pueblo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 50:6

Los cielos declararán
Los significados posibles son 1) el escritor usa la palabra "cielos" para referirse a los ángeles que viven allí

Psalms 50:7

Yo no te reprobaré por tus sacrificios
"Te reprenderé, pero no por tus sacrificios". Dios explica que sus sacrificios no son la razón por la que los está reprendiendo.

tus ofrendas quemadas están siempre delante de Mí
Esto explica por qué Dios no los está reprendiendo por sus sacrificios. La frase "siempre están delante de mí" se refiere a estar en la presencia de Dios y significa que su pueblo siempre está sacrificando sus ofrendas quemadas a él. Traducción Alterna: "siempre me estás sacrificando holocaustos"

Psalms 50:9

rediles
"corrales" o "cercas"

el ganado en unas mil colinas La frase "en mil colinas" no representa el número total de ganado que Dios posee. El número es una exageración que enfatiza que Dios posee todo el ganado del mundo. El verbo se puede suministrar de la frase anterior. Traducción Alterna: "todo el ganado del mundo es mío"

mil colinas
"1.000 colinas"

Yo conozco todas las aves
Aquí la palabra "conozco" implica propiedad. Traducción Alterna: "Soy dueño de todos los pájaros"

Psalms 50:12

Si estuviese hambriento
Esto describe algo que no podría suceder, ya que Dios no tiene hambre.

¿Comeré yo la carne de toros o beberé la sangre de las cabras?
Dios hace esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar que él no hace estas cosas y que no necesita sacrificios. Traducción Alterna: "No como carne de toro ni bebo sangre de cabras".

Psalms 50:14

Ofrece a Dios
Aquí Dios se refiere a sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Ofrézcanme"

paga tus votos al Altísimo El escritor habla de los "votos" como si fueran moneda que una persona le paga a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "cumple tus votos al Altísimo" o "haz lo que le prometiste al Altísimo"

en el día de problemas Aquí la palabra "día" se refiere a cualquier período de tiempo. Traducción Alterna: "siempre que tenga problemas"

Psalms 50:16

Pero a los malvados Dios les dice
Aquí Dios todavía está hablando y habla de sí mismo en tercera persona. Traducción Alterna: "Pero a los malvados les digo"

a los malvados
La palabra "malvado" se refiere a las personas malvadas en general. Traducción Alterna: "a las personas malvadas"

¿Qué tienes que ver con declarar mis estatutos...y tiras mis palabras?
Dios usa esta pregunta para reprender a las personas malvadas. Esta pregunta puede convertirse en una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No tiene sentido que declares mis estatutos y mi pacto, ya que odias mis instrucciones y descartas mis palabras". o "No es correcto que declares mis estatutos ... lejos".

has tomado mi pacto en tu boca Dios habla de personas malvadas que recitan las palabras de su pacto como si se estuvieran poniendo el pacto en la boca. Traducción Alterna: "habla sobre mi pacto"

tiras mis palabras
Dios habla de las personas malvadas que rechazan lo que dice como si estuvieran tirando basura. Traducción Alterna: "rechazar lo que digo"

Psalms 50:18

tú te pones de acuerdo con él
Los posibles significados son 1) que aprueban las acciones del ladrón. Traducción Alterna: "lo apruebas" o 2) que se unan al ladrón en sus acciones. Traducción Alterna: "te unes a él"

Tú le das tu boca al mal Dios habla de una persona que habla cosas malas como si la boca de esa persona fuera un mensajero a quien la persona envía para hacer cosas malas. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre estás diciendo cosas malas"

tu lengua expresa engaño
La palabra "lengua" representa a la persona que está hablando. Traducción Alterna: "siempre estás diciendo mentiras"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú te sientas y hablas contra tu hermano; tú calumnias a los propios hijos de tu madre.
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado pero usan palabras diferentes. Dios los acusa de hablar falsamente contra los miembros de su propia familia.

Tú te sientas y hablas
"Sentarse y hablar" contra alguien implica que esta persona piensa deliberadamente en cosas malas que decir sobre alguien. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre piensas en formas de hablar"

Psalms 50:21

tú pensaste que Yo era alguien igual a ti Como Dios había guardado silencio y aún no había reprendido a las personas malvadas por sus acciones, pensaron que Dios aprobaba lo que hicieron. Traducción Alterna: "pensaste que era alguien que actúa como tú"

reprobaré
"reprensión" o "reprimenda"

traeré...todas las cosas que tú has hecho Dios habla de enumerar todas las cosas malas que han hecho. Traducción Alterna: "enumera ... todas las cosas que has hecho"

justo delante de tus ojos Aquí, estar "ante tus ojos" significa que está en un lugar donde pueden ver. Esto significa que no podrán negar los cargos que Dios presenta contra ellos. Traducción Alterna: "justo en frente de usted" o "para que no pueda negarlos"

tú que olvidas a Dios Dios habla de los malvados que lo rechazan como si lo hubieran olvidado. Él habla de sí mismo en tercera persona. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes que me rechazan"

te haré pedazos
Dios habla de destruir al malvado como si fuera un león comiendo su presa. Traducción Alterna: "Te destruiré"

Psalms 50:23

planifica su camino en la manera correcta Dios habla de la forma en que una persona vive como si fuera un camino por el que viaja. Traducción Alterna: "vive su vida de la manera correcta"

Yo le mostraré la salvación de Dios Aquí Dios habla de salvar a una persona como si estuviera causando que una persona vea su salvación. Se refiere a sí mismo en tercera persona. Traducción Alterna: "Lo salvaré"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 51

1 Ten misericordia de mí, Dios, a causa de tu fidelidad; por el bien de la multitud de tus acciones misericordiosas, borra mis transgresiones. 2 Lávame por completo de mi iniquidad y límpiame de mi pecado. 3 Pues yo reconozco mis transgresiones, y mi pecado está siempre delante de mí. 4 Contra ti, contra ti solamente, yo he pecado y he hecho lo que es malo a tu vista; Tú estás en lo correcto cuando hablas; Tú estás en lo correcto cuando juzgas. 5 Ves, yo nací en iniquidad; tan pronto como mi madre me concibió, yo estuve en pecado. 6 Ves, Tú deseas integridad en mi corazón; en mi corazón Tú me harás conocer sabiduría. 7 Purifícame con hisopo, y yo seré limpio; lávame, y yo seré más blanco que la nieve. 8 Házme escuchar gozo y alegría para que así los huesos que tú has quebrado puedan regocijarse. 9 Esconde tu rostro de mis pecados y borra todas mis iniquidades. 10 Crea en mí un corazón limpio, Dios, y renueva un espíritu recto dentro de mí. 11 No me saques de tu presencia, y no quites tu Espíritu Santo de mí. 12 Restáurame el gozo de tu salvación, y sosténme con un espíritu dispuesto. 13 Entonces yo le enseñaré a los transgresores tus caminos, y los pecadores serán convertidos a Ti. 14 Perdóname por derramar sangre, Dios de mi salvación, y yo gritaré por el gozo de tu rectitud. 15 Señor, abre mis labios, y mi boca expresará tu alabanza. 16 Pues Tú no te deleitas en sacrificio, o yo lo daría; Tú no tienes placer en ofrendas quemadas. 17 Los sacrificios de Dios son un espíritu quebrantado. Tú, Dios, no despreciarás un corazón quebrantado y contrito. 18 Haz bien en tu benevolencia a Sion; reconstruye las murallas de Jerusalén. 19 Entonces Tú te deleitarás en los sacrificios de rectitud, en ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas quemadas completamente; entonces nuestro pueblo ofrecerá toros en tu altar.

Psalms 51:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información General
En este salmo, David le pide perdón a Dios.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

cuando Natán el profeta vino a él Se puede decir claramente lo que hizo Natán cuando vino a David, porque este salmo es en respuesta a eso. Traducción Alterna: "cuando Natán el profeta vino a David y lo reprendió"

después que se llegó a Betsabé
"después de que David se había acostado con Betsabé"

por el bien de la multitud de tus acciones misericordiosas
"porque haces tantas cosas misericordiosas"

borra mis transgresiones
Se dice que perdonar pecados es 1) borrarlos o 2) borrar un registro escrito de los pecados. Traducción Alterna: "perdona mis pecados como si alguien limpiara algo" u "olvida mis pecados como alguien que borra un registro de pecados"

Lávame por completo de mi iniquidad...límpiame de mi pecado.
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo.

Lávame por completo de mi iniquidad
Se dice que ser aceptable para Dios es estar limpio. Dios hace a las personas aceptables al perdonar sus pecados. Traducción Alterna: "Lava todos mis pecados" o "Perdona todos mis pecados para que pueda ser aceptable para ti"

por completo completamente

límpiame de mi pecado
Se dice que ser aceptable para Dios es estar limpio. Dios hace a las personas aceptables al perdonar sus pecados. Traducción Alterna: "Hazme limpio de mi pecado" o "perdóname por mi pecado para que esté limpio"

Psalms 51:3

mi pecado está siempre delante de mí Se dice que no ser capaz de olvidar sus pecados es como si siempre estuvieran frente a él donde él pueda verlos. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre estoy al tanto de mis pecados" o "No puedo olvidar mis pecados"

he hecho lo que es malo
"y he hecho lo que es malo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 51:5

Ves, yo nací en iniquidad...Ves, Tú deseas integridad
Los dos usos de "Ves" aquí llaman nuestra atención sobre el contraste entre estas dos situaciones. Traducción Alterna: "En verdad, nací en la iniquidad ... Pero tú deseas confianza"

Ves, yo nací en iniquidad...tan pronto como mi madre me concibió, yo estuve en pecado Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar.

yo nací en iniquidad
Se dice que ser pecador es iniquidad. Traducción Alterna: "Yo ya era un pecador cuando nací"

tan pronto como mi madre me concibió, yo estuve en pecado
Se dice que ser pecador es estar en pecado. Traducción Alterna: "incluso cuando mi madre me concibió, yo era un pecador"

Tú deseas integridad en mi corazón
El corazón representa 1) los deseos de la persona o 2) la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Quieres que desee confianza" o "quieres que sea confiable"

Psalms 51:7

Purifícame... yo seré limpio...lávame...seré más blanco que la nieve
Se dice que ser aceptable para Dios es limpio o blanco. Dios hace a las personas aceptables al perdonar sus pecados.

Purifícame con hisopo
El escritor habla de Dios como si Dios fuera un sacerdote que rociaría agua sobre él para hacerlo aceptable a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Hazme aceptable rociándome agua con hisopo" o "Perdóname por mis pecados para que pueda ser aceptable para ti"

hisopo
Esta es una planta que los sacerdotes usaban para rociar agua o sangre sobre personas o cosas para hacerlas ceremonialmente limpias, es decir, aceptables para Dios.

más blanco que la nieve Se dice que es blanco cuando no tiene pecado. Traducción Alterna: "muy, muy blanco"

gozo y alegría
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan su deseo de escuchar cosas alegres.

para que así los huesos que tú has quebrado puedan regocijarse Se dice que siente una tristeza terrible como si le hubieran roto los huesos. Traducción Alterna: "porque me has causado una tristeza terrible en mi ser interior. ¡Déjame alegrarme de nuevo!"

Esconde tu rostro de mis pecados
Se piensa que pensar en los pecados de alguien es verlos. Se dice que perdonar o negarse a pensar en los pecados es elegir no verlos. Traducción Alterna: "No mires mis pecados" o "No recuerdes mis pecados" borra todas mis iniquidades.

Perdonar o negarse a pensar en los pecados de alguien se habla de cualquiera 1) borrarlos o 2) borrar un registro escrito de los pecados. Traducción Alterna: 1) "perdona mis pecados como si alguien estuviera limpiando algo" u "olvida mis pecados como alguien que borra un registro de pecados" (Ver: Metaphor)

Psalms 51:10

Crea en mí un corazón limpio Aquí el "corazón" representa los sentimientos y los deseos. Se dice que ser completamente devoto y obediente a Dios tiene un corazón limpio. Traducción Alterna: "Hazme completamente devoto a ti" o "Haz que quiera obedecerte siempre"

renueva un espíritu recto dentro de mí
Aquí el "espíritu" representa la actitud y los deseos de un David. Traducción Alterna: "hacer que mi actitud sea correcta" o "hacer que siempre quiera hacer lo correcto"

No me saques de tu presencia
"No me obligues a alejarme de ti". Se dice que ser rechazado por Dios es forzado a alejarse de él. Traducción Alterna: "No me rechaces como una de tus personas"

Psalms 51:12

y sosténme
"y sostenme" o "ayúdame"

tus caminos
"la forma en que quieres que viva la gente" o "lo que quieres que haga la gente"

transfresores...pecadores
Estas dos palabras se refieren a las mismas personas aquí.

Psalms 51:14

derramar sangre
Esta frase se refiere a matar a otra persona.

Señor, abre mis labios, y mi boca expresará tu alabanza Poder hablar se habla de que los labios están abiertos. Aquí no poder hablar es un símbolo de ser culpable de pecado y no poder defenderse. Traducción Alterna: "Señor, hazme capaz de hablar, y te alabaré"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú no te deleitas en sacrificio...Tú no tienes placer en ofrendas quemadas Esto significa que Dios quiere algo más importante que estas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "Un sacrificio no es suficiente para complacerte ... quieres algo más que quemar ofrendas"

Psalms 51:17

Los sacrificios de Dios
"Los sacrificios que agradan a Dios"

un espíritu quebrantado
Un espíritu quebrantado representa una actitud humilde. Traducción Alterna: "humildad" o "una persona que se vuelve humilde"

un corazón quebrantado y contrito
Se dice que ser humilde y lamentar el pecado es tener un corazón contrito y quebrantado. El corazón representa las emociones y la voluntad. Traducción Alterna: "dolor y humildad" o "una persona que lamenta su pecado y es humilde"

reconstruye las murallas de Jerusalén Los muros de una ciudad protegen la ciudad y las personas que la componen. Los posibles significados son 1) "permitirnos reconstruir los muros de Jerusalén" o 2) "proteger Jerusalén y hacerla fuerte"

entonces nuestro pueblo ofrecerá toros en tu altar
Un toro es una vaca macho adulta. Los toros a menudo se usaban como animales de sacrificio, según las instrucciones de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 52

1 ¿Por qué te enorgulleces en crear problemas, tú hombre poderoso? La misericordia de Dios viene cada día. 2 Tu lengua planifica destrucción así como una navaja afilada, trabajando engañosamente. 3 Tú amas el mal más que el bien y mientes en lugar de hablar justicia. 4 Tú amas todas las palabras que devoran a otros, tu lengua engañosa. 5 Dios igualmente te destruirá por siempre; él te levantará y te sacará de tu tienda y te desalojará de la tierra de los vivos. 6 El recto también lo verá y temerá; ellos se reirán de él y dirán: 7 "Vean, este es un hombre que no hizo de Dios su refugio, sino que él confió en la abundancia de su riqueza, y él era fuerte cuando él destruía a otros." 8 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo soy como un árbol de olivo verde en la casa de Dios; yo confiaré en la misericordia de Dios por siempre y para siempre. 9 Yo te daré gracias por siempre por lo que tú has hecho. Yo esperaré por tu nombre, porque es bueno, en la presencia de tu pueblo piadoso.

Psalms 52:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información General
En este salmo, la palabra "usted" se refiere a Doeg. Cuando Saúl quería matar a David, Doeg le dijo a Saúl dónde estaba David para que Saúl pudiera encontrarlo.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

Un masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1

Doeg...Ahimelec
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

¿Por qué te enorgulleces en crear problemas, tú hombre poderoso?
Esta pregunta muestra cuán enojado estaba David con quien causó problemas. Traducción Alterna: "No deberías estar tan orgulloso de causar problemas, hombre poderoso".

tú hombre poderoso
David pudo haber estado usando ironía cuando llamó a Doeg. Traducción Alterna: "tú, que piensas que eres tan poderoso"

La misericordia de Dios viene cada día
David habla de la fidelidad del pacto de Dios como si fuera algo que pueda venir. David probablemente se refería a las promesas de Dios de proteger a su pueblo de las personas malvadas. Esto se puede afirmar claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Dios es fiel para cumplir las promesas de su pacto" o "Dios protege fielmente a su pueblo de personas malvadas como tú"

una navaja afilada una cuchilla afilada

Tu lengua planifica destrucción así como una navaja afilada, trabajando engañosamente Una cuchilla afilada Aquí la lengua se compara con una cuchilla afilada que es capaz de causar un gran daño. Traducción Alterna: "Tu lengua daña a la gente como lo hace una navaja afilada, cuando planeas destruir y engañar a otros"

tu lengua
Aquí "tu lengua" se refiere a la persona con la que David está hablando. Traducción Alterna: "Tu"

Psalms 52:3

Oración de enlace
David continúa hablando al "hombre poderoso" de 52:1

mientes en lugar de hablar justicia
"Te encanta mentir más que hablar lo correcto"

Psalms 52:4

palabras que devoran a otros Aquí se habla de palabras que perjudican a otros como si fueran animales que devoran a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "palabras que dañan a otros"

tu lengua engañosa
Esto se refiere a la persona con la que está hablando el autor. Traducción Alterna: "hablante de engaño" o "mentiroso"

te levantará ... te sacará... te desalojará Las tres frases son diferentes formas de decir "te quitará"

te desalojará de la tierra de los vivos Se dice que estar vivo en la tierra es como si las personas fueran plantas con raíces en el suelo. Se dice que matar a alguien es como desenterrar las raíces de la planta y sacarla del suelo. Traducción Alterna: "te sacará de la tierra de los vivos" o "te

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

matará para que ya no estés en la tierra con personas vivas"

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen.

Psalms 52:6

El recto también lo verá y temerá
"Los justos también verán a Dios quitarlo y temerán"

Vean
"En efecto"

no hizo de Dios su refugio Aquí "refugio" representa un protector. Traducción Alterna: "no hizo a Dios su protector" o "no le pidió a Dios que lo protegiera"

Psalms 52:8

un árbol de olivo verde
Los olivos verdes son fuertes y seguros. No se caen.

yo soy como un árbol de olivo verde en la casa de Dios Se dice que estar a salvo y seguro es como un árbol fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "Soy fuerte en la casa de Dios, como un olivo verde" o "Porque adoro en la casa de Dios, estoy seguro como un olivo verde"

la casa de Dios
Esto se refiere al templo de Dios

Yo esperaré por tu nombre, porque es bueno El nombre de Dios representa a Dios mismo. Esperar a Dios representa esperar que Dios lo ayude. Traducción Alterna : "Te esperaré porque eres bueno" o "Esperaré a que me ayudes, porque eres bueno"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 53

1 Un tonto dice en su corazón: "No hay Dios." Ellos son corruptos y han hecho iniquidad abominable; no hay nadie que haga lo bueno. 2 Dios mira desde el cielo a los hijos de la humanidad para ver si hay alguno que entiende, que lo busca a Él. 3 Ellos todos se han desviado. Juntos se han vuelto corruptos. No hay uno que haga el bien, ni siquiera uno. 4 ¿Acaso aquellos que cometen iniquidad no tienen entendimiento, aquellos que devoran a mi pueblo como si ellos estuvieran comiendo pan, y ellos no llaman a Dios? 5 Ellos tuvieron gran temor, aunque no había razón para temer; pues Dios esparcirá los huesos de quienquiera que acampe contra ti; tal pueblo será avergonzado porque Dios los ha rechazado. 6 ¡Oh, que la salvación de Israel viniera de Sion! Cuando Dios traiga de vuelta a su pueblo del cautiverio, entonces Jacob se regocijará e Israel estará contento!

Psalms 53:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

sobre Mahalat
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música.

un Masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1.

los hijos de la humanidad
Esto se refiere a todas las personas.

que lo busca a Él Buscar a Dios como una persona buscaría a alguien se habla de "buscar" a Dios. Los significados posibles son 1) querer conocer a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "quien quiere conocerlo" o 2) adorar a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "quien lo adora"

Ellos todos se han desviado
Rechazar a Dios y lo que es correcto se dice que se aleja. Traducción Alterna: "Todos se han alejado de hacer lo correcto" o "Todos han rechazado a Dios"

Psalms 53:4

¿Acaso aquellos que cometen iniquidad no tienen ‚aquellos,,, Dios?
Esta pregunta se usa para mostrar la conmoción que siente el escritor porque la gente es muy pecaminosa. Se puede escribir como dos declaraciones. "Los que cometen iniquidad actúan como si no supieran nada. ¡Devoran a mi pueblo como si estuvieran comiendo pan, y no invocan a Dios!"

aquellos que devoran a mi pueblo como si ellos estuvieran comiendo pan
Se expresa devorar a las personas como que las destruye . Hacerlo como si estuvieran comiendo pan implica que lo hicieron con mucha facilidad o sin sentirse culpables. Traducción Alterna: "los que destruyen a mi gente tan libremente como si estuvieran comiendo pan"

Dios esparcirá los huesos de quienquiera que acampe contra ti Dispersar los huesos de las personas representa matarlos y permitir que sus huesos permanezcan donde sea que hayan muerto y no sean enterrados adecuadamente. "Dios destruirá completamente a quien sea que acampe contra ti, y sus huesos yacerán esparcidos en el suelo"

quienquiera que acampe contra ti
Acampar contra las personas representa atacarlas. Los ejércitos enemigos viajarían y establecerían campamentos para vivir temporalmente cerca de las personas que querían atacar. Traducción Alterna: "quien te ataque"

Psalms 53:6

Oh, que la salvación de Israel viniera
La palabra "Oh" aquí introduce una exclamación que expresa una esperanza u oración. Traducción Alterna: "Espero que venga la salvación de Israel" o "Oro para que venga la salvación de" la salvación de Israel viniera de Sion

La salvación representa a Dios, el salvador, cuyo templo está en Sión. Traducción Alterna: "el salvador de Israel vendría de Sión" o "Dios vendría de Sión y salvaría a Israel"

Cuando Dios traiga de vuelta a su pueblo del cautiverio
"Cuando Dios salva a su pueblo cautivo"

Jacob se regocijará e Israel estará contento
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado.

Jacob
Aquí "Jacob" se refiere a los descendientes de Jacob, los israelitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 54

1 Sálvame, Dios, por tu nombre, y júzgame en tu poderío. 2 Escucha mi oración, Dios; da oído a las palabras de mi boca. 3 Pues los extranjeros se han levantado contra mí y hombres despiadados han buscado mi vida; ellos no han puesto a Dios delante de ellos. 4 Vean, Dios es mi ayudador; el Señor es aquel que me sostiene. 5 Él le pagará a mis enemigos con maldad; ¡en tu fidelidad, destrúyelos! 6 Yo sacrificaré a ti con una ofrenda voluntaria; yo le daré gracias a tu nombre, SEÑOR, porque es bueno. 7 Pues Él me ha rescatado de todo problema; mi ojo ha mirado en triunfo sobre mis enemigos.

Psalms 54:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información general
Este salmo es una oración de ayuda.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

en instrumentos de cuerda
"La gente debería tocar instrumentos de cuerda con esta canción"

un Masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1

Zifeos
gente de la ciudad de Zif en las montañas de Judea, al sureste de Hebrón.

¿No está David escondido en nuestra tierra?
Esta pregunta se usa para mostrar que esto es algo importante que Saúl debe saber. Traducción Alterna: "David se está escondiendo con nosotros".

Sálvame, Dios, por tu nombre, Aquí el nombre de Dios representa su carácter. Puede representar específicamente su poder o su justicia. Traducción Alterna: "Sálvame, Dios, por tu poder"

júzgame en tu poderío Juzgar a David aquí representa mostrarle a la gente que David no es culpable. Cuando Dios usa su poder para salvar a David, la gente sabrá que Dios lo ha juzgado como no culpable. Traducción Alterna: "En tu poder, muestra a la gente que no soy culpable" o "Muestra a la gente que no soy culpable usando tu poder para rescatarme"

da oído a las palabras Dar el oído representa escuchar. Traducción Alterna: "escucha las palabras"

las palabras de mi boca Esta expresión representa lo que dice el hablante. Traducción Alterna: "mis palabras" o "lo que te estoy diciendo"

se han levantado contra mí
Levantarse contra alguien representa prepararse para atacarlo o realmente atacarlo. Traducción Alterna: "me he preparado para atacarme" o "me están atacando"

hombres despiadados
"hombres que no tienen piedad"

han buscado mi vida Buscar la vida de alguien representa tratar de matarlo. Traducción Alterna: "ha intentado matarme" o "quieren matarme"

ellos no han puesto a Dios delante de ellos Poner a Dios delante de ellos representa prestarle atención a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "no le prestan atención a Dios" o "ignoran a Dios"

Psalms 54:4

aquel que me sostiene
Defender a David y mantenerlo a salvo se habla de mantenerlo o apoyarlo. Traducción Alterna: "quién me defiende" o "quién me mantiene a salvo"

Él le pagará a mis enemigos con maldad
El castigo se pronuncia como si fuera un pago. Traducción Alterna: "Hará el mal a mis enemigos que me han hecho a mí" o "Causará que el mal que mis enemigos me hicieron a mí"

¡en tu fidelidad, destrúyelos!
Aquí David cambia de hablar sobre Dios a hablar con Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, destrúyelos porque eres fiel a mí"

Psalms 54:6

yo le daré gracias a tu nombre, SEÑOR, porque es bueno El nombre de SEÑOR lo representa. Traducción Alterna: "Te daré gracias, SEÑOR, porque eres bueno"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi ojo ha mirado
El ojo representa a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "He mirado" mi ojo ha mirado en triunfo sobre mis enemigos Los significados posibles son 1) ver que sus enemigos han sido derrotados. Traducción Alterna: "He visto que mis enemigos han sido derrotados" o 2) derrotar a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "He derrotado a mis enemigos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 55

1 Presta oído a mi oración, Dios; y no te escondas a Ti mismo de mi ruego. 2 Préstame atención y respóndeme; yo no tengo descanso en mis problemas 3 por la voz de mis enemigos, por la opresión de los malvados; pues ellos me traen problemas y me persiguen en enojo. 4 Mi corazón tiembla dentro de mí, y los terrores de la muerte han caído sobre mí. 5 Miedo y temblor han venido a mí, y el horror me ha agobiado. 6 Yo digo: "¡Oh, si tan sólo tuviera alas como una paloma! Entonces yo volaría lejos y descansaría. 7 Mira, entonces yo vagaría muy lejos; me quedaría en el desierto. 8 Yo me apresuraría a un refugio del viento tormentoso y la tempestad." 9 Devóralos a ellos, SEÑOR, ¡confunde su lenguaje! Pues he visto violencia y contienda en su ciudad. 10 Día y noche ellos salen de sus murallas; la iniquidad y malicia están en medio de ella. 11 La maldad está en el medio de ella; la opresión y el engaño no dejan sus ciudades. 12 Pues no fue un enemigo quien me reprendió, entonces yo hubiera podido soportarlo; ni tampoco fue uno que me odiaba quien se levantó en mi contra; entonces yo me hubiera ocultado de él. 13 Pero fuiste tú, un hombre igual a mí, mi compañero y amigo cercano. 14 Hemos tenido un dulce compañerismo juntos, nosotros hemos caminado en la casa de Dios con la muchedumbre. 15 Deja que la muerte venga a ellos repentinamente; déjalos que bajen vivos al Seol, pues la maldad es en donde viven, justo entre ellos. 16 En cuanto a mí, yo llamaré a Dios, y el SEÑOR me salvará. 17 En la noche, en la mañana y al mediodía yo me quejaré y gemiré, Él escuchará mi voz. 18 Él seguramente salvará mi alma de la batalla que estaba en mi contra; pues esos que pelearon en mi contra eran muchos. 19 Dios, el que gobierna desde la eternidad, los escuchará y los humillará a ellos. Ellos nunca cambian, y ellos no le temen a Dios. 20 Mi amigo ha levantado sus manos en contra de esos que estaban en paz con él; él no ha respetado el pacto que él tenía. 21 Su boca era suave como la mantequilla, pero su corazón era hostil; sus palabras eran más suaves que el aceite, sin embargo realmente eran espadas desenvainadas. 22 Pon tus cargas en el SEÑOR, y Él te sostendrá; Él jamás permitirá que la persona justa se tambalee. 23 Pero Tú, Dios, llevarás a los malvados al foso de la destrucción; hombres sanguinarios y engañosos no vivirán ni la mitad de mucho que otros, pero yo confío en Ti.

Psalms 55:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

en instrumentos de cuerda
"La gente debería tocar instrumentos de cuerda con esta canción"

un masquil
Esto puede referirse a un estilo de música. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:1

Presta oído a mi oración
Dar el oído representa escuchar. Traducción Alterna: "Escucha mi oración"

y no te escondas a Ti mismo de mi ruego
Se dice que negarse a prestar atención a su súplica se esconde de ella. Traducción Alterna: "no ignores mi súplica" por la voz de mis enemigos, Aquí "voz" representa lo que dicen. Traducción Alterna: "por lo que dicen mis enemigos"

pues ellos me traen problemas
Se dice que causar problemas es traer problemas. Traducción Alterna: "me causan grandes problemas" o "me hacen cosas malas y por eso sufro"

Psalms 55:4

Mi corazón tiembla dentro de mí Aquí, "el corazón tiembla" se refiere a su dolor y sufrimiento emocional. Este sufrimiento es por miedo. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy sufriendo porque tengo mucho miedo"

los terrores de la muerte han caído sobre mí Hablar de mucho miedo o terror se dice que el terror es algo que recae sobre una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo mucho miedo de morir"

Miedo y temblor han venido a mí, Hablar de miedo y temblor es como si el miedo y el temblor fueran cosas que le ocurren a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Me he vuelto muy temeroso y tiemblo" el horror me ha agobiado.

Se habla de sentir horror como si el horror fuera algo que puede cubrir a las personas. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "Siento un horror terrible" o "Tengo mucho miedo"

Psalms 55:6

¡Oh, si tan sólo tuviera alas como una paloma!
Esta exclamación expresa algo que el escritor desea mucho. Traducción Alterna: "Ojalá tuviera alas como una paloma"

Entonces yo volaría lejos
"Si tuviera alas, volaría lejos"

Mira
"En efecto"

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen.

Psalms 55:8

Información general
El escritor termina de contar lo que había dicho.

tempestad
una fuerte tormenta

Devóralos a ellos
Se dice que destruir algo es comerlo todo. Los significados posibles son "Destruir los planes de mis enemigos" o "Destruir a mis enemigos".

¡confunde su lenguaje!
El "lenguaje" aquí representa lo que la gente se decía, y probablemente se refiere específicamente a ellos hablando de planes para hacer el mal. Confundirlo representa hacer que las personas no puedan entenderse entre sí. Traducción Alterna: "confundirlos cuando se hablan" o "confundir sus planes"

Psalms 55:10

ellos salen de sus murallas
"La violencia y la lucha se producen en sus paredes".

de sus murallas
"a lo largo de las cimas de las murallas de la ciudad". Las ciudades tenían gruesos muros a su alrededor para protegerlos de los enemigos. La gente podía caminar a lo largo de las paredes de los muros para ver si algún enemigo venía a la ciudad.

la iniquidad y malicia están en medio de ella Se habla de iniquidad y malicia como si fueran personas. Esto se puede expresar contando sobre las personas que hacen iniquidad y travesuras. Traducción Alterna: "la gente hace iniquidad y causa malicias en el centro de la ciudad" o "la gente hace cosas pecaminosas y causa problemas en ella"

malicia
"problema"

La maldad está en el medio de ella
Se habla de la maldad como si fuera una persona. Esto se puede expresar contando sobre las personas que hacen cosas malas. Traducción Alterna: "La gente hace cosas malvadas en el medio de la ciudad" o "la gente destruye cosas en la ciudad"

a opresión y el engaño no dejan sus ciudades.
Se habla de opresión y engaño como si fueran personas. Esto se puede expresar contando sobre las personas que oprimen y engañan a los demás. Traducción Alterna: "La gente oprime y engaña a otros en las calles de la ciudad, y no se van" o "La gente siempre oprime y engaña a los demás en las calles de la ciudad" sus ciudades.

Esto puede referirse a los mercados de la ciudad

Psalms 55:12

yo hubiera podido soportarlo Tolerando o soportando una reprimenda como portadora o de sorporte. Traducción Altena: "Podría haber tolerado la reprimenda" o "No estaría tan triste por la reprensión" quien se levantó en mi contra Estar orgulloso de uno mismo e insultar a otro es levantarse contra otro. Traducción Alterna: "me insultó" o "me despreciaba"

Pero fuiste tú
El salmista habla como si la persona que lo había reprendido y burlado lo estuviera escuchando.

mi compañero y amigo cercano
Esto puede expresarse como una oración. Traducción Alterna: "Eras mi compañero y mi amigo cercano".

Hemos
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere al salmista y su amigo.

con la muchedumbre
Los significados posibles son 1) "juntos" o 2) "con la multitud".

Psalms 55:15

Deja que la muerte venga a ellos
Se habla de la muerte como si se tratara de una persona que podría atacar a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Deje que mis enemigos mueran repentinamente (Ver :|Personification)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

déjalos que bajen vivos al Seol
Se dice que morir de repente es como si las personas fueran al Seol tan rápido que ni siquiera mueren primero. Traducción Alterna: "déjalos ir de repente al Seol" (Ver:|Metaphor)

la maldad es en donde viven
Se habla de la maldad como si fuera algo que podría estar en cierto lugar. Se habla de la maldad habitual de sus enemigos como si la maldad estuviera con ellos o cerca de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "siempre hacen cosas malas donde viven" (Ver: |Metaphor)

justo entre ellos
Esta frase intensifica la idea de que la maldad está muy cerca de ellos. Aquí se habla de la maldad como no solo en sus hogares, sino justo donde están. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre hacen cosas perversas donde sea que estén" o "donde sea que estén" (Ver: | Metáfora)

Psalms 55:16

En cuanto a mí
Esta frase muestra que el escritor ha dejado de hablar de una cosa y ahora está a punto de hablar de sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Pero yo"

gemiré exclamar

Él escuchará mi voz Aquí "voz" representa 1) el salmista o 2) las quejas y gemidos del salmista. Traducción Alterna: "me escuchará" o "escuchará mis gemidos"

mi alma Aquí "mi alma" representa al salmista. Traducción Alterna: "yo"

pues esos que pelearon en mi contra eran muchos.
"pues mucha gente luchó contra mí"

Psalms 55:19

los escuchará
"escuchará a mis enemigos" o "escuchará lo que dicen mis enemigos". Algunas versiones dicen "me escuchará".

los humillará
Cómo Dios los humillará puede establecerse claramente. Traducción Alterna: "los derrotará y humillará"

Psalms 55:20

ha levantado sus manos en contra de esos
Levantar la mano contra las personas representa atacarlas. Esto puede ser una metáfora para decir cosas que ponen en peligro a las personas o les causan problemas. Traducción Alterna: "ha atacado a esos" o "ha traicionado a esos"

Su boca
La "boca" de alguien representa lo que dice. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que dijo mi amigo"

Su boca era suave como la mantequilla
Se habla de un discurso agradable o agradable como si fuera suave y fácil de tragar. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que dijo fue agradable como mantequilla suave" o "Dijo cosas buenas"

hostil
"malo" u "odioso"

sus palabras
La "palabra" de alguien representa lo que dice. Traducción Alterna:"Lo que dijo" sus palabras eran más suaves que el aceite Las personas se ponen aceite en la piel para que se sienta bien y se lo ponen en las heridas para ayudarlos a sanar. Se habla de un discurso amable o útil como si fuera suave o relajante. Traducción Alterna: "lo que dijo fue amable y relajante como el aceite" o "dijo cosas amables" sin embargo realmente eran espadas desenvainadas.

Se habla del discurso que causa problemas a las personas como si fueran espadas que hirieran a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "lo que dijo que la gente herida como lo hacen las espadas desenvainadas" o "lo que dijo que causa problemas a la gente"

espadas desenvainadas
La palabra " desenvainadas" aquí significa que las espadas fueron sacadas de sus cubiertas y listas para ser utilizadas.

Psalms 55:22

Pon tus cargas
Aquí el salmista está hablando con otras personas piadosas.

Pon tus cargas en el SEÑOR
Aquí el salmista está hablando con otras personas piadosas.

Él te sostendrá
Cuidar de alguien o ayudar a alguien cuando tiene problemas se dice que lo apoya. Traducción Alterna: "te cuidará" o "te ayudará"

Él jamás permitirá que la persona justa se tambalee
Se habla de una persona que está a punto de ser severamente dañada por algún tipo de desastre como si estuviera tambaleándose o balanceándose y está a punto de caerse. Traducción Alterna: "no permitirá que una persona justa se balancee y caiga" o "no permitirá que una persona justa sea destruida"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pero Tú, Dios
El autor le habla a Dios ahora.

al foso de la destrucción
Esto probablemente se refiere a la tumba o al infierno.

llevarás a los malvados al foso de la destrucción Esto representa causar que la gente muera. Traducción Alterna: "hará que los malvados mueran" o "causará que las personas malvadas mueran y se vayan al lugar donde están las personas muertas"

hombres sanguinarios y engañosos
"personas que mienten y que quieren matar a otros" o "asesinos engañosos" ni la mitad de mucho que otros

"incluso la mitad del tiempo que viven otras personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 56

1 Ten piedad de mí, Dios, ¡pues los hombres me atacan! Todo el día esos que me pelean lanzan su asalto. 2 Mis enemigos me atropellan todo el día; pues hay muchos que arrogantemente luchan en contra de mí. 3 Cuando tengo miedo, pongo mi confianza en Ti. 4 En Dios, cuya palabra yo alabo-- en Dios he puesto mi confianza; yo no tendré miedo; ¿qué puede hacerme a mí un simple hombre? 5 Todo el día ellos tuercen mis palabras; todos sus pensamientos están en mi contra para el mal. 6 Ellos se juntan a sí mismos, ellos se ocultan a sí mismos y ellos marcan mis pasos, tal como han esperado por mi vida. 7 No los dejes escapar haciendo iniquidad. Derriba a la gente en Tu enojo, Dios. 8 Tú enumeras mis andanzas y pones mis lágrimas en una botella; ¿no están ellas en Tu libro? 9 Entonces mis enemigos se volverán en el día que yo clame a Ti; esto lo sé, que Dios está por mí. 10 En Dios --cuya palabra yo alabo-- en el SEÑOR -- cuya palabra yo alabo-- en Dios yo confío, 11 yo no tendré miedo. ¿Qué puede hacerme el hombre? 12 El deber de cumplir mis votos a Ti está en mí, Dios; te daré ofrendas de agradecimiento a Ti. 13 Pues has rescatado mi vida de la muerte; Tú has evitado que mis pies caigan, para que yo pueda caminar delante de Dios en la luz de los vivos.

Psalms 56:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración".

sobre La paloma silenciosa en paraje muy distante
Esto probablemente indica qué estilo musical o melodía usar al cantar este salmo. Traducción Alterna: "Canta este salmo usando la melodía de 'Jonath elem rehokim'" o "Canta esto usando el estilo Jonath elem rehokim"

La paloma silenciosa en paraje muy distante Esto puede significar "Paloma en robles distantes". Los traductores pueden escribir el significado o copiar las palabras hebreas.

un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

mictam
El significado de la palabra "mictam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:1.

cuando los filisteos le prendieron en Gat.
"cuando los filisteos lo capturaron en Gat "

lanzan su asalto
"Se acercan más y más para atacarme"

Mis enemigos me atropellan
Se habla del ataque feroz de los enemigos como si estuvieran aplastando su cuerpo al marchar sobre él. Traducción Alterna: "Mis enemigos me atacan severamente"

Psalms 56:3

ti
La palabra "ti" se refiere a Dios.

¿qué puede hacerme a mí un simple hombre?
Aquí se usa una pregunta para mostrar que el salmista no teme a las personas, porque no pueden dañarlo seriamente. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡el simple hombre no puede hacerme nada!" o "¡el simple hombre no puede dañarme gravemente!"

simple hombre
"solo humanos" o "personas". Esto implica que las personas no son poderosas, pero Dios es poderoso.

Psalms 56:5

Todo el día
todo el tiempo

ellos tuercen mis palabras Repetir lo que alguien dice pero cambiarlo un poco para que signifique que algo diferente se habla como torcer sus palabras. Traducción Alterna: "dicen que dije cosas de las que no dije" o "dicen que dije cosas, pero mienten" todos sus pensamientos están en mi contra para el mal

"siempre tienen malos pensamientos contra mí" o "siempre piensan en cosas malas que me puedan hacer"

ellos marcan mis pasos Observar lo que hace una persona para ver cómo causarle problemas se expresa observar sus pasos, al igual que alguien que quiere capturar a una

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

persona observa por dónde camina esa persona. Traducción Alterna: "miran todo lo que hago"

tal como han esperado por mi vida Matar a alguien se expresa como esperar por su vida. Traduccion Alterna: "mientras esperan matarme"

Psalms 56:7

No los dejes escapar haciendo iniquidad
Se puede solicitar claramente "Los que podrían escapar " Traducción Alterna: "No dejes que escapen de tu castigo por su iniquidad" o "No dejes que escapen cuando los castigas por las cosas malvadas que hacen"

Derriba a la gente
Derribarlos , se refiere a derrotar al enemigo. Traducción Alterna: "Derrota a los pueblos"

Tú enumeras mis andanzas
Se habla de la preocupación de Dios por el salmista como si Dios contara cada vez que el salmista ha caminado con tristeza y sin ningún lugar a donde ir para su consuelo. Traducción Alterna: "Te importan todas las veces que he estado vagando solo"

pones mis lágrimas en una botella
Se habla de la preocupación de Dios por el salmista como si Dios hubiera guardado las lágrimas del salmista en una botella. Las lágrimas representan el llanto. Traducción Alterna: "y sabes cuánto he llorado y te preocupas por mí"

¿no están ellas en Tu libro?
Se habla de la preocupación de Dios por el salmista como si hubiera escrito el número de las lágrimas del salmista en su libro. Esta pregunta se usa para recordarle a Dios lo mucho que se preocupa por el salmista. Traducción Alterna: "has escrito sobre ellos en tu libro" o "recuerdas mis gritos"

Psalms 56:9

se volverán
"se retirarán" o "se darán la vuelta y huirán"

Dios está por mí
Esto significa que Dios lo favorece. En este contexto, implica que Dios lucha contra los enemigos del salmista para protegerlo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios está luchando por mí" ¿Qué puede hacerme el hombre?

Aquí se usa una pregunta para mostrar que el salmista no teme a las personas, porque no pueden dañarlo seriamente. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡La gente no puede hacerme nada!" o "¡La gente no me puede hacer mal!"

Psalms 56:12

El deber de cumplir mis votos a Ti está en mí
Se dice que estar obligado a hacer algo es como si el deber de hacer algo fuera de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Debo cumplir mis votos" o "Debo hacer lo que te prometí que haría"

Tú has evitado que mis pies caigan
Los pies aquí representan a la persona. Caer aquí probablemente representa ser asesinado por sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "me has impedido caer" o "me has impedido que mis enemigos me maten"

para que yo pueda caminar delante de Dios Se dice que vivir y ser visto por Dios es caminar delante de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "para que pueda vivir en la presencia de Dios"

en la luz de los vivos Aquí "la luz de los vivos" probablemente representa a las personas habilitadoras de Dios para vivir. Traducción Alterna: "con la vida que das" o "porque me permites vivir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 57

1 Sé misericordioso conmigo, Dios, sé misericordioso conmigo, pues yo tomo refugio en Tí hasta que estos problemas se acaben. Yo me quedo bajo tus alas por protección hasta que esta destucción se termine. 2 Yo clamaré al Dios Altísimo, a Dios, Quien hace todas las cosas por mí. 3 Él mandará ayuda del cielo y me salvará, Él está molesto con esos quienes me destruyen. Dios mandará Su amorosa bondad y Su lealtad. 4 Mi vida está entre leones; yo estoy entre esos que están listos para devorarme. Yo estoy entre gente cuyos dientes son lanzas y flechas, y cuyas lenguas son espadas filosas. 5 Sé exaltado, Dios, sobre los cielos; deja que Tu gloria sea sobre toda la tierra. 6 Ellos extienden una red para mis pies; estaba afligido. Ellos cavaron un pozo frente a mí. ¡Ellos mismos han caído en medio de él! 7 Mi corazón está fijo, Dios, mi corazón está fijo; yo cantaré, sí, yo cantaré alabanzas. 8 Despierta, mi honrado corazón; despierta, flauta y arpa; yo levantaré el amanecer. 9 Te daré las gracias, SEÑOR, entre la gente; yo te cantaré alabanzas a Ti entre las naciones. 10 Pues grande es Tu amor constante, alcanzando los cielos; y Tu fidelidad a las nubes. 11 Sé exaltado, Dios, sobre los cielos; que Tu gloria sea exaltada sobre toda la tierra.

Psalms 57:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

sobre No destruyas
Esto probablemente indica qué estilo musical o melodía usar al cantar el salmo. Traducción Alterna: "canta este salmo usando la melodía de "No destruyas'" o "canta esto usando el estilo de "No destruyas"

No destruyas
Esto significa "No destruir". Los traductores pueden escribir el significado o copiar las palabras hebreas.

un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

mictam
El significado de la palabra "michtam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:1.

cuando huyó de delante de Saúl a la cueva El propósito de esta frase se puede establecer claramente junto con algunos detalles básicos sobre la situación. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es sobre cuando David se escondió en la cueva de Saúl" o "Esto es sobre cuando el Rey Saúl estaba persiguiendo a David, y David se escondió en una cueva"

yo tomo refugio en Tí
Se dice que ir a EL SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en él. Traducción Alterna: "Voy a ti para protección"

Yo me quedo bajo tus alas por protección
El salmista habla de Dios como si fuera un ave madre que protege a sus crías acurrucándolas bajo sus alas. Traducción Alterna: "Confío en ti para protegerme"

hasta que esta destucción se termine
El salmista habla del deseo de Saúl de matarlo como si Saúl buscara destruir a un enemigo. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que termine este problema" o "hasta que ya no esté en peligro"

Psalms 57:2

Quien hace todas las cosas por mí Esto explica por qué clamará a Dios. Se puede traducir con "porque". Traducción Alterna: "porque él hace todo por mí"

esos quienes me destruyen
Se habla del ataque feroz de los enemigos como si estuvieran aplastando su cuerpo al marchar sobre él. Traducción Alterna: "los que me atacan severamente"

Dios mandará Su amorosa bondad y Su lealtad
Se dice que Dios es amable y fiel como si estuviera enviando su bondad y fidelidad. Traducción Alterna: "Dios será amable conmigo y confiable"

Psalms 57:4

Mi vida está entre leones
El salmista habla de sus enemigos como si fueran leones. Traducción Alterna: "Vivo entre enemigos feroces" o "enemigos feroces me rodean como leones"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

esos que están listos para devorarme
Se dice que destruir es devorar o comer algo. Algunas versiones entienden que el texto hebreo significa "bestias ardientes". Ambas imágenes hablan de sus enemigos como si fueran bestias salvajes. Traducción Alterna: "los que están listos para destruirme"

gente cuyos dientes son lanzas y flechas
Se habla de las lanzas y flechas de los enemigos como si fueran dientes de leones. El salmista continúa hablando de sus enemigos como si fueran leones. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que matan a otros con lanzas y flechas como los leones matan con sus afilados dientes"

lanzas y flechas
Dado que ambos términos son armas, si su cultura conoce solo uno, es aceptable usarlo solo.

cuyas lenguas son espadas filosas
La lengua representa lo que alguien dice, y las palabras crueles de los enemigos se hablan como si fueran espadas. Traducción Alterna: "cuyas palabras crueles son como espadas afiladas" o "que me causan terribles problemas por lo que dicen"

Sé exaltado, Dios, sobre los cielos
El salmista le pide a Dios que muestre que está exaltado. Ser exaltado sobre los cielos representa ser grandioso. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, muestra que eres exaltado sobre los cielos" o "Dios, muestra que eres grande en los cielos"

deja que Tu gloria sea sobre toda la tierra
El salmista le pide a Dios que muestre su gloria. Traducción Alterna: "muestra tu gloria sobre toda la tierra"

Psalms 57:6

Ellos extienden una red para mis pies
Se habla de los planes de sus enemigos para capturarlo como si hubieran extendido una red en el suelo para atraparlo. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si mis enemigos hubieran extendido una red para atraparme" o "Planearon capturarme como personas que extendieron una red para atrapar a un animal"

Ellos cavaron un pozo frente a mí
Se habla de los planes de sus enemigos para capturarlo como si hubieran cavado un pozo para que cayera. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si cavaran un hoyo para que yo cayera" o "Planearon capturarme como personas que cavan un hoyo en el suelo para atrapar a un animal"

¡Ellos mismos han caído en medio de él!
Se habla del daño que sufrieron sus enemigos cuando intentaron capturarlo como si cayeran en la trampa que le habían hecho. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos mismos cayeron en el pozo que habían cavado para mí" o "Pero ellos mismos fueron lastimados por lo que planearon hacerme"

Psalms 57:7

Mi corazón está fijo, Dios, mi corazón está fijo Se dice que tener confianza es que el corazón es firme en lugar de sacudirse o moverse con facilidad. La frase se repite para mostrar que tiene plena confianza en Dios y que no cambiará. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy completamente confiado en ti, Dios"

yo cantaré alabanzas
A quién le cantará se puede establecer claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Te cantaré alabanzas, Dios"

Despierta, mi honrado corazón
Se puede afirmar claramente que el propósito de despertarse es cantar alabanzas a Dios. Despertar puede ser una metáfora para comenzar o prepararse para hacer algo. El corazón representa al salmista o sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "Despierta, mi corazón honrado, para cantar alabanzas a Dios" o "Prepararé mi corazón honrado para cantar alabanzas a Dios" o "Me siento honrado de despertar y cantar alabanzas a Dios" o

despierta, flauta y arpa
Se puede afirmar claramente que el propósito de despertarse es cantar alabanzas a Dios. El salmista habla como si la flauta y el arpa fueran personas que pudieran despertarse para cantar alabanzas a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Despierta, flauta y arpa, y canta alabanzas a Dios" o "Tocaré la flauta y el arpa mientras canto alabanzas a Dios" yo levantaré el amanecer.

Se habla del amanecer como si estuviera vivo, y levantarse antes del amanecer se dice que se despierta. El propósito de levantarse antes del amanecer es alabar a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Me levantaré antes del amanecer" o "Me levantaré antes de que salga el sol"

Psalms 57:9

Pues grande es Tu amor constante, alcanzando los cielos...Tu fidelidad a las nubes Estas dos frases tienen un significado muy similar. Se habla de la grandeza del amor inagotable de Dios y la grandeza de su fidelidad como si pudieran medirse a distancia.

Pues grande es Tu amor constante, alcanzando los cielos
Se habla de la grandeza del amor inagotable de Dios como si pudiera medirse a distancia. Traducción Alterna: "Tu amor inagotable es tan grande como la distancia de la tierra a los cielos"

y Tu fidelidad a las nubes Las palabras "grande es tu" y "alcanzar" se entienden de la frase anterior. Traducción Alterna: "y grande es tu fidelidad, llegando a las nubes" o "y tu fidelidad es tan grande como la distancia de la tierra a las nubes"

Sé exaltado, Dios, sobre los cielos
El salmista le pide a Dios que muestre que está exaltado. Ser exaltado sobre los cielos representa ser grandioso. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, muestra que eres exaltado sobre los cielos" o "Dios, muestra que eres grande en los cielos"

que Tu gloria sea exaltada sobre toda la tierra
El salmista le pide a Dios que muestre su gloria. Traducción Alterna: "muestra tu gloria sobre toda la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 58

1 ¿Acaso ustedes, gobernantes, hablan justicia? ¿Acaso juzgan rectamente, ustedes pueblo? 2 No, ustedes cometen maldad en su corazón; ustedes distribuyen la violencia a través de la tierra con sus manos. 3 Los malvados se desvían hasta cuando estaban en el vientre; ellos se desvían desde el nacimiento, hablando mentiras. 4 Su veneno es como el veneno de una serpiente; ellos son como una víbora sorda que cierra sus oídos, 5 que no le prestan atención a la voz de los encantadores, no importa qué tan habilidosos sean. 6 Rómpeles los dientes en sus bocas, Dios; saca los grandes dientes de la boca de los jóvenes leones, SEÑOR. 7 Déjalos que se derritan como agua que corre; cuando ellos disparen sus flechas, déjalas ser como si no tuvieran puntas. 8 Déjalos ser como un caracol que se derrite y muere, como el niño de una mujer nacido prematuramente que nunca ve la luz del sol. 9 Antes que tus envases puedan sentir el calor ardiente de la espina, él los llevará lejos con un torbellino, las espinas verdes y las espinas ardientes por igual. 10 El justo se alegrará cuando vea la venganza de Dios; él lavará sus pies en la sangre de los malvados, 11 para que los hombres digan: "Verdaderamente, hay recompensa para las personas justas; verdaderamente hay un Dios que juzga la tierra."

Psalms 58:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información general
Este salmo es una canción sobre personas malvadas.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

sobre No destruyas
Esto probablemente indica qué estilo musical o melodía usar al cantar el salmo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 57:1

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

un mictam
El significado de la palabra "mictam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:1.

¿Acaso ustedes, gobernantes, hablan justicia?
El autor usa esta pregunta para reprender a los gobernantes porque no hablan con rectitud. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ustedes, gobernantes, no dicen lo que es correcto!"

ustedes....su
Las palabras "ustedes" y "su" se refieren a los hombres poderosos que son jueces. El "usted" aquí es plural.

¿Acaso juzgan rectamente, ustedes pueblo?
El autor utiliza esta pregunta para reprender a los jueces que no juzgan con rectitud. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ustedes nunca juzgan a las personas con rectitud!"

no
El autor responde las dos preguntas que acababa de hacer.

No, ustedes cometen maldad en su corazón
El corazón se refiere a los pensamientos o planes de las personas. Traducción Alterna: "cometes maldad en tus pensamientos" o "piensas en hacer cosas malvadas" ustedes distribuyen la violencia a través de la tierra con sus manos.

Se dice que hacer violencia en varios lugares de la tierra es distribuir o difundir la violencia en toda la tierra, como si la violencia fuera algún tipo de cosas o cosas. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes mismos hacen actos violentos en todas partes de la tierra"

Psalms 58:3

Los malvados se desvían hasta cuando estaban en el vientre....ellos se desvían desde el nacimiento Esta es la misma idea expresada de dos maneras diferentes.

ellos se desvían
Se dice que hacer cosas incorrectas es como si la gente estuviera caminando por un camino, y se apagan y van por el camino equivocado. Traducción Alterna: "hacen cosas mal"

Su veneno es como el veneno de una serpiente
Se habla de las cosas malvadas que la gente dice como si fueran veneno. Traducción Alterna: "Sus palabras malvadas causan problemas ya que el veneno de una serpiente daña a las personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos son como una víbora sorda que cierra sus oídos
Se habla de las personas malvadas que no escuchan consejos o reproches como si fueran serpientes que no responden a la música de un encantador. Traducción Alterna: "se niegan a escuchar como una víbora sorda que se tapa los oídos"

víbora sorda que cierra sus oídos
Se habla de una víbora que no responde a la música de un encantador como si pudiera poner algo en sus oídos para que no escuche. Traducción Alterna: "un sumador que no escucha"

víbora una especie de serpiente venenosa encantadores

personas que tocan o cantan música para controlar serpientes no importa que tan habilidosos sean En lo que los encantadores de serpientes eran hábiles se puede decir claramente. Traducción Alterna: "no importa cuán hábiles sean los encantadores para controlar las serpientes"

Psalms 58:6

Información General
El autor enumera las cosas que le gustaría que Dios haga a las personas malvadas.

Rómpeles los dientes...saca los grandes dientes de la boca de los jóvenes leones
En ambas frases, se habla de las personas malvadas como si fueran leones, y se dice que hacer que sean impotentes para matar a las personas es como romperse los dientes. Traducción Alterna: "Elimina su poder de matar. Hazlos impotentes como leones jóvenes cuyos dientes se han roto y caído"

Déjalos que se derritan como agua que corre
Se habla de las personas malvadas como si fueran hielo o agua. Ya no existe, se dice que se está derritiendo o drenando hacia el suelo seco. Traducción Alterna: "Haz que desaparezcan como el agua que se escurre" o "Haz que desaparezcan como el hielo que se derrite y drena en el suelo" déjalas ser como si no tuvieran puntas que sus flechas sean como si no tuvieran puntos

Déjalos ser como un caracol que se derrite y muere, Ya no existe se habla de fusión y desaparición. Traducción Alterna: "Deja que los malvados se desvanezcan como un caracol que se derrite y ya no existe"

caracol
"babosa"

como el niño de una mujer nacido prematuramente que nunca ve la luz del sol.
hijo nacido de una mujer que nunca ve la luz del sol : se dice que no existe como un bebé nacido muerto. Traducción Alterna: "como un bebé que nació demasiado temprano para vivir y ver la luz del sol" o "como un bebé que nació muerto"

Psalms 58:9

Antes que tus envases puedan sentir el calor ardiente...las espinas verdes y las espinas ardientes por igual
Se habla de los malvados como si fueran ramas de espino, y se habla del rápido castigo de Dios hacia ellos como si fuera a volarlos rápidamente o barrerlos. Traducción Alterna: "Dios destruirá a las personas malvadas más rápido de lo que un torbellino puede volar ramas de espino que se han puesto debajo de una olla y se han encendido con fuego"

tus
David le está hablando al pueblo de Dios.

espinas
"ramas de espino"

El justo se alegrará cuando vea
La frase "el justo" se refiere a las personas justas en general. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas justas se regocijarán cuando vean"

él lavará sus pies en la sangre de los malvados,
Se dice que mojarse los pies al caminar sobre la sangre es lavar los pies con sangre. Traducción Alterna: "los justos mojarán sus pies en la sangre de los impíos" o "los justos marcharán sobre la sangre de los impíos"

él lavará sus pies en la sangre de los malvados,
La gran cantidad de personas malvadas que mueren se expresa usando la exageración de las personas justas que se lavan los pies en la sangre de las personas malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "tantas personas malvadas morirán que cuando los justos marchen sobre su sangre, parecerá que podrían lavarse los pies en ella"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 59

1 Rescátame de mis enemigos, mi Dios; pónme en lo alto lejos de esos quienes se levantan en contra mía. 2 Mantenme a salvo de los trabajadores de iniquidad, y sálvame de los hombres sanguinarios. 3 Pues, mira, ellos esperan en emboscada para tomar mi vida. Los poderosos malechores se juntan a sí mismos en mí contra, pero no por mi transgresión o mi pecado, SEÑOR. 4 Ellos se preparan para correr hacia mí aunque yo no tengo culpa; despierta, ayúdame y ve. 5 Tu, SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, levántate y castiga a todas las naciones, no seas misericordioso con ningún transgresor malvado. 6 Ellos regresan en la noche, ellos aúllan como perros y van por la ciudad. 7 Mira, ellos eructan con sus bocas; espadas hay en sus labios, pues ellos dicen: "¿Quién nos escucha?" 8 Pero Tú, SEÑOR, te ríes de ellos; Tú aguantas a todas las naciones en burla. 9 Dios, mi fuerza, yo te prestaré atención a Ti, Tú eres mi torre alta. 10 Mi Dios me encontrará con Su misericordia; Dios me dejarás ver mi deseo en mis enemigos. 11 No los mates, o mi gente se olvidará. Espárcelos con Tu poder y hazlos caer, SEÑOR nuestro escudo. 12 Por los pecados de sus bocas y las palabras de sus labios, déjalos ser capturados en su orgullo, y por las maldiciones y mentiras que ellos expresan. 13 Consúmelos en ira, consúmelos para que ellos no sean más; déjalos saber que Dios gobierna en Jacob y hasta los confines de la tierra. 14 En la noche ellos regresan, aullando como perros llendo alrededor de la ciudad. 15 Ellos vagan buscando comida y ellos gruñen como un perro si no están satisfechos. 16 Pero yo cantaré sobre Tu fuerza, ¡y en la mañana yo cantaré sobre Tu firme amor! Pues Tú has sido mi torre alta y un refugio en los días de mi angustia. 17 A Ti, mi Fuerza, yo cantaré alabanzas; pues Dios es mi torre alta, el Dios que me muestra misericordia.

Psalms 59:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

sobre no destruyas
Esto probablemente indica qué estilo musical o melodía usar al cantar el salmo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 57:1

un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

un mictam
El significado de la palabra "michtam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:1

cuando Saúl ordenó que vigilaran la casa de David para matarlo
"desde que Saúl envió a sus soldados a ir a ver la casa de David para tener la oportunidad de matarlo"

pónme en lo alto
Un lugar alto representa un lugar seguro donde sus enemigos no pueden alcanzarlo. Traducción Alterna: "ponme en un lugar seguro"

se levantan en contra mía Levantarse contra alguien representa atacarlo. Traducción Alterna: "atacarme" hombres sanguinarios

La palabra "sediento de sangre" contiene "sangre", que se refiere al asesinato y "sediento", que se refiere al deseo. Traducción Alterna: "personas que desean matar" o "personas a las que les gusta matar personas"

Psalms 59:3

ellos esperan en emboscada para tomar mi vida
Los enemigos de David están escondidos y esperan en silencio el momento en que pueden atacarlo.

despierta
Decidir hacer algo y comenzar a hacerlo se expresa como que se está despertando. Traducción Alterna: "hacer algo" o "tomar medidas"

y ve
Lo que él quiere que Dios vea puede afirmarse claramente. Traducción Alterna: "y ver qué me está pasando" o "y ver qué me están haciendo"

Psalms 59:5

levántate
Decidir hacer algo y comenzar a hacerlo se habla de levantarse. Traducción Alterna: "hacer algo" o "tomar medidas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todas las naciones
La palabra "naciones" aquí representa a las personas de las naciones que no honran a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "los pueblos de todas las naciones"

Psalms 59:6

Ellos regresan en la noche
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los malvados transgresores.

ellos aúllan como perros
El salmista habla de sus enemigos que amenazan con atacar a las personas como si fueran perros aullando, gruñendo o ladrando a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "amenazan con atacar a las personas"

van por la ciudad Puede explicarse claramente por qué recorren la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "recorre la ciudad para atacar a cualquiera que encuentre"

mira Aquí la palabra "Ver" se está utilizando para llamar la atención sobre algo. Traducción Alterna: Oye

ellos eructan con sus bocas Decir cosas terribles se habla de eructos. Estas cosas terribles pueden haber sido insultos o amenazas. AT: "dicen cosas terribles" o "gritan palabras terribles" eructan eructar ruidosamente; permitir que el aire del estómago salga de la boca con un ruido fuerte y grosero

espadas hay en sus labios
Se habla de las cosas crueles que decían los malvados como si fueran espadas. Traducción Alterna: "dicen cosas crueles que causan problemas a las personas tanto como las espadas las destruyen" ¿Quién nos escucha?

Esta pregunta se usa para mostrar que creían que Dios no los escucharía y los castigaría. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nadie puede escucharnos!" o "¡Tu Dios no nos escucha!"

Psalms 59:8

te ríes de ellos
"reírse de ellos con desdén" o "burlarse de ellos". Dios se reiría de ellos porque no tienen valor ni poder.

Tú aguantas a todas las naciones en burla
"ridiculizas a todas las naciones" o "sabes que los pueblos de las naciones son tontos"

burla
"ridículo" o "burla"

mi fuerza
El hecho de que Dios sea la fuerza del salmista representa a Dios protegiéndolo. Traducción Alterna: "eres mi fuerza" o "eres mi protector"

Tú eres mi torre alta.
Una torre alta es un lugar al que la gente podría acudir para protegerse de sus enemigos. El salmista habla de Dios protegiéndolo como si Dios fuera un refugio fuerte y seguro. Traducción Alterna: "me proteges como una torre alta"

Psalms 59:10

Mi Dios me encontrará
Se dice que Dios rescata al salmista como si Dios se encontrara con él. Traducción Alterna: "Mi Dios me rescatará"

mi deseo en mis enemigos
El sustantivo abstracto "deseo" se puede expresar con el verbo "querer". Traducción Alterna: "lo que quiero que les pase a mis enemigos"

Espárcelos
"Haz que deambulen"

nuestro escudo
Se dice que Dios protege a los justos como si Dios fuera un escudo. Traducción Alterna: "nuestro protector" o "el que nos protege como un escudo"

Psalms 59:12

Por los pecados de sus bocas y las palabras de sus labios
Las bocas y los labios representan las cosas que la gente dice. Traducción Alterna: "Porque pecan por lo que dicen" o "Por las cosas pecaminosas que dicen"

déjalos ser capturados en su orgullo Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "deja que la gente los capture por su orgullo" que ellos expresan

"que dicen"

Consúmelos en ira, consúmelos para que ellos no sean más Destruirlos por completo se expresa como quemarlos o los consumirlos. Traducción Alterna: "Enojarse con ellos y destruirlos por completo para que no haya más de ellos"

en Jacob
Jacob aquí se refiere a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "en Israel"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hasta los confines de la tierra.
"Incluso a los lugares más distantes de la tierra". Esto representa todos los lugares de la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "en todas partes en la tierra"

Psalms 59:14

aullando como perros
El salmista habla de sus enemigos que amenazan con atacar a las personas como si fueran perros aullando, gruñendo o ladrando a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "amenazando con atacarnos" o "amenazando con atacarnos como perros salvajes"

satisfechos contento

Psalms 59:16

Tú has sido mi torre alta y un refugio
Las torres altas y los refugios son lugares a los que las personas pueden ir para refugiarse de sus enemigos. El salmista habla de Dios protegiéndolo como si Dios fuera un refugio fuerte y seguro. Traducción Alterna: "me has protegido como una torre alta y un refugio"

en los días de mi angustia
La palabra "día" aquí se refiere a un período de tiempo. Traducción Alterna: "siempre que he tenido problemas"

A Ti, mi Fuerza, yo cantaré alabanzas
"Para ti, mi fuerza" se puede combinar como una sola oración. Traducción Alterna: "Tú eres mi fuerza, así que te cantaré alabanzas"

mi fuerza
El hecho de que Dios sea la fuerza del salmista representa a Dios protegiéndolo. Traducción Alterna: "mi protector"

pues Dios es mi torre alta Las torres altas son lugares a los que las personas pueden acudir para protegerse de sus enemigos. El salmista habla de Dios protegiéndolo como si Dios fuera un refugio fuerte y seguro. Traducción Alterna: "me has protegido como una torre alta"

el Dios que me muestra misericordia Esto se puede expresar en una oración separada. Traducción Alterna: "Él es el Dios de la fidelidad al pacto" o "Tú eres el Dios de la fidelidad al pacto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 60

1 Dios, Tú nos has expulsado; Tú has roto nuestras defensas; Te has airado; restáuranos otra vez. 2 Tú has hecho temblar la tierra; Tú la has deshecho; sana sus grietas, pues está temblando. 3 Tú has hecho ver cosas difíciles a Tu pueblo; nos has hecho beber del vino que te hace tambalear. 4 Para aquellos que Te honran, Tú has puesto un estandarte para ser mostrado contra aquellos que llevan el arco. 5 Para que aquellos que Tú amas puedan ser rescatados, rescátanos con Tu mano derecha y contéstame. 6 Dios ha hablado en Su santidad: "Yo me regocijaré; Yo dividiré a Siquem y mediré el Valle de Sucot. 7 Galaad es Mío, y Manasés es Mío; Efraín también es Mi casco; Judá es Mi cetro. 8 Moab es mi lavamanos; sobre Edom lanzaré Mi zapato; Clamaré en triunfo a causa de Filistea." 9 ¿Quién me llevará a la ciudad fuerte? ¿Quién me conducirá a Edom? 10 Pero Tú, Dios, ¿no nos has rechazado? Tú no entras en batalla con nuestro ejército. 11 Danos ayuda contra el enemigo, porque la ayuda del hombre es inútil. 12 Nosotros triunfaremos con la ayuda de Dios; Él pisoteará a nuestros enemigos.

Psalms 60:1

información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

set to Shushan Eduth
Esto probablemente indica qué melodía o estilo musical usar al cantar el salmo. Traducción Alterna: "canta este salmo usando la melodía de "Shushan Eduth'" o "canta esto usando el estilo "Shushan Eduth"

Shushan Eduth
Esto significa "Lirios de la promesa". Los traductores pueden escribir el significado o copiar las palabras hebreas.

un Mictam
El significado de la palabra "mictam" es incierto. Puede usar la palabra "salmo" en su lugar. Esto se puede escribir como: "Este es un salmo que David escribió". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:1

Aram-Naharaim...Aram de Soba
"Aram de los dos ríos ... la nación aramea de Soba". Estos son lugares.

Joab
Esto se refiere a Joab y al ejército que dirigió.

doce mil Edomitas
12.000 edomitas

Tú nos has expulsado
Se habla de las personas que rechazan a Dios como si las hubiera tirado. Traducción Alterna: "nos has rechazado"

Tú has roto nuestras defensas
Se dice que Dios permite que los enemigos de Israel rompan sus defensas como Dios mismo lo había hecho. Traducción Alterna: "has permitido que nuestros enemigos rompan nuestras defensas"

Psalms 60:2

Oración de enlace
El salmista continúa hablando a Dios

Tú has hecho temblar la tierra; Tú la has deshecho
El salmista habla del desastre en su país como si fuera un terremoto.

sana sus grietas
Se dice que fortalecer a la gente nuevamente es reparar las fisuras en el suelo o las paredes.

grietas
grandes grietas en el suelo o paredes

Tú has hecho ver cosas difíciles a Tu pueblo Aquí "ver" representa "experiencia" o "sufrimiento".

beber del vino que te hace tambalear.
"El vino que nos hace tambalear". Se dice que estar indefenso es estar tambaleante, apenas capaz de mantenerse en pie.

Psalms 60:4

Tú has puesto un estandarte
Se dice que Dios está guiando a su pueblo en la batalla como si Dios fuera un rey o comandante humano que había colocado una bandera para el ejército. Traducción Alterna: "eres como un rey que coloca un estandarte" o "nos mandas en la batalla como un rey que levanta un estandarte"

estandarte
"bandera de batalla". Esta es una bandera que un rey o comandante levantaría en un poste para mostrar que el ejército debería reunirse.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para ser mostrado contra aquellos que llevan el arco.
Esto se puede establecer con una oración activa. Traducción Alterna: "para exhibir contra aquellos que llevan el arco". Sin embargo, algunas versiones tienen diferentes interpretaciones de esta frase.

para ser mostrado contra aquellos que llevan el arco.
La frase "los que llevan el arco" se refiere a los soldados enemigos en la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "para mostrar cuando lleva a su ejército a la batalla contra tus enemigos"

con Tu mano derecha La mano derecha de Dios representa su poder. Traducción Alterna: "por tu poder"

contéstame
Responder aquí representa responder a su solicitud. Traducción Alterna: "responder a mi solicitud" o "responder a mi oración"

Psalms 60:6

Efraín también es Mi casco Dios habla de la tribu de Efraín como si fuera su ejército. El casco simboliza el equipamiento para la guerra. Traducción Alterna: "Efraín es como un casco que he elegido" o "la tribu de Efraín es mi ejército" casco

un casco que los soldados usan para proteger sus cabezas de lesiones

Judá es Mi cetro
Dios escogió a los hombres de la tribu de Judá para ser los reyes de su pueblo, y él habla de esa tribu como si fuera su cetro. Traducción Alterna: "la tribu de Judá es como mi cetro" o "Judá es la tribu a través de la cual yo gobierno a mi pueblo"

Psalms 60:8

Moab es mi lavamanos
Dios habla de que Moab no es importante como si Moab fuera un lavabo o un sirviente humilde. Traducción Alterna: "Moab es como un tazón que uso para lavar"

sobre Edom lanzaré Mi zapato
Dios probablemente estaba hablando de tomar posesión de Edom como si simbólicamente estuviera arrojando su zapato sobre esa tierra para demostrar que lo posee. Sin embargo, algunas versiones tienen otras interpretaciones. Traducción Alterna: "Tomo posesión de la tierra de Edom" o "Lanzo mi zapato sobre la tierra de Edom para demostrar que es mío"

Psalms 60:10

Pero Tú, Dios, ¿no nos has rechazado?
El salmista usa esta pregunta para expresar su tristeza porque parece que Dios los ha rechazado. Traducción Alterna: "Pero Dios, parece que nos has rechazado". o "Dios, parece que nos has abandonado".

Tú no entras en batalla con nuestro ejército.
El salmista habla de Dios ayudando a su ejército como si Dios fuera a pelear con ellos. Traducción Alterna: "no ayudas a nuestro ejército cuando vamos a la batalla"

inútil
"sin valor"

triunfaremos
"tener victoria"

Él pisoteará a nuestros enemigos
El salmista habla de Dios ayudando a su ejército a derrotar a sus enemigos como si Dios fuera a pisotear a los enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "nos permitirá pisotear a nuestros enemigos" o "nos hará capaces de vencer a nuestros enemigos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 61

1 Oye mi clamor, Dios; atiende mi oración. 2 Desde los confines de la tierra yo Te llamaré cuando mi corazón esté abrumado; dirígeme a la roca que es más alta que yo. 3 Pues Tú has sido un refugio para mí, una torre fuerte en contra del enemigo. 4 ¡Déjame vivir en Tu tabernáculo para siempre! Déjame refugiarme bajo el abrigo de Tus alas. 5 Pues Tú, Dios, has oído mis votos, Tú me has dado la herencia de aquellos que honran Tu nombre. 6 Tú prolongarás la vida del rey; sus años serán como muchas generaciones. 7 Él permanecerá ante Dios para siempre. 8 Yo cantaré alabanza a Tu nombre para siempre para que yo pueda cumplir mis votos todos los días.

Psalms 61:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información general
Esta es una canción sobre la fidelidad de Dios.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

en un instrumento de cuerda la gente debería tocar un instrumento de cuerda con esta canción

un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

Oye mi clamor, Dios; atiende mi oración Estas cláusulas tienen un significado similar. Traducción Alterna: "Dios, escúchame y responde mi oración"

abrumado
vencido

dirígeme a la roca que es más alta que yo.
Aquí el escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una roca alta que pudiera escalar para protegerse.

una torre fuerte en contra del enemigo.
Las palabras implícitas "que me mantienen a salvo" se pueden agregar a la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "has sido como una torre fuerte que me mantiene a salvo de mi enemigo"

una torre fuerte
Aquí el escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una "torre fuerte" que brinda protección contra sus enemigos.

Psalms 61:4

Déjame refugiarme bajo el abrigo de Tus alas
Se dice que ir a EL SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en él. Aquí hay una segunda metáfora que habla de la protección de EL SEÑOR como si fuera una gallina protegiendo a sus pollitos debajo de sus alas. Traducción Alterna: "acude a ti para protegerte ya que una chica está a salvo bajo las alas de su madre"

Tú me has dado la herencia
El escritor habla de las bendiciones de Dios como si fueran una herencia que él ha recibido. Traducción Alterna: "me has dado las bendiciones" aquellos que honran Tu nombre.

Aquí "tu nombre" significa Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "que te honra" o "que te tiene un respeto increíble"

Psalms 61:6

Tú prolongarás...muchas generaciones
Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares. La idea se repite para enfatizar.

Tú prolongarás la vida del rey
"Extenderás la vida del rey" o "Harás que la vida del rey dure mucho tiempo"

sus años serán como muchas generaciones Aquí "años" se refiere a cuánto tiempo vivirá el rey. Traducción Alterna: "vivirá por muchas generaciones"

Él permanecerá ante Dios para siempre.
Aquí "permanecer ante Dios" significa estar en la presencia de Dios o estar con Dios. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "Dios estará con él para siempre" o "Dios estará con el rey para siempre"

Psalms 61:8

Yo cantaré alabanza a Tu nombre para siempre Aquí "nombre" representa a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre te cantaré alabanzas" mis votos

Estos se refieren a la promesa de ofrecer sacrificios a Dios todos los días. (Ver UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 62

1 Yo espero en silencio por Dios solamente; mi salvación viene de Él. 2 Él sólo es mi roca y mi salvación;
Él es mi torre alta; yo no seré movido grandemente. 3 ¿Por cuánto tiempo, ustedes, atacarán a un hombre, para hacerlo caer como una pared inclinada o una cerca temblorosa? 4 Ellos consultan con él sólo para derribarlo de su posición honorable; ellos aman decir mentiras; ellos lo bendicen con sus bocas, pero en sus corazones lo maldicen. 5 Yo espero en silencio por Dios solamente; pues mis esperanzas están puestas sobre Él. 6 Él sólo es mi roca y mi salvación; Él es mi torre alta; yo no seré movido. 7 Con Dios está mi salvación y mi gloria; la roca de mi fortaleza y mi refugio están en Dios. 8 Confía en Él en todo tiempo, oh pueblo; derrama tu corazón delante de Él; Dios es un refugio para nosotros. 9 Seguramente los hombres de baja condición son vanidad; y los hombres de alta condición son una mentira; ellos pesarán livianamente en la balanza; pesados juntos, son más livianos que cualquier cosa. 10 No confíen en la opresión ni en el robo; y no esperen inútilmente en las riquezas, porque ellas no llevarán ningún fruto; no fijen su corazón en ellas. 11 Dios ha hablado una vez, dos veces yo he oído esto: el poder le pertenece a Dios. 12 También a Ti, Señor, pertenece la misericordia, pues Tú le devolverás a cada persona según lo que ha hecho.

Psalms 62:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información general
Este salmo es una canción sobre la fidelidad de Dios.

Al músico principal
"Esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

Jedutún
Uno de los principales músicos de David tenía este mismo nombre. Esto puede referirse a él. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 39:1.

un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

mi salvación viene de Él
"él es quien me rescata" o "él es quien me salva"

Él sólo es mi roca y mi salvación
El escritor habla de la capacidad de Dios para protegerlo como si Dios fuera una roca. Traducción Alterna: "Él es el único que puede protegerme y rescatarme"

Él es mi torre alta
El escritor habla de la capacidad de Dios para protegerlo como si Dios fuera una torre alta. Traducción Alterna: "él me mantiene alejado de mis enemigos" yo no seré movido grandemente

Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nada puede moverme"

Psalms 62:3

ustedes
"mis enemigos" o "todos mis enemigos"

Por cuánto tiempo...atacarán a un hombre...o una cerca temblorosa?
David usa una pregunta retórica para expresar su frustración. No se espera respuesta. Traducción Alterna: "Parece que mis enemigos nunca dejarán de atacarme. Siento que soy tan débil contra ti como una pared inclinada o una cerca rota".

atacarán a un hombre
"atacarme"

Ellos consultan con él sólo
"Pretenden" o "Planean"

consultan con él ...derribarlo...lo bendicen... lo maldicen En estos versículos, David se refiere a sí mismo por "él".

con sus bocas
Esto se refiere a su discurso o sus palabras.

en sus corazones
Esto se refiere a sus pensamientos.

Psalms 62:5

pues mis esperanzas están puestas sobre Él
"Porque pongo mi esperanza en él"

Él sólo es mi roca y mi salvación; Él es mi torre alta;
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una roca y una torre alta. Ambas metáforas muestran cómo Dios proporciona protección contra los enemigos. Aquí "salvación" significa que Dios rescata al escritor. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 62:1.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

yo no seré movido.
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nada puede moverme"

Psalms 62:7

la roca de mi fortaleza y mi refugio están en Dios El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una roca que lo mantiene a salvo de sus enemigos. También habla de Dios como si fuera un refugio que brinda protección. Traducción Alterna: "Dios siempre me da fuerza y protección"

derrama tu corazón
Esto se refiere a decirle a Dios sus sentimientos mas profundos como si estuviera derramando un líquido. Traducción Alterna: "dale tus más profundas preocupaciones a Dios"

refugio para nosotros
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a David y a las personas con las que está hablando.

Psalms 62:9

los hombres de baja condición ...los hombres de alta condición son una mentira Esto se refiere a hombres de todos los niveles de riqueza e importancia. Las frases "son vanidad" y "son mentiras" tienen el mismo significado. No se puede poner la confianza en nadie. Traducción Alterna: "no puedes confiar en los hombres, no importa cuán importantes sean"

pesados juntos, son más livianos que cualquier cosa.
Si pones a todos estos tipos de hombres juntos en una balanza, no tendrían peso. Esto significa que no tienen ningún valor real para usted.

opresión ni en el robo
Estas dos palabras tienen básicamente el mismo significado. No puedes confiar en el dinero que obtienes tomándolo de otras personas.

ellas no llevarán ningún fruto
El escritor habla de las riquezas como si fueran árboles o enredaderas que pudieran dar fruto. Traducción Alterna: "porque no te proporcionarán nada bueno"

no fijen su corazón en ellas Aquí "fijar tu corazón" es un modismo que significa desear algo grandemente. Traducción Alterna: "no los desees"

Psalms 62:11

Dios ha hablado una vez, dos veces yo he oído esto
Esto significa que Dios ha dicho esto más de una vez.

el poder le pertenece a Dios
"Él es quien nos ama fielmente, como lo prometió" (UDB)

También a Ti, Señor, pertenece la misericordia,
"Él es quien nos ama fielmente, como lo prometió" (UDB)

pues Tú le devolverás a cada persona según lo que ha hecho El escritor habla de las recompensas de Dios como si estuviera pagando un salario por el trabajo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 63

1 ¡Dios, Tú eres mi Dios! Yo Te busco fervientemente, mi alma tiene sed de Ti, y mi carne Te desea, en una tierra seca y agotada donde no hay agua. 2 Así como Te he mirado en medio del santuario para ver Tu poder y Tu gloria. 3 Porque Tu misericordia es mejor que la vida, mis labios Te alabarán. 4 Así que yo Te bendeciré mientras viva; yo levantaré mis manos en Tu nombre. 5 Será como si yo comiera una comida de tuétano y grosura; con labios jubilosos mi boca Te alabará, 6 cuando yo piense en Ti sobre mi cama y medite en Ti en las horas nocturnas. 7 Pues Tú has sido mi ayuda, y a la sombra de Tus alas me regocijo. 8 Yo me aferro a Ti; Tu mano derecha me sostiene. 9 Pero aquellos que procuran destruir mi vida bajarán a las partes más bajas de la tierra; 10 ellos serán entregados a aquellos cuyas manos usan la espada, y llegarán a ser comida para los chacales. 11 Pero el rey se regocijará en Dios; todos los que juran por Él estarán orgullosos de Él, pero la boca de aquellos que hablan mentiras será cerrada.

Psalms 63:1

Información General
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Los posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David.

fervientemente
sinceramente

mi alma tiene sed de Ti, y mi carne Te desea Estas dos cláusulas tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar cuánto desea el escritor estar con Dios. Traducción Alterna: "todo mi ser desea enormemente estar contigo" en una tierra seca y agotada

"desierto seco y caliente"

Psalms 63:3

mis labios Te alabarán Aquí "mis labios" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Te alabaré" yo levantaré mis manos en Tu nombre Aquí "mis labios" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Te alabaré"

Psalms 63:5

Será como si yo comiera una comida de tuétano y grosura;
Aquí el escritor habla de conocer y adorar a Dios como algo más satisfactorio que comer una buena comida. Traducción Alterna: "Seré más feliz que una persona que come una comida de grasa y comida selecta"

con labios jubilosos mi boca Te alabará Aquí "con labios alegres mi boca" representa a toda la persona que alabará a Dios con alegría. Traducción Alterna: "Te alabaré alegremente" cuando yo piense en Ti sobre mi cama...en las horas nocturnas Estas dos cláusulas tienen el mismo significado. Las ideas se repiten para enfatizar cuánto piensa el escritor acerca de Dios.

Psalms 63:7

a la sombra de Tus alas me regocijo
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera un pájaro protegiendo a sus crías bajo sus alas. Traducción Alterna: "Me alegro porque me proteges"

Yo me aferro a Ti
"Te necesito" o "Dependo de ti"

Tu mano derecha me sostiene
Aquí, la mano derecha se usa como símbolo de fuerza y poder. Traducción Alterna: "me apoyas" o "me levantas"

Psalms 63:9

bajarán a las partes más bajas de la tierra Esto significa que morirán e irán al lugar de los muertos. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alterna:"morirá y descenderá al lugar de los muertos"

ellos serán entregados a aquellos cuyas manos usan la espada Aquí "la espada" representa la muerte en la batalla, y "aquellos cuyas manos usan la espada" se refiere a los enemigos que los matan en la batalla. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios los hará morir en la batalla"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

llegarán a ser comida para los chacales.
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los cadáveres de aquellos que mueren en la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "los chacales se comerán sus cadáveres"

los chacales
Los "chacales" son una especie de perro salvaje de patas largas. Se alimentan de carroña, caza y fruta.

Psalms 63:11

el rey
David está hablando de sí mismo. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. Traducción Alterna: "Yo, el rey de Israel"

juran por Él...estarán orgullosos de Él
La palabra "él" se refiere a "Dios".

pero la boca de aquellos que hablan mentiras será cerrada.
Aquí "la boca" representa a toda la persona. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero Dios silenciará a los mentirosos" o "pero Dios silenciará a los que mienten"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 64

1 Oye mi voz, Dios, escucha mi queja; preserva mi vida del temor a mis enemigos. 2 Escóndeme de las tramas secretas de los malhechores, del escándalo de los hacedores de iniquidad. 3 Ellos han afilado sus lenguas como espadas; ellos han apuntado sus flechas, palabras amargas, 4 para que puedan disparar desde lugares secretos a alguien que es inocente; de repente le disparan a él y no temen nada. 5 Ellos se motivan a sí mismos con un plan malvado; ellos consultan juntos en privado a fin de poner trampas; ellos dicen: "¿Quién nos verá?" 6 Ellos inventan planes pecaminosos: "Nosotros hemos terminado," ellos dicen, "un plan cuidadoso." Los pensamientos internos y los corazones del hombre son profundos. 7 Pero Dios les disparará; de repente ellos serán heridos con Sus flechas. 8 Se les hará tropezar, ya que sus propias lenguas están en contra de ellos; todos los que los vean menearán sus cabezas. 9 Toda la gente temerá y declarará las obras de Dios. Ellos pensarán sabiamente sobre lo que Él ha hecho. 10 Los justos se alegrarán acerca del SEÑOR y se refugiarán en Él; todos los rectos de corazón se enorgullecerán de Él.

Psalms 64:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

Información general:
Este salmo es una oración por ayuda.

preserva
''guardar''

Escóndeme de las tramas secretas ... escándalo de los hacedores de iniquidad Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares. La segunda cláusula proporciona más detalles al describir cómo suena la "trama secreta"

del escándalo
Aquí las palabras implícitas "esconderme" se pueden agregar a la traducción. Traducción alterna: "escóndeme del escándalo"

escándalo
un sonido confuso de ruido y emoción

Psalms 64:3

Ellos han afilado sus lenguas como espadas
El escritor habla de las lenguas de sus enemigos como si fueran tan afiladas como espadas. Aquí "lenguas" representa las duras palabras que hablan los enemigos. Traducción alterna: "Las cosas duras que dicen me hieren como una espada afilada"

flechas, palabras amargas
El escritor habla de las amargas palabras de sus enemigos como si fueran flechas disparadas contra él. Traducción alterna: "palabras amargas que me atraviesan como flechas"

Psalms 64:5

¿Quién nos verá?
Los malhechores no esperan una respuesta a su pregunta porque piensan que nadie los verá. Traducción alterna: "Nadie verá lo que estamos haciendo"

Los pensamientos internos y los corazones del hombre son profundos
El escritor habla de los "pensamientos internos" y los "corazones del hombre" del hombre como si fueran un cuerpo de agua profundo que nadie puede explorar hasta el fondo.

pensamientos internos ... los corazones del hombre
Ambas frases se refieren a los pensamientos privados o internos del hombre.

Psalms 64:7

información general:
El escritor sigue hablando de los malhechores de 64:1.

Pero Dios les disparará ... con Sus flechas
El escritor habla del castigo de Dios a los malhechores como si Dios les estuviera disparando flechas.

Se les hará tropezar
El escritor habla de que Dios está causando que los planes de los malhechores fracasen como si Dios los estuviera haciendo tropezar en su camino. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios los hará tropezar" o "Dios hará que sus planes fracasen"

ya que sus propias lenguas están en contra de ellos Aquí "lenguas" representa las palabras que dicen. Traducción alterna: "ya que las palabras que dicen están en contra de ellos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo que Él ha hecho
''Lo que Dios ha hecho''

Psalms 64:10

se refugiarán en Él
Se dice que ir al SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en él. Traducción alterna: "ve a él para protección"

todos los rectos de corazón se enorgullecerán de Él Aquí "recto en el corazón" es una expresión idiomatica que significa piadoso o justo. Traducción alterna: "todas las personas que son piadosas lo alabarán"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 65

1 Para Ti, Dios en Sion, nuestra alabanza espera; nuestros votos serán cumplidos en Ti. 2 Tú que oyes la oración, a Ti vendrá toda carne. 3 Las iniquidades prevalecen contra nosotros; en cuanto a nuestras transgresiones, Tú las perdonarás. 4 Bendecido es el hombre a quien Tú escoges para acercarlo a Ti para que pueda vivir en Tus atrios. Nosotros estaremos satisfechos con la bondad de Tu casa, Tu santo templo. 5 En justicia Tú nos responderás haciendo cosas maravillosas, Dios de nuestra salvación; Tú que eres la confianza de todos los confines de la tierra y de aquellos que están lejos al otro lado del mar. 6 Porque eres Tú quien hizo firmes a las montañas, Tú quien estás ceñido de fortaleza. 7 Eres Tú quien aquietas el rugido de los mares, el rugido de sus olas, y la conmoción de los pueblos. 8 Aquellos que viven en las partes más remotas de la tierra temen la evidencia de Tus obras; Tú haces que el este y el oeste se regocijen. 9 Tú vienes a ayudar a la tierra; Tú la riegas; Tú la enriqueces grandemente; el río de Dios está lleno de agua; Tú le provees grano a la humanidad cuando has preparado la tierra. 10 Tú riegas sus surcos abundantemente; aplanas sus surcos; Tú los ablandas con aguaceros; Tú bendices los brotes entre ellos. 11 Tú coronas el año con Tu bondad; las huellas detrás de Tu carro dejan caer grosura abajo a la tierra. 12 Los pastos en el desierto destilan rocío, y las colinas están vestidas de gozo. 13 Los pastizales están vestidos con rebaños; los valles también están cubiertos de grano; gritan de júbilo, y cantan.

Psalms 65:1

Información general:
El paralalelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

Información general:
Este salmo es una canción de alabanza.

Para Ti, Dios en Sion, nuestra alabanza espera Esto habla de la alabanza como si esta fuera una persona que puede actuar por sí misma. Traducción alterna: ''Solo a ti, Dios en Sion, nosotros ofrecemos nuestra alabanza.'' nuestros votos serán cumplidos en Ti

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''nosotros haremos lo que hemos prometido que hariamos''

Las iniquidades prevalecen contra nosotros
David habla de la iniquidad como si esta fuese una persona que es capaz de derrotar u oprimir. Traducción alterna: ''Es como si nuestros propios pecados estuvieran derrotandonos''

Tú las perdonarás
La palabras ''las'' se refiere a nuestras ''iniquidades''

Psalms 65:4

quien Tú escoges ... Tus atrios Las palabras ''tú'' y 'tus'' en este verso se refieren al SEÑOR

vivir en Tus atrios
Esto no significa que el hombre realmente vive en en templo pero que va muy frequentemente a alabar al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: ''alabar frecuentemente en tus atrios''

Nosotros estaremos satisfechos con la bondad de Tu casa, Tu santo templo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''La bondad de tu casa, tu santo templo, nos satisfará

Nosotros estaremos
aquí la palabra ''nosotros'' se refiere a David y al pueblo a cual él está hablando.

Tu casa, Tu santo templo.
''tu casa, la cual es tu santo templo''

Psalms 65:5

En justicia
''Porque tú eres justo''

Tú que eres
''tú eres''

los confines de la tierra ... al otro lado del mar Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Traducción alterna: '' de todas las personas que viven en toda la tierra y al otro lado del mar''

los confines de la tierra
Esto se refiere a las personas que a lo largo de toda la tierra.

Psalms 65:6

Tú quien estás ceñido de fortaleza
El escritor habla de Dios como si vestía su fuerza como un cinto. Traducción alterna: ''Mostrando que tú eres muy poderoso''

el rugido de los mares, el rugido de sus olas Estas dos frases tienen el mismo siginificado y son usadas juntas para crear una impresión vívida en el

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

oyente o lector. Traducción alterna: ''El continuo rugido de los mares'' rugido

un sonido fuerte causado por el viento y las olas.

y la conmoción
La palabra implícita ''silencio'' puede ser añadida a la traducción. Traducción alterna: ''y el silencio y la conmoción'' conmoción

ruido fuerte

Psalms 65:8

evidencia
prueba o algo que muestra que otra cosa es verdadera.

Tú haces que el este y el oeste se regocijen
La frase ''el este y oeste'' se refiere a las personas que viven alrededor de toda la tierra. Traducción alterna: ''tu causas que las personas de todas partes griten con gozo''

ayudar a la tierra
Esto se refiere al suelo de la tierra

Tú la enriqueces grandemente
''tu haces el suelo muy bueno, tan bueno que las cosas crecen en él.''

el río de Dios está lleno de agua Esto se refiere al suministro de agua en el cielo que Dios envía para regar la tierra y abastecer las corrientes. Traducción alterna: ''tu abasteces las corrientes con agua''

Psalms 65:10

Tú ... sus
Las palabras ''tú'' y ''tus'' se refieren al SEÑOR

sus surcos
''los surcos de la tierra''

surcos
Un surco es una zanja larga y estrecha hecha en el suelo para plantar semillas o para regar el campo donde se han plantado granos.

crestas
bordes

Tú coronas el año con Tu bondad
Aquí al "año" se le da la calidad humana de llevar una corona. Traducción alterna: "Has honrado el año con una buena cosecha"

Los pastos en el desierto destilan rocío
Hay tanto rocío en los pastos que se dice que destilan. Traducción alterna: '' las colinas están vestidas de gozo

El escritor habla de la belleza de las colinas como si estas fueran personas alegras, y de la alegría como si esta fuera vestimenta. Traducción alterna: ''las colinas son como personas vistiendo gozo'' y ''las colinas son como personas alegres''

Psalms 65:13

Los pastizales están vestidos con rebaños
El escritor habla de los pastizalez como si estuvieran tan cubiertos de rebaños que es como si los pastos estuvieran usando una prenda.

pastizales
largos campos donde los animales se alimentan del pasto.

rebaños
grupo de animales, tales como ovejas y cabras.

gritan de júbilo, y cantan
Los pastos, colinas y valles son tan abundantes que parecen gritar y cantar de alegría. Traducción alterna: "son como personas alegres cantando"

gritan
Esto se refiere a los pastizales y valles

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 66

1 Hagan un sonido gozoso a Dios, toda la tierra. 2 Canten fuerte la gloria de Su nombre; hagan su alabanza gloriosa. 3 Digan a Dios: ¡Cuán terribles son Tus obras! Por la grandeza de Tu poder Tus enemigos se someterán a Ti. 4 Toda la tierra Te adorará y cantará a Ti; ellos cantarán a Tu nombre." 5 Vengan y vean las obras de Dios; Él es temible en Sus obras hacia los hijos de la humanidad. 6 Él convirtió el mar en tierra seca; ellos atravesaron el río a pie; ahí nos regocijamos en Él. 7 Él gobierna para siempre por Su poder; Sus ojos observan las naciones; que los rebeldes no se exalten a sí mismos. 8 Bendigan a Dios, ustedes pueblos, que se oiga el sonido de Su alabanza. 9 Él nos mantiene entre los vivos, y no permite que nuestros pies resbalen. 10 Pues Tú, Dios, nos has probado; Tú nos has probado como se prueba la plata. 11 Tú nos metiste en una red; Tú pusiste una carga severa sobre nuestras cinturas. 12 Hiciste que gente cabalgara sobre nuestras cabezas; nosotros pasamos por fuego y agua, pero Tú nos sacaste a un lugar espacioso. 13 Yo entraré a Tu casa con ofrendas quemadas; yo Te pagaré mis votos 14 que mis labios prometieron y mi boca habló cuando yo estuve en aflicción. 15 Yo Te ofreceré ofrendas quemadas de animales engordados con el aroma dulce de machos cabríos; yo ofreceré toros y cabras. 16 Vengan y escuchen, todos ustedes que temen a Dios, y yo declararé lo que Él ha hecho por mi alma. 17 Yo clamé a Él con mi boca, y Él fue alabado con mi lengua. 18 Si yo hubiera visto pecado dentro de mi corazón, el Señor no me habría escuchado. 19 Pero Dios ciertamente ha oído; Él ha prestado atención a la voz de mi oración. 20 Bendecido sea Dios, quien no ha rechazado mi oración ni ha apartado de mí Su misericordia.

Psalms 66:1

Información general:
El paralalelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

Información general:
Este salmo es una canción de alabanza.

Hagan un sonido gozoso a Dios, toda la tierra
Un "ruido alegre para Dios" representa cantos y gritos de alabanza a Dios. Traducción alterna: "Que toda la tierra cante y grite alegremente a Dios"

toda la tierra
Esto se refiere a las peronas que viven en la tierra. Traducción alterna: ''todos en la tierra''

Canten fuerte la gloria de Su nombre; hagan su alabanza gloriosa Estas frases tienen significados similares y son usados juntos para enfatizar cuán asombroso que es Dios. Traducción alterna: "Cante sobre cuán maravilloso es el nombre de Dios; cante alabanzas maravillosas sobre cuán grande es Dios"

la gloria de Su nombre
El nombre de Dios aquí representa a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: ''su gloria''

Psalms 66:3

Cuán terribles son Tus obras
Las obras de Dios nos causan asombro y terror porque sabemos que él es poderoso y santo.

Por la grandeza de Tu poder
"Porque tienes un gran poder"

Toda la tierra Te adorará Esto se refiere a todas las personas que viven en la tierra. Traducción alterna: "Todas las personas en la tierra te adorarán"

ellos cantarán a Tu nombre Aquí "tu nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "te alabarán y honrarán"

Psalms 66:5

Él. ... Sus ... Él
Aquí todas estas palabras se refieren a Dios.

temible
''increíble''

hijos de la humanidad
''humanidad''

Él convirtió el mar en tierra seca; ellos atravesaron el río a pie
Esto se refiere al cruce del Mar Rojo. (Ver:| Assumed Knowledge y Implicit Information)

ellos atravesaron
La palabra "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Dios, los israelitas.

nos regocijamos
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a los israelitas, sus antepasados, David, y la gente con la que está hablando. (Ver:|Inclusive "We")

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus ojos observan
La frase "sus ojos" se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "él ve" (Ver:|Synecdoche) que los rebeldes no se exalten a sí mismos

"no se enaltecen los rebeldes" o "no se enorgullezcan los rebeldes"

Psalms 66:8

Bendigan a Dios, ... que se oiga el sonido de Su alabanza Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares. La idea se repite para enfatizar la importancia de alabar a Dios.

nuestros
En estos versículos, la palabra "nuestro" incluye a David y a las personas con las que está hablando.

no permite que nuestros pies resbalen
El escritor habla de la protección de Dios como evitar que su pueblo se resbale mientras caminan o caen por un acantilado. Traducción alterna: "no nos ha permitido caer en el desastre"

Psalms 66:10

nos metiste en una red
El escritor habla del castigo de Dios como si Dios hubiera capturado a su pueblo en una red.

una red una trampa para un pájaro o un animal

Tú pusiste una carga severa sobre nuestras cinturas
El escritor habla de lo que la gente ha soportado por tener que cargar cargas pesadas sobre sus espaldas.

Hiciste que gente cabalgara sobre nuestras cabezas Esta es una imagen de ser horriblemente derrotado en la batalla. Traducción alterna: "Es como si nuestros enemigos nos derrotaron en la batalla y luego condujeron sus carros sobre nuestros cuerpos caídos"

pasamos por fuego y agua Dios los probó con desastres naturales como incendios e inundaciones. Traducción alterna: "sufrimos como personas que sufren incendios e inundaciones"

lugar espacioso
El escritor habla de las bendiciones que el pueblo de Israel tiene ahora como si hubiera sido llevado a un espacio abierto donde están a salvo. Traducci ´´on alterno: "lugar abierto donde estamos a salvo"

Psalms 66:13

que mis labios prometieron Aquí "labios" y "boca" se refieren a las palabras de promesa que se pronunciaron. Traducción alterna: "que prometí" aroma dulce de machos

"olor a humo de carneros sacrificados"

Psalms 66:16

yo declararé lo que Él ha hecho por mi alma La palabra "alma" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Te diré lo que ha hecho por mí"

Yo clamé a Él con mi boca
La palabra "boca" representa a toda la persona que clama a Dios.

Él fue alabado con mi lengua Aquí "lengua" representa palabras o palabras. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Lo alabé con la lengua" o "lo alabé"

visto pecado
"Pecado amado" o "iniquidad sostenida"

no me habría escuchado
Aquí "no habría escuchado" implica que Dios no habría respondido a su oración. Esto se puede aclarar en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "no me habría escuchado llamarlo" o "no habría respondido a mi oración"

Psalms 66:19

Pero Dios ciertamente ha oído; Él ha prestado atención Estas dos cláusulas tienen significados similares y se usan juntas para enfatizar que Dios ha escuchado su oración. Traducción alterna: "Pero Dios realmente ha escuchado mi oración"

la voz de mi oración Aquí la oración del autor recibe la calidad personal de tener una voz. Traducción alterna: "mi oración"

ni ha apartado de mí Su misericordia Las palabras implícitas se pueden agregar a la traducción. Traducción alterna: "o apartó su fidelidad del pacto de mí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 67

1 Que Dios sea misericordioso con nosotros y nos bendiga y haga que Su rostro brille sobre nosotros, 2 de manera que Tus caminos sean conocidos en la tierra, Tu salvación entre todas las naciones. 3 Que Te alaben los pueblos, Dios; que todos los pueblos Te alaben. 4 Oh, que las naciones se alegren y canten con gozo, pues Tú juzgarás a los pueblos con justicia y gobernarás a las naciones en la tierra. 5 Que los pueblos Te alaben, Dios; que todos los pueblos Te alaben. 6 La tierra ha entregado su cosecha y Dios, nuestro Dios, nos ha bendecido. 7 Dios nos ha bendecido, y todos los confines de la tierra Le honran.

Psalms 67:1

Información general:
El paralalelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

que Su rostro brille sobre nosotros
El escritor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si el rostro de El SEÑOR los iluminara. Traducción alterna: "actuar favorablemente hacia nosotros"

Tus caminos sean conocidos en la tierra
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la gente puede conocer tus caminos en la tierra"

Tu salvación entre todas las naciones
El escritor desea que todos sepan que Dios tiene el poder de salvarlos. Esto se puede aclarar en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "y la gente de todas las naciones puede saber que tienes el poder de salvarlos"

Psalms 67:3

Que Te alaben los pueblos ... que todos los pueblos Te alaben La segunda cláusula intensifica el significado de la primera para enfatizar la importancia de alabar a Dios.

que las naciones ... gobernarás a las naciones Aquí "naciones" representa a las personas que viven en todas las naciones de la tierra. (Ver:

con justicia
''justamente''

Psalms 67:5

Que los pueblos Te alaben ... que todos los pueblos Te alaben
La segunda cláusula intensifica el significado de la primera para enfatizar lo importante que es alabar a Dios.

La tierra ha entregado su cosecha
Aquí el escritor habla de "la tierra" como si hubiera elegido proporcionar una cosecha a la gente. Traducción alterna: "Hemos cosechado una cosecha abundante de nuestros cultivos"

Psalms 67:7

todos los confines de la tierra Le honran Esto significa que las personas en todas partes deberían honrar a Dios debido a sus bendiciones. Traducción alterna: "Deseo que todas las personas en todo el mundo tengan un gran respeto por él" UDB

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 68

1 Que Dios se levante; que Sus enemigos sean dispersados; que también aquellos que Lo odian huyan de delante de Él. 2 Así como se esparce el humo, así sean esparcidos; así como se derrite la cera delante del fuego, así perezcan los malvados en la presencia de Dios. 3 Pero que los justos se alegren; que se regocijen delante de Dios; que se regocijen y estén alegres. 4 ¡Canten a Dios! Canten alabanzas a Su nombre! ¡Alaben a Aquel que cabalga a través de las llanuras del valle del Río Jordán! ¡Regocíjense delante de Él! 5 Un padre de huérfanos, un juez de las viudas, es Dios en el lugar santo donde Él vive. 6 Dios coloca a los solitarios en familias; Él saca a los prisioneros con cánticos; mas los rebeldes viven en tierra seca. 7 Dios, cuando Tú saliste frente a Tu pueblo, cuando marchaste por el desierto, 8 la tierra tembló; los cielos también dejaron caer lluvia en la presencia de Dios, en la presencia de Dios cuando Él vino a Sinaí, en la presencia de Dios, el Dios de Israel. 9 Tú, Dios, enviaste una lluvia abundante; Tú fortaleciste Tu heredad cuando estuvo cansada. 10 Tu pueblo vivió en ella; Tú, Dios, diste de Tu bondad a los pobres. 11 El Señor dio las órdenes, y aquellos que las anunciaron eran un gran ejército. 12 Los reyes de ejércitos huyen, ellos huyen, y las mujeres esperando en casa dividen el botín: palomas cubiertas de plata con alas de oro amarillo. 13 Cuando algunos de ustedes, pueblo, quedaron entre los rediles, ¿por qué hicieron esto? 14 El Todopoderoso dispersó a reyes allí, fue como cuando nevó en el Monte Salmón. 15 Una montaña poderosa es la tierra de colinas de Basán; una montaña alta es la tierra de colinas de Basán. 16 ¿Por qué miras con envidia, tú, tierra de colinas altas, a la montaña que Dios desea como el lugar donde vivir? Ciertamente, el SEÑOR vivirá en ella para siempre. 17 Los carros de Dios son veinte mil, miles sobre miles; el Señor está entre ellos en el lugar santo, como en el Sinaí. 18 Tú has ascendido a lo alto; Tú has conducido fuera a los cautivos; Tú has recibido presentes de entre los hombres, aún de aquellos que pelearon contra Ti, para que Tú, SEÑOR Dios, pudieras vivir allí. 19 Bendecido sea el Señor, quien a diario lleva nuestras cargas, el Dios que es nuestra salvación. 20 Nuestro Dios es un Dios que salva; el SEÑOR es el que puede rescatarnos de la muerte. 21 Pero Dios golpeará las cabezas de Sus enemigos, las cabezas peludas de aquellos que caminan en ofensas contra Él. 22 El Señor dijo: "Yo traeré de vuelta a Mis enemigos desde Basán; Yo los traeré de vuelta de las profundidades del mar 23 para que ustedes puedan aplastar a sus enemigos, mojando su pie en sangre, y para que las lenguas de sus perros puedan tener su porción de sus enemigos." 24 Ellos han visto Tus procesiones, Dios, las procesiones de mi Dios, mi Rey, entrando al lugar santo. 25 Los cantores fueron primero, los cantores siguieron luego, y en el medio estaban las jóvenes solteras tocando panderos. 26 Bendigan a Dios en la asamblea; alaben al SEÑOR, ustedes verdaderos descendientes de Israel. 27 Está primero Benjamín, la tribu más pequeña, luego los líderes de Judá y sus multitudes, los líderes de Zabulón y los líderes de Neftalí. 28 Tu Dios, Israel, ha decretado tu fortaleza; revela a nosotros Tu poder, Dios, como lo has revelado en tiempos pasados. 29 Revela Tu poder a nosotros desde Tu templo en Jerusalén, donde los reyes Te traen presentes. 30 Griten en batalla contra las bestias salvajes entre las cañas, contra los pueblos, esa multitud de toros y becerros. Humíllalos y hazlos traerte presentes; dispersa a los pueblos que aman hacer la guerra. 31 Príncipes saldrán de Egipto; Etiopía se apresurará para extender sus manos a Dios. 32 Canten a Dios, ustedes reinos de la tierra; Canten alabanzas al SEÑOR. 33 A Aquel que cabalga sobre los cielos de los cielos, que existen desde tiempos antiguos; ve, Él levanta Su voz con poder. 34 Atribuyan fuerza a Dios; Su majestad está sobre Israel, y Su fuerza está en los cielos. 35 Dios, Tú eres temible en Tu lugar santo; el Dios de Israel, Él da fuerza y poder a Su pueblo. Bendito sea Dios.

Psalms 68:1

Información general:
El paralalelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

Que Dios se levante
Se dice que Dios comienza a actuar como si se pusiera de pie. Traducción alterna: "Que Dios comience a actuar" que Sus enemigos sean dispersados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "deja que Dios ahuyente a sus enemigos"

Así como se esparce el humo, así sean esparcidos
Se habla de los enemigos de Dios como si fueran humo fácilmente arrastrado por el viento. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Alejarlos cuando el viento expulse humo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

así como se derrite la cera delante del fuego Se habla de los enemigos de Dios como si fueran cera que se derrite fácilmente con un fuego. Traducción alterna: "hacer que desaparezcan como la cera que se derrite delante de un incendio"

los malvados
Esto se refiere a las personas malvadas en general.

los justos
Esto se refiere a las personas justas en general.

regocijen y estén alegres
Esto significa lo mismo y enfatiza la cantidad de alegría que sienten.

Psalms 68:4

a Su nombre
Esto se refiere a Dios. Traducción alterna: "a él"

a Aquel que cabalga a través de las llanuras Se habla de la presencia de Dios entre las personas como si cabalgara sobre la tierra en un caballo o en un carro.

Un padre de huérfanos
Se habla de Dios como un Dios compasivo que actúa como un padre para los huérfanos. Traducción alterna: "Uno que actúa como un padre para los niños que no tienen padres"

un juez de las viudas
Se habla de Dios como un Dios misericordioso que protege a las viudas. Traducción alterna: "una protectora de las viudas"

Dios coloca a los solitarios en familias
Se habla de Dios como si colocara a las personas solitarias en familias. "Dios provee familias para aquellos que no tienen con quién vivir" (UDB)

Él saca a los prisioneros con cánticos
Se habla de Dios como el que saca a los prisioneros de su encierro. Traducción alterna: "Dios libera a los prisioneros y los hace cantar con felicidad"

los rebeldes
Esto se refiere a las personas rebeldes. La palabra abstracta "rebelde" puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción alterna: "los que se rebelan contra él"

tierra seca
Se habla del castigo de Dios a los rebeldes como si los obligara a vivir en una tierra desértica caliente. Traducción alterna: "una tierra muy cálida y seca" (UDB)

Psalms 68:7

Información general:
David empieza a contar la historia de Dios guíando a los Israelitas através del desierto hasta el monte sinaí cuando Tú saliste ... cuando marchaste por Estas dos frases se refieren al mismo evento.

Tú saliste frente a Tu pueblo
"guiaste a tu gente"

cuando marchaste por el desierto
Se habla de Dios como si fuera un soldado marchando por delante del pueblo de Israel.

los cielos también dejaron caer lluvia ... presencia de Dios
"Dios hizo que lloviera"

en la presencia de Dios
Esta expresión idiomática aquí se refiere a la aparición de Dios ante los israelitas. Traducción alterna: "cuando Dios se apareció a los israelitas"

Psalms 68:9

Tú fortaleciste Tu heredad cuando estuvo cansada
Se habla de la tierra que Dios dio a los israelitas como si fuera una herencia que un padre transmitió a sus hijos. Traducción alterna: "la tierra que nos diste a los israelitas"

Tu heredad
Se habla de la tierra que Dios dio a los israelitas como si fuera una herencia que un padre transmitió a sus hijos. Traducción alterna: "la tierra que nos diste a los israelitas"

los pobres
Esto se refiere a la gente pobre en general. Traducción alterna: "gente pobre"

Psalms 68:11

Información general:
David continúa la historia del viaje de los israelitas a través del desierto. En esta parte de la historia, los israelitas son victoriosos en la guerra sobre sus enemigos.

aquellos que las anunciaron ... ejército
La gran cantidad de personas dijo el mensaje del Señor a los demás. Se habla de ellos como si hubiera un gran ejército. Como esta frase es femenina, algunas versiones la traducen como "las mujeres que las anunciaron ... ejército".

Los reyes de ejércitos ... ¿por qué hicieron esto?
La información en 68:11 se ha reorganizado para que su significado se pueda entender más fácilmente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

reyes de ejércitos huyen, ellos huyen
Los reyes representan a todos sus ejércitos. Se entiende que huyen porque son derrotados por el ejército de Israel. Traducción alterna: "Los reyes y sus ejércitos huyen de nosotros porque son derrotados"

botín
cosas que se toman del ejército derrotado y se llevan a la casa del ejército victorioso.

palomas cubiertas de plata ... oro
Esto significa que parte del saqueo es muy valioso porque está cubierto de metales preciosos.

Cuando algunos de ustedes, pueblo, quedaron entre los rediles, ¿por qué hicieron esto?
Esta pregunta se usa para reprender a las personas que no participaron en la batalla. Traducción alterna: "Los que se quedaron entre los rediles no deberían haberse quedado; deberían haber ido a la batalla".

Psalms 68:14

dispersó a reyes allí, ... nevó en el Monte Salmón Había tantos reyes y soldados muertos en la montaña que se habla de ellos como si fueran nieve cubriendo la montaña. Traducción alterna: "derrotó a tantos reyes y soldados enemigos que eran como copos de nieve cubriendo el monte Salmón"

dispersó a reyes
Aquí "reyes" se refiere también a sus ejércitos. Traducción alterna: "dispersó a los reyes enemigos y sus ejércitos"

Monte Salmón
Este es el nombre de una montaña.

Una montaña poderosa es la ... una montaña alta es la Estas dos frases tienen significados similares y se usan juntas para fortalecerse mutuamente. Traducción alterna: "una montaña poderosa y alta es la región montañosa de Bashan"

¿Por qué miras con envidia ... como el lugar donde vivir?
Esta pregunta se puede escribir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "La región montañosa de Bashan no debería mirar con envidia la montaña que Dios desea para el lugar donde vivirá".

Psalms 68:17

veinte mil, miles sobre miles Probablemente no se trate de un número exacto, sino de indicar un número grande. Traducción alterna: "muchos miles"

ascendido
"Ascender" es subir, ir hacia el cielo.

Psalms 68:19

diario lleva nuestras cargas
"lleva nuestras cargas pesadas todos los días". Se habla del cuidado del Señor por su pueblo como si él estuviera físicamente llevando sus problemas como una carga.

el Dios que es nuestra salvación ... Nuestro Dios es un Dios que salva Estas frases significan lo mismo. Aquí "es nuestra salvación" se puede traducir con el verbo "guardar". Traducción alterna: "el Dios que nos salva ... Nuestro Dios es un Dios que nos salva"

golpeará las cabezas de Sus enemigos Se habla de Dios como un guerrero que matará a sus enemigos golpeándolos en la cabeza para matarlos. Traducción alterna: "matará a sus enemigos golpeándolos en la cabeza"

las cabezas peludas Parece que los soldados tenían la costumbre de no cortarse el pelo durante la guerra. Traducción alterna: "los cráneos de pelo largo" caminan en ofensas contra Él.

Ofender a Dios se dice que camina entre las ofensas. Traducción alterna: "lo ofende habitualmente"

Psalms 68:22

Yo traeré de vuelta se refiera a los enemigos de Dios

las profundidades del mar
Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a las partes más remotas de la tierra donde las personas intentan escapar de Dios.

aplastar a sus enemigos
Se habla de la total destrucción de los enemigos de Israel como si los Israelitas los hubieran aplastado con sus pies. Traducción alterna: ''Derrotar totalmente a sus enemigos''

mojando su pie en sangre
Se habla de la violencia de la destrucción de los enemigos en forma muy gráfica, como si los israelitas estuvieran de pie en la sangre de sus enemigos muertos. Traducción alterna: "pisándole la sangre" las lenguas de sus perros puedan tener su porción se habla del derramamiento de sangre de la batalla encontra de los enemigos de Israel como si este fuera tan extenso que los perros lamerían con su lengua la sangre que fluye.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 68:24

procesiones
Una procesión es un grupo de personas caminando juntas en una forma ordenada como parte de una ceremonia.

cantores
Personas que ejecutan instrumentos músicales

Psalms 68:26

Bendigan a Dios en la asamblea; alaben al SEÑOR, Puede ser de ayuda cambiar el orden de estas frases. Traducción alterna: ''Ustedes verdaderos descendientes de Israel, alaben al SEÑOR y bendigan a Dios en la asamblea'' sus multitudes

''su grupo'' la palabra ''sus'' se refiere a los líderes de Judá

Psalms 68:28

Tu Dios, Israel, ha decretado tu fortaleza Algunas versiones entienden el texto hebreo diferente: ''Invoca (o usa) tu fuerza, Dios"

Tu Dios, Israel, ha decretado
''pueblo de Israel, su Dios ha decretado.''

a nosotros
la palabra ''nosotros'' se refiere a las personas a las que David esta hablando y él mismo.

Revela Tu poder a nosotros desde Tu templo en Jerusalén
''Cuando estes presente en el templo de Jerusalén, muéstranos tu poder''

Revela Tu poder
el sustantivo abstracto ''poder'' puede ser expresado como una acción. Traducción alterna: ''Muestranos que tu eres poderoso''

Psalms 68:30

las bestias salvajes entre las cañas Muchos estudiosos creen que estas bestias salvajes son una metáfora que se refiere al pueblo de Egipto. Esto puede hacerse explícito. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Egipto que son como bestias salvajes en los juncos"

los pueblos, esa multitud de toros y becerros Se habla de los pueblos de otras naciones como si fueran un gran grupo de ganado. Traducción alterna: "las naciones poderosas, que son como manadas de toros"

dispersa
dispersarse o hacer que algo se extienda rápidamente en diferentes direcciones.

Príncipes saldrán de Egipto
Está implícito que estos príncipes vienen de Egipto para ofrecer regalos a Dios en Jerusalén. Traducción alterna: "Entonces los líderes de Egipto te traerán regalos"

Etiopía
Esto se refiere a la gente de Etiopía. Traducción alterna: "Los etíopes" para extender sus manos a Dios Esta es una acción simbólica que representa alabar a Dios. Traducción alterna: ''Levantar sus manos para adorar a Dios''

Psalms 68:32

reinos de la tierra
Aquí "reinos" se refiere a los ciudadanos de los reinos. Traducción alterna: "ustedes, ciudadanos de reinos de todo el mundo"

A Aquel que cabalga sobre los cielos de los cielos
La palabra "cantar" está implícita como el comienzo de este versículo. Aquí se describe a Dios como si viajara en un carro en el cielo. Traducción alterna: "Cante a Dios que cruza el cielo en su carro"

Él levanta Su voz con poder
Esta expresión idiomática significa que habla con fuerza. Traducción alteran: "grita con fuerza" o "habla en voz alta"

Psalms 68:34

Atribuyan fuerza a Dios
"Asignar" significa dar crédito a alguien. Traducción alterna: "La fuerza le pertenece a Dios"

Su fuerza está en los cielos
El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción alterna: "en los cielos también muestra que es poderoso"

Dios, Tú eres temible en Tu lugar santo Aquí el autor habla directamente a Dios.

fuerza y poder
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo. Enfatizan cuánta fuerza Dios proporciona a su pueblo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 69

1 Sálvame, Dios; porque las aguas han puesto mi vida en peligro. 2 Me hundo en pantano profundo, donde no hay lugar para estar de pie; he llegado a aguas profundas, donde las inundaciones fluyen sobre mí. 3 Estoy cansado de mi llanto; mi garganta está seca; mis ojos me fallan mientras yo espero por mi Dios. 4 Aquellos que me odian sin una causa son más que los cabellos sobre mi cabeza; aquellos que me cortarían, siendo mis enemigos por razones equivocadas, son poderosos; lo que no robé, me hacen devolver. 5 Dios, Tú conoces mi necedad, y mis pecados no están escondidos de Ti. 6 Que aquellos que esperan por Ti no sean avergonzados por mi causa, SEÑOR de los Ejércitos; que aquellos que Te buscan no sean traídos a la deshonra por causa mía, Dios de Israel. 7 Por Tu causa he sufrido insultos; la vergüenza ha cubierto mi rostro. 8 He llegado a ser un extraño para mis hermanos, un ajeno para los hijos de mi madre. 9 Pues el celo de Tu casa me comió, y las reprensiones de los que Te reprenden han caído sobre mí. 10 Cuando lloré y no comí alimentos, ellos me insultaron. 11 Cuando hice del cilicio mi ropa, me convertí en el objeto de un proverbio para ellos. 12 Aquellos que se sientan en la puerta de la ciudad hablan de mí; yo soy una canción de borrachos. 13 Pero en cuanto a mí, mi oración es para Ti, SEÑOR, en un tiempo que Tú aceptarás; contéstame en la confianza de Tu salvación. 14 Sácame del pantano, y no me dejes hundir; déjame alejarme de aquéllos que me odian y ser rescatado de las aguas profundas. 15 No permitas que las inundaciones de aguas me cubran, ni tampoco permitas que la profundidad me trague. No dejes que el abismo me encierre en su boca. 16 Respóndeme, SEÑOR, porque Tu pacto de fidelidad es bueno; porque Tus misericordias para mí son muchas, vuélvete a mí. 17 No escondas Tu rostro de Tu siervo, pues estoy en aflicción; respóndeme rápido. 18 Ven a mí y redímeme. Por causa de mis enemigos, rescátame. 19 Tú conoces mi reprensión, mi vergüenza, y mi deshonra; mis adversarios están todos delante de Ti. 20 La reprensión ha roto mi corazón; estoy lleno de pesadez; yo busqué a alguien que se compadeciera de mí, pero no había ninguno; busqué consoladores, pero no encontré a ninguno. 21 Ellos me dieron veneno como alimento; en mi sed ellos me dieron a beber vinagre. 22 Que su mesa delante de ellos se convierta en trampa; cuando piensen que están seguros, que les sea una trampa. 23 Que sus ojos sean oscurecidos para que no puedan ver; y haz siempre que sus lomos tiemblen. 24 Derrama Tu indignación sobre ellos, y deja que la intensidad de Tu ira les alcance. 25 Que su lugar sea una desolación; que nadie viva en sus tiendas. 26 Pues ellos persiguieron al que Tú derribaste. Ellos volvieron a contar la historia de dolor de aquellos que Tú heriste. 27 Acúsalos de haber cometido iniquidad tras iniquidad; no permitas que entren en Tu justa victoria. 28 Deja que sean borrados del Libro de la Vida y que no sean escritos junto a los justos. 29 Pero yo soy pobre y afligido; deja que Tu salvación, Dios, me ponga en alto. 30 Yo alabaré el nombre de Dios con una canción y Lo exaltaré con acción de gracias. 31 Eso agradará al SEÑOR mejor que el sacrificio de un buey o un toro que tiene cuernos y pezuñas. 32 Los mansos lo han visto y están alegres; ustedes que buscan a Dios, dejen que sus corazones vivan. 33 Pues el SEÑOR oye a los necesitados y no desprecia a Sus prisioneros. 34 Que el cielo y la tierra Lo alaben, los mares y todo lo que se mueve dentro de ellos. 35 Porque Dios salvará a Sion y reconstruirá las ciudades de Judá; el pueblo vivirá allí y lo tendrán como posesión. 36 Los descendientes de Sus siervos lo heredarán, y aquellos que aman Su nombre vivirán allí.

Psalms 69:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Información general:
Este salmo es una oración por ayuda.

porque las aguas han puesto mi vida en peligro
El escritor describe los problemas en su vida como si se estuviera ahogando en una inundación de agua. Traducción alterna: "porque parece que me estoy ahogando en las aguas"

Me hundo en pantano profundo
El escritor describe los problemas en su vida como si se estuviera hundiendo en el lodo profundo. Traducción alterna: "Porque parece que me estoy hundiendo en el lodo profundo y moriré"

pantano barro espeso

no hay lugar para estar de pie
El escritor usa una declaración negativa para enfatizar cuán inestable e incierta es su condición.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

he llegado a aguas profundas, donde las inundaciones fluyen sobre mí.
El escritor describe sus problemas como si se estuviera ahogando en un río profundo y furioso. Traducción alterna: "Se siente como si estuviera en aguas profundas, y las aguas de la inundación fluyen sobre mí"

Psalms 69:3

cansado muy agotado

mis ojos me fallan
Esta expresión idomática significa que el escritor ha llorado tanto que sus ojos ya no ven bien. Traducción alterna: "mis ojos están hinchados por las lágrimas"

más que los cabellos sobre mi cabeza Esto es una exageración para expresar cuántos enemigos tiene el escritor. Traducción alterna: "más de lo que puedo contar, como los pelos de mi cabeza"

me cortarían
Esta expresión idiomática siginifica ''mátenme''

Psalms 69:5

mi necedad
El sustantivo abstracto "necedad" se puede expresar como una acción. Traducción alterna: "las tonterías que he hecho"

mis pecados no están escondidos de Ti Esto puede ser expresado en una declaración afirmativa. Traducción alterna: ''tú conoces todos mis pecados.'' aquellos que esperan por Ti no sean avergonzados ... aquellos que Te buscan no sean traídos a la deshonra Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan el deseo del escritor de que Dios proteja a su pueblo.

Que aquellos que esperan por Ti no sean avergonzados por mi Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, no avergüences por mí a los que te esperan"

no sean
''no dejes que ellos''

que aquellos que Te buscan no sean traídos a la deshonra por causa mía Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, no traigas deshonra por mí sobre aquellos que te buscan"

que aquellos que Te buscan Buscar a Dios representa 1) pedirle ayuda a Dios o 2) pensar en Dios y obedecerlo. Traducción alterna: 1) "los que te piden ayuda" o 2) "los que te alaban y te obedecen"

Psalms 69:7

Por Tu causa
''en tu nombre'' o ''por ti''

he sufrido insultos
Se habla de las reprensiones de los enemigos del escritor como si fueran una carga pesada que tuvo que cargar. Traducción alterna: "He soportado los insultos de mis enemigos"

la vergüenza ha cubierto mi rostro
El escritor habla de la vergüenza que siente como si fuera una cosa sucia que todos puedan ver claramente. Traducción alterna: "Estoy completamente humillado"

He llegado a ser un extraño para mis hermanos
El escritor habla de la vergüenza que siente como si fuera una cosa sucia que todos puedan ver claramente. Traducción alterna: "Estoy completamente humillado"

He llegado a ser un extraño para mis hermanos ... un ajeno para los hijos de mi madre Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Se repiten para enfatizar la separación de su propia familia.

un ajeno para los hijos de mi madre
Es implícito que "me he convertido" debe entenderse aquí. El escritor habla de sí mismo como si no fuera parte de su propia familia. Traducción alterna: "mis hermanos ya no me conocen ni confían en mí"

Pues el celo de Tu casa me comió
El escritor habla de su celo por el templo de Dios como si fuera un animal salvaje que devora al escritor. Traducción alterna: "el celo que tengo por tu casa me consume"

me comió
Este modismo significa que el celo del escritor por el templo se hace cargo de todos sus pensamientos y acciones. Traducción alterna: "controla completamente todo lo que pienso y hago" las reprensiones ... han caído sobre mí.

El escritor habla de las reprensiones de los enemigos de los dioses como si fueran rocas que fueron arrojadas al escritor. Traducción alterna: "los que te reprenden también me han reprendido"

Psalms 69:10

Cuando lloré y no comí alimentos
El hecho de que el escritor estuviera ayunando indica que estaba triste por la forma en que las personas trataban el templo de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos me insultaron
''mis enemigos me insultan a causa de esto''

Cuando hice del cilicio mi ropa
Usar ropa áspera y barata era un símbolo de luto por el pecado.

me convertí en el objeto de un proverbio
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera la persona triste o tonta en un proverbio. Traducción alterna: "Me convertí en el ejemplo de una persona triste de la que se habla en sus proverbios" o "se ríen de mí"

Aquellos que se sientan en la puerta de la ciudad Aquí la "puerta de la ciudad" está asociada con el liderazgo de una ciudad. Traducción alterna: "Las personas importantes de la ciudad"

yo soy una canción de borrachos
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera la persona sobre quien los borrachos cantan canciones burlonas. Traducción alterna: "los borrachos de la ciudad cantan canciones repugnantes sobre mí"

Psalms 69:13

en un tiempo que Tú aceptarás
"en su tiempo aceptado" o "cuando esté dispuesto"

contéstame en la confianza de Tu salvación
Los sustantivos abstractos "confiabilidad" y "salvación" pueden ser expresados como acciones. Traducción alterna: "rescátame porque me amas fielmente, como prometiste hacer"

Sácame ... no me dejes hundir
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo.

Sácame del pantano, y no me dejes hundir
El escritor habla de su peligro por parte de sus enemigos como si se estuviera hundiendo en un pozo de lodo. "No permitas que me hunda más en el barro"

déjame alejarme
Aquí "alejar" se refiere a ser eliminado del peligro. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "llévame" o "rescátame"

ser rescatado
Se entiende que "déjame ser" está implícito aquí. Se puede indicar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "por favor rescátame"

las aguas profundas ... inundaciones de aguas ... profundidad Estas frases significan la misma cosa.

rescatado de las aguas profundas
El escritor habla de su peligro por parte de sus enemigos como si se estuviera ahogando en aguas profundas.

las inundaciones de aguas me cubran
El escritor habla sobre el peligro de sus enemigos como si las aguas de la inundación lo cubrieran por completo.

la profundidad me trague.
El escritor habla de las profundidades como si fuera un animal mortal que estaba a punto de comerlo. Traducción alterna: "las aguas profundas me tragan como un animal peligroso"

No dejes que el abismo me encierre en su boca
Aquí se habla del "pozo" como si tuviera la boca como una persona y pudiera comer al escritor. Traducción alterna: "No dejes que el pozo me consuma" o "No dejes que el pozo de la muerte se cierre sobre mí"

Psalms 69:16

Tu pacto de fidelidad es bueno
El término abstracto ''pacto de fidelidad'' puede ser expresado como una acción. Traducción alterna: ''Tú eres bueno y me amas fielmente''

Tus misericordias para mí son muchas
''tú eres muy misericordioso conmigo''

vuélvete a mí
La idea de volverse a alguien significa prestarles atención o ayudarlos. Traducción alterna: ''ayudame''

No escondas Tu rostro de Tu siervo Ocultar la cara significa negarse a escuchar o ayudar a alguien. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, ayuda a tu servidor" o "Por favor, ayúdame"

en aflicción
''en grandes problemas'' (UDB)

Psalms 69:18

redímeme
El escritor le pide a Dios que lo redima como si fuera un esclavo cuya libertad Dios podría comprar. Traducción alterna: "libérame"

rescátame
El escritor le pide a Dios que lo rescate como si fuera un cautivo cuya liberación podría pagarse con dinero. Traducción alterna: "rescátame"

mi reprensión, mi vergüenza, y mi deshonra Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden ser expresados como acciones. Traducción alterna: ''Cómo la gente me ha reprendido, avergonzado y deshonrado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mis adversarios están todos delante de Ti Aquí ''delante de ti'' significa que Dios ve y conoce todo de ellos. Traducción alterna: ''sabes quiénes son todos mis enemigos''

Psalms 69:20

ha roto mi corazón
Esta expresión idiomática significa que una persona está extremadamente triste. Traducción alterna: "me ofendió profundamente"

estoy lleno de pesadez
Se habla de la gran tristeza del escritor como si estuviera lleno de un gran peso. Traducción alterna: "Estoy lleno de tristeza" que se compadeciera sentir pena o tristeza.

Ellos me dieron veneno como alimento
Esto es probablemente figurativo. La comida que la gente le daba al escritor era tan mala que sabía a veneno. Traducción alterna: "Me dieron comida que sabía a veneno" (UDB)

Psalms 69:22

Que su mesa delante de ellos se convierta en trampa ... que les sea una trampa
Al escritor le gustaría que la comida de sus enemigos los arruinara por completo como si fueran pequeños animales atrapados en una trampa. Traducción alterna: "Que su comida los arruine como una trampa ... que los destruya como una trampa"

su mesa
Esto se refiere a la comida que se sirvió en las mesas, posiblemente en una fiesta. Traducción alterna: "su propia comida"

Que sus ojos sean oscurecidos
El escritor habla de ojos que no pueden ver bien como si estuvieran oscurecidos. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, haz que no puedan ver nada" que sus lomos tiemblen

Se habla de lomos o espaldas débiles como si estuvieran temblando de debilidad. Traducción alterna: "haz que sus espaldas sean demasiado débiles para poder hacer algo"

sus lomos
"sus costados" o "sus espaldas"

Psalms 69:24

Derrama Tu indignación sobre ellos
La demostración de la ira de Dios se describe como si la hubiera derramado sobre sus enemigos como el agua.

indignación
''ira'' o ''enfado''

la intensidad de Tu ira
"tu ira ardiente" o "tu ira fuerte"

les alcance
El juicio de Dios sobre sus enemigos se describe como si corriera tras ellos y los atrapara.

sea una desolación
Este sustantivo abstracto puede expresarse como una acción. Traducción alterna: "convertirse en abandonado"

Psalms 69:26

ellos persiguieron al que
''ellos persiguieron al hombre''

Tú derribaste
Aquí "ser derribado" se refiere al castigo. Traducción alterna: "castigaste"

aquellos que Tú heriste Aquí ser "herido" se refiere a causarles sufrimiento. Traducción alterna: "los que has causado sufrir"

Acúsalos de haber cometido iniquidad tras iniquidad
"Sigue haciendo un registro de todos sus pecados" (UDB)

iniquidad tras iniquidad
''muchos pecados''

no permitas que entren en Tu justa victoria Entrar en la victoria de Dios es una expresión idiomática que significa recibir una recompensa de él. Traducción alterna: "no dejes que reciban tu justa recompensa"

Psalms 69:28

Deja que sean borrados del
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los nombres de los enemigos. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Limpie sus nombres en"

no sean escritos
Se infiere que se entiende "dejarlos". Esto puede ser expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no escriba sus nombres"

deja que Tu salvación, Dios, me ponga en alto El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar con el verbo "guardar". Aquí "en lo alto" se refiere a un lugar seguro.''. Traducción alterna:" Dios, sálvame y ponme en un lugar seguro "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 69:30

el nombre de Dios
Aquí "nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "Dios"

con acción de gracias
Este sustantivo abstracto puede expresarse con el verbo "agradecer". Traducción alterna: "agradeciéndole" mejor que el sacrificio de un buey o un toro Se entiende que el buey y el toro deben ser ofrecidos a Dios como sacrificios. Traducción alterna: "mejor que sacrificar un buey o sacrificar un toro"

un toro que tiene cuernos y pezuñas
Esta frase distingue a los toros adultos de otras vacas más jóvenes. Traducción alterna: "un toro adulto con cuernos y pezuñas"

Psalms 69:32

Los mansos
Esto se refiere a las personas mansas en general. Traducción alterna: "Gente mansa"

ustedes que buscan a Dios Buscar a Dios representa 1) pedirle ayuda a Dios o 2) pensar en Dios y obedecerlo. Traducción alterna: "ustedes que le piden ayuda a Dios" o "ustedes que piensan en Dios"

dejen que sus corazones vivan Aquí los "corazones" se refieren a las personas. Aquí "vivir" es una expresión idiomática que significa ser alentado. Traducción alterna: "que sean alentados"

el SEÑOR oye
Aquí "oye" significa responder. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR responde"

los necesitados
Esto se refiere a personas necesitadas en general. Traducción alterna: "gente necesitada"

Sus prisioneros
''aquellos que han sufrido por él'' (UDB)

Psalms 69:34

Que el cielo y la tierra Lo alaben ... los mares
Se habla del cielo y tierra y mares como si estos fueran personas capaces de alabar a Dios.

los mares y todo lo que se mueve dentro de ellos Está implícito que "Que... lo alaben" debe entenderse aquí. Traducción alterna: "deja que mares y todo lo que se mueve en ellos lo alaben"

Dios salvará a Sion
Aquí "Sión" se refiere a las personas en Sión. Traducción alterna: "Dios salvará al pueblo de Sión"

lo tendrán como posesión
Aquí ''lo'' se refiere a la tierra de Judá.

que aman Su nombre Aquí "nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "que aman a Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 70

1 ¡Sálvame, Dios! SEÑOR, ven pronto y ayúdame. 2 Que aquellos que tratan de quitarme la vida sean avergonzados y humillados; que los devuelvan y sean llevados a deshonra, aquellos que se complacen en mi dolor. 3 Que sean vueltos atrás por causa de su vergüenza, aquellos que dicen: "¡Ajá, ajá!" 4 Que todos aquellos que Te buscan se regocijen y estén alegres en Ti; que aquellos que aman Tu salvación siempre digan: "Alabado sea Dios." 5 Pero yo soy pobre y necesitado; apresúrate hacia mí, Dios; Tú eres mi ayuda y Tú me rescatas. SEÑOR, no tardes.

Psalms 70:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

aquellos que
''las personas que''

quitarme la vida
Esta expresión idiomática significa ''matame''

sean avergonzados y humillados Estos puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que Dios los avergüence y les traiga vergüenza" que los devuelvan y sean llevados a deshonra Estos puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que Dios les dé la vuelta y los avergüence por lo que han hecho"

los devuelvan
Se dice que ser detenido o frustrado es rechazado de su ataque. Traducción alterna: "parado"

aquellos que dicen: "¡Ajá, ajá!"
Esta es una expresión de risa burlona. Puedes reemplazar "Aha, aha" con cualquier risa que suene en tu idioma. Traducción alterna: "los que se burlan y se ríen de mí"

Psalms 70:4

Te buscan Buscar a Dios representa 1) pedirle ayuda a Dios o 2) pensar en Dios y obedecerlo. Traducción alterna: "pedirte ayuda" o "piensan en ti y te obedecen"

regocijen y estén alegres
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad de la alegría. Traducción alterna: "regocíjate mucho" o "alégrate mucho" que aman Tu salvación

El sustantivo abstracto ''salvación'' puede ser expresado en una acción. Traducción alterna: ''te aman porque tu los has salvado''

siempre digan
Esta es una exageración para enfatizar la importancia de alabar a Dios constantemente.

Alabado sea Dios
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Que todos alaben a Dios''

pobre y necesitado
Aquí las palabras ''pobre'' y ''necesitado'' significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan que él es incapaz de ayudarse a sí mismo. Traducción alterna: ''muy necesitado''

apresúrate hacia mí
El escritor habla de Dios como si él estuviera corriendo hacia el escritor para poder ayudarlo. Traducción alterna: ''¡Ven rápido a ayudarme!'' (UDB)

Tú eres mi ayuda y Tú me rescatas Aquí la frase "me rescatas" explica cómo Dios es su "ayuda". Traducción alterna: "me ayudas al rescatarme"

no tardes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''por favor ven rápido''

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 71

1 En Ti, SEÑOR, me refugio; jamás me dejes ser avergonzado. 2 Rescátame y hazme estar seguro en Tu justicia; inclina a mí Tu oído y sálvame. 3 Sé para mí una roca de refugio a donde yo pueda siempre ir; Tú has dado una orden para salvarme, porque Tú eres mi roca y mi fortaleza. 4 Rescátame, mi Dios, de la mano de los malvados, de la mano de los injustos y crueles. 5 Pues Tú eres mi esperanza, SEÑOR. Yo he confiado en Ti desde que fui niño. 6 Por Ti he sido sostenido desde el vientre; Tú eres Aquel que me sacó del vientre de mi madre; mi alabanza será siempre acerca de Ti. 7 Yo soy un ejemplo para mucha gente; Tú eres mi refugio fuerte. 8 Mi boca será llena de Tu alabanza, todo el día con Tu honor. 9 No me alejes en mi tiempo de vejez; no me abandones cuando mi fuerza falle. 10 Porque mis enemigos están hablando de mí; aquellos que vigilan mi vida están conspirando juntos. 11 Ellos dicen: "Dios lo ha abandonado; persíganlo y tómenlo, porque no hay ninguno que lo salve." 12 Dios, no estés lejos de mí; mi Dios, apresúrate a ayudarme. 13 Que sean avergonzados y destruídos aquellos que son hostiles hacia mi vida; que sean cubiertos de reprensión y deshonra aquellos que buscan lastimarme. 14 Pero yo siempre esperaré en Ti y Te alabaré más y más. 15 Mi boca contará acerca de Tu justicia y Tu salvación todo el día, aunque yo no pueda entenderlo. 16 Yo vendré con las obras poderosas del SEÑOR; yo haré mención de Tu justicia, solo la Tuya. 17 Dios, Tú me has enseñado desde mi juventud; aún ahora yo declaro Tus obras maravillosas. 18 Ciertamente, aún cuando yo sea viejo y lleno de canas, Dios, no me abandones, ya que yo he estado declarando Tu fuerza a la próxima generación, Tu poder a todo el que ha de venir. 19 Tu justicia también, Dios, es muy alta; Tú que has hecho grandes cosas, Dios, ¿quién es como Tú? 20 Tú, que nos has mostrado muchas dificultades severas, nos resucitarás otra vez y nos levantarás de las profundidades de la tierra. 21 Aumenta mi honor; vuelve y consuélame. 22 Yo también Te daré las gracias con el arpa por Tu confiabilidad, mi Dios; a Ti yo cantaré alabanzas con el arpa, Santo de Israel. 23 Mis labios gritarán de gozo cuando yo cante alabanzas a Ti, aún mi alma, la cual Tú has redimido. 24 Mi lengua también hablará acerca de Tu justicia todo el día; pues han sido avergonzados y están confundidos aquellos que buscaban mi sufrimiento.

Psalms 71:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Información general:
Este salmo es un oración por ayuda.

En Ti, SEÑOR, me refugio
Se dice que ir al SEÑOR para protegerse es refugiarse en él. Traducción alterna: "iré a ti, SEÑOR, para protección"

jamás me dejes ser avergonzado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nunca dejes que mis enemigos me avergüencen" Mira cómo "no dejes que me humillen" se traduce en 25: 1.

hazme estar seguro en Tu justicia Los significados posibles son 1) "mantenme seguro porque siempre haces lo correcto" o 2) "mantenme seguro como hago lo que quieres que haga"

inclina a mí Tu oído
Aquí "tu oído" se refiere a la voluntad de Dios de escuchar a alguien que le reza. Traducción alterna: "presta atención a mí". Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 17: 6

Sé para mí una roca de refugio
El salmista le pide al SEÑOR que lo haga tan seguro como lo estaría si estuviera escondido en una gran roca o acantilado donde sus enemigos no pudieran encontrarlo.

roca ... roca
Estas son colinas y montañas, no rocas que una persona pueda sostener en su mano

salvarme
''mantenerme a salvo''

eres mi roca y mi fortaleza
El salmista cree que El SEÑOR lo protegerá y lo hará tan seguro como si estuviera escondido en la cima de una gran montaña o dentro de una fortaleza hecha por el hombre.

Psalms 71:4

de la mano de los malvados, de la mano de los injustos y crueles Los posibles significados son 1) la palabra "mano" es una metonimia para el poder. Traducción alterna: "del poder del impío, del poder del injusto" o 2) "mano" se refiere a la persona misma. Traducción alterna: "de personas malvadas, de personas injustas ..." o "para que las personas

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

malvadas e injustas ... las personas no puedan hacerme daño" malvados, de la mano de los injustos

"malvados; rescátame de la mano de los injustos". Puede aclarar la información entendida.

malvados ... injustos ... crueles
Estos adjetivos pueden ser traducidos como frases de sustantivos. Traducción alterna: ''personas malvadas ... personas injustas ... personas crueles''

Tú eres mi esperanza
Aquí "esperanza" es una metonimia para aquel en quien el salmista espera. Traducción alterna: "usted es quien espero con confianza que me ayude" (UDB)

Psalms 71:6

Por Ti he sido sostenido desde el vientre
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''tú me haz sostenido desde el vientre'' o ''tú que me has cuidado desde que salí del vientre de mi madre''

Tú eres Aquel
''tu eres el que''

Yo soy un ejemplo para mucha gente
''Muchas personas ven como vivo y quieren vivir como yo lo hago''

Psalms 71:8

Mi boca será llena de Tu alabanza ... con Tu honor
El salmista habla de su deseo de alabar y honrar al SEÑOR con las palabras que habla como si su boca estuviera llena de palabras de la misma manera que puede estar lleno de comida. TRaducción alterna: "Mi boca se llenará de palabras que te alaben ... que te honren" o "Siempre te alabaré ... siempre te honraré"

Tu alabanza
"Palabras que dicen a las personas cuan grande eres tú"

Tu honor
"palabras que hacen que la gente te honre"

todo el día
"todo el día" o "en todo momento"

No me alejes en mi tiempo de vejez; no me abandones
Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar.

No me alejes
"No me obligues a alejarme de ti". Se dice que Dios lo rechaza como Dios obligándolo a irse. Traducción alterna: "no me rechaces"

no me abandones
''no me dejes para siempre''

Psalms 71:10

vigilan mi vida
''ellos están esperando la oportunidad de matarme''

Ellos dicen
''ellos dicen de mi''

persíganlo y tómenlo
''siganlo cuando el huya, y matenlo''

Psalms 71:12

no estés lejos de mí
''mantente cerca de mi''

apresúrate a ayudarme
''ayúdame pronto''

Que sean avergonzados y destruídos aquellos que son hostiles hacia mi vida
''deja que aquellos que son hostiles hacia mi vida sean puestos bajo vergüenza y sean destruídos.''

Que sean avergonzados y destruídos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ponlos en vergüenza y destrúyelos" .

aquellos que son hostiles hacia mi vida
''aquellos que me acusan de hacer algo incorrecto'' que sean cubiertos de reprensión y deshonra aquellos que buscan lastimarme

''deja que aquellos que buscan lastimarme sean cubiertos con reprensión y deshonra''

que sean cubiertos de reprensión y deshonra Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cúbrelos con reprensión y deshonra". Los sustantivos pueden expresarse como verbos. Traducción alterna: "que todos los reprendan y que nadie los honre"

aquellos que buscan lastimarme
''aquellos que buscan fromas de lastimarme''

Psalms 71:14

más y más
"más todo el tiempo" o "siempre más que antes"

Mi boca contará
La boca es sinécdoque para toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Lo diré" o "Hablaré con mi boca y lo diré"

Tu justicia
"cuán justo eres" o "todas las cosas buenas que haces"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tu salvación
"cómo me has salvado" o "cómo has salvado a la gente"

aunque
''incluso aunque''

Yo vendré
Los significados posibles son 1) "Iré a donde la gente adora al SEÑOR" o 2) "Iré a mis enemigos"

con las obras poderosas del SEÑOR Los posibles significados son 1) "Les contaré sobre los actos poderosos que el SEÑOR Dios ha hecho" o 2) "porque el Señor Dios me ha dado la fuerza para hacer actos poderosos".

haré mención de ''hablaré de''

Psalms 71:17

me has enseñado
La información implícita puede expresarse claramente. "me enseñó muchas cosas"

Dios, no me abandones
''Dios, por favor no me abandones''

yo he estado declarando Tu fuerza
''yo he estado diciendo cuán fuerte eres''

a la próxima generación
''a aquellos que hoy son niños''

Tu poder a todo el que ha de venir
La información omitida se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "y como declaro tu poder a todos los que están por venir"

a todo el que ha de venir
Esto es una hipérbole. Traducción alterna: "para que sepan tantas personas como pueda saber"

Psalms 71:19

Tu justicia también, Dios, es muy alta
El salmista habla de las cosas buenas que Dios ha hecho como si estuvieran juntas como un edificio alto o una montaña.

¿quién es como Tú?
Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡no hay nadie como tú!"

dificultades severas
''horribles problemas''

resucitarás
fortalecer o volver a animar

de las profundidades de la tierra
"Las profundidades de la tierra" es una metáfora de dónde van las personas cuando mueren. El salmista aún no había muerto, pero habla como si lo hubiera hecho. Traducción alterna: "cuando estamos cerca de la muerte"

Psalms 71:21

Aumenta ... vuelve y consuélame.
"Quiero que aumentes ... quiero que vuelvas y te consueles". Algunas traducciones entienden: "Aumentarás ... te volverás de nuevo y te consolarás". (Ver UDB)

vuelve y consuélame Esto describe una acción a través de dos frases. Traducción alterna: "consuélame de nuevo"

por Tu confiabilidad
"porque puedo confiar en ti"

a Ti yo cantaré alabanzas con el arpa, Santo de Israel
"para ti, que eres el Santo de Israel, cantaré alabanzas mientras toco el arpa"

Psalms 71:23

Mis labios gritarán de gozo
"Labios" es una metonimia para toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Gritaré de alegría"

aún mi alma, la cual Tú has redimido Las palabras que el salmista ha omitido se pueden expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "y mi alma, que has redimido, cantará alabanzas"

mi alma
Aquí "alma" se refiere a la persona completa.

Mi lengua también hablará Aquí "lengua" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción alterna: "También hablaré" han sido avergonzados y están confundidos aquellos que buscaban mi sufrimiento

"los que buscaron mi dolor fueron avergonzados y están confundidos"

pues han sido avergonzados y están confundidos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "porque Dios los ha avergonzado y confundido"

aquellos que buscaban mi sufrimiento
Esto se refiere a los enemigos del escritor. (71: 8) Vea cómo "los que buscan mi dolor" se traducen en 71:12.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 72

1 Da al rey Tus decretos justos, Dios, Tu justicia al hijo del rey. 2 Que él juzgue a Tu pueblo con rectitud y a los pobres con justicia. 3 Que las montañas produzcan paz para el pueblo; que las colinas produzcan justicia. 4 Que Él juzgue a los pobres del pueblo; que Él salve a los niños de los necesitados y rompa en pedazos al opresor. 5 Que Te honren mientras perdure el sol, y mientras dure la luna a lo largo de las generaciones. 6 Que Él baje como la lluvia sobre la hierba cortada, como aguacero que riega la tierra. 7 Que los justos florezcan durante sus días, y que haya una abundancia de paz hasta que la luna no sea más. 8 Que Él tenga dominio de mar a mar, y desde el Río hasta los confines de la tierra. 9 Que aquellos que viven en el desierto se inclinen ante él; que sus enemigos laman el polvo. 10 Que los reyes de Tarsis y de las islas rindan tributo; que los reyes de Sabá y Seba ofrezcan regalos. 11 Ciertamente, que todos los reyes se postren delante de Él; que todas las naciones le sirvan. 12 Porque Él ayuda a la persona necesitada que clama y a la persona pobre que no tiene a ningún otro ayudador. 13 Él tiene piedad de los pobres y necesitados y Él salva la vida de las personas necesitadas. 14 Él redime sus vidas de la opresión y la violencia, y la sangre de ellos es preciosa ante su vista. 15 ¡Que Él viva! Que el oro de Sabá le sea dado. Que el pueblo siempre ore por él; que Dios lo bendiga todo el día. 16 Que haya abundancia de grano en la tierra; en las cimas de las montañas que se mesan sus cosechas. Que su fruto sea como el Líbano; que el pueblo florezca en las ciudades como la hierba del campo. 17 Que su nombre perdure para siempre; que su nombre continúe mientras dure el sol; que la gente sea bendecida en él; que todas las naciones lo llamen bendecido. 18 Que el SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de Israel, sea bendito, el único que hace cosas maravillosas. 19 Que Su nombre glorioso sea bendecido para siempre, y que la tierra entera sea llena de Su gloria. Amén y Amén. 20 Las oraciones de David, hijo de Isaí, están terminadas. Tercer libro.

Psalms 72:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Información general:
Los posibles significados para el encabezado "un salmo de Salomón" son 1) David escribió este salmo sobre Salomón

Da al rey Tus decretos justos, Dios, Tu justicia al hijo del rey
Los posibles significados son 1) "Dame, el rey, tus justos decretos, Dios, tu justicia para mi hijo" o 2) "Dame, el rey, tus justos decretos, Dios, tu justicia para mí, el hijo del rey". La gente en esos días a menudo hablaba de sí misma como si fuera otra persona. Sin embargo, sería mejor traducir esto como si el salmista estuviera hablando de otra persona, no de sí mismo.

Da al rey Tus decretos justos
"Permitir que el rey juzgue correctamente" (ver UDB)

Tu justicia al hijo del rey
"Que el hijo del rey pueda hacer lo que te agrada"

Que él juzgue
Si David escribió esto, está hablando de su hijo, "el hijo del rey", está hablando de la época en que su hijo será rey. Si Solomon lo escribió, aunque está escribiendo sobre sí mismo, sería mejor traducirlo como si estuviera escribiendo sobre otra persona. De cualquier manera, "Que el rey juzgue" es la mejor traducción.

Tu pueblo ... pobres
El salmista esta hablando a Dios.

y a los pobres
"y que el rey juzgue a tu pobre pueblo"

Que las montañas produzcan paz ... que las colinas produzcan justicia
El salmista habla del pueblo de Israel como si fueran las montañas y las colinas en las que viven. Él habla de las montañas y las colinas como si fueran toda la tierra de Israel, como si esa tierra fuera un jardín que produce fruto, y de paz y justicia como si fueran ese fruto. Traducción alterna: "Que la gente de la tierra viva en paz ... que hagan todo de manera justa"

Psalms 72:4

Él ... Él
Estos se refieren al que "juzgará" (72: 1).

rompa en pedazos al opresor
"destruye completamente a quien los oprime"

mientras perdure el sol, y mientras dure la luna El sol y la luna son metonimias para el día y la noche, que juntos son un merismo para todos los tiempos. Traducción alterna: "para siempre y sin fin"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 72:6

Que Él baje como la lluvia sobre la hierba cortada,
El rey será bueno y hará cosas buenas por su pueblo como si lloviera haciendo bien por la hierba recién cortada.

Que Él baje
"Deseo que él venga"

como aguacero que riega
"Que baje como una lluvia de agua". El rey será bueno y hará cosas buenas por su pueblo como si fuera lluvia haciendo bien por el suelo.

los justos
El adjetivo "justo" se puede traducir como una frase de sustantivo. Traducción alterna: "gente justa"

durante sus días
Los significados posibles son 1) "mientras el rey gobierna" o 2) "mientras viva la persona justa" o "mientras viva la gente justa".

que haya una abundancia de paz
El salmista habla como si la paz fuera un objeto físico como la comida. Una "abundancia" es cuando hay mucho de algo. Traducción alterna: "que las personas justas puedan vivir en paz verdadera"

hasta que la luna no sea más
"mientras la luna brille"

Psalms 72:8

Que Él tenga dominio
"Que el rey tenga dominio"

de mar a mar, y desde el Río hasta los confines de la tierra Ambas expresiones son merismos y se refieren a toda la tierra.

de mar a mar
desde el Mar Muerto y el Mar de Galilea en el este hasta el Mar Mediterráneo en el oeste.

el Río
"el río Eufrates", al que viajarían los israelitas en tierra yendo hacia el norte

los confines de la tierra
por lo que la gente podía viajar por tierra por diferentes rutas hacia el sur. Los israelitas hablaron de la tierra como si fuera una superficie plana con extremos.

laman el polvo
Esta es una metáfora de humillación extrema. Traducción alterna: " que hagan todo lo que puedan para que les permita vivir"

Tarsis
El nombre de un lugar.

rindan
''den''

ofrezcan regalos
''den regalos''

Seba
Este es el nombre de un país. No es el mismo país que Sabá . (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Psalms 72:11

postren delante de Él
"inclinarse ante él" u "honrarlo como su rey"

todas las naciones
"las personas que viven en todas las naciones"

ningún otro ayudador
"nadie para ayudarlo"

Psalms 72:13

Él tiene piedad de los pobres y necesitados
"Quiere evitar que los pobres y necesitados sufran"

los pobres y necesitados Aquí las palabras "pobre" y "necesitado" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que no pueden ayudarse a sí mismas.

redime sus vidas
"los redime" o "los salva" o "los rescata"

opresión y la violencia Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan cuán gravemente sufren los necesitados. Traducción alterna: "los que los oprimen y los lastiman" la sangre de ellos es preciosa ante su vista

"Él quiere que vivan bien"

sangre de ellos
"sus vidas" o "su bienestar"

ante su vista
"a él." Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en (19:13)

Psalms 72:15

¡Que Él viva!
"¡Que el rey viva mucho tiempo!" o "¡Deseo que el rey viva mucho tiempo!"

Que el oro de Sabá le sea dado.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Que le den el oro de Sabá" o "Que reciba el oro de Sabá"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todo el día
''continuamente''

abundancia de grano
la "abundancia" es cuando hay mucho de algo. "mucho grano"

cosechas
Plantas que las personas hacen creer para comida.

mesan
Use la palabra para lo que hace la hierba larga cuando sopla un viento suave y se mueve lentamente de un lado a otro.

como el Líbano
"Como los cedros en el Líbano". Estos árboles eran hermosos y tenían madera que era buena para construir. El significado de esto se puede aclarar.

que el pueblo florezca en las ciudades como la hierba del campo
Se habla de la prosperidad de las personas en las ciudades como si esta fuera hierba que crece abundantemente en los campos.

Psalms 72:17

Que su nombre perdure para siempre
"Que la gente siempre sepa sobre él" o "Que la gente nunca olvide de quién es"

su nombre
"el nombre del rey" o "la reputación del rey" o "la fama del rey"

mientras dure el sol
"mientras el sol brille"

que la gente sea bendecida en él Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que Dios haga que haga cosas buenas por las personas"

lo llamen bendecido
"reconoce que Dios los ha bendecido"

Psalms 72:18

Información general:
Estos versículos son más que el final de este salmo. Es la declaración final para todo el Libro 2 de los Salmos, que comienza en el Salmo 42 y termina con el Salmo 72.

Que el SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de Israel, sea bendito
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Que la gente bendiga al SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de Israel"

Que Su nombre glorioso sea bendecido para siempre
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Que la gente bendiga su glorioso nombre para siempre" o, tratando el "nombre" como una metonimia para el propio SEÑOR, "Que la gente sepa para siempre lo glorioso que es"

Su nombre glorioso sea bendecido
"El, que es glorioso, sea bendecido" que la tierra entera sea llena de Su gloria Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que su gloria llene toda la tierra" o "que él llene toda la tierra con su gloria"

Amén y Amén
La palabra "Amén" se repite para enfatizar la aprobación de lo que se ha dicho. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 41:13. Traducción alterna: "Que ciertamente sea así"

Las oraciones de David, hijo de Isaí, están terminadas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "David, el hijo de Jesse ha terminado sus oraciones" o "Esta es la última oración del David, hijo de Jesse"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 73

1 Ciertamente Dios es bueno con Israel, con aquellos de un corazón puro. 2 Pero en cuanto a mí, mis pies por poco resbalan; mis pies por poco se resbalaron de debajo de mí 3 porque yo tuve envidia de los arrogantes cuando yo vi la prosperidad de los malvados. 4 Porque ellos no tienen ningún dolor hasta su muerte, sino que están fuertes y bien alimentados. 5 Están libres de las cargas de otros hombres; no están afligidos como otros hombres. 6 El orgullo los adorna como un collar alrededor de su cuello; la violencia los viste como una túnica. 7 De tal ceguera viene el pecado; pensamientos malvados pasan a través de sus corazones. 8 Ellos se burlan y hablan maliciosamente; en su arrogancia ellos amenazan con la opresión. 9 Dirigen sus bocas contra los cielos, y sus lenguas pasean a través de la tierra. 10 Por lo tanto, Su pueblo se vuelve a ellos y abundantes aguas les son suplidas. 11 Ellos dicen: "¿Cómo Dios lo sabe? ¿Hay conocimiento con el Altísimo?" 12 Tomen nota: estas personas son malvadas; siempre están despreocupadas, haciéndose más y más ricas. 13 Seguramente es en vano que yo haya guardado mi corazón y lavado mis manos en inocencia. 14 Pues todo el día he sido afligido y disciplinado cada mañana. 15 Si yo hubiera dicho: "Yo diré estas cosas," entonces yo habría traicionado a la generación de Tus hijos. 16 Aunque yo traté de entender estas cosas, fue demasiado difícil para mí. 17 Entonces yo fui al santuario de Dios y pude entender su destino. 18 Seguramente Tú los pones en lugares resbaladizos; Tú los arrojas a la ruina. 19 ¡Cómo se convierten en desierto en un instante! Llegan a su fin y terminan en terrores espantosos. 20 Ellos son como un sueño después que uno despierta; Señor, cuando Tú te levantes, Tú no pensarás nada de esos sueños. 21 Pues mi corazón estaba atribulado, y yo estaba profundamente herido. 22 Yo era ignorante y me faltaba entendimiento; yo era como un animal sin sentido delante de Ti. 23 Sin embargo, yo siempre estoy contigo; Tú sostienes mi mano derecha. 24 Tú me guiarás con Tu consejo y después me recibirás en gloria. 25 ¿A quién tengo yo en el cielo sino a Ti? No hay nadie en la tierra que yo deseo sino a Ti. 26 Mi carne y mi corazón se debilitan, pero Dios es la fuerza de mi corazón para siempre. 27 Aquellos que están lejos de Ti perecerán; Tú destruirás a todos aquellos que sean infieles a Ti. 28 Pero en cuanto a mí, todo lo que necesito hacer es acercarme a Dios. Yo he hecho del SEÑOR mi refugio. Yo declararé todas Tus obras.

Psalms 73:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

mis pies por poco resbalan; mis pies por poco se resbalaron de debajo de mí El salmista habla de no poder confiar en Dios y de querer pecar como si casi se hubiera caído mientras caminaba por un camino resbaladizo. Traducción alterna: "Casi dejé de confiar en Dios; casi fui culpable de cometer un gran pecado contra él" yo tuve envidia de los arrogantes

"Envidiaba a los arrogantes" o "no quería que las personas arrogantes tuvieran las cosas buenas que tenían"

los arrogantes
El adjetivo "malvado" se puede traducir como una frase de sustantivo. Traducción alterna: "gente malvada"

la prosperidad de los malvados
La palabra "prosperidad" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "cómo los malvados tienen tantas cosas buenas"

los malvados
El adjetivo malvado puede traducirse como una frase. Traducción alterna: gente malvada.

Psalms 73:4

Información general
Asaf comienza a describir cómo a veces quiere quejarse ante Dios sobre aquellos que son "arrogantes" y "malvados" (73: 1).

las cargas de otros hombres Las palabras "cargas" son una metonimia para las luchas de la vida diaria

no están afligidos como otros hombres
"No sufren como lo hacen otras personas"

Psalms 73:6

Información general:
Asaf continúa describiendo cómo a veces quiere quejarse ante Dios sobre aquellos que son "arrogantes" y "malvados" (73: 1).

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El orgullo los adorna como un collar alrededor de su cuello; la violencia los viste como una túnica Esto significa que los malvados les muestran a todos lo orgullosos y violentos que son como si llevaran un collar o una túnica hermosa.

collar ... túnica
Esto se refiere a cosas que usan personas ricas e importantes.

collar
una cadena generalmente hecha de oro o joyas que rodea el cuello

De tal ceguera viene el pecado
Como son como personas ciegas que no pueden ver a dónde van, pecan sin saberlo. Ser ciego es una metáfora de que una persona no puede ver lo malvado que es.

pensamientos malvados pasan a través de sus corazones Aquí el salmista describe los pensamientos de las personas como si estos fueran personas. También describe los seres internos de las personas malvadas como si fueran un edificio en el que esas personas pudieran caminar. Traducción alterna: "en sus seres internos siempre están pensando en hacer más cosas malas" (UDB)

Psalms 73:8

Información alterna:
Asaf continúa describiendo cómo a veces quiere quejarse ante Dios sobre aquellos que son "arrogantes" y "malvados" (73: 1).

Ellos se burlan
De quién se burlan se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "Se burlan de Dios y de su pueblo"

Dirigen sus bocas contra los cielos
Aquí la palabra "cielos" es una metonimia para Dios, que vive en los cielos. Traducción alterna: "Hablan contra Dios, que está en los cielos"

Dirigen sus bocas
"hablar fuerte" o "hablar con propósito"

sus lenguas pasean a través de la tierra.
La palabra "lenguas" es una metonimia para las personas mismas. Los posibles significados son 1) "van por la tierra diciendo cosas malas sobre Dios" o "van a todas partes y se jactan de sí mismos".

Psalms 73:10

Información general
Asaf continúa describiendo cómo a veces quiere quejarse ante Dios sobre aquellos que son "arrogantes" y "malvados" (73: 1).

Su pueblo se vuelve a ellos Los significados posibles son 1) "El pueblo de Dios ama a los malvados" o "los malvados regresan a este lugar" abundantes aguas les son suplidas

Los posibles significados son 1) "el pueblo de Dios escucha con alegría las palabras de los malvados" o 2) "los malvados tienen mucha comida para comer y vino para beber"

Ellos dicen
la gente malvada dice

¿Cómo Dios lo sabe? ¿Hay conocimiento con el Altísimo?
Estas preguntas retóricas son para demostrar desprecio por Dios. Estas preguntas pueden ser traducidas como declaraciones. Traducción alterna: "Seguramente Dios no sabe lo que estamos haciendo. El Altísimo no lo sabe".

Psalms 73:13

Información general:
En los versículos 13 y 14, Asaph continúa describiendo cómo a veces quiere quejarse ante Dios sobre aquellos que son "arrogantes" y "malvados" (73: 1). En el versículo 15 comienza a hablar sobre lo que realmente está pensando.

yo haya
La palabra ''yo'' se refiere a Asaf

guardado mi corazón Asaf habla de proteger su corazón como si estuviera protegiendo una ciudad o construyendo contra enemigos. Traducción alterna: "He mantenido mis pensamientos puros"

lavado mis manos en inocencia
El escritor habla de su pureza como si se hubiera lavado las manos con inocencia en lugar de con agua. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 26: 6. Traducción alterna: "mis acciones se han mantenido puras" o "me he lavado las manos para demostrar que soy inocente"

todo el día
"siempre" o "todos los días"

he sido afligido
"Me has hecho sufrir". Vea cómo "no están afligidos" se traduce en 73: 4.

he sido ... disciplinado
"He sido ... castigado"

Si yo hubiera dicho: "Yo diré estas cosas," entonces yo habría traicionado a la generación de Tus hijos Esta situación hipotética no sucedió. Traducción alterna: "Nunca dije 'diré estas cosas', así que no traicioné a esta generación de tus hijos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 73:16

estas cosas
Las cosas buenas que le suceden a "los malvados" (73:4 - 73:10).

su destino
"qué les sucede a las personas malvadas cuando mueren" (UDB) o "cómo mueren las personas malvadas"

Psalms 73:18

los pones
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los malvados.

lugares resbaladizos
"terreno inseguro o inestable". Vea cómo se traduce "deslizado" en 73: 1.

Cómo se convierten en desierto en un instante
La palabra "desierto" es una metáfora para una persona que ha perdido todo lo bueno. Traducción alterna: "Qué tan rápido se destruyen" como un sueño después que uno despierta

Los malvados no durarán más de lo que una persona ve en un sueño. Desaparece tan pronto como la persona se despierta.

Psalms 73:21

mi corazón estaba atribulado
La palabra "corazón" es una metonimia para los pensamientos y sentimientos de una persona. Traducción alterna: "Estaba muy triste"

yo estaba profundamente herido
El salmista habla del dolor emocional como si fuera dolor físico. Traducción alterna: "Sentí que alguien me había herido" con un cuchillo o una flecha.

ignorante y me faltaba entendimiento Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan lo poco que sabía. Traducción alterna: "muy ignorante"

faltaba entendimiento
''no entendía nada''

Ti
Esto se refiere a Dios

Psalms 73:23

yo siempre estoy contigo
La palabra "yo" aquí representa a Asaf. La palabra "contigo" aquí representa a Dios.

Tú sostienes mi mano derecha Esto muestra una relación íntima con Dios que ofrece estabilidad y seguridad. Traducción alterna: "Me abrazas" me recibirás en gloria Los posibles significados son 1) "ponme donde la gente me honrará" o 2) "honrame llevándome a donde estás". Vea cómo se traduce "recibirme" en 49:14.

Psalms 73:25

¿A quién tengo yo en el cielo sino a Ti?
Es posible traducir esto como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "No hay nadie para mí en el cielo sino tú" o "Eres el único que tengo en el cielo"

en el cielo
"entre los dioses" o "entre los seres sobrenaturales"

No hay nadie en la tierra
''ningún ser humano''

Mi carne y mi corazón
Estas dos frases comparten significados similares. Juntos representan a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Mi cuerpo y mi mente"

Psalms 73:27

Información general:
Asaf continúa hablando de Dios.

Aquellos que están lejos de Ti Aquí la idea de estar lejos de Dios se compara con no estar dispuesto a obedecerle. Traducción alterna: "Los que no quieren obedecerte"

mi refugio
El escritor habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un lugar al que una persona pudiera huir por seguridad.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 74

1 Dios, ¿por qué nos has rechazado para siempre? ¿Por qué arde Tu ira en contra de las ovejas de Tu redil? 2 Trae a memoria a Tu pueblo, el cual Tú compraste en tiempos antiguos, la tribu que Tú has redimido para ser Tu propia heredad, y el Monte Sion, donde Tú vives. 3 Ven, mira las ruinas total, todo el daño que el enemigo ha hecho en el Lugar Santo. 4 Tus adversarios rugieron en el medio de Tu lugar de reunión; levantaron sus banderas de batalla. 5 Arrebataron con hachas como en un bosque espeso. 6 Ellos hicieron añicos y rompieron todos los grabados; ellos los rompieron con hachas y martillos. 7 Ellos encendieron Tu santuario; ellos profanaron donde Tú vives, tumbándolo a la tierra. 8 Ellos dijeron en sus corazones: "Nosotros los destruiremos a todos." Ellos quemaron todos Tus lugares de reunión en la tierra. 9 Nosotros no vemos más señales; ya no hay más profeta, y nadie entre nosotros sabe cuánto tiempo durará esto. 10 ¿Por cuánto tiempo, Dios, lanzará el enemigo insultos a Ti? ¿Blasfemará el enemigo Tu nombre para siempre? 11 ¿Por qué retienes Tu mano, Tu mano derecha? Saca Tu mano derecha de Tu vestimenta y destrúyelos. 12 Sin embargo, Dios ha sido mi rey desde tiempos antiguos, trayendo la salvación a la tierra. 13 Tú dividiste el mar con Tu fuerza; Tú aplastaste las cabezas de los monstruos marinos en las aguas. 14 Tú aplastaste las cabezas de Leviatán; lo diste de comer a aquellos que vivían en el desierto. 15 Tú abriste manantiales y arroyos; Tú secaste ríos caudalosos. 16 El día es Tuyo, y la noche es Tuya también; Tú estableciste el sol y la luna en su lugar. 17 Tú has establecido todas las fronteras de la tierra; Tú has hecho el verano y el invierno. 18 Trae a memoria cómo el enemigo Te lanzó insultos, SEÑOR, y que un pueblo necio ha blasfemado Tu nombre. 19 No le entregues la vida de Tu paloma a un animal salvaje. No olvides la vida de Tu pueblo oprimido para siempre. 20 Recuerda Tu pacto, pues las regiones oscuras de la tierra están llenas de lugares de violencia. 21 No permitas que los oprimidos vuelvan en vergüenza; que los pobres y oprimidos alaben Tu nombre. 22 Levántate, Dios; defiende Tu propio honor; trae a memoria cómo los necios Te insultan todo el día. 23 No olvides la voz de Tus adversarios o el escándalo de aquellos que continuamente Te desafían.

Psalms 74:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Dios, ¿por qué nos has rechazado para siempre?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Dios, no hemos hecho nada malo, ¡pero nos has rechazado para siempre!"

¿Por qué arde Tu ira en contra de las ovejas de Tu redil?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Somos los que ha prometido cuidar, y no hemos hecho nada malo, ¡pero ahora está enojado con nosotros!"

las ovejas de Tu redil Asaf habla del pueblo de Israel como si fueran ovejas. Traducción alterna: "contra Israel, que son como las ovejas a las que alimentas en tu pasto"

Trae a memoria
"Presta atención". Dios no ha olvidado a su pueblo, pero no parece estar pensando en ellos.

Tu propia heredad
''tuyo por siempre''

Psalms 74:3

Información alterna:
Estos versículos describen un evento real, un ataque físico al templo de Israel en Jerusalén.

Ven, mira
Asaf se dirige a Dios y le pide que venga a ver la destrucción.

rugieron
Los adversarios gritaban fuerte con un gran grito de victoria.

grabados
Esto se refiere a tallas en madera, metal o piedra en el templo.

Psalms 74:7

Información alterna:
Asaf continúa describiendo la destrucción del templo.

Ellos ... ellos ... ellos ... ellos
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los adversarios mencionados en 74: 3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ellos dijeron en sus corazones
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción alterna: "Se dijeron a sí mismos" o "Pensaron para sí mismos"

Psalms 74:9

Información general:
Asaf se dirige a Dios sobre la destrucción que ve.

Nosotros no vemos más señales
Los posibles significados son 1) "No vemos más señales milagrosas de Dios" o 2) "Todos nuestros símbolos sagrados se han ido" o 3) si hablamos de las banderas y símbolos de un ejército, "Nuestro ejército ha sido completamente destruido. "

¿Por cuánto tiempo, Dios, lanzará el enemigo insultos a Ti?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡Dios, el enemigo te ha estado lanzando insultos durante demasiado tiempo!"

¿Blasfemará el enemigo Tu nombre para siempre?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡Parece que nunca evitarás que el enemigo blasfeme tu nombre!"

Blasfemará ... Tu nombre
La palabra "nombre" es una metonimia para Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "di que eres malo" o "te insulta"

¿Por qué retienes Tu mano, Tu mano derecha?
El salmista habla de Dios como si tuviera un cuerpo físico. Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡Deja de contener tu mano, tu mano derecha!"

retienes Tu mano
Aquí la palabra "mano" es una metonimia para el poder. Traducción alterna: "no muestras tu poder" o "no usas tu poder para destruir a tus enemigos"

Tu mano derecha
''tu mano más fuerte''

Tu mano derecha de Tu vestimenta
El salmista habla de Dios como si tuviera un cuerpo físico. "Deja de ocultar tu poder y toma medidas"

Psalms 74:12

Información alterna:
Aquí comienza un nuevo tema: Asaf está proclamando las poderosas obras de Dios en la historia de su pueblo.

Dios ha sido mi rey desde tiempos antiguos
Los posibles significados son: 1) Asaf está hablando como representante de Israel: "Dios ha sido nuestro rey desde que los israelitas se convirtieron en una nación" o 2) "Dios, mi rey, estaba vivo incluso en la antigüedad".

trayendo la salvación
"salvar gente"

Tú dividiste ... en las aguas
Es probable que Asaf esté hablando de la época en que Dios sacó a Israel de Egipto, dividió el Mar de Cañas, lo condujo por tierra firme y luego ahogó al ejército de Faraón.

Tú dividiste el mar con Tu fuerza
Asaf está hablando de Dios como si Dios tuviera un cuerpo físico. "Eres tan fuerte que pudiste hacer tierra firme en medio del mar".

el mar
"la grandes aguas"

Tú aplastaste las cabezas de los monstruos marinos en las aguas
Asaf probablemente está hablando de Faraón y su ejército como si fueran monstruos marinos. Si es posible, traduzca estas palabras literalmente. Traducción alterna: "cuando mataste al ejército de Faraón, fue como si hubieras destrozado las cabezas de monstruos marinos en las aguas"

Psalms 74:14

Información general:
Asaf continúa hablando de lo que Dios hizo hace mucho tiempo. Probablemente esté hablando de cuando Dios sacó a Israel de Egipto y ahogó al ejército de Faraón en el Mar de Cañas. Si es posible, estas palabras deben traducirse literalmente.

Leviatán
Leviatán es un monstruo marino. Representa un enemigo cruel.

Tú abriste manantiales y arroyos
"Hiciste que fluyeran manantiales y arroyos del suelo duro y seco"

Psalms 74:16

Información general:
Asaf continúa contando el poder creativo de Dios.

las fronteras de la tierra
"los límites de la tierra y el mar"

Psalms 74:18

Información general:
Asaf está suplicando por la ayuda de Dios.

Trae a memoria
"Presta atención". Ver cómo se traduce esto en 74:1.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el enemigo Te lanzó insultos Asaf habla de palabras insultantes como si fueran objetos físicos, como piedras, que el enemigo estaba arrojando al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "el enemigo te insultó muchas veces"

la vida de Tu paloma Asaf habla de sí mismo como si fuera una paloma, un pájaro indefenso. Traducción alterna: "yo, tu paloma". Esta frase también puede ser una metáfora para el pueblo de Israel.

paloma
Un pájaro pequeño e indefenso a menudo mantenido como mascota.

un animal salvaje
Esta frase puede ser una metáfora para los enemigos de Israel. Traducción alterna: "un enemigo salvaje que es como un animal salvaje"

No olvides la vida de Tu pueblo oprimido para siempre
"No continúes para siempre sin hacer nada para ayudar a tu pueblo oprimido". Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "Ven pronto para ayudar a tu gente oprimida" .

Psalms 74:20

Información general:
Asaf continúa su lamento a Yahweh.

las regiones oscuras de la tierra están llenas de lugares de violencia Asaf habla de "regiones" como si fueran contenedores en los que uno podría poner "lugares de violencia". Traducción alterna: "las personas violentas hacen actos malvados en lugares oscuros de la tierra donde pueden"

las regiones oscuras de la tierra
La palabra "oscuras" es probablemente una metáfora de un lugar donde suceden cosas malas o de las tierras a las que los israelitas habían sido enviados en el exilio, pero estas palabras deberían traducirse literalmente si es posible.

No permitas que los oprimidos vuelvan en vergüenza
"No dejes que las personas malvadas derroten a los oprimidos y los avergüencen"

los oprimidos
Estas son personas que son tratadas cruelmente por personas poderosas.

los pobres y oprimidos
Las palabras "pobre" y "oprimido" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que el SEÑOR salva a muchos que necesitan su ayuda. Ver cómo se traducen estas palabras en 35: 9.

Psalms 74:22

defiende Tu propio honor
"muestra a todos que tienes razón"

trae a memoria
"Presta atención". Dios no ha olvidado cómo los tontos lo insultan, pero no parece estar pensando en eso. Vea cómo se traduce esto en el versículo 74: 1.

la voz de Tus adversarios La palabra "voz" es una metonimia de las palabras que las personas usan cuando hablan. Traducción alterna: "lo que dicen tus adversarios"

o el escándalo de aquellos que continuamente Te desafían.
El salmista habla de las palabras de aquellos que desafían a Dios como si fueran el sonido fuerte de animales u objetos no vivos como el agua o el viento. Traducción alterna: "y presta atención a las palabras ruidosas y sin sentido de aquellos que continuamente te desafían"

desafían
audazmente se oponen

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 75

1 Nosotros damos gracias a Ti, Dios; damos gracias porque Tú revelas Tu presencia; la gente cuenta Tus obras maravillosas. 2 En el tiempo señalado Yo juzgaré justamente. 3 Aunque la tierra y todos los habitantes tiemblen de miedo, Yo hago firme los pilares de la tierra." 4 Yo dije a los arrogantes: "No sean arrogantes," y a los malvados: "No levanten el cuerno. 5 No levanten el cuerno de ustedes a las alturas; no hablen con un cuello insolente." 6 No es ni del este ni del oeste, y no es del desierto de donde viene el levantamiento. 7 Pero Dios es el juez; Él derriba y Él levanta. 8 Porque el SEÑOR sostiene en Su mano una taza de vino fermentado, el cual es mezclado con especias, y lo sirve. Ciertamente todos los malvados de la tierra lo beberán hasta la última gota. 9 Pero yo continuamente contaré lo que Tú has hecho; yo cantaré alabanzas al Dios de Jacob. 10 Él dice: "Yo cortaré todos los cuernos de los malvados, mas los cuernos de los justos serán levantados."

Psalms 75:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Información general:
The people of God are speaking in 75:1, and God speaks in 75:2-3.

todos los habitantes
"Todas las personas que viven en él"

hago firme los pilares de la tierra
"evitar que la tierra sea destruida" o Traducción alterna: "proteger a mi gente"

Psalms 75:4

Yo dije
Los significados posibles son 1) Dios está hablando o 2) Asaf está hablando.

No sean arrogantes ... No levanten ... No levanten ... no hablen El hablante está hablando con muchas personas malvadas, por lo que estas formas son todas plurales.

y a los malvados
Asaf habla de personas malvadas como si fueran animales con cuernos en la cabeza, estirando el cuello y levantando la cabeza para asustar a otros animales. Traducción alterna: "No confíes" o "No te jactes de lo fuerte que eres"

No levanten el cuerno
Asaph habla de personas malvadas como si fueran animales con cuernos en la cabeza, estirando el cuello y levantando la cabeza para asustar a otros animales. AT: "No confíes" o "No te jactes de lo fuerte que eres"

No levanten el cuerno de ustedes a las alturas Asaf habla de personas malvadas como si estas fueran animales con cuernos en la cabeza, estirando el cuello y sosteniendo la cabeza lo más alto posible para asustar a otros animales. Traducción alterna: "Asegúrate especialmente de no alardear de que eres más grande que Dios"

con un cuello insolente
Asaf habla de personas malvadas que desafían o desafían a Dios como si fueran animales con cuernos en la cabeza, estirando el cuello y levantando la cabeza para asustar a otros animales. Traducción alterna: "arrogantemente"

No es ni del este ... donde viene el levantamiento
Asaf habla del que se levanta como si fuera la acción de levantarlo. También habla de Dios dando fuerza y honor a una persona como si Dios estuviera físicamente levantando a esa persona. Traducción alterna: "El que te levantará no será alguien que venga del este" o "El que te hará fuerte y hará que la gente te honre no será alguien que venga del este"

Psalms 75:7

Información general:
Asaf habla de Dios.

Él derriba y Él levanta.
Los objetos de los verbos se pueden enunciar claramente: "derriba a algunas personas y eleva a otras". Las palabras "derriba" y "levanta" son metáforas para que Dios haga a las personas poderosas y les quite su poder. Traducción alterna: "hace que un hombre sea rey en lugar de otro hombre" o "quita el poder de un hombre y le da poder a otro hombre"

una taza de vino fermentado ... mezclado con especias Cuando El SEÑOR castiga a las personas, serán como personas que han bebido vino fuerte y se enferman.

vino fermentado o espumante
La espuma es una metáfora del poder del vino para emborrachar a la gente, Traducción alterna: "vino fuerte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

especias
hojas secas o semillas molidas

y lo sirve
lo vierte de un recipiente grande a las tazas de las que la gente tomará

lo beberán hasta la última gota
''beberán cada gota''

Psalms 75:9

Él dice
Dios dice

cortaré todos los cuernos de Los cuernos de un animal son una metáfora del poder de una persona. Traducción alterna: "quita todo el poder de" los cuernos de los justos serán levantados Los cuernos de un animal son una metáfora del poder de una persona. Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Levantaré los cuernos de los justos" o "Haré poderosos a los justos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 76

1 Dios se ha hecho conocido en Judá; Su nombre es grande en Israel. 2 Su tienda es en Salem; Su casa es en Sión. 3 Allí el rompió las flechas del arco, el escudo, la espada y las otras armas de guerra. 4 Tú brillas resplandecientemente y revelas Tu gloria, mientras desciendes desde las montañas, donde mataste a tus víctimas. 5 Los de corazón valiente fueron saqueados; ellos se quedaron dormidos. Todos los guerreros estaban indefensos. 6 A tu reprensión, el Dios de Jacob, ambos el jinete y el caballo se quedaron dormidos. 7 Tú, si Tú, haz de ser temido; ¿Quién puede de pie ante Tu vista cuando Tu estás enojado? 8 Desde el cielo hiciste escuchar Tu juicio; la tierra estaba asustada y silenciosa 9 cuando Tú, Dios, te levantaste a ejecutar jucio y a salvar a todos los oprimidos de la tierra. 10 Ciertamente tu juicio de ira en contra de la humanidad te traerá alabanzas; Te ciñez con lo que queda de tu ira. 11 Hagan votos al SEÑOR su Dios y cúmplanlos. Que todo el que Lo rodee traiga regalos a Él, quien debe ser temido. 12 Él corta el espíritu de los príncipes; Él es temido por los reyes de la tierra.

Psalms 76:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

se ha hecho conocido en Judá
"hizo que la gente de Judá supiera quién es" o "se hizo famoso en Judá"

Su nombre es grande en Israel
Las palabras "su nombre" son un metonimo para su reputación. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Israel lo considera bueno y poderoso"

Su casa
"el lugar donde ha elegido vivir"

Allí el rompió las flechas del arco, el escudo, la espada y las otras armas de guerra Estas palabras son probablemente una metáfora de que Dios está causando que el pueblo de Judá viva en paz sin tener miedo de que los enemigos les hagan la guerra, pero las palabras deben traducirse literalmente.

Psalms 76:4

Información general:
Asaf habla de Dios como si Dios fuera un soldado que regresaba de una montaña después de ganar una gran batalla.

Tú brillas resplandecientemente y revelas Tu gloria La segunda frase fortalece la primera frase en que la gloria del SEÑOR se relaciona con El SEÑOR brillando resplandecientemente.

Tú brillas resplandecientemente
Las palabras "brillas resplandecientemente" son una metáfora de ser genial. Traducción alterna: "Muestras lo grandioso que eres"

Los de corazón valiente fueron saqueados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Tu gente mató a los valientes soldados de sus enemigos y luego tomó todas sus posesiones"

quedaron dormidos
Aquí "se durmió" es un eufemismo de muerto. Traducción alterna: "murió" o "cayó muerto"

Psalms 76:6

A tu reprensión
El sustantivo abstracto "reprensión" se refiere a decir algo de una manera enojada o crítica. Traducción alterna: "Cuando los reprendió"

quedaron dormidos.
"murió" o "cayó muerto"

¿Quién puede de pie ante Tu vista cuando Tu estás enojado?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Nadie puede pararte a la vista cuando estás enojado". o "Puedes destruir a cualquiera con quien estés enojado".

Psalms 76:8

hiciste escuchar Tu juicio
"pronunciaste un juicio" o "anunciaste cómo ibas a castigar a las personas malvadas"

la tierra estaba
Aquí "la tierra" es una metonimia para las personas que viven en la tierra. Traducción alterna: "la gente de la tierra era"

ejecutar jucio
"llevar a cabo el juicio" o "castigar a las personas malvadas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 76:10

Ciertamente
"Ciertamente " está expresando la expectativa de que lo que sigue ciertamente se cumplirá.

tu juicio de ira en contra de la humanidad te traerá alabanzas Los posibles significados son 1) "la gente te alabará porque estás enojado con los malvados y los juzgarás" o 2) "la gente que está enojada contigo hará cosas que harán que la gente te alabe".

Te ciñez con lo que queda de tu ira.
Se habla de la ira del SEÑOR como algo que puede atarse a sí mismo como un cinturón. Traducción alterna: "atas tu ira restante a tu alrededor como un cinturón"

Psalms 76:11

Él, quien debe ser temido
''El SEÑOR, a quien deberían temer''

Él corta el espíritu de los príncipes
La frase "Él corta el espíritu" es una expresión idiomática que significa que Él rompe el espíritu o se humilla. Traducción alterna: "Él humilla a los príncipes"

Él es temido por los reyes de la tierra
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los reyes de la tierra le temen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 77

1 Con mi voz clamaré a Dios, con mi voz llamaré a Dios y mi Dios me escuchará. 2 En el día de mi problema yo busqué al Señor; en la noche yo estiré mis manos, y ellas no se cansaron. Mi alma se negaba a ser consolada. 3 Yo pensaba en Dios mientras gemía; pensaba en Él mientras desmayaba. 4 Tu sostienes mis ojos abiertos; yo estaba demasiado preocupado para hablar. 5 Yo pensaba en los días pasados, sobre el tiempo pasado. 6 Durante la noche yo recordaba la canción que una vez canté. Yo pensé cuidadosamente y traté de entender lo que había pasado. 7 ¿El Señor me rechazará por siempre? ¿Nunca más me mostrará favor? 8 ¿Su pacto de fidelidad se ha ido por siempre? ¿A fallado a Su promesa para siempre? 9 ¿Ha olvidado Dios ser misericordioso? ¿Su enojo ha apagado su compasión? 10 Yo dije: "Esta es mi pena: el cambio de la mano derecha del Altísmo en contra de nosotros." 11 Pero yo recordaré Tus obras, SEÑOR; pensaré sobre Tus grandiosas obras del pasado. 12 Yo ponderaré todas tus obras y meditaré en ellas. 13 Tu camino, Dios, es santo; ¿Qué dios se compara a nuestro gran Dios? 14 Tú eres el Dios que hace maravillas; Tú revelas tu fuerza entre los pueblos. 15 Tú das a tu pueblo victoria por Tu gran poder, los descendientes de Jacob y José. 16 Las aguas Te vieron, Dios; las aguas Te vieron, y ellas tuvieron temor; las profundidades temblaron. 17 Las nubes dejaron caer agua; el cielo nublado daba voces; Tus flechas volaron. 18 Tu voz estruendosa se escuchaba en el viento; los truenos iluminaron al mundo; la tierra tembló y se estremeció. 19 Tu senda fue a través del mar y Tu camino a través de las aguas crecientes, pero tus huellas no se veían. 20 Tú guiaste a Tu pueblo como una manada por la mano de Moisés y Aarón.

Psalms 77:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Psalms 77:2

yo estiré mis manos
"Recé con los brazos extendidos"

Mi alma se negaba a ser consolada
El "alma" es una metonimia para la persona. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna "No permitiría que nadie intentara consolarme"

Yo pensaba en Dios mientras gemía; pensaba en Él mientras desmayaba Estas dos frases comparten significados similares y se combinan para enfatizar.

mientras desmayaba
"a medida que mi espíritu se desmayaba" o "cuando mi espíritu estaba abrumado"

Psalms 77:4

información general:
Después de hablar sobre Dios, Asaf le habla a Dios en el versículo 4 y luego vuelve a hablar sobre Dios.

Tu sostienes mis ojos abiertos
"Le dije a Dios: 'Mantuviste mis ojos abiertos'".

sostienes mis ojos abiertos
Los ojos abiertos son una metonimia para no poder dormir. Traducción alterna: "me impidió dormir"

los días pasados, sobre el tiempo pasado
Si es necesario, se pueden combinar "días pasados" y "tiempo pasado". Traducción alterna: "sobre cosas que sucedieron hace mucho tiempo"

Psalms 77:6

yo recordaba
Este es una expresión diomática para recordar. Traducción alterna: "Me acordé" que había pasado

Otro posible significado es "lo que estaba sucediendo".

¿El Señor me rechazará por siempre? ¿Nunca más me mostrará favor?
Estas dos frases expresan sentimientos de rechazo del Señor.

me mostrará favor
"haz cosas que demuestren que estás satisfecho conmigo"

Psalms 77:8

Información general:
Debido a que Asaf no estaba seguro de la respuesta a estas preguntas, probablemente sean preguntas literales y deberían traducirse literalmente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

pacto de fidelidad
Al hablar de la "fidelidad al pacto" del SEÑOR, David confía en que El SEÑORsiempre lo amará. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 13: 5. Traducción alterna: "amor fiel"

¿Su enojo ha apagado su compasión?
Asaf habla de la ira como si se tratara de una persona que cierra una puerta para evitar que salga otra persona, la compasión, Traducción alterna: "Si Dios hubiera dejado de mostrarnos compasión porque estaba enojado con nosotros"

Psalms 77:10

Yo dije
Los posibles significados son 1) el salmista se hablaba a sí mismo o 2) el salmista le hablaba al SEÑOR.

el cambio de la mano derecha del Altísmo en contra de nosotros
La "mano derecha" es una metonimia de poder, autoridad o fuerza. Traducción alterna: "el Altísimo ya no usa su poder para ayudarnos"

Psalms 77:11

Información general:
El escritor comienza a hablar con El SEÑOR.

recordaré
"recordar" Ver cómo se traduce esto en 74:1.

Tus grandiosas obras del pasado
"Las cosas maravillosas que hiciste hace mucho tiempo"

Yo ponderaré todas tus obras y meditaré en ellas Estas dos frases expresan el concepto de meditar sobre lo que Yahweh ha hecho.

ponderaré
"pensar profundamente"

meditaré en ellas
"piensa en lo que significan"

Psalms 77:13

Información general:
El escritor continúa hablando con El SEÑOR.

¿Qué dios se compara a nuestro gran Dios?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "ningún dios se compara con nuestro gran Dios".

revelas tu fuerza entre los pueblos
"muestras a personas de muchos grupos de personas lo fuerte que eres"

das a tu pueblo victoria ... los descendientes
"nos das, a nosotros tu pueblo, la victoria ... nosotros, que somos los descendientes"

das a tu pueblo victoria
"permites a tu gente derrotar a sus enemigos"

los descendientes de Jacob y José Esto se refiere a la nación entera de Israel.

Psalms 77:16

las aguas Te vieron ... ellas tuvieron temor ... las profundidades temblaron Asaf habla del agua como si fuera una persona que vio algo que lo aterrorizó.

las aguas Te vieron, y ellas tuvieron temor; las profundidades temblaron
"agua" y "profundidad" se refieren a grandes cuerpos de agua como el mar o el océano.

profundidades
''las aguas más profundas''

Las nubes dejaron caer agua Asaf habla de las nubes como si fueran personas que vierten agua de los contenedores. Traducción alterna: "Cayó mucha lluvia" o "Llovió muy fuerte"

Tus flechas volaron
Esta es una metáfora que describe el rayo como las flechas de Dios. Traducción alterna: "el rayo que hiciste brilló como flechas"

volaron
Use la palabra de su idioma para lo que hace una flecha después de que alguien la dispara.

Psalms 77:18

voz estruendosa
Esta es la personificación, refiriéndose al trueno como la voz de Dios. Traducción alterna: "voz, que era tan fuerte como un trueno" o "voz muy alta"

iluminaron al mundo El rayo parecía iluminar todo el mundo. Traducción alterna: "un rayo iluminó todo lo que pudiste ver"

Tu senda ... Tu camino
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares y se combinan para enfatizar.

tus huellas
Asaf está hablando del SEÑOR como si El SEÑOR fuera una persona con pies. Si bien esta es la personificación, debe traducirse literalmente, si es posible.

tus huellas no se veían Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nadie vio tus huellas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú guiaste a Tu pueblo como una manada Este similitud compara al pueblo de Dios con una bandada de animales.

por la mano de La frase "de la mano de" aquí significa "por la acción de" o "a través de la acción de".

mano
Aquí "mano" es sinécdoque para toda la persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 78

1 Oigan mi enseñanza, pueblo mío, escuchen las palabras de mi boca. 2 Yo abriré mi boca en parábolas; yo cantaré acerca de cosas escondidas del pasado. 3 Estas son cosas que nosotros hemos oído y aprendido, cosas que nuestros antepasados nos han contado. 4 No las ocultaremos de sus descendientes. Nosotros le contaremos a la próxima generación acerca de las obras elogiables del SEÑOR, Su fuerza, y las maravillas que Él ha hecho. 5 Pues Él estableció decretos de pacto en Jacob y señaló una ley en Israel. Él ordenó a nuestros antepasados a que los enseñaran a sus hijos. 6 Él ordenó esto para que aquella generación que viniera conociera Sus decretos, los niños aún sin nacer, quienes a su vez los deberían contar a sus propios hijos. 7 Entonces ellos pondrían su esperanza en Dios y no olvidarían Sus obras, sino que guardarían Sus mandamientos. 8 Entonces ellos no serían como sus antepasados, quienes eran una generación terca y rebelde, una generación cuyos corazones no eran rectos, y cuyos espíritus no estaban comprometidos ni fieles a Dios. 9 Los efrainitas estaban armados con arcos, pero retrocedieron en el día de la batalla. 10 Ellos no guardaron el pacto con Dios, y rehusaron obedecer Su ley. 11 Ellos olvidaron Sus obras, las cosas maravillosas que Él les había mostrado. 12 Ellos olvidaron las cosas maravillosas que Él hizo a la vista de sus antepasados en la tierra de Egipto, en la tierra de Zoán. 13 Él dividió el mar y los condujo a través de él; Él hizo levantarse las aguas como murallas. 14 Durante el día Él los dirigió con una nube y toda la noche con la luz del fuego. 15 Él partió las rocas en el desierto, y les dio agua abundantemente, lo suficiente para llenar las profundidades del mar. 16 Él hizo fluir arroyos de la roca e hizo fluir el agua como ríos. 17 Mas ellos continuaron pecando contra Él, rebelándose en contra del Altísimo en el desierto. 18 Ellos retaron a Dios en sus corazones pidiendo alimento para satisfacer sus apetitos. 19 Ellos hablaron en contra de Dios; dijeron: "¿Puede Dios realmente poner una mesa para nosotros en el desierto? 20 Vean, cuando Él golpeó la roca, las aguas salieron a chorro y los arroyos se desbordaron. ¿Pero puede Él dar pan también? ¿Proveerá Él carne para Su pueblo?" 21 Cuando el SEÑOR oyó esto, Él se enfadó; así que Su fuego ardió en contra de Jacob, y Su ira atacó a Israel 22 porque ellos no creyeron en Dios y no confiaron en Su salvación. 23 Sin embargo, Él ordenó a los cielos arriba y abrió las puertas del cielo. 24 Él llovió maná para que ellos comieran, y les dio el grano del cielo. 25 La gente comió el pan de ángeles. Él les envió comida en abundancia. 26 Él causó que el viento del este soplara en el cielo, y por Su poder Él guió el viento del sur. 27 Él llovió carne sobre ellos como el polvo, aves tan numerosas como las arenas del mar. 28 Ellas caían en medio de su campamento, todas alrededor de sus tiendas. 29 Así que ellos comieron y estaban llenos. Él les dio de lo que desearon. 30 Pero ellos aún no se habían llenado; su comida todavía estaba en sus bocas. 31 Entonces la ira de Dios los atacó y mató a los más fuertes de ellos. Él derribó a los hombres jóvenes de Israel. 32 A pesar de esto, ellos continuaron pecando y no creyeron en Sus obras maravillosas. 33 Por lo tanto, Dios cortó sus días; sus años fueron llenos de terror. 34 Cuando Dios los afligía, ellos comenzaban a buscarlo a Él, y regresaban y Lo buscaban sinceramente. 35 Ellos traían a la memoria que Dios era su roca y que el Altísimo era su rescatador. 36 Pero ellos Lo exaltaban con su boca y Le mentían con sus palabras. 37 Pues sus corazones no estaban firmemente fijos en Él, y no eran fieles a Su pacto. 38 Sin embargo Él, siendo misericordioso, perdonaba su iniquidad y no los destruía. Sí, muchas veces Él detenía Su enojo y no agitaba toda Su ira. 39 Él traía a memoria que ellos eran hechos de carne, un viento que pasa y no regresa. 40 ¡Cuán a menudo ellos se rebelaron contra Él en el desierto y Lo afligían en las regiones estériles! 41 Una y otra vez ellos retaban a Dios y ofendían al Santo de Israel. 42 Ellos no pensaban acerca de Su poder, cómo Él los había rescatado del enemigo 43 cuando llevó a cabo Sus señales temibles en Egipto y Sus maravillas en la región de Zoán. 44 Él convirtió los ríos de los egipcios en sangre de manera que no podían beber de sus arroyos. 45 Él envió enjambres de moscas que los devoraron y ranas que infestaron su tierra. 46 Él entregó sus cosechas al saltamonte y su trabajo a la langosta. 47 Él destruyó sus vides con granizo y sus árboles sicómoros con más granizo. 48 Él llovió granizo sobre sus reses y lanzó rayos a su ganado. 49 La intensidad de Su ira azotó contra ellos. Él envió ira, furia y problemas como agentes que traen desastre. 50 Él aplanó un camino para Su enojo; Él no los liberó de la muerte sino que los entregó a la plaga. 51 Él mató a todos los primogénitos en Egipto, los primogénitos de su fortaleza en las tiendas de Cam. 52 Él sacó a Su propio pueblo como ovejas y los guió a través del desierto como una manada. 53 Él los guió seguros y sin temor, pero el mar abrumó a Sus enemigos. 54 Entonces Él los trajo a la frontera de Su tierra santa, a esta montaña que Su mano derecha adquirió. 55 Él expulsó a las naciones de delante de ellos y les asignó su herencia. Él instaló a las tribus de Israel en sus tiendas. 56 Sin embargo ellos retaron y desafiaron al Dios

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Altísimo y no guardaron Sus mandamientos solemnes. 57 Ellos eran infieles y actuaron a traición como sus padres; ellos eran poco confiables como un arco defectuoso. 58 Pues Lo enojaron con sus lugares altos y Lo provocaron a ira celosa con sus ídolos. 59 Cuando Dios oyó esto, Él se enojó y rechazó completamente a Israel. 60 Él abandonó el santuario de Silo, la tienda donde Él había vivido entre la gente. 61 Él permitió que Su fuerza fuera capturada y dio Su gloria en la mano del enemigo. 62 Él entregó Su pueblo a la espada, y se enojó con Su heredad. 63 El fuego devoró a sus hombres jóvenes, y sus doncellas no tuvieron canciones de boda. 64 Sus sacerdotes cayeron por la espada, y sus viudas no pudieron llorar. 65 Entonces el Señor despertó como uno del sueño, como un guerrero que grita debido al vino. 66 Él hizo retroceder a Sus adversarios; Él los llevó a la vergüenza eterna. 67 Él rechazó la tienda de José, y no escogió la tribu de Efraín. 68 Él escogió la tribu de Judá y el Monte Sion que Él amó. 69 Él construyó Su santuario como los cielos, como la tierra que Él ha establecido para siempre. 70 Él escogió a David, Su siervo, y lo sacó de los rediles. 71 Él lo sacó de estar cuidando las ovejas hembras con sus crías, y lo trajo a ser pastor de Jacob, Su pueblo, y de Israel, Su heredad. 72 David los pastoreó con la integridad de su corazón, y los guió con la destreza de sus manos.

Psalms 78:1

Información alterna:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

mi enseñanza
"yo como te enseño"

las palabras de mi boca
La pala cosas escondidas bra "boca" es una metonimia para la persona que las habla. Traducción alterna: "mis palabras"

abriré mi boca en parábolas
"abre mi boca y cuenta parábolas" cantaré acerca

"contar." Vea cómo se traduce "derrama" en 19:1.

cosas escondidas
Si su idioma tiene una palabra para dichos que son intencionalmente difíciles de entender, puede usarla aquí.

Psalms 78:3

Información general:
El versículo 3 continúa la oración comenzada en el versículo 2.

No las ocultaremos de sus descendientes
"Ciertamente les diremos a nuestros descendientes sobre ellos"

las obras elogiables del SEÑOR
"las cosas por las que alabamos a Yahweh"

Psalms 78:5

Él estableció
''El SEÑOR estableció''

decretos de pacto
Otros significados posibles son "testimonios" o "leyes".

Psalms 78:7

información general:
El escritor habla de los "niños" de 78:5.

Psalms 78:9

Los efrainitas ... día de la batalla
Posiblemente sea una metáfora para no guardar el pacto (versículo 10), pero es mejor traducirlo literalmente.

Los efrainitas
''los soldados efrainitas''

estaban armados con arcos
Los soldados probablemente también tenían flechas. Traducción alterna: "tenían arcos y flechas como armas"

Psalms 78:12

tierra de Zoán
Esto se refiere al área alrededor de la ciudad de Zoan, que estaba en Egipto. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Psalms 78:15

Él partió
''Dios partió''

suficiente para llenar las profundidades del mar Esto es probablemente una hipérbole. Traducción alterna: "más agua de la que podrían beber" arroyos

ríos pequeños

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 78:17

Ellos retaron a Dios
Querían que Dios demostrara que podía hacer lo que dijo que haría antes de creerle.

en sus corazones
''con todo su corazón''

para satisfacer sus apetitos
"para que pudieran comer tanto como quisieran"

Psalms 78:19

Ellos hablaron
Los Israelitas hablaron

¿Puede Dios realmente poner una mesa para nosotros en el desierto?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡No creemos que Dios pueda realmente poner una mesa para nosotros en el desierto!" o "Dios, ¡demuéstranos que realmente puedes ponernos una mesa en el desierto!"

poner una mesa
"proporcionarnos comida"

aguas salieron a chorro
mucha agua salía muy rápido

¿Pero puede Él dar pan también? ¿Proveerá Él carne para Su pueblo?
La gente se ríe de Dios para insultarlo con estas preguntas. Traducción alterna: "Pero no creeremos que él pueda darnos pan también o proporcionar carne para su pueblo hasta que lo veamos hacerlo".

pan ... carne
comida de plantas o comida de animales. Aunque este es un merismo para todo tipo de alimentos, es mejor traducirlo literalmente si es posible.

Psalms 78:21

Su ira atacó a Israel
''porque ÉL estaba enojado, ataco a Israel''

no confiaron en Su salvación
''No confiaron en Él para salvarlos''

Psalms 78:23

Él ordenó a los cielos
Asaf habla de los cielos como si fueran una persona que pudiera escuchar y obedecer los mandamientos de Dios. Traducción alterna: "habló al cielo"

cielos
Los posibles significados son: 1) cielo 2) nubes

abrió las puertas del cielo
Asaf habla del cielo como si fuera un almacén con puertas. Traducción alterna: "abrió el cielo como si fuera un almacén"

Él llovió maná para que ellos comieran, y les dio el grano del cielo
Estas dos líneas hablan del mismo evento.

Él llovió maná
''Él hizo que el maná caiga del cielo como lluvia''

el pan de ángeles
Esto habla del maná. ''el mismo tipo de alimento que comen los ángeles''

comida en abundancia
''una gran cantidad de comida''

Psalms 78:26

Él causó
''Dios causó''

Él llovió carne sobre ellos como el polvo
"Hizo que la carne cayera del cielo como la lluvia, y había tanta cantidad que cubrió el suelo como el polvo" carne aves

como el polvo ... tan numerosas como las arenas del mar
Habían más aves de las que cualquiera podría contar.

Psalms 78:29

desearon
''desearon fuertemente''

Psalms 78:31

Entonces
Mientras la comida seguía cayendo a sus bocas (78:29)

la ira de Dios los atacó
"Dios estaba enojado y los atacó". Ver cómo "su ira atacó a Israel" se traduce en 78:21.

derribó
"mató"

no creyeron en Sus obras maravillosas
La palabra "obras" es una metonimia para Dios, quien hizo las obras. Lo que no creían se puede decir claramente. Traducción alterna: "no creía que los cuidaría a pesar de que había hecho hechos tan maravillosos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 78:33

Información general:
El escritor continúa contando lo que Dios hizo a los israelitas.

cortó sus días
"Los mató cuando aún eran jóvenes"

sus años fueron llenos de terror Asaf habla de años como si fueran contenedores. Traducción alterna: "año tras año tenían miedo todo el tiempo"

a buscarlo a Él
preguntarle qué necesitaban hacer para que los protegiera

los afligía, ellos comenzaban ... regresaban y Lo buscaban sinceramente.
Estas son personas diferentes de aquellos cuyos días Dios "acortó". Cuando algunos de ellos murieron, otros "comenzarían a buscar" a Dios.

regresaban
''se arrepentían'' o ''de verdad lamentaban sus pecados''

sinceramente
''urgentemente'' o ''de la mejor forma que podían''

Psalms 78:35

Información general:
relatos de lo que hicieron los israelitas.

traían a la memoria
"Recordar." Ver como se tradujo esto en 20:3.

Dios era su roca
El escritor habla de Dios como si fuera una colina o montaña donde la gente podría ir a salvo de sus enemigos. Traducción alterna: "Dios fue quien los protegió"

su rescatador
"el que los recató"

Lo exaltaban
''decían que era asombroso cuando ellos no lo creían''

con su boca
La palabra "bocas" es una metonimia de las palabras que pronunciaron usando sus bocas.

sus corazones no estaban firmemente fijos en Él
"no confiaron en él" o "no fueron leales a él"

Psalms 78:38

perdonaba su iniquidad
"los perdonó a pesar de que habían hecho malas acciones"

Él detenía Su enojo Asaf habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera una persona enojada a la que Dios se aferró para evitar que atacara a la persona que lo hizo enojar. Traducción alterna: "no los castigó a pesar de que estaba enojado con ellos"

no agitaba toda Su ira Asaf habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera una persona dormida a la que Dios permitió dormir y no despertó. Traducción alterna: "no se permitió enojarse por completo con ellos"

Psalms 78:39

traía a memoria
"recordado." Ver cómo se traduce "llamar a la mente" en 20: 3.

ellos eran hechos de carne
La palabra "carne", que es débil y luego muere, es una metonimia para la debilidad humana y la muerte. Traducción alterna: "los israelitas eran débiles y algún día morirían"

regiones estériles
''lugares donde nada crece'' retaban a Dios

Querían que Dios demostrara que podía hacer lo que dijo que haría antes de creerle. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 78:17.

Psalms 78:42

Informcaión general:
El escritor habla de como Dios rescató a los Israelitas.

Zoán
una ciudad en Egipto

Psalms 78:44

Información general:
El escritor describe lo que Dios hizo

enjambres de moscas tantas moscas que parecían verse cimo una nube que los devoraron

Las moscas hicieron a los egipcios tan infelices como lo habrían hecho si se hubieran comido a los egipcios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

entregó sus cosechas al saltamonte y su trabajo a la langosta
"permitió a los saltamontes comer todos sus cultivos y permitió a las langostas comer todo lo que habían trabajado duro para producir"

infestaron
''fueron a todos lados''

saltamonte
un insecto que come plantas con patas largas que se usa para saltar

Él entregó sus cosechas al saltamonte Asaf habla de las cosechas como un regalo que Dios dio a los saltamontes. Traduccipon alterna: "Permitió que el saltamontes se comiera sus cosechas"

su trabajo a la langosta
"dio su trabajo a la langosta". Asaf habla del trabajo de la gente como si fuera un regalo que Dios dio a los saltamontes. La palabra "trabajo" es una metonimia para los cultivos que su trabajo había producido. Traducción alterna: "permitió que las langostas comieran los cultivos por los que habían trabajado tan duro"

Psalms 78:47

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo a los egipcios

sicómoros
un árbol que da frutos

rayos
relampagos que ocasionan ruidos fuertes.

Él llovió granizo
"Trajo granizo" o "Causó que granizo cayera"

La intensidad de Su ira azotó contra ellos
Asaf habla de la ferocidad de Dios como si fuera una persona que pudiera atacar a otra persona. Traducción alterna: "Estaba enojado con ellos, así que los atacó repentina y ferozmente"

La intensidad de Su ira
"Su ira intensa"

azotó contra ellos
"los atacó cuando no esperaban que sucediera nada"

Él envió ira, furia y problemas como agentes que traen desastre Asaf habla de ira, furia y problemas como si fueran personas que Dios puede enviar para que haga su trabajo por él. Traducción alterna: "Estaba tan enojado que quería dañar a los egipcios, así que les causó problemas y los llevó al desastre"

furia
enojo que hace a uno querer lastimar a otros.

Psalms 78:50

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo a los egipcios

Él aplanó un camino para Su enojo
El salmista habla de la ira como si fuera una persona que podía caminar con El SEÑOR preparándose para castigar a las personas como si estuviera haciendo un camino suave para que una persona caminara. Traducción alterna: "Estaba tan enojado que hizo todo lo posible para dañarlos" o "Fue como si su ira fuera un ejército y él hizo un camino suave para que avanzara"

Él no los liberó de la muerte
"no evitó que murieran los egipcios" o "no permitió que vivieran los egipcios"

los entregó a la plaga Asaf habla de la plaga como si fuera una persona que iba a dañar a los egipcios. Traducción alterna: "los puso muy enfermos con la plaga"

los primogénitos de su fortaleza
"sus mejores y más importantes hombres"

en las tiendas de Cam
"entre las familias de Egipto"

Psalms 78:52

información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo a los egipcios

como ovejas ... como una manada
El escritor habla de los israelitas como si fueran ovejas. Esto significa que Dios cuidó y protegió a las personas como lo hace un pastor con sus ovejas.

abrumó
''cubriendo completamente''

Psalms 78:54

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de israel.

Su mano derecha adquirió
Las palabras "mano derecha" son una metonimia para el poder. Traducción alterna: "ganó para sí mismo usando su propio poder"

asignó su herencia
Los significados posibles son 1) Dios asignó a los israelitas su herencia en la tierra en la que las otras naciones habían vivido alguna vez o 2) Dios asignó

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a las naciones a las que había expulsado una herencia en otro lugar. "les dio tierra que siempre sería de ellos"

en sus tiendas
Los posibles significados son 1) instaló a Israel en sus propias tiendas en la tierra o 2) instaló a Israel en las tiendas de donde había expulsado a las otras naciones. La mayoría de estas "carpas" eran en realidad casas, tanto cuando las otras naciones vivían en ellas como cuando los israelitas vivían en ellas. Traducción alterna: "en sus hogares"

Psalms 78:56

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de Israel.

retaron y desafiaron
Estas palabras significan casi lo mismo. El escritor los usa a ambos para enfatizar que los israelitas no creían que Dios los proveería o castigaría el mal como había dicho que haría.

retaron
Querían que Dios demostrara que podía hacer lo que dijo que haría antes de creerle. Ver cómo tradujo esta idea en 78:17.

desafiaron
''se negaron a obedecer''

eran infieles y actuaron a traición
Estas palabras significan casi lo mismo. El escritor los usa a ambos para enfatizar que los israelitas no hicieron por Dios lo que habían dicho que harían.

Psalms 78:58

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de Israel.

Lo enojaron con sus lugares altos y Lo provocaron a ira celosa con sus ídolos.
Estas dos frases están en paralelo y tienen significados similares.

Psalms 78:60

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de Israel.

Él permitió que Su fuerza fuera capturada y dio Su gloria en la mano del enemigo Asaf habla de la fuerza y la gloria de Dios como estos si fueran objetos físicos que las personas pudieran capturar y sostener. Las palabras "fuerza" y "gloria" son probablemente sinónimos del arca del pacto. La palabra "mano" es una metonimia para el poder del enemigo. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Permitió a sus enemigos capturar el arca gloriosa de su pacto; simplemente se los dio para que pudieran hacer lo que quisieran con él"

Psalms 78:62

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de Israel.

Él entregó Su pueblo a la espada Asaf habla del pueblo de Dios como si fuera un pequeño objeto que Dios daría como regalo, y de la espada, un metonimo para la muerte en la guerra, como si fuera una persona que pudiera recibir un regalo. Traducción alterna: "Permitió que la gente matara a toda su gente en la guerra"

se enojó con Su heredad
"Estaba enojado con la gente que había dicho que sería suya para siempre"

fuego devoró a sus hombres jóvenes Los posibles significados son 1) "El enemigo usó el fuego para matar a todos sus jóvenes" o 2) "Sus jóvenes murieron rápidamente en la batalla como un fuego quema hierba seca". No comunique que estas personas usaron armas de fuego.

devoró
''devorar'' es comer todo muy rápido.

boda
La celebración de un matrimonio.

Psalms 78:64

Sus sacerdotes cayeron por la espada
"Los enemigos mataron a muchos sacerdotes israelitas usando espadas"

sus viudas no pudieron llorar Los posibles significados son 1) alguien obligó a las viudas a no llorar o 2) murieron tantos sacerdotes que no hubo tiempo para los funerales adecuados.

viudas
mujeres cuyos esposos murieron

el Señor despertó como uno del sueño
"Era como si El SEÑOR se despertara de dormir"

como un guerrero que grita debido al vino Los significados posibles son 1) como un guerrero que había bebido demasiado vino y se enojó porque estaba despierto y por eso quiere pelear o 2) como un guerrero que bebió mucho vino pero ahora puede pensar y pelear bien porque ha dormido.

Psalms 78:67

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo por el pueblo de Israel.

tienda de José
"descendientes de José"

José ... Efraín
Efraín era el hijo de José

Judá ... Monte Sion
Monte Sió era la tierra donde la tribu de Judá vivía.

como los cielos
''alto como los cielos''

como la tierra
"firme y fuerte como la tierra"

Psalms 78:70

Información general:
El escritor continúa describiendo lo que Dios hizo

de los rediles
"desde donde trabajaba en los rediles"

rediles
espacios con paredes alrededor de ellos donde las ovejas se mantienen seguras

a ser pastor de Jacob, Su pueblo, y de Israel, Su heredad La palabra "pastor" es una metáfora para quien dirige y protege a otras personas. Traducción alterna: "para dirigir y proteger a los descendientes de Jacob, su pueblo, y de Israel, su herencia"

Su heredad
"los que había elegido para ser suyos para siempre" Ver cómo se traduce esto en 78:62.

David los pastoreó
La palabra "pastoreó" es una metáfora para liderar y proteger. Traducción alterna: "David los guío y los protegió"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 79

1 Dios, naciones extranjeras han venido a Tu heredad; ellos han contaminado Tu santo templo; ellos han tornado a Jerusalén en un montón de ruinas. 2 Ellos han dado los cuerpos muertos de tus siervos como alimento a las aves del cielo; los cuerpos de Tu pueblo fiel a las bestias de la tierra. 3 Ellos han derramado su sangre como agua alrededor de Jerusalén, y no había nadie que los enterrara. 4 Nos hemos convertido en un reproche para nuestros vecinos, burlas y mofas de aquellos que están a nuestro alrederor. 5 ¿Hasta cuándo, SEÑOR? ¿Hasta cuándo Tu ira celosa quemará como fuego? 6 Derrama Tu ira sobre las naciones que no Te conocen y en los reinos que no invocan Tu nombre. 7 Pues ellos han devorado a Jacob y destruído sus aldeas. 8 No retengas los pecados de nuestros antepasados en nuestra contra; que Tus obras misericordiosas vengan a nosotros, pues estamos muy débiles. 9 Ayúdanos, Dios de nuestra salvación, por el bien de la gloria de Tu nombre; sálvanos y perdona nuestros pecados por el bien de Tu nombre. 10 ¿Por qué las naciones dirán: "Dónde esta su Dios?" Que la sangre de Tus siervos, que fue derramada, sea vengada en las naciones frente a nuestros ojos. 11 Que los quejidos de los prisioneros vengan delante de Tí; con la grandeza de Tu poder mantén vivos a los hijos de la muerte. 12 Págale de vuelta a nuestros países vecinos siete veces tanto como los insultos que ellos Te han insultado, Señor. 13 Así nosotros, Tu pueblo y ovejas de Tu pasto, Te daremos gracias por siempre. Nosotros diremos Tus alabanzas a todas las generaciones.

Psalms 79:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Tu heredad
"la tierra que sería tuya para siempre" Ver cómo se traduce esto en 68:9.

Ellos han derramado su sangre como agua
La palabra "sangre" es un metonimo para la vida inocente. Derramar sangre es matar a personas inocentes. La mayoría de la gente veía agua todos los días, por lo que para que la sangre fuera tan común como el agua, muchas personas inocentes tendrían que morir. Traducción alterna: "Han matado a tantas personas inocentes que la sangre está en todas partes, como el agua después de que llueve"

nadie que los enterrara
"nadie que enterrara a las personas muertas"

Psalms 79:4

Nos hemos convertido en un reproche para nuestros vecinos, burlas y mofas de aquellos que están a nuestro alrederor
Las palabras "reproche", "burla" y "burla" son metonyms para aquellos a quienes otros reprochan, se burlan y se burlan. Traducción alterna: "Nos hemos convertido en personas a las que nuestros vecinos reprochan; los que nos rodean se burlan y se burlan de nosotros"

Nos hemos convertido
''nos'' se refiere al pueblo de Dios

mofas risa fuerte para humillar a una persona

¿Hasta cuándo Tu ira celosa quemará como fuego?
Esto puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Parece que tu ira celosa nunca dejará de arder como el fuego".

Tu ira celosa quemará
Las palabras "ira celosa" hablan de que Dios está celoso y enojado. Traducción alterna: "estarás celoso y enojado" quemará como fuego

Este símil compara la expresión de la ira de Dios con un fuego que destruye cosas. Traducción alterna: "destruirnos"

Psalms 79:6

Información general:
Estos dos pares de frases comparten significados similares y se combinan para enfatizar.

Derrama Tu ira sobre las naciones Asaf habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera un líquido. Traducción alterna: "Ya que estás enojado, castiga a las naciones"

no invocan Tu nombre La palabra "nombre" es una metonimia para el poder y la autoridad de la persona. Traducción alterna: "no te pertenezco" o "no te pido que les ayudes"

ellos han devorado a Jacob La palabra "Jacob" es un mentón para sus descendientes, el pueblo de Israel. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

alterna: "han destruido completamente al pueblo de Israel"

Psalms 79:8

No retengas los pecados de nuestros antepasados en nuestra contra
"No sigas recordando los pecados de nuestros antepasados y castíganos por ellos" o "Perdónanos por los pecados de nuestros antepasados"

Dios de nuestra salvación
La palabra "salvación" se puede traducir con el verbo "salvar": "Dios que nos salva".

por el bien de la gloria de Tu nombre La palabra "nombre" es una metonimia de su reputación, de lo que la gente sabe de él. Traducción alterna: "para que la gente sepa sobre tu gloria"

por el bien de Tu nombre
El nombre de Dios aquí representa todo su ser y el honor que se merece. Traducción alterna: "para que la gente te honre" o "por tu propio bien"

Psalms 79:10

¿Por qué las naciones dirán: "Dónde esta su Dios?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Las naciones no deberían poder decir, '¿Dónde está su Dios?'"

Dónde esta su Dios?
Esta burla se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "¡Su Dios no puede hacer nada!"

Que la sangre de Tus siervos, que fue derramada, sea vengada en las naciones frente a nuestros ojos Derramar sangre es una metonimia para matar personas inocentes. Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Venga a tus sirvientes inocentes a quienes las naciones mataron donde podemos verte hacerlo".

frente a nuestros ojos
"a nuestra vista" o "mientras estamos presentes"

Que los quejidos de los prisioneros vengan delante de Tí Asaf habla del sonido que hacen los prisioneros con dolor y pena como si fuera una persona que aparece ante un rey. Traducción alterna: "Escuche atentamente los gemidos de los prisioneros y ayúdelos"

hijos de la muerte
"aquellos que están condenados a morir"

Psalms 79:12

Págale de vuelta ... los insultos ... Señor
Asaf habla de las malas acciones que los países vecinos hicieron contra Israel como "insultos" y como estos si fueran objetos físicos. Le pide al Señor que cuente esos hechos, y por cada uno de los hechos que cometieron los países vecinos, le pide al Señor que alguien haga siete actos malvados a los países vecinos.

Págale de vuelta
"Devolver" o "Dar de vuelta"

en los regazos
sobre las rodillas y muslos mientras están sentados. Esta es una metáfora de "directa y personalmente".

nosotros, Tu pueblo y ovejas de Tu pasto, Te daremos gracias La palabra "oveja" es una metáfora para personas indefensas a las que un pastor protege y dirige. Traducción alterna: "nosotros, quienes somos tu gente, a quienes proteges y lideras, te lo agradeceremos"

diremos Tus alabanzas a todas las generaciones
"asegúrate de que todas las generaciones venideras conozcan todas las cosas buenas que has hecho"

Tus alabanzas
Esta es una metonimia para "las cosas buenas por las cuales la gente te alabará"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 80

1 ¡Presta atención, Pastor de Israel, Tú que diriges a José como una manada; Tú que Te sientas sobre los querubines, resplandece en nosotros! 2 A la vista de Efraín y Benjamín y Manáses, derrama Tu poder; vén y sálvanos. 3 Dios, restáuranos; haz brillar Tu rostro sobre nosotros, y nosotros seremos salvos. 4 SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, ¿cuánto tiempo estarás enojado contra Tu pueblo cuando ellos oran? 5 Los has alimentado con pan de lágrimas y le has dado a beber lágrimas en grandes cantidades. 6 Nos has hecho objeto de discusión entre nuestros vecinos, y nuestros enemigos se ríen de nosotros entre ellos. 7 Dios de los ejercitos, restáuranos; haz que Tu rostro brille en nosotros, y seremos salvos. 8 Tú sacaste una vid fuera de Egipto; Tú expulsas naciones y las transplantas. 9 Tu limpiaste la tierra para ella; ella hizo raíces y llenó la tierra. 10 Las montañas se cubrieron con su sombra y los cedros de Dios con sus ramas. 11 Ella echó sus ramas tan lejos como el mar y sus brotes hasta el Río Eufrates. 12 ¿Por qué has derribado sus paredes para que todos los que pasen tomen sus frutas? 13 Los puercos del monte la arruinan, y las bestias del campo se alimentan de ella. 14 Vuélvete, Dios de los cielos; mira abajo desde los cielos y toma en cuenta y ten cuidado de esta viña. 15 Esta es la raíz que Tu mano derecha plantó, el brote que has hecho crecer. 16 Esta ha sido quemada y cortada; ellos perecen debido a tu reprensión. 17 Que tu mano esté sobre el Hombre a Tu mano derecha, el Hijo del Hombre que hiciste fuerte para Tí. 18 Entonces no nos apartaremos de Tí; revívenos, y nosotros clamaremos a Tu nombre. 19 SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, restáuranos; haz que tu rostro resplandezca sobre nosotros, y seremos salvos.

Psalms 80:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Pastor de Israel
Asaf se esta refiriendo a Dios como uno de los que lideran y protegen a Israel.

Tú que diriges a José como una manada
'' tu que diriges a los descendientes de José como si ellos fueran un rebaño de ovejas''

José
Aquí José representa a la nación de Israel.

Tú que Te sientas sobre los querubines
La tapa o cubierta del arca del pacto en el templo, el trono simbólico desde el cual Dios gobernaba a Israel, tenía querubines de oro unidos, uno en cada extremo, uno frente al otro.

resplandece en nosotros
Asaf habla de Dios como si fuera el sol, dando luz, una metáfora de la bondad moral. Traducción alterna: "danos luz" o "muéstranos la forma correcta de vivir"

derrama Tu poder
La frase "agitar" significa "poner en acción".

haz brillar Tu rostro sobre nosotros
El escritor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si el rostro del SEÑOR los iluminara. Traducción alterna: "actuar favorablemente hacia nosotros"

y nosotros seremos salvos
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y, por favor, sálvanos" o "para que pueda salvarnos"

Psalms 80:4

Tu pueblo
Israel.

Los has alimentado con pan de lágrimas y le has dado a beber lágrimas en grandes cantidades
Las palabras "pan de lágrimas" y "lágrimas para beber" son metáforas de la tristeza continua. Traducción alterna: "Te has asegurado de que estén muy tristes todo el tiempo"

Psalms 80:7

Información general:
Asaph está hablando en nombre del pueblo de Israel. Comienza en el versículo 8 para hablar de la forma en que Dios estableció a Israel en su tierra como si Dios fuera un hombre limpiando el terreno para plantar una vid. Si necesita traducir el significado de la historia en lugar de la historia en sí, vea cómo la UDB la traduce.

haz que Tu rostro brille en nosotros El escritor habla de Yahweh actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si el rostro de El SEÑOR los iluminara. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 80:1. Traducción alterna: "actuar favorablemente hacia nosotros"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

seremos salvos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tú nos salvarás"

Tú sacaste una vid fuera de Egipto
Asaf compara a la nación de Israel con una vid preparada para trasplantar. Traducción alterna: "Nos sacaste, como una vid, de Egipto"

Tú expulsas naciones y las transplantas
El salmista habla de su pueblo como si fuera una planta que EL SEÑOR estaba trasplantando. Traducción alterna: "Expulsaste a las naciones de su tierra y nos la diste, la vid, y nos plantaste allí"

Psalms 80:9

información general:
Asaph continúa hablando de la forma en que Dios estableció a Israel en su tierra como si Dios fuera un hombre limpiando el terreno para plantar una vid. Si necesita traducir el significado de la historia en lugar de la historia en sí, vea cómo la UDB la traduce.

Tu limpiaste la tierra para ella
''Tu limpiaste la tierra para la vid"

ella hizo raíces
''la vid tomó raíces'' o ''la vid comenzó a crecer''

llenó la tierra
''sus ramas cubrieron la tierra''

Las montañas se cubrieron con su sombra y los cedros de Dios con sus ramas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Su sombra cubría las montañas, sus ramas los cedros de Dios"

los cedros de Dios con sus ramas
"y los cedros de Dios estaban cubiertos por sus ramas", que copia el verbo de la oración anterior. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y sus ramas cubrían los cedros de Dios"

cedros de Dios
Los significados posibles son 1) "los cedros más altos", los cedros que crecieron en las "montañas" en la tierra del Líbano al norte de Israel, o 2) "los propios cedros de Dios".

el mar
El mar mediterraneo al oeste de Israel brotes

partes de una nueva planta que recién esta comenzando a crecer por arriba del suelo.

Psalms 80:12

Información general:
Asaf continúa hablando de la forma en que Dios estableció a Israel en su tierra como si Dios fuera un hombre limpiando el terreno para plantar una vid. Si necesita traducir el significado de la historia en lugar de la historia en sí, vea cómo la UDB la traduce.

sus paredes
paredes de piedra, no de madera.

puercos
cerdos salvajes que arruinan jardines y granjas y atacan a las personas. Si sus lectores no saben cuáles son, use la palabra para un animal salvaje que arruina jardines y granjas y ataca a las personas.

monte tierra donde hay muchos árboles

bestias aniamles salvajes de cualquier tipo

campo
tierra donde hay muchas plantas pero no árboles

Psalms 80:14

Información general:
Asaf termina de hablar de la forma en que Dios estableció a Israel en su tierra como si Dios fuera un hombre limpiando el terreno para plantar una vid. Si es necesario traducir el significado de la historia en lugar de la historia en sí, vea cómo la UDB la traduce.

Vuélvete
"Vuelve a nosotros" o "Ven y ayúdanos de nuevo"

y toma en cuenta
"y mira"

esta viña
El escritor continúa comparando la nación de Israel con la vid.

Esta es la raíz que Tu mano derecha plantó
La mano derecha representa el poder y el control del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Esta es la raíz que tú, SEÑOR, plantaste"

brote
La parte de una nueva planta que está empezando a crecer sobre el suelo. Ver cómo se traduce esto en 80:9.

cortada; ellos perecen debido a tu reprensión Los significados posibles son 1) contada; tu pueblo perece debido a tu reprensión "o 2)" cortada. ¡Que tus enemigos perezcan por tu reprensión! "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 80:17

tu mano
Esto se refiere al poder y control del SEÑOR.

el hombre a tu mano derecha la nación de Israel, que El SEÑOR ha elegido como su pueblo.

mano derecha
Cuando un hombre en Israel quería honrar a otro hombre, tenía a ese otro hombre parado a su lado derecho, cerca de su mano derecha.

no nos apartaremos de ti
"no dejaremos de adorarte y obedecerte" o "siempre te adoraremos y obedeceremos"

Psalms 80:19

resplandezca sobre nosotros
El escritor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si el rostro del SEÑOR los iluminara. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 80:1. Traducción alterna: "actuar favorablemente hacia nosotros"

seremos salvos.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''tu vas a salvarnos''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 81

1 Canten en voz alta a Dios, nuestra fuerza; aclamen con gozo al Dios de Jacob. 2 Canten una canción y toquen el pandero, la lira placentera con el arpa. 3 Soplen el cuerno del macho cabrío en el día de la luna nueva, en el día de la luna llena, cuando comienza nuestro día de fiesta. 4 Pues es un estatuto para Israel, un decreto dado por el Dios de Jacob. 5 Él la emitió como regla en José cuando Él fue en contra de la tierra de Egipto, donde yo oí una voz que yo no reconocí: 6 "Yo removí la carga de su hombro; sus manos fueron libradas de sostener la canasta. 7 En tu aflicción llamaste, y Yo te ayudé; Yo te contesté desde un nubarrón oscuro. Yo te probé en las aguas de Meriba. 8 Escucha, pueblo Mío, pues Yo te advertiré, Israel, ¡si solamente me escucharas! 9 No puede haber ningún dios extranjero entre ustedes; no pueden adorar a ningún dios extranjero. 10 Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios, quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto. Abre tu boca bien grande y Yo la llenaré. 11 Pero Mi pueblo no escuchó Mis palabras; Israel no Me obedeció. 12 Asi que Yo los entregué a su propio camino de terquedad para que pudieran hacer lo que les parecía bien a ellos. 13 Oh, que Mi pueblo Me escuchara; oh, que Mi pueblo anduviera en Mis caminos. 14 Entonces Yo rápidamente dominaría a sus enemigos y volvería Mi mano en contra de sus opresores. 15 ¡Que aquellos que odian al SEÑOR se encojan de miedo delante de Él! Que sean humillados para siempre. 16 Yo alimentaría a Israel con el trigo más fino; Yo les saciaría a ustedes con miel sacada de la roca."

Psalms 81:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea.

Información general:
Un salmo de Asaf.

Dios, nuestra fuerza
El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" se puede expresar como "fuerte". Traducción alterna: "Dios que nos hace fuertes"

al Dios de Jacob Aquí "Jacob" representa a todos sus descendientes. Traducción alterna: "el Dios de Israel, la nación de los descendientes de Jacob"

toquen el pandero, la lira placentera con el arpa Estos son instrumentos musicales.

pandero
Un instrumento musical con una cabeza como un tambor que puede ser golpeado y con piezas de metal alrededor del lado que suenan cuando se sacude el instrumento

luna nueva
Este es el comienzo del mes lunar.

el día de la luna llena
Esta es la mitad del mes lunar.

cuando comienza nuestro día de fiesta
"y en los días en que comienzan nuestras fiestas"

Psalms 81:4

pues es
Aquí "es" se refiere al día de la fiesta.

un decreto dado por el Dios de Jacob Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el Dios de Jacob lo decretó" o "el Dios de Jacob lo ordenó"

emitió como regla
"la dió como una ley"

en José
Aquí "José" representa a todos los israelitas. Traducción alterna: "a los israelitas" cuando Él fue en contra de la tierra de Egipto Esto se refiere a los acontecimientos históricos en Egipto cuando el pueblo de Israel fue esclavizado y Dios los rescató.

la tierra de Egipto
Aquí "tierra" representa a la gente. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Egipto"

Psalms 81:6

Información general:
Aquí comienza a hablar Dios.

removí la carga de su hombro
Aquí "la carga de su hombro" representa el trabajo forzado que los israelitas tuvieron que hacer como esclavos en Egipto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sus manos fueron libradas de sostener la canasta
Aquí "sostener la canasta" representa el trabajo forzado que los israelitas tuvieron que hacer como esclavos en Egipto.

En tu aflicción
"En tu gran sufrimiento"

Yo te contesté desde un nubarrón oscuro
Cuando Dios vino a los israelitas, escondió la plenitud de su presencia y gloria en una nube oscura y amenazante.

Yo te probé en las aguas de Meriba
Dios probó a los hijos de Israel para ver si confiaban en él para suministrar agua en el desierto de Meriba.

Psalms 81:8

información general:
El SEÑOR recuerda a la gente lo que dijo mientras estaban en el desierto.

pues Yo te advertiré
''porque te estoy dando una advertencia''

Israel
Aquí "Israel" representa al pueblo de Israel. Traducción alterna: "Israelitas" o "pueblo de Israel" .

si solamente me escucharas!
"¡Cómo me gustaría que me escucharas" o "pero debes comenzar a escucharme!"

Abre tu boca bien grande y Yo la llenaré
Se habla de Dios que se ocupa de todas las necesidades de la gente como si fuera un pájaro madre alimentando a sus pájaros bebés.

Psalms 81:11

Información general:
Ahora El SEÑOR cuenta lo que sucedió después de advertir a la gente.

Mis palabras
Aquí "palabras" representa lo que Dios dijo. Traducción alterna: "a lo que dije" o "a mí"

Asi que Yo los entregué a su propio camino de terquedad
Se dice que Dios permite que la gente permanezca obstinada como si Dios los estuviera entregando a un enemigo para dejar que el enemigo los lastime. Traducción alterna: "Por lo tanto, los dejo ser tercos"

Psalms 81:13

oh, que Mi pueblo anduviera en Mis caminos Se dice que Dios quiere que la gente lo obedezca como si quisiera que la gente caminara por sus caminos o caminos. Traducción alterna: "Desearía que obedecieran mis leyes"

volvería Mi mano en contra Aquí "mano" representa el poder del SEÑOR.Traducción alterna: "destruiría" o "derrotaría"

Psalms 81:15

que odian al SEÑOR ... delante de Él El SEÑOR está hablando de sí mismo en tercera persona. Traducción alterna: "quien me odia ... antes que yo"

encojan de miedo
"inclinarse con miedo" o "caer con miedo"

Que sean humillados para siempre
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducciónalterna: "Los humillaría para siempre" o "Los castigaré para siempre"

Yo alimentaría a Israel con el trigo más fino Se dice que Dios causó que el mejor trigo creciera en Israel como si literalmente alimentara el trigo a la gente. Traducción alterna: "Permitiría a los israelitas comer el mejor trigo"

alimentaría a Israel ... saciaría a ustedes Tanto "Israel" como "usted" se refieren a los israelitas.

miel sacada de la roca
Esto se refiere a la miel salvaje. Las abejas construirían colmenas en los agujeros en las rocas y harían la miel allí.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 82

1 Dios está de pie en la divina asamblea; entre los dioses Él pronuncia juicio. 2 ¿Por cuánto tiempo juzgarán ustedes injustamente y mostrarán favoritismo a los malvados? 3 Defiendan a los pobres y huérfanos; mantengan los derechos de los afligidos y desamparados. 4 Rescaten a los pobres y necesitados; sáquenlos de la mano de los malvados. 5 Ellos ni saben ni entienden; ellos vagan por la oscuridad; todos los cimientos de la tierra se desmoronan. 6 Yo dije: "Ustedes son dioses, y todos ustedes hijos del Altísimo. 7 No obstante, ustedes morirán como hombres y caerán como uno de los príncipes." 8 Levántate, Dios, juzga la tierra, pues Tú tienes una heredad en todas las naciones.

Psalms 82:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

la divina asamblea
"el concilio celestial" o "la reunión en el cielo"

Él pronuncia juicio
"él da juicio". El sustantivo abstracto "juicio" puede expresarse como un verbo. Traducicón alterna: "él juzga"

los dioses
Los significados posibles son 1) estos son otros seres espirituales que habitan en el cielo. Traducción alterna: "los seres divinos" o "los jueces celestiales" o 2) estos son jueces humanos que Dios ha designado. De cualquier manera, no significa que sean dioses como El SEÑOR es dios. Significa que Dios les ha dado un gran poder y autoridad. Traducción alterna: "los gobernantes"

¿Por cuánto tiempo juzgarán ustedes injustamente y mostrarán favoritismo a los malvados?
El SEÑOR usa una pregunta para reprender a los dioses por no juzgar a las personas de manera justa.

Psalms 82:3

los pobres y huérfanos Aquí "los pobres" y "huérfanos" son adjetivos nominales. Se pueden indicar como adjetivos. Traducción alterna: "los pobres y los huérfanos" mantengan los derechos de los ''haz lo que es correcto por los''

afligidos y desamparados Aquí "los afligidos" y "desamparados" son adjetivos nominales. Se pueden indicar como adjetivos. Traducción alterna: "los que sufren y los que no tienen nada"

los pobres y necesitados ... los malvados
Todos estos son adjetivos nominales. Se pueden indicar como adjetivos. Traducción alterna: "los pobres y los necesitados ... los malvados"

sáquenlos de la mano de los malvados
Aquí la palabra "mano" representa poder o control. Traducción alterna: "evita que las personas malvadas les hagan daño"

Psalms 82:5

Ellos ni
Los significados posibles son 1) "ellos" se refieren a los dioses o 2) "ellos" se refieren a las personas malvadas.

ellos vagan por la oscuridad
Se dice que hacer lo malo es como si estuvieran caminando en un lugar muy oscuro.

todos los cimientos de la tierra se desmoronan
Se habla de los dioses que corrompen el orden moral que El SEÑOR estableció como si los dioses sacudieran la tierra y la hicieran desmoronarse.

desmoronan
''romperse''

Psalms 82:6

Ustedes son dioses, y todos ustedes hijos del Altísimo Aquí "dioses" se refiere al mismo grupo que en Psalm 81:2. Si esto se refiere a seres espirituales o seres humanos, no son dioses como Yahweh es Dios, y no son literalmente sus hijos. Al llamarlos "dioses" e "hijos del Altísimo", Yahweh reconoce que les ha dado un gran poder y autoridad.

hijos del Altísimo
EL SEÑOR está hablando de sí mismo como "el Altísimo".

No obstante
''sin embargo''

y caerán
Esta es una forma de hablar de una persona muriendo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 82:8

Información general:
el escritor esta hablando de nuevo

juzga la tierra
Aquí "tierra" representa a la gente. Traducción alterna: "juzga a la gente de la tierra"

pues Tú tienes una heredad en todas las naciones
"Porque todas las naciones son tu herencia". Se dice que El SEÑOR toma a todos los pueblos como suyos y gobierna sobre ellos como si las naciones fueran una posesión que él heredó. Traducicón alterna: "porque gobiernas sobre todas las personas de cada nación"

todas las naciones
Aquí "naciones" representa a la gente de las naciones.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 83

1 Dios, ¡no guardes silencio! No nos ignores y Te quedes indiferente, Dios. 2 Mira, Tus enemigos hacen un alboroto, y aquellos que Te odian han levantado sus cabezas. 3 Ellos conspiran en contra de Tu pueblo y planifican juntos en contra de Tus protegidos. 4 Ellos han dicho: "Vengan, y destruyámoslos como una nación. Entonces el nombre de Israel ya no se recordará." 5 Ellos han maquinado juntos con una estrategia; en contra de Ti ellos han hecho una alianza. 6 Esto incluye las tiendas de Edom y los ismaelitas, el pueblo de Moab y los agarenos, quienes traman juntos con 7 Gebal, Amón, Amalec; también incluye a Filistea y los habitantes de Tiro. 8 Asiria también está aliada con ellos; ellos están ayudando a los descendientes de Lot. 9 Hazle a ellos como le hiciste a Madián, como le hiciste a Sísara y a Jabín en el Río Cisón. 10 Ellos perecieron en Endor y se convirtieron como estiércol para la tierra. 11 Hazle a sus nobles como a Oreb y Zeeb, y todos sus príncipes como Zeba y Zalmuna. 12 Ellos dijeron: "Tomemos para nosotros mismos las pasturas de Dios." 13 Mi Dios, hazlos como remolino de polvo, como paja frente al viento, 14 como el fuego que quema el bosque, y como la llama que enciende las montañas en fuego. 15 Persíguelos con Tu viento fuerte, y aterrorízalos con Tu vendaval. 16 Llena sus rostros de vergüenza de manera que busquen Tu nombre, SEÑOR. 17 Que sean avergonzados y aterrorizados para siempre, que perezcan en desgracia. 18 Entonces ellos sabrán que Tú solo, SEÑOR, eres el Altísimo sobre toda la tierra.

Psalms 83:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

y te quedes indiferente
''y no hagas nada para ayudarnos''

Mira, Tus enemigos hacen un alboroto Aquí "hacer un alboroto" significa que se están sublevando y rebelándose. Traducicón alterna: "Mira, tus enemigos se rebelan contra ti"

aquellos que Te odian han levantado sus cabezas
La frase "levantaron la cabeza" es una forma de decir que se están rebelando contra Dios. Traduccióna alterna: "los que te odian te están desafiando"

Psalms 83:3

Tus protegidos
"aquellos a quienes proteges". Esto se refiere a los israelitas.

el nombre de Israel ya no se recordará
Aquí "nombre" representa una reputación o el recuerdo de alguien. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nadie recordará que los israelitas existieron"

Ellos han maquinado juntos con una estrategia
"Tus enemigos han acordado junto con un plan"

en contra de Ti ellos han hecho una alianza
"se han unido contra ti"

Psalms 83:6

Información general:
El escritor continúa enumerando los grupos de personas que quieren destruir a Israel.

las carpas de Edom
Esto se refiere a la gente de Edom que vivía en tiendas de campaña.

agarenos
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas que vivía en el lado este del río Jordán. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Gebal, Amón, Amalec ... Filistea
Todos estos representan a las personas de cada área o tribu. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Gebal, los amonitas, los amalecitas ... los filisteos"

Gebal
Este es el nombre de una región al sur del Mar Muerto. (Ver: traducir_nombres)

Psalms 83:8

Asiria
Esto representa a la gente de Asiria. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Asiria"

los descendientes de Lot Esto se refiere a la gente de las naciones de Moab y Ammón. Puede aclarar la información entendida.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 83:9

Hazle a ellos ... para la tierra
El escritor le está pidiendo a Dios que derrote a los enemigos de Israel como lo ha hecho en el pasado.

le hiciste a Madián
Aquí "Midian" representa a la gente de Midian. Traducción alterna: "hizo a los madianitas"

Sísara ... Jabín
Estos son nombres de hombres. Jabin era el rey de Hazor. Sísara era el comandante del ejército de Jabin.

Río Cisón
Este es el nombre de un río en el norte de Israel.

Endor
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en el norte de Israel.

se convirtieron como estiércol para la tierra
Esto significa que los cuerpos de Sísara y Jabin no fueron enterrados sino que se pudrieron.

Psalms 83:11

Información general:
El escritor continúa recordándole a Dios a otros enemigos que ha derrotado para Israel en el pasado.

Oreb ... Zeeb ... Zeba ... Zalmuna
Estos son todos nombres de los reyes.

Ellos dijeron
Aquí "Ellos" se refiere a Oreb, Zeeb, Zebah y Zalmunna.

las pasturas de Dios
Esto habla de la tierra de Israel como si fuera tierra para pastar ovejas y Dios fuera el pastor que la cuidara.

Psalms 83:13

Información general:
El escritor usa símiles para describir la destrucción total de Dios de los enemigos de Israel.

hazlos como remolino de polvo, como paja frente al viento Ambas declaraciones hablan de que Dios destruyó a sus enemigos como si fuera un viento fuerte que fácilmente los alejaría.

como el fuego que quema el bosque, y como la llama que enciende las montañas en fuego Ambas declaraciones hablan del castigo de Dios como si fuera un fuego, y los enemigos de Dios son cosas que arden en el fuego.

Persíguelos con Tu viento fuerte, y aterrorízalos con Tu vendaval
Ambas declaraciones le piden a Dios que destruya a los enemigos con tormentas.

Psalms 83:16

Llena sus rostros de vergüenza Aquí "caras" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Hazlos muy avergonzados" de manera que busquen Tu nombre Aquí "nombre" representa el poder de Dios. Se habla de los enemigos de Dios que reconocen que Dios es poderoso como si estuvieran buscando al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "podrían reconocer que eres poderoso"

busquen Tu nombre
Los posibles significados son 1) Los enemigos de Dios admiten que Dios es poderoso o 2) Los enemigos de Dios le piden ayuda a Dios o 3) Los enemigos de Dios comienzan a adorarlo y obedecerlo.

Que sean avergonzados y aterrorizados para siempre Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hazlos avergonzados y aterrorizados para siempre"

que perezcan en desgracia
''Que mueran siendo avergonzados''

Psalms 83:18

Entonces ellos sabrán
Esto también se puede afirmar como el escritor que hace una solicitud a Dios. Traducción alterna: "Haz que sepan" (UDB)

eres el Altísimo sobre toda la tierra Se habla de Dios gobernando sobre todo en la tierra como si fuera elevado más alto que todo lo demás. Traducción alterna: "eres supremo, y tú gobiernas todas las cosas en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 84

1 ¡Cuán hermoso es el lugar donde Tú vives, SEÑOR de los ejércitos! 2 Yo anhelo los atrios del SEÑOR, mi deseo por ellos me ha agotado. Mi corazón y todo mi ser claman por el Dios viviente. 3 Aún el gorrión se ha encontrado una casa y la golondrina un nido para sí misma donde ella pueda poner sus crías cerca de Tus altares, SEÑOR de los ejércitos, mi Rey y mi Dios. 4 Bendecidos son ellos que viven en Tu casa; ellos Te alaban continuamente. 5 Bendecido es el hombre cuya fuerza está en Ti, en cuyo corazón están los caminos hacia Sion. 6 Pasando a través del Valle de Lágrimas, ellos encuentran arroyos de agua para beber. Las lluvias tempranas los cubren de bendiciones. 7 Ellos van de fuerza en fuerza; cada uno de ellos aparece delante de Dios en Sion. 8 ¡SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos, oye mi oración; Dios de Jacob, escucha lo que yo estoy diciendo! 9 Dios, vela por nuestro escudo; muestra preocupación por Tu ungido. 10 Pues un día en Tus atrios es mejor que mil en otro lugar. Mejor yo sería ser un portero en la casa de mi Dios, que vivir en las tiendas de los malvados. 11 Pues el SEÑOR es nuestro sol y escudo; el SEÑOR dará gracia y gloria; Él no retiene ninguna cosa buena de aquellos que caminan en integridad. 12 SEÑOR de los ejércitos, bendecido es el hombre que confía en Ti.

Psalms 84:1

Informacion general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Cuán hermoso
''Cuán adorable''

Yo anhelo los atrios del SEÑOR
''Realmente quiero estar en los atrios del SEÑOR.''

los atrios del SEÑOR, Aquí ''atrios'' representa al templo.

mi deseo por ellos me ha agotado
"mi deseo me ha agotado" o "estoy cansado por lo mucho que lo deseo''

Mi corazón y todo mi ser claman Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Llamo con todo mi ser"

el Dios viviente
Esto significa que Dios está viviendo y que también tiene el poder de hacer que otras cosas vivan.

Psalms 84:3

gorrión ... golondrina Estos son tipos de aves.''

se ha encontrado una casa
"le encontró un hogar" o "hizo un hogar"

la golondrina un nido Aquí se entienden las palabras "ha encontrado" o "ha hecho". Traducción alterna: "la golondrina ha encontrado un nido" o "la golondrina ha hecho un nido" donde ella pueda poner sus crías

"donde puede poner sus huevos y cuidar a sus bebés"

ellos que viven en Tu casa Los significados posibles son 1) "ellos" se refieren a los sacerdotes que sirven permanentemente en el templo o 2) "ellos" se refieren a las personas en general que vienen a adorar al templo.

continuamente
"una y otra vez"

Psalms 84:5

Bendecido es el hombre
Aquí "hombre" se refiere a las personas en general.

cuya fuerza está en Ti
Se habla de Dios como si la fuerza se encontrara realmente en él. Traducicón alterna: "a quien fortaleces"

en cuyo corazón están los caminos hacia Sion Esta expresión es sobre el deseo sentido por el corazón. Traducción alterna: "Quien ama ir a Sión" o "Quien desea sinceramente ir a Sión" caminos

''rutas principales''

hacia Sion
El templo estaba en Jerusalén en la cima de la colina más alta, llamada Monte Sión.

Valle de Lágrimas
Esto se refiere a un lugar seco y árido. Algunas versiones de la Biblia tienen "el Valle de Baca". La palabra "Baca" significa "llanto".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Las lluvias tempranas
Esto significa la lluvia que cae en otoño antes de la temporada de frío. Esto es durante los meses de octubre y noviembre en los calendarios occidentales.

bendiciones
"piscinas de agua" (Ver UDB)

Psalms 84:7

Ellos van de fuerza en fuerza
Esta es una forma de decir que se vuelven más fuertes.

ellos van aquí ''ellos'' se refiere a aquellos que deseaban fuertemente ir al templo a adorar a Dios.

Pues un día en Tus atrios es mejor que mil en otro lugar Esto se puede afirmar con la información entendida. Traducción alterna: "Prefiero estar en sus atrios por un día que estar en otro lugar por mil días"

mil
''1,000''

ser un portero
''ser un guardia en la puerta'' o ''permanecer en la puerta''

Psalms 84:11

Pues el SEÑOR es nuestro sol y escudo
Se habla del SEÑOR que guía y protege a su pueblo como si fuera el sol y un escudo. Traducción alterna: "Porque El SEÑOR Dios nos guía como la luz del sol, y nos protege como un escudo"

el SEÑOR dará gracia y gloria Los sustantivos abstractos "gracia" y "gloria" pueden ser expresados como verbos. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR será amable con nosotros y nos honrará"

aquellos que caminan en integridad
Se habla de la forma en que una persona conduce sus vidas o se comporta como si estuviera caminando. Traducción alterna: "que viven honestamente" o "que son honestos"

bendecido es el hombre
Aquí "hombre" significa personas en general. Traducción alterna: "benditos sean esos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 85

1 SEÑOR, Tú has mostrado favor a Tu tierra; Tú has restaurado el bienestar de Jacob. 2 Tú has perdonado el pecado de Tu pueblo; Tú has cubierto todos sus pecados. 3 Tú has quitado toda Tu ira; has desistido de Tu enojo ardiente. 4 Restáuranos, Dios de nuestra salvación, y deja ir tu desagrado con nosotros. 5 ¿Estarás enojado con nosotros para siempre? ¿Permanecerás enojado a través de las futuras generaciones? 6 ¿No nos avivarás nuevamente? Entonces Tu pueblo se regocijará en Ti. 7 Muéstranos Tu fidelidad de pacto, SEÑOR, concédenos Tu salvación. 8 Yo escucharé lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice, pues Él hará la paz con Su pueblo, sus fieles seguidores. Mas ellos no deberán volver otra vez a los caminos necios. 9 Ciertamente Su salvación está cerca de aquellos que Le temen; entonces la gloria permanecerá en nuestra tierra. 10 La misericordia y la honradez se han encontrado; la justicia y la paz se han besado. 11 La honradez surge de la tierra, y la justicia mira hacia abajo desde el cielo. 12 Sí, el SEÑOR dará sus buenas bendiciones, y nuestra tierra dará sus cosechas. 13 La justicia irá delante de Él y hará un camino para Sus pisadas.

Psalms 85:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Tú has mostrado favor a Tu tierra Aquí "tierra" representa a la nación y al pueblo de Israel.

bienestar
estar - Esto se refiere a una persona que es feliz, saludable y próspera.

de Jacob
Aquí "Jacob" representa a los descendientes de Jacob, los israelitas.

Tú has cubierto todos sus pecados
Aquí se habla del pecado que se perdona como si estuviera cubierto para que no se pueda ver. Traducción alterna: "has olvidado deliberadamente su pecado"

sus pecados
Este escritor pensó en sí mismo como perteneciente al pueblo de Dios. Traducción alterna: "nuestro pecado"

Psalms 85:3

Tú has quitado toda Tu ira
Se dice que Dios ya no castiga a los israelitas como si la ira fuera un objeto que El SEÑOR podría quitarles a los israelitas.

has desistido de Tu enojo ardiente
Se dice que Dios ya no está enojado con los israelitas como si la ira fuera un fuego del que Dios se apartó.

Dios de nuestra salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "Dios que nos salva"

deja ir tu desagrado con nosotros
Se dice que pedirle a Dios que deje de enojarse con los israelitas es como si el descontento fuera un objeto que el escritor quiere que Dios deje.

¿Estarás enojado con nosotros para siempre? ¿Permanecerás enojado a través de las futuras generaciones?
El escritor usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que le está pidiendo a Dios que deje de enojarse con ellas. Estas preguntas retóricas se pueden traducir como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, no te enfades con nosotros para siempre".

Psalms 85:6

¿No nos avivarás nuevamente?
El escritor utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar su pedido a Dios para que el pueblo de Israel prospere y vuelva a ser feliz. Traducción alterna: "Por favor, haznos prosperar de nuevo". Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración.

Muéstranos Tu fidelidad de pacto
El sustantivo abstracto "fidelidad" puede ser expresado como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "Sé fiel por tu pacto con nosotros"

concédenos Tu salvación
La palabra "por" se puede agregar para indicar que así es como el escritor quiere que Dios muestre su fidelidad a su pueblo. El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "salvándonos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 85:8

hará la paz con Su pueblo
"tener una relación pacífica con su pueblo" o "traer paz a su pueblo"

Mas ellos no deberán volver otra vez a los caminos necios
Se habla de una persona que cambia la forma en que se comporta como si estuviera volviéndose físicamente en una dirección diferente. Traducción alterna: "Sin embargo, no deben comenzar a hacer cosas tontas de nuevo"

Ciertamente Su salvación está cerca de aquellos Se dice que Dios está listo para salvar a alguien como si la salvación fuera un objeto que Dios ha colocado cerca de alguien. Traducción alterna: "Seguramente Dios está listo para salvarlos"

entonces la gloria permanecerá en nuestra tierra Aquí la "gloria" representa la presencia de Dios. Traducción alterna: "entonces su gloriosa presencia permanecerá en nuestra tierra"

Psalms 85:10

La misericordia y la honradez se han encontrado
Los posibles significados son 1) Dios será fiel debido a su pacto y hará lo que prometió hacer o 2) Dios será fiel debido a su pacto y la gente responderá siendo fiel a él. De cualquier manera, se habla de fidelidad y confiabilidad como si fueran personas que se encuentran juntas.

se han encontrado ... se han besado
Lo más probable es que el orador esté describiendo un momento en el futuro en que Dios haga que la gente prospere nuevamente. Traducción alterna: "se encontrarán juntos ... se besarán"

la justicia y la paz se han besado Los significados posibles son 1) la gente hará lo correcto y Dios hará que la gente viva en paz o 2) Dios hará lo correcto y hará que la gente viva en paz. De cualquier manera, se habla de justicia y paz como si fueran personas que se besan.

se han besado
Esta era una forma común para que los amigos se saludaran.

La honradez surge de la tierra
Se dice que la gente en la tierra que es fiel a Dios es como si la confiabilidad fuera una planta que crece en la tierra. Traducción alterna: "Aquí en la tierra, seremos leales a Dios"

justicia mira hacia abajo desde el cielo
El escritor describe la justicia como si esta fuera una persona que mira hacia abajo como Dios. Traducción alterna: "Dios nos mirará con favor y nos dará la victoria"

Psalms 85:12

La justicia irá delante de Él y hará un camino para Sus pisadas
Se dice que Dios hace lo que es correcto donde quiera que va, como si la justicia fuera una persona que se adelanta a Dios y prepara un camino para que Dios camine.

Sus pisadas
Aquí "pasos" representa donde camina Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 86

1 Escucha, SEÑOR, y contéstame, pues yo soy pobre y oprimido. 2 Protégeme, pues yo soy leal; mi Dios, salva a Tu siervo que confía en Ti. 3 Ten piedad de mí, Señor, pues yo clamo a Ti todo el día. 4 Alegra a Tu siervo, pues a Ti, Señor, yo oro. 5 Tú, Señor, eres bueno, y presto para perdonar, y Tú muestras gran misericordia a todos aquellos que claman a Ti. 6 SEÑOR, escucha mi oración; oye el sonido de mis plegarias. 7 En el día de mi angustia yo Te llamo, pues Tú me responderás. 8 No hay nadie que se compare contigo entre los dioses, Señor. No hay obras como Tus obras. 9 Todas las naciones que Tú has hecho vendrán y se doblarán delante de Ti, Señor. Ellos honrarán Tu nombre. 10 Pues Tú eres grande y haces cosas maravillosas; Tú solo eres Dios. 11 Enséñame Tus caminos, SEÑOR. Entonces yo andaré en Tu verdad. Unifica mi corazón para reverenciarte. 12 Señor, mi Dios, yo Te alabaré con todo mi corazón; yo glorificaré Tu nombre para siempre. 13 Porque grande es Tu fidelidad hacia mí; Tú has rescatado mi vida de las profundidades del Seol. 14 Dios, los arrogantes se han levantado contra mí. Una pandilla de hombres violentos buscan mi vida. No Te tienen ninguna consideración. 15 Pero Tú, Señor, eres un Dios misericordioso y de gracia, lento para enojarte, y abundante en misericordia y confiabilidad. 16 Vuélvete hacia mí y ten misericordia de mí; da Tu fuerza a Tu siervo; salva al hijo de Tu sierva. 17 Muéstrame una señal de Tu favor. Entonces aquellos que me odian lo verán y serán avergonzados porque Tú, SEÑOR, me has ayudado y consolado.

Psalms 86:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

pobre y oprimido
"débil y necesitado" (UDB)

salva a Tu siervo
David se refiere a sí mismo como "su siervo", es decir, el siervo de Dios. Traducción alterna: "sálvame, tu sirviente"

Psalms 86:3

todo el día
Esto es una exageración. David no llora literalmente todo el día. Esto enfatiza que él grita continuamente. Traducción alterna: "continuamente"

Alegra a Tu siervo
David se refiere a sí mismo como "su siervo", es decir, el siervo de Dios. Traducción alterna: "Hazme tu sirviente" o "Hazme"

Psalms 86:5

En el día de mi angustia Aquí "día" representa un período de tiempo más largo. Traducción alterna: "Durante mis tiempos de dificultad" yo Te llamo

''te oro a ti''

Psalms 86:8

entre los dioses
El escritor no reconoce que estos otros dioses existen. Se está refiriendo a dioses falsos que adoran personas de otras naciones.

Todas las naciones
Aquí "las naciones" representan al pueblo. Traducción alterna: "La gente de todas las naciones"

Ellos honrarán Tu nombre.
Aquí "nombre" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Te honrarán"

Psalms 86:10

cosas maravillosas
"cosas muy buenas que me sorprenden"

Tú solo eres Dios.
''tú eres el único Dios''

Enséñame Tus caminos, SEÑOR. Entonces yo andaré en Tu verdad
Se habla de una persona que obedece lo que Dios quiere como si estuviera caminando en el camino o camino de Dios. Traducción alterna: "Enséñame tu verdad, SEÑOR. Entonces obedeceré lo que dices"

Unifica mi corazón para reverenciarte Aquí el "corazón" representa los pensamientos, emociones y motivos de una persona. Se dice que pedirle a Dios que haga que una persona lo respete por completo es como si el corazón de la persona estuviera hecho pedazos y que Dios los une. Traducción alterna: "Haz que te respete

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sinceramente con todo mi corazón" o "Haz que te respete sinceramente"

yo Te alabaré con todo mi corazón Aquí el "corazón" representa los pensamientos, emociones y motivos de una persona. Traducción alterna: "Te alabaré completa y sinceramente" yo glorificaré Tu nombre para siempre.

Aquí "nombre" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "Yo te glorificaré"

Psalms 86:13

Porque grande es Tu fidelidad hacia mí
El sustantivo abstracto "fidelidad" puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "Porque me eres fiel por tu pacto"

Tú has rescatado mi vida de las profundidades del Seol Esto no significa que Dios lo trajo de vuelta a la vida después de su muerte. Significa que Dios lo salvó cuando estaba a punto de morir.

los arrogantes
Este adjetivo nominal puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "gente arrogante"

se han levantado contra mí
"se unen para hacerme daño"

buscan mi vida
Esta es una forma de decir que quieren matarlo.

Psalms 86:15

abundante en misericordia y confiabilidad
Se habla constantemente de que Dios es fiel y confiable como si la fidelidad y la confiabilidad fueran objetos de los cuales Dios tiene una gran cantidad.

Vuélvete hacia mí
Se dice que pedirle a Dios que lo considere como si quisiera que Dios se volviera y lo mirara.

da Tu fuerza a Tu siervo
El sustantivo abstracto "fuerza" puede expresarse como un verbo o un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "fortalece a tu servidor" o "fortalece a tu servidor"

Tu siervo ... al hijo de Tu sierva
El escritor está hablando de sí mismo en tercera persona.

serán avergonzados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y se avergonzarán"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 87

1 Sobre el monte santo está la ciudad que Él fundó; 2 el SEÑOR ama las puertas de Sion más que todas las tiendas de Jacob. 3 Cosas gloriosas se dicen de ti, ciudad de Dios. 4 "Yo les menciono a Rahab y Babilonia a mis seguidores. Vean, ahí están Filistea y Tiro, a lo largo con Etiopía, y diré: 'Éste nació allí.'" 5 De Sion se dirá: "Cada uno de estos nació en ella; y el Altísimo mismo la establecerá." 6 El SEÑOR escribe en el libro de inscripción de las naciones, "Este nació allí." 7 Así que todos los cantores y danzores dicen juntos: "Todas mis fuentes están en Ti."

Psalms 87:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

puertas de Sion
Aquí "puertas de Sión" representa a toda la ciudad de Jerusalén. Traducción alterna: "ciudad de Jerusalén" todas las tiendas de Jacob La gente vivía en tiendas de campaña mientras deambulaban por el desierto. Aquí el escritor usa "tiendas de Jacob" para representar dónde viven los israelitas ahora. Traducción alterna: "cualquiera de las otras moradas de los israelitas"

gloriosas se dicen de ti, ciudad de Dios
El escritor habla a la ciudad de Jerusalén como si lo estuviera escuchando. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ustedes en Jerusalén, otras personas dicen cosas maravillosas sobre su ciudad"

Psalms 87:4

Yo les menciono
"Te cuento". Aquí "yo" se refiere al SEÑOR.

Rahab y Babilonia
Aquí "Rahab" es una forma poética de referirse a Egipto. Tanto "Rahab" como "Babilonia" representan al pueblo. Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Egipto y Babilonia"

a mis seguidores
"a los que me adoran"

Filistea y Tiro, a lo largo con Etiopía
Los nombres de estas naciones representan a las personas. Traducción alterna: gente de Filistea y Tiro, junto con gente de Etiopía "

'Éste nació allí.
"Este" se refiere a la gente de las naciones que el escritor menciona. Aunque no nacieron físicamente en Sión, los que siguen a Dios son nativos de Jerusalén espiritualmente.

Psalms 87:5

De Sion se dirá
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "La gente dirá sobre Sion"

Cada uno de estos nació en ella
Se habla de las personas de otras naciones que adoran al SEÑOR como si hubieran nacido en Jerusalén. Traducción alterna: "Es como si todas estas personas hubieran nacido en Jerusalén"

en ella Era común referirse a las ciudades como "ella". Traducción alterna: "en Jerusalén" o "en Sión"

el Altísimo mismo
El escritor usa el pronombre reflexivo "él mismo" para enfatizar que es el Altísimo quien está haciendo esto.

la establecerá
"hará fuerte a Jerusalén"

El SEÑOR escribe en el libro de inscripción de las naciones
Se dice que El SEÑOR reconoce que las personas de otras naciones le pertenecen como si fuera un rey escribiendo los nombres de las personas que viven en su ciudad.

Este nació allí.
"Este" se refiere a la gente de las naciones que el escritor menciona. Aunque no nacieron físicamente en Sión, los que siguen a Dios son nativos de Jerusalén espiritualmente. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 87:4.

Psalms 87:7

Todas mis fuentes están en Ti
Se dice que Jerusalén es un lugar donde la gente recibe todas sus bendiciones como si fuera un manantial que proporcionara agua a la gente.

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 88

1 SEÑOR, Dios de mi salvación, yo clamo de día y de noche delante de Ti. 2 Escucha mi oración; ponle atención a mi llanto. 3 Porque estoy lleno de dificultades y mi vida ha llegado al Seol. 4 La gente me trata como a aquellos que bajan al abismo; yo soy un hombre sin fuerza. 5 Yo estoy abandonado entre los muertos; yo soy como los muertos que yacen en la sepultura, los cuales ya no cuidas porque han sido cortados de Tu poder. 6 Tú me colocas en la parte más baja del abismo, en los lugares oscuros y profundos. 7 Tu ira está pesada sobre mí, y todas Tus olas se estrellan sobre mí. 8 Debido a Ti, mis amistades me evitan. Tú me has hecho una impactante vista para ellos. Yo estoy acorralado y no me puedo escapar. 9 Mis ojos se cansan por la dificultad; Todo el día yo clamo a Ti, SEÑOR; yo extiendo mis manos hacia Ti. 10 ¿Harás Tú maravillas por los muertos? Aquellos que han muerto, ¿se levantarán y Te alabarán? 11 ¿Se proclamará tu fidelidad de pacto en la sepultura, Tu lealtad en el lugar de los muertos? 12 Tus obras maravillosas, ¿serán conocidas en la oscuridad, o Tu justicia en el lugar del olvido? 13 Pero yo clamo a Ti, SEÑOR; en la mañana mi oración viene delante de Ti. 14 SEÑOR, ¿por qué me rechazas? ¿Por qué escondes Tu rostro de mí? 15 Yo siempre he estado afligido y a punto de la muerte desde mi juventud. Yo he sufrido de Tus terrores; yo estoy en la desesperación. 16 Tus acciones de enojo han pasado sobre mí, y Tus obras aterradoras me han aniquilado. 17 Ellas me rodean como agua todo el día; todas ellas me han cercado. 18 Tú has removido todo amigo y conocido de mí. Mi única compañera es la oscuridad.

Psalms 88:1

Información general:
El paralelismo es común en la poesía Hebrea

Una canción, un salmo de los hijos de Coré.
"Este es un salmo que escribieron los hijos de Coré"

al músico principal
"esto es para que el director de música lo use en la adoración"

Dios de mi salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "usted es quien me salva"

de día y de noche
El escritor usa estas palabras con significados opuestos para decir que grita continuamente.

Psalms 88:3

Porque estoy lleno de dificultades
El escritor habla de sí mismo como si fuera un contenedor y los problemas son los contenidos que llenan el contenedor. Traducción alterna: "Porque estoy muy preocupado"

mi vida ha llegado al Seol Aquí la "vida" representa al escritor. Y "Seol" representa la muerte. El escritor habla de sí mismo posiblemente muriendo pronto como si Seol fuera un lugar y él haya llegado a ese lugar. Traducción alterna: "Estoy a punto de morir"

La gente me trata como a aquellos que bajan al abismo
La palabra "abismo" significa lo mismo que "Seol". La frase "bajan al abismo" representa morir. Traducicón alterna: "la gente me trata como si ya hubiera muerto"

Psalms 88:5

Yo estoy abandonado entre los muertos
Se habla de las personas que tratan al escritor como si ya estuviera muerto como si fuera un cadáver que dejaron sin enterrar. Traducción alterna: Me quedo solo como si estuviera muerto "

yo soy como los muertos que yacen en la sepultura
El escritor que siente que la gente y Dios lo han abandonado habla de sí mismo como si ya fuera una persona muerta en una tumba.

los muertos que yacen
El adjetivo nominal "los muertos" puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "una persona muerta que miente" o "gente muerta que miente"

los cuales ya no cuidas
"que ya no recibe su atención" o "personas por las que ha dejado de preocuparse"

han sido cortados de Tu poder Se dice que Dios ya no usa su poder para ayudar a las personas muertas como si Dios literalmente lo cortara o lo quitara de su poder. Traducción alterna: "ya no usas tu poder para ayudarlos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tú me colocas en la parte más baja del abismo, en los lugares oscuros y profundos
El escritor siente que Dios lo ha abandonado y habla de sí mismo como si Dios lo hubiera metido en la tumba más profunda y oscura.

Psalms 88:7

Tu ira está pesada sobre mí Esto habla de que Dios está muy enojado con el escritor como si la ira de Dios fuera un objeto pesado sobre el escritor. Traducción alterna: "Siento tu gran enojo" o "Siento lo enojado que estás conmigo"

todas Tus olas se estrellan sobre mí
Esto habla de que Dios está muy enojado con el escritor como si la ira de Dios fuera como las grandes olas que se levantan del mar y luego aterrizan en el escritor.

Selah
Este puede ser un término musical que le dice a la gente cómo cantar o tocar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1.

Psalms 88:8

mis amistades
''aquellos que me conocen''

Tú me has hecho una impactante vista para ellos
"Me has hecho una vista repugnante para ellos" o "Gracias a ti, se escandalizan cuando me ven"

Yo estoy acorralado
Se habla de la condición física del escritor que lo hace repulsivo con sus amigos como si estuviera encerrado en un espacio confinado. Traducción alterna: "Es como si estuviera en una prisión"

Psalms 88:9

Mis ojos se cansan por la dificultad
Aquí "ojos" representa la capacidad de una persona para ver. Para que sus ojos se cansen de los problemas es una forma de decir que sus problemas lo hacen llorar tanto que le cuesta verlo.

yo extiendo mis manos hacia Ti
"Levanto mis manos hacia ti". Esta es una acción que muestra que él depende totalmente de Dios.

¿Harás Tú maravillas por los muertos?
El escritor utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar que si Dios lo deja morir, Dios ya no podrá hacer cosas maravillosas por él. Traducción alterna: "Tú no haces maravillas por los muertos".

Aquellos que han muerto, ¿se levantarán y Te alabarán?
El escritor utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar que si Dios lo deja morir, ya no podrá alabar a Dios. Traducción alterna: "Sabes que los que han muerto no se levantarán y te alabarán".

Psalms 88:11

¿Se proclamará tu fidelidad de pacto en la sepultura, Tu lealtad en el lugar de los muertos?
Esto puede ser traducido como una oración separada. Traducción alterna: "¿Se conocerá tu justicia en el lugar del olvido?" o "Los que están en el lugar del olvido no sabrán acerca de las cosas justas que haces".

sepultura ... el lugar de los muertos ... en la oscuridad ... el lugar del olvido?
Todos estos representan el lugar donde las personas van después de morir.

Tu lealtad en el lugar de los muertos?
Esto puede ser traducido como una oración separada. Traducción alterna: "¿Se proclamará tu lealtad en el lugar de los muertos?" o "Los que están muertos no proclamarán tu lealtad".

Tus obras maravillosas, ¿serán conocidas en la oscuridad, o Tu justicia en el lugar del olvido?
Ambas preguntas significan lo mismo. El escritor usa preguntas para enfatizar que aquellos que están muertos no pueden experimentar o proclamar las grandes cosas que Dios hace. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "La gente no hablará de tus maravillosas obras y tu justicia en el lugar oscuro de los muertos olvidados".

o Tu justicia en el lugar del olvido?
Esto puede ser traducido como una oración separada. Traducción alterna: "¿Se conocerá tu justicia en el lugar del olvido?" o "Los que están en el lugar del olvido no sabrán acerca de las cosas justas que haces".

Psalms 88:13

mi oración viene delante de Ti
Se habla del escritor que reza al SEÑOR como si la oración misma fuera a hablar con El SEÑOR.

¿Por qué escondes Tu rostro de mí?
Esto habla del escritor sintiendo que Dios lo ha rechazado o abandonado como si Dios estuviera escondiendo su rostro o físicamente se alejara del escritor.

Psalms 88:15

Tus acciones de enojo han pasado sobre mí Esto habla de Dios castigando al escritor como si las acciones de Dios fueran una gran ola que se levanta del mar y cae sobre el escritor. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

alterna: "Es como si tus acciones enojadas me aplastaran"

Tus obras aterradoras me han aniquilado
Esto habla de que Dios castiga al escritor como si Dios lo hubiera destruido por completo. Traducción alterna: "las cosas terroríficas que haces me han destruido" o "las cosas terroríficas que haces casi me han destruido"

Psalms 88:17

Ellas me rodean como agua todo el día
El escritor compara las "acciones furiosas" de Dios y las "acciones terroríficas" con una inundación de agua. Traducción alterna: "Todo el día amenazan con destruirme como una inundación"

ellas
La palabra "Ellos" se refiere a las "acciones de ira" de Dios y "hechos terroríficos" del versículo anterior.

ellas me han cercado
El escritor habla de las "acciones furiosas" de Dios y de sus "actos terroríficos" como si fueran enemigos que intentaran capturarlo y matarlo. Traducción alterna: "me han rodeado como soldados enemigos" todo amigo y conocido

"toda persona que amo y conozco"

Mi única compañera es la oscuridad.
Esto habla de la oscuridad como si fuera una persona que podría ser amiga de otra persona. El escritor enfatiza que se siente completamente solo. Traducción alterna: "Donde quiera que vaya está oscuro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 89

1 Yo cantaré por siempre de los actos de fidelidad del Señor a Su pacto. Yo proclamaré Tu verdad a las futuras generaciones. 2 Pues yo he dicho: "Fidelidad a Su pacto ha sido establecida para siempre; Tu verdad has establecido en los cielos." 3 Yo he hecho un pacto con Mi escogido, Yo he hecho un juramento a David mi siervo. 4 Yo estableceré a tus descendientes para siempre, y Yo estableceré Tu trono por todas las generaciones." 5 Los cielos alaban tus maravillas, SEÑOR; Tu fidelidad es alabada en la asamblea de los santos. 6 Pues, ¿quién en los cielos puede ser comparado al SEÑOR? ¿Quién entre los hijos de los dioses es como el SEÑOR? 7 Él es un Dios quien es grandemente honrado en el consejo de los santos y es increible entre todos los que Lo rodean. 8 SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos, ¿quién es fuerte como Tú, SEÑOR? Tu veracidad Te rodea. 9 Tú gobiernas el mar furioso; cuando las olas se levantan, Tú las calmas. 10 Tú aplastaste a Rahab como a uno que es asesinado. Tú dispersaste a Tus enemigos con Tu brazo fuerte. 11 Los cielos Te pertenecen a tí, y la tierra también. Tú hiciste el mundo y todo lo que contiene. 12 Tú creaste el norte y el sur. Tabor y Hermón se regocijan en Tu nombre. 13 Tú tienes un brazo poderoso y una mano fuerte, y Tu mano derecha es exhaltada. 14 La justicia y el derecho son el fundamento de Tu trono. La fidelidad del pacto y la intregridad vienen delante de Ti. 15 ¡Bendecidos son los pueblos que te adoran! SEÑOR, ellos caminan en la luz de Tu rostro. 16 Ellos se regocijan en Tu nombre todo el día, y en Tu justicia ellos Te exaltan. 17 Tú eres su fuerza majestuosa, y por Tu favor nosotros somos victoriosos. 18 Pues nuestro escudo Le pertenece al SEÑOR: nuestro rey le pertenece al Santo de Israel. 19 Tiempo atras Tú hablaste en una visión a Tus fieles; Tú dijiste: "Yo he puesto una corona sobre un poderoso; Yo he levantado un escogido de entre el pueblo. 20 Yo he escogido a David mi siervo; con Mi aceite santo Yo lo he ungido. 21 Mi mano lo sostendrá; Mi brazo lo fortalecerá. 22 Ningún enemigo lo engañará; ningún hijo de maldad lo oprimirá. 23 Yo aplastaré a sus enemigos delante de él; Yo mataré a aquellos quienes lo odian. 24 Mi verdad y Mi fidelidad al pacto estarán con él; por Mi nombre él será victorioso. 25 Yo colocaré su mano sobre el mar y su mano derecha sobre los ríos. 26 Él clamará a Mí: 'Tú eres mi Padre, mi Dios, y la roca de mi salvación.' 27 Yo también lo colocaré como Mi hijo primogénito, el más exaltado de los reyes de la tierra. 28 Yo extenderé la fidelidad de Mi pacto a él para siempre; y Mi pacto con él estará seguro. 29 Yo haré que sus descendientes duren para siempre y su trono tan duradero como los cielos. 30 Si sus hijos abandonan Mi ley y desobedecen Mis decretos, 31 si rompen Mis reglas y no guardan Mis mandamientos, 32 entonces Yo castigaré su rebelión con una vara y su iniquidad con azotes. 33 Pero Yo no quitaré mi amor constante de él ni seré infiel a Mi promesa. 34 Yo no romperé Mi pacto ni cambiaré las palabras de Mis labios. 35 De una vez y para siempre Yo he jurado por Mi santidad, Yo no le mentiré a David; 36 sus descendientes permanecerán para siempre y su trono por tanto tiempo como el sol delante de Mí. 37 Será establecido para siempre como la luna, el testigo fiel en el cielo." 38 Pero Tú lo has rechazado y desechado; Tú has estado enojado con Tu rey ungido. 39 Tú has renunciado al pacto de Tu siervo. Tú has profanado su corona tirandola en el suelo. 40 Tú has derribado todas sus murallas. Tú has arruinado sus fortalezas. 41 Todos los que han pasado le han robado. Él ha llegado a ser un objeto de asco a sus vecinos. 42 Tú has levantado la mano derecha de sus enemigos; Tú has hecho que se regocijen todos sus enemigos. 43 Tú doblas el filo de su espada y no has dejado que permanezca de pie cuando esta en batalla. 44 Tú has llevado su esplendor a su fin; Tú has derribado su trono a tierra. 45 Tú has acortado los días de su juventud. Tú lo has cubierto de vergüenza. 46 ¿Por cuánto mas, SEÑOR? ¿Te esconderás para siempre? ¿Por cuánto mas arderá tu ira como el fuego? 47 ¡Oh, piensa sobre lo corta que es mi vida, y para qué inutilidad has creado a todos los hijos de la humanidad! 48 ¿Quién puede vivir y no morir, o rescatar su propia vida de la mano del Seol? 49 Señor, ¿dónde están tus pasados actos de fidelidad a tu pacto que Tú juraste a David en Tu veracidad? 50 Trae a memoria, Señor, las burlas dirigidas en contra de Tus siervos y cómo yo cargo en mi corazón tantos insultos de las naciones. 51 Tus enemigos lanzan insultos, SEÑOR; ellos se burlan de las pisadas de tu ungido. 52 Bendecido sea el SEÑOR para siempre. Amén y Amén. Cuarto libro.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 89:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Masquil
Esto quizás se refiera al estilo de música. Vea cómo se tradujo en 32:1.

Etán
Este es el nombre del escritor.

el ezraíta
Es el nombre de un grupo de personas. Quizás se refiera al hijo o descendiente de Zera.

actos de fidelidad
El sujeto abstracto "fidelidad" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alternativa: "actos de fe" o "actos de amor"

Fidelidad a Su pacto ha sido establecida para siempre
Dios siempre hace lo que prometió que hará se habla de su fidelidad fuese una construcción que Dios ha construido y hecho firme. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú siempre serás fiel por tu pacto con nosotros"

Tu verdad has establecido en los cielos
Dios siempre hace lo que prometió hacer se habla como si su fidelidad fuese una construcción que Dios edificó e hizo firme.

en los cielos
Posibles significados son 1) esto se refiere al lugar celestial de Dios. Esto podría significar que Dios manda de los cielos y él siempre cumplirá sus promesas o 2) esto se refiere al cielo. Esto podría significar que las promesas de Dios están constante y permanentemente como en el cielo (UDB).

Psalms 89:3

Yo he hecho un pacto con Mi escogido
Tú puedes hacer explícito que "Mi escogido" se refiere a David. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo hice una promesa a David, al que elegí"

Yo he hecho
EL SEÑOR está hablando en 89:3-4

Yo estableceré a tus descendientes para siempre
EL SEÑOR siempre causando a uno de los descendientes de David para ser rey habla de como si los descendientes de David son una construcción que EL SEÑOR edificará y la hará firme.

Yo estableceré Tu trono por todas las generaciones
Aquí "trono" representa el poder de mandar como un rey. El salmista habla de Dios prometiendo que uno de los descendientes de David siempre mandará como un rey si Dios construirá el trono de David y lo hará firme. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo haré con seguridad que uno de tus descendientes mandará como rey sobre todas las generaciones de mi pueblo"

Selah
Esto puede ser un término musical que dice a las personas cómo cantar o ejecutar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en 3:1.

Psalms 89:5

Los cielos alaban
Aquí "cielos" representa a esos que están en el cielo.

alaban tus maravillas, SEÑOR
"te alabamos, SEÑOR, por las maravillosas cosas que haces"

Tu fidelidad es alabada en la asamblea de los santos
El sustantivo abstracto "fidelidad" puede expresarse como "siempre haces lo que prometes hacer". Esto también se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "La asamblea de los santos te alaba porque siempre haces lo que prometes hacer"

la asamblea de los santos
Esto se refiere a los ángeles en el cielo.

Pues, ¿quién en los cielos puede ser comparado al SEÑOR? ¿Quién entre los hijos de los dioses es como el SEÑOR?
Ambas preguntas significan la misma cosa. El escritor está usando la pregunta para enfatizar que no hay nadie en el cielo como EL SEÑOR.

hijos de los dioses
Aquí "los hijos de" significa tener las características de. Esta es una forma de referirse a otros seres espirituales que viven en el cielo. Traducción Alternativa: "ángeles" o "seres divinos"

Psalms 89:7

Él es un Dios quien es grandemente honrado en el consejo de los santos Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "El consejo de los santos honra extremadamente a Dios"

el consejo de los santos
"la asamblea de los seres celestiales" o "la asamblea de los ángeles"

¿quién es fuerte como Tú, SEÑOR?
El escritor pregunta esto para enfatizar que no hay nadie tan fuerte como EL SEÑOR.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tu veracidad Te rodea
EL SEÑOR siempre cumple lo que promete hacer está hablando de como si su veracidad fuera una capa o prenda que lo envuelve.

Psalms 89:9

Tú gobiernas el mar furioso
"Tú controlas el mar furioso"

Tú aplastaste a Rahab como a uno que es asesinado La palabra "Rahab" aquí se refiere a un mounstro del mar.

con Tu brazo fuerte
Aquí "brazo" representa poder. Traducción Alternativa: "con tu gran poder"

Psalms 89:11

Tú creaste el norte y el sur.
El escritor usa las palabras "norte" y "sur" juntos para decir que Dios creó todo en todos lados.

Tabor y Hermón se regocijan en Tu nombre
Tabor es una montaña del suroeste del mar de Galilea y Hermon es una montaña noreste del mar de Galilea. El autor describe estas montañas como si fuesen personas que podrían regocijarse. Traducción Alternativa: "Es como si el Monte Tabor y el Monte Hermon estuvieran regocijandose en tu nombre"

en Tu nombre
Aquí "nombre" representa a la persona completa. Traducción Alternativa: "en ti"

Psalms 89:13

Tú tienes un brazo poderoso y una mano fuerte, y Tu mano derecha es exhaltada
Las palabras "brazo poderoso", "mano fuerte" y "mano derecha" todas representan el poder de Dios.

Tu mano derecha es exhaltada
Para exaltar la mano derecha en el aire es un gesto que indica poder.

La justicia y el derecho son el fundamento de Tu trono
Dios gobernando como rey y haciendo lo que es correcto y justo se habla de como si el trono de Dios fuera una construcción, y el derecho y la justicia son el fundamento sobre el cual está fundado.

Tu trono
El trono representa el gobierno de Dios como rey.

La fidelidad del pacto y la intregridad vienen delante de Ti
Dios siendo siempre fiel y haciendo lo que prometió hacer se habla de como si la fidelidad del pacto y la integridad vienen y se encuentran con Dios.

Psalms 89:15

que te adoran
Aquí la palabra "adoran" implica gritar y soplar cornetas. Estos son actos de adoración comunes durante festivales israelitas.

ellos caminan
Aqui las personas vivin sus vidas se habla como si ellas estuvieran caminando. Traducción alternativa: "ellos viven"

en la luz de tu rostro
El autor habla del SEÑOR actuando favorablemente hacia ellos como si el rostro del SEÑOR iluminara una luz a ellos. Traducción alternativa: "sabiendo que actuas favorablemente hacia ellos"

en tu nombre
Aqui "nombre" representa a la persona. Traducción alternativa: "en ti"

en Tu justicia ellos Te exaltan
El sujeto abstracto "justicia" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traduccion alternativa: "ellos te exaltan porque siempre haces lo correcto"

Psalms 89:17

Tú eres su fuerza majestuosa
El sujeto abstracto "fuerza" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alternativa: "Tu los haces maravillosamente fuerte"

Tú eres su
Aquí "su" se refiere a los israelitas. El autor podría incluirse a sí mismo como miembro de los israelitas. Traducción Alternativa: "Tú eres nuestra"

somos victoriosos
Aquí "victoriosos" se refiere al autor y a los israelitas.

Pues nuestro escudo Le pertenece al SEÑOR
El rey que proteje a su pueblo y a quien el SEÑOR elige se habla de como si fuera un escudo que le pertenece al SEÑOR.

Psalms 89:19

Información general
El autor asume que el lector sabe la historia de cómo David se volvió rey electo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Yo he puesto una corona sobre un poderoso Colocar una corona en la cabeza de alguien es una señal de coronarlo rey. Traducción Alternativa: "He hecho rey a un poderoso hombre" puesto una corona sobre un poderoso

Algunas traducciones de la Biblia tienen "dado fuerza a alguien poderoso" o "ayudó a un poderoso"

Yo he levantado un escogido de entre el pueblo Aquí "levantado" significa desginado. Eso implica que Dios eligió la persona para ser rey. Traducción Alternativa: "He escogido a alguien de todas las personas para que sea rey"

con Mi aceite santo Yo lo he ungido
Aquí poner aceite sobre la cabeza de alguien es señal de que Dios está asignando la persona para ser rey.

Mi mano lo sostendrá; Mi brazo lo fortalecerá Aquí "mano" y "brazo" significan el poder y control del SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "Yo lo sostendré y lo haré fuerte"

hijo de maldad
El escritor se refiere a esos que tienen la naturaleza o el caracter de maldad como "hijos de maldad" Traducción alternativa: "persona malvada"

Psalms 89:24

Declaración de conexión
EL SEÑOR continua hablando acerca de David.

Mi verdad y Mi fidelidad al pacto estarán con él Dios siempre es bueno y hace lo que prometió a David, se habla de como si la verdad y fidelidad fueran objetos que podrían estar con David.

por Mi nombre él será victorioso Aquí "nombre" representa al poder de Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "Yo, Dios, le haré victorioso"

Yo colocaré su mano sobre el mar y su mano derecha sobre los ríos
Aquí "mano" y "mano derecha" representan poder y autoridad. Aquí "el mar" parece referirse al mar Mediterráneo al oeste de Israel, y "ríos" se refiere al río Éufrates en el este. Esto significa que David tendrá autoridad sobre todo, desde el mar hasta el río. Traducción alternativa: "Le daré autoridad sobre todo, desde el mar Mediterráneo hasta el río Éufrates"

Él clamará a Mí: 'Tú eres mi Padre, mi Dios, y la roca de mi salvación.'
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede indicar como una cita indirecta. Traducción alternativa: "Él dirá que yo soy su Padre, su Dios y la roca de su salvación"

la roca de mi salvación
Se habla del SEÑOR protegiendo y salvando a David como si el SEÑOR fuera una roca alta donde David puede pararse en la cima y protegerse de los enemigos.

Psalms 89:27

Declaración de conexión
El SEÑOR continua hablando acerca de David.

Yo también lo colocaré como Mi hijo primogénito Se habla del SEÑOR dando a David un rango especialmente privilegiado sobre todas las otras personas como si David sería el primer hijo del SEÑOR.

su trono tan duradero como los cielos
Se habla de que alguien de la familia de David siempre gobierna como rey como si su trono durara tanto como durará el cielo.

su trono
Aquí "trono" representa el poder de gobernar como rey.

Psalms 89:30

sus hijos
"descendientes de David"

castigaré su rebelión con una vara Se habla de que Dios castiga a los descendientes de David como si él los golpeara con una vara. Aquí "rebelión" puede ser estabecido como verbo. Traducción alternativa: "castigarlos por rebelarse en mi contra"

su iniquidad con azotes
Se habla de Dios castigando a los descendientes de David como si Dios literalmente los golpeara. Esto puede ser establecido como una oración completa. Traducción alternativa: "y los castigaré porque han pecado contra mí"

Psalms 89:33

Yo no quitaré mi amor constante de él ni seré infiel a Mi promesa Esto puede ser declarado de forma positiva. Traducción alternativa: "Yo siempre amaré a David, y cumpliré mi promesa en él"

las palabras de Mis labios Aquí "palabras" representa lo que fue dicho. Además "labios" representa la boca entera y la persona hablando. Traducción alternativa: "lo que dije"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 89:35

Yo he jurado por Mi santidad
El SEÑOR usa su santidad como la base de su juramento. Esta es una forma de garantizar que definitivamente haga lo que promete hacer.

su trono por tanto tiempo como el sol delante de Mí La palabra "permanecerá" es entendida. Traducción alternativa: "y su trono permanecerá tanto tiempo como el sol delante de Mí"

su trono
Aquí trono representa el poder de gobernar como rey. Dios está prometiendo que uno de los descendientes de David siempre será rey.

tanto tiempo como el sol delante de Mí Dios compara el gobierno de Davi como rey con el sol para enfatuzar que uno de los descendientes de David siempre será gobernador como rey.

para siempre como la luna
Dios compara el gobierno de Davi como rey con la luna para enfatuzar que uno de los descendientes de David siempre será gobernador como rey.

la luna, el testigo fiel en el cielo
Se habla de la luna como si fuera una persona que presencia a Dios haciendo esta promesa a David. Traducción alternativa: "la luna, que es como un testigo fiel en el cielo"

Selah
Esto puede ser un término musical que dice a las personas cómo cantar o ejecutar sus instrumentos aquí. Algunas traducciones escriben la palabra hebrea, y algunas traducciones no la incluyen. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en 3:1.

Psalms 89:38

Tú lo has rechazado y desechado La palabra "el rey" es entendida. Traducción Alternativa: "tu has rechazado y desechado al rey" (Ver: Tú has derribado todas sus murallas. Tú has arruinado sus fortalezas con Tu rey ungido

"con el rey que escogiste"

Tú has renunciado al pacto de Tu siervo
"has desechado el pacto"

Tú has profanado su corona tirandola en el suelo
Tirándola en el suelo o barro es una señal de una gran humillación. Traducción alternativa: "Has contaminado su corona en el suelo" o "Has causado que su corona caiga al suelo"

su corona
Esto representa el poder del rey como rey y su derecho para gobernar.

Tú has derribado todas sus murallas. Tú has arruinado sus fortalezas Esto implica que Dios permitió a los enemigos destruir las defensas de Jerusalen. Traducción alternativa: "Has permitido a los enemigos derribar sus murallas y arruinar sus fortalezas en Jerusalen."

Psalms 89:41

a sus vecinos
Aquí "vecinos" significa personas de naciones cercanas.

levantado la mano derecha de sus enemigos Aquí "mano derecha" representa poder. Para "levantar la mano derecha" significa que el SEÑOR permitió a sus enemigos ser lo suficientemente fuertes para derrotar al rey escogido por Dios.

doblas el filo de su espada Aquí "espada" representa el poder del rey en batalla. Doblar la espada representa hacer al rey incapaz de ganar la batalla.

el filo de su espada Aquí "filo" representa a toda la espada. Traducción Alternativa: "su espada"

no has dejado que permanezca de pie cuando esta en batalla Aquí "permanezca" representa salir victorioso en batalla. Traducción alternativa: "no has ayudado a salir victorioso"

Psalms 89:44

Tú has derribado su trono a tierra
Aquí "trono" representa el poder de gobernar como rey. Traducción alternativa: "Tú, SEÑOR, has finalizado su reino como rey"

Tú has acortado los días de su juventud
Esta es una forma de decir que Dios hizo que el rey se vea viejo aún cuando él seguía siendo joven. Traducción alternativa: "Aún siendo él joven lo has hecho ver como un hombre viejo"

Tú lo has cubierto de vergüenza
Se habla del SEÑOR humillando completamente al rey como si la vergüenza fuera una prenda que Dios usa para cubrir al rey.

Psalms 89:46

¿Por cuánto mas, SEÑOR? ¿Te esconderás para siempre?
El escritor usa estas preguntas para enfatizar las que él no quiere que Dios continúe negando al rey. Traducción alternativa: "Por favor, SEÑOR, no niegues ayuda al rey por siempre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Te esconderás
Se habla de Dios no ayudando como si Dios estuviese escondiéndose de él. Traduccion alternativa: "Te negarás de ayudar al rey"

¿Por cuánto mas arderá tu ira como el fuego?
El escritor usa una pregunta para enfatizar que él no quiere que Dios siga enojado. Traduccion alternativa: "Por favor no continúes estando enojado"

tu ira como el fuego
Dios estando muy enojado se habla de como si su ira fuera fuego.

para qué inutilidad has creado a todos los hijos de la humanidad El sujeto abstracto "inutilidad" puede ser establecido como "inútil". Traducción alternativa: "que tú has creado a todas las personas inútiles"

los hijos de la humanidad
Esto se refiere a los humanos en general. Traducción alternativa: "humanos" o "personas"

¿Quién puede vivir y no morir, o rescatar su propia vida de la mano del Seol?
El escritor usa estas preguntas para enfatizar que todas las personas morirán. Traducción alternativa: "nadie puede vivir para siempre o traerse a sí mismo de vuelta a la vida después de morir"

rescatar su propia vida de la mano del Seol Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder. El escritor habla del Seol como si fuera una persona con poder sobre los que mueren. Posibles significados son 1) una persona que no puede traerse a sí misma a la vida después de morir o 2) una persona que no puede mantenerse alejado de la muerte.

Psalms 89:49

Señor, ¿dónde están tus pasados actos de fidelidad a tu pacto que Tú juraste a David en Tu veracidad?
El escritor usa una pregunta para requerir al Señor de su fidelidad a su pacto con David. Traduccion alternativa: "Señor, sé fiel a tu pacto con David como lo has sido en el pasado"

Trae a memoria
El escritor pide al SEÑOR que traiga esto a la memoria. Traduccion alternativa: "Recuerda" o "Considera"

las burlas dirigidas en contra de Tus siervos Aquí "tus siervos" se refiere a las personas de Israel. Traduccion alternativa: "como se burlan de nosotros, tus sirvientes"

cómo yo cargo en mi corazón tantos insultos de las naciones Aquí "corazón" representa las emociones de la persona. Traduccion alternativa: "Soporto tantos insultos de la gente de las naciones" o "sufro porque la gente de las naciones me insulta"

de las naciones
Aquí "naciones" representa a las personas de las naciones.

Tus enemigos lanzan insultos
Se habla de los enemigos lanzando insultos al rey como si los insultos fueran objetos que los enemigos arrojan violentamente al rey.

ellos se burlan de las pisadas de tu ungido Aquí "pisadas" representan donde el rey va. Traducción alternativa: "ellos se burlan de tu ungido donde él va"

Psalms 89:52

Información general:
Este verso es más que el final de un salmo. Es el cierre de una declaración para todo el Libro 3 de los Salmos, que comienza en el Salmo 73 y termina el Salmo 89.

Bendecido sea el SEÑOR para siempre
Esto puede ser establecido de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Que las personas alaben al SEÑOR para siempre"

Amén y Amén
La palabra "Amén" es repetida para enfatizar la aprobación de lo que fue dicho. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 41:13.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 90

1 Señor, Tú has sido nuestro refugio por todas las generaciones. 2 Antes de que se formaran las montañas, o que Tú formaras la tierra y el mundo, desde la eternidad hasta la eternidad, Tú eres Dios. 3 Tú regresas el hombre al polvo, y Tú dices: "Regresen, ustedes los descendientes de la humanidad." 4 Pues mil años en Tu vista son como ayer, cuando ha pasado, y como una vigilia en la noche. 5 Tú los barres como con una inundación y ellos duermen; en la mañana ellos son como la hierba que brota. 6 En la mañana ella florece y crece; en la tarde se marchita y se seca. 7 Ciertamente, nosotros hemos sido consumidos en tu enojo, y en tu ira estamos aterrorizados. 8 Tú has puesto nuestras iniquidades delante de Ti, nuestros pecados ocultos en la luz de Tu presencia. 9 Nuestra vida pasa bajo de Tu ira; nuestros años pasan rápidamente como un suspiro. 10 Nuestros años son setenta, o aún ochenta si estamos saludables; pero aún nuestros mejores años están marcados por problemas y tristeza. Sí, ellos pasan rápidamente, y nosotros volamos. 11 ¿Quién conoce la intensidad de tu enojo, y tu ira que es igual al temor que se tiene de Ti? 12 Así que, enséñanos a considerar nuestra vida para que podamos vivir sabiamente. 13 ¡Vuelvete, SEÑOR! ¿Cuánto tiempo será? Ten piedad de Tus siervos. 14 Satisfácenos en la mañana con la fidelidad de Tu pacto, para que para que nosotros podamos regocijarnos y estar alegres todos nuestros días. 15 Haznos alégrar en proporción a los días que nos afligiste y a los años que hemos experimentado dificultades. 16 Permite que Tus siervos vean Tu obra, y permite que nuestros hijos vean Tu majestad. 17 Que el favor del Señor nuestro Dios sea nuestro; prospera la obra de nuestras manos; ciertamente, prospera la obra de nuestras manos.

Psalms 90:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea

Oración de Moisés
"Esta es una oración que escribió Moisés"

Señor, Tú has sido nuestro refugio
Se habla de Dios protegiendo a su pueblo como si Dios fuese un refugio o escudo. Traducción alternativa: "Señor, tú has sido como un escudo para nosotros"

por todas las generaciones
"siempre" (UDB)

Antes de que se formaran las montañas Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "Antes que formes las montañas"

formaran
"creado" o "conformado"

el mundo Esto representa todo lo que hay en el mundo.

desde la eternidad hasta la eternidad
Esta frase representa todo el tiempo pasado, presente y futuro.

Psalms 90:3

Tú regresas el hombre al polvo
Esto implica que solo como Dios creó al primer hombre, Adan, de la tierra, Dios hará a los cuerpos humanos que se conviertan en polvo después de morir. Traducción alternativa: "Tú regresas a las personas al polvo cuando mueren"

regresas al hombre
Aquí "hombre" significa personas en general

Regresen, ustedes los descendientes
Las palabras "al polvo" o "a la tierra" son entendidas. Traduccion alternativa: "Regresan al polvo, sus descendientes" o "Regresan a la tierra, sus descendientes" ustedes los descendientes esta es la forma de referirse a los humanos en general. Traduccion alternativa: "ustedes humanos" o "ustedes personas"

Pues mil años en Tu vista son como ayer, cuando ha pasado, y como una vigilia en la noche.
El escritor quiere decir que un largo período de tiempo parece un corto período de tiempo para Dios. Traducción alternativa: "Consideras mil años lo mismo que un día en el pasado, o unas pocas horas en la noche" o "Incluso mil años no es mucho tiempo para ti"

Pues mil años
"1.000 años"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en Tu vista
Aquí "vista" representa los pensamientos o opiniones. Traduccion alternativa: "para ti"

Psalms 90:5

Tú los barres como con una inundación y ellos duermen
Se habla de que Dios causó que las personas murieran repentinamente como si las hubiera barrido con una escoba. También se habla de este barrido como si fuera una inundación que se llevó a la gente. Traduccion alternativa: "Señor, destruyes a las personas como con una inundación y mueren"

ellos duermen
Esta es una forma política de hablar de personas muriendo.

en la mañana ellos son como la hierba ... en la tarde se marchita y se seca
Las personas son comparadas con el pasto para enfatizar que las personas no viven por mucho tiempo.

florece y crece
Ambas frases se refieren al crecimiento de la hierba. Traduccion alternativa: "empieza a crecer y desarrollarse"

se marchita y se seca Ambas frases se refieren a cómo la hierba muere. Traduccion alternativa: "se desvanece y seca"

Psalms 90:7

nosotros hemos sido consumidos en tu enojo Se dice que Dios destruye a las personas en su ira como si la ira de Dios fuera un fuego que quema por completo a las personas. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "Nos destruyes en tu ira"

y en tu ira estamos aterrorizados
"y cuando estás enojado nosotros estamos muy asustados"

Tú has puesto nuestras iniquidades delante de Ti, nuestros pecados ocultos en la luz de Tu presencia
Se dice que Dios considera los pecados de las personas como si los pecados fueran objetos que él podría colocar frente a él y mirarlos. Traduccion alternativa: "Ves todas las cosas pecaminosas que hacemos, incluso las cosas pecaminosas que hacemos en secreto"

Psalms 90:9

Nuestra vida pasa bajo de Tu ira La palabra "porque" puede ser usada para aclarar que la ira de Dios causa que la vide del hombre termine. Traduccion alternativa: "nuestros vidas llegan a su fin debido a tu ira"

como un suspiro
El escritor compara la vida humana con un suspiro para enfatizar que la vida es muy breve.

setenta
"70"

ochenta
"80"

aún nuestros mejores años están marcados por problemas y tristeza Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. traduccion alternativa: "Incluso en nuestros mejores años experimentamos problemas y penas"

nosotros volamos
Esta es una forma educada para referirse a las personas que mueren.

Psalms 90:11

¿Quién conoce la intensidad de tu enojo, y tu ira que es igual al temor que se tiene de Ti?
El escritor usa una pregunta para enfatizar que nadie ha experimentado completamente la ira de Dios. Por lo tanto, nadie realmente venera a Dios y teme su ira cuando la gente peca. Traduccion alternativa: "Nadie conoce la intensidad de tu ira. Por lo tanto, nadie teme a tu ira cuando pecan".

¡Vuelvete, SEÑOR! ¿Cuánto tiempo será?
Se habla de pedirle al SEÑOR que ya no se enoje como si el escritor quisiera que Dios se apartara físicamente de su ira. Traduccion alternativa: "SEÑOR, por favor no te enojes más" ¿Cuánto tiempo será?

El escritor usa la pregunta para declarar que él quiere que Dios detenga su ira.

Ten piedad de Tus siervos
Aquí "siervos" se refiere a las personas de Israel. Traduccion alternativa: "Sé misericordioso con nosotros, tus siervos"

Psalms 90:14

Satisfácenos en la mañana
"satisfácenos cada mañana"

con la fidelidad de Tu pacto
El sustantivo abstracto "fidelidad" puede expresarse como un adjetivo. Traducción alternativa: "siendo fiel por su pacto con nosotros"

Haznos alégrar en proporción a los días que nos afligiste y a los años que hemos experimentado dificultades Ambas frases significan lo mismo. El escritor le pide al SEÑOR que los haga felices por el mismo tiempo que los castigó. Traducción alternativa: "por la misma cantidad de tiempo que nos afligiste y nos hiciste sufrir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Permite que Tus siervos Aquí "tus siervos" se refiere a las personas de Israel. Traduccion alternativa: "Permitenos, tus siervos" o "permitenos"

permite que nuestros hijos Aqui "hijos" significa hijos y descendientes.

vean Tu majestad
El sustantivo abstracto "majestad" puede expresarse como "grandes cosas". Traduccion alternativa: "mira las grandes cosas que haces"

Psalms 90:17

Que el favor del Señor nuestro Dios sea nuestro El sustantivo abstracto "favor" puede ser declarado como "ser amable". Traduccion alternativa: "Que el Señor nuestro Dios sea amable con nosotros"

prospera la obra de nuestras manos Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Traduccion alternativa: "hacernos tener éxito"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 91

1 Aquel que vive en el refugio del Altísimo permanecerá en la sombra del Todopoderoso. 2 Yo diré del SEÑOR: "Él es mi refugio y mi fortaleza, mi Dios, en quien yo confío." 3 Pues Él te rescatará de la trampa del cazador y de la plaga mortífera. 4 Él te cubrirá con sus alas, y bajo sus alas tu encontrarás refugio. Su integridad es un escudo y protección. 5 Tú no temerás al terror en la noche, ni de la fecha que vuela de día, 6 ni de la plaga que vaga alrededor en la oscuridad, ni de la enfermedad que viene al mediodía. 7 Mil pueden caer a tu lado y diez mil a tu mano derecha, pero esta no te alcanzará. 8 Tú solo observarás y verás el castigo de los malvados. 9 ¡Pues el SEÑOR es mi refugio! Hagan al Altisimo su refugio también. 10 Ningún mal te alcanzará; ninguna aflicción vendrá cerca de tu casa. 11 Pues Él dirigirá Sus ángeles para protegerte, para guardarte en todos tus caminos. 12 Ellos te levantarán con sus manos para que tu no golpees tus pies sobre una roca. 13 Tu quebrarás leones y víboras bajo tus pies; tu pisotearás sobre leones jóvenes y serpientes. 14 Porque él es devoto a Mí, Yo lo rescataré. Yo lo protegeré porque él es leal a Mí. 15 Cuando él Me llame, Yo le responderé. Yo estaré con él en los problemas; Yo le daré la victoria y lo honraré. 16 Yo le satisfaré con larga vida y le mostraré Mi salvación.

Psalms 91:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común enla poesía hebrea.

Aquel que vive ... permanecerá ... Todopoderoso Debido a que "vivir" y "permanecer" significan casi lo mismo, al igual que "refugio" y "sombra", que son metáforas de protección, es posible que deba combinar las dos líneas en una sola. Traduccion alternativa: "El Altísimo, el Todopoderoso, cuidará de todos aquellos que viven donde él puede protegerlos" que vive en el refugio del Altísimo La palabra "refugio" es una metáfora para protección. Traduccion alternativa: "el que vive donde el Altísimo lo protege"

del Altísimo
La palabra "el Altísimo" se refiere al SEÑOR. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 18:13.

permanecerá en la sombra del Todopoderoso
La palabra "sombra" aquí es una metáfora para protección. Traduccion alternativa: "permanecerá donde el Todopoderoso pueda protegerlo"

Todopoderoso
El que tiene poder y control sobre todas las cosas. Vea cómo esto ha sido traducido en 68:14.

Yo diré del SEÑOR
"Yo diré acercs del SEÑOR"

mi refugio y mi fortaleza
Un "refugio" es cualquier lugar al que una persona puede ir y hacer que alguien o algo lo proteja. Una "fortaleza" es algo que las personas hacen para poder protegerse y proteger sus propiedades. Asaph los usa aquí como metáforas para protección.

Traduccion alternativa: "A quien pueda ir y él me protegerá"

Psalms 91:3

Pues Él te rescatará de la trampa del cazador y de la plaga mortífera Las palabras que se han dejado afuera se pueden poner. Traduccion alternativa: "Porque Dios te rescatará de la trampa del cazador y te rescatará de las plagas que pueden matar"

la trampa del cazador
"de las trampas que el cazador ha puesto para atraparte"

Él te cubrirá con sus alas, y bajo sus alas tu encontrarás refugio
La protección de Dios se conoce aquí como "alas" que un pájaro usa para cubrir a sus crías del peligro. "Cúbrete con sus alas" y "debajo de sus alas" significan básicamente lo mismo. traduccion alternativa: "Él te mantendrá a salvo y te protegerá"

Su integridad es un escudo y protección
La confiabilidad de Dios se conoce aquí como un "escudo" que puede proteger a las personas que confían en él. Traduccion alternativa: "Puedes confiar en él para que te proteja"

protección
Nadie sabe con certeza lo que significa esta palabra. Los posibles significados son 1) un pequeño escudo atado al antebrazo que los soldados usaban para defenderse contra flechas y espadas o 2) un muro de piedras en un círculo dentro del cual los soldados podían esconderse y disparar flechas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 91:5

terror en la noche
El salmista habla del "terror" como si fuera un espíritu o un animal feroz que podría atacar de noche y aterrorizar a la gente. Traducción alternativa: "cosas que te atacan de noche"

en la noche ... de día
Estas dos frases juntas se refieren a todos los momentos posibles de la noche y el día.

ni de la fecha que vuela de día
"Flecha" es un metonimo para las personas que disparan flechas. Traducción alternativa: "personas que te atacan con flechas durante el día"

ni de la plaga que vaga
El salmista habla de la enfermedad como si fuera una persona que andaba de noche matando a otras personas. Traducción alternativa: "No tendrás miedo de morir por enfermedad"

vaga
va donde quiera ir a la hora que quiera

en la oscuridad ... al mediodía Estas dos frases se toman juntas para referirse a todos los tiempos posibles de noche y día.

enfermedad
una enfermedad que hace que muchas personas se enfermen al mismo tiempo

Mil pueden caer a tu lado y diez mil a tu mano derecha
"Muchas personas pueden caer a tu al rededor" Si traduces con numeros exactos puede confundir a los lectores, puedes omitirlos.

pero esta no te alcanzará
"el malvado no te alcanzará"

Psalms 91:8

Tú solo observarás y verás
"Tú mismo no sufrirás, pero mirarás atentamente, y verás"

el castigo de los malvados
"como Dios castiga a los malvados"

el SEÑOR es mi refugio
"el SEÑOR es el único a quien voy cuando necesito que alguien me proteja"

Hagan al Altisimo su refugio también
"Deberías hacer del Altísimo tu refugio también". El salmista deja de hablar con Dios y le habla al lector.

Psalms 91:10

Ningún mal te alcanzará
"Nada malo te ocurrirá"

ninguna aflicción vendrá cerca de tu casa
El salmista habla de las personas que afligen a otros como si fueran el daño que causan. Traduccion alternativa: "nadie podrá dañar a su familia"

Pues Él dirigirá
"el SEÑOR dirigirá"

en todos tus caminos
El salmista habla de la forma en que una persona vive su vida como si fuera un camino por el que caminaba. Traducción alternativa: "en todo lo que haces" o "en todo momento"

Psalms 91:12

Ellos te levantarán
"los angeles del SEÑOR te levantarán"

tu no golpees tus pies sobre una roca
Los ángeles protegerán no solo el pie del lector sino también el resto de su cuerpo. Traducción alternativa: "ni siquiera golpearás tu pie con una piedra" o "no te pasará nada malo"

Tu quebrarás leones y víboras bajo tus pies; tu pisotearás sobre leones jóvenes y serpientes Donde "golpear el pie con una piedra" es un problema menor, los leones y las serpientes son ejemplos de grandes peligros. El salmista habla de leones y serpientes como si fueran lo suficientemente pequeños como para ser aplastados bajo el pie de una persona. Traduccion alternativa: "Podrás matar leones y víboras como si fueran pequeños animales que podrías aplastar bajo tus pies"

víboras tipo de serpiente venenosa

pisotearás
aplastar caminando pesadamente por

Psalms 91:14

Porque él es devoto a Mí
"Porque me ama"

Yo estaré con él en los problemas Esto se puede hacer explicito. Traduccion alternativa: "Yo estaré con él cuando esté en problemas"

le daré la victoria
"lo habilitaré para derrotar a sus enemigos"

le satisfaré con larga vida
El salmista habla de la vida como si fuera algo que alguien pudiera comer. Traducción alternativa: "Le permitiré vivir una vida larga y feliz"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y le mostraré Mi salvación
"y le mostraré mi salvación". El salmista habla del trabajo que Dios hace para salvar a las personas como si fuera un objeto físico. Traducción alternativa: "Lo salvaré para que sepa que soy yo quien lo salvó"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 92

1 Es bueno el dar gracias al SEÑOR y cantar alabanzas a Su nombre, oh Altísimo, 2 proclamar la fidelidad al pacto en la mañana y Tu veracidad cada noche, 3 con un arpa de diez cuerdas y con la melodía de la lira. 4 Pues Tu, SEÑOR, Me has alegrado a traves de Tus obras. Yo Te cantaré por gozo por causa de las obras de Tus manos. 5 ¡Cuan grande son Tus obras, SEÑOR! Tus pensamientos son bien profundos. 6 Una persona necia no sabe, ni tampoco el tonto entiende esto: 7 Cuando el malvado brota como la hierba, y aún cuando los hacedores de maldad prosperan, todavía ellos estan condenados a destrucción eterna. 8 Pero tu, SEÑOR, reinarás por siempre. 9 Ciertamente, ¡mira a Tus enemigos, SEÑOR! Ciertamente, ¡mira a Tus enemigos! ¡Ellos perecerán! Todos esos que hacen maldad serán dispersados. 10 Tu has levantado mi cuerno como el cuerno de un buey salvaje; Yo estoy ungido con aceite fresco. 11 Mis ojos han visto la caída de mis enemigos; mis oídos han escuchado la condena de mis enemigos malvados. 12 Los justos florecerán como la palmera; ellos crecerán como el cedro en el Líbano. 13 Ellos están plantados en la casa del SEÑOR; ellos florecerán en las cortes de nuestro Dios. 14 Ellos cargan frutos aún cuando son viejos; ellos se mantienen frescos y verdes, 15 para proclamar que el SEÑOR es justo. Él es mi roca, y no hay injusticias en Él.

Psalms 92:1

Información general
Pralelismo es común en poesía hebrea

cantar alabanzas a Su nombre Las palabras "Su nombre" son una metonimia para "Su". Traducción alternativa: "para cantar alabanzas a ti"

proclamar la fidelidad al pacto
El sujeto abstracto fidelidad puede ser traducir con el adjetivo "fiel". Traducción alternativa: "dile a la gente que eres fiel a guardar tu pacto"

Tu veracidad
El sujeto abstracto "veracidad" puede ser traducido con el adjetivo "verdadero". Traducción alternativa: "que todo lo que dices es verdadero"

Psalms 92:4

alegrado
"feliz"

a traves de Tus obras
La frase sustantiva abstracta "tus obras" se puede traducir con la cláusula relativa "lo que has hecho". Traducción alternativa: "por lo que has hecho"

las obras de Tus manos
La frase sustantiva abstracta "los hechos de tus manos" se puede traducir con la cláusula relativa "lo que han hecho tus manos". La palabra "manos" es una sinécdoque para toda la persona. Traduccion alternativa: "Lo que has hecho"

las obras
La frase sustantiva abstracta "tus obras" se puede traducir con una cláusula relativa. Traducción alternativa: "lo que has hecho"

Tus pensamientos son bien profundos
"No podemos entender lo que planeas hacer hasta que lo hagas"

Tus pensamientos
La frase sustantiva abstracta "tus pensamientos" se puede traducir con una cláusula relativa. Traducción alternativa: "Lo que piensas" o "Lo que planeas"

Psalms 92:6

necia
"violenta y estúpida"

Cuando el malvado brota como la hierba
Esto compara a las personas malvadas con la hierba, que crece rápidamente y en muchos lugares. Traducción alternativa: "Cuando las personas malvadas aparecen rápidamente y parecen estar en todas partes, como la hierba"

todavía ellos estan condenados a destrucción eterna
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Dios ha decidido que los destruirá por completo"

Psalms 92:8

Ciertamente, ¡mira a Tus enemigos, SEÑOR!
Muchos textos no tienen estas palabras

¡Ellos perecerán!
"Ellos morirán" o "Tú los matarás"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Todos esos que hacen maldad serán dispersados.
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "esparcirás a todos los que hacen el mal"

serán dispersados Muchos textos leen, "han sido dispersados" dispersados

"ahuyentados"

Psalms 92:10

Tu has levantado mi cuerno como el cuerno de un buey salvaje El salmista habla a Dios como si Dios lo hubiera hecho tan fuerte como un animal salvaje. Traducción Alternativa: "Me has hecho tan fuerte como un buey salvaje"

levantado ... cuerno
"hecho fuerte" vea cómo "levantarás ... cuerno" es traducido en 75:4

Yo estoy ungido con aceite fresco
Los posibles significados son que el aceite que Dios ha puesto sobre el salmista es una metáfora de Dios 1) hacerlo feliz "me has hecho muy feliz" o 2) hacerlo fuerte, "me has hecho fuerte" o 3) habilitarlo para derrotar a sus enemigos, "me has permitido derrotar a mis enemigos".

Mis ojos han visto la caída de mis enemigos; mis oídos han escuchado la condena de mis enemigos malvados
Las palabras "ojos" y "oídos" son sinécdoques para la persona que ve y oye. Las líneas se pueden combinar. Traducción Alternativa: "He visto y oído hablar de la derrota de mis enemigos malvados"

Psalms 92:12

Los justos florecerán como la palmera
Los posibles significados son que las personas justas serán como una palmera sana porque 1) serán fuertes o 2) vivirán por mucho tiempo.

ellos crecerán como el cedro en el Líbano Los posibles significados son que las personas justas serán como un saludable cedro que crece en la tierra del Líbano porque 1) serán fuertes o 2) las personas los honrarán.

Ellos están plantados Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR los ha plantado" o "el SEÑOR los cuida como si fueran árboles que él había plantado" en la casa del SEÑOR ... en los cortes de nuestro Dios.

El salmista habla de personas que verdaderamente adoran a Dios como si fueran árboles que crecen en la casa del SEÑOR.

ellos florecerán
El salmista habla de las personas justas como si fueran árboles sanos. Traducción alternativa: "están creciendo bien" o "son muy fuertes" en los cortes de nuestro Dios.

En el patio del templo de Jerusalén.

Psalms 92:14

Ellos cargan frutos
El salmista habla de las personas justas como si fueran árboles que producen alimentos. Traducción alternativa: "Ellos complacen a Dios"

ellos se mantienen frescos y verdes
El salmista habla de las personas justas como si fueran árboles. Traducción alternativa: "permanecen fuertes y saludables" o "siempre hacen lo que agrada a Dios"

verdes, para proclamar que Los significados posibles son 1) "verdes, para que puedan proclamar" o 2) "verdes. Esto demuestra que"

Él es mi roca
"El SEÑOR es quien me protege". El salmista habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una roca que lo protegería. Vea cómo se traduce esto en 18: 2.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 93

1 EL SEÑOR reina; Él SEÑOR está vestido en majestad. El SEÑOR se ha vestido y ceñido con fuerza. El mundo está firmemente establecido; el no puede ser movido. 2 Tu trono está establecido desde tiempos antiguos; Tú eres desde la eternidad. 3 Los oceános se levantan, SEÑOR; ellos han levantado sus voces; Las olas del oceáno chocan y rugen. 4 Por encima del ruido de las muchas olas, EL SEÑOR en las alturas es poderoso. 5 Tus solemnes mandamientos son muy confiables; la santidad adorna Tu casa SEÑOR, para siempre.

Psalms 93:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea. (Ver:|Poetry y|Parallelism) está vestido en majestad. El SEÑOR se ha vestido y ceñido con fuerza El salmista habla de la fuerza y majestad del SEÑOR como si fueran cosas que el SEÑOR usa. Traducción Alternativa: "él les muestra a todos que es un rey poderoso" o "su majestad está ahí para que todos la vean, como la túnica que usa un rey; todo sobre el SEÑOR muestra que es fuerte y que está listo para hacer un gran trabajo" (Ver :|Metaphor y|Simile)

majestad
el poder de un rey y la forma que actúa ceñido

ponerse un cinturón (una banda de cuero u otro material que una persona use alrededor de su cintura) para prepararse para el trabajo o la batalla

El mundo está firmemente establecido
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "Tú has establecido firmemente al mundo" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

no puede ser movido
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traduccion alternativa: "nadie puede ser movido" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

tu trono está establecido desde tiempos antiguos
Esto puede ser declarado de forma acitva. Traduccion alternativa: "Tú has establecido tu trono desde tiempos antiguos" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

Tú eres desde la eternidad
"Tú siempre has existido"

Psalms 93:3

océanos ... océano
Algunas versiones dicen "inundaciones ... inundaciones". La palabra a menudo se refiere a un río (ver "el río", 72: 8), pero "océanos ... océanos" ha sido elegido aquí porque los océanos, no los ríos, tienen "olas" que "chocan y rugen".

han levantado sus voces
El salmista habla del océano como si fuera una persona que pudiera hablar. Traducción alternativa: "ha hecho un ruido poderoso porque sus olas chocan y rugen"

rugen
hacer un sonido largo y fuerte

Por encima del ruido de las muchas olas
La frase "los poderosos rompedores del mar" significa básicamente lo mismo que "muchas olas" y enfatiza cuán grandes son estas olas. Traducción alternativa: "Por encima del choque de todas las grandes olas del mar"

rompedores grandes olas llegando a tierra

Por encima
El salmista habla de dónde vive Dios como si estuviera muy por encima de la tierra. Traducción alternativa: "en el cielo"

Psalms 93:5

solemnes muy serio

son muy confiables
"siempre permanece igual" o "nunca cambia" (UDB)

la santidad adorna Tu casa El salmista habla de la casa del SEÑOR como si fuera una mujer vestida con ropa o joyas hermosas y de la santidad del SEÑOR como ropa o joyas hermosas. Traducción alternativa: "tu casa es hermosa porque eres santa" o "tu santidad hace que tu casa sea hermosa de la misma manera que la ropa y las joyas hermosas hacen que una mujer sea más hermosa"

tu casa
el templo de Jerusalén

adorna hacerlo hermoso

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 94

1 El Señor, Dios que toma venganza, Dios que toma venganza, resplandece sobre nosotros. 2 Levantate, juzga la tierra, da a los orgullosos lo que ellos merecen. 3 ¿Cúanto tiempo el malvado, Señor, cúanto tiempo el malvado se regocijará? 4 Ellos han derramado palabras arrogantes; todas aquellos que hacen alarde del mal. 5 Ellos aplastaron a tu gente, Señor'; ellos afligieron a la nación que te pertenece a tí. 6 Ellos matan a la viuda y al extranjero que vive en su país, y ellos matan al huérfano. 7 Ellos dicen, "El Señor no verá, el Dios de Jacob no se dará cuenta de ello." 8 ¡Entienden, ustedes gente estupida! ¿Ustedes tontos, cuándo ustedes van a aprender? 9 El que hizo el oído, ¿no oirá? El que formó el ojo, ¿no verá? 10 El que discipula las naciones, ¿no correjirá? El es el que da el conocimiento al hombre. 11 El Señor conoce los pensamientos del hombre, que ellos son vapor. 12 Bendito es aquel a quien tú instruyes, Señor, aquel a quien tú enseñas de tu ley. 13 Tú le darás a él descanso en tiempos de problemas hasta que se cave un foso para los impíos. 14 Por que no abandonará el Señor a su gente o abandonará su herencia. 15 Por que el juicio volverá a ser justo; y todos los rectos de corazón le seguirán. 16 ¿Quién se levantará para defenderme de los malignos? ¿Quién se levantará por mi contra los malvados? 17 A menos que el Señor hubiera sido mi ayuda, yo estaría descanzando en el lugar del silencio. 18 Cuando yo diga, "mi pie esta resbalando'', Señor, sosténme, Tu pacto de fidelidad, Señor, me sostiene. 19 Cuando tus cuidados para conmigo son muchos, tus consolaciones me hacen feliz. 20 ¿Puede un trono de destrucción estar aliado contigo, aquel que crea injusticia por ley? 21 Ellos conspiran juntos para tomar la vida del recto y ellos condenan al inocente a muerte. 22 Pero el Señor ha sido mi torre alta, y mi Dios ha sido la roca de mi refugio. 23 El traerá sobre ellos su propia iniquidad y los cortará de su propia maldad. El Señor nuestro Dios los cortará.

Psalms 94:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

toma venganza
"muéstrate" o "revela tu justicia"

Levantate, juzga la tierra, da a los orgullosos lo que ellos merecen
"Ven, juzga la tierra, y castiga a los orgullosos"

Levántate
El salmista habla de empezar a hacer algo para levantarse. Si en tu lenguaje hay una palabra para empezar a actuar, usa aqui. Traduccion alternativa: "Toma acción" o "Haz algo"

Psalms 94:3

¿Cúanto tiempo el malvado, Señor, cúanto tiempo el malvado se regocijará?
El salmista repite la pregunta para mostrar que no está contento con el tiempo que el SEÑOR ha permitido que los malvados se regocijen. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alternativa: "Has esperado demasiado, SEÑOR; has esperado demasiado para evitar que los malvados se regocijen".

el malvado se regocijará
Por qué los malvados se regocijan se puede decir claramente. Traducción alternativa: "se regocijarán los malvados porque nunca los castigas por los actos malvados que hacen"

ellos
"Todos aquellos que hacen lo malo"

Ellos han derramado palabras arrogantes
El salmista escribe sobre los malvados hablando como si sus palabras fueran un líquido derramado.

todas aquellos que hacen alarde del mal
"Todos los que hacen el mal se jactan de sus malas acciones y comportamiento"

Psalms 94:5

afligieron a la nación
Aquí el metonimo "nación" se refiere a la gente de la nación. Traducción alternativa: "afligir a la gente de la nación"

Ellos matan
El salmista habla de las personas poderosas que tratan a las personas impotentes como si las estuviera aplastando o rompiendo en pedazos. Traducción alternativa: "Destruyen completamente" o "Dañan mucho". Vea cómo se traduce "romper en pedazos" en 72: 4.

la viuda
"mujeres cuyos maridos han muerto"

al huérfano
"niños sin padres"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el Dios de Jacob no se dará cuenta de ello
"el Dios de Israel no ve lo que hicimos"

Psalms 94:8

Información general
El escritor ahora instruye a las personas malvadas.

cuándo ustedes van a aprender?
Esta pregunta retórica enfatiza la ira del escritor con las personas malvadas con las que está hablando. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción alternativa: "¡deja de tus tonterías!" o "aprende de tus errores!"

El que hizo el oído, ¿no oirá? El que formó el ojo, ¿no verá?
Estas preguntas retóricas se pueden traducir como declaraciones o comandos. Traducción alternativa: "Dios hizo oídos para que pueda oír. Dios hizo ojos para que pueda ver". o "Dios hizo oídos, así que deja de actuar como si no oye. Dios hizo ojos, así que deja de actuar como si no viera".

Psalms 94:10

Información general
El escritor continúa instruyendo a las personas malvadas.

El que discipula las naciones, ¿no correjirá?
Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Está implícito que el SEÑOR corrige a su pueblo. Traducción alternativa: "Sabes que el SEÑOR corrige a las naciones, así que puedes estar seguro de que corregirá a su pueblo" o "castigará a su pueblo"

¿no correjirá?
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Los significados posibles son 1) Dios corrige. Traducción alternativa: "él corrige" o 2) Dios castiga. "él castiga"

que ellos son vapor
Aquí los pensamientos de los hombres se comparan con el vapor o vapor que desaparece en el aire. Esta metáfora muestra lo poco importantes e inútiles que son.

vapor
"humo." Vea cómo se traduce esta palabra en 39:10

Psalms 94:12

Infromación general
Ahora el escritor otra vez habla al SEÑOR

hasta que se cave un foso para los impíos
El salmista habla de que el SEÑOR castiga a los malvados como si el SEÑOR estuviera atrapando a un animal en un pozo. Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "hasta que caves un hoyo para los malvados" o "hasta que destruyas a los malvados"

Psalms 94:14

su herencia
"aquellos a quienes él ha elegido para estar con él por siempre"

el juicio volverá a ser justo
El salmista habla de aquellos que juzgan como si fueran las decisiones que toman. El sustantivo abstracto "juicio" se puede traducir con el verbo "juez". Traducción alternativa: "los jueces volverán a juzgar con rectitud" o "los jueces volverán a tomar decisiones justas"

los rectos de corazón
La frase adjetiva "rectos de corazón" se puede traducir como una frase sustantiva. Traduccion alternativa: "aquellos cuyos corazones están bien con Dios" le seguirán

"querrán que los jueces juzguen con rectitud"

¿Quién se levantará para defenderme de los malignos? ¿Quién se levantará por mi contra los malvados?
Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traduccion alternativa: "Nadie me defenderá contra los malvados. Nadie me ayudará a luchar contra los malvados".

los malvados
El adjetivo "malvado" se puede traducir como una frase sustantiva. Traducción alternativa: "gente malvada"

Psalms 94:17

A menos que el Señor hubiera sido mi ayuda ... silencio
Esta es una situación hipotética. El SEÑOR lo ayudó, así que no estaba acostado en el lugar del silencio.

A menos que el Señor hubiera sido mi ayuda
El sustantivo abstracto "ayuda" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alternativa: "Si el SEÑOR no me hubiera ayudado".

yo estaría descanzando en el lugar del silencio
Aquí "estaría acostado" se refiere a "muerte" y "en lugar de silencio" se refiere a la "tumba" Traducción alternativa: "en poco tiempo estaría muerto, acostado en una tumba silenciosa"

Cuando tus cuidados para conmigo son muchos, tus consolaciones me hacen feliz
El salmista habla del cuidado como si pudiera contar cuidados separados. El sustantivo abstracto "consolaciones" se puede traducir con el verbo "consola" o "comodidad". Traduccion alternativa: "Cuando he estado preocupado por muchas cosas, me has consolado y hecho feliz"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 94:20

¿Puede un trono de destrucción estar aliado contigo, aquel que crea injusticia por ley?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para hacer un punto. Se puede traducir como una declaración. Traduccion alternativa: "Un gobernante malvado que hace leyes injustas no es tu amigo"

trono de destrucción Aquí el metonimo "trono" se refiere a un rey o gobernante. Traduccion alternativa: "un gobernante malvado" o "juez corrupto"

conspiran plan secreto con una persona ilegal o perjudicial

tomar la vida del
Este es una expresión idiomática que significa matar a alguien.

Psalms 94:22

el Señor ha sido mi torre alta
Aquí "torre" es una metáfora para protección. Traduccion alternativa: "el SEÑOR me ha protegido de mis enemigos"

Dios ha sido la roca de mi refugio
El salmista habla de que Dios lo proteja como si Dios fuera un lugar donde el salmista pudiera ir a salvo. Vea cómo "roca" y "refugio" se traducen en 62:7. Traducción alternativa: "Le he pedido a Dios que me proteja, y él me ha mantenido a salvo por su poder"

El traerá sobre ellos su propia iniquidad Los posibles significados son 1) "les hará las cosas malas que han hecho a los demás" o 2) "los castigarán por todas las cosas malas que les ha hecho a los demás".

los cortará
Esto es una expresión idiomática que significa "matarlos"

de su propia maldad Los significados posibles son 1) "mientras están haciendo cosas malas" o 2) "porque han hecho cosas malas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 95

1 Oh vamos, cantémos al SEÑOR; vamos a cantar alegremente a la Roca de nuestra Salvación. 2 Entremos a Su presencia con acciones de gracias; vamos a cantarle a Él con salmos de alabanza. 3 Porque el SEÑOR es un gran Dios y un gran Rey superior a todos los dioses. 4 En Sus manos están las profundidades de la tierra; las alturas de las montañas son Suyas. 5 El mar es Suyo, pues Él lo hizo, y Sus manos formaron la tierra seca. 6 Oh vamos, vamos a adorar y a inclinarnos; arrodillémonos ante el SEÑOR, nuestro creador. 7 Pues Él es nuestro Dios, y nosotros somos el pueblo de su prado y ovejas de Su mano. Hoy--oh, ¡si pueden ustedes oír Su voz! 8 No endurezcan su corazón, como en Meribá, o como en el día de Masáh en el desierto, 9 donde sus padres Me tentaron y probaron, aunque ellos habían visto Mis obras. 10 Por cuarenta años estuve molesto con esa generación y dije: 'Este es un pueblo cuyo corazón vaga por el camino; ellos no han conocido Mis caminos.' 11 Por lo tanto, Yo juré en Mi enojo que ellos nunca entrarían en Mi lugar de reposo."

Psalms 95:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

la Roca de nuestra Salvación
El salmista habla del SEÑOR como si el SEÑOR fuera una montaña que la gente pudiera escalar para estar a salvo. Traducción alternativa: "la roca donde podemos ir y Dios nos salvará". Vea cómo "roca" y "de mi salvación" se traducen en 18:46.

Entremos a Su presencia
El salmista habla como si le estuviera diciendo a los lectores que ingresen a la sala del trono de un rey. Traducción alternativa: "ve a donde está"

con acciones de gracias
"agradeciéndole como si entráramos en su presencia"

superior a todos los dioses
Los posibles significados son que el SEÑOR es un gran rey 1) "que gobierna sobre todos los demás dioses" o 2) "que es mucho mejor que todos los dioses".

Psalms 95:4

en SUS manos
Esto es una expresión idiomática que significa "en su control" o "él es responsable de"

profundidades
lugares profundos

montañas lugares altos

Sus manos formaron
La palabra "manos" es una metonimia para el SEÑOR mismo. Traducción alternativa: "él mismo formó"

Psalms 95:6

arrodillémonos
poner ambas rodillas en el suelo, a menudo para mostrar sumisión

el pueblo de su prado
La palabra "pasto" es una metonimia para la comida que los animales comen en el pasto, que a su vez es una sinécdoque para todo lo que el SEÑOR proporciona a su pueblo. Traducción alternativa: "somos las personas cuyas necesidades él satisface"

prado
un área donde los animales encuentran hierba para comer

ovejas de Su mano
La palabra "mano" aquí se refiere a cómo el SEÑOR protege a su pueblo de la misma manera que un pastor protege a sus ovejas. Traducción alternativa: "la gente a la que protege como un pastor protege a sus ovejas"

Hoy--oh, ¡si pueden ustedes oír Su voz!
"Oh, si pueden ustedes escuchar su voz hoy!" El salmista interrumpe deliberadamente lo que dice.

oír Su voz
Aqui "su voz" se refiere a prestar atención a la palabra de Dios. Traducción alternativa: "escuchen atentamente a él"

Psalms 95:8

Información general
Ahora el escritor escribe palabras que el SEÑOR hablo

endurezcan su corazón
"volverse duro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Meribá ... Masáh
Estos son lugares en el desierto que Moisés nombró porque los israelitas se rebelaron en contra de Dios.

me tentaron ... probaron
Estas dos frases son metáforas para las personas que ven cuánto mal pueden hacer antes de que el SEÑOR los castigue. Las frases dicen básicamente lo mismo y se pueden combinar. Traducción alternativa: "me probó" o "quería ver si podían hacer cosas malas sin castigarlos ... probé si seguiría siendo paciente con ellos"

Mis obras
"las maravillosas cosas que he hecho"

Psalms 95:10

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando directamente a su pueblo.

cuarenta años
"40 años"

esa generación
"todas esas personas" o "esa generación completa de personas"

vaga por el camino
Dios habla de la gente como si fueran ovejas, que irán a donde quieran y no se queden cerca de su pastor. Traducción alternativa: "aléjate de mí" o "sigue su propio camino"

ellos no han conocido Mis caminos
"ellos no me han obedecido"

Mis caminos
"el camino que quiero que ellos vivan"

Mi lugar de reposo
"el lugar donde yo permitiré que descansen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 96

1 Oh, canten al SEÑOR una nueva canción; cante al SEÑOR, toda la tierra. 2 Canten al SEÑOR, bendigan Su nombre, anuncien Su Salvación día tras día. 3 Declaren Su gloria entre las naciones, Sus maravillosas obras entre todas las naciones. 4 Pués el SEÑOR es grande y debe ser alabado grandemente. Él debe ser temido sobre todos los otros dioses. 5 Pués todos los dioses de las naciones son ídolos, pero es el SEÑOR quien hizo los cielos. 6 El esplendor y la majestad están en Su presencia. La fuerza y la belleza están en Su santuario. 7 Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, ustedes clanes del pueblo, den alabanzas al SEÑOR por Su gloria y fuerza. 8 Den al SEÑOR la gloria que Su nombre merece. Traigan ofrendas y vengan a Sus atrios. 9 Inclínense al SEÑOR vistiendo ropas que honren Su santidad. Tiemble ante Él toda la tierra. 10 Digan entre las naciones: "El SEÑOR reina." El mundo también está establecido, este no puede ser sacudido. Él juzga los pueblos rectamente. 11 Alégrense los cielos, y que la tierra se regocige; que el mar ruja y aquello que lo llena grite de alegría. 12 Que los campos se regocigen y todo lo que hay en ellos. Entonces, que todos los árboles en el bosque griten de gozo 13 ante el SEÑOR, pues Él viene. Él viene a juzgar la tierra. Él juzgará al mundo con justicia y a los pueblos con Su fidelidad.

Psalms 96:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

una nueva canción
una canción que nadie nunca cantó antes

toda la tierra
Esto se refiere a las personas de la tierra. Traducción alternativa: "todas las personas que viven en la tierra"

bendigan Su nombre
La palabra "nombre" es una metonimia para el propio el SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "bendice al SEÑOR" o "haz lo que hace feliz al SEÑOR". Vea cómo "se bendiga su glorioso nombre" se traduce en 72:18.

anuncien Su Salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede traducir usando el verbo "guardar". Traducción alternativa: "anuncia que nos ha salvado" o "dile a la gente que él es quien salva"

Psalms 96:3

Declaren Su gloria entre las naciones
"Digan a todas las personas en cada nación acerca de su grandiosa gloria"

Pués el SEÑOR es grande y debe ser alabado grandemente
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR es grandioso. Alabadle mucho" o "el SEÑOR es grandioso, y la gente debería alabarlo grandemente"

Él debe ser temido sobre todos los otros dioses
Esto se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Temerle sobre todos los demás dioses"

Psalms 96:5

en SU presencia
"donde está él"

El esplendor y la majestad están en Su presencia
El salmista habla como si el esplendor y la majestad fueran personas que pueden estar delante de un rey. Traducción alternativa: "Todos saben de su esplendor y majestad"

La fuerza y la belleza están en Su santuario
Las palabras "fuerza" y "belleza" son metonimos para el arca de los decretos del pacto, que se encuentran en el santuario. Traducción alternativa: "Es su santuario el que contiene el arca de los decretos del pacto"

Psalms 96:7

Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, ustedes clanes del pueblo, den alabanzas al SEÑOR por Su gloria y fuerza
Los sustantivos abstractos "gloria" y "fuerza" pueden expresarse como adjetivos. Traducción alternativa: "Alabado sea el SEÑOR ... alabado sea EL SEÑOR porque es glorioso y fuerte". Vea cómo se traducen estas palabras en 29: 1.

Den al SEÑOR la gloria que Su nombre merece
Dele a el SEÑOR la gloria que merece su nombre. El sustantivo abstracto "gloria" se puede expresar como un verbo o un adjetivo. Traducción alternativa: "Honra a el SEÑOR tal como se lo merece su nombre" o "Proclama que el SEÑOR es glorioso tal como se merece su nombre". Vea cómo se traducen estas palabras en 29: 1.

Su nombre
"nombre" se refiere aquí a la persona de Dios. Traducción alternativa: "su"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus atrios
El patio del templo donde los sacerdotes sacrificaban animales al SEÑOR

Psalms 96:9

SEÑOR vistiendo ropas que honren Su santidad
La persona debe usar ropa que demuestre que entiende que el SEÑOR es santo. "SEÑOR, usa ropa adecuada porque es santo". Vea cómo se traducen estas palabras en 29: 1.

Tiemble
temblar de miedo

toda la tierra
"todas las personas de la tierra"

El mundo también está establecido Esto puede ser traducido de fomra activa. Traducción alternativa: "Él además estableció el mundo"

este no puede ser sacudido esto puede ser traducido de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "nada puede sacudirlo"

Psalms 96:11

Alégrense los cielos, y que la tierra se regocige
Los posibles significados son 1) que el salmista habla como si "los cielos" y "la tierra" tuvieran emociones como las personas. "Que sea como si los cielos estuvieran contentos y la tierra se regocija" o 2) "Que los que viven en los cielos se alegren y que los que viven en la tierra se regocijen"

que el mar ruja y aquello que lo llena grite de alegría
"deja que el mar suene como muchas personas alabando al SEÑOR, y que sea como si los que viven en el mar estén gritando de alegría"

Que los campos se regocigen y todo lo que hay en ellos
"Dejen que los campos y todo lo que hay en ellos se regocijen". El salmista habla como si "los campos" y los animales que viven en ellos tengan emociones como las personas. Traducción alternativa: "Sea como si los campos mismos y todos los animales que viven en ellos se regocijan"

que todos los árboles en el bosque griten de gozo
"Entonces todos los árboles en el bosque gritarán"

Él viene a juzgar la tierra. Él juzgará al mundo ... y a los pueblos Las tres frases tienen significados similares; las dos últimas fases se utilizan para fortalecer la primera.

juzgar ... juzgará
Otro posible significado es "gobernar ... gobernará"

Él juzgará al mundo con justicia Aquí "el mundo" es una metonimia para todas las personas en el mundo. Traducción alternativa: "Él juzgará a todas las personas del mundo con rectitud". Vea cómo se traducen estas palabras en 9: 7.

a los pueblos con Su fidelidad
"él juzgará a las personas con su fidelidad"

con Su fidelidad
Los significados posibles son 1) "justamente, de acuerdo con lo que él sabe que es cierto" o 2) "usar el mismo estándar para todas las personas".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 97

1 EL SEÑOR reina; que la tierra se regocige; que las muchas costas se alegren. 2 Nubes y oscuridad lo rodean a Él. Rectitud y justicia son el fundamento de Su trono. 3 Fuego va delante de Él y consume a Sus adversarios a cada lado. 4 Sus relámpagos alumbran al mundo; la tierra mira y tiembla. 5 Las montañas se derriten como cera ante el SEÑOR, el SEÑOR de toda la tierra. 6 Los cielos declaran Su justicia, y todas las naciones ven Su gloria. 7 Todos aquellos que adoran figuras talladas serán avergonzados, aquellos que se jactan en ídolos inútiles--inclinense ante Él, ¡todos ustedes dioses! 8 Sion escuchó y se alegró, y los pueblos de Judá se regocijaron a causa de tus decretos justos, SEÑOR. 9 Pues Tú, SEÑOR, eres el más alto sobre toda la tierra. Tú eres exaltado por encima de todos los dioses. 10 Ustedes que aman al SEÑOR, ¡aborrezcan el mal! Él proteje las vidas de Sus santos, y los libra de la mano de los malvados. 11 La luz es sembrada para los justos y la alegría para aquellos con corazones honestos. 12 Alégrate en el SEÑOR, su justicia; y den gracias cuando recuerden Su santidad.

Psalms 97:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

que la tierra se regocige; que las muchas costas se alegren Se dice que la tierra y las costas tienen emociones como las personas. Traducción alternativa: "Alégrate y alégrate con cada persona en la tierra y cerca de los mares"

costas
Posibles significados son 1) "tierras cerca del océano" o 2) "islas"

Nubes y oscuridad lo rodean a Él
"No lo podemos ver; es como si estuviésemos sentados en la oscuridad con nubes a su al rededor"

Rectitud y justicia son el fundamento de Su trono
La palabra "trono" es un metonimo para los hechos y palabras de quien se sienta en él. El salmista habla como si la justicia y la justicia fueran objetos físicos que aseguraran el trono. Traducción alternativa: "Él es justo y justo en todo lo que hace" o "Él puede gobernar porque gobierna con rectitud y justicia"

el fundamento de Su trono
Aquí "la fundación de su trono" se refiere a cómo el SEÑOR gobierna su reinado.

Psalms 97:3

Fuego va delante de Él
El salmista habla de como si el fuego fuera una persona caminando ante el Rey SEÑOR y diciendo a las personas que el rey está llegando.

consume a Sus adversarios
"quema a sus enemigos"

la tierra mira y tiembla
"la tierra" se refiere a las personas que viven en la tierra. Traducción alternativa: la gente en la tierra ve y tiembla"

tiembla
"se agita con miedo"

Las montañas se derriten como cera ante el SEÑOR
"Las montañas no pueden pararse cuando el SEÑOR se acerca" o "Las montañas se desmoronan en la presencia del SEÑOR"

Psalms 97:6

Los cielos declaran Su justicia
Posibles significados son 1) el salmista habla como si los cielos fueran mensajeros del SEÑOR que declaran que el SEÑOR es justo. Traducción alternativa: "Todos pueden ver que Dios es justo, de la misma manera que todos pueden ver los cielos" o 2) los cielos se refieren a los seres que viven en los cielos. Traducción alternativa: "Todos los que viven en el cielo declaran que l SEÑOR es justo"

Todos aquellos que adoran figuras talladas serán avergonzados, aquellos que se jactan en ídolos inútiles
Esto puede ser traducido de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Dios avergonzará a todos aquellos que se jactan en ídolos inútiles"

Sion escuchó ... los pueblos de Judá
Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en esas tierras. Traducción alternativa: "El pueblo de Zion escucharon ...el pueblo as personas de Judá"

Psalms 97:9

eres el más alto sobre toda la tierra
El salmista habla como si aquellos que eran lo suficientemente fuertes como para gobernar fueran físicamente más altos que otros. Traducción alternativa: "gobierna sobre todas las personas que viven"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú eres exaltado
El salmista habla como si aquellos que eran lo suficientemente fuertes como para gobernar fueran físicamente más altos que otros. Traducción altenativa: "Estás alto, lejos"

la mano de los malvados
"controla al malvado"

La luz es sembrada para ... la alegría para
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares y se usan juntas para enfatizar. Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR siembra luz para aquellos que hacen lo correcto, y siembra alegría para aquellos con corazones honestos"

La luz es sembrada para los justos
La palabra "sembrado" es una metáfora de acciones con resultados futuros. La "luz" es una metáfora de las cosas buenas. Traducción alternativa: "si el SEÑOR planea que sucedan cosas buenas a los justos en el futuro"

los justos
El adjetivo "justo" se puede traducir como una frase sustantiva. Traducción alternativa: "gente justa"

y la alegría para aquellos con corazones honestos
"Y la alegría está sembrada para aquellos con corazones honestos". La palabra "sembrado" es una metáfora de acciones con resultados futuros. Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR planea que las personas con corazones honestos sean felices en el futuro"

aquellos con corazones honestos
El corazón es una síndoque para toda la persona. Traducción alternativa:

Psalms 97:12

Información general
Este versículo tiene un comando seguido de la razón del comando. Si su idioma requiere la razón para preceder al mandato: "Por lo que el SEÑOR ha hecho por ustedes, ustedes, personas justas, alégrense y den gracias cuando recuerden su santidad".

Alégrate en el SEÑOR
"Alégrate por lo que el SEÑOR ha hecho por ustedes"

cuando recuerden Su santidad Posibles significados son 1) "cuando recuerden cuan Santo él es" o 2) "por su Santo nombre", una metonimia para "por Su"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 98

1 Oh, canten al SEÑOR una nueva canción, pues Él ha hecho cosas maravillosas; Su mano derecha y Su santo brazo le han dado victoria. 2 El SEÑOR ha dado a conocer Su Salvación; Él ha mostrado abiertamente Su justicia a todas las naciones. 3 Él trae a memoria la lealtad y su Pacto de Fidelidad para la casa de Israel; todos los confines de la tierra verán la victoria de nuestro Dios. 4 Grite de alegría al SEÑOR, toda la tierra; entonen una canción, canten de gozo, y canten alabanzas. 5 Canten alabanzas al SEÑOR con arpa, con el arpa y con canciones melodiosas. 6 Con trompetas y el sonido del cuerno, hagan una algarabía de gozo ante el Rey, el SEÑOR. 7 Que el mar grite y todo en él, ¡el mundo y aquellos que viven en él! 8 Que los ríos aplaudan con sus manos, y las montañas griten de alegría. 9 El SEÑOR viene a juzgar la tierra; Él juzgará al mundo con justicia y las naciones con rectitud.

Psalms 98:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea.

una nueva canción
una canción que nadie nunca cantó antes. Ver cómo se ha traducido en 96:1

Su mano derecha y Su santo brazo le han Las palabras "mano derecha" y "brazo sagrado" se refieren a la fuerza del SEÑOR. Juntos enfatizan cuán grande es su fuerza. Traducción alternativa: "su gran poder tiene"

mano derecha
la más poderosa y habilidosa mano

santo brazo
Aquí "brazo" es una metonimia para poder. Traducción alternativa: "el poder que sólo es de él"

han dado victoria Posibles significados son 1) "capaces de derrotar a sus enemigos" o 2) "capaces de salvar a su pueblo"

ha dado a conocer Su Salvación
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede traducir usando el verbo "guardar". Traducción alternativa: "mostró a la gente que salva a su gente"

Él ha mostrado abiertamente Su justicia a todas las naciones
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" se puede traducir usando el adjetivo "justo". La palabra "naciones" es una metonimia para "las personas que viven en todas las naciones". Traducción alternativa: "mostró a las personas que viven en todas las naciones que él es justo"

Psalms 98:3

trae a memoria
"recuerdan". Ver cómo "traer a memoria" es traducido en 20:3

todos los confines de la tierra ... toda la tierra Estas son metonimias para todas las personas de la tierra. Traducción alternativa: "personas de todo el mundo ... todas las personas en el mundo"

verán la victoria de nuestro Dios El sujeto abstracto "victoria" puede ser traducido usando el verbo "derrotar" Traducción alternativa: "verá a nuestro Dios derrotar a sus enemigos"

entonen una canción
"de repente compienza a cantar alegremente" canten con gozo

"canta porque estás feliz" canten alabanzas

"canten alabanzas a Dios"

Psalms 98:5

melodiosas
sonido musical agradable o placentero

del cuerno
un cuerno de animal usado como instrumento musical hagan una algarabía de gozo

"levanten un grito" Vea cómo "grito" es traducido en 47:1

Psalms 98:7

Que el mar grite y todo en él
El salmista habla como si el mar fuera una persona que puede gritar a Dios. Traducción alternativa: "Dejen que sea como el mar y todo gritara" el mundo y aquellos que viven en él

El salmista habla como si el mundo fuera una persona. Traducción alternativa: "y dejen al mundo y los que viven gritar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Que los ríos aplaudan con sus manos, y las montañas griten de alegría El salmista habla como si los ríos y las montañas fueran personas que pudieran aplaudir y gritar. Traducción alternativa: "Sea como si los ríos aplaudieran y las montañas gritaran de alegría"

al mundo ... las naciones Estas frases son metonimias de "las personas en el mundo" y "las personas que viven en las naciones"

las naciones con justicia
"él juzgará a las naciones con justicia"

con justicia
"honestamente" o "usando el mismo estándar para todos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 99

1 El SEÑOR reina; dejen que las naciones tiemblen. El se sienta entronizado sobre el querubín; la tierra tiembla. 2 El SEÑOR es grande en Sión; Él es exaltado sobre todas las naciones. 3 Deja que ellos alaben tu maravilloso y gran nombre; Él es santo. 4 El rey es fuerte, y Él ama la justicia. Tú has establecido la rectitud; Tú has hecho justicia en Jacob. 5 Alaba al SEÑOR nuestro Dios y adora en el estrado de sus pies. Él es santo. 6 Moisés y Aarón estaban entre sus sacerdotes, y Samuel estaba entre aquellos que le oraban a Él. Ellos oran al SEÑOR, y Él les responde a ellos. 7 Él les habla a ellos desde la columna de nube. Ellos mantuvieron sus solemnes mandamientos y ordenanzas que Él les dió. 8 Tú les respondiste, SEÑOR nuestro Dios. Un Dios perdonador fuiste para ellos, pero uno que castigaste sus andanzas pecaminosas. 9 Alaben al SEÑOR nuestro Dios, y alabenlo en su santo monte, porque El SEÑOR tú Dios es santo.

Psalms 99:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea.

las naciones
Esto se refiere a las personas de todas las naciones. Traduccion alternativa: "las personas de todas las naciones"

tiemblan
tiembla con miedo

El se sienta entronizado sobre el querubín
El salmista habla como si el trono en el que el SEÑOR se sienta está sobre los querubines en la tapa del arca de los decretos del pacto en el templo.

tiembla
agita de miedo

El SEÑOR es grande en Sión, Él es exaltado sobre todas las naciones
"el SEÑOR no solo es grande en Sion, sino que está exaltado sobre todas las naciones" o "el SEÑOR no solo gobierna en Sion, él gobierna sobre todas las naciones"

Él es exaltado sobre todas las naciones
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "la gente en todas las naciones lo exalta" o "la gente en todas las naciones lo alaba mucho"

Deja que ellos alaben tu maravilloso y gran nombre
Aquí el autor pasa de hablar sobre Dios a hablar con Dios. Sin embargo, después de esta frase, vuelve a hablar sobre Dios.

Psalms 99:4

Él ama la justicia
El sujeto abstracto "justicia" puede ser traducido usando la frase "lo que es justo" Traducción alternativa: "él ama hacer la justicia"

Tú has establecido la rectitud
El sujeto abstracto "rectitud" es una metonimia de las leyes que son justas. "La ley que has establecido son justas"

de sus pies
"ante su trono"

Psalms 99:6

solemnes
"sagrado"

Psalms 99:8

Tú les respondiste
"Tú has respondido a tu pueblo"

su santo monte
"Monte Zion"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 100

1 Grite alegrementemente al SEÑOR, toda la tierra. 2 Sirvan al SEÑOR con alegría; vengan ante Su presencia con cántico gozoso. 3 Conozcan que el SEÑOR es Dios; Él nos hizo, y nosotros somos suyos. Nosotros somos Su pueblo y la oveja de su prado. 4 Entren por Sus puertas con acción de gracias y a sus atrios con alabanza. Den gracias a Él y bendigan Su nombre. 5 Pués el SEÑOR es bueno; Su Pacto de Fidelidad dura por siempre y Su veracidad por todas las generaciones.

Psalms 100:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea

Grite alegremente al SEÑOR
"Levanten gritos al SEÑOR" Vea como "grito" es traducido en 47:1

toda la tierra
Esto se refiere a todas las personas de la tierra. Traduccion alternativa: "todos en la tierra"

vengan ante Su presencia
El salmista habla como si él estuviera diciendo a los lectores para ir a la habitación del trono del rey. Traducción alternativa: "ir donde está cantando con gozo" o "él puede escucharte, entonces canta alegremente"

Psalms 100:3

la oveja de su prado
El pueblo de Dios es como una oveja, Traducción alternativa: "el pueblo que Dios provee y protege"

prado
área de pastos que alimentan animales

Psalms 100:4

con acción de gracias
"mientras lo agradecen" o "mientras dan gracias a él"

bendigan Su nombre
La palabra "nombre" es una metonimia del SEÑOR a sí mismo. Traducción alternativa: "bendice al SEÑOR" o "haz lo que hace feliz al SEÑOR" Vea cómo "bendice Su glorioso nombre" es traducido en 72:18

Su veracidad por todas las generaciones
"su veracidad dura por todas las generaciones"

por todas las generaciones
"generación en generación" vea cómo está traducido en 89:3

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 101

1 Yo cantaré de Su Pacto de Fidelidad y su justicia; a ti, SEÑOR, yo cantaré alabanzas. 2 Yo caminaré en camino de integridad. Oh, ¿cuándo Tú vendrás a mí? Yo caminaré con integridad en mi casa. 3 Yo no permitire el mal delante de mis ojos; yo aborrezco la maldad; esta no se aferrará a mí. 4 Las personas perversas me dejarán; yo no soy leal a la maldad. 5 Yo destruiré a cualquiera que secretamente calumnie a su vecino. Yo no toleraré a nadie que tenga un comportamiento orgulloso y una actitud arrogante. 6 Yo miraré al fiel de la tierra para que se siente a mi lado. Aquellos que caminan en el camino de integridad, pueden servirme. 7 Las personas engañosas no permanecerán en mi casa; los mentirosos no serán bienvenidos delante de mis ojos. 8 De mañana tras mañana, yo destruiré a todos los malvados de la tierra; yo removeré a todos los malechores de la ciudad del SEÑOR.

Psalms 101:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea.

Psalms 101:2

Yo caminaré en camino de integridad
Aquí David habla acerca de "vivir" como si fuese "caminar". Traducción alternativa: "Yo viviré de forma honesta y correcta" o "Viviré una vida llena de integridad"

Yo caminaré con integridad en mi casa
Aquí David habla acerca de "vivir" como si fuese "caminar". También, David habla de supervisar su casa con integridad, como si la integridad fuera un objeto físico en su casa. Traducción alternativa: "Yo supervisaré mi casa con integridad"

Yo no permitire el mal delante de mis ojos
"el mal" es un sujeto abstracto que puede ser escrito como una frase. El idioma, "poner el mal delante de mis ojos" significa aprobarlo. Traducción alternativa: "No aprobaré que nadie haga lo malo en mi presencia"

esta no se aferrará a mí
David describe el "mal" como si fuera algo incapaz de aferrarse a él. Esto significa que él no permitirá que las cosas malas y personas malas hagan cosas malvadas. Traducción alterativa: "No permitiré el mal en absoluto" aferrará

mantenerse en algo o alguien muy apretado

Psalms 101:4

maldad
"nada que sea malvado"

un comportamiento orgulloso y una actitud arrogante Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan cuan orgullosa puede ser una persona.

comportamiento
"actitud" o "personalidad"

Yo miraré al fiel de la tierra para que se siente a mi lado Esto significa que David permite a esa gente estar cerca de él y vivir con él. Traducción alternativa: "Yo permitiré al fiel de la tierra vivir conmigo"

al fiel
Esto se refiere a las personas que son fieles a Dios. Traducción alternativa: "las personas fieles" caminan en el camino de integridad Aquí David habla acerca de "vivir" como si fuera "caminar". Traducción alternativa: "viven de forma honesta y correcta" o "viven vidas llenas de integridad"

Psalms 101:7

Las personas engañosas no ... los mentirosos no
Estas dos frases tienen la misma idea y son usadas juntas para enfatizar cómo David no tolerará a las personas engañosas.

los mentirosos no serán bienvenidos Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "No daré bienvenida a los mentirosos"

delante de mis ojos Aquí "mis ojos" se refiere a David mismo. Traducción alternativa: "delante de mí" o "en mi presencia"

mañana tras mañana
"Todos los días" (UDB)

los malvados
Esto se refiere a las personas malvadas. Traducción alternativa: "las personas malvados"

de la ciudad del SEÑOR
David se refiere a la ciudad en la que está como "la ciudad del SEÑOR". Esto se puede aclarar. Traducción alternativa: "de esta ciudad", la cual es la ciudad del SEÑOR.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 102

1 Escucha mi oración, SEÑOR; escucha mi llanto a ti. 2 No escondas tu rostro de mí en mi tiempo de problemas. Escúchame. Cuando te llamo, contéstame rápidamente. 3 Pués mis días pasan como humo, y mis huesos arden como fuego. 4 Mi corazón está destruido, y soy como la hierba que se ha marchitado. Yo me olvido de comer cualquier alimento. 5 Con mi constante gemir, me he vuelto muy delgado. 6 Soy como un pelícano del desierto; me he vuelto como un búho en las ruinas. 7 Como un pájaro solitario en el tejado, yo me acuesto, pero no duermo. 8 Mis enemigos me insultan todo el día; aquellos que se burlan de mí, usan mi nombre en maldiciones. 9 Yo como cenizas como pan y mezclo mi bebida con lágrimas. 10 A causa de tu furiosa ira, Tú me has levantado para derribarme. 11 Mis días son como una sombra que se desvanece, y yo me he marchitado como la hierba. 12 Pero Tú, SEÑOR, vives por siempre, y tú fama es por todas las generaciones. 13 Tú te levantarás y tendrás misericordoa en Sion. Ahora es el tiempo de tener misericordia sobre ella; el tiempo señalado ha llegado. 14 Pues tus siervos sostienen sus apreciadas piedras y sienten compasión por el polvo de sus ruinas. 15 Las naciones respetarán Tu nombre, SEÑOR, y todos los reyes de la tierra honrarán Tu gloria. 16 El SEÑOR reconstruirá Sion y aparecerá en Su gloria. 17 En ese tiempo, Él respondará a la oración del necesitado; Él no rechazará su oración. 18 Esto estará escrito para las generaciones futuras, y un pueblo aún no nacido, alabará al SEÑOR. 19 Pués Él ha mirado hacia abajo desde las santas alturas; desde el cielo el SEÑOR ha visto la tierra, 20 para escuchar el gemir de los prisioneros, para liberar aquellos que estaban condenados a muerte. 21 Entonces los hombres proclamarán el nombre del SEÑOR en Sion y su alabanza en Jerusalén 22 cuando los pueblos y reinos se junten para servir al SEÑOR. 23 Él ha quitado mi fuerza a la mitad de mi vida. Él ha acortado mis días. 24 Yo dije: "Mi Dios, no me lleves a la mitad de la vida; Tú estás aquí a través de todas las generaciones. 25 En tiempos antiguos Tú pusiste la tierra en su lugar; los cielos son el trabajo de Tus manos. 26 Ellos perecerán, pero Tú permanecerás; ellos todos envejecerán como la ropa; como vestimenta, Tú los removerás, y ellos desaparecerán. 27 Pero tú eres el mismo, y tus años no tendrán fin. 28 Los hijos de tus siervos vivirán, y sus descendientes vivirán en Tu presencia."

Psalms 102:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea.

afligido
Esto se refiere a un hombre que está afligido. Traducción alternativa: "el hombre afligido"

abrumado
"desmayado" o "débil"

derramar su lamento ante el SEÑOR
La forma que el autor expresa su lamento es comparado con derramar líquido. Traducción alternativa: "expresa libremente su dolor al SEÑOR"

Psalms 102:3

mis días pasan como humo Aquí "mis días" se refiere a la vida del autor y la idea de "humo" es algo que desaparece rápido. Traducción alternativa: "mi vida pasa rápidamente"

mis huesos arden como fuego Aquí el autor se refiere a su "cuepro" como "huesos". Traducción alternativa: "mi cuerpo se siente como quemando"

Mi corazón está destruido Aquí el autor se refiere a sí mismo como su "corazón". Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Estoy deseperado"

soy como la hierba que se ha marchitado
Esto es otra forma para describir su deseperación. Traducción alternativa: "Siento que me estoy secando como se marchita la hierba"

Psalms 102:5

Soy como un pelícano del desierto
Él compara su soledad con la de un pelícano, el cual se ve ocasionalmente solo en comparación a otras aves. Traducción alternativa: "Estoy solo y despistado como un pelícano en el desierto"

un pelicano
un gran ave pescador

me he vuelto como un búho en las ruinas
El autor continúa describiendo la soledad por medio de la comparación a sí mismo con un búho que es abandonado en las ruinas. Traducción alternativa: "Me he vuelto solitario como un búho abandonado en ruinas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un búho
Esta ave está despierta en la noche. Traducción alternativa: "un ave nocturna"

Psalms 102:7

Como un pájaro solitario en el tejado
El escritor se compara a sí mismo como un pájaro para enfatizar su sentimiento de soledad.

Psalms 102:9

Yo como cenizas como pan
David podría sentarse en cenizas como un acto de luto, por lo tanto las cenizas podrían caer en su comida. Traducción alternativa: "Como cenizas como comer pan" o "Como estoy de luto, las cenizas caen en el pan que como"

y mezclo mi bebida con lágrimas
David no mezcla a propósito su bebida con lágrimas; más bien us cenizas podrían caer en su copa mientras él está de luto y llanto. Traducción alternativa: "y mis lágrimas caen dentro de mi copa que bebo"

Tú me has levantado para derribarme
Dios no ha levantado el cuerpo de David y arrojado al suelo literalmente; más bien David dice esto para describir lo que él está sintiendo y experimentado. Traducción alternativa: "es como que me has levantado y arrojado abajo"

Psalms 102:11

Mis días son como una sombra que se desvanece
David compara el tiempo que le queda para vivir en la tierra como sombra que se desvanece. Traducción alternativa: "Mi tiempo para permanecer vivo es corto como una sombra vespertina que pronto desaparecerá"

y yo me he marchitado como la hierba Como el cuerpo de David se debilita y está cerca de finalizar su vida, él compara como la hierba marchitada. Traducción alternativa: "mi cuerpo se ha debilitado como la hierba se marchita" marchitado

seco y marchito

tú fama es por todas las generaciones
"tú serás reconocido por todas las generaciones que vienen"

fama
ser conocido por muchas personas

Psalms 102:13

tendrás misericordia en Sion Aquí "Sion" se refiere a las personas que viven en Sion. Traducción alternativa: "ten misericordia de las personas de Sion" (Ver: Metonymy) sobre ella

La palabra "su" se refiere a Sion.

sostienen sus apreciadas piedras
Las "piedras" se refieren a piedras que son parte del muro de una ciudad antes de ser destruida. Traduccion alternativa: "sigue amando las piedras que fueron formadas en el muro de la ciudad"

tu nombre
Aquí "tu nombre" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "tú" (Ver: Metonymy) honrarán Tu gloria El pueblo honrará al SEÑOR por su gloria. Aquí el SEÑOR es referido por su gloria. Traducción alternativa: "te honrará porque eres glorioso" aparecerá en Su gloria

"será visto como glorioso" o "las personas verán su gloria"

Psalms 102:17

del necesitado
Esto se refiere a las personas necesitadas.

Él no rechazará su oración
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "El SEÑOR aceptará sus oraciones"

Esto estará escrito para las generaciones
Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Escribiré esto para el futuro de las generaciones"

Psalms 102:19

Pués Él ha mirado hacia abajo desde las santas alturas; desde el cielo el SEÑOR ha visto la tierra
Estas dos frases tienen similar significado y son usadas juntas para enfatizar cómo Dios mira abajo desde el cielo.

las santas alturas
"su santo lugar alto encima de la tierra"

aquellos que estaban condenados a muerte Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. traducción alternativa: "aquellos a quienes las autoridades habían sentenciado a morir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 102:21

proclamarán el nombre del SEÑOR en Sion y su alabanza en Jerusalén Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y enfatizan la idea de alabar el nombre del SEÑOR.

y su alabanza
Estas palabras perdidas pueden ser añadidas. Traduccion alternativa: "y proclama su alabanza"

Psalms 102:23

Él ha quitado mi fuerza
David describe a Dios haciendo que se debilite como si su fuerza fuera un elemento físico que se le podría quitar. Traducción alternativa: "me ha hecho debilitarme"

mis días
La palabra "días" aquí se refiere a su vida. traduccion alternativa: "mi vida"

no me lleves
David le pide a Dios que no le deje morir. Traducción alternativa: "no me quites de la tierra" (UDB) o "no me dejes morir"

Tú estás aquí a través de todas las generaciones
"tú estás presenta a través de todas las generaciones"

Psalms 102:25

ellos todos envejecerán
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a "la tierra" y al "cielo"

tus años no tendrán fin
Aquí David describe la longitud de los tiempos que Dios vive como sus "años". Esto puede ser escrito de forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "tú vivirás por siempre"

Psalms 102:28

vivirán
"continuará viviendo"

vivirán en Tu presencia Aquí David describe los descendientes siendo protegidos por el SEÑOR como estando en su presencia. Traducción alternativa: "son protegidos como viviendo en tu presencia"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 103

1 Yo doy alabanzas al SEÑOR con toda mi vida, y con todo lo que está dentro de mí, yo doy alabanza a Su santo nombre. 2 Yo doy alabanza al SEÑOR con toda mi vida, y yo recuerdo todas Sus buenas obras. 3 Él perdona todos tus pecados; Él sana todas tus enfermedades. 4 Él redime tu vida de la destrucción; Él te corona con el Pacto de Fidelidad y actos de tierna misericordia. 5 Él satisface tu vida con buenas cosas para que tu juventud sea renovada como el águila. 6 El SEÑOR hace lo que es recto y hace actos de justicia para todos lo que son oprimidos. 7 Él hizo conocer sus caminos a Moisés, sus obras a los descendientes de Israel. 8 El SEÑOR es misericordioso y clemente; Él es paciente; Él tiene gran lealtad al pacto. 9 Él no siempre disciplinará; Él no siempre está enojado. 10 Él no trata con nosotros tal como merecen nuestros pecados, o nos paga a nosotros por lo que demandan nuestros pecados. 11 Porque así como los cielos están altos sobre la tierra, así de grande es Su Pacto de Fidelidad hacia aquellos que lo honran. 12 Tan lejos como el este está del oeste, así es como lejos Él ha removido la culpa de nuestros pecados de nosotros. 13 Tal como un padre tiene compasión de sus hijos, así el SEÑOR tiene compasión sobre aquellos que lo honran. 14 Pues Él conoce cómo nosotros estamos echos; Él sabe que nosotros somos polvo. 15 En cuanto al hombre, sus días son como la hierba; él florece como una flor en un campo. 16 El viento sopla sobre ella, y ella desaparece, y nadie puede si quiera decir donde ella una vez creció. 17 Pero el Pacto de Fidelidad del SEÑOR es desde la eternidad a la eternidad sobre aquellos que lo honran. Su justicia se extiende a sus descendientes. 18 Ellos mantienen su pacto y recuerdan obedecer sus instrucciones. 19 El SEÑOR ha establecido Su trono en los cielos, y Su reino gobierna sobre todos. 20 Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, ustedes Sus ángeles, ustedes los poderosos que son fuertes y cumplen Su palabra, y obedecen el sonido de Su palabra. 21 Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, todas sus huestes, ustedes son sus siervos que llevan a cabo Su voluntad. 22 Den alabanzas al SEÑOR, todas Sus criaturas, en todos los lugares donde Él reina. Yo daré alabanzas al SEÑOR con toda mi vida.

Psalms 103:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en poesía hebrea.

Un salmo de David
Posibles significados son 1) David escribió el salmo o 2) el salmo es sobre David o 3) el salmo está al estilo de los salmos de David

Yo doy alabanzas al SEÑOR con toda mi vida, y con todo lo que está dentro de mí, yo doy alabanza a Su santo nombre Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan cuánto alabará al SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "Alabaré al SEÑOR con todo lo que soy"

yo doy alabanza a Su santo nombre Esto se refiere a alabar el nombre del SEÑOR como el SEÑOR.

todo lo que está dentro de mí
"todo de mí" o "todo lo que soy". David usa esta frase para referirse a sí mismo y para enfatizar su devoción al SEÑOR.

Psalms 103:3

tus ... tú
Muchas traducciones expresan esto con "mi, yo, mi" como la UDB lo hace.

Él redime tu vida de la destrucción
Esto significa que el SEÑOR lo mantiene vivo. Traducción alternativa: "Él me salva de morir"

Él te corona
Aquí "bendicion" está descrito como si fuera "coronar". Traduccion alternativas: "él te bendice"

Él satisface tu vida con buenas cosas
La frase "tu vida" se refiere a "tú", pero enfatiza que el SEÑOR da bendiciones durante toda la vida. Traducción alternativa: "Te satisface con cosas buenas a través de tu vida"

tu juventud sea renovada como el águila Tener su "juventud renovada" significa sentirse joven nuevamente. Aquí David compara este sentimiento de juventud con la rapidez y la fuerza de un águila. Traducción alternativa: "te sientes joven y eres fuerte como un águila"

tu juventud
"juventud" es referida como la fuerza que uno tiene como adulto jóven.

Psalms 103:6

hace actos de justicia
"causa justicia para que ocurra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todos lo que son oprimidos Quien está realizando la opresión puede ser declarado explícitamente. Traducción alternativa: "todos los que son oprimidos por los hombres"

sus obras a los descendientes
Las palabras perdidas pueden ser añadidas. Traducción alternativa: "él hizo que se conozcan sus obras a los descendientes"

Él tiene gran lealtad al pacto
"está lleno de misericordia y amor"

Psalms 103:9

Él no siempre disciplinará; Él no siempre está enojado
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. El segundo fortalece el pensamiento en el primero.

Él no trata con nosotros ... o nos paga a nosotros Estas dos frases son paralelas y enfatizan que Dios no nos castiga como merecemos. Traducción alternativa: "Él no nos paga con el castigo que merecemos por nuestros pecados"

trata con nosotros
"nos castiga"

Psalms 103:11

Porque así como los cielos están altos ... hacia aquellos que lo honran
El símil compara la gran distancia entre el cielo y la tierra con la grandeza del amor de Dios por su pueblo.

Tan lejos como el este ... ha removido la culpa de nuestros pecados de nosotros
La distancia entre el este y el oeste es tan grande que no se puede medir. En este símil, esa distancia se compara con cuán lejos Dios aleja nuestra culpa de nosotros.

Tal como un padre tiene compasión ... sobre aquellos que lo honran
Aquí el autor compara la compasión de un padre por sus hijos con la compasión del SEÑOR por aquellos que lo honran.

Psalms 103:14

cómo nosotros estamos echos
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "cómo son nuestros cuerpos" o "cómo formó nuestros cuerpos"

Él sabe que nosotros somos polvo
Cuando el SEÑOR creó a Adán, el primer hombre, lo creó del polvo. Traducción alternativa: "recuerda que nos creó del polvo"

En cuanto al hombre, sus días son como la hierba
En este símil, la duración de la vida del hombre se compara con el corto período de tiempo que la hierba crece antes de morir. Traducción alternativa: "La duración de la vida del hombre es corta como la de la hierba"

él florece como una flor en un campo
En este símil, cómo el hombre crece con el tiempo se compara con cómo crece una flor.

florece
Para "florecer" es crecer bien o saludable.

El viento sopla sobre ella, y ella desaparece ... donde ella una vez creció.
Estas frases continúan hablando de flores y pasto. Comparan cómo mueren las flores y la hierba con cómo muere el hombre. Traducción alternativa: "El viento sopla sobre las flores y la hierba y desaparecen, y nadie puede decir dónde alguna vez crecieron, es lo mismo con el hombre"

Psalms 103:17

es desde la eternidad a la eternidad Esto significa que el amor del SEÑOR continúa para siempre. Traducción alternativa: "continuará por siempre"

sus descendientes
"los descendientes de aquellos que lo honran"

Ellos mantienen su pacto y recuerdan obedecer sus instrucciones
Estas dos frases tienen similar significado.

El SEÑOR ha establecido Su trono en los cielos Aquí el reinado del SEÑOR como rey se conoce como su "trono". Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR se ha sentado en los cielos donde gobierna como rey" establecido

"hecho"

Su reino gobierna
Aquí el SEÑOR es referido por "su reino" para enfatizar su autoridad como rey. Traducción alternativa: "él gobierna"

Psalms 103:20

llevan a cabo Su voluntad Esta es un idioma que significa "hacer su voluntad" Traduccion alternativa: "hacer su voluntad"

todos los lugares donde Él reina
"alabenlo en todos los lugares donde reinan"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

con toda mi vida
"con todo de mí" o "con toda mi alma". Esta frase significa que alabará al SEÑOR de todo corazón y se usa para enfatizar su devoción hacia él.

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 104

1 Yo doy alabanza al SEÑOR con toda mi vida, SEÑOR mi Dios, Tú eres sumamente magnífico; Tú estás vestido de esplendor y majestad. 2 Tú Te cubres de luz como con un vestido; Tú despliegas los cielos como una cortina de tienda. 3 Tú colocas las vigas de Tus aposentos en las nubes; Tú haces de las nubes Tu carro; Tú caminas sobre las alas del viento. 4 Él hace de los vientos Sus mensajeros, a las llamas de fuego Sus sirvientes. 5 Él puso los fundamentos de la tierra, y ella nunca será movida. 6 Tú cubriste la tierra con agua como un vestido; el agua cubrió las montañas. 7 Tu reprensión hizo que las aguas retrocedieran; al sonido de Tu estruendosa voz ellas huyeron. 8 Las montañas se levantaron, y los valles se dispersaron a los lugares que Tú habías señalado para ellos. 9 Tú has establecido una frontera para ellas, que ellas no cruzarán; ellas no volverán a cubrir la tierra otra vez. 10 Él hizo que los manantiales fluyeran a los valles; las quebradas fluyen entre las montañas. 11 Ellas suplen agua para todos los animales del campo; los burros salvajes sacian su sed. 12 En las riveras de los ríos las aves construyen sus nidos; ellas cantan entre las ramas. 13 Él riega las montañas desde Sus depósitos de agua en el cielo. La tierra está llena del fruto de Su labor. 14 Él hace crecer la hierba para el ganado y plantas para que el hombre cultive para que así el hombre pueda producir alimento de la tierra. 15 Él hace vino para hacer que el hombre se alegre, aceite para hacer que su rostro brille, y alimento para sostener su vida. 16 Los árboles del SEÑOR reciben abundancia de lluvia; los cedros del Líbano que Él plantó. 17 Allí las pajaros hacen sus nidos. La cigüeña hace del ciprés su hogar. 18 Las cabras salvajes viven en las montañas altas; las alturas de las montañas son un refugio para los tejones. 19 Él puso a la luna para marcar las estaciones; el sol conoce a que hora ponerse. 20 Tú haces la oscuridad de la noche cuando todas las bestias del bosque salen. 21 Los leoncillos rugen por su presa y buscan su alimento de Dios. 22 Cuando el sol sale, ellos se retiran y duermen en sus guaridas. 23 Mientras tanto, la gente sale a su trabajo y labora hasta el anochecer. 24 SEÑOR, ¡que muchas y variadas son Tus obras! Con sabiduría las hiciste todas; la tierra se desborda con Tus obras. 25 Allá está el mar, profundo y ancho, repleto de innumerables criaturas, tanto pequeñas como grandes. 26 Los barcos navegan allí, y también el Leviatán allí está, el cual Tú formaste para juguar en el mar. 27 Todos estos miran para que a tiempo les des su alimento. 28 Cuando Tú se lo das, ellos se reúnen; cuando Tú abres Tu mano, ellos son satisfechos. 29 Cuando Tú escondes Tu rostro, ellos se angustian; si Tú les quitas su aliento, se mueren y vuelven al polvo. 30 Cuando Tú envías Tu Espíritu, ellos son creados, y Tú renuevas la tierra. 31 Que la gloria del SEÑOR dure para siempre; que el SEÑOR disfrute Su creación. 32 Él mira hacia abajo sobre la tierra, y ella tiembla; Él toca las montañas y ellas humean. 33 Yo cantaré al SEÑOR toda mi vida; yo cantaré alabanza a mi Dios mientras viva. 34 Que mis pensamientos sean dulces para Él; yo me regocijaré en el SEÑOR. 35 Que los pecadores desaparezcan de la tierra, y que los malvados no sean más. Yo doy alabanza al SEÑOR con toda mi vida. Alaben al SEÑOR.

Psalms 104:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

Información general
Este salmo es una canción de alabanza.

con toda mi vida
"con todo de mí" o "con toda mi alma". Esta frase significa que alabará al SEÑOR de todo corazón y se usa para enfatizar su devoción hacia él.

Tú estás vestido de esplendor y majestad
Las palabras "esplendor" y "majestad" tienen significados similares y enfatizan la grandeza de la gloria del SEÑOR. Se describen como la ropa del SEÑOR como una prenda. Traducción alternativa: "tienes esplendor y majestad a tu alrededor"

Tú Te cubres de luz como con un vestido el SEÑOR se describe como cubierto de luz como si la luz fuera una prenda a su alrededor. Traducción alternativa: "Estás cubierto de luz"

Tú despliegas los cielos como una cortina de tienda
Aquí se describe a Dios como extendiendo los cielos como si alguien extendiera una tienda de campaña al instalarla. Traducción alternativa: "extiendes los cielos como si alguien armara una tienda de campaña"

Tú colocas las vigas de Tus aposentos en las nubes
"Construyes tus habitaciones superiores en los cielos". Esto se refiere a que su casa es tan alta que el piso superior se extiende hacia las nubes.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú haces de las nubes Tu carro
Aquí se describe que las nubes llevan al SEÑOR como si fueran un carro. Traducción alternativa: "haces que las nubes te lleven como un carro"

Tú caminas sobre las alas del viento
Aquí el soplo del viento se describe como alas sobre las cuales camina el SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "caminas sobre el viento"

Psalms 104:4

Él hace de los vientos Sus mensajeros
Los significados posibles son 1) hace que el viento pueda llevar un mensaje como un mensajero, "Hace que los vientos sean como sus mensajeros" o 2) "Hace que sus mensajeros sean veloces como el viento" (Ver: y)

a las llamas de fuego Sus sirvientes
Los significados posibles son 1) "hace que las llamas de fuego sean como sus sirvientes". Hace que el fuego lo sirva como lo haría un sirviente o 2) "hace que sus sirvientes sean como llamas de fuego" Y

a las llamas de fuego Sus sirvientes
Esto se puede establecer con la información implícita de la línea anterior. Traducción alternativa: "Él hace que las llamas de fuego sean sus sirvientes"

Él puso los fundamentos de la tierra
Aquí la frase "puso los fundamentos" significa "creado". Traducción alternativa: "Él creó toda la tierra"

Psalms 104:6

Tú cubriste la tierra con agua como un vestido
Aquí se compara el agua que cubría la tierra con la forma en que una vestimenta grande puede cubrir completamente algo. Traducción alternativa: "Cubriste completamente la tierra con agua"

Tu reprensión hizo que las aguas retrocedieran ... ellas huyeron Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar cómo Dios habló y las aguas se fueron.

retrocedieran
"retractaron" o "volvieron"

ellos huyeron
Aquí el salmista habla de las aguas que retroceden como si huyeran como un animal después de escuchar la voz del SEÑOR. La palabra "huyó" significa huir rápidamente. Traducción alternativa: "se apresuró"

Psalms 104:8

Las montañas se levantaron, y los valles se dispersaron a los lugares Aquí el salmista habla de Dios haciendo que las montañas y los valles se muevan y cambien como si eligieran moverse ellos mismos. Se describen de esta manera para enfatizar el poder de Dios.

una frontera para ellas, que ellas no cruzarán Aquí el salmista habla de Dios haciendo que las aguas no crucen el límite que él creó para ellos como si las aguas mismas decidieran no cruzarlo. Se describen de esta manera para enfatizar la autoridad de Dios sobre ellos. Traducción alternativa: "un límite para ellos que no pueden cruzar"

frontera
"línea" o "borde"

para ellas
La palabra "ellas" se refiere a las aguas.

Psalms 104:10

quebradas
ríos pequeños

los burros salvajes sacian su sed Puede ser declarado claramente que ellos apagan su sed bebiendo el agua. Traducción alternativa: "los burros salvajes beben el agua para calmar su sed"

riveras
el suelo al costado de un río

ellas cantan entre las ramas Aquí David describe a los pájaros cantando como si estuvieran cantando. Traducción alternativa: "chirrían entre las ramas de los árboles"

Psalms 104:13

Él riega las montañas desde Sus depósitos de agua en el cielo
Esto significa que Dios hace que llueva. Las aguas se describen como residiendo en cámaras en el cielo. Traducción alternativa: "Riega las montañas haciendo que las lluvias caigan del cielo"

del fruto de Su labor
"las muchas cosas buenas que has creado" (UDB)

y plantas para que el hombre cultive
"Las palabras perdidas pueden ser añadidas. Traducción alternativa: "y hace que las plantas crezcan para que el hombre cultive"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 104:16

Los árboles del SEÑOR reciben abundancia de lluvia
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "el SEÑOR proporciona mucha lluvia para sus árboles"

Allí las pajaros hacen sus nidos Hacen sus nidos en los cedros. Esto se puede afirmar claramente. Traducción alternativa: "Las aves hacen sus nidos en los cedros"

cigüeña
Un tipo de ave. Traducción alternativa: "ave"

tejones
El tejón es un animal pequeño que se ve como un gran roedor. Traducción alternativa: "tejón de roca"

Psalms 104:19

estaciones
Esta palabra se refiere a diferentes cambios climáticos durante el año. Algunos lugares tienen estación lluviosa y seca, mientras que otros tienen primavera, verano, otoño e invierno.

el sol conoce que hora
Aquí David describe al sol como si supiera a qué hora del día es. Traducción alternativa: "hizo que el sol se pusiera cuando era el momento"

Tú haces
"SEÑOR, tú haces". Aquí los autores cambian de hablar sobre el SEÑOR a hablar con él.

Psalms 104:21

presa
Este es un animal que es comida de otro animal

y buscan su alimento de Dios
"pero ellos confían en Dios que proveerá su comida"

retiran
"volver atrás" o "moverse"

guaridas
las casas de algun mamífero y pequeño animal

Psalms 104:23

se desborda con Tus obras
Aquí David describe la cantidad de cosas que el SEÑOR había creado como si fueran un líquido que se desborda de un recipiente. Traducción alternativa: "está lleno de tu trabajo"

Psalms 104:25

profundo y ancho
"Es muy profundo y muy ancho". La profundidad y el ancho del mar enfatizan cuán grande es.

repleto
"desbordado"

innumerables
"incontable"

tanto pequeñas como grandes
Esto significan criaturas de todos los tamaños.

los barcos navegan allí
"los barcos navegan por el océano"

Psalms 104:27

Todos estos
"todas estas criaturas"

a tiempo les des su alimento
"darles su alimento cuando ellos lo necesiten"

Cuando Tú se lo das, ellos se reúnen Puede ser útil afirmar que se trata de alimentos. Traducción alternativa: "Cuando les das comida, la recogen" reúnen

"colectan"

cuando Tú abres Tu mano Esto describe al SEÑOR como abriendo su mano para dar comida a las criaturas. Traducción alternativa: "cuando abres tu mano para alimentarlos"

Psalms 104:29

escondes tu rostro
Esto significa que el SEÑOR no los mira ni les presta atención. Traducción alternativa: "cuando no los miras" o "cuando los ignoras"

vuelven al polvo
Esto significa que sus cuerpos se descomponen y se convierten en tierra nuevamente. Traducción alternativa: "sus cuerpos se descomponen y regresan al suelo"

Cuando Tú envias tu Espiritu Esto se refiere a su Espíritu enviado para dar vida a las criaturas.

ellos son creados
Es el espíritu del SEÑOR que los creó.

Tú renuevas la tierra
"haces que la tierra esté llena de nueva vida"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 104:33

mis pensamientos sean dulces
Él está comparando sus pensamientos con algo que sabe dulce. Traducción alternativa: "mis pensamientos son agradables.

Psalms 104:35

desaparezcan
"desaparecer"

que los malvados no sean más
La frase "los malvados" se refiere a las personas malvadas. Traducción alternativa: "pueden las personas malvadas desaparecer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 105

1 Den gracias al SEÑOR, invoquen Su nombre; den a conocer Sus obras entre las naciones. 2 Canten a Él, canten alabanzas a Él; hablen de todas Sus maravillosas obras. 3 Jáctense en Su santo nombre; permitan que el corazón de aquellos que buscan al SEÑOR se regocije. 4 Busquen al SEÑOR y Su fuerza; busquen Su presencia continuamente. 5-6 Recuerden las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho, Sus milagros y los decretos de su boca, ustedes descendientes de Abraham, su siervo, ustedes pueblo de Jacob, Sus escogidos. 7 Él es el SEÑOR, nuestro Dios. Sus decretos están sobre toda la tierra. 8 Él recuerda Su pacto para siempre, la palabra que Él ordenó por mil generaciones. 9 Él recuerda el pacto que Él hizo con Abraham y su juramento a Isaac. 10 Esto es lo que Él confirmó a Jacob como estatuto y a Israel como pacto eterno. 11 Él dijo: "Yo te daré la tierra de Canaán como tu parte de tu herencia." 12 Él dijo esto cuando ellos eran solamente pocos en número, tan poquitos, y eran extraños en la tierra. 13 Ellos iban de nación a nación y de un reino a otro. 14 Él no le permitió a nadie que los oprimiera; Él reprendió a reyes por motivo de ellos. 15 Él dijo: "No toquen Mis ungidos, y no le hagan daño a Mis profetas." 16 Él envió a una hambruna sobre la tierra; Él cortó todo el suministro de pan. 17 Él envió a un hombre delante de ellos; a José, que fue vendido como sirviente. 18 Sus pies fueron atados con grilletes; y sobre su cuello se colocó un collar de hierro, 19 hasta el tiempo en que sus palabras se hicieron realidad, y la palabra del SEÑOR lo puso a prueba. 20 El rey envió sirvientes para liberarlo; el gobernante del pueblo lo liberó. 21 Él lo puso a cargo de su casa como jefe de todas sus posesiones 22 para instruir a sus príncipes como deseaba y para enseñar sabiduría a sus ancianos. 23 Entonces Israel llegó a Egipto, y Jacob vivió por un tiempo en la tierra de Cam. 24 El SEÑOR hizo a Su pueblo fructífero, y los hizo más fuertes que sus enemigos. 25 Él hizo que sus enemigos odiaran a Su pueblo, para que maltrataran a Sus siervos. 26 Él envió a Moisés, Su siervo, y a Aarón, a quien Él había escogido. 27 Ellos realizaron Sus señales entre los egipcios, sus maravillas en la tierra de Cam. 28 Él envió tinieblas e hizo esa tierra oscura, pero su gente no obedeció Sus mandamientos. 29 Él transformó su agua en sangre y mató sus peces. 30 Su tierra se llenó de ranas, aún en las habitaciones de sus gobernantes. 31 Él habló y enjambres de moscas y mosquitos vinieron a través de su país. 32 Él cambió su lluvia en granizo con el fuego ardiente sobre su tierra. 33 Él destruyó sus vides e higueras; Él partió los árboles de su país. 34 Él habló, y vinieron las langostas, muchas langostas. 35 Las langostas se comieron toda la vegetación de su tierra. Ellas se comieron todos los cultivos del suelo. 36 Él mató a cada primogénito en su tierra, los primeros frutos de toda su fuerza. 37 Él sacó a los israelitas con plata y oro; ninguna de Sus tribus tropezó en el camino. 38 Egipto se alegró cuando se fueron, pues los egipcios tenían miedo de ellos. 39 Él desplegó una nube como cubierta, e hizo fuego para alumbrar la noche. 40 Los israelitas pidieron comida, y Él envió codornices y los sació con pan del cielo. 41 Él partió la roca, y aguas brotaron de ella; ellas fluyeron en el desierto como un río. 42 Pués Él trajo a memoria Su santa promesa que Él le hizo a Abraham Su siervo. 43 Él sacó a Su pueblo con gozo, Sus escogidos con gritos de triunfo. 44 Él les dio las tierras de las naciones; ellos tomaron posesión de la riqueza de los pueblos 45 de manera que ellos pudieran guardar Sus estatutos y obedecer Sus leyes. Alaben al SEÑOR.

Psalms 105:1

Información general
Paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea

invoquen Su nombre ... Jáctense en Su santo nombre Aquí "nombre" representa al SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "invocarlo ... alardear de el SEÑOR"

las naciones
Esto se refiere a la gente en las naciones. Traducción alternativa: "el pueblo de las naciones"

permitan que el corazón de aquellos que buscan al SEÑOR se regocije Aquí "el corazón" representa a la persona que busca al SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "deja que las personas que buscan al SEÑOR se regocijen"

Psalms 105:4

Busquen al SEÑOR y Su fuerza
"Buscar la fuerza del SEÑOR" significa pedirle que te fortalezca. Traducción alternativa: "

Recuerden
"recuerden"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sus milagros y
Puede ser útil agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción alternativa: "recuerda sus milagros y"

decretos de su boca Aquí "boca" se refiere a las cosas que habló. Traducción alternativa: "decretos de que ha hablado"

ustedes descendientes de Abraham ... ustedes pueblo de Jacob El autor está hablando de los israelitas, llamando estos nombres.

Abraham, su siervo
Abraham, sirviente del SEÑOR

Psalms 105:7

Él recuerda ... la palabra que Él ordenó
Estas dos frases comparten significados similares y se usan juntas para enfatizar. La palabra "palabra" se refiere al pacto. Traducción alternativa: "Él tiene en mente su pacto para siempre, la promesa que hizo"

Él recuerda
Esto significa recordar y pensar en algo. Traducción alternativa: "recuerda" por mil generaciones

"1.000 generaciones"

Psalms 105:9

Él recuerda
La frase "Él recuerda" significa recordar algo. Traducción alternativa: "él recuerda" el pacto que Él hizo con Abraham ... su juramento a Isaac Ambas frases "el pacto" y "el juramento" se refieren a la misma promesa que el SEÑOR hizo a su pueblo.

su juramento a Isaac Puede ser útil agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción alternativa: "el juramento que le hizo a Isaac"

Psalms 105:12

Declaración de conexión
El salmista está escribiendo acerca de Israel cuando ellos eran solamente pocos en número la palabra "ellos" se refiere a los israelitas

eran extraños en la tierra
Se da a entender que "la tierra" se refiere a Canaán. Traducción alternativa: "y éramos extranjeros en la tierra de Canaán"

Ellos iban de
"Continuaron vagando"

de nación a nación y de un reino a otro
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares y se usan juntas para enfatizar.

Psalms 105:14

Declaración de conexión
El salmista escribe acerca Israel

por motivo de ellos
"por su propio bienestar". Esto se refiere a Israel.

No toquen Mis ungidos
Aquí "tocar" significa dañar, es una exageración que el SEÑOR usó para fortalecer su advertencia de no dañar a su pueblo. Traducción alternativa: "No dañar a las personas que he ungido"

Psalms 105:16

Él envió a
"Él envió." Esto significa que causó una hambruna en la tierra.

todo el suministro de pan
Aquí "pan" se refiere a la comida en general. Traducción alternativa: "todo el suministro de alimentos"

Él envió a un hombre delante de ellos; a José Puede ser útil afirmar que lo envió antes que ellos a Egipto. Traducción alternativa: "Envió a un hombre delante de ellos a Egipto; envió a José que"

José, que fue vendido como sirviente
Esto se puede establecer en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "Los hermanos de José lo vendieron como esclavo"

Psalms 105:18

grilletes
restricciones de metal utilizadas para sujetar las muñecas o tobillos de un prisionero

Sus pies fueron atados con grilletes; y sobre su cuello se colocó un collar de hierro Estas declaraciones pueden reexpresarse como activas. Traducción alternativa: "Los egipcios le ataron los pies con grilletes; le pusieron un collar de hierro alrededor del cuello.

la palabra del SEÑOR lo puso a prueba Aquí "palabra" se refiere al mensaje del SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "el mensaje del SEÑOR lo probó"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 105:20

El rey envió sirvientes para liberarlo; el gobernante del pueblo lo liberó
Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar que el rey liberó a José

Entonces Israel llegó a Egipto
Aquí "Israel" se refiere a Jacob. Jacob también trajo a su familia con él. Traducción alternativa: "Entonces Israel y su familia llegaron a Egipto"

Psalms 105:24

El SEÑOR hizo a Su pueblo fructífero
El escritor habla del aumento de Israel como si fueran una planta que produce mucha fruta. "Dios aumentó mucho el número de su pueblo"

Él hizo que sus enemigos odiaran a Su pueblo, para que maltrataran a Sus siervos
"odiar a su pueblo y maltratar a sus sirvientes"

Ellos realizaron Sus señales ... sus maravillas en la tierra de Cam.
Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar. Traducción alternativa: "Moisés y Aarón realizaron los milagros de Dios en Egipto entre los descendientes de Cam"

sus maravillas
Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción alternativa: "y realizaron sus maravillas"

Psalms 105:28

hizo esa tierra oscura
"oscureció el cielo"

ranas
un pequeño reptil saltador

aún en las habitaciones de sus gobernantes
"incluso estaban en las habitaciones de sus gobernantes"

Psalms 105:31

Declaración de conexión
El salmista continúa describiendo el juicio del SEÑOR sobre Egipto.

enjambre
grandes grupos de moscas

mosquitos
pequeños insectos voladores como moscas pero más pequeños

granizo
hielo que cae del cielo como lluvia

Él destruyó ... él partió
Dios hizo que el granizo, la lluvia y los rayos arruinaran las vides y los árboles. Traducción alternativa: "Hizo que destruyera ... y se rompiera"

Psalms 105:34

muchas langostas
"había tantas langostas"

Las langostas se comieron toda la vegetación de su tierra. Ellas se comieron todos los cultivos del suelo
Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar. Traducción alternativa: "Los insectos se comieron todas las plantas y todos los cultivos en la tierra"

Él mató a cada primogénito en su tierra, los primeros frutos de toda su fuerza Aquí la segunda frase sobre las "primicias" se usa para describir al "primogénito" en la primera frase. Traducción alternativa: "Mató a todos los primogénitos en su tierra, que fueron las primicias de todas sus fuerzas" o "Entonces el SEÑOR mató al hijo mayor en cada casa del pueblo de Egipto"

Psalms 105:37

Él sacó a los israelitas con plata y oro Cuando los israelitas salieron de Egipto se llevaron plata y oro con ellos. Traducción alternativa: "Sacó a los isrealitas de Egipto con plata y oro en su poder"

ninguna de Sus tribus tropezó en el camino
Nadie se quedó atrás. Esto se puede afirmar positivamente Traducción alternativa: "todas sus tribus pudieron hacer el viaje"

Egipto se alegró
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere a las personas que viven en Egipto. Traducción alternativa: El pueblo de Egipto se alegró

Él desplegó una nube como cubierta Aquí el salmista describe al SEÑOR colocando una nube en el cielo como si estuviera extendiendo una prenda. La nube era una "cubierta" para protegerlos del sol. Traducción alternativa: "Colocó una nube en el cielo para protegerlos del sol y el calor"

hizo fuego para alumbrar la noche
EL SEÑOR colocó una columna de fuego en el cielo para alumbrar durante la noche. Traducción alternativa: "colocó un fuego en el cielo para iluminar la noche"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Psalms 105:40

y Él envió codornices Puede ser útil aclarar que las codornices son pájaros pequeños que el SEÑOR envió para que comieran. Traducción alternativa: "y el SEÑOR envió pequeños pájaros para comer"

con pan del cielo
el SEÑOR hizo que el maná, un tipo de pan, cayera del cielo. Traduccion alternativa: "con pan que cayó del cielo"

ellas fluyeron
"las aguas fluyeron"

Él trajo a memoria
Esto significa recordar. Traduccion alternativa: "recordado"

Psalms 105:43

Él sacó a Su pueblo ... Sus escogidos con gritos de triunfo Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar que el pueblo de Dios se alegró cuando los sacó de Egipto. La gente gritaba alegremente. Traduccion alternativa: "Condujo a su pueblo elegido con gritos de alegría y triunfo"

sus escogidos
Aquí "elegido" se refiere al pueblo elegido del SEÑOR. Traduccion alternativa: "su pueblo elegido" trompeta

"celebración" o "alegría"

guardar Sus estatutos y obedecer Sus leyes Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado y se usan juntas para enfatizar. "Guardar" sus estatutos significa obedecerlos. Traducción alternativa: "obedecer sus leyes y estatutos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 106

1 Alaben al SEÑOR. Den gracias al SEÑOR, porque Él es bueno, porque su Pacto de Fidelidad dura para siempre. 2 ¿Quién puede contar los poderosos actos del SEÑOR o proclamar completamente todas Sus loables obras? 3 Bendecidos son aquellos que hacen lo que es correcto, y aquellos cuyas obras siempre son justas. 4 Acuerdate de mí, SEÑOR, cuando muestres favor a Tu pueblo; ayúdame cuando Tú los salves a ellos. 5 Entonces yo veré la prosperidad de Tus escogidos, me gozaré en la alegría de Tu nación y me gloriaré con Tu heredad. 6 Nosotros hemos pecado como nuestros ancestros; nosotros lo hemos hecho mal y nosotros hemos hecho lo malo. 7 Nuestros padres no apreciaron Tus maravillosas obras en Egipto; ellos ignoraron Tus muchos actos del Pacto de Fidelidad; ellos fueron rebeldes en el mar, el Mar de las Cañas. 8 Sin embargo, Él los salvó por motivo de Su nombre, de manera que Él pudiera revelar Su poder. 9 Él reprendió el Mar de las Cañas, y este se secó. Entonces Él los condujo a través de sus profundidades, como por un desierto. 10 Él los salvó de la mano de aquellos que los odiaban, y Él los rescató de la mano del enemigo. 11 Mas las aguas cubrieron a sus adversarios; ni uno de ellos sobrevivió. 12 Entonces ellos creyeron Sus palabras, y cantaron Su alabanza. 13 Pero ellos olvidaron rápidamente lo que Él había hecho; ellos no esperaron por Sus instrucciones. 14 Ellos tuvieron antojos insaciables en el desierto, y desafiaron a Dios en el desierto. 15 Él les dio lo que pedían, pero envió una enfermedad que consumió sus cuerpos. 16 En el campamento ellos se pusieron celosos de Moisés y Aarón, el santo sacerdote del SEÑOR. 17 La tierra se abrió y se tragó a Datán y cubrió a los seguidores de Abiram. 18 Fuego ardió entre ellos; y consumió a los malvados. 19 Ellos hicieron un becerro en Horeb y adoraron una figura de metal fundido. 20 Ellos cambiaron la gloria de Dios por la imagen de un toro que come hierba. 21 Ellos olvidaron a Dios su Salvador, quien había hecho grandes obras en Egipto. 22 Él había hecho cosas maravillosas en la tierra de Cam y actos poderosos en el Mar de las Cañas. 23 Él habría decretado su destrucción a no ser que Moisés, Su escogido, hubiera intervenido con Él en la brecha para apartar Su enojo de la destrucción de ellos. 24 Entonces ellos despreciaron la tierra fructífera; ellos no creyeron en Su promesa, 25 sino que murmuraron en sus tiendas, y no obedecieron al SEÑOR. 26 Por lo tanto, Él levantó Su mano y les juró que Él los haría morir en el desierto, 27 dispersaría sus descendientes entre las naciones, y los dispersaría a ellos en tierras extranjeras. 28 Ellos adoraron a Baal Peor y comieron los sacrificios ofrecidos a los muertos. 29 Ellos Lo provocaron a la ira con sus acciones, y una plaga se desató entre ellos. 30 Entonces Fineas se levantó para intervenir, y la plaga se aplacó. 31 Esto le fue contado como una obra de justicia por todas las generaciones para siempre. 32 Ellos también enojaron al SEÑOR en las aguas de Meriba, y Moisés sufrió por causa de ellos. 33 Ellos amargaron a Moisés, y él habló precipitadamente. 34 Ellos no destruyeron las naciones como el SEÑOR les había ordenado, 35 sino que se mezclaron con las naciones y aprendieron sus costumbres 36 y adoraron sus ídolos, los cuales se volvieron una trampa para ellos. 37 Ellos sacrificaron sus hijos y sus hijas a los demonios. 38 Ellos derramaron sangre inocente, la sangre de sus hijos y de sus hijas, quienes ellos sacrificaron a los ídolos de Canaán, profanando la tierra con sangre. 39 Ellos fueron contaminados por sus obras; en sus acciones ellos fueron como prostitutas. 40 Así que el SEÑOR se enojó con Su pueblo, y despreció a Su propio pueblo. 41 Él los entregó en las manos de las naciones, y aquellos que los odiaban gobernaron sobre ellos. 42 Sus enemigos los oprimieron, y fueron llevados en sujeción bajo su autoridad. 43 Muchas veces Él vino para ayudarlos, pero ellos siguieron rebelándose y fueron humillados por su propio pecado. 44 Sin embargo, Él prestó atención a su aflicción cuando escuchó su clamor por ayuda. 45 Él recordó Su pacto con ellos y cedió debido a Su obstinado amor. 46 Él hizo que todos sus conquistadores tuvieran compación de ellos. 47 Sálvanos, SEÑOR, nuestro Dios. Recógenos de entre las naciones para que así podamos dar gracias a Tu santo nombre y gloria en Tus alabanzas. 48 Que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, sea alabado desde la eternidad hasta la eternidad. Todo el pueblo dijo: "Amén." Alaben al SEÑOR. Quinto Libro.

Psalms 106:1

Información general
El paralelismo es común en la poesía hebrea.

¿Quién puede contar los poderosos actos del SEÑOR ... obras?
El autor hace esta pregunta para alabar a Dios y no espera una respuesta. Traduccion alternativa: "Nadie puede contar los poderosos actos del SEÑOR ... hechos".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

loables obras
"hechos que son dignos de alabanza"

Psalms 106:3

Acuérdate de mí
La frase "acuérdate de mi" significa recordar algo. Traducción alternativa: "recuérdame"

de Tus escogidos
La palabra "elegido" se refiere al pueblo elegido del SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "de tu pueblo elegido"

gozaré en la alegría ... y gloriaré Estas son cosas que David dice que hará, junto con "ver la prosperidad de los elegidos". Se pueden agregar las palabras que faltan. Traducción alternativa: "Me regocijaré en la alegría ... y me gloriaré" alegría

"alegría" o "deleite"

me gloriaré con Tu heredad Aquí la frase "tu herencia" se refiere a los isrealistas, que son el pueblo elegido del SEÑOR. Aquí "gloria" significa "jactarse de" algo; en este caso se jactan del SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "presume de tu grandeza con tu gente"

Psalms 106:6

no apreciaron Tus maravillosas obras
"No estuvieron agradecidos por el maravilloso hecho que hiciste"

en el mar ... el Mar de las Cañas Estas dos frases se refieren al mismo mar. El segundo es el nombre del mar.

Psalms 106:8

sin embargo
"aún" o "aún así"

por el motivo de su nombre Aquí "su nombre" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción alternativa: "por el bien de su propia reputación"

a través de sus profundidades, como por un desierto Aquí, David compara la forma en que el SEÑOR condujo a los Isrealitas a través del Mar de Cañas con la forma en que las personas pueden ser conducidas a través de la tierra seca de un desierto. "Las profundidades" se refiere al lecho del río que apareció después de que el SEÑOR separó las aguas. Traduccion alternativa: "a través de los mares de juncos en tierra seca"

Psalms 106:10

Él los salvó de la mano ... y Él los rescató de la mano
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que el SEÑOR los salvó de sus enemigos.

de la mano de aquellos que los odiaban Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder o al control. Traduccion alternativa: "el poder de quienes los odiaron" o "el control de quienes los odiaron"

cubrieron a sus adversarios
Esta es una manera educada de hablar sobre ellos ahogándose. Traducción alternativa: "ahogó a sus enemigos"

Entonces ellos creyeron Sus palabras
Aquí la palabra "ellos" se refiere a "sus antepasados" y la palabra "su" se refiere a "SEÑOR".

Psalms 106:13

ellos no esperaron por Sus instrucciones Está implícito que hicieron cosas sin esperar a descubrir qué quería el SEÑOR que hicieran. Traduccion alternativa: "hicieron cosas sin esperar primero las instrucciones del SEÑOR"

antojos insaciables
"antojos que no pudieron ser satisfechos"

desafiaron a Dios
"Se rebelaron contra Dios"

consumió
"superó" o "se hizo cargo"

envió una enfermedad
Aquí David habla del SEÑOR causando que las personas se vean afectadas por una enfermedad como si el SEÑOR les enviara una enfermedad de la misma manera que alguien envía una persona o un mensajero. Traducción alternativa: "pero él causó que una enfermedad consumiera sus cuerpos"

