Chapter 107

1 Den gracias al SEÑOR, pues Él es bueno, y Su Pacto de Fidelidad dura para siempre. 2 Que los redimidos del SEÑOR hablen, aquellos que Él rescató de la mano del enemigo. 3 Él los ha reunido desde las tierras extranjeras, desde el este y del oeste, desde el norte y del sur. 4 Ellos vagaron en el desierto por un camino desolado y no encontraron ninguna ciudad donde vivir. 5 Debido a que tuvieron hambre y sed, desmayaron del cansancio. 6 Entonces llamaron al SEÑOR en su aflicción, y Él los rescató de su angustia. 7 Él los dirigió por un camino directo a fin de que fueran a una ciudad a vivir. 8 ¡Oh, si la gente alabara al SEÑOR por Su Pacto de Fidelidad y por las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho por la humanidad! 9 Pues Él satisface los anhelos de aquellos que tienen sed, y los deseos de aquellos que tienen hambre Él sacia de cosas buenas. 10 Algunos se sentaron en la oscuridad y en melancolía, prisioneros en aflicción y cadenas. 11 Esto fue porque ellos se habían rebelado en contra de la palabra de Dios y rechazaron la instrucción del Altísimo. 12 Él humilló sus corazones por medio de la adversidad; ellos tropezaron y no había nadie que les ayudara a levantarse. 13 Entonces ellos clamaron al SEÑOR en su angustia, y Él los sacó de su apuro. 14 Él los sacó de la oscuridad y la melancolía y deshizo sus ataduras. 15 ¡Oh, si la gente alabara al SEÑOR por Su Pacto de Fidelidad y por las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho por la humanidad! 16 Pues Él ha roto las puertas de bronce y ha traspasado los barrotes de hierro. 17 Ellos fueron necios en sus caminos rebeldes, y afligidos debido a sus pecados. 18 Ellos perdieron su deseo de comer cualquier comida, y se acercaron a las puertas de la muerte. 19 Entonces ellos clamaron al SEÑOR en su dificultad, y Él los sacó de su aflicción. 20 Él envió Su palabra y los sanó, y los rescató de su destrucción. 21 ¡Oh, si la gente alabara al SEÑOR por Su Pacto de Fidelidad y por las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho por la humanidad! 22 Dejen que ofrezcan los sacrificios de acción de gracias y que proclamen Sus obras cantando. 23 Algunos viajan sobre el mar en barcos y hacen negocios en el extranjero. 24 Estos vieron las obras del SEÑOR y Sus maravillas en los mares. 25 Pues Él mandó y provocó el vendaval que agita los mares. 26 Ellos se alzaron hacia el cielo; descendieron a las profundidades. Sus vidas se derritieron en la angustia. 27 Se mecieron y se tambalearon como borrachos y estuvieron desesperados. 28 Entonces ellos clamaron al SEÑOR en su dificultad, y Él los sacó de su aflicción. 29 Él calmó la tormenta, y las olas fueron silenciadas. 30 Entonces ellos se regocijaron porque el mar estaba calmado, y Él los trajo a su puerto deseado. 31 ¡Oh si la gente alabara al SEÑOR por Su Pacto de Fidelidad y por las cosas maravillosas que Él ha hecho por la humanidad! 32 Que lo exalten en la asamblea del pueblo y Lo alaben en el consejo de los ancianos. 33 Él convierte los ríos en un desierto, manantiales de agua en tierra seca, 34 y una tierra fructífera en un lugar desolado debido a la maldad de su pueblo. 35 Él convierte un desierto en un estanque de agua y la tierra seca en manantiales de agua. 36 Él instala a los hambrientos allí, y ellos construyen una ciudad donde vivir. 37 Ellos construyen una ciudad para plantar sembradíos, plantar viñedos y para recoger una cosecha abundante. 38 Él los bendice para que sean muy numerosos. Él no permite que su ganado disminuya en número. 39 Ellos fueron disminuidos y humillados por la angustia dolorosa y por el sufrimiento. 40 Él derrama desprecio sobre los líderes y los hace vagar en el desierto, donde no hay caminos. 41 Mas Él protege a los necesitados de la aflicción y cuida de Sus familias como un rebaño. 42 Los rectos verán esto y se regocijarán, y toda maldad cerrará su boca. 43 Quienquiera sea sabio debe tomar nota de estas cosas y meditar en las obras de fidelidad del SEÑOR.

Chapter 109

1 Dios a Quien alabo, no estés en silencio, 2 pues los malvados y los mentirosos me atacan; ellos hablan mentiras en contra mía. 3 Ellos me rodean y dicen cosas odiosas, y me atacan sin causa. 4 A cambio de mi amor ellos me calumnian, pero yo oro por ellos. 5 Ellos me pagan maldad por bien, y ellos odian mi amor. 6 Nombra a un hombre malvado sobre tal enemigo como éstas personas; nombra un acusador a que se pare en su mano derecha. 7 Cuando él sea juzgado, que sea hallado culpable; que su oración sea considerada pecaminosa. 8 Que sus días sean pocos; que otro tome su oficio. 9 Que sus hijos no tengan padre, y que su esposa sea viuda. 10 Que sus hijos vagen y ruegen, pidiéndo sobras mientras abandonan su hogar arruinado. 11 Que el cobrador tome todo lo que él tiene; que los extraños saqueen todo lo que gane. 12 Que nadie le extienda ninguna amabilidad a él; que nadie tenga pena a sus hijos sin padre. 13 Que sus hijos sean cortados, que sus nombres sean borrados en la próxima generación. 14 Que los pecados de sus ancestros sean mencionados al SEÑOR; que el pecado de su madre no sea olvidado. 15 Que su culpa siempre esté frente al SEÑOR, que el SEÑOR corte su memoria de la tierra. 16 Que el SEÑOR haga esto porque éste hombre nunca se molesto en mostrar ninguna fidelidad al pacto, pero en su lugar, hostigó al oprimido, al necesitado y al descorazonado hasta la muerte. 17 Él amaba el maldecir; que regrese eso sobre él. Él odiaba a los bendecidos; que ninguna bendición venga sobre él. 18 Él se vistió a sí mismo con maldición como su ropa, y su maldición vino a su interior como agua, como aceite sobre sus huesos. 19 Que su maldición esté sobre él como las ropas que viste para cubrirse a sí mismo, como el cinturón que él siempre usa. 20 Que esto sea la recompensa del SEÑOR para mis acusadores, para esos que dicen cosas malignas sobre mí. 21 SEÑOR mi Dios, trata amablemente conmigo, por amor a Tu nombre. Porque Tu Pacto de Fidelidad es bueno, sálvame. 22 Porque estoy oprimido y necesitado, y mi corazón está herido dentro de mí. 23 Estoy desvaneciéndome como una sombra en la tarde; estoy temblando como una langosta. 24 Mis rodillas están débiles por ayunar; me estoy volviéndo piel y huesos. 25 Yo soy odiado por mis acusadores; cuando ellos me ven sacuden sus cabezas. 26 Ayúdame, SEÑOR mi Dios, sálvame por Tu Pacto de Fidelidad. 27 Que ellos sepan que esta es Tu obra, que Tú, SEÑOR, has hecho esto. 28 Aunque ellos me maldigan, por favor, bendíceme; cuando ellos ataquen, que sean puestos en vergüenza, pero que tu siervo se goze. 29 Que mis enemigos sean vestidos con vergüenza; que ellos vistan su vergüenza como un manto. 30 Con mi boca yo doy grandes gracias al SENOR; yo lo alabaré en medio de una multitud. 31 Pues Él se parará a la mano derecha de aquel que está necesitado, para salvarlo de aquellos quienes lo juzgan.

Cuando Israel dejó a Egipto, la casa de Jacob de ese pueblo extranjero Estas dos frases son paralelas, con "Israel" y "la casa de Jacob" significando lo mismo y "Egipto" y "ese pueblo extranjero" refiriéndose a las misma personas.

la casa de Jacob de ese pueblo extranjero Aquí, la palabra "casa" representa la familia o los descendientes. El verbo se puede añadir a esta frase. Traducción Alterna: "los descendientes de Jacob salieron de ese pueblo extranjero"

Juda se convirtió en Su lugar santo, Israel Su reino Los posibles significados de "Judá" e "Israel" son: 1) se refieren a la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "La tierra de Judá se volvió en el lugar santo del SEÑOR, la tierra de Israel se convirtió en Su reino" o 2) son figuras literarias (metonimias) para referirse al pueblo de Judá e Israel. Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo de Judá se volvió aquellos entre los quienes vive el SEÑOR, el pueblo de Israel se conviritó en aquellos sobre los cuales Él gobierna"

Psalms 114:3

El mar miró y huyó
El escritor habla del Mar de Cañas

el Jordán regresó
El escrito habla del Río Jordán como si fuese una persona que se retiraba mientras el SEÑOR guiaba al pueblo de Israel sobre tierra seca.

Las montañas saltaron como carneros, las colinas como ovejas
El escritor habla de las montañas y colinas como si estuviesen vivas. Probablemente está hablando de un terremoto cuando describe su miedo ante la presencia del SEÑOR, como si las montañas y colinas estuviesen saltando como carnenos y corderos. Traducción Alterna: "Fue como si las montañas se sacudieran como carneros saltantes y las colinas se sacudieran como ovejas saltantes"

Psalms 114:5

Información General
Los versículos 5-6 contienen cuatro preguntas retóricas. La respuesta que se espera para cada versículo se encuentra en el versículo 7, "a causa de la presencia del Señor".

Tiembla, tierra, delante del Señor, a la presencia del Dios de Jacob Las últimas dos frases son paralelas. Se puede añadir el verbo en la segunda línea. Traducción Alterna: "Tiembla, tierra, ante el SEÑOR, tiembla en la presencia del Dios de Jacob."

Tiembla, tierra
Los posibles significados son: 1) el escritor le está hablando a la tierra como si fuese una persona y le ordena que tiemble de temor ante Dios o 2) la palabra "tierra" es una figura literaria

Psalms 114:8

Él convirtió la roca en un estanque de agua, a la roca dura en un manantial de agua Estas dos frases son paralelas. El escritor describe al SEÑOR causando que el agua fluya de la roca como si Él convirtiese toda la roca en agua.

a la piedra dura en un manantial de agua Se puede añadir el vervo de la frase anterior. Traducción Alternativa: "Él convirtió la piedra dura en un manantial de agua"

Chapter 115

1 No a nosotros, SEÑOR, no a nosotros, pero a tu nombre da honor, por tu pacto de fidelidad y por tu integridad. 2 ¿Por qué deberían las naciones decir: "¿Dónde está tu Dios?" 3 Nuestro Dios está en el cielo; él hace lo que le place. 4 Los ídolos de las naciones son plata y oro, el trabajo de las manos de hombres. 5 Esos ídolos tienen bocas, pero ellos no hablan; ellos tienen ojos, pero ellos no ven; 6 ellos tienen oídos, pero ellos no escuchan; ellos tienen narices, pero ellos no huelen. 7 Esos ídolos tienen manos, pero no sienten; tienen pies, pero ellos no pueden caminar; no pueden hablar por sus bocas. 8 Aquellos que los hacen son como ellos, como todos los que confían en ellos. 9 Israel, confía en el SEÑOR, Él es tu ayuda y escudo. 10 Casa de Aarón, confia en el SEÑOR; Él es tu ayuda y tu escudo. 11 Ustedes quienes honran al SEÑOR, confíen en Él; Él es su ayuda y escudo. 12 El SEÑOR se fija en nosotros y nos bendecirá; Él bendecirá a la familia de Israel; Él bendecirá la familia de Aaron. 13 Él bendecirá a aquellos que lo honran, ambos, jóvenes y viejos. 14 Que el SEÑOR los aumente en número más y más, a ustedes y sus descendientes. 15 Que seas bendecido por el SEÑOR, quien hizo el cielo y la tierra. 16 Los cielos pertenecen al SEÑOR; pero a la tierra Él la entregó a la humanidad. 17 Los muertos no alaban al SEÑOR, ni quien desciende al silencio. 18 Pero nosotros bendeciremos al SEÑOR ahora y para siempre. Alaben al SEÑOR.

Psalms 115:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

No a nosotros, SEÑOR, no a nosotros
El escritor repite la frase "no a nosotros" para enfatizar que ellos no son dignos de recibir el debido honor que es solo para el SEÑOR. De ser necesario, se puede añadir una frase verbal aquí. Traducción Alterna: "No nos des honor, SEÑOR"

a nosotros
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

pero a Tu nombre da honor Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa al SEÑOR mismo. Traducción Alterna: "sino trae honor a Ti mismo"

por Tu pacto de fidelidad
"a causa de Tu pacto de fidelidad"

¿Por qué deberían las naciones decir: "¿Dónde está su Dios?"
Esta pregunta retórica enfatiza que no debería haber razón para que las naciones digan lo que dicen. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas de las naciones de deberían ser capaces de decir, "¿Dónde está su Dios"

"¿Dónde está su Dios?
Las personas de otras naciones usan esta pregunta para burlarse del pueblo de Israel y para expresar que ellos no ven que el SEÑOR les esté ayudando. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "Tu Dios no está aquí para ayudarte."

Psalms 115:3

el trabajo de las manos de hombres Aquí, la palabra "manos" representa a las personas que hicieron ídolos. Traducción Alterna: "cosas las cuales los hombres han hecho"

Psalms 115:5

Esos ídolos tienen bocas
Los ídolos no tienen bocas, ojos, orejas o narices reales, sino que las personas los hicieron con la similitud de bocas, ojos, orejas y narices. El escritor está enfatizando que estos ídolos no están vivos. Puede hacerse clara la información implícita. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas le han dado bocas a aquellos ídolos"

Psalms 115:7

Esos ídolos tienen manos
Los ídolos no tienen manos, pies o bocas reales, sino que las personas los hicieron con la similitud de manos, pies y bocas. El escritor está enfatizando que estos ídolos no están vivos . Traducción Alterna: "Las peronas le han dado manos a aquellos ídolos"

pero no sienten
"pero esas manos no sienten"

Aquellos que los hacen son como ellos, así también todos los que confían en ellos Aquellos que hacen y adoran a ídolos se vuelven sin vida ni poder, así como los ídolos. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellos que los hacen se vuelven sin vida como lo son ellos, así también todos los que confían en ellos."

Israel, confía en el SEÑOR
La palabra "Israel" representa al pueblo Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Pueblo de Israel, confía en el SEÑOR"

tu ayuda y escudo
El escritor habla del SEÑOR como si Él fuese un escudo, ya que Él protege a Su pueblo como un escudo los protegería de cualquier daño. Traducción Alterna: "Quien te ayuda y te protege"

Casa de Aarón
Aquí, la palabra "Casa" representa a la familia o descendientes. Esta frase se refiere a los sacerdotes, quienes eran descendientes de Aarón. Traducción Alterna: "Descendientes de Aarón" o "Sacerdotes"

Psalms 115:12

se fija en nosotros
"nos ha prestado atención"

la familia de Israel Esto se refiere al pueblo de Israel, quienes son descendientes de Jacob, quien también es llamado Israel. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Israel"

la familia de Aarón Esto se refiere a los sacerdotes, quienes son descendientes de Aarón. Traducción Alterna: "los descendientes de Aarón" o "los sacerdotes"

tanto jóvenes como viejos
"tanto pequeños como grandes" Esto se puede referir a: 1) el estatus social o 2) la edad. En cualquiera de los casos, estos dos extremos representan a cada persona, sin importar la edad o estatus social.

Que el SEÑOR los aumente en número más y más El escritor está hablando del número de hijos que el pueblo de Israel tendría. Traducción Alterna: "Que el SEÑOR aumente el número de sus hijos más y más"

a ustedes y sus descendientes
"tanto a tus hijos como a los descendientes de tus hijos" El escritor aclara que su pedido de más hijos no solo aplica a la generación presente, sino a sus descendientes también.

Psalms 115:15

Que seas bendecido por el SEÑOR, Quien hizo el cielo y la tierra Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que el SEÑOR, Quien hizo el cielo y la tierra, te bendiga"

la tierra Él la entregó a la humanidad
Esto no significa que la tierra no le pertenece al SEÑOR, sino que le ha dado la tierra a la humanidad como un lugar para vivir.

Psalms 115:17

Los muertos
El adjetivo "muertos" puede ser traducido con una frase. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas que están muertas"

ni tampoco quien desciende al silencio Esta frase es un paralelismo

ni tampoco quien desciende al silencio
El escritor habla de la tumba o el lugar de los muertos como un lugar de silencio donde nadie puede hablar. Esto es una figura literaria

Pero nosotros
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a las personas en Israel que todavía están vivas.

Aquí, las frases "sus labios" y "sus lenguas" representan a las persona que dicen mentiras y engañan. Traducción Alterna: "de aquellos que me mienten y tratan de engañarme"

Psalms 120:3

¿Cómo Él va a castigarte, y qué más Él te hará a ti, tú que tienes una lengua mentirosa?
El escritor pregunta esto como una pregunta guía para explicar lo que Dios le hará a los mentirosos. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "Así es como Dios les castigará, y esto es lo que Él te hará a ti que tienes una lengua mentirosa."

tú, que tienes una lengua mentirosa Aquí, "lengua mentirosa" representa a la persona que dice mentiras. Traducción Alterna: "tú que dices mentiras"

Él te castigará con flechas de guerra El escritor habla de Dios castigando severamente a los mentirosos como si Dios estuviese disparándoles con flechas. Traducción Alterna: "Él te castigará severamente, como si estuviese disparándote con las flechas de un guerrero"

afiladas sobre brasas ardientes del árbol de enebro Esto se refiere a cómo las personas forjan la punta de una flecha en el fuego. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que Él afiló sobre brasas ardientes del árbol de enebro" yo viví temporeramente en Mesec; yo viví previamente entre las tiendas de Cedar Estos dos lugares estaban lejos uno del otro. Es muy probable que el escritor esté usando los nombres metafóricamente para representar el vivir entre personas crueles y salvajes/inhumanos. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si yo viviese en Mesec o entre las tiendas de Cedar"

Psalms 120:5

las tiendas de Cedar Esta frase representa a las personas de Cedar quienes vivían en esas tiendas. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que viven en Cedar"

Yo estoy para la paz
"Yo quiero paz"

ellos están para la guerra
"ellos quieren guerra"

Chapter 121

1 Levantaré mis ojos a los montes. ¿De dónde vendrá mi ayuda? 2 Mi ayuda viene del SEÑOR, quien hizo los cielos y la tierra. 3 Él no permitirá que tu pie resbale; Él que te protege no adormecerá. 4 Mira, el Guardián de Israel nunca se adormece ni duerme. 5 El SEÑOR es tu guardián; el SEÑOR es la sombra a tu mano derecha. 6 El sol no te hará daño de día, ni la luna de noche. 7 El SEÑOR te protegerá de todo daño, y Él protegerá tu vida. 8 El SEÑOR te protegerá en todo lo que hagas ahora y para siempre.

Psalms 121:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

Levantaré mis ojos a los montes
Esta expresión significa "mirar a" o "enfocar mi atención en"

¿De dónde vendrá mi ayuda?
El escritor usa esta pregunta para enfocar la atención en la fuente de su ayuda. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "Te diré de dón viene mi ayuda."

Mi ayuda viene del SEÑOR
Esta es la respuesta a la pregunta anterior.

Psalms 121:3

Información General:
Aquí hay un cambio a segunda persona. Esto puede significar: 1) que el escritor comienza a hablarle al pueblo de Israel o 2) que el escritor está citando a otra persona hablándole a él.

que tu pie resbale
El que un pie se resbale es asociado con caerse. Traducción Alterna: "que caigas"

Él que te protege... el Guardián
Estas dos frases significan los mismo y enfatizan el rol de Dios como protector.

Él que te protege no adormecerá Aquí, "adormecerá" significa "dejar de proteger". La forma negativa fortalece la aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "Dios no se dormirá ni dejará de protegerte" o "Dios siempre te protegerá"

no adormecerá... nunca se adormece ni duerme Estas dos frases tienen significados parecidos. El segundo fortalece el pensamiento del primero.

Mira
Esta palabra nos alerta a prestar atención la información importante que le sigue.

nunca se adormece ni duerme
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Aquí, "adormece" significa "dejar de proteger". El expresarlo de forma negativa fortalece la aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "no dormirá" o "siempre te protegerá"

Psalms 121:5

el SEÑOR es la sombra a tu mano derecha Aquí, "sombra" se refiere a "protección". Traducción Alterna: "Dios está a tu lado para protegerte de las cosas que te lastimarán"

a tu mano derecha
Aquí, esta expresión significa estar al lado o cerca del escritor.

El sol no te hará daño de día, ni la luna de noche Los términos contrastantes "día y "noche" se refieren a los extremos y a todo lo que está entre medio de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Dios te protege de los elementos en todo tiempo"

ni la luna de noche
Aquí, está implicado el que "no te harán daño". Se puede hacer claro el significado completo de esta aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "ni la luna te hará daño en la noche"

Psalms 121:7

El SEÑOR te protegerá... Él protegerá tu vida... El SEÑOR te protegerá Estas frases tienen significados similares. La repetición fortalece las ideas.

tu vida
Esto se refiere al escritor. Traducción Alterna: "a ti"

Chapter 123

1 Tí alzaré mis ojos, Tu que estás entronado en los cielos. 2 Mira, como los ojos de los siervos miran la mano de su señor, como las siervas miran la mano de su señora, así nuestros ojos miran al SEÑOR nuestro Dios hasta que él tenga misericordia de nosotros. 3 Ten piedad de nosotros, SEÑOR, ten misericordia de nosotros, pues estamos llenos de humillación. 4 Estamos más que llenos de la burla del insolente y con el desprecio de los orgullosos.

Psalms 123:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

alzaré mis ojos Aquí, el autor se refiere a sus ojos porque es la parte del cuerpo que es usada para ver. Traducción Alterna: "te miro a Ti"

entronado
sentarse sobre un trono y goberna como rey

como los ojos de los siervos...como las siervas miran... así nuestros ojos miran Estas tres frases tienen significados parecidos. La tercera frase, acerca de los israelitas, se compara a cómo los siervos y las criadas miran a sus amos y a sus señoras por ayuda. En cada caso, "ojos" se refiere a la persona en sí.

la mano de su amo... la mano de su señora Aquí, "mano" se refiere a la provisión de las necesidades. Traducción Alterna: "la provisión de su amo... la provisión de su señora"

siervas
"siervas jóvenes"

señora
la mujer que tiene autoridad sobre las sirvientas

tenga misericordia de nosotros
El sustantivo abstracto "misericordia" puede ser expresado como una acción/verbo. Traducción Alterna: "actúe misericordiosamente hacia nosotros"

Psalms 123:3

ten misericordia de nosotros
El sustantivo abstracto "misericordia" puede ser expresado como una accción/verbo. Ver cómo se tradujo una frase parecida en 123:1. Traducción Alterna: "actúa misericordiosamente hacia nosotros"

estamos llenos...Estamos más que llenos Estas dos frases tienen significados parecidos, pero la segunda aumenta la intensidad de la primera.

estamos llenos de humillación
Aquí, se habla de la humillación como si fuese algo que puede llenar a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "estamos muy avergonzados"

Estamos más que llenos Esta expresión idiomática significa que la cantidad es excesiva en un sentido negativo. Traducción Alterna: "Hemos tenido demasiado"

de la burla... y con el desprecio Estas dos frases tienen significados muy parecidos y se usan juntos para enfatizar cuánto se ha burlado la gente de ellos.

insultar

del insolente
Esto se refiere a las personas insolentes. Traducción Alterna: "las personas irrespetuosas y arrogantes"

los orgullosos
Esto se refiere a las personas orgullosas. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que son orgullosas"

Chapter 124

1 "Si el SEÑOR no hubiera estado de nuestro lado," deja que Israel diga ahora, 2 "si no hubiera sido el SEÑOR quien estaba de nuestro lado cuando los hombres se levantaron en contra nuestra, 3 entonces ellos nos hubieran tragado vivos cuando su ira se encendió contra nosotros. 4 Las aguas nos hubieran arrastrado lejos; el torrente nos hubiera abrumado. 5 Entonces las aguas furiosas nos hubieran ahogado." 6 Bendito sea el SEÑOR, que no ha permitido que seamos desgarrados con sus dientes. 7 Hemos escapdo como aves de las trampas de los cazadores; la trampa se ha roto, y hemos escapado. 8 Nuestra ayuda es en el SEÑOR, quien hizo los cielos y la tierra.

Psalms 124:1

Información General
El paralelismo

Si el SEÑOR no hubiera estado de nuestro lado... entonces ellos nos hubieran tragado vivos
Esta es una aseveración hipotética que describe un resultado que no ha ocurrido, porque el SEÑOR en realidad estaba de su lado. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR estaba de nuestro lado... así que ellos no pudieron tragarnos vivos"

Si el SEÑOR no hubiera estado de nuestro lado... entonces ellos nos hubieran tragado vivos Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Sin la ayuda del SEÑOR... Sin la ayuda del SEÑOR"

tragado vivos
Esta metáfora describe cómo los israelitas pudieron haber muerto con la manera en que un animal feroz atacaría a un animal más pequeño para comérselo. Traducción Alterna: "matado"

su ira se encendió contra nosotros Aquí, "su ira" se refiere a los enemigos que estaban enojados. Traducción Alterna: "¡ellos estaban muy enojados con nosotros!"

Psalms 124:4

Información general
En estos dos versículos el autor compara a los enemigos de Israel con un torrente de agua.

Las aguas nos hubieran arrastrado lejos...nos hubieran ahogado
Esto continúa la aseveración hipotética de versículo anterior. Describe un resultado que no ocurrió, porque el SEÑOR en realidad estaba de su lado. Traducción Alterna: "El agua no nos arrastó... no nos ahogó"

Las aguas... el torrente... las aguas furiosas
Estas frases significan lo mismo.

arrastrado lejos... nos hubiera abrumado... nos hubieran ahogado
Estas frases significan lo mismo.

Las aguas nos hubieran arrastrado lejos
Aquí, se habla de los enemigos del escritor como si ellos fuesen un torrente de agua. Traducción Alterna: "Nuestros enemigos nos hubiese derrotado fácilmente"

el torrente nos hubiera abrumado
Aquí, se habla de los enemigos del escritor como si ellos fuesen un torrente de agua. Traducción Alterna: "Nuestros enemigos nos hubiese abrumado"

las aguas furiosas nos hubieran ahogado.
Aquí, se habla de los enemigos del escritor como si ellos fuesen un torrente de agua. Traducción Alterna: "Nuestros enemigos nos hubiese destruido"

Psalms 124:6

desgarrados con sus dientes
Se habla de los enemigos como si ellos fuesen animales salvajes que destruirían a los israelitas comiéndoselos. Traducción ALterna: "destruido como si nosotros hubiésemos sido devorados por animales salvajes"

escapado como aves de las trampas de los cazadores El escritor describe su escape de los enemigos como si él fuese un pájaro que ha escapado de la trampa de los cazadores. Traducción Alterna: "escapado de nuestros enemigos como un pájaro escapa de la trampa que los cazadores en preparado"

trampa
una pequeña trampa de cuerda o alambre hecha para atrapar animales pequeños o pájaros

la trampa se ha roto
El plan de los enemigos de atrapar al escritor falló como si fuese una trampa se ha roto.

Chapter 125

1 Aquellos que confían en el SEÑOR son como el Monte de Sion, inquebrantables y por siempre duraderos. 2 Como las montañas rodean a Jerusalén, así el Señor rodea a su pueblo, ahora y para siempre. 3 El cetro de la maldad no debe gobernar la tierra de los justos. Sino, los justos podrían hacer lo que está mal. 4 Haz el bien, SEÑOR, a aquellos que son buenos y a aquellos que son rectos en sus corazones. 5 Pero para aquellos que se desvían a sus caminos torcidos, el SEÑOR los apartará con los malhechores. Que la paz sea en Israel.

Psalms 125:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

Aquellos que confían en el SEÑOR son como el Monte de Sion, inquebrantables y por siempre duraderos.
Se habla de las personas que confían en el SEÑOR como si ellos fuesen el Monte de Sion. Las montañas no pueden moverse.

Como las montañas rodean a Jerusalén, así el Señor rodea a su pueblo, ahora y para siempre Se habla de la protección del SEÑOR como si Él fuese las montañas que rodean Jerusalén. Jerusalén estaba rodeada de varias montañas, las cuales la protegían de los ataques. Traducción Alterna: "Así como las montañas que rodean a Jerusalén la protegen, así también el SEÑOR protege a Su pueblo" (UDB)

ahora y para siempre
Aquí, esta frase significa "siempre".

El cetro de la maldad
Aquí, "el cetro de la maldad" representa el gobierno de la gente mala. Traducción ALterna: "Las personas malvadas" o "Los gobernantes malvados"

Psalms 125:4

Haz el bien, SEÑOR
Esto es una petición. El sustantivo abstracto "bien" puede ser expresado como una acción/verbo. Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR, por favor haz cosas buenas" o "SEÑOR, te ruego que hagas cosas buenas"

son rectos en sus corazones Aquí, "corazones" se refiere a sus deseos. Traducción Alterna: "desean hacer lo correcto"

se desvían
Se habla de negarse a obedecer al SEÑOR como desviarse de un buen camino. Traducción Alterna: "dejan el bien y se van"

sus caminos torcidos Aquí, se habla de los caminos malvados como si fuesen un camino que no es recto/derecho. Traducción Alterna: "sus malos caminos"

los apartará
Se aparta a la gente para castigarles. El significado completo de esta aseveración puese aclararse. Traducción Alterna: "los apartará para castigarlos"

Chapter 126

1 Cuando el SEÑOR restauró las fortunas de Sion, nosotros fuimos como aquellos que sueñan. 2 Entonces nuestras bocas fueron llenas con risa y nuestras lenguas con cántico. Entonces ellos dijeron entre las naciones: "El SEÑOR ha hecho grandes cosas por ellos." 3 El SEÑOR hizo grandes cosas por nosotros; ¡cuán contentos nosotros fuimos! 4 Restaura nuestras fortunas, SEÑOR, como las corrientes en el Neguev. 5 Aquellos que sembraron con lágrimas, cosecharán con gritos de gozo. 6 Él que sale llorando, llevando semilla para la siembra, regresará otra vez con gritos de gozo, trayendo sus gavillas con él.

Psalms 126:1

Información General
El paralelismo

restauró las fortunas de Sion
"hizo que Sion fuera próspero de nuevo"

Psalms 126:2

nuestras bocas fueron llenas con risa
Se habla del reírse como si sus bocas fuesen un envase y su risa estaba dentro del mismo. Puede aclararse que esta risa era resultado de su gozo. Traducción Alterna: "nosotros reímos de gozo"

nuestras lenguas con cántico
Los verbos "fueron llenos" pueden expresarse clararamente. Se hablar del cantar como si sus bocas fuesen un envase y el cantar estaba dentro del mismo. Traducción Alterna: "nuestras lenguas se llenaron con cánticos" o "nosotros cantamos canciones de gozo"

ellos dijeron entre las naciones
"la personas de las naciones dijeron entre ellos" El nombre es usado antes de introducir a lo que se refiere. Esto es muy inusual/raro.

El SEÑOR hizo grandes cosas por nosotros; ¡cuán contentos nosotros fuimos!
"¡Cuán contentos estábamos porque el SEÑOR hizo estas grandes cosas por nosotros!"

Psalms 126:4

Aquellos que sembraron con lágrimas... Él, que sale llorando... trayendo sus gavillas con él Estos dos versículos son paralelos uno del otro. La segunda oración tiene el mismo significado que la primera, pero da más detalles.

Chapter 127

1 A menos que el SEÑOR construya la casa, inutilmente trabajan los que la construyen. A menos que el SEÑOR vigile la ciudad, inútilmente hacen guardia los vigilantes. 2 Es inútil para ustedes levantarse temprano, para venir a casa tarde, o para comer el pan del duro trabajo, pues el SEÑOR provee para Sus amados mientras ellos duermen. 3 Vean, los hijos son una herencia del SEÑOR, y el fruto del vientre es una recompensa de Él. 4 Como flechas en la mano de un guerrero, así son los hijos de la juventud de uno. 5 Cuán bendecido es el hombre que tiene su carcaj (aljaba) lleno de ellos. Él no será puesto en vergüenza cuando él enfrente sus enemigos en la puerta.

Psalms 127:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

levantarse temprano, para venir a casa tarde
Una persona que trabaja duro a menudo tiene que levantarse temprano en la mañana y regresar a casa tarde en la noche.

comer el pan del duro trabajo Esto es una expresión idiomática. El pan normalmente representa la comida que una persona necesita cada día para vivir. Traducción Alterna: "trabajar duro para sus necesidades diarias" (Ver:

Psalms 127:3

herencia
"regalo" o "posesión de valor" Los hijos normalmente reciben un herencia de sus padres. La herencia va de los padres a sus hijos. Este pasaje se refiere a los hijos como la herencia de los padres.

Como flechas en la mano de un guerrero, así son los hijos de la juventud de uno Las flechas con muy importantes para los guerreros porque los protejen en batalla. Se habla de los hijos como si ellos fuesen una flecha de un guerrero. Traducción Alterna: "Tener muchos hijos ayudará a protegerte"

su aljaba
Una aljaba es un recipiente para las flechas. Se habla del tener muchos hijos como si los hijos fuesen flechas en un recipiente. Traducción Alterna: "una casa llena de hijos" o "muchos hijos"

Chapter 128

1 Bendecido es todo aquel que honra al SEÑOR, quien anda en sus caminos. 2 Lo que tus manos proveen, tú disfrutarás; tú serás bendecido y prosperarás. 3 Tu esposa será como una vid fructífera en tu casa; tus hijos serán como plantas de olivo, mientras ellos se sientan alrededor de tu mesa. 4 Sí, en efecto, el hombre será bendecido, quien honra al SEÑOR. 5 Que el SEÑOR te bendiga desde Sion; que tú puedas ver la prosperidad de Jerusalén todos los días de tu vida. 6 Que tú puedas vivir para ver a los hijos de tus hijos. Que la paz sea sobre Israel.

Psalms 128:1

Información General
El paralelismo

Bendecido es todo aquel que honra al SEÑOR
Esta frase ocurre en voz pasiva para evadir la implicación de que el SEÑOR está obligado a bendecir aquellos que Le honran. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR bendecirá a todo aquel que Le honra"

Lo que tus manos proveen
Se le puede referir a un hombre por sus manos porque esa es la parte del cuerpo con la cual trabaja. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que provees" o "Por lo que trabajaste"

tú serás bendecido y prosperarás
Las palabras "serás bendito" y "posperarás" comparten significados parecidos y enfatizan el favor de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR te bendecirá y te prosperará" o "El SEÑOR hará que seas bendito y próspero"

Psalms 128:3

como una vid fructífera en tu casa Se habla de la esposa como una vid

tus hijos serán como plantas de olivo Se comparan a los hijos con plantas de olivo por la manera en que ellas crecen para rodear algo. Los hijos rodearán la mesa y harán que esté llena. Traducción Alterna: "tendrás muchos hijos que crecerán y prosperarán"

alrededor de tu mesa
Esto se refiere al lugar donde una familia se reúne a comer. A menudo, todos aquellos que comen a la mesa de un hombre están bajo su autoridad o control.

el hombre será bendecido, quien honra al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR bendecirá al hombre que Le honre" todos los días de tu vida

"a lo largo de tu vida"

Chapter 129

1 "Muchas veces mis enemigos me han perseguido", desde mi juventud, dejen que Israel diga. 2 "Muchas veces desde mi juventud ellos me han perseguido, pero no me han derrotado. 3 Sobre mi espalda araron los aradores, y alargaron sus surcos largos. 4 El SEÑOR es recto; Él ha cortado las sogas de los malvados." 5 Que todos ellos sean puestos en vergüenza y regresados, aquelllos que odian a Sion. 6 Que ellos sean como la hierba en los techos, que se marchita antes de que crezca, 7 Que no pueda llenar la mano del segador ni el recogedor de gavillas sus brazos. 8 Que aquellos que pasan no digan: "Que la bendición del SEÑOR esté sobre ti; nosotros te bendecimos en el nombre del SEÑOR."

Psalms 129:1

Información General
El paralelismo

Sobre mi espalda araron los labradores
Se habla de los cortes de un látigo como si fuesen el [campo de] arado de un labrador. Un agricultor araba

alargaron sus surcos
Esto es una continuación de la metáfora de arar. El "surco" es la línea que el labrador ara

Psalms 129:4

Él ha cortado las sogas de los malvados
Se habla de Israel como estar atado por personas malas. Traducción Alterna: "Él nos ha liberado de nuestros enemigos"

Que todos ellos sean puestos en vergüenza y regresados
El SEÑOR no está mencionado explícitamente como el que hace estas cosas. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que el SENOR los avergüence y los derrote"

Psalms 129:6

Que ellos sean como...gavillas
El salmista habla de sus enemigos muriendo y siendo pocos en número. Se les compara con el pasto pequeño que crece sobre el techo de una casa y se desvanece y no es suficiente como para cortarlo o recogerlo. Traducción Alterna: "Que ellos mueran y queden tan pocos que sean como el pasto... gavilla"

la bendición del SEÑOR esté sobre ti;
"el SEÑOR te bendiga"

Chapter 130

1 Desde lo más profundo, yo clamo a ti, SEÑOR. 2 Señor, escucha mi voz; deja que tus oídos estén atentos a mis súplicas por misericordia. 3 Si Tú, SEÑOR, tuvieras en cuenta las iniquidades, Señor, ¿quién podrá permanecer? 4 Pero hay perdón contigo, para que Tú puedas ser reverenciado. 5 Yo espero en el SEÑOR, mi alma espera, y en Su palabra yo tengo esperanza. 6 Mi alma espera por el Señor más que el vigilante espera por la mañana. 7 Israel, espera en el SEÑOR. El SEÑOR es misericordioso, y Él está muy dispuesto a perdonar. 8 Es Él quien redimirá a Israel de todos sus pecados.

Psalms 130:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

Desde lo más profundo
Se habla de la tristeza del autor como si fuese un recipiente. Su tristeza proviene desde el fondo de un recipiente. A menudo se habla de la tristeza como un recipiente que se llena desde el fondo hasta la superficie. Traducción Alterna: "Porque estoy muy triste"

deja que tus oídos estén atentos
Los "oídos" representan al SEÑOR, pero porque el autor sabe que el SEÑOR escucha todo, él en realidad está pidiendo que el SEÑOR responda. Traducción Alterna: "por favor escucha" o "por favor responde"

a mis súplicas por misericordia
"Misericordia" no es algo se le puede dar físicamente a alguien. El autor le está pidiendo a Dios que sea misericordioso con él. Traducción Alterna: "a mis súplicas y sé misericordioso conmigo"

Psalms 130:3

¿quién podrá permanecer?
El hablante usa esta pregunta para expresar la inutilidad de pensar que cualquier persona podría permanecer en esta situación. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "nadie podría permanecer"

quién podrá permanecer
A menudo, "permanecer" representa escapar o sobrevivir cuando alguien ataca. En este caso, sería el escapar de ser castigado. Traducción Alterna: "nadie podría escapar de Tu castigo" o "nadie podría sobrevivir a Tu castigo"

Psalms 130:5

Mi alma
"Mi alma" representa al salmista. Traducción Alterna: "Yo"

Mi alma espera
Se habla del salmista como si él estuviese esperando algo con expectativa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo espero" o "Yo confío" o "Yo deseo algo"

Mi alma espera ...más que el vigilante espera por la mañana
El salmista habla que su deseo de que el Señor le ayude es mayor al deseo que tienen de que venga la mañana aquellos que trabajan toda la noche.

vigilante
Estos son hombres que protegen pueblos o campos de los enemigos o ladrones. Aquí, se refiere a los hombres que tienen que quedarse despiertos en la noche haciendo esto.

Psalms 130:7

Israel...sus pecados
Se habla del pueblo de Israel como si ellos fuesen un hombre. Traducción Alterna: "Pueblo de Israel... su" o "Nosotros, pueblo de Israel... nuestro"

1 SEÑOR, mi corazón no es orgulloso ni mis ojos altivos. Yo no tengo grandes esperanzas para mí, ni me precupo con cosas que están más allá de mí. 2 En efecto, yo me he calmado y he aquietado mi alma; como un hijo destetado de su madre, mi alma dentro de mí es como un hijo destetado. 3 Israel, espera en el SEÑOR ahora y por siempre.

Psalms 131:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

mi corazón no es orgulloso ni mis ojos altivos
El corazón y los ojos representan a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "yo no soy orgulloso ni arrogante"

Yo no tengo grandes esperanzas para mí Los posibles significados son: 1) "Yo no espero hacer grandes cosas" o "Yo no pienso que soy grande"

cosas que están más allá de mí
Se habla de las cosas que son muy difíciles para entender como si estuviesen más allá de la persona o demasiado lejos como para que la persona pueda alcanzarlas. Traducción Alterna: "cosas que son demasiado difíciles de entender"

Psalms 131:2

yo me he calmado y he aquietado mi alma El alma representa a la persona o a sus emociones. Se habla de estar calmado o en paz como haber aquietado y calmado el alma. Tracción Alterna: "estoy calmado y en paz"

mi alma dentro de mí El alma representa la personas o sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "yo"

un hijo destetado
El salmista habla de sí mismo estando contento y descansando como si él fuese un niño que ya no pide leche materna. Traducción Alterna: "contenta como un niño que ya no llora por la leche materna, pero descanse en los brazos de su madre" o "contenta y descansando"

Chapter 132

1 SEÑOR, por el bien de David, recuerda todas sus aflicciones. 2 Recuerda cómo él prometió al SEÑOR, y al Poderoso de Jacob. 3 Él dijo: "Yo no entraré a mi casa, ni en mi lecho me acostaré, 4 yo no daré sueño a mis ojos o descansaré mis párpados 5 hasta que yo encuentre un lugar para el SEÑOR, un tabernáculo para el Poderoso de Jacob." 6 Vean, nosotros escuchamos sobre eso en Efrata; nosotros la encontramos en los campos de Jaar. 7 Nosotros entraremos al tabernáculo de Dios; nosotros adoraremos ante el estrado de sus pies. 8 ¡Levántate, SEÑOR, a tu lugar de descanso, tú y el arca de tu fortaleza! 9 Que tus sacerdotes sean vestidos con integridad; que tus fieles griten de gozo. 10 Por el bien de tu siervo David, no te alejes de tu rey ungido. 11 El SEÑOR hizo un juramento seguro a David, que Él no revocará: "Yo colocaré uno de tus descendientes en tu trono. 12 Si tus hijos mantienen mi pacto y las Leyes que Yo les enseñaré, sus hijos también se sentarán en Su trono para siempre jamás." 13 Ciertamente el SEÑOR ha escogido a Sion, Él la ha deseado para su asiento. 14 "Este es mi lugar de descando por siempre. Yo viviré aquí, pues Yo la deseo a ella. 15 Yo abundantemente la bendeciré con provisiones. Yo voy a satisfacer sus pobres con pan. 16 Yo vestiré a sus sacerdotes con salvación, sus fieles darán gritos de gozo. 17 Allí yo haré un cuerno de retoño para David y colocaré un lámpara para mi Ungido. 18 Yo vestiré sus enemigos con vergüenza, pero en Él, su corona brillará."

1 Yo te daré gracias con todo mi corazón; ante los dioses yo cantaré alabanzas a Ti. 2 Yo me inclinaré hacia tu templo santo y daré gracias a Tu nombre por tu pacto de fidelidad y por Tu confiabilidad. Tú has hecho Tu palabra y Tu nombre más importante que cualquier otra cosa. 3 En el día que yo te llamé, Tú me contestaste; Tú me alentaste y fortaleciste mi alma. 4 Todos los reyes de la tierra te darán gracias, SEÑOR, pues ellos escucharán las palabras de Tu boca. 5 En efecto, ellos cantarán de las obras del SEÑOR, pues grande es la gloria del SEÑOR. 6 Pues aunque el SEÑOR es alto, sin embargo Él se preocupa por los humildes, pero al orgulloso lo conoce de lejos. 7 Aunque yo camine en medio del peligro, Tú preserverás mi vida; Tú extenderás tu mano contra la ira de mis enemigos, y Tu mano derecha me salvará. 8 El SEÑOR está conmigo hasta el fin; tu pacto de fidelidad, SEÑOR, dura por siempre. No abandones lo que Tus manos han hecho.

Psalms 138:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

Yo te daré gracias con todo mi corazón Aquí, el corazón representa las emociones. Se habla de hacer algo sinceramente o por completo como hacerlo con todo el corazón de uno. Traducción Alterna: "Yo Te daré gracias sinceramente"

ante los dioses Posibles significados son: 1) una manera de ridiculizar a los reyes o dioses de las naciones paganas o 2) "a pesar de los dioses falsos que existen" o 3) "ante la asamblea celestial", lo cual significa, "al conocimiento de los ángeles en el cielo"

Yo me inclinaré
El inclinarse es una acción simbólica que representa adoración y dar honor. Traducción Alterna: "Yo te adoraré"

daré gracias a Tu nombre
"Te daré gracias"

Tu palabra
Esto se refiere a lo que Dios ha dicho. Traducción Alterna: "lo que Tú has dicho" o "Tus mandamientos y promesas"

Tu nombre
Los posibles significados son: 1) "a Ti mismo" o 2) "Tu fama"

Psalms 138:3

Todos los reyes de la tierra
"Todos los líderes en el mundo"

Tu boca
Esta expresión se refiere a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Tuyas"

Psalms 138:5

el SEÑOR está en lo alto, sin embargo Él se preocupa por los humildes El SEÑOR está sobre toda la creación en poder, posición y autoridad. Aún así, Su interés está en aquellos que son humildes de espíritu, siervos de todos. Este es un contraste simple.

al orgulloso lo conoce de lejos
Esta expresión probablemente significa que Dios no es fiel a aquellos que son orgullosos.

Psalms 138:7

camine
viva, exista

en medio del peligro
Se habla de estar en peligro como estar en un lugar físico.

Tú extenderás tu mano contra la ira de mis enemigos
Se habla de Dios como si Él golpeara físicamente a los enemigos con su mano.

ira de mis enemigos
Se habla del enojo como si fuese un obejeto en lugar de una emoción. Traducción Alterna: "mis enemigos, quienes están molestos"

que Tus manos han hecho Se habla de Dios como si Él hubiese usado físicamente Sus manos para crear. Traducción Alterna: "que Tú has creado"

lo que Tus manos han hecho
Esta expresión probablemente se refiere a la nación de Israel.

Chapter 139

1 SEÑOR, Tú me has examinado, y Tú me conoces. 2 Tú sabes cuando me siento y cuando me levanto; Tú entiendes mis pensamientos desde lejos. 3 Tú observas mi caminar y mi descansar; todas mis maneras te son familiares. 4 Pues desde antes que haya una palabra en mi boca, Tú la conoces completamente, SEÑOR. 5 Tú me rodeas por delante y por detrás, y pones Tu mano sobre mí. 6 Tal conocimiento es demasiado para mí; está muy alto y yo no puedo alcanzarlo. 7 ¿A dónde puedo huir de Tu Espíritu? ¿Dónde puedo esconderme de Tu presencia? 8 Si yo subo a los cielos, allí estás Tú; si hago mi cama en el Seol, allí Tú estás. 9 Si yo vuelo en las alas de la mañana y voy a vivir en las partes más lejanas cruzando el mar, 10 incluso allí Tu mano me guiará, Tu mano derecha me agarrará. 11 Si yo dijera: "Ciertamente, la oscuridad me cubrirá, y la luz se volverá noche a mi alrededor," 12 aún la oscuridad no sería oscura para Ti. La noche brillaría como el día, pues la oscuridad y la luz son iguales para Ti. 13 Tú formaste mis partes internas; Tú me formaste en el vientre de mi madre. 14 Yo te alabaré a Ti, pues estoy maravillosamente hecho. Mi alma sabe esto muy bien. 15 Mis huesos no fueron escondidos de Ti cuando yo fuí hecho en privado, cuando fuí detalladamente hecho en las profundidades de la tierra. 16 Tú me viste dentro del vientre; todos los días asignados a mí fueron grabados en Tu libro antes de que el primero pasara. 17 ¡Cuan preciosos son Tus pensamientos para Mi, Dios! 18 ¡Cuan grande es Su suma! Si yo tratara de contarlos, ellos serían más en número que la arena. Cuando despierto, todavía estoy Contigo. 19 Dios si tan solo Tú mataras a los malvados; aléja de mí los hombres violentos. 20 Ellos se rebelan en contra Tuya y actúan engañosamente; Tus enemigos dicen mentiras. 21 ¿Acaso yo no odio a esos, SEÑOR que te odian a Ti? ¿Acaso yo no desprecio a esos quienes se levantan en contra Tuya? 22 Yo los odio completamente; ellos se han vuelto mis enemigos. 23 Exáminame, Dios, y conoce mi corazón; pruébame y conoce mis pensamientos. 24 Mira si hay algún camino maligno en mí, y guíame al camino eterno.

Psalms 139:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

examinado
"probado"

cuando me siento y cuando me levanto
El salmista usa estas dos acciones para represetnar todo lo que él hace. Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que yo hago" o "todo acerca de mí"

Psalms 139:3

mi caminar y mi descansar Aquí, "caminar" se refiere al comportamiento de uno. Además, "mi caminar y mi descansar" representan todo acerca del salmista.

antes que haya una palabra en mi boca Aquí, "palabra en mi boca" representa el hablar. Traducción Alterna: "antes de que diga algo"

Tú me rodeas por delante y por detrás
Esta expresión se refiere a la presencia de Dios en todas partes.

colocas Tu mano sobre mí Esta expresión se refiere a guianza y ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "Tú me guías y me ayudas"

demasiado para mí
"demasiado como para que yo lo entienda"

está muy alto y yo no puedo alcanzarlo
El estar alto y fuera del alcance es una expresión y, en este caso, se refiere al conocimiento que los seres humanos no pueden obtener. Traducción Alterna: "es demasiado difícil de entender"

Psalms 139:7

¿A dónde puedo huir de Tu Espíritu? ¿Dónde puedo esconderme de Tu presencia?
Estas dos preguntas son paralelas. El salmista dice que él no puede alejarse de la presencia de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "No puedo escapar de Tu Espíritu"

si hago mi cama en el Seol
El "hacer/preparar la cama" se refiere a quedarse en algún lugar. Traducción Alterna: "incluso si permanezco en el Seol"

Psalms 139:9

Si yo vuelo en las alas de la mañana
En el Antiguo Oriente, con frecuencia imaginaban al sol como si tuviese alas, las cuales le permitiría volar a través del cielo. Traducción Alterna: "Si el sol pudiese cargarme consigo a través del cielo"

en las partes más lejanas cruzando el mar
"muy lejos hacia el oeste"

me agarrará
"me ayudará"

Psalms 139:11

Si yo dijera: "Ciertamente, la oscuridad me cubrirá
El salmista habla de la noche como si fuese una cobija/frazada que le podría esconder.

La noche brillaría como el día
Se habla de la noche, la cual es oscura, como si fuere brillante como la luz.

Psalms 139:13

Tú formaste mis partes internas
"partes internas" se refiere a los órganos internos de una persona, pero aquí esta expresión probablemnete se refiere a todo el cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú formaste mi cuerpo entero"

Mi alma sabe esto muy bien
Aquí, "alma" probablemente se refiere a la habilidad más profunda del salmista de estar seguro acerca del amor y dirección de Dios. Aquí, sin embargo, el traductor puede tratar "alma" como un metónimo

Psalms 139:15

detalladamente hecho
"hiciste con gran complejidad"

las profundidades de la tierra Esto probablementes es una manera de hablar acerca del útero de una madre.

todos los días asignados a mí fueron grabados en Tu libro antes de que el primero pasara Esta expresión implica que los israelitas antiguos imaginaban que Dios escribía Sus planes en un libro.

Psalms 139:17

preciosos
"importantes" o "valiosos"

Cuan grande es Su suma
"Tus pensamientos son demasiados"

ellos serían más en número que la arena
"no se pueden contar"

Psalms 139:19

aleja de mí los hombres violentos
El salmista solo está pretendiendo hablarle directamente a los hombre violentos a quienes él tiene en mente. Los traductores pueden decidir expresar esta orden como un deseo

Ellos se rebelan en contra Tuya
"Dios, ellos se rebelan en contra de Tu autoridad"

Tus enemigos dicen mentiras
"Tus enemigos mientes acerca de Ti"

Psalms 139:21

¿Acaso yo no odio a esos, SEÑOR que te odian a Ti? ¿Acaso yo no desprecio a esos quienes se levantan en contra Tuya?
Estas dos oraciones tienen significados parecidos. La segunda fortalece el pensamiento de la primera. Ambas preguntas pueden ser expresadas como aseveraciones/afirmaciones se levantan en contra se rebelan en contra

Psalms 139:23

Exáminame
Esta es una petición a Dios para que le diga al salmista acerca de algún pensamieto pecaminoso que él pueda tener. Traducción Alterna: "Por favor investígame" o "Te suplico que me investigues"

Exáminame, Dios, y conoce mi corazón; pruébame y conoce mis pensamientos Estas dos oraciones tienen significados parecidos. La segunda fortalece el pensamiento de la primera.

algún camino maligno
Aquí, "camino" se refiere al comportamiento.

al camino eterno
Aquí, "camino" se refiere a la confianza y obediencia a Dios. Cualquier persona que "camine" por este camino tendrá vida eterna.

Chapter 140

1 SEÑOR, rescátame de los malvados, guárdame de los hombres violentos. 2 Ellos planean maldad en sus corazones; ellos causan batallas cada días. 3 Sus lenguas hieren como serpientes; el veneno de las víboras está en sus labios. 4 Aléjame de las manos de los malvados, SEÑOR; guárdame de los hombres violentos que planean derribarme. 5 El orgulloso ha puesto una trampa para mí; ellos han tendido una red, ellos han puesto un lazo para mí. 6 Yo le dije al SEÑOR: "Tú eres mi DIos; escucha mis gritos por misericordia." 7 SEÑOR, mi Dios, Tú eres poderosamente capaz de sálvarme; Tú cubres mi cabeza en el día de la batalla. 8 SEÑOR, no apruebes los deseos de los malvados; no dejes que sus planes tengan éxito. 9 Esos que me rodean alzaron sus cabezas; deja que la malicia de sus propios labios los cubra. 10 Deja que carbones humeantes caigan sobre ellos; arrójalos al fuego, en pozos sin fondo, para que nunca más se levanten. 11 Que los hombres que hablan maldad de otros sin causa, no sean seguros en la tierra; que la maldad caze al hombre violento para azotarlo a muerte. 12 Yo sé que el SEÑOR juzgará a favor de los afligidos, y que Él le dará justicia al necesitado. 13 Ciertamente, la gente justa dara gracias en Tu nombre; los rectos vivirán en Tu presencia.

Psalms 140:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

ellos causan batallas
Aquí, "batallas probablemente se refiere al conflicto de cualquier tipo, incluyendo las discusiones.

Sus lenguas hieren como serpientes
Se habla de las personas que causan conflictos por lo ellos dicen como si ellos tuviesen lenguas de serpientes. Por supuesto, las serpientes no hacen daño con sus lenguas, sino con sus mordidas y especialmente con el veneno. Obviamente una persona no puede hacer que su lengua sea afilada físicamente, por lo tanto, aquí la idea de una lengua afilada

Psalms 140:4

las manos de los malvados
Esto es el poder de los malvados.

ha puesto una trampa...tendido una red...puesto un lazo
Los tipos exactos de trampas son menos importantes que la idea de que los "malvados... hombres violentos" están planeando causarle problemas al salmista. Si sus lectores no saben mucho acerca de trampas, puede que sea necesario reducir esto a una sola oración, como la UDB reduce las dos oraciones de la ULB a una sola en 140:1.

Psalms 140:6

escucha mis gritos
Esto es un grito de ayuda. Traducción Alterna: "escúchame mientras clamo a Ti por ayuda"

Tú cubres mi cabeza en el día de la batalla La cabeza de una persona está en gran peligro durante la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "Tú me proteges cuando voy a la guerra"

batalla
Aquí, "batalla" probablemente se refiere a cualquier tipo de problema severo.

no apruebes los deseos de los malvados
"por favor, no permitas que los malvados obtengan lo que desean"

los malvados
El adjetivo "malvados" puede ser traducido como una frase nominal. Traducción Alterna: "personas malvadas"

Psalms 140:9

alzaron sus cabezas Esto es una señal de ser arrogante. Traducción Alterna: "son arrogantes" que la malicia de sus propios labios los cubra Esto es una oración para que Dios haga que los hacedores de maldad sufran por los problemas que ellos mismos causaron al hacer las cosas que hicieron.

la malicia de sus propios labios
El problema que ellos mismos causaron por lo que dijeron.

los cubra
Esto es, que dejen de causar más problemas.

Deja que carbones humeantes caigan sobre ellos; arrójalos al fuego
Las imágenes del fuego se refiere a un castigo severo para los malvados.

en pozos sin fondo
Esto probablemente hace referencia al Seol, el mundo de los muertos.

sean seguros en la tierra
"estén a salvo en esta vida"

que la maldad cace al hombre violento para azotarlo a muerte Aquí, se habla de la "maldad" como si fuese una persona que toma venganza sobre otra persona.

Psalms 140:12

Él le dará justicia al necesitado Aquí, se habla de la justicia como si fuese un objeto que puede ser dado alguien. Traducción Alterna: "Él actuará de una manera justa para ayudar al necesitado"

a Tu nombre
"a Ti"

Chapter 141

1 SEÑOR, estoy clamando a Ti; ven a mí pronto. Escúchame cuando te llame. 2 Que mi oración sea como incienso ante Ti; que mi mano levantada sea como el sacrificio de la tarde. 3 SEÑOR, pon un guardia sobre mi boca; cuida la puerta de mis labios. 4 No dejes que mi corazón desee ninguna cosa maligna o participar de actividades pecaminosa con hombres que se comportan maliciosamente. Que yo no coma ninguno de sus manjares. 5 Permite que un justo me golpee; eso sería un favor para mí. Déjalo que me corrija, eso sería aceite en mi cabeza; que mi cabeza no se niegue aceptarlo. Pero mi oración siempre está en contra de sus malignas obras. 6 Sus líderes serán arrojados de los topes de los precipicios; ellos escucharán que mis propias palabras son placenteras. 7 Ellos tendrán que decir: "Como cuando uno ara y rompe la tierra, también nuestros huesos han sido regados en la boca de Seol." 8 Ciertamente, mis ojos están en Ti, SEÑOR, Dios; en Ti yo tomo refugio; no dejes mi alma sin defensa. 9 Prótegeme de los lazos que ellos han puesto para mí, de las trampas de los malvados. 10 Deja que los malvados caigan en sus propias redes mientras yo escapo.

Psalms 141:1

Información General:
El paralelismo

clamando a Ti
"pidiendo Tu ayuda"

ven a mí pronto
El salmista habla como si el SEÑOR fuese una persona que necesitaba venir desde otro lugar para ayudarle. Se puede expresar claramente lo que el salmista quería que el SEÑOR hiciera. Traducción Alterna: "ven rápido a ayudarme"

Escúchame cuando te llame
"Por favor, escúchame cuando yo Te llame" o "Te ruego que me esuches cuando yo llame"

Que mi oración sea como incienso ante Ti
"Que mi oración Te agrade así como el dulce aroma del incienso le agrada a las personas"

mi oración
El salmista quiere que el SEÑOR se agrade con él porque él está orando y a causa de las palabras de su oración.

mis manos levantadas
"las manos que yo he levantado" Las manos levantadas son un metónimo (figura literaria-metonimia) para referirse a la oración. Las personas levantan sus manos cuando ellos oran o adoran al SEÑOR. Ver cómo se tradujo "levanten sus manos" en 134:1.

sean como el sacrificio de la tarde
"sean como el animal que era quemado sobre el altar en la tarde" El salmista habla como si él quisiera que el SEÑOR esté tan complacido con él así como lo está con aquellos que llevaban animales para el sacrificio. El salmista quiere agradar al SEÑOR ya sea por el hecho de estar orando o por las palabras de su oración.

Psalms 141:3

coloca un guardia sobre mi boca
El salmista habla como si las palabras malignas fuesen prisioneros tratando de escapar de su boca. Traducción Alterna: "por favor, ayúdame a no decir cosas que son malas"

coloca un guardia
"dile a alguien que vigile"

cuida la puerta de mis labios
El salmista habla como si las palabras malignas fuesen prisioneros tratando de escapar de su boca. Traducción Alterna: "por favor, ayúdame a no decir cosas cuando no debería"

participar de actividades pecaminosas
"hacer cosas pecaminosas"

manjares
"comidas especiales"

Psalms 141:5

me golpee
El salmista habla como si el dar un regaño fuese el golpear físicamente a alguien. Traducción Alterna: "me regañe" o "me golpee para que yo escuche cuando él me corrija"

sería un favor para mí
"cuando él me golpee, yo sabré que quien me golpee está siendo amable conmigo"

sería aceite en mi cabeza Los posibles significados son: que el salmista habla como si una persona estuviese poniendo aceite sobre su cabeza para: 1) honrarlo Traducción Alterna: "cuando él me corrija, yo sabré que quien

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

me corrija está haciendo una buena obra por mí" o 2) hacer que su cabeza de sienta mejor.

que mi cabeza no se niegue aceptarlo
La cabeza es una sinécdoque

mi oración siempre está en contra de sus malignas obras
Las palabras "obras malignas" son un metónimo

Sus líderes serán arrojados de los topes de los precipicio Los posibles significados son: 1) "Alguien derrumbará a sus líderes" o 2) "Sus líderes los derrumbarán"

nuestros huesos han sido esparcidos Los posibles significados son: 1) "las personas han lanzado nuestros huesos hacia diferentes direcciones " o 2) como un resultado de la caída hacia los precipicios (141:6) "nuestros cuerpos se rompen y nuestros huesos permanecen en desorden"

Psalms 141:8

mis ojos están en Ti
Los ojos son una sinécdoque para referirse a la persona como tal. Traducción Alterna: "estoy mirando para ver lo que harás" o "espero que me ayudes"

en Ti yo tomo refugio
"estoy pidiéndote que me protejas" Consultar cómo se tradujo "tomo refugio" en 118:8.

mi alma
El alma es un metónimo

los lazos que ellos han puesto para mí
El salmista compara el engaño de un buen hombre para que peque o para que las personas malas puedan derrotarlo con poner una trampa para un animal. La palabra "lazos" es un metónimo

lazos...trampas
Los expertos de la Biblia no están de acuerdo en el significado exacto de estas palabras. Sería mejor, ya sea traducir una de ellas con la palabra para "red" o "jaula", la cual contiene a la presa, y la otra como "cuerda" o "vid", o traducir ambas palabras con el término general de "trampas". Consultar cómo se tradujeron estas palabras en 140:4.

trampas de los hacedores de maldad
"las trampas que preparan aquellos que hacen mal "

Deja que los malvados caigan en sus propias redes
El salmista compara a las personas engañando a buenas personas como si los cazadores estuviesen atrapando animales. Traducción Alterna: "Que los malvados caigan en las redes que ellos han hecho para enredar a otras personas" o "Que las cosas malos que los malvados planearon para los justos le ocurran a los malvados"

Chapter 142

1 Con mi voz yo he clamado por ayuda al SEÑOR; con mi voz he rogado el favor del SEÑOR. 2 Yo derramo mi lamento ante Él; yo le digo mis problemas. 3 Cuando mi espíritu está débil dentro de mí, Tú conoces mi camino. En la ruta que camino, ellos han puesto una trampa a mí. 4 Yo miro a mi derecha y veo que no hay nadie que se preocupe por mí. No hay escape para mí; nadie se preocupa por mi vida. 5 Clamo a Ti, SEÑOR; yo digo: "Tú eres mi refugio, mi porción en la tierra de los vivos. 6 Escucha mi llamado, porque he sido llevado muy abajo; rescátame de mis perseguidores, pues ellos son más fuertes que yo. 7 Saca mi alma de la prisión para yo poder dar gracias en Tu nombre. Los justos se reunirán alrededor mío porque has sido bueno conmigo."

Psalms 142:1

Información General:

yo he clamado por ayuda al SEÑOR...he rogado el favor del SEÑOR
Si estas dos oraciones son tan parecidas que el lector entenderá un significado erróneo, se pueden traducir como una sola oración/línea.

Con mi voz
"usando mi voz"

Yo derramo mi lamento ante Él...yo le digo mis problema
Si estas dos oraciones son tan parecidas que el lector entenderá un significado erróneo, se pueden traducir como una sola oración/línea.

Yo derramo mi lamento ante Él
El salmista habla de contarle al SEÑOR por qué está triste como si él estuviese derramando todo el líquido de un envase. Traducción Alterna: "Yo le cuento todo acerca del por qué estoy triste"

yo le digo mis problemas
"le cuento acerca de todo lo que me preocupa"

Psalms 142:3

mi espíritu está débil dentro de mí
"estoy débil" o "estoy extremadamente desanimado"

Tú conoces mi camino
"Tú sabes el camino que debería tomar" El salmista habla como si lo que una persona hace fuese un camino por el cual esa persona camina. Traducción Alterna: "Tú conoces la forma en que debo vivir"

En la ruta que camino, ellos han puesto una trampa para mí

Chapter 143

1 Escucha mi oración, SEÑOR; escucha mis súplicas. Por tu fidelidad y justicia, ¡respóndeme! 2 No entres a juicio con Tu siervo, pues a Tu vista nadie es justo. 3 El enemigo ha perseguido mi alma; él me ha empujado al suelo; él me ha hecho vivir en la oscuridad como aquellos que han estado muertos por años. 4 Mi espíritu está agobiado dentro de mí; mi corazón desfallece. 5 Yo me acuerdo de los días anteriores; yo medito en tus obras; yo reflexiono en tus logros. 6 Yo extiendo a Ti mis manos en oración; mi alma está sedienta de Ti en una tierra seca. 7 Respóndeme pronto, SEÑOR, porque mi espíritu se desmaya. No escondas Tu rostro de mí, o yo seré como aquellos que caen al hoyo. 8 Déjame escuchar Tu fidelidad del pacto en la mañana, porque yo confío en Ti. Muéstrame el camino donde debo andar, pues yo levanto mi alma a Ti. 9 Rescátame de mis enemigos, SEÑOR; corro a Ti para esconderme. 10 Enseñame a hacer Tu voluntad, pues Tú eres mi Dios. Que Tu buen Espíritu me guíe en la tierra de la rectitud. 11 SEÑOR, por amor a Tu nombre, mántenme vivo; en Tu justicia, saca mi alma de los problemas. 12 En la fidelidad de Tu pacto, corta a mis enemigos y destruye a todos los enemigos de mi vida, pues yo soy Tu siervo.

Chapter 144

1 Bendito sea el SEÑOR, mi roca, quien entrena mis manos para la guerra y mis dedos para la batalla. 2 Tú eres mi pacto de fidelidad y mi fortaleza, mi torre alta y Aquel que me rescata, mi escudo y Aquel en quien tomo refugio, Aquel que doblega naciones debajo de mí. 3 SEÑOR, ¿qué es el hombre para que le tomes en consideración, o el hijo de hombre para que pienses en él? 4 El hombre es como un aliento; sus días son como una sombra pasando. 5 Haz que el cielo se hunda y se venga abajo, SEÑOR; toca las montañas y hazlas humo. 6 Envía destellos de relámpagos y esparce a mis enemigos; dispara tus flechas y regrésalos en confusión. 7 Extiende Tu mano desde arriba; rescátame de las muchas aguas, de la mano de extranjeros. 8 Sus bocas hablan mentiras, y su mano derecha es falsedad. 9 Yo cantaré una nueva canción a ti, Dios; en un arpa de diez cuerdas yo cantaré alabanzas a ti, 10 Quien da salvación a reyes, Quien rescata a David, tu siervo, de una espada malvada. 11 Rescátame y libérame de la mano de extranjeros. Sus bocas hablan mentiras, y su mano derecha es falsedad. 12 Que nuestros hijos sean como plantas que crecen a su tamaño completo en su juventud y nuestras hijas sean como pilares de esquina tallados, bien formados como los de un palacio. 13 Que nuestros almacenes estén llenos con cada tipo de producto, y que nuestras ovejas produzcan miles y diez miles en nuestros campos. 14 Entonces nuestros bueyes tendrán muchas crías. Nadie atravesará nuestras murallas; no habrá ningún exilio y ningún lamento en nuestras calles. 15 Bendito es el pueblo con tales bendiciones; feliz es el pueblo cuyo Dios es el SEÑOR.

Psalms 144:1

Información General:

mi roca
Los posibles significados son: 1) "Quien me mantiene a salvo" o 2) "Quien me fortalece"

quien entrena mis manos para la guerra y mis dedos para la batalla Las palabras "manos" y dedos" son sinécdoques para referirse a la persona en sí. Si su idioma usa la misma palabra para "guerra" y "batalla", puede traducirlo como una sola línea. Traducción Alterna: "quien me entrena para la guerra"

mi pacto de fidelidad
"quien me demuestra fidelidad al pacto"

mi fortaleza...tomo refugio
El salmista usa muchas metáforas para enfatizar que el SEÑOR lo protegerá.

mi torre alta
David habla del SEÑOR como si Él fuese una fortaleza que lo protege de los ataques. El SEÑOR es quien protege a David de cualquier daño.

mi escudo
David habla del SEÑOR como si él fuese el escudo que protege al soldado. El SEÑOR es quien protege a David de cualquier daño. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 18:2.

Aquel en quien tomo refugio
Se habla de ir donde el SEÑOR por protección como tomar refugio en Él. Traducción Alterna: "a Quien yo voy para que me proteja"

Aquel que doblega naciones debajo de mí
"Quien me da la habilidad de derrotar otras naciones"

Psalms 144:3

SEÑOR, ¿qué es el hombre para que le tomes en consideración, o el hijo de hombre para que pienses en él?
Estas preguntas pueden ser traducidas como aseveraciones. Traducción Alterna: "el hombre es tan pequeño comparado con cualquier otra cosa que has hecho que estoy sorprendido de que Tú te fijas en el hombre y que piensas en hijo de hombre"

hombre...hijo de hombre
Dos términos para referirse al ser humano.

como un aliento...como una sombra pasando
El escritor compara al humano con estas cosas para enfatizar cuán corta es su vida.

Psalms 144:5

Haz...venga abajo... toca... hazlas... Envía... esparce... dispara... regrésalos Estos probablemente deberían ser traducidos como peticiones, no como órdenes, ya que el salmista considera que Dios es más grande que él.

Haz que el cielo se hunda
Los posibles significados son: 1) abre el cielo o 2) dobla los cielos como una rama de un árbol se dobla cuando alguien camina sobre ella o como cuando alguien dobla una arco antes de disparar las flechas.

Chapter 146

1 Alaba al SEÑOR. Alaba al SEÑOR, mi alma. 2 Yo doy gracias al SEÑOR con toda mi vida; Yo cantaré alabanzas a mi Dios mientras yo exista. 3 No pongas tu confianza en príncipes o en la humanidad, en quienes no hay salvación. 4 Cuando el aliento de vida de una persona se detiene, él regresa al suelo; en ese día sus planes terminan. 5 Bendito es él, quien tiene al Dios de Jacob, para su ayuda, cuya esperanza está en el SEÑOR su Dios. 6 El SEÑOR hizo los cielos y la tierra, el mar, y todo lo que está en ellos; Él observa confiabilidad por siempre. 7 Él ejecuta justicia para el oprimido y da comida al hambriento. El SEÑOR libera a los prisioneros; 8 el SEÑOR abre los ojos del ciego; el SEÑOR levanta aquellos que están inclinados; el SEÑOR ama a las personas rectas. 9 El SEÑOR protege a los extranjeros en la tierra; Él levanta al huérfano de padre y a la viuda; pero Él se opone al malvado. 10 El SEÑOR reinará por siempre, tu Dios, Sion, para todas las generaciones. Alaben al SEÑOR.

Book: Proverbs

Proverbs

Chapter 1

1 Los proverbios de Salomón, hijo de David, el rey de Israel. 2 Estos proverbios son para enseñar sabiduría e instrucción, para enseñar palabras hacia el interior, 3 que tú puedas recibir instrucción de modo que vivas haciendo lo que es correcto, justo, y favorable. 4 Estos proverbios también son para dar sabiduría al ingenuo, y para dar conocimiento y discreción a personas jóvenes. 5 Deja que personas sabias escuchen y aumenten su aprendizaje, y deja que personas que disciernen obtengan guianza, 6 para entender proverbios, dichos y palabras de personas sabias y sus preguntas. 7 El temor del SEÑOR es el principio del conocimiento, los tontos desprecian la sabiduría y la instrucción. 8 Hijo Mío, escucha la instrucción de tu padre y no hagas a un lado las reglas de tu madre; 9 ellas serán guirnalda de gracia para tu cabeza y collares colgando de tu cuello. 10 Hijo Mío, si pecadores tratan de seducirte en sus pecados, no los obedezcas. 11 Si ellos dicen: "Ven con nosotros a cometer asesinato, vamos a escondernos y atacar a personas inocentes sin razón. 12 Vamos a comérnoslos vivos, como el Seol se lleva aquellos que están saludables y los hace como aquellos que caen en el abismo. 13 Encontraremos toda clase de cosas valiosas; llenaremos nuestras casas con lo que robemos de otros. 14 Echa tu suerte con nosotros; todos nosotros tendremos un botín juntos." 15 Hijo Mío, no camines por la senda con ellos; no dejes que tu pie toque por donde ellos caminan; 16 sus pies corren a la maldad y ellos se apresuran a derramar sangre. 17 Porque es inútil lanzar la red para atrapar un ave mientras el ave está observando. 18 Estos hombres acechan y esperan para matarse ellos mismos; ellos tienden una trampa para ellos mismos. 19 También esos son los caminos de todos quienes ganan riquezas con injusticia; ganancia injusta toma las vidas de aquellos quienes se agarran a ella. 20 La sabiduría grita fuerte en las calles, ella levanta su voz en lugares abiertos; 21 al principio de las calles ruidosas ella grita, en la entrada de las puertas de la ciudad ella habla: 22 "¿Por cuánto tiempo, ustedes personas ingenuas, amarán ser ingenuas? ¿Por cuánto tiempo, ustedes burladores, se deleitarán en la burla, y por cuánto tiempo, ustedes tontos, odiarán el conocimiento? 23 Presta atención a mi corrección; Yo derramaré mis pensamientos sobre ti; Yo haré conocer mis palabras a ti. 24 Yo he llamado y tú te has negado a escuchar; Yo extendí mi mano, pero no había quien prestara atención. 25 Pero tú has ignorado todas mis instrucciones y no has prestado atención a mi corrección. 26 Yo me reiré de tu calamidad, Yo me burlaré de ti cuando venga el terror, 27 cuando tu miedo terrible venga como una tormenta y el desastre barra sobre tí como un torbellino, cuando la ansiedad y la angustia venga sobre ti. 28 Entonces ellos me llamarán, y yo no responderé; ellos desesperadamente me llamarán, pero ellos no me encontrarán. 29 Porque ellos odian el conocimiento y no escogieron el temor del SEÑOR, 30 ellos no siguieron mi instrucción y ellos despreciaron toda mi corrección. 31 Ellos comerán el fruto de sus caminos y con el fruto de sus artimañas serán llenos. 32 Porque los ingenuos son asesinados cuando se alejan, y la indiferencia de los tontos los destruirá. 33 Pero cualquiera que me escuche vivirá en seguridad y reposará seguro sin miedo al desastre."

Chapter 5

1 Hijo Mío, pon atención a mi sabiduría; inclina tus oídos a mi entendimiento, 2 así aprenderás sobre la discreción y tus labios protegerán el conocimiento. 3 Porque los labios de la adúltera gotean con miel y su boca es más suave que el aceite, 4 pero al final ella es tan amarga como la polilla, cortando como espada afilada. 5 Sus pies descienden hasta la muerte; sus pasos van todo el camino al seol. 6 Ella no entiende el camino de la vida. Sus pasos tropiezan; ella no sabe para dónde va. 7 Y ahora, hijos míos, escúchenme; no dejen de escuchar las palabras de mi boca. 8 Mantengan su camino lejos de esa mujer y no se acerquen a la puerta de su casa. 9 En esa forma no le darás tu honor a otros ni años de tu vida a una persona cruel; 10 extraños no harán festín con tu riqueza; lo que has trabajado no se irá a la casa de los extraños. 11 Al final de tu vida tu gemirás cuando tu carne y tu cuerpo se consuman. 12 Tu dirás: ''¡Cómo he odiado la instrucción y mi corazón despreció la corrección! 13 Yo no obedeceré a mis maestros o inclinaré mi oído a mis instructores. 14 Yo estuve casi completamente arruinado en medio de la asamblea, entre la reunión del pueblo.'' 15 Toma agua de tu propia cisterna y toma agua que fluye de tu propio pozo. 16 ¿Deben tus manantiales derramarse por dondequiera y tus corrientes de agua en las plazas públicas? 17 Deja que sean solo para ti y no para extraños. 18 Sea tu fuente bendecida y regocíjatecon la esposa de tu juventud, 19 por que ella es amante cierva y graciosa gacela. Deja que sus senos te satisfagan todo el tiempo; que puedas estar continuamente intoxicado por su amor. 20 ¿Por qué debes tú, hijo mío, ser cautivado por una adúltera?; ¿por qué debes tú abrazar el seno de una mujer extraña? 21 El SEÑOR ve todo lo que una persona hace y observa todos los caminos que toma. 22 Una persona malvada será capturada por sus propias iniquidades; las cuerdas de su pecado lo mantendrán apretado. 23 Él morirá por que le falta instrucción; él es llevado por mal camino por su gran tontería.

Chapter 6

1 Hijo mío, si tú separaste tu dinero como una garantía para el préstamo de tu vecino, si tú diste tu promesa para un préstamo de alguien que tú no conoces, 2 entonces has puesto una trampa para ti mismo por tu promesa y has sido atrapado por las palabras de tu boca. 3 Cuando tú estés atrapado por tus palabras, hijo mío, haz esto y sálvate a ti mismo, ya que has caído en la mano de tu vecino; vé, humíllate y discúlpate con él. 4 No le des descanso a tus ojos y a tus párpados no le des sueño. 5 Sálvate a ti mismo como una gacela de la mano del cazador, como un ave de la mano del cazador de aves. 6 Mira a la hormiga, tú, persona perezosa, considera sus caminos, y sé sabio. 7 No tiene quién la dirija, ofical, ni gobernante, 8 sin embargo, prepara su comida en el verano y durante la cosecha almacena lo que comerá. 9 ¿Cuánto tiempo dormirás, persona perezosa? ¿Cuándo te levantarás de tu sueño? 10 "Un poco de sueño, un poco de descanso, un poco de doblez de las manos para descansar" 11 y tu pobreza vendrá como un ladrón y tus necesidades como un soldado armado. 12 Una persona sin valor, un hombre malvado, vive por la corrupción de su discurso, 13 guiñando sus ojos, haciendo señales con sus pies y apuntando con sus dedos. 14 Él planifica la maldad con engaño en su corazón; él siempre agita la discordia. 15 Por lo tanto, su desastre lo alcanzará en un instante; en un momento el será dañado de manera que no podrá sanar. 16 Hay seis cosas que El SEÑOR odia, siete cosas que son repugnantes para Él. 17 Los ojos de una persona orgullosa, una lengua que miente, las manos que derraman la sangre de gente inocente, 18 un corazón que inventa maldades, pies que corren rápido para hacer maldad, 19 un testigo que respira mentiras y uno que siembra discordia entre hermanos. 20 Hijo mío, obedece el mandato de tu padre y no abandones la enseñanza de tu madre. 21 Siempre ámarralos a tu corazón; átalos alrededor de tu cuello. 22 Cuando camines, ellos te guiarán; cuando duermas, ellos velarán por tí; y cuando te despiertes, ellos te enseñarán. 23 Pues los mandamientos son una lámpara, y la enseñaza es una luz; las correcciones que vienen por la enseñanza son el camino de la vida. 24 Te guardan de la mujer inmoral, de las palabras suaves de la mujer inmoral. 25 No tengas lujuria en tu corazón tras su belleza y no dejes que ella te capture con sus pestañas. 26 Dormir con una prostituta puede costar el precio de un pedazo de pan, pero la esposa de otro te puede costar tu propia vida. 27 ¿Puede un hombre cargar un fuego en su pecho sin quemarse las ropas? 28 ¿Puede un hombre caminar sobre carbones calientes sin quemarse los pies? 29 Así mismo es el hombre que duerme con la esposa de su vecino; aquel que duerma con ella no se irá sin castigo. 30 La gente no detesta al ladrón si roba para satisfacer su necesidad cuando está hambriento. 31 Sin embargo, si es atrapado, él pagará con siete veces lo que robó; él debe entregar todo lo de valor de su casa. 32 Aquel que comete adulterio no tiene entendimiento; aquel que lo hace se destruye a sí mismo. 33 Heridas y vergüenza son lo que él merece y su desgracia no será limpiada. 34 Pues los celos hacen furioso a un hombre; él no mostrará misericordia cuando tome su venganza. 35 Él no aceptará ninguna compensación y no puede ser comprado, aunque tú le ofrezcas muchos regalos.

Proverbs 6:1

separaste tu dinero
Lo que quiere decir aquí es que tu promesa y las circunstancias te obligan a guardar tu dinero. Traducción Alterna: ''tienes que ahorrar algo de tu dinero"

una garantía para el préstamo de tu vecino Posibles significados son 1) tu vecino puede venir a pedirte un préstamo o 2) tu vecino quiere tomar un préstamo de alguien más, pero tu prometes pagarle al prestador si tu vecino no lo puede hacer.

Esta misma palabra Hebrea puede significar también "amigo."

has puesto una trampa para tí Esta es una figura retórica diciendo que te vas a atrapar a tí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "has hecho una trampa en la cual estás atrapado"

las palabras de tu boca
"lo que tu dices" o "lo que prometes que harás"

Proverbs 6:3

sálvate a tí mismo
"protégete a tí mismo" o " protégete a tí mismo de estos problemas"

has caído en la mano de tu vecino
Esta es una figura retórica que usa el término "mano" para significar "daño." Traducción Alterna: "tu vecino puede hacerte daño si el quiere" o "tu vecino tiene poder sobre tí"

Una hormiga es un insecto pequeño que vive debajo de la tierra o en colinas que ellas mismas construyen. Ellas usualmente viven en grupos de miles, y ellas pueden cargar cosas que son mucho más grande que ellas.

considera sus caminos
Esta es una figura retórica que usa los "caminos" de una hormiga para referirse a la conducta de una hormiga. Traducción Alterna: "considera como se comportan las hormigas"

comandante, oficial, o gobernante
Estas tres palabras significan básicamente la misma cosa y son usadas para enfatizar que ninguna tiene autoridad formal sobre una hormiga individual.

prepara su comida en el verano y durante la cosecha almacena lo que comerá Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y son repetidas para mostrar cúan responsables son las hormigas.

verano
Verano es el tiempo del año cuando algunos árboles producen sus frutos.

Proverbs 6:9

¿Cuánto tiempo dormirás...¿Cuándo te levantarás de tu sueño?
El maestro usa estas preguntas para regañar a la persona perezosa por dormir desmasiado. Traducción Alterna: "!Despiértate, persona perezosa! ! Levántate de tu cama! "

Un poco de sueño...de las manos para descansar
Estos son tipos de cosas que dicen las personas perezosas.

Un poco de sueño, un poco de descanso Estas dos oraciones significan la misma cosa. Esto puede ser expresado como oraciones completas. Traducción Alterna: "Yo solo dormiré un poco más. Déjenme dormir ligeramente un poco más."

doblez de las manos para descansar Las personas a menudo doblan sus manos mientras se reclinan para descansar más cómodamente. Traducción Alterna: "Yo sólo cruzo mis manos cómodamente y descanso un poco"

y tu pobreza vendrá Esto puede ser expresado como una nueva oración para aclarar que esto es el resultado de ser perezoso. Traducción Alterna: "Si tú continúas siendo perezoso, tu pobreza vendrá" o "Mientras tu duermes , la pobreza vendrá"

tu pobreza vendrá como un ladrón
La forma repentina que una persona perezosa se empobrece es igual a la forma repentina que el ladrón viene y roba cosas. Traducción Alterna: "tú repentinamente serás pobre, como si un ladrón viene y roba todo lo que tienes"

y tus necesidades como un soldado armado
La forma repentina que una persona perezosa tiene necesidad de cosas es como la forma repentina que un soldado armado toma las cosas de otra persona. Esto puede ser expresado como una oración completa. Traducción Alterna: "y tus necesidades vendrán a ti como un soldado armado"o "tendrás necesidad como si un soldado armado te robara todas tus cosas"

un soldado armado
"un soldado quien sujeta un arma" o "un hombre con un arma"

Chapter 7

1 Hijo mío, guarda mis palabras y guarda mis mandatos dentro de ti. 2 Guarda mis mandatos y vive y guarda mi instrucción como la niña de tus ojos. 3 Amárralos a tus dedos, escríbelos en la tabla de tu corazón. 4 Dile a la sabiduría: "Tú eres mi hermana," y llama al entendimiento tu pariente, 5 a fin de guardarte de la mujer adúltera, de la mujer inmoral con sus suaves palabras. 6 En la ventana de mi casa yo estaba mirando a través del enrejado. 7 Yo miré a las personas ingenuas, y noté entre los hombres jóvenes, a un joven que no tenía entendimiento. 8 Ese hombre joven pasó por la calle cerca de la esquina, y él fue hacia la casa de ella. 9 Era la puesta del sol, en la tarde del día, en el tiempo de la noche y la oscuridad. 10 Allí una mujer lo encuentra, vestida como prostituta, con un corazón falso. 11 Ella era alborotadora y rebelde; sus pies no se quedaron en su casa. 12 Ahora en las calles, en el mercado y en cada esquina ella esperaba para el encuentro. 13 Así que ella lo agarró y lo besó a él, con un rostro fuerte le dijo: 14 "Yo hice mi ofrenda de paz hoy, yo pagué mis votos, 15 así que yo vine para encontrarte, para ansiosamente buscar tu cara y te he encontrado. 16 Yo he tendido mi cama con colchas, linos coloreados de Egipto. 17 Yo he rociado mi cama con mirra, áloes y canela. 18 Ven, vamos a beber nuestro amor hasta la mañana; vamos a tomar un gran placer en actos de amor. 19 Porque mi esposo no está en casa; él se ha ido en un largo viaje. 20 Él tomó una bolsa de dinero con él; volverá en el día de la luna llena." 21 Con mucho hablar ella lo convenció; con sus labios suaves lo engañó. 22 Él fue tras ella repentinamente como un buey al matadero, como un ciervo atrapado en la trampa, 23 hasta que una flecha perforó su hígado. Él era como un pájaro corriendo a su propia trampa. Él no sabía que le costaría su vida. 24 Ahora, hijos míos, escúchenme, presten atención a las palabras de mi boca. 25 Que tu corazón no se desvíe hacia los caminos de ella; no seas extraviado en sus caminos. 26 Ella ha causado que muchas personas caigan heridos; sus víctimas muertas son muchas. 27 Su casa está en los caminos para el Seol; ellos descienden a los cuartos oscuros de la muerte.

Proverbs 7:1

guarda mis palabras
Este acuerdo representa obediencia. Traducción Alterna: "Obedecer mis palabras"

Guarda mis mandatos dentro de ti Aquí los mandatos de Dios fueron hablados a ellos donde compara los objetos que uno guarda dentro de un almacén. Traducción Alterna: " memoriza mis mandatos "

Guarda mi instrucción
Este acuerdo representa obediencia. Traducción Alterna: " Obedece mis instrucciones " (Ver:)

Como a la niña de tu ojo
La niña de tu ojo es la pupila dentro del ojo, donde la persona normalmente protege la misma de objetos que instantaneamente vuelan sobre su cara. Aquí " la niña de tu ojo " representa los más que una persona valora y protege. Traducción Alterna: " como tu mayor posesión "

Amárralos a tus dedos Posiblemente significa que 1) que el escritor quería que su hijo grabara ciertos mandatos de Dios en un anillo y los usara, o 2) que el escritor quería que su hijo siempre recordara los mandatos de Dios, como si el siempre usara un anillo específico.

escríbelo en la tabla de tu corazón Aquí el corazón representa la mente de la persona, y se habla de recordar algo que se hablo como si la persona estuviera escribiendo en una tabla de piedra. Ver como traducir esto en 3:3. Traducción Alterna: " recordar mis mandatos como si fuesen escritos en piedra "

esquina
Esto se refiere donde dos caminos se encuentran.

puesta del sol
la hora del día cuando se oscurece y se vuelve de noche

Proverbs 7:10

con un corazón falso Aquí " corazón " representa intenciones o planes. Traducción Alterna: " ella planifica como engañar a alguien "

ella era ruidosa y rebelde
" Ella hablaba en voz alta y actuaba en la manera en que ella deseaba "

sus pies no se quedaron en su casa La frase " sus pies " representa la mujer. Traducción Alterna : " no es una persona de su casa "

ella espera para la emboscada
Aquí habla de la mujer como si ella estuviera preparando una trampa física a una persona o animal. Además, la idea de atrapar a alguien aquí representa el tratar de convencer a la persona de cometer pecado. Traducción Alterna: " ella espera poner una trampa a alguien " o " ella espera encontrar a alguien con el fin de convencerlo a cometer pecado "

ella
" Ella " se refiere a la mujer que habla en 7:10.

lo agarró
" lo agarró con fuerza "

con un rostro fuerte Aquí " fuerte " representa "obstinado, terco". Un "rostro fuerte " significa expresión obstinada o terca en la cara de una persona. Esto implica que la forma de actuar de la mujer es obstinada y demuestra terquedad, donde actúa deliberadamente conociendo que está cometiendo maldad. Traducción Alterna: "con una expressión descarada en su cara "

yo pagué mis votos representa que la persona promete un sacrificio para Dios. Traducción Alterna: " Yo hice mi sacrificio que hoy prometí a Dios "

buscar tu cara
Aquí " cara" representa la persona y específicamente la persona física. Traducción Alterna: " buscarte " o " encontrarte donde tú estas"

Proverbs 7:16

tendido mi cama con
"dispersado sobre mi cama"

áloes
Un tipo de madera de un árbol que emana un aroma agradable.

canela
Es una especia que se extrae de la corteza del arbol que huele y sabe agradable.

vamos a beber nuestro amor

labios suaves
Aquí " labios " representa lo que dice la persona. Cuando una persona desea expresar palabras sútiles y que son falsas donde se comunican con el propósito de parecer suaves. Traducción Alterna: " lisonjero, palabras engañosas"

ella lo engañó
"ella lo persuadió de que hiciera algo malo" Traducción Alterna: " ella lo convenció para que pecara junto a ella"

Proverbs 7:22

El fue tras ella repentinamente Esto parece implicar que el joven tomó un corto tiempo para pensar sobre lo que iba hacer. Traducción Alterna: " El decidió rápidamente ir tras ella"

como un buey al matadero... en una trampa La manera confiada de un joven ingenuo donde practica el adulterio se compara con el camino de tres animales donde desconocen el peligro en que se encuentran o que le esperan.

matadero, matanza
Aquí se refiere a matar a un animal para comer su carne.

ciervo
Traducir este animal como en 5:18.

hasta que una flecha perfora a traves de su hígado Este pasaje implica que un cazador atrapó al ciervo disparando sus flechas. Traducción Alterna: " hasta que un cazador dispara es la parte más importante"

hígado
Aquí este órgano representa una parte muy importante en en cuerpo del ciervo.

le costaría su vida
Se refiere a la persona que muere como resultado de esto. Traducción Alterna: " lo mataría" o "moriría tan pronto''

Chapter 8

1 ¿No clama la Sabiduría? El Entendimiento ¿no levanta su voz? 2 En las cimas de los montes al lado de las calles, en los cruces, la Sabiduría ha tomado su posición. 3 Ante las puertas de la entrada a la ciudad, en las entradas a la ciudad, ella clama. 4 "Es a ustedes, gente que yo llamo; mi voz es para los hijos de la humanidad. 5 Ustedes que son ingenuos, aprendan sabiduría; y ustedes que son necios, deben entender. 6 Escuchen, porque hablaré cosas nobles, y cuando mis labios se abran diré cosas rectas. 7 Pues mi boca habla lo que es confiable, y la maldad es detestable a mis labios. 8 Todas las palabras de mi boca son justas; en ellas no hay nada torcido ni engañoso. 9 Todas ellas son rectas para la persona que entiende; mis palabras son honestas para aquellos que encuentran el conocimiento. 10 Adquieran mi instrucción antes que plata; adquieran conocimiento antes que oro puro. 11 Pues la Sabiduría es mejor que las joyas; no hay tesoro igual a ella. 12 Yo, la Sabiduría, vivo con la Prudencia, y Yo poseo conocimiento y discreción. 13 El temor del SEÑOR es odiar el mal. Yo odio el orgullo y la arrogancia, el mal camino, y el discurso perverso. Los odio. 14 Yo tengo buenos consejos y sana sabiduría; yo soy la intuición; la fuerza me pertenece a mí. 15 Por mí los reyes reinan, también los nobles, y todos los que gobiernan justamente. 16 Por mí los príncipes gobiernan, los nobles, y todos los que gobiernan con justicia. 17 Yo amo a aquellos que me aman, y aquellos que me buscan con diligencia me encuentran. 18 Conmigo están las riquezas y el honor, la riqueza duradera y la rectitud. 19 Mi fruto es mejor que el oro, aún que el oro fino; mi producto es mejor que la plata pura. 20 Yo ando en el camino de la rectitud, en medio de los caminos de la justicia. 21 Como resultado, Yo hago que aquellos que me aman hereden riquezas; Yo lleno sus tesoros. 22 El SEÑOR me creó en el principio, el primero de Sus hechos en aquel entonces. 23 Hace mucho tiempo fui hecha, desde el principio, desde los principios de la tierra. 24 Antes de que hubiera océanos, yo fui dada a luz, antes de que hubiera manantiales con abundante agua. 25 Antes de que las montañas se establecieran y antes que los montes, yo nací. 26 Yo nací antes de que el SEÑOR hiciera la tierra o los campos, o tan siquiera el primer polvo en el mundo. 27 Yo estuve ahí cuando Él estableció los cielos, cuando dibujó un círculo en la superficie de las profundidades. 28 Yo estuve allí cuando Él estableció las nubes arriba y cuando los manantiales en las profundidades fueron fijados. 29 Yo estuve allí cuando Él puso Su límite para el mar, para que las aguas no se dispersaran más allá de Su mandato, y cuando fue establecido el límite para los fundamentos de la tierra seca. 30 Yo estuve junto a Él, como un hábil artesano; yo era Su deleite día tras día, siempre regocijándome delante de Él. 31 Yo me alegraba en todo Su mundo, y mi deleite estaba en los hijos de la humanidad. 32 Ahora, hijos míos, escúchenme, pues aquellos que mantienen mis caminos serán bendecidos. 33 Escuchen mi instrucción y sean sabios; no la descuiden. 34 Aquel que me escuche será bendecido. Él estará velando todos los días en mis puertas, esperando junto a los postes de mis puertas. 35 Pues cualquiera que me encuentre, encuentra la vida, y encontrará el favor del SEÑOR. 36 Pero aquel que falle, hiere su propia vida; todos los que me odian, aman la muerte."

Proverbs 8:1

Información General:
En el capítulo 8, se habla de la sabisduría como una mujer que enseña a las personas cómo ser sabios.

Información General
Muchos versículos en el capítulo 8 tienen paralelismo.

¿No clama la Sabiduría?
Esta pregunta es usada para recordarle a los lectores de algo que ellos ya deberían saber. Traducción alterna: "La Sabiduría clama"

¿No clama la Sabiduría?
Aquí la sabiduría es imaginada como una mujer. Si tu lenguaje no permite este tipo de metáfora, otras posibles traducciones son: 1) "¿No es la sabiduría como una mujer que clama?" 2) "¿No es una mujer llamada Sabiduría la que clama?"

El Entendimiento ¿no levanta su voz?
Aquí "Entendimiento" significa lo mismo que "Sabiduría".

las puertas de la entrada a la ciudad En tiempos antiguos, las ciudades usualmente tenían muros externos con puertas en ellos.

torcido
"falso"

recta
"honesta y clara"

mis palabras son honestas para aquellos que encuentran el conocimiento Esto probablemente significa que aquellos que encuentran conocimiento entenderán fácilmente que las palabras del que habla son rectas. Aquí "palabras" representan un mensaje o enseñanza. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que saben lo que es correcto y lo que es incorrecto, consideran que lo que Yo enseño es correcto"

honestas
"rectas"

Proverbs 8:10

Adquieran mi instrucción antes que plata
"Ustedes deberían intentarlo más para entender mis instrucciones en lugar de adquirir plata"

Pues la Sabiduría es mejor que las joyas; no hay tesoro igual a ella Aquí Sabiduría, personificada como una mujer, no está hablando. Sin embargo, es posible hacer a la Sabiduría la que está hablando aquí también. Traducción alterna: "Pues Yo, Sabiduría, soy mejor que las joyas; ningún tesoro me iguala a mí"

Proverbs 8:12

Yo, la Sabiduría, vivo con la Prudencia Prudencia también es representada aquí como una persona.

Prudencia
''cautela'' o ''buen juicio''

Yo poseo conocimiento y discreción Las ideas abstractas ''conocimiento'' y discreción'' pueden ser expresadas en otras maneras. Traducción alterna: ''Estoy bien informado y discreto "o" Sé muchas cosas y tengo cuidado "

discreción
tener cuidado de lo que decimos y hacemos; ser cautelosos de no causar dolor o lastimar a otros discurso perverso

''charla malvada"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

perverso

Yo ando en el camino de la rectitud Vivir de la manera correcta es como caminar en el camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "Vivo bien" o "Hago lo correcto"

en medio de los caminos de la justicia Esto dice más de lo que se entiende por "el camino de la justicia". Traducción alterna: "Hago lo que es perfectamente justo" o "Sólo hago lo que es justo"

tesoros
Almacenes para cosas valiosas. Se habla de sabiduría como una mujer que llena los almacenes de sus seguidores con cosas valiosas.

Proverbs 8:22

el primero de Sus hechos en aquel entonces
"Yo fui de las primeras cosas que Él creó en aquel entonces''

Hace mucho tiempo
Mucho tiempo atrás

mucho tiempo
La palabra "tiempo" se refiere a un período general de tiempo extendido.

fui hecha
Esto se puede poner en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Dios me hizo" desde los principios de la tierra

La idea de principios se puede traducir en una forma menos abstracta. Traducción alterna: ''de cuando Dios hizo la tierra"

Proverbs 8:24

Información General
La sabiduría continua hablando.

Antes de que las montañas se establecieran
''Antes que las bases de las montañas fueron puestas en su lugar.'' Esto también se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''Antes que Dios hiciera las fundaciones de las montañas y las pusiera en sus lugares propios''

Proverbs 8:28

Información General
La Sabiduría continua hablando.

estableció
traído a ser permanente

cuando los manantiales en las profundidades fueron fijados Esto se puede poner en forma activa: Traducción alterna: ''cuando Dios arregló los manantiales en lo profundo''

los manatiales en las profundidades
Los antiguos hebreos pensaban que el océano tenía su agua de manantiales en el fondo del mar.

cuando Él puso Su límite para el mar
''cuando creó las costas para los océanos''. El "límite para el mar" dividió los océanos de la tierra seca.

cuando fue establecido el límite para los fundamentos de la tierra seca La palabra hebrea para ''tierra'' a menudo significa ''terreno''.

cuando fue establecido el límite para los fundamentos de la tierra seca.
Esto se puede poner en forma activa. Traducción alterna: ''cuando Dios establece los límites de las fundaciones de la tierra''

Proverbs 8:30

Yo estuve junto a Él Esta es todavía la Sabiduría hablando. La Sabiduría ahora dice que ella estaba justo al lado del SEÑOR, implicando que ella era su asistante en la creación del mundo.

hábil artesano
Esta es una persona que ha entrenado durante años para hacer cosas útiles muy bien, como muebles o casas.

deleite
''fuente de energía'' o ''razón para estar feliz''

día tras día
Esta es una manera de expresar la idea de una acción habitual o una condición continua.
Traducción alterna: ''continuamente'' o ''todo el tiempo'' en todo Su mundo

''todo el mundo que Él creó'' (UDB) o ''todo lo que Él creó''

los hijos de la humanidad Esto se refiere a los seres humanos en general. Traducción alterna: ''las personas que Él trajó a la existencia'' (UDB)

Proverbs 8:32

Ahora
Esto es para enfocar la atención de los niños a la conclusión de esta enseñanza.

escúchenme
Esto todavía es la Sabiduría hablando de ella misma.

pues aquellos que mantienen mis caminos Aquí ''mis caminos'' representa el comportamiento de la Sabiduría. Traducción alterna: ''aquellos que hacen lo que Yo enseño'' o ''las personas que siguen mi ejemplo''

no la descuiden
''no ignore'' Traducción alterna: ''asegúrate de ponerle atención'' o ''asegúrate de seguir''

velando todos los días en mis puertas, esperando junto a los postes de mis puertas Estas dos frases básicamente significan lo mismo. La Sabiduría se describe como tener un hogar; los posibles significados de "observar" son 1) una persona sabia espera fuera de la casa de la sabiduría en la mañana para servirla, o 2) una persona sabia espera fuera de la casa de la sabiduría para que ella venga y le enseñe.

Proverbs 8:35

me encuentre...encuentre...me odian
Esta es todavía la Sabiduría hablando de ella misma.

aquel que falle
El pensamiento completo es, ''aquel que falle en encontrarme''

su propia vida
Aquí ''vida'' representa a la misma persona.

Chapter 9

1 La sabiduría ha construído su propia casa; ella ha labrado siete pilares de las rocas. 2 Ella ha sacrificado sus animales; ella ha mezclado su vino; y ella ha preparado su mesa. 3 Ella ha envíado a sus siervas; ella llama desde de los puntos altos de la ciudad, 4 "¿Quién es ingenuo? ¡Deja que se desvíe aquí!" A aquel que le falte buen sentido ella le habla. 5 "Ven, come mi alimento y toma el vino que yo he mezclado. 6 Deja tus acciones ingenuas y vive; anda en el camino del entendimiento. 7 Quien disciplina a un burlador recibe abuso, y quien reprende a una persona malvada recibe insultos. 8 No reprendas a un burlador, o él te odiará; reprende a un hombre sabio, y él te amará. 9 Dale a una persona sabia, y él se volverá más sabio; enseña a una persona justa, y él añadirá a su aprendizaje. 10 El temor del SEÑOR es el principio de la sabiduría, y el conocimiento del Santo es entendimiento. 11 Porque a través de mí tus días serán multiplicados, y años de vida te serán añadidos. 12 Si tú eres sabio, tú eres sabio para tí mismo, y si tú te burlas, lo pagarás tu mismo." 13 La mujer insensata es ignorante; ella no tiene instrucción y no sabe nada. 14 Ella se sienta en la puerta de su casa, en una silla en los lugares altos del pueblo. 15 Ella llama aquellos que pasan por las calles, a personas caminando recto en su camino. 16 "Deja que cualquiera que sea ingenuo venga aquí," ella le dice a los que no tienen entendimiento. 17 "Las aguas robadas son dulces y el pan del secreto es delicioso." 18 Pero él no sabe que la muerte está ahí, que sus invitados están en las profundidades del Seol.

Proverbs 9:1

Información General
Estos versículos comienzan una parábola en la cual se presenta a la sabiduría como una mujer que está dándole buen consejo a las personas.

Sabiduría
El escritor habla acerca de la sabiduría como si fuese una mujer que construyó su casa.

pilares
Esto se refiere a una estructura vertical grande que era usada para sostener un techo o cualquier otra parte de un edificio.

Ella ha sacrificado sus animales Esto se refiere a los animales cuya carne se comerá en la cena que "sabiduría" ofrecerá. Traducción Alterna: "ella ha matado animales obtener su carne en la cena"

mezclado su vino
En la antigua Israel, las personas con frecuencia mezclaban el vino con agua. Traducción Alterna: "preparó su vino al mezclarlo con agua"

Proverbs 9:3

Información General
Estos versículos comienzan a dar un mensaje por parte de "sabiduría", que es personificada como una mujer.

invitaciones
Estas invitaciones eran, ya sea mensajes verbales que las criadas debían recitar o cartas escritas dirigidas hacia las personas a quienes "Sabiduría" quería invitar.

sus siervas
Mujeres jóvenes o niñas al servicio de una mujer adulta respetada, como lo es "Sabiduría".

ella llama
"ella proclama" o "ella convoca". Traducción Alterna: "ella recita a todo volumen su invitación"

los puntos altos de la ciudad
La invitación es gritada desde los puntos más altos para que todas las personas la escuchen mejor.

¿Quién es ingenuo?... A quien le falte buen sentido Estas dos frases describen al mismo grupo de personas, aquellos que necesitan más sabiduría en sus vidas. Aquí, la pregunta es dirigida a tales personas. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquiera que sea ingenuo... A cualquier que le falte buen sentido"

ingenuo
"inexperto" o "inmaduro"

vengan aquí
"dejen su camino y vengan a mi casa"

Proverbs 9:5

Información General
Estos versículos continúan el mensaje de "Sabiduría".

Vegan...coman...tomen...dejen...vivan...anden
"Sabiduría" se está dirigiendo a muchas personas al mismo tiempo.

el vino que yo he mezclado
En la antigua Israel, las personas con frecuencia mezclaban el vino con agua. Traducción Alterna: "preparó su vino al mezclarlo con agua"

dejen sus acciones ingenuas Aquí, se habla de las "acciones ingenuas" como si fuese un lugar del cual una persona se puede ir o puede dejar. Traducción Alterna: "su comportamiento ingenuo"

ingenuas
"inmaduras"

el camino del entendimiento
Aquí, se habla del proceso de entender a "Sabiduría" como si fuese un camino el cual una persona puede seguir. Traducción Alterna: "la manera de vivir que una persona tiene"

Proverbs 9:7

Información General
Estos versículos continúan el mensaje de "Sabiduría".

Quien disciplina...quien reprende
Estas dos frases dicen básicamente lo mismo.

un burlador
Alguien que habitualmente se burla de las personas. Traducción Alterna: "alguien que dice cosas insultantes acerca de las personas" (UDB) o "alguien que le gusta hacer que otros queden mal"

abuso
el acto de tratar al alguien injustamente reprende

corrige

Dale a una persona sabia... enseña a una persona justa
Estas dos frases dicen básicamente lo mismo.

Dale...enseña
Estas dos órdenes en realidad representan verbos condicionales. Traducción Alterna: "Si le das...si enseñas"

Dale a una persona sabia
Esto se refiere a darle instrucción a una persona sabia.

Proverbs 9:10

Información General
Estos versículos terminan el mensaje de "Sabiduría".

El temor del SEÑOR
Ver cómo se tradujo esta frase en Proverbios 1:7

a través de mí tus días serán multiplicados
"yo multiplicará tus días" o "yo causaré que tú vivas muchos días más"

a través de mí
Aquí, la sabiduría, personificada como una mujer, continúa hablando.

tus días serán multiplicados, y años de vida te serán añadidos Estos dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan para enfatizar los grandes beneficios que tiene la sabiduría.

años de vida te serán añadidos
Sabiduría habla de los años de vida como si fuesen objetos físicos. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Altenra: "yo te añadiré años de vida" o "yo permitiré que vivas más tiempo"

Si tú eres sabio...si tú te burlas
Estas dos expresiones parecen significar que las personas sabias toman ventaja para sí mismos a causa de la sabiduría y que los que se burlan sufren a causa de su comportamiento.

lo llevarás tú mismo
Se habla de las consecuencias del mal comportamiento como si fuesen cargas pesadas que uno tiene que cargar sobre su espalda.

Proverbs 9:13

Información General
Estos versículos comienzan a describir la ignorancia, la cual se personifica como una mujer.

La mujer insensata es ignorante
Es posible traducir "ignorante" como una descripción. Traducción Alterna: "una mujer que es ignorante".

ella no tiene instrucción y no sabe nada Ambas expresiones significan básicamente lo mismo y se repiten para demostrar cuán inútil es la mujer. Traducción Alterna: "ella no sabe nada en lo absoluto"

ella no tiene instrucción Traducción Alterna: "ella no ha aprendido de la experiencia" o "ella es joven e ingenua"

caminando recto en su camino
Esto parece ser una expresión idiomática de "pensar solamente en sus propios asuntos" o "preocuparse por sus propios asuntos"

Proverbs 9:16

ingenuo
"inexperto" o "inmaduro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

venga aquí
"deje sus caminos y venga aquí"

ella le dice
"Ella" se refiere a la mujer insensata que se introdujo en Proverbios 9:13.

a los que no tienen sentido
"aquellos que no tienen sabiduría" o "aquellos que no son sabios"

Las aguas robadas son dulces, y el pan del secreto es delicioso
La mujer insensata habla del pan y agua robada como algo "delicioso" para decirle a los hombres que si ellos se acuestan con ella, ellos tendrán placer. Esto se puede expresar claramente en una figura literaria conocida como símil. "Puede disfrutarme mientras disfrutas del pan y el agua que has robado"

que la muerte está ahí
"que los hombres que han ido donde ella ahora están muertos"

en las profundidades del Seol
"Seol" se refiere al mundo de los muertos. (Ver la UDB)

Chapter 10

1 Los proverbios de Salomón. Un hijo sabio hace que su padre se alegre, pero un hijo necio trae dolor a su madre. 2 Los tesoros acumulados por la maldad no tienen valor, pero hacer lo correcto te cuida de la muerte. 3 El SEÑOR no deja que el alma de los justos pase hambre, pero Él frustra los antojos del malvado. 4 Una mano perezosa hace que una persona sea pobre, pero la mano de la persona diligente gana riquezas. 5 Un hijo sabio cultiva durante el verano, pero es vergonzoso para él dormir durante la cosecha. 6 Los regalos de Dios están sobre la cabeza de la persona justa, pero la boca de los malvados cubre la violencia. 7 La persona justa hace feliz a aquellos que lo recuerdan, pero el nombre del malvado se pudrirá. 8 Aquellos que son sensibles aceptan órdenes, pero un necio y hablador se arruinará. 9 Aquel que camina en integridad, camina en seguridad, pero aquel que hace sus caminos torcidos, él será encontrado. 10 Aquel que guiña el ojo causa dolor, pero un necio y hablador será derribado. 11 La boca de la persona justa es una fuente de agua de vida, pero la boca de los malvados será cubierta de violencia. 12 El odio agita los conflictos, pero el amor cubre todas las ofensas. 13 La sabiduría se encuentra en los labios de una persona de discernimiento, pero la vara es para la espalda de una persona que no tiene entendimiento. 14 Los hombres sabios acumulan conocimiento, pero la boca de un necio lleva a la destrucción. 15 La riqueza de un hombre rico es su ciudad fortificada, la pobreza del pobre es su destrucción. 16 La paga de la persona justa lleva a la vida; la paga de los malvados los guía a pecar. 17 Hay un sendero a la vida para el que siga la discplina, pero el que rechaza la corrección es desviado. 18 Cualquiera que oculte el odio tiene labios mentirosos, y cualquiera que esparce calumnias es un necio. 19 Cuando hay muchas palabras, la transgresión no falta, pero aquel que es cuidadoso en lo que dice, es sabio. 20 La lengua de la persona justa es plata pura; hay poco valor en el corazón del malvado. 21 Los labios de la persona justa alimentan a muchos, pero los necios mueren por su falta de entendimiento. 22 Los buenos regalos del SEÑOR traen riqueza y Él no añade dolor a ella. 23 La maldad es un juego que el necio juega, pero la sabiduría es un placer para el hombre de entendimiento. 24 El temor de la persona malvada lo dominará, pero el deseo de la persona justa será concedido. 25 Los malvados son como una tormenta que pasa, y ya no están, pero la persona justa permanece para siempre. 26 Como vinagre en los dientes y humo en los ojos, así es el haragán para aquellos que lo envían. 27 El temor del SEÑOR prolonga la vida, pero los años del malvado serán cortos. 28 La esperanza de la gente justa es su alegría, pero los años de la gente malvada serán cortos. 29 El camino del SEÑOR protege a aquellos que tienen integridad, pero es destrucción para el malvado. 30 La persona justa jamás será derribada, pero el malvado no se quedará en la tierra. 31 De la boca de la persona justa sale el fruto de la sabiduría, pero la lengua perversa será cortada. 32 Los labios de la persona justa saben lo que es aceptable, pero la boca del malvado, habla perversidades.

Chapter 11

1 El SEÑOR odia las balanzas que no son precisas, pero se deleita en los pesos exactos. 2 Cuando llega el orgullo, entonces viene la desgracia, pero con la humildad viene la sabiduría. 3 La integridad de los justos los guía, pero los caminos torcidos de los traicioneros los destruyen. 4 La riqueza no tiene valor en el día de la ira, pero hacer el bien te guarda de la muerte. 5 La conducta recta de los libres de culpa hace su camino recto, pero los malvados caerán a causa de su propia maldad. 6 La conducta recta de aquellos que complacen a Dios los mantiene a salvo, pero los traicioneros son atrapados por sus antojos. 7 Cuando muere un hombre malvado, su esperanza perece y la esperanza que estaba en su fuerza viene a ser nada. 8 La persona justa se mantiene lejos de los problemas y estos en su lugar vienen sobre los malvados. 9 Con su boca, la persona que no tiene a Dios destruye a su vecino, pero a través del conocimiento los justos están a salvo. 10 Cuando los justos prosperan, la ciudad se regocija; cuando el malvado perece, allí hay gritos de gozo. 11 A través de las buenas dádivas de aquellos que agradan a Dios, la ciudad se engrandece; por la boca de los malvados la ciudad es derribada. 12 El hombre que siente desprecio por su amigo no tiene entendimiento, pero un hombre de entendimiento guarda silencio. 13 Cualquiera que anda calumniando revela secretos, pero la persona fiel mantiene el asunto sin revelar. 14 Donde no hay una dirección sabia, la nación cae, pero la victoria viene por consultar a muchos consejeros. 15 Cualquier que garantiza un préstamo a un extraño seguramente sufrirá daño, pero aquel que odia dar una promesa de ese tipo está a salvo. 16 Una mujer afable recibe honor, pero la gente cruel se aferra a la riqueza. 17 La persona amable se beneficia a sí misma, pero aquel que es cruel se hiere a sí mismo. 18 El malvado miente para obtener su salario, pero aquel que siembra lo que es correcto, cosecha el salario de la verdad. 19 Una persona honesta que hace lo que es correcto vivirá, pero aquel que persigue la maldad morirá. 20 El SEÑOR odia a aquellos cuyos corazones son perversos, pero Él se deleita en aquellos cuyos caminos son irreprochables. 21 Estén seguros de esto, el malvado no se irá sin castigo, pero los descendientes de los justos estarán a salvo. 22 Como un anillo de oro en el hocico de un puerco es una mujer hermosa sin discreción. 23 Los deseos de los justos resultan en bien, pero los malvados solo pueden esperar por la ira. 24 Hay uno que siembra semilla, él acumulará aún más; otro no sembró, él se empobrecerá. 25 La persona generosa prosperará y aquel que da agua a otros tendrá agua para sí mismo. 26 La gente maldice al hombre que se rehusa a vender grano, pero las buenas dádivas coronan la cabeza de aquel que lo vende. 27 Aquel que diligentemente busca el bien también está buscando favor, pero aquel que busca lo malo, lo encontrará. 28 Aquellos que confían en sus riquezas caerán, pero como las hojas, los justos florecerán. 29 Aquel que trae problemas sobre su propia casa heredará el viento y el necio será siervo del sabio de corazón. 30 El justo será como un árbol de la vida, pero la violencia quita vidas. 31 ¡Mirad! El justo recibe lo que merece; cuanto más el malvado y el pecador.

Chapter 17

1 Es mejor quedarse callado con un bocado de pan seco, que una casa llena de banquetes con contienda. 2 Un siervo sabio gobernará sobre un hijo que actúa desvergonzadamente y compartirá la herencia como uno de sus hermanos. 3 El crisol es para la plata y el horno para es para el oro, pero el SEÑOR refina corazones. 4 Una persona que hace maldad, presta atención a los labios malvados; un mentiroso presta su oído a la lengua destructiva. 5 Quienquiera que se burla del pobre insulta a su Hacedor, y aquel que se regocija en la desgracia no quedará sin castigo. 6 Los nietos son corona de los ancianos y los padres traen honor a sus niños. 7 El discurso elocuente no es apropiado para un tonto; mucho menos los labios mentirosos son apropiados para la realeza. 8 Un soborno es como una piedra mágica para el que lo da; dondequiera que él va, él triunfa. 9 Quienquiera que pasa por alto una ofensa busca el amor, pero el que repite un asunto, aparta amigos cercanos. 10 Una reprensión va más profundo dentro de una persona que tiene entendimiento, que cien azotes que se le den a un tonto. 11 Una persona malvada solo busca rebelión, así que un mensajero cruel será enviado contra él. 12 Es mejor encontrar a una osa a la que le robaron sus cachorros que encontrar a un tonto en su tontería. 13 Cuando alguien devuelve mal por bien, el mal nunca dejará su casa. 14 El principio del conflicto es como él que suelta agua por todas partes, así que aléjate de la disputa antes de que ésta comience. 15 Cualquiera que absuelva al malvado o condene a la persona justa, ambos son abominación al SEÑOR. 16 ¿Por qué un tonto debe pagar dinero para aprender acerca de la sabiduría, cuando él no tiene la habilidad para aprenderla? 17 Un amigo es amoroso en todo tiempo y un hermano nace para tiempos de problemas. 18 Un hombre insensato hace promesas comprometedoras y se ata a las deudas de su vecino. 19 Quienquiera que ama el conflicto ama el pecado; aquel que hace que el umbral de su puerta sea muy alto causa que los huesos se quebranten. 20 Una persona que tiene un corazón torcido no encuentra nada que sea bueno; el que tiene una lengua perversa cae en calamidad. 21 Quienquiera que sea pariente de un tonto, trae dolor sobre sí mismo; y el padre de un tonto no tiene alegría. 22 Un corazón alegre es buena medicina, pero un espíritu quebrantado seca los huesos. 23 Un hombre malvado acepta un soborno secreto para pervertir los caminos de justicia. 24 El que tiene entendimiento se enfoca hacia la sabiduría, pero los ojos de un tonto, se enfocan en los confines de la tierra. 25 Un hijo tonto es un dolor para su padre y amargura para la mujer que lo parió. 26 También, nunca es bueno castigar a la persona justa; ni tampoco es bueno azotar al hombre noble que tiene integridad. 27 Él que tiene conocimiento usa pocas palabras y él que tiene entendimiento es razonable. 28 Aún un tonto es considerado sabio si se mantiene en silencio; cuando él mantiene su boca cerrada, él es considerado inteligente.

Chapter 19

1 Mejor es una persona pobre que camina en su integridad que el que es perverso en su hablar y es un tonto. 2 También, no es bueno tener deseo sin conocimiento y el que corre muy rápido, pierde el sendero. 3 La tontería de una persona arruina su vida y su corazón se enfurece contra el SEÑOR. 4 La riqueza añade a muchos amigos, pero una persona pobre es separada de sus amigos. 5 Un falso testigo no quedará sin castigo y aquel que respira mentiras no escapará. 6 Muchos pedirán un favor de una persona generosa y todos son amigos de aquel que da regalos. 7 Todos los hermanos de un hombre pobre lo odian; ¡cuánto más se irán sus amigos lejos de él! Él los llama, pero ellos se han ido. 8 Él que obtiene sabiduría ama su propia vida; él que guarda entendimiento encontrará lo que es bueno. 9 Un falso testigo no quedará sin castigo, pero el que respira mentiras perecerá. 10 No es adecuado para un tonto vivir en lujos, mucho menos para un esclavo gobernar sobre príncipes. 11 La discreción hace a una persona lenta para el enojo y es su gloria dejar pasar una ofensa. 12 La ira de un rey es como el rugir de un león joven, pero su favor es como rocío sobre la hierba. 13 Un hijo tonto es ruina para su padre y una esposa peleona es una gota de agua goteando constantemente. 14 Una casa y la riqueza se heredan de los padres, pero una esposa prudente es del SEÑOR. 15 La pereza lanza a una persona a un sueño profundo, pero el que no está dispuesto a trabajar, pasará hambre. 16 El que obedece el mandato guarda su vida, pero la persona que no piensa sobre la manera en que vive morirá. 17 Cualquiera que es amable con los pobres le presta al SEÑOR, y Él lo retribuye por lo que él haya hecho. 18 Disciplina a tu hijo, mientras haya esperanza, y no pongas tu deseo en matarlo. 19 Una persona temperamental debe pagar la penalidad; si tú lo rescatas, lo tendrás que hacer una segunda vez. 20 Escucha consejo y acepta instrucción para que así puedas convertirte en sabio al final de tu vida. 21 Muchos son los planes en el corazón de una persona, pero el propósito del SEÑOR es el que se impondrá. 22 La lealtad es lo que una persona desea y una persona pobre es mejor que un mentiroso. 23 La honra al SEÑOR guía a las personas a la vida; cualquiera que la tenga será satisfecho y no sufrirá por daño. 24 El haragán entierra su mano en el plato; él ni siquiera la volverá a traer a su boca. 25 Golpea a un burlador, y la persona ingenua se volverá prudente; disciplina al que discierne, y él ganará conocimiento. 26 El que roba a su padre y persigue a su madre es un hijo que trae vergüenza y reproche. 27 Hijo mio, si tú cesas de escuchar instrucción, tú te apartarás de las palabras de conocimiento. 28 Un testigo corrupto se burla de la justicia, y la boca del malvado traga iniquidad. 29 La condenación está lista para los burladores y la paliza para las espaldas de los tontos.

Chapter 21

1 El corazón del rey es una corriente de agua en la mano del SEÑOR; Él lo mueve dondequiera que Él desee. 2 El camino de cada persona es correcto en sus propios ojos, pero es el SEÑOR quien pesa los corazones. 3 El hacer lo que es correcto y justo es más aceptable para el SEÑOR que el sacrificio. 4 Los ojos arrogantes y un corazón orgulloso - la lámpara del malvado - son pecado. 5 Los planes del diligente llevan sólo a la prosperidad, pero todo el que actúe rápidamente llega solo a la pobreza. 6 Adquirir riquezas por una lengua mentirosa es un vapor pasajero y una trampa que mata. 7 La violencia de los malvados los arrastrará lejos porque ellos se niegan a hacer lo que es justo. 8 El camino de una persona culpable es torcido, pero el que es puro hace lo que es correcto. 9 Es mejor vivir en una esquina del techo que en una casa compartida con una esposa peleona. 10 El apetito de los malvados ansía la maldad; su vecino no ve amabilidad en sus ojos. 11 Cuando el burlador es castigado, el ingenuo se vuelve sabio, y cuando la persona sabia es instruída, él se aferra al conocimiento. 12 La persona justa vigila la casa de la persona malvada; él lleva a las personas malvadas al desastre. 13 El que cierra sus oídos al llanto de los pobres, él también llorará, pero no se le contestará. 14 Un regalo en secreto calma el enojo y un regalo oculto calma la fuerte ira. 15 Cuando se hace justicia, trae alegría a la persona justa, pero trae terror a los malhechores. 16 El que vaga fuera del camino del entendimiento, él descansará en la asamblea de los muertos. 17 Cualquiera que ame el placer se hará pobre; el que ama el vino y el aceite no será rico. 18 Una persona malvada es un rescate para la persona justa, y la persona traicionera es un rescate para las personas rectas. 19 Es mejor vivir en el desierto que con una esposa peleona y enojada. 20 Tesoro precioso y aceite están en la casa de los sabios, pero un hombre necio los desperdicia. 21 El que hace lo correcto y es amable; esta persona encuentra la vida, la justicia, y el honor. 22 Un hombre sabio escala la ciudad de los poderosos, y él derriba la fortaleza en la que ellos confiaron. 23 Cualquiera que guarde su boca y su lengua, se mantiene a sí mismo fuera de problemas. 24 La persona orgullosa y arrogante, "Burlador" es su nombre, actúa con arrogancia. 25 El deseo del perezoso lo mata porque sus manos se niegan a trabajar. 26 Durante todo el día él anhela y anhela más, pero la persona justa da y no se aguanta. 27 El sacrificio del malvado es detestable; es aún más detestable cuando él lo trae con motivos malvados. 28 Un falso testigo perecerá, pero el que escucha hablará por siempre. 29 Un hombre malvado endurece su rostro, pero una persona recta está segura de sus caminos. 30 No hay sabiduría, no hay entendimiento y no hay consejo que pueda estar en contra del SEÑOR. 31 El caballo está preparado para el día de la batalla, pero la victoria le pertenece al SEÑOR.

1 Cuando te sientas a comer con un gobernante, observa cuidadosamente lo que está delante de ti, 2 y pon un cuchillo a tu garganta si eres una persona que gusta de comer mucha comida. 3 Que no se te antoje sus delicias, porque es comida de mentiras. 4 No trabajes demasiado fuerte para obtener riquezas; sé suficientemente sabio para saber cuando detenerte. 5 ¿Dejarás que tus ojos se enciendan sobre ellas? Ella desaparecerá porque seguramente tomará alas como un águila y volará al cielo. 6 No comas la comida de uno con ojo malvado- y no apetezcas sus delicias, 7 porque él es la clase de hombre que cuenta el precio de la comida. "¡Come y bebe!" él te dice a ti, pero su corazón no está contigo. 8 Vomitarás lo poco que has comido y habrás desperdiciado tus elogios. 9 No hables en la presencia de un tonto porque él despreciará la sabiduría de tus palabras. 10 No muevas una piedra antigua de colindancia o invadas en los campos de huérfanos, 11 porque el Redentor de ellos es fuerte y Él defenderá su caso contra tí. 12 Aplica tu corazón a la instrucción y tus oídos a las palabras del conocimiento. 13 No retengas instrucción de un niño porque si lo disciplinas, él no morirá. 14 Eres tú quien debe golpearlo con la vara y salvar su alma del Seol. 15 Hijo mio, si tu corazón es sabio, entonces mi corazón también estará contento; 16 mi ser más interno se regocijará cuando tus labios hablen lo que es correcto. 17 No dejes que tu corazón envidie a los pecadores, pero continúa en el temor del SEÑOR todo el día. 18 Seguramente hay un futuro y tu esperanza no será quitada. 19 ¡Escucha- tú! - hijo mio, y sé sabio y dirige tu corazón en el camino. 20 No te asocies con borrachos, o con glotones que comen carnes 21 porque el borracho y el glotón se vuelven pobres y el sueño los vestirá con harapos. 22 Escucha a tu padre que te engendró y no desprecies a tu madre cuando sea vieja. 23 Compra la verdad, pero no la vendas; compra sabiduría, instrucción, y entendimiento. 24 El padre de la persona justa se regocijará grandemente, y él que procrea un hijo sabio se alegrará en él. 25 Deja que tu madre y tu padre se alegren y deja que la que te concibió, se regocije. 26 Hijo mio, dame tu corazón y deja que tus ojos observen mis caminos. 27 Porque una prostituta es un abismo profundo, y una mujer inmoral es un pozo estrecho. 28 Ella yace a la espera como un ladrón y ella aumenta el número de los traicioneros entre la humanidad. 29 ¿Quién tiene aflicción? ¿Quién tiene tristeza? ¿Quién tiene peleas? ¿Quién tiene quejas? ¿Quién tiene heridas sin razón? ¿Quién tiene ojos ensangrentados? 30 Los que persisten sobre el vino, los que prueban el vino mixto. 31 No mires el vino cuando esté rojo, cuando brille en la taza y baje suavemente. 32 A lo último, muerde como una serpiente y pica como una culebra. 33 Tus ojos verán cosas extrañas y tu corazón pronunciará cosas perversas. 34 Tú serás como uno que duerme en alta mar o se acuesta en lo alto del mástil. 35 "Ellos me pegaron," tú dirás, "pero no fui herido. Ellos me golpearon, pero yo no lo sentí. ¿Cuándo me levantaré? Yo buscaré otra bebida."

1 No seas envidioso de los que son malignos, ni desees asociarte con ellos 2 porque sus corazones traman violencia y sus labios hablan sobre problemas. 3 Con la sabiduría una casa es construida y por el entendimiento es establecida. 4 Por conocimiento los cuartos son llenos con todas preciosas y placenteras riquezas. 5 Un guerrero de la sabiduría es fuerte, y un hombre de conocimiento incrementa su fuerza; 6 pues por sabia dirección puedes pelear tu guerra y con muchos consejeros hay victoria. 7 La sabiduría es muy elevada para un tonto; en la puerta él no abre su boca. 8 Hay uno que planea hacer el mal, la gente lo llama un maestro de intrigas. 9 Un plan tonto es pecado y los hombres desprecian a un burlador. 10 Si te vuelves débil con miedo en el día del problema, entonces tu fuerza es poca. 11 Rescata a los que son llevados a morir y guarda a los que se tambalean ante la masacre. 12 Si tú dices: "Mira, nosotros no sabíamos nada sobre esto," ¿acaso el que pesa el corazón no entiende lo que quieres decir? El que guarda tu vida, ¿no lo sabe? ¿No le dará Dios a cada uno lo que merece? 13 Hijo mío, come miel porque es buena, porque las gotas del panal son dulces a tu paladar. 14 Así es la sabiduría para tu alma, si la encuentras, habrá un futuro y tu esperanza no será cortada. 15 No te quedes esperando como la persona malvada que ataca la casa de la persona justa. ¡No destruyas su hogar! 16 Pues la persona justa se cae siete veces y se levanta otra vez, pero la gente malvada son derrumbadas por calamidad. 17 No celebres cuando tu enemigo caiga y no permitas que tu corazón se alegre cuando él se tropieza, 18 o el SEÑOR lo verá y desaprobará y quitará su ira de él. 19 No te preocupes por los malhechores, y no envidies a la gente malvada, 20 pues la persona malvada no tiene futuro y la lámpara del malvado se apagará. 21 Hijo mío, teman al SEÑOR, y teman al rey; no te asocies con los que se rebelan en contra de ellos, 22 pues de pronto su desastre vendrá y, ¿quién sabe el alcance de la destrucción que vendrá de los dos? 23 Estos también son dichos de los sabios. La parcialidad en el juicio de un caso en ley no es buena. 24 Quien sea que diga a la persona malvada: "Eres una persona justa," será maldito por pueblos y odiado por naciones. 25 Pero los que disciplinan a los malvados tendrán deleite y regalos de bondad le llegarán. 26 El que da una contestación honesta, da un beso en los labios. 27 Prepara tu trabajo de cultivo y prepara todo para ti en el campo; y después de eso construye tu casa. 28 No des testimonio falso en contra de tu vecino sin causa y no engañes con tus labios. 29 No digas: "Le haré a él lo que me ha hecho el a mí; le devolveré a él lo que ha hecho." 30 Pasé por el campo de un hombre perozoso pasando el viñedo del hombre insensato. 31 Las espinas habían crecido por todos lados; el suelo estaba cubierto de ortigas, y su pared de piedra estaba derribada. 32 Entonces lo vi y lo consideré; yo miré y recibí instrucción. 33 Dormir un poco, cabecear un poco, doblar las manos un poco para descansar, 34 y la pobreza y tus necesidades llegarán marchando sobre ti como un soldado armado.

Chapter 25

1 Éstos son más proverbios de Solomón, copiados por los hombres de Ezequías, rey de Judá. 2 Es la gloria de Dios encubrir un asunto, pero es la gloria de los reyes investigarlo. 3 Como los cielos son para las alturas y la tierra es para la profundidad, así es el corazón de los reyes de inescrutable. 4 Remueve la escoria de la plata, y el trabajador de metal puede usar la plata en su arte. 5 Así que, remueve gente malvada de la presencia del rey, y su trono será establecido haciendo lo que es correcto. 6 No te hagas honor a tí mismo en la presencía del rey y no te pares en el lugar designado para las personas importantes. 7 Es mejor que él te diga: "Ven sube acá," a que él te humille ante un noble. 8 Lo que has observado no lo lleves rápido a juicio. Pues ¿Qué harás al final cuando tú vecino te avergüence? 9 Discute tu caso entre tú y tu vecino y no divulgues el secreto de otro, 10 sino el que te escucha traerá vergüenza y un informe malvado sobre tí que no se podrá silenciar. 11 Manzanas de oro en envases de plata es una palabra hablada en la situación correcta. 12 Una sortija de oro o una prenda hecha de oro fino es una sabía reprensión al oído atento. 13 Como el frío de la nieve en tiempos de cosecha es un mensajero fiel para los que lo enviaron; él le devuelve la vida a sus amos. 14 Nubes y viento sin lluvia es él que se jacta acerca de los regalos que él no da. 15 Con paciencia un jefe se puede persuadir; y una lengua suave puede quebrantar un hueso. 16 Si encuentras miel, come sólo lo necesario, -- de lo contrario, si comes mucha de ella, la vomitarás. 17 No pongas tu pie en la casa de tu vecino muy a menudo, él podrá cansarse de tí y odiarte. 18 Una persona que da un testimonio falso contra su vecino es como un mazo usado en la guerra, o una espada aguda o una flecha puntiaguda. 19 Un hombre infiel en el que uno confía en tiempos de problemas es como un diente dañado o un pie que resbala. 20 Como una persona que se quita la ropa en el tiempo frío, o como vinagre derramado sobre carbonato de soda, es el que canta canciones a un corazón triste. 21 Sí tu enemigo tiene hambre, dale comida para comer, y sí tiene sed, dale agua para beber, 22 porque le echarás palas de carbones encendidos sobre su cabeza y Él SEÑOR te recompesará. 23 Tan seguro como el viento del norte trae lluvia, así mismo una lengua que cuenta secretos, dará como resultado caras de enojo. 24 Es mejor vivir en una esquina del techo que en una casa compartida con una esposa peleona. 25 Como aguas frias para el que tiene sed, así son las buenas noticias de un país lejano. 26 Como un manantial turbio o una fuente en ruinas es una persona justa vacilante ante personas malvadas. 27 No es bueno comer demasiada miel; eso es como estar buscando honor tras honor. 28 Una persona sin autocontrol es como una ciudad agrietada y sin murallas.

Proverbs 25:1

para encubrir una cuestión
"mantener cosas en secreto"

pero la gloria La elípsis puede ser relllenado. Traducción alterna: "pero es la gloria"

para investigarlo
"investigar el asunto fuera" o " investiga esas cosas que Dios ha concedido"

Como los cielos son para las alturas y la tierra es para la profundidad, así el corazón de reyes es inescrutable
Los corazones de los reyes son comparados a la talla de los cielos y la tierra. Traducción alterna: "Así como nadie puede medir la altura de los cielos o la profundidad de la tierra, ni siquiera así puede entender los corazones de los reyes"

cielos
Esto se refiere a todo lo que vemos sobre la tierra, incluyendo el sol, la luna y las estrellas.

Proverbs 25:4

escoria
el material en un metal que la persona no quiere y ellos lo remueven dando al metal su trono será establecido haciendo

El trono es una metonimia del poder de la regla. Estas palabras pueden ser traducidas en forma activa. Traducción alterna: " el rey establecerá su trono por obra" o "el tendrá el poder de gobernar porque lo hace"

Proverbs 25:7

Es mejor que él te diga: "Ven sube acá," Aquí "arriba" significa a mover a un lugar en la mesa que esté cerca al rey. Es un gran honor para una persona sentarse a la diestra del rey. Traducción alterna "es mejor alguien que te invite que te sientes al lado del rey"

ante un noble
"frente a un caballero noble"

Pues, ¿qué harás al final cuando tú vecino te avergüénce?
Este análisis es preguntado para hacer que el leyente considere la posibilidad que el pudo haber malinterpretado la situación. La manera en que el vecino pudo haber avergonzado al leyente puede ser establecido como piedad. Traducción alterna: "Por lo cual tú no sabrás que hacer al final cuando tu vecino te averguence." o "Por lo que tu vecino tiene una explicación, te pondrá en verguenza, y no tendrás nada que decir para defenderte."

Proverbs 25:9

tu caso
"tu desacuerdo"

no divulgues el secreto de otro
"no compartas el secreto de tu vecino con los demás"

y un informe malvado sobre ti que no se podrá silenciar Aquí "reporte malvado" se refiere a cosas dañinas que las personas dirán a otros. La frase " no puede callar" puede ser citada en una forma activa. Traducción alterada: "y no podrás pararlo de decirle los demás cosas dolorosas de tí" o " y el le dirá a las personas cosas malvadas sobre tí y nunca volverás a tener una buena reputación""

Manzanas de oro en envases de plata es una palabra hablada en la situación correcta
Las maravillas de "una palabra dicha en el momento preciso" esta escrita como si fuese la belleza fisica de "manzanad de oro en centros de plata." La mayoría de las traducciones describen esta metáfora como un símil y cambiar el orden de las frases. Traducción alterna"Una palabra dicha en el momento preciso es hermoso como las manzanas de oro en centros de plata"

Manzanas de oro en envases de plata
Los ancestros israelitas no sabían las manzanas que la mayoría conoce hoy día. Posibles significados son 1) "manzanas" debería ser traducido como "diseño." Traducción alterna: "un diseño dorado tallado en un cuenco plateado" o 2) "manzanas" referente a otro tipo de fruta con un color dorado que alguien ha puesto en un plato o cuenco plateado. Traducción alterna: "Colorida fruta dorada puesta en un cuenco plateado"

es una palabra hablada
Esta puede ser traducida en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "es un mensaje el cual alguien habla"

Una sortija de oro o una prenda hecha de oro fino es una sabía reprensión al oído atento El valor e importancia de "un reprendimiento sabio" es dicho como si tuviese la belleza y el valor de oro. La mayoría de las traducciones dicen a esta metáfora como un símil y cambian el orden de las frases. Traducción alterna: " Un reprendimiento sabio a un oído presto a escuchar es hermoso y valioso como un anillo dorado p una joya dorada"

al oído atento
El oído es una sinécdoque para toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "persona que está dispuesta a escuchar"

Proverbs 25:13

Como el frío de la nieve en tiempos de cosecha es un mensajero fiel Aquí un mensajero fiel está siendo comparado al frío de la nieve, porque ambos son placenteros.

el frío de la nieve
La nieve solamente cae en las cimas de las montañas, y la cosecha toma lugar en el clima caliente, así que esto es probablemente una metáfora para la fría y fresca agua de un manantial limpio. Si tu lenguaje no tiene palabra para nieve, considera "agua fría, fresca y limpia".

nieve
blancos copos de hielo que caen del cielo como lluvia trae la vida a sus amos Esto significa que Él hace que sus amos, que son débiles o cansados, sean fuertes y descansados.

Nubes y viento sin lluvia es él que se jacta ... no da
Muchas traducciones traducen esta metáfora como una símil y cambian el orden de las frases. La lluvia era importante para los israelitas porque solamente pequeñas cantidades de ella caían, así que una nube sin lluvia era inútil y traía decepción a los israelitas. Traducción alterna: "Aquel que se jacta ... no dar es como las nubes y vientos sin lluvia" o "Aquel que se jacta ... no dar es inútil y una decepción, como nubes y viento sin lluvia"

Proverbs 25:15

Con paciencia un jefe se puede persuadir
Estas palabras pueden traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Alguien que es paciente puede persuadir a un gobernante" o "Alguien que es paciente puede hablar con un gobernante y cambiar su forma de pensar"

una lengua suave puede quebrantar un hueso
La palabra "lengua" es una metonimia para las palabras que la persona habla usando la lengua. La palabra "hueso" es una metáfora para una fuerte oposición. Traducción alterna: "el discurso amable puede sobrepasar la fuerte oposición"

Proverbs 25:16

Información General:
El versículo 16 declara un principio general, y el versículo 17 da un ejemplo específico. La idea de comer mucha miel y luego vomitarla es una metáfora de tomar demasiado de cualquier cosa buena y luego lamentarlo más tarde.)

Proverbs 25:18

Una persona que da un testimonio falso contra su vecino es como un mazo usado en la guerra, o una espada aguda o una flecha puntiaguda
Se compara un falso testigo con tres armas que pueden lastirmar o matar personas.

Un hombre infiel en el quien uno confía en tiempos de problemas es como un diente malo o un pie que resbala
Un hombre tonto es comparado a una parte del cuerpo que causa problemas para una persona. Traducción alterna: "Confiar en una hombre infiel en tiempos de problemas te traerá dolor como un mal diente o un pie que resbala"

Proverbs 25:20

carbonato de sodio
Este tipo de mineral que sisea y burbujea violentamente cuando entra en contacto con ácidos como vinagre. Muchas traducciones traducen esta frase como "un herida".

canta canciones
Puede que usted necesite hacer explícito qué tipo de canciones el cantante canta. Traducción alterna: "canta canciones felices"

corazón pesado
El corazón es una sinécdoque para la persona entera. Traducción alterna: "una persona triste"

Proverbs 25:21

palas de carbones de fuego sobre su cabeza
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción alterna: "provocar que tenga una conciencia culpable y se avergüence por lo que él ha hecho"

Proverbs 25:23

el viento del norte
En Israel, el viento del norte a menudo traía lluvia. Los traductores son libres para substituir diferentes tipos de viento para el mismo efecto, por ejemplo, "un viento frío".

que dice secretos
Algunas versiones dicen "alguien que está enojado".

resultará en caras enojadas
El rostro es una metonimia para la persona. Traducción alterna: "hace enojar a otras pesonas"

una esquina del techo
Las casas en aquellos días tenían techos planos. Los antiguos israelitas pasaban mucho tiempo en sus techos, donde a menudo era más fresco que dentro de la casa, y algunas veces las personas construirían un refugio lo suficientemente grande para que una persona durmiera en una esquina del techo.

una esposa peleona
una esposa que a menudo pelea o se queja

Proverbs 25:25

Como aguas frías a uno que tiene sed, así son las buenas noticias de un país lejano
El agua fría es comparada a las buenas noticias, que ambas son refrescantes y deleitosas.

Como un manantial turbio o una fuente en ruinas es una persona justa tambaleando ante personas malvadas Uno espera que un manantial o fuente tengan agua clara, así como uno espera que un hombre justo defienda lo que él cree. Un manantial o fuente contaminada es comparada a un hombre justo que cae.

tambaleando ante personas malvadas Tambalear es una metáfora ya sea para: 1) negarse a luchar con personas malvadas o 2) unirse a su maldad. Traducción alterna: "que permite a las personas malvadas hacer la maldad" o "que comienza a hacer lo que las personas malvadas hacen"

tambaleando
Esta es una metáfora de ser incapaz de continuar hacer el bien. Traducción alterna: "incapaz de pararse"

ante personas malvadas
Los posibles significados son: 1) "cuando las personas malvadas lo atacan" o 2) "cuando las personas malvadas lo instan a hacer el mal".

Proverbs 25:27

No es bueno comer demasiada miel; eso es como estar buscando honor tras honor
Ambos, querer que otros te honren y comer miel son buenos, pero puedes comer mucha miel, y puedes esforzarte demasiado para que la gente te honre.

No es bueno Esto puede declararse positivamente. Traducción alterna: "Es una cosa mala" es como estar buscando honor tras honor

"que es como siempre pensar sobre cómo otros deben honrarte". El significado del lenguaje original es incierto. Algunas versiones de la Biblia traducen esto como "es como hablar muchos cumplidos a las personas".

Una persona sin autocontrol es como una ciudad invadida y sin murallas el control es como un ciudad violada y sin muros. - Ambos, una persona sin autocontrol y una ciudad sin muros, son débiles y vulnerables.

invadida y sin murallas
"cuyos muros un ejército ha derribado y destruido"

Chapter 26

1 Como nieve en el verano o lluvia en la cosecha, así mismo un tonto no merece honor. 2 Como el gorrión revolotea y la golondrina se lanzan mientras vuelan, así mismo una maldición inmerecida no se posa. 3 Un latigazo es para el caballo, una brida es para el burro y una vara es para la espalda de los tontos. 4 No contestes a un tonto según su necedad o te volverás como él. 5 Contéstale a un tonto y únete a su necedad, así él no se volverá sabio en sus propios ojos. 6 Cualquiera que envíe un mensaje de la mano de un tonto se corta a sí mismo sus propios pies y bebe violencia. 7 Como las piernas de un paralítico que cuelgan hacia abajo, es un proverbio en la boca de los tontos. 8 Como atar una roca en una honda es dar honor a un tonto. 9 Como una espina penetra en la mano de un borracho es un proverbio en la boca de los tontos. 10 Como un arquero que hiere a todos a su alrededor, es aquel que emplea a un tonto o a cualquiera que pase. 11 Como un perro que regresa a su propio vómito, así es un tonto que repite su necedad. 12 ¿Ves a alguien que sea sabio en sus propios ojos? Hay más esperanza para un tonto que para él. 13 La persona perezosa dice: ''¡Hay un león en el camino! ¡Hay un león entre los espacios abiertos!'' 14 Así como la puerta gira en sus goznes, así es la persona perezosa sobre su cama. 15 La persona perezosa pone su mano en el plato y todavía no tiene fuerza para levantarla a su boca. 16 La persona perezosa es sabia en sus propia opinión más que siete hombres con discernimiento. 17 Como uno que agarra las orejas de un perro es el caminante que se enoja sobre una disputa que no es suya. 18 Como un loco que dispara flechas prendidas en fuego, 19 es aquel que engaña a su vecino y dice: ''¿No estaba yo diciendo una chiste?'' 20 Por falta de madera, el fuego se apaga; y donde no hay chismosos la pelea cesa. 21 Como el carbón es para los carbones encendidos y la madera es para el fuego, así es una persona peleona para encender conflictos. 22 Las palabras del chismoso son como bocados deliciosos; que bajan a las partes más internas del cuerpo. 23 Como el recubrimiento de esmalte a una vasija de barro, así son los labios ardientes y un corazón malvado. 24 El que odia a otros disfraza sus sentimientos con sus labios y se engaña a sí mismo. 25 Él hablará graciosamente, pero no le creas a él, pues hay siete abobinaciones en su corazón. 26 Aunque su odio esté cubierto con decepción, su maldad será expuesta en la asamblea. 27 Quien cava un pozo caerá en él, y la piedra retrocederá hacia el que la empuja. 28 Una lengua mentirosa odia a la gente que abate y una boca halagadora trae ruina.

Como nieve en el verano o lluvia en la cosecha Normalmente la nieve no cae durante el verano y no llueve durante la cosecha.Esto se puede decir claramente.Traduccion alterna:"Como seria bien raro tener nieve en verano o lluvia durante la cosecha"

así una maldición inmerecida no se posa Una maldicion que no le hace daño a una persona se habla de como si fuera un pajaro que no toca tierra.Traduccion alterna:"entonces una maldicion no mercida no aterriza en su marca"

una maldición inmerecida Esto se puede afirmar como una forma activa.Traduccion alterna:" una malidicion en una persona que no se lo merece"

posa
aterrizar en alguien o en algo

Proverbs 26:3

Un latigazo es para el caballo, una brida es para el burro y una vara es para la espalda de los tontos Unn latigo, una brida y una vara son cosas que la gente usa para que un caballo, un burro, y un tonto hicieran lo que ellos quisieran.

una brida es para el burro
Una brida esta hecha de correas.Las personas lo ponen en la cabeza del burro y sostienen una de las correas para hacer que el burro vaya a donde ellos quieran.

una vara es para la espalda de los tontos
En la biblia, las personas le daban a sus hijos o a sus esclavos con varas de madera para diciplinarlos.

Proverbs 26:5

Contéstale a un tonto y únete en su necedad Unirse a la locura de un tonto cuando le contestas representa contestarle de forma burlona.Traduccion alterna:"Contestarle a un tonto

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

de acuerdo a su locura" o "Contestarle al tonto de forma burlona"

así él no se volverá sabio en sus propios ojos
Los ojos representan ver, y ver representa pensamientos o juicio.Traduccion alterna:"asi no se podra volver sabio de acuerdo a su juicio" o "asi no se considera sabio el mismo"

Cualquiera que envíe un mensaje de la mano de un tonto Aqui la mano representa la responsabilidad del tonto de entragar el mensaje.Traduccion alterna:" Quien sea que envie a un tonto a entregar un mensaje"

se corta a sí mismo sus propios pies y bebe violencia Cortar un pie y beber violencia representa dañarse a uno mismo.Traduccion alterna:"Hacerse daño asi mismo como una persona que se corta los pies y bebe violencia"

bebe violencia
La violencia es dicha como si fuera un liquido que alguien lo puede tomar.

Proverbs 26:7

Como las piernas ... es un proverbio en la boca de los tontos
Las frases pueden ser reordenadas.Traduccion alterna:"Un proverbio en la boca de un tonto es como las piernas de un paralitico que cuelgan" o "Un proverbio en la boca de un tonto es inutil como las piernas de un paralitico que cuelgan"

un paralítico
una persona que no puede mover o sentir nada o partes de su cuerpo.

en la boca de los tontos
"en el discurso de los tonos" o " ese tonto dijo"

atar una roca en una honda En orden para tirar una roca muy lejos, las personas la colocan en una honda para que la roca vuele lejos y rapido. El resultado de atar una roca en una honda se puede decir claramente.Traduccion alterna:"atar una roca en la honda para que no se pueda tirar"

dar honor a un tonto
"honorando a un tonto"

Proverbs 26:9

Como una espina ... es un proverbio en la boca de los tontos Cómo los dos son iguales puede declararse claramente. Traducción alterna: "Un proverbio en la boca de tontos es tan peligroso como una espina que va entra en la mano de un borracho"

una espina entra en la mano de un borracho Los posibles significados son: 1) si una persona ebria sostiene una planta de espinas, una espina le pinchará su mano, o 2) si una persona borracha está enojada, él levantará una planta de espinas y la mecerá frente a las personas. Para el segundo significado, la palabra "espina" representa una planta de espinas.

en la boca de los tontos
"en el discurso de tontos" o "lo que los tontos dicen"

emplea un tonto
"le da trabajo a un tonto"

Proverbs 26:11

Como un perro que regresa a su propio vómito
"Como un perro come su propio vómito"

¿Ves a alguien quien sea sabio en sus propios ojos?
Esta pregunta es usada para llevar al lector a pensar sobre alguien que es sabio a sus propios ojos. La frase "es sabio en sus propios ojos" significa que "él piensa que es sabio", y aquí implica que la persona no es verdaderamente sabia. Traducción alterna: "Considera a la persona que piensa que es sabia pero no lo es".

Hay más esperanza para un tonto que para él
"Un tonto puede convertirse en sabio más fácilmente de lo que él puede"

Proverbs 26:13

La persona perezosa dice: ''¡Hay un león ... entre los espacios abiertos!''
La persona perezosa miente y dice que él no puede ir afuera y trabajar porque hay un león en el camino o entre los espacios abiertos.

Hay un león en el camino
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en el 22:13.

los espacios abiertos
Esto se refiere a los lugares en el pueblo donde hay mucho espacio para que las personas caminen y donde las personas se reúnen. Traducción alterna: "las plazas del pueblo" o "las calles"

goznes
pedazos de metal que unen una puerta a algo y le permiten abrirla y cerrarla

Así como la puerta gira en sus goznes, así es la persona perezosa sobre su cama
Ambos, la puerta y la persona perezosa se mueven, pero ellos no van a ningún lado.

Proverbs 26:15

pone su mano en el plato
"pone su mano en el plato para tomar comida" o "'alcanza la comida"

no tiene fuerza para levantarla a su boca Esto demuestra cuán extremadamente perezoso él es. Él solo deja su mano cerca de la comida y no se come la comida.

La persona perezosa es sabia en sus propios ojos más que siete hombres con discernimiento
La frase "sus propios ojos" representa sus pensamientos. Traducción alterna: "La persona perezosa piensa que él es más sabio que siete hombres que pueden responder sensiblemente"

Proverbs 26:17

Como uno quien agarra las orejas de un perro, es el caminante que se enoja en una disputa que no es suya
Esto puede reordenarse. Traducción alterna: "Un transeúnte que se enoja por la disputa de otra persona es como una persona que agarra las orejas de un perro"

Como uno quien agarra las orejas de un perro
La información implícita es que el perro se enojará y morderá a la persona. Traducción alterna: "Como una persona que enoja a un perro agarrándole las orejas" o "Como una persona que agarra las orejas de un perro y es mordido por el perro"

es el caminante que se enoja en una disputa que no es suya La información implícita es que el transeúnte comenzará a discutir, y las personas que estaban peleando, se enojarán con él y lo lastimarán.

Proverbs 26:18

Como un loco ... es aquel que engaña ... diciendo una chiste
Ambos, el loco y el engañador, lastiman a las personas pero no toman responsabilidad por ello.

¿No estaba yo diciendo una chiste?
El engañador usa esta pregunta para dar a entender que, dado que su broma fue solo por diversión, no se le debe culpar por ningún daño que haya causado. Traducción alterna: "Solamente estaba contando un chiste" o "No me culpen. Solamente estaba diciendo un chiste".

Proverbs 26:20

chismosos
una persona que cotillea demasiado

Como el carbón es para carbones encendidos y la madera es para el fuego Lo que el carbón hace a los carbones y lo que la madera hace al fuego se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "Como el carbón ayuda a quemar los carbones y la madera ayuda a quemar"

encender la lucha
Encender algo significa prenderle fuego. Prender fuego a la lucha es una metáfora para hacer que las personas peleen o discutan. Traducción alterna: "haciendo que la gente pelee" o "haciendo que la gente discuta"

Proverbs 26:22

Las palabras del chismoso son como deliciosos bocados Esto habla de que los chismes son deseables para escuchar como si fuera una comida deliciosa para comer. Traducción alterna: "Las palabras de un chisme son deseables para escuchar"

que bajan dentro de las partes internas del cuerpo
Esto habla de las palabras que un chisme dice, entran en la mente de una persona y afectan sus pensamientos como si fueran alimentos que iban a su estómago. Esta oración es equivalente al 18:7. Traducción alterna: "y estos entran en la mente de una persona y afectan sus pensamientos"

Como el esmalte superpuesto a una vasija de barro así son los labios ardientes y un corazón malvado Este símil significa que una persona que dice cosas para ocultar el mal en su corazón es como un recipiente de barro cubierto de esmalte para que se vea bien. Estas frases pueden ser reordenadas. Traducción alterna: "Las personas que tienen labios ardientes y un corazón malvado son como una vasija de barro cubierta con un glaseado"

el esmalte superpuesto a una vasija de barro
"el glaseado brillante que cubre una maceta de barro." Una maceta de barro es barato y común. Así que las personas las cubrían con un glaseado para hacerla brillante y que parezcan más costosas.

así son los labios ardientes y un corazón malvado Esto representa a una persona que tiene labios ardientes y un corazón malvado. Traducción alterna: "también lo es una persona que tiene labios ardientes y un corazón malvado" o "también lo es una persona que dice cosas bonitas pero cuyo corazón es malo"

labios ardientes
La palabra "ardientes" es una metáfora para "fuertemente emocional" y la palabra "labios" es un metónimo para "discurso". AT: "discurso emocional" o "decir cosas bonitas"

un corazón malvado
El corazón representa los pensamientos, actitudes, deseos o emociones de una persona. Traducción alterna: "pensamientos malvados" o "deseos malvados"

Proverbs 26:24

disfraza sus sentimientos con sus labios Disfrazar sus sentimientos representa evitar que las personas sepan cuáles son sus sentimientos. La frase "sus labios" es un metónimo de lo que dice. Traducción alterna: "oculta sus sentimientos con lo que dice" o "habla de tal manera que la gente no puede conocer sus verdaderos sentimientos"

pone engaño dentro de sí mismo Se habla de ser engañoso como si estuviera almacenando engaño dentro de sí mismo. Los posibles significados son que "engaño" se refiere a mentiras. Traducción alterna: "le gustan sus muchas mentiras" o 2) el engaño se refiere a los planes secretos para dañar a las personas. Traducción alterna: "planifica en secreto hacer daño a las personas"

pero no le creas a él
"pero no creas lo que dice"

pues hay siete abobinaciones en su corazón
El número siete representa la integridad. Los posibles significados son: 1) "abominaciones" se refiere a las actitudes que Dios odia. Traducción alterna: "porque su corazón está completamente lleno de cosas odiosas" o 2) "abominaciones" se refiere a su odio hacia las personas. Traducción alterna: "porque su corazón está completamente lleno de odio"

Aunque su odio esté cubierto con decepción
Esto se puede afirmar activamente. Traducción alterna: "Aunque el engaño cubre su odio" o "Aunque él cubre su odio con engaño"

Aunque su odio esté cubierto con decepción
Se habla de evitar que las personas sepan que él las odia como cubriendo su odio. Traducción alterna: "Aunque miente para evitar que las personas sepan que las odia" o "Aunque miente para que la gente no sepa que las odia"

su maldad será expuesta en la asamblea Estar expuesto representa ser descubierto o darse a conocer. Traducción alterna: "su maldad se conocerá en la asamblea" o "la asamblea descubrirá su maldad"

la asamblea
"la comunidad de Israel"

Proverbs 26:27

Quien cave un pozo caerá en él
Se implica que la persona cava el hoyo como una trampa para que alguien caiga en él. Traducción alterna: "El que cava un hoyo para atrapar a alguien, caerá en él" o "Si alguien cava un hoyo para atrapar a alguien, el que lo cavó caerá en él"

la piedra rodará hacia atrás en el que la empuja
Se implica que la persona empujó una piedra grande para que rodara cuesta abajo y aplastara a alguien allí. Traducción alterna: "si alguien empuja una piedra para que ruede cuesta abajo y aplaste a alguien, la piedra rodará sobre él en su lugar" o "si alguien hace un rollo de piedra para lastimar a alguien, la piedra lo aplastará en su lugar"

Una lengua mentirosa odia a la gente que aplasta La frase "una lengua mentirosa" representa a una persona que dice mentiras. Aplastar a la gente representa causarles problemas. Traducción alterna: "Un mentiroso odia a los que hiere por sus mentiras"

una boca halagadora trae ruina La frase "una boca halagadora" representa a una persona que adula a las personas. Los posibles significados son: 1) una persona que adula a otros causa problemas o 2) una persona que adula a otros los arruina halagadora

elogiar a alguien de una manera que no sea sincera, o alabar a alguien por cosas que no son ciertas

Chapter 27

1 No presumas acerca del mañana, pues tú no sabes lo que un día pueda traer. 2 Deja que otro te alabe y no tu propia boca; un extraño y no tus propios labios. 3 Considera lo pesado de la roca y lo peso de la arena-- la provocación de un tonto es pesa más que ambas. 4 Exise la crueldad de la rabia y el torrente de ira, pero ¿quién puede permanacer de pie ante los celos? 5 Es mejor una reprensión expuesta que un amor oculto. 6 Confiables son las heridas causadas por un amigo, pero un enemigo puede engañarte besándote abundantemente. 7 Una persona que ha comido al máximo rechaza hasta la miel, pero para la persona hambrienta toda cosa amarga es dulce. 8 Como una ave que se aleja de su nido es un hombre que se aleja de donde vive. 9 El perfume y el incienso hacen al corazón regocijarse, pero la dulzura de un amigo proviene de su consejo sincero. 10 No olvides a tu amigo y al padre de tu amigo, y no vayas a la casa de tu hermano en el día de tu calamidad. Mejor es un vecino que esté cerca que un hermano que esté lejos. 11 Sé sabio, hijo mío, y haz que mi corazón se regocije; entonces le daré una respuesta al que se burle de mí. 12 Un hombre prudente ve problemas y se esconde, pero las personas ingenuas van y sufren a causa de eso. 13 Toma una vestimenta de alguien que haya puesto fianza para un extraño, y guárdalo como garantía cuando ponga la fianza para una mujer inmoral. 14 ¡Quien sea que le de a su vecino una bendición en voz alta temprano en la mañana, esa bendición será considerada una maldición! 15 Una esposa que discute es como un gotereo constante en un día lluvioso; 16 retenerla es como retener el viento, o tratar de recoger aceite en tu mano derecha. 17 El hierro afila al hierro; de la misma manera, un hombre afila a su amigo. 18 El que cuida un árbol de higuera se comerá su fruto, y el que protege a su amo será honrado. 19 Así como el agua refleja el rostro de una persona, así el corazón de una persona refleja a la persona. 20 Así como el Seol y el Abadón nunca están satisfechos, así los ojos de un hombre nunca están satisfechos. 21 Un crisol es para la plata y el horno es para el oro; y una persona es probada cuando es alabada. 22 Incluso si aplastas a un tonto con un mortero-- junto con el grano-- aun así su tontería no lo dejará. 23 Asegúrate de saber la condición de tu rebaño y preocúpate acerca de tu ganado, 24 pues la riqueza no es para siempre. ¿Dura una corona por todas las generaciones? 25 Cuando el heno desaparece y el crecimiento nuevo aparece, entonces la hierba de las colinas es recogida para los rebaños. 26 Esos corderos proveerán tu ropa y las cabras proveerán el precio del campo. 27 Habrá leche de cabra para tu comida-- la comida de tu casa-- y alimento para tus siervas.

Proverbs 27:1

No presumas acerca del mañana Esta es una advertencia para no presumir de lo que espera que ocurra mañana. Esto se puede decir claramente. Traducción alterna : "No hables con orgullo de tus planes para mañana"

lo que un día pueda traer
Se habla de algo que sucede en cierto día como si el día fuera a traer ese evento. Traducción alterna: "lo que sucederá en un día" o "lo que ocurrirá mañana" tu propia boca ... tus propios labios

Chapter 29

1 Una persona que ha recibido muchos reprimendas, pero las resiste, el SEÑOR lo romperá en un momento más allá de la sanidad. 2 Cuando los justos aumentan, la gente se alegra, pero cuando un malvado es el gobernante, la gente suspira. 3 Cualquiera que ame la sabiduría hace que su padre se regocije, pero el que mantiene la compañía con prostitutas, destruye su riqueza. 4 El rey estableció la tierra con justicia, pero el que demanda sobornos, la derrumba. 5 Un hombre que halaga a su vecino está esparce una red para sus pies. 6 En el pecado de una persona malvada está la trampa, pero la persona justa canta y se regocija. 7 La persona justa suplica por la causa de la gente pobre; la persona malvada no entiende tal conocimiento. 8 Los burladores le prenden fuego a la ciudad, pero los que son sabios se alejan de la ira. 9 Cuando una persona sabia tiene un argumento con un tonto, él se enoja y se ríe, y no habrá descanso. 10 Los sanguinarios odian al que es inocente y buscan la vida del recto. 11 Un tonto revela todo su enojo, pero un sabio lo retiene y se calma a sí mismo. 12 Si un gobernante le presta atención a las mentiras, todos sus oficiales serán malvados. 13 La persona pobre y el opresor son similares porque el SEÑOR le da luz a los ojos de ambos. 14 Si un rey juzga al pobre por la verdad, su trono será establecido para siempre. 15 La vara y el regaño dan sabiduría, pero un niño libre de disciplina pone a su madre en vergüenza. 16 Cuando la gente malvada está en el poder, la transgresión aumenta, pero la gente justa verá la caída de esa gente malvada. 17 Disciplina a tu hijo y él te dará descanso; él traerá deleites a tu vida. 18 En donde no hay visión profética, la gente corre salvaje, pero el que guarda la ley es bendecido. 19 Un esclavo no será corregido con palabras porque aunque él entienda, no habrá respuesta. 20 ¿Ves a un hombre apresurado en sus palabras? Hay más esperanza para un tonto que para él. 21 El que consiente a su esclavo desde la juventud al final habrá problemas. 22 Una persona molesta agita conflictos y un maestro de la ira comete muchos pecados. 23 El orgullo de una persona lo derriba, pero a quien tiene un espíritu humilde, se le dará el honor. 24 El que comparte con un ladrón odia su propia vida; él escucha la maldición y no dice nada. 25 El miedo de un hombre hace que caiga en una trampa, pero el que confía en el SEÑOR será protegido. 26 Muchos son los que buscan el rostro del gobernante, pero del SEÑOR viene la justicia para una persona. 27 Un hombre injusto es una abominación para la gente justa, pero aquel cuyo camino es recto es detestable para la persona malvada.

Proverbs 29:1

endurece su cuello
"resiste los reproches"

se romperá en un momento Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios lo romperá repentinamente"

más allá de la sanidad
"y nadie podrá curarlo". La enfermedad es una metáfora para cualquier tipo de mala situación. Traducción alterna: "y nadie podrá ayudarlo"

la gente suspira
La gente deja escapar un largo y fuerte suspiro que muestra que están cansados y tristes. Traducción alterna: "la gente estará cansada y triste"

Proverbs 29:3

con justicia
El sustantivo abstracto "justicia" se puede traducir como una frase nominal. Traducción alterna: "haciendo lo que es justo" o "haciendo leyes justas"

Proverbs 29:5

halaga a su vecino
a sabiendas le dice a su vecino cosas que no son ciertas para que el vecino haga lo que el que está hablando quiere que haga

está esparciendo una red para sus pies
El escritor compara la adulación de una persona con preparar a esa persona para que quede atrapada en una trampa. Traducción alterna: "colocar una trampa para atrapar a esa persona"

En el pecado de una persona malvada está la trampa
Cuando una persona mala peca, es como si estuviera entrando en una trampa. Él desea hacer el mal a otras personas, pero Dios usará lo que hace para castigarlo.

Proverbs 29:7

le prenden fuego a la ciudad
"Persuadir a la gente de una ciudad para que cause problemas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

se alejan de la ira hacer que las personas enojadas se vuelvan pacíficas

Proverbs 29:9

Esta expresión idiomática significa "querer matar".

Proverbs 29:11

presta atención
"escucha". Traduce esto como lo hiciste en el 17: 3.

todos sus oficiales serán malvados
Se habla de las acciones del gobernante al establecer el resultado que causarán. Traducción alterna: "es como si él estuviera enseñando a sus oficiales a ser malvados"

Proverbs 29:13

opresor
Una persona que trata a las personas con dureza y les dificulta la vida.

el SEÑOR le da luz a los ojos de ambos Esta expresión idiomática significa "El SEÑOR hace que ambos estén vivos".

su trono
El trono es una metonimia para el reino que gobierna desde su trono. Traducción alterna: "su reino"

Proverbs 29:15

La vara y el regaño dan sabiduría
El escritor habla como si una vara y una reprensión fueran personas que pudieran dar sabiduría como un regalo físico. Traducción alterna: "Si un padre usa la vara de su hijo y lo reprocha, el niño se volverá sabio" o "Si los padres disciplinan a su hijo y le dicen cuándo ha hecho algo malo, el niño aprenderá a vivir con sabiduría" (Ver:)

La vara
Los padres en Israel utilizaron varillas de madera como instrumentos para disciplinar a los niños al golpearlos. Traducción alterna: "disciplina"

regaño
Cuando una persona le da un regaño a otra persona, o lo reprocha, le dice a esa persona que no aprueba lo que esa otra persona está haciendo.

la transgresión aumenta, El sustantivo abstracto "transgresión" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "más personas transgredirán y sus pecados empeorarán"

la caída de esa gente malvada
El sustantivo abstracto "caída" se puede traducir con el verbo "arruinar", que es una metáfora para perder el poder de gobernar. Traducción alterna: "esas personas malvadas caen" o "esas personas malvadas pierden su poder de gobernar"

Proverbs 29:17

el que guarda la ley es bendecido
Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios bendecirá al que guarda la ley"

Proverbs 29:19

Un esclavo no será corregido con palabras
Esto se puede traducir de forma activa. "No podrá corregir a un esclavo simplemente hablándole"

¿Ves a un hombre apresurado en sus palabras?
El escritor está utilizando una pregunta para llamar la atención del lector. Traducción alterna: "Debes notar lo que le sucede a un hombre que es apresurado en sus palabras".

Proverbs 29:21

que consiente a su esclavo
"quién permite que su esclavo evite el trabajo y quién trata a su esclavo mejor que a otros esclavos" (ver UDB)

al final
"al final de la juventud del esclavo" o "cuando el esclavo ha crecido"

habrá problemas
Estas palabras traducen una palabra hebrea cuyo significado nadie sabe con seguridad. Algunos entienden que significa que el esclavo será débil, otros que el esclavo gobernará la casa. De cualquier manera, el lector debe entender que tan seguramente como un hombre debe disciplinar a su hijo (29:17), así debe disciplinar a su esclavo.

agita el conflicto
Se habla de hacer que las personas discutan más como si se tratara de agitar o despertar

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

argumentos. Traducción alterna: "hace que la gente discuta más" o "hace que la gente discuta y pelee". Palabras similares aparecen en el 15:17.

un maestro de la ira
Esta expresión idiomática significa "una persona que se enoja fácilmente".

Proverbs 29:23

quien tiene un espíritu humilde, se le dará el honor Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los hombres honrarán a una persona que tiene un espíritu humilde" o "una persona que tiene un espíritu humilde recibirá honor de los hombres" o "el SEÑOR hará que los hombres honren a una persona que tenga un espíritu humilde"

odia su propia vida
"se convierte en su propio enemigo"

él escucha la maldición y no dice nada Los posibles significados son: 1) la gente ha puesto bajo "juramento a quien comparte con un ladrón" para decirle la verdad sobre lo que robó, y sabe que será castigado si dice la verdad. Traducción alterna: "no se atreve a testificar bajo juramento" o 2) la gente no sabe quién es el ladrón, pero le piden a Dios que maldiga al ladrón, y el "que comparte" teme confesar y así salir de debajo de la maldición porque le tiene miedo al ladrón. Traducción altern: "no dice nada, incluso después de que la gente lo haya maldecido"

Proverbs 29:25

El miedo de un hombre hace una trampa
Se habla de tener miedo de lo que otras personas podrían hacer como si estuviera entrando en una trampa. Traducción alterna: "Cualquier persona que tenga miedo de lo que otras personas podrían hacerle a él es como una persona que se ha enredado en una trampa"

una trampa
Una trampa que atrapa animales con cuerdas.

quien confía en el SEÑOR será protegido Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR protegerá al que confía en Él"

Muchos son los que buscan el rostro del gobernante
La palabra "rostro" es una metonimia para el gobernante que escucha a las personas que le dicen lo que quieren que haga y luego lo hacen. Traducción alterna: "Muchas personas quieren que su gobernante les preste atención"

del SEÑOR viene la justicia para una persona
Es el SEÑOR, no los gobernantes humanos, quienes verán que las personas traten a una persona con justicia.

Proverbs 29:27

detestable una persona que debería ser odiada. Traduce esto como lo hiciste en el 3:31.

Chapter 30

1 Las palabras de Agur, hijo de Jaqué-- la declaración: Este hombre le declaró a Itiel, a Itiel y Ucal: 2 Ciertamente, yo soy más como un animal que cualquier otro humano y yo no tengo el entendimiento de un ser humano. 3 Yo no he aprendido sabiduría, ni tampoco tengo conocimiento del Santo. 4 ¿Quién ha subido al cielo y ha bajado? ¿Quién ha reunido el viento en el hueco de sus manos? ¿Quién ha reunido las aguas en un manto? ¿Quién ha establecido los confines de la tierra? ¿Cuál es Su nombre y cuál es el nombre de Su hijo ¡Ciertamente tú sabes! 5 Toda palabra de Dios es probada; Él es un escudo para los que se refugian en Él. 6 No le añadas a Sus palabras o Él te disciplinará y se probará que tú eres un mentiroso. 7 Dos cosas he demandado de ti, no me las niegues antes de que yo muera: 8 Pon la vanidad y las mentiras lejos de mí. No me entregues ni pobreza ni riquezas, solo dame la comida que yo necesito. 9 Porque si tengo mucho, podría negarte y decirte: "¿Quién es el SEÑOR?" O si me convierto en pobre, yo podría robar y profanar el nombre de mi Dios. 10 No calumnies a un esclavo delante de su amo o él te maldecirá a ti y serás culpable. 11 Hay una generación que maldice a su padre y no bendice a su madre. 12 Hay una generación que son puros en su propia opinión, y todavía el SEÑOR no les ha perdonado sus pecados. 13 Hay una generación cuyos ojos están levantados, ¡y cuán alzados están sus párpados! 14 Hay una generación cuyos dientes son espadas, y cuyas quijadas son como cuchillos para que puedan devorar a los pobres de la tierra y a los necesitados entre la humanidad. 15 La sanguijuela tiene dos hijas: "Dame y dame" ellas lloran. Hay tres cosas que nunca satisfacen, cuatro que nunca dicen: "Suficiente": 16 el Seol; el útero estéril, la tierra que nunca satisfacen con agua; y el fuego que nunca dice: "¡Suficiente!" 17 El ojo que se burla de un padre y desprecia la obediencia de una madre, sus ojos serán picoteados por los cuervos del valle, y él será devorado por los buitres. 18 Hay tres cosas que son demasiado maravillosas para mí, cuatro que yo no entiendo: 19 el camino del águila en el cielo, el camino de la serpiente en la roca; el camino del barco en el corazón del mar; y el camino de un hombre con una mujer joven. 20 Este es el camino de la adúltera: ella come, se limpia la boca y dice: "No he hecho nada malo." 21 Bajo tres cosas la tierra tiembla, y bajo de cuatro no se puede resistir: 22 un esclavo cuando se convierte en rey; un tonto cuando se sacia de comida; 23 una mujer odiada cuando se casa; y una sirvienta cuando toma el lugar de su señora. 24 Cuatro cosas en la tierra que son pequeñas y sin embargo son bien sabias: 25 las hormigas son criaturas que no son fuertes, pero ellas preparan su comida en el verano, 26 los tejones de roca no son criaturas poderosas, pero hacen sus casas en las rocas. 27 Las langostas no tienen rey, pero todas ellas marchan en fila. 28 En cuanto a la lagartija, la puedes aguantar con tus dos manos, sin embargo son encontradas en los palacios de los reyes. 29 Hay tres cosas que son majestuosas en su paso y cuatro que son majestuosas en como caminan: 30 un león, el más fuerte entre los animales salvajes-- no se aleja de nada; 31 un gallo erguido; una cabra; y un rey cuyos soldados están junto a él. 32 Si tu has sido un tonto, exaltándote a ti mismo, o si has estado planeando el mal-- pon tu mano sobre tu boca. 33 Como la leche batida hace mantequilla y como una nariz sangra si se retuerce, así las acciones que se hacen bajo ira producen conflicto.

Proverbs 30:1

Agur ... Jaqué ... Itiel ... Ucal
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Agur, hijo de Jaqué
Este es el hijo literal de Jaqué, no un nieto.

a Itiel, a Itiel y Ucal
"a Itiel, es decir, a Itiel y Ucal"

Ciertamente
"Seguramente" o "No hay duda de que"

yo no tengo el entendimiento de un ser humano El sustantivo abstracto "entendimiento" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "No entiendo nada de cómo se supone que los seres humanos deben entenderlos" ni tampoco tengo conocimiento del Santo El sustantivo abstracto "conocimiento" se puede traducir como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "ni sé realmente nada acerca del Santo"

Proverbs 30:4

¿Quién ha ... bajado? ¿Quién ha ... manos? ¿Quién ha ... manto? ¿Quién ha ... tierra?
El escritor hace estas preguntas para que el lector piense en cuán más grande es el SEÑOR que las personas. Traducción alterna: "Ninguna persona tiene ... abajo. Ninguna persona tiene ... manos. Ninguna persona tiene ... capa. Ninguna persona tiene ... tierra". o "¿Quién tiene ... abajo? ¿Quién

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tiene ... manos? ¿Quién tiene ... capa? ¿Quién tiene ... tierra? Nadie ha hecho ninguna de estas cosas".

cielo
donde vive Dios

ha reunido el viento en el hueco de sus manos El escritor habla del viento como si fuera algo que una persona pudiera atrapar y sostener en su mano. Traducción alterna: "ha atrapado el viento en sus manos"

el hueco de sus manos la forma en que se forman sus manos cuando está recogiendo, por ejemplo, agua o arena. "sus manos ahuecadas"

ha reunido
trajo pequeños objetos dispersos en una pila para que puedan ser levantados ha establecido los confines de la tierra

"ha establecido los límites para donde termina la tierra" o "ha marcado los límites para los extremos de la tierra"

¿Cuál es Su nombre y cuál es el nombre de Su hijo?
El escritor usa estas preguntas para ordenar al lector que dé una respuesta. Traducción alterna: "Dígame su nombre y el nombre de su hijo, si los conoce".

¡Ciertamente tú sabes!
El escritor usa la ironía para demostrar que ni él ni el lector conocen a ninguna persona que pueda hacer lo que el "quién" en las preguntas anteriores puede hacer. AT: "No creo que realmente conozcas a alguien que pueda hacer esas cosas".

Proverbs 30:5

es probada
Se habla de las palabras como si fueran metales que necesitan que alguien limpie las partes malas de ellas. Traducción alterna: "es como un metal precioso del cual alguien ha eliminado todo el material inútil"

Él es un escudo para aquellos que se refugian en Él La palabra "escudo" es una metáfora de algo que protege a una persona. Traducción alterna: "Él protege a los que vienen y le piden que los proteja"

añadas a Sus palabras decir mas de lo que ha dicho

se probará que tú eres un Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Él probará que tú eres"

Proverbs 30:7

Pon la vanidad y las mentiras lejos de mí Los posibles significados son: 1) "No permitas que las personas hablen vanidad y me mientan" o 2) "No me permitas hablar vanidad y mentiras"

vanidad
palabras falsas e inútiles

No me entregues ni pobreza ni riquezas
El escritor habla como si "pobreza" y "riquezas"

si tengo mucho, podría negarte y decirte Esto describe una situación hipotética que no ha ocurrido, pero es posible si el escritor se enriquece.

si me convierto en pobre, yo podría robar y profanar Esto describe una situación hipotética que no ha sucedido, pero es posible si el escritor se vuelve pobre.

yo podría robar y profanar el nombre de mi Dios
"Podría hacer que las personas que saben que he robado cosas piensen que no hay Dios" o "podría dañar la reputación de Dios robando"

Proverbs 30:10

calumnies
Hablar falsamente sobre otra persona con el deseo de hacerle daño.

él te maldecirá
"el siervo maldecirá"

serás culpable
Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la gente te mantendrá culpable" una generación que maldice ... y no bendice ... una generación que son

"una generación de personas que maldicen ... y no bendicen ... una generación de personas que lo son"

generación
tipo o clase o grupo

son puros en sus propios ojos La frase "en sus propios ojos" es un metónimo para su opinión. Traducción alterna: "cree que son puros"

ellos no se han limpiado de su inmundicia Las palabras "lavado" e "inmundicia" hablan de que Dios perdonó a las personas que pecan como si estuviera limpiando la inmundicia física de la gente. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios no les ha perdonado sus pecados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

inmundicia
Esto debe traducirse con un término cortés que incluya vómitos y desechos humanos o animales.

Proverbs 30:13

ojos están levantados ... sus párpados levantados
Estos dos metónimos se refieren a personas que piensan que son mejores que otras personas. Sus ojos muestran que están orgullosos, y la forma en que miran a los demás muestra que piensan que son mejores que esas otras personas.

Hay una generación cuyos dientes son espadas, y sus quijadas son como cuchillos, para que puedan devorar a los pobres ... y a los necesitados
Se habla de la gente de la generación que habla cosas muy dañinas como si fueran animales salvajes con dientes y mandíbulas hechas de espadas y cuchillos, y se comen a los pobres y necesitados.

quijadas
Los huesos de la cara donde crecen los dientes.

Proverbs 30:15

La sanguijela tiene dos hijas Este es un ejemplo de algo que siempre quiere más. Traducción alterna: "La codicia tiene dos hijas"

sanguijela
Un tipo de gusano que se adhiere a la piel y chupa la sangre.

"Dame y dame" ellas lloran
Otro posible significado es "y ambos se llaman Dame".

Hay tres cosas que nunca están satisfechas, cuatro que nunca dicen: "Suficiente"
Este uso de los números "tres" y "cuatro" juntos aquí es probablemente un dispositivo poético. AT: "Hay cuatro cosas que nunca se satisfacen, que nunca dicen 'basta'"

que nunca están satisfechas Esto se puede afirmar positivamente. Traducción alterna: "Siempre quieren más" tierra que nunca está satisfecha con agua Se habla de tierra que ya no produce alimentos porque no ha habido lluvia como si fuera una persona que no tiene suficiente agua para beber.

desprecia la obediencia a una madre
La palabra "obediencia", un sustantivo abstracto que se puede traducir como un verbo, es un metónimo para la madre misma. Traducción alterna: "considera que su madre no vale nada y no la obedecerá"

sus ojos ... los buitres
El escritor dice que la persona morirá al dar dos imágenes de lo que sucede a las personas que mueren lejos de donde vive la gente.

sus ojos serán picoteados por los cuervos del valle Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los cuervos del valle picotearán sus ojos"

cuervos
Aves grandes, brillantes y negras que comen plantas y animales muertos.

él será devorado por los buitres Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los buitres se lo comerán" buitres cualquiera de varias aves grandes que comen animales muertos y tienen cabezas pequeñas y sin plumas

Proverbs 30:18

Hay tres cosas que son ... cuatro que yo no entiendo:
El uso de los números "tres" y "cuatro" aquí es probablemente un dispositivo poético. Traducción alterna: "Hay algunas cosas que son demasiado maravillosas para mí que no entiendo, cuatro de ellas son:"

en el corazón del mar
El "corazón" se refiere al medio. Traducción alterna: "en el medio del mar" o "en el mar abierto"

Proverbs 30:20

ella come, se limpia la boca
Esto parece ser ambos, un eufemismo como una metáfora para cometer adulterio y luego tomar un baño.

Proverbs 30:21

Bajo tres cosas la tierra tiembla, y bajo de cuatro no se puede resistir El uso de los números "tres" y "cuatro" aquí es probablemente un dispositivo poético. "Hay algunas cosas que hacen temblar la tierra, que no puede soportar. Cuatro de estas son:"

un tonto cuando se sacia de comida Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "un tonto que ha comido suficiente" (Ver:

una mujer odiada cuando se casa
Es decir, la gente la odiaba con razón antes de casarse; una vez que se case, será peor de lo que era antes de casarse. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "una mujer a la que las personas buenas han odiado cuando se casa" o "una mujer marginada cuando se casa"

Chapter 31

1 Las palabras del rey Lemuel-una instrucción que su madre le enseñó. 2 ¿Qué, mi hijo? ¿Qué es, hijo de mis entrañas? ¿Qué quieres, hijo de mis votos? - 3 No des tu fuerza a las mujeres, o tus caminos a los que destruyen reyes. 4 No es para reyes, Lemuel, no es para reyes el tomar vino, no es para gobernantes preguntar: "¿Dónde está la bebida fuerte?'' 5 No sea que se olviden de lo que han decretado y perviertan los derechos de los afligidos. 6 Da bebida fuerte al que está pereciendo y vino a esos en amarga angustia. 7 Él la tomará y él olvidará su pobreza y él no recordará sus problemas. 8 Habla por esos que no pueden hablar, por la causa de todos los que perecen. 9 Habla y juzga por la medida de lo que es recto y alega la causa del pobre y la gente necesitada. 10 ¿Quién encontrará a una esposa capaz? Su valor es por mucho más que las joyas. 11 El corazón de su esposo confía en ella, y él nunca será pobre. 12 Ella hace cosas buenas para él y no hace maldad todos los días de su vida. 13 Ella selecciona lana y lino, y trabaja con el deleite de sus manos. 14 Ella es como los barcos de un mercader; ella trae su comida desde muy lejos. 15 Ella se levanta en la noche y da comida a los de su casa, y ella distribuye el trabajo a sus siervas. 16 Ella examina un campo y lo compra; con el fruto de sus manos ella planta un viñedo. 17 Ella se viste con fortaleza y fortelece sus brazos trabajando. 18 Ella percibe lo que puede hacer un buen beneficio para ella; durante toda la noche su lámpara no se extingue. 19 Ella pone sus manos en el huso y sostiene el hilo mientras se retuerce. 20 Ella ayuda a la gente pobre; ella ayuda a la gente necesitada. 21 Ella no tiene temor de la nieve por los de su casa, pues todos los de su casa están vestidos en escarlata. 22 Ella hace cubiertas para su cama, y ella viste ropa de lino fino color púrpura. 23 Su esposo es conocido en las puertas cuando él se sienta con los ancianos de la tierra. 24 Ella hace vestidos de lino y los vende y ella suple cintos a los mercaderes. 25 Ella se viste con fuerza y honor, y ella se rie del tiempo que vendrá. 26 Ella abre su boca con sabiduria y la ley de bondad está en su lengua. 27 Ella vela por los caminos de su casa y no come del pan de la ociocidad. 28 Sus hijos se levantan y la llaman bendecida y su esposo la alaba a ella, diciendo: '' 29 Muchas mujeres han hecho bien, pero tú las sobrepasas a todas ellas.'' 30 La elegancia es engañosa, la belleza es vana, pero la mujer que teme al SEÑOR, esa será alabada. 31 Dénle del fruto de sus manos y dejen que la gente importante la alabe por su trabajo.

Proverbs 31:1

rey Lemuel
Este es el nombre de un rey.

¿Que, mi hijo? ¿Y que, hijo de mis entrañas? ¿Y qué, es hijo de mis votos?
Los posibles significados de la pregunta retórica "¿Qué?" son: 1) "¿Qué estás haciendo?" o "No deberías estar haciendo lo que estás haciendo" o 2) "¿Qué debo decirte?" o "Escucha lo que te digo" o 3) "No hagas las cosas contra las que estoy a punto de advertirte".

mi hijo ... hijo de mis entrañas ... hijo de mis votos El orador quiere que el oyente lo note cuidadosamente y que respete a quien le está hablando.

hijo de mis entrañas
El útero es un sinécdoque para la persona. Es mejor usar un término cortés para la parte del cuerpo en la que los bebés crecen antes de nacer.

hijo de mis votos
Los "votos" podrían ser: 1) los votos matrimoniales de la madre o 2) un voto después de casarse, que si Dios le permitiera tener un hijo, lo dedicaría a Dios.

No des tu fuerza a las mujeres
"No trabajes duro tratando de tener sexo con mujeres", ya sea fuera del matrimonio o con concubinas.

o tus caminos a esos que destruyen reyes
"o permite que los que destruyen a los reyes te aconsejen"

tus caminos Los posibles significados son: 1) "la forma en que vives tu vida" o 2) "el trabajo que haces"

esos que destruyen reyes Probablemente las inmorales "mujeres" a las que no debe dar su fuerza.

Proverbs 31:4

Lemuel
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traducir como en el 31: 1.

lo que se han decretado Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Los posibles significados son: 1) "lo que Dios ha decretado" o 2) "lo que los propios reyes han decretado"

Book: Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes

Chapter 1

1 Estas son las palabras del Maestro, el descendiente de David y rey en Jerusalén. 2 El Maestro dice esto. "Como un vapor de niebla, como una brisa en el viento, todo se desvanece, dejando muchas preguntas. 3 ¿Qué ganancia obtiene la humanidad de toda la obra que trabajan bajo el sol? 4 Una generación va, y otra generación viene, pero la tierra queda para siempre. 5 El sol sale y se pone y se apresura al lugar donde sale otra vez. 6 El viento sopla hacia el sur y circula hacia el norte, siempre yendo a lo largo de su camino y regresando otra vez. 7 Todos los ríos fluyen al mar, pero el mar nunca se llena. Al lugar donde los ríos van, allí van otra vez. 8 Todo se vuelve fastidioso, y nadie puede explicarlo. El ojo no está satisfecho con lo que ve, ni el oído se llena por lo que escucha. 9 Lo que sea que haya sido, es lo que va a ser, y lo que sea que haya sido hecho, es lo que será hecho. No hay nada nuevo bajo el sol. 10 ¿Hay algo sobre lo que se pueda decir: 'Mira, esto es nuevo?' Lo que sea que existe ya ha existido por un largo tiempo, durante siglos que fueron antes que nosotros. 11 Nadie parece recordar las cosas que pasaron en tiempos antiguos, y las cosas que pasaron mucho después, y eso que pasará en el futuro, probablemente tampoco será recordado." 12 Yo soy el Maestro, y he sido rey sobre Israel en Jerusalén. 13 Yo apliqué mi mente al estudio y a buscar la sabiduría de todo lo que está hecho bajo el cielo. Esa búsqueda es una pesada tarea que Dios le ha dado a los hijos de la humanidad para que estén ocupados. 14 Yo he visto todas las obras que son hechas bajo el sol, y mira, todas ellas son vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento. 15 ¡Lo torcido no puede ser enderezado! ¡Lo perdido no puede ser contado! 16 Yo le he hablado a mi corazón diciendo: "Mira, yo he adquirido mayor sabiduría que todos los que estaban antes que yo en Jerusalén. Mi mente ha visto gran sabiduría y conocimiento." 17 Así que, yo apliqué mi corazón a conocer sabiduría y también la insensatez y la tontería. Yo vine a entender que esto es también un intento de pastorear el viento. 18 Porque en la abundancia de sabiduría hay mucha frustración, y ese que incrementa su conocimiento, incrementa su dolor.

Ecclesiastes 1:1

"Como un vapor de niebla, como una brisa en el viento, ..."
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y se unen para dar énfasis.

¿Qué ganancia obtiene la humanidad... bajo el sol?
"La humanidad no obtiene ganancia... bajo el sol".

Ecclesiastes 1:4

Información general:
El autor presenta el orden natural de la vida según él la entiende.

Ecclesiastes 1:7

Información general:
El autor continúa con sus observaciones del orden natural de las cosas.

Todo se vuelve fastidioso
Como el hombre es incapaz de explicar estas cosas, se hace inútil tratar de explicarlas. Traducción Alterna: "todo se vuelve agotador"

El ojo no está satisfecho con lo que ve, ...
Uno simplemente no puede reducir a una explicación sencilla lo que uno ve. Traducción Alterna: "Una persona no se satisface con lo que sus ojos ven".

ni el oído se llena por lo que escucha
Uno no puede simplemente reducir a una explicación sencilla lo que uno oye. Traducción Alterna: "tampoco está contenta una persona con lo que sus oídos oyen"

Ecclesiastes 1:9

Chapter 2

1 Dije en mi corazón: "Ven ahora, yo te probaré con alegría. Así que disfruta el placer.'' Pero mira, esto también es solo una brisa pasajera. 2 Dije acerca de la risa: ''Es locura,'' y sobre el placer: ''¿De que sirve?" 3 Exploré en mi corazón como satisfacer mis deseos con vino. Dejé que mi mente me guiara con sabiduría, aunque yo continuaba aferrándome a la tontería. Yo quería encontrar lo que era bueno que la gente hiciera debajo del cielo durante los días de sus vidas. 4 Realicé grandes cosas. Construí casas para mí y planté viñedos. 5 Construí para mí jardines y parques; yo planté toda clase de árboles frutales en ellos. 6 Yo creé estanques de agua para regar un bosque donde árboles crecerían. 7 Compré esclavos y esclavas; Tuve esclavos nacidos en mi palacio. También tuve grandes manadas y rebaños de ganado, mucho más que cualquier rey que gobernó antes de mí en Jerusalén. 8 También acumulé plata y oro para mí, los tesoros de reyes y provincias. Yo tengo cantores y cantoras para mí, las delicias de los hijos de la humanidad, y muchas concubinas. 9 Así que me volví más grande y más rico que todos los que estuvieron antes de mí en Jerusalén, y mi sabiduría permaneció conmigo. 10 Todo lo que mis ojos deseaban, yo no me retuve de ello. Yo no retuve mi corazón de ningún placer, porque mi corazón se regocijaba en todo mi trabajo y el placer era mi recompensa de todo mi trabajo. 11 Entonces miré todos los obras que mis manos habían realizado, y en el trabajo que había hecho, pero de nuevo, todo era vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento. No había ganancia debajo del sol en eso. 12 Entonces comencé a considerar la sabiduría, y también la locura y la tontería. ¿Qué puede hacer el próximo rey, que vendrá después del rey, que ya no haya sido hecho? 13 Entonces yo comencé a entender que la sabiduría tiene ventajas sobre la tontería, así como la luz es mejor que la oscuridad. 14 El hombre sabio usa sus ojos en su cabeza para ver a donde va, pero el tonto camina en la oscuridad, sin embargo, yo sé que el mismo destino está esperando por todos. 15 Entonces dije en mi corazón: ''Lo que le sucede al tonto, me sucederá también a mí. Entonces, ¿qué diferencia hay si soy muy sabio?'' Yo he concluído en mi corazón: ''Esto es también solo vapor.'' 16 Porque el hombre sabio, como el tonto, no será recordado por mucho tiempo. En los días venideros, todo habrá sido ya olvidado. El hombre sabio morirá, así como el tonto muere. 17 Así que detesté la vida porque todo el trabajo hecho debajo del sol era malo para mí. Esto era porque todo es vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento. 18 Odio todos mis logros por los cuales he trabajado debajo del sol porque los dejaré atrás, al hombre que viene después de mí. 19 Porque, ¿quién sabe si él será un hombre sabio o un tonto? Sin embargo, él será amo sobre todo lo que mi trabajo y sabiduria han construido debajo del sol. Esto también es vapor. 20 Por lo tanto, mi corazón comenzó a desesperar sobre todo el trabajo que hice debajo del sol. 21 Porque puede haber alguno que haya trabajado con sabiduría, con conocimiento, y destreza, pero, él dejará todo lo que tiene a un hombre que no ha hecho nada de eso. Esto también es vapor y una gran tragedia. 22 Porque, ¿qué beneficio gana la persona que trabaja duramente y trata en su corazón de completar su labor debajo del sol? 23 Cada día su trabajo es doloroso y lleno de tensión, y en la noche su alma no encuentra descanso. Esto es también vapor. 24 No hay nada mejor que simplemente comer y beber y estar satisfechos con todo lo que es bueno en su trabajo. Ví que esta verdad viene de la mano de Dios. 25 Porque, ¿quién puede comer o quién puede tener alguna clase de placer fuera de Dios? 26 Porque cualquiera que Lo complace, Dios le da sabiduría, conocimiento y gozo. Sin embargo, al pecador, Él le da el trabajo de reunir y almacenar para que él se lo dé a alguien que complace a Dios. Esto también es vapor y es un intento de pastorear el viento.

Ecclesiastes 2:1

Dije en mi corazón
Traducción Alterna: "Me dije a mí mismo"

Chapter 3

1 Para todo hay un tiempo señalado, y una temporada para cada propósito bajo el cielo. 2 Hay un tiempo para nacer y un tiempo para morir, un tiempo para sembrar y un tiempo para arrancar las plantas, 3 un tiempo para matar y un tiempo para sanar, un tiempo para derrumbar y un tiempo para construir. 4 Hay un tiempo para llorar y un tiempo para reir, un tiempo para estar de luto y un tiempo para bailar, 5 un tiempo para tirar piedras y un tiempo para recoger piedras, un tiempo para abrazar a otras personas y un tiempo para dejar de abrazar. 6 Hay un tiempo para buscar cosas y un tiempo para dejar de buscar, un tiempo para guardar cosas y un tiempo para tirar cosas, 7 un tiempo para desgarrar ropa, y un tiempo para reparar ropa, un tiempo para guardar silencio y un tiempo para hablar. 8 Hay un tiempo para amar y un tiempo para odiar, un tiempo para la guerra y un tiempo para la paz. 9 ¿Qué ganancia obtiene el obrero de su trabajo? 10 Yo he visto el trabajo que Dios le ha dado a los seres humanos para completar. 11
Dios ha hecho todo apropiado a su propio tiempo. Él también ha puesto la eternidad en sus corazones.
Pero la humanidad no puede comprender las obras que Dios ha hecho, desde sus comienzos todo el camino hasta su final. 12 Yo sé que no hay nada mejor para cualquiera que regocijarse y hacer el bien mientras tenga vida, 13 y que todos deben comer y beber, y deben entender cómo disfrutar el bien que procede de su trabajo. Esto es un regalo de Dios. 14 Yo sé que cualquier cosa que Dios hace dura para siempre. Nada puede serle añadido o quitado, porque es Dios quien lo ha hecho para que la gente se acerque a Él con honor. 15 Cualquier cosa que existe ya ha existido; lo que existirá ya ha existido. Dios hace que los seres humanos busquen cosas escondidas. 16 Yo he visto la maldad que está debajo del sol, donde debe haber justicia, y en lugar de justicia, había maldad allí. 17 Yo dije en mi corazón: "Dios juzgará a los justos y a los malvados en el tiempo correcto para todo asunto y toda obra." 18 Yo dije en mi corazón: "Dios prueba a los seres humanos para demostrarles que son como animales." 19 Pues el destino de los hijos de la humanidad y el destino de los animales es el mismo destino. La muerte de uno es como la muerte del otro. El aliento es el mismo para todos ellos. No hay ventaja para la humanidad sobre los animales. ¿Pues no es todo un aliento? 20 Todo va para el mismo lugar. Todo procede del polvo, y todo regresa al polvo. 21 ¿Quién sabe si el espíritu de la humanidad va hacia arriba y el espíritu de los animales va hacia abajo dentro de la tierra? 22 Pues nuevamente me di cuenta que no hay nada mejor para alguien que tomar placer en su trabajo, pues esa es su mision. ¿Quién lo puede traer de vuelta para que vea lo que sucede después de él?

Chapter 4

1 Otra vez yo pensé acerca de toda la opresión que es hecha bajo el sol. ¡Y vi, las lágrimas de la gente oprimida, y no tenían a alguien que los confortara! ¡El poder estaba en las manos de sus opresores, y no había alguien para confortarlos! 2 Así que yo felicito a la gente muerta, esos quienes ya han muerto, no los vivos, aquellos quienes están aún vivos. 3 Sin embargo, más afortunado que ambos es aquel quien no ha vivido aún, el que no ha visto ninguno de los actos malvados que son hechos debajo del sol. 4 Entonces yo vi que cada obra de trabajo y cada trabajo hábil vino a ser la envidia del vecino. Esto también es vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento. 5 El necio dobla sus manos y no trabaja, así que su comida es su propia carne. 6 Pero mejor es un puñado de ganancia con trabajo tranquilo que dos puñados con trabajo que trata de pastorear el viento. 7 Entonces yo pensé otra vez sobre más inutilidad, más vapor desapareciendo debajo del sol. 8 Está la clase de hombre que está sólo. Él no tiene a nadie, ni hijo ni hermano. No hay fin a todo su trabajo, y sus ojos no se satisfacen con obtener riqueza. Él piensa: "¿Para quién me estoy fatigando y privándome a mí mismo de placer?" Esto también es vapor, una mala situación. 9 Dos personas trabajan mejor que una; juntas pueden ganar una buena paga por su trabajo. 10 Porque si uno cae, el otro puede levantar a su amigo. Por otro lado, la tristeza le sigue al que está solo cuando cae, si no hay quien lo levante. 11 Si dos se acuestan juntos, pueden calentarse, pero ¿cómo puede calentarse uno solo? 12 Un hombre solo puede ser dominado, pero dos pueden soportar un ataque, y una soga de tres hilos no es rota rápidamente. 13 Es mejor ser un joven pobre pero sabio que un rey viejo y tonto que ya no sabe escuchar las advertencias. 14 Esto es verdad aún si el joven llega a ser rey desde la prisión, o aún si naciera pobre en su reino. 15 Sin embargo, yo vi a todos los que estaban vivos y caminando debajo del sol sometiéndose a otro hombre joven que se levantó como rey. 16 No hay fin para todas las personas que quieren obedecer al nuevo rey, pero más tarde muchas de ellas ya no lo alabarán. Sin duda esta situación es vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento.

Ecclesiastes 4:15

Información General:
En vez de seleccionar a un hombre sabio, el pueblo escogió al hijo del rey quien no tenía ninguna sabiduría.

vivos y caminando
Las palabras "vivos" y "caminando" basicamente significa la misma cosa y se combinan para enfatizar.

No hay fin para todas las personas Traducción Alterna: "Son demasiadas de muchas personas" vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento.

Chapter 5

1 Cuida tu conducta cuando vayas a la casa de Dios. Ve ahí para escuchar. Escuchar es mejor que cuando los tontos ofrecen sacrificios sin saber que lo que hacen en la vida es malvado. 2 No seas muy rápido en hablar con tu boca, y no dejes que tu corazón sea muy rápido en traer algún asunto ante Dios. Dios está en el cielo, pero tú estás en la tierra, así que deja que tus palabras sean pocas. 3 Si tienes muchas cosas que hacer y por qué preocuparte, probablemente tendrás pesadillas. Mientras más palabras hables, más tonterías probablemente dirás. 4 Cuando le hagas un voto a Dios, no te tardes en hacerlo, porque Dios no tiene placer en los tontos. Haz lo que prometes que vas a hacer. 5 Es mejor no hacer un voto, que hacer uno que no cumplas. 6 No le permitas a tu boca hacer que tu carne peque. No le digas al mensajero del sacerdote: "Ese voto fue un error." ¿Por qué airar a Dios al jurar falsamente, provocando a Dios a destruir el trabajo de tus manos? 7 Porque en muchos sueños, así como en muchas palabras, hay vapor sin sentido. Así que témele a Dios. 8 Cuando veas que los pobres están siendo oprimidos y robados del trato justo y correcto en tu provincia, no te asombres como si nadie lo supiera, porque hay gente en el poder que observa a los que están debajo de ellos, y hay otros aún más arriba de ellos. 9 Aún más, el producto de la tierra es para todos, y el rey mismo toma de los productos de los campos. 10 Cualquiera que ama la plata no será satisfecho con plata, y cualquiera que ame la riqueza siempre querrá más. Esto, también es vapor. 11 Según la prosperidad crece, así también crece la gente que la consume. ¿Qué ventaja en riquezas hay para el dueño, excepto el verla con sus ojos? 12 El sueño de un hombre trabajador es agradable, aunque coma mucho o poco, pero la riqueza de una persona rica no le permite dormir bien. 13 Hay una maldad severa que yo he visto bajo el sol: riquezas acumuladas por el dueño, resultando en su propia miseria. 14 Cuando el hombre rico pierde su riqueza por la mala suerte, su propio hijo, uno que ha engendrado, se queda con las manos vacías. 15 Así como un hombre nace desnudo del vientre de su madre, así también dejará esta vida desnudo. Él no puede llevar en su mano nada de su trabajo. 16 Otra maldad severa es que exactamente como una persona vino, así también se debe ir. Así que, ¿qué ganancia consigue alguno en trabajar para el viento? 17 Durante sus días, come con la oscuridad y está grandemente angustiado con enfermedad y enojo. 18 Mira, lo que yo he visto que es bueno y apropiado es comer y beber y disfrutar la ganancia de todo nuestro trabajo, mientras trabajamos bajo el sol, durante los días de esta vida que Dios nos ha dado. Porque esta es la mision del hombre. 19 Cualquiera a quien Dios le haya dado riquezas y abundancia y la habilidad de recibir su porción y regocijarse con su trabajo-- esto es un regalo de Dios. 20 Pues no trae a la memoria muy a menudo, los días de su vida, porque Dios hace que esté ocupado con las cosas que él disfruta hacer.

Ecclesiastes 5:1

Ve ahí para escuchar
Es más importante ir al templo a escuchar y aprender sobre la ley de Dios con el fin de obedecer a Dios, que ofrecer sacrificios pero continuar pecando contra Dios.

Ecclesiastes 5:2

hablar con tu boca
Hacer una promesa o voto a Dios.

No seas muy rápido... no dejes que tu corazón sea muy rápido
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo.

deja que tus palabras sean pocas
"no digas demasiado"

Ecclesiastes 5:4

Dios no tiene placer en los tontos
Una característica de un tonto es hacer promesas o votos que no tiene intención de guardar o cumplir.

Ecclesiastes 5:6

No le permitas a tu boca hacer que tu carne peque
"No permitas que lo que digas te haga pecar"

¿Por qué airar a Dios... manos?
"Sería tonto hacer enojar a Dios... manos".

destruir el trabajo de tus manos
"destruir todo lo que hagas"

Porque en muchos sueños, así como en muchas palabras, hay vapor insignificante
"Multiplicar palabras no les da sustancia, así como tener muchos sueños no los hace más reales".

Ecclesiastes 5:8

"los pobres están siendo oprimidos y robados" Traducción Alterna: "personas oprimen a la gente pobre y les roban"

trato justo y correcto
Las palabras "justo" y "correcto" básicamente significan lo mismo y se refieren al tipo de trato que la gente merece. Traducción Alterna: "trato justo".

no te asombres
"no te sorprendas" (UDB)

hay gente en el poder Traducción Alterna: "hay gente con autoridad"

otros aún más altos sobre ellos Hay otros hombres que gobiernan por encima de los hombres en autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "hombres que tienen aun más autoridad de la que ellos tienen"

el producto de la tierra
Traducción Alterna: "el alimento que la tierra produce"

Ecclesiastes 5:10

Esto también es vapor
Tal como un vapor no tiene sustancia, así no hay satisfacción en desear dinero.

Según la prosperidad crece Traducción Alterna: "Según una persona se hace más próspera"

así también crece la gente que la consume Posibles significados son: 1) "así también la persona gasta más dinero" o 2) "así también habrá más gente que use su riqueza".

¿Qué ventaja en riquezas hay para el dueño, excepto el velarla con sus ojos?
Traducción Alterna: "El único beneficio que el dueño tiene de la riqueza es que él puede mirarla"

Ecclesiastes 5:12

El sueño de un hombre trabajador es dulce
Un hombre que hace un trabajo bueno u honesto puede estar satisfecho consigo mismo sabiendo que él hizo bien el trabajo del día independientemente de su paga.

aunque coma mucho o poco
"sea que coma poca comida o mucha comida"

no le permite dormir bien
Una persona rica nunca está satisfecha con su riqueza. Se mantiene despierta durante la noche preocupada por su dinero. Traducción Alterna: "lo mantiene despierto de noche"

Ecclesiastes 5:13

riquezas acumuladas por el dueño Traducción Alterna: "un dueño acumula riquezas"

a través de la mala suerte Posibles significados son: 1) "a través de desgracia" o 2) "a través de un mal negocio".

su propio hijo... se queda con las manos vacías Aquí la frase "con las manos" se refiere a propiedad. Traducción Alterna: "él no deja posesiones para su propio hijo"

Ecclesiastes 5:15

un hombre nace desnudo... dejará esta vida desnudo En adición a estar sin ropa, aquí la palabra "desnudo" enfatiza que la gente nace sin nunguna posesión. Traducción Alterna: "un hombre está desnudo y no posee nada cuando nace... él dejará esta vida de la misma manera"

dejará esta vida
Traducción Alterna: "morirá"

Él no puede llevar en su mano nada Traducción Alterna: "No puede llevarse nada con él" como una persona vino, así también él se debe ir Esto se refiere al nacimiento y la muerte de una persona y expresa la misma idea que el versículo anterior.

Así que, ¿qué ganancia consigue alguno en trabajar para el viento?
El escritor utiliza esta pregunta para enfatizar su punto de que no hay beneficio en trabajar para el viento. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie obtiene ganancia alguna en trabajar para el viento".

trabajar para el viento Posibles significados son: 1) "tratar de agarrar el viento" o 2) "trabajando para el aire que respira"

Durante sus días, él come con la oscuridad Aquí la palabra "oscuridad" se refiere a circunstancias tristes. Posibles significados son: 1) "Durante su vida él come en lamentación" o 2) "Se pasa su vida de luto"

y está grandemente angustiado con enfermedad y enojo Traducción Alterna: "y sufre grandemente, estando enfermo y enojado"

Ecclesiastes 5:18

Mira
"presta atención" o "escucha"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo que yo he visto que es bueno y apropiado Aquí las palabras "bueno" y "apropiado" básicamente significan lo mismo. La segunda intensifica el significado de la primera. Traducción Alterna: "lo que yo he visto que es lo mejor para hacer."

durante los días de esta vida que Dios nos ha dado Traducción Alterna: "mientras Dios nos permita vivir"

la asignación del hombre Posibles significados son: 1) "la recompensa del hombre" o 2) "la suerte del hombre en la vida"

Ecclesiastes 5:19

riquezas y abundancia
Estas dos palabras básicamente significan lo mismo. Ellas se refieren al dinero y las cosas que una persona puede comprar con dinero.

recibir su porción y regocijarse con su trabajo Esto expresa la habilidad de estar contento y disfrutar el trabajo de uno.

él no trae a la memoria Aquí la palabra "él" se refiere a la persona a quien Dios le ha dado un regalo. Traducción Alterna: "él no se acuerda"

los días de su vida Traducción Alterna: "las cosas que han pasado durante su vida"

esté ocupado
"se mantenga ocupado"

Chapter 6

1 Hay una maldad que he visto bajo el sol, y es severa para los hombres. 2 Dios pudiera dar riquezas, bienes, y honor a un hombre para que no le falte nada que desee para sí mismo, pero luego Dios no le da ninguna habilidad para disfrutarlo. En vez, alguien más usa sus cosas. Esto es vapor, una aflicción malvada. 3 Si un hombre es padre de cientos de hijos y vive por muchos años, para que los días de sus años sean muchos, pero si su corazón no es satisfecho con bien y no es sepultado con honor, entonces digo que un bebé que nace muerto está mejor que él. 4 Aun el bebé que nace en inutilidad y pasa a la oscuridad, y su nombre permanece oculto. 5 Aunque este niño no ve el sol o conoce nada, tiene descanso aunque ese hombre no lo tuvo. 6 Aún si un hombre viviera por dos mil años pero no aprende a disfrutar las cosas buenas, va al mismo lugar que todos los demás. 7 Aunque todo el trabajo de un hombre es para llenar su boca, sin embargo su apetito no es satisfecho. 8 Ciertamente, ¿qué ventaja tiene la persona sabia sobre el necio? ¿Qué ventaja tiene el hombre pobre aún si conoce cómo actuar en frente de otra gente? 9 Es mejor estar satisfecho con lo que los ojos ven que andar deseando un antojo, lo cual también es vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento. 10 Lo que sea que haya existido siempre se le ha dado su nombre, y como es la humanidad ya ha sido conocido. Así que se ha vuelto inútil estar en desacuerdo con aquél que es el juez poderoso de todos. 11 Mientras más palabras son dichas, más incrementa la inutilidad, ¿pues que ventaja es esa para un hombre? 12 Pues, ¿quién sabe qué es bueno para un hombre en su vida inutil durante sus contados días, por los que pasa como una sombra? ¿Quién puede decirle a un hombre qué vendrá bajo el sol después que el muera?

Ecclesiastes 6:1

es severo para los hombres Traducción Alterna: "causa sufrimiento a la gente"

riquezas, bienes
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo. Se refieren al dinero y las cosas que una persona puede comprar con dinero.

no le falte nada
Traducción Alterna: "él tenga todo"

Dios no le da ninguna habilidad para disfrutarlo
Adquirir riquezas o posesiones y no tener la capacidad de disfrutarlas es inútil.

Esto es vapor, una aflicción malvada
No ser capaz de disfrutar las posesiones propias es una terrible aflicción o maldición.

Ecclesiastes 6:3

es padre de cientos de hijos Traducción Alterna: "es padre de 100 hijos"

vive por muchos años, de modo que los días de sus años son muchos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se unen para dar énfasis.

su corazón no se satisface con bien Traducción Alterna: "él no se satisface con cosas buenas"

él no es sepultado con honor Posibles significados son: 1) "nadie lo entierra" o 2) "nadie lo entierra apropiadamente".

tal bebé nace en futilidad Traducción Alterna: "ese bebé nació para nada"

pasa a la oscuridad Aquí la palabra "oscuridad" puede referirse al mundo de los muertos o a algo que es difícil de entender. Traducción Alterna: "muere inexplicablemente"

su nombre permanece oculto Traducción Alterna: "nadie conoce su nombre"

Ecclesiastes 6:5

tiene descanso aunque ese hombre no lo tuvo
Un niño que nació muerto nunca experimentó dificultad, se mantuvo en descanso. Mientras que el hombre que vivió muchos años sin satisfacción carece de descanso.

Aun si un hombre viviera por dos mil años
Esta es una exageración para indicar que no importa cuánto viva una persona si no disfruta las cosas buenas de la vida.

dos mil años
Traducción Alterna: "2,000 años"

pero no aprende a disfrutar las cosas buenas
Este es el punto, que el hombre necesita aprender a disfrutar las cosas buenas que la vida le ofrece.

Ecclesiastes 6:7

para llenar su boca Traducción Alterna: "para poner alimento en su boca" o "para comer"

su apetito no se llena Traducción Alterna: "él no satisface su apetito"

¿qué ventaja tiene la persona sabia sobre el necio?
La sabiduría de una persona sabia no le da derecho a comodidad adicional alguna. Traducción Alterna: "la persona sabia no tiene ventaja alguna sobre la necia".

¿Qué ventaja tiene el hombre pobre aun si él conoce cómo actuar en frente de otra gente?
Traducción Alterna: "El hombre pobre no tiene ventaja alguna, incluso si sabe cómo comportarse frente a otras personas".

Ecclesiastes 6:9

lo que los ojos ven Una persona puede ver estas cosas porque ella ya las tiene. Traducción Alterna: "lo que una persona tiene"

andar deseando un antojo Esto se refiere a cosas que una persona desea pero no tiene. Traducción Alterna: "desear lo que no se tiene"

es vapor y un intento de pastorear el viento
Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 1:12.

Lo que sea que haya existido, siempre se le ha dado su nombre Traducción Alterna: "La gente ya ha dado nombre a todo lo que existe"

cómo es la humanidad ya ha sido conocido Traducción Alterna: "la gente ya sabe cómo es la humanidad"

Chapter 7

1 Un buen nombre es mejor que un perfume costoso, y el día de la muerte es mejor que el día del nacimiento. 2 Es mejor ir a una casa de luto, que a una casa de fiesta, porque el luto viene a toda la gente al final de la vida, así que la gente viva debe poner esto en su corazón. 3 La aflicción es mejor que la risa, porque después de la tristeza del rostro viene la alegría del corazón. 4 El corazón del sabio está en la casa de luto, pero el corazón de los tontos está en la casa de la fiesta. 5 Es mejor escuchar el regaño de los sabios, que escuchar la canción de los tontos. 6 Porque como el crujido de las espinas quemándose bajo una olla, así también es la risa de los tontos. Esto, también, es vapor. 7 La extorsión ciertamente hace tonto a un hombre sabio, y un soborno corrompe el corazón. 8 El final de un asunto es mejor que el principio; y la gente paciente de espíritu es mejor que los orgullosos de espíritu. 9 No sean rápidos en enojarse en su espíritu, porque el enojo vive en el corazón de los tontos. 10 No digas: "¿Por qué los días de antes son mejores que estos?" Porque no es por sabiduría que tú haces esta pregunta. 11 La sabiduría es tan buena como las cosas valiosas que heredamos de nuestros antepasados. Provee beneficios para aquellos que ven el sol. 12 Porque la sabiduría provee protección, como el dinero puede proveer protección, pero la venjata del conocimiento es que la sabiduría da vida a quien sea que la tenga. 13 Consideren la obra de Dios: ¿quién puede enderezar lo que sea que Él ha hecho torcido? 14 Cuando los tiempos sean buenos, vivan felizmente en esos tiempos, pero cuando los tiempos sean malos, consideren esto: Dios ha permitido que ambos existan lado a lado. Por esta razón, nadie sabrá nada de lo que viene despues de él. 15 He visto muchas cosas en mis días insignificantes. Hay personas justas que mueren a pesar de su honradez, y hay personas malignas que viven una larga vida a pesar de su maldad. 16 No sean altivos, sabios en sus propios ojos. ¿Por qué habrían de destruirse ustedes mismos? 17 No sean muy malos o tontos. ¿Por qué habrían de morir antes de su tiempo? 18 Es bueno que ustedes se aferren a esta sabiduría, y que no dejen ir la justicia. Porque la persona que teme a Dios alcanzará todas sus deberes. 19 La sabiduría es poderosa en el hombre sabio, más que diez gobernantes en una ciudad. 20 No hay hombre justo en la tierra que haga lo bueno y nunca peque. 21 No escuches cada palabra que es hablada, porque podrías oír a tu siervo maldecirte. 22 De la misma manera, conoce tú mismo que en tu propio corazón tú has maldecido a otros con frecuencia. 23 Todo esto lo he probado con sabiduría. Yo digo: "Seré sabio," pero fue más de lo que yo pude ser. 24 La sabiduría está muy lejos y muy profundo. ¿Quién puede encontrarla? 25 Yo dirigi mi corazón a aprender y a examinar y a buscar la sabiduría y la explicacion de la realidad, y para entender que el mal es estúpido y la tontería es locura. 26 Yo encontré que cualquier mujer cuyo corazón está lleno de trampas y redes, cuyas manos son cadenas, es más amarga que la muerte. Quien sea que complace a Dios escapará de ella, pero el pecador será tomado por ella. 27 "Consideren lo que yo he descubierto," dice el Maestro. "Yo he estado añadiendo un descubrimiento a otro, para encontrar una explicación de la realidad. 28 Esto es lo que todavía estoy buscando, pero yo no la he encontrado. Yo encontré a un hombre justo entre mil, pero no encontré una mujer entre todas ellas. 29 Yo solo he descubierto esto: que Dios creó a la humanidad recta, pero ellos se han alejado, buscando muchas dificultades."

Ecclesiastes 7:1

Un buen nombre Traducción Alterna: "Una buena reputación"

la gente viva debe poner esto en su corazón
Ellos necesitan considerar qué clase de nombre o reputación ellos tienen y dejarán atrás cuando mueran. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que están vivos deben pensar seriamente sobre esto".

Ecclesiastes 7:3

tristeza del rostro Esto se refiere a estar triste. Traducción Alterna: "una experiencia que entristezca a una persona"

alegría del corazón
Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos y emociones de una persona. "Alegría" describe el estado de las emociones de estar contento y tranquilo. Traducción Alterna: "buen pensar"

El corazón del sabio está en la casa de los lamentos Traducción Alterna: "La gente sabia piensa profundamente sobre la muerte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

pero el corazón de los tontos está en la casa de los festines Traducción Alterna: "pero la gente tonta solo piensa sobre su propio disfrute"

la casa de los lamentos... la casa de los festines
Estas frases se refieren a lo que ocurre en estos lugares.

Ecclesiastes 7:5

el regaño de los sabios Traducción Alterna: "cuando la gente sabia te regaña"

escuchar la canción de los tontos Traducción Alterna: "escuchar a los tontos cantar"

como el crujido de las espinas quemándose bajo una olla, así también es la risa de los tontos
La "risa de los tontos" es comparada con espinas que se queman, que son ruidosas pero pronto se consumen.

Ecclesiastes 7:7

extorsión
Esto se refiere a forzar a alguien a dar dinero u otros objetos de valor a otro para que esa persona no le cause daño. Esto se considera malo.

hace tonto a un hombre sabio Posibles significados son: 1) "convierte al hombre sabio en un hombre tonto" o 2) "hace que el consejo del hombre sabio parezca un consejo tonto".

corrompe el corazón
Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a la mente. Traducción Alterna: "arruina la capacidad de una persona para pensar y juzgar correctamente"

Ecclesiastes 7:8

la gente paciente de espíritu es mejor que los orgullosos de espíritu Aquí la palabra "espíritu" se refiere a la actitud de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "la gente paciente es mejor que la gente orgullosa" o "una actitud paciente es mejor que una actitud orgullosa"

No sean rápidos en enojarse en su espíritu Traducción Alterna: "No se enojen rápidamente" o "No tengan mal carácter"

el enojo vive en el corazón de los tontos
El enojo se compara a algo que vive dentro de la gente tonta. Traducción Alterna: "la gente tonta está llena de enojo"

Ecclesiastes 7:10

¿Por qué los días de antes son mejores que estos?
La persona hace esta pregunta para protestar sobre el momento presente. Traducción Alterna: "Las cosas eran mejores en el pasado que lo que son ahora"

no es por sabiduría que tú haces esta pregunta
La persona que está haciendo esta declaración no está comparando el presente y el pasado en forma lógica, sino subjetiva. Traducción Alterna: "si tú fueras sabio, tú no harías esta pregunta" o "hacer esta pregunta demuestra que tú no eres sabio"

Ecclesiastes 7:11

aquellos que ven el sol Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que están vivos"

la venjata del conocimiento es que la sabiduría da vida Posibles significados son: 1) que el escritor usa las palabras "conocimiento" y "sabiduría" para expresar el mismo significado, o 2) "la ventaja de conocer la sabiduría es que ella da vida".

da vida a quien sea que la tenga
"La" se refiere a la sabiduría. El conocimiento y la sabiduría "dan vida" en diferentes formas. Elegir buenas inversiones, hacer buenos amigos, escoger estilos de vida saludables, vivir en paz con otros son solo algunas formas en que la sabiduría "da vida".

Ecclesiastes 7:13

¿quién puede enderezar lo que sea que Él ha hecho torcido?
Traducción Alterna: "Nadie puede enderezar cualquier cosa que haya hecho torcida".

Ecclesiastes 7:14

Cuando los tiempos sean buenos... cuando los tiempos sean malos
"Cuando ocurren cosas buenas... cuando ocurren cosas malas" vivan felizmente en esos tiempos

"alégrense por esas cosas buenas"

lado a lado
"al mismo tiempo"

nada de lo que viene detrás de él Posibles significados son: 1) "cosa alguna que ocurra en el futuro"; o 2) "cosa alguna que ocurra en el mundo después que él muera"; o 3) "cosa alguna de lo que le ocurrirá después que él muera".

Ecclesiastes 7:15

a pesar de su honradez
"aunque ellos sean justos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

altivos, sabios en sus propios ojos altivos, sabios en sus propios ojos - Estas dos expresiones significan básicamente lo mismo y se unen para dar énfasis.

No sean altivos altivos - "No pienses que eres más justo de lo que realmente eres"

sabios en sus propios ojos Traducción Alterna: "sabios en su propia opinión"

¿Por qué habrían de destruirse ustedes mismos?
El escritor usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que ser altivo destruye a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "No hay razón para destruirte a ti mismo".

Ecclesiastes 7:17

¿Por qué habrían de morir antes de su tiempo?
"No hay razón para que mueran antes de lo que deberían".

se aferren a esta sabiduría
"se comprometan con esta sabiduría"

ustedes... no dejen ir a la justicia
"ustedes no deben dejar de tratar de ser justos" o "ustedes deberían mantenerse tratando de ser justos"

alcanzará todas sus obligaciones
"hará todo lo que Dios espera de él".

Ecclesiastes 7:19

más que diez gobernantes en una ciudad La sabiduría está siendo comparada a muchos gobernantes de una ciudad. La sabiduría puede hacer a una persona más importante que muchos gobernantes de una ciudad.

haga lo bueno y nunca peque Traducción Alterna: "haga buenas obras y no peque"

Ecclesiastes 7:21

Ecclesiastes 7:23

Todo esto lo he probado
"Todo esto sobre lo que ya he escrito lo he probado"

fue más de lo que yo pude ser
"estaba más allá de mi capacidad para entender"

muy lejos y muy profundo
La sabiduría fue difícil de agarrar. Cuando había entendimiento, era muy limitado. Se requería una comprensión más profunda de la que el autor podía obtener. Traducción Alterna: "difícil de entender" ¿Quién puede encontrarla?

El escritor usa esta pregunta para enfatizar la dificultad en entender la sabiduría. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie puede entenderla".

Yo giré mi corazón
Aquí la palabra "corazón" ser refiere a la mente. Traducción Alterna: "Giré mis pensamientos" o "Determiné"

Ecclesiastes 7:26

cualquier mujer cuyo corazón está lleno de trampas y redes, cuyas manos son cadenas
El escritor dice que la mujer seductora es como trampas que usan los cazadores para cazar animales.

cuyo corazón está lleno de trampas y redes Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos y emociones. Esta es una mujer que solo está interesada en su propio beneficio. Traducción Alterna: "que quiere atrapar a alguien"

trampas y redes
Estas dos palabras se refieren a formas en que la gente atrapa animales. Ella continuamente piensa en formas de atrapar hombres para que tengan que darle cosas.

cuyas manos son cadenas Aquí la palabra "manos" se refiere a poder y control. Traducción Alterna: "de quien nadie puede escapar"

el pecador será tomado por ella Traducción Alterna: "ella capturará al pecador"

Ecclesiastes 7:27

Chapter 8

1 ¿Quién es un hombre sabio? ¿Quién sabe qué significan los eventos en la vida? La sabiduría en un hombre hace que su rostro brille, y la dureza de su rostro es cambiada. 2 Yo te aconsejo que obedezcas el mandato del rey por el juramento de Dios a protejerlo. 3 No te apresures a irte de su presencia, y no te levantes en apoyo de algo erróneo, pues el rey hace todo lo que desea. 4 La palabra del rey gobierna, así que, ¿quién le dirá: "Qué estás haciendo?" 5 Quien sea que guarde los mandamientos del rey, evita el daño. El corazón de un hombre sabio, reconoce el curso apropiado y el tiempo de acción. 6 Pues para cada asunto hay una respuesta correcta y un tiempo para responder, porque los problemas del hombre son grandes. 7 Nadie sabe que vendra despues. ¿Quién puede decirle qué viene? 8 Nadie gobierna su aliento, como para detener el aliento, y nadie tiene poder sobre el día de su muerte. Nadie es despedido del ejército durante una batalla, y la maldad no rescatará a aquellos que son sus esclavos. 9 Yo me he dado cuenta de todo esto. Yo he aplicado mi corazón a toda clase de trabajo que se hace debajo del sol. Hay un tiempo cuando una persona oprime a otra hasta que la lastima. 10 Así que, vi a los malvados enterrados públicamente. Eran tomados del área santa y enterrados, y fueron alabados por gente en la ciudad donde habían hecho sus obras malvadas. Esto también es inutilidad. 11 Cuando una sentencia en contra de un crimen malvado no es ejecutada rápidamente, esto seduce a los corazones de los humanos a hacer el mal. 12 Aún si un pecador hace el mal cien veces y aún vive por un largo tiempo, aún sé que le irá bien a aquellos que respetan a Dios, quienes honran Su presencia con ellos. 13 Pero no le irá bien a un hombre malvado; su vida no será prolongada. Sus días son como una sombra fugaz porque no honra a Dios. 14 Hay otro vapor inútil, otra cosa más que se hace en la tierra. Cosas le pasan a las personas justas como le pasan a las personas malvadas, y cosas le pasan a las personas malvadas como le pasan a las personas justas. Yo digo que esto también es vapor inútil. 15 Así que, yo recomiendo la felicidad, porque un hombre no tiene mejor cosa debajo del sol que comer y beber y ser feliz. Es la felicidad lo que le acompañará en su obra todos los días de su vida que Dios le ha dado debajo del sol. 16 Cuando yo apliqué mi corazón para conocer sabiduría y para entender el trabajo que es hecho en la tierra, trabajo a menudo hecho sin sueño para los ojos de noche o de día, 17 entonces yo consideré todas las obras de Dios, y que el hombre no puede entender el trabajo que es hecho debajo del sol. No importa cuánto un hombre trabaje para encontrar la respuesta, no la encontrará. Aunque un hombre sabio pudiera creer que sabe, él realmente no sabe.

Ecclesiastes 8:1

¿Quién es un hombre sabio? ¿Quién sabe qué significan los eventos en la vida?
El escritor formula estas preguntas como guías, para proveer la respuesta en lo que dice después.

causa que su rostro brille Esto significa que la cara de la persona mostrará que ella tiene sabiduría. Traducción Alterna: "se deja ver en su rostro"

la dureza de su rostro Traducción Alterna: "su áspera apariencia"

Ecclesiastes 8:2

el juramento de Dios a protejerlo
"el juramento que tú hiciste ante Dios de protegerlo"

No te apresures a irte de su presencia
Posibles significados son: 1) No tengas prisa de dejar físicamente su presencia; ó 2) Manténte fiel al rey, no te apresures a abandonarlo por otro.

La palabra del rey gobierna Traducción Alterna: "Lo que dice el rey es la ley"

quién le dirá a él
Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede decirle a él"

¿Qué estás haciendo?
Traducción Alterna: "Tú no deberías estar haciendo lo que estás haciendo".

Ecclesiastes 8:5

El corazón de un hombre sabio, reconoce
El "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre sabio reconoce" ¿Quién puede decirle lo que viene?

Chapter 9

1 Pues yo pensaba todas estas cosas en mi mente para poder entender sobre las personas justas y sabias y sus obras. Todas ellas están en las manos de Dios. Nadie sabe si el amor o el odio van a llegar a alguien. 2 Todos tienen el mismo destino. El mismo destino le espera a las personas justas y las malvadas, los buenos, los limpios y los impuros, y el que sacrifica y el que no sacrifica. Así como morirán las personas buenas, así también el pecador. Así como morirá la persona que jura, así también el hombre que teme hacer un juramento. 3 Hay un mal destino para todo lo que se hace debajo del sol, un destino para todos. Los corazones de los seres humanos están llenos de maldad, y la locura está en sus corazones mientras viven. Así que, después de eso van a los muertos. 4 Para cualquiera que está unido a todos los vivos, hay esperanza, así como un perro vivo es mejor que un león muerto. 5 Porque las personas vivas saben que van a morir, pero los muertos no saben nada. Ya no tienen ninguna recompensa porque su memoria es olvidada. 6 Su amor, odio y envidia se han desvanecido hace mucho tiempo. nunca volverán a tener un lugar en nada hecho bajo el sol. 7 Sigue tu camino, come tu pan con alegría, y bebe tu vino con un corazón alegre, pues Dios aprueba la celebración de buenas obras. 8 Deja que tus ropas siempre sean blancas y tu cabeza ungida con aceite. 9 Vive felizmente con la esposa a quien amas todos los días de tu vida de inutilidad, los días que Dios te ha dado debajo del sol durante tus días de inutilidad. Esa es tu recompensa en la vida por tu trabajo debajo del sol. 10 Lo que sea que tu mano encuentre para hacer, trabaja en ello con tu fuerza, porque no hay trabajo o explicación o conocimento o sabiduría en el Seol, a donde tú vas. 11 Yo he visto algunas cosas interesantes debajo del sol: La carrera no le pertenece a las personas rápidas. La batalla no le pertenece a las personas fuertes. El pan no le pertenece a las personas sabias. Las riquezas no le pertenecen a las personas de entendimiento. El favor no le pertenece a las personas de conocimiento. Por el contrario, el tiempo y la suerte les afecta a todos. 12 Pues nadie sabe su tiempo de morir, igual que los peces atrapados en una red de muerte, o como las aves atrapadas en una trampa. Como animales, los seres humanos están encarcelados en tiempos malos que repentinamente caen sobre ellos. 13 Yo también he visto la sabiduría debajo del sol de una manera que me pareció grandiosa. 14 Había una ciudad pequeña con sólo unos pocos hombres en ella, y un gran rey fue contra ella y la sitió y construyó grandes rampas contra ella. 15 Ahora, en la ciudad fue encontrado un hombre sabio pobre, quien, por su sabiduría salvó la ciudad. Pero luego, nadie recordó a ese mismo hombre pobre. 16 Así que, yo concluí: "La sabiduría es mejor que la fuerza, pero la sabiduría del hombre pobre es despreciada, y sus palabras no son escuchadas." 17 Las palabras de las personas sabias habladas suavemente son escuchadas mejor que los gritos de cualquier gobernante entre tontos. 18 La sabiduría es mejor que armas de guerra, pero un pecador puede arruinar mucho bien.

Ecclesiastes 9:1

yo pensaba todas estas cosas en mi mente Traducción Alterna: "Yo pensé profundamente sobre todo esto"

Todas ellas están en las manos de Dios
Aquí la palabra "ellas"se refiere a "las personas justas y sabias" como también "sus obras".

Traducción Alterna: "en la ciudad, la gente encontró un hombre sabio pobre" o "un hombre sabio pobre vivivía en la ciudad"

Ecclesiastes 9:16

la sabiduría del hombre pobre es despreciada Como el hombre era pobre, la gente no apreciaba su sabiduría, ni lo honraba por su sabiduría. Traducción Alterna: "la gente despreciaba la sabiduría del hombre pobre"

sus palabras no son escuchadas
La gente dejó de escucharlo. Traducción Alterna: "ellos no escuchaban lo que él decía" o "ellos no tomaban su consejo"

Ecclesiastes 9:17

Chapter 10

1 Así como las moscas muertas causan que el perfume apeste, así mismo una pequeña tontería puede dominar la sabiduría y el honor. 2 El corazón de una persona sabia se inclina a la derecha, pero el corazón de una persona tonta se inclina a la izquierda. 3 Cuando una persona tonta camina por una ruta, su pensamiento es deficiente, probándole a todas las personas que él es un tonto. 4 Si las emociones de un gobernante se levantan en contra tuya, no dejes tu trabajo. La calma puede tranquilizar una gran furia. 5 Hay un mal que yo he visto debajo del sol, un tipo de error que proviene de un gobernante: 6 a los tontos les son dadas posiciones de liderazgo, mientras que a los hombres exitosos les son dadas posiciones bajas. 7 Yo he visto esclavos montados a caballo, y hombres exitosos caminando como esclavos sobre la tierra. 8 Cualquiera que excave un hoyo puede caer en él, y cuando sea que alguien derrumbe un muro, una serpiente lo puede morder. 9 Quien sea que corte piedras puede ser herido por ellas, y el hombre que corte madera está en peligro por ella. 10 Si una espada de hierro está sin afilar, y un hombre no la afila, entonces debe usar más fuerza, pero la sabiduría provee una ventaja para el éxito. 11 Si una serpiente muerde antes de ser encantada, entonces no hay ventaja para el encantador. 12 Las palabras de la boca de un hombre sabio son corteces, pero los labios de un tonto se lo tragan a él mismo. 13 Mientras las palabras comienzan a fluir de la boca de un tonto, la estupidez sale y al final su boca fluye con locura malvada. 14 Un tonto multiplica las palabras, pero nadie sabe lo que viene. ¿Quién sabe lo que viene después? 15 El trabajo duro de los tontos los cansa, de manera que ni tan siquiera saben el camino al pueblo. 16 ¡Ay de ti, tierra, si tu rey es un muchacho, y si tus líderes comienzan a festejar en la mañana! 17 ¡Pero bendita eres tú, tierra, si tu rey es el hijo de nobles, y si tus líderes comen en el tiempo correcto, para fortaleza y no para emborracharse! 18 Por causa de la pereza el techo se hunde, y por causa de las manos ociosas la casa gotea. 19 Las personas preparan comida para reírse, el vino trae disfrute a la vida, y el dinero provee para toda necesidad. 20 No maldigas al rey, ni tan siquiera en tu mente, y no maldigas a las personas ricas en tu habitación. Porque un pájaro del cielo puede cargar tus palabras; lo que sea que tenga alas puede esparcir el asunto.

Ecclesiastes 10:1

como las moscas muertas ... así mismo una pequeña tontería
Asi como las moscas muertas causan que el perfume apeste, asimismo la tonteria

El corazón de una persona sabia ... el corazón de una persona tonta Aqui la palabra "corazón" se refiere a la mente o deseo. Traducción Alterna: "La forma en que una persona sabia piensa ... la forma en que una persona tonta piensa"

Ecclesiastes 10:15

los cansa
"causa que ellos se sientan cansados"

de manera que ellos ni tan siquiera saben el camino al pueblo Posibles significados son 1) que la persona tonta se cansa de trabajar fuertemente que él no sabe como encontrar su camino para ningun sitio, o 2) que la persona tonta se cansa de trabajar fuertemente porque él no sabe como llegar a su casa.

Ecclesiastes 10:16

¡Ay de ti, tierra ... ¡Pero bendita eres tú, tierra
En estos versos, el escritor esta hablando a la nación como si fuera una persona.

si tu rey es un muchacho joven Esto significa que el rey es sin experiencia o inmaduro. Algunas versiones modernas, sin embargo, interpretan la palabra del Hebreo como "un siervo."

comienzan a festejar en la mañana Esto implica que los líderes estan mas preocupados con pasar un buen tiempo que en dirigir la nación.

rey es el hijo de nobles
Esto implica que el hijo ha sido entrenado por sus ancianos en las costumbres de ser un buen rey.

Ecclesiastes 10:18

Por causa de la vagancia el techo se hunde
La persona vaga no le da el mantenimiento regular de la casa.

por causa de las manos ociosas Traducción Alterna: "por la persona ociosa"

personas preparan comida para reírse Traducción Alterna: "La gente prepara comida para asi reirse"

el vino trae disfrute a la vida Traducción Alterna: "el vino ayuda a la gente a disfrutar de la vida"

el dinero provee para toda necesidad Posibles significados son 1) "el dinero provee para cada necesidad" o 2) "el dinero provee para ambos comida y vino."

Ecclesiastes 10:20

ni tan siquiera en tu mente
" ni tan siquiera en tus pensamientos" personas ricas en tu habitación

" personas ricas cuando estas en tu cuarto." Esto significa que no debes maldecir a las personas ricas aun cuando estes en un lugar privado donde nadie te puede oir.

Porque un pájaro del cielo ... puede cargar tus palabras
Estas dos líneas significan básicamente lo mismo y son combinadas con el énfasis. El escritor usa la metáfora de un pájaro para decir que las personas van a encontrar lo que dijiste, de una forma u otra.

Chapter 12

1 También recuerda a tu Creador en los días de tu juventud, antes de que los días de dificultad lleguen y antes de que los años lleguen cuando tú digas: "No tengo ningún placer en ellos;" 2 haz esto antes de que la luz del sol y la luna y las estrellas se oscurezca y nubes oscuras regresen después de la lluvia. 3 Ese será el tiempo cuando la guarda del palacio tiemble, y los hombres fuertes se joroben, y las mujeres dejen de moler porque son pocas, y aquellos que miran por las ventanas ya no vean claramente. 4 Ese será el tiempo cuando las puertas se cierren en la calle, y el sonido de las tiendas de moler se detiene, cuando los hombres son sorprendidos por la voz de un ave, y el cantar de las voces de las niñas se desvanece. 5 Ese será el tiempo cuando los hombres le tendrán miedo a las alturas y a los peligros en el camino, y cuando el árbol de almendra florecerá, y cuando las langostas se arrastrarán, y cuando los deseos naturales fallarán. Entonces el hombre va a su hogar eterno y los dolientes bajan por las calles. 6 Recuerda a tu Creador antes de que se corte el cordón de plata, o el envase dorado sea aplastado, o la jarra sea quebrada en el arroyo, o la rueda del molino sea rota en el pozo, 7 antes de que el polvo regrese a la tierra de donde vino, y el espíritu regrese a Dios que lo dio. 8 "Una neblina de vapor," dice el Maestro, "todo es vapor que se desvanece." 9 El Maestro era sabio y le enseñó conocimiento a la gente. Él estudió y comtempló y ordenó muchos proverbios. 10 El Maestro buscó escribir usando palabras vivas de verdad, y rectas. 11 Las palabras de las personas sabias son como aguijones. Como clavos metidos profundamente son las palabras de los maestros en el conjunto de sus proverbios, que son enseñados por un pastor. 12 Hijo mío, sé consciente de algo más: el hacer muchos libros, lo que no tiene fin, y el mucho estudio traen fatiga al cuerpo. 13 La conclusión del asunto luego de que todo haya sido escuchado, es que debes temer a Dios y guardar sus mandamientos, porque esto es el deber de la humanidad. 14 Pues Dios traerá toda obra a juicio, junto a toda cosa escondida, sea buena o mala.

Ecclesiastes 12:1

"No tengo ningún placer en ellos;"
Aquí la palabra "ellos" se refiere a los años.

Ecclesiastes 12:3

Información general

Book: Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon

Chapter 1

1 El Cantar de los Cantares, que Salomón escribió. La joven mujer hablando a su amado. 2 ¡Oh, si el me besara con sus besos de su boca, porque su amor es mejor que el vino! 3 Tus aceites de unción tienen una fragancia deleitosa; tu nombre es como un perfume que fluye, así las jóvenes mujeres te aman. 4 Llévame contigo y correremos. La mujer hablándo a sí misma: el rey me ha traído a sus habitaciones. La mujer hablando a su amado: yo me alegro y me regocijo por ti; déjame celebrar tu amor; es mejor que el vino. Es natural que otras mujeres te adoren. La mujer hablando a la otra mujer. 5 Soy morena pero hermosa, ustedes hijas de los hombres de Jerusalén, morena como las tiendas de Cedar, hermosa como las cortinas de Salomón. 6 No me mires fijamente porque mi piel es oscura, porque el sol me ha quemado. Los hijos de mi madre se enojaron conmigo; me hicieron la cuidadora de los viñedos, pero mi propio viñedo no cuidé. La mujer hablando a su amado. 7 Dime, tú a quien yo amo: ¿Dónde das de comer a tu rebaño? ¿Dónde haces descansar a tu rebaño al mediodía? ¿Porqué debería ser yo como alguien que vaga junto al rebaño de tus compañeros? Su amado le contesta: 8 Si no lo sabes, la más bella entre las mujeres, sigue las huellas de mi rebaño y pastorea tus cabritos cerca de las tiendas de los pastores. 9 Yo te comparo, mi amada, a una yegüa entre los caballos de los carros de Faraón. 10 Tus mejillas son hermosas con adornos, tu cuello con collares de joyas. 11 Yo haré para tí adornos de oro con cuentas de plata. La mujer hablando a sí misma. 12 Mientras el rey se recostaba en su cojín, mi nardo emitía su fragancia. 13 Mi amado es para mí como un saquito de mirra que pasa la noche descansando entre mis pechos. 14 Mi amado es para mí como un racimo de flores de alheña en los viñedos de En Gadi. El amado hablándole a ella. 15 En realidad, tu eres hermosa, mi amada; en realidad, tu eres hermosa; tus ojos son como palomas. La amada hablando a su amado. 16 En realidad, tu eres hermoso, mi amado, que bien parecido. Las abundantes plantas sirven como nuestro lecho. 17 Las vigas de nuestra casa son las ramas de los árboles de cedro y nuestro techo son ramas de ciprés.

Chapter 2

1 Yo soy sólo una flor en la llanura, sólo un lirio en el valle. El hombre hablándole a ella 2 Como un lirio entre espinos, así eres tú, mi amor, entre las hijas de los campesinos. La mujer hablando a sí misma 3 Como un árbol de albaricoque es entre los árboles del bosque, así es mi amado entre los hombres jóvenes. Yo me siento bajo su sombra con gran deleite y su fruto es dulce para mi gusto. 4 Él me trajo al salón de banquete y su bandera sobre mí fue su amor. La mujer hablando a su amado 5 Reanímame con tortas de pasas y refréscame con albaricoques, porque estoy débil de amor. La mujer hablándo a sí misma: 6 su mano izquierda está bajo mi cabeza y su mano derecha me abraza. La mujer hablándo a otras mujeres. 7 Quiero que me prometan, hijas de Jerusalén, por las gacelas y las ciervas de los campos, que ustedes no interrumpirán mientras hacemos el amor hasta que terminemos. La mujer hablando a sí misma 8 ¡Ahí está el sonido de mi amado! ¡Oh!, ahí viene, dando brincos sobre las montañas, saltando sobre las colinas. 9 Mi amado es como una gacela o como un cervatillo; miren, se detiene detrás de nuestro muro, mirando a través de la ventana, mirando a través del enrejado. 10 Mi amado me habló diciendo: "Levántate, mi amada; hermosa mía, ven conmigo. 11 Mira, el invierno ya pasó; la lluvia terminó y se fue. 12 Han aparecido las flores en la tierra; la temporada de poda y el canto de los pájaros ha llegado y el sonido de las palomas es escuchado en nuestra tierra. 13 El árbol de higos ha madurado sus higos verdes y los viñedos están florecidos; ellos dan su fragancia. Levántate mi amada, mi hermosa y ven. 14 Paloma mía, que estas en la grieta de la roca, en las secretas grietas de los riscos de la montaña, déjame ver tu rostro. Déjame escuchar tu voz, porque tu voz es dulce y tu rostro es hermoso." La mujer hablándo a sí misma. 15 Atrapa las zorras por nosotros, las zorras pequeñas que arruinan el viñedo, porque nuestro viñedo está floreciendo. 16 Mi amado es mío y yo soy de él; el pastorea entre los lirios con placer. La mujer hablando a su amado: 17 vete mi amado, antes que el viento suave del amanecer sople y las sombras desaparezcan. Vete; sé como una gacela o un joven ciervo en las escabrosas montañas.

Información general
Ver: y

Yo soy sólo una flor en la llanura
La mujer se compara a sí misma con una flor en la llanura para enfatizar que ella es una joven común y frágil del campo que no merece toda la atención que su amante le está dando.

La llanura
Un pedazo de tierra que es plana, que no tiene árboles y en la cual crecen diferentes tipos de pastos y flores

Sólo un lirio en el valle
La mujer se compara a sí misma con un lirio en el valle por la misma razón que ella se comparó con una flor en la llanura.

Lirio
Una flor con aroma agradable que tiene forma de trompeta

El valle
Esto se refiere a un área plana y larga entre montañas.

Como un lirio...los campesinos
El hombre quiere decir que la mujer es mucho más hermosa y preciosa que todas las demás mujeres, tal como el lirio es mucho más hermoso y precioso que todas las espinas que pueden rodearlo.

Información general
El amado de la mujer está hablando

Paloma mía
El amado de la mujer compara a la mujer con una paloma porque ella tiene un rostro hermoso y ua voz hermosa, así como la paloma, y también porque él estaba con ella en un lugar lejos de las demás personas, así como las palomas viven lejos de las personas.

La grieta de la roca
Los lugares secretos de los riscos. Las grietas son rupturas en los bordes de las rocas de las montañas.

en las secretas grietas de los riscos de la montaña
En los lugares secretos de los lados inclinados de la montaña. Esta frase describe el lugar donde el amado quiere ver el rostro de la mujer.

Tu rostro
"tu apariencia" o "tu forma" o "cómo luces"

Song of Solomon 2:15

Los chacales
Esto también podría traducirse como "los zorros". Estos animales son como perros pequeños. La palabra "zorros" se usaba frecuentemente en la poesía del amor para representar a los hombres jóvenes malos que querían arruinar a una mujer joven

por nosotros
"nosotros" podría referirse a 1) la mujer y su amante o 2) la mujer y el resto de su familia

Los chacales pequeños
"Los chacales jóvenes". Los chacales dan a luz a sus crías en la primavera, cuando los viñedos florecen.

Que arruinan
"Que dañan" o "que destruyen". Los chacales y zorros destruyen los viñedos cavando hoyos y comiendo las viñas y las uvas. Esto también podría representar a los hombres jóvenes que aruinan a las mujeres jóvenes.

está floreciendo
Esto podría representar a una joven mujer lista para casarse y tener hijos. Mira cómo tradujiste esto en 2:12.

Chapter 3

1 En la noche en mi cama yo estaba buscando al que amo; yo le busqué, pero no pude encontrarle. 2 Me dije a mí misma: "Me levantaré e ire a través de la ciudad, a través de las calles y las plazas; yo buscaré a mi amado." Yo lo busqué pero no lo encontré. 3 Los vigilantes me encontraron mientras hacían sus rondas en la ciudad. Yo les pregunté: "¿Ustedes han visto a mi amado?" 4 Fue poco después de haberlos pasado que encontré a aquel a quien ama mi alma. Lo agarré y no le deje ir hasta que lo llevé a la casa de mi madre, a la habitación de la que me concibió. La mujer hablando a las otras mujeres. 5 Quiero que ustedes juren, hijas de los hombres de Jerusalén, por las gacelas y los antílopes del campo, que no nos interrumpirán hasta que terminemos de hacer el amor. La joven mujer hablando a sí misma. 6 ¿Qué es lo que viene desde el desierto como una columna de humo, perfumado con incienso y mirra, con todos los polvos vendidos por mercaderes? 7 Miren, es la cama de Salomón; sesenta guerreros la rodean, sesenta soldados de Israel. 8 Ellos son expertos con la espada y diestros en guerra. Cada hombre tiene su espada a su lado, armados contra los terrores de la noche. 9 El rey Salomón hizo para sí un carruaje de madera del Líbano. 10 Sus postes eran hechos de plata; la parte trasera de oro y su silla en tela de púrpura. Su interior era decorado con amor por las hijas de los hombres de Jerusalén. La joven mujer hablando a las mujeres de Jerusalén: 11 sálgan hijas de los hombres de Sión, miren al rey Salomón luciendo la corona con la que su madre lo coronó el día de su boda, en ese feliz día de su vida.

Chapter 5

1 Yo he entrado a mi jardín, mi hermana, mi novia; yo he unido mi mirra con mi especia. Yo he comido mi panal con mi miel; yo he bebido mi vino con mi leche. Los amigos hablando a los amantes: coman, amigos; beban y embriáguense con amor. La mujer joven hablando con ella misma. 2 Yo estaba dormida, pero mi corazón estaba despierto en un sueño. Hay un sonido de mi amado llamando y diciendo: "Ábreme a mí, mi hermana, mi amor, mi paloma, mi perfecta, pues mi cabeza está mojada con rocío, mi cabello con la humedad de la noche." 3 "Yo me he quitado mi túnica; ¿debería yo ponermela otra vez? Yo me he lavado mis pies; ¿debería yo ensuciármelos?" 4 Mi amado puso sus manos a través de la apertura del cerrojo de la puerta y mi corazón fue movido por él. 5 Yo me levanté para abrirle la puerta para mi amado; mis manos estaban goteando mirra, mis dedos húmedos con mirra, en la manija de la puerta. 6 Yo abrí la puerta para mi amado, pero mi amado se había volteado e ido. Mi corazón se hundió; Yo me desanime. Yo lo busqué, pero no lo encontré a él; Yo lo llamé, pero él no me contestó. 7 El guardián quien fue cerca de la ciudad me encontró; ellos me golpearon y me hirieron; los guardias en las murrallas se llevaron mi manto. La mujer joven hablando a las mujeres de la ciudad. 8 Yo quiero que ustedes prometan, hijas de Jerusalén, que si ustedes encuentran a mi amado, díganle que yo estoy enferma por mi amor por él. Las mujeres de la ciudad hablando a la mujer joven. 9 ¿Cómo es tu amado mejor que otro hombre amado, tú quien eres hermosa entre las mujeres? ¿Por qué es tu amado mejor que otro amado, que tú nos pides hacer un pacto como este? La joven mujer hablando a las mujeres de la ciudad. 10 Mi amado es radiante y sonrosado, sobresaliendo entre diez mil. 11 Su cabeza es hermosa como el oro más puro; su pelo es rizo y negro como un cuervo. 12 Sus ojos son como palomas al lado de las corrientes de agua, lavados en leche, montados como joyas. 13 Sus cachetes son como una cama de especias, produciendo un aromático olor. Sus labios son como lirios, goteando mirra. 14 Sus brazos son redondos como el oro rodeado con joyas; su abdomen es márfil cubierto con safiros. 15 Sus piernas son como pilares de mármol, establecido sobre bases de oro puro; su apariencia es como el Líbano, deseado como los cedros. 16 Su boca es la más dulce; él es completamente encantador. Este es mi amado, y este es mi amigo, hijas de Jerusalén.

Mi perfecta
"Mi fiel, mi inocente"

Rocío
Gotas de agua o rocío que se forman durante el frío de la noche, cuando la temperatura desciende.

Mi cabello con la humedad de la noche
El aire húmedo de la noche hace que el cabello del hombre esté húmedo porque él está afuera.

mi cabeza está mojada con rocío, mi cabello con la humedad de la noche Estas dos oraciones significan básicamente lo mismo.

Song of Solomon 5:3

Túnica
Ropa fina y delgada que las personas usaban en su piel

¿debería yo ponermela otra vez?
Traducción alterna: No quiero ponérmela de nuevo.

Yo me he lavado mis pies
Las posibles interpretaciones son 1) la joven mujer había lavado sus pies para poder ir a la cama o 2) La palabra "pies" a veces se usa como eufemismos para referirse a las partes privadas de una mujer. Traducción alterna: "Me lavé"

Mi amado puso sus manos a través de la apertura del pestillo de la puerta
Los posibles significados son 1) el amante pone sus manos a través de un hollo en la puerta para poder abrirla o 2) Esto describe el inicio del acto sexual. En este contexto, "manos" funcionaría como un eufemismo para las partes privadas del hombre.

1 ¿A dónde se ha ido tu amado, más hermosa de las mujeres? ¿En qué dirección se ha ido tu amado, para que podamos buscarlo contigo? La mujer joven hablando a sí misma. 2 Mi amado ha bajado hacia su jardín, a las camas de especias, para pastorear en el jardín y recoger lirios. 3 Yo soy de mi amado, y mi amado es mío; el pastorea alrededor de los lirios con placer. El amado de la mujer hablándole a ella. 4 Tú eres hermosa como Tirsa, mi amor, encantadora como Jerusalén, impresionante como un ejército abanderado. 5 Pon tus ojos lejos de mí, pues ellos me abruman. Tu cabello es como un rebaño de cabras bajando de los montes de Galaad, 6 Tus dientes son como un rebaño de ovejas que suben del lugar de lavado. Cada una tiene una gemela, y ninguna entre ellas está afligida. 7 Tus cachetes son como mitades de granadas detrás de tu velo. El amante de la mujer hablándose a sí mismo 8 Hay sesenta reinas, ochenta concubinas, y mujeres jóvenes sin número. 9 Mi paloma, mi perfecta, es la única; es la hija especial de su madre; ella es la favorita de las mujeres que la cargaron. Las hijas de mis compatriotas la miraron y la llamaron bendita; las reinas y las concubinas la miraron también y la alabaron. Lo que las reinas y concubinas dijeron: 10 "¿Quién es esta que aparece como el amanecer, tan hermosa como la luna, tan brillante como el sol, tan impresionante como un ejército abanderado?" El amante de la mujer hablándose a sí mismo. 11 Yo bajé al bosque de los árboles de nueces para ver el crecimiento joven en el valle, para ver si los viñedos han reverdecido, y si las granadas estaban en flor. 12 Yo estaba tan feliz que sentí que estaba montado en el carruaje de un príncipe. El amante de la mujer hablándole a ella. 13 Regresa, regresa, tú, mujer perfecta; regresa, regresa para que yo pueda mirarte. Chapter 8

1 Desearía que fueras como mi hermano, quien se amamantó en los pechos de mi madre. Entonces, cuando sea que te encuentre afuera, yo podría besarte, y nadie me avergonzaría. 2 Yo te guiaría y te traería a la casa de mi madre, y tú me enseñarías. Te daría vino con especias y algo de jugo de mis granadas. La joven mujer habla consigo misma: 3 Su mano izquierda está bajo mi cabeza y su mano derecha me abraza. La mujer habla con las otras mujeres. 4 Yo quiero que me juren, hijas de los hombres de Jerusalén, que no interrumpirán nuestro hacer el amor hasta que se acabe. Las mujeres de Jerusalén hablando. 5 ¿Quién es este que viene subiendo del desierto, recostándose en su amada? La joven mujer está hablándole a su amante: yo te desperté bajo el árbol de melocotón, ahí donde tu madre te concibió, allí ella te dió a luz, ella te entregó. 6 Ponme como un sello sobre tu corazón, como un sello sobre tu brazo, pues el amor es tan fuerte como la muerte. La devoción apasionada es tan fuerte como el Seol; sus llamas estallaron, es una llama ardiendo, una llama más caliente que cualquier otro fuego. 7 Las aguas embravecidas no pueden apagar el amor, ni las inundaciones pueden barrerlo. Si un hombre da todas las posesiones en su casa por amor, la oferta sería absolutamente rechazada. Los hermanos de la joven mujer hablan entre ellos. 8 Tenemos una hermana menor, y sus pechos aún no han crecido. ¿Qué podemos hacer nosotros por nuestra hermana en el día cuando ella sea prometida en matrimonio? 9 Si ella es una pared, nosotros construiremos en ella una torre de plata. Si ella es una puerta, nosotros la adornaremos con tablas de cedro. La mujer joven habla consigo misma. 10 Yo era una pared, pero mis pechos son ahora como las torres de una fortaleza; entonces yo estoy completamente madura en sus ojos. La mujer joven habla consigo misma. 11 Salomón tenía un viñedo en Baal Hamón. Él alquiló el viñedo a aquellos que lo atenderían. Cada uno debía traer mil siclos de plata para su fruto. 12 Mi viñedo es propiamente mío; los mil siclos te pertenecen a tí, mi querido Salomón, y los doscientos siclos son para aquellos que lo atienden por su fruto. El amante de la mujer le está hablando a ella. 13 Tú que vives en los jardínes, mis compañeros están escuchando tu voz; déjame ser quien la escucha también. La mujer joven le habla a su amante. 14 Apúrate, mi amado, y sé como una gacela o un ciervo joven en las montañas de especias.

Información general
La mujer joven continúa hablando a su amante

Ponme como un sello sobre tu corazón, como un sello sobre tu brazo Los posibles significados son: 1) Ya que los sellos eran muy importantes, las personas los usaban alrededor de su cuello o en su mano fuerte. La mujer quiere estar con su amado constantemente como un sello. 2) Un sello muestra quien posee la cosa que tiene el sello puesto. La mujer quiere ser el sello en el corazón y brazo de su amante para poder decir que todos sus pensamientos, emociones y acciones le pertenecen a ella.

Pues el amor es tan fuerte como la muerte
La muerte es fuerte porque esta llega a las personas más poderosas del mundo.

tan implacable como el Seol
"Tan dura como el Seol". El Seol no permite que las personas vuelvan a la vida una vez que ellos ya han muerto. El amor es tan persistente como el Seol porque nunca cambia.

sus llamas estallaron,cualquier otro fuego
El amor es tan poderoso como el fuego.

estallaron
se prendieron de repente

Song of Solomon 8:7

Información general
La mujer continúa hablando a su amante

Las aguas embravecidas no pueden apagar el amor
El amor es tan fuerte que es como un fuego tan ardiente que no se apaga ni con un océano lleno de agua.

aguas embravecidas
"océanos de agua" o "mucha cantidad de agua"

no pueden apagar
no pueden extinguir, no pueden acabar ni las inundaciones pueden barrerlo

El amor nunca cambia, siempre es el mismo, y es algo que nisiquiera una poderosa inundación puede mover.

Inundaciones
En Israel, el agua de lluvia pasa por valles angostos. Esto crea una inundación de agua tan poderosa que puede mover enormes rocas y árboles. Incluso hoy, las inundaciones a veces se llevan por delante puentes muy fuertes.

barrerlo
llevarlo, hacerlo desaparecer

Si un hombre diera...la oferta sería absolutamente rechazada
"Incluso si un hombre...él sería completamente rechazado" todas las posesiones en su casa todo lo que él posee

por amor
con el fin de recibir amor, con el fin de comprar amor

la oferta sería absolutamente rechazada
"las personas lo rechazarían completamente" o "las personas se burlarían de él duramente". (ver:

Song of Solomon 8:8

Traducción alterna: "un hombre venga y quiera casarse con ella"

Song of Solomon 8:9

Información general
Los hermanos de la mujer siguen hablando entre ellos

Si ella es una pared...tablas de cedro
Porque sus pechos son pequeños, ella tiene un pecho plano, así como una pared plana o puerta plana. Los hermanos deciden adornarla para que ella luzca más hermosa.

Book: Isaiah

Isaiah

Chapter 1

1 La visión de Isaías hijo de Amoz, que él vió respecto a Judá y Jerusalén, en los días de Uzías, Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías, reyes de Judá. 2 Oigan, cielos, y escucha, tierra; porque El SEÑOR ha hablado: 'Yo He alimentado y He criado niños, pero ellos se han revelado contra Mí. 3 El buey conoce su dueño, y el burro el establo de su amo, pero Israel desconoce, Israel no entiende. 4 ¡Ay! ¡Nación, pecadores, un pueblo cargado con iniquidad, descendientes de malhechores, hijos que actúan corruptamente! Ellos han abandonado EL SEÑOR, ellos han despreciado EL SANTO DE ISRAEL, se han alejado ellos mismos de Él. 5 ¿Por qué todavía están siendo castigados? ¿Por qué se revelan más y más? Toda la cabeza está enferma, el corazón entero está débil. 6 Desde la planta del pie hasta la cabeza no hay nada sano, solamente heridas, moretones, y heridas recién abiertas; no han sido cerradas, limpiadas, vendadas, ni tratadas con aceite. 7 Su país está arruinado; sus ciudades están quemadas; sus campos - delante de ustedes, extraños están destruyéndolos - devastación perversa, derrocada por extraños. 8 La hija de Sion es abandonada como una choza en una viña, como una cabaña en un jardín de pepinos, como una ciudad sitiada. 9 Si El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos no nos hubiera dejado un pequeño remanente, hubiésemos sido como Sodoma, hubiésemos sido como Gomorra. 10 Oigan la Palabra del SEÑOR, ustedes gobernantes de Sodoma; escuchen a la ley de nuestro Dios, ustedes pueblo de Gomorra: 11 "¿Qué es para Mí la multitud de sus sacrificios?" dice El SEÑOR. "Ya He tenido suficiente sacrificios quemados de carneros, y la grasa de bestias cebadas; y en la sangre de bueyes, corderos, o cabras Yo no me deleito." 12 Cuando vienen a presentarse ante mí, ¿quién a requerido ésto de ustedes, el pisotear mis cortes? 13 No traigan más ofrendas insensatas; inciensio es una abominación para mí; su luna nueva y asambleas del día de reposo - Yo no puedo tolerar estas asambleas inicuas. 14 Aborrezco sus celebraciones de lunas nuevas y sus fechas designadas; son un carga para Mí; Yo estoy cansado de soportarlas. 15 Así que cuando extienden sus manos en oración, Yo escondo mis ojos de ustedes; aunque ustedes ofrezcan muchas oraciones, no escucharé; sus manos están llenas de sangre. 16 Lávense, límpiense, quiten la maldad de sus obras de delante de Mi vista, dejen de ser malvados; 17 aprendan hacer el bien, busquen la justicia, rectifiquen la opresión, hagan justicia a los huérfanos, defiendan la viuda. 18 "Vengan ahora, y razonemos juntos," dice El SEÑOR; "aunque sus pecados son como escarlata, éstos serán blancos como la nieve; aunque son rojos como el carmesí, éstos serán como la lana. 19 " Si ustedes quieren y obedecen, ustedes comerán lo mejor de la tierra, 20 pero si ustedes se rehúsan y revelan, la espada los devorará," pues la boca del SEÑOR lo ha dicho. 21 ¡Cómo la ciudad fiel se ha convertido en una prostituta! Ella que estaba llena de justicia - ella estaba llena de integridad, pero ahora ella está llena de asesinos. 22 Su plata se ha convertido en impureza, su vino mezclado con agua. 23 Sus príncipes son rebeldes y compañeros de ladrones; cada uno ama el soborno y corre tras las recompensas. Ellos no defienden los huérfanos, ni las plegarias legales de la viuda llegan ante ellos. 24 Por tanto, ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, El Poderoso de Israel "¡Ay de ellos! Yo voy a tomar venganza contra Mis adversarios, y me vindicaré a Mí mismo contra Mis enemigos; 25 Volveré mi mano contra ustedes, refinaré tu escoria como con lejía, y quitaré toda tu escoria. 26 Restauraré tus jueces como al comienzo, y tus consejeros como al principio; después de esto tú serás llamada la Ciudad de Justicia, una ciudad fiel." 27 Sion será redimida mediante juicio, y sus arrepentidos por justicia. 28 Rebeldes y pecadores serán aplastados juntos, y aquellos que abandonan al SEÑOR serán eliminados. 29 "Pues tú te avergonzarás de los robles sagrados que deseaste, y tú tendrás vergüenza por los jardines que tú has escogido. 30 Pues tú serás como un roble cuya hoja se desvanece, y como un jardín que no tiene agua. 31 El hombre fuerte será como pajuela y su trabajo como una chispa; arderán juntos y no habrá quien los aplaque.

Isaiah 1:1

"La visión de Isaías ... la cual él vio"
"Esta es la visión de Isaías...que el SEÑOR le mostró" o " Esto es lo que el SEÑOR le mostró a Isaías".

"Amoz"
"Amoz fue el padre de Isaías. "

"Judá y Jerusalén"
"Judá" se refiere al reino del sur de Israel. "Jerusalén" fue su ciudad más importante. TA: " aquellos que viven en Judá y Jerusalén" o " las personas de Judá y Jerusalén" "

"En los días de Uzías, Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías, reyes de Judá"
"Se refiere al tiempo en que cada rey reinó. Ellos reinaron uno después del otro, no todos al mismo tiempo. Traducción Alterna: " cuando Uzías, Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías eran reyes de Judá\" "

Isaiah 1:2

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Oígan, cielos, y escuchen, tierra
Aunque estas profecías fueron hechas para que la gente de Jerusalén y Judá las oigan, Isaías sabe que ellos no las escucharán. Posibles significados: 1)Él habla en apóstrofe, como si los "cielos" y la "tierra" pudieran escuchar lo que el SEÑOR dijo, o 2) Las palabras "cielos" y "tierra" son metonimias y un merismo para todos los seres vivos en cualquier lugar. TA: " Ustedes que viven en los cielos... ustedes que viven en la tierra".

Yo he alimentado... no entiende
Palabras que el SEÑOR habló y que Isaías habla a los israelitas en nombre del SEÑOR.

Yo he alimentado y he hecho crecer niños
El SEÑOR habla como si sus palabras fueran alimento y como si los israelitas fueran sus niños. Traducción Alterna: "He cuidado de la gente de Judá como si ellos fueran mis hijos"

Y el burro el pesebre de su amo
"El burro conoce el pesebre de su amo" o " el burro sabe dónde su amo lo alimenta"

Pero Israel no sabe, Israel no entiende.
Esto posiblemente significa " pero la gente de Israel no me conoce a mí, ellos no entienden que yo soy el que cuida de ellos".

Israel
"La gente de Israel". Judá es parte de lo que había sido la nación de Israel.

Isaiah 1:4

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Nación, pecadores
Los posibles significados son 1) Isaías está diciendo dos cosas distintas sobre ellos o 2) Él sólo está diciendo una cosa sobre ellos, "Nación de pecadores" (UDB).

Un pueblo cargado por inequidades
Algo muy pesado que una persona carga es una metáfora para su cantidad de pecados. Traducción Alterna: "sus pecados son como una mochila pesada en sus hombros que hace que caminar les sea difícil"

Descendencia de malhechores
La palabra "descendencia" es una metáfora para las personas que hacen lo mismo que otros han hecho. Traducción Alterna: "Personas que hacen el mismo mal que ven hacer a otros"

Actúan corruptos
Hacen malos actos

Han abandonado al SEÑOR
"Ellos se han apartado del SEÑOR"

Han despreciado
"Se han negado a obedecer" o " se han negado a respetar"

Israel
Judá es parte de lo que había sido la nación de Israel

Se han alejado de Él
A pesar de que en algún momento ellos eran amigos, ahora lo tratan como si no lo conocieran.

Isaiah 1:5

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

¿Por qué todavía están siendo abatidos? ¿Por qué se rebelan más y más?
Isaías usa estas preguntas para retar a las personas de Judá. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Todavía siguen haciendo cosas por las que el SEÑOR los castigará. Siguen rebelándose contra Él".

Están siendo abatidos... se rebelan
Se refiere a las personas que viven en Judá.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Toda la cabeza está enferma, el corazón entero está débil
Esto compara a la nación de Israel con una persona que ha sido golpeada. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes son como alguien cuya cabeza está herida y cuyo corazón está débil" o "Ustedes son como alguien que tiene la mente y el corazón enfermo"

No hay nada que esté sano Esto puede ser expresado de manera positiva. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cada una de sus partes ha sido lastimada" o "Alguien ha lastimado cada una de sus partes"

no han sido cerradas, limpiadas, vendadas, ni tratadas con aceite Esto compara el castigo que Dios le dió a Israel con heridas físicas. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie las ha cerrado, limpiado, vendado o tratado con aceite"

Isaiah 1:7

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Tu país está arruinado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos han arruinado tu país" o " Tus enemigos han arruinado tu país"

Tus ciudades están quemadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos han quemado tus ciudades"

Delante de ustedes, sus campos son destruidos por extraños
"Las personas que no son de su propio país roban las cosechas de sus campos mientras ustedes los ven".

Una devastación abandonada
"Vacío y destruido". Esta frase sustantiva abstracta se expresa como frases verbales. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos han destruido la tierra y nadie vive ahí".

Derrocada por extraños
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " los extraños han derrocado su país" o " un ejercito extranjero lo ha conquistado completamente"

La hija de Sión es abandonada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Yo he abadonado a la hija de Sión"

La hija de Sión
La "hija" de una ciudad hace referencia a las personas de la ciudad. "El pueblo de Sión" o " Las personas que viven en Sión"

Es abandonada como una choza en una viña, como una cabaña en un pepinar Los significados posibles son 1) "Se ha convertido tan pequeña como una choza en una viña o una cabaña en un pepinar"

Pepinas, como una ciudad sitiada
Otra traducción posible es "pepinar. Sión es una ciudad sitiada".

Isaiah 1:9

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Israel en forma de poema.

Si el SEÑOR
Esto describe algo que pudo haber sucedido en el pasado pero que no sucedió.

un pequeño remanente
"Unos pocos sobrevivientes"

nos hubiera...hubiésemos Aquí estas palabras se refieren a Isaías e incluye a las personas de Judá y Jerusalén.

hubiésemos sido como Sodoma, hubiésemos sido como Gomorra Cómo Judá pudo haber sido como Sodoma y Gomorra puede ser expresado de manera explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Dios pudo habernos destruido, como Él destruyó las ciudades de Sodoma y Gomorra".

Isaiah 1:10

Información general:
Isaías le habla a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Ustedes gobernantes de Sodoma... ustedes pueblo de Gomorra Isías compara a la gente de Judá con la gente de Sodoma y Gomorra para enfatizar que se volvieron muy pecadores. Traducción Alterna: " ustedes gobernantes son tan pecadores como el pueblo de Sodoma... ustedes son tan malos como aquellos que vivían en Gomorra".

¿Qué es para Mí la multitud de sus sacrificios?
Dios está usando una pregunta para retar al pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "¡Su gran cantidad de sacrificios no significa nada para mí!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Isaiah 1:12

Información general:
Isaías comunica las palabras del SEÑOR al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

¿quién ha requerido esto de ti, para pisotear mis cortes?
La palabra "pisotear" significa pisar y aplastar con el pie. Dios usa esta pregunta para retar a las personas que viven en Judá. Traducción Alterna: " ¡nadie te dijo que pisaras fuerte en mis patios!"

No traigas más ofrendas sin sentido
"No me traigas más de tus regalos sin valor"

El incienso es una abominación para mí
Esto puede ser dicho de otra manera para que el sustantivo abstracto "abominación" se exprese como el verbo "odiar". Traducción Alterna: " Yo odio el incienso que los sacerdotes queman"

No puedo tolerar estas asambleas de iniquidades Posibles significados son 1) "no puedo permitir que se reunan porque hacen cosas malvadas" o 2) "no puedo permitirme ver que se reunen a causa de las cosas malvadas que hacen ".

Isaiah 1:14

Información general:
Isaías comunica las palabras del SEÑOR al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Sus lunas nuevas y sus festividades fijas
Las palabras "lunas nuevas" son un metónimo para las celebraciones de la luna nueva y un sinécdoque para todas las celebraciones habituales. Traducción Alterna: " tus celebraciones de luna nueva y tus otras festividades habituales" y

Lunas nuevas
La luna nueva sucede cuando la luna muestra luz por primera vez después de haber estado oscura.

Son una carga para mí; estoy cansado de soportarlas
Esto compara cómo se siente Dios sobre las celebraciones del pueblo con llevar un objeto pesado. Traducción Alterna: "sus celebraciones son una carga pesada que estoy cansado de llevar".

Oculto mis ojos de ustedes
Esto es una forma de decir " No los miraré" o "No les prestaré atención"

Sus manos están llenas de sangre
Por este motivo Dios no escuchará sus oraciones. La sangre probablemente se refiere a la violencia con la que actuaron en contra de las personas. Traducción Alterna: "porque es como si sus manos estuvieran cubiertas con la sangre de aquellos a los que ustedes lastimaron" o "porque son culpables de la violencia"

Isaiah 1:16

Información general:
Isaías comunica las palabras del SEÑOR al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Lávense, límpiense
Aquí Dios compara a una persona que deja de pecar con una persona que lava su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "Arrepíentanse y limpien el pecado de su corazón como limpian la suciedad de su cuerpo"

Quiten la maldad de sus obras de mi vista Dios no les estaba diciendo que hagan el mal en cualquier otro lugar, sino que dejen de hacerlo. Traducción Alterna: "dejen de hacer las malvadas obras que veo que hacen".

Den justicia a los huérfanos
"sean justos con los niños que no tienen padres"

Defiendan a la viuda
"protejan a las mujeres cuyos maridos han muerto".

Isaiah 1:18

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa hablandole al pueblo de Judá

Vengan ahora y
El SEÑOR gentilmente y amablemente invita a la gente a que escuche lo que Él está por decir. "Por favor, escúchenme." o " Presten atención, Yo los quiero ayudar".

Razonemos juntos
El SEÑOR invita a las personas a discutir sobre el futuro. "razonemos sobre esto juntos" o " necesitamos discutir sobre esto" o "¿qué vamos a hacer?" La palabra "vamos" se refiere al SEÑOR y también a las personas de Judá.

Aunque sus pecados son como escarlata, serán blancos como la nieve; aunque sean rojos como el carmesí, serán como la lana Isaías le habla a la gente como si ellos estuvieran usando ropa que supuestamente es blanca como la lana y les habla de sus pecados como si fueran manchas rojas en la ropa. Si el SEÑOR perdona sus pecados, sería como si sus ropas fueran blancas de nuevo.

Como escarlata
"rojo brillante"

Blancos como la nieve
El blanco suele ser un símbolo de santidad o pureza. La "nieve" se refiere a algo como la lluvia congelada que es muy blanca. Como esto solo se refiere a algo que es muy blanco, se puede reemplazar por otra cosa que también sea muy blanco: "blancos como la concha de mar" o "blanco

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

como una paloma". Esto significa que sus pecados serán perdonados.

Rojos como el carmesí
"rojo oscuro"

Como la lana
La lana es el pelo de una oveja o una cabra. Cómo es que ellos serán como la lana puede ser expresado de forma explícita. Traducción Alterna: "blancos como la lana"

Isaiah 1:19

Información general:
Dios continúa hablándole a las personas de Judá.

Si son dispuestos y obedientes
Aquí "dispuestos" y "obedientes" se utilizan juntas para expresar una sola idea. Traducción Alterna: "Si obedecen por su propia voluntad"

Comerán lo mejor de la tierra
"la tierra producirá buenos frutos para que se alimenten".

Pero si se rehúsan y se rebelan
"pero si se niegan a escuchar, y por el contrario, me desobedecen".

La espada los devorará
La palabra "espada" se refiere a los enemigos de Judá. Además, la palabra "devorará" compara a los enemigos que vendrán a matarlos con un animal salvaje que ataca y come a otros animales. Traducción Alterna: "tus enemigos los matarán"

la boca del SEÑOR lo ha dicho
La palabra "boca" hace énfasis en que el SEÑOR ha hablado y que lo que él dice ciertamente sucederá. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ha hablado" o " El SEÑOR ha dicho que esto sucederá"

Isaiah 1:21

Información general:
Isaías le habla a la gente de Judá a través de la forma de un poema.

Cómo la ciudad fiel
Esta exclamación muestra el enojo y la tristeza de Isaías con la gente de Judá. Traducción Alterna: "Vean cómo la gente de Jerusalén, quienes habían sido fieles a mí"

Se ha convertido en una prostituta
Isaías comparó a la gente con una mujer que en vez de serle fiel a su esposo duerme con otros hombres a cambio de dinero. Las personas que ya no eran fieles a Dios sino que adoraban a otros dioses. Traducción Alterna: "Actúan como una prostituta"

Ella que estaba llena de justicia
La palabra "Ella" se refiere a Jerusalén y su gente. Aquellos que escribieron la Biblia suelen referirse a las ciudades como si fueran mujeres. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de Jerusalén era justa y hacía lo que era correcto".

Pero ahora está llena de asesinos
La palabra "Ella" se refiere a Jerusalén y su gente. Aquellos que escribieron la Biblia suelen referirse a las ciudades como si fueran mujeres. Traducción Alterna: "pero ahora las personas de Jerusalén son asesinas"

Su plata se ha convertido en impureza, su vino mezclado con agua Los significados posibles son que Isaías usa la plata y el vino como metáforas para 1) la gente de Jerusalén, " Ustedes son como la plata que dejó de ser pura y como el vino que se mezcla con agua" o 2) las buenas obras las personas hicieron anteriormente, " Ustedes solían hacer buenas obras, pero ahora sus malas acciones han hecho que sus buenas obras no tengan valor".

Plata...impureza
La plata debe limpiarse con frecuencia, sino deja de brillar.

Vino...agua
El vino con agua tiene poco sabor y por eso no es mejor que el agua.

Isaiah 1:23

Información general:
Isaías le comunica las palabras del SEÑOR a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Sus príncipes son rebeldes
"Sus líderes se rebelan en contra de Dios"

Acompañantes de ladrones
"Ellos son amigos de personas que le roban a otros"

Sobornos...recompensas
La gente le da "sobornos" como regalos a los dirigentes dishonestos para que los dirigentes actúen injustamente. Los dirigentes reciben "recompensas" como regalos de aquellos que se han beneficiado por las leyes injustas que los dirigente aprobaron.

No defienden a los huérfanos
"no protegen a los que no tienen padres"

ni las plegarías legales de la viuda son presentadas delante de ellos
"tampoco escuchan cuando las viudas les piden ayuda con aquellos que rompen la ley" o " y ellos no ayudan a las viudas que les piden ayuda con aquellos que rompen la ley"

Isaiah 1:24

Información general:
Isaías comienza a comunicarles las palabras del SEÑOR a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Por tanto
"Por esa razón"

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
El sustantivo abstracto "declaración" puede ser traducido como verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que declara el SEÑOR"

Tendré venganza contra mis adversarios, y me vengaré de mis enemigos
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Las palabras "Tendré venganza contra mis adversarios" hablan más de que el SEÑOR hará lo que sea necesario con aquellos que están en su contra para que Él pueda ser feliz. Mientras que las palabras " me vengaré de mis adversarios" hablan más de que el SEÑOR castigará justamente a sus enemigos. Traducción Alterna: "Castigaré a los que se opongan a mí" o " haré lo que me plazca con aquellos que trabajen en mi contra y justamente castigaré a mis enemigos".

Volveré mi mano contra tí Aquí "mano" hace referencia al poder de Dios, el cual Él usaría para castigar a su gente. Traducción Alterna: "Empezaré a usar todo mi poder en su contra".

refinaré tu escoria como con lejía
Aquí se habla del proceso en el que Dios elimina los pecados de las personas como si se separara el metal de las cosas malas mezcladas con él. Las palabras "como lejía" agregan otra metáfora: la lejía es usada para limpiar, no para refinar el metal. Traducción Alterna: " Y como fuego que elimina la suciedad de tu plata, así eliminaré todo el mal de ustedes".

Escoria
La suciedad y otras cosas que la gente saca de los metales para que el metal sea bueno.

Isaiah 1:26

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Como al comienzo...como al principio
Estas son dos formas de referirse a la primera parte o al comienzo de la historia de Israel, cuando Israel se convirtió en una nación.

Tú serás llamada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente te llamará"

La Ciudad de Justicia, una ciudad fiel
Aquí "ciudad" se refiere a las personas que viven en Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "la ciudad donde las personas son justas y fieles a Dios"

Isaiah 1:27

Información general:
Isaías comunica las palabras del SEÑOR a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Sion será redímida por juicio, y sus arrepentidos por justicia Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Significados posibles son 1) "El SEÑOR redimirá a Sion porque ellos hacen lo que es justo y redimirá a aquellos que se arrepienten porque hacen lo que el SEÑOR dice que es bueno" o 2) " El SEÑOR redimirá a Sion porque Él es justo y redimirá a los que se arrepienten porque Él es justo".

Sion
Esto es una metonimia para " las personas que viven en el Monte Sion".

Rebeldes y pecadores juntos serán aplastados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios destruirá a aquellos que se rebelen y pequen en su contra"

los que abandonan al SEÑOR perecerán Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " y el SEÑOR se deshará de aquellos que lo abandonan" o "el SEÑOR matará a todos los que lo rechacen"

Isaiah 1:29

Información general:
Isaías comunica las palabras del SEÑOR a las personas de Judá en forma de poema.

Los robles sagrados...jardínes
Estas frases se refieren a los lugares en los que la gente de Judá adoraba a sus ídolos.

tú tendrás vergüenza por Algunas versiones dicen " te sonrojarás por". Una persona se sonroja cuando su cara se vuelve roja y caliente, usualmente porque siente que ha hecho algo malo.

Porque tú serás como un roble cuya hoja se desvanece, y como un jardín que no tiene agua El agua le da vida a los árboles y jardínes. La gente por sí misma se ha cortado del SEÑOR, quien les da vida.

Chapter 2

1 Las cosas que Isaías, hijo de Amós, observó en una visión, respecto a Judá y Jerusalén. 2 Será en los últimos días que el monte de la casa del SEÑOR será establecido como el más alto de los montes, y será levantado sobre las colinas, y todas las naciones fluirán a el. 3 Muchos pueblos vendrán y dirán: "Vengan, vamos a subir al monte del SEÑOR, a la casa del Dios de Jacob, para que Él nos pueda enseñar algunas de sus sendas, y que nosotros podamos andar en sus caminos." Porque de Sion saldrá la ley, y la palabra del SEÑOR saldrá de Jerusalén. 4 Él juzgará entre las naciones y tomará desiciones por muchos pueblos; ellos martillarán sus espadas en rejas de arado, y sus lanzas en podaderas; nación no levantará espada contra nación, ni ellos entrenarán más para la guerra. 5 Casa de Jacob, venid, y caminemos en la luz del SEÑOR. 6 Pues Tú has abandonado Tu pueblo, la casa de Jacob, porque ellos están llenos de costumbres del este y son lectores de augurios como los filisteos, y ellos estrechan sus manos con hijos de extranjeros. 7 Su tierra está llena de plata y oro, y no hay límite a su riqueza; su tierra también está llena de caballos, ni hay límite para sus carruajes. 8 Su tierra está llena de ídolos; ellos adoran las artesanías de sus propias manos, cosas que sus propios dedos han hecho. 9 La gente se inclinará, y los individuos caerán; por lo tanto, no los levanten. 10 Vayan a los lugares rocosos y escóndanse en la tierra, del temor del SEÑOR y de la gloria de Su majestad. 11 La mirada altanera del hombre será derribada, y el orgullo de los hombres será reducido, y sólo el SEÑOR será exaltado en aquel día. 12 Porque habrá un día del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos contra todo quien sea orgulloso y altanero, y contra todo quien es arrogante-- y él será demolido-- 13 y contra todos los cedros del Líbano que están altos y alzados, y contra todos los robles de Basán. 14 Ese día del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos será contra todas las montañas altas, y contra todos los cerros que están levantados, 15 y contra cada torre alta, y contra cada muralla impregnable, 16 y contra todos los botes de Tarsis, y contra todas las hermosas naves de navegación. 17 El orgullo del hombre será derribado, y la altivez de los hombres caerá; sólo el SEÑOR será exaltado en ese día. 18 Los ídolos desaparecerán completamente. 19 Los hombres entrarán en las cuevas de las rocas y en los hoyos en el piso, por el temor del SEÑOR, y de la gloria de Su majestad, cuando Él se levante para aterrorizar la tierra. 20 En ese día, la gente arrojará sus ídolos de plata y oro que hicieron ellos mismos para adorar-- ellos los lanzarán lejos a los topos y a los murciélagos. 21 La gente entrará en las aberturas en las piedras y en las hendiduras de las rocas rotas, del temor del SEÑOR y de la gloria de Su majestad, cuando Él se levante para aterrorizar la tierra. 22 Dejen de confiar en el hombre, cuyo aliento de vida está en su nariz, porque, ¿qué aspira él?

Isaiah 2:1

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Judá y Jerusalén
"aquellos que viven en Judá y Jerusalén"

En los últimos días
"en el futuro"

la montaña de la casa del SEÑOR será establecida Esto puede ser expresado 1) como una descripción- Traducción Alterna: " La montaña de la casa del SEÑOR permanecerá" o 2) como una forma activa- Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR establecerá la montaña en la que su templo es contruido"

Como la más alta de las montañas Isaías habla de la importancia como si fuera la altura física. Traducción Alterna: "la más importante de todas las montañas" o " el lugar más importante en el mundo"

será levantada sobre las colinas Isaías habla del honor como si fuera la altura física. Esto puede ser expresado 1) en forma activa, Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR la honrará más que a cualquier otra colina" o 2) como una metonimia para las personas que adoran allí, Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR honrará a la gente que adore allí más de lo que Él honra a otras personas".

y todas las naciones
" y las personas de todas las naciones"

fluirán a ella
Las gente alrededor del mundo que va a la montaña del SEÑOR se compara con la manera en la que el río fluye. Esto hace énfasis en que muchas personas vendrán, no sólo unas cuantas personas. Traducción Alterna: "fluirán como un río hacia ella" o "irán hacia ella" (UDB)

Isaiah 2:3

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Jacob, para que El nos pueda enseñar... y nosotros podamos andar en Otro significado posible es "Jacob. Él nos enseñará... y nosotros andaremos."

Él nos puede enseñar algunos de sus caminos, y que nosotros podamos andar en sus caminos
La palabra "caminos" es una metáfora para la forma en la que vive una persona. Si tu idioma tiene solo una palabra para el suelo en el que la gente camina, podrías combinar estas dos frases. Traducción Alterna: "Él nos puede enseñar su voluntad para que nosotros podamos obedecerlo".

Porque de Sion saldrá la ley, y la Palabra del SEÑOR saldrá de Jerusalén Estas frases significan lo mismo. Isaías hace énfasis en que todas las naciones sabrán que la verdad se encuentra en Jerusalén. "El pueblo de Sion enseñará la ley de Dios y la gente de Jerusalén enseñará la palabra del SEÑOR".

Porque de Sion saldrá la ley Isaías habla de la ley como si fuera un río que se mueve sin que la gente haga nada. "Porque la ley saldrá de Sion". Traducción Alterna: " Aquellos a quienes ellos le enseñan la ley saldrán de Sion" o " el SEÑOR proclamará su ley desde Sion"

la Palabra del SEÑOR saldrá de Jerusalén
"La palabra del SEÑOR saldrá desde Jerusalén" Isaías habla de la palabra del SEÑOR como si fuera un río que se mueve sin que la gente haga nada. " Aquellos a quienes ellos le enseñan la palabra del SEÑOR saldrán de Sion" o "el SEÑOR proclamará su palabra desde Jerusalén"

Isaiah 2:4

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

Él juzgará
"El SEÑOR juzgará"

tomará decisiones
"solucionará los conflictos"

Ellos martillarán sus espadas en rejas de arado y sus lanzas en podaderas Las personas de las naciones convertirán sus armas en herramientas para la agricultura.

espadas...lanzas...espada
Estas palabras son sinonimos

Rejas de arado...podaderas
Estas palabras son sinonimos

Ellos martillarán sus espadas en rejas de arado
Una reja de arado es una pala que la gente usa para cavar el suelo y poder sembrar semillas ahí. Traducción Alterna: "ellos convertirán sus espadas en herramientas para sembrar".

y sus lanzas en podaderas
"ellos martillarán sus lanzas en podaderas". Una podadera es un cuchillo que la gente usa para cortar las ramas de las plantas. Traducción Alterna: "ellos harán que sus lanzas sean herramientas para cuidar de las plantas".

Las naciones no levantarán espada contra otra nación
"ninguna nación levantará su espada en contra de otra nación". La espada es una figura literaria

Ni ellos entrenarán
"ni siquiera entrenarán" sin pelear. El escritor espera que su lector crea que quienes pelean en la guerra entrenan antes de luchar y que algunos de los que entrenan no luchan.

Isaiah 2:5

Información general:
En 2:5 Isaías le habla al pueblo de Israel y en 2:6 él le habla al SEÑOR. En ambos habla en forma de poema.

Casa de Jacob
La palabra "casa" es una figura literaria

ven
Una forma de animar amablemente a hacer lo que el hablante está por decirle que haga al oyente.

Déjanos caminar en la luz del SEÑOR
Isaías habla de gente que aprende y luego hace lo que el SEÑOR quiere que hagan como si ellos estuvieran caminando en la noche con una lámpara que el SEÑOR les ha dado para que puedan ver el camino. Traducción Alterna: "Déjanos aprender cómo el SEÑOR quiere que vivamos y luego poder vivir de esa forma".

Porque Tú has abandonado a tu pueblo
"Porque has dejado a tu pueblo" y ya no te importa lo que les suceda. Aquí la palabra "tú" se refiere al SEÑOR y, por lo tanto es singular.

ellos están llenos de costumbres del este Isaías habla como si las personas fueran recipientes que estaban llenos de algo del este. Los significados posibles de los que él habla son 1) las acciones de las personas del este, " ellos hacen todo el tiempo los mismos actos malvados que la gente que vive en el este de Israel" o 2) personas, especificamente aquellos que aseguran hablar con los muertos, quienes han venido del este para cometer malos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

actos, "muchos adivinos han venido del este y ahora viven aquí"

Adivinos
Personas que aseguran poder ver el futuro al mirar cosas como las partes de animales o las hojas.

ellos estrechan sus manos con los hijos de los extranjeros Agarrarse las manos juntos es un símbolo de amistad y paz. Traducción Alterna: "ellos hacen la paces y trabajan con personas que no son de Israel".

Isaiah 2:7

Información general:
Isaías le habla al SEÑOR en forma de poema.

Su tierra está llena de plata...su tierra también está llena de caballos...Su tierra está llena de ídolos Isaías habla como si la tierra fuera un recipiente sobre el que han puesto plata, caballos e ídolos. La palabra "tierra" es una figura literaria

las artesanías de sus propias manos, cosas que sus propios dedos han hecho Estas dos frases significan casi los mismo y hacen énfasis en que esos no son dioses reales. Si en tu idioma no hay una palabra general para algo que alguien hace, podrías combinar todo esto en una sóla oración. Traducción Alterna: "cosas que ellos mismo han hecho"

las artesanías de sus propias manos
La palabra "manos" es una figura literaria

cosas que sus propios dedos han hecho
La palabra "dedos" es una figura literaria

Isaiah 2:9

Información general:
En 2:9 Isaías termina de hablarle al SEÑOR. En 2:10-11 Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá. En ambos momentos él habla en forma de poema.

La gente será inclinada, y los individuos caerán
Las palabras "será inclinada" y "caerán" son metáforas de no tener nada bueno y tampoco a alguien que los ayude. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Dios avergonzará a las personas y cada persona será humilde"

La gente
Seres humanos, en oposición a los animales.

Individuos
"Cada persona"

No los levanten
La palabra "levanten" es una metáfora del SEÑOR perdonando a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "no los perdonen"

Vayan a los lugares rocosos
Los posibles significados son que las personas deben ir a 1) las cuevas en las laderas empinadas (Ver UDB) o 2) lugares donde hay muchas rocas grandes entre las que se pueden esconder.

Escóndanse en la tierra
Los posibles significados son que las personas deben esconderse en) hoyos naturales en la tierra o) en zanjas que ellos cavan en el suelo (ver UDB)

del temor del SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado con otras palabras para que el sustantivo "terror" se exprese como "aterrador". Traducción Alterna: "Para huir de la aterradora presencia del SEÑOR" o "del SEÑOR porque estarán extremadamente temerosos"

la gloria de Su majestad
"La gran belleza y poder que Él tiene como rey" o " su esplendor real". Traducir como en 2:9.

La mirada altanera del hombre será derribada
"El SEÑOR derribará la mirada altanera del hombre". Un hombre con una "mirada altanera" mira por encima de todos para mostrarles que él es mejor que ellos. Aquií toda la gente es culpable de creerse mejor que el SEÑOR, y la manera en la que ellos miran a los que adoran al SEÑOR es una figura literaria

el orgullo de los hombres será derribado
"El SEÑOR avergonzará a los hombres orgullosos". Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR derribará el orgullo de los hombres". "El orgullo de los hombres" es una figura literaria

Sólo el SEÑOR será exaltado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente solo alabará al SEÑOR"

En ese día
"el día en el que el SEÑOR juzgue a todos".

Isaiah 2:12

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema.

todo el que sea orgulloso y altanero Una persona "altanera" es orgullosa y se considera a sí misma mejor que otros. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el que es orgulloso y se exalta así mismo sobre el resto" o "el que es orgulloso y piensa que él es mejor que todas las otras personas".

El que es arrogante
Quien habla y actúa como si fuera mejor que las otras personas.

y él será derribado
"Y todas las personas orgullosas serán derribadas". Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los hará humildes".

Contra de todos los cedros del Líbano...en contra de todos los robles de Basán El "día del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos" será en contra de los cedros y los robles. Los significados posibles son 1) estos árboles son una metáfora para las personas orgullosas que Dios juzgará o 2) Dios en verdad destruirá a estos árboles poderosos.

Isaiah 2:14

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema. Él continúa describiendo lo que sucederá en el día del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos

y en contra de

El orgullo del hombre será derribado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Él derribará a todos los hombres orgullosos" o "Él humillará a todos los hombres orgullosos".

la altivez de los hombres caerá
El sustantivo abstracto "altivez" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellas personas que sean altivas, dejarán de ser altivas"

Sólo el SEÑOR será exaltado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " La gente sólo alabará al SEÑOR" Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 2:9.

Los ídolos desaparecerán completamente
"Todos los ídolos desaparecerán" (UDB) o "No habrá más ídolos"

Los hombres entrarán...por el temor
"Los hombres entrarán...para esconderse del temor"

Cuevas de las rocas
"Las cuevas en las rocas". Estas son rocas muy grandes, no pequeñas piedras que pueden llevarse en la mano.

Por el temor del SEÑOR, y de la gloria de Su majestad
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 2:9.

Por el temor del SEÑOR
Porque ellos le tienen mucho miedo al SEÑOR

La gloria de Su majestad
"La belleza que Él tiene como rey"

Cuando Él se levante a aterrorizar la tierra
"Cuando el SEÑOR actúe y haga que las personas de la tierra le teman terriblemente"

Isaiah 2:20

Información general:
Isaías le habla al pueblo de Judá en forma de poema. Él continúa describiendo lo que sucederá en el día del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos.

A los topos y a los murciélagos
Los topos son unos animales pequeños que cavan y viven bajo tierra. Los murciélagos son pequeños animales que vuelan y que a veces viven en cuevas. Traducción Alterna: "a los animales".

Chapter 3

1 Mirad, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, está a punto de quitar de Jerusalén y de Judá apoyo y personal: todo el suministro de pan, y todo el suministro de agua; 2 el hombre poderoso, el guerrero, el juez, el profeta, el lector de augurio, el anciano; 3 el capitán de cincuenta, el ciudadano respetado, el consejero, el artesano experto y el mago hábil. 4 "Yo colocaré meros jóvenes como sus líderes, y los jóvenes gobernarán sobre ellos. 5 Las personas serán oprimidas, cada una por otra, y cada uno por su vecino; el hijo insultará al anciano, y el depravado retará al honorable. 6 Un hombre aún tomará a su hermano en la casa de su padre y dirá: 'Tú tienes un abrigo; sé nuestro gobernante, y sea ésta ruina en tus manos.' 7 En ese día él gritará y dirá: 'Yo no voy a ser un sanador; yo no tengo pan o ropa. Tú no me harás gobernante del pueblo.'" 8 Pues Jerusalén ha tropezado y Judá ha caído, porque su lenguaje y sus acciones están contra el SEÑOR, desafiando los ojos de Su gloria. 9 La mirada en sus rostros testifica contra ellos; y ellos anuncian su pecado como Sodoma; ellos no lo esconden. ¡Ay de ellos! Pues ellos han causado una catástrofe para sí mismos. 10 Dile a la persona justa que le irá bien, pues ellos van a comer el fruto de sus obras. 11 ¡Ay para el malvado! Le irá mal, pues la recompensa de sus manos será hecha a él. 12 Pueblo mío-- niños son sus opresores, y mujeres gobiernan sobre ellos. Mi pueblo, aquellos que los guían a ustedes los llevan por mal camino y confunden la dirección de su camino. 13 El SEÑOR litiga una acusación; Él está en pie para acusar al pueblo. 14 El SEÑOR vendrá con juicio contra los ancianos de Su pueblo y sus líderes: "Ustedes han arruinado el viñedo; el saqueo de los pobres está en sus casas. 15 ¿Por qué aplastan ustedes a Mi pueblo y agobian las caras de los pobres?" Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 16 El SEÑOR dice que porque las hijas de Sion son orgullosas, caminan con sus cabezas erguidas, y coquetean con sus ojos, flirteando según van y haciendo un tintineo con sus pies, 17 por tanto, el Señor formará costras enfermas en las cabezas de las hijas de Sion, y el SEÑOR las hará calvas. 18 En aquel día el Señor removerá sus hermosas joyas del tobillo, cintas para la cabeza, adornos en forma de media luna, 19 colgantes de orejas, pulseras y velos; 20 los pañuelos, las cadenas de tobillo, las fajas y las cajas de perfumes, y los amuletos de suerte. 21 Él va a remover los anillos y las prendas de la nariz; 22 las túnicas festivas, los mantos, los velos, y los bolsos de mano; 23 los espejos de manos, el lino fino, las piezas que cubren las cabezas y los abrigos. 24 En lugar de dulce perfume habrá peste; en lugar de una banda, una soga; en lugar de cabello bien arreglado, calvicie; y en lugar de una túnica, una cubierta de cilicio; y marcas en lugar de belleza. 25 Sus hombres caerán por la espada, y sus hombres fuertes caerán en guerra. 26 Los portones de Jerusalén se lamentarán y gemirán; y ella estará sola y sentada en el suelo.

Isaiah 3:1

Mira
La palabra "mira" aquí hace énfasis en lo que sigue. También puede ser traducido como "Escuchen" o "Ciertamente".

Apoyo y personal
Estas dos palabras se refieren a un baston para caminar, al cual uno se inclina como apoyo. Esta idea representa a las cosas que las personas más necesitan para poder vivir: comida y agua. Traducción Alterna: "Todo lo que los mantiene" o " Todo de lo que ustedes dependen"

El hombre poderoso, el guerrero
Este es el comienzo de una lista de categorías de personas en las que dependen otros. Ya que no se refieren a individuos particulares, también pueden ser traducidos como sustantivos plurales. Traducción Alterna: "Los hombres poderosos, los guerreros"

El shamán
Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 2:5.

El capitán de cincuenta
Esta expresón idiomática se refiere a un capitán que está a cargo de cincuenta soldados. Puede ser traducido con un termino más general. Traducción Alterna: "El oficial del ejército" o "el líder militar"

Cincuenta
"50"

Isaiah 3:4

Yo voy a colocar meros jóvenes como sus líderes, y los jóvenes van a gobernar sobre ellos Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Los significados posibles son 1) "Yo pondré a las personas jóvenes como sus líderes y esos jóvenes gobernarán sobre ustedes" o 2) "los jóvenes" es una metáfora para los hombres simples y tontos. Traducción Alterna: "Yo pondré sobre ellos líderes inmaduros, como las personas jóvenes, y esos malos líderes los gobernarán".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Yo voy a colocar a simples jóvenes
Aquí la palabra "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR dice, "Yo pondré a simples jóvenes como sus líderes""

Las personas van a ser oprimidas, cada una por otra, y cada uno por su vecino Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Todos serán crueles con los otros y maltratarán a sus vecinos".

Los degradados
"Las personas que no tienen honor" o "Las personas que nadie respeta".

Los honorables
"Las personas con honor" o " las personas que todos respetan".

Isaiah 3:6

Que esta ruina esté en tus manos
Aquí "manos" representa autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Hazte cargo de esta ruina" o "gobierna sobre esta ruina"

Esta ruina
Los significados posibles son 1) muchos o la mayoría de los edificios de Jerusalén fueron destruidos o 2) La gente en Jerusalén no tendrá más prosperidad ni líderazgo. Traducción Alterna: "esta ciudad, la cual ahora está arruinada"

Yo no voy a ser un sanador
Se habla de resolver los problemas de las personas como si los estuviera sanando a ellos. Traducción Alterna: "No, yo no puedo solucionar este problema" o "No, yo no te puedo ayudar" (UDB)

Isaiah 3:8

Oración de Enlace
El profeta comienza a hablar sobre esta situación

Jerusalén ha tropezado y Judá ha caído
Se habla de desobedecer a Dios como si fuera tropezar y caer.

Los ojos de Su gloria Aquí "los ojos" representa a Dios mismo, quien es glorioso.

La mirada en sus caras testifica en contra de ellos
Se habla de las expresiones de arrogancia en la cara de las personas como si las expresiones fueran personas que pudieran testificar en contra de la gente orgullosa. Traducción Alterna: "Las miradas orgullosas en sus rostros muestran que ellos se oponen al SEÑOR"

Ellos cuentan de su pecado como Sodoma; ellos no lo esconden Aquí se dice que las personas de Judá son como las personas de Sodoma, porque ellos abiertamente presumen de sus pecados. Traducción Alterna: "Como las personas de Sodoma, ellos hablan de sus pecados y dejan que todos los sepan.

Pues ellos han completado una catástrofe para sí mismos
La catástrofe todavía no ha llegado, pero las personas han terminado de hacer lo que causará que llegue. Se habla de las causas de la catástrofe como si ellos fueran la catástrofe misma. Traducción Alterna: "Pues han hecho todo lo que causará que la catásfrofe suceda"

Isaiah 3:10

Dile a la persona justa que le irá bien
"Dile al que esté haciendo lo que es justo que Yo haré que las cosas sean buenas para él"

La persona justa
Esto se refiere a la gente justa en general. Traducción Alterna: "La gente justa"

Pues ellos van a comer el fruto de sus obras
Se habla de las obras como si fueran árboles que dan frutos que pueden comerse. El fruto representa la recompensa por hacer buenas obras. Traducción Alterna: "Pues ellos recibirán la recompensa por sus buenas obras" o "Pues ellos recibirán su recompensa por las cosas buenas que han hecho"

Ellos van a comer.... el fruto de sus obras
El texto hebreo tiene estos pronombres plurales aquí, pero se refieren a cualquier persona justa. Los traductores pueden elegir traducirlos en singular: "él va a comer... el fruto de sus obras".

Pues la recompensa de su mano va a ser hecha a él Aquí "manos" representa las obras que la persona ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "Pues lo que la persona malvada le ha hecho a otros, lo mismo le será hecho a ella".

Pueblo mío...Mi pueblo
Los significados posibles son 1) Isaías está hablando y "mío" se refiere a Isaías, o 2) el SEÑOR está hablando y "mío" se refiere al SEÑOR

Los hijos son sus opresores
Los significados posibles son 1) "las personas jóvenes se han convertido en sus líderes y ellos oprimen a la gente" o 2) "sus líderes son inmaduros como los niños y oprimen a la gente".

Las mujeres gobernarán sobre ustedes Los significados posibles son 1) " las mujeres gobiernan sobre las personas" o 2) "los líderes son débiles como las mujeres".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Aquellos que los guían a ustedes los llevan por mal camino y confunden la dirección de su camino
Es común en el Antiguo Medio Oriente hablar de los líderes de las naciones como si fueran pastores. Al igual que los pastores guian a sus ovejas por los buenos caminos por seguridad, los líderes deben enseñarle la verdad al pueblo y ayudarlos a hacer lo que es justo. Los líderes de Judá no estaban haciendo esto. Traducción Alterna: " sus líderes son como malos pastores que los alejan de los buenos caminos y no les muestran hacia dónde ir"

Isaiah 3:13

El SEÑOR defiende una acusación; Él está parado para acusar al pueblo Isaías habla de la decisión del SEÑOR de lastimar a la gente como si el SEÑOR estuviera presentando un acusación contra el pueblo de Isarael en una sala de juzgado. La segunda parte de esta línea significa lo mismo que la segunda parte, pero lo dice un poco más completo. Traducción Alterna: "Es como si el SEÑOR hubiera tomado su lugar en una sala de juzgado y estuviera listo para acusar a las personas". (UDB) (Ver: y

vendrá con juicio
Se habla del juicio como si fuera un objeto que alguien puede traerle a otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "anunciará su juicio" o "declarará su juicio"

Ustedes han arruinado mi viñedo
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a los mayores y a los gobernantes. El SEÑOR está hablando de su pueblo como si fueran un viñedo. Como alguien que fracasa en cuidar un viñedo y entonces las viñas dejan de dar uvas; los mayores y los líderes desalientan a los israelitas a servir a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "mi pueblo es como un viñero y ustedes lo han arruinado"

El saqueo de los pobres
"Las cosas que ustedes han tomado de los pobres"

¿Por qué aplastan ustedes a Mi pueblo y muelen las caras de los pobres?
El SEÑOR hace esta pregunta para acusar a los líderes del pueblo. Esta acusación puede expresarse como una declaracíon. Traducción Alterna: " ¡Yo estoy enojado con sus hombres malvados porque ustedes están aplastando y moliendo las caras de los pobres!"

Aplastan ustedes Mi pueblo
Se habla de hacer sufrir a la gente como si se los estuviera aplastando con algo muy pesado. Traducción Alterna: "lastimar cruelmente a Mi pueblo"

Muelen las caras
Se habla de hacer sufrir a las gente como si se les estuviera frotando la cara en el piso. Traducción Alterna: "Lastiman a los pobres cruelmente y los hacen sufrir"

Isaiah 3:16

Con sus cabezas en alto
Esto significa de una manera arrogante.

Coquetean con sus ojos Aquí "sus ojos" representa cómo las mujeres miran a los hombres. Traducción Alterna: "Intentan impresionar a los hombres con la manera en que los miran" avanzando lentamente mientras van

"dando pequeños pasos mientras caminan"

y haciendo un tintineo con sus pies
"entonces las pulseras en sus tobillos suenan" o " entonces las campanas en sus tobilleras hacen ruido"

las hijas de Sion
Se habla de Sion, haciendo referencia aquí a la ciudad de Jerusalén, como si fuera una mujer con sus hijas. Traducción Alterna: "la mujer de Sion"

Isaiah 3:18

Información general:

Una tela suave utilizada por gente rica.

las piezas de cabeza
Un trapo o pequeño sombrero que se usa sobre el pelo.

envolturas
Una tela decorativa que una mujer envolvía alrededor de sí misma para lucir hermosa.

Isaiah 3:24

faja
Una pedazo de tela que la gente usa alrededor de la cintura o cruzando el pecho. Ver cómo lo tradujiste en 3:18.

una soga
Esto puede referirse a la soga con la que los enemigos atarán a la gente de Judá cuando los capturen. O puede significar que las mujeres de Jerusalén no tendrán nada más que usar, sólo ropa áspera sostenida con sogas.

cabello bien arreglado, calvicie
Bien arreglado, calvicie- "Lindo cabello, sus cabezas quedarán peladas"

Sus hombres van a caer por la espada, y sus hombres fuertes van a caer en guerra Caer representa ser asesinado y la espada representa la batalla. Traducción Alterna: " sus hombres serán asesinados en la batalla y sus hombres fuertes serán asesinados en la guerra" o " Los enemigos asesinarán a tus soldados en la batalla"

Los portones de Jerusalén van a lamentarse y gemir Isaías habla de los portones de la ciudad que lloran como si fueran personas como una figura literaria ella va a estar sola y sentada en el suelo

Isaías habla de la gente de Jerusalén, a quien nadie salvará de sus enemigos, como si ellos fueran la ciudad y como si ellos fueran una mujer que se sienta en el suelo porque todos sus amigos la han abandonado.

Chapter 4

1 En aquel día siete mujeres se aferrarán a un hombre y dirán: '' Nuestra propia comida nosotras comeremos, nuestra propia ropa nosotras vestiremos. Pero déjanos tomar tu nombre para remover nuestra vergüenza.'' 2 En aquel día la rama del SEÑOR será hermosa y gloriosa, y el fruto de la tierra será delicioso y placentero para aquellos sobrevivientes en Israel. 3 Ocurrirá que aquel quien sea dejado en Sion y aquel quien permanezca en Jerusalén será llamado santo, todos quienes estén escritos como vivientes en Jerusalén. 4 Esto ocurrirá cuando el Señor haya lavado la suciedad de las hijas de Sion, y haya limpiado las manchas de sangre desde el medio de Jerusalén, por medio del espíritu de juicio y del espíritu de fuego llameante. 5 Entonces sobre toda la localización del Monte de Sion y sobre su lugar de asamblea, el SEÑOR creará una nube y humo de día, y el brillo de un fuego llameante de noche; éste será un toldo sobre toda la gloria. 6 Será un refugio de sombra durante el día del calor, y un refugio y una cubierta de la tormenta y lluvia.

Isaiah 4:1

déjennos tomar tu nombre Esta frase significa "déjennos casarnos con usted"

la rama del SEÑOR Aquí la palabra "rama" se refiere a algo nuevo que crece. Esta expresión 1) probablemente se refiere a los cultivos agrícolas, pero 2) algunos entienden que se refiere al futuro Mesías.

será hermosa y gloriosa
"estára llena de belleza y gloria"

el fruto de la tierra será delicioso y encantador para aquellos sobrevivientes en Israel El "fruto" a veces simplemente representa a la comida producida en la tierra y a veces representa las bendiciones espirituales. Los significados posibles son 1) Dios hará que la tierra nuevamente produzca frutos. Traducción Alterna: "las personas que todavía estén en Israel disfrutarán de las mejores comidas de la tierra" o 2) el futuro Mesías traerá bendiciones espirituales a la gente en la tierra.

Isaiah 4:3

aquel quien sea dejado en Sion y aquel que permanezca en Jerusalén Esta figura literaria

será llamado santo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR los llamará santos" o " pertenecerán al SEÑOR"

todos quienes estén escritos como vivos en Jerusalén
"Todos los que tengan sus nombres escritos en la lista de personas que viven en Jerusalén"

cuando el Señor habrá lavado la suciedad de las hijas de Sion Esta expresión habla del pecado como si fuera suciedad física. Traducción Alterna: " después de que el Señor quite los pecados de las hijas de Sion, como alguien que lava la suciedad"

las hijas de Sion
Los significados posibles son 1) las mujeres de Jerusalén o 2) la gente de Jerusalén.

habrá limpiado las manchas de sangre desde el medio de Jerusalén Las "manchas de sangre" aquí representan la violencia y los asesinatos. Traducción Alterna: " y habrán sacado de Jerusalén a aquellos que lastiman a gente inocente"

por medio del espíritu de juicio y del espíritu de fuego llameante Así es como Dios quitará el pecado de Jerusalén. Aquí "espíritu" probablemente representa la actividad de juzgar y quemar.

por medio del espíritu de juicio Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "juicio" sea expresado como el verbo "juzgar". Traducción Alterna: " al juzgar a la gente"

juicio
Los significados posibles son 1) castigo o 2) veredicto de culpabilidad

del espíritu de fuego llameante
Esto probablemente representa la destrucción por el fuego que quema. Traducción Alterna: "al quemarlos con fuego" o "al castigarlos duramente como si fuera con fuego" o "al destruir la ciudad con fuego".

Isaiah 4:5

un toldo sobre toda la gloria Los posibles significados son 1) un toldo para proteger a la ciudad gloriosa o 2) un toldo que consiste en la gloria de Dios que protegerá a la ciudad. Si se sigue el primer significado, luego puede significar que la ciudad es gloriosa porque el SEÑOR está presente en ella.

Chapter 5

1 Déjame cantarle a Mi bien amado, una canción a Mi amado acerca de su viñedo. Mi bien amado tenía un viñedo en una colina muy fértil. 2 Él la labró, removió las piedras, y la plantó con un excelente tipo de vino. Él construyó una torre en medio de ella, y también construyó un lagar. Esperó por ella para que produjera uvas, pero sólo produjo uvas silvestres. 3 Así que, ahora, habitantes de Jerusalén y hombres de Judá, juzguen entre Mí y mi viñedo 4 ¿Qué más pude haber hecho por Mi viñedo que Yo no haya hecho por ella? Cuando Yo la busqué para que produjera uvas, ¿por qué produjo ésta uvas silvestres? 5 Ahora Yo te diré lo que Yo haré a mi viñedo: Yo removeré el cerco, Yo la volveré en un pastizal, Yo derribaré sus paredes, y será pisoteada. 6 Yo la dejaré perder, y no será podada ni labrada. En cambio, zarzas y espinos brotarán. Yo También ordenaré a las nubes no llover sobre ella. 7 Porque el viñedo del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es la casa de Israel, y el hombre de Judá su plantío placentero; Él esperó por justicia, pero en cambio, hubo matanza; por justicia, pero en cambio, un grito para ayuda. 8 ¡Ay de aquellos que unen casa con casa, que unen campo con campo, hasta que ningún espacio quede, y tú sólo quedes en la tierra! 9 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos me dijo, muchas casas estarán vacías, aún aquellas grandes e impresionantes, sin habitante alguno. 10 Pues un viñedo de diez yugos producirá solamente un bato, y un homer de semilla producirá un efa. 11 ¡Ay de aquellos que se levantan temprano en la mañana para obtener bebida fuerte, aquellos que se quedan tarde en la noche hasta que el vino los enciende. 12 Ellos hacen banquete con arpas, laúd, tamborín, flauta, y vino, pero ellos no reconocen la obra del SEÑOR, ni han considerado las obras de Sus manos. 13 Por tanto, Mi pueblo ha entrado en cautividad por falta de entendimiento; sus líderes honorables pasan hambre, y su gente común no tienen qué tomar. 14 Por lo tanto el Seol ha agrandado su apetito y ha abierto su boca muy ancha; su élite, el pueblo, sus líderes, y los rebeldes y aquellos quienes están felices entre ellos, descienden al Seol. 15 El hombre será forzado a inclinarse, y la humanidad será humillada; los ojos de los altivos serán abatidos. 16 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos será exaltado en Su justicia, y Dios EL SANTO se mostrará santo por Su justicia. 17 Entonces las ovejas se alimentarán como en su propio pastizal, y en las ruinas, corderos apacentarán como extranjeros. 18 Ay de aquellos quienes arrastran iniquidad con cuerdas vanas y quienes llevan pecado como si fuera un carro de soga. 19 Ay de aquellos que dicen: "Deja que Dios se apresure, deja que actúe rápidamente, para que podamos ver qué pasa; y deja que los planes del Santo de Israel vengan, para que podamos conocerlos." 20 ¡Ay de aquellos que llaman malo a lo bueno, y a lo bueno malo; quienes representan oscuridad como luz, y luz como oscuridad; quienes representan lo amargo como dulce, y lo dulce como amargo! 21 ¡Ay de aquellos quienes son sabios en sus propios ojos, y prudentes en su propio entendimiento! 22 ¡Ay de aquellos que son campeones tomando vino, y maestros mezclando bebidas fuertes; 23 a quienes absuelven al malvado por paga, y privan al inocente de sus derechos! 24 Por lo tanto según la lengua de fuego devora rastrojo, y según la hierba seca cae en llamas, así su raíz se pudrirá, y su florecimiento será soplado como polvo. Esto ocurrirá porque ellos han rechazado la ley del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, y porque ellos han despreciado la palabra del Santo de Israel. 25 Por lo tanto, la ira del SEÑOR está encendida contra Su pueblo. Él ha extendido Su mano contra ellos y los ha castigado. Las montañas tiemblan, y sus cuerpos son como basura en las calles. En todas estas cosas, Su ira no se calma; en cambio, Su mano aún está extendida. 26 Él levantará una bandera de señal para naciones lejanas y silbará para aquellos al final de la tierra. Mira, ellos vendrán rápida y prontamente. 27 Ninguno se cansa o tambalea entre ellos; ninguno dormita o duerme. Tampoco son sus correas sueltas, o las correas de sus sandalias rotas. 28 Sus flechas están afiladas y todos sus arcos doblados; los cascos de sus caballos son como pedernal, y las ruedas de sus carruajes como torbellinos. 29 Sus rugidos serán como un león; rugirán como leoncillos. Ellos gruñirán y atraparán la presa y la arrastrarán lejos, con ninguno para rescatar. 30 En aquel día ellos rugirán contra la presa como ruge el mar. Si alguno mira sobre la tierra, él verá oscuridad y sufrimiento; incluso la luz será hecha oscura por las nubes.

Isaiah 5:1

Información general:
Isaías cuenta una parábola sobre un granjero y sus viñedo. El granjero representa a Dios y el viñedo representa a la gente de Judá, el reino israelita del sur.

mi bien amado
"mi querido amigo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en una colina muy fértil
"en una colina donde muy buenos cultivos pueden crecer"

Él la labró
Esta expresión se refiere a utilizar una herramienta para cavar la tierra y prepararla para sembrar. Traducción Alterna: " Él preparó el suelo"

Él construyó una torre en medio de ella
"Él hizo un edificio alto en el medio del viñedo para vigilarlo" Alguien se pararía en lo más alto de la torre para ver el viñedo y asegurarse de que ningún animal o persona se metiera en él.

construyó un lagar
Un lagar es un lugar bajo, tallado en una roca en el suelo donde los trabajadores pisan las uvas para aplastarlas con sus pies y así sacar el jugo de la uva. Traducción Alterna: "cavaron un agujero para sacar el jugo de la uva".

Uvas silvestres
"uvas sin valor" o "uvas de mal sabor"

Isaiah 5:3

Información general:
En la parábola de Isaías del viñedo; el dueño del viñedo, quien representa a Dios, le habla a las personas de Jerusalén y Judá sobre su viñedo.

habitantes de Jerusalén y hombres de Judá Esta expresión en general se refiere a todas las personas que viven en Jerusalén y Judá, entonces puede ser traducido con sustantivos plurales. Traducción Alterna: "todos ustedes que viven en Jerusalén y Judá"

Jerusalén ... Judá
"Judá" es el nombre del reino israelita del sur y Jerusalén era la capital de la ciudad.

juzguen entre Mí y mi viñedo
La idea de un espacio separarado por dos cosas suele utilizarse para expresar la idea de elegir una u otra de esas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "decidan quién ha actuado justamente, Yo o mi viñedo" ¿Qué más pude haber hecho por mi viñedo que Yo no he hecho por ella?

El dueño usa esta pregunta para hacer una declaración sobre su viñedo. Traducción Alterna: "'¡Yo he hecho todo lo que pude por mi viñedo!"

¿Cuando Yo la busqué para que produjera uvas, por qué produjo uvas silvestres?
El dueño usa esta pregunta para decir que viñedo debió haber producido más uvas. Traducción Alterna: " Yo quería que produjera buenas uvas, pero solo produjo uvas sin valor"

Isaiah 5:5

Información general:
En la parábola de Isaías, el dueño del viñedo continúa hablando sobre su viñedo.

removeré el cerco
Un cerco es una fila de arbustos o árboles pequeños que han sido plantados para proteger un jardín o alguna otra área. Aquí "cerco" probablemente se refiere a los arbustos espinosos que fueron plantados para que crezcan sobre el muro de piedra que rodeaba el viñedo. Traducción Alterna: "quiten las fronteras"

Yo la volveré un pastizal Esto es un lugar lleno de pasto donde los animales se alimentan. Traducción Alterna: "permitiré que los animales vayan y se alimenten allí"

será pisoteada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los animales la pisotearán"

la dejaré perder
"Yo la destruiré"

no será podada ni labrada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nadie la podará ni la labrará" o "nadie cortará las ramas innecesarias y nadie cuidará del suelo"

zarzas y espinos brotarán
Las zarzas y los espinos suelen usarse como símbolos de ciudades y tierras en ruinas.

Isaiah 5:7

Información general:
Isaías explica la parábola del viñedo.

Porque el viñedo del SEÑOR de los ejércitos es la casa de Israel
"Porque el viñedo del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos representa a la casa de Israel" o "El pueblo de Israel es como el viñedo del SEÑOR, Señor de los ejércitos angelicales"

la casa de Israel
Se habla en la Biblia de las naciones y grupos étnicos como si fueran casas, es decir, familias. Traducción Alterna: "la gente de Israel"

el hombre de Judá su plantío placentero
"la gente de Judá es como un viñedo que le da placer a la gente"

el hombre de Judá
Aquí "hombre" representa a todas las personas de Judá". Traducción Alterna: "las personas de Judá"

Él esperó por justicia, pero en cambio, hubo matanza Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "justicia" y "matanza" se expresen como los verbos "hacer lo que es justo" y "matarse los unos a los otros". Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR esperó que la gente hiciera lo que era justo pero, en cambio, ellos se mataron unos a otros"

por justicia
La frase "él esperó" no se menciona pero se sobreentiende. Traducción Alterna: " Él esperó por justicia" o "Él espero que ellos hicieran lo que era bueno"

pero en cambio, un grito por ayuda
"pero en cambio, hubo un grito por ayuda" La razón por la que la gente gritó por ayuda puede ser expresada de manera explícita. Traducción Alterna: " pero en cambio, aquellos que eran débiles gritaron para que alguien los ayude porque otros los estaban atacando"

un grito
Esta expresión probablemente representa muchos gritos.

Isaiah 5:8

Información general:
Isaías anuncia el juicio de Dios.

a aquellos que unen casa con casa, que unen campo a campo
" a aquellos que tienen más y más casas, y que tienen más y más campos.

El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos

sin habitantes
"sin que nadie viva en ellas"

un galón
"un galón de vino" o "22 litros de vino"

doscientos treinta litros de semilla dará sólo veintitres litros
"220 litros de semilla sólo producirán 22 litros de granos".

Isaiah 5:11

aquellos que se levantan temprano en la mañana ... aquellos que se quedan tarde en la noche Esto se refiere a las personas que sólo beben bebidas alcohólicas todo el día.

hasta que el vino los inflama Aquí se habla del poder del vino para hacer que los bebedores se emborrachen como si los estuviera inflamando, es decir, prendiendo fuego. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que ellos se emborrachan con vino"

arpas, laúd, tamborín, flauta, y vino Estos instrumentos musicales y el vino implican que las personas que disfrutan de estas cosas están celebrando demasiado.

tamborín
Un instrumento musical con un elemento como el del tambor, el que puede ser golpeado con la mano. Posiblemente el instrumento tenía piezas de metal alrededor del lugar que sonaba cuando el que tocaba lo agitaba. El tamborín era lo suficiente pequeño para que el que lo tocaba pudiera sostenerlo y agitarlo con una mano.

considerado
"pensado seriamente sobre"

las obras de Sus manos Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "obras" sea expresado como "hecho" o "creado". Traducción Alterna: "lo que él ha hecho" o "lo que él ha creado"

las obras de Sus manos
Aquí las "manos" representan a la persona que ha hecho cosas. Traducción Alterna: " lo que el SEÑOR ha hecho"

Isaiah 5:13

Información general:
Estos versos cuentan lo que le sucederá a la gente por haber desobedecido a Dios.

mi pueblo ha entrado en cautiverio En las profesías usualmente se habla de las cosas que sucederán en el futuro como si ya hubieran sucedido. Esto hace énfasis en que la profesía ciertamente se cumplirá. Traducción Alterna: "los enemigos de otros países tomarán a mi pueblo, Israel, como esclavos"

por falta de entendimiento
Lo que ellos no entienden puede ser expresado de forma explícita. Traducción Alterna: "porque ellos no entienden al SEÑOR ni a su ley"

Por lo tanto el Seol ha hecho su apetito más grande y ha abierto su boca muy ancha Esta frase habla del Seol, lo que representa la tumba, un animal que está listo para comer a otros animales. Esto implica que muchísima gente morirá.Traducción Alterna: "la muerte es como una animal hambriento qe ha abierto su boca ampliamente para devorar a muchas personas"

sus élite, el pueblo, sus líderes, y los rebeldes y aquellos quienes están felices entre ellos, descienden al Seol El profeta habla del futuro como si estuviera sucediendo ahora. Traducción Alterna:" Muchas personas de Israel, sus personas importantes y sus personas comunes, sus líderes y aquellos que disfrutan de fiestas salvajes irán al Seol"

Isaiah 5:15

El hombre será forzado a inclinarse, y la humanidad será humillada
Estas dos frases juntas significan lo mismo y se usan juntas para hacer énfasis. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Dios hará que todas las personas se inclinen y se humillen" Ver cómo tradujiste palabras parecidas en 2:9.

El hombre será forzado a inclinarse, y la humanidad será humillada
Se habla de situaciones futuras como si ya hubieran sucedido.

El hombre será forzado a inclinarse Inclinarse por lo general significa humillarse.

los ojos de los altivos serán echados abajo Mirar abajo es por lo general un signo de estar avergonzado. Traducción Alterna: " los ojos de la gente orgullosa mirarán hacia abajo en vergüenza" o " las personas que eran orgullosas ahora están avergonzadas" Ver cómo tradujiste palabras parecidas en 2:9.

los altivos
Aquí se habla de la gente orgullosa y arrogante como si estuvieran arriba de otras personas. Traducción Alterna: "orgullosos"

El SEÑOR de los Ejercitos será exaltado en Su justicia Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas alabarán al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos porque Él es justo"

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:9.

será exaltado
Se habla de ser honrado como si fuera ser levantado en alto. Traducción Alterna: "será grandemente honrado"

las ovejas se alimentarán como en su propio pastizal El SEÑOR destruirá a la ciudad de Jerusalén, la cual fue llamada "viñedo" en 5:1. Sólo será buena para que las ovejas coman el pasto de ese lugar.

apacentarán
Comer pasto

en las ruinas, corderos apacentarán como extranjeros Esto significa que los corderos apacentarán allí. La tierra no servirá para ningún otro uso.

Isaiah 5:18

Aflicción a aquellos quienes llevan la iniquidad con cuerdas inútiles y quienes llevan pecado como si fuera un carro de soga Esta frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Hablan de las personas que siguen pecando a propósito como si estuvieran usando toda su fuerza para arrastrar un carro muy pesado. Dios los castigará por su pecado. Traducción Alterna: "Aflicción a aquellos que trabajan duro para pecar como una persona que arrastra un carro con una soga"

aquellos que dicen
Esto se refiere a aquellos que siguen pecando.

deja que los planes del Santo de Israel vengan Se habla de los planes de Dios como si estos fueran objetos que pueden venir por sí solos. Traducción Alterna: "deja que el Santo de Israel cumple sus planes"

el Santo de Israel
Ver cómo tradujiste "el Santo" en 5:15.

Isaiah 5:20

a quienes representan oscuridad como luz, y luz como oscuridad...lo amargo como dulce, y lo dulce como amargo Esto significa lo mismo que " quienes llaman al mal, bien y bien, al mal". Estas cosas son opuestas y la gente sabe la diferencia entre ellas, pero algunas personas mienten y dicen que lo malo es bueno. Traducción Alterna: "ellos son como las personas que llaman a la oscuridad, luz y a la luz, oscuridad. Ellos son como las personas que llaman a lo amargo, dulce y a lo dulce, amargo"

para aquellos quienes son sabios en sus propios ojos Aquí "ojos" se refiere a sus pensamientos. Traducción Alterna: " para aquellos que se consideran a sí mismos sabios" prudentes en su propio entendimiento

"y creen que ellos entienden todo"

Isaiah 5:22

a quienes liberan al malvado por pago Este versículo habla de los jueces corruptos en los tribunales

liberan al malvado
"declaran a las personas culpables inocentes" privan al inocente de sus derechos

"no tratan a las personas inocentes justamente"

Isaiah 5:24

lengua de fuego
"llama del fuego" o "llama"

según la lengua de fuego devora rastrojo, y según la hierba seca cae en llamas Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Dios castigará a las personas descriptas en 5:18. Traducción Alterna: "según el fuego quema el rastrojo y el pasto"

rastrojo
"Tallos de granos secos" Esto se refiere a la parte de la planta que se deja morir en el campo después de que el granjero recoge la comida.

su raíz se pudrirá, y su florecimiento volará como polvo Isaías habla de estas personas como si ellos fueran una planta que está muriendo. Traducción Alterna: "ellos morirán al igual que una planta cuyas raíces se han podrido y cuya flor se ha secado y se la ha llevado el viento"

Isaiah 5:25

el enojo del SEÑOR está encendido Isaías habla del enojo del SEÑOR como si fuera fuego. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR está muy enojado"

Él ha extendido con Su mano en contra de ellos y los ha castigado.
El profeta habla del futuro como si ya hubiera sucedido. Él hace esto para insistir en que la profecía se cumplirá ciertamente. Traducción Alterna: "Él los castigará con Su mano poderosa"

cuerpos
"cadáveres"

sus cuerpos son como basura en las calles
Los cadáveres se dejan tirados en las calles como si fueran basura. Esto implica que muchos morirán pero que nadie estará allí para enterrarlos. La palabra "basura" también puede ser traducida como "desecho" o "estiércol".

En todas estas cosas, Su enojo no disminuye
"aunque todas estas cosas han sucedido, Él todavía está enojado"

Su mano aún está extendida
Isaías habla del SEÑOR como si Él fuera una persona que está por pegarle a otra con su puño. Esto es una metáfora para decir que el SEÑOR castiga a Israel.

Isaiah 5:26

Él levantará una bandera de señal para naciones lejanas y silbará para aquellos al final de la tierra Isaías dice lo mismo de dos formas diferentes para hacer énfasis en que Dios usará a otras naciones para que castiguen a Su pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Él llamará a los ejércitos de naciones muy lejanas a Judá y les dirá que vengan" y

Silbar
Ruido fuerte y agudo que una persona hace con la boca para llamar a una persona o animal que está lejos.

ellos vendrán
"el ejército enemigo vendrá"

rápida y prontamente
Estas palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y hacen énfasis en lo rápido que vendrán. Traducción Alterna: "muy rápido"

Isaiah 5:27

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo al ejército que atacará a Judá. Él lo describe como si ya existiera. (Ver: ISA 5:26)

se cansa...tambalea...dormita...duerme
Estas cuatro palabras muestran el progreso de estar cansado por el trabajo a no poder caminar bien, a no poder permanecer despierto, a quedarse completamente dormido. Por lo tanto, las cuatro palabras deben aparecer en la traducción.

Tampoco sus correas están sueltas
Los soldados mantenían su ropa ajustada para que fuera más fácil moverse y pelear.

las correas de sus sandalias
"las tiras de sus sandalias"

los cascos de sus caballos son como pedernal Isaías compara la parte dura de la pata del caballo con un pedernal, una roca dura. Traducción Alterna: "los cascos de sus caballos son tan duros como la piedra". Esto es una figura literaria

y las ruedas de sus carruajes como tormentas Isaías compara las ruedas de los carruajes con las tormentas para mostrar que las ruedas destruirán todo a su paso. Traducción Alterna: " y las ruedas de sus carruajes girarán como un huracán"

ruedas de sus carruajes
Estas ruedas usualmente tenían espadas filosas adjuntas que podían cortar en pedazos a cualquiera que estuviera cerca de donde pasaba el carruaje.

Isaiah 5:29

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo al ejército que atacará a Judá. (Ver: 5:26)

Su rugido será como un león; rugirán como leoncillos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Isaías compara el ejército enemigo con un león para decir que el sonido de su ataque hará que la gente de Judá tenga mucho miedo. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando su ejército grite en la batalla, ellos sonarán como un león rugiente"

leoncillos
La edad jóven es una figura literaria

Ellos gruñirán y atraparán la presa Isaías compara al enemigo que mata a la gente de Judá con un león que mata a un animal más débil. Los significados posibles son 1) los leones hacen un sonido no tan fuerte como el rugido antes de atacar o 2) el escritor usa dos palabras para decir lo mismo.

presa
Animales que otros animales quieren atrapar y matar.

con ninguno para rescatar
" y nadie podrá salvarlos"

rugirá...ruge el mar
Esto es lo mismo que la palabra traducida "gruñir" en el versículo 29. Usa la palabra en tu idioma que se refiere al sonido de las olas en una tormenta o lluvia fuerte o algún otro sonido natural atemorizante.

incluso la luz será hecha oscura por las nubes Aquí la oscuridad representa sufrimiento y desastre. Esta metáfora puede ser expresada de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las nubes oscuras bloquearán completamente la luz del sol"

Chapter 6

1 En el año que murió el rey Uzías, yo vi al Señor sentado sobre un trono; Él era alto y sublime, y el borde de Su manto llenaba el templo. 2 Sobre Él estaban los serafines; cada uno tenía seis alas; con dos cubrían su cara, con dos cubrían sus pies, y con dos volaban. 3 Cada uno llamó a otro y dijo: "Santo, Santo, Santo, es el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos! Toda la tierra está llena de Su gloria." 4 Los cimientos de los umbrales se sacudían ante las voces de aquellos que exclamaban, y la casa estaba llena de humo. 5 Entonces yo dije: "¡Ay de mí! Pues estoy condenado porque yo soy un hombre de labios impuros, y yo vivo entre un pueblo de labios impuros, porque mis ojos han visto al Rey, al SEÑOR, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos!". 6 Entoces uno de los serafines voló hacia mí; él tenía un carbón encendido en su mano, que él había tomado con las tenazas del altar. 7 Él tocó mi boca con éste y dijo: "Mira, esto ha tocado tus labios; tu culpa ha sido quitada, y tu pecado expiado." 8 Yo escuché la voz del Señor decir: "¿A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá por nosotros? Entonces yo dije: "Aquí estoy yo; envíame." 9 Él dijo: "Vé y dile a este pueblo: 'Escuchan, pero no entienden; ven, pero no perciben.' 10 Haz insensible el corazón de este pueblo, y sus oídos sordos, y ciega sus ojos. De otra manera, ellos podrán ver con sus ojos, escuchar con sus oídos, y entender con sus corazones, y entonces se tornen y sean sanos." 11 Entonces yo dije: "Señor, ¿por cuánto tiempo?" Él contestó: "Hasta que las ciudades se encuentren en ruinas y estén sin habitantes, y las casas estén sin gente, y la tierra caiga en un desierto desolado, 12 y hasta que el Señor haya enviado al pueblo muy lejos, y la soledad de la tierra sea grande. 13 Incluso si una décima parte de la gente permaneciera en ella, ésta será destruida nuevamente; pero, como un terebinto o un roble es cortado y cuyo tronco permanece, la semilla santa está en su tocón."

Isaiah 6:1

Él era alto y elevado
Las palabras "alto" y "elevado" hacen énfasis en que el trono era muy alto y que estaba por encima de todo alrededor. La altura del trono representa cúan grande y poderoso es el Señor.

llenaba el templo
"llenaba el palacio". La palabra utilizada para templo aquí usualmente es usada para referirse al palacio de los reyes.

Sobre Él estaban los serafines
Esto significa que el Señor estaba sentado en el trono y que los serafines estaban parados o volando cerca del Señor listos para servirle.

serafines
Esta palabra sugiere que las criaturas podrían tener una apariencia ardiente o parecerse a las serpientes. Como no se sabe exactamente qué significa "serafines", podrías traducirlo como "criaturas" o "seres vivos" o "seres".

cada uno tenía seis alas
"cada serafín tenía seis alas" o "cada criatura tenía seis alas"

con dos cubrían su cara, con dos cubrían sus pies, y con dos volaban Las palabras "alas" y "serafín" se sobreentienden. Traducción Alterna: "con dos alas cada serafín cubría su cara, y con dos alas cubría sus pies y con dos alas volaba"

Isaiah 6:3

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo su visión.

Cada uno llamó a otro y dijo
"Los serafines se llamaban el uno al otro" o "Las criaturas proclamaban la una a la otra"

Santo, Santo, Santo, es el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos Repetir la palabra "santo" tres veces indica que Dios es completamente santo. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es santo sobre todo lo demás" o "el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es completamente santo"

Toda la tierra está llena de Su gloria Habla de la tierra como si fuera un recipiente y como si la gloria fuera era el contenido del recipiente. Traducción Alterna: "Todo en la tierra es prueba de la gloria de Dios"

Isaiah 6:4

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo su visión.

Los cimientos de los umbrales se sacudían ante las voces de aquellos que gritaban
"Cuando lo serafines gritaban, sus voces sacudían las puertas y los cimientos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y la casa estaba llena de humo
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " y el humo llenó el templo" o "y el humo llenó el palacio"

¡Ay de mí! Pues yo estoy condenado porque yo soy un hombre de labios impuros, y vivo entre un pueblo de labios impuros, porque mis ojos han visto al Rey, al SEÑOR, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos!
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "¡Estoy en grandes problemas! Porque mis ojos han visto al SEÑOR, Comandante de los ejércitos de ángeles, pero yo soy un hombre de labios impuros y vivo en medio de gente de labios impuros"

de labios impuros
Aquí "labios" representa lo que las personas hablan. Y, se habla de las personas que dicen cosas inaceptables para Dios como si sus labios estuvieran físicamente sucios.

porque mis ojos han visto Aquí "ojos" representan a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "yo he visto"

Isaiah 6:6

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo su visión.

serafines
Esta palabra sugiere que las criaturas podrían tener una apariencia ardiente o parecerse a las serpientes. Como no se sabe exactamente qué significa "serafines", podrías traducirlo como "criaturas" o "seres vivos" o "seres". Ver cómo tradujiste esta palabra en 6:1. (Ver: y transliterate)

tenazas
Herramienta usada para agarrar y sostener objetos

tu culpa ha sido quitada, y tu pecado expiado Estas dos frases dicen básciamente lo mismo. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ha quitado tu culpa y ha perdonado tus pecados"

tu culpa ha sido quitada Que el SEÑOR ya no considere culpable a una persona es como si la "culpa" fuera un objeto que alguien puede sacar de otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ya no te considera culpable"

Isaiah 6:8

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo su visión.

la voz del Señor diciendo Aquí "voz" representa al Señor mismo. Traducción Alterna: "al Señor decir"

¿A quién enviaré?
Esto implicaba que el SEÑOR enviaría a alguien para que comunique su mensaje al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "¿A quién enviaré para que sea un mensajero para mi pueblo?"

¿Quién irá por nosotros?
Parece que "nosotros" se refiere al SEÑOR y a los miembros de su consejo celestial.

este pueblo
"el pueblo de Israel"

Escuchan, pero no entienden; ven, pero no perciben
Los significados posibles son 1) los imperativos "no entienden" y "no perciben" expresan lo que Dios está haciendo que suceda. Traducción Alterna: " Ustedes escucharán, pero el SEÑOR no permitirá que entiendan; ustedes verán cuidadosamente, pero el SEÑOR no permitirá que entiendan" o 2) los imperativos "escuchar" y "ver" expresan la idea de "si ustedes..." Traducción Alterna: "Aunque ustedes escuchen, no entenderán; aunque vean cuidadosamente, no entenderán"

Escuchan, pero no entienden; ven, pero no perciben
Puedes expresar claramente la información sobreentendida. Traducción Alterna: "Escuchan el mensaje del SEÑOR, pero no entienden lo que significa; ven lo que el SEÑOR hace, pero no se dan cuenta de lo que significa"

Isaiah 6:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Isaías lo que debe hacer cuando el SEÑOR lo envíe al pueblo de Israel

Haz insensible el corazón de este pueblo Aquí "corazón" representa el corazón de una persona. Se habla de que una persona que no piensa con claridad y no puede entender ni preocuparse por lo que está sucediendo es como si tuviera un corazón insensible. Traducción Alterna: " Hazlos incapaces de entender" o " Haz sus mentes torpes"

Haz insensible el corazón
Esta orden significa que el SEÑOR usará el mensaje de Isaías para hacer que la gente entienda aún menos y sea menos sensible a lo que el SEÑOR está haciendo.

sus oídos sordos, y ciega sus ojos
"Haz que ya no puedan escuchar, haz que no puedan ver" Isaías hace que las personas no puedan entender el mensaje del SEÑOR o se habla de lo que él está haciendo como si Isaías estuviera haciendolos sordos y ciegos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos podrán ver con sus ojos, escuchar con sus oídos
Se habla de que la gente es capaz de entender el mensaje del SEÑOR y lo que Él está haciendo como si la gente pudiera físicamente ver y oir.

entender con sus corazones Aquí "corazón" representa a la mente de la persona. Se dice que verdaderamente entender algo y preocuparse por lo que está sucediendo es como si las personas entendieran con sus corazones.

se tornarán
Arrepentirse y empezar a obedecer al SEÑOR es como si las personas pudieran físicamente girarse hacia Él. Traducción Alterna: "y me seguirán de nuevo" o "luego empezarán a confiar en mí de nuevo"

serán sanados
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo los sanaré"

Isaiah 6:11

Hasta que las ciudades se encuentren en ruinas y estén sin habitantes, y las casas estén sin gente
"Hasta que todas las ciudades y casas estén en ruinas y nadie viva allí"

la tierra caiga en un desierto desolado Aquí "caiga" es una expresión idiomática que significa convertirse en algo peor. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que la tierra se convierta en un desierto desolado"

hasta que el Señor haya enviado al pueblo lejos, y la soledad de la tierra sea grande Aquí el SEÑOR habla de sí mismo en tercera persona. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que Yo, el SEÑOR, haya enviado a todas personas lejos de sus tierras, y así no quede nadie"

Isaiah 6:13

esta será destruida nuevamente Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "los ejércitos destruirán nuevamente la tierra de Israel" como un terebinto o un roble es cortado y cuyo tronco permanece, la semilla santa está en su tocón Esta figura literaria

terebinto
Un arból parecido al roble.

tronco...tocón
El "tronco" es el tallo grueso principal de un árbol. El "tocón" es la parte del árbol que queda en el suelo después de que el árbol es cortado.

la semilla santa
Se habla de la gente que servirá al SEÑOR después de que Él destruya Israel como si ellos fueran la semilla santa.

Chapter 7

1 Durante los días de Acaz, hijo de Jotam, hijo de Uzías, rey de Judá, Rezín el rey de Aram, y Peka, hijo de Remalías, rey de Israel, subieron a Jerusalén en guerra contra ella, pero ellos no prevalecieron contra ella. 2 Fue notificado a la casa de David que Aram se alió con Efraín. Su corazón tembló, y el corazón de su pueblo, así como los árboles del bosque se sacuden en el viento. 3 Entonces el SEÑOR dijo a Isaías: "Sal con tu hijo Sear Jasub a encontrarte con Acaz al final del canal del estanque superior, en la carretera hacia el Campo de Lavado. 4 Dile: 'Sé cuidadoso, mantén la calma, no temas o te intimides por estas ardientes llamas, por el enojo feroz de Rezín y Aram, y de Peka hijo de Remalías. 5 Aram, Efraín, y el hijo de Remalías han planeado maldad contra tí, ellos han dicho: 6 "Ataquemos a Judá y sea aterrorizada, entremos en ella y coloquemos nuestro rey allí, el hijo de Tabeel." 7 El SEÑOR Dios dice: "Esto no ocurrirá; no sucederá, 8 porque la cabeza de Aram es Damasco, y la cabeza de Damasco es Rezín. Dentro de sesenta y cinco años, Efraín será destrozado y no será más un pueblo. 9 La cabeza de Efraín es Samaria, y la cabeza de Samaria es el hijo de Remalías. Si tú no permaneces firme en fe, seguramente tú no permanecerás seguro."'" 10 El SEÑOR habló otra vez a Acaz: 11 "Pide una señal al SEÑOR tu Dios; pide por ella en las profundidades o en las alturas arriba." 12 Pero Acaz dijo: "Yo no la pediré, ni tampoco probaré al SEÑOR." 13 Así que, Isaías replicó: "Escucha, casa de David. ¿No es suficiente para tu pueblo probar la paciencia de la gente? ¿Debes también probar la paciencia de mi Dios? 14 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR mismo le dará a tu pueblo una señal: mirad, la mujer joven concebirá, tendrá un hijo, y llamará su nombre Emanuel. 15 Él comerá cuajada y miel hasta que Él sepa rechazar el mal y escoger el bien. 16 Pues antes de que el niño sepa rechazar el mal y escoger el bien, la tierra a cuyos dos reyes tú temes será desolada. 17 El SEÑOR los traerá a tí, sobre tu pueblo, y sobre la casa de tu padre, días como ninguno desde que Efraín se apartó de Judá, Él te traerá al rey de Asiria." 18 En aquel tiempo el SEÑOR silbará a una mosca de las distantes corrientes de Egipto, y a una abeja de la tierra de Asiria. 19 Todas ellas vendrán y se establecerán en todos los barrancos, en las hendiduras de las rocas, en todos los arbustos espinosos, y en todos los pastos. 20 En aquel tiempo el Señor rasurará con una navaja que fue traída más allá del Río Eufrates, el rey de Asiria, la cabeza y el cabello de las piernas; ésta también cortará la barba. 21 En aquel día, un hombre mantendrá viva a una ternera y dos ovejas, 22 y a causa de la abundancia de leche de las cuales ellas darán, Él comerá cuajadas, pues todos los que queden en la tierra comerán cuajadas y miel. 23 En aquel tiempo, donde allí habían mil viñedos valorados en mil siclos de plata, no habrá nada sino zarzas y espinas. 24 Hombres irán allí a cazar con arcos, porque la tierra será de zarzas y espinas. 25 Ellos se mantendrán lejos de todas las colinas que fueron cultivadas con la azada, por miedo a las zarzas y espinas; pues será un lugar donde el ganado y las ovejas pazcan.

Isaiah 7:1

Durante los días de Acaz...rey de Judá
"Cuando Acaz...era rey de Judá" Este es el momento en el que sucedieron los eventos. (Ver:)

Rezín...Peka...Remalías
Nombres de hombres

Rezín...y Peka...subieron
El autor habla como si los reyes fueran los ejércitos que ellos dirigían. Traducción Alterna: "Rezín...y Peka...dirigieron a sus ejércitos"

en guerra contra ella
El autor habla como si la ciudad misma fuera la gente que vive allí. Traducción Alterna: "en guerra contra la gente de Jerusalén"

Fue reportado a la casa de David Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la casa de David oyó el reporte" o "alguien reportó a la casa de David"

la casa de David
La palabra "casa" es una figura literaria

que Aram se alió con Efraín Aquí "Aram" y "Efraín" se refieren a sus reyes. Efraín se usa aquí para referirse a todo el reino del norte de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "que Rezin, el rey de Aram estaba ayudando a Peka, el rey de Israel"

Su corazón tembló, y el corazón de su pueblo, como los árboles del bosque se sacuden en el viento
El temblor de sus corazones ante esta noticia se compara con la manera en la que los árboles se sacuden cuando sopla el viento a través de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Acaz y su gente tenían mucho miedo"

Isaiah 7:3

Información general:
Isaías escribe sobre lo que le sucedió a él como si eso le hubiera sucedido a otra persona.

Sear Jasub
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "el nombre Sean Jasub significa "un remanente volverá"". El significado quizás le dio esperanza a Acaz.

al final del conducto del estanque superior
"donde el agua entra al estanque superior"

conducto
Una zanja o tunel hecho por el hombre a través del que fluye el agua.

carretera
Si en tu idioma existe una palabra para una carretera o un camino que la gente ha hecho parejo rellenando las partes bajas y bajando las partes altas, puedes usarla aquí.

Batanero
Los significados posibles son 1) este es el nombre propio con el que llamaban al campo o 2)este es un sustantivo común usado para hablar del campo, "el batanero" o "el campo donde los hombres lavan la lana" o "el campo donde las mujeres lavan la ropa".

Batanero
Un lavandero es 1)un hombre que lava la lana que cortaron de las ovejas, "Campo para lavar lana", o 2) una mujer que lava ropa sucia, "Campo para lavar ropa" (ver UDB).

Dile
Dile a Acaz

'Sé cuidadoso, permanece calmado, no temas o te intimides por estas ardientes llamas, por el enojo feroz de Rezín y Aram, y de Peka hijo de Remalías Dios compara a Rezín y Peka con ramas en llamas, cuyo fuego se apagó y ahora sólo hacen humo. Dios hace énfasis en que ellos no son una verdadera amenaza para Judá. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "no dejes que Rezín y Peka te asusten, su feroz enojo es como una rama en llamas, cuyo fuego se apagó y sólo queda el humo".

temas o te intimides
Las palabras "temas" e "intimides" significan lo mismo y pueden ser traducidas como una sola palabra. Traducción Alterna: "temas"

Isaiah 7:5

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Isaías lo que le debe decir a Acaz. (Ver: ISA 7:3)

Aram, Efraín, y el hijo de Remalías
Las palabras "Aram" y "Efraín" se refieren a los reyes de esas tierras. Además, "Efraín" se refiere al reino del norte de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Rezín el rey de Aram y Peka el hijo de Remalías, rey de Israel"

Remalías

y la cabeza de Damasco es Rezín
"y el rey de Damasco es Rezín, quien es un hombre débil" sesenta y cinco años

cinco años- "65 años"

Efraín será destrozado y no será más un pueblo Aquí "Efraín" se refiere a todo el reino del norte de Israel. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "un ejército destruirá a Efraín y ya no habrá un pueblo de Israel"

la cabeza de Samaria es el hijo de Remalías Esto significa que Peka es el rey de Samaria y de todo Israel. Traducción Alterna: "el rey de Samaria es Peka, quien es un hombre debil" (Ver:)

Si tú no permaneces firme en fe, seguramente tú no permanecerás seguro Esto puede ser expresado de forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Si continúas creyendo en mí, ciertamente permanecerás seguro"

Si tú no permaneces
"A menos que permanezcas"

Isaiah 7:10

pide por ella en las profundidades o en las alturas arriba El SEÑOR usa las palabras "profundidades" y "alturas" para decir que Acaz podía pedirle lo que sea.

profundidades...alturas
Los sustantivos abstractos "profundidades" y "alturas" pueden ser traducidos con preposiciones. "lugares lejanos abajo de ti...lugares lejanos arriba de ti"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"no le pediré al SEÑOR una señal"

Isaiah 7:13

casa de David
La palabra "casa" es una figura literaria

¿No es suficiente para tu pueblo probar la paciencia de las personas? ¿Debes también probar la paciencia de mi Dios?
Estas preguntas hacen énfasis en que el rey ha pecado grandemente. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ustedes ponen a prueba la paciencia de la gente! ¡Y ahora hasta prueban la paciencia de Dios!

la mujer joven concebirá
Algunas versiones antiguas y algunas versiones contemporáneas traducen "la virgen concebirá"; mientras que otras traducen "la mujer joven concebirá"

Su nombre Emmanuel
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Emmanuel significa "Dios con nosotros".

Él comerá cuajada y miel cuando Él sepa negarse a lo malo y escoger lo bueno.
Los significados posibles son 1) "Para cuando ese niño sea lo suficientemente grande para comer cuajada y miel, él podrá negar lo malo y escoger lo bueno". Esto hace énfasis en que el niño será muy pequeño pero que sabe elegir el bien en vez del mal. 2)" Para cuando el niño sea lo suficientemente grande para negar lo malo y escoger lo bueno, él estará comiendo cuajada y miel". La gente de Judá consideraba que un niño era responsable por hacer el bien cuando tenía 12 años. Esto hace énfasis en que dentro de los 12 años, la gente podrá comer mucha cuajada y miel porque la mayoría de la gente de Israel será asesinada o tomada cautiva.

Leche que la gente transformó en un sólido blando.

negarse a lo malo y escoger lo bueno
"negarse a hacer malas obras y escoger hacer buenas obras"

Isaiah 7:16

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo la señal que Dios dará a la casa de David.

negarse a lo malo y escoger lo bueno
"negarse a hacer malas obras y escoger hacer buenas obras". Traducir como en 7:13.

tú temes
"tú le tienes miedo". Aquí "tú" se refiere a Acaz.

tu pueblo
Esto se refiere al pueblo de Judá.

Efraín se separó de Judá
"el pueblo de Efraín se separó del pueblo de Judá"

Isaiah 7:18

En ese tiempo
Antes de que el niño sepa negarse a lo malo y escoger lo bueno. (7:13)

El SEÑOR silbará por
"El SEÑOR llamará" o "El SEÑOR convocará"

por una mosca de las distantes corrientes de Egipto, y por una abeja de la tierra de Asiria
"por los ejércitos de Egipto y Asiria, y sus soldados estarán por todas partes como moscas y abejas"

Isaiah 7:20

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo el momento en el que el ejército de Asiria atacará a Israel

el Señor rasurará con una navaja que fue contratada más allá del Río Eufrates, del rey de Asiria La palabra "rasurará" es una metáfora para el rey de Asiria y su ejército. El SEÑOR habla del rey como si el rey fuera un hombre que hará el trabajo del SEÑOR y recibirá dinero del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "el Señor llamará al rey de Asiria desde más allá del río Éufrates para que que trabaje para él y te rasure.

que fue contratada
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que él compró"

la cabeza...el vello de sus piernas...también...la barba
No era bueno que alguien tuviera rasurada la parte superior de la cabeza; era peor que alguien se rasurara "los vellos de las piernas"; lo peor de todo era que alguien se rasurara la barba.

la cabeza...los vellos de las piernas...la barba Isaías no dice qué cabeza, qué vello y qué barba el Señor rasurará, pero Acaz y su lector entenderán que este es un hombre; el hombre es una metáfora para la gente que vive en la tierra de Judá (ver UDB).

la cabeza
"el pelo en la cabeza"

el vello de las piernas
Los significados posibles 1)esta es una forma más educada de hablar del vello de la parte inferior del cuerpo o 2) esto habla del vello en las piernas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

recortará la barba
"la rasuradora también recortará". Si en tu idioma se necesita que una persona sea el sujeto de "recortará", puedes decir, "el Señor también recortará".

a causa de la abundancia de leche de las cuales ellas darán El sustantivo abstracto "abundancia" puede ser traducido en una frase. Traducción Alterna: "porque ellas darán mucha leche"

Isaiah 7:23

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo el momento en el que el ejército de Asiria atacará la tierra de Israel.

había mil vides
"había 1.000 vides". Esto quiere decir que cuando Isaías escribía, había viñedos, y en algunos había 1.000 vides o más. Él dice que estos viñedos se llenarán de zarzas y espinas.

zarzas y espinas
Las palabras "zarzas" y "espinas" se refieren a plantas espinosas inútiles; pueden ser traducidas en una sola palabra. Traducción Alterna: "arbustos espinosos"

porque la tierra será de zarzas y espinas
La razón por la que los cazadores van a esas tierras puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "porque no habrá más que zarzas, espinas y animales salvajes en esas tierras"

Ellos se mantendrán lejos de todas las colinas que fueron cultivadas con la azada
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente se mantendrá alejada de las colinas donde alguna vez prepararon el suelo para sembrar los cultivos"

Chapter 8

1 El SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "Toma una tabla grande y escribe en ella 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.' 2 Yo citaré testigos fieles que testifiquen por mí, Urías el sacerdote, y Zacarías hijo de Jeberequías." 3 Yo fuí a la profetisa, y ella concibió y dió a luz un hijo. Luego el SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "Pónle por nombre Maher Shalal Hash Baz' 4 Pues antes de que el niño sepa clamar: 'Mi padre,' y 'mi madre,' las riquezas de Damasco y el botín de Samaria serán tomados por el rey de Asiria." 5 El SEÑOR me habló a mí otra vez: 6 "Porque este pueblo ha rehusado las apacibles aguas de Siloé, y están felices con Rezín y con el hijo de Remalías, 7 por tanto, el Señor está a punto de traer a ellos las aguas del Río, poderosas y muchas, el rey de Asiria y toda su gloria. Saldrá de todo su cauce y se desbordará de sus orillas. " 8 El Río barrerá adelante dentro de Judá, inundando y pasando por encima, hasta que alcance sus cuellos. Sus alas estiradas llenarán la anchura de su tierra, Emanuel." 9 Ustedes, gentes, serán rotas en pedazos. Escuchen, todos ustedes países distantes: ármense a sí mismos para la guerra, y sean rotos en pedazos; arménse a sí mismos y sean rotos en pedazos. 10 Formen un plan, pero éste no será ejecutado; emitan la orden, pero no será ejecutada, pues Dios está con nosotros. 11 El SEÑOR me habló a mí, con Su fuerte mano sobre mí, y me advirtió a no caminar en el camino de Su pueblo. 12 No llamen conspiración a nada que este pueblo llama conspiración, ustedes no temerán lo que ellos temen, y no sean aterrorizados. 13 Es El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos a quien ustedes honrarán como santo; Él es a quien deben temer y Él es a quien deben tenerle pavor. 14 Él se volverá un santuario; pero Él será una piedra para golpearse, y una piedra de tropiezo, para ambas casas de Israel, y Él será una trampa y un lazo para el pueblo de Jerusalén. 15 Muchos tropezarán con ella y caerán y serán quebrados, y serán atrapados y capturados. 16 Ata Mi testimonio, sella el registro oficial, y dáselo a mis discípulos. 17 Yo esperaré por el SEÑOR, quien esconde Su rostro de la casa de Jacob; yo esperaré por él. 18 Mirad, yo y los hijos quienes el SEÑOR me ha dado son para señales y para maravillas en Israel del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, quien vive en el Monte Sion. 19 Ellos te dirán a tí: "Consulta con los agoreros y los magos," aquellos que surran y murmuran encantamientos. Sin embargo, ¿no debería un pueblo consultar a su Dios? ¿Deberían ellos consultar a los muertos de parte de los vivos? 20 ¡A la ley y al testimonio! Si ellos no dicen tales cosas, es porque no tienen ninguna luz del alba. 21 Ellos pasarán a través de la tierra grandemente angustiados y hambrientos. Cuando tengan hambre, ellos se enojarán y maldecirán a su rey y a su Dios, mientras vuelven sus rostros hacia arriba. 22 Ellos mirarán a la tierra y verán angustia, oscuridad y penumbra opresiva. Ellos serán conducidos a una tierra de oscuridad.

Isaiah 8:1

El SEÑOR me dijo a mí
Aquí la palabra "mí" se refiere a Isaías.

Yo llamaré testigos fieles que testifiquen por mí
Los significados posibles son 1)El SEÑOR está hablando: "Yo llamaré a los hombres honestos para que sean testigos" o 2) Isaías está hablando: 1) "Yo llamé a los hombres honestos para que sean testigos" o 3) El SEÑOR le está ordenando a Isaías: "Llama a los hombres honestos para que sean testigos".

Isaiah 8:3

Yo fui a la profetisa Puede ser expresado explícitamente que Isaías está casado con la profetisa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo dormí con mi esposa, la profetisa" las riquezas de Damasco y el botín de Samaria serán tomados por el rey de Asiria Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el rey de Asiria se llevará todos los tesoros de Damasco y Samaria"

Isaiah 8:5

Porque este pueblo ha rehusado las gentiles aguas de Siloé Las palabras "gentiles aguas" son una metáfora para la ley del Señor. Traducción Alterna: "Porque este pueblo ha rechazado la ley del SEÑOR, la cual es como las aguas gentiles de Siloé"

este pueblo
"este grupo de gente". Si en tu idioma se necesita un plural aquí, podrías traducir esta frase y los verbos que siguen como "estas personas han rehusado...son felices".

y está feliz con Rezín y con el hijo de Remalías El significado completo puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: " y está feliz de que los ejércitos de Asiria hayan derrotado a Rezín, rey de Aram, y a Peka, el hijo de Remalías, rey de Israel". Traducir estos nombres como en 7:1.

por lo tanto, el Señor estoy El SEÑOR habla de sí mismo como si Él fuera alguien más para recordarle a la gente quién es Él. Traducción Alterna: "por lo tanto, Yo, el Señor, estoy"

traer a ellos
El verbo es "traer"; el adverbio es "a ellos".

a ellos
"a las personas de Judá"

las aguas del Río, poderosas y muchas, el rey de Asiria y toda su gloria El río simboliza al ejército de Asiria. Traducción Alterna: "el ejército de Asiria, que es poderoso como un río potente"

del Río
El río Éufrates en Asiria

Isaiah 8:8

Información general:
El Señor continúa describiendo al ejército de Asiria como si fuera un río que inundará Judá. (Ver: 8:5)

El Río barrerá adelante hacia Judá, inundando y pasando por encima, hasta que alcance sus cuellos
El ejército de Asiria es como una inundación de agua. Traducción Alterna: "Más y más soldados vendrán como un río que sube hasta sus cuellos".

El Río
El río Éufrates en Asiria. Esto es una figura literaria

Sus alas estiradas llenarán
Los significados posibles son 1) como "el río" en la metáfora se eleva, sus "alas" fluyen y cubren lo que había sido tierra seca o 2) Isaías cambia las metáforas y ahora habla del SEÑOR como si fuera un ave que protege la tierra, "Pero sus alas estiradas cubrirán".

Emmanuel
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 7:13.

Isaiah 8:9

Tus personas serán rotas en pedazos
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo romperé a tus ejércitos en pedazos".

Escuchen, todos ustedes países distantes Isaías habla como si los otros países pudieran oirlo. Traducción Alterna: "Escuchen, todos ustedes en lugares muy lejanos" arménse a sí mismos para la guerra, y sean rotos en pedazos; arménse a sí mismos y sean rotos en pedazos Esto es básicamente lo mismo expresado dos veces por énfasis. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traduccíon Alterna: "ustedes pueden prepararse para la batalla, pero Yo los derrotaré"

Formen un plan, pero este no será ejecutado; emitan la encomienda, pero no será ejecutada Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes pueden preparar el ataque Judá, pero no tendrán éxito"

pero no será ejecutado...pero no será ejecutada
"Ejecutar" un plan o una enmienda es hacer lo que el que crea el plan o la enmienda quiere que haga el oyente. Estas dos frases pueden ser expresadas de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "no serán capaces de hacer lo que planean...sus soldados no podrán hacer lo que sus comandantes les digan hacer"

Isaiah 8:11

El SEÑOR me habló a mí, con Su fuerte mano sobre mí
"El SEÑOR me habló de una manera muy poderosa"

y me advirtió no caminar en el camino de Su pueblo Esta es una cita indirecta que termina en 8:17. Traducción Alterna: "y me advirtió y me dijo, "No actúes como este pueblo"".

No llamen conspiración a nada que este pueblo llama conspiración
La gente imagina que hay conspiraciones y eso los vuelve ansiosos. Traducción Alterna: "No se preocupen como las personas que creen que alguien siempre está tratando de lastimarlos"

Es El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos a quien ustedes honrarán como santo; Él es a quien deben tenerle miedo y Él es a quien deben temer Si traduces esto como una cita directa, también puedes traducirla con el Señor hablando en primera persona: "Sin embargo, ustedes me considerarán a mí, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, como santo. Y ustedes me temerán y se impresionarán"

Isaiah 8:14

Información general:
Isaías continúa la cita indirecta del SEÑOR que comenzó en 8:11. Esto puede ser traducido como una cita directa con el SEÑOR hablando en primera persona.

Él se volverá un santuario
La palabra "santuario" es una metáfora para decir que el SEÑOR mantiene seguro a su pueblo y lo protege. Traducción Alterna: "Él los protegerá cuando ellos vayan a Él"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él será una piedra para golpear, y una piedra de tropiezo
Las palabras "piedra para golpear" y "piedra de tropiezo" son metáforas para decir que el SEÑOR lastima a su pueblo. Algunos traducen "golpear" y "tropiezo" como "tropezar" y "caer"; otros lo traducen como "ofensa" y "tropiezo". Traducción Alterna: "Él lastimará a su gente, como una piedra con la que la gente se golpea el pie y se tropieza, y como una piedra que hace que la gente se caiga"

Él será una trampa y un engaño para el pueblo de Jerusalén Las palabras "trampa" y "engaño" significan casi lo mismo y enfatizan que cuando el SEÑOR decida castigar a la gente de Jerusalén, ellos no podrán escapar. Traducción Alterna: "Y Él atrapará a la gente de Jerusalén para que no puedan escapar de Él"

trampa
Aquí es una trampa que atrapa a las aves en una red o en una canasta.

engaño
Aquí es una trampa que atrapa y agarra la pierna o la nariz de un animal.

Muchos tropezarán en ella y caerán y serán quebrados, y serán atrapados y capturados Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Muchos tropezarán con la piedra, y cuando se caigan no se levantarán. Y muchas personas pisarán la trampa y no podrán salir de ella"

atrapados y capturados
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que ellos serán atrapados en las trampas.

Isaiah 8:16

Ata mi testimonio, sella el historial oficial, y dáselo a mis discípulos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: " Cierra firmemente el pergamino con este mensaje escrito en él"

mi testimonio...mis discípulos
No es claro a quién se refiere la palabra "mi". Podría ser Isaías o el SEÑOR. Es mejor dejar los pronombres ambiguos si lo permite tu idioma.

Yo esperaré por el SEÑOR
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Isaías.

quien esconde Su rostro de la casa de Jacob El rostro del SEÑOR es una figura literaria

casa de Jacob
El pueblo de Israel.

yo y los hijos que el SEÑOR me ha dado son para señales y para maravillas en Israel
" Yo y los hijos que el SEÑOR me ha dado son como señales para advertir al pueblo de Israel". Los hijos son Shear-Jashub y Maher-shalal-hash-baz, cuyos nombres son un mensaje para el pueblo de Israel. (Ver: 7:3 y 8:1)

Isaiah 8:19

Información general:
Está hablando Isaías.

Ellos te dirán a ti: "Consulta con los médium y los magos," aquellos que surran y murmuran encantamientos. ¿Pero, no debería un pueblo consultar a su Dios? ¿Deberían ellos consultar a los muertos a cuenta de los vivos? 20¡Para la ley y para el testimonio!
Otros significados posibles son 1) "Ellos te dirán, "Consulta con los médium y los magos, aquellos que susurran y murmuran encantamientos. ¿No debería el pueblo consultar a sus dioses? Ellos deberían consultarle a los muertos a cuenta de los vivos para la enseñanaza y el testimonio". o 2)"Cuando te digan, "Consulta con los médium y los magos, aquellos que susurran y murmuran encantamientos", ¿el pueblo no debería consultar a su Dios? ¿deberían consultar a los muertos a cuenta de los vivos?¡Para la ley y el testimonio!"

Ellos te dirán a tí
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a aquellos que no confían en el SEÑOR. La palabra "you" se refiere a aquellos que sí confían en el SEÑOR.

Consulta con los médium y los magos
"Pregúntale a los médium y a los magos lo que debes hacer"

médium y magos
Aquellos que aseguran hablar con los muertos.

aquellos que surran y murmuran encantamientos Las palabras "susurran" y "murmuran" hacen referencia al sonido que los médium y los magos hacen cuando tratan de hablar con los muertos. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que susurran y murmuran sus palabras mágicas para intentar hablar con los muertos"

susurran
Hacer un sonido similar al de las aves.

¿Pero, no debería un pueblo consultar a su Dios?
Estas preguntas se hacen para mostrar que el pueblo podría consultar a Dios en lugar de la actividad ridícula de tratar de hablar con los muertos. Traducción Alterna: ""Pero el pueblo debe pedirle al SEÑOR que los guie. Ellos no deberían buscar respuestas de aquellos que ya han muerto"

Para la ley y para el testimonio
Los significados posibles son: 1) Prestar atención a las instrucciones y enseñanzas de Dios" (UDB) o 2)

" Entonces ustedes deben recordar la enseñanza y el testimonio que yo di" (8:16)

la ley
Esta es la misma palabra traducida "historial oficial" en 8:16.

el testimonio
Traducir como en 8:16.

Si ellos no dicen tales cosas
"Si ellos no hablan de la ley y el testimonio"

es porque no tienen ninguna luz del amanecer Isaías habla de la gente que no conoce a Dios como si ellos fueran personas que caminan en la oscuridad sin luz. Traducción Alterna: "es porque ellos son como una persona perdida en la oscuridad"

Isaiah 8:21

opresiva penumbra
"terrible tristeza"

Ellos serán conducidos a una tierra de oscuridad
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los conducirá a la completa oscuridad"

Chapter 9

1 La penumbra se disipará de ella, la que estaba en angustia. En un tiempo anterior Él humilló la tierra de Zabulón y la tierra de Neftalí, pero en el tiempo posterior Él la hará gloriosa, el camino al mar, más allá del Jordán, Galilea de las naciones. 2 El pueblo quien caminó en oscuridad ha visto una gran luz; aquellos que han vivido en la tierra de sombra de muerte, la luz ha brillado sobre ellos. 3 Tú has aumentado la nación; Tú has agrandado su regocijo. Ellos se regocijan ante Tí como la alegría del tiempo de la cosecha, como los hombres se regocijan cuando ellos dividen el saqueo. 4 Pues el yugo de su carga, la viga entre sus hombros, la vara de sus opresores, Tú has destrozado como en los días de Madián. 5 Pues cada bota que pise el tumulto y las ropas enrolladas en sangre serán quemadas, combustible para el fuego. 6 Pues para nosotros un niño ha nacido, a nosotros un hijo nos ha sido dado; y la soberanía estará sobre Su hombro; y Su nombre será llamado: Magnífico Consejero, Dios Poderoso, Padre Eterno, Príncipe de Paz. 7 Lo agrandado de Su gobierno y de paz allí no tendrá fin, tal como Él gobierna sobre el trono de David, y sobre su reino, para establecerlo y sostenerlo con justicia y con derecho desde este tiempo en adelante y eternamente. El celo del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos hará esto. 8 El SEÑOR envió una palabra contra Jacob, y ésta cayó sobre Israel. 9 Toda la gente sabrá, incluso Efraín y los habitantes de Samaria, quienes dicen con orgullo y con un corazón arrogante: 10 ''Los ladrillos han caído, pero nosotros los reconstruiremos con piedra cincelada; los sicómoros han sido cortados, pero nosotros pondremos cedros en su lugar.'' 11 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR levantará en contra a Rezín, su adversario, e incitará sus enemigos, 12 los Arameos en el este, y los filisteos en el oeste. Ellos devorarán a Israel con boca abierta. En todas estas cosas, Su ira no se calma; en su lugar, todavía Su mano está extendida. 13 Todavía su pueblo no se vuelve a Él quien los golpeó, ni buscarán al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 14 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR cortará de Israel cabeza y cola, rama de palma y caña, en un día. 15 El líder y el hombre noble son la cabeza; y el profeta que enseña mentira es la cola. 16 Esos que dirigen este pueblo los dirigen para desviarlos, y esos que son dirigidos por ellos son tragados. 17 Por lo tanto, el Señor no se regocijará sobre sus hombres jóvenes ni Él tendrá compasión de sus huerfános de padre y viudas, desde que cada uno es impío y un hacedor de maldad, y toda boca habla cosas necias. En todas estas cosas, Su ira no se calma, en su lugar, Su mano sigue extendida. 18 La maldad arde como un fuego; devora las zarzas y espinas; incluso quema los matorrales del bosque, los cuales se levantan en una columna de humo. 19 A través de la furia del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos la tierra es quemada, y el pueblo es como combustible para el fuego. Ningún hombre perdona a su hermano. 20 Ellos agarrarán comida en su mano derecha pero seguirán con hambre; ellos podrán comer alimento con la mano izquierda pero no serán satisfechos. Cada uno incluso comerá la carne de su propio brazo. 21 Manasés devorará a Efraín, y Efraín, a Manasés; y ellos juntos atacarán a Judá. En todas estas cosas, Su ira no se calma; en cambio, Su mano sigue extendida.

Isaiah 9:1

La penumbra se disipará de ella la que estaba en angustia
Isaías habla de las personas que están espiritualmente perdidas como si estuvieran dando vueltas en la oscuridad total. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traduccción Alterna: "El SEÑOR sacará la oscuridad de ella la que estaba en angustia"

La penumbra
Esta palabra significa "oscuridad parcial o total". Traducirlo como tradujiste "penumbra" en 8:21.

ella la que estaba en angustia
"ella la que sufría un gran dolor y tristeza". Esto probablemente es una metáfora para la gente de Judá

En un tiempo anterior él humilló la tierra de Zabulón y la tierra de Neftalí La "tierra" se refiere a las personas que viven en esa zona. Traducción Alterna: "En el pasado, el Señor humilló a aquellos que vivían en Zabulón y Neftalí" pero en tiempos más tarde lo hará glorioso, el camino del mar, más allá del Jordán, Galilea de las naciones

"Pero en el futuro, el Señor honrará a la gente de Galilea, desde el camino al Mar Mediterráneo hasta el río Jordán, donde vive mucha gente de otras naciones.

oscuridad...sombra de muerte
Estas dos expresiones representan un gran sufrimiento.

camina en oscuridad Isaías habla de la gente que lleva vidas pecaminosas como si ellos hubieran estado

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

caminando en un lugar oscuro sin luz. Traducción Alterna: "continuamente hacía el mal"

la tierra de sombra de muerte
"la tierra de la oscuridad más profunda"

una gran luz...la luz ha brillado
Aquí "luz" representa esperanza y salvación.

Isaiah 9:3

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo el momento en el que Dios salvará al pueblo de Israel. Aunque estos eventos sucedan en el futuro

Tú has multiplicado la nación; Tú has aumentado su regocijo
La palabra "tú" se refiere al SEÑOR. La palabra "su" se refiere al pueblo de Israel., pero Isaías se incluye a sí mismo como parte de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Señor, Tú aumentarás grandemente nuestra nación y nuestro regocijo"

Ellos se regocijan ante Tí como la alegría del tiempo de la cosecha, como los hombres se regocijan cuando ellos dividen el saqueo
"Ellos se regocijan ante tí como la gente se regocija cuando ellos recogen sus cosechas o cuando una batalla termina y los soldados se dividen lo que queda"

Isaiah 9:4

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo el momento en el que Dios salvará al pueblo de Israel. Aunque estos eventos sucedan en el futuro

Porque el yugo de su carga...sus hombros...sus opresores
Isaías habla del pueblo de Israel como si ellos fueran un solo hombre.

Porque el yugo de su carga..has destrozado Isaías habla de los israelitas, quienes son esclavos de los asirios, como si ellos fueran un buey que lleva un yugo. Esto sucederá en el futuro, pero él habla como si esto ya hubiera sucedido. Traducción Alterna:"Tú liberarás al pueblo de Israel de la esclavitud, como una persona que le quita el yugo a un buey"

la viga entre sus hombros,
La viga es la parte del yugo que va sobre los hombros del buey.

viga
Otro signficado posible es "vara", un pedazo largo de madera que una persona usa para pegarle a los bueyes para que trabajen y un símbolo del poder de una persona para gobernar sobre otras personas.

la vara de sus opresores
Isaías habla del poder que el opresor tiene sobre la gente de Judá como si eso fuera un pedazo de madera usado por una persona para pegarle a los bueyes para que trabajen.

como en los días de Madián La palabra "días" es una expresión idiomática que puede referirse a un evento que puede tardar más de un día en suceder. Traducción Alterna: "como cuando derrotaste a los madianitas"

cada bota que pise el tumulto y las prendas enrolladas en sangre serán quemadas Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "quemarás las botas de los soldados y su ropa, que están cubiertas de sangre"

quemadas, combustible para el fuego
Esto puede ser traducido en una oración nueva. Traducción Alterna: "quemadas. Convertirás a las botas y a su ropa en combustible para el fuego".

Isaiah 9:6

Información general:
Isaías continúa describiendo el momento en el que Dios salvará al pueblo de Israel

Rezin
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo Rezin en 7: 1.

y removerá a sus enemigos
"y pondrá a sus enemigos en acción" o " y el SEÑOR hará que los ejércitos enemigos ataquen al pueblo de Israel"

Ellos devorarán a Israel con bocas abiertas
"devorarán" es cómo los animales salvajes comen a sus presas. Traducción Alterna: " Como la bestia salvaje come a su presa, el ejército del enemigo destruirá a Israel"

En todas estas cosas, su ira no disminuye
"Aunque todas estas cosas han sucedido, él todavía está enojado" Traducir como en 5:25.

todavía su mano esta extendida
Isaías habla como si el SEÑOR fuera una persona que está por pegarle a otra persona con su puño. Esto es una metáfora para decir que el SEÑOR castiga a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Él estará listo para castigarlos" Traducir como en 5:25.

Isaiah 9:13

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Traducir como en 1:9.

cabeza y cola
Isaías explica esta metáfora en el versículo 15: la "cabeza", la parte de un animal que a una persona le gustaría ser, es "el líder y el hombre noble", y la "cola", la parte sucia de un animal, es "el profeta que enseña mentiras".

rama de palma y caña
La "rama de palma" crece en lo alto del árbol y es una metáfora de la gente que es importante. La "caña" crece en aguas poco profundas y es una metáfora de la gente que es pobre e insignificante. Traducción Alterna: "las personas ricas e importantes y las personas pobres e insignificantes"

Isaiah 9:16

Esos que dirigen este pueblo los dirigen para desviarlos
"Los líderes de Israel han hecho que el pueblo desobedezca a Dios" Traducción alterna: "Los líderes de Israel han hecho que la gente desobedezca a Dios"

esos que son dirigidos por ellos son tragados
"tragados" significa "destruidos". Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y la gente está confudida" o " y Dios destruirá a las personas que ellos dirigen"

toda boca habla cosas tontas
La palabra "boca" se refiere a la persona. Traducción Alterna: "todas las personas hablan cosas tontas"

En todas estas cosas, Su ira no ha cedido, en cambio su mano
"Porque todas estas cosas han sucedido, él todavía está enojado y su mano" Traducir como en 5:25.

Su mano sigue extendida
Isaías habla como si el SEÑOR fuera una persona que está por pegarle a otra persona con su puño. Esto es una metáfora para decir que el SEÑOR castiga a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Él todavía estará listo para castigarlos" Traducir como en 5:25.

Isaiah 9:18

La maldad quema como un fuego; devora las zarzas y espinas; incluso quema los matorrales del bosque
Se habla de las malas obras de la gente como si fueran un fuego muy destructivo. Este fuego incluso quema las zarzas y las espinas, las plantas que crecen donde ya no vive la gente; y los "matorrales del bosque" donde nunca nadie ha vivido; porque ya ha quemado los lugares donde las personas vivían.

Chapter 10

1 Ay de aquellos que promulgan leyes injustas y escriben decretos injustos. 2 ¡Ellos privan la justicia a los justos, roban a los pobres de mi pueblo sus derechos, saquean viudas, y hacen a los huérfanos sus presas! 3 ¿Qué harán ustedes en el día del juicio cuando la destrucción venga desde muy lejos? ¿A quién correrán por ayuda, y dónde dejarán sus riqueza? 4 Nada queda, y ustedes se agachan entre los prisioneros o caen entre los muertos. En todas estas cosas, Su enojo no se calma; por el contrario, Su mano aún está extendida. 5 ¡Ay de los asirios, el garrote de Mi enojo, la vara de quien empuño Mi furia! 6 Yo lo mandé contra una arrogante nación y contra el pueblo que procura Mi desbordante ira. Yo ordeno que él tome el despojo, que tome la presa, y que los pisotee como al lodo en las calles. 7 Pero ésto no es lo que él pretende, ni él piensa que sea de esta manera. Está en su corazón el destruir y eliminar muchas naciones. 8 Pues él dice: "¿No son todos mis príncipes reyes? 9 ¿No es Calmo como Carquemis? ¿No es Hamat como Arfad? ¿No es Samaria como Damasco? 10 Como mi mano ha vencido los reinos idólatras, quienes tallaron figuras que eran más grandes que aquellos de Jerusalén y Samaria, 11 justo como yo le hice a Samaria y sus ídolos sin valor, ¿no voy a hacer lo mismo con Jerusalén y sus ídolos?" 12 Cuando el Señor haya terminado su obra en el Monte de Sion y en Jerusalén, Yo voy a castigar el lenguaje del corazón arrogante del rey de Asiria y sus miradas orgullosas. 13 Pues él dice: "Por mi fuerza y por mi sabiduría, yo actué. Yo tengo entendimiento, y yo he removido los límites de los pueblos. Yo he robado sus tesoros, y como un toro yo he demolido a los habitantes. 14 Mi mano se ha apoderado, como del nido, las riquezas de naciones y como alguien reúne huevos abandonados, yo he reunido toda la tierra. Ninguno aleteó sus alas o abrió su boca o pió." 15 ¿Se jactará el hacha sobre sí misma en contra de quien la maneja? ¿Se alabará la sierra a sí misma más que el que corta con ella? Es como si una vara pudiera alzar a quienes la levantan, o como si un bastón de madera pudiera alzar a una persona. 16 Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR Dios de los Ejércitos va a enviar flojera a sus guerreros élites; y bajo Su gloria habrá un encendido ardiente como un fuego. 17 La luz de Israel se convertirá en fuego, y su Santo una llama; va a quemar y devorar sus espinas y zarzas en un día. 18 El SEÑOR consumirá la gloria de su bosque y de su tierra fructífera, ambas alma y cuerpo; serán como cuando la vida de un hombre enfermo se desperdicia. 19 El remanente de los árboles de su bosque va a ser tan poco, que un niño podría contarlos. 20 En aquel día, el remanente de Israel, la familia de Jacob que ha escapado, ya no tendrá que confiar en aquel que los venció, pero ciertamente dependerán en el SEÑOR, el Santo de Israel. 21 Un remanente de Jacob volverá al Dios poderoso. 22 Pues aunque tu pueblo, Israel, son como la arena en la costa, sólo un remanente de ellos regresará. La destrucción fue decretada, como demanda la justicia desbordante. 23 Pues el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, está a punto de llevar a cabo la destrucción determinada a través de la tierra. 24 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR Dios de los Ejércitos dice: "Mi pueblo quien vive en Sion, no teman a los asirios. Él te atacará con la vara y levantará su bastón contra tí, como hicieron los egipcios. 25 No temas a él, pues en un muy corto tiempo Mi enojo contra tí acabará, y Mi enojo conducirá a su destrucción." 26 Entonces, El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos empuñará un látigo contra ellos, como cuando Él derrotó a Madián en la roca de Oreb. Él levantará Su vara sobre el mar y la alzará como Él hizo en Egipto. 27 En aquel día, Su carga se levanta de tus hombros y Su yugo de tu cuello, y el yugo será destruído por el engordamiento. 28 El enemigo ha venido a Ajat y ha pasado por Migrón; en Micmas él ha almacenado sus provisiones. 29 Ellos han cruzado sobre el paso y se asentaron en Geba. Ramá tembló y Guibeá de Saúl ha huído. 30 ¡Llora en voz alta, hija de Galim! ¡Presta atención, Lais! ¡Tú pobre Anatot! 31 Madmena está huyendo, y los habitantes de Gebim corren por seguridad. 32 Éste preciso día, él detendrá a Nob y sacudirá Su mano en el monte de la hija de Sion, la colina de Jerusalén. 33 Mirad, el SEÑOR Dios de los Ejércitos cortará las ramas con un terrible estruendo; los árboles más altos serán cortados y el noble será derribado. 34 Él cortará el espesor del bosque con un hacha, y Líbano en su majestuosidad caerá.

Isaiah 10:14

Información general:
El SEÑOR todavía está citando al rey de Asiria. (Ver: 10:12)

Mi mano se ha apoderado
La mano es una figura literaria

Mi mano se ha apoderado, como del nido, las riquezas de las naciones
El rey de Asiria compara el tomar los tesoros de las naciones con una persona que toma los huevos del nido de un ave. Esto hace énfasis en lo fácil que era para él y su ejército conquistar a otros reinos. Traducción Alterna: "Mi ejército ha robado la riqueza de la naciones con la misma facilidad en que un hombre toma los huevos de un nido".

como uno reune huevos abandonados, yo he reunido toda la tierra
" y al igual que una persona que toma los huevos de un nido cuando el ave no está allí para protegerlos,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi ejército ha tomado los tesoros de todas las naciones"

Ninguno aleteó sus alas o abrió su boca o pió.
Esto compara a las naciones con un ave que se sienta tranquilamente mientras se llevan sus huevos. Esto hace énfasis en que las naciones no hicieron nada mientras el ejercito de Asiria se llevó todas sus posesiones. Traducción Alterna: "Y como un ave que no hace ruido o aletea sus alas cuando alguien roba sus huevos, las naciones no hicieron nada cuando se llevaron su tesoro"

Isaiah 10:15

¿Se jactará el hacha sobre sí misma en contra de quien la maneja? ¿Se alabará la sierra a sí misma más que el que corta con ella?
El orador usa estas preguntas para burlarse del rey de Asiria. Traducción Alterna: " Un hacha no puede presumir que es mejor que el que la maneja. Y una sierra no tiene más gloria que el que corta con ella".

la sierra
Una herramienta filosa usada para cortar madera.

Es como si una vara pudiera alzar a quienes la levantan, o como si un bastón de madera pudiera alzar a una persona
Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan para reforzar el significado de las dos preguntas previas. Esto puede ser traducido en una oración nueva. Traducción Alterna: " Y no puede una vara o un bastón levantar a la persona que lo recoge"

Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos va a enviar enfermedad a sus guerreros élites
No es claro si está hablando el SEÑOR o Isaías. Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "enfermedad" sea expresado como el verbo "debilitar". Traducción Alterna: " Por lo tanto Yo, el Señor, SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, debilitaré a los soldados más fuertes del rey"

bajo Su gloria habrá un encendido ardiente como un fuego
El SEÑOR compara su castigo con el fuego. Esto hace énfasis en que su castigo destruirá completamente todo el esplendor y la grandeza del reino de Asiria. Traducción Alterna: "Yo destruiré su grandeza como si yo estuviera comenzando un incendio para quemar todo de lo que él se enorgullese"

Isaiah 10:17

La luz de Israel va a convertirse en fuego La frase "luz de Israel" se referie al SEÑOR. No es claro si habla el SEÑOR o Isaías. Traducción Alterna: "Yo, el SEÑOR, la luz de Israel, me convertiré en fuego"

fuego
El "fuego" hace énfasis en el poder del SEÑOR para destruir todo lo que no lo honra a él.

su Santo una llama
"Yo, el SEÑOR, el Santo de Israel, me cnvertiré en fuego". Ver cómo tradujiste "el Santo" en 1:4.

va a quemar y devorar sus espinas y zarzas en un día
"El fuego quemará y devorará las zarzas y las espinas del rey de Asiria". El orador compara a al ejército del rey de Asiria con zarzas y espinas. Esto hace énfasis en la facilidad con la que Dios los destruirá. Traducción Alterna: "Yo destruiré a los asirios como un fuego que quema zarzas y espinas"

zarzas...espinas
Las palabras "zarzas" y "espinas" se refieren a plantas inútiles espinosas; pueden ser traducidas con una sola palabra. Traducción Alterna: "arbustos espinosos" Ver cómo tradujiste estas palabras en 7:23.

El SEÑOR va a consumir la gloria de su bosque y de su tierra fructífera Los significados posibles son 1)" El SEÑOR destruirá a los grandes bosques y tierras de cultivo de la nación de Asiria" o 2) "El SEÑOR destruirá el ejército de Asiria como un fuego quema los grandes bosques y tierras de cultivo".

ambas alma y cuerpo
Los significados posibles son 1) esto hace énfasis en que Dios destruirá completamente los bosques y las tierras de cultivo. Traducción Alterna: "completamente" o 2) esto significa que Dios destruirá completamente al pueblo de Asiria". La frase "alma y cuerpo" se refiere a la parte espiritual y a la parte física de una persona.

va a ser como cuando la vida de un hombre enfermo se desperdicia Esto compara a los bosques y tierras de cultivo de Asiria o al ejército de Asiria con un hombre enfermo que se queda tirado en su cama mientras muere. Esto hace énfasis en cómo algo tan grande puede volverse débil y morir. Traducción Alterna: "ellos serán como un hombre enfermo que se vuelve débil y muere"

El remanente de los árboles de su bosque va a ser tan poco
"lo que quede de los árboles en el bosque del rey será tan poco"

Isaiah 10:20

En ese día
Esto se refiere al momento en el que Dios hace las cosas que se describen 10:15. Traducción Alterna: "En ese momento"

que ha escapado
El significado puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "que ha escapado del ejército de Asiria"

ya no va a tener que confiar en aquel que los venció
"ya no tendrán que confiar en el rey de Asiria que los lastimó"

el Santo Traducir como en 1:4.

Isaiah 10:22

tu pueblo, Israel, son Las interpretaciones posibles son 1) Dios le está hablando a Isaías y "tu" se refiere a Isaías. Traducción Alterna: "Tu pueblo Israel son" o 2) Isaías o Dios le están hablando a la nación de Israel y "tu" se refiere a la nación. Traducción Alterna: "tu pueblo, oh Israel, son"

son como la arena en la costa
Esto hace énfasis en que había mucha cantidad de gente en Israel.Traducción Alterna: "son demasiados para contar, como la arena en la costa"

La destrucción es decretada Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR ha decretado que él destruirá a la mayoría de los que viven en Israel"

como una demanda de justicia desbordante Esto puede ser traducido en una oración nueva. Traducción Alterna: "Esto debe ser hecho por la justicia perfecta" o " El SEÑOR debe hacer esto porque él es completamente justo"

llevar la destrucción determinada a través de la tierra Lo significados posibles son 1) "destruir todo en la tierra justo como él se ha determinado a hacer" o 2) "destruir a las personas en la tierra justo como él se ha determinado a hacer"

determinado
"decidido"

Isaiah 10:24

los asirios
Isaías habla del rey de Asiria y su ejército como si fueran un solo hombre. Traducción Alterna: "el rey de Asiria y su ejército"

Él va a atacarte con la vara y levantar su bastón contra ti La palabra "él" se refiere a "los asirios", una personificación del rey de Asiria y su ejército. Las palabras "vara" y "bastón" se refieren a pedazos de madera que la gente usa como palos para golpear a los animales y otras personas. Isaías habla de la forma en la que los asirios gobernarán sobre los israelitas como si los asirios estuvieran golpeando a los israelitas con sus palos. Traducción Alterna: "Los asirios gobernarán sobre ustedes y los harán sus esclavos"

como hicieron los egipcios
El significado completo puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "como los egipcios gobernaron sobre sus ancestros y los hicieron esclavos"

mi enojo va a dirigir su destrucción
El sustantivo abstracto "destrucción" puede ser traducido como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Yo lo destruiré porque estoy enojado con él"

Isaiah 10:26

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:9.

va a empuñar un látigo contra ellos
"Le pegará a los asirios con un látigo". Dios no usará en verdad un látigo. Esto se refiere al poder de Dios para castigar a los asirios severamente. Traducción Alterna: "castigará a los asirios severamente como con un látigo" como cuando él derrotó a Madián en la roca de Oreb Esto se refiere a cuando Dios ayudó a un hombre llamado Gedeón a derrotar al ejército de Madián.

Él va a levantar su vara sobre el mar y la alzará como Él hizo en Egipto Esto se refiere a cuando Dios hizo que el agua del Mar Rojo se dividiera en dos para que el pueblo de Israel pudiera escapar del ejército egipcio y así el ejército egipcio se ahogara. Traducción Alterna: "Él los ayudará a escapar del ejército de Asiria como él ayudó a sus ancestros a escapar del ejército egipcio"

Su carga es levantada de Tus hombros y Su yugo de Tu cuello
"El SEÑOR levantará la carga que Asiria ha puesto sobre sus hombros, y él sacará el yugo que ellos han puesto sobre sus cuellos". Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Las palabras "carga" y "yugo" se refiere a la esclavitud. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR quitará a los asirios que los oprimen y hará que dejen de hacerlos sus esclavos"

el yugo será destruido por la gordura
Esta expresión sugiere que el cuello del animal que está usando el yugo se volverá tan gordo que el yugo ya no le entrará. Esta es una metáfora para decir que Israel se volverá tan fuerte que los asirios ya no podrán gobernarlos. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "su cuello se volverá tan gordo que romperá el yugo" o " te volverás tan fuerte que ya no serás esclavo de los asirios"

Mira
Esto puede ser traducido como "Mira" o "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que estoy a punto de decirte"

El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:9.

va a cortar las ramas… y Líbano en su majestad va a caer Isaías habla del ejército de Asiria como si fueran árboles altos en Líbano. Dios destruirá al ejército como las personas que cortan los árboles más poderosos de Líbano. Esto hace énfasis en que aunque el ejército sea fuerte, Dios tiene el poder para destruirlo.

va a cortar las ramas
"cortará las ramas grandes de los árboles". Para que quede claro que esto se refiere al ejército de Asiria, esto puede ser traducido como una figura literaria (simil): Él destruirá al ejército de Asiria como un hombre que corta las ramas grandes de los árboles.

con un terrible estruendo
Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "estruendo" sea expresado como el verbo " hacer ruido". Traducción Alterna: "y las ramas desplomarán en el suelo y harán un ruido terrible" o "y las ramas se caerán al suelo con un ruido muy fuerte"

los árboles más altos serán cortados Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "él cortará a los árboles más altos"

Chapter 11

1 Un brote germinará del tocón de Isaí, y una rama de sus raíces dará fruto. 2 El Espíritu del SEÑOR reposará sobre Él, el espíritu de sabiduría, y entendimiento, el espíritu de enseñanza, y poder, el espíritu de conocimiento, y el de temor al SEÑOR. 3 Su deleite será el temor al Señor; Él no juzgará por lo que sus ojos ven, ni tampoco decidirá por lo que sus oídos escuchen. 4 En cambio, Él juzgará al pobre con justicia y decidirá justamente para con los humildes de la tierra. Él atacará la tierra con la vara de su boca, y con el aliento de sus labios Él matará los malvados. 5 La justicia será el cinturón de su cintura, y la fidelidad el cinturón alrededor de sus lomos. 6 El lobo vivirá con el cordero, y el leopardo descansará con la cabra joven, el becerro, el león joven y el becerro engordado, juntos. Un niño pequeño los liderará. 7 La vaca y el oso pastarán juntos, y sus crías descansarán juntos. El león comerá paja como el buey. 8 Un bebé jugará sobre el agujero de la culebra, y el niño destetado pondrá su mano en el nido de la serpiente. 9 Ellos no dañarán ni destruirán en todo Mi monte santo; pues la tierra será llena del conocimiento del SEÑOR, como las aguas cubren el mar. 10 En aquel día, la raíz de Isaí se levantará como una bandera para las gentes. Las naciones lo buscarán y su lugar de descanso será glorioso. 11 En aquel día, el Señor extenderá su mano otra vez para recuperar el remanente de su pueblo quienes permanecen en Asiria, Egipto, Patros, Cus, Elam, Sinar, Hamat y las islas del mar. 12 Él pondrá un estandarte para las naciones y juntará a los marginados de Israel y a los esparcidos de Judá de las cuatro esquinas de la tierra. 13 Él apartará la envidia de Efraín y hostilidades de Judá serán cortadas. Efraín no envidiará a Judá y Judá no será hostil con Efraín. 14 En cambio, ellos se abalanzarán sobre las colinas filisteas en el oeste, y juntos ellos saquearán el pueblo del este. Ellos atacarán a Edom y Moab, y el pueblo de Amón le obedecerá. 15 El SEÑOR destruirá completamente el golfo del Mar de Egipto. Con Su viento abrasador Él levantará Su mano sobre el Río Eufrates y lo dividirá en siete corrientes, para que pueda ser cruzado en sandalias. 16 Habrá un camino para el remanente de Su pueblo que regresa de Asiria, como así fue para Israel en su salida de la tierra de Egipto.

Isaiah 11:1

Un brote germinará del tocón de Isaí...una rama de sus raíces dará frutos Isaías habla de Isaí y sus descendientes como si fueran un árbol que ha sido cortado. Estas dos frases hablan de un descendiente de Isaí que será rey. Traducción Alterna: "Como un brote germina del tocón de un árbol, así el descendiente de Isaí será rey sobre lo que quede de Israel"

del tocón de Isaí
Un tocón es lo que queda de un árbol después de que ha sido cortado. El "tocón de Isaí" representa lo que quedó del reino del que el hijo de Isaí, David, fue rey.

Chapter 13

1 Una declaración sobre Babilonia, que Isaías, el hijo de Amós, recibió: 2 "En la montaña descubierta prepara una bandera de señal, grítales fuerte a ellos, agita tu mano para que ellos entren por las puertas de los nobles. 3 Yo he ordenado a Mis santos, sí, Yo he llamado a Mis hombres poderosos para que ejecuten Mi ira, incluso a Mis orgullosamente exaltados. 4 El ruido de una multitud en las montañas, ¡como de mucha gente! ¡El ruido de un tumulto de los reinos como muchas naciones reuniéndose juntas! El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos está convocando a Su ejército para la batalla. 5 Ellos vienen de un país lejano, de más allá del horizonte. Es el SEÑOR con sus intrumentos de juicio, para destruir toda la tierra. 6 Aúllen, porque el día del SEÑOR está cerca; viene con la destrucción del Todopoderoso. 7 Por lo tanto, todas las manos cuelguen flojas, y cada corazón se derrita. 8 Ellos estarán aterrorizados; dolor y agonía se apoderarán de ellos, como a una mujer en parto. Ellos se mirarán con asombro el uno al otro, sus rostros estarán ardiendo. 9 Mirad, el día del SEÑOR viene con ira cruel y enojo desbordante, para hacer de la tierra una desolación y a destruir a los pecadores en ella. 10 Las estrellas del cielo y las constelaciones no darán su luz. El sol estará oscurecido aún desde el alba, y la luna no brillará. 11 Yo castigaré al mundo por su maldad y a los malvados por su iniquidad. Yo pondré fin a la arrogancia del orgulloso y derribaré la arrogancia del despiadado. 12 Yo haré hombres más escazos que el oro fino y a la humanidad más díficil de encontrar que el oro puro de Ofir. 13 Por lo tanto, Yo haré que los cielos tiemblen, y la tierra será sacudida de su lugar, por la furia del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, y en el día de Su enojo feroz. 14 Como una gacela cazada o como una oveja sin pastor, todo hombre se volverá hacia su propia gente y huirá hacia su propia tierra. 15 Todo el que sea hallado será muerto, y todo el que sea capturado morirá por la espada. 16 Sus niños también serán destrozados en pedazos ante sus ojos. Sus casas serán saqueadas y sus esposas violadas. 17 Mirad, Yo estoy a punto de provocar a los medos a que los ataquen, a quienes no les va a importar la plata, ni se complacen en el oro. 18 Sus flechas traspasarán a los hombres jóvenes. Ellos no tendrán piedad de los bebés y no perdonarán a los niños. 19 Entonces Babilonia, el más admirado de los reinos, el esplendor del orgullo caldeo, será derrocado por Dios como Sodoma y Gomorra. 20 No será habitado o vivido de generación en generación. El árabe no acampará en su tienda allí, ni los pastores tendrán a sus rebaños para descansar allí. 21 Pero los animales salvajes del desierto se acostarán allí. Sus casas estarán llenas de búhos; y avestruces y cabras salvajes saltarán por allí. 22 Las hienas gritarán en sus fortalezas, y los chacales en sus hermosos palacios. Su tiempo está cerca, y sus días no serán retrasados.

Isaiah 13:1

sobre Babilonia
El nombre de la ciudad representa a las personas de Babilonia. Traducción Alterna: "sobre las personas de Babilonia"

Chapter 14

1 El SEÑOR tendrá compasión de Jacob; Él otra vez elegirá a Israel y los restaurará en su propia tierra. Los extranjeros se unirán con ellos y se unirán a la casa de Jacob. 2 Las naciones los traerán a su propio lugar. Entonces la casa de Israel los tomarán en la tierra del SEÑOR como sirvientes y sirvientas. Tomarán cautivos a aquellos quienes los han capturado a ellos, y gobernarán sobre sus opresores. 3 En el día que el SEÑOR te de descanso de tu sufrimiento y angustia, y del arduo labor el cual fuiste obligado a realizar, 4 tú cantarás esta canción burlona contra el rey de Babilonia: "¡Cómo el opresor ha llegado a su fin, la furia orgullosa terminó! 5 El SEÑOR ha roto la caña de los malvados, el cetro de aquellos gobernantes 6 que golpearon a los pueblos en ira con incesantes golpes, que gobernaron las naciones en enojo, con un ataque que fue desenfrenado. 7 Toda la Tierra está en descanso y está callada; ellos comienzan celebrando con cantos. 8 Aún los cipreses se regocijan a causa de tí con los cedros del Líbano; ellos dicen: 'Ya que tú estás talado, ningún leñador sube a cortarnos.' 9 El Seol abajo está ansioso de conocerte cuando vayas allá. Levanta a los muertos para tí, todos los reyes de la tierra, haciéndolos levantarse de sus tronos, todos los reyes de las naciones. 10 Todos ellos hablarán y te dirán: 'Te has vuelto tan débil como nosotros. Te has vuelto como nosotros. 11 Tu pompa ha sido bajada al Seol con el sonido de tus instrumentos de cuerdas. Las larvas se dispersan debajo de tí, y los gusanos te cubren.' 12 ¡Cómo tú caíste desde el cielo, estrella de la mañana, hijo de la mañana! ¡Cómo tú eres cortado al suelo, tú quien conquistaste las naciones! 13 Tú habías dicho en tu corazón: 'Yo ascenderé al cielo, exaltaré mi trono sobre las estrellas de Dios, y me sentaré en el monte de la asamblea, en los confines del norte. 14 Ascenderé por encima de las alturas de las nubes; me haré a mí mismo como el Más Alto Dios.' 15 Sin embargo, ahora tú has sido bajado al Seol, a las profundidades de la fosa. 16 Aquellos que te vean te mirarán y te prestarán atención. Ellos dirán: '¿Es éste el hombre que hizo a la tierra temblar, quien sacudió reinos, 17 quien hizo el mundo como un desierto, quien derrocó sus ciudades y no permitió que sus prisioneros fueran a sus hogares?' 18 Todos los reyes de las naciones, todos ellos se postran en honor, cada uno en su propia tumba. 19 Pero tú eres echado de tu tumba como una rama desechada. Los muertos te cubren como un vestido, aquellos atravesados por la espada, quienes bajan a las piedras de la fosa. 20 No te unirás a ellos en el entierro, porque tú has destruido tu tierra y has matado tu pueblo. La descendencia de malhechores nunca serán mencionados de nuevo." 21 Prepara tu matanza para sus hijos, por la iniquidad de sus ancestros, para que ellos no se levanten y posean la tierra y llenen todo el mundo con ciudades. 22 "Yo me levantaré contra ellos"- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. "Yo cortaré de Babilonia nombre, descendiente, y posteridad"--- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 23 " Yo también la convertiré en posesión de búhos, y en estanques de agua, y la barreré con la escoba de la destrucción"--- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 24 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos ha jurado: "Ciertamente, tal como Yo he destinado, así ocurrirá; y como Yo he propuesto, así será: 25 Yo quebraré al asirio en Mi tierra, y en Mis montañas lo aplastaré bajo pie. Entonces su yugo se levantará de ellos y sus cargas de sus hombros." 26 Este es el plan que es destinado para toda la Tierra, y ésta es la mano que es levantada sobre todas las naciones. 27 Pues el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos ha planeado esto; ¿quién lo detendrá? Su mano está levantada, ¿y quién la bajará? 28 En el año que el rey Acaz murió, esta declaración llegó: 29 "No se regocijen, todos ustedes filisteos, que la vara que los golpeó está rota. Pues de la raíz de la serpiente crecerá una víbora, y su descendiente será una ardiente serpiente voladora. 30 El primogénito del pobre pastará sus ovejas en mis pastos, y los necesitados se acostarán en seguridad. Yo mataré tu raíz con hambruna que hará morir todos tus sobrevivientes. 31 Aúlla, puerta; llora, ciudad; todos ustedes se derretirán, Filistea. Pues del norte viene una nube de humo, y allí no hay rezagado en sus filas. 32 ¿Cómo entonces uno le contestará a los mensajeros de esa nación? Que el SEÑOR ha fundado Sion, y en ella el afligido de Su pueblo encontrará refugio.

Isaiah 14:1

El SEÑOR tendrá compasión de Jacob Aquí "Jacob" se refiere a los descendientes de Jacob. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR tendrá misericordia con los descendientes de Jacob"

se unirán a la casa de Jacob La casa de Jacob se refiere a los descendientes de Jacob, los israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "se aliarán con los descendientes de Jacob"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Las naciones los traerán a su propio lugar
"Las naciones traerán a los descendientes de Jacob de vuelta a la tierra de Israel"

la casa de Israel
Esto se refiere a los israelitas, los descendientes de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "los descendientes de Israel"

Tomarán cautivos a aquellos quienes los han capturado a ellos
"Los soldados israelitas tomarán cautivos a quienes los habían capturado a ellos"

Isaiah 14:3

de tu sufrimiento y angustia
La palabra "tu" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Además, "sufrimiento" y "angustia" significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan juntas para hacer énfasis. Traducción Alterna: "de las cosas que te han hecho sufrir grandemente "

Como el opresor ha llegado a su fin
Esto es una exclamación. "El opresor ha llegado a su fin"

la furia orgullosa ha terminado
Las palabras "como" y "ha" se sobreentienden. Traducción Alterna: "como la furia orgullosa ha terminado" o "su orgullo y furia han terminado"

la furia orgullosa ha terminado
La "furia orgullosa" se refiere al rey de Babilonia que era orgulloso y trataba cruelmente a las otras naciones. Traducción Alterna: "su crueldad ha terminado" o "él ya no puede oprimir a las personas"

Isaiah 14:5

Oración de Enlace:
Esto es parte de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia.

El SEÑOR ha roto la vara de los malvados
La vara de los malvados probablemente se refiere al palo con el que las personas malvadas le pegarían a otras personas. Romper ese palo significa destruir el poder para tratar a las personas cruelmente. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ha destruido el poder de los malvados"

el cetro de aquellos gobernantes Un cetro representa el poder para gobernar de un gobernante. Romper el cetro representa destruir el poder de un gobernante. Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR ha destruido el poder de los gobernantes mlavados"

que golpearon a la gente Las personas malvadas golpeaban a la gente con sus varas. Traducción Alterna: "quienes golpeaban a las personas"

con incesantes golpes
"sin parar" o "una y otra vez"

que gobernaron las naciones
"que conquistaron otras naciones"

con un ataque que fue desenfrenado
"atacándolos sin parar"

Isaiah 14:7

Oración de Enlace:
Esto es parte de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia.

Toda la Tierra
Esto se refiere a todos en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "todos en la tierra"

Incluso los cipreses se regocijan a causa de tí con los cedros del Líbano Isaías habla de los árboles como si ellos fueran personas que pueden regocijarse. Esto hace énfasis en que es tan bueno que Dios haya detenido al rey de Babilonia que incluso la naturaleza se regocijaría si pudiera. Traducción Alterna: "Será como si hasta los cipreses y los cedros del Líbano se regocijaran a causa de ti"

se regocijan a causa de ti
Por qué ellos se regocijan a causa de ti puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "se regocijan porque Dios te ha sacado el poder"

Ya que tú estás derribado
Estar derribado significa que le han sacado el poder y lo hicieron insignificante. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora que tú no tienes poder"

El Seol abajo está ansioso de conocerte
Se habla del Seol como si fuera una persona que está ansiosa de conocer a sus invitados. Esto implica que el rey muere. Traducción Alterna: " El Seol es como un anfitrión ansioso de conocerte"

Levanta a los muertos para tí, todos los reyes de la tierra
"Levanta a los muertos para tí, a todos los reyes de la tierra" Se habla del Seol como si fuera una persona que puede levantar a todos los que están en él. Traducción Alterna: "Todos los reyes muertos de la tierra en el Seol se levantan para saludarte"

Isaiah 14:10

Oración de Enlace:
Esto es parte de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia. Aquí ellos cantan sobre lo que los reyes muertos en el Seol le dirán a él.

Todos ellos hablarán y te dirán
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los reyes muertos en el Seol y la palabra "te" se refiere al rey de Babilonia.

Tu pompa ha sido bajada al Seol
Los reyes muertos hablan del rey de Babilonia que ya no tiene esplendor como si su espledor hubiera descendido al Seol. Traducción Alterna: "Tu esplendor se terminó cuando Dios te envió aquí al Seol"

con el sonido de tus instrumentos de cuerdas
Las personas harían música con instrumentos de cuerda para honrar al rey. Los reyes muertos hablarán de las personas que ya no honran al rey de Babilonia con música como si la música fuera al Seol. Traducción Alterna: "junto al sonido de la gente tocando música para honrarte "

Las larvas se dispersan debajo de tí
Se habla de las larvas bajo su cadáver como si fueran una alfombra o una cama. Traducción Alterna: "Tú descansarás sobre una cama de larvas" o "Tú descansarás sobre muchas larvas"

los gusanos te cubren
Se habla de los gusanos que están sobre su cuerpo como si estuvieran cubriéndolo como una frazada. Traducción Alterna: "los gusanos te cubren como una frazada" o "hay gusanos sobre todo tu cuerpo"

Isaiah 14:12

Oración de Enlace:
Esto es parte de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia.

Cómo tú eres caído desde el cielo, estrella de la mañana, hijo del amanecer
La estrella de la mañana es una estrella brillante que se eleva justo antes de la mañana. La gente de Babilonia se referirá al rey de Babilonia en términos de esta estrella para decir que él alguna vez fue grande, pero ahora ya no lo era. Traducción Alterna: "Tú fuiste como la estrella brillante de la mañana, pero te has caído del cielo"

Cómo eres cortado al suelo
Las personas de Israel hablarán del rey de Babilonia como si él fuera un árbol que ha sido cortado. Traducción Alterna: " Tú estás derrotado como un árbol que alguien cortó al suelo"

me sentaré en el monte de la asamblea Esto alude al mito que muchas personas del Antiguo Oriente Próximo conocían, el que decía que los dioses cananitas se reunían en consejo arriba de la montaña en la zona norte de Siria. Sentarse en la montaña representa gobernar a los dioses. Traducción Alterna: "Yo gobernaré en la montaña donde los dioses se reúnen"

en los confines del norte
"en los lugares más al norte" Aparentemente, la montaña en el norte se llamaba Saphon. Algunas versiones modernas dicen "lejos en los costados de Saphon"

Isaiah 14:15

Oración de Enlace:
Esto es parte de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia.

Sin embargo, tú has sido bajado al Seol
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Pero ahora Dios te ha enviado abajo al Seol"

Es este el hombre
Las personas usaran esta pregunta para burlarse del rey de Babilonia o para expresar sus conmoción por lo que le sucedió a él. Esto puede ser expresado en una oración. "Seguramente este no es el hombre"

que hizo a la Tierra temblar Los significados posibles son 1) la tierra tembló mientras el ejército del rey marchaba para conquistar personas o 2) esto se refiere a las personas que temblaban de miedo por él.

sacudió los reinos
Los significados posibles son 1) esto es una metáfora para "los reinos conquistados" o 2) esto es una figura literaria

quien hizo el mundo como un desierto
"quien convirtió a los lugares donde vivía la gente en un desierto"

Isaiah 14:18

Oración de Enlace:
Este es el final de la canción burlona que los israelitas le cantarán al rey de Babilonia.

todos ellos se postran en honor
Esto significa que sus cuerpos fueron enterrados de forma honorable. Traducción Alterna: "todos los reyes que han muerto son enterrados honorablemente"

Pero tú eres echado de tu tumba Ser sacado de la tumba representa no ser enterrado. Traducción Alterna: "Pero tú no eres enterrado. Tu cuerpo queda en el suelo"

como una rama desechada Una rama desechada representa inutilidad. Traducción Alterna: "como una rama inútil que es tirada"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los muertos te cubren como un vestido
Esto representa que muchos cadáveres están arriba de su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "Los cuerpos de las personas muertas cubren completamente tu cuerpo" o "los cuerpos de los soldados muertos están apilados arriba de tu cuerpo"

aquellos atravesados por la espada Esto cuenta quienes son "los muertos" del comienzo de la oración. Ser atravesado representa ser asesinado en una batalla. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que fueron asesinados en la batalla"

quienes bajan a las piedras del hoyo
El hoyo se refiere al infierno o a un gran agujero en el suelo donde muchos cuerpos muertos son simplemente tirados.

No te unirás a ellos en el entierro
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a otros reyes que murieron y fueron enterrados adecuadamente. Unirse a ellos en el entierro significa ser enterrado como ellos. Traducción Alterna: "tú jamás serás enterrado como fueron enterrados otros reyes"

Los descendientes de los hacedores de maldad nunca serán mencionados de nuevo
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nunca más nadie hablará de los descendientes de los malvados"

Isaiah 14:21

Prepara tu matanza para sus hijos
Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "matanza" sea expresado con el verbo "matar". Traducción Alterna: "Prepárense para matar a los hijos del rey de Babilonia"

por la iniquidad de sus ancestros Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "iniquidad" sea expresado con el verbo "pecar grandemente". Traducción Alterna: "porque sus antepasados han pecado grandemente"

para que ellos no se levanten Aquí "levantarse" representa volverse poderoso o atacar. Traducción Alterna: "para que nos se vuelvan poderosos" o "para que ellos no ataquen"

posean la tierra
Esto representa tomar control de las personas en la tierra, en este caso, conquistándolas. Traducción Alterna: "tomen control de las personas en la tierra" o "conquisten a las personas en la tierra"

llenen todo el mundo con ciudades Esto representa hacer que en el mundo haya muchas ciudades. Traducción Alterna: " y construyan muchas ciudades alrededor de todo el mundo"

Yo me levantaré en contra de ellos Esto significa que Dios hará algo en su contra. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a las personas de Babilonia. Traducción Alterna: "Yo los atacaré" o "Yo enviaré personas para que los ataquen"

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "declaración" sea expresado como el verbo "solemnemente dijo" Traducción Alterna: "esto es lo que el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos ha declarado" o "esto es lo que el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos solemnemente dijo"

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 1:9.

Yo cortaré de Babilonia nombre, descendiente, y posteridad
"Cortar" representa destruir. Aquí Babilonia se refiere a las personas de Babilonia. Además, "nombre" se refiere a la fama de Babilonia o a Babilonia misma como un reino. Traducción Alterna: "Yo destruiré a Babilonia, junto con los hijos y los nietos de las personas"

Yo también la convertiré
La palabra "la" se refiere a la ciudad de Babilonia. Se solía hablar de las ciudades como si fueran mujeres.

posesión de búhos
Esto representa que los animales salvajes viven en la ciudad porque las personas ya no viven allí. Traducción Alterna: "un lugar donde viven los búhos" o "un lugar donde viven los animales salvajes"

y en piscinas de agua Se dice que hacer que haya pantanos o estanques de agua estancada donde estaba la ciudad es como convertir a la ciudad en estas cosas. Traducción Alterna: "Y en un lugar donde hay estanques con agua estancada"

la barreré con la escoba de la destrucción Esto representa destruir completamente a Babilonia y hacer que deje de existir como si fuera basura sin valor que la gente barre. Traducción Alterna: "Yo la destruiré completamente, como si la barriera con una escoba"

Isaiah 14:24

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 1:9.

como Yo lo he intencionado, así se ocurrirá; y como Yo lo he propuesto, así será Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Las cosas que yo he planeado ciertamente sucederán"

Yo romperé al asirio en Mi tierra Romper representa derrotar. Traducción Alterna: "Yo derrotaré al asirio en mi tierra" o "Yo haré que el asirio sea derrotado en mi tierra"

al asirio
Esto representa al rey asirio y a su ejército. Traducción Alterna: "el rey asirio y su ejército" o "el ejército asirio"

lo aplastaré bajo pies
Esto representa derrotarlo completamente.

Entonces su yugo será levantado de ellos y su carga de sus hombros
Esto puede ser expresado con verbo en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces Yo levantaré su yugo de ellos y su carga de sus hombros"

Entonces su yugo será levantado de ellos y su carga de sus hombros Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Levantar el yugo y las cargas representa librar a las personas de la esclavitud. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces Yo libraré a los israelitas de la esclavitud de Asiria como si quitara la carga de sus hombros"

su yugo...su carga
La palabra "su" se refiere a Asiria.

de ellos...de sus hombros
Las palabras "ellos" y "sus" se refieren a las personas de Israel.

Isaiah 14:26

Información general:
Este puede ser Isaías hablando o puede ser el SEÑOR hablando.

Este es el plan que es intencionado para toda la Tierra
La idea de "es intencionado" puede ser expresada con verbo en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Este es el plan que Dios tiene pensado para toda la tierra"

y ésta es la mano que es levantada sobre todas las naciones
Se dice que Dios está listo para pegarle a las naciones como si él levantara su mano para pegarle a ellas. La palabra "mano" también puede representar su poder. Traducción Alterna: "y este es el poder del SEÑOR para castigar a todas las naciones" o "así es como el SEÑOR castigará a todas las naciones"

¿quién Lo detendrá?
Esta pregunta hace énfasis en que nadie puede detener al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "no hay nadie que pueda detenerlo"

SEÑOR de los Ejércitos
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 1:9.

Su mano está levantada
Esto representa que el SEÑOR está listo para castigar a las naciones. Traducción Alterna: "Él está listo para castigarlas"

¿y quién la bajará?
Esta pregunta se usa para decir que nadie puede bajar la mano de Dios. Bajar su mano representa evitar que castigue a las naciones. Traducción Alterna: "nadie puede bajarla" o "nadie puede evitar que las castigue"

Isaiah 14:28

la vara que los golpeó se rompió
La vara que golpeó Filistea representa a un rey que envió a su ejército para atacarlos. Estar roto significa estar muerto o ser derrotado. Traducción Alterna: "el rey que mandó a su ejército contra ustedes está muerto" o "el ejército que los atacó está derrotado"

Pues de la raíz de la serpiente crecerá una víbora...su descendiente será una serpiente voladora con fuego Estas dos frases son la imagen de la cría de una serpiente que es incluso más dañina que la serpiente. Las frases representan al sucesor de un rey que es más poderoso y más cruel que el primer rey.

una víbora
Un tipo de serpiente venenosa.

una serpiente voladora con fuego
Aquí la palabra "con fuego" probablemente se refiere a la mordida venenosa de la serpiente, y la palabra "voladora" se refiere a sus movimientos rápidos. Traducción Alterna: "una serpiente venenosa que se mueve rápido"

El primogénito del pobre
Esto representa a las personas más pobres. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas más pobres" o "Los más pobres de mi pueblo"

Yo mataré tu raíz con hambruna que matará a todos tus sobrevivientes Aquí "tu raíz" se refiere a las personas de Filistea. Traducción Alterna: "Yo mataré a tu pueblo con hambruna, la cual llevará a la muerte a todos tus sobrevivientes"

Isaiah 14:31

Aúlla, puerta; llora, ciudad
Aquí "puerta" y "ciudad" representa a las personas en las puertas de la ciudad y en la ciudad. "Aúllen, ustedes personas en las puertas de la ciudad; lloren, ustedes personas en las ciudades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todos ustedes se derretirán Derretirse representa volverse débil a causa del miedo. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes se volverán débiles con miedo"

Pues del norte viene una nube de humo Esto quiere decir que un gran ejército viene del norte. Traducción Alterna: "Pues del norte viene un gran ejército con una nube de humo"

una nube de humo
Los significados posibles son 1) esto representa una nube de polvo que el ejército provoca cuando viajan por caminos de tierra seca. Traducción Alterna: "una nube de polvo" o 2) hay mucho humo a causa de todas las cosas que el ejército destruye y quema. Traducción Alterna: "mucho humo"

no hay rezagado en sus filas
"nadie en sus filas camina lentamente detrás de otros"

¿Cómo entonces uno le contestará a los mensajeros de esa nación?
El autor usa esta pregunta para presentar las instrucciones sobre cómo los israelitas deben hablarle a los mensajeros. Traducción Alterna: "Así es como nosotros le responderemos a los mensajeros de Filistea"

el SEÑOR ha fundado Sion
"el SEÑOR comenzó Sion"

y en ella
"y en Jerusalén" o "allí"

el afligido de su pueblo
"aquellos de su pueblo que hayan sido afligidos"

Chapter 15

1 Una declaración sobre Moab. Ciertamente, en una noche Ar de Moab es devastada y destrozada; ciertamente, en una noche Kir de Moab es devastada y destrozada. 2 Ellos han subido al templo, el pueblo de Dibón subió a las alturas a llorar; Moab se lamenta por Nebo y por Medeba. Todas sus cabezas son rapadas y todas sus barbas son cortadas. 3 En sus calles ellos visten tela de saco; en sus techos y en las cuadras todo el mundo gime, derritiéndose en lágrimas. 4 Hesbón y Eleale piden ayuda; sus sonidos son escuchados tan lejos como hasta Jahaza. Así que los hombres armados de Moab piden ayuda; ellos tiemblan dentro de ellos. 5 Mi corazón llora por Moab; sus fugitivos huyen a Zoar y Eglat Selisiya. Ellos suben a la pendiente de Luhit llorando; en el camino a Horonaim ellos gimen fuertemente acerca de su destrucción. 6 Las aguas de Nimrim se han secado; el pasto está marchito y el pasto nuevo muere; nada está verde. 7 La abundancia que ellos hicieron crecer y almacenaron ellos se llevan sobre el arroyo de álamos. 8 El grito se ha ido al territorio de Moab; el gemido tan lejos como hasta Eglaim y Beer Elim. 9 Pues las aguas de Dimón están llenas de sangre; pero Yo voy a traer más sobre Dimón. Un león atacará a aquellos quienes escapen de Moab y también a aquellos quienes queden en la tierra.

Isaiah 15:1

Información general:
Con frecuencia en la profecía, los eventos que sucederán son descriptos como si estuvieran sucediendo ahora o en el pasado. Esto hace énfasis en que el evento con certeza sucederá.

Una declaración
"Esto es lo que el SEÑOR declara" o "Este es un mensaje del SEÑOR"

Ar...Kir...Dibón...Nebo...Medeba
Estos son nombres de ciudades y pueblos en Moab.

Ar de Moab es devastada y destrozada
Las palabras "devastada" y "destrozada" significan lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que la ciudad estaba completamente en ruinas. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Los ejércitos enemigos destruirán completamente Ar de Moab"

Moab se lamenta por Nebo y por Medeba
Estos nombres de lugares se refieren a las personas que viven allí. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de Moab llorará por lo que le ha sucedido a las ciudades de Nebo y Medeba"

Todas sus cabezas son rapadas y todas sus barbas son cortadas Ellos hacen esto para demostrar su extrema tristeza. Traducción Alterna: "Todos ellos se raparán sus cabezas y se cortarán sus barbas y se afligirán"

Isaiah 15:3

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. (Ver: 15:1)

ellos visten tela de saco Ellos hacen esto para demostrar su extrema tristeza. Traducción Alterna: "ellos visten tela de saco y lloran"

Hesbón...Eleale...Jahaza
Estos son nombres de ciudades y pueblos.

Hesbón y Eleale piden ayuda Estos nombres de ciudades representan a las personas de esos pueblos. "Las personas de Hesbón y Eleale piden ayuda"

ellos tiemblan dentro de ellos
El temblor físico es un síntoma de miedo. Traducción Alterna: "ellos estarán completamente llenos de miedo"

Isaiah 15:5

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. (Ver: 15:1)

Mi corazón llora por Moab
El corazón representa las emociones. Dios habla de su gran tristeza como si su corazón llorara. Traducción Alterna: " Yo estoy extremadamente triste por lo que le está sucediendo a Moab"

sus fugitivos huyen
"los fugitivos de Moab huirán". Un fugitivo es una persona que escapa para que su enemigo no lo capture.

Zoar...Eglat Selisiya...Luhit...Horonaim...Nimrim
Estos son nombres de ciudades y pueblos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

acerca de su destrucción
Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "destrucción" sea expresado como el verbo "destruida". Traducción Alterna: "Porque su ciudad es destruida"

La abundancia
"Todo"

arroyo de álamos
Esto puede referirse al río en la frontera sur de Moab

Isaiah 15:8

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. (Ver: 15:1)

El llanto se ha ido al territorio de Moab
Se habla de que las personas lloran y otros los escuchan como si el llanto hubiera ido. Traducción Alterna: "Personas de todo el territorio de Moab lloran"

el gemido tan lejos como hasta Eglaim y Beer Elim Las palabras "ha ido" se sobreentienden. Se habla de que las personas gimen y otros los escuchan como si el gemido se hubiera ido tan lejos como estos dos lugares. Traducción Alterna: "el gemido se ha ido tan lejos como Eglaim y Beer Elim" o "Incluso las personas tan lejanas como Eglaim y Beer Elim gimen"

Eglaim...Beer Elim...Dimón
Estos son nombres de ciudades y pueblos. Dimón era la ciudad principal del país de Moab. Varias versiones modernas dicen "Dibón" en lugar de "Dimón".

pero Yo voy a traer más sobre Dimón Aquí "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR. Además, "sobre Dimón" se refiere a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "pero Yo causaré aún más problemas para las personas de Dimón"

Chapter 16

1 Envíen carneros al gobernante de la tierra de Sela en el desierto, al monte de la hija de Sion. 2 Como aves errantes, como un nido esparcido, así las mujeres de Moab están en el cruce del Río Arnón. 3 "Den instrucción, ejecuten justicia; provean un poco de sombra como la noche en medio del día; escondan los fugitivos; no traicionen a los fugitivos. 4 Déjenlos vivir entre ustedes, los refugiados de Moab; sean un lugar de escondite para ellos del destructor." Pues la opresión se detendrá, y la destrucción terminará, aquellos quienes pisotean desaparecerán de la tierra. 5 Un trono será establecido en pacto de fidelidad; y uno de la tienda de David fielmente se sentará allí. Él juzgará mientras procura la justicia y hace lo recto. 6 Nosotros hemos escuchado del orgullo de Moab, su arrogancia, su jactancia y su enojo. Pero sus jactancias son palabras huecas. 7 Así que, Moab gime por Moab--- ¡todos ellos gimen! Laméntense, ustedes quienes son completamente destruidos, por los pasteles de pasa de Kir Hareset. 8 Los campos de Hesbón se han secado como también las viñas de Sibma. Los gobernantes de las naciones han pisoteado la variedad de viñas que llegaban hasta Jazer y se extendían al desierto. Sus brotes se extendieron por todas partes; se fueron al mar. 9 Ciertamente, Yo lloraré junto con Jazer por el viñedo de Sibma. Yo los regaré a ustedes con mis lágrimas, Hesbón y Eleale. Pues en sus campos de frutas de verano y cosecha yo he terminado los gritos de alegría. 10 Alegría y gozo son quitados de las arboledas frutales; y no hay canto ni gritos en los viñedos. Ninguno exprime vino en las prensas, pues Yo he puesto un fin a los gritos del que exprime. 11 Así que, Mi corazón suspira como un arpa por Moab, y Mi ser interior por Kir Hareset. 12 Cuando Moab se fatigue en el lugar alto y entre a su templo a orar, sus oraciones no lograrán nada. 13 Esta es la palabra que el SEÑOR habló previamente concerniente a Moab. 14 Otra vez, el SEÑOR habla: "Dentro de tres años, la gloria de Moab desaparecerá; en cuanto a su mucha gente, el remanente será bien poco e insignificante."

Isaiah 16:1

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. El versículo uno probablemente sea lo que Dios dice que los gobernantes de Moab se dirán el uno al otro. (Ver: 15:1)

Envíen carneros al gobernante de la tierr
Los moabitas enviarán carneros al rey de Judá para que él los proteja del ejército enemigo.

Sela
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

la hija de Sion
La "hija" de una ciudad se refiere a las personas de la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas de Sion" o "Las personas que viven en Sion". Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:7.

Como pájaros deambulantes, como un nido esparcido, así las mujeres de Moab están en el cruce del Río Arnón Todas las personas de Moab, incluso las mujeres, son forzadas a huir de sus hogares. Traducción Alterna: "Como aves sin hogar, las mujeres de Moab huirán por el río hacia otra tierra"

Como pájaros deambulantes, como un nido esparcido
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo.

Isaiah 16:3

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. Los versículos 3 y 4 son probablemente el mensaje que los gobernantes de Moab le envían al rey de Judá. (Ver: 15:1)

provean un poco de sombra como la noche en medio del día
El calor en medio del día representa el sufrimiento de los moabitas a causa de sus enemigos y la sombra representa la protección contra sus enemigos. Comparar la sombra con la noche demuestra que ellos quieren un protección fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "Protégenos completamente de nuestros enemigos al igual que una gran sombra protege a las personas del sol caliente"

Déjenlos vivir entre ustedes, los refugiados de Moab
"Permitan que los refugiados de Moab vivan con ustedes" Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a las personas de Judá.

sean un lugar de escondite para ellos del destructor
Se dice que proveer un lugar de escondite es como ser un lugar de escondite. Traducción Alterna: "dénles un lugar para esconderse de los que tratan de destruirlos" o "escóndalos de los que quieren destruirlos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Isaiah 16:5

Un trono será establecido en pacto de fidelidad Aquí "trono" se refiere al poder de gobernar como rey. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR será fiel al pacto y Él designará un rey"

y uno de la tienda de David fielmente se sentará allí Aquí la "tienda de David" representa a la familia de David, incluyendo a sus descendientes. Sentarse en el trono representa gobernar. Traducción Alterna: "y un descendiente de David gobernará fielmente"

mientras busca la justicia
Buscar la justicia representa querer hacer lo que es justo.

Isaiah 16:6

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. (Ver: 15:1)

Nosotros hemos escuchado del orgullo de Moab, su arrogancia, su jactancia y su enojo
Las palabras "Moab" y "su" se refiere a las personas de Moab. Traducción Alterna: " Nosotros hemos escuchado que las personas de Moab son orgullosas, arrogantes y jactanciosas y que están enojadas"

Nosotros hemos escuchado
Los significados posibles son 1)Isaías está hablando y "Nosotros" se refiere a él y al pueblo de Judá, o 2) Dios está hablando y "Nosotros" se refiere a Dios

Pero su jactancia son palabras vacías
"Pero lo que ellos dicen de sí mismos no significa nada" o "Pero de lo que se jactan no es verdad"

Así que, Moab gime por Moab--- ¡todos ellos gimen!
"Moab" representa a las personas de Moab."Entonces todas las personas de Moab gritarán en voz alta por lo que le ha sucedido a sus ciudades"

por los pasteles de pasa de Kir Hareset
"porque no hay pasteles de pasa en Kir Hareset"

pasteles de pasa
La palabra hebrea usada aquí significa "pasteles de pasa" u "hombres"

Kir Hareset
"Kir Hareset" es el nombre de una ciudad.

Isaiah 16:8

Información general:
Esto continúa la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si hubieran sucedido en el pasado. (Ver: 15:1)

Hesbón
Traducir el nombre de esta ciudad como lo hiciste en 15:3.

Sibma...Jazer
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

Los gobernantes de las naciones han pisoteado la variedad de viñas
La tierra de Moab era conocida por sus viñedos. Aquí Dios describe la tierra de Moab como un gran viñedo. Esto hace énfasis en que los gobernantes, lo que se refiere a sus ejércitos, destruyeron completamente todo en Moab.

Isaiah 16:9

Información general:
Esto continpua describiendo la tierra de Moab como un gran viñedo (Ver: 16:8). Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si ellos estuvieran sucediendo en el presente.

Ciertamente, yo lloraré
En 16:9-10 la palabra "yo" se refiere al SEÑOR

Yo los regaré a ustedes con mis lágrimas
Dios habla de su profunda tristeza por estos lugares como si Él estuviera llorando mucho y sus muchas lágrimas cayeran sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Yo lloraré mucho por ustedes"

Jazer...Sibma
Traducir los nombres de estas ciudades como lo hiciste en 16:8.

Hesbón...Eleale
Traducir los nombres de estas ciudades como lo hiciste en 15:3.

Pues en sus campos de frutas de verano y cosecha yo he terminado los gritos de alegría
Los "gritos de alegría" representan a las personas que gritan de alegría por la cosecha de sus árboles frutales. Traducción Alterna: "A causa de lo que Yo haré, ustedes ya no gritarán de alegría cuando cosechen sus campos de fruta de verano"

yo he puesto un fin a los gritos del que aplasta Aquí "los gritos" se refieren a la alegría de las personas que aplastan las uvas para producir vino. Traducción Alterna: "por lo tanto las personas que aplastan las uvas no gritan con alegría"

Información general:
Esto continpua la profecía sobre el pueblo de Moab. Dios describe eventos que sucederán en el futuro como si estuvieran sucediendo en el presente. (Ver: 15:1)

Así que, mi corazón suspira como un arpa por Moab
La frase "mi corazón" representa al SEÑOR y a sus sentimientos de tristeza. Él compara su suspiro con el sonido de una canción triste tocada con en el arpa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces Yo suspiro como una canción triste en el arpa"

Moab...su
Estas palabras se refieren a las personas de Moab.

mi ser interior por Kir Hareset La frase "mi ser interior" representa al SEÑOR. La palabra "suspiros" se sobreentiende de la frase anterior. Traducción Alterna: "mi ser interior suspira por Kir Hareset" o "Yo estoy muy triste por las personas de Kir Hareset". Ver cómo tradujiste "Kir Hareset" en 16:6.

sus oraciones no lograrán nada
"sus oraciones no serán respondidas"

Isaiah 16:13

Esta es la palabra
"Este es el mensaje". Esto se refiere a todo lo que Él dijo en 15:1-16:12.

concerniente a Moab
La palabra "Moab" se refiere a las personas de Moab.

la gloria de Moab desaparecerá

Chapter 17

1 Una declaración sobre Damasco. 2 Las ciudades de Aroer serán abandonadas. Éstas serán lugares para que los rebaños descansen, y nadie las asustará. 3 Ciudades fortificadas desaparecerán de Efraín, el reino de Damasco, y el remanente de Aram-- éstas serán como la gloria del pueblo de Israel-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 4 Sucederá en aquel día que la gloria de Jacob menguará, y el engordamiento de su carne enflaquecerá. 5 Esto será como cuando un segador reúne las espigas, y su brazo cosecha las cabezas del grano. Será como cuando se recoge las cabezas de grano en el Valle de Refaim. 6 Se dejarán espigas, sin embargo, como cuando el árbol de olivo es sacudido: dos o tres aceitunas en la parte superior de la rama de más arriba, cuatro o cinco en las ramas más altas de un árbol fructífero-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 7 En aquel día, los hombres se volverán a su Hacedor, y sus ojos mirarán al Santo de Israel. 8 Ellos no mirarán a los altares, la obra de sus manos, ni mirarán lo que sus dedos han hecho, los altares de Asera o las imágenes del sol. 9 En aquel día sus fuertes ciudades serán como laderas de madera abandonadas en las cumbres de las colinas, que fueron dejadas por el pueblo de Israel y que se convertirán en una desolación. 10 Por cuanto ustedes han olvidado el Dios de su salvación, y han ignorado la Roca de su fortaleza. Así ustedes siembran plantas placenteras, y las mezclan con ramas de vid recibidas de un extraño, 11 en el día que siembras y cercas y cultivas. Pronto su semilla crecerá, pero la cosecha fracasará en un día de duelo y de pena desesperada. 12 ¡Ay! ¡El rugido de muchas gentes, aquel rugido como el rugido de los mares, y la agitación de naciones, que se apresura como la aceleración de aguas poderosas! 13 Las naciones rugirán como el precipitar de muchas aguas, pero Dios los reprenderá. Ellos huirán muy lejos y serán ahuyentados como las hierbas muertas en las montañas con el viento, y como hierbas girando ante una tormenta. 14 ¡En el anochecer, mirad, terror! ¡Antes de la mañana ellas habrán desaparecido! Ésta es la porción de aquellos que nos despojan, la suerte de aquellos quienes nos roban.

Isaiah 17:1

sobre Damasco
Traducir "Damasco" como lo hiciste en 7:7.

Las ciudades de Aroer serán abandonadas Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. "Todas las personas abandonarán las ciudades de Aroer"

nadie las asustará
La palabra "las" se refiere a las ovejas.

Ciudades fortificadas desaparecerán de Efraín
"Efraín" se refiere a Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Ya no habrá más ciudades fuertes en Israel"

el reino de Damasco
La palabra "desaparecerá" se sobreentiende de la frase anterior. Damasco era el lugar desde el que gobernaba el rey de Aram. La desaparición del reino representa que el rey ya no tiene poder real. Traducción Alterna: " el reino desaparecerá de Damasco" o "no habrá poder real en Damasco"

Aram
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 7:1.

estas serán como la gloria del pueblo de Israel Como las personas de Israel ya no eran gloriosas, esto quería decir que el remanente de Aram ya no sería glorioso. Traducción Alterna: "ellos ya no tendrán gloria, al igual que las personas de Israel" o "Yo traeré vergüenza a ellos como lo hice con el pueblo de Israel"

declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 14:21.

Isaiah 17:4

Sucederá
Esta frase es usada aquí para señalar que una evento importante sucederá. Si tu idioma tiene una palabra para hacer esto, podrías considerar usarla aquí.

la gloria de Jacob menguará, y la gordura de su carne enflaquecerá Aquí "Jacob" se refiere al reino de Israel. Israel ya no será glorioso. Más bien será débil y pobre.

Esto será como cuando un segador reúne el grano...en el Valle de Refaim
No quedará nada en la tierra después de que Dios castigue a las personas de Israel.

en el Valle de Refaim
Este es un valle donde las personas normalmente cultivaban y cosechaban mucha comida.

Isaiah 17:6

Información general:
Esto continúa comparando a la nación de Israel con un campo después de que es cosechado. (Ver: 17:4)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Se dejarán espigas
La palabra "espigas" aquí representa a las personas que todavía viven en Israel. Traducción Alterna: " pero quedarán pocas personas en Israel"

como cuando el árbol de olivo es sacudido Las personas cosechan los árboles de olivos sacudiéndolos para que las aceitunas cayeran. Traducción Alterna: "como las pocas aceitunas que quedan en los árboles de olivos después de que las personas los han cosechado"

cuatro o cinco
La palabra "aceitunas" es sobreentendida de la frase anterior a esta. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro o cinco aceitunas"

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 14:21.

los hombres se volverán a su Creador...sus ojos mirarán al Santo de Israel Volverse hacia Dios aquí representa tener la esperanza de que Él los ayudará. Traducción Alterna: "los hombres esperan que su Creador, el Santo de Israel, los ayude"

los hombres se volverán
La palabra "hombres" representa a las personas en general. Traducción Alterna: "las personas se volverán"

sus ojos mirarán
Aquí "ojos" representan a las personas que miran. Traducción Alterna: "ellos mirarán" o "las personas mirarán"

el Santo de Israel
Traducir esto como lo hiciste en 1:4.

Isaiah 17:8

Ellos no mirarán a los altares Mirar a los altares representa alabar a los ídolos con la esperanza de que llos los ayuden. Traducción Alterna: " Ellos no alabarán a los ídolos en sus altares" o "Las personas de Israel no irán a los altares y le pedirán a sus ídolos que los ayuden"

la obra de sus manos Hablar de las manos aquí hace énfasis en que las personas hicieron los altares o los ídolos. Traducción Alterna: "que ellos hicieron con sus manos" o "que ellos mismos construyeron"

lo que sus dedos han hecho...los altares de Asera o las imágenes del sol La segunda frase identifica las cosas que las personas hicieron. Hablar de los dedos aquí hace énfasis en que las personas los hicieron, por lo tanto estas cosas no son dioses reales. Traducción Alterna: "los altares de Asera o las imágenes del sol, que ellos mismos han hecho"

que fueron abandonados por el pueblo de Israel Puede ser expresado explícitamente quién dejó estas tierras. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que los hivitas y amoritas dejaron después de que las personas de Israel llegaron"

Isaiah 17:10

Por cuanto ustedes han olvidado
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a las personas de Israel. La palabra "olvidado" no significa que no tengan memoria sobre Dios. Significa que ya no le obedecen. Traducción Alterna: "Por cuanto ustedes ya no obedecen"

el Dios de su salvación
"el Dios que los salva"

y han ignorado la Roca de su fortaleza Esto compara a Dios con una gran roca donde las personas se podían trepar para escaparse de sus enemigos o se podían esconder. Traducción Alterna: "y han ignorado a Dios, quien es como una roca que los protege" o "y han ignorado al que los protege"

la cosecha fallará
"no habrá mucho fruto para que cosechen"

Isaiah 17:12

El clamor de muchas personas, ese rugido como el rugir del mar
Un clamor es un ruido muy fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "el sonido de muchas personas, que es muy fuerte como el de los mares"

el apresuramiento de las naciones, que se apresuran como la agitación de las aguas poderosa Los ejércitos enemigos parecen ser una fuerza muy poderosa que nadie puede detener. Traducción Alterna: "las naciones vienen apresuradas como las aguas poderosas"

el apresuramiento de las naciones
La palabra "naciones" se refiere a los ejércitos de esas naciones. Traducción Alterna: "el apresuramiento de los ejércitos enemigos" como las hierbas muertas en las montañas ante el viento...como hierbas girando ante una tormenta Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Los ejércitos enemigos parecen poderosos pero Dios fácilmente los detendrá y los alejará. Traducción Alterna: "como las hierbas muertas en las montañas que el viento sopla...como las hierbas que giran y se vuelan cuando se acerca una tormenta"

Esta es la porción de aquellos
Se habla de lo que les sucede a ellos como si eso fuera la porción que heredan. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que le sucede a aquellos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

nos despojan...nos roban

Chapter 18

1 Ay a la tierra del susurro de alas, la cual está a lo largo de los ríos de Etiopía; 2 quien envía embajadores por el mar, en barcos de papiro sobre las aguas. Vayan, mensajeros veloces, a una nación alta y suave, a un pueblo temible lejos y cerca, una nación fuerte y arrolladora, cuya tierra los ríos dividen. 3 Todos ustedes habitantes del mundo y ustedes quienes viven en la Tierra, cuando una señal se levante en las montañas, observen; y cuando la trompeta suene, escuhen. 4 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR me dijo: "Observaré silenciosamente desde mi casa, como el calor a fuego lento en el sol, como una nube de rocío en el calor de la cosecha. 5 Antes de la cosecha, cuando el florecimiento ha terminado, y la flor madura en una uva, Él cortará las ramas con la poda, y Él cortará y quitará las ramas que se extienden. 6 Se dejarán juntos para las aves de las montañas y para los animales de la tierra. Las aves harán verano en ellos, y todos los animales de la tierra harán invierno en ellos.'' 7 En aquel tiempo, tributo será traído al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos de los pueblos altos y suaves, de un pueblo temido lejos y cerca, una nación fuerte y arrolladora, aquellos cuya tierra los ríos dividen, al lugar del nombre del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, al Monte de Sion.

Isaiah 18:1

Aflicción a la tierra de alas crujientes, la cual está a lo largo de Etiopía Los significados posibles de "alas crujientes" son 1) las alas representan a los barcos que tienen velas. Traducción Alterna: "Aflicción para aquellos que viven en la tierra más allá de los ríos de Etiopía, cuyos tantos barcos parecen como insectos en el agua" o 2) las alas crujientes se refieren al ruido de los insectos que tienen alas, tal vezlas langostas.

por el mar
El Río Nilo era muy ancho y las personas en Egipto y Etiopía se referían a él como "el mar". Traducción Alterna: "en el gran río" o "a lo largo del Río Nilo"

barcos de papiro
El papiro es una planta alta que crece a lo largo del Río Nilo. La gente ataba los paquetes de papiros para hacer barcos. Traducción Alterna: "barcos de papiro" o "barcos hechos de juncos.

a una nación alta y suave...a un pueblo temible a lo lejos o cercano...a una nación fuerte y arrolladora, quienes sus tierras dividen ríos Todas estas frases describen a las personas de una nación.

dividen ríos
Esto probablemente se refiere a muchos ríos que fluyen a través de la nación, los cuales se dividen en diferentes partes.

una nación alta y suave
La palabra "nación" aquí se refiere a las personas de esa nación. Traducción Alterna: "a una nación cuyas personas son altas y tienen piel suave"

un pueblo temible a lo lejos o a lo cercano Las palabras "lejos" y "cercano" se usan juntas para significar "en todos lados". Traducción Alterna: "un pueblo que es temible en todos lados" o "un pueblo al que todos en la tierra le temen"

una nación fuerte y arrolladora
"Arrolladora" representa conquistar a otras naciones. Traducción Alterna: "una nación que es fuerte y conquista a otras naciones"

Isaiah 18:3

Oración de Enlace:
El versículo 3 cuenta lo que los mensajeros en 18:1 deben decirle a las personas del mundo.

Todos ustedes habitantes del mundo...ustedes quienes viven en la Tierra Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Todas ustedes personas de la Tierra" cuando señal sea levantada en las montañas, observen; y cuando la trompeta suene, escuchen La señal y la trompeta eran usadas para llamar al pueblo a la batalla. Las órdenes de mirar y escuchar son órdenes para prestar atención y prepararse para la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "presten atención cuando la señal sea levantada en las montañas y la trompeta suene"

cuando señal sea levantada en las montañas, observen Esta señal era una bandera usada para llamar a las personas a la batalla. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "presten atención cuando vean la bandera de batalla en las montañas."

y cuando la trompeta suene, escuhen
Las trompetas eran usadas para llamar a las personas a la batalla. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "presten atención cuando oigan el sonido de la trompeta de batalla"

Isaiah 18:4

Información general:
Dios usa una parábola sobre un granjero en un viñedo para describir lo que Él le hará a una determinada nación. Esa nación es Etiopía o el enemigo de Etiopía.

Esto es lo que el SEÑOR me dijo
"El SEÑOR me dijo a mí". Aquí la palabra "me" se refiere a Isaías.

En silencio observaré desde mi casa
Lo que Dios observará puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "En silencio observaré esa nación desde mi casa" o "Desde mi casa, Yo miraré lo que las personas de esa nación hacen" como el calor hirviendo en el sol, como una nube de rocío en medio del calor de la cosecha Estas frases demuestran la tranquilidad con la que Dios mirará la nación.

Antes de la cosecha
"Antes de la cosecha de uva"

cuando la floración ha terminado Puede ser expresado claramente que esto se refiere a la floración de las viñas de uvas. Traducción Alterna: "cuando las flores han terminado de crecer en las viñas de uvas"

Él va a cortar el retoño
Si un granjero ve que una rama nueva no da frutos, él la cortará. Traduccion Alterna: "el granjero cortará los retoños que no den frutos"

hoz
Una hoz es un cuchillo que las personas usan para cortas las ramas de las viñas u otras plantas.

Él cortará y se llevará las ramas extendidas
Si un granjero ve que una rama ha crecido demasiado y no deja que la viña dé muchos frutos, él la cortará y la tirará.

Isaiah 18:6

A ellos los juntarán
Parece que Dios cambia de contar la parábola a hablar más directamente sobre la nación. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellos que son asesinados serán jdejados juntos" o "Como las ramas que son cortadas y tiradas, los cuerpos de aquellos que son asesinados serán dejados en el suelo"

Las aves harán verano en ellos
"Las aves se los comerán durante el verano". La palabra "aves" se refiere a las aves que se alimentan de la carne de cuerpos muertos.

todos los animales de la tierra
"todos los tipos de animales salvajes"

harán invierno en ellos
"se los comerán en el invierno"

los pueblos altos y suaves, de un pueblo temido a lo lejos y a lo cerca, una nación fuerte y arrolladora, aquellos cuya tierra divide los ríos Todas estas frases describen a las personas de una nación. Ver cómo tradujiste estas frases en 18:1.

los pueblos altos y suaves
"Un pueblo que es alto y tiene piel suave"

un pueblo temido a lo lejos y a lo cerca
Las palabras "lejos" y "cerca" se usan juntas para significar "en todos lados". Traducción Alterna: "un pueblo que es temible en todos lados" o "un pueblo al que todos en la tierra le temen"

una nación fuerte y arrolladora
"Arrolladora" representa conquistar a otras naciones. Traducción Alterna: "una nación que es fuerte y conquista a otras naciones"

al lugar del nombre del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, el Monte de Sion La palabra "nombre" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "al Monte Sion, donde el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos vive"

Chapter 19

1 Una declaración sobre Egipto. Mira, el SEÑOR cabalga en una nube veloz y viene a Egipto; los ídolos de Egipto tiemblan ante Él; y los corazones de los egipcios se derriten dentro de ellos mismos. 2 "Yo agitaré a los egipcios contra egipcios: un hombre peleará contra su hermano, y un hombre peleará con su vecino; ciudad estará en contra de ciudad, y reino contra reino. 3 El espíritu de Egipto será debilitado desde dentro. Yo destruiré su consejo, aunque ellos buscaron el consejo de ídolos, el espíritu de hombres muertos, agoreros y espiritistas. 4 Yo entregaré a los egipcios en la mano de un amo cruel, y un rey fuerte reinará sobre ellos-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos." 5 Las aguas del mar se secarán, y el río se secará y se volverá vacío. 6 Los ríos se volverán asquerosos; las corrientes de Egipto van a disminuir y se secarán; las cañas y los juncos se marchitarán. 7 Las cañas junto al Nilo, por la boca del Nilo y todos los campos sembrados del Nilo se secarán, se convertirán en polvo, y serán soplados lejos. 8 Los pescadores van a gemir y llorar, y todos los que lanzen un anzuelo en el Nilo se lamentarán, y aquellos que extienden sus redes en el agua se afligirán. 9 Los trabajadores de lino peinado y aquellos que tejen telas blancas se pondrán pálidos. 10 Los trabajadores de telas en Egipto serán aplastados; todos quienes trabajan para contratar serán entristecidos en sí mismos. 11 Los príncipes de Zoán son completamente necios. El consejo de los asesores más sabios de Faraón se ha vuelto insensato. ¿Cómo puedes decirle al Faraón: "Yo soy el hijo de hombres sabios, un hijo de reyes antiguos?" 12 ¿Dónde están entonces tus hombres sabios? Deja que te cuenten y haz conocer los planes que tiene el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos acerca de Egipto. 13 Los príncipies de Zoán se han vuelto imprudentes, los príncipes de Menfis son engañados, ellos han hecho que Egipto se estravíe, quienes son las piedras angulares de sus tribus. 14 El SEÑOR ha mezclado un espíritu de distorsión en medio de ella, y ellos han guiado por mal camino a Egipto en todo lo que ella hace, como un borracho tambaleándose en su vómito. 15 No hay nada que nadie pueda hacer por Egipto, ya sea cabeza o cola, rama de palma o caña. 16 En aquel día, los egipcios serán como mujeres. Ellos temblarán y temerán por la mano levantada del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos que Él levanta sobre ellos. 17 La tierra de Judá se convertirá en causa de asombro para Egipto. Cada vez que alguien les recuerde sobre ella, ellos tendrán miedo, debido al plan del SEÑOR, que Él está planeando contra ellos. 18 En aquel día habrán cinco cuidades en la tierra de Egipto que hablen el lenguaje de Canaán y jurarán lealtad al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. Una de esas ciudades será llamada La Ciudad del Sol. 19 En aquel día habrá un altar para el SEÑOR en medio de la tierra de Egipto, y un pilar de piedras en su frontera para el SEÑOR. 20 Será como un signo y un testigo para el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos en la tierra de Egipto. Cuando ellos clamen al SEÑOR por causa de sus opresores, Él les enviará un salvador y un defensor, y Él los librará. 21 Él SEÑOR será conocido en Egipto, y los egipcios reconocerán al SEÑOR en aquel día. Ellos adorarán con sacrificios y ofrendas, y harán votos para el SEÑOR y los cumplirán. 22 Él SEÑOR afligirá a Egipto, afligiendo y sanando. Ellos regresarán al SEÑOR; Él escuchará sus oraciones y los sanará. 23 En aquel día habrá una carretera de Egipto a Asiria, y los asirios vendrán a Egipto, y los egipcios a Asiria, y los egipcios adorarán con los asirios. 24 En aquel día, Israel será el tercero con Egipto y Asiria, una bención en medio de la tierra; 25 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos los bendecirá y dirá: "Bendito sea Egipto, Mi pueblo; Asiria, la obra de Mis manos; e Israel, Mi herencia."

Isaiah 19:1

Mira
"Vean" o "Escuchen". Esta palabra le añade énfasis a lo que se dice después.

el SEÑOR cabalga en una nube veloz Parece que se describe al SEÑOR montando una nube como si estuviera andando en un carro.

los ídolos de Egipto tiemblan delante de Él Se describe a los ídolos como si tuvieran miedo cuando el SEÑOR se acerca. Traducción Alterna: "los ídolos de Egipto tiemblan de miedo ante el SEÑOR"

y los corazones de los egipcios se derriten dentro de ellos Un corazón que se derrite representa perder la valentía. Traducción Alterna: "y los egipcios ya no tienen valentía"

un hombre contra su vecino Las palabras "luchará" se entienden de la frase anterior. AT: "un hombre luchará contra su vecino" ciudad estará en contra de ciudad La palabra "ciudad" representa a las personas de la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "las personas de una ciudad pelearán contra las personas de otra ciudad" o "las personas de diferentes ciudades se pelearán unas contra otras"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

reino contra reino
Las palabras "estarán" o "pelearán" se sobreentienden de las frases anteriores. Traducción Alterna: "un reino estará en contra de un reino" o "un reino peleará contra otro reino"

reino contra reino
La palabra "reino" se refiere a un reino más pequeño dentro de Egipto. También puede llamarse provincia. Representa a las personas de ese reino o provincia. Traducción Alterna: "las personas de una provincia estarán en contra de las personas de otra provincia" o "las personas de diferentes provincias pelearán unas contra otras"

Isaiah 19:3

El espíritu de Egipto será debilitado desde adentro. Yo destruiré su consejo Aquí se habla de la nación de Egipto como si fuera una persona.

El espíritu de Egipto será debilitado desde adentro Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo debilitaré al espíritu de Egipto desde adentro"

Yo destruiré su consejo Esto puede ser dicho con otras palabras para que el sustantivo abstracto "consejo" sea expresado como el verbo "aconsejar". Traducción Alterna: "Yo confundiré a aquellos que aconsejan al rey"

aunque
"sin embargo", "a pesar de"

médium...espiritistas
Estas son personas que aseguran que hablan con aquellos que han muerto.

Yo entregaré a los egipcios en la mano de un amo cruel Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder o el control. Traducción Alterna: "Yo entregaré a los egipcios al control de un amo cruel"

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos
El sustantivo abstracto "declaración" puede ser traducido como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "esto es lo que el Señor, SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, declara"

Isaiah 19:5

Las aguas del mar se secarán, y el río se secará y se volverá vacío
Los egipcios se referían al Río Nilo como "el mar". Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "El Río Nilo se secará completamente"

se volverán asquerosos
"olerán asquerosos" o "apestarán"

disminuir
"estar bajas"

las cañas y los juncos se marchitarán
Los "juncos" y las "cañas" se refieren a dos tipos de plantas acuáticas similares. Traducción Alterna: "Las plantas a lo largo del río se morirán y se pudrirán"

Isaiah 19:7

los campos sembrados del Nilo
"los campos cerca del Nilo donde las personas han sembrado sus cultivos"

Los pescadores van a gemir y llorar, y todos los que arrojen un anzuelo en el Nilo van a llorar, y aquellos que extienden sus redes en el agua se lamentarán Estas tres frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Si es necesario, la razón por la que ellos se lamentarán pueden ser expresada claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Los pescadores que atrapan peces con anzuelos o redes llorarán desesperados porque los peces del Nilo han muerto"

arrojen un anzuelo en el Nilo Para atrapar a los peces, las personas ponen un poco de comida en el anzuelo, atan el anzuelo a una caña y lanzan el anzuelo al agua. Cuando un pez trata de comer la comida, su boca queda atrapada en el anzuelo y la persona saca al pez del agua.

arrojen
"tiren"

extienden sus redes en el agua
Para atrapar a los peces, algunas personas lanzan una red al agua. Cuando los peces quedan atrapados en ella, las personas sacan del agua la red con los peces.

Isaiah 19:9

Los trabajadores en lino peinado y aquellos que tejen telas blancas se pondrán pálidos.Los trabajadores de telas en Egipto serán aplastados
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Si es necesario, la razón por la que ellos van a esta angustiados puede ser expresada claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Los que hacen la ropa blanca de Egipto será humillados porque no hay lino"

Los trabajadores en lino peinado
"Aquellos que trabajan con lino peinado"

lino peinado
El lino es una planta que crece a lo largo del Río Nilo. Las personas peinan sus fibras para separarlas y las usan para hacer hilo para ropa blanca.

se pondrán palidos
"estarán avergonzados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los trabajadores de telas en Egipto
"Las personas de Egipto que hacen tela"

serán aplastados
Ser aplastado representa ser desanimado. Traducción Alterna: "serán desanimados" trabajan por dinero

"trabajan por la paga"

se lametarán dentro de ellos
"se sentirán muy tristes"

Isaiah 19:11

Los príncipes de Zoán son completamente tontos. El consejo de los asesores más sabios de Faraón se ha convertido insensato Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar. O los príncipes de Zoán también son los más sabios consejeros del Faraón o ellos son otro grupo de personas que también se demuestra que son tontas.

Zoán
Esta es una ciudad en el norte de Egipto.

¿Cómo puedes decirle Faraón...reyes antiguos?
Isaías usa esta pregunta para burlarse de aquellos en Egipto que aseguran ser sabios. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes tontamente le dicen al Faraón...reyes antiguos."

¿Dónde están entonces tus hombres sabios?
Isaías usa esta pregunta para burlarse de los hombres sabios. La palabra "tus" se refiere al Faraón. Traducción Alterna: "Tú no tienes hombres sabios" o "Tus hombres sabios son tontos"

Deja que te cuenten y haz conocer los planes que tiene el SEÑOR de los ejércitos acerca de Egipto Isaías quiere decir que los hombres sabios deberían poder entender los planes de Dios, pero Isaías realmente no cree que ellos sean sabios. Traducción Alterna: "Si ellos fueran realmente sabios, ellos deberían poder contarles los planes que el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos tiene acerca de Egipto"

Isaiah 19:13

han desviado a Egipto, que son las piedras angulares de sus tribus Se habla de que los príncipes de Zoán y Menfis son como las piedras angulares de un edificio porque son una parte importante de la comunidad. Traducción Alterna: "quienes son los líderes de sus tribus"

príncipes de Zoán
Zoán es una ciudad en el norte de Egipto. Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 19:11.

Menfis
Esta es una ciudad en el norte de Egipto.

hecho que Egipto se extravíe
La palabra Egipto representa a las personas de Egipto. Extraviarse representa hacer lo que está mal. Traducción Alterna: "han hecho que las personas de Egipto se extravíen" o "han hecho que las personas de Egipto hagan lo que está mal"

El SEÑOR ha mezclado un espíritu de distorsión en medio de ella Isaías habla del juicio del SEÑOR como si Egipto fuera una copa de vino. Él habla de que el SEÑOR hace que los pensamientos de los líderes estén distorsionados como si sus pensamientos distorsionados fueran un líquido que el SEÑOR ha mezclado con el vino. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los ha juzgado distorsionando sus pensamientos" o "El SEÑOR ha juzgado a Egipto distorsionando los pensamientos de sus líderes, como si las bebidas alcohólicas confundieran los pensamientos de las personas"

distorsión
"irracionalidad" o "confusión"

en medio de ella
Aquí "ella" se refiere a Egipto. A veces se habla de las naciones como si fueran mujeres. Traducción Alterna: "dentro de Egipto"

ellos han llevado a Egipto por el mal camino Aquí, "ellos" se refiere a los líderes descriptos en los versículos anteriores. La palabra "Egipto" representa a las personas de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "los príncipes han llevado por el mal camino a las personas de Egipto"

han llevado a Egipto por el mal camino Llevar a las personas por el mal camino representa influenciarlos para hacer el mal.

como un borracho tambaleándose en su vómito Isaías habla de las personas de Egipto que hacen lo que está mal como si los hicieran vagar como una persona borracha.

ya sea cabeza o cola
La "cabeza", la parte de un animal que a una persona le gustaría ser, representa al líder. La "cola" es lo opuesto y representa a las personas que siguen. Traducción Alterna: "ya sea un líder o un seguidor"

rama de palma o caña
La "rama de palma" crece alta en un árbol y representa a las personas que son ricas e importantes. La "caña" crece en aguas poco profundas y representa a las personas que son pobres e insignifcantes. Ver cómo tradujiste frases similares en 9:13. Traducción Alterna: "ya sea que

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

son importantes o insignificantes" o "ya sea que son ricos o pobres"

Isaiah 19:16

los egipcios serán como mujeres
Esto hace énfasis en que las personas de Egipto estarán asustadas e indefensas cuando Dios las castigue.

debido a la mano levantada del SEÑOR de los ejércitos que Él levanta sobre ellos Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder Dios y una mano levantada contra ellos representa que los castiga. Traducción Alterna: "porque el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos ha levantado su mano poderosa para castigarlos"

La tierra de Judá se convertirá en una causa de asombro para Egipto
La "tierra de Judá" y "Egipto" se refiere a las personas en esos lugares. Los egipcios se asombrarán porque tienen miedo. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas de Judá harán que los egipcios se asombren" o "Las personas de Judá harán que los egipcios estén terriblemente asustados"

Cada vez que alguien les recuerde sobre ella, ellos tendrán miedo Aquí "les" y "ellos" se refieren a los egipcios y "ella" se refiere al pueblo de Judá. Traducción Alterna: "cada vez que alguien les recuerde a los egipcios sobre el pueblo de Judá, los egipcios tendrán miedo"

Isaiah 19:18

habrá cinco cuidades en la tierra de Egipto que hablen Esto se refiere a las personas de esas ciudades. Traducción Alterna: "las personas en cinco ciudades egipcias hablarán"

el lenguaje de Canaán Esto se refiere al hebreo, el lenguaje del pueblo de Dios que vive en la tierra de Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "el lenguaje de las personas de Canaán"

jurarán lealtad
"prometerán ser leales"

Una de esas ciudades será llamada
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. "Las personas llamarán a una de esas ciudades"

La Ciudad del Sol
No es claro si la palabra hebrea traducida como "Sol" significa "sol" o "destrucción". Tampoco es claro lo que el nombre nos dice sobre la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "la ciudad llamada "la Ciudad del Sol"" o "la ciudad llamada "la Ciudad de la Destrucción""

Isaiah 19:19

un pilar de piedras en su frontera para el SEÑOR
La frase "en su frontera" se refiere a la frontera de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "un pilar de piedras para el SEÑOR en el borde de Egipto"

Será como un signo y un testigo para el SEÑOR de los ejércitos en la tierra de Egipto Los sustantivos abstractos "signo" y "testigo" pueden ser expresados con los verbos "mostrar" y "probar". Traducción Alterna: "El altar mostrará y probará que el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos está en la tierra de Egipto"

para el SEÑOR de los ejércitos en la tierra de Egipto Que el SEÑOR esté en la tierra de Egipto representa que las personas de Egipto lo adoran. Traducción Alterna: "esas personas en la tierra de Egipto adoran al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos"

Cuando ellos clamen
"Cuando los egipcios clamen"

por causa de sus opresores
"porque las personas los están tratando con dureza" o "porque otros los están haciendo sufrir"

Él les enviará un salvador y un defenso
"El SEÑOR enviará a alguien para que salve y defienda a los egipcios"

Él los librará
A quién el SEÑOR salvará puede ser expresado de manera explícita. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR librará a los egipcios de sus opresores"

Isaiah 19:21

Él SEÑOR será conocido en Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere a las personas de Egipto. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR hará que las personas de Egipto lo conozcan"

reconocerán al SEÑOR
"aceptarán la verdad sobre el SEÑOR" o "estarán de acuerdo con la verdad sobre el SEÑOR"

Ellos adorarán
El objeto de su adoración puede ser expresado de manera explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos adorarán al SEÑOR"

harán votos para el SEÑOR y los cumplirán
"harán promesas al SEÑOR y las mantendrán" o "ellos le harán promesas al SEÑOR y ellos harán lo que han prometido hacer"

El SEÑOR afligirá a Egipto Aquí, "Egipto" se refiere a las personas de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR afligirá a las personas de Egipto" afligirá

"golpeará" o "castigará"

afligiendo y sanando
Las palabras "a ellos" se sobreentiende en esta frase. Traducción Alterna: "afligiéndolos y sanándolos a ellos"

afligiendo y sanando
Cómo esta frase se relaciona con la frase anterior puede aclararse con las palabras "después" y "también". Traducción Alterna: "y después de que los aflija, Él también los sanará"

Isaiah 19:23

habrá una carretera
Una carretera es un camino grande por el que muchas personas pueden viajar.

el asirio vendrá
"el asirio" se refiere a una persona de Asiria, pero representa a cualquier persona de Asiria que venga a Egipto. Traducción alterna: "Los asirios vendrán"

y los egipcios a Asiria La palabra "vendrán" se sobreentiende. Traducción Alterna: "y los egipcios vendrán a Asiria"

los egipcios

Chapter 20

1 En el año que Tartán vino a Asod, cuando Sargón el rey de Asiria lo envió, él luchó contra Asod y lo tomó. 2 En ese tiempo, el SEÑOR habló por Isaías, hijo de Amós, y dijo: "Ve y quita la tela de saco de tu cintura, y quita las sandalias de tus pies." Él lo hizo, caminando desnudo y descalzo. 3 El SEÑOR les dijo: "Tal como mi siervo Isaías ha caminado desnudo y descalzo por tres años, esto es una señal y una profecía acerca de Egipto y sobre Etiopía-- 4 en esta manera el rey de Asiria guiará a los cautivos fuera de Egipto, y a los exiliados de Etiopía, jóvenes y viejos, desnudos y descalzos, y con las nalgas descubiertas, para la vergüenza de Egipto. 5 Ellos estarán consternados y avergonzados, por Etiopía, su esperanza, y por Egipto, su gloria. 6 Los habitantes de las costas dirán en ese día: 'Ciertamente, ésta era nuestra fuente de esperanza, a donde huimos por ayuda para ser rescatados del rey de Asiria, y ahora, ¿cómo podemos nosotros escapar?'"

Isaiah 20:1

Tartán
El nombre del comandante principal de los ejércitos de Asiria.

Sargón
El nombre del rey de Asiria

él luchó contra Asod y lo tomó Asod se refiere al ejército de Asod. Traducción Alterna: "él peleó contra el ejército de Asod"

caminando desnudo y descalzo
Aquí la palabra "desnudo" probablemente se refiere a que está usando sólo ropa interior. Traducción Alterna: "caminando sin ropa y sin sandalias"

Isaiah 20:3

y una profecía
" y un aviso"

sobre Egipto y sobre Etiopía Los nombres de los lugares se refieren a su gente. Traducción Alterna: "sobre las personas de Egipto y las personas de Etiopía"

el rey de Asiria guiará a los cautivos fuera de Egipto El rey le ordena a su ejército hacer esta tarea. Traducción Alterna: "el rey de Asiria hará que su ejército lleve a otro lugar a los cautivos"

guiará a los cautivos fuera de Egipto, y a los exiliados de Etiopía Puede ser expresado claramente que ellos primero atacarán y capturarán a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "atacarán Egipto y Etiopía y capturarán a su gente y se los llevarán a otro lugar"

para la vergüenza de Egipto Egipto se refiere a las personas de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "lo que traerá vergüenza a las personas de Egipto"

Isaiah 20:5

consternados y avergonzados
"asustados y con vergüenza"

por Etiopía, su esperanza, y por Egipto, su gloria La esperanza y la gloria se refieren a su confianza en el poder militar de esos países. Traducción Alterna: "porque ellos habían confiado en el poder de los ejércitos de Etiopía y Egipto"

Los habitantes de las costas
Las personas que vivían en las tierras que estaban en la frontera del Mar Mediterráneo.

a donde huimos por ayuda para ser rescatados Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a donde huimos para que ellos nos rescataran"

y ahora, ¿cómo podemos nosotros escapar?
El autor usa esta pregunta para hacer énfasis en lo desesperante que era su situación. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ahora ya no hay manera de que nosotros escapemos!"

Chapter 21

1 Una declaración acerca del desierto junto al mar. Como vientos de tormenta barriendo a tráves del Neguev, viene pasando a tráves del desierto, desde una tierra terrible. 2 Se me ha dado una visión angustiosa: el hombre traicionero trata traicioneramente, y el destructor destruye. Sube y ataca, Elam; saquea, Media; Yo detendré todo su gemir. 3 Por lo tanto, mis lomos están llenos de dolor, dolores como los dolores de una mujer dando a luz me han tomado; yo estoy doblegado por lo que escucho; yo estoy perturbado por lo que veo. 4 Mi corazón late, yo tiemblo de miedo. Temprano en la tarde, mi tiempo favorito del día, me ha traído terror. 5 Ellos preparan la mesa, ellos extienden las alfombras y comen y beben; levántense, príncipes, unjan sus escudos con aceite. 6 Pues esto es lo que el SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "Ve, pon un vigía; él debe informar todo lo que él ve. 7 Cuando él vea un carruaje, un par de jinetes a caballo, jinetes en burros, y jinetes en camellos, entonces él debe prestar atención y estar muy alerta." 8 El vigía grita: "Señor, en la torre donde yo estoy todo el día, cada día, y en mi puesto yo estoy toda la noche." 9 Aquí viene un carruaje con un hombre y un par de jinetes a caballo. Él grita: "Babilonia ha caído, caído, y todas las figuras talladas de sus dioses están rotas en el suelo." 10 ¡Mis trillados y aventados, niños de mi piso de trillar! Lo que he escuchado del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, yo se lo he declarado a ustedes. 11 Una declaración sobre Duma. Uno me llama desde Seir: "Vigía, ¿qué queda de la noche? Vigía, ¿qué queda de la noche?" 12 El vigía dijo: "La mañana viene y también la noche. Si tú quieres preguntar, entonces pregunta; y regresa otra vez." 13 Una declaración sobre Arabia. En el desierto de Arabia ustedes pasan la noche, ustedes caravanas de dedanitas. 14 Traigan agua para el sediento; habitantes de la tierra de Tema, reciban los fugitivos con pan. 15 Porque ellos han huído de la espada, de la espada extendida, del arco doblado, y del peso de la guerra. 16 Porque esto es lo que el SEÑOR me dijo: "Dentro de un año, como el labrador contratado por un año lo vería, toda la gloria de Cedar terminará. 17 Sólo unos pocos de los arqueros, los guerreros de Cedar quedarán," porque el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, ha hablado.

Isaiah 21:1

Una declaración
"Esto es lo que SEÑOR declara" o "Este es el mensaje de SEÑOR"

acerca del desierto junto al mar
Se refiere al pueblo que vive en Babilonia como a un desierto, aunque Dios no lo ha hecho un desierto aún. Este evento ciertamente sucederá. Traducción Alterna: "acerca del pueblo que vive en una tierra que pronto será un desierto"

Como vientos de tormenta barriendo a trvés del Neguev Isaías compara al ejército que atacará al pueblo con una tormenta de vientos fuertes. Serán rápidos y poderosos.

desde el desierto
Aquí "desierto" se refiere al desierto de Judea.

de una tierra terrible
El ejército es de un pueblo que causa gran temor.

Se me ha dado una visión angustiosa Ésto puede expresado en voz activa. Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR me ha dado una visión preocupante"

el hombre traicionero trata traicioneramente
"aquellos que traicionan lo seguirán haciendo"

y el destruvtor destruye
"y aquellos que destruyen lo seguirán haciendo"

Sube y ataca, Elam; saquea, Media
En la visión dada a Isaías SEÑOR le habla a los ejércitos de Elam y Media como si lo estuvieran escuchando.

Sube y ataca, Elam; saquea, Media
Se entiende que ellos van a atacar a los babilónicos. Traducción Alterna: "suban y ataquen a los babilónicos, soldados de Elam; vayan y sitien a los babilónicos, sodados de Media"

Elam ... Media
Aquí "Elam" y "Media" representan a los sodados de esos lugares.

Yo detendré todo su gemir
Aquí "su" representa al pueblo que está sufriendo por causa de los babilónicos. SEÑOR hará que dejen de gemir cuando envíe los ejércitos de Elam y Media a destruír a los babilónicos.

Isaiah 21:3

mis lomos están llenos de dolor
La visión que tiene Isaías es tan angustiante que le causa dolor físico. Aquí describe el dolor y calambres que sufre en la parte media de su cuerpo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

dolores como los dolores de una mujer dando a luz me han tomado Isaías compara su dolor al de una mujer dando a luz. Se enfatiza así el gran dolor que está sufriendo.

estoy inclinado por lo que escucho Ésto se puede expresar en voz activa. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que he oído me ha causado el doblarme de dolor"

estoy perturbado por lo que veo Ésto puede expresarse en voz activa. Traducción Alterna: "lo que ví me ha angustiado en gran manera"

Mi corazón palpita, tiemblo de miedo
"Mi corazón late con rapidez y estoy tembando"

Isaiah 21:5

Ellos preparan
Aquí "Ellos" hace referencia a los líderes de Babilonia.

preparan la mesa
Aquí "mesa" representa la comida que el pueblo comerá en el festín.

levántense, príncipes
Aquí "príncipes" hace referencia en general a los hombres de autoridad y no necesariamente a los hijos de los reyes.

unjan sus escudos con aceite
Los soldados ponen aceite en sus escudos de cuero para que se mantengan suaves y no se rajen durante la batalla. Ver:

Isaiah 21:6

pon un vigía
"dile a un vigía que permanezca a los muros de Jerusalén"

un carruaje, un par de jinetes

Chapter 22

1 Una declaración acerca del Valle de la Visión: ¿Cuál es la razón por la que todos ustedes se han ido a los techos de las casas? 2 ¿Es para que puedan escuchar una ciudad llena de ruidos, un pueblo lleno de fiestas? Tus muertos no fueron muertos con la espada, y ellos no murieron en batalla. 3 Todos tus gobernantes huyeron juntos, pero ellos fueron capturados sin usar un arco; todos ellos fueron capturados juntos, aunque ellos habían huído muy lejos. 4 Por lo tanto, yo dije: "No me mires a mí, yo lloraré amargamente; no trates de consolarme acerca de la destrucción de la hija de mi pueblo." 5 Pues hay un día de tumulto, pisada y confusión pues el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, en el Valle de la Visión, un derrumbamiento de las paredes, y gente clamando a las montañas. 6 Elam toma la aljaba, con carruajes de hombres y jinetes, y Kir deja el escudo al descubierto. 7 Sucederá que tus valles selectos estarán llenos de carruajes, y los jinetes tomarán sus posiciones a la puerta. 8 Él quitó la protección de Judá; y ustedes confiaron ese día en las armas en el Palacio del Bosque. 9 Ustedes vieron las brechas en la ciudad de David, que eran muchos, y ustedes colectaron el agua del estanque inferior. 10 Ustedes contaron las casas de Jerusalén, y ustedes derribaron las casas para fortalecer la pared. 11 Ustedes hicieron un embalse entre las dos paredes para el agua del estanque viejo. Pero ustedes no consideraron al Hacedor de la ciudad, quien la había planeado hace tiempo. 12 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos llamó ese día para llanto, para lamento, para cabezas rapadas, y el uso de silicio. 13 Pero mirad, en cambio, celebración y contentura, matando ganado y sacrificando ovejas, comiendo carne y bebiendo vino; comamos y bebamos, pues mañana moriremos. 14 Esto fue revelado en mis oídos por el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos: "Ciertamente, esta iniquidad no les será perdonada, incluso cuando mueran," dice el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 15 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: "Ve a este administrador, a Sebna, quien está sobre la casa, y di: 16 "¿Qué estás haciendo aquí y quién te dio permiso para que te hicieras una tumba para ti mismo, labrando una tumba en las alturas y esculpiendo un lugar de descanso en la roca?" 17 Mira, el SEÑOR está a punto de arrojarte, hombre poderoso, a punto de echarte abajo; él te sujetará apretadamente. 18 Él seguramente te dará vueltas y vueltas, y te tirará como una pelota a un país vasto. Allí morirás, y allí estarán tus carruajes gloriosos; ¡tú serás la vergüenza de la casa de tu Señor! 19 "Yo te empujaré de tu oficio y de tu estación. Tú serás derrumbado. 20 Sucederá en aquel día que Yo llamaré a mi siervo Eliaquim, hijo de Hilcías. 21 Yo lo vestiré con tu túnica y pondré sobre él tu banda, y yo transferiré tu autoridad a sus manos. Él será un padre a los habitantes de Jerusalén y a la casa de Judá. 22 Yo pondré la llave de la casa de David sobre su hombro; el abrirá, y nadie cerrará, el cerrará y nadie abrirá. 23 Yo lo fijaré, una clavija en un lugar seguro, y él se volverá un asiento de gloria para la casa de su padre. 24 Ellos colgarán en él toda la gloria de la casa de su padre, sus retoños y descendientes, cada recipiente pequeño desde las tazas hasta los cántaros. 25 En aquel día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, la clavija clavada en un lugar firme se deshará, se romperá y se caerá, y el peso que estaba en ella será cortado, pues el SEÑOR ha hablado.

Chapter 23

1 Una declaración sobre Tiro: Griten, ustedes barcos de Tarsis; porque no hay hogar ni puerto; que de la tierra de Chipre se les ha revelado a ellos. 2 Estén en silencio, ustedes habitantes de la costa; los comerciantes de Sidón, quienes navegan sobre el mar, los ha llenado a ustedes. 3 Sobre las grandes aguas estaba el grano de Sijor, las cosechas del Nilo fue su producto; y vino a ser el comercio de las naciones. 4 Sean avergonzados, Sidón; pues el mar ha hablado, el poderoso del mar. Él dice: "Yo no he estado de parto ni he parido, tampoco he criado hombres jóvenes ni mujeres jóvenes." 5 Cuando la noticia llegue a Egipto, ellos estarán afligidos a causa de Tiro. 6 Crucen hacia Tarsis; giman, ustedes habitantes de la costa. 7 ¿Te ha sucedido esto a tí, alegre ciudad, cuyo origen es de tiempos antiguos, cuyos pies la llevaron lejos a tierras extranjeras para establecerse? 8 ¿Quién ha planeado esto contra Tiro, el dador de coronas, cuyos mercaderes son príncipes, cuyos comerciantes son los honorables de la tierra? 9 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos lo ha planeado así para deshonrar su orgullo y toda su gloria, para avergonzar todos sus honorables de la tierra. 10 Ara tu tierra, como alguien ara el Nilo, hija de Tarsis. Ya no hay ningún mercado en Tiro. 11 El SEÑOR ha extendido Su mano sobre el mar, y Él ha sacudido los reinos; Él ha dado una orden acerca de Fenicia, para destruir las fortalezas. 12 Él dijo: "Tú no te regocijarás otra vez, oprimida hija virgen de Sidón; levántate, pasa sobre Chipre; pero tampoco allí tú tendrás descanso." 13 Mira la tierra de los Caldeos. Esta gente ha dejado de ser; los asirios la han hecho desierto para los animales salvajes. Ellos levantaron sus torres de asedio; ellos demolieron sus palacios; ellos la hicieron un montón de ruinas. 14 Griten, ustedes barcos de Tarsis; porque su refugio ha sido destruido. 15 En aquel día, Tiro será olvidada por setenta años, como los días de un rey. Al final de los setenta años, sucederá en Tiro algo como en la canción de la prostituta. 16 Toma un arpa, ve por la ciudad, tú prostituta olvidada; toca bien, canta muchas canciones, para que puedas ser recordada. 17 Sucederá que después de setenta años, el SEÑOR ayudará a Tiro, y ella comenzará hacer dinero otra vez al hacer el trabajo de una prostituta, y ella ofrecerá sus servicios a todos los reinos de la tierra. 18 Sus ganancias e ingresos serán apartados para el SEÑOR. No serán almacenadas ni guardadas en tesorería, sus ganancias serán dadas a aquellos que viven en la presencia del SEÑOR y serán usadas para suplirles a ellos con abundante alimento y para que ellos puedan tener ropa de la mejor calidad.

Isaiah 23:1

Información General:
Isaías continúa narrando lo que Dios ha juzgado en contra de las naciones en 13:1-23:18.

Una declaración sore Tiro

vino a ser el comercio de las naciones
Comercio es la actividad de comprar y vender mercadería. Aquí "naciones" representa a la gente. Traducción Alterna:"ustedes estaban donde la gente de otras naciones venía a comprar y vender mercadería".

Isaiah 23:4

porque el mar ha hablado, el poderoso del mar ... ni criado mujeres jóvenes Los significados posibles son 1) El SEÑOR describe a la ciudad de Tiro como a una madre que se refiere a la gente que vive en la ciudad como a sus hijos o 2) El SEÑOR describe al Mar Mediterráneo como quien habla. El pueblo de Tiro consideraba al mar como su dios y padre. En ambos significados quien habla se lamenta pues sus hijos son destruidos.

Isaiah 23:6

Crucen hacia Tarsis
"Pasen hasta Tarsis". Tarsis era la tierra más lejana a la que el pueblo de Tiro llegaba viajando para hacer negocios. Era el único lugar donde hallar refugio para aquellos que huían de Tiro.

¿Te ha sucedido esto a tí, ciudad alegre, cuyo origen es de tiempos antiguos ...para establecerse?
El SEÑOR usa una pregunta retórica para burlarse de Tiro. Esta pregunta retórica puede traducirse como una aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "Esto verdaderamente te ha sucedido a tí ,que estabas llena de alegría en la antigua ciudad de Tiro ... para establecerse".

la ciudad alegre
Aquí "ciudad" representa al pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo alegre que vive en la ciudad de Tiro" cuyos pies la llevaron lejos a tierras extranjeras para establecerse

lejos a ella
Aquí "ella" hace referencia a la ciudad de Tiro, que representa al pueblo de Tiro.

Isaiah 23:8

¿Quién haplanificado esto contra Tiro ... de la tierra?
Isaías usa una pregunta para burlarse deTiro. La palabra "esto" refiere a los planes de Dios para destruir Tiro, que Isaías describe en 23:1-7. Asimismo "Tiro" refiere a la gente que vive allí. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una aseveración. Traducción Alterna: "fue El SEÑOR quien ha planeado destruir al pueblo de Tiro ..de la tierra".

el dador de coronas Aquí "corona" refiere al poder que una persona tiene como soberano de un pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "quien le da al pueblo poder para gobernar sobre otros"

cuyos mercaders son príncipes
Los mercaderes o comerciantes son comparados con príncipes para enfatizar todo el poder que tenían cuando iban a diferentes lugares. Traducción Alterna: "cuyos mercaderes son como príncipes"

cuyos comerciantes son los honrados de la tierra Esto puede ser expresado en voz activa. Traducción Alterna: "aquellos comerciantes a los que la gente de la tierra les conceden los más altos honores" deshonrar su orgullo y toda su gloria "deshonrarlos porque ellos se envilecieron en su propia gloria"

su orgullo .. su gloria ... sus honorables Aquí "su" hace referencia a la ciudad de Tiro, que representa al pueblo que vive allí. Traducción Alterna: "el orgullo ... la gloria ... los honorables de todos ellos"

Isaiah 23:10

Ara tu tierra, como alguien ara el Nilo, hija de Tarsis. Ya no hay ningún mercado en Tiro Los significados posibles son 1) Isaías le está diciendo al pueblo de Tarsis que comiencen a arar y plantar ya que no podrán comerciar más con Tiro o 2)Isaías le está diciendo al pueblo de Tarsis que son libres del control de Tiro. Trducción Alterna: "pasa a través de tu tierra como un río, hija de Tarsis. El pueblo de Tiro ya no tiene más poder"

hija de Tarsis
La "hija" de una ciudad represanta al pueblo de esa ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Tarsis" o "el pueblo que vive en Tarsis".

El SEÑOR ha alcanzado con Su mano el mar, y Él ha sacudido los reinos
El SEÑOR que usa Su poder para controlar el mar y los pueblos de reinos poderosos es expresado como si El SEÑOR extendiera Su mano y sacudiera a esos reinos.

ha alcanzado con Su mano el mar Aquí "mano" refiere al poder y al control de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "ha demostrado Su poder sobre el mar"

oprimida virgen hija de Sidón

Chapter 24

1 Mirad, el Señor va a vaciar la tierra, para devastarla, estropear su superficie, y dispersar sus habitantes. 2 Vendrá eso, como con la gente, igual con el sacerdote; como con el siervo, como con el amo; igual con la doncella, como la amante; con el comprador, como con el vendedor; como con el acreedor, como con el deudor, como con el recibidor de intereses, igual con el dador de intereses. 3 La tierra será completamente devastada y completamente saqueada; porque el SEÑOR ha dicho ésta palabra. 4 La tierra se seca y se marchita, el mundo se encoge y desvanece, la gente prominente de la tierra se pierde. 5 La tierra está contaminada por sus habitantes porque ellos han transgredido las leyes, violaron los estatutos, y rompieron el pacto eterno. 6 Por eso una maldición devora la tierra, y sus habitantes son encontrados culpable. Los habitantes de la tierra se consumen, y poca gente queda. 7 El nuevo vino se seca, el vino deteriora, gimen todos los alegre de corazón. 8 El sonido alegre de las panderetas se detiene, y la fiesta de los que se alegran; cesa el júbilo de la lira. 9 Ellos ya no beben vino y cantan, y la cerveza es amarga para aquellos quienes la beben. 10 La ciudad del caos ha sido estropeada; toda casa está cerrada y vacía. 11 Hay llanto en las calles por el vino; todo gozo se oscurece, la alegría de la tierra ha desaparecido. 12 Lo que queda en la ciudad es desolación, y la puerta está hecha pedazos, en ruina. 13 Porque así será en la tierra completa entre las naciones, como cuando un árbol de olivo es sacudido, cuando las espigas de la cosecha de uvas está hecha. 14 Ellos levantarán sus voces y gritarán la majestad del SEÑOR, y gritarán jubilosamente desde el mar. 15 Por lo tanto, en el este glorifique al Señor, y en las islas del mar den gloria al nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 16 Desde los confines de la tierra hemos oído cánticos. "Gloria al único Justo! "Pero yo dije: "Yo me he consumido, yo me he consumido, ay de mi! Los traicioneros han obrado engañosamente; si, los traicioneros han obrado bien traidoramente." 17 Terror, el foso, y el lazo están sobre ustedes, habitantes de la tierra. 18 El que corre del sonido del terror caerá dentro del foso, y el que salga del medio del foso será atrapado en el lazo. Las ventanas del cielo serán abiertas y los cimientos de la tierra temblarán. 19 La tierra estará completamente hecha pedazos, la tierra será desgarrada; la tierra será sacudida violentamente. 20 La tierra se tambaleará como un hombre ebrio y se moverá hacia tras y adelante como un choza. Su pecado será pesado en ésta y se caerá y nunca se levantará. 21 Vendrá en aquel día que el SEÑOR castigará al ejército de las alturas en lo alto, y a los reyes de la tierra en la tierra. 22 Estarán reunidos juntos, prisioneros en un foso, y estarán encerrados en una prisión; y después de muchos días serán castigados. 23 Entonces la luna se abochornará, y el sol se avergonzará, pues el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos reinará en el Monte Sion y en Jerusalén, y ante de sus ancianos en gloria.

Isaiah 24:1

vaciar la tierra
"hacer desolada la tierra" o "destruir todo en la tierra"

Sucederá que
Esta frase marca un suceso importante. Si tu idioma tiene una forma de hacer esto, puede considerar usarlo aquí.

igual con... como con
Lo que el SEÑOR hará no está expresado aquí, pero se entiende. Esto muestra que Dios tratará a toda la gente de la misma manera. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR dispersa... así que Él dispersará"

el sacerdote... el dador de interés En 24:2 Isaías enumera varias clases de personas. Puede ser expresado como nombres plurales como en UDB. Traducción Alterna: "los sacerdotes...aquellos que dan interés"

el recibidor de interes
"el que debe dinero." La palabra "interes" significa el dinero adicional que alguien tiene que pagar para que el pueda tomar dinero prestado.

el dador de interes
"aquel a quien se le debe dinero"

Isaías continúa describiendo un tiempo en el futuro cuando Dios juzgará la tierra. Algunas veces los profetas describen un suceso del futuro como un suceso en el pasado o en el presente. Esto enfatiza que el suceso ciertamente ocurrirá.

La ciudad de caos ha sido destruída
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR ha destruído la ciudad del caos"

La ciudad de caos
Posibles significados son 1) la ciudad era un caos antes de que el SEÑOR la destruyera; la gente no obedecía a Dios, el gobierno era corrupto y la ciudad estaba llena de borrracherra y fiestas, o 2) la ciudad estará en caos después que Dios la destruya. Las paredes y los edificios que fueron construídos fuertes y altos ahora son ruinas en el suelo. Con cualquiera de los significados no significa una ciudad. Se refiere a ciudades en general.

toda casa está cerrada y vacía Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las personas cerrerán sus casas y las dejarán vacias"

por el vino
"porque no hay vino"

todo gozo es oscurecido, la alegría de la tierra ha desaparecido Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "todo gozo se habrá ido de la tierra"

la alegría de la tierra

Isaiah 24:14

Ellos levantarán sus voces y gritarán la majestad del SEÑOR
La fraese "levantarán sus voces"es una frase idiomatica que significa hablar alto. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos cantarán y gritarán acerca de la majestad del SEÑOR"

Ellos levantarán
Aquí "ellos"se refiere a aquellos quienes aún están vivos luego que el SEÑOR destruya la tierra.

y gritarán alegremente desde el mar
Aquí "el mar"se refiere al Mar Mediterráneo el cual está al oeste de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "y aquellos en el oeste hacia el mar gritarán con gozo"

Por lo tanto glorifiquen al SEÑOR en el este Esta frase "en el este"representa a la gente viviendo al este de Israel. Isaías está ordenando a estas personas como si estuvieran allí con él. Pero, él está hablando a la gente en el futuro luego que Dios destruya la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "Por lo tanto todos de tierras distantes en el este glorificarán al SEÑOR"

y en las islas del mar den gloria Isaías está ordenando a las personas que viven en las islas en el Mar Mediterraneo como si ellos estuvieran allí con el. Pero, él está hablando a la gente en el futuro después que Dios destruya la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "y todos en las islas darán gloria"

al nombre del SEÑOR
Aquí "nombre" representa al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "al SEÑOR"

Isaiah 24:16

nosotros hemos escuchado
Aquí "nosotros"se refiere a Isaías y el pueblo de Israel. Isaías está desscribiendo algo en el futuro como ya hubiera ocurrido. Traducción Alterna: "nosotros escucharemos" yo me he consumido, yo me he consumido

Isaías repite esta frase para enfatizar su angustia. El estaba muy preocupado porque él vió gente quienes engañaron a otros y no hicieron lo que prometieron que harían. Traducción Alterna: "Me he vuelto muy débil"

El traidor ha obrado de manera traicionera; si, el traicionero ha obrado de manera traicionera Isaías repite esta frase para enfatizar su angustia. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente, los traicioneros han actuado de forma traicionera"

Isaiah 24:17

Terror, el foso y el lazo están sobre ti, habitantes de la tierra
"Ustedes, gente de la tierra experimentarán terror, el hoyo y la trampa"

el foso y el lazo... atrapado en la trampa Aquí "foso"y "trampa"representa todas las diferentes malas cosas que pasarán a la gente. La gentehuirán para escapar de una mala cosa pero ellos experimentarán otra cosa mala.

los cimientos de la tierra temblarán
La palabra "cimientos" normalmente se refiere a una estructura de piedra que da soporte al edificio de debajo. Aquí esto describe una estructura similar que se pensaba mantenía y apoyaba la tierra en su lugar. Isaías dice aún la estructura que sostiene la tierra temblará. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra temblará terriblemente"o "habrá un terrible temblor de tierra"

Isaiah 24:19

La tierra estará completamente hecha pedazos, la tierra será desgarrada; la tierra será sacudida violentamente
Estas clausulas pasivas pueden ser declaradas en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La tierra se romperá y se separará; la tierra temblará violentamente"

La tierra se tambaleará como un hombre ebrio y se moverá hacia atras y adelante como una choza
Estos símiles enfatizaan como la tierra temblará hacia atras y adelante.

Su pecado será pesado en esta y se caerá y nunca se levantará.
Esto habla de la tierra como si fuera una persona y transgresiones fueran un objeto pesado. La persona trata de cargar la carga pesada pero el peso causa que la persona caiga y no sea capaz de levantarse. Aquí la tierra representa la gente de la tierra quien causa que el SEÑOR destruya la tierra por sus pecados. Traducción Alterna: "Los pecados de la gente son muchos así que el SEÑOR destruirá la tierra, y la tierra será como una persona que cae y no puede levantarse"

Chapter 25

1 SEÑOR tú eres mi Dios; yo te exaltaré, yo alabaré Tu nombre; porque Tú has hecho cosas maravillosas, cosas planeadas hace mucho tiempo, en perfecta fidelidad. 2 Pues Tú has hecho la ciudad un montón, la ciudad fortificada, una ruina, y una fortaleza de extraños en ninguna ciudad. 3 Por lo tanto un pueblo fuerte Te glorificará, una ciudad de naciones implacables Te temerán. 4 Porque Tú has sido un lugar de seguridad para quien es pobre, un refugio para quien tiene necesidad en su angustia- un refugio de la tormenta y una sombra del calor. Cuando el aliento del implacable era como tormenta contra el muro, 5 y como calor en la tierra seca, Tú suavizaste el ruido de extranjeros, como el calor es suavizado por la sombra de la nube, así que la canción de los implacables es contestada. 6 En este monte el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos preparará para todos los pueblos un festín de las mejores comidas, de vinos añejos, de carnes tiernas, un festín sobre heces de vino. 7 Él destruirá en este monte la cobertura de todos los pueblos, la tela tejida sobre todas las naciones. 8 Él tragará la muerte para siempre, y el SEÑOR Dios enjugará las lágrimas de todos los rostros; la deshonra de Su pueblo Él la sacará de toda la tierra, pues el SEÑOR lo ha dicho. 9 Se dirá en aquel día: ''Mirad, éste es nuestro Dios; hemos esperado por Él, y Él nos salvará. Éste es el SEÑOR; hemos esperado por Él, estaremos alegres y regocijados en Su salvación.'' 10 Pues en este monte la mano del SEÑOR descansará; y Moab será pisoteado en su lugar, así como la paja es pisoteada en un pozo lleno de estiércol. 11 Ellos extenderán sus manos en el medio de éste, como el nadador extiende sus manos para nadar. Pero el SEÑOR derribará su orgullo a pesar de la habilidad de sus manos. 12 Las paredes de sus altas fortalezas Él las derribará hasta el suelo, hasta el polvo.

Isaiah 25:1

alabará Tu nombre
Aquí "nombre"representa al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Tu seas alabado" cosas planificadas hace tiempo Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "cosas que tu planificaste hace mucho tiempo"

en perfecta fidelidad El sustantivo abstracto "fidelidad" puede ser declarado como "fiel." Traducción Alterna: "porque eres perfectamente fiel"

un fuerte de extraños
"un fuerte que pertenece a extrajeros"

una ciudad de naciones implacables
Aqui "ciudad"y "naciones"representa a las personas que viven ahí.

Isaiah 25:4

tú has sido un lugar de seguridad...un refugio... un refugio de la tormena...una sombra para el calor
Se habla de la protección del SEÑOR hacia su pueblo como si él fuera un lugar donde la gente puede ir para estar seguros y para ser consolados.

Cuando el aliento de los despiadados era como una tormenta en contra de una pared
Se habla de gente despiadada oprimiendo al pueblo de Dios como si ellos fueran una tormenta arremetiendo contra una pared.

Cuando el aliento
"Cuando el viento" o "Cuando el azote"

el despiadado
Este es un adjetivo nominal. Traducción Alterna: "gente despiadada" o aquéllos que son despiadados" como el calor en una tierra seca Esto compara a los enemigos del pueblo de Dios con el calor que seca la tierra. Esto enfatiza cuánto sufrimiento le causaron los enemigos al pueblo de Dios.

según el calor es atenuado...los despiadados...
El no dejar el SEÑOR a la gente despiadada cantar y jactarse es comparado con una nube que provee sombra en un día caluroso. Esto enfatiza que el SEÑOR consuela a su pueblo al detener a ésos que les causan sufrimiento.

según el calor es atenuado por la sombra de una nube Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "según una nube pasa por arriba y atenúa el calor"

el canto de los despiadados es contestado Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: Tú detendrás a la gente despiadada de cantar"

Aquí "cosas gordas"se refiere a las mejores comidas.

Un festín del vino añejo
"el vino más viejo." Esto significa el mejor vino.

la cubierta sobre toda la gente, la tela que se tejió sobre todas las naciones.
Se habla de la muerte, el sufrimiento y la tristeza como si fueran una nube oscura o tela que cubre a todo el mundo en la tierra.

Él se tragará a la muerte por siempre
Se habla de que el SEÑOR hará que la gente viva por siempre como si Él se tragaría la muerte.

Él quitará de toda la tierra la desgracia de su pueblo.
Se habla de que el SEÑOR hará que la gente nunca más tenga verguenza como si la desgracia fuera un objeto que el SEÑOR quitaría.

Isaiah 25:9

Se dirá
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.Traducción Alterna: "La gente dirá"

en aquél día
Aquí "día" representa un período de tiempo en general. Traducción Alterna: "en aquél tiempo"

Pues la mano del SEÑOR descansará en esta montaña.
La "mano" representa el poder de Dios. El que la mano del SEÑOR descanse en "esta" montaña significa que Él protegerá su pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "El poder del SEÑOR estará en esta montaña" or "Pues el SEÑOR protegerá a su pueblo en el Monte Sion." (Ver: and Moab será pisoteada en su lugar, así como la paja es pisoteada en un pozo lleno de estiércol.

Se habla de que el SEÑOR pisoteará al pueblo de Moab como si Él los pisara y los aplastara. Esta es una comparación con la forma en que la gente pisoteaba la paja para mezclarla con estiércol.

A Moab se le pisoteará en su lugar.
Aquí Moab representa el pueblo de Moab. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR" pisoteará al pueblo de Moab"

Isaiah 25:11

Ellos extenderán sus manos...sus manos para nadar
Esta símil enfatiza cuán terrible será la humillación del pueblo de Moab. Ellos extenderán sus manos en excremento animal según un nadador extiende sus manos en el agua.

Ellos extenderánn sus manos en medio de ello
"La gente de Moab empujarán sus manos a través del escremento animal"

así como un nadador extiende sus manos para nadar
"como si estuvieran nadando"

bajará su orgullo
Se habla de que el SEÑOR humilla a una persona orgullosa como si el orgullo fuera algo alto y el SEÑOR causara que sea algo bajo.

a pesar de toda la destreza de sus manos
Aquí "manos" representa el poder de hacer o de construir algo. Traducción Alterna: "a pesar de todas las cosas grandes que ellos han constuido" o "a pesar de las cosas grandes que han hecho"

Tus altas paredes de fortaleza Él derribará a la tierra, al polvo.
Esto habla del SEÑOR haciendo que los ejércitos derriben las paredes como si Él mismo fuera a derribarlas. Traducción Alterna: "Él enviará un ejército a derribar tus altas paredes de fortaleza a la tierra, al polvo"

Tu fortaleza alta
Aquí "tu" se refiere al pueblo de Moab. Se puede expresar en tercera persona para ser consistente con el verso previo. Traducción Alterna: "Su alta fortaleza"

Chapter 26

1 En aquel día, esta canción será cantada en la tierra de Judá: Tenemos una ciudad fuerte; Dios ha hecho salvación a sus murallas y a sus defensas. 2 Abran las puertas, para que la nación justa, la que permanece fiel, pueda entrar. 3 La mente que permanece en Tí, Tú le mantendrás en perfecta paz, porque él confía en Tí. 4 Confía en el SEÑOR por siempre; porque el SEÑOR es una Roca eterna. 5 Porque Él derribará a aquellos que viven orgullosamente; la ciudad fortificada Él humillará, Él la humillará hasta el suelo; Él la pondrá a nivel del polvo. 6 Será pisoteada por los pies de los pobres y las pisadas de los necesitados. 7 El camino del justo es plano, el Justo; el camino del justo Tú lo haces derecho. 8 Sí, en el camino de tus juicios, SEÑOR, nosotros esperamos en Tí; Tu nombre y Tu reputación es nuestro deseo. 9 Yo te he ahnelado en la noche; sí, mi espíritu dentro de mí te busca fervientemente. Porque cuando Tus juicios vienen sobre la tierra, los habitantes del mundo aprenden acerca de la justicia. 10 Que se muestre favor al maligno, pero él no aprenderá justicia. En la tierra de la nobleza, él actúa malignamente y no ve la majestad del SEÑOR. 11 SEÑOR, Tu mano está levantada, pero ellos no se dan cuenta. Pero ellos verán Tu celo por la gente y serán puestos en vergüenza, porque fuego de tus adversarios los devorará. 12 SEÑOR, Tú traerás la paz para nosotros; porque ciertamente, Tú has logrado todas Tus obras por nosotros. 13 SEÑOR nuestro Dios, otros amos además de Tí han gobernado sobre nosotros; pero nosotros alabamos sólo Tu nombre. 14 Ellos están muertos, ellos no vivirán; ellos están muertos, ellos no se levantarán. Ciertamente, Tú viniste en juicio y los destruiste a ellos, e hiciste que cada memoria de ellos pereciera. 15 Tú has agrandado la nación, SEÑOR, Tú has agrandado la nación; Tú eres honorable; Tú has extendido todos las fronteras de la tierra. 16 SEÑOR, en problemas ellos te han buscado a tí; ellos susurraron oraciones cuando tu disciplina estaba sobre ellos. 17 Como una mujer embarazada se acerca al tiempo de dar a luz, cuando ella está en dolor y grita en sus dolores de parto, así también nosotros hemos estado ante Tí, SEÑOR. 18 Hemos estado embarazados, hemos estado de parto, pero es como si nosotros sólo hubiéramos dado a luz al viento. Nosotros no hemos traído salvación a la tierra, y los habitantes del mundo no han caído. 19 Tus muertos vivirán; sus cuerpos muertos se levantarán. Despierta y canta de alegría, tú que vives en el polvo; pues tu rocío es rocío de luz, y la tierra traerá al frente a sus muertos. 20 Ve, pueblo mío, entra en tus habitaciones y cierra sus puertas detrás de tí; escóndete por un rato, hasta que la indignación haya pasado. 21 Pues, mirad, el SEÑOR está a punto de salir de Su lugar para castigar a los habitantes de la tierra por su iniquidad; la tierra descubrirá su matanza, y ya no esconderá su asesinato.

Isaiah 26:1

En ese día
Aquí, "día" representa un periodo de tiempo en general. TA: "En ese tiempo"

esta canción será cantada en la tierra de Judá Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. TA: "el pueblo en la tierra de Judá cantará esta canción"

la nación justa que mantiene la fe Aquí, "nación" representa el pueblo. TA: "el pueblo justo y fiel"

Isaiah 26:3

La mente que está puesta en Ti
Aquí, "mente" representa los pensamientos de la persona. Además, "Ti" se refiere al Señor. La frase "La mente que está puesta en Ti" es una expresión idiomática que significa "La persona que continuamente piensa en ti"

SEÑOR, SEÑOR
El SEÑOR es el otro nombre para el SEÑOR.

El SEÑOR, es una roca eterna
El SEÑOR teniendo el poder de proteger a Su pueblo se habla de como si Él fuera una roca alta donde las personas puedan ir para escapar de sus enemigos.

Isaiah 26:5

Él derribará a aquellos que viven orgullosamente
El SEÑOR humillando a aquellos quienes son orgullosos se habla de como si las personas

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

orgullosas estaban en lo alto y Él haría que se bajen.

la ciudad fortificada
Esto significa las ciudades fortificadas en general; no una ciudad en específico.

Él la bajará... Él la pondrá a nivel
El SEÑOR causando un ejército a destruir las ciudades fortificadas se habla de como si el SEÑOR lo haría Él mismo.

Será pisoteada por los pies de los pobres y el caminar de los necesitados.
Ambos enlaces significan la misma cosa. Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. TA: "Las personas pobres y oprimidos serán pisoteados en las ruinas de la ciudad"

Isaiah 26:7

El camino del justo es llano... el camino del Justo Tú lo haces recto Estas dos frases basicamente significan la misma cosa. Personas obedeciendo al SEÑOR se hablan de como si ellos estaban caminando en Su camino. El SEÑOR asegurando al pueblo que lo que ellos están haciendo es correcto se habla de como si Él estaba haciendo el camino llano y recto para ellos.

en el camino de tus juicios, SEÑOR, nosotros esperamos en Ti Haciendo lo que el SEÑOR juzgó como correcto se habla de caminar en Su camino. TA: "nosotros esperaremos por Ti, Señor, mientras continuamos haciendo lo que Tú juzgaste como correcto"

de tus juicios
"de tus leyes" o "de tus enseñanzas"

nosotros esperamos
Aquí, "nosotros" se refiere a Isaías y todas las personas justas quienes hablan al Señor.

Tu nombre y Tu reputación son nuestro deseo Aquí, "nombre" y "reputación" representa el carácter del SEÑOR por lo cual representa el mismo SEÑOR. TA: "nuestro único deseo es honrarte"

mi espíritu dentro de mí te busca intensamente Queriendo saber el SEÑOR y Sus leyes mejor, se habla de como si la persona estaba buscando a conocer al SEÑOR. TA: "Yo quiero intensamente conocerte mejor"

mi espíritu dentro de mí te busca intensamente
Aquí, "espíritu" representa el orador en su conjunto.

Isaiah 26:10

Deja que el favor sea mostrado al malvado, pero él no aprenderá justicia Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. TA: "Aunque el SEÑOR sea bueno a las personas malvadas, ellos todavía no aprenden a hacer lo que es correcto"

al malvado
Esto significa personas malvadas en general.

En la tierra de la nobleza Aquí, "tierra" representa a las personas que viven allí. TA: "En la tierra donde las personas hacen lo que es correcto"

no ve la majestad del SEÑOR
Aquí, "ve" representa darse cuenta de algo. TA: "no da cuenta que el SEÑOR es maravilloso"

Isaiah 26:11

tu mano está levantada
El Señor preparando a castigar a las personas malvadas se habla de como si Su mano fue levantada y está a punto de golpear a las personas malvadas.

pero ellos no la notan
"pero las personas malvadas no la notan"

ellos verán tu celo por la gente Aquí, "verán" representa darse cuenta de algo. TA: "ellos se darán cuenta que estás ansioso a bendecir Tu pueblo"

serán puestos en vergüenza Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. TA: "ellos serán avergonzados"

el fuego de tus adversarios los devorará
El Señor castigando y destruyendo Sus adversarios se habla de como si Él enviaría un fuego que quemará a ellos por completo.

el fuego de tus adversarios Aquí, "de" no significa que el fuego pertenece a los adversarios, pero que el fuego tiene el propósito de ser usado en contra de los adversarios. TA: "tu fuego quemará completamente a ellos"

para nosotros
Aquí, "nosotros" se refiere a Isaías e incluyendo a todas las personas justas.

Isaiah 26:13

pero nosotros alabamos solo Tu nombre Aquí, "nombre" representa la persona de Dios. TA: "pero nosotros alabamos solo a Ti" ellos no se levantarán

"ellos no volverán a la vida"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hiciste que cada memoria de ellos pereciera
El SEÑOR causando que las personas no recuerden más sobre los que Él destruyó se habla de como si el SEÑOR hizo que sus memorias sean perecidos o muertos.

Isaiah 26:15

Tú has agrandado la nación, SEÑOR, Tú has agrandado la nación
Esta cláusula es repetida para énfasis. Aquí, "nación" representa a las personas. TA: "Has aumentado mucho el número de personas en nuestra nación"

Isaiah 26:16

ellos te han buscado a Ti Aquí, "ellos" se refiere a las personas de Israel. Esto puede incluir a Isaías. TA: "nosotros te hemos buscado"

te han buscado a Ti Esta expresión idiomática significa que ellos pidieron al SEÑOR ayuda.

cuando Tu disciplina estaba en ellos
El sustantivo abstracto "disciplina" puede ser fijado como un verbo. TA: "cuando disciplinas a ellos"

Como una mujer embarazada... grita por los dolores del parto
A las personas le comparan como una mujer dando luz. Esto enfatiza su sufrimiento y llanto cuando el Señor los disciplinan.

Isaiah 26:18

Información General
Isaías continuaba comparando el sufrimiento del pueblo de Judá a una mujer dando luz.

pero es como si nosotros solo hubiéramos dado a luz al viento
"pero es como si nosotros solo hubiéramos dado a luz al viento" o "es como si nosotros hemos dado a luz a nada." Esto es un símil que enfatizaba que el sufrimiento del pueblo resultaba en nada. TA: "pero nada bueno resultaba de él"

Nosotros no hemos traído salvación a la tierra, y los habitantes del mundo no han caído Aquí, "tierra" representa a las personas quienes viven en la tierra. El significado no está claro, pero parece significar que el pueblo de Israel no ha sido capaz de salvar a él mismo o a otras personas al derrotar a su enemigo en la batalla.

Nosotros no hemos traído salvación a la tierra Esto se puede volver a redactar para que el sustantivo abstracto "salvación" sea expresado como el verbo "salvar." TA: "Nosotros no hemos salvado a los habitantes de la tierra" los habitantes del mundo no han caído.

"ni hemos causado que las personas malvadas del mundo caigan en batalla"

Isaiah 26:19

Tus muertos vivirán
Esto se puede volver a redactar para que el adjetivo nominal "muertos" sea expresado como el verbo "han muerto." TA: "Tu gente quienes han muerto vivirán otra vez"

Tus muertos Significados posibles son: 1) "Tus" se refiere al SEÑOR o 2) "Tus" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Si tu escoges el opción número dos, puedes traducirlo como "Nuestros muertos."

Despierta
Esto habla de las personas muertas volviendose a la vida como si ellos están despertando del sueño.

tú que vives en el polvo Esto es una forma educada de referirse a aquellos que han muerto. TA: "aquellos quienes están muertos y enterrados" porque tu rocío es rocío de luz

El SEÑOR actuando amablemente hacia Su pueblo y devolviéndolos a la vida se habla de como si fuera el rocío que causa que las plantas vivan.

porque tu rocío Significados posibles son: 1) "tu" se refiere al SEÑOR y este es el rocío que el SEÑOR da o 2) "tu" se refiere al pueblo de Israel y este es el rocío que ellos reciben del SEÑOR.

rocío de luz Significados posibles son: 1) "luz" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR haciendo que los muertos vuelvan a vivir. TA: "rocío del SEÑOR" o 2) "luz" se refiere en el tiempo de la mañana cuando el rocío está en las plantas. TA: "el rocío de la mañana"

la tierra traerá al frente a sus muertos
"la tierra dará luz a aquellos quienes murieron." El SEÑOR causando que las personas muertas vuelvan a la vida se habla de como si la tierra daría luz a aquellos quienes murieron. TA: "y el SEÑOR causará a aquellos quienes murieron a levantarse de la tierra"

Isaiah 26:20

mi pueblo
Aquí, "mi" se refiere a Isaías. Además, "pueblo" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

hasta que la indignación haya pasado Traducir el sustantivo abstracto "indignación" como el adjetivo "enojado." TA: "hasta que el SEÑOR ya no este enojado con nosotros"

Chapter 27

1 En aquel día el SEÑOR con su fuerte, gran y feroz espada castigará al Leviatán la deslizante serpiente, Leviatán la retorciente serpiente, y Él matará al monstruo que está en el mar. 2 En aquel día: Una viña de vino, cantará de esto. 3 "Yo, el SEÑOR, soy su protector; Yo la riego cada momento. Yo la guardo cada noche y día para que nadie le dañe. 4 ¡Yo no estoy enojado, oh, que hubiera zarzas y espinas! En batalla yo marcharía contra ellos; Yo los quemaría todos juntos; 5 a menos que ellos acojan Mi protección y hagan paz conmigo; que hagan la paz conmigo. 6 En el día venidero, Jacob tomará la raíz; Israel florecerá y brotará; y ellos llenarán la superficie del suelo con fruto." 7 ¿Ha atacado el SEÑOR a Jacob e Israel como Él ha atacado aquellas naciones que los atacó a ellos? ¿Han sido asesinados Jacob e Israel como en la matanza de aquellas naciones que fueron matadas por ellos? 8 En exacta medida ustedes han contendido, enviando a Jacob e Israel lejos; Él los ahuyentó con su viento severo, en el día del viento del este. 9 Así que de esta manera, la iniquidad de Jacob será perdonada, pues esto será el fruto completo de la remoción de su pecado: cuando Él hará todas las piedras del altar como tiza y trituradas en pedazos, y ningún poste de Asera o altares de incienso permanecerá de pie. 10 Por cuanto la ciudad fortificada está desolada, la habitación está desierta y abandonada como el desierto. Allí se alimenta el becerro, y allí se acuesta y consume sus ramas. 11 Cuando las ramas estén secas, ellas serán quebradas. Mujeres vendrán y harán fuego con ellas, pues esta no es gente con entendimiento. Por lo tanto su Hacedor no tendrá compasión de ellos, y aquel que los hizo no será misericordioso con ellos. 12 Ocurrirá en aquel día que el SEÑOR los trillará desde el Río Eufrates hasta el torrente de Egipto y tú, el pueblo de Israel, será reunido uno por uno. 13 En aquel día una gran trompeta será sonada; y los que perezcan en la tierra de Asiria vendrán, y los desterrados de la tierra de Egipto, ellos adorarán al SEÑOR en el santo monte de Jerusalén.

Isaiah 27:1

En ese día
Aquí " día" representa un periodo de tiempo en general. AT: "En ese día"

EL SEÑOR con su fuerte, grandioso y fiera espáda los catigará
EL SEÑOR teniendo el poder para destruir a sus enemigos se ve aqui como si tuviera una espada fuerte y grande.

el monstro que está en el mar
Esto se refiere al Leviatán.

Una viña de vino,cantará de ello
"Canta de una viña de vino." Esto habla sobre la gente de Israel como si ellos fueran un viñero que produce frutos. AT: "Canta sobre la gente de Israel como si ellos fueran una viña que produce uvas para el vino."

Yo, EL SEÑOR, soy su protector
"Yo, EL SEÑOR, protejo al viñero"

día y noche
Las palabras "noche" y "día" se combinan aqui para decir " todo el tiempo." AT: "todo el tiempo" o "continuamente"

Isaiah 27:4

Oración de Enlace:
Se continúa hablando sobre la gente de Israel como si ellos fueran una viña (Ver: 27:1)

Yo no estoy enojado , o, que habían zarzas y espinos! En batalla yo marcharé contra ellos."
"Yo no estoy enojado. Si hubieran zarzas y espinos yo marcharé contra ellos en batalla."

Yo no estoy enojado
Se entiende que EL SEÑOR ya no está enojado con su pueblo. AT: " Yo no estaré ya mas enojado con mi pueblo"

habían zarzas y espinos
se habla de los enemigos del pueblo de Israel como si ellos fueran zarzas y espinos que crecen en la viña.

zarzas y espinos
Traduce estas palabras como lo hicistes en 5:5

En batalla yo marcharé contra ellos
EL SEÑOR peleando contra sus enemigos se habla como si él fuera un guerrero en un ejercito.

Yo marcharía contra ellos: yo los quemaría a todos juntos Aquí Isaías combina diferentes imagenes para hablar sobre los enemigos del SEÑOR. El habla de ellos como si fueran zarzas y espinos pero también como si fueran soldados en una guerra.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a menos que ellos acojan mi protección Esto se puede cambiar de palabra para que el nombre abstracto sea "protección" expresado como el verbo "proteger." AT: "a menos que ellos me pidan que los proteja"

y hagan paz conmigo ; dejalos hacer paz conmigo
"y ellos pidan vivir en paz conmigo; yo quiero que ellos vivan en paz conmigo

Isaiah 27:6

INformación General :
Isaías está hablando. El continúa describiendo al pueblo de Israel como una viña. (Ver: 27:1)

En el día venidero
Esto habla acerca de un día como si viajaran y llegaran a un lugar. AT: "En el futuro"

Jacob tomará la raíz; Israel florecerá y brotará;
EL SEÑOR bendiciendo al pueblo de Israel y prosperandolo se habla como si ellos fueran la viña que su raíz crece y florece. AT: "los decendientes de Israel florecerán como el vino que tiene raices y florece."

Jacob....Israel
Aquí "Jacob" e "Israel" son metónimos que representan a los descendientes de Jacob.

ellos llenarán la superficie de la tierra con frutos
EL SEÑOR causa que el pueblo de Israel prospere grandemente para que ellos puedan ayudar a otros pueblos, se habla como si ellos fueran una viña que da mucho fruto tanto que cubre la tierra.

Isaiah 27:7

¿Ha atacado EL SEÑOR a Jacob e Israel como ÉL ha atacado aquellas naciones que los atacó a ellos?
Esta pregunta se usa para contrastar la severidad del castigo de Dios. AT: "EL SEÑOR ha ciertamente castigado a las naciones enemigas más severamente que el castigo del pueblo de Israel."

Jacob.....Israel
Esto representa a los descendientes de Jacob.

¿Han sido asesinados Jacob e Israel como en la matanza de aquellas naciones que fueron matadas por ellos?
Esta pregunta también se utiliza para contrastar la severidad del castigo de Dios. Esto se expresa de forma activa. AT: "EL SEÑOR no ha matado al pueblo de Israel como ellos mataron a sus enemigos de otras naciones."

En exacta medidia tu has contendido
Aquí "tú" se refiere a Dios. EL SEÑOR castiga a su pueblo en la medida que ellos lo necesitaban, esto se refiere a algo como si el castigo de Dios fuera algo que se pudiera medir. AT: "Pero tú los castigastes tanto como lo necesitaban"

Enviando a Israel y a Jacob lejos Esto representa a los descendientes de Jacob. AT: "enviando lejos a los israelitas" el los alajó con su viento severo, en el día del viento del este El poder del SEÑOR para enviar lejos a su pueblo a una ciudad forastera se habla como si El SEÑOR sopló un viento para llevarlos a una ciudad forastera. AT: "el poder del SEÑOR los sacó como un viento fuerte del este"

Isaiah 27:9

Así que de esta manera Posiblemente significa 1) "esta" se refiere al SEÑOR enviando a su pueblo al exilio como Isaías menciona en los versos anteriores o 2) "esta" se refiere a una acción que Isaías mencionará en el próximo verso 9.

la iniquidad de Jacob será perdonada Esto se puede ver en forma activa como. AT: "El SEÑOR purificará el pecado de los israelítas "o "EL SEÑOR perdonará los pecados de los israelítas"

iniquidad de Jacob..... remoción de sus pecados Aquí "Jacob" representa a los descendientes de Jacob. AT: "iniquidad de los israelitas.... remoción de sus pecados"

pues esto será
Aquí "esto" se refiere a las acciones que Isaías describirá en la próxima parte del texto verso 9.

el fruto completo
Esto habla sobre los resultados de las acciones como si fuera un fruto que crece en un árbol o vid. AT : "el resultado"

Él hará todas las piedras del altar como tiza y hechas pedazos, y ningún palo de Asera o altares de incienso permanecerá de pie.
Aquí "él" se refiere a Jacob quien representa a sus descendientes. AT: "ellos destruirán completamente todos los altares en los que sacrifican a falsos dioses, y ellos romoverán todo ídolo de Asera y los altares en el que queman incienso a sus dioses falsos"

Isaiah 27:10

Por cuanto la ciudad fortificada está...consume sus ramas
Aquí Isaías describe un evento que va a ocurrir en el futuro como si hubiese ocurrido ya. Esto enfatiza de que ciertamente ocurrirá.

Por cuánto la ciudad fortificada está desolada, la habitación está desierta y abandonada como el desierto.
Esto se puede decir en forma activa. AT: "Las ciudades que eran fuertes y tienen mucha gente viviendo en ellas se vaciarán como un desierto "

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Allí se alimenta el becerro, y allí se acuesta y consume
Aquí "becero" representa a los becerros o a la manada en general. AT: "becerros se alimentan, y allí se acuestan y consumen"

Cuando las ramas....no es gente con entendimiento
La gente se torna débil por causa de su desobediencia a EL SEÑOR y así sus enemigos los destruyen facilmente se habla como si ellos son ramas débiles que son fáciles de romper por una mujer.

Cuando las ramas estén secas , estas serán rotas. Las mujeres vendrán y harán fuego con ellas Esto se puede ver de forma activa . AT: "Cuando las ramas se sequen, las mujeres vendrán las romprán y harán fuego con ellas"

estos no son gente con entendimiento Esto puede verse de manera explícita como . AT: "esta no son gente que entiende al SEÑOR o sus leyes"

gente
Posibles significados son 1) "gente" refiriendose al pueblo de Israel o 2) "gente" refiriendose al pueblo forastero que oprimía al pueblo de Israel.

Por lo tanto su Hacedor no tendrá compasión de ellos, y aquel que los hizo no será misericordioso con ellos.
Ambas oraciones significan lo mismo. AT: "Porque ellos no entienden , al SEÑOR , el que los creó, no tendrá compasión de ellos"

Isaiah 27:12

Ocurrirá en ese
Esta frase marca un evento importante que ha de ocurrir

en ese día
Aquí "día" representa un periódo de tiempo en general. AT: "en ese tiempo"

Jehová los trillará
El SEÑOR reuniendo a su pueblo para traerlos de vuelta de las naciones forasteras a la tierra de Israel se dice como que ellos están trillando el trigo para separar el grano de la paja.

desde el Río Eufrates , al torrente de Egipto Isaías menciona al Río Eufrates y al torrente de Egipto para mencionar que El SEÑOR traerá de vuelta al pueblo de Israel que fueron exiliados a los lugares cerca de esas aguas, esto es, Asiria y Egipto . El Río Eufrates está al noreste de Israel, y el torrente de Egipto está al sureste de Israel.

el torrente de Egipto
"el arroyo de Egipto"

Tú ……..los reunirás uno a uno Esto se puede ver de forma activa como. AT: "El SEÑOR los reunirá uno a uno"

una gran trompeta sonará Esto se puede ver de forma activa como . AT: " alguien tocará la trompeta fuertemente"

y los que perezcan en la tierra de Asiria vendrán, y los desterrados de la tierra de Egipto La información se puede entender claramente como. AT: "aquellos que están en exilio y muriendo en la tierra de Asiria y en la tierra de Egipto regresarán a la tierra de Israel"

Monte Santo
La "montaña santa" es el Monte de Sión, en Jerusalén. Ver como se traduce en el 11:8.

Chapter 28

1 ¡Ay de la orgullosa corona de guirnalda que es usada por cada uno de los borrachos de Efraín, y de la flor que se desvanece de su gloriosa belleza, la guirnalda que es puesta sobre la cabeza del Valle abundante de aquellos que son vencidos por el vino! 2 Mirad, el Señor envía a uno que es poderoso y fuerte; como una tormenta de granizo y una tormenta de viento destructiva, como un torrencial de lluvia y aguas desbordadas; y Él lanzará al suelo cada corona de guirnalda. 3 La orgullosa guirnalda de los borrachos de Efraín será pisoteada bajo los pies. 4 La flor que se desvanece de su gloriosa belleza, que está en la cabeza del valle fértil; será como el primer higo maduro antes del verano, que, cuando alguien la ve, mientras todavía está en su mano, él se la traga. 5 En aquel día el SEÑOR de los ejércitos se convertirá en una corona hermosa y en una diadema de belleza para el remanente de Su pueblo, 6 un espíritu de justicia para Él, quien se sienta en el juicio, y fortaleza para aquellos quienes hacen retroceder a Sus enemigos en sus puertas. 7 Pero incluso éstos se tambalean con el vino, y dan traspié con la bebida fuerte. El sacerdote y el profeta se tambalean con una bebida fuerte, y ellos son tragados por el vino. Ellos dan traspié con la bebida fuerte, nublados en visión y tambaleando en decisión. 8 Verdaderamente, todas las mesas están cubiertas con vómito, tal que no hay un lugar limpio. 9 ¿A quién Él le enseñará conocimiento, y a quién Él le explicará el mensaje? ¿A aquellos que han sido destetados de la leche o a aquellos reicién retirados del pecho? 10 Pues es mandato sobre mandato, mandato sobre mandato, regla sobre regla, regla sobre regla; aquí un poco, allá un poco. 11 Ciertamente, con labios burlones y una lengua extranjera Él le hablará a su pueblo. 12 En el pasado Él les dijo: "Este es el descanso, dénle descanso a quien está cansado; y este es el refrigerio," pero ellos no escucharon. 13 Así la palabra del SEÑOR será para ellos mandato sobre mandato, mandato sobre mandato, regla sobre regla, regla sobre regla, aquí un poco, allá un poco; para que puedan ir y caerse hacia atrás, y ser quebrantados, atrapados y capturados. 14 Así que escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR, tú que te burlas, tú que reinas sobre este pueblo que está en Jerusalén. 15 Esto ocurrirá porque dijeron: "Hemos hecho un pacto con la muerte, y con el Seol hemos llegado a un acuerdo. Así que cuando el látigo abrumador pase, no nos alcanzará. Pues hemos hecho una mentira nuestro refugio, y tomado refugio en la falsedad." 16 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice: "Mirad, Yo voy a establecer en Sion una piedra fundamental, una piedra probada, una preciosa piedra angular, un fundamento seguro. Aquel quien crea no será avergonzado. 17 Yo haré la justicia la vara de medición, y a la rectitud la plomada. El granizo barrerá el refugio de las mentiras, y las inundaciones cubrirán el lugar de escondite. 18 Su pacto con la muerte se disolverá, y su acuerdo con el Seol no permanecerá. Cuando la inundación furiosa pase, ustedes serán cubiertos por ésta. 19 Cada vez que pase, los cubrirá, y mañana tras mañana pasará, y de día y de noche llegará. Cuando el mensaje sea entendido, causará terror. 20 Pues la cama es muy corta para que un hombre se estire, y la cobija es muy estrecha para que el se arrope con ella. " 21 El SEÑOR se levantará como lo hizo en el Monte Perazim, Él se despertará como en el Valle de Gabaón para hacer Su trabajo, Su trabajo extraño, y realizar Su extraña obra. 22 Ahora, por lo tanto no se burlen, o sus lazos serán apretados. Yo he escuchado del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, un decreto de destrucción sobre la Tierra. 23 Presten atención y escuchen Mi voz, estén atentos y escuchen Mis palabras. 24 ¿El agricultor que ara todo el día para sembrar, sólo ara la tierra? ¿Continuamente rompe y rasga el campo? 25 Cuando él ha preparado la tierra, ¿no dispersa la semilla de eneldo, siembra el comino, y pone el trigo en hileras y la cebada en el lugar correcto, y el centeno en los bordes? 26 Su Dios lo instruye; y le enseña sabiamente. 27 Además, la semilla de eneldo no es trillada con un garrote, ni tampoco una rueda de carro rueda por encima del comino; sino que el eneldo es golpeado con un palo, y el comino con una vara. 28 El grano es molido para el pan pero no tan fino, y aunque las ruedas de su carro y sus caballos lo dispersa, sus caballos no lo trituran. 29 Esto también viene del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, quien es maravilloso en enseñanza y excelente en sabiduría.

Isaiah 28:1

Gran aflicción a la orgullosa corona ... en la cabeza de lujoso valle de aquellos quienes se han vencido al vino.
Una "guirnalda" es una corona hecha de flores. Aquí representa la ciudad de Samaria, La capital de Israel, quien se sienta arriba de un valle fértil. Samaria y su pueblo siendo destruidos es dicho como flores que se han vuelto viejas y dejaron de ser bellas.

Mirad
''Escuchen" o "Presten atención''

quienes se vencieron con vino

el Señor envia uno quien es poderoso y fuerte Aqui ''uno'' se refiere a un rey poderoso quien también representa su ejercito poderoso. Traducción Alterna: ''el señor envía un rey con su poderoso ejercito''

tormenta de granizo
Una ''tormenta de granizo'' o granizada ocurre cuando piezas de hielo caen desde el cielo. Aquí es un símil que se refiere al ejército que EL SEÑOR enviará para destruir el pueblo de Samaria.

él tirará cada corona de guirnalda al suelo
El rey y su poderoso ejército destruyendo el pueblo de Samaria y su ciudad es dicho: como si el rey tirara las guirnaldas de el pueblo al suelo.

Isaiah 28:3

Información General:
Isaías continua hablando acerca de la gente y la ciudad de Samaria como si fueran una guirnalda. (ver: 28:1)

La orgullosa guirnalda de los borrachos de Efraín serán pisoteados.
Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna "El ejército enemigo aplastará a los borrachos orgullosos de Samaria como si estuvieran aplastando flores bajo los pies''

guirnalda orgullosa ... de Efraín ...que está en la cabeza del valle de los ricos
Una guirnalda es una corona hecha de flores. Aquí representa la ciudad de Samaria, la capital de Israel, quienes se sientan en una valle fértil.

Será como el primer higo maduro ... se lo traga
Esto habla de los soldados enemigos viendo la belleza de Samaria y rápidamente saqueándola como si fuera una persona que ve el primer higo de la temporada y comiéndolo rápidamente.

Isaiah 28:5

EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Traduzca esto como se hizo en 1:9.

se volverá una bella corona y una diadema de belleza
EL SEÑOR es hablado como si él se fuera a convertir en una hermosa corona que el pueblo quien lo honra como un verdadero rey le gustaría lucir.

una hermosa corona y una diadema de belleza Esto significa la misma cosa. Traducción Alterna: ''una corona hermosa'' pueblo, un espíritu de justicia para él quien se sienta en juicio, y en fuerza Esto puede reformularse para que el sustantivo abstracto ''justicia'' sea expresado como el verbo ''se justo''. AT: ''pueblo. EL SEÑOR le causará a los jueces ser justos y dar fuerza''

un espíritu de justicia
Una persona quien tiene un ''espíritu de justicia'' es alguien quien tiene la característica de justicia y es una persona justa.

se sienta en juicio
este idioma significa la persona tiene la autoridad de juez.

y fuerza para aquellos quienes dan marcha atrás a sus enemigos a sus puertas Aquí ''dar marcha atrás'' es un idioma que significa para derrotar en batalla. Traducción Alterna. ''y EL SEÑOR le causará a los soldados ser fuertes para que así derroten sus enemigos cuando los enemigos ataquen la ciudad''

Isaiah 28:7

Pero hasta estos
''Pero hasta los líderes''

El sacerdote y el profeta Esto no significa un sacerdote específico o un profeta. Se refiere a los sacerdotes y profetas en general. Traducción Alterna: ''El sacerdote y los profetas'' carrete con vino, y tambalearse con fuerte bebida fuerte Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatiza que los sacerdotes y los profetas no pueden hacer su trabajo por causa de que están bien borrachos''

ellos están tragados por vino Su exceso de bebida no les permitía pensar propiamente es dicho como si el vino se los tragara. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:)

Asombroso en visión y tambaleándose en decisión
Justo como ellos son bien borrachos para caminar correctamente, ellos son muy borrachos para entender las visiones. Dios los da o para tomar buenas decisiones.

Isaiah 28:9

A quienes el enseñará sabiduría, y a quién el explicará el mensaje?
Los profetas borrachos y los sacerdotes usan una pregunta para criticar a Isaías, quien está tratando de corregirlos. Traducción Alterna: ''Los profetas borrachos y los sacerdotes dicen: 'Isaías no debería tratar de enseñarnos acerca del mensaje de EL SEÑOR!'''

Para aquellos quienes están destetados de leche o para aquellos quienes solo toman de los pechos?
Los profetas borrachos y sacerdotes usan una pregunta para criticar a Isaías, porque ellos sienten que los está tratando como bebes. Traducción Alterna: ''El no debería tratarnos como bebes!'')

Pues está mandato sobre mandato, mandato sobre mandato; regla sobre regla, regla sobre regla; aquí un poquito, allí un poquito
Los sacerdotes y profetas borrachos criticaron a Isaías porque ellos sentían que Isaías repetía mandatos simples como si él estuviera hablándole a un niño.

Isaiah 28:11

con labios burlones y una lengua extranjera él les hablará a este pueblo.
aquí ''labios'' y ''lengua'' representa a los extranjeros que hablan un lenguaje diferente que el de los Israelitas. Está implícito que esto se refiere al ejército Asirio que atacará Israel. Traducción Alterna: ''EL SEÑOR hablará a esta gente a través de soldados enemigos quienes hablan un lenguaje extranjero''

labios burlones
''labios tartamudos''

Este es el resto
El sustantivo abstracto ''resto'' puede afirmarse como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: ''Este es el lugar de descanso'' dale descanso a él quien está cargado

El sustantivo abstracto ''resto'' puede ser afirmado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: ''permite cualquiera que este cansado venga y descanse''

Esto es el refrigerio
El sustantivo abstracto ''refrescante'' puede ser fijado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: ''este es el lugar donde tu puedes recibir refrigerio''

Isaiah 28:13

Así que la palabra del SEÑOR

Estas son las palabras que los sacerdotes y profetas borrachos usaron para criticar como Isaías los enseñaba. Ver como se tradujo esto en 28:9.

así que ellos podrían retroceder y caer hacía atrás, y ser rotos, atrapados, y capturados Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''en orden que el ejército de Asiria venga y los derrote y los tome cautivos''

vayan y retrocedan, y seán rotos
Personas siendo derrotadas en batallas con el ejército enemigo es dicho como: si las personas que caerían abajo y se rompieran.

atrapados
Los soldados enemigos capturando el pueblo de Israel es dicho: como si ellos fueran cazadores que capturan un animal en un lazo.

Isaiah 28:14

Así que escucha la palabra de EL SEÑOR
Isaías ahora habla a los líderes de Jerusalén. Aquí ''palabra'' representa un mensaje. Traducción Alterna: ''Así que escuchen el mensaje de EL SEÑOR''

Hemos hecho un pacto con la muerte, y con el Seol hemos alcanzado un acuerdo Ambos de estos estatutos significan básicamente lo mismo. Posibles significados son 1) Los líderes de Jerusalén han utilizado magia o hechisería para tratar de hacer un acuerdo con los dioses del lugar de los muertos para que así estos dioses los protejan de morir o 2) Esto es una metáfora que habla de los líderes teniendo un acuerdo con Egipto. Los líderes de Jerusalén estaban tan confiados que los egipcios los protejerían que era como si hubieran hecho un acuerdo con los dioses del lugar de los muertos.

Así que cuando atraviesen los abrumadores latigazos, no nos alcanzarán
Esto habla de el juicio de EL SEÑOR y el castigo como si fuera un latigo que golpeará a el pueblo. Y el latigo es hablado como: si fuera una inundación que pasaría por Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: ''Como resultado, cuando todos los demás están sufriendo y muriendo, nada nos lastimará''

Por cuanto hemos hecho de una mentira nuestro refugio, y hemos tomado refugio en falsedad
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Una ''mentira'' y ''falsedad'' son dichas como: si hubiera dos lugares donde una persona pudiera irse a esconder. Los líderes en Jerusalén no dirían ellos confían en una mentira. Ellos creían que eran verdaderamente salvos. Traducción Alterna: ''Por mentiras y falsedades se han vuelto como un lugar donde nosotros podemos escondernos del peligro''

Una mentira nuestro refugio ... tomando refugio en falsedad
Posibles significados son 1) Los líderes confían en sus propias mentiras en orden para protegerse o 2) Los líderes confían que el pacto que han hecho con los falsos dioses del lugar de los muertos los mantendrían a salvo 3) Los líderes confían que el acuerdo que ellos han hecho con los egipcios los mantendrían a salvo.

EL SEÑOR enviando una persona fuerte para ayudar a el pueblo de Israel es dicho: como si EL SEÑOR está construyendo una fuerte fundación para un edificio.

una roca probada
''una roca que es solida''

una fundación segura
''un soporte firme''

Él quien cree que no será avergonzado
''Cualquiera quien confía en esta fundación de roca no se arrepentirá''

Isaiah 28:17

Información General:
EL SEÑOR continúa comparando lo que él hará para el pueblo en Jerusalén para un constructor construyendo un edificio. (Ver: 28:16)

Yo le haré justicia a la vara de medir, y honraré a la plomada
EL SEÑOR probando de acuerdo a su justicia y rectitud para determinar si el pueblo es justo y recto es dicha como: si el fuera un constructor usando herramientas para determinar que algo es correcto en su medida y perfectamente nivelado.

la vara de medir
Un constructor usa una vara de medir para determinar si algo está correcto en su medida

la plomada
Un constructor usa una plomada para determinar si algo esta derecho y nivelado.

el granizo arrasará
EL SEÑOR causó una gran caída de granizo, es dicho: como si hubiera sucedido una gran inundación. Traducción Alterna: ''Granizadas destruirán''

Hail ... las aguas de crecidas
Posibles significados son 1) estos son sinécdoque representando nada en general que causará destrucción o 2) esto es una metáfora refiriéndose a el ejército enemigo que EL SEÑOR enviará a destruir el pueblo de Jerusalén.

Granizo
piezas duras de hielo que caen del cielo

el refugio de mentiras ... el lugar de escondite Esto habla acerca de ''mentiras'' como si fuera un lugar donde alguien pudiera ir a esconderse. Esto representa lo que los líderes de Jerusalén confiaron para mantenerlos a salvo de el castigo de EL SEÑOR. Posibles significados son 1) los líderes confían en sus propias mentiras las que han dicho en orden para protegerse o 2) los líderes confían en que el pacto que ellos han hecho con falsos dioses del lugar de los muertos los mantendrán a salvo o 3) los líderes confían que el acuerdo que han hecho con los egipcios los mantendrán a salvo. Ver como se tradujo una frase similar en 28:14.

Isaiah 28:18

Información General:
EL SEÑOR continua hablando al pueblo de Jerusalén.

Tu pacto con la muerte será disuelto, y tu acuerdo con el Seol no prevalecerá Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''Yo cancelaré el pacto que tu tienes con la muerte, y Yo cancelaré el acuerdo que tu tienes con el Seol''

pacto con la muerte ... acuerdo con el Seol Posibles significados son 1) los líderes de Jerusalén han usado magia o hechisería para tratar de hacer un acuerdo con los dioses del lugar de los muertos para que estos dioses los protegan de morir o 2)esto es una metáfora que dice: que los líderes han hecho un acuerdo con los líderes de Egipto. ''el se volverá muy enojado''

su obra extraña ... su extraña dádiva
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Esta obra es extraña porque Dios está usando un ejército extranjero para derrotar el pueblo de Jeruralén en vez de ayudar a el pueblo de Jerusalén a derrotar a sus enemigos.

Isaiah 28:22

ahora
Esto no significa ''en este momento,'' pero es usado para llamar la atención al punto importante que sigue.

tus ataduras serán apretadas
EL SEÑOR castigando el pueblo aún más severo esto es dicho: como si te apretarán tus ataduras. Esto puede ser fijado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''EL SEÑOR te castigará aún más severamente''

EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Traduce esto como se hizo en 1:9.

un decreto de destrucción en la tierra
Esto puede reformulado para que el sustantivo abstracto ''destrucción'' sea expresado como el verbo ''destruye.'' Traducción Alterna: ''que él va a destruir la gente a lo largo de la tierra''

Isaiah 28:23

Información General
Esto comienza como una parábola que termina en 28:29.

Presta atención y escucha a mi voz; se atento y escucha a mis palabras Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. La segunda frase es usada para ajustar la primera.

a mi voz
Aquí ''voz'' representa lo que Isaías dice. Traducción Alterna: ''para lo que Yo digo''

a mis palabras
Aquí ''palabras'' representa un mensaje. Traducción Alterna: ''para mi mensaje''

Un granjero quién ara todo el día para sembrar, ¿solo siembra la tierra? ¿ o Él continuamente divide y grada la tierra?
Isaías usa preguntas retóricas para hacer la gente pensar profundamente. Traducción Alterna: ''Un granjero no ara la tierra una vez y otra vez y continuamente trabaja el terreno sin siquiera sembrar la semilla.'')Ver:

Isaiah 28:25

Información General:
Isaías continua diciendo la parábola del pueblo de Jerusalén.

Cuando él haya preparado la tierra
''Cuando él granjero había sembrado el terreno''

no esparce semillas de alcaravea, siembra el comino, pone en el trigo en hileras y la cebada en el lugar correcto, y la espelta en los bordes?
Isaías usa una pregunta para hacer al pueblo de Jerusalén pensar profundamente. Si su lenguaje no tiene una palabra para cada una de estas semillas, se pueden expresar más generalmente. Traducción Alterna: él ciertamente plantará cada clase de semilla en la forma correcta y en los lugares propios.''

alcaravea ... comino Estos son los nombres de plantas que son especias. Traductores deben representarlos en general como semillas de especias usadas para sazonar la comida. (Ver: traducir_desconocido)

trigo ... cebada ... espelta
Estos son todos los nombres de las plantas que son granos. Traductores deben representarlos en general como semillas de granos. (Ver: traducir_desconocido)

Su Dios lo instruye; él lo enseña sabiamente Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: ''EL SEÑOR ayuda a los granjeros a como tener cuidado de cada planta''

Isaiah 28:27

Información General:
Isaías continua contándole una parábola al pueblo de Jerusalén.

La semilla de comino no es trillado con un trillo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''el granjero no separa la semillas de comino de la planta con un palo pesado''

alcaravea
Traduce esto como se tradujo en 28:25.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no es arrollado con rueda de carro el comino Esto puede ser expresado en forma activo. Traducción Alterna: ''ni se pasa una rueda de carro pesada sobre la semiila de comino''

comino
Traduce esto como se tradujo en el 28:25.

pero la alcaravea es golpeada con un palo, y el comino con una vara Isaías describe la forma correcta para un granjero de separar la semilla de la planta. Esto puede ser expresado en forme activa. Traducción Alterna: ''pero él golpea la alcaravea con un palo, y él golpea el comino con una vara''

Grano es tierra para pan pero no muy finamente
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''El granjero molió el grano para pan pero que no sea demasiado pequeño''

Isaiah 28:29

Esto tambien viene ... excelente en conocimiento EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Esto concluye la parábola comenzada en 28:23. La lección implicada de la parábola es que cuando los granjeros son lo suficientemente sabios como para escuchar las instrucciones del SEÑOR acerca de la siembra y el trillo. Pero los líderes de Jerusalén son necios por no escuchar las instrucciones que EL SEÑOR habló a través de Isaías.

EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Traduce esto como se hizo en 1:9.

Chapter 29

1 ¡Ay de Ariel, Ariel, la ciudad donde David acampó! Añadan año tras año; dejen que los festivales vengan. 2 Pero Yo sitiaré Ariel, ella estará llorando y lamentándose; y ella será para Mí como Ariel. 3 Yo acamparé contra tí en un círculo y pondré sitio contra tí con un vallado, Yo levantaré obras de asedio contra tí. 4 Tú serás derribada y hablarás desde el suelo, tu habla será bajo desde el polvo. Tu voz será como un fantasma saliendo del suelo, y tu habla será muy débil desde el polvo. 5 La muchedumbre de tus invasores será como polvo pequeño, y la multitud de los despiadados como paja que se va. Esto sucederá de repente, en un instante. 6 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos vendrá a tí con trueno, terremoto, gran ruido, con vientos fuertes y tormenta violenta, y las llamas de un fuego devorador. 7 Será como un sueño, una visión de la noche: una muchedumbre de todas las naciones pelearán contra Ariel y su fortaleza. Ellos la atacarán a ella y a sus fortificaciones para presionar sobre ella. 8 Será como cuando un hombre hambriento sueña que él está comiendo, pero cuando él se despierta, su estómago está vacío. Será como cuando un hombre sediento sueña que él está bebiendo, pero cuando él se despierta, él se está desmayando, con su sed no aplacada. Sí, así será el gran número de naciones que pelea contra el Monte Sion. 9 ¡Sorpréndanse ustedes mismos y sean asombrados; ciéguense ustedes mismos y sean ciegos! Emborráchense, pero no con vino; tambaléense, pero no con cerveza. 10 Pues el SEÑOR ha derramado sobre ustedes el espíritu de sueño profundo. Él ha cerrado tus ojos, los profetas, y ha cubierto tus cabezas, los videntes. 11 Toda revelación se ha vuelto para ustedes como las palabras de un libro que está sellado, cuyos hombres puedan darles a uno quien es enseñado, diciendo: "Lee esto." Él también dice: "Yo no puedo, porque está sellado." 12 Si el libro es dado a uno quien no puede leer, diciendo: "Lee esto", él dice: "Yo no puedo leer." 13 El SEÑOR dijo: "Este pueblo se acerca a Mí con sus bocas y me honra con sus labios, pero su corazón está lejos de Mí. Su honra para Mí es solamente un mandato de hombres que ha sido enseñado. 14 Por lo tanto, vean, Yo procederé a hacer una cosa maravillosa entre este pueblo, maravilla tras maravilla. La sabiduría de sus hombres sabios perecerá, y el entendimiento de sus hombres prudentes desaparecerá." 15 Ay de aquellos que profundamente ocultan sus planes del SEÑOR y cuyas obras están en oscuridad. Ellos dicen: "¿Quién nos ve, y quién nos conoce?" 16 ¡Ustedes hacen las cosas al revés! ¿Debe el alfarero ser considerado como arcilla, de modo que lo que se hace debe decir acerca de quien lo hizo, "Él no me hizo", o la cosa formada dice acerca de quien la formó: "Él no entiende"? 17 En sólo un rato, el Líbano será convertido en un campo, y el campo se convertirá en un bosque. 18 En aquel día el sordo oirá las palabras de un libro, y los ojos de un ciego verán desde de la profunda oscuridad. 19 El oprimido se regocijará otra vez en el SEÑOR, y el pobre entre los hombres se regocijará en el Santo de Israel. 20 Pues el despiadado cesará, y el burlador se desvanecerá. Todos aquellos quienes aman hacer el mal serán eliminados, 21 quienes por una palabra hacen que un hombre sea un infractor. Ellos colocan una trampa para él, quien busca justicia en la puerta y derrotan al justo con mentiras vacías. 22 Por lo tanto, esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice en cuanto a la casa de Jacob-- el SEÑOR, quien redimió a Abraham: "Jacob no se avergonzará más, ni tampoco su rostro palidecerá. 23 Pues cuando él ve a sus hijos, el trabajo de mis manos, ellos harán mi nombre Santo. Ellos harán santo el nombre del Santo de Jacob y ellos se quedarán maravillados del Dios de Israel. 24 Aquellos quienes erran en espíritu obtendrán entendimiento, y los quejosos aprenderán conocimiento."

Isaiah 29:1

Ay de Ariel
Aquí "Ariel" representa la gente que vive en la ciudad de Ariel. Traducción Alterna: "Cuán horrible será para la gente de Ariel"

Ariel
Este es otro nombre para Jerusalén, y este significa "altar". Si es posoble traducir esto como "Ariel" es importante en 29:2.

David acampó
"David habitó" o David vivía"

Añadan año tras año; dejen que los festivales vengan.
" Sigan celebrando sus festivales año tras año" Esto puede ser expresado en forma irónica. El SEÑOR le dice al pueblo que sigan celebrando sus festivales donde ellos sacrificaban para Él, pero Él sabe que eso no lo prevendrá de destruirlos.

Pero Yo los sitiaré
La palabra "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR causando que un ejército enemigo sitie a Jerusalén.

Ella podrá
Aquí "ella" se refiere a Ariel, la cuál representa la gente de Ariel. Traducción Alterna: "la gente de Ariel podrá"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Llorando y lamentándose
Las palabras "Llorando" y "Lamentándose" son básicamente lo mismo y la misma cosa y enfatizan la intensidad del lamento. Traducción Alterna: "ellos se lamentarán profundamente"

Como Ariel
Los traductores podrían añadir una nota que diga: "El nombre Ariel significa 'altar.'"

Isaiah 29:3

Yo acamparé en contra tuya
La palabra "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR. esto representa al SEÑOR causando que un ejército enemigo rodee a Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "Yo comandaré al ejército de tus enemigos que te rodeen"

Empalizada ... obras de asedio
Una empalizada es una torre de ejércitos que se construye para atacar las ciudades con muros altos. También "obras de asedio" se refiere a otras armas que el ejército puede construir para atacar las ciudades.

Tu serás derribado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Tus enemigos te derribarán" o "Tus enemigos te humillarán"

y hablarán desde el suelo; su habla será baja como el polvo. Su voz será como la de un fantasma fuera del voz será como un fantasma saliendo del suelo, y tu discurso será muy débil desde el polvo.
Todos estas expresiones significan básicamente la misma cosa. Ellas enfatizan que el pueblo quién una vez hablaba con palabras orgullosas, serán débiles y de duelo luego que el enemigo los engañe. Traducción Alterna: "y tu solo podrás hablar con susurros débiles como un espíritu hablando desde donde la gente muerta mora".

Isaiah 29:5

La multitud de sus invasores serán como polvo pequeño, y la multitud de los despiadados como paja que se va.
Esto enfatiza cuán débiles e insignificantes era el ejército invasor ante Dios. Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR fácilmente removería la multitud de los invasores y la multitud de los despiadados."

La multitud de sus invasores
"muchos soldados que les atacarán a ustedes"

Los despiadados como paja
El traductor puede suplir el verbo " será". Traducción Alterna: "los soldados que no les mostraron piedad serán como paja"

El SEÑOR de los ejércitos vendrá a ti
La palabra "a ti" se refiere al pueblo de Jerusalén. Posibles significados son 1)"El SEÑOR de los ejercitos vendrá a ayudarles" 2)El SEÑOR de los ejércitos vendrá a castigarles".

Isaiah 29:7

Será como un sueño, una visión de la noche
La frase "una visión en la noche" es la misma cosa que "un sueño". Las dos frases enfatizan que pronto será como si el ejército invasor nunca hubiera estado allí.

Una multitud de todas las naciones
"Un gran ejército de todas las naciones"

pelearán contra Ariel
El nombre "Ariel" es otra forma de llamar a Jerusalén, y representa el pueblo que vivía allí. Ver como fue traducido "Ariel" en 29:1. Traducción Alterna: "pelearán contra el pueblo de Ariel" sus fortalezas. Ellos la atacarán a ella y a sus fortificaciones para presionar sobre ella La palabra "ella" se refiere a Ariel lo cuál representa al pueblo que vivía allí. Traducción Alterna:"sus fortalezas. Ellos atacarán sus fortalezas. Ellos atacarán la ciudad de Ariel y sus defenzas y causarán que el pueblo esté en gran aflicción"

Será como cuando un hombre hambriento sueña que él está comiendo ... su sed no apagada
Estos símiles significan que el enemigo esperará la victoria pero ellos fallarán porque Dios no permitirá que conquisten Jerusalén.

Sí, así será el gran número de naciones que pelea contra el Monte Sion.
Aquí "Monte de Sion" representa la gente que vivía allí. Traducción Alterna: "Sí,esto será lo que pasará a los ejércitos de las naciones quienes pelearán contra el pueblo que vive en Monte Sion"

Isaiah 29:9

Sorpréndanse ustedes mismos y sean asombrados La palabra "ustedes" se refiere al pueblo de Jerusalén. ¿Porque ellos estaban asombrados puede ser expresado en forma explícita. Traducción Alterna: "estén asombrados de lo que les digo" Ver: and ciéguense ustedes mismos y sean ciegos

La gente ignora lo que El SEÑOR dice es expresado como si ellos se hicieran ciegos. Traducción Alterna: "Manténganse ignorantes y espiritualmente ciegos a lo que les estoy mostrando a ustedes"

Emborráchense, pero no con vino; tambaléense, pero no con cerveza.
El pueblo siendo sin sentidos y no entendiendo lo que El SEÑOR les está hablando como si estuvieran borrachos. Traducción Alterna: "Ser sin sentido

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

como una persona borracha, pero no es porque han tomado mucho vino o cerveza"

Porque El SEÑOR ha derramado sobre ustedes el espíritu de sueño profundo Aquí "el espíritu de" significa ''tener una carácterística de" estar dormidos. El SEÑOR causando que el pueblo este dormido es expresado como si fuera un líquido que puede ser vertido fuera de la gente. También "sueño profundo" es una figura literaria (Metáfora) que significa que la gente es insensata y no puede entender lo que El SEÑOR está haciendo. Traducción Alterna: "La razón por la que son insensatos es porque El SEÑOR les ha causado que estén espiritualmente dormidos"

Él ha cerrado sus ojos, los profetas, y ha cubierto sus cabezas, los videntes
El SEÑOR ha causado que el pueblo sea insensato y que no entienda lo que Él está haciendo, como si cerraran sus ojos para no poder ver. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es como si El SEÑOR hubiera cerrado los ojos de los profetas y cubierto la cabeza de los videntes.

Isaiah 29:11

Toda revelación se ha vuelto para ustedes como las palabras de un libro que está sellado
Los otros profetas en Jerusalén no podían oír o entender el mensaje de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Todo lo que El SEÑOR les ha revelado es como un libro que está sellado" está sellado, cuyos hombres puedan darles a uno que es enseñado Esto puede ser expresado como una nueva frase. Traducción Alterna: "está sellado. Una persona puede tomar el libro sellado a alguno que pueda leer"

Si el libro es dado a uno que no puede leer
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "si una persona le da el libro a alguien quién no pueda leer"

Isaiah 29:13

Este pueblo se acerca a Mí con sus bocas y me honra con sus labios Las palabras "bocas" y "labios" representan lo que el pueblo dice. Aquí también representa decir algo, pero no realmente lo que significa. Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo de Jerusalén pretendía adorarle y honrarlo con lo que decían"

pero su corazón está lejos de Mí
Aquí "corazón" es una figura literaria

Su honor para Mí es solamente un mandato de hombres que han sido enseñados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Me honran solo porque eso es lo que les han dicho que hagan"

Por lo tanto, vean, Yo procederé a hacer una cosa maravillosa entre este pueblo, maravilla tras maravilla
"Por lo tanto, ¡miren y vean! Yo voy a hacer maravillas y cosas maravillosas entre ustedes que no podrán explicar"

La sabiduría de sus hombres sabios perecerá, y el entendimiento de sus hombres prudentes desaparecerá."
Ambas declaraciones significan la misma cosa. El SEÑOR muestra que la gente sabia no puede entender o explicar lo que El SEÑOR esta hablando como si su sabiduria y entendimiento se hubiere desvanecido.

Isaiah 29:15

Información General:
Esto puede ser Isaías hablando o podría continuar la palabra del SEÑOR en 29:13-14.

aquellos que profundamente esconden sus planes del SEÑOR Ellos usan una pregunta para enfatizar que ellos creen que nadie sabe lo que están haciendo. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nadie, ni aún El SEÑOR sabe lo que estamos haciéndo!"

cuyas obras están en oscuridad
Está implicado que ellos están secretamente haciéndo cosas malas. Traducción Alterna: "Quién hace cosas malas en la oscuridad para que nadie les vea"

¿Quién nos ve, y Quién nos conoce?"
Ellos usan una pregunta para enfatizar que creen que nadie sabe lo que ellos están haciéndo. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nadie, ni siquiera El SEÑOR, ve o sabe lo que estamos haciendo!"

Isaiah 29:16

Tú giras las cosas boca arriba
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa distorsionar lo que es verdadero. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes hacen las cosas opuestamente a lo que debe ser" o "Ustedes distorsionan la verdad"

¿Debe el alfarero ser considerado como arcilla, para que así la cosa que es hecha deba decir sobre él... "Él no entiende"?
El SEÑOR quién creó la humanidad es expresado como si fuera un alfarero y los humanos fueran el barro. Esta figura literaria ¿Debe el alfarero ser considerado como barro... "Él no entiende"?

Esta pregunta es usada para regañar al pueblo de Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "Obviamente, el alfarero no debe ser considerado como el barro... 'Él no entiende'".

Isaiah 29:17

el Líbano será convertido en un campo, y el campo se convertirá en un bosque.
Los posibles significados son: 1) Esto es literal y El SEÑOR causará que el lugar donde los árboles crecen silvestres en el Líbano se vuelvan campos fructíferos o 2) Esta es una figura literaria

el Líbano será convertido en un campo Aquí "Líbano" representa los grandes bosques de cedros en el Líbano. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: Dios volverá los poderosos bosques del Líbano en un campo" el sordo oirá las palabras de un libro, y los ojos de un ciego verán fuera de la oscuridad profunda.

Posibles significados son: 1) Esto es literal y El SEÑOR hará que el sordo pueda oír y el ciego pueda ver o 2) Esta es una figura literaria

los ojos del ciego
Aquí "ojos" representa a las personas completas. Traducción Alterna: " Esos que son ciegos"

El oprimido se regocijará otra vez en el SEÑOR, y el pobre entre los hombres se regocijará en el Santo de Israel.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa. Traducción Alterna: "El pobre y la gente oprimida serán felices nuevamente por lo que El SEÑOR, el Santo de Israel ha hecho"

Isaiah 29:20

el despiadado cesará
El adjetivo nominal "el despiadado" puede ser expresado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Porque la gente despiadada cesará" o "Porque no habrá gente cruel"

y el burlador se desvanecerá
El adjetivo nominal "el burlador" puede ser expresado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "y esos que se burlan desaparecerán"

Todos aquellos que aman hacer lo malo serán eliminados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: El SEÑOR eliminará a todos aquellos quienes aman la maldad"

quienes por una palabra hice a un hombre ser un ofensor Aquí "palabra" representa un testimonio en una corte. Traducción Alterna: " quienes dicen en corte que un hombre inocente es culpable de hacer algo malo"

Ellos colocan una trampa para él quien busca justicia en la puerta y derrotan al justo con mentiras vacía
La gente mala haciendo lo que puedan para detener a una buena persona es expresado como si la gente mala pusiera una trampa como un cazador cazando su presa. Traducción Alterna: " Ellos mienten y tratan de detener a aquellos que quieren hacer lo que es justo y recto" quien busca justicia en la puerta

EL muro de la ciudad era donde a menudo los líderes de la ciudad hacían las decisiones oficiales.

Isaiah 29:22

la casa de Jacob Aquí la "casa" de Jacob representa a la familia. Traducción Alterna: " los descendientes de Jacob"

quien redimió a Abraham
Esto posiblemente se refiere a cuando El SEÑOR llamó a Abraham de su patria y lo envió a la tierra prometida.

Jacob no mas ... su rostro ... él ve a sus hijos Aquí "Jacob" representa a sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "Los descendientes de Jacob ya no mas...sus rostros...ellos verán sus hijos"

ni su rostro será pálido
Esto puede ser una expresion idiómática que significa que ellos no tendrán mas temor. Traducción Alterna: "No estarán ellos temerosos"

Pero cuando él ve a sus hijos, el trabajo de sus manos Aquí "manos" representa el poder y acción del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando ellos vean todos los hijos que Yo les he dado a ellos y todo lo que he hecho" ellos harán Mi nombre Santo Aquí "nombre" representa al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "ellos Me honraran"

Ellos harán santo el nombre del Santo de Jacob Aquí "nombre" representa El SEÑOR, El SEÑOR se refiere a sí mismo como "el Santo de Jacob." Traducción Alterna" Ellos Me honrarán, al Santo de Jacob" del Dios de Israel.

El SEÑOR se refiere a sí mismo como "el Dios de Israel." Traducción Alterna: "de Mí, el Dios de Israel"

Aquellos que erran en espíritu Aquí "espíritu" representa a la persona interior. Traducción Alterna: "Aquellos que estan equivocados en lo que piensan" o "aquellos quienes están errados en sus actitudes"

obtendrán entendimiento
Esto puede ser expresado mas explicito de explicar para que ellos entiendan. Traducción Alterna: "comenzaran a entender a El SEÑOR y Sus leyes" los quejosos aprenderán conocimiento."

Esto puede ser expresado en forma explícita para explicar el conocimiento que ellos debían aprender.

Chapter 30

1 "Ay de los niños rebeldes", esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. "Ellos hacen planes, pero no de Mi parte; ellos hacen alianzas con otras naciones, pero ellos no estaban dirigidos por Mi Espíritu, entonces ellos agregan pecado al pecado. 2 Ellos dispusieron descender a Egipto, pero no han pedido por Mi dirección. Ellos buscan protección del Faraón y se refugian en la sombra de Egipto. 3 Por lo tanto, la protección del Faraón va a ser su vergüenza, y el refugio en la sombra de Egipto, su humillación, 4 aunque sus príncipes están en Zoán, y sus mensajeros han venido a Hanes. 5 Ellos todos serán avergonzados por un pueblo que no puede ayudarlos, quienes no son ni ayuda ni socorro, pero una vergüenza, e incluso una deshonra." 6 Una declaración sobre las bestias de Neguev: A través de la tierra del problema y enojo, de la leona y el león, la víbora y la ardiente serpiente voladora, ellos cargan sus riquezas en los respaldos de burros, y sus tesoros en las jorobas del camello, a un pueblo que no puede ayudarlos. 7 Porque la ayuda de Egipto no tiene valor; por lo tanto, Yo la he llamado, Rahab, quien está sentada aún. 8 Ahora ve, escríbelo en su presencia en una tabla, e inscríbelo en el rollo, que pueda ser preservado cuando el tiempo venga como un testimonio. 9 Pues éstos son gente rebelde, niños rescostados, niños que no escuchan la enseñanza del SEÑOR. 10 Ellos dicen a los videntes: "No vean", y a los profetas: "No profeticen la verdad a nosotros; hablen palabras halagadoras a nosotros, profeticen ilusiones. 11 Apártense del camino, desvíense del sendero; causen que el Santo de Israel cese de hablar ante nuestro rostro." 12 Por lo tanto, el Santo de Israel dice: "Porque rechazas esta palabra y confías en la opresión y el engaño y te apoyas en ella, 13 así este pecado será para ustedes como una pieza rota lista para caer, como una elevación sobre una pared alta cuya caída sucederá de repente, en un instante." 14 Él la romperá como una vasija de alfarero es rota; Él no la perdonará, de modo que no sea encontrada entre sus piezas un fragmento con el cual raspar fuego de la chimenea, o para sacar agua fuera de la cisterna. 15 Pues, esto es lo que el Señor Dios, el Santo de Israel dice: "En volverse a Mí y confiar ustedes serán salvos; en tranquilidad y en confianza será tu fuerza. Pero ustedes no estaban dispuestos. 16 Ustedes dijeron: 'No, porque nosotros huiremos en caballos,' entonces ustedes huirán; y, 'Nosotros cabalgaremos sobre caballos veloces,' entonces aquellos que los persigan serán veloces. 17 Mil huirán ante la amenaza de uno; ante la amenaza de cinco ustedes huirán hasta que su remanente sea como asta de bandera en el tope de una montaña, o como una bandera en una colina." 18 Todavía el SEÑOR está esperando para ser clemente a ustedes, por lo tanto, Él está dispuesto para mostrarles misericordia. Pues, el SEÑOR es un Dios de justicia; bendecidos son todos aquellos que esperan por Él. 19 Pues, un pueblo vivivrá en Sion, en Jerusalén, y ustedes no llorarán más. Él seguramente será clemente con ustedes ante el sonido de su llanto. Cuando Él lo escuche, Él responderá. 20 Aunque el SEÑOR les da a ustedes el pan de adversidad y el agua de aflicción, aún así, su maestro no va a esconderse a sí mismo nunca más, pero ustedes verán a su maestro con sus propios ojos. 21 Sus oídos van a escuchar una palabra detrás de ustedes diciendo: "Este es el camino, camina en él," cuando te vuelvas a la derecha o cuando te vuelvas a la izquierda. 22 Ustedes profanarán sus figuras talladas cubiertas con plata y sus figuras de oro fundido. Ustedes las tirarán como a un trapo menstrual. Ustedes van a decirle a ellos: "Váyanse fuera de aquí." 23 Él dará la lluvia para su semilla cuando ustedes siembren en el suelo, y pan con abundancia del suelo, y las cosechas serán abundantes. En aquel día, tu ganado apacentará en amplios pastos. 24 Los bueyes y los burros, quienes araron el suelo, comerán alimento sazonado que ha sido aventado con una pala y un tenedor. 25 En toda montaña muy alta y en toda colina muy alta, habrá arroyos y corrientes de aguas, en el día del gran sacrificio cuando las torres caigan. 26 La luz de la luna será como la luz del sol, y la luz del sol será siete veces más brillante, como la luz solar de siete días. El SEÑOR unirá el rompimiento de Su pueblo y sanará los moretones de Sus heridas, que está hiriéndoles. 27 Mirad, el nombre del SEÑOR viene de un lugar distante, ardiendo con Su ira y en denso humo. Sus labios están llenos de furia, y Su lengua es como un fuego devorador. 28 Su aliento es como un torrente desbordante que alcanza la mitad del cuello, para cernir las naciones con el cernidor de la destrucción. Su aliento es una brida en las mandíbulas de su pueblo para causarles que vaguen lejos. 29 Ustedes tendrán una canción, como en la noche cuando un festín santo es observado, y alegría de corazón, como cuando uno se va con una flauta al monte del SEÑOR, a la Roca de Israel. 30 El SEÑOR hará que el esplendor de Su voz se escuche y mostrará el movimiento de Su brazo en una tormentosa ira y llamas de fuego, con tormenta de viento, tormenta de lluvia, y granizo. 31 Pues ante la voz del SEÑOR, Asiria será destrozada; Él los golpeará con un garrote. 32 Cada golpe de la determinada vara que el SEÑOR echará sobre ellos será acompañada con la música de tamborines y arpas mientras Él batalla y pelea con ellos. 33 Pues un lugar de sacrificio fue preparado hace mucho tiempo. En efecto, está preparado para el rey, y Dios lo ha hecho profundo y ancho. El montón está listo con un fuego y mucha madera. El aliento del SEÑOR, como una corriente de azufre, lo prenderá en fuego.

Isaiah 30:1

los niños rebeldes
El SEÑOR habla de estas personas como si fueran niños.

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
Esto puede ser parafraseado para que el nombre abstracto "declaración" sea expresado como el verbo "solemnamente dicho". Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR ha declarado" o "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR ha dicho solemnamente"

Ellos hacen planes, pero no son míos Esto puede ser parafraseado para que el nombre abstracto "planes" sea expresado como el verbo "planificar". Traducción Alterna: "Ellos planifican hacer las cosas, pero ellos no Me preguntas como Yo quiero que ellos las hagan"

pero ellos no estaban dirigidos por mi Espíritu Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero Mi Espíritu no los dirige a ellos" ellos añadieron pecado tras pecado.

Continuaron pecando es expresado como si los pecados fueran objetos que pueden ser apilados uno encima de otro. Traducción alterna: "Ellos continuaron pecando más y más"

Ellos buscan protección del Faraón Esto puede ser parafraseado para que el nombre abstracto "protección" sea expresado como un verbo "proteger". Traducción alterna: "Ellos le preguntaron a Faraón para que los protegera" toman refugio en la sombra de Egipto.

La protección de Egipto del ejército enemigo está expresado como si fuera una sombra que protegge a alguien del calor del sol. Traducción alterna: "Ellos confían en los egipcios para mantenerlos a salvo"

Isaiah 30:3

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando del pueblo de Judá.

Por lo tanto, la protección del Faraón va a ser su vergüenza, y el refugio en la sombra de Egipto, su humillación Esto puede ser parafraseado para que el nombre abstracto "protección", "vergüenza" y humillación"sean expresados como adjetivos o verbos. Traducción alterna: "Por lo tanto serán avergonzados, porque ustedes confiaron en la protección del Faraón; ustedes serán humillados, porque ustedes confiaron en que los egipcios los mantendrían seguros"

el refugio en la sombra de Egipto
La protección de Egipto del enemigo está expresada como si fuera una sombra que protege a alguien del calor del sol.

sus príncipes
Aquí "príncipes" significa un oficial o embajador, no necesariamente hijo del rey.

sus...ellos
Estas palabras se refieren al pueblo de Judá.

Zoán y Hanes
Estas son ciudades en la parte norte de Egipto.

han venido a Hanes Aquí "venido" puede ser expresado como "ido"

por causa de un pueblo
"por cauda del pueblo de Egipto"

Isaiah 30:6

Información general:
Aquí continúa la declaración de Dios referente al pueblo de Judá.

Un declaración:
"Esto es lo que el SEÑOR declara"

de la leona y el león, la víbora y la ardiente serpiente voladora Esto se refiere a tipos de animales en general. Traducción alterna: "donde la leona y león habitan, y donde hay víboras y serpientes"

la ardiente serpiente voladora Aquí la palabra "ardiente" probablemente se refiere a la mordida venenosa y la palabra "voladora" se refiere a un movimiento rápido. Ver como se tradujo esto en 14:28.

ellos cargan sus riquezas
"El pueblo de Judá carga sus riquezas"

Yo la he llamado, Rahab, quien está sentada firme

Chapter 31

1 Ay de aquellos que bajan a Egipto en busca de ayuda, y se apoyan en caballos y confían en caruajes (porque son muchos) y en jinetes (porque son muchos). Pero ellos no se preocupan por el Santo de Israel, ¡ni buscan al SEÑOR! 2 Aún así Él es sabio, y traerá desastre y no se retractará de sus palabras. Él se levantará contra la casa del mal y contra los ayudantes de aquellos quienes cometen pecado. 3 Egipto es un hombre y no un dios, sus caballos son carne y no espíritu. Cuando el SEÑOR los alcance con Su mano, ambos, el que ayuda, se tambaleará, y quien es ayudado, caerán; ambos perecerán juntos. 4 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR me dijo: ''Como un león, aún un león joven, ruge sobre su presa desgarrada, cuando un grupo de pastores se levanta contra ellos, pero no tiembla ante sus voces, ni se asusta por el sonido; así el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos descenderá a pelear en el Monte de Sion, en esa colina. 5 Como las aves en vuelo, así el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos protegerá a Jerusalén; Él los protegerá y rescatará mientras Él pasa sobre ellos y los preserva. 6 Vuelvan a Él, de quien ustedes profundamente se han alejado, pueblo de Israel. 7 Pues en aquel día cada uno se deshacerá de sus ídolos de plata y de sus ídolos de oro que con sus propias manos han pecaminosamente hecho. 8 Asiria caerá por la espada; una espada no empuñada por hombre lo consumirá. Huirá de la espada, y sus hombres jóvenes serán forzados a hacer trabajo duro. 9 Ellos perderán la confianza por el terror, y sus príncipes temerán al ver la bandera de guerra del SEÑOR- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, cuyo fuego está en Sion y cuyo crisol de fuego está en Jerusalén.''

Isaiah 31:1

Información general:
Isaías continúa hablándole al pueblo de Judá.

Bajar a Egipto
La frase "bajar a" es usada aquí porque Egipto es más bajo en elevación que Jerúsalén.

Chapter 32

1 Mirad, un rey reinará en rectitud, y príncipes reinarán en justicia. 2 Cada uno será como un refugio del viento y un refugio de la tormenta, como corrientes de agua en un lugar seco, como la sombra de una gran roca en una tierra de agotamiento. 3 Luego los ojos de aquellos quienes ven no serán oscurecidos, y los oídos de aquellos quienes oyen, oirán atentamente. 4 El imprudente pensará cuidadosamente con entendimiento, y el tartamudo hablará distintivamente y con facilidad. 5 El necio no será más llamado honorable, ni el engañador será llamado de principios. 6 Pues el necio habla locuras, y su corazón planea maldad y acciones impías, y él habla mal en contra del SEÑOR. él hace al hambriento vacío, y al sediento él le causa carecer de bebida. 7 Los métodos del engañador son malignos. El crea esquemas malvados para arruinar al pobre con mentiras, aún cuando el pobre dice lo que es correcto. 8 Pero el hombre honorable hace planes honorables; y por causa de sus acciones honorables, él estará en pie. 9 Levántense, ustedes mujeres que estan cómodas, y escuchen mi voz; ustedes hijas despreocupadas, escúchenme. 10 Pues en poco más de un año, su confianza será quebrada, ustedes mujeres despreocupadas, pues la cosecha de uvas fracasará, la cosecha no vendrá. 11 Tiemblen, ustedes mujeres que están cómodas; preocúpense, ustedes las confiadas; quítense sus vestiduras finas y desnúdense; pónganse tela de saco alrededor de sus cinturas. 12 Ustedes van a clamar por los campos apacibles, por las vides fructíferas. 13 La tierra de mi pueblo estará descuidada con espinas y zarzas, aún en todas las casas que alguna vez fueron jubilosas en la ciudad de las fiestas. 14 Pues el palacio será abandonado, la ciudad llena de gente estará desierta; la colina y la torre de vigilancia se volverán cuevas para siempre, una alegría para burros salvajes y pastizal para los rebaños; 15 hasta que el Espíritu sea derramado sobre nosotros de lo alto, y el desierto se vuelva un campo fructífero, y el campo fructífero sea considerado como un bosque. 16 Luego la justica residirá en el desierto, y la rectitud vivirá en el campo fructífero. 17 El trabajo de la rectitud será la paz; y el resultado de la rectitud, tranquilidad y confianza para siempre. 18 Mi pueblo vivirá en una habitación pacífica, en hogares seguros y en lugares de descanso tranquilo. 19 Pero incluso si graniza y el bosque es destruido, y la ciudad es completamente aniquilada, ustedes que siembran al lado de todas las corrientes serán bendicidos, 20 ustedes quienes envían a su buey y su burro a pastar.

Isaiah 32:1

Miren
Esta palabra es usada aquí para llamar al atención de la gente hacia lo próximo que se dirá. Traducción Alterna: "Escuchen"

Chapter 33

1 ¡Ay de tí, destructora que no has sido destruida! ¡Ay del traidor a quien ellos no han traicionado! Cuando dejes de destruir, serás destruida. Cuando dejes de traicionar, ellos te traicionarán. 2 SEÑOR, sé clemente con nosotros; esperamos por Tí; sé nuestro brazo cada mañana, nuestra salvación en el tiempo de problema. 3 Ante el ruido fuerte los pueblos huyen; cuando Tú te levantas, las naciones son esparcidas. 4 Tu botín es juntado como los saltamontes se juntan; como los saltamontes saltan, los hombres saltan sobre ella. 5 El SEÑOR es exaltado. Él vive en un lugar alto. Él llenará Sion con justicia y rectitud. 6 Él será la estabilidad en tus tiempos, abundancia de salvación, sabiduría, y conocimiento; el temor del SEÑOR es su tesoro. 7 Mira, sus mensajeros lloran en las calles; los diplomáticos lloran amargamente esperando la paz. 8 Las carreteras están desiertas; ya no hay más viajeros. Los pactos son rotos, los testigos son despreciados y la humanidad no es respetada. 9 La tierra llora y se marchita; el Líbano es avergonzado y se marchita; Sarón es como una llanura desértica; y Basán y Carmelo sacuden sus hojas. 10 "Ahora Yo me levantaré," dice el SEÑOR. "Ahora Yo seré levantado; ahora Yo seré elevado. 11 Tú concibes paja, y das a luz rastrojo; tu aliento es un fuego que te consumirá. 12 Los pueblos serán quemados a cenizas, como los arbustos con espinas son cortados y quemados. 13 Tú que estás muy lejos, escucha lo que Yo he hecho; y, tú que estás cerca, reconoce Mi poder." 14 Los pecadores en Sion tienen miedo; el temblor ha agarrado a los impíos. ¿Quién entre nosotros puede hospedarse con un fuego furioso? ¿Quién entre nosotros puede hospedarse con hogueras eternas? 15 El que camina rectamente y habla honestamente; el que desprecia la ganancia del opresor, quien se niega a aceptar un soborno, quien no planea un crimen violento, y no mira lo malo-- 16 él hará su hogar sobre las alturas; su lugar de defensa será la fortaleza de rocas; su comida y agua estará en suministro estable. 17 Tus ojos verán al rey en su belleza; ellos admirarán una tierra amplia. 18 Tu corazón recordará el terror; ¿dónde está el escriba; dónde está él, quien pesó el dinero? ¿Dónde está él, quien contó las torres? 19 Tú ya no verás a la gente desafiante, a la gente de un idioma extraño, quien tú no comprendes. 20 Mira a Sion, la ciudad de nuestros banquetes; tus ojos verán a Jerusalén como una vivienda tranquila, una tienda que no será removida, cuyas estacas nunca serán arrancadas ni ninguna de sus cuerdas serán rotas. 21 En cambio, el SEÑOR en majestad estará con nosotros, en un lugar de ríos extensos y corrientes. Ningún barco de guerra con remos los atravesarán y ningún barco grande los navegará. 22 Pues el SEÑOR es nuestro juez, el SEÑOR es nuestro dador de justicia, el SEÑOR es nuestro rey; Él nos salvará. 23 Tus aparejos están flojos; ellos no pueden sujetar el mástil en su lugar; ellos no pueden expandir la vela; cuando el gran botín es dividido, incluso el cojo arrastrará el botín. 24 Los habitantes no dirán: "Estoy enfermo;" las personas que viven allí serán perdonadas por su iniquidad.

Chapter 34

1 ¡Acérquense, ustedes naciones, y escuchen; presten atención, ustedes pueblo! La Tierra y todo lo que la llena debe escuchar, el mundo, y todas las cosas que vienen de él. 2 Pues el SEÑOR está enojado con todas las naciones, y furioso contra todos sus ejércitos; Él los ha destruído completamente, Él los ha entregado a la matanza. 3 Los cuerpos de sus muertos serán arrojados. La peste de los cadáveres estará por todos lados; y las montañas absorberán su sangre. 4 Todas las estrellas del cielo se desvanecerán, y el cielo estará enrollado como un pergamino; y todas las estrellas se desvanecerán, como la hoja se desvanece de la viña, y como los higos demasiado maduros de la higuera. 5 Pues cuando Mi espada haya bebido hasta llenarse en el cielo; mirad, entonces descenderá en Edom, en la gente que Yo he separado para la destrucción. 6 La espada del SEÑOR está goteando sangre y está cubierta de grasa, goteando con la sangre de los corderos y las cabras, cubierta con la grasa de los riñones de los carneros. Pues el SEÑOR tiene un sacrificio en Bosra y una gran matanza en la tierra de Edom. 7 Los bueyes salvajes serán asesinados junto a ellos, y los toros jóvenes con los mayores. Su tierra estará embriagada con sangre, y su polvo será hecho grasa con la grosura. 8 Pues será un día de venganza para el SEÑOR y un año en el cual Él retribuirá por la causa de Sion. 9 Las corrientes de Edom se convertirán en brea, su polvo en azufre, y su tierra se convertirá en brea ardiente. 10 Quemará día y noche; su humo subirá por siempre; de generación en generación será una tierra baldía; nadie pasará por ella, por siempre y para siempre. 11 Pero las aves silvestres vivirán allí; el búho y el cuervo harán sus nidos allí. Él extenderá sobre ella la línea de medición de la ruina y la plomada de la destrucción. 12 Sus nobles no tendrán nada para llamarle reino, y todos sus príncipes serán nada. 13 Las espinas cubrirán sus palacios, ortigas y cardos sus fortalezas. Será una habitación de chacales y lugar de avestruzes. 14 Los animales silvestres y las hienas se encontrarán allí, y las cabras silvestres se llamarán entre ellas. Los animales nocturnos se establecerán allí y encontrarán para ellos lugar de descanso. 15 Los búhos harán nidos, pondrán sus huevos, nacerán y protegerán sus crías. Sí, allí se encontrarán los halcones, cada uno con su pareja. 16 Busca a través del pergamino del SEÑOR; ninguno de éstos faltará. Ninguno quedará sin pareja; pues Su boca lo ha ordenado, y Su espíritu los ha reunido. 17 Él ha echado suertes por sus lugares, y Su mano los ha medido por una cuerda. Ellos la poseerán para siempre; de generación en generación ellos vivirán allí.

Isaiah 34:1

Información General:
EL SEÑOR es el que habla en poesía.

La tierra y todo lo que la llena debe escuchar, el mundo , y todas las cosas que vienen de él.
Aquí la tierra se habla como si ésta debe escuchar a EL SEÑOR enfatizndor que ella está bajo la autoridad del SEÑOR. Estas dos frases son una metonimia para todas las personas que habitan en el mundo. AT: "En todos los lugares de la tierra , todo el mundo debe escuchar a lo que YO digo."

el mundo y todas las cosas que vienen de ella Esta es la segunda de las dos frases paralelas. La palabras que faltan pueden ser incluidas en esta frase. AT: " el mundo, y todas las cosas que vienen de ella deben escuchar.

Él los ha destruído completamente, Él los ha entregado a la matanza.
A menudo los profetas hablan de cosas que van a suceder en un futuro como si hubiesen sucedidio ya. Esto se hace para enfatizar que este evento ciertamente ocurrirá. AT: "ÉL los destruirá completamente, ÉL los entregará a la matanza"

Isaiah 34:3

Los cuerpos de sus muertos serán echados.
Esto se puede decir en forma activa como. AT: "Nadie enterrará a sus muertos"

sus muertos
Esto se refiere a la gente que está muerta. AT: "aquellos que murieron" las montañas absorberán su sangre.

"las montañas se cubrirán de su sangre"

el cielo estará enrollado como un pergamino; Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Esto compara lo que EL SEÑOR va a hacer con el cielo con una persona enrollando un pergamino. AT:"EL SEÑOR enrollará el cielo de la misma forma en que una persona enrolla un pergamino"

y todas las estrellas se desvanecerán, como la hoja se desvanece de la viña, y como los higos Esto enfatiza que aun las cosas que estan en los cielos que la gente piensa que van a estar ahí para siempre caerán como una hoja. AT: "y todas las estrellas caerán del cielo como una hoja cae de la vid o un higo cae de un árbol.

Isaiah 34:5

cuando Mi espada haya bebido hasta llenarse en el cielo;
EL SEÑOR se describe a sí mismo como un guerrero llavando una espada. La frase"bebido hasta llenarse" habla sobre la espada del SEÑOR como si esta fuera una persona que ha comido y ha quedado satisfecho. EL SEÑOR usa esta imagen sensorial para enfatizar que habrá mucha destrucción en el cielo y para declarar su terminación. AT: "cuando haya terminado de destruir las cosas en el cielo"

mira
Esta palabra se usa aquí para llamar la atención del oyente y para que puedan imaginar las cosas que se han dicho. AT: "escucha" o "y entonces" "

esta descenderá en Edom, en la gente que Yo he separado para la destrucción La palabra "esta" se refiere a la espada del SEÑOR . Esta continúa la metáfora sobre EL SEÑOR destruyendo cosas con su espada. AT: " YO castigaré al pueblo de Edom, el pueblo que YO he separado para destruir.

en Edom
Edom se refiere a la gente que vive ahí. AT: "sobre la gente de Edom"

La espada del SEÑOR está goteando sangre y está cubierta de grasa...de los corderos Esto habla del SEÑOR matando a la gente como si él fuera un sacerdote sacrificando animales . Él hace esto al describir la espada de un sacerdote. AT: "EL; SEÑOR los sacrifica como un sacerdote

Pues el SEÑOR tiene un sacrificio en Bosra y una gran matanza en la tierra de Edom.
Las palabras "sacrificio" y "matanza"se pueden expresar como verbos. Traducción alterna: "Por el Señorse sacrificarán muchas personas en Bosra y se asesinarán a mucha gente en la tierra de Edom" Esta es una importante ciudad en Edom.)

Bosra

Isaiah 34:7

Esto describe la cantidad de sangre que mojará la tierra comparandolo con una persona embriagada. Traducción Alterna: "Su tierra será empapada con sangre.

su polvo será hecho grasa con la grosura Aquí polvo significa sucio en la tierra. Esto describe la cantidad de grasa que llenara la tierra en comparación con una persona que se ha vuelto gorda de comer demasiada grosura animal. Traducción alterna: "el sucio estará lleno de la grasa de los animales"

Isaiah 34:8

será un día de venganza para el SEÑOR
Aquí "día" se refiere a algún punto en el tiempo; no es un día literal. Traducción alterna: "vendrá el tiempo en que el Señor se vengará"

Él retribuirá por la causa de Sion
Esto significa que El tomará venganza de ellos por como ellos han librado una guerra con el pueblo de Jerusalén previamente. Traducción alterna: "Él les dará a ellos el castigo que ellos merecen por lo que ellos le habían hecho al pueblo de Sión"

Las corrientes de Edom se convertirán en brea...se convertirá en brea ardiente El agua y la tierra se volverán inútiles para beber o para que crezca alimento, porque estará quemada y cubierta en azufre y brea así como se hablo que sus corrientes serian actualmente brea y azufre. Traducción alterna: "Las corrientes de Edom estarán llenas de brea y la tierra estará cubierta de azufre quemando y de brea quemando".

su polvo... su tierra
polvo de Edom...tierra de Edom

brea
una substancia gruesa y negra que se quema por mucho tiempo.

Quemará día y noche Esto significa todo el tiempo. Traducción alterna: "Quemará todo de día y de noche" o "Quemará constantemente, toda la noche y todo el día?

de generación en generación

Chapter 35

1 El desierto y el Arabá estarán contentos; y el desierto se regocijará y florecerá. Como la rosa, 2 florecerá abundantemente y se regocijará con alegría y canción; la gloria del Líbano le será dada, el esplendor del Carmelo y Sarón; ellos verán la gloria del SEÑOR, el esplendor de nuestro Dios. 3 Fortalezcan las manos débiles, y estabilicen las rodillas que tiemblan. 4 Dí a aquellos que tienen un corazón temeroso,'' ¡Sean fuertes, no tengan temor! Vean, Su Dios vendrá con venganza, con la recompensa de Dios. Él vendrá y les salvará.'' 5 Entonces los ojos del ciego verán, y los oidos del sordo oirán. 6 Entonces el hombre cojo saltará como un ciervo, y la lengua enmudecida cantará, y las aguas brotarán en el Arabá, y corrientes en el desierto. 7 La ardiente arena se convertirá en estanque, y el sediento suelo, en manantiales de agua; en la habitación de chacales, donde una vez ellos se acostaron, habrá pastos con cañas y juncos. 8 Una carretera será allí llamada el Santo Camino. El inmundo no la recorrerá. Pero será para quien ande en ella. Ningún necio irá allí. 9 Ningún león estará allí, ninguna bestia feroz estará en ella; ellos no serán encontrados allí, pero el redimido caminará allí. 10 Los rescatados del SEÑOR regresarán y vendrán con cánticos a Sion, y eterno regocijo estará en sus cabezas; alegría y júbilo les sobrecogerá, dolor y gemido huirán.

Isaiah 35:1

El desierto y el Arabá estarán contentos; y el desierto se regocijará Estas dos frases tienen básicamente el mismo significado. Se describe a estos lugares como que están contentos, de la misma manera que una persona está contenta, porque han recibido agua y están floreciendo. Traducción Alterna: ''Será como si el desierto y el Arabá estuviesen contentos y como si el desierto se regocijara''

y florecerá
Esto habla de las plantas en el desierto floreciendo como si el desierto en sí mismo estuviera floreciendo. Traducción Alterna: ''y sus plantas florecerán"

Como la rosa, florecerá abundantemente Esto compara la forma en que las plantas en el desierto florecen con la forma en que una Rosa tiene muchas flores. Traducción Alterna: ''En el desierto dará muchas plantas y árboles"

y se regocijará con alegría y canto Esto habla del desierto como si estuviera feliz y cantando como una persona. Traducción Alterna: '''será como si todo estuviera regocijándose y cantando!''

la gloria del Líbano le será dada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Esto habla de que el SEÑOR hará que el desierto se vea tan glorioso como el Líbano; como si le estuviera dando al desierto la gloria del Líbano. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR le dará la gloria del Líbano'' o ''El SEÑOR lo hará tan glorioso como el Líbano''

el esplendor del Carmelo y Sarón Las palabras que faltan pueden ser añadidas. También, esto habla de que el SEÑOR hará que el desierto se vea hermoso como Carmelo y Sarón, como si Él estuviera dándole al desierto su esplendor. Traducción Alterna: ''el esplendor del Carmelo y Sarón le será dado'' o ''el SEÑOR lo hará tan espléndido como el Carmelo y Sarón''

la gloria del SEÑOR, el esplendor de nuestro Dios Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan en la apariencia del SEÑOR.

Isaiah 35:3

Información General:
Isaias le está hablando al pueblo de Judá

Fortalezcan las manos débiles, y estabilicen las rodillas que tiemblan.
Las palabras ''manos débiles'' y ''rodillas que tiemblan'' representan a una persona que es temerosa. Traducción Alterna: ''Fortalecer a aquéllos cuyas manos están débiles y cuyas rodillas tiemblan del temor''

Aquéllos con un corazón temeroso
Aquí se refiere a la gente por sus corazones, lo cual enfatiza sus sentimientos interiores. Traducción Alterna: ''a aquéllos que son temerosos''

Vean
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Esta palabra se usa aquí para llamar la atención de los oyentes a lo que se dice después. Traducción Alterna: ''Escuchen''

su Dios vendrá con venganza, con la recompensa de Dios Esto puede ser reformulado para que los nombres abstractos "venganza'' y ''recompensa'' sean expresados como el verbo ''castigo.'' Las palabras ''venganza'' y "recompensa'' significan la misma cosa y enfatizan que Dios castigará a los enemigos de Judá. Traducción Alterna: tu Dios castigará a tus enemigos por lo que han hecho''

Estos verbos comienzan una descripción del futuro glorioso para el pueblo de Dios

los ojos del ciego verán
''el ciego'' se refiere a personas que están ciegas. Se refiere a ellos por sus ''ojos'' para enfatizar su sanidad. Traducción Alterna: "las personas ciegas verán''

Los oídos del sordo oirán
''del sordo'' se refiere a personas que no pueden oír. Se refiere a ellos por sus ''oídos'' para enfatizar su sanidad. Traducción Alterna: ''las personas sordas oirán''

el hombre cojo saltará como un ciervo Esto quiere decir que una persona que no podía caminar podrá saltar. Su habilidad para saltar es exagerada al decir que podrá saltar como un ciervo. Traducción Alterna: ''el hombre cojo podrá saltar alto''

la lengua enmudecida cantará Esto se refiere a personas que no pueden hablar. Se refiere a ellos por sus ''lenguas'' para enfatizar su sanidad. Traducción Alterna: ''las personas mudas cantarán''

corrientes en el desierto
Las palabras que faltan pueden ser añadidas. Traducción Alterna: ''corrientes fluirán en el desierto''

La arena ardiente se convertirá en estanque Esto significa que un estanque de agua aparecerá en la arena caliente. El sentido completo de esta expresión puede aclararse. Traducción Alterna: ''Un estanque aparecerá en la arena ardiente''

el suelo sediento
Aquí el suelo seco es descrito como sediento. Traducción Alterna: ''el suelo seco'' el suelo sediento en manantiales de agua Esto significa que manantiales aparecerán en la tierra seca. El sentido completo de esta expresión se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: '''manantiales de agua aparecerán en el suelo sediento''

chacales
Traduce esto según lo hiciste en 13:21.

cañas y juncos
Éstas son plantas que crecen en áreas mojadas.

Isaiah 35:8

Información General:
Estos versos continúan la descripción del futuro glorioso para el pueblo de Dios.

Una carretera será allí llamada el Santo Camino.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''Habrá un camino allí que tiene el nombre de Santo Camino'' (Ver:

Carretera
Traduce esta palabra según lo hiciste en 11:6.

El inmundo
Esto se refiere a personas inmundas. Se habla de una persona que Dios considera espiritualmente inaceptable o contaminado como si la persona estuviera físicamente inmunda. Traducción Alterna: ''Aquéllos que son inmundos'' o ''Personas que no son aceptable a Dios''

aquél que camine en él Esta es una expresión idiomática. Aquí "caminar'' se refiere a ''vivir.'' Esto se refiere a la persona que vive una vida santa. El significado completo de esta expresión se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: ''que vive en el camino santo'' o ''que vive una vida santa''

ellos no se encontrarán allí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''nadie los encontrará allí''

los redimidos
Esto se refiere al pueblo que Dios ha redimido. Traducción Alterna: ''aquéllos que son redimidos'' o ''aquéllos que Dios ha redimido''

Isaiah 35:10

Los redimidos del SEÑOR
''Redimir'' significa ''rescatar.'' Esto se refiere a las personas que el SEÑOR ha rescatado. Traducción Alterna: ''Aquéllos a quienes el SEÑOR ha rescatado''

eterno regocijo estará sobre sus cabezas
Esto utiliza la cabeza de una persona para representar a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: ''ellos tendrán regocijo eterno'' alegría y júbilo ... dolor y gemido

Las palabras ''alegria'' y ''júbilo'' significan básicamente lo mismo, así como ''dolor'' y ''gemido'' también. Juntas, ellas enfatizan la intensidad de estas emociones.

alegría y júbilo los sobrecogerá
Se les da la cualidad humana a estas emociones de poder sobrecoger por la fuerza a alguien para hablar sobre el sobrecogimiento de alegría y júbilo de la gente. Traducción Alterna: ''ellos serán sobrecogidos por la alegría y el júbilo''

el dolor y el gemido huirá
Al darle a estas emociones la habilidad humana de huir, esto nos habla de que la gente ya nunca más experimentarán dolor ni gemidos. Traducción

Chapter 36

1 En el año catorce del Rey Ezequías, Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, atacó todas las ciudades fortificadas de Judá y las capturó. 2 Entonces el rey de Asiria envió al comandante en jefe desde Laquis a Jerusalén al rey Ezequías con un gran ejército. El se acercó al acueducto del estanque superior, en el camino hacia el campo del lavandero, y se paró allí. 3 Los oficiales israelitas quienes salieron de la ciudad para hablar con ellos eran Eliaquim hijo de Hilcías, el administrador del palacio, Sebna el secretario del rey, y Joa, el hijo de Asaf, quien escribió las decisiones del gobierno. 4 El comandante en jefe les dijo a ellos: "Díganle a Ezequías que el gran rey, el rey de Asiria, dice: '¿Cuál es la fuente de tu confianza? 5 Tú hablas sólo palabras inútiles, diciendo que hay consejo y fuerza para la guerra. Ahora, ¿en quién estás confiando? ¿Quién te ha dado valor para revelarte contra mí? 6 Mira, tú estás confiando en Egipto, esa caña quebrada que tú usas como un bastón para caminar, pero si un hombre se apoya en él, se adherirá en su mano y la perforará. Eso es lo que el Faraón rey de Egipto es para cualquiera que confía en él. 7 Pero si ustedes me dicen a mí, "Nosotros estamos confiando en el SEÑOR nuestro Dios," ¿no es Él cuyos lugares altos y altares Ezequias ha quitado, y ha dicho a Judá y a Jerusalén, "Deben adorar en este altar en Jerusalén"? 8 Ahora, por lo tanto, yo quiero hacerte una buena oferta de parte de mi señor el rey de Asiria. Yo te daré dos mil caballos, si tú puedes conseguir jinetes para ellos. 9 ¿Cómo pudiste resistir incluso un capitán de los menores de los siervos de mi señor? ¡Has puesto tu confianza en Egipto para tener carros y hombres de a caballo! 10 Ahora pues, ¿he viajado aquí sin Él SEÑOR para pelear contra esta tierra y destruirla? Él SEÑOR me dijo: "Ataca esta tierra y destrúyela." 11 Entonces Eliaquim, hijo de Hilcías, y Sebna, y Joa le dijeron al comandante en jefe, "Por favor, habla a tus siervos en el lenguaje arameo, porque nosotros lo entendemos. No hable con nosotros en el lenguaje de Judá a los oidos del pueblo quien está en la muralla" 12 Pero el comandante en jefe dijo, "¿Me ha enviado mi señor a tu señor y a tí para hablar estas palabras? ¿No me ha enviado a mí a los hombres que están en la muralla, quienes tendrán que comer sus propios excrementos y tomar su propia orina contigo?" 13 Entonces el comandante en jefe se paró y gritó en voz alta en el lenguaje de los judíos, diciendo: "Escuchen las palabras del gran rey, el rey de Asiria. 14 El rey dice, 'No dejen que Ezequías los engañe, porque él no podrá rescatarlos. 15 No dejen que Ezequías los hagan confiar en el SEÑOR diciendo: "El SEÑOR seguramente nos rescatará; esta ciudad no será entregada en manos del rey de Asiria." 16 No escuchen a Ezequías, porque esto es lo que el rey de Asiria dice: 'Hagan paz conmigo y vengan a mí. Entonces cada uno de ustedes comerán de su propio vino y de su propio árbol de higo, y tomarán del agua en su propia cisterna. 17 Ustedes harán esto hasta que yo venga y los lleve a una tierra como su propia tierra, una tierra de grano y vino nuevo, una tierra de pan y viñas.' 18 No dejen que Ezequías los engañe, diciendo, 'Él SEÑOR nos rescatará.' ¿Algunos de los dioses de los pueblos los ha rescatado a ellos de las manos del rey de Asiria? 19 ¿Dónde están los dioses de Hamat y Arfad? ¿Dónde están los dioses de Sefarvaim? ¿Han rescatado a Samaria de mi poder? 20 Entre todos los dioses de estas tierras, existe algún dios que haya rescatado su tierra de mi poder, como si Él SEÑOR pudiera salvar a Jerusalén de mi poder?" 21 Pero el pueblo se mantuvo callado y no respondió, porque la orden del rey era, "No le respondan a él." 22 Entonces Eliaquim, hijo de Hilcías, quién estaba sobre la casa, Sebna el escriba, y Joa, hijo de Asaf, el cronista, vinieron a Ezequías con sus ropas desgarradas, e informaron a él las palabras del comandante en jefe.

Isaiah 36:1

El año catorce
El año 14

Rey Ezequías
Traduce el nombre de este rey de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:1.

Senaquerib
Este es el nombre del rey de Asiria.

Senaquerib...atacó todas las ciudades fortificadas
El ejército de Senaquerib atacó las ciudades. Traducción alterna: "Senaquerib y su ejército...atacaron todas las ciudades fortificadas"

El comandante en jefe
"El Rabsaces"

Laquis
Esta es una ciudad al suroeste de Jerusalén.

El acueducto del estanque superior, en el camino hacia el campo del lavandero
Ver cómo tradujiste esta frase en 7:3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Hilcías...Eliaquim
Traduce los nombres de estos hombres de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 22:20.

Sebna
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 22:15

Asaf...Joa
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Isaiah 36:4

Les dijo a ellos
"Les dijo a Eliaquim, Sebna y Joa"

¿Cuál es la fuente de tu confianza?
El rey de Asiria hace esta pregunta para desafiar al rey Ezequías y para que diga que no tiene una buena fuente de confianza. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "Tu no tienes una buena fuente de confianza"

Hay consejo y fuerza para la guerra
"Tú tienes el consejo y la fuerza para ir a la guerra". La frase "fuerza para la guerra" se refiere a tener un ejército con armas lo suficientemente grande y fuerte. Traducción alterna: "tú tienes suficiente consejo militar, hombres fuertes y armas para ir a la guerra"

Ahora, ¿en quién estás confiando? ¿Quién te ha dado valor para rebelarte contra mí?
El rey de Asiria hace esta pregunta para dejar en ridículo a Ezequías por creer que él tiene la fuerza para rebelarse. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "No importa en quién tú confías, tú no tendrás el coraje/valor/la valentía para rebelarte contra mí".

Isaiah 36:6

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del rey de Asiria para Ezequías. El Rabsaces le está dando el mensaje a los hombres de Ezequías. (ver: 36:4)

Mira
Senaquerib usa esta expresión idiomática para llamar la atención de Ezequías sobre lo que Senaquerib dice luego. Traducción alterna: "escucha"

Confiando en Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" refiere al ejército egipcio. Traducción alterna: "Confiando en el ejército egipcio".

Esa caña quebrada que tú usas como un bastón para caminar, pero si un hombre se apoya en él, penetrará en su mano y la perforará
Esto habla de Egipto, específicamente de su ejército y su faraón, como si fueran una caña quebrada, para enfatizar que confiar en ellos no los ayudaría sino que sólo los lastimaría. Traducción alterna: "Es como caminar con una caña quebrada como si esta fuera un bastón. Si un hombre se apoya en él, este se penetrará en su mano y la perforará

Caña quebrada
Una caña es el tallo largo y delgado de una planta. Si este se quiebra o se daña, no puede cargar peso.

Bastón para caminar
Esto es un palo que alguien usaría para caminar, hecho de cualquier tipo de rama de árbol que se pueda encontrar en el camino.

¿no es Él cuyos lugares altos y altares Ezequias ha quitado...Jerusalén?
El rey de Asiria usa esta pregunta para burlarse del pueblo y para insinuar que el SEÑOR estaba enojado con lo que hizo Ezequías y que por eso no los protegería. Traducción alterna: "Él es aquel cuyos lugares altos y altares Ezequías ha tomado...Jerusalén" o "Él es aquel a quien Ezequías insultó al quitarle sus lugares altos y altares... Jerusalén"

Ha dicho a Judá y a Jerusalén, "Deben adorar en este altar en Jerusalén"?
Esto puede escribirse como una oración indirecta. "Judá" y "Jerusalén" se refieren a las personas que viven allí. Traducción alterna: "ha dicho a las personas de Judá y Jerusalén que ellos deben adorar sólo en ese altar en Jerusalén.

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del rey de Asiria para Ezequías, el cual es dado a los hombres de Ezequías. (ver: 36:4)

Dos mil caballos
"2.000 caballos"

Si tú puedes conseguir jinetes para ellos
Rabsaces se burla de Ezequías y de su ejército insinuando que él no tenía muchos o suficientes soldados.

Isaiah 36:9

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del rey de Asiria para Ezequías, el cual es dicho a los hombres de Ezequías. (ver: 36:4)

¿Cómo pudiste resistir aún un capitán... siervos?
El Rabsaces continúa burlándose de Ezequías y su ejército. Cuando él dice "pudiste", refiriéndose a Ezequías, en realidad se está refiriendo al ejército de Ezequías. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Tu ejército nisiquiera pudo derrotar un capitán...siervos".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ahora pues, ¿he viajado aquí sin Él SEÑOR para pelear contra esta tierra y destruirla?
El Rabsaces usa otra pregunta para burlarse de Ezequías y del pueblo de Judá. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Vine aquí con el mandamiento del SEÑOR para destruir a Jerusalen"

sin el SEÑOR
Aquí "SEÑOR" se refiere a las órdenes del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Sin el mandamiento del SEÑOR"

Contra esta tierra y destruirla...ataca esta tierra y destrúyela
Esto quiere decir pelear contra las personas y causar destrucción en el lugar donde viven. La tierra de la que se habla aquí es Jerusalén. Traducción alterna: "contra estas personas y destruir su tierra... ataca estas personas y destruye su tierra"

Isaiah 36:11

Eliaquim...Hilcías...Sebna
Traduce los nombres de estos hombres de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 22:20.

Sebna
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 22:15

Joa... el comandante en jefe
Traduce el nombre de este hombre y la frase "el comandante en jefe" de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1.

Por favor, habla a tus siervos
Eliaquim, Sebna y Joa se refieren a ellos mismos como los siervos del comandante en jefe. Esto es una forma educada de hablarle a alguien con más autoridad.

A los oídos del pueblo que está en la muralla Hablarle a alguien al oído quiere decir hablarle en un lugar donde te pueda oír. Traducción alterna: "donde el pueblo que está en la muralla pueda oírnos"

que está en la muralla
Esto quiere decir que ellos están sobre la muralla. La cima de la muralla era amplia y era un lugar donde el pueblo podía sentarse. Traducción alterna: "que está sentado en la muralla"

¿Me ha enviado mi señor a tu señor y a ti para hablar estas palabras?
El comandante en jefe usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que este mensaje es para todo el pueblo de Judá. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente, mi señor me ha enviado a ti y a todos los que puedan oír, para darles este mensaje"

¿No me ha enviado a mí a los hombres que están en la muralla, quienes tendrán que...contigo?
El comandante en jefe usa esta pregunta para enfatizar su insulto. Esto puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Mi señor me ha enviado a todo aquel que escuche esto, quienes tendrán que...contigo" tendrán que comer sus propios excrementos y tomar su propia orina contigo?

Esta es una afirmación muy ofensiva. Él insinúa que ellos tendrán que comer estas cosas porque no tendrán nada más para comer, ya que su ciudad será atacada. Traducción alterna: "Pronto tendrán que comer sus propios excrementos y tomar su propia orina, así como tú también lo harás, porque no tendrás nada más que comer. (UDB)

Isaiah 36:13

El comandante en jefe
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1

Esta ciudad no será entregada en manos del rey de Asiria Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR no le dará Jerusalén al rey de Asiria".

manos del rey
La "mano" del rey se refiere a su "control". Traducción alterna: "control del rey"

Isaiah 36:16

Información general
El Rabsaces continúa hablando al pueblo de Judá.

Hagan paz conmigo
Esto quiere decir dejar ir las ofensas y actuar en paz los unos con los otros. Traducción alterna: "actúen en paz conmigo"

Vengan a mi
Esto quiere decir rendirse. Traducción alterna: "Ríndanse a mi"

Hasta que yo venga y los lleve Aquí el rey de Asiria se refiere a su ejército como si fuera él mismo. Traducción alterna: "Hasta que mi ejército venga y los lleve"

una tierra de grano y vino nuevo, una tierra de pan y viñas
Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y se usan juntas para hacer énfasis sobre cuán próspera la tierra será.

Una tierra de grano...una tierra de pan
Esto quiere decir que su tierra está llena de recursos, tales como grano. Traducción alterna:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"Una tierra donde hay mucho grano...una tierra donde hay mucho pan"

Isaiah 36:18

Información general

¿Algunos de los dioses de los pueblos los ha rescatado de...Asiria?
El Rabsaces usa esta pregunta para burlarse del pueblo de Judá. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Ninguno de los dioses de los pueblos los rescató de...Asiria"

Las manos del rey
"Manos" se refiere al "control" del rey. Traducción alterna: "El control del rey".

¿Dónde están los dioses de Hamat y Arfad? ¿Dónde están los dioses de Sefarvaim? ¿Han rescatado a Samaria de mi poder?
El Rabsaces usa estas preguntas para burlarse del pueblo de Judá. Estas preguntas pueden escribirse como afirmaciones. "Los dioses de Hamat, Arfad, Sefarvaim y Samaria no rescataron a su pueblo de mi poder"

Hamat...Arfad
Traduce los nombres de estas ciudades de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 10:7

Sefarvaim
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

¿Existe algún dios que haya rescatado...como si Él SEÑOR pudiera salvar a Jerusalén de mi poder?
El Rabsaces usa esta pregunta para burlarse del pueblo de Judá. Esta pregunta puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "No hay dios que haya rescatado...y el SEÑOR no salvará a Jerusalén de mi poder".

Su tierra
Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en la tierra. Traducción alterna: "sus personas"

Isaiah 36:21

Eliaquim...Hilcías...Sebna...Joa...Asaf
Traduce los nombres de estos hombres de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1

A cargo de las tareas domésticas
Esto quiere decir que él estaba encargado de los asuntos domésticos del palacio. Traducción alterna: "encargado del palacio"

Con sus ropas desgarradas
Los oficiales de Ezequías rasgaban sus ropas como una muestra de dolor y angustia. Traducción alterna: "con sus ropas desagarradas porque ellos estaban extremadamente angustiados"

Chapter 37

1 Vino a ser que cuando el rey Ezequías escuchó sus informes, él desgarró sus ropas, se cubrió a sí mismo con silicio, y entró a la casa del SEÑOR. 2 Él envió a Eliaquim, quien estaba a cargo de la casa, y Sebna el escriba, y los ancianos de los sacerdotes, todos cubiertos con silicio, a Isaías hijo de Amoz, el profeta. 3 Ellos le dijeron: "Ezequías dice: 'Este día es un día de angustia, reprensión, y desgracia, como cuando un niño está listo para nacer, pero la madre no tiene fuerzas para dar a luz a su hijo. 4 Puede ser que el SEÑOR tu Dios oiga las palabras del jefe comandante, quien el rey de Asiria, su amo, ha enviado a desafiar al Dios viviente, y reprenderá las palabras las cuales el SEÑOR tu Dios ha escuchado. Ahora levanta tu oración para el remanente que aún está aquí.'" 5 Así que los sirvientes del rey Ezequías vinieron a Isaías, 6 e Isaías les dijo: "Díganle a su amo: 'El SEÑOR dice: "No tengas miedo de las palabras que tú has escuchado, con las cuales los siervos del rey de Asiria Me han insultado. 7 Mira, Yo pondré un espíritu en él, y él escuchará un cierto informe y regresará a su propia tierra. Yo le causaré caer por la espada en su propia tierra. "'" 8 Entonces el jefe comandante regresó y encontró al rey de Asiria peleando contra Libna, pues él ha escuchado que el rey se ha ido lejos de Laquis. 9 Entonces Senaquerib escuchó que Tirhaca, rey de Etiopía y Egipto, se habían movilizado a pelear contra él, así que él envió mensajeros otra vez a Ezequías con un mensaje: 10 "Díganle a Ezequías, rey de Judá: 'No dejes que tu Dios en el cual tú confías, te engañe, diciendo: "Jerusalén no se dará a la mano de la mano del rey de Asiria." 11 Mira, tú has escuchado lo que los reyes de Asiria han hecho a todas las tierras, destruyéndolas completamente. Así que, ¿serás tú rescatado? 12 ¿Acaso los dioses de las naciones los han rescatado, las naciones que mis padres destruyeron: Gozán, Harán, Resef, y el pueblo de Edén en Telasar? 13 ¿Dónde está el rey de Hamat, el rey de Arfad, el rey de las ciudades de Sefarvaim, de Hena e Iva?'" 14 Ezequías recibió esta carta de la mano de los mensajeros y la leyó. Entonces él subió a la casa del SEÑOR y la extendió ante Él. 15 Ezequías oró al SEÑOR: 16 "El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, Dios de Israel, Tú que te sientas encima del querubín, Tú eres sólo Dios sobre todos los reinos de la tierra. Tú hiciste los cielos y la tierra. 17 Inclina Tu oído, SEÑOR, y escucha. Abre Tus ojos, SEÑOR, y ve, y escucha las palabras de Senaquerib, las cuales él ha enviado para burlarse del Dios viviente. 18 Es cierto, SEÑOR, los reyes de Asiria han destruido todas las naciones y sus tierras. 19 Ellos han puesto a sus dioses en el fuego, pero ellos no eran dioses, sino el trabajo de la mano de los hombres, solamente madera y piedra. Así los asirios los han destruido. 20 Así que ahora, SEÑOR nuestro Dios, sálvanos de su poder, para que así todos los reinos de la tierra puedan saber que solo TÚ eres SEÑOR." 21 Entonces Isaías, hijo de Amoz, envió un mensaje a Ezequías, diciendo: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice: 'Porque tú has orado a Mí en cuanto a Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, 22 esta es la palabra que el SEÑOR ha hablado sobre él: "La hija virgen de Sion te desprecia y se ríe con desdén; la hija de Jerusalén sacude su cabeza hacia tí. 23 ¿A Quién has desafiado e insultado? ¿Contra Quién has exaltado tu voz y levantado tus ojos en orgullo? Contra el Santo de Israel. 24 Pero tus siervos han desafiado al SEÑOR y han dicho: 'Con la multitud de mis carruajes yo he ido a las alturas de las montañas, a las elevaciones más altas del Líbano. Yo cortaré sus cedros altos y escogeré árboles de ciprés allí, y yo entraré a sus lugares altos más lejanos, su bosque más fructífero. 25 Yo he cavado pozos y bebido agua; yo he secado todos los ríos de Egipto bajo las plantas de mis pies.' 26 ¿No has escuchado cómo Yo lo determiné hace mucho tiempo y lo trabajé en tiempos antiguos? Ahora Yo lo estoy dejando pasar. Tú estás aquí para reducir ciudades resistentes a montones de ruinas. 27 Sus habitantes, de poca fuerza, son destrozados y avergonzados. Ellos son plantas en el campo, pasto verde, el pasto en el techo o en el campo, ante el viento del este. 28 Pero Yo sé que te estás sentando, te estás yendo, estás saliendo, y tu furia es contra Mí. 29 A causa de tu furia contra Mí, y porque tu arrogancia ha alcanzado Mis oídos, Yo pondré Mi anzuelo en tu nariz, y Mi freno en tu boca; Yo te viraré de vuelta al camino por donde viniste." 30 Esta será la señal para ti: Este año tú comerás lo que crece silvestre, y en el segundo año lo que crece de eso. Pero en el tercer año tú debes plantar y cosechar, planta viñedos y comer su fruto. 31 El remanente de la casa de Judá que sobrevive, echará raíces otra vez y dará fruto. 32 Pues de Jerusalén un remanente saldrá; del Monte Sion sobrevivientes vendrán. El celo del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos hará esto.'" 33 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto acerca del rey de Asiria: "Él no entrará en esta ciudad, ni disparará una flecha aquí. Ni tampoco vendrá ante ella con escudo o construirá una rampa de asedio contra ella. 34 La manera en la cual él vino, será la misma manera en la cual él se irá; él no entrará a esta ciudad-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 35 Pues Yo defenderé esta ciudad y la rescataré, por Mi propio bien y por el bien de Mi siervo, David." 36 Entonces el ángel del SEÑOR salió y atacó el campamento de los asirios, poniendo a muerte 185, 000 soldados. Cuando los hombres se levantaron temprano en la mañana, había cadáveres por todas partes. 37 Así que Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, dejó Israel y fue a casa y se que quedó en Nínive. 38 Después, mientras él estaba adorando en la casa de Nisroc, su dios, sus hijos, Adramelec y Sarezaer, lo mataron con la espada. Luego ellos escaparon a la tierra de Ararat. Entonces Esar Hadón, su hijo, reinó en su lugar.

Isaiah 37:1

Vino a ser que
Esta frase es usada aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si en tu lengua hay una manera de hacer esto, podrías usarla aquí.

Él desgarró sus ropas, se cubrió a sí mismo con silicio.
Esto es una señal de dolor y angustia. Traducción alterna: "Él desgarró sus ropas y se cubrió a sí mismo de silicio porque él estaba muy angustiado, entonces entró"

Como cuando un niño está listo para nacer, pero la madre no tiene fuerzas para dar a luz a su hijo
Esta comparación se hace para enfatizar que ellos están en momentos de extrema dificultad. Traducción alterna: "Es tan terrible como el día en el que un niño está listo para nacer, pero la madre no tiene fuerzas para dar a luz su hijo"

Puede ser que el SEÑOR tu Dios escuchará las palabras Ezequías está indirectamente sugiriendo que si el pueblo ora, el SEÑOR puede escuchar y actuar sobre lo que el jefe comandante había dicho. Traducción alterna: "Quizás si oras al SEÑOR tu Dios, Él escuchará el mensaje"

El jefe comandante
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1

Su amo
Esta frase quiere decir que el rey es el amo del jefe comandante

y reprenderá las palabras las cuales el SEÑOR tu Dios ha escuchado Aquí la frase "las palabras las cuales el SEÑOR tu Dios ha escuchado" se refiere a lo que el rey de Asiria había dicho. Traducción alterna: "y el SEÑOR tu Dios reprenderá al rey de Asiria por lo que ha dicho"

Levanta tu oración
La oración al SEÑOR es descripta de esta manera para enfatizar que el SEÑOR está en el cielo. Se habla de las oraciones como si fueran objetos que pudieran ser elevados hasta el cielo. Traducción alterna: "orar"

Para el remanente que aún está aquí
Esto se refiere al pueblo que está en Jerusalén. Traducción alterna: "para los pocos de nosotros que todavía están aquí"

Isaiah 37:5

Yo pondré un espíritu en él, y él escuchará un cierto reporte e irá de vuelta a su propia tierra
La frase "pondré un espíritu en él" quiere decir que Dios lo va a influenciar para que él tome una decisión específica. La palabra "espíritu" aquí, quiere decir una actitud o sentimiento fuerte. Traducción alterna:"lo voy a influenciar de tal manera que cuando escuche un cierto reporte irá de vuelta a su propia tierra".

Mira
Esta palabra es usada para llamar la atención del pueblo sobre lo que se dirá luego. Traducción alterna: "Escucha".

Yo le causaré caer por la espada en su propia tierra.
La frase "por la espada" quiere decir que su enemigo lo matará con una espada. Traducción alterna: "Y allí en su propia tierra, yo haré que sus enemigos lo maten con sus espadas.

Mira, ustedes han escuchado
La palabra "mira" es usada aquí para hacer énfasis sobre lo que se dirá luego. Traducción alterna: "ustedes ciertamente han escuchado"

Así que, ¿ustedes serán rescatados?
El rey de Asiria hace esta pregunta para burlarse de Ezequías y de su ejército. Esto puede escribirse como una afirmación.Traducción alterna: "Así que ustedes tampoco serán rescatados" o "Así que por supuesto que a ustedes nadie los salvará" ¿Acaso los dioses de las naciones los han rescatado...Telasar?

El rey de Asiria usa esta pregunta para burlarse de Ezequías y de su ejército. Esto puede ser escrito como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Los dioses de las naciones no rescataron a las naciones que mis padres destruyeron...Telasar!"

Que mis padres destruyeron
Estos hombres destruyeron esas ciudades conquistándolas con sus ejércitos. "Padres" se refiere a su padre y a sus otros ancestros que fueron reyes. Traducción alterna: "que mis padres destruyeron con sus ejércitos"

Gozán...Harán...Resef...Edén...Telasar...Hena... Iva
Estos son lugares que los de Asiria habían conquistado.

¿Dónde está el rey...Iva?
El rey de Asiria usa esta pregunta para burlarse de Ezequías y de su ejército. Esto puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Nosotros también conquistamos al rey...Iva!"

Hamat...Arfad...Sefarvaim
Traduce los nombres de estas ciudades de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:18.

Isaiah 37:14

de la mano de los mensajeros
Aquí se refiere a los mensajeros con su "mano" para enfatizar que ellos personalmente le dieron la carta al rey. Traducción alterna: " carta que los mensajeros le dieron"

Él subió a la casa del SEÑOR
La casa del SEÑOR estaba en el lugar más alto de Jerusalén, por eso se habla de "subió".

La abrió delante de Él
"Extendió la carta delante del SEÑOR" (UDB). Estar en la casa del SEÑOR se considera como estar en la presencia del SEÑOR. La carta era un rollo de papel que podía ser desenrollado y extendido.

Tú que te sientas encima del querubín
Aquí Ezequías está hablando del SEÑOR que está presente en el templo. Traducción alterna: "Tú que estás aquí con el querubín"

Tú eres solo Dios
"Solo tú eres Dios"

Sobre todos los reinos
Esto quiere decir tener autoridad y reinar sobre todos los reinos. Traducción alterna: "tener autoridad sobre todos los reinos"

Tú hiciste los cielos y la tierra.
Esto quiere decir que Él creó todo. Traducción alterna: "Tú creaste todo"

Isaiah 37:17

Información general
Ezequías continúa orando al SEÑOR.

Las cuales él ha enviado
Ezequías se refiere a la carta de Senaquerib. Traducción alterna: "El mensaje que él envió"

Inclina tu oído
"Inclina tu oreja" o "inclina tu cabeza". Esto quiere decir inclinar la cabeza para poder oír algo mejor.

Senaquerib
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1

Todas las naciones y sus tierras
Esto es una exageración. Los reyes habían destruido muchas tierras cercanas, pero no todas ellas. Traducción alterna: "muchas de las naciones y muchas de sus tierras".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Isaiah 37:19

Información general
Ezequías continúa orando al SEÑOR

Pero ellos no eran dioses, sino el trabajo de la mano de los hombres, solamente madera y piedra.
Esto enfatiza que los humanos hicieron estos ídolos con sus propias manos, por lo tanto no tienen valor. Traducción alterna: "porque ellos eran dioses falsos de piedra y madera que los hombres hicieron.

De su poder
Del poder del rey de Asiria

Todos los reinos
Esto se refiere a los pueblos en los reinos. Traducción alterna: "todos los pueblos en los reinos"

Solo Tú eres SEÑOR
"Solo tú, SEÑOR, eres Dios"

Isaiah 37:21

Envió un mensaje
Esto quiere decir que él envió un mensajero a dar un mensaje al rey. Traducción alterna: "Envió a alguien a dar un mensaje"

Es la palabra que el SEÑOR ha hablado
"Es lo que el SEÑOR ha dicho"

Se ríe con desdén
"Se ríe de ti" o "Se burla de ti"

Sacude su cabeza
Esto es un gesto de burla y desprecio.

La hija virgen de Sion...la hija de Jerusalén
Ambas frases tienen el mismo significado. La "hija" de una ciudad hace referencia al pueblo que vive en esa ciudad. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 1:7. Traducción alterna: "El pueblo de Sion...el pueblo de Jerusalén"

¿A Quién has desafiado e insultado?...Contra el Santo de Israel.
El SEÑOR usa estas preguntas retóricas para burlarse del rey de Asiria. Estas pueden ser escritas como afirmaciones. Traducción alterna: "Tú has desafiado e insultado al SEÑOR, tú has gritado y has actuado orgullosamente contra el Santo de Israel!"

Has exaltado tu voz
Esto se refiere a hablar fuerte, como si la voz de una persona fuera un objeto que pudiera ser elevado o levantado. Traducción alterna: "has gritado"

Levantado tus ojos en orgullo
Esta frase quiere decir mirar a algo o alguien con orgullo, considerándose a uno mismo más importante que el otro. Traducción alterna: "lo miró con orgullo" o "actuó orgullosamente"

Isaiah 37:24

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del SEÑOR para el rey de Asiria.

Por tus siervos
Se refiere a los siervos que él había enviado con un mensaje para Ezequías. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "En los mensajes que tú enviaste con tus siervos"

Yo he ido...Yo cortaré...Yo entraré...Yo he cavado...Yo he secado...mis pies Aquí Senaquerib habla de él mismo conquistando muchas cosas. En realidad las conquista con sus ejércitos y carruajes. Traducción alterna: "Hemos ido...Cortaremos...entraremos...hemos cavado...hemos secado...nuestros pies.

Sus cedros altos
"Los cedros altos del Líbano"

Su bosque más fructífero
Aquí la palabra "fructífero" se refiere a que el bosque está lleno de árboles saludables. Las palabras que faltan también pueden ser añadidas. Traducción aterna: "y entraré a su bosque más fructífero"

Yo he secado todos los ríos de Egipto bajo las plantas de mis pies Aquí Senaquerib exagera sobre sus conquistas y viajes a través de los ríos de Egipto al presumir sobre haber secado los ríos cuando su ejército marchaba a través de los ellos. Traducción alterna: "He marchado a través de todos los ríos de Egipto como si ellos estuvieran secos bajo las plantas de mis pies"

Isaiah 37:26

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del SEÑOR para el rey de Asiria.

¿No has escuchado cómo...tiempos?
El SEÑOR usa esta pregunta retórica para recordarle a Senaquerib informacion de la cual él ya debería estar consciente. Esto puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente has escuchado...tiempos"

Tú estás aquí para reducir ciudades resistentes a montones de ruinas El SEÑOR había planeado que el ejército de Senaquerib destruyera las ciudades que destruyó.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esto puede ser expresado claramente: Traducción alterna: "Yo planeé que tu ejército destruyera las ciudades y las convirtiera en pilas de escombros"

Resistentes
Fuertes y muy bien protegidas.

De poca fuerza
"que son débiles"

Destrozados
"Desalentados"

Yo lo estoy dejando pasar
"Dejar que algo pase" significa dejar que algo suceda. Traducción alterna: "Estoy haciendo que suceda" o "estoy dando lugar a estas cosas"

Ellos son plantas en el campo, pasto verde, el pasto en el techo o en el campo, ante el viento del este.
Esto habla de cuán débiles y vulnerables son las ciudades ante el ejército de Asiria, comparándolas con el pasto verde. Traducción alterna: "Las ciudades ante tu ejército son tan débiles como lo es el pasto verde en el campo. Son tan débiles como lo es el pasto que crece en el techo de las casas, el cual es arrastrado por el caluroso viento del este"

Ante el viento del este
El viento del este viene del desierto, caluroso y seco, y las plantas mueren cuando este viento sopla.

Isaiah 37:28

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del SEÑOR para el rey de Asiria.

Pero Yo sé que te estás sentando, te estás yendo, estás saliendo Esto se refiere a todas las actividades de la vida. Traducción alterna: "Yo sé todo lo que haces"

Y tu furia contra mi
La palabra "furia" puede usarse como verbo. Traducción alterna: "Como tú te enfureces contra mí"

Tu arrogancia
Aquí "la arrogancia" del rey se refiere a su forma arrogante de hablar. Traducción alterna: "Tu forma arrogante de hablar"

Tu arrogancia ha alcanzado mis oídos
Esto quiere decir que el SEÑOR escucha la forma de hablar del rey como si esta fuera algo que pudiera viajar hacia sus oídos. Traducción alterna: "Te he oído hablar de forma arrogante"

Yo pondré Mi anzuelo en tu nariz, y Mi freno en tu boca
Una persona usa un anzuelo y un freno para controlar un animal. Esto habla de que el SEÑOR controla al rey como si fuera un animal que el SEÑOR tiene que controlar con un anzuelo y un freno. Traducción alterna: "Te controlaré de la misma manera que un hombre controla a un animal poniendo un anzuelo en su nariz y un freno en su boca"

Yo te viraré de vuelta al camino por donde viniste.
Esto significa hacer regresar al rey a su propia casa. Traducción alterna: "A la fuerza te haré volver a tu propio país"

Isaiah 37:30

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del SEÑOR para Ezequías. (ver: 37:21)

Señal para ti
"Señal para ti, Ezequías"

Tú comerás...tú debes plantar
Se refiere al pueblo de Judá.

Segundo año
2do año

En el segundo año lo que crece
Las palabras que faltan pueden ser añadidas. Traducción alterna: "En el segundo año ustedes comerán lo que crece"

Lo que crece de eso
Lo que de eso crece silvestre

Isaiah 37:31

Información general
Aquí continúa el mensaje del SEÑOR para Ezequías

Remanente
Un remanente es una parte de algo, parte que queda luego de que el resto se fue. Aquí se refiere a las personas que quedaron en Judá.

La casa de Judá
Aquí "casa de Judá" se refiere a sus descendientes. Traducción alterna: "Los descendientes de Judá"

Echará raíces otra vez y dará fruto
Esto habla de la prosperidad del pueblo de Judá, como si ellos fueran plantas que pudieran dar fruto. Traducción alterna: "Prosperarán así como una planta que echa raíces y da su fruto"

Pues de Jerusalén un remanente saldrá; del Monte Sion sobrevivientes vendrán Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y se usan juntas para hacer énfasis sobre el remanente de personas que sobrevivirán.

El celo del SEÑOR de los ejércitos hará esto Aquí se habla de que el SEÑOR hará algo debido a su celo, como si su mismo "celo" fuera a hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "Debido a su celo, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos hará esto" o "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos hará esto debido a su celo"

Isaiah 37:33

Él no entrará...Ni tampoco vendrá
Aquí se refiere a ambos, el rey de Asiria y su ejército. Traducción alterna: "Él y su ejército no entrarán...ni tampoco vendrán"

Con escudo
Con escudos

Construirá una rampa
Una rampa es como una montaña de tierra construida contra la pared de una ciudad que permite que un ejército ataque mejor la ciudad.

Él vino...él no entrará
Aquí se refiere a ambos, el rey de Asiria y su ejército. Traducción alterna: "Ellos vinieron...ellos no entrarán"

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
Esto se puede parafrasear, en vez de usar el sustantivo abstracto "declaración", se puede usar el verbo "solemnemente ha dicho". Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 14:21. Traducción alterna: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR ha declarado" o "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR solemnemente ha dicho"

Isaiah 37:35

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando

mi bien

Isaiah 37:36

Poniendo a muerte
Esto significa "matar". Traducción alterna: "matando"

Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, dejó Israel y fue a casa y se quedó en Nínive.
Aquí Senaquerib se refiere a ambos, él y su ejército. Todos ellos dejaron Israel y volvieron a casa en Asiria. Senaquerib volvió a la ciudad de Nínive. Traducción alterna: "Senaquerib y su ejército dejaron Israel y se fueron a casa, pero Senaquerib se quedó en Nínive".

Senaquerib
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 36:1.

Isaiah 37:38

Mientras él estaba adorando
"Mientras Senaquerib estaba adorando"

Nisroc
Este es el nombre de un dios falso

Adramelec...Sarezaer...Esar Hadón
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Chapter 38

1 En aquellos días Ezequías enfermó a punto de muerte. Así que Isaías hijo de Amoz, el profeta, vino a él y le dijo: "el SEÑOR dice, 'Pon tu casa en orden, porque vas a morir, no vivirás." 2 Entonces Ezequías volteó su rostro hacia la pared y oró a el SEÑOR. 3 Él dijo: "Por favor, SEÑOR, trae a la memoria lo fiel que he caminado ante Tí con todo mi corazón, y como he hecho lo bueno ante tus ojos." Entonces Ezequías lloró en voz alta. 4 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Isaías, diciendo: 5 Ve y dile a Ezequías, el líder de mi pueblo: 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de David tu ancestro, dice: Yo he escuchado tu oración, y he visto tus lágrimas. Mira, Yo voy añadir quince años a tu vida. 6 Entonces Yo te rescataré a tí y esta ciudad de la mano de el rey de Asiria, y defenderé esta ciudad. 7 Esta será la señal para tí de parte de el SEÑOR, que Yo haré lo que te he prometido. 8 Mira, Yo causaré que la sombra en las escaleras de Acaz vuelva diez pasos hacia atrás." Así la sombra retrocederá diez pasos hacia atrás de las escaleras sobre las cuales había avanzado. 9 Esta fue la oración escrita de Ezequías rey de Judá, cuando estuvo enfermo y luego recuperó: 10 "Yo dije que a mitad de mi vida iré a través de las puertas del Seol; yo soy enviado allí por el resto de mis años. 11 Yo dije que no volvería a ver más a el SEÑOR, el SEÑOR en la tierra de los vivientes; ya no miraré más a la humanidad o a los habitantes del mundo. 12 Mi vida es quitada y llevada de mí como la tienda del pastor; yo he enrollado mi vida como un tejedor; Tú me estás cortando del telar; entre día y noche Tú estas terminando mi vida. 13 Yo lloré hasta la mañana; como un león Él rompió todos mis huesos. Entre día y noche Tú estás terminando mi vida. 14 Como una golondrina chirreo; yo arrullo como una paloma; mis ojos se cansan de mirar a lo alto. Señor, yo estoy oprimido; ayúdame. 15 ¿Qué diré? Si Él es quien me lo ha dicho y lo ha hecho; yo caminaré pausadamente todos los años de mi vida porque estoy vencido por el dolor. 16 Señor, los sufrimientos que Tú envías son buenos para mí; sea mi vida devuelta a mí; Tú has restaurado mi vida y salud. 17 Fue para mi beneficio que experimenté tal dolor. Tú me rescataste del pozo de la destrucción; pues Tú has arrojado todos mis pecados detrás de Tus espaldas. 18 Pues el Seol no te agradece; la muerte no te alaba a Ti; aquellos quienes descienden al sepulcro no tienen esperanza en Tu fidelidad. 19 La persona viviente, el que vive, él es el que te da las gracias, así como lo hago yo este día; el padre le hace saber a los niños Tu fidelidad. 20 "El SEÑOR está por salvarme, y nosotros celebraremos con música todos los días de nuestra vida en la casa del SEÑOR." 21 Ahora Isaías ha dicho: "Tomen un trozo de higo y póngalo en la llaga, y él se recuperará.'' 22 Ezequías dice: "¿Cuál será la señal para que yo suba a la casa del SEÑOR?"

Isaiah 38:1

Pon tu casa en orden
Esto quiere decir preparar a tu familia y a aquellos a cargo de tus asuntos para que ellos sepan qué hacer después de que tú mueras. Esto puede ser escrito claramente. Traducción alterna: "Deberías decirle a las personas en tu palacio qué quieres que hagan después de que tú mueras".

Trae a la memoria
Esto quiere decir "recordar". Traducción alterna: "recordar."

Lo fiel que he caminado ante ti
Aquí "caminar" quiere decir "vivir". Esta frase quiere decir vivir de una manera que agrada al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Fiel viví ante ti" o "Fiel te serví" .

Con todo mi corazón
Aquí el "corazón" refiere al "ser", el cual representa la completa devoción de una persona. Traducción alterna: "Con todo mi ser"

Lo bueno ante tus ojos.
Esta frase: "ante tus ojos" se refiere a lo que el SEÑOR piensa. Traducción alterna: "Lo que te agrada" o "lo que tú consideras bueno".

Isaiah 38:4

La palabra del SEÑOR vino
Esto significa que el SEÑOR le dio su mensaje a Isaías. El SEÑOR no le dio un pedazo de papel, sino que él mandó su mensaje al ser de Isaías. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR dio su palabra"

Mira
Esta frase se usa para llamar la atención del que escucha sobre lo que se dirá después. Traducción alterna: "Escucha"

Quince años
15 años

La mano del rey de Asiria Aquí la "mano" del rey, se refiere a su poder. Traducción alterna: "El poder del rey de Asiria"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Isaiah 38:7

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Ezequías

Mira
El SEÑOR usa esta palabra para llamar la atención del que escucha, sobre lo que se dirá luego. Traducción alterna: "Escucha"

Las escaleras de Acaz
Se refiere a las escaleras que fueron construidas mientras Acaz era rey.

Isaiah 38:9

A mitad de mi vida
"Antes de que me hiciera más viejo" Esto se refiere a morir a una etapa adulta, antes de hacerse más viejo.

Pasaría a través de las puertas del Seol
"Entrar al Seol"

Yo pasaría a través de las puertas del Seol
Esto se refiere a morir e ir al Seol. Esta frase puede ser traducida como una pregunta retórica. Traducción aterna: "Yo moriré y pasaré a través de las puertas del Seol" o "Yo dije: "Moriré antes de hacerme viejo y entraré al Seol?"

Yo sería enviado ahí por el resto de mis años
"Antes de haber vivido todos mis años iré a la tumba". Esta frase puede ser traducida como una pregunta retórica. Traducción alterna: "Iré allí antes de haber vivido todos mis años?"

En la tierra de los vivientes
"Los vivientes" se refiere a las personas que están vivas. Traducción alterna: "En la tierra donde las personas están vivas" o "en este mundo donde las personas están vivas"

Isaiah 38:12

Información general
Ezequías continúa su oración escrita.

Mi vida es removida y llevada de mi como la tienda del pastor
Aquí se habla de cómo el SEÑOR está terminando con la vida de Ezequías rápidamente, comparando esto con la rápida forma en que un pastor quita su tienda del suelo. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR ha llevado mi vida rápidamente, así como un pastor rápidamente desarma su tienda y la quita del suelo"

Mi vida es removida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR ha tomado mi vida"

Yo enrollé mi vida como un tejedor; Tú me estas cortando del telar Aquí se habla de que el SEÑOR termina rápido con la vida de Ezequías, comparando eso con la forma en que un tejedor corta la tela del telar y la enrolla. Traducción alterna: "Tú estás terminando mi vida rápidamente, así como un tejedor corta rápidamente la tela del telar cuando está terminada."

Tú me estás cortando
Aquí "tú" se refiere a Dios.

Telar
Un objeto para tejer con hilos y hacer vestimenta/ ropa.

Como un león Él rompió todos mis huesos
Ezequías habla de cuán extremo es su dolor, comparándolo al dolor que se siente cuando un león destroza los huesos. Traducción alterna: "Mi dolor era como si yo estuviera siendo destrozado por leones"

Isaiah 38:14

Información general
Ezequías continúa su oración escrita

Como una golondrina yo me quejo; y arrullo como paloma
Ambas frases quieren decir lo mismo y enfatizan cuán tristes y dolorosos eran los clamores de Ezequías. Una golondrina y una paloma son tipos de pájaros. Traducción alterna: "Mis clamores son muy dolorosos, suenan de la misma manera en que una golondrina se queja y una paloma arrulla"

Mis ojos
Aquí Ezequías se refiere a él mismo, para enfatizar que él estaba buscando algo. Traducción alterna: "Yo"

Mirar hacia arriba
Esto se refiere a que Ezequías miraba al cielo para que Dios lo ayude. Traducción alterna: "de esperar que ayuda viniera del cielo" o "de esperar que tú me ayudes"

Yo estoy oprimido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Mi enfermedad me oprime" ¿Qué diré?

Ezequías usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que él no tiene nada para decir. Esto puede escribirse como una afirmación. Traducción alterna: "No tengo nada que decir"

Yo caminaré despacio Aquí "caminaré" se refiere a "viviré". Traducción alterna: "Viviré humildemente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todos los años de mi vida Esto se refiere al resto de su vida. Traducción alterna: "El resto de mi vida"

Porque estoy con duelo
"Porque estoy lleno de dolor" o "porque estoy muy triste"

Isaiah 38:16

Información general
Ezequías continúa su oración escrita.

Quizás me devuelvas la vida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Quieras tú devolverme mi vida"

Del pozo de la destrucción Ezequías no murió pero estuvo cerca de morir. Esto se refiere al SEÑOR salvándolo de morir. Traducción alterna: "de morir y de ir al pozo de la destrucción" o "para que yo no muera"

Has arrojado todos mis pecados a tus espaldas
Ezequías habla de que el SEÑOR perdonó sus pecados como si estos fueran objetos que el SEÑOR arrojó a sus espaldas y olvidó. Traducción alterna: "Has perdonado todos mis pecados y no piensas más en ellos".

Isaiah 38:18

Información general
Ezequías continúa su oración escrita

El Seol no te da las gracias; la muerte no te alaba a Ti Aquí "Seol" y "muerte" se refieren a "personas muertas". Traducción alterna: "Los que están en el Seol no te dan las gracias, los muertos no te alaban a ti"

Los que van al sepulcro
"Los que van hacia la tumba"

No tienen esperanza en Tu fidelidad
"No esperan en tu fidelidad". Aquí "tú" se refiere al SEÑOR.

La persona que vive, el que esta vivo
Ezequías usa esta frase para enfatizar que sólo una persona viva, y no una persona muerta, puede darle gracias al SEÑOR.

Isaiah 38:20

Información general
Ezequías continúa su oración escrita

Salvarme
Esto se puede hacer más explícito. Traducción alterna: "salvarme de morir"

Nosotros celebraremos
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Ezequías y a la gente de Judá.

Isaiah 38:21

Ahora
Se usa esta palabra para marcar una pausa en la historia principal. Esto da información de trasfondo sobre Isaías y Ezequías.

Chapter 39

1 En los tiempos de Merodac Baladán hijo de Baladán, rey de Babilonia, envió cartas y regalos a Ezequías; porque él había oído que Ezequías había estado enfermo y se había recuperado. 2 Ezequías se complació con estas cosas; él le mostró a los mensajeros su almacén de cosas valiosas-la plata, el oro, las especias y los preciados aceites, el almacén de sus armas, y todo lo que se encontraba en sus almacenes. No hubo nada en su casa, tampoco en todo su reino, que Ezequías no le mostrase a ellos. 3 Entonces Isaías el profeta vino al Rey Ezequías y le preguntó: '' ¿Qué estos hombres te dijeron a tí? ¿De dónde vinieron ellos?'' Ezequías dijo: ''Ellos vinieron a mí desde el país distante de Babilonia.'' 4 Isaías preguntó: ¿Qué vieron ellos en tu casa?'' Ezequías respondió: Ellos han visto todo en mi casa. No hubo nada entre mis valiosas cosas que yo no les haya mostrado a ellos.'' 5 Entonces Isaías le dijo a Ezequías: ''Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos: 6 'Mira, los días están por llegar cuando todo en tu palacio, las cosas que tus ancestros han almacenado hasta el día presente, será llevado a Babilonia. Nada será dejado, dice el SEÑOR. 7 Y los hijos nacidos de tí, a quienes tú mismo has engendrado -ellos se llevarán y ellos serán hechos eunucos en el palacio del rey de Babilonia.''' 8 Entonces Ezequías dijo a Isaiás: ''La palabra del SEÑOR que tú has hablado es buena.'' Por que él pensó:'' Habrá paz y estabilidad en mis días.''

Isaiah 39:1

Merodac Baladán...Baladán
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Ezequías se complació con esas cosas
Esto puede decirse más explícitamente. Traducción alterna: "Cuando los mensajeros del rey llegaron, Ezequías se complació con lo que le trajeron".

Mostró a los mensajeros su casa de almacén de cosas valiosas
"Él le mostró a sus mensajeros todas las cosas valiosas que tenía"

Casa de almacén
Lugar donde se guardan bienes

todo lo que se encontraba en sus casas de almacén Esto se puede decir en voz activa. Traducción alterna: "Todo lo que estaba en sus casas de almacén"

No hubo nada en su casa, nada en su reino, que Ezequías no les mostrase a ellos.
Esta es una pequeña exageración, ya que Ezequías les mostraba muchas cosas, pero no todo. Esto también puede expresarse positivamente. Traducción alterna: "Ezequías les mostraba casi todo lo que había en su casa y en su reino"

Isaiah 39:3

Ellos han visto todo en mi casa. No hubo nada entre mis valiosas cosas que yo no les haya mostrado a ellos
Estas dos oraciones quieren decir lo mismo y están juntas para poder hacer énfasis en cuántas fueron las cosas que Ezequías les mostró a los hombres.

Todo en mi casa
Esto es una pequeña exageración, ya que Ezequías les mostró muchas cosas, pero no todo lo que había en el palacio. Traducción alterna: "casi todo en mi casa"

No hubo nada entre mis valiosas cosas que yo no les haya mostrado a ellos Esto puede decirse positivamente. Traducción alterna: "Les mostré todas las cosas valiosas de mi palacio"

Isaiah 39:5

SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Traduce esto de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:9.

La palabra
"el mensaje"

Mira
Esta palabra es usada aquí como una expresión idiomática para llamar la atención de Ezequías sobre lo que se dice luego. Traducción alterna: "escucha"

cuando todo en tu palacio...será llevado a Babilonia Esto puede expresarse positivamente. Traducción alterna: "cuando el ejército de los enemigos tome todo en tu palacio...lo regresará a Babilonia."

Chapter 40

1 "Consuelen, consuelen, a Mi pueblo", dice su Dios. 2 "Hablen tiernamente a Jerusalén; y proclamen a ella que su lucha ha terminado, que su iniquidad es perdonada, que ella ha recibido doble de la mano del SEÑOR por todos sus pecados." 3 Una voz clama: "En el desierto preparen camino para el SEÑOR; enderezen, en el Arabá, una carretera para nuestro Dios." 4 Todo valle será levantado, y toda montaña y colina será nivelada; y la tierra escabrosa será nivelada, y los lugares toscos una llanura; 5 y la gloria del SEÑOR será revelada, y todas las personas la verán juntas; pues la boca del SEÑOR lo ha hablado. 6 Una voz dice: "Clama." Otra responde: "¿Qué debo clamar?" "Toda carne es hierba, y toda la fidelidad de su pacto es como la flor del campo. 7 La hierba se seca y la flor se marchita cuando el aliento del SEÑOR sopla sobre ella; ciertamente la humanidad es hierba. 8 La hierba se seca, la flor se marchita, pero la palabra de nuestro Dios permanecerá para siempre." 9 Sube a una alta montaña, Sion, portadora de buenas noticias. Grita fuerte, Jersusalén. Tú que traes buenas noticias, levanta tu voz, no tengas miedo. Dile a las ciudades de Judá: "¡Aquí está su Dios!" 10 Mirad, El SEÑOR Dios viene como un guerrero victorioso, y su brazo fuerte gobierna por Él. Mirad, Su recompensa está con Él, y aquellos a quienes ha rescatado van delante de Él. 11 Él va a alimentar a Su rebaño como un pastor, Él reunirá en Sus brazos a los corderos, y los cargará cerca de su corazón, y tiernamente guiará a las ovejas que amamantan a sus crías. 12 ¿Quién a medido las aguas en el hueco de su mano, o medido el cielo con la palma de su mano, sostuvo el polvo de la Tierra en una canasta, o pesó las montañas en básculas, o las colinas en una balanza? 13 ¿Quién ha comprendido la mente del SEÑOR, o le ha instruído como Su consejero? 14 ¿De quién Él ha recibido instrucción? ¿Quién le enseñó la manera correcta de hacer las cosas, y le enseñó conocimiento, o le enseñó el camino al entendimiento? 15 Mirad, las naciones son como una gota en un cubo, y se consideran como el polvo en las básculas; mira, Él pesa las islas como una partícula. 16 El Líbano no es combustible suficiente para una ofrenda quemada. 17 Todas las naciones son insuficientes ante ÉL; ellas son consideradas por Él como nada. 18 ¿A quién entonces ustedes compararán a Dios? ¿A qué ídolo lo igualarán? 19 ¡Un ídolo! Un artesano lo moldea: el orfebre lo cubre con oro y lo forja con cadenas de plata. 20 Para hacer una ofrenda uno escoge una madera que no se pudra; él busca un artesano hábil para hacer un ídolo que no se caiga. 21 ¿Acaso no han sabido? ¿No han escuchado? ¿No les ha sido dicho desde el principio? ¿No han entendido desde las fundaciones de la Tierra? 22 Él es Aquel Quien se sienta sobre el horizonte de la tierra; y los habitantes son como saltamontes ante Él. Él extiende los cielos como una cortina y los esparce como un tienda para vivir. 23 Él reduce a los gobernantes a nada y hace a los gobernantes de la Tierra insignificantes. 24 Ellos están apenas plantados, apenas sembrados, su tallo apenas ha echado raíces en la tierra, cuando Él sopla en ellos y ellos se marchitan, y el viento se los lleva como paja. 25 "¿A quién entonces Me compararán, a quién Me parezco?" dice El Santo. 26 ¡Mirad al cielo! ¿Quién ha creado las estrellas? Él dirige sus formaciones y a todas llama por nombre. Por la grandeza de Su poderío y por la fuerza de Su poder, ninguna falta. 27 ¿Por qué tú dices, Jacob, y declaras, Israel: "Mi camino está escondido del SEÑOR, y mi Dios no está interesado por mi vindicación?" 28 ¿No has sabido? ¿No has escuchado? El Dios eterno, el SEÑOR, El Creador de lo último de la Tierra, no Se cansa, ni Se agota, no hay límite para Su entendimiento. 29 Él da fuerza al cansado; y al débil Él da energía renovada. 30 Aún la gente joven se cansa y se agota, y los hombres jóvenes se tropiezan y caen: 31 pero aquellos que esperan por el SEÑOR renovarán su fuerza; ellos volarán con alas como águilas; ellos correrán y no se agotarán; ellos caminarán y no desmayarán.

Isaiah 40:1

Consuelen, consuelen
Esta palabra se repite para enfatizar.

Dice su Dios
Aquí "su" es plural y se refiere a aquellos a quienes el profeta les dice que consuelen al pueblo de Dios.

Hablen tiernamente a Jerusalén
El profeta habla de Jerusalén como si esta fuera una mujer a quien el SEÑOR ha perdonado. Como tal, Jerusalén representa a las personas que viven en esa ciudad. Traducción alterna: "Hablen tiernamente al pueblo de Jerusalén"

Proclámenle a ella...su lucha...su iniquidad...ella ha recibido...sus pecados Estos pronombres se refieren a Jerusalén, pero puede cambiarse si "las personas de Jerusalen" se adopta como traducción. Traducción alterna: "Proclámenles a ellos...su lucha...su iniquidad...ellos han recibido...sus pecados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Su lucha
Los posibles significados de esta palabra son: 1) batalla militar o 2) trabajo forzado

Su iniquidad es perdonada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR ha perdonado su iniquidad"

De la mano del SEÑOR
Aquí la palabra "mano" representa al SEÑOR mismo. Traducción alterna: "del SEÑOR"

Isaiah 40:3

Una voz clama
La palabra "voz" representa a una persona que clama. Traducción alterna: "Alguien clama"

"En el desierto preparen camino para el SEÑOR; hagan derechas, en el Araba, una carretera para nuestro Dios."
Estas dos frases son paralelas y básicamente significan lo mismo. Se habla de las personas que se preparan para recibir la ayuda del SEÑOR, como si ellos fueran a hacer una carretera sobre la cual el SEÑOR camine.

Araba
Traduce esta palabra de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 35:1.

Cada valle será levantado, y cada montaña y colina será nivelada
Estas frases explican cómo las personas deberían preparar la carretera para el SEÑOR. Estas frases pueden ser expresadas en forma activa.Traducción alterna: "Levanten cada valle, y nivelen cada montaña y cada colina"

Cada valle será levantado
Se habla de nivelar los valles con el resto del suelo como si esto fuera "levantar" los valles. Traducción alterna: "Cada valle se rellenará"

Y la gloria del SEÑOR será revelada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y el SEÑOR revelará su gloria"

Pues la boca del SEÑOR lo ha hablado.
La palabra "boca" representa al mismo SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Pues el SEÑOR lo ha hablado"

Isaiah 40:6

Toda carne es hierba
La palabra "carne" se refiere a las personas. El que habla se refiere a los humanos, como si ellos fueran hierba, porque ambos mueren rápido. Traducción alterna: "Todas las personas son como hierba"

Y toda su fidelidad del pacto es como la flor del campo
El que habla compara la fidelidad del pacto de las personas con flores que florecen, pero que luego mueren rápido. Traducción alterna: "Toda su fidelidad del pacto termina rápido, así como una flor del campo muere rápido"

Fidelidad del pacto Posibles significados: 1) Fidelidad del pacto o 2) belleza. Mira cómo tradujiste "fidelidad del pacto" en 16:5.

Cuando el aliento del SEÑOR sopla sobre ella Los posibles significados son: 1) "cuando el SEÑOR sopla su aliento sobre ella" o 2) "cuando el SEÑOR manda que una brisa sople sobre ella"

La humanidad es hierba
Aquí se habla de los humanos como si ellos fueran hierba, porque ambos, hierbas y humanos, mueren rápido. Traducción alterna: "Las personas mueren tan rápido como la hierba"

La palabra de nuestro Dios se mantiene para siempre.
Aquí se habla de que lo que Dios dice dura para siempre, es decir, su palabra permanece para siempre. "Las cosas que dice nuestro Dios durarán para siempre"

Isaiah 40:9

Sube a una alta montaña, Sion, portador de buenas noticias
Se habla de Sion como si este fuera un mensajero que porta buenas noticias desde la cima de una montaña.

Sube a una alta montaña
Los mensajeros solían subir a tierra alta, como montañas, para que muchas personas pudieran escuchar lo que ellos decían.

Sion
Se refiere a las personas que viven en Sion. Traducción alterna: "ustedes, personas de Sion"

Jerusalén, tú que traes buenas noticias
Se habla de Jerusalén como si esta fuera un mensajero que trae buenas noticias.

y su brazo fuerte gobierna por Él Aquí "brazo" representa el poder de Dios. Traducción alterna: "y Él gobierna con gran poder"

Su recompensa está con Él, y aquellos a quienes ha rescatado van delante de Él.
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Aquellos a quienes Él rescató son su "recompensa". Traducción alterna: "Él trae a los que rescató como su recompensa"

Isaiah 40:11

Él va a alimentar a Su rebaño como un pastor
El escritor habla del pueblo del SEÑOR como si ellos fueran ovejas y del SEÑOR como si Él fuera su pastor. Traducción alterna: "Él cuidará a su pueblo así como un pastor alimenta a su rebaño"

Isaiah 40:12

¿Quién ha medido...o las colinas en una balanza?
Estas preguntas retóricas anticipan una respuesta negativa, y además, hacen énfasis en que sólo el SEÑOR es capaz de hacer estas cosas. Traducción alterna: "Nadie excepto el SEÑOR ha medido..y las colinas en una balanza"

Medido las aguas en el hueco de su mano
Se habla de que el SEÑOR sabe cuánta agua hay en los océanos como si Él sostuviera el agua en su mano.

Medido el cielo con la palma de su mano
Una "palma" es la medida de longitud que hay entre el pulgar y el dedo pequeño cuando la mano está bien abierta. Se habla de que el SEÑOR sabe la medida del cielo como si Él la midiera con su mano.

Tomó el polvo de la Tierra en una canasta
Se habla de que el SEÑOR sabe cuánto polvo hay en la Tierra como si Él lo llevara en una canasta.

pesó las montañas en básculas, o las colinas en una balanza?
Se habla de que el SEÑOR sabe cuán pesadas son las montañas, como si Él las midiera en básculas y balanzas

Isaiah 40:13

Información general
Isaías continúa haciendo preguntas para hacer énfasis en que el SEÑOR es único.

¿Quién ha comprendido la mente del SEÑOR, o Lo ha instruído como Su consejero?
Esta pregunta retórica anticipa una respuesta negativa y hace énfasis en que nadie es capaz de hacer estas cosas. Traducción alterna: "Nadie ha comprendido la mente del SEÑOR y nadie lo ha instruido como su consejero"

Comprendido la mente del SEÑOR
Aquí la palabra "mente" no sólo se refiere a los pensamientos del SEÑOR, sino también a sus deseos y motivaciones.

¿De quién Él ha recibido instrucción?
Esta pregunta retórica anticipa una respuesta negativa y hace énfasis en que nunca alguien ha hecho esto. "Él nunca ha recibido instrucción de alguien"

¿Quién Le enseñó la manera correcta de hacer las cosas, y Le enseñó conocimiento, o Le enseñó el camino al entendimiento?
Esta pregunta retórica anticipa una respuesta negativa, y hace énfasis en que nunca alguien ha hecho estas cosas. Traducción alterna: "Nadie le enseñó la manera correcta de hacer las cosas. Nadie le enseñó conocimiento. Nadie le enseño el camino al entendimiento"

Isaiah 40:15

Mira...mira
Estas palabras hacen énfasis sobre lo que sigue.

Las naciones son como una gota en un cubo, y son consideradas como el polvo en las básculas
El profeta compara las naciones con una gota de agua y con polvo para hacer énfasis sobre lo pequeñas e insignificantes que ellas son para el SEÑOR.

Como una gota en un cubo
Los posibles significados son: 1) una gota de agua que cae dentro de un cubo o 2)una gota de agua que cae de un cubo.

Y son consideradas como el polvo en las básculas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Y el SEÑOR las considera como polvo en las básculas"

Ellas son consideradas por Él como nada.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Él las considera como nada"

Isaiah 40:18

¿A quién entonces tú compararás a Dios? ¿A qué ídolo lo igualarás?
Isaías usa dos preguntas similares para hacer énfasis en que no hay ídolo que pueda compararse a Dios. Traducción alterna: "No hay nadie que pueda compararse con Dios. No hay ídolo que lo pueda igualar"

Tú
Esto es plural y se refiere a todo el pueblo de Dios.

Un artesano lo moldea: el orfebre lo cubre con oro y lo forja con cadenas de plata
"Un trabajador habilidoso lo moldea, otro lo cubre con oro y hace una cadena de plata para el ídolo"

Isaiah 40:21

Información general
Isaías continúa hablando al pueblo de Dios.

¿Acaso no has sabido? ¿No has escuchado? ¿No te ha sido dicho desde el principio? ¿No has entendido desde las fundaciones de la Tierra?
Isaías hace estas preguntas para hacer énfasis en que las personas deberían saber la grandeza del SEÑOR como creador. Traducción alterna: "Tú lo sabes y has escuchado, se te ha dicho desde el principio, lo has entendido desde las fundaciones de la Tierra"

¿No te ha sido dicho desde el principio?
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Las personas no te lo han dicho desde el principio?"

Desde las fundaciones de la Tierra
El profeta habla de que el SEÑOR creó la tierra como si esta fuera un edificio sobre el cual el SEÑOR hizo la fundación. Traducción alterna: "desde que el SEÑOR creó la tierra"

Él es Aquel que se sienta sobre el horizonte de la tierra
El profeta habla de que el SEÑOR gobierna la tierra como si Él estuviera sentado en un trono sobre la Tierra.

Los habitantes son como saltamontes ante Él
El profeta compara la forma en que el SEÑOR considera a los humanos con la forma en que los humanos consideran a los saltamontes. Así como los saltamontes son pequeños para los humanos, los humanos son pequeños y débiles delante de Dios.

Él estira los cielos como una cortina y los esparce como un tienda para vivir.
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. El profeta habla de que el SEÑOR creó los cielos como si Él hubiera levantado una tienda en la cual vivir. Traducción alterna: "Así de fácil Él estira los cielos, tal como una persona estira una cortina o levanta una tienda en la cual vivir"

Isaiah 40:23

Él reduce
"El SEÑOR reduce"

Ellos están apenas plantados...ellos se secan
El profeta habla de que los gobernantes son insignificantes ante el SEÑOR como si ellos fueran plantas apenas sembradas, las cuales se secan apenas un viento caluroso sopla sobre ellas.

Ellos están apenas plantados, apenas sembrados
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo, y se refieren a cuando las plantas o semillas son sembradas en el suelo. Estas frases pueden ser expresadas en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "apenas alguien los planta, apenas alguien los siembra"

Él sopla en ellos
El profeta habla de que el SEÑOR saca a los gobernantes del poder como si Él fuera un viento caluroso que sopla en ellos y hace que se sequen.

El viento se los lleva como paja
Este ejemplo sigue con la metáfora de que los gobernantes son como plantas y el SEÑOR es el viento que hace que se sequen. Así como el viento al soplar se lleva la paja fácilmente, así de fácil el viento del juicio del SEÑOR removerá las plantas secas.

Isaiah 40:25

¿A Quién entonces Me compararás, a quién Me parezco?
El SEÑOR usa dos preguntas retóricas similares para enfatizar que no hay ninguno como Él. Traducción alterna: "No me puedes comparar con nadie, no me parezco a nadie" ¿Quién ha creado las estrellas?

Esto es una pregunta que anticipa la respuesta. El SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR ha creado las estrellas"

Él lleva a cabo su formación
Aquí "formación" se refiere a una formación militar. El profeta habla de las estrellas como si ellas fueran soldados a quienes el SEÑOR manda que se formen.

Por la grandeza de Su poder y por la fuerza de Su poder Estas dos frases se usan juntas para hacer énfasis en el poder de Dios. Traducción alterna: "Por su gran poder y fuerza poderosa"

Ninguna falta
Esta frase negativa enfatiza lo positivo. Traducción alterna: "Todas están presentes"

Isaiah 40:27

¿Por qué tú dices, Jacob, y declaras, Israel...vindicación?
La pregunta enfatiza que ellos no deberían decir lo que dicen. Traducción alterna: "Tú no deberías decir, pueblo de Israel...vindicación"

¿Por qué tú dices, Jacob, y declaras, Israel...?
Estas dos frases se refieren al pueblo de Israel. Traducción alterna: "Por qué tú dices, pueblo de Israel"

Mi camino está escondido del SEÑOR
Se habla de que el SEÑOR no sabe lo que le pasa como si Él no pudiera ver el camino por el cual está yendo. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR no sabe lo que me sucede"

Mi Dios no está preocupado por mi vindicación Los posibles significados son: 1) "Mi Dios no está preocupado por que los otros me traten injustamente" o 2) "Mi Dios no está preocupado por tratarme justamente"

¿No has sabido? ¿No has escuchado?
Isaías hace estas preguntas para hacer énfasis en que las personas deberían saber de la grandeza del SEÑOR. Mira cómo tradujiste estas preguntas en 40:21. Traducción alterna: "Tú has sabido, tú has escuchado"

Lo último de la Tierra
Se habla de los lugares que están muy lejanos en la tierra, como si estos fueran los lugares donde la tierra se acaba. Esta frase también forma un merismo y se refiere a todo lo que está en los fines. Traducción alterna: "Los lugares más lejanos de la Tierra" o "La Tierra entera"

Isaiah 40:29

Él da fuerza al cansado; y al débil Él da energía renovada
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que el SEÑOR fortalece a aquellos que no tienen fuerza.

Él da fuerza
"El SEÑOR da fuerza"

Volarán con alas como águilas
Se habla de las personas que reciben fuerza del SEÑOR como si fueran capaces de volar como las águilas. El águila es un pájaro que se usa como símbolo de poder y fuerza

Ellos correrán y no se agotarán; ellos caminarán y no desmayarán
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Se habla de las personas que reciben ayuda del SEÑOR como si fueran capaces de correr y caminar sin cansarse.

Chapter 41

1 Escuchen ante Mí en silencio, ustedes tierras de la costa; permítanle a las naciones renovar su fuerza; permítanle acercarse y hablar; permítannos acercarnos juntos para argumentar una disputa. 2 ¿Quién ha agitado uno del este, llamándolo en justicia a Su servicio? ÉL entrega naciones a él y le ayuda a dominar reyes. ÉL los vuelve polvo con Su espada, como viento que sopla hojarasca con Su arco. 3 ÉL los persigue y pasa sin peligro, por un camino rápido que sus pies apenas toca. 4 ¿Quién ha realizado y ejecutado estas obras? ¿Quién ha convocado las generaciones desde el principio? Yo, el SEÑOR, el Primero, y con los últimos, Yo soy ÉL. 5 Las islas han visto y tienen miedo; los finales de la tierra se estremecen; ellos se acercan y vienen. 6 Cada uno ayuda a su vecino, y cada uno le dice el uno al otro: 'Sé alentado.' 7 Así el carpintero alienta el orfebre, y el que trabaja con el martillo alienta a el que trabaja con el yunque, diciendo de la soldadura: 'Es buena.' Ellos la sujetan con clavos para que no caiga. 8 Pero tú, Israel, mi siervo, Jacob, a quien Yo he escogido, la descendencia de Abraham, mi amigo, 9 tú a quien Yo traigo de vuelta desde los fines de la tierra, y a quien Yo he llamado desde lugares muy lejanos, y a quien dije: 'Tú eres mi siervo;' Yo te he escogido y no te he rechazado. 10 No temas, porque Yo estoy contigo. No estes ansioso, porque Yo soy tu Dios. Yo te fortaleceré, y te ayudaré, y te sostendré con mi justa mano derecha. 11 Ve, ellos serán avergonzados y deshonrados, todos aquellos quienes están enojados contigo; serán como nada y perecerán, aquellos quienes se te oponen. 12 Tú buscarás y no encontrarás aquellos quienes pelearon contigo; aquellos quienes guerrearon en contra tuya ustedes serán como nada, abosolutamente nada. 13 Pues Yo, el SEÑOR tu Dios, sostendré tu mano derecha, diciéndote: 'No temas; Yo te estoy ayudando.' 14 No temas, Jacob, tú gusano, y ustedes hombres de Israel; Yo te ayudaré-- esta es la declaración de el SEÑOR, tu Redentor, el Santo de Israel. 15 Mira, te estoy haciendo como un afilado trineo de trilla, nuevo y con dos filos; tú trillarás las montañas y las aplastarás; harás las colinas como paja. 16 Tú los aventarás a ellos, y el viento los cargará lejos; el viento los esparcirá. Tú te regocijarás en el SEÑOR, tú te regocijarás en el Santo de Israel. 17 El oprimido y el necesitado buscan el agua, pero no hay nada, y sus lenguas están secas por sed; Yo, el SEÑOR, responderé a sus oraciones; Yo, el Dios de Israel, no los abandonaré. 18 Yo haré corrientes que fluyan por las laderas, y manantiales en el medio de los valles; Yo haré el desierto como un estanque de agua, y la tierra seca como manantiales de agua. 19 En el desierto yo pondré el cedro, la acacia, el mirto, y el olivo. Yo pondré el ciprés en la planicie del desierto, con los pinos y árboles de caja de ciprés. 20 Yo haré esto para que la gente pueda ver, reconocer, y entender juntos, que la mano de el SEÑOR ha hecho esto, que el Santo de Israel lo ha creado. 21 "Presenten su caso,'' dice el SEÑOR. "Presenten sus mejores argumentos por sus ídolos,'' dice el Rey de Jacob. 22 Que ellos traigan sus propios argumentos; háganlos venir hacia adelante y declararnos a nosotros que sucederá, así nosotros sabremos estas cosas bien. Hagan a ellos decirnos tempranas declaraciones predictivas, así nosotros podremos reflejarnos en ellos y saber cómo ellos fueron realizados. 23 Digan cosas acerca del futuro, para que nosotros sepamos si ustedes son dioses; hagan algo bueno o malo, para que nosotros estemos atemorizados o impresionados. 24 Mirad, ustedes ídolos no son nada y sus obras son nada; el que los escoja es detestable. 25 Yo he levantado a uno del norte, y él viene; desde la salida del sol Yo lo convoco a él quien llama Mi nombre, y él pisoteará los gobernantes como lodo, como el alfarero quien está pisando la arcilla. 26 ¿Quién anunció esto desde el principio, para que podamos saber? Antes de este tiempo, para que nosotros podamos decir: ''¿Él está correcto?" Ciertamente ninguno de ellos decretó esto, sí, ninguno te escuchó decir algo. 27 Yo primero dije a Sion: ''Mira, aquí ellos están; '' Yo he enviado un heraldo a Jerusalén. 28 Cuando Yo miro, no hay ninguno, ni uno entre ellos quien pueda dar buen consejo, quien, cuando Yo pregunto, pueda contestar una palabra. 29 Mira, todos ellos son nada, y sus obras son nada; sus figuras de metal fundido son viento y vacuidad.

Isaiah 41:1

Escuchen ante Mí en silencio
Aquí "Mi" se refiere a Dios

Ustedes tierras de la costa
Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en las islas y en las tierras que están al borde del Mar Mediterráneo o más allá.

Renovar su fuerza
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 40:29.

Permítanles acercarse y hablar; permítanos acercarnos juntos para argumentar una disputa.
Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. La segunda explica la razón de la primera. Traducción alterna: "Así que permítanles acercarse para que ellas puedan hablar y razonar conmigo"

¿Quién ha movido a alguien desde el este, llamándolo en justicia a su servicio?
El SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que Él es el único que hizo que el gobernador del este sea victorioso. Traducción alterna: "Yo soy el que llamó a este poderoso gobernador del este y el que lo eligí para mi buen servicio." (ver:

Él le entrega naciones a él
"Yo le doy naciones a él" o "El que hace estas cosas le entrega naciones a él"

Él los vuelve polvo con Su espada, como viento que sopla hojarasca con Su arco.
Las naciones a las que el del gobernador este conquistará se comparan con el polvo y la hojarasca, porque las naciones se harán tan pequeñas como esas cosas y también porque su ejército las destruirá fácilmente.

Isaiah 41:3

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a las costas y a las naciones.

Él los persigue y pasa sin peligro
"El gobernador del este persigue a las naciones"

Por un camino rápido que sus pies apenas tocan
Los posibles significados son 1)esta es una metáfora en la cual se habla de que él y su ejército se mueven rápido y por eso sus pies apenas tocan el suelo. Traducción alterna: "Por un camino sobre el cual ellos se mueven con gran rapidez" o 2) "pies" es una figura literaria y la frase indica que este es un camino que ellos nunca antes han recorrido. Traducción alterna: "Por un camino que ellos nunca antes han recorrido"

¿Quién ha realizado y ejecutado estas obras?
El SEÑOR hace esta pregunta para hacer énfasis en que Él es el único que ha hecho estas cosas. Traducción alterna: "Yo he realizado y ejecutado estas obras" ¿Quién ha convocado las generaciones desde el principio?

Aquí la palabra "generaciones" representa a toda la historia de la humanidad, a la cual el SEÑOR creó y dirigío a través de la historia. La pregunta retórica anticipa la respuesta, El SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Yo he convocado a las generaciones de la humanidad desde el principio"

Realizado y ejecutado
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que el SEÑOR es el único que ha hecho estas cosas.

el Primero, y con los últimos
Los posibles significados son 1) que el SEÑOR existía antes de la creación y existirá también cuando sea el fin de la creación o 2) que el SEÑOR estuvo antes de la primera generación de la humanidad y estará con la última generación de la humanidad.

Isaiah 41:5

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando

Las islas...los finales de la tierra
Estas frases representan a las personas que viven en esos lugares. Traducción alterna: "las personas que viven en las islas...las personas que viven en los finales de la tierra"

Las islas
Tú puedes traducir "islas" de la misma manera en que tradujiste "costas" en 41:1.

Los finales de la tierra
Se habla de los lugares que están más lejanos en la tierra, como si fueran los lugares donde la tierra acaba. Traducción alterna: "los lugares más lejanos de la tierra"

Ellos se acercan y vienen
Esto significa que las personas se reúnen todas juntas. Traducción alterna: "Ellos vienen juntos"

Yunque
Un bloque de hierro sobre el cual una persona moldea metal con un martillo.

Diciendo de la soldadura
Aquí la palabra "soldadura" se refiere al proceso en el que se ajusta el oro a la madera para terminar de hacer el ídolo.

Ellos la sujetan con clavos para que así no se voltee
Aquí "la" se refiere al ídolo que han hecho.

Isaiah 41:8

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando

Tú a quien Yo traigo de vuelta desde los fines de la tierra, y a quien Yo he llamado desde lugares lejanos
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que el SEÑOR trae al pueblo de Israel de vuelta a su tierra desde lugares muy lejanos.

Los fines de la tierra
Se habla de los lugares lejanos de la tierra como si fueran lugares donde la tierra se acaba. Traduce esto de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 41:5. Traducción alterna: "Los lugares más lejanos de la tierra"

Yo te he escogido y no te he rechazado.
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. La segunda frase dice en términos negativos lo que la primera frase dice en términos positivos.

Isaiah 41:10

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
Se habla de que el SEÑOR fortalece a su pueblo como si Él los estuviera sosteniendo con su mano.

Mi justa mano derecha
Aquí "mano derecha" representa el poder del SEÑOR. Los posibles significados son 1) La mano derecha del SEÑOR es justa en que Él siempre hará lo correcto. Traducción alterna: "mi justo poder" o 2) La mano derecha del SEÑOR es victoriosa porque Él siempre tendrá éxito en todo lo que haga. Traducción alterna: "Mi poder victorioso"

Isaiah 41:11

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Ellos serán avergonzados y deshonrados, todos aquellos que están enojados contigo
"Todos aquellos que están enojados contigo serán avergonzados y deshonrados"

avergonzados y deshonrados
Estas dos palabras significan lo mismo y hacen énfasis en la grandeza de su verguenza.

Serán como nada y perecerán, aquellos que se te oponen.
"Aquellos que se te oponen serán como nada y perecerán"

Isaiah 41:12

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Yo...sostendré tu mano derecha
Se habla de la ayuda del SEÑOR hacia el pueblo de Israel como si Él estuviera sosteniendo su mano derecha.

Isaiah 41:14

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Jacob, tu gusano, y ustedes hombres de Israel
Aquí "Jacob" y "hombres de Israel" significan lo mismo. Traducción alterna: "Ustedes pueblo de Israel que son como gusanos"

Jacob, tú gusano
Los posibles significados son 1) que esto se refiere a las opiniones de otras naciones con respecto al pueblo de Israel o 2)que esto se refiere a la propia opinión del pueblo de Israel sobre ellos mismos. El SEÑOR habla de su insignificancia como si ellos fueran gusanos.

Declaración del SEÑOR
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 14:21

El Santo de Israel
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:4

Te estoy creando como un afilado trineo de trilla...harás las colinas como paja.
El SEÑOR habla de hacer a Israel capaz de derrotar a sus enemigos como si Él estuviera haciendo a la nación como un trineo de trilla que nivelará las montañas.

Un afilado trineo de trilla
Un trineo de trilla es como una tablón con puntas afiladas que se arrastra sobre el trigo para separarlo de la paja.

Dos bordes
Esto se refiere a los bordes de las puntas que estaban en el trineo de trilla. Que este tenga dos bordes significa que era bien afilado.

tú trillarás las montañas y las aplastarás
En vez de trillar grano, Israel trillará montañas, las cuales representan a las poderosas naciones que eran enemigos de Israel. Traducción alterna: "Tú trillarás a tus enemigos y los aplastarás como si ellos fueran grano, aunque parezcan ser tan fuertes como las montañas"

Harás las colinas como paja
Esta frase tiene un significado similar a la frase anterior pero esta representa el paso siguiente en el proceso de trillar grano. Las colinas, las cuales representan a los enemigos de Israel, serán como paja que no vale nada.

Isaiah 41:16

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa usando la metáfora de separar el grano de la paja para describir cómo Israel derrotará a sus enemigos.

Tú los aventarás a ellos...el viento los esparcirá.
Aquí la palabra "los" se refiere a las montañas y colinas en 41:14. Esto representa el paso siguiente en el proceso de trillar grano, paso en el cual el grano es aventado para así deshacerse de la paja. Los enemigos de Israel desaparecerán así como la paja desaparece al soplar el viento.

El mirto...los pinos y árboles de caja de ciprés
Estos son tipos de árboles

La mano del SEÑOR ha hecho esto
Aquí "mano" representa al SEÑOR mismo. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR ha hecho esto"

Isaiah 41:21

Información general
En estos versículos, el SEÑOR se burla de las personas y sus ídolos. Él desafía a los ídolos para que le cuenten qué pasará en el futuro, pero él sabe que ellos no pueden.

Isaiah 41:23

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa burlándose de los ídolos y de las personas que los adoran. (ver: 41:21)

Hagan algo bueno o malo
Las palabras "bien" y "mal" forman un merismo y se refieren a cualquier cosa. Traducción alterna: "hagan cualquier cosa"

El que los escoja
Aquí "los" se refiere a los ídolos. Traducción alterna: "El que los escoja a ustedes, ídolos"

Isaiah 41:25

Información general

él quien llama Mi nombre
Los posibles significados son 1) que esta persona invoca al SEÑOR para tener éxito o 2) que esta persona adora al SEÑOR.

Él pisoteará los gobernantes
Se habla de conquistar a los gobernantes de otras naciones como si esto significara pisotearlos. Traducción alterna: "Él conquistará a los gobernantes"

Como un alfarero que pisa la arcilla
El SEÑOR compara la manera en que esta persona pisoteará a los otros gobernantes con la manera en que un alfarero pisa la arcilla para mezclarla con agua.

¿Quién anuncia esto desde el principio, para que podamos saber? Antes de este tiempo, para que nosotros podamos decir: ''¿Él está correcto?
El SEÑOR hace estas preguntas retóricas para burlarse de los ídolos que el pueblo adoraba. Las respuestas supuestas son 1) que los ídolos no han hecho estas cosas y 2) que el SEÑOR es el único que ha hecho estas cosas. Traducción alterna: "Ninguno de los ídolos anunció esto desde el principio como para que podamos saber. Y ninguno de ellos anunció esto antes de este tiempo como para que podamos decir "él está en lo correcto".

Ciertamente ninguno de ellos lo ha decretado, sí, ninguno te ha escuchado decir algo

Chapter 42

1 Este es Mi siervo a quien Yo sostengo; Mi Elegido, en Él me deleito. He puesto Mi espíritu sobre Él; traerá justicia a las naciones. 2 Él no gritará ni alzará su voz, ni hará oir su voz en las calles. 3 La caña triturada Él no destruirá, y a la mecha que arde débilmente no apagará; Él fielmente ejecutará justicia. 4 Él no desmayará ni desanimará hasta haber establecido justicia en la tierra; y las costas esperan por su ley. 5 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice- Él que creó los cielos y los extendió, Él que creó la tierra y todo lo que produce, Él que dió aliento de vida a la gente y a todo lo que habita en ésta. 6 "Yo, El SEÑOR, Te llamo en justicia y sostengo Tu mano. Te guardaré y Te estableceré por pacto con el pueblo, como Luz para los gentiles, 7 para que abras los ojos de los ciegos, para que liberes los prisioneros del calabozo y de la casa de encierro a aquellos quienes se sientan en oscuridad. 8 Soy El SEÑOR, éste es Mi nombre; y Mi gloria no compartiré con otro ni Mi alabanza con ídolos tallados. 9 Vean, las cosas anteriores ya pasaron, ahora Yo estoy por declarar nuevos acontecimientos. Antes de que ocurran Yo les diré sobre éstos. 10 Canten al SEÑOR una nueva canción, y su alabanza desde el fin de la tierra; ustedes los que descienden al fondo del mar, y todo lo que está en el, las costas y aquellos quienes vivien allí. 11 ¡Que grite el desierto y las ciudades, las villas donde vive Kedar, griten de alegría! Que los habitantes de Sela canten; que ellos griten desde las cumbres de las montañas. 12 Que den gloria al SEÑOR y declaren Su alabanza en las costas. 13 El SEÑOR saldrá como guerrero; como hombre de guerra agitará su celo. Gritará, si, Él rugirá un grito de guerra; Él mostrará a sus enemigos Su poder. 14 Yo he guardado silencio por largo tiempo; He estado quieto y Me he restringido; ahora, Yo gritaré como mujer de parto; Yo jadearé y resopleré. 15 Yo arrasaré montañas y colinas y secaré toda su vegetación; y Yo convertiré los ríos en islas y secaré los pantanos. 16 Yo traeré a los ciegos por un camino que ellos no conocen; en caminos que ellos no concen los guiaré. Yo cambiaré la oscuridad en luz delante de ellos, y haré derechos los lugares torcidos. Estas cosas Yo haré, y Yo no los abandonaré. 17 Ellos serán vuelto atrás, ellos serán puestos en completa vergüenza, aquellos quienes confían en figuras talladas, quienes dicen a figuras de metal fundidas: " Ustedes son nuestros dioses" 18 Oigan, ustedes sordos; y miren, ustedes ciegos, tal que puedan ver. 19 ¿Quién es ciego sino mi siervo? ¿O sordo como mi mensajero que Yo envié? ¿Quién es tan ciego como mi compañero de pacto, o ciego como el siervo de SEÑOR? 20 Ustedes ven muchas cosas, pero no comprenden; sus oídos están abiertos pero nadie oye. 21 Le agradó al SEÑOR alabar Su justicia y glorificar Su ley. 22 Pero este es un pueblo robado y saqueado; ellos están todos atrapados en fosas, retenidos cautivos en prisiones; ellos están como despojo sin nadie que los rescate, y ninguno dice: "Traigánlos de vuelta!" 23 ¿Quién entre ustedes escuchará ésto? ¿Quién escuchará y oirá en el futuro? 24 ¿Quién entregó a Jacob al ladrón, e Israel a los saqueadores? ¿No fue el SEÑOR, contra quien hemos pecado, en cuyos caminos ellos se negaron a caminar, y cuya ley ellos negaron obedecer? 25 Por tanto El derramó su ira contra ellos, con la devastación de guerra. Resplandeció alrededor de ellos; aún así no lo entendieron, los consumió, pero no lo tomaron en serio.

El SEÑOR continúa hablando

La caña triturada Él no destruirá y no apagará a la mecha que arde débilmente
El SEÑOR habla de las personas débiles y necesitadas como si ellas fueran cañas trituradas y mechas que arden débilmente.

Caña triturada
Una caña es el tallo largo y delgado de una planta. Si está triturada, no puede cargar ningún peso. Mira cómo lo tradujiste en 36:6.

Él no destruirá
"Mi siervo no destruirá"

Las costas
Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en las islas y en las tierras que están al borde del Mar Mediterráneo o más allá. Mira cómo tradujiste esto en 41:1. Traducción alterna: "Las personas que viven en las costas"

Isaiah 42:5

Él que creó los cielos y los extendió, Él que creó la tierra
El profeta habla de que el SEÑOR crea los cielos y la tierra como si los cielos y la tierra fueran cortinas que el SEÑOR extiende.

Él que dió aliento de vida a la gente y a todo lo que habita en ella Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que el SEÑOR le da vida a cada persona. La palabra "aliento" es una figura literaria para vida. Traducción alterna: "Le da vida a la gente que vive en la tierra"

Te llamo
Se refiere al siervo del SEÑOR.

Te pondré por pacto con el pueblo Aquí la palabra "pacto" es una figura literaria para aquel que establece o media un pacto. Traducción alterna: "Te haré ser el mediador de un pacto con el pueblo"

Luz para los gentiles
El SEÑOR habla de hacer que su siervo sea el que libere a las naciones de la esclavitud como si Él estuviera haciéndolo una luz que brilla en la oscuridad para los gentiles.

Isaiah 42:7

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa describiendo lo que su siervo hará.

para que abras los ojos de los ciegos
Se habla de hacer ver a los ciegos como si esto significara abrirles los ojos. Además, el SEÑOR habla de que su siervo libera a los que han sido prisioneros por equivocación como si su siervo estuviera devolviéndole la vista a los ciegos. Traducción alterna: "hacer que los ciegos vean" para que liberes a los prisioneros de la mazmorra y de la casa de confinamiento a los que se sientan en la oscuridad.

Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. El verbo puede ser omitido en la segunda frase. Traducción alterna: "para que liberes a los prisioneros de la mazmorra y para que liberes a los que se sientan en la oscuridad, de la casa de confinamiento"

Isaiah 42:8

ni Mis alabanzas con ídolos tallados
El verbo puede deducirse de la frase previa. Traducción alterna: "Ni compartiré mis alabanzas con ídolos tallados"

Mis alabanzas
Esto se refiere a las alabanzas que el SEÑOR recibe de su pueblo.

Yo les diré
Aquí el "les" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

Quién entre ustedes
Aquí se habla del pueblo de Israel

¿Quién dio a Jacob lo robado, y a Israel lo saqueado?
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Isaías usa esta pregunta como guía hacia la respuesta que él dará en la próxima frase. Traducción alterna: "Yo les contaré quién dio al pueblo de Israel lo robado y lo saqueado"

¿No fue el SEÑOR...no quisieron obedecer?
Isaías usa esta pregunta retórica para hacer énfasis en que sólo el SEÑOR era responsable por la situación de Israel, y también para explicar la razón por la cual el SEÑOR hizo lo que hizo. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente fue el SEÑOR....no quisieron obedecer"

Contra quien hemos pecado
Aquí la palabra "hemos" se refiere Isaías y al pueblo de Israel

En cuyos caminos no quisieron andar, y cuya ley no quisieron obedecer
La palabra "quisieron" se refiere a Isaías y al pueblo de Israel. Las dos frases significan lo mismo. En la primera frase, se habla de obedecer la ley del SEÑOR como si esto significara caminar por los caminos donde el SEÑOR les mandó caminar.

Isaiah 42:25

Chapter 43

1 Pero ahora esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR, Aquel quien te creó, Jacob, y Él quien te formó, Israel: "No tengas miedo, pues te he redimido; te he llamado por tu nombre, tú eres mío. 2 Cuando tú pases por las aguas, estaré contigo; y por los ríos, ellos no te abrumarán. Cuando tú camines por el fuego no serás quemado, y las llamas no te destruirán. 3 Pues Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios, el Santo de Israel, tu Salvador. Yo he dado a Egipto por tu rescate, Etiopía y Seba a cambio de tí. 4 Por cuanto tú eres precioso y especial a Mi vista, Yo te amo; por lo tanto, daré gente a cambio de tí, y otros pueblos a cambio por tu vida. 5 No tengas miedo, pues Yo estoy contigo; Yo traeré a tu descendencia desde el este, y los recogeré desde el oeste. 6 Yo diré al norte: 'Devuélvelos;' y al sur: 'No retengas a ninguno.' Traigan a mis hijos desde lejos, y a mis hijas desde las regiones remotas de la tierra, 7 todo aquel quien es llamado por Mi nombre, quien Yo he creado para Mi gloria, quien Yo he fomado, sí, quien Yo he hecho. 8 Traigan la gente quienes son ciegas, aunque ellos tienen ojos, y los sordos, aunque ellos tienen oídos. 9 Todas las naciones se reúnen, y los pueblos se congregan. ¿Quién entre ellos pudo haber declarado ésto y anunciado a nosotros acontecimientos anteriores? Déjenlos que traigan sus testigos para probarse a sí mismos rectos, déjen que escuchen y afirmen: 'Es verdad.' 10 "Ustedes son Mis testigos," declara el SEÑOR: " y Mi sirviente a quien Yo he elegido, para que así conozcan y crean en Mí, y entiendan que Yo soy Él. Antes de Mí no había dios formado, y no habrá ninguno después de Mí. 11 Yo, Yo soy el SEÑOR, y no hay salvador excepto Yo. 12 "Yo lo anuncié y lo proclamé: Yo los he salvado; y no hay otro dios entre ustedes. Ustedes son mis testigos," declara el SEÑOR: "Yo soy Dios. 13 De este día en adelante Yo soy Él, y nadie puede rescatar a ninguno de Mi mano. Yo actúo, y ¿quién puede revocarlo?" 14 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR, tu Redentor, el Santo de Israel: "Por causa tuya envío a Babilonia y los guío a ellos como fugitivos, cambiando las expresiones de regocijo de los babilonios en canciones de lamento. 15 Yo soy el SEÑOR, el Santo de ustedes, el Creador de Israel, tu Rey." 16 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR (quien abrió una vía por el mar y un camino en las poderosas aguas, 17 quien sacó al carruaje y caballo, al ejército y la poderosa hueste. Ellos cayeron juntos; nunca se volverán a levantar; han sido extinguidos, apagados como una mecha ardiente.) 18 "No piensen en estas cosas anteriores, ni consideren las cosas de hace mucho tiempo. 19 Mirad, estoy a punto de hacer algo nuevo; ahora comenzará a ocurrir; ¿no lo perciben? Haré un camino en el desierto y corrientes de agua en la tierra salvaje. 20 Los animales salvajes del campo me honrarán, los chacales y los avestruces, porque Yo doy agua en la tierra salvaje, y ríos en el desierto, para que mi gente elegida beba, 21 esta gente quien formé para Mí mismo, para que puedan narrar mis alabanzas. 22 Pero tú no Me has llamado, Jacob; te has cansado de Mí, Israel. 23 No Me has traído ninguna de tus ovejas como ofrendas quemadas, o Me has honrado con tus sacrificios. Yo no te he cargado con ofrendas de grano, ni te he cansado con demandas de incienso. 24 No Me has comprado caña con olor con dinero, ni has tú derramado para Mí la grosura de tus sacrificios; pero sí Me has cargado con tus pecados, me has cansado con tus obras malvadas. 25 Yo, sí, Yo soy Él, quien borra tus ofensas por Mi propia causa; y Yo no volveré a recordar tus pecados. 26 Recuérdame lo que pasó. Vamos a debatir juntos; presenta tu causa, tal que puedas resultar inocente. 27 Tu primer padre pecó, y tus líderes han pecado contra Mí. 28 Por lo tanto, profanaré a los santos funcionarios; entregaré a Jacob a destrucción completa, e Israel a humillación abusiva."

Diré al norte...y al sur
El SEÑOR habla del "norte" y "sur" como si mandara a las naciones hacia esos lugares.

Mis hijos...mis hijas
El SEÑOR habla del pueblo que le pertenece a Él como si ellos fueran sus hijos.

Cualquiera que sea llamado por Mi nombre
Aquí el ser llamado por el nombre de alguien significa pertenecer a esa persona. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Todo aquel a quien yo llame por mi nombre" o "todo aquel que me pertenece"

El cual he fomado, sí, el cual he hecho.
Ambas frases significan lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que Dios fue el que formó al pueblo de Israel.

Isaiah 43:8

las personas que son ciegas...los sordos
El SEÑOR habla de aquellos que no lo escuchan ni le obedecen como si fueran ciegos y sordos.

¿Quién entre ellos pudo haber declarado esto y anunciado a nosotros eventos anteriores?
Esta pregunta retórica está dirigida a los dioses que las naciones adoran. La respuesta que se espera es que ninguno de ellos pudo hacer esto. Traducción alterna: "Ninguno de sus dioses pudo haber declarado esto ni pudo haber anunciado a nosotros eventos anteriores"

anunciado a nosotros eventos anteriores
Esto se refiere a la habilidad de contar eventos en el pasado antes de que pasaran. Traducción alterna: "anunciado a nosotros eventos pasados antes de que pasaran"

Déjenlos que traigan sus testigos para que prueben que tienen la razón, déjen que escuchen y afirmen: 'Es cierto.'
El SEÑOR desafía a los dioses que las naciones adoran a que traigan testigos que prueben que ellos han sido capaz de hacer estas cosas, aunque Él sabe que ellos no pueden hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "Estos dioses no tienen testigos que prueben que tienen la razón ni que escuchen y afirmen "es cierto"."

Isaiah 43:10

ustedes...mi sirviente
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Y la frase "mi sirviente" se refiere a la nación como un todo.

Antes de mí...después de mi
Con esto el SEÑOR no quiere decir que hubo un tiempo antes en el cual Él no existió o un tiempo después en el cual Él no existirá. Sino que se refiere a que Él es eterno y que los dioses a los que otras naciones adoran no lo son.

Antes de Mí no había dios formado Aquí la palabra "formado" indica que el SEÑOR habla de los ídolos que las personas han formado. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ninguno de los dioses que las personas han formado existió antes de mí"

y no habrá ninguno después de Mí
"Y ninguno de esos dioses existirá después de mí"

Yo, Yo soy el SEÑOR
Se repite la palabra "yo" para enfatizar el enfoque en el SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Yo solo soy el SEÑOR" o "Yo mismo soy el SEÑOR"

Chapter 44

1 Ahora escucha, Jacob mi siervo, e Israel, a quien Yo he escogido: 2 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice, Él Quien te hizo y te formó en el vientre y Quien te ayudará: "No temas, Jacob mi siervo; y tú, Jesurún, a quien Yo he escogido. 3 Pues Yo derramaré agua en el suelo sediento, y arroyos que fluyen en suelo seco; Yo derramaré Mi Espíritu en tus descendientes, y Mi bendición en tus niños. 4 Ellos brotarán entre la hierba, como sauces junto a las corrientes de agua. 5 Uno dirá: 'Yo le pertenezco al SEÑOR,' y otro clamará al nombre de Jacob, y otro escribirá en su mano 'Pertenencia del SEÑOR,' y se llamará a sí mismo por el nombre de Israel." 6 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR-- el Rey de Israel y su Redentor, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos: "Yo soy el Primero y el Último; y no hay otro Dios además de Mí. 7 ¿Quién es como Yo? Dejen que lo anuncie y me explique los eventos que ocurrieron desde que Yo establecí a Mi pueblo antiguo, y déjenlo declarar los eventos por venir. 8 No teman, o tengan miedo. ¿No lo he declarado Yo hace mucho tiempo, y lo he anunciado? Ustedes son mis testigos: ¿Hay algún Dios además de Mí? No hay ninguna otra Roca; Yo no sé de ninguna." 9 Todos quienes diseñan ídolos son nada; las cosas en las que se deleitan son sin valor; sus testigos no pueden ver o saber algo, y ellos serán puestos en vergüenza. 10 ¿Quién formaría un dios o fundiría un ídolo que es sin valor? 11 Mirad, todos sus cómplices serán puestos en vergüenza, los artesanos son sólo hombres. Dejen que estén en pie juntos; ellos se acobardarán y serán puestos en vergüenza. 12 El herrero trabaja con sus herramientas, formándolo, trabajando sobre los carbones. Él lo forma con martillos y lo trabaja con su fuerte brazo. Él está hambriento, y su fuerza desvanece; él no toma agua y se desmaya. 13 El carpintero mide la madera con una línea, y la marca con una aguja. Él le da forma con sus herramientas y la marca con un compás. Él le da forma según la figura de un hombre, como un humano atractivo, para que se pueda quedar en una casa. 14 Él corta cedros, o escoge un árbol de ciprés o un árbol de roble. Él mismo escoge los árboles en el bosque. Él planta un árbol conífero y la lluvia lo hace crecer. 15 Entonces un hombre lo usa para un fuego y se calienta a sí mismo. Sí, el enciende un fuego y hornea pan. Entonces, él hace de eso un dios y se inclina ante él; él hace un ídolo y se inclina ante él. 16 Él quema parte de la madera para el fuego, asando su carne sobre eso. Él come y está satisfecho. Él se calienta a sí mismo y dice: "Ah, estoy caliente, he visto el fuego." 17 Con el resto de la madera él hace un dios, su imagen tallada; él se inclina ante ella y le hace reverencia; y le ora a ella diciendo: "Réscatame, porque tú eres mi dios." 18 Ellos no saben, ni entienden, porque sus ojos están ciegos y no pueden ver, y sus corazones no pueden percibir. 19 Nadie piensa, ni ellos comprenden y dicen: "Yo he quemado parte de la madera en el fuego; sí, yo también he horneado pan sobre sus carbones. Yo he asado carne sobre sus carbones y he comido. Ahora, ¿debo hacer la otra parte de la madera en algo repugnante para adorar? ¿Debo yo inclinarme ante un bloque de madera?" 20 Es como si él estuviera comiendo cenizas; su corazón engañoso lo extravía. Él no puede rescatarse a sí mismo, ni tampoco él dice: "Esta cosa en mi mano derecha es un dios falso." 21 Piensa en estas cosas, Jacob, e Israel, porque tú eres mi siervo: Yo te he formado a tí; tú eres Mi siervo: Israel, tú no serás olvidado por Mí. 22 Yo he borrado, como una nube densa, tus obras rebeldes, y como una nube, tus pecados; regresa a Mí, pues Yo te he redimido. 23 Canten, ustedes cielos, pues el SEÑOR ha hecho esto; griten, ustedes, profundidades de la tierra. Rompan en cántico, ustedes montañas, tú, bosque con cada árbol en él; pues el SEÑOR ha redimido a Jacob, y mostrará Su gloria en Israel. 24 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR, tu Redentor, Él quien te formó desde el vientre: "Yo soy el SEÑOR, Quien hizo todo, Quien solo, extendió los cielos, Quien solo, diseñó la tierra. 25 Yo, Quien hago frustrar los presagios de los interlocutores vacíos y Quien deshonra a esos que leen augurios; Yo Quien anula la sabiduría del sabio y hace su consejo necio. 26 Yo, el SEÑOR, Quien confirma las palabras de Su siervo y hace que se realicen las predicciones de Sus mensajeros, Quien dice de Jerusalén: 'Ella será habitada,' y de los pueblos de Judá, 'Ellos serán construidos otra vez, y Yo la levantaré de sus ruinas;' 27 Quien dice al mar profundo: 'Sécate, y Yo secaré tus corrientes.' 28 El SEÑOR es Quien dice de Ciro: 'Él es mi pastor, él hará todos mis deseos; él decretará sobre Jerusalén: 'Ella será reconstruida,' y sobre el templo: 'Que sus cimientos sean puestos.'"

Yo derramaré agua en el suelo sediento, y arroyos que fluyan en suelo seco
El SEÑOR habla de dar de su Espíritu al pueblo de Israel como si Él estuviera haciendo caer la lluvia y haciendo fluir arroyos en suelo seco.

Suelo sediento
Se habla del suelo seco como si fuera una persona sedienta. Traducción alterna: "el suelo seco"

Derramaré Mi Espíritu en tus descendientes El SEÑOR habla de dar su Espíritu al pueblo de Israel como si su Espíritu fuera líquido que Él vierte o derrama sobre ellos. Traducción alterna: "Les daré mi Espíritu a tus descendientes"

y Mi bendición en tus niños
Se puede deducir el verbo de la frase previa. Traducción alterna: "y derramaré mi bendición sobre tus niños" o "Les daré mi bendición a tus niños"

Ellos crecerán en medio del pasto, como sauces junto a las corrientes de agua.
Se habla de que el pueblo de Israel prosperará y se multiplicará como si fueran plantas que crecen debido a que tienen mucha agua.

Sauces
Un sauce es un árbol con ramas delgadas que crece cerca del agua.

Chapter 45

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice a Su ungido, a Ciro, cuya mano derecha Yo sostengo, para someter naciones delante de él, para desarmar reyes, y para abrir puertas delante de él, tal que las puertas permanezcan abiertas: 2 "Yo iré delante de tí y nivelaré las montañas; Yo romperé en pedazos las puertas de bronce y cortaré en pedazos sus barras de hierro, 3 y Yo te daré los tesoros ocultos y riquezas escondidas, para que tú puedas saber que soy Yo, el SEÑOR, quien te llama por tu nombre, Yo, el Dios de Israel. 4 Pues por el bien de Mi siervo Jacob, e Israel Mi escogido, Yo te he llamado a tí por tu nombre: dándote un título de honor, aunque no me hayas conocido. 5 Yo soy Él SEÑOR, y no hay otro; no hay Dios sino Yo. Yo te armaré para la batalla, aunque no me hayas conocido; 6 para que las personas sepan desde el levantamiento del sol y desde el oeste, que no hay dios sino Yo: Yo soy Él SEÑOR, y no hay otro. 7 Yo formo la luz y creo la oscuridad; Yo traigo paz y creo el desastre; Yo soy el SEÑOR, Quien hace todas estas cosas. 8 ¡Ustedes cielos, lluevan desde arriba! Que los cielos lluevan justicia. Que la tierra la absorba, para que la salvación pueda brotar y la justicia germine junto con ella. Yo, el SEÑOR, las he creado a ambas. 9 ¡Ay de todo aquel que discute con quien lo formó, él quien es como una vasija terrenal entre todas las vasijas terrenales en la tierra! Acaso le dice el barro al alfarero: '¿Qué estás haciendo?' o ¿'Tu trabajo no tiene asideros en éste?' 10 ¡Ay del que le dice a un padre: '¿Qué estás engendrando?' o a una mujer, '¿Qué estás dando a luz?' 11 Esto es lo que Él SEÑOR dice: El Santo de Israel, su Creador: '¿Por qué haces preguntas acerca de lo que Yo haré para Mis hijos? ¿Tú me dices qué hacer en cuanto al trabajo de Mis manos?' 12 'Yo hice la tierra y creé al hombre sobre ella. Fueron Mis manos que extendieron los cielos, y Yo ordené a todas las estrellas aparecer. 13 Yo desperté a Ciro en justicia, y Yo allanaré todos sus caminos. Él construirá Mi ciudad; Él permitirá a mi pueblo exiliado ir a casa, y no por precio ni soborno,'" dice Él SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 14 Esto es lo que Él SEÑOR dice: "Las ganancias de Egipto y la mercancía de Etiopía junto con los Sabeos, hombres de estatura alta, serán traídos a ti. Ellos serán tuyos. Ellos irán tras de tí, encadenados. Ellos se inclinarán a tí y te suplicarán diciendo: 'Ciertamente Dios está contigo, y no hay otro excepto Él.'" 15 Verdaderamente Tú eres un Dios quien se esconde, Dios de Israel, Salvador. 16 Todos ellos estarán avergonzados y deshonrados juntos; aquellos quienes tallan ídolos caminarán en humillación. 17 Pero Israel será salvado por Él SEÑOR con una salvación eterna; ustedes nunca volverán a ser avergonzados o humillados. 18 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice, Quien creó los cielos, el verdadero Dios, Quien creó la tierra y la hizo, Quien la estableció. Él la creó, no como un desperdicio, sino que la designó para ser habitada: "Yo soy el SEÑOR, y no hay otro. 19 Yo no he hablado en privado, en algún lugar escondido; Yo no le dije a los descendientes de Jacob: '¡Búsquenme en vano!' Yo soy Él SEÑOR, Quien habla sinceramente; Yo declaro las cosas que son justas. 20 ¡Congréguesen y vengan! ¡Júntense, ustedes refugiados de entre las naciones! Ellos no tienen conocimiento, esos que cargan imágenes y le oran a dioses que no pueden salvar. 21 ¡Acérquense y declárenmelo a Mí, traigan la evidencia! Que conspiren juntos. ¿Quién ha mostrado esto desde hace mucho tiempo atrás? ¿Quién lo anunció? ¿No fui Yo, Él SEÑOR? No hay Dios excepto Yo, un Dios justo y un Salvador; no hay nadie aparte de Mí. 22 Vuélvanse a Mí y sean salvos, todos los confines de la tierra; porque Yo soy Dios, y no hay otro. 23 Por Mí mismo Yo juro, hablando Mi decreto justo, y no será revocado. Ante Mí toda rodilla se doblará, cada lengua jurará. 24 Ellos dirán de Mí: 'Solamente en El SEÑOR está la salvación y la fuerza.'" Todos ellos serán avergonzados, quienes están enojados con Él. 25 En El SEÑOR todos los descendientes de Israel serán justificados; ellos se enorgullecerán en Él.

Chapter 46

1 Bel se postra, Nebo se encorva; sus ídolos son cargados por animales y bestias de carga. Estos ídolos que ustedes llevan son una pesada carga para animales agotados. 2 Juntos se agachan, se arrodillan; no pueden rescatar las imágenes, y ellos mismos se han ido en cautividad. 3 Escúchame, casa de Jacob, todo el remanente de la casa de Israel, quien ha sido cargado por Mí desde antes que nacieran, llevados desde el vientre. 4 Aún hasta tu vejez Yo Soy Él, y hasta que tu cabello esté gris Yo te cargaré. Yo te hice y te sostendré; Yo te cargaré y Yo te rescataré. 5 ¿Con quién Me compararás? ¿A quién crees tú que Yo me asemejo, tal que seamos comparados? 6 Las personas derraman oro de la bolsa y pesan plata en la balanza. Ellos contratan a un orfebre, y lo hacen en un dios; se postran y lo adoran. 7 Lo levantan sobre sus hombros y lo cargan; lo colocan en su lugar, y permanece en su lugar y no se mueve de allí. Ellos claman a él, pero no puede contestar ni salvar a nadie de sus problemas. 8 ¡Piensen acerca de estas cosas; nunca las ignoren, ustedes rebeldes! 9 Piensen sobre las cosas anteriores, aquellas de tiempos pasados, pues Yo Soy Dios, y no hay ningún otro como Yo. 10 Yo anuncio el fin desde el principio, y de antemano lo que aún no ha sucedido; Yo digo: "Mi plan se cumplirá, y Yo haré según Mi deseo." 11 Yo llamo un ave de rapiña del este, el hombre de mi elección desde tierra distante; sí, Yo he hablado; Yo también lo lograré; Yo he propuesto, Yo también lo haré. 12 Escúchenme, ustedes gente terca, quienes están lejos de hacer lo que es correcto. 13 Yo estoy trayendo Mi justicia cerca; no está lejos, y Mi salvación no espera; y Yo daré salvación a Sion y Mi belleza a Israel.

Isaiah 46:1

Bel se postra, Nebo se derrumba; sus ídolos...animales agotados
Isaías habla de las personas que ponen a los ídolos de Bel y Nebo en una carreta para que sus animales los lleven, como si estos dioses fueran hechos para "postrarse" y "derrumbarse". Estas dos son posturas de humillación.

Bel...Nebo
Estos eran los dos dioses principales a quienes Babilonia adoraba.

Sus ídolos
Los ídolos que representaban a Bel y Nebo

No pueden rescatar las imágenes
"Bel y Nebo no pueden rescatar las imágenes"

Ellos mismos se han ido en cautividad.
Isaías habla de las personas que llevan estos ídolos como si los dioses falsos a quienes ellos representan fueran llevados hacia cautividad.

Chapter 47

1 Ven y siéntate en el polvo, virgen hija de Babilonia; siéntate en el suelo sin un trono, hija de los caldeos. Tú no serás llamada fina y delicada. 2 Toma la piedra de molino y muele harina; quítate el velo, desnudáte de tu túnica que ondea, descubre tus piernas, cruza las corrientes. 3 Tu desnudez será descubierta, sí, tu vergüenza será vista: Yo tomaré venganza y no perdonaré a ningún hombre. 4 Nuestro Redentor, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es Su nombre, El Santo de Israel. 5 Siéntate en silencio y entra en tiniebla, hija de los caldeos; pues tú no serás más llamada reina de reinos. 6 Yo estaba enojado con mi pueblo; Yo profané mi heredad y la entregué en tu mano, pero tú no les mostraste misericordia; tú pusiste un yugo muy pesado en la gente vieja. 7 Tú dijiste: ''Yo los regiré por siempre como soberana reina.'' Tú no llevaste estas cosas a tu corazón, ni tú consideraste como ellas habrían de resultar. 8 Así que ahora escucha esto: tú amas el placer y te sientas segura; tú quien dijo en su corazón: Yo existo y no hay nadie como yo; yo nunca me sentaré como una viuda, ni experimentaré la pérdida de hijos.'' 9 Pero estas dos cosas vendrán a tí en un momento en un día: la pérdida de hijos y la viudez; en toda su fuerza ellos vendrán a tí, a pesar de tus hechicerías y de tus muchos encantamientos y amuletos. 10 Tú has confiado en tu maldad; tú has dicho: Nadie me ve''; tu sabiduría y tu conocimiento te han llevado por mal camino, pero tú dices en tu corazón: '' yo existo, y no hay nadie más como yo.'' 11 El desastre vendrá sobre tí; tú no serás capaz de ahuyentarlo con tus encantamientos. La destrucción caerá sobre tí; tú no serás capaz de evitarla. La calamidad te golpeará de repente, antes de que lo sepas. 12 Persiste en emitir tus encantamientos y tus muchas hechicerías las cuales fielmente has recitado desde tu niñez; quizás seas exitosa; tal vez puedas espantar el desastre. 13 Tú estas cansada con tus muchas consultas; que esos hombres se pongan en pie y te salven- esos quienes trazan los cielos y miran a las estrellas, esos quienes declaran las lunas nuevas- déjalos que te salven de lo que te sucederá. 14 Ve, ellos se convertirán en rastrojo. El fuego los quemará a ellos. Ellos no podrán salvarse ellos mismos de la mano de la llama. ¡Allí no habrá carbones que los calienten y ningún fuego para ellos sentarse! 15 Eso es lo que ellos se han convertido para tí, esos con los que tú has trabajado, y tú has comprado y vendido con ellos cuando eras joven, y todos ellos siguen haciendo sus mismas cosas necias; y cuando tú clamas por ayuda, no hay nadie que pueda rescatarte.''

Isaiah 47:1

Información general
En este capítulo, El SEÑOR le habla a Babilonia acerca de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

siéntate en el polvo, virgen hija de Babilonia; siéntate en el suelo...hija de los caldeos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Sentarse en el polvo era una señal de humillación.

virgen hija de Babilonia...hija de los caldeos
Ambas frases se refieren a la ciudad, Babilonia, de la que se habla como si fuera una hija. Que la ciudad sea una "hija" indica cómo las personas piensan en ella con afecto/compasión.

Sin un trono
Aquí "trono" se refiere al poder para gobernar. Traducción alterna: "Sin el poder para gobernar". Ver:

Tú no serás llamada primorosa y delicada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Las personas ya no te llamarán primorosa y delicada"

Primorosa y delicada
Estas dos palabras tienen significados similares. Ellos describen a una persona que es hermosa y vive con lujos. Traducción alterna: "Muy hermosa" o "muy lujosa"

Piedra de molino
Una piedra grande usada para moler grano.

Isaiah 47:3

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Babilonia sobre su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Tu desnudez será descubierta
Esto puede expresarse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Te desnudarás"

Tu vergüenza será vista Aquí la palabra "vergüenza" es un eufemismo por las partes privadas. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Las personas verán tu vergüenza" o "las personas verán tus partes privadas"

Nuestro Redentor
"Nuestro" se refiere a Isaías y al pueblo de Israel. Mira cómo tradujiste "Redentor" en 41:14.

SEÑOR de los ejércitos
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:24

El Santo de Israel
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 5:15

Hija de los caldeos
Esta frase se refiere a la ciudad, Babilonia, de la cual se habla como si fuera una hija. Que la ciudad sea una "hija" indica cómo los caldeos piensan en ella con afecto/compasión. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 41:1.

Por que tú no serás más llamada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Porque las personas ya no te llamarán más"

Reina de reinos
El SEÑOR habla de que Babilonia es la ciudad capital del imperio babilónico como si esta fuera una reina que gobernó muchos reinos.

Isaiah 47:6

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Babilonia de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Yo estaba enojado
"Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR.

Yo contaminé mi heredad
El SEÑOR habla del pueblo de Israel como su posesión especial, así como si ellos fueran su heredad o herencia. Traducción alterna: "Yo contaminé a mi pueblo, que es mi posesión especial"

La puse en tus manos
Aquí la palabra "mano" representa el poder o control de Babilonia. Traducción alterna: "Los puse bajo tu poder"

Tú pusiste un yugo muy pesado en la gente vieja
El SEÑOR habla de que Babilonia oprimía a las personas viejas como si Babilonia las hubiera tratado como un ganado y como si hubiera puesto yugos muy pesados en sus cuellos.

Yo los regiré por siempre como soberana reina
Babilonia habla de gobernar a muchas naciones permanentemente como si esta fuera una reina que gobernará por siempre.

Tú no llevaste estas cosas a tu corazón
El SEÑOR habla de pensar cuidadosamente acerca de algo como si esto significara poner ese "algo" en tu corazón. Traducción alterna: "Tú no consideraste estas cosas"

Isaiah 47:8

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR sigue hablando a Babilonia de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Tú que amas el placer
"Tú, la lujosa". Esto se refiere a los muchos lujos que Babilonia disfrutaba.

Sientas segura
Esto se refiere a la falsa seguridad que tiene Babilonia de pensar que nunca perderá su posición de riqueza y honor. Traducción alterna: "Tú que crees que estás segura"

Yo nunca me sentaré como una viuda...pérdida de hijos
Se habla de que Babilonia cree que otras naciones nunca serán capaces de conquistarla como si ella nunca fuera a quedar viuda o perder hijos.

Yo nunca me sentaré como una viuda
"Nunca quedaré viuda"

En un momento en un día
"De repente a la misma vez"

Isaiah 47:10

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Babilonia de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Tú dices en tu corazón
Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a la persona interior. Traducción alterna: "Tú te dices a tí mismo"

El desastre vendrá sobre ti
El SEÑOR habla del desastre como si este fuera una persona que captura a Babilonia. Traducción alterna: "Tú experimentarás desastre"

La destrucción caerá sobre ti
El SEÑOR habla de que Babilonia será destruida como si la destrucción fuera un objeto que cae sobre la ciudad. Traducción alterna: "Tú experimentarás destrucción" o, "Otros te destruirán"

La calamidad te golpeará
El SEÑOR habla de que Babilonia experimentará la calamidad como si la calamidad fuera una persona que golpeará a Babilonia. Traducción alterna: "Tú experimentarás la calamidad"

Isaiah 47:12

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR habla a Babilonia acerca de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Persiste en tus encantamientos... quizás puedas espantar el desastre
El SEÑOR se burla de Babilonia diciéndole que siga practicando su hechicería para alejar las cosas malas, pero Él sabe que la hechicería no la ayudará.

Isaiah 47:14

Oración de Enlace
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Babilonia de su derrota como si esta fuera una reina que es humillada.

Ellos se convertirán en rastrojo. El fuego los quemará a ellos
El SEÑOR compara a los magos y hechiceros con la paja que se quema rápidamente cuando hay fuego. Esto significa que el SEÑOR los destruirá tan fácilmente como cuando el fuego quema un rastrojo, para que ellos no tengan poder para salvar a Babilonia.

La mano de la llama Aquí la palabra "mano" representa fuerza. Traducción alterna: "El poder de la llama"

no habrá carbones que los calienten y ningun fuego para ellos sentarse El SEÑOR hace énfasis en que este es un fuego tan destructor que las personas no lo podrán usar ni para calentarse.

y todos ellos siguen haciendo sus mismas cosas tontas Los posible significados son 1)que cada uno hace lo que considera mejor o 2) que cada uno abandona a Babilonia y escapa

Chapter 48

1 Oye esto, casa de Jacob, quienes son llamados por el nombre Israel, y han venido de la esperma de Judá; ustedes quienes juran por el nombre del SEÑOR e invocan el Dios de Israel, pero no en sinceridad ni de manera justa. 2 Pues ellos se llaman a sí mismos gente de la santa ciudad y confían en el Dios de Israel. El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es Su nombre. 3 "Yo he declarado las cosas desde hace mucho tiempo; ellas salieron de Mi boca, y Yo las he hecho saber; luego de repente Yo las hice, y ellas vinieron a pasar. 4 Porque Yo sabía que tú eras obstinado, los músculos de tu cuello rígidos como hierro, y tu frente como bronce, 5 Por lo tanto, Yo declaré estas cosas a tí de antemano; antes de que te pasaran Yo te informé a tí, para que así no pudieras decir: 'Mi ídolo las ha hecho', o 'Mi figura tallada y Mi figura de metal fundido ha ordenado estas cosas.' 6 Tú escuchaste acerca de estas cosas; mirad toda esta evidencia; y tú ¿no vas a admitir que lo que Yo digo es verdad? De ahora en adelante, Yo estoy mostrándote cosas nuevas, cosas ocultas que tú no has conocido. 7 Ahora, y no previamente, ellas vienen a ser, y antes de hoy tú no has escuchado sobre ellas, así que, tú no vas a poder decir: 'Sí, yo sabía acerca de ellas.' 8 Tú nunca habías escuchado; tú no sabías; estas cosas no fueron desplegadas a tus oídos de antemano. Pues, Yo sabía que tú has sido muy mentiroso, y que tú has sido un rebelde de nacimiento. 9 Por el bien de Mi nombre Yo voy a postergar mi coraje, y para Mi honra Yo voy a contenerme de destruirte a tí. 10 Mira, Yo te he refinado, pero no como plata; Yo te he purificado en el horno de la aflicción. 11 Por Mi propia causa, por Mi propia causa Yo actuaré; pues, ¿cómo puedo Yo permitir que Mi nombre sea deshonrado? Yo no voy a darle Mi gloria a nadie más. 12 Escúchame a Mi, Jacob, e Israel, a quien Yo llamo; Yo soy Él; Yo soy el primero, Yo también soy el último. 13 Sí, Mi mano sentó las bases de la Tierra, y Mi mano derecha esparció los cielos; cuando Yo los llamo, ellos se levantan juntos. 14 ¡Congréguense ustedes mismos, todos ustedes, y escuchen! ¿Quién entre ustedes ha anunciado estas cosas? El aliado del SEÑOR cumplirá Su propósito contra Babilonia. Él llevará a cabo la voluntad del SEÑOR contra los caldeos. 15 Yo, Yo he hablado, sí, Yo lo he convocado a él, Yo lo he traído a él, y él tendrá éxito. 16 Ven cerca de Mí, escucha esto: Desde el principio Yo no he hablado en secreto; cuando pasa, Yo estoy ahí." Ahora el SEÑOR me ha enviado a mí, y Su Espíritu. 17 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, tú Redentor, El Santo de Israel dice: " Yo soy el SEÑOR tú Dios, quien les enseña a ustedes cómo tener éxito, quien te dirige por el camino que tú debes seguir. 18 ¡Si sólo tu hubieras obedecido Mis mandamientos! Estonces tu paz y prosperidad hubieran fluido como un río, y tu salvación como las olas del mar. 19 Tus descendientes hubieran sido tan numerosos como la arena, y los hijos de tu vientre numerosos como los granos de arena; sus nombres no hubiesen sido cortados ni borrados ante Mí. 20 ¡Sal de Babilonia! ¡Huye de los caldeos! ¡Con el sonido de un grito resonante anúncialo! ¡Da a conocer ésto, haz que salga hasta los confines de la Tierra! Dí:' El SEÑOR ha redimido a su siervo Jacob.' 21 Ellos no tuvieron sed cuando Él los dirigió a través del desierto; Él hizo las aguas fluir de una roca para ellos; Él partió la roca, y el agua brotó. 22 No hay paz para los malvados, dice El SEÑOR."

Isaiah 48:1

Escucha esto

Aquí la palabra "nombre" se refiere a la reputación del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Por amor a mi reputación voy a diferir mi coraje"

y para Mi honor Yo voy a contenerme de destruírte a ti Esta parte de la oración significa lo mismo que la primera.

Mira, Yo te he refinado, pero no como plata; Yo te he purificado en el horno de la aflicción
El SEÑOR habla de usar la aflicción para purificar a su pueblo como si ellos fueran metales preciosos y la aflicción fuera el horno en el cual Él los refina.

¿cómo puedo Yo permitir que Mi nombre sea deshonrado?
El SEÑOR hace esta pregunta para enfatizar que Él nunca podría dejar que su nombre sea deshonrado. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Yo no puedo permitir que alguien deshonre mi nombre"

Isaiah 48:12

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Jacob e Israel
Ambos nombres se refieren al pueblo de Israel.

Yo soy el primero, Yo también soy el último.
Esta frase enfatiza la naturaleza eterna del SEÑOR. Posibles significados: 1) Yo soy el único que comienza todas las cosas y el único que les pone fin o 2) Yo soy el único que siempre ha vivido y el único que siempre vivirá. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 44:6

Mi mano hizo la fundación de la Tierra, y Mi mano derecha esparció los cielos Aquí "mano" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Yo hice la fundación de la Tierra, y yo esparcí los cielos"

La fundación de la Tierra
"Fundación" normalmente se refiere a una estructura de piedra que da soporte a un edificio desde abajo. Aquí se describe una estructura similar que fue pensada para dar soporte a la tierra y sostenerla. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 24:17.

Esparció los cielos
El SEÑOR habla de crear los cielos como si estos fueran cortinas que Él estiró. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 42:5

cuando Yo los llamo, ellos se levantan juntos Levantarse cuando el SEÑOR llama es una metáfora, se refiere a estar listo para obedecerle. El SEÑOR habla de los cielos y la tierra como si ellos fueran capaces de oírlo y obedecerle.

Chapter 49

1 ¡Escúchenme a Mí, ustedes tierras de la costa! Ahora denme su atención, ustedes pueblos distantes. El SEÑOR me ha llamado desde el nacimiento por mi nombre, cuando mi madre me trajo a este mundo. 2 Él ha hecho mi boca como una espada afilada; Él me escondió en la sombra de Su mano; Él me ha convertido en una flecha pulida; en su bolsa para flechas Él me ha escondido. 3 Él me dijo a mí: "Tú eres mi siervo, Israel, a través del cual Yo muestro Mi gloria." 4 Pero yo respondí: "Aunque yo pensé que yo he trabajado en vano, yo he gastado mi energía para nada, a pesar de todo, mi justica es con el SEÑOR, y mi recompensa está con mi Dios.'' 5 Ahora el SEÑOR ha hablado-- Aquel quien me formó desde el nacimiento para ser su siervo, para restaurar a Jacob otra vez a sí mismo, para que Israel se reuniera con Él, porque yo soy honorable en los ojos del SEÑOR, y mi Dios se ha convertido en mi fuerza-- 6 y Él dice: "Es muy poca cosa para tí que seas Mi siervo para restablecer las tribus de Jacob, y restaurar los sobrevivientes de Israel. Yo te haré luz para los gentiles, para que seas Mi salvación hasta los confines de la Tierra.'' 7 Esto es lo que El SEÑOR dice, El Redentor de Israel, su Santo, para aquellos quienes sus vidas son despreciadas, odiadas por las naciones, y esclavos de gobernantes: "Reyes te verán y se levantarán, príncipes te verán y se postrarán, por causa del SEÑOR quien es fiel, hasta el Santo de Israel, quien te ha escogido." 8 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: "Al tiempo que Yo decida mostrar mi favor Yo te contestaré, y en un día de salvación Yo te ayudaré; Yo te protegeré, y te daré como un pacto para el pueblo, para reconstruir la tierra, para reasignar la herencia desolada. 9 Tú le dirás a los prisioneros: 'Salgan fuera;' a aquellos en los calabozos oscuros: 'Muéstrense.' Ellos mirarán a lo largo de los caminos; y en todas las laderas descubiertas estarán sus pastos. 10 Ellos no tendrán hambre o sed, ni tampoco el calor del sol los golpeará, porque Aquel quien tiene misericordia de ellos los guiará; Él los guiará a manantiales de agua. 11 Luego Yo haré todas Mis montañas un camino, y nivelaré Mis carreteras." 12 Mirad, éstos vendrán desde muy lejos, algunos del norte y otros del oeste, y otros de la tierra de Sinim. 13 ¡Canten, cielos, y regocíjate, Tierra, rompan en canto, ustedes las montañas! Porque el SEÑOR consuela Su pueblo, y tendrá compasión en Sus afligidos. 14 Pero Sion dijo: "El SEÑOR me ha abandonado, y el Señor se ha olvidado de mí." 15 ¿Puede una mujer olvidar a su bebé, amamantado en su pecho, entonces ella no tiene compasión del hijo que ella ha tenido? Sí, ellas podrán olvidarse, pero Yo no me olvidaré de tí. 16 Mira, Yo he inscrito tu nombre en Mis palmos; tus muros están continuamente delante de Mí. 17 Tus hijos están volviendo con prisa, mientras aquellos que te destruyeron se van. 18 Mira alrededor y observa, todos ellos se están juntando y llegando a tí. Tan cierto como Yo vivo-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- tú seguramente te vestirás con ellos como joyas, y te los pondrás como una novia. 19 Aunque tú eras un desperdicio y una desolación, una tierra que estaba en ruinas, ahora serás demasiada pequeña para los habitantes, y aquellos quienes te devoraron estarán muy lejos. 20 Los niños nacidos durante el tiempo de tu duelo, te dirán al oído: 'El lugar es demasiado estrecho para nosotros, has espacio para nosotros, para que podamos vivir aquí.' 21 Luego, te preguntarás a tí mismo: '¿Quién ha dado a luz a estos niños por mí? Yo estaba en duelo y era estéril, exiliada y divorciada. ¿Quién ha criado estos niños? Mira, me habían dejado completamente sola; ¿de dónde llegaron éstos?''' 22 Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: ''Mira, Yo levantaré Mi mano a las naciones, Yo levantaré Mi bandera de señal a los pueblos. Ellos traerán a tus hijos en sus brazos y cargarán a tus hijas en sus hombros. 23 Reyes serán sus padres adoptivos, y sus reinas las niñeras; ellos se postrarán a tí con sus rostros hacia la tierra y lamerán el polvo de tus pies; y tú sabrás que Yo soy el SEÑOR; aquellos quienes esperan por Mí no serán avergonzados." 24 ¿Se puede quitar el botín a un guerrero, o pueden ser los cautivos rescatados del feroz? 25 Pero esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: "Sí, los cautivos le serán quitados al guerrero, y el botín será rescatado; porque Yo me opondré a tu adversario y salvaré a tus hijos. 26 Yo alimentaré a tus opresores con su propia carne; y ellos se emborracharán con su propia sangre, como si fuera vino. Luego, toda la humanidad sabrá que Yo, el SEÑOR, soy tu Salvador y tu Redentor, el Poderoso de Jacob."

Se habla de que Dios le da fuerza a su siervo como si Dios mismo fuera su fuerza. Traducción alterna: "Mi Dios me ha dado fuerza" o "mi Dios me ha fortalecido"

Yo te haré luz para los gentiles
Se habla del siervo que trae el mensaje del SEÑOR a los gentiles y que les ayuda a entender, como si el SEÑOR hiciera del siervo una luz que brilla entre los gentiles. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 42:5.

hasta los confines de la Tierra
Se habla de los lugares de la tierra que están muy lejanos como si fueran lugares donde la tierra acaba. Esta frase también forma un merismo y se refiere a lo que está en los confines. Traducción alterna: "hasta todos los lugares más lejanos de la tierra" o "hasta la tierra entera"

Isaiah 49:7

Redentor
Traduce esta palabra de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 41:14.

Para aquel cuya vida es despreciada, odiada por las naciones, y esclavo de gobernantes.
Aquí la palabra "vida" representa a la persona. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Aquel a quien las personas despreciaron, a quien las naciones odiaron"

El Santo de Israel
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:4

Isaiah 49:8

En el tiempo que Yo decida mostrar mi favor Yo te voy a contestar, y en un día de salvación Yo te ayudaré
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo.

Yo te voy a contestar Aquí "yo" se refiere al siervo del SEÑOR

en un día de salvación Aquí la palabra "día" se refiere a un momento específico y no a un día de 24 horas. La palabra "salvación" puede ser traducida como verbo. Traducción alterna: "cuando llegue el momento en el que te tenga que salvar"

y te daré como un pacto para el pueblo Aquí la palabra "pacto" es una figura literaria para aquel que establece o media un pacto. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 42:5. Traducción alterna: "hacerte ser el mediador de un pacto con el pueblo"

Reconstruir la tierra
Aquí la palabra "tierra" representa a las ciudades de la tierra que habían sido destruidas. Traducción alterna: "reconstruir las ruinas que quedaron en la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Para reasignar la herencia desolada.
El SEÑOR habla de la tierra como si esta fuera una herencia que el pueblo de Israel recibió como una posesión permanente. Se insinúa que el siervo va a reasignar la tierra del pueblo de Israel. Traducción alterna: "Para reasignar la tierra desolada del pueblo de Israel como su herencia"

Isaiah 49:9

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a su siervo

Ellos mirarán a lo largo de los caminos; y en todas las laderas descubiertas estarán sus pastos
El SEÑOR habla de que su pueblo vive libremente y en prosperidad, como si ellos fueran ovejas que tienen abundancia de pasto para comer.

Isaiah 49:10

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando

Ellos no tendrán
Aquí "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Dios.

Ni tampoco el calor del sol los golpeará
Aqui la palabra "calor" describe a la palabra "sol". Se habla de las personas que sufren el calor del sol como si el calor los golpeara. Traducción alterna: "ni tampoco sufrirán por el calor del sol"

Porque Aquel que tiene misericordia de ellos los guiará
El SEÑOR habla de Él mismo pero en tercera persona. Él habla de proteger y cuidar a su pueblo como si Él fuera su pastor. Traducción alterna: "Yo, el único que tiene misericordia de ellos, los guiaré"

Yo haré todas Mis montañas un camino, y nivelaré Mis carreteras
El SEÑOR habla de guiar de manera segura a su pueblo y de remover obstáculos de su camino como si Él tornara las montañas en caminos y nivelara las carreteras.

Isaiah 49:12

La tierra de Sinim
No se conoce la ubicación de este lugar, pero puede que sea una región en el sur de Egipto.

¡Canten, cielos, y gózate, Tierra, rompan a cantar, ustedes las montañas!
Isaías deja de hablarle al pueblo de Israel y le habla a los cielos, la tierra y las montañas como si estos fueran personas.

Isaiah 49:14

Pero Sion dijo
"Sion" es otra palabra que se usa para Jerusalén. Isaías habla de esta ciudad como si esta fuera una mujer que se queja de que el SEÑOR la ha olvidado.

¿Puede una mujer olvidar a su bebé, amamantado en su pecho, entonces ella no tiene compasión del hijo que ella ha tenido?
El SEÑOR hace esta pregunta para hacerle entender a su pueblo que Él no los olvidará ni dejará de cuidarlos. Traducción alterna: "Una mujer nunca olvidaría amamantar a su bebé o nunca dejaría de cuidar de él, pero incluso si lo hiciera, yo ciertamente no te olvidaré"

Isaiah 49:16

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Sion.

Yo he inscrito tu nombre en mis palmas
El SEÑOR habla de su fuerte devoción hacia Sion como si Él hubiera escrito el nombre de Sion en la palma de sus manos.

tus muros están continuamente delante de Mí.
El SEÑOR habla de que siempre piensa en Sion como si sus muros estuvieran siempre delante de Él. La palabra "muros" es una figura literaria para "ciudad". Traducción alterna: "Siempre pienso en tus muros" o "siempre pienso en ti"

Tus hijos están volviendo con prisa
El SEÑOR habla de las personas que vuelven a vivir en Jerusalén como si ellos fueran los hijos de la ciudad. Traducción alterna: "Tus habitantes están volviendo con prisa"

Tan cierto como que yo vivo
Esta es como una expresión que el SEÑOR usa para garantizar la verdad de lo que está diciendo.

Declaración del SEÑOR
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 14:21

tú seguramente los usarás como joyería, y te los pondrás como una novia.
El SEÑOR habla de los habitantes de Sion como si ellos fueran joyería que la ciudad usa para mostrar su belleza y alegría.

Te los pondrás como una novia
Esta última parte de la frase puede ser entendida por la frase anterior. Traducción alterna: "Te los pondrás, así como una novia usa su joyería"

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Sion como si esta fuera una mujer.

Aunque tú eras un desperdicio y una desolación
Las palabras "desperdicio" y "desolación" significan básicamente lo mismo y hacen énfasis en que el enemigo destruyó a Sion y la dejó vacía. Traducción alterna: "Aunque eras una desolación"

Aquellos que te devoraron
Se habla de que el enemigo de Sion destruyó a Sion como si la hubiera devorado. Traducción alterna: "aquellos que te destruyeron"

Los niños que nacerán durante el tiempo de tu duelo
El SEÑOR habla del tiempo en el que el pueblo de Jerusalén estaba en exilio como si la ciudad estuviera de duelo por sus hijos. Se habla de aquellos que nacieron cuando el pueblo estaba en exilio como si fueran los hijos de la ciudad. Traducción alterna: "aquellos que te habitarán, que nacieron mientras el pueblo estaba en exilio"

El lugar es muy lleno para nosotros
Esto significa que habrá tantas personas que la ciudad será muy chica para que todos vivan en ella.

Isaiah 49:21

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Sion como si esta fuera una mujer.

¿Quién ha dado a luz a estos niños por mí?
Sion habla de las personas que están volviendo para habitar en ella como si esas personas fueran sus hijos. La pregunta de Sion expresa su sorpresa de que ahora muchos hijos pertenecen a ella.

Yo estaba en duelo y era estéril, exiliada y divorciada
Sion se describe a ella misma como una mujer que no podía tener más hijos. Esto indica las razones de su gran sorpresa.

Yo estaba en duelo y era estéril
"Yo lloraba por mis hijos muertos y porque no era capaz de tener más"

Exiliada y divorciada
"Fui enviada lejos, sin un esposo"

¿Quién ha criado estos niños? Mira, me habían dejado completamente sola; ¿de dónde llegaron ellos?'' Otra vez, Sion hace preguntas para expresar su sorpresa. Traducción alterna: "Mira, me habían dejado completamente sola; ahora todos estos niños que yo no crié han venido hacia mí"

Isaiah 49:22

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Sion como si esta fuera una mujer. Él explica cómo ella es tan capaz de tener tantos hijos.

Yo levantaré Mi mano a las naciones, Yo levantaré Mi bandera de señal para las personas Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción alterna: "Levantaré mis manos y mi bandera como señal para que las personas de las naciones vengan"

Ellos traerán a tus hijos en sus brazos y cargarán a tus hijas en sus hombros.
El SEÑOR habla de las personas que habitarán Jerusalén como si ellos fueran los hijos de la ciudad. Él también habla de las personas de otras naciones que ayudarán a los Israelitas a volver a Jerusalén, como si ellos estuvieran llevando a los Israelitas.

Isaiah 49:23

Reyes serán sus padres adoptivos, y sus reinas las niñeras
El SEÑOR habla de las personas que habitarán Sion como si ellas fueran los hijos de la ciudad. Los términos "padres adoptivos" y "niñeras" se refieren a los hombres y las mujeres que serán responsables de cuidar a los hijos. Traducción alterna: "Los reyes y reinas de otras naciones proveerán para tus habitantes"

Ellos se postrarán a ti con sus rostros hacia la tierra y lamerán el polvo de tus pies Estas frases describen gestos que las personas usaban para demostrar completa sumisión a un superior.

Lameran el polvo de tus pies
Los posibles significados son 1) esto es una expresión literal de sumisión donde las personas lamen el polvo de los pies de un superior o del suelo donde están los pies de un superior o 2) esto es una expresión idiomática que describe cómo una persona se postra ante un superior.

No serán avergonzados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no los avergonzaré" o "no los decepcionaré"

El botín
Objetos valiosos que se les quita a los perdedores en una batalla.

¿Se le pueda quitar el botín a un guerrero, o pueden ser los cautivos rescatados del feroz?
Isaías hace esta pregunta para expresar lo difícil que es quitarle algo a un poderoso soldado o a un fuerte guerrero. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Una persona no puede tomar el botín de un guerrero o rescatar cautivos de los soldados feroces"

Los cautivos le serán quitados al guerrero, y el botín será rescatado
El SEÑOR dice que Él hará lo que para los hombres normalmente es imposible de hacer. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Yo le quitaré los cautivos al guerrero y rescataré el botín"

Yo...salvaré a tus hijos
El SEÑOR habla del pueblo que vivirá en Sion como si ellos fueran los hijos de la ciudad.

Isaiah 49:26

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Sion como si este fuera una persona.

Yo alimentaré a tus opresores con su propia carne
Los posibles significados son 1) Los opresores estarán tan hambrientos que comerán la carne de sus amigos muertos. Traducción alterna: "Haré que tus opresores coman su propia carne" o 2) El SEÑOR habla de que los opresores pelean y se destruyen a si mismos como si estuvieran comiéndose a ellos mismos. Traducción alterna: "Haré que tus opresores se destruyan a si mismos, como si estuvieran comiendo su propia carne"

Y ellos se emborracharán con su propia sangre, como si fuera vino
Los posibles significados son 1) Los opresores estarán tan sedientos que beberán la sangre de sus amigos muertos. Traducción alterna: "Y ellos beberán la sangre de sus amigos y serán como débiles que se emborrachan con vino" o 2)El SEÑOR habla de que los opresores pelean entre ellos y se destruyen a sí mismos como si estuvieran bebiendo su propia sangre. Chapter 50

1 Esto es lo que El SEÑOR dice: "¿Dónde está el certificado de divorcio por el cuál Yo me divorcié de tu madre? ¿A cuál de mis acreedores te vendí? Mira, tú fuistes vendida por tus pecados y por tu rebelión, tu madre fue enviada lejos. 2 ¿Por qué vine sino había nadie allí? ¿Por qué llamé y nadie contestó? ¿Era Mi mano muy corta para rescatarte? ¿No había poder dentro de Mí para rescatarte? Mira, a Mi reprensión Yo voy secar el mar; Yo hago de los ríos un desierto; sus peces mueren por falta de agua y se pudren. 3 Yo visto los cielos de oscuridad; Yo lo cubro con cilicio." 4 El SEÑOR me ha dado una lengua como a uno de esos que son enseñados, para que yo hable una palabra de sustento al fatigado; Él me levanta mañana tras mañana; Él despierta mi oído para escuchar como esos que son enseñados. 5 El SEÑOR ha abierto mi oído, y yo no fui rebelde, ni dí vuelta atrás. 6 Le dí mi espalda a los que me azotaban, y mis mejillas a quienes arrancaban mi barba; no escondí mí rostro de actos de vergüenza y de escupitajos. 7 Pues, ÉL SEÑOR me ayudará; por lo tanto no he caído en desgracia; por eso he puesto mi rostro como pedernal, y sé que no seré avergonzado. 8 Aquel quien me justificará está cerca. ¿Quién se opondrá a mí? Levantémonos y confortémonos uno al otro. ¿Quién es mí acusador? Dejálo que se acerque a mí. 9 Vean, el SEÑOR me ayudará. ¿Quién me declarará culpable? Vean, ellos se desgastarán como un vestido; la polilla se los comerá. 10 ¿Quién entre ustedes teme al SEÑOR? ¿Quién obedece la voz de su siervo? ¿Quién camina en la oscuridad sin tener luz? El debe confiar en el nombre del SEÑOR y apoyarse en su Dios. 11 Vean, todos los que encienden fuegos, los que se equipan con antorchas: caminen en la luz de su fuego y en las llamas que han encendido. Esto es lo que has recibido de mí: tú yacerás en un lugar de dolor.

Isaiah 50:1

¿Dónde está el certificado de divorcio con el cual yo me divorcié de tu madre?
Jehová habla de Sión como si la ciudad fuera la madre del pueblo que vivió allí y de enviar al pueblo al exilio como si estuviera divorciándose de su madre.(Ver:|Metaphor)

¿Dónde está el certificado de divorcio con el cual yo me divorcié de tu madre?
Jehová hace esta pregunta retórica para que el pueblo produjera "el certificado de divorcio" que proveería la razón por la cual Jehová los envió al exilio. TA: "Muéstrame el certificado de divorcio por el cual yo me divorcié de tu madre" (Ver|Rhetorical Question)

¿A cuál de mis acreedores te he vendido?
Jehová realiza esta pregunta para enfatizar que El no los vendió porque tuviera una deuda con un acreedor. Está implícito que esto es lo que el pueblo había pensado. TA: "No te vendí porque le debiera algo a alguien" Ver:|Rhetorical Question and| Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

¿A cuál de mis acreedores te he vendido?
Jehová habla de enviar al pueblo al exilio como si estuviera vendiéndolos. (Ver:|Metaphor)

Fuiste vendido a causa de tus pecados, y por causa de tu rebelión tu madre fue enviada lejos.
Jehová da la razón de haber enviado a Su pueblo al exilio, de lo cual El habla figurativamente como si El lo hubiera vendido y se hubiera divorciado de su madre. TA: " Te vendi a causa de tus pecados, y me divorcié de tu madre a causa de tus rebeliones". Ver |Metaphor and|Active or Passive)

Isaiah 50:2

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

¿Porqué vine pero no había nadie allí? ¿Porqué llamé y nadie contestó?
Estas dos oraciones significan básicamente lo mismo. Jehová utiliza preguntas para enfatizar que el pueblo está en exilio porque no Le respondieron, no porque El no estuviera dispuesto a salvarlos. TA: ""Cuando vine a Uds., Uds. deberían haber estado allí, pero no estaban. Cuando los llamé, Uds. deberian haber respondido, pero no lo hicieron" o "Cuando vine a hablarles, Uds. no me respondieron" (Ver: and)

¿Era mi mano demasiado corta para redimirlos? ¿No había poder en mí para rescatarlos?
Jehová utiliza dos preguntas similares para reprender al pueblo por creer que El no era lo suficientemente fuerte para rescatarlos. TA: "Mi mano ciertamente no era demasiado corta para que yo los redimiera, y yo tenía el poder para rescatarlos!" o "Yo ciertamente tengo el poder de rescatarlos de sus enemigos.

Era mi mano demasiado corta Aquí la palabra "mano" representa el poder de Jehová. Que Jehová no fuera lo suficientemente fuerte se menciona como que Su mano fuera corta. TA: "¿No era yo lo suficientemente fuerte?"

No había poder en mi
"¿No tenía yo el poder?"

Yo hago de los ríos un desierto Jehová habla de secar los ríos como si El estuviera convirtiéndolos en un desierto. TA: "Yo pongo los ríos tan secos como un desierto" sus peces mueren por falta de agua y se pudren

"Sus peces mueren y se pudren por falta de agua". La palabra "sus" hace referencia al mar y los ríos.

Yo visto el cielo con oscuridad; lo cubro con arpillera
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Jehová habla de hacer que el cielo se vuelva oscuro como si estuviera vistiéndolo con cilicio. TA "Yo vuelvo el cielo oscuro, como si él estuviera vistiendo cilicio oscuro." (Ver: y)

Isaiah 50:4

Información General
El siervo de Jehová comienza a hablar.

El Señor Jehová me ha dado una lengua como uno de aquellos que son instruidos La palabra lengua" representa lo que él dice. Los significados posibles son 1) Jehová le ha permitido hablar como uno que ha aprendido a hablar con destreza. TA "El Señor Jehová me ha permitido ser un hábil orador. o 2) Jehová le ha enseñado qué decir TA "El Señor Jehová me ha permitido decir lo que El me ha enseñado

El despierta mi oído para escuchar
Aqui "mi oído" se refiere al siervo de Jehová. Que Jehová le haya permitido oír y entender lo que Jehová le enseña, se menciona como que Jehová ha despertado su oído del sueño. TA "El me ha permitido a mí entender lo que El dice."

Como aquellos que son instruídos
El siervo se compara a sí mismo con un estudiante que aprende de su maestro. Los significados posibles con 1) "como uno que aprende de su maestro ó 2) "como uno a quien El ha enseñado"

Isaiah 50:5

Información General:
El siervo de Jehová continúa hablando

El Señor Jehová ha abierto mi oído
Que Jehová haga posible que su siervo escuche y entienda se menciona como que Jehová ha abierto su oído. TA: "El Señor Jehová ha hecho posible que yo Lo escuche y entienda"

Y yo no fui rebelde ni volteé hacia atrás
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Se menciona que desobedecer lo que Jehová dijo es como darLe la espalda. Esto puede ser afirmado en términos positivos. TA "Y yo obedecí lo que EL dijo"

Ofrecí mi espalda a aquellos que me azotaban y mis mejillas a quienes arrancaban mi barba
Se menciona el permitir que la gente lo azoten y arranquen su barba como que les estuviera ofreciendo su espalda y sus mejillas a ellos. TA: "Yo permití que azotaran mi espalda y arrancaran mi barba de mis mejillas"

No escondí mi rostro de los agravios y las escupidas
Esconder el rostro significa protegerse. TA: "No me defendí cuando me burlaron y cuando me escupieron"

Isaiah 50:7

Informacion General:
El siervo de Jehová continúa hablando

Por lo tanto no he caido en desgracia
Aunque el siervo ha sido maltratado, el no se avergonzará porque el ha obedecido a Jehová. Esto puede ser afirmado de forma positiva. TA: "Por lo tanto no seré avergonzado"

Así que he vuelto mi rostro como piedra
Aquí "mi rostro" se refiere al siervo. Que el siervo esté tan firmemente convencido a obedecer a Jehová se menciona como que su rostro está tan duro como piedra. TA: "así que estoy absolutamente resuelto"

Porque sé que no seré avergonzado
El siervo mira al futuro con confianza, seguro del llamado de Jehová. Esto puede ser afirmado de una manera activa. TA: "Porque sé que mis enemigos no podrán hacerme sentir verguenza"

Isaiah 50:8

Información General
El siervo de Jehová continúa hablando

¿Quien me resistirá? Acerquémonos... ¿Quien es mi acusador? Déjalo venir El siervo utiliza estas preguntas para enfatizar que no hay nadie que legítimamente lo acuse de vil. TA: "Si alguien se opusiera a mi, acerquémonos... si alguien me acusara, déjalo venir"

Quien me declarará culpable?
El siervo utiliza esta pregunta para asegurar que nadie puede declararlo culpable. TA: "No hay nadie que pueda declararme culpable"

Ellos se desgastarán como un vestido; la polilla los comerá Que no haya quedado nadie que acuse al siervo de ser culpable es mencionado como que los acusadores son vestidos que se desgastan y son comidos por la polilla"

Información General
El siervo continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Quien entre Uds teme a Jehová? ¿Quien obedece a la voz de su siervo? ¿Quien camina en la oscuridad profunda sin luz? El debería... su Dios.
El siervo utiliza estas preguntas para identificar a aquellos a quienes está hablando. TA: "Si alguien entre Uds teme a Jehová y obedece a la voz de Su siervo, pero camina en oscuridad profunda sin luz, entonces, él debería... su Dios"

Obedece a la voz de Su siervo
Aquí la palabra "voz" representa lo que el siervo dice. TA: "obedecer a Su siervo"

Camina en oscuridad profunda sin luz
El siervo habla del pueblo que está sufriendo y que se sienten desamparados como si estuvieran caminando en un lugar muy oscuro. TA: "está sufriendo y se siente desamparado"

Confíe en el nombre de Jehová y apóyese en su Dios Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa a Jehová mismo. Se representa el confiar en Dios como si fuera apoyándose en El. TA: "confiar en Jehová, su Dios"

Isaiah 50:11

Todos ustedes que encienden fuegos... llamas que han encendido
Esto continúa la metáfora del versículo anterior sobre las personas que caminan en oscuridad. Aquí, las personas que tratan de vivir de acuerdo a su propia sabiduría en lugar de confiar en Jehová son referidas como que encienden sus propios fuegos y llevan antorchas a fin de ver en la oscuridad.

Yacerán en un lugar de dolor
Aquí "yacer" se refiere a morir. Morir con dolor es mencionado como acostarse en un lugar donde experimentarán dolor. TA: "morirán con gran dolor"

Chapter 51

1 Escúchenme, ustedes que van tras la justicia, ustedes que buscan a SEÑOR: miren a la roca de la que fueron cincelados y de la cantera de la que fueron cortados. 2 Miren a Abraham, su padre, y a Sara, quien les dio a luz; pues cuando era un solo individuo, Yo lo llamé. Yo lo bendije y lo multipliqué. 3 Sí, el SEÑOR consolará a Sion; Él consolará todos sus lugares desolados; su desierto Él hizo como Edén, y sus llanuras desérticas al lado del valle del Río Jordán, como el jardín del SEÑOR; gozo y contentamiento se encontrará en ella, acción de gracias, y el sonido de canción. 4 "¡Está atento a Mí, Mi pueblo; y escúchame, Mi pueblo! Pues Yo emitiré un decreto, y Yo haré que Mi justica sea una luz para las naciones. 5 Mi justicia está cerca; Mi salvación saldrá, y Mi brazo juzgará las naciones; las tierras costeras esperarán por Mí; pues Mi brazo ellos inquietamente esperarán. 6 Levanten sus ojos al cielo, y miren a la tierra abajo, pues los cielos desvanecerán como humo, la Tierra se quitará como una prenda, y sus habitantes morirán como moscas. Pero Mi salvación continuará para siempre, y mi justica nunca cesará de obrar. 7 Escúchenme a Mí, ustedes que saben lo que es correcto, ustedes, pueblo, que tienen Mi ley en su corazón: No teman los insultos del hombre, ni sean desalentados por su abuso. 8 Pues, la polilla se los comerá como un vestido, y el gusano se los comerá como lana; pero Mi justicia será para siempre, y Mi salvación para todas las generaciones." 9 Despierta, despierta, vístete con fuerza, brazo del SEÑOR. Despierta como en los días de antaño, las generaciones de tiempos antiguos. ¿No eres Tú quien aplastó a Rahab, Tú quien traspasó al monstruo? 10 ¿No secaste Tú el mar, las aguas de la gran profundidad, e hiciste la profundidad del mar un camino para que los redimidos atravesaran? 11 Los rescatados del SEÑOR regresarán y vendrán a Sion con llantos de alegría y con gozo para siempre en sus cabezas; y el gozo y la alegría les sobrepasarán, y el dolor y el lamento huirán. 12 "Yo, Yo soy Quien los consuela. ¿Por qué le temen a hombres, quienes morirán, los hijos de la raza humana, quienes son hechos como la hierba? 13 ¿Por qué se han olvidado del SEÑOR su Creador, quien extendió los cielos y estableció los fundamentos de la Tierra? Ustedes están en terror constante cada día por causa de la ardiente furia del opresor cuando decide destruir. ¿Dónde está la furia del opresor? 14 Aquel quien esté inclinado, el SEÑOR se apresurará a liberar, él no morirá y descenderá al sepulcro, y tampoco carecerá de pan. 15 Pues, Yo Soy el SEÑOR su Dios, Quien agita el mar de modo que rujan sus olas, el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es Su nombre. 16 Yo he puesto Mis palabras en tu boca, y Yo te he cubierto en la sombra de Mi mano, para que Yo pueda establecer los cielos, sentar las bases de la Tierra, y decirle a Sion: 'Ustedes son Mi pueblo.' 17 Despierta, despierta, levántate, Jerusalén, tú que has bebido de la mano del SEÑOR del recipiente de Su enojo, tú que has bebido del recipiente, hasta el residuo de la copa del mareo. 18 No hay ninguno entre todos los hijos que a ella le han nacido que la guíe; no hay ninguno entre todos los hijos que ella ha criado que la tome por la mano. 19 Estos dos problemas te sucedieron a tí-¿Quién hará duelo contigo? Desolación y destrucción, y la hambruna y la espada. ¿Quién te consolará? 20 Tus hijos han desmayado; ellos yacen en cada esquina de la calle, como un antílope en una red; ellos están llenos con la ira del SEÑOR, la reprensión de tu Dios. 21 Pero, ahora escucha esto, tú oprimida y ebria, pero no ebria por vino: 22 Tú SEÑOR Dios, tú Dios, quien aboga la causa de su pueblo dice esto: "Mira, yo he tomado la copa del mareo de tu mano, el recipiente, el cual es la copa de Mi enojo, para que tú no bebas de él otra vez." 23 Yo lo pondré en la mano de tus atormentadores, aquellos quienes dijeron a tí: 'Acuéstate, para que podamos caminar sobre tí'; hiciste tu espalda como el suelo y como la calle para que ellos caminaran sobre."

Isaiah 51:1

Éscúchame
Aquí se refiere a Jehová

Mira a la roca... y a la cantera.
Mirar algo representa pensar acerca de ello. TA: "Piensa acerca de la roca... y la cantera"

La roca de la cual fuiste cincelado y la cantera de la cual fuiste cortado Dios le habla a la nación de Israel como si fuera un edificio hecho de piedras y como si sus ancestros fueran una roca o cantera de la cual Dios los cortó. Esto puede ser afirmado claramente. TA: "tus ancestros, que son como una roca de la cual tú fuiste cincelado y una cantera de la cual fuiste cortado"

La roca de la cual fuiste cincelado
Esto puede decirse en la forma activa. TA: "La roca de la cual yo te cincelé"

Cincelado
"Cortado con cincel" o "cortado"

Abraham, tu padre
Dios habla del antepasado de ellos como si fuera el padre de ellos. TA: "Abraham, tu antepasado" o "Abraham, tu ancestro".

Sarah, quien te dio a luz Dios habla de la esposa de Abraham como si ella fuera su madre y los hubiera dado a luz a ellos. TA:"La esposa de Abraham, Sarah, de quien todos ustedes son descendientes"

Cuando era un individuo solo
Esto significa que no tenía hijos aún. Esto puede ser afirmado claramente. TA: "cuando él no tenía hijos"

Lo multiplicó
Dios se refiere a los descendientes de Abraham como muchos, como si Abraham fuera muchos. TA: "Hizo a sus descendientes muchos" o "hizo que él tuviera muchos descendientes"

Isaiah 51:3

Jehová consolará a Sión
La ciudad de Sión, que también es llamada Jerusalén, aquí representa al pueblo de Sion TA: "Jehová consolará al pueblo de Sión"

El consolará todos sus lugares desolados
"El consolará al pueblo que vive en todos sus lugares desolados"

Sus lugares desolados.. su desierto...sus llanuras desérticas
La palabra "su" se refiere a Sión. Las ciudades a menudo son mencionadas en el femenino.

los lugares yermos
lugares que han sido destruídos

Sus desiertos, El los hizo como el Edén, y las llanuras desérticas.. como el jardín de Jehová Estas frases significan que Jehová convertirá en hermosos los lugares desérticos de Israel. En profecías, los eventos que ocurrirán en el futuro, a menudo son descriptos como que estuvieran en el pasado. Esto enfatiza que ciertamente ocurrirán. TA:"El convertirá a sus desiertos como el Edén y sus llanuras desérticas... como el jardín de Jehová"

Se hallarán en ella jubilo y regocijo Júbilo y regocijo significan la misma cosa. Se hallarán allí representa que estarán allí. TA: "habrá júbilo y regocijo en Sión nuevamente"

Isaiah 51:4

Informacion General
Jehová habla al pueblo de Israel

Estén atentos a mi... escúchenme
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Juntas, refuerzan la orden de escuchar.

Haré que mi justicia sea una luz para las naciones
Aquí la justicia de Dios representa Su ley y una luz representa el conocimiento de lo que está bien. Esto significa que la gente de las naciones entenderán y obedecerán la ley de Dios. TA: "Mi ley enseñará a las naciones qué es correcto" o "las naciones conocerán mi ley"

Mi justicia está cerca
La idea de "cerca" representa "pronto". Que la justicia de Dios esté cerca significa que pronto El mostrará Su justicia. El hará esto cumpliendo Sus promesas y salvando a las personas. TA: "Pronto Yo les mostraré mi justicia"

Mi salvación saldrá
Dios habla de salvar a las personas como si Su salvación fuera una cosa que pueda salir hacia ellos. TA: "Yo salvaré a las personas"

Mi brazo juzgará a las naciones
Aquí el brazo de Dios representa Su poder, y el juicio significa Su gobierno. TA: "Yo gobernaré a las naciones con mi poder"

Las costas
Esto hace referencia a los pueblos que viven sobre las cosas de tierras lejanas cruzando el mar. TA:"la gente que vive en las tierras costeras" o "las personas que viven en las tierras cruzando el mar"

Porque ellos esperarán ansiosamente mi brazo
Aquí el brazo de Dios representa lo que El hará. Aquí se refiere a que El salvará a las personas. TA: "Ellos esperarán ansiosamente a que Yo haga algo" o "Ellos esperarán ansiosamente que Yo los salve"

Mi salvación continuará por siempre
La "salvación" de Dios aqui representa el resultado de Su salvación, que es la libertad. TA: "Yo los salvaré, Uds. serán libres por siempre"

Mi justicia nunca parará de trabajar
La "justicia" de Dios aquí Lo representa gobernando con justicia. TA: "mI gobierno justo nunca acabará" o "Yo gobernaré en justicia por siempre"

Isaiah 51:7

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Que tienen Mi ley en su corazón
Tener la Ley de Dios en el corazón representa conocer la Ley de Dios y desear obedecerla. TA: "Que conocen y respetan mi ley"

Ni sean desalentados por su maltrato
Esto puede ser expresado en la forma activa. TA:" y no pierdan su coraje cuando los lastimen"

Porque la polilla los ccomerá como a una prenda, y el gusano los comerá como lana Dios habla de las personas que maltratan a aquellos que son justos como si fueran prendas de lana, y de su destrucción como si fueran comidos por insectos.

Mi justicia será por siempre
La "justicia" de Dios aquí Lo representa a El gobernando con justicia. TA: "mi gobierno justo será para siempre" o "Yo gobernaré con justicia por siempre"

Y mi salvación para todas las generaciones
La "salvación" de Dios aquí representa el resultado de Su salvación, que es la libertad. Que sea "para todas las generaciones" representa que durará por siempre. TA: " "Yo los salvaré y Uds. serán libres por siempre".

Isaiah 51:9

Despierta, despierta, vístete con fortaleza, brazo de Jehová
Las personas rápidamente solicitan el brazo de Jehová para ayudarlos, como si Su brazo fuera una persona. Si fuera extraño hablarle al brazo, esto en cambio puede ser dirigido directamente a Jehová. TA: "despierta, despierta Jehová, y viste tu brazo con fuerza"

Despierta, despierta,.... brazo de Jehová
El pueblo habla como si el brazo de Jehová estuviera dormido porque no los ha estado ayudando. Ellos quieren que los ayude. La palabra "despierta" se repite para mostrar que necesitan la ayuda de Dios urgentemente.

Vístete con fuerza
Se habla de la fuerza como si fuera algún tipo de prenda que las personas pudieran usar para fortalecerlos en la batalla. TA: " hazte fuerte"

¿No eres tú quien aplastó al monstruo marino, Tú quien traspasó al dragón?
El que habla utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar el poder de Jehová para hacer cosas poderosas. TA: "Eres Tú quien aplastó al monstruo marino, Tú quien traspasó al dragón".

El monstruo marino... el dragón
Ambos significan la misma cosa. Hacen referencia a Rahab, la serpiente mitológica que vive en el mar, que puede simbolizar tanto la nación de Egipto como la maldad y el caos.

¿No secaste el mar... para que los redimidos lo cruzaran?
Una vez más, el que habla utiliza las preguntas para enfatizar el poder de Jehová para hacer cosas poderosas. Esto se refiere a cuando Jehová abrió el Mar Rojo para que los Israelitas cruzaran y escaparan del ejército de Egipto. TA: "Tú secaste el mar... para que los redimidos cruzaran".

Isaiah 51:11

Información General
Esto es muy similar a 35:10.

Los redimidos de Jehová
"Redimir" significa "rescatar". Esto se refiere al pueblo que Jehová ha rescatado. TA: "Aquellos a quienes Jehová ha rescatado"

con regocijo por siempre sobre sus cabezas Esto utiliza la cabeza de una persona para representar la persona como un todo. TA: "Estarán regocijados por siempre" regocijo y gozo... tristeza y lamentación

Las palabras "regocijo" y "gozo" significan básicamente la misma cosa, tal como "tristeza" y "lamentación". Juntas enfatizan la intensidad de estas emociones.

El regocijo y el gozo los sobrepasarán
Esto habla del pueblo siendo abrumado por el regocijo y el gozo dándoles a las emociones la cualidad humana de sobrepasar a alguien. TA: "Ellos serán abrumados por el regocijo y el gozo" o "Ellos estarán extremadamente regocijados y gozosos".

La tristeza y la lamentación huirán
Esto dice que pueblo ya no estará triste y lamentándose al hablar de estas emociones como si pudieran huir corriendo. TA: "Ya no estarán tristes y lamentándose"

Hacedor
Traduce este nombre de Jehová como lo hiciste en 17:6.

Que extendió los cielos
"Que extendió el cielo". Esto dice que Jehová ha creado los cielos como si los hubiera extendido del mismo modo que uno extendería una prenda grande. TA: "quien extendió los cielos como una prenda"

los cimientos de la tierra
La palabra "cimiento" generalmente se refiere a la estructura de piedra que da apoyo a un edificio desde abajo. Aquí describe una estructura similar, que fue pensada para apoyar y sostener a la tierra en su lugar. Traduzca esta frase del mismo modo que lo hizo en 24:17.

La furia caliente del opresor cuando decide destruir.
"La furia caliente del opresor cuando él decide causar destrucción"

furia caliente
Aquí la palabra "caliente" significa "fuerte" o "muy grande" TA: "gran furia"

¿Donde está la furia del opresor?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar que el pueblo no debería temer a aquellos que quieren oprimirlos. Sus opresores ya no son una amenaza para ellos. Esto puede ser escrito como una afirmación: TA: "la furia del opresor no es una amenaza!"

Isaiah 51:14

tampoco carecerá de pan
Aquí "pan" significa la comida en general. Esto puede ser escrito en forma positiva. TA: "tampoco estará sin comida"

Que agita el mar
Esto habla de Jehová que hace que el mar se mueva y que las olas se eleven y desciendan como si El estuviera sacudiendo el mar como uno sacude el contenido de un bowl con una cuchara grande. TA: "que causa que el mar se agite" o "que hace que el mar se mueva hacia arriba y abajo"

Sus olas rugen
El rugido es un sonido fuerte y poderoso, hecho por algo que está vivo, tal como un oso o un león. Aquí se describen las olas como haciendo este sonido poderoso. TA: "sus olas se estrellan ruidosamente"

Jehová de los Ejércitos
Traduzca este nombre de Jehová como lo hizo en 1:9.

Isaiah 51:16

Yo he puesto mis palabras en tu boca Esto se refiere a Jehová diciéndole a Isaías qué decir, como si Sus palabras fueran un objeto físico que Jehová ha colocado en la boca de Isaías. TA: "Yo te he dicho qué decir"

Yo te he cubierto en la sombra de mi mano.
La "mano" de Jehová se refiere a Su poder. Esto habla de Jehová protegiendo a Isaías como si Su mano estuviera cubriéndolo para protegerlo. TA: "Mi poder te ha mantenido a salvo" o "Yo te he protegido y mantenido a salvo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Que yo pueda plantar los cielos
La palabra "Plantar" significa establecer algo en el suelo. Aquí, que Jehová establece firmemente los cielos es mencionado como si los cielos fueran una tienda que El pueda extender y establecer firmemente en su lugar con estacas. TA: "Que Yo pueda establecer los cielos"

establecer los cimientos de la tierra
La palabra "cimiento" generalmente se refiere a una estructura de piedra que otorga sustento a un edificio desde abajo. Aquí describe una estructura similar que fue pensada para sustentar y sostener a la Tierra en su lugar. Ver cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 24:17.

Isaiah 51:17

Despierta, despierta, levántate Jerusalén
Aqui "Jerusalén" representa al pueblo que vive allí. Jehová habla al pueblo de Jerusalén como si ellos Lo estuvieran escuchando a El. TA: "Despierten, despierten, levántense Uds., pueblo de Israel.

Tú que has bebido de la mano de Jehová...de la copa del mareo Jehová habla de haber castigado a Su pueblo como si El los hubiera forzado a beber de un recipiente que estaba lleno de Su ira. Y cuando ellos bebieron del recipiente de Su ira, ellos se marearon como si ellos hubieran bebido mucho vino.

Hasta el residuo
La palabra "residuo" significan los trozos sólidos al fondo de un recipiente que tiene líquido en él. TA: "hasta el fondo"

De la mano de Jehová
Aqui se menciona a Jehová como Su mano para enfatizar que es El quien le dio el recipiente a Su pueblo. TA: "que El te dio"

De la copa del mareo
"de la copa que hizo que te marearas como si estuvieras ebria de vino"

Mareo
No caminar derecho, o trastabillando al caminar

No hay nadie ... que la guíe; no hay nadie... que la tome de la mano
Estas dos cáusulas tienen el mismo significado y pueden ser combinadas. Esto habla de Jerusalén indefensa como si la ciudad fuera una mujer ebria sin un hijo que la ayude a caminar sin peligro. TA: " No tienes a nadie que te ayude! Eres como una vieja mujer ebria sin un hijo que la tome de la mano y la guíe"

Isaiah 51:19

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

¿Quien se entristecerá contigo?...¿Quien te consolará?
Isaías utiliza las preguntas para enfatizar que ahora no hay nadie que se lamente con ellos o los consuele. Estas preguntas pueden ser escritas como afirmaciones. TA: "Pero no hay nadie que se lamente con Uds.... No hay nadie que te consuele."

Estos dos problemas
Los dos problemas se refieren a las siguientes dos frases: "desolación y destrucción" y "la hambruna y la espada"

Desolación y destrucción
Estas palabras tienen significado similar y enfatizan la destrucción de la tierra causada por el ejército enemigo. TA:" tus enemigos han dejado a tu ciudad vacía y en ruinas"

La hambruna y la espada
Las palabras "hambruna" y "espada" describen el problema que sobrevendrá sobre el pueblo. La palabra "espada" se refiere a "guerra" TA: "muchos de Uds. han muerto de hambre y por la guerra"

Ellos yacen en cada esquina
Esto es una generalización, que significa que los niños yacerán en las calles, pero no necesariamente en cada esquina. TA: "Ellos yacen en las calles"

Como un antílope en la red
Esto habla de los niños que están exhaustos y desamparados como si ellos fueran un antílope atrapado en una trampa. TA: "ellos están desamparados, como un antílope atrapado en una red" o "tan desamparado como un antílope atrapado"

Antílope
Este es un animal, parecido al ciervo, que tiene cuernos y corre muy rápido. TA: "ciervo"

Están llenos de la ira de Jehová, la reprensión de tu Dios.
La "ira de Jehová" se refiere a Jehová castigando a Su pueblo debido a Su enojo contra ellos. Esto habla del pueblo que ha debido ser severamente castigado como si ellos se hubieran llenado de la ira de Jehová. La palabra "reprensión" también puede ser escrita como un verbo. TA: "Ellos han sido severamente castigados por Jehová porque El se enojó con ellos y los reprendió"

Isaiah 51:21

Ebria, pero no ebria de vino
Esto habla de la gente actuando como si estuvieran ebrios porque están sufriendo como si se hubieran embriagado al ser forzados a beber el recipiente de la ira de Jehová. TA: "Tú que estás ebria de beber el vino del recipiente de la ira de Jehová" o "Tú que actúas como ebria, porque has sufrido mucho"

Vean, Yo he tomado el vaso del mareo de sus manos - el recipiente, que es el vaso de mi ira- para que Esto habla de Jehová que ya no está enojado con Su pueblo como si Su ira fuera el contenido de un vaso que El estaba quitándoles a ellos. TA: "Ya no estaré enojado con Uds. Vean, es como si Yo les hubiera quitado el vaso que los hacía marear, eso es, el vaso que estaba lleno de mi ira, para que.."

Vean
Esto es un modismo utilizado para llevar la atención de los oyentes a lo que se dice después. TA: "Escuchen"

El vaso del mareo
La palabra "vaso" se refiere a lo que está en el vaso. Ver cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 51:17. TA: "el vaso de vino que hace que la gente se maree"

El recipiente, el cual es el vaso de mi ira Jehová habla de haber castigado al pueblo como si El los hubiera forzado a beber de un recipiente que estaba lleno de Su ira. Ver cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 51:17. TA: "El recipiente que está lleno de mi ira" o "el vaso que está lleno de mi ira.

Isaiah 51:23

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole al pueblo de Israel

Te pondré en las manos de tus angustiadores
Esto habla de Jehová castigando a sus enemigos como si El fuera a forzarlos a beber del vaso lleno de Su ira.

Te pondré en las manos de tus angustiadores
Se implica que poniendo el vaso de Su ira en sus manos, Jehova estará forzándolos a beber lo que está en ese vaso. TA: "Yo forzaré a tus angustiadores a beber del vino del recipiente de mi ira"

Tus angustiadores
La palabra "angustiadores" puede ser expresada como un verbo. TA: "Aquellos que te angustiaron" o "Aquellos que causaron tu sufrimiento"

Hiciste tu espalda como el suelo y como la calle para que ellos caminaran Esto compara el modo cómo sus enemigos caminaron sobre sus espaldas con el modo como la gente camina sobre las calles. TA: "yaciste en las calles para que tus enemigos pudieran caminar sobre tus espaldas."

Chapter 52

1 Despierta, despierta, vístete de tu poder, Sion; ponte tus vestidos hermosos, Jerusalén, ciudad santa; pues nunca más los incircuncisos o los inmundos entrarán. 2 "Sacudate tú del polvo; levántate y siéntate, Jerusalén; quítate la cadena del cuello, cautiva, hija de Sion. 3 Pues esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Tú fuiste vendida por nada, y tú serás redimida sin dinero." 4 Pues esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR Dios: "En el principio Mi pueblo descendió a Egipto para vivir temporeramente; Asiria los había oprimido recientemente. 5 ¿Ahora qué es lo que tengo aquí - esta es declaración del SEÑOR -- viendo que Mi pueblo se lo llevan sin causa? Los que gobernaban sobre ellos se burlaban--esta es declaración del SEÑOR- y Mi nombre es calumniado continuamente todo el día. 6 Por lo tanto, Mi pueblo conocerá Mi nombre, ellos conocerán en aquel día que Yo soy quien dice, "Sí, soy Yo!" 7 Que hermosos son los pies del mensajero sobre las montañas que trae buenas noticias, que anuncia paz, que lleva buenas nuevas, que anuncia salvación, que dice a Sion, "¡Tu Dios reina!" 8 Escucha, tus centinelas alzan sus voces, juntos gritan con júbilo, porque ellos verán, cada ojo de ellos, el regreso del SEÑOR a Sion. 9 Estallen juntos en un grito de júbilo, ustedes ruinas de Jerusalén; Porque el SEÑOR ha consolado a Su pueblo; El ha redimido a Jerusalén. 10 El SEÑOR ha descubierto Su santo brazo a la vista de todas la naciones; toda la tierra verá la salvación de nuestro Dios. 11 Apártense, apártense, salgan de allí; no toquen nada inmundo: salgan en medio de ella, purifíquense, ustedes que llevan las vasijas de el SEÑOR. 12 Pues ustedes no saldrán en apuro, ni ustedes se irán en un pánico; pues el SEÑOR irá delante de ustedes, y el Dios de Israel será su retaguardia. 13 Mirad, mi siervo actuará sabiamente; él será enaltecido y levantado, y él será exaltado. 14 Cómo muchos se horrorizaron de tí - su apariencia estaba tan desfigurada más que la de cualquier hombre, y su forma ya no parecía como algo humano. 15 Ciertamente, mi siervo rociará muchas naciones y reyes cerrarán sus bocas por causa de Él. Pues lo que no les habían contado, ellos verán, y lo que no habían oído, ellos entenderán.

Isaiah 52:1

Despierta, despierta
La palabra se repite para dar énfasis y muestra urgencia. Isaías tratando de levantar al pueblo se menciona como si el estuviera tratando de despertarlos del sueño.

Vístete de tu poder
Ser fuerte nuevamente se menciona como si la fuerza fuera una prenda que la persona viste. TA: "sé fuerte"

Sion... Jerusalén
Ambos se refieren a las personas que viven en Jerusalén. Isaías está hablando al pueblo como si ellos estuvieran escuchándolo. TA: "pueblo de Sion... pueblo de Jerusalén"

Los incircuncisos o los inmundos Estos adjetivos nominales pueden ser escrito como adjetivos. TA: "Aquellos que son incircuncisos o aquellos que son inmundos"

los inmundos
Esto se refiere a las personas inmundas. Una persona a quien Dios considera espiritualmente inaceptable o contaminado se menciona como si la persona estuviera físicamente inmunda. TA: "Aquellos que no son aceptables a Dios"

vendrán a tí
Aquí "ti" se refiere a Jerusalén que representa al pueblo que vive allí. Se entiende que las personas incircuncisas e inmundas entrarían a la ciudad para atacar a las personas. Las palabras faltantes pueden agregarse para hacer claro el significado. TA: "Entren a tu ciudad para atacarte"

Isaiah 52:2

Información General
Isaías continúa hablándole al pueblo de Israel

Sacudete tú del polvo, levántate y siéntate, Jerusalén Aquí "Jerusalén" representa a las personas que viven allí. TA: "Pueblo de Jerusalén, siéntate y sacúdete el polvo de tí"

Quítate la cadena de tu cuello, cautiva
Se implica que las personas en Jerusalén estaban cargando cadenas porque fueron esclavos mientras estuvieron en exilio en Babilonia. El significado completo de esta afirmación puede ser aclarado.

Hija de Sión
Este es un modismo. La "hija" de una ciudad significa a las personas de la ciudad. Mira cómo tradujiste esto en 1:7. TA: "pueblo de Sión" o "gente que vive en Sión"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Fuiste vendida por nada, y serás redimida sin dinero
Esto habla de Jehová como si El fuera el propietario del pueblo de Israel. Dado que El es el legítimo dueño, EL puede entregarlos o reclamarlos siempre que El quiera. Esto puede ser afirmado en la forma activa. TA: "Yo te vendí por nada, y yo te redimiré sin dinero".

Isaiah 52:4

En el principio
Aquí "principio" se refiere al comienzo de la historia de Israel cuando recién se convertían en pueblo.

Descendió a Egipto
"Fue a Egipto". Era común la frase "descendió" cuando hablaban de viajar de Canán a Egipto.

Asiria los ha oprimido
Asiria se refiere al pueblo de Asiria TA: "el pueblo de Asiria los ha tratado mal"

Isaiah 52:5

¿Ahora qué es lo que tengo aquí... viendo que mi pueblo es llevado como nada?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para hacer que el pueblo preste atención a lo que El está por decir. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una afirmación. TA: "Ahora miren a lo que está sucediendo... mi pueblo es nuevamente llevado como nada."

Tengo aquí - esta es la declaración de Jehová - viendo
Los posibles significados son 1) Jehová dice "Esta es la declaracion de Jehová". TA: "Tengo aquí - esto es lo que declaro - viendo" o 2) Isaías dice "Esta es la declaración de Jehová" TS: "Tengo aquí´, declara Jehová, viendo"

Viendo que mi pueblo es llevado por nada
Esto puede ser afirmado en forma activa. TA: "Veo al enemigo llevando a mi pueblo por nada"

Por nada
Los posibles significados son 1) "por nada" significa que los Babilonios llevaron al pueblo injustamente y sin causa. o 2) Esto continúa la metáfora de 52:2 donde Jehová se menciona como si El poseyera al pueblo de Israel y podría entregarlos por nada.

Aquellos que gobiernan sobre ellos burlan
Esto hace referencia a los Babilonios que han conquistado al pueblo. Sin embargo, algunas versiones tienen "Aquellos que los gobiernan gimen". Para estas versiones, este pasaje se refiere a los líderes de Israel en cautiverio.

Mi nombre es calumniado continuamente todo el día.
Aqui "nombre" representa la reputación de Jehová. Esto puede ser afirmado en la forma activa. TA: "Aquellos que miran cómo el enemigo se lleva a mi pueblo están continuamente ddiciendo cosas malas acerca de mí"

Por eso, mi pueblo conocerá mi nombre Aquí "nombre" representa la reputación de Jehová´. TA: "Por lo tanto, mi pueblo realmente sabrá Quien soy".

Esta palabra es repetida para enfatizar el hecho de que el pueblo debe ciertamente partir, aunque no necesariamente de inmediato.

Salgan de aquí
Es un conocimiento asumido que el pueblo de Israel eran esclavos en Babilonia. Esto puede ser afirmado explícitamente. TA" Salgan de la tierra donde son esclavos"

No toquen nada inmundo Algo que Jehová ha declarado como impropio de ser tocado o comido se menciona como si estuviera físicamente inmundo. TA: "No toquen nada que sea inaceptable a Jehová".

salgan de en medio de ella
Aquí "ella" representa a Babilonia

Jehová irá delante de tí: y el Dios de Israel será tu retaguardia Jehová protegiendo a Su pueblo de sus enemigos se menciona como si El fuera los guerreros que van delante del pueblo y los guerreros que se quedan atrás para protegerlos."

Isaiah 52:13

El será enaltecido y levantado, y El será exaltado
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Estas dos frases "enaltecido y levantado" y "será exaltado" tienen básicamente el mismo significado y enfatizan que Jehová honrará a Su siervo. Mira cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 33:10 . TA: "Yo le daré a mi siervo el más grande honor"

Se horrorizaron de tí
Aquí "tí" se refiere al siervo de Jehová. Sin embargo, los traductores pueden decidir cambiar el "tí" por "él".

Su apariencia estaba tan desfigurada más allá de la de cualquier hombre
Se implica que el siervo estaba desfigurado porque los enemigos lo habían golpeado muy duramente. El significado pleno de esto puede ser aclarado. TA: " Sus enemigos golpearon su cuerpo tan fuerte que él ya no se parecía a un humano"

Isaiah 52:15

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando acerca de Su siervo.

Mi siervo rociará a muchas naciones
El siervo que motiva que los pueblos de las naciones sean aceptables a Jehová se menciona como si el siervo fuera un sacerdote que rocía la sangre de un sacrificio para hacer a alguien o algo aceptable a Jehová.

Rociará
La palabra hebrea traducida "rociará" aquí también puede traducirse como "sorprenderá" o "asombrará", que algunas versiones de la Biblia lo hacen.

Muchas naciones
Aquí "naciones" representan a los pueblos de las naciones.

Los reyes cerrarán sus bocas
La frase "cerrar sus bocas" es un modismo. TA: "Los reyes dejarán de hablar" o "los reyes callarán"

Aquello que no se les había contado
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "aquello que nadie les había contado" o "algo que nadie les había contado"

Chapter 53

1 ¿Quién ha creído lo que ellos escucharon de nosotros, y a quién el brazo del SEÑOR le ha sido revelado?
2 Pues Él creció ante el SEÑOR como un retoño, y como un brote de tierra seca; Él no tenía notable apariencia o esplendor; cuando Le vimos a Él, no había belleza que nos atrajera. 3 Él fue despreciado y rechazado por gente; un hombre de sufrimientos, y familiarizado con el dolor. Como uno de quien los hombres esconden sus rostros, Él fue despreciado; y nosotros Le consideramos insignificante. 4 Pero seguramente Él ha soportado nuestras enfermedades y cargado nuestros sufrimientos; aún así pensamos que Él estaba siendo castigado por Dios, herido por Dios, y afligido. 5 Pero Él fue traspasado por causa de nuestras acciones rebeldes; Él fue molido por causa nuestros pecados. El castigo de nuestra paz fue sobre Él, y con Sus heridas nosotros somos sanados. 6 Todos nosotros, como ovejas que se han perdido; cada uno de nosotros se desvió por su propio camino, y el SEÑOR ha puesto en Él la iniquidad de todos nosotros. 7 El fue oprimido; a pesar de todo, cuando se humilló a Sí mismo, Él no abrió su boca; como un cordero que es llevado al matadero, y como oveja que antes de ser esquilada está en silencio, así mismo Él no abrió su boca. 8 Por coerción y juicio fue condenado; ¿quién de aquella generación ya no pensó más en Él? Pues Él fue cortado de la tierra de los vivientes; por causa de las ofensas de Mi pueblo la reprimenda fue puesta sobre Él. 9 Ellos colocaron Su tumba con los criminales, con un hombre rico en Su muerte, aunque Él no había hecho violencia, ni había engaño en Su boca. 10 Sin embargo, fue voluntad del SEÑOR aplastarlo y enfermarlo. Cuando haga de Su vida una ofrenda por el pecado, Él verá a Su descendencia, Él prolongará Sus días y el propósito del SEÑOR se logrará a través de Él. 11 Después del sufrimiento de Su vida, Él verá la luz y estará satisfecho por Su conocimiento. Mi siervo justo justificará a muchos; Él cargará sus iniquidades. 12 Por lo tanto, Yo daré Su porción entre las multitudes, y Él dividirá los botines con los muchos, porque se expuso a Sí mismo a muerte y fue contado con los transgresores. El llevó el pecado de muchos e hizo intercesión por los transgresores.

Todos nosotros, como ovejas nos hemos perdido
Las ovejas a menudo dejan el sendero por el cual el pastor las guía. Isaías quiere decir que nosotros hacemos lo que nosotros queremos en lugar de lo que Dios manda.

La iniquidad de todos nosotros
Nuestra "iniquidad" aquí representa la culpa por nuestro pecado. TA: "la culpa del pecado de cada uno de nosotros"

Isaiah 53:7

Información General
Isaías continúa describiendo al siervo de Jehová (Ver: 53:1)

El fue oprimidio
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "Ellos lo trataron duramente"

El no abrió Su boca
"Boca" representa lo que una persona dice. Abrir la boca significa hablar. TA: "El no protestó"

Como un cordero que va al matadero, y como una oveja que delante de sus esquiladores permanece en silencio
Isaías compara al siervo con una oveja y un cordero para enfatizar que El permanecerá en silencio mientras la gente lo daña y humilla.

Como un cordero que es llevado al matadero
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "tal como un cordero está en silencio mientras una persona lo mata"

Isaiah 53:8

Información General
Isaías continúa describiendo al siervo de Jehová. (Ver: 53:1)

Por coerción y juicio El fue condenado Esto puede ser expresado en la forma activa. TA: "Ellos lo trataron duramente, Lo juzgaron y Lo condenaron"

Coerción
La palabra hebrea traducida aquí como "coerción" se interpreta en algunas versiones como "arresto". Para estas versiones, el pensamiento es que el Siervo será arrestado y luego juzgado y condenado.

¿Quien de esa generación no pensó más en El?
Esta pregunta enfatiza que nadie piensa acerca de El. TA: "A nadie de Su generación le importó qué le sucedía a El" o "A nadie entre sus contemporáneos le importó qué le sucedía"

¿Quien de esa generación no pensó más en EL?
Muchas versiones interpretan este pasaje en hebreo de manera diferente: "¿Quien puede decir algo de sus descendientes?" o "¿Quien puede decir algo sobre su destino?"

Pero El fue cortado de la tierra de los vivientes
"Cortado" aquí se refiere a la muerte. Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "Pero El murió" o "Pero la muerte lo llevó"

De mi pueblo
Del pueblo de Israel

Ni había algún engaño en Su boca
"Boca" representa lo que dice una persona. TA: "El tampoco engañó a nadie cuando El habló"

Isaiah 53:10

Informacion General
Isaías continúa describiendo al siervo de Jehová (Ver: 53:1)

El verá a su descendencia
Aquí "descendencia" significa a aquellas personas a quienes Jehová ha perdonado por el sacrificio de Su siervo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El prolongará sus días
Esto habla de hacerlo vivir más tiempo. A: "Jehová hará que Su siervo viva nuevamente"

El propósito de Jehová se cumplirá a través de El.
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "Jehová cumplirá Su propósito a través de Su siervo".

Después del sufrimiento de su vida
Aquí "su vida" se refiere al siervo. TA: "Después de que el siervo haya sufrido"

El verá la luz
Muchas versiones entienden que "luz" aquí se refiere a la vida. Esto es, que el siervo vivirá nuevamente.

Mi siervo justo
Aquí "mi" se refiere a Jehová

El cargará sus iniquidades
"cargará" aquí es cargar y representa al siervo de Jehová tomando la culpa por sus pecados. TA: "El tomará la culpa sobre Si mismo".

Isaiah 53:12

Información General
Jehová continúa describiendo a Su siervo

Por lo tanto, le daré Su porción entre las multitudes, y El dividirá el botín con los muchos Estas dos cláusulas significan básicamente lo mismo. "Porcion" y "botín" refieren a un rey después de una batalla victoriosa compartiendo el saqueo o las recompensas con su ejército. Esto significa que Dios honrará grandemente a Su siervo por Su sacrificio.

Las multitudes
Muchas versiones interpretan esta expresión como "los muchos" o "los fuertes"

Porque El se expuso a la muerte
"Se expuso" significa ser vulnerable o desprotegido. El siervo de Jehová se puso en una situación donde El moriría. TA: "El aceptó de buena gana la posibilidad de la muerte"

Y fue contado con los transgresores
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA:" y permitió que la gente lo trataran como a un criminal"

Chapter 54

1 ''Canta, tú mujer estéril, tú que no has dado a luz; rompe en un cántico jubiloso y grita en alta voz, tú quien nunca has estado de parto. Pues los hijos de la despreciada son más que los hijos de la mujer casada,'' dice el SEÑOR. 2 ''Haz tu carpa más grande y extiende tus cortinas más lejos, abundantemente; alarga tus cuerdas y refuerza tus estacas. 3 Pues tú te esparcirás hacia la derecha y a la izquierda, y tus descendientes conquistarán naciones y restablecerán ciudades desoladas. 4 No temas pues no serás avergonzada, ni te desalientes pues no serás deshonrada; tú olvidarás la vergüenza de tu juventud y la deshonra de tu abandono. 5 Pues tu Creador es tu esposo; el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es Su nombre. El Santo de Israel es tu Redentor; Él es llamado el Dios de toda la Tierra. 6 Pues el SEÑOR te ha llamado de vuelta como una esposa abandonada y quebrantada de espíritu, como una mujer casada joven y rechazada,'' dice tu Dios. 7 '' Por un tiempo corto Te abandoné, pero con gran compasión te recogeré. 8 En un caudal de ira escondí Mi rostro de tí momentáneamente; pero con pacto eterno de fidelidad tendré misericordia de tí- dice el SEÑOR, Aquel quien te rescata. 9 Pues, esto es como las aguas de Noé para Mí: Juré que las aguas de Noé nunca más pasarán sobre la Tierra, así que, he jurado no estar enojado contigo o reprenderte. 10 Aunque las montañas se derrumben y las colinas tiemblen, aún Mi amor constante no se apartará de tí, ni Mi pacto de paz será trastornado- dice el SEÑOR, quien tiene misericordia de tí. 11 Afligida, atormentada e inconforme, mira, Yo estableceré tu sendero en turquesa y sentaré tus bases con safiro. 12 Yo haré tus pináculos de rubíes y tus puertas de piedras brillantes, y tu pared exterior de piedras preciosas. 13 Luego, todos tus hijos serán enseñados por el SEÑOR; y la paz de tus hijos será absoluta. 14 En justicia Yo te restableceré. Ya tú no experimentarás persecución, pues no tendrás miedo, y nada aterrador se acercará a tí. 15 Mira, si alguien te causa problema, no será de parte Mía; cualquiera quien te cause problema, caerá en derrota. 16 Mira, He creado al herrero, aquel quien sopla los carbones y forja armas como su trabajo, y Yo he creado el destructor para destruir. 17 Ninguna arma que sea forjada contra tí triunfará; y condenarás a todo aquel quien te acuse. Esta es la herencia de los siervos del SEÑOR, y su absolución de Mí- esto es la declaración del SEÑOR.''

Isaiah 54:1

Tú,mujer estéril... hijos de la mujer estéril
Jehová diciéndoles al pueblo de Jerusalén que se regocijen porque habrá muchas personas viviendo en Jerusalén nuevamente, se menciona como si Jehová le estuviera diciendo a una mujer estéril que va a tener hijos.

rompe en un canto gozoso y grita fuerte, tú que nunca has estado de parto.
Este dicho significa lo mismo que la primer parte de la oracion.

Porque los hijos del abandonado son mas
Un evento que sucederá en el futuro se menciona como si sucedió en el pasado. Esto enfatiza que dicho evento ciertamente sucederá. TA: "Porque los hijos de la mujer abandonada serán más"

La abandonada
Aqui "abandonada" significa que el esposo de la mujer la repudió y la abandonó.

Isaiah 54:2

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Jerusalén

Haz tu tienda más grande... refuerza tus estacas
Esto continúa la metáfora que comenzó en 54:1. Jehová diciéndole al pueblo de Jerusalén que se prepare porque El aumentará grandemente Su pueblo se menciona como si El le estuviera diciendo a una mujer que agrande su tienda para hacer lugar para muchos hijos.

Porque tú te extenderás
Aqui "tú" es singular y se refiere a la mujer estéril. Ella representa a todos sus descendientes. TA: "Porque tú y todos tus descendientes se extenderán"

Conquistarás naciones
Aquí "naciones" representa a los pueblos. TA: "Conquistarás a los pueblos de otras naciones!

Chapter 55

1 ''¡Vengan, todo aquel que esté sediento, venga a las aguas! ¡Y ustedes quienes no tienen dinero, vengan, compren y coman! Vengan, compren vino y leche sin dinero y sin costo. 2 ¿Por qué pesan plata por lo que no es pan? ¿Y laboran por lo que no satisface? Escúchenme cuidadosamente y coman lo que es bueno, y deléitense en carnosidad. 3 ¡Vuelvan sus oídos y vengan a Mí! ¡Escuchen, tal que puedan vivir! Yo haré un pacto eterno con ustedes; Mi fehaciente, amor fidedigno prometido a David. 4 Miren, Yo le he puesto a él como testigo a las naciones, como un líder y comandante a los pueblos. 5 Mira, tú llamarás a una nación que no conocías; y una nación que no te conocía correrá hacia tí a causa del SEÑOR tu Dios, EL SANTO DE ISRAEL, quien te ha glorificado." 6 Busquen al SEÑOR mientras puede ser hallado; llámenlo mientras está cerca. 7 Que el malvado deje su camino, y el hombre de pecado sus pensamientos. Que regrese al SEÑOR, y Él tendrá piedad de él, y a nuestro Dios, quien lo perdonará abundantemente. 8 Pues Mis pensamientos, no son sus pensamientos, ni sus caminos Mis caminos- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- 9 porque así como los cielos son más altos que la tierra, así son Mis caminos más altos que sus caminos, y Mis pensamientos más que sus pensamientos. 10 Pues como la lluvia y la nieve descienden del cielo y no regresan allá hasta que no saturan la tierra y la hacen producir y brotar y dar semilla al agricultor que siembra y pan al que come, 11 así será también Mi palabra que sale de Mi boca: no retornará a Mí vana, pero sí cumplirá lo que Yo deseo, y tendrá éxito para la cual Yo la he enviado. 12 Pues irán con alegría y serán conducidos juntos pacíficamente; las montañas y las colinas romperán en gritos de júbilo ante ustedes, y todos los árboles de los campos aplaudirán sus manos. 13 En lugar de los arbustos de espinos, los cipreses crecerán; y en lugar de las zarzas, el árbol de mirto crecerá, y esto será para el SEÑOR, por Su nombre, como una señal eterna que no será cortada.''

Declaración de Enlace
Jehová continúa hablándole al pueblo de Jerusalén - que está en exilio- a través de Isaías

Información General
Jehová hablando de bendecir al pueblo libremente, como si estuviera vendiendo comida y bebida a los necesitados en forma gratuita.

Vengan... Vengan
La repetición de esta palabra cuatro veces agrega un sentido de urgencia a la invitación.

compren vino y leche sin dinero y sin costo
Hay un sentido de ironía en esta afirmacion dado que una persona usualmente debe usar dinero para comprar algo. Esto enfatiza la sorprendente gracia de Jehová al otorgar estas cosas gratuitamente.

Isaiah 55:2

Informacion General
Jahová continúa hablando al pueblo de Jerusalén.

¿Porqué pesan plata para lo que no es pan?
Jehová hace esta pregunta para reprender al pueblo. El habla del puebo buscando felicidad fuera de Jehová como si estuvieran comprando cosas para comer que no son comida. TA: " Ustedes no deberían pesar la plata para lo que no es pan"

Pesar la plata
Esto se refiere a contar las monedas de plata a fin de pagarle algo a alguien. TA: "Pagar dinero"

Para lo que no es pan
Aquí la palabra "pan" representa la comida en general. Se implica que el pueblo estaba comprando cosas para comer que no eran realmente comida. TA: "Para cosas para comer que no son realmente comida"

¿Porqué trabajan para lo que no satisface?
Jehová hace esta pregunta para reprender al pueblo. El dice que ellos buscan la felicidad fuera de Jehová como si estuvieran trabajando para ganar dinero para comprar cosas que no les satisfarán. TA: "Ustedes no deberían estar trabajando para obtener dinero para gastar en cosas que no satisfacen"

Coman lo que es bueno, y deléitense en la gordura
El ´pueblo confiando en Jehová para bendición y felicidad se menciona como si ellos estuvieran comiendo buena comida que los hace felices.

En gordura
La palabra "gordura" hace referencia a la carne que tiene mucha grasa en ella y es un modismo para referirse a la buena comida. TA:" con las mejores comidas"

Busquen a Jehová mientras puede ser hallado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Busquen a Jehová mientras puedan hallarlo"

Deja que el malvado abandone su camino
La palabra "malvado" se refiere a personas malvadas. Jehová habla de los malvados que dejan de pecar como si ellos fueran a dejar de caminar por el sendero en el cual habían estado viajando. TA: "Deja que las personas malvadas cambien el modo en que viven"

Y el hombre pecador sus pensamientos
El verbo puede ser provisto por la frase anterior. TA: "deja que el hombre pecador deje sus pensamientos"

Sus pensamientos
Los significados posibles son (1) "el modo que piensa" o (2) "sus planes"

Y El tendrá piedad de él
"Y Jehová tendrá piedad de él"

Y a nuestro Dios
El verbo puede ser provisto desde la primer frase de esta oración. TA: "Y déjalo regresar a nuestro Dios"

Isaiah 55:8

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Jerusalén

Esta es la declaración de Jehová
Esto puede ser re-fraseado para que el sustantivo abstracto "declaración" sea expresado como el verbo "declaró" o "dijo solemnemente". Fijate cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 14:21. TA:" Esto es lo que Jehová ha declarado" o "Esto es lo que Jehová ha dicho solemnemente"

Porque así como los cielos son más altos que la Tierra, así son Mis caminos más altos que tus caminos, y Mis pensamientos más que tus pensamientos
Jehová habla de las cosas que Él hace y piensa como muy superiores o más altas a lo que las personas hacen o piensan, tal como el cielo está mucho más alto que la Tierra.

Isaiah 55:10

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole al pueblo de Jerusalén

Pues como la lluvia y la nieve... no regresan allá
Esto es posiblemente una descripcion de la evaporación de la lluvia y la nieve.

Así también Mi palabra... tendrá éxito en aquello para lo cual la he enviado.
Jehová habla de Su palabra como si fuera una persona que El envía como Su mensajero para cumplir su tarea.

Mi palabra que sale de Mi boca
Aquí la palabra "boca" representa a Jehová mismo. TA: "la palabra que Yo hablo".

No regresará a Mi inútil
Aquí la descripción de la palabra regresando a Jehová significa que ha cumplido la tarea que Jehová le envió a completar. Que no regrese "inútil" significa que logrará su cometido. TA: "No fallará en completar su tarea"

Pero logrará lo que Yo deseo, y tendrá éxito en aquello para lo cual la envié Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatiza que lo que Jehová dice siempre sucederá. TA: "Pero logrará lo que deseo, y las cosas que Yo hablo, Yo haré que sucedan"

Isaiah 55:12

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Jerusalén

Serán guiados pacíficamente
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Yo los guiaré pacíficamente".

Las montañas y las colinas prorrumpirán en gritos de júbilo delante de tí, y todos los árboles en los campos aplaudirán Jehová habla de las montañas, las colinas y los árboles como si fueran personas con voces y manos, celebrando mientras Jehová rescata a Su pueblo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

En lugar de los arbustos espinosos, crecerá el ciprés; y en lugar de la zarza crecerá el arrayán.
Las palabras "arbustos espinosos" y "zarza" hacen referencia a plantas que tienen espinas agudas en ellas. Las palabras "ciprés" y "arrayán" hacen referencia a árboles siempre-verdes. Las plantas espinosas simbolizan desolación, mientras que las siempre-verdes simbolizan vida y prosperidad.

Por Su nombre
Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa la fama de Jehová. TA: "por Su fama" o "por Su honor"

Que no será cortada
Algo que cesa de existir se menciona como si fuera cortada,como una rama es cortada de un árbol o un trozo de tela es cortado de una prenda. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "que nunca terminará" o "Que durará por siempre".

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Observa lo que es correcto, haz lo que es justo; pues mi salvación está cerca, y mi justicia está a punto de ser revelada. 2 Bendito es el hombre que hace ésto, y quien se aferra a ello. Él observa el Día de Reposo, no lo profana, y mantiene su mano de hacer cualquier mal." 3 No permitan que el extranjero, quien se ha vuelto un seguidor del SEÑOR diga: "El SEÑOR ciertamente me excluirá de Su pueblo." El eunuco no debe decir: "Vean, yo soy un árbol seco." 4 Pues esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "A los eunucos que observan mis Días de Reposo y escogen lo que Me agrada, y retienen firmemente Mi pacto, 5 para ellos Yo colocaré en Mi casa y dentro de Mis murallas un destacamiento que es mejor que tener hijos e hijas. Yo les daré un destacamiento eterno que nunca será cortado. 6 También a los extranjeros que se unen a sí mismos al SEÑOR, para servirle, y a quienes aman el nombre del SEÑOR, para adorarlo, todo aquel que observa el Día del Reposo y quien se guarda de profanarlo, y quien se aferre firmemente a Mi pacto, 7 Yo los traeré a Mi monte santo y los haré jubilosos en Mi casa de oración; sus ofrendas quemadas y sus sacrificios serán aceptados en Mi altar. Pues Mi casa será llamada una casa de oración para todas la naciones, 8 esta es la declaración del Señor Dios, quien recoge a los marginados de Israel, Yo todavía recogeré a otros además de ellos." 9 ¡Todos ustedes bestias salvajes del campo, vengan y devoren, todos ustedes bestias en el bosque! 10 Todos sus vigilantes están ciegos, ellos no entienden. Ellos son todos perros mudos que no ladran. Ellos sueñan, y acostados, aman dormir. 11 Los perros tienen grandes apetitos; ellos nunca pueden tener suficiente; ellos son pastores sin discernimiento; ellos se han vuelto a sus propios caminos, cada uno codicioso por ganancia injusta. 12 "Vengan", ellos dicen, "bebamos vino y licor. Mañana será como hoy, un día grandioso sin medida."

Isaiah 56:1

Porque mi salvación está cerca, y mi justicia está a punto de ser revelada Eso puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Pronto los salvaré y les mostraré que soy Justo".

Chapter 57

1 El justo perece, pero nadie lo considera, y el pueblo de fidelidad al pacto es arrebatado, pero nadie entiende que el justo es arrebatado del mal. 2 Él entra en paz; ellos descansan en sus camas, aquellos que caminan en su rectitud. 3 Pero vengan aquí, ustedes hijos de la hechicera, hijos de la adúltera y de la mujer que se ha prostituido a sí misma. 4 ¿De quién ustedes se mofan alborozamente? ¿En contra de quién están abriendo la boca y sacando la lengua? ¿No son ustedes hijos de rebelión, hijos de mentira? 5 Se enardecen ustedes mismos durmiendo juntos debajo de robles, debajo de cada árbol verde, ustedes quienes matan a sus hijos en los cauces secos del río, debajo de las hendiduras de las peñas. 6 Entre los fluentes del valle del río están las cosas que han sido atribuidas a ustedes. Ellas son el objeto de su devoción. Ustedes derraman su bebida ofreciéndoles a ellos y levantan un grano ofrecido. ¿En estas cosas debo tomar placer? 7 Ustedes prepararon su lecho en una alta montaña; ustedes también fueron allá arriba para ofrecer sacrificios. 8 Detrás de la puerta y del umbral ustedes colocaron sus símbolos; ustedes me abandonaron, se desnudaron, y subieron; hicieron su lecho amplio. Hicieron un pacto con ellos; amaron sus lechos; ustedes vieron sus partes privadas. 9 Acudieron a Moloc con óleo; y muchos perfumes. Enviaron sus embajadores muy lejos; ustedes descendieron al Seol. 10 Estaban cansados de su largo viaje, pero ustedes nunca dijeron: "Es funesto." Ustedes encontraron vida en su mano; por lo tanto, ustedes no se debilitaron. 11 "¿Por quién están preocupados? ¿A quién ustedes temen tanto que ha causado que actúen tan engañosamente, tanto que ustedes no me recuerdan o piensan en Mí? Porque Yo estuve en silencio por tanto tiempo, ya ustedes no Me tienen miedo. 12 Yo proclamaré todos sus actos rectos y diré a todos lo que han hecho, pero ellos no te ayudarán. 13 Cuando ustedes griten, que la colección de sus ídolos los rescaten. En lugar de eso el viento los llevará lejos, un aliento los llevará a todos lejos. Aun así quien toma refugio en Mí heredará la tierra y tomará posesión de Mi santo monte. 14 El dirá: '¡Construyan, construyan! ¡Despejen el camino! ¡Remuevan todas las rocas tropezaderas del camino de Mi pueblo!" 15 Pues esto es lo que el Alto y Sublime dice, Quien vive eternamente, cuyo nombre es Santo: "Yo vivo en el eminente y santo lugar, con el quien es de espíritu quebrantado y humilde, para revivir el espíritu de los humildes, y revivir el corazón de los contritos. 16 Pues Yo no acusaré para siempre, tampoco estaré enojado por siempre, porque entonces el espíritu del hombre desmayaría delante de Mí, las vidas que Yo he hecho. 17 Debido al pecado de su violenta ganancia, Yo estaba enojado, y Yo lo castigué; Yo escondí mi rostro y estaba enojado, pero él retrocedió en el camino de su corazón. 18 Yo he visto su camino, pero Yo lo sanaré. Yo lo guiaré y lo aliviaré y consolaré aquellos quienes se lamentan por él, 19 y Yo crearé el fruto de los labios. Paz, paz, a aquellos quienes están lejanos y aquellos que están cerca- dice El SEÑOR- Yo los sanaré. 20 Pero los malvados son como el mar ondulado, el cual no puede reposar, y cuyas aguas revuelven fango y lodo. 21 No hay paz para el malvado- dice Dios."

Isaiah 57:1

El pueblo de la fidelidad al pacto
"el pueblo que es justo y guarda la ley de Dios" o "el pueblo que es leal a Dios"

Son recogidos...descansan en sus camas Ambos se refieren al hecho de morir.

Que el justo es separado del malvado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "que las personas justas mueren, y Jehová los separa de todo lo que es malvado"

El entra a la paz
"Los justos entran a la paz"

Aquellos que caminan en sus noblezas
"Aquellos que han hecho lo que está bien"

Isaiah 57:3

Pero vengan aquí
Dios está llamando a todas las personas infieles a que vengan delante de El para que El pueda juzgarlos, en un fuerte contraste a las promesas a los justos que vino antes.

Hijos de la hechicera
Este es un fuerte insulto contra las personas que practican la hechicería porque la hechicería y la magia incluyen idolatría.

Hijos de la adúltera y de la mujer que se ha prostituído
Esto se refiere al adulterio efectivo y al espiritual. Ellos han abandonado la adoración a Dios y ahora adoran a otros dioses e ídolos, junto con la efectiva prostitucion en las ceremonias paganas de los Cananitas.

¿A quien burlan alegremente? Contra quien están abriendo la boca y sacando la lengua?
Jehová utiliza las preguntas para regañar a la gente que se están burlando de El a través de una adoración falsa. TA: "Uds. Me están ridiculizando y Me están haciendo burla, abriendo sus bocas grande y sacando la lengua"

¿No son hijos de la rebelión, hijos del engaño?
Jehová utiliza otra pregunta para regañar al pueblo. Esto no se refiere a su nacimiento, sino a su estado espiritual. TA: "Uds. son hijos de la rebelión, hijos del engaño!"

Isaiah 57:5

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando a la gente infiel de Israel

Uds. se acaloran... debajo de las salientes de la roca
Todas estas acciones están asociadas con la adoración a los ídolos. Los robles eran árboles sagrados para los Canaanitas. La gente pensaba que tal actividad incrementaría la fertilidad para las personas y la tierra.

Isaiah 57:6

Información general
Jehová continúa hablando a la gente infiel de Israel

Que han sido asignadas a tí.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. El significado exacto en hebreo no está claro. TA:" Que es tu porción" o "Que es tu herencia"

¿En estas cosas debo deleitarme?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para regañar al pueblo. TA: "Ciertamente, estas cosas no me agradan"

Isaiah 57:7

Informacion General
Jehová continúa hablando a la gente infiel de Israel

Tú preparaste tu cama
Esto se refiere a dormir con prostitutas como parte de la adoración a dioses falsos.

En una montaña alta
La gente a menudo iba a las cimas de las sierras y de las montañas para adorar a dioses falsos. Ellos creían que esos eran los mejores lugares para adorar. Esto puede incluso referirse a Jerusalén.

Hiciste un pacto con ellos
"Hiciste un contrato con ellos"

Isaiah 57:9

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole a la gente infiel de Israel

Descendiste al Seol
La gente no fue literalmente al Seol, el mundo de los muertos. En cambio, Jehová está indicando que la gente estaba dispuesta a ir a cualquier lado para encontrar nuevos dioses a quienes adorar.

Tu encontraste vida en tu mano Después de esforzarse tanto, los idólatras descubrieron que ellos aún tenían fuerza para continuar. Aquí "mano" significa "fuerza" o "capacidad"

Isaiah 57:11

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole a la gente infiel de Israel

¿Por quien estás preocupado? ¿A quien temes tanto que ha hecho que actúes tan engañosamente... acerca de mi?
Jehova usa estas preguntas para regañar al pueblo. TA: "Uds. realmente deben temer a estos ídolos para actuar tan engañosamente... acerca de mi!"

Tanto que tú no me recordabas o pensabas en mi
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que -aunque el pueblo debería haber recordado a Jehová- no lo hicieron.

Yo proclamaré todos tus actos de justicia y les diré a todos lo que has hecho
Jehová está siendo sarcástico, llamando justos a los hechos malvados del pueblo.

Isaiah 57:13

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole al pueblo infiel de Israel

Deja que tu colección de ídolos te rescaten
Jehová se está burlando del pueblo y de sus ídolos. El le dice a los ídolos que salven al pueblo, aunque El sabe que no pueden.

El viento los arrebatará, un soplo los arrebatará a todos.
Esto es decir la misma cosa en dos formas para enfatizar que los ídolos son incapaces e indignos. TA: "El viento, o aún un soplo, los soplará lejos"

Monte Santo
El "monte santo" es el Monte Sión, en Jerusalén. Fíjate cómo has traducido esto en 11:8

Isaiah 57:14

¡Construye! ¡Construye! ¡Despeja el camino" ¡Quita del camino de mi pueblo aquellos obstáculos que los hacen tropezar!
Jehová es enfático y apremiante en que un camino despejado y nivelado estuviera disponible para que el pueblo volviera a El y libre de obstáculos para adorar a Jehová. Esto repite 40:3

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Porque esto es lo que el Alto y Sublime dice
Las palabras "alto" y "sublime" tienen básicamente el mismo significado aquí, y enfatizan que Jehová sea exaltado. Fíjate cómo tradujiste esto en 6:1 y en 33:10. Fíjate cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 52:13

Para revivir el espíritu de los humildes y revivir el corazón de los contritos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que Jehová reforzará y alentará a aquellos que se humillaren delante de El.

Espíritu... corazón
Aquí estos se refieren a los pensamientos y a las emociones de una persona, no al espíritu y el corazón literalmente.

Isaiah 57:16

Información General
Jehová continúa hablándole al pueblo de Israel

Escondí mi rostro
Esto significa que Dios renunció a Su pueblo y ya no los ayudó o bendijo más.

El regresó al modo de su corazón.
Esto significa que los Israelitas continuaban rechazando al Dios verdadero por dioses falsos. Aquí "regresar" y "modo" son palabras de localizacion que representan las motivaciones y los sentimientos.

Isaiah 57:18

Informacion General
Jehová continúa hablando

sus caminos
"sus caminos". Aqui "de el" se refiere al pueblo de Israel

Reconfortar y consolar a aquellos que se lamentan por el
"Yo voy a aliviar y calmar a aquellos que sienten tristeza por el sufrimiento del pueblo debido a su comportamiento pecaminoso"

Y Yo crearé el fruto de sus labios
Aqui "fruto de sus labios " se refiere a lo que una persona dice. TA: "Y yo haré que me alaben y agradezcan"

Paz, Paz a aquellos que estan lejos Yo he hecho la paz con ellos, que están lejos" La palabra "paz" se repite para darle énfasis.

Isaiah 57:20

Pero los malvados son como el mar embravecido... fango y lodo
Esto compara al malvado con las aguas turbulentas en la orilla que vuelven el agua sucia.

Chapter 58

1 "Clama en alta voz; no te contengas. Levanta tu voz como trompeta. Confronta a Mi pueblo con su rebelión, y a la casa de Jacob con sus pecados. 2 Aún me buscan diariamente y se deleitan en el conocimiento de mis caminos, como una nación que practicó justicia y no abandonó la ley de su Dios. Me piden juicios justos; ellos se complacen con el pensamiento de que Dios se acerca. 3 '¿Por qué hemos ayunado?' dicen ellos, '¿Pero Tú no lo ves? ¿Por qué nos hemos humillado, pero no Te das cuenta?' Mirad, en el día de su ayuno encuentran su propio placer y oprimen a todos sus trabajadores. 4 Mirad, ustedes ayunan para pleitar y pelear, y para golpear con su puño de iniquidad; ustedes no ayunan hoy para que sus voces sean escuchadas arriba. 5 ¿Es éste verdaderamente el tipo de ayuno que Yo quisiera: Un día para que cualquiera se humille a sí mismo, para que incline su cabeza como un junco, y para esparcir silicio y cenizas debajo de sí mismo? ¿De verdad llaman a esto un ayuno, un día que agrada al SEÑOR? 6 ¿No es éste el ayuno que Yo elijo: Para soltar ligaduras de perversidad, para deshacer las cuerdas del yugo, para liberar a los oprimidos, y para romper todo yugo? 7 ¿No es para partir su pan con los hambrientos y para traer a los pobres y sin hogar a su casa?" Cuando vean a alguien desnudo, deberían vestirlo; y no deberían esconderse de sus propios familiares. 8 Entonces su luz amanecerá como la salida del sol y su sanidad brotará rápidamente; su justicia irá delante de ustedes, y la gloria del SEÑOR será su retaguardia. 9 Entonces llamarían, y el SEÑOR contestaría; gritarían por ayuda, y Él diría: "Aquí estoy." Si quitan de entre ustedes el yugo, el dedo acusador, y el lenguaje de maldad, 10 si ustedes mismos proveen para los hambrientos y satisfacen la necesidad de los afligidos; entonces su luz se levantará en la oscuridad, y su oscuridad será como el mediodía. 11 Entonces el SEÑOR los guiará continuamente y los saciará en regiones donde no hay agua, y El fortalecerá sus huesos. Ustedes serán como un jardín regado, y como un manantial de agua, cuyas aguas nunca faltan. 12 Algunos de ustedes reconstruirán las ruinas antiguas; ustedes levantarán las ruinas de muchas generaciones; serán llamados "Los reparadores de la muralla", "Los restauradores de las calles para vivir." 13 Supongamos que apartan sus pies de viajar en el Día de Reposo, y de hacer los que les plazca en Mi día santo. Supongamos que llaman el Día de Reposo un deleite, y que llaman los asuntos del SEÑOR santos y honrados. Supongamos que honran el Día de Reposo dejando su propio negocio, y no buscando su propios placeres, y no hablando sus propias palabras. 14 "Entonces hallarán deleite en el SEÑOR; y Yo les haré andar por las alturas de la tierra; Yo les alimentaré de la herencia de Jacob su padre, pues la boca del SEÑOR ha hablado."

Isaiah 58:1

¡Alza tu voz como una trompeta!
Esto significa grita fuerte. Aquí "tu" se refiere a Isaías

Confronta a mi pueblo con su rebelión y a la casa de Jacob con sus pecados Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Juntas refuerzan la urgencia para confrontar al pueblo de Jehová.

Isaiah 58:3

¿Porqué hemos ayunado" dicen ellos "pero no lo viste? ¿Porqué nos hemos humillado pero no te diste cuenta?
El PUeblo de Israel utiliza las preguntas para quejarse ante Dios porque ellos sienten que El los está ignorando.

Isaiah 58:4

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al puebo de Israel al responder su pregunta desafiante

Miren
"¡Miren!" o "Presten atención". Jehová confronta el cuestionamiento del pueblo,diciéndoles que presten atención.

Puño de maldad
"Puño malvado". Esto muestra que ellos peleaban perversamente. "Puño" representa la ira que es físicamente violenta.

¿Es esto realmmente el tipo de ayuno que Yo querría... debajo de sí mismo?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para regañar al pueblo. Ello actúan como que son humilder delante de Dios, pero están lastimando a otras personas. TA: "Este no es el tipo de ayuno que quiero... debajo de sí mismo"

Un día para que cualquiera se humille, que incline su cabeza como un junco Esto significa que la persona está inclinada, pero no se humilla sinceramente. "Un junco" representa una planta débil que se inclina fácilmente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Realmente llamas a esto un ayuno, un día que agrada a Jehová?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para regañar al pueblo .TA: "¡Seguramente no pensarán que este tipo de ayuno me agrada!"

Isaiah 58:6

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

¿No es este el ayuno que yo elijo... romper todo yugo?
Jehová utiliza una pregunta para enseñar al pueblo el tipo de ayuno que Le agrada. TA: "Este es el ayuno que Yo elijo... romper todo yugo"

Para liberar ataduras de maldad, deshacer las sogas del yugo, para liberar a los oprimidos y para romper todo yugo Todas estas frases significan que ellos debían ayudar a todas esas personas a quienes los malvados estuvieran lastimando y oprimiendo.

¿No es para.... tu casa?
Jehová utiliza otra pregunta para enseñar al pueblo. TA: "Es para....tu casa"

romper tu pan
Esta frase representa el comienzo de una comida, cuando el anfitrión rompe y separa el pan.

Isaiah 58:8

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Entonces tu luz será abierta de par en par como el amanecer
"Abierta de par en par" es un modismo que significa que la luz comienza a brillar fuertemente. Esto significa que si ellos ayudaban a las personas en necesidad, sus acciones serían como la luz para que otros la vieran, como cuando el sol se levanta luego de una noche oscura. O la luz podría referirse a la luz del Señor, brillando sobre ellos y bendiciéndolos.

Y tu sanidad brotará rápidamente
Esto significa que Dios los bendecirá y restaurará rápidamente, como una herida sana rápidamente.

Tu justicia irá delante de tí y la gloria de Jehova será tu retaguardia Esto hace referencia al tiempo cuando Dios protegía al pueblo de Israel cuando escapaban de Egipto. Esto significa que Dios los protegerá nuevamente de sus enemigos si ellos hacen lo correcto.

Tu justicia
Esta expresión en hebreo también puede ser interpretada como Quien otorga justicia o aún la victoria. En este contexto, esta expresion se referiría a Dios. Algunas versiones modernas tienen esta interpretación.

Isaiah 58:9

Informacion General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Entonces tu luz se levantará en la oscuridad, y tu oscuridad será como el mediodía
"Tu luz" representa los actos de bondad que serán ejemplo para todos, y la "oscuridad" las malas acciones, serán superadas por las buenas acciones.

Isaiah 58:11

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Te satisfacerá en regiones donde no hay agua
"Agua" representa todo lo que necesitan para una vida abundante aún cuando a su alrededor no tengan suficiente.

Serás como jardín regado
"Un jardín regado" representa la abundancia y mucha para que ellos tengan todo lo que necesitan.

Como un manantial de agua, cuyas aguas nunca cesan
"Un manantial de agua" representa una fuente de abundancia en una tierra donde el agua es preciosa.

Isaiah 58:12

Chapter 59

1 Mirad, la mano del SEÑOR no es tan corta que no pueda salvar; ni su oído tan sordo que no pueda oir. 2 Sus actos pecaminosos, por el contrario, los han separado de su Dios, y sus pecados Le ha hecho esconder Su rostro de ustedes y de escucharlos. 3 Pues, sus manos están manchadas con sangre y sus dedos con pecado. Sus labios hablan mentiras y su lengua habla maliciosamente. 4 Nadie llama la justicia, y nadie aboga su causa en la verdad. Ellos confían en palabras huecas, y dicen mentiras; ellos conciben malicia y dan a luz pecado. 5 Ellos incuban huevos de serpientes venenosas y tejen una tela de araña. Quien sea que coma de sus huevos muere, y si un huevo es quebrado, sale del cascarón una serviente venenosa. 6 Sus telas no pueden ser utilizadas para vestidos, ni pueden cubrirse a sí mismos con sus obras. Sus obras son obras de pecado, y acciones de violencia están en sus manos. 7 Sus pies corren a lo malo, y ellos corren para derramar sangre inocente. Sus pensamientos son pensamientos de pecado; violencia y destrucción son sus vías. 8 Ellos no conocen el camino de paz, y no hay justica en sus sendas. Ellos han hecho sendas torcidas; quien sea que viaje por estas sendas no conoce la paz. 9 Por lo tanto, la justica está lejos de nosotros, ni la rectitud nos alcanza. Nosotros esperamos por luz, pero vemos oscuridad; buscamos por claridad, pero caminamos en oscuridad. 10 Nosotros tanteamos por la pared como los ciegos, como aquellos quienes no pueden ver. Nosotros tropezamos al medio día como en el ocaso; entre los fuertes nosotros somos como hombres muertos. 11 Nosotros gruñimos como osos y gemimos como palomas; nosotros esperamos por justicia, pero no hay ninguna, por rescate, pero está lejos de nosotros. 12 Pues, nuestras muchas transgresiones están delante de Tí, y nuestros pecados testifican contra nosotros; pues, nuestras transgresiones están con nosotros, y conocemos nuestros pecados. 13 Nosotros nos hemos rebelado, negando al SEÑOR y apartándonos de seguir a nuestro Dios. Nosotros hemos hablado extorsión y apartado, concibiendo quejas del corazón y palabras de mentira. 14 La justica es vuelta atrás, y la rectitud se mantiene lejana; pues, la verdad tropieza en la plaza pública, y lo correcto no puede venir. 15 La integridad se ha ido lejos, y aquel quien se aparta de la maldad se hace a sí mismo una víctima. El SEÑOR lo vió y estaba disgustado de que no había justicia. 16 Él vió que no había ningún hombre, y se preguntó que no había nadie para intervenir. Por lo tanto, Su propio brazo trajo salvación para él, y Su rectitud lo sostuvo. 17 Él puso Su rectitud como coraza y casco de salvación sobre su cabeza. Él se vistió a sí mismo con vestidos de venganza y llevaba celo como un manto. 18 Él les retribuyó por lo que habían hecho, juicio de furor a sus adversarios, venganza para sus enemigos, a las islas, castigo como su recompensa. 19 temerán al nombre del SEÑOR desde el oeste, y Su gloria desde la salida del sol; pues Él vendrá como una corriente arrasadora, impulsada por el aliento de Dios. 20 "Un Redentor vendrá a Sion y a aquellos quienes se vuelvan de sus obras rebeldes en Jacob-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 21 En cuanto a Mí, éste es Mi pacto con ellos-- dice el SEÑOR-- Mi Espíritu quien está sobre ustedes, y Mis palabras, las cuales he puesto en su boca, no dejarán su boca, o se irán de la boca de sus hijos, o se irán de la boca de los hijos de sus hijos-- dice el SEÑOR-- desde este tiempo y para siempre."

Isaiah 59:1

Mira
"Mira" "Tú deberías saber" Jehová le dice al pueblo que preste atención.

La mano de Jehová no es tan corta
"Mano" representa el poder y la habilidad. Una mano "corta" no tiene poder y habilidad. TA: "Jehová es completamente capaz".

Vuestro... ustedes
Estos pronombres plurales hacen referencia al pueblo de Israel como un solo grupo.

Sus pecados Le han hecho esconder Su rostro de Uds.
"Rostro" representa estar presente y considerandolos. TA: "Sus pecados han hecho que El los rechace"

Isaiah 59:3

Información General
Isaías continúa hablándole al pueblo de Israel.

Porque sus manos están manchadas con sangre y sus dedos con pecado Aquí "manos" y "dedos" hacen referencia a sus acciones. Esto significa que son culpables de hacer cosas violentas y pecaminosas. "Sus" es plural. TA: "Porque Uds. han cometido pecados violentos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sus labios hablan mentiras y sus lenguas hablan maliciosamente.
Las partes del cuerpo que hacen el lenguaje representan lo que el pueblo dice. TA: "Uds. hablan mentiras y cosas maliciosas".

Ellos conciben problemas y dan a luz pecado
"Concebir" y "Dar a luz" enfatizan cuán cuidadosamente ellos planifican hacer cosas pecaminosas. Aquí "ellos" aún se refiere al pueblo de Israel. TA: "Ellos trabajan duro para hacer cosas pecaminosas".

Isaiah 59:5

Informacion General
Isaías continúa hablandole al pueblo de Israel acerca del mal que hacen, usando las metáforas de serpientes venenosas y de telas de araña.

Ellos incuban huevos de serpientes venenosas
Los huevos de una serpiente venenosa incuban a serpientes más peligrosas. "Serpientes venenosas" representa el mal que las personas hacen que hiere más y más. TA: "Ellos hacen el mal que se extiende para hacer más mal"

Urden una tela de araña
Esto representa los hechos de las personas que son inútiles. TA:" Producen cosas y actiidades que son inutiles"

Quienquiera que coma de sus huevos muere, y si un huevo es aplastado, eclosiona en una serpiente venenosa.
Comer un huevo venenoso matará a quien lo coma y representa la auto-destrucción. Romper el huevo permite a la joven serpiente venenosa salir del huevo y representa la destrucción que se extiende. TA: " Las actividades que ellos hacen los destruirá y extenderá esa destrucción a otros"

Si un huevo es aplastado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "si alguien aplasta un huevo"

Sus redes no pueden ser usadas para vestidos, ni pueden cubrirse con sus obras.
Esto significa que sus obras pecaminosas no pueden ser cubiertas o escondidas, tal como una red no sirve como vestido y cubrir a alguien. TA: " Sus obras malvadas serán expuestas como inútiles"

Sus redes no pueden ser usadas como vestidos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Ellos no pueden vestirse con sus redes".

obras de violencia están en sus manos
"Manos" representan la habilidad y el poder de hacer estas cosas y por lo tanto su responsabilidad. TA: "Ellos son plenamente responsables por la violencia que hacen"

Isaiah 59:7

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Sus pies corren hacia la maldad
"Pies" representa la habilidad de ir y "correr" representa hacerlo rápidamente. TA: "Ellos son rápidos en hacer cosas malas"

Son sus caminos
"Caminos" representa su modo de vida. TA: "son todo lo que hacen "

No hay justicia en sus caminos
"Caminos" representa su modo de vida. TA: "Ellos nunca hacen lo que es justo" o "Todo lo que hacen es injusto".

Ellos han hecho caminos torcidos
"Caminos torcidos" representa el modo de vida que es corrupto. TA: "Ellos dicen y hacen cosas deshonestas. Son taimados"

Isaiah 59:9

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

La justicia está lejos de nosotros.
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Isaías y al pueblo de Israel. "Lejos" representa la justicia que se ha ido y es difícil de obtener. TA: "La justicia se ha ido y es difícil de obtener"

Esperamos la luz, pero vemos oscuridad; buscamos la claridad, pero caminamos en oscuridad.
Cada una de estas frases significa que el pueblo está esperando por la bondad de Dios, pero parece como que El los ha abandonado.

Nosotros vamos a tientas buscando la pared como los ciegos.. como hombres muertos.
Esto significa que porque Dios no viene a ellos, ellos se sienten impotentes, sin encontrar el camino correcto y desesperando por el futuro, cin esperanza de una vida vibrante.

Isaiah 59:11

Nuestras muchas transgresiones
Aquí "nuestras" hace referencia a Isaías y el pueblo de Israel.

Delante de tí
Aquí "ti" se refiere a Jehová.

Nuestros pecados testifican contra nosotros
Isaías describe los pecados como una persona que va delante de Dios para declarar que el pueblo es culpable.

Nuestras transgresiones están con nosotros
"Con nosotros" representa estar conscientes de ellas. TA: "Porque estamos conscientes de nuestras transgresiones"

Isaiah 59:14

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando.

La justicia es rechazada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "El pueblo rechaza la justicia"

Justicia...honradez... verdad... lo bueno..confianza
Estas son ideas que Isaías describe actuando como personas.

Isaiah 59:16

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando.

El vio que no había ningún hombre, y se preguntó porqué no había nadie para intervenir.
"Jehová estaba horrorizado que nadie venía a ayudar a quienes estaban sufriendo" o "Jehová estaba estupefacto que nadie venía a ayudar a quienes estaban sufriendo"

Por lo tanto, Su propio brazo trajo salvación para El.
"Brazo" representa la habilidad y el poder. TA: "Jehová usó su propio poder para salvar al pueblo."

Y Su justicia Lo sostenía
"Justicia" es una cualidad que actúa como una persona. TA: "Y El hizo lo correcto como siempre lo haría"

Isaiah 59:17

El se puso la justicia como coraza y el casco de salvación sobre su cabeza. Se vistió con vestidura de venganza y usó el celo como un manto.
"Coraza" "casco" y "manto" son ropajes para la guerra y la pelea. Isaías describe a Jehová como poniéndose éstos para castigar a Su pueblo.

manto
Una túnica suelta de y con movimiento.

El les devolvió
Isaías está describiendo un evento futuro como si hubiera ocurrido en el pasado. Esto significa que ciertamente sucederá.

Isaiah 59:19

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando

Teman el nombre de Jehová
Aquí "nombre" se refiere a la reputación y el carácter de Jehová. TA: "teman a Jehová"

Desde el Oeste... desde el naciente del sol
Isaías combina estas palabras para significar a pueblos en todas partes del mundo.

Porque El vendrá como una fuerte corriente
Los angostos valles de Judá estaban secos la mayor parte del año hasta que una lluvia repentina y fuerte los convertía en torrentes de agua. Cuando eso sucedía había mucho ruido y viento.

Impulsada por el aliento de Jehová Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "al cual lo impulsa el aliento de Jehová"

La declaracion de Jehová
Esto puede ser re-fraseado para que el sustantivo abstracto "declaracion" sea expresado como el verbo "declarar" o "solemnemente dijo". Traduce esto del mismo modo que tradujiste una frase similar en 14:21. TA: "Esto es lo que ha declarado Jehová" o "Esto es lo que Jehová ha dicho solemnemente"

Isaiah 59:21

Chapter 60

1 Lévantate, resplandece; porque tu luz ha llegado, y la gloria del SEÑOR se ha levantado sobre tí. 2 Aunque la oscuridad cubrirá la tierra, y una densa oscuridad a las naciones; aun así el SEÑOR se levantará sobre tí, y Su gloria se verá en tí. 3 Naciones vendrán a tu luz, y reyes a tu brillante luz que se está levantando. 4 Mira alrededor y ve. Todos ellos se reúnen y vienen a tí. Tus hijos vendrán desde lejos, y tus hijas serán cargadas en los brazos de éstos. 5 Entonces tú mirarás y serás radiante, y tu corazón se regocijará y se desbordará, porque la abundancia del mar será derramada sobre tí, la riqueza de las naciones vendrá a tí. 6 Caravanas de camellos te cubrirán, los dromedarios de Madián y Efa; todos ellos vendrán desde Seba; ellos traerán oro e incienso, y cantarán las alabanzas del SEÑOR. 7 Todos los rebaños de Cedar serán reunidos ante tí, los carneros de Nebayot atenderán tus necesidades; ellos serán ofrendas aceptables en Mi altar; y Yo glorificaré mi gloriosa casa. 8 ¿Quiénes son éstos que vuelan como una nube, y como las palomas a sus refugios? 9 Las tierras costeras Me buscan, y los barcos de Tarsis son los primeros, en traer a tus hijos desde lejos, su plata y su oro con ellos, por el nombre del SEÑOR tu Dios, y por el Santo de Israel, porque Él los ha honrado a ustedes. 10 Hijos de extranjeros reconstruirán tus paredes, y sus reyes te servirán; aunque en Mi ira Yo te castigué, aun así en mi favor Yo tendré misericordia de tí. 11 Tus puertas también se mantendrán abiertas continuamente; ellas no serán cerradas día o noche, para que la riqueza de las naciones pueda ser traída, con sus reyes dirigiéndoles. 12 En efecto, naciones y reinos que no te sirvan perecerán; esas naciones serán completamente destruidas. 13 La gloria del Líbano vendrá a tí, el árbol de ciprés, el conífero, y el árbol de caja de ciprés a una, para embellecer Mi santuario; y Yo glorificaré el lugar de Mis pies. 14 Ellos vendrán a tí para inclinarse, los hijos de aquellos quienes te humillaron; ellos se inclinarán a tus pies; ellos te llamarán la Cuidad del SEÑOR, Sion del Santo de Israel. 15 En lugar de permanecer abandonada y odiada, con nadie que pase a través de tí, Yo haré de tí una cosa de orgullo para siempre, un gozo de generación en generación. 16 Tú también beberás la leche de las naciones, y mamarás del seno de reyes; tú sabrás que Yo, el SEÑOR, soy tu Salvador y tu Redentor, el Poderoso de Jacob. 17 En lugar de bronce Yo traeré oro, en lugar de hierro Yo traeré plata; en lugar de madera, bronce, y en lugar de piedras, hierro. Yo nombraré la paz como tus gobernantes, y la justicia tus soberanos. 18 La violencia ya no se oirá más en tu tierra, o devastación ni destrucción dentro de tus fronteras; pues tú llamarás a tus paredes Salvación, y a tus puertas Alabanza. 19 El sol ya no será tu luz de día, ni el resplandor de la luna brillará sobre tí; sino que el SEÑOR será tu Luz eterna, y tu Dios tu gloria. 20 Tu sol ya no se pondrá, ni tu luna se retirará y desaparecerá; porque el SEÑOR será tu Luz eterna, y los días de tu llanto se terminarán. 21 Toda tu gente será justa; ellas tomarán posesión de la tierra durante todo tiempo, la rama de mi plantación, la obra de mis manos, para que Yo sea glorificado. 22 El pequeño se convertirá en mil, y el menos una nación fuerte, Yo, el SEÑOR, realizaré rápidamente estas cosas cuando el tiempo venga.

Isaiah 60:1

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Levántate y brilla; porque tu luz ha venido, y la gloria de Jehová se ha levantado sobre tí.
Esto hace referencia a las cosas gloriosas que Jehová ha hecho para los habitantes de Jerusalén. Ellos ahora deben mostrar esa gloria a través de lo que hagan y digan y tengan esperanza en el futuro.

Isaiah 60:2

Información General
Isaías está hablando al pueblo de Israel. El continúa la metáfora acerca de la "luz". (Ver: 60:1)

Aunque la oscuridad cubra la tierra y una espesa oscuridad a las naciones Ambas frases significan la misma cosa y están combinadas para dar énfasis. Se refieren a la "oscuridad espiritual". Esto significa que todo el resto de los pueblos del mundo no conocerán a Jehová o no sabrán cómo complacerlo. Esta es una metáfora para el juicio divino.

Aún así Jehová se levantará sobre tí
Esto significa que la luz de la presencia de Dios aparecerá para el pueblo de Israel, y les mostrará el camino que deberán tomar.

Y Su gloria será vista sobre ti
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "y los pueblos de las naciones verán Su gloria sobre tí"

En lugar de madera, bronce, y en lugar de piedras, hierro
Jehová les dará materiales de construcción más valiosos ahora. TA:" En lugar de madera, les traeré bronce, y en lugar de piedras, les traeré hierro"

Nominaré a la paz como tu gobernador y a la justicia como tu soberana Jehová describe a la "paz" y a la "justicia" como gobernantes humanos. Esto significa que habrá completa paz y justicia en la tierra de Israel .

Ya no se escuchará la violencia en tu tierra.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA:" Ya no habrá informes de violencia en tu tierra"

Pero tú llamarás a tus paredes Salvación, y a tus puertas Alabanza
Los objetos físicos tienen los nombres de cualidades espirituales. La ciudad de Jerusalén será un lugar seguro y el pueblo allí alabará a Jehová.

Isaiah 60:19

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Porque Jehová será tu luz eterna
Ambas frases repiten la misma idea para otorgar énfasis.

Tu sol ya no se pondrá ni tu luna se retirará y desaparecerá
La luna no desaparecerá literalmente. Esto dice que en comparación con la Luz de Jehová, la luz del sol y de la luna serán nada.

Isaiah 60:21

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Los gajos de mi plantación, el trabajo de mis manos.
Estas frases significan aproximadamente lo mismo y están repetidas para otorgarle énfasis.

Los gajos de mi plantación
Jehová está comparando al pueblo con pequeños brotes surgiendo de lo que El plantó como si El fuera un jardinero. Jehová ha ubicado a Su pueblo en la tierra de Israel. Esto le otorga esperanza al pueblo.

El trabajo de mis manos
Jehová compara al pueblo de Israel a algo hecho con la destreza de Sus manos.

Para que Yo sea glorificado

Chapter 61

1 El Espíritu del Señor Dios está sobre Mí, porque el SEÑOR Me ha ungido para proclamar buenas noticias a los afligidos. Él Me ha enviado a sanar a los de corazón roto, a proclamar libertad a los cautivos, y la abertura de la prisión a aquellos quienes están confinados. 2 Él me ha enviado a proclamar el año del favor del SEÑOR, el día de venganza de nuestro Dios, y a consolar a todos los que lloran. 3 Él me ha enviado, a dar a aquellos quienes lloran en Sion, darles un turbante en lugar de cenizas, óleo de gozo en lugar de llanto, un manto de alabanza en lugar de un espíritu fatuo, para llamarlos robles de justicia, la plantación del SEÑOR, para que Él sea glorificado. 4 Ellos reconstruirán las ruinas antiguas; ellos restaurarán las desolaciones de antaño. Ellos restaurarán las cuidades arruinadas, las desolaciones de muchas generaciones de antaño. 5 Extranjeros se levantarán y alimentarán tus rebaños, e hijos de extranjeros trabajarán tus campos y viñedos. 6 Ustedes serán llamados los sacerdotes del SEÑOR; ellos los llamarán a ustedes siervos de nuestro Dios. Ustedes comerán las riquezas de las naciones, y ustedes se jactarán en sus riquezas. 7 En lugar de tu vergüenza, tú tendrás doble; y en lugar de deshonra, ellos se regocijarán por su parte. Así que, ellos tendrán una doble parte de su tierra; gozo eterno serán suyos. 8 Pues Yo, el SEÑOR, amo la justicia, y Yo odio el robo y la injusticia violenta. Yo fielmente les reciprocaré, y Yo haré un pacto eterno con ellos. 9 Sus descendientes serán conocidos entre las naciones, y su hijos entre los pueblos. Todos quienes los vieron, los reconocerán, que ellos son el pueblo a quien el SEÑOR ha bendecido. 10 Yo grandemente me regocijaré en el SEÑOR; en mi Dios yo estaré muy contento. Pues, Él me ha vestido con las vestiduras de salvación; Él me ha vestido con la túnica de justicia, como a un novio que se adorna a sí mismo con un turbante, y como a una novia que se adorna a sí misma con sus joyas. 11 Pues, así como la tierra produce sus plantas que brotan, y como el jardín hace a su plantación crecer, así el Señor Dios causará justicia y alabanza brotar frente a todas las naciones.

Isaiah 61:1

El Espíritu del Señor Jehová está sobre mi
Aquí "Espíritu" es el Espíritu Santo de Jehová quien obliga o motiva a una persona. Fíjate cómo tradujiste esto en 11:1 o 42:1

Los afligidos
Esto se refiere a la gente pobre, a aquellos en gran dolor, o gente oprimida que tienen problemas que no pueden superar por sí mismos.

Libertad a los cautivos, y apertura de la prisión para aquellos que están atados.
Estas dos frases significan la misa cosa. Ellas afirman que Dios ciertamente dará libertad a los cautivos.

Isaiah 61:2

Informacion General
Isaías continúa hablando

El año de la buena voluntad de Jehová, el día de la venganza
Ambas frases refieren al mismo período de tiempo. "Año" y "dia" son dos ejemplos específicos que representan a un todo mayor.

Año de la buena voluntad de Jehová
"El tiempo cuando Jehová actuará amablemente con Su pueblo" (UDB)

Isaiah 61:3

Información General
Isaías continúa hablando.

a dar... a darles
Isaías repite esto para otorgar énfasis.

Un turbante
"Un tocado" o "un hermoso manto de cabeza". Esto es un trozo de tela largo, que se enrolla alrededor de la cabeza.

Óleo de gozo... un manto de alabanza
Las personas se untaban con aceite y vestían túnicas hermosas y largas en tiempos de celebración y gozo.

En lugar de un espíritu de desánimo
"En lugar de la tristeza" o "en lugar del luto"

Robles de justicia, el sembradío de Jehová
Esto significa que Jehová ha logrado que el pueblo sea fuerte y robusto.

Que El pueda ser glorificado Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. TA: "para que las vidas del pueblo puedan glorificarlo"

Isaiah 61:4

Isaiah 61:6

Información General
El siervo de Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel con un paralelismo en cada línea.

Uds. serán llamados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Las personas los llamarán"

Uds. tendrán doble
Esto probablemente se refiere a doble porción de tierra

Ellos se regocijarán sobre su parte... ellos tendrán... su tierra... será de ellos.
Esto aún se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Esto puede ser expresado en segunda persona. TA: "Tu te regocijarás sobre tu parte... tú tendrás... tu tierra... será tuya"

Isaiah 61:8

Sus descendientes serán conocidos entre las naciones, y su descendencia entre los pueblos.
Estas dos cláusulas significan lo mismo. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA:"Los pueblos de otras naciones conocerán a sus descendientes"

Su descendencia entre los pueblos.
Esta cláusula adopta el mismo verbo que la anterior. TA: "Su descendencia será conocida entre los pueblos"

Isaiah 61:10

Yo me regocijaré grandemente en Jehová
"Yo" se refiere al pueblo de Dios hablando como una persona a la cual Jehová ha restaurado.

Vestido con vestiduras de salvacion; Me ha vestido con la túnica de justicia
El pueblo de Dios hablando como una persona, ahora tiene la salvacion y la justicia como su apariencia distintiva, visible para todos. "Vestiduras" y "Túnica" son prendas que todos pueden ver.

Como un novio que se adorna con turbante, y como una novia que se adorna con sus joyas
Esta comparación enfatiza que quien habla está extremadamente feliz, gozoso y celebrando.

Turbante
Traduce esto como en 61:3

Porque así como la tierra produce sus plantas de brote, y como el jardín hace que sus brotes crezcan Esto está diciendo la misma cosa de dos formas. El hecho de que lo que Dios dice que hará ciertamente va a suceder se compara con el hecho de que los retoños brotan luego de ser plantados. TA: "Así como las semillas sembradas en un jardín brotan desde la tierra y crecen"

Justicia y alabanza brotar
Esta expresion describe estas virtudes como creciendo desde una semilla, como lo hacen las plantas.

Chapter 62

1 Por amor a Sion no estaré en silencio, y por el bien de Jerusalén no estaré callado, hasta que su justicia avance brillantemente y su salvación como antorcha encendida. 2 Las naciones verán su justicia, y todos los reyes su gloria. Serán llamados con nuevo nombre, el cual el SEÑOR escogerá. 3 También serás una corona de belleza en las manos del SEÑOR, y un turbante de dignidad real en la mano de tu Dios. 4 Ya no se dirá de tí "Abandonada"; ni de tu tierra se dirá más "Desolada." En efecto, serás llamada "Mi deleite está en ella" y tu tierra "Desposada," porque el SEÑOR se deleita en tí, y tu tierra será desposada. 5 Ciertamente, como un joven desposa a una joven, así tus hijos se deposarán contigo, y así como el novio se regocija con su novia, tu Dios se regocijará en tí. 6 He puesto guardias en los muros de Jerusalén; no estarán en silencio día o noche. Ustedes quienes siguen recordándole al SEÑOR no pausen. 7 No permitan que Él descanse hasta que Él restablezca Jerusalén y la haga una alabanza en la tierra. 8 El SEÑOR juró con Su mano derecha y la fuerza de Su brazo: "Seguramente no daré sus granos como alimento a sus enemigos. Los forasteros no beberán tu vino nuevo, por el cual ustedes han trabajado. 9 Pues aquellos quienes cosechan el grano, lo comerán, y alabarán al SEÑOR, y aquellos quienes recojen las uvas, beberán el vino en las cortes de Mi santo santuario". 10 ¡Vengan, vengan a las puertas! ¡Preparen el camino para el pueblo! ¡Construyan, construyan el camino! ¡Junten las piedras! ¡Levanten una bandera como señal para las naciones! 11 Ved, El SEÑOR anuncia a los confines de la tierra: "Digan la hija de Sion: ¡Ved, tu Salvador viene! Vean, su recompensa está con Él, y su recompensa le antecederá". 12 Ellos te llamarán: "La gente santa; los redimidos del SEÑOR," y serás llamada "Deseada; una ciudad no abandonada."

Isaiah 62:1

Por amor a Sión no haré silencio, y por amor a Jerusalén, no callaré Ambas afirmaciones significan la misma cosa. Aquí "Sión" y "Jerusalén" ambos representan a las personas que viven en Jerusalén. TA: "Por amor de la gente de Jerusalén, no callaré"

Yo no haré silencio
Es muy probable que "Yo" se refiera a Isaías.

Hasta que su justicia avance brillantemente, y su salvacion como una antorcha encendida
Ambas cláusulas reaseguran que al pueblo que Dios eventualmente vendrá y salvará al pueblo de Israel y que será tan evidente como la luz.

Isaiah 62:3

También serás corona de belleza en la mano de Jehová, y un turbante de dignidad real en la mano de nuestro Dios.
Estos significan la misma cosa y están combinados para otorgar énfasis. Ellas dicen que Jerusalén se convertirá en una ciudad real bajo el poder y la autoridad

Ya no se ... se dirá más "desolada"
Estas significan la misma cosa y están combinadas para otorgar énfasis.

Ya no se dirá de ti
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "La gente ya no dirá de tí"

Ni de tu tierra se dirá más Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "tampoco la gente dirá acerca de tu tierra"

Y tu tierra será desposada
Esto significa que Jehová amará al pueblo de Israel y siempre estará con ellos como lo está un esposo.

Isaiah 62:5

Como un joven desposa a una joven, así tus hijos se desposarán contigo Aquí "hijos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel y "Tú" se refiere a Judá, la tierra de Israel. Esto significa que el pueblo tomará posesion de la tierra, tal como un hombre toma posesión de su joven esposa.

Como un novio se regocija con su novia, tu Dios se regocijará contigo Esto enfatiza la felicidad de Dios sobre Su relación con Su pueblo.

Isaiah 62:6

Yo he puesto
Aquí "Yo" puede referirse a Isaías o a Jehová

guardias en tus muros
Esto se refiere a profetas, oficiales, o probablemente ángeles que constantemente están orando por las personas de Jerusalén como los guardias constantemente guardan la ciudad. Fíjate cómo tradujiste "guardias" en 52:7 y 56:9

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

No callarán ni de día ni de noche
Esto significa que ellos están contínuamente rogando a Jehová y llamándose unos a otros. TA: "Están orando fervientemente a Jehová a lo largo del día entero"

No Le permitas descansar
Aqui se refiere a Jehová

Isaiah 62:8

Por Su mano derecha y por el brazo de Su fuerza
La mano y el brazo derechos representan poder y autoridad. TA: "por Su poder y autoridad"

Seguramente ya no les daré sus granos como alimento para sus enemigos
Esto significa que Jehová no dejará que los enemigos conquisten al pueblo de Israel y les quiten el grano nunca más. Quizás los enemigos les quitaban el grano en el pasado como un impuesto o para alimentar a sus propios ejércitos.

Ya no les daré sus granos como alimento a los enemigos... los extranjeros no beberán su vino nuevo
Estas afirmamciones se encuentran juntas para otorgar énfasis y "cierre".

Aquellos que cosechan el grano... aquellos que recogen las uvas
Estas afirmaciones se encuentran juntas para otorgar énfasis y "cierre"

Isaiah 62:10

Pasen, pasen por las puertas
La frase "pasen" se repite para expresar la urgencia

Construyan, construyan el camino
La palabra "construyan" se repite para enfatizar que Jehová desea que se prepare el camino. El "camino" representa el modo por el cual el pueblo puede regresar. Esto es similar a 40:3 y 57:14

Recojan las piedras
"Quiten las piedras del camino para hacerlo llano". Las piedras representan todos los obstáculos para un viaje rápido.

Levanten bandera de señal para las naciones
Una bandera de señal representa algo para llamar la atención a los demás. Esto significa que Jehová está llamando a los pueblos de las otras naciones para que se den cuenta de la tierra de Israel y para que vean lo que Jehová ha hecho, tal como dijo que haría.

Isaiah 62:11

Miren
"¡Presten atención!"

Los confines de la tierra
Aquellos lugares de la tierra que están lejos, se los menciona como si fueran los lugares donde la tierra termina. Esta frase también forma un merismo y se refiere a todo lo que está entre esos confines. Fíjate cómo tradujiste esto en 40:27. TA: "los lugares más lejanos de la tierra" o "la tierra entera"

La hija de Sión
"Hija" representa al pueblo de Jerusalén

Vean, Su recompensa está con El y Su recompensa va delante de El Esta cláusula representa la misma idea para otorgarle énfasis. Fíjate cómo tradujiste una frase similar en 40: 9.

Tú serás llamado
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. "Ellos te llamarán"

Chapter 63

1 ¿Quién es Éste que viene de Edom, vestido de rojo desde Bosra? ¿Quién es Él en ropas reales, marchando confiadamente por causa de Su gran fuerza? Este soy Yo, hablando justicia y poderosamente capaz de salvar. 2 ¿Por qué son Tus ropas rojas, y por qué parece que haz estado pisando uvas en un lagar? 3 Yo solo He pisado uvas en el lagar, y ninguna de las naciones se ha unido a Mí. Yo las pisé en Mi enojo y pisoteé en Mi furia. Su sangre salpicó en Mis ropas y manchó todos Mis vestidos. 4 Pues Yo esperaba el día de la venganza, y el año de Mi redención ha llegado. 5 Yo miré, y allí no había nadie para ayudar. Yo me preguntaba que no había nadie para ayudar, pero Mi propio brazo Me trajo la victoria a Mí, y Mi fuerte furia me impulsó. 6 Yo pisoteé las gentes en mi enojo y las embriagué en Mi ira, y derramé su sangre en la tierra. 7 Yo hablaré de los hechos de fidelidad de pacto de El SEÑOR, las obras dignas de alabanza de El SEÑOR. Yo hablaré de todo lo que El SEÑOR ha hecho por nosotros, y de Su gran bondad a la casa de Israel. Esta compasión que Él nos ha mostrado por causa de Su misericordia, y con muchas obras de fidelidad de pacto. 8 Pues Él dijo: "Ciertamente ellos son Mi pueblo, niños que no son desleales.'' Él se convirtió en su Salvador. 9 A través de todo el sufrimiento de ellos, Él sufrió también, y el ángel de Su presencia los salvó. En Su amor y misericordia Él los salvó, y Él los levantó y los llevó a través de los todos los tiempos antiguos. 10 Pero ellos se rebelaron y entristecieron Su Espíritu Santo. Así que Él se volvió su enemigo y peleó contra ellos. 11 Su pueblo pensó acerca de los tiempos antiguos de Moisés. Ellos dijeron: ''¿Dónde está Dios, Quien los sacó del mar con los pastores de Su rebaño? ¿Dónde está Dios, Quien puso su Espíritu Santo entre ellos? 12 ¿Dónde está Dios, Quien hizo Su glorioso poder ir con la mano derecha de Moisés, y dividió el agua ante ellos, para hacerse un eterno nombre para Sí mismo? 13 ¿Dónde está Dios, Quien los guió por las aguas profundas? Como un caballo corriendo en tierra llana, ellos no tropezaron. 14 Como el ganado que desciende al valle, el Espíritu de el SEÑOR les dio reposo. Así Tú guíaste a Tu pueblo, para hacerte a Tí mismo un nombre de alabanza. 15 Mira abajo desde el cielo y presta atención desde Tu santa y gloriosa habitación. ¿Dónde está Tu celo y Tus actos poderosos? Tu misericordia y Tus actos compasivos son alejados de nosotros. 16 Pues Tú eres nuestro Padre, aunque Abraham no nos conoce, e Israel no nos reconoce, Tú, SEÑOR, eres nuestro Padre. 'Nuestro Redentor' ha sido tu nombre desde tiempos antiguos. 17 SEÑOR, ¿por qué nos haces deambular de Tus caminos y endurecer nuestros corazones, tal que nosotros no te obedezcamos? Regresa por el bien de tus siervos, las tribus de tu herencia. 18 Tu pueblo poseyó Tu santo lugar por un corto tiempo, pero luego nuestros enemigos lo pisotearon. 19 Nosotros nos hemos vuelto como aquellos sobre quienes Tú nunca gobernaste, como aquellos quienes nunca fueron llamados por Tu nombre.''

Isaiah 63:1

Quien es éste que viene de Edom... Bosra Isaías habla como un guardián utilizando el formato de pregunta y respuesta para presentar esta informaciónn acerca del juicio de Jehová sobre Edom, un enemigo de Israel. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una afirmación. TA: "Yo, Jehová, vengo desde Edom, vestido de rojo desde Bosra"

Bosra
Esta es la ciudad capital de Edom.

Soy Yo
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Jehová

¿Porqué tus vestidos son rojos y porqué...lagar?
Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una afirmación. TA: "Tus vestiduras rojas te hacen parecer como si hubieras estado pisando uvas en un lagar"

Lagar
Un lagar es un lugar bajo, cavado en la roca, en el suelo, donde los obreros pisan las uvas para aplastarlas con sus pies, a fin de quitar el jugo.

Isaiah 63:3

Yo he pisado uvas en el lagar
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Jehová. Esta imagen refiere a Jehová destruyendo a Sus enemigos.

Pues yo esperado el día de venganza
Aquí "dia" refiere a un período de tiempo.

Venganza
Jehová castigará de forma apropiada para producir Su justicia. Su tipo de venganza difiere de la venganza del hombre.

El año de mi redención
Aqui "año" se refiere a un tiempo específico indicado por Jehová para restaurar a Israel.

1 "¡Oh, si hubieras abierto los cielos y descendido! Las montañas hubieran temblado a Tu presencia, 2 como cuando el fuego enciende la maleza, o el fuego hace que el agua hierva. ¡Oh, que Tu nombre sea conocido por Tus adversarios, que las naciones tiemblen a Tu presencia! 3 Previamente, cuanto Tú hiciste cosas maravillosas que nosotros no habíamos esperado, Tú descendías, y las montañas temblaban a Tu presencia. 4 Desde tiempos antiguos nadie ha oído o percibido, ni ojo ha visto a ningún Dios aparte de Tí, Quien hace cosas por aquel quien espera por Él. 5 Tú vienes a ayudar a aquellos quienes se regocijan en hacer lo que es correcto, aquellos quienes recuerdan Tus caminos y los obedecen. Tú te enojaste cuando nosotros pecamos. En Tus caminos nosotros siempre seremos rescatados. 6 Pues, todos nosotros hemos llegado a ser como alguien que es inmundo, y todas nuestras obras justas son como un paño menstrual. Todos nosotros nos hemos marchitado como hojas; nuestras iniquidades, como el viento, nos llevan lejos. 7 No hay nadie quien invoque Tu nombre, quien haga un esfuerzo para asirse de Tí. Pues Tú has escondido Tu cara de nosotros y nos has hecho consumir en la mano de nuestras iniquidades. 8 Sin embargo, SEÑOR, Tú eres nuestro padre; nosotros somos el barro. Tú eres nuestro alfarero; y todos nosotros somos la obra de Tus manos. 9 No estés tan enojado, SEÑOR, ni nos recuerdes siempre nuestros pecados. Por favor, míranos a todos, Tú pueblo. 10 Tus ciudades santas se han convertido un desierto; Sion se ha convertido un desierto, Jerusalén una desolación. 11 Nuestro santo y hermoso templo, donde nuestros padres Te alababan, ha sido destruido por el fuego, y todo lo que era tan querido para nosotros está en ruinas. 12 ¿Cómo puedes Tú aún contenerte, SEÑOR? ¿Cómo puedes Tú permanecer en silencio y continuar humillándonos?"

Isaiah 64:1

Informacion General
El pueblo de Israel continúa hablándole a Jehová (Ver: 63:11)

Chapter 65

1 "Yo estaba preparado para ser buscado por aquellos que no preguntaron; Yo estaba preparado para ser encontrado por aquellos que no buscaron. Yo dije: '¡Estoy aquí! ¡Estoy aquí!' a una nación que no llamó mi Nombre. 2 ¡Yo he extendido Mis manos todo el día a un pueblo obstinado, quien camina en una manera que no es buena, quien ha caminado tras sus propios pensamientos y planes! 3 Ellos son un pueblo que contínuamente me ofenden, ofrendando sacrificios en jardines, y quemando incienso en bloques de ladrillos. 4 Ellos se sientan entre las tumbas y se mantienen velando toda la noche, y comen cerdo con caldo de carne asquerosa en sus platos. 5 Ellos dicen: 'Aléjate, y no vengas cerca de mí, porque yo soy más santo que Tú.' Estas cosas son humo a Mi nariz, un fuego que Me quema todo el día. 6 Mirad, está escrito delante de Mí: Yo no me quedaré callado, pues Yo me vengaré; Yo les reciprocaré en su regazo, 7 debido a sus pecados y los pecados de sus padres juntos," dice SEÑOR. "Yo les reciprocaré por sus quemas de incienso en las montañas y por burlarse de Mí en las colinas. Por lo tanto, Yo mediré sus acciones pasadas en sus regazos." 8 Esto es lo que El SEÑOR dice: "Como cuando el jugo es encontrado en un racimo de uvas, cuando uno dice: 'No lo arruines, porque hay bien en éste,' Esto es lo que Yo voy a hacer por el bien de mis sirvientes: Yo no los arruinaré a todos. 9 Yo traeré descendientes de Jacob, y de Judá unos que poseerán Mis montañas. Mis escogidos poseerán la tierra, y mis sirvientes vivirán allí. 10 Sarón se convertirá en pastos para bandadas, y el Valle de Acor un lugar de reposo para mis rebaños, para Mi pueblo quien me busca. 11 Pero ustedes quienes abandonaron al SEÑOR, quienes olvidaron Mi santo monte, quienes prepararon una mesa para el dios Fortuna, y llenaron copas de vino mezclado para el dios llamado Destino. 12 Yo los destinaré a la espada, y ustedes se inclinarán al sacrificio, porque cuando Yo llamé, ustedes no contestaron; cuando yo hablé, ustedes no escucharon. Pero ustedes hicieron lo malo a mi vista y escogieron hacer lo que Me desagrada." 13 Esto es lo que El SEÑOR Dios dice: "Mirad, mis sirvientes comerán, pero ustedes tendrán hambre; mirad, mis sirvientes beberán, pero ustedes tendrán sed; mirad, mis sirvientes se regocijarán, pero ustedes serán puestos en vergüenza. 14 Mirad, mis sirvientes gritarán con gozo por la alegría de corazón, pero ustedes llorarán por el dolor de su corazón, y gemirán bebido al crujir de su espíritu. 15 Ustedes dejarán atrás su nombre como una maldición para que Mis escogidos digan; Yo, el SEÑOR Dios, los mataré; Yo llamaré Mis sirvientes por otro nombre. 16 Cualquiera que pronuncie una bendición en la tierra será bendita por Mí, el Dios de verdad. Cualquiera que jurare en la tierra jurará por Mí, el Dios de verdad, porque las molestias de antaño serán olvidadas, pues éstas serán encubiertas de Mis ojos. 17 Pues vean, Yo estoy a punto de crear cielos nuevos y una tierra nueva; y las cosas de antaño no serán recordadas o traídas a mente. 18 Pero ustedes estarán alegres y regocijados para siempre en lo que Yo estoy a punto de crear. Mirad, Yo estoy a punto de crear a Jerusalén como un gozo, y su pueblo como un deleite. 19 Yo Me regocijaré sobre Jerusalén y estaré alegre sobre Mi pueblo; llanto y gemido de angustia no será más oído en ella. 20 Nunca más un infante vivirá allí sólo unos pocos días; ni un hombre anciano morirá antes de su tiempo. Uno quien muera de cien años será considerado una persona joven. Cualquiera quien no alcance la edad de cien años será considerado maldito. 21 Ellos edificarán casas y las habitarán, y ellos plantarán viñedos y comerán su fruto. 22 Nunca más edificarán una casa y otro vivirá en ésta; ellos no plantarán, y otros comerán; pues como el día de los árboles serán los días de Mi pueblo. Mis escogidos plenamente perdurará el trabajo de sus manos. 23 Ellos no trabajarán en vano, ni darán a luz en desaliento. Pues ellos son los hijos de aquellos bendecidos por El SEÑOR, y sus descendientes con ellos. 24 Antes que ellos llamen, Yo contestaré; y mientras ellos aún estén hablando, Yo escuharé. 25 El lobo y la oveja apacentarán juntos, y el león comerá paja como el buey; pero el polvo será el bocado de la serpiente. Ellos ya no herirán ni destruirán en todo Mi santo monte," dice El SEÑOR.

Isaiah 65:1

Chapter 66

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "El cielo es Mi trono, y la tierra es Mi banquillo para pies. ¿Dónde está, entonces, la casa que ustedes construirán para Mí? ¿Dónde está el lugar donde Yo pueda descansar? 2 Mi mano ha hecho todas estas cosas; así es cómo estas cosas llegaron a ser, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. Este es el hombre a quien Yo apruebo, el quebrantado y contrito de espíritu, y que tiembla ante Mi palabra. 3 El que masacra un buey también asesina un hombre; el que sacrifica un cordero también quiebra el cuello de un perro; el que ofrece una ofrenda de grano ofrece sangre de cerdo; el que ofrece un memorial de incienso también honra la maldad. Ellos han escogido sus propios caminos, y ellos se placen en sus abominaciones. 4 De la misma manera Yo escogeré su propio castigo; Yo traeré sobre ellos lo que ellos temen, porque cuando Yo llamé, nadie respondió; cuando Yo hablé, nadie escuchó. Ellos hicieron lo que era malo a Mi vista, y escogieron hacer lo que Me desagrada." 5 Oigan la palabra del SEÑOR, ustedes que tiemblan ante Su palabra: "Sus hermanos que los odian y los excluyen por amor a Mi nombre han dicho: 'Sea el SEÑOR glorificado, entonces veremos su gozo,' pero ellos serán puestos en vergüenza. 6 Un sonido de tumulto de batalla viene de la ciudad, un sonido desde el templo, el sonido del SEÑOR vengando Sus enemigos. 7 Antes de ponerse de parto, ella da a luz; antes de que el dolor le alcance, ella dio a luz un hijo. 8 ¿Quién ha escuchado tal cosa? ¿Quién ha visto tales cosas? ¿Nacerá una tierra en un día? ¿Puede una nación ser establecida en un momento? Sin embargo, tan pronto Sion se pone de parto, ella da a luz sus hijos. 9 ¿Traigo Yo un bebé a la apertura de nacimiento y no permito que nazca el niño? pregunta el SEÑOR. ¿O traigo un niño al momento de alumbramiento y entonces lo detengo? pregunta tu Dios. 10 ¡Regocíjense con Jerusalén y estén alegres por ella, todos ustedes que la aman; regocíjense con ella, todos ustedes que lamentaron sobre ella! 11 Porque ustedes lactarán y serán satisfechos; con sus senos ustedes serán consolados; pues ustedes beberán de ellos hasta la saciedad y se deleitarán con la abundancia de su gloria. 12 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Yo estoy a punto de propagar la prosperidad sobre ella como un río, y las riquezas de las naciones como un arroyo desbordado. Ustedes lactarán al lado de ella, serán llevados en sus brazos, y saltarán sobre sus rodillas. 13 Así como una madre consuela a su hijo, así Yo los consolaré, y ustedes serán consolados en Jerusalén. 14 Ustedes verán esto, y su corazón se regocijará, y sus huesos brotarán como hierba tierna. La mano del SEÑOR se dará a conocer a Sus siervos, pero Él mostrará Su enojo contra Sus enemigos. 15 Pues mirad, el SEÑOR viene con fuego, y Sus carruajes vienen como la tormenta de viento para traer el calor de Su enojo y Su reprensión con llamas de fuego. 16 Porque el SEÑOR ejecuta el juicio sobre la humanidad con fuego y con Su espada. Aquellos asesinados por el SEÑOR serán muchos. 17 Ellos se consagran a sí mismos y se hacen a sí mismos puros, tal que ellos puedan entrar a los jardines, siguiendo a quien está en medio de aquellos que comen la carne de cerdo y cosas abominables como ratones." Ellos vendrán a un final, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 18 Pues Yo conozco sus hechos y sus pensamientos. El tiempo viene cuando Yo reuniré a todas las naciones y lenguas. Ellas vendrán y verán Mi gloria. 19 Yo pondré una poderosa señal entre ellas. Entonces Yo enviaré sobrevivientes de ellos a las naciones: a Tarsis, Fut, y Lud, arqueros quienes tensan sus arcos, a Tubal, Javán, y a las tierras costeras distantes donde ellos no han escuchado de Mí ni han visto Mi gloria. Ellos proclamarán Mi gloria entre las naciones. 20 Ellos traerán de vuelta a todos sus hermanos de entre todas las naciones, como ofrenda al SEÑOR. Ellos vendrán a caballo, y en carruajes, en carretas, en mulas, y en camellos, a Mi monte santo Jerusalén, dice el SEÑOR. Pues el pueblo de Israel traerá una ofrenda de grano en una vasija limpia a la casa del SEÑOR. 21 A algunos de éstos, incluso los escogeré como sacerdotes y levitas, dice el SEÑOR. 22 Porque de la misma manera en que los cielos nuevos y la tierra nueva que Yo haré permanecerán delante de Mí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, así permanecerán sus descendientes, y su nombre permanecerá. 23 De un mes al próximo, y de un día de reposo al próximo, toda gente vendrá a inclinarse ante Mí, dice el SEÑOR. 24 Ellos saldrán y verán los cuerpos muertos de los hombres que se han rebelado contra Mí, porque los gusanos que los comen no morirán, y el fuego que los consume no será apagado, y será una abominación a toda carne."

Isaiah 66:1

El Cielo es mi trono, y la tierra es mi banquillo
Jehová compara el Cielo con un trono y la tierra como un banquillo para enfatizar cuán grande El es.

¿Donde, entonces, está la casa que Uds. construirán para Mi? ¿Donde está el lugar donde Yo pueda descansar?
Jehová utiliza preguntar para enfatizar que los humanos no pueden construir un lugar donde que El viva.

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

1 Estas son las palabras de Jeremías hijo de Hilcías, uno de los sacerdotes en Anatot en la tierra de Benjamín. 2 La palabra de Jehová vino a él en los días de Josías hijo de Amón, rey de Judá, en el año décimotercero de su reinado. 3 También vino en los días de Joacim hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, hasta el quinto mes del año undécimo de Sedequías, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, cuando el pueblo de Jerusalén fue tomado como prisionero. 4 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 5 "Antes que Yo te formara en la matriz, Yo te escogí; antes que salieras de la matriz Yo te aparté; Yo te hice un profeta a las naciones." 6 ¡Oh, SEÑOR Jehová!" Yo dije: "Yo no sé cómo hablar, pues yo soy muy joven." 7 Pero el SEÑOR me dijo: "No digas: 'Yo soy muy joven.' ¡Tú irás a todo lugar Yo te envíe, y tú dirás todo lo que Yo te ordene! 8 No tengas miedo a ellos, pues Yo estoy contigo para rescatarte; ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 9 Entonces el SEÑOR extendió su mano, tocó mi boca, y me dijo: "Ahora, Yo he puesto mi palabra en tu boca. 10 Yo te estoy comisionando hoy sobre naciones y sobre reinos, para arrancar y romper, destruir y tirar, para construir y plantar." 11 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: "¿Qué ves Jeremías?" Yo dije: "Veo una rama de almendro." 12 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Tú has visto bien, porque Yo estoy vigilando sobre mi palabra para llevarla a cabo." 13 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí una segunda vez, diciendo: "¿Qué ves?" Yo dije: "Yo veo una olla caliente, cuya superficie se está volcando, inclinándose desde el norte." 14 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Desastre se abrirá desde el norte sobre todos los que viven en esta tierra. 15 Porque Yo estoy llamando a todas las tribus de los reinos del norte, declara el SEÑOR. Ellos vendrán, y todos van a establecer su trono en la entrada de las puertas de Jerusalén, contra todas las paredes que la rodean, y contra todas las ciudades de Judá. 16 Yo pronunciaré sentencia en contra de ellos por toda su maldad al abandonarme, al quemar incienso a otros dioses, y al adorar lo que ellos han hecho con sus propias manos. 17 ¡Preparaté! ¡Levántate y dile a ellos todo lo que Yo te ordene. No temas delante de ellos, o Yo te haré temer delante de ellos! 18 ¡Mirad! Hoy Yo te he hecho una ciudad fortificada, un pilar de hierro, y pared de bronce en contra de toda la tierra, en contra de los reyes de Judá, sus oficiales, sus sacerdotes, y las personas de la tierra. 19 Ellos van a luchar contra ti, pero ellos no te vencerán, porque Yo estaré contigo para rescatarte. Chapter 2

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciéndo: 2 "Ve y proclama en la asamblea de Jerusalén. Di: 'El SEÑOR dice: He traido a la memoria tu parte del pacto de fidelidad en tu juventud, tu amor en aquel tiempo cuando estábamos comprometidos, cuando fuiste tras de mí en el desierto, la tierra que no estaba arada. 3 Israel fue separado para el SEÑOR, ¡las primicias de Su cosecha! Todo aquel que comiera de las primicias era culpable; destrucción venía sobre ellos- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.'" 4 Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR, casa de Jacob y todas las familias de la casa de Israel. 5 El SEÑOR dice: "¿Qué encontraron mal tus padres en Mí que se apartaron y no me siguieron? ¿Que se fueron tras ídolos inútiles y se volvieron inútiles ellos mismos? 6 Ellos no dijeron: '¿Dónde está el SEÑOR, quien nos sacó de la tierra de Egipto? ¿Dónde está el SEÑOR, quien nos guió al desierto, en la tierra de los árabes y los pozos, en una tierra de sequía y oscuridad profunda, una tierra por la cual nadie pasa y donde nadie vive?' 7 Pero Yo los traje a la tierra de Carmelo, ¡para comer sus frutos y otras cosas buenas! Aún cuando vinieron, contaminaron mi tierra, ¡hicieron de mi herencia una abominación! 8 El sacerdote no dijo: '¿Dónde está el SEÑOR? y ¡a los expertos en la Ley no les importé! Los pastores transgredieron en mi contra. Los profetas profetizaron para Baal y caminaron tras cosas inútiles. 9 Así que Yo te acusaré aún- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- y Yo acusaré a los hijos de tus hijos. 10 Pues cruzen a la costa de Quitim (Chipre) y miren. Envíen mensajeros a Cedar y busquen y vean si alguna vez antes ha ocurrido algo así. 11 ¿Ha habido una nación que ha cambiado dioses, aún cuando no eran dioses? Pero mi pueblo ha cambiado su gloria por lo que no les puede ayudar. 12 ¡Estremézcanse, cielos, por causa de esto! Sean conmocionados y espántense- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 13 Pues mi pueblo ha cometio dos males contra Mí: Ellos han abandonado los manatiales de aguas vivas, y han cabado cisternas para ellos mismos, cisternas rotas que no pueden retener agua. 14 ¿Es Israel un esclavo? ¿Nació en la casa de su amo? Entonces, ¿por qué ha sido saqueado? 15 Leones jóvenes han rugido en contra él. Ellos han hecho mucho ruido y convertieron su tierra en un espanto. Sus ciudades fueron destruidas sin ningún habitante. 16 También, los pueblos de Menfis y Tafnes te afeitarán la cabeza. 17 ¿No se hicieron esto a ustedes mismos cuando abandonaron al SEÑOR tu Dios, mientras Él los estaba guiando? 18 Así que ahora, ¿por qué toman el camino a Egipto y beben de las aguas del Nilo? ¿Por qué toman el camino a Asiria y beben aguas del Río Eufrates? 19 Tu maldad te reprende y tu falta de fe te castiga. Así que piensa en esto y comprende que es malvado y amargo cuando abandonas al SEÑOR tu Dios, y no temes a mí- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 20 Pues Yo rompí tu yugo que tenías en tiempos antiguos; rompí tus cadenas. Aún dijiste: '¡No te serviré!' desde que te inclinaste en cada colina alta debajo de todo árbol frondoso, tú, adúltero. 21 Te planté como viña escogida, completamente de una semilla pura. ¿Cómo entonces te haz cambiado en una viña corrupta, vid sin valor? 22 Pues aun si te limpias en el río o te lavas con un jabón fuerte, tu iniquidad es una mancha ante Mí- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 23 ¿Cómo puedes decir: '¡Yo no estoy contaminado! No he caminado tras los baales'? ¡Mira lo que hicistes en los valles! Considera lo que haz hecho- ¡eres una camella rápida corriendo aquí y allá, 24 un asna salvaje acostumbrada al desierto, en su calor oliendo el viento! ¿Quién puede detener su lujuria? Ninguno de los machos necesita agotarse para perseguirla; al tiempo de apareo ellos la encontrarán. 25 ¡Debes guardar tus pies de quedar desnudos y tu garganta de tener sed! Pero tú dijiste: '¡No hay esperanza! No, ¡Yo amo a los extraños y voy tras ellos!' 26 Como la vergüenza de un asaltante cuando es hallado, ¡así la casa de Israel será avergonzada- ellos, sus reyes, sus príncipes, y sus sacerdotes y profetas! 27 Estos son los que le dicen al árbol: 'Tú eres mi padre,' y a la piedra: 'Tú me diste a luz.' Pues me han dado su espalda y no sus rostros. No obstante, en tiempos de problemas dicen: '¡Levántate y sálvanos!' 28 Pero entonces ¿dónde están los dioses que hicieron para ustedes mismos? ¡Deja que ellos se levanten si ellos desean salvarlos en tus tiempos de problemas, pues tus ídolos equivalen el número de tus ciudades, Judá! 29 Entonces ¿por qué me acusas de hacer el mal? Todos ustedes han pecado contra Mí- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 30 Yo he castigado a tu pueblo en vano. Ellos no aceptan la disciplina. ¡Tu espada ha devorado tus profetas como un león destructivo! 31 Tú quien perteneces a esta generación! ¡Pon atención a Mi palabra, la palabra del SEÑOR! ¿He sido un desierto para Israel? o ¿Una tierra de gran oscuridad? ¿Por qué el pueblo dice: 'Vamos a divagar, no iremos donde Ti nunca más'? 32 ¿Acaso una virgen olvidará sus joyas, una esposa su velo? ¡Sin embargo, mi pueblo me ha olvidado por días sin número! 33 Cuan bien haces tus caminos para buscar amor. Incluso haz enseñado el camino de la mujer malvada. 34 La sangre que era la vida de los inocentes, gentes pobres han sido halladas en tus ropas. Estas gentes no fueron halladas en actos de robo. 35 Sin embargo dices: 'Yo soy inocente; seguramente su coraje se ha alejado de mí.' ¡Pero mira! Traeré juicio sobre ti porque dices: 'Yo no he pecado.' 36 ¿Por qué tratas tan livianamente este cambio en tus caminos? Tú también serás decepcionada por Egipto, así como lo fuiste por Asiria. 37 Tú también saldrás de allí abatida con las manos en la cabeza, pues el SEÑOR ha rechazado a aquellos en quienes confiaste, así que no serás ayudada por ellos."

Chapter 3

1 "Si un hombre se divorcia de su esposa y ella se aleja de él y se convierte en la esposa de otro hombre, ¿regresará él a ella otra vez? ¿No sería eso una tierra contaminada grandemente? Tú has vivido como una prostituta con muchos amantes; ¿y regresarás a Mí? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 2 ¡Alza tus ojos a las alturas vacías y mira! ¿Hay algún lugar en dónde no hayas tenido sexo ilícito? Al lado de los caminos te sentaste a esperar a tus amantes, como un árabe en el desierto. Tú has contaminado la tierra con tu prostitución y malicia. 3 Así, las lluvias de primavera fueron detenidas y las lluvias tardías no llegaron. Pero tu rostro es arrogante, como el rostro de una mujer promiscua. Tú te rehúsas a sentir vergüenza. 4 ¿Acaso no acabas de llamarme a Mí: '¡Mi Padre! ¡Mi Amigo más cercano, aún desde mi juventud! ¿Estará Él siempre molesto? 5 ¿Acaso mantendrá Su furia por siempre hasta el final?' ¡Mira! Esto es lo que tú has dicho, pero tú haces todo el mal que puedes hacer!" 6 Entonces, el SEÑOR me dijo a mí en los días de Josías el rey: "¿Has visto lo que la infiel de Israel ha hecho? Ella ha subido a cada colina alta y bajo cada árbol frondoso, y allí ella ha actuado como prostituta. 7 Yo dije: 'Luego que ella haga todas estas cosas, ella regresará a Mí,' pero ella no regresó. Entonces, su infiel hermana Judá vio estas cosas. 8 Así que, Yo ví eso, en la misma manera que la infiel Israel había cometido adulterio y Yo la había enviado lejos y le había dado un certificado de divorcio en contra de ella, su infiel hermana Judá no tuvo miedo; ella también salió y actuó como prostituta. 9 Su prostitución fue nada para ella; ella contaminó la tierra, y ella cometió adulterio con piedras y árboles. 10 Entonces, después de todo esto, su infiel hermana Judá regresó a Mí, no con todo su corazón, pero con una mentira--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 11 Entonces, el SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "¡La infiel Israel ha sido más justa que la infiel Judá! 12 Ve y proclama estas palabras en el norte. Di: '¡Regresa, infiel Israel! --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--Yo no siempre estaré enojado contigo. Ya que soy fiel--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--Yo no estaré enojado por siempre. 13 Reconoce tu iniquidad, pues tú has pecado en contra del SEÑOR tu Dios; ¡tú has compartido tus caminos con extraños bajo cada árbol frondoso! ¡Porque tú no has escuchado Mi voz! --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 14 ¡Regresen, pueblo infiel! --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--¡Yo soy tu esposo! Yo te tomaré, uno de una ciudad y dos de una familia, y Yo te traeré a Sion! 15 Yo te daré pastores según Mi corazón, y ellos te pastorearán con conocimiento y visión. 16 Entonces, será que tú crecerás y darás fruto en la tierra en esos días--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--ellos ya no dirán: "¡El arca del pacto del SEÑOR!" Este asunto ya no vendrá a sus corazones o será recordado; no será extrañado, y algún otro no será hecho.' 17 En aquel tiempo, ellos proclamarán sobre Jerusalén: 'Este es el trono del SEÑOR,' y todas las otras naciones se reunirán en Jerusalén en el nombre del SEÑOR. Ellos ya no caminarán en la terquedad de sus corazones malignos. 18 En esos días, la casa de Judá caminará con la casa de Israel. Ellos se juntarán desde la tierra del norte hasta la tierra que le di a tus ancestros como herencia. 19 Como para Mí, Yo digo: 'Cómo quiero Yo honrarte a ti como Mi hijo y darte una tierra agradable, ¡una herencia más hermosa que lo que hay en cualquier otra nación! Yo hubiera dicho: 'Tú me llamarás: "Mi Padre".' Yo hubiera dicho que tú no dejarías de seguirme. 20 Pero como una mujer infiel a su esposo, tú me has traicionado, casa de Israel--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 21 Una voz se oye en las planicies, ¡el llanto y el ruego de la gente de Israel! Pues ellos han cambiado sus caminos; ellos se han olvidado del SEÑOR su Dios. 22 "¡Regresen, pueblo infiel! ¡Yo los sanaré de la traición!" "¡Mira! ¡Nosotros vendremos a Ti, porque Tú eres el SEÑOR nuestro Dios! 23 Ciertamente, las mentiras vienen de las montañas, un sonido confuso desde las montañas; ciertamente, el SEÑOR nuestro Dios es la salvación de Israel. 24 Aún así, vergonzosos ídolos han consumido lo que nuestros antepasados han conseguido trabajando--¡sus rebaños y ganados, sus hijos y sus hijas! 25 Vamos a acostarnos en vergüenza. Que nuestra vergüenza nos cubra, ¡pues hemos pecado en contra del SEÑOR, nuestro Dios! Nosotros mismos y nuestros antepasados, desde el tiempo de nuestra juventud hasta ese día presente, ¡no hemos escuchado la voz del SEÑOR, nuestro Dios!"

Chapter 4

1 "Si tú vuelves, Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, entonces debe ser a Mí que vuelvas. Si tú remueves tus cosas detestables de delante de Mí y no te extravías de Mí otra vez, 2 tú deberás ser franco, justo, y recto cuando jures: 'Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive.' Las naciones se bendecirán ellas mismas en Él, y en Él se gloriarán." 3 Pues el SEÑOR dice esto a cada persona en Judá y Jerusalén: 'Ara tu propia tierra, y no siembres entre espinas. 4 Circuncídense ustedes mismos al SEÑOR, y remuevan los prepucios de su corazones, hombres de Judá y habitantes de Jerusalén, sino Mi furia saldrá como fuego, y quemará sin nadie que lo apague, a causa de la maldad de sus hechos. 5 Repórtense en Judá y hagan que se escuche en Jerusalén. Digan: "Toquen la trompeta en la tierra." Proclamen: "Júntense. Iremos a las ciudades fortificadas." 6 ¡Levanten la bandera de señal y apúntenla hacia Sion, y corran por su seguridad! No se queden, pues Yo traeré desastre desde el norte y un gran colapso. 7 Un león está saliendo de su matorral y alguien que destrozará naciones está estableciéndose. Él está saliendo de su lugar para traer horror a su tierra, para convertir sus ciudades en ruinas, donde nadie vivirá. 8 Por esto, arrópense en silicio, laméntense y giman. Pues la fuerza de la ira del SEÑOR no se ha retirado de nosotros. 9 Entonces ocurrirá en ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, que los corazones del rey y sus oficiales morirán. Los sacerdotes estarán aterrados y los profetas estarán horrorizados.'" 10 Así que yo dije: "¡Oh! SEÑOR Dios. Seguramente Tú engañaste completamente a estas gentes y a Jerusalén diciéndoles: 'Habrá paz para ustedes.' Pero aún la espada está golpeando contra su vida." 11 En aquel tiempo será dicho de esta gente y Jerusalén: "Un ardiente viento de las planicies del desierto hará su camino hacia las hijas de mi pueblo. Éste no los aventará ni los lavará. 12 Un viento mucho más fuerte que ese vendrá por mi comando, y Yo ahora pasaré sentencia contra ellos. 13 Mira, él está atacando como nubes, y sus carros son como una tormenta. Sus caballos son más rápidos que las águilas. ¡Ay de nosotros, pues seremos devastados! 14 Lava tu corazón de maldad, Jerusalén, para que puedas ser salvada. ¿Por cuánto más serán tus pensamientos más profundos sobre cómo pecar? 15 Pues una voz está trayendo noticias desde Dan, y el desastre que viene se oye desde las montañas de Efraín. 16 Haz que las naciones piensen sobre esto: Miren, anuncien a Jerusalén que los sitiadores vienen de una tierra lejana para gritar en batalla contra las ciudades de Judá. 17 Ellos serán como los guardas de un campo cultivado en contra de ella a su alrededor, ya que ella ha sido rebelde contra Mí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, 18 y tu conducta y tus actos han causado estas cosas a ustedes. Este será su castigo. ¡Cuan terrible será! Este golpeará su mismo corazón. 19 ¡Mi corazón! ¡Mi corazón! Yo estoy en angustia en mi corazón. Mi corazón está turbulento dentro de Mí. No puedo callar pues escucho el sonido de la trompeta, una alarma para batalla. 20 Desastre sigue al desastre; pues toda la tierra está en ruinas. Repentinamente Mis tiendas son destruidas, Mis cortinas en un momento. 21 ¿Por cuánto más veré el estándarte? ¿Escucharé el sonido de la trompeta? 22 Por la necedad de Mi pueblo, ellos no Me conocen. Ellos son personas idiotas y no tienen entendimiento. Tienen habilidades para el mal, pero no saben hacer bien. 23 Yo vi la tierra. ¡He aquí! Era sin forma y vacía. Pues no había luz en los cielos. 24 Miré a las montañas. He aquí, estaban temblando, y todas las colinas estaban temblando. 25 Yo miré. He aquí, no había nadie, y todas las aves de los cielos habían huido. 26 Yo miré. He aquí, los huertos eran tierra salvaje y todas las ciudades habían sido traidas abajo ante el SEÑOR, ante la furia de su ira." 27 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Toda la tierra se convertirá en devastación, pero Yo no la destruiré por completo. 28 Por esta razón, la tierra lamentará, y los cielos se oscurecerán. Pues Yo he declarado Mis intenciones; no me retractaré; Yo no cambiaré al llevarlas a cabo. 29 Toda ciudad huirá del ruido de la caballería y de los arqueros con sus arcos; ellos correrán hacia los bosques. Cada ciudad escalará hacia los lugares rocosos. Las ciudades serán abandonadas, pues no habrá nadie que las habite. 30 Ahora que has sido devastada, ¿que harás? Pues aunque te vistas de escarlata, te adornes con joyas doradas, y hagas que tus ojos se vean más grandes con pintura, los hombres que te deseaban ahora te rechazan. Por lo contrario, están tratando de quitarte la vida. 31 Pues escucho el sonido de la angustia, aflicción como en el nacimiento de un primogénito, el sonido de la hija de Sion. Ella está buscando aliento. Ella estira sus manos: '¡Ay de mí! Estoy desmayando por causa de estos asesinos.'"

Chapter 5

1 Aprésurate por las calles de Jerusalén; busca también en las plazas de la ciudad. Luego mira y piensa en esto: si puedes encontrar a un hombre o alguien que esté actuando justamente, y tratando de actuar fielmente, entonces perdonaré a Jerusalén. 2 Aunque ellos dicen: 'Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive,' sin embargo ellos están jurando falsamente." 3 SEÑOR, ¿será que Tus ojos no buscan la fidelidad? Tú castigas a la gente, pero ellos no sienten dolor. Tú los has vencido por completo, pero ellos todavía se niegan a recibir disciplina. Ellos endurecen sus rostros más que una roca, pues ellos niegan arrepentirse. 4 Así que, yo dije: "Seguramente, ellos son sólo gente pobre. Ellos son necios, pues no conocen los caminos del SEÑOR, ni tampoco los decretos de su Dios. 5 Yo iré a las personas importantes y declararé el mensaje de Dios a ellos, pues ellos al menos conocen los caminos del SEÑOR, los decretos de su Dios." Pero todos ellos rompieron juntos su yugo; todos ellos arrancaron las cadenas que los ataban a Dios, 6 Así que, un león de los matorrales los atacará. Un lobo de Arabah los arruinará. Una pantera al acecho vendrá en contra de sus ciudades. Cualquiera que vaya afuera de su ciudad será despedazado. Pues sus transgresiones aumentan. Sus actos de infidelidad son sin límites. 7 ¿Por qué debería Yo perdonar a esta gente? Sus hijos me han abandonado y han hecho juramentos por los que no son dioses. Yo los alimenté completamente, pero ellos cometieron adulterio y caminaron en gran número a las casas de prostitutas. 8 Ellos eran caballos en calor. Ellos vagaron queriendo aparearse. Cada hombre relinchando a la esposa de su vecino. 9 Así que, ¿no debería Yo castigarlos? Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR ¿Y no debería Yo mismo vengarme de una nación que es así? 10 Sube a las terrazas de viñedos de ella y destruye. Pero no traigas completa destruccción a ellas. Poda sus viñas, ya que esas viñas no vienen del SEÑOR. 11 Pues las casas de Israel y Judá me han traicionado completamente. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 12 Ellos han hablado falsamente del SEÑOR y ellos han dicho: "Él no hará nada; ningún mal vendrá sobre nosotros, y nosotros no veremos ni espada o hambruna. 13 Los profetas se volverán viento, la palabra no está en ellos, así que, lo que ellos digan sea hecho a ellos." 14 Así que, el SEÑOR, el Dios de los ejércitos, dice esto: "Porque ustedes han dicho esto, verán, estoy a punto de poner Mi palabra en tu boca. ¡Será como fuego, y este pueblo será como madera! Pues los consumirá. 15 ¡Miren! Estoy a punto de traer una nación en contra ustedes desde lejos, casa de Israel. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. ¡Es una nación fuerte, una nación antigua! Es una nación, cuyo idioma no conocen, ni tampoco entederás lo que ellos digan." 16 Su bolsa para flechas es como una tumba abierta. Todos ellos son soldados. 17 Así que tu cosecha será consumida, tus hijos e hijas también, y tus comidas. Ellos se comerán tus rebaños y ganados; ellos se comerán el fruto de tus viñédos y árboles de higo. Ellos derribarán con una espada tus ciudades fortificadas, en las que tú confiaste. 18 Pero aún en aquellos días, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, Yo no intento destruirlos por completo. 19 Cuando ustedes, Israel y Judá, digan: '¿Por qué el SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos ha hecho todas estas cosas?' entonces tú, Jeremías, les dirás a ellos: 'Así como ustedes abandonaron al SEÑOR y han servido a dioses extranjeros en su tierra, así también ustedes servirán a extraños en una tierra que no es la suya.' 20 Comunica esto a la casa de Jacob y que sea escuchado en Judá. Di: 21 'Escuchen esto, ustedes gente necia que no tienen entendimiento; quienes tienen ojos pero no pueden ver, y tienen oídos pero no pueden escuchar. 22 ¿No Me temen ustedes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, o tiemblan ante Mi rostro? He colocado un límite de arena en contra del mar, un decreto en marcha que no es violentado, incluso cuando el mar se levanta y cae, no lo violenta. Incluso cuando sus olas rugen, ellas no lo cruzan. 23 Pero este pueblo tiene un corazón terco. Se torna en rebelión y se va. 24 Pues ellos no dicen en su corazón: "Vamos a temer al SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, aquel que trae lluvia, la lluvia temprana y las lluvias tardías, en su tiempo correcto, manteniendo fijas las semanas de la cosecha para nosotros." 25 Sus iniquidades evitaron que esto sucediera. Sus pecados han detenido que lo bueno venga a ustedes. 26 Pues la gente malvada se encuentran entre Mi pueblo. Ellos miran como alguien que se agacha para capturar pájaros; ellos colocan una trampa y atrapan a la gente. 27 Como una jaula llena de pájaros, sus casas están llenas de engaño. Así que, ellos crecen y se hacen ricos. 28 Ellos se han vuelto gordos; ellos brillan con bienestar. Ellos cruzaron todos los límites de la maldad. Ellos no defienden la causa de la gente, o la causa del huérfano. Ellos prosperan aunque no han dado justicia al necesitado. 29 ¿No debería Yo castigarlos por estas cosas, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y no tomaré Yo venganza en una nación así? 30 Atrocidades y horrores han ocurrido en la tierra. 31 Los profetas profetizan con engaño, y los sacerdotes gobiernan con su propio poder. Mi pueblo ama esta manera, pero ¿qué pasará al final?"

Chapter 6

1 Encuentren refugio, pueblo de Benjamín, al irse de Jerusalén. Soplen una trompeta en Tecoa. Levanten sobre Bet Haquerem una señal, desde que la maldad esté apareciendo desde el norte; una gran destrucción se aproxima. 2 La hija de Sion, la hermosa y delicada mujer, será destruida. 3 Los pastores y sus rebaños irán a ellos; ellos levantarán sus tiendas contra ella rodeándola; cada hombre pastoreará con su propia mano. 4 "Dedíquense ustedes mismos a los dioses para la batalla. Levántense, déjenos atacar en la tarde. Es muy malo que la luz del día se esté acabando, porque las sombras de la tarde están cayendo. 5 Pero déjanos atacar en la noche y destruir sus fortalezas." 6 Porque el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice: Córten sus árboles, y amontonen montículos de tierra contra Jerusalén. Esta es la ciudad correcta para atacar, porque está llena con opresión. 7 Como un pozo derrama agua fresca, así esta ciudad continúa produciendo maldad. Violencia y desorden son escuchados desde ella; la enfermedad y heridas están continuamente ante mi rostro. 8 Acepta la disciplina, Jerusalén, o Yo Me alejaré de ustedes y los convertiré en ruinas, una tierra no habitada."' 9 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice, "Ellos ciertamente espigarán aquellos que son dejados en Israel como un viñedo. Alcancen de nuevo con su mano para recoger uvas de los viñedos. 10 ¿A quienes debo declarar y adviertir para que oigan? ¡Mira! ¡Sus oídos son incircuncisos; ellos no son capaces de prestar atención! ¡Mira! ¡La palabra del Señor ha venido a ellos para corregirlos, pero ellos no la quieren.'' 11 Pero Yo estoy lleno de la furia del SEÑOR. Yo estoy cansado de contenerla. Él me dijo, "Derrámala a los niños en las calles y en cada grupo de hombres jóvenes. Porque cada hombre será quitado de su esposa; y cada persona muy anciana. 12 Sus casas serán entregadas a otros, ambos sus campos y sus esposas juntas. Porque Yo voy a atacar los no habitados de la tierra con Mi mano-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 13 El SEÑOR declara que desde el menor hasta el mayor, todos ellos codician la ganancia deshonesta. Desde el profeta hasta el sacerdote, todos ellos practican engaño. 14 Ellos han sanado heridas de Mi pueblo ligeramente, diciendo, 'Paz, paz', cuando no había ninguna paz. 15 ¿Estaban avergonzados cuando practicaban la abominación? Ellos no fueron avergonzados; ¡Así ellos no sabían cómo avergonzarse! Es por que caerán entre los caídos; ellos serán derribados cuando sean castigados, dice el SEÑOR. 16 El SEÑOR dice esto, "Párense en el cruce de caminos y miren; pregunten por las sendas antiguas. '¿Dónde está éste buen camino?' Después vayan por él y encuentren un lugar de descanso para ustedes mismos. Pero el pueblo dijo, 'Nosotros no iremos.' 17 Yo los escogí a ustedes vigilantes para que escucharan la trompeta. Pero ellos dijeron, 'Nosotros no escucharemos.' 18 ¡Por lo tanto, naciones, escuchen! Vean, ustedes testigos, que les va a pasar a ellos. 19 ¡Escuchen, Tierra! Vean, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre a este pueblo-- el fruto de sus pensamientos. Ellos no prestaron atención a Mi palabra o Mi ley, sino que ellos en cambio la rechazaron." 20 "¿Qué significa este incienso que sube de Sabá hacia Mí? o ¿estos olores dulces desde una tierra lejana? Sus ofrendas quemadas no son aceptables para Mí, tampoco sus sacrificios. 21 Entonces el SEÑOR dice esto, 'Mira, Yo estoy por colocar un bloque de tropiezo contra este pueblo. Ellos tropezarán sobre él-- padres e hijos juntos. Los habitantes y sus vecinos también perecerán.' 22 El SEÑOR dice esto, 'Mira, un pueblo viene desde una tierra norteña. Pues una gran nación ha sido agitada para venir de una tierra lejana. 23 Ellos recogerán arcos y lanzas. Ellos son crueles y no tienen compasión. Su sonido es como el rugido del mar, y ellos están montando en caballos en formación como luchadores, hija de Sion.' 24 "Nosotros hemos escuchados noticias de ellos. Nuestras manos flaquearon en ansiedad. La angustia nos acecha como una mujer teniendo un hijo. 25 No vayan fuera de los campos, y no caminen en las carreteras, porque las espadas del enemigo y el terror están todo alrededor. 26 Hija de mi pueblo, cúbranse en cicilio y rueda en el polvo de un funeral para un hijo único. Realiza un funeral amargo para tí misma, porque el destructor vendrá repentinamente sobre nosotros. 27 "Yo te he hecho, Jeremías, aquel quien prueba a mi pueblo como uno que prueba metal, entonces tú vas a inspeccionar y probar sus caminos. 28 Ellos son todas las personas más obstinadas, quienes se pasan calumniando a otros. Todos ellos son bronce y hierro, actuando corruptamente. 29 Los fuelles son salpicados por el fuego que está quemándolos; el plomo es consumido en las llamas. La refinación continúa entre ellos, pero es inútil, porque la maldad no es removida. 30 Ellos serán llamados plata rechazada, porque el SEÑOR los ha rechazado."

''Corten sus árboles.'' El Señor está hablando al ejército que va a atacar Jerusalén.

montículos
''montículos''. Estas son monítulos de tierra que permite que el enemigo ataque los muros de Jerusalen.

porque está llena con opresión.
''Porque su gente siempre se están oprimiendo, los unos a los otros.''

Como un pozo derrama agua fresca, así esta ciudad continúa produciendo maldad
Un pozo debe contener agua que se pueda utilizar. Como un pozo contiene agua así Jerusalen reside con su maldad, aún cuando el Señor los castiga.

Violencia y desorden son escuchados desde ella Traducción alterna: ''Yo escucho violencia y robo en ella.'' la enfermedad y heridas están continuamente ante mi cara.

Traducción alterna: ''Constantemente veo enfermedad y sufrimiento.''

Acepta la disciplina, Jerusalén
El Señor habla a Jerusalen como si ella fuese una persona. Traducción alterna: ''Aprendé de tu castigo, gente de Jerusalen.''

una ciudad no habitada
''una tierra o ciudad donde no hay habitantes''.

Jeremiah 6:9

Ellos ciertamente espigarán aquellos que son dejados en Israel como un viñedo
El Señor compara a la gente que permanece luego que el enemigo ya haya destruido Israel, con las uvas que permanecen en el viñedo. Traducción alterna: ''Ciertamente, ellos volverán a atacar a la gente que permanecieron luego que Israel fue destruida.''

Ellos ciertamente
La palabra ''ellos'' se refiere al enemigo que el Señor manda a destruir Israel.

Alcancen de nuevo
El Señor está hablando a los enemigos que atacan a Israel.

Alcancen de nuevo con su mano para recoger uvas de los viñedos.
Traducción alterna: ''Vengan y ataquen a la gente de Israel que permanecieron''.

A quienes debo
Jeremías está hablando.

¿A quienes debo declarar y adviertir para que oigan?
El Señor utiliza esta pregunta para enfatizar que nadie de Israel le escucharía Traducción alterna: "A quién debo declarar y advertir para que escuchen"

¡Mira!
El Señor utiliza la palabra ''mira'' para enfatizar lo que Él está diciendo.

¡Sus oídos son incircuncisos
Traducción alterna: ''Ellos se resisten a escuchar'' o ''Se resisten a obedecer.''

Sus oídos
la palabra ''su'' se refiere a la gente de Israel.

Párense en la calle que cruza
El Señor está hablando a la gente de Israel.

Párense en la calle que cruza ... 'Nosotros no iremos.'
Los caminos y las sendas se refieren a la manera en que viven sus vidas. El Señor quiere que la gente de Israel le consulten cuál sería la buena forma de vivir y poder obedecerle.

pregunten por los caminos de los ancianos
''Pregunten qué hicieron sus ancestros''

Yo los escogí a ustedes vigilantes ...Nosotros no escucharemos.
El Señor describe a los profetas como vigilantes que fueron enviados para advertir a la gente del peligro.

escogí a ustedes
La palabra ''ustedes'' se refiere a la gente de Israel.

para que escucharán la trompeta
''Escuchen el sonido de la trompeta.'' El Señor está mandando a la gente de Israel a prestar atención lo que Él está diciendo a través de los profetas.

¡Por lo tanto, naciones, escuchen! Vean, ustedes testigos, que les va a pasar. ¡Escuchen, Tierra! Vean Estas tres oraciones están diciendo a la gente de otras naciones que observen lo que El Señor hará a los rebeldes de Judá.

Yo estoy apunto de traer desastre a este pueblo
''pronto esta gente perecerá''

Chapter 7

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR: 2 "¡Párate en el puerta de la casa del SEÑOR y proclama ésta palabra! Di: 'Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR, todos ustedes de Judá, ustedes quienes entran por estas puertas para adorar al SEÑOR. 3 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Hagan sus caminos y practiquen el bien, y Yo les voy a dejar continuar viviendo en este lugar. 4 No se encomienden a sí mismos a las palabras engañosas y digan: "¡Templo del SEÑOR! ¡Templo del SEÑOR! ¡Templo del SEÑOR!" 5 Pues, si ustedes realmente hacen sus caminos y practican el bien; si ustedes ejecutan completa la justicia entre un hombre y su vecino-- 6 si ustedes no explotan al que se está quedando en la tierra, el huérfano, o la viuda y no derraman sangre inocente en este lugar, y no caminan tras otros dioses para hacer su propio daño-- 7 entonces Yo voy a dejar que se queden en este lugar, en la tierra que Yo le di a sus ancestros desde los tiempos antiguos y para siempre. 8 ¡Miren! Ustedes están encomendándose a palabras engañosas que no les ayudan. 9 ¿Acaso ustedes roban, matan y cometen adulterio? Y ¿Acaso ustedes juran engañosamente y ofrecen incienso a Baal y caminan tras otros dioses quienes ustedes no han conocido? 10 Entonces, ¿acaso ustedes vienen delante de Mí en esta casa donde mi nombre es proclamado y dicen: "Nosotros somos salvos", para que puedan hacer todas estas abominaciones? 11 ¿Es ésta es la casa que lleva mi nombre, una cueva de ladrones en tus ojos? Pero miren, Yo he visto esto-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 12 'Así que, vayan a mi lugar que estaba en Silo, donde permití que Mi nombre se quedara allí en el principio, y miren lo que Yo le hice por la maldad de mi pueblo Israel. 13 Así que ahora, a cuenta de sus obras con todas estas prácticas-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- Yo hablé a ustedes una y otra vez, pero ustedes no escucharon. Yo les convoqué, pero ustedes no contestaron. 14 Por lo tanto, lo que Le hice a Silo, también Lo haré a esta casa que es llamada por mi nombre, la casa en la cual ustedes han confiado, este lugar que Yo les di a ustedes y sus ancestros. 15 Pues, Los sacaré de delante de Mí, así como había sacado a todos sus hermanos, y descendientes de Efraín. 16 Y tú, Jeremías, no ores por este pueblo, y no levantes un gemido de lamentaciones o digas una oración de su parte, y no me pidas, pues, no Voy a escucharte. 17 ¿Acaso no ves lo que ellos están haciendo en las ciudades de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén? 18 ¡Los hijos están reuniendo madera y los padres encendiendo el fuego! Las mujeres están amasando la masa para hacer pan para la reina de los cielos y derramando ofrendas de bebida para otros dioses así que, ellos van a provocarme. 19 ¿Están ellos verdaderamente provocándome? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- ¿acaso no es a ellos mismos a quienes están provocando, así que, la vergüenza está en ellos? 20 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Miren, mi enojo e ira seráderramada como torrente en este lugar, en ambos, hombre y bestia, en el árbol en los campos y el fruto en el suelo. Arderá y nunca se extinguirá. 21 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Añadan sus ofrendas quemadas a sus sacrificios y la carne de ellos. 22 Pues, cuando Traje a sus ancestros fuera de la tierra de Egipto, no solicité nada de ellos. Yo no les di ninguna orden sobre los asuntos de las ofrendas quemadas y sacrificios. 23 Yo sólo les di esta orden: "Escuchen Mi voz, y Yo seré su Dios y ustedes serán mi pueblo. Así que, caminen en todos los caminos que Yo les estoy ordenando, para que les vaya bien." 24 Pero ellos no escucharon o prestaron atención. Ellos vivieron por sus propios tercos planes de sus corazones malvados, así que, fueron para atrás, no adelante. 25 Desde el día cuando sus ancestros salieron de la tierra de Egipto hasta este día, Yo les he enviado a cada uno de mis siervos, mis profetas, a ustedes. Yo persistí en enviarlos. 26 Pero no Me escucharon. Ellos no prestaron atención. Al contrario, ellos endurecieron sus cuellos. Ellos fueron más malvados que sus ancestros.' 27 Así que, proclámales todas estas palabras, pero ellos no escucharán. Proclámales estas cosas, pero ellos no contestarán. 28 Diles: Esta es una nación que no escucha la voz del SEÑOR su Dios y no recibe disciplina. La verdad es destruida y cortada de sus bocas. 29 Córtate el cabello y afeítate, y arroja tu cabello. Canta una canción de funeral en los lugares abiertos. Pues, el SEÑOR ha rechazado y abandonado esta generación en su ira. 30 Pues, los hijos de Judá han hecho el mal en mis ojos--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- ellos han puesto sus cosas detestables en la casa donde Mi nombre es proclamado, con el fin de profanarla. 31 Entonces, ellos construyeron un lugar alto en Tofet que está en el Valle de Ben Hinom. Ellos hicieron esto para quemar a sus hijos e hijas en fuego--algo que Yo no ordené ni entró en mi mente. 32 Así que mira, días vienen-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando no va a ser llamado Tofet ni el Valle de Ben Hinom. Va a ser el Valle de Matanza; ellos van a enterrar cuerpos en Tofet hasta que no haya más espacio. 33 Los cuerpos de este pueblo serán comida para los pájaros en los cielos y las bestias de la tierra, y no habrá nadie para que los espante. 34 Yo voy a poner un fin a las ciudades de Judá y las calles de Jerusalén, el sonido de exaltación y júbilo, el sonido del esposo y la esposa; ya que la tierra se va a convertir una desolación."

1 "En aquel tiempo--esta es la declaración del Señor--ellos traerán fuera de las tumbas los huesos de los reyes de Judá y sus oficiales, los huesos de los sacerdotes y los profetas, y los huesos de los habitantes de Jerusalén. 2 Entonces ellos los esparcirán a la luz del sol y luna y todas las estrellas de los cielos; éstas cosas en el cielo que ellos han seguido y servido, que ellos han caminado detrás de y buscado, y que ellos han adorado. Los huesos no se juntarán o enterrarán otra vez. Ellos serán como estiércol en la superficie de la tierra. 3 En cada otro lugar donde Yo los he conducido, ellos escogerán la muerte en vez de la vida para ellos mismos, todos los que aún quedan de esta nación malvada--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 4 Así que dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: ¿Acaso alguno se cae y no se levanta? ¿Acaso alguno se pierde y no trata de regresar? 5 ¿Por qué este pueblo, Jerusalén, se ha alejado en infidelidad permanente? Se aferran a la traición y rehúsan arrepentirse. 6 Yo presté atención y escuché, pero ellos no hablaron correctamente; ninguno estaba apenado por su maldad, ninguno que diga: "¿Qué he hecho?" Todos ellos van donde ellos desean, como un semental avanzando hacia la batalla. 7 Aún la cigüeña en el cielo sabe los tiempos correctos; y las palomas, vencejos y grullas. Éstos van en sus migraciones en el tiempo correcto, pero mi pueblo no conoce los decretos del SEÑOR. 8 ¿Cómo pueden ustedes decir: "Nosotros somos sabios, puesto que la ley del SEÑOR está con nosotros"? De hecho, ¡miren! La pluma engañosa de los escribas ha creado engaño. 9 Los hombres sabios serán avergonzados. Ellos están consternados y atrapados. ¡Miren! Ellos rechazan la palabra del SEÑOR, así que ¿qué uso tiene su sabiduría? 10 Pues daré sus esposas a otros, y sus campos a aquellos que los poseerán, porque desde el menor al mayor, ¡todos ellos son codiciosos por ganacia deshonesta! Desde el profeta al sacerdote, todos ellos practican engaño. 11 Ellos sanaron las heridas de Mi pueblo ligeramente, diciendo: "Paz, Paz," cuando no había paz. 12 ¿Estaban ellos avergonzados cuando practicaban abominaciones? Ellos no estaban avergonzados; ¡ellos no sabían cómo sonrojarse! Así que ellos caerán entre los caídos; ellos serán derribados cuando sean castigados, dice el SEÑOR. 13 Yo los eliminaré completamente--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--no habrán uvas en la vid, ni habrá higos en las higueras. Porque la hoja se marchitará, y lo que Yo les he dado pasará. 14 ¿Por qué estamos sentados aquí? Juntémonos; vayamos a las ciudades fortificadas, y nos tornaremos en silencio allí en muerte. Puesto que el SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos silenciará. Él nos hará beber veneno, ya que hemos pecado en Su contra. 15 Estamos esperando paz, pero no habrá nada bueno. Estamos esperando un tiempo de sanidad, pero vean, habrá terror. 16 El resoplar de sus sementales se escucha desde Dan. Toda la tierra tiembla al sonido del relinchar de sus fuertes caballos. Porque ellos vendrán y consumirán la tierra y su riqueza, la ciudad y los que viven en ella. 17 Pues ve, Yo estoy enviando serpientes entre ustedes, víboras que ustedes no pueden encantar. Ellas te morderán--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.'" 18 Mi pesar no tiene fin, y mi corazón está enfermo. 19 ¡Miren! ¡La voz gritando de la hija de Mi pueblo desde una tierra muy lejana! ¿No está el SEÑOR en Sion? o ¿no está su rey en ella? ¿Por qué entonces ellos me ofenden con sus figuras talladas e ídolos extranjeros sin valor? 20 La cosecha ha pasado, el verano se acabó. Pero nosotros no hemos sido salvos. 21 Yo estoy herido por la herida de la hija de mi pueblo. Yo gimo ante las cosas horribes que le han sucedido a ella; Yo estoy consternado. 22 ¿Acaso no hay medicina en Galaad? ¿Acaso no hay sanador allí? ¿Por qué será que la sanidad de la hija de mi pueblo no sucede?

Chapter 9

1 ¡Si tan sólo mi cabeza pudiera producir agua, y mis ojos fueran una fuente de lágrimas! Pues yo deseo llorar día y noche por aquellos entre la hija de mi pueblo que han sido asesinados. 2 Si tan sólo alquien me diera un lugar para viajeros en el desierto para quedarme, donde yo pudiera ir para abandonar a mi pueblo. ¡Si tan sólo yo pudiera dejarlos, ya que todos ellos son adúlteros, son una banda de traidores! 3 El SEÑOR declara: "Ellos tensan sus arcos de mentiras con sus lenguas, pero no es a causa de alguna fidelidad de ellos que ellos se fortalecen en la tierra. Ellos van de un acto malvado a otro. Ellos no me conocen." 4 Cada uno de ustedes, esté en guardia contra su vecino y no confíen en ningún hermano. Pues cada hermano es ciertamente engañador, y cada vecino camina en calumnia. 5 Cada hombre se burla de su vecino y no habla la verdad. Sus lenguas enseñan cosas engañosas. Ellos están exaustos de cometer inquidad. 6 Tus moradas están en medio del engaño; en su engaño ellos se rehúsan a reconocerme--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 7 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: "Miren, Yo estoy a punto de refinarlos
y probarlos, ¿pues qué más puedo Yo hacer, por causa de lo que Mi pueblo ha hecho? 8 Sus lenguas son flechas afiladas; ellos hablan cosas infieles. Con sus bocas ellos proclaman paz con sus vecinos, pero con sus corazones ellos los asechan. 9 ¿No debería Yo castigarlos por causa de estas cosas--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--y no debería Yo vengarme en una nación así? 10 Yo cantaré una canción de luto y lamento por las montañas, y una canción fúnebre será cantada por las praderas. Pues ellas fueron quemadas para que nadie pueda pasar por ellas. Ellos no escucharán el sonido de ningún ganado. Los pájaros del cielo y los animales han volado lejos. 11 Así que Yo convertiré a Jerusalén en un montón de ruinas, un escondite de chacales. Yo haré de las ciudades de Judá lugares arruinados sin habitantes." 12 ¿Qué hombre es suficientemente sabio para entender esto? ¿A quién ha hablado la boca del SEÑOR, y El lo declare? ¿Por qué la tierra ha perecido y ha sido destruida como el desierto que nadie puede pasar? 13
El SEÑOR dice: "Esto es porque han abandonado mi ley, la cual puse delante de ellos, porque ellos no esuchan mi voz ni caminan por ella. 14 Esto es porque ellos han caminado según sus corazones tercos y han seguido a los baales así como sus padres les enseñaron a hacer. " 15 Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Miren, Yo estoy a punto de hacer que este pueblo coma ajenjo y beba agua venenosa. 16 Luego, los esparciré entre las naciones que ellos no han conocido, ni ellos ni sus ancestros. Yo enviaré una espada tras ellos hasta que los haya destruido completamente." 17 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: "Piensa en esto: Convoca a cantantes de funeral; deja que ellos vengan.
Busquen a mujeres hábiles para el lamento; deja que vengan. 18 Deja que se apresuren y canten canciones de lamento sobre nosotros, para que nuestras lágrimas corran por nuestros ojos y de nuestros párpados fluya agua." 19 Pues el sonido de gemido es escuchado en Sion: 'Cómo estamos devastados.
Nosotros estamos grandemente avergonzados, pues nosotros hemos abandonado la tierra desde que ellos derribaron nuestras casas.' 20 Así que ustedes mujeres, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR; presten atención a los mensajes que vienen de Su boca. Luego, enseñen a sus hijas una canción de lamento, y a cada vecina una canción de funeral. 21 Pues la muerte ha venido a través de nuestras ventanas; ésta va dentro nuestros palacios. Esta destruye a los niños desde afuera, y a hombre jóvenes en las plazas de la ciudad.
22 Declara esto: 'Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--los cadáveres de los hombres caerán como excremento en los campos, y como tallos de granos detrás de los segadores, y no habrá ninguno para recogerlos."' 23 El SEÑOR dice esto: "No permitan que el hombre sabio se enorgullezca en su sabiduría, o el guerrero en su fuerza. No permitan que el hombre rico se enorgullezca en sus riquezas. 24 Pues si un hombre se enorgullece de algo, deja que sea en esto: que tiene visión y Me conoce. Pues Yo soy el SEÑOR, quien actúa con lealtad al pacto, justicia y honradez en la tierra. Pues es en esto que me complazco--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 25 "Miren, vienen días--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando Yo voy a castigar a todos los circuncidados que lo están sólo en sus cuerpos. 26 Yo castigaré a Egipto y Judá, Edom, el pueblo de Amón, Moab, y todo el pueblo que se corta el cabello de sus cabeza muy corto. Pues todas estas naciones son incircuncisas, y toda la casa de Israel tiene un corazón incircunciso."

Chapter 10

1 "Escucha la palabra que el SEÑOR te está anunciando, casa de Israel. 2 El SEÑOR dice esto: 'No aprendas los caminos de las naciones, y no te espantes por las señales en los cielos, porque las naciones son consternadas por éstas." 3 Pues las costumbres religiosas de esta gente son indignas. Ellos cortan un árbol en el bosque, y el artesano talla la madera. 4 Entonces, ellos la decoran con plata y oro. Ellos la fortalecen con martillo y clavos para que no se caiga. 5 Lo que ellos hacen con sus manos son como espantapájaros en un huerto de pepinos, porque ellos, también, pueden decir nada, y tienen que ser cargados porque no pueden caminar. No les teman a ellos, porque ellos no pueden provocar el mal, ni son capaces de hacer nada bueno.'" 6 No hay nadie como Tú, SEÑOR. Tú eres grande, y Tu nombre es grande en poder. 7 ¿Quién no te teme, Rey de las naciones? Porque esto es lo que Tú mereces, porque no hay nadie como Tú entre todos los hombres sabios de las naciones o en todos sus reinos reales. 8 Todos ellos son iguales, ellos son brutos y estúpidos, discípulos de ídolos que no son más que madera. 9 Ellos traen plata martillada de Tarsis, y oro de Ufaz hecho por artífices, las manos de refinadores. Sus ropas son telas azules y púrpuras. Sus hombres llenos de destreza hacen estas cosas. 10 Pero el SEÑOR es el verdadero Dios. Él es Dios Viviente y el Rey Eterno. La tierra tiembla por Su enojo, y las naciones no pueden resistir Su enojo. 11 Ustedes les hablaran a ellos así: "Los dioses que no hicieron los cielos y la tierra perecerán de la tierra y de debajo de estos cielos." 12 Pero fue Él quien hizo los cielos y la tierra con Su poder, y Él estableció el mundo por Su sabiduría, y por Su entendimiento Él estiró los cielos. 13 Su voz hace el rugir de las aguas en el cielo, y Él sube el rocío de los confines de la tierra. Él hace el relámpago para la lluvia y envía al viento fuera de Su almacén. 14 Cada hombre se ha vuelto ignorante, sin conocimiento. Cada trabajador de metales es puesto en vergüenza por sus ídolos. Pues sus imágenes fundidas son un fraude; no hay vida en ellos. 15 Ellos son inútiles, el trabajo de burladores; ellos perecerán al tiempo de su castigo. 16 Pero Dios, la porción de Jacob, no es como éstos, pues Él es el Creador de todas las cosas. Israel es la tribu de Su herencia; el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos es Su nombre. 17 Recogan sus pertenencias y abandonen la tierra, ustedes pueblo, quienes han estado viviendo sitiados. 18 Pues, el SEÑOR dice esto: "Miren, Yo estoy a punto de arrojar a los habitantes de esta tierra este tiempo. Yo les causaré angustia, y ellos verán lo que será." 19 ¡Ay de mí! A causa de mis huesos rotos, mi herida está infectada. Entonces, yo digo: "Ciertamente, esto es agonía, pero debo soportarla." 20 Mi tienda está devastada, y todas mis sogas de la tienda están cortadas en dos. Ellos se han llevado a mis hijos lejos de Mí, así que ellos ya no existen. Ya no hay nadie para expandir mi tienda o levantar las cortinas de mi tienda. 21 Pues los pastores son estúpidos y ellos no buscan al SEÑOR; así que ellos no han prosperado, y todos sus rebaños han sido regados. 22 El informe de noticias ha llegado: "¡Mira! Viene, un gran terremoto está viniendo de la tierra del norte para convertir las ciudades de Judá en ruinas, escondites para chacales." 23 Yo sé, SEÑOR, que el camino del hombre no viene de sí mismo. Ninguna persona caminando dirige sus propios pasos. 24 Disciplíname, SEÑOR, con justicia, no en Tu enojo o Tu me destruirías. 25 Derrama Tu furia en las naciones que no te conocen y en las familias que no claman a Tu nombre. Pues ellos han devorado a Jacob y lo han consumido hasta destruirlo completamente y demoler su habitación.

Chapter 11

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR, y Él dijo: 2 "Escucha las palabras de este pacto, y decláralas a cada hombre en Judá y a los habitantes de Jerusalén. 3 Dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel dice esto: Maldito es cualquiera quien no escucha las palabras de este pacto. 4 Este es el pacto que Yo ordené a sus antepasados para guardar el día que Yo los saqué de la tierra de Egipto, del horno para la fundición de hierro. Yo dije: "Escuchen mi voz y hagan todas estas cosas justo como Yo se las he ordenado, pues ustedes serán Mi pueblo y Yo seré su Dios." 5 Obedézcanme para que así Yo pueda confirmar el juramento que Yo les juré a sus antepasados, el juramento que Yo les daría la tierra que fluye con leche y miel, donde ustedes viven hoy." Entonces yo, Jeremías, constesté y dije: "¡Sí, SEÑOR!" 6 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Proclama todas estas cosas en las ciudades de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén. Di: 'Escucha a las palabras de este pacto y llévalas a cabo. 7 Pues, Yo he estado dando órdenes solemnes a tus antepasados desde el día que Yo los saqué de la tierra de Egipto hasta este tiempo presente, advirtiéndoles persistentemente y diciéndoles: "Escúchen mi voz."' 8 Pero ellos no escucharon ni prestaron atención. Cada persona ha estado caminando en la terquedad de su malvado corazón. Así que Yo traje todas las maldiciones en este pacto que Yo ordené venir contra ellos. Pero las personas todavía no obedecieron." 9 Después el SEÑOR me dijo: "Una conspiración ha sido descubierta entre los hombres de Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén.
10 Ellos se han tornado a las iniquidades de sus primeros antepasados, quienes se rehusaron a escuchar Mi palabra, quienes al contrario caminaron tras otros dioses para adorarlos. La casa de Israel y la casa de Judá rompió mi pacto que Yo establecí con sus antepasados. 11 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Mira, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre sobre ellos, desastre del cual ellos no van a ser capaces de escapar.
Luego, ellos van a llamarme a Mí, pero Yo no los voy a escuchar a ellos. 12 Las ciudades de Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén irán y llamarán a los dioses a los cuales ellos le han dado ofrendas, pero ellos ciertamente no van a ser salvos por ellos en el tiempo de su desastre. 13 Pues, el número de dioses ha incrementado para igualar el mismo número de tus ciudades, Judá. Y ustedes han hecho el número de altares vergonzosos en Jerusalén, altares de incenso para Baal, al igual que el número de calles. 14 Así que, tú mismo, Jeremías, no debes orar por este pueblo. Tú no debes gemir ni orar a favor de ellos. Pues, Yo no voy a estar escuchando cuando ellos me llamen en su desastre. 15 ¿Por qué es mi amado, el que ha tenido tantas intenciones malvadas, en Mi casa? La carne de sus sacrificios no te puede ayudar. Tú te regocijas por tu malas acciones. 16 En el pasado el SEÑOR te llamó un árbol de olivo frondoso, bello con hermosos frutos. Pero Él lo va a encender con un fuego que va a sonar como el rugir de una tormenta; sus ramas serán quebradas. 17 Pues, El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el que te plantó, ha decretado un desastre en tu contra por los malos actos que la casa de Israel y la casa de Judá han cometido, ellos Me han enojado al darle ofrendas a Baal."' 18 El SEÑOR me hizo saber estas cosas, así que, yo las sé. Tú, SEÑOR, me has hecho ver sus actos. 19 Yo era como un cordero tierno siendo llevado a un carnicero. Yo no sabía que ellos había formado un plan en contra mía: "¡Déjanos destruir el árbol con sus frutos! Déjanos cortarlo a él de la tierra de los vivos para que su nombre no sea recordado." 20 Aún así, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos es el juez justo quien examina el corazón y la mente. Yo voy a presenciar Tu venganza en contra de ellos, pues yo he presentado mi caso ante Ti. 21 Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR dice esto concerniente a las personas de Anatot quienes están en busca de tu vida: "Ellos dicen: 'Tú no debes profetizar en el nombre del SEÑOR, o tú vas a morir por nuestra mano.' 22 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: 'Mira, Yo estoy a punto de castigarlos a ellos. Sus jóvenes vigorozos van a morir por la espada. Sus hijos e hijas van a morir por hambruna. 23 Ninguno de ellos quedará, porque Yo voy a traer desatre en contra de las personas de

Chapter 12

1 Tu eres justo, SEÑOR, cada vez que yo vengo con disputas a Ti. Yo ciertamente te diré mi razón para quejarme: ¿Por qué los caminos de los malvados tienen éxito? Todas las personas infieles son exitosas. 2 Tú las plantaste y ellas echaron raíces. Ellas continúan produciendo frutos. Tu estás cerca de ellas en sus bocas, pero muy lejos de sus corazones. 3 Más Tú, SEÑOR, me conoces. Tú me ves y pruebas mi corazón hacia ti. ¡Llévatelos como ovejas para el matadero, y apártalos para el día de matanza! 4 ¿Hasta cuándo la tierra seguirá secándose, y las plantas en cada campo se marchitarán por la maldad de sus habitantes? Bestias y pájaros han sido llevado lejos. Ciertamente, la gente dice: "Dios no sabe lo que pasará con nosotros." 5 El SEÑOR dice: "Ciertamente, si tú, Jeremías, has corrido con soldados a pie y ellos te han fatigado, ¿Cómo puedes competir contra caballos? Si te caes en un campiña segura, ¿cómo harás en los matorrales a lo largo del Jordán? 6 Porque incluso tus hermanos y la familia de tu padre te han traicionado y te han denunciado en voz alta. No confíes en ellos, aunque ellos te digan cosas bonitas. 7 Yo he abandonado mi casa; Yo he dejado mi herencia. Yo he entregado a mi propio pueblo querido en las manos de sus enemigos. 8 Mi herencia se ha convertido para mí como un león en unos matorrales; ella se establece en contra de mí con su propia voz, así que Yo la odio. 9 ¿No se ha convertido mi preciada posesión en un pájaro manchado, que otras aves de presa van en contra de ella por todo alrededor? Ve y reúne todas las bestias salvajes y llévalas a ellas para devorarlas. 10 Muchos pastores han destruido mi viñedo. Ellos han pisoteado toda mi porción de la tierra; ellos han convertido la porción en donde me deleito, en un desierto, en desolación. 11 Ellos la han hecho en una desolación. Yo me lamento por ella, ella está desolada. Toda la tierra se ha hecho desolada, pues no hay nadie que lo lleve al corazón. 12 Destructores han venido en contra de todos los lugares vacíos en el desierto, porque la espada del SEÑOR esta devorando desde un extremo de la tierra al otro extremo. No hay ninguna seguridad en la tierra para ningún ser viviente. 13 Ellos han sembrado trigo pero han cosechado arbustos espinosos. Ellos estan cansados del trabajo pero no han ganado nada. Así que avergúenzense de sus ganacias por causa del enojo del SEÑOR." 14 El SEÑOR dice esto en contra de todos mis vecinos, los malvados que atacan las posesiones que Yo he hecho que mi pueblo Israel herede: "Miren, YO soy el que está a punto de desarraigarlos de su propia tierra, y Yo levantaré la casa de Judá por medio de ellos. 15 Luego de que Yo desarraigue esas naciones, ocurrirá que Yo tendré compasión de ellos y los traeré de vuelta; Yo los voy a devolver, cada hombre a su herencia y a su tierra. 16 Acontecerá que si estas naciones cuidadosamente aprenden las formas de mi pueblo, a jurar en mi nombre 'Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive' así como ellos le han enseñado a mi pueblo a jurar por baal, entonces ellos serán levantados en medio de mi pueblo. 17 Pero si ninguno escucha, entonces Yo voy desarraigar esa nación. Chapter 13

1 El SEÑOR me dijo esto: "Ve y compra ropa interior de lino y ponla alrededor de tu cintura, pero no la pongas en agua primero." 2 Así que compré ropa interior como el SEÑOR ordenó, y la puse alrededor de mi cintura. 3 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí una segunda vez, diciendo: 4 "Toma la ropa interior que compraste que está alrededor de tu cintura, levántate y viaja al Éufrates. Escóndela allí en la hendidura de una piedra." 5 Así que fui y la escondí en el Éufrates justo como el SEÑOR me había ordenado. 6 Después de muchos días, el SEÑOR me dijo: "Levántate y vuelve al Éufrates. Toma de allí la ropa interior que te dije que escondieras." 7 Así que volví al Éufrates y saqué la ropa interior de donde la había escondido. ¡Pero he aquí! La ropa interior había sido destruida; no servía para nada. 8 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 9 "El SEÑOR dice esto: De esta misma manera destruiré la gran arrogancia de Judá y Jerusalén. 10 Esta gente malvada que se rehusan a escuchar Mi palabra, que caminan en la dureza de su corazón, que siguen a otros dioses para adorarlos y postrarse ante ellos--ellos serán como esta ropa interior que no sirve para nada. 11 Pues así como una ropa interior se aguanta de las caderas de alguien, así he hecho que toda la casa de Israel y toda la casa de Judá se aguanten de Mí--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--para ser Mi pueblo, para traerme fama, alabanza, y honor. Pero ellos no me escuchan a Mí. 12 Así que debes hablar esta palabra a ellos: 'SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice esto: cada jarra será llena de vino.' Ellos te dirán: '¿No sabemos nosotros que cada jarra será llenada de vino?' 13 Así que dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Vean, Yo estoy a punto de llenar con embriaguez a cada habitante de esta tierra, los reyes que se sientan en el trono de David, los sacerdotes, los profetas, y todos los habitantes de Jerusalén. 14 Entonces aplastaré a cada hombre contra el otro, padres e hijos juntos--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- Yo no tendré pena de ellos ni tendré compasión, y no los perdonaré de la destrucción.'" 15 Escuchen y presten atención. No sean arrogantes, pues el SEÑOR ha hablado. 16 Den honor al SEÑOR su Dios antes de que traiga oscuridad, y antes de que cause que sus pies tiemblen en las montañas al crepúsculo. Pues están esperando luz, pero Él convertirá este lugar en una oscuridad profunda, en una nube oscura. 17 Así que si ustedes no escuchan, lloraré solo por su arrogancia. Mis ojos ciertamente llorarán y fluirán con lágrimas, pues el rebaño del SEÑOR ha sido tomado cautivo. 18 "Dile al rey y a la madre reina: 'Humíllense y siéntense, pues la corona está en sus cabezas, su orgullo y gloria, se han caído.' 19 Las ciudades en el Neguev serán calladas, sin nadie que las abra. Judá será tomada cautiva, todo de ella en exilio. 20 Levanten sus ojos y miren a los que vienen del norte. ¿Dónde está el rebaño que Él les dió, el rebaño que era tan hermoso para tí? 21 ¿Que dirás cuando Dios ponga sobre tí a aquellos que les habías enseñado a ser tus amigos? ¿No son estos los principios de los dolores de parto que te agarrarán como una mujer dando a luz? 22 Entonces, puedes decir en tu corazón: '¿Por qué me están sucediendo estas cosas?' Será por la multitud de tus iniquidades que tus faldas están alzadas y has sido violada. 23 ¿Puede la gente de Cus cambiar el color de su piel, o un leopardo cambiar sus manchas? Si es así, pues tú mismo, aunque estás acostumbrado a tu maldad, podrías hacer el bien. 24 Así que yo los dispersaré como paja que perece en el viento del desierto. 25 Esto es lo que Yo les he dado, la porción que Yo he decretado para ustedes--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--porque me han olvidado y han creído en el engaño. 26 Así que también Yo mismo desvestiré tus faldas y tus partes privadas serán vistas. 27 ¡Yo he visto tu adulterio y relincho, la maldad de tu prostitución en las colinas y los campos, y Yo he visto estas cosas detestables! ¡Ay de ti, Jerusalén! ¿Cuánto más hasta que seas limpia otra vez?"

Chapter 14

1 Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Jeremías en cuanto a la sequía: 2 "Deja a Judá lamentarse; deja que sus puertas se derrumben. Ellos están gimiendo por la tierra; sus gritos por Jerusalén están subiendo. 3 Sus poderosos envían a sus siervos por agua. Cuando ellos van a los zanjas, ellos no pueden encontrar agua. Todos ellos regresan sin éxito; ellos cubren sus cabezas avergonzados y deshonrados. 4 Por esto, la tierra está agrietada, pues no hay lluvia en la tierra. Los aradores están avergonzados y cubren sus cabezas. 5 Pues hasta la cierva deja a sus crías en los campos y los abandona, porque no hay pasto. 6 Los burros salvajes se paran en llanuras vacías y ellos jadean en el viento como chacales. Sus ojos no funcionan para trabajar, pues no hay vegetación." 7 Aunque nuestras iniquidades testifiquen en contra de nosotros, SEÑOR, obra por amor a Tu nombre. Pues nuestras acciones infieles aumentan; nosotros hemos pecado en contra de Ti. 8 Esperanza de Israel, Aquel que lo salva a él en tiempos de angustia, ¿por qué serás Tú como un extraño en la tierra, como un extranjero vagabundo que se estira y se queda solo una noche? 9 ¿Por qué serás Tú como un hombre confundido, como un guerrero que no es capaz de rescatar a nadie? ¡Pues Tú estás en medio de nosotros, SEÑOR! Tu nombre ha sido proclamado sobre nosotros. No nos dejes. 10 El SEÑOR le dice esto a Su pueblo: "Ya que ellos aman el vagar, ellos no han refrenado sus pies de hacerlo." El SEÑOR no está complacido con ellos. Ahora, Él se acuerda de sus iniquidades y ha castigado sus pecados. 11 El SEÑOR me dijo: "No ores por el bien a nombre de este pueblo. 12 Pues si ellos ayunan, Yo no escucharé sus gemidos, y si ellos ofrecen sus ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de alimento, Yo no me complaceré en ellos. Pues Yo les pondré fin por la espada, hambruna y plaga." 13 Entonces, dije: "¡Oh, SEÑOR Dios! ¡Mira! Los profetas le están diciendo a la gente: 'Ustedes no verán la espada; no habrá hambruna para ustedes, pues Yo les daré verdadera seguridad en éste lugar.'" 14 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Los profetas profetizan engaño en Mi nombre. Yo no los envíe, ni les di ninguna orden ni les hablé. Pero las visiones engañosas e inútiles, adivinaciones engañosas viniendo de sus propias mentes, son lo que ellos les están profetizando a ustedes." 15 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: "Acerca de los los profetas profetizando en Mi nombre pero a quienes Yo no envié--esos que dicen que no habrá espada o hambruna en esta tierra: Estos profetas perecerán por espada y hambruna. 16 Entonces, la gente a quienes ellos le profetizaron serán arrojados en las calles de Jerusalén por causa de la hambruna y espada, pues no habrá nadie que los sepulte--a ellos, sus esposas, sus hijos o sus hijas--pues Yo derramaré su maldad sobre ellos. 17 Diles esta palabra a ellos: 'Deja que las lágrimas fluyan de Mis ojos, día y noche. No dejen que se detengan, pues habrá un gran colapso en la hija vírgen de Mi gente--una gran e incurable herida. 18 Si Yo salgo al campo, ¡ahí están los que fueron asesinados por la espada! Si Yo vengo a la ciudad, ahí están las enfermedades que son causadas por la hambruna. Tanto el profeta como el sacerdote vagan por la tierra, y ellos no saben.'" 19 ¿Has rechazado Tú completamente a Judá? ¿Odias a Sion? ¿Por qué nos afligirás cuando no haya sanación para nosotros? Nosotros esperamos la paz, pero no había nada bueno--y por un tiempo de sanación, pero mira, solo hay terror. 20 Nosotros admitimos, SEÑOR, nuestras ofensas, la iniquidad de nuestros ancenstros, pues nosotros hemos pecado en contra tuya. 21 ¡No nos rechazes! Por amor a Tu nombre, no hagas de Tu glorioso trono una desgracia. Recuerda y no rompas Tu pacto con nosotros. 22 ¿Hay entre los ídolos de las naciones alguien que pueda hacer los cielos dar la lluvia de primavera? ¿No eres Tú, SEÑOR nuestro Dios, Quien hace esto? Nosotros esperamos en Ti, pues Tú has hecho todas estas cosas.

Chapter 15

1 Después el SEÑOR dijo: "Aún si Moisés o Samuel estuviesen parados frente a Mí, Yo aún no estará en favor de este pueblo. Envíalos lejos de Mí, para que ellos se vayan. 2 Pasará que te dirán: '¿A dónde debemos irnos?' Después debes decirles, 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Aquellos destinados a muerte deben ir a morir; aquellos destinados para la espada deben ir a la espada. Aquellos destinados a la hambruna deben ir a la hambruna; y aquellos destinados para el cautiverio deben ir al cautiverio.' 3 Pues Los voy a asignar en cuatro grupos--esta es declaración del SEÑOR--la espada para matar algunos, los perros arrastrarán a algunos, las aves de los cielos y las bestias de la tierra van a consumir y destruir a algunos. 4 Yo haré de ellos una cosa horrible a todos los reinos de la tierra, por lo que Manasés hijo de Ezequías, rey de Judá, hizo en Jerusalén. 5 ¿Quién tendrá compasión de ti, Jerusalén? ¿Quién se afligirá por ti? ¿Quién irá a preguntar sobre tu bienestar? 6 Ustedes Me han abandonado--esta es declaración del SEÑOR--tú te has alejado de Mí. Entonces Yo voy a atacarte con Mi mano y te destruiré. Yo estoy cansado de tener misericordia de ti. 7 Entonces, Yo voy a sacudirlos con un trillo en las puertas de la tierra. Yo voy a afligirlos. Yo voy a destruir Mi pueblo ya que ellos no se vuelven de sus caminos. 8 Yo haré que el número de sus viudas sea más que las arenas de las orillas del mar. Contra las madres de los hombres jóvenes Yo enviaré al destructor al atardecer. Yo haré que el asombro y el horror desciendan rápidamente sobre ellos. 9 La madre a quien le nacieron siete hijos le serán consumidos. Ella jadeará. Su sol se pondrá mientras aún esté de día. Ella estará apenada y avegonzada, porque Yo voy a darle a aquellos quienes queden de la espada en la presencia de sus enemigos--esta es declaración del SEÑOR." 10 ¡Ay de mí, mi madre! Porque tú me pariste, Yo que soy un hombre de controversia y argumento a través de toda la tierra. Yo no he prestado, ni alguno me ha prestado, pero todos me maldicen. 11 El SEÑOR dijo: "¿No te rescataré para bien? Yo ciertamente hago que tus enemigos rueguen por ayuda en el tiempo de calamidad y ansiedad. 12 ¿Podrá uno aplastar el hierro?¿Especialmente el hierro del norte que está mezclado con bronce? 13 Yo voy a darle a tus enemigos tus riquezas y tesoros como un saqueo gratuito. Yo voy a hacer esto a causa de todos tus pecados cometidos entre todas sus fronteras. 14 Después, Yo te haré servir a tus enemigos en una tierra que tú no conoces, para que un fuego comience, encendido en Mi ira contra ti." 15 ¡SEÑOR, tú sabes! Recuérdame y ayúdame. Trae venganza para mí en contra de aquellos que me persiguen. Tú eres paciente, pero no permitas que ellos me lleven; conoce que yo sufro reproche por Tu causa. Tus palabras han sido encontradas, y yo las consumí. 16 Tus palabras se han vuelto para mí alegría y delicia a mi corazón, pues llevo tu nombre, SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos. 17 Yo no me senté en el círculo de aquellos que celebraron o se regocijaron. Yo me senté en soledad a causa de Tu poderosa mano, porque Tú me llenas con indignación. 18 ¿Por qué mi dolor no se va y mi herida es incurable, negándose a ser sanada? ¿Serás como aguas engañosas para mí, aguas que se secan? 19 Por lo tanto El SEÑOR dice esto: "Si tú te arrepientes, Jeremías, entonces Yo voy a restaurarte, y tú estarás frente a Mí y me servirás. Pues si tú separas las cosas tontas de las cosas preciosas, tú serás como Mi boca. El pueblo vendrá nuevamente a ti, pero tú mismo no irás a ellos. 20 Yo voy a hacerte como una pared de bronce impenetrable para este pueblo, y ellos levantarán guerra contra ti. Pero ellos no te derrotarán, porque Yo estoy contigo para salvarte y rescatarte--esta es declaración del SEÑOR-- 21 porque Yo voy a rescatarte de la mano del malvado y te redimiré de la mano del tirano."

Chapter 16

1 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí diciendo: 2 "No tomes esposa para ti, y no tengas hijos o hijas para tí en este lugar. 3 Pues el SEÑOR dice esto para los hijos e hijas que son nacidos en este lugar, para las madres que los cargan, y a los padres que han causado que sean nacidos en esta tierra: 4 'Ellos morirán por muertes de enfermedad. No se hará luto por ellos o entierro. Ellos serán como excremento en el suelo. Pues ellos vendrán a un fin por la espada y la hambruna, y sus cadáveres serán comida para las aves de los cielos y las bestias de la Tierra.' 5 Pues la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 'No entres a una casa donde hay luto. No vayas a lamentarte ni a mostrar simpatía por ellos, pues He quitado Mi paz de este pueblo, Mi amor firme y misericordia - Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 6 Ambos, el grande y el pequeño morirán en esta tierra. Ellos no serán enterrados, y nadie se lamentará por ellos, o se cortarán o se afeitarán la cabeza por ellos.' 7 Nadie debe compartir nada de comida en luto para consolarlos a ellos por causa de las muertes, y nadie debe dar una copa de consuelo a su padre o madre para consolarlos a ellos. 8 Tú no deberás ir a un banquete de alguna casa para sentarte con ellos, para comer o beber.' 9 Pues el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Mira, ante tus ojos, en tus días y en este lugar, estoy a punto de poner un final al sonido de gozo y el sonido de alegría, el sonido del novio y el sonido de la desposada.' 10 Luego pasará que vas a informar estas palabras al pueblo, y ellos te dirán: '¿Por qué el SEÑOR decretó todo este gran desastre contra nosotros? ¿Cuál es nuestra iniquidad y pecado que pecamos en contra del SEÑOR nuestro Dios?' 11 Así que, diles: 'Por cuanto tus antepasados me abandonaron - y ellos fueron detrás de otros dioses y adoraron y se postraron ante ellos. Ellos me abandonaron y no han guardado Mi Ley.' 12 Pero ustedes mismos han traído más maldad que sus antepasados, pues miren, cada persona está caminando por la terquedad de su corazón malvado; no hay nadie que Me escuche. 13 Así que Yo los echaré de esta tierra a una tierra que ustedes no han conocido, ni ustedes ni sus antepasados, y ustedes adorarán a otros dioses allí día y noche, pues Yo no les daré ningún favor a ustedes. 14 Por lo tanto, miren, los días vienen - este es la declaración del SEÑOR - donde no será más dicho: 'Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive, Aquel que trajo al pueblo de Israel de la tierra de Egipto.' 15 Pero: 'Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive, Aquel que trajo al pueblo de Israel de la tierra del norte y de la tierra donde Él los había esparcido. 'Pues los traeré de regreso a la tierra que le di a sus antepasados. 16 ¡Miren! Yo enviaré muchos pescadores - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - para que ellos pesquen la gente fuera. Después de esto, Yo enviaré a muchos cazadores para que ellos los cazen entre las montañas y las colinas, y en las hendiduras de las rocas. 17 Pues Mi ojo está en todos sus caminos; ellos no pueden ser excusados de delante de Mí. Su iniquidad no puede ser excusada delante de Mis ojos. 18 Yo primero pagaré el doble por su iniquidad y pecado por la contaminación de Mi tierra con sus asquerosas figuras de ídolos, y porque ellos llenan Mi herencia con sus asquerosos ídolos. 19 SEÑOR, Tú eres mi fortaleza y mi refugio, mi lugar de seguridad en el día de angustia. Las naciones irán a Ti desde los confines de la tierra y dirán: 'Seguramente nuestros antepasados heredaron engaño. Ellos están vacíos; no hay ninguna ganancia en ellos. 20 ¿La gente hace dioses para sí mismos? Pero ellos no son dioses.' 21 Por lo tanto, ¡Miren! Yo causaré que ellos sepan en este tiempo, Yo causaré que ellos conozcan Mi mano y Mi poder, para que ellos sepan que el SEÑOR es Mi nombre.

Chapter 17

1 " El pecado de Judá está escrito con aguja de hierro con una punta de diamante. Está grabado en la tabla de su corazón y en los cuernos de sus altares. 2 Aún, sus hijos recuerdan sus altares y sus postes de Asera que estaban junto a los árboles frondosos en las altas colinas. 3 Los postes de Asera estaban en Mi montaña a campo abierto. Tus riquezas y todos tus tesoros Yo los daré como botín, junto a tus altos lugares, a causa del pecado que haz cometido en todos tus territorios. 4 Perderás la herencia que te di. Te daré por esclavo a tus enemigos en una tierra que no conoces, pues haz encendido un fuego en mi ira, en el cual te quemarás por siempre." 5 El SEÑOR dice: "La persona que confíe en la humanidad es maldita; él hace su carne su fuerza pero su corazón se aleja del SEÑOR. 6 Pues, él será como un pequeño arbusto en el Áraba y no verá nada bueno venir. Él se quedará en lugares pedregozos en el desierto, tierra estéril sin habitantes. 7 Pero la persona quien confía en el SEÑOR es bendita, pues, el SEÑOR es su razón de confianza. 8 Pues, él será como árbol plantado en aguas, sus raíces se esparcirán por la corriente. No temerá del calor cuando venga, pues, sus hojas siempre están verdes. No está ansioso en un año de sequía, no parará de producir frutos. 9 El corazón es más engañoso que cualquier otra cosa. Está enfermo; ¿quién puede entenderlo? 10 Yo soy el SEÑOR, Aquel quien escudriña la mente, quien prueba los corazones. Yo le doy a cada persona según sus caminos, de acuerdo a los frutos de sus hechos. 11 Una perdiz empolla un huevo que ella no puso. Alguien podrá hacerse rico injustamente, pero cuando la mitad de sus días se hayan acabado, aquellos ricos lo abandonarán, y al final él será un necio." 12 El lugar de nuestro templo es un trono glorioso, alzado desde el principio. 13 El SEÑOR es la esperanza de Israel. Todos lo que te abandonen serán avergonzados. Aquellos en la tierra quienes se alejaron de ti, serán escritos en el polvo. Pues ellos están abandonando al SEÑOR, la fuente de aguas vivas. 14 ¡Sáname, SEÑOR, y yo seré sanado! Rescátame, y seré rescatado. Pues tú eres mi canción de alabanza. 15 Mira, ellos me están diciendo a mí: '¿Dónde está la palabra del SEÑOR?' 16 En cuanto a mí, Yo no huí de ser un pastor siguiéndote. Yo no ansío el día del desastre. Tú sabes las proclamaciones que vienen de mis labios. Ellas fueron hechas en tu presencia. 17 No seas un terror para mí. Tú eres mi refugio en el día de calamidad. 18 Sean mis perseguidores avergonzados, pero no dejes que me avergüenzen. Sean ellos espantados, pero no dejes que me espante. Envía el día del desastre contra ellos y destrózalos con una doble parte de la destrucción." 19 El SEÑOR me dijo esto: "Vayan y párense en la puerta del pueblo donde los reyes de Judá entran y donde ellos salen, luego dentro de todas las puertas de Jerusalén. 20 Dí a ellos: 'Escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR, reyes de Judá y todo el pueblo de Judá, y todo residente de Jerusalén quienes entran a través de estas puertas. 21 El SEÑOR dice esto: "Tengan cuidado por el bien de sus vidas y no lleven cargas el Día del Reposo para traerlos por las puertas de Jerusalén. 22 No traigas una carga fuera de tu casa en el Día de Reposo. No hagas ningún trabajo, sino que aparta el Día del Reposo, así como Yo ordené a tus antepasados hacerlo.'" 23 Ellos no escucharon o prestaron atención, sino que endurecieron sus cuellos para que ellos no Me escucharan ni aceptaran disciplina. 24 Sucederá que si realmente Me escuchan- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- y no traigas una carga a las puertas de la ciudad en el Día de Reposo; sino que, aparta el Día de Reposo al SEÑOR y no hagas ningún tipo de trabajo, 25 entonces reyes, príncipes, y aquellos quienes se sientan en el trono de David vendrán a las puertas de esta ciudad en carruajes y con caballos, ellos y sus líderes, hombres de Judá y habitantes de Jerusalén, y esta ciudad será habitada por siempre. 26 Ellos vendrán desde las ciudades de Judá y alrededor de todo Jerusalén, de la tierra de Benjamín y las llanuras, de las montañas, y del Neguev, trayendo ofrendas quemadas y sacrificios, ofrendas de grano e incienso, ofrendas de gratitud a la Casa del SEÑOR. 27 Pero si no Me escuchas- a separar el Día del Reposo y no llevar carga pesada y no entrar por las puertas de Jerusalén en el Día del Reposo- entonces Yo encenderé un fuego en sus puertas, y consumirá la fortaleza de Jerusalén, y no podrá apagarse."

Aquí la palabra "corazón" se refiere a las mentes y pensamientos de las personas. Traducción alterna: "La mente humana es más engañosa" ¿quién puede entenderlo?

El orador usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que nadie puede entender el corazón humano. Traducción alterna: "nadie puede entenderlo".

quien prueba los corazones
Se habla de las emociones como si estuvieran centradas en los riñones. Traducción alterna: "quien pone a prueba los deseos de la gente"

sus caminos
Aquí se habla del comportamiento de una persona como si fueran los caminos que habitualmente sigue.

los frutos de sus hechos
Aquí se habla de los resultados de las acciones de una persona como si fueran el fruto de un árbol. Traducción alterna: "lo que él ha hecho"

Una perdiz empolla un huevo...Alguien podrá hacerse rico injustamente Esta analogía de un pájaro que incuba los huevos de otro pájaro tiene la intención de ilustrar a un hombre rico que gana su dinero robando a otros.

Chapter 18

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías de parte del SEÑOR, diciendo: 2 "Levántate y ve a la casa del alfarero, para que escuches mi Palabra allí." 3 Así que salí a la casa del alfarero, y ¡mira! El alfarero estaba trabajando en la rueda del alfarero. 4 Pero el objeto de arcilla que él estaba moldeando fue arruinado en sus manos, así que el cambió su opinión e hizo otro objeto que pareciera bueno a sus ojos hacer. 5 Entonces la Palabra del SEÑOR vino a mi diciendo: 6 "¿No debería Yo ser capaz de actuar como el alfarero contigo, casa de Israel? Esta es declaración del SEÑOR. ¡Mira! como arcilla en las manos del alfarero, así eres tú en mis manos, casa de Israel. 7 En un momento, Yo puedo proclamar algo acerca de una nación o un reino, que yo voy a expulsar, arrancar o destruir. 8 Pero si la nación que acerca de la cual Yo hice aquella proclamación se vuelve de su maldad, entonces Yo desistiré del desastre que estaba planeando traer sobre ella. 9 En otro momento, Yo puedo proclamar algo acerca de una nación o un reino, que Yo construiré o plantaré. 10 Pero si hace el mal en mis ojos al no escuchar Mi voz, entonces Yo detendré el bien que Yo había dicho que haría con ellos. 11 Y ahora, habla a los hombres de Judá y a los habitantes de Jerusalén y di: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Vean, Yo estoy a punto de formar un desastre contra tí. Yo estoy a punto de idear un plan contra ti. Arrepiéntase, cada persona de sus malos caminos, tal que, sus caminos y sus prácticas les traiga bien a ustedes.' 12 Pero ellos dirán: 'Esto no sirve de nada. Nosotros actuaremos de acuerdo a nuestros planes. Cada uno de nosotros hará según los deseos malvados y perversos del corazón.' 13 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Pregunta a las naciones, ¿quién ha oído hablar de algo como ésto? La virgen de Israel ha cometido un horrible acto. 14 ¿Será que la nieve en el Líbano alguna vez deja de lado las rocas de las colinas? ¿Son las corrientes que vienen desde lejos de las montañas destruidas?¿Esas frías corrientes? 15 Sin embargo mi pueblo me ha olvidado. Ellos han hecho ofrendas a ídolos inútiles y los han hecho tropezar en sus caminos; ellos han dejado los caminos antiguos para caminar por senderos. 16 Sus tierras se convertirán en horror, un objeto de silbido eterno. Todos los que pasen por ella temblarán y sacudirán su cabeza. 17 Los esparciré ante sus enemigos como viento oriental. Yo les mostraré mi espalda, y no mi rostro, en el día de su desastre." 18 Así que el pueblo dijo: "Vengan, hagamos trampas contra Jeremías, ya que la ley del sacerdote nunca perecerá, o el consejo del hombre sabio, o las palabras del profeta. Vengan vamos a atacarlo a él con nuestras palabras y ya no prestar atención a nada de lo que él proclame." 19 Préstame atención SEÑOR, y escucha la voz de mis enemigos. 20 ¿Será el desastre de ellos mi recompensa por ser bueno con ellos? Porque han cavado un hoyo para mí. Recuerda como yo me he parado ante Tí para hablar por su bienestar, para hacer que Tu furia se alejara de ellos. 21 Por lo tanto entrega sus hijos a la hambruna, y entrégalos en las manos de aquellos que usan la espada. Así deja que sus mujeres lleguen a ser desconsoladas y viudas, y sus hombres sean asesinados, y sus hombres jóvenes sean muertos por la espada en batalla. 22 Deja que un grito de angustia sea escuchado desde sus casas, cuando de repente traiags asaltantes contra ellos. Pues ellos han cavado un hoyo para capturarme y tienen trampas ocultas para mis pies. 23 Pero Tu, SEÑOR, Tu sabes todos sus planes contra mí para matarme. No perdones sus iniquidades y pecados. No borres sus pecados lejos de tí. En lugar de eso, déjalos ser echados abajo ante ti. Actúa contra ellos en el tiempo de tu ira.

Chapter 20

1 Pasur, hijo de Imer el sacerdote--él era un oficial principal-- escuchó a Jeremías profetizando estas palabras delante de la casa del SEÑOR. 2 Así que Pasur golpeó a Jeremías el profeta y luego lo puso en el cepo que se encontraba en la puerta superior de Benjamín en la casa del SEÑOR. 3 Ocurrió en el próximo día que Pasur sacó a Jeremías del cepo. Luego Jeremías le dijo a él: "El SEÑOR no te ha llamado por tu nombre Pasur, sino que eres Magor Misabib. 4 Porque EL SEÑOR dice esto: 'Mira, Yo te haré un objeto de horror, tú y todos tus seres amados, pues ellos caerán por la espada de sus enemigos y tus ojos lo verán. Yo daré a toda Judá en mano del rey de Babilonia. Él los hará prisioneros o los atacará con la espada. 5 Yo le daré toda la fortuna de esta ciudad y todas sus riquezas, todos sus objetos preciosos y todos los tesoros de los reyes de Judá. Yo pondré estas cosas en la mano de tus enemigos, y ellos se apoderarán de ellas. Ellos las tomarán y las llevarán a Babilonia. 6 Pero tu, Pasur, y todos los habitantes de tu casa serán llevados en cautividad. Tú irás a Babilonia y morirás allí. Tú y todos tus seres queridos a quienes tú profetizaste cosas engañosas serán enterrados allí."' 7 "SEÑOR, Tú me engañaste, y yo fui engañado. Tú eres más fuerte que yo, y Tú me has dominado. Yo me he convertido en un hazmerreír todo el día; todos se burlan de mí. 8 Porque cada vez que he hablado, yo he llamado y proclamado: 'Violencia y destrucción.' Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR se ha convertido en reproche para mí y burlándose todos los días. 9 Si yo digo: 'Yo no pensaré más en el SEÑOR. Yo no hablaré más tiempo en Su nombre.' Entonces es como un fuego en mi corazón, retenido dentro de mis huesos. Así que yo lucho para contenerlo pero no puedo. 10 He escuchado rumores de terror de muchas personas alrededor. '¡Informar! ¡Debemos informarlo!' Aquellos que están cerca de mí me observan para ver si caigo. 'Tal vez el puede ser estafado. Si es así, nosotros podemos dominarlo y vengarnos de él.' 11 Pero el SEÑOR está conmigo como poderoso guerrero, así que los que me persiguen van a tambalear. Ellos no me vencerán. Ellos serán grandemente avergonzados, porque ellos no tendrán éxito. Ellos tendrán vergüenza sin fin, ésta nunca será olvidada. 12 Pero Tú, SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Tú que examinas al justo y que ves la mente y el corazón. Déjame ver Tú venganza en ellos ya que te he mostrado mi caso. 13 ¡Canten al SEÑOR! ¡Alaben al SEÑOR! Porque Él ha rescatado las vidas de aquellos que son oprimidos de la mano de los malhechores. 14 Deja que el día en que yo nací sea maldito. No dejes que el día que mi madre me dio a luz sea bendito. 15 Deja que el hombre que le informó a mi padre sea maldito, el que dijo: 'Un varón te ha nacido,' causándote gran gozo. 16 Deja que ese hombre sea como las ciudades que el SEÑOR derrocó y Él no tuvo misericordia con ellas. Deja que escuche un grito de ayuda en el amanecer, un grito de guerra al mediodía, 17 porque él no me mató en el vientre, haciendo mi madre ser mi tumba, un vientre que estaba embarazado para siempre. 18 ¿Por qué fue que yo salí del vientre para ver problemas y agonía, para que mis días estuvieran llenos con vergüenza?"

El vientre de la madre de Jeremías hubiera tenido el cuerpo muerto al igual que las tumbas tienen los cuerpos de las personas muertas.

¿Por qué fue que yo salí del vientre para ver problemas y agonía...vergüenza?
Jeremías usa esta pregunta para quejarse sobre que no había ninguna buena razón para que él naciera. Traducción Alterna: "No había razón para que naciera solo para ver problemas y agonía...vergüenza".

para ver problemas y agonía
Las palabras "problemas" y "agonía" significan básicamente lo mismo y hacen énfasis en la cantidad y la gravedad del sufrimiento. Traducción Alterna: "para sentir tanto sufrimiento".

mis días estuvieran llenos de vergüenza Traducción Alterna: "mi vida estuviera llena de vergüenza"

Chapter 21

1 La Palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR cuando el rey Sedequías envío a Pasur hijo de Malquías y a Sofonías hijo de Maasías el sacerdote a él. Ellos le dijeron: 2 "Busca consejo del SEÑOR en nuestro nombre, pues Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia nos está haciendo guerra. Quizás el SEÑOR hará milagros por nosotros, como en los tiempos pasados, y hará que él se aleje de nosotros.'' 3 Así que Jeremías dijo a ellos:'' Esto es lo que le deben decir a Zedequías: 4 El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice esto: ¡Mira, Yo estoy a punto de haver volver los instrumentos de guerra que están en sus manos, con las cuales ustedes estan peleando contra el rey de Babilonia y los Caldeos están sitiándoles desde las afueras de los muros! Pues Yo los reuniré en medio de la ciudad. 5 Entonces Yo mismo pelearé contra ustedes con una mano levantada y un brazo fuerte, y con ira, furia, y gran enojo. 6 Porque Yo atacaré los habitantes de esta ciudad, ambos hombre y bestia. Ellos morirán de una plaga severa. 7 Después de esto, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, Sedequías rey de Judá, sus siervos, el pueblo, y quien sea que permanezca en la ciudad después de la plaga, la espada, y la hambruna, Yo los daré en las manos de Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia, y en la mano de sus enemigos, y en la mano de aquellos que buscan sus vidas. Entonces él los matara a filo de espada. Él no tendrá pena de ellos, ni los perdonará, ni tendrá compasión.' 8 Entonces a este pueblo le debes decir: 'el SEÑOR dice esto: Miren, Yo estoy a punto de poner ante tí el camino de vida y el camino de muerte. 9 Quien quede en la ciudad morirá a espada, hambre y plaga; pero quien salga y caiga sobre sus rodillas ante los caldeos quienes los han sitiado vivirán. Él escapará con su vida. 10 Pues Yo he puesto mi cara contra esta ciudad a fin de traer desastre y no traer bien, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. Se le ha dado en la mano al rey de Babilonia y él la quemará.' 11 Con relación a la casa del rey de Judá, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR. 12 Casa de David, el SEÑOR dice: 'Traigan justicia en la mañana. Rescaten al que ha sido robado por la mano del opresor, o Mi furia saldrá como fuego y quemará, y ahí no habrá nadie que pueda aplacarlo, por sus malos hechos. 13 ¡Miren, habitantes del valle! Yo estoy en contra de tí, roca de la llanura. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. Yo estoy contra cualquiera que diga: ¿Quién bajará a atacarnos?'' o ¿''Quién entrará en nuestras casas?'' 14 Yo he asignado el fruto de sus prácticas a venir contra ustedes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y yo encenderé un fuego en los matorrales, y éste consumirá todo alrededor.'''

Chapter 22

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Baja a la casa del rey de Judá y proclama esta palabra allí. 2 Di: 'rey de Judá, escucha la palabra del SEÑOR - tú que te sientas en el trono de David - tú, y tus sirvientes, y tu pueblo que pasa por estas puertas. 3 El SEÑOR dice esto: "Haz justicia y rectitud, y cualquiera quien haya sido robado - rescátalo de la mano del opresor. No maltrates a ningún extranjero en tu tierra, ni algún huérfano o viuda. No cometas violencia ni derrames sangre inocente en este lugar. 4 ¡Pues si tú en verdad haces estas cosas, entonces reyes sentados en el trono de David entrarán por las puertas de esta casa montados en carruajes y en caballos, él, sus siervos, y su pueblo! 5 Pero si tú no escuchas estás palabras de Mí que Yo he anunciado - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- entonces esta casa real se convertirá en una ruina.'" 6 Pues, el SEÑOR dice esto con respecto a la casa del rey de Judá: 'Tú eres como Galaad, o como la cumbre del Líbano para Mí. Sin embargo, Yo te convertiré en un desierto, en ciudades sin habitantes. 7 ¡Por que Yo he designado destructores que vengan contra ti! Hombres con sus armas cortarán lo mejor de tus cedros y los dejarán caer en el fuego. 8 Entonces, muchas naciones pasarán junto a esta ciudad. Cada persona le dirá a la próxima: "¿Por qué ha actuado el SEÑOR en esta manera hacia esta gran ciudad?" 9 Entonces, la otra le contestará: "Porque ellos abandonaron el pacto del SEÑOR su Dios y se postraron delante otros dioses y los adoraron." 10 No lloren por el que está muerto ni hagan duelo por él; pero lloren amargamente por el que se va a ir, porque él nunca regresará y y verá su tierra nativa otra vez.' 11 Porque el SEÑOR dice esto sobre Joacaz hijo de Josías rey de Judá, quien sirvió como rey en lugar de Josías su padre: 'Él se ha ido de este sitio y no volverá. 12 Él morirá allí en el lugar donde ellos lo exiliaron, y nunca más verá esta tierra.' 13 ¡Ay del que edifica su casa por injusticia, sus aposentos altos por injusticia, que hace a su vecino trabajar por nada, y no le da su sueldo; 14 él dice: 'Yo construiré para mí mismo una casa grande con espaciosos aposentos altos.' Así corta ventanas grandes para esto, y él los cubre con paneles de cedro, y él los pinta en rojo.' 15 ¿Es esto lo que te hace un buen rey, que tú quieras tener paneles de cedro? ¿No comió y bebió tu padre también, aún haciendo justicia y rectitud? Entonces, las cosas fueron bien para él. 16 Él juzgó a favor de los pobres y los necesitados. Eso fue bueno entonces. ¿No es esto lo que quiere decir el conocerme a Mí? - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 17 Pero no hay nada en tus ojos y corazón excepto preocupaciones por tus ganancias injustas y por haber derramado sangre inocente, por producir opresión y aplastamiento a otros. 18 Por lo tanto, dice el SEÑOR acerca de Joacim hijo de Josías, rey de Judá: Ellos no van a lamentarlo a él diciendo, '¡Ay, mi hermano!' o '¡Ay, mi hermana!' Ellos no van a lamentar por él diciendo. '¡Ay mi maestro!' o '¡Ay, mi majestad!' 19 Él será sepultado con un entierro de asno, arrastrado lejos y lanzado más allá de las puertas de Jerusalén. 20 Sube a las montañas del Líbano y grita. Alza tu voz en Basán. Grita desde las montañas de Abarim, pues, todos tus amigos serán destruidos. 21 Yo te hablé cuando tú estabas seguro, pero tú dijiste: 'No escucharé.' Esta era tu costumbre desde tu juventud, porque tú no has escuchado mi voz. 22 El viento pastoreará lejos todos tus pastores, y tus amigos irán al cautiverio. Entonces, ciertamente tú serás avergonzado y humillado por todos tus hechos malignos. 23 ¡Tú que vives en el 'Líbano', quien está úbicado en edificios de cedro, cómo serás compadecido cuando los dolores de parto lleguen sobre ti, dolor como el de la mujer que está en parto!" 24 "Mientras Yo viva - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - aunque tú, Conías, hijo de Joacim rey de Judá, fuera el sello en mi mano derecha, Yo lo arrancaría. 25 Pues, Yo te he dado a la mano de los que buscaban tu vida y a la mano de aquellos delante de quien tú tienes miedo, hasta la mano de Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia y de los Caldeos. 26 Te lanzaré a ti y a tu madre que te parió a otra tierra, a un país donde tú no naciste, y allí tú morirás. 27 Acerca de esta tierra donde ellos querrán volver, ellos no volverán aquí. 28 ¿Es ésta una vasija despreciada y destrozada? ¿Es este hombre, Conías, una vasija que no complace a nadie? ¿Por qué han sido arrojados él y sus descendientes, y han sido vertidos en una tierra desconocida por ellos? 29 ¡Tierra, Tierra, Tierra! ¡Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR! 30 El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Escribe sobre este hombre Conías: Será sin hijos. No prosperará durante sus días, y ninguno de sus descendientes alcanzarán éxito ni volverán a sentarse en el trono de David y gobernar sobre Judá.'"

Chapter 23

1 "Ay de los pastores que destruyen y dispersan las ovejas de mi prado -- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 2 Por tanto el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice esto concerniente a los pastores que están pastoreando su pueblo, "Tú has dispersado mi rebaño y los has alejado. Tú no has cuidado de ellos. Así que Yo estoy próximo a castigarte por el mal que tú has hecho -- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 3 Yo mismo reuniré al remanente de mi rebaño desde todas las tierras donde Yo los he expulsado, y Yo los regresaré a un lugar de pastoreo, donde ellos serán fructíferos e aumentarán. 4 Entonces Yo levantaré pastores sobre ellos que los pastorearán para que ellos ya no teman más ni sean dispersados. Ninguno de ellos desaparecerá -- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 5 Miren, los días vendrán -- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--cuando Yo levante para David un ramo justo. Él reinará como rey; él actuará sabiamente y causará derecho y justicia en la tierra. 6 En sus días Judá será rescatada e Israel vivirá en seguridad. Entonces este es el nombre por el cual él será llamado: el SEÑOR es nuestra justicia. 7 Por tanto mira, días vienen--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--cuando ellos ya no dirán más, 'Vive el SEÑOR, quien sacó el pueblo de Israel fuera de la tierra de Egipto.' 8 En cambio ellos dirán, 'Vive el SEÑOR, quien sacó y dirigió de regreso los descendientes de la casa de Israel de la tierra del norte y de todas las tierras donde ellos habían sido expulsados.' Entonces ellos vivirán en su propia tierra." 9 En cuanto a los profetas, mi corazón está roto dentro de mí, y todos mis huesos tiemblan. Me he convertido como en un hombre ebrio, como un hombre a quien el vino ha dominado, por causa del SEÑOR y sus palabras santas. 10 Pues la tierra está llena de adúlteros. Por causa de estos la tierra está seca. Los prados en el desierto se secan. Los senderos de estos profetas son malvados; su poder no es usado en una manera correcta. 11 Pues ambos los profetas y los sacerdotes están contaminados. ¡Yo hasta encontré su maldad en Mi casa! --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- 12 Por tanto su camino será como un lugar resbaladizo en la oscuridad. Ellos serán empujados abajo. Ellos caerán en él. Pues Yo enviaré desastre en contra de ellos en el año de su castigo--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 13 Pues Yo he visto los profetas en Samaria haciendo lo que es repulsivo: ellos profetizaron por Baal y dirigieron mi pueblo Israel por mal camino. 14 Entre los profetas en Jerusalén Yo he visto cosas horribles: Ellos cometen adulterio y caminan en engaño. Ellos fortalecen las manos de los malhechores; ninguno torna atrás de su maldad. Todos ellos se han convertido como Sodoma para Mí ¡y sus habitantes como Gomorra! 15 Por tanto el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto concerniente a los profetas, "Mira, Yo estoy por hacerlos comer ajenjo y tomar agua venenosa, pues la contaminación ha salido de los profetas de Jerúsalen a toda la tierra." 16 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto, "No escuchen las palabras de los profetas que les profetizen a ustedes. ¡Ellos los han engañado! Ellos están anunciando visiones de sus propias mentes, no de la boca del SEÑOR. 17 Ellos están constantemente diciendo a esos que Me deshonran: 'el SEÑOR declara que habrá paz para ustedes.' Pues todo el que camina en la terquedad de su propio corazón dice: 'El desastre no vendrá sobre ustedes.' 18 Pero, ¿Quién se ha parado en la reunión de consejo del SEÑOR? ¿Quién ve y oye Su palabra? ¿Quién presta atención a Su palabra y escucha? 19 Miren, ¡hay una tormenta que viene del SEÑOR! Su furia sale, y una tempestad está girando alrededor. Está girando alrededor de las cabezas de los malvados. 20 La ira del SEÑOR no regresará hasta que haya llevado a cabo y traído a existencia las intenciones de Su corazón. En los días finales, ustedes entenderán ésto. 21 Yo no envié a estos profetas. Ellos sólo aparecieron. Yo no les proclamé nada, pero ellos todavía han profetizado. 22 Pues si ellos se hubieran estado en mi reunión de consejo, ellos hubieran causado que Mi pueblo oyera Mi palabra; ellos hubieran causado que ellos se alejaran de sus malvados caminos y prácticas corruptas. 23 ¿Soy Yo sólo un Dios cercano--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--y no también un Dios lejano? 24 ¿Puede alguno esconderse en un lugar secreto para que yo no pueda verlo a él? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--y, ¿no lleno Yo los cielos y la tierra? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 25 Yo he escuchado lo que los profetas han dicho, aquellos que estaban profetizando engaño en Mi nombre. Ellos dijeron: '¡Yo tuve un sueño! ¡Yo tuve un sueño!' 26 ¿Por cuánto tiempo continuará esto, profetas que profetizan mentiras de sus mentes, y quienes profetizan desde el engaño de sus corazones? 27 Ellos están planificando hacer que Mi pueblo olvide Mi nombre con los sueños que ellos informan, cada uno a su vecino, tal como sus ancestros olvidaron Mi nombre a favor del nombre de Baal. 28 El profeta que tiene un sueño, deja que él informe el sueño. Pero al que Yo le he declarado algo, deja que él declare Mi palabra verdaderamente. ¿Qué tiene que ver la paja con el grano? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- 29 ¿No es Mi palabra como el fuego--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--y como un martillo que quiebra una piedra en pedazos? 30 Pues mira, Yo estoy en contra de los profetas--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--cualquiera que robe palabras de otra persona y diga que ellas vienen de Mí. 31 Miren, Yo estoy en contra de los profetas--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--que usan sus lenguas para profetizar proclamaciones. 32 Miren, Yo estoy en contra de los profetas que sueñan engañosamente--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR--y entonces los proclaman y de esta manera conducen erróneamente a Mi pueblo con su engaño y su jactancia. Yo estoy contra de ellos, pues Yo no los he enviado a ellos ni les he dado a ellos órdenes. Así que ellos ciertamente no ayudarán a este pueblo--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 33 Cuando esta gente, o un profeta, o un sacerdote te pregunte: 'Cuál es la carga del SEÑOR?', tú le dirás a ellos: 'Tú eres la carga, y yo te echaré fuera'--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 34 En cuanto a los profetas, sacerdotes y la gente que está diciendo, 'Esta es la profecía del SEÑOR' Yo castigaré a ese hombre y su casa. 35 Tú continuas diciendo, cada persona a su vecino y cada hombre a su hermano: '¿Qué contestó el SEÑOR?' y '¿Qué declaró el SEÑOR?' 36 Pero no debes ya más hablar de la 'carga del SEÑOR' pues la carga es la palabra de cada hombre, y ustedes han pervertido las palabras del Dios viviente, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, nuestro Dios. 37 Esto es lo que ustedes dirán al profeta: '¿Qué contestación les dió el SEÑOR?' o 'Qué dijo el SEÑOR?' 38 Pero si ustedes dicen: 'La profecía del SEÑOR', esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: 'Por cuanto ustedes han dicho estas palabras, 'La profecía del SEÑOR,' cuando Yo les envié a ustedes, diciendo, 'Ustedes no dirán, "La profesía del SEÑOR,"' 39 por lo tanto, vean, Yo estoy a punto de levantarlos a ustedes y arrojarlos a ustedes lejos de Mí, junto con la ciudad que Yo les di a ustedes y a sus ancestros. 40 Entonces Yo pondré vergüenza perpetua e insulto sobre ustedes, que no será olvidado.'''

Jeremiah 23:1

los pastores que destruyen y dispersan las ovejas de mi prado
El SEÑOR se refiere a Israel como si fuera su prado, las personas de Israel como sus ovejas y sus líderes en Israel como los pastores.

declaración del SEÑOR
Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:7.

dispersado mi rebaño y los has alejado Estas dos frases tienen significados parecidos. La segunda hace énfasis en lo que dice la primera.

castigarte por el mal
El SEÑOR se refiere a las malas acciones como si fueran un préstamo que fue dado y puede ser devuelto. Traducción Alterna: "cobrar venganza por el mal"

Jeremiah 23:3

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando de las personas de Israel como sus ovejas y de los líderes de Israel como pastores.

lugar de pastoreo
Traducción Alterna: "donde todas sus necesidades serán satisfechas"

ellos serán fructíferos e incrementarán
La palabra "incrementarán" explica cómo ellos serán "fructíferos". Traducción Alterna: " ellos se incrementarán en número grandemente"

ellos ya no teman más ni sean dispersados
Las palabras "sean dispersados" significan que alguien les ha hecho tener miedo y significa básicamente lo mismo que "temer". Traducción Alterna: "nadie les hará tener miedo nunca más".

Ninguno de ellos
"Ninguno de mi pueblo"

Jeremiah 23:5

los días vendrán
Se habla de un tiempo futuro como si fuera un objeto que viene hacia el narrador o los oyentes. Traducción Alterna: "llegará el tiempo"

declaración del SEÑOR
"lo que el SEÑOR declarará" o "lo que el SEÑOR ha dicho". Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 1:7.

una rama justa
Se habla de este futuro rey descenciente de David como s fuera una rama crecida en un árbol. Traducción Alterna: " un descendiente justo"

una rama justa
Algunas versiones modernas traducen "un sucesor legítimo al trono"

causará derecho y justicia en la tierra
"Derecho" y "justicia" representan a las personas que actúan justamente y correctamente. Traducción Alterna: "causará que las personas actúen justamente y correctamente"

en la tierra
Aquí "tierra" representa a todas las personas en la nación. Traducción Alterna: "para todas las personas en la nación"

Judá será rescatada e Israel vivirá en seguridad

Vive el SEÑOR
Esta es una frase que se usa para jurar.

la tierra del norte y de todas las tierras donde ellos habían sido expulsados
Esto se refiere a la forma en la que las diez tribus de Israel fueron capturadas y dispersas en los países de alrededor.

Jeremiah 23:9

Información General:
El hablante ha cambiado del "Señor" a "Jeremías".

En cuanto a los profetas, mi corazón está roto dentro de mí, y todos mis huesos tiemblan
El corazón del profeta está roto y sus huesos tiemblan porque tiene temor del juicio que resultará de las mentiras de los falsos profetas. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo un gran temor sobre lo que sucederá debido a los falsos profetas" mi corazón está roto dentro de mí Se habla de las emociones del profeta como si fueran su corazón. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy muy triste"

todos mis huesos tiemblan
Aquí se refiere a la emoción del miedo como si los huesos del profeta estuvieran temblando. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo mucho miedo"

Me he convertido como en un hombre ebrio, como un hombre a quien el vino ha dominado
El profeta habla de estar muy triste y con mucho miedo como si sufriera como un borracho. Traducción Alterna: "Soy como un hombre borracho; no me puedo controlar a mí mismo"

la tierra está llena de adúlteros
Esta exageración se usa para mostrar el nivel de pecado, el cual estaba presente en el tiempo de Jeremías.

adúlteros
Aquí esta palabra probablemente representa una idea literal de que la mayoría de los hombres en la nación cometieron adulterio contra sus esposas, y además, es un lenguage bíblico común, para dar la idea de que han abandonado al Señor para adorar a otros ídolos.

la tierra está seca
Algunas versiones modernas interpretan esta frase hebrea como "la tierra se lamenta."

Jeremiah 23:11

Información General:
El hablante cambia de "Jeremías" al "Señor".

los sacerdotes están contaminados Traducción Alterna: "los sacerdotes son pecaminosos"

en Mi casa
Aquí el templo del Señor se compara con una casa, un lugar donde se dice que el Señor habita entre su pueblo.

la declaración del SEÑOR
"lo que el Señor ha declarado" o "lo que el Señor ha dicho"

como un lugar resbaladizo en la oscuridad Traducción Alterna: "inestable o peligrosa"

en el año de su castigo Traducción Alterna: "cuando llegue el tiempo de su castigo"

Jeremiah 23:13

caminan en engaño
"viven en deshonestidad"

fortalecen las manos de los malvados
"ellos fortalecen a aquellos que son malvados"

nadie da vuelta hacia atrás de hacer maldad
"Ellos permanecen en su pecado"

Todos ellos se han convertido como Sodoma ... como Gomorra.
"Ellos se convirtieron muy malvados"

Yo estoy por hacerlos comer ajenjo y tomar agua venenosa
El ajenjo era algo amargo y desagradable de comer. Esta frase describe el castigo que el Señor iba a imponer a los profetas malvados. De la misma manera en que el ajenjo era amargo y el agua venenosa, así sería el juicio del Señor sobre los malvados profetas.

Chapter 24

1 El SEÑOR me mostró algo. Mira, dos canastas de higos fueron puestas ante el templo del SEÑOR. (Esta visión sucedió después que Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, llevó al exilio a Jeconías hijo de Joacim, rey de Judá, los oficiales de Judá, los artesanos y forjadores de metal de Jerusalén y los trajeron a Babilonia.) 2 Una canasta de higos estaba muy buena, como primeros higos maduros, pero la otra canasta de higos estaba muy mala, tanto que no podían ser comidos. 3 El SEÑOR me dijo: "¿Qué ves, Jeremías?" Yo dije: "Higos. Higos que están muy buenos e higos que están muy malos tanto que no pueden comerse." 4 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 5 "El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Yo miraré a los exiliados de Judá para su beneficio, así como estos higos buenos, los exiliados a quienes Yo he enviado fuera de este lugar a la tierra de los Caldeos. 6 Yo fijaré Mis ojos en ellos para bien y los restauraré a esta tierra. Yo los edificaré, y no los derribaré. Yo los plantaré, y no los arrancaré a ellos. 7 Entonces Yo les daré un corazón para conocerme, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR. Ellos serán Mi pueblo y Yo seré su Dios, así que ellos se volverán a Mí con todo su corazón. 8 Pero como los higos malos que son muy malos para ser comidos-- esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice--Yo actuaré de esta forma con Sedequías, hijo de Judá, con sus oficiales, y con el resto de Jerusalén quienes permanecen en esta tierra o quienes se van a quedar en la tierra de Egipto. 9 Yo los convertiré en algo atemorizante, un desastre, ante la vista de todos los reinos de la Tierra, una desgracia y un objeto de proverbios, burlas y maldiciones en cada lugar donde Yo los he de conducir. 10 Yo enviaré espada, hambruna, y plaga en contra de ellos, hasta que ellos sean destruidos de la tierra que Yo les di y a sus ancestros."

así como estos higos buenos Los higos buenos son aquellos exiliados de Judá enviados a la tierra de los Caldeos.

Yo fijaré Mis ojos en ellos para bien Traducción Alterna: "Los bendeciré."

Yo los edificaré, y no los derribaré. Yo los plantaré, y no los arrancaré a ellos Estas dos oraciones tienen significados similares. La segunda oración refuerza el pensamiento de la primera. Traducción Alterna: "Los ayudaré a prosperar en la tierra de los Caldeos."

Yo los edificaré, y no los derribaré
Esta expresión compara el exilio con un edificio que el Señor construirá y no derribará. Traducción Alterna: " "Los ayudaré a florecer en la tierra, y no los arruinaré".

Yo los plantaré, y no los arrancaré a ellos
Traducción Alterna: "Los estableceré en la tierra, y no los removeré."

Traducción Alterna: "Ellos se volverán a mí con todo su ser"

Jeremiah 24:8

Pero como los higos malos que son muy malos para ser comidos
Esta expresión compara los higos malos con las personas malas. Los higos malos son higos que no pueden ser comidos y que son inservibles. Las personas que no siguen al Señor también son inútiles.

Yo los convertiré en algo atemorizante, un desastre
El Señor compara el juicio que vendrá sobre el pueblo de Jerusalén a algo que asusta a las personas cuando lo ven.

Chapter 25

1 Esta es la palabra que vino a Jeremías acerca de todo el pueblo de Judá. Sucedió que en el cuarto año de Joacim hijo de Josías, rey de Judá. Ese fue el primer año de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia. 2 Jeremías el profeta proclamó esto a todo el pueblo de Judá y a todos los habitantes de Jerusalén. 3 Él dijo: "Por veintitres años, desde el año decimotercero de Josías, hijo de Amón, rey de Judá, hasta este día, las palabra del SEÑOR han estado viniendo a mí y he hablado a ustedes una y otra vez, pero ustedes no han escuchado. 4 El SEÑOR envió a todos sus siervos los profetas una y otra vez, pero ustedes no han escuchado o han prestado ninguna atención" 5 Estos profetas dijeron: 'Que cada hombre se vuelva de su malvado camino y de la corrupción de sus prácticas y regrese a la tierra que el SEÑOR entregó en tiempos antiguos a tus antepasados y a ustedes, como un regalo permanente. 6 Así que no caminen tras otros dioses para adorarlos o postrarse ante ellos, y no lo provoquen con la obra de sus manos para que Él les haga daño.' 7 Pero ustedes no me han escuchado- ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR - Así que, ustedes Me han provocado, con la obra de sus manos, a que les haga daño. 8 Así que El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: 'Porque no escucharon mis palabras, 9 miren, estoy a punto de enviar una orden para reunir a todos los pueblos del norte- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - Con Nabucodonosor, mi siervo, rey de Babilonia, y traerlos contra esta tierra y sus habitantes, y contra todas las naciones a tu alrededor. Pues Yo los apartaré para destrucción. Yo los volveré un horror, un objeto para silbar, una desolación sin fin. 10 Yo pondré un final al sonido de gozo y al sonido de alegría, el sonido del novio y de la desposada, el sonido de la piedra de molino y la luz de la lámpara. 11 Luego toda esta tierra se volverá una desolación y un horror, y estas naciones servirán al rey de Babilonia por setenta años. 12 Luego ocurrirá cuando setenta años sean completados, que Yo castigaré al rey de Babilonia y a esa nación, la tierra de los caldeos - Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - por su iniquidad y la haré una desolación sin fin. 13 Luego Yo llevaré en contra de esa tierra todas las palabras que he hablado, y todo lo escrito en este libro que Jeremías ha profetizado en contra de todas las naciones. 14 Pues, también, muchas otras naciones y grandes reyes harán esclavos de estas naciones. Yo les pagaré por sus obras y el trabajo de sus manos."' 15 Pues, el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, me dijo esto: "Toma esta copa del vino de la furia de mi mano, y haz que todas las naciones a las que te estoy enviando la tomen. 16 Pues ellos beberán y luego tropezarán y vociferarán locamente ante la espada que Yo estoy enviando en medio de ellos." 17 Así que tomé la copa de la mano del SEÑOR, e hice que todas las naciones a las que el SEÑOR me envió que bebieran: 18 Jerusalén, las ciudades de Judá y sus reyes y oficiales - que los convirtiera en ruinas y algo atemorizante, y en objetos para silbar y maldecir, como son en el día presente. 19 Otras naciones también tuvieron que tomarlo: Faraón, el rey de Egipto y sus siervos; sus oficiales y todo su pueblo; 20 todo el pueblo de herencia mixta, y todos los reyes de la tierra de Uz; todos los reyes de la tierra de Filistea - Ascalón, Gaza, Ecrón y el remanente de Asdod; 21 Edom y Moab y el pueblo de Amón. 22 Los reyes de Tiro y Sidón, los reyes de las costas en el otro lado del mar, 23 Dedan, Tema, y Buz con todos aquellos que se cortan su cabellos en los lados de sus cabezas, ellos también tuvieron que beber de ésta. 24 Este pueblo también tuvo que beber de ésta: todos los reyes de Arabia y todos los reyes de pueblos de herencia mixta, quienes viven en el desierto; 25 todos los reyes de Zimri, todos los reyes de Elam, y todos los reyes de Media; 26 todos los reyes del norte, aquellos de cerca y aquellos de lejos - todo el mundo con su hermano y todos los reinos del mundo que están en la superficie de la Tierra. Finalmente, el rey de Babilonia la beberá después de todos ellos. 27 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Ahora tú, debes decirles: 'El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Beban y emborráchense, luego vomiten, caigan y no se levanten ante la espada que Yo envío entre ustedes.' 28 Luego sucederá que si ellos se niegan a tomar la copa de tu mano para beber, tú les dirás: 'El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Ustedes deben ciertamente beberlo. 29 Pues verán, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre a la ciudad que es llamada por Mi nombre, ¿y ustedes mismos deberán ser libres del castigo? Ustedes no serán libres, ¡pues Yo estoy llamando una espada en contra de todos los habitantes de la tierra! - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos.' 30 Tú debes profetizar todas estas palabras contra ellos, y decirles: 'el SEÑOR rugirá desde las alturas y Él gritará con su voz desde Su santa morada, y Él rugirá poderosamente contra su redil; y Él gritará, como aquellos que pisan las uvas contra todos aquellos que viven en la Tierra. 31 El sonido de batalla resonará hasta los confines de la Tierra, pues el SEÑOR trae cargos contra las naciones, y Él trae juicio a toda carne. Él le entregará los malvados a la espada - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 32 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: 'Miren, el desastre va de nación en nación, y una gran tormenta está comenzando desde las partes más lejanas de la Tierra. 33 Entonces, aquellos muertos por el SEÑOR se extenderán en ese día de un extremo de la tierra al otro; ellos no serán llorados, recogidos o enterrados. Ellos serán como excremento en el suelo. 34 ¡Giman, pastores, y griten por ayuda! Rueden sobre el polvo, ustedes líderes del rebaño, pues los días de su matanza han llegado; ustedes serán esparcidos cuando caigan como cerámica fina. 35 No hay refugio para los pastores, no habrá escapatoria para los líderes del rebaño. 36 Escuchen los gritos de los pastores y los gemidos de los líderes del rebaño, pues el SEÑOR está destruyendo sus pastos. 37 Así que los pastos apacibles serán devastados por la ira feroz del SEÑOR. 38 Como un león joven, Él ha dejado su guarida, pues su tierra se volverá un horror por el enojo del opresor, por causa de Su enojada ira.

Chapter 26

1 En el principio del reinado de Joacim, hijo de Josías, vino esta palabra del SEÑOR, diciendo: 2 "El SEÑOR dice esto: Párate en el patio de Mi casa y habla sobre todas las ciudades de Judá que vienen a adorar a Mi casa. Proclama todas las palabras que te he ordenado a decirles. ¡No acortes ni una palabra! 3 Puede ser que escuchen, que cada hombre se aleje de sus caminos malvados, tanto que Yo voy a ceder en cuanto al desastre que estoy planificando enviarles por la maldad de sus prácticas. 4 Así que debes decirles: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Si no me escuchan como para caminar en Mi ley que he puesto ante ustedes - 5 si no escuchan las palabras de mis siervos, los profetas quienes Yo persistentemente les estoy enviando - ¡pero ustedes no han escuchado! - 6 entonces Yo haré esta casa como Silo; Yo convertiré a esta ciudad en una maldición a la vista de todas las naciones en la tierra.'" 7 Los sacerdotes, los profetas, y todas las personas escucharon a Jeremías anunciando estas palabras en la casa del SEÑOR. 8 Y aconteció que cuando Jeremías había terminado de anunciar todo lo que el SEÑOR le había ordenado decir a todas las gentes, sacerdotes, y profetas, y todo el pueblo lo agarraron y dijeron: "¡Tú ciertamente morirás! 9 ¿Por qué has profetizado en el nombre del SEÑOR y dicho que esta casa será como Silo y esta ciudad estará desolada, sin habitantes?" Pues todo el pueblo había formado un motín contra Jeremías en la casa del SEÑOR. 10 Entonces los oficiales de Judá escucharon estas palabras y subieron desda la casa del rey hasta la casa del SEÑOR. Ellos se sentaron en la entrada de la Nueva Puerta de la casa del SEÑOR. 11 Los sacerdotes y los profetas hablaron a los oficiales y a todo el pueblo. Ellos dijeron: "¡Es justo que este hombre muera, pues ha profetizado contra esta ciudad, justo como lo han escuchado con sus propios oídos!" 12 Así que Jeremías habló a todos los oficiales y a todo el pueblo y dijo: "El SEÑOR me ha enviado a profetizar en contra de esta casa y esta ciudad, para decir todas las palabras que ustedes han escuchado. 13 Pues ahora mejoren sus caminos y sus prácticas, y escuchen la voz del SEÑOR su Dios para que se aplaque acerca del desastre que Él ha proclamado contra ustedes. 14 Yo mismo - ¡Mírenme! - estoy en sus manos. Háganme a mí lo que es bueno y justo en sus ojos. 15 Pero deberían seguramente saber que si me matan, entonces están echando sangre inocente sobre ustedes mismos y sobre esta ciudad y sus habitantes, pues el SEÑOR verdaderamente me ha enviado a proclamar estas palabras para sus oídos." 16 Entonces los oficiales y todas las personas dijeron a los sacerdotes y a los profetas: "No es justo que este hombre muera, pues él ha proclamado cosas a nosotros en el nombre del SEÑOR nuestro Dios." 17 Entonces, hombres de los ancianos de la tierra se levantaron y hablaron a toda la asamblea del pueblo. 18 Ellos dijeron: "Miqueas de Moréset estaba profetizando en los días de Ezequías rey de Judá. El habló a todas las personas de Judá y dijo: 'El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: Sion será arado como un campo, Jerusalén se convertirá en un montón de escombros, y el monte del templo se convertirá en una colina cubierta de matorrales.' 19 ¿Acaso Ezequías, rey de Judá, y todo Judá, lo llevaron a la muerte? ¿No tuvo él temor del SEÑOR y apaciguó el rostro del SEÑOR para que el SEÑOR cediera en relación al desastre que Él les había proclamado? ¿Haremos nosotros el mal en contra de nuestras propias vidas?" 20 Mientras tanto hubo otro hombre que profetizó en el nombre del SEÑOR - Urías hijo de Semaías de Quiriat Jearim - él también profetizó contra su ciudad y esta tierra, de acuerdo con todas las palabras de Jeremías. 21 Pero cuando el rey Joacim y todos sus soldados y oficiales escucharon su palabra, entonces el rey trató de matarlo, pero Urías escuchó y tuvo miedo, así que huyó y fue a Egipto. 22 Entonces el rey Joacim envió hombres hacia Egipto - a Elnatán, hijo de Acbor, y a otros hombres para ir a Egipto por Urías. 23 Sacaron a Urías de Egipto y lo trajeron al rey Joacim. Entonces Joacim lo mató con una espada y envió su cuerpo hacia las tumbas de la gente ordinaria. 24 Pero la mano de Ahicam, hijo de Safán estaba con Jeremías, así que no fue entregado a la mano de la gente para ser llevado a la muerte.

Chapter 27

1 En el principio del reinado de Sedequías, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, esta palabra vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR. 2 Ésto fue lo que el SEÑOR me dijo: "Hazte grilletes y un yugo. Colócalos en tu cuello. 3 Entonces envíalos al rey de Edom, el rey de Moab, el rey del pueblo de Amón, el rey de Tiro y al rey de Sidón. Envíalos a ellos por la mano de los embajadores de los reyes quienes han venido de Jerusalén a Sedequías, rey de Judá. 4 Dale órdenes a ellos por sus maestros y diles: 'el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, les dice ésto: Ésto es lo que ustedes deben decir a sus maestros, 5 "Yo mismo hice el planeta tierra por mi gran fuerza y mi brazo alzado. Yo también hice las gentes y los animales en la tierra, y Yo doy a cualquiera quien sea justo ante mis ojos. 6 Y ahora, Yo mismo estoy entregando todas estas tierras en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, mi siervo. Además, Yo estoy entregando los seres vivos en los campos a él para servirlo. 7 Pues todas las naciones le servirán, sus hijos y sus nietos hasta que el tiempo para su tierra llegue. Entonces, muchas naciones y grandes reyes lo dominarán. 8 Así que la nación y el reino que no sirva a Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, y que no coloque por debajo de su cuello el yugo del rey de Babilonia- Yo castigaré esa nación con espada, hambruna y plaga- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- hasta que los haya destruido por su mano. 9 Así que no escuchen a sus profetas, sus adivinadores, sus videntes, sus adivinos, y sus hechiceros, quienes han estado hablando a ustedes y diciendóles: 'No sirvan al rey de Babilonia.' 10 Pues ellos están profetizando mentiras a ustedes a fin de que los envíen muy lejos de sus tierras, porque los llevaré lejos, y ustedes morirán. 11 Pero la nación que ponga su cuello debajo del yugo del rey de Babilonia y le sirva, Yo dejaré que descanse en su tierra- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- y ellos lo cultivaran y harán sus casas en ésta." 12 Así que hablé a Sedequías, rey de Judá y le dí este mensaje: "Pongan sus cuellos debajo del yugo del rey de Babilonia y sirvan a él y a su pueblo, y ustedes vivirán. 13 ¿Porqué morirás- tú y tu pueblo- por la espada, hambruna y plaga, tal como yo he declarado sobre la nación que rehuse a servir al rey de Babilonia? 14 No escuches a las palabras de los profetas quienes hablan contigo y dicen: 'No sirvan al rey de Babilonia,' por que ellos están profetizando mentiras hacia a tí. 15 Por que yo no les enviado fuera- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- por que ellos están profetizando engaño en mi nombre para que yo te envíe a tí y tú perezcas, ambos, tú y los profetas quienes están profetizándote.'" 16 Yo proclamé esto a los sacerdotes y a todo el pueblo y dije: "El SEÑOR dice ésto: No escuchen a las palabras de sus profetas quienes les profetizan: '¡Mira! ¡Los obsequios que pertenecen a la casa del SEÑOR ahora están siendo devueltos de Babilonia!' Ellos están profetizando mentiras hacia a ustedes. 17 No escuchen a ellos. Ustedes deben servir al rey de Babilonia y vivir. ¿Porqué esta ciudad debe convertirse en una ruina? 18 Si ellos son profetas, y si la palabra del SEÑOR en verdad les ha venido, deja que ellos rueguen al SEÑOR de Ejércitos no enviar a Babilonia los utensilios que quedaron en su casa, la casa del rey de Judá, y Jerusalén. 19 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto sobre los pilares, el mar y las basas, y el resto de los utensilios que quedaron en esta ciudad- 20 los utensilios que Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, no se llevó cuando él llevó a Jeconías, hijo de Joacim, rey de Judá, en cautiverio de Jerusalén a Babilonia con todos los nobles de Judá y Jerusalén. 21 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto sobre los utensilios que quedan en la casa del SEÑOR, la casa del rey de Judá y Jerusalén: 22 'Ellos van a ser traídos a Babilonia, y ellos quedarán allí hasta el día que yo he fijado para venir por ellos- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- entonces Yo los traeré y los restauraré en este lugar.'"

Chapter 28

1 Ocurrió en aquel año, en el principio del reinado de Sedequías rey de Judá, en el cuarto año y el quinto mes, Hananías hijo de Azur el profeta, que era de Gabaón, habló a mí en la casa de el SEÑOR en frente de los sacerdotes y toda la gente. El dijo: 2 "El SEÑOR de los ejercitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Yo he roto el yugo impuesto por el rey de Babilonia. 3 Dentro de dos años Yo traeré de vuelta a este lugar todos los utensilios que pertenecen a la casa del SEÑOR, que Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia tomó de este lugar y transportó a Babilonia. 4 Luego Yo volveré a traer a este lugar a Jeconías hijo de Joacim, rey de Judá, y a todos los cautivos de Judá que fueron enviados a Babilonia, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, pues Yo romperé el yugo del rey de Babilonia." 5 Así que Jeremías el profeta habló a Hananías el profeta al frente de los sacerdotes y a toda la gente que estaban de pie ante la casa del SEÑOR. 6 Jeremías el profeta dijo: "¡Así lo haga el SEÑOR! Así el SEÑOR confirme las palabras que tu profetizastes y traiga otra vez a este lugar los objetos que pertenecen a la casa de el SEÑOR, y a todos los cautivos de Babilonia. 7 Sin embargo, escuchen las palabras que yo proclamo a tus oídos y a los oídos de toda la gente. 8 Los profetas que existieron antes de mí y ustedes desde hace mucho tiempo atrás también profetizaron acerca de muchas naciones y contra grandes reinos, sobre guerras, hambruna, y plagas. 9 Así, el profeta que profetize que allí habrá paz, si su palabra se vuelve verdad, entonces será sabido que él es en verdad un profeta enviado por el SEÑOR. 10 Pero Hananías el profeta tomó el yugo del cuello de Jeremías el profeta y lo rompió. 11 Entonces Hananías habló en frente a toda la gente y dijo: "El SEÑOR dice esto: Así como esto, dentro de dos años Yo romperé del cuello de toda nación el yugo impuesto por Nabucodonozor rey de Babilonia." Después el profeta Jeremías siguió su camino. 12 Después que Hananías el profeta rompió el yugo del cuello de Jeremías el profeta, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías, diciendo: 13 "Ve y habla a Hananías y dile, "El SEÑOR dice esto: Tú rompistes un yugo de madera, pero Yo haré en su lugar uno de hierro.' 14 Pues el SEÑOR de los ejercitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: "Yo he puesto un yugo de hierro en el cuello de todas estas naciones para que sirvan a Nabucodonozor rey de Babilonia, y ellos le servirán. Yo también le he dado a él las bestias salvajes en los campo para gobernarlos. 15 Luego Jeremías el profeta le dijo a Hananías el profeta: "¡Escucha Hananías! El SEÑOR no te ha enviado a ti, pero tú mismo causaste que esta gente creyera en mentiras. 16 Así que el SEÑOR dice esto: Mira, Yo estoy a punto de enviarte fuera de la tierra. Tú morirás este año, porque desde que tú proclamaste la rebelión contra el SEÑOR." 17 En el séptimo mes del mismo año, Hananías el profeta murió.

Jeremiah 28:5

Jeremías
Jeremías fue un profeta de Dios en el reino de Judá. El libro del antiguo testamento de Jeremías contiene sus profecías. Como la mayoría de los profetas, Jeremías a menudo tenía que advertirle al pueblo de Israel sobre que Dios los iba a castigar por sus pecados. Jeremías profetizó que los babilonios capturarían a Jerusalén, lo que hizo que muchos del pueblo de Judá se enfurecieran. Entonces, lo pusieron en un pozo profundo y seco y lo dejaron allí para que muriera. Pero el rey de Judá le ordenó a sus sirvientes que lo rescataran a Jeremías del pozo. *Jeremías escribió que deseaba que sus ojos pudieran ser "una fuente de lágrimas", para expresar su profunda tristeza por la rebelión y los sufrimientos de su pueblo.

profeta, profecía, profetiza, vidente, profetisa
Un "profeta" es un hombre que habla los mensajes de Dios a las personas. Una mujer que hace esto se llama "profetisa".

A menudo los profetas advirtieron a las personas a que se apartaran de sus pecados y obedecieran a Dios. Una "profecía" es el mensaje que el profeta habla. "Profetizar" significa hablar los mensajes de Dios. A menudo el mensaje de una profecía era sobre algo que sucedería en el futuro. Varias profecías en el antiguo testamento ya se han cumplido. En la Biblia la colección de libros escritos por los profetas a veces se conocen como "los profetas". Por ejemplo, la frase, "la ley y los profetas" es una forma para referirse a todas las escrituras hebreas, que también se conocen como "el antiguo testamento." Un término más antiguo para profeta era "vidente" o "alguien que ve." A veces el término "vidente" se refiere a un falso profeta o a alguien que practica la adivinación.

Sugerencias de Traducción

El término "profeta" podría traducirse como "el portavoz de Dios" u "hombre que habla los mensajes de Dios." Un "vidente" podría traducirse como, "persona que ve visiones" u "hombre que ve el futuro de Dios." El término "profetisa" podría traducirse como "vocera de Dios" o "mujer que habla por Dios" o "mujer que habla los mensajes de Dios." Las formas de decir "profecía" podrían incluir "mensaje de Dios" o "mensaje de profeta." El término "profetizar" podría traducirse como "hablar las palabras de Dios" o "decir el mensaje de Dios". La expresión figurativa, "la ley y los profetas" podría traducirse como, "los libros de la ley y los profetas" o "todo lo escrito sobre Dios y su pueblo, incluídas las leyes de Dios y lo que predicaron sus profetas."

Hananías
Hananías fue el nombre de varios hombres diferentes en el antiguo testamento.

Un Hananías fue un israelita cautivo en Babilonia cuyo nombre fue cambiado a "Sadrac". Le dieron un puesto como sirviente real debido a su excelente carácter y habilidades. Una vez Hananías (Sadrac) y otros dos jóvenes israelitas fueron arrojados a un horno de fuego porque se negaron a adorar al rey de Babilonia. Dios mostró su poder al protegerlos de ser dañados. Otro hombre llamado Hananías fue catalogado como descendiente del rey Salomón. Un Hananías diferente fue un falso profeta durante el tiempo del profeta Jeremías. Un hombre llamado Hananías fue un sacerdote que ayudó a dirigir una celebración durante el tiempo de Nehemías.

sacerdote, sacerdocio
En la Biblia, un sacerdote era alguien que fue elegido para ofrecer sacrificios a Dios en nombre del pueblo de Dios. El "sacerdocio" era el nombre del oficio o condición de ser sacerdote.

En el Antiguo Testamento, Dios escogió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran sus sacerdotes para el pueblo de Israel. El "sacerdocio" era un derecho y una responsabilidad que se transmitía de padres a hijos en el clan levita. Los sacerdotes israelitas tenían la responsabilidad de ofrecer los sacrificios del pueblo a Dios, junto con otros deberes en el templo. Los sacerdotes también ofrecían regularmente oraciones a Dios en nombre de su pueblo y realizaban otros ritos religiosos. Los sacerdotes pronunciaban bendiciones formales sobre las personas y les enseñaban las leyes de Dios. En el tiempo de Jesús, había diferentes niveles de sacerdotes, incluidos los principales sacerdotes y el sumo sacerdote. Jesús es nuestro "gran sumo sacerdote" quién intercede por nosotros en la presencia de Dios. Él se ofreció a sí mismo como el último sacrificio por el pecado. Esto significa que los sacrificios hechos por los sacerdotes humanos ya no son necesarios. En el nuevo testamento, a cada creyente en Jesús se le llama "sacerdote" y puede venir directamente a Dios en oración para interceder por sí mismo y por otras personas. *En la antigüedad, también había sacerdotes paganos que presentaban ofrendas a dioses falsos como Baal.

Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, el término "sacerdote" podría traducirse como "persona sacrificada" o "intermediario de Dios" o "mediador sacrificial" o "persona que Dios designa para representarlo". La traducción de "sacerdote" debe ser diferente de la traducción de "mediador". Algunas traducciones pueden preferir decir siempre algo como "sacerdote israelita" o "sacerdote judío" o "sacerdote del Señor" o "sacerdote de Baal" para dejar en claro que esto no se refiere a un sacerdote moderno. El término usado para traducir "sacerdote" debe ser diferente de los términos "sacerdote principal" y "sumo sacerdote" y "levita" y "profeta".

la casa de Dios, la casa de Jehová En la Biblia, las frases "casa de Dios" y "casa del Señor" se refieren a un lugar donde se adora a Dios. Este término también se usa más específicamente para referirse al tabernáculo o al templo. Algunas veces la "casa de Dios" se usa para referirse al pueblo de Dios.

Sugerencias de traducción

Al referirse a un lugar de culto, este término puede ser traducido como, "una casa para adorar a Dios" o "un lugar para adorar a Dios." Si se refiere al templo o tabernáculo, esto puede traducirse como "el templo."

El Señor
El término "Señor" es el nombre personal de Dios que Él reveló cuando habló con Moisés en la zarza ardiente.

El nombre "Señor" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". Los posibles significados de "Señor" incluyen, "Él es" o "Yo Soy" o "El que ha de Ser." Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y continuará viviendo por siempre. También significa que Él siempre está presente. Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "Señor" o "el Señor" para representar al "Señor". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre del Señor y debido a esto comenzaron a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Señor" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Señor", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del antiguo testamento. El término "Señor" nunca aparece en el texto original del nuevo testamento; sólo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del antiguo testamento.

Sugerencias de traducción

"Señor" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "Yo Soy" o "Uno que vive" o "El que Es" o "El que está vivo". Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Señor". *Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Señor" y en su lugar usan la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que pueden agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre.

confirmar, confirmación
Los términos "confirmar" y "confirmación" se refieren a afirmar o asegurar que algo es verdadero o seguro o confiable.

En el Antiguo Testamento, Dios le dice a su pueblo que él "confirmará" su pacto con ellos. Esto significa que él está declarando que mantendrá las promesas que hizo en ese pacto. Cuando un rey es "confirmado" significa que la decisión de covertirlo en rey ha sido acordada y apoyada por el pueblo. Para confirmar lo que alguien escribió quiere decir que lo que se escribió es verdad. La "confirmación" del evangelio significa enseñarle a las personas acerca de las buenas nuevas de Jesús de tal manera que se demuestre que es verdad. Hacer un juramento "como confirmación" significa declarar solemnemente o jurar que algo es verdadero o confiable. Las formas de traducir "confirmar" podrían incluir, "declarar como verdadero" o "demostrar que es confiable" o "estar de acuerdo con" o "asegurar" o "prometer", dependiendo del contexto.

cautivo, cautiverio
Los términos "cautivo" y "cautiverio" se refieren a capturar personas y obligarlas a vivir en un lugar donde no quieren vivir, como por ejemplo, en un país extranjero. Los israelitas del reino de Judá fueron llevados cautivos al reino de Babilonia por 70 años. A menudo se requiere que los cautivos trabajen para las personas o la nación que los capturó. Daniel y Nehemías fueron israelitas cautivos que trabajaron para el rey de Babilonia. La expresión "llevar cautivo" es otra forma de hablar sobre capturar a alguien. La expresión "llevar cautivo" también podría traducirse como "obligar a alguien a vivir como cautivo" o "llevarlo a otro país como prisionero". En un sentido figurado, el apóstol Pablo les dice a los cristianos que "lleven cautivo" cada pensamiento y que lo hagan obediente a Cristo. *También habla sobre cómo una persona puede ser "llevada cautiva" por el pecado, lo que significa que está siendo "controlada por" el pecado.

proclamar, proclamación
Proclamar es anunciar o declarar algo públicamente y audazmente.

A menudo en la Biblia, "proclamar" significa anunciar públicamente algo que Dios ha ordenado, o contarle a otros sobre Dios y cuán grande es Él. En el Nuevo Testamento, los apóstoles proclamaron las buenas nuevas sobre Jesús a muchas personas en diferentes ciudades y regiones. El término "proclamar" también se puede usar para decretos hechos por los reyes o para denunciar el mal de forma pública. Otras formas de traducir "proclamar" podrían incluir "anunciar" o "predicar abiertamente" o "declarar públicamente". *El término "proclamación" también se podría traducir como "anuncio" o "predicación pública".

Un yugo es una pieza de madera o metal unidas a dos o más animales para conectarlos con el fin de arrastrar de un arado o un carro. También hay varios significados figurados con respecto a este término.

El término "yugo" se usa en sentido figurado para referirse a algo que une a las personas con el propósito de trabajar juntos, como servir a Jesús. Pablo usó el término "yokefellow" para referirse a alguien que estaba sirviendo a Cristo tal como él servía. Esto también podría traducirse como "compañero de trabajo" o "compañero de servicio" o "compañero de trabajo". El término "yugo" también se usa a menudo de forma figurada para referirse a una carga pesada que alguien tiene que llevar, por ejemplo cuando se lo oprime por la esclavitud o la persecución. En la mayoría de los contextos, es mejor traducir este término literalmente, usando el término local de un yugo que se usa para la agricultura. *Otras formas de traducir el uso figurado de este término podría ser "carga opresiva" o "carga pesada" o "enlace", según el contexto.

rey

El término "rey" hace referencia a un hombre que es el gobernante supremo de la ciudad, estado, o país. Un rey es elegido a menudo para gobernar debido a su relación familiar con reyes anteriores. Cuando un rey muere, su hijo mayor es quien se convierte en el siguiente rey. En la antigüedad, el rey tenía autoridad absoluta sobre las personas en su reino. Rara vez el término "rey" puede usarse para referirse a alguien que no es un verdadero rey , como el "rey Herodes" en el nuevo testamento. En la Biblia, a menudo se hace referencia a Dios como un rey que gobierna sobre su pueblo. El "reino de Dios" se refiere al gobierno de Dios sobre su pueblo. Jesús fue llamado "rey de los judíos", "rey de Israel" y "rey de reyes". Cuando Jesús regrese, gobernará como rey sobre el mundo. Este término también podría ser traducido como "jefe supremo" o "líder absoluto" o "gobernante soberano". La frase "rey de reyes" se puede traducir como "rey que gobierna sobre todos los demás reyes" o "gobernante supremo que tiene autoridad sobre todos los demás gobernantes".

Babilonia, Babilónico

La ciudad de Babilonia era la capital de la antigua región de Babilonia, que también era parte del Imperio babilónico. Babilonia estaba ubicada a lo largo del río Éufrates, en la misma región donde se había construido la Torre de Babel cientos de años antes. A veces la palabra "Babilonia" se refiere a todo el Imperio babilónico. Por ejemplo, el "rey de Babilonia" gobernó todo el imperio, no solo la ciudad. Los babilonios eran un grupo poderoso que atacó el reino de Judá y mantuvo a la gente en exilio en Babilonia durante 70 años. Parte de esta región se llamaba "Caldea" y las personas que vivían allí eran los "caldeos". Como resultado, el término "Caldea" se usaba a menudo para referirse a Babilonia. En el Nuevo Testamento, el término "Babilonia" se usa a veces como una metáfora para referirse a lugares, personas y patrones de pensamiento asociados con la adoración de ídolos y otras conductas pecaminosas. La frase "Babilonia la grande" o "gran ciudad de Babilonia" se refiere metafóricamente a una ciudad o nación que era grande, rica y pecadora, tal como lo era la antigua ciudad de Babilonia.

Chapter 29

1 Estas son las palabras en el pergamino que Jeremías el profeta envió a Jerusalén a los ancianos que quedan entre los cautivos y los sacerdotes, profetas, y toda la gente que Nabucodonosor había exhiliado de Jerusalén a Babilonia. 2 Esto fue después que Jeconías el rey, la madre reina, y los altos oficiales, los líderes de Judá y Jerusalén, y los artesanos habían sido enviados fuera de Jerusalén. 3 Él envió este pergamino por mano de Elasa hijo de Safán y Gemarías hijo de Hilcías, a quien Sedequías, rey de Judá, había enviado a Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia. 4 El pergamino decía: "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto a todos los cautivos a quienes Yo hice exiliar de Jerusalén a Babilonia, 5 'Contruyan casas y vivan en ellas. Planten jardines y coman su fruto. 6 Tomen esposas y den a luz hijos e hijas. Luego tomen esposas para sus hijos y den sus hijas a esposos. Que ellas den a luz hijos e hijas y crezcan allí para que no lleguen a ser muy pocos. 7 Procuren la paz de la ciudad a donde Yo los hice exiliar, e intercedan conmigo a nombre de ellos ya que habrá paz para ustedes si allí hay paz.' 8 Porque el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'No dejen que sus profetas quienes están entre ustedes y sus adivinos los engañen, y no escuchen a los sueños que ustedes mismos están teniendo. 9 Porque ellos les están profetizando engañosamente a ustedes en mi nombre. Yo no los envié. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.' 10 Pues el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Cuando Babilonia los haya gobernado por setenta años, Yo los ayudaré y llevaré a cabo Mi buena palabra a ustedes para traerles de vuelta a este lugar. 11 Pues Yo mismo conozco los planes que Yo tengo para ustedes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, planes para paz y no para desastre, para darte un futuro y esperanza. 12 Entonces me llamarán a Mí, e irán y orarán a Mí, y Yo les escucharé a ustedes. 13 Puesto que me buscarán y me encontrarán, ya que me buscarán con todo su corazón. 14 Entonces Yo seré hallado por ustedes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y Yo traeré de vuelta sus fortunas; Yo los recogeré a ustedes de todas las naciones y lugares donde Yo los esparcí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, puesto que Yo los traeré de vuelta al lugar de donde Yo los hice exiliar.' 15 Como ustedes dijeron que el SEÑOR ha levantado profetas para nosotros en Babilonia. 16 El SEÑOR dice esto al rey quien se sienta en el trono de David y a todo el pueblo que se está quedando en esa ciudad, sus hermanos quienes no han salido con ustedes a la cautividad. 17 El SEÑOR de ejércitos dice esto: 'Vean, Yo estoy a punto de enviar espada, hambre y enfermedades sobre ellos. Pues Yo los haré como higos dañados que están muy malos para ser comidos. 18 Entonces Yo los perseguiré a ellos con espada, hambre y plaga y les haré horrible a la vista de todos los reinos de la tierra, un horror, un objeto de maldiciones y silbidos, y una cosa vergonzosa entre todas las naciones donde Yo los esparcí. 19 Esto es porque ellos no escucharon mi palabra, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, que Yo envié a ellos a través de mis servidores los profetas. Yo los envié repetidamente, pero ustedes no escuchaban. Esta es la declaraión del SEÑOR.' 20 Así que ustedes mismos escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR, todos ustedes exhiliados a quien Él ha enviado de Jerusalén a Babilonia, 21 'El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto sobre Acab hijo de Colaías y Sedequías hijo de Maasías, quienes profetizan falsamente a ustedes en Mi nombre: Vean, Yo estoy a punto de ponerlos en las manos de Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia. Él los matará frente a sus ojos. 22 Entonces una maldición será hablada sobre estas personas por todos los cautivos de Judá en Babilonia. La maldición dirá: Que el SEÑOR te haga como a Sedequías y Acab, a quien el rey de Babilonia asó en el fuego. 23 Esto sucederá por las cosas vergonzosas que ellos hicieron en Israel cuando ellos cometieron adulterio con las esposas de sus vecinos y declararon palabras falsas en mi nombre, cosas que Yo nunca le mandé a decir. Porque Yo soy el que sé; Yo soy el testigo. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR'" 24 "Sobre Semaías el nehelamita dice esto: 25 'El Señor de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Porque tú has enviado cartas en tu propio nombre a todo el pueblo en Jerusalén, a Sofonías hijo de Maasías el sacerdote, y a todos los sacerdotes y dijiste: 26 "El SEÑOR te ha hecho sacerdote en vez de Joiada el sacerdote, para tú estar a cargo de la casa del SEÑOR. Tú estás en control de toda la gente que se levanta y se hace a sí mismos profetas. Tú debes ponerlos en cepos y cadenas. 27 Y ahora, ¿por qué no has reprendido a Jeremías de Anatot, quien se hace a sí mismo un profeta contra tí? 28 Porque él ha enviado a nosotros en Babilonia y dijo: 'Esto será por largo tiempo. Construyan casas y vivan en ellas, y planten jardines y coman su fruto."'" 29 Sofonías el sacerdote leyó esta carta a los oídos de Jeremías el profeta. 30 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías, diciendo: 31 "Envía palabra a todos los exiliados y di: 'El SEÑOR dice esto sobre Semaías de Nehelam: Porque Semaías ha profetizado a ustedes cuando Yo mismo no lo envié a él, y les ha conducido a creer mentiras, 32 por lo tanto el SEÑOR dice esto: Miren, Yo estoy a punto de castigar a Semaías de Nehelam y sus descendientes. No habrá un hombre para él que quede entre este pueblo. Él no verá el bien que Yo haré a mi pueblo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, porque él ha proclamado rebelión en contra del SEÑOR.'"

Chapter 30

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR, diciendo, 2 "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice, 'Escribe para tí en un rollo todas las palabras que Yo te he declarado en un rollo. 3 Pues mira, vienen días-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando Yo restaure las fortunas de mi pueblo, Israel y Judá. Yo, el SEÑOR, lo he dicho. Porque Los traeré de vuelta a la tierra que Le entregué a sus antepasados, y ellos la poseerán."' 4 Estas son las palabras que el SEÑOR declaró acerca de Israel y Judá, 5 "Pues el SEÑOR dice esto, 'Nosotros hemos escuchado una voz temblorosa de pavor y no de paz. 6 Pregunta y ve si un hombre da a luz a un niño. ¿Por qué Yo veo a todos los hombres jóvenes con sus manos en los lomos como una mujer que da a luz a un niño? ¿Por qué todas sus caras se han convertido pálidas? 7 ¡Ay! Pues ese día será grande, como ninguno. Será un tiempo de ansiedad para Jacob, pero él será rescatado de éste. 8 Pues será en aquel día-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos-- que Yo romperé el yugo de tu cuello, y destrozaré tus cadenas, así que los extranjeros ya no los esclavizarán. 9 Pero ellos adorarán al SEÑOR su Dios y servirán a David su rey, a quien Yo haré rey sobre ellos. 10 Así tú, mi siervo Jacob, no tengas miedo-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- y no te desalientes, Israel. Pues ve, Yo estoy a punto de traerte desde muy lejos, y a tus descendientes desde la tierra de tu cautividad. Jacob volverá y estará en paz; él estará seguro, y no habrá más terror. 11 Porque Yo estoy contigo-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- para salvarte. Luego Yo traeré el fin completo a todas las naciones en donde te dispersé. Pero ciertamente Yo no te pondré un fin, a tí aunque Te he disciplinado justamente y ciertamente no te he dejado sin castigo.' 12 Porque el SEÑOR dice esto, 'Tu lesión es incurable; tu herida está infectada. 13 No hay nadie que alegue tu caso; no hay remedio para que tu herida te cure. 14 Todos tus amantes se han olvidado de ti. Ellos no te van a buscarte; pues yo te he herido con la herida de un enemigo y la disciplina de un maestro cruel debido a tus muchas iniquidades y tus pecados innumerables. 15 ¿Por qué llamas por ayuda para tu lesión? Tu dolor es incurable. Debido a tus muchas iniquidades y tus pecados innummerables, Yo te he hecho estas cosas a tí. 16 Así que todo el mundo que te consuma será consumido, y todos tus adversarios serán llevados en cautividad. Pues los que te han saqueado serán saqueados, y Yo haré de todos los que te han despojado un despojo. 17 Pues Yo Te traeré sanidad; Yo sanaré tus heridas--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR-- Yo haré esto porque ellos te llamaron: marginado. A nadie le importa esta Sion."' 18 El SEÑOR dice esto, "Mira, Yo estoy a punto de traer de vuelta las fortunas de las tiendas de Jacob y tener compasión en sus casas. Entonces una ciudad será construida de un montón de ruinas, y una fortaleza volverá a existir nuevamente donde solía estar. 19 Entonces una canción de alabanza y un sonido de regocijo saldrá de ellos, porque Yo los aumentaré y no los disminuiré; Yo los voy a honrar para que ellos no sean humillados. 20 Entonces su pueblo será como era antes, y su asamblea será establecida delante de mí cuando Yo castigue a todos los que ahora los atormentan. 21 Su líder vendrá de en medio de ellos. Él surgirá entre ellos cuando Yo lo acerque y cuando él se acerque a mí. Si Yo no hago esto ¿Quién se atrevería a acercarse a mí? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 22 Entonces ustedes serán mi pueblo, y Yo seré su Dios. 23 Miren, la tempestad del SEÑOR, Su furia, ha salido. Es una tempestad continua. Ésta girará en las cabezas de las gentes malvadas. 24 La ira del SEÑOR no se volverá hasta que no cumpla y haga realidad las intenciones de Su corazón. En los días finales, ustedes lo entenderán."

Tu lesión es incurable ... para que tu herida te cure
Esto significa que el Señor los ha castigado con tanta severidad que no hay nadie que los ayude.

No hay nadie que defienda tu caso
"No hay nadie que me pida que les muestre misericordia"

Jeremiah 30:14

Información General:
El Señor le continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Todos tus amantes
El Señor decribe al pueblo de Israel como una esposa infiel que tiene otros amantes aparte de su esposo. Aquí "amantes" se refiere a otras naciones. Los israelitas se aliaron con ellos y terminaron adorando a sus dioses en lugar de poner su confianza en el Señor.

Ellos no van a buscarte
"Ellos ya no quieren ser más sus amigos"

yo te he herido con una herida de un enemigo
Esto quiere decir que el Señor ha tratado a su pueblo de la forma en la que trataría a sus enemigos.

¿Por qué llamas por ayuda para tu lesión?
El Señor les hizo una pregunta aquí para hacerles pensar por qué ahora le están pidiendo ayuda a Él. Traducción Alterna: "No pidan ayuda por su herida".

Chapter 31

1 "En aquel tiempo-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- Yo voy a ser el Dios de todas las familias de Israel, y ellos serán mi pueblo." 2 El SEÑOR dice esto: "El pueblo que ha sobrevivido la espada ha encontrado favor en el desierto; Yo saldré para dar descanso a Israel." 3 El SEÑOR se apareció a mí en el pasado y dijo, "Yo los he amado, Israel, con amor eterno. Entonces Yo los he traído hacia Mí con pacto de fidelidad. 4 Yo voy a reconstruirlos para que esten construídos, virgen de Israel. Ustedes recogerán nuevamente sus tamborines y saldrán con felices bailes. 5 Ustedes plantarán viñedos nuevamente en las montañas de Samaria; los granjeros plantarán y pondrán el fruto para un buen uso. 6 Pues un día llegará cuando los vigilantes en las montañas de Efraín proclamarán, 'Levantémonos, y vayamos a Sion al SEÑOR nuestro Dios.' 7 Porque El SEÑOR dice esto, "¡Griten de alegría por Jacob! ¡Griten con alegría por la gente principal de las naciones! Permitan que la alabanza sea escuchada. Di, 'El SEÑOR ha rescatado a su pueblo, el remanente de Israel.' 8 Miren, Yo estoy a punto de traerlos desde las tierras norteñas. Yo voy a reunirlos desde las partes más lejanas de la tierra. El ciego y cojo estarán entre ellos; la mujer embarazada y aquellas que estén a punto de parir estarán con ellos. Una gran asamblea volverá aquí. 9 Ellos vendrán llorando; Yo los dirigiré según ellos hacen sus ruegos. Yo les haré viajar a las corrientes de las aguas en un camino derecho. Ellos no tropezarán en ellas, pues Yo seré padre para Israel, y Efraín será mi primogénito." 10 " Escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR, naciones. Informen a lo largo de las costas en la distancia. Ustedes naciones deben decir, 'Aquel que dispersó a Israel la está reuniendo y manteniéndola como un pastor cuida a sus ovejas.' 11 Porque El SEÑOR rescató a Jacob y lo redimidió de la mano que era muy fuerte para Él. 12 Entonces ellos vendrán y se regocijarán en las alturas de Sion. Sus rostros van a resplandecer por la bondad del SEÑOR, sobre el maíz y el vino nuevo, sobre el aceite y los descendientes de sus rebaños y ganados. Pues sus vidas van a venir a ser como jardín regado, y ellos nunca más sentirán tristeza. 13 Entonces las vírgenes se regocijarán con baile, y los jóvenes y ancianos estarán juntos. Pues Yo voy a cambiar su lamento en celebración. Yo voy a tener compasión en ellos y les provocaré regocijo en vez de pesar. 14 Luego, Yo voy a saturar las vidas de los sacerdotes en abundancia. Mi pueblo se llenarán ellos mismos con mi bondad-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR. 15 El SEÑOR dice esto: "Una voz es escuhada en Rama, gemidos y llanto amargo. Ésta es Raquel que está llorando por sus hijos. Ella rehúsa ser confortada por ellos, pues ellos no viven más." 16 El SEÑOR dice esto, "Retengan su voz de gemir y sus ojos de las lágrimas; porque hay una recompensa por tu sufrimiento-- esto es declaración-- tus hijos regresarán de la tierra del enemigo. 17 Hay esperanza para tu futuro-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- tus descendientes van a regresar dentro de sus fronteras." 18 "Yo ciertamente he oído el lamento de Efraín, 'Tú me has castigado, y yo he sido castigado como un becerro sin entrenar. Traéme de vuelta y yo volveré, porque Tú eres SEÑOR Mi Dios. 19 Porque después que me volví a Ti, lo lamenté; después que me ejercité, Yo golpeé mi cadera. Yo fui avergonzado y humillado, porque yo concebí la culpa de mi juventud.' 20 ¿No es Efraín Mi precioso hijo? ¿No es él Mi querido, deleitoso hijo? Pues siempre que Yo hablo contra él, Yo ciertamente aún lo recuerdo en mi mente amorosa. De esta manera Mi corazón lo anhela. Yo ciertamente tendré compasión de él-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR." 21 Coloca rótulos en la calle para ti mismo. Prepara los postes de guía para ti mismo. Fija tu mente en el camino correcto, el camino que debes tomar. ¡Regresa, virgen Israel! Regresa a estas ciudades de ustedes. 22 ¿Hasta cuando vas a vacilar, incrédula niña? Porque El SEÑOR ha creado algo nuevo en la tierra-- una mujer rodea a un hombre fuerte. 23 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, dice esto, "Cuando Yo traiga de vuelta al pueblo a su tierra, ellos van a decir esto en las tierras de Judá y sus ciudades, 'Que El SEÑOR los bendiga, tu lugar justo donde Él vive, tu monte santo.' 24 Pues Judá y todas sus ciudades vivirán juntos allí, como granjeros y pastores con sus rebaños. 25 Pues Yo daré a los cansados agua para tomar y Yo saciaré a todos los que sufren de sed." 26 Después de esto Yo desperté, y entendí que mi sueño había sido refrescante. 27 "Mira, los días vienen-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando yo plantaré las casas de Israel y Judá con desciendentes de hombre y bestias. 28 En el pasado, Yo los mantuve bajo vigilancia para desarraigarlos y derribarlos, derrocarlos, destruirlos, y traerles daño. Pero en los días que vienen, Yo cuidaré de ellos, para poder construirlos y plantarlos-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR. 29 En aquellos días ninguno más dirá, ' Los Padres han comido uvas agrias, pero los dientes de los hijos están mellados.' 30 Porque cada hombre morirá en su propia iniquidad; todos los que coman uvas agrias, sus dientes estarán mellados. 31 ¡Mira, los días están llegando-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando Yo establezca un nuevo pacto con la casa de Israel y la casa de Judá. 32 Éste no será como un pacto que Yo establezco con otros padres en los días cuando Yo los tomé por sus manos y los traje fuera de la tierra de Egipto. Aquellos fueron los días cuando ellos rompieron el pacto, aunque Yo fui esposo para ellos-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR. 33 Pero este es el pacto que Yo voy a establecer con la casa de Israel después de estos días-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR: Yo colocaré Mi ley entre ellos y la voy a escribir en su corazón, porque Yo seré su Dios, y ellos serán Mi pueblo. 34 Entonces cada hombre no enseñará más a su vecino, o un hombre enseñará a su hermano y dirá, '¡Conoce al SEÑOR!' Pues todos ellos, desde el menor al mayor, sabrán de Mí-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- porque Yo voy a perdonar su iniquidad y no recordarán más su pecado." 35 El SEÑOR dice esto-- SEÑOR, El que hace que el sol brille en el día y coloca la luna y comienza a brillar por la noche. Él es el que prepara el mar en movimiento para que sus olas rujan. El SEÑOR de los ejércitos en su nombre. Él dice esto, 36 "Sólo si estas cosas permanentes desaparecieran de Mi vista-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- los descendientes de Israel nunca serán para siempre una nación ante Mí." 37 El SEÑOR dice esto, "Sólo si el cielo más alto pudiera ser medido, y sólo si la fundación de la tierra profunda pudiera ser descubierta, voy a rechazar todos los descendientes de Israel por todo lo que ellos han hecho-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR." 38 "Mira, los días vienen-- esto es declaración del SEÑOR-- cuando la ciudad será reconstruida por Mí, desde la Torre de Hananel hasta la Puerta del Ángulo. 39 Entonces la línea de medición saldrá otra vez más lejos, hasta la colina de Gareb y alrededor de Goa. 40 Todo el valle de cuerpos muertos y las cenizas, y todos los campos en terrazas van a salir al Valle de Cedrón tan lejos como la esquina de la Puerta de los Caballos en el este, serán separados para EL SEÑOR. Esta ciudad no será arrancada o derribada nuevamente, jamás."

sufrir, sufrimiento
Los términos "sufrir" y "sufrimiento" se refieren a cuando alguien experimenta algo muy desagradable, como una enfermedad, dolor u otras dificultades.

Cuando las personas son perseguidas o cuando se enferman, sufren. A veces las personas sufren por las cosas malas que han hecho; otras veces sufren por el pecado y la enfermedad en el mundo. El sufrimiento puede ser físico, como sentir dolor o enfermedad. También puede ser emocional, como sentir miedo, tristeza o soledad. La frase "padéceme" significa "tener paciencia conmigo" o "escucharme" o "escuchar pacientemente".

Sugerencias de Traducción

El término "sufrir" puede traducirse como "sentir dolor" o "soportar dificultades" o "experimentar dificultades" o "atravesar experiencias difíciles y dolorosas". Dependiendo del contexto, el "sufrimiento" podría traducirse como "circunstancias extremadamente difíciles" o "dificultades graves" o "momentos de experiencias dolorosas". La frase "sufrir de sed" podría traducirse como "experimentar sed" o "sufrir con sed". "Sufrir violencia" también podría traducirse como "sufrir violencia" o "ser dañado por actos violentos".

adversario, enemigo
Un "adversario" es una persona o un grupo que se opone a algo o a alguien. El término "enemigo" tiene un significado similar. Un adversario puede ser una persona que trata de oponerse o hacerle daño. Una nación se puede llamar un "adversario" cuando lucha en contra de otra nación. En la Biblia, se conoce al diablo como un "adversario" y un "enemigo". "Adversario" puede traducirse como "oponente" o "enemigo", pero sugiere una forma más fuerte de oposición. También ver: Satan, devil, evil one

esperanza
El término "esperanza" se refiere a esperar y desear fuertemente que algo suceda. También puede significar no estar seguro de que sucederá. En la Biblia, el término "esperanza" también tiene el significado de "confianza" como en "mi esperanza está en el Señor". Se refiere a una expectativa segura de recibir lo que Dios le ha prometido a su pueblo. A veces, la ULB traduce el término "esperanza" como "confianza", especialmente en el Nuevo Testamento en contextos que se refieren a la seguridad de recibir lo que Dios ha prometido a las personas que creen en Jesús como su Salvador. *Tener "ninguna esperanza" significa no tener ninguna expectativa de que algo bueno suceda. Significa de que en realidad es muy seguro que no sucederá.

Sugerencias de traducción

En algunos contextos, el término "esperar" también puede ser traducido como "desear" o "esperar". La expresión "no hay nada por qué esperar" podría traducirse como "no hay nada en qué confiar" o "ninguna expectativa de algo bueno". "No tener esperanza" se podría traducir como "no tener ninguna expectativa de algo bueno" o "no tener seguridad" o "estar seguro de que nada bueno sucederá". La expresión "ha puesto sus esperanzas en" también se puede traducir como "ha puesto su confianza en" o "ha estado confiando en". La frase "encuentro esperanza en tu Palabra" también podría traducirse como "confío en que tu Palabra es verdadera" o "tu Palabra me ayuda a confiar en ti" o "cuando obedezco tu Palabra, estoy seguro de que seré bendecido. " Frases como "esperanza en Dios" también podría traducirse como "confianza en Dios" o "saber con seguridad de que Dios hará lo que ha prometido" o "estar seguro de que Dios es fiel".

antepasado, padre, antepasado
Cuando se usa literalmente, el término "padre" se refiere al padre masculino de una persona. También hay varios usos figurativos de este término. Los términos "padre" y "antepasado" se usan a menudo para referirse a los antepasados de una determinada persona o grupo de personas. Esto también podría traducirse como "ancestro" o "padre ancestral". La expresión "el padre de" puede referirse figurativamente a una persona que es el líder de un grupo de personas relacionadas o a la fuente de algo. Por ejemplo, en Génesis 4, "el padre de todos los que viven en tiendas" podría significar "el primer líder de clan de las primeras personas que han vivido en tiendas de campaña". *El apóstol Pablo figurativamente se llamó a sí mismo el "padre" de aquellos a quienes había ayudado a convertirse en cristianos al compartir el evangelio con ellos.

Sugerencias de traducción

Cuando se habla de un padre y su hijo de forma literal, esta palabra debe traducirse utilizando el término para referirse a "padre" en su idioma. "Dios el Padre" también debe traducirse usando la palabra común para "padre". Al referirse a los antepasados, este término puede traducirse como "antepasado" o "padre ancestral". Cuando Pablo se refiere a sí mismo figurativamente como el padre de los creyentes en Cristo, esto podría traducirse como "padre espiritual" o "padre en Cristo". *A veces la palabra "padre" se puede traducir como "líder del clan". La frase "padre de todas las mentiras" podría traducirse como "fuente de todas las mentiras" o "de quien provienen todas las mentiras".

uva
Una uva es una baya pequeña, redonda y de piel suave que crece en racimos en vides. El jugo de la uva se utiliza en la elaboración del vino. Existen diferentes colores de uva, como la uva verde clara, púrpura o roja. Las uvas individuales pueden tener aproximadamente de uno a tres centímetros de tamaño. La gente cultiva uvas en jardines llamados viñedos. Estos normalmente consisten en largas filas de vides. Las uvas eran un alimento muy importante durante los tiempos bíblicos y tener viñedos era un signo de riqueza. Para evitar que las uvas se pudran, las personas a menudo las secaban. Las uvas secas se llaman "pasas" y se utilizaron para hacer pasteles de pasas. Jesús contó una parábola sobre un viñedo de uvas para enseñar a sus discípulos acerca del reino de Dios.

muerte, morir, muerto
Este término se usa para referirse tanto a la muerte física como a la espiritual. Físicamente, se refiere cuando el cuerpo físico de una persona deja de vivir. Espiritualmente, se refiere a que los pecadores están separados de un Dios santo debido a su pecado.

Sugerencias de traducción

Para traducir este término, es mejor utilizar la palabra o expresión cotidiana que se refiere a la muerte en el idioma de destino. En algunos idiomas, "morir" puede expresarse como "no vivir". El término "muerto" puede traducirse como "no vive" o "no tiene vida" o "no vivir". Muchos idiomas usan expresiones figurativas para describir la muerte, como "fallecer" en inglés. Sin embargo, en la Biblia es mejor usar el término más directo para la muerte que se usa en el lenguaje cotidiano. En la Biblia, la vida y la muerte física se comparan a menudo con la vida espiritual y la muerte. Es importante en una traducción usar la misma palabra o frase tanto para la muerte física como para la muerte espiritual. En algunos idiomas puede ser más claro decir "muerte espiritual" cuando el contexto requiere ese significado. Algunos traductores también sienten que es mejor decir "muerte física" en contextos donde se contrasta con la muerte espiritual. La expresión "los muertos" es un adjetivo nominal que se refiere a las personas que han muerto. Algunos idiomas lo traducirán como "personas muertas" o "personas que han muerto".

iniquidad
El término "iniquidad" es una palabra que tiene un significado muy similar al término "pecado", pero puede referirse más específicamente a los actos conscientes de maldad o gran maldad. La palabra "iniquidad" significa literalmente la distorsión de la ley. Se refiere a una injusticia mayor. La iniquidad podría describirse como acciones deliberadas y dañinas contra otras personas. *Otras definiciones de iniquidad incluyen "perversidad" y "depravación", que son palabras que describen condiciones de pecado terrible.

Sugerencias de traducción

El término "iniquidad" puede ser traducido como "maldad" o "acciones perversas" o "actos perjudiciales". A menudo, la "iniquidad" aparece en el mismo texto que la palabra "pecado" y "transgresión", por lo que es importante tener diferentes formas de traducir estos términos.

Señor
El término "Señor" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando le habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. El nombre "Señor" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". Los posibles significados de "Señor" incluyen, "Él es" o "Yo soy" o "El que es". Este nombre revela que Dios ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "El SEÑOR". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre del Señor y de esta manera comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "SEÑOR" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Señor", tal como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Señor" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento.

Sugerencias de traducción

"Señor" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "Yo Soy" o "Uno que Vive" o "El que Es" o "El que está Vivo". Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a como se deletrea "Señor". *Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Señor" y en su lugar usan la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "Señor" como nombre.

Señor de los ejércitos, Dios de los ejércitos, ejércitos
Los términos "Señor de los ejércitos" y "Dios de los ejércitos" son títulos que expresan la autoridad de Dios sobre los miles de ángeles que lo obedecen. El término "ejército" o "ejércitos" es una palabra que se refiere a un gran número de algo, como un ejército de personas o el gran número de estrellas. También puede referirse a los muchos seres espirituales, incluídos los espíritus malignos. El contexto deja en claro a qué se refiere. Las frases similares a "el ejército de los cielos" se refieren a todas las estrellas, planetas y otros cuerpos celestes. *En el Nuevo Testamento, la frase "Señor de los ejércitos" significa lo mismo que "Señor de los ejércitos", pero no se puede traducir de esa manera ya que la palabra hebrea "Señor" no se usa en el Nuevo Testamento.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "Señor de los ejércitos" podrían incluir: "Señor que gobierna a todos los ángeles" o "Señor, el gobernante sobre los ejércitos de ángeles" o "El Señor que gobierna sobre toda la creación". La frase "de los ejércitos" en los términos "Dios de los ejércitos" y "Señor de los ejércitos" se traduciría de la misma manera que en la frase anterior: "Señor de los ejércitos". *Ciertas iglesias no aceptan el término literal "Señor" y prefieren usar la palabra en mayúscula "SEÑOR" en su lugar, siguiendo la tradición de muchas versiones de la Biblia. Para estas iglesias, una traducción del término "SEÑOR de los ejércitos" se usaría en el Antiguo Testamento para "Señor de los ejércitos".

nombre
En la Biblia, la palabra "nombre" se usa de varias maneras figurativas. En algunos contextos, "nombre" puede referirse a la reputación de una persona, como en "hagamos un nombre para nosotros mismos". El término "nombre" también puede referirse a la memoria de algo. Por ejemplo, "cortar los nombres de los ídolos" que significa destruir esos ídolos para que ya no sean recordados o adorados. Hablar "en el nombre de Dios" significa hablar con su poder y autoridad o como su representante. El "nombre" de alguien puede referirse a toda la persona como en "no hay otro nombre debajo el cielo en el cual podemos ser salvos".

Sugerencias de traducción

Una expresión como "su buen nombre" puede ser traducido como "su buena reputación". Hacer algo "en el nombre de" podría traducirse como "con la autoridad de" o "con el permiso de" o "como el representante de" esa persona. La expresión "crear un nombre para nosotros mismos" podría traducirse, "hacer que muchas personas sepan de nosotros" o "hacer que la gente piense que somos muy importantes". La expresión "llamen a su nombre" podría traducirse como "nómbrenlo" o "dale nombre". La expresión "aquellos que aman tu nombre" podría traducirse como "aquellos que te aman". La expresión "cortar los nombres de los ídolos" se podría traducir como "deshacerse de los ídolos paganos para que ni siquiera se recuerden" o "hacer que las personas dejen de adorar a los dioses falsos" o "destruír por completo a todos los ídolos para que las personas ya no puedan incluso pensar en ellos ".

Israel, Israelitas, nación de Israel
El término "Israel" es el nombre que Dios le dio a Jacob. Significa, "él lucha con Dios". Los descendientes de Jacob fueron conocidos como el "pueblo de Israel", la "nación de Israel" o los "israelitas". Dios formó su pacto con el pueblo de Israel. Israel era su pueblo elegido. La nación de Israel estaba formada por doce tribus. Poco después de la muerte del rey Salomón, Israel se dividió en dos reinos: el reino del sur, llamado "Judá" y el reino del norte, llamado "Israel". *A menudo, el término "Israel" se puede traducir como "el pueblo de Israel" o "la nación de Israel" según el contexto.

para siempre
En la Biblia, el término "para siempre" se refiere al tiempo que no termina. A veces se usa figurativamente para expresar "un tiempo muy largo". El término "por siempre jamás" enfatiza que algo siempre existirá. La frase "por siempre jamás" es una forma de expresar lo que es la eternidad o la vida eterna. También da la idea de un tiempo que nunca termina. *Dios dijo que el trono de David duraría "para siempre". Esto se refiere al hecho de que el descendiente de David, Jesús, reinará como rey para siempre.

Sugerencias de traducción

Este término también podría traducirse por "siempre" o "que no termina nunca". La frase "durará para siempre" también podría traducirse como "siempre existe" o "nunca se detendrá" o "siempre continuará". La frase enfática, "por siempre y para siempre" también podría traducirse como, "para siempre y siempre" o "sin fin" o "que nunca, nunca termina". El trono de David que dura para siempre podría traducirse como "el reinado de David durará para siempre" o "un descendiente mío siempre reinará".

nación
Una nación es un grupo grande de personas gobernadas por alguna forma de gobierno. Las personas de una nación tienen a menudo los mismos antepasados y tienen una etnia en común. El término "nación" generalmente incluye la idea de una cultura bien definida y con límites territoriales. En la Biblia, una "nación" puede ser un país (como Egipto o Etiopía), pero a menudo es más general y se refiere a un grupo de personas, especialmente cuando se usa en plural. Es importante verificar el contexto. Las naciones en la Biblia incluían a los israelitas, los filisteos, los asirios, los babilonios, los cananeos, los romanos y los griegos, entre muchos otros. A veces, la palabra "nación" se usa figurativamente para referirse al antepasado de cierto grupo de personas, como cuando Dios le dijo a Rebeca que sus hijos, los cuales todavía no habían nacido, eran "naciones" que pelearían entre sí. Esto podría traducirse como "los fundadores de dos naciones" o los "ancestros de dos grupos de personas". *La palabra traducida como "nación" también se usa a veces para referirse a "gentiles" o a personas que no adoran al Señor. El contexto suele dejar claro el significado.

Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, la palabra "nación" también podría traducirse como "grupo de personas" o "personas" o "país". Si un idioma tiene un término para "nación" que es distinto de estos otros términos, entonces ese término se puede usar dondequiera que aparezca en el texto de la Biblia, siempre y cuando sea natural y preciso en cada contexto. El término plural "naciones" a menudo se puede traducir como "grupos de personas". En ciertos contextos, este término también podría traducirse como "gentiles" o "no judíos".

Chapter 32

1 La palabra vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR en el año diez de Sedequías, rey de Judá, en el año dieciocho de Nabucodonosor. 2 En aquel tiempo, el ejército del rey de Babilonia estaba sitiando Jerusalén, y Jeremías el profeta estaba encarcelado en el patio de la guardia en la casa del rey de Judá. 3 Sedequías, rey de Judá, lo había encarcelado y dijo: "¿Por qué profetizas y dices: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Mira, estoy a punto de entregar esta ciudad en la mano del rey de Babilonia, y él la capturará. 4 Sedequías, rey de Judá, no escapará de la mano de los caldeos, pues él ciertamente será entregado en la mano del rey de Babilonia. Su boca le hablará a la boca del rey, y sus ojos verán los ojos del rey. 5 Él llevará a Sedequías a Babilonia, y él se quedará allí hasta que Yo haya cerrado el trato con él--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. Aunque tú pelees contra los caldeos, tú no tendrás éxito.'" 6 Jeremías dijo: "La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 7 'Mira, Hanamel, hijo de Salum, tu tío vendrá a ti y dirá: "Compra mi campo que está en Ananot para tí mismo, pues el derecho de comprarlo te pertenece a ti."'" 8 Entonces, como el SEÑOR había declarado, Hanamel, el hijo de mi tío, vino a mí en el patio de la guardia, y él me dijo: 'Compra mi campo que está en Ananot, en la tierra de Benjamín, pues el derecho de la herencia es tuyo, y el derecho de comprarlo te pertenece. Cómpralo para tí mismo.' Entonces supe que esta era la palabra del SEÑOR. 9 Así que compré el campo de Ananot de Hanamel, el hijo de mi tío, y le pesé la plata, diecisiete siclos en peso. 10 Entonces, yo escribí en un rollo y lo sellé, y tuve un testigo presenciándolo. Entonces, yo pesé la plata en las balanzas. 11 Luego, tomé el título de compra que estaba sellado, siguiendo la órden y los estatutos, igual que el título sellado. 12 Yo dí el rollo sellado a Baruc, hijo de Nerías, hijo de Maasías, al frente de Hanamel, el hijo de mi tío, y el testigo que había escrito en el rollo sellado, y en frente de todos los judíos que se sentaban en el patio de la guardia. 13 Así que dí una órden a Baruc ante ellos. Yo dije: 14 'El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Toma estos documentos, tanto el recibo de compra que está sellado y las copias sin sello del título de compra, y pónlos en una jarra de barro para que duren por mucho tiempo. 15 Pues el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Casas, campos, y viñedos serán otra vez comprados en esta tierra." 16 Luego que yo di el recibo de compra a Baruc, hijo de Nerías, oré al SEÑOR y dije: 17 '¡Ay, SEÑOR DIOS! ¡Mira! Solo Tú has hecho los cielos y la tierra con Tu gran fuerza y con Tu brazo alzado. Nada que Tú digas es demasiado díficil para Tí hacerlo. 18 Tú muestras fidelidad al pacto a miles y derramas la culpa de los hombres en los regazos de sus niños después de ellos. Tú eres el gran y poderoso Dios; SEÑOR de los ejércitos es Tu nombre. 19 Tú eres grande en sabiduría y poderoso en obras, pues Tus ojos están abiertos a todos los caminos de la gente, para darle a cada hombre lo que su conducta y hechos merece. 20 Tú hiciste señales y maravillas en la tierra de Egipto. Hasta este día presente aquí en Israel y entre toda la humanidad, Tú has hecho tu nombre famoso. 21 Pues Tú trajiste a Tu pueblo de Israel fuera de la tierra de Egipto con señales y maravillas, con una mano fuerte, y con un brazo alzado, y con gran terror. 22 Entonces, les diste esta tierra--la cual Tú habías jurado a sus ancestros que les daría a ellos--una tierra que fluye con leche y miel. 23 Así ellos entraron y tomaron posesión de ella. Pero ellos no obedecieron Tu voz, ni vivieron en obediencia a Tu Ley. Ellos no hicieron nada de lo que Les ordenaste hacer, así que trajiste todo este desastre sobre ellos. 24 ¡Mira! Los montículos de asedio han llegado hasta la ciudad para capturarla. Pues, a causa de la espada, la hambruna y la plaga, la cuidad ha sido entregada en la mano de los caldeos, quienes están luchando contra ella. Pues lo que dijiste que iba a pasar, está pasando, y, mira, Tú estás observando. 25 Entonces, Tú mismo me dijiste: "Compra un campo para ti mismo con plata y ten un testigo presenciándolo, aunque está ciudad esté siendo entregada en las manos de los caldeos."'" 26 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías, diciendo: 27 "¡Mira! Yo soy el SEÑOR, Dios de toda la humanidad. ¿Hay algo muy díficil para Mí hacer? 28 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Mira, estoy a punto de entregar esta ciudad en las manos de los caldeos y Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia. Él la capturará. 29 Los caldeos que están luchando en contra de esta ciudad vendrán y le prenderán fuego a esta ciudad y la quemarán, junto con las casas en los techos donde la gente adoraba a Baal y derramaban ofrendas de bebida a otros dioses con el fin de provocarme. 30 Ya que ciertamente la gente de Israel y Judá han sido malignos ante mis ojos desde su juventud. La gente de Israel ciertamente Me ha ofendido con las prácticas de sus manos-- esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 31 El SEÑOR declara que esta ciudad ha sido una provocación para Mi ira y furia desde el día que ellos la construyeron. Ha sido eso precisamente hasta este día presente. Así que Yo la removeré de Mi rostro 32 por toda la maldad de la gente de Israel y Judá, las cosas que ellos han hecho para provocarme --ellos, sus reyes, príncipes, sacerdotes, profetas, y cada persona en Judá y los habitantes de Jerusalén. 33 Ellos me volvieron sus espaldas a mí en vez de sus rostros, aunque Yo les enseñé ávidamente. Yo traté de enseñarles, pero ninguno de ellos escuchó a fin de recibir corrección. 34 Ellos pusieron sus abominables ídolos en la casa que es llamada por Mi nombre, para contaminarla. 35

Ellos construyeron lugares altos para Baal en el valle de Ben Hinom para poner a sus hijos e hijas en el fuego para Moloc. Yo no le ordené a ellos. Nunca pasó por Mi mente que ellos debieran hacer esta cosa detestable y hacer que Judá pecara.' 36 Ahora, por lo tanto, Yo, el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, digo esto en cuanto a esta ciudad, la ciudad sobre la que ustedes están diciendo: 'Es entregada en la mano del rey de Babilonia por la espada, la hambruna o la plaga.' 37 Miren, Yo estoy a punto de reunirlos a ellos desde toda tierra a donde los he llevado en Mi ira, furia y gran enojo. Estoy a punto de traerlos de vuelta a este lugar y permitirles vivir en seguridad. 38 Entonces, ellos serán Mi pueblo, y Yo seré su Dios. 39 Yo les daré un corazón y un camino para honrarme todos los días, para que sea bueno para ellos y sus descendientes después de ellos. 40 Entonces, Yo Haré con ellos un pacto eterno, que no rechazaré el hacerles bien. Yo pondré honor por Mí en sus corazones, para que ellos nunca se alejen de Mí. 41 Entonces, Me alegraré en hacerles bien a ellos. Yo fielmente los plantaré en esta tierra con todo Mi corazón y toda Mi vida. 42 Pues, el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Tal como he traído todo este gran desastre en esta gente, también traeré sobre ellos todas las cosas buenas que Yo he dicho que haré por ellos. 43 Entonces, campos serán comprados en esta tierra, sobre de las cuales ustedes dicen: "Esta es una tierra arruinada, la cual no tiene hombre ni bestia. Ésta ha sido entregada a la tierra de los caldeos." 44 Ellos comprarán campos con plata y escribirán en rollos sellados. Ellos reunirán testigos en la tierra de Benjamín, alrededor de todo Jerusalén y las cuidades de Judá, en las ciudades en la colina del país y en las llanuras, y en las ciudades de Neguev. Pues Yo traeré de regreso sus fortunas--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.'"

Chapter 33

1 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías por segunda vez, mientras él todavía estaba encerrado en el patio del guardia, diciendo: 2 "El SEÑOR Creador, dice esto, el SEÑOR, quien forma a fin de establecer- el SEÑOR es Su nombre: 3 'Llámame, y Yo te responderé. Te demostraré cosas grandes, misterios que no entiendes.' 4 Pues el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice esto acerca de las casas en esta ciudad y las casas de los reyes de Judá que están destruidas a causa de las rampas de asedio y la espada: 5 'Los caldeos vienen a pelear y a llenar las casas con cadáveres de las gentes a quienes Yo mataré en Mi ira y furia, cuando Yo esconda Mi rostro de esta ciudad a causa de toda su maldad. 6 Pero mira, Yo estoy por traer sanidad y una cura, pues Yo los sanaré y les traeré abundancia, paz y fidelidad. 7 Pues les traeré las fortunas de Judá e Israel; los edificaré como al principio. 8 Entonces Yo los purificaré de toda la iniquidad que han cometido contra Mí. Yo perdonaré todas las iniquidades que han cometido contra Mí, y todas las maneras en las que se han rebelado. 9 Pues esta ciudad será un objeto de gozo, una canción de alabanza y honor a todas las naciones de la Tierra quienes oirán de las cosas buenas que Yo haré para ella. Entonces ellos temerán y temblarán por todas las cosas buenas y la paz que Yo le daré.' 10 El SEÑOR dice esto: 'En este lugar que ustedes ahora dicen: "Está desolado, un lugar sin hombre ni bestia," en las ciudades de Judá, y en las calles de Jerusalén que están desoladas sin tener hombre ni bestia, se oirá otra vez 11 el sonido de gozo, el sonido de alegría, el sonido del novio y la desposada, el sonido de aquellos que dicen, mientras traen ofrendas de gratitud a la casa del SEÑOR: "¡Den gracias al SEÑOR de los ejércitos, pues el SEÑOR es bueno, y su amor que no falla dura para siempre!" Pues Yo restauraré las fortunas de la tierra a lo que eran antes,' dice el SEÑOR. 12 El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: 'En este lugar desierto, donde ahora no hay hombre ni bestia- en todas estas ciudades habrá pastos de nuevo para que los pastores puedan descansar sus rebaños. 13 En las ciudades de las colinas, las llanuras, y en el Neguev, en la tierra de Benjamín y todo alrededor de Jerusalén, en todas las ciudades de Judá, los rebaños pasarán bajo las manos de aquellos quienes las cuentan,' dice el SEÑOR. 14 '¡Miren! Días vienen- esta es la declración del SEÑOR- cuando Yo voy a hacer lo que prometí a la casa de Israel y a la casa de Judá. 15 En aquellos días y en aquel tiempo Yo haré que el ramo justo crezca para David, y él llevará la justicia y honradez en la tierra. 16 En aquellos días Judá será salvada y Jerusalén vivirá en seguridad, pues esto será lo que ella llame: "El SEÑOR es nuestra honra.'" 17 Pues el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Un hombre de la línea de David nunca faltará de sentarse en el trono en la casa de Israel, 18 ni un hombre de los sacerdotes levitas faltará ante Mí para levantar ofrendas quemadas, para quemar ofrendas de comida, y para realizar ofrendas de granos todo el tiempo.'" 19 La palabra del SEÑOR vino Jeremías, diciendo: 20 "El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Si tú puedes romper Mi pacto con día y noche para que no haya días ni noches a sus propios tiempos, 21 entonces podrás romper Mi pacto con David, Mi siervo, para que él no tenga un hijo que se sienta en su trono, y Mi pacto con los sacerdotes levitas, mis siervos. 22 Como los ejércitos del cielo no pueden ser contados, y como la arena de la orilla del mar no puede ser medida, así voy a aumentar los descendientes de David, Mi siervo, y a los levitas quienes sirven delante de mí.'" 23 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremias, diciendo: 24 "¿No has considerado lo que este pueblo ha declarado cuando dicen: 'Las dos familias que el SEÑOR eligió, ¿ahora las ha rechazado?' De esta forma ellos detestan a Mi pueblo, diciendo que ya no son una nación a su vista. 25 Yo, el SEÑOR, digo esto: 'Si Yo no he establecido el pacto en día y noche, y si no he arreglado las leyes de los cielos y la Tierra, 26 entonces Yo hubiera rechazado a los descendientes de Jacob y David, Mi siervo, y no traeré una persona de ellos que gobierne a los descendientes de Abraham, Isaac y Jacob. Pues Yo restauraré sus fortunas y les mostraré misericordia.'"

tierra, terrenal
El término "tierra" se refiere al mundo en el que viven los seres humanos, junto con todas las demás formas de vida.

"Tierra" también puede referirse al suelo o suelo que cubre la tierra. Este término se usa a menudo con sentido figurado para referirse a las personas que viven en la tierra. Las expresiones "que la tierra se alegre" y "juzgará a la tierra" son ejemplos de usos figurativos de este término. El término "terrenal" generalmente se refiere a las cosas físicas en contraste con las cosas espirituales.

Sugerencias de traducción

Este término puede traducirse en la palabra o frase que el idioma local o las lenguas nacionales cercanas utilizan para referirse al planeta tierra en el que vivimos. Dependiendo del contexto, "tierra" también podría traducirse como "mundo", "tierra" o "suelo". Cuando se usa figurativamente, "tierra" podría traducirse como "gente en la tierra", "gente que vive en la tierra" o "todo en la tierra". Las formas de traducir "terrenal" podrían incluír: "físico", "cosas de esta tierra" o "visible".

Jacob, Israel
Jacob era el hijo mellizo más joven de Isaac y Rebeca.

El nombre de Jacob significa "él agarra el talón", lo cual quiere decir que "engaña". Cuando Jacob estaba naciendo, él se aferraba al talón de su hermano gemelo Esaú. Muchos años después, Dios le cambió el nombre a Jacob por "Israel", que significa "él lucha con Dios". Jacob fue listo y engañador. Encontró formas de obtener la bendición del primogénito y los derechos de herencia de su hermano mayor, Esaú. Esaú estaba enojado y planeaba matarlo, así que Jacob dejó su tierra natal. Pero años después, Jacob regresó con sus esposas e hijos a la tierra de Canaán, donde vivía Esaú, y sus familias vivieron cerca unas de otras y también pacíficamente. Jacob tuvo doce hijos. Sus descendientes se convirtieron en las doce tribus de Israel. Un hombre diferente que también se llamaba Jacob, aparece como el padre de José en la genealogía de Mateo.

David

David fue el segundo rey de Israel, quien amó y sirvió a Dios. Fue el principal escritor del libro de los Salmos.

Cuando David aún era un niño que cuidaba las ovejas de su familia, Dios lo eligió para convertirse en el próximo rey de Israel. David se convirtió en un gran luchador y lideró al ejército israelita en batallas contra sus enemigos. Su victoria sobre Goliat, el filisteo, es bien conocida. El rey Saúl intentó matar a David, pero Dios lo protegió y lo convirtió en rey después de la muerte de Saúl. David cometió un pecado terrible, pero se arrepintió y Dios lo perdonó. *Jesús, el Mesías, se llama el "Hijo de David" porque es un descendiente del rey David.

Abraham, Abram

Abram era un hombre caldeo de la ciudad de Ur que fue escogido por Dios para ser el antepasado de los israelitas. Dios cambió su nombre a "Abraham".

El nombre "Abram" significa "padre exaltado" "Abraham" significa "padre de muchos". Dios le prometió a Abraham que tendría muchos descendientes, los cuales se convertirían en una gran nación. Abraham le creyó a Dios y le obedeció. Dios llevó a Abraham a mudarse de Caldea a la tierra de Canaán. *Mientras vivían en la tierra de Canaán, cuando eran muy viejos, Abraham y su esposa Sara tuvieron un hijo, Isaac.

Isaac

Isaac fue el único hijo de Abraham y Sara. Dios había prometido darles un hijo a pesar de que eran muy viejos.

El nombre "Isaac" significa "se ríe". Cuando Dios le dijo a Abraham que Sara daría a luz a un hijo, Abraham se echó a reír porque ambos eran muy viejos. Algún tiempo después, Sarah también se rió cuando escuchó esta noticia. Pero Dios cumplió su promesa e Isaac nació de Abraham y Sara en su vejez. Dios le dijo a Abraham que el pacto que él había hecho con Abraham también sería para Isaac y sus descendientes para siempre. Cuando Isaac era un joven, Dios probó la fe de Abraham al ordenarle que sacrificara a Isaac. *El hijo de Isaac, Jacob, tuvo doce hijos, cuyos descendientes más tarde se convirtieron en las doce tribus de la nación de Israel.

compasión, compasivo

El término "compasión" se refiere a un sentimiento de preocupación por las personas, especialmente por aquellos que están sufriendo. Una persona "compasiva" se preocupa por otras personas y las ayuda.

La palabra "compasión" por lo general incluye preocuparse por las personas necesitadas, así como tomar medidas para ayudarlos. La Biblia dice que Dios es compasivo, es decir, está lleno de amor y misericordia. *En la carta de Pablo a los Colosenses, él les dice que "se vistan de compasión". Él les está instruyendo a que se preocupen por las personas y que ayuden activamente a otros que lo necesiten.

Sugerencias de traducción

El significado literal de "compasión" es "entrañas de misericordia". Esta es una expresión que significa "misericordia" o "compasión". Otros idiomas pueden tener su propia expresión que significa esto. Las formas de traducir "compasión" podrían incluír "un cuidado profundo" o "misericordia útil". *El término "compasivo" también podría traducirse como "cuidado y ayuda" o "profundamente amoroso y misericordioso".

Chapter 34

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR, cuando Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, y todo su ejército, junto con todos los reinos de la tierra, los dominios bajo su poder, y toda su gente estaban en guerra contra Jerusalén y todas sus ciudades, diciendo: 2 'El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Vayan y hablen con Sedequías, rey de Judá, y díganle: "El SEÑOR dice esto: Miren, Yo estoy a punto de entregar esta ciudad a la mano del rey de Babilonia. Él la quemará. 3 Ustedes no escaparán de su mano, pues ustedes ciertamente serán detenidos y entregados en su mano. Sus ojos mirarán a los ojos del rey de Babilonia; él les hablará directamente a ustedes mientras ustedes van hacia Babilonia.' 4 ¡Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR, Sedequías, rey de Judá! El SEÑOR dice esto en relación a ti: 'Tú no morirás por la espada. 5 Tú morirás en paz. Así como quemaron los cadáveres de tus ancestros, los reyes que estaban antes que tú, ellos quemarán tu cuerpo. Ellos dirán: "¡Ay, maestro!" Ellos te lamentarán. Ahora Yo he hablado - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 6 Así Jeremías el profeta proclamó a Sedequías, rey de Judá, todas estas palabras en Jerusalén. 7 El ejército del rey de Babilonia hizo guerra contra Jerusalén y todas las ciudades que quedaron de Judá: Laquis y Azeca. Estas ciudades de Judá quedaron como ciudades fortificadas. 8 La palabra que vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR luego de que el Rey Sedequías hiciera un pacto con todo el pueblo de Jerusalén, para proclamar la libertad a ellos, 9 que cada hombre deberá liberar a sus esclavos hebreos, ambos hombre y mujer, para que ninguno haga de un judío un esclavo, que era su hermano. 10 Así que todos los líderes y personas entraron al pacto de que cada persona liberaría sus esclavos, hombres y mujeres, para que no estuvieran esclavizados más. Ellos obedecieron y los liberaron. 11 Pero luego de esto cambiaron de opinión. Ellos volvieron a traer a los esclavos que habían liberado. Ellos los forzaron a ser esclavos otra vez. 12 Así que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías, diciendo: 13 "El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Yo mismo hice un pacto con sus ancestros en el día que los saqué de la tierra de Egipto, fuera de la casa de la esclavitud. Ahí fue cuando dije: 14 "Al final de cada siete años, cada hombre deberá enviar fuera a su hermano, su compañero hebreo que se había vendido a sí mismo a ustedes y les sirvió por seis años. Envíalo fuera en libertad." Pero sus ancestros no me escucharon ni inclinaron sus oídos hacia Mí. 15 Ahora ustedes mismos se arrepintieron y comenzaron a hacer lo que es justo a Mis ojos. Ustedes proclamaron libertad, cada hombre a su vecino, e hicieron un pacto ante Mí en la casa que es llamada por Mi nombre. 16 Pero entonces se alejaron y contaminaron Mi nombre; ustedes causaron que cada hombre volviera a traer a sus esclavos hombres y mujeres, a quienes habían enviado a salir a donde ellos desearan. Ustedes los forzaron a que fueran esclavos otra vez.' 17 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: 'Ustedes mismos no Me han escuchado. Ustedes debieron haber proclamado la libertad, cada uno de ustedes, a sus hermanos y compañeros israelitas. ¡Asi que miren! Estoy a punto de proclamarles la libertad - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR- libertad para la espada, la plaga, y hambruna, pues Yo voy a hacerles una cosa horrible a la vista de cada reino en la tierra. 18 Entonces Yo me encargaré de las personas que han roto Mi pacto, que no guardaron las palabras del pacto que ellos establecieron ante Mí cuando cortaron a un toro en dos y caminaron entre sus partes, 19 y entonces los líderes de Judá y Jerusalén, los eunucos y los sacerdotes, y todo el pueblo de la tierra caminó entre las partes del toro. 20 Yo los entregaré en la mano de sus enemigos y en la mano de aquellos que buscan sus vidas. Sus cuerpos serán alimento para las aves de los cielos y las bestias de la tierra. 21 Así que Yo entregaré a Sedequías, rey de Judá, y a sus líderes a la mano de sus enemigos y a la mano de aquellos que buscan sus vidas, y a la mano del ejército del rey de Babilonia que se ha levantado en contra de ustedes. 22 Miren, estoy a punto de dar este orden - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - y Yo los devolveré a esta ciudad para hacer la guerra contra ella y la tomen, y la quemen. Pues Yo convertiré a las ciudades de Judá en lugares arruinados en donde no habrá habitantes.'"

obedecer, obediente, obediencia
El término "obedecer" significa hacer lo que se requiere o lo que se manda. El término "obediente" describe el carácter de alguien que obedece. A veces lo que se pide se refiere a no hacer algo, como por ejemplo "no robar".

Normalmente, el término "obedecer" se usa en el contexto de obedecer los mandatos o las leyes de una persona con autoridad. Por ejemplo, las personas obedecen leyes creadas por los líderes de un país, reino u otra organización. Los niños obedecen a sus padres, los esclavos obedecen a sus amos, las personas obedecen a Dios y los ciudadanos obedecen las leyes de su país. Cuando alguien en autoridad ordena a las personas que no hagan algo, estas personas obedecen al no hacerlo. Las formas de traducir este término podrían incluir una palabra o frase que signifique "hacer lo que se manda" o "seguir las órdenes" o "hacer lo que Dios dice que se haga". El término "obediente" se podría traducir como "hacer lo que se le ordenó", "seguir órdenes" o "hacer lo que Dios manda".
