Chapter 30

1 Cuando todas estas cosas vengan a ustedes, las bendiciones y las maldiciones que yo he puesto ante ustedes, y cuando las recuerdes entre todas las demás naciones donde EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha llevado, 2 y cuando regreses al SEÑOR TU DIOS y obedezcan SU voz, siguiendo todo lo que les he ordenado hoy, tú y tus hijos, con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma, 3 entonces EL SEÑOR TU DIOS revertirá su cautiverio y tendrá compasión en ustedes; ÉL regresará y los reunirá de todos los pueblos de donde EL SENOR SU DIOS los ha esparcido. 4 Si alguna de las personas exiliadas están en los lugares lejanos debajo de los cielos, de allí EL SEÑOR TU DIOS los reunirá, y de allí ÉL los traerá. 5 El SEÑOR TU DIOS te traerá a la tierra que tus antepasados poseyeron, y tú la poseerás nuevamente; ÉL te hará bien y te multiplicará aun más de lo que ÉL hizo a tus antepasados. 6 El SEÑOR TU DIOS circuncidará sus corazones y los corazones de sus descendientes, entonces amarás al SEÑORTU DIOS con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma, para que puedas vivir. 7 El SEÑOR TU DIOS pondrá todas estas maldiciones en tus enemigos y en aquellos que te odian, aquellos que te persiguieron. 8 Tú regresarás y obedecerás la Voz del SEÑOR, y tú harás todos los mandamientos que te estoy ordenando hoy. 9 EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te hará abundante en todos los trabajos de tu mano, y en los frutos de tu cuerpo, en los frutos de tu ganado, y en los frutos de tu suelo, para prosperidad; porque EL SEÑOR se alegrará sobre tí por la prosperidad, así como se alegró con tus padres. 10 ÉL hará esto si ustedes obedecen la Voz del SEÑOR TU DIOS, a fin de guardar sus mandamientos y regulaciones que están escritas en este libro de la ley, si te vuelves al SEÑOR TU DIOS con todo tu corazón y toda tu alma. 11 Porque este mandamiento que estoy ordenándoles hoy no es tan dificíl para ustedes, tampoco está tan lejos para ustedes para alcanzar. 12 No está en el cielo, para que puedan decir: "¿Quién irá arriba a los cielos por nosotros y lo traerá abajo a nosotros y nos hará poder oirlo, para que podamos hacerlo?" 13 Tampoco está más allá del mar, para que puedan decir: "¿Quien irá sobre el mar por nosotros y lo traerá a nosotros y nos hará oírlo, para poder hacerlo?" 14 Pero la palabra está bien cerca de ustedes, en su boca y en su corazón, para que puedan hacerlo. 15 Vean, hoy he puesto ante ustedes la vida y el bien, la muerte y el mal. 16 Si ustedes obedecen los decretos del SEÑOR SU DIOS, a quien yo les ordeno hoy que amen al SEÑOR SU DIOS, a caminar en sus caminos, y a guardar sus mandamientos, sus regulaciones, y sus estatutos, ustedes vivirán y se multiplicarán, y el SEÑOR SU DIOS los bendecirá en la tierra que van a entrar a poseer. 17 Pero si su corazón se aleja, y si ustedes no escuchan, pero en cambio son atraídos y se inclinan a otros dioses y los adoran, 18 entonces YO les anuncio hoy que de seguro perecerán; YO no prolongaré sus días en la tierra que ustedes están pasando sobre el Jordán para entrar en ella y poseer. 19 YO llamo al cielo y a la tierra a testificár contra ustedes hoy que YO he puesto delante de ustedes la vida y la muerte, las bendiciones y las maldiciones; por tanto escojan la vida para que puedan vivir, ustedes y sus descendientes. 20 Hagan esto para amar al SEÑOR SU DIOS, para obedecer su Voz y aferrarse a ÉL. Pues ÉL es su vida y la duración de sus días; hagan esto para que entonces puedan vivir en la tierra que EL SEÑOR juró a sus antepasados, a Abraham, a Isaac, y a Jacob, para entregarles.''

Chapter 31

1 Moises fue y habló estas palabras a todo Israél. 2 Les dijo: "Ahora tengo ciento veinte años de edad; ya no puedo ir o venir; EL SEÑOR me ha dicho: "Tú no pasarás el Jordán.' 3 El SEÑOR TU DIOS, ÉL pasará antes que ustedes; ÉL destruirá estas naciones delante de ustedes, y podrán disponer de ellas. Josué, él pasará antes que ustedes, como el SEÑOR ha hablado. 4 El SEÑOR les hará a ellos como ÉL hizo con Sehón y Og, reyes de los amorreos, y a su tierra, a quienes ÉL destruyó. 5 El SEÑOR les dará victoria sobre ellos cuando ustedes los ecuentren en batalla, y harán con ellos todo los que les he mandado. 6 Sean fuertes y valientes, sin temor, no teman; y no tengan temor de ellos; porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, ÉL es quien va con ustedes; ÉL no les fallará ni los abandonará." 7 Moisés llamó a Josué y le dijo delante de toda Israél: "Sean fuertes y valientes, porque ustedes irán con este pueblo a la tierra que EL SEÑOR ha prometido darle a sus antepasados; y que ustedes heredarán. 8 El SEÑOR, ÉL es quien va delante de ustedes; ÉL estará con ustedes; ÉL no les fallará ni tampoco los abandonará; no tengan miedo, ni se desanimen." 9 Moisés escribió esta ley y se la dio a los sacerdotes, a los hijos de Leví, quienes cargaban el Arca del Pacto del SEÑOR; ÉL también le dió copias de la ley a todos los ancianos de Israél. 10 Moisés les ordenó y dijo: "Al final de cada siete años, al tiempo fijado para la cancelación de deudas, durante La Fiesta de los Refugiados, 11 cuando todo Israél haya venido para presentarse delante del SEÑOR TU DIOS en el lugar que ÉL escogerá para su Santuario, leerás esta ley delante de todo Israél en su audiencia. 12 Reuniras al pueblo, los hombres, las mujeres, y a los pequeños, y tu extranjero quien está dentro de las puertas de tú ciudad, así que ellos puedan escuchar y aprender, y así que ellos puedan honrar al SEÑOR TU DIOS y guardar todas las palabras de esta ley. 13 Hagan esto para que sus hijos, quienes no han conocido, pudieran oír y aprender a honrar al SEÑOR TU DIOS, mientras vivas en la tierra que tú vas a pasar sobre el Jordán a poseer". 14 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Mira, el día está llegando cuando tú debes morir; llama a Josué y preséntense ustedes mismos en la carpa de reunión, para que yo pueda darle un mandamiento". Moisés y Josué fueron y se presentaron ellos mismos en la carpa de reunión. 15 El SEÑOR apareció en la carpa en una columna de nube; la columna de nube se paró en la puerta de la carpa. 16 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Mira, tu dormirás con tus padres; este pueblo se levantará y actuará como una prostituta persiguiendo a los dioses extraños de la tierra a donde va yendo. Ellos me van a abandonar y van a romper el Pacto que YO he hecho con ellos. 17 Después, en ese día, mi enojo será encendido contra ella, y YO voy a abandonarlos. YO voy a esconder Mi Cara de ellos, y ellos serán devorados. Muchos desastres y problemas encontrarán, para que ellos digan en ese día: "¿Me han encontrado estos desastres porque nuestro DIOS no está en medio de nosotros?" 18 Yo seguramente esconderé mi cara de ellos en ese día por toda la maldad que ellos han hecho, porque se han vuelto a otros dioses. 19 Ahora por lo tanto escribe esta canción para ustedes mismos y enseñala a las personas de Israél. Pónlo en sus bocas, para que esta canción pueda ser testigo para Mí en contra del pueblo de Israél. 20 Para que cuando YO lo haya traído a la tierra que Yo juré darlo a sus antepasados, una tierra fluyendo con leche y miel, y cuando él haya comido y se haya satisfecho y engordado, entonces él se alejará a otros dioses y ellos los servirán; ellos me van a despreciar y él romperá mi pacto. 21 Cuando muchas maldades y problemas encuentran a este pueblo, esta canción testificará ante ellos como un testigo; porque no será olvidada de la boca de sus descendientes; porque YO sé los planes que ellos están formando hoy, incluso antes que YO los trajera a la tierra que yo he jurado." 22 Así que Moisés escribió esta canción el mismo día y la enseñó al pueblo de Israél. 23 El SEÑOR entregó a Josué hijo de Nun una orden y dijo: "Sé fuerte y de buen valor; porque tú vas a traer el pueblo de Israél a la tierra que yo he jurado a ellos, y voy a estar con ustedes." 24 Pasó que cuando Moisés hubo terminado de escribir estas palabras de esta ley en un libro, 25 que él dió un mandamiento a los levitas quienes llevaron el Arca del Pacto del SEÑOR; él dijo: 26 "Toma este libro de la ley y ponlo por el lado del Arca del Pacto del SEÑOR TU DIOS, para que ahí haya un testigo contra ustedes. 27 Porque yo sé tu rebelión y tu terquedad; mira, mientras yo todavía estoy vivo contigo incluso hoy, tú has sido rebelde contra EL SEÑOR; ¿cuánto más después de mi muerte? 28 Reúneme a todos los ancianos de tus tribus, y tus oficiales, para que yo pueda hablar estas palabras en sus oídos y pueda llamar al cielo y la tierra para testificar contra ellos. 29 Porque yo sé que después de mi muerte ustedes se corromperán absolutamente y se alejarán del camino que yo he mandado a ustedes; desastres vendrán hacia ustedes en los próximos días. Esto sucederá porque ustedes harán lo que es malvado a los ojos del SEÑOR, para así provocarlo en enojo mediante el trabajo de tus manos". 30 Moisés recitó en los oídos de toda la asamblea de Israél las palabras de su canción hasta que la canción termino.

Chapter 32

1 Den oídos los cielos, Dejenme hablar. Deja que la tierra escuche las palabras de MI boca. 2 Deja que mis enseñanzas caigan como la lluvia, deja que mi sermón destile como el rocío, como la gentil lluvia en la tierno pasto, y como las duchas en las plantas. 3 Pues yo proclamo el Nombre del SEÑOR, atribuir grandeza a nuestro DIOS. 4 La Roca, Su Trabajo es Perfecto; pues Sus caminos son Justos. ÉL es EL DIOS FIEL, sin iniquidad. ÉL Es Justo y Recto. 5 Ellos han actuado de manera corrupta en contra de ÉL. Ellos no son Sus hijos, son Su desgracia. Ellos son generacion pervertida y torcida. 6 ¿Tu recompensas al SEÑOR de esta manera? Gente tonta y sin sentido. ¿No es ÉL Tu Padre, el que te creó? El te hizo y te establecio. 7 Llama a tu mente los dias de antiguos tiempos, piensa en los años de muchos años pasados. Pide a tu padre y él te demostrará, a tus ancianos y ellos te dirán. 8 Cuando el mas Alto dio a las naciones su herencia, cuando ÉL dividió toda humanidad, y dio límites de la gente, como también arregló el número de sus dioses. 9 Pues la porción del SEÑOR es Su pueblo; Jacobo es Su herencia repartida. 10 El lo encontró en una tierra desierta y en el desierto árido y aullador; ÉL lo cubrió y cuidó de él, lo guardó como la niña de Sus ojos. 11 Como águila que guarda su nido y revolotea sobre los más jovenes, EL SEÑOR abre Sus alas y los cogio, y los cargó en Sus alas. 12 El SEÑOR solo le guió, no un dios extranjero estuvo con él. 13 Lo hizo montar en lugares altos de la tierra, y le alimentó de las frutas del campo; lo nutrió con miel de la roca, y aceite del peñasco. 14 El comió mantequilla de la manada y bebió leche del rebaño, con grasas de corderos y carneros de Basán y machos cabr[ios, con el mejor trigo, y tu bebiste vino espumoso hecho del jugo de uvas. 15 Pero Jesurún engordó y pateó, engordaste, estabas muy gordo y haz comido hasta llenarte. Él abandonó al DIOS quien lo hizo, y él rechazo la Roca de Su Salvación. 16 Hicieron al SEÑOR celoso por sus raros dioses; con su abonimación y lo enfurecieron. 17 Ellos sacrificaron a demonios, los cuales no son DIOS, dioses que ellos no habían conocido, dioses que aparecieron recientemente, dioses a los que tus padres no temían. 18 Tú has abandonado La Roca, quien hizo a tu Padre, y olvidaste al DIOS que te dió nacimiento. 19 El SEÑOR vio esto y ÉL los rechazó a ellos, porque Sus hijos y Sus hijas así lo provocaron. 20 "Yo esconderé Mi Cara de ellos", Él dijo: "Y YO veré lo que será su final; porque son una generación perversa, hijos que son infieles. 21 Me han hecho celoso con lo que no es dios y Me han enojado por sus cosas sin valor. YO los haré envidiosos por esos que no son un pueblo; con una nación tonta los haré enfurecerse. 22 Porque un fuego se ha encendido por Mi ira y está quemando hasta lo profundo del Seol; está devorando la tierra y su cosecha; está encendiendo en fuego los cimientos de las montañas. 23 Yo acumularé desastres sobre ellos; Yo dispararé todas Mis flechas sobre ellos. 24 Ellos serán debilitados por el hambre y devorados por el calor ardiente y amarga destrucción; Yo enviaré sobre ellos los dientes de animales salvajes, con el veneno de cosas que se arrastran en el polvo. 25 Afuera la espada traerá luto, y en las habitaciones el terror hará lo mismo. Destruirá tanto al hombre joven como a la virgen, al recién nacido como al hombre de cabellos grises. 26 YO dije que los dispersaría muy lejos, que YO haría que la memoria de ellos desapareciera de entre la humanidad. 27 No es que tema la provocación del enemigo y que sus enemigos puedan juzgar erróneamente, y que ellos digan: "Nuestra mano es exaltada", Yo habría hecho todo esto. 28 Porque Israel es una nación falta de sabiduría, y no hay entendimiento en ellos. 29 ¡Oh, que ellos fueran sabios, que ellos entendieran esto, que ellos consideraran su futuro venidero! 30 ¿Cómo uno puede perseguir a mil, y dos poner a dos mil a volar, a no ser que su Roca los haya vendido, y EL SEÑOR los haya entregado? 31 Porque la roca de nuestros enemigos no es como nuestra Roca, así como incluso nuestros enemigos lo admiten. 32 Porque el vino viene de la viña de Sodoma y de los campos de Gomorra; sus uvas son uvas de veneno; sus racimos son amargos. 33 Su vino es el veneno de serpientes y el cruel veneno de áspides. 34 ¿No es este plan guardado secretamente por Mí, sellado entre Mis tesoros? 35 "La venganza es Mía para darla, y recompensa en el tiempo en que sus pies resbalen; porque el día del desastre para ellos está cerca, y las cosas que están por venir sobre ellos se apresurán en suceder." 36 Porque EL SEÑOR dará justicia a Su pueblo, y ÉL tendrá piedad de Sus siervos. ÉL verá que la fuerza de ellos se ha ido, y nadie queda, ni esclavos o gente libre. 37 Entonces ÉL dirá: "¿Dónde están sus dioses, la roca en quienes ellos se refugiaron? 38 ¿Los dioses que comieron la grasa de sus sacrificios y tomaban el vino de sus ofrendas de bebida? Déjalos que se levanten y les ayuden; déjenles ser su protección. 39 Vean ahora que YO, incluso YO, SOY DIOS, y que no hay dios aparte de Mí; YO mato, y YO hago vida; YO hiero, y YO sano, y no hay alguno que pueda salvarlos de Mi Poder. 40 Porque YO levanto Mi Mano al cielo y digo: "Así como vivo por siempre, Yo actuaré. 41 Cuando YO afilo Mi brillante espada, y cuando Mi Mano comienza a traer justicia, YO rendiré venganza sobre Mis enemigos, y les pagaré de vuelta a aquellos que Me odian. 42 YO emborracharé Mis flechas con sangre, y Mi espada devorará la carne con la sangre de los muertos y los cautivos, y de las cabezas de los líderes del enemigo." 43 Alegrense ustedes naciones, con el pueblo de DIOS, porque ÉL vengará la sangre de sus siervos; ÉL dará venganza sobre Sus enemigos, y Él hará purificación por Su tierra, por Su pueblo. 44 Moisés vino y recitó todas las palabras de esta canción en los oídos del pueblo, él y Josué hijo de Nun. 45 Luego, Moisés terminó de recitar todas estas palabras a todo Israel. 46 Él les dijo a ellos: "Fijen su mente en todas las palabras que YO les he testificado a ustedes hoy, para que puedan ordenarle a sus hijos a guardarlas, todas las palabras de esta ley. 47 Porque esto no es un asunto trivial para ustedes, porque es su vida, y a través de esta cosa ustedes prolongarán sus días en la tierra que van a cruzar por el Jordán para poseer." 48 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés en ese mismo día y dijo: 49 "Sube hasta esta parte de las montañas de Abarim, arriba del Monte Nebo, el cual está en la tierra de Moab, opuesto a Jericó. Tú mirarás la tierra de Canaán, la cual les estoy dando al pueblo de Israel como su posesión. 50 Tú morirás en la montaña que subirás, tú serás reunido con tu gente, así como Aarón, tú compañero israelita, murió en el Monte Hor y fue reunido con su gente. 51 Esto sucederá porque ustedes fueron infieles a Mí entre el pueblo de Israel en las aguas de Meriba en Cades, en el desierto de Sin; porque ustedes no Me trataron con honor y respeto entre el pueblo de Israel. 52 Por tanto verás la tierra ante ti, pero no irás allí, a la tierra que Le estoy dando al pueblo de Israel."

Chapter 33

1 Esta es la bendición con la cual Moisés, el hombre de Dios, bendijo a la gente de Israel antes de su muerte. 2 Él dijo: "El SEÑOR vino del Sinaí y se levantó desde Seir contra ellos. ÉL brilló desde el Monte Parán, y ÉL vino con diez mil de los santos. En Su Mano derecha La Ley con destellos de relámpagos. 3 Verdaderamente, Él ama los pueblos; todos Sus santos están en Su mano, y ellos se inclinaron a Sus pies; ellos recibieron Tus palabras. 4 Moisés nos ordenó una ley, una herencia para la asamblea de Jacob. 5 Entonces, hubo un rey en Jesurún, cuando los líderes de la gente se reunieron, todas la tribus de Israel juntas. 6 Permitan que Rubén viva y no muera, pero que sus hombres sean pocos. 7 Esta es la bendición para Judá. Moisés dijo: Escucha SEÑOR a la voz de Judá y tráelo a su pueblo otra vez. Pelea por él; sé su ayuda contra sus enemigos. 8 Acerca de Leví, Moisés dijo: Tu Tumim y tu Urim pertenecen al que te es leal, al que probaste en Masah, con quien luchaste en las aguas de Meriba. 9 El hombre que dijo acerca de su padre y su madre: ''No los he visto''. Ni tampoco reconoció a sus hermanos, ni tomó en consideración a sus propios hijos. Porque obedeció Tu palabra y guardó Tu pacto. 10 Él le enseña a Jacob Tus decretos y a Israel Tu ley. Él pondrá incienso delante de Ti y ofrendas quemadas enteras en Tu altar. 11 Bendice SEÑOR, sus posesiones y acepta el trabajo de sus manos. Destroza las entrañas de esos quienes se levantan en contra de él, y esos de la gente quienes lo odian, para que no se levanten otra vez. 12 Acerca de Benjamín, Moisés dijo: "El amado por EL SEÑOR vive seguro junto a ÉL; EL SEÑOR lo escuda todo el día y él vive entre los brazos del SEÑOR." 13 Acerca de José, Moisés dijo: "Que su tierra sea bendecida por EL SEÑOR con las cosas preciosas del cielo, con rocío, con lo profundo que está debajo de ella." 14 Que su tierra sea bendecida con las cosas preciosas de la cosecha del sol, con las cosas preciosas del producto de los meses, 15 con las mejores cosas de las antiguas montañas, y con las cosas preciosas de las colinas eternas. 16 Que su tierra sea bendecida con las cosas preciosas de la tierra y su abundancia, y con la buena voluntad de aquel que estaba en el arbusto. Deja que la bendicion venga sobre la cabeza de José, y sobre la cabeza de aquel que fue príncipe sobre sus hermanos. 17 El primogénito de un buey, majestuoso es él, y sus cuernos son los cuernos de un buey salvaje. Con ellos el empujará a los pueblos, a todos ellos, a los confines de la tierra. Estos son los diez miles de Efraín; estos son los miles de Manasés. 18 Acerca de Zebulón, Moisés dijo: "Alégrate Zebulón, en tu salida, y tú Isacar, en tus tiendas. 19 Ellos llamarán a los pueblos a las montañas. Allí ellos ofrecerán sacrificios de justicia. Porque ellos chuparán la abundancia de los mares, y de la arena en la orilla del mar. 20 Acerca de Gad, Moisés dijo: Bendito sea el que enaltece a Gad. Él vivirá ahí como una leona, y él arrancará un brazo o una cabeza. 21 Él tomó la mejor parte para sí mismo, porque ahí estaba la porción de tierra reservada para el líder. Él vino con las cabezas del pueblo. Él llevó a cabo la justicia del SEÑOR y Sus decretos con Israel. 22 Acerca de Dan, Moisés dijo: Dan es un cachorro de león que salta de Basán. 23 Acerca de Neftalí, Moisés dijo: "Neftalí, satisfecho con favor y lleno de la bendición del SEÑOR, toma posesión de la tierra al oeste y al sur. 24 Acerca de Aser, Moisés dijo: Bendito sea Aser más que los otros hijos; deja que sea aceptable a sus hermanos, y deja que moje su pie en aceite de oliva. 25 Que las barras de tu ciudad sean de hierro y bronce; según de largo sean tus días, así de largo sea tu seguridad. 26 No hay nadie como Dios, Jesurún, el honrado, quien monta por los cielos a tu ayuda, y en Su majestad en las nubes. 27 El Dios eterno es un refugio y debajo estan los brazos eternos. ÉL expulsa al enemigo de delante de ti, y ÉL dijo: "¡Destruye!" 28 Israel vivió en seguridad. La fuente de Jacob estaba segura en una tierra de grano y vino nuevo; de hecho, deje su cielo soltar rocío sobre él. 29 ¡Tus bendiciones son muchas, Israel! ¿Quién es como tú, un pueblo salvado por el SEÑOR, el escudo de tu ayuda, y la espada de tu majestad? Tus enemigos vendrán a ti temblando; tú derribarás sus lugares altos.

Book: Joshua

Joshua

Chapter 1

1 Sucedió que después de la muerte de Moisés, el siervo del EL SEÑOR, EL SEÑOR le habló a Josué el hijo de Nun, el asistente en jefe de Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Moisés, mi siervo, está muerto. Por lo tanto, levántate, cruza este Jordán, tú y todo este pueblo, a la tierra que Yo les estoy dando, al pueblo de Israel. 3 Yo les he dado cada lugar donde la planta de sus pies pisare. Te lo he dado a ti, igual que se lo prometí a Moisés. 4 Desde el desierto y el Líbano, tan lejos como el gran río Eufrates, toda la tierra de los hititas y hasta el Mar Mediterráneo, donde el sol se mete, hasta alli será tu tierra. 5 Nadie será capaz de enfrentarse delante de ti en todos los días de tu vida. Yo estaré contigo como estuve con Moisés. No te abondonaré ni te dejaré. 6 Sé fuerte y valiente. Tú harás que este pueblo herede la tierra que Yo le prometí a sus antepasados que le daría. 7 Sé fuerte y muy valiente. Sé atento en obedecer toda la ley que mi siervo Moisés te ordenó. No te desvies de ella ni a la derecha ni a la izquierda, para que tengas victoria donde quiera que vayas. 8 Hablarás siempre acerca de este libro de la ley. Pensarás en él, de día y de noche, para que puedas obedecer todo lo que está escrito en él. Entonces, serás feliz y victoioso 9 ¿No fue así que te lo ordené? ¡Sé pues fuerte y valiente! No tengas miedo. No te desanimes. EL SEÑOR tu DIOS está contigo dondequiera que vayas". 10 Entonces, Josué ordenó a los líderes del pueblo: 11 "Vayan por el campamento y ordenen al pueblo: 'Preparen provisiones porque, en tres días cruzarán este Jordán, entrarán y se adueñarán de la tierra que EL SEÑOR su DIOS les está dando para ser dueños" 12 A los rubenitas, los gaditas y a la media tribu de Manasés, Josué les dijo: 13 "Recuerden la palabra que Moisés, el siervo del SEÑOR, les ordenó cuando dijo: El SEÑOR su DIOS les está dando nuevo aliento y Él les le da esta tierra.' 14 Sus esposas, sus pequeños y sus ganados se quedarán en la tierra que Moisés les dio más allá del Jordán. Pero tus guerreros irán con tus hermanos y los ayudarán, 15 hasta que EL SEÑOR les haya dado a tus hermanos descanso, así como Él se los ha dado a ustedes. Entonces, ellos también se adueñaran de la tierra, que EL SEÑOR su DIOS, les da. Entonces ustedes regresarán a su propia tierra y la gobernarán. La tierra que Moisés, el siervo de EL SEÑOR, les dió más allá del Jordán, donde el sol sale" 16 Y le contestaron a Josué diciendo: "Todo lo que nos has ordenado, lo haremos, y dondequiera que nos envíes, iremos. 17 Te obedeceremos así como nosotros obedecimos a Moisés. Solamente que EL SEÑOR tu DIOS esté contigo, así como estuvo con Moisés. 18 Cualquiera que se rebele contra tus órdenes y desobedezca tus palabras será muerto. Solamente sé fuerte y valiente."

Chapter 2

1 Entonces Josué, hijo de Nun, envió en oculto a dos hombres de Sitim como observadores. Él les dijo: "Vayan, miren la tierra, especialmente a Jericó." Ellos salieron y llegaron a la casa de una prostituta llamada Rahab, y allí se quedaron. 2 Le dijeron al rey de Jericó: "Mira, hombres de Israel han venido a observar la tierra." 3 El rey de Jericó mando a decirle a Rahab: "Saca a los hombres que han venido a ti, que entraron a tu casa, pues han venido a observar nuestra tierra." 4 Pero la mujer se había llevado a los dos hombres y los escondio. Y la mujer dijo: "Sí; los hombres vinieron a mí, pero no sabía de donde venían. 5 Ellos se marcharon al anochecer, cuando es el momento en que las puertas de la ciudad se cierran. No sé, a dónde fueron. Tú, puedes alcanzarlos, si te apuras y vas tras ellos." 6 Pero ella los había llevado al techo y escondido con los tallos de lino que ella había tendido en el techo. 7 Así que los hombres los perseguieron en el camino que se dirige a los vados del Jordán. Y las puertas fueron cerradas tan pronto los perseguidores salieron. 8 Los hombres no se habían dormido, cuando ella subió a verlos. 9 Ella les dijo: "Yo sé que EL SEÑOR les ha dado ésta tierra y que el temor a ustedes ha venido sobre nosotros. Todos aquellos que viven en ésta, tierra serán dominados por ustedes." 10 Hemos oido, cómo EL SEÑOR secó el agua del Mar de las Cañas (Mar Rojo) para que pasaran cuando salieron de Egipto. Y oimos lo que ustedes le hicieron a los dos reyes amorreos al otro lado del Jordán, a Sehón y a Og, a quienes ustedes mataron. 11 Tan pronto nosotros oimos sobre esto, se lleno de temor nuestro corazón y nuestra valentía se acabó, pues EL SEÑOR su DIOS, ÉL es DIOS arriba en los cielos y abajo en la tierra. 12 Ahora entonces, por favor, júrenme por EL SEÑOR que, como he sido buena con ustedes, ustedes también serán buenos con la casa de mi padre. Dénme una señal segura 13 de que ustedes protegeran la vida: de mi padre, madre, hermanos, hermanas y todas sus familias, y que ustedes nos salvarán de la muerte." 14 Los hombres le repondieron: "¡Te prometemos por nuestra vida! Que si tú, no hablas sobre nuestros planes, entonces; cuando EL SEÑOR nos entregue esta tierra, nosotros seremos compasivos y fieles para con ustedes." 15 Así que ella los bajo por la ventana utilizando una cuerda. La casa en la cual ella vivía estaba hecha en los muros de la ciudad. 16 Ella les dijo: "Vayan a las montañas y escóndanse o los perseguidores los encontrarán. Escóndanse allí por tres días, hasta que los perseguidores hayan regresado. Después podrán seguir su camino." 17 Los hombres le dijeron a ella: "Nosotros no cumpliremos nuestra promesa que te dijimos" que tú, nos has hecho jurar, si tú no haces lo siguiente. 18 Cuando nosotros lleguemos a esta tierra, tú debes amarrar un pedaso de tela roja en la ventana de donde nos permitiste bajar, y tú juntaras en la casa a tu padre y madre, a tus hermanos y toda la casa de tu padre. 19 Cualquiera que salga fuera de las puertas de tu casa hacia la calle, moriran por su propia desición y nosotros no seremos culpables. Pero si una mano es puesta sobre cualquiera de los de tu casa, nosoros seremos muertos por no cumplir nuestra promesa. 20 Pero si ustedes hablan sobre nuestros planes, nosotros no seremos culpables del juramento que nos pediste hacer." 21 Rahab respondió: "Que lo que hayas dicho se cumpla." Ella los despidió y se marcharon. Entonces ella amarro un pedazo de tela rojo en la ventana. 22 Ellos se marcharon hacia las montañas y se quedaron allí por tres días hasta que los perseguidores regresaron. Los perseguidores buscaron por todos lados del camino y no encontraron nada. 23 Los dos hombres bajaron de la montaña y regresaron con Josué, hijo de Nun, y le contaron todo lo que les había sucedido. 24 Y le dijeron a Josué: "Ciertamente EL SEÑOR nos ha dado esta tierra. Todos los habitantes de la tierra están temerosos a causa nuestra."

Chapter 3

1 Josué se levantó temprano en la mañana y salieron de Sitím. Fueron al Río Jordán, él y todo el pueblo de Israel, y acamparon ahí antes de cruzar el río. 2 Después de tres días, los oficiales recorrieron el campamento; 3 le pidieron a la gente: "Cuando vean el arca del pacto del SEÑOR su DIOS, y los sacerdotes de los levitas cargándola, deben seguirla. 4 Debe haber un espacio entre ustedes y ella de noventa metros. No se le acerquen a ella, para que puedan ver hacia donde ir, ya que no conocen este camino." 5 Josué le dijo a la gente: ''Conságrense ustedes mismos mañana, porque EL SEÑOR va a hacer maravillas entre ustedes.'' 6 Luego Josué le dijo a los sacerdotes: ''Sostengan el arca del pacto, y pasen delante de la gente.'' Así que sostuvieron el arca del pacto y fueron delante de la gente. 7 El SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: ''Este día te haré un gran hombre a los ojos de Israel. Sabrán que así como estuve con Moisés, así también estaré contigo. 8 Tú ordenarás a los sacerdotes que llevan el arca del pacto: 'Cuando hayan llegado a la orilla de las aguas del Jordán --deben mantenerse firmes en el Río Jordán--" 9 Entonces Josué le dijo a la gente de Israel: ''Vengan aquí, y esuchen las palabras del SEÑOR su DIOS. 10 Despues de ésto sabrán que EL DIOS viviente está entre ustedes y sacarán de adelante de ustedes a los cananeos, los hititas, los heveos, los ferezeos, los gergeseos, los amorreos y los jebuseos. 11 ¡Mira! El arca del pacto del Señor de toda la tierra, cruzará al otro lado delante de ustedes en el Jordán. 12 Ahora escojan doce hombres de las tribus de Israel, uno de cada una. 13 Cuando la planta de los pies de los sacerdotes que cargan el arca del SEÑOR de toda la tierra, toque las aguas del Jordán, las aguas del Jordán van a ser detenidas, su corriente de arriba se detendrá y se pararán en seco y las aguas de abajo del río también detendra su corriente 14 Entonces, cuando la gente fue a cruzar el Jordán, los sacerdotes que cargaban el arca del pacto fueron delante de la gente. 15 Despues de que aquellos que cargaban el arca llegaron al Jordán, y sus pies estuvieron mojados a la orilla del agua (ahora el Jordán se desborda de sus cauces a lo largo del tiempo de cosecha), 16 las aguas que corren desde río arriba se levantaron en un muro de agua. El agua dejó de correr desde una gran distancia desde Adán, la cuidad que está junto a Saretán, bajando hasta el mar de Néguev, el Mar Salado. Y la gente cruzó hacia el otro lado cerca Jericó. 17 Los sacerdotes que cargaban el arca del pacto del SEÑOR, se pararon en tierra seca en el medio del Jordán hasta que toda la gente de Israel cruzó al otro lado.

Chapter 4

1 Cuando todas las personas cruzaron el Jordán, EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: 2 "Elije doce hombres de entre el pueblo, un hombre de cada tribu. 3 Dales este mandamiento: "Toma doce piedras del centro del Jordán, donde los sacerdotes están parados en el suelo seco, y llévalas contigo, y ponlas en el lugar donde pasarán la noche." 4 Luego, Josué llamó a los doce hombres que había seleccionado de las tribus de Israel, uno de cada tribu. 5 Josué les dijo: "Pasen delante del arca del SEÑOR su DIOS al centro del Jordán. Cada uno de ustedes levantará una piedra en su hombro, según el número de las tribus de las personas de Israel. 6 Esto servirá de señal, para cuando sus hijos les pregunten en los días que vendrán: '¿Qué significan estas piedras para ti?' 7 Entonces le dirás a ellos: 'Las aguas del Jordán fueron divididas ante el arca del pacto del SEÑOR. Cuando esta pasó sobre el Jordán, las aguas del Jordán fueron divididas. Así que estas piedras serán un altar a las personas de Israel para siempre". 8 El pueblo de Israel hicieron como Josué les mandó, y ellos recogieron doce piedras del centro del Jordán, como EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué. Ellos colocaron las piedras de acuerdo al numero de las tribus del pueblo de Israel. Llevaron las piedras con ellos al lugar donde acamparon y las dejaron ahí. 9 Luego Josué colocó doce piedras en el centro del Jordán, en el lugar donde los pies de los sacerdotes que cargaron el arca del pacto se pararon. Y este altar está allí hasta el día de hoy. 10 Los sacerdotes que cargaron el arca se parararon en el centro del Jordán hasta que todo lo que EL SEÑOR ordenó a Josué decir al pueblo fue completado, según todo lo que Moisés le ordenó a Josué. Las personas se apresuraron y cruzaron. 11 Cuando toda la gente terminó de cruzar, el arca del SEÑOR y los sacerdotes cruzaron delante del pueblo. 12 La tribu de Rubén, la tribu de Gad, y la media tribu de Manasés pasaron delante del pueblo de Israel formados como un ejercito, así como Moisés les dijo. 13 Cerca de cuarenta mil hombres equipados para la guerra, pasaron ante EL SEÑOR para la batalla en los llanos de Jericó. 14 En ese día EL SEÑOR hizo a Josué poderoso ante todos los ojos de todo Israel. Ellos lo respetaron, así como respetaron a Moisés- todos sus días. 15 Luego EL SEÑOR habló a Josué: 16 "Ordena a los sacerdotes que cargan el arca del testimonio que salgan fuera del Jordán." 17 Así que, Josué ordenó a los sacerdotes: "Salgan afuera del Jordán.'' 18 Cuando los sacerdotes que cargaban el arca del pacto del SEÑOR salieron del centro del Jordán, y sus pies tocaron el suelo seco, entonces las aguas del Jordán volvieron a fluir como fue cuatro días antes. 19 Las personas salieron del Jordán en el día diez del primer mes. Se quedaron en Gilgal, al este de Jericó. 20 Las doce piedras que sacaron del Jordán, Josué las colocó en Gilgal. 21 Él le dijo al pueblo de Israel: "Cuando sus descendientes pregunten a sus padres en los tiempos por venir: '¿Qué son estas piedras? 22 Dile a tus hijos: "Aquí es donde Israel cruzó el Jordán en suelo seco." 23 El SEÑOR tu DIOS secó las aguas del Jordán para ti, hasta que tú cruzaras, así como ELSEÑOR tu DIOS le hizo al Mar de las Cañas (Mar Rojo), el cual Él secó por nosotros hasta que lo pasamos, 24 de manera que, todas las personas de la tierra sepan que la mano del SEÑOR es poderosa, y que ustedes honrarán al SEÑOR DIOS de ustedes por siempre."

1 Cuando todos los reyes de los amorreos del lado occidental del Río Jordán y todos los reyes de los cananeos quienes habitaban en la costa del Mar Mediterráneo escucharon que EL SEÑOR había secado las aguas del Río Jordán hasta que el pueblo de Israel hubo cruzado al otro lado, sus corazones se llenaron de temor y ya no tenian deseos de pelear, por causa del pueblo de Israel. 2 En ese tiempo EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "Haz cuchillos de piedra y circuncida a todos los hombres de Israel." 3 Entonces Josué hizo cuchillos de piedra y circuncidó a todos los hombres de Israel en la colina de Aralot. 4 Este es el motivo por el cual Josué los circuncidó: todos los varones que habían salido de Egipto, habían muerto en el desierto después de salir de Egipto. 5 A pesar de que todos los hombres que salieron de Egipto eran circuncidados, ninguno de los niños nacidos en el desierto habían sido circuncidados. 6 pueblo de Israel caminó en el desierto por cuarenta años hasta que toda la gente, es decir, todos los guerreros quienes habían salido de Egipto murieron, porque no obedecieron la voz del SEÑOR. EL SEÑOR juró que no les dejaría ver la tierra que les juró darle a sus antepasados, tierra abundante en leche y miel. 7 Los hijos de ellos, fueron los que EL SEÑOR puso en su lugar, los que Josué circuncidó, porque no habían sido circuncidados en el camino. 8 Cuando fueron todos circuncidados, se quedaron todos en el campamento hasta que todos sanaron. 9 Y EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "En este día YO he quitado la desgracia de Egipto que había sobre ustedes." Así es que el nombre de ese lugar es llamado Gilgal hasta hoy día. 10 El pueblo de Israel acampó en Gilgal. Celebraron la Pascua el día catorce del mes, por la tarde, mientras acampaban en la llanos de Jericó. 11 El día después de la Pascua, ese mismo día, comieron de los productos de la tierra, pan sin levadura, y cereal tostado. 12 El maná acabo ese mismo día, después de comer de lo que la tierra producía. Ya no había más maná para la gente de Israel, pero ese año comieron lo que la tierra de Canaán producía. 13 Cuando Josué estaba cerca de Jericó, él levantó sus ojos y miró, y vio a un hombre que estaba de pie enfrente de él; con su espada agarrada en su mano. Josué fue a él y le dijo: "¿Estás con nosotros o con nuestros enemigos?" 14 Él le contestó: "De ninguno. YO SOY el comandante del ejército del SEÑOR. Por eso he venido." Entonces Josué se acosto con la cabeza hacia la tierra ante ÉL con reverencia y le dijo: "¿Tiene algo que mandarme?", soy su siervo 15 El jefedel ejército del SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "Quita las sandalias de tus pies, porque el lugar que estás pisando, es santo." Chapter 6

1 Ahora, todas las entradas de Jericó estaban cerradas por motivo del ejército israelita. Nadie salía y nadie entraba. 2 EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "Date cuenta, te he entregado Jericó en tus manos, su rey y sus soldados guerreros". 3 Tienen que marchar alrededor de la ciudad, todos los hombres de guerra irán alrededor de la ciudad cada día. Deben hacer esto por seis días. 4 Siete sacerdotes deben cargar siete trompetas de cuernos de carnero delante del arca. En el séptimo día, marcharán alrededor de la ciudad siete veces, y los sacerdotes deben hacer sonar las trompetas. 5 Ellos deben dar un sonido largo con los cuernos de carnero, y cuando escuchen el sonido de la trompeta toda la gente gritarán con mucha fuerza, y la pared de la ciudad caerá. Los hijos de Israel atacarán, cada uno caminando de frente." 6 Entonces Josué hijo de Nun, llamó a los sacerdotes y les dijo: "Carguen el arca del pacto, y dejen a siete sacerdotes cargar siete trompetas de cuernos de carnero delante del arca del SEÑOR." 7 Y le dijo al pueblo: "Vayan y marchen alrededor de la ciudad, y los hombres de guerra irán delante del arca del SEÑOR." 8 Tal como Josué le había dicho al pueblo, los siete sacerdotes cargaron las siete trompetas de cuernos de carnero delante del SEÑOR. Según caminaban sonaban las trompetas. El arca del pacto del SEÑOR iba detrás de ellos. 9 Hombres de guerra caminaban delante de los sacerdotes, y ellos hacían sonar sus trompetas, y también detrás del arca caminaban los sacerdotes sonando sus trompetas continuamente. 10 Pero Josué ordenó al pueblo, diciéndole: "Marchen en silencio, hasta el día que yo les diga que griten. Solo entonces deben gritar." 11 Así Josué hizo que el arca del SEÑOR fuera alrededor de la ciudad una vez ese día. Luego entraron a su campamento y pasaron la noche allí. 12 Entonces Josué se levantó temprano en la mañana y los sacerdotes cargaron el arca del SEÑOR. 13 Y los siete sacerdotes que cargaban las siete trompetas de cuernos de carnero delante del arca del SEÑOR, y que caminaban firmemente, iban sonando sus trompetas. Los soldados guerreros iban delante de ellos, los demas caminaba detrás del arca del SEÑOR, y las trompetas sonaban continuamente. 14 El segundo día marcharon alrededor de la ciudad una vez y regresaron al campamento. Ellos hicieron esto durante seis días. 15 Y fue en el séptimo día que se levantaron al salir del sol, y marcharon alrededor de la ciudad como lo hicieron antes, pero esta vez lo hicieron siete veces. Fue en este día que marcharon alrededor de la ciudad siete veces. 16 Fue en el séptimo día, cuando los sacerdotes sonaron sus trompetas, que Josué le mando al pueblo diciendo: "¡Griten!, Porque EL SEÑOR les ha entregado la ciudad." 17 EL SEÑOR ordenó, que toda la ciudad y lo que hay en ella, será destruido. Solamente vivirá Rahab la prostituta --ella y todos los que estén con ella en su casa-- porque ella escondió los hombres que envíamos. 18 Pero ustedes, estén atentos de las cosas que son separadas, para la destrucción, no tomen ninguna de ellas. Si lo hacen, traeran la maldición y desgracia al campamento de Israel entonces debe ser destruido. 19 Toda la plata, el oro y las cosas hechas de bronce y hierro serán separadas para EL SEÑOR. Estos deben ir a la tesorería del SEÑOR." 20 Cuando el pueblo oyó el sonido de la trompeta, gritaron todos juntos y la barda cayó y ellos entraron a la ciudad, cada uno camino directo hacia el frente. Y se apoderaron de la ciudad. 21 Destruyeron completamente todo lo que estaba en la ciudad con la de espada --hombre y mujer, joven y anciano, bueyes, ovejas y burros. 22 Luego Josué le dijo a los dos hombres que habían observado la tierra: "Vayan a la casa de la prostituta. Saquen a la mujer y a todos los que estén con ella, como ustedes lo prometieron" 23 Así que los jóvenes que habían observado la tierra entraron y sacaron a Rahab. Ellos sacaron a su padre, madre, hermanos y a todos los parientes que estaban con ella. Los llevaron a un lugar fuera del campamento de Israel. 24 Y quemaron la ciudad y todo lo que había en ella. Solamente la plata, el oro y las vasijas de bronce y hierro se guardaron en la tesorería de la casa del SEÑOR. 25 Y Josué permitió que Rahab la prostituta, la casa de su padre y todo lo que estaba con ella, vivieran. Su desendencia vive en Israel hasta el día de hoy, porque ella escondió a los hombres que Josué mandó a obsrvar en Jericó. 26 Entonces Josué les ordenó en ese momento con un juramento y dijo: "Maldito delante de DIOS el hombre que vuelva a contruir esta ciudad de Jericó. Su primer hijo sea hechado en los cimientos y su hijo menor morirá a las puertas." 27 Y EL SEÑOR estaba con Josué y su nombre se conoció por la tierra.

Chapter 7

1 Pero los Israelitas obraron deshonestamente respecto a las cosas que se habían apartado para la destrucción. Acán, hijo de Carmi, hijo de Zabdi, hijo de Zera, de la tribu de Judá, tomaron cosas que estaban apartadas para la destrucción, y EL SEÑOR se enojó en contra del pueblo de Israel. 2 Josué envió hombres desde Jericó a Hai, que está cerca de Bet Avén al este de Betel. Él les dijo: "Vayan y miren la tierra". Así que los hombres fueron y miraron Hai. 3 Cuando ellos regresaron a donde Josué, le dijeron: "No envíes a todo el pueblo para Hai. Envía solo dosmil o tresmil hombres para que vayan y ataquen a Hai. No hagas que trabajen todos en la batalla, porque ellos son pocos en número." 4 Así que sólo cerca de tres mil hombres fueron del ejército, pero estos huyeron de los hombres de Hai. 5 Porque los hombres de Hai mataron como a treinta y seis hombres de guerra mientras los perseguían hasta la puerta de la ciudad, tan lejos como las canteras y los mataron mientras bajaban la colina. Y el pueblo tuvo temor en sus corazones y su valor los dejo. 6 Después Josué rompió sus vestidos. Él y los ancianos de Israel pusieron polvo en sus cabezas, inclinándose frente al arca del SEÑOR, permaneciendo allí hasta el atardecer. 7 Después Josué dijo: "¡Ah, SEÑOR DIOS! ¿Por qué permitiste que éste pueblo cruzara el Jordán? ¿Para entregarnos en las manos de los Amorreos para qué nos destruyan? ¡Si solo nos hubiéramos quedado al otro lado del Jordán! 8 ¡ SEÑOR! ¿Qué puedo decir, ahora que Israel ha sido derrotado y qué salió huyendo delante de sus enemigos? 9 Ahora los Cananeos y todos los habitantes de la tierra escucharán ésto. Ellos nos rodearán y harán que la gente de la tierra olvide nuestro nombre. Entonces, ¿Qué harás tu por tu gran nombre?" 10 El SEÑOR le dijo a Josué, "¡Levántate! ¿Por qué estás inclinado con el rostro en el suelo? 11 Israel ha pecado. Ellos no cumplieron el pacto que yo les ordené. Robaron algunas cosas que estaban apartadas. Ellos han robado y también han escondido su pecado, poniendo lo que han robado junto a sus pertenencias. 12 Por eso, los Israelitas no pueden vencer a sus enemigos. Y han huido de sus enemigos, porque ellos mismos provocaron su propia destrucción. Sólo estaré con ustedes hasta que destruyan las cosas que debieron haber destruido y las tienen escondidas. 13 ¡Levántate! Prepara al pueblo para mí y diles: 'Preparence, límpience, ustedes mismos para mañana. Por que EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel dice: "Hay cosas que fueron separadas para ser destruidas y todavía están entre ustedes, Israel, no pueden enfrentar a sus enemigos hasta que quiten todas las cosas que fueron apartadas para destrucción." 14 "En la mañana, tienen que presentarse todos por tribus. La tribu que EL SEÑOR elija vendrá por familias. La familia que el SEÑOR elija debe presentarse todos lo hombre uno por uno. 15 Y pasará que la que sea seleccionada y tenga las cosas que fueron robadas; éste será quemado, él, toda su casa y todo lo que tiene, porque ha roto el pacto del SEÑOR y ha cometido pecado en Israel." 16 Así que, Josué se levantó temprano en la mañana y trajo a Israel cerca, tribu por tribu, y la tribu de Judá fue elegida. 17 Josué trajo las familias de Judá cerca, y la familia de Zera fue elegida. Y trajo a la familia de Zera uno por uno y Zabdi fue elegido. 18 Él trajó la familia de Zabdi, persona por persona, y Acán hijo de Carmi, hijo de Zabdi, hijo de Zera, de la tribu de Judá, fue elegido. 19 Entonces Josué dijo a Acán: "Mi hijo, di la verdad frente EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, y da tu confesión a ÉL. Por favor, dime ¿Qué has hecho? No escondas nada de mí." 20 Acán contestó: "Verdaderamente, he pecado en contra del SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel. Esto es lo que hice: 21 Cuando vi entre el botín un hermoso manto de Babilonia, doscientas monedas de plata, y una barra de oro que pesaba más de medio kilo, los codicie y los tomé. Están escondidos en el suelo en el centro de mi tienda de acampar, con las monedas de plata debajo." 22 Josué envió mensajeros, que corrieron a la tienda de acampar y allí estaban las cosas. Cuando miraron, las encontraron escondidas en la tienda de acampar y debajo estaban las monedas de plata. 23 Ellos tomaron las cosas de en medio de la tienda de acampar y las trajeron a Josué y a todo el pueblo de Israel. Ellos las colocaron frente al SEÑOR. 24 Entonces Josué, y todo Israel con él, tomaron a Acán hijo de Zera, la plata, el manto y la barra de oro, sus hijos e hijas, sus bueyes, sus mulas, sus ovejas, su tienda de acampar y todo lo que él tenía, y los llevaron a todos al valle de Acor. 25 Entonces Josué dijo: "¿Por qué nos has traido desgracia? El SEÑOR traerá desgracia a ti hoy." Todo Israel los apedrearon y los quemaron. 26 Ellos levantaron sobre el una gran montaña de piedras que está ahí hasta hoy. Entonces EL SEÑOR quitó su ardiente enojo. Por eso, este es el nombre de ese lugar, hasta el dia de hoy, 'el valle de Acor'.

Chapter 8

1 EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "No sientas miedo; no te desanimes. Toma contigo a toda la gente de guerra. Sube a Hai. Mira, Yo te he entregado en las manos al rey de Hai, su pueblo, su ciudad y su tierra. 2 Le harás a Hai y a su rey como le has hecho a Jericó y a su rey, pero ahora tomarán el botín y el ganado para ustedes. Tiéndeles una tampa detrás de la ciudad." 3 Así que Josué se levantó y llevó a todos sus hombres de guerra a Hai. Entonces Josué eligió treinta mil hombres, hombres fuertes y valientes, y los envió afuera en la noche. 4 Él les ordenó: "Miren, tenderán una trampa en contra de la ciudad, detrás de ella. No se vayan muy lejos de la ciudad, pero todos ustedes estén listos. 5 Yo y todos los hombres que me acompañan, nos acercaremos a la ciudad. Y cuando salgan para atacarnos, correremos alejándonos de ellos como antes. 6 Saldrán corriendo detrás de nosotros hasta que los hayamos alejado de la ciudad. Entonces dirán: 'Ellos están huyendo de nosotros como la última vez'. Así que correremos huyendo. 7 Entonces ustedes saldrán del lugar de escondite y atrapar la ciudad. El SEÑOR su DIOS entregará la ciudad en sus manos. 8 Cuando capturen la ciudad, la encenderán en fuego. Harán todo esto cuando obedezcan la orden dada por la palabra del SEÑOR. Mirad, yo se los he ordenado." 9 Josué los envió y ellos se fueron al lugar de la trampa, y se escondieron entre Betel y Hai, al oeste de Hai. Pero Josué durmió esa noche entre el pueblo. 10 Josué se levantó temprano en la mañana y se aseguró de que sus soldados estuvieran listos, Josué y los ancianos de Israel, y ellos atacaron al pueblo de Hai. 11 Todos los hombres de guerra que estaban con él se levantaron y se acercaron a la ciudad. Ellos se acercaron a la ciudad y acamparon en el lado norte de Hai. Ahora, había un valle entre ellos y Hai. 12 Él tomó a cinco mil hombres y los puso en la trampa en el lado oeste de la ciudad entre Betel y Hai. 13 Ubicaron a todos sus soldados, al ejército principal en el lado norte, de la ciudad, y el resto del ejercito en el lado oeste de la ciudad. Josué pasó esa noche en el valle. 14 Cuando el rey de Hai lo vio, él y su ejército se levantaron temprano y avanzaron el ataque contra Israel, frente al valle del Río Jordan. Él, no sabía que le esperaba una trampa para atacar a la ciudad desde atrás. 15 Josué y todo Israel se hicieron pasar como derrotados ante ellos y huyeron hacia el desierto. 16 Todos los que estaban en la ciudad fueron llamados para perseguirlos, fueron tras Josué y se alejaron de la ciudad. 17 No quedó hombre en Hai y Betel que no haya ido detrás de Israel. Abandonaron la ciudad y la dejaron abierta al perseguir a Israel. 18 El SEÑOR dijo a Josué: "Apunta la lanza que está en tus manos hacia Hai, porque te daré a Hai en tus manos." Josué apuntó la lanza que estaba en sus manos hacia la ciudad. 19 Los soldados que se escondían en el lugar de la trampa, avanzaron y salieron al verlo apuntar hacia allá. Ellos corrieron, entraron a la ciudad y la capturaron y prendieron fuego a la ciudad rápidamente. 20 Los hombres de Hai se voltearon y miraron hacia atrás. Vieron el humo que salía de la ciudad hacia el cielo y no pudieron escapar hacia ningún lado. Pues los soldados israelitas que huyeron hacia el desierto regresaron y los enfrentaron. 21 Cuando Josué y todo Israel vieron que los de la trampa había capturado la ciudad con el humo elevándose, ellos regresaron y mataron a los hombres de Hai. 22 Los otros soldados de Israel, aquellos que habían entrado a la ciudad, salieron a atacarlos. Así que, los hombres de Hai fueron atrapados entre el ejército de Israel, algunos por un lado y otros por el otro lado. Israel atacó a los hombres de Hai; ninguno sobrevivió o escapó. 23 Mantuvieron al rey de Hai vivo a quien habían capturado y lo trajeron delante de Josué. 24 Resultó ser que cuando Israel culminó la matanza de todos los habitantes de Hai, en el terreno cerca del desierto a donde habían sido perseguidos, y cuando todos, hasta el último de ellos, había caído a filo de espada, todo Israel regresó a Hai. Ellos la atacaron a filo de espada. 25 Todos los que cayeron ese día, hombres y mujeres, fueron doce mil, todo el pueblo de Hai. 26 Josué no bajó la mano, la que había extendido sujetando la lanza, hasta que destruyeron por completo el pueblo de Hai. 27 Israel solo tomó las reses y el botín de la ciudad, como le había ordenado EL SEÑOR a Josué. 28 Josué quemó a Hai y la convirtió en ruinas para siempre. Es un lugar abandonado hasta el día de hoy. 29 Colgó al rey de Hai en un árbol hasta la tarde. Cuando el sol se ocultaba, Josué dio la orden y bajaron el cuerpo del rey del árbol y lo tiraron frente los portones de la ciudad. Allí, hicieron una montaña de piedras encima del mismo. Esa montaña de piedras permanece ahí hasta el día de hoy. 30 Entonces Josué construyó un altar al SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, en el Monte Ebal, 31 justo como Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR había ordenado al pueblo de Israel, como estaba escrito en el libro de la ley de Moisés: "Un altar de piedras enteras, sobre las cuales nadie había moldeado con una herramienta de hierro." Y ofreció en éste ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR, y sacrificaron ofrendas de paz. 32 Y allí, en la presencia del pueblo de Israel, él escribió sobre las piedras, una copia de la ley de Moisés. 33 Todo Israel, sus ancianos, oficiales y sus jueces se pararon a ambos lados del arca ante los sacerdotes y los levitas quienes cargaban el arca del pacto del SEÑOR, los extranjeros como los nativos, la mitad de ellos se pararon al frente del Monte de Gerizim y la otra mitad se paró al frente del Monte Ebal. Ellos bendijeron al pueblo de Israel, justo como Moisés el siervo del

SEÑOR les había ordenado al principio. 34 Después de todo, Josué leyó todas las palabras de la ley, las bendiciones y las maldiciones, justo como habían sido escritas en el libro de la ley. 35 No hubo palabra, de todas las que Moisés hubiera ordenado, que Josué no leyó frente a la asamblea de Israel, incluyendo a las mujeres, los niños y los extranjeros que vivían entre ellos.

Joshua 8:1

No sientas miedo; no te desanimes
Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa. El SEÑOR los combina para enfatizar que allí no hay razón para temer.

Yo te he entregado en las manos al rey de Hai... y su tierra.
Dándolos en las manos de la victoria de Israel y tomando el control sobre ellos. TA: "Yo les he dado a ustedes la victoria sobre el rey de Hai y su pueblo y les he dado el control sobre esta ciudad y su tierra"

Yo te he entregado
Dios habla de lo que Él promete hacer así como lo que ya ha hecho, porque Él ciertamente lo hará. TA: "Yo ciertamente lo daré" o "Yo Soy dador"

Chapter 9

1 Todos los reyes que vivían cerca del Jordán, en las montañas y en los llanos, cerca de la costa del Mar Mediterráneo, hacia el Líbano, los Hititas, Amorreos, Cananeos, Ferezeos, Heveos y los Jebuseos, 2 se unieron bajo un comando para hacer guerra contra Josué e Israel. 3 Cuando los habitantes de Gabaón escucharon lo que Josué había hecho a los de Jericó y a los de Hai, 4 ellos actuaron con un astuto plan. Se hicieron pasar como mensajeros. Ellos tomaron ropas viejas y sacos usados y se los pusieron a los burros. También usaron odres viejos de vinos, deteriorados, estropeados y remendados. 5 Se pusieron sandalias viejas y remendadas en sus pies, y se vistieron con ropas viejas y gastadas. Todo el pan en sus provisiones estaba seco y mohoso. 6 Ellos fueron al campamento de Josué en Gilgal y le dijeron a él y a los hombres de Israel: "Nosotros hemos viajado de un país lejano, así que ahora haz un pacto con nosotros." 7 Los hombres de Israel le dijeron a los Hititas: "Quizás ustedes viven cerca de nosotros.¿Cómo vamos a hacer un pacto con ustedes?" 8 Ellos le dijeron a Josué: "Nostros somos tus siervos." Josué les preguntó: "¿Quiénes son? ¿De dónde vienen?" 9 Ellos le dijeron: "Tus siervos han venido de una tierra muy lejana hasta aquí, a causa del nombre del SEÑOR tu DIOS. Hemos escuchado un informe sobre ÉL y todo lo que hizo en Egipto 10 ; y de todo lo que le hizo a los dos reyes de los amorreos en el otro lado del Jordán, a Sehón rey de Hesbón, y a Og rey de Basán, que estaba en Astarot. 11 Los ancianos y todos los habitantes de nuestro país nos dijeron: 'Llévense provisiones en sus manos para el viaje. Reúnanse con ellos y díganles: "Somos tus siervos hagan un trato con nosotros." 12 Este es nuestro pan, estaba todavía caliente cuando lo tomamos de nuestras casas en el día que salimos para acá. Pero ahora, ve, que está seco y mohoso. 13 Estos odres de vino eran nuevos cuando los llenamos, y mira, ahora están rotos. Nuestras ropas y nuestras sandalias están gastadas del largo viaje.'" 14 Los israelitas tomaron algunas de sus provisiones, pero no consultaron la dirección del SEÑOR. 15 Josué hizo la paz con ellos e hizo un pacto con ellos, para dejarlos vivir. Los líderes de su pueblo también hicieron un pacto con ellos. 16 Tres días después que los israelitas hicieron pacto con ellos, se enteraron que ellos eran sus vecinos y vivían cerca. 17 Entonces el pueblo de Israel se fue a sus ciudades en el tercer día. Sus ciudades eran Gabaón, Cafira, Beerot y Quiriat Jearim. 18 Los israelitas no les atacaron porque sus líderes habían jurado con ellos ante EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel. Todos los israelitas estaban murmurando en contra de sus líderes. 19 Pero todos los líderes le dijeron a toda la gente: "Nosotros les hicimos un juramento por EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, y ahora no podemos hacerles daño. 20 Esto es lo que haremos con ellos: para evitar cualquier ira que venga sobre nosotros a causa del juramento que hicimos, los dejaremos vivir. 21 Los líderes le dijeron a su gente: "Dejémosles vivir." Así que los gabaonitas vinieron a ser los leñadores y los que llevaban el agua a todos los israelitas, así como sus líderes dijeron sobre ellos. 22 Josué los llamó y les dijo: "¿Por qué nos engañaron cuando nos dijeron: "Nosotros somos de muy lejos de aquí, cuando ustedes viven muy cerca de nosotros? 23 Ahora, por esto, son malditos y muchos de ustedes serán esclavos, aquellos que cortan la leña y llevan el agua para la casa de mi DIOS. 24 Ellos le contestaron a Josué: "Porque le fue dicho a tus sirvientes que EL SEÑOR tu DIOS, ordenó a su siervo Moisés darle toda la tierra, y destruir a todos los habitantes de esas tierras, así que teníamos miedo por nuestras vidas a causa de ti. Por eso fue que hicimos esto. 25 Ahora, mira, estamos bajo tu poder. Cualquier cosa que parezca buena o correcta para ti hacernos, hazlo." 26 Así que Josué hizo esto por ellos: los removió del control de la gente de Israel, y los israelitas no los mataron. 27 Ese día Josué hizo a los gabaonitas ser cortadores de leña y recogedores de agua para la comunidad, y para el altar del SEÑOR, hasta el día de hoy, en el sitio que EL SEÑOR escogió.

Chapter 10

1 Ahora Adonisedec, rey de Jerusalén, escuchó que Josué había capturado a Hai y la había destruido por completo, así como había hecho con Jericó y su rey. Y él escuchó cómo la gente de Gabaón habían hecho la paz con Israel y estaban viviendo entre ellos. 2 El pueblo de Jerusalén tenía mucho miedo porque Gabaón era una ciudad grande, como una de las ciudades reales. Era más grande que Hai y todos sus hombres eran poderosos guerreros. 3 Así que Adonisedec, rey de Jerusalén, envió un mensaje a Hoham rey de Hebrón, a Piream rey de Jarmut a Jafía rey de Laquis y a Debir rey de Eglón: 4 "Vengan a mí y ayúdenme. Ataquemos a Gabaón porque ellos hicieron paz con Josué y con el pueblo de Israel." 5 Los cinco reyes de los amorreos; el rey de Jerusalén, el rey de Hebrón, el rey de Jarmut, el rey de Laquis, y el rey de Eglón vinieron, ellos y todos sus ejércitos. Se posicionaron contra Gabaón y la atacaron. 6 El pueblo de Gabaón envió un mensaje a Josué y al ejército en Gilgal. Le dijeron: "¡Apúrense! No abandonen a sus siervos. Vengan a nosotros rápido y sálvennos. Ayúdenos, porque todos los reyes de los amorreos que viven en la montaña se han juntado para atacarnos." 7 Josué subió a Gilgal, él y todos los hombres de guerra con él, y todos los guerreros. 8 El SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: "No tengas miedo de ellos. Los he puesto en tus manos. Ninguno de ellos, será capaz de detener tu ataque." 9 Josué vino sobre ellos de repente, habiendo marchado toda la noche desde Gilgal. 10 Y EL SEÑOR confundió al enemigo delante de Israel, quien los mató con una gran mortandad en Gabaón, y los persiguió en el camino que sube hacia Bet Horón, y los mató en el camino hacia Azeca y Maceda. 11 Mientras ellos huían de Israel, bajando la montaña de Bet Horón, EL SEÑÓR lanzó grandes piedras desde el cielo sobre ellos todo el camino hacia Azeca, y murieron. Fueron más, quienes murieron a causa del granizo, que aquellos que fueron asesinados con la espada por los hombres de Israel. 12 Luego Josué habló con EL SEÑOR en el día que EL SEÑOR le dio a los hombres de Israel la victoria sobre los amorreos. Esto fue lo que dijo Josué delante de Israel: "! Sol, detente en Gabaón y luna, en el Valle de Ajalón¡." 13 El sol se detuvo, y la luna dejó de moverse hasta que la nación tomó venganza de sus enemigos. ¿No está esto escrito en el Libro de Jaser? El sol se detuvo en medio del cielo; y no se puso, casi por todo un día completo. 14 Nunca ha habido un día como éste antes o después de éste, cuando EL SEÑOR atendió la voz de un ser humano. Porque EL SEÑOR estaba haciendo guerra a favor de Israel. 15 Josué y todo Israel con él, regresaron al campamento en Gilgal. 16 Ahora los cinco reyes se habían escapado y escondido en la cueva en Maceda. 17 Le fue dicho a Josué: "¡Ellos fueron encontrados! Los cinco reyes escondidos en la cueva en Maceda!" 18 Josué dijo: "Rueden grandes piedras contra la boca de la cueva y coloquen soldados allí, para vigilarlos. 19 No se queden ustedes mismos. Persigan a sus enemigos y atáquenlos por atrás. No les permitan entrar a sus ciudades, porque EL SEÑÓR su DIOS se los ha dado en sus manos." 20 Josué y los hijos de Israel terminaron de matarlos con gran mortandad, hasta que estuvieron casi completamente destruidos; solo unos pocos sobrevivientes que escaparon, alcanzaron las ciudades fortificadas. 21 Luego el ejército entero, regresó en paz a Josué al campamento en Maceda. Y nadie se atrevió a decir una sola palabra en contra de ninguno del pueblo de Israel. 22 Luego Josué dijo: "Abran la entrada de la cueva y tráiganme a estos cinco reyes." 23 Ellos hicieron como él les dijo. Le trajeron a los cinco reyes de la cueva; el rey de Jerusalén, el rey de Hebrón, el rey de Jarmut, el rey de Laquis y el rey de Eglón. 24 Y cuando ellos le trajeron los reyes a Josué, él convocó a cada hombre de Israel, y les dijo a los comandantes de los soldados que fueron a la guerra con él: "Pongan sus pies sobre sus cuellos." Así que ellos vinieron y pusieron sus pies sobre sus cuellos. 25 Luego les dijo: "No tengan miedo ni se asusten. Sean fuertes y valientes. Esto es lo que EL SEÑOR hará con todos los enemigos con los que ustedes pelearán." 26 Luego Josué atacó y mató a los reyes. Los colgó en cinco árboles. Los colgó en los árboles hasta la tarde. 27 Cuando llegó el atardecer, Josué dio órdenes, y los descolgó de los árboles y los tiró dentro de la cueva en la que ellos se habían escondido. Pusieron grandes piedras en la entrada de la cueva. Esas piedras permanecen hasta el día de hoy. 28 De esta manera, Josué capturó Maceda en ese día y mató a todos allí con espada, incluyendo a su rey. Los destruyó completamente y a toda criatura viviente allí. No dejó ningún sobreviviente. Le hizo al rey de Maceda, así como él le había hecho al rey de Jericó. 29 Josué y todo Israel pasaron desde Maceda a Libna. Él fue a batalla contra Libna. 30 EL SEÑOR también los entregó en manos de Israel; junto con su rey. Josué atacó a toda criatura viviente con la espada. No dejó ningún sobreviviente. Le hizo al rey lo mismo que él le había hecho al rey de Jericó. 31 Luego Josué y todo Israel con él pasaron desde Libna a Laquis. Él acampó allí e hicieron guerra en contra de ellos. 32 EL SEÑOR entregó a Laquis en manos de Israel. Josué los capturó en el segundo día. Él atacó con su espada a toda criatura viviente que había allí, así como había hecho con Libna. 33 Luego Horam, rey de Gezer, vino a ayudar a Laquis. Josué lo atacó a él y a su ejército hasta que no quedó ningún sobreviviente. 34 Luego Josué y todo Israel pasaron desde Laquis a Eglón. Ellos acamparon allí e hicieron guerra en contra de ellos, [35] y los capturaron ese mismo día. Ellos los hirieron con espada y destruyeron completamente a todos, así como Josué había hecho a Laquis. [36] Luego Josué y todo Israel pasaron desde Eglón a Hebrón. Hicieron guerra en contra de ellos. [37] Les capturaron y los hirieron a todos con la espada, incluyendo al rey y a todas las villas que estaban alrededor. Destruyeron completamente toda criatura viviente allí, sin dejar sobrevivientes, así como Josué había hecho a Eglón. Él lo destruyó completamente y a toda criatura viviente en él. [38] Luego Josué regresó, y todo el ejército de Israel con él, y pasaron por Debir e hicieron guerra en contra de ellos. [39] Él los capturó a ellos y a su rey, y a todas las villas cercanas. Los hirieron con la espada y destruyeron completamente toda criatura viviente que estaba allí. Josué no dejó sobrevivientes, así como él había hecho a Hebrón y su rey, y así como había hecho a Libna y su rey. [40] Josué conquistó toda la tierra, las montañas, el Néguev, los llanos y las laderas. De todos los reyes, no dejó sobreviviente. Destruyo completamente todo ser viviente, así como EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, había ordenado. [41] Josué los hirió con la espada desde Cades Barnea hasta Gaza y todo el país de Gosén hasta Gabaón. [42] Josué capturó todos estos reyes y sus tierras de una vez porque EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, luchó por Israel. [43] Luego Josué, y todo Israel con él, regresaron al campamento en Gilgal.

Chapter 11

1 Cuando Jabín, el rey de Hazor, escuchó esto, le envió un mensaje a Jobab, el rey de Madón, al rey de Simrón y al rey de Acsaf. 2 También envió el mensaje a los reyes que estaban en las colinas del norte, en el valle del Río Jordán al sur de Cineret, en los llanos, y en las montañas de Dor hacia el oeste. 3 También envió el mensaje a los Cananeos al este y al oeste, los amorreos, los hititas, los ferezeos, los jebuseos en la región montañosa y los heveos junto al Monte Hermón en la tierra de Mizpa. 4 Todos sus ejércitos salieron con ellos, un gran número de soldados, era en número como la arena a la orilla del mar. Tenían un gran número de caballos y carros. 5 Todos estos reyes se encontraron a la hora señalada, y ellos acamparon junto a las aguas de Merom para hacer guerra con Israel. 6 El SEÑOR le dijo a Josué, "No tengas miedo en su presencia, porque mañana a esta hora voy a entregarlos todos a Israel como hombres muertos. Desjarretarás sus caballos y quemarás sus carros." 7 Josué y todos los guerreros vinieron. Llegaron de pronto a las aguas de Merom, y atacaron al enemigo. 8 El SEÑOR entregó al enemigo en la mano de Israel, y los hirieron con la espada y los persiguieron a Sidón, Misrefot Maim, y al valle de Mizpa al este. Los hirieron hasta no dejar sobrevivientes. 9 Josué les hizo así como EL SEÑOR le dijo. Desjarretó los caballos y quemó los carros. 10 Josué regresó en ese tiempo y capturó a Hazor. Hirió a su rey con la espada. (Hazor había sido el cabecilla de todos esos reinos.) 11 Hirieron con la espada a cada criatura viviente que había allí, y los puso aparte para ser destruidos, así que no hubo criatura viviente. Entonces él quemó a Hazor. 12 Josué capturó a todas las ciudades de estos reyes. También capturó a todos sus reyes y los hirió con la espada. Los destruyó por completo con la espada, así como Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR había mandado. 13 Israel no quemó a ninguna de las ciudades edificadas sobre colinas, excepto Hazor. Solo a esta quemó Josué. 14 El ejército de Israel tomó para sí mismo todo el botín de estas ciudades juntamente con el ganado. Ellos mataron a todo ser humano con la espada hasta que todos murieron. No dejaron con vida a ninguna criatura. 15 Así como EL SEÑOR había mandado a su siervo Moisés, de la misma manera, Moisés mandó a Josué, Y así, Josué lo hizo. Él no dejó sin resolver nada, de todo lo que EL SEÑOR le mandó hacer a Moisés. 16 Josué tomó toda esa tierra, la región montañosa, todo el Néguev, toda la tierra de Gosén, las tierras bajas, el valle del Río Jordán, la región montañosa de Israel, y las llanuras. 17 Desde el Monte Halac cerca de Edom, y yendo tan al norte como Baal Gad en el valle cerca del Líbano abajo del Monte Hermón, el capturó a todos sus reyes y los mató. 18 Josué hizo guerra por un largo tiempo con todos los reyes. 19 Ni una ciudad hizo paz con el ejército de Israel excepto los heveos que viven en Gabaón. Israel capturó todas las demás ciudades en batalla. 20 Porque fue EL SEÑOR quien había endurecido sus corazones para que vinieran e hicieran guerra contra Israel, para que ÉL pudiera destruirlos completamente, y no mostrarles misericordia, así como instruyó a Moisés. 21 Entonces Josué vino en ese tiempo y destruyó los anaceos. Esto hizo en la región montañosa en Hebrón, Debir, Anab y en toda la región montañosa de Judá, y en toda la región montañosa de Israel. Josué los destruyó completamente y sus ciudades. 22 Ninguno de los anaceos quedaron en la tierra de Israel excepto en Gaza, Gat, y Asdod. 23 Así capturó Josué toda la tierra, así como EL SEÑOR dijo a Moisés. Josué lo dio como una heredad a Israel, asignado a cada uno de sus tribus. Entonces la tierra tuvo descanso de las guerras.

Chapter 13

1 Ahora Josué estaba muy anciano cuando EL SEÑOR le dijo: "Estás muy anciano, pero todavía hay mucha tierra para conquistar." 2 Esta es la tierra que aún queda: todas las regiones de los filisteos y todas las de los gesuritas, 3 (desde Sihor, que está al este de Egipto, y al norte hacia la frontera de Ecrón, que se considera propiedad de los cananeos; los cinco gobernantes de Filistea: los de Gaza, Asdod, Ascalón, Get y Ecrón, los territorios de los aveos). 4 En el sur, todavía están todas las tierras de los cananeos, y Mehara que le pertenece a los sidonios, hasta Afec, hasta la frontera de los amorreos; 5 la tierra de los giblitas, todo el Líbano hacia el Oriente, desde Baal Gad debajo del Monte Hermón hasta Lebo Hamat. 6 También, todos los habitantes de la parte montañosa del Líbano hasta Misrefot Maim, incluyendo toda la gente de Sidón. Los llevaré afuera delante del ejército de Israel. Asegúrense de asignar la tierra a Israel como herencia, como se los he encomendado. 7 Dividan esta tierra como herencia a las nueve tribus y a la media tribu de Manasés." 8 Con la otra media tribu de Manasés, los rubenitas y los gaditas recibieron la herencia que Moisés les dio al este del Jordán, 9 desde Aroer, que está en la esquina del Valle del Río Arnón (incluyendo la ciudad que está en el medio del valle), hasta la meseta de Medeba y tan lejos como Dibón; 10 todas las ciudades de Sehón, rey de los amorreos, que reinó en Hesbón, hasta la frontera con los amonitas; 11 Galaad, y la región de los gesuritas y maacateos, todo el Monte Hermón, todo Basán hasta Salca; 12 todo el reino de Og en Basán, que reinó en Astarot y en Edrei (esto es lo que quedaba del remanente de los refaítas) Moisés los hirió y los expulsó. 13 Pero el pueblo de Israel no expulsó a los gesuritas o a los maacateos. Al contrario, Gesur y Maaca viven entre el pueblo de Israel hasta este día. 14 A la tribu de Leví solamente Moisés no les dio herencia. Las ofrendas del SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, hechas por fuego, son su herencia, como dijo DIOS a Moisés. 15 Moisés dio una herencia a la tribu de Rubén, clan por clan. 16 Su territorio era desde Aroer, en la esquina del Valle del Río Arnón, y la ciudad que estaba en el medio del valle, y toda la llanura de Medeba. 17 Rubén también recibió a Hesbón, y todas las ciudades que están en la llanura, Dibón, Bamot Baal y Bet Baal Meón, 18 y Jahaza, y Cademot, y Mefaat, 19 y Quiriataim, y Sibma, y Zaret Sahar en la colina del valle. 20 Rubén también recibió a Bet Peor, las laderas de Pisga, Bet Jesimot, 21 todas las ciudades de la meseta, y todo el reino de Sehón, rey de los Amorreos, que reinó en Hesbón, quien Moisés venció junto con los líderes de Madián, Evi, Requem, Zur, Hur y Reba, los príncipes de Sehón, que habitaron en las tierras. 22 El pueblo de Israel también mató con la espada a Balaam hijo de Beor, quien practicaba la adivinación, junto con el resto de los que ellos habían matado. 23 La frontera de la tribu de Rubén es el Río Jordán; este es su borde. Esta era la herencia de la tribu de Rubén, dado a cada uno de los clanes, con sus ciudades y aldeas. 24 Esto es lo que Moisés le dio a la tribu de Gad, clan por clan: 25 Su territorio era Jazer, todas las ciudades de Galaad y la mitad de la tierra de los amonitas, hasta Aroer, que está al este de Rabá, 26 desde Hesbón hasta Ramat Mizpa y Betonim, desde Mahanaim hasta el territorio de Debir. 27 En el valle, Moisés les dio a Bet Aram, Bet Nimra, Sucot y Zafón, el resto del reino de Sehón, rey de Hesbón, con el Jordán como frontera, hasta la parte baja del Mar de Cineret, al este más allá del Jordán. 28 Esta es la herencia de la tribu de Gad, clan por clan, con sus ciudades y aldeas. 29 Moisés dio una herencia a la media tribu de Manasés. Fue asignado a la media tribu de la gente de Manasés, de acuerdo a sus clanes. 30 Su territorio era desde Mahanaim, todo Basán, todo el reino de Og rey de Basán, y todas las ciudades de Jair, que están en Basán, sesenta ciudades; 31 la mitad de Galaad, y Astarot y Edrei (ciudades del reino de Og en Basán). Estas fueron asignadas al clan de Maquir hijo de Manasés (la mitad de la gente de Maquir, dada a cada una de las familias). 32 Esta es la herencia que Moisés le asignó a ellos en las llanuras de Moab, más allá del Jordán al este de Jericó. 33 Moisés no le dio herencia a la tribu de Leví. El SEÑOR, DIOS de Israel, es su herencia, justo como les dijo a ellos.

Chapter 14

1 Estas son las áreas de la tierra que el pueblo de Israel recibió como su herencia en la tierra de Canaán, asignadas a ellos por Eleazar el sacerdote, por Josué hijo de Nun, y por los líderes de las tribu de las familias de sus ancestros dentro del pueblo de Israel. 2 La herencia de ellos fue seleccionada por suerte para las nueve tribus, y para la media tribu, tal como EL SEÑOR había ordenado mediante la mano de Moisés. 3 Porque Moisés le había dado herencia a las dos tribus y media más allá del Jordán, pero a los levitas no les dio herencia. 4 La tribu de José era en realidad dos tribus, Manasés y Efraín. Y ninguna porción de la herencia le fue dada a los levitas en la tierra, sino solamente ciertas ciudades para vivir, con sus tierras para ganado y para sus propios recursos materiales. 5 El pueblo de Israel hizo como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés, así que ellos asignaron la tierra. 6 Luego, la tribu de Judá vino a donde Josué en Gilgal. Caleb, hijo de Jefone, el cenezeo, le dijo a él: "Tú sabes lo que EL SEÑÓR le dijo a Moisés, el hombre de DIOS, acerca de ti y de mí en Cades Barnea. 7 Yo tenía cuarenta años de edad cuando Moisés, el sirviente del SEÑOR, me envió desde Cades Barnea para espíar en la tierra. Yo le traje un reporte, como estaba en mi corazón hacerlo. 8 Pero mis hermanos quienes subieron conmigo hicieron que el corazón de las personas se derritiera con miedo. Pero yo seguí completamente al SEÑOR mi DIOS. 9 Moisés juró en ese día, diciendo: "Seguramente la tierra en la cual tu pie ha caminado será una herencia para ti y para tus hijos para siempre, porque tú completamente has seguido al SEÑOR mi DIOS." 10 ¡Ahora, mira! EL SEÑOR me ha mantenido vivo estos cuarenta y cinco años, tal como Él dijo, desde el tiempo en que EL SEÑOR habló esta palabra a Moisés, mientras Israel caminó en el desierto. ¡Ahora, observa! Hoy tengo ochenta y cinco años de edad. 11 Este día todavía soy igual de fuerte como lo estaba en el día que Moisés me envió fuera. Mi fuerza ahora está como estaba entonces, para la guerra y para ir y venir. 12 Ahora, por lo tanto, dame esta tierra montañosa, la cual EL SEÑOR me prometió en ese día. Porque tú oíste en ese día, que los anaceos estaban allí con grandes ciudades fortificadas. Puede ser que EL SEÑOR esté conmigo y que yo los eche fuera, tal como dijo EL SEÑOR." 13 Luego, Josué lo bendijo y le dio Hebrón como una herencia a Caleb hijo de Jefone. 14 Por lo tanto, Hebrón se convirtió en la herencia de Caleb, hijo de Jefone el enezeo hasta este día, porque él completamente siguió al SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel. 15 Ahora, el nombre de Hebrón antes era Quiriat Arba. (Arba ha sido el mejor hombre entre los anaceos.) Entonces la tierra descansó de la guerra.

Chapter 15

1 La designación de la tierra para la tribu del pueblo de Judá, dada a sus clanes, se extendía al sur de la frontera de Edom, con el desierto de Zin, siendo el punto más lejano al sur. 2 Su frontera en el sur corría desde el final del Mar Salado, desdes la bahía que da hacia el sur. 3 Su próximo límite salía al sur de la montaña de Acrabim y pasaba junto a Zin, y subía hacia el sur de Cades Barnea, junto a Hezrón, y arriba hasta Adar, donde volvía hasta Carca. 4 Pasaba junto a Asmón, iba por el arroyo de Egipto y llegaba a su final en el mar. Este era su límite sur. 5 El borde este era el Mar Salado, en la desembocadura del Jordán. La frontera en el norte, corría desde la bahía del mar en la desembocadura del Jordán. 6 Subía hasta Bet Hogla pasando junto al norte de Bet Arabá. Entonces, subía hasta la Piedra de Bohán hijo de Rubén. 7 Entonces la frontera subía hasta Debir desde el valle de Acor, y también hacia el norte, girando hacia Gilgal, el cual era al lado opuesto de la colina de Adumín, el cual está en el lado sur del valle. Luego, la frontera pasaba junto a los manatiales de Semes e iba hasta Rogel. 8 Luego, subía por el Valle de Ben Hinom hacia el lado sur de la ciudad de Jebús (que es Jerusalén). Entonces subía hasta el tope de la colina que se extiende sobre el valle de Hinom, en el oeste, el cual está al norte donde termina el valle de Refaim. 9 Entonces, la frontera se extendía desde el tope de las colinas hasta el manantial de Neftoa, y de ahí salía hacia las ciudades del Monte Efrón. Entonces, doblaba alrededor de Baala (lo mismo que Quiriat Jearim). 10 Entonces, la frontera circundaba hacia el oeste de Baala hacia el Monte Seir, y pasaba cerca del lado del Monte Jearim al norte (el mismo que Quesalón), bajando a Bet Semes, y cruzando sobre Timna. 11 La frontera salía junto a la colina del norte de Ecrón, circundando hacia Sicrón y pasaba a lo largo del Monte de Baala, desde allí hasta Jabneel. La frontera terminaba en el mar. 12 El límite hacia el oeste era el Mar Grande y su costa. Esta era la frontera alrededor de la tribu de Judá, clan por clan. 13 Para cumplir el mandato del SEÑOR a Josué, Josué le dio a Caleb, hijo de Jefone, una asignación de tierra en medio de la tribu de Judá, Quiriat Arba, que es Hebrón (Arba fue padre de Anac). 14 Caleb expulsó de allí a los tres hijos de Anac: Sesai, Ahimán y Talmai, descendientes de Anac. 15 Desde allí subió contra los habitantes de Debir (Debir que se llamaba Quiriat Séfer) 16 Caleb dijo: '"El hombre que ataque Quiriat Séfer y lo capture, a él le daré mi hija Acsa como esposa". 17 Cuando Otoniel hijo de Quenaz, hermano de Caleb, la capturó, Caleb le dio a su hija Acsa como esposa. 18 Poco después, Acsa vino a Otoniel y le instó para que le pidiera a su padre un pedazo de tierra. Y cuando ella se bajó del burro, Caleb le dijo a su hija: "¿Qué quieres?" 19 Acsa le respondió: "Hazme un favor especial, ya que me diste la tierra del Néguev, dame también algunos manantiales de agua". Y Caleb le dio los manantiales de agua de las partes altas y bajas. 20 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Judá, que se le dio a sus clanes. 21 Las ciudades pertenecientes a la tribu de Judá en el extremo sur, hacia la frontera de Edom, eran Caseel, Edar, Jagur, 22 Cina, Dimona, Adda, 23 Cedes, Hazor, Itnán, 24 Zif, Telem, Bealot. 25 Hazor Hadata, Queriot Hezrón, (es decir Hazor), 26 Aman, Sema, Molada, 27 Hazar Gada, Hesmón, Bet, Pelet, 28 Hazar Sual, Beerseba, Bizotia. 29 Baala, Iim, Esem, 30 Eltolad, Quesil, Horma, 31 Siclag, Madmana, Sansana, 32 Lebaot, Silhim, Aín, y Rimón; en total veintinueve ciudades con sus aldeas. 33 En la parte baja montañosa hacia el oeste, estaban Estaol, Zora, Asena, 34 Zanoa, En Ganim, Tapúa, Enam, 35 Jarmut, Adulam, Soco, Azeca, 36 Saaraim, Aditaim, y Gedera (que es Gederotaim). Eran catorce ciudades en número, incluyendo sus aldeas. 37 Zenán, Hadasa, Migdal, 38 Dileán, Mizpa, Jocteel, 39 Laquis, Boscat, Eglón. 40 Cabón, Lahmam, Quitlis, 41 Gederoth, Bet Dagón, Naama y Maceda. Estas eran dieciséis ciudades en número, incluyendo sus aldeas. 42 Libna, Eter, Asán, 43 Jifta, Asena, Nezib, 44 Keila, Aczib y Maresa. Estas eran nueve ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 45 Ecrón, con sus pueblos circundantes y aldeas; 46 desde Ecrón hasta el Gran Mar, todo los asentamientos que estaban cerca de Asdod, incluyendo sus aldeas. 47 Asdod, y sus pueblos circundantes y aldeas; Gaza, sus pueblos circundantes y aldeas; hacia el arroyo de Egipto, y hacia el Gran Mar con su costa. 48 En la parte montañosa, Samir, Jatir, Soco, 49 Dana, Quiriat Sana (esta es Debir), 50 Anab, Estemoa, Anim, 51 Gosén, Holón y Gilo. Había once ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 52 Arab, Duma, Esán, 53 Janum, Bet Tapúa, Afeca, 54 Humta, Quiriat Arba, (esta es, Hebrón), y Zior. Estas eran nueve ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 55 Maón, Carmel, Zif, Juta, 56 Jezreel, Jocdeam, Zanoa, 57 Caín, Guibeá, y Timna. Estas eran diez ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 58 Halhul, Bet Sur, Gedor, 59 Maarat, Bet Anot y Eltecón. Estas eran seis ciudades, inluyendo sus aldeas. 60 Quriat Baal, (es decir Qiriat Jearim), y Rabá. Estas eran dos ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 61 En el desierto, estaban Bet Arabá, Midín, Secaca, 62 Nibsán, la Ciudad de Sal y Engadi. Estas eran seis ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 63 Pero en cuanto a los jebuseos, habitantes de Jerusalén, la tribu de Judá, no los pudieron expulsar, por lo que los jebuseos habitan allí con la tribu de Judá hasta el día de hoy.

Chapter 16

1 La designación de la tierra para la tribu de José se extendió desde el Jordán en Jericó, al este de los manantiales de Jericó, entrando al desierto, subiendo desde Jericó a través de la ciudad montañosa de Betel. 2 Y desde Betel hasta Luz pasando a lo largo de Atarot, el territorio de los arquitas. 3 Bajando hacia el oeste al territorio de los jafletitas, hasta el territorio bajo de Bet Horón y luego hasta Gezer; terminando en el océano. 4 Fue de esta forma que las tribus de José, Manasés y Efraín recibieron su heredad. 5 El territorio de la tribu de Efraín que fue asignado a sus clanes fue como sigue: la frontera de su herencia al este fue desde Atarot Adar hasta Bet Horón de arriba 6 y desde allí continuó al mar. Desde Micmetat, al norte, circundaba hacia el este hasta Tanat Siló y pasaba más allá al este de Janoa. 7 Desde Janoa bajó hasta Atarot y Naarat hasta alcanzar Jericó, finalizando en el Jordán. 8 Desde Tapúa, la frontera fue hacia el oeste de la quebrada de Caná y finalizó en el mar. Esta era la herencia de la tribu de Efraín, asignada a sus clanes, 9 junto con las ciudades que fueron escogidas para la tribu de Efraín dentro de la herencia de la tribu de Manasés, todas las ciudades, así como sus aldeas. 10 Ellos no echaron fuera a los cananeos quienes vivían en Gezer, así que los cananeos viven dentro de Efraín hasta este día, pero estas personas fueron obligadas a realizar trabajos forzados.

Chapter 17

1 Esta fue la designación de tierra para la tribu de Manasés (quien fue el primero de los hijos de José), esto es, por Maquir, quien fue el primer hijo de Manasés y quien él mismo fue el padre de Galaad. Los desendientes de Maquir fueron asignados a la tierra de Galaad y Basán, porque Maquir había sido un hombre de guerra. 2 La tierra fue asignada al resto de la tribu de Manasés dada a sus clanes, Abiezer, Helec, Asriel, Siquem, Hefer y Semida. Estos fueron los descendientes varones de Manasés, hijo de José, presentado por sus clanes. 3 Ahora, Zelofehad, hijo de Hefer, hijo de Galaad, hijo de Maquir, hijo de Manasés, no tuvo hijos sino solo hijas. Los nombres de sus hijas fueron Malaa, Noa, Hogla, Milka y Tirsa. 4 Ellas se acercaron a Eleazar el sacerdote, a Josué hijo de Nun, y a sus líderes y les dijeron: "EL SEÑOR le ordenó a Moisés darnos una herencia junto con nuestros hermanos." Así que, siguiendo el mandato del SEÑOR, él le dio a esas mujeres una herencia junto con los hermanos de su padre. 5 Diez parcelas de tierra fueron asignadas a Manasés en Galaad y Basán el cual está en el otro lado del Jordán, 6 porque las hijas de Manasés recibieron una herencia junto con sus hijos. La tierra de Galaad fue asignada al resto de la tribu de Manasés. 7 El territorio de Manasés se extendía desde Aser hasta Micmetat, el cual estaba al este de Siquem. Entonces, la frontera estaba al sur de los que vivían cerca de Tapúa. 8 (La tierra de Tapúa le pertenecía a Manasés, pero el pueblo de Tapúa en la frontera de Manasés, le pertenecía a la tribu de Efraín.) 9 La frontera descendía al arroyo de Caná. Estas cuidades al sur del arroyo entre los pueblos de Manasés le pertenecían a Efraín. La frontera de Manasés era en el lado norte del arroyo, y terminaba en el mar. 10 La tierra al sur le pertenecía a Efraín, y la tierra del norte a Manasés; el mar era la frontera. En el lado norte, Aser podía ser alcanzado y al este, Isacar. 11 También en Isacar y en Aser, Manasés poseía Bet Seán y sus aldeas, Ibleam y sus aldeas, los habitantes de Dor y sus aldeas, los habitantes de Endor y sus aldeas, los habitantes de Tanaac y sus aldeas, y los habitantes de Meguido y sus aldeas (y la tercera cuidad es Náfet). 12 Pero la tribu de Manasés no pudo tomar posesión de aquellas cuidades, porque los cananeos continuaban viviendo en esta tierra. 13 Cuando las personas de Israel se hicieron mas poderosos, ellos forzaron a los cananeos a trabajo mas duro, pero no los expulsaron completamente. 14 Entonces, los descendientes de José le dijeron a Josué, diciendo: "¿Por qué nos has dado solamente una asignación de tierra y una porción por heredad, si nosotros somos muchos en número, y a todos juntos EL SEÑOR nos ha bendecido?" 15 Josué les dijo: "Si ustedes son un pueblo grande en número, vayan ustedes mismos al bosque y allí despejen la tierra por ustedes mismos en la tierra de los ferezeos y la de los refaías. Hagan esto, ya que el campo de Efraín es muy pequeño para ustedes.'' 16 Los descendientes de José dijeron: "La región montañosa no es suficiente para nosotros. Pero todos los cananeos que viven en el campo tienen carros de guerra de hierro, tanto los que están en Bet Seán y sus aldeas, como aquellos quienes están en el valle de Jezreel." 17 Entonces, Josué le dijo a la casa de José, a Efraín y Manasés: "Tú eres un pueblo grande en número y tienes mucho poder. Tú no puedes tener solo una parte de tierra asignada para ti. 18 La región montañosa también será tuya. Aunque es un bosque, lo despejarás y tomarás posesión del mismo hasta los límites más lejanos. Echarás fuera a los cananeos, aunque ellos tengan carros de guerra de hierro, y aunque ellos sean fuertes."

Chapter 18

1 Entonces toda la asamblea del pueblo de Israel se reunió en Silo. Ellos establecieron la carpa de las reuniones allí y conquistaron la tierra delante de ellos. 2 Todavía había siete tribus entre la gente de Israel que no se le había repartido su herencia. 3 Josué le dijo a la gente de Israel: "¿Cuánto más van a esperar para entrar en la tierra que EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de sus antepasados, les ha entregado?" 4 Elijan tres hombres de cada tribu, y yo los enviaré. Ellos saldrán e inspeccionarán la tierra de arriba a abajo. Ellos escribirán una descripción de lo que vean de sus herencias, y luego volverán a mí. 5 Ellos la dividirán en siete partes. Judá permanecerá en su territorio en el sur, y la casa de José permanecerá en su territorio en el norte. 6 Ustedes describirán el territorio en siete partes y me traerán la descripción aquí. Yo echaré suerte por ustedes aquí delante del SEÑOR nuestro DIOS. 7 Los levitas no tienen parte entre ustedes, porque el sacerdocio del SEÑOR es su herencia. Gad, Rubén y la media tribu de Manasés han recibido su herencia, más allá del Jordán. Esta es la herencia que Moisés, el siervo del SEÑOR, les dio." 8 Así que los hombres se levantaron y se fueron. Josué ordenó a los que fueron a escribir la descripción de la tierra, diciendo: "Vayan de arriba a abajo en la tierra y escriban una descripción de ella y regresen a mí. Yo echaré la suerte por ustedes aquí ante EL SEÑOR en Silo." 9 Los hombres se fueron y caminaron de arriba a bajo en la tierra y escribieron una descripción de ella en un rollo por sus ciudades en siete partes, enumerando las ciudades en cada parte. Entonces ellos regresaron a Josué, en el campamento de Silo. 10 Entonces Josué echó la suerte para ellos en Silo delante del SEÑOR. Y allí Josué repartió la tierra a la gente de Israel, a cada uno se le dio su porción de la tierra. 11 El encargo de la tierra para la tribu de Benjamín fue dado a cada uno de sus clanes. El territorio de su tierra asignada estaba localizado entre los descendientes de Judá y los descendientes de José. 12 En el lado del norte, su frontera comenzaba en el Jordán. La frontera subió por el filo al norte de Jericó, y luego subió por las colinas hacia el oeste. Ahí llegó al desierto de Bet-avén. 13 De ahí la frontera pasó a lo largo del sur en la dirección de Luz (el mismo lugar que Betel). Entonces la frontera descendió hasta Atarot-Adar, por la montaña que está al sur de Bet-Horón. 14 La frontera entonces se dirigió en otra dirección: al lado oeste bajó hacia el sur, dirigiéndose a la montaña al frente a Bet-Horón. Esta frontera terminó en Quiriat-Baal (es decir, Quiriat-jearim), una ciudad que le perteneció a la tribu de Judá. Esto formó la frontera en el lado oeste. 15 El lado sur empezó justo fuera de Quiriat-Jearim. La frontera iba de ahí a Efrón, al estanque de las aguas de Neftoa. 16 La frontera entonces bajó hasta el borde de la montaña que estaba opuesta al valle de Ben-Hinom, el cual estaba al extremo norte del valle de Refaim. Entonces bajó al valle de Hinom, al sur de la ladera de los Jebuseos, y continuó bajando a En-Rogel. 17 Subió hacia el norte, yendo en dirección de En-semes, y desde ahí salió hacia Geliot, el cual estaba opuesto a la subida de Adumín. Entonces bajó hacia la piedra de Bohán, el hijo de Rubén. 18 Pasó hacia el norte del risco de Bet-arabá y bajó hasta el Arabá. 19 La frontera pasó al risco norte de Bet-hogla. La frontera terminó en la bahía norte del Mar Salado, al extremo sur del Jordán. Este fue el límite en el sur. 20 El Jordán formó su límite en el lado este. Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Benjamín, y le fue dada a cada uno de sus clanes, límite tras límite, a todo alrededor. 21 Ahora las ciudades de la tribu de Benjamín, según sus clanes eran: Jericó, Bet Hogla, Emec Casis, 22 Bet Arabá, Zemaraim, Betel, 23 Avim, Pará, Ofra, 24 Quefar Haamoni, Ofni y Geba. Eran doce ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 25 También estaban las ciudades de Gabaón, Ramá, Beerot, 26 Mizpa, Cafira, Mozah, 27 Requem, Irpeel, Tarala, 28 Zela, Elef, Jebús (la misma que es Jerusalén), Guibeá y Quiriat. Había catorce ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. Esta fue la herencia de Benjamín para sus clanes.

Chapter 19

1 La segunda suerte le tocó a Simeón para cada una de las tribus. Su herencia fue en medio de la herencia que pertenecía a la tribu de Judá. 2 Tenían como herencia, Berseba, Seba, Molada, 3 Hazar Sual, Bala, Ezem, 4 Eltolad, Betul y Horma. 5 También Simeón tenía Silcag, Bet-marcabot, 6 Bet-lebaot, y Saruhén. Estas fueron trece ciudades, con sus aldeas. 7 Simeón tenía Ain, Remón, Eter, y Asán. Estas fueron cuatro ciudades, con sus aldeas. 8 Estas con sus aldeas llegaban hasta Baalat-beer (que es Ramat en el Néguev). Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Simeón dada a sus clanes. 9 La herencia de la tribu de Simeón formó parte del territorio de la tribu de Judá. Por ser tan grande la tierra dada a la tribu de Judá, Simeón recibió su herencia de en medio de la tribu de Judá. 10 La tercera suerte le tocó a la tribu de Zabulón y fue dada a sus clanes. La frontera de su herencia llegaba hasta Sarid. 11 Su frontera llegaba hasta el oeste hacia Marala, tocaba Debeset y hasta el arroyo frente a Jocneam. 12 De Sarid la frontera giraba hacia el este, la frontera de Quislot Tobar. De ahí hacia Deberat luego hasta Jafía. 13 De ahí siguió al oriente hacia Garat Jefer, y luego hacia Ita-Cazin; luego hacia Rimón rodeando hacia Nea. 14 La frontera hizo un rodeo al norte hacia Hanatón y terminó en el valle de Jefte 15 Esta región incluyó las ciudades de Katat, Naalal, Simrón, Idala, y Belén. Habían doce ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 16 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Zabulón que fue dada a sus clanes, las ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 17 La cuarta suerte le tocó a Isacar, y fue dada a sus clanes. 18 su territorio incluyó Jezreel, Quesulot, Sunem, 19 Hafaraim, Sihón, y Anaharat. 20 También incluía Rabit, Quisión, Abez, 21 Remet, En Ganim, En Hada y Bet Pases. 22 También su frontera tocaba Tabor, Sahazima, y Bet Semes, y terminaba en el Jordán. Habían dieciséis ciudades incluyendo sus aldeas. 23 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Isacar, y fue dada sus clanes, las ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 24 La quinta suerte le tocó a la tribu de Aser, y fue dada a sus clanes. 25 Su territorio incluyó Helcat, Halí, Beten, Acsaf, 26 Alamelec, Amad, y Miseal. En el oeste la frontera extendía hasta Monte Carmelo y Sihor Libnat. 27 Luego volteó hacia el oriente Bet Dagon y fue tan lejos, hasta Zabulón, y luego al valle de Jefte. El norte hasta Bet Emec y Neiel. 28 Luego continuó hasta Cabul, hacia el norte. Entonces continuó a Hebrón, Rehob, Hamón, y Caná, hasta Sidón. 29 La frontera dobló hacia Ramá, y luego hacia la ciudad fortificada de Tiro. Luego la frontera doblaba hacia Hosa y terminó en el mar, en la región de Aczib, 30 Uma, Afec, y Rehob. Habían veintidós ciudades incluyendo sus aldeas. 31 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Aser, y fue dada a sus clanes, las ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 32 La sexta suerte cayó sobre la tribu de Neftalí, y fue dada a sus clanes. 33 Su frontera corría desde Helef, desde la encina de Saananim, hacia Adami Neceb y Jabneel, tan lejos como Lacum; terminó en el Jordán. 34 La frontera volteó al oeste a Aznot Tobar y fue a Hucoc; tocó a Zabulón por el sur, y alcanzó Aser en el oeste y Judá en el este del Río Jordán. 35 Las ciudades fortificadas eran Sidim, Zer, Hamat, Racat, Cineret, 36 Adama, Ramá, Hazor, 37 Cedes, Edrei, y En Hazor. 38 También estaban Irón, Migdal El, Horem, Bet Anat, y Bet Semes. Habían diecinueve ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 39 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Neftalí, y fue dada a sus clanes, las ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 40 El séptimo lanzamiento de suerte cayó sobre la tribu de Dan, y le fue dada a sus clanes. 41 El territorio de su herencia incluyó a Zora, Estaol, Irsemes, 42 Saalabín, Ajalón y Jetla. 43 También incluía a Elón, Timnat, Ecrón, 44 Elteque, Gibetón, Baalat, 45 Jehúd, Bene Berac, Gat Rimón, 46 Mejarcrón y Racón, junto con el territorio que cruza desde Jope. 47 Cuando faltó territorio a la tribu de Dan; Dan atacó Lesem, luchó en contra de ella y la capturó. Ellos mataron a todos con espada, tomaron posesión de ella y se establecieron alli. Ellos renombraron a Lesem, la llamaron Dan, debido a su antecesor. 48 Esta fue la herencia de la tribu de Dan, y les fue dada a sus clanes, las ciudades, incluyendo sus aldeas. 49 Cuando ellos terminaron la distribución de la tierra como una herencia, el pueblo de Israel dio una herencia de entre ellos mismos a Josué, hijo de Nun. 50 Por el mandato del SEÑOR, ellos le dieron a él la ciudad que él pidió, Timnat Sera en la zona montañosa de Efraín. Él reconstruyó la ciudad y vivió allí. 51 Estas son las herencias que Eleazar el sacerdote, Josué hijo de Nun, y los líderes de tribu de las familias de sus antepasados entre el pueblo de Israel, asignaron por suerte en Silo, ante EL SEÑOR, en la entrada de la tienda de encuentro. Así que ellos terminaron de asignar la tierra.

Chapter 20

1 Entonces EL SEÑOR le dijo a Josué: 2 "Háblale al pueblo de Israel diciendo: 'Escojan las ciudades de refugio de las cuales Yo les dije a través de las escrituras de Moisés. 3 Hagan esto para que la persona que asesine a otra sin intención pueda refugiarse allí. Estas ciudades serán un lugar de refugio para quien sea buscado por el vengador de la sangre derramada de una persona que haya sido asesinada. 4 Él correrá hacia una de esas ciudades y se pondrá en la entrada de la puerta de la ciudad, y explicará su caso a los ancianos de esa ciudad. Entonces ellos lo llevarán dentro de la ciudad y le darán un lugar para vivir entre ellos. 5 Y si alguno viene a tratar de vengar la sangre de la persona que fue asesinada, entonces las personas de la ciudad no entregarán a las autoridades a la persona que lo asesinó. Ellos no deben hacer esto, porque él asesinó a su projimo sin intención y sin odio premeditado hacia él. 6 Él debe quedarse en esa ciudad hasta que haya enfrentado a la asamblea para juicio, hasta la muerte del que esté sirviendo como sumo sacerdote en esos días. Entonces el que accidentalmente asesinó a la persona podrá regresar a su pueblo, al pueblo de donde huyó."' 7 Así que los israelitas escogieron a Cedes en Galilea entre los montes de Neftalí, Siquem entre los montes de Efraín y Quiriat-arba (lo mismo que Hebrón) entre los montes de Judá. 8 Más allá del Jordán al este de Jericó, escogieron a Beser en el desierto sobre la meseta de la tribu de Rubén; Ramot en Galaad de la tribu de Gad; y Golán en Basán de la tribu de Manasés. 9 Estas fueron las ciudades seleccionadas para todos los israelitas y para los extranjeros que residen entre ellos, para que cualquiera que asesinara a una persona sin intención pudiera correr hacia ellas para seguridad. Esta persona no moriría a mano del que quisiera vengar la sangre que fue derramada, hasta que la persona acusada se presentara delante de la asamblea.

Chapter 21

1 Entonces los jefes de los clanes de los levitas vinieron al sacerdote Eleazar, a Josué hijo de Nun y a los líderes de las familias de sus ancestros dentro del pueblo de Israel. 2 Les dijieron a ellos en Silo en la tierra de Canaán: "EL SEÑOR les ordenó, a través de Moisés, que nos den a nosotros ciudades en donde vivir, con tierras de pastizales para nuestros ganados." 3 Así por mandamiento del SEÑOR, los israelitas dieron a los levitas de su heredad las siguientes ciudades, incluyendo sus pastizales. 4 Y este fue el resultado de hechar a la suerte los clanes de los coatitas: los sacerdotes -los descendientes de Aarón que eran levitas, recibieron trece ciudades entregadas de la tribu de Judá, de la tribu de Simeón y de la tribu de Benjamín. 5 El resto del clan de los Coatitas recibieron por suerte diez ciudades de los clanes de la tribu de Efraín, Dan y la media tribu de Manasés. 6 Y a los descendientes de Gersón fueron dados por suerte trece ciudades de los clanes de las tribus de Isacar, Aser, Neftalí y la media tribu de Manasés en Basán. 7 Los descendientes de Merari recibieron doce ciudades de las tribus de Rubén, Gad y Zabulón. 8 Los israelitas dieron por suerte a los levitas estas ciudades, incluyendo sus pastizales, como EL SEÑOR había ordenado a través de Moisés. 9 De las tribus de Judá y Simeón, les asignaron tierras de las siguientes ciudades, aquí mencionadas por nombres. 10 Estas ciudades fueron entregadas a los descendientes de Aarón, que estaban entre los clanes de Coatitas, que a su vez eran de la tribu de Leví. Porque ellos fueron los primeros en salir sorteados. 11 Los israelitas le dieron Quiriat Arba (Arba había sido el padre de Anac), el mismo sitio de Hebrón, entre los montes de Judá, alrededor de los pastizales. 12 Pero los campos de la ciudad y sus aldeas ya habían sido dados a Caleb, hijo de Jefone, como su posesión. 13 A los descendientes del sacerdote Aarón, le dieron Hebrón, con sus pastizales, que era una ciudad de refugio a cualquiera que asesinara sin intención, y Libna con sus pastizales, 14 Jatir con sus pastizales y Estemoa con sus pastizales. 15 También le dieron Holón con sus pastizales, Debir con sus pastizales, 16 Aín con sus pastizales, Juta con sus pastizales y Bet Semes con sus pastizales. Eran nueve ciudades que fueron dadas de estas dos tribus. 17 De la tribu de Benjamín dieron a Gabaón con sus pastizales, Geba con sus pastizales, 18 Anatot con sus pastizales y Almón con las afueras de la ciudad, cuatro ciudades. 19 Las ciudades entregadas a los sacerdotes, descendientes de Aarón, eran trece ciudades en total, incluyendo sus pastizales. 20 Al igual que al resto de la familia de Coat, los levitas que pertenecían a la familia de Coat, tenían ciudades entregadas a ellos a la suerte, de la tribu de Efraín. 21 A ellos les fueron entregada Siquem con sus pastizales entre los montes de Efraín, una ciudad de refugio para cualquiera que asesinara a otro sin intención, Gezer con sus pastizales, 22 Kibsaim con sus pastizales y Bet Horón con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades en total. 23 De la tribu de Dan, al clan de Coat le fue entregado Elteque con sus pastizales, 24 Ajalón con sus pastizales y Gat Rimón con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades en total. 25 De la media tribu de Manasés, al clan de Coat le fue entregado Taanac con sus pastizales y Gat Rimón con sus pastizales, dos ciudades. 26 Habían diez ciudades en total para el resto de los clanes de los Coalitas, incluyendo sus pastizales. 27 De la media tribu de Manasés, a los clanes de Gersón, estos eran otros clanes levitas y ellos entregaron Golán en Balsán con sus pastizales, una ciudad de refugio para cualquiera que asesinara a otro sin intención, acompañado de Beestera con sus pastizales, dos ciudades en total. 28 A los clanes de Gersón también entragaron Cisón de la tribu de Isacar, acompañado de sus pastizales, Daberat con sus pastizales, 29 Jarmuth con sus pastizales y En-ganim con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades. 30 De la tribu de Aser, entregaron Miseal con sus pastizales, Abdón con sus pastizales, 31 Helcat con sus pastizales y Rehob con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades en total. 32 De la tribu de Neftalí, entregaron los clanes de Gersón Cedes en Galilea con sus pastizales, una ciudad refugio para cualquiera que asesinara a otro sin intención; Hamot-dor con sus pastizales y Cartán con sus pastizales, tres ciudades en total. 33 Habían trece ciudades en total, de todos los clanes de Gersón, incluyendo sus pastizales. 34 Al resto de los levitas, del clan de Merari, fueron entregados de la tribu de Zabulón: Jocneam con sus pastizales, Carta con sus pastizales, 35 Dimna con sus pastizales y Naalal con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades en total. 36 A los clanes de Merari se les entregaron de la tribu de Rubén: Beser con sus pastizales, Jahaza con sus pastizales, 37 Cademot con sus pastizales y Mefaat con sus pastizales, cuatro ciudades. 38 De la tribu de Gad, se le dio Ramot en Galaad con sus pastizales, una ciudad de refugio para cualquiera que asesinaba a otro involuntariamente, y Mahanaim con sus pastizales. 39 A los clanes de Merari les fueron también dados a Hesbón, con sus pastizales, y Jazer con pastizales. Estas fueron cuatro ciudades en total. 40 Todas estas fueron las ciudades de varios clanes de Merari, quienes eran de la tribu de Leví, doce ciudades en total les fueron dadas a ellos al lanzar las suertes. 41 Las ciudades de los levitas tomadas desde el centro de la tierra propiedad del pueblo de Israel, fueron cuarenta y ocho ciudades, incluyendo sus pastizales. 42 Cada una de estas ciudades, tenían

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

alrededor sus pastizales. Así fue con todas estas ciudades. 43 Así que EL SEÑOR le dio a Israel toda la tierra que ÉL juró darle a sus antepasados. Los israelitas tomaron posesión de ella y se establecieron allí. 44 Luego EL SEÑOR les dio descanso en cada lado, tal como Él le había jurado a sus antepasados. Ni uno de sus enemigos podía derrotarlos. EL SEÑOR les entrego a sus enemigos en sus manos. 45 Ni una cosa, entre todas las buenas promesas que EL SEÑOR le había hablado a la casa de Israel, falló en hacerse realidad. Todo se cumplió.

Chapter 22

1 Para ese tiempo Josué llamó a los rubenitas, los gaditas y la media tribu de Manasés. 2 Él les dijo: "Ustedes han hecho todo lo que Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR les encomendó. Ustedes han obedecido mi voz en todo lo que les ordené. 3 Ustedes no han abandonado a sus hermanos todos estos días, hasta hoy. Y han cumplido con los deberes requeridos por los mandamientos del SEÑOR su DIOS. 4 Ahora EL SEÑOR su DIOS les ha dado descanso a sus hermanos, justo lo que les prometió. Por lo tanto regresen a sus tiendas en las tierras que les pertenecen, las cuales Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR les dio al otro lado del Jordán. 5 Solo tengan cuidado en cumplir los mandamientos y la ley que Moisés el siervo del SEÑOR les encomendó, de amar al SEÑOR tu DIOS, de caminar en todos sus caminos, de guardar sus mandamientos, y de seguirlo y adorarlo con todo su corazón y con toda su alma. 6 Así que Josué los bendijo y los despidió, y ellos volvieron a sus tiendas. 7 Ahora, para la media tribu de Manasés, Moisés les había dado una herencia en Basán, pero a la otra mitad, Josué les dio herencia junto a sus hermanos en la tierra del oeste del Jordán. Josué los envió hacia sus tiendas; él los bendijo 8 y les dijo: "Vuelvan a sus tiendas con dinero, ganado, plata, oro, bronce, hierro, y muchos vestidos. Dividan el botín de todos sus enemigos con sus hermanos." 9 Así que los descendientes de Rubén, los descendientes de Gad y la media tribu de Manasés retornaron a casa, dejando al pueblo de Israel en Silo, el cual está en la tierra de Canaán. Ellos se fueron a la región de Galaad, a su propia tierra, la cual les pertenecia, en obediencia al mandamiento del SEÑOR, por la mano de Moisés. 10 Cuando ellos vinieron al Jordán que está en la tierra de Canaán, los rubenitas y los gaditas y la media la tribu de Manasés construyeron un altar al lado del Jordán, un altar muy grande y prominente. 11 El pueblo de Israel oyó sobre esto y dijo: "¡Miren! El pueblo de Rubén, Gad y la media tribu de Manasés han edificado un altar en la parte frontal de la tierra de Canaán, en Galaad, en la región cerca del Jordán, en el lado que pertenece al pueblo de Israel." 12 Cuando el pueblo de Israel escuchó de esto, toda la asamblea del pueblo de Israel se reunió juntos en Silo para subir y hacer guerra en contra de ellos. 13 Luego el pueblo de Israel envió mensajeros a los rubenitas, los gaditas y la media tribu de Manasés, en la tierra de Galaad. Ellos también enviaron a Finees hijo de Eleazar, el sacerdote, 14 y con él diez líderes, uno de cada una de las familias ancestrales de Israel, y cada uno de ellos era la cabeza de un clan dentro del pueblo de Israel. 15 Ellos vinieron al pueblo de Rubén, Gad y la media tribu de Manasés, en la tierra de Galaad y les dijeron: 16 "Toda la asamblea del SEÑOR dice esto: '¿Qué es esta infidelidad que ustedes han cometido en contra del DIOS de Israel, apartándose en este día de seguir al SEÑOR, haciendose un altar para ustedes en este día en rebelión en contra del SEÑOR? 17 ¿No fue nuestro pecado en Peor suficiente para nosotros? Todavía no nos hemos purificado de él. Por este pecado vino una plaga en la asamblea del SEÑOR. 18 ¿Debían también ustedes apartarse de seguir al SEÑOR en este día? Si también se rebelan en contra del SEÑOR hoy, mañana ÉL estará molesto con toda la asamblea de Israel. 19 Si la tierra que ustedes poseen está contaminada, entonces ustedes deben pasar a la tierra donde está el tabernáculo del SEÑÓR levantado y tomar para ustedes una posesión entre nosotros. Sólo no se rebelen en contra del SEÑOR, ni se rebelen en contra de nosotros edificando un altar para ustedes aparte del altar del SEÑOR nuestro DIOS. 20 ¿Acaso Acán hijo de Zera no faltó a su palabra en cuanto a aquellas cosas que habían sido reservadas para DIOS? Y ¿no cayó la ira en el pueblo de Israel? Ese hombre no pereció solo por su iniquidad.'" 21 Entonces las tribus de Rubén, Gad, y la media tribu de Manasés contestaron en respuesta a los líderes de los clanes de Israel: 22 "¡EL SEÑOR, DIOS, TODOPODEROSO! ¡EL SEÑOR, DIOS. TODOPODEROSO! ¡ÉL sabe y hace saber a Israel mismo! Si fue en rebelión o si faltamos a nuestra palabra en contra del SEÑOR, no nos libres en este día 23 por haber construido un altar para apartarnos de seguir al SEÑOR. Si nosotros construimos ese altar para ofrecer en él, ofrenda quemada, de granos o de paz, entonces que EL SEÑOR nos haga pagar por ello. 24 ¡No! Lo hicimos por temor que en el tiempo por venir sus hijos pudiesen decir a nuestros hijos: '¿Qué tienen ustedes que ver con EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel? 25 Puesto que EL SEÑOR ha hecho al Jordán una frontera entre nosotros y ustedes. Ustedes pueblo de Rubén y pueblo de Gad, no tienen nada que ver con EL SEÑOR.' Así que sus hijos podrían hacer que nuestros hijos dejaran de adorar al SEÑOR. 26 Así que nosotros dijimos, 'Construyamos ahora un altar, no para quemar ofrenda ni para sacrificios, 27 sino para ser testigo entre nosotros y ustedes, y entre nuestras generaciones después de nosotros, que cumplamos con el servicio del SEÑOR delante de ÉL, con nuestra ofrenda quemada y con nuestros sacrificios y con nuestras ofrendas de paz, para que vuestros hijos nunca digan a nuestros hijos en el tiempo por venir: "No tienen parte en EL SEÑOR'". 28 Así que dijimos: 'Si esto fuere dicho a nosotros o a nuestros descendientes en el tiempo por venir, nosotros diríamos: "¡Miren! Esta es una copia del altar del SEÑOR, el cual nuestros ancestros hicieron, no para quemar ofrenda, ni para sacrificios, sino como un testimonio entre nosotros y ustedes. 29 Que esté lejos de nosotros rebelarnos en contra del SEÑOR, y hoy apartarnos de seguirle a ÉL construyendo un altar para ofrenda quemada, ofrenda de granos o sacrificio, aparte del altar del SEÑOR nuestro DIOS que está delante de su tabernáculo.'" 30 Cuando Finees el sacerdote y los líderes del pueblo, que son, las cabezas de los clanes de Israel que estaban con él, escucharon las palabras que el pueblo de Rubén, Gad y Manasés dijeron, les parecieron buenas ante sus ojos. 31 Finees, hijo de Eleazar el sacerdote, dijo al pueblo de Rubén, Gad y Manasés: "Hoy sabemos que EL SEÑOR está entre nosotros, porque ustedes no han cometido traición en contra de ÉL. Ahora, ustedes han rescatado al pueblo de Israel de la mano del SEÑOR." 32 Entones Finees, hijo del sacerdote Eleazar, y los líderes regresaron de los rubenitas y de los gaditas, fuera de la tierra de Galaad, de regreso a la tierra de Canaán, al pueblo de Israel, y trajeron de vuelta palabra a ellos. 33 Su reporte fue bueno ante los ojos del pueblo de Israel. El pueblo de Israel bendijo a DIOS y no habló más sobre hacer guerra en contra de los rubenitas y los gaditas, para destruir la tierrra en donde ellos se habían establecido. 34 Los rubenitas y los gaditas llamaron al altar "Testigo", pues ellos dijeron: "Es un testigo entre nosotros, que ELSEÑOR es DIOS."

Estas preguntas son usadas para recordarle al pueblo del castigo por sus pecados pasados. Estas preguntas pueden ser escritas como declaraciones. TA: "Acán, hijo de Zera, pecó al tomar cosas que eran reservadas para Dios. ¡Y por eso Dios castigó a todo el pueblo de Israel!

Joshua 22:21

Si fue en rebelión... que el SEÑOR nos haga pagar por ello
Las tres tribus estan haciendo dos declaraciones hipotéticas que ellos insisten que no son ciertas. Ellos no construyeron el altar para adorar a otro dios.

Joshua 22:24

Información General:
Las tribus de Rubén, Gad y mitad de la tribu de Manasés dan sus contestaciones.

sus hijos pudiesen decir a nuestros hijos... el Dios de Israel?
Esto es una acusación hipotética que las tres tribus piensan que los hijos de otras tribus pudieran hacer algún tiempo en el futuro.

¿Que tienen ustedes que ver con el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel?
Las tres tribus utilizan esta pregunta retórica para enfatizar la situación que ellos están tratando de evitar. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. TA: "¡Ustedes no tienen nada que ver con el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel!"

Joshua 22:25

Información General:
Las tribus de Rubén, Gad y mitad de la tribu de Manasés continúan su respuesta.

Puesto que el SEÑOR ha hecho el Jordán... no tienen nada que ver con el SEÑOR Esta es la continuación de la acusación hipotética que las tres tribus piensan que los hijos de las otras tribus pudieran hacer algún tiempo en el futuro.

el Jordán
Esto es un nombre corto para el río Jordán

Así que sus hijos podrían hacer que nuestros hijos cesaran de adorar al SEÑOR
Las tres tribus construyeron el altar para evitar que esta situación hipotética ocurriera en el futuro.

Joshua 22:26

Chapter 23

1 Y después de muchos días, cuando EL SEÑOR le había dado descanso a Israel de todos sus enemigos que los rodeaban, Josué era muy mayor. 2 Josué llamó a todo Israel, a sus ancianos, a sus líderes, a sus jueces y a sus oficiales y les dijo: "Yo estoy muy viejo. 3 Ustedes han visto todo lo que EL SEÑOR su DIOS ha hecho con todas la naciones por su bien, porque ha sido EL SEÑOR su DIOS quien ha peleado por ustedes. 4 ¡Miren! Yo les he asignado a ustedes las naciones que quedan por ser conquistadas como herencia para sus tribus, junto con todas las naciones que ya yo he destruido, desde el Jordán hasta el Mar Grande en el oeste. 5 EL SEÑOR tu DIOS los echará fuera. ÉL los empujará afuera por ustedes. ÉL tomará su tierra, y ustedes se apoderaran de ella, como EL SEÑOR vuestro DIOS les ha prometido. 6 Sean muy fuertes, para que mantengan y hagan todo lo que está escrito en el libro de la ley de Moisés, sin voltear a mano derecha ni a mano izquierda, 7 para que no se mezclen con estas naciones que se quedaron con ustedes o mencionen los nombres de sus dioses, juren por ellos, los adoren o se inclinen a ellos. 8 Mejor, ustedes deben inclinarse al SEÑOR su DIOS como han hecho hasta este día. 9 Porque EL SEÑOR ha echado de delante de ustedes grandes, fuertes naciones. Y en cuanto a ustedes, a ninguna le ha sido posible pararse ante ustedes hasta este día. 10 Cualquier hombre de entre ustedes hará que miles corran huyendo, porque EL SEÑOR su DIOS, es ÉL que pelea por ustedes, como ÉL, se los ha prometido. 11 Presten particular atención, para que puedan amar al SEÑOR su DIOS. 12 Pero si le dan la espalda y se inclinan a los sobrevivientes de estas naciones quienes son un remanente entre ustedes, o si ustedes se casan con ellos, o si ustedes se juntan con ellos y ellos con ustedes, 13 entonces, sepan de seguro que EL SEÑOR su DIOS ya no sacará estas naciones de entre ustedes. En cambio, ellos serán un lazo y trampa para ustedes, látigos en sus espaldas y espinas en sus ojos, hasta que ustedes mueran de esta buena tierra que EL SEÑOR su DIOS les ha dado a ustedes. 14 Y ahora yo me voy del camino de toda la tierra, y ustedes saben con todos sus corazones y sus almas que no ha fallado ni una palabra en volverse realidad para todas las cosas buenas que EL SEÑOR su Dios les ha prometido sobre ustedes. Todas estas cosas han llegado para ustedes. Ninguna ha fallado. 15 Pero así como toda palabra que EL SEÑOR su DIOS les ha prometido, así EL SEÑOR les traerá sobre ustedes todas la cosas malas hasta que ÉL los haya destruido de esta buena tierra que EL SEÑOR su DIOS les ha dado. 16 ÉL hará esto si ustedes rompen el pacto del SEÑOR su DIOS, el cual ÉL te ordenó mantener. Si ustedes van y adoran otros dioses y se inclinan a ellos, entonces la ira del SEÑOR se encenderá contra de ustedes, y ustedes morirán rápidamente en la buena tierra que ÉL les ha dado."

Chapter 24

1 Luego Josué reunió a todas las tribus de Israel en Siquem y llamó a los ancianos de Israel, a sus líderes, a sus jueces, y a sus oficiales, y ellos se presentaron ante DIOS. 2 Josué dijo a todas las personas: "Esto es lo que EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de Israel, dice: 'Sus ancestros hace mucho tiempo vivieron más allá del Río Eufrates, Taré, el padre de Abraham y el padre de Nacor, y ellos adoraban otros dioses. 3 Pero yo tomé tu padre desde más allá del Eufrates y lo llevé a la tierra de Canaán, y le di muchos descendientes mediante su hijo Isaac. 4 Y a Isaac yo le di a Jacob y Esaú. A Esaú le di la región montañosa de Seir como propiedad, pero Jacob y sus hijos fueron hacia Egipto. 5 YO envié a Moisés y a Aarón, y afligí a los egipcios con plagas. Después de eso, te saque de ahí. 6 YO traje a tus ancestros fuera de Egipto, y vinieron al mar. Los egipcios los persiguieron con carruajes y jinetes tan lejos como el Mar Rojo. 7 Cuando sus antepasados clamaron al SEÑOR, ÉL puso oscuridad entre ustedes y los egipcios. ÉL trajo el mar para que viniera sobre ellos y los ahogaran. Ustedes vieron lo que YO hice en Egipto. Luego ustedes vivieron en el desierto por mucho tiempo. 8 YO los traje a la tierra de los amorreos, que habitaban al otro lado del Jordán. Ellos pelearon con ustedes y se los entregué en sus manos. Ustedes tomaron posesión de su tierra, y YO los destruí ante ustedes. 9 Luego Balac hijo de Zipor, rey de Moab, se levantó y atacó a Israel. Él envió y clamó por Balaam, hijo de Beor, para maldecirlos. 10 Pero YO no escuché a Balaam. De hecho, él los bendijo. Así que los rescaté de su mano. 11 Ustedes fueron sobre el Jordán y llegaron a Jericó. Los líderes de Jericó pelearon encontra de ustedes, junto a los amorreos, los ferezeos, los cananeos, los hititas, los gergeseos, los heveos, y los jebuseos. YO les di victoria sobre ellos y los puse bajo su control. 12 Yo envié las avispas delante de ustedes, quienes las llevaron a ellos y a los dos reyes de los amorreos, para que huyera. Esto no sucedió por su espada o su arco. 13 YO les di tierra en la cual no habían trabajado y ciudades que ustedes no habían construido, y ahora viven en ellas. Ustedes comen las frutas de viñas y sembradíos de olivas que no plantaron. 14 Ahora teman al SEÑOR y adórenle con toda integridad y fidelidad; deshaganse de los dioses que sus ancestros adoraban más allá del Eufrates y en Egipto, y adoren al SEÑOR. 15 Si parece incorrecto ante sus ojos adorar al SEÑOR, escogan por ustedes mismos este día, a quién van a servirle, si a los dioses que sus antepasados adoraban más allá del Eufrates, o a los dioses de los amorreos, en la tierran en la cual viven "Pero en cuanto a mí y mi casa, nosotros adoraremos al SEÑOR". 16 El pueblo contestó y dijo: "Nosotros nunca abandonaremos al SEÑOR por servir a otros dioses, 17 es EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS quien nos trajo a nosotros y a nuestros antepasados de la tierra de Egipto, de la esclavitud y quien hizo aquellas grandes señales a nuestra vista y quien nos preservó en todo el camino que fuimos, y de entre todas las naciones que nosotros atravesamos. 18 Y EL SEÑOR sacó delante de nosotros a todas las personas, los amorreos que vivían en esta tierra. Así que nosotros también adoraremos al SEÑOR, pues ÉL es nuestro DIOS." 19 Pero Josué le dijo al pueblo: "Ustedes no pueden servirle al SEÑOR, porque ÉL es un DIOS santo; ÉL es un DIOS celoso; ÉL no les perdonará sus transgresiones y pecados. 20 Si ustedes abandonan al SEÑOR y adoran a dioses extranjeros, entonces ÉL se pondra en contra y les hará daño. ÉL los consumirá, después de haberles hecho bien." 21 Pero el pueblo le dijo a Josué: "No; nosotros adoraremos al SEÑOR." 22 Entonces, Josué le dijo a al pueblo: "Ustedes son testigos en contra de ustedes mismos, que han escogido por sí mismos, al SEÑOR, para adorarle." Ellos dijeron: "Somos testigos." 23 Josué les dijo: "Ahora, pongan a un lado a los dioses extranjeros que están con ustedes, y vuelvan su corazón al SEÑOR, DIOS de Israel." 24 El pueblo le dijo a Josué: "Nosotros adoraremos al SEÑOR nuestro DIOS. Nosotros escucharemos su voz." 25 Josué hizo un pacto con el pueblo ese día. Él puso en lugares decretos y leyes en Siquem. 26 Josué escribió estas palabras en el libro de la ley de DIOS. Él tomó una gran piedra y la colocó allí, debajo del árbol de roble que estaba al lado del santuario del SEÑOR. 27 Josué le dijo a todo el pueblo: "Miren, esta piedra será testimonio contra nosotros. Han escuchado todas las palabras que EL SEÑOR nos ha dicho a nosotros. Así que será un testigo en contra de ustedes, si alguna vez niegan a su DIOS." 28 Entonces Josué envió al pueblo lejos, cada uno a su propia herencia. 29 Luego de estas cosas, Josué hijo de Nun, el siervo del SEÑOR, murió, teniendo 110 años. 30 Ellos lo enterraron en la frontera de su propia herencia, en Timnat Sera, la cual está en la zona montañosa de Efraín, al norte del Monte Gaas. 31 Israel adoró al SEÑOR todos los días de Josué, y todos los días de los ancianos que vivieron más que Josué; aquellos que habían experimentado todo lo que EL SEÑOR había hecho por Israel. 32 Los huesos de José, los cuales el pueblo de Israel sacó fuera de Egipto, los enterraron en Siquem, en el pedazo de tierra que Jacob había comprado de los hijos de Hamor, el padre de Siquem. Él lo compró por cien piezas de plata, y se convirtió en una herencia para los descendientes de José. 33 Eleazar hijo de Aarón también murió. Ellos lo enterraron en Guibeá, la ciudad de Finees su hijo, la cual le había sido dada a él. Estaba en la zona montañosa de Efraín.

Book: Judges

Judges

Chapter 1

1 Después de la muerte de Josué, el pueblo de Israel preguntó al SEÑOR, diciendo: "¿Quién atacará primero a los cananeos por nosotros para pelear contra ellos?" 2 El SEÑOR dijo: "Judá atacará. He aquí, les he dado control de esta tierra." 3 Los hombres de Judá dijeron a los hombres de Simeón, sus hermanos: "Vengan con nosotros a la tierra que nos fue dada para que juntos podamos pelear en contra de los cananeos. Y nosotros igualmente iremos con ustedes al territorio que les fue asignado." Así que la tribu de Simeón fue con ellos. 4 Los hombres de Judá atacaron, y el SEÑOR les dio victoria sobre los cananeos y los ferezeos. Mataron a diez mil de ellos en Bezec. 5 Hallaron a Adoni Bezec en Bezec, y lucharon contra él y derrotaron a los cananeos y ferezeos. 6 Pero Adoni Bezec huyó, y lo persiguieron y lo capturaron, y le cortaron los dedos pulgares de las manos y de los pies. 7 Adoni Bezec dijo: "Setenta reyes, cuyos dedos pulgares de sus manos y de sus pies fueron cortados, juntaban su comida debajo de mi mesa. Así como yo hice, así mismo Dios ha hecho conmigo." Lo trajeron a Jerusalén y murió allí. 8 Los hombres de Judá lucharon contra la ciudad de Jerusalén y la tomaron. La atacaron a filo de espada y quemaron la ciudad. 9 Después de esto, los hombres de Judá bajaron a luchar contra los cananeos que vivían en la montaña, en el Neguev, y en las colinas al oeste. 10 Judá avanzó contra los cananeos que vivían en Hebrón (el nombre de Hebrón era anteriormente Quiriat Arba), y derrotaron a Sesai, a Ahimán y a Talmai. 11 Desde ahí, los hombres de Judá avanzaron contra los habitantes de Debir (el nombre de Debir era anteriormente Quiriat Séfer). 12 Caleb dijo: "Al que ataque a Quiriat Séfer y conquiste la ciudad, le daré a Acsa, mi hija, para ser su esposa." 13 Otoniel, hijo de Quenaz, (el hermano menor de Caleb) capturó a Debir, así que Caleb le dio a Acsa, su hija, para ser su esposa. 14 Tan pronto Acsa llegó a Otoniel, y ella le insistió a él que le pidiera a su padre un campo. Mientras ella se bajaba de su asno, Caleb le preguntó: "¿En qué te puedo ayudar?" 15 Ella le dijo: "Dame una bendición. Ya que me has dado la tierra del Neguev, dame también las fuentes de agua." Así que Caleb le dio las fuentes de arriba y las de abajo. 16 Los descendientes del ceneo suegro de Moisés, subieron de la Ciudad de las Palmas con el pueblo de Judá, al desierto de Judá, el cual es el Neguev, a vivir con el pueblo de Judá cerca de Arad. 17 Y los hombres de Judá fueron con los hombres de Simeón, sus hermanos, y atacaron a los cananeos que habitaban en Sefat y lo destruyeron completamente. El nombre de la ciudad era llamada Horma. 18 El pueblo de Judá también capturó a Gaza y la tierra a su alrededor, a Ascalón y la tiera a su alrededor, y a Ecrón y la tierra a su alrededor. 19 El SEÑOR estaba con el pueblo de Judá y les ayudó a conquistar la tierra montañosa, pero no pudieron sacar a los habitantes de la llanura porque ellos tenían carretas de hierro. 20 Hebrón fue dado a Caleb (como lo había dicho Moisés), y él expulsó de allí a los tres hijos de Anac. 21 Pero el pueblo de Benjamín no echo fuera a los jebuseos que habitaban en Jerusalén. Así que los jebuseos han vivido con el pueblo de Benjamín en Jerusalén hasta este día. 22 La casa de José se preparó para atacar a Betel, y el SEÑOR estaba con ellos. 23 Ellos enviaron hombres para espiar en Betel (la ciudad que anteriomente se llamaba Luz). 24 Los espías vieron a un hombre saliendo de la ciudad, y le dijeron: "Muéstranos, por favor, cómo entrar a la ciudad y seremos amables contigo." 25 Él les mostró un camino de entrada a la ciudad. Y ellos atacaron la ciudad con espada en la mano, pero dejaron que el hombre y toda su familia se fueran. 26 Y el hombre se fue a la tierra de los Hititas y construyó una ciudad y la llamó Luz, que es su nombre hasta el día de hoy 27 El pueblo de Manasés no expulsó a los moradores de las ciudades de Bet Seán y sus aldeas, o de Taanac y sus aldeas, o de aquellos que moraban en Dor y sus aldeas, o los que vivían en Ibleam y sus aldeas, o de aquellos que estaban en Meguido y sus aldeas, porque los cananeos estaban decididos a vivir en esa tierra. 28 Cuando Israel se hizo fuerte, ellos obligaron a los cananeos a servirles con trabajo forzoso, pero nunca los expulsaron por completo. 29 Efraín no expulsó a los cananeos que vivían en Gezer, así que los cananeos continuaron viviendo en Gezeer entre ellos. 30 Zabulón no expulsó a la gente que vivía en Quitrón, o a los que vivían en Naalal, y así los cananeos continuaron viviendo entre ellos, pero Zabulón forzó a los cananeos a servirles con trabajos forzados 31 Aser no expulsó a la gente que vivía en Aco, ni a la que vivía en Sidón, ni a los que vivían en Ahlab, Aczib, Helba, Afec, y Rehob. 32 Así que la tribu de Aser vivió entre los cananeos (los moradores de la tierra), porque ellos no los expulsaron. 33 La tribu de Neftalí no echo fuera a los que

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

estaban viviendo en Bet Semes, ni a los que vivían en Bet Anat. Así que la tribu de Neftalí vivió entre los cananeos (las personas que estaban viviendo en esa tierra). Sin embargo, los habitantes de Bet Semes y Bet Anat fueron obligados a trabajo pesado para Neftalí. 34 Los amorreos forzaron a la tribu de Dan a vivir en la región montañosa, sin permitirles bajar a la llanura. 35 Así que los amorreos vivieron en el Monte Heres, en Ajalón, y en Saalbim, pero el ejército de la casa de José los conquistó y ellos fueron obligados a servirles con trabajo forzado. 36 La frontera de los amorreos iba desde la colina de Acrabim en Sela, hasta la región montañosa.

Chapter 2

1 El ángel del SEÑOR subió de Gilgal a Boquim, y dijo: "Los saqué de Egipto, y los he traído a la tierra que le juré dar a sus padres. Y les dije: 'Yo nunca romperé mi pacto con ustedes. 2 Ustedes no deben hacer ningún pacto con aquellos que viven en estas tierras. Ustedes deben derribar sus altares.' Pero ustedes no han escuchado mi voz. ¿Qué es esto que han hecho? 3 Por esto ahora digo: 'Yo no expulsaré a los Cananeos delante de ustedes, sino que ellos serán espinas en sus costados, y sus dioses serán una trampa para ustedes.'" 4 Cuando el ángel del SEÑOR habló estas palabras a todo el pueblo de Israel, el pueblo gritó y lloró. 5 Ellos llamaron ese lugar Boquim. Allí ellos ofrecieron sacrificios al SEÑOR. 6 Entonces cuando Josué había despedido al pueblo; el pueblo de Israel fue a su lugar señalado, a tomar posesión de su tierra. 7 El pueblo sirvió al SEÑOR durante el tiempo en que Josué vivió y el de los ancianos que le sobrevivieron a él, aquellos que vieron todos los grandes milagros que el SEÑOR había hecho por Israel. 8 Josué hijo de Nun, el siervo del SEÑOR, murió a la edad de 110 años. 9 Ellos le enterraron entre los límites de las tierras que le fueron asignada a él en Timnat Sera, en las tierras montañosas de Efraín, al norte de Monte Gaas. 10 Toda esa generación fue convocada por sus padres. Otros descendientes se levantaron luego de ellos, que no conocían al SEÑOR ni lo que Él había hecho por Israel. 11 El pueblo de Israel hizo lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR y sirvieron a los Baales. 12 Ellos se alejaron del SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres, quien los había sacado de las tierras de Egipto. Ellos fueron en busca de otros dioses, los mismos dioses de la gente que les rodeaba, y se inclinaron delante de ellos. Esa conducta hizo que se enojara el SEÑOR 13 al apartarse del SEÑOR y adorar a Baal y a Astarot. 14 La ira del SEÑOR se encendió en contra de Israel, y el los entregó a invasores que les robaron sus posesiones. Él los vendió como esclavos que fueron capturados por la fuerza de sus enemigos que les rodeaban, así que ellos no pudieron defenderse más en contra de sus enemigos. 15 Dondequiera que Israel salía afuera a luchar, la mano del SEÑOR estuvo en contra de ellos para vencerlos, así como Él había jurado hacer. Y ellos estaban en sufriendo terriblemente. 16 Entonces El SEÑOR levantó jueces, quienes los salvaron de las manos de aquellos que les robaban sus posesiones. 17 Aun así ellos no escucharon a los jueces. Sino que fueron infieles al SEÑOR y se entregaron como prostitutas a otros dioses y les adoraron. Rapidamente se apartaron de la manera que sus padres habían vivido; aquellos que habían obedecido los mandamientos del SEÑOR, pero ellos mismos no hicieron esto. 18 Cuando el SEÑOR levantó jueces para ellos, El SEÑOR ayudó a los jueces y los rescató de las manos de sus enemigos todos los días que vivieron. El SEÑOR tuvo misericordia de ellos mientras clamaron por causa de aquellos que los maltrataron fuertemente y los lastimaron. 19 Pero cuando el juez moría, ellos se volvían y hacían cosas aún más corruptas que las que sus padres habían hecho. Ellos iban detrás de otros dioses para servirles y adorarles. Ellos se negaron a dejar sus malas prácticas y sus caminos tercos. 20 La ira del SEÑOR se encendió en contra de Israel, y dijo: "Porque esta nación ha quebrantado los términos de mi pacto que Yo había establecido con sus padres; porque ellos no han escuchado mi voz; 21 de ahora en adelante, no expulsaré ninguna de las naciones que Josué dejó cuando murió. 22 Yo haré esto para probar si Israel seguirá o no mis caminos y caminará en ellos, como sus padres los hicieron." 23 Por esto es que el SEÑOR dejó esas naciones y no las sacó rapidamente y las entregó en la mano de Josué.

Judges 2:1

ángel del SEÑOR Posibles significados son 1) "ángel que representa al SEÑOR" o 2) "mensajero que sirve al SEÑOR" o 3) puede referirse al SEÑOR mismo, quien pareía un ángel mientras hablaba con una persona. Cualquiera de estos significados explicaría el uso del ángel "yo" como si el SEÑOR mismo estuviera hablando.

subió de Gilgal a Boquim
"salió de Gilgal y fue a Boquim"

Boquim
Esto es lo que los israelitas nombraron el lugar en 2:5 luego que el ángel reprendiera al pueblo. "Boquim" significa "llorando."

Chapter 3

1 Ahora el SEÑOR dejó a estas naciones para probar a Israel, es decir a todos los que en Israel no habían experimentado las guerras luchadas en Canaán. 2 (Él hizo esto para enseñar la guerra a los descendientes de los israelitas que no la habían conocido.) 3 Estas son las naciones: los cinco reyes de los filisteos, todos los cananeos, los sidonios, y los heveos que vivían en las montañas del Líbano, desde el Monte de Baal Hermón hasta Lebo Hamat. 4 Estas naciones se quedaron allí para ser el intrumento el cual el SEÑOR usaría para probar a Israel, para confirmar si ellos obedecerían los mandamientos que Él le dio a sus antepasados a través de Moisés. 5 Así que el pueblo de Israel vivió entre los cananeos, los hititas, los amorreos, los ferezeos, los heveos y los jebuseos. 6 A sus hijas, ellos las tomaron para que fueran sus esposas, y a sus propias hijas, ellos las dieron a sus hijos, y ellos sirvieron a sus dioses. 7 El pueblo de Israel hizo lo que era malo antes los ojos del SEÑOR y olvidó al SEÑOR su Dios. Ellos adoraron a los Baales y a las Aseras. 8 Por lo tanto, la ira del SEÑOR se incendió en contra de Israel, y Él los vendió en manos de Cusán Risataim, rey de Aram Naharaim. El pueblo de Israel sirvió a Cusán Risataim por ocho años. 9 Cuando el pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR, el SEÑOR levantó a alguien que ayudaría al pueblo de Israel, y quien los rescataría: Otoniel, hijo de Quenaz (el hermano menor de Caleb). 10 El Espíritu del SEÑOR lo ayudó y le dió cualidades de gran líder, y él juzgó a Israel y salió a la guerra. El SEÑOR le dio la victoria sobre Cusán Risataim, rey de Aram. La mano de Otoniel derrotó a Cusán Risataim. 11 La tierra tuvo paz por cuarenta años. Entonces Otoniel, hijo de Quenaz murió. 12 Después de esto, los israelitas hicieron otra vez lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR, y el SEÑOR le dio fuerza a Eglón, rey de Moab, para dominar a los israelitas. 13 Eglón se unió con los amonitas y los amalecitas, y ellos fueron y derrotaron a Israel, y ellos tomaron posesión de la Ciudad de las Palmeras (Jericó). 14 El pueblo de Israel sirvió a Eglón, el rey de Moab, por dieciocho años. 15 Cuando el pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR, el SEÑOR levantó a alguien que los ayudaría, Aod, hijo de Gera, un benjamita, un hombre zurdo. El pueblo de Israel lo envió, con el pago de su tributo, a Eglón, rey de Moab. 16 Aod se hizo una espada que tenía dos filos, de un cuarenta y seis centímetros de largo; y la ató a su muslo derecho debajo de su ropa. 17 Él dio el pago de tributo al rey Eglón de Moab. (Ahora Eglón era un hombre muy obeso.) 18 Después de que Aod había presentado el pago de tributo, él se fue con aquellos que lo habían cargado. 19 En cuanto a Aod, cuando él llegó al lugar donde habían hecho las imágenes cerca de Gilgal, se volteó y regresó, y dijo: "Tengo un mensaje secreto para usted, mi rey." Eglón dijo: "¡Silencio!" Así que todos aquellos sirviéndole salieron del cuarto. 20 Aod vino a él. El rey estaba sentado, solo en la frescura del cuarto de arriba. Aod dijo: "Tengo un mensaje de Dios para usted." El rey se levantó de su asiento. 21 Aod alcanzó con su mano izquierda la espada de su muslo derecho, y la clavó en el cuerpo del rey. 22 Y la empuñadura de la espada también entró en él tras la cuchilla, la punta de la misma salió por su espalda, y la grasa se cerró sobre la cuchilla, pues Aod no sacó la espada de su estómago. 23 Entonces Aod salió al porche y cerró las puertas del cuarto de arriba tras sí y las aseguró. 24 Después de que Aod se había ido, los sirvientes del rey vinieron; ellos vieron que las puertas del cuarto superior estaban aseguradas, así que ellos pensaron: "Seguramente él se está aliviando en la frescura del cuarto superior." 25 Ellos estaban cada vez más preocupados, hasta que sintieron que estaban descuidando su deber, ya que el rey todavía no abría las puertas del cuarto superior. Así que ellos tomaron la llave y las abrieron, ahí estaba su amo, acostado en el piso, muerto. 26 Mientras los sirvientes estaban esperando, preguntándose lo que debían hacer, Aod escapó y pasó más allá del lugar donde estaban las imágenes cinceladas de ídolos, y así escapó a Seirat. 27 Cuando llegó, hizo sonar una trompeta en la región montañosa de Efraín. Entonces desde las colinas el pueblo de Israel descendió con él, y él los estaba dirigiendo. 28 Él les dijo a ellos: "Síganme, pues el SEÑOR está a punto de derrotar a sus enemigos, los moabitas." Ellos lo siguieron y ellos tomaron los orillas del Jordán al otro lado de los moabitas, y ellos no permitieron a nadie que cruzara el río. 29 En ese momento ellos mataron cerca de diez mil hombres de Moab, y todos eran fuertes y hombres capaces. Ninguno escapó. 30 Así que ese día, Moab fue sometida por la fuerza de Israel. Y la tierra había descansado por ochenta años. 31 Después de Aod, el siguiente juez fue Samgar, hijo de Anat, quien mató 600 hombres de los filisteos con un palo usado para picar el ganado. Él también liberó a Israel del peligro.

Chapter 4

1 Luego de que Aod murió, el pueblo de Israel una vez más hizo lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. 2 El SEÑOR los entregó en las manos de Jabín rey de Canaán quien reinaba en Hazor. El capitán de su ejército se llamaba Sísara, y el vivió en Haroset Goyim. 3 El pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR por ayuda, por que Sísara tenía novecientos carros de hierro y había lastimado fuertemente al pueblo de Israel por veinte años. 4 Ahora Débora, una profetisa (la esposa de Lapidot), era jueza principal en Israel para ese tiempo. 5 Ella usualmente se sentaba debajo de la palmera de Débora entre Ramá y Betel en la región montañosa de la ciudad de Efraín, y las personas de Israel iban donde ella para resolver sus pleitos. 6 Ella envió por Barac hijo de Abinoam de Cedes en Neftalí. Ella le dijo, el ''Señor, el Dios de Israel, te ordena, 'Ve al Monte Tabor, y lleva contigo diez mil hombres de Neftalí y Zabulón. 7 Yo llevaré a Sísara, el comandante del ejercito de Jabín, para que te encuentre en el rio Kishon, con sus carros y su ejercito, y yo te daré la victoria ante el.'' 8 Barac le dijo a ella, "si tu vas conmigo, yo iré, pero si tu no vas conmigo, yo no iré." 9 Ella dijo, ciertamente iré contigo. Más tu no recibiras la honra de esto, porque el Señor entregará a Sísara en la mano de una mujer." Luego Débora se levantó y fue con Barac a Cades. 10 Barac llamó a los hombres de Zabulón y Neftalí que fueran juntos a Cades. Diez mil hombres lo siguieron, y Débora fué junto con el. 11 Ahora Heber (el Quenita) se separó de los Quenitas- estos eran los descendientes de Hobab (suegro de Moisés) - y él puso su tienda junto al roble en Zaanaim, cerca de Cades. 12 Cuando ellos le dijeron a Sísara que Barac hijo de Abinoam se había ido a Monte Tabor, 13 Sísara llamó a todos sus carros, novecientos carros de hierro, y todos los soldados que estaban con el, desde Haroset Goyim hasta el Río Cisón. 14 Débora le dijo a Barac: "¡Ve! Porque hoy es el día en el que El SEÑOR te ha dado la victoria ante Sísara. "¿No está El SEÑOR liderandote?" Así que Barac bajó del Monte Tabor con diez mil hombres siguiéndole. 15 El SEÑOR confundió el ejército de Sísara, a todos sus carros de hierro, y a todo su ejército. Los hombres de Barac los atacaron y Sísara se bajó de su carro de hierro y huyó a pie. 16 Pero Barac persiguió los carros de hierro y el ejército hasta Haroset Goyim, y todo el ejército de Sísara fué derrotado a filo de espada, y ni un hombre quedó vivo. 17 Pero Sísara huyó a pie hacia la tienda de Jael, la esposa de Heber el Quenita, pues había paz entre Jabín rey de Hazor, y la casa de Heber el Quenita. 18 Jael salió al encuentro de Sísara y le dijo, "Ven, mi maestro; ven a mí y no tengas miedo." Así el fué hacia ella y entró a la tienda, y ella lo cubrió con una manta. 19 El le dijo a ella, "Por favor dame un poco de agua para beber, por que estoy sediento." Ella abrió su bolso de cuero con leche y le dió de beber, y luego ella lo cubrió nuevamente. 20 El le dijo a ella, "Párate ante la entrada de la tienda. Si alguien viene y te pregunta, '¿Hay alguien aquí?', dile que 'No'." 21 Luego Jael (la esposa de Heber) tomó una estaca de la tienda y un martillo en su mano y fué secretamente a donde Sísara, pues el estaba muy dormido, y ella le martilló la estaca a un lado de la cabeza, lo atravesó, y así murió. 22 Como Barac estaba persiguiendo a Sísara, Jael salió a su encuentro y le dijo, "Ven, te mostraré el hombre que estas buscando." Así que el fué con ella, y encontró a Sísara muerto, con la estaca en su cabeza. 23 Así que ese día Dios derrotó a Jabín, rey de Canaán, delante del pueblo de Israel. 24 Y el poder del pueblo de Israel se hizo más fuerte ante Jabín el rey de Canaán, hasta que lo destruyeron.

Chapter 5

1 En aquel día Débora y Barac hijo de Abinoam, cantaron esta canción: 2 "Cuando los líderes tomaron el mando de Israel, cuando la gente voluntariamente se ofreció para la guerra-- nosotros alabamos al SEÑOR! 3 Oigan, reyes! Presten atención, líderes! Yo cantaré al SEÑOR; cantaré alabanzas al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 4 El SEÑOR, cuando saliste de Seir, cuando te marchaste de Edom, la tierra tembló, y los cielos también se estremecieron; aún las nubes destilaron agua. 5 Las montañas temblaron delante del rostro del Señor; aún el Monte Sinaí tembló delante del rostro del Señor, el Dios de Israel. 6 En los días de Samgar (hijo de Anat), en los días de Jael, los principales caminos fueron abandonados, y aquellos que los caminaron solo usaban caminos torcidos. 7 Había pocos guerreros en Israel, hasta que Yo, Débora, tomé control-- una madre tomó control en Israel. 8 Cuando ellos escogieron nuevos dioses, hubo guerra en las puertas de la ciudad y sin embargo no se veían escudos ni lanzas entre cuarenta mil en Israel. 9 Mi corazón simpatiza con los comandantes de Israel, juntamente con los que voluntariamente se ofrecieron-- nosotros bendecimos al Señor por ellos! 10 Piensa en esto-- tú que cabalgas en asnos blancos sentados en mantas para montar, y tú que caminas junto al camino. 11 Escucha las voces de aquellos que cantan en los abrevaderos. Allí se cuentan nuevamente sobre las obras justas del Señor, y las acciones justas de sus guerreros en Israel. Entonces el pueblo del Señor descendió a las puertas de la ciudad. 12 Despierta, despierta, Débora! Despierta, despierta, canta un cántico! Levántate, Barac, y captura tus prisioneros, tú hijo de Abinoam. 13 Entonces los que no murieron marcharon hacia los nobles; el pueblo del Señor vino a mí con los guerreros. 14 Vinieron de Efraín aquellos establecidos en Amalec; el pueblo de Benjamín te siguió. De Maquir descendieron sus comandantes y de Zabulón aquellos que cargaban el bastón de autoridad. 15 Y mis príncipes de Isacar estaban con Débora; e Isacar estaba con Barac, yendo tras él hacia el valle bajo su mandato. Entre los grupos de familias de Rubén batallaban para decidir. 16 Por qué te sientas en las fogatas, a escuchar los sonidos del rebaño? En cuanto a los grupos de familias de Rubén batallaban para decidir. 17 ¿Galaad se quedó al otro lado del Jordán; y Dan, por qué se quedó pensativo al lado de los barcos? Aser se mantuvo en la costa y vivió cerca de sus muelles. 18 Zabulón fue una tribu que arriesgaba sus propias vidas incluso hasta la muerte, y Neftalí, tambien, en el campo de batalla. 19 Los reyes llegaron, pelearon; los reyes de Canaan pelearon en Taanac junto a las aguas de Meguido. Pero no se llevaron nada de plata como botín. 20 Desde el cielo las estrellas pelearon, desde sus caminos a través del cielo pelearon contra Sísara. 21 El Río Cisón los barrió, ese viejo río, el Río Cisón. Marcha adelante mi alma, es fuerte! 22 Entonces sonaron los cascos de los caballos-- galopando, el galope de sus valientes. 23 ¡Maldice a Meroz! dijo el ángel del SEÑOR. 'Ciertamente maldice a sus habitantes! -- porque ellos no acudieron a la ayuda del SEÑOR-- a la ayuda del SEÑOR en la batalla en contra de los guerreros fuertes. 24 Jael es bendecida mas que todas las demás mujeres, Jael (la esposa de Heber el Quenita), ella es más bendecida que todas las mujeres que viven en tiendas. 25 El hombre pidió agua y ella le dió leche; ella le trajo mantequilla en platos para príncipes. 26 Ella puso su mano sobre la estaca de su tienda, y su mano derecha sobre el martillo del trabajador; con el martillo golpeó a Sísara, y destrozó su cabeza. Ella aplastó su cráneo en pedazos cuando lo atravesó por el lado de su cabeza. 27 El se desmayó entre sus pies, el cayó acostado allí. Entre sus pies el cayó cojeando. El lugar donde desmayó es donde el murió violentamente. 28 Fuera de una ventana ella miró-- la madre de Sísara miró a través del enrejado y clamó en tristeza, '¿Por qué su carro tarda tanto tiempo en venir? ¿Por qué los golpes de los cascos de los caballos que halan sus carros se han tardado?' 29 Sus mas sabias princesas, respondieron y ella les dio la misma respuesta: 30 '¿Ellos no han encontrado ni dividido el saqueo? -- ¿Una matriz, dos matrices para cada hombre; el botín de tela teñida para Sísara, el botín de tela teñida y bordada, dos piezas de tela teñida y bordada para los cuellos de aquellos que robaron?' 31 Así que todos tus enemigos morirán, ¡SEÑOR! Pero tus amigos serán como el sol cuando se eleva en su poder." y la tierra tuvo paz por cuarenta años.

cuando la gente voluntariamente se ofreció para la guerra
"cuando los hombres aceptan pelear en batalla"

Información General:
La canción de Débora y Barac continúa utilizando poesía.

Oigan, reyes! Presten atención, líderes!
Débora y Barac hablan a los reyes y líderes como si estuvieran escuchando la canción

ustedes reyes... ustedes líderes
Esto se refiere a los reyes y líderes en general, no a reyes o líderes en específico.

cuando saliste de Seir, cuando te marchaste de Edom Esto se refiere al tiempo en que los israelitas salieron de Edom para comenzar a conquistar al pueblo de Canaán. Se habla del SEÑOR empoderando a su pueblo para que derrotaran a la gente de Canaán como si fuera un soldado liderando al ejército israelita.

Seir
Seir es una montaña en la frontera de Israel y Edom.

la tierra tembló, y los cielos se estremecieron; aún las nubes destilaron agua.
Posibles definiciones son 1) Esto es lenguaje poético que enfatiza el poder del SEÑOR describiendo que causa terremotos y tormentas o 2) se habla de el pueblo de Canaán siendo aterrorizado mientras los israelitas estaban por atacar como si la tierra y el cielo estuvieran temblando.

Judges 5:5

Información General:
La canción de Débora y Barac continúa utilizando poesía.

Las montañas temblaron
Esto probablemente se refiere a terremotos y da la impresión de que las montañas temblaron porque le temían al SEÑOR. TA: "Las montañas temblaron con miedo"

delante del rostro del SEÑOR Aquí "rostro" se refiere a la presencia del SEÑOR. TA: "en la presencia del SEÑOR"

aún el Monte Sinaí tembló Cuando Moisés y Israel estaban en el Monte Sinaí, tembló. TA: "hace tiempo, hasta el Monte Sinaí tembló"

En los días de Aquí "días" representa un período más largo de tiempo. TA: "Durante la vida de"

Samgar... Anat... Jael
Estos son nombres de personas. Vea como tradujo Samgar y Anat en 3:31 y Jael en 4:17.

hijo de Anat
El padre de Samgar se menciona para ayudar a identificar a Samgar y cuando vivió.

los principales caminos fueron abandonados Esto se puede declarar de forma activa y se puede hacer explícito el porque los caminos estaban abandonados. TA: "La gente dejó de usar los caminos principales; porque le temían a los enemigos de Israel"

caminos torcidos
Esto se refiere a los caminos más pequeños que menos gente utilizaba.

Judges 5:7

una madre tomó control en Israel Esto habla de el liderazgo de Débora como si ella fuera una madre de los israelitas. TA: "Yo cuidé a los israelitas como una madre cuida a sus hijos"

ellos escogieron nuevos dioses
El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito. TA: "El pueblo de Israel adoraban a nuevos dioses"

Chapter 6

1 La gente de Israel hizo lo malo delante del SEÑOR y los entregó en las manos de los madianitas por siete años. 2 El poder de Madián lastimó fuertemente a Israel. Por causa de Madian los israelitas se hicieron escondites en las colinas, las cuevas y otros lugares de refugio. 3 Sucedió que cada vez que los Israelitas sembraban sus cosechas, los madianitas y los amalecitas y la gente del oriente atacaban a los israelitas. 4 Ellos ponían su ejército en la tierra y destruían la cosecha, todo el camino hasta Gaza. No dejaban comida en Israel, ni ovejas, tampoco ganado o burros. 5 Siempre que ellos y su ganado y sus tiendas de campañas subían, ellos venían como una gran cantidad de langostas, y era imposible contar las personas o sus camellos. Ellos invadieron la tierra para destruírla. 6 Madián debilitó a los israelitas tan severamente, que el pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR. 7 Cuando el pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR por causa de Madián, 8 el SEÑOR envió un profeta al pueblo de Israel. El profeta les dijo: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice: 'Te saqué de Egipto, te saqué de la casa de la esclavitud. 9 Te rescaté de la mano de los Egipcios, y de la mano de todos los que te lastimaban fuertemente. Los eché de delante de ustedes y les entregué a ustedes sus tierras. 10 Yo te dije: "Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios; yo te ordené que no adoraras los dioses de los amorreos, en cuya tierra tú estás viviendo." Pero no has obedecido mi voz."" 11 Ahora el ángel del SEÑOR vino y se sentó debajo de un árbol grande en Ofra, que pertenecía a Joás (el de Abiezer), mientras Gedéon, hijo de Joás, estaba separando el trigo sacudiéndolo en el piso, en el lugar donde ellos pisaban las uvas para hacer vino, para esconderlo de los madianitas. 12 El ángel del SEÑOR se le apareció a él y dijo a él: "¡EL SEÑOR está contigo, guerrero fuerte!" 13 Gedeón le dijo a él, "Oh, mi Señor; si el SEÑOR esta con nosotros, ¿Entonces, por qué nos ha sucedido todo eso? ¿Dónde están todas sus maravillosas obras, las cuales nuestros padres nos contaron, cuando ellos dijeron, '¿No nos sacó el SEÑOR de Egipto?' Pero ahora el SEÑOR nos ha abandonado y entregado en manos de Madián." 14 El SEÑOR lo miró a él y dijo: "Ve en la fuerza que ya tú tienes. Libera a Israel de la mano de Madian. ¿No te he mandado yo?" 15 Gedeón le dijo a él, "Por favor, Señor, ¿cómo puedo yo liberar a Israel? Ves, mi familia es la más débil en Manasés, y yo soy el menos importante en la casa de mi padre." 16 El SEÑOR le dijo a él, "Yo estaré contigo, y tú derrotarás el ejército madianita como a un solo hombre." 17 Gedeón le dijo a él, "Si te agradas de mi, entonces dame una señal que eres tú el que me está hablando. 18 Por favor, no te marches de aquí, hasta que yo venga a ti y traiga mi regalo y lo ofrezca a ti." El SEÑOR dijo, "Yo esperaré hasta que tú regreses." 19 Gedeón fue y preparó un cabrito e hizo de un barril de veintidós litros de harina, e hizo pan sin levadura. Él puso la carne en una cesta, y puso el caldo en un caldero y los trajo a él debajo del árbol grande, y los presentó. 20 El Ángel de Dios le dijo a él: "Toma la carne y el pan sin levadura y colócalos sobre esta roca, y derrama el caldo sobre ellos." Y Gedeón lo hizo así. 21 Entonces El Ángel del SEÑOR extendió su mano para alcanzarla con la punta de la vara. Con ella Él tocó la carne y el pan sin levadura; un fuego subió de la roca y consumió la carne y el pan sin levadura. Entonces el Ángel del SEÑOR se marchó y Gedeón no pudo verlo más. 22 Gedeón entendió que este era El Ángel del SEÑOR. Gedeón dijo, 23 "¡Ah, Señor! ¡Pues he visto El Ángel del SEÑOR cara a cara!" El SEÑOR le dijo a él, "¡Paz a ti! No tengas miedo, tú no morirás." 24 Así que Gedeón construyó un altar ahí para el SEÑOR. Él lo llamó, "El SEÑOR es Paz." Hasta este día todavía está en pie en Ofra del grupo de familias de Abiezer. 25 Esa noche el SEÑOR dijo a él, "Toma el toro de tu padre, y un segundo toro que tiene siete años de edad, y derriba el altar de Baal que pertenece a tu padre, y corta el palo de adoración de la diosa Asera que está a su lado. 26 Construye un altar al SEÑOR tu Dios sobre este lugar de refugio, y constrúyelo de la manera correcta. Ofrece el segundo toro como una ofrenda quemada, usando la madera de la Asera que cortaste." 27 Así que Gedeón tomó diez de sus siervos e hizo como el SEÑOR le había dicho. Pero porque él estaba demasiado temeroso de la familia de la casa de su padre y los hombres del pueblo para hacerlo durante el día, él lo hizo en la noche. 28 En la mañana cuado los hombres del pueblo se levantaron, el altar de Baal estaba derribado, y el palo de Asera que estaba a su lado estaba cortado, y el segundo toro había sido ofrecido sobre el altar que había sido construido. 29 Los hombres de la ciudad se dijeron unos a otros, "¿Quién ha hecho esto?" Cuando ellos hablaron unos con otros y buscaron respuestas, ellos dijeron, "Gedeón hijo de Joás ha hecho esta cosa." 30 Entonces los hombres del pueblo dijeron a Joás, "Saca a tu hijo para que muera, porque él derribó el altar de Baal, y porque él cortó el palo de Asera a su lado." 31 Joás dijo a todos lo que se le oponían a él, "¿Alegarás tú el caso por Baal? ¿Lo salvarás tú? El que alegue el caso por él, que éste sea muerto mientras todavía es de mañana. Si Baal es dios, déjenlo a él defenderse él mismo cuando alguien derriba su altar." 32 Por lo tanto en ese día ellos llamaron a Gedeón "Jerobaal," porque él dijo, "Deja que Baal se defienda él mismo contra él," porque Gedeón derribó el altar de Baal. 33 Ahora todos los madianitas, los amalecitas, y la gente del este se juntaron. Cruzaron el Jordán y acamparon en el valle de Jezreel. 34 Pero el Espíritu del SEÑOR vino sobre Gedeón. Gedeón sonó una trompeta, llamando al grupo de familias de Abiezer, para que ellos pudieran seguirlo. 35 Él envió mensajeros a través de todo Manasés, y ellos también fueron llamados a seguirlo. Él también envió mensajeros a Aser, Zabulón, y Neftalí, y ellos subieron a encontrarse con él. 36 Gedeón dijo a Dios, "Si tu intención es usarme para salvar a Israel, según tú has dicho- 37 Mira, yo estoy poniendo una piel de lana de oveja en el suelo. Si hay sólo rocío sobre la lana, y todo el suelo está seco, entonces yo sabré que tú me usarás para salvar a Israel, según tú dijiste." 38 Esto es lo que pasó--Gedeón se levantó temprano la siguiente mañana, él presionó la lana, y exprimió el rocío de la lana, suficiente para llenar con agua un recipiente. 39 Entonces Gedeón dijo a Dios, "No te enojes conmigo, yo hablaré una vez más. Por favor permíteme una prueba más utilizando la lana. Esta vez haz a la lana seca, y permite que haya rocío sobre el suelo alrededor de ella." 40 Dios hizo lo que él le pidió esa noche. La lana estaba seca, y había rocío sobre todo el suelo a su alrededor.

Judges 6:13

mi Señor, mi maestro
Gedeón utilizó la palabra "maestro" de una manera educada para saludar a un extraño. Él no se da cuenta que estaba hablando con el SEÑOR en forma de ángel o de hombre.

¿Dónde están todas sus maravillosas obras, las cuales nuestros padres nos contaron, cuando ellos dijeron, '¿No nos sacó el SEÑOR de Egipto?
Gedeón utiliza una pregunta para retar la declaración del extraño sobre que el SEÑOR estaba con él. También, la citación directa se puede declarar como una declaración indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Nosotros no hemos visto obras maravillosas como las que nuestros padres nos han dicho de cuando el SEÑOR los sacó de Egipto."

Chapter 7

1 Entonces Jerobaal (que es, Gedeón) se levantó temprano, y todas las personas que estaban con él, y acamparon junto al manantial de Harod. El campamento de Madián estaba al norte en el valle cerca de la montaña de More. 2 SEÑOR dijo a Gedeón: ''Hay demasiados soldados para yo darte la victoria sobre Madián, para que así Israel no presuma delante de mi, diciendo: 'Nuestro propio poder nos ha salvado'. 3 Ahora por lo tanto, proclama en los oídos de la gente y di, 'Quien tenga miedo, quien tiemble, dejenlo regresar desde el Monte Galaad. Así que 22, 000 personas se regresaron y 10, 000 permanecieron. 4 EL SEÑOR dijo a Gedeón, ''Aún siguen siendo muchos. Llévalos a beber agua, y yo haré que sean menor cantidad para ti. Si te digo a ti, 'Este irá contigo,' él irá contigo; pero si digo, 'Este no irá contigo,' él no irá.'' 5 Así que Gedeón los llevó al agua, y EL SEÑOR le dijo a él, ''Separa a todo el que lame el agua, como los perros lamen, de aquellos que se arrodillan a beber.'' 6 Trescientos hombres lamieron. El resto de los hombres se arrodilló a beber agua. 7 EL SEÑOR dijo a Gedeón, ''Con los trescientos hombres que lamieron, yo te rescataré y te daré la victoria sobre los Madianitas. Deja que los otros hombres vuelvan a su propio lugar.'' 8 Así que aquellos quienes fueron elegidos, tomaron sus alimentos y sus trompetas. Gedeón envió a todos los hombres de Israel, cada hombre a su tienda de acampar, pero se quedó con los trescientos hombres. Ahora el campamento de Madián estaba más abajo de él, en el valle. 9 Esa misma noche EL SEÑOR le dijo a él: ''Levántate! Ataca el campamento, pues Yo te daré la victoria sobre ellos. 10 Pero si tienes miedo de descender, ve abajo al campamento con Fura tu sirviente, 11 y escucha lo que ellos están diciendo, y tu valentía se fortalecerá para atacar el campamento.'' Así que Gedeón fue con Fura su sirviente, a los puestos de guardias del campamento. 12 Los Madianitas, los Amalecitas, y todas las personas del este se habian ubicado a lo largo del valle, y eran tan grueso como una nube de saltamontes. Sus camellos eran más de lo que se podía contar; Ellos eran más en número que los granos de arena en la orilla del mar. 13 Cuando Gedeón llegó allí, un hombre estaba contando un sueño a su acompañante. El hombre decía: ''Mira! tuve un sueño, y vi un pan de cebada que rodaba en el campamento de Madián. Llegó a la tienda de acampar y la golpeó tan fuerte que la volteó, y quedó aplastada. 14 El otro hombre dijo: ''Esto no es otra cosa que la espada de Gedeón (el hijo de Joás), el Israelita. Dios le ha dado victoria sobre Madián y todo su ejército.'' 15 Cuando Gedeón escuchó sobre su sueño y su interpretación, él se postró en alabanza. El fue al campamento de Israel y dijo: ''Levántense! el SEÑOR les ha dado la victoria sobre el ejército Madianita.'' 16 Él dividió los trecientos hombres en tres grupos, y les dio a todos trompetas y vasijas vacías, con antorchas dentro de cada vasija. 17 Él les dijo a ellos: ''Mírenme a mi y hagan como yo hago. Observen! Cuando yo llegue por el borde del campo, ustedes deben hacer como yo hago. 18 Cuando yo, y todos los que están conmigo, sonemos la trompeta, entonces ustedes suenen sus trompetas también en todo el campo y griten, 'Por el SEÑOR y por Gedeón!'' 19 Así que Gedeón y los cien hombres que estaban con él vinieron a la orilla del campamento, justo al principio de la media noche. Y justo cuando los Madianitas estaban cambiando de guardia, ellos sonaron sus trompetas y rompieron las vasijas que estaban en sus manos. 20 Los tres grupos de hombres sonaron las trompetas y rompieron las vasijas. Ellos sostuvieron las antorchas en su mano derecha para soplarlas. Ellos gritaron, ''La espada del SEÑOR y de Gedeón.'' 21 Cada hombre se mantuvo en su lugar alrededor del campo y todo el ejército Madianita corrió. Ellos gritaron y huyeron. 22 Cuando ellos sonaron las trescientas trompetas, el SEÑOR colocó cada espada de los Madianitas en contra de sus compañeros y en contra de todo su ejército. El ejército huyó hasta Bet Sita en dirección a Zerera, hasta la frontera de Abel Mehola, cerca de Tabat. 23 Los hombres de Israel desde Neftalí, Aser, y todo Manasés fueron llamados afuera, y fueron tras Madián. 24 Gedeón envió mensajeros a través de todas las colinas del país de Efraín, diciendo: ''Desciendan en contra de Madián y tomen control del río Jordán, hasta Bet Bara, para detenerlos.'' Así todos los hombres de Efraín se reunieron y tomaron control de las aguas, hasta Bet Bara y el río Jordán. Ellos capturaron los dos principes de Madián, Oreb y Zeeb. 25 Ellos mataron a Oreb en las rocas de Oreb, y a Zeeb en el lugar donde se pisan las uvas para hacer vino de Zeeb. Ellos fueron tras los Madianitas, y ellos trajeron las cabezas de Oreb, y Zeeb a Gedeón, quien estaba en el otro lado del Jordán.

Chapter 8

1 Los hombres de Efraín le dijeron a Gedeón, "Qué es esto que nos has hecho a nosotros? No nos llamaste cuando peleaste contra Madián?" Y lo discutieron con él violentamente. 2 Él les dijo a ellos: "¿Qué he hecho yo comparado con ustedes? ¿No son las sobras de las uvas de Efraín mejores que la cosecha completa de uvas de Abiezer? 3 ¡Dios les ha dado a ustedes la victoria sobre los príncipes de Madián--Oreb y Zeeb! ¿Qué he logrado yo comparado con ustedes? El enojo de ellos se calmó cuando él dijo esto. 4 Gedeón vino al Jordán y lo cruzó, él y los trescientos hombres que estaban con él. Ellos estaban cansados, pero continuaron la persecución. 5 Él le dijo a los hombres de Sucot: "Por favor, dénle pan a las personas que me siguen, porque ellos están cansados y yo estoy persiguiendo a Zeba y Zalmuna, los reyes de Madián." 6 Y los oficiales dijeron: "¿Ahora las manos de Zeba y Zalmuna están en tu mano? ¿Por qué deberíamos darle pan a tu ejército?" 7 Gedeón dijo: "Cuando el SEÑOR nos de la victoria sobre Zeba y Zalmuna, yo rasgaré la piel de ustedes con arbustos espinosos y zarzas del desierto." 8 Él subió desde allí hasta Peniel y le habló al pueblo que estaba allí de la misma manera, pero los hombres de Peniel contestaron como los hombres de Sucot habían contestado. 9 Él también les habló a los hombres de Peniel y les dijo: "Cuando venga de nuevo en paz, yo derribaré ésta torre." 10 Ahora, Zeba y Zalmuna estaban en Karkor con su ejército, como quince hombres, todos los que quedaron de todo el ejército del pueblo del Este, porque habían caído 120, 000 hombres quienes habían sido entrenados para pelear con espada. 11 Gedeón subió por el camino que los habitantes de tiendas de campaña tomaron, pasó Noba y Jogbeha. Él derrotó al ejército enemigo, porque no estaban esperando un ataque. 12 Zeba y Zalmuna huyeron, y mientras Gedeón los perseguía, él capturó a los dos reyes de Madián- Zeba y Zalmuna- y le causó mucho miedo a todo el ejército de ellos. 13 Gedeón, hijo de Joás, regresó de la batalla yendo por el paso de Heres. 14 Él se encontró con un joven del pueblo de Sucot y le pidió consejo. El joven le describió a él los líderes de Sucot y a sus ancianos, setenta y siete hombres. 15 Gedeón vino a donde los hombres de Sucot y dijo: "Miren a Zeba y a Zalmuna, por los cuales ustedes se burlaron de mí y dijeron: '¿Ya has conquistado a Zeba y a Zalmuna? No sabemos si deberíamos darle pan a tu ejército.'" 16 Gedeón tomó a los ancianos de la ciudad y castigó a los hombres de Sucot con los arbustos espinosos y zarzas del desierto. 17 Y derribó la torre de Peniel y mató a los hombres de esa ciudad. 18 Luego, Gedeón le dijo a Zeba y Zalmuna: "¿Qué clase de hombres ustedes mataron en Tabor?" Ellos contestaron: "Como eres tú, así eran ellos. Cada uno de ellos parecía un hijo de un rey. 19 Gedeón dijo: "Ellos eran mis hermanos, los hijos de mi madre. Vive El SEÑOR, si ustedes hubieran salvado sus vidas, yo no los mataría a ustedes." 20 Él le dijo a Jeter (su primogénito): "¡Levántate y mátalos!" Pero el joven no sacó su espada porque tenía miedo, porque aun era un muchacho joven. 21 Entonces Zeba y Zalmuna dijeron: "¡Levántate tú mismo y mátanos!" Porque según sea el hombre, así es su fuerza." Gedeón se levantó y mató a Zeba y a Zalmuna. Y también tomó los adornos en forma de media luna que estaban en los cuellos de sus camellos" 22 Luego, los hombres de Israel le dijeron a Gedeón: "Gobierna sobre nosotros- tú, tu hijo y tu nieto- porque tú nos has salvado de la mano de Madián. 23 Gedeón les dijo: "Yo no gobernaré sobre ustedes, ni mi hijo gobernará sobre ustedes. El SEÑOR gobernará sobre ustedes. 24 Gedeón les dijo: "Permítanme hacerles una petición: que cada uno de ustedes me de los aretes de su botín." (Los madianitas tenían aretes de oro porque ellos eran ismaelistas.) 25 Ellos respondieron: "Estamos contentos de dártelos." Ellos extendieron una capa y cada hombre lanzó sobre ella los aretes de su botín. 26 El peso de los aretes de oro que él pidió fue de 18. 7 kilogramos de oro. Este botín fue adicional a los adornos de media luna, los aretes, la ropa púrpura que vestían los reyes de Madián, y adicional a las cadenas que habían estado alrededor del cuello de sus camellos. 27 Gedeón hizo una pieza de vestimenta con los aretes y lo puso en su ciudad, en Ofra, y todo Israel se prostituyó al adorarlo allí. Esto se convirtió en una trampa para Gedeón y para los de su casa. 28 Así pues, Madián quedó bajo el dominio del pueblo de Israel y nunca volvieron a revelarse otra vez. Y la tierra tuvo paz por cuarenta años, en los días de Gedeón. 29 Jerobaal (Gedeón), hijo de Joás, fue y habitó en su propia casa. 30 Gedeón tuvo setenta hijos quienes eran sus descendientes, porque él tenía muchas esposas. 31 Su concubina, quien estaba en Siquem, le dio un hijo y Gedeón le dio el nombre de Abimelec. 32 Gedeón, hijo de Joás, murió a buena edad y fue enterrado en Ofra, en la tumba de su padre Joás, del grupo de familias de los Abiezeritas. 33 Y sucedió, que tan pronto murió Gedeón, el pueblo de Israel nuevamente se volvió y ellos pecaron contra EL SEÑOR adorando a los baales. Ellos hicieron de Baal Berit su dios. 34 El pueblo de Israel no recordó honrar al SEÑOR, su Dios, quien los había rescatado de la mano de sus enemigos en derredor. 35 Ellos no guardaron sus promesas a la casa de Jerobaal (es decir, Gedeón), a cambio de todo el bien que él había hecho en Israel.

Chapter 9

1 Abimelec, hijo de Jerobaal fue a la casa de los parientes de su madre en Siquem y les dijo a ellos y a todos los del grupo de familias de su madre: 2 "Por favor digan esto, para que todos los líderes de Sequem puedan oir: '¿Qué es mejor para ustedes: el tener a todos los setenta hijos de Jerbobaal gobernando sobre ustedes, o que solo uno gobierne sobre ustedes?' Acuerdense que yo soy de su misma familia. 3 Los parientes de su madre hablaron por él a los líderes de Siquem, y estuvieron de acuerdo en seguir a Abimelec, pues dijeron: "Él es nuestro hermano." 4 Le dieron casi un kilo de plata de la casa de Baal Berit, y Abimelec las usó para contratar hombres problemáticos y de caracter valiente, quienes le seguían. 5 Abimelec fue a la casa de su padre en Ofra, y sobre una piedra él mató a sus diecisiete hermanos, los hijos de Jerobaal. Solo Jotam quedo con vida, el hijo menor de Jerobaal, porque él se escondió. 6 Todos los líderes de Siquem y Bet Milo se juntaron y ellos se fueron e hicieron a Abimelec rey, junto al árbol grande cerca del pilar que está en Siquem. 7 Cuando a Jotam le contaron acerca de esto, fue y se paró en la cima del Monte Gerizim. Él gritó y dijo: "Escúchenme, ustedes líderes de Siquem, para que Dios los escuche a ustedes. 8 Los árboles fueron una vez a ungir a un rey sobre ellos. Y ellos le dijeron al árbol de olivo, 'Reina sobre nosotros.' 9 Pero el árbol de olivo les dijo: '¿Debo yo dar de mi aceite, el cual es usado para honrar dioses y hombres, para que yo pueda regresar, solo para inclinarme sobre los otros árboles?' 10 Los árboles le dijeron al árbol de higo: 'Ven y reina sobre nosotros.' 11 Pero el árbol de higo le dijo: '¿Debo yo renunciar a mi dulzura y mi buen fruto, solo para que y yo pueda regresar he de inclinarme sobre los otros árboles?' 12 Los árboles le dijeron al viñero: 'Ven y reina sobre nosotros.' 13 El viñero le dijo: '¿Debo yo dejar de dar mi nuevo vino, el cual ánima dioses y hombres, y regresar e inclinarme sobre otros árboles?' 14 Luego dijeron todos los árboles a la zarza: 'Ven y reina sobre nosotros.' 15 La zarza le dijo a los árboles: 'Si ustedes realmente quieren ungirme como rey sobre ustedes, entonces vengan y encuentren seguridad debajo de mi sombra. Si no, entonces dejen que el fuego salga fuera de la zarza y déjenlo que queme los cedros del Líbano.' 16 Ahora mientras tanto, si ustedes han actuado en verdad y honestidad, cuando ustedes hicieron a Abimelec rey, y si ustedes han hecho bien en cuanto a Jerobaal y su casa, y si ustedes lo han castigado a él como él merece- 17 -- y pensar que mi padre peleó por ustedes, arriesgó su vida, y los rescató de la mano de Madián-- 18 pero hoy ustedes se han levantado contra la casa de mi padre y han matado a sus hijos, setenta personas, sobre una piedra. Ademas ustedes han hecho a Abimelec, hijo de su sirviente femenina, rey sobre los líderes de Siquem, porque él es su pariente. 19 Si ustedes han actuado con honestidad e integridad a Jerobaal, entonces regocígense en Abimelec, y déjenlo también regocijarse en ustedes. 20 Pero si no, dejen que el fuego salga de Abimelec y queme a los hombres de Siquem y Bet Milo. Dejen que el fuego salga de los hombres de Siquem y Bet Milo, para quemar a Abimelec." 21 Jotam huyó y corrió lejos, y se fue para Beer. Vivió allí, porque era muy lejos de Abimelec, su hermano. 22 Abimelec reinó sobre Israel por tres años. 23 Dios envió un espíritu malo entre Abimelec y los líderes de Siquem. Los líderes de Siquem traicionaron la confianza que ellos tenían con Abimelec. 24 Dios hizo esto para que la maldad hecha a los diecisiete hermanos de Jerobaal pudiera ser vengada y Abimelec su hermano tuviera que ser responsable por la matanza de ellos, y los hombres de Siquem fueran detenidos responsables porque ellos lo ayudaron a matar a sus hermanos. 25 Entonces los líderes de Siquem pusieron hombres para esperar en las colinas y emboscar, y robaron a todo al que pasara por ese camino. Esto fue reportado a Abimelec. 26 Gaal hijo de Ebed, vino con sus parientes y ellos se fueron a Siquem. Los líderes de Siquem tenían confianza en él. 27 Ellos se fueron al campo y recogieron y pisaron las uvas de los viñedos. Ellos tuvieron un festival en la casa de su dios, donde ellos comieron y bebieron, y ellos maldijeron a Abimelec. 28 Gaal hijo de Ebed, dijo: "¿Quién es Abimelec, y quién es Siquem, que debemos servirle? ¿No es él el hijo de Jerobaal? ¿Y no es Zebul su ayudante? ¡Sirvan a los hombres de Hamor, el padre de Siquem! ¿Porqué debemos nosotros servir a Abimelec? 29 ¡Desearía que esta gente estuviera bajo mis órdenes! Así quitaría a Abimelec. Yo le diría a Abimelec: 'saca a todo tu ejército.' 30 Cuando Zebul, el oficial de la ciudad, escuchó las palabras de Gaal hijo de Ebed su coraje fue muy grande. 31 Él envió mensajeros a Abimelec a fin de engañarlo, diciendo: "Mira, Gaal hijo de Ebed y sus parientes vienen a Siquem, y ellos están alborotando a la ciudad en contra tuya. 32 Ahora, levantate durante la noche, tú y los soldados contigo, y prepara una emboscada en los campos. 33 Luego en la mañana, tan pronto salga el sol, levantate temprano y entra en la ciudad. Y cuando él y la gente que esta con él salgan en contra tuya, hazles todo lo que puedas." 34 Entonces Abimelec se levantó durante la noche, él y todos sus hombres, prepararon una emboscada contra Siquem--dividiéndose en cuatro grupos. 35 Gaal hijo de Ebed salió y se paró en la entrada de la puerta de la ciudad. Abimelec y los hombres que estaban con él salieron fuera de sus escondites. 36 Cuando Gaal vió a los hombres, él dijo a Zebul:"¡Mira, los hombres vienen bajando de las colinas! Zebul le dijo:

"Ustedes están viendo las sombras de las colinas como si fueran hombres." 37 Gaal habló otra vez y dijo: "Miren, los hombres están bajando del medio de la tierra, y un grupo viene por el camino de los árboles grandes de los adivinos." 38 Luego Zebul le dijo: "¿Donde están tus palabras orgullosas ahora?, tú quien dices, ¿Quién es Abimelec que nosotros debemos servirle a él?" ¿Estos no son los hombres que tú despreciaste? Sal ahora y pelea en contra de ellos." 39 Gaal salió liderando los hombres de Siquem, y peleó en contra de Abimelec. 40 Abimelec lo siguió, y Gaal huyó delante de él. Muchos cayeron con heridas mortales ante la entrada a la puerta de la ciudad. 41 Abimelec se quedó en Aruma. Zebul forzó a Gaal y a sus parientes fuera de Siquem. 42 Al día siguiente la gente de Siquem salió al campo y esto fue reportado a Abimelec. 43 Él tomó a su gente, los dividió en tres grupos, y ellos prepararon una emboscada en los campos. Él miró y vió la gente saliendo de la ciudad. Y él los atacó y los mató. 44 Abimelec y sus grupos que estaban con él atacaron y cerraron la entrada de la ciudad. Los otros dos grupos atacaron a todos los que estaban en el campo y los mataron. 45 Abimelec peleó en contra de la ciudad todo el día. Él capturó la ciudad, y mató las personas que estaban en ella. Él derribó la paredes de la ciudad y hecho sal sobre ella. 46 Cuando todos los líderes de la torre de Siquem escucharon esto, ellos entraron a la fortaleza de la casa de El Berit. 47 Abimelec fue dicho que todos los líderes se habían reunido juntos en la torre de Siquem. 48 Abimelec fue hacia arriba al monte de Salmón, él y todos los hombres que estaban con él. Abimelec tomó un hacha y cortó sus ramas. Las puso en su hombro y ordenó a los hombres que estaba con él: "Apúrensen y hagan lo mismo que me han visto hacer." 49 Entonces cada uno cortó ramas y siguió a Abimelec. Ellos las amontonaron contra la pared de la torre, y les prendieron fuego, para que así todas las personas de la torre de Siquem también murieran, como mil hombres y mujeres. 50 Luego Abimelec fue a Tebes, y él acampo contra Tebes y lo capturó. 51 Pero ahí habia una torre fuerte en la ciudad, y todos los hombres y mujeres y todos los líderes de la ciudad huyeron hacia la torre y se encerraron adentro. Luego ellos subieron al techo de la torre. 52 Abimelec vino a la torre y peleó contra ella, se acerco a la puerta de la torre para quemarla. 53 Pero una mujer dejó caer una piedra de molino sobre la cabeza de Abimelec y le rompió su cráneo. 54 Luego él llamó urgentemente a su hombre más joven quien era su cargador de armadura, y le dijo: "Saca tu espada y mátame, para que nadie diga de mí: 'Una mujer lo mató." Entonces el joven lo atravezo, y Abimelec murió. 55 Cuando los hombres de Israel vieron que Abimelec estaba muerto, se fueron a su casa. 56 Y así Dios vengó la maldad que Abimelec le hizo a su padre al haber matado a sus setenta hermanos. 57 Dios hizo que toda la maldad de los hombres de Siquem se volteara sobre sus propias cabezas y sobre ellos vino la maldición de Jotam hijo de Jerobaal.

Chapter 10

1 Después de Abimelec, se levantó Tola hijo de Púa, hijo de Dodo, varón de Isacar que vivia en Samir en las montañas de Efrain, para salvar a Israel. 2 Él juzgó a Israel por veintitres años. Murió y fue sepultado en Samir. 3 Le sucedió Jair el Galaadita. Él juzgó a Israel por veitidos años. 4 Él tuvo treinta hijos que montaban treinta burros y ellos tenían treinta ciudades en la tierra de Galaad, que se llaman Havot Jair hasta estos dias. 5 Jair murió y fue sepultado en Camón. 6 El pueblo de Israel añadieron a su maldad ante los ojos del SEÑOR, y adoraron los Baales, Astarot, los dioses de Aram, los dioses de Sidón, los dioses de Moab, los dioses del pueblo de Amón y los dioses de los Filisteos. Ellos abandonaron al SEÑOR y ya no lo adoraban. 7 El SEÑOR se enojó fuertemente con Israel y los entregó en mano de los Filisteos y en mano de los Amonitas. 8 Ellos entristecieron y lastimaron fuertemente al pueblo de Israel ese tiempo y por dieciocho años ellos oprimieron a todo el pueblo de Israel que estaba más allá del Jordán en tierra de los amorreos, que es Galaad. 9 Y los amonitas cruzaron el Jordán para luchar contra Judá, contra Benjamín y contra la casa de Efraín, así que Israel sufrió mucho. 10 Entonces el pueblo de Israel clamó al SEÑOR diciendo, "Hemos pecado contra tí, porque hemos abandonado a nuestro Dios y hemos adorado a los Baales". 11 El SEÑOR le dijo al pueblo de Israel, "¿No los liberé de los Egipcios, de los Amorreos, de los Amonitas, de los Filisteos 12 y de los Sidonios?" Los Amalecitas y los Maonitas los lastimaron fuertemente y ustedes clamaron a mí y yo los liberé de su poder. 13 Y aún así ustedes me abandonaron y adoraron a otros dioses. Por tanto, no los seguiré liberando. 14 Vayan y clamen a los dioses que ustedes adoraron. Dejen que ellos los rescaten cuando estén en problemas. 15 El pueblo de Israel dijo al SEÑOR, "Hemos pecado. Haz con nosotros lo que creas justo. Solamente, pedimos, que nos rescates este dia. 16 Ellos se volvieron de los dioses ajenos que tenían y adoraron al SEÑOR. Y Él se volvió impaciente ante la miseria de Israel. 17 Luego, los Amonitas se reunieron y acamparon en Galaad. Los Israelitas se reunieron y acamparon en Mizpa. 18 Los líderes del pueblo de Galaad se decian unos a otros, "¿Quién es el hombre que comenzará la batalla contra los Amonitas? Él se convertirá en el líder de aquellos que viven en Galaad.

1 Ahora, Jefté el galaadita era un guerrero poderoso, pero era hijo de una prostituta. Su padre era Galaad. 2 La esposa de Galaad dió a luz sus otros hijos. Cuando los hijos de la esposa crecieron, ellos forzaron a Jefté a irse de la casa y le dijeron, "Tu no vas a heredar nada de nuestra familia. Tu eres hijo de otra mujer." 3 Así que Jefté se alejó de sus hermanos y se fué a vivir a la tierra de Tob. Este se juntó a hombres corruptos y se fueron con el. 4 Algunos días más tarde, el pueblo amonita se levantó en guerra en contra de Israel. 5 Cuando los amonitas vinieron en guerra en contra de Israel, los ancianos de Galaad fueron a buscar a Jefté para traerlo de vuelta de la tierra de Tob. 6 Ellos dijeron a Jefté: "Ven y sé nuestro líder para que podamos pelear con la gente de Amón". 7 Jefté le respondió a los líderes de Galaad, "Ustedes me odiaron y me forzaron a abandonar la casa de mi padre. Porqué vienen a mi ahora, cuando están en problemas? 8 Los ancianos de Galaad le contestaron a Jefté, "Por eso es que nos volvimos a tí ahora, ven con nosotros y pelea en contra de los amonitas, y te convertirás en el líder sobre todos los que viven en Galaad. 9 Jefté le dijo a los ancianos de Galaad, "Si ustedes me traen de vuelta a casa para pelear en contra de los amonitas, y si El SEÑOR nos dá la victoria sobre ellos, Yo seré su líder." 10 Los ancianos respondieron a Jefté, "Que El SEÑOR sea nuestro testigo entre nosotros si no hacemos como te hemos dicho!" 11 Así que Jefté volvió con los ancianos de Galaad, y el pueblo lo hizo líder y comandante sobre ellos. Cuando fueron ante El SEÑOR en Mizpa, Jefté repitió todas las promesas hechas. 12 Entonces Jefté envió mensajeros al rey de los amonitas, diciendo: "¿Cuál es el problema entre nosotros? ¿Porque han venido con fuerza a tomar nuestra tierra?" 13 El rey de los amonitas respondió a los mensajeros de Jefté: "Porque cuando Israel vino de Egipto, ellos se apoderaron de nuestras tierras desde Arnón hasta Jaboc, hasta el Jordán. Ahora devuélvanos nuestras tierras en paz." 14 Una vez más Jefté envió mensajeros al rey de los amonitas 15 y él dijo: "Esto es lo que Jefté dice: Israel no tomó la tierra de Moab y la tierra de los amonitas, 16 pero vinieron de Egipto, e Israel fue a través del desierto hasta el Mar Rojo y hacia Cades. 17 Cuando Israel envió mensajeros al rey de Edom, diciendo: 'Por favor permítanos pasar a través de su tierra,' el rey de Edom no los escuchó. También enviaron mensajeros al rey de Moab, pero no quiso. Así que Israel se quedó en Cades. 18 Entonces fueron a través del desierto y se alejaron de la tierra de Edom y la tierra de Moab, y fueron por el lado este de la tierra de Moab y acamparon en el otro lado de Arnón. Pero ellos no entraron en el terrirorio de Moab, porque el Arnón era la frontera de Moab. 19 Israel envió mensajeros a Sehón, rey de los amonitas, quien gobernaba en Hesbón; Israel le dijo: 'Por favor, déjanos pasar por tu tierra a nuestro lugar.' 20 Pero Sehón no confió en Israel para pasar por su territorio. Así que Sehón reunió a todo su ejército y lo movió a Jahaza, y allí, él peleó contra Israel. 21 Y el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, puso a Sehón y a toda su gente en manos de Israel y ellos los vencieron. Así que Israel tomó toda la tierra de los amoritas que vivían en aquella región. 22 Ellos tomaron todo lo que estaba dentro del territorio de los amonitas, desde el Arnón hasta el Jaboc, y desde el desierto hasta el Jordán. 23 Entonces el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, ha sacado fuera a los amonitas ante su pueblo Israel, y ¿Debes tú ahora tomar posesión de su tierra? 24 ¿No has tomado tu la tierra que Quemos, tu dios, te ha dado? Así que cualquier tierra que el SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos ha dado, nosotros tomaremos. 25 Ahora, ¿eres tú realmente mejor que Balac hijo de Zipor, rey de Moab? ¿Acaso él se atrevió a dar razón en contra de Israel? ¿Alguna vez se atrevió a hacer guerra contra ellos? 26 Mientras Israel vivió por trescientos años en Hesbón y en sus aldeas, y en Aroer y sus aldeas, y en todas las ciudades que están cerca de los bancos de Arnón-- ¿Porqué entonces tú no los retomaste durante ese tiempo? 27 Yo no te he hecho mal a ti, pero tú me estás haciendo mal atacándome. El SEÑOR, el juez, va a decidir hoy entre el pueblo de Israel y el pueblo de Amón. 28 Pero el rey del pueblo de Amón rechazó el aviso que Jefté le envió. 29 Entonces el Espíritu del SEÑOR vino sobre Jefté, y él pasó por Galaad y Manasés, y paso por Mizpa de Galaad, y de Mizpa de Galaad él pasó hacia el pueblo de Amón. 30 Jefté hizo un juramento al SEÑOR y dijo: "Si tú me das la victoria sobre el pueblo de Amón, 31 entonces lo que sea que salga de las puertas de mi casa a encontrarse conmigo cuando yo regrese en paz del pueblo de Amón pertenecerá al SEÑOR, y yo lo ofreceré como ofrenda quemada.'' 32 Así que Jefté pasó hacia el pueblo de Amón para pelear en contra de ellos, y el SEÑOR le dio victoria. 33 Él los atacó y causó una gran matanza desde Aroer hasta tan lejos como Minit-- veinte ciudades-- y hasta Abel Keramim. Así que el pueblo de Amón fue puesto bajo el control del pueblo de Israel. 34 Jefté vino a su casa en Mizpa, y allí su hija salió a encontrarse con él con panderos y danzas. Ella era su única hija, y aparte de ella él no tenía ni hijo ni hija. 35 Tan pronto él la vio, rasgó su ropa y dijo: "¡Oh! ¡Mi hija! ¡Tú me has lastimado con una terrible tristeza, y tú te has convertido en una que me causa dolor! Pues yo he hecho un pacto al SEÑOR, y yo no puedo volver atrás en mi promesa." 36 Ella le dijo: "Mi padre, tú has hecho un juramento al SEÑOR, haz de mí todo lo que tú prometiste, porque el SEÑOR ha tomado venganza para tí en contra de tus enemigos, los amonitas." 37 Ella le dijo: "Deja que esta promesa se mantenga para mí. Déjame sola por dos meses, que yo pueda marcharme y bajar a las colinas y dolerme sobre mi virginidad, yo y mis compañeras." 38 Él respondió: "Vete." La envió fuera por dos meses. Ella lo dejó, ella y sus compañeras, y lloraron por su virginidad en las colinas. 39 Al final de dos meses, regresó a su padre, quien hizo con ella de acuerdo a la promesa del juramento que había hecho. Ahora ella nunca había dormido con un hombre, y se hizo costumbre en Israel 40 que las hijas de Israel cada año, por cuatro días, para recordar la historia de la hija de Jefté el galaadita.

1 Un llamado salió a los hombres de Efraín; ellos pasaron por Zafón y dijeron a Jefté, "¿Por qué tu pasaste para pelear en contra del pueblo de Amón y no nos avisaste para que fuéramos contigo? Quemaremos tu casa sobre ti." 2 Jefté le dijo a ellos, "Yo y mi pueblo estabamos en un gran conflicto con el pueblo de Amón. Cuando te llamé, tu no me rescataste de ellos. 3 Cuando ví que no me rescataste, puse mi vida en mi propia fuerza sobre el pueblo de Amón, y el SEÑOR me dió la victoria. ¿Por qué has venido a pelear contra mi hoy?" 4 Jefté juntó todos los hombres de Galaad y peleó contra Efraín. Los hombres de Galaad atacaron a los hombres de Efraín porque ellos dijeron, "Ustedes Galaaditas son fugitivos en Efraín-- en Efraín y Manasés." 5 Los Galaaditas capturaron las orillas del Jordán que conducen a Efraín. Cuando alguno de los sobrevivientes de Efraín decía, "Déjame pasar sobre el río," los de Galaad le preguntaban, "¿Eres tu un Efrateo?" si el decía, "No," 6 entonces ellos le decían a él, "di: Shibolet." Y si él decía "Sibolet" (pues él no podía pronunciar la palabra correctamente) los Galaaditas lo atrapaban y lo mataban en las orillas del Jordan. Cuarenta y dos mil Efrateos fueron asesinados en ese tiempo. 7 Jefté sirvió como juez sobre Israel por seis años. Luego Jefté el Galaadita murió y fue sepultado en una de las ciudades de Galaad. 8 Luego de él, Ibzán de Belén sirvió como juez sobre Israel. 9 Él tuvo treinta hijos. Él entregó treinta hijas en matrimonio, y él trajo de fuera, treinta hijas de otros hombres para sus hijos. El juzgó a Israel por siete años. 10 Ibzán murió y fué sepultado en Belén. 11 Despues de él, Elón el Zabulonita sirvió como juez sobre Israel. El juzgó a Israel por diez años. 12 Elón el Zabulonita murió y fué sepultado en Ajalón en la tierra de Zabulón. 13 Despues de él, Abdón hijo de Hilel el Piratonita sirvió como juez sobre Israel. 14 Él tuvo cuarenta hijos y treinta nietos. Ellos montaron sobre setenta asnos, y él juzgó a Israel por ocho años. 15 Abdón hijo de Hilel el Piratonita murió y fué sepultado en Piratón en la tierra de Efraín en el país montañoso de los Amalecitas.

Chapter 13

1 Los hijos de Israel nuevamente hicieron lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR, y Él los entregó en manos de los Filisteos por cuarenta años. 2 Había un hombre de Zora, de la familia de los Danitas, cuyo nombre era Manoa. Su esposa no podía embarazarse y por eso no había dado a luz. 3 El ángel del SEÑOR se le apareció a la mujer y le dijo a ella: "Ahora mira, no has podido quedar embarazada, y tú no has dado a luz, pero quedarás embarazada y darás a luz a un hijo. 4 Ahora ten cuidado de no tomar vino o bebida fuerte, y no comas cualquier cosa contaminad. 5 Mira, tú quedarás embarazada y darás a luz a un hijo. Ninguna navaja será usada sobre su cabeza, pues el niño será un Nazareo para Dios desde el vientre, y él comenzará a librar a Israel de la mano de los Filisteos." 6 Entonces la mujer vino y le dijo a su esposo: "Un hombre de Dios vino a mí y su apariencia era como la de un ángel de Dios, muy terrible. No le pregunté de dónde vino, y Él no me dijo su nombre. 7 Él me dijo: '¡Mira! Quedarás embarazada, y darás a luz un hijo. Así que no bebas vino o bebida fuerte, y no comas cualquier comida que la ley declara que es contaminada, porque el niño será un Nazareo para Dios desde el momento que esté en tu vientre hasta el día de su muerte." 8 Entonces Manoa oró al SEÑOR y dijo: "Oh, Dios, por favor deja que el hombre de Dios que enviaste regrese a nosotros para que pueda enseñarnos lo que debemos hacer por este niño que pronto va a nacer." 9 Dios contestó la oración de Manoa, y el ángel de Dios vino a la mujer otra vez cuando ella estaba sentada en el campo. Pero Manoa su esposo no estaba con ella. 10 Entonces la mujer corrió rápido y le dijo a su esposo: "¡Mira! El hombre se me apareció- el que vino a mí el otro día!" 11 Manoa se levantó y siguió a su esposa. Cuando vino al hombre, le dijo: "¿Eres tú el hombre que le habló a mi esposa?" El hombre le dijo: "Yo soy." 12 Entonces Manoa dijo: " Que tus palabras se hagan realidad ahora. ¿Cuáles serán las reglas para el niño, y cuál será su trabajo?" 13 El Ángel del SEÑOR dijo a Manoa: "Ella deberá hacer cuidadosamente todo lo que le he dicho. 14 Ella no deberá comer nada que sea fruto de la vid, y no la dejes tomar vino o bebida fuerte; no la dejes comer comida que la ley declara contaminada. Ella debe obedecer todo lo que le he mandado hacer." 15 Manoa le dijo al Ángel del SEÑOR: "Por favor quédate un rato, y danos tiempo de preparar un cabrito jóven para ti." 16 El ángel del SEÑOR le dijo a Manoa: "Aunque me quede no comeré tu comida. Pero si tú preparas una ofrenda quemada, ofrécela al SEÑOR." (Manoa no sabía que él era el Ángel del SEÑOR.) 17 Manoa le dijo al Ángel del SEÑOR: "¿Cuál es tu nombre, para que podamos honrarte cuando tus palabras se hagan realidad?" 18 El Ángel del SEÑOR le dijo: "¿Por qué preguntas mi nombre? ¡Es maravilloso!" 19 Entonces Manoa cogió un cabrito jóven junto con la ofrenda de grano y los ofreció sobre la roca al SEÑOR. Él hizo algo maravilloso mientras Manoa y su esposa miraban. 20 Cuando la fuego subió desde el altar hacia el cielo, el Ángel del SEÑOR subió en el fuego del altar. Manoa y su esposa vieron esto y se postraron con su cara en la tierra. 21 El Ángel del SEÑOR no volvió a aparecer otra vez a Manoa o a su esposa. Entonces Manoa supo que Él era el Ángel del SEÑOR. 22 Manoa le dijo a su esposa: "¡Seguramente moriremos, porque hemos visto a Dios!" 23 Pero su esposa le dijo: "Si el SEÑOR nos quisiera matar, Él no habría recibido la ofrenda quemada y la ofrenda de grano que le ofrecimos. Él no nos habría mostrado todas estas cosas, ni en este tiempo nos hubiera permitido escuchar tales cosas." 24 Más adelante la mujer dio a luz a un hijo, y llamó su nombre Sansón. El niño creció y el SEÑOR lo bendijo. 25 El Espíritu del SEÑOR comenzó a manifestarse en él en Majané Dan, entre Zora y Estaol.

Chapter 14

1 Sansón descendió a Timnat, y allí vió a una mujer, una de las hijas de los filisteos. 2 Cuando regresó, le dijo a su padre y a su madre: "Yo ví una mujer en Timnat, una de las hijas de los filisteos. Busquenla para que sea mi esposa." 3 Su padre y su madre le dijeron: "¿No hay una mujer entre las hijas de tus parientes, o entre todo nuestra gente? ¿Vas a tomar esposa de los filisteos incircuncisos?" Sansón le dijo a su padre: "Consígela para mí, porque cuando la miro, ella me agrada." 4 Pero su padre y su madre no sabían que esto provenia del SEÑOR, porque Él deseaba crear conflicto con los filisteos (porque durante ese tiempo los filisteos gobernaban sobre Israel). 5 Entonces Sansón descendió a Timnat con su padre y su madre, y llegaron a los viñedos de Timnat. Y he aquí, un cachorro de lenón vino hacia él ruguiéndole. 6 Él Espíritu del SEÑOR de repente vino sobre él, y él despedazó al león tan fácilmente como si él hubiese despedazado un pequeño cabrito. Pero él no le dijo a su padre ni a su madre lo que había hecho. 7 Él fue y habló con la mujer, y cuando él la miró a ella, ella le agradó a Sansón. 8 Unos días después cuando regresó para casarse con ella, él se salió del camino para buscar el cadáver del león. Y, he aquí, había un panal de abejas y miel en lo que quedaba del cuerpo del león. 9 Él raspó la miel con sus manos y siguió su camino, comiendo la miel mientras caminaba. Cuando llegó a donde su padre y su madre, él les dio un poco a ellos, y ellos comiéron. Pero no les dijo a ellos que él había sacado la miel de lo que quedó del cuerpo del león. 10 El padre de Sansón fue a donde estaba la mujer, y Sansón dió un gran banquete allí, pues esta era la costumbre de los hombres jóvenes. 11 Tan pronto como lo vieron los parientes de ella, ellos le trajeron treinta de sus amigos para estar con él. 12 Sansón le dijo a ellos: "Dejenmé decirles una adivinanza. Si uno de ustedes lo descifra y me dice la contestación durante los siete días de la fiesta, yo repartiré treinta túnicas de lino y treinta conjuntos de ropa. 13 Pero si ustedes no me pueden contestar, entonces ustedes me darán treinta túnicas de lino y treinta conjuntos de ropa." Ellos le dijeron: "Dinos tu adivinanza, para que podamos escucharla." 14 Él les dijo: "Del que come salió algo de comer; del fuerte salió algo dulce." Pero sus invitados no pudieron encontrar la contestación en tres días. 15 El día cuarto le dijeron a la esposa de Samsón: "Engaña a tu esposo para que él nos diga la contestación del acertijo, o te quemaremos a ti y a la casa de tu padre. ¿Acaso nos invitaste aquí para hacernos pobres?" 16 La esposa de Sansón empezó a llorar en frente de él; ella dijo: "¡Tu solo me odias! Tú no me amas. Tú le dijeste una adivinanza a algunos de mi pueblo, pero no me has dicho lo que significa." Sansón le dijo a ella: "Mira, si no se la he dicho ni a mi padre ni a mi madre, ¿te lo voy a decir a ti?" 17 Ella lloró durante los siete días que duró su fiesta. En el día séptimo él le dijo la contestación porque ella lo presionó mucho. Ella le dijo la contestación a los parientes de su pueblo. 18 Y los hombres de la ciudad le dijeron en el día séptimo antes de ponerse el sol: "¿Qué es más dulce que la miel? ¿Qué es más fuerte que un león?" Sansón les dijo a ellos: "Si no hubrieran presionado a mi esposa, ustedes no hubieran contestado mi adivinanza." 19 Entonces el Espíritu del SEÑOR de repente vino a Sansón con poder. Sansón bajó a Ascalón y mató a treinta hombres de entre ese pueblo. Él tomó el botín de ellos, y le dió los conjuntos de ropa a los que habían contestado su adivinanza. Él estaba furioso, y se fue a la casa de su padre. 20 Y su esposa fue dada a su mejor amigo.

Chapter 15

1 Luego de varios días, durante el tiempo de la cosecha del trigo, Sansón tomó un cabrito y fue a visitar su esposa. Él se dijo a sí mismo, "Yo voy al cuarto de mi esposa." Pero su padre no le permitía entrar. 2 El padre de ella dijo, "Yo realmente pensé que tú la odiabas, así que se la entregué a tu amigo. Su hermana menor es más bella que ella, ¿no lo es? Tómala a ella en su lugar." 3 Sansón le dijo a ellos, "En este momento yo seré inocente en cuanto a los filisteos cuando los lastime." 4 Sansón fue y capturó trescientos zorros y los amarró en pares, cola con cola. Después él cogió antorchas y las amarró en medio de cada par de colas. 5 Cuando él tenía preparadas las antorchas con fuego, él dejó que los zorros fueran a los granos recogidos de los filisteos, y ellos prendieron fuego tanto a los granos recogidos como al que estaba en el campo, así como a los viñedos y los olivares. 6 Los filisteos preguntaron, "¿Quién hizo esto?" A ellos les fue dicho, "Sansón, el yerno del timnateo, hizo esto porque el timnateo tomó la esposa de Sansón y se la dio a su amigo." Luego los filisteos fueron y la quemaron a ella y a su padre. 7 Sansón le dijo a ellos, "Si es esto lo que ustedes hicieron, yo tomaré mi venganza en contra de ustedes, y después que esto sea hecho, yo me detendré." 8 Luego él los cortó en pedazos, cadera y muslo, con gran violencia. Luego él bajó y vivió en una cueva en la colina de Etam. 9 Luego los filisteos subieron y se prepararon para la batalla en Judá y prepararon su ejército en Lehi. 10 Los hombres de Judá dijeron, "¿Por qué han subido a atacarnos?" Ellos dijeron, "Nosotros estamos atacando para poder capturar a Sansón, y hacerle a él lo que él nos ha hecho a nosotros." 11 Luego tres mil hombres de Judá descendieron a la cueva en la colina de Etam, y ellos dijeron a Sansón, "¿Tú no sabes que los filisteos gobiernan sobre nosotros? ¿Qué es esto que nos has hecho a nosotros?" Sansón les dijo a ellos, "Ellos me lo hicieron a mi, y por eso yo se los he hecho a ellos." 12 Ellos le dijeron a Sansón, "Nosotros hemos bajado a amarrarte y entregarte en manos de los filisteos." Sansón les dijo a ellos, "Prométanme a mí que no me matarán ustedes mismos." 13 Ellos le dijeron a él, "No, nosotros sólo te amarraremos con cuerdas y te entregaremos en sus manos. Nosotros prometemos que no te mataremos." Luego ellos lo amarraron con dos sogas nuevas y lo subieron de la roca. 14 Cuando él vino a Lehi, los filisteos vinieron gritando mientras le encontraron. Luego el Espíritu del SEÑOR vino sobre él con poder. Las cuerdas en sus brazos se hicieron como tela quemada, y se cayeron de sus manos. 15 Sansón encontró una quijada fresca de burro, y él la tomó y mató a mil hombres con ella. 16 Sansón dijo, "Con una quijada de burro, montones sobre montones, con una quijada de burro yo maté a mil hombres." 17 Cuando Sansón terminó de hablar, tiró la quijada y llamó el lugar Ramat Lehi. 18 Sansón tenía mucha sed y llamó al SEÑOR y dijo, "Tú has dado esta gran victoria a tu siervo. ¿Pero ahora yo voy a morir de sed y caer en las manos de esos incircuncisos?" 19 Y Dios abrió el lugar hueco que está en Lehi, y el agua salió de allí. Cuando él bebió, su fuerza volvió y se reanimó. Entonces él llamó el nombre de ese lugar En Hacore, y está en Lehi hasta este día. 20 Sansón juzgó a Israel en los días de los filisteos por veinte años.

Chapter 16

1 Sansón fue a Gaza y vio a una prostituta allí, y él tuvo relaciones sexuales con ella. 2 A los habitantes de Gaza se les dijo: "Sansón ha venido aquí". Ellos rodearon el lugar y, en secreto, lo esperaron toda la noche en la puerta de la ciudad. Se mantuvieron en silencio toda la noche. Habían dicho: "Esperemos hasta la luz del día, y luego vamos a matarlo". 3 Sansón permaneció acostado en la cama hasta la medianoche. A la medianoche él se levantó y él tomó la puerta de la ciudad y sus dos postes. Él los arrancó de la tierra, barra y todo, los puso sobre sus hombros, y los cargó hasta el tope de la colina, en frente de Hebrón. 4 Después de esto, Sansón vino a amar a una mujer que vivía en el valle de Sorec. Su nombre era Dalila. 5 Los gobernantes de los filisteos fueron hasta donde ella estaba, y le dijeron: "Engaña a Sansón para ver de dónde proviene su gran fuerza, y de qué manera podremos dominarlo a él, para que podamos atarlo a fin de que lo humillemos. Haz esto, y cada uno de nosotros te daremos 1, 100 piezas de plata." 6 Y Dalila le dijo a Sansón: "Por favor dime, ¿cómo es que tú eres tan fuerte, y cómo alguien podría atarte para que puedas ser controlado?" 7 Sansón le dijo a ella: "Si ellos me atan con siete cuerdas de arcos frescas que no se hayan secado, entonces me debilitaré y seré como cualquier otro hombre." 8 Entonces, los gobernantes de los filisteos le trajeron a Dalila siete cuerdas de arco frescas que no se habían secado, y ella ató a Sansón con ellas. 9 Ahora, ella tenía hombres escondidos en secreto, quedándose en su habitación interior. Ella le dijo a él: "¡Los filisteos están sobre ti, Sansón!" Pero el rompió las cuerdas de arco como hilo de tejer cuando toca el fuego. Y ellos no supieron el secreto de su fuerza. 10 Luego, Dalila le dijo a Sansón: "Así es como me has engañado y me has dicho mentiras. Por favor, dime cómo puedes ser dominado". 11 Él le dijo a ella: "Si ellos me atan con cuerdas nuevas las cuales nunca se hayan usado para trabajar, yo me volveré débil y como cualquier otro hombre." 12 Así que Dalila agarró cuerdas nuevas y lo ató con ellas, y le dijo: "¡Los filisteos están sobre ti, Sansón!" Los hombres acostados en espera, estaban en la habitación interior. Pero Sansón rompió las cuerdas de sus brazos como si fuesen un pedazo de hilo. 13 Dalila le dijo a Sansón: "Hasta ahora tú me has engañado y me has dicho mentiras. Dime cómo puedes ser dominado." Sansón le dijo a ella: "Si tú tejes siete mechones de mi cabello a una tela en un telar, y luego lo clavas al telar, yo seré como cualquier otro hombre." 14 Mientras él dormía, Dalila tejió siete mechones de su cabello a una tela en un telar y lo clavó al telar, y ella le dijo: "¡Los filisteos están sobre ti, Sansón!" Él se despertó de su sueño y arrancó la tela y la clavija del telar. 15 Ella le dijo a él: "¿Cómo puedes decir, 'Te amo', cuando no compartes tus secretos conmigo? Tú te has burlado de mí estas tres veces y no me has dicho que te hace tan fuerte." 16 Cada día ella lo presionaba duramente con sus palabras, y lo presionaba tanto que él deseaba morir. 17 Así que Sansón le contó todo y le dijo a ella: "Yo nunca he tenido una navaja que corte el cabello de mi cabeza, porque yo he sido un nazareno, dedicado a Dios desde el vientre de mi madre. Si mi cabeza es afeitada, entonces mis fuerzas me abandonarán, y me debilitaré y seré como cualquier otro hombre." 18 Cuando Dalila vio que él le había dicho la verdad sobre todo, ella envió y llamó a los gobernantes de los filisteos, diciendo: "Suban nuevamente, porque él me ha dicho todo." Entonces, los gobernantes de los filisteos subieron hasta donde ella, trayendo la plata en sus manos. 19 Ella lo tenía dormido en su falda. Ella mandó a llamar a un hombre para que le afeitara los siete mechones de su cabeza, y ella comenzó a dominarlo, porque sus fuerzas lo habían abandonado. 20 Ella dijo: "¡Los filisteos están sobre ti, Sansón!" Él se despertó de su sueño y dijo: "Yo saldré como las otras veces y me liberaré sacudiéndome." Pero él no sabía que el SEÑOR lo había dejado. 21 Los filisteos lo capturaron y le sacaron los ojos. Lo bajaron hasta Gaza y lo ataron con grilletes de bronce. Él giraba la piedra de molino en la prisión. 22 Pero el cabello en su cabeza comenzó a crecer nuevamente después que había sido afeitado. 23 Los gobernantes de los filisteos se reunieron para ofrecer un gran sacrificio a Dagón su dios, y para regocijarse. Ellos dijeron: "Nuestro dios ha conquistado a Sansón, nuestro enemigo, y lo ha puesto en nuestras manos." 24 Cuando las personas lo vieron, ellos alabaron a su dios, porque dijeron: "Nuestro dios ha conquistado a nuestro enemigo y nos lo entregó-- el destructor de nuestro país, quien mató a muchos de nosotros." 25 Cuando ellos estaban celebrando, ellos dijeron: "Llamen a Sansón, para que él nos pueda hacer reír." Ellos llamaron a Sansón fuera de la prisión y se burlaron de el. Ellos lo hicieron pararse en medio de los pilares. 26 Sansón le dijo al niño quien le sostenía la mano: "Permíteme tocar los pilares sobre las cuales descansa el edificio, para poder recostarme sobre ellas." 27 Ahora, la casa estaba llena de hombres y mujeres. Todos los gobernantes de los filisteos estaban allí. Habían en el techo cerca de tres mil hombres y mujeres, quienes estaban mirando mientras Sansón estaba entreteniéndolos. 28 Sansón llamó al SEÑOR y dijo: "¡SEÑOR Dios, acuérdate de mí! Por favor, dame fuerzas sólo en esta ocasión, Dios, para que yo pueda vengarme de un sólo golpe de los filisteos por sacarme mis dos ojos." 29 Sansón se agarró de los dos pilares del medio sobre los cuales el edificio descansaba, y él se inclinó sobre ellas, un pilar con la mano derecha, y el otro con su izquierda. 30 Sansón dijo: "¡Déjame morir con los filisteos!" Él se estiró con su fuerza y el edificio cayó sobre los gobernantes y sobre toda las personas que estaban dentro del mismo. Así que los muertos que el mató cuando el murió fueron más que aquellos que él mató durante su vida. [31] Luego, sus hermanos y toda la casa de su padre bajaron. Lo tomaron, lo llevaron de regreso y lo enterraron entre Zora y Estaol, en el lugar de entierro de Manoa, su padre. Sansón había gobernado a Israel por veinte años.

Judges 16:23

Dagón
Un dios falso mayor de los filisteos

conquistado
"derrotado"

lo ha puesto en nuestras garras Aquí el autor habla de Sansón estando bajo el control de los líderes como si fuera algo apretado fuerte entre sus manos. Traducción Alterna: "lo puso bajo nuestro control"

el destructor de nuestro país Esto se refiere a Sansón. La palabra "destructor" puede ser expresada con el verbo "destruído." Traducción Alterna: "el hombre que ha destruído nuestro país"

quien mató a muchos de nosotros Aquí la palabra "nosotros" se refiere a la gente filistea. Aquellos que están hablando no se cuentan como gente que Sansón mató. Taducción Alterna: "quien mató a muchos de nuestra gente "

Judges 16:25

Llamen a Sansón ... Ellos llamaron a Sansón Desde que Sansón era prisionero, él no era llamado directamente, en vez, la gente le preguntaba a los hombres a cargo de la prisión para que lo trajeran a ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Llámenlos para que traigan a Sansón ... Ellos trajeron a Sansón"

al niño
"el jóven hombre" este no era un niño, sino un jóven.

Permíteme tocar los pilares sobre las cuales descansa el edificio
"Permíteme tocar los pilares que sostienen a este edificio"

Esta palabra aquí se utiliza para marcar una pausa en la historia principal mientras el escritor da información de trasfondo.

tres mil hombres y mujeres
"3,000 hombres y mujeres"

mirando
"observando"

mientras Sansón estaba entreteniéndolos
No está claro lo que Sansón hizo para entretenerlos. Parece que los filisteos lo estaban obligabando a hacer cosas que lo humillarían para que ellos pudieran burlarse de él.

Judges 16:28

llamó al SEÑOR
"oró al SEÑOR"

acuérdate de mí
Esto significa recordarlo a él y su situación. Traducción Alterna: "recuérdame" sólo en esta ocasión

"una vez más"

de un sólo golpe de los filisteos Esta expresión idiomática significa que él quiere tener un acto poderoso más contra los filisteos para poder vengarse por lo que le hicieron a él. Traducción Alterna: "con un golpe contra los filisteos" o "en un poderoso acto contra los filisteos" sobre los cuales el edificio descansaba

"que sostenían al edificio"

Judges 16:30

Él se estiró con su fuerza
Cuando Sansón estiró sus brazos derrumbó los pilares del edificio. Traducción Alterna: "Él usó su fuerza para derrumbar los pilares" o "utilizó su fuerza para hacer caer los pilares"

los muertos
Esto se refiere a la gente muerta. Traducción Alterna: "la gente muerta" fueron más

"fue una cantidad mayor"

toda la casa de su padre Aquí la palabra "casa" se refiere a su familia. Traducción Alterna: "toda la familia de su padre" bajaron

La palabra "bajaron" se utiliza aquí porque el lugar de donde la familia de Sansón viajó está a mayor elevación que Gaza.

Chapter 17

1 Había un hombre en la zona montañosa de Efraín, y su nombre era Micaía. 2 Él le dijo a su madre: "Las 1, 100 piezas de plata que te fueron robadas, sobre las cuales declaraste una maldición, y la cual yo escuché-- ¡He aquí! Yo tengo la plata. Yo la robé." Su madre dijo: "¡Qué el SEÑOR te bendiga, mi hijo!" 3 Él devolvió las 1, 100 monedas de plata a su madre y su madre dijo: "Yo separé esta plata al SEÑOR, para que mi hijo haga figuras talladas y moldes de metal. Así que ahora, te la devuelvo a ti." 4 Cuando él le devolvió el dinero a su madre, su madre tomó doscientas monedas de plata y se las dio a un trabajador de metal quien las hizo figuras talladas y moldes de metal, y ellas fueron colocadas en la casa de Micaía. 5 Este hombre Micaía tenía una casa de ídolos y él hizo un efod y dioses caseros, y él contrató a uno de sus hijos para que se volviera su sacerdote. 6 En aquellos días no había rey en Israel, y todos hacían lo que estaba bien en sus propios ojos. 7 Ahora, había un hombre joven de Belén en Judá, de la familia de Judá, quien era un Levita. Él se quedó allí para cumplir sus deberes. 8 El hombre se fue de Belén en Judá para ir y encontrar un lugar donde vivir. Mientras viajaba, él llegó a la casa de Micaía en la zona montañosa de Efraín. 9 Micaía le dijo a él: "¿De dónde vienes tu?" El hombre le dijo a él: "Yo soy un Levita de Belén en Judá, y estoy viajando para encontrar un lugar en donde pueda vivir." 10 Micaía le dijo a él: "Quédate conmigo, y sé para mí un padre y un sacerdote. Yo te daré diez piezas de plata al año, un conjunto de ropas, y comida." Así que el Levita entró a su casa. 11 El Levita estaba contento de vivir con el hombre, y el hombre joven se volvió para Micaía como uno de sus hijos. 12 Micaía separó al Levita para deberes sagrados, y el hombre joven se volvió su sacerdote, y estaba en la casa de Micaía. 13 Entonces, Micaía dijo: "Ahora sé que el SEÑOR me hará bien a mí, porque este Levita se ha vuelto mi sacerdote."

Chapter 18

1 En esos días no había rey en Israel. La tribu de los descendientes de Dan estaba buscando un territorio donde vivir, pues hasta ese día no había recibido ninguna herencia de entre las tribus de Israel. 2 El pueblo de Dan envió cinco hombres de entre todos los de la tribu, hombres que eran guerreros con mucho conocimiento de Zora y de Estaol, para hacer un reconocimiento de la tierra a pie y observarla. Ellos le dijeron, "Vayan y miren la tierra". Ellos llegaron a la zona montañosa de Efraín, a la casa de Micaías, y pasaron la noche allí. 3 Cuando ellos estaban cerca de la casa de Micaías, ellos reconocieron el hablar de un joven levita. Así que ellos se pararon y le preguntaron, "¿Quién te trajo aquí? ¿Qué estás haciendo en este lugar? ¿Por qué estás aquí? 4 Él le dijo a ellos, " Esto es lo que Micaías ha hecho por mi: Él me ha contratado para ser su sacerdote." 5 Ellos le dijeron, " Por favor busca el consejo de Dios, para que nosotros sepamos si el viaje que vamos a hacer será exitoso." 6 El sacerdote le dijo a ellos, "Vayan en paz. EL SEÑOR les dirigirá en el camino que deben ir." 7 Entonces los cinco hombres se fueron y llegaron a Lais, y vieron que la gente que estaba allí vivían sin molestias- de la misma forma los Sidonios vivían sin molestias y seguros. No había nadie que los conquistara en la tierra, o que les molestara de alguna forma. Ellos vivian lejos de los Sidonios, y no tenían tratos con nadie. 8 Ellos regresaron a su tribu en Zora y Estaol. Sus parientes les preguntaron, ¿Cúal es su reporte? 9 Ellos dijeron, "¡Vengan! ¡Vamos a atacarlos!" Hemos visto la tierra y es muy buena. ¿No están haciendo nada? No sean lentos en atacar y conquistar la tierra. 10 ¡Cuando vayan, ustedes irán a personas que piensan que están seguros, y la tierra es amplia! Dios se la ha dado a ustedes - un lugar al que no le falta nada en la tierra." 11 Seiscientos hombres de la tribu de Dan, armados con armas de guerra, partieron de Zora y Estaol. 12 Ellos subieron y acamparon en Quiriat Yearín, en Judá. Esta es la razón por la cual la gente le llamó a ese lugar Majané Dan hasta este día; este está al oeste de Quiriat Yearín. 13 Se fueron desde allí para la región montañosa de Efraín y llegaron a la casa de Micaías. 14 Entonces los cinco hombres que se habían ido a explorar la tierra de Lais le dijeron a sus parientes, "¿Ustedes saben que en estas casas hay un efod, dioses domésticos, una imagen tallada, y una figura fundida de metal? Decidan ahora lo que harán." 15 Así que se acercaron allí y vinieron a la casa del joven levita, en la casa de Micaías, y lo saludaron. 16 Ahora los seiscientos Danitas, armados con armas de guerra, se pararon en la entrada del portón. 17 Los cinco hombres que se habían ido a explorar la tierra fueron allí y tomaron la figura tallada, el efod, los dioses domésticos, y la figura fundida de metal, mientras el sacerdote se paraba al lado de la entrada del portón con los seiscientos hombres armados con armas de guerra. 18 Cuando éstos entraron a la casa de Micaías y tomaron la figura tallada, el efod, los dioses domésticos, y la figura fundida de metal, el sacerdote les dijo a ellos, " ¿Qué están haciendo ustedes?" 19 Ellos le dijeron a él "¡Silencio! Pon tu mano en tu boca y ven con nosotros, y sé para nosotros un padre y un sacerdote. ¿Es mejor para ti que seas sacerdote para la casa de un hombre, o que seas sacerdote para una tribu y clan de Israel?" 20 El corazón del sacerdote se alegró. El tomó el efod, los dioses domésticos, y la figura tallada y se fue juntamente con ellos. 21 Así que se voltearon y se fueron. Ellos pusieron a los niños pequeños al frente de ellos, así como al ganado y sus posesiones. 22 Cuando ellos estaban a una buena distancia de la casa de Micaías, los hombres que estaban en las casas cercanas a la casa de Micaías fueron llamados a reunirse, y alcanzaron a los danitas. 23 Ellos le gritaron a los danitas, y ellos se voltearon y le dijeron a Micaías, "¿Por qué se les llamó a ustedes a reunirse?" 24 El dijo, "Tú robastes los dioses que yo hice, haz tomado a mi sacerdote, y te vas a ir. ¿Qué más me queda? Cómo me preguntas a mi, ' ¿Qué te molesta?'" 25 El pueblo de Dan le dijo, "Tú no debes hablarnos así a nosotros, o algún hombre muy enojado te atacará, y tú y tu familia serán asesinados." 26 Entonces los hombres de Dan se fueron por su camino. Cuando Micaías vió que ellos eran demasiado fuertes para él, se volvió y se fue de regreso a su casa. 27 La gente de Dan tomó lo que Micaías hizo, y también a su sacerdote, y vinieron a Lais, ante gente que estaban tranquilos y seguros y, ellos los mataron a espada y quemaron la ciudad. 28 No había quien los rescatara porque estaban a un largo camino de Sidón, y no tenían trato con ninguno. Esto fue en el valle que está cerca de Bet Rejob. Los Danitas reconstruyeron la ciudad y vivieron allí. 29 Ellos nombraron a la ciudad Dan, el nombre de Dan su ancestro, quien fue uno de los hijos de Israel. Pero el nombre de la ciudad solía ser Lais. 30 El pueblo de Dan levantó la imagen tallada para ellos mismos. Y Jonatán, hijo de Gersón, hijo de Moisés, él y sus hijos fueron sacerdotes para la tribu de los danitas hasta el día del cautiverio de la tierra. 31 Así que adoraron la figura tallada que Micaías hizo mientras que la casa de Dios estuvo en Siló.

Chapter 19

1 En esos días, cuando no había rey en Israel, había un hombre, un Levita, viviendo por un tiempo en una zona remota en la región montañosa de Efraín. El tomó como segunda mujer, a una mujer de Belén en Judá. 2 Pero su segunda mujer le fue infiel; ella lo dejó y regresó a la casa de su padre en Belén de Judá. Ella se quedó allí por cuatro meses. 3 Luego su esposo se levantó y fue tras de ella para tratar de convencerla a ella de que regresara. Su sirviente estaba con él, y un par de asnos. Ella lo hizo entrar a la casa de su padre. Cuando el padre de la mujer lo vio, él se alegró. 4 Su suegro, el padre de la mujer, lo convenció a él para que se quedara por tres días. Ellos comieron y bebieron, y pasaron la noche allí. 5 En el cuarto día ellos se levantaron temprano y él se preparó para marcharse, pero el padre de la mujer le dijo a su yerno, "Cobra fuerzas con un poco de pan, luego te puedes ir." 6 Así que ellos dos se sentaron a comer y a beber juntos. Luego el padre de la mujer dijo, "Por favor disponte a quedarte la noche y pasar un buen tiempo." 7 Cuando el Levita se levantó para marcharse, el padre de la joven mujer le insistió a quedarse, así que él cambió su plan y pasó la noche allí nuevamente. 8 En el quinto día él se levantó temprano para marcharse, pero el padre de la mujer dijo, "Cobra fuerzas, y espera hasta la tarde." Así que los dos comieron. 9 Cuando el Levita, su segunda mujer y su sirviente se levantaron para partir, su suegro, el padre de la mujer le dijo, "Ves, ahora el día avanza hacia el atardecer. Por favor quédate una noche más, y pasa un buen tiempo. Tú puedes levantarte temprano mañana y volver a tu casa." 10 Pero el Levita no estaba dispuesto a quedarse la noche. Él se levantó y se marchó. Él fue hacia Jebús (eso es Jerusalén). Él tenía un par de asnos ensillados-- y su segunda mujer estaba con él. 11 Cuando ellos estaban cerca de Jebús, el día estaba a punto de terminar, y el sirviente le dijo a su amo, "Ven, desviémonos hacia la ciudad de los jebuseos para pasar la noche en ella." 12 Su amo le dijo, "No nos desviaremos hacia una ciudad de extranjeros que no pertenecen al pueblo de Israel. Seguiremos hasta Guibeá." 13 El Levita le dijo a su joven hombre, "Ven, vamos a uno de esos otros lugares, y pasemos la noche en Guibeá o en Ramá." 14 Y ellos continuaron, y el sol se puso a medida que se acercaban a Gabaa, en el territorio de Benjamín 15 Se desviaron allí para pasar la noche en Gabaa. Fueron y se sentaron en la plaza de la ciudad, pero nadie los llevó a su casa a pasar la noche. 16 Pero luego un viejo hombre estaba regresando de su trabajo en el campo esa tarde. El era de la colina montañosa de Efraín, y él se estaba quedando por un tiempo en Guibeá. Pero los hombres que vivían en ese lugar eran benjamitas. 17 Él levantó sus ojos y vio al viajero en la plaza de la ciudad. El viejo hombre dijo, "¿Para dónde van? ¿De dónde vienen? 18 El Levita le dijo, "Estamos en camino desde Belén en Judá hacia la más remota parte de la colina montañosa de Efraín, que es de donde yo vengo. Fui a Belén en Judá, y voy a la casa del SEÑOR, pero no hay nadie que me ha invitado a su casa. 19 Nosotros tenemos paja y alimento para nuestros asnos, y hay pan y vino para mí y para tu sirvienta aquí, y para este joven con sus sirvientes. No necesitamos nada." 20 El viejo hombre los saludó, "¡Paz sea con ustedes! Yo cuidaré de todas sus necesidades. Sólo no pasen la noche en la plaza de la ciudad." 21 Así que el hombre llevó al Levita a su casa y alimentó los asnos. Ellos lavaron sus pies, comieron y bebieron. 22 Mientras hacían sus corazones felices, algunos hombres de la ciudad, hombres sin valor, rodearon la casa, golpeando la puerta. Ellos hablaron al viejo hombre, el dueño de la casa, diciendo, "Trae afuera al hombre que entró a tu casa, para que nosotros podamos tener sexo con él." 23 El hombre, el dueño de la casa, salió afuera hacia ellos y les dijo a ellos, "No, mis hermanos, por favor, ¡no hagan esta cosa malvada! Ya que este hombre es un huésped en mi casa, ¡no hagan esta cosa perversa! 24 Miren, mi hija virgen y la segunda mujer de él están aquí. Déjenme sacarlas ahora. Viólenlas y hagan con ellas lo que ustedes quieran. ¡Pero no le hagan esta cosa malvada a este hombre!" 25 Pero los hombres no le escucharon, así que el hombre se apoderó de su segunda mujer y la sacó afuera a ellos. Ellos se apoderaron de ella, la violaron y abusaron de ella durante la noche, al amanecer ellos la dejaron ir. 26 Al amanecer la mujer vino y cayó en la puerta de la casa del hombre donde estaba su amo, y ella se quedó allí hasta que fué de día. 27 Su dueño se levantó en la mañana y abrió las puertas de la casa y salió a tomar su rumbo. El pudo ver a su segunda mujer acostada allí en la puerta, con sus manos en la entrada. 28 El Levita le dijo, "Levántate. Vámonos." Pero no hubo respuesta. El la puso en el asno, y el hombre se preparó para ir a su casa. 29 Cuando el Levita llegó a su casa, él tomó un cuchillo, y la tomó y la cortó a ella, miembro a miembro, en doce pedazos, y envió las piezas a todas partes en todo Israel. 30 Todos los que vieron esto dijeron: "Tal cosa nunca se hizo ni se vio desde el día en que el pueblo de Israel salió de la tierra de Egipto hasta el presente. ¡Piénselo! ¡Díganos qué hacer! Chapter 20

1 Luego todo el pueblo de Israel salió como un sólo hombre, desde Dan hasta Beerseba, incluyendo la tierra de Galaad también, y ellos se reunieron juntos ante el SEÑOR en Mizpa. 2 Los líderes de todo el pueblo, de todas las tribus de Israel, tomaron su lugar en la reunión del pueblo de Dios--400, 000 hombres a pie, quienes estaban listos para pelear con espada. 3 Ahora la gente de Benjamín escuchó que el pueblo de Israel se levantó en Mizpa. El pueblo de Israel dijo: "Dinos como sucedió esta cosa maligna." 4 El Levita, esposo de la mujer que había sido asesinada, contestó: "Yo vine a Guibeá en el territorio que pertenece a Benjamín, Yo y mi segunda mujer, a pasar la noche." 5 Durante la noche, los líderes de Guibeá me atacaron, rodearon mi casa e intentaron matarme. Ellos raptaron y violaron a mi segunda mujer y murió. 6 Yo tomé mi a mi segunda mujer y partí su cuerpo en pedazos, y los envié a ellos dentro de cada región de la heredad de Israel, porque ellos han cometido tal ofensa y cruel acto en Israel. 7 Ahora, todos ustedes Israelitas, den su pensar y consejo aquí." 8 Toda el pueblo se levantó como un solo hombre, y ellos dijeron: "¡Ninguno de nosotros irá a su tienda de acampar, y ninguno de nosotros regresará a su casa! 9 Pero ahora esto es lo que haremos a Guibeá: nosotros vamos a atacarlos como la suerte nos dirija. 10 Nosotros vamos a escoger diez de cien hombres de entre todas las tribus de Israel, y cien de mil, y mil de diez mil, para que traigan provisiones para el pueblo, para que así cuando ellos vengan a Guibeá en Benjamín, castiguen a estas personas por la maldad que hicieron en Israel." 11 Entonces todos los guerreros de Israel se reunieron en contra de la ciudad, como un solo hombre. 12 Las tribus de Israel enviaron hombres hacia toda la tribu de Benjamín, diciendo: "¿Qué es la maldad que fue hecha en contra tuya? 13 Por lo tanto, danos a esos hombres malignos de Guibeá, para que podamos matarlos, y así será completamente removida esta maldad de Israel." Pero los Benjamitas no escucharon la voz de sus hermanos, el pueblo de Israel. 14 Luego el pueblo de Benjamín salió junto desde sus ciudades a Guibeá para prepararse a pelear en contra del pueblo de Israel. 15 El pueblo de Benjamín juntó en aquél día veintiseis mil soldados de sus ciudades quienes fueron entrenados para pelear con la espada. Además, habían setecientos de los hombres escogidos que habitaban de Guibeá. 16 Entre todos estos soldados habían setecientos hombres escogidos que eran zurdos. Cada uno de ellos podía lanzar una piedra a un cabello y no fallar. 17 El pueblo de Israel, sin contar el número de los de Benjamín, sumaban 400, 000 hombres, que fueron entrenados para pelear con espada. Todos estos eran hombres de guerra. 18 El pueblo de Israel se levantó, subió a Betel, y preguntó por consejo de Dios. Ellos preguntaron: "¿Quién de nosotros atacará primero al pueblo de Benjamín?" El SEÑOR dijo: "Judá va a atacar primero." 19 El pueblo de Israel se levantó en la mañana y movieron su campamento cerca de Guibeá. 20 El pueblo de Israel fue a pelear en contra de Benjamín. Ellos se prepararon en las posiciones de batalla en contra de ellos en Guibeá. 21 El pueblo de Benjamín salió de Guibeá, y mataron a veintidosmil hombres del ejército de Israel en aquel día. 22 Pero el pueblo de Israel se fortalecieron unos a otros, y formaron la línea de batalla en el mismo lugar que ellos habían tomado posiciones en el primer día. 23 Y el pueblo de Israel se levantó y lloró ante SEÑOR hasta el atardecer. Ellos buscaron la dirección del SEÑOR: "¿Debemos ir de nuevo y pelear contra nuestros hermanos, el pueblo de Benjamín?" Y el SEÑOR dijo: "¡Atáquenlos!" 24 Entonces el pueblo de Israel fue en contra de los guerreros de Benjamín el segundo día. 25 En el segundo día, Benjamín vino en contra de ellos desde Guibeá y mataron dieciocho mil hombres del pueblo de Israel. Todos eran hombres que habían sido entrenados para pelear con espada. 26 Luego todos los guerreros de Israel y todas las personas subieron a Betel y lloraron, y allí se sentaron ante el SEÑOR y ellos ayunaron ese día hasta el atardecer y ofrecieron ofrendas de fuego y ofrendas de paz ante el SEÑOR. 27 El pueblo de Israel preguntó al SEÑOR--porque el arca del pacto de Dios estaba allí en aquellos días, 28 y Finees, hijo de Eleazar hijo de Aarón, estaba sirviendo ante el arca en aquellos días--"¿Debemos ir afuera a la batalla una vez más en contra del pueblo de Benjamín, nuestros hermanos, o nos detenemos? El SEÑOR dijo: "Ataquen, pues mañana Yo voy a ayudarlos a vencerlos." 29 Entonces Israel preparó hombres en lugares secretos alrededor de Guibeá. 30 El pueblo de Israel peleó en contra del pueblo de Benjamín por tercer día, y ellos formaron la línea de batalla contra Guibeá así como lo habían hecho antes. 31 El pueblo de Benjamín fue y peleó contra Israel, y ellos se alejaron de la ciudad. Ellos comenzaron a pelear y matar algunas personas. Habían como treinta hombres de Israel quienes murieron en el campo y en el camino. Uno de los caminos iba subiendo hacia Betel, y el otro iba a Guibeá. 32 Luego el pueblo de Benjamín dijo: "Ellos están derrotados y están corriendo lejos de nosotros, como en el principio." Pero los guerreros de Israel dijeron: "Deja que nosotros corramos hacia atrás y alejemósles de la ciudad hacia los caminos." 33 Todo el pueblo de Israel se levantó de sus lugares y se formaron en líneas de batalla en Baal Tamar. Luego los soldados de Israel quienes ya se habían escondido en lugares secretos salieron de sus lugares en Maareh Geba. 34 Vinieron en contra de Guibeá diez mil hombres escogidos de todo Israel, y la pelea fue

fuerte, pero los Benjamitas no sabían que el desastre estaba cerca de ellos. 35 El SEÑOR derrotó a Benjamín ante Israel. En aquel día, los guerreros de Israel mataron 25, 100 hombres de Benjamín. Todos esos que murieron eran aquellos que habían sido entrenados para pelear con espada. 36 Así que los guerreros de Benjamín vieron que estaban derrotados. Los hombres de Israel le dieron terreno a Benjamín, porque ellos estaban contando con los hombres que ellos habían puesto en las posiciones secretas fuera de Guibeá. 37 Luego los hombres que se estaban escondiendo se levantaron y se apresuraron y entraron en Guibeá. Y con sus espadas mataron a todo aquel que vivía en la ciudad. 38 La señal acordada entre los guerreros de Israel y los hombres que estaban en secreto sería que una gran nube de humo se levantaría de la ciudad. 39 Cuando la señal fue enviada los guerreros de Israel se regresaron de la batalla. Ahora Benjamín comenzó a atacar y ellos mataron como treinta hombres de Israel, y ellos dijeron: "Es seguro que ellos serán derrotados ante nosotros, así como en la primera batalla." 40 Pero cuando la columna de humo empezó a levantarse desde la ciudad, los Benjamitas miraron atrás y vieron el humo que subía al cielo desde la ciudad. 41 Luego el pueblo de Israel se volvió contra ellos. Los hombres de Benjamín tenían mucho miedo, porque ellos vieron el desastre que había venido sobre ellos. 42 Así que ellos corrieron huyendo del pueblo de Israel, escapando por el camino hacia el desierto. Pero la batalla los tomó. Los guerreros de Israel vinieron fuera de la ciudad y los mataron donde ellos estaban. 43 Ellos rodearon a los Benjamitas y fueron tras ellos. Y ellos los encerraron en Noha y los mataron por el camino hacia el este de Guibeá. 44 De la tribu de Benjamín, dieciocho mil personas murieron, todos ellos hombres que eran buenos en batalla. 45 Ellos regresaron y huyeron en dirección del desierto hacia la roca de Rimón. Los Israelitas mataron a cinco mil más de ellos a lo largo de los caminos. Continuaron tras ellos, siguiéndolos de cerca por el camino hasta Gidón, y allí fueron muertos dos mil más. 46 Todos los guerreros de Benjamín quienes cayeron aquel día fueron veinticinco mil-- hombres quienes fueron entrenados para pelear con espada; todos ellos fueron buenos en batalla. 47 Pero seiscientos hombres regresaron y huyeron al desierto, cerca de la piedra de Rimón. Y se quedaron en la roca de Rimón por cuatro meses. 48 Los guerreros de Israel se volvieron en contra del pueblo de Benjamín y los atacaron y mataron-- a toda la ciudad, el ganado, y a todo lo que encontraron. También quemaron todo pueblo que encontraron en el camino.

Chapter 21

1 Ahora los hombres de Israel habían hecho una promesa en Mizpa: "Ninguno de nosotros dará a su hija para casarse con un Benjamita." 2 Entonces las personas fueron a Betel y se sentaron delante de Dios hasta la tarde, y lloraron amargamente a grandes voces. 3 Ellos gritaron: "¿Por qué SEÑOR, Dios de Israel; le ha pasado esto a Israel, que una de nuestras tribus hoy se pierda?'' 4 Al siguiente día el pueblo se levantó temprano y construyeron un altar allí y ofrecieron ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz. 5 Las personas de Israel dijeron: "¿Cuáles de las tribus de Israel no vinieron a la asamblea del SEÑOR?" Porque ellos habían hecho una promesa importante sobre cualquier persona que no viniera delante del SEÑOR en Mizpa. Ellos dijeron: "A él ciertamente se le dará muerte." 6 El pueblo de Israel tuvo compasión de su hermano Benjamín. Ellos dijeron: "Hoy una tribu ha sido cortada de Israel. 7 ¿Quién proveerá esposas para aquellos que queden, ya que hemos hecho una promesa al SEÑOR que no dejaremos que ninguno de ellos se case con nuestras hijas?" 8 Ellos dijeron: "¿Cuáles de las tribus de Israel, no vinieron delante del SEÑOR en Mizpa?" Y encontraron que nadie asistió a la asamblea de los de Jabes Galaad. 9 Porque cuando el pueblo se colocó de manera ordenada, ninguno de los habitantes de Jabes Galaad estuvo allí. 10 La asamblea envió doce mil de sus hombres más valientes con instrucciones de ir a Jabes Galaad y atacarlos, y matarlos, incluso a las mujeres y niños. 11 "Hagan esto: deben matar todo hombre y a toda mujer que haya dormido con hombre." 12 Los hombres encontraron entre aquellos que estaban viviendo en Jabes Galaad, cuatrocientas mujeres jóvenes que nunca habían dormido con hombres, y se las llevaron al campamento en Silo, en Cannán. 13 Toda la asamblea envió un mensaje y le dijeron al pueblo de Benjamín que estaban en la roca de Rimón que ellos le ofrecían paz. 14 Los Benjamitas regresaron en ese momento y se les entregó las mujeres de Jabes Galaad, pero no había suficientes mujeres para todos ellos. 15 Las personas lamentaban lo que le habia seucedidó a Benjamín, porque el SEÑOR creó división entre las tribus de Israel. 16 Entonces los líderes de la asamblea dijeron: "¿Cómo escogeremos esposas para los Benjamitas que queden, ya que las mujeres de Benjamín han sido asesinadas?" 17 Ellos dijeron: "Debe de haber una heredad para los sobrevivientes de Benjamín, para que la tribu no sea borrada de Israel. 18 No podemos darles por esposas a nuestras hijas, porque el pueblo de Israel ha hecho una promesa, 'Maldito aquel que le de una esposa a Benjamín.'" 19 Así que ellos dijeron: "Sabes que hay una fiesta para el SEÑOR cada año en Silo (que queda al norte de Betel, al este del camino que va desde Betel a Siquem y al sur de Lebona)." 20 Ordenaron a los hombres de Benjamín, diciendo: "Vayan y escóndansen en secreto y esperen en los viñedos. 21 Atentos al momento que las mujeres de Silo salgan a danzar, luego salgan de prisa de los viñedos y cada uno de ustedes escoja a una esposa de las mujeres de Silo, luego vuelvan a la tierra de Benjamín. 22 Cuando sus padres o sus hermanos vengan a protestarnos, les diremos a ellos: '¡Muéstrenos favor! Déjenlas quedarse porque no obtuvimos esposas para cada hombre durante la guerra. Tú eres inocente, ya que no diste tus hijas a ellos.'" 23 El pueblo de Benjamín lo hizo así. Tomaron el número de esposas que necesitaban de las mujeres que danzaban, y se las llevaron para ser sus esposas. Ellos fueron y regresaron al lugar de su heredad; reconstruyeron las ciudades, y vivieron en ellas. 24 Entonces el pueblo de Israel se fue de ese lugar y volvieron a casa, cada uno a su propia tribu y familia, y cada uno a su propia heredad. 25 En esos días no había rey en Israel. Todos hacían lo que era correcto ante sus propios ojos.

Judges 21:1

Ahora los hombres de Israel habían hecho una promesa... casarse con un benjamita."
Esta información de trasfondo le dice al lector sobre la promesa que los israelitas hicieron antes de batallar con los benjamitas.

el sustantivo abstracto "paz" puede ser declarado como una acción. TA: "querían hacer las paces con ellos"

Jabes Galaad
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea como lo tradujo en 21:8.

no había suficientes mujeres para todos ellos Habían seiscientos hombres benjamitas, y solo cuatrocientas mujeres de Jabes Galaad.

creó división entre las tribus de Israel.
"causó que las tribus de Israel no estuvieran unidas"

Judges 21:16

benjamitas
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Benjamín. Vea como lo tradujo en 3:15.

las mujeres de Benjamín han sido asesinadas Esto se puede declarar de forma activa. TA: "matamos a todas las mujeres benjamitas"

Debe haber una herencia... no sea borrada de Israel
Los israelitas estan exagerando. Ya le habían dado esposas a cuarocientos hombres de los benjamitas, así que la tribu no se destruiría completamente.

Judges 21:18

una esposa a Benjamín Aquí Benjamín se refiere a los hombres descendientes de Benjamín. "una esposa a los hombres de Benjamín" que queda al norte de Betel, al este del camino que va desde Betel a Siquem y al sur de Lebona Esto es información de trasfondo para explicar al lector donde está localizada la ciudad de Silo.

Lebona
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

Judges 21:20

cada uno de ustedes escoja a una esposa... luego vuelvan a la tierra de Benjamín.
Es entendido que los benjamitas traerían esas mujeres con ellos para su tierra. Esto puede ser dicho explícitamente. TA: "cada uno de ustedes deberá tomar una de las mujeres de Silo, y entónces llevárselas a su tierra de Benjamín para que sean sus esposas"

Judges 21:22

¡Muéstrenos favor!
El sustantivo abstracto "favor" puede ser declarado como una acción. TA: "actúen con bondad hacia nosotros y hacia los hombres de Benjamín" porque no obtuvimos esposas para cada hombre durante la guerra El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito. TA: "porque no obtuvimos esposas para cada uno de ellos durante la guerra con Jabes Galaad"

Tú eres inocente... no diste tu hija a ellos
Esto se refiere a los hombres de Silo. Ellos no entregaron a sus hijas voluntariamente a los benjamitas, por ende no rompieron su promesa de no hacerlo.

Judges 21:23

el número de esposas que necesitaban
Esto se refiere a una esposa por cada hombre de los doscientos de Benjamín que no recibieron esposa de Jabes Galaad (Ver: 21:13).

Judges 21:25

no había rey en Israel
"Israel todavía no tenía rey"

lo que era correcto ante sus ojos Aquí "ojos" representa los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. TA: "lo que consideraba como correcto"

Book: Ruth

Ruth

Chapter 1

1 Sucedió en los días cuando los jueces gobernaban que hubo una hambruna en la tierra, y un cierto hombre de Belén de Judá fue al campo de Moab con su esposa y sus dos hijos. 2 El nombre del hombre era Elimelec, y el nombre de su esposa era Noemí. Los nombres de sus dos hijos eran Mahlón y Quelión, que eran Efrateos de Belén de Judá. Llegaron al campo de Moab y vivieron allí. 3 Entonces Elimelec, el esposo de Noemí, murió, y ella quedó con sus dos hijos. 4 Estos hijos tomaron esposas de las mujeres de Moab; el nombre de una era Orfa, y el nombre de la otra era Rut. Vivieron allí alrededor de diez años. 5 Entonces, ambos, Mahlón y Quelión murieron, quedando Noemí sin su esposo y sin sus dos hijos. 6 Entonces Noemí decidió irse de Moab con sus nueras y regresar a Judá porque había escuchado en la región de Moab que EL SEÑOR había ayudado a su pueblo en necesidad y les había dado alimentos. 7 Así que dejó el lugar donde había estado con sus dos nueras, y emprendieron el camino de regreso a la tierra de Judá. 8 Noemí le dijo a sus dos nueras, "Vayan, regresen, cada una de ustedes, a la casa de su madre. Que el SEÑOR muestre bondad hacia ustedes, según ustedes le han mostrado bondad hacia los muertos y hacia mí. 9 Que el Señor les conceda que encuentren descanso, cada una de ustedes en la casa de otro esposo. Entonces ella las besó, y ellas alzaron sus voces y lloraron. 10 Ellas le dijeron: "¡No! Nosotras regresaremos contigo a tu gente." 11 Pero Noemí dijo: "¡Vuélvanse, mis hijas! ¿Por qué habrían de regresar conmigo? ¿Acaso todavía tengo hijos en mi vientre para ustedes, que puedan convertirse en sus esposos? 12 Vuélvanse, mis hijas, vayan por su propio camino, porque soy muy vieja para tener un esposo. Si dijera: 'espero tener un esposo esta noche,' y entonces pariera dos hijos, 13 ¿esperarían ustedes a que crecieran? ¿Esperarían y no se casarían con hombres ahora? ¡No, mis hijas! Me aflige mucho; mucho más de lo que les aflige a ustedes, porque la mano del SEÑOR se ha tornado en contra de mí." 14 Entonces sus nueras alzaron sus voces y lloraron nuevamente. Orfa se despidió de su suegra con un beso, pero Rut se aferró a ella. 15 Noemí dijo: "Escucha, tu cuñada ha regresado a su gente y a sus dioses. Regresa con tu cuñada." 16 Pero Rut dijo, "No me hagas alejarme de ti, pues donde tú vayas, yo iré; donde tú te quedes, yo me quedaré; tu pueblo será mi pueblo, y tu Dios será mi Dios. 17 Donde mueras, moriré, y ahí seré sepultada. Que me castigue el SEÑOR, y aún más, si algo más que la muerte nos separe jamás." 18 Cuando Noemí vio que Rut estaba determinada a ir con ella, dejó de discutir con ella. 19 Así que las dos viajaron hasta que llegaron al pueblo de Belén. Sucedió que cuando llegaron a Belén, el pueblo entero estaba muy emocionado por ellas. Las mujeres dijeron, "¿Es esta Noemí?" 20 Pero ella les dijo, "No me llamen Noemí. Llámenme Amargura, porque el Todopoderoso ha tenido un trato muy amargo conmigo. 21 Salí llena, pero el SEÑOR me ha regresado de nuevo a casa vacía. Así que, ¿por qué me llaman Noemí, viendo que el SEÑOR me ha condenado; que el Todopoderoso me ha aflijido?" 22 Así que Noemí y Rut, la Moabita, su nuera, regresaron del campo de Moab. Llegaron a Belén al principio de la cosecha de cebada.

Ruth 1:1

"Sucedió"
"Era" o "Esto es lo que sucedió." Esta es una manera común de empezar una historia bíblica.

"en los días cuando los jueces gobernaban",
"durante el tiempo cuando los jueces líderaban y gobernaban a Israel "

"en la tierra"
"en la tierra de Israel" "

"un cierto hombre"
"un hombre." Esta es una manera común de introducir un personaje en la historia. "

"efrateos de Belén de Judá"
"Ellos eran personas de la tribu de Efraín, quienes se establecieron en la región de Judea.

Ruth 1:3

ella quedó con sus dos hijos
"Noemí tenía solamente a sus dos hijos con ella"(UBD)

tomaron esposas
"se casaron con ellas. "Esto es una frase idiomática para referirse a casarse con una mujer. Ellos no tomaron mujeres que ya estaban casadas.

las mujeres de Moab
Los hijos de Noemí se casaron con mujeres que eran de la tribu de Moab. Los moabitas adoraban a otros dioses.

el nombre de una
"el nombre de una de las mujeres"

el nombre de la otra
"el nombre de la otra mujer"

diez años
Diez años después que Elimelec y Noemí vinieron a el pueblo de Moab, sus hijos Mahlón y Quelión murieron.

dejando a Noemí
Noemí fue viuda

Ruth 1:6

ella había escuchado en la región de Moab
"mientras Noemí vivía en Moab ella escuchó." Esto implica que la noticia venía de Israel. TA: "ella escuchó de Israel mientras estaba en la región de Moab"

El SEÑOR
Este es el nombre que Dios le reveló a su pueblo en el Viejo Testamento. Ver la palabra en la página de traducción, sobre El SEÑOR, concerniente a como se traduce esta palabra.

había ayudado a su pueblo en necesidad Dios vió su necesidad y proveyó unas buenas cosechas para ellos.

nueras
nueras- las mujeres que se casaron con los hijos de Noemí

y caminaron carretera abajo
"y caminaron carretera abajo." Caminaron camino abajo es una expresión que significa alejarse.

Ruth 1:8

nueras
"las esposas de los hijos" o "las viudas de los hijos"

cada una de ustedes
Noemí le estaba hablando a dos personas, así que el lenguaje que tiene dos formas para "tú" usaría eso durante la conversación.

la casa de su madre
"al hogar de casa una de sus madres"

han mostrado bondad
"demostrado que ustedes son leales" bondad

incluye las idea del amor, la amabilidad y la lealtad.

hacia los muertos
"a sus esposos, que murieron." Noemí se estaba refieriendo a sus dos hijos que murieron.

les conceda
"les de a ustedes" o "les permita tener" descanso

"Descanso" aquí incluye seguridad en el matrimonio.

en la casa de otro esposo con sus nuevos esposos, no el esposo de alguien más. Esto se refiere tanto a una casa física que le pertenezca al esposo, como a la protección en contra de la vergüenza de no tener esposo.

ellas alzaron sus voces y lloraron
Esto significa que las hijas gimieron y lloraron amargamente.

Nosotras regresaremos
Cuando Orfa y Rut dijeron "nosotras" ellas se referían a ellas mismas y no a Noemí. Lenguajes que tengan "nosotras" inclusivos y exclusivos usarían la forma exclusiva aquí.

contigo
Se refiere a Noemí.

Ruth 1:11

¿Por qué habrían de regresar conmigo?
Esto es una pregunta retórica. TA: "No tiene sentido que vengan conmigo" o "No deberían venir conmigo" ¿Acaso todavía tengo hijos en mi vientre para ustedes, que puedan convertirse en sus esposos?

Noemí usa esta pregunta para decir que ella no puede tener otros hijos para casarse con ellas (las nueras). TA: "Obviamente, no es posible para mí el tener más hijos que puedan volverse sus esposos."

muy vieja para tener un esposo
La razón por la que un esposo sería importante puede ser dicha claramente. TA: "muy vieja para casarme otra vez y dar a luz a más niños"

entonces pariera dos hijos
"dar a luz a niños" o "tener varones"

¿esperarían ustedes a que crecieran? ¿Esperarían y no se casarían con hombres ahora?
Estas son preguntas retóricas, que no esperan respuesta. TA: "ustedes no esperarían a que

crecieran para poder casarse con ellos. ustedes querrían casarse con hombres ahora."

Me aflige mucho
Lo que le aflige (a Noemí) puede ser dicho claramente. TA: "Me aflige mucho que ustedes no tengas esposos" la mano del SEÑOR se ha tornado en contra de mí."

La palabra "mano" se refiere al poder e influencia del SEÑOR. TA: "El SEÑOR ha hecho que cosas terribles me pasen a mí"

Ruth 1:14

alzaron sus voces y lloraron
Esto significa que gimieron y lloraron amargamente.

Escucha
Aquí significa "Por favor, házme caso."

Rut se aferró a ella
"Rut se pegó a ella." TA: "Rut se negó a irse" o "Rut no la dejaría"

tu cuñada
"la esposa del hermano de tu esposo" o "Orfa"

sus dioses
Antes de que Orfa y Rut se casaran con los hijos de Noemí, ellas adoraban a los dioses de Moab. Durante su matrimonio, ellas empezaron a adorar al Dios de Noemí.

Ruth 1:16

donde tú te quedes
"donde tú vivas"

tu pueblo será mi pueblo
Rut se refiere al pueblo de Noemí, los israelitas. TA: "yo consideraré a la gente de tu país como si fueran mi propia gente" o "yo consideraré a tus parientes mis propios parientes"

Donde mueras, moriré
Esto se refiere al deseo de Rut de pasar el resto de su vida viviendo en el mismo lugar y pueblo que Noemí.

Que me castigue el SEÑOR, y aún más, si
Esto se refiere a Rut pidiéndole a Dios que la castigue si ella no hace lo que ella dijo, como en el lenguaje inglés de "Dios prohiba si..."

dejó de discutir con ella
"Noemí dejó de discutir con Rut"

Ruth 1:19

Sucedió
"Esto sucedió."Esto esta marcando un nueva trama.

el pueblo entero
"todos en la ciudad"

¿ Es esta Noemí?
Ya que han pasado muchos años desde que Noemí vivió en Belén y ya no tiene a sus dos hijos y a su esposo, es posible que las mujeres expresaran duda de si esta era realmente Noemí. Trata esta pregunta como una verdadera pregunta y no de manera retórica.

No me llamen Noemí
El nombre "Noemí "significa "mi delicia." Y debido a que Noemí perdió a su esposo e hijos, ella ya no siente que su nombre va de acuerdo con como ella se siente.

Amarga
Esta es la traducción del significado del nombre. Y se traduce frecuentemente como su sonido "Mara."

Salí llena, pero el SEÑOR me ha regresado de nuevo a casa vacía Cuando Noemí salió de Belén, su esposo y sus dos hijos estaban vivos, y ella se sentía feliz. Noemí culpa al SEÑOR por la muerte de su esposo y sus hijos, diciendo que El ha causado que ella regrese a Belén sin ellos, y ahora ella se siente amargada y triste.

me ha condenado
"me juzgo como culpable"

me ha afligido
"ha traído calamnidades sobre mí" o "ha traído tragedias a mí vida"

Chapter 2

1 Ahora el esposo de Noemí, Elimelec, tenía un pariente, Booz, quien era un hombre rico e influyente. 2 Rut, la moabita, dijo a Noemí: "Ahora déjame ir y recoger espigas de grano detrás de los cosechadores en los campos. Yo seguiré detrás de aquel ante cuyos ojos encuentre yo favor." Así que Noemí le dijo: "Ve, mi hija." 3 Rut fue y recogió el grano que quedaba en los campos detrás de los segadores. Sucedió que ella vino a la porción de los campos que pertenecían a Booz, quien era familia de Elimelec. 4 He aquí, Booz vino de Belén y le dijo a los segadores: "¡Que el SEÑOR esté con ustedes!" Ellos le contestaron: "¡Que el SEÑOR te bendiga!" 5 Entonces Booz le dijo a su siervo que estaba supervisando a los segadores: ¿A qué hombre le pertenece esta joven?" 6 El siervo supervisor de los segadores contestó y dijo: "Es la joven moabita que regresó con Noemí de la tierra de Moab. 7 Ella me dijo: 'Por favor déjeme recoger granos detrás de los segadores.' Así que ella vino aquí y ha trabajado desde la mañana hasta ahora, solo descansó un poco en la casa." 8 Entonces Booz le dijo a Rut: "¿Me estás escuchando, mi hija? No vayas y recojas grano en otro campo; no dejes mi campo. En lugar de eso, quédate aquí y trabaja con mis jóvenes trabajadoras. 9 Mantén tus ojos solamente en el campo donde los hombres están cosechando y sigue detrás a las otras mujeres. ¿No les he dado instrucciones a los hombres para que no te toquen? Y cuando tengas sed, puedes ir a las vasijas de agua y beber el agua que los hombres han sacado." 10 Entonces ella se inclinó delante de Booz, tocando su cabeza al suelo. Ella le dijo: "¿Por qué he encontrado favor a su vista, para que usted deba estar preocupado por mí, una extranjera?" 11 Booz le contestó y le dijo: "Se me ha informado todo lo que tú has hecho desde la muerte de tu esposo. Tú has dejado a tu padre, madre y la tierra de tu nacimiento para seguir a tu suegra y venir a donde unas personas que no conoces. 12 Que el SEÑOR te recompense por tu obra. Que recibas pago completo de el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, en quien bajo sus alas has encontrado refugio." 13 Entonces ella dijo: "Déjeme encontrar favor a su vista, mi amo, pues usted me ha consolado, y usted me ha hablado amablemente, aunque yo no sea una de sus siervas." 14 A la hora de la comida Booz le dijo a Rut: "Ven aquí, y come algo de pan, y sumerge tu bocado en el vinagre de vino." Ella se sentó junto a los segadores, y él le ofreció algo de grano tostado. Ella comió hasta que estuvo satisfecha y dejó el resto. 15 Cuando ella se levantó para recoger granos, Booz le ordenó a sus hombres, diciendo: "Déjenla recoger grano incluso entre las gavillas, y no le digan nada malo a ella. 16 Y ustedes también tienen que sacar algunas gavillas para ella de los manojos, y déjenlas para que ella las recoja. No la reprendan." 17 Así que ella recogió en el campo hasta el atardecer. Entonces ella separó los granos que había recogido, y el grano era como 13 kilos de cebada. 18 Ella lo levantó y fue a la ciudad. Entonces su suegra vio lo que ella había recogido. Rut también sacó el grano tostado que ella dejó de su comida y se lo dio. 19 Su suegra le dijo: "¿Dónde has recogido granos hoy? ¿A dónde fuiste a trabajar? Que el hombre que te ayudó sea bendecido." Entonces Rut le contó a su suegra sobre el hombre que era dueño del campo donde ella había trabajado. Ella dijo: "El nombre del hombre que es dueño del campo donde yo trabajé hoy es Booz." 20 Noemí le dijo a su nuera: "Que él sea bendecido por el SEÑOR, quien no ha dejado de lado su lealtad a los vivos y a los muertos." Noemí le dijo: "Ese hombre es nuestro pariente, uno de nuestros parientes redentores." 21 Rut la moabita dijo: "En efecto, él me dijo: 'Debes mantenerte cerca de mis hombres hasta que ellos hayan terminado toda mi cosecha.'" 22 Noemí le dijo a Rut, su nuera: "Es bueno, mi hija, que tú salgas con sus jóvenes trabajadoras, para que no te hagas daño en cualquier otro campo." 23 Así que ella se quedó cerca de las trabajadoras de Booz para así recoger granos hasta el fin de la cosecha de la cebada y la cosecha del trigo. Y ella estaba viviendo con su suegra.

Ruth 2:1

Ahora el esposo de Rut
Esta frase introduce nueva información antes que la historia continue. Su lenguaje debe tener una forma para introducir nueva información.

hombre rico e influyente
"un hombre prominente, rico."Esto significa que Booz era próspero y bien conocido en su comunidad, con buena reputación.

Rut, la moabita
Aquí la historia resume. Usted debe ver como su lenguaje restaura la historia luego del receso.

Los moabitas
Esta es otra forma para decir la mujer era del país de la tribu de Moab.

espigar entre los granos
"recolectar semillas de granos dejadas por los cosechadores" o "recoger semillas de grano dejadas atrás por los cosechadores"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Granos
"'cabezas o tallos."' Los "'granos"' son parte de la planta de granos que contiene granos.

En quien sus ojos yo encontrara favor
Rut habla de ser agradable de ver como obtener permiso de aprobación. Traducción alterna: "'¿Quién me dara permiso para espigar?"'

Hija
Rut estaba cuidando a Noemí como si fuera su propia madre. Asegurese que sea posible en su lenguaje usar esta palabra para alguien que no es su actual hija.

Ruth 2:3

Ella pasó a venir
Rut no se dio cuenta que el campo que escogió para recolectar pertenecía a Booz familiar de Noemí.

He aquí, Booz
La palabra "'he aquí"' nos alerta sobre el importante evento de que Booz llegó al campo. Su lenguaje debe tener una forma específica de introducir importantes eventos o carácteres.

Vino de Belén
Los campos estaban a una distancia no especificada a las afueras de Belén.

Te bendiga
"darte buenas cosas"' o "'hacerte feliz"'

Ruth 2:5

¿A qué hombre le pertenece esta joven?
Posibles significados son 1) Booz estaba preguntando del esposo de Ruth o 2) Booz estaba preguntando de los parientes o actuales guardianes.

Supervisando
"a cargo o gestión"'

Casa
"'choza o refugio."' Esto era un refugio temporero o cabaña de jardín en el campo que proporcionaba sombra del sol.

Ruth 2:8

¿Me estás escuchando, mi hija?
Esto se puede reformular como un comando. Traducción Alterna: "'escuchame, mi hija!"' o nota bien lo que te digo, mi hija!"'

Mi hija
Esto es una forma de dirigirse a una mujer mas joven. Rut no era la actual hija de Booz, asegurarse que la traducción de esto no suene como si ella lo fuera.

Mantén tus ojos solamente en el campo
Los ojos representan mirando algo o prestando atención a algo. Traducción alterna: "'Sólo ver el campo"' o prestar atención sólo al campo"'

Ruth 2:10

Ella se inclinó delante de Booz, tocando su cabeza al suelo Estas son acciones de respeto y reverencia.Ella le estaba mostrando honor a Booz en agradecimiento por lo que él habia hecho por ella. Era una postura de humildad.

¿Por qué he encontrado favor?
Rut esta haciendo una pregunta real.

Extranjera
Rut ha prometido su lealtad al Dios de Israel en privado, pero ella era conocida publicamente como "la moabita."'

Se me ha informado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "La gente me ha reportado"' o "'la gente me ha dicho"

Venir a un pueblo
Booz se refiere a la rutina que viene a vivir Rut con Noemi en la villa y comunidad, un país, y religión que ella no conoce.

Te recompense
"'volver a pagarte"' o "'pagarte"'

Por tu obra
Esto es un acto de fe, escogiendo vivir con Noemi en Belén y confiando en el Dios de Noemi.

Que recibas pago completo de el SEÑOR
Esta es una expresión poética que es bien similar a la oración anterior. Traducción Alterna: Que el SEÑOR te dé para atrás mas de lo que tu has dado"'

En quien bajo sus alas has encontrado refugio
Booz usa una imagen de una madre pájaro reuniendo sus pollitos debajo de sus alas para protejerla, para describir la protección de Dios para aquellos que confian en él. Traducción alterna: "'en cuyo cuidado seguro te has puesto"'

Ruth 2:13

Dejame encontrar favor a su vista Esto se refiere a preguntar por una bendición. Traducción alterna: "'dejame recibir gracia de ti"' o "por favor aceptame"'

Yo no soy una de sus siervas Posibles significados son 1) Rut no era una de las sirvientas hembra de Booz o 2) Rut no piensa que su matrimonio con el hijo de Noemi le garantize algún privilegio en Belén.

Ruth 2:14

A la hora de la comida
Esto se refiere a la comida del mediodía

Sumerge tu bocado en el vinagre de vino
Esta era una comida simple que se comía en el campo. La gente se sentaba en la tierra alrededor de la tela que tiene un envase de vinagre de vino y platos con pan partido. Ellos sumergian el pan en el envase con vinagre para mojarlo y añadirle sabor antes de comerlo.

Vinagre de vino
Es una salsa que el pan se sumergia en el. Los israelitas luego fermentaban algo de su vino para hacer vinagre.

Ruth 2:15

Cuando ella se levanto para espigar, Booz le ordenó a sus hombres
En el contexto de los comandos, es que Rut estaba muy lejos para escuchar a las instrucciones de Booz. Traducción alterna: "'y cuando Rut se levantó para espigar, Bozz en secreto le dijo a sus hombres"'

Cuando ella se levanto
"' cuando ella se levanto"'

Incluso entre las gavillas
"'incluso"' aquí denota "'por encima y más alla de lo que uno hace normalmente"' Booz instruye a sus trabajadores a dejar a Rut espigar alrededor de los manojos de granos. La gente que estaba espigando normalmente se le prohibía trabajar tan cerca de la cosecha de granos.

Sacar algunas gavillas para ella de los manojos
"toma algunos tallos de los granos fuera de los manojos y dejalos ahí para ella"' o dejar atrás de loa tallos de granos para que ella los colecte"'

No la reprendan
"' No le causen verguenza"' o ""No la deshonren"

Ruth 2:17

Separó
Ella separó lo comestible del grano del casco y tallo, que se tira.

Granos
Esto se refiere a la parte comible de el grano.

Era como un efa de cebada
"'era como 13 kilos de cebada"'

Ella se levantó y fue a la ciudad
Esta implícito que Rut llevó el grano a la casa.

Su suegra
suegra - "'Noemí vio"'

Ruth 2:19

¿Dónde has espigado hoy? ¿ A dónde fuiste a trabajar?
Noemí dijo lo mismo en dos diferentes formas para mostrar que estaba muy interesada en saber que le había sucedido a Rut ese día.

Que el sea bendecido por el SEÑOR
Noemí le esta pidiendo a Dios que recompense a Booz por su amabilidad con Rut y con ella.

Quien no ha dejado de lado su lealtad
"'quien ha continuado siendo fiel"' Posibles significados 1)Bozz recuerda su obligación hacia Noemí como miembro de su familia o 2)Noemí esta refiriéndose a el SEÑOR, quien esta actuando a través de Booz o 3)El SEÑOR sigue siendo fiel a vivos y muertos.

A los vivos
"' a la gente que sigue viva."' Noemí y Rut eran las "'vivas."'

Los muertos
"' las personas que ya murieron"' El marido y los hijos de Noemí fueron los "'muertos."'

Es nuestro pariente, uno de nuestros parientes redentores redentores - La segunda frase repite y expande la primera. Este es un estilo hebreo de énfasis.

Pariente-redentor redentor - Un pariente-redentor era un pariente cercano que podia rescatar a una viuda sin hijos de la ruina financiera al casarla y tener un hijo con ella. También recuperará la tierra que sus parientes habían perdido debido a la pobreza y la redimiría a los miembros de la familia que se habían vendido como esclavos.

Ruth 2:21

En efecto, el me dijo
"'incluso me dijo."' Esto indica que lo que sigue es la parte más importante de las palabras de Booz a Rut.

Mantenerte cerca de mis hombres
Booz se refería a la protección física que sus hombres le podían proveer.

Salir con
"' trabajar con"'

Hacer daño
Posibles significados son 1) otros trabajadores pueden abusar de Rut o tratar de apoderarse y dormir con ella o 2)en otro campo, el dueño puede

Chapter 3

1 Noemí, su suegra, le dijo: "Mi hija, ¿no debería yo buscar un lugar para que tú descanses, para que las cosas puedan ir bien para ti? 2 Ahora Booz, el hombre con cuyas trabajadoras has estado, ¿no es él nuestro pariente? Mira, él estará aventando cebada en la campo esta noche. 3 Por lo tanto, lávate, úngete, ponte tus mejores ropas y baja al campo. Pero no te des a conocer al hombre hasta que él termine de comer y beber. 4 Y asegúrate, que cuando él se acueste, recuerdes el lugar donde él se acostó para que después puedas ir a él, destapar sus pies, y acostarte allí. Entonces él te dirá qué hacer." 5 Rut le dijo a Noemí: "Yo haré todo lo que tú digas." 6 Así que ella bajó al campo, y siguió las instrucciones que su suegra le había dado. 7 Cuando Booz hubo comido y bebido y su corazón estaba alegre, él se fue a acostar al final de la pila de grano. Entonces ella vino suavemente, destapó sus pies y se acostó. 8 Sucedió a medianoche que el hombre estaba sorprendido. Él se dio la vuelta, ¡y ahí mismo una mujer estaba acostada a sus pies! 9 Él dijo: "¿Quién eres?" Ella contestó: "Soy Rut, tu sierva. Esparce tu manto sobre tu sierva, pues tú eres un pariente cercano. " 10 Booz dijo: "Mi hija, que seas bendecida por el SEÑOR. Me has mostrado más amabilidad al final que al principio, pues no has ido detrás de ninguno de los hombres jóvenes, sean pobres o ricos. 11 Y ahora, mi hija, ¡no temas! Yo haré por ti todo lo que tú digas, porque toda la gente de mi pueblo sabe que eres una mujer digna. 12 Ahora es verdad que soy un pariente cercano; sin embargo, hay un pariente más cercano que yo. 13 Quédate aquí esta noche, y en la mañana, si él realizara para ti el deber de un pariente, bien, permítele hacer el deber del pariente. Pero si él no hiciera el deber de un pariente para ti, entonces yo lo haré, por la vida del SEÑOR. Acuéstate hasta la mañana." 14 Así que ella se acostó a sus pies hasta la mañana. Pero se levantó mientras todavía estaba en oscuridad. Pues Booz había dicho: "Que no sea conocido que la mujer vino al campo." 15 Entonces Booz dijo: "Trae tu manto y sosténlo." Cuando ella lo hizo, él midió seis largas medidas de cebada y puso la carga sobre ella. Entonces él fue a la ciudad. 16 Cuando Rut vino a su suegra, ella dijo: "¿Cómo hiciste, mi hija?" Entonces Rut le contó todo lo que el hombre había hecho por ella. 17 Ella dijo: "Estas seis medidas de cebada son las que él me dio, pues él dijo: 'No vayas vacía a tu suegra.'" 18 Entonces Noemí dijo: "Quédate aquí, mi hija, hasta que tú sepas cómo el asunto saldrá, pues el hombre no descansará hasta que él haya terminado esta cosa hoy."

suegra
Noemí es la madre del esposo muerto de Rut.

Mi hija
Rut se convirtió en la hija de Noemí al casarse con su hijo y más por sus acciones en cuidar a Noemí luego de regresar a Belén.

¿no debería yo buscar un lugar para que tú Noemí utilizó esta pregunta para decirle a Rut lo que ella pensaba hacer. Traducción Alterna: "¡Debo buscar un lugar para ti!" o "¡Debo buscar un esposo que te cuide!"

un lugar para que tú descanses Significados posibles son 1) Literalmente encontrar una casa para ella vivir o 2) figuradamente encontrarle un esposo para que la cuide. Noemí probablemente tenía ambos sentidos en mente.

con cuyas trabajadoras has estado "trabajadoras con las que has estado trabajando"

no es él nuestro pariente Noemí probablemente utilizó esta pregunta para recordarle a Rut algo que ella ya le había dicho. Traducción Alterna: "él es nuestro familiar"

Mira
Este término indica que la siguiente declaración es muy importante.

aventando
Aventar significa separar el grano de la paja no deseable al sacudir ambos los granos y la paja en el aire, permitiendo que el viento sople la paja.

Ruth 3:3

Chapter 4

1 Ahora Booz subió a la puerta y se sentó allí. Pronto, el pariente cercano de quien Booz había hablado se acercó. Booz le dijo: "Mi amigo, acércate y siéntate aquí." El hombre se acercó y se sentó. 2 Entonces Booz tomó diez hombres de los ancianos de la ciudad y dijo: "Siéntense aquí." Así que ellos se sentaron. 3 Booz dijo al pariente cercano: "Noemí, quien ha regresado del país de Moab, está vendiendo la parcela de tierra que era de nuestro hermano Elimelec. 4 Yo pensé en informarte y decirte: 'Cómprala en la presencia de aquellos que están sentados aquí, y en la presencia de los ancianos de mi pueblo.' Si tú deseas redimirla, redímela. Pero si no deseas redimirla, entonces dime, para que yo sepa, pues no hay nadie para redimirla a parte de ti, y yo estoy después de ti." Entonces el otro hombre dijo: "Yo la redimiré." 5 Entonces Booz dijo: "En el día que tú compres el campo de la mano de Noemí, debes también tomar a Rut la moabita, la esposa del hombre muerto, en orden de levantar el nombre del muerto en su herencia." 6 Entonces el pariente cercano dijo: "Yo no puedo redimirla para mí mismo sin dañar mi propia herencia. Tú toma mi derecho de redención para ti mismo, pues yo no puedo redimirla." 7 Ahora esta era la costumbre en tiempos antiguos en Israel concernientes a la redención e intercambio de bienes. Para confirmar todas las cosas, un hombre quitaba su calzado y se lo daba a su vecino; esta era la manera de hacer acuerdos legales en Israel. 8 Así que el pariente cercano le dijo a Booz: "Cómpralo para ti mismo." Y él se quitó su calzado. 9 Entonces Booz le dijo a los ancianos y a todas las personas: "Ustedes son testigos hoy que yo he comprado todo lo que era de Elimelec y todo lo que era de Quelión y Mahlón de la mano de Noemí. 10 Además acerca de Rut la moabita, la esposa de Mahlón: Yo también la he adquirido para ser mi esposa, en orden que yo pueda levantar el nombre del hombre muerto en su herencia, para que así su nombre no sea sacado de entre sus hermanos y de la puerta de su lugar. Ustedes son testigos hoy." 11 Todas las personas que estaban en la puerta y los ancianos dijeron: "Nosotros somos testigos. Que el SEÑOR haga a la mujer que ha entrado a tu casa como Raquel y Lea, las dos que construyeron la casa de Israel. Y que prosperes en Efrata y seas renovado en Belén. 12 Que tu casa sea como la casa de Fares, a quien Tamar dio a luz a Judá, por medio de la descendencia que el SEÑOR te dará con esta joven." 13 Así que Booz tomó a Rut, y ella se convirtió en su esposa. Él durmió con ella, y el SEÑOR le permitió embarazarse, y ella dio a luz un hijo. 14 Las mujeres le dijeron a Noemí: "Que el SEÑOR sea bendecido, que no te ha dejado hoy sin un pariente cercano, este bebé. Que su nombre sea famoso en Israel. 15 Que él sea para ti un restaurador de vida y un sustentador en tu vejez, pues tu nuera, quien te ama, quien es para ti mejor que siete hijos, lo ha dado a luz." 16 Entonces Noemí tomó al niño, lo acostó en su pecho, y cuidó de él. 17 Y sus vecinas, le dieron un nombre, diciendo: "Un hijo le ha nacido a Noemí." Ellas lo nombraron Obed. Él fue el padre de Isaí, quien fue el padre de David. 18 Ahora estos fueron los descendientes de Fares: Fares fue el padre de Hezrón, 19 Hezrón fue el padre de Ram, Ram fue el padre de Aminadab, 20 Aminadab fue el padre de Naasón, Naasón fue el padre de Salmón, 21 Salmón fue el padre de Booz, Booz fue el padre de Obed, 22 Obed fue el padre de Isaí, e Isaí fue el padre de David.

Esto se refiere a todo el pueblo que estaba presente en el lugar de encuentro, no todo el mundo en la ciudad.

todo lo que era de Elimelec y todo lo que era de Quelión y Mahlón Esto se refiere a todas las tierras y posesiones de la muerte de Noemí esposo e hijos.

de la mano de Noemí
La mano de Noemí representa a Noemí. Ella era responsable del intercambio de dinero. TA: "de Noemí" en orden que yo pueda levantar el nombre del hombre muerto en su herencia El primer hijo que Rut parió sería legalmente considerado hijo de Mahlón y heredaría la tierra que Booz compró de Noemí. TA: "entonces Yo le daré un hijo quién heredará la propiedad del hombre muerto" para que así su nombre no sea sacado de entre sus hermanos y de la puerta de su lugar Se habla de ser olvidado como si un nombre fuera eliminado de la lista del pueblo quien ha vivido anteriormente. TA: "porque él no será olvidado por hermanos descendientes y las personas de esta ciudad"

Esto tiene significado figurativo y literal. Como Rut se casó con Booz, ella se moverá a su casa. Casa también puede referirse a formar parte de la familia de Booz y ser su esposa.

como Raquel y Lea
Estas fueron dos esposas de Jacob, a quien su nombre fue cambiado a Israel.

construyeron la casa de Israel
"parieron tantos hijos que se volvieron la nación de Israel"

Y que prosperes en Efrata
Efrata es el nombre de la familia a quien Booz pertenecía en Belén.

Que tu casa sea como Dios bendijo abundantemente a Judá a través de su hijo Fares. Las personas estaban pidiéndole a Dios que bendijera en igual manera a través de los hijos de Rut.

Tamar dio a luz a Judá
Tamar también era una viuda. Judá crió un hijo con ella, quien continuó con el nombre de la familia.

Esto se refiere a la reputación y carácter del nieto de Noemí.

un restaurador de vida
Esta frase problabemente se refiere a como Noemí va a explicar la experiencia de gozo y esperanza en su vida resultado de tener un nuevo nieto. TA: "quien te trae alegría de nuevo" o "Quien te hará sentir joven nuevamente" (UDB)

un sustentador en tu vejez
"él va a tener cuidado de ti cuando tu estes viejo" (UDB)

mejor que siete hijos
"siete" el número hebreo de lo completo. Los hijos de Noemí murieron antes de que ellos trageran algún descendientwe, pero Rut parió un nieto para que Noemí por Booz. TA: "mejor para ti que para cualquier hijo"

Ruth 4:16

Noemí tomó al niño
Esto se refiere a Noemí aguantando al niño. Asegúrese que no se escuche como si ella lo apartó de Rut.

lo acostó en su pecho
"lo aguantó cerca de su pecho". Esto es una declaración de amor y afecto al niño.

Un hijo le ha nacido a Noemí
"Este niño es como un hijo para Noemí". Se entiende que el niño era el nieto de Noemí, no su hijo físico.

Book: 1 Samuel

1 Samuel

Chapter 1

1 Había un hombre en Ramataim de Zofim, del país montañoso de Efraín, su nombre era Elcana, hijo de Jeroham, hijo de Eliú, hijo de Tohu, hijo de Zuf, un efrateo. 2 Él tenía dos esposas; el nombre de la primera era Ana, y el nombre de la segunda era Penina. Penina tenía hijos, pero Ana no tenía. 3 Este hombre venía de su ciudad, año tras año, a adorar y sacrificar para El SEÑOR de los ejércitos en Silo. Los dos hijos de Elí, Ofni y Finees, sacerdotes del SEÑOR, estaban ahí. 4 Cuando llego el día en el que Elcana iba a ofrecer sacrificios, como cada año, siempre daba porciones de la carne a Penina su esposa, y a todos sus hijos e hijas. 5 Pero él siempre le daba el doble de porción a Ana, porque amaba a Ana, aunque El SEÑOR no le había dado hijos. 6 Su rival (Penina) la molestaba muy constantemente con el fin de humillarla, porque El SEÑOR no le había dado hijos. 7 Entonces año tras año, cuando ella subía a la casa del SEÑOR con su familia, su rival (Penina) siempre la molestaba. Es por eso que ella lloraba y no comía nada. 8 Elcana su esposo siempre le decía: "Ana, ¿por qué lloras? ¿Por qué no comes? ¿Por qué está tu corazón triste? ¿No soy yo mucho mejor para ti que diez hijos?" 9 En una de esas ocasiones, Ana se levantó después de haber comido y bebido en Silo. Elí el sacerdote estaba sentado en su silla por la entrada de la puerta de la casa del SEÑOR. 10 Ella estaba muy triste; ella oró al SEÑOR y lloró amargamente. 11 Ella hizo una promesa y dijo: "SEÑOR de los ejércitos, si Tú miraras la tristeza de tu sierva y la escucharas, no olvidando a tu sierva, pero dando a tu sierva un hijo, entonces yo lo daré al SEÑÓR todos los días de su vida, y jamás se cortará su cabello." 12 Mientras ella oraba al SEÑOR, Elí observaba su boca. 13 Ana habló en su corazón. Sus labios se movieron, pero su voz no se escuchó. Por tanto Elí pensó que ella estaba borracha. 14 Elí le dijo: "¿Hasta cuando estarás borracha? ¡Ya deja tu vino! 15 Ana le contestó: "No mi señor, soy una mujer con espíritu entristecido. No he tomado vino ni alguna otra bebida fuerte, pero he estado rogando con mi alma ante El SEÑOR." 16 "No pienses que tu sierva es una mujer sin vergüenza; he estado hablando de la abundancia de mi gran angustia y humillación." 17 Luego Elí le constestó y le dijo: "Vete en paz; que el Dios de Israel cumpla la petición que le has hecho." 18 Ella dijo: "Deja que tu sierva encuentre favor delante de ti." Luego la mujer siguió su camino y comió; su cara ya no estaba triste. 19 Ellos se levantaron temprano en la mañana y adoraron ante El SEÑOR, y después ellos regresaron de nuevo a su casa en Rama. Elcana durmió con Ana su esposa, y el SEÑOR escuchó su petición. 20 Cuando el tiempo pasó, Ana quedó embarazada y dió a luz un hijo varón. Le puso por nombre Samuel diciendo: "Porque se lo pedí al SEÑOR". 21 Una vez más, Elcana y toda su familia, subieron a ofrecer al SEÑOR sus sacrificios del año y pagar su promesa. 22 Pero Ana no fue; ella dijo a su esposo: "Yo no iré hasta que el niño deje mi pecho; entonces lo llevaré, para que así él pueda estar ante El SEÑOR y vivir allí para siempre." 23 Elcana su esposo le dijo a ella: "Haz lo que te parezca mejor. Espera hasta que le destetes; solo, sea que El SEÑOR confirme su palabra." Entonces la mujer se quedó y cuidó a su hijo hasta que lo destetó. 24 Cuando ella lo destetó, tomó al niño, junto con un toro de tres años, 22 litros de carne, y una botella de vino, trayéndolo a la casa del SEÑOR en Silo. Entonces el niño era aún pequeño. 25 Ellos mataron al toro y trajeron el niño a Elí. 26 Ella dijo: "Oh, mi señor! Así como vives, mi señor, yo soy la mujer que estaba aquí orando junto a ti al SEÑOR. 27 Por este niño yo oré y El SEÑOR escuchó mi petición. 28 Yo lo he dado al SEÑOR; mientras él viva, está prestado al SEÑOR." Y adoró al SEÑOR allí.

Chapter 2

1 Ana oró y dijo: "Mi corazón se alegra en el SEÑOR. Mi fortaleza es engrandecida en el SEÑOR. Mi boca presumió sobre mis enemigos, porque yo me alegro en Su salvación. 2 No hay nadie más santo que El SEÑOR, no hay nadie además de ti, no hay roca como nuestro DIOS." 3 No presumas tan orgullosamente, no dejes que el desprecio salga de tu boca. Pues El SEÑOR es un DIOS de conocimiento; y por Él nuestras acciones son juzgadas. 4 Los hombres poderosos serán quebrados como arcos, pero Él hará a los débiles fuertes. 5 Aquellos que no tenían hambre trabajaron por pan; los que estaban hambrientos dejaron de tener hambre. Incluso la estéril dio a luz a siete, pero la mujer que tuvo muchos hijos, se debilitó. 6 El SEÑOR mata y da vida. Él hace bajar hasta el Seol y levanta. 7 El SEÑOR hace al pobre y Él hace al rico. Él humilla, pero también engrandece. 8 Él levanta al pobre del polvo. Él levanta al necesitado de las cenizas para sentarlos con los príncipes y heredar el asiento de honor. Porque las columnas de la tierra son del SEÑOR y Él ha puesto el mundo sobre ellas. 9 Él cuidará los pies de Su pueblo fiel, pero los malvados serán puestos en silencio en la oscuridad, porque nadie se sostendrá por sus fuerzas. 10 Aquellos que estén en contra del SEÑOR, serán hechos pedazos; Él tronará en contra de ellos desde el cielo. El SEÑOR juzgará los rincones de la tierra. Él dará fuerza a Su rey y engrandecerá el poder de Su ungido. 11 Luego, Elcana se fue a Rama, a su casa. El niño servía al SEÑOR en la presencia de Elí el sacerdote. 12 Ahora, los hijos de Elí eran hombres malos. Ellos no conocían al SEÑOR. 13 La costumbre de los sacerdotes con el pueblo era que cuando cualquier hombre ofrecía un sacrificio, los sirvientes del sacerdote llegaban con un tenedor de tres dientes en su mano mientras la carne se cocía. 14 Él podría meter el tenedor dentro de la cacerola, olla o caldera. Todo lo que el tenedor recogía, el sacerdote podía quedárselo para él mismo. Ellos hacían esto en Silo con todos los Israelitas que iban allí. 15 En su lugar, antes de quemar la grasa, el sirviente del sacerdote llegaba y decía al hombre que ofrecía el sacrificio: "Dále al sacerdote carne para asar; porque él no aceptará carne hervida de ti, sino carne cruda." 16 Si el hombre le decía a él: "Quemen la grasa primero, y después tomen tanto como puedan." Luego él diría: "No, tu me la darás ahora, si no, lo tomaré por la fuerza". 17 El pecado de estos hombres jóvenes era muy grande delante del SEÑOR, porque despreciaban las ofrendas del SEÑOR. 18 Pero Samuel, de niño le servía al SEÑOR vestido con ropa sacerdotal de lino. 19 Su madre le hacía una túnica pequeña y se la traía a él cada año cuando ella subía con su marido para ofrecer el sacrificio anual. 20 Elí bendecía a Elcana y a su esposa y decía: "Que el SEÑOR te de más hijos de esta mujer, por la petición que ella le hizo al SEÑOR". Después, ellos regresaban a sus casas. 21 El SEÑOR nuevamente ayudó a Ana, y otra vez quedó embarazada. Ella dió a luz a tres hijos y dos hijas. Mientras tanto, el niño Samuel crecía delante del SEÑOR. 22 Ahora, Elí era ya muy viejo, y escuchó todo lo que sus hijos le estaban haciendo a todo Israel, y cómo ellos dormían con las mujeres que servían en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 23 El le dijo a sus hijos: "¿Por qué están haciendo tales cosas?" Porque de todas estas personas he escuchado acerca de sus malas acciones. 24 No, mis hijos; porque no es un bueno lo que escuché. Ustedes hacen que el pueblo del SEÑOR desobedezca. 25 "Si un hombre peca en contra de otro hombre, DIOS lo juzgará, pero si un hombre peca en contra del SEÑOR, ¿quién hablará por él?" Pero ellos no escuchaban las palabras de su padre porque El SEÑOR tenía planeado que murieran. 26 El joven Samuel crecía y aumentaba en favor delante del SEÑOR y también delante de los hombres. 27 Ahora, un hombre de DIOS llegó a donde Elí y le dijo: "El SEÑOR dice: '¿No me le revelé Yo a la familia de tu antepasado cuando ellos estaban en Egipto bajo el mando de la casa de Faraón? 28 Yo lo escogí de entre todas las tribus de Israel para ser Mi sacerdote, para ir a Mi altar y quemar incienso, para vestir ropas sacerdotales delante de Mí. Yo le di a la casa de tu antepasado todas las ofrendas del pueblo de Israel hechas con fuego. 29 Entonces, ¿por qué desprecias Mis sacrificios y las ofrendas que Yo pido en el lugar donde vivo? ¿Por qué honras a tus hijos antes que a Mí, haciéndose ustedes gordos con lo mejor de cada ofrenda de Mi pueblo Israel?' 30 Porque el SEÑOR, el DIOS de Israel, dice: 'Prometí que tu casa y la casa de tu antepasado caminaría delante de Mí para siempre.' Pero ahora el SEÑOR dice: 'No haré esto, porque yo honraré a los que me honran, pero aquellos que me desprecian serán poco estimados. 31 Mira, los días están llegando, cuando Yo quitaré tu fuerza y la fuerza de la casa de tu padre, para que no hayan personas ancianas en tu casa. 32 Verás angustia en el lugar donde Yo vivo. Aunque bien le será dado a Israel, no habrán personas ancianas en tu casa. 33 A cualquiera de ustedes que Yo no eche fuera de Mi altar, Yo haré que sus ojos no vean y causaré dolor a sus vidas. Todos los hombres que nazcan en tu familia morirán. 34 Esta será la señal para ti, que vendrá sobre tus dos hijos, Ofni y Finees: los dos morirán el mismo día. 35 Yo levantaré para Mí mismo un sacerdote fiel, quien hará lo que está en Mi corazón y Mi alma. Le construiré una casa segura; y caminará delante de mi rey ungido para siempre. 36 Todo el que se quede vivo en tu casa, vendrá y se inclinará delante de él, rogando por una pieza de plata y un pedazo de pan y dirá: "Por favor, dame uno de los trabajos de los sacerdotes para que pueda comer una pieza de pan."

Chapter 3

1 El niño Samuel le servía al SEÑOR observado por Elí. Las palabras del SEÑOR no eran comunes en aquellos días; no había visiones frecuentemente. 2 En ese tiempo, cuando Elí, que comenzaba a quedarse ciego y no podía ver bien, estaba acostado en su propia cama. 3 La lámpara de DIOS aún no se había apagado, y Samuel se estaba acostando para dormir en la casa del SEÑOR donde estaba el arca de DIOS. 4 El SEÑOR llamó a Samuel, quien dijo: "Aquí estoy". 5 Samuel corrió hasta Elí y dijo: "Aquí estoy, me has llamado" Elí dijo, "Yo no te he llamado, vuelve a acostarte." Entonces Samuel fue y se acostó. 6 El SEÑOR llamó de nuevo: "Samuel." Nuevamente Samuel fue hasta Elí y dijo: "Aquí estoy, me has llamado." Elí respondió: " Yo no te he llamado, hijo; vuelve a acostarte." 7 En ese tiempo Samuel aún no tenía ninguna experiencia del SEÑOR, tampoco había tenido algún mensaje que le haya revelado El SEÑOR. 8 El SEÑOR volvió a llamar a Samuel por tercera vez. De nuevo Samuel se levantó y fue a Elí y dijo: "Aquí estoy, me has llamado." Luego Elí comprendió que El SEÑOR llamaba al muchacho. 9 Después Elí dijo a Samuel: "Ve y acuéstate; si Él te llama de nuevo, tu debes decir: "Habla SEÑOR, tu siervo te está escuchando." Entonces Samuel fue y se acostó en su lugar una vez más. 10 El SEÑOR vino y se presentó; el llamó como las otras veces: "Samuel, Samuel." Luego Samuel dijo: "Habla, que tu siervo te está escuchando." 11 El SEÑOR dijo a Samuel: "Mira, Yo estoy por hacer algo en Israel, y los oídos de todos los que escuchen van a temblar. 12 En ese día Yo cumpliré contra Elí todo lo que dije sobre su casa, desde el principio hasta el fin. 13 Yo le dije que Yo soy quien juzga completamente sobre su casa por el pecado que el conocía, porque sus hijos han traído maldición sobre ellos mismos y él no los detuvo. 14 Por causa de esto yo he jurado a la casa de Elí, que los pecados de su casa no serán perdonados por medio de sacrificio u ofrenda. 15 Samuel se acostó hasta la mañana; luego el abrió las puertas de la casa del SEÑOR. Pero Samuel tuvo miedo de decirle a Elí sobre la visión. 16 Luego Elí llamó a Samuel y dijo: "Samuel, hijo." Samuel contestó: "Aquí estoy." 17 El dijo: "¿Que fue la palabra que Él te habló a ti?" Por favor no la escondas de mi. Sea DIOS quien haga lo mismo contigo y aún más, si tu ocultas alguna cosa de mi de las palabras que Él te habló a ti. 18 Samuel le dijo todo; él no le escondió nada. Elí dijo: " Es El SEÑOR. Sea hecho lo que a Él mejor le parezca." 19 Samuel creció, y El SEÑOR estaba con él y no dejó que ninguna de sus palabras proféticas quedaran sin cumplirse. 20 Todo Israel desde Dan hasta Beerseba sabía que Samuel era elegido para ser un profeta del SEÑOR. 21 El SEÑOR se apareció nuevamente en Silo, porque se mostró a Samuel en Silo, por su palabra.

Chapter 4

1 Samuel habló a todo Israel. Ahora Israel salió a la batalla contra los filisteos. Ellos acamparon en Ebenezer, y los filisteos acamparon en Afec. 2 Los filisteos se prepararon para la batalla en contra de Israel. Cuando la batalla comenzó, los filisteos derrotaron a Israel y mataron alrededor de cuatro mil hombres en el campo de batalla. 3 Cuando las personas llegaron al campamento, los ancianos de Israel dijeron: "¿Por qué el SEÑOR nos hizo perder hoy delante de los filisteos? Traigamos el arca del pacto del SEÑOR aquí desde Silo, que este aquí con nosotros, para que nos proteja de la mano de nuestros enemigos." 4 Entonces el pueblo envío hombres a Silo; desde ahí ellos trajeron el arca del pacto del SEÑOR de los ejércitos, quien se sienta arriba del querubín. Los dos hijos de Elí, Ofni y Finees, estaban ahí con el arca del pacto de DIOS. 5 Cuando el arca del pacto del SEÑOR llegó al campamento, todo el pueblo de Israel dio un fuerte grito, y la tierra tembló. 6 Cuando los filisteos escucharon el gran grito, dijeron: "¿Qué significa este grito tan fuerte que viene del campamento de los hebreos?" Entonces ellos se dieron cuenta que el arca del SEÑOR estaba en el campamento. 7 Los filisteos estaban asustados; dijeron: "DIOS ha llegado al campamento." Ellos dijeron: "¡Ay de nosotros!" ¡Nada parecido a esto había pasado antes! 8 ¡Ay de nosotros! ¿Quién nos protegerá de la fuerza de estos dioses poderosos? Estos son los dioses que atacaron a los egipcios con muchos tipos de plagas en el desierto. 9 Sean valientes, y sean hombres, ustedes filisteos, o serán esclavos de los hebreos, así como ellos lo han sido para ustedes. Sean hombres y peleen." 10 Los filisteos pelearon e Israel fue derrotado. Cada hombre huyó a su casa, y la matanza fue muy grande; pues treinta mil soldados de Israel cayeron. 11 El arca de DIOS fue robada y los dos hijos de Elí, Ofni y Finees murieron. 12 Un hombre de la tribu de Benjamín corrió del frente de batalla y vino a Silo el mismo día, llegando con sus ropas rotas y tierra sobre su cabeza. 13 Cuando él llegó, Elí estaba sentado en su silla a un lado del camino observando porque su corazón estaba angustiado por el arca de DIOS. Cuando el hombre entró en la ciudad y dio las noticias, la ciudad completa gritó. 14 Cuando Elí escuchó el ruido de los gritos, él dijo: "¿Cuál es el significado de este escándalo?" El hombre rápidamente fue y le contó a Elí. 15 Ahora, Elí tenía noventa y ocho años de edad; sus ojos estaban ciegos, y él no podía ver. 16 El hombre le dijo a Elí: "Yo soy quien llegó del frente de batalla. Yo huí de la batalla hoy." Y él dijo: "¿Cómo nos fue, hijo mío?" 17 El hombre que trajo las noticias contestó y dijo: "Israel huyó de los filisteos. También hubo una gran derrota entre el pueblo. Tus dos hijos, Ofni y Finees, están muertos, y el arca de DIOS ha sido robada." 18 Cuando él habló del arca de DIOS, Elí cayó hacia atrás de su silla a un lado de la puerta. Su cuello se rompió, y murió, por que era viejo y muy gordo. Él había juzgado a Israel por cuarenta años. 19 Ahora su nuera, la esposa de Finees, estaba embarazada y a punto de dar a luz. Cuando escuchó las noticias, que el arca de DIOS fue robada y que su suegro y esposo estaban muertos, ella se arrodilló y dió a luz, porque le dieron dolores de parto. 20 Al momento de su muerte, las mujeres que la ayudaban dijeron: "No temas, porque has dado a luz a un varón." Pero ella no contestó ni puso atención. 21 Ella nombró al niño Icabod, diciendo: "¡La gloria se ha ido de Israel!", porque el arca de DIOS ha sido robada, y por la muerte de su suegro y de su esposo. 22 Y ella dijo: "La gloria se ha ido de Israel, porque el arca de DIOS ha sido robada."

dijeron... Ellos dijeron
"se dijeron a sí mismos... se dijeron unos a los otros" o "se dijeron entre s ... Ellos dijeron unos a otros". La segunda cláusula se refiere claramente a lo que los filisteos se dijeron unos a otros. La primera cláusula probablemente se refiere a lo que pensaron, aunque también podría referirse a lo que se dijeron entre sí. Si es posible, evite indicar a quién se le habló.

Un dios ha llegado
Los filisteos adoraban a muchos dioses, por lo que probablemente creían que uno de esos dioses, o uno a quien no adoraban, había entrado en el campamento. Otro significado posible es que estaban diciendo el nombre propio del Dios de Israel: "El SEÑOR ha venido". Debido a que 4:8 habla de "dioses", algunas traducciones dicen: "Dioses han venido", es decir, "son dioses los que han venido".

¿Quién nos protegerá de la fuerza de estos dioses poderosos?
Esta pregunta retórica es una expresión de miedo profundo. Puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No hay nadie que pueda protegernos de estos dioses poderosos".

estos dioses poderosos... los dioses que atacaron

Chapter 5

1 Los filisteos robaron el arca de DIOS, y la llevaron de Ebenezer a Asdod. 2 Los filisteos tomaron el arca de DIOS, y la metieron dentro de la casa de Dagón, poniéndola al lado de Dagón. 3 Cuando el pueblo de Asdod se levantó temprano al siguiente día, he aquí, Dagón había caído de frente al suelo ante el arca del SEÑOR. Así que ellos tomaron a Dagón y lo pusieron en su lugar de nuevo. 4 Pero cuando ellos se levantaron temprano la mañana siguiente, he aquí, Dagón había caído de frente al suelo ante el arca del SEÑOR. La cabeza de Dagón y sus dos manos estaban sobre el suelo, cortadas, en la entrada. Sólo el tronco de Dagón quedó. 5 Es por eso, que hasta hoy, los sacerdotes de Dagón y cualquiera que entra en la casa de Dagón, no pisan la entrada de Dagón en Asdod. 6 La mano del SEÑOR fue severa sobre el pueblo de Asdod. Él los destruyó y los hirió con tumores, en Asdod y sus territorios. 7 Cuando los hombres de Asdod se dieron cuenta de lo que estaba pasando, ellos dijeron: "El arca del DIOS de Israel no debe quedarse con nosotros, porque su mano es severa contra nosotros y contra Dagón nuestro dios." 8 Así que ellos mandaron buscar a todos los gobernantes de los filisteos; ellos le dijeron: "¿Qué debemos hacer con el arca del DIOS de Israel?" Ellos contestaron: "Dejen que el arca del DIOS de Israel sea llevada a Gat." Y ellos llevaron el arca del DIOS de Israel. 9 Pero al llevarla a Gat, la mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre la ciudad, causando una gran confusión. Él hirió a los hombres de la ciudad, a pequeños y grandes; y les salieron tumores. 10 Entonces enviaron el arca de DIOS a Ecrón. Pero tan pronto como el arca de DIOS entró a Ecrón, los ecronitas dijeron fuertemente: "Han traído a nosotros el arca del DIOS de Israel para matarnos a nosotros y a nuestro pueblo." 11 Así que ellos mandaron a buscar a todos los gobernantes de los filisteos; ellos les dijeron: "Saquen de aquí el arca del DIOS de Israel, y regrésenla a su lugar, para que no nos mate a nosotros y a nuestro pueblo." Pues hubo un pánico aterrador por toda la ciudad; la mano de DIOS fue muy severa allí. 12 Los hombres que no murieron fueron heridos con tumores, y el llanto de la ciudad subió hasta los cielos.

Chapter 6

1 El arca del SEÑOR estuvo en la ciudad de los Filisteos por siete meses. 2 Luego los Filisteos llamaron a los sacerdotes y los adivinos; les dijeron: ¿Que deberíamos hacer con el arca del SEÑOR? Dígannos como podríamos regresarla a su ciudad." 3 Los sacerdotes y adivinos dijeron: "Si ustedes envían el arca del DIOS de Israel, no la envíen sin una ofrenda por la culpa. Luego, ustedes serán sanados, y sabrán porque su mano no ha sido apartada de ustedes hasta ahora." 4 Luego ellos dijeron: "¿Qué ofrenda por la culpa podemos llevar cuando regresemos el arca?" Ellos respondieron: "Cinco tumores de oro y cinco ratones de oro, cinco siendo el mismo número de los gobernantes de los Filisteos. Por la misma plaga que los ha herido a ustedes y a sus gobernantes. 5 Entonces, ustedes deben hacer figuras de sus tumores y sus ratones que han causado daño al pueblo, y dar gloria al DIOS de Israel. Tal vez Él quitará su mano de sobre ustedes, de sus dioses y de su tierra. 6 ¿Por qué deberían ustedes endurecer sus corazones, como los egipcios y Faraón? Cuando el DIOS de Israel los trató severamente; ¿Acaso los egipcios no liberaron al pueblo y ellos salieron? 7 Ahora pues, preparen una carreta nueva con dos vacas con crías, que nunca hayan llevado yugo. Aten las vacas a la carreta, pero lleven a sus terneros a casa, lejos de ellas. 8 Luego tomen el arca del SEÑOR y pónganla en la carreta. Pongan las figuras de oro como ofrenda por la culpa dentro de una caja a un lado de ella. Luego déjenla ir por su camino. 9 Luego miren; si va por el camino a su tierra a Bet Semes, entonces es El SEÑOR quién ha ejecutado este mal tan grande. Pero si no, entonces ustedes sabrán que no es su mano que nos ha herido; sino que fue por casualidad." 10 Los hombres hicieron como ellos les dijeron; tomaron dos vacas con crías, las ataron a la carreta y encerraron a sus becerros en casa. 11 Pusieron el arca del SEÑOR en la carreta, junto a la caja que contenía los ratones de oro y las figuras de sus tumores. 12 Las vacas fueron derecho en dirección a Bet Semes. Fueron a lo largo del camino, bajando mientras iban, y no se apartaron a la derecha o a la izquierda. Los gobernantes de los Filisteos las siguieron después hasta el borde de Bet Semes. 13 La gente de Bet Semes estaba cosechando su trigo en el valle. Cuando ellos levantaron sus ojos y vieron el arca, se alegraron. 14 La carreta entró al campo de Josué del pueblo de Bet Semes y se detuvo ahí, donde había una piedra grande, partieron la madera de la carreta, y ofrecieron las vacas como ofrendas quemadas al SEÑOR. 15 Los Levitas bajaron el arca del SEÑOR y la caja que estaba junto a ella, donde estaban las figuras de oro, y las pusieron en la piedra grande. Los hombres de Bet Semes dieron ofrendas quemadas e hicieron sacrificios el mismo día para El SEÑOR. 16 Cuando los cinco gobernadores de los Filisteos vieron esto, regresaron ese día a Ecrón. 17 Estos fueron los tumores de oro que los Filisteos dieron a El SEÑOR como ofrenda por la culpa: uno por Asdod, uno por Gaza, uno por Ascalón, uno por Gat y uno por Ecrón. 18 Los ratones de oro fueron los mismos en número como el número de todas las ciudades de los Filisteos que pertenecen a los cinco gobernantes, tanto de ciudades fortificadas y pueblos. La piedra grande, sobre la cual ellos pusieron el arca del SEÑOR, permanece como testigo de este día en el lugar de Josué el Bet Semita. 19 El SEÑOR hirió a los hombres de Bet Semes, porque ellos miraron dentro de su arca. Él dió muerte a cincuenta mil setenta hombres. El pueblo lloró porque El SEÑOR hizo morir a muchos. 20 Los hombres de Bet Semes dijeron: " "¿Quién podrá estar en la presencia de El SEÑOR, el Dios Santo? Y a quién le enviaremos el arca desde aquí?" 21 Ellos enviaron mensajeros a los habitantes de Quiriat Jearim, diciendo: "Los Filisteos han devuelto el arca del SEÑOR; bájenla y llevenla con ustedes"

él quitará su mano de sobre ustedes, de sus dioses y de sus tierra
Aquí "mano" es una expresión idiomática

¿Por qué deberían ustedes endurecer sus corazones, como los egipcios y Faraón endurecieron sus corazones?
Los sacerdotes y adivinos usan una pregunta retórica para instar a los filisteos a que piensen muy seriamente qué sucederá si se niegan a obedecer a Dios. Esto puede traducirse como una advertencia. Traducción Alterna: "¡No seas terco como lo fueron los egipcios y el faraón!"

endurecer sus corazones
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa ser terco o no querer obedecer a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "rehusar obedecer a Dios" ¿Acaso los egipcios no liberaron al pueblo y ellos salieron?

Esta es otra pregunta retórica utilizada para recordar a los filisteos cómo los egipcios finalmente enviaron a los israelitas fuera de Egipto para que Dios dejara de afligir a los egipcios. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "recuerda que los egipcios enviaron a los israelitas fuera de Egipto".

Chapter 7

1 Los hombres de Quiriat Jearim vinieron por el arca del SEÑOR, y la llevaron a la casa de Abinadab en la colina. Ellos santificaron a su hijo Eleazar para guardar el arca del SEÑOR. 2 Desde ese día, el arca permaneció en Quirat Jearim, pasó mucho tiempo, veinte años. Toda la casa de Israel lloraba y deseaba regresar al SEÑOR. 3 Samuel dijo al pueblo de Israel: "Si ustedes regresan al SEÑOR de todo corazón, y quitan los dioses extraños y a Astarot de entre ustedes, si vuelven sus corazones al SEÑOR y lo adoran sólo a Él, los salvará de la mano de los Filisteos." 4 Entonces, el pueblo de Israel quitó a los Baales y a Astarot y adoraron sólo al SEÑOR. 5 Luego Samuel dijo: "Reúnan a todo Israel en Mizpa, y yo oraré al SEÑOR por ustedes". 6 Ellos se reunieron en Mizpa, sacaron agua y la derramaron delante del SEÑOR. Ayunaron ese día y dijeron: "Hemos pecado contra Él SEÑOR." y allí juzgó Samuel al pueblo de Israel. 7 Cuando los Filisteos escucharon que el pueblo de Israel estaba reunido en Mizpa, los gobernantes de los Filisteos atacaron a Israel. Cuando el pueblo de Israel escuchó esto, tuvieron miedo de los Filisteos. 8 Entonces la gente de Israel dijo a Samuel: "No dejes de orar por nosotros al SEÑOR, para que Él nos salve de la mano de los Filisteos. 9 Samuel tomó un cordero lactante y lo ofreció como un sacrificio al SEÑOR. Luego Samuel oró al SEÑOR de Israel, y El SEÑOR le respondió. 10 Mientras Samuel ofrecía el sacrificio, los Filisteos se acercaron para atacar a Israel; pero la voz de El SEÑOR tronó con un fuerte sonido ese día en contra de los Filisteos y los atemorizó, y así fueron derrotados ante Israel. 11 Los hombres de Israel se fueron de Mizpa, persiguieron a los Filisteos y los hirieron mas allá de Bet Car. 12 Luego Samuel tomó una piedra y la puso entre Mizpa y Sen. El nombró aquel lugar Ebenezer, diciendo: "Hasta aquí El SEÑOR nos ha ayudado". 13 Entonces los Filisteos fueron dominados y ellos no cruzaron la frontera de Israel. La mano del SEÑOR estuvo en contra de los Filisteos todos los días que Samuel vivió. 14 Las ciudades que los Filisteos tomaron de Israel fueron regresadas a Israel, desde Ecrón hasta Gat; Israel recuperó su territorio de mano de los Filisteos. Entonces, hubo paz entre Israel y los Amorreos. 15 Samuel juzgó a Israel todos los días de su vida. 16 Cada año el visitaba desde Bethel a Gilgal y hasta Mizpa. El juzgaba a Israel en todos esos lugares. 17 Entonces, él volvía a Rama, porque su casa estaba ahí; y también ahí él juzgaba a Israel. Él, además, construyó ahí un altar para El SEÑOR.

Chapter 8

1 Cuando Samuel se hizo viejo, él nombró a sus hijos jueces sobre Israel. 2 El mayor de sus hijos se llamaba Joel, y el nombre de su segundo hijo era Abías. Ellos eran jueces en Beerseba. 3 Sus hijos no siguieron el ejemplo de su padre y desobedecieron a Dios, si no que andaban detrás del dinero y regalos deshonestos, y no hacían justicia. 4 Entonces todos los ancianos de Israel se reunieron con Samuel en Ramá. 5 Y le dijeronl: "Mira, tu eres viejo, y tus hijos no siguen tu ejemplo. Danos un rey que nos juzgue a nosotros como en todas las naciones." 6 Esto no le gustó a Samuel cuando dijeron: "Danos un rey para que nos juzgue." Así que Samuel oró al SEÑOR. 7 El SEÑOR dijo a Samuel: "Dále a tu pueblo lo que pide; porque ellos no te han despreciado a ti, sino que me han despreciado a Mí como su Rey. 8 Se comportan ahora, igual como lo hicieron el día que YO los liberé de Egipto, despreciándome y adorando otros dioses, y así también hacen contigo. 9 Así que hazles caso; pero adviértele y hazles saber de que forma el rey gobernará sobre ellos. 10 Así que, Samuel dijo todas las palabras del SEÑOR al pueblo que pedía un rey. 11 Dijo: "Esta es la forma como el rey gobernará sobre ustedes. Él tomara de ustedes hijos y los escogerá para sus carros de guerra, para ser sus jinetes ó para correr al frente de sus carros de guerra. 12 Escogerá capitanes para miles de soldados, y capitanes de cincuenta soldados. Él hará a algunos arar sus tierras, algunos cosechadores, y otros cuantos para hacer armas de guerra y equipo para sus carros de guerra. 13 Tomará de ustedes, sus hijas para hacer perfumes, cocineras, y panaderas. 14 Tomará lo mejor de sus tierras, sus viñedos, y sus huertos de olivo, y se los dará a sus sirvientes. 15 Tomará el diez por ciento de sus granos y de sus viñedos y los dará a sus oficiales y sirvientes. 16 Tomará de ustedes los mejores sirvientes y sirvientas, sus mejores hombres jóvenes y sus burros; los pondrá a trabajar a todos para él. 17 El tomará el diez por ciento de sus rebaños y ustedes serán sus esclavos. 18 Entonces, en ese día, se quejarán con llanto por el rey que ustedes escogieron para ustedes mismos; pero Él SEÑOR no les contestara ese día. 19 Pero el pueblo se rehusó a escuchar a Samuel; Dijeron: "¡No! Queremos un rey sobre nosotros 20 para así poder ser iguales que las otras naciones, y para que nuestro rey nos juzgue y vaya al frente de nosotros y luche nuestras batallas. 21 Cuando Samuel escuchó todas las palabras del pueblo, él repitió estas palabras en oración al SEÑOR. 22 El SEÑOR dijo a Samuel: "hazles caso y elige un rey para ellos" Así que Samuel dijo a los hombres de Israel: "todo hombre debe regresar a su ciudad."

Chapter 9

1 Había un hombre de la tribu de Benjamín, un hombre poderoso. Su nombre era Cis, hijo de Abiel, hijo de Zeror, hijo de Becorat, hijo de Afía, el hijo de un Benjamita. 2 El tenía un hijo llamado Saúl, un joven de buen parecer. No había otro hombre entre la gente de Israel que fuera más hermoso que él. Desde sus hombros hacia arriba él era más alto que las otras personas. 3 Los burros de Cis, padre de Saúl, estaban perdidos. Así que, Cis le dijo a su hijo Saúl: "Lleva uno de los sirvientes contigo; prepárense y vayan y busquen los burros. 4 Entonces Saúl pasó a través de la región montañosa de la ciudad de Efrain y fue a través de la tierra de Salisa, pero ellos no los encontraron. Luego pasaron por la tierra de Saalim, pero no estaban ahí. Después él pasó a través de la tierra de los Benjamitas, pero ellos no los encontraron. 5 Cuando ellos llegaron a la tierra de Zuf, Saúl dijo a su sirviente que estaba con él: "Ven, regresemos, o mi padre dejará de preocuparse por los burros y comenzará a preocuparse por nosotros. 6 ''Pero el sirviente le dijo: "Escucha, hay un hombre de DIOS en esta ciudad. Él es un hombre de honor; todo lo que él dice se hace realidad. Permítenos ir ahí, tal vez él nos diga qué camino podríamos tomar en nuestro viaje." 7 Luego Saúl le dijo a su sirviente: "Pero si vamos, ¿qué podemos darle al hombre? Porque nuestro pan se ha terminado, y no tenemos ningún regalo para darle al hombre de DIOS. ¿Qué tenemos nosotros?" 8 El sirviente respondió a Saúl y dijo: "Aquí tengo conmigo unos tres gramos de plata que daré al hombre de Dios, para que nos diga por cuál camino deberíamos ir". 9 (Antiguamente en Israel, cuando un hombre iba a consultar a Dios, el decía: "Ven, vayamos con el vidente." El profeta de hoy era llamado vidente.) 10 Después Saúl dijo a su sirviente: "Bien dicho. Ven, vayamos". Entonces, ellos subieron a la ciudad donde estaba el hombre de Dios. 11 Cuando ellos subieron las colinas a la ciudad, ellos encontraron unas mujeres jóvenes que regresaban de sacar agua; Saúl y su sirviente les dijeron, "¿Está aquí el vidente?" 12 Ellas respondieron: "Aquí está; miren, él está enfrente de ustedes. Dénse prisa, él está yendo a la ciudad, porque el pueblo está sacrificando en el lugar alto. 13 Tan pronto como entren a la ciudad, lo encontrarán, antes que él se vaya al lugar alto a comer. El pueblo no comerá hasta que él llegue, porque él bendecirá el sacrificio; después comerán los invitados. Ahora vayan, para que lo encuentren de inmediato". 14 Entonces ellos subieron a la ciudad. Mientras entraban en la ciudad, vieron a Samuel que venía hacia ellos, para subir al lugar alto. 15 Ahora, el día antes que Saúl viniera, el SEÑOR le había revelado a Samuel: 16 "Mañana a esta hora YO te enviaré un hombre de la tierra de Benjamín, y tú lo ungirás para que sea el principe sobre Mi pueblo Israel. Él salvará Mi pueblo de la mano de los filisteos. Porque he mirado a Mi pueblo con compasión, porque su clamor ha llegado delante de Mí." 17 Cuando Samuel vio a Saúl, El SEÑOR le dijo: "¡Ahí está el hombre que te he dicho! Él es quien gobernará sobre mi pueblo." 18 Entonces, Saúl se acercó a Samuel en la puerta y dijo: "Dime: ¿dónde está la casa del vidente?" 19 Samuel respondió a Saúl y dijo: "Yo soy el vidente. Sube delante de mí al lugar alto, pues hoy comerás conmigo. En la mañana yo te dejaré ir, y te diré todo lo que esta en tu corazón. 20 No te preocupes por los burros que se perdieron hace tres días, porque esos han sido encontrados. ¿Sobre quien están puestos todos los deseos de Israel? No es sobre ti y sobre todos los de la casa de tu padre?" 21 Saúl respondió y dijo: "¿No soy yo un benjamita, de la mas pequeña de las tribus de Israel? ¿No es mi familia la última de las familias de la tribu de Benjamín? ¿Por qué entonces me hablas de esta forma? 22 Entonces Samuel tomó a Saúl y a su siervo, los llevó a la sala, y los sentó a ellos a la cabecera de aquellos que fueron invitados, que eran unas treinta personas. 23 Samuel dijo al cocinero: "Trae la porción que te di, de la cual te dije: 'Pon aparte.'" 24 Entonces el cocinero tomó el pernil que había sido ofrecido en sacrificio y lo que iba con el, y lo sirvió delante de Saúl. Luego, Samuel dijo: "¡Mira lo que ha sido reservado para tí! Come, porque esto fue guardado para ti, para esta ocasión; desde el momento en que dije: "He invitado al pueblo". Así que Saúl comió con Samuel ese día. 25 Cuando bajaron del lugar alto a la ciudad, Samuel habló con Saúl en la terraza. 26 Entonces al amanecer, Samuel llamó a Saúl en la terraza y dijo: "Levántate, para que te despida". Entonces Saúl se levantó, y ambos, él y Samuel salieron a la calle. 27 Mientras se dirigían a las afueras de la ciudad, Samuel dijo a Saúl: "Di al sirviente que vaya delante de nosotros (y el fue adelante), pero tu quédate, para que yo pueda darte el mensaje de DIOS para ti."

1 Samuel 9:20

Entonces, ¿Sobre quien están puestos todos los deseos de Israel? ¿No es sobre ti y sobre todos los de la casa de tu padre?
Estas preguntas son una expresión de profunda convicción de que Saúl es aquel a quien el SEÑOR quiere ser el rey que los israelitas están buscando. Las preguntas se pueden traducir como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Debes saber que está en ti que se establezcan todos los deseos de Israel. Se fijan en ti y en la familia de tu padre".

¿No soy yo un benjamita... de Israel? ¿No es mi clan... Benjamín? ¿Por qué entonces me has hablado de esta manera?
Saúl está expresando sorpresa porque Benjamín era la tribu más pequeña de Israel, y otros israelitas consideraban que la tribu no era importante. Además, los benjamitas consideraron que el clan del que Saúl era miembro no tenía importancia. Estas preguntas pueden ser traducidas como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Soy de la tribu de Benjamín, la menos importante de todas las tribus. Y mi clan es el menos importante de nuestra tribu. No entiendo por qué dices que los israelitas quieren que yo y mi familia hagamos algo importante."

Chapter 10

1 Entonces, Samuel tomó un frasco de aceite, dejó caer aceite sobre la cabeza de Saúl, y le besó diciendo: "¿No es El SEÑOR el que te ha ungido como gobernante sobre su pueblo? 2 Cuando me dejes hoy, encontrarás a dos hombres junto a la tumba de Raquel, en el territorio de Benjamín de Selsa. Ellos te dirán: "Los burros que andabas buscando, los encontramos. Tu padre ha dejado de preocuparse por los burros, y ahora está preocupado por ti, diciendo: "¿Qué debo hacer con mi hijo? 3 Entonces, irás más lejos de allí, y llegarás a la encina de Tabor. Allí te encontrarás con tres hombres que van a adorar a DIOS en Betel, uno cargando tres cabritos jóvenes, otro cargando tres pedazos de pan, y otro cargando un odre con vino. 4 te saludarán y te darán dos pedazos de pan, los cuales tomarás de sus manos. 5 Después de eso, tu irás a la montaña de Dios, donde está la guarnición de los Filisteos. Cuando llegues a la ciudad, te encontrarás con un grupo de profetas bajando de los lugares altos con arpa, tambor, flauta y lira; ellos estarán profetizando. 6 El Espíritu del SEÑOR vendrá rápido sobre ti, y profetizarás con ellos, y serás cambiado en un hombre diferente. 7 Cuando todas estas señales vengan a ti, haz lo que venga a tus manos hacer, pues DIOS está contigo. 8 Ven a reunirte conmigo en Gilgal. Entonces yo iré a ti, para quemar ofrendas y a sacrificar ofrendas de paz. Espera siete días hasta que yo vaya a reunirme contigo para decirte lo que debes hacer. 9 Cuando Saúl se dio vuelta para dejar a Samuel, Dios le dio otro corazón. Entonces todas las señales se cumplieron ese día. 10 Cuando llegaron a la montaña, un grupo de profetas se juntaron, y el Espíritu de DIOS rápidamente descendió sobre él para que profetizara con ellos. 11 Los que le habían conocido antes observaron que profetizaba con los profetas, las personas se empezaron a decir entre ellos: "¿Qué le ha pasado al hijo de Cis? ¿Es Saúl uno de los profetas ahora?'' 12 Un hombre del mismo lugar contestó: "¿Y quién es su padre?" Por esto, se convirtió en un dicho: "¿Es Saúl uno de los profetas?" 13 Cuando terminó de profetizar, se fue al lugar alto. 14 Entonces, el tío de Saúl le dijo a él y a su sirviente: "¿A dónde te fuiste? y él respondió: " A buscar a los burros; cuando no los encontramos, fuimos a ver a Samuel." 15 El tío de Saúl dijo: "Por favor, dime lo que Samuel te dijo." 16 Saúl le respondió a su tío: "Él nos dijo claramente que los burros habían sido encontrados." Pero él no le dijo a su tío sobre el tema del reino, del cual Samuel le habló. 17 Después, Samuel reunió al pueblo ante el SEÑOR en Mizpa; 18 dijo al pueblo de Israel: "Esto es lo que El SEÑOR, El DIOS de Israel dice: Yo liberé a Israel de Egipto, los rescaté de la mano de los Egipcios, y de las manos de todos los reinos que los oprimían.' 19 Pero hoy, ustedes han rechazado a su DIOS, quien los salva de todos sus males y sus angustias; diciéndole: 'Elige un rey sobre nosotros.' Así que preséntense delante del SEÑOR por sus tribus y sus familias." 20 Samuel hizo que se acercaran todas las tribus de Israel y la tribu de Benjamín fue elegida. 21 De la tribu de Benjamín hizo que se acercaran a el por familias; y la familia de los Matrí fue elegida, y Saúl hijo de Cis fue escogido. Pero cuando le buscaron, no lo encontraron. 22 Entonces, el pueblo quiso hacerle a Dios más preguntas: "¿Ya llegó el hombre?" Él SEÑOR contestó: "Él se ha escondido entre el equipaje. 23 ''Entonces corrieron y sacaron a Saúl del lugar. Cuando se paró en medio del pueblo, era más alto que todos, de los hombros para arriba. 24 Entonces, Samuel dijo al pueblo: "¿Han visto al hombre a quien Él SEÑOR ha escogido? ¡No hay nadie como él entre todo el pueblo! El pueblo grito: "¡Larga vida al rey!" 25 Entonces, Samuel dijo al pueblo las costumbres y reglas del reino, las escribio en un libro, y las presentó ante Él SEÑOR. Samuel entonces, despidió todo el pueblo, cada hombre fue a su propia casa. 26 Saúl también regresó a su casa en Guibeá, y con el algunos hombres fuertes, cuyos corazones DIOS tocó. 27 Pero algunos hombres malvados dijeron: "¿Cómo puede este hombre salvarnos?" Estas personas despreciaban a Saúl y no le llevaron ningún regalo. Pero Saúl permaneció en silencio.

el hijo de Cis
"Saúl, el hijo de Cis"

Entonces, ¿quién es su padre?
Este hombre usa una pregunta retórica para recordar a las personas que ser un profeta no tiene nada que ver con quiénes son los padres. La pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No importa quiénes sean los padres de estos otros profetas. Lo que importa es que, sorprendentemente, Saúl está hablando mensajes de Dios". (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Por esto, se convirtió en un dicho: "¿Es Saúl también uno de los profetas?
Esto se convirtió en un proverbio entre los israelitas. Aparentemente, la gente decía esto para expresar sorpresa cuando una persona inesperadamente hacía algo que no había hecho antes. El significado implícito de la pregunta puede ser expresado explícitamente.Traducción Alterna: "Y es por eso que cuando las personas no pueden creer un informe, piensan en lo que le sucedió a Saúl y dicen: '¿Es Saúl realmente uno de los profetas?'"

Chapter 11

1 Entonces Nahas el Amonita fue y rodeó a Jabes de Galaad y todos los hombres de Jabes dijeron a Nahas, "haz un pacto con nosotros y te serviremos." 2 Nahas el amonita respondió: "Con esta condición haré pacto con ustedes, que yo saque el ojo derecho a todos ustedes, y de esta forma traiga desgracia sobre todo Israel.'' 3 Entonces los ancianos de Jabes le respondieron: "Déjanos solos por siete días, para poder enviar mensajeros a todos los territorios de Israel. Entonces, si no hay nadie quien nos salve nos rendirémos delante de ti." 4 Los mensajeros llegaron a Guibeá, donde Saúl vivía, y dijeron al pueblo lo que habia pasado. Todo el pueblo lloró a gritos. 5 Saúl venía del campo detrás de los bueyes. Saúl dijo: "¿Qué le pasa al pueblo que está llorando?" Ellos le dijeron a Saúl lo que los hombres de Jabes habían dicho. 6 Cuando Saúl escuchó lo que ellos decían, Él Espíritu de DIOS descendió rápidamente sobre él, y él se enojó mucho. 7 tomó un par de bueyes, los cortó en pedazos y los envió por todos los territorios de Israel con los mensajeros. Él dijo: "Cualquiera que no salga a pelear delante de Saúl y Samuel, así se les hará a sus bueyes." Así que el terror del SEÑOR cayó sobre los pueblos y ellos se juntaron como un solo hombre. 8 Cuando Saúl los contó en Bezec, la gente de Israel eran trescientos mil, y los hombres de Judá treinta mil. 9 Ellos dijeron a los mensajeros que vinieron: "Les dirán a los hombres de Jabes de Galaad: 'Mañana, cuando caliente el sol serán rescatados.'" Así que los mensajeros fueron y lo dijeron a los hombres de Jabes y ellos se alegraron. 10 Entonces los hombres de Jabes dijeron a los de Nahas: "Mañana nos rendiremos a ustedes, y pueden hacer lo que les parezca bien con nosotros." 11 Al siguiente día, Saúl separó al pueblo en tres grupos. Y entraron al campamento durante la madrugada y atacaron y derrotaron a los Amonitas hasta el calor del día. Aquellos que sobrevivieron fueron dispersados, así no quedaron dos de ellos juntos. 12 Entonces el pueblo dijo a Samuel: "¿Quién fue el que dijo? '¿Saúl gobernará sobre nosotros?' trae a los hombres para matarlos." 13 Pero Saúl dijo: "Nadie debe morir hoy, porque hoy El SEÑOR ha salvado a Israel." 14 Entonces Samuel dijo al pueblo: "Vengan, iremos a Gilgal y renovemos el reino allí. 15 ''Así que el pueblo fue a Gilgal e hicieron a Saúl rey delante del SEÑOR en Gilgal. Allí ellos sacrificaron ofrendas de paz delante del SEÑOR y Saúl y todos los hombres de Israel se alegraron grandemente.

Chapter 12

1 Samuel dijo a todo Israel: "He escuchado todo lo que me dijeron, y he puesto un rey sobre ustedes. 2 Ahora, aquí está el rey caminando ante ustedes; yo soy viejo y lleno de canas, y mis hijos están con ustedes. He caminado delante de ustedes desde mi juventud hasta hoy. 3 Aquí estoy; declaren contra mí, ante El SEÑOR y ante su ungido. ¿Qué bueyes he tomado? o ¿Qué burras he tomado? ¿A quién he defraudado? ¿A quién he oprimido? ¿De qué mano he tomado un regalo deshonesto para cegar mis ojos? Declaren en contra mía y yo se los restituiré." 4 Ellos dijeron: "No no has engañado, oprimido, o robado nada de mano de ningún hombre." 5 Él les dijo a ellos: "El SEÑOR es testigo en contra de ustedes, y su ungido es testigo hoy de que ustedes no encontraron nada en mi mano". Y ellos respondieron: "El SEÑOR es testigo." 6 Samuel dijo al pueblo: "Es El SEÑOR quien estableció a Moisés y Aarón, y quien trajo a sus padres de la tierra de Egipto. 7 Ahora pues, preséntense a sí mismos, delante del SEÑOR, para que yo discuta con ustedes respecto a todas las cosas buenas que el SEÑOR hizo para ustedes y para sus padres. 8 Cuando Jacob vino a Egipto, y sus padres clamaron al SEÑOR. El SEÑOR envió a Moisés y Aarón, quienes dirigieron a sus padres fuera de Egipto y ellos los llevaron a este lugar. 9 Pero ellos olvidaron al SEÑOR su DIOS; y fueron entregados a mano de Sísara, capitán del ejército de Hazor, a mano de los Filisteos, y a mano del rey de Moab; todos estos pelearon con sus antepasados. 10 Ellos clamaron al SEÑOR y dijeron: 'Nosotros hemos pecado, porque hemos abandonado al SEÑOR y hemos servido a Baales y a Astarot. Pero ahora líbranos del poder de nuestros enemigos, y nosotros te serviremos.' 11 Entonces El SEÑOR envió a Jerobaal, a Bedán, a Jefté y a Samuel, y les dio la victoria sobre sus enemigos alrededor de ustedes, así que vivieron en seguridad. 12 Cuando ustedes vieron que Nahas el rey del pueblo de los Amonitas vino en su contra, me dijeron: '¡No! Mejor que reine un rey sobre nosotros', a pesar de que El SEÑOR, su DIOS, era su rey. 13 Ahora aquí está el rey a quien ustedes eligieron, quien ustedes pidieron y quien El SEÑOR nombró como rey sobre ustedes. 14 Si ustedes temen al SEÑOR, sírvanle, obedezcan su voz, y no se rebelen en contra del mandato de Dios, entonces, ambos, ustedes y el rey quien reina sobre ustedes, serán seguidores del SEÑOR su DIOS. 15 Si ustedes no obedecen la voz del SEÑOR, sino que se rebelan en contra de los mandatos del SEÑOR, la mano del SEÑOR será en contra de ustedes, como fue en contra de sus padres. 16 Incluso ahora ustedes mismos vean esta gran cosa que el SEÑOR hará ante sus ojos. 17 ¿No es ahora la cosecha del trigo? Clamaré al SEÑOR para que Él envíe truenos y lluvia. Entonces, ustedes sabrán y verán que su maldad es grande, a la vista del SEÑOR, al pedir para ustedes un rey." 18 Entonces Samuel oró al SEÑOR; y ese mismo día El SEÑOR envió truenos y lluvia. Luego todo el pueblo tuvo miedo del SEÑOR y de Samuel. 19 Entonces, toda la gente dijo a Samuel: "Ora por tus sirvientes al SEÑOR tu Dios, para que no muramos. Porque nosotros añadimos a todos nuestros pecados este mal, de pedir un rey sobre nosotros. 20 Samuel respondió: "No tengan miedo. Ustedes han hecho todo este mal, pero no se aparten del SEÑOR, sirvan al SEÑOR con todo su corazón. 21 No se aparten detrás de cosas falsas que ni sirven ni salvan a ustedes, porque esas cosas son inútiles. 22 Por causa de su gran nombre, el SEÑOR no rechazará a su pueblo, porque El SEÑOR se alegra al tomarlos como pueblo Suyo. 23 Por mi parte, lejos esté de mí pecar contra el SEÑOR, dejando de orar por ustedes, en lugar de ello, les enseñaré lo que es bueno y recto. 24 Sólo teman al SEÑOR y sírvanle en verdad con todo su corazón. Vean las grandes cosas que hizo por ustedes. 25 Pero si siguen en hacer el mal, ustedes y su rey serán destruídos.

¿No es ahora la cosecha del trigo?
Samuel sabe que es tiempo de cosecha. Está utilizando una pregunta retórica para enfatizar que, normalmente, no llueve en este momento, para que la gente sepa que la lluvia que arruinará su cosecha es un juicio del SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "Es tiempo de cosecha y, generalmente, no llueve en este momento" que Él envíe truenos y lluvia

Samuel le está pidiendo al SEÑOR que castigue a Israel por pedir un rey enviando una tormenta durante la cosecha que arruinará el grano.

1 Samuel 12:19

para que no muramos
El castigo final para el pecado es la muerte. La nación de Israel había visto al SEÑOR destruir a las naciones que los habían oprimido. Les preocupaba que hubiesen sido "dedicados para destrucción" como esas naciones.

No tengan miedo
La gente hizo el mal y temían que Dios los destruyera. Traducción Alternativa: "No temas que Dios se enoje y te destruya a causa de este pecado" aparten detrás de cosas vacías

"perseguir la adoración de dioses falsos"

1 Samuel 12:22

Por causa de su gran nombre Aquí "nombre" se refiere a la reputación del SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "Para que la gente continúe honrando y respetando al SEÑOR"

lejos esté de mi pecar contra el SEÑOR dejando de orar por ustedes La gente está llena de temor a causa de la lluvia y el trueno que envió EL SEÑOR cuando Samuel oró. Algunas personas podrían creer que Samuel usaría sus oraciones para hacerles daño.

Chapter 13

1 Saúl tenía treinta años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar; cuando él había gobernado cuarenta años sobre Israel, 2 él escogió tres mil hombres de Israel. Dos mil estaban con él en Micmas y en las montañas de Betel, Mientras que mil hombres estaban con Jonatán en Geba de Benjamín. Al resto de los soldados los envió a casa, cada uno a su tienda. 3 Jonatán derrotó al ejército de los Filisteos que estaban en Geba y los Filisteos escucharon esto. Así que Saúl sonó trompeta por todo lugar, diciendo: "Escuchen Hebreos." 4 Israel escuchó que Saúl había derrotado al ejército de los Filisteos, y también que Israel era odioso para los Filisteos. Así que los soldados fueron llamados para juntarse con Saúl en Gilgal. 5 Los Filisteos se agruparon para pelear contra Israel: tres mil carros de batalla, seis mil hombres para manejar los carros de batalla, y tropas numerosas como la arena de la orilla del mar. Ellos subieron y acamparon en Micmas, al este de Bet Avén. 6 Cuando los hombres de Israel se dieron cuenta que estaban en problemas -el pueblo estaba afligido, se escondó en cuevas, debajo de matorrales, en las rocas, en pozos y en hoyos. 7 Algunos de los hebreos fueron sobre el Jordán a las tierras de Gad y de Galaad. Pero Saúl permanecía en Gilgal y todo el pueblo lo seguía con gran miedo. 8 El esperó siete días, el tiempo que Samuel había establecido. Pero Samuel no llegó a Gilgal, y las personas se separaban de Saúl. 9 Saúl dijo: "Traigan las ofrendas quemadas y las ofrendas de paz." Así que él ofreció las ofrendas quemadas. 10 pronto como él terminó de ofrecer las ofrendas quemadas Samuel llegó. Samuel fue a encontrarse con él y a saludarlo. 11 Entonces Samuel dijo: "¿Qué es lo que has hecho? Saúl respondió: "Cuando vi que el pueblo me dejaba, y que tú no llegabas en el tiempo acordado, y que los filisteos se habían establecido en Micmas, 12 yo dije: 'Ahora los filisteos bajarán contra mí en Gilgal, y no he implorado el favor del SEÑOR.' Así que me obligué a ofrecer las ofrendas quemadas." 13 Entonces Samuel dijo a Saúl: "has actuado como un tonto. Tú no has obedecido el mandato que el SEÑOR tu DIOS te dió. 14 Pues fue El SEÑOR quien estableció tu gobierno sobre Israel por siempre. Pero ahora tu reinado no seguirá. El SEÑOR ha buscado a un hombre conforme a su corazón, Y El SEÑOR lo ha escogido a él para ser príncipe sobre su pueblo, porque tú no obedeciste lo que Él te ordenó." 15 Después Samuel se levantó y subió de Gilgal a Guibea de Benjamín. Después Saúl contó a los hombres que estaban presentes con él, como seiscientos hombres. 16 Saúl, su hijo Jonatán y la gente que estaba presente con ellos, se quedaron en Geba de Benjamín. Pero los Filisteos acampaban en Micmas. 17 Asaltantes venían del campamento de los Filisteos en tres grupos. Un grupo fue a Ofra a la tierra de Sual. 18 Otro grupo fue a Bet Horón y otro grupo fue a los bordes con vista al valle de Zeboim hacia el desierto. 19 No había ni un herrero por todos los alrededores de Israel, porque los filisteos decían: "De otro modo los hebreos harían espadas o lanzas para ellos mismos." 20 Todos los hombres de Israel dependían de los filisteos para afilar su escardilla, su pico, su hacha y su hoz. 21 El precio era dos tercios de granos de siclos por la escardilla, y el pico, y un tercio de grano de plata por afilar hachas y por arreglar las hoces. 22 Así que, en el día de batalla, no se encontraba espada o lanza en las manos de ningún soldado que estaba con Saúl y Jonatán; solamente Saúl y su hijo Jonatán tenían espadas. 23 El ejército de los filisteos salió para atravezar el paso de Micmas.

1 Samuel 13:1

Información General:
Samuel ha renovado el reino de Saúl en Gilgal y le ha recordado a la gente que siga al SEÑOR.

Saúl tenía treinta años... sobre Israel
El texto de este verso en copias antiguas parece haber sido mutilado, por lo que las versiones modernas tienen muchas traducciones diferentes. Todos son intentos de representar el significado más probable del texto original.

escogió tres mil hombres
"eligió 3.000 hombres"

Dos mil estaban con él en Micmas
"2.000 estaban con él en Micmas"

Geba de Benjamín
Geba es una ciudad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 10:26.

El resto de los soldados lo envío a casa
"Envió al resto de los soldados a casa".

Israel escuchó que Saúl había derrotado
Los posibles significados son que 1) Saúl estaba tomando responsabilidad por las acciones de Jonatán o 2) Saúl estaba tomando crédito por las acciones de Jonatán.

Israel se había convertido en un olor podrido para los filisteos
Se habla de los filisteos que odiaban a los israelitas como si los israelitas se hubieran convertido en un mal olor que ofendió a los filisteos. Traducción Alternativa: "los filisteos odiaban a los israelitas"

los soldados fueron llamados para juntarse con Saúl en Gilgal Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Saúl llamó a los soldados para reunirse con él en Gilgal"

1 Samuel 13:5

tres mil... seis mil
"3.000... 6.000"

tropas numerosas como la arena de la orilla del mar
Un grupo de soldados tan grande que era difícil contarlos

el pueblo estaba afligido
"la gente se preocupó mucho"

lo seguía con temblor
El pueblo estaba muy temeroso.

1 Samuel 13:8

el tiempo que Samuel había establecido
"según el tiempo que Samuel les había dicho que vendría"

las personas se dispersaban de Saúl Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción alternativa: "la gente había comenzado a dejar a Saúl"

él ofreció las ofrendas quemadas
Sólo a la línea de Aarón se le permitió realizar el sacrificio de ofrenda quemada a Dios.

1 Samuel 13:11

¿Qué es lo que haz hecho?
Samuel no estaba realmente haciendo una pregunta, sino que estaba reprendiendo a Saúl. Saúl buscó defender sus acciones a pesar de que eran equivocadas.

Micmas
Michmash es el nombre de un lugar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:1.

1 Samuel 13:13

Tú no haz obedecido el mandato que el SEÑOR tu DIOS
Saúl debía esperar a que Samuel viniera y sacrificara el holocausto a Dios. Él no debía realizar el sacrificio por él mismo.

Chapter 14

1 Un día, Jonatán hijo de Saúl, dijo a su joven escudero: "Ven vamos al otro lado, al campamento de los Filisteos." Pero él no le dijo a su padre. 2 Saúl estaba en los límites de Guibeá, debajo del árbol de granadas que estaba en Migrón. Con él estaban cerca de seiscientos hombres, 3 incluido Ahías, hijo de Ahitob, hijo de Finees, hijo de Elí, el sacerdote del SEÑOR en Silo, quien vestía ropas sacerdotales. El pueblo no sabía que Jonatán se había ido. 4 En el paso, por el que Jonatán intentaba cruzar el campamento de los Filisteos, había un barranco rocoso a un lado y un barranco rocoso al otro lado. El nombre de un barranco era Boses y el nombre del otro era Sene. 5 Uno de los barrancos inclinados se levantaba en el norte de la frontera de Micmas, y el otro al sur frente a Geba. 6 Jonatán dijo al joven escudero: "Ven, vamos a cruzar el campamento de estos incircuncisos. Quizá El SEÑOR obre en nuestro favor, ya que nada puede detener al SEÑOR para salvarnos de mano de mucha o de poca gente." 7 Su escudero respondió: "Haz lo que hay en tu corazón. Sigamos adelante, yo estoy contigo para obedecer todos tus mandatos." 8 Jonatán dijo: "Nosotros cruzaremos a donde están estos hombres, y nos mostraremos a ellos. 9 Si ellos nos dicen: 'Esperen ahí hasta que nosotros lleguemos hasta ustedes' entonces nosotros nos quedaremos en nuestro lugar y no cruzaremos a ellos. 10 Pero si ellos responden: 'Vengan hacia nosotros', entonces nosotros cruzaremos a ellos: porque El SEÑOR los ha entregado en nuestras manos. Esta será la señal para nosotros. 11 Cuando ambos se mostraron al ejército de los Filisteos. Los Filisteos dijeron: "Miren, los hebreos salen de las cuevas donde ellos estaban escondidos." 12 Entonces los hombres del ejército gritaron a Jonatán y a su escudero, y dijeron: "Vengan hacia nosotros, y les mostraremos algo." Jonatán dijo a su escudero: "Sigue después de mi porque El SEÑOR los ha entregado en las manos de Israel". 13 Jonatán escaló con sus manos y pies, y su escudero siguió detrás de él. Los Filisteos caían muertos ante Jonatán, y su escudero mataba a los que venían detrás de él. 14 En ese primer ataque que Jonatán y su escudero hicieron, asesinaron cerca de veinte hombres dentro de un área de quince metros cuadrados de tierra. 15 Hubo terror en el campamento, en los campos y entre el pueblo. Aún los soldados y los guerreros tuvieron miedo. La tierra tembló, y hubo un gran pánico. 16 Entonces, los vigilantes de Saúl en Guibeá de Benjamín vieron que la multitud de soldados Filisteos estaba dispersa, y ellos estaban yendo de un lado a otro. 17 Entonces Saúl dijo al pueblo que estaba con él: "Cuenten y vean quién falta entre nosotros." Cuando ellos contaron, Jonatán y su escudero faltaban. 18 Saúl dijo a Ahías: "Trae el arca de Dios aquí" (en aquel tiempo el arca estaba con los Israelitas.) 19 Mientras Saúl hablaba con el sacerdote, la conmoción en el campamento de los Filisteos continuaba y se incrementaba. Entonces Saúl dijo al sacerdote, "Saca tu mano." 20 Saúl y todo el pueblo que estaba con él, se reunió y fueron a la batalla. Cada espada de los Filisteos fue en contra de sus compañeros de guerra, y hubo una gran confusión. 21 Aquellos hebreos quienes habían estado con los Filisteos, y quienes se habían ido con ellos al campamento, incluso ellos, se unieron con los Israelitas que estaban con Saúl y Jonatán. 22 Cuando todos los hombres de Israel quienes se mantuvieron encubiertos en las colinas cerca de Efraín, escucharon que los Filisteos estaban huyendo, incluso ellos los persiguieron detrás en batalla. 23 Entonces El SEÑOR salvó a Israel ese día, y la batalla llegó más alla de Bet Avén. 24 Ese día los hombres de Israel estaban afligidos porque Saúl había puesto al pueblo bajo juramento diciendo: "Maldito sea el hombre que coma antes del anochecer y yo sea vengado sobre mis enemigos." Así que nadie de sus tropas probó alimento. 25 Entonces todo el pueblo entró en el bosque y había miel sobre la tierra. 26 Cuando el pueblo entró al bosque, la miel fluía, pero nadie llevó su mano a su boca porque el pueblo tenía miedo de la maldición. 27 Pero Jonatán no había escuchado que su padre había puesto al pueblo bajo juramento. Él extendió la punta de la lanza que tenía en su mano y la sumergió en el panal. Él llevó su mano a su boca, y sus ojos brillaron. 28 Entonces uno del pueblo respondió: "Tu padre puso estrictamente al pueblo bajo juramento, diciendo: 'Maldito sea el hombre que coma en este día', aun cuando el pueblo era débil por causa del hambre." 29 Jonatán dijo: "Mi padre ha traído dificultades a esta tierra. Mira como mis ojos se han vuelto brillantes porque probé un poco de esta miel. 30 ¿Cuánto más si el pueblo hubiera comido libremente hoy del botín que hallaron de sus enemigos? Porque ahora la matanza no ha sido buena entre los Filisteos". 31 Ellos atacaron a los Filisteos ese día desde Micmas hasta Ajalon. El pueblo estaba muy cansado. 32 Se apresuró deseoso sobre el botín y tomaron ovejas, bueyes y corderos, y los mataron en el suelo. El pueblo los comió junto con la sangre. 33 Después ellos dijeron a Saúl: "Mira, el pueblo está pecando en contra del SEÑOR porque están comiendo junto con la sangre". 34 Saúl dijo: "Han actuado infielmente. Ahora, rueden una gran piedra hasta aquí para mí." Saúl dijo: "Salgan entre el pueblo y díganles, "Todo hombre traiga su buey y su oveja, mátenlos aquí y coman. No pequen de nuevo contra el SEÑOR comiendo junto con la sangre''. Entonces cada uno del pueblo trajo su buey con él esa noche y los mataron allí. 35 Saúl construyó un altar al SEÑOR, el cual fue el primer altar que él construyó para El SEÑOR. 36 Luego Saúl dijo: "Persigamos esta noche a los Filisteos y despojémosles hasta la mañana. No dejémos ninguno de ellos con vida". Ellos respondieron: "Hágase como mejor te parezca". Pero el sacerdote dijo: "Acerquémonos a Dios aquí." 37 Saúl quiso consultar a Dios con más preguntas, "¿Debería de persigir a los Filisteos? ¿Los entregarás en las manos de Israel? Pero Dios no le respondió ese día. 38 Entonces Saúl dijo: "Acérquense todos los líderes del pueblo; conozcan y miren como este pecado ha sucedido hoy. 39 Porque vive El SEÑOR quién salva a Israel, aún si este pecado está en mi hijo Jonatán, él seguramente morirá." Pero ninguno de los hombres dentro de todo el pueblo le respondió. 40 Después él dijo a todo Israel: "Ustedes están en un lado, y yo y mi hijo Jonatán estaremos en el otro." El pueblo dijo a Saúl: "Haz como mejor te parezca." 41 Por tanto Saúl dijo al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel: "Muestra el Tumim." Jonatán y Saúl fueron elegidos por suerte, y el pueblo se libró de ser escogido. 42 Entonces Saúl dijo: "Echen suertes entre mi hijo Jonatán y yo." Entonces Jonatán fue elegido por suerte. 43 Entonces Saúl dijo a Jonatán: "Dime lo que has hecho" Jonatán le dijo: "He probado un poco de miel con la punta de la vara que estaba en mi mano. Aquí estoy; Moriré''. 44 Saúl dijo: "Dios haga esto y más también para mí, si tú no mueres, Jonatán." 45 Entonces el pueblo dijo a Saúl: "Debería morir Jonatán, quien ha completado esta gran victoria para Israel? No sea así. Conforme vive El SEÑOR que ninguno de los cabellos de su cabeza caiga al suelo porque él ha trabajado con Dios hoy." Entonces el pueblo rescató a Jonatán para que él no muriera. 46 Entonces Saúl dejó de preseguir a los Filisteos, y los Filisteos fueron a su propia tierra. 47 Cuando Saúl comenzó a gobernar sobre Israel, peleó en contra de todos sus enemigos en cada sitio. Él peleó contra Moab, el pueblo de Ammon, Edom, los reyes de Soba, y los Filisteos. Donde quiera que él volteaba, él causaba daño en ellos. 48 Él actuaba con gran valor y derrotó a los Amalecitas. Él salvó a Israel de mano de aquellos quienes los habían saqueado. 49 Los hijos de Saúl fueron Jonatán, Isúi, y Malquisúa. Los nombres de sus dos hijas fueron Merab, la mayor, y Mical, la menor. 50 El nombre de la esposa de Saúl fue Ahinoam; ella fue la hija de Ahimaas. El nombre del capitán de su ejercito fue Abner hijo de Ner, tío de Saúl. 51 Cis fue el padre de Saúl; y Ner, el padre de Abner, era el hijo de Abiel. 52 Hubo fuerte guerra en contra de los Filisteos todos los días de Saúl. Cuando Saúl veía algún hombre fuerte o algún hombre valiente, lo unía a él.

Chapter 15

1 Samuel dijo a Saúl: "El SEÑOR me envió para elegirte rey sobre el pueblo de Israel. Ahora escucha las palabras del SEÑOR. 2 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice: 'Yo me he dado cuenta de lo que Amalec hizo en Israel oponiéndose a mi pueblo en su camino, cuando venian de Egipto. 3 Ahora ve y ataca a Amalec y destruye completamente todo lo que tienen. No tengas misericordia, pero mata a ambos, hombre y mujer, niño y bebé, buey y oveja, camello y burro. 4 Saúl reunió al pueblo y los contó en la ciudad de Telaim: Doscientos mil hombres a pie, y diez mil hombres de Juda. 5 Entonces, Saúl llegó a la ciudad de Amalec y esperó en el valle. 6 Entonces Saúl dijo a los Quenitas: "Salgan, apártense de los Amalecitas, para que no los destruya con ellos. Porque tu has mostrado bondad a todo el pueblo de Israel, cuando ellos vinieron de Egipto." Así que los Quenitas salieron lejos de los Amalecitas. 7 Entonces Saúl atacó a los Amalecitas desde Havila hasta Shur, que está al oriente de Egipto. 8 Saúl tomó vivo a Agag, rey de los Amalecitas; él destruyó completamente a todo el pueblo a filo de espada. 9 Saúl y el pueblo preservaron a Agag, al igual que lo mejor de las ovejas, los bueyes, el ganado gordo, y los corderos. Todo lo que era bueno, no lo destruyeron. Pero destruyeron completamente todo lo que era despreciable e inútil. 10 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Samuel, diciendo: 11 "Lamento haber hecho rey a Saúl, porque se ha alejado de Mí y no ha obedecido Mis mandamientos." Samuel se conmovió tanto, que lloró al SEÑOR toda la noche. 12 Samuel se levantó muy temprano para encontrarse con Saúl en la mañana. A Samuel le dijeron: "Saúl vino a Carmel y levantó un monumento de él mismo, y luego volvió y bajó a Gigal." 13 Entonces Samuel vino a Saúl, y Saúl le dijo: "¡Bendito eres por El SEÑOR! Yo he cumplido el mandato del SEÑOR. 14 Samuel dijo: "¿Qué es entonces este bramido de ovejas en mis oídos, y el mugido de bueyes que escucho?" 15 Saúl respondió: "Ellos lo han traido de los Amalecitas. Porque el pueblo ha conservado lo mejor de las ovejas y los bueyes para sacrificar a El SEÑOR tu DIOS. El resto lo hemos destruido completamente." 16 Entonces Samuel dijo a Saúl: "Espera, y te diré lo que El SEÑOR me ha dicho esta noche." Saúl le dijo: "Habla". 17 Samuel dijo: "¿Aunque eras pequeño ante tus propios ojos, no fuiste hecho la cabeza sobre las tribus de Israel? El SEÑOR te ha ungido como rey sobre Israel; 18 Y el SEÑOR te ha enviado diciendo: 'Vé y destruye completamente a los pecadores, los Amalecitas, y pelea en contra de ellos hasta que estén destruidos''. 19 Por qué no has obedecido la voz del SEÑOR, en lugar de eso, tú has tomado el botín e hiciste lo que es abominable a los ojos del SEÑOR?" 20 Entonces Saúl le dijo a Samuel: "Yo si he obedecido la voz del SEÑOR, y he seguido en el camino que Él SEÑOR me envió. Yo he capturado a Agag, el rey de Amalec, y he destruido por completo a los Amalecitas. 21 Pero el pueblo tomó algo del botín, ovejas y bueyes, lo mejor de las cosas destinadas a destrucción, para sacrificar al SEÑOR tu DIOS en Gilgal." 22 Samuel respondió: "¿Acaso El SEÑOR se deleita más de ofrendas quemadas y sacrificios que de obedecer la voz del SEÑOR? Obediencia es mejor que sacrificio, y escuchar es mejor que la grasa de carneros. 23 La rebelión es como el pecado de adivinación, y la desobediencia es como maldad e idolatría. Porque has rechazado las palabras del SEÑOR, Él también te ha rechazado a ti para ser rey." 24 Entonces Saúl dijo a Samuel: "Yo he pecado; por que he desobedecido el mandato de El SEÑOR y tus palabras, porque tenía miedo del pueblo y obedecí su voz. 25 Ahora, por favor perdona mi pecado, y regresa conmigo para que yo pueda adorar al SEÑOR". 26 Samuel dijo a Saúl: "Yo no regresaré contigo; porque tú has rechazado la palabra del SEÑOR, y El SEÑOR te ha rechazado a ti para seguir siendo rey sobre Israel." 27 Tan pronto como Samuel se daba vuelta para irse, Saúl se agarró de su manto y el manto se rasgó. 28 Samuel le dijo: "El SEÑOR, hoy ha quitado de ti el reino de Israel y lo dará a otra persona, uno que es mejor que tú. 29 Además la Fuerza de Israel no miente ni cambia de parecer; porque Él no es hombre para cambiar de parecer." 30 Entonces Saúl dijo: "He pecado, pero por favor hónrame ahora ante los ancianos del pueblo y ante Israel. Regresa conmigo para que adore al SEÑOR tu DIOS." 31 Samuel regresó detrás de Saúl y Saúl adoró al SEÑOR. 32 Samuel dijo: "Trae a Agag el rey de los Amalecitas a mi." Agag llego a él atado con cadenas y dijo: "Seguramente la amargura de muerte ha pasado." 33 Samuel respondió: "Como tu espada ha dejado a las mujeres sin hijos, así tu debes morir dejando a tu madre sin hijo." Entonces Samuel cortó Agag en pedazos ante El SEÑOR en Gilgal. 34 Samuel fue a Ramá, y Saúl subió a su casa en Guibéa de Saúl. 35 Samuel no volvió a ver a Saúl hasta el día de su muerte, porque clamaba por Saúl. Y El SEÑOR estaba arrepentido de haber hecho a Saúl rey sobre Israel.

la palabra del SEÑOR vino Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa que El SEÑOR habló. Traducción Alternativa: "El SEÑOR habló su palabra"

la palabra del SEÑOR
Aquí "palabra" representa el mensaje del SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "el mensaje del SEÑOR" lamento

"Lo siento" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

se ha alejado de mí
Se habla de Saúl no obedeciendo al SEÑOR como si Saúl se hubiera alejado físicamente de caminar detrás de Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "él ha dejado de seguirme"

no ha obedecido mis mandamientos
"no ha obedecido lo que le ordené que hiciera". Saúl fue para destruir completamente todo y a todos. Dios había prohibido a los amalecitas. Pero Saúl le permitió vivir a un poco de ganado.

Samuel se indignó
Los posibles significados son 1) Samuel estaba enojado con Saúl por su desobediencia o 2) Samuel fue molestado (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada).

1 Samuel 15:12

A Samuel le dijeron
"Alguien le dijo a Samuel"

levantó un monumento de él mismo Saúl estaba lleno de orgullo.

bajó a Gilgal
Gilgal estaba más bajo en elevación que el Carmelo.

Yo he cumplido el mandato del SEÑOR
No está claro si Saúl entendió que no había obedecido completamente el mandato de Dios de destruir completamente a los amalecitas.

1 Samuel 15:14

Información General:
Samuel pregunta por qué Saúl no destruyó por completo a los amalecitas.

bramido de ovejas... mugido de bueyes Estos son los sonidos que hacen estos animales. Su idioma puede tener términos diferentes para estos.

en mis oídos... que escucho Estas dos frases significan lo mismo. Aquí "en mis oídos" se refiere a oir.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ellos lo han traido... el pueblo ha conservado
La palabra "ellos" y la frase "el pueblo" aquí representan al ejército de Saúl. Saúl está culpando a la gente en lugar de a sí mismo.

para sacrificar al SEÑOR tu DIOS
Saúl está argumentando que los animales para el sacrificio fueron una excepción a la orden del Señor de destruir todo.

El SEÑOR tu DIOS
Saúl aquí no describe al Dios de Samuel como su propio Dios.

1 Samuel 15:17

ante tus propios ojos Aquí "ojos" se refiere a su opinión basada en lo que vio. Traducción Alternativa: "en tu propia opinión"

...no fuiste hecho la cabeza sobre las tribus de Israel?
Samuel usa esta pregunta para recordarle a Saúl que Dios le había dado mucho. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "¡El SEÑOR te hizo gobernante de las tribus de Israel!"

¿Por qué no has obedecido... del SEÑOR?
Samuel hace esta pregunta para reprender a Saúl por desobedecer al SEÑOR. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "¡Debiste haber obedecido... del Señor!"

la voz del SEÑOR
Aquí "voz" se refiere a los mandatos que habló El SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "las cosas que El SEÑOR ordenó"

pero en lugar de eso, tú has tomado el botín Samuel está acusando a Saúl de desobediencia directa. El SEÑOR le ordenó a Saúl que destruyera completamente todo lo que pertenecía a los amalecitas, y que no trajera nada al campamento.

el botín
"El saqueo" o "Las posesiones que tomaste del enemigo".

lo que es abominable a los ojos del SEÑOR Aquí "ojos" se refiere a los pensamientos u opiniones del SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "lo que El SEÑOR considera malvado"

1 Samuel 15:20

Yo sí he obedecido la voz del SEÑOR
Esta es una declaración enfática. No está claro si Saúl pensó que esto era verdad, o si simplemente estaba poniendo excusas por su pecado.

la voz del SEÑOR
Aquí "voz" se refiere a los mandatos que habló El SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "las cosas que El SEÑOR ordenó"

Agag
Este es el nombre del rey de los amalecitas.

Pero el pueblo tomó
Esto parece estar cambiando la culpa a la gente.

las cosas destinadas a destrucción
"Los animales que El SEÑOR les ordenó destruir".

Gilgal
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

1 Samuel 15:22

¿Acaso El SEÑOR se deleita más de ofrendas quemadas y sacrificios que de obedecer la voz del SEÑOR?
Samuel hace esta pregunta para enfatizar que la obediencia es mucho más importante que el sacrificio. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alternativa: "¡El SEÑOR no se deleita en los holocaustos y los sacrificios tanto como en obedecer su voz!"

la voz del SEÑOR
Aquí "voz" se refiere a los mandatos que habló El SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "las cosas que El SEÑOR ordenó"

Obediencia es mejor que sacrificio Dios quería la completa obediencia de Saúl en la destrucción de los amalecitas. Nada en la tierra era digno para sacrificio.

es mejor que la grasa de carneros
"Mejor que sacrificar la grasa de los carneros como holocausto"

La rebelión es como el pecado de adivinación Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden ser declarados como acciones. Traducción Alternativa: "rebelarse es tan pecaminoso como hacer brujería"

la desobediencia es como iniquidad e idolatría Estos sustantivos abstractos pueden ser declarados como acciones. Traducción Alternativa: "ser terco es tan pecaminoso como adorar a los ídolos"

rechazado las palabras del SEÑOR Aquí "palabras" se refiere a la orden que habló El SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "se negó a hacer lo que El SEÑOR ordenó" te ha rechazado a ti para ser rey

"decidió que ya no serás rey"

he desobedecido el mandato del SEÑOR Este es una expresión idiomática que significa que él había desobedecido el mandamiento. Traducción Alternativa: "He desobedecido lo que El SEÑOR ordenó" porque tenía miedo del pueblo Esta es la razón que Saúl da para no obedecer a Dios. Traducción Alternativa: "porque tenía miedo de los soldados"

obedecí su voz
Aquí "voz" se refiere a lo que los soldados le pidieron a Saúl que hiciera. Traducción Alternativa: "hice lo que pidieron"

regresa conmigo
Saúl y Samuel aparentemente estaban hablando en privado lejos de las otras personas.

1 Samuel 15:26

porque tú has rechazado la palabra del SEÑOR Samuel dejó en claro que Saúl entendió que estaba desobedeciendo a Dios cuando perdonó a los mejores animales y no mató a Agag.

rechazado la palabra del SEÑOR
Aquí "palabra" se refiere a la orden que habló El SEÑOR. Traducción Alternativa: "te negaste a hacer lo que El SEÑOR ordenó"

Saúl se agarró de su manto Saúl hizo esto para tratar de evitar que Samuel se fuera. Esto se puede afirmar explícitamente. Traducción Alternativa: "Saúl intentó detenerlo agarrando el borde de la túnica de Samuel"

su manto
"el borde de su túnica" o "el flequillo de su túnica"

1 Samuel 15:28

El SEÑOR hoy ha quitado de ti el reino de Israel
Esto se refiere a cuando Saúl rasgó la túnica de Samuel en 15:26. Esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alternativa: "Así como rasgaste mi túnica, El SEÑOR ha desgarrado el reino de Israel"

lo dará a un vecino tuyo, uno que es mejor que tú Dios ya había decidido quién sería el próximo rey después de Saúl.

la Fuerza de Israel
Esta expresión idiomática se refiere al SEÑOR, quien le da fuerza a los israelitas. Traducción Alternativa: "El SEÑOR, que es la fuerza de Israel"

no miente ni cambia de parecer Esto se expresa como un negativo para enfatizar que Dios dice la verdad. Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "siempre dirá la verdad y hará lo que Él dice"

de parecer
Esto se refiere a sus pensamientos y decisiones. Traducción Alternativa: "lo que ha decidido hacer"

porque Él no es hombre para cambiar de parecer Esto se expresa como un negativo para enfatizar que Dios es digno de confianza. Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alternativa: "Él es Dios, y hará lo que dice que hará"

1 Samuel 15:30

pero por favor hónrame ahora ante los ancianos del pueblo Saúl puede haber estado más interesado en ser honrado por la gente que en adorar a Dios.

ante los ancianos del pueblo Aquí "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alternativa: "ante el pueblo de Israel y los ancianos que los dirigen"

Vuelve de nuevo conmigo
"Ven de regreso conmigo" o "Regresa conmigo"

Samuel regresó detrás de Saúl
Esto implica que Samuel cambió de opinión y que fueron juntos a donde estaba el pueblo. Traducción Alternativa: "Así que Samuel finalmente accedió a hacer eso, y fueron juntos a donde estaba el pueblo" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

1 Samuel 15:32

Agag llegó a él confinado con cadenas y dijo
"Le trajeron a Agag atado por cadenas y dijo"

Seguramente la amargura de muerte ha pasado
Esta expresión idiomática parece significar que Agag ya no creía que lo matarían. Traducción Alternativa: "Seguramente ya no estoy en peligro o por morir"

Como tu espada ha dejado a las mujeres sin hijos, así tú debes morir dejando a tu madre sin hijo Ambas frases tienen un significado similar y pueden tener la intención de estar en forma poética. Traducción Alternativa: "Como has matado gente, también te matarán" ha dejado a las mujeres sin hijos, así tú debes morir dejando a tu madre sin hijo Esta es una forma cortés de referirse a matar gente. Traducción Alternativa: "mató a los hijos de otras mujeres, así que mataré al hijo de su madre"

Chapter 16

1 El SEÑOR dijo a Samuel: "¿Hasta cuando te afligirás por Saúl, desde que lo he rechazado como rey sobre Israel? Llena tu cuerno con aceite y ve. Te enviaré a Isaí de Belén, porque he escogido para Mí un rey de entre sus hijos." 2 Samuel dijo: "¿Cómo puedo ir yo? Si Saúl lo escucha, él me matará." El SEÑOR dijo: "Toma una vaca recién nacida contigo y dí, ''He venido a sacrificarla al SEÑOR''. 3 Llama a Isaí al sacrificio, y yo te mostraré que debes hacer. Tú ungirás por Mí a quién Yo te diga." 4 Samuel hizo como El SEÑOR dijo y fue a Belén. Los ancianos de la ciudad estaban temblando cuando ellos fueron a recibirlo y dijeron: "¿Vienes en paz?" 5 El dijo: "Vengo en paz; He venido para hacer sacrificio al SEÑOR. Conságrense al SEÑOR para el sacrificio y vengan conmigo." Entonces él apartó a Isaí y a sus hijos y los invitó al sacrificio." 6 Cuando ellos vinieron, él miró a Eliab y se dijo a sí mismo que el ungido del SEÑOR ciertamente estaba de pie ante él. 7 Pero El SEÑOR dijo a Samuel: "No mires su apariencia, o lo alto de su estatura; porque Yo lo he rechazado. Porque El SEÑOR no mira como mira el hombre; el hombre mira la apariencia exterior, pero El SEÑOR mira el corazón. 8 Entonces Isaí llamó a Abinadab, y lo hizo pasar ante Samuel. Y Samuel dijo: "Tampoco El SEÑOR ha elegido a éste." 9 Después Isaí hizo pasar a Sama. Y Samuel dijo: "Tampoco El SEÑOR ha elegido a éste." 10 Isaí hizo pasar a siete de sus hijos ante Samuel. Y Samuel dijo a Isaí: El SEÑOR no ha elegido a ninguno de ellos." 11 Entonces Samuel dijo a Isaí: "Son todos estos tus hijos?" El respondió: "Queda aún el más joven, pero él está cuidando a las ovejas." Samuel dijo a Isaí: "Envía por él y tráelo; porque no nos sentaremos hasta que él venga." 12 Isaí envió por él y lo trajo. Ahora, este hijo era de buena presencia y tenía ojos hermosos y una apariencia atractiva. El SEÑOR dijo: "Levántate, úngelo; porque él es el elegido''. 13 Entonces Samuel, tomó el cuerno con aceite y lo ungió en medio de sus hermanos. El Espíritu del SEÑOR estuvo sobre David desde ese día en adelante. Después Samuel se levantó y fué a Ramá. 14 El Espíritu del SEÑOR dejó a Saúl y un espíritu malo de parte del SEÑOR lo atormentaba. 15 Los sirvientes de Saúl le dijeron: "Mira, un espíritu malo de parte del SEÑOR te atormenta. 16 Ordena que nuestro jefe, quien manda a tus sirvientes, quienes estamos delante de ti, busque a un hombre que sea hábil tocando el arpa. Entonces, cuando el espíritu malo de parte de Dios esté en ti, él la tocará y te sentirás bien. 17 Saúl dijo a sus sirvientes: "Encuéntrenme a un hombre que pueda tocar bien y tráiganlo a mí." 18 Entonces uno de los hombres jovenes respondió y dijo: "He visto un hijo de Isaí de Belén, quien es hábil tocando, fuerte, valiente, hombre de guerra, prudente al hablar, de buen parecer; y El SEÑOR está con él. 19 Entonces Saúl envió mensajeros a Isaí y dijeron: "Envíame a tu hijo David, quien está con las ovejas." 20 Isaí tomó un burro cargado con pan, y una vasija de vino, y un cabrito, y los envió con su hijo David a Saúl. 21 Entonces David vino a Saúl y entró a su servicio. Saúl le amó mucho, y lo hizo su escudero. 22 Saúl envió a Isaí diciendo: "Deja que David esté ante mi, porque él ha hallado favor en mis ojos. 23 Cuando el espíritu malo de parte de Dios estaba sobre Saúl, David tomaba el arpa y la tocaba. Y el espíritu malo se apartaba de él y así Saúl se sentía mejor.

Chapter 17

1 Los Filisteos reunieron sus ejércitos para la batalla. Ellos se juntaron en Soco, el cual pertenece a Judá. Ellos acamparon entre Soco y Azeca, en Efes Damim. 2 Saúl y los hombres de Israel se reunieron y acamparon en el valle de Ela, y formaron sus líneas de batalla para pelear con los Filisteos. 3 Los Filisteos se detuvieron a un lado de la montaña e Israel se detuvo en una montaña al otro lado, con un valle entre ellos. 4 Un hombre fuerte salió del campamento de los Filisteos llamado Goliat de Gat, cuya estatura era de tres metros. 5 Tenía un casco de bronce sobre su cabeza, y estaba armado con una cota de malla. La cota pesaba lo mismo que casi sesenta kilos de bronce. 6 Él tenía una armadura de bronce sobre sus piernas y una jabalina de bronce entre sus hombros. 7 El mango de su lanza era largo, con un rodillo de cordón para tirar, como el cordón de las agujas. La punta de la espada pesaba casi siete kilos de hierro. Su escudero estaba delante de él. 8 Él se paró y gritó a los soldados de Israel: "¿Por qué han salido ustedes para tener una batalla? ¿No soy un Filisteo, y ustedes no son sirvientes de Saúl? Escojan a un hombre y dejen que venga hasta mí. 9 Si él es capaz de pelear conmigo y matarme, entonces nosotros seremos sus sirvientes. Pero si yo lo derroto y lo mato, entonces ustedes serán nuestros esclavos y nos servirán." 10 Otra vez el Filisteo dijo: "Hoy desafío a los soldados de Israel. Dénme un hombre para pelear juntos." 11 Saúl y todo Israel escuchó lo que el Filisteo decía, ellos estaban desanimados y muy aterrados. 12 David era el hijo del Efrateo de Belén en Judá, cuyo nombre era Isaí. Él tenia ocho hijos. Isaí era un hombre anciano en los días de Saúl, grande en edad sobre los hombres. 13 Los tres hijos más grandes habían seguido a Saúl a la batalla. Los nombres de sus tres hijos que fueron a la batalla eran Eliab su primogénito, el segundo Abinadab, y el tercero Sama. 14 David era el más joven. Los tres más grandes seguían a Saúl. 15 David iba y venía entre el ejercito de Saúl y las ovejas de su padre en Belén, para poder alimentarlas. 16 Por cuarenta días el hombre fuerte Filisteo se acercaba, en la mañana y por la tarde, para presentarse a sí mismo para la batalla. 17 Entonces Isaí dijo a su hijo David: "Lleva a tus hermanos un Efa (veintidós litros) de este grano tostado y estos diez panes, y ve rápido al campamento a tus hermanos. 18 También lleva estos diez quesos para los capitanes de miles. Mira como están tus hermanos y trae alguna prueba de que están bien. 19 Tus hermanos están con Saúl y todos los hombres de Israel en el valle de Elá, peleando con los Filisteos." 20 David se levantó en la madrugada y dejó a su rebaño al cuidado de un pastor. Él tomo el alimento y se fue, como Isaí le ordenó. Él llegó al campamento cuando el ejército salía al campo de batalla gritando voces de guerra. 21 Entonces Israel y los Filisteos se alinearon para la batalla, ejército contra ejército. 22 David dejó sus alimentos con el encargado del equipaje, corrió a la línea de combate y saludó a sus hermanos. 23 Mientras hablaba con ellos, el hombre fuerte, el Filisteo de Gat, llamado Goliat, salió de la línea de los Filisteos, y dijo las mismas palabras que antes, y David las escuchó. 24 Cuando todos los hombres de Israel vieron al hombre, huyeron de él y estaban aterrados. 25 Los hombres de Israel dijeron: "¿Has visto a este hombre que salió? Él ha venido a retar a Israel. Y el rey le dará al hombre que lo mate grandes riquezas, le dará su hija en matrimonio, y hará la casa de su padre libre de impuestos en Israel." 26 David dijo al hombre que estaba con él: "¿Qué se le hará al hombre, que mate a este Filisteo y quite la desgracia de Israel? ¿Quien es este incircunciso Filisteo, que desafía los ejércitos del DIOS viviente? Entonces las personas le repitieron lo que ellos decían y le dijeron: 27 Así será hecho al hombre que lo mate." 28 Eliab su hermano mayor escuchó cuando David habló con el hombre. El enojo de Eliab fue mucho contra David y le dijo: "¿Por qué has bajado aquí? ¿Con quién has dejado esas pocas ovejas en el desierto? Yo conozco tu orgullo y la maldad de tu corazón; porque tú has bajado para ver la batalla." 29 David dijo: "¿He hecho algo malo? ¿No fué sólo una pregunta?" 30 Entonces se alejó de él para ir con otro y habló en la misma manera. Las personas le contestaron la misma cosa de antes. 31 Cuando las palabras que dijo David fueron escuchadas, los soldados se las repitieron a Saúl, y él envió a buscar a David. 32 David le dijo a Saúl: "No dejes que ningún hombre se desanime por causa de ese Filisteo; tu servidor irá y peleará con él." 33 Saúl dijo a David: "Tú no eres capaz de ir a pelear en contra de este Filisteo porque eres solo un muchacho, y él un hombre de guerra desde su juventud." 34 Pero David dijo a Saúl: "Tu servidor cuidaba a las ovejas de su padre. Cuando un león o un oso venía y tomaba alguna oveja del rebaño, 35 yo iba tras él y lo atacaba, y rescataba la oveja de su boca. Y cuando se levantaba para atacarme, lo tomaba de su pelo, le pegaba y lo mataba. 36 Tu siervo ha matado tanto a un león como a un oso. Este incircunciso Filisteo será como uno de ellos, por que ha desafiado a los ejército del DIOS viviente." 37 David dijo: "El SEÑOR me ha rescatado de las garras del león y de las garras del oso. Él me rescatará de las manos de este Filisteo." Entonces Saúl dijo a David: "Ve, y que EL SEÑOR esté contigo." 38 Saúl vistió a David con su ropa militar. Él puso un casco de bronce sobre su cabeza y lo vistió con una coraza. 39 David puso su espada en su armadura. Pero no podía caminar, porque no había sido entrenado con ellas. Entonces David dijo a Saúl: "Yo no puedo salir a pelear con esto, porque no he tenido entrenamiento." Así que David se quitó la armadura. 40 Tomó sus cosas en su mano y escogió del arroyo cinco piedras lisas; las puso en su bolso de pastor. Su honda estaba en su mano mientras se acercaba al Filisteo. 41 El Filisteo llegó y se acercó a David, con su escudo llevándolo enfrente de él. 42 Cuando el Filisteo miró alrededor y vió a David, lo despreció, porque era sólo un niño, rubio y con un buen parecer. 43 El Filisteo le dijo a David: "¿Acaso soy un perro, que vienes a mí con palos?" Y el Filisteo maldijo a David por sus dioses. 44 El Filisteo dijo a David: "Ven a mí, y yo daré tu cuerpo a las aves de los cielos y a las bestias del campo." 45 David le respondió al Filisteo: "Tú vienes a mi con una espada, una lanza y una jabalina. Pero yo vengo a tí en El nombre del SEÑOR de los ejércitos de Israel, a quien tú has desafiado. 46 El SEÑOR me dará la victoria sobre tí, y yo te mataré y te quitaré la cabeza de tu cuerpo. Hoy yo daré los cuerpos de los ejércitos Filisteos a las aves de los cielos y a las bestias salvajes de la tierra, para que toda la tierra sepa que hay DIOS en Israel, 47 y para que todos aquí presentes sepan que El SEÑOR no da la victoria con espada ó lanza. Porque la batalla es de El SEÑOR, y Él nos ayudará a derrotarlos." 48 Cuando el Filisteo se levantó y se acercó para enfrentarse con David; David corrió rápidamente hacia el ejército enemigo para enfrentarse al Filisteo. 49 David metió su mano en su bolso, tomó una piedra y la lanzó, y golpeó la frente del Filisteo. La piedra se hundió en la frente del Filisteo, y él cayó sobre su cara a la tierra. 50 David derrotó al Filisteo con una honda y con una piedra. Él golpeo al Filisteo y lo mató. No hubo espada en la mano de David. 51 David corrió y se paró sobre el Filisteo y tomó su espada, la sacó de su funda, lo mató, y le cortó la cabeza. Cuando los Filisteos vieron que su hombre fuerte estaba muerto, ellos huyeron. 52 Entonces los hombres de Israel y de Judá se levantaron con un grito, y persiguieron a los Filisteos hasta el valle y las puertas de Ecrón. Y los Filisteos muertos se hallaban tirados por el camino a Saaraim, todo el camino hasta Gat y Ecrón. 53 El pueblo de Israel regresó de perseguir a los Filisteos, y ellos robaron su campamento. 54 David tomó la cabeza del Filisteo y la llevó a Jerusalén, pero puso su armadura en su tienda. 55 Cuando Saúl vio a David saliendo en contra de los Filisteos, él dijo a Abner, el capitán del ejército: "Abner, ¿Hijo de quién es éste joven?" Abner dijo: "Como tú vives, rey, yo no lo sé." 56 El rey dijo: "pregunta a aquellos quienes sepan, de quién es hijo éste joven." 57 Cuando David regresó de matar a los Filisteos, Abner lo tomó, y lo trajo frente a Saúl con la cabeza del Filisteo en su mano. 58 Saúl le dijo: "¿Hijo de quién eres tú, joven? David respondió: "Yo soy hijo de tu siervo Isaí de Belén."

Chapter 18

1 Cuando él terminó de hablar con Saúl, el alma de Jonatán fue unida al alma de David, y Jonatán lo amó como a su propia alma. 2 Saúl tomó a David a su servicio ese día; él no lo dejó regresar a la casa de su padre. 3 Entonces Jonatán y David hicieron un pacto de amistad porque Jonatán lo amó como a su propia alma. 4 Jonatán se quitó la túnica que llevaba puesta, y se la dió a David junto con su armadura, así como su espada, arco y cinto. 5 David salía donde quiera que Saúl lo enviaba, y tenía éxito. Saúl lo puso sobre los hombres de guerra. Esto agradaba a los ojos del pueblo, incluso, a la vista de los siervos de Saúl. 6 Cuando ellos volvieron a casa después de derrotar a los Filisteos, las mujeres de todas las ciudades de Israel vinieron, cantando y danzando, para ver al Rey Saúl, con tamborines, con gozo y con instrumentos musicales. 7 Las mujeres tocaban y cantaban unas a las otras. Ellas cantaban: "Saúl mató a sus miles, y David a sus diez miles." 8 Saúl estaba muy enojado, y no le gustaba ese canto. Él dijo: "Ellos le han dado a David diez miles, pero a mi sólo me dan miles. ¿Qué más va a tener él sino el reino? 9 Y Saúl miró a David con sospecha desde ese día en adelante. 10 Al día siguiente un espíritu malo de parte de Dios cayó sobre Saúl. Y él deliraba dentro de la casa. Entonces David tocó su instrumento, como él hacía cada día. Saúl tenía su lanza en su mano. 11 Saúl lanzó su lanza, porque él pensaba: "Clavaré a David a la pared." Pero David escapó de la presencia de Saúl dos veces. 12 Saúl tuvo miedo de David, porque El SEÑOR estaba con él, pero ya no estaba más con Saúl. 13 Entonces Saúl lo quitó de su presencia y lo nombró jefe de mil soldados. De esta forma, David salía y entraba al frente del pueblo. 14 David prosperaba en todos sus caminos, porque El SEÑOR estaba con él. 15 Cuando Saúl vió que él prosperaba, quedo asombrado de él. 16 Pero todo Israel y Judá amaba a David, porque él entraba y salía al frente de ellos. 17 Entonces Saúl dijo a David: "Aquí está mi hija mayor, Merab. Te la daré como esposa. Solo sé valiente para mí y pelea las batallas del SEÑOR." Porque Saúl pensaba: "No lo mataré yo, sino la mano de los Filisteos." 18 David dijo a Saúl: "¿Quien soy yo, y qué es mi vida, o la familia de mi padre en Israel, para que yo sea el yerno del rey? 19 Pero en el tiempo cuando Merab, la hija de Saúl debería haber sido entregada a David, ella fue dada a Adriel, el meholatita como esposa. 20 Pero Mical, hija de Saúl, amó a David. Le dijeron a Saúl, y ésto le agradó. 21 Entonces pensó: "Se la daré a él, para que ella sea una trampa para él, y que la mano de los Filisteos esté en su contra." Entonces Saúl dijo a David por segunda vez: "Tú serás mi yerno." 22 Saúl ordenó a sus sirvientes: "Hablen con David en privado, y digan: ''Mira, el rey te estima y todos sus sirvientes te aman. Ahora pues, vuélvete yerno del rey." 23 Así que los sirvientes de Saúl hablaron estas palabras a David. Y David dijo: "¿Es esto sencillo para ustedes, que sea el yerno del rey, siendo yo un hombre pobre y de poca estima?" 24 Los sirvientes de Saúl le informaron las palabras que David habló. 25 Entonces Saúl dijo: "Así dirán a David: 'El rey no desea ninguna dote, sólo cien prepucios de los Filisteos, para ser vengado de sus enemigos.'" Ahora, Saúl pensó hacer que David cayera por mano de los Filisteos. 26 Cuando sus sirvientes dijeron a David estas palabras, éstas agradaron a David para ser el yerno del rey. 27 Antes que aquellos días terminaran, David vino con sus hombres y mató a doscientos Filisteos. David trajo sus prepucios, y los dió completos al rey, porque ésto lo haría ser el yerno del rey. 28 Así que Saúl le dió a su hija Mical como esposa. Cuando Saúl vió y supo que El SEÑOR estaba con David; y que Mical, la hija de Saúl, lo amaba. 29 Saúl tuvo aún más temor de David. Saúl continuaba siendo el enemigo de David. 30 Entonces los príncipes de los Filisteos salieron a la batalla, y como cada vez que ellos salían, David tenía más éxito que todos los sirvientes de Saúl, entonces, el nombre de David fue altamente apreciado.

Chapter 19

1 Saúl le dijo a Jonatán su hijo y a todos sus sirvientes que ellos debían matar a David. Pero Jonatán, hijo de Saúl, amaba a David. 2 Así que Jonatán le dijo a David, "Saúl mi padre busca matarte. Por lo tanto ponte en guardia en la mañana y escóndete en un lugar secreto. 3 Yo saldré afuera y me pararé al lado de mi padre en el campo donde tú estás, y yo hablaré con mi padre acerca de ti. Si yo me entero de algo, yo te lo diré." 4 Jonatán habló bien de David a Saúl su padre y le dijo a él, "No dejes que el rey peque contra su siervo David. Pues él no ha pecado en contra de ti, y sus hechos te han traído bien. 5 Pues él mató al Filisteo. El SEÑOR trajo una gran victoria para todo Israel. Tú lo viste y te regocijaste. ¿Por qué pecar en contra de sangre inocente matando a David sin razón alguna?" 6 Saúl escuchó a Jonatán. Saúl juró, "Vive el SEÑOR, él no morirá." 7 Entonces Jonatán llamó a David, y Jonatán le dijo todas estas cosas. Jonatán trajo a David a Saúl, y él estaba en su presencia como antes. 8 Y hubo guerra otra vez, y David salió y peleó con los Filisteos y los derrotó con una gran matanza. Ellos huyeron delante de él. 9 Un espíritu malo de parte del SEÑOR vino sobre Saúl cuando él estaba sentado en su casa con la lanza en su mano, mientras David tocaba su instrumento 10 Saúl intentó clavar a David a la pared con la lanza, pero él se quitó de la presencia de Saúl, de manera que Saúl clavó la lanza en la pared. David huyó y escapó esa noche. 11 Saúl envió mensajeros a la casa de David para vigilarlo de modo que pudiera matarlo en la mañana. Mical, la esposa de David, le dijo a él, "si tú no salvas tu vida esta noche, mañana te matarán." 12 Así que Mical dejó bajar a David por la ventana. Él salió y huyó, y escapó. 13 Mical tomó un ídolo casero y lo acostó en la cama. Entonces ella puso una almohada de pelo de cabra a su cabeza, y lo cubrió con ropa. 14 Cuando Saúl envió mensajeros para tomar a David, ella dijo: "El está enfermo." 15 Entonces Saúl envió a los mensajeros para ver a David; él dijo: "Tráiganlo hasta mí en la cama, para que yo pueda matarlo. 16 Cuando los mensajeros entraron, miraron, y el idolo de la casa estaba en la cama y la almohada de pelo de cabra en su cabeza. 17 Saúl dijo a Mical: "¿Por qué me has engañado y has dejado a mi enemigo escapar?" Mical respondió a Saúl: Él me dijo: 'Déjame ir. O te mato" 18 David corrió lejos y escapó, y fue a Samuel en Ramá, y le dijo todo lo que Saúl había hecho con él. Entonces él y Samuel fueron y permanecieron en Naioth. 19 Eso fue dicho a Saúl, diciendo: "Mira, David está en Naiot en Ramá. 20 Entonces Saúl envió mensajeros para capturar a David. Cuando ellos vieron la compañía de los profetas profetizando, y Samuel estando a la cabeza de ellos, el Espíritu de Dios vino sobre los mensajeros de Saúl, y ellos también profetizaron. 21 Cuando a Saúl se le dijo esto, él envió otros mensajeros, y ellos también profetizaron. Así que Saúl envió mensajeros nuevamente la tercera vez, y ellos también profetizaron. 22 Entonces él también fue a Ramá y vino al pozo profundo que está en Secú. Él preguntó, "¿Dónde están Samuel y David?" Alguien dijo, "Ves, ellos están en Naiot en Ramá." 23 Saúl fue a Naiot en Ramá. Y el Espíritu de Dios vino sobre él también, y mientras iba, él profetizaba, hasta que vino a Naiot en Ramá. 24 Y él, también, se quitó su ropa, y él también profetizó delante de Samuel y se postró desnudo todo ese día y toda esa noche. Por esto ellos dicen, "¿está Saúl también entre los profetas?"

Chapter 20

1 Entonces David salió de Naiot en Ramá y vino y le dijo a Jonatán: "¿Qué he hecho yo? ¿Cuál es mi maldad? ¿Cuál es mi pecado ante tu padre para que busque tomar mi vida?" 2 Jonatán le respondió a David: "Lejos de eso; no morirás. Mi padre no hará nada ni grande ni pequeño sin decírmelo. ¿Por qué mi padre escondería esto de mí? No será así." 3 Pero David volvió a jurar diciendo: "Tu padre sabe muy bien que he hayado favor ante tus ojos. Y ha dicho: 'No dejen que Jonatán sepa esto, porque se entristecerá.' Pero tan cierto como vive el SEÑOR, y como vives tú, hay solo un paso entre la muerte y yo." 4 Entonces Jonatán le dijo a David: "Cualquier cosa que digas, yo la haré por ti." 5 David le dijo a Jonatán: "Mañana es la luna nueva, y yo debo sentarme a comer con el rey. Pero déjame ir, para esconderme en el campo hasta el tercer día en la noche. 6 Si tu padre me extraña, entonces le dirás: ''David me rogó que le dejara ir para correr hacia su ciudad de Belén; para celebrar el sacrificio anual que ofrece toda su familia." 7 Si él contesta: 'Esta bien,' tu siervo estará en paz. Pero si se enoja mucho, entonces sabrás que se ha decidido por el mal. 8 Por lo tanto ten misericordia de tu siervo. Porque has llevado a tu siervo a un pacto del SEÑOR contigo. Pero si hay pecado en mí, mátame tu mismo; ¿por qué entonces habrías de llevarme a tu padre?" 9 Jonatán dijo: "¡Lejos esté esto de ti! Si yo supiera que mi padre ha decidido hacerte daño, ¿no te lo diría yo?" 10 Entonces David dijo a Jonatán: "¿Quién me dirá en caso que tu padre te conteste bruscamente?" 11 Jonatán dijo a David: "Ven y vayamos al campo." Y salieron ambos al campo. 12 Entonces Jonatán dijo a David: "Que El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, sea testigo. Cuando le pregunte a mi padre mañana a esta misma hora o al tercer día, mira, que si hay buena voluntad para David, ¿entonces no te llamaré y te dejaré saber? 13 Si le complace a mi padre hacerte daño, que El SEÑOR le haga a Jonatán, y más también, si no te dejo saber y te envío lejos para que vayas en paz. Que El SEÑOR esté contigo, como ha estado con mi padre. 14 Si aún estuviera vivo, ¿no me mostrarías el pacto de misericordia del SEÑOR, para que no muera? 15 No cortes el pacto de misericordia con mi casa para siempre, ni cuando El SEÑOR haya destruido todos los enemigos de David sobre la faz de la tierra." 16 Entonces Jonatán hizo un pacto con la casa de David y dijo: "Que El SEÑOR demande cuentas de las manos de los enemigos de David." 17 Jonatán hizo que David jurara otra vez por el amor que le tenía, porque le amaba como a su propia alma. 18 Entonces Jonatán le dijo: 19 "Mañana es la luna nueva. Tú serás extrañado porque tu asiento estará vacío. Cuando hayas estado ausente tres días bajarás rápidamente y vendrás del lugar donde te escondiste el día que todo pasó y te quedarás por la piedra de Ezel. 20 Yo dispararé tres flechas al lado como si estuviera disparando al blanco. 21 Y enviaré a mi sirviente y le diré: 'Ve y busca las flechas.' Si le digo al joven: 'Mira, las flechas están a este lado tuyo; ven y búscalas,' entonces ven; porque habrá seguridad para ti y no daño, según vive el SEÑOR. 22 "Pero si yo digo al joven: 'Mira, las flechas están más allá de ti,' entonces te irás lejos, pues El SEÑOR te ha enviado lejos. 23 En cuanto al acuerdo que tú y yo hablamos, mira, El SEÑOR esté entre tú y yo por siempre." 24 Entonces David se escondió en el campo. Cuando la luna nueva salió, el rey se sentó a comer. 25 El rey se sentó en su silla, como de costumbre, en el asiento cerca de la pared. Jonatán se levantó, y Abner se sentó al lado de Saúl. Pero el lugar de David estaba vacío. 26 Saúl no dijo nada ese día, porque pensó: "Algo le ha acontecido. Él no está limpio; seguramente él no está limpio." 27 Pero al segundo día, el día después de la luna nueva, el lugar de David estaba vacío. Saúl le dijo a Jonatán su hijo: "¿Por qué el hijo de Isaí no ha venido a la comida, ni ayer ni hoy?" 28 Jonatán le contestó a Saúl: "David me pidió permiso para ir a Belén. 29 Él me dijo: 'Por favor déjame ir. Pues nuestra familia tiene sacrificio en la ciudad y mi hermano me ha ordenado que esté allá. Ahora, si he hallado favor delante de tus ojos, por favor déjame ir a ver a mis hermanos.' Por esta razón no ha venido a la mesa del rey." 30 Entonces el enojo de Saúl fue mucho en contra de Jonatán, y le dijo: "¡Tú, hijo de mujer mala y rebelde! ¿Crees tú que no sé que has escojido al hijo de Isaí, para tu propia vergüenza y la vergüenza de la desnudez de tu madre? 31 Mientras el hijo de Isaí viva sobre la tierra, ni tú, ni tu reino serán establecidos. Ahora pues, envía y traémelo a mí, porque él ciertamente tiene que morir." 32 Jonatán le contestó a Saúl su padre: "¿Por qué razón debe de morir él? ¿Qué ha hecho él?" 33 Entonces Saúl le arrojó su lanza para matarlo. Entonces Jonatán supo que su padre estaba decidido a matar a David. 34 Jonatán se levantó de la mesa con un fuerte enojo y no comió nada el segundo día del mes, porque estaba muy triste sobre David, porque su padre le había deshonrado. 35 En la mañana, Jonatán salió al campo para su encuentro con David y un hombre joven le acompañaba. 36 Le dijo su sirviente: "Corre y encuentra las flechas que dispare." Y mientras el hombre joven corría, él disparó una flecha más allá de él. 37 Cuando el joven llegó al sitio donde cayó la flecha que Jonatán disparó, Jonatán llamó al joven, y le dijo: "¿No está la flecha más allá de ti?" 38 Y Jonatán llamó al hombre joven: "¡Apurate, sé rápido, no te quedes!" El hombre joven de Jonatán juntó las flechas y regresó a su

amo. [39] Pero el hombre joven no sabía nada. Solo Jonatán y David conocían del asunto. [40] Jonatán le dio las armas al hombre joven y le dijo: "Vé, llévalas a la ciudad." [41] Tan pronto el joven se fue, David se levantó de detrás de la montículo, se tiró boca abajo en tierra, y se inclinó tres veces. Se besaron uno al otro y lloraron juntos, pero David lloró más. Jonatán le dijo a David: "Ve en paz, porque ambos hemos jurado en el nombre del SEÑOR diciendo: 'Que El SEÑOR esté entre tú y yo, y entre mi descendencia y tu descendencia para siempre." [42] Entonces David se levantó y se fue, y Jonatán regresó a la ciudad.

Parece que David se había escondido detrás de una pila de tierra o piedras (Ver Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada).

se tiró boca abajo en tierra, y se inclinó tres veces
David se inclinó ante Jonatán, que todavía era el hijo del rey, digno de tal respeto. Además, esta fue la última vez que David se reunió con Jonatán.

Que el SEÑOR esté entre tú y yo Los posibles significados son 1) "El SEÑOR es un testigo entre tú y yo" o "El SEÑOR estará observando cómo nos tratamos el uno al otro" o 2) "Que El SEÑOR sea un testigo entre tú y yo" o "Que El SEÑOR vea cómo nos tratamos el uno al otro." Traducir como en 20:22.

Chapter 21

1 Entonces David vino a Nob para ver al sacerdote Ahimelec. Ahimelec vino tembloroso al encuentro con David y le dijo, "¿Por qué estás solo y no tienes a nadie contigo?" 2 David le dijo al sacerdote Ahimelec, "El rey me ha enviado en una misión y me ha dicho, 'No dejes saber a nadie el asunto al cual te envÍo y a lo que te he mandado'. He dirijido a los hombres jóvenes a otro lugar. 3 Ahora ¿qué tienes a la mano? Dame cinco rebanadas de pan, o lo que tengas aquí." 4 El sacerdote le contestó a David y dijo, "No hay pan común a la mano, pero hay pan santo--si es que los hombres se han guardado de mujeres." 5 David le contestó al sacerdote, "Ciertamente nos hemos guardado de mujeres en estos tres días, como es mi costumbre cuando salimos en camino. Las cosas que pertenencen a los hombres han sido apartadas aún en misiones comunes. ¡Cuanto más hoy separarán lo que les pertenece!" 6 Así que el sacerdote le dió el pan que fue separado. Por que no había pan allí, excepto el pan de la presencia, que fue removido de delante del SEÑOR, para que pudieran colocar pan caliente en su lugar en el día que fue removido. 7 Ahora uno de los siervos de Saúl estaba allí ese día, detenido ante El SEÑOR. Su nombre era Doeg el edomita, jefe de los pastores de Saúl. 8 David le dijo a Ahimelec, "¿No habrá aquí alguna lanza o espada a la mano? Porque no traje ni espada ni arma conmigo por la urgencia del asunto del rey" 9 El sacerdote dijo, "La espada de Goliat el Filisteo, a quien tú mataste en el valle de Elá, está aquí envuelta en una tela detrás del efod (ropa sacerdotal). Si la aceptas, llévatela, porque aquí no hay otra arma." David dijo, "No hay otra espada como esa; dámela." 10 David se levantó y huyó ese día de Saúl y fue a Aquis, el rey de Gat. 11 Los siervos de Aquis le dijeron, "¿No es este David, rey de la tierra? ¿No cantaban acerca de él unos a otros en sus danzas, 'Saúl ha matado sus miles, y David sus diez miles?' 12 David llevó estas palabras al corazón y temía mucho a Aquis, el rey de Gat. 13 Cambió su manera de comportarse delante de ellos y se hizo pasar por loco en su presencia; escribió marcas en las puertas del portón y dejó su saliva bajar por su barba. 14 Entonces Aquis dijo a sus sirvientes, "Miren, no ven ustedes que el hombre está loco. ¿Por qué me lo han traído a mí? 15 ¿Acaso me faltan locos, para que me hayan traído este que se comporte como uno en mi presencia? ¿Realmente vendrá este a entrar a mi casa?

1 Samuel 21:3

Ahora
David está comenzando una nueva parte de la conversación.

¿qué tienes a la mano?
Aquí "a la mano" es una figura literaria

Dame cinco rebanadas de pan
Esta es una solicitud cortés.

pan común
Pan que los sacerdotes no han usado en la adoración.

pan santo
Pan que los sacerdotes han usado en la adoración.

si es que los hombres se han guardado de mujeres Esto puede traducirse como una oración completa. Traducción Alterna: "Sus hombres pueden comerlo si no se han acostado con mujeres recientemente"

1 Samuel 21:5

nos hemos guardado de mujeres Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nos hemos mantenido alejados de las mujeres" tres días

"3 días"

cuando salimos en camino
"cuando empiezo un viaje"

Las cosas que pertenencen a los hombres han sido apartadas Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los hombres han separado lo que les pertenece"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cuánto más hoy separarán lo que les pertenece Esto es una declaración, no una pregunta. Se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Es especialmente cierto hoy que separarán lo que tienen"

el pan que fue separado Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el pan que los sacerdotes habían apartado" que fue removido de delante del SEÑOR, para que pudieran colocar Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que los sacerdotes habían quitado de delante del SEÑOR para que pudieran poner"

valle de Elá
Este es el nombre de un lugar en Israel.

1 Samuel 21:10

No es este David, rey de la tierra?
Probablemente estaban exagerando cuando dijeron que David era el rey de la tierra. Utilizaron esta pregunta para dar a entender que David era un enemigo poderoso y Aquis no debía dejar que se quedara allí. Traducción Alterna: "Sabes que este es David, que es tan peligroso como el rey de la tierra"

No cantaban acerca de él unos a otros en sus danzas... miles Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Sabes que cuando la gente de la tierra estaba bailando, se cantaban unos a otros sobre él, 'Saul... miles'"

1 Samuel 21:12

David llevó estas palabras al corazón
Aquí "se tomó ... en serio" es una figura literaria

en su presencia
Aquí las "manos" es una figura literaria

1 Samuel 21:14

¿Por qué me lo han traído a mí?
Los posibles significados son 1) Aquis exige que sus sirvientes expliquen por qué le han traído a David o 2) Aquis los está regañando con una pregunta retórica. Traducción Alterna: "Deberías haber sabido que no debías traerlo a mí".

¿Acaso me faltan locos, para que me hayan traído este que se comporte como uno en mi presencia?
Esta pregunta retórica es una reprimenda. Traducción Alterna: "Hay suficientes locos aquí que pierden mi tiempo. No deberías haber llevado a este tipo a comportarse como uno en mi presencia".

¿Realmente vendrá este a entrar a mi casa?
Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No permitas que este tipo entre en mi casa".

Chapter 22

1 David se fue de allí y se escapó a la cueva de Adulam. Cuando sus hermanos y toda la casa de su padre lo supieron, ellos bajaron hacia allá con él. 2 Todos los que estaban afligidos, todos los que estaban endeudados y todos los que estaban descontentos-- todos ellos se reunieron con él. David se convirtió en el capitán sobre ellos. Habían cuatrocientos hombres con él. 3 Entonces David se fue de allí hacia Mizpa en Moab. Él le djo al rey de Moab: "Por favor deja a mi padre y a mi madre irse contigo hasta que yo sepa lo que Dios hará por mí. 4 Él los dejó con el rey de Moab. Su padre y madre se quedaron con él todo el tiempo que David estuvo en su refugio. 5 Luego el profeta Gad le dijo a David: "No te quedes en tu refugio. Sal y ve a la tierra de Judá." Así que David se fue de allí y entró al bosque de Haret. 6 Saúl escuchó que David había sido descubierto, junto con los hombres que estaban con él. Ahora Saúl estaba sentado en Guibeá, debajo de un árbol de tamarisco en Ramá, con su lanza en la mano, y todos sus sirvientes estaban de pie alrededor de él. 7 Saúl le dijo a sus sirvientes quienes estaban de pie alrededor de él: "¡Escuchen ahora, gente de Benjamín! ¿El hijo de Isaí le dará a cada uno de ustedes campos y viñas? ¿Los hará a todos ustedes capitanes de miles y capitanes de cientos, 8 a cambio de que todos ustedes conspiren en contra de mí? Ninguno de ustedes me ha informado cuando mi hijo ha hecho un pacto con el hijo de Isaí. Ninguno de ustedes tiene pena por mí. Ninguno de ustedes me informa que mi hijo ha incitado a mi siervo David en contra mía. Hoy él se esconde y espera por mí para poder atacarme." 9 Entonces Doeg el edomita, quien estaba junto a los sirvientes de Saúl, respondió: "Yo vi al hijo de Isaí venir a Nob, a Ahimelec hijo de Ahitob. 10 Él oró al SEÑOR para que Él pudiera ayudarlo, y le dió alimentos y la espada de Goliat el Filisteo." 11 Entonces el rey envió a alguien a llamar al sacerdote Ahimelec, hijo de Ahitob y toda la familia de su padre, los sacerdotes que estaban en Nob. Todos ellos vinieron al rey. 12 Saúl dijo: "Escuche ahora, hijo de Ahitob." Él contestó: "Aquí estoy, mi señor." 13 Saúl le dijo a él: "¿Por qué has conspirado en contra de mí, tú y el hijo de Isaí, en que tú le has dado pan y una espada y has orado a Dios para que Él lo ayude, para que se levante contra mí, para esconderse en secreto como él ha hecho hoy?" 14 Entonces Ahimelec le contestó al rey y dijo: "¿Quién entre todos tus sirvientes es tan fiel como David, quien es el yerno del rey, jefe de tu guardia y es honrado en tu casa?" 15 ¿Es hoy la primera vez que yo he orado a Dios para ayudarlo? ¡Lejos esté esto de mí! No deje el rey culpar de algo a su siervo ni a toda la familia de mi padre. Porque su siervo no sabe nada sobre este asunto." 16 El rey contestó: "Tú seguramente morirás, Ahimelec, tú y toda la familia de tu padre." 17 El rey le dijo a la guardia que estaba de pie alrededor de él: "Dense vuelta y maten los sacerdotes del SEÑOR. Porque la mano de ellos también está con David, y porque ellos sabían que él había huído, pero no me lo dijeron." Pero los sirvientes del rey no mataron a los sacerdotes del SEÑOR. 18 Entonces el rey le dijo a Doeg: "Date vuelta y mata a los sacerdotes." Así que Doeg el edomita giró y atacó los sacerdotes; él mató a ochenta y cinco personas que vestían un efod (ropas sacerdotales) de lino ese día. 19 Con el filo de la espada, él atacó a Nob, la ciudad de los sacerdotes, tanto hombres como mujeres, niños e infantes, y bueyes y burros y ovejas. Él los mató a todos con el filo de la espada. 20 Pero uno de los hijos de Ahimelec, hijo de Ahitob, llamado Abiatar, escapó y huyó tras David. 21 Abiatar le dijo a David que Saúl había matado a los sacerdotes del SEÑOR. 22 David le dijo a Abiatar: "Ese día yo sabía que cuando Doeg el edomita estaba allí, que él seguramente le diría a Saúl. ¡Yo soy responsable por cada muerte en la familia de tu padre! 23 Quédate conmigo y no tengas miedo. Porque el que busca tu vida, busca la mía también. Tú estarás seguro conmigo."

Chapter 23

1 Le dijeron a David: "Mira, los Filisteos están peleando en contra de Keila y están robando las eras." 2 Así que David le oró al SEÑOR por ayuda y le preguntó: "¿Debo ir y atacar a estos Filisteos?" El SEÑOR le dijo a David: "Ve y ataca a los Filisteos y salva a Keila." 3 Los hombres de David le dijeron a él: "Mira, tenemos miedo aquí en Judá. ¿Cuánto más entonces, si nosotros vamos a Keila en contra del ejército de los Filisteos?" 4 Entonces David oró al SEÑOR por ayuda una vez más. El SEÑOR le contestó: "Levántate, baja a Keila. Porque yo te daré victoria sobre los Filisteos." 5 David y sus hombres fueron a Keila y pelearon con los Filisteos. Él llevó lejos su ganado y los atacó con un gran matanza. Así que David salvó los habitantes de Keila. 6 Cuando Abiatar, hijo de Ahimelec, huyó hacia David en Keila, él bajó con un efod (ropa sacerdotal) en su mano. 7 Saúl fue avisado que David había ido a Keila. Saúl dijo: "Dios me lo ha entregado en mis manos. Pues él está encerrado, porque ha entrado a una ciudad que tiene puertas y barras." 8 Saúl convocó todas sus fuerzas para batalla, para bajar a Keila, para cercar a David y sus hombres. 9 David supo que Saúl estaba planeando daño en su contra. Él le dijo a Abiatar el sacerdote: "Trae el efod (ropa sacerdotal) aquí." 10 Entonces David dijo: "SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, tu siervo en efecto ha oído que Saúl busca venir a Keila, para destruir la ciudad por mi causa. 11 ¿Acaso los hombres de Keila, me entregarán en su mano? ¿Vendrá Saúl, como tu siervo ha oído? SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, te suplico, por favor dile a tu siervo." El SEÑOR dijo: "Él vendrá." 12 Entonces David dijo: "¿Acaso los hombres de Keila, me entregarán a mis hombres y a mí en manos de Saúl?" El SEÑOR dijo: "Ellos te entregarán." 13 Entonces David y sus hombres, quienes eran como seiscientos, se levantaron y se alejaron de Keila, y fueron de un lugar a otro. Le dijeron a Saúl que David había escapado de Keila, y él detuvo su persecución. 14 David se quedó en los refugios en el desierto, en la zona montañosa, en el desierto de Zif. Saúl lo buscó cada día, pero Dios no se lo entregó en su mano. 15 David vió que Saúl había salido a quitarle la vida; ahora David estaba en el desierto de Zif en Hores. 16 Entonces Jonatán, hijo de Saúl, se levantó y fue donde David en Hores, y lo fortaleció a confiar en Dios. 17 Él le dijo: "No tengas miedo. Pues la mano de Saúl, mi padre, no te encontrará. Serás rey sobre Israel, y yo estaré junto a ti. Saúl, mi padre, también sabe esto." 18 Ellos hicieron un pacto ante El SEÑOR. David permaneció en Hores, y Jonatán se fue a casa. 19 Entonces los zifeos vinieron a Saúl en Guibeá y dijeron: "¿Acaso no está David escondiéndose entre nosotros en los refugios de Hores, en la colina de Haquila, la cual está al sur de Jesimón? 20 ¡Baja ahora, rey! ¡De acuerdo a tu deseo, baja! Nuestra parte será entregarlo en las manos del rey." 21 Saúl dijo: "Que sean bendecidos por El SEÑOR. Porque han tenido compasión de mí. 22 Vayan, asegúrense aún más. Busquen y descubran dónde está el lugar de su escondite y quién lo ha visto allí. Me han dicho que él es muy astuto. 23 Así que miren, y busquen todos los lugares en donde él se esconde. Vuelvan a mí con información verdadera, y entonces yo regresaré con ustedes. Si él está en la tierra, yo lo buscaré entre todos los hombres de Judá." 24 Se levantaron y fueron a Zif delante de Saúl. Ahora David y sus hombres estaban en el desierto de Maón, en el Arabá al sur de Jesimón. 25 Saúl y sus hombres fueron en su busca. Y a David le dijeron de ello, así que bajó a una colina rocosa y vivió en el desierto de Maón. Cuando Saúl escuchó de ello, él persiguió a David en el desierto de Maón. 26 Saúl iba por un lado de la montaña y David y sus hombres iban por el otro lado de la montaña. David se apuró para alejarse de Saúl. Mientras Saúl y sus hombres estaban rodeando a David y sus hombres para capturarlos, 27 un mensajero vino a donde estaba Saúl y le dijo: "Apúrate y ven, porque los Filisteos han atacado tu país." 28 Así que Saúl regresó de perseguir a David y fue en contra de los Filisteos. Por lo tanto ese lugar fue llamado la Roca de Escape. 29 David subió de allí y vivió en los refugios de En Gadi.

Chapter 24

1 Cuando Saúl regresó de perseguir a los Filisteos, le dijeron: "David está en el desierto de En Gadi." 2 Entonces Saúl tomó a tres mil hombres escogidos de todo Israel y se fue a buscar a David y a sus hombres en los peñascos de las cabras monteses. 3 Él llegó a un corral de ovejas por el camino, en donde había una cueva. Saúl se fue adentro de la cueva para hacer sus necesidades. Ahora, David y sus hombres estaban sentados bien atrás dentro de la cueva. 4 Los hombres de David le dijeron a él: "Este es el día del cual El SEÑOR habló, cuando él te dijo: 'Yo te entregaré a tu enemigo en tus manos, para que hagas con él como tú quieras." Luego, David se levantó y silenciosamente se arrastró hacia adelante y cortó el borde del manto de Saúl. 5 Despúes de esto, el corazón de David lo afligió porque él le había cortado el borde del manto de Saúl. 6 Él le dijo a sus hombres: "Qué El SEÑOR no permita que yo haga tal cosa a mi rey, el ungido del SEÑOR, que yo le haga daño, viendo que él es el ungido del SEÑOR." 7 Así que David regañó a sus hombres con estas palabras, y no les dejó atacar a Saúl. Saúl se puso de pie, salió de la cueva, y continuó su camino. 8 Después de esto, David también se puso de pie, dejó la cueva, y llamó a Saúl: "Mi señor rey." Cuando Saúl miró detrás de él, David se inclinó con su rostro hacia la tierra y le mostró sus respetos. 9 David le dijo a Saúl: "¿Por qué escuchas a los hombres que dicen: 'Mira, ¿David está buscando lastimarte?' 10 Hoy tus ojos han visto cómo El SEÑOR te puso en mi mano cuando estábamos en la cueva. Algunos me dijeron que te matara, pero yo te perdoné. Yo dije: 'Yo no haré algo en contra de mi rey; porque es el ungido del SEÑOR.' 11 Mira, padre mío, mira el borde de tu manto en mis manos. Porque por el hecho de que corté el borde de tu manto y no te maté, tú puedes saber y ver que no hay maldad o traición en mi mano, y yo no he pecado contra ti, a pesar de que tú buscas mi vida para matarme. 12 Qué El SEÑOR juzgue entre tú y yo, y que El SEÑOR me vengue en contra de ti, pero mi mano no estará en contra de ti. 13 Como el proverbio de los antiguos dice: ´De entre los malvados viene la maldad. ´ Pero mi mano no estará en contra de ti. 14 ¿Detrás de quién ha salido el rey de Israel? ¿A quién persigues? ¡A un perro muerto! ¡A una pulga! 15 Qué El SEÑOR sea el juez y juzgue entre tú y yo, y lo vea, y defienda mi causa y me permita escapar de tu mano." 16 Cuando David había terminado de hablar estas palabras a Saúl, Saúl dijo: "¿Es ésta tu voz, mi hijo David?" Saúl levantó su voz y lloró. 17 Él le dijo a David: "Tú eres más justo de lo que yo soy. Porque me has pagado con bien, cuando yo te he pagado con mal. 18 Tú has declarado hoy cómo me has hecho bien, pues no me mataste cuando El SEÑOR me puso en tu mano. 19 Porque si un hombre encuentra a su enemigo, ¿lo dejará ir a salvo? Qué El SEÑOR te recompense con bien por lo que me has hecho hoy. 20 Yo sé que seguramente tú serás rey y que el reino de Israel será establecido en tu mano. 21 Júrame por El SEÑOR que no matarás a mi familia, y que tú no destruirás mi nombre fuera de la casa de mi padre." 22 Así que David le hizo un juramento a Saúl. Después Saúl se fue a su casa, pero David y sus hombres subieron a su escondite.

Chapter 25

1 Samuel murió. Todo Israel se reunió y lloró por él, y ellos lo sepultaron en su casa en Ramá. Luego David se levantó y bajó al desierto de Parán. 2 Hubo un hombre en Maón, cuya riqueza estaba en Carmel. El hombre era muy rico. Él tenía tres mil ovejas y mil cabras. Él estaba trasquilando sus ovejas en Carmel. 3 El nombre del hombre era Nabal, y el nombre de su esposa era Abigail. La mujer era inteligente y hermosa en apariencia. Pero el hombre era duro y malo en sus tratos. Él era descendiente de la casa de Caleb. 4 David escuchó en el desierto que Nabal estaba trasquilando sus cabras. 5 Así que David envió diez hombres jóvenes, "Suban a Carmel, vayan a Nabal, y salúdenlo en mi nombre. 6 Ustedes le dirán, 'Vive en prosperidad. Paz sea para ti y paz a tu casa, y paz sea a todo lo que tienes. 7 Escuché que tienes esquiladores. Tus pastores han estado con nosotros, y no les hicimos daño, y ellos no perdieron nada en todo el tiempo que estuvieron en Carmel. 8 Pregúntale a tus sirvientes, y ellos te dirán. Ahora deja que mis sirvientes encuentren gracia ante tus ojos, pues hemos llegado en un día festivo. Por favor ofrece lo que tienes a la mano a tus sirvientes y a tu hijo David.'" 9 Cuando los hombres jóvenes de David llegaron, ellos le dijeron todo esto a Nabal de parte de David y luego esperaron. 10 Nabal contestó a los sirvientes de David, "¿Quién es David? ¿Y quién es el hijo de Isaí? Hay muchos sirvientes en estos días que huyen de sus amos. 11 ¿Debería yo tomar mi pan y mi agua y mi carne la que he matado para mis esquiladores, y dárselas a hombres que vienen de no sé donde?" 12 Así que los hombres jóvenes de David regresaron, y le dijeron todo lo que les fue dicho. 13 David les dijo a sus hombres, "Cada hombre amarre su espada". Y cada hombre se amarró su espada. David también se amarró su espada. Como cuatrocientos hombres siguieron detrás de David, y doscientos se quedaron con el equipaje. 14 Pero uno de los hombres jóvenes le dijo a Abigail, la esposa de Nabal; él dijo, "David envió mensajeros hacia el desierto para saludar a nuestro amo, y él los insultó. 15 Sin embargo los hombres fueron muy buenos con nosotros. Nosotros no fuimos dañados y no perdimos nada mientras estuvimos con ellos cuando estábamos en los campos. 16 Ellos fueron una protección para nosotros día y noche, mientras estábamos con ellos atendiendo a las ovejas. 17 Por lo tanto conoce esto y piensa lo que harás, puesto que mal se ha tramado en contra de nuestro amo, y en contra de toda su casa. Él es un hombre despreciable con quien uno no puede razonar." 18 Luego Abigail se apresuró y tomó doscientos panes, dos botellas de vino, cinco ovejas ya preparadas, cinco medidas de granos tostados, cien racimos de pasas, y doscientos panes de higos, y los puso en los burros. 19 Ella le dijo a sus sirvientes, "Vayan primero que yo, y yo iré tras de ustedes." Pero ella no le dijo a su esposo Nabal. 20 Mientras ella montó en su burro y bajaba de la montaña, David y sus hombres bajaron hacia ella, y ella se encontró con ellos. 21 Ahora David había dicho, "Ciertamente en vano yo he guardado todo lo que este hombre tiene en el desierto, para que nada se perdiera de todo lo que le pertenece a él, y él me ha devuelto mal por bien. 22 Que Dios me lo haga a mí, David, y más también, si en la mañana queda con vida un varón de todo lo que pertenece a él." 23 Cuando Abigail vió a David, ella se apuró y bajó de su burro y se inclinó ante David y postró su cabeza en el suelo. 24 Ella se puso a sus pies y dijo, "Sólo sobre mí, mi amo, sea la culpa. Por favor deja que tu sirviente hable, y escucha las palabras de tu sirvienta. 25 No dejes que mi amo considere a este hombre despreciable, Nabal, pues como es su nombre, así es él. Nabal es su nombre, y la locura está con él. Pero yo, tu sirvienta no ví a los hombres jóvenes de mi amo, a quienes tú enviaste. 26 Ahora pues, mi amo, así como El SEÑOR vive, y tú vives, que El SEÑOR te ha evitado de derramar sangre, y de vengarte tú mismo con tu propia mano, ahora deja que tus enemigos, y aquellos que buscan hacer mal a mi amo, sean como Nabal. 27 Este regalo que tu sirvienta ha traido a mi amo que sea entregado a los sirvientes que siguen a mi amo. 28 Por favor perdona el pecado de tu sirviente, puesto que El SEÑOR ciertamente hará una casa segura a mi amo, porque mi amo está peleando las batallas del SEÑOR; y mal no será encontrado en tí mientras vivas. 29 Y aunque los hombres se levantan a perseguirte y quitarte la vida, aun así la vida de mi amo estará guardada en el grupo de los que viven por El SEÑOR tu Dios; y Él lanzará lejos las vidas de tus enemigos, como del bolsillo de una honda. 30 Cuando El SEÑOR haya hecho por mi amo todas las cosas buenas que Él te ha prometido, y te haya hecho el líder sobre Israel, 31 este asunto no te traerá tristeza, no será ofensa a mi amo, pues no has derramado sangre sin causa, y no te has vengado tú mismo. Y cuando El SEÑOR haga lo bueno para mi amo, recuerda a tu sirvienta." 32 David le dijo a Abigail, "Que El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, sea bendecido, Él quien te envió a mi encuentro. 33 Y tu sabiduría es bendecida, y tú eres bendecida, porque no me has permitido derramar sangre sin causa, y tomar venganza con mi propia mano. 34 Ciertamente como El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, vive, El que me ha impedido hacerte daño, a no ser que tú te apresuraras a encontrarme, ciertamente no hubiera quedado varón o niño a Nabal en la mañana." 35 Así que David recibió de su mano lo que ella le había traído; él le dijo a ella, "Sube en paz a tu casa; Yo he escuchado tu voz y te he aceptado a tí." 36 Abigail volvió a Nabal; miren, él estaba celebrando un banquete en su casa, como el banquete de un rey; y el corazón de Nabal estaba alegre con él mismo, pues él estaba muy borracho. Así que ella no le dijo nada hasta la luz de la mañana. 37 Fue en la mañana, cuando a Nabal se le habían pasado los efectos del vino, que su esposa le dijo estas cosas; su corazón murió en él, y él se volvió como una piedra. 38 Fue como diez días más tarde que El SEÑOR hirió a Nabal así que murió. 39 Y cuando David escuchó que Nabal estaba muerto, el dijo, "Que El SEÑOR sea bendecido, quien ha tomado la causa de mi insulto de las manos de Nabal, y ha guardado su siervo de mal. Y Él le devolvió la acción malvada a Nabal sobre sí". Luego David envió y habló a Abigail, para tomarla como su esposa. 40 Cuando los sirvientes de David llegaron donde Abigail en Carmel, ellos hablaron a ella y dijeron, "David nos envió hacia tí para tomarte para él como su esposa." 41 Ella se levantó, se inclinó con su rostro a tierra, y dijo, "Mira, tu sierva es una sirvienta para limpiar los pies de los siervos de mi amo." 42 Abigail se apresuró y se levantó, y montó en un burro con cinco sirvientas de ella quienes la siguieron; y ella siguió a los mensajeros de David y se volvió su esposa. 43 David también tomó a Ahinoam de Jezreel como esposa; ambas se volvieron sus esposas. 44 También, Saúl le había entregado a Mical su hija, esposa de David, a Palti hijo de Lais, que era de Galim.

1 Samuel 25:41

Ella se levantó, se inclinó
Abigail respondió inclinándose. El lector debe entender que probablemente ya estaba de pie cuando los hombres le estaban hablando a ella en 25:39, por lo que la palabra "levantó" es una figura literaria

Mira, tu sirvienta hembra es una siervienta para limpiar los pies de los siervos de mi amo Abigail habla como si fuera otra persona para demostrar que es humilde. Ella muestra que desea ser la nueva esposa de David ofreciéndose a lavar los pies de los siervos de David. Traducción Alterna: "Miren, les serviré, siervos de mi maestro David, lavándoles los pies"

se apresuró y se levantó, y montó
Es posible que deba hacer explícito lo que Abigail hizo después de que ella se levantó y antes de que ella montara. Traducción Alterna: "rápidamente hizo lo que tenía que hacer para prepararse para el viaje, y luego montó"

cinco sirvientas mujeres de ella quienes la siguieron
Abigail estaba montando un burro, pero las criadas caminaban.

Chapter 26

1 Los zifeos vinieron a Saúl en Guibeá y dijeron: "¿No está David escondiendose en la colina de Haquila, que está antes de Jesimón?" 2 Entonces Saúl se levantó y bajó hacia el desierto de Zif, teniendo tres mil hombres escojidos de Israel con él, para buscar a David en el desierto de Zif. 3 Saúl acampó en la colina de Haquila, que está antes de Jesimón, en el camino. Pero David se estaba quedando en el desierto, y él vió que Saúl venía tras de él en el desierto. 4 Así que David envió espías y supó que Saúl ciertamente había venido. 5 David se levantó y fue al lugar donde Saúl había acampado; el vió el lugar donde estaban acostados Saúl y Abner hijo de Ner, el general de su ejército; Saúl se acostó en el campamento, y la gente acampó alrededor de él, todos dormían. 6 Entonces David le dijo a Ahimelec el hitita, y a Abisai hijo de Sarvia, hermano de Joab: "¿Quién irá abajo conmigo hacia Saúl en el campamento?" Abisai dijo: "¡Yo! Yo iré abajo contigo." 7 Así es que David y Abisai fueron hacia el ejército en la noche. Y allí estaba Saúl dormido adentro del campamento, con su lanza enterrada en la tierra al lado de su cabeza. Abner y sus soldados estaban acostados alrededor de él. 8 Entonces Abisai dijo a David: "Hoy Dios ha puesto tu enemigo en tu mano. Ahora por favor déjame que lo clave a la tierra con la lanza con tan solo un golpe. No le golpearé por segunda vez." 9 David le dijo a Abisai: "No lo destruyas; porque ¿quién puede levantar su mano contra el ungido del SEÑOR y ser inocente?" 10 David dijo: "Como vive El SEÑOR, El SEÑOR lo matará, o su día de muerte vendrá, o él irá a la batalla y morirá." 11 Que El SEÑOR no deje que yo levante mi mano contra Su ungido; pero ahora, yo te ruego, toma la lanza que está a su cabeza y la jarra de agua, y vámonos." 12 Así que David tomó la lanza y la jarra de agua que estaban cerca de la cabeza de Saúl, y se escaparon. Nadie los vió ni supieron de esto, tampoco nadie se despertó, porque todos estaban durmiendo, porque un sueño profundo del SEÑOR había caído sobre ellos. 13 Entonces David fue al otro lado y se paró en la cima de la montaña a lo lejos; había una gran distacia entre ellos. 14 David gritó a la gente y a Abner hijo de Ner; él dijo: "¿No contestas, Abner?" Entonces Abner contestó y dijo: "¿Quién eres tú que estás gritándole al rey?" 15 David dijo a Abner: "¿No eres tú un hombre valiente? ¿Quién es como tú en Israel? ¿Por qué entonces no guardaste vigilia sobre tu amo el rey? Pues alguien vino a matar a tu amo el rey. 16 Esto que has hecho no es bueno. Como vive El SEÑOR, tú mereces morir porque tú no has guardado vigilia sobre tu amo, el ungido del SEÑOR. Y ahora mira dónde está la lanza del rey, y la jarra de agua que estuvo junto a su cabeza." 17 Saúl reconoció la voz de David y dijo: "¿Es esa tu voz, David hijo mío?" David dijo: "Es mi voz, mi amo, rey." 18 Él dijo: "¿Por qué persigue mi amo a su siervo? ¿Qué he hecho yo? ¿Qué maldad hay en mi mano? 19 Ahora por lo tanto, te ruego, permita mi amo el rey escuchar las palabras de su siervo. Si ha sido El SEÑOR quien te ha puesto en mi contra, permita Él aceptar una ofrenda; pero si es de hombres, que sean malditos a la vista del SEÑOR, porque hoy me han expulsado, para que no tenga parte de la herencia del SEÑOR; ellos me han dicho: 'Ve a adorar otros dioses.' 20 Ahora por lo tanto, no permitas que mi sangre caiga en tierra lejos de la presencia del SEÑOR; porque el rey de Israel ha salido en búsqueda de la pulga como cuando uno caza una perdiz en las montañas." 21 Entonces dijo Saúl: "Yo he pecado. Regresa, David, hijo mío; porque no te haré daño de aquí en adelante, porque hoy ha sido estimada mi vida preciosa ante tus ojos. Mira, yo he actuado como un tonto y he cometido un error muy grave." 22 David contestó y dijo: "¡Ve, tu lanza está aquí, rey! Permite que uno de los hombres jóvenes venga acá y la busque y te la lleve. 23 Que El SEÑOR pague a cada hombre por su justicia y su fidelidad; porque El SEÑOR te puso en mi mano hoy, pero yo no heriría a Su ungido. 24 Y mira, como tu vida fué preciosa en mis ojos hoy, que así mi vida sea muy valorada en los ojos del SEÑOR, y que Él me rescate de toda dificultad." 25 Entonces Saúl le dijo a David: "Que seas bendecido, David hijo mío, de tal manera que hagas grandes cosas, y que en todo tengas éxito." Así David fue por su camino, y Saúl regresó a su lugar.

Chapter 27

1 David dijo en su corazón: "Un día moriré por manos de Saúl; no hay nada mejor para mí que escapar a la tierra de los Filisteos; Saúl se dará por vencido en buscarme más adentro de todas las fronteras de Israel; de esta manera escaparé fuera de su mano." 2 David se levantó y se fue con los seiscientos hombres que estaban con él, a Aquis hijo de Maoc, rey de Gat. 3 David vivió con Aquis en Gat, él y sus hombres, cada cual con su propia casa y David con sus dos esposas, Ahinoam la Jezreelita, y Abigail la de Carmel, esposa de Nabal. 4 Le dijeron a Saúl que David había huído a Gat, así que no lo buscó más. 5 David le dijo a Aquis: "Si he hallado gracia en tus ojos, permite que me den un lugar en una de las ciudades en el campo, para que yo pueda vivir allí: ¿Porqué, para qué debe de vivir tu siervo contigo en la ciudad real?" 6 Así que Aquis le entregó Siclag aquel día; por eso es que Siclag pertenece a los reyes de Judá hasta este día. 7 El número de días que David vivió en la tierra de los Filisteos fue un año completo y cuatro meses. 8 David y sus hombres atacaron varios lugares y tomando propiedades contra los guesuritas, los guerzitas, y los amalecitas; porque de esas naciones eran los habitantes de la tierra de Shur, tan lejos como la tierra de Egipto. Ellos habían estado viviendo allí en la tierra desde tiempos antiguos. 9 David atacaba la tierra y no salvaba ni hombre ni mujer vivos; se llevaba las ovejas, los bueyes, los burros, los camellos, y las ropas; y regresaba otra vez a Aquis. 10 Aquis diría, "¿En contra de quién has tomado propiedades hoy?" David contestaba, "En contra del sur de Judá," o "En contra del sur de Jerameel," o "En contra del sur de los quenitas." 11 David no se quedaba ni con hombre ni con mujer vivos para traerlos a Gat, diciendo, "Para que no puedan hablar sobre nosotros, 'David hizo tal y tal." Esto era lo que él hacía todo el tiempo que vivió en el país de los Filisteos. 12 Aquis le creyó a David, diciendo, "Él ha provocado que su pueblo de Israel lo aborrezca completamente; por lo tanto él será mi sirviente para siempre."

Chapter 28

1 Y sucedió en aquellos días que los Filisteos reunieron sus ejércitos para hacer batalla con el pueblo de Israel. Aquis le dijo a David, "Ten por cierto que tú saldrás conmigo en el ejército, tú y tus hombres." 2 David le dijo a Aquis, "Así sabrás lo que tu siervo puede hacer." Aquis le dijo a David, "Entonces te haré mi guardaespaldas por siempre." 3 Ahora Samuel había muerto, y todo Israel lo había lamentado y sepultado en Ramá, en su propia ciudad. También, Saúl había echado de la tierra a aquellos que hablaban con los muertos o con espíritus. 4 Entonces los Filisteos se reunieron y vinieron y acamparon en Sunem; y Saúl reunió a todo Israel, y ellos acamparon en Gilboa. 5 Cuando Saúl vio el ejército de los Filisteos, él tenía miedo, y su corazón tembló mucho. 6 Saúl oró al SEÑOR por ayuda, pero El SEÑOR no le contestó--ni en sueños, ni por el Urim, ni por profetas. 7 Entonces Saúl dijo a sus siervos, "Encuentren para mí una mujer que habla con los muertos, para que yo vaya a ella y encuentre consejo en ella. "Sus siervos le dijeron, "Mira, hay una mujer en Endor que dice que habla con los muertos." 8 Saúl se disfrazó, se puso otras ropas, y fueron dos hombres con él; ellos fueron a la mujer en la noche. Él le dijo, "Adivina para mí, te suplico, con un espirítu, y tráeme quien sea que yo te nombre." 9 La mujer le dijo, "Tú sabes lo que Saúl ha hecho, como él ha prohibido en el país aquellos que hablan con los muertos o los espíritus. Entonces ¿por qué pones una trampa a mi vida, para que muera?" 10 Saúl le juró a ella por El SEÑOR y le dijo, "Así como vive El SEÑOR, ningún castigo te sucederá a ti por esto." 11 Entonces la mujer dijo, "¿A quién te debo traer?" Saúl dijo, "Trae a Samuel para mí." 12 Cuando la mujer vio a Samuel, ella lloró en voz alta y habló a Saúl, diciendo, "¿Por qué me has engañado? Tú eres Saúl." 13 El rey le dijo a ella, "No tengas miedo. ¿Qué ves?" la mujer le dijo a Saúl, "veo a un dios que sube desde la tierra." 14 Él le dijo a ella, "¿Cómo se ve él?" Ella dijo, "Un hombre viejo está subiendo; está vestido con una túnica." Saúl percibió que era Samuel, y se postró con su cara en el suelo y le mostró respeto. 15 Samuel le dijo a Saúl, "¿Por qué me has perturbado y me has traído arriba?" Saúl contestó, "Estoy muy preocupado, pues los FIlisteos están haciendo guerra contra mí, y Dios me ha dejado y no me ha contestado más, ni por los profetas, ni por sueños. Por lo tanto te he llamado a tí, para que me digas qué debo hacer." 16 Samuel dijo, "¿Para qué entonces me preguntas a mí, si El SEÑOR te ha dejado, y Él ha llegado a ser tu enemigo? 17 El SEÑOR te ha hecho a ti lo que Él dijo que haría. El SEÑOR ha arrebatado el reino de tu mano y lo ha entregado a alguien más a David''. 18 Porque tú no obedeciste la voz del SEÑOR y no llevaste a cabo su venganza sobre Amalec, Él entonces te ha hecho ésto hoy. 19 Más aún, El SEÑOR entregará a Israel y a tí en las manos de los Filisteos. Mañana tú y tus hijos estarán conmigo. El SEÑOR también entregará el ejército de Israel en la mano de los Filisteos." 20 Entonces Saúl inmediatamente cayó al suelo y tenía mucho miedo por las palabras de Samuel. No había fuerzas en él, pues no había comido en todo aquel día, ni tampoco aquella noche. 21 La mujer vino a Saúl y vió que él estaba muy preocupado, ella le dijo, "Mira, tu sierva ha esuchado tu voz; Y he puesto mi vida en peligro y yo he escuchado las palabras que me has hablado. 22 Ahora, te ruego a ti, escucha también la voz de tu sierva, y déjame poner un poco de comida delante de ti. Come para que puedas recuperar fuerzas para cuando te vayas en tu camino. 23 Pero Saúl negó y dijo, "Yo no comeré." Pero sus siervos, junto con la mujer, le insistían, y él escuchó sus voces. Así que él se levantó del suelo y se sentó en la cama. 24 La mujer tenía un becerro gordo en la casa; ella se apresuró y lo mató; ella tomó harina, la amasó, horneó un pan sin levadura. 25 Ella lo trajo ante Saúl y sus siervos, y ellos comieron. Entonces ellos se levantaron y se fueron esa noche.

Chapter 29

1 Los Filisteos reunieron todo su ejército en Afec; los Israelitas acamparon junto a la corriente de agua que está en Jezreel. 2 Los príncipes de los Filisteos se dividieron por cientos y por miles; David y sus hombres pasaban a la guardia trasera con Aquis. 3 Entonces el príncipe de los Filisteos dijo, "¿Qué están haciendo estos hebreos aquí?" Aquis le dijo a los otros príncipes de los FIlisteos: "¿No es éste David, el siervo de Saúl, el rey de Israel, que ha estado conmigo en estos días, o más bien estos años, y yo no he encontrado ninguna falta en él desde que llegó a mí hasta este día?" 4 Pero los príncipes de los Filisteos estaban molestos con él; ellos le dijeron: "Haz que ese hombre se vaya, para que regrese al lugar que tú le has dado; no lo dejes ir con nosotros a la batalla, para que él no se convierta en enemigo nuestro durante la batalla. Porque ¿de qué otra forma podrá él estar en paz con su señor? ¿No será más bien con la cabeza de nuestros hombres? 5 ¿No es éste el David, de quien cantaban uno al otro danzando, diciendo: 'Saúl ha matado a sus miles, y David a sus diez mil'?" 6 Entonces Aquis llamó a David y le dijo: "Así como El SEÑOR vive, tú has sido bueno, y tu salir y entrar conmigo en el ejército es bueno delante de mis ojos; pues no he encontrado nada malo contigo desde el día que viniste a mí, hasta éste mismo día. Sin embargo, los príncipes no están a favor tuyo. 7 Así que ahora regresa y ve en paz, para que no molestes a los príncipes de los Filisteos. " 8 David le dijo a Aquis, "¿Pero qué he hecho? ¿Qué has encontrado en tu siervo desde el tiempo que he estado ante tí hasta este día, que no puedo ir a pelear en contra de los enemigos de mi señor el rey?" 9 Aquis contestó y le dijo a David: "Yo sé que no tienes falta ante mis ojos, como un ángel de Dios; sin embargo, los príncipes de los Filisteos han dicho: "Él no debe subir con nosotros a la batalla.' 10 Así que ahora levántate temprano en la mañana con los siervos de tu señor que han venido contigo; tan pronto te levantes temprano en la mañana y tengas luz, vete." 11 Así que David se levantó temprano, él y sus hombres, para irse en la mañana, para regresar a la tierra de los Filisteos. Pero los Filisteos subieron a Jezreel.

Chapter 30

1 Surgió, que cuando David y sus hombres habían llegado a Siclag en el tercer día, que los amalecitas habían hecho un ataque sobre el Neguev y en Siclag. Ellos atacaron a Siclag, lo quemaron, 2 y capturaron las mujeres y todo el que estaba en ella, tanto pequeños y grandes. No mataron a nadie, pero se los llevaron mientras seguían su camino. 3 Cuando David y sus hombres llegaron a la ciudad, estaba quemada, y sus esposas, sus hijos, y sus hijas fueron llevados cautivos. 4 Entonces David y la gente que estaba con él gritaron y lloraron hasta no tener más fuerza para llorar. 5 Las dos esposas de David fueron llevadas cautivas, Ahinoam la jezreelita y Abigail la esposa de Nabal el carmelita. 6 David estaba muy angustiado, ya que la gente estaba hablando de apedrearlo, ya que toda la gente estaba en amargura de espíritu, cada hombre por sus hijos e hijas; pero David se fortaleció en El SEÑOR, su Dios. 7 David le dijo a Abiatar hijo de Ahimelec, el sacerdote: "Te ruego, trae el efod (ropa sacerdotal) aquí para mí." Abiatar trajo el efod a David. 8 David oró al SEÑOR por dirección, diciendo: "Si persigo esta tropa, ¿los alcanzaré?" El SEÑOR le contestó: "Síguelos, porque ciertamente los alcanzarás, y con seguridad recobrarás todo." 9 Así que David fue, él y los seiscientos hombres quienes estaban con él; ellos llegaron al torrente Besor, donde algunos se quedaron ahí. 10 Pero David continuó persiguiéndoles, él y cuatrocientos hombres; ya que doscientos se quedaron atrás, quienes estaban tan débiles que ellos no podían cruzar sobre el torrente Besor. 11 Encontraron un egipcio en un campo y lo trajeron a David; le dieron pan, y él comió; le dieron agua para beber; 12 y ellos le dieron un pedazo de pan de higos y dos racimos de pasas. Cuando él hubo comido, recobró fuerzas, ya que no había comido pan ni bebido agua por tres días y tres noches. 13 David le dijo: ¿A quién perteneces tú? ¿De dónde vienes? Él dijo: "Yo soy un hombre joven de Egipto, sirviente de un amalecita; mi amo me dejó porque hace tres días yo caí enfermo. 14 Hicimos un ataque en el Neguev de los cereteos, y lo que le pertenece a Judá, y el Neguev de Caleb, y nosotros quemamos a Siclag. 15 David le dijo: "¿Me llevarás donde los asaltantes? El egipcio dijo: "Júrame por Dios que tú no me matarás o traicionarás en manos de mi amo, y yo te llevaré a estos asaltantes. 16 Cuando el egipcio hubo llevado a David, los asaltantes estaban dispersos por todo el terreno, comiendo y bebiendo y bailando por todo el botín que ellos habían tomado de la tierra de los Filisteos y de la tierra de Judá. 17 David los atacó desde la puesta de sol hasta el atardecer del próximo día. Ni un hombre escapó con excepción de cuatrocientos hombres jóvenes, quienes montaron en camellos y escaparon. 18 David recobró todo lo que los amalecitas habían tomado; y David rescató sus dos esposas. 19 Nada faltaba, ni pequeño ni grande, ni hijos ni hijas, ni botín, ni cosa alguna que los asaltantes habían tomado para ellos mismos. David trajo todo de regreso. 20 David tomó todos los rebaños y manadas, los cuales los hombres llevaban delante del otro ganado. Ellos dijeron: "Éste es el botín de David." 21 David vino donde estaban los doscientos hombres quienes habían estado muy débiles para seguirlo, los que se habían quedado en el torrente Besor. Estos hombres siguieron adelante para encontrarse con David y la gente que estaba con él. Cuando David vino a estas personas, él los saludó. 22 Entonces todos los hombres malvados y compañeros sin valor entre aquellos quienes habían ido con David dijeron: "Por que estos hombres no fueron con nosotros, no les daremos nada del botín que hemos recobrado. Excepto que cada hombre puede tomar su esposa e hijos, llevárselos, e irse." 23 Entonces David dijo: "Ustedes no deben actuar de esta manera, mis hermanos, con lo que El SEÑOR nos ha dado. Él nos ha cuidado y entregado en nuestra mano los asaltantes quienes vinieron en contra de nosotros. 24 ¿Quién los escuchará a ustedes sobre este asunto? Por cuanto la parte es para cualquiera que entre en batalla, así también será la parte para cualquier persona que espera en el equipaje; ellos compartirán de forma igual." 25 Ha sido así desde ese día hasta hoy, pues David lo hizo una ley y una norma para Israel. 26 Cuando David vino a Siclag, él envió algo del botín a los ancianos de Judá, a sus amigos, diciendo: "Aquí hay un regalo para ustedes del botín de los enemigos del SEÑOR." 27 Él también envió algo a los ancianos quienes estaban en Betel, y a aquéllos quienes estaban en Ramot del sur, y para aquellos quienes estaban en Jatir, 28 y para aquellos quienes estaban en Aroer, y para aquellos quienes estaban en Sifmot, y para aquellos quienes estaban en Estemoa. 29 Él también envió algo a los ancianos quienes estaban en Racal, y a aquéllos quienes estaban en las ciudades de los Jerameelitas, y para aquéllos quienes estaban en las ciudades de los Quenitas, 30 y para aquéllos quienes estaban en Horma, y para aquéllos quienes estaban en Corasán y para aquéllos quienes estaban en Atac, 31 y para aquéllos quienes estaban en Hebrón, y en todos los lugares donde David mismo y sus hombres habitualmente fueron.

Chapter 31

1 Los Filisteos pelearon contra Israel. Los hombres de Israel huyeron ante los Filisteos y cayeron muertos en el Monte Gilboa. 2 Los FIlisteos persiguieron a Saúl y sus hijos de cerca. Los Filisteos mataron a Jonatán, Abinadab, y Malquisúa, sus hijos. 3 La batalla fué fuerte contra Saúl, y los arqueros lo hirieron. Él estaba con fuerte dolor por lo que ellos habían hecho. 4 Luego Saúl dijo al portador de su armadura, "Saca tu espada y atraviésame con ella. Si no, estos incircuncisos vendrán y abusarán de mí." Pero su escudero no lo hacía, pues él estaba muy asustado. Así que Saúl tomó su propia espada y se dejó caer sobre ella. 5 Cuando su escudero vió que Saúl estaba muerto, él de la misma manera cayó sobre su espada y murió con él. 6 Así que Saúl murió, sus tres hijos, y el escudero; estos hombres murieron todos juntos el mismo día. 7 Cuando los hombres de Israel que estaban en el otro lado del valle, y aquéllos más allá del Jordán, vieron que los hombres de Israel habían huído, y que Saúl y sus hijos estaban muertos, ellos abandonaron sus ciudades y huyeron, y los Filisteos vinieron y vivieron en ellas. 8 Sucedió el siguiente día, cuando los Filisteos vinieron a despojar los muertos, que ellos encontraron a Saúl y a sus tres hijos muertos en el Monte Gilboa. 9 Ellos cortaron su cabeza y le quitaron su armadura, y enviaron mensajeros por toda la tierra de los Filisteos para que llevaran la noticia a los templos de sus ídolos y al pueblo. 10 Ellos colocaron su armadura en el templo de Astarot, y ataron su cuerpo al muro de la ciudad de Bet Sán. 11 Cuando los habitantes de Jabes Galaad escucharon lo que los Filisteos le habían hecho a Saúl, 12 se levantaron todos los hombres valientes y caminaron toda la noche y tomaron el cuerpo de Saúl y los cuerpos de sus hijos del muro de Bet Sán. Ellos fueron a Jabes y los quemaron allí. 13 Entonces ellos tomaron sus huesos y los sepultaron debajo de un árbol de tamarisco en Jabes, y ayunaron por siete días.

Chapter 1

1 Después de la muerte de Saúl, David regresó de atacar a los amalecitas y permaneció en Siclag por dos días. 2 Al tercer día, un hombre llegó desde el campamento de Saúl con sus vestiduras rotas y con tierra en su cabeza. Cuando él llegó donde David, se acostó de cara al suelo y se postró. 3 David le dijo: "¿De dónde vienes tú?" Él contestó: "Yo escapé del campamento de Israel." 4 David le respondió: "Por favor, dime cómo fueron las cosas." Él contestó: "El pueblo huyó de la batalla. Muchos han caído y muchos están muertos. Saúl y Jonatán, su hijo, también están muertos." 5 David le dijo al joven: " ¿Cómo sabes tú que Saúl y Jonatán, su hijo, están muertos?" 6 El joven contestó: "Por casualidad yo estaba en el Monte Gilboa, y allí Saúl estaba rescostado en su lanza y los carruajes y jinetes estaban a punto de alcanzarlo. 7 Saúl se volteó, me vio y me llamó. Yo contesté: 'Aquí estoy.' 8 Él me dijo a mí: '¿Quién eres?' Yo le contesté: "Soy un amalecita.' 9 Él me dijo: 'Por favor, párate sobre mí y mátame, pues gran sufrimiento me ha sobrecogido, pero la vida está en mí todavía. 10 Así que me paré sobre él y lo maté, porque yo sabía que él no viviría después de haber caído. Entonces, tomé la corona que estaba sobre su cabeza y la banda que estaba en su brazo y las traje aquí ante usted, mi señor." 11 Entonces, David desgarró sus vestiduras, y todos los hombres con él hicieron lo mismo. 12 Ellos se lamentaron, lloraron y ayunaron hasta el atardecer por Saúl, porJonatán su hijo, por el pueblo del SEÑOR, y por la casa de Israel, porque ellos habían caído por medio de la espada. 13 David le dijo al joven: "¿De dónde eres?" Él contestó: "Soy el hijo de un extranjero en la tierra, un amalecita." 14 David le dijo: "¿Por qué no tuviste miedo de matar al rey ungido del SEÑOR con tu propia mano?" 15 David llamó a uno de los jóvenes y dijo: "Ve y mátalo." Así que ese hombre fue y lo hirió, y el amalecita murió. 16 Luego, David le dijo al amalecita muerto: "Tu sangre está sobre tu cabeza porque tu propia boca ha testificado en contra tuya y dijo: 'He matado al rey ungido del SEÑOR.'" 17 Luego David cantó ésta canción de funeral acerca de Saúl y Jonatán, su hijo. 18 Él le ordenó al pueblo que enseñara la Canción del Arco a los hijos de Judá, la cual ha sido escrita en El Libro de Jaser. 19 "¡Tu gloria, Israel, está muerta, asesinada en tus lugares altos! ¡Cómo han caído los poderosos! 20 No lo digas en Gat, no lo proclames en las calles de Ascalón, para que las hijas de los filisteos no se regocijen, para que las hijas de los incircuncisos no celebren. 21 Montañas de Gilboa, no haya rocío o lluvia en ti, ni campos dando granos para las ofrendas, pues allí el escudo de los poderosos fue profanado. El escudo de Saúl ya no está ungido con aceite. 22 De la sangre de aquellos que fueron asesinados, de los cuerpos de los poderosos, el arco de Jonatán no retrocedió, y la espada de Saúl no regresó vacía. 23 Saúl y Jonatán fueron amados y amables en la vida, y en sus muertes no fueron separados. Ellos eran más veloces que las águilas, eran más fuertes que los leones. 24 Ustedes, hijas de Israel, lloren sobre Saúl, quien las vistió en escarlata así como con joyas, y quien puso ornamentos de oro en sus vestidos. 25 ¡Cómo han caído los poderosos en medio de la batalla! Jonatán es asesinado en tus lugares altos. 26 Yo estoy angustiado por ti, mi hermano Jonatán. Tú fuiste muy apreciado por mí. Tu amor para mí fue maravilloso, excediendo el amor de las mujeres. 27 ¡Como los poderosos han caído, y las armas de guerra perecieron!"

2 Samuel 1:1

En el tercer día
"Después de tres días"

con sus vestiduras rotas y con sucio en su cabeza En esta cultura, el que una persona desgarrara su propia ropa y ensuciara su cabeza era un acto de luto.

se acostó de cara al suelo y se postró
Este era un acto para demostrar sumisión a David, quien ahora era el rey de Israel.

2 Samuel 1:3

Muchos han caído y muchos están muertos
Los posibles significados son: 1) "Muchos fueron heridos y muchos fueron asesinados" o 2) "Muchos fueron heridos y asesinados".

Por casualidad me encontraba en
Esta expresión enfatiza que el hombre no planificó encontrarse con Saúl.

Saúl estaba apoyado sobre su lanza
Los posibles significados son: 1) Saúl estaba débil y usaba la lanza para sostenerse a sí mismo o 2) Saúl intentaba suicidarse al caer sobre su propia lanza.

2 Samuel 1:8

Él me dijo: '¿Quién eres?' Yo le contesté: 'Soy un amalecita'.
Estas citas directas pueden ser expresadas como discurso indirecto. Traducción Alterna: "Me preguntó quién era yo y le dije que soy un amalecita"

Soy un amalecita
Estas son las mismas personas que David acababa de atacar en 1: 1.

el gran sufrimiento se apoderó de mi
Se habla del sufrimiento de Saul como algo terrible que lo ha agarrado. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy sufriendo terriblemente" la vida todavía está en mí Esta expresión idiomática se refiere a que todavía está vivo. Traducción Alterna: "Todavía estoy vivo"

no viviría después de haber caído
"moriría de todos modos"

2 Samuel 1:11

David rasgó sus vestiduras... los hombres que estaban con él hicieron lo mismo.
David y sus hombres rasgaron sus vestiduras como una señal de luto por la muerte del rey Saúl.

Habían caído
Aquí esto significa que "habían sido asesinados".

por la espada
Aquí la espada es asociada con la batalla. Traducción Alterna: "en combate"

¿De dónde eres?
El hombre ya había expresado que era un amalecita en 1:8. Aparentemente, David le pide al hombre que confirme esto debido al serio juicio que David estaba a punto de declarar sobre el hombre.

2 Samuel 1:14

¿Por qué no tuviste miedo de matar al ungido del SEÑOR... mano?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para regañar al hombre. Se puede traducir como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "¡Debiste haber temido al SEÑOR y no haber matado a Su ungido... mano!"

El rey ungido del SEÑOR
Esta frase es una figura literaria

con tu propia mano Esta frase se refiere a hacer algo por ti mismo. Traducción Alterna: "tú mismo" o "personalmente"

lo hirió
Esta expresión idiomática significa "lo mató".

Tu sangre está sobre tu cabeza Aquí, "sangre" implica "derramar sangre" y se asocia con la muerte. Aquí "tu cabeza" se refiere al hombre y significa que él es responsable. Traducción Alterna: "Eres responsable por tu propia muerte" o "Has causado tu propia muerte"

tu propia boca ha testificado en contra tuya Aquí, "tu propia boca" se refiere al hombre mismo. Traducción Alterna: "has testificado contra ti mismo"

La frase "los poderosos" se refiere a Saúl y a Jonatán.

han caído
Aquí, la palabra "caído" significa "muerto"

No lo digas en Gat ... no lo proclames en las calles de Ascalón Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y se repiten como parte de la poesía de la canción.

Gat... Ascalón
Gat y Ascalón son dos de las ciudades principales de los filisteos. Los filisteos mataron a Saúl y Jonatán.

para que las hijas de los filisteos se puedan regocijar... para que las hijas de los incircuncisos no puedan celebrar Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y se repiten como parte de la poesía de la canción.

las hijas de los incircuncisos
Esta frase se refiere a las personas que no siguen al SEÑOR, como los filisteos, por ejemplo.

2 Samuel 1:21

montañas de Gilboa
David le habla directamente a las "montañas de Gilboa" como si ellas estuviesen escuchando su canción.

que no haya rocío o lluvia sobre ti
David maldice el terreno donde el rey Saúl murió en batalla. Esto fue por reverencia hacia Saúl, quien fue el rey ungido de Dios.

El escudo del poderoso fue profanado
Aquí "del poderoso" se refiere a Saúl. El escudo fue profanado porque cayó al suelo y porque la sangre del rey se derramó sobre él.

El escudo de Saúl ya no está ungido con aceite
El escudo de Saúl estaba hecho de cuero. Para cuidar el escudo se le frotó aceite. Traducción Alterna: "Ya nadie cuidará más el escudo de Saúl"

De la sangre de aquellos que han sido asesinados, de los cuerpos de los poderosos, el arco de Jonatán no retrocedió, y la espada de Saúl no regresó vacía.
Aquí, Saúl y Jonatán son presentados como guerreros feroces y valientes.

la espada de Saúl no regresó vacía
Se habla de la espada de Saúl como si fuese un ser vivo que podía regresar por sí sola. La frase "no regresó vacía" se refiere a que la espada llevaba la sangre de los enemigos a quienes Saúl mató .

2 Samuel 1:23

en sus muertes no fueron separados
La frase "no fueron separados" se usa para enfatizar que ellos siempre estuvieron juntos. Traducción Alterna: "incluso en la muerte estuvieron juntos"

Ellos eran más veloces que las águilas, eran más fuertes que los leones Se hablaba de Saúl y Jonatán como si fuesen más rápidos que las águilas y más fuertes que los leones.

quien las vistió en escarlata así como con joyas, y quien puso ornamentos de oro en sus vestidos
"quien te dio ropa bonita y joyas". Estas dos frases comparten significados similares que se enfocan en la provisión de ropa atractiva y costosa a las mujeres.

2 Samuel 1:25

Cómo han caído los poderosos en medio de la batalla Esta frase se repite en los versículos 24 y 27 para enfatizar que los mejores guerreros de Israel están muertos. Traducción Alterna: "¡Los hombres poderosos han muerto en batalla!

los poderosos
Aquí "los poderosos" puede referirse solo a Saúl y Jonatán o a todos los soldados de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "los guerreros poderosos"

han caído
Esta es una manera educada de decir "han muerto".

Jonatán es asesinado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Jonatán ha muerto en batalla" o "El enemigo ha matado a Jonatán"

en tus lugares altos
David continúa cantándole esta parte de la canción a las montañas de Gilboa así como comenzó en 1:21.

mi hermano Jonatán
Aquí "hermano" se usa en el sentido de un amigo muy cercano.

Tu amor para mí fue maravilloso, excediendo el amor de las mujeres Aquí, "amor" se usa en el sentido de la amistad y lealtad. La lealtad de Jonatán hacia David era incluso mayor que la lealtad que una mujer tiene por su esposo e hijos.

Chapter 2

1 Luego de esto, David le preguntó al SEÑOR y dijo: "¿Debo yo subir a una de las ciudades de Judá?" El SEÑOR le respondió a él: "Sube." David dijo: "¿A qué ciudad debo yo ir?" El SEÑOR respondió: "A Hebrón." 2 Entonces David subió con sus dos esposas, Ahinoham de Jezreel, y Abigail de Carmel, la viuda de Nabal. 3 David trajo los hombres que estaban con él, cada uno de los cuales trajo a su familia, a las ciudades de Hebrón, donde ellos empezaron a vivir. 4 Entonces, hombres de Judá vinieron y ungieron a David rey sobre la casa de Judá. Ellos le dijeron a David: "Los hombres de Jabes Galaad han sepultado a Saúl." 5 Así que David envió mensajeros a los hombres de Jabes Galaad y les dijo a ellos: "Ustedes son bendecidos por el SEÑOR, ya que ustedes han mostrado esta lealtad a su amo Saúl y lo han sepultado. 6 Ahora, que el SEÑOR les muestre a ustedes pacto de lealtad y fidelidad. Yo también les mostraré a ustedes esta bondad porque ustedes han hecho esta cosa. 7 Ahora pues, que sus manos sean fuertes; sean valerosos pues Saúl su amo está muerto, y la casa de Judá me ha ungido como rey sobre ellos." 8 Pero Abner, hijo de Ner, comandante del ejército de Saúl, tomó a Isboset, hijo de Saúl, y lo trajo a Mahanaim. 9 Él hizo a Isboset rey sobre Galaad, Gesuri, Jezreel, Efraín, Benjamín, y sobre todo Israel. 10 Isboset, hijo de Saúl, tenía cuarenta años cuando comenzó a reinar sobre Israel, y reinó dos años. Pero la casa de Judá siguió a David. 11 El tiempo que David fue rey en Hebrón sobre la casa de Judá fue siete años y seis meses. 12 Abner, hijo de Ner, y los sirvientes de Isboset, hijo de Saúl, salieron desde Mahanaim a Gabaón. 13 Joab, hijo de Sarvia, y los sirvientes de David salieron y los encontraron a ellos en el estanque de Gabaón. Allí ellos se sentaron, un grupo a un lado del estanque y el otro al otro lado. 14 Abner le dijo a Joab: "Deja que los hombres jóvenes se levanten y compitan ante nosotros." Entonces Joab dijo: "Que se levanten." 15 Entonces los hombres jóvenes se levantaron y se juntaron, doce para Benjamín e Isboset hijo de Saúl, y doce de los sirvientes de David. 16 Cada hombre agarró a su oponente por la cabeza y enterró su espada en el costado de su oponente, y ellos cayeron juntos. Por lo tanto, ese lugar fue llamado en hebreo: "Helcat Hazurim," o "Campo de las Espadas," el cual está en Gabaón. 17 La batalla fue muy severa ese día y Abner y los hombres de Israel fueron derrotados delante de los sirvientes de David. 18 Los tres hijos de Sarvia estaban allí: Joab, y Abisai y Asael. Asael era rápido sobre sus pies como una gacela salvaje. 19 Asael persiguió a Abner de cerca y lo siguió sin desviarse en ninguna dirección. 20 Abner miró detrás de él y dijo: "¿Ese eres tú, Asael?" Él le respondió: "Soy yo." 21 Abner le dijo: "Vira a tu derecha o a tu izquierda, y agarra a uno de los hombres jóvenes y toma su armadura." Pero Asael no quiso desviarse. 22 Abner le dijo otra vez a Asael: "Deja de perseguirme. ¿Por qué habría yo de derribarte al suelo? ¿Cómo entonces podría mirar de frente a Joab, tu hermano?" 23 Pero Asael no quiso dejar de hacerlo, así que Abner lo apuñaló en el cuerpo con la punta chata de la lanza, de manera que la lanza salió del otro lado. Asael cayó y murió allí. Así que cualquiera que llegaba al lugar donde Asael cayó y murió, se detenía y se quedaba quieto. 24 Pero Joab y Abisai persigueron a Abner. Cuando el sol estaba bajando, ellos vinieron a la colina de Amma, la cual está cerca de Gía por el camino al desierto de Gabaón. 25 Todos los hombres de Benjamín se juntaron detrás de Abner y se pararon en la cima de la colina. 26 Entonces Abner llamó a Joab y dijo: "¿Debe la espada devorar para siempre? ¿No sabes que al final será amargo? ¿Cuánto tiempo pasará antes de que tú le digas a tus hombres que dejen de perseguir a sus hermanos?" 27 Joab respondió: "¡Vive Dios, si no hubieras dicho eso, mis soldados hubieran perseguido a sus hermanos hasta la mañana!" 28 Así que, Joab sonó la trompeta, y todos sus hombres se detuvieron y no persiguieron más a Israel, ni tampoco pelearon más. 29 Abner y sus hombres viajaron toda esa noche a través del Arabá. Ellos cruzaron el Jordán, marcharon toda la mañana siguiente, y entonces llegaron a Mahanaim. 30 Joab regresó de perseguir a Abner. Él reunió a todos sus hombres, de los cuales faltaban Asael y diecinueve de los soldados de David. 31 Pero los hombres de David habían matado 360 hombres de Benjamín con Abner. 32 Entonces ellos tomaron a Asael y lo sepultaron en la tumba de su padre, que estaba en Belén. Joab y sus hombres viajaron toda la noche y les cayó el día en Hebrón.

Chapter 3

1 Había una larga guerra entre la casa de Saúl y la casa de David. David se hizo más y más fuerte, pero la casa de Saúl se hizo más y más débil. 2 Le nacieron hijos a David en Hebrón. Su primer hijo fue Amnón, por Ahinoam de Jezreel. 3 Su segundo hijo, Quileab, nació de Abigail, la vuida de Nabal de Carmel. El tercero, Absalón, era el hijo de Maaca, hija de Talmai, rey de Gesur. 4 El cuarto hijo de David, Adonías, era el hijo de Haguit. Su quinto hijo era Sefatías hijo de Abital, 5 y el sexto, Itream, era el hijo de la esposa de David, Egla. Estos fueron los hijos nacidos a David en Hebrón. 6 Pasó que durante la guerra entre la casa de Saúl y la casa de David que Abner se hizo fuerte a sí mismo en la casa de Saúl. 7 Saúl tenía una concubina que se llamaba Rizpa, la hija de Aja. Isboset le dijo a Abner: "¿Por qué tú has dormido con la concubina de mi padre?'' 8 Entonces Abner estaba muy molesto por las palabras de Isboset y dijo: "¿Soy yo la cabeza de un perro que pertenece a Judá? Hoy yo estoy mostrando fidelidad a la casa de Saúl, tu padre, a sus hermanos, y a sus amigos, por no entregarte a tí a las manos de David. ¿Pero ahora tú me acusas de una ofensa acerca de esta mujer? 9 Así me haga Dios a mí, Abner, y aún más, si yo no hago a David como el SEÑOR ha jurado a él, 10 que transfiera el reino de la casa de Saúl y establezca el trono de David sobre Israel y sobre Judá desde Dan hasta Beerseba." 11 Isboset no pudo contestarle a Abner otra palabra, porque él le temía. 12 Entonces Abner envió mensajeros a David para que hablaran por él diciendo: "¿De quién es esta tierra? Haz un pacto conmigo, y tú verás que mi mano está contigo, para traer a todo Israel a ti. 13 David contestó: "Bien, yo haré un pacto contigo. Pero una cosa te digo, que no podrás verme hasta que me traigas a Mical, hija de Saúl." 14 Entonces David envió mensajeros a Isboset, hijo de Saúl, diciendo: "Dame mi esposa Mical, por quien yo pagué precio de cien prepucios de Filisteos." 15 Así que Isboset envió por Mical y la tomó de su esposo, Paltiel hijo de Lais. 16 Su esposo fue con ella, llorando mientras iba, y la siguió hasta Bahurim. Entonces Abner le dijo a él: "regresa a tu casa ahora". Así que él regresó. 17 Abner habló con los ancianos de Israel diciendo: "En el pasado ustedes estaban tratando de tener a David como rey sobre ustedes. 18 Ahora háganlo. Pues el SEÑOR ha dicho de David: 'por la mano de mi siervo David yo salvaré a mi pueblo Israel de la mano de los filisteos y de la mano de todos sus enemigos.'" 19 Abner también habló personalmente al pueblo de Benjamín. Entonces Abner fue también a hablar con David en Hebrón para explicar todo lo que Israel y toda la casa de Benjamín deseaba realizar. 20 Cuando Abner y veinte de sus hombres llegaron a Hebrón a ver a David, David tenía un banquete preparado para ellos. 21 Abner le explicó a David: "Yo me levantaré y reuniré todo Israel a tí, mi señor el Rey, para que ellos hagan un pacto contigo, para que puedas reinar sobre todo lo que tú desees.'' Así que David despidió a Abner, y Abner se fue en paz. 22 Entonces los soldados de David y Joab vinieron de una redada y trajeron mucho botín con ellos. Pero Abner no estaba con David en Hebrón. David lo había enviado lejos, y Abner se había ido en paz. 23 Cuando llegó Joab con todo su ejército, ellos le dijeron a Joab: "Abner hijo de Ner vino al rey, y el rey lo despidió y Abner se fue en paz." 24 Entonces Joab vino al Rey y dijo: "¿Qué has hecho tú? ¡Mira, Abner vino a ti! ¿Por qué tú lo has despedido, y él se ha ido? 25 ¿No sabes tú que Abner hijo de Ner vino a engañarte y descubrir tus planes y a aprender todo lo que estás haciendo?'' 26 Cuando Joab dejó a David, él envió a sus mensajeros tras Abner, y ellos lo trajeron de vuelta del pozo de Sira, pero David no sabía esto. 27 Cuando Abner regresó a Hebrón, Joab lo llevó a un lado por el medio del portón para hablar con él silenciosamente. Ahí Joab lo apuñaló en el estómago y lo mató. De esta manera, Joab vengó la sangre de Asael su hermano. 28 Cuando David escuchó sobre esto dijo: "Yo y mi reino somos inocentes delante del SEÑOR para siempre respecto a la sangre de Abner hijo de Ner. 29 Que la culpa de la muerte de Abner caiga sobre la cabeza de Joab y sobre toda la casa de su padre. Que nunca falte en la familia de Joab alguien que tenga una llaga con fluído, o enfermedad en la piel o que sea cojo y tenga que caminar con un bastón o quien muera a espada o quien se quede sin comida." 30 Así que Joab y Abisai su hermano mataron a Abner, porque él había matado a su hermano Asael en la batalla en Gabaón. 31 David dijo a Joab y a todo el pueblo que estaba con él: "Desgarren su ropa, pónganse tela de saco, y lamenten delante del cuerpo de Abner." Ahora el Rey David caminó detrás del cuerpo en la procesión funeraria. 32 Ellos enterraron a Abner en Hebrón. El rey lloró y gritó fuerte en la tumba de Abner, y todo el pueblo también lloró. 33 El rey se lamentó por Abner y cantó: "¿Debía Abner morir como un tonto muere? 34 Tus manos no estaban atadas. Tus pies no estaban encadenados. Como un hombre cae ante los hijos de la injusticia, así tú has caido." Una vez más todo el pueblo lloró sobre él. 35 Todo el pueblo vino para hacer que David comiera mientras era todavía de día, pero David juró: "Que así haga Dios conmigo, y aún me añada, si pruebo pan o cualquier otra cosa antes de que el sol se ponga.'' 36 Todo el pueblo notó la pena de David, y les complació a ellos, así como todo lo que el rey hacía les agradaba a ellos. 37 Así que, todo el pueblo y todo Israel entendió ese día que no era

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el deseo del rey matar a Abner hijo de Ner. 38 El rey le dijo a sus siervos: ''¿No saben ustedes que un príncipe y un gran hombre ha caído en este día en Israel? 39 Ahora, yo estoy débil hoy, aunque yo soy un rey ungido. Estos hombres, hijos de Sarvia, son muy crueles para mí. Que el SEÑOR pague al malvado castigándole por su maldad, como se merece".

Chapter 4

1 Cuando, Isboset, hijo de Saúl, escuchó que Abner había muerto en Hebrón, se debilitó, y todo Israel estuvo preocupado. 2 Ahora, el hijo de Saúl tenía dos hombres quienes eran capitanes de grupos de soldados. El nombre de uno era Baana y el otro Recab, hijos de Rimón el beerotita de la tribu de Benjamín (pues Beerot también es considerado parte de Benjamín, 3 y los beerotitas huyeron a Gitaím y han estado viviendo allí hasta este mismo tiempo). 4 Jonatán, hijo de Saúl, tenía un hijo que estaba incapacitado de sus pies. Cuando tenía cinco años de edad y las noticias acerca de Saúl y Jonatán llegaron desde Jezreel, su niñera lo tomó para huir, y mientras corrían el hijo de Jonatán se cayó y quedó inválido. Su nombre era Mefiboset. 5 Así que los hijos de Rimón el beerotita, Recab y Baana, viajaron durante el calor del día hacia la casa de Isboset, mientras él descansaba en la tarde. 6 La mujer que guardaba la puerta se quedó dormida mientras limpiaba el trigo, y Recab y Baana entraron silenciosamente y le pasaron de largo a ella. 7 Así que después que entraron a la casa, lo atacaron y lo mataron mientras estaba acostado en su cama en su habitación. Entonces, le cortaron la cabeza y se la llevaron, viajando por el camino toda la noche hacia Arabá. 8 Le llevaron la cabeza de Isboset a David en Hebrón, y ellos le dijeron al rey: "Mira, esta es la cabeza de Isboset hijo de Saúl, tu enemigo, quien procuró tu vida. Hoy el SEÑOR ha vengado a nuestro señor el rey en contra de Saúl y sus descendientes." 9 David le contestó a Recab y a Baana su hermano, los hijos de Rimón el beerotita; él les dijo: "Vive el SEÑOR quien rescató mi vida de cada problema, 10 cuando alguien me dijo: 'Mira, Saúl está muerto', pensando que traía buenas noticias, yo lo agarré y lo maté en Siclag. Esa fue la recompensa que le dí por sus noticias. 11 Cuánto más a los hombres malvados que han matado a una persona inocente en su propia casa, en su cama, ¿no debería yo demandar ahora su sangre de las manos de ustedes, y removerlos de la tierra?" 12 Entonces David le dio órdenes a los jóvenes, y ellos los mataron y les cortaron las manos y los pies y los colgaron al lado del estanque en Hebrón. Pero tomaron la cabeza de Isboset y la enterraron en la tumba de Abner en Hebrón.

2 Samuel 4:1

Isboset... Baana... Recab... Rimón
Estos son nombres de hombres

Ahora, el hijo de Saúl tenía dos hombres ... este momento Esto introduce a los hombres Baana y Recab en la historia.

sus manos se debilitaron En esta frase, "sus manos" representa a Isboset. Traducción Alterna: "Isboset se volvió" o "Isboset perdió toda su fuerza" porque Beerot también es condiserado parte de Benjamín, y los Beerotitas huyeron a Gittaim y han estado viviendo allí hasta este momento Aquí el autor proporciona información de fondo sobre Beerot para el lector. El área de Beerot era parte de la tierra que pertenecía a la tribu de Benjamín.

Beerot... Gitaim
Estos son nombres de lugares.

2 Samuel 4:4

Información general
Este versículo hace una pausa en la historia principal para dar información de trasfondo acerca Mefiboset, un descendiente de Saúl a través de Jonatán en lugar de a través de Isboset. Mefiboset se convertirá en un personaje importante más adelante en el libro.

Cinco años de edad
Esta era la edad del hijo de Jonatán en el momento de la muerte de su padre.

incapacitado de sus pies
Esta frase significa "incapaz de caminar"

las noticias acerca de Saúl y Jonatán Esto se refiere a las noticias sobre sus muertes.

niñera
Se trata de una mujer o niña contratada para cuidar niños pequeños.

quedó inválido
Esto explica cómo fue herido Mefiboset por lo que no podía caminar.

Mefiboset
Este es el nombre hijo joven de Jonatán, el nieto de Saúl.

Chapter 5

1 Entonces, todas las tribus de Israel vinieron a David en Hebrón y dijeron:"Mira, nosotros somos tu carne y huesos. 2 En el pasado reciente, cuando Saúl era rey sobre nosotros, eras tú quien dirigió el ejército Israelí. el SEÑOR dijo: 'Tu pastorearás Mi pueblo de Israel, y tu te convertirás en el gobernante sobre Israel." 3 Asi que todos los ancianos de Israel vinieron al rey en Hebrón, y el Rey David hizo un pacto con ellos delante del SEÑOR. Ellos ungieron a David como rey sobre Israel. 4 David tenía treinta años cuando comenzó a reinar, y reinó cuarenta años. 5 En Hebrón él reinó sobre Judá siete años y seis meses, y en Jerusalén él reinó treinta y tres años sobre todo Israel y Judá. 6 El rey y sus hombres fueron a Jerusalén contra los Jebusitas, los habitantes de la tierra. Ellos le dijeron a David:" Tu no vendrás aquí excepto para ser echado de aquí por el ciego y el cojo. David no puede venir aquí." 7 Sin embargo, David capturó a la fortaleza de Zión, la cual es ahora la ciudad de David. 8 En ese tiempo David dijo: "Aquellos que ataquen a los Jebusitas tendrán que ir a través de tunel de agua para alcanzar los 'cojos y los ciegos' quienes son los enemigos de David." Por eso es que la gente dice: " El 'ciego y el cojo' no entrará al palacio. 9 Asi que David vivió en la fortaleza y la llamó la ciudad de David. El fortificó alrededor de ella, desde la terraza hacia adentro. 10 David se hizo muy poderoso porque el SEÑOR, el Dios de los ejércitos, estaba con él. 11 Entonces Hiram rey de Tiro envió mensajeros a David, y árboles de cedro, carpinteros, y albañiles. Ellos construyeron una casa para David. 12 David sabía que el SEÑOR le había establecido como rey sobre Israel, y que Él habia exaltado su reino por causa de su pueblo Israel. 13 Luego que David salió de Hebrón y vino a Jerusalén, él tomó más concubinas y esposas en Jerusalén, y más hijos e hijas le nacieron. 14 Estos fueron los nombres de los hijos que le nacieron en Jerusalén: Samúa, Sobab, Natán, Salomón, 15 Ibar, Elisúa, Nefeg, Jafía, 16 Elisama, Eliada, y Elifelet. 17 Ahora cuando los filisteos oyeron que David había sido ungido como rey sobre Israel, salieron a buscarle. David se enteró de eso y bajó a la fortaleza. 18 Y los filisteos llegaron y se esparcieron por el valle de Refaim. 19 Entonces David le pidió ayuda al SEÑOR. él dijo: "¿Debo atacar a los filisteos? ¿Nos darás la victoria sobre ellos? El SEÑOR le dijo a David:" Ataca, porque Yo ciertamente te daré la victoria sobre los filisteos." 20 Así que, David atacó en Baal Perazim, y allí él los derrotó. Él comentó:" El SEÑOR ha irrumpido sobre mis enemigos ante mi como una corriente de agua impetuosa." Así que el nombre de ese lugar se llamó Baal Perazim. 21 Los filisteos dejaron sus ídolos allí, y David y sus hombres los llevaron fuera. 22 Entonces los filisteos volvieron y se esparcieron una vez más en el valle de Refaim. 23 Así que David buscó ayuda del SEÑOR nuevamente, y el SEÑOR, le dijo: "Tu no debes atacar su frente, mas bien, circula alrededor de ellos, y llega a ellos por detrás a través de las balsameras. 24 Cuando oigas el sonido de marcha en el viento soplando a través de las copas de los árboles, entonces ataca con fuerza. Haz esto porque el SEÑOR habrá salido delante de ti a atacar el ejército de los filisteos". 25 Así hizo David como el SEÑOR le había ordenado. Él mató filisteos desde Geba todo el camino hasta Gezer.

Chapter 6

1 Ahora, David nuevamente juntó a todos los hombres escogidos de Israel, treinta mil. 2 David se levantó y fue con todos sus hombres que estaban con él desde Baala en Judá para traer desde ahí el arca de Dios, el cual es llamado por el nombre del SEÑOR de los ejércitos que se sienta entronado sobre los querubines. 3 Pusieron el arca de Dios en un carro nuevo. Ellos la sacaron fuera de la casa de Abinadab, la cual estaba en una colina. Uza y Ahío, sus hijos, estaban guiando el carro nuevo. 4 Ellos sacaron el carro fuera de la casa de Abinadab que estaba en la colina con el arca de Dios sobre el. Ahío estaba caminando frente al arca. 5 Entonces David y toda la casa de Israel comenzaron a tocar ante el SEÑOR, celebrando con instrumentos de madera, arpas, liras, panderetas, cascabeles y címbalos. 6 Cuando llegaron a los sembradíos de Nacón, los bueyes tropezaron, y Uza extendió su mano para agarrar el arca de Dios, y la sostuvo. 7 Entonces el enojo del SEÑOR se encendió contra Uza. Dios lo atacó ahí por su pecado. Uza murió ahí junto al arca de Dios. 8 David estaba enojado porque el SEÑOR había atacado a Uza, y él llamo el nombre de ese lugar Pérez Uza. Ese lugar es llamado Pérez Uza hasta este día. 9 David se atemorizó del SEÑOR ese día. Él dijo: "¿Cómo puede el arca del SEÑOR venir a mí?" 10 Así que David no estaba dispuesto a llevar el arca del SEÑOR con él dentro de la ciudad de David. En lugar de esto, él la puso hacia el lado en la casa de Obed Edom el geteo. 11 El arca del SEÑOR permaneció en la casa de Obed Edom el geteo por tres meses. Así que el SEÑOR lo bendijo a él y a toda su casa. 12 Cuando le dijeron al rey David: "El SEÑOR ha bendecido la casa de Obed Edom y todo lo que le pertenece a él a causa del arca de Dios," fue y trajo el arca de Dios desde la casa de Obed Edom a la ciudad de David con gozo. 13 Cuando los que estaban cargando el arca del SEÑOR habían dado seis pasos, él sacrificó un buey y un becerro gordo. 14 David bailó ante el SEÑOR con toda su fuerza; él solo vestía un efod de lino. 15 Así que, David y toda la casa de Israel trajeron el arca del SEÑOR con aclamación y sonido de trompetas. 16 Ahora, mientras el arca del SEÑOR entraba a la ciudad de David, Mical, hija de Saúl, miró fuera de la ventana. Ella vio al rey David saltando y bailando ante el SEÑOR. Entonces ella lo despreció en su corazón. 17 Ellos llevaron adentro el arca del SEÑOR y la pusieron en su lugar, en medio de la tienda que David había levantado para ella. Entonces, David ofreció ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz ante el SEÑOR. 18 Cuando David hubo terminado de sacrificar las ofrendas quemadas y las ofrendas de comunión, él bendijo al pueblo en el nombre del SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 19 Entonces él distribuyó entre toda la gente, la multitud completa de Israel, tanto hombres y mujeres, un pan, una porción de carne, y un pastel de pasas. Entonces toda la gente se fue; cada uno regresó a su propia casa. 20 Entonces, David regresó para bendecir a su familia. Mical, la hija de Saúl, salió para encontrarse con David y dijo: "¡Que honorable estuvo departe del rey de Israel hoy, quien se desvistió ante los ojos de las criadas de sus sirvientes, como uno de esos tipos vulgares que desvergonzadamente se desvisten así mismos!" 21 David le respondió a Mical: "Yo hice eso ante el SEÑOR, Quien me escogió sobre tu padre y sobre toda su familia, quien me nombró a mí líder sobre el pueblo del SEÑOR, sobre Israel. ¡Ante el SEÑOR yo estaré gozoso! 22 Yo seré aún más indigno que esto, y seré humillado en mis propios ojos. Pero por estas criadas de las cuales hablaste, yo seré honrado." 23 Así que Mical, la hija de Saúl, no tuvo hijos hasta el día de su muerte.

Chapter 7

1 Ocurrió, que después que el rey se estableció en su casa, y después que el SEÑOR le había dado descanso de todos sus enemigos circundantes, 2 el rey le dijo a Natán el profeta: "Mira, yo estoy viviendo en una casa de cedro, pero el arca de Dios está quedándose en el medio de una tienda." 3 Entonces Natán le dijo al rey: "Ve, haz lo que está en tu corazón, porque el SEÑOR está contigo." 4 Pero esa misma noche la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Natán y dijo: 5 "Ve y dile a David, mi siervo, 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: ¿Me construirás una casa en la cual viva? 6 Porque Yo no he vivido en una casa desde el día que saqué al pueblo de Israel fuera de Egipto hasta este presente día; en cambio, Yo me he estado moviendo en una tienda, un tabernáculo. 7 En todos los lugares donde me he movido entre todo el pueblo de Israel, ¿alguna vez le dije algo a algún líder de Israel a quien Yo escogí para pastorear mi pueblo Israel, diciendo: "Por qué tú no me has construido una casa de cedro?"' 8 Ahora entonces, dile a mi siervo David: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice: 'Yo te tomé del prado, de seguir a las ovejas, para que fueras gobernante sobre mi pueblo Israel. 9 Yo he estado contigo donde quiera que fuiste y he quitado a todos tus enemigos de delante de ti. Y Yo haré tu nombre grande, como el nombre de los grandes de la tierra. 10 Yo escogeré un lugar para mi pueblo Israel y los plantaré ahí, para que ellos puedan vivir en su propio lugar y ya no estén preocupados. Las personas malvadas ya no los oprimirán a ellos, como lo hicieron antes, 11 como ellos lo estaban haciendo desde los días que Yo le ordené a los jueces estar sobre mi pueblo Israel. Ahora, Yo te daré descanso de todos tus enemigos. Más aún, Yo, el SEÑOR, te declaro que Yo te haré una casa. 12 Cuando tus días sean cumplidos y duermas con tus padres, Yo levantaré un descendiente después de ti, uno que saldrá de tu cuerpo, y Yo estableceré su reino. 13 Él construirá una casa para mi nombre, y Yo estableceré el trono de su reino para siempre. 14 Yo seré un padre para él, y él será mi hijo. Cuando él peque, Yo lo disciplinaré con la vara de hombres y con los azotes de los hijos de los hombres. 15 Pero mi pacto de fidelidad no lo dejará a él, como lo tomé de Saúl, a quien removí de delante de ti. 16 Tu casa y reino serán confirmados para siempre delante de ti. Tu trono será establecido para siempre.'" 17 Natán le habló a David y le reportó a él todas estas palabras, y él le dijo sobre la visión entera. 18 Luego David, el rey, entró y se sentó ante el SEÑOR; él dijo: "¿Quién soy yo, SEÑOR Dios, y qué es mi familia que me has traído hasta este punto? 19 Ahora, esto fue una cosa pequeña a tu vista, Señor Dios. ¡Tú incluso has hablado acerca de la familia de tu siervo en un tiempo por venir, y me has mostrado generaciones futuras, Señor Dios! 20 ¿Qué más puedo yo, David, decirte a Ti? Tú has honrado a tu siervo, Señor Dios. 21 Por amor a tu palabra, y para cumplir Tu propio propósito, Tú has hecho esta gran cosa y la revelaste a tu siervo. 22 Por lo tanto, Tú eres grande, Señor Dios. Porque no hay ninguno como tú, y no hay Dios aparte de ti, así como nosotros hemos escuchado con nuestros propios oidos. 23 ¿Y qué nación es como tu pueblo Israel, la única nación en la tierra a quien Tú, Dios, fuiste y rescataste para ti mismo? Tú hiciste esto para que ellos se convirtieran en un pueblo para Ti mismo, para hacer un nombre para ti mismo, y para hacer cosas grandes y temibles por tu tierra. Tú expulsaste naciones y sus dioses de delante de tu pueblo, a quienes rescataste de Egipto. 24 Tú estableciste a Israel como tu propio pueblo para siempre, y Tú, SEÑOR, te convertiste en su Dios. 25 Así que ahora, SEÑOR Dios, que la promesa que Tú hiciste acerca de tu siervo y su familia sea establecida para siempre. Haz como has hablado. 26 Que tu nombre sea grande para siempre, para que la gente diga, 'el SEÑOR de los ejércitos es el Dios de Israel,' mientras la casa mía, la de David, tu siervo, es establecida delante de Ti. 27 Porque Tú, SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, le has revelado a tu siervo que Tú le construirás a él una casa. Esto es por lo que yo, tu siervo, he encontrado la valentía para orarte a ti. 28 Ahora, Señor Dios, Tú eres Dios, y tus palabras son confiables, y Tú has hecho esta buena promesa a tu siervo. 29 Ahora pues, que te complazca bendecir la casa de tu siervo, para que continúe para siempre delante de Ti. Porque Tú, Señor Dios, has dicho estas cosas, y con tu bendición la casa de tu siervo será bendecida para siempre."

El arca de Dios está quedándose en medio de una tienda
Las "tiendas" son viviendas temporales. Si su cultura no tiene tiendas de campaña, puede expresar esto de manera diferente. Traducción Alterna: "el arca de Dios está quedándose en un lugar temporal"

2 Samuel 7:3

haz lo que está en tu corazón Aquí, "corazón" representa la mente. Traducción Alterna: "haz lo que crees que deberías hacer" porque el SEÑOR está contigo Aquí, "contigo" significa que Dios está ayudando y bendiciendo a David.

vino la palabra del SEÑOR
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa que el SEÑOR habló. "El SEÑOR habló Su mensaje"

La palabra del SEÑOR
Aquí, "palabra" representa el mensaje del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "el mensaje del SEÑOR"

y dijo: "Ve y dile a David, mi siervo: 'Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: ¿Me construirás una casa para vivir?
Esto tiene citas dentro de otras citas. Puede ser necesario traducirlas todas como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: y dijo: "Ve y pregúntale a David si cree que él será el que construirá una casa en la que viviré ".

¿Me construirás una casa para vivir?
El SEÑOR usa una pregunta para enfatizar que David no es el que construirá una casa para el SEÑOR. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una afirmación. Traducción Alterna: "Tú no construirás una casa para Mí"

construirás una casa
Aquí, "casa" significa "un templo". En 7:11 el SEÑOR dirá que Él construirá una casa para David. En ese contexto, "casa" significa "una familia". Si su idioma tiene una palabra que puede expresar ambas ideas, úsela aquí y en 7: 11.

2 Samuel 7:6

¿Alguna vez dije algo a alguno de los líderes de Israel a quienes escogí para pastorear a Mi pueblo Israel, diciendo: "¿Por qué no me han construido una casa de cedro?"
Esto tiene una cita dentro de otra cita. La cita directa puede expresarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Nunca le pedí a ninguno de los líderes, a quienes Yo escogí, que me construyeran un templo de madera de cedro"

¿Alguna vez dije algo a alguno de los líderes de Israel...
El Señor usa una pregunta para enfatizar que nunca le pidió a ninguno de los líderes de Israel que le construyeran un templo. Traducción Alterna: "Nunca dije nada a ninguno de los líderes de Israel"

¿Por qué no me han construido una casa de cedro?
Si el SEÑOR les hubiese hecho esta pregunta a los líderes, Él habría estado usando una pregunta para regañarlos por no construirle una casa de cedro. Sin embargo, el SEÑOR dijo previamente que Él no les hizo esta pregunta. Traducción Alterna: "Debieron haberme construido una casa de cedro".

a quienes Yo escogí para pastorear a Mi pueblo Israel
Se habla de los líderes del pueblo de Israel como si fueran pastores y el pueblo fuesen ovejas.

2 Samuel 7:8

Información general
El SEÑOR describe Sus promesas al rey David a través del profeta Natán.

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para captar la atención hacia el punto importante que sigue.

dile a mi siervo David: "Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos: 'Yo te tomé ... una gran nombre para ti, como los nombres de los grandes de la tierra.
Esto tiene citas dentro de citas. Puede ser necesario traducir las citas directas como citas indirectas, como está en la UDB. Traducción Alterna: "dile a mi siervo David que Yo lo tomé... un gran nombre para él, como los nombres de los grandes de la tierra"

Dile a mi siervo David El SEÑOR todavía le está diciendo al profeta Natán lo que debe decirle a David.

he estado contigo
Aquí "contigo" significa que el SEÑOR ha ayudado y bendecido a David.

y he cortado a todos tus enemigos
Se habla del SEÑOR destruyendo a los enemigos de David como si el SEÑOR los cortara literalmente, así como uno cortaría un trozo de tela o una rama de un árbol.

un gran nombre para ti,
Aquí "nombre" representa la reputación de una persona.

como el nombre de los grandes quienes están en la tierra
La frase "los grandes" se refiere a personas famosas.

Información general
El Señor continúa describiendo Sus promesas al rey David a través del profeta Natán.

Yo escogeré un lugar
"Yo elegiré un lugar"

los plantaré allí
Se habla del SEÑOR haciendo que la gente viva en la tierra de forma permanente y segura como si Él los plantara en la tierra.

y ya no estarán precoupados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y nadie les molestará jamás"

desde los días
Aquí, "días" representa un período de tiempo más largo. Traducción Alterna: "desde el momento"

Yo le ordené a los jueces Después que el pueblo de Israel entró en la tierra de Canaán y antes de que tuvieran reyes que los gobernaran, Dios nombró líderes llamados "jueces" para guiarlos en tiempos difíciles.

te daré descanso de todos tus enemigos... te declaro que Yo te haré una casa
Si en 7: 8 las citas directas se tradujeron como citas indirectas, entonces es posible que tenga que traducir "usted" como "él" o "su". Traducción Alterna: "Y Yo le daré descanso a todos sus enemigos... declaro que Yo le haré una casa a él"

Te daré descanso de todos tus enemigos
"Te daré seguridad de todos tus enemigos". Aquí "descanso" es un sustantivo abstracto. Traducción Alterna: "Yo haré que todos tus enemigos dejen de atacarte"

Yo te haré una casa
Aquí, "casa" es una figura literaria

2 Samuel 7:12

Información general
El Señor continúa describiendo Sus promesas al rey David a través del profeta Natán.

Cuando tus días se cumplan y te acuestes con tus padres Estas dos frases tienen significados similares y son combinadas para dar énfasis. Ambas son una manera educada de referirse a la muerte y morir.

Yo levantaré a un descendiente después de ti
Se habla del SEÑOR escogiendo al descendiente de David como si el SEÑOR literalmente lo fuese a levantar.

alguien que saldrá de tu cuerpo
Esto es una figura idiomática que se refiere a que la persona será descendiente de David.

estableceré el trono de su reino para siempre Aquí, "trono" representa el poder de la persona para gobernar como rey. Traducción Alterna: "Haré que su gobierno sobre Israel dure para siempre"

Seré un padre para él, y él será mi hijo
La profecía en 7:12-14 se refiere a Salomón, el hijo de David, pero los aspectos de la profecía serán cumplidos por medio de Jesús. Es por esto que aquí es mejor traducir las palabras "padre" e "hijo" con las palabras normales de su idioma para referirse a un padre y un hijo biológico.

2 Samuel 7:15

Información general
El Señor termina de describir Sus promesas al rey David a través del profeta Natán.

Pero mi pacto de fidelidas no lo abandonará, como lo saqué de Saúl La palabra "fidelidad" es un sustantivo abstracto que puede ser espresado como "fiel". También esta expresión se puede traducir en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Pero siempre seré fiel a él, a diferencia de Saúl"

de delante de ti. Tu casa ... después de ti. Tu trono
Si en 7: 8 las citas directas se tradujeron como citas indirectas, entonces es posible que tenga que traducir "tu" como "David" o "él" o "su" como en la UDB. ¨Traducción Alterna: "desde antes de David. La casa de David ... después de él. Su trono" (Ver: citas)

Tu casa y tu reino serán confirmados para siempre después de ti. Tu trono será establecido para siempre.
Estas dos oraciones tienen significados parecidos y enfatizan que la dinastía de David durará para siempre.

Tu casa y tu reino serán confirmados para siempre Aquí, la palabra "casa" representa descendientes de David, quienes gobernarán como reyes. Aquí, "reino" significa casi lo mismo que "casa". Esto también se puede expresar de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Vivirás para verme establecer tu familia y su gobierno sobre el pueblo de Israel para siempre"

Chapter 8

1 Después de esto aconteció que David atacó a los filisteos y los derrotó. Así que David tomó a Gat y sus villas y las liberó del control de los filisteos. 2 Después el derrotó a Moab y midió sus hombres con una línea al hacerlos acostarse en el suelo. Él midió dos líneas para ejecutar, y una línea entera para mantenerlos vivos. Así que los moabitas se convirtieron en siervos de David y empezaron a pagarle tributo. 3 David entonces derrotó a Hadad Ezer hijo de Rehob, el rey de Soba, mientras Hadad-Ezer estaba viajando para recuperar su dominio junto al río Eufrates. 4 David capturó de él 1, 700 carruajes y veinte mil soldados a pie. David desjarretó todo los caballos que tenían carruajes, pero reservó bastantes de ellos para cien carruajes. 5 Cuando los arameos de Damasco vinieron a ayudar a Hadab-Ezer rey de Soba, David mató veintidos mil hombres arameos. 6 Entonces David puso guarniciones en Aram de Damasco, y los arameos se convirtieron en siervientes de él y le trajeron tributo. El SEÑOR le daba la victoria a David dondequiera que iba. 7 David tomó los escudos de oro que le pertenecían a los siervos de Hadab-Ezer y los trajo a Jerusalén. 8 Desde Beta a Berotai, ciudades de Hadab-Ezer, el rey David tomó mucho bronce. 9 Cuando Toi, rey de Hamat, oyó que David había derrotado a todo el ejército de Hadad-Ezer, 10 Toi mandó a Joram su hijo al rey David a saludarlo y bendecirlo, porque David había peleado en contra de Hadah-Ezer y lo derrotó, y porque Hadad-Ezer declaró la guerra contra Toi. Joram trajo consigo objetos de plata, oro, y bronce. 11 El rey David separó estos objetos a Jehová, junto con la plata y el oro de todas las naciones que él conquistó 12 -desde Aram, Moab, el pueblo de Amón, los filisteos, y los amalecitas, junto con todo el botín de Hadad-Ezer hijo de Rehob, el rey de Soba. 13 El nombre de David fue bien reconocido cuando él regreso de conquistar a los arameos en el valle de Sal, con sus dieciocho mil hombres. 14 Él puso guarniciones atravez de todo Edom, y todos los edomitas se convirtieron en siervos de él. El SEÑOR le dió la victoria a David donde quiera que iba. 15 David reinó sobre todo Israel, y él administró justicia y derecho a todo su pueblo. 16 Joab hijo de Sarvia era el comandante del ejército, y Josafat hijo de Ahilud era el cronista. 17 Sadoc hijo de Ahitob y Ahimelec hijo de Abiatar eran sacerdotes, y Seraía era escriba. 18 Benaía hijo de Joiada estaba a cargo de los cereteos y peleteos, y los hijos de David fueron los líderes de los consejeros del rey.

Chapter 9

1 David dijo: "Queda alguien en la familia de Saúl a quien yo pueda mostrar bondad por amor a Jonatán? 2 Había en la familia de Saúl, un siervo de nombre Siba, al cual llamaron para ver a David. El rey le preguntó: "¿Eres tú Siba?" El respondió, "Si, soy yo, su siervo". 3 Entonces el rey le preguntó: "¿No queda alguien en la familia de Saúl a quien yo pueda mostrar la bondad de Dios?" Siba le respondió al rey: "aún queda un hijo de Jonatán que es lisiado de sus pies". 4 El rey le dijo: "¿Dónde está él?" Siba le respondió al rey: "Mira, el está en la casa de Maquir hijo de Amiel en Lodebar". 5 Entonces el Rey David mandó a traerlo de la casa de Maquir hijo de Amiel de Lodebar. 6 Así que, Mefiboset hijo de Jonatán, hijo de Saúl, vino ante David y se inclinó y postró su rostro en tierra en señal de honra hacia David. David le dijo: "Mefiboset". El respondió: "¡Mira, yo soy tu siervo!" 7 David le dijo: "No temas, porque de cierto te mostraré bondad por amor a tu padre Jonatán, y te devolveré toda la tierra de Saúl tu abuelo, y siempre comerás en mi mesa". 8 Mefiboset se inclinó y dijo: ''¿Quién es tu siervo para que le mire con bondad siendo yo un perro muerto?". 9 Entones el rey llamó a Siba, siervo de Saúl, y le dijo: "Todo lo que le perteneció a Saúl y a su familia Yo se lo regreso al nieto de tu amo. 10 Tú, tus hijos y tus siervos cultivarán la tierra para él y recogerán las cosechas, para que el nieto de tu amo tenga comida que comer. Pues Mefiboset, el nieto de tu amo, siempre comerá en mi mesa". Ahora Siba tenia quince hijos y veinte siervos. 11 Entonces Siba le respondió al rey: "Tu siervo hará todo lo que mi amo y rey mande." El rey agregó: "En cuanto a Mefiboset él comerá en mi mesa como uno de los hijos del rey." 12 Mefiboset tenía un hijo el cual se llamaba Micaía. Y todos los que vivían en la casa de Siba eran siervos de Mefiboset. 13 Así que, Mefiboset vivió en Jerusalén y siempre comió en la mesa del rey aunque lisiado de ambos pies.

Chapter 10

1 Pasó después, que el rey del pueblo de Amón murió, y Hanún, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 2 David dijo: "Mostraré bondad a Hanún, hijo de Nahas, pues su padre me mostró bondad a mí." Así que David envió a sus siervos a consolar a Hanún acerca de su padre. Sus siervos entraron a la tierra del pueblo de Amón. 3 Pero los líderes del pueblo de Amón le dijeron a Hanún, su amo: "¿Tú realmente piensas que David está honrando a tu padre porque ha enviado hombres a consolarte? ¿No, te ha enviado David a sus siervos para ver la ciudad y espiarla, en orden de destruirla?" 4 Así que Hanún tomó a los siervos de David, afeitó la mitad de sus barbas, cortó sus vestiduras a la altura de sus nalgas, y los envió lejos. 5 Cuando ellos le explicaron esto a David, él envió para encontrarse con ellos, pues los hombres estaban profundamente avergonzados. El rey dijo: "Quédense en Jericó, hasta que sus barbas hayan crecido de vuelta, y entonces regresen." 6 Cuando el pueblo de Amón vió que se habían convertido en una peste para David, el pueblo de Amón envió mensajeros y tomó a sueldo a los Arameos de Bet Rehob y a los Arameos de Soba, veinte mil soldados a pie, y el rey de Maaca con mil hombres y los hombres de Tob con doce mil soldados. 7 Cuando David escuchó de ésto, él envió a Joab y a todo el ejército de soldados. 8 Los amonitas salieron y fomaron una línea de batalla en la entrada de la puerta de la ciudad, mientras que los arameos de Soba y Rehob y los hombres de Tob y Maaca, permanecían solos en los campos abiertos. 9 Cuando Joab vio las líneas de batalla frente a él, tanto delante como detrás, él escogió algunos de los mejores luchadores de Israel, y los ubicó en contra de los arameos. 10 En cuanto al resto del ejército, lo puso bajo el mando de Abisai, su hermano, y él los puso en líneas de batalla en contra del ejército de Amón. 11 Joab dijo, "Si los arameos son muy fuertes para mí, entonces tú, Abisai, me debes rescatar. Pero si el ejército de Amón es muy fuerte para ti, entonces yo vendré y te rescataré. 12 Sé fuerte, y mostrémonos fuertes por nuestro pueblo y por las ciudades de nuestro Dios, pues el SEÑOR hará lo que es bueno para su propósito." 13 Así que, Joab y los soldados de su ejército avanzaron a la batalla en contra de los arameos, quienes fueron forzados a huír ante el ejército de Israel. 14 Cuando el ejército de Amón vio que los arameos habían huído, ellos también huyeron de Abisai, y regresaron a la ciudad. Luego Joab regresó del pueblo de Amón, y fue de vuelta a Jerusalén. 15 Y cuando los arameos vieron que estaban siendo derrotados por Israel, ellos se juntaron otra vez. 16 Luego Hadad Ezer envió por las tropas arameas de más allá del Río Éufrates. Ellos regresaron a Helam con Sobac, el comandante del ejército de Hadad Ezer a la cabeza. 17 Cuando a David se le dijo ésto, el reunió a todo Israel, cruzaron el Jordán, y llegaron a Helam. 18 Los arameos se formaron en líneas de batalla en contra de David y le enfrentaron. Los arameos huyeron de Israel. David mató a setecientos soldados arameos de carruaje y a cuarenta mil soldados de a caballo. Sobac, el comandante de su ejército fue herido y murió allí. 19 Cuando todos los reyes que fueron siervos de Hadad Ezer vieron que fueron derrotados por Israel, ellos hicieron paz con Israel y se volvieron sus súbditos. Así que los arameos por miedo nunca mas ayudaron al pueblo de Amón.

Chapter 11

1 Llegando la primavera, en el tiempo cuando los reyes normalmente van a la guerra, David envió a Joab su siervo y a todo el ejército de Israel. Ellos destruyeron al ejército de Amón y sitiaron a Rabá. Pero David se quedó en Jerusalén. 2 Sucedió que una noche David se levantó de su cama y caminó en el terrado de su palacio, desde ahí vió a una mujer quien estaba bañándose y la mujer era muy hermosa a la vista. 3 Entonces, David envió y él preguntó a personas que supieran de la mujer. Alguien dijo: "¿No es esa Betsabé, la hija de Eliam, y no es ella la esposa de Urías el hitita?" 4 David envió mensajeros y la trajeron. Ella se presentó ante él, y él durmió con ella (porque ella se había purificado así misma de la mestruación). Entonces ella regresó a su casa. 5 La mujer concibió y envió mensaje a David diciendo: "Estoy embarazada." 6 Entonces David envió a Joab diciendo: "Envíame a Urías el hitita." Entonces Joab envió Urías a David. 7 Cuando Urías llegó, David le preguntó cómo estaba Joab, cómo estaba el ejército y cómo iba la guerra. 8 David le dijo a Urías: "Baja a tu casa, y lava tus pies." Así que Urías se fue del palacio del rey, y el rey le envió un regalo a Urías cuando él se fué. 9 Pero Urías durmió a la puerta del palacio del rey con todos los siervientes de su amo, y él no bajó a su casa. 10 Cuando le dijeron a David, "Urías no bajó a su casa," David le dijo a Urías, "¿No has llegado tú de un viaje? ¿Por qué no bajaste a tú casa?" 11 Urías le respondió a David, "El arca, e Israel y Judá se están quedando en tiendas, y mi señor Joab y los siervientes de mi señor están acampando en un campo abierto. ¿Cómo entonces puedo yo entrar en mi casa a comer y a beber, y a dormir con mi esposa? Tan cierto como que tú estas vivo, yo no haré esto." 12 Así que, David le dijo a Urías, "Quédate aquí hoy también, y mañana yo te dejaré ir." Entonces Urías se quedó en Jerusalén ese día y el siguiente día. 13 Cuando David lo llamó, él comió y bebió ante él, y David lo hizo emborracharse. En la noche, Urías salió a dormir en su cama con las sirvientas de su señor; él no bajó a su casa. 14 Entonces en la mañana David le escribió una carta a Joab y la envió por la mano de Urías. 15 David escribió en la carta diciendo: "Pon a Urías en el mismo frente de la batalla más intensa y entonces retírate de él para que sea golpeado y asesinado." 16 Entonces mientras Joab miraba la ciudad rodeada él asignó a Urías al lugar donde él sabía que los soldados enemigos más fuerte estarían peleando. 17 Cuando los hombres de la ciudad salieron y pelearon contra el ejército de Joab, algunos de los soldados de David cayeron, y Urías el hitita también fue asesinado allí. 18 Cuando Joab envió palabra a David sobre todo lo concerniente a la guerra, 19 él ordenó al mensajero, diciendo: "Cuando hayas terminado de decirle al rey todas las cosas concernientes a la guerra, 20 puede ser que el rey se enoje, y él te dirá a ti: '¿Por qué fuiste tan cerca de la ciudad a pelear? ¿Acaso no sabías que ellos dispararían desde la pared? 21 ¿Quién mató a Abimelec, hijo de Jerobaal? ¿Acaso una mujer no arrojó la piedra superior del molino sobre él desde la pared, para que muriera en Tebes? ¿Por qué te acercaste tanto al muro?' Entonces tú debes responder: 'Tu sirviente Urías el hitita también está muerto.'" 22 Entonces el mensajero salió y fue a David y le dijo todo lo que Joab le había mandado a decir. 23 Y el mensajero le dijo a David: "El enemigo era más fuerte de lo que nosotros eramos al principio; ellos salieron a nosotros en el campo, pero les hicimos regresar de vuelta a la entrada de la puerta. 24 Y sus arqueros le dispararon a tus soldados desde el muro y algunos de los sirvientes del rey fueron asesinados y tu sirviente Urías el hitita lo mataron también." 25 Entonces David le dijo al mensajero: "Dile esto a Joab: 'No dejes que esto te incomode porque la espada devora a uno tanto como al otro. Haz tu batalla aún más fuerte contra la ciudad, y derrótala.' Y alienta a Joab." 26 Entonces, cuando la esposa de Urías escuchó que Urías su esposo estaba muerto, ella se lamentó profundamente por su esposo. 27 Cuando su pena pasó, David la envió a buscar y la trajo a vivir a su palacio, y ella se convirtió en su esposa y le dió un hijo. Pero lo que David había hecho disgustó a el SEÑOR.

Chapter 12

1 Entonces, el SEÑOR envió a Natán a donde David. Él vino a él y dijo: "Había una vez dos hombres en una ciudad. Un hombre era rico y el otro pobre. 2 El hombre rico tenía grandes cantidades de rebaño y ganado, 3 pero el pobre hombre nada tenía, excepto una pequeña cordera, la cual habia comprado, alimentado y criado. Esta creció junto con él y con sus hijos. La cordera tambien comía con él y bebia de la misma copa que él, y dormía en sus brazos y era como una hija para él. 4 Un día un visitante llegó donde el hombre rico, pero el hombre rico no estaba dispuesto a agarrar un animal de su propio rebaño y ganado para proveerse comida. En cambio, él agarró a la corderita del hombre pobre y la cocinó para su visitante." 5 David se enfureció en contra del hombre rico, y él le gritó a Natán: "Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive, que el hombre que haya hecho esto merece ser ejecutado. 6 Él debe pagar la cordera cuatro veces por haber hecho él tal cosa, y porque no tuvo pena por el hombre pobre." 7 Luego Natán le dijo a David: "¡Tú eres ese hombre! El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: 'Yo te ungí como rey sobre Israel, y te rescaté de la mano de Saúl. 8 Yo te di la casa de tu amo, y las esposas de tu amo en tus brazos. También te di la casa de Israel y Judá. Y si eso hubiera sido muy poco, Yo te hubiese dado muchas otras cosas más. 9 Así que, ¿por qué has despreciado las ordenanzas del SEÑOR, para hacer lo que es malo a su vista? Tú has matado a Urías el hitita con la espada y has tomado su esposa para que sea tu propia esposa. Tú lo mataste con la espada del ejército de Amón. 10 Así que, ahora la espada nunca dejará tu casa, porque me has despreciado y has tomado la esposa de Urías el hitita como tu esposa.' 11 El SEÑOR dice: 'Mira, Yo levantaré desastre en contra tuya de tu propia casa. Ante tus propios ojos, Yo tomaré tus esposas y se las daré a tu vecino, y él dormirá con tus esposas en plena luz del día. 12 Pues tú cometiste tu pecado secretamente, pero Yo haré esto ante todo Israel, a la luz del sol.'" 13 Entonces David le dijo a Natán: "Yo he pecado en contra del SEÑOR." Natán le respondió a David: "El SEÑOR también ha pasado por alto tu pecado. Tú no morirás. 14 Sin embargo, por ésto que has hecho has ofendido al SEÑOR, y el hijo que nazca ciertamente morirá." 15 Luego Natán se marchó y se fue a casa. El SEÑOR atacó al niño que la esposa de Urías le dio a David, y él estaba muy enfermo. 16 David entonces le imploró a Dios por el niño. David ayunó y se fue adentro y se acostó toda la noche en el suelo. 17 Los ancianos de su casa se levantaron y se pararon al lado de él, para levantarlo del suelo, pero él no se levantaba, y no comía con ellos. 18 Ocurrió que en el séptimo día el hijo murió. Los sirvientes de David estaban asustados de decirle a él que el hijo estaba muerto, porque ellos dijeron: "Miren, mientras el hijo estaba vivo le hablamos, y él no escuchó nuestra voz. ¿¡Qué se podría hacerse a sí mismo si le decimos que el niño está muerto?! 19 Pero cuando David vio que sus sirvientes estaban murmurando entre ellos, David percibió que el niño estaba muerto. Él le dijo a sus sirvientes: "¿El niño está muerto?" Ellos contestaron: "Él está muerto." 20 Entonces, David se levantó del suelo y se lavó, se ungió a sí mismo y se cambió sus vestiduras. Él se fue al tabernáculo del SEÑOR y adoró allí, y luego él regresó a su propio palacio. Cuando él lo pidió, ellos pusieron comida delante de él, y él comió. 21 Luego, sus sirvientes le dijeron a él: "¿Por qué ha hecho esto? Usted ayunó y lloró por el niño mientras estaba vivo, pero cuando el niño murió, usted se levantó y comió." 22 David contestó: "Mientras el niño estaba vivo yo ayuné y lloré. Yo dije: '¿Quién sabe si el SEÑOR sea misericordioso conmigo, y el niño quizas vivá?' 23 Pero ahora que él está muerto, ¿por qué debería ayunar? ¿Puedo traerlo de regreso? Yo iré a él, pero él no regresará a mí."' 24 David consoló a Betsabé, su esposa, y fué a ella y se acostó con ella. Después ella dio a luz a un hijo, y el niño fue nombrado Salomón. El SEÑOR lo amaba 25 y Él envió palabra a través de Natán, el profeta para que lo nombrara Jedidías, porque el SEÑOR lo amaba. 26 Ahora, Joab peleó en contra de Rabá, la ciudad real del pueblo de Amón, y capturó su fortaleza. 27 Así que Joab le envió mensajeros a David y dijo: "He peleado en contra de Rabá, y he tomado el sumisitro de agua de la ciudad. 28 Ahora, por lo tanto, reúne al resto del ejército y acampa contra la ciudad y tómala, porque si yo tomo la ciudad, será le pondra mi nombre 29 Así que David reunió a todo el ejército y se fue a Rabá; peleó contra la ciudad y la capturó. 30 David tomó la corona de la cabeza de su rey--pesaba un talento de oro, y había una piedra preciosa en ella. La corona fue colocada en la propia cabeza de David. Luego, él sacó el botín de la ciudad en grandes cantidades. 31 Él trasladó a las personas que estaban en la ciudad y las forzó a que trabajaran con serruchos, picos de hierro y hachas; él también los hizo trabajar en hornos de ladrillos. David le requirió a todas las ciudades del pueblo de Amón a hacer esta labor. Luego, David y todo el ejército regresaron a Jerusalén.

Chapter 13

1 Sucedió, después de esto, que Amnón, hijo de David, estaba muy atraído a su hermosa media-hermana Tamar, quien era hermana completa de Absalón, otro de los hijos de David. 2 Amnón estaba tan frustrado que se enfermó por causa de su hermana Tamar. Ella era virgen, y le parecía imposible a Amnón hacerle cosa alguna a ella. 3 Pero Amnón tenía un amigo cuyo nombre era Jonadab hijo de Simea, hermano de David. Jonadab era un hombre muy perspicaz. 4 Jonadab le dijo a Amnón: "Por qué, hijo del rey, estás tú deprimido cada mañana? ¿No me lo dirás?" Así que Amnón le contestó: "Yo amo a Tamar, la hermana de mi hermano Absalóm." 5 Entonces Jonadab le dijo a él: "Acuéstate en tu cama y finge estar enfermo. Cuando tu padre venga a verte, pregúntale: '¿Podrías por favor enviar a mi hermana Tamar a darme algo de comer y que lo cocine ante mí, de manera que yo pueda verlo y comérmelo de su mano?"'' 6 Así que Amnón se acostó y fingió estar enfermo. Cuando el rey vino a verlo, Amnón dijo al rey: "Por favor envía a mi hermana Tamar a preparar alguna comida para mi enfermedad en frente de mí para que yo pueda comer de su mano." 7 Entonces David envió palabra a Tamar en su palacio, diciendo: "Ve ahora a la casa de tu hermano Amnón y prepara comida para él." 8 Así que Tamar fue a la casa de su hermano Amnón donde él estaba acostado. Ella tomó masa y la amasó y formó pan a su vista, y entonces lo horneó. 9 Ella tomó la sartén y le dio el pan a él, pero él se negó a comérselo. Entonces Amnón le dijo a los otros presentes: "Saca a todos, lejos de mí." Así que todos salieron lejos de él. 10 Así que Amnón le dijo a Tamar: "Trae la comida dentro de mi cuarto para poder comer de tu mano." Así que Tamar tomó el pan que ella había hecho, y lo trajo dentro del cuarto de Amnón su hermano. 11 Cuando le trajo la comida, él la agarró y le dijo a ella: "Ven, duerme conmigo, mi hermana." 12 Ella le contestó: "No, mi hermano, no me obligues, pues nada así debe hacerse en Israel. No hagas esta cosa lamentable. 13 ¿Cómo podría yo deshacerme de mi verguenza? ¿Qué de ti? ¡Tu serías como uno de los necios de Israel! Ahora, por favor habla al rey, pues el no me negará a ti". 14 Sin embargo Amnón no la escuchó. Como él era más fuerte que Tamar, se apoderó de ella y él durmió con ella. 15 Entonces Amnón odió a Tamar con odio extremo. Él la odió aún más de lo que la había deseado. Amnón le dijo a ella: "Levántate y vete." 16 Pero ella le respondió a él: "¡No! Porque este gran mal de hacerme marcharme es aún peor que lo me hiciste a mí!" Pero Amnón no la escuchó a ella. 17 por el contrario, él llamó a su sirviente personal y dijo: "Lleva a esta mujer lejos de mí, y tranca la puerta tras ella." 18 Entonces su sirviente la sacó afuera y trancó la puerta tras ella. Tamar vestía una túnica muy decorada porque las hijas del rey que eran vírgenes vestían de esa manera. 19 Tamar puso cenizas en su cabeza y rasgó su túnica. Ella puso sus manos en su cabeza y se alejó caminando, llorando en voz alta mientras se iba. 20 Absalón su hermano le dijo a ella: "¿Ha estado tu hermano Amnón contigo? Pero ahora quédate callada, mi hermana. Él es tu hermano. No tomes esto en serio." Así que Tamar permaneció sola en la casa de su hermano Absalón. 21 Pero cuando el rey David oyó de todas estas cosas, él estaba muy enojado. 22 Absalón no le dijo nada a Amnón, pues Absalón lo odió por lo que él le había hecho a ella y cómo había deshonrado a su hermana Tamar. 23 Sucedió luego de dos años que Absalón tenía esquiladores de ovejas trabajando en Baal Hazor, lo cual es cerca de Efraín, y Absalón invitó a todos los hijos del rey a que visitaran allí. 24 Absalón fue al rey y dijo: "Mira ahora, tu sirviente tiene esquiladores de ovejas. Por favor, que el rey y sus sirvientes vayan conmigo, tu sirviente." 25 El rey le contestó a Absalón: "No, mi hijo, todos nosotros no debemos ir porque seríamos una carga para ti." Absalón animó al rey, pero él no quería ir, pero sí bendijo a Absalón. 26 Luego, Absalón dijo: "Si no, por favor deja a mi hermano Amnón ir con nosotros." Así que el rey le dijo a él: "¿Por qué debe Amnón ir contigo?" 27 Absalón presionó a David, y así que él dejó a Amnón y a todos sus hijos ir con él. 28 Absalón ordenó a sus sirvientes diciendo: "Escuchen atentamente. Cuando Amnón comience a estar ebrio con vino, y cuando yo les diga: 'Ataquen a Amnón,' entonces mátenlo. No tengan miedo. ¿No les he ordenado yo? Tengan ánimo y sean valientes." 29 Así que los sirvientes de Absalón hicieron a Amnón según él les había ordenado a ellos. Entonces todos los hijos del rey se levantaron, y todo hombre montó su mula y huyó. 30 Sucedió que mientras ellos estaban en el camino que la noticia le llegó a David diciendo: "Absalón ha matado a todos los hijos del rey y no queda ni uno de ellos." 31 Entonces el rey se levantó, rasgó sus ropas y se acostó en el piso; todos sus sirvientes estuvieron a su lado con sus ropas rasgadas. 32 Jonadab hijo de Simea, hermano de David, contestó y dijo: "Que no crea mi amo que ellos han matado a todos los hombres jóvenes que son hijos del rey, pues solamente Amnón está muerto. Absalón ha planificado ésto desde el día que Amnón violó a su hermana Tamar. 33 Por tanto no tome mi amo el rey este informe en serio, y no crea que todos sus hijos están muertos, pues solamente Amnón está muerto." 34 Absalón salió huyendo. Un sirviente que vigilaba alzó sus ojos y vio mucha gente llegando en el camino en la ladera al oeste de él. 35 Luego, Jonadab le dijo al rey: "Mira, los hijos del rey vienen. Es justo según dijo tu siervo." [36] Sucedió tan pronto él había terminado de hablar que los hijos del rey llegaron, alzaron sus voces y lloraron. Y el rey y todos sus sirvientes también lloraron amargamente. [37] Pero Absalón huyó y fue a Talmai, hijo de Amiud, el rey de Gesur. David tuvo luto por su hijo cada día. [38] Así que Absalón huyó y fue a Gesur dónde estuvo por tres años. [39] La mente del rey David anhelaba salir y ver a Absalón pues yá estaba consolado concerniente a Amnón y su muerte.

Chapter 14

1 Joab hijo de Sarvia percibió que el corazón del rey deseaba ver a Absalón. 2 Así que Joab envió palabra a Tecoa e hizo traer a una mujer sabia ante él. Él le dijo: "Por favor pretende que estás de duelo y ponte ropa de luto. Por favor no te unjas con aceite, pero sé como una mujer que ha estado de luto por mucho tiempo por el muerto. 3 Entonces ve donde el rey y háblale sobre lo que te describiré." Así que Joab le dijo las palabras que ella debía decir al rey. 4 Cuando la mujer de Tecoa habló al rey ella se postró sobre su rostro en el suelo y dijo: "Ayúdame rey." 5 El rey le dijo a ella: "¿Qué te sucede?" Ella contestó: "La verdad es que soy una viuda y mi esposo está muerto. 6 Yo tu sierva tenía dos hijos y ellos pelearon entre sí en el campo y no hubo nadie que los separara. Uno golpeó al otro y lo mató. 7 Y ahora la tribu completa se ha levantado contra tu sierva y ellos dicen: 'Danos al hombre que golpeó a su hermano para que podamos hacerlo morir y que pague por la vida de su hermano al que mató.' Y así también ellos destruirán al heredero. Así ellos apagarán la ascua ardiente que me ha quedado y no dejarán para mi esposo ni nombre ni descendencia en la superficie de la tierra."' 8 Así que el rey le dijo a la mujer: "Ve a tu casa y yo ordenaré que se haga algo por ti." 9 La mujer de Tecoa dijo al rey: "Mi señor rey la culpa sea sobre mí y sobre la casa de mi padre. El rey y su trono están sin culpa." 10 El rey respondió: "Quien te diga algo a ti tráemelo y él no te molestará más." 11 Entonces ella dijo: "Por favor, que el rey traiga a su memoria al SEÑOR su Dios para que el vengador de sangre no destruya más a ninguno, para que ellos no destruyan a mi hijo." El rey respondió: ''Te prometo, así como Vive el SEÑOR, que ni un pelo de tu hijo caerá a tierra." 12 Entonces, la mujer dijo: "Por favor deja a tu sierva hablar una palabra más a mi Señor el rey. Él dijo: "Habla." 13 Así que la mujer dijo: "¿Por qué entonces usted ha ideado tal cosa contra el pueblo de Dios? Porque al decir ésto el rey es como alguien que es culpable pues el rey no ha traído a casa de vuelta a su hijo desterrado. 14 Pues todos moriremos y somos como agua derramada en la tierra que no se puede recoger de nuevo. Pero Dios no quitará vida, en cambio Él encuentra una forma para que esos que fueron echados fuera sean restaurados. 15 Ahora entonces, viendo que he venido a hablar esta cosa a mi señor el rey, es porque el pueblo me ha llenado de miedo. Así que tu sierva se dijo a sí misma: 'Hablaré ahora al rey. Podrá ser que el rey lleve a cabo la petición de su sierva. 16 Pues el rey me escuchará a mí, de manera que entregue a su siervo de la mano del hombre que me destruiría a mí y a mi hijo juntos, de la herencia de Dios.' 17 Entonces tu sierva oró: "SEÑOR, por favor permite que la palabra de mi señor el rey me brinde alivio porque como un ángel de Dios es mi señor el rey para discernir el bien del mal. Sea el SEÑOR tu Dios contigo." 18 Entonces el rey respondió y dijo a la mujer: "Por favor no escondas de mí nada de lo que te pregunte." La mujer respondió: "Que mi señor el rey hable ahora." 19 El rey dijo: "¿No está la mano de Joab contigo en todo esto?" La mujer respondió y dijo: "Mientras viva, mi señor el rey, nadie puede escapar a la mano derecha o a la izquierda de nada de lo que mi señor ha hablado. Fue tu siervo Joab quien me mandó y me dijo que dijera estas cosas que tu sierva ha hablado. 20 Tu siervo Joab ha hecho ésto para cambiar el curso de lo que está pasando. Mi señor es sabio, como la sabiduría de un ángel de Dios, y el sabe todo lo que está sucediendo en la tierra." 21 Así que el rey dijo a Joab: "Mira ahora, yo haré esta cosa. Ve entonces, y trae al joven Absalón de vuelta." 22 Así que Joab se postró sobre su rostro en tierra en honor y gratitud al rey. Joab dijo: "Hoy tu siervo sabe que yo he encontrado favor ante tus ojos, mi señor, rey, en que el rey ha llevado a cabo la petición de su siervo." 23 Así que Joab se levantó, fue a Gesur, y trajo de vuelta a Absalón a Jerusalén. 24 El rey dijo: "Él puede regresar a su propia casa, pero no podrá ver mi rostro." Así que Absalón regresó a su propia casa, pero no vio la cara del rey. 25 Ahora en todo Israel no había nadie alabado por su belleza más que Absalón. Desde la planta de sus pies hasta el tope de su cabeza no había defecto en él. 26 Cuando él se cortaba el pelo de su cabeza al final de cada año, porque era pesado sobre él, él pesaba su cabello; esté pesaba alrededor de doscientos siclos, que se mide por el peso real. 27 A Absalón le nacieron tres hijos y una hija, cuyo nombre era Tamar. Ella era una hermosa mujer. 28 Absalón vivió dos años en Jerusalén sin ver al rey. 29 Entonces Absalón envió palabra a Joab para enviarlo al rey pero Joab no venía a él. Así que Absalón envió palabra una segunda vez pero Joab tampoco vino. 30 Así que Absalón le dijo a sus sirvientes, " Vean, el campo de Joab que está cerca del mío, él tiene cebada ahí. Vayan y préndanle fuego." Así que, los siervos de Absalón prendieron fuego al campo. 31 Entonces Joab se levantó y vino a casa de Absalón y le dijo: "¿Por qué tus siervos han prendido fuego a mi campo?" 32 Absalón le respondió a Joab: "Mira, yo te envié palabra diciendo: 'Ven aquí para yo enviarte al rey a decir: ¿Por qué yo vine de Gesur? Sería mejor para mí todavía estar allá. Ahora, por lo tanto déjame ver la cara del rey y si yo soy culpable deja que él me mate."' 33 Así que Joab fue al rey y le dijo. Cuando el rey llamó por Absalón, él vino al rey y se postró en tierra ante el rey, y el rey besó a Absalón.

Chapter 15

1 Acontenció después de ésto que Absalón preparó un carruaje y caballos para sí mismo con cincuenta hombres para que corrieran delante de él. 2 Absalón se levantaba temprano y se paraba al lado del sendero que guiaba a la puerta de la ciudad. Cuando cualquier hombre tenía una disputa y venía ante el rey para juicio, Absalón lo llamaba y le decía: "¿De qué ciudad has venido?" Entonces el hombre respondía: "Tu sirviente es de una de las tribus de Israel." 3 Entonces Absalón le decía a él: "Mira tu caso es bueno y correcto pero no hay ninguno nombrado por el rey para que escuche tu caso.'' 4 Absalón añadió: "¡Yo desearía que me hicieran juez en esta tierra para que cada hombre que tenga una disputa o causa pueda venir a mí y yo le traería justicia!'' 5 Acontenció que cuando cualquier hombre iba a Absalón para honrarle él extendía su mano, lo agarraba y lo besaba. 6 Absalón actuaba de esta manera con todo Israel que venía ante él rey para juicio. Así que Absalón robó el corazón de los hombres de Israel. 7 Acontenció que al final de cuatro años Absalón le dijo al rey: ''Por favor déjame ir y pagar un voto que yo le había hecho al SEÑOR en Hebrón. 8 Pues tu sirviente hizo un voto mientras vivía en Gesur en Aram, diciendo: 'Si el SEÑOR me trae otra vez a Jerusalén entonces yo adoraré al SEÑOR.'" 9 Así que el rey le dijo a él: " Ve en paz." Entonces Absalón se levantó y se fue a Hebrón. 10 Pero después Absalón envió espías a través de todas las tribus de Israel diciendo: "Tan pronto escuchen el sonido de la trompeta tienen que decir: 'Absalón es rey en Hebrón.'" 11 Con Absalón fueron doscientos hombres desde Jerusalén quienes fueron invitados. Ellos fueron en su inocencia sin saber nada de lo que Absalón había planificado. 12 Mientras Absalón ofrecía sacrificios él envió por Ahitofel desde su pueblo Gilo. Él era el consejero de David. La conspiración de Absalón era fuerte, pues el pueblo que seguía a Absalón estaba constantemente aumentando. 13 Un mensajero vino donde David diciendo: "Los corazones de los hombres de Israel están siguiendo a Absalón." 14 Así que David le dijo a todos sus sirvientes que estaban con él en Jerusalén: "Levántense y déjennos salir o ninguno de nosotros escapará de Absalón. Prepárense para irse de inmediato o él se nos adelantará rápidamente, traerá desastre sobre nosotros y atacará la ciudad con el borde de la espada." 15 Los sirvientes del rey le dijeron: "Mira, tus sirvientes están listos para hacer lo que sea que nuestro amo el rey decida." 16 El rey se fue y toda su familia detrás de él pero dejó a diez mujeres quienes eran concubinas para guardar el palacio. 17 Después que el rey salió y todo el pueblo detrás de él se detuvieron en la última casa. 18 Todo su ejército marchó con él y delante de él fueron todos los cereteos, peleteos, y todos los geteos - seiscientos hombres quienes lo siguieron desde Gat. 19 Luego el rey le dijo a Itai el geteo: "¿Por qué tú vendrías con nosotros? Regresa y quédate con el rey pues tú eres extranjero y un exiliado. Regresa a tu propio lugar. 20 Ya que te fuiste ayer, ¿Por qué debería yo hacerte deambular a todas partes con nosotros? Yo ni tan siquiera sé a dónde voy. Así que regresa y toma a tus compratriotas de regreso. Que la lealtad y la fidelidad vayan contigo." 21 Pero Itai le contestó a el rey y dijo: "Mientras el SEÑOR viva, y mientras mi amo el rey viva, ciertamente a cualquier lugar donde vaya mi amo el rey, allí también su sirviente irá aunque eso signifique vivir o morir." 22 Así que David le dijo a Itai: "Ve adelante y continúa con nosotros.'' Así que Itai el geteo marchó con el rey junto con todos sus hombres y todas las familias que estaban con él. 23 Todo el país lloró en voz alta mientras todo el pueblo pasaba por valle de Cedrón, y mientras el rey mismo cruzaba. Todo el pueblo viajó por el sendero hacia el desierto. 24 Incluso Sadoc con todos los levitas cargando el arca del pacto de Dios estaban presentes. Ellos bajaron el arca de Dios y Abiatar se les unió. Ellos esperaron hasta que todo el pueblo pasara fuera de la ciudad. 25 El rey le dijo a Sadoc: "Carga el arca de Dios de vuelta a la ciudad. Si encuentro favor en los ojos del SEÑOR me traerá de vuelta aquí y me mostrará otra vez el arca y el lugar donde Él vive. 26 Pero si Él dice: 'Yo no estoy complacido contigo, mira aquí estoy que me haga lo que le parezca bien a Él." 27 El rey también le dijo a Sadoc el sacerdote: "¿No eres tú un vidente? Regresa a la ciudad en paz y tus dos hijos contigo, Ahimaas tu hijo, y Jonatán hijo de Abiatar. 28 Mira, yo esperaré en los vados de Arabá hasta que la palabra venga de ti para informarme. 29 Así que Sadoc y Abiatar cargaron el arca de Dios de vuelta a Jerusalén y ellos se se quedaron allí. 30 Pero David ascendió descalzo y llorando al Monte de los Olivos y tenía su cabeza cubierta. Cada hombre del pueblo que estaba con él cubrió su cabeza y ellos subieron llorando mientras caminaban. 31 Alguien le dijo a David: "Ahitofel está entre los conspiradores con Absalón.'' Así que David oró: ''Oh SEÑOR, por favor convierte el consejo de Ahitofel en tonterías." 32 Aconteció que cuando David llegó al tope del sendero, donde se acostumbraba a adorar a Dios, Husai el arquita llegó a encontrarlo con su abrigo desgarrado y tierra en su cabeza. 33 David le dijo a él: ''Si tú viajas conmigo, entonces serás una carga para mí. 34 Pero si regresas a la ciudad y le dices a Absalón: 'Yo, rey, seré tu sirviente como he sido de tu padre en el tiempo pasado, así ahora yo seré tu sirviente,' entonces confundirás el consejo de Ahitofel para mí. 35 ¿No tendrás al sacerdote Sadoc

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y Abiatar contigo? Así que, cualquier cosa que escuches en el palacio del rey tienes que decirle a Sadoc y Abiatar, los sacerdotes. 36 Mira, ellos tienen allí con ellos sus dos hijos, Ahimaas, hijo de Sadoc, y Jonatán, hijo de Abiatar. Tú tienes que enviarme por sus manos todo lo que escuches"'. 37 Así que Husai, amigo de David, fue a la ciudad mientras Absalón llegaba y entraba a Jerusalén.

Chapter 16

1 Cuando David había llegado un poco más allá de la cumbre de la montaña, Siba el siervo de Mefiboset salió a su encuentro con un par de asnos ensillados; sobre éstos había doscientos hogazas de pan, cien racimos pasas, y cien racimos de higos, y un odre de vino. 2 El rey le dijo a Siba: "¿Por qué trajiste estas cosas?" Siba respondió: "Los asnos son para que los parientes del rey los monten, el pan y los panes de higos para que tus hombres los coman y el vino es para que todo aquel que esté débil en el desierto tome." 3 El rey dijo: "¿Y en dónde está el nieto de tu amo? Siba le respondió al rey: "Mira, él se quedó en Jerusalén, por que dijo: 'Hoy la casa de Israel restaurará el reino de mi padre para mí." 4 Entonces el rey le dijo a Siba: "Mira, todo lo que perteneció a Mefiboset ahora te pertenece a ti." Siba respondió: "Me inclino en humildad ante ti, mi amo, rey. Déjeme encontrar favor delante de ti." 5 Cuando el rey David llegó a Bahurim, salió de allí un hombre del clan de Saúl, cuyo nombre era Simei, hijo de Gera. Él salió maldiciendo mientras caminaba. 6 El lanzó piedras hacia David, y a todos los oficiales del rey, a pesar del ejército y los guardaespaldas que estaban a la derecha y a la izquierda del rey. 7 Simei gritó maldiciendo, "¡Vete, vete de aquí, tu villano, tu hombre de sangre! 8 El SEÑOR les ha pagado a todos ustedes por la muerte de la familia de Saúl, en cuyo lugar tú has reinado. El SEÑOR le ha entregado el reino a las manos de Absalón, tu hijo. Y ahora tú, estás arruinado, porque eres un hombre de sangre." 9 Luego Abisai, hijo de Seruvia, le dijo al rey: "¿Por qué debería este perro muerto maldecir a mi señor, el rey? Por favor, déjame ir y cortarle la cabeza." 10 Pero el rey dijo: "¿Qué tengo que ver con ustedes, hijos de Seruvia? Quizá me maldice porque Él SEÑOR le dijo: 'Maldice a David.' Quién entonces le puede decir a Él, '¿Por qué maldices al rey?" 11 Así que, David le dijo a Abisai, y a todos sus siervos, "Mira, mi hijo, quien nació de mi cuerpo quiere tomar mi vida. ¿Cuánto más este Benjamita ahora desea mi ruina? Déjalo sólo, y deja que maldiga, pues El SEÑOR, le ha ordenado que lo haga. 12 Quizá El SEÑOR, vea la miseria desatada sobre mí, y quiera pagarme con bien por él maldecirme hoy." 13 Así que David y sus hombres viajaron en la calle, mientras Simei iba a su lado en la ladera, maldiciéndole y lanzándole polvo y rocas mientras iba. 14 Luego el rey y toda la gente que estaba con él, se debilitarón, y el descansó cuando ellos se detuvieron por la noche. 15 En cuanto a Absalón, y todos los hombres de Israel que estaban con él, ellos llegaron a Jerusalén, y Ahitofel estaba con él. 16 Y aconteció que cuando Husai, el arquita, amigo de David, vino a Absalón, que Husai le dijo a Absalón: "¡Larga vida al rey!, ¡Larga vida al rey!" 17 Absalón le dijo a Husai: "¿Es ésta tu lealtad a tu amigo? ¿Por qué no te fuiste con él?" 18 Husai le dijo a Absalón: "¡No! En cambio, aquel a quien El SEÑOR y su pueblo y todos los hombres de Israel han escogido, ese es el hombre a quien le perteneceré, y me quedaré con él. 19 Además, ¿a qué hombre debo servir? ¿No debería servir en la presencia de su hijo? Así como he servido en presencia de tu padre, serviré en tu presencia." 20 Luego, Absalón le dijo a Ahitofel: "Danos tu consejo acerca de lo que debemos hacer." 21 Ahitofel le respondió a Absalón: "Ve a dormir con las esposas esclavas de tu padre, a quienes ha dejado para mantener el palacio, y todo Israel esuchará que te has convertido en pestilencia para tu padre. Luego, las manos de todos los que están contigo serán fuertes." 22 Así que abrieron una tienda para Absalón en el techo del palacio, y Absalón se acostó con las esposas esclavas de su padre a la vista de todo Israel. 23 Ahora el consejo que Ahitofel dio en esos días, fue como si un hombre lo hubiera escuchado de la boca del mismo Dios. Así fue como todo el consejo de Ahitofel fue visto por ambos, David y Absalón.

Chapter 17

1 Luego Ahitofel dijo a Absalón: "Ahora déjame escoger doce mil hombres y subiré y perseguiré a David esta noche. 2 Yo vendré sobre él mientras está cansado y débil y lo sorprenderé con temor. Las personas que están con él huirán y yo atacaré sólo al rey. 3 Yo traeré de vuelta a todas las personas a ti, como una novia viniendo a su esposo, y todo el pueblo estará en paz debajo de ti." 4 Lo que Ahitofel dijo agradó a Absalón y todos los ancianos de Israel. 5 Luego Absalón dijo: "Ahora, tambien llama a Husai el Arquita, y déjanos oir lo que él dice." 6 Cuando Husai hubo venido a Absalón, Absalón le explicó a él lo que Ahitofel había dicho y luego preguntó a Husai: "¿Debemos nosotros hacer lo que Ahitofel ha dicho? Si no, dinos lo que recomiendas." 7 Así que Husai dijo a Absalón: "La recomendación que Ahitofel ha dado esta vez no es buena." 8 Husai añadió: "Tú sabes que tu padre y sus hombres son guerreros fuertes, y que ellos son furiosos como una osa a la que se le ha robado sus cachorros en el campo. Tu padre es un hombre de guerra; él no dormirá con el ejército esta noche. 9 Mira, ahora mismo él está probablemente escondido en algún hoyo o en algún otro lugar. Sucederá que cuando algunos de tus hombres hayan sido asesinados al comienzo del ataque, que quien lo escuche dirá, 'Una matanza se ha llevado a cabo entre los soldados que siguen a Absalón.' 10 Luego los soldados más valientes, cuyos corazones son como el de león, tendrán miedo porque todo Israel sabe que tu padre es un hombre poderoso, y que los hombres que están con él son muy fuertes. 11 Así que yo te recomiendo que todo Israel debe reunirse junto a ti, desde Dan a Beerseba, cual numeroso como las arenas que están junto al mar, y que tú vayas a la batalla en persona. 12 Luego nosotros vendremos sobre él donde quiera que él se encuentre, y nosotros los cubriremos como el rocío cae en la tierra. No dejaremos aun uno de sus hombres, o él mismo, vivo. 13 Si él se retira a una ciudad, luego todo Israel traerá sogas a esa ciudad y nosotros la arrastraremos al río, hasta que no haya ni una piedra pequeña ahí." Luego Absalón y los hombres de Israel dijeron: 14 "El consejo de Husai el Arquita es mejor que el de Ahitofel." El SEÑOR había ordenado el rechazo del buen consejo de Ahitofel para traer destrucción a Absalón. 15 Luego Husai dijo a los sacerdotes Sadoc y Abitatar: "Ahitofel aconsejó a Absalón y los ancianos de Israel de tal y tal manera, pero yo he recomendado otra cosa. 16 Entonces ahora, ve rápidamente e informa a David; dile a él, 'No acampes esta noche en los vados de Arabá, pero por todos los medios crúzalo, o el rey será tragado junto con toda la gente que está con él.'" 17 Ahora Jonatán y Ahimaas estaban quedándose en el manantial de En- Rogel. Una sirvienta solía ir e informarles a ellos lo que ellos necesitaban saber, puesto que ellos no podían arriesgar el ser vistos entrando a la ciudad. Cuando el mensaje llegó, luego ellos debían ir y decirle al rey David. 18 Pero un joven los vio esta vez y le dijo a Absalón. Así que Jonatán y Ahimaas se fueron rápidamente y llegaron a la casa de un hombre en Bahurim quien tenía un pozo en su patio, dentro del cual ellos descendieron. 19 La esposa del hombre tomó la cubierta para el pozo y la extendió sobre la abertura del pozo y roció granos sobre éste, así que nadie sabía que Jonatán y Ahimaas estaban en el pozo. 20 Los hombres de Absalón vinieron a la mujer de la casa y dijeron: "¿Dónde están Ahimaas y Jonatán?" La mujer le dijo a ellos: "Ellos han cruzado el río." Así que después de ellos haberlos buscado alrededor y no haberlos encontrados, regresaron a Jerusalén. 21 Sucedió que después que ellos se habían ido, Jonatán y Ahimaas subieron para salir fuera del pozo. Ellos fueron a reportarse al rey David; ellos le dijeron a él: "Levántate y cruza rápidamente sobre el agua porque Ahitofel ha dado tal y cual consejo sobre ti." 22 Luego David subió y toda la gente que estaba con él, y ellos cruzaron sobre el Jordán. En la luz de la mañana ninguno de ellos había dejado de cruzar sobre el Jordán. 23 Cuando Ahitofel vio que su consejo no se había seguido, él ensilló su burro y se fue. Él fue a su hogar a su propia ciudad, puso sus asuntos en orden y el mismo se colgó. De esta manera él murió y fue enterrado en la tumba de su padre. 24 Luego David vino a Mahanaim. En cuanto a Absalón, él cruzó sobre el Jordán, él y todos los hombres de Israel con él. 25 Absalón había puesto a Amasa sobre el ejército en vez de Joab. Amasa era el hijo de Itra el ismaelita, quien había dormido con Abigail, quien era la hija de Nahas y hermana de Sarvia, la madre de Joab. 26 Entonces Israel y Absalón acamparon en la tierra de Galaad. 27 Acontenció que cuando David había llegado a Mahanaim, que Sobi hijo de Nahas de Rabá de los amonitas, y Maquir hijo de Amiel de Lodebar, y Barzilai el Galaadita de Rogelim, 28 trajo colchonetas para dormir y cobijas, tazones y potes, y trigo, harina de cebada, granos rostizados, frijoles, lentejas, 29 miel, mantequilla, ovejas, y cuajada de leche, para que David y las personas con él comieran. Estos hombres habían dicho: "El pueblo está hambriento, cansado y sediento en el desierto"

Chapter 18

1 David contó los soldados que estaban con él y fijó capitanes de miles y capitánes de cientos sobre ellos. 2 Luego, David envió el ejército, un tercio bajo el mando de Joab, otro tercio bajo el mando de Abisai hijo de Sarvia, hermano de Joab, y aún otro tercio bajo el mando Itai el geteo. El rey le dijo al ejército: "Ciertamente yo también iré contigo. 3 Pero los hombres dijeron: "Usted no debe ir a la batalla, pues si nosotros huímos a ellos no les importará o si la mitad de nosotros morimos a ellos no les importará. ¡Pero usted vale diez mil de nosotros! Por lo tanto, es mejor que usted esté listo para ayudarnos desde la ciudad. 4 Así que el rey le contestó: "Yo haré lo que mejor les parezca a ustedes. El rey se paró en la puerta de la ciudad mientras todo el ejército salía por cientos y por miles. 5 El rey mandó a Joab, Abisai, y a Itai diciendo: "Traten con gentileza, por mi bien, con el jóven Absalón." Todo el pueblo oyó que el rey había dado este mando acerca de Absalón. 6 Así que el ejécito salió para el campo en contra de Israel; la batalla se expandió hacia el bosque de Efraín. 7 El ejército de Israel fue derrotado ahí delante de los soldados de David; allí hubo una gran matanza ese día de veinte mil hombres. 8 La batalla se expandió a través de todo el campo y más hombres fueron consumidos por el bosque que por la espada. 9 Le ocurrió a Absalón que se encontró con algunos de los soldados de David. Absalón montaba su mula y pasó debajo de unas ramas gruesas de un árbol de roble grande, y su cabeza se le quedó atrapada en las ramas del árbol. Quedó suspendido entre la tierra y el cielo mientras la mula que montaba seguía adelante. 10 Alguien vio ésto y se lo dijo a Joab, "¡Mira, yo ví a Absalón colgando en un árbol de roble!" 11 Joab le dijo al hombre que le contó de Absalón, "¡Mira! ¡Tú lo viste! ¿Por qué no le pegaste para derribarlo a la tierra? Yo te hubiera dado diez moneda de plata y un cinturón. 12 El hombre le contestó a Joab, "Ni aunque recibiera mil monedas de plata, aun así, yo no hubiera levantado mi mano en contra del hijo del rey porque todos nosotros oímos que el rey ordenó a ti, a Abisai, y a Itai, diciendo, 'Nadie debe tocar al joven Absalón.' 13 Si yo hubiera arriesgado mi vida por falsedad (y no hay nada escondido ante el rey), tú me hubieras abandonado." 14 Entonces Joab dijo: "Yo no esperaré por tí." Así que Joab agarró tres jabalinas en sus manos y se las atravesó en el corazón a Absalón mientras el aún estaba vivo y colgando del roble. 15 Entonces, diez jóvenes que cargaban con la armadura de Joab rodearon a Absalón, lo atacaron y lo mataron. 16 Entonces, Joab sonó la trompeta y el ejército regresó de perseguir a Israel pues Joab detuvo el ejército. 17 Ellos tomaron a Absalón y lo echaron dentro de un pozo grande en el bosque; enterraron su cuerpo debajo de un montón de piedras, mientras todo Israel escapaba cada hombre a su propio hogar. 18 Ahora Absalón, mientras estaba vivo, se construyó para él un gran pilar de roca en el Valle del Rey, pues él dijo: "Yo no tengo ningún hijo que pueda llevar la memoria de mi nombre." El nombró el pilar en honor de su propio nombre, así que se llamó ''Monumento de Absalón'' hasta hoy día. 19 Entonces Ahimaas, hijo de Sadoc dijo: "Déjame ahora correr al rey con las buenas noticias de cómo El SEÑOR lo ha rescatado de la mano de sus enemigos. 20 Joab le contestó: "Tú no serás el portador de las noticias hoy; tú deberás hacerlo otro día. Este día tú no llevarás las noticias porque el hijo del rey está muerto." 21 Luego, Joab le dijo al cusita: "Anda, dile al rey lo que has visto." El cusita se inclinó a Joab y corrió. 22 Luego, Ahimaas hijo de Sadoc dijo otra vez a Joab: "Independientemente de lo que pueda pasar por favor déjame seguir al cusita."Joab le contestó: "¿Porqué tu quieres correr, mi hijo, viendo que tu no tendrás recompensa por las noticias?" 23 "Lo que sea que pase," dijo Ahimaas: Yo correré." Así que Joab le respondió: "Corre." Luego Ahimaas corrió por el camino de la llanura y le pasó al cusita. 24 Ahora David estaba sentado entre la puerta interior y exterior. El vigilante se había subido al techo de la puerta a la pared y alzó sus ojos. Mientras él miraba él vio a un hombre acercándose, corriendo sólo. 25 El vigilante gritó y se lo dijo al rey. Luego, el rey dijo: "Si el está solo hay noticias en su boca." El corredor llegó cerca y se acercó a la ciudad. 26 Entonces el vigilante notó otro hombre corriendo y el vigilante llamó al portero; él dijo: "Mira, hay otro hombre corriendo con él." El rey dijo: "El también está trayendo noticias." 27 Así que el vigilante dijo: "Yo pienso que la forma de correr del que está en frente se parece a la forma de correr de Ahimaas hijo de Sadoc." El rey dijo: "Él es un buen hombre y viene con buenas noticias." 28 Luego Ahimaas llamó y le dijo al rey: "¿Está todo bién." Y él se inclinó delante del rey con la cara hacia el suelo y dijo: "Bendecido es el SEÑOR tu Dios, quien liberó los hombres que han alzado sus manos contra mí amo, el rey." 29 Así que el rey contestó: "¿Está todo bien con el joven Absalón?" Ahimaas contestó: "Cuando Joab, el siervo del rey, me envió a usted, rey, yo ví una gran perturbación pero yo no ví lo que era. 30 Luego, el rey dijo: "Vuélvete y párate aquí." Así Ahimaas se volvió al lado, y se paró quieto. 31 Inmediatamente llegó el cusita y dijo: "Hay buenas noticias para mi amo el rey, pues el SEÑOR lo ha vengado este día de todo el que se levantó contra usted." 32 Luego, el rey dijo al cusita: "¿Está todo bien con el joven Absalón? El cusita contestó: "Los enemigos de mi amo el rey, y todo el que se levanta en contra suya para hacerle daño, sean como ese joven." 33 Entonces, el rey estuvo profundamente angustiado, y se fue arriba a la habitación encima de la puerta. Mientras se iba, se afligía: "¡Mi hijo Absalón, mi hijo, mi hijo! ¡Yo deseo haber muerto en tu lugar Absalón, mi hijo, mi hijo!"

Chapter 19

1 A Joab se le dijo: "Mira, el rey está llorando y de luto por Absalón." 2 Así que la victoria ese día se tornó en luto para todo el ejército, pues el ejército escuchó decir ese día: "El rey está de luto por su hijo." 3 Los soldados tuvieron que escabullirse silenciosamente en la ciudad ese día, como gente que está avergonzada se escabuye cuando ellos corren de la batalla. 4 El rey cubrió su cara y gritó en voz alta: "¡Mi hijo Absalón, Absalón, mi hijo, mi hijo!" 5 Luego Joab entró en la casa donde estaba el rey y le dijo: "Hoy tu has avergonzado los rostros de todos tus soldados quienes salvaron tu vida y las vidas de tus hijos, de tus hijas y las vidas de tus esposas y las vidas de tus esposas esclavas. 6 Porque tu amas a esos quienes te odian y tu odias a esos quienes te aman. Pues hoy has demostrado que los comandantes y soldados son nada para ti. Hoy yo creo que si Absalón hubiera vivido y todos nosotros hubiéramos muerto entonces eso te hubiera agradado. 7 Ahora entonces levántate y sal afuera y háblale bondadosamente a tus soldados pues juro por El SEÑOR que si no vas ni un hombre se quedará contigo esta noche. Eso sería peor para ti que todos los desastres que te han ocurrido desde tu juventud hasta ahora." 8 Así que el rey se levantó y se sentó en la puerta de la ciudad y le fue dicho a todos los hombres: "Miren, el rey está sentado en la puerta." Luego todo el pueblo vino ante el rey. Pero Israel huyó cada hombre a su hogar. 9 Todo el pueblo estaba discutiendo, los unos con los otros, entre todas las tribus de Israel diciendo: "El rey nos rescató de la mano de nuestros enemigos. Él nos salvó de la mano de los filisteos, pero ahora ha huído del país a causa de Absalón. 10 Y Absalón, a quien nosotros ungimos sobre nosotros, está muerto en batalla. Así que, ¿por qué no estamos hablando acerca de traer al rey de vuelta?" 11 El rey David envió a Sadoc y Abiatar los sacerdotes diciendo: "Hablen a los ancianos de Judá diciendo: '¿Por qué son ustedes los últimos en traer al rey de vuelta a su palacio, cuando el hablar de todo Israel favorece al rey para traerlo de vuelta a su palacio? 12 Ustedes son mis hermanos, mi carne y hueso. ¿Por qué entonces son los últimos en traer al rey de vuelta?' 13 Y dile a Amasa: '¿No eres tú mi carne y hueso? Me haga ésto Dios a mí, o más, si no eres el capitán de mi ejército de ahora en adelante en lugar de Joab.'" 14 Y él ganó el corazón de todos los hombres de Judá, como un sólo hombre, y así ellos enviaron al rey diciendo: "Regresa tú y todos tus hombres." 15 Así que el rey regresó y vino al Jordán y los hombres de Judá vinieron a Gilgal para ir a encontrarse con el rey para escoltarlo al otro lado del Jordán. 16 Simei, hijo de Gera, el benjamita, quien era de Bahurim, se apresuró junto a los hombres de Judá para encontrarse al rey David. 17 Habían mil hombres de Benjamín con el y Siba siervo de Saúl y sus quince hijos y veinte siervos con él. Ellos cruzaron el Jordán en presencia del rey. 18 Cruzaron para traer a toda la familia del rey y para hacer lo él pensara que fuera bueno. Simei, hijo de Gera, se inclinó ante el rey justo antes de comenzar a cruzar el Jordán. 19 Simei le dijo al rey: "No me considere culpable mi amo o traiga a memoria lo que su siervo obstinadamente hizo ese día que mi señor el rey dejó Jerusalén. Por favor, que el rey no lo lleve a su corazón. 20 Pues tu siervo sabe que yo he pecado. Verás, por eso es que he venido aquí hoy como el primero de toda la familia de José en venir a encontrarme con mi amo, el rey." 21 Pero Abisai, hijo de Sarvia, le respondió y dijo: "¿No debería Simei ser ejecutado por ésto, porque maldijo al ungido del SEÑOR?" 22 Luego David dijo: "¿Qué tengo que ver con ustedes, hijos de Sarvia, para que hoy deban ser adversarios para mí? ¿Será algún hombre ejecutado hoy en Israel? ¿Pues no sabré yo que hoy soy rey sobre Israel?" 23 Así que el rey le dijo a Simei: "No morirás." Así el rey se lo prometió con un juramento. 24 Luego Mefiboset, hijo de Saúl, descendió a encontrarse con el rey. No vistió sus pies ni recortó su barba ni lavó sus ropas desde el día que el rey se fue hasta el día que regresó a casa en paz. 25 Así que, cuando vino de Jerusalén a encontrarse al rey, el rey le dijo a él: "¿Por qué no te fuiste conmigo, Mefiboset?" 26 El les respondió: "Mi amo el rey, mi siervo me engañó; pues dije: 'Voy a ensillar un burro para montarlo e irme con el rey pues tu siervo es lisiado.' 27 Mi siervo Siba me ha difamado ante mi amo el rey. Pero mi amo, el rey, es como un ángel de Dios. Por lo tanto, haz lo que es bueno en tus ojos. 28 Pues toda la casa de mi padre eran hombres muertos ante mi amo, el rey, pero tú sentaste a tu siervo junto con los que comen en tu propia mesa. ¿Qué derecho tengo entonces, para seguir rogando más al rey?" 29 Luego el rey le dijo a él: "¿Por qué continuar explicando más? He decidido que Siba y tú se dividirán los campos." 30 Así que, Mefiboset le respondió al rey: "Sí, deje que él lo tome todo ya que mi amo el rey ha regresado a salvo a su propia casa." 31 Luego Barzilai, el galaadita, descendió desde Rogelim para cruzar sobre el Jordán con el rey y lo acompañó sobre el Jordán. 32 Ahora Barzilai era un hombre muy viejo de ochenta años de edad. Él había equipado al rey con provisiones, mientras se quedó en Mahanaim, porque el era un hombre muy rico. 33 El rey le dijo a Barzilai: "Ven conmigo y yo proveeré para ti para que te quedes conmigo en Jerusalén." 34 Barzilai le respondió al rey: "¿Cuántos días más restan en los años de mi vida para que deba yo subir con el rey a Jerusalén? 35 Yo tengo ochenta años de edad. ¿Puedo distinguir entre el bien y el mal? ¿Puede tu siervo probar lo que yo como o bebo? ¿Puedo escuchar la voz de hombres y mujeres cantantes? ¿Por qué entonces tu sirviente debería ser una carga para mi amo el rey? 36 A tu siervo solo le gustaría ir sobre el Jordán con el rey. ¿Por qué el rey debe pagarme con tal recompensa? 37 Por favor, deja que tu siervo regrese a casa, para que yo pueda morir en mi propia ciudad, al lado de la tumba de mi padre y mi madre. Pero mira, aquí está su siervo Quimam. Que el cruce con mi amo, el rey, y haga por él lo que te parezca bien a ti." 38 El rey respondió: "Quimam irá conmigo y haré por él lo que te parezca bueno a ti y lo que sea que desees de mí yo haré eso por ti." 39 Luego toda la gente cruzó el Jordán, y el rey cruzó sobre él, y el rey besó a Barzilai y lo bendijo. Luego Barzilai regresó a su propia casa. 40 Así que el rey cruzó a Gilgal y Quimam cruzó con él. Todo el ejército de Judá trajo al rey y también a la mitad del ejército de Israel. 41 Pronto todos los hombres de Israel comenzaron a venir al rey y le decían: "¿Por qué nuestros hermanos, los hombres de Judá, te robaron y trajeron al rey y su familia sobre el Jordán y todos los hombres de David con él?" 42 Así que, los hombres de Judá respondieron a los hombres de Israel: "Es porque el rey está más estrechamente relacionado con nosotros. ¿Por qué están ustedes molestos con esto? ¿Hemos comido algo por lo que el rey ha tenido que pagar? ¿Nos ha dado él algún regalo a nosotros?" 43 Los hombres de Israel le respondieron a los hombres de Judá: "Tenemos diez tribus relacionadas con el rey, así que tenemos aún más derecho a David que ustedes. ¿Por qué ustedes nos desprecian? ¿No fue nuestra propuesta de traer de regreso al rey la primera en ser escuchada?" Pero las palabras de los hombres de Judá eran más duras que las palabras de los hombres de Israel.

Chapter 20

1 Allí también ocurrió, que en el mismo lugar, había un alborotador cuyo nombre era Seba, hijo de Bicri, un benjamita. Él sonó la trompeta y dijo: "Nosotros no tenemos parte en David, ni tampoco tenemos herencia con el hijo de Isaí. Dejen que todo hombre regrese a su hogar, Israel." 2 Así que todos los hombres de Israel abandonaron a David y siguieron a Seba, hijo de Bicri. Pero los hombres de Judá siguieron de cerca a su rey, todo el camino, desde el Jordán hasta Jerusalén. 3 Cuando David llegó a su palacio, en Jerusalén, él tomó a las diez esposas esclavas a quienes había dejado atendiendo el palacio y las puso en una casa bajo vigilancia. Él proveyó por sus necesidades pero ya no durmió más con ellas. Así que ellas fueron encerradas hasta el día de sus muertes, viviendo como si fueran viudas. 4 Entonces el rey le dijo a Amasa: "Llama a los hombres de Judá a reunirse dentro de tres días, tu también tienes que estar ahí." 5 Así que Amasa se fue a llamar a los hombres de Judá a reunirse pero él se quedó más tiempo del que el rey le había ordenado a él. 6 Así que David le dijo a Abisai: "Ahora Seba hijo de Bicri nos hará a nosotros más daño del que hizo Absalón. Toma a los sirvientes de tu amo, mis soldados, y persíguelo o él encontrará ciudades fortificadas y escapará fuera de nuestra vista." 7 Luego los hombres de Joab fueron detrás de él junto con los cereteos, los pereteos y todos los poderosos guerreros. Ellos dejaron Jerusalén para perseguir a Seba, hijo de Bicri. 8 Cuando ellos estaban en la gran piedra, la cual está en Gabaón, Amasa vino a encontrarlos. Joab estaba vistiendo la armadura de batalla, que se había puesto, la cual incluía un cinturón alrededor de su cintura con una espada envainada amarrada a él. Mientras él caminaba hacia al frente la espada se cayó. 9 Así que, Joab le dijo a Amasa: "¿Estás bien, mi primo?" Joab cariñosamente tomó a Amasa por la barba con su mano derecha para besarlo. 10 Amasa no notó la daga que estaba en la mano izquierda de Joab. El apuñaló a Amasa en el estómago y sus intestinos se derramaron en el suelo. Joab no lo hirió otra vez, y Amasa murió. Entonces Joab y Abisai, su hermano, persiguieron a Seba, hijo de Bicri. 11 Entonces, uno de los hombres de Joab se paró junto a Amasa y el hombre dijo: "Aquel que favorezca a Joab, aquel que esté por David, déjelo que siga a Joab." 12 Amasa quedó revolcándose en su sangre en el medio del camino. Cuando el hombre vio que todas las personas se quedaron quietas, él cargó a Amasa fuera del camino y dentro de un campo. Él arrojó una prenda sobre él porque vio que todo el que pasó cerca de él se quedo quieto. 13 Después que Amasa fue quitado del camino todos los hombres sigueron detrás de Joab en persecusión de Seba, hijo de Bicri. 14 Seba pasó a través de todas las tribus de Israel hasta Abel de Bet Maaca, y a través de toda la tierra de los bicritas, quienes se unieron y también persiguieron a Seba. 15 Ellos lo alcanzaron y lo rodearon en Abel de Bet Maaca. Ellos construyeron una rampa de cerco contra la ciudad sobre la pared. Todo el ejército que estaba con Joab golpeó la pared para derribarla. 16 Entonces una mujer sabia gritó hacia afuera de la ciudad: "¡Escucha, por favor, escucha Joab! ¡Ven cerca de mí para yo poder hablar contigo!" 17 Así que Joab vino cerca de ella y la mujer dijo: "¿Eres tu Joab?" Él le respondió: "Lo soy." Entonces ella le dijo a él: "Escucha las palabras de tu sierva." Él respondió: "Estoy escuchando." 18 Entonces ella habló: "Ellos solían decir en los tiempos antiguos: 'Seguramente busca consejo en Abel,' y ese consejo terminaría el asunto. 19 Nosotros somos una ciudad de las más pacíficas y fieles de Israel. Tu estas tratando de destruir una ciudad que es una madre en Israel. ¿Por qué quieres tragarte la herencia del SEÑOR?" 20 Entonces Joab le respondió y dijo: "Lejos esté, lejos esté de mí que yo tragué o destruya. 21 Eso no es verdad. Pero un hombre de la zona montañosa de Efraín, llamado Seba, hijo de Bicri, ha levantado su mano contra el rey, contra David. Entrégalo a él solamente y yo me retiraré de la ciudad." La mujer le dijo a Joab: "Su cabeza será arrojada a ti sobre la pared." 22 Entonces la mujer fue a toda la gente con su sabiduría. Ellos le cortaron la cabeza a Seba, hijo de Bicri, y se la arrojaron fuera a Joab. Entonces él sonó la trompeta y los hombres de Joab dejaron la ciudad, cada hombre a su casa. Y Joab regresó a Jerusalén a su rey. 23 Ahora Joab estaba sobre todo el ejército de Israel y Benaía, hijo de Joiada estaba sobre los cereteos y los peleteos. 24 Adoram estaba sobre los hombres que hacían trabajos forzados y Josafat, hijo de Ahilud era el cronista. 25 Seva era escriba y Sadoc y Abiatar eran sacerdotes. 26 Ira el jaireo era jefe ministro de David.

Chapter 21

1 Hubo una hambruna en el tiempo de David por tres años seguidos, y David buscó la cara del SEÑOR. Así que el SEÑOR dijo: "Esta hambruna está sobre ti a causa de Saúl y su familia asesina, porque él puso a los gabaonitas a muerte." 2 Los gabaonitas no eran del pueblo de Israel; ellos eran de los que habían permanecido de los amorreos. El pueblo de Israel había jurado no matarlos a ellos, pero Saúl intentó matarlos de todas maneras en su celo por el pueblo de Israel y Judá. 3 Así que el rey David reunió a los gabaonitas y les dijo: "¿Qué debería hacer por ustedes? ¿Cómo puedo remover el pecado para que ustedes puedan bendecir al pueblo del SEÑOR, quien hereda sus bondades y promesas? 4 Los gabaonitas le respondieron a él: "No es una cuestión de plata u oro entre nosotros y Saúl o su familia. Igual, no está en nosotros darle muerte a cualquier hombre en Israel." David respondió: "Lo que sea que ustedes pidan, eso es lo que yo haré por ustedes." 5 Ellos le contestaron al rey: "El que intentó matarnos a todos, quien conspiró en contra de nosotros, para que ahora estemos destruídos y no tengamos lugar entre las fronteras de Israel- 6 permita que siete hombres de los descendientes de él sean entregados a nosotros y nosotros los colgaremos ante el SEÑOR en Guibeá de Saúl, el elegido por el SEÑOR." Así que el rey dijo: "Yo se los entregaré a ustedes." 7 Pero el rey perdonó a Mefiboset, hijo de Jonatán, hijo de Saúl a causa del pacto del SEÑOR entre ellos, entre David y Jonatán hijo de Saúl. 8 Pero el rey tomó los dos hijos de Rizpa hija de Aja, hijos que tuvo con Saúl-- los dos hijos se llamaron Armoni y Mefiboset; y David también tomó a los cinco hijos de Mical hija de Saúl, quien dio a luz a Adriel hijo de Barzilai el meholatita. 9 Él los entregó a las manos de los gabaonitas. Ellos los colgaron en la montaña ante el SEÑOR, y todos los siete murieron juntos. Ellos fueron puestos a muerte durante el tiempo de cosecha, durante los primeros días en el comienzo de la cosecha de cebada. 10 Luego Rizpa, la hija de Aja, agarró tela de saco y ella misma la extendió en la montaña al lado de los cuerpos muertos desde el comienzo de la cosecha hasta que la lluvia cayó sobre ellos desde el cielo. Ella no permitió que los pájaros del cielo perturbaran los cuerpos durante el día o los animales salvajes por la noche. 11 Le fue dicho a David lo que Rizpa, la hija de Aja, la esposa esclava de Saúl, había hecho. 12 Así que David fue y tomó los huesos de Saúl y los huesos de Jonatán, su hijo, de los hombres de Jabes de Galaad, quienes se los habían robado de la plaza pública de Bet Sán, donde los filisteos los habían colgado despúes de los filisteos haber matado a Saúl en Gilboa. 13 David se llevó desde allí los huesos de Saúl y los huesos de Jonatán su hijo, y ellos reunieron los huesos de los siete hombres que también habían colgado. 14 Ellos enterraron los huesos de Saúl y Jonatán, su hijo, en la región de Benjamín en Zela, en la tumba de Cis, su padre. Ellos hicieron todo lo que el rey ordenó. Después de que Dios contestara sus oraciones por la tierra. 15 Entonces los filisteos tuvieron guerra nuevamente con Israel. Así que David bajó con su ejército y peleó en contra de los filisteos. David se agotó con la fatiga de la batalla. 16 Isbi Benob, un descendiente de los gigantes, cuya lanza de bronce pesaba trescientos siclos y quien estaba armado con una nueva espada, intentó matar a David. 17 Pero Abisai, hijo de Sarvia, rescató a David, atacó al filisteo y lo mató. Luego los hombres de David le juraron a él, diciendo: "No debes ir más con nosotros a la batalla para que no apagues la lámpara de Israel." 18 Acontenció después de ésto que hubo otra vez una batalla con los filisteos en Gob, cuando Sibecai el husatita mató a Saf, quien era uno de los descendientes de Refaim. 19 Ocurrió que otra vez en una batalla con los filisteos en Gob, Elhanán hijo de Jaare Oregim el betlemita, mató a Goliat el geteo, la vara cuya lanza era como la barra de un tejedor. 20 Acontenció en otra batalla en Gat que había un hombre de gran peso que tenía seis dedos en cada mano y seis dedos en cada pie, veiticuatro en número. Él también había descendido desde el Refaim. 21 Y cuando él se burló de Israel, Jonatán hijo de Simea hermano de David, lo mató. 22 Estos eran descendientes de Refaim de Gat, y ellos fueron matados por la mano de David y por la mano de sus soldados.

Chapter 22

1 David le cantó al SEÑOR las palabras de ésta canción en el día que El SEÑOR lo rescató de la mano de sus enemigos, y de las manos de Saúl. 2 El oró: "El SEÑOR es mi roca, mi fortaleza, Él que me rescata." 3 Dios es mi roca. Yo encuentro refugio en Él. Él es mi escudo, el cuerno de mi salvación, mi fortaleza, y mi refugio, El que me salva de violencia. 4 Yo llamaré al SEÑOR, quien es digno de ser alabado, y seré salvo de mis enemigos. 5 Pues las olas de la muerte me han rodeado, las aguas apresuradas de destrucción me abruman. 6 Las cuerdas del Seol me rodean; las trampas de las muerte me han atrapado. 7 En mi angustia yo llamé al SEÑOR; Yo llamé a mi Dios; Él escuchó mi voz desde Su templo y mi llamada de ayuda fue hasta Sus oídos. 8 Luego la tierra se estremeció y tembló. El fundamento de los cielos tembló y fue conmovido porque Dios estaba molesto. 9 Humo salió de su naríz y fuego ardiente salió de su boca. Carbones fueron encendidos por él. 10 Él abrió los cielos y bajó y espesa oscuridad estaba bajo sus pies. 11 Él montó en un querubín y voló. Fue visto sobre las alas del viento. 12 Y Él hizo de la oscuridad una carpa a su alrededor reuniendo pesadas nubes de lluvia en los cielos. 13 Desde el relámpago frente a Él caían carbones de fuego. 14 Él SEÑOR tronó desde el cielo. El Altísimo gritó. 15 Él lanzó flechas y esparció sus enemigos, rayos y los dispersó. 16 Luego los canales de agua aparecieron; los fundamentos del mundo fueron expuestos al grito de batalla del SEÑOR a la explosión del aliento de su naríz. 17 ¡El me alcanzó desde arriba y me tomó! Me sacó de la creciente agua. 18 Me rescató de mi fuerte enemigo, de aquellos que me odiaron, pues eran muy fuertes para mi. 19 Vinieron en mi contra en el día de mi angustia, pero El SEÑOR era mi apoyo. 20 Él también me trajo a un lugar espacioso. El me salvó porque se agradó de mi. 21 El SEÑOR me ha recompensado a la medida de mi justicia; Él me ha restaurado a la medida de la limpieza de mis manos. 22 Pues he guardado los caminos del SEÑOR y no he actuado con maldad apartándome de mi Dios. 23 Pues todos sus justos decretos han estado frente a mi, al igual que sus estatutos, yo no me he apartado de ellos. 24 De igual manera, yo he sido inocente delante de Él y me he guardado del pecado. 25 Por ésto, El SEÑOR me ha restaurado a la medida de mi justicia, al grado de mi limpieza a su vista. 26 A alguien que sea fiel Tú te muestras a Ti mismo fiel, a un hombre inocente, Tú te muestras a Ti mismo inocente. 27 Con el puro Tú te muestras a Ti mismo puro, pero eres sagaz con los perversos. 28 Tú has afligido a nuestra gente, pero Tus ojos están en contra de los orgullosos y Tú los derribas. 29 Pues Tú eres mi lámpara, SEÑOR. El SEÑOR ilumina mi oscuridad. 30 Por Ti yo puedo correr sobre un obstáculo; por mi Dios puedo saltar sobre una pared. 31 En cuanto a Dios, Su camino es perfecto. La palabra del SEÑOR es pura. Él es un escudo a todos los que se refugian en Él. 32 Pues ¿quién es Dios excepto El SEÑOR? ¿Y quién es la roca excepto nuestro Dios? 33 Dios es mi refugio y Él guía a las personas inocentes en Su camino. 34 Él hace mis pies rápidos como el ciervo y me coloca en las colinas altas. 35 El entrena mis manos para la guerra y mis brazos para doblar un arco de bronce. 36 Tú me has dado el escudo de Tu salvación y tus favores me han hecho bien. 37 Tú has hecho un lugar amplio bajo mis pies para que no resbalen. 38 Yo perseguí a mis enemigos y los destruí. No volví atrás hasta que fueron destruídos. 39 Yo los devoré y los aplasté, ellos no se pueden levantar. Han caído debajo de mis pies. 40 Tú pones fuerza en mí como un cinturón para la batalla; Tú pones debajo de mí a aquellos que se levantan en mi contra. 41 Tú me diste la parte de atrás del cuello de mis enemigos; yo aniquilé a aquellos que me odiaron. 42 Ellos clamaron por ayuda, pero nadie los salvó; ellos clamaron al SEÑOR, pero Él no les contestó. 43 Yo los golpeé en pedazos pequeños, como polvo en el suelo, yo los pulvericé como barro en la calle. 44 Tú también me has rescatado de las disputas de mi propio pueblo. Tú me has mantenido como la cabeza de las naciones. Gente que no he conocido me sirve. 45 Extranjeros fueron forzados a inclinarse a mi. Tan pronto escucharon de mi, ellos me obedecieron. 46 Los extranjeros vinieron temblando afuera de sus fuertes. 47 ¡Él SEÑOR vive! Que mi roca sea alabada. Que Dios sea exaltado, la roca de mi salvación. 48 Éste es el Dios que ejecuta venganza por mí, el que derriba a las gentes debajo de mí. 49 Él me libra de mis enemigos. Verdaderamente, Tú me has levantado por encima de esos que se levantaron en mi contra. Me has rescatado de hombres violentos. 50 Por ésto, Te daré gracias a Ti, SEÑOR, entre las naciones; Cantaré alabanzas a Tu nombre. 51 Dios da gran victoria a su rey y Él muestra lealtad a Su pacto con el ungido, a David y sus descendientes por siempre."

Chapter 23

1 Ahora estas fueron las últimas palabras de David - David hijo de Isaí, el hombre que fue altamente honrado, el que fue ungido por el Dios de Jacob, el dulce salmista de Israel. 2 ''El Espíritu del SEÑOR habló por mí, y Su palabra estaba en mi lengua. 3 El Dios de Israel habló, la Roca de Israel me dijo: 'El que con justicia gobierna sobre los hombres, quien gobierna en el temor de Dios. 4 El será como la luz de la mañana cuando el sol se levanta, una mañana sin nubes, cuando la tierna hierba se levanta de la tierra mediante la luz del sol después de la lluvia. 5 Ciertamente, ¿No es mi familia como ésto delante de Dios? ¿No ha hecho Él un pacto eterno conmigo, ordenado y seguro en todo? ¿Acaso el no aumenta mi salvación y cumple cada uno de mis deseos? 6 Pero los indignos serán todos como espinos para ser echados fuera porque ellos no pueden ser reunidos por la mano de uno. 7 El hombre que los toque a ellos deberá usar una herramienta de hierro o el asta de una lanza. Ellos deben ser quemados donde ellos yacen." 8 Estos son los nombres de los soldados selectos de David: Joseb Basebet el Tacmonita era el líder de los soldados selectos. El mató ochocientos hombres en una ocasión. 9 Después de él estaba Eleazar hijo de Dodo, hijo de un ahohita, uno de los tres hombres grandes de David. Él estuvo presente cuando ellos desafiaron a los filisteos que se habían reunido para hacer batalla y cuando los hombres de Israel se habían retirado. 10 Eleazar se levantó y peleó a los filisteos hasta que su mano se cansó y quedó endurecida al agarre de su espada. El SEÑOR trajo una gran victoria ese día. El ejército regresó, después de Eleazar, solo a tirar los cuerpos. 11 Después de él estaba Sama hijo de Age el ararita. Los filisteos se reunieron juntos donde había un campo de lentejas y el ejército huyó de ellos. 12 Pero Sama se detuvo en el medio del campo y lo defendió. El mató los filisteos y el SEÑOR les trajo una gran victoria. 13 Tres de los treinta soldados bajaron donde David en el tiempo de la cosecha, a la cueva de Adulam. El ejército de los filisteos acampaban en el valle de Refaím. 14 En ese tiempo David estaba en su fortaleza, una cueva, mientras los filisteos se establecieron en Belén. 15 David anhelaba agua y dijo: "¡ Si tan solo alguien me diera de beber agua del pozo de Belén, el pozo que está por la entrada! " 16 Así que esos tres hombres valientes se abrieron paso a través del ejército de los filisteos y sacaron agua del pozo de Belén que estaba en la entrada. Ellos tomaron el agua y la llevaron a David, pero el rehusó tomarla. En cambio, él la derramó para el SEÑOR. 17 Luego, el dijo: "Lejos esté de mí, SEÑOR, que yo beba ésto. ¿Debo tomar la sangre de los hombres que arriesgaron sus vidas?" Así que rechazó tomarla. Esas fueron cosas que los tres poderosos hombres hicieron. 18 Abisai, hermano de Joab hijo de Sarvia, era capitán sobre los tres. Él una vez peleó con su lanza contra trescientos y los mató. Él era frecuentemente mencionado con los tres soldados. 19 ¿No era él, más famoso que los tres? Él fue hecho su capitán. En cambio su fama no era igual a la fama de los tres soldados más famosos. 20 Benaía de Cabseel era hijo de Joiada; él era un hombre fuerte que hacía poderosas hazañas. El mató a los dos hijos de Ariel el de Moab. Él también bajó en medio de un foso y mató un león mientras estaba nevando. 21 Y el mató a un egipcio bien grande. El egipcio tenía una lanza en la mano, pero Benanía peleó contra él, con sólo una vara. El se apoderó de la lanza de la mano del egipcio y luego lo mató con su propia lanza. 22 Benanía el hijo de Joiada hizo esas hazañas, y fue nombrado junto a los tres hombres valientes. 23 Él era altamente más considerado que a los treinta soldados en general, pero no era considerado como los tres soldados más selectos. Sin embargo, David lo puso a cargo de sus guardaespaldas. 24 Los treinta incluían a los siguientes hombres: Asael hermano de Joab, Elhanán hijo de Dodo de Belén, 25 Sama el harodita, Elica el harodita, 26 Heles el paltita, Ira hijo de Iques el tecoíta, 27 Abiezer el anatotita, Mebunai el husatita, 28 Salmón el Ahohíta, Maharai el netofatita; 29 Heleb hijo de Baana el netofatita, Itai hijo de Ribai de guibeá de los benjamitas, 30 Benaía el piratonita, Hidai de los valles de Gaas, 31 Abi Albón el arbatita, Azmavet el barhumita, 32 Eliaba el saalbonita, los hijos de Jasén, Jonatán hijo de Sama el ararita; 33 Ahíam, hijo de Sarar el ararita, 34 Elifelet hijo de ahasbai el maaca, Eliam hijo de Ahitofel el gilonita, 35 Hesraí el carmelita, Paarai el arbita, 36 Igal hijo de Natán de Soba, Bani de la tribu de Gad, 37 Selec el amonita, Naharai el beherotita, escuderos de Joab hijo de Sarvia, 38 Ira el itrita, Gareb el itrita, 39 Urías el hitita- treinta y siete por todos.

2 Samuel 23:3

Información general
Esto continúa las últimas palabras de David.

El Dios de Israel habló, la Roca de Israel... me dijo Aquí, el "Dios de Israel" es lo mismo que la "Roca de Israel". Las dos frases dicen esencialmente lo mismo. David compara a Dios con una roca para enfatizar Su poder para proteger a su pueblo.

El que gobierna justamente sobre los hombres, que gobierna en el temor de Dios Estas dos frases dicen que el rey respetará a Dios y hará lo que Dios quiere que haga. (Ver: paralelismo de higos).

en el temor de Dios
"respetando a Dios"

él será como la luz de la mañana... luz del sol después de la lluvia Aquí, Dios está comparando al rey con la luz de la mañana y la luz del sol después de la lluvia. Estas son todas las maneras de decir que este rey sería un deleite para Dios y una bendición para el pueblo. Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar y se usan para dar énfasis. Traducción Alternativa: "él será un deleite para todos"

Esto continúa las últimas palabras de David.

Aquí, David está diciendo que está de acuerdo con Dios. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una afirmación. Traducción Alternativa: "¡Mi familia es ciertamente así ante Dios!"

¿No ha hecho... en cada aspecto?
David reconoce que Dios ha hecho un pacto con él. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una afirmación. Traducción Alternativa: "De hecho, Él ha hecho... en cada aspecto".

ordenado y seguro
Esto significa que el pacto de Dios está organizado adecuadamente y no cambiará para que la familia de David pueda confiar en él

¿No aumenta mi salvación... deseos?
David cree que Dios siempre lo ayudará y lo hará prosperar. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una afirmación. Traducción Alternativa: "Él aumenta mi salvación y me concede todos mis deseos".

2 Samuel 23:6

Información general
Esto concluye las últimas palabras de David.

Pero los indignos serán como espinas que se tirarán Aquí, la persona malvada es comparada con espinas inútiles. Esto puede se expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "Pero la persona malvada no tiene valor y es peligrosa como las espinas que tiramos"

pues ellas no pueden ser recogidos por las manos
"pues nadie puede levantarlas con las manos sin que las espinas le lastimen"

Deben ser quemadas en donde se encuentran
"Donde se encuentren las espinas, allí es donde deben quemarse". Esto significa que Dios destruirá a los malvados.

Chapter 24

1 Otra vez la ira del SEÑOR se encendió contra Israel y Él incitó a David en contra de ellos diciendo: ''Ve, cuenta a Israel y a Judá". 2 El rey le dijo a Joab, el comandante del ejército, quien estaba con él: "Ve por todas las tribus de Israel, desde Dan hasta Beerseba, y cuenta todas las personas para que yo sepa el número total de hombres listos para la batalla." 3 Joab le dijo al rey: ''Que el SEÑOR tu Dios multiplique el número de personas cien veces y que los ojos de mi amo, el rey, lo vean tomar lugar. Pero, ¿porqué mi amo, el rey, quiere hacer esto?" 4 Aún así, la palabra del rey era final en contra de Joab y de los comandantes del ejército. Así que Joab y los comandantes se fueron de la presencia del rey para contar al pueblo de Israel. 5 Ellos cruzaron sobre el Jordán y acamparon cerca de Aroer al sur de la cuidad en el valle. 6 Luego ellos viajaron por medio de Gad a Jazer. Ellos vineron a Galaad y a la tierra de Tahtim Hodshi, luego a Dan Jaán y alrededor de Sidón. 7 Alcanzaron la fortaleza de Tiro y todas las cuidades de los heveos y los cananeos. Entonces ellos salieron fuera al Neguev en Judá en Beerseba. 8 Cuando ellos habían ido por toda la tierra, ellos volvieron de regreso a Jerusalén al final de nueve meses y veinte días. 9 Luego Joab reportó el total de la cuenta de los hombre de guerra al rey. Habían en Israel 800, 000 hombres valientes quienes sacaron la espada y los hombres de Judá eran 500, 000 hombres. 10 Entonces el corazón de David se afligió después que él había contado los hombres. Así que él dijo al SEÑOR: "Yo he pecado grandemente por haber hecho ésto. Ahora, SEÑOR, llevaté la culpa de tu sirviente porque he actuado muy tontamente.'' 11 Cuando David se levantó en la mañana, la palabra del SEÑOR vino al profeta Gad, vidente de David, diciendo: 12 "Ve dile a David: 'Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: "Yo te estoy dando tres opciones. Escoge una de ellas."' 13 Así que Gad fue donde David y le dijo a él: "¿Vendrán tres años de hambruna a tu tierra? ¿O huirás tres meses de tus enemigos mientras ellos te persiguen? ¿ O habrán tres días de plaga en tu tierra? Ahora decide que respuesta yo le debo llevar a Él quien me envió." 14 Luego David le dijo a Gad: "Yo estoy en un profundo problema. Déjanos caer en las manos del SEÑOR, que en las manos del hombre, pues Sus actos misericordiosos son muy grandes." 15 Así que el SEÑOR envió una plaga a Israel desde la mañana hasta una hora acordada, y setenta mil personas murieron desde Dan a Beerseba. 16 Cuando el ángel extendió con su mano hacia Jerusalén para destruirla el SEÑOR cambió de opinión, por el daño que eso causaría, y le dijo al ángel que estaba destruyendo a las personas: "¡Suficiente! Ahora retira tu mano." En ese momento el ángel del SEÑOR estaba parado en el trillo de Arauna el jebuseo. 17 Luego David habló al SEÑOR cuando él vio el ángel que había atacado a las personas y dijo: "Yo he pecado y yo actué perversamente. Pero estas ovejas, ¿qué han hecho? ¡Por favor, deja que Tú mano castigue a la familia de mi padre y a mi!" 18 Entonces vino Gad a David ese día y le dijo: "Sube y construye un altar para el SEÑOR en el trillo de Aruana el jebuseo." 19 Así que David subió, como le indicó Gad, como Dios había demandado. 20 Aruana miró afuera y vio a el rey y sus sirvientes acercándose. Así que Aruana salió y se inclinó al rey con su cara al suelo. 21 Luego Arauna dijo: ''¿Porqué mi amo, el rey, ha venido a su siervo?" David contestó: "Para comprar tu trillo, así yo podré construir un altar para el SEÑOR para que la plaga sea removida del pueblo." 22 Arauna le dijo a David: ''Tómala para ti mismo, mi amo, el rey. Haz lo que te parezca bien a tu vista. Mira, aquí están unos bueyes para la ofrenda quemada y trineos de trillar y los yugos de los bueyes para la madera. 23 Todo ésto, mi rey, yo Arauna, te entregaré." Luego él dijo al rey: "Que el SEÑOR tu Dios te acepte." 24 El rey le dijo a Arauna: "No, yo insisto en comprarlo a un precio. Yo no ofreceré ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR que no me cueste nada." Así que David compró el trillo y los bueyes por cincuenta siclos de plata. 25 David construyó allí un altar para el SEÑOR y ofreció en él ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz. Entonces ellos suplicaron al SEÑOR de parte de la tierra y Él causó que la plaga cesara a travéz de Israel.

1 Cuando el rey David era muy viejo, ellos lo cubrieron con mantas, pero él no podía su cuerpo entrar en calor. 2 Así que sus sirvientes le dijeron a él: "Déjanos buscar a una joven soltera para nuestro amo el rey. Déjela servir al rey y cuidar de él. Déjela acostarse en sus brazos para que nuestro amo el rey pueda entibiar su cuerpo." 3 Así que ellos buscaron una joven hermosa dentro de los límites de Israel. Y encontraron a Abisag la sunamita y se la trajeron al rey. 4 La joven era muy hermosa. Ella sirvió al rey y lo cuidó, pero el rey no tuvo relaciones sexuales con ella. 5 En ese tiempo, Adonías, hijo de Haguit, se enorgulleció a sí mismo diciendo: "Yo seré rey." Así que él preparó para sí mismo carruajes y jinetes con cincuenta hombres para correr delante de él. 6 Su padre nunca lo molestó diciendo: "¿Por qué has hecho esto o aquello?" Adonías también era un hombre muy guapo, nacido después de Absalón. 7 Él pidi[o consejo con Joab, hijo de Sarvia, y con Abiatar el sacerdote. Ellos siguieron a Adonías y le ayudaron. 8 Pero Sadoc el sacerdote, Benaía, hijo de Joiada, Natán el profeta, Simei, Rei y los hombres poderosos que le pertenecían a David no siguieron a Adonías. 9 Adonías sacrificó ovejas, bueyes y becerros engordados en la piedra de Zohélet, la cual está al lado de En Rogel. Él invitó a todos sus hermanos, los hijos del rey y a todos los hombres de Judá, los siervos del rey. 10 Pero él no invitó a Natán el profeta, a Benaía, a los hombres poderosos, ni a su hermano Salomón. 11 Entonces Natán le habló a Betsabé, la madre de Salomón, diciendo: "¿No has escuchado que Adonías, hijo de Haguit, se ha vuelto rey, y David nuestro amo no lo sabe? 12 Ahora, por lo tanto, déjame aconsejarte, para que puedas salvar tu propia vida y la vida de tu hijo Salomón. 13 Ve al rey David; y dile: 'Mi amo el rey, ¿acaso no juraste a tu sierva, diciendo: "Ciertamente Salomón, tu hijo, reinará después de mí, y se sentará en mi trono?" ¿Por qué entonces Adonías está reinando?' 14 Mientras tú estés ahí hablando con el rey, yo entraré después de ti y asegurar[e que tus palabras son verdad." 15 Entonces Betsabé entró en el cuarto del rey. El rey era muy viejo, y Abisag la sunamita estaba sirviendo al rey. 16 Betsabé se inclinó y se postró ante el rey. Y el rey dijo: "¿Qué deseas?" 17 Ella le dijo a él: "Mi amo, tú juraste a tu sierva por el SEÑOR tu Dios, diciendo: 'Ciertamente Salomón, tu hijo, va a reinar después de mí, y él se sentará en mi trono.' 18 Ahora, mira, Adonías es rey, y tú, mi amo el rey, no lo sabes. 19 Él ha sacrificado bueyes, becerros engordados, y ovejas en abundancia, y ha invitado a todos los hijos del rey, a Abiatar el sacerdote y a Joab el capitán del ejército, pero no ha invitado a Salomón tu siervo. 20 Mi amo el rey, los ojos de todo Israel están en ti, esperando para que tú les digas a ellos quién se sentará en el trono después de ti, mi amo. 21 Si no, pasará que cuando mi amo el rey muera mi hijo Salomón y yo seremos tratados como criminales. 22 Mientras ella todavía hablaba con el rey, Natán el profeta entró. 23 Los sirvientes le dijeron al rey: "Natán el profeta está aquí." Cuando él entró ante el rey, se postró ante el rey con su rostro hasta el suelo. 24 Natán dijo: "Mi amo el rey, ¿has dicho: 'Adonías reinará después de mi, y él se sentará en mi trono?' 25 Porque él ha bajado hoy y sacrificado bueyes, becerros engordados, y ovejas en abundancia, y ha invitado a todos los hijos del rey, a los capitanes del ejército, y a Abiatar el sacerdote. Ellos están comiendo y bebiendo ante él, y diciendo: '! Larga vida al rey Adonías!' 26 Pero a mí, tu siervo, a Sadoc el sacerdote, a Benaía, hijo de Jodaía, y a tu siervo Salomón, él no nos ha invitado. 27 ¿Mi amo el rey ha hecho esto sin decirnos a nosotros, tus siervos, quién debería sentarse en el trono después de él?" 28 Entonces el rey David respondió y dijo: "Llama a Betsabé de regreso a mí." Ella vino a la presencia del rey y se paró ante el rey. 29 El rey hizo un juramento y dijo: "Así como vive el SEÑOR, Quién me ha redimido de todo problema, 30 y como te prometí por el SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, diciendo: 'Salomón tu hijo reinará después de mí, y él se sentará en mi trono en mi lugar,' yo haré esto hoy." 31 Entonces Betsabé se inclinó con su rostro al suelo y se postró a sí misma ante el rey y dijo: "¡Que mi amo, el rey David, viva para siempre!" 32 El rey David dijo: "Llámame a Sadoc el sacerdote, a Natán el profeta, y a Benaía, hijo de Joíada." Entonces ellos vinieron ante el rey. 33 El rey les dijo: "Lleven con ustedes a los sirvientes de su amo, y hagan que Salomón mi hijo monte en mi mula y llévenlo abajo a Gihón. 34 Déjen a Sadoc el sacerdote y a Natán el profeta ungirlo rey sobre Israel, y suenen la trompeta, y digan: '¡Larga vida al rey Salomón!' 35 Entonces ustedes vendrán detrás de él, y él vendrá y se sentará en mi trono; porque él será rey en mi lugar. Yo lo he nombrado para ser gobernante sobre Israel y Judá." 36 Benaía, hijo de Joíada respondió al rey y dijo: "¡Que así sea! Que el SEÑOR, el Dios de mi amo y rey, lo confirme. 37 Como el SEÑOR ha estado con mi amo el rey, así también esté con Salomón, y que haga su trono más grande que el trono de mi amo, el rey David." 38 Entonces Sadoc el sacerdote, Natán el profeta, Benaía, el hijo de Joíada, y los cereteos y los peleteos bajaron con Salomón montado sobre la mula del rey David; y lo trajeron a Gihón. 39 Sadoc el sacerdote sacó el cuerno de aceite fuera de la tienda y ungió a Salomón. Entonces ellos sonaron la trompeta, y toda la gente dijo: "¡Larga vida al rey Salomón!" 40 Entonces todo el pueblo subió tras él, y la gente tocó flautas y se regocijaron con gran alegría, tanto que la tierra tembló con el estruendo. 41 Adonías y todos los invitados que estaban con él, lo escucharon cuando terminaban de comer. Cuando Joab escuchó el sonido de la trompeta, él dijo: "¿Por qué hay escándalo en la ciudad?" 42 Mientras él estaba todavía hablando, Jonatán, hijo de Abiatar el sacerdote, vino. Adonías dijo: "Entra, porque eres un hombre honesto y traes buenas noticias." 43 Jonatán respondió y dijo a Adonías: "Nuestro amo, el rey David, ha hecho rey a Salomón. 44 Y el rey ha enviado con él a Sadoc el sacerdote, a Natán el profeta, a Benaía, hijo de Joíada, y a los cereteos y a los pereteos. Ellos tuvieron a Salomón montado en la mula del rey. 45 Sadoc el sacerdote y Natán el profeta, poniéndole aceite lo han nombrado rey en Gihón, y han venido desde allí regocijándose, por eso hay un escándalo en la ciudad. Este es el sonido que ustedes han escuchado. 46 También, Salomón está sentado en el trono del reino. 47 Aún más, los sirvientes del rey vinieron a bendecir a nuestro amo, el rey David, diciendo: 'Que tu Dios haga el nombre de Salomón mejor que tu nombre, y que haga su trono más grande que tu trono.' Y el rey se inclinó en la cama. 48 El rey también dijo: 'Bendito sea el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, Quien ha dado una persona que se siente en mi trono este día, y que mis propios ojos puedan verlo." 49 Entonces todos los invitados de Adonías estaban aterrorizados. Ellos se levantaron y cada hombre se fue por su camino. 50 Adonías tenía miedo de Salomón y se levanto, y fue y se aferró de los cuernos del altar. 51 Entonces, le fue dicho a Salomón, diciendo: "Mira, Adonías tiene miedo del rey Salomón, porque él ha agarrado los cuernos del altar, diciendo: 'Dejen al rey Salomón primero jurarme que él no matará a su siervo con la espada." 52 Salomón dijo: "Si él se muestra como un hombre confiable, ni un cabello suyo caerá en la tierra, pero si se encuentra en él maldad, él morirá." 53 Entonces el rey Salomón envió hombres, quienes trajeron a Adonías bajándolo del altar. Él vino y se inclinó ante el rey Salomón, y Salomón le dijo: "Vete a tu casa."

Chapter 2

1 Como los días de la muerte de David se aproximaban, él mandó a Salomón, su hijo, diciendo: 2 "Pronto voy a morir, por tanto se fuerte. 3 Guarda los mandatos del SEÑOR tu Dios para caminar en sus caminos, para obedecer sus leyes, sus mandamientos, sus decisiones y sus decretos de pacto, teniendo cuidado de hacer lo que está escrito en la ley de Moisés, para que puedas prosperar en todo lo que hagas, dondequiera que tú vayas, 4 para que el SEÑOR pueda cumplir Su palabra la cual habló sobre mí, diciendo: 'Si tus hijos cuidan su conducta, para caminar delante de mí fielmente con todo su corazón y con toda su alma, tú nunca dejarás de tener un hombre en el trono de Israel.' 5 Tú sabes también lo que Joab, hijo de Sarvia me hizo a mí, y lo que él hizo a los dos comandantes de los ejércitos de Israel, a Abner hijo de Ner, y Amasa hijo de Jeter, a quienes mató. Él derramó la sangre de guerra en tiempo de paz y puso la sangre de guerra en el cinturón alrededor de su cintura y en los zapatos sobre sus pies. 6 Trata con Joab conforme a la sabiduría que tú has aprendido, pero no dejes que en la vejez baje a la tumba en paz. 7 Sin embargo, muestra bondad a los hijos de Barzilai el galaadita, y déjalos estar entre aquellos que comen a tu mesa, porque ellos vinieron a mí cuando huí de Absalón tu hermano. 8 Mira, ahí está contigo Simei hijo de Gera, el benjamita de Bahurim, quien me maldijo con una maldición violenta en el día que yo fui a Mahanaim. Simei bajó a encontrarme en el Jordán, y yo le juré por el SEÑOR, diciendo: 'Yo no te expondré a muerte con la espada.' 9 Ahora, pues, no lo dejes ir libre del castigo. Tú eres un hombre sabio, y tú sabrás lo que tú debes hacerle a él. Bajarás su cabeza gris a la tumba con sangre." 10 Entonces David durmió con sus antepasados y fue enterrado en la ciudad de David. 11 Los días que David reinó sobre Israel fueron cuarenta años. Él habia reinado por siete años en Hebrón y por treinta y tres años en Jerusalén. 12 Entonces Salomón se sentó en el trono de su padre David, y su autoridad fue firmemente establecida. 13 Luego Adonías, hijo de Haguit vino a Betsabé, la madre de Salomón. Ella dijo: "¿Vienes tú en paz?" Él respondió: "En paz." 14 Luego él dijo: "Yo tengo algo que decirte." Así que ella respondió: "Habla." 15 Adonías dijo: "Tú sabes que el reino era mío, y que todo Israel esperaba que yo fuera rey. Sin embargo, el reino ha cambiado y ha venido a ser de mi hermano, porque era suyo de parte del SEÑOR. 16 Ahora yo te tengo un pedido, no me lo rehuses." Betsabé le dijo a él: "Habla." 17 Él dijo: "Por favor, habla a Salomón el rey, porque él no te lo negará, para que él me dé a Abisag la sunamita como mi esposa." 18 Betsabé dijo: "Muy bien, yo hablaré con el rey." 19 Betsabé, por lo tanto, fue al rey Salomón para hablarle a él por Adonías. El rey se levantó para encontrarse con ella y se inclinó a ella. Luego él se sentó en su trono e hizo traer un trono para la madre del rey. Ella se sentó a su mano derecha. 20 Luego ella dijo: "Yo te pido un favor, no me lo rehuses." El rey le contestó a ella: "Pide, madre mía, pues no te lo rehusaré." 21 Ella dijo: "Deja que Abisag la sunamita sea dada a Adonías, tu hermano, como su esposa." 22 El rey Salomón contestó y dijo a su madre: "¿Por qué pides a Abisag la sunamita para Adonías? ¿Por qué no pides tú el reino para él también, puesto que él es mi hermano mayor - para él, para Abiatar el sacerdote, y para Joab hijo de Sarvia?" 23 Entonces el rey Salomón juró por el SEÑOR, diciendo: "Que Dios así me haga a mí, y aún más, si Adonías no ha hablado esta palabra en contra de su propia vida. 24 Ahora por tanto, vive el Señor, quien me ha establecido y puesto en el trono de David mi padre, y quien me ha hecho una casa como prometió, ciertamente Adonías será puesto a muerte hoy." 25 Así el rey Salomón envió a Benaía hijo de Joiada, y Benaía encontró a Adonías y lo mató. 26 Después el rey dijo a Abiatar el sacerdote: "Ve a Anatot, a tus propios campos. Eres digno de muerte, pero yo no te mataré en este momento, porque tú cargaste el arca del SEÑOR Dios delante de David mi padre y sufriste en toda forma que mi padre sufrió. 27 Así que Salomón despidió a Abiatar de ser sacerdote del SEÑOR, para que él pudiese cumplir la palabra del SEÑOR, la cual habló concerniente a la casa de Elí en Silo. 28 Las nuevas llegaron a Joab, ya que Joab había apoyado a Adonías, aunque no había apoyado a Absalón. Así que, Joab huyó a la tienda del SEÑOR y agarró los cuernos del altar. 29 Se le informó al rey Salomón que Joab había huido a la tienda del SEÑOR y estaba ahora al lado del altar. Entonces Salomón envió a Benaía hijo de Joiada, diciendo: "Vé, ejecútalo." 30 Así que Benaía vino a la tienda del SEÑOR y le dijo: "El rey dice: 'Ven fuera.'" Joab contestó, "No, moriré aquí." Así que Benaía volvió al rey, diciendo: "Joab dijo que él quería morir en el altar." 31 El rey le dijo a él: "Haz como él ha dicho. Mátalo y entiérralo para que tú puedas quitar de mí y de la casa de mi padre la sangre que Joab derramó sin causa. 32 Que el SEÑOR devuelva su sangre sobre su propia cabeza, porque él atacó dos hombres más justos y mejores que él mismo y los mató con la espada, Abner hijo de Ner, el capitán del ejército de Israel, y Amasa hijo de Jeter, el capitán del ejército de Judá, sin que mi padre David lo supiiera. 33 Así que su sangre se vuelva sobre la cabeza de Joab y sobre la cabeza de sus descendientes para siempre. Pero para David y sus descendientes, para su casa, y su trono, que haya paz para siempre de parte del SEÑOR." 34 Entonces Benaía hijo de Joiada subió y atacó a Joab y lo mató. Él fue enterrado en su propia casa en el desierto. 35 El rey puso a Benaía

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hijo de Joiada sobre el ejército en su lugar, y puso a Sadoc el sacerdote en lugar de Abiatar. 36 Luego el rey envió y llamó a Simei, y le dijo: "Construye para ti una casa en Jerusalén y vive ahí, y no salgas de ahí para cualquier otro lugar. 37 Porque el día que salgas, y pases sobre el valle de Cedrón, sepas tú, de cierto, que tú, seguramente morirás. Tu sangre será sobre tu propia cabeza." 38 Así que Simei dijo al rey: "Lo que tú dices es bueno. Como mi señor el rey ha dicho, así tu siervo hará." Así que Simei vivió en Jerusalén por muchos días. 39 Pero al final de tres años, dos de los sirivientes de Simei huyeron a Aquís, hijo de Maaca, el rey de Gat. Así que se lo contaron a Simei, diciendo: "Mira, tus siervos están en Gat." 40 Entonces Simeí se levantó, ensilló su asno y fue a Aquís en Gat para buscar sus sirvientes. Él fue y trajo sus sirvientes de vuelta desde Gat. 41 Cuando se le dijo a Salomón que Simei había ido de Jerusalén a Gat y había regresado, 42 el rey envió a llamar a Simei y le dijo: "¿No te hice jurar por el SEÑOR y te testifiqué diciendo: 'Sepas de cierto que en el día que tú salgas y vayas a cualquier otro lugar, ciertamente morirás y tu dijiste estar de acuerdo. 43 ¿Por qué rompiste tu juramento al SEÑOR y el mandato que te di?" 44 El rey también le dijo a Simei: "Sabes en tu corazón toda la maldad que le hiciste a mi padre David. Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR devolverá tu maldad sobre tu cabeza. 45 Pero el rey Salomón será bendecido y el trono de David será establecido ante el SEÑOR para siempre." 46 Así que el rey mandó a Benaías hijo de Joiada, él salió y mató a Simeí. Así que el dominio estuvo bien establecido en la mano de Salomón.

Chapter 3

1 Salomón se hizo pariente del Faraón, rey de Egipto, al tomar a la hija de Faraón en matrimonio y la trajo a la ciudad de David hasta que hubo terminado de construir su propia casa y la casa del SEÑOR, y el muro alrededor de Jerusalén. 2 El pueblo estaba sacrificando en lugares altos, porque ninguna casa había sido construida todavía, al nombre del SEÑOR. 3 Salomón mostró su amor por el SEÑOR al caminar en los estatutos de David, su padre, excepto que él sacrificó y quemó incienso en lugares altos. 4 El rey fue a Gabaón para sacrificar allí, pues era el mas importante lugar alto. Salomón ofreció mil ofrendas quemadas en ese altar. 5 El SEÑOR apareció en Gabaón a Salomón en un sueño en la noche; Él le dijo: "¡Pide lo que tu quieras para dártelo! 6 Así que Salomón dijo: " Has sido fiel a tu siervo David mi padre, porque él caminó delante de ti en confianza, en justicia y en rectitud de corazón. Tú has guardado para él este gran pacto de fidelidad y le has dado un hijo para sentarse en su trono hoy. 7 Y ahora, SEÑOR mi Dios, me has hecho rey en lugar de David, mi padre, aunque yo soy sólo un joven, y no sé como conducirme como un rey. 8 Tu siervo está en medio del pueblo que has escogido, un pueblo muy numeroso para ser contado. 9 Así que dale a tu siervo un corazón comprensivo para juzgar a tu pueblo, para que yo pueda distinguir entre el bien y el mal. Pues, ¿quién es apto para juzgar a este pueblo tuyo?" 10 Esta petición de Salomón agradó al Señor. 11 Así que Dios le dijo: "Porque has pedido esta cosa, y no has pedido para ti larga vida o riquezas, o la vida de tus enemigos, pero has pedido para ti entendimiento para hacer justicia, 12 mira, ahora haré todo lo que pediste. Te daré un corazón sabio y comprensible, para que no haya nadie como tú antes de ti, y nadie como tú se levantará después de ti. 13 También te he dado lo que no has pedido, tanto riquezas como honor, para que no haya ninguno de entre los reyes como tú en todos tus días. 14 Si tú caminas en mis caminos para manetener mis estatutos y mis ordenanzas, como tu padre David caminó, entonces alargaré tus días.'' 15 Entonces, Salomón despertó y vió que fue un sueño. El fue a Jerusalén y se paró frente al Arca del Pacto del Señor. El ofreció ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz, e hizo un festín para todos sus siervos. 16 Luego, dos mujeres que eran prostitutas vinieron al rey y se pararon frente a él. 17 Una mujer dijo: "Oh, mi amo, esta mujer y yo vivimos en la misma casa, y yo di a luz a un niño cuando ella estaba en casa. 18 Acontenció al tercer día después de dar a luz que esta mujer también dio a luz. No había nadie más con nosotras en esa casa. 19 Entonces el hijo de esta mujer murió en la noche, porque ella se acostó sobre él. 20 Así que, ella se levantó a media noche y tomó a mi hijo de mi lado. mientras tu sierva dormía, y lo tendió en su pecho, y tendió a su hijo muerto en mi pecho. 21 Cuando me levanté en la madrugada para amamantar a mi hijo, él estaba muerto. Pero cuando lo miré con cuidado en la mañana, no era mi hijo, a quien yo di a luz." 22 Luego, la otra mujer dijo: "No, el que vive es mi hijo, y el muerto es tu hijo." Luego la primera mujer dijo: "No, el muerto es tu hijo, y el vivo es mi hijo." Así es como ellas hablaron ante el rey. 23 Entonces el rey dijo: "Una de ustedes dice: 'Éste es mi hijo que está vivo, y tu hijo está muerto', y la otra dice: 'No, tu hijo es el muerto y mi hijo es el vivo.'" 24 El rey dijo: "Tráedme una espada." Así que, trajeron una espada ante el rey. 25 Entonces el rey dijo: "Divide al niño vivo en dos, y dale una mitad a esta mujer, y la otra mitad a la otra." 26 Entonces la mujer cuyo hijo estaba vivo, le habló al rey, pues su corazón estaba lleno de compasión por su hijo, y dijo: "Oh, mi amo, dale a ella el niño vivo, y por nungún motivo lo mate." Pero la otra mujer dijo: "El no será ni mío, ni tuyo. Divídelo." 27 Entonces el rey respondió diciendo: ''Denle a la primera mujer el niño vivo, y por ningún motivo lo maten. Ella es su madre.'' 28 Cuando todo Israel escuchó del juicio el cual el rey prestó, ellos temieron al rey, porque vieron que la sabiduría de Dios estaba en él al dar juicios.

Chapter 4

1 El rey Salomón era rey sobre todo Israel. 2 Estos eran sus oficiales: Azarías hijo de Sadoc era el sacerdote. 3 Elihoref y Ahías, hijos de Sisa, eran secretarios. Josafat hijo de Ahilud era el cronista. 4 Benaía hijo de Joiada estaba sobre el ejército. Sadoc y Abiatar eran sacerdotes. 5 Azarías hijo de Natán estaba sobre los oficiales. Zabud hijo de Natán era un sacerdote y el amigo del rey. 6 Ahisar estaba sobre la casa. Adoniram hijo de Abda estaba sobre los hombres que eran sometidos a trabajo forzoso. 7 Salomón tenía doce oficiales sobre todo Israel, quienes proveían comida para el rey y su casa. Cada hombre tenía que hacer provisión por un mes en el año. 8 Estos eran sus nombres: Ben Hur, en la zona montañosa de Efraín; 9 Ben Decar en Macaz, Saalbim, Bet Semes y Elón Bet Hanán; 10 Ben Hesed, en Arubot (a él le pertenecía Soco y toda la tierra de Hefer); 11 Ben Abinadad, en todo el distrito de Dor (él tenía a Tafat la hija de Salomón como su esposa); 12 Baana hijo de Ahilud, en Taanac y Meguido, y todo Bet Seán que está al lado de Saretán abajo de Jezreel, desde Bet Seán hasta Abel Mehola tan lejos como el otro lado de Jocmeam; 13 Ben Geber en Ramot de Galaad (a él le pertenecían los pueblos de Jair hijo de Manasés, que están en Galaad, y la región de Argob le pertenecía a él, la cual está en Basán, sesenta grandes ciudades con paredes y barras de bronce para las puertas); 14 Ahinadab hijo de Iddo, en Mahanaim; 15 Ahimaas, en Neftalí (él también tomó a Basemat la hija de Salomón como su esposa); 16 Baana hijo de Husai, en Aser y Bealot; 17 Josafat hijo de Parúa, en Isacar; 18 Simei, hijo de Ela, en Benjamín; 19 y Geber, hijo de Uri, en la tierra de Galaad, el país de Sehón, rey de los amorreos, y de Og rey de Basán, y él era el único oficial que estaba en la tierra. 20 Judá e Israel eran tan numerosos como la arena junto al mar. Ellos estaban comiendo y bebiendo y estaban felices. 21 Salomón reinó sobre todos los reinos desde el Río hasta la tierra de los Filisteos, y hasta el borde de Egipto. Ellos trajeron tributo y sirvieron a Salomón todos los días de su vida. 22 La provisión de un día para Salomón era treinta recipientes de 220 litros cada uno de harina fina y sesenta recipientes de 220 litros de harina cada uno 23 diez bueyes gordos, veinte bueyes de los pastos, y cien ovejas, además de ciervos, gacelas, corzos y aves engordadas. 24 Pues él tenía dominio sobre toda la región en este lado del Río, desde Tifsa hasta tan lejos como Gaza, sobre todos los reyes en este lado del Río, y él tenía paz por todos lados alrededor de él. 25 Judá e Israel vivían en seguridad, cada hombre debajo de su parra y debajo de su árbol de higo, desde Dan hasta Beerseba, todos los días de Salomón. 26 Salomón tenía cuarenta mil establos de caballos para sus carros, y doce mil jinetes. 27 Esos oficiales proveían comida para el rey Salomón y para todos los que llegaban a la mesa de Salomón, cada hombre en su mes. No dejaban que nada faltara. 28 Ellos también trajeron a su propio lugar cebada y heno para los caballos de los carros y los caballos de montar, cada uno trayendo lo que podía. 29 Dios le dio a Salomón gran sabiduría y entendimiento, y amplitud de entendimiento como la arena a la orilla del mar. 30 La sabiduría de Salomón excedía la sabiduría de toda la gente del este y toda la sabiduría de Egipto. 31 Él era más sabio que todos los hombres--más que Etán el Ezraíta, Hemán, Carcol y Darda, los hijos de Mahol--y su fama alcanzó todas las naciones que le rodeaban. 32 Él pronunció tres mil proverbios y sus canciones fueron mil cinco en número. 33 Él describió las plantas, desde el cedro que está en el Líbano hasta el hisopo que crece en la pared. Explicó además acerca de las bestias, aves, cosas que se arrastran y peces. 34 La gente venía de todas las naciones para escuchar la sabiduría de Salomón. Vinieron de todos los reyes de la tierra quienes habían escuchado de su sabiduría.

Chapter 5

1 Hiram, rey de Tiro, envió a sus sirvientes a Salomón porque él había escuchado que ellos le habían ungido como rey en lugar de su padre; pues Hiram siempre había amado a David. 2 Salomón envió palabra a Hiram, diciendo: 3 "Tú sabes que David, mi padre, no pudo construir una casa al nombre del SEÑOR su Dios debido a las guerras que lo rodearon, porque durante su vida el SEÑOR estaba poniendo a sus enemigos bajo la planta de sus pies. 4 Pero ahora, el SEÑOR mi Dios me ha dado descanso por todos lados. No hay enemigo, ni desastre. 5 Así que yo intento construir un templo para el nombre del SEÑOR mi Dios, como el SEÑOR le habló a David, mi padre, diciendo: 'Tu hijo, a quien Yo pondré en tu trono en tu lugar, construirá el templo a mi nombre.' 6 Ahora, por lo tanto, ordena que ellos corten cedros del Líbano para mí. Mis sirvientes se unirán a tus sirvientes, y yo te pagaré el salario justo por lo que has acordado hacer. Porque sabes que no hay ninguno entre nosotros quien sepa cómo cortar madera como los sidonios." 7 Cuando Hiram escuchó las palabras de Salomón, él se regocijó grandemente y dijo: "Qué el SEÑOR sea bendecido hoy, Quien le ha dado a David un hijo sabio sobre este gran pueblo." 8 Hiram le envió palabra a Salomón, diciendo: "Yo he escuchado el mensaje que me has enviado. Yo te proveeré toda la madera de cedro y ciprés que deseas. 9 Mis sirvientes bajarán los árboles desde el Líbano hasta el mar, y yo les haré balsas para ir al lugar que tú me dirijas. Yo romperé las balsas allí, y tú te los llevaras lejos. Tú cumplirás mi voluntad al dar comida para mi familia." 10 Así que Hiram le dio a Salomón toda la madera de cedro y abeto que él deseo. 11 Salomón le dio a Hiram veinte mil medidas de harina de comida para su casa y veinte medidas de aceite puro. Salomón le dio esto a Hiram año tras año. 12 El SEÑOR le dio sabiduría a Salomón, como él le había prometido. Hubo paz entre Hiram y Salomón y los dos hicieron un pacto. 13 El rey Salomón reclutó a la fuerza trabajadores de Israel. Los trabajadores forzados eran treinta-mil hombres. 14 Él los envió al Líbano, diez mil al mes en turnos. Un mes ellos estaban en Líbano y dos meses en casa. Adoniram estaba sobre los hombres quienes estaban sujetos a trabajos forzados. 15 Salomón tenía setenta mil quienes llevaban cargas y ochenta mil quienes eran canteros en las montañas, 16 además de los 3, 300 oficiales líderes de Salomón quienes estaban sobre el trabajo y supervisaban a los trabajadores. 17 Por orden del rey, ellos extrajeron grandes piedras de alta calidad con las cuales pondrían los simientos templo. 18 Así que, los constructores de Salomón y los constructores de Hiram y los gebalitas hicieron los cortes y prepararon la madera y las piedras para construir el templo.

Chapter 6

1 Así Salomón comenzó a construir el templo del SEÑOR. Esto aconteció en el año 480 después que el pueblo de Israel salió de la tierra de Egipto, en el cuarto año del reinado de Salomón sobre Israel, en el mes de Zif, el cuál es el segundo mes. 2 El templo que el rey Salomón construyó para el SEÑOR fue de veintisiete metros de largo, nueve metros de ancho, y trece y medio metros de alto. 3 El pórtico en frente del pasillo principal del templo era de nueve metros metros de largo, igual a la anchura del templo, y cuatro y medio metros de profundidad al frente del templo. 4 Para la casa él hizo las ventanas con los marcos que las hacían más estrechas en la parte de afuera que adentro. 5 Contra las paredes de la cámara principal él construyó cuartos alrededor Él construyó cuartos por todos los lados alrededor. 6 El piso más bajo tenía dos metros y 25 centímetros de ancho, el del medio era de dos metros veintisiete centimetros de ancho, y el tercero era tres metros y quince centímetros de ancho. Por fuera el hizo repisas en la pared de la casa todo alrededor así que las vigas no estarían insertadas en las paredes de la casa. 7 La casa estaba construida de piedras de cantera ya termminadas. No se escuchó martillo, hacha, o cualquier herramienta de hierro en la casa mientras se estaba construyendo. 8 En la parte sur del templo había una entrada en el nivel bajo, después una subía por las escaleras al nivel medio, y desde el medio al tercer nivel. 9 Así que Salomón construyó el templo y lo completó, el cubrió la casa con vigas y tablones de cedro. 10 Él construyó el lado de los cuartos contra las cámaras interiores del templo, cada lado dos metros con veinticinco centímetros de alto; estaban unidas a la casa con maderas de cedro. 11 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Salomón, diciendo: 12 "Respecto a este templo el cual estás contruyendo, si caminas en mis estatutos y haces justicia, mantienes todos mis mandamientos y caminas en ellos, entonces yo confirmaré mi promesa contigo que le hice a tu padre David. 13 Yo viveré entre el pueblo de Israel y no los abandonaré." 14 Así que Salomón construyó la casa y la terminó. 15 Luego él construyó el interior de las paredes de la casa con tablas de cedro. Desde el piso de la casa al techo, él los cubrió con madera por dentro y él cubrió el piso de la casa con tablas de ciprés. 16 Él construyó nueve metros en la parte posterior de la casa con tablas de cedro desde el piso al techo. Él construyó este cuarto para que fuera el lugar santísimo. 17 el cuarto principal que es el lugar santo era de dieciocho metros de largo. 18 Había cedro dentro de la casa, tallado en la forma de calabaza y flores abiertas. Todo era cedro dentro. Ninguna piedra era visible desde afuera. 19 Salomón preparó el cuarto interior dentro de la casa para poner el arca del pacto del SEÑOR allí. 20 El cuarto interior era de nueve metros de largo, nueve metros de anchura, y nueve metros de altura. Salomón cubrió las paredes con oro puro y cubrió el altar con madera de cedro. 21 Salomón cubrió el interior del templo con oro puro, y cerró por fuera con cadenas de oro a y cubrió el frente con oro. 22 Él cubrió todo el interior con oro hasta que todo el templo se terminó. cubrió también con oro todo el altar que le pertenecia al cuarto interior. 23 Salomón hizo dos querubines de madera de olivo, cada uno de cuatro y medio metros de alto, para el cuarto interior. 24 Una ala del primer querubín tenía dos metros y veinticinco centímetros de largo y la otra ala tambíen era de dos metros y veinticinco centímetros de largo. Así que desde la punta de una de las alas a la punta de la otra había una distancia de cuatro metros y medio. 25 El otro querubín el tamaño de sus alas era de cuatro metros y medio. Ambos querubines eran de la misma dimensión y forma. 26 La altura de un querubín era de cuatro metros y medio y el otro querubín era igual. 27 Salomón puso los querubines en el cuarto santísimo. Las alas de los querubines estaban estiradas, así que el ala de uno tocaba una pared y el ala del otro querubín tocaba la otra pared. Sus alas se tocaban una a otra en el medio del lugar santisimo 28 Salomón cubrió los querubines con oro. 29 Él talló todas las palabras de la casa alrededor con figuras de querubín, árboles de palmas, y flores abiertas, dentro y fuera de los cuartos. 30 Salomón cubrió el piso de la casa con oro, ambos, dentro y fuera de los cuartos. 31 Salomón hizo puertas de madera de olivo para la entrada del cuarto interior. El dintel y los marcos de la puerta tenían cinco secciones. 32 Así que él hizo dos puerta de madera de olivo, y él hizo en ellas tallado de querubines, palmas y flores abiertas. Él las cubrió con oro y él les puso oro en los querubines y en las palmeras. 33 De esta manera, hizo también, marcos para la entrada del templo de madera de olivo con cuatro secciones lisas y con dos puertas de madera de ciprés. 34 Las dos hojas de una de las puertas se doblaban y también las dos hojas de la otra puerta se doblaban. 35 Él talló en ellas querubines, palmeras y flores abiertas, y cubrió con oro el trabajo tallado. 36 Él construyó la parte interior con tres filas de piedra cortada y una fila de vigas de cedro. 37 Los cimientos de la casa del SEÑOR fueron hechos en el cuarto año, en el mes de Zif. 38 En el año once, en el mes de Bul, el cual es el mes ocho, la casa fue terminada en todas sus partes y conforme a todas las especificaciones. A Salomón le tomó siete años construir el templo.

Chapter 7

1 Solomón se tomó trece años para construir su casa. 2 Él construyó el Palacio de los Bosques de Líbano. Su largo era de cuarenta y cinco metos, su ancho era de veintidos metros y medio, y su altura era de trece metros y medio. El palacio fue construido con cuatro filas de columnas de cedro, con vigas de cedro sobre las columnas. 3 La casa fue techada con cedro que descansaba en las vigas. Esas vigas estaban soportadas por columnas. Habían cuarenta y cinco vigas, quince en cada fila. 4 Habían tres hileras de ventanas, y cada ventana opuesta a otra ventana en tres conjuntos. 5 Todas las puertas y postes fueron hechos cuadrados con vigas, y las ventanas estaban opuestas en tres conjuntos. 6 Había una columna de veintidos metros y medio de largo y trece metros y medio de ancho, con un pórtico en frente, pilares y un techo. 7 Solomón construyó el salón del trono donde él iba a juzgar, el salón del juicio estaba cubierto con cedro del piso al techo. 8 La casa de Solomón, en la cual él iba a vivir, en otro patio dentro de las tierras del palacio, fue diseñada de manera similar. Él también construyó una casa como esta para la hija del Faraón, la cual él había tomado como esposa. 9 Estos edificios estaban adornados con piedras costosas, talladas, con precisión, medidas y cortadas con una sierra y alisadas en todos los lados. Estas piedras fueron utilizadas desde la base hasta de arriba, y también afuera hacia el gran patio. 10 La base fue construída con piedras muy grandes y costosas de tres metros y sesenta centimetros y de cuatro y medio metros de largo. 11 Encima habían piedras costosas, talladas con precisión y cortadas a la medida y vigas de cedro. 12 El gran patio que rodeaba el palacio, tenía tres filas de piedras cortadas y una fila de vigas de cedro, como el patio interior del templo del SEÑOR y el pórtico del templo. 13 El rey Solomón envió a buscar a Hiram y lo trajo desde Tiro. 14 Hiram era el hijo de una viuda de la tribu de Neftalí; su padre fue un hombre de Tiro, un artesano en bronce. Hiram estaba lleno de sabiduría y entendimiento y habilidad para hacer grandes obras con bronce. Él vino al rey Salomón para trabajar con bronce para el rey. 15 Hiram formó los dos pilares de bronce, cada uno de ocho metros y diez centímetros de alto y cinco metros y cuarenta centímetros en circunferencia. 16 Él hizo dos capiteles de bronce pulido para ponerlo encima de los pilares. La altura de cada capitel era de dos metros y veinticinco centímetros. 17 El enrejado y las coronas de cadena, servían a los capiteles para decorar la parte superior de los pilares, siete para cada capitel. 18 Así Hiram hizo dos filas de granadas alrededor del tope de cada pilar para decorar sus capiteles. 19 Los capiteles en los topes de los pilares del pórtico fueron decorados con lirios de uno metro y ocho centímetros de alto. 20 Los capiteles en estos dos pilares también incluían, cerca del mismo tope, docientas granadas en filas en todo alrededor. 21 Él levantó los pilares en el pórtico del templo. El pilar a la derecha fue nombrado Jaquín, y el pilar a la izquierdo fue nombrado Boaz. 22 En el tope de los pilares había decoraciones como lirios. La creación de los pilares fue hecha de esta manera. 23 Hiram hizo el mar redondo de metal fundido, cuatro y medio metros de borde a borde. Su altura era de dos metros y veinticinco centímetros, y el mar fue trece y medio metros de circunferencia. 24 Debajo del borde rodeando el mar, habian calabazas, diez en cada codo, fundidas en una pieza con el mar, cuando el mar mismo fue fundido. 25 El mar estaba sobre doce bueyes, tres mirando hacia al norte, tres mirando hacia el oeste, tres mirando hacia el sur, y tres mirando hacia el este. El mar estaba puesto encima de ellos, y todas sus traseros estaban hacia dentro. 26 El grosor del mar era como de ocho centímetros, y el borde fue trabajado como el borde de una taza como o una flor de lirio. El mar contenía cuarenta y cuatro mil litros de agua. 27 Hiram hizo los diez carros de bronce. Cada carro era de un metro y ochenta centímetros de largo y un metro treinta centímetros de ancho, y la altura era de un metro y treinta centimetros codos. 28 El trabajo de los carros era así. Ellos tenían paneles que estaban entre bastidores, 29 y en los bastidores habían leones, bueyes, y querubines. Encima y debajo de leones y bueyes habían coronas de trabajo martillado. 30 Cada carro tenía cuatro ruedas de bronce y ejes, y sus cuatro esquinas tenían soportes debajo de la cuenca. Los soportes estaban fundidos con las coronas al lado de cada uno. 31 La apertura era redonda como un pedestal, de sesenta y siete centímetros de ancho, y estaba dentro de una corona que se levantaba cuarenta y cinco centímetros. En la apertura habían grabados, y sus paneles eran cuadrados, no redondos. 32 Las cuatro ruedas estaban debajo de los paneles, y lo ejes de las ruedas y sus basas estaban en el carro. La altura de una rueda era sesenta y siete centímetros. 33 Las ruedas estaban forjadas como las ruedas de un carruaje. Sus basas, llantas, anilla y radios fueron todos fundidos de metal. 34 Habían cuatro agarraderas trabajadas en las cuatro esquinas de cada carro. 35 En la parte superior del carro había una banda redonda de veintidos y medio centimetros de profundidad, y encima del carro sus soportes y paneles estaban unidos. 36 En las superficie de los soportes y en los paneles, Hiram grabó querubines, leones, y árboles de palmas que cubrían el espacio disponible, y ellos estaban rodeados por coronas. 37 Él hizo los diez carros de esta manera. Todos ellos fueron fundidos en los

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mismos moldes, y ellos tenían un tamaño, y la misma forma. 38 Hiram hizo diez cuencas de bronce. Una cuenca podía aguantar ochocientos ochenta litros de agua. Cada cuenca era de un metro y ochenta centimetros de ancho y había una cuenca en cada uno de los diez carros. 39 Él hizo cinco carros en el lado que miraba al sur del templo y cinco en el lado que miraba al norte del templo. Él puso el mar en la esquina del este, mirando hacia el sur del templo. 40 Hiram hizo las cuencas y las palas y las vasijas de rociar. Entonces, él terminó todo el trabajo que hizo para el rey Solomón en el templo del SEÑOR: 41 los dos pilares, y los dos capiteles parecidos a las vasijas que estaban en lo alto de los dos pilares, y los dos pares de enrejado decorativo para cubrir las dos vasijas que estaban encima de los pilares. 42 Él hizo cuatrocientas granadas para los dos pares de enrejado decorativo: dos filas de granadas por cada par de enrejado para cubrir los dos capiteles que parecían vasijas que estaban en los pilares, 43 los diez carros, y las diez vasijas en los carros. 44 Él hizo el mar y los doces bueyes debajo; 45 también las vasijas, palas, lavabos, y todo los otros instrumentos. Hiram los hizo de bronce pulido, para el rey Solomón, para el templo del SEÑOR. 46 El rey los había hecho fundir en la llanura del Jordán, en la tierra de barro entre Sucot y Saretán. 47 Solomón no pesó todos los utensilios porque eran demasiados para pesar, porque el peso del bronce no podía ser medido. 48 Solomón hizo todo los muebles que estaban en el templo del SEÑOR de oro: el altar dorado y la mesa en la cual el pan de la presencia iba a ser colocado. 49 Los candelabros, cinco en el lado derecho y cinco en el lado izquierdo, al frente del cuarto interior, eran de oro puro, y las flores, las lámparas, y las tenazas eran de oro. 50 Las copas, las despabiladeras, los lavabos, las cucharas, y los quemadores de incienso eran todos hecho de oro puro. También las bisagras de las puertas del cuarto interior, el cual era el lugar santísimo, y de las puertas del salón principal del templo, todas fueron hechas de oro. 51 De esta manera, todo el trabajo que el rey Solomón hizo para la casa del SEÑOR fue terminado. Así que Solomón trajo las cosas que fueron separadas por David, su padre, y la plata, el oro, y los muebles, y los puso en los almacenes de la casa del SEÑOR.

1 Entonces Salomón congregó a los ancianos de Israel, todas los jefes de las tribus, y los líderes de las familias del pueblo de Israel delante de él en Jerusalén, para subir el arca del pacto del SEÑOR desde la ciudad de David, que es Sion. 2 Todos los hombres de Israel se congregaron ante el rey Salomón en la fiesta, en el mes de Etanim, el cual es el séptimo mes. 3 Todos los ancianos de Israel vinieron, y los sacerdotes tomaron el arca. 4 Ellos subieron el arca del SEÑOR, la tienda de encuentro y todos los muebles santos que estaban en la tienda. Los sacerdotes y los levitas subieron estas cosas. 5 El rey Salomón y toda la asamblea de Israel se juntaron ante el arca, sacrificando ovejas y bueyes que no podían ser contados. 6 Los sacerdotes entraron el arca del pacto del SEÑOR a su lugar, a la habitación de más adentro de la casa, el lugar más santo, debajo de las alas de los querubines. 7 Pues los querubines extendían sus alas al lugar del arca, y ellos cubrían el arca y las barras por las cuales era cargado. 8 Las barras eran tan largas que sus bordes eran vistos desde el lugar santo en frente de la habitación de más adentro, pero ellos no podían ser vistos desde afuera. Ellos están ahí hasta este día. 9 No había nada en el arca excepto las dos tablas de piedra que Moisés había puesto allí en Horeb, cuando el SEÑOR hizo un pacto con el pueblo de Israel cuando salieron de la tierra de Egipto. 10 Aconteció que cuando los sacerdotes salieron del lugar santo, la nube llenó el templo del SEÑOR. 11 Los sacerdotes no pudieron pararse a servir por causa de la nube, pues la gloria del SEÑOR llenó Su casa. 12 Entonces Salomón dijo: "El SEÑOR ha dicho que Él viviría en oscuridad espesa, 13 pero yo Te he construido un lugar lujoso para que Tú vivas en él por siempre." 14 Entonces el rey se dio la vuelta y bendijo a toda la asamblea de Israel, mientras la asamblea de Israel estaba de pie. 15 Él dijo: "Que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, sea alabado, quien a cumplido con sus propias manos lo que habló a David mi padre, diciendo: 16 ''Desde el día que saqué a mi pueblo de Egipto, no escogí ciudad de entre todas las tribus de Israel en la cual construir una casa, de manera que Mi nombre esté allí. Sin embargo, Yo escogí a David para gobernar sobre mi pueblo Israel.'' 17 Y estaba en el corazón de David, mi padre, el construir una casa para el nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 18 Pero el SEÑOR dijo a David mi padre: ' Hiciste bien el haber tenido en tu corazón contruir una casa para mi nombre 19 Sin embargo, tú no construirás la casa; sino, tu hijo, uno que nacerá de tus entrañas construirá la casa para mi nombre.' 20 El SEÑOR ha cumplido la palabra que Él había dicho, pues yo me he levantado en el lugar de David, mi padre, y me he sentado en el trono de Israel, como el SEÑOR prometió. Yo he construido la casa para el nombre del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel. 21 Yo he hecho un lugar para el arca ahí, en el cual está el pacto del SEÑOR, el cual Él hizo con nuestros padres cuando los sacó de la tierra de Egipto." 22 Salomón se paró frente al altar del SEÑOR, ante toda la asamblea de Israel, y extendió sus manos hacia los cielos. 23 Y dijo: "SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, no hay Dios como Tú arriba en los cielos o abajo en la tierra, que mantiene su pacto de fidelidad con sus siervos quienes caminan delante de Ti con todo su corazón; 24 Tú, que has cumplido lo que le prometiste a tu siervo David, mi padre, Sí, tú hablaste con tu boca y lo has cumplido con tu mano hasta hoy. 25 Ahora entonces, SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, cumple lo que le has prometido a tu siervo David, mi padre, cuando dijiste: 'Si tus descendientes tienen cuidado de caminar delante de Mí, como tú lo has hecho, nunca te faltará uno de tus hijos que se siente en el trono de Israel' 26 Ahora entonces, Dios de Israel, yo oro para que la promesa que Tú hiciste a tu siervo David, mi padre, se haga realidad. 27 Pero, ¿vivirá en realidad Dios en la tierra? mira, el universo entero y el cielo mismo no te pueden contener-- ¡cuánto menos lo puede hacer este templo que he construido! 28 Aún así, por favor, oye esta oración de tu siervo y su petición, SEÑOR mi Dios; escucha el llanto y la oración que tu siervo ora delante de ti hoy. 29 Que Tus ojos estén abiertos hacia este templo noche y día, al lugar del cual Tú has dicho: 'Mi nombre y Mi presencia estarán ahí'-- para que escuches las oraciones que tu siervo y tu pueblo orarán en este lugar. 30 Así que escucha la petición de tu siervo y de tu pueblo Israel cuando oremos en este lugar. Escucha desde el lugar donde Tú vives, desde los cielos; y cuando escuches, perdona. 31 Si un hombre peca en contra de su vecino y se le exige hacer un juramento, y si él viene y hace el juramento ante tu altar en esta casa, 32 escucha en los cielos y actúa y juzga a tus siervos, condenando al malvado, para llevar su conducta sobre su propia cabeza, y declara al justo inocente, para darle la recompensa por su justicia. 33 Cuando tu pueblo Israel sea derrotado por un enemigo porque hayan pecado en contra de Ti, si ellos regresan a Ti, confiesan Tu nombre, oran y piden tu perdón desde este templo-- 34 entonces, por favor, escucha en los cielos y perdona el pecado de tu pueblo Israel; regrésalos a la tierra que Tú le diste a sus antepasados. 35 Cuando los cielos sean cerrados y no haya lluvia porque el pueblo haya pecado en contra de Ti--- si ellos oran en este lugar, confiesan Tu nombre, y se vuelven de su pecado cuando Tú los hayas afligido--- 36 entonces escucha en el cielo y perdona el pecado de tus siervos y de tu pueblo Israel, cuando les enseñes el buen camino en el cual ellos deban caminar. Envía lluvia a tu tierra, la cual Tú le has dado a tu pueblo como una herencia. 37 Supongamos que hay una hambruna en la tierra, o supongamos que hay enfermedad, plaga u hongo, langostas u orugas; o supongamos que un enemigo ataca las puertas de la ciudad en su tierra, o que hay cualquier plaga o enfermedad-- 38 y supongamos entonces que las oraciones y las peticiones son hechas por una persona o por todo tu pueblo Israel-- cada uno conociendo su plaga en su propio corazón mientras él extiende sus manos hacia este templo. 39 Entonces, escucha desde el cielo, el lugar donde Tú vives, perdona y actúa, y recompensa a cada persona por todo lo que él hace; Tú conoces su corazón, porque Tú y sólo Tú conoces los corazones de todos los seres humanos. 40 Haz esto para que ellos puedan temerte todos los días que ellos vivan en la tierra que Tú le diste a nuestros antepasados. 41 Además, en cuanto al extranjero que no pertenece a tu pueblo Israel: cuando él venga desde un país distante a causa de tu nombre-- 42 porque ellos escucharán de tu gran nombre, tu mano poderosa, y tu brazo alzado-- cuando él venga y ore en este templo, 43 entonces, por favor, escucha desde el cielo, el lugar donde Tú vives, y haz lo que el extranjero pida de Ti. Haz esto para que todos los pueblos en la tierra puedan conocer Tu nombre y te teman a Ti, como lo hace tu propio pueblo Israel. Haz esto para que ellos puedan conocer que esta casa que yo he construido es llamada por tu nombre. 44 Supongamos que Tu pueblo sale a batalla en contra de un enemigo, por cualquier camino que Tú los envíes, y supongamos que ellos oran a ti, SEÑOR, hacia la ciudad que Tú has escogido, y hacia la casa que yo he construido para tu nombre. 45 Entonces, escucha en los cielos su oración, su petición, y ayuda su causa. 46 Supongamos que ellos pecan contra Ti, ya que no hay nadie que no peque, y supongamos que Tú estás enojado con ellos y los entregas al enemigo, de modo que el enemigo se los lleva cautivos a su tierra, ya sea distante o cercana. 47 Luego supongamos que se dan cuenta que están en la tierra donde han sido exiliados, y supongamos que se arrepientan y buscan favor de Ti desde la tierra de sus captores. Supongamos que digan: 'Nosotros hemos actuado perversamente y pecado. Nos hemos comportado malvadamente.' 48 Supongamos que regresan a Ti con todo su corazón y con toda su alma en la tierra de sus enemigos quienes los capturaron, y supongamos que oran a Ti hacia su tierra, la cual Tú le diste a sus antepasados, y hacia la ciudad que Tú escogiste, y hacia la casa que yo he construido para Tu nombre. 49 Entonces escucha su oración, sus peticiones en los cielos, en el lugar donde Tú vives, y ayuda a su causa. 50 Perdona a Tu pueblo, que ha pecado contra ti, y todos sus pecados con los cuales han transgredido en contra de tus mandamientos. Ten compasión de ellos delante de sus enemigos quienes los llevaron cautivos, para que sus enemigos puedan también tener compasión de tu pueblo. 51 Ellos son tu pueblo a quienes Tú has escogido, a quienes Tú rescataste de Egipto, de en medio del horno de hierro forjado. 52 Yo oro para que tus ojos puedan estar abiertos a la petición de tu siervo y a las peticiones de tu pueblo Israel, para escucharlos cuando sea que ellos lloren a ti. 53 Pues Tú los separaste de entre todos los pueblos de la tierra para pertenecerte a Ti y recibir tus promesas, tal como Tú explicaste por medio de Moisés tu siervo, cuando sacaste a nuestros padres de Egipto, SEÑOR." 54 Así fue que cuando Salomón había terminado esta oración y petición al SEÑOR, se levantó de sus rodillas de delante del altar del SEÑOR, con sus manos extendidas hacia los cielos. 55 Se levantó y bendijo a toda la asamblea de Israel en voz alta, diciendo: 56 "Qué el SEÑOR sea alabado, pues le ha dado descanso a su pueblo Israel, ninguna palabra ha fallado, cumpliendo así las promesas que Él hizo con Moisés, su siervo. 57 Qué el SEÑOR nuestro Dios esté con nosotros, como Él estuvo con nuestros antepasados. 58 Qué Él nunca nos deje ni nos abandone, que Él pueda inclinar nuestros corazones a Él, para vivir en todos sus caminos y guardar sus mandamientos, regulaciones y estatutos, los cuales Él ordenó a nuestros padres. 59 Y que estas palabras que he hablado, por las cuales he hecho petición delante del SEÑOR, estén cerca del SEÑOR nuestro Dios día y noche, para que Él ayude a la causa de su siervo y a la causa de su pueblo Israel, según cada día lo requiera; 60 que todos los pueblos de la tierra puedan conocer que el SEÑOR, es Dios, ¡y no hay otro Dios! 61 Por lo tanto, que tu corazón sea fiel al SEÑOR nuestro Dios, para caminar en sus estatutos y mantener sus mandamientos, como en este día." 62 Así que el rey y todo Israel con él ofrecieron sacrificios al SEÑOR. 63 Salomón ofreció ofrendas de paz, el cual ofreció al SEÑOR: veintidós mil bueyes y ciento veintemil ovejas. Así que el rey y todo el pueblo de Israel dedicaron la casa del SEÑOR. 64 El mismo día el rey dedicó el medio del patio frente al templo al SEÑOR, pues allí ofreció las ofrendas quemadas, las ofrendas de grano y lo gordo de las ofrendas de paz, porque el altar de bronce que estaba ante el SEÑOR era demasiado pequeño para recibir la ofrenda quemada, la ofrendas de granos y lo gordo de las ofrendas de paz. 65 Así que Salomón llevó a cabo el festín en ese tiempo, y todo Israel con él, una gran asamblea, desde Lebo Hamat hasta el arroyo de Egipto, delante del SEÑOR nuestro Dios por siete días y también por otros siete días, un total de catorce días. 66 Al octavo día él envió al pueblo lejos, y ellos bendijeron al rey y se fueron a sus casas con corazones gozosos y contentos por todas las bondades que el SEÑOR le había mostrado a David, su siervo, y a Israel, su pueblo.

Chapter 9

1 Después que Salomón había terminado de construir la casa del SEÑOR y el palacio del rey, y después que había logrado todo lo que él quería hacer, 2 el SEÑOR se le apareció a Salomón una segunda vez, según se le había aparecido a él en Gabaón. 3 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a él: "He escuchado tu oración y petición que has hecho ante mí. He separado esta casa, la cual has construido para mi, para poner mi nombre ahí para siempre. Mis ojos y mi corazón estarán ahí todo tiempo. 4 En cuanto a ti, si caminas delante de mí como David tu padre caminó en nobleza e integridad de corazón, obedeciendo todo lo que te he ordenado y guardando mis estatutos y mis decretos, 5 entonces estableceré el trono de tu reino sobre Israel para siempre, según prometí a David tu padre, diciendo: 'Un hijo tuyo nunca faltará en el trono de Israel.' 6 Pero si te alejas, o tus hijos, y no guardan mis mandamientos y mis estatutos que yo he puesto delante de ustedes, y si van y adoran otros dioses y se inclinan a ellos, 7 entonces yo cortaré a Israel de sobre la tierra que les he dado; y esta casa que he separado a mi nombre, la arrojaré fuera de mi vista, e Israel se convertirá en un ejemplo de burla y en un objeto de ridiculización entre todos los pueblos. 8 Y aunque este templo es tan lujoso ahora, todos los que pasen por su lado se sorprenderán y silbarán. Ellos preguntarán: '¿Por qué ha hecho el SEÑOR esto a esta tierra y a esta casa?' 9 Otros contestarán, 'Porque abandonaron al SEÑOR, su Dios, que había sacado a sus antepasados de la tierra de Egipto, y echaron mano de otros dioses y se inclinaron a ellos y los adoraron. Por eso es que el SEÑOR ha traído todo este desastre sobre ellos.'" 10 Sucedió que al final de veinte años, Salomón había terminado de construir los dos edificios, el templo del SEÑOR y el palacio del rey. 11 Hiram, el rey de Tiro, le había proporcionado a Salomón el cedro, los árboles de ciprés y el oro; todo lo que Salomón deseó. Así que Salomón le dio a Hiram veinte ciudades en la tierra de Galilea. 12 Hiram llegó desde Tiro para ver las ciudades que Salomón le había dado, pero ellas no fueron de su agrado. 13 Así que Hiram dijo: "¿Qué ciudades son estas las cuales me has dado, hermano?" Hiram las llamó la Tierra de Cabul, las cuales todavía se llaman así hoy. 14 Hiram había envido al rey cerca de cuatro mil kilos de oro. 15 Esta es la razón para los trabajos forzados que el rey Salomón impuso: para construir el templo del SEÑOR y su propio palacio, para construir el Milo y el muro de Jerusalén, y para construir las defenzas de Hazor, Meguido y Gezer. 16 Faraón rey de Egipto había subido y tomado Gezer, lo quemó y mató a los cananeos en la ciudad. Entonces Faraón le dio la ciudad a su hija, la esposa de Salomón, como un regalo de bodas. 17 Así que Salomón reconstruyó Gezer y Bet Horón de Abajo, 18 Baalat y Tadmor en el desierto en la tierra de Judá, y todas las ciudades de alamacenaje que él poseía, 19 y las ciudades para sus carros y las ciudades para sus jinetes, y todo lo que él deseó construir para su placer en Jerusalen, en el Líbano y en todas las tierras bajo su dominio. 20 En cuanto a toda la gente que quedó de los amorreos, hititas, ferezeos, heveos y jebuseos, que no eran del pueblo de Israel, 21 y sus descendientes que se quedaron en la tierra después de ellos, a los cuales la gente de Israel no pudo destruir totalmente -- Salomón los hizo obreros de trabajos forzados, y esto continúa hasta el día de hoy. 22 Sin embargo, Salomón no hizo obreros forzados del pueblo de Israel. En vez de eso, ellos se convirtieron en sus soldados, ayudantes, funcionarios, oficiales, comandantes de sus carros de combate y sus jinetes de caballos. 23 De éstos, quinientos cincuenta eran oficiales principales que manejaban las supervisiones sobre los trabajos de Salomón. 24 La hija de Faraón se mudó de la ciudad de David a la casa que Salomón le había construido a ella. Más adelante, Salomón construyó el Milo. 25 Tres veces cada año Salomón ofrecía ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de paz en el altar que él construyó para el SEÑOR, quemando incienso para prometer amistad al SEÑOR. Así él completó el templo y era utilizado. 26 El rey Salomón construyó una flota de barcos en Ezión Geber, el cual está cerca de Elot a la orilla del Mar Rojo, en la tierra de Edom. 27 Hiram envió sirvientes a las flotas de Salomón, marineros que entendían el mar, con los sirvientes propios de Salomón. 28 Ellos fueron a Ofir con sirvientes de Salomón. Desde ahí ellos trajeron de vuelta catorce mil docientos ochenta kilos de oro para el Rey Salomón.

Chapter 10

1 Cuando la reina de Sabá escuchó de la fama de Salomón, por el nombre del SEÑOR, ella vino a probarlo con preguntas difíciles. 2 Ella vino a Jerusalén con una caravana muy larga, con camellos cargados de especias, mucho oro, y muchas piedras preciosas. Cuando llegó, le dijo a Salomón todo lo que estaba en su corazón. 3 Salomón respondió todas sus preguntas. No hubo nada que ella preguntara que el rey no respondiera. 4 Cuando la reina de Sabá vio toda la sabiduría de Salomón, el palacio que él había construído, 5 la comida en su mesa, el asiento de sus empleados, el trabajo de sus siervos y sus ropas, también sus coperos, y la manera de él de ofrecer ofrendas quemadas en la casa del SEÑOR, quedó asombrada 6 Ella le dijo al rey: ''Es verdad, todo lo que escuché en mi propia tierra de tus palabras y tu sabiduría. 7 No creí lo que escuché hasta que vine aquí, y ahora mis ojos lo han visto. ¡Ni la mitad me fue dicho acerca de tu sabiduría y riquezas! Has sobrepasado la fama de la que escuché. 8 Cuan bendecidas son tus servidores y tus trabajadores, quienes constantemente están frente a ti, escuchando tu sabiduría. 9 Qué el SEÑOR tu Dios sea alabado, quien a ha agradado de ti y te puso en el trono de Israel. ¡Porque El SEÑOR amó a Israel para siempre, Él te ha hecho rey, para que tú hagas justica y derecho! 10 Ella le dio al rey mas de cuatro mil kilos de oro y una gran cantidad de especias y piedras preciosas. No se le volvió a dar mayor cantidad de especias como ésta que la reina de Sabá le dio al rey Salomón. 11 La flota de Hiram, trajo oro de Ofir y también una gran cantidad de madera de sándalo y piedras preciosas. 12 El rey hizo pilares de madera de sándalo para el templo del SEÑOR y para el palacio del rey arpas y liras para los cantantes. Nunca más tal cantidad de madera de sándalo ha sido vista hasta el día de hoy. 13 El rey Salomón le dio a la reina de Sabá todo lo que ella deseó, todo lo que ella pidió, además de lo que Salomón ya le había dado. Después ella regresó a su propia tierra con los que la servían. 14 El peso de oro que recibía Salomón cada año era de mas de veintidosmil kilos, 15 aparte del oro que los comerciantes y los mercaderes traían. Todos los reyes de Arabia y los gobernantes en el país, también trajeron oro y plata a Salomón. 16 El rey Salomón hizo doscientos escudos grandes de oro batido de poco mas de seis kilos y medio cada uno. 17 Él también hizo trescientos escudos de oro batido de kilo y medio cada escudo; el rey los puso en el palacio del Bosque del Líbano. 18 Luego el rey hizo un gran trono de marfil y lo cubrió con el oro más fino. 19 Había seis escalones hacia el trono, y la parte de atrás de éste tenía un tope circular. tenía descansabrazos a cada lado del asiento, y dos leones parados al lado de los descansabrazos. 20 Doce leones se pararaban en los escalones, uno a cada lado de los seis escalones. No había ningún trono como éste en otro reino. 21 Todas las copas para beber de Salomón eran de oro, y todas las copas para beber en el Palacio del Bosque del Líbano eran de oro puro. Ninguna era de plata, porque la plata no era considerada valiosa en lo días de Salomón. 22 El rey tenía en el mar una flota de barcos de alta mar, junto con la flota de Hiram. Una vez cada tres años la flota traía oro, plata, y marfil, al igual que simios y mandriles. 23 Así que el rey Salomón sobrepasó a todos los reyes del mundo en riquezas y sabiduría. 24 Toda la tierra buscaba la presencia de Salomón, para poder esuchar su sabiduría, la cual Dios había puesto en su corazón. 25 Aquellos que visitaban traían tributo, vasijas de plata y oro, ropas, armaduras y especias, al igual que caballos y mulas, año tras año. 26 Salomón reunió a carros y jinetes. Tenía mil cuatrocientos carros y doce mil jinetes los cuales estacionaba en las ciudades de carros y con él mismo, en Jerusalén. 27 El rey tenía plata en Jerusalén, tanto como las piedras en el suelo. El hizo que la madera de cedro fuera tan abundante como los arboles de higo que están en las tierras bajas. 28 Salomón tenía caballos que habian sido traidos de Egipto y de Coa. El comprador del rey los compraba por rebaños, cada rebaño a un precio. 29 Los carros eran comprados de Egipto por seiscientas monedas de plata cada uno, y los caballos por ciento cincuenta monedas cada uno. Muchos de éstos eran luego vendidos a todos los reyes de los hititas y Aram.

Chapter 11

1 Ahora, el Rey Salomón amaba a muchas mujeres extranjeras: la hija del faraón y mujeres de los moabitas, amonitas, edomitas, sidonitas, e hititas- 2 naciones sobre las cuales el SEÑOR le había dicho al pueblo de Israel: "Ustedes no irán y se casarán con ellas, tampoco ellas vendrán a ti, porque ciertamente tornarán tu corazón hacia sus dioses," Pero Salomón amó estas mujeres. 3 Salomón tenía setecientas esposas de la realeza y trescientas concubinas. Sus esposas desviaron su corazón. 4 Salomón se hizo viejo, sus esposas volvieron su corazón hacia otros dioses; pues su corazón no estaba completamente rendido al SEÑOR su Dios, como estuvo el corazón de su padre David. 5 Pues, Salomón siguió a Astoret, diosa de los sidonios, y él siguió a Milcom, ídolo abominable de los amonitas. 6 Salomón hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR; él no siguió completamente al SEÑOR, como lo hizo David su padre. 7 Entonces Salomón construyó un lugar alto para Quemos, el detestable ídolo de Moab, en las colinas al este de Jerusalén, y también para Moloc, el detestable ídolo de la gente de Amón. 8 Él también construyó lugares altos para todas sus esposas extranjeras, quienes quemaban incienso y hacían sacrificios a sus dioses en ellos. 9 El SEÑOR estaba enojado con Salomón, porque su corazón se había alejado de Él, el Dios de Israel, aún cuando Él se le había aparecido dos veces 10 y le había ordenado acerca de esto, que no debía ir tras otros dioses. Pero Salomón no obedeció lo que El SEÑOR le ordenó. 11 Por lo tanto El SEÑOR le dijo a Salomón: "Porque has hecho ésto y no has guardado mi pacto y mis estatutos que te he ordenado, Yo romperé tu reinado y lo daré a tu siervo. 12 Sin embargo, por causa de tu padre David, no lo romperé en tu tiempo, pero lo arrancaré de la mano de tu hijo. 13 Aún así no romperé todo el reino; le daré una tribu a tu hijo por causa de David mi siervo, y por causa de Jerusalén, la cual he escogido." 14 Entonces, El SEÑOR levantó un adversario a Salomón, Hadad el edomita. El era de la familia real de Edom. 15 Cuando David estuvo en Edom, Joab el capitán del ejército salió a enterrar a los muertos, todos los hombres que fueron muertos en Edom. 16 Joab y todo Israel habitaron ahí por seis meses hasta que mataron a todo varón en Edom. 17 Pero Hadad fue sacado con otros edomitas por los siervos de su padre a Egipto, ya que Hadad era aún un niño pequeño. 18 Ellos dejaron Madián y vinieron a Parán donde tomaron hombres y llegaron a Egipto a Faraón rey de Egipto, quién les dió casa, tierra y comida. 19 Hadad encontró gran favor a la vista de Faraón, así que Faraón le dió una esposa, la hermana de su esposa, la hermana de la reina Tahpenes. 20 La hermana de Tahpenes dio a luz al hijo de Hadad. Le llamaron Genubat. Tahpenes lo crió en el palacio del Faraón. Así que, Genubat vivió en el palacio del Faraón entre los hijos del Faraón. 21 Mientras estaba en Egipto, Hadad escuchó que David había muerto y que Joab el capitán de sus ejércitos había muerto, Hadad le dijo a Faraón:" Déjame partir, así iré a mi propio pueblo." 22 Luego, Faraón le dijo: "¿Pero, qué te ha faltado conmigo, que buscas ir a tu propio pueblo? Hadad contestó:" Nada. Por favor déjame ir." 23 Dios también levantó otro adversario para Salomón, Rezón hijo de Eliada, quién había huído de su señor Hadad Ezer, rey de Soba. 24 Rezón reunió gente y se hizo capitán sobre un pequeño grupo, cuando David derrotó los hombres de Sobá. Los hombres de Rezón fueron a Damasco y vivían allí, y Rezón controlaba Damasco. 25 Él era un enemigo de Israel en los días de Salomón, junto con los problemas que Hadad causó. Rezón aborrecía a Israel y reinaba sobre Aram. 26 Entonces Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, efrateo de Sereda, oficial de Salomón, cuya madre se llamaba Zerúa y era viuda, levantó su mano contra el rey. 27 La razón por la cual levantó su mano contra el rey fue porque Salomón construyó el lugar en Milo y cerró la brecha en la pared del muro de la ciudad de David su padre. 28 Jeroboam era un poderoso hombre de valor. Salomón vio que el joven era trabajador, le dió el comando sobre la casa de José. 29 En ese tiempo cuando Jeroboam salió de Jerusalén, el profeta Ahías el silonita lo encontró en el camino. Ahías se había vestido con una ropa nueva y los dos hombres estaban solos en el campo. 30 Luego, Ahías agarró su túnica nueva que tenía puesta y la rasgó en doce piezas. 31 Él le dijo a Jeroboam:" Toma diez piezas, porque el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice:' Mira, Yo arrancaré el reino de la mano de Salomón y Yo te daré diez tribus a ti 32 pero Salomón tendrá una tribu, por amor a David mi siervo y por amor a Jerusalén- la ciudad que Yo he escogido de todas las tribus de Israel, 33 porque ellos me han abandonado y han adorado a Astoret, la diosa de los sidonios, a Quemos el dios de Moab, y Milcom el dios del pueblo de Amón. Ellos no han caminado en mis caminos, para hacer lo que es correcto ante mis ojos, y para guardar mis estatutos y decretos, como hizo David su padre. 34 Sin embargo, no quitaré todo el reino de la mano de Salomón. En cambio, lo dejaré reinar todo el tiempo de los días de su vida, por amor a David mi siervo a quién escogí, el que guardó mis mandamientos y mis estatutos. 35 Pero quitaré el reinado de las manos de sus hijos y te daré a ti, diez tribus. 36 Yo le daré una tribu al hijo de Salomón, de modo que mi siervo David siempre tenga una lámpara ante mí en Jerusalén, la ciudad que he escogido para poner mi nombre. 37 Y te tomaré, y reinarás para cumplir todo lo que desees, y serás rey sobre todo Israel. 38 Si escuchas todo lo que te mando, y si caminas en mis caminos y haces lo que es correcto ante mis ojos, para mantener mis estatutos y mis mandamientos, como David mi siervo hizo, entonces estaré contigo y construiré una casa segura, así como la construí para David, y te daré a Israel. 39 Yo castigaré los descendientes de David, pero no para siempre." 40 Así que Salomón trató de matar a Jeroboam. Pero Jeroboam se levantó y huyó a Egipto, a Sicac rey de Egipto, y él permaneció en Egipto hasta la muerte de Salomón. 41 En cuanto a los demás hechos relacionados a Salomón, todo lo que él hizo y su sabiduría, ¿No están todos escritos en el Libro de los Hechos de Salomón? 42 Salomón reinó en Jerusalén sobre todo Israel por cuarenta años. 43 El murió y fue enterrado con sus atepasados en la cuidad de David su padre. Roboam su hijo reinó en su lugar.

Chapter 12

1 Roboam fue a Siquem, porque todo Israel estaba viniendo a Siquem para hacerlo rey. 2 Ocurrió que Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, escucho esto (porque él todavía estaba en Egipto, a donde él había huído de la presencia del rey Salomón), porque Jeroboam se había asentado en Egipto. 3 Así que ellos enviaron y lo llamaron, y Jeroboam y todos los de la asamblea de Israel vinieron y le dijeron a Roboam: 4 "Tu padre hizo nuestro yugo pesado. Ahora alivia el duro trabajo de tu padre y alivia el yugo pesado que él nos puso, y te serviremos." 5 Roboam les dijo: "Váyanse por tres días, entonces regresen a mí." Así que la gente se fué. 6 El rey Roboam consultó con los ancianos que habían estado ante Salomón, su padre, mientras estaba vivo, y él les dijo: "¿Cómo me aconsejan que responda a esta gente?" 7 Ellos le hablaron y dijeron: "Si tú fueras un sirviente hoy para esas personas y les sirvieras, y les respondes diciendoles buenas palabras, entonces ellos siempre serán tus sirvientes." 8 Pero Roboam ignoró el consejo que los ancianos le habían dado y él consultó con los jóvenes quienes habían crecido con él y se pararon ante él. 9 Él les dijo: ¿Qué consejo me dan ustedes que podamos responder a la gente que me habló y dijo: 'Alivia el yugo que tu padre nos puso a nosotros'?" 10 Los jóvenes quienes habían crecido con Roboam le hablaron, diciendo: "Habla a estas personas que te dijeron que tu padre Salomón hizo su yugo pesado pero que tú debes hacerlo liviano. Tú deberías decirles a ellos: 'Mi dedo meñique es más grueso que la cintura de mi padre. 11 Entonces, aunque mi padre los cargó con un yugo pesado, yo les añadiré a su yugo. Mi padre los castigó con látigos, pero yo los castigaré con escorpiones.'" 12 Jeroboam y toda la gente vino a Roboam en el tercer día, como el rey les había dicho: "Regresen a mí en el tercer día." 13 El rey le respondió a la gente duramente e ignoró el consejo que los ancianos le habían dado. 14 Les habló siguiendo el consejo de los jóvenes, dijo: "Mi padre los cargó con un yugo pesado, yo le añadiré a su yugo. Mi padre los castigó con látigos, pero yo los castigaré con escorpiones." 15 El rey no escuchó a la gente, ya que eran una serie de eventos dispuestos por el SEÑOR, para que se cumpliera la palabra que Él le había dado a Jeroboam hijo de Nabat por medio de Ahías el silonita. 16 Cuando todo Israel vió que el rey no los escuchaba, la gente le respondió y le dijo: "¿Qué parte tenemos nosotros en David? ¡Nosotros no tenemos herencia en el hijo de Isaí! Vayan a sus tiendas, Israel. Ahora mira por tu propia casa, David." Así Israel se fué de regreso a sus tiendas. 17 Pero para la gente de Israel quienes vivían en las ciudades de Judá, Roboam se convirtió en rey sobre ellos. 18 Entonces el rey Roboam envió a Adoram, que estaba a cargo de los trabajos forzados, pero todo Israel lo apedreó hasta la muerte. El rey Roboam huyó rápidamente en su carruaje a Jerusalén. 19 Así Israel ha estado en rebelión contra la casa de David hasta este día. 20 Sucedió que cuando todo Israel escuchó que Jeroboam había regresado, ellos fueron y lo llamaron a su asamblea y lo hicieron rey sobre todo Israel. No había nadie quien siguiera la familia de David, excepto la tribu de Judá. 21 Cuando Roboam llegó a Jerusalén, él convocó toda la casa de Judá y la tribu de Benjamín; allí había ciento ochenta mil hombres escogidos quienes eran soldados, para luchar contra la casa de Israel, para restaurar el reino a Roboam, hijo de Salomón. 22 Pero la palabra de Dios vino a Semaías, hombre de Dios; diciendo: 23 "Habla a Roboam, hijo de Salomón, rey de Judá, a toda la casa de Judá y Benjamín, y al resto de la gente; di: 24 'El SEÑOR dice esto: Ustedes no deben atacar o pelear contra sus hermanos, la gente de Israel. Cada hombre debe regresar a su casa, porque ésta serie de eventos ha sido hecha por Mí.'" Entonces ellos escucharon la palabra del SEÑOR, se dieron vuelta y fueron por su camino, y obedecieron Su palabra. 25 Entonces Jeroboam construyó Siquem en el país montañoso de Efraín, y vivió allí. Salió de allí y construyó Penuel. 26 Jeroboam pensó en su corazón: "Ahora el reino regresará a la casa de David. 27 Si estas personas suben a ofrecer sacrificios en el templo del SEÑOR en Jerusalén, entonces los corazones de estas personas se regresarán otra vez a Roboam, rey de Judá. Ellos me matarán y regresarán a Roboam, rey de Judá." 28 Así que el rey Jeroboam buscó consejo e hizo dos becerros de oro; él le dijo al pueblo: "Es mucho para ustedes subir hasta Jerusalén. Mira, estos son tus dioses Israel, que los sacaron de la tierra de Egipto." 29 Él colocó uno en Betel y el otro en Dan. 30 Así este acto se volvió pecado. La gente iba a uno o al otro, todo el camino hasta Dan. 31 Jeroboam hizo casas en lugares altos y él también hizo sacerdotes de entre toda la gente, que no estaban entre los hijos de Leví. 32 Jeroboam ordenó un festín en el día quince del mes octavo, como la fiesta que se hace en Judá, y subió hasta el altar. Lo hizo en Betel, sacrificando a los becerros que él había hecho, y llevó a Betel los sacerdotes de los lugares altos que él había hecho. 33 Jeroboam subió al altar que él había hecho en Betel en el día quince del mes octavo, en el mes que él había planeado en su propia mente; él ordenó la fiesta para la gente de Israel y subió al altar para quemar incienso.

Chapter 13

1 Un hombre de Dios salió de Judá a Betel en obediencia a la palabra del SEÑOR. Jeroboam, estaba parado en el altar para quemar incienso. 2 Él hombre de Dios lloraba en contra del altar por la palabra del SEÑOR: '' '¡Altar, altar!' Esto es lo que dice El SEÑOR: 'Mira, un hijo llamado Josías, nacerá de la familia de David, y en ti sacrificará a los sacerdotes de los lugares altos, que ahora queman incienso. Quemarán huesos humanos.''' 3 Entonces, el hombre de Dios dio una señal ese mismo día, diciendo: ''Ésta es la señal que El SEÑOR ha hablado: 'Mira, el altar se partirá en dos, y las cenizas encima de él serán derramadas.' 4 Cuando el rey escuchó lo que dijo el hombre de Dios, que lloraba contra el altar en Betel. Jeroboam extendió su mano desde el altar dicendo, 'Agárrenlo'. Luego la mano que extendió contra el hombre de Dios, se secó, así que no pudo regresarla hacia él mismo. 5 El altar también se partió en dos, y las cenizas se derramaron del altar, como fue descrito por el hombre de Dios que dio la palabra del SEÑOR. 6 El rey Jeroboam le respondió y dijo al hombre de Dios: '' Ruega por el favor del SEÑOR tu Dios y ora por mi, para que mi mano sea restaurada.'' Así que, el hombre de Dios oró al SEÑOR, y la mano del rey fue restaurada, y volvió a ser como era antes. 7 El rey le dijo al hombre de Dios: "Ven a casa conmigo y refréscate, y te daré una recompensa." 8 El hombre de Dios le dijo al rey: ''Incluso si me dieras la mitad de tus bienes, no iré contigo, ni comeré comida, ni beberé agua en este lugar, 9 porque El SEÑOR me ordenó por su palabra: 'Tu no comerás pan ni beberás agua, ni regresarás por el camino que viniste.''' 10 Así que, el hombre de Dios se fue por otro camino y no regresó a su casa el camino por el que había llegado a Betel. 11 Había un viejo profeta viviendo en Betel, y uno de sus hijos vino y le dijo todas las cosas que el hombre de Dios hizo ese día en Betel. Sus hijos también le dijeron las palabras que el hombre de Dios le había hablado al rey. 12 Su padre les dijo: ''¿Por cuál camino se fue?'' sus hijos le señalaron el camino por el cual el hombre de Dios de Judá se había ido. 13 Así que, le dijo a sus hijos: ''Ensillen al burro para mi.'' Así que, ellos ensillaron el burro, y cabalgó en él. 14 El viejo profeta fue detrás del hombre de Dios y lo encontró sentado debajo de un árbol de roble; y le dijo: ''¿Eres tú el hombre de Dios que vino desde Judá? '' le respondió: ''Yo soy.'' 15 Entonces, el profeta le dijo a él: ''Ven a casa conmigo y come comida.'' 16 El hombre de Dios respondió: ''No puedo regresar ni entrar contigo, y tampoco comeré comida o beberé agua en este lugar, 17 porque me fue ordenado por la palabra del SEÑOR: 'Tú no comerás ninguna comida ni beberás agua allí, ni regresarás por el camino en que viniste.''' 18 Así que, el viejo profeta le dijo: ''Yo también soy profeta, como lo eres tú, y un ángel me habló palabra del SEÑOR diciendo: 'Tráelo de regreso contigo a tu casa, para que él pueda comer comida y beber agua.''' Pero él le mentía al hombre de Dios. 19 Así que, el hombre de Dios regresó con el viejo profeta y comió comida en su casa y bebió agua. 20 Mientras ellos estaban sentados a la mesa, la palabra del SEÑOR vino al profeta que lo había traído de vuelta, 21 y se lamentó delante del hombre de Dios que vino de Judá, diciendo: ''El SEÑOR dice 'Porque haz sido desobendiente a la palabra del SEÑOR y no haz guardado el mandamiento que El SEÑOR tu Dios te dio, 22 sino que, viniste y has comido comida y bebido agua en el lugar que El SEÑOR te dijo que no comieras comida ni bebieras agua, tu cuerpo no será enterrado en la tumba de tus padres.''' 23 Después que había comido, y bebido, el profeta ensilló un burro para el hombre de Dios, el hombre que había regresado con él. 24 Cuando el hombre de Dios se había ido, un león lo encontró en la calle y lo mató, y su cuerpo fue dejado en la calle. Entonces el burro estuvo al lado de él, y el león también estuvo al lado del cuerpo. 25 Cuando hombres pasaron y vieron el cuerpo dejado en la calle, y el león al lado del cuerpo, ellos vinieron y lo dijeron en la ciudad donde vivía el viejo profeta. 26 Cuando el profeta que lo había traído de vuelta del camino lo escuchó, dijo: ''Es el hombre de Dios que desobedeció la palabra del SEÑOR. Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR lo entregó al león, quien lo destrozó y lo mató, así como la palabra de Dios lo advirtió.'' 27 Así que, el viejo profeta le habló a sus hijos, diciendo: ''Ensillen a mi burro'', y ellos lo ensillaron. 28 Él fue y encontró el cuerpo dejado en la calle, y el burro y león al lado del cuerpo. El león no se había comido el cuerpo, ni atacó al burro. 29 El profeta tomó el cuerpo del hombre de Dios, lo puso encima del burro, y lo trajo de vuelta. Vino a su propia ciudad para lamentarse y enterrarlo. 30 Puso el cuerpo en su propia tumba, y luego se lamentó sobre él diciendo: ''Ay, mi hermano!'' 31 Entonces, después de enterrarlo, el viejo profeta le habló a sus hijos diciendo: ''Cuando yo muera, entiérrenme en la tumba donde el hombre de Dios está enterrado. Pongan mis huesos al lado de sus huesos. 32 Pues el mensaje que él declaró por la palabra del SEÑOR, en contra del altar en Betel y en contra de todas las casas en los lugares altos en las ciudades de Samaria, ciertamente ocurrirá. 33 A pesar de ésto, Jeroboam nunca se volvió de su mal camino, sino que continuó nombrando sacerdotes comunes para los lugares altos, entre todo tipo de gente. Cualquiera que sirviera, él lo consagraba como sacerdote. 34 Éste asunto se convirtió en pecado para la familia de Jeroboam, y causó que su familia fuera destruída y fuera exterminada de la faz de la tierra.

Chapter 14

1 En aquel tiempo Abías, hijo de Jeroboam, se puso muy enfermo. 2 Jeroboam le dijo a su esposa: "Por favor levántate y disfrázate, para que no seas reconocida como mi esposa, y ve a Silo, porque Ahías el profeta está ahí; él es el que habló de mí, diciendo que yo me convertiría en rey sobre este pueblo. 3 Toma contigo diez hogazas, algunos pasteles y una jarra de miel, y ve a Ahías. Él te dirá lo que sucederá con el niño." 4 La esposa de Jeroboam hizo así; salió y fue a Silo y llegó a la casa de Ahías. Ahías no podía ver, porque su visión fallaba a causa de su edad. 5 El SEÑOR dijo a Ahías, "Mira, la esposa de Jeroboam viene a buscar consejo de ti en relación a su hijo, porque está enfermo. Dile tal y cual a ella, porque cuando venga, actuará como si fuese alguna otra mujer." 6 Cuando Ahías escuchó el sonido de los pies de ella cuando entraba por la puerta, él dijo: "Entra, esposa de Jeroboam. ¿Por qué pretendes ser alguien que no eres? He sido enviado a ti con malas noticias. 7 Ve, dile a Jeroboam que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: 'Yo te levanté de entre el pueblo para hacerte el líder sobre mi pueblo Israel. 8 Arranqué el reino de la familia de David y te lo di a ti, pero tú no has sido como mi siervo David, quien guardó mis mandamientos y me siguió con todo su corazón, para hacer sólo lo que estaba correcto en mis ojos. 9 En lugar de esto, has hecho lo malo, más que todos los que estuvieron antes que tú. Has hecho otros dioses, y tienes imágenes de metal fundido para provocarme a enojo, y me has dado la espalda. 10 Por lo tanto, traeré desastre sobre tu familia; cortaré de ti todo niño varón en Israel, sea esclavo o libre, y quitaré completamente tu familia, como alguien quien quema estiércol hasta que se acaba. 11 Cualquiera que pertenece a tu familia que muera en la ciudad será comido por perros, y cualquiera que muera en el campo será comido por los pájaros de los cielos, pues Yo, el SEÑOR, lo he dicho.' 12 Así que levántate, esposa de Jeroboam, y ve de vuelta a tu hogar; cuando tus pies entren en la ciudad, el niño Abías morirá. 13 Todo Israel lamentará por él y lo enterrará. Él es el único de la familia de Jeroboam que será enterrado, porque solo en él, fue hallado algo bueno a la vista del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, en la casa de Jeroboam, 14 También, el SEÑOR levantará un rey de Israel quien cortará la familia de Jeroboam en ese día. Hoy mismo es ese día. 15 Pues el SEÑOR, sacudirá a Israel como una caña que se agita en el agua, y él sacará de raiz a Israel fuera de esta tierra buena que Él dió a sus antepasados. Él los esparcirá más allá del río Eufrates, porque han hecho sus imágenes de Asera y han provocado el enojo SEÑOR. 16 Él entregará a Israel por los pecados de Jeroboam, los pecados que él ha cometido y a través de los cuales ha dirigido a Israel a pecar." 17 Así que la esposa de Jeroboam se levantó y se fue, y vino a Tirsa. Cuando ella llegó al umbral de la casa, el niño murió. 18 Todo Israel lo enterró e hizo luto por él, así como fue dicho a ellos por la palabra del SEÑOR la cual Él habló por su siervo Ahías el profeta. 19 En cuanto a los otros asuntos sobre Jeroboam, las guerrras que el hizo y como reinó, están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel. 20 Jeroboam reinó veintidos años y luego murió, fue sepultado con sus antepasados, y Nadab su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 21 Ahora Roboam, hijo de Salomón, estaba reinando en Judá. Roboam tenía cuarenta y un años cuando él se convirtió en rey, y reinó diecisiete años en Jerusalén, la ciudad que el SEÑOR había escogido de todas las tribus de Israel en la cual pondría su nombre. El nombre de su madre era Naama la amonita. 22 Judá hizo lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR; lo provocaron a Él a celos con los pecados que cometieron, más que todo lo que sus padres habían hecho. 23 Pues también construyeron para sí mismos lugares altos, columnas de piedra, e imágenes de Asera en cada colina alta y debajo de cada árbol verde. 24 También habían prostitutos masculinos en estos lugares de adoración. Ellos hacían las mismas prácticas despreciables como las de las naciones que el SEÑOR había sacado del pueblo de Israel. 25 Sucedió en el quinto año del rey Roboam que Sisac rey de Egipto, subió contra Jerusalén. 26 Él se llevó los tesoros de la casa del SEÑOR, y los tesoros de la casa del rey. Se llevó todo; también se llevó todos los escudos de oro que Salomón había hecho. 27 El rey Roboam hizo escudos de bronce en su lugar y los encomendó en las manos de los comandantes de la guardia, quienes guardaban las puertas de la casa del rey. 28 Sucedió que cuando el rey entraba a la casa del SEÑOR, los guardias los cargaban; luego ellos los traían de vuelta a la casa de guardia. 29 En cuanto a los otros asuntos referente a Roboam, y todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 30 Hubo guerra constante entre la casa de Roboam y la casa de Jeroboam. 31 Así que Roboam murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados en la ciudad de David. El nombre de su madre era Naama la amonita. Abiam su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar.

Chapter 15

1 En el año dieciocho del rey Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, Abiam comenzó a reinar sobre Judá. 2 Él gobernó por tres años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Maaca. Ella era la hija de Abisalom. 3 Él caminó en todos los pecados que su padre había cometido antes de él; su corazón no se habia dedicado completamente al SEÑOR su Dios como el corazón de David, su antepasado, lo había estado. 4 Sin embargo, por amor a David, el SEÑOR su Dios le dio una lámpara en Jerusalén al levantarle a su hijo después de él para fortalecer Jerusalén. 5 Dios hizo esto porque David había hecho lo que era correcto a Sus ojos; en todos los días de su vida, él no se había apartado de cosa alguna que Él le ordenó, excepto sólo en el asunto de Urías el hitita. 6 Y hubo guerra entre Roboam y Jeroboam todos los días de la vida de Abiam. 7 En cuanto a los otros asuntos de Abiam, todo lo que él hizo, ¿no está escrito en El Libro de los Eventos de los Reyes de Judá? Hubo guerra entre Abiam y Jeroboam. 8 Abiam murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados, y ellos lo enterraron en la ciudad de David. Asa, su hijo, reinó en su lugar. 9 En el año veinte de Jeroboam rey de Israel, Asa comenzó a reinar sobre Judá. 10 Él gobernó cuarenta y un años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su abuela era Maaca, la hija de Abisalom. 11 Asa hizo lo que era correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR, como David, su antepasado, había hecho. 12 Él expulsó los prostitutos masculinos de los lugares de adoración y removió todos los ídolos que sus antepasados habían hecho. 13 También removió a Maaca, su abuela, de ser reina, porque ella había hecho una figura despreciable de la diosa Asera. Asa derribó la figura despreciable y la quemó en el valle de Cedrón. 14 Pero los lugares altos no fueron quitados. Sin embargo, el corazón de Asa estubo completamente dedicado al SEÑOR todos sus días. 15 Él llevó adentro de la casa del SEÑOR las cosas que fueron dedicadas por su padre, y las cosas y las vasijas que él mismo había dedicado, que fueron hechas de plata y oro. 16 Había guerra entre Asa y Baasa rey de Israel, durante todo su reinado. 17 Baasa rey de Israel, actuó agresivamente en contra de Judá y construyó Ramá, para no permitirle a ninguna persona salir o entrar a la tierra de Asa rey de Judá. 18 Entonces, Asa tomó toda la plata y el oro que había quedado en los almacenes de la casa del SEÑOR, y en los almacenes del palacio del rey. Él lo puso en las manos de sus sirvientes y lo envió a Ben Adad hijo de Tabrimón, hijo de Hezión, el rey de Aram, que vivía en Damasco. Él dijo: 19 "Permite que haya un pacto entre yo y tú, como lo hubo entre mi padre y tu padre. Mira, yo te he enviado un regalo de plata y oro. Rompe tu pacto con Baasa, rey de Israel, para que él me deje tranquilo" 20 Ben Adad escuchó al rey Asa y envió los comandantes de sus ejércitos, y ellos atacaron las ciudades de Israel. Atacaron a Ijón, Dan, Abel de Bet Maaca y todo Cineret, junto con toda la tierra de Neftalí. 21 Sucedió que cuando Baasa escuchó esto, él dejó de construir Ramá y regresó a Tirsa. 22 Luego el rey Asa hizo una proclamación a toda Judá. Nadie fue exento. Ellos cargaron fuera las piedras y madera de Ramá con las cuales Baasa había estado construyendo la ciudad. Entonces el rey Asa usó ese material de construcción para construir Geba de Benjamín y Mizpa. 23 En cuanto a los otros asuntos de Asa, todo su poder, todo lo que él hizo, y las ciudades que construyó, ¿no están escritas en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? Pero durante sus años de vejez, él estaba enfermo de sus pies. 24 Entonces, Asa murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados en la ciudad de David su padre. Josafat, su hijo, se volvió rey en su lugar. 25 Nadab, hijo de Jeroboam, comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en el segundo año de Asa, rey de Judá; él reinó sobre Israel dos años. 26 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR y caminó en los pecados de su padre, y en su propio pecado, por el cual dirigió a Israel a pecar. 27 Baasa, hijo de Ahías, de la familia de Isacar, conspiró en contra de Nadab; Baasa lo mató en Gibetón, el cual pertenecía a los filisteos, pues Nadab y todo Israel tenían acorralado a Gibetón. 28 En el tercer año de Asa, rey de Judá, Baasa mató a Nadab y se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 29 Tan pronto Baasa, fue rey mató a toda la familia de Jeroboam. Él no dejó a ninguno de los descendientes de Jeroboam vivos; de esta manera destruyó su linaje real, justo como el SEÑOR había hablado por su profeta Ahías el Silonita, 30 por los pecados de Jeroboam los cuales él había cometido y por los cuales había dirigido a Israel a pecar, porque él provocó al SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, a enojo. 31 En cuanto a los otros asuntos con respecto a Nadab, y todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 32 Hubo guerra entre Asa y Baasa, rey de Israel durante todo su reinado. 33 En el tercer año de Asa, rey de Judá, Baasa, hijo de Ahías, comenzó a reinar sobre todo Israel en Tirza y él reinó veinticuatro años. 34 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR y caminó en el camino de Jeroboam y en su pecado por el cual dirigió a Israel a pecar.

Chapter 16

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vinó a Jehú hijo de Hananí en contra de Baasa, diciendo: 2 "A pesar de que yo te levanté desde el polvo y te hice líder sobre el pueblo de Israel, tú haz caminado en el camino de Jeroboam y haz hecho pecar a mi pueblo Israel, para así provocar mi ira con sus pecados. 3 Yo barreré completamente a Baasa y a su familia y le haré a su familia como a la familia de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat. 4 Los perros se comerán a todos los que pertenecen a la casa de Baasa que mueran en la cuidad, y los pájaros del cielo se comerán a todos los que mueran en los campos.'' 5 En cuanto a los otros asuntos sobre Baasa, lo que el hizo, y su poder ¿no estan escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 6 Baasa murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados en Tirsa, y Ela su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 7 Así que la palabra del SEÑOR vino por el profeta Jehú hijo de Hananí en contra de Baasa y su familia, por todo lo malo que hizo a la vista del SEÑOR provocando su enojo, por el trabajo de sus manos, como la familia de Jeroboam, y también porque él había matado a toda la familia de Jeroboam. 8 En el año veintiséis del rey Asa de Judá, Ela hijo de Baasa comenzó a reinar sobre Israel de Tirsa, él reinó dos años. 9 Su sirviente Zimri, capitán de la mitad de sus carruajes conspiró contra él. Ahora Ela estaba en Tirsa, bebiendo y emborrachándose en la casa de Arsa. 10 Zimri entró, lo atacó y lo mató, en el año veintisiete de Asa rey de Judá, y se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 11 Cuando Zimri comenzó a reinar y fue sentado en su trono, él mató a toda la familia de Baasa. No dejó vivo a ningún hombre perteneciente a la casa de Baasa, parientes o amigos. 12 Así que, Zimri destruyó toda la familia de Baasa, conforme a la palabra del SEÑOR la cual él habló en contra de Baasa por Jehú el profeta, 13 por todos los pecados de Baasa y los pecados de Ela su hijo, que ellos cometieron, y por los cuales ellos condujeron a Israel a pecar, así que ellos provocaron con sus ídolos el enojo del SEÑOR el Dios de Israel. 14 En cuanto a otros asuntos concernientes a Ela, todo lo que él hizo, ¿no está escrito en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 15 En el año veintisiete de Asa rey de Judá, Zimri reinó sólo por siete años en Tirsa. Ahora el ejército acampó por Gibetón, el cual le pertenecía a los filisteos. 16 El ejército acampó allí y escuchó decir: "Zimri conspiró y mató al rey." Así que, ese día en el campamento, todo Israel declaró a Omri, el comandante del ejército, rey sobre Israel. 17 Omri subió de Gibetón y todo Israel con él, y ellos sitiaron Tirsa. 18 Así que Zimri vio que la cuidad había sido tomada, él fue a la fortaleza del palacio del rey y le prendió fuego al edificio; de ésta manera el murió en las llamas. 19 Ésto fue por los pecados que él cometió haciendo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR, por caminar en el camino de Jeroboam y en el pecado que él había cometido, por guiar a Israel a pecar. 20 En cuanto a los otros hechos concernientes a Zimri, y la traición que él llevó acabo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de eventos de los reyes de Israel? 21 Entonces el pueblo de Israel fue dividido en dos partes. Una mitad del pueblo seguía a Tibni hijo de Ginat, para hacerlo rey, y la otra mitad seguía a Omri. 22 Pero el pueblo que seguía a Omri era más fuerte que el pueblo que seguía al hijo de Ginat. Así que Tibni murió, y Omri se convirtió en rey. 23 Omri comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en el año treinta y uno de Asa rey de Judá, y reinó doce años. Él reinó desde Tirsa por seis años. 24 Y compró a Semer una colina por sesenta y seis kilos de plata. Él construyó una ciudad en la colina y llamó a la ciudad Samaria, en honor de Semer, el anterior dueño de la colina. 25 Omri hizo lo que es malo a la vista del SEÑOR y actuó más perversamente que todos los que estaban antes que él. 26 Él caminó en todos los caminos de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat y en sus pecados con los cuales él guió a Israel al pecado, provocando el enojo del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, con sus ídolos sin valor. 27 En cuanto a los demás asuntos concernientes a Omri, los cuales él hizo, y el poder que él mostró, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 28 Así que, Omri murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados en Samaria y Acab su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 29 En el año treinta y tres del rey Asa de Judá, Acab hijo de Omri comenzó a reinar sobre Israel. Acab hijo de Omri reinó sobre Israel en Samaria veintidos años. 30 Acab, hijo de Omri, hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR, más que todos los anteriores a él. 31 Fue para Acab una cosa sin importancia caminar en los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, así que él tomó como esposa a Jezabel la hija de Etbaal, rey de los sidonios; él fue a adorar a Baal y se inclinaba ante él. 32 Él construyó un altar para Baal en el templo que le edificó a Baal, en Samaria. 33 Acab también hizo una imagen de Asera. Acab hizo aun más para provocar el enojo del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, más que todos los reyes de Israel que estuvieron antes que él. 34 Durante el reinado de Acab, Hiel de Betel reconstruyó Jericó. Hiel pusó los cimientos de la cuidad a costa de la vida de Abiram su hijo primogénito y Segub, su hijo más joven perdió su vida mientras construía las puertas de la cuidad, cumpliéndose la palabra del SEÑOR, la cual habló por Josué, hijo de Nun.

Chapter 17

1 Elías de la ciudad de Tisba en Galaad, le dijo a Acab: "Vive el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel y ante quien estoy parado, que no habrá rocío o lluvia en estos años, a menos que yo lo diga." 2 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Elías diciendo: 3 "Vete de aquí y ve hacia el este; escóndete al lado del arroyo de Querit, al este del Jordán. 4 Beberás del arroyo, y Yo he ordenado a los cuervos que te alimenten allí." 5 Así que, Elías fue e hizo como la palabra del SEÑOR ordenó. Él fue a vivir al arroyo de Querit, al este del Jordán. 6 Los cuervos le traían pan y carne en la mañana y pan y carne en la tarde, y él bebía del arroyo. 7 Pero después de un tiempo, el arroyo se secó porque no había lluvia en la tierra. 8 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a él, diciendo: 9 "Levántate y ve a Sarepta, que pertence a Sidón, y vive allí. Le he ordenado a una viuda que provea para ti." 10 Así que, él se levantó y fue a Sarepta, y cuando llegó a la puerta de la ciudad, una viuda estaba allí recogiendo leña. Así que él la llamó y le dijo: "Por favor, tráeme un poco de agua en un vaso, para que pueda tomar." 11 Mientras ella iba a buscar el agua, él la llamó y le dijo: "Por favor, tráeme un pedazo de pan en tu mano." 12 Ella le contestó: "Como El SEÑOR Tu Dios vive, yo no tengo ningún pan, sino sólo un puñado de harina en un frasco y un poco de aceite en una jarra. Verás, estoy recogiendo dos leños para que pueda ir adentro y cocinar para mí y para mi hijo, para que podamos comerlo y morir.'' 13 Elías le dijo a ella: "No tengas miedo. Ve y haz como dijiste, pero házme un poco de pan primero y tráemelo. Después harás más para tu hijo y para ti. 14 Pues el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: 'El frasco de harina no se vaciará, ni la jarra de aceite dejará de fluir, hasta el día que El SEÑOR envíe lluvia sobre la tierra." 15 Así que ella hizo lo que Elías le dijo, y los tres comieron por muchos días. 16 El frasco de harina no se vació, ni la jarra de aceite dejó de fluir, tal como la palabra del SEÑOR había dicho, como Él había hablado por medio de Elías. 17 Después de éstas cosas, el hijo de la mujer, a quien le pertenecía la casa, cayó enfermo. Su enfermedad era tan severa que ya no había aliento en él. 18 Así que, su madre le dijo a Elías: "¿Qué tienes en contra mía, hombre de Dios? ¿Has venido a recordarme mi pecado y a matar a mi hijo?" 19 Luego, Elías respondió: "Dame a tu hijo." Tomó al niño de sus brazos y lo cargó hasta arriba, a la habitación donde él se estaba quedando, y tendió al niño en su cama. 20 Y clamó al SEÑOR y dijo: "SEÑOR mi Dios, ¿también has traído desastre a ésta viuda, con la que me estoy quedando, al matar a su hijo?" 21 Luego Elías se tendió sobre el niño tres veces; y clamó al SEÑOR y dijo: "SEÑOR mi Dios, yo te suplico, por favor, deja que la vida de éste niño regrese a él. " 22 El SEÑOR escuchó la voz de Elías; la vida del niño regresó a él, y revivió. 23 Elías tomó al niño y lo bajó de la habitación y lo entregó a su madre y dijo: "Mira, tu hijo está vivo." 24 La mujer le dijo a Elías: "Ahora sé que eres un hombre de Dios, y que la palabra del SEÑOR en tu boca, es verdad."

Chapter 18

1 Así que, después de muchos días la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Elías, en el tercer año de la sequía, diciendo: "Ve, muéstrate a Acab y Yo enviaré lluvia sobre la tierra." 2 Elías fue a mostrarse a Acab; había hambruna severa en Samaria. 3 Acab llamó a Abdías, quien estaba a cargo del palacio. Abdías veneraba al SEÑOR, 4 porque cuando Jezabel estaba matando a los profetas del SEÑOR, Abdías tomó cien profetas y los escondió de cincuenta en cincuenta en una cueva y los alimentó con pan y agua. 5 Acab dijo a Abdías: "Ve a través de la tierra a todos los pozos de agua y arroyos. Quizás nosotros encontraremos pastos y salvaremos los caballos y las mulas vivos, para que no perdamos a todos los animales." 6 Así que dividieron la tierra entre ellos para pasar a través de ella y buscar agua. Acab fue por un camino y Abdías fue por el otro camino. 7 Mientras Abdías estaba en el camino, Elías inesperadamente se lo encontró. Abdías lo reconoció y se postró bocabajo en el suelo. Él dijo: "¿Eres tú mi amo Elías?" 8 Elías le respondió a él: "Lo soy. Ve dile a tu amo: 'Mira, Elías está aquí.'" 9 Abdías respondió: ¿Cómo he pecado, para que tú entregues a tu siervo en la mano de Acab, para que él me mate? 10 Vive el SEÑOR tu Dios, que no hay nación o reino donde mi amo no haya mandado hombres a buscarte. Cuando una nación o reino dice: 'Elías no está aquí,' Acab los hace hacer una promesa, jurando que ellos no pudieron encontrarte. 11 Aun así tú me dices: 'Ve, dile a tu amo que Elías está aquí." 12 Tan pronto como me haya ido, el Espíritu del SEÑOR te llevará a algún lugar que yo no conozco. Luego, cuando vaya y le diga a Acab, y cuando él no pueda encontrarte, me matará. Pero yo, tu siervo, he adorado al SEÑOR desde mi juventud. 13 ¿No se te han dicho, mi amo, lo que yo hice cuando Jezabel mató a los profetas del SEÑOR, cómo escondí a cien profetas del SEÑOR de cincuenta en cincuenta en una cueva y los alimenté a ellos con pan y agua? 14 Y ahora tú dices: 'Ve, dile a tu amo que Elías está aquí,' para que él me mate." 15 Entonces, Elías respondió: "Vive el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, ante Quien estoy parado, que ciertamente me mostraré a Acab hoy." 16 Así que Abdías fue a encontrarse con Acab, y le informó lo que Elías dijo. Y el rey fue a encontrarse con Elías. 17 Cuando Acab vio a Elías, dijo: "¿Eres tú? ¡Tú, alborotador de Israel!" 18 Elías contestó: "Yo no he afligido a Israel, pero tú y la familia de tu padre son los alborotadores por abandonar los mandamientos del SEÑOR y por seguir los ídolos de Baal. 19 Ahora entonces, envía palabra y reúne para mí a todo Israel en el Monte Carmelo, junto con los cuatrocientos cincuenta profetas de Baal y los cuatrocientos profetas de Asera quienes comen en la mesa de Jezabel." 20 Así que Acab envió palabra a todo el pueblo de Israel y reunió a los profetas en el Monte Carmelo. 21 Elías se acercó al pueblo y dijo: "¿Cuánto tiempo más ustedes seguirán cambiando de opinión? Si el SEÑOR es Dios, sigánlo a Él. Pero si Baal es dios, entonces sigánlo a él." Aun así la gente no le respondió a él ni una palabra. 22 Entonces Elías dijo al pueblo: " sólo yo, quedo como profeta del SEÑOR, pero los profetas de Baal son cuatrocientos cincuenta hombres. 23 Así que dejen que ellos nos den dos toros. Dejen que ellos escojan un toro para ellos y lo corten en pedazos, y lo pongan sobre la madera, pero no pongan fuego debajo de él. Entonces yo prepararé al otro toro, y lo pondré en la madera, y no pondré fuego debajo de él. 24 Luego ustedes clamarán en el nombre de su dios, y yo clamaré en el nombre del SEÑOR, y el que responda por fuego, entonces que él sea Dios." Así que todo el pueblo contestó y dijo: "Esto es bueno." 25 Así que Elías dijo a los profetas de Baal: "Escojan un toro para ustedes y prepárenlo primero, porque ustedes son muchos. Entonces clamen en el nombre de su dios, pero no pongan fuego debajo del toro." 26 Ellos tomaron el toro que les fue dado y lo prepararon, y clamaron en el nombre de Baal desde la mañana hasta el mediodía, diciendo: "Baal, escúchanos." Pero no había voz, ni alguien que respondiera. Ellos danzaron alrededor del altar que habían hecho. 27 A mediodía, Elías se burló de ellos y dijo: "¡Griten más alto! ¡Él es un dios! Quizás está pensando, o esté ocupado o está de viaje en una travesía, o quizás él está durmiendo y tiene que ser despertado." 28 Así que ellos gritaron más alto, y se cortaron a sí mismos, como usualmente hacían, con espadas y lanzas, hasta que su sangre fluía sobre ellos mismos. 29 El mediodía pasó, y ellos todavía estaban delirando hasta el tiempo de ofrecer el sacrificio de la tarde, pero no había voz o alguien que contestara, no había nadie quien le prestara atención a sus ruegos. 30 Entonces, Elías le dijo a todo el pueblo: "Vengan, acérquense y todas las personas se acercaron a él. Entonces él reparó el altar del SEÑOR que estaba destruido. 31 Elías tomó doce piedras, cada piedra representando una de las tribus de los hijos de Jacob porque fue a Jacob a quien el SEÑOR le habló diciendo "Tu nombre será Israel." 32 Con las piedras él contruyó un altar en el nombre del SEÑOR y excavó una zanja alrededor del altar, suficientemente grande para contener dos medidas de semillas. 33 Él colocó la madera para el fuego y cortó el toro en pedazos, y extendió los pedazos en la madera. Y dijo: "Llenen cuatro jarras de agua y derrámenlas sobre la ofrenda quemada y sobre la madera." 34 Y dijo: "Háganlo una segunda vez," y ellos lo hicieron una segunda vez. Entonces él dijo: "Háganlo una tercera vez," y ellos lo hicieron una tercera vez. 35 El agua corrió alrededor del altar y llenó la zanja. 36 Y ocurrió al tiempo de la ofrenda del sacrificio de la tarde, que Elías el profeta se acercó y dijo: "SEÑOR, el Dios de Abraham, de Isaac, y de Israel, deja que se sepa este día que Tú eres el Dios de Israel, y que soy tu siervo, y que he hecho todas estas cosas por tu palabra. 37 Escúchame, SEÑOR, escúchame, que este pueblo pueda saber que Tú, el SEÑOR, eres Dios, y que has hecho volver sus corazones de regreso a ti." 38 Entonces, el fuego del SEÑOR cayó y consumió la ofrenda quemada, así como la madera, las piedras, y el polvo, y lamió el agua que estaba en la zanja. 39 Cuando todo el pueblo vio esto, ellos se postraron boca abajo en el suelo, y dijeron: "¡El SEÑOR, Él es Dios! ¡El SEÑOR Él es Dios!" 40 Entonces Elías le dijo a ellos: "Agarren a los profetas de Baal. No dejen que ni uno escape." Así que ellos los agarraron, y Elías bajó a los profetas de Baal al arroyo de Cisón y ahí los mató. 41 Elías le dijo a Acab: "Levántate, come y bebe, pues hay sonido de mucha lluvia." 42 Así que Acab subió a comer y a beber. Entonces, Elías subió al tope del Carmelo, se inclinó a sí mismo en la tierra y puso su rostro entre sus rodillas. 43 Él le dijo a su siervo: "Sube ahora, mira hacia el mar." Su siervo subió y miró y dijo: "No hay nada." Entonces Elías le dijo: "Ve otra vez, siete veces." 44 A la séptima vez, el siervo le dijo: "Mira, hay una nube subiendo desde el mar, tan pequeña como la mano de un hombre." Elías respondió: "Sube y dile a Acab: 'Prépara tu carruaje y baja antes que la lluvia te detenga.'" 45 Sucedió que en un poco de tiempo los cielos se oscurecieron con nubes y viento, y hubo una gran lluvia. Acab montó y fue a Jezreel, 46 pero la mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre Elías. Él metió su túnica en su cinturón y corrió detrás de Acab hasta la entrada de Jezreel.

Chapter 19

1 Acab le dijo a Jezabel todo lo que Elías había hecho y como él había matado a todos los profetas con la espada, 2 Entonces Jezabel envió un mensajero a Elías, diciendo: "Así me hagan los dioses, y más, si yo no hago con tu vida lo que tu hiciste a estos profetas muertos para mañana a esta hora." 3 Cuando Elías escuchó eso, se levantó y huyó por su vida y vino a Beerseba, la cual pertenece a Judá, y dejó a su sirviente allí. 4 Y el se fue por el desierto a un día de camino, y vino y se sentó debajo de un enebro. queriendo morir y dijo:" Es suficiente, ahora SEÑOR toma mi vida, porque no soy mejor que mis antepasados muertos." 5 Así que se acostó y durmió debajo del enebro. Repentinamente un ángel le tocó y le dijo:" Levántate y come." 6 Elías miró, y cerca de su cabeza había pan que había sido cocido en carbón y una jarra de agua. Así que comió y bebió y se acostó de nuevo. 7 El ángel del SEÑOR vino por segunda vez, le tocó y dijo: "Levántate y come, porque la jornada será demasiado para ti." 8 Así que se levantó comió, bebió, y viajó fortalecido con esa comida cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hacia Horeb, la monte de Dios. 9 Fue a una cueva y se quedó en ella. Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a él y le dijo: "¿Qué estás haciendo aquí Elías?" 10 Elías respondió:" He estado muy celoso por el SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos, porque el pueblo de Israel ha abandonado tu pacto, han destruido tus altares, y matado a tus profetas con la espada. Sólo yo, he quedado y ellos también tratan de quitarme la vida." 11 El SEÑOR replicó:" Sal, párate en la montaña y preséntate ante Mi." Entonces el SEÑOR pasó por allí y un fuerte viento golpeó las montañas y rompió las rocas delante del SEÑOR, pero el SEÑOR no estaba en el viento. Después del viento, vino un terremoto, pero el SEÑOR no estaba en el terremoto. 12 Luego del terremoto vino un fuego, pero el SEÑOR no estaba en el fuego. Entonces después del fuego, vino un susurro. 13 Cuando Elías escuchó la voz, cubrió su cara con su manto, salió, y se detuvo en la entrada de la cueva. Entonces una voz vino a él que dijo: "¿Qué estás haciendo aquí, Elías?" 14 Elías le respondió:" Yo estuve muy celoso por el SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos, porque el pueblo de Israel ha abandonado tu pacto, destruido tus altares, y matado tus profetas con espada. Sólo yo he quedado y han tratado de tomar mi vida." 15 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo:" Ve, regresa por tu camino al desierto de Damasco, y cuando llegues tú ungirás a Hazael para ser rey sobre Aram, 16 y ungirás a Jehú hijo de Nimsi para ser rey sobre Israel, y ungirás a Eliseo hijo de Safat de Abel Mehola para ser profeta en tu lugar. 17 Sucederá que Jehú matará, a cualquiera que escape de la espada de Hazael, y que Eliseo matará a cualquiera que escape de la espada de Jehú. 18 Pero Yo dejaré para mí siete mil personas de Israel, cuyas rodillas no se han doblado ante Baal, y cuyas bocas no lo han besado." 19 Así que Elías salió de allí y encontró a Eliseo hijo de Safat, que estaba arando con doce yuntas de bueyes delante de él, y él estaba arando con la última de las yuntas. Elías caminó a donde él estaba y le echó su manto encima. 20 Entonces Eliseo dejó los bueyes y corrió detrás de Elías; él le dijo: " Por favor deja que vaya a besar a mi padre y a mi madre, y después te seguiré." Entonces Elías le dijo: "Ve pero recuerda lo que te he hecho." 21 Así que Eliseo dejó a Elías y tomó la yunta de bueyes, mató los animales, y cocinó la carne con la madera de la yunta. Entonces él se la dio a la gente y ellos comieron. Se levantó, fue tras Elías y le servía.

Chapter 20

1 Ben Adad de Aram, reunió a todo su ejército. Habían treinta y dos reyes menores con él, caballos y carros. Él subió, sitió Samaria y peleó contra ella. 2 Él envió mensajeros a la ciudad de Acab, rey de Israel y le dijo: "Ben Adad dice ésto: 3 'Tu plata y tu oro son míos. De igual manera, tus esposas e hijos, los mejores de ellos, ahora son míos.'" 4 El rey de Israel le respondio: "Sea como tú dices, mi amo, mi rey. Yo soy tuyo con todo lo que tengo." 5 Los mensajeros vinieron otra vez y le dijeron: "Ben Adad dice ésto: ' Te envié un palabra diciendo que debes entregarme tu plata, oro, esposas e hijos. 6 "Además te enviaré mis siervos mañana, a ésta hora, y tomarán con sus propias manos de tu casa y de la casa de tus siervos lo que les sea agradable.'" 7 Entonces, el rey de Israel llamó a los ancianos de la tierra y dijo: "Por favor, tomen nota y vean como éste hombre busca problemas. Él me ha enviado una palabra, para tomar a mis esposas, hijos, plata y oro, y yo no me he negado." 8 Todos los ancianos y toda la gente le dijo a Acab, "No lo escuches, o consientas sus demandas." 9 Así que, Acab le dijo a los mensajeros de Ben Adad: "Dile a mi amo, el rey 'Estoy de acuerdo con todo lo que enviaste a tu siervo a hacer la primera petición, pero no puedo aceptar la segunda.'" Así que los mensajeros se fueron y llevaron la respuesta a Ben Adad. 10 Entonces, Ben Adad le envió su respuesta a Acab, y le dijo: "Así me hagan los dioses y más, si quedan aún suficientes cenizas en Samaria para que la gente que me sigue tenga un puñado cada uno." 11 El rey de Israel respondió y dijo: "Dile a Ben Adad, 'Nadie que se esté poniéndo la armadura, debe declararse vencedor como el que se la está quitando.'" 12 Ben Adad escuchó éste mensaje mientras bebía con sus reyes menores en sus tiendas. Ben Adad ordenó a éstos hombres: "Fórmense y prepárense para la batalla"' Así que, ellos se prepararon en posición de batalla, para atacar la ciudad. 13 Entonces, he aquí, un profeta vino a Acab, rey de Israel, y dijo: "El SEÑOR dice: '¿Haz visto éste gran ejército? Mira, Yo los voy a poner en tus manos hoy, y sabrás que Yo soy El SEÑOR'" 14 Acab respondió: "¿Por medio de quién?" El SEÑOR respondió y dijo: "Por los oficiales jóvenes, que sirven a los gobernantes de los municipios" Luego Acab dijo: "¿Quién comenzará la batalla?" El SEÑOR respondió: "Tú." 15 Luego Acab reunió a los oficiales jóvenes, que servían a los gobernantes de los munipios. Ellos eran doscientos treinta y dos. Luego Acab reunió a los soldados, todo el ejército de Israel; siete mil en número. 16 Salieron en la tarde. Ben Adad había estado bebiendo y emborrachándose en su tienda, él y sus treinta y dos reyes menores que lo apoyaban. 17 Los oficiales jóvenes que servían a los gobernadores de los municipios avanzaron primero. Entonces, Ben Adad fue informado por espías que él había envíado: "Están viniendo hombres desde Samaria." 18 Ben Adad dijo: "Aunque hayan salido por paz o por guerra, tómalos vivos." 19 Así que, los jóvenes oficiales que sirvieron a los gobernantes de los municipios salieron de la ciudad y el ejército los siguió. 20 Cada uno mató a su enemigo y los arameos huyeron. Israel los siguió. Ben Adad, el rey de Aram escapó en un caballo junto con algunos jinetes. 21 Entonces, el rey de Israel salió y atacó a los caballos y a los carros, y mató a los arameos en una gran matanza. 22 Así que, el profeta vino al rey de Israel y le dijo: "Ve, fortalécete, entiende y planifica qué harás, porque a la vuelta del año, el rey de Aram vendrá en contra tuya otra vez." 23 Los siervos del rey de Aram le dijeron a él: "Su dios es el dios de las montañas. Es por ésto que eran más fuertes que nosotros. Pero ahora déjanos pelear en contra de ellos en lo plano, y seguramente seremos más fuerte que ellos." 24 Y haz ésto: remueve a los reyes; toma a todo el mundo fuera de su comando y pon capitanes del ejército en su lugar. 25 Levanta un ejército como el ejército que perdiste, caballo por caballo y carro por carro, y pelearemos otra vez en contra de ellos en lo plano. Entonces seguramente seremos más fuertes que ellos." Así que, Ben Adad escuchó su consejo, e hizo como ellos recomendaron. 26 Después del inicio del nuevo año, Ben Adad reunió a los arameos y subió a Afec a pelear en contra de Israel. 27 El pueblo de Israel fue reunido y preparado para pelear en contra de ellos. El pueblo de Israel acampó entre ellos como dos pequeños rebaños de cabras, pero los arameos llenaron el campo. 28 Entonces un hombre de Dios vino cerca y le habló al rey de Israel y dijo:'El SEÑOR dice: 'Porque los arameos han dicho que El SEÑOR es el dios de las montañas, pero Él no es el dios de los valles, Yo pondré a éste gran ejército en tus manos, y tú sabrás que Yo Soy El SEÑOR.'" 29 Así que, los ejércitos acamparon uno frente al otro por siete días. Entonces, en el séptimo día la batalla comenzó. El pueblo de Israel mató a cien mil siervos arameos en un día. 30 El resto huyó a Afec, adentro de la ciudad, y la muralla cayó sobre veintisiete mil hombres que restaban. Ben Adad huyó y entró a la ciudad, escondiéndose de una habitación a otra. 31 Los siervos de Ben Adad le dijeron: "Mira ahora, hemos oído que los reyes de la casa de Israel son reyes misericordiosos. Por favor, déjanos poner ropas ásperas alrededor de nuestras cinturas y cuerdas alrededor de nuestras cabezas, y salir al rey de Israel. Quizás, él perdone tu vida." 32 Así que, se pusieron ropas ásperas en sus cinturas y cuerdas alrededor de sus cabezas y luego fueron al rey de Israel diciendo: "Tu siervo Ben Adad dijo: 'Por favor, déjame vivir.'" Acab dijo: "¿Él sigue vivo? Él es mi hermano." 33 Ahora los hombres estaban atentos a cualquier señal de Acab, así que rápidamente le contestaron: "Sí, tu hermano Ben Adad está vivo." Entonces Acab dijo: "Vayan y tráiganlo." Ben Adad vino a él, y Acab lo hizo subir a su carruaje. 34 Ben Adad le dijo a Acab: "Voy a restituirte, las ciudades que mi padre le quitó a tu padre, y tú haz mercados para tí en Damasco, como mi padre hizo en Samaria." Acab respondió: "Te dejaré ir con éste pacto." Así que Acab hizo un pacto con él y luego lo dejó ir. 35 Cierto hombre, uno de los hijos de lo profetas, le dijo a uno de sus compañeros profetas por la palabra del SEÑOR: "Por favor, golpéame." Pero el hombre se rehusó a golpearlo. 36 Luego el profeta le dijo a su compañero profeta: "Porque tú no haz obedecido la palabra del SEÑOR, tan pronto me dejes, un león te matará." Y tan pronto ese hombre lo dejó, un león vino sobre él y lo mató. 37 Entonces el profeta encontró a otro hombre y dijo: "Por favor, golpéame." Así que el hombre lo golpeó y lo hirió. 38 Entonces el profeta se fue y esperó al rey en la calle; él se había disfrazado con un vendaje sobre sus ojos. 39 Mientras el rey pasaba, el profeta clamó al rey y dijo: "Tu siervo salió al calor de la batalla, y un soldado se detuvo y me trajo a un enemigo y dijo: 'Vigila a éste hombre. Si por cualquier motivo, él se perdiera, entonces tu vida será dada por su vida, o de otra manera pagarás 3000 monedas de plata.' 40 Pero porque tu siervo estaba ocupado yendo aquí y allá, el soldado enemigo escapó." Luego, el rey de Israel le dijo a él: "Ésto es lo que tu castigo será- tú mismo lo haz decidido." 41 Entonces, el profeta rápidamente se removió el vendaje de sus ojos, y el rey de Israel reconoció que él era uno de los profetas. 42 El profeta le dijo al rey: "El SEÑOR dice: 'Porque has soltado de tu mano al hombre que yo tenía sentenciado a muerte, tu vida tomará el lugar de su vida, y tu pueblo por su pueblo.'" 43 Así que, el rey de Israel fue a su casa resentido y enojado, y llegó a Samaria.

Chapter 21

1 Algún tiempo después, Nabot que era de Jezreel tenía un viñedo cerca del palacio de Acab, rey de Samaria. 2 Acab habló a Nabot, diciendo: "Dame tu viñedo, para que pueda tenerlo como un jardín de vegetales, porque está cerca de mi casa. A cambio, te daré un mejor viñedo o, si tú prefieres, te pagaré su valor en dinero." 3 Nabot le respondió a Acab: "Que el SEÑOR no permita que que te de la herencia de mis antepasados." 4 Así que Acab entró a su palacio resentido y enojado a causa de la respuesta que Nabot el jezreelita le dio a él cuando dijo: "No te daré la herencia de mis antepasados." Él se acostó en su cama, boca abajo y se negó a comer. 5 Jezabel, su esposa, llegó donde él y le dijo: ¿Por qué tu corazón está tan triste, que no comes?" 6 Él le respondió: "Le hablé a Nabot el jezreelita y le dije: 'Dame tu viñedo por dinero, o si te place, te daré otro viñedo para que sea tuyo.' Entonces él me contestó: 'Yo no te daré mi viñedo.'" 7 Así que Jezabel, su esposa, le respondió: "¿No gobiernas el reino de Israel? Levántate y come; que tu corazón esté feliz. Yo obtendré por ti el viñedo de Nabot el jezreelita. 8 Así que Jezabel escribió cartas en nombre de Acab, las selló con el sello de él y las envió a los ancianos y los ricos quienes se sentaban con él en reuniones, y quienes vivían cerca de Nabot. 9 Ella escribió las cartas, diciendo: "Proclamen un ayuno y sienten a Nabot delante del pueblo. 10 También coloquen a dos hombres deshonestos con él y dejen que testifiquen en su contra, diciendo: 'Tú maldijiste a Dios y al rey.' Luego llévenlo fuera y apedréenlo a muerte. 11 Así que los hombres, los ancianos y los ricos quienes vivían en su ciudad, hicieron como Jezabel había dicho en las cartas que les envió a ellos. 12 Proclamaron un ayuno y sentaron a Nabot delante del pueblo. 13 Los dos hombres deshonestos entraron y se sentaron ante Nabot; ellos testificaron en contra de Nabot en la presencia del pueblo, diciendo: "Nabot maldijo tanto a Dios como a el rey." Entonces ellos lo llevaron fuera de la ciudad y lo apedrearon. 14 Los ancianos enviaron palabra a Jezabel, diciendo: "Nabot ha sido apedreado y está muerto." 15 Y así que cuando Jezabel escuchó que Nabot había sido apedreado y estaba muerto, ella dijo a Acab: "Levántate y toma posesión del viñedo de Nabot el jezreelita, el cual se negó a darte por dinero, pues Nabot no está vivo, sino muerto." 16 Cuando Acab escuchó que Nabot estaba muerto, se levantó y bajó al viñedo de Nabot el jezreelita y tomó posesión del mismo. 17 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Elías el tisbita, diciendo: 18 "Levántate y ve a encontrarte con Acab rey de Israel, que vive en Samaria. Él está en el viñedo de Nabot, donde él ha ido a tomar posesión del mismo. 19 Tienes que hablarle a y decirle que el SEÑOR dice: '¿Has matado y también tomado posesión?' Y tú le dirás a él que el SEÑOR dice: 'En el lugar donde los perros lamieron la sangre de Nabot, los perros lamerán tu sangre, sí, tu propia sangre.'" 20 Acab dijo a Elías: ¿Me has encontrado, enemigo mío?" Elías contestó: "Yo te he encontrado, porque tú te has vendido a ti mismo a hacer lo malo a la vista del SEÑOR. 21 El SEÑOR te dice esto: 'Mira, Yo traeré desastre sobre ti y consumiré completamente y cortaré de ti cada niño varón, al esclavo y al hombre libre en Israel. 22 Yo haré de tu familia como la familia de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, y como la familia de Baasa hijo de Ahías, porque tú me has provocado a enojo y has dirigido a Israel a pecar.' 23 El SEÑOR también ha hablado en cuanto a Jezabel, diciendo: 'Los perros comerán a Jezabel al lado del muro de Jezreel.' 24 Quien sea que pertenezca a Acab y muera en la ciudad los perros lo comerán. Y quien sea que muera en el campo los pájaros del cielo lo comerán." 25 Nadie hubo como Acab, quien se vendió a sí mismo para hacer lo que era malo en la vista del SEÑOR, a quien Jezabel su esposa incitó a pecar. 26 Acab hizo obras asquerosas para los ídolos que él seguía, justo como todos los amorreos habían hecho, aquellos a quienes el SEÑOR había removido delante del pueblo de Israel. 27 Cuando Acab escuchó estas palabras, él se rasgó sus vestiduras y puso ropa áspera en su cuerpo y ayunó, y se cubrió en ropa áspera y se puso muy triste. 28 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR llegó a Elías el tisbita, diciendo: "¿Ves cómo Acab se humilla delante de Mí? 29 Porque él se humilla delante de Mí Yo no traeré el desastre en sus días; es en los días de su hijo que yo traeré el desastre sobre su familia."

Chapter 22

1 Tres años pasaron sin que hubiera guerra entre Aram e Israel. 2 Entonces sucedió que en el tercer año, Josafat el rey de Judá descendió al rey de Israel. 3 Ahora el rey de Israel le dijo a sus siervos:" ¿Saben que Ramot de Galaad es nuestro, pero que no hemos hecho nada para tomarla de la mano del rey de Aram?" 4 Así que él le dijo a Josafat:"¿Irás conmigo a la guerra a Ramot de Galaad?" Josafat respondió al rey de Israel: "Yo soy como tú, mi pueblo es como tu pueblo, y mis caballos son como tus caballos." 5 Josafat dijo al rey de Israel:" Por favor pide dirección de la palabra del SEÑOR sobre qué debes hacer primero." 6 Entonces el rey de Israel reunió a los profetas, cuatrocientos hombres, y les dijo:" ¿Debo ir o no a Ramot de Galaad a la batalla?" Ellos le dijeron: "Ataca, porque el Señor la entregará en las manos del rey." 7 Pero Josafat dijo:"¿No hay aún aquí otro profeta del SEÑOR de quien podamos pedir consejo?" 8 El rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat:" Aún hay un hombre del que podemos pedir consejo del SEÑOR para ayuda, Micaías hijo de Imla, pero lo odio porque él no profetiza nada bueno sobre mí, sólo dificultades." Pero Josafat dijo:" No diga eso el rey." 9 Entonces el rey de Israel llamó a un oficial y le ordenó:"Trae a Micaías hijo de Imla, ahora mismo." 10 Ahora Acab el rey de Israel y Josafat el rey de Judá estaban sentados cada uno en un trono, vestidos en sus ropas reales, afuera, a la entrada de la puerta de Samaria, y todos los profetas estaban profetizando delante de ellos. 11 Sedequías hijo de Quenaana se hizo cuernos de hierro y dijo:" El SEÑOR dijo esto:' Con éstos, ustedes acornearán a los arameos hasta que sean consumidos.'" 12 Y todos los profetas profetizaban lo mismo, diciendo:" Ataca a Ramot de Galaad y gana, porque el SEÑOR los ha puesto en las manos del rey." 13 El mensajero que fue a llamar a Micaías le habló diciendo:" Ahora mira, que las palabras de los profetas le declaran cosas buenas al rey a una voz. Por favor que tu palabra sea como la de uno de ellos y diga cosas buenas." 14 Micaías dijo:" Así como el SEÑOR vive, que lo que el SEÑOR diga es lo que diré." 15 Cuando vino ante el rey, el rey le dijo:"¿Micaías debemos ir a Ramot de Galaad a la batalla, o no? Micaías le contestó:" Ataca y gana. El SEÑOR la dará en la mano del rey." 16 Entonces él rey le dijo:" ¿Cuántas veces te he pedido que jures decirme sólo la verdad en el nombre del SEÑOR? 17 Así que Micaías le dijo:"Yo vi a todo Israel dispersado hacia las montañas, como ovejas que no tienen pastor, y el SEÑOR dijo: 'Estos no tienen pastor. Dejemos que cada hombre vuelva a su casa en paz." 18 Así que el rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat:" ¿No te dije que él no iba a profetizar bien sobre mí, sino sólo desastre?" Entonces Micaías dijo:" 19 Por lo tanto escucha la voz del SEÑOR: Yo vi al SEÑOR sentado en Su trono, y todas las huestes del cielo estaban de pie ante Él a su mano derecha y a su izquierda. 20 El SEÑOR dijo: '¿Quién persuadirá a Acab, para que suba y caiga en Ramot Galaad?' Uno de ellos decía esto, y otro decía aquello. 21 Entonces un espíritu vino al frente, se paró delante del SEÑOR, y dijo: 'Yo le persuadiré a él.' El SEÑOR le dijo: '¿Cómo?' 22 El espíritu contestó: 'Yo saldré y seré un espíritu de mentira en la boca de todos sus profetas.' El SEÑOR respondió: ' Tú lo tentarás, y tú también serás exitoso. Ve ahora y hazlo.' 23 Ahora mira, el SEÑOR ha puesto un espíritu de mentira en la boca de todos estos profetas tuyos, y el SEÑOR ha decretado desastre para ti." 24 Entonces Sedequías hijo de Quenaana subió, golpeó a Micaías en la mejilla, y dijo:" ¿Cuál camino tomó el Espíritu del SEÑOR para irse de mí a hablarte a tí? 25 Micaías dijo: " Mira, tú lo sabrás en ese día, cuando corrás de habitación en habitación para esconderte." 26 Él rey de Israel dijo a su sirviente:" Agarra a Micaías y llévalo donde Amón, el gobernador de la ciudad, y a Josías, mi hijo. 27 Dile a él: 'El rey dice: Pon a éste hombre en prisión y aliméntalo sólo con un poco de pan y un poco de agua, hasta que yo venga seguro.'" 28 Luego Micaías dijo:" Si tú regresas seguro, entonces el SEÑOR no ha hablado por mí." Y él añadió: "Escuchen ésto, todos ustedes pueblo." 29 Así que Acab, rey de Israel, y Josafat, el rey de Judá, subieron a Ramot de Galaad. 30 El rey de Israel le dijo a Josafat:" Yo me disfrazaré, e iré a la batalla, pero tú te pondrás tus ropas reales." Así que el rey de Israel se disfrazó y fue a la batalla. 31 Ahora el rey de Aram había ordenado a los treinta y dos capitanes de sus carruajes, diciendo:" No ataquen a soldados importantes y no importantes. En cambio, sólo ataquen al rey de Israel." 32 Sucedió que cuando los capitanes de los carruajes vieron a Josafat ellos dijeron:" Seguramente este es el rey de Israel." Se volvieron a atacarlo, así que Josafat gritó. 33 Sucedió que cuando los comandantes de los carruajes vieron que no era el rey de Israel, ellos se regresaron. 34 Pero cierto hombre disparó su arco al azar e hirió al rey de Israel entre las uniones de su armadura. Entonces Acab le dijo al que manejaba su carruaje:" Da vuelta y sácame de la batalla porque estoy muy malherido." 35 La batalla se puso peor ese día y el rey fue retenido en su carruaje frente a los Arameos. Él murió esa tarde. La sangre de su herida corrió hasta el suelo de su carruaje. 36 Entonces cuando el sol estaba bajando, un lamento se levantó a través del ejército diciendo:" ¡Cada hombre debe irse a su ciudad; y cada hombre debe volver a su región!" 37 Así que el Rey Acab murió y fue traído a Samaria, y ellos le enterraron en Samaria. 38 Ellos lavaron el carruaje en el estanque de Samaria, y los perros lamieron su sangre (éste era el lugar donde la prostitutas se bañaban), justo como la palabra del SEÑOR había declarado. 39 En cuanto a las otras cosas concernientes a Acab, todo lo que él hizo, la casa de marfil que él construyó, y todas las ciudades que él construyó, ¿no están todas escritas en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 40 Así que Acab murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados, y Ocoziás su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 41 Entonces Josafat hijo de Asa comenzó a reinar sobre Judá en el cuarto año de Acab rey de Israel. 42 Josafat era de treinta y cinco años cuando él comenzó a reinar, y él reinó en Jerusalén veinticinco años. El nombre de su madre era Azuba, hija de Silhi. 43 Él caminó en la forma de su padre Asa; él no se desvió de ellos; él hizo lo que era bueno ante los ojos del SEÑOR. Todavía los lugares altos no habían sido removidos. El pueblo seguía sacrificando y quemando incienso en los lugares altos. 44 Josafat tuvo paz con el rey de Israel. 45 En cuanto a los demás hechos concernientes a Josafat, y el poder que él mostró y las historias de sus guerras, ¿no están escritas en los libros de los hechos de los reyes de Judá? 46 Él removió de la tierra el resto de las prostitutas de culto que habían permanecido en los días de su padre Asa. 47 No había rey en Edom, pero un administrador gobernaba allí. 48 Josafat construyó naves marítimas; ellas debían ir a Ofir por oro, pero ellos no fueron porque los barcos se destrozaron en Ezión Geber. 49 Entonces Ocozías hijo de Acab le dijo a Josafat:" Deja a mis siervos navegar con tus siervos en los barcos." Pero Josafat no lo permitió. 50 Josafat murió y fue sepultado con sus antepasados en la ciudad de David, su ancestro; Joram su hijo se hizo rey en su lugar. 51 Ocozías hijo de Acab comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en Samaria en el año diecisiete de Josafat rey de Judá y él reinó dos años sobre Israel. 52 Él hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR y caminó en los caminos de su padre, en los caminos de su madre, y en los caminos de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, por el cual hizo pecar a Israel. 53 Él sirvió a Baal y le adoró y así provocó el enojo del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, de la misma manera como su padre había hecho.

1 Kings 22:29

Acab
Acab fue un rey muy malvado que reinó sobre el reino del norte de Israel desde 875 hasta 854 a. C. El rey Acab influyó en el pueblo de Israel para adorar dioses falsos. El profeta Elías confrontó a Acab y le dijo que habría una sequía severa durante tres años y medio como castigo por los pecados que Acab hizo que Israel cometiera. Acab y su esposa Jezabel hicieron muchas otras cosas malas, incluido el uso de su poder para matar a personas inocentes. Ver también: Baal Elijah Jezabel reino de israel El Señor

Josafat
Josafat es el nombre de al menos dos hombres en el Antiguo Testamento. El hombre más conocido con este nombre fue el Rey Josafat, que fue el cuarto rey en gobernar el reino de Judá. Él restauró la paz entre Judá e Israel, y destruyó los altares de dioses falsos. Otro Josafat fue un "registrador" para David y Salomón. Su trabajo incluía escribir documentos para que el rey firmara y registrara la historia de los eventos importantes que sucedieron en el reino. Ver también: altar David falso dios, dios extranjero, dios, diosa Israel, israelitas, nación de Israel Judá

Moab, Moabita, Moabita
Moab era hijo de la hija mayor de Lot. También se convirtió en el nombre de la tierra donde vivían él y su familia. El término "Moabita" se refiere a una persona que desciende de Moab o que vive en el país de Moab. El país de Moab estaba ubicado al este del Mar Salado. Moab estaba al sureste de la ciudad de Belén, donde vivía la familia de Naomi. La gente en Belén llamó a Rut una "Moabita" porque era una mujer del país de Moab. Este término también podría traducirse como "mujer moabita" o "mujer de Moab". Ver también: Belén, Efrata Judea Mucho Piedad Mar Salado, Mar Muerto

Ramoth
Ramoth era una ciudad importante en las montañas de Galaad, cerca del río Jordán. También se llamaba Ramoth Gilead. Ramoth pertenecía a la tribu israelita de Gad y fue designada como ciudad de refugio. El rey Acab de Israel y el rey Josafat de Judá hicieron la guerra contra el rey de Aram en Ramot. Acab fue asesinado en esa batalla. Algún tiempo después, el rey Ocozías y el rey Joram intentaron tomar la ciudad de Ramoth del rey de Aram. Ramoth Galaad fue donde Jehú fue ungido rey sobre Israel. Ver también: Acab Ocozías Aram, Aramean, Arameo Gad Josafat Jehu Joram Río Jordán, Jordania Judá, reino de Judá refugio, refugio

Galaad
Galaad es el nombre de una región montañosa al este del río Jordán, donde vivían las tribus israelitas de Gad, Rubén y Manasés. Esta región también se conoce como el "país montañoso de Galaad" o el "Monte Galaad". "Galaad" era también el nombre de varios hombres en el Antiguo Testamento. Uno de estos hombres era el nieto de Manasés. Otra Galaad fue el padre de Jefté. Ver también: Gad Jefté Manasés Rubén doce tribus de Israel

Real
El término "real" describe personas y cosas que están asociadas con un rey o una reina. Ejemplos de cosas que se pueden llamar "reales" incluyen la vestimenta, palacio, trono o corona de un rey. Un rey o reina generalmente vive en un palacio real. Un rey usa ropa especial, a veces llamada "túnica real". A menudo, las túnicas de un rey eran de color púrpura, que era un tipo de tinte raro y costoso. En el Nuevo Testamento, los creyentes en Jesús son llamados un "real sacerdocio". Otras formas de traducir esto podrían incluir, "sacerdotes que sirven a Dios Rey" o "llamados a ser sacerdotes de Dios Rey". El término "real" también podría traducirse como "real" o "perteneciente a un rey". Ver también: Rey palacio sacerdote, sacerdocio púrpura reina túnica

túnica
Una túnica es una prenda exterior con mangas largas que pueden usar tanto hombres como mujeres. Es similar a un abrigo. Las batas están abiertas en el frente y están atadas con una faja o cinturón. Pueden ser largos o cortos en longitud. Los reyes usaban túnicas moradas como signo de realeza, riqueza y prestigio. Ver también: real sayo

Chapter 1

1 Moab se rebeló en contra de Israel después de la muerte de Acab. 2 Luego, Ocozías se cayó a través del enrejado de su cuarto superior en Samaria, y se lesionó. Así que él envió mensajeros y les dijo a ellos: "Vayan, pregunten a Baal Zebub, dios de Ecrón, si yo me voy a recuperar de esta lesión." 3 Pero el Ángel del SEÑOR le dijo a Elías el tisbita: "Levántate, sube a encontrar los mensajeros del rey de Samaria, y pregúntale a ellos: '¿Es que no hay Dios en Israel, para que ustedes vayan a consultar con Baal Zebub, el dios de Ecrón? 4 Por tanto, el SEÑOR dice: "De la cama donde estas, tú no te levantarás; sino que, tú ciertamente morirás.'"" Luego Elías se fue. 5 Cuando los mensajeros regresaron a Ocozías, él dijo a ellos: "¿Por qué ustedes han regresado?" 6 Ellos le dijeron a él: "Un hombre llegó a encontrarnos el cual nos dijo: 'Vayan de vuelta al rey quien los envió a ustedes y díganle a él: "El SEÑOR dijo esto: '¿Es qué no hay Dios en Israel que tú enviaste hombres a consultar con Baal Zebub, el dios de Ecrón? Por tanto, de la cama en que tú estás, no te levantarás; sino que, tú ciertamente morirás." 7 Ocozías dijo a sus mensajeros: "¿Qué tipo de hombre era él, el que llegó a encontrarlos a ustedes y dijo estas palabras?" 8 Ellos respondieron: "Él vestía con una pieza hecha de pelo y un cinturón de piel alrededor de su cintura." Así que el rey respondió: "Este es Elías el tisbita." 9 Luego el rey envió al capitán con cincuenta soldados a Elías. El capitán subió donde Elías quien estaba sentado al tope de una colina. El capitán le habló a él: "Tú, hombre de Dios, el rey ha dicho: 'Ven baja.'" 10 Elías contestó y dijo al capitán: "Si yo soy hombre de Dios, que fuego baje del cielo y los consuma a ti y a tus cincuenta hombres." Luego fuego bajó del cielo y lo consumió a él y a sus cincuenta hombres. 11 Otra vez el rey Ocozías envió a Elías otro capitán con cincuenta soldados. El capitán también dijo a Elías: "Tú hombre de Dios, el rey dice: 'Ven baja rápidamente.'" 12 Elías constestó y les dijo a ellos: "Si yo soy hombre de Dios, que fuego baje del cielo y te consuma a ti y a tus cincuenta hombres." Otra vez, fuego de Dios bajó del cielo y los consumió a él y a sus cincuenta hombres. 13 Una vez más, el rey envió un tercer grupo de cincuenta guerreros. Este capitán subió, cayó en sus rodillas ante Elías y le imploró y dijo a él: "Tú, hombre de Dios, te pido, deja que mi vida y la vida de estos cincuenta siervos tuyos sea preciosa en tu vista. 14 Ciertamente, fuego bajó del cielo y consumió los primeros dos capitanes con sus hombres, pero ahora deja que mi vida sea preciosa a tu vista." 15 El ángel del SEÑOR dijo a Elías: "Ve baja con él. No le tengas miedo a él." Así que Elías se levantó y bajó con él hacia el rey. 16 Entonces Elías dijo a Ocozías: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR a dicho: 'Por cuanto tú has enviado mensajeros a consultar con Baal Zebub, el dios de Ecrón. ¿Es que no hay Dios en Israel a quien tú puedas consultar? Por tanto, de tú cama no te levantarás; sino que, tú ciertamente morirás.'" 17 Así que el rey Ocozías murió de acuerdo a la palabra del SEÑOR que Elías había hablado. Joram comenzó a reinar en su lugar, en el segundo año de Joram, hijo de Josafat rey de Judá, porque Ocozías no tenía hijo. 18 En cuanto a los otros hechos de Ocozías, ¿acaso no están escrito en el libro de las Crónicas de los reyes de Israel?

Chapter 2

1 Acontenció cuando el SEÑOR iba a subir a Elías en un torbellino al cielo, que Elías se fue con Eliseo de Gilgal. 2 Elías le dijo a Eliseo: "Quedaté aquí, por favor, porque el SEÑOR me ha enviado a Betel." Eliseo respondió: "Así como el SEÑOR vive, y así como tú vives, yo no te dejaré." Así que se fueron a Betel. 3 Los hijos de los profetas quienes estaban en Betel fueron a Eliseo y le dijeron a él: "¿Sabes que el SEÑOR se va a llevar a tu amo de ti hoy?" Eliseo respondió: "Sí, lo sé, pero no hables de eso." 4 Elías le dijo a él: "Eliseo, espera aquí, por favor, porque el SEÑOR me envió a Jericó." Luego Eliseo respondió: "Como el SEÑOR vive, y como tú vives, yo no te dejaré." Así que ellos se fueron a Jericó. 5 Entonces los hijos de los profetas quienes fueron a Jericó vinieron a Eliseo y le dijeron a él: ''¿Sabes que el SEÑOR se llevará a tu amo de ti hoy?" Eliseo respondió: " Sí, lo sé, pero no hables de eso." 6 Luego Eliseo le dijó a él: "Quédate aquí, por favor, el SEÑOR me ha enviado al Jordán." Eliseo respondió: "como el SEÑOR vive, y tú vives, yo no te dejaré." Así que los dos sigueron. 7 Mas tarde, cincuenta de los hijos de los profetas se mantuvieron frente a ellos a distancia; mientras los dos se detuvieron junto al Jordán. 8 Elías tomó su capa, la enrolló y le dio al agua con ella. El río se dividió en ambos lados, así que los dos pudieron cruzar sobre tierra seca. 9 Aconteció, después que ellos cruzaron, que Elías le dijo a Eliseo: "Pregúntame qué hago por ti antes que sea quitado de ti." Eliseo contestó: "Por favor deja que una doble porción de tu espíritu venga sobre mí." 10 Elías respondió: "Tú has pedido por una cosa difícil. Sin embargo, si me ves cuando yo sea tomado de ti, así te sucederá, pero si no, no sucederá." 11 Mientras ellos iban y hablaban, un carro de fuego y de caballos de fuego apareció, el cual separó a los dos hombres de cada uno, y Elías subió al cielo en un torbellino. 12 Eliseo lo vio y gritó: "¡Padre mío, padre mío, los carros de Israel y su gente de a caballo!" Y él nunca más vio a Elías; y tomando él su propia ropa, la rompió en dos pedazos. 13 Él recojió la capa de Elías que se le había caído, y regresó y se paró a la orilla del Jordán. 14 Él golpeó el agua con la capa de Elías que se le había caído y dijo: "¿Dónde está el SEÑOR, el Dios de Elías?" Cuando él golpeó las aguas, se dividieron en ambos lados y Eliseo cruzó. 15 Cuando los hijos de los profetas que estaban en Jericó, lo vieron al otro lado, ellos dijeron: "¡El espíritu de Elías reposa sobre Eliseo!" Así que vineron a encontrarse con él, y se inclinaron al suelo delante de él. 16 Ellos le dijeron a él: "Mira, aquí hay cincuenta hombres fuertes, entre tus siervos. Déjalos ir, te pedimos, a buscar a tu amo, en caso que el espíritu del SEÑOR lo haya tomado y lo haya tirado en alguna montaña o en algún valle." Eliseo contestó: "No, no los envíen." 17 Pero como ellos insistieron, que Eliseo se avergonzó, y él dijo: "Envíenlos." Luego ellos enviaron cincuentas hombres, y buscaron por tres días, pero no lo encontraron. 18 Ellos regresaron a Eliseo, mientras él estaba en Jericó, y él le dijo a ellos: "¿No les dije a ustedes: 'no vayan'?'' 19 Los hombres de la cuidad le dijeron a Eliseo: "Mira, te presentamos esta situación, el lugar donde está la cuidad es agradable, como mi señor puede ver, pero el agua es mala y la tierra no da fruto." 20 Eliseo contestó: "Tráiganme una vasija nueva y pongan sal en ella," así que ellos se la trajeron a él. 21 Eliseo salió afuera al manantial de agua y echó la sal en ella, entonces él dijo: "El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Yo he sanado estas aguas. Desde ahora en adelante, no habrá más muerte o tierra sin fruto.'" 22 Así que las aguas fueron sanadas en este día, por la palabra que Eliseo habló. 23 Luego Eliseo subió desde allí hasta Betel. Mientras él subía por el camino, unos jovenes salieron de la cuidad y se burlaron de él; ellos le dijeron a él: ''¡Ve, sube, tú calvo!" "'¡Sube, tú calvo!" 24 Eliseo miró atrás y los vio; él los maldijo en el SEÑOR. Luego dos osos hembras salieron del bosque e hirieron a cuarenta y dos de los jovenes. 25 Luego Eliseo fue de allí al Monte Carmelo, y desde allí él regreso a Samaria.

Chapter 3

1 Ahora, en el año dieciocho de Josafat, rey de Judá, Joram, hijo de Acab, comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en Samaria; él reinó por doce años. 2 Él hizo lo que era malo en los ojos del SEÑOR, pero no como su padre y su madre; porque él removió el pilar de piedra sagrado de Baal que su padre había hecho. 3 Sin embargo, él se aferró a los pecados de Roboam, hijo de Nabal, quien hiso a Israel pecar; él no se alejó de ellos. 4 Ahora, Mesa, rey de Moab, criaba ovejas. Él tenía que darle al rey de Israel 100, 000 ovejas y la lana de 100, 000 corderos. 5 Pero luego que Acab murió, el rey de Moab se rebeló en contra del rey de Israel. 6 Entonces, el rey Joram dejó Samaria en aquel tiempo para mover a todo Israel a la guerra. 7 Él envió un mensaje a Josafat, rey de Judá, diciendo: "El rey de Moab se ha rebelado en mi contra. ''¿Irás tú conmigo a la batalla en contra de Moab?" Josafat respondió: "Yo iré. Yo soy como tú eres, mi gente es como tu gente, mis caballos son como tus caballos." 8 Entonces él dijo: "¿Por qué camino deberíamos nosotros atacar?" Josafat respondió: "Por el camino al desierto de Edom." 9 Entonces los reyes de Israel, Judá, y Edom marcharon en un semicírculo por siete días. No encontraron agua para su ejército, ni para sus caballos, ni los otros animales. 10 Entonces el rey de Israel dijo: "¿Qué es esto? ¿Ha llamado el SEÑOR a tres reyes para darlos en las manos de Moab?" 11 Pero Josafat dijo: "¿No hay aquí un profeta del SEÑOR, que podamos consultar a el SEÑOR a través de él?" Uno de los sirvientes del rey de Israel dijo: "Eliseo, hijo de Safat está aquí, quien derramaba agua en las manos de Elías." 12 Josafat dijo: "La palabra del SEÑOR está con él." Entonces el rey de Israel, Josafat, y el rey de Edom bajaron hacia él. 13 Eliseo le dijo al rey de Israel: "¿Qué tengo que ver yo contigo? Ve a los profetas de tu padre y madre." Entonces el rey de Israel le dijo a él: "No, porque el SEÑOR ha llamado a estos tres reyes juntos a darlos en la mano de Moab." 14 Eliseo respondió: "Tal como el SEÑOR de los ejércitos vive, ante quien estoy de pie, ciertamente si no fuera por el hecho que yo honro la presencia de Josafat, rey de Judá, yo no te prestaría ninguna atención, ni siquiera te miraría. 15 Pero ahora tráeme a un músico." Y sucedió que cuando el harpista tocó, la mano del SEÑOR vino sobre Eliseo. 16 Él dijo: "El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Hagan muchos estanques en este valle seco.' 17 Porque el SEÑOR dice esto: "Ustedes no verán el viento, ni tampoco verán la lluvia, pero este valle será lleno con agua, y ustedes beberán, ustedes y su ganado y todos sus animales.' 18 Esto es una cosa fácil en los ojos del SEÑOR. Él también les dará victoria sobre los moabitas. 19 Ustedes atacarán cada ciudad fortificada y cada buena ciudad, cortarán todo buen árbol, cegarán todos los pozos de agua, y arruinarán con rocas cada porción de tierra." 20 Así que en la mañana, cerca de la hora de la ofrenda del sacrificio, vino agua desde la dirección de Edom; la tierra se llenó de agua. 21 Ahora, cuando todos los moabitas escucharon que los reyes habían venido a pelear en contra de ellos, ellos se unieron así mismos juntos, todos los que fueron capaces de ponerse la armadura, y ellos se pararon en la frontera. 22 Ellos se despertaron temprano en la mañana y el sol se reflejó en el agua. Cuando los moabitas vieron el agua frente a ellos, se veía tan roja como la sangre. 23 Ellos exclamaron: "¡Esto es sangre! ¡Los reyes ciertamente han sido destruídos, y se han matado unos a otros! ¡Entonces ahora, Moab, vamos a saquearlos!" 24 Cuando ellos vinieron al campo de Israel, los israelitas los sorprendieron y atacaron a los moabitas, quienes huyeron ante ellos. El ejército de Israel llevó a los moabitas a través de la tierra, matándolos. 25 Israel destruyó las ciudades, y en cada buen pedazo de tierra, cada hombre arrojó una roca y llenaron los campos fértiles. Ellos secaron todos los pozos de agua y cortaron todos los buenos árboles. Solamente en Kir Hareset dejaron las rocas en su lugar. Pero los soldados armados con hondas la atacaron y destruyeron. 26 Cuando el rey Mesa de Moab vió que la batalla estaba perdida, el tomó consigo setecientos espadachines para abrir camino hasta el rey de Edom, pero ellos fallaron. 27 Entonces él tomó a su hijo mayor, quien debió haber reinado después de él, y lo ofreció como ofrenda quemada sobre la muralla. Entonces hubo un gran enojo en contra de Israel; y el ejército israelita dejó al rey Mesa y regresaron a su propia tierra.

2 Kings 3:21

ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en la historia principal. Aquí, el autor brinda información de antecedentes sobre el ejército moabita que se prepara para encontrarse con los tres reyes y sus ejércitos en la batalla. (Ver: escritura_fondo)

todos los que pudieron ponerse armadura Aquí "armadura" representa la capacidad de luchar. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "todos los hombres que podrían pelear"

los reyes habían venido
Aquí la palabra "reyes" se refiere tanto a los reyes como a sus ejércitos. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "los reyes habían venido con sus ejércitos" o "los reyes y sus ejércitos habían venido"

se veía tan rojo como la sangre
Esto compara la apariencia roja del agua con el color de la sangre. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "era rojo como la sangre"

Entonces ahora, Moab
Los soldados se refieren a sí mismos aquí como "Moab". ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "soldados de Moab"

saquearlos
"robar sus pertenencias". Después de que un ejército derrotó a sus enemigos, a menudo saqueaban sus pueblos robando lo que quedaba de valor.

2 Kings 3:24

Campo de Israel
Aquí "Israel" se refiere solo a los soldados israelitas y no a toda la nación de Israel. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "el área donde los soldados israelitas habían instalado sus tiendas"

Los Israelitas sorprendieron
Aquí "israelitas" se refiere solo a los soldados israelitas y no a toda la nación de Israel. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "los soldados israelitas sorprendidos"

huyó ante ellos
"se escapó de ellos"

Kir-hareset
Está es la capital de Moab.

se quedó con sus rocas en su lugar
Los muros y edificios de la ciudad estaban hechos de piedras. El significado de esto se puede aclarar. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "todavía tenía sus muros de piedra y edificios en su lugar"

Con hondas
Una "honda" es un pedazo de piel de animal con cordones largos en ambos extremos en el que una persona puede poner una piedra u otro objeto pequeño y duro y tirarlo a una gran distancia.

2 Kings 3:26

Rey Mesa
Traduce el nombre de este rey como lo hiciste en 3: 4.

que la batalla se perdió
"que su ejército estaba siendo derrotado"

setecientas espadas
"700 espadas"

espadas
soldados que luchan con espadas

atravesar
"abrirse paso a la fuerza". Había muchos soldados luchando en el campo de batalla, lo que hacía difícil moverse a pesar de la multitud.

lo ofreció como holocausto
El rey Mesa quemó a su hijo con fuego hasta que murió. Hizo esto como una ofrenda a Chemosh, el falso dios de Moab. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito.

Entonces hubo una gran ira contra Israel Aquí la palabra "ira" se puede expresar como un verbo. Hay dos posibilidades para quién está enojado aquí: 1) Los soldados moabitas. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Entonces los soldados moabitas estaban muy enojados con Israel" o 2) Dios. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Entonces Dios estaba muy enojado con Israel"

Chapter 4

1 Ahora la esposa de uno de los hijos de los profetas vino llorando a Eliseo, diciendo: "Tu siervo mi esposo esta muerto, y tu sabes que tu siervo temía al SEÑOR. Ahora los acreedores han venido a llevarse mis dos niños como esclavos." 2 Así que Eliseo le dijo a ella: "¿Que puedo hacer por ti?, ¿Dime que tienes tu en la casa? Ella dijo: "Tu sierva no tiene nada en la casa, excepto una vasija de aceite. 3 Entonces Eliseo dijo: "Ve afuera a tomar vasijas prestadas de tus vecinos, vasijas vacías. Toma prestado las más posible. 4 Entonces tu irás adentro y cerrarás la puerta detrás de ti y tus hijos, y derrama aceite dentro de todas esas vasijas; pon a un lado las vasijas que estén llenas. 5 Así que ella dejó a Eliseo y cerró la puerta detrás de ella y sus hijos. Ellos le trajeron las vasijas, y ella las llenó con aceite. 6 Cuando los recipientes fueron llenados, ella le dijo a su hijo: "Trae otra vasija." Pero él le dijo a ella, "No hay mas vasijas." Entonces el aceite dejó de fluir. 7 Entonces ella vino y le dijo al hombre de Dios. El dijo, "Ve, vende el aceite paga tus deudas, y con lo que resta, vive con tus hijos. 8 Un día Eliseo caminó a Sunem donde una mujer importante vivía; Ella le instó a comer con ella. Así que, a menudo mientras Eliseo pasaba por allí, el debía detenerse allí a comer. 9 La mujer le dijo a su esposo: "vez, ahora yo me doy cuenta que éste es un hombre santo de Dios que siempre pasa por aquí. 10 "Vamos a hacer un cuarto pequeño en el techo para Eliseo, y vamos a poner adentro una cama, una mesa, y una lámpara. Entonces cuando él venga a nosotros, él se quedara ahí. 11 Así cuando llegó otra vez el dia en que Eliseo paró allí, el se quedó en el cuarto y descansó ahí. 12 Eliseo dijo a Giezi su siervo: "Llama esta Sunamita." Cuando el la llamó, ella se paró en frente de él. 13 Eliseo le dijo a él: "Dile a ella: 'Tu has pasado por tantos problemas para cuidar de nosotros. ¿Qué se puede hacer por ti? ¿Podemos hablar por ti al rey o al comandante del ejército?'" Ella contestó: "Yo vivo entre mi propia gente." 14 Así que Eliseo dijo: "¿Entonces qué podemos hacer por ella?" Giezi contestó: "De hecho, ella no tiene hijos, y su esposo es viejo. 15 "Así que Eliseo le respondió: "Llámala." Cuando él la hubo llamado, ella se paró en la puerta. 16 Eliseo dijo: "En esta época del año, en un año, tu estarás sosteniendo un hijo." Ella dijo: "No, señor mio, hombre de Dios, no le mientas a tu sierva. 17 Pero la mujer concibió y dió a luz un niño al mismo tiempo al año siguiente, como Eliseo le había dicho a ella. 18 Cuando el niño creció, un día él salió afuera a su padre, que estaba con los segadores. 19 Él le dijo a su padre: "Mi cabeza, mi cabeza." Su padre le dijo a su siervo: "Llévalo a su madre." 20 Cuando el siervo lo recogió y lo llevó a su madre, el niño se sentó sobre su rodillas hasta el medio día y entonces se murió. 21 Así que la mujer se paró y acostó al niño en la cama del hombre de Dios, cerró la puerta, y salió. 22 Ella llamó a su esposo, y le dijo: "Por favor envíeme a unos de los siervos y uno de los burros para poder apresurarme al hombre de Dios y entonces regresar. 23 El esposo dijo: "¿Por qué tu quieres ir a él hoy? No es luna nueva ni sábado. Ella respondió: "Va a estar todo bien." 24 Entonce ella encilló un burro y le dijo al siervo: "Conduce rápido; no disminuyas la velocidad por mi, a menos que yo te diga. 25 Así que ella se fué y vino al hombre de Dios en el Monte Carmelo. Así que cuando el hombre de Dios la vio en la distancia, él le dijo a Giezi su siervo: 26 "Mira, aquí viene la mujer Sunamita. Por favor corre a su encuentro y dile a ella: '¿Esta todo bién contigo y tu esposo y niño?'" Ella le contestó: "Todo esta bién". 27 "Cuando ella vino al hombre de Dios a la montaña, ella se arrojó a sus pies. Giezi se acercó para apartarla pero el hombre de Dios dijo: "Déjala tranquíla, pues ella esta muy angustiada, y el SEÑOR me ha ocultado el problema, y no me a dicho nada. 28 Entonces ella dijo: "¿Te pedí yo un hijo, señor mio? No te dije yo: '¿No me engañes?" 29 Entonces Eliseo le dijo a Giezi: "Vístete para viajar y coge mi bastón en tu mano. Ve a su casa. Si tu te encuentras con algún hombre, no lo saludes, y si alguien te saluda, no le contestes. Pon mi bastón sobre la cara del niño". 30 Pero la madre del niño dijo: "Así como vive el SEÑOR, y mientras tu vivas, Yo no te dejaré." Así que Eliseo se levantó y la siguió. 31 Giezi se apresuró adelante de ellos y puso el bastón sobre la cara del niño, pero el niño no habló ni escuchó. Así que, Giezi regresó ha encontrarse con Eliseo y le dijo: "El niño no despierta." 32 Cuando Eliseo llegó a la casa, el niño estaba muerto y todavía estaba en la cama. 33 Así que Eliseo entró y cerró la puerta tras ambos y oró al SEÑOR. 34 Él subió y se acostó sobre el niño; puso su boca sobre su boca, sus ojos sobre sus ojos, y sus manos sobre sus manos. Se estiró sobre el niño, y el cuerpo del niño empezó a calentarse. 35 Entonces Eliseo se levantó y caminó alrededor del cuarto y otra vez subió y se estiró sobre el niño. El niño estornudó siete veces y entonces abrió su ojos! 36 Así que Eliseo llamó a Giezi y dijo: "Llama la sunamita" Así que la llamó, y cuando ella entró en el cuarto, Eliseo dijo: "Toma a tu hijo." 37 Entonces ella, cayó en sus pies y se inclinó en la tierra, y entonces tomó a su hijo y salió. 38 Entonces Eliseo volvió a Gilgal otra vez. Había calamidad en la tierra, y los hijos de los profetas estaban sentados delante de él. El dijo a su siervo: "Pon la olla grande en el fuego y cocina guiso para los hijos de los profetas. 39 Uno de ellos salió al campo para recoger vegetales. El encontró una viña silvestre y recogió

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

bastante calabazas silvestre para llenar su manto. Ellos las cortaron y las pusieron en el guisado, pero no sabían de que clase eran. 40 Así que ellos sirvieron el guisado para que los hombres comieran. Mas tarde, mientras ellos comían, ellos gritaron y dijeron: "Hombre de Dios, hay muerte en la olla!" Y no pudieron comer más. 41 Pero Eliseo dijo: "Traigan un poco de harina." El la hechó en la olla y dijo: "sírvanlo a la gente, para que puedan comer." Y ya no había nada dañino en la olla. 42 Un hombre vino de Baal Salisa al hombre de Dios y trajo veinte panes de cebada, en su saco de su primera cosecha, y unas espigas de granos frescos. El dijo: "Dale esto a la gente para que ellos puedan comer." 43 Su siervo dijo: "¿Cómo pondre esto en frente de cien hombres? Pero Eliseo dijo, dale esto a la gente para que ellos puedan comer, porque así dice el SEÑOR: 'Ellos comerán y les sobrará.'" 44 Así que su siervo lo puso en frente de ellos; ellos comieron, y sobró como la palabra que el SEÑOR prometió.

Chapter 5

1 Ahora, Naamán, comandante del ejército del rey de Aram, era un gran y honorable hombre en los ojos de su amo, porque por medio de él, El SEÑOR le había dado victoria a Aram. Él también era hombre fuerte y valiente, pero era un leproso. 2 Los arameos habían salido a atacar en bandas y habían tomado a una muchacha de la tierra de Israel. Ella servía a la esposa de Naamán. 3 La muchacha le dijo a su señora: "¡Yo desearía que mi amo estuviera con el profeta que está en Samaria! Entonces el sanaría a mi amo de su lepra." 4 Así que, Naamán entró y le dijo al rey lo que esa muchacha de la tierra de Israel había dicho. 5 Así que el rey de Aram dijo: "Ve ahora, y yo enviaré una carta al rey de Israel." Naamán se fue y agarró con él diez talentos de plata, seis mil piezas de oro, y diez cambios de ropa. 6 Él también llevó la carta al rey de Israel que decía: "Ahora cuando esta carta sea traída a ti, tú verás que he enviado a Naamán mi siervo, a ti, para que tú puedas curarlo a él de su lepra." 7 Cuando el rey de Israel leyó la carta, se rasgó su ropa y dijo: "¿Soy yo Dios, para matar y para hacer vivir, que este hombre quiere que yo cure a un hombre de su lepra? Parece que está buscando iniciar un pleito conmigo." 8 Así que, cuando Eliseo, el hombre de Dios, escuchó que el rey de Israel había rasgado sus ropas, él envió palabra al rey diciendo: "¿Por qué has rasgado tus ropas? Deja que él venga a mí ahora, y él sabrá que hay un profeta en Israel." 9 Así que, Naamán vino con sus caballos y sus carros, y se paró frente a la puerta de la casa de Eliseo. 10 Eliseo envió un mensajero diciendo: "Ve y sumérgete en el Jordán siete veces, y tu carne será restaurada; tú serás limpio." 11 Pero Naamán estaba enojado y se fue y dijo: "Mira, yo pensaba que él seguramente iba llegar a mí, se pararía y llamaría al nombre del SEÑOR su Dios, y agitaría su mano sobre el lugar y sanaría mi lepra. 12 ¿No son Abaná y Farfar, los ríos de Damasco, mejor que todas las aguas de Israel? ¿No me podría bañar en ellos y ser limpio?'' Así que se viró y se fue en ira. 13 Luego, los sirvientes de Naamán se acercaron y le hablaron a él: "Padre mío, si el profeta le hubiera ordenado a hacer algo difícil, ¿no lo hubieses hecho? ¿Cuánto más entonces, cuando simplemente te dice: 'sumérgete y sé limpio?'" 14 Entonces, él bajó y se sumergió siete veces en el Jordán, obedeciendo las instrucciones del hombre de Dios. Su carne fue restaurada otra vez, como la carne de un niño pequeño, y él fue sanado. 15 Naamán regresó al hombre de Dios, él y toda su compañía, y llegó y se puso frente a él. Él dijo: "Ahora yo sé que no hay Dios en toda la tierra, excepto en Israel. Así que, por lo tanto, por favor, ten un regalo de tu siervo." 16 Pero, Eliseo respondió: "Vive el SEÑOR, delante de quien estoy parado, yo no recibiré nada." Naamán le insistió a Eliseo tomar el regalo, pero él se negó. 17 Así que Naamán dijo: "Si no, entonces te pido que le sea dado a tu siervo dos mulas cargadas de tierra, porque desde ahora, tu siervo no ofrecerá ni ofrendas quemadas ni sacrificos a cualquier dios, sino al SEÑOR. 18 Que en esta única cosa SEÑOR perdone a tu siervo, que cuando mi rey vaya a la casa de Rimón para adorar allí, y él se apoye en mi mano y yo me incline en la casa de Rimón, que SEÑOR perdone a tu siervo en este asunto." 19 Eliseo le dijo a él: "Ve en paz." Así que Naamán se fue. 20 Él había viajado sólo una corta distancia cuando Giezi, el siervo de Eliseo, el hombre de Dios, se dijo a sí mismo: "Mira, mi amo ha dispensado este Naamán, el arameo, al no recibir de su mano regalos que él trajo. Vive el SEÑOR, que yo correré tras él y recibiré algo de él." 21 Así que, Giezi siguió detrás de Naamán. Cuando Naamán vio a alguien corriendo detrás de él, él se bajó de su propio carro para encontrarlo y dijo: "¿Está todo bien?" 22 Giezi dijo: "Todo está bien, mi amo me ha enviado, diciendo: 'Verás, ahora han llegado a mí, desde la zona montañosa de Efraín dos jóvenes de los hijos de los profetas. Por favor, dáles un talento de plata y dos cambios de ropa.'" 23 Naamán respondió: "Estoy muy feliz de darte dos talentos." Naamán le insistió a Giezi y amarró dos talentos de plata en dos bolsas, con dos cambios de ropa, y las tendió sobre dos de sus sirvientes, quienes cargaban las bolsas frente a Giezi. 24 Cuando Giezi llegó a la colina, él tomó las bolsas de sus manos, y las escondió en la casa; él envió a los siervos lejos, y ellos se fueron. 25 Cuando Giezi entró y se puso frente a su amo, Eliseo le dijo a él: "¿De dónde has venido, Giezi?" Él contestó: "Tú siervo no fue a ningún lado." 26 Eliseo dijo a Giezi: "¿No fue mi espíritu contigo, cuando el hombre regresó su carro para encontrarte? ¿Es este un tiempo para aceptar dinero y ropas, huertos de olivo y viñedos, ovejas y bueyes, y siervos y siervas? 27 Así que, la lepra de Naamán estará sobre ti y tu desendencia para siempre." Así que Giezi se fue de su presencia, un leproso blanco como la nieve.

Chapter 6

1 Los hijos de los profetas dijeron a Eliseo: "El lugar donde nosotros vivimos contigo es muy pequeño para todos nosotros. 2 Por favor déjanos ir al Jordán, y deja que cada hombre corte un árbol ahí, y deja que construyamos un lugar ahí donde podamos vivir." Eliseo contestó: "Ustedes pueden ir adelante." 3 Uno de ellos dijo: "Por favor ve con tus siervos." Eliseo contestó: "Yo iré." 4 Así que él fue con ellos y cuando ellos llegaron al Jordán ellos comenzaron a cortar árboles. 5 Pero mientras uno cortaba, la cabeza del hacha cayó en el agua; él gritó y dijo: "¡Oh no, mi maestro, era prestada!" 6 Así que el hombre de Dios dijo: "¿Dónde cayó?" El hombre mostró a Eliseo el lugar. Él luego cortó un palo, lo lanzó en el agua, e hizo que el hierro flotara. 7 Eliseo dijo: "Tómalo." Así que el hombre extendió su mano y la agarró. 8 Ahora el rey de Aram estaba librando batalla en contra de Israel. Él consultó con sus siervos, diciendo: "Mi campamento estará en tal y cual lugar." 9 Así que el hombre de Dios envió al rey de Israel diciendo: "Ten cuidado de no pasar por ese lugar, puesto que los arameos van bajando por ahí." 10 Luego el rey de Israel envió hombres al lugar sobre el cual el hombre de Dios le había advertido a él. Mas de una o dos veces, el rey fue allá, él estuvo en guardia. 11 El rey de Aram estaba muy turbado sobre esta advertencia, y él llamó a sus sirvientes y les dijo a ellos: "¿No me dirán ustedes quién entre nosotros está a favor del rey de Israel?" 12 Así que uno de sus sirvientes dijo: "¡No, rey, señor mío, sino que el profeta Eliseo en Israel dice al rey de Israel las palabras que usted habla en su propio dormitorio!" 13 El rey contestó: "Vé y mira donde Eliseo está para que yo pueda enviar hombres y lo capturen a él." Se le dijo a él: "Mira, él está en Dotán." 14 Así que el rey envió a Dotán caballos, carros y un ejército grande. Ellos vinieron de noche y rodearon la ciudad. 15 Cuando el sirviente del hombre de Dios se hubo levantado temprano y salió fuera, he aquí, un gran ejército con caballos y carros rodearon la ciudad. Y su sirviente le dijo: "¡Oh, señor mío amo! ¿Qué haremos nosotros?" 16 Eliseo contestó: "No temas, por cuanto los que están con nosotros son más que aquellos que están con ellos." 17 Eliseo oró y dijo: "SEÑOR, yo te ruego que tú abras sus ojos para que él pueda ver." Luego el SEÑOR abrió los ojos de su sirviente y él vio. ¡He aquí, la montaña estaba llena de caballos y carros de fuego alrededor de Eliseo! 18 Cuando los arameos bajaron a él, Eliseo oró al SEÑOR y dijo: "Golpea a estas personas con ceguera, Yo te lo pido." Así el SEÑOR los cegó, como Eliseo le había pedido. 19 Luego Eliseo le dijo a los arameos: "Este no es el camino, ni es esta la ciudad. Síganme, y yo los llevaré al hombre a quien ustedes buscan." Y él los dirigió a Samaria. 20 Aconteció que cuando ellos llegaron a Samaria, Eliseo dijo: "SEÑOR, abre los ojos de estos hombres para que ellos puedan ver." El SEÑOR abrió sus ojos y ellos vieron y, he aquí, ellos estaban en medio de la ciudad de Samaria. 21 El rey de Israel dijo a Eliseo, cuando los vio: "¿Padre mío, debo yo matarlos? ¿Debo matarlos?" 22 Eliseo le contestó: "No los debe matar a ellos. ¿Matarías a aquellos a quienes tú hayas tomado cautivos con tu espada y arco? Pon pan y agua frente a ellos, para que ellos puedan comer y beber, e ir donde su señor." 23 Así que el rey preparó mucha comida para ellos y cuando ellos habían comido y bebido, él los envió, y ellos fueron de vuelta a su señor. Estas bandas de soldados arameos no regresaron por un largo tiempo a la tierra de Israel. 24 Luego después de esto Ben Adad rey de Aram reunió todo su ejército y atacó a Samaria y lo sitió. 25 Por lo que hubo una gran calamidad en Samaria. He aquí, ellos la sitiaron hasta que la cabeza de un burro se vendía por ochenta piezas de plata, y la cuarta parte de 1. 23 litros de estiércol de paloma por cinco piezas de plata. 26 Mientras el rey de Israel iba pasando por la muralla, una mujer le gritó a él diciendo: "Ayuda, rey, señor mío, el rey." 27 Él dijo: "Si el SEÑOR no te ayuda, ¿cómo te puedo ayudar yo? ¿Habrá algo que trillar o en la prensa de vino?" 28 El rey continuó: "¿Qué te está molestando?" Ella contestó: "Esta mujer me dijo a mí: 'Dame tu hijo para que nosotros podamos comerlo hoy, y nos comeremos a mi hijo mañana." 29 Así que hervimos a mi hijo y lo comimos, y le dije a ella al próximo día: "Dame tu hijo para que podamos comerlo, pero ella ha escondido su hijo." 30 Así que cuando el rey escuchó las palabras de la mujer, razgó sus ropas (ahora él estaba pasando el muro), y el pueblo miró y vio que él tenía ropa de saco contra su piel. 31 Luego él dijo: "Así me haga Dios a mi, y más también, si la cabeza de Eliseo hijo de Safat permanece en él hoy." 32 Pero Eliseo estaba sentado en su casa y los ancianos estaban sentados con él. El rey envió un hombre delante de él, pero antes que el mensajero viniera a Eliseo, él dijo a los ancianos: "Miren, ¿cómo este hijo de asesino ha enviado a llevarse mi cabeza? Miren, cuando el mensajero llegue, cierren la puerta, y manténgan la puerta cerrada tras él. ¿No está el ruido de los pies de su amo detrás de él?" 33 Mientras él aun estaba hablando con ellos, he aquí, el mensajero bajó donde él. El rey había dicho: "He aquí, este problema viene de SEÑOR. ¿Por qué yo debería esperar más tiempo al SEÑOR?"

Chapter 7

1 Eliseo dijo: ''Escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR. Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: 'Mañana a esta hora una medida de harina fina será vendida por un ciclo, y dos medidas de cebada por un ciclo, en la puerta de Samaria."' 2 Luego el capitán, sobre quien el rey había inclinado su mano para estar a cargo, le contestó al hombre de Dios, y le dijo: "Mira, aún si el SEÑOR hiciera ventanas en los cielos, ¿puede esto pasar?" Eliseo respondió: "Mira, tu lo verás pasar con tus propios ojos, pero no comerás nada de eso." 3 Ahora había cuatro hombres con lepra justo fuera de la puerta de la cuidad. Ellos se dijeron unos a otros: "¿Por qué nos sentamos aquí hasta morir?'' 4 Si decimos que vamos a la cuidad, entonces la hambruna esta en la cuidad, y moriremos allí. Pero si nos quedamos aquí, como quiera moriremos. Ahora pues, vayamos al ejército de los arameos. Si ellos nos mantienen con vida, nosotros viviremos, y si ellos nos matan, nosotros solo moriremos." 5 Así que ellos se levantaron al atardecer para ir al campamento arameo; luego ellos llegaron a la parte mas lejana del campamento, no había nadie allí. 6 Porque el SEÑOR hizo que el ejército arameo escuchará el ruido de carros y ruido de caballos - el ruido de otro gran ejército, y ellos se dijeron los unos a los otros: "El rey de Israel contrató al rey de los hititas y los egipcios para que vengan contra nosotros." 7 Así que los soldados se levantarón y huyeron en el atardecer; ellos dejaron sus tiendas, sus caballos, sus burros, y el campamento como estaba, y huyeron por sus vidas. 8 Cuando los hombres con lepra vinieron de la parte más lejana del campamento, ellos fueron a una de las tiendas y comieron y bebieron, y cargaron con plata y oro y ropa, ellos fueron y lo escondieron. Ellos regresaron y entraron a otra tienda y saquearon de ahí también, y fueron y lo escondieron. 9 Luego ellos se dijeron los unos a los otros: "No estamos haciendo lo correcto." Este día es el día de buenas noticias, pero nos estamos quedando callados sobre esto. Si esperamos hasta el amanecer, castigo vendrá sobre nosotros. Ahora pues, vamos a decirle a la casa del rey." 10 Así que ellos fueron y llamaron a los guardas de la ciudad. Ellos le dijeron: "Nosotros fuimos al campamento de los arameos, pero no había nadie allí, ni el sonido de nadie, pero estaban ahí los caballos amarrados, y los burros amarrados, y las tiendas estaban allí." 11 Luego los guardas gritaron las noticias, y luego fue dicho dentro de la casa del rey. 12 Luego el rey se levantó por la noche y le dijo a sus sirvientes: ''Yo les diré ahora lo que los arameos nos han hecho. Ellos saben que nosotros estamos hambrientos, así que ellos fueron afuera del campamento para esconderse en los campos. Ellos están diciendo: "Cuando ellos salgan de la ciudad, nosotros los tomaremos vivos y los entraremos a la ciudad."' 13 Uno de los sirvientes del rey contestó y les dijo: "yo te ruego, deja que algunos hombres tomen cinco de los caballos que quedan, que son los que quedaron en la ciudad. Ellos son como el resto de la población que queda de Israel, (muchos han muertos ya); déjanos enviarlos y veremos." 14 Así que ellos tomaron dos carros con caballos, y el rey los envió al campamento del ejército de los arameos, diciendo: "Vayan y vean." 15 Ellos fueron detrás de ellos al Jordán, y todo el camino estaba lleno de ropa y equipo que los arameos habían dejado con su prisa. Así que los mensajeros regresaron y le contaron al rey. 16 El pueblo salió y saquearon el campamento de los arameos. Así que la medida de harina fina era vendida por un ciclo, y dos medidas de cebada por un ciclo, justo como la palabra del SEÑOR había dicho. 17 El rey asignó al capítan, sobre cuyo brazo él se apoyaba, para estar a cargo de la puerta, y el pueblo lo atropelló en la puerta. El murió como el hombre de Dios había dicho, quien habló cuando el rey vino a él. 18 Sucedió tal como el hombre de Dios le había dicho al rey, diciendo: "Mañana a esta hora una medida de harina fina será vendida por un ciclo, y dos medidas de cebada por un ciclo, en la puerta de Samaria." 19 El capitán había contestado al hombre de Dios y dijo: "Mira, aún si el SEÑOR hiciera ventanas en los cielos, ¿puede esto pasar?" Eliseo respondió: "Mira, tu lo verás pasar con tus propios ojos, pero no comerás nada de eso." 20 Esto fue exactamente lo que le pasó a él, porque el pueblo lo atropelló a la entrada de la ciudad, y allí mismo murió.

Chapter 8

1 Ahora, Eliseo habló con la mujer cuyo hijo había resucitado. Él le dijo a ella: "Levántate, y ve con tu casa, y quédate en donde puedas, en otra tierra, porque El SEÑOR ha llamado una hambruna, la cual vendrá a ésta tierra por siete años." 2 Así que, la mujer se levantó y obedeció la palabra del hombre de Dios. Ella fue con su casa y vivió en la tierra de los filisteos por siete años. 3 Y pasó que al final de los siete años en que la mujer regresó de la tierra de los filisteos, ella fue al rey para rogarle por su casa y por su tierra. 4 Ahora, el rey estaba hablando con Giezi, el siervo del hombre de Dios, diciendo: "Por favor, dime todas las cosas que Eliseo ha hecho." 5 Luego, mientras él le estaba diciendo al rey cómo Eliseo había resucitado al niño que estaba muerto, la misma mujer, cuyo hijo había sido resucitado, vino a rogar al rey por su casa y su tierra. Giezi dijo: "Rey, señor mío, ésta es la mujer, y éste es su hijo, a quien Eliseo resucitó." 6 Cuando el rey le preguntó a la mujer acerca de su hijo, ella se lo explicó a él. Así que el rey le ordenó a cierto oficial por ella, diciendo: "Devuélvele a ella todo lo que era de ella, y todas las cosechas de sus campos, desde el día que se fue hasta ahora." 7 Eliseo vino a Damasco, donde Ben Hadad, el rey de Aram estaba enfermo. Le fue dicho al rey: "El hombre de Dios ha venido aquí." 8 El rey le dijo a Hazael: "Toma un regalo en tu mano, y ve a ver al hombre de Dios, y consulta con El SEÑOR a través de él diciendo: '¿Me voy yo a recuperar de ésta enfermedad?'" 9 Así que, Hazael fue a verlo, y se llevó un regalo con él, de todo tipo de bienes de Damasco, cargados por cuarenta camellos. Así que, Hazael vino y se puso frente a Eliseo y dijo: "Tu hijo Ben Hadad rey de Aram me ha enviado a tí, diciendo '¿Me voy a recuperar de ésta enfermedad?'" 10 Eliseo le dijo a él: "Ve, dile a Ben Hadad, 'seguramente te vas a recuperar', pero El SEÑOR me ha mostrado que él ciertamente morirá." 11 Luego Eliseo miró a Hazael, hasta que él se avergonzó, y el hombre de Dios lloró. 12 Hazael le preguntó: "¿Por qué lloras, señor mío?" El respondió: "Porque yo sé el mal que tu le harás a la gente de Israel. Tu incendiarás sus casas, y tu matarás a sus jóvenes con la espada, quebrarás en pedazos a sus pequeños y desgarrarás a sus embarazadas." 13 Hazael respondió: "¿Quién es tu siervo, que puede hacer ésta gran cosa? Él es sólo un perro." Eliseo respondió: "El SEÑOR me ha mostrado que tu serás rey sobre Aram." 14 Luego Hazael dejó a Eliseo y vino a su amo, quien le dijo: "¿Qué te dijo Eliseo a ti?" Él respondió: "Él me dijo que tu ciertamente te recuperarás." 15 Luego, al siguiente día, Hazael tomó la cobija y la mojó en agua, y la extendió sobre la cara de Ben Adad, de manera que murió. Luego Hazael se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 16 En el quinto año de Yoram, hijo de Acab, rey de Israel, Joram comenzó a reinar. Él era el hijo de Josafat, rey de Judá. El comenzó a reinar cuando Josafat era rey de Judá. 17 Joram tenía treinta y dos años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar, y reinó por ocho años en Jerusalén. 18 Joram caminó en los caminos de los reyes de Israel, haciendo como la casa de Acab; pues tenía a la hija de Acab como esposa, e hizo lo malo ante la vista del SEÑOR. 19 Sin embargo, por causa de su siervo David, El SEÑOR no quería destruir a Judá, pues el le había dicho que siempre le daría desendencia. 20 En los días de Joram, Edom se rebeló bajo la mano de Judá, y pusieron un rey sobre ellos mismos. 21 Luego, Joram pasó con sus comandantes y todos sus carros. Y se levantó de noche y atacó y abrumó a los edomitas, quienes lo habían rodeado a él y a los comandantes de los carros. Entonces, el ejército de Joram escapó a sus casas. 22 Así que, Edom ha estado en rebelión en contra del gobierno de Judá hasta el presente. Libna también se rebeló al mismo tiempo. 23 Por los demás asuntos concernientes a Joram, todo lo que hizo, ¿No están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 24 Joram murió y descansó con sus padres, fue enterrado con sus padres en la ciudad de David. Luego Ocozías, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 25 En el año 12 de Joram, hijo de Acab, rey de Israel, Ocozías, hijo de Joram, rey de Judá, comenzó a reinar. 26 Ocozías tenía veintidos años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó por un año en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre fue Atalía; ella era hija de Omri, rey de Israel. 27 Ocozías caminó en los caminos de la casa de Acab; él hizo lo que era malo ante la vista del SEÑOR, como la casa de Acab estaba haciendo, pues Ocozías era yerno de la casa de Acab. 28 Ocozías fue con Joram, hijo de Acab, a pelear en contra de Hazael, rey de Aram, en Ramot de Galaad. Los arameos hirieron a Joram. 29 El rey Joram regresó para ser curado en Jezreel de las heridas que los arameos le dieron en Ramot, cuando peleó en contra de Hazael, rey de Aram. Así que, Ocozías, hijo de Joram, rey de Judá, bajó a Jezreel a ver a Joram, hijo de Acab, porque Joram había sido herido.

Chapter 9

1 Eliseo el profeta llamó a uno de los hijos de los profetas y dijo a él: "Vístete para viajar, entonces toma esta pequeña botella de aceite en tu mano y ve a Ramot de Galaad. 2 Cuando tú llegues, busca a Jehú hijo de Josafat, hijo de Nimsi, y entra y hazlo levantarse de entre sus compañeros, y condúcelo a una cámara interior. 3 Entonces toma la botella de aceite y derrámala sobre su cabeza y di: "Así dice El SEÑOR: "Yo te he ungido rey sobre Israel."' Entonces abre la puerta y corre; no te demores." 4 Así que el joven, profeta, fue a Ramot de Galaad. 5 Cuando él llegó, he aquí, los capitanes del ejército estaban sentados. Así que el joven profeta dijo, "Yo he venido en una encomienda a ti, capitán." Jehú respondió: "¿A cuál de nosotros?" El profeta joven contestó: "A ti, capitán." 6 Así que Jehú se levantó y entró a la casa, y el profeta derramó el aceite sobre su cabeza y dijo a Jehú: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Yo te he ungido rey sobre el pueblo del SEÑOR, sobre Israel. 7 Darás muerte a la familia de Acab, tu señor, para que yo pueda vengar la sangre de mis siervos, los profetas, y la sangre de todos los siervos del SEÑOR, que fueron asesinados por la mano de Jezabel. 8 Pues la familia entera de Acab perecerá, y yo cortaré de Acab todo niño varón, sea éste un esclavo o una persona libre. 9 Yo haré la casa de Acab como la casa de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, y como la casa de Baasa, hijo de Ahías. 10 Los perros comerán a Jezabel en Jezreel, y no habrá nadie para enterrarla."' Entonces el profeta abrió la puerta y corrió. 11 Entonces Jehú salió fuera a los siervos de su señor, y uno dijo a él, "¿Está todo bien? ¿Por qué vino este compañero loco a ti?" Jehú les contestó a ellos: "Ustedes conocen al hombre y las clases de cosas que él dice." 12 Ellos dijeron, "Eso es una mentira. Dinos." Jehú contestó: "Él me dijo esto y aquello, y él también dijo, 'Esto es lo que El SEÑOR dice: Yo te he ungido como rey sobre Israel."' 13 Entonces cada uno de ellos se quitó rápidamente su vestimenta exterior y la puso debajo de Jehú arriba en los escalones. Ellos soplaron la trompeta y dijeron, "Jehú es rey." 14 En esta manera Jehú, hijo de Josafat, hijo de Nimsi, conspiró contra Joram. Ahora, Joram había estado defendiendo Ramot Galaad, él y todo Israel, por causa de Hazael, rey de Aram, 15 pero el rey Joram había ido de regreso a Jezreel para ser sanado de las heridas que los a Arameos le habían dado cuando él había peleado en contra de Hazael, rey de Aram. Jehú dijo a los siervos de Joram: "Si están de acuerdo, entonces no dejen a nadie escapar y salir fuera de la ciudad, para ir a decir esta noticia en Jezreel." 16 Así que Jehú montó en un carro hasta Jezreel; pues Joram estaba descansando ahí. Ahora, Ocozías, rey de Judá, había bajado para ver a Joram. 17 El atalaya estaba parado en la torre en Jezreel, y él vio la compañía de Jehú mientras llegaba a la distancia; él dijo: "Yo veo venir un grupo de hombres." Joram dijo, "Toma un jinete, y envíalo fuera para encontrarse con ellos; dile que diga: '¿Vienen ustedes en paz?"' 18 Así que un hombre montado en caballo fue enviado para encontrarse con él; él dijo: "El rey dice esto: ¿'Vienes tú en paz?"' Así que Jehú dijo: "¿Qué tienes tú que ver con la paz? Gira y cabalga detrás de mí." Entonces el atalaya dijo al rey, "El mensajero se ha encontrado con ellos, pero él no regresa." 19 Entonces él envió fuera un segundo hombre montado a caballo, quien vino a ellos y dijo, "El rey dice esto: '¿Vienen ustedes en paz?"' Jehú contestó: "¿Qué tienes tú que ver con la paz? Gira y cabalga detrás de mí." 20 Otra vez el atalaya informó: "Él se ha encontrado con ellos, pero él no regresa. Y la forma en que el carro está siendo conducido es según conduce Jehú, hijo de Nimsi, pues él está conduciendo salvajemente." 21 Así que Joram dijo: "Prepara mi carro." Ellos prepararon su carro, y Joram, rey de Israel y Ocozías, rey de Judá, salieron, cada uno en su carro, para encontrarse con Jehú. Ellos lo encontraron en la propiedad de Nabot el jezreelita. 22 Cuando Joram vio a Jehú, él dijo: "¿Vienes tú en paz, Jehú?" Él contestó: "¿Qué paz hay, cuando los actos idólatras de prostitución y brujería de tu madre, Jezabel, son tantos?" 23 Así que Joram volteó su carro y huyó y dijo a Ocozías: "Hay traición, Ocozías." 24 Entonces Jehú sacó su arco con todas sus fuerzas y le disparó a Joram entre sus hombros; la flecha traspasó su corazón, y él se cayó en su carro. 25 Entonces Jehú dijo a Bidcar, su capitán, "Levántalo y arrójalo en el campo de Nabot el jezreelita. Recuerda cómo, cuando tú y yo cabalgamos juntos tras de Acab, su padre, el SEÑOR dió esta profecía en contra de él: 26 'Seguramente, ayer he visto yo la sangre de Naboth y la sangre de sus hijos, dice el SEÑOR, y yo te recompensaré en este campo," dice el SEÑOR. Ahora, entonces, llévalo y arrójalo dentro de ese lugar, de acuerdo a la palabra del SEÑOR." 27 Cuando Ocozías, el rey de Judá vio esto, él huyó hacia arriba, al camino hacia Bet Hagan. Pero Jehú lo siguió, y dijo: "Mátenlo a él también en el carro," y le hirieron en el ascenso de Gur, el cual está al lado de Ibleam. Ocozías huyó a Meguido y murió ahí. 28 Sus siervos cargaron su cuerpo en un carro a Jerusalén y lo enterraron en su tumba con sus padres en la ciudad de David. 29 Ahora, fue en el año once de Joram, hijo de Acab, que Ocozías había comenzado a reinar sobre Judá. 30 Cuando Jehú vino a Jezreel, Jezabel oyó acerca de esto, y ella pintó sus ojos, arregló su cabello y miró fuera de la ventana. 31 Mientras Jehú entraba por la puerta, ella le dijo a él, "¿Vienes tú en paz, eres tú como Zimri, asesino de tu señor?" 32 Jehú miró arriba a la ventana y dijo, "¿Quién está de mi lado? ¿Quién?" Entonces dos o tres eunucos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

miraron hacia fuera. 33 Así que Jehú dijo: "Arrójenla abajo." Así que ellos arrojaron a Jezabel abajo, y alguna de su sangre salpicó en la pared y los caballos, y Jehú la pisoteó bajo los pies. 34 Cuando Jehú entró al palacio, él comió y bebió. Entonces él dijo, "Atiende ahora esta mujer maldita y entiérrala, pues ella es hija de un rey." 35 Ellos fueron a enterrarla, pero ellos no encontraron nada más de ella que el cráneo, los pies, y las palmas de sus manos. 36 Así que regresaron y lo dijeron a Jehú. Él dijo, "Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR la cual Él habló por su siervo Elías el tisbita, diciendo: 'En la tierra de Jezreel los perros se comerán la carne de Jezabel, 37 y el cuerpo de Jezabel será como el escremento sobre los campos en la tierra de Jezreel, para que nadie pueda decir: "Esta es Jezabel.'"

Chapter 10

1 Ahora, Acab tuvo setenta descedientes en Samaria. Jehú escribió cartas y se las envió a Samaria, a los gobernantes de Jezreel, incluyendo a los ancianos y a los cuidadores de los descendientes de Acab, diciendo: 2 "Los descendientes de tu señor están con ustedes, y ustedes también tienen carros y caballos y una ciudad fortificada y armas. Así que, tan pronto como esta carta llegue a ustedes, 3 seleccionen el mejor y más merecedor de los descendientes de su señor y pónganlo en el trono de su padre, y peleen por la línea real de su señor." 4 Pero ellos estaban aterrorizados y dijeron entre ellos: "Mirad, los dos reyes no pudieron hacerle frente a Jehú. Entonces, ¿cómo podremos nosotros enfrentarlo?" 5 Entonces el hombre quien estaba a cargo del palacio, y el hombre quien estaba sobre la ciudad, y los ancianos también, y ellos quienes criaron a los hijos, enviaron palabra de vuelta a Jehú, diciendo: "Nosotros somos tus siervos. Nosotros haremos todo lo que nos ordenes. Nosotros no haremos a ningún hombre rey. Haz lo que es bueno ante tus ojos." 6 Entonces Jehú escribió una carta la segunda vez a ellos, diciendo: "Si ustedes están de mi lado, y si ustedes escuchan mi voz, ustedes deben tomar las cabezas de los hombres de los descendientes de su señor, y vengan a mí a Jezreel, mañana a esta hora." Ahora, los descendientes del rey, setenta en número, estaban con los hombres importantes de la ciudad, quienes los criaban. 7 Entonces cuando la carta llegó a ellos, ellos tomaron los hijos del rey y los mataron, setenta personas, pusieron sus cabezas en canastas y las enviaron a Jehú en Jezreel. 8 Un mensajero vino a Jehú, diciendo: "Ellos han traído las cabezas de los hijos del rey." Entonces él dijo: "Pónganlas en dos pilas a la entrada de la puerta hasta la mañana." 9 En la mañana, Jehú salió y se paró, y le dijo a toda la gente: "Ustedes son inocentes. Mirad, yo conspiré en contra de mi señor y lo maté, pero, ¿quién mató a todos estos? 10 Ahora, ustedes deberían ciertamente notar que ninguna parte de la palabra del SEÑOR, la palabra que Él habló en cuanto a la familia de Acab, caerá al suelo, porque el SEÑOR ha hecho lo que ha hablado a través de su siervo Elías." 11 Entonces Jehú mató a todo el que quedaba en la familia de Acab en Jezreel, y a todos sus hombres importantes, sus amigos cercanos, y a sus sacerdotes, hasta que no quedó ninguno de ellos. 12 Entonces Jehú se levantó y se fue; él fue a Samaria. Mientras él llegaba a Bet Eked de los pastores, 13 él encontró hermanos de Ocozías, rey de Judá. Jehú les dijo a ellos: "¿Quiénes son ustedes?" Ellos respondieron: "Somos hermanos de Ocozías, y vamos bajando para presentarnos a los hijos del rey y los hijos de la reina Jezabel." 14 Jehú le dijo a sus propios hombres: "Agárrenlos vivos." Entonces ellos los agarraron vivos y los mataron en el pozo de Bet Eked, a todos los cuarenta y dos hombres. Él no dejó a ninguno de ellos vivo. 15 Cuando Jehú se había ido de allí, él se encontró con Jonadab, hijo de Recab, saliendo a recibirlo. Jehú lo saludo y le dijo a él: "¿Está tu corazón conmigo, como el mío está contigo?" Jonadab respondió: "Lo está." Jehú dijo: "Si lo está, dame tu mano." Y Jonadab le dio su mano, entonces Jehú lo subió con él en el carro. 16 Jehú dijo: "Ven conmigo y mira mi celo por el SEÑOR." Así que él hizo a Jonadab ir con él en su carro. 17 Cuando él vino a Samaria, Jehú mató a todo quien quedaba de los descendientes de Acab en Samaria, hasta que él hubo destruído la línea real de Acab, tal como se les dijo antes por la palabra del SEÑOR, la cual Él le dijo a Elías. 18 Entonces Jehú reunió a toda su gente y les dijo a ellos: "Acab sirvió a Baal un poco, pero Jehú le servirá mucho. 19 Ahora, por lo tanto, traigan a mí todos los profetas de Baal, a todos sus adoradores, y a todos sus sacerdotes. No dejen que nadie se quede afuera, porque yo tengo un gran sacrificio que ofrecerle a Baal. Quienquiera que no venga, no vivirá." Pero Jehú hizo esto falsamente, con la intención de matar a los adoradores de Baal. 20 Jehú dijo: "Póngan una hora para tener una asamblea para Baal." Entonces ellos lo anunciaron. 21 Entonces Jehú envió a través de todo Israel y todos los adoradores de Baal vinieron, así no quedo hombre que no vino. Ellos entraron al templo de Baal, y estaba lleno de un lado a otro. 22 Jehú le dijo al hombre quien guardaba la vestidura de los sacerdotes: "Saca las ropas de todos los adoradores de Baal." Entonces el hombre les sacó las ropas a ellos. 23 Entonces Jehú fue con Jonadab, hijo de Recab, dentro de la casa de Baal, y él le dijo a los adoradores de Baal: "Busquen y asegúrense que no hay nadie aquí con ustedes de los siervos del SEÑOR, sino sólo los adoradores de Baal." 24 Entonces, ellos entraron a ofrecer sacrificios y ofrendas quemadas. Ahora, Jehú había escogido ochenta hombres quienes estaban parados afuera, y él les dijo: "Si alguno de los hombres quienes traigo a sus manos escapa, quien sea que deje a ese hombre escapar, su vida será tomada por la vida de aquel que escapó." 25 Así, entonces, tan pronto Jehú terminó de ofrecer la ofrenda quemada, él le dijo al guardia y a los capitanes: "Entren y mátenlos. No dejen a nadie salir." Entonces ellos los mataron a filo de espada, y el guardia y los capitanes los arrojaron afuera y entraron en el salón interior de la casa de Baal. 26 Y ellos sacaron afuera los pilares de piedra que estaban en la casa de Baal, y los quemaron. 27 Ellos derribaron el pilar de Baal, y destruyeron la casa de Baal y la hicieron una letrina, la cual todavía lo es. 28 Así es como Jehú destuyó a Baal y sacó su adoración de Israel. 29 Pero Jehú no dejó los pecados de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, por los cuales él hizo a Israel pecar --eso es, la adoración de becerros dorados en Betel y en Dan. 30 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Jehú: "Porque has

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hecho bien en hacer lo que está recto ante mis ojos, y has hecho a la casa de Acab de acuerdo a todo lo que estaba en mi corazón, tus descendientes se sentarán en el trono de Israel hasta la cuarta generación." 31 Pero Jehú no tuvo cuidado de caminar en la ley del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, con todo su corazón. Él no se volvió de los pecados de Jeroboam, por los cuales él hizo a Israel pecar. 32 En esos días el SEÑOR empezó a cortar de las regiones de Israel, y Hazeal derrotó a los israelitas en las fronteras de Israel, 33 desde el este del Jordán, toda la tierra de Galaad, los gaditas, y los rubenitas, y los manasitas, desde Aroer, lo cual es el valle de Arnón, desde Galaad hasta Basán. 34 Acerca de los asuntos concernientes a Jehú, y a todo los que hizo, y a todo su poder, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 35 Jehú durmió con sus ancenstros, y ellos lo enterraron en Samaria. Entonces, Joacaz, su hijo, se volvió rey en su lugar. 36 El tiempo que Jehú reinó sobre Israel en Samaria fue veíntiocho años.

"Estar del lado de alguien" significa ser leal a ellos y apoyarlos. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "leal a mí"

escuchar
escuchar y obedecer

a mi voz
Aquí la "voz" de Jehu se refiere a lo que dice. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "a lo que digo"

debes tomar las cabezas ... y venir a mí Está implícito que deben traer las cabezas de los descendientes del Acab y presentarlas a Jehú. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "debes tomar las cabezas ... y traerlas a mí"

debes tomar las cabezas de los hombres de los descendientes de tu amo Esto se refiere a matarlos y quitarles la cabeza. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "mata a los descendientes de tu amo y córtales la cabeza" setenta en número ... setenta personas

"70 en número ... 70 personas"

quienes los estaban criando Esto significa que los estaban supervisando y enseñándoles. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "quién los estaba criando" o "quién los estaba supervisando"

y los envié a Jehú
Esto significa que enviaron personas para entregar las canastas a Jehú. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "y envió personas para llevarlos a Jehu"

2 Kings 10:8

de los hijos del rey
"de los descendientes de Acab" (UDB)

Jehu salió y se paró
"Jehú fue a la puerta de la ciudad y se paró frente a la gente"

Eres inocente
Se puede decir claramente de qué eran inocentes. Los posibles significados son 1) ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Eres inocente de lo que le sucedió a Joram" o 2) esto significa que no son responsables de la muerte de la familia de Joram. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Eres inocente de lo que le sucedió a Joram y su familia" o "Eres inocente de este asunto" "

Ver
Jehú usa esta palabra aquí para llamar la atención de la gente sobre lo que dice a continuación. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Escucha" u "Escucha mis palabras"

¿Pero quién mató a todos estos?
Jehú usa una pregunta retórica para hacer que la gente piense profundamente sobre la situación. Esto se puede escribir como una declaración. Los posibles significados son 1) ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "pero los hombres de Samaria son responsables de matar a los 70 descendientes de Acab" o 2) ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "pero fue la voluntad de EL SEÑOR que estos hombres murieran"

2 Kings 10:10

sin duda darse cuenta
"entender" o "tener en cuenta el hecho de que"

ninguna parte de la palabra de EL SEÑOR ... caerá al suelo Esto habla de todo lo que Yahweh ha dicho que sucederá como si fuera algo que no murió y cayó al suelo. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Ninguna parte de la palabra de EL SEÑOR ... fallará" o "cada parte de la palabra de EL SEÑOR ... sucederá"

EL SEÑOR ha hecho
Esto habla de EL SEÑOR causando la muerte de los descendientes de Acab como si él los hubiera matado él mismo. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "EL SEÑOR ha causado que suceda"

Entonces Jehú mató a todos ... y a sus sacerdotes.
Jehu no mató a todas estas personas personalmente, sino que ordenó que las mataran. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Entonces Jehú ordenó que todos ... fueran asesinados" o "Entonces Jehú ordenó que todos ... murieran"

todos los que quedaron
"todos los que estaban vivos" o "todos los que quedaron"

hasta que ninguno de ellos permaneció
Esto significa que todos habían sido asesinados. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "hasta que todos hayan sido asesinados" o "hasta que todos hayan muerto"

Chapter 11

1 Ahora, cuando Atalía la madre de Ocozías, vio que su hijo estaba muerto, ella se levantó y mató a los hijos de la familia real. 2 Pero Josaba, una hija del rey Joram y hermana de Ocozías, tomó a Joás, hijo de Ocozías y lo escodió lejos de entre los hijos que fueron asesinados, junto con su criada; ella los puso adentro de una habitación. Ellos lo escondieron de Atalía, para que no fuera asesinado. 3 Y Joás estaba con Josaba, escondido en la casa del SEÑOR, por seis años, mientras Atalía reinaba sobre la tierra. 4 En el séptimo año, Joiada envió mensajes y trajo comandantes de cientos de cariteos y de la guardia, y los trajo a sí mismo, adentro del templo del SEÑOR. Él hizo un pacto con ellos, y les hizo jurar un juramento en la casa del SEÑOR. Y luego él les mostró al hijo del rey. 5 Él les ordenó diciendo: "Ésto es lo que deben hacer. Un tercio de ustedes que vengan en el sábado, van a mantener vigilancia en la casa del rey, 6 y un tercio de ustedes estarán en la puerta sur, y un tercio en la puerta detrás de la casa de la guardia." 7 Y los otros dos grupos, aquellos que no estarán sirviendo en el sábado, deben mantener vigilancia sobre la casa de Dios junto al rey. 8 Ustedes deben rodear al rey, cada hombre con sus armas en las manos. Cualquiera que entre dentro de sus rangos, que sea asesinado. Ustedes deben quedarse con el rey, cuando él salga y cuando él entre. 9 Así que los comandantes de los cientos obedecieron todo lo que el sacerdote Joiada ordenó. Cada uno tomó a sus hombres, aquellos que iban a servir en el sábado, y aquellos que iban a dejar de servir en el sábado; y ellos vinieron a Joiada, el sacerdote. 10 Luego Joiada, el sacerdote, le dio a los comandantes de los cientos las lanzas y escudos que habían sido del rey David, las cuales estaban en la casa del SEÑOR. 11 Así que los de la guardia estuvieron de pie, cada hombre con sus armas en sus manos, desde el lado derecho del templo, hasta el lado izquierdo del templo, rodeando al rey. 12 Luego Joiada trajo al hijo del rey, Joás, puso la corona sobre él, y le dio los decretos del pacto. Luego lo hicieron rey, y lo ungieron. Ellos aplaudieron sus manos y dijeron: "¡Larga vida al rey!" 13 Cuando Atalía escuchó el ruido de los guardias y del pueblo, ella vino a la gente en la casa del SEÑOR. 14 Ella miró, y contempló, el rey se paraba al lado del pilar, como era la costumbre, y los capitanes y los trompetistas estaban al lado del rey. Toda la gente de la tierra estaba regocijándose y sonando trompetas. Luego Atalía se rasgó la ropa y gritó: "¡Traición, traición!" 15 Luego, Joiada, el sacerdote, ordenó a los comandantes de los cientos, que estaban sobre el ejército; él les dijo a ellos: "Sáquenla entre las dos filas de los guardas. Todo el que la siga, mátenlo a espada." Pues el sacerdote había dicho: "No dejen que sea asesinada en la casa del SEÑOR." 16 Así que, hicieron camino para ella, y ella fue por el camino de la puerta del caballo, a la casa del rey, y allí la mataron. 17 Luego, Joiada hizo un pacto entre El SEÑOR y el rey y el pueblo, que ellos serían el pueblo del SEÑOR, y así también entre el rey y el pueblo. 18 Así que, todo el pueblo de la tierra fue a la casa de Baal y la derribaron. Ellos aplastaron los altares de Baal y sus figuras de ídolos, y ellos mataron a Matán, el sacerdote de Baal, frente de esos altares. Luego el sacerdote nombró guardias sobre el templo del SEÑOR. 19 Joiada tomó a los comandantes de los cientos, los cariteos, la guardia y toda la gente de la tierra. Ellos bajaron al rey de la casa del SEÑOR y entraron por la puerta de los guardias a la casa del rey. Así que Joás se sentó en el trono de los reyes. 20 Así que toda la gente de la tierra se regocijó, y la ciudad estaba callada. En cuanto a Atalía, ellos la mataron con la espada en el palacio del rey. 21 Joás tenía siete años cuando comenzó a reinar.

Chapter 12

1 En el séptimo año de Jehú, el reinado de Joás comenzó; él reinó por cuarenta años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Sibia, de Beerseba. 2 Joás hizo lo que estaba bien ante los ojos del SEÑOR todo el tiempo, porque Joiada el sacerdote lo instruyó a él. 3 Pero los lugares altos no fueron quitados. El pueblo seguía haciendo sacrificios y quemaban incienzo en los lugares altos. 4 Joás le dijo a los sacerdotes:" Todo el dinero que se trae como ofrenda sagrada a la casa de El SEÑOR, el dinero por el que cada persona es juzgado, así sea el dinero recolecatado de los censos, o el dinero recibido de votos personales y todo el dinero dado para el templo por gente motivada por El SEÑOR en sus corazones para dar-- 5 los sacerdotes deben recibir el dinero de los tesoreros y reparar cualquier daño encontrado en el templo." 6 Pero para el año veintitrés del rey Joás, los sacerdotes no habían reparado nada en el templo. 7 Luego el rey Joás llamó a Joiada el sacerdote y a los otros sacerdotes; él les dijo a ellos: "¿Por qué no han reparado nada en el templo? Ahora, no tomen más dinero de los contribuyentes, sino tomen lo que ya ha sido recolectado para las reparaciones del templo y dénlo a los hombres que pueden hacer las reparaciones." 8 Así que los sacerdotes consintieron en no tomar más dinero de la gente y en no reparar el templo por sí mismos. 9 En cambio, Joiada el sacerdote tomó un cofre, y le hizo un agujero en la tapa, y lo colocó junto al altar al lado derecho, así como uno viene a la casa del SEÑOR. Los sacerdotes que estaban guardando la entrada del templo ponían ahí todo el dinero que se traía a la casa del SEÑOR. 10 Cuando ellos veían que había mucho dinero en el cofre, el escriba del rey y el sumo sacerdote venían y ponían el dinero en bolsas y lo contaban, el dinero encontrado en el templo del SEÑOR. 11 Ellos dieron el dinero que fue pesado a los manos de los hombres que cuidarían del templo del SEÑOR. Ellos le pagaron a los carpinteros y a los constructores quienes trabajarían en el templo del SEÑOR, 12 y a los albañiles y a los cortadores de piedras, para que comprarán madera y piedra de corte para reparar el templo del SEÑOR, y todo lo que necesitaran pagar para repararlo. 13 Pero el dinero que fue traído a la casa del SEÑOR no pagaría para hacer ninguna taza de plata, cortadores de lámparas, cuencas, trompetas, o algunos muebles de oro o plata. 14 Ellos dieron este dinero a esos que hicieron las reparaciones de la casa del SEÑOR. 15 Además, ellos no requirieron el dinero pagado para las reparaciones para ser contabilizado por los hombres quienes lo recibieron y lo pagaron a los trabajadores, porque esos hombres eran honestos. 16 Pero el dinero de las ofrendas de las culpas y las ofrendas por los pecados no eran traídas al templo del SEÑOR, porque pertenecía a los sacerdotes. 17 Entonces Hazael rey de Aram atacó y peleó contra Gat, y la tomó. Hazael entonces se volvió para atacar Jerusalén. 18 Joás rey de Judá tomó todas las cosas que Josafat y Joram y Ocozías sus padres, reyes de Judá habían separado, y que él había dejado aparte, y todo el oro que fue encontrado en el cuarto de depósito de las casas del SEÑOR y del rey, él las envió a Hazael rey de Aram. Entonces Hazael se fue de Jerusalén. 19 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Joás, todo lo que hizo, ¿No estan escritas en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 20 Sus siervos se levantaron y conspiraron juntos; ellos mataron a Joás en Beth Millo, en el camino que descendía a Sila. 21 Josacar hijo de Simeat, y Jozabad hijo de Somer, sus siervos, le atacaron a él y él murió. Ellos enterraron a Joás con sus ancestros en la ciudad de David, y Amasías su hijo, se hizo rey en su lugar.

Chapter 13

1 En el año veintitrés de Joás hijo de Ocozías rey de Judá, Joacaz hijo de Jehú comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en Samaria; él reinó diecisiete años. 2 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR y siguió los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, quien hizo que Israel pecará; y Joacaz no se apartó de ellos. 3 El enojo del SEÑOR ardía contra Israel, y él los entregó continuamente en mano de Hazael rey de Aram y en mano de Ben Hadad hijo de Hazael. 4 Así Joacaz le imploró al SEÑOR, y el SEÑOR lo escuchó porque veía la opresión de Israel, como el rey de Aram los oprimia. 5 Así que el SEÑOR le dio a Israel un salvador, y ellos escaparon de la mano de los arameos, y el pueblo de Israel comenzó a vivir en sus casas como ellos lo hacían antes. 6 Sin embargo, ellos no se apartaron de los pecados de la casa de Jeroboam, quien hizo que Israel pecara, y ellos continuaron en ellos; y el poste de asera permaneció en Samaria. 7 Los arameos dejaron a Joacaz con sólo cincuenta hombres de a caballo, diez carros, y diez mil hombres de a pie, pues el rey de Aram los había destruidos y los hizo como paja en tiempo de trilla. 8 Para todos los demás asuntos conforme a Joacaz, y todo lo que él hizo y su poder, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 9 Así Joacaz durmió con sus antepasados, y ellos lo enterraron en Samaria. Joás su hijo se hizo rey en su lugar. 10 En el año treinta y siete de Joás rey de Judá, el reino de Joás, hijo de Joacaz, comenzó a gobernar sobre Israel en Samaria; él reinó dieciséis años. 11 Él hizo lo que era malo en la vista del SEÑOR. El no dejó atrás ninguno de los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, por lo cual él hizo a Israel pecar, pero él caminó en ellos. 12 los demás asuntos concernientes a Joacaz, y todo lo que él hizo, y su poder por el cual él peleó en contra de Amasías rey de Judá, "'¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel?" 13 Joacaz durmió con sus antepasados, y Jeroboam se sentó sobre su trono. Joás fue enterrado en Samaria con los reyes de Israel. 14 Ahora Eliseo se enfermó con una enfermedad por la cual él moriría después, asi que Joás el rey de Israel descendió a él y lloró sobre él. Él le dijo: "Padre mío, Padre mío, los carros de Israel y sus hombres de a caballos te están llevando!'' 15 Eliseo le dijo: ''Toma un arco y algunas flechas," así que Joás tomó un arco y algunas flechas. 16 Eliseo le dijo al rey de Israel: "Pon tu mano en el arco," así que el pusó su mano en el. Entonces Eliseo posó sus manos sobre las manos del rey. 17 Eliseo dijo: "Abre la ventana hacia el este," así que él las abrió. Entonces Eliseo dijo: "¡Dispara!" y el disparó. Eliseo dijo: ''Esta es la flecha de la victoria del SEÑOR, la flecha de la victoria sobre Aram, porque tu atacarás a los arameos en Afec hasta que los hayas consumidos." 18 Luego Eliseo dijo: "Toma las flechas," así que Joás las tomó. Él dijo al rey de Israel: "Golpea el suelo con ellas," y él golpeo el suelo tres veces, luego paró. 19 Pero el hombre de Dios se molestó con él y dijo;" Tu debiste golpear el suelo cinco o seis veces. Entonces herirías a Aram hasta que los aniquilaras, pero ahora lo derrotaras Aram solo tres veces." 20 Entonces Eliseo murió, y ellos lo enterraron. Los grupos de moabitas invadían la tierra al comienzo del año. 21 Mientras ellos estaban enterrando a un cierto hombre, ellos vieron un grupo de moabitas, así que ellos tiraron el cuerpo a la tumba de Eliseo. Tan pronto el hombre tocó los huesos de Eliseo, el revivió y se paró sobre sus propios pies. 22 Hazael rey de Aram oprimió a Israel todo los días de Joacaz. 23 Pero el SEÑOR tuvo gracia con Israel, y tenía compasión sobre ellos y se preocupó por ellos, por causa de su pacto con Abraham, Isaac y Jacob. Por esto el SEÑOR no los destruyó, y no los echó de Su presencia. 24 Hazael rey de Aram murió, y Ben Adad su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 25 Joás, hijo de Joacaz, tomó de vuelta de Ben Adad, hijo de Hazael, las cuidades que fueron tomadas de Joacaz su padre en la guerra. Joacaz lo atacó tres veces, y él recuperó esas ciudades de Israel.

2 Kings 13:1

En el año veintitrés de Joás, hijo de Ocozías, rey de Judá.
tercer año de Joás, hijo de Ocozías, rey de Judá - "Después de que Joás había gobernado a Judá durante casi 23 años"

reinar sobre Israel en Samaria
"gobierno sobre el reino de Israel ubicado en Samaria"

reinó diecisiete años
"Joacaz fue rey durante 17 años"

Hizo lo malo ante los ojos de EL SEÑOR
Aquí "a la vista de" se refiere a la opinión de EL SEÑOR. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Hizo lo que era malo según EL SEÑOR"

siguió los pecados de Jeroboam
"cometió los mismos pecados que Jeroboam"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Joacaz no se apartó de ellos
Aquí se habla de detener su pecado como si se hubiera alejado de ellos. Esto también se puede afirmar en forma positiva. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Joacaz no dejó de cometer los pecados de Jeroboam" o "Joacaz continuó cometiendo los mismos pecados que Jeroboam"

2 Kings 13:3

La ira de EL SEÑOR ardió contra Israel
Se dice que EL SEÑOR se enoja con Israel como si su ira fuera un fuego que ardía. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Entonces EL SEÑOR se enojó mucho con Israel" los entregó continuamente en manos de Hazael, rey de Aram, y en manos de Ben Hadad, hijo de Hazael.

Aquí "ellos" se refiere a Israel y "mano" se refiere al poder de controlarlos. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "permitió a Hazael, el rey de Aram, y a Ben Hadad, su hijo, derrotar repetidamente a los israelitas en la batalla"

imploró a EL SEÑOR
"rezó a EL SEÑOR"

vio la opresión de Israel, cómo el rey de Aram los estaba oprimiendo Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y se repiten para enfatizar. El sustantivo abstracto "opresión" significa lo mismo que "el rey de Aram los estaba oprimiendo". ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "vio cuán severamente el rey de Aram estaba oprimiendo a Israel"

un rescatador
"alguien para rescatarlos"

escaparon de la mano de los arameos
Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder de controlarlos. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "les permitió liberarse del poder de Aram"

2 Kings 13:6

no se apartaron de los pecados de la casa de Jeroboam Para dejar de pecar se habla de que se apartaron de los pecados. Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Israel no dejó de cometer los mismos pecados que Jeroboam había cometido" o "Israel continuó cometiendo los mismos pecados que Jeroboam había cometido"

Casa de Joroboam
¨la familia de Joroboam¨

los había destruido
"había derrotado al ejército de Joacaz¨

los hizo como la paja en la hora de la trilla
El ejército arameo había derrotado tan severamente al ejército de Israel que lo que quedaba era tan inútil que se compara con la paja de trigo que los trabajadores caminan en el momento de la cosecha. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "los había aplastado cuando los trabajadores aplastan la paja debajo de sus pies en el momento de la cosecha"

Chapter 14

1 En el segundo año de Joás, hijo de Joacaz rey de Israel, Amasías hijo de Joás, rey de Judá, comenzó a reinar. 2 Él era de venticinco años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó ventinueve años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Joadán, de Jerusalén. Él hizo lo que estaba correcto en los ojos del SEÑOR, aunque no como David su padre. 3 Él hizo todo lo que Joás, su padre, había hecho. 4 Pero los aposentos altos no habían sido quitados. El pueblo todavía sacrificaba y quemaba incienso en los aposentos altos. 5 Sucedió que tan pronto su gobierno estaba bien establecido, él mató a los sirvientes que habían asesinado a su padre, el rey. 6 Pero no puso a los hijos de los asesinos a muerte; en cambio, él actuó de acuerdo a lo que estaba escrito en la Ley, en El Libro de Moisés, como el SEÑOR había ordenado, diciendo: "Los padres no pueden ser puestos a muerte por sus hijos, tampoco los hijos pueden ser puestos a muerte por sus padres. En cambio, cada persona tiene que ser puesta a muerte por su propio pecado." 7 Él mató a diez mil soldados de Edom en el valle de Sal; él también tomó Sela en guerra y la llamó Joctel, que es como se llama hasta este día. 8 Luego, Amasías envió mensajeros a Joás hijo de Joacaz hijo de Jehú rey de Israel, diciendo: "Ven, encontrémonos cara a cara en batalla." 9 Pero Joás, el rey de Israel, envió mensajeros de regreso a Amasías, rey de Judá, diciendo: "Un cardo que estaba en Líbano envió un mensaje a un cedro en Líbano, diciendo: 'Dale tu hija a mi hijo por esposa,' pero una bestia salvaje en Líbano caminó y aplastó al cardo. 10 Tú ciertamente has atacado Edom, y tu corazón te ha levantado. Toma orgullo en tu victoria, pero permanece en casa, pues ¿por qué deberías causarte problemas a tí mismo y caer, tanto tú y Judá contigo?" 11 Pero Amasías no escuchó. Así que Joás, rey de Israel, atacó; él y Amasías, rey de Judá, se encontraron cara a cara en Bet Semes, la cual pertenece a Judá. 12 Judá fue derrotada por Israel, y cada hombre huyó a casa. 13 Joás, rey de Israel, capturó a Amasías, rey de Judá hijo de Joás hijo de Ocozías, en Bet Semes. Él llegó a Jerusalén y derrumbó el muro de Jerusalén desde la Puerta de Efraín hasta la Puerta de la Esquina, cuatrocientos codos en distancia. 14 Él agarró todo el oro y plata, todos los objetos que fueron encontrados en la casa del SEÑOR, y las cosas de valor en el palacio del rey, con rehenes también, y regresó a Samaria. 15 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Joás, todo lo que él hizo, su poder y cómo él peleó con Amasías, rey de Judá, ¿no están escritos ellos en el libro de los eventos de reyes de Israel? 16 Luego Joás durmió con sus ancestros y fue enterrado en Samaria con los reyes de Israel, y Jeroboam, su hijo, se volvió rey en su lugar. 17 Amasías, hijo de Joás, rey de Judá, vivió quince años después de la muerte de Joás, hijo de Joacaz, rey de Israel. 18 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Amasías, ¿no están ellos escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 19 Ellos hicieron una conspiración en contra de Amasías en Jerusalén, y el huyó a Laquis. Él huyó a Laquis, pero ellos enviaron hombres detrás de él a Laquis y lo mataron allí. 20 Ellos lo trajeron de regreso en caballos y él fue enterrado con sus ancestros en la ciudad de David. 21 Todo el pueblo de Judá tomó a Azarías, quien tenía diéciseis años de edad, y lo hicieron rey en lugar de su padre Amasías. 22 Fue Azarías quien reconstruyó Elat y lo restauró a Judá, después que el rey Amasías durmió con sus ancestros. 23 En el año quince de Amasías hijo de Joás, rey de Judá, Jeroboam, hijo de Joás, rey de Israel, comenzó a reinar en Samaria; él reinó cuarenta y un años. 24 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR. Él no se separó de ninguno de los pecados de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, quien hizo pecar a Israel. 25 Él restauró la frontera de Israel desde Lebo Hamat hasta el Mar de Arabá, siguiendo los mandamientos de la palabra del SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, los cuales Él había hablado a través de su siervo Jonás, hijo de Amitai, el profeta, quien era de Gat Hefer. 26 Porque el SEÑOR vio el sufrimiento de Israel, que era muy amargo para todos, tanto esclavo como libre, y que no había un salvador para Israel. 27 Así que, el SEÑOR dijo que Él no borraría el nombre de Israel debajo del cielo; en su lugar, Él los salvó por la mano de Jeroboam, hijo de Joás. 28 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Jeroboam, todo lo que él hizo, su poder, cómo él condujo la guerra y recuperó Damasco y Hamat, las cuales pertenecían a Judá, para Israel, ¿no están ellos escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 29 Jeroboam durmió con sus ancestros, con los reyes de Israel, y Zacarías, su hijo, se volvió rey en su lugar.

Chapter 15

1 En el año veintisiete de Jeroboam rey de Israel, comenzó el reinado de Azarías hijo de Amasías, rey de Judá. 2 Azarías era de dieciseis años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar. Él reinó por cincuenta y dos años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Jecolía, de Jerusalén. 3 Él hizo lo correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR, siguiendo el ejemplo de su padre y haciendo como Amasías había hecho. 4 Sin embargo, los lugares altos no fueron quitados. Las personas aún sacrificaban y quemaban incienso en los lugares altos. 5 El SEÑOR afligió al rey, de modo que él fue un leproso hasta el día de su muerte y vivió en una casa aparte. Jotam, el hijo del rey, estaba sobre el palacio y gobernó el pueblo de la tierra. 6 ¿En cuanto a los otros asuntos acerca de Azarías, todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 7 Así que, Azarías durmió con sus padres; ellos lo enterraron con sus ancestros en la ciudad de David. Jotam, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 8 En el año treinta y ocho de Azarías rey de Judá, Zacarías hijo de Jeroboam reinó sobre Israel en Samaria por seis meses. 9 Él hizo lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR, como sus padres habían hecho. Él no se apartó de los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, quien había hecho pecar a Israel. 10 Salum hijo de Jabes conspiró en contra de Zacarías, lo atacó frente al pueblo y lo mató. Luego él se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 11 En cuanto a los otros asuntos sobre Zacarías, están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel. 12 Esta era la palabra del SEÑOR que Él habló a Jehú diciendo: "Tus descendientes se sentarán en el trono de Israel hasta la cuarta generación." Y así sucedió. 13 Salum hijo de Jabes comenzó a reinar en el año treinta y nueve de Azarías rey de Judá y él reinó sólo un mes en Samaria. 14 Manahem hijo de Gadi subió de Tirsa a Samaria. Ahí él atacó a Salum hijo de Jabes en Samaria. Él lo mató y se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 15 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Salum y la conspiración que él formó, están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel. 16 Luego Manahem atacó a Tifsa y todos los que estaban ahí, y las fronteras alrededor de Tirsa porque ellos no abrieron la ciudad para él. Así que él la atacó y desgarró todas las mujeres embarazadas en esa aldea. 17 En el año treinta y nueve del año de Azarías rey de Judá comenzó el reinado de Manahem hijo de Gadi sobre Israel; él reinó diez años en Samaria. 18 Él hizo lo malo en la vista del SEÑOR. Por toda su vida, él no se apartó de los pecados de Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, quien había hizo que Israel pecara. 19 Luego Pul, rey de Asiria vino en contra de la tierra, y Manahem dio a Pul mil talentos de plata, para que el apoyo de Pul estuviera con él para fortalecer el reino de Israel en su mano. 20 Manahem obtuvo este dinero de Israel exigiendo que cada uno de los hombres adinerados, pagara cincuenta siclos de plata a él para darlo al rey de Asiria. Así que el rey de Asiria se dio vuelta y no permaneció ahí en la tierra. 21 En cuanto a los otros asuntos sobre Manahem, y todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel? 22 Así que Manahem durmió con sus ancestros y Pekaía su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 23 En el año cincuenta de Azarías rey de Judá, Pekaía hijo de Manahem comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en Samaria; él reinó dos años. 24 Él hizo lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. Él no abandonó los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, por medio de los cuales él hizo que Israel pecara. 25 Pekaía tenía un oficial llamado Peka, hijo de Remalías, quien conspiró en contra él. Junto con 50 hombres galaaditas y con Argog y Arie, Peka hirió a Pekaía, en Samaria en la ciudadela del palacio del rey. Peka mató a Pekaía y se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 26 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Pekaía, todo lo que él hizo, están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel. 27 En el año cincuenta y dos de Azarías rey de Judá, Peka hijo de Remalías comenzó a reinar sobre Israel en Samaria; él reinó veinte años. 28 Él hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. Él no se apartó de los pecados de Jeroboam hijo de Nabat, quien había hecho pecar a Israel. 29 En los días de Peka rey de Israel, Tiglat Pileser rey de Asiria vino y tomó a Ijón, Abel Bet Maaca, Janoa, Cedes, Hazor, Galaad, Galilea y toda la tierra de Neftalí. Él se llevó el pueblo a Asiria. 30 Así que Oseas hijo de Ela formó una conspiración en contra de Peka hijo de Remalías. Él lo atacó y lo mató. Luego él se convirtió en rey en su lugar, en el año veinte de Jotam hijo de Uzías. 31 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Peka, todo lo que él hizo, están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Israel. 32 En el segundo año de Peka hijo de Remalías, rey de Israel, comenzó el reinado de Jotam hijo de Azarías, rey de judá. 33 Él era de veinticinco años de edad cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó dieciseis años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Jerusa; Ella era la hija de Sadoc. 34 Jotam hizo lo que era correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR. Él siguió el ejemplo de todo lo que su padre Azarías había hecho. 35 Sin embargo, los lugares altos no fueron quitados. El pueblo aún sacrificaba y quemaba incienso en los lugares altos. Jotam construyó la puerta superior de la casa del SEÑOR. 36 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Jotam y todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 37 En esos días el SEÑOR comenzó a enviar en contra de Judá a Rezin rey de Aram y Peka hijo de Remalías. 38 Jotam

Chapter 16

1 En el año diecisiete de Peka, hijo de Remalías, Acaz, hijo de Jotam, rey de Judá, comenzó a reinar. 2 Acaz tenía veinte años cuando él comenzó a reinar, y reinó por diéciseis años en Jerusalén. Él no hizo lo que era correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR su Dios, como David su ancestro había hecho. 3 En cambio, él caminó en el camino de los reyes de Israel; de hecho, él puso a su hijo en el fuego como una ofrenda quemada, siguiendo las detestables prácticas de las naciones, las cuales el SEÑOR había sacado de delante del pueblo de Israel. 4 Él ofreció sacrificios y quemó incienso en los lugares altos, en las cimas, y bajo cada árbol verde. 5 Luego, Rezín, rey de Aram, y Peka, hijo de Remalías, rey de Israel, subieron a Jerusalén a atacar. Ellos sitiaron a Acaz, pero ellos no pudieron conquistarlo. 6 En ese tiempo, Rezín, rey de Aram, recuperó Elat para Aram y sacó a los hombres de Judá fuera de Elat. Entonces los arameos vinieron a Elat, en donde ellos han vivido hasta este día. 7 Así que, Acaz envió mensajeros a Tiglat Pileser, rey de Asiria, diciendo: "Yo soy tu siervo y tu hijo. Sube, y sálvame de la mano del rey de Aram y de la mano del rey de Israel, quienes me han atacado." 8 Entonces, Acaz tomó la plata y el oro que fue encontrado en la casa del SEÑOR y entre los tesoros del palacio del rey y los envió como regalo al rey de Asiria. 9 Luego, el rey de Asiria lo escuchó a él, y el rey de Asiria subió de Damasco, lo conquistó y llevó a su pueblo como prisioneros a Kir. Él también mató a Rezín, el rey de Aram. 10 El rey Acaz fue a Damasco a conocer a Tiglat Pileser, rey de Asiria. En Damasco, él vio un altar. Él le envió a Urías, el sacerdote, un modelo del altar y su réplica, y el diseño de lo que los trabajadores necesitaban. 11 Así que, Urías, el sacerdote, construyó un altar que fuese tal como los planos que el rey Acaz había enviado desde Damasco. Él lo terminó antes de que el rey Acaz regresara de Damasco. 12 Cuando el rey llegó desde Damasco, él vio el altar; el rey se acercó al altar e hizo ofrendas sobre él. 13 Él hizo su ofrenda quemada y su ofrenda de grano, derramó su ofrenda de bebida, y roció la sangre de su ofrenda de paz en el altar. 14 El altar de bronce, que estaba delante del SEÑOR, él lo trajo desde el frente del templo, de entre medio del altar y el templo del SEÑOR y lo puso al lado norte de su altar. 15 Luego, el rey Acaz ordenó a Urías el sacerdote diciendo: "En el gran altar quema la ofrenda de la mañana y la ofrenda de grano de la tarde, y la ofrenda del rey y su grano, con la ofrenda de toda la gente de la tierra, y su ofrenda de grano y su ofrenda de bebida. Rocíen sobre el la sangre de la ofrenda, y toda la sangre del sacrificio. Pero el altar de bronce será para que yo pida la ayuda de Dios." 16 Urías, el sacerdote, hizo justo lo que el rey Acaz ordenó. 17 Entonces el rey Acaz removió los paneles y los tazones de los carros portátiles; él también bajó el mar de los bueyes de bronce que estaban debajo de él y lo pusó en un pavimento de piedra. 18 Él removió el camino cubierto para el sábado que ellos habían construido en el templo, junto con la entrada del rey afuera del templo del SEÑOR, por causa del rey de Asiria. 19 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionados a Acaz y lo que él hizo, ¿no están ellos escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 20 Acaz durmió con sus ancestros y fue enterrado con sus ancestros en la ciudad de David. Ezequías, su hijo, se volvió rey en su lugar.

Información general
Esto es lo que hizo el rey Acaz después de regresar de Damasco y visitar el nuevo altar que había ordenado construir.

Hizo su holocausto
"El rey Acaz hizo su holocausto"

en el altar
Esto se refiere al altar que el rey Acaz le dijo a Urías que construyera.

El altar de bronce que estaba antes de EL SEÑOR
Este era el altar que el pueblo de Israel había hecho hace mucho tiempo de acuerdo con las instrucciones de Dios.

El altar de bronce que estaba antes de EL SEÑOR
La frase "antes de EL SEÑOR" es una metonimia que se refiere al lugar donde EL SEÑOR había mostrado su gloria en el pasado. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "El altar de bronce que estaba frente al templo" desde el frente del templo ... entre su altar y el templo de EL SEÑOR Ambas frases dicen dónde estaba el altar de bronce. Se refieren al mismo lugar.

2 Kings 16:15

el gran altar
Esto se refiere al nuevo altar que Acaz le dijo a Urías que construyera.

el holocausto del rey y su ofrenda de grano Cuando Acaz dijo "el rey" y "el suyo", se refería a sí mismo. El rey trató sus ofrendas como especiales. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "mi holocausto y mi ofrenda de grano" o "el holocausto y ofrenda de grano real"

Chapter 17

1 En el duodécimo año del Acaz, rey de Judá, el reinado de Oseas, hijo de Ela, comenzó. Él gobernó en Samaria, sobre Israel por nueve años. 2 Él hizo lo que era malo a los ojos del SEÑOR, aunque no como los reyes de Israel que estuvieron antes que él. 3 Salmanasar, rey de Asiria lo atacó, y Oseas se hizo su siervo y le trajo tributo. 4 Luego, el rey de Asiria se dio cuenta que Oseas había estado conspirando en contra de él, pues, Oseas había enviado mensajeros a So, rey de Egipto; también, él no pagó tributo al rey de Asiria, como había hecho año tras año. Así que, el rey de Asiria lo encerró y lo ató en la prisión. 5 Luego, el rey de Asiria atacó a través de toda la tierra, y atacó Samaria y la sitió por tres años. 6 En el noveno año del rey Oseas, el rey de Asiria tomó Samaria y llevó Israel a Asiria. El los puso en Halah, en el río Habor de Gozán, y en las ciudades de los medos. 7 Esta cautividad ocurrió porque el pueblo de Israel había pecado en contra del SEÑOR su Dios, quien los había subido de la tierra de Egipto, desde debajo de la mano de Faraón, rey de Egipto. El pueblo había estado adorando a otros dioses 8 y caminando en las prácticas de las naciones que el SEÑOR había sacadode delante del pueblo de Israel, y en las prácticas que los reyes de Israel habían hecho. 9 El pueblo de Israel hizo, secretamente-- en contra del SEÑOR su Dios- cosas que no eran correctas. Ellos construyeron para ellos lugares altos en todas sus ciudades, desde la torre de vigilanca hasta el fuerte. 10 Ellos también establecieron pilares de roca y postes de Asera en cada colina alta y debajo de cada árbol verde. 11 Allí ellos quemaban incienso en todos los lugares altos, como las naciones habían hecho, aquellos a quienes El SEÑOR había llevado de delante de ellos. Los israelitas realizaron cosas malas para provocar el enojo del SEÑOR; 12 ellos adoraron ídolos, de los cuales el SEÑOR les había dicho: "No harán tal cosa." 13 El SEÑOR le había testificado a Israel y Judá por cada profeta y cada vidente, diciendo: "Vuélvanse de sus malos caminos y guarden mis mandamientos y mis estatutos y sean cuidadosos en guardar toda la ley que ordené a sus padres, y que Yo les envié a ustedes por medio de mis siervos los profetas." 14 Pero ellos no escucharon; en cambio fueron muy tercos, como sus padres, quienes no confiaron en el SEÑOR su Dios. 15 Ellos rechazaron sus estatutos y el pacto que él había hecho con sus ancestros, y los decretos del pacto que Él les había dado. Ellos siguieron prácticas inútiles y ellos mismos se volvieron inútiles. Ellos siguieron las naciones paganas que estaban a su alrededor, aquellos que el SEÑOR les había ordenado que no imitaran. 16 Ellos ignoraron todos los mandamientos del SEÑOR su Dios. Ellos hicieron figuras de metal fundido de dos terneros para adorar. Ellos hicieron un poste de Asera, y ellos adoraron todas las estrellas de los cielos y a Baal. 17 Ellos pusieron a sus hijos e hijas en el fuego, usaron adivinación y encantamientos, se vendieron a sí mismos para hacer lo que era malo en la vista del SEÑOR, y Lo provocaron a enojo. 18 Por lo tanto, Dios estaba muy enojado con Israel y los removió de Su vista. Nadie quedaba, sólo la tribu de Judá. 19 Incluso Judá no guardó los mandamientos del SEÑOR su Dios, sino que siguieron las mismas prácticas paganas que Israel estaba siguiendo. 20 Así que el SEÑOR desechó a todos los descendientes de Israel; Él los afligió y los dio a la mano de aquellos quienes tomaron sus posesiones como botín, hasta que los había echado fuera de Su vista. 21 El desgarró a Israel de la línea real de David, e hicieron a Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat, rey. Jeroboam llevó a Israel lejos de seguir al SEÑOR y los hizo cometer gran pecado. 22 El pueblo de Israel siguió todos los pecados de Jeroboam y ellos no se apartaron de ellos, 23 así que el SEÑOR removió a Israel de Su vista, como Él había dicho a través de todos sus siervos, los profetas, que Él haría. Así que Israel fue llevado fuera de su propia tierra, a Asiria, y es así hasta el día de hoy. 24 El rey de Asiria trajo gente desde Babilonia y desde Cuta, y desde Ava, y desde Hamat y desde Sefarvaim, y los colocó en las ciudades de Samaria, en lugar del pueblo de Israel. Ellos se adueñaron de Samaria y vivieron en sus ciudades. 25 Ocurrió que al inicio de su resdencia allí, que ellos no honraron al SEÑOR. Así que el SEÑOR envió leones entre ellos, los cuales mataron a algunos de ellos. 26 Así que, ellos hablaron al rey de Asiria, diciendo: "Las naciones que has llevado afuera y colocado en las ciudades de Samaria no saben las prácticas requeridas por el dios de la tierra. Así que, él ha enviado leones entre ellos y verás, los leones están matando gente allí porque ellos no saben las prácticas requeridas por el dios de la tierra." 27 Luego, el rey de Asiria ordenó, diciendo: "Toma a uno de los sacerdote allí, a quien hayas traído de allí, y déjalo ir y vivir allí, y déjalo enseñar allí las prácticas requeridas por el dios de la tierra." 28 Así que uno de los sacerdotes, a quien ellos habían llevado desde Samaria, vino y vivió en Betel; él les enseñó como debían honrar al SEÑOR. 29 Cada grupo étnico hizo dioses por su cuenta, y los pusieron en los lugares altos que los samaritanos habían hecho-- cada grupo étnico en las ciudades donde ellos vivían. 30 El pueblo de Babilonia hizo a Sucot Benot; la gente de Cuta hizo a Nergal; la gente de Hamat hizo a Asima; 31 los aveos hicieron a Nibhaz y a Tartac. Los sefarditas quemaron a sus hijos en el fuego para Adramelec y Anamelec, los dioses de Sefarvaím. 32 Ellos también honraron al SEÑOR, y escogieron de entre ellos sacerdotes de los lugares altos, quienes sacrificaban por ellos en los templos en los lugares altos. 33 Ellos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

honraban al SEÑOR y también adoraban a sus propios dioses, en las costumbres de las naciones de entre quienes ellos habían sido sacados. 34 Hasta este día de hoy ellos persisten en sus viejas costumbres. Ellos ni honran al SEÑOR, ni siguen los estatutos, decretos, la ley, o los mandamientos que El SEÑOR le dio al pueblo de Jacob-- 35 a quien el llamó Israel-- y con quienes el SEÑOR había hecho un pacto y les ordenó: "No temerán a otros dioses, ni se inclinarán a ellos, ni los adorarán a ellos, ni les sacrificarán a ellos." 36 Pero el SEÑOR, quien los subió de la tierra de Egipto con gran poder y un brazo levantado, es a Él que tiene que honrar; es a Él a quien se postrarán, y es para Él que sacrificarán. 37 Los estatutos y los decretos, la ley y los mandamientos que Él les escribió a ustedes, ustedes los guardarán por siempre. Así que ustedes no pueden temer a otros dioses, 38 y el pacto que he hecho con ustedes, no olvidarán; y tampoco honrarán a otros dioses. 39 Pero, el SEÑOR su Dios a quien ustedes honrarán. Él los rescatará del poder de sus enemigos." 40 Ellos no escucharon, porque ellos continuaron haciendo lo que habían hecho en el pasado. 41 Así que, estas naciones temieron al SEÑOR, y ellos también adoraron figuras talladas, y sus hijos hicieron lo mismo, así como los hijos de sus hijos. Ellos continuaron haciendo lo que sus ancestros hicieron, hasta el día de hoy.

Chapter 18

1 Ahora, en el año tercero de Oseas, hijo de Ela, rey de Israel, Ezequías, hijo de Acaz, comenzó su reino. 2 Él tenía veinticinco años cuando él comenzó a reinar, él reinó veintinueve años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Abi; ella era la hija de Zacarías. 3 Él hizo lo correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR, siguiendo el ejemplo de todo lo que David, su ancestro, había hecho. 4 Él removió los lugares altos, destruyó los pilares de piedra, y cortó los postes de Asera. Él rompió en pedazos la serpiente de bronce que Moisés había hecho, porque en esos días la gente de Israel le estaba quemando incienso; y la llamaban "Nehustán." 5 Ezequías confiaba en el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, de tal manera, que después de él no había nadie como él entre todos los reyes de Judá, ni entre los reyes quienes estaban antes de él. 6 Porque él se aferró al SEÑOR. Él no dejó de seguirle, pero guardó sus mandamientos, los cuales el SEÑOR ordenó a Moisés. 7 Pues el SEÑOR estaba con Ezequías, y a donde quiera que él iba, prosperaba. Él se rebeló contra el rey de Asiria y no le servía. 8 Él atacó a los filisteos hasta Gaza y las fronteras alrededor, desde las torres de los guardias a la ciudad fortificada. 9 En el cuarto año del rey Ezequías, el cual era el séptimo año de Oseas, hijo de Ela, rey de Israel, Salmanasar, rey de Asiria, subió contra Samaria y la sitió. 10 Al final de tres años ellos la tomaron, en el sexto año de Ezequías, el cual era el noveno año de Oseas, rey de Israel; en esta forma Samaria fue capturada. 11 Entonces el rey de Asiria se llevó a Israel para Asiria y los puso en Hala y en el río Habor en Gozán y en las ciudades de los medos. 12 Él hizo esto porque ellos no obedecían la voz del SEÑOR su Dios, pero ellos violaron los términos de Su pacto, y todo lo que Moisés, el siervo del SEÑOR, ordenó. Ellos se negaron a escucharlo o hacerlo. 13 Entonces, en el décimocuarto año del rey Ezequías, Senaquerib, rey de Asiria, atacó todas las ciudades fortificadas de Judá y las capturó. 14 Entonces Ezequías, rey de Judá, le envió palabra al rey de Asiria, quien estaba en Laquis, diciendo: "Yo te he ofendido. Retírate de mí. Lo que sea pongas en mí, yo lo soportaré." El rey de Asiria le requirió a Ezequías, rey de Judá, pagar trescientos talentos de plata y treinta talentos de oro. 15 Entonces Ezequías le dio a él toda la plata que se encontró en la casa del SEÑOR y en la tesorería del palacio del rey. 16 Entonces, Ezequías cortó el oro de las puertas del templo del SEÑOR y de los pilares que él había sobrepuesto; él le dio el oro al rey de Asiria. 17 Pero el rey de Asiria movilizó su gran ejército, enviándole a Tartán y a Rabsaris y al jefe comandante de Laquis al rey Ezequías a Jerusalén. Ellos subieron por los caminos y llegaron afuera de Jerusalén. Ellos se acercaron al conducto del estanque superior, en el camino del campo de los lavadores, y se pararon al lado. 18 Cuando habían llamado al rey Ezequías, Elakim, hijo de Hilcías, quien estaba sobre la casa, y Sebna el escriba, y Joa, hijo de Asaf, el cronista, salieron a recibirlos. 19 Entonces, el jefe comandante les dijo a ellos que le dijeran a Ezequías que el gran rey, el rey de Asiria, dijo: "¿Cuál es la fuente de tu confianza? 20 Tú hablas solo palabras inútiles, diciendo que hay aliados y fuerzas para la guerra. Ahora, ¿en quién confias? ¿Quién te ha dado coraje para rebelarte en contra mía? 21 Mira, tú confías en el bastón de caminar de esta maltratada caña de Egipto, pero si un hombre se recuesta en ella, se le clavará en la mano y la traspasará. Eso es lo que Faraón, rey de Egipto, es para todo aquel que confíe en él. 22 Pero si ustedes me dicen: 'Nosotros estamos confiando en el SEÑOR, nuestro Dios,' ¿no es Él, Aquel cuyos lugares altos y altares Ezequías ha quitado, y le ha dicho a Judá y a Jerusalén: 'ustedes deben adorar ante este altar en Jerusalén'? 23 Ahora entonces, quiero hacerles una buena oferta de parte de mi señor, el rey de Asiria. Yo les daré dos mil caballos, si ustedes son capaces de encontrar jinetes para ellos. 24 ¿Cómo pueden ustedes siquiera resistir un capitán de los menores de los sirvientes de mi amo? ¡Ustedes han puesto su confianza en Egipto para carros y jinetes! 25 ¿He subido yo aquí sin el SEÑOR para pelear en contra de este lugar y destruirlo? El SEÑOR me dijo a mí: 'Ataca este lugar y destrúyelo.'" 26 Entonces, Eliaquim, hijo de Hilcías, y Sebna, y Joá le dijeron al jefe comandante: "Por favor, háblale a tus siervos en el lenguaje arameo, porque nosotros lo entendemos. No hables con nosotros en el lenguaje de Judá en los oidos de la gente quienes están en la muralla." 27 Pero el jefe comandante les dijo a ellos: "¿Me ha enviado mi señor a su señor y a ustedes para hablar estas palabras? ¿No me ha enviado a los hombres que se sientan en la muralla, quienes tendrán que comer su propio excremento y a beberse su propia orina con ustedes?" 28 Entonces, el jefe comandante se paró y gritó en voz alta en el lenguaje de los judíos, diciendo: "Escuchen las palabras del rey de Asiria. 29 El rey dice: 'No dejen que Ezequías los engañe, porque él no será capaz de rescatarlos a ustedes con mi poder. 30 No dejen que Ezequías los haga confiar en el SEÑOR, diciendo: "El SEÑOR ciertamente nos rescatará a nosotros, y ésta ciudad no será dada en la mano del rey de Asiria.'" 31 No escuchen a Ezequías, porque esto es lo que dice el rey de Asiria: 'Hagan la paz conmigo y vengan a mí. Entonces cada uno de ustedes comerá de su propio vino y de su propia higuera, y beberá del agua en su propia cisterna. 32 Ustedes harán esto hasta que yo venga y los lleve a una tierra como su propia tierra, una tierra de grano y vino nuevo, una tierra de pan y viñedos,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

una tierra de olivos y miel, para que puedan vivir y no morir.' No escuchen a Ezequías cuando los trate de persuadir a ustedes diciendo: "El SEÑOR nos rescatará." 33 ¿Alguno de los dioses ha rescatado a la gente de la mano del rey de Asiria? 34 ¿Dónde están los dioses de Hamat y Arfad? ¿Dónde están los dioses de Serfavaim, Hena y Iva? ¿Cuándo ellos han rescatado a Samaria fuera de mi mano? 35 Entre todos los dioses de la tierra, ¿hay algún dios quien haya rescatado su tierra de mi poder? ¿Cómo podría el SEÑOR salvar a Jerusalén de mi fuerza? 36 Pero la gente se quedó en silencio y no respondió, porque el rey ordenó: "No le respondan." 37 Entonces Eliaquim, el hijo de Hilcías, quien estaba sobre la casa, Sebna el escriba; y Joá, hijo de Asaf, el cronista, vinieron a Ezequías con sus ropas rasgadas, y le reportaron a él las palabras del jefe comandante.

Chapter 19

1 Sucedió que cuando el rey Ezequías escuchó su informe, él rasgó su ropa, se cubrió en tela de saco y fue a la casa del SEÑOR. 2 Él envió a Eliaquim, quien era el mayordomo, y Sebna el escriba, y los ancianos de los sacerdotes, todos cubiertos con tela de saco, a Isaías el profeta hijo de Amoz. 3 Él dijo a él: "Ezequías dice: 'Este día es un día de aflicción, reproche y deshonra, porque los hijos han llegado al tiempo de nacimiento, pero no hay fuerza para que ellos nazcan. 4 Puede ser que el SEÑOR tu Dios escuchará todas las palabras de este comandante principal, a quien el rey de Asiria su señor ha enviado a desafiar al Dios vivo, y reprenderá las palabras que el SEÑOR tu Dios ha escuchado. Ahora levanta tu oración por el remanente que aún está aquí.'" 5 Así que los siervos del rey Ezequías vinieron a Isaías, 6 e Isaías les dijo: "Di a tu señor: 'Así dice el SEÑOR: "No tengas temor por las palabras que has escuchado, con las cuales los sirvientes del rey de Asiria me han insultado a mí. 7 Mira, yo pondré un espíritu en él, y él escuchará cierto reporte y volverá a su propia tierra. Yo haré que él caiga por la espada en su propia tierra." 8 Luego el comandante principal regresó y encontró al rey de Asiria peleando contra Libna, porque él había escuchado que el rey había salido de Laquis. 9 Luego Senaquerib escuchó que Tirhaca, rey de Etiopía, y Egipto se habían movilizado para pelear en contra suya, así que él envió mensajeros otra vez a Ezequías con un mensaje: 10 "Di a Ezequías rey de Judá: 'No dejes que tu Dios en quien confías te engañe diciendo: "Jerusalén no será entregada en la mano del rey de Asiria." 11 Mira, tú has escuchado lo que los reyes de Asiria han hecho a todas las tierras destruyéndolos completamente. ¿Serás tú rescatado? 12 ¿Han rescatado los dioses de las naciones, las naciones que mis padres destruyeron: Gozán, Harán, Reset y el pueblo de Edén en Telasar? 13 ¿Dónde está el rey de Hamat, el rey de Arfad, el rey de las ciudades de Sefarvaim, de Hena y de Iva?"' 14 Ezequías recibió esta carta de los mensajeros y la leyó. Luego, él subió a la casa del SEÑOR y la extendió ante Él. 15 Luego Ezequías oró ante el SEÑOR y dijo: "SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, Tú que te sientas sobre el querubín, Tú solo eres Dios sobre todos los reinos de la tierra. Tú hiciste los cielos y la tierra. 16 Torna tu oído, SEÑOR, y escucha. Abre tus ojos SEÑOR y mira, y escucha las palabras de Senaquerib, las cuales él ha enviado a burlarse del Dios vivo. 17 Verdaderamente, SEÑOR, los reyes de Asiria han destruido las naciones y sus tierras. 18 Ellos han puesto sus dioses al fuego, porque ellos no eran dioses sino el trabajo de mano de hombres, sólo madera y piedra. Así que los asirios los han destruido. 19 Ahora, SEÑOR Dios nuestro, sálvanos, yo te imploro a Ti, de este poder, para que todos los reinos de la tierra puedan saber que Tú, SEÑOR, eres solo Dios." 20 Luego Isaías hijo de Amoz envió un mensaje a Ezequías diciendo: "Así dice el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel: 'Porque lo que has orado a Mí en relación a Senaquerib rey de Asiria, Yo te he escuchado. 21 Esta es la palabra que el SEÑOR ha hablado sobre él: "La hija virgen de Sión te menosprecia y se ríe en desprecio. La hija de Jerusalén sacude su cabeza tras de ti. 22 ¿A quién has desafiado e insultado? ¿Y en contra de quien has exaltado tu voz y alzado tus ojos con orgullo? ¡En contra del Santo de Israel! 23 Por medio de tus mensajeros has desafiado al Señor, y has dicho: 'Con la multitud de mis carros yo he subido a las alturas de las montañas, a las elevaciones más altas del Líbano. Yo cortaré los altos cedros y los árboles escogidos de ciprés ahí. Yo entraré a sus partes más lejanas, su bosque más fructífero. 24 Yo he cavado pozos y he tomado aguas del extranjero. Yo he secado todos los ríos de Egipto bajo la suela de mis pies.' 25 ¿No has escuchado que yo lo determiné hace mucho tiempo, y lo resolví en tiempos antiguos? Ahora Yo lo estoy llevando a cabo. Tú estás aquí para reducir ciudades impenetrables a montones de ruinas. 26 Sus habitantes, de poca fuerza, están destrozados y avergonzados. Ellos son plantas en el campo, hierba verde, la hierba en el techo o en el campo, quemados antes de haber crecido. 27 Pero yo conozco tu sentar, tu salida, tu entrada, y tu furia en mi contra. 28 Por tu furia en mi contra, y porque tu arrogancia ha alcanzado mis oidos, Yo pondré mi anzuelo en tu nariz, y mi freno en tu boca; Yo te haré volver por el camino que tú viniste." 29 Esta será la señal para ti: Este año comerás lo que crece silvestre, y en el segundo año lo que crece de eso. Pero en el tercer año tú debes plantar y cosechar, plantar viñedos y comer su fruto. 30 El remanente de la casa de Judá que sobreviva otra vez echará raiz y dará su fruto. 31 Porque de Jerusalén un remanente saldrá, del Monte Sión sobrevivientes vendrán. El celo del SEÑOR de los ejércitos hará esto. 32 Por tanto el SEÑOR dice esto sobre el rey de Asiria: "Él no vendrá a esta ciudad ni disparará una flecha aquí. Tampoco él vendrá ante ella con escudo o construirá rampa de asedio en contra de ella. 33 El camino por el cual él llegó será el mismo por donde él se irá; él no entrará en esta ciudad. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 34 Porque Yo voy a defender esta ciudad y rescatarla por mi propio bien y por el bien de mi siervo David.'" 35 Sucedió aquella noche que el ángel del SEÑOR salió y atacó el campamento de asirios, matando a 185, 000 soldados. Cuando los hombres se levantaron temprano en la mañana, cuerpos muertos estaban tendidos por todas partes. 36 Así que Senaquerib rey de Asiria dejó a Israel y se fue a casa y permaneció en Nínive. 37 Más tarde, mientras él estaba adorando en la casa de Nisroc su dios, sus hijos Adramelec y Sarezer lo mataron con la espada. Luego ellos se escaparon a la tierra de Ararat. Luego Esar Hadón su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar.

Chapter 20

1 En esos días Ezequías estaba enfermo al punto de morir. Así que, Isaías, hijo de Amoz, el profeta vino a él y le dijo a él: "El SEÑOR dice: 'Pon tu casa en orden; pues morirás, y no vivirás.'" 2 Luego Ezequías volvió su cara a la pared y oró al SEÑOR, diciendo: 3 "Por favor, SEÑOR, trae a la mente como he caminado fielmente ante Tí con todo mi corazón, y como he hecho lo que es bueno ante tu vista." Y Ezequías lloró en voz alta. 4 Antes de que Isaías saliera al patio central, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a él, diciendo: 5 "Vuélvete, y dile a Ezequías, líder de mi pueblo: 'Esto que lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de David, tu ancestro, dice: "He oído tu oración, y he visto tus lágrimas. Yo te sanaré. Al tercer día, tú subirás a la casa del SEÑOR. 6 Yo voy a añadir quince años a tu vida, y voy a rescatarte a tí y a ésta ciudad de la mano del rey de Asiria, y yo voy a defender ésta ciudad por mi propio bien y por el bien de mi siervo David."'" 7 Así que, Isaías dijo: "Tomen un terrón de higo." Ellos lo hicieron así y lo pusieron en su llaga, y se recuperó. 8 Ezequías le dijo a Isaías: "¿Cuál será la señal de que el SEÑOR me sanará, y de que yo subiré al templo del SEÑOR en el tercer día?" 9 Isaías contestó: "Ésta será la señal para tí del SEÑOR, que el SEÑOR hará aquello que Él ha hablado. ¿Acaso la sombra puede avanzar diez pasos, o retroceder diez pasos?" 10 Ezequías contestó: "Es cosa fácil que la sombra avance diez pasos. No, que la sombra retroceda diez pasos." 11 Así que, Isaías, el profeta clamó al SEÑOR, y Él trajo la sombra diez pasos atrás, desde donde ésta se había movido en las escaleras de Acaz. 12 En aquel tiempo, Berodac Baladán, hijo de Baladán, rey de Babilonia, envió cartas y un regalo a Ezequías, pues había escuchado que Ezequías había estado enfermo. 13 Ezequías escuchó a aquellas cartas, y luego le enseñó a los mensajeros todo el palacio, y sus cosas valuables, la plata, el oro, las especias, los aceites preciosos, y el almacén de sus armas, y todo lo que se encontraba en sus almacénes. No hubo nada en la casa, ni en todo el reino, que Ezequeías no le mostrara a ellos. 14 Luego Isaías, el profeta vino al rey Ezequías y le preguntó: "¿Qué te dijeron éstos hombres? ¿De dónde vienen?" Ezequías dijo: "Vinieron del país distante de Babilonia." 15 Isaías preguntó: "¿Qué ellos han visto en tu casa?" Ezequías respondió: "Ellos han visto todo en mi casa. No hay nada entre mis cosas valuables que yo no les haya enseñado a ellos." 16 Así que, Isaías le dijo a Ezequías: "Escucha la palabra del SEÑOR: 17 'Mira, vinen días, y están apunto de venir cuando todo en tu palacio, las cosas que tus ancestros guardaron aparte hasta este día presente, será llevado a Babilonia. Nada quedará, dice el SEÑOR. 18 Y los hijos nacidos de tí, a quienes tú mismo haz engendrado, ellos se los llevarán, y serán eunucos en el palacio del rey de Babilonia.'" 19 Entonces Ezequías le dijo a Isaías: "La palabra del SEÑOR que haz hablado es buena." Pues el pensó: "¿No habrá paz ni estabilidad en mis días?" 20 En cuanto a otros asuntos concernientes a Ezequías, y todo su poder y cómo construyó un estanque y un conducto, y cómo trajo agua a la ciudad, ¿no están escritos en el libro de lo eventos de los reyes de Judá? 21 Ezequías durmió con sus ancestros, y Manasés su hijo se convirtió en rey en su lugar.

¿La sombra avanzará diez pasos o retrocederá diez pasos?
La fuente de "la sombra" se puede establecer claramente. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "¿Quieres que EL SEÑOR haga que la sombra causada por la luz del sol en la escalera avance diez pasos o retroceda diez pasos?" .

diez pasos
Esta expresión se refiere a la "escalera de Acaz" en 20:10. Probablemente se trataba de una escalera especial construida para el rey Acaz de tal manera que sus escalones marcaban las horas del día a medida que los rayos del sol avanzaban a lo largo de ellos. De esta manera, la escalera servía para indicar la hora durante el día.

2 Kings 20:10

Es fácil para la sombra avanzar diez pasos Por qué "es una cosa fácil" se puede decir claramente. "Es fácil hacer que la sombra avance diez pasos, porque eso es lo normal"

la escalera de Acaz Probablemente se trataba de una escalera especial construida para el rey Acaz de tal manera que sus escalones marcaban las horas del día a medida que los rayos del sol avanzaban a lo largo de ellos. De esta manera, la escalera servía para indicar la hora durante el día. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "los pasos que se habían construido para el rey Acaz"

(1) "consideró cuidadosamente esas cartas" o (2) "escuchó el mensaje del rey de Babilonia"

No había nada ... que Ezequías no les mostró
"Nada" y "no" se cancelan mutuamente para hacer que la idea sea positiva. Esta exageración se usa para enfatizar. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Ezequías le mostró absolutamente todo en su casa y en todo su reino".

2 Kings 20:14

esos hombres
Esto se refiere a los hombres enviados al rey Ezequías con un mensaje y regalos de Berodac Baladán.

Han visto todo en mi casa. No hay nada entre mis cosas valiosas que no les haya mostrado.
Ezequías repite la misma idea de dos maneras para enfatizar su punto.

No hay nada entre mis cosas valiosas que no les haya mostrado.
"Nada" y "no" se cancelan mutuamente para hacer que la idea sea positiva. Esta exageración se usa para enfatizar. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Les mostré absolutamente cada una de mis cosas valiosas"

2 Kings 20:16

Entonces Isaías le dijo a Ezequías
Por qué habló Isaías se puede decir claramente. ¨Traducción Alterna¨: "Entonces, como Isaías sabía que Ezequías había sido tonto al mostrar a los hombres todas sus cosas valiosas, Isaías le dijo"

la palabra de EL SEÑOR
"Palabra" es sinécdoque para el mensaje que contiene la palabra. ¨Traducción Alterna: "el mensaje de EL SEÑOR"

Chapter 21

1 Manasés tenía doce años cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó cincuenta y cinco años en Jerusalén. Su madre era Hepsiba. 2 Él hizo lo malo a los ojos del SEÑOR, como las cosas abomilables de las naciones de quienes el SEÑOR había sacado antes al pueblo de Israel. 3 Porque él reconstruyó los lugares altos que Ezequías, su padre, había destruido, y él construyó altares para Baal, hizo un poste de Asera, como Acab, rey de Israel, había hecho, y él se inclinó ante todas las estrellas del cielo y las adoró. 4 Manasés construyó altares paganos en la casa del SEÑOR, a pesar de que el SEÑOR había ordenado: "Es en Jerusalén que mi nombre estará para siempre." 5 Él construyó altares para todas las estrellas del cielo en dos patios de la casa del SEÑOR. 6 Él pasó su hijo en el fuego; él hizo adivinación y brujería y consultó con aquellos quienes hablaban con los muertos y con aquellos que hablaban con espíritus. Él practicó mucha maldad ante los ojos del SEÑOR y provocó a ira Dios. 7 La figura tallada de Asera que él había hecho, él la pusó en la casa del SEÑOR. Era sobre esta casa que el SEÑOR le había hablado a David y a Salomón, su hijo, él había dicho: "Es en esta casa y en Jerusalén, la que he escogido de todas las tribus de Israel, que pondré mi nombre para siempre. 8 Yo no haré que los pies de Israel deambulen más fuera de la tierra que le dí a sus antepasados, si ellos sólo fueran cuidadosos en obedecer todo lo que he ordenado a ellos, y a seguir toda la ley que mi siervo Moisés les ordenó." 9 Pero el pueblo no escuchó, y Manasés los guió a hacer el mal, aún más que las naciones que el SEÑOR había destruído ante el pueblo de Israel. 10 Así que el SEÑOR habló por sus siervos, los profetas, diciendo: 11 "Porque Manasés, rey de Judá, ha hecho estas cosas abominables, y ha actuado con más maldad que todos los amorreos quienes estaban antes que él, y también hizo a Judá pecar con sus ídolos, 12 por lo tanto, el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dijo esto: "Mira, Yo voy a traer tanto mal a Jerusalén y a Judá que cualquiera que lo escuche, ambos oídos le zumbarán. 13 Yo extenderé sobre Jerusalén el cordel de medida usada en contra de Samaria, y la plomada usada encontra de la casa de Acab; 14 Yo limpiaré a Jerusalén, como un hombre limpia un plato, limpiándolo y girándolo de arriba a abajo. Yo abandonaré el remanente de mi herencia y los entregaré a la mano de sus enemigos. Ellos se convertirán en víctimas y serán saqueados por todos sus enemigos, 15 porque ellos han hecho lo malo en Mi vista, y Me han procovado la ira, desde el día que sus antepasados salieron de Egipto, hasta este día." 16 Más aún, Manasés derramó mucha sangre inocente, hasta que llenó a Jerusalén desde un extremo a otro con muerte. Esto fue en adición al pecado por el cuál él hizo a Judá pecar, cuando ellos hicieron lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. 17 En cuanto otros asuntos sobre Manasés, todo lo que él hizo, y el pecado que él cometió, ¿no estan escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá?' 18 Manasés durmió con sus antepasados y fue enterrado en el jardín de su propia casa, en el jardín de Uza. Amón, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 19 Amón tenía veintidos años cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó dos años en Jerusalén. Su madre llamada Mesulemet; ella era la hija de Haruz de Jotba. 20 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR, como Manasés, su padre, había hecho. 21 Amón siguió todo el camino que su padre había caminado y adoró los ídolos que su padre adoró, y se inclinó a ellos. 22 Él abandonó a el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres, y no caminó en el camino del SEÑOR. 23 Los sirvientes de Amón conspiraron en contra de él y mataron al rey en su propia casa. 24 Pero la gente de la tierra mató todos aquellos que habían conspirado en contra del rey Amón, y ellos hicieron a Josías, su hijo, rey en su lugar. 25 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Amón, lo que él hizo, ¿no estan escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 26 El pueblo lo enterró en su tumba en el jardín de Uza, y Josías, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar.

Chapter 22

1 Josías era de ocho años cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó por treinta y un años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Jedida (ella era la hija de Adaía de Boscat). 2 Él hizo lo que era correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR. Él caminó en la misma manera que David su ancestro, y él no se apartó ni a derecha ni a la izquierda. 3 Sucedió que en el año dieciocho del rey Josías, él envió a Safán hijo de Azalía, hijo de Mesulam, el escriba, a la casa del SEÑOR, diciendo: 4 "Sube a donde Hilcías el sumo sacerdote y dile que cuente el dinero que ha sido traído a la casa del SEÑOR, el cual los guardas han recaudado del pueblo. 5 Que sea puesto en las manos de los trabajadores que están a cargo de la casa del SEÑOR, y dejen que ellos lo den a los trabajadores que están en la casa del SEÑOR, para que ellos hagan las reparaciones a los daños en el templo. 6 Dejen que le den dinero a los carpinteros, los constructores, y a los albañiles, y también para comprar madera y piedras cortadas para reparar el templo." 7 Pero no se requirió contabilizar el dinero que se les dio a ellos, porque ellos lo manejaban fielmente. 8 Hilcías el sumo sacerdote le dijo a Safán el escriba:" Yo encontré El Libro de la Ley en la casa del SEÑOR." Así que Hicías le dió el libro a Safán, y él lo leyó. 9 Safán fue y llevó el libro al rey, y también le informó a él diciendo:" Tus siervos han usado el dinero que fue encontrado en el templo y lo han dado en las manos de los trabajadores que supervisan el cuidado de la casa del SEÑOR." 10 Entonces Safán el escriba le dijo al rey:" Hicías el sacerdote me ha dado un libro." Entonces Safán lo leyó al rey. 11 Sucedió, que cuando el rey escuchó las palabras de la ley, él rasgo sus ropas. 12 El rey le ordenó a Hilcías, el sacerdote, Ahicam, hijo de Safán, Acbor, hijo de Micaías, Safán, el escriba, y Asaías, su propio siervo, diciendo: 13 "Ve y consulta con el SEÑOR por mí, y por el pueblo y por todo Judá, debido a las palabras de éste libro que ha sido encontrado. Pues grande es el enojo del SEÑOR que ha sido encendido en nuestra contra. Es grande, pues nuestros ancestros no han escuchado las palabras de éste libro, como para obedecer todo lo que está escrito concerniente a nosotros." 14 Así que, Hilcías el sacerdote, Ahicam, Acbor, Safán y Asaías fueron a Hulda, la profetisa, la esposa de Salum, hijo de Ticva, hijo de Harhas, encargado del vestuario (ella vivía en Jerusalén en el segundo cuartel), y ellos hablaron con ella. 15 Ella les dijo a ellos: "Ésto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: 'Dile a éste hombre, que te envió a mí, 16 "ésto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: 'Verás, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre a éste lugar y a sus habitantes, según todas las palabras del libro que el rey de Judá ha leído. 17 Porque ellos me han abandonado y han quemado incienso a otros dioses, y así poder provocarme a enojo, con todos las andanzas que han cometido. Por lo tanto, mi enojo ha sido encendido en contra de éste lugar, y no será extinguido."' 18 Pero para el rey de Judá, quien te envió para preguntar la voluntad del SEÑOR, ésto es lo que le dirás: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel dice ésto acerca de las palabras que haz escuchado, 19 por cuanto tu corazón fue tierno, y porque te has humillado a tí mismo ante el SEÑOR, cuando escuchaste lo que tenía en contra de éste lugar y sus habitantes, que ellos se convertirían en una desolación y una maldición, y porque te has rasgado las ropas y haz llorado delante de Mí, Yo también te he escuchado. Ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 20 Verás, y te juntaré a tí con tus ancestros; serás reunido en tu tumba en paz, ni tu ojos verán nada del desastre que traeré en éste lugar, y a sus habitantes."""" Así que el hombre llevó éste menaje de vuelta al rey.

1 Así que el rey envió mensajeros quienes le reunieron a él todos los ancianos de Judá y de Jerusalén. 2 Luego, el rey subió a la casa del SEÑOR, y todos los hombres de Judá y todos los habitantes de Jerusalén con él, y los sacerdotes, profetas, y todo el pueblo, desde el pequeño hasta el grande. Él luego leyó en la reunión todas las palabras del Libro del Pacto que había sido encontrado en la casa del SEÑOR. 3 El rey se paró junto al pilar e hizo un pacto delante del SEÑOR, de caminar en pos del SEÑOR y mantener Sus mandamientos, Sus regulaciones, y Sus estatutos, con todo su corazón y toda su alma, para confirmar las palabras de este pacto que habían sido escritas en este libro. Así que todo el pueblo estuvo de acuerdo en confirmar el pacto. 4 El rey le ordenó a Hilcías el sumo sacerdote, a los sacerdotes bajo él, y a los porteros, a sacar del templo del SEÑOR todas las vasijas que fueron hechas para Baal y Asera, y para todas las estrellas del cielo. Él las quemó fuera de Jerusalén en los campos, en el Valle Cedrón y cargó sus cenizas a Betel. 5 Él se deshizo de los sacerdotes idólatras a quienes los reyes de Judá habían escogido para quemar incienso en los lugares altos en las ciudades de Judá y en los lugares alrededor de Jerusalén-- aquellos que quemaron incienso a Baal, al sol y a la luna, a los planetas, y a todas las estrellas del cielo. 6 Él sacó el poste de Asera del templo del SEÑOR, fuera de Jerusalén al Valle Cedrón y lo quemó allí. Él lo hizo polvo y lanzó ese polvo en las tumbas de las personas comunes. 7 Él limpió las habitaciones de las prostitutas cúlticas quienes estaban en el templo del SEÑOR, donde las mujeres vestían ropas para Asera. 8 Josías trajo a todos sacerdotes fuera de la ciudad de Judá y contaminó los lugares altos donde los sacerdotes habían quemado incienso, desde Geba hasta Beerseba. Él destruyó los lugares altos en las puertas que estaban en la entrada de la puerta de Josué (el gobernador de la ciudad), al lado izquierdo de la puerta de la ciudad. 9 Aunque los sacerdotes de aquellos lugares altos no se les permitía servir en el altar del SEÑOR en Jerusalén, ellos comieron pan sin levadura entre sus hermanos. 10 Josías contaminó a Tofet, el cual está en el valle de Ben Hinom, para que nadie pudiera poner a su hijo o su hija en el fuego como sacrificio a Moloc. 11 Él se llevó los caballos que los reyes de Judá le habían dado al sol. Ellos habían estado en un área en la entrada al templo del SEÑOR, cerca de la habitación de Natán Melec, el noble de la cámara. Josías quemó los carros del sol. 12 Josías, el rey, destruyó los altares que estaban en el techo de la habitación superior de Acaz, la cual los reyes de Judá le habían hecho, y los altares que Manasés había hecho en las dos cortes del templo del SEÑOR. Josías los destrozó en pedazos y los lanzó al Valle de Cidrón. 13 El rey arruinó los lugares altos al este de Jerusalén, al sur del monte de corrupción que Salomón, el rey de Israel, había construido para Astoret, el detestable ídolo de los sidonios; para Quemos, el detestable ídolo de Moab; y para Milcom, el detestable ídolo del pueblo de Amón. 14 Él rompió los pilares de piedra en pedazos y cortó los postes de Asera y llenó esos lugares con los huesos de seres humanos. 15 Josías también destruyó completamentne el altar que estaba en Betel y el lugar alto que Jeroboam, hijo de Nabat (el que hizo que Israel pecara), había construido. Él también quemó el altar y el lugar alto y los hizo polvo. Él también quemó el poste de Asera. 16 Mientras Josías miraba sobre el área, él notó las tumbas que estaban en la ladera. Él envió hombres a coger los huesos de las tumbas; luego él los quemó en el altar, lo que lo contaminó. Esto fue de acuerdo a la palabra del SEÑOR, la cual el hombre de Dios había hablado, el hombre que habló estas cosas de antemano. 17 Luego él dijo: "¿Qué monumento es ése que veo?" Los hombres de la ciudad le dijeron a él: "Esa es la tumba del hombre de Dios quien vino desde Judá y habló acerca de estas cosas que tú acabas de hacer en contra del altar de Betel." 18 Así que Josías dijo: "Déjalo en paz. Nadie debe mover sus huesos." Así que ellos dejaron sus huesos en paz, junto con los huesos del profeta que había venido desde Samaria. 19 Y Josías removió todas las casas en los lugares altos que estaban en las ciudades de Samaria, las cuales los reyes de Israel habían hecho, y le provocaron enojo al SEÑOR. Él les hizo a ellos exactamente lo que había sido hecho en Betel. 20 Él masacró a todos los sacerdotes de los lugares altos sobre los altares y quemó huesos humanos sobre ellos. Luego, él regresó a Jerusalén. 21 Luego, el rey le ordenó a todo el pueblo, diciendo: "Guarden la Pascua al SEÑOR su Dios, como está escrito en este Libro del Pacto." 22 Tal celebración de Pascua nunca había sido hecha desde los días de los jueces quienes gobernaron Israel, ni en todos los días de los reyes de Israel o Judá. 23 Pero esta pascua fue celebrada en el año dieciocho del rey Josías; para el SEÑOR en Jerusalén. 24 Josías también desterró aquellos quienes hablaban con los muertos o con espíritus. Él también desterró a los amuletos, los ídolos y todas las cosas asquerosas que estaban siendo vistas en la tierra de Judá y en Jerusalén, para confirmar las palabras de la Ley, las cuales estaban escritas en el libro que Hilcías, el sacerdote, había encontrado en la casa del SEÑOR. 25 Anterior a Josías, no hubo rey como él, quien se volvió al SEÑOR con todo su corazón, toda su alma, y toda su mente, quien siguió toda la Ley de Moisés. Ni ningún rey como Josías se levantó después de él. 26 Aún así, el SEÑOR no se volvió del furor de su gran ira, la cual había sido encendida en contra de Judá por toda la adoración pagana con la cual Manasés Lo había provocado. 27 Así que el SEÑOR dijo: "Yo también quitaré a Judá fuera de mi vista, como Yo quité a Israel, y echaré fuera esta ciudad que Yo he escogido, Jerusalén, y la casa de la cual Yo dije: 'Mi nombre estará allí.'" 28 En cuanto a los otros asuntos relacionado a Josías, todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están ellos escritos en El Libro de los eventos de los Reyes de Judá? 29 En sus días, Faraón Necao, rey de Egipto, fue a pelear en contra del rey de Asiria en el Río Éufrates. El rey Josías fue a encontrarse con Necao en batalla, y Necao lo mató en Meguido. 30 Los siervos de Josías lo cargaron muerto en un carro desde Meguido, lo llevaron a Jerusalén y lo enterraron en su propia tumba. Luego, el pueblo de la tierra tomó a Joacaz, hijo de Josías, lo ungieron y lo hicieron rey en el lugar de su padre. 31 Joacaz tenía ventitrés años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar, y él reinó tres meses en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Hamutal; ella era la hija de Jeremías de Libna. 32 Joacaz hizo lo que era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR, como todos sus ancestros habían hecho. 33 Faraón Necao lo puso en cadenas en Ribla en la tierra de Hamat, para que él no pudiera reinar en Jerusalén. Luego, Necao multó a Judá con cien talentos de plata y un talento de oro. 34 Faraón Necao hizo a Eliaquim, hijo de Josías, rey en lugar de Josías su padre, y cambió su nombre a Joacim. Pero él se llevó a Joacaz lejos a Egipto, y Joacaz murió allí. 35 Joacim pagó la plata y el oro a Faraón. Él impuso un impuesto a la tierra para pagar el dinero, y obedecer la orden de Faraón. Él forzó a cada hombre de entre las personas de la tierra a pagar plata y oro, para dárselos a Faraón Necao. 36 Joacim tenía venticinco años de edad cuando él comenzó a reinar, y él reinó once años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Zeduba; ella era la hija de Pedaías de Ruma. 37 Joacim hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR, como todo lo que sus ancestros habían hecho.

Chapter 24

1 En los días de Joacim, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, atacó a Judá; Joacim se convirtio en su siervo por tres años. Entonces Joacim se tornó atrás y se rebeló contra Nabucodonosor. 2 El SEÑOR envió en contra de Joacim bandas de caldeos, arameos, moabitas y amonitas; él los envió en contra de Judá para destruirla. Esto estaba conforme a la palabra del SEÑOR que había sido hablada a través de sus siervos los profetas. 3 Fue ciertamente por boca del SEÑOR que esto sobrevino a Judá, para quitarlos fuera de su vista, por los pecados de Manasés, todo lo que él hizo, 4 y también por la sangre inocente que él derramó, pues él llenó a Jerusalén de sangre inocente. El SEÑOR no estuvo dispuesto a perdonar eso. 5 En cuanto a los otros asuntos concernientes a Joacim, y todo lo que él hizo, ¿no están ellos escritos en el libro de los eventos de los reyes de Judá? 6 Joacim durmió con sus ancestros, y Joaquín, su hijo, se convirtió en rey en su lugar. 7 El rey de Egipto no atacó nunca más fuera de su tierra porque el rey de Babilonia había conquistado todas las tierras que habían sido controladas por el rey de Egipto, desde el arroyo de Egipto hasta el Río Eufrates. 8 Joaquín tenía dieciocho años cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó en Jerusalén tres meses. El nombre de su madre era Nehusta; ella era la hija de Elnatán de Jerusalén. 9 Él hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR; él hizo todo aquéllo que su padre había hecho. 10 En aquel tiempo el ejército de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, atacó Jerusalén y rodeó la ciudad. 11 Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, vino a la ciudad mientras sus soldados la estaban rodeando, 12 y Joaquín, el rey de Judá, salió al rey de Babilonia, él, su madre, sus siervos, sus príncipes y sus oficiales. El rey de Babilonia lo capturó a él en el año octavo de su propio reinado. 13 Nabucodonosor sacó de allí todas las cosas de valor de la casa del SEÑOR, y aquéllas en el palacio del rey. Él cortó en pedazos todos los objetos de oro que Salomón, rey de Israel, había hecho en el templo del SEÑOR, según el SEÑOR había dicho habría de pasar. 14 Él llevó al exilio a toda Jerusalén, a todos los líderes, y a todos los hombres de pelea, diez mil cautivos, y todos los artesanos y los herreros. Nadie quedó excepto la gente más pobre en la tierra. 15 Nabucodonosor llevó a Joaquín al exilio en Babilonia, como también a la madre del rey, esposas, oficiales y los hombres jefes de la tierra. Él los llevó al exilio desde Jerusalén a Babilonia. 16 Todos los hombres de pelea, el número de siete mil, y mil artesanos y herreros, todos ellos aptos para pelear -- el rey de Babilonia trajo a estos hombres al exilio en Babilonia. 17 El rey de Babilonia hizo a Matanías, el hermano del padre de Joaquín, rey en su lugar, y cambió su nombre a Sedequías. 18 Sedequías tenía veintiún años cuando él comenzó a reinar; él reinó por once años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Hamutal; ella era la hija de Jeremías de Libna. 19 Él hizo lo malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR; él hizo todo aquéllo que Joacim había hecho. 20 Por la ira del SEÑOR, todos estos eventos ocurrieron en Jerusalén y Judá hasta que los echó fuera de su presencia. Entonces Sedequías se rebeló en contra del rey de Babilonia.

Chapter 25

1 Sucedió que en el año noveno del reino del Rey Sedequías, en el mes décimo, y en el décimo día del mes, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, vino con todo su ejército contra Jerusalén. Acampó al frente de ella y construyeron un muro de asedio alrededor de ella. 2 Así que la ciudad fue sitiada hasta el undécimo año del reinado del Rey Sedequías. 3 En el noveno día del cuarto mes de ese año, la hambruna fue tan severa en la ciudad que no había comida para el pueblo de la tierra. 4 Entonces se invadió la ciudad, y todos los hombres guerreros huyeron de noche por el camino de la puerta entre los dos muros, al lado del jardín del rey, aunque los caldeos estaban alrededor de la ciudad. El rey se fue en dirección del Arabá. 5 Pero el ejército de los caldeos persiguió al Rey Sedequías y lo alcanzó en los llanos del valle del Río Jordán cerca de Jericó. Todo su ejército fue dispersado lejos de él. 6 Ellos capturaron al rey y lo subieron al rey de Babilonia en Ribla, donde le impusieron sentencia. 7 En cuanto a los hijos de Sedequías, los masacraron delante de sus ojos. Entonces el rey de Babilonia le sacó sus ojos, lo ató con cadenas de bronce, y lo trajo a Babilonia. 8 Ahora en el quinto mes, en el séptimo día del mes, el cual fue el décimonoveno año del reinado de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, Nabuzaradán, un siervo del rey de Babilonia y comandante de sus guardaespaldas, vino a Jerusalén. 9 Él quemó la casa del SEÑOR, el palacio del rey, y todas las casas de Jerusalén; también quemó todo edificio importante en la ciudad. 10 En cuanto a todas las murallas alrededor de Jerusalén, todo el ejército de los babilonios que estaban bajo el comandante de los guardaespaldas las destruyeron. 11 En cuanto al resto de la gente que fue dejada en la ciudad, aquellos que habían desertado al rey de Babilonia, y el remanente de la población, Nabuzaradán, el comandante de la guardaespalda, los llevó al exilio. 12 Pero el comandante de la guardaespalda sí dejó a algunos de los más pobres de la tierra para trabajar las viñas y los campos. 13 En cuanto a los pilares de bronce que estaban en la casa del SEÑOR, y las bases y el mar de bronce que estaban en la casa del SEÑOR, los caldeos los hicieron pedazos y cargaron el bronce a Babilonia. 14 Las ollas, palas, lámparas, cucharas, y todos los utensilios de bronce con los cuales los sacerdotes habían servido en el templo, los caldeos se los llevaron. 15 Las ollas para remover las cenizas y los tazones que fueron hechos de oro, y aquellos hechos de plata, el capitán de la guardia del rey se los llevó también. 16 Los dos pilares, el mar, y las bases que Salomón había hecho para la casa del SEÑOR contenían más bronce que podía ser pesado. 17 La altura del primer pilar fue de dieciocho codos, y un capitel de bronce estaba encima de él. El capitel era de tres codos de alto, con un diseño de malla y granadas todo alrededor del capitel, todo hecho de bronce. El otro pilar y su diseño de malla fue igual que el primero. 18 El comandante del guardaespalda se llevó a Seraías el principal sacerdote, junto a Sofonías, el segundo sacerdote, y los tres guardas de las puertas. 19 De la ciudad él se llevo prisionero a un oficial que estaba a cargo de soldados, y a cinco hombres que aconsejaban al rey, que estaban todavía en la ciudad. Él también tomó como prisionero al oficial de ejército del rey responsable de alistar a hombres para el ejército, junto a sesenta hombres importantes de la tierra que estaban en la ciudad. 20 Entonces Nabuzaradán, el comandante del guardaespalda, los llevó y los trajo al rey de Babilonia en Ribla. 21 El rey de Babilonia los llevó a la muerte en Ribla en la tierra de Hamat. De esta manera, Judá salió de su tierra al exilio. 22 En cuanto a la gente que se quedaron en la tierra de Judá, aquellos que Nabucadonosor rey de Babilonia había dejado atrás, él puso a Gedalías, hijo de Ahicam, hijo de Safán a cargo de ellos. 23 Ahora cuando todos los comandantes de los soldados, ellos y sus hombres, oyeron que el rey de Babilonia había puesto a Gedalías como gobernador, ellos fueron donde Gedalías a Mizpa. Estos hombres fueron Ismael, hijo de Netanías, Johanán, hijo de Carea, Seraías, hijo de Tanhumet el netofatita, y Jaazanías, hijo del Maacateo, ellos y sus hombres. 24 Gedalías hizo un juramento a ellos y a sus hombres, y les dijo a ellos: "No teman a los oficiales caldeos. Vivan en la tierra y sirvan al rey de Babilonia y les irá bien." 25 Pero sucedió que en el séptimo mes, Ismael, hijo de Netanías, hijo de Elisama, de la familia real, vino con diez hombres y atacó a Gedalías. Gedalías murió, junto a los hombres de Judá y de los babilonios que estaban con él en Mizpa. 26 Entonces toda la gente, desde el menor hasta el mayor, y los comandantes de los soldados, se levantaron y se fueron a Egipto, porque temían a los babilonios. 27 Sucedió luego en el año treinta y siete del exilio de Joaquín, hijo de Judá, en el duodécimo mes, en el día veintisiete del mes, que Evil Merodac, rey de Babilonia, liberó a Joaquín, rey de Judá, de la prisión. Esto sucedió en el año que Evil Merodac comenzó a reinar. 28 Él le habló amablemente y le dio un asiento más honorable que a los otros reyes que estaban con él en Babilonia. 29 Evil Merodac removió las ropa de prisión de Joaquín, y Joaquín comió con regularidad en la mesa del rey por el resto de su vida. 30 Y una porción regular de comida le fue dada a él cada día por el resto de su vida.

Chapter 4

1 Los descendientes de Judá eran Pérez, Hazrón, Carmi, Hur, y Sobal. 2 Sobal fue el padre de Reaía. Reaía fue el padre de Jahat. Jahat fue el padre de Ahumai y de Lahad. Éstos fueron los ancestros de los clanes de los zoratitas. 3 Éstos fueron los ancestros de las clanes en la ciudad de Etam: Jezreel, Isma e Ibdas. El nombre de su hermana era Hazelelponi. 4 Penuel era el antecesor de las clanes en la ciudad de Gedor. Ezer fue el creador de las clanes en Husa. Éstos fueron las descendientes de Hur, el primer hijo de Efrata y el creador de Belén. 5 Asur el padre de Tecoa tuvo dos esposas, Hela y Naara. 6 Naara dio luz a Ahuzam, Hefer, Temeni y Ahatsari. Éstos fueron los hijos de Naara. 7 Los hijos de Hela fueron Zeret, Izhar, Etnán, 8 y Cos, que se convirtió en padre de Anub, Zobeba y los de las clanes descendientes de Aharhel hijo Harum. 9 Jabes era más respetado que sus hermanos. Su madre lo llamó Jabes. Ella dijo: "Porque lo parí con dolor." 10 Jabes llamó al Dios de Israel y dijo: "¡Si tan sólo tú puedieras verdaderamente bendecirme, expande mi territorio y tu mano estara conmigo. Cuando Tu hagas esto me cuidarás de daño, entonces yo seré libre de dolor!" Entonces Dios le concedió su oración. 11 Quelub, hermano de Súa, se convirtió el padre de Mehir, que fue en el padre de Estón. 12 Estón se convirtió en el padre de Bet Rafa, Paseah y Tehina, que empezó la ciudad de Nahas. Éstos fueron hombres que vivieron en Reca. 13 Los hijos de Quenaz fueron Otoniel y Seraías. Los hijos de Otoniel fueron Hatat y Meonotai. 14 Meonotai se convirtió en el padre de Ofra, y Seraías se convirtió en padre de Joab, el creador de Gue Jarasim, que su pueblo era artesano. 15 Los hijos de Caleb hijo de Jefone eran Iru, Ela y Naam. El hijo de Ela fue Quenaz. 16 Los hijos de Jehalelel fueron Zif, Zifa, Tirías y Asareel. 17 Los hijos de Esdras fueron Jeter, Mered, Efer y Jalón. La esposa egipicia de Mered le dio a luz a Miriam, Samai y a Isba, que se convirtió en el padre de Estemoa. Éstos eran los hijos de Bitia, hija de Faraón, con quien se casó Mered. 18 La esposa judía de Mered le dio a luz a Jered, que se convirtió en el padre de Gedor; Heber que se convirtió en el padre de Soco; y Jecutiel, que se convirtió en el padre de Zanoa. 19 De los dos hijos de la esposas Hodías, hermana de Naham, uno se convirtió en el padre de Keila el garmita. El otro fue Estemoa el maacateo. 20 Los hijos de Simón fueron Amnón, Rina, Ben Hanán y Tilón. Los hijos de Isi fueron Zohet y Benzohet. 21 Los decendients de Sela, hijo de Judá, fueron Er, padre de Leca, Laada, padre de Maresa y padre de los clanes que trabajan el lino en Bet Asbea, 22 Joacim, los hombres de Cozeba y Joás y Saraf, que tenían propiedad en Moab, pero que volvieron a Belén. (Esta información es de los registros de los antepasados.) 23 Algunas de estas personas fueron los alfareros que vivieron en Netaím y Gedera y trabajaron para el rey. 24 Los descendientes de Simeón fueron Nemuel, Jamín, Jarib, Zera y Saúl. 25 Salum era hijo de Saúl, Mibsam era hijo de Salum y Misma era hijo de Mibsam. 26 Los descendientes de Misma fueron Hamuel su hijo, Zacur su nieto, Simei su bisnieto. 27 Simei tuvo dieciseis hijos y seis hijas. Sus hermanos no tuvieron tantos hijos, para que sus clanes no crecieran en gran manera según el pueblo de Judá lo hizo. 28 Ellos vivieron en Beerseba, Molada y hazar Sual. 29 Ellos también vivieron en Bilha, Ezem, Tolad, 30 Betuel, Horma, Siclag, 31 Bet Marcabot, Hazar Susim, Bet Birai y Saaraim. Éstas fueron sus ciudades hasta el reinado de David. 32 Sus cinco villas fueron Etam, Aín, Rimón, Toquén y Asán, 33 juntamente con las villas que estaban tan como Baal. Éstas fueron sus colonias y ellos guardaron sus registros genealógicos. 34 Los líderes del clan fueron Mesobab, Jamlec, Josías hijo de Amasías, 35 Joel, Jehú hijo de Josibías hijo de Seraías hijo de Asiel. 36 Elioenai, Jaacoba, Jesohaía, Asaías, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaía 37 y Ziza hijo de Sifi, hijo de Alón, hijo de Jedaías hijo de Simri, hijo de Semaías. 38 Éstos, mencionados por nombre, eran líderes en sus clanes, y sus clanes crecieron grandemente. 39 Ellos fueron cerca de Gedor, en el lado este del valle, para buscar pastos para sus ganados. 40 Ellos encontraron pasto bueno y abundante. La tierra era grande, tranquila y pacífica. Los hamitas estaban formalmente viviendo allí. 41 Estos clanes, listados por nombre, vinieron en días de Ezequías rey de Judá y atacaron los colonias hamita y los meunitas, que estaban allí también. Ellos los destruyeron completamente y vivieron allí porque ellos encontraron pastos para su ganado. 42 Quinientos hombres de la tribú de Simeón fueron al Monte Seir, con sus líderes Pelatías, Nearías, Refaías y Uziel, hijos de Isi. 43 Ellos derrotaron el resto de los refugiados de Amalec, y vivieron allí hasta este día.

Chapter 5

1 Los hijos de Rubén, el primer hijo de Israel-- ahora bien, Rubén era el primogénito de Israel, pero su derecho de nacimiento le fue dado a los hijos de José hijo de Israel porque Rubén había contaminado la cama de su padre. Por lo que él no se registra como el hijo mayor. 2 Judá fue el más fuerte de sus hermanos, y el líder vendría de él. Pero el derecho de nacimiento era de José-- 3 los hijos de Rubén, el primer hijo de Israel, fueron Hanoc, Falú, Hezrón y Carmi. 4 Los descendientes de Joel fueron estos: El hijo de Joel fue Semaías. El hijo de Semaías fue Gog. El hijo de Gog fue Simei. 5 El hijo de Simei fue Micaía. El hijo de Micaía fue Reaía. El hijo de Reaía fue Baal. 6 El hijo de Baal fue Beera, a quien Tilgat Pilneser, rey de Asiria, llevó al exilio. Beera fue un líder en la tribu de Rubén. 7 Los familiares de Beera por sus clanes son los siguientes, enlistados en sus registros genealógicos: Jeiel el mayor, Zacarías y 8 Bela hijo de Azaz, hijo de Sema, hijo de Joel. Ellos vivieron en Aroer, tan lejos como Nebo y Baal Meón, 9 y al oriente hasta la entrada del desierto que se extiende al Río Éufrates. Esto fue así porque ellos tenían mucho ganado en la tierra de Galaad. 10 En los días de Saúl, la tribu de Rubén atacó a los Agarenos y los derrotaron. Ellos vivieron en las tiendas de campaña agarenas a través de toda la tierra al este de Galaad. 11 Los miembros de la tribu de Gad vivieron cerca de ellos en la tierra de Basán tan lejos como Salca. 12 Sus líderes fueron Joel que fue un jefe de clan y Safán fue jefe de otro clan, y Janaai y Safat en Basán. 13 Sus familiares, por sus familias paternas, fueron Micael, Mesulam, Seba, Jorai, Jacán, Zía, y Heber-- siete en total. 14 Estas personas nombradas arriba fueron los descendientes de Abihail, y Abihail fue el hijo de Huri. Huri fue el hijo de Jaroa. Jaroa fue el hijo de Galaad. Galaad fue el hijo de Micael. Micael fue el hijo de Jesisai. Jesisai fue el hijo de Jahdo. Jahdo fue el hijo de Buz. 15 Ahí hijo de Abdiel hijo Guni, fue jefe de sus familias paternas 16 Ellos vivieron en Galaad, en Basán, en sus pueblos, y en todas las tierras de pastar de Sharón tan lejos como sus fronteras. 17 Todos estos fueron enlistados por registros genealógicos en los días de Jotam, rey de Judá y de Jeroboam rey de Israel. 18 Los rubenitas, los gaditas, y la media tribu de Manasés tenían cuarenta y cuatro mil soldados entrenados para la guerra, que cargaron escudo y espada, y que tiraron del arco. 19 Ellos atacaron a los Agarenos, Jetur, Nafis y Nodab. 20 Ellos recibieron ayuda divina contra ellos. De esta manera, los agarenos y todos los que estaban con ellos fueron derrotados. Esto fue porque los israelitas clamaron a Dios en la batalla y Él le respondió a ellos, porque ellos pusieron su confianza en Él. 21 Ellos capturaron sus animales, incluyendo cincuenta mil camellos, 250, 000 ovejas, dos mil burros y 100, 000 hombres. 22 Porque Dios peleó por ellos, ellos mataron muchos de los enemigos. Ellos vivieron en su tierra hasta el cautiverio. 23 La media tribu de Manasés vivió en la tierra de Basán tan lejos como Baal Hermón y Senir (que es Monte Hermón). 24 Estos fueron los líderes de sus familias: Efer, Isi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremías, Hodavías y Jahdiel. Ellos fueron hombres fuertes y valientes, hombres famosos, líderes de sus familias. 25 Pero ellos fueron infieles al Dios de sus ancestros. En cambio, ellos adoraron los dioses de los pueblos de la tierra, a quienes Dios había destruído antes de ellos. 26 El Dios de Israel incitó a Pul, rey de Asiria (también llamado Tilgat Pileser, rey de Asiria). Él llevó al exilio a los rubenitas, gaditas, y la media tribu de Manasés. Él los llevó a Halah, Habor, Hara y al río de Gozán, donde ellos permanecen hasta este día.
