A menudo, una persona que es "enviada" ha sido designada para realizar una tarea específica. Frases como "enviar lluvia" o "enviar desastre" significan "causar que ... venga". Este tipo de expresión se usa generalmente en referencia a Dios quien causa estas cosas. El término "enviar" también se usa en expresiones como "enviar palabra" o "enviar un mensaje", que significa dar a alguien un mensaje para que le diga a otra persona. "Enviar" a alguien "con" algo puede significar "dar" esa cosa "a" otra persona, generalmente haciendo que esa person que envía se mueva a cierta distancia para que la otra persona la reciba. *Jesús usa con frecuencia la frase "el que me envió" para referirse a Dios Padre que lo "envió" a la tierra para redimir y salvar a las personas. Esto también podría traducirse como "me encargó", "me hizo venir" o "me designó para ir".

El término "mente" se refiere a la parte de una persona que piensa y toma decisiones.

La mente de cada persona es el total de sus pensamientos y razonamientos. "Tener la mente de Cristo" significa estar pensando y actuando tal como Jesucristo lo haría. Significa ser obediente a Dios el Padre, obedecer las enseñanzas de Cristo, estar capacitado para hacer esto a través del poder del Espíritu Santo. *"Cambiar de opinión" significa que alguien tomó una decisión diferente o tuvo una opinión diferente a la que tenía anteriormente.

Sugerencias de traducción

El término "mente" también podría traducirse como "pensamientos", "razonar", "pensar" o "entender". La expresión "tener en mente" se podría traducir como "recordar", "prestar atención a esto" o "asegúrese de saber esto". La expresión "corazón, alma y mente" también podría traducirse como "lo que sientes, lo que crees y lo que piensas". La expresión "traer a la mente" se podría traducir como "recordar" o "pensar". *La expresión "cambió de opinión y se fue" también se podría traducir como "se decidió de manera diferente y se fue", "después de todo decidió irse " o "cambió de opinión y se fue".

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías en los días de Joacim, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, diciendo: 2 "Ve a la familia de los recabitas y habla con ellos. Entonces tráelos a Mi casa, en uno de los cuartos, y dales vino para beber." 3 Entonces tomé a Jazaanías, hijo de Jeremías, hijo de Habasinías y sus hermanos, a todos sus hijos, y a toda la familia de los recabitas. 4 Yo los llevé a la casa del SEÑOR, a los cuartos de los hijos de Hanán, hijo de Igdalías, el hombre de Dios. Estos cuartos estaban al lado del cuarto de los líderes, que estaba sobre el cuarto de Maasías, hijo de Salum, el guarda de la puerta. 5 Entonces puse envases y copas en frente a los recabitas y les dije: "Beban algo de vino." 6 Pero ellos dijeron: "No beberemos ningún vino, pues nuestro ancestro, Jonadab, hijo de Recab, nos ordenó: 'No beban ningun vino, ni tú ni ninguno de tus descendientes, para siempre. 7 También, no construyan ninguna casa, ni rieguen ninguna semilla, o planten ningunas viñas; esto no es para tí. Pues deben vivir en tiendas todos tus días, para que vivas muchos días en la tierra donde se están quedando como extranjeros.' 8 Nosotros hemos obedecido la voz de Jonadab, hijo de Recab, nuestro ancestro, en todo lo que él nos ordenó, a nunca beber vino en todos nuestros días, nosotros, nuestras esposas, nuestros hijos, y nuestras hijas. 9 Nosotros nunca construiremos casas para vivir, y no habrá viña, campo, o semilla en nuestra posesión. 10 Nosotros hemos vivido en tiendas y hemos obedecido y hecho todo lo que Jonadab, nuestro ancestro, nos ordenó. 11 Pero cuando Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, atacó nuestra tierra, dijimos: 'Vengan, debemos ir a Jerusalén para escapar de los ejércitos de los caldeos y los arameos.' Así estamos viviendo en Jerusalén." 12 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías, diciendo: 13 "SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Ve y dile a los hombres de Judá y a los habitantes de toda Jerusalén, "¿No recibirán ustedes la corrección y escucharán Mis palabras? --esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 14 Las palabras de Jonadab, hijo de Recab, que él le dio a sus hijos como una órden, de que no beban ningún vino, han sido observadas hasta este mismo día. Ellos han obedecido la órden de su ancestro. Pero en cuanto a Mí, Yo mismo les he estado haciendo proclamaciones persistentes a ustedes, pero ustedes no Me han escuchado. 15 Yo les envié a ustedes a todos Mis siervos, los profetas. Yo fui persistente al enviarlos para decirles: 'Que toda persona se vuelva de su mal camino y haga buenas obras; que ninguno camine más tras otros dioses y los adore. En cambio, regresen a la tierra que Yo les di a ustedes y a sus ancestros.' Sin embargo, ustedes no Me escuchan ni Me prestan atención. 16 Pues los descendientes de Jonadab, hijo de Recab, han observado los mandamientos de su ancestro que él les dio, pero este pueblo rehusa escucharme a Mí.'" 17 Así que el SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos y Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Miren, Yo estoy trayendo sobre Judá y sobre todos los habitantes de Jerusalén, todos los desastres que he pronunciado contra ellos porque Yo les hablé, pero ellos no escucharon; Yo los llamé, pero ellos no contestaron.'" 18 Jeremías le dijo a la familia de los recabitas: "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Ustedes han escuchado los mandamientos de Jonadab, su ancestro, y los han obedecido todos-- han obedecido todo lo que él les ordenó hacer-- 19 así que SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Siempre habrá un descendiente de Jonadab, hijo de Recab, que Me sirva.'"

Chapter 36

1 Sucedió en el año cuarto de Joacim, hijo de Josías rey de Judá, que esta palabra vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR, y él dijo: 2 "Toma un rollo para tí mismo y escribe en él todas las palabras que yo te he dicho sobre Israel y Judá, y toda nación. Haz ésto por todo lo que he dicho de estos días de Josías hasta este justo día. 3 Quizás el pueblo de Judá escucharán a todos los desastres que yo intento traerles a ellos. Quizás todos se alejarán de su camino malvado, para que yo pueda perdonar sus iniquidades y sus pecados." 4 Entonces Jeremías llamó a Baruc, hijo de Nerías, y Baruc escribió en un rollo, al dictado de Jeremías, todas las palabras del SEÑOR habladas a él. 5 Después Jeremías dió una orden a Baruc. Él dijo: "Yo estoy en la carcel y no puedo ir a la casa del SEÑOR. 6 Así que tú debes ir y leer desde el rollo que tú escribiste a mi dictado. En el día del ayuno, tú debes leer las palabras del SEÑOR en la audiencia del pueblo en su casa, y también en la audiencia de toda Judá quienes han venido desde sus ciudades. Proclama estas palabras a ellos. 7 Quizás sus ruegos por misericordia vendrán ante el SEÑOR. Quizás cada persona se alejará de su camino malvado, ya que la ira y la furia del SEÑOR que se ha proclamado contra su pueblo es severa." 8 Así que Baruc, hijo de Nerías, hizo todo lo que Jeremías el profeta había mandado a él que hiciera. Él leyó en voz alta las palabras del SEÑOR en la casa del SEÑOR. 9 Sucedió en el año quinto y el mes noveno de Joacim, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, que todo el pueblo en Jerusalén y el pueblo quienes vinieron a Jerusalén desde las ciudades de Judá proclamaron un ayuno en honor al SEÑOR. 10 Baruc leyó en voz alta las palabras de Jeremías en la casa del SEÑOR, desde el cuarto de Gemarías, hijo de Safán el escriba, en el patio superior, por el portón de la entrada de la casa del SEÑOR. Él hizo ésto en la audiencia de todo el pueblo. 11 Ahora Micaías, hijo de Gemarías, hijo de Safán, escuchó todas las palabras del SEÑOR en el rollo. 12 Él fue de la casa del rey, al cuarto del secretario. Mira, todos los oficiales estaban sentados allí: Elisama el secretario, Delaía, hijo de Semaías, Elnatán, hijo de Acbor, Gemarías, hijo de Safán, y Sedequías, hijo de Ananías, y todos los oficiales. 13 Entonces Micaías le informó a ellos todas las palabras que él había escuchado que Baruc leyó a voz alta en la audiencia del pueblo. 14 Así que todos los oficiales enviaron a Jehudí, hijo de Netanías, hijo de Selemías, hijo de Cusi, a Baruc. Jehudí dijo a Baruc: "Toma el rollo en tu mano, el rollo desde el cual tú estabas leyendo en la audiencia del pueblo, y ven." Así que Baruc, hijo de Nerías, tomó el rollo en su mano y fue a los oficiales. 15 Entonces ellos dijeron a él: "Siéntate y lee ésto en nuestra audiencia." Así que Baruc leyó el rollo. 16 Sucedió que cuando ellos escucharon todas estas palabras, cada hombre se volvió atemorizado a quien estaba al lado de él y dijo a Baruc: "Ciertamente debemos informar todas estas palabras al rey." 17 Entonces ellos preguntaron a Baruc: "Dínos, ¿cómo viniste a escribir todas estas palabras a dictado de Jeremías?" 18 Baruc dijo a ellos: "Él me dictó todas estas palabras a mí, y yo lo escribí a tinta en este rollo." 19 Entonces los oficiales dijeron a Baruc: "Ve, escóndete y Jeremías también. No dejes que nadie sepa dónde ustedes están. 20 Así que ellos pusieron el rollo en el cuarto de Elisama, el secretario, y ellos fueron al rey en el patio y ellos informaron todo en la audiencia del rey. 21 Entonces el rey envió a Jehudí a tomar el rollo. Jehudí lo tomó del cuarto de Elisama, el secretario. Entonces él lo leyó en la audiencia del rey y de todos los oficiales quienes estaban parados junto a él. 22 Ahora el rey se estaba quedando en la casa de invierno en el mes noveno, y un brasero se estaba quemando en frente de él. 23 Sucedió que cuando Jehudí leyó tres o cuatro columnas, el rey quería cortarlo con un cuchillo y lo tiró dentro el fuego en el brasero hasta que todo el rollo fue destruido. 24 Pero ni el rey ni los siervos quienes escucharon todas estas palabras estaban asustados, ni rasgaron sus ropas. 25 Elnatán, Delaía y Germarías hasta instaron al rey de no quemar el rollo, pero él no los escuchó. 26 Entonces el rey mandó a Jerameel, un pariente, Seraías, hijo de Azriel, y Selemías, hijo de Abdeel que arrestara a Baruc el escriba y a Jeremías el profeta, pero el SEÑOR lo había escondido. 27 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías después que el rey había quemado el rollo y las palabras que Baruc había escrito al dictado de Jeremías, diciendo: 28 "Vuelve, toma otro rollo para tí, y escribe en él todas las palabras que estaban en el rollo original, el rollo que quemó Joacim, rey de Judá. 29 Entonces tú debes decir ésto a Joacim, rey de Judá: 'Tú quemaste el rollo, diciendo: "¿Porqué tú escribiste en él 'El rey de Babilonia ciertamente vendrá y destruirá esta tierra, ya que él destruirá ambos hombre y la bestia en él'?"'" 30 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice ésto sobre tí, Joacim, rey de Judá: "Ningun descendiente tuyo jamás se sentará en el trono de David. En cuanto a tí, tu cadáver será tirado dentro del calor del día y en el frío del noche. 31 Por que yo voy a castigarte a tí, a tus descendientes y a tus siervos por la iniquidad de todos ustedes. Yo traeré en todos los habitantes de Jerusalén, y a toda persona en Judá todos los desastres con los cuales yo te he amenazado con, pero a lo cuales tú no has prestado atención." 32 Así que Jeremías tomó otro rollo y se lo entregó a Baruc, hijo de Nerías, el escriba. Baruc escribió en él a dictado de Jeremías todas las palabras que estaba en el rollo quemado por Joacim, rey de Judá. Además, muchas otras palabras similares eran añadidas a este rollo.

Chapter 37

1 Ahora, Sedequías hijo de Josías reinaba como rey en lugar de Conías hijo de Joacim. Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, había hecho a Sedequías rey sobre la tierra de Judá. 2 Pero Sedequías, sus siervos, y el pueblo de su tierra no escucharon las palabras del SEÑOR que él proclamó por la mano de Jeremías el profeta. 3 Así que, el rey Sedequías, Jucal hijo de Selemías, y Sofonías hijo de Maasías el sacerdote envió un mensaje a Jeremías el profeta. Ellos dijeron: ''Ora a nuestro favor al SEÑOR nuestro Dios.'' 4 Ahora Jeremías iba y venía entre la gente, porque aún no había sido puesto en prisión. 5 El ejército del faraón vino desde Egipto, y los caldeos quienes estaban sitiando a Jerusalén escucharon las noticias sobre ellos y dejaron Jerusalén. 6 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías el profeta diciendo: 7 "El SEÑOR Dios de Israel, dice esto: Esto es lo que dirán al rey de Judá, porque él les ha enviado a buscar consejo de Mí: ' Miren el ejército de faraón, el cual vino a ayudarte, esta a punto de irse a Egipto, su propia tierra. 8 Los caldeos volverán. Ellos pelearán contra esta ciudad, la capturarán, y la quemarán.' 9 El SEÑOR dice esto: No se engañen ustedes mismos diciendo: ' Seguramente los caldeos nos están dejando. 10 Aún si ustedes derrotaran a todo el ejército de los caldeos que los combaten para que sólo queden hombres heridos en sus tiendas, ellos se levantarán y quemarán estas ciudades.'' 11 Así fue cuando el ejército de los caldeos dejó a Jerusalén mientras el ejército de Faraón venía, 12 entonces, Jeremías salió de Jerusalén para ir a la tierra de Benjamín. Él quería tomar posesión de una zona de tierra entre su pueblo. 13 Mientras él estaba en la puerta de Benjamín, un jefe de la guardia estaba ahí. Su nombre era Irías hijo de Selemías hijo de Hananías. Él agarró a Jeremías el profeta y dijo: ''Tú estás desertando a los caldeos.'' 14 Pero Jeremías dijo: ''Eso no es verdad. Yo no estoy desertando a los caldeos.'' Pero Irías no le escuchó. Él tomó a Jeremías y lo trajo a los oficiales. 15 Los oficiales estaban enojados con Jeremías. Ellos lo golpearon y lo pusieron en prisión, la cual había sido la casa de Jonathan el escriba, pero ellos la habían convertido en prisión. 16 Así que, Jeremías fue puesto en una celda bajo tierra, donde estuvo por muchos días. 17 Entonces, el rey Sedequías envió alguien que lo trajo al palacio. En su casa, el rey le preguntó en privado, ¿Hay alguna palabra de parte del SEÑOR?'' Jeremías le contestó: '' Hay una palabra: Tú serás entregado en la mano del rey de Babilonia.'' 18 Luego Jeremías dijo al rey Sedequías: ''¿Cómo he pecado contra tí, tus siervos, o tu pueblo que me has puesto en prisión? 19 ¿Dónde están tus profetas, aquellos que profetizaban para tí y decían que el rey de Babilonia no vendría contra tí o contra tu tierra? 20 Pero ahora atiende, ¡mi amo el rey! Deja que mis súplicas vengan ante tí. No me regreses a la casa del escriba Jonatán, o yo moriré allí.'' 21 Así que, el rey Sedequías dió una orden. Sus siervos confinaron a Jeremías en el patio de la guardia. Le daban una hogaza de pan cada día de la calle de los panaderos, hasta que el pan de la ciudad se acabó. Así, Jeremías estuvo en el patio de la guardia.

Chapter 38

1 Sefatías, hijo de Matán, Gedalías, hijo de Pasur, Jucal, hijo de Selamías, y Pasur, hijo de Malquías, escucharon las palabras que Jeremías estaba declarando a todo el pueblo. Él estaba diciendo: 2 "El SEÑOR dice esto: "Cualquiera que se quede en esta ciudad será asesinado por la espada, hambruna y plaga. Pero cualquiera que vaya afuera a los caldeos sobrevivirá. Él escapará con su propia vida, y vivirá. 3 El SEÑOR dice esto: Esta ciudad será entregada a la mano del ejército del rey de Babilonia, y él la capturará." 4 Así que, los oficiales le dijeron al rey: "Deja que este hombre muera, pues en esta manera él está debilitando las manos de los hombres luchadores que quedan en esta ciudad, y las manos de todo el pueblo. Él esta proclamando estas palabras, pues este hombre no está trabajando para la seguridad de este pueblo, sino para el desatre. 5 Así que, el rey Zedequías dijo: "Mira, él está en tu mano, ya que no hay rey que pueda resistirte." 6 Luego, ellos tomaron a Jeremías y lo tiraron dentro del pozo de Malaquías, hijo del rey. El pozo estaba en el patio del guardia. Ellos bajaron a Jeremías en cuerdas. No había agua en el pozo, pero estaba fangoso, y él se hundió en el fango. 7 Ahora, Ebed Melec el cusita era uno de los eunucos en la casa del rey. Él escuchó que ellos habían puesto a Jeremías en el pozo. Ahora, el rey estaba sentado en la puerta de Benjamín. 8 Así que, Ebed Melec fue de la casa del rey y habló con el rey. Él dijo: 9 "Mi maestro el rey, estos hombres han hecho mal con el profeta. Ellos lo arrojaron dentro del pozo para que él muriera en el de hambre, ya que no hay más comida en la ciudad." 10 Luego, el rey dio una orden a Ebed Melec el cusita. Él dijo: "Toma el mando de treinta hombres de aquí y saca a Jeremías el profeta del pozo, antes de que se muera." 11 Así que, Ebed Melec tomó el mando de esos hombres y fue a la casa del rey, a un almacén, por ropa, debajo de la casa. De ahí el tomó unos trapos, y ropa usada y luego las bajo con cuerdas a Jeremías en la cisterna. 12 Ebed Melec el cusita le dijo a Jeremías: "Pon los trapos y la ropa usada debajo de tus brazos y encima de las cuerdas." Así que, Jeremías lo hizo. 13 Luego ellos halaron a Jeremías por las cuerdas. De esta manera, ellos sacaron de la cisterna. Así que, Jeremías se quedó en el patio del guardia. 14 Luego, el rey Zedequías envío un mensaje y trajo a Jeremías el profeta a sí mismo, a la tercera entrada en la casa del SEÑOR. El rey le dijo a Jeremías: "Quiero preguntarte algo. No guardes la respuesta de mí." 15 Jeremías le dijo a Zedequías: "Si te respondo, ¿ciertamente me matarás? Pero si te doy un consejo, tu no me escucharás." 16 Pero el rey Zedequías le juró a Jeremías en privado y dijo: "Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive, Aquel que nos hizo, yo no te mataré o te daré a la mano de esos hombre que están buscando tu vida." 17 Así que, Jeremías le dijo a Zedequías: "El SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Si tú, ciertamente, sales con los oficiales del rey de Babilonia entonces vivirás, y esta ciudad no será quemada. Tú y tu familia vivirán. 18 Pero si tú no sales con los oficiales del rey de Babilonia, entonces esta ciudad será entregada a las manos de los caldeos. Ellos la quemarán y tú no escaparás de su mano." 19 El rey Zedequías le dijo a Jeremías: "Pero yo tengo miedo del pueblo de Judá, quienes se han desertado a los caldeos, porque yo quizás seré entregado a su mano, para que ellos me traten mal. 20 Jeremías dijo: "No te entregarán a ellos. Obedece el mensaje del SEÑOR que yo te estoy diciendo, para que las cosas vayan bien para tí, y para que puedas vivir. 21 Pero si tú te rehúsas a salir, esto es lo que el SEÑOR me ha mostrado." 22 ¡Mira! Todas las mujeres que quedan en tu casa, rey de Judá, serán llevadas a los oficiales del rey de Babilonia. Estas mujeres te dirán a ti: 'Tu has sido engañado por tus amigos; ellos te han arruinado. Tus pies ahora están hundidos en el fango, y tus amigos correrán.' 23 Pues, todas tus esposas e hijos serán llevados a los caldeos, y tú mismo no escaparás de su mano. Tú serás capturado por la mano del rey de Babilonia, y esta ciudad será quemada. 24 Luego, Zedequías le dijo a Jeremías: "No le informes a nadie de estas palabras, para que tú no mueras. 25 Si los oficiales oyen que he hablado contigo, y si ellos vienen y te dicen: 'Dinos que le dijiste al rey y no lo escondas de nosotros o te mataremos.' 26 entonces debes decirles: 'Yo hice una humilde súplica ante el rey, para que el no me entregara a la casa de Jonatán para morir allí."' 27 Luego, todos los oficiales vinieron a Jeremías y lo interrogaron, para que el respondiera como el rey le había instruído. Así que, ellos dejaron de hablar con el, porque ellos no habían escuchado la conversación entre Jeremías y el rey. 28 Así que, Jeremías se mantuvo en el patio del guardia hasta el día que Jerusalén fue capturada.

Chapter 39

1 En el noveno año y décimo mes de Sedequías rey de Judá, Nabucodonosor el rey de Babilonia vino con todo su ejército en contra de Jerusalén y la sitiaron. 2 En el undécimo año y el cuarto mes de Sedeqías, en el noveno día del mes, la ciudad fue invadida. 3 Entonces todos los oficiales del rey de Babilonia vineron y se sentaron en la puerta central: Nergal Sarezel, Sambar Nebo, Sarse Quim y un importante oficial. Nergal Sarezel era un alto oficial y todos los demás eran oficiales del reino de Babilonia. 4 Aconteció que cuando Sedequías, rey de Judá, y todos sus hombres de guerra los vieron, ellos escaparon. Ellos salieron de noche de la ciudad por el camino de los jardines del rey, por las puertas entre las dos paredes. El rey salió en dirección al Arabá. 5 Pero el ejército de los caldeos los persiguieron y capturaron a Sedequías en los llanos de Jordán, un Valle del río cerca de Jericó. Entonces lo capturaron y lo trajeron ante Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, en Ribla en la tierra de Hamat, donde Nabucodonosor pasó sentencia sobre él. 6 El rey de Babilonia degolló a los hijos de Sadequías ante sus propios ojos en Ribla. El también degolló a todos los hombres nobles de Judá. 7 Después le sacó los ojos a Sedequías y lo ató con cadenas de bronce de manera que lo pudiera llevar a Babilonia. 8 Después los Caldeos quemaron la casa del rey y las casas del pueblo. Tambien derribaron las paredes de Jerusalen. 9 Nabuzaradán, el capitán de la guardia del rey, llevó cautivo al resto de la gente que quedaron en la ciudad. Esto incluía a la gente que desertaron hacia los Caldeos y al resto de la gente que quedaron en la ciudad. 10 Pero Nabusaradán el capitán de la guardia del rey le permitió a la gente más pobre que no tenían nada para sí mismos, que se quedaran en la tierra de Judá. Les dió viñedos y campos ese mismo día. 11 Nabucodonosor el rey de Babilonia había dado una orden sobre Jeremías a Nabuzaradán el comandante de la guardia del rey. Él le dijo: 12 "Tómalo y cuídalo. No le hagas daño. Has cualquier cosa que te pida." 13 Así que Nabuzaradán el comandante de la guardia del rey, Nebusazbán el alto eunúco, Nergal Sarezer el alto oficial, y todos los oficiales más importantes del rey de Babilonia enviaron a sus hombres. 14 Sus hombres cogieron a Jeremías del patio de la guardia y lo pusieron al cuidado de Gedalías hijo de Ahicam, hijo de Safán, para que lo llevara a su casa, así Jeremías se quedó junto al pueblo. 15 Ahora la voz del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías mientras el se encontraba arrestado en el patio de la guardia, diciendo, 16 Háblale a Ebed Melec el cusita y dile: El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Mira, Yo estoy a punto de llevar acabo mis palabras en contra de esta ciudad, para traer desastre y no para su bien. Así se llevará acabo ante ti en ese día. 17 Pero Yo te rescataré en ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y no serás entregado en manos de los hombres a quienes les temes. 18 Pues ciertamente Yo te recataré. Tú no caerás a espada. Tú escaparás con vida, puesto que has confiado en Mí, esta fue la declaración del SEÑOR.'"

Chapter 40

1 La palabra vino a Jeremías del SEÑOR luego que Nabuzaradán el comandante de los guardaespaldas del rey lo había liberado en Rama. Él había encontrado a Jeremías atado con cadenas entre todos los cautivos de Jerusalén y Judá quienes estaban siendo llevados al exilio a Babilonia. 2 El jefe de la guardia se llevó a Jeremías y le dijo: "El SEÑOR tu Dios decretó este desastre para este lugar. 3 Así que, el SEÑOR lo trajo a cumplimiento. Él hizo así como había decretado, ya que ustedes pecaron en contra de Él y no obedecieron Su voz. Esta es la razon por que les ha sucedido esto a ustedes. 4 ¡Pero ahora mira! Yo te he liberado hoy de las cadenas que estaban en tus manos. Si está bien a tus ojos venir a Babilonia conmigo, ven, y yo cuidaré de ti. Pero si no está bien en tus ojos venir conmigo a Babilonia, entonces no lo hagas. Mira a toda la tierra ante ti. Ve donde sea bueno y correcto ante tus ojos ir." 5 Cuando Jeremías no respondió, Nabuzaradán dijo: "Ve donde Gedalías hijo de Ahicam hijo de Safán, a quien el rey de Babilonia ha puesto a cargo de las ciudades de Judá. Quédate con él entre la gente o ve donde sea bueno a tus ojos ir." El comandante de los guardaespaldas del rey le dio comida y un regalo, y luego lo envió. 6 Así que, Jeremías fue a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam a Mizpa. Se quedó con él entre la gente que quedó atrás en la tierra. 7 Ahora algunos comandantes de soldados judíos quienes estaban aún en el campo -- ellos y sus hombres -- escucharon que el rey de Babilonia había hecho a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam, gobernador sobre la tierra. Ellos también escucharon que él lo puso a cargo de los hombres, mujeres, y niños quienes eran la gente más pobre en la tierra, aquellos quienes no habían sido exiliados a Babilonia. 8 Así que, ellos fueron a Gedalías en Mizpa. Estos hombres eran Ismael hijo de Netanías; Johanán y Jonatán, hijos de Carea; Seraías hijo de Tanhumet; los hijos de Efai netofatita; y Jezanías hijo del maacateo -- ellos y sus hombres. 9 Gedalías hijo de Ahicam hijo de Safán les hizo un juramente a ellos y sus hombres diciendo: "No tengan miedo servir a los oficiales caldeos. Vivan en la tierra y sirvan al rey de Babilonia, y les irá bien a ustedes. 10 Miren, yo estoy viviendo en Mizpa para encontrarme con los caldeos quienes vinieron a nosotros. Así que, cosechen vino, frutas de verano, y aceite y guárdenlo en sus contenedores. Vivan en las ciudades que ustedes han ocupado." 11 Entonces, todos los judíos en Moab, entre la gente de Amón, y en Edom, y en cada tierra escucharon que el rey de Babilonia había permitido un remanente de Judá a quedarse, que él había designado a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam hijo de Safán sobre ellos. 12 Así que, todos los judíos regresaron desde cada lugar donde ellos habían sido esparcidos. Ellos volvieron a la tierra de Judá, a Gedalías en Mizpa. Ellos cosecharon vino y fruta de verano en gran abundancia. 13 Johanán hijo de Carea y todos los comandantes del ejército en el campo vinieron a Gedalías en Mizpa. 14 Ellos le dijeron a él: "¿Te has dado cuenta que Baalis rey del pueblo de Amón envió a Ismael hijo de Netanías a matarte?" Pero Gedalías hijo de Ahicam no les creyó. 15 Así que, Johanan hijo de Carea habló privadamente a Gedalías en Mizpa y dijo: "Permíteme ir a matar a Ismael hijo de Netanías. Nadie sospechará de mí. ¿Por qué él debería matarte? ¿Por qué permitir que toda Judá que ha sido reunida contigo sea esparcida y el remanente de Judá destruido?" 16 Pero Gedalías hijo de Ahicam dijo a Johanán hijo de Carea: "No hagas esta cosa, ya que tú estás diciendo mentiras de Ismael."

1 Pero ocurrió que en el séptimo mes Ismael hijo de Netanías hijo de Elisama, de la familia real, y algunos oficiales del rey, vinieron-- diez hombres estaban con él-- hacia Gedalías hijo de Ahicam, en Mizpa. Ellos comieron juntos allí en Mizpa. 2 Pero Ismael hijo de Netanías, y los diez hombres que estaban con él se levantaron y atacaron a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam hijo de Safán, con la espada. Ismael mató a Gedalías, a quien el rey de Babilonia había puesto a cargo de la tierra. 3 Entonces Ismael mató a todos los judíos que estaban con Gedalías en Mizpa y los guerreros Caldeos que se encontraban allí. 4 Entonces era el segundo día luego del asesinato de Gedalías, pero nadie lo sabía. 5 Algunos hombres vinieron desde Siquem, desde Silo y desde Samaria-- ochenta hombres que se habían afeitado las barbas, roto sus vestiduras y se habían cortado ellos mismos-- con ofrendas de comida e incienso en sus manos para ir a la casa del SEÑOR. 6 Así que Ismael hijo de Netanías salió de Mizpa para encontrarlos mientras ellos iban, caminando y llorando. Luego ocurrió que cuando se encontró con ellos, él les dijo, "¡Vengan a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam! 7 Ocurrió que cuando ellos vinieron a la ciudad, Ismael hijo de Netanías los masacró y los arrojó a un pozo, él y los hombres que estaban con él. 8 Pero habían diez hombres en medio de ellos que le dijeron a Ismael, "No nos mates, pues hay provisiones de nosotros en un campo; trigo y cebada, aceite y miel." Así que él no los mató con sus otros compañeros. 9 La cisterna en donde Ismael tiró todos los cuerpos muertos que él había matado, era una cisterna grande que el rey Asa excavó para defenderse en contra del rey Baasa de Israel. Ismael hijo de Netanías la llenó con los muertos. 10 Luego Ismael capturó todas las otras personas que estaban en Mizpa, las hijas del rey y todas las personas que dejaron en Mizpa quien Nabuzaradán el jefe de guardia había asignado a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam. Así que Ismael hijo de Netanías los capturó y fue a cruzar hacia el pueblo de Amón. 11 Pero Jonanán hijo de Carea y todos los comandantes del ejército con él escucharon de todo el daño que Ismael hijo de Netanías había hecho. 12 Así que tomaron todos sus hombres y fueron a luchar en contra de Ismael hijo de Netanías. Ellos lo encontraron en el gran estanque de Gabaón. 13 Entonces sucedió que cuando todas las personas que estaban con Ismael vieron a Jonanán hijo de Carea y todos los comandantes del ejército que estaban con él, ellos estaban bien felices. 14 Así que todas las personas que Ismael había capturado en Mizpa se volteraron y fueron a Jonanán hijo de Carea. 15 Pero Ismael hijo de Netanías huyó con ocho hombres de Jonanán. Él se fue al pueblo de Amón. 16 Jonanán hijo de Carea y todos los comandantes del ejército que estaban con él tomaron de Mizpa a todas las personas que habían sido rescatados de Ismael hijo de Netanías. Esto fue luego de que Ismael hubiera asesinado a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam. Jonanán y sus compañeros tomaron a los hombres fuertes, los hombres de guerra, las mujeres y los niños, y los eunucos que habían sido rescatados en Gabaón. 17 Entonces ellos se fueron y se quedaron por un tiempo en Gerut Quimam, lo cual está cerca de Belén. Ellos iban a ir a Egipto 18 por causa de los Caldeos. Ellos le tenían miedo desde que Ismael hijo de Netanías había asesinado a Gedalías hijo de Ahicam, quien el rey de Babilonia había puesto a cargo de la tierra.

1 Entonces todos los comandantes del ejército y Johanán, hijo de Carea, Jezanías, hijo de Osaías, y todas las personas desde el menor hasta el mayor se acercaron a Jeremías el profeta. 2 Ellos le dijeron a él: "Permite que nuestras súplicas vengan ante ti. Ora por nosotros al SEÑOR tu Dios por esta gente que permanece ya que somos tan pocos en número, como puedes ver. 3 Pídele al SEÑOR tu Dios que nos diga hacia dónde debemos ir y qué debemos hacer." 4 Así que Jeremías el profeta les dijo a ellos: "Los he escuchado. Miren, le oraré al SEÑOR su Dios como lo han pedido. Lo que sea que el SEÑOR conteste, se lo diré. No retendré nada de ustedes." 5 Ellos le dijeron a Jeremías: "Ojalá y el SEÑOR sea un verdadero y fiel testigo en contra de nosotros, si nosotros no hacemos todo lo que el SEÑOR tu Dios nos diga que hagamos. 6 Sea algo bueno o malo, nosotros obedeceremos la voz del SEÑOR nuestro Dios, a Quien te estamos enviando, para que nos vaya bien cuando obedezcamos la voz del SEÑOR nuestro Dios." 7 Al final de diez días, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jeremías. 8 Así que Jeremías llamó a Johanán, hijo de Carea y a todos los comandantes del ejército con él, y a toda la gente desde el menor hasta el mayor. 9 Entonces él le dijo a ellos: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel - a quien ustedes me enviaron para yo poder plantearle sus súplicas ante Él - dice: 10 'Si ustedes vuelven y viven en esta tierra, entonces yo los edificaré y no los derribaré; Yo los sembraré y no los sacaré, pues Yo alejaré el desastre que Yo he traído sobre ustedes. 11 No le teman al rey de Babilonia, a quien ustedes están temiendo. No le teman - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR - ya que Yo estoy con ustedes para salvarlos y para rescatarlos de su mano. 12 Pues Yo les daré misericordia. Yo tendré compasión de ustedes, y Yo los regresaré a su tierra. 13 Pero supongamos que ustedes digan: "No nos quedaremos en esta tierra" - si ustedes no escuchan Mi voz, la voz del SEÑOR su Dios. 14 Supongamos que ustedes digan: "¡No! Nosotros iremos a la tierra de Egipto, donde no veremos ninguna guerra, donde no oiremos el sonido de la trompeta, y no tendremos hambre. Nosotros viviremos allí." 15 Ahora escuchen esta palabra del SEÑOR, ustedes, remanente de Judá. El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Si ustedes realmente se van hacia Egipto, para ir a vivir allí, 16 entonces la espada a la que temen los derrotará allá en la tierra de Egipto. La hambruna por la cual se preocupan los perseguirá hasta Egipto, y morirán allí. 17 Así acontecerá que todos los hombres que se vayan a Egipto para vivir allí morirán por espada, hambruna, o plaga. No habrá sobreviviente de ellos, nadie para escapar el desastre que traeré sobre ellos. 18 Pues el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Así como Mi ira y Mi furia fueron derramadas sobre los habitantes de Jerusalén, de la misma manera Mi furia será derramada sobre ustedes si se van a Egipto. Se convertirán en un objeto de maldición y horror, un objeto para hablar maldiciones, y algo deshonroso, y no volverán a ver este lugar.'" 19 Entonces Jeremías dijo: "El SEÑOR ha hablado concerniente a ustedes - el remanente de Judá. ¡No vayan a Egipto! Ustedes ciertamente saben que yo he sido un testigo en contra de ustedes hoy. 20 Pues ustedes se engañaron fatalmente cuando me enviaron al SEÑOR su Dios y dijeron: 'Ora al SEÑOR nuestro Dios por nosotros. Todo lo que el SEÑOR diga, dinos, y nosotros lo llevaremos a cabo.' 21 Pues yo me he reportado a ustedes hoy, pero ustedes no han escuchado la voz del SEÑOR su Dios ni de nada de lo cual Él me envió a ustedes. 22 Así que ahora, ustedes saben ciertamente que morirán por espada, hambruna y plaga en el lugar a donde quisieron ir a vivir."

Chapter 43

1 Sucedió que Jeremías terminó de proclamar a todo el pueblo todas las palabras de el SEÑOR su Dios que el SEÑOR su Dios le dijo a él que dijera. 2 Azarías, hijo de Osaías, Johanán, hijo de Carea, y todos los hombres arrogantes le dijeron a Jeremías: "Tú estás diciendo mentiras. El SEÑOR nuestro Dios no te ha enviado a decir: 'No vayan a Egipto para vivir ahí.' 3 Sino que Baruc, hijo de Nerías, te esta incitando a ti contra nosotros para llevarnos a la mano de los caldeos, para que tú causes nuestra muerte y hacernos cautivos en Babilonia." 4 Así que, Johanán, hijo de Carea, todos los príncipes del ejército, y todo el pueblo se rehusó a escuchar la voz del SEÑOR para vivir en la tierra de Judá. 5 Johanán, hijo de Carea y todos los comandantes del ejército se llevaron todo el remanente de Judá que había regresado de todas las naciones que ellos habían sido dispersados para vivir en la tierra de Judá. 6 Ellos tomaron a los hombres y las mujeres, los niños y las hijas de los reyes, y toda persona que Nabuzaradán, el comandante de los guardaespaldas del rey, habían dejado permanecer con Gedalías, hijo de Ajicán, hijo de Safán. Ellos también se llevaron a Jeremías el profeta y Baruc, hijo de Nerías. 7 Ellos fueron a la tierra de Egipto, a Tafnes, porque ellos no escucharon la voz de el SEÑOR. 8 Así que, la palabra de el SEÑOR vino a Jeremías en Tafnes, diciendo: 9 "Toma algunas piedras grandes en tu mano, y a la vista del pueblo de Judá, escóndelas en el cemento en el pavimento a la entrada de la casa del Faraón en Tafnes." 10 Luego, diles a ellos: "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Mira, Yo estoy a punto de enviar mensajeros para que traigan a Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, como mi sirviente. Yo pondré su trono sobre estas piedras que tú, Jeremías, has enterrado. Nabucodonosor pondrá su pabellón sobre ellas. 11 Porque él vendrá a atacar la tierra de Egipto. Quien sea asignado a la muerte será entregado a la muerte. Quien sea asignado a la cautividad será llevado cautivo. Quien sea asignado a la espada se dará a la espada. 12 Entonces Yo encenderé un fuego en el templo de los dioses de Egipto. Nabucodonosor los quemará o los capturará. Chapter 44

1 La palabra que vino a Jeremías en cuanto a todos los judíos que vivían en la tierra de Egipto, los que se quedaban en Migdol, Tafnes, Menfis y en la tierra de Patros. 2 "El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: Ustedes mismos han visto todos los desastres que Yo he traído sobre Jerusalén y todas las ciudades de Judá. Miren, están en ruinas hoy. No hay nadie que viva en ellas. 3 Esto es por las cosas maliciosas que ellos hicieron para ofenderme al ir a quemar incienso y adorar otros dioses. Estos eran dioses que ni ellos mismos, ni ustedes, ni sus antepasados conocieron. 4 Así que Yo repetidamente envié a todos Mis siervos los profetas a ellos. Los envié a decir: 'Dejen de hacer estas cosas abominables que Yo odio.' 5 Pero ellos no escucharon. Ellos se rehusaron a prestar atención o a alejarse de su maldad al quemar incienso a otros dioses. 6 Así que Mi furia y Mi ira fue derramada y encendió un fuego en las ciudades de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén. Así ellos se volvieron ruinas y devastación, como en este tiempo presente." 7 Entonces, ahora el SEÑOR, el Dios de los ejércitos y el Dios de Israel, dice esto: "¿Por qué ustedes están haciendo gran maldad en contra de ustedes mismos? ¿Por qué están ustedes mismos haciendo que sean cortados de entre Judá, hombres, mujeres, niños y bebés? Ningún remanente de ustedes quedará vivo. 8 Por su maldad ustedes me han ofendido con la obra de sus manos, al quemar incienso a otros dioses en la tierra de Egipto, a donde se han ido a vivir. Ustedes han ido ahí para ser destruídos, para ser una maldición y una decepción entre todas las naciones de la tierra. 9 ¿Han olvidado la maldad cometida por sus ancestros y la maldad cometida por los reyes de Judá y sus esposas? ¿Han olvidado la maldad cometida por ustedes mismos y sus esposas en la tierra de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén? 10 Hasta este día, ellos aún no son humillados. Ellos no honran Mi Ley o decretos que Yo pongo ante ellos y sus ancestros, ni caminan en ellos." 11 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: "Miren, Y estoy a punto de poner Mi rostro en contra de ustedes para traerles desastre y destruir a toda Judá. 12 Pues Yo tomaré el remanente de Judá que se ha propuesto salir a la tierra de Egipto para vivir allí. Yo lo haré para que todos ellos perezcan en la tierra de Egipto. Ellos caerán por la espada y la hambruna. Desde el más pequeño hasta el más grande, ellos perecerán por la espada y la hambruna. Ellos morirán y se convertirán en objeto de insultos, maldición, decepción y cosa horrible. 13 Pues Yo castigaré a la gente habitando en la tierra de Egipto tal como Yo castigué a Jerusalén con la espada, la hambruna y la plaga. 14 Ni fugitivo ni sobreviviente del remanente de Judá quienes van a vivir allí en la tierra de Egipto regresará a la tierra de Judá, aunque ellos quieran regresar y vivir ahí. Ninguno de ellos regresará, excepto por unos pocos quienes escaparán de ahí." 15 Entonces, todos los hombres que sabían que sus esposas estaban quemando incienso a los otros dioses, y todas las mujeres que estaban en la gran asamblea, y toda la gente que estaba viviendo en la tierra de Egipto en Patros le respondió a Jeremías. 16 Ellos dijeron: "Sobre la palabra que no has dicho en nombre del SEÑOR--no te escucharemos a ti. 17 Porque nosotros ciertamente haremos todas las cosas que decimos que haremos--quemarle incienso a la reina del cielo y derramar ofrendas de bebidas a ella tal como nosotros, nuestros ancestros, nuestros reyes y nuestros líderes hicieron en las ciudades de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén. Entonces nosotros nos llenaremos de comida y prospéraremos, sin experimentar ningún desastre. 18 Cuando nosotros nos negamos de hacer estas cosas, el no ofrecerle incienso a la reina del cielo y no derramarle ofrenda de bebida a ella, nosotros estabamos sufriendo de pobreza y estabamos muriendo por la espada y la hambruna. 19 Las mujeres dijeron: "Cuando estabamos haciendo estas cosas ante la reina del cielo y derramando ofrenda de bebida a ella, ¿Fue en contra de nuestros esposos que nosotras hicimos estas cosas, haciendo pasteles a imagen de ella y derramando ofrenda de bebida a ella?" 20 Entonces, Jeremías le dijo a toda el pueblo, a los hombres y a las mujeres, y a toda la gente que le respondió a él, él proclamó y dijo: 21 "¿Acaso el SEÑOR no se acordó del incienso que ustedes quemaron en las ciudades de Judá y en las calles de Jerusalén--ustedes y sus ancestros, sus reyes y sus líderes, y la gente de la tierra? Porque el SEÑOR se recuerda; eso viene a Sus pensamientos. 22 Entonces, Él ya no era capaz de resistir por las prácticas malignas, por la abominación que ustedes hicieron. Entonces, su tierra se volvió una desolación, un horror, una maldición para que no hubiera ya un habitante como en ese día presente. 23 Porque ustedes quemaron incienso y pecaron en contra del SEÑOR, y porque no escucharon Su voz, Su Ley, Sus estatutos, o los decretos de Su pacto, este desastre en contra de ustedes ha pasado hasta este día presente." 24 Entonces, Jeremías le dijo a toda la gente y a todas las mujeres: "Escuchen la palabra del Señor, toda Judá que está en la tierra de Egipto. 25 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: 'Ustedes y sus esposas, ambos han dicho con sus bocas y hecho con sus manos lo que dicen: "Nosotros ciertamente cumpliremos los votos que hicimos para adorar a la reina del cielo, de derramar ofrenda de bebida e ella." Ahora, lleven a cabo sus votos; cúmplanlos.' 26 Pues, entonces, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR, toda Judá que se está quedando en la tierra de Egipto: 'Miren, Yo he jurado por Mi gran nombre--dice el SEÑOR. Mi nombre ya no será llamado de las bocas de ninguno de los hombres de Judá en toda la tierra de Egipto, ustedes quienes ahora dicen: "Yo declaro, tan cierto como el SEÑOR vive. 27 "Miren, Yo estoy mirando sobre ellos para el desastre y no para bien. Cada persona de Judá en la tierra de Egipto perecerá por la espada y la hambruna hasta que todos se hayan acabado. 28 Entonces los sobrevivientes de la espada regresarán de la tierra de Egipto a la tierra de Judá, solo un pequeño número de ellos. Así que todos los remanentes de Judá que fueron a vivir a la tierra de Egipto sabrán cual palabra se hará realidad: la Mía o la de ellos. 29 Esto será una señal para ustedes--ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR--que Yo me estoy preparando en este lugar en contra de ustedes, así ustedes sabrán que Mis palabras ciertamente los atacarán a ustedes con desastre. 30 El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Miren, estoy a punto de entregar al faraón Hofra, rey de Egipto, en la mano de sus enemigos y en la mano de esos que buscan matarlo. Será lo mismo que cuando entregué a Sedequías, rey de Judá, en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, su enemigo que buscó su vida.'"

1 Esta es la palabra que Jeremías el profeta le dijo a Baruc hijo de Nerías. Esto ocurrió cuando él escribió en un rollo estas palabras en el dictado de Jeremías, este era el cuarto año de Joacim, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá, y él dijo: 2 "El SEÑOR, Dios de Israel, te dice esto a tí, Baruc: 3 Tú has dicho: '¡Ay de mí! Pues el SEÑOR ha sumado agonía a mi dolor. Mis gemidos me han cansado; yo no encuentro descanso.' 4 Esto es lo que tú debes decirle a él: "El SEÑOR dice esto: Mira, lo que Yo construí, ahora lo estoy derribando. Lo que Yo planté, ahora estoy arrancando, Yo haré esto a través de toda la Tierra. 5 ¿Pero esperas por grandes cosas para ti? No esperes por eso. Pues, verás, el desastre viene a toda la humanidad, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, pero Yo te estoy dando tu vida como tu botín donde quiera que vayas."

Chapter 46

1 Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Jeremías el profeta concerniente a las naciones. 2 Para Egipto:
"Esto es acerca del ejército del Faraón Necao, rey de Egipto, que estuvo en Carquemis al lado del Río Eufrates. Este fue el ejército que Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, derrotó en el cuarto año de Joacim, hijo de Josías, rey de Judá: 3 Preparen los escudos pequeños y los escudos grandes, y vayan a pelear. 4
Pongan el arnés sobre los caballos; móntense sobre los caballos y tomen su posición con sus cascos puestos; pulan las espadas y pónganse su armadura. 5 ¿Qué estoy viendo aquí? Ellos están llenos de terror y están huyendo, pues sus soldados están derrotados. Están corriendo para asegurarse y no están mirando para atrás. El terror está todo alrededor, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, 6 los rápidos no pueden huir, y los soldados no pueden escapar. Ellos tambalean en el norte y caen al lado del Río Eufrates. 7 ¿Quién es éste que sube como el Nilo, cuyas aguas se mecen arriba y abajo como los ríos? 8 Egipto sube como el Nilo, como los ríos de agua que suben y bajan. Egipto dice: 'Yo subiré y cubriré la tierra. Yo destruiré ciudades y sus habitantes. 9 Suban, caballos. Enójense, ustedes carros. Dejen que salgan los soldados, Cus y Put, hombres diestros con un escudo y Lud, hombres diestros doblando sus arcos.' 10 Ese día será el día de la venganza para el SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, y Él se vengará de Sus enemigos. La espada devorará y quedará satisfecha. Beberá hasta saciarse de la sangre de ellos. Pues habrá un sacrificio al SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos en la tierra del norte al lado del Río Eufrates. 11 Sube a Galaad, y obtén medicina, hija virgen de Egipto. Es inútil que te pongas mucha medicina sobre ti misma.
No hay remedio para ti. 12 Las naciones han oído de tu desgracia. La tierra está llena de tus lamentos, pues un soldado tropieza contra otro soldado, ambos se caen juntos." 13 Esta es la palabra que el SEÑOR le dijo a Jeremías el profeta cuando Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, vino y atacó la tierra de Egipto. 14
"Anuncien en Egipto, y proclamen en Migdol, Menfis y Tafnes. 'Tomen su posición y prepárense, pues la espada devorará a los que están alrededor tuyo.' 15 ¿Por qué están sus poderosos de cara al suelo? Ellos no se pondrán de pie porque Yo, el SEÑOR, los he empujado al suelo. 16 Él aumenta el número de aquellos que tambalean. Cada soldado cae contra el próximo. Ellos están diciendo: 'Levántense. Vayamos a casa. Regresemos a nuestra propia gente, a nuestra tierra natal. Abandonemos esta espada que nos está oprimiendo.' 17 Ellos prolamaron allí: 'Faraón, el rey de Egipto es solo un ruido, uno que ha dejado que su oportunidad se le escape.' 18 "Así como vivo Yo," declara el Rey, cuyo nombre es el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, alguien vendrá como el Monte Tabor y el Monte Carmelo a la orilla del mar. 19 Preparen para ustedes mismos equipaje para llevar al exilio, ustedes que viven en Egipto. Porque Menfis se convertirá en desolación, yacerá en ruinas y nadie vivirá allí. 20 Egipto es una joven vaca muy hermosa, pero un insecto punzante viene del norte. Viene. 21 Los soldados mercenarios en medio de ella son como un toro engordado, pero ellos también virarán y huirán. No se pondrán de pie juntos, pues el día de su desastre viene contra ellos, el tiempo de su castigo. 22 Egipto sisea como una serpiente y huye deslizándose, pues sus enemigos están marchando contra ella. Ellos van hacia ella como leñadores con hachas. 23 Ellos talarán los bosques, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, aunque es muy denso. Pues los enemigos serán más numerosos que langostas, sin poder ser contados. 24 La hija de Egipto será avergonzada. Ella será entregada en la mano de gente del norte." 25 SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, dice: "Miren, estoy a punto de castigar a Amón de Tebas, Faraón, Egipto y sus dioses, sus reyes los Faraones, y aquellos que confían en ellos. 26 Yo los estoy entregando en la mano de los que están buscando las vidas de ellos, y en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia y sus sirvientes. Entonces luego de esto, Egipto será habitada como en días anteriores, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 27 Pero tú, mi siervo Jacob, no temas. No desmayes, Israel, pues mira, Yo estoy a punto de traerte de regreso desde lejos, y a tus hijos desde la tierra de su cautiverio. Entonces Jacob regresará, encontrará paz, y estará seguro, y no habrá nadie que lo terrorice. 28 Tú, mi siervo, Jacob, no temas, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, porque Yo estoy contigo, así que traeré destrucción completa en contra de las naciones donde Yo te dispercé. Pero Yo no te destruiré completamente. Mas Yo te disciplinaré justamente y de seguro no te dejaré sin castigo.

Jeremiah 46:1

Para Egipto
Esta frase indica que este mensaje está dirigido a la nación de Egipto.

Carquemis
Carquemis es una ciudad ubicada en la orilla oeste del río Éufrates.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

arnés
Esto significa preparar un caballo para que tire de un carro de guerra con dos ruedas.

cascos
Un casco es una armadura que protege la cabeza en la batalla.

pulan las espadas
Esta frase significa "afilar" la lanza.

Jeremiah 46:5

Información General:
La visión de Jeremías sobre Egipto continúa.

¿Qué estoy viendo aquí?
La palabra "estoy" se refiere al Señor. Él hace esta pregunta sarcástica para enfatizar que lo que él ha dicho sobre la nación de Egipto se hizo realidad.

los rápidos no pueden huir, y los soldados no pueden escapar Estas dos frases comparten significados similares y enfatizan que nadie, ni siquiera el más fuerte ni el más rápido, puede escapar. Traducción Alterna: "incluso el soldado más veloz no puede escapar"

Jeremiah 46:7

Información General:
Jeremías continúa citando la declaración de Jehová sobre la nación de Egipto.

¿Quién es éste que sube como el Nilo?
Traducción Alterna: "Egipto se levanta como el río Nilo". El Señor hace esta pregunta para llamar la atención del oyente sobre la nación de Egipto.

Egipto sube como el Nilo
El ejército de Egipto está siendo comparado con la destrucción causada por las inundaciones del río Nilo.

Egipto dice
Aquí la nación de Egipto habla como si fuera una persona.

Yo subiré y cubriré la tierra. Yo destruiré ciudades y sus habitantes
"Yo" es la nación de Egipto que declara con orgullo que sus ejércitos destruirán la tierra como un diluvio.

Suban, caballos. Enójense, ustedes carros
El Señor manda a los caballos y a los carros como si fueran personas. Tanto las palabras "caballos" como "carros" se refieren a partes de carros en batalla. Estas frases están ordenando a los conductores de los carros que se carguen en la batalla.

Cus ... Put ... Lud
Estos son nombres bíblicos de los países de Etiopía, Libia y Lydia.

doblando sus arcos
Esta frase significa usar el arco tirando la cuerda hacia atrás con una flecha.

Jeremiah 46:10

Información General:
La cita de Jeremías sobre la declaración de Jehová con respecto a la nación de Egipto continúa.

Ese día
Esta frase se refiere al día en que los egipcios pierden la batalla contra los babilonios.

sus enemigos
Esta frase se refiere a los enemigos del Señor.

La espada devorará y quedará satisfecha. Beberá hasta saciarse de la sangre de ellos Aquí la espada está comiendo como lo haría una persona. Ambas frases dicen algo similar y se combinan para enfatizar que habrá una destrucción completa.

La espada devorará
La palabra "espada" aquí representa al ejército de la nación de Babilonia.

un sacrificio al SEÑOR Dios
El "sacrificio" aquí se refiere a la nación de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "Egipto será un sacrificio para el Señor Jehová".

Jeremiah 46:11

Información General:
El Señor termina con la declaración sobre Egipto.

hija virgen de Egipto Traducción Alterna: "La gente virgen de Egipto"

desgracia
Esta palabra se refiere a una condición de vergüenza o pérdida de respeto.

La tierra está llena de tus lamentos
Traducción Alterna: "Todos pueden oír tu llanto"

Jeremiah 46:13

Migdol ... Menfis ... Tafnes
Estas son importantes ciudades militares en Egipto. Menfis fue la capital de Egipto.

la espada está devorando a todos los que están alrededor tuyo La palabra "espada" aquí representa al ejército de Babilonia. La frase "la espada está devorando" significa que está "causando destrucción".

Traducción Alterna: "el ejército de Babilonia está causando destrucción"

Jeremiah 46:15

¿Por qué ha huido tu dios Apis?
Traducción Alterna: "Tu dios Apis se ha escapado"

Apis
Este es uno de los dioses principales de Egipto. Aquí "Apis" representa la "fuerza en la que confía"

¿Por qué tu dios del toro no está de pie?
¿Tu dios no está de pie? Traducción Alterna: "Tu dios toro es incapaz de mantenerse en pie". Apis fue representado entre los ídolos como un toro.

El SEÑOR lo ha derribado Traducción Alterna: "El Señor ha derrotado a Apis, tu dios toro".

esta espada que nos está oprimiendo
Aquí "espada" se refiere al ejército de la nación de Babilonia.

Faraón, el rey de Egipto es solo un ruido, uno que ha dejado que su oportunidad se le escape
Estas dos frases dicen que la nación de Egipto ha cobrado poca importancia. Traducción Alterna: "Faraón se jacta mucho, pero no puede hacer aquello por lo que se jacta."

Jeremiah 46:18

alguien vendrá como el Monte Tabor y el Monte Carmelo a la orilla del mar
Esto se refiere a la nación de Babilonia, la cual será tan abrumadora para la nación de Egipto así como lo son estas dos montañas en las llanuras que los rodean.

Preparen para ustedes mismos equipaje
Traducción Alterna: "perpárense para viajar"

Jeremiah 46:20

Egipto es una joven vaca muy hermosa
La nación de Egipto se compara con una vaca hermosa y joven. Es posible que esta comparación se haga para que Egipto sea el compañero de los dioses toros Apis. Traducción Alterna: "Egipto es como una novilla muy hermosa".

insecto punzante
Esto se refiere al ejército de la nación de Babilonia. Un insecto que pica podría causar llagas dolorosas, pero no causaría daño permanente al animal que ha picado.

Los soldados mercenarios en medio de ella son como un toro engordado
El escritor compara a los soldados con "toros engordados" porque los soldados están bien cuidados y preparados para el sacrificio.

No se pondrán de pie juntos
El escritor dice que los soldados no lucharán como una unidad, sino que huirán pensando solo en salvarse a sí mismos.

Egipto sisea como una serpiente y huye deslizándose
El escritor dice que la nación de Egipto es como una serpiente que no hace más que silbar y arrastrarse con miedo cuando los leñadores perturban su nido.

Jeremiah 46:23

Ellos talarán los bosques
El ejército invasor será como los leñadores que talan un bosque entero. Traducción Alterna: "El ejército babilónico derribará las ciudades de Egipto".

Ellos
Esto se refiere al ejército de la nación de Babilonia la cual invade Egipto.

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que dice el Señor"(Revise cómo tradujo esto en 1:7)

es muy denso
Esto se refiere a la gran cantidad y a la cercanía de las ciudades en Egipto.

langostas
Este es un tipo de insecto que viaja en grupos muy grandes y puede causar una gran destrucción al comer los cultivos.

hija ... será avergonzada
Jeremías está diciendo que el pueblo de Egipto será avergonzado ante las naciones especialmente porque las mujeres y las niñas serán violadas por los soldados de Babilonia.

la mano de gente del norte
Aquí, esta frase significa "el poder de la nación de Babilonia que viene del norte"

Jeremiah 46:25

Amón de Tebas
"Amon" es el rey de los dioses egipcios. "Tebas" es la capital de Egipto y aquí representa a todo el imperio egipcio. Traducción Alterna: "Amón, dios sobre todo Egipto"

Yo los estoy entregando ... en la mano de Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia y sus sirvientes Aquí, Nabucodonosor representa a toda la nación de Babilonia y su "mano" representa "control". Traducción Alterna: "El Señor le está entregando a la nación de Babilonia el control sobre Egipto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 47

1 Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Jeremías el profeta concerniente a los filisteos. Esta palabra vino a él antes que Faraón atacara a Gaza. 2 "El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Miren, diluvios de agua están subiendo en el norte. ¡Ellas serán como un río desbordado! Entonces ellas se derramarán sobre la tierra y todo lo que en ella hay, sus ciudades y sus habitantes.! Así que todo el mundo clamará pidiendo ayuda, y todos los habitantes de la tierra se lamentarán. 3 Al sonido del pisoteo de las pezuñas fuertes de los caballos, al rugir de sus carros y el ruido de sus ruedas, los padres no ayudarán a sus hijos debido a su propia debilidad. 4 Pues el día viene que devastará a todos los filisteos, para impedir de Tiro y Sidón a todo sobreviviente que quiera ayudarlos. Pues el SEÑOR está devastando a los filisteos, aquellos que permanecen de la isla de Caftor. 5 La calvicie le sobrevendrá a Gaza. En cuanto a Ascalón, la gente que se ha quedado en su valle será silenciada. ¿Por cuánto tiempo te sajarás por el luto? 6 ¡Ay, espada del SEÑOR! ¿Cuánto tiempo hasta que estés en silencio? ¡Regresa a tu vaina! Detente y haz silencio. 7 ¿Cómo puedes estar callada, pues el SEÑOR te ha dado órdenes? Él te ha convocado para atacar a Ascalón y en contra de las tierras costeras a la orilla del mar."

Jeremiah 47:1

Miren
La palabra "Miren" nos alerta a prestar atención a lo que se va a decir.

diluvios de agua están subiendo en el norte. ¡Ellas serán como un río desbordado!
Las dos frases tienen un significado similar y se combinan para dar énfasis. Las "aguas" y el "río" representan al ejército que viene del norte ellas se derramarán sobre la tierra

"Ellos" se refiere al ejército que viene del norte.

Jeremiah 47:3

Al sonido del pisoteo de las pezuñas fuertes de los caballos, al rugir de sus carros y el ruido de sus ruedas Juntos, representan los sonidos de un ejército que se aproxima.

al rugir de sus carros y el ruido de sus ruedas
Estos dos términos tienen significados similares y se combinan para enfatizar.

Caftor
Este es el nombre de una isla en la región norte de los filisteos.

calvicie
El afeitado de toda la cabeza o partes de la cabeza es un símbolo de gran pena practicada por los adoradores de ídolos en naciones como Filistea.

la gente ... será silenciada
Traducción Alterna: "La gente ... será asesinada"

¿Por cuánto tiempo te sajarás por el luto?
Cortarse la piel era otra práctica que hacían los adoradores de ídolos cuando lloraban a los muertos.

espada del SEÑOR
Esta frase se refiere al ejército del norte que el Señor usa para castigar a los filisteos.

¿Cuánto tiempo hasta que estés en silencio?
El pueblo de los filisteos usa esta pregunta para expresar su profunda frustración por la devastación causada por sus enemigos.

Esto se refiere a la espada del Señor como si fuera una persona.

La funda utilizada para proteger la hoja de una espada.

¿Cómo puedes estar callada, pues el SEÑOR te ha dado órdenes?
La palabra "te" se refiere a la "espada de Jehová".

Chapter 48

1 A Moab, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: "¡Ay de Nebo, porque ha sido devastada! Quiriataim ha sido capturada y humillada. Su fortaleza ha sido aplastada y deshonrada. 2 El honor de Moab no es más. Sus enemigos en Hesbón han tramado desastre contra ella. Ellos dijeron: 'Vengan y destruyámosla como una nación. Madmena también perecerá, una espada te perseguirá.' 3 ¡Escuchen! Un sonido de gritos viene desde Horonaim, donde hay ruina y gran destrucción. 4 Moab ha sido destruída. Sus niños han dejado oir sus gritos. 5 Ellos suben la colina de Luhit llorando, porque camino abajo hacia Horonaim, se oyen los gritos debido a la destrucción. 6 ¡Huyan! Salven sus vidas y sean como un arbusto de enebro en el desierto. 7 Pues debido a tu confianza en tus prácticas y en tu riqueza, tú también serás capturada. Entonces Quemos se irá al cautiverio, junto con sus sacerdotes y líderes. 8 Pues el destructor vendrá a cada ciudad; ninguna ciudad escapará. De manera que el valle perecerá y el llano será devastado, tal como el SEÑOR ha dicho. 9 Den alas a Moab, pues seguramente se irá volando. Sus ciudades se convertirán en tierra desolada, donde no hay quien viva en ella. 10 ¡Sea maldito cualquiera que sea perezoso en hacer el trabajo del SEÑOR! ¡Sea maldito cualquiera que detenga su espada de derramar sangre! 11 Moab se ha sentido segura desde que era joven. Ella es como su vino que nunca ha sido vertido de olla en olla. Nunca ha ido al cautiverio. Por lo tanto, tiene buen sabor como nunca; su gusto se mantiene sin cambio. 12 Así que vean, los días vienen, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, cuando Yo le enviaré a aquellos que lo volcarán y derramarán todas sus ollas y destrozarán sus frascos. 13 Entonces Moab se avergonzará de Quemos así como la casa de Israel se avergonzó de Betel, su objeto de confianza. 14 ¿Cómo pueden decir ustedes, 'Nosotros somos soldados, hombres guerreros poderosos'? 15 Moab será devastada y sus ciudades atacadas. Pues sus mejores jóvenes han descendido al lugar de la matanza. ¡Esta es la declaración del Rey! El SEÑOR de los ejércitos es Su nombre! 16 El desastre de Moab pronto acontecera; la calamidad avanza rápidamente. 17 Todos ustedes que están alrededor de Moab, giman; y todos ustedes que conocen su fama, griten: 'Ay, la vara fuerte, el báculo honrado, ha sido roto.' 18 Desciende de tu lugar honrado y siéntate en el suelo seco, tú, hija viviendo en Dibón. Porque el que destruirá a Moab te está atacando, el que destruirá tus fortalezas. 19 Estén en el camino y observen, ustedes, pueblo que vive en Aroer. Pregunten a los que están huyendo y escapando. Digan: '¿Qué ha sucedido?' 20 Moab ha sido avergonzado, pues ha sido destrozado. Aúllen y lamenten, griten por ayuda. Díganselo a la gente al lado del Río Arnón que Moab ha sido devastada. 21 Ahora el castigo ha venido a la zona montañosa, a Holón, Jahaza, y Mefaat, 22 a Dibón, Nebo y Bet Deblataim, 23 a Quiriataim, Bet Gamul y Bet Meón, 24 a Queriot y Bosra y a todas las ciudades en la tierra de Moab, las ciudades más lejanas y más cercanas. 25 El cuerno de Moab ha sido macheteado; su brazo ha sido roto, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 26 Emborráchenlo, porque ha actuado arrogantemente en contra del SEÑOR. Que Moab nade en su vómito, y que sea un objeto de escarnio. 27 ¿Pues no se hizo Israel un objeto de mofa para ti? ¿Fue él hallado entre ladrones, de manera que tú meneabas tu cabeza contra él cada vez que hablabas de él? 28 Abandonen las ciudades y acampen en los barrancos, habitantes de Moab. Háganse como una paloma que está anidando sobre la boca de un hueco en las rocas. 29 Nosotros hemos escuchado acerca del orgullo de Moab, su arrogancia, su altivez, su orgullo, su auto-estima inflada y el engreimiento en su corazón. 30 Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, Yo mismo conozco su hablar desafiante, que no conduce a nada, igual que sus obras. 31 Asi que Yo aullaré un lamento por Moab, y gritare de tristeza por toda Moab. Yo lloraré por el pueblo de Kir Hares. 32 Lloraré por ti más de lo que lo hice por Jazer, viña de Sibma. Tus ramas pasaron a través del Mar Salado y alcanzaron tan lejos como Jazer. Los destructores han atacado tu fruto de verano y tu vino. 33 De manera que la celebración y el regocijo han sido quitados de los árboles frutales y de la tierra de Moab. Yo he puesto fin al vino de sus prensas. Ellos no pisarán con gritos de júbilo. Cualquier grito no será de gozo. 34 Desde los gritos de Hesbón hasta tan lejos como Eleale, su sonido es escuchado en Jahaza, desde Zoar hasta Horonaim y Eglat Selisiya, ya que aún las aguas de Nimrim se han secado. 35 Pues Yo pondré fin a cualquiera en Moab que haga sacrificios en los lugares altos y queme incienso a sus dioses, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 36 Así que Mi corazón está lamentando por Moab como una flauta. Mi corazón está lamentando como flautas por el pueblo de Kir Hares. Las riquezas que ganaron se fueron. 37 Pues cada cabeza está rapada y cada barba afeitada. Hay incisiones en cada mano, y silicio está alrededor de sus cinturas. 38 Hay lamento dondequiera, en cada techo de Moab y en las plazas de Moab. Porque Yo he destruido a Moab como ollas que nadie quiere, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 39 ¡Cómo ha sido destrozado! ¡Cómo aúllan en su lamentación! ¡Moab muestra su espalda en vergüenza! Asi que Moab se convertirá en objeto de burla y un terror a todos aquellos que están alrededor de ella. 40 Pues el SEÑOR dice esto: "Vean, el enemigo vendrá volando como águila, extendiendo sus alas sobre Moab. 41 Queriot ha sido capturada, y sus fortalezas han sido agarradas. Porque ese día los corazones de los soldados de Moab serán como los corazones de mujeres dando a luz. 42 Así que Moab será destruida y ya no será más un pueblo, porque se hizo a sí misma grande en contra del SEÑOR. 43 El terror y el hoyo, y una trampa vendrán sobre ti, habitante de Moab, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 44 Cualquiera que huya debido al terror caerá en el hoyo, y cualquiera que salga del hoyo quedará atrapado, pues Yo traeré esto sobre ellos en el año de Mi venganza en contra de ellos, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 45 Los que huyan estarán de pie en la sombra de Hesbón sin ninguna fuerza, porque el fuego saldrá de Hesbón, llama desde el medio de Sehón. Devorará la frente de Moab y el tope de las cabezas del pueblo altivo. 46 ¡Ay de ti, Moab! El pueblo de Quemos está destruido. Pues tus hijos son llevados como cautivos y tus hijas al cautiverio. 47 Pero Yo restauraré las fortunas de Moab en días postreros, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." El juicio sobre Moab termina aquí.

Nebo
Este es el nombre de una de las montañas que se encuentra en Moab.

Quiriataim
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab.

Quiriataim ha sido capturada y humillada
"El enemigo ha capturado la ciudad de Quiriataim y su gente ya no puede estar orgullosa de ello."

El honor de Moab no es más Esto significa que el respeto que Moab tuvo en el pasado ya no existirá más.

lo volcarán y derramarán todas sus ollas y destrozarán sus frascos Estas dos frases están diciendo cosas similares y se combinan para dar énfasis. Ambas se refieren a la destrucción inminente de la nación de Moab.

Jeremiah 48:13

¿Cómo pueden decir ustedes?
La palabra "ustedes" se refiere a los soldados moabitas.

¿Cómo pueden decir ustedes, 'Nosotros somos soldados, hombres guerreros poderosos'?
Traducción Alterna: "Ya no pueden decir más, "Somos soldados, hombres guerreros poderosos."

Jeremiah 48:15

sus mejores jóvenes han descendido al lugar de la matanza Traducción Alterna: "todos sus jóvenes buenos serán asesinados."

El desastre de Moab pronto acontecera; la calamidad avanza rápidamente Estas dos oraciones significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que la destrucción de Moab sucederá muy pronto. Traducción Alterna: "Los enemigos de Moab la destruirán muy pronto."

la vara fuerte, el báculo honrado, ha sido roto Aquí las palabras "vara" y "báculo" se refieren al poder y al apoyo político que Moab brindó a otras naciones. Traducción Alterna: "Los enemigos de Moab han roto su gran poder".

Jeremiah 48:18

siéntate en el suelo seco, tú, hija viviendo en Dibón
La palabra "hija" se refiere a las personas que son de Dibón.

Jeremiah 48:26

Emborráchenlo
Los juicios que Dios envía sobre Moab permitirán que el país sea despreciado por sus enemigos, así como un hombre borracho es objeto de risa y burla para los hombres. Ver:

Ahora Moab golpea las manos con disgusto por su propio vómito, por lo que también se ha convertido en un objeto de risa.
Dios continúa comparando a Moab con un hombre borracho.

¿Pues no se hizo Israel un objeto de mofa para ti?
Traducción Alterna: "Pues te reías y te burlabas de mi pueblo en el reino de Israel."

¿Fue él hallado entre ladrones, de manera que tú meneabas tu cabeza contra él cada vez que hablabas de él?
Traducción Alterna: "Aunque eran ladrones, nunca fueron capturados. Sacudiste la cabeza con desprecio y los despreciaste."

Jeremiah 48:28

Chapter 49

1 Acerca del pueblo de Amón, el SEÑOR dice esto: "¿No tiene Israel hijos? ¿No hay nadie que herede algo en Israel? ¿Por qué Milcom ocupa Gad, y su gente vive en sus ciudades? 2 Así que mira, los días vienen, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, cuando Yo sonaré la señal para batallar en contra de Rabá entre el pueblo de Amón, para que se convierta en un montón desolado y sus aldeas se prendan en fuego. Pues Israel poseerá a aquellos que lo poseyeron" dice el SEÑOR. 3 ¡Aúlla en lamentos, Hesbón, porque Hai será devastada! ¡Clamen, hijas de Rabá! Vístanse de cilicio. Lamenten y corran de aquí a allá futilmente, porque Milcom va al destierro, junto con sus sacerdotes y líderes. 4 ¿Por qué te jactas de tus valles, tus valles que son tan fructíferos, hija infiel? ¿Tú que confías en tu riqueza y dices: '' Quién vendrá contra mí?' 5 Mira, Yo estoy a punto de traer terror sobre ti, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, este terror vendrá de todos aquellos que te rodean. Cada uno de ustedes se dispersará delante de él. No habrá nadie para recoger a aquellos que están huyendo. 6 Pero después de esto, Yo restauraré las fortunas del pueblo de Amón, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 7 Acerca de Edom, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: "¿Ya no se hallará alguna sabiduría en Temán? ¿Ha desaparecido el buen consejo de aquellos que tienen entendimiento? ¿Se ha corrompido su sabiduria? 8 ¡Huyan! ¡Regresen! Quédense en hoyos en el suelo, habitantes de Dedán. Porque Yo estoy trayendo el desastre de Esaú sobre él en el tiempo en que Yo lo castigo. 9 Si vinieran a ti los cosechadores de uvas, ¿no dejarían atrás un poco? Si ladrones llegaran de noche, ¿no robarían solamente cuanto quisieran? 10 Pero Yo he dejado desnudo a Esaú. Yo he revelado sus escondites. De manera que él no podrá esconderse. Sus hijos, sus hermanos, y sus vecinos están destruidos, y él se ha ido. 11 Dejen atrás a sus huérfanos. Yo me encargaré de sus vidas y sus viudas pueden confiar en Mí." 12 Pues el SEÑOR dice así: "Miren, aquellos que no lo merecieron ciertamente deberán beber algo de la copa. ¿Piensas tú mismo que te irás sin castigo? No irás, pues ciertamente beberás. 13 Porque Yo he jurado por Mí mismo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, que Bosra se convertirá en horror, en desgracia, en devastación, y en un objeto para la maldición. Todas sus ciudades se convertirán en devastaciones para siempre. 14 Yo he oído noticias del SEÑOR, y un mensajero ha sido enviado a las naciones, 'Reúnanse y atáquenla. Prepárense para la batalla.' 15 "Pues mira, Yo te he hecho pequeño comparado con las otras naciones, despreciado por la gente. 16 En cuanto a su ferocidad, el orgullo de su corazón les ha engañado, habitantes de lugares en el barranco, ustedes que han ocupado las colinas más altas para poder hacer su nido alto como un águila. Yo les bajaré desde allí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 17 Edom se convertirá en un horror para todo el que pase al lado de ella. Cada persona así temblará y siseará debido a todos sus desastres. 18 Como el derrocamiento de Sodoma y Gomorra y sus vecinos," dice el SEÑOR, "nadie vivirá allí; ninguna persona se quedará allí. 19 Mira, él subirá como un león desde los bosques del Jordán hasta los pastizales verdes. Porque rápidamente Yo haré que Edom huya de él, y Yo pondré a alguien que será escogido a cargo de él. ¿Pues quién es como Yo, y quién me convocará a juicio? ¿Qué pastor es capaz de resistirme?" 20 Así que escucha los planes que el SEÑOR ha decidido en contra de Edom, los planes que Él ha formado en contra de los habitantes de Temán. Ellos ciertamente serán arrastrados, aún el rebaño más pequeño. Sus pastizales se convertirán en lugares arruinados. 21 Al sonido de su caída tiembla la tierra. El sonido de gritos angustiados se oye en el Mar de Cañas. 22 Mira, alguien atacará como un águila, y bajará de picada y abrirá sus alas sobre Bosra. Entonces en ese día, los corazones de los soldados de Edom se harán como el corazón de una mujer de parto." 23 Acerca de Damasco: "Hamat y Arfad se avergonzarán, porque han oído noticias de desastre. ¡Ellas se derriten! Se perturban tanto como el mar, el cual no puede mantenerse en calma. 24 Damasco se ha vuelto muy débil. Se vuelve para huir; el terror la agarra. La aflicción y el dolor la agarran, como el dolor de una mujer dando a luz. 25 ¿Cómo no ha quedado abandonada la ciudad de la alabanza, el pueblo de mi gozo? 26 Por lo tanto, sus hombres jóvenes caerán en sus plazas, y todos los guerreros perecerán en ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos." 27 "Pues Yo encenderé un fuego en la muralla de Damasco, y devorará las fortalezas de Ben Adad." 28 Acerca de Cedar y los reinos de Hazor, el SEÑOR dice esto a Nabucodonosor (ahora, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, iba a atacar estos lugares): "Levántense y ataquen a Cedar y destruyan a esa gente del este. 29 Sus tiendas y sus rebaños serán tomados, junto con las cortinas de sus tiendas y todo su equipo; sus camellos se llevarán de ellos, y hombres les gritarán: "¡El terror está por todos lados!" 30 ¡Huyan! ¡Deambulen lejos! Quédense en hoyos en el suelo, habitantes de Hazor, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, pues Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, ha trazado un plan en contra de ustedes. ¡Huyan! ¡Regresen! 31 ¡Levántense! Ataquen a la nación en su reposo, a los que viven en seguridad," dice el SEÑOR. "Ellos no tienen portones ni barrotes, y su gente vive a solas. 32 Pues sus camellos se convertirán en botín, y la abundancia de su propiedad será botín de guerra. Entonces Yo dispersaré a los vientos a aquellos que se recortan las esquinas de su cabello, y Yo les traeré desastre desde todos los lados, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 33 Hazor se convertirá en guarida de chacales, una tierra de despojos permanente. Nadie vivirá allí; ningún ser humano se quedará allí." 34 Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Jeremías el profeta acerca de Elam. Esto ocurrió al comienzo del reinado de Sedequías, rey de Judá, y Él dijo: 35 "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Mira, Yo estoy a punto de romper los arqueros de Elam, la parte principal de su poder. 36 Pues Yo traeré los cuatro vientos desde las cuatro esquinas de los cielos, y Yo dispersaré el pueblo de Elam a todos esos vientos. No hay nación a donde aquellos dispersados de Elam no irán. 37 Asi que Yo destrozaré a Elam delante de sus enemigos y delante de aquellos que buscan sus vidas. Pues Yo traeré desastre en contra de ellos, la furia de Mi ira, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y Yo enviaré la espada tras ellos hasta que Yo los haya aniquilado. 38 Entonces Yo pondré Mi trono en Elam y destruiré sus reyes y líderes de allí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, 39 y acontecerá en días postreros que Yo devolveré las fortunas de Elam, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR."

Chapter 50

1 Esta es la palabra que el SEÑOR declaró acerca de Babilonia, la tierra de los caldeos, por la mano de Jeremías el profeta: 2 "Reporten a las naciones y háganles escuchar. Levanten una señal y háganles escuchar. No lo escondan. Digan: 'Babilonia ha sido tomada. Bel es avergonzado. Merodac está consternado. Sus ídolos son avergonzados; sus imágenes están consternadas.' 3 Una nación del norte se levantará contra ella, a fin de hacer de su tierra una desolación. Nadie, ni hombre ni bestia, vivirá en ella. Huirán. 4 En esos días y en ese tiempo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, el pueblo de Israel y el pueblo de Judá vendrán a unirse para ir llorando y buscar al SEÑOR su Dios. 5 Ellos preguntarán el camino a Sion y se dirigirán a él, diciendo: 'Nosotros iremos y nos uniremos al SEÑOR en un pacto eterno que no será olvidado.' 6 Mi pueblo ha sido un rebaño perdido. Sus pastores los han dirigido a perderse en las montañas; ellos los han virado de colina en colina. Ellos fueron, olvidaron el lugar donde habían vivido. 7 Todos los que fueron a ellos los devoraron. Sus adversarios dijeron: 'Nosotros no somos culpables, porque ellos pecaron contra el SEÑOR, su hogar verdadero, el SEÑOR, la esperanza de sus ancestros.' 8 Salgan de en medio de Babilonia; salgan de la tierra de los caldeos; sean como machos cabríos que se van antes que el resto del rebaño lo hace. 9 Pues vean, Yo estoy a punto de poner en movimiento y levantar a un grupo de grandes naciones del norte en contra de Babilonia. Ellos se organizarán en contra de ella. Babilonia será capturada desde allí. Sus flechas son como un guerrero diestro que no regresa con las manos vacías. 10 Caldea se convertirá en botín. Todos aquellos que la saquean serán satisfechos, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 11 Ustedes se regocijan, ustedes celebran el saqueo de Mi herencia; ustedes saltan como un becerro pisoteando en su pastizal; ustedes relinchan como un caballo poderoso. 12 Así que su madre será grandemente avergonzada, la que los parió será avergonzada. Miren, ella será la menor de las naciones, una tierra salvaje, una tierra seca, y un desierto. 13 Debido a la ira del SEÑOR, Babilonia no será habitada, sino que será una total devastación. Todo el que pase se estremecerá debido a Babilonia y siseará debido a todas sus heridas. 14 Organícense en contra de Babilonia todo alrededor de ella. Todo el que dobla el arco debe dispararle. No retengan ninguna de sus flechas, pues ella ha pecado contra el SEÑOR. 15 ¡Alcen un grito en contra de ella todo alrededor! Ella se ha rendido; sus torres han caído, sus murallas están derrumbadas, pues esta es la venganza del SEÑOR. ¡Vénganse de ella! ¡Háganle a ella justamente como ella ha hecho! 16 Destruyan tanto al agricultor que siembra la semilla como al que usa la hoz en el tiempo de la cosecha en Babilonia. Dejen que cada persona regrese a su propia gente ante la espada del opresor; dejen que huyan a su propia tierra. 17 Israel es un rebaño de ovejas dispersas y ahuyentadas por leones. Primero, el rey de Asiria lo devoró; entonces, después de esto, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, rompió sus huesos. 18 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, el Dios de Israel, dice esto: "Miren, Yo estoy a punto de castigar al rey de Babilonia y su tierra, así como castigué al rey de Asiria. 19 Yo restauraré a Israel a su tierra natal; pastará en el Carmelo y en Basán. Entonces se saciará en el campo montañoso de Efraín y Galaad. 20 'En esos días y a ese tiempo,' dice el SEÑOR, 'la iniquidad se buscará en Israel, pero ninguna se hallará. Yo preguntaré acerca de los pecados de Judá, pero ninguno se hallará, pues Yo perdonaré al remanente que Yo libro.'" 21 "Levántate contra la tierra de Merataim, contra ella y los que habitan Pecod. Mátalos con la espada y apártalos para la destrucción, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, haz todo lo que Yo te estoy ordenando. 22 Los sonidos de batalla y de enorme destrucción están en la tierra. 23 Cómo el martillo de todas las tierras ha sido cortado y destruido. Cómo Babilonia ha llegado a ser un horror entre las naciones. 24 ¡Yo he puesto una trampa para ti y fuiste atrapada, Babilonia, y no lo supiste! Tú fuiste hallada y capturada, porque te opusiste al SEÑOR. 25 El SEÑOR ha abierto su arsenal y está sacando las armas para llevar a cabo Su ira. Hay trabajo para el SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos en la tierra de los caldeos. 26 Atáquenla desde lejos. Abran sus graneros y amontónenla como pilas de grano. Apártenla para la destrucción. No dejen ningún remanente de ella. 27 Maten todos sus toros. Mándenlos al lugar del matadero. Ay de ellos, pues su día ha llegado, el tiempo para su castigo. 28 Está el sonido de aquellos que están huyendo, de aquellos que son sobrevivientes, de la tierra de Babilonia. Estos reportarán la venganza del SEÑOR nuestro Dios para Sion, y venganza por Su templo." 29 Convoquen a los arqueros en contra de Babilonia, todos aquellos que doblan sus arcos. Acampen en contra de ella, y que no se escape nadie. Devuélvanle por lo que ella ha hecho. Háganle conforme a la medida que ella ha usado. Pues ella había desafiado al SEÑOR, el Santo de Israel. 30 Así que sus hombres jóvenes caerán en las plazas de la ciudad, y todos sus guerreros serán destruidos en ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 31 "Miren, Yo estoy en contra tuya, orgullosa, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios de los ejércitos, pues tu día ha llegado, orgullosa, el tiempo cuando Yo te castigaré. 32 Así que los orgullosos tropezarán y caerán. Nadie los levantará. Yo encenderé un fuego en sus ciudades el cual devorará todo alrededor suyo. 33 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: El pueblo de Israel está oprimido, junto al pueblo de Judá. Todos los que los capturaron todavía los retienen; rehúsan dejarlos ir. 34 El que los rescata es fuerte. El SEÑOR de los ejércitos es Su nombre. Él verdaderamente defenderá su caso, a fin de traer descanso a la tierra, y traer conflicto a los que están habitando en Babilonia. 35 Una espada está en contra de los caldeos, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y en contra de los habitantes de Babilonia, sus líderes y sus hombres sabios. 36 Una espada viene contra aquellos que dicen palabras de adivinación, para que se revelen a sí mismos como necios. Una espada viene contra sus soldados, de manera que se llenarán de terror. 37 Una espada viene contra sus caballos, sus carros y toda la gente que está en medio de Babilonia, de manera que llegarán a ser como mujeres. Una espada viene contra sus almacenes, y serán saqueados. 38 Una sequía viene sobre sus aguas, de manera que se secarán. Porque ella es una tierra de ídolos sin valor, y se comportan como gente enloquecida por sus ídolos espantosos. 39 Así que bestias del desierto, junto con los chacales, habitarán allí, y las crías de las avestruces vivirán en ella. Por tiempo eterno, ella ya no será habitada. De generación a generación, no se vivirá en ella. 40 Así como Dios derrocó a Sodoma y Gomorra y sus vecinos, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, nadie vivirá allí; ninguna persona se quedará en ella." 41 "Miren, una gente viene del norte, pues una gran nación y muchos reyes han sido incitados desde una tierra lejana. 42 Ellos tomarán arcos y espadas. Ellos son crueles y no tienen compasión. Su sonido es como el rugir del mar, y están cabalgando a caballo en formación como hombres guerreros, en contra tuya, hija de Babilonia. 43 El rey de Babilonia ha escuchado su informe y sus manos han caído débiles de aflicción. La angustia lo agarra como mujer dando a luz. 44 ¡Miren! Él sube como un león desde las alturas del Jordán hasta el lugar de pastar duradero. Pues Yo causaré rápidamente que ellos huyan de él, y Yo pondré a alguien que será escogido a cargo de él. Pues, ¿quién es como Yo, y quién me convocará? ¿Qué pastor es capaz de resistirme? 45 Por lo tanto, escuchen los planes que el SEÑOR ha decidido contra Babilonia, los planes que Él ha planificado contra la tierra de los caldeos. Ellos ciertamente serán arrastrados, aún el rebaño más pequeño. Sus pastizales se convertirán en lugares arruinados. 46 Al sonido de la Babilonia conquistada, tiembla la tierra, y su grito de angustia es oído entre las naciones."

Chapter 51

1 "El SEÑOR dice esto: Miren, Yo estoy a punto de agitar un viento de destrucción contra Babilonia y contra aquellos que viven en Leb Camay. 2 Yo enviaré extranjeros a Babilonia. Ellos la dispersarán y devastarán su tierra, pues ellos vendrán contra ella de todo alrededor en el día del desastre. 3 No dejen que los arqueros tensen sus arcos; no dejen que se pongan la armadura. No dejen libres a sus hombres jóvenes; aparten a su ejército completo para la destrucción. 4 Porque la gente herida caerá en la tierra de los caldeos; aquellos que son matados caerán en sus calles. 5 Pues Israel y Judá no son abandonados por su Dios, por el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, aunque su tierra está llena de ofensas cometidas contra el Santo de Israel. 6 Huyan de en medio de Babilonia; sálvese cada hombre. No perezcan en su iniquidad. Pues es el tiempo de la venganza del SEÑOR. Él le recompensará todo a ella. 7 Babilonia era una copa dorada en la mano del SEÑOR que emborrachaba al mundo entero; las naciones bebieron su vino y se enloquecieron. 8 Babilonia caerá de repente y será destruida. ¡Giman por ella! Denle medicina para su dolor; tal vez pueda ser sanada. 9 Nosotros quisimos sanar a Babilonia, pero ella no es sanada. Todos dejémosla y vayámonos, a nuestra propia tierra. Pues su culpa alcanza hasta los cielos; está amontonada hasta las nubes. 10 El SEÑOR ha declarado nuestra inocencia. Vengan, contemos en Sion las obras del SEÑOR nuestro Dios. 11 Afilen las flechas y tomen los escudos. El SEÑOR está incitando el espíritu del rey de los medos con un plan para destruir a Babilonia. Esto es para la venganza del SEÑOR, venganza por la destrucción de Su templo. 12 Alzen una bandera sobre las murallas de Babilonia; fortalezcan la guardia; pongan vigilantes; preparen las emboscadas; porque el Señor hará lo que ha dicho concerniente a los habitantes de Babilonia. 13 Ustedes, gente que vive al lado de muchos manantiales de agua, ustedes, gente que son ricos con tesoros, su fin ha llegado. El hilo de su vida es acortado ahora. 14 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos ha jurado por Su propia vida: 'Yo los llenaré sus enemigos, como una plaga de langostas; ellos levantarán un grito de batalla contra ustedes.' 15 Él ha hecho la tierra por Su poder; Él estableció el mundo por Su sabiduría. Por Su entendimiento Él extendió los cielos. 16 Cuando Él truena, hay el rugir de aguas en los cielos, pues Él hace subir la neblina desde los confines de la tierra. Él hace relámpago para la lluvia y envía fuera el viento desde Sus almacenes. 17 Cada hombre se ha vuelto ignorante, sin conocimiento. Cada trabajador de metal es avergonzado por sus ídolos. Pues sus imágenes fundidas son fraudes, y no hay ninguna vida en ellos. 18 Ellas son inútiles, la obra de burladores; perecerán en el tiempo de su castigo. 19 Pero Dios, la porción de Jacob, no es como estos, pues Él es el moldeador de todas las cosas. Israel es la tribu de Su herencia; el SEÑOR de los ejércitos es Su nombre. 20 Tú eres Mi martillo de guerra, Mi arma para la batalla. Contigo Yo destrozaré naciones y destruiré reinos. 21 Contigo Yo destrozaré caballos y sus jinetes; contigo Yo destrozaré carros y sus conductores. 22 Contigo Yo destrozaré a cada hombre y mujer; contigo Yo destrozaré viejos y jóvenes. Contigo destrozaré a los hombres jóvenes y a las muchachas vírgenes. 23 Contigo destrozaré a los pastores y sus rebaños; contigo destrozaré a los labradores y sus yuntas. Contigo destrozaré a gobernantes y oficiales. 24 Pues a la vista de ustedes Yo le pagaré a Babilonia y a todos los habitantes de Caldea por todo el mal que hicieron en Sion, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 25 Vean, Yo estoy contra ti, montaña de destrucción, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, la cual destruye toda la tierra. Yo extenderé Mi mano contra ti, y te rodaré desde los barrancos y te haré una montaña quemada. 26 Para que no tomen de ti cualquier piedra para construir la esquina de un edificio o un cimiento; pues tú llegarás a ser una devastación eterna, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 27 Levanten una bandera sobre la tierra. Toquen la trompeta sobre las naciones.
Llamen a las naciones para atacarla; Ararat, Mini y Asquenaz. Señalen a un comandante para atacarla; hagan subir caballos como enjambres de langostas. 28 Preparen a las naciones para atacarla; los reyes de los medos y sus gobernantes, todos sus oficiales y todas las tierras bajo su dominio. 29 Pues la tierra temblará y estará en angustia, ya que los planes del SEÑOR continúan contra Babilonia, para hacer de la tierra de Babilonia un desierto donde no haya ningún habitante. 30 Los soldados en Babilonia han dejado de pelear; ellos se quedan en sus fortalezas. Su fuerza ha fallado; han llegado a ser como mujeres, sus hogares están encendidos, los barrotes de sus puertas están rotos. 31 Un mensajero corre a proclamarle a otro mensajero, y un corredor le dice a otro corredor que informe al rey de Babilonia que su ciudad ha sido tomada de extremo a extremo. 32 Así que los vados del río son tomados; el enemigo está quemando los pantanos de cañas, y los guerreros de Babilonia están confundidos. 33 Porque el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Dios de Israel, dice esto: La hija de Babilonia es como un piso de trillar. Es el tiempo para pisotearla abajo. En un corto rato, el tiempo de la cosecha llegará a ella. 34 Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, me ha devorado; me ha llevado a la confusión y me ha hecho como una olla vacía; como monstruo me ha tragado; llenó su estómago con mis comidas deliciosas; me ha enjuagado. 35 El que vive en Sion dirá: 'Que la violencia hecha sobre mí y mi carne sea sobre Babilonia.' Jerusalén dirá: 'Que mi sangre sea sobre los habitantes de Caldea.' 36 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: Vean, Yo estoy a punto de defender tu caso y traer la venganza para ti. Pues Yo secaré las aguas de Babilonia y haré que sus manantiales se sequen. 37 Babilonia se convertirá en montones de escombros, una guarida de chacales, un horror, un objeto de burla, donde no hay habitantes. 38 Los babilonios rugirán juntos como leones jóvenes. Gruñirán como cachorros de león. 39 Cuando se calienten de avaricia, Yo les haré una fiesta; Yo los embriagaré para que se alegren, y luego dormirán un sueño interminable y no despertarán, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, 40 Yo los enviaré para abajo como corderos para el matadero, como carneros con machos cabríos. 41 ¡Cómo se ha capturado a Babilonia! ¡De manera que la alabanza de toda la tierra es detenida! Cómo Babilonia se ha convertido en lugar arruinado entre las naciones. 42 ¡El mar se ha subido sobre Babilonia! Ella está cubierta con sus olas rugientes. 43 Sus ciudades han llegado a ser una desolación, una tierra seca y un desierto, una tierra que nadie habita, y por donde ningún ser humano pasa. 44 Así que castigaré a Bel en Babilonia; Yo extraeré de su boca lo que él tragó, y las naciones ya no fluirán hacia él con sus ofrendas. Las murallas de Babilonia caerán. 45 Salgan de en medio de ella, pueblo Mío. Que cada uno de ustedes salve su propia vida de la furia de Mi ira. 46 No dejen que sus corazones sean tímidos ni teman las noticias que se oyen en la tierra, pues las noticias llegarán un año. Después de ella, en el año siguiente habrá noticias, y la violencia estará en la tierra. Gobernante estará contra gobernante. 47 Por lo tanto, vean, los días vienen cuando Yo castigare los ídolos tallados de Babilonia. Toda su tierra será avergonzada, y todos sus muertos caerán en medio de ella. 48 Entonces los cielos y la tierra, y todo lo que hay en ellos se regocijarán sobre Babilonia. Porque destructores vendrán por ella desde el norte, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 49 Así como Babilonia ha hecho caer a los muertos de Israel, así también los muertos de toda su tierra caerán en Babilonia. 50 ¡Sobrevivientes de la espada, váyanse! No se queden quietos. Recuerden al SEÑOR desde lejos; recuerden a Jerusalén. 51 Estamos avergonzados, pues nosotros hemos oído insultos; el oprobio ha cubierto nuestros rostros; pues los extranjeros han entrado a los lugares santos de la casa del SEÑOR. 52 Por lo tanto, vean, los días vienen, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, cuando Yo castigaré sus ídolos tallados, y las personas heridas gemirán en toda su tierra. 53 Pues aunque Babilonia subiera a los cielos y fortificara sus fortalezas más altas, los destructores vendrían de Mí a ella, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 54 Un grito de angustia vino de Babilonia, un gran colapso desde la tierra de los caldeos. 55 Pues el SEÑOR está destruyendo a Babilonia. Él está causando que su voz fuerte perezca. Sus enemigos rugen como las olas de muchas aguas; su ruido se hace muy fuerte. 56 ¡Porque los destructores han venido contra ella, contra Babilonia! Y sus guerreros han sido capturados. Sus arcos están rotos, pues el SEÑOR es el Dios de la venganza; Él ciertamente llevará a cabo Su retribución. 57 Pues Yo emborracharé a sus príncipes, sus sabios, sus oficiales, y sus soldados, y ellos dormirán un sueño interminable y nunca despertarán, esta es la declaración del Rey: el SEÑOR de los ejércitos es Su nombre. 58 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Las murallas gruesas de Babilonia serán completamente derribadas, y sus puertas altas serán quemadas. Entonces las gentes que vienen a ayudarle trabajarán inútilmente; todo lo que las naciones traten de hacer para ella será quemado." 59 Esta es la palabra que Jeremías el profeta ordenó a Seraías, hijo de Nerías, hijo de Maasías, cuando él fue con Sedequías, rey de Judá, a Babilonia en el cuarto año de su reinado. Ahora, Seraías era un oficial principal. 60 Porque Jeremías había escrito en un rollo acerca del desastre que iba a acontecer en Babilonia, todas estas palabras que fueron escritas acerca de Babilonia. 61 Jeremías dijo a Seraías: "Cuando vayas a Babilonia, entonces tú verás y leerás estas palabras en voz alta. 62 Entonces dirás: 'El SEÑOR, Tú mismo has declarado que Tú destruirías este lugar, y que ningún hombre ni animal vivirá en él, y que será desolado para siempre.' 63 Entonces cuando hayas terminado de leer este rollo, amárrale una piedra y lánzalo al medio del Eufrates. 64 Di: 'Babilonia se hundirá así. No se levantará debido al desastre que Yo estoy enviando contra ella, y caerán.'" Las palabras de Jeremías terminan aquí.

Israel, Israelitas, nación de Israel.
El término "Israel" es el nombre que Dios le dio a Jacob. Significa, "él lucha con Dios". Los descendientes de Jacob fueron conocidos como el "pueblo de Israel", la "nación de Israel" o los "israelitas". Dios hizo su pacto con el pueblo de Israel. Ellos eran su pueblo elegido. La nación de Israel estaba formada por doce tribus. Poco después de la muerte del rey Salomón, Israel se dividió en dos reinos: el reino del sur, llamado "Judá" y el reino del norte, llamado "Israel". *A menudo, el término "Israel" se puede traducir como "el pueblo de Israel" o "la nación de Israel", según el contexto.

Ver también: Jacob, Israel kingdom of Israel Judah, kingdom of Judah nation twelve tribes of Israel

Judá
Judá fue uno de los hijos mayores de Jacob. Su madre era Lea. Sus descendientes fueron llamados la "tribu de Judá". Fue Judá quien le dijo a sus hermanos que vendieran a su hermano menor, José, como esclavo en lugar de dejarlo morir en un pozo profundo. El rey David y todos los reyes que le siguieron fueron descendientes de Judá. Jesús también era un descendiente de Judá. Cuando el reinado de Salomón terminó y la nación de Israel se dividió, el reino de Judá terminó siendo la parte sur de la nación. En el libro de Apocalipsis del Nuevo Testamento, se llama a Jesús el "León de Judá". *Las palabras "judío" y "Judea" provienen del nombre "Judá".

desamparar, abandonar, abandonar
El término "abandonar" significa dejar a alguien o renunciar a algo. Una persona que ha sido "abandonada" ha sido abandonada por alguien más. Cuando las personas "abandonan" a Dios, significa que le están siendo infieles al desobedecerlo. Cuando Dios "abandona" a la gente, significa que Él ha dejado de ayudarlos y les ha permitido experimentar el sufrimiento para hacer que vuelvan a él. Este término también puede significar abandonar las cosas o no seguir las enseñanzas de Dios. El término "abandonado" se puede usar como tiempo pasado por ejemplo, "él te ha abandonado" o para referirse a alguien que "ha sido abandonado".

Sugerencias de traducción

Otras formas de traducir este término podrían incluir "abandonar", "descuidar", "renunciar", "alejarse de" o "dejar atrás", dependiendo del contexto. "Abandonar" la ley de Dios podría traducirse como "desobedecer la ley de Dios". Esto también se podría traducir como "abandonar", "renunciar a" o "dejar de obedecer sus enseñanzas o leyes." La frase "ser abandonado" se puede traducir como "ser abandonado" o "ser desamparado". Se puede encontrar más claro el uso de diferentes palabras para traducir este término, dependiendo de si el texto habla de abandonar una cosa o a una persona.

Dios
En la Biblia, el término "Dios" se refiere al Ser eterno que creó el universo de la nada. Dios existe como Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. El nombre personal de Dios es el "Señor". Dios siempre ha existido; existió antes de que existiera cualquier otra cosa, y seguirá existiendo para siempre. Él es el único Dios verdadero y tiene autoridad sobre todo el universo. Dios es perfectamente justo, infinitamente sabio, santo, sin pecado, misericordioso y amoroso. Él es un Dios que guarda el pacto, que siempre cumple sus promesas. Las personas fueron creadas para adorar a Dios y Él es el único a quien deben adorar. Dios reveló su nombre como "Señor", que significa "Él es" o "Yo soy" o "El que (siempre) existe". *La Biblia también enseña sobre los "dioses" falsos que son ídolos no vivientes que las personas adoran erróneamente.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "Dios" pueden incluír "Deidad", "Creador" o "Ser Supremo". Otras formas de traducir "Dios" podrían ser, "Creador Supremo", "Señor Infinito y Soberano" o "Ser Supremo Eterno". Considere cómo se hace referencia a Dios en un idioma local o nacional. También puede que ya haya una palabra para "Dios" en el idioma en el que se traduce. Si es así, es importante asegurarse de que esta palabra se ajuste a las características del único Dios verdadero como se describió anteriormente. Muchos idiomas ponen en mayúscula la primera letra de la palabra para el único Dios verdadero para distinguirla de un dios falso. Otra forma de hacer esta distinción sería usar dos términos diferentes para "Dios" y "dios". La frase "Yo seré su Dios y ellos serán mi pueblo" también podría traducirse como "Yo, Dios, gobernaré sobre estas personas y ellas me adorarán".

Señor de los ejércitos, Dios de los ejércitos, ejército
Los términos "Señor de los ejércitos" y "Dios de los ejércitos" son títulos que expresan la autoridad de Dios sobre los miles de ángeles que lo obedecen. El término "ejército" o "ejércitos" es una palabra que se refiere a un gran número de algo, por ejemplo un ejército de personas o el gran número de estrellas. También puede referirse a todos los muchos seres espirituales, incluídos los espíritus malignos. El contexto deja claro a qué se refiere. Las frases

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

similares al "ejército de los cielos" se refieren a todas las estrellas, planetas y otros cuerpos celestes. *En el Nuevo Testamento, la frase "Señor de los ejércitos" significa lo mismo que "SEÑOR de los ejércitos", pero no se puede traducir de esa manera ya que la palabra hebrea "Señor" no se usa en el Nuevo Testamento.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "Señor de los ejércitos" podrían incluír: "El Señor que gobierna a todos los ángeles", "El Señor gobernante sobre los ejércitos de ángeles" o "El Señor que gobierna sobre toda la creación". La frase "de ejércitos" en los términos "Dios de los ejércitos" y "Señor de los ejércitos" se traduciría de la misma manera que en la frase anterior "Señor de los ejércitos". *Ciertas iglesias no aceptan el término literal "Señor" y prefieren usar la palabra en mayúscula, "SEÑOR" en su lugar, siguiendo la tradición de muchas versiones de la Biblia. Para estas iglesias, una traducción del término "SEÑOR de los ejércitos" se usaría en el Antiguo Testamento para "Señor de los ejércitos".

El Santo
El término "Santo" es un título en la Biblia que casi siempre se refiere a Dios. En el Antiguo Testamento, este título a menudo aparece en la frase "El Santo de Israel". En el Nuevo Testamento, a Jesús también se le conoce como el "Santo". *El término "santo" se usa a veces en la Biblia para referirse a un ángel.

Sugerencias de traducción

El término literal es "el santo".

salvar, seguro
El término "salvar" se refiere a evitar que alguien experimente algo malo o perjudicial. "Estar seguro" significa estar protegido contra algún daño o peligro. En un sentido físico, las personas pueden ser salvadas o rescatadas de daños, peligro o muerte. En un sentido espiritual, si una persona ha sido "salvada", significa que a través de la muerte de Jesús en la cruz, Dios lo ha perdonado y lo ha rescatado de ser castigado en el infierno por su pecado. *Las personas pueden salvar o rescatar a las personas del peligro, pero solo Dios puede salvar a las personas de ser castigadas eternamente por sus pecados.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "salvar" pueden incluír, "entregar", "evitar el daño", "eliminar el peligro" o "evitar morir". En la expresión, "quien quiera que salve su vida", el término "guardar" también podría traducirse como "preservar" o "proteger". *El término "seguro" podría traducirse como "ser protegido del peligro" o "en un lugar donde nada puede hacer daño".

perecer, pereciendo, perecedero
El término "perecer" significa morir o ser destruído generalmente como resultado de la violencia u otro desastre. En la Biblia, tiene el significado de ser castigado por la eternidad en el infierno. Las personas que están "pereciendo" son aquellas que están destinadas a ir al infierno porque se han negado a creer en Jesús para su salvación. Juan 3:16 enseña que "perecer" significa no vivir eternamente en el cielo.

Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, las formas de traducir este término podrían incluír "morir eternamente", "ser castigado en el infierno" o "ser destruído". La traducción de "perecer" no solo significa "dejar de existir" sino que también quiere decir "vivir eternamente en el infierno".

El término "iniquidad" es una palabra que tiene un significado muy similar al término "pecado", pero puede referirse más específicamente a los actos conscientes de maldad o gran maldad. La palabra "iniquidad" significa literalmente la distorsión de la ley. Se refiere a una injusticia mayor. La iniquidad podría describirse como acciones deliberadas y dañinas contra otras personas. *Otras definiciones de iniquidad incluyen "perversidad" y "depravación", que son palabras que describen condiciones de pecado terrible.

Sugerencias de traducción El término "iniquidad" puede ser traducido como "maldad" o "acciones perversas" o "actos perjudiciales". A menudo, la "iniquidad" aparece en el mismo texto que la palabra "pecado" y "transgresión", por lo que es importante tener diferentes formas de traducir estos términos.

Ver también: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning, transgress, transgression trespass

vengar, vengarse, tomar venganza
"Vengar", "vengarse" o "ejecutar la venganza" significa castigar a alguien para devolverle el daño que hizo. El acto de vengarse es la "venganza". Por lo general, "venganza" implica la intención de que se haga justicia o de corregir un error. Cuando se refiere a personas, la expresión "vengarse" o "tomar venganza" generalmente implica volver a la persona que hizo el daño. *Cuando Dios "toma venganza" o "ejecuta venganza", está actuando con justicia porque está castigando el pecado y la rebelión.

Sugerencias de traducción

La expresión "vengarse" también podría traducirse como "corregir un error" u "obtener justicia". Al referirse a los seres humanos, "vengarse" podría traducirse como "pagar" o "lastimar para castigar" o "volver a". Dependiendo del contexto, "venganza" podría traducirse como "castigo" o "castigo por el pecado" o "pago por los errores cometidos". Si se usa una palabra que significa "represalia", esto se aplicaría solo a los seres humanos. Cuando Dios dice "tomé venganza", esto podría traducirse como "castigarlos por los males cometidos contra mí" o "hacer que les sucedan cosas malas porque han pecado contra mí". *Cuando se refiera a la venganza de Dios, asegúrese de que esté claro de que Dios es justo en cuanto al castigo por el pecado.

Chapter 52

1 Sedequías tenía veintiún años cuando comenzó a reinar; él reinó once años en Jerusalén. El nombre de su madre era Hamutal; ella era la hija de Jeremías de Libna. 2 Él hizo lo que era malo a la vista del SEÑOR; él hizo todo lo que Joacim había hecho. 3 Por medio de la ira del SEÑOR, todos estos eventos ocurrieron en Jerusalén y Judá, hasta que Él los sacó de delante de Sí mismo. Entonces Sedequías se rebeló contra el rey de Babilonia. 4 Sucedió que en el noveno año del reinado del Rey Sedequías, en el décimo mes, y en el décimo día del mes, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, vino con todo su ejército contra Jerusalén. Acamparon al lado opuesto, y construyeron una muralla de asedio alrededor de ella. 5
Así que la ciudad fue sitiada hasta el undécimo año del reinado de Rey Sedequías. 6 En el cuarto mes, en el noveno día de ese año, la hambruna fue tan severa en la ciudad que no había comida para el pueblo de la tierra. 7 Entonces invadieron la ciudad, y todos los guerreros huyeron y salieron de la ciudad de noche por el camino de la puerta que estaba entre las dos murallas, al lado del jardín del rey, aunque los caldeos estaban todo alrededor de la ciudad. Así que fueron en dirección del Arabá. 8 Pero el ejército de los caldeos persiguió al rey y alcanzó a Sedequías en los llanos del valle del Río Jordán cerca de Jericó. Todo su ejército fue dispersado lejos de él. 9 Ellos capturaron al rey y lo trajeron al rey de Babilonia en Ribla en la tierra de Hamat, donde lo sentenció. 10 El rey de Babilonia mató a los hijos de Sedequías delante de sus propios ojos, y en Ribla también mató a todos los líderes de Judá. 11 Entonces le sacó los ojos a Sedequías, lo ató con cadenas de bronce, y lo trajo a Babilonia. El rey de Babilonia lo puso en prisión hasta el día de su muerte. 12 Ahora, en el quinto mes, en el décimo día del mes, el cual fue el año diecinueve del reinado del Rey Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, Nabuzaradán vino a Jerusalén. Él era el comandante de los guardaespaldas del rey y un sirviente del rey de Babilonia. 13 Él quemó la casa del SEÑOR, el palacio del rey, y todas las casas de Jerusalén; también quemó todo edificio importante en la ciudad. 14 En cuanto a los muros alrededor de Jerusalén, todo el ejército de los babilonios que estaban con el comandante de los guardaespaldas, los destruyeron. 15 En cuanto a la gente más pobre, el resto de la gente que fue dejada en la ciudad, aquellos que habían desertado al rey de Babilonia, y el resto de los artesanos, Nabuzaradán, el comandante de los guardaespaldas, se llevó a algunos al exilio. 16 Pero Nabuzaradán, el comandante de los guardaespaldas, dejó a algunos de los más pobres de la tierra para trabajar los viñedos y campos. 17 En cuanto a los pilares de bronce que pertenecieron a la casa del SEÑOR, y las bases y el mar de bronce que estaban en la casa del SEÑOR, los caldeos les hicieron añicos
y se llevaron todo el bronce de regreso a Babilonia. 18 Las ollas, palas, despabiladeras, los tazones, y todos los utensilios de bronce con los cuales los sacerdotes habían servido en el templo, los caldeos se los llevaron todos. 19 Las cuencas y los quemadores de incienso, los tazones, ollas, candelabros, las ollas, y cuencas que fueron hechos de oro y aquellos hechos de plata, el comandante de la guardia del rey se los llevó de igual manera. 20 Los dos pilares, el mar, y los doce toros de bronce que estaban debajo de las bases, cosas que Salomón había hecho para la casa del SEÑOR, contenían más bronce de lo que podía pesarse. 21 Los pilares eran de dieciocho codos de alto cada uno, y una línea alrededor de cada uno medía doce codos. Cada uno tenía el espesor de cuatro dedos y hueco. 22 Un capitel de bronce estaba en el tope.
El capitel era de cinco codos de alto, con una malla y granadas alrededor. Estaba todo hecho de bronce.
El otro pilar y sus granadas eran igual que el primero. 23 Así que había noventa y seis granadas en el lado del capitel, y cien granadas sobre la malla circundante. 24 El comandante de los guardaespaldas tomó por prisionero a Seraías, el sumo sacerdote, junto con Sofonías, el segundo sacerdote y tres porteros. 25 De la ciudad él tomó por prisionero a un oficial que estaba a cargo de soldados, y siete hombres de aquellos que aconsejaban al rey, que aún estaban en la ciudad. También tomó por prisionero al oficial del ejército del rey, responsable de reclutar a hombres para el ejército, junto a sesenta hombres importantes de la tierra que estaban en la ciudad. 26 Entonces Nabuzaradán, el comandante de los guardaespaldas, los tomó y los trajo al rey de Babilonia en Ribla. 27 El rey de Babilonia los mató en Ribla en la tierra de Hamat. De esta manera, Judá salió de su tierra al exilio. 28 Estas son las personas que Nabucodonosor llevó al exilio: en el séptimo año, 3, 023 judíos. 29 En el año dieciocho de Nabucodonosor, él se llevó a 832 personas de Jerusalén. 30 En el año veintitrés de Nabucodonosor, Nabuzaradán, el comandante de los guardaespaldas del rey, llevó al exilio a 745 personas judías. Todas las personas exiliadas eran un total de 4, 600. 31
Sucedió más tarde en el año treinta y siete del exilio de Joaquín, rey de Judá, en el duodécimo mes, en el día veinticinco del mes, que Evil Merodac, rey de Babilonia liberó a Joaquín, rey de Judá de la prisión.
Esto sucedió en el año que Evil Merodac comenzó a reinar. 32 Él le habló amablemente y le dio un asiento más honorable que el de los otros reyes que estaban con él en Babilonia. 33 Evil Merodac removió la ropa de preso de Joaquín, y Joaquín comió regularmente en la mesa del rey por el resto de su vida, 34 y se le dio una ración regular de comida cada día por el resto de su vida hasta su muerte.

Book: Lamentations

Lamentations

Chapter 1

1 La ciudad que una vez estuvo llena de personas, ahora está sola. Se ha convertido como una viuda, aunque era una nación poderosa. Era una princesa entre las naciones, pero ahora es forzada a la esclavitud. 2 Ella llora y gime en la noche, y sus lágrimas cubren sus mejillas. Ninguno de sus amantes la consuela. Todos sus amigos la han traicionado. Ellos se han convertido en sus enemigos. 3 Después de la pobreza y la aflicción, Judá se ha ido al exilio. Vive entre las naciones y no encuentra descanso. Todos sus perseguidores la tomaron en su desesperación. 4 Los caminos de Sion se lamentan porque nadie viene a las celebraciones fijadas. Todas sus puertas están desoladas. Sus sacerdotes gimen. Sus vírgenes están apenadas y ella misma está en completa angustia. 5 Sus adversarios se han vuelto sus amos; sus enemigos prosperan. EL SEÑOR la ha afligido por sus muchos pecados. Sus niños pequeños van a ser esclavos de sus enemigos. 6 Y la belleza ha dejado a la hija de Sión. Sus príncipes han venido a ser como ciervos que no pueden encontrar pasto, y van sin fuerzas delante de su perseguidor. 7 En los días de su aflicción y desamparo, Jerusalén recordará todos sus tesoros preciosos que tuvo en días anteriores. Cuando su pueblo cayó en la mano del adversario, nadie la ayudó. Los adversarios la vieron y se rieron de su destrucción. 8 Jerusalén pecó grandemente, por lo tanto, ha sido despreciada como algo sucio. Todos los que la honraron, ahora la desprecian ya que han visto su desnudez. Ella gime y trata de alejarse. 9 Se ha vuelto impura debajo de sus faldas. No piensa sobre su futuro. Su caída fue terrible. No hubo nadie que la consolara. Ella clamó: "¡Mira mi aflicción, SEÑOR, pues el enemigo se ha vuelto muy grande!" 10 El enemigo ha puesto su mano en todos nuestros tesoros preciosos. Ella ha visto las naciones entrar a su santuario, aún cuando Tú has ordenado que ellos no deben entrar en tu lugar de asamblea. 11 Todo su pueblo gime mientras ellos buscan pan. Ellos han dado sus tesoros preciosos por comida para restaurar sus vidas. Mira, SEÑOR, y considérame, pues yo no tengo valor. 12 ¿No es nada para ustedes lo qué me pasa a mi? Mira y ve si la amargura de alguien más es como la amargura que me está siendo impuesta, ya que EL SEÑOR me ha tormentado en el día de su enojo feroz. 13 ÉL ha enviado fuego desde lo alto que ha consumido mis huesos. ÉL ha extendido una red para mis pies y me hizo volver. ÉL me ha hecho constantemente desolada y débil. 14 EL yugo de mis trangresiones está atado por Su mano. Ellas están enlazadas juntas y colocadas sobre mi cuello. ÉLha hecho fallar mi fuerza. EL Señor me ha entregado a sus manos, y no soy capaz de pararme. 15 ELSeñor ha hechado a un lado a todos mis hombres poderosos que me defendieron. ÉL ha llamado una asamblea en contra mía para pisotear mis hombres vigorosos. EL SEÑOR ha pisoteado la hija virgen de Judá en el lagar. 16 Por estas cosas yo lloro. Agua fluye de mis ojos desde que el consolador, quien debería restaurar mi vida, está muy lejos de mí. Mis hijos están desolados porque el enemigo ha triunfado. 17 Sión ha extendido sus manos ampliamente; no hay nadie para consolarla. EL SEÑOR ha ordenado que aquellos alrededor de Jacob deberían ser sus adversarios. Jerusalén es algo impuro para ellos. 18 EL SEÑOR es justo, pues yo me he rebelado en contra de su mandato. Escuchen, todos ustedes pueblos, y vean mi amargura. Mis vírgenes y mis hombres vigorosos se han ido a cautiverio. 19 Yo llamé a mis amigos, pero ellos fueron traicioneros hacia mí. Mis sacerdotes y mis ancianos perecieron en la ciudad, mientras ellos buscaban comida para restaurar sus vidas. 20 Mira, SEÑOR, pues yo estoy en angustia; mi estómago se revuelve, mi corazón está perturbado dentro de mí, pues yo he sido muy rebelde. Afuera, la espada desconsuela una madre, dentro de la casa hay solamente muerte. 21 Ellos han escuchado mi gemir, pero no hay nadie para consolarme. Todos mis enemigos han escuchado de mi problema y ellos están contentos que TU lo hayas hecho. TU has traído el día que has prometido; ahora hazlos como yo. 22 Permite que toda su maldad venga delante de TI. Haz con ellos como haz hecho conmigo a causa de todas mis transgresiones. Mis gemidos son muchos y mi corazón desfallece.

Chapter 2

1 EL SEÑOR ha cubierto la hija de Sión bajo la nube de su enojo. ÉL ha arrojado el esplandor de Israel del cielo a la tierra. No se ha acordado de su banquillo en el día de su enojo. 2 EL SEÑOR ha tragado y no ha tenido compasión de todos los pueblos de Jacob. En los días de su enojo, ÉL ha derrumbado las ciudades fortificadas de la hija de Judá; en deshonra ÉL ha derribado al suelo el reino y sus gobernantes. 3 Con enojo feroz ÉL ha cortado cada cuerno de Israel. Ha retirado su mano derecha de delante del enemigo. Ha quemado a Jacob como un fuego ardiente que devora todo a su alrededor. 4 Como un enemigo ÉL ha doblado su arco hacia nosotros, con su derecha está listo para disparar. Ha matado a todos quienes han sido tan agradables para ÉL, en la tienda de la hija de Sión; y ha derramado su ira como fuego. 5 EL SEÑOR se ha vuelto como un enemigo. ÉL se ha tragado a Israel y todos sus palacios. ÉL ha destruido sus fortalezas. Ha aumentado el luto y la lamentación dentro de la hija de Judá. 6 Ha atacado su tabernáculo como a una cabaña de jardín. Ha destruido el lugar de la asamblea solemne. EL SEÑOR ha causado que ambos, la asamblea solemne y el día de reposo sean olvidados en Sión, pues ha despreciado a ambos, al rey y al sacerdote en la indignación de su enojo. 7 EL SEÑOR ha rechazado su altar y repudiado su santuario. ÉL ha dado los muros de sus palacios en la mano del enemigo. Ellos han levantado un grito en la casa del SEÑOR, como en el día de una fiesta señalada. 8 EL SEÑOR decidió destruir la ciudad amurallada de la hija de Sión. ÉL ha estirado la línea de medición y no ha retenido su mano de destruir la muralla. Y ha hecho las murallas y el muro para lamentar; juntos ellos se desperdician. 9 Sus puertas se han hundido en el suelo; ÉL ha destruido y roto las barras de su puerta. Su rey y sus príncipes están entre las naciones, la ley ya no está y sus profetas no encuentran visión del SEÑOR. 10 Los ancianos de la hija de Sión se sientan en el suelo en silencio. Ellos han arrojado polvo en sus cabezas y se han puesto tela áspera. Las vírgenes de Jerusalén inclinaron sus cabezas al suelo. 11 Mis ojos han fallado de sus lágrimas; mi estómago se revuelve; mis partes interiores se derraman al suelo a causa de la destrucción de la hija de mi pueblo, hijos e infantes desfallecen en las calles de la ciudad. 12 Ellos dicen a sus madres: "¿Dónde está el grano y el vino?" mientras ellos desfallecen como un hombre herido en las calles de la ciudad, sus vidas son derramadas en el seno de sus madres. 13 ¿Qué puedo decirte a ti, hija de Jerusalén? ¿A qué puedo yo compararte, que pueda yo consolarte, hija virgen de Sión? Tu herida es tan grande como el mar. ¿Quién puede sanarte? 14 Tus profetas han visto falsas e indignas visiones para ti. Ellos no han expuesto tu iniquidad para restaurar tus fortunas, pero por ti ellos han dado declaraciones que son falsas y engañosas. 15 Todos aquellos que pasan junto al camino aplauden sus manos a ti. Ellos sisean y sacuden sus cabezas en contra de la hija de Jerusalén y dicen: "¿Es ésta la ciudad que ellos llamaron ´La Perfección de la Belleza´, ´El Gozo de Toda la Tierra´?" 16 Todos tus enemigos abren sus bocas y se mofan de ti. Ellos comentan despectivamente y rechinan sus sientes y dicen: "¡Nos la hemos tragado! ¡Este es el día que nosotros hemos esperado! ¡Hemos vivido para verlo!" 17 EL SEÑOR ha hecho lo que ha planificado hacer. ÉL ha cumplido Su palabra. ÉL te ha derrocado sin piedad, pues ha permitido que el enemigo se regocije sobre ti; ÉL ha levantado el cuerno de tus enemigos. 18 ¡Sus corazones clamaron al Señor, murallas de la hija de Sión! Hagan que sus lágrimas fluyan como un río día y noche. No se den a ustedes mismos alivio, a sus ojos no den alivio. 19 ¡Levántate, clama en la noche, al comienzo de las vigilias nocturnas! Derrama tu corazón como agua delante del rostro del SEÑOR. Levanta tus manos a ÉL por las vidas de tus hijos que desfallecen de hambre en la esquina de cada calle." 20 Mira, SEÑOR, y considera aquellos a quienes has tratado de esta manera. ¿Deberían las mujeres comer el fruto de sus vientres, los hijos a quienes ellos han cuidado? ¿Debería el sacerdote y el profeta ser asesinados en el santuario del SEÑOR? 21 Ambos, el joven y el viejo se acuestan en el polvo de las calles. Mis mujeres jóvenes y mis hombres jóvenes han caído por la espada; TÚ los has matado sin misericordia. 22 Tú has convocado, como si vinieran a una fiesta, a mis atacantes de todos lados. En el dia del enojo del SEÑOR nadié escapó o sobrevivió; aquellos quienes crié y sustente mi enemigo los destruyó.

Lamentations 2:1

Información General:
Un poema nuevo inicia. El escritor de Lamentaciones usa muchas diferentes maneras para expresar que el pueblo de Israel ha perdido el favor de Dios.

nube de su enojo

Chapter 3

1 Yo soy un hombre que ha visto miseria bajo la vara de la furia del SEÑOR. 2 ÉL me exilió y me hizo caminar en oscuridad en lugar de en luz. 3 Ciertamente ÉL volteó su mano en mi contra una y otra vez, el día entero. 4 Hizo que mi carne y piel se desgastaran; Y quebró mis huesos. 5 ÉL construyó obras de asedio en mi contra, y me rodeó con amargura y privación. 6 ÉL me hizo vivir en lugares oscuros, como aquellos que murieron hace mucho. 7 ÉL construyó una muralla alrededor de mí y no pude escapar. Hizo mis cadenas pesadas 8 y a pesar de que clamo y pido ayuda, ÉL silencia mi oración. 9 ÉL obstruyó mi camino con una muralla de piedra labrada; hizo mis caminos torcidos. 10 Es como un oso esperando emboscarme, un león escondido; 11 ÉL puso a un lado mis caminos, y me ha desolado. 12 ÉL tensó su arco y me puso como un objetivo para su arco. 13 ÉL perforó mis riñones con los arcos de su aljaba. 14 Me convertí en un hazmerreír para todo mi pueblo, el objeto de su burla el día entero. 15 ÉL me llenó de amargura y me forzó a beber ajenjo. 16 ÉL aplastó mis dientes con gravilla; me ha empujado al suelo. 17 Mi alma es privada de paz; he olvidado lo que es la felicidad. 18 Así que yo digo: "¡SEÑOR! mi fuerza y esperanza han perecido". 19 Recuerden mi aflicción y mis andanzas, el ajenjo y amargura. 20 Yo continuamente los recuerdo y estoy inclinado dentro de mí. 21 Pero yo recuerdo esto y tengo espeanza. 22 EL amor firme del SEÑOR nunca acaba y su compasión nunca termina, 23 ellos son nuevos cada día; tu fidelidad es grande. 24 "Yo dije EL SEÑOR es mi herencia", por lo tanto en ÉL esperaré. 25 EL SEÑOR es bueno con aquellos que esperan por ÉL, con aquel que lo busca. 26 Es bueno esperar calladamente por la salvación del SEÑOR. 27 Es bueno que un hombre sufra en su juventud. 28 Dejen que se sienta solo en silencio, porque fue DIOS quien le permitió sufrir. 29 Dejen que ponga su boca en el polvo, quizás todavía haya esperanza. 30 Dejen que dé su mejilla al que lo golpeó, y dejen que sea lleno con desgracia. 31 Pues EL SEÑOR no nos rechazará por siempre, 32 pues aunque Él causa dolor, Él tendrá compasión de acuerdo a la abundancia de su amor firme. 33 Pues ÉL no aflige ni atormenta a los hijos de la humaidad. 34 Para aplastar bajo el pie a todos los prisioneros de la tierra, 35 para negar a un hombre justicia en la presencia del MAS ALTO, 36 para negar justicia a una persona, ¡EL SEÑOR no aprobaría tales cosas! 37 ¿Quién ha hablado y decretado a meos que EL SEÑOR lo ordene? 38 ¿No es de la boca del MAS ALTO que vienen ambas cosas, calamidades y bien? 39 ¿Cómo puede alguna persona viva quejarse? ¿Cómo puede una persona quejarse por el castigo de sus pecados? 40 Permítannos examinar nuestros caminos y probarlos, y regresar al SEÑOR. 41 Permítannos levantar nuestros corazones y nuestras manos a DIOS en los cielos: 42 "Hemos transgredido y rebelado, y TÚ no has perdonado. 43 Te has cubierto a TÍ mismo con enojo y nos haz perseguido, TÚ has matado y no haz perdonado. 44 Te haz cubierto a ti mismo con una nube para que ninguna oración pueda atravesarla. 45 Nos haz hecho como sucia escoria y desperdicios entre las naciones. 46 Todos nuestros enemigos nos maldicen, 47 pánico y trampas han venido sobre nosotros, ruina y destruccción. 48 Mis ojos fluyen con corrientes de lágrimas porque mi pueblo es destruido. 49 Mis ojos derramarán lágrimas sin cesar; sin alivio, 50 hasta que ÉL miré hacia abajo y EL SEÑOR vea desde el cielo. 51 Mis ojos tienen dolor a causa de todas las hijas de mi ciudad. 52 He sido cazado como a un pájaro, aquellos que eran mis enemigos; me cazaron sin ninguna razón. 53 Ellos me han lanzado a un pozo y lanzaron una piedra sobre mí, 54 y aguas se vierten sobre mi cabeza. Yo dije: "¡Ha llegado mi fin!" 55 Llamé a tu nombre, SEÑOR, desde las profundidades del pozo. 56 TÚ escuchaste mi voz cuando yo dije: "No cierres tu oído a mi llanto por ayuda." 57 TÚ te acercaste en el día que yo te llamé; Tú dijiste: "No temas." 58 ¡SEÑOR, TÚ defendiste mi caso, salvaste mi vida! 59 SEÑOR, has visto el mal que ellos me han hecho; juzga mi caso. 60 TÚ has visto sus insultos, todos sus conspiraciones en mi contra, 61 TÚ has escuchado su desprecio, SEÑOR, y todos sus planes con respecto a mí. 62 Los labios de aquellos que se levantan en mi contra, y sus acusaciones, viene en mi contra todo el día. 63 Mira cómo ellos se sientan y se levantan; ellos se burlan de mí con sus canciones. 64 Devuélveles, SEÑOR, de acuerdo a lo que ellos han hecho. 65 ¡TÚ harás que sus corazones sean avergonzados! ¡Que tu condenación sea sobre ellos! 66 ¡TÚ los persigues en ira y los destruyes de debajo de los cielos, SEÑOR!

Lamentations 3:37

¿No es de la boca del Más Alto que ambos, calamidades y el bien vienen a ser?
Traducción Alterna: "Dios decreta desastre o éxito para cada persona."

Lamentations 3:40

Permítanmos levantar nuestros corazones y nuestras manos
Era costumbre que los israelitas levantaran las manos cuando oraban a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Oremos sinceramente con las manos levantadas"

Nosotros hemos transgredido y rebelado
Las palabras "transgredido" y "rebelado" comparte significados similares. Juntas indican que la transgresión es lo mismo que la rebelión contra el SEÑOR.

Te has cubierto a ti mismo con enojo
Aqui se habla de enojo como si fuera un vestido que Dios se ha puesto: Los hebreos frecuentemente hablaban de emciones como si fueran ropa. Traducción Alterna: "Has estado enojado"

Lamentations 3:44

Chapter 4

1 El oro se ha empañado; ¡cómo ha cambiado el oro más puro! Las piedras santas son esparcidas en la esquina de cada calle. 2 Los hijos preciosos de Sión valían su peso en oro puro, pero ahora no valen más que jarras de arcilla, ¡el trabajo de las manos de un alfarero! 3 Incluso los chacales ofrecen su pecho para amamantar sus cachorros, pero la hija de mi pueblo se ha vuelto cruel, como las avestruces en el desierto. 4 La lengua del bebé lactante se pega al techo de su boca de sed; los niños piden comida, pero no hay nada para ellos. 5 Aquéllos que solían festejar con comidas caras ahora mueren de hambre en las calles; aquéllos que fueron traídos vistiendo vestiduras púrpuras, ahora se acuestan sobre pilas de basura. 6 El castigo de la hija de mi pueblo es más grande que el de Sodoma, y fue volcado en un momento y nadie levantó una mano para ayudarla. 7 Sus líderes eran más puros que la nieve, más blancos que la leche; sus cuerpos fueron más rojizos que el coral, su forma era como el zafiro. 8 Su apariencia ahora es más oscura que el hollín; ellos no son reconocidos en las calles. Su piel se ha marchito en sus huesos; se han vuelto tan secos como madera. 9 Aquellos que han sido asesinados por espada eran más felices que aquellos asesinados por hambre, quienes fueron desgastados, por la falta de cualquier cosecha del campo. 10 Las manos de la mujer compasiva han hervido a sus propios hijos; ellos se volvieron su comida durante el tiempo cuando la hija de mi pueblo estaba siendo destruida. 11 EL SEÑOR mostró toda su ira; ÉL derramó su enojo feroz. ÉL encendió un fuego en Sión que consumió sus fundamentos. 12 Los reyes de la tierra no creyeron, ni tampoco los habitantes del mundo, los enemigos u oponentes podían entrar a las puertas de Jerusalén. 13 Esto pasó a causa de los pecados de sus profetas y las iniquidades de sus sacerdotes quienes derramaron la sangre de los justos en medio de ella. 14 Ellos vagaron, ciegos, por las calle. Fueron tan contaminados por esa sangre que a ninguno le era permitido tocar sus vestiduras. 15 "¡Aléjense! ¡Impuros!" el pueblo les gritó. "¡Aléjense! ¡Aléjense! ¡No toquen!" Así que ellos deambularon; las personas dijeron entre las naciones: "Ellos no pueden quedarse aquí más tiempo." 16 EL SEÑOR mismo los esparció; no los vigila más. Ellos no honran a los sacerdores y no mostraron ningún favor a los ancianos. 17 Nuestros ojos fallaron, mirando en vano por ayuda; desde nuestras torres de vigilancia, nosotros velamos por una nación que no podía rescartarnos. 18 Ellos siguieron nuestros pasos, nosotros no podíamos caminar en nuestras calles. Nuestro fin estaba cerca y nuestros días fueron contados, nuestro fin había venido. 19 Nuestros perseguidores eran más ágiles que las águilas en el cielo. Ellos nos persiguieron a las montañas y nos acecharon en el desierto. 20 El aliento en nuestras fosas nasales, el ungido del SEÑOR, ÉL fue capturado en sus pozos; de quien fue dicho: "Bajo su sombra nosotros viviremos entre las naciones." 21 Regocíjense y estén contentos, hija de Edom, ustedes que viven en la tierra de Uz. Pero la copa tambien pasarán a ustedes, se emborracharán y se desnudarán. 22 Hija de Sión, tu castigo vendrá a un fin, ÉL no extenderá tu exilio. Pero a la hija de Edom, castigará y destapará sus pecados.

Book: Ezekiel

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

1 En el año treinta, el cuarto mes, y el quinto día del mes, ocurrió que yo estaba viviendo entre los cautivos cerca del Canal Quebar. Los cielos se abrieron, y yo vi visiones de Dios. 2 En el quinto día de ese mes- era el quinto año del exilio del rey Joaquín- 3 la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Ezequiel hijo de Buzi el sacerdote, en la tierra de los caldeos cerca del Canal de Quebar, y la mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre él allí. 4 Entonces yo miré, y había una tormenta huracanada que venía del norte; una gran nube con fuego relampagueando dentro de ella y una brillantez rodeándola y dentro de ella, y dentro de la nube el fuego era de color ámbar. 5 En el centro estaba el aspecto de cuatro seres vivientes. Esta era su apariencia: tenían la apariencia de un hombre, 6 pero tenían cuatro rostros cada uno, y cada una de las criaturas tenían cuatro alas. 7 Sus piernas eran derechas, pero las plantas de sus pies eran como las pezuñas de un ternero que brillaba como bronce pulido. 8 Pero aun así ellas tenían manos humanas debajo de sus alas en todos los cuatro lados. Para todos los cuatro, sus rostros y alas eran así: 9 sus alas estaban tocando las alas de la siguiente criatura, y no se volteaban según ellos iban; en cambio, cada uno iba hacia adelante. 10 El aspecto de sus rostros era como el rostro de un hombre. Los cuatro de ellos tenían el rostro de un león al lado derecho, y cuatro de ellos tenían el rostro de un buey en el lado izquierdo. Los cuatro también tenían el rostro de un águila. 11 Sus rostros eran así, y sus alas estaban extendidas hacia arriba, así que cada criatura tenía un par de alas que tocaba el ala de otra criatura, y también un par de alas que cubrían sus cuerpos. 12 Cada uno iba hacia adelante, así que dondequiera que el Espíritu los dirigía ir, ellos iban sin volverse. 13 En cuanto al aspecto de los seres vivientes, su apariencia era como brasas de fuego ardiendo, como la apariencia de antorchas; fuego brillante también se movía entre las criaturas, y había destellos de rayos. 14 ¡Las criaturas vivientes se estaban moviendo suavemente hacia atrás y hacia adelante, y tenían la apariencia de rayos! 15 Entonces miré a las criaturas vivientes; había una rueda en el suelo al lado de las criaturas vivientes. 16 Esta era la apariencia y estructura de las ruedas: cada rueda era como el berilo, y las cuatro tenían el mismo aspecto; su apariencia y estructura era como una rueda dentro de otra rueda. 17 Cuando las ruedas se movían, ellas iban sin girar en ninguna dirección que las criaturas iban. 18 En cuanto a sus llantas, eran altas y temibles, porque las llantas estaban llenas de ojos alrededdor. 19 Dondequiera que las criaturas vivientes se movían, las ruedas se movían al lado de ellas. Cuando las criaturas vivientes se alzaban de la tierra, las ruedas también se alzaban. 20 Dondequiera que el Espíritu se movía, ellas iban, y las ruedas se alzaban al lado de ellas, por cuanto el espíritu de las criaturas vivientes estaba en las ruedas. 21 Dondequiera que las criaturas se movían, las ruedas también se movían; y cuando las criaturas se detenían, las ruedas se detenían; cuando las criaturas se levantanban de la tierra, las ruedas se levantaban al lado de ellas, porque el espíritu de las criaturas vivientes estaba en las ruedas. 22 Sobre las cabezas de los criaturas vivientes estaba el aspecto de una extensa cúpula; parecía como un cristal impresionante que se extendía sobre sus cabezas. 23 Debajo de la cúplula, cada una de las alas de las criaturas se extendían derechas y tocaban el ala de otra criatura. Cada una de las criaturas vivientes también tenían un par de alas para cubrirse ellas mismas; cada una tenía un par de alas para cubrir su propio cuerpo. 24 Entonces escuché el sonido de sus alas. Como el ruido de muchas aguas. Como la voz del Todopoderoso dondequiera que ellos se movían. Como el sonido de vientos huracanados. Como el sonido de un ejército. Dondequiera que se detenían, ellos bajaban sus alas. 25 Una voz venía desde lo alto de la cúpula sobre sus cabezas, dondequiera que se detenían y bajaban sus alas. 26 Por encima de la cúpula sobre sus cabezas estaba el aspecto de un trono que era como la apariencia de una piedra de zafiro, y en el aspecto del trono estaba el aspecto como la apariencia de un hombre. 27 Yo vi una figura con la apariencia de metal brillante, con fuego desde la apariencia de sus caderas; yo vi de la apariencia de sus caderas hacia abajo la apariencia de fuego y brillantez alrededor. 28 Como la apariencia de un arcoiris en las nubes en un día lluvioso, estaba la apariencia de una luz brillante rodeándola. Era la apariencia del aspecto de la gloria del SEÑOR. Cuando yo la vi, me caí sobre mi rostro, y escuché una voz hablando.

Ezekiel 1:1

En el año treinta:
Este es el año treinta de la vida de Ezequiel.

El cuarto mes, y el quinto día del mes:
"el quinto día del cuarto mes." Este es el cuarto mes del calendario hebreo. El quinto día es cerca del final de junio en los calendarios Occidentales.

Sucedió que:
esta frase se utiliza aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si en su idioma hay una manera de hacer esto, considere usarla aquí.

Yo estaba viviendo entre los cautivos:
la palabra "yo" se refiere a Ezequiel. "Yo era uno de los cautivos".

Yo ví visiones de Dios:
"Dios me mostró cosas inusuales".

Era el quinto año del exilio del Rey Joaquín:
a lo largo del libro, Ezequiel pondrá fecha a sus profecías en base a cuando los babilonios forzaron a Joaquín a dejar Jerusalén.

A Ezequiel ... sobre él allí:
Ezequiel habla de sí mismo como si fuera otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "a mí, Ezequiel ... a mí allí".

La palabra del SEÑOR vino con poder a Ezequiel:
"el SEÑOR le habló con poder a Ezequiel". 9-Buzi: el nombre de un hombre

El canal Quebar:
este es un río en que el pueblo de Caldea cavaba para conseguir agua para sus huertas. "El río Quebar".

La mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre él:
la palabra "mano" suele usarse para referirse al poder o acción de alguien. Una persona que tiene su mano sobre otra, tiene poder sobre esa persona. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR lo controlaba"

SEÑOR:
este es el nombre de Dios que Él reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página sobre traducción de palabra de Yahweh/el SEÑOR para ver cómo traducirla.

Ezekiel 1:4

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continúa describiendo su visión.

Viento tempestuoso:
se trata de una tormenta que tiene mucho viento.

Viniendo del norte:
el norte es la dirección a tu izquierda cuando miras el Sol salir.

Una gran nube con un fuego que resplandecía en ella. Esto puede ser traducido como una nueva oración:
"la tormenta tenía una nube muy grande con fuego resplandeciente en ella".

Fuego resplandeciente:
los posibles significados son: 1) relámpagos resplandecientes o 2) relámpagos constantes.

Y un resplandor envolviéndola y dentro de ella:
"y una luz muy brillante envolvía la nube y estaba dentro de ella".

El color del ámbar:
"amarillo brillante como el ámbar" o "amarillo brillante" o "amarillo resplandeciente".

Ámbar:
una resina amarilla rígida que es utilizada como una hermosa decoración en joyas.

En el medio:
"en medio de la tormenta".

Había una figura de cuatro seres vivientes:
"había cosas que parecían ser cuatro criaturas" o "había algo que parecía ser cuatro criaturas".

Esta era su apariencia:
"las cuatro criaturas se veían así:"

Tenían la apariencia de un hombre:
"las cuatro criaturas se veían como personas"

Pero cada uno tenía cuatro caras, y cada criatura, cuatro alas.
"Pero cada uno de ellos tenía cuatro caras diferentes, y cuatro alas." Cada criatura tenía una cara en el frente, una en la parte de atrás, y una cara a cada lado de la cabeza.

Ezekiel 1:7

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continua describiendo su visión.

Pero las plantas de los pies eran como pezuñas de un becerro:
"pero sus pies parecían pezuñas de becerro" o "pero sus pies parecían los pies de becerro".

Pezuñas de un becerro:
la parte dura del pie de un becerro.

Que brillaba como el bronce bruñido:
"que brillaban como bronce que ha sido bruñido". Esto describe los pies de las criaturas. Traducción Alterna: y brillaban como bronce bruñido."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

En los cuatro lados:
"en los cuatro lados de sus cuerpos."

Para las cuatro criaturas, sus rostros y alas eran así:
"para las cuatro criaturas, sus alas y sus rostros eran así"

Y no giraban al andar:
"y las criaturas no giraban al moverse".

Ezekiel 1:10

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continúa describiendo su visión.

La apariencia de sus rostros era como el rostro de un hombre:
Ezequiel describe los rostros delas criaturas en su lado frontal. Traducción Alterna: "los rostros de cada criatura tenían esta apariencia: el rostro del frente se parecía al rostro de un hombre".

Luego, el rostro de un león a la derecha:
"El rostro del lado derecho de su cabeza se parecía al rostro de un león."

Finalmente, el rostro de un águila:
"finalmente, el rostro del lado trasero de su cabeza se parecía al rostro de un águila."

Sus alas estaban extendidas por encima, de manera que cada criatura tenía un par de alas que tocaba las alas de otra criatura:
"cada criatura tenía levantadas dos de sus alas de manera que un ala tocaba el ala de la criatura a un lado de ella, y el otro ala tocaba el ala de la criatura al otro lado."

Y también un par de alas que cubrían sus cuerpos: esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración:
"las otras dos alas de cada criatura cubrían su cuerpo".

Cada uno caminaba hacia adelante:
"cada criatura se movía con un rostro mirando hacia adelante".

Ezekiel 1:13

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continúa describiendo su visión.

Su aspecto era como de carbones de fuego encendidos, o antorchas:
"brillaban como carbones en un fuego ardiente, o como antorchas".

Y había destellos de relámpagos:
"y del fuego salían relámpagos".

Las criaturas vivientes se movían ligeramente hacia atrás y hacia adelante, y su aspecto era como de relámpagos:
un relámpago aparece y desaparece rápidamente, y las criaturas se movían de esa manera de un lugar a otro.

Ezekiel 1:15

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continúa describiendo su visión.

Había una rueda en el suelo al lado de las criaturas vivientes:
"había una rueda en el suelo, al lado de cada una de las criaturas vivientes, y una rueda por cada dirección hacia la cual miraban las criaturas."

Esta era la apariencia y estructura de las ruedas:
"las ruedas se veían y habían sido hechas de la siguiente manera:"

Como el crisólito:
el cirsólito es una piedra traslúcida muy valiosa, de color amarillo o dorado. "Clara y amarilla como una piedra de crisólito" o "clara y amarilla como una piedra preciosa".

Las cuatro eran iguales:
"las cuatro ruedas eran iguales".

Parecía como una rueda cruzándose con otra rueda:
"estaban hechas con una rueda atravesando otra rueda".

Ezekiel 1:17

Oración de Enlace:
Ezequiel continúa describiendo su visión.

Andaban sin girar en cualquiera de las direcciones hacia la que miraran las criaturas:
"las ruedas podían dirigirse hacia cualquiera de las direcciones a la que miraran las criaturas".

En cuanto a los aros:
"los aros de las ruedas eran así:"

Eran altos y espantosos:
"los aros eran muy altos e imponentes" o "los aros eran altos y aterradores".

Porque los aros estaban llenos de ojos alrededor:
"porque los aros tenían muchos ojos alrededor de las cuatro ruedas".

Ezekiel 1:19

Cuando las criaturas se levantaron de la tierra:
las criaturas volaban en el aire luego de dejar el suelo. Traducción Alterna: "así que cuando las criaturas dejaban el suelo y se levantaban en el aire." .

El espíritu de la criatura viviente:
algunos significados posibles son que Ezequiel está 1) hablando de las "criaturas" del versículo 19 como si fueran una criatura, "el espíritu de las criaturas vivientes estaba en las ruedas" o 2) usando una expresión idiomática para hablar de "el espíritu de vida" o "el espíritu viviente" o 3) el mismo espíritu que le dio vida a las criaturas, también le dio vida a las ruedas." .

Las ruedas también se levantaban:
"las ruedas también dejaban el suelo y se levantaban en el aire".

A donde fuera que el Espíritu iba, ellas iban:
la palabra "ellas" se refiere a las criaturas.

Las ruedas se levantaban a su lado:
"las ruedas se levantaban en el aire con las criaturas vivientes."

Ezekiel 1:22

Una bóveda expansiva:
una bóveda es como una pelota hueca cortada a la mitad. Expansiva significa muy grande. "Un enorme cuenco boca abajo".

Un cristal impresionante:
"un cristal que hace que la gente se maraville al verlo."

Desplegado por encima de sus cabezas:
"y la bóveda expansiva se desplegaba sobre la cabeza de las criaturas" o "y la bóveda expansiva cubría mucho espacio sobre la cabeza de las criaturas."

Por debajo de la bóveda:
"debajo de la bóveda".

Cada una de las cuatro criaturas también tenía un par para cubrirse; cada una tenía un par para cubrir su cuerpo:
"cada una de las criaturas vivientes tenía también otras dos alas, las cuales usaban para cubrir sus cuerpos".

Ezekiel 1:24

Información general:
Ezequiel continua hablando de su visión sobre las criaturas vivientes.

Luego oí el sonido de sus alas:
como el ruido de agua corriendo. Como la voz del Todopoderoso cuando se movían. Otros posibles significados son que las palabras "cuando se movían" se refiera a 1) todas las palabras antes de esa frase en el versículo: "cuando sea movían, oí el sonido de sus alas. Como el sonido del agua corriendo. Como la voz del Todopoderoso" (ver UBD), o 2) a las palabras que siguen: "alas. Como el sonido del agua corriendo. Como la voz del Todopoderoso. Cuando se movían, sonaba así."

Como ... el agua. Como ... que se movían. Como ... tormenta. Como ... ejército. Estas oraciones no están completas porque Ezequiel estaba demostrando que estaba emocionado por lo que estaba viendo. Pueden traducirse como oraciones completas:
"las alas sonaban como ... agua. Sonaban como ... que se movían. Sonaban como ... una tormenta. Sonaban como ... un ejército.

Agua corriendo:
simplemente significa "mucho agua". Podría referirse a "un ruido caudaloso" o "una gran cascada" o "las olas rompiendo en el mar". Todas estas son muy ruidosas.

Como la voz del Todopoderoso.
La Biblia a veces habla del trueno como "la voz del Todopoderoso". Traducción Alterna: sonaba como la voz del Dios Todopoderoso" o "sonaba como el trueno del Todopoderoso". .

Como el sonido de una tormenta: algunos posibles significados son:
(1) "Como el sonido de una gran tormenta" o (2) "Como el sonido de una gran multitud de personas". Traducción Alterna: había un sonido que era ruidoso como una gran tormenta" o "había un sonido que era fuerte como una gran multitud de personas".

Como el sonido de una tormenta:
algunos posibles significados son:

Cuando estaban quietas:
"cuando las criaturas dejaban de moverse".

Bajaban sus alas:
"las criaturas dejaban sus alas caer a sus lados." Hacían esto cuando no usaban sus alas para volar.

Una voz vino desde encima de la bóveda:
"Alguien que estaba por encima de la bóveda habló." Si necesitas decir de quién es esta voz, deberías identificarla como la voz del SEÑOR (1:1).

La bóveda por encima de sus cabezas:
"la bóveda que estaba por encima de las cabezas de las criaturas".

La bóveda:

En el trono estaba:
"en el trono había".

La apariencia de uno que parecía un hombre:
"alguien que se asemejaba a un hombre" o "alguien que se asemejaba a una persona". Si necesita decir quién es, debería identificarlo como el SEÑOR (1:1).

Ezekiel 1:27

Información General:
Ezequiel continua describiendo su visión.

De sus caderas para arriba:
el cuerpo de la persona sobre las caderas parecía de metal brillante que tenía fuego.

Todo alrededor:
alrededor de la persona sentada en el trono.

De las caderas hacia abajo parecía fuego y brillaba completamente:
alrededor de él, debajo de las caderas, vi que había fuego y una luz resplandeciente.

Parecía un arcoiris en las nubes en un día nublado, y como una luz resplandeciente envolviéndolo:
"el resplandor que lo envolvía parecía un arcoiris que aparece en las nubes en un día lluvioso."

Arcoiris:
la franja de luz colorida que aparece en la lluvia cuando el Sol brilla detrás del observador.

Esto se asemejaba a la gloria del SEÑOR:
la luz resplandeciente parecía algo similar a la gloria del SEÑOR.

Caí sobre mi rostro:
"me postré en el suelo" o "me tumbé en el suelo". Ezequiel no se cayó por accidente. Fue hacia el suelo para mostrar que respetaba y temía al SEÑOR.

Chapter 2

1 Él me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, párate sobre tus pies; entonces Yo te hablaré." 2 Entonces, mientras Él me hablaba, el Espíritu entró en mí y me puso sobre mis pies, y yo lo oí hablándome. 3 Él me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, Yo te estoy enviando al pueblo de Israel, a naciones rebeldes que se han rebelado contra Mí, ¡tanto ellos y sus ancestros han pecado contra Mí hasta este mismo día! 4 Sus descendientes tienen caras tercas y corazones endurecidos. Yo te estoy enviando a ellos, y tú les dirás a ellos: 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice.' 5 Ya sea que ellos escuchén o no escuchén. Ellos son una casa rebelde, pero al menos sabrán que un profeta ha estado entre ellos. 6 'Tú, hijo de hombre, no les tengas miedo a ellos ni a sus palabras. No temas, aunque tú estés entre zarzas y espinos y aunque vivas con escorpiones. No les temas sus palabras o estés abatido por sus rostros, ya que son una casa rebelde. 7 Pero tú hablarás Mis palabras a ellos, aunque ellos escuchen o no, porque ellos son lo más rebelde. 8 Pero tú, hijo de hombre, escucha lo que Yo te estoy diciendo. No seas rebelde como esa casa rebelde. ¡Abre tu boca y come lo que Yo estoy a punto de darte!" 9 Entonces yo miré, y una mano me fue extendida; en ella había un rollo escrito. 10 Él lo desplegó delante de mí; había sido escrito por delante y por detrás, y escrito sobre él había lamentaciones, luto, y abatimiento.

Ezekiel 2:1

Información General:
Ezequiel continua describiendo su visión.

Me dijo:
si tu idioma necesita identificar a quien habla, lo mejor sería identificarlo como "aquel que tenía la apariencia de un hombre" (1:26). No fue "el Espíritu".

El Espíritu:
otros significados posibles son: 1) "un espíritu" o 2) "un viento".

El hijo de hombre:
"hijo de un ser humano" o "hijo de humanidad". Dios llama así a Ezequiel para enfatizar que Ezequiel es sólo un ser humano. Dios es poderoso y vive para siempre, pero las personas no. Traducción Alterna: "persona mortal" o "humano".

Al pueblo de Israel, a naciones rebeldes:
"a los israelitas, a pueblos rebeldes." Las dos frases se refieren al mismo pueblo. "Al pueblo de Israel, quienes son rebeldes."

Hasta hoy en día:
esto significa que el pueblo de Israel continuaba desobedeciendo a Dios. "Aun ahora" o "aun hoy".

Ezekiel 2:4

Información General:
Ezequiel continua describiendo su visión.

Sus descencientes:
los descendientes de las previas generaciones de Israel que se habían rebelado contra Dios, refiriéndose a las personas que vivían en Israel en el tiempo en que Ezequiel escribe.

Rostros obstinados y corazones duros:
las palabras "rostros obstinados" se refiere a la manera en que eran por fuera, y las palabras "corazones duros" se refiere a la manera en que pensaban y sentían. Juntas, enfatizan que el pueblo de Israel no cambiaba su manera de vivir para obedecer a Dios.

Tienen rostros obstinados:
"tienen expresiones en sus rostros que demuestran que son obstinados".

Obstinado:
que no quiere cambiar

Corazones duros:
las puedras nunca cambian ni se ablandan, y este pueblo nunca cambia ni se arrepiente al hacer cosas malvadas. Ver:

Chapter 3

1 El me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, come lo que has encontrado. Cómete el rollo, luego ve y habla a la casa de Israel." 2 Así que Yo abrí mi boca, y el me dió a comer ese rollo. 3 Él me dijo: "¡Hijo de hombre, alimenta tu vientre y llena tu estomago con este rollo que yo te he dado!" Así que lo comí, y fue tan dulce como la miel en mi boca. 4 Entonces Él me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, ve a la casa de Israel y habla mis palabras a ellos. 5 ¡Pues tú no has sido enviado a un pueblo de hablar extraño o lenguaje dificil, sino a la casa de Israel, 6 no a una nación poderosa de hablar extraño o de lenguaje extraño cuyas palabras tú no puedas entender! Aunque si yo te envío a ellos, ellos te escucharían. 7 Pero la casa de Israel no estará dispuesta a oirte, pues ellos no estan dispuestos a oirme a mí. Así toda la casa de Israel es terca y de duro corazón. 8 ¡Por tanto! Yo he hecho tu cara obstinada como sus caras y tu frente tan dura como sus frentes. 9 ¡Yo he hecho tu frente como diamante, mas dura que el pedernal! No les temas o te desalientes por sus caras, ya que ellos son una casa rebelde. 10 Entonces Él me dijo, "¡Hijo de hombre, todas las palabras que yo te anuncie, tomalas en tu corazón y escuchalas con tus oidos! 11 Entonces ve a los cautivos, a tu pueblo, y háblales. Dile a ellos: 'Así dice Dios el SEÑOR:' ya sea que te escuchen o no." 12 Entonces el Espíritu me levantó, y yo escuché detrás de mí un sonido de un gran terremoto: "¡Bendita sea la gloria del SEÑOR desde Su lugar!" 13 Era el sonido de las alas de las criaturas vivientes mientras ellos se tocaban unos a otros, y el sonido de ruedas que estaban con ellos, y el sonido de un gran terremoto. 14 El Espíritu me levantó y me llevó, y yo fui con amargura en la furor de mi espíritu, ¡porque la mano del SEÑOR me estaba presionando poderosamente! 15 Así que fuí a los cautivos en Tel Abib quienes vivían entre el canal de Quebar, y me quedé allí entre ellos por siete días, abrumado en asombro. 16 Entonces sucedió después de siete días que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 17 "Hijo de hombre, yo te he hecho un centinela para la casa de Israel, así que cuando escuches la palabra de mi boca, dales mi advertencia. 18 Cuando Yo le diga al malvado: 'Tú seguramente morirás' y tú no le advirtieras al malvado acerca de sus malas obras para que el pueda vivir, el malvado morirá por su pecado, pero yo demandaré su sangre de tu mano. 19 Pero si tú le adviertes al malvado, y el no se aparta de sus malas obras, entonces el morirá por su pecado, pero tú habras rescatado tu propia vida. 20 Si un hombre justo deja de ser justo y actúa de manera injusta, y yo le pongo ante él una piedra de tropiezo, este morirá. Porque tú no le advertiste, este morirá en su pecado, y Yo no le recordaré las buenas obras que hizo, pero demandaré su sangre de tu mano. 21 Pero si tú le adviertes a ese hombre justo que deje de pecar, para que así él ya no peque más, este seguramente vivirá ya que fue advertido; y tú habrás rescatado tu propia vida." 22 Así que la mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre mí, y me dijo: "¡Levántate! ¡Ve a la llanura, y Yo hablaré contigo allí! 23 Yo me levanté y fui a la llanura, y allí estaba la gloria del SEÑOR, como la gloria que yo había visto al lado del río Quebar; así que me postré sobre mi rostro. 24 El Espíritu vino a mí y me levantó sobre mis pies; y habló conmigo, y me dijo: "Ve y enciérrate en tu casa, 25 por ahora, hijo de hombre, ellos van a atarte con sogas para que no salgas y estés entre ellos. 26 Yo haré que tu lengua se pegue a tu paladar, para que enmudescas, y no puedas reprenderlos, porque son una casa rebelde. 27 Pero cuando Yo hable contigo, te abriré la boca para que le digas a ellos: 'Esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice'. Los que escuchen, escucharán; los que no escuchen no oirán, ¡porque son una casa rebelde!"

nformación General:
Ezequiel aparenta haberse enojado porque el SEÑOR lo enviaba a hablarle a los exiliados israelitas, por lo que se rebelaba contra el mismo SEÑOR. Aunque se suponía que debía hablarles, se sentó en silencio por siete días, aunque podía sentir la ira del SEÑOR "presionando fuertemente" contra él.

Con amargura en la ira de mi espíritu:
las palabras "amargura" e "ira" son tipos de enojo. Traducción Alterna: "estaba amargado y mi espíritu estaba lleno de enojo" o "estaba muy amargado y enojado".

Amargura:
Ezequiel habla de su amargura hacia el SEÑOR como si fuera un sabor feo en su boca porque el SEÑOR lo había obligado a comer algo que sabía mal.

Pues la mano del SEÑOR presionaba fuertemente sobre mí:
Ezequiel habla de estar triste y cansado porque el SEÑOR le había mandado que hiciera cosas que no quería hacer, como si el SEÑOR lo presionara hacia el suelo.

La mano del SEÑOR:

Chapter 4

1 "Pero, tú, hijo de hombre, toma un ladrillo para ti mismo y pónlo delante de ti. Luego, talla la ciudad de Jerusalén en él. 2 Entonces, cércala, y construye fuertes contra ella. Levanta rampas de asalto contra ella y pon campamentos alrededor. Pon arietes (máquinas para derribar) alrededor de ella. 3 Luego toma para ti mismo un sartén de hierro y úsalo como una pared de hierro entre ti y la ciudad, y pon tu rostro contra ella, pues estará cercada, y tú estás para poner el cerco contra ella. Esto será una señal para la casa de Israel. 4 Luego, recuéstate en tu lado izquierdo y pon el pecado de la casa de Israel en él; tú cargarás su pecado por el número de días que tú estés recostado en contra de la casa de Israel. 5 Yo mismo estoy asignándote un día para representar cada año de su castigo: ¡390 días! De esta manera, tú cargarás el pecado de la casa de Israel. 6 Cuando tú hayas completado estos días, entonces recuéstate una segunda vez en tu lado derecho, pues tú cargarás el pecado de la casa de Judá por cuarenta días. Yo estoy asingnándote un día por cada año. 7 Coloca tu rostro hacia Jerusalén que está cercada, y con tu brazo descubierto profetiza contra ella. 8 ¡Porque he aquí! Yo estoy colocando ataduras en ti para que no puedas moverte de un lado a otro hasta que hayas completado los días de tu cerco. 9 Toma para ti trigo, cebada, frijoles, lentejas, millo y centeno; pónlos en un solo contenedor y haz pan para ti mismo de acuerdo al número de días que estarás recostado en tu lado. Por 390 días tú lo comerás. 10 La comida que comerás será por peso, veinte siclos por día, y lo comerás en tiempos establecidos cada día. 11 Luego, tú beberás agua medida a medio litro, y la beberás en tiempos establecidos. 12 ¡Tú lo comerás como pan de cebada, pero tú lo hornearás en excremento de estiércol humano a la vista de ellos!" 13 Pues el SEÑOR dijo: "Esto significa que el pan que el pueblo de Israel comerá será inmundo, allí entonces entre las naciones Yo los desterraré." 14 Pero yo dije: "¡Ay, SEÑOR DIOS! ¡Yo nunca he sido inmundo! ¡Yo nunca he comido nada que ha muerto o que haya sido matado por animales, desde mi juventud hasta ahora, y carne sucia nunca ha entrado en mi boca!" 15 Así que Él me dijo: "¡Mira! Yo te he dado estiércol de vaca en vez de estiércol humano para que puedas preparar tu pan sobre eso." 16 Él también me dijo a mí: "¡Hijo de hombre! ¡He aquí! Yo estoy rompiendo la provisión de pan en Jerusalén, y ellos comerán pan mientras lo racionan en ansiedad y beben agua mientras la racionan con temblor. 17 Porque les faltará pan y agua, cada hombre estará consternado con su hermano y se consumirán a causa de su iniquidad."

Chapter 5

1 Entonces, tú, hijo de hombre, toma una espada afilada como una navaja de barbero para ti mismo, y pasa la navaja sobre tu cabeza y tu barba, entonces toma tus balanzas para pesar y divide tu cabello. 2 Quema una tercera parte de este con fuego en el medio de la ciudad en los días del cerco sean completados, y toma una tercera parte del cabello y golpea con la espada alrededor de la ciudad. Luego esparce una tercera parte de este al viento, y Yo sacaré una espada para perseguir al pueblo. 3 Pero toma un pequeño número de cabellos de estos y átalos en los dobleces de tu manto. 4 Luego toma mas del cabello y lánzalos en medio del fuego; y quémalos en el fuego; desde ahí el fuego saldrá a toda la casa de Israel." 5 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: "Esto es Jerusalen en medio de las naciones, donde Yo la he colocado, y donde Yo la he rodeado con otras tierras. 6 Pero ella ha rechazado con malicia mis decretos mas de lo que lo han hecho las naciones, y Mis estatutos mas que otros paises que la rodean. El pueblo ha rechazado mis juicios y no han caminado en mis estatutos." 7 Por tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: "Porque eres mas problemática que las naciones que te rodean y no has caminado en mis estatutos o actuado acorde a Mis decretos, ni has actuado de acuerdo a los decretos de las naciones que te rodean," 8 por eso el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: "Mirad, Yo mismo actuaré encontra de ustedes. Yo ejecutaré juicios dentro de ti para que las naciones vean. 9 Yo voy hacerte lo que Yo no he hecho y lo cual no volveré hacer, por todas tus acciones abominables. 10 Por lo tanto, los padres se comerán los hijos en medio de ti, y los hijos se comerán a sus padres, pues Yo ejecutaré juicio en ti y regaré hacia toda dirección todo lo que queda de ti. 11 Por lo tanto, mientras Yo viva, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, ciertamente es porque tu has contaminado Mi santuario con todas tus cosas odiosas y con todas tus abominaciones, que Yo mismo te reduciré en números; Mi ojo no va a tener pena de ti, y Yo no te perdonaré. 12 Un tercio de ti va a morir por plagas, y ellos van a ser consumidos por hambruna en medio de ti. Un tercio va a caer por la espada rodeándote. Luego, Yo voy a esparcir un tercio en cada dirección, y sacaré una espada para que los persigan a ellos también. 13 Entonces, mi ira va a ser completada, y Yo voy hacer que mi furia caiga sobre ellos. Yo voy a ser satisfecho, y ellos van a saber que Yo, EL SEÑOR, he hablado en mi ira cuando Yo haya completado mi furia en contra de ellos. 14 Yo te haré una desolación y un reproche para las naciones que te rodean a la vista de todos los que pasen. 15 Así que, Jerusalén va a convertirse en algo para que las otras personas condenen y se burlen, una advertencia y un horror para las naciones que te rodean. Yo voy a ejecutar juicio en contra tuya en Mi ira y furia, con furiosa reprención. ¡Yo, EL SEÑOR he declarado esto! 16 Yo voy a enviar flechas duras de hambruna en contra de ti que se convertirá en el medio con el cual te destruiré. Pues, Yo voy a aumentar la hambruna en ti y romperé tu provisión de pan. 17 Yo voy a enviar hambruna y desastres en contra de ti, así que, tu estarás sin hijos. Plagas y sangre van a pasar a través de ti, y Yo voy a traer espada en contra tuya. Yo, EL SEÑOR, he declarado esto."

Ezekiel 5:1

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel. Todos los ejemplos de "la ciudad" se refieren a la "ciudad" que Ezequiel grabó en el ladrillo (4:1).

Hijo de hombre:

Chapter 6

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, pon tu rostro contra las montañas de Israel y profetízales. 3 Di: '¡Montañas de Israel, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR Dios! Así dice el SEÑOR Dios a las montañas y a las colinas, a los arroyos, y a los valles: ¡Miren! Yo traeré una espada en contra de ustedes, y Yo destruiré sus lugares altos. 4 Entonces, sus altares se volverán desolados y sus imágines serán destruidas, y Yo derribaré a sus muertos en frente de sus ídolos. 5 Yo pondré los cuerpos muertos del pueblo de Israel ante sus ídolos, y esparciré sus huesos alrededor de sus altares. 6 Dondequiera que vivan, las ciudades serán devastadas y los lugares altos arruinados, así sus altares serán devastados y desolados. Entonces, serán ellos rotos y desaparecerán, sus ídolos serán cortados y sus obras serán eliminadas. 7 Los muertos caerán en medio de ustedes y sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 8 Pero Yo preservaré un remanente entre ustedes, y habrán algunos quienes escaparán de la espada entre las naciones, cuando ustedes sean esparcidos a través de los países. 9 Luego, aquellos quienes escapen pensarán en Mí entre las naciones donde ellos serán cautivos, Yo estaré afligido por sus corazones promiscuos que se alejaron de Mí, y por sus ojos que se prostituyeron ante sus ídolos. Luego, ellos mostrarán desprecio en sus rostros por la maldad que ellos han cometido con todas sus abominaciones. 10 Así ellos conocerán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. Fue por tal razón que Yo dije que traería esta maldad sobre ellos. 11 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Aplaudan sus manos y golpeen con sus pies! Digan: '¡Ay'! ¡por causa de todas las malas abominaciones de la casa de Israel! Porque ellos caerán por la espada, hambruna, y plaga. 12 El que está lejos caerá por la plaga, y el que está cerca caerá por la espada. Aquellos quienes queden y sobrevivan morirán por la hambruna. De esta manera Yo lograré Mi furor en contra de ellos. 13 Entonces, ustedes sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR, cuando sus muertos estén entre sus ídolos, alrededor de sus altares, sobre cada colina alta, en todos los picos de las montañas, y bajo cada árbol florecido y roble grueso, los lugares donde ellos le quemaron incienso a todos sus ídolos. 14 Yo golpearé con Mi mano y haré la tierra desolada y un desperdicio, desde el desierto hasta Diblat, en todos los lugares donde ellos viven. Entonces, ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR."

Chapter 7

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Tú, hijo del hombre, así dice el SEÑOR Dios a toda la tierra de Israel." '¡El fin! El fin ha llegado a los cuatro extremos de la tierra. 3 Ahora el fin esta ante ti, pues yo estoy enviando mi ira en contra de ti, y te juzgaré de acuerdo a tus caminos; entonces traeré todas tus abominaciones ante ti. 4 Pues mis ojos no tendrán compasión de ti, y yo no te perdonaré. En vez, traeré tus caminos ante ti, y tus abominaciones estarán en medio de ti, así sabrás que soy el SEÑOR. 5 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: "¡Desastre! ¡Un único desastre! He aquí, está de camino. 6 El fin seguramente esta llegando. El fin se ha levantado en contra de ti. ¡He aquí, está de camino! 7 La destrucción viene hacia los que habitan la tierra. El tiempo ha llegado; el día de la destrucción está cerca, y las montañas nunca más serán alegres. 8 Ahora pronto, derramaré Mi furia en contra de ustedes y llenaré Mi ira ante ustedes cuando los juzgue de acuerdo a sus caminos y traeré sus abominaciones ante ustedes. 9 Pues Mi ojo no verá con compasión, y no los perdonaré. Así como han hecho, Yo haré a ustedes; y sus abominaciones estarán en medio de ustedes para que sepan que Yo soy el SEÑOR, el que los está castigando. 10 ¡He aquí, el día! ¡He aquí, esta llegando! ¡La destrucción ha salido! ¡La vara ha florecido, la arrogancia está germinando! 11 La violencia ha crecido como vara de maldad, ¡ninguno de ellos, y ninguno de su multitud, nada de su riqueza, y nada de su importancia durará! 12 El tiempo está llegando; el día está cerca. ¡No dejes que el comprador se regocije, ni que el vendedor lamente, ya que mi ira es con toda la multitud! 13 Pues los vendedores nunca volverán a aquello que vendieron, por cuanto vivan, ya que la visión es en contra de toda la multitud. ¡Ellos no volverán, pues ningún hombre viviendo en su pecado será fortalecido! 14 Ellos han tocado la trompeta y han dejado todo listo, pero nadie marcha a la batalla; ya que mi enojo es con toda la multitud. 15 La espada está en las afueras, y hay plagas y hambruna dentro de la ciudad. Aquellos que están en el campo morirán por la espada, mientras la hambruna y las plagas consumirán a los de la ciudad. 16 Pero algunos sobrevivientes se escaparán entre ellos, y se irán a las montañas. Como las palomas de los valles, todos ellos gemirán - cada hombre por su iniquidad. 17 Cada mano se debilitará y toda rodilla será débil como agua, 18 y vestirán cilicio, y el terror los cubrirá; y habrá vergüenza en cada cara, y calvicie en todas sus cabezas. 19 Tirarán su plata a la calle y su oro será refutado. Su plata y su oro no será capaz de rescatarlos en el día de la ira del SEÑOR. Sus vidas no serán salvadas, y su hambre no será satisfecha, por que su iniquidad se ha convertido en un bloque de tropiezo. 20 En su orgullo ellos se llevaron la bellezas de sus joyas ornamentales, y con ellas hicieron sus figuras idólatras, y sus cosas abominables. Por lo tanto, Yo convertiré estos en una cosa inmunda para ellos. 21 Entonces, Yo les daré esas cosas en las manos de los extraños como botín y a los malvados de la Tierra como botín, y ellos los contaminarán. 22 Luego, Yo apartaré mi rostro de ellos cuando ellos hayan contaminado Mi lugar preciado; bandidos entrarán y lo profanarán. 23 Hagan una cadena, porque la tierra está llena con el juicio de sangre, y la ciudad está llena de violencia. 24 Así que, traeré a las naciones más malvadas, y ellos poseerán sus casas, y Yo traeré el fin al orgullo del poderoso, ¡pues su lugar santo será contaminado! 25 ¡Miedo vendrá! Ellos buscarán la paz, pero no habrá ninguna. 26 Desastre sobre desastre vendrá, y habrá rumor tras rumor. Entonces, ellos buscarán una visión del profeta, pero la Ley perecerá del sacerdote y el consejo de los ancianos. 27 El rey llorará y el príncipe se vestirá de desespero, mientras que las manos de las personas de la tierra temblarán en miedo. ¡De acuerdo a sus propios caminos Yo les haré esto a ellos! Los juzgaré con sus propios preceptos hasta que ellos conozcan que Yo Soy SEÑOR."

la palabra "mira" añade énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducciones alternas: "mira" o "escucha" o "presta atención a lo que estoy por decirte".

Ha despertado el final contra ti:
el juicio que está por venir se presenta como si se tratara de un enemigo que está despertando del sueño.

Las montañas ya no se regocijarán:
"el pueblo en las montañas no tendrá más gozo".

Ezekiel 7:8

Información General:
estas son las palabras del SEÑOR al pueblo de Israel.

En poco tiempo:
"dentro de muy poco tiempo"

Voy a derramar mi furia contra ti y colmar mi enojo sobre ti:
el SEÑOR usa los términos "derramar" y "llenar" para comparar su enojo con derramar agua y llenar un jarrón. Las dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la severidad del castigo del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "voy a castigarte severamente porque estoy muy enojado."

Furia:
enojo o gran enojo

Pues mi ojo no mirará con compasión:
a frase "mi ojo" significa Dios mismo. "Pues no voy a mirar con compasión"

No voy a perdonarte:
"no voy a dejarte sin castigo" o "voy a castigarte"

Tus abominaciones estarán en medio de ti para que sepas que soy el SEÑOR:

Chapter 8

1 Así que vino cerca del sexto año y el sexto mes, en el quinto día del mes, mientras me senté en mi casa y los ancianos de Judá se sentaron ante mi, que la mano del SEÑOR DIOS cayó de nuevo sobre mi allí. 2 Así que yo miré, y ví, había allí una figura con la apariencia de un hombre. Desdede sus caderas hacia abajo tenía la apariencia de fuego. Y desde sus caderas hacia arriba tenía la apariencia de algo brillando, como metal reluciente. 3 Luego él extendió algo en forma de una mano y me tomó por el pelo de mi cabeza; el Espíritu me levantó entre la tierra y el cielo, y en visiones de Dios, él me trajo a Jerusalén, a la entrada de la puerta norte, donde el idolo que provoca gran celo estaba en pie. 4 He aquí, la gloria de Dios estaba allí, de acuerdo con la visión que vi en la llanura. 5 Luego Él me dijo: ''Hijo de hombre, levanta tus ojos al norte.'' Así que yo levanté mis ojos al norte, y al norte de la puerta que conduce al altar, allí en la entrada, estaba el idolo de los celos. 6 Entonces Él me dijo: ''Hijo de hombre, tu puedes ver lo que ellos están haciendo? Éstas son grandes abobinaciones que la casa de Israel está haciendo aquí para que Yo me aleje de Mí propio santuario. Pero te darás vuelta y verás aún más abobinaciones." 7 Entonces él me trajo a la puerta del patio, y miré, y había allí un agujero en la pared. 8 Él me dijo: '' Hijo de hombre, cava en esta pared.'' Así que cavé en la pared, y allí había una puerta. 9 Entonces él me dijo a mi: ''Vé y mira las malvadas abobinaciones que ellos están haciendo aquí.'' 10 Así que fuí dentro y miré! Había allí toda forma de reptiles y bestía detestable! Cada ídolo de la casa de Israel estaba tallado en la pared todo alrededor. 11 Setenta ancianos de la casa de Israel estaban allí, y Jaazanías hijo de Safán estaba en pie en medio de ellos. Ellos estaban en pie en frente de las imagenes, y cada hombre tenía su incensario en su mano así que el olor de la nube de incienso subió. 12 Él me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, ¿estás viendo lo que los ancianos de la casa de Israel hacen en la oscuridad? Cada uno hace esto en el cuarto oscuro de su ídolo, pues ellos dicen: '¡El SEÑOR no nos ve! El SEÑOR ha abandonado la tierra.'" 13 Entonces Él me dijo: "Voltéate otra vez y mira abominaciones aún mayores que esta." 14 Entonces Él me llevó hacia la entrada de la puerta de la casa del SEÑOR que estaba al lado norte, y he aquí que las mujeres estaban sentadas llorando por Tamuz. 15 Así que Él me dijo: "¿Ves esto, hijo de hombre? Voltéate y mira abominaciones aún mayores que esta." 16 Él me trajo hacia el patio interior de la casa del SEÑOR, y, a la entrada del templo del SEÑOR, entre el pórtico y el altar, habían unos veinticinco hombres con sus espaldas hacia el templo del SEÑOR y sus caras hacia el este, y ellos estaban adorando al sol. 17 Él me dijo: "¿Ves esto, hijo de hombre? ¿Es cosa pequeña para la casa de Judá el hacer estas abominaciones que están haciendo aquí? Pues ellos han llenado la tierra con violencia y se han alejado para provocar Mi ira, poniendo el ramo hacia sus narices. 18 Así que también actuaré entre ellos; mi ojo no tendrá compasión, y Yo no los libraré. Aunque ellos lloren en Mis oídos con gran voz, Yo no los oiré."

Había un hombre en el medio vestido de lino con un equipo de escriba a su lado. Entonces ellos fueron y se detuvieron junto al altar de bronce. 3 Entonces la gloria del Dios de Israel subió del querubín donde había estado, hacía el umbral de la casa. Él llamó al hombre vestido de lino que tenía el equipo de escriba a su lado. 4 El SEÑOR le dijo:" Pasa por en medio de la ciudad, en medio de Jerusalén, y has una marca en la frente de todos los que gimen y suspiran por todas las abominaciones que son realizadas en medio de la ciudad." 5 Entonces escuché que Le habló a los otros: "Pasen a través de la ciudad detrás de él y maten. No dejen que sus ojos tengan compasión, y no perdonen al 6 hombre viejo, joven, virgen, niño pequeño o mujer. ¡Maten a todos! Pero no se acerquen a cualquiera que tenga la marca en su cabeza. ¡Comiencen en Mi Santuario! Así que comenzaron con los ancianos quienes estaban al frente de la Casa. 7 Él dijo:" ¡Deshonren la casa, y llenen sus patios con sus muertos. ¡Procedan! Así que ellos salieron y atacaron la ciudad. 8 Mientras ellos estaban atacándola, me encontré solo y caí sobre mi rostro y lloré y dije:" Ah, SEÑOR Dios, ¿Destruirás todo el remanente de Israel en el derramamiento de Tú ira sobre Jerusalén?" 9 Él me dijo:" La iniquidad de la casa de Israel y Judá es extremadamente grande. La tierra está llena de sangre y la ciudad llena de perversiones, ya que dicen: '¡Él SEÑOR ha olvidado la tierra, y él SEÑOR no ve!' 10 Por lo que, Mi ojo no mirará con compasión, y no los perdonará. Chapter 10

1 Cuando miré hacia la cúpula que estaba por encima de las cabezas de los querubines; algo apareció sobre ellos como un zafiro con la apariencia de una semejanza de un trono. 2 Entonces, el SEÑOR habló al hombre vestido de lino y dijo: "Pasa entre las ruedas debajo de los querubines, y llena ambas manos con carbones ardientes de entre los querubines y dispérsalos sobre la ciudad." Entonces el hombre entró mientras yo miraba. 3 Los querubines estaban de pie en el lado derecho de la casa cuando el hombre entró, y una nube llenó el patio interior. 4 La gloria del SEÑOR subió de los querubines y se detuvo sobre el umbral de la casa. Llenó la casa con la nube, y el patio estaba lleno del brillo de la gloria del SEÑOR. 5 El sonido de las alas de los querubines fue oído tan lejos como hasta el patio exterior, como la voz del Dios Todopoderoso cuando Él habla. 6 Sucedió, cuando Dios ordenó al hombre vestido de lino y dijo: "Toma fuego de entre las ruedas que están entre los querubines," el hombre entró y se detuvo junto a una rueda. 7 Un querubín extendió su mano entre los querubines hacia el fuego que estaba en medio de los querubines, y lo levantó y lo colocó dentro de las manos del que estaba vestido de lino. El hombre lo tomó y volvió a salir. 8 Yo vi en los querubines algo como la mano de un hombre por debajo de sus alas. 9 Así que miré, y Cuatro ruedas estaban junto a los querubines, una rueda junto a cada querubín, y la apariencia de las ruedas era como una piedra de berilo. 10 Su apariencia era la misma semejanza para los cuatro de ellos, como una rueda dentro de otra rueda. 11 Cuando ellos se movían, ellos ibán en cualquiera de las cuatro direcciones sin volverse en cualquier otra dirección. En cambio, dondequiera que la cabeza estaba mirando, ellos la seguían. Ellos no se volvíeron en ninguna otra dirección mientras iban. 12 Sus cuerpos completos, incluyendo sus espaldas, sus manos y sus alas, estaban cubiertos de ojos, y ojos cubrían las cuatro ruedas a todo alrededor también. 13 Mientras yo escuchaba, las ruedas fueron llamadas "Torbellinos." 14 Ellos tenían cuatro caras cada uno; la primera cara era la cara de un querubín, la segunda cara era la cara de un hombre, la tercera la cara de un león, y la cuarta la cara de un águila. 15 Entonces los querubines, estos eran las criaturas vivas que yo había visto por el río Quebar, se levantaron. 16 Cuando los querubines se movían, las ruedas se iban junto a ellos, y cuando los querubines levantaban sus alas para ascender sobre la tierra, las ruedas no se viraban. Ellas se quedaban aún junto a ellos. 17 Cuando los querubines se quedaban quietos, las ruedas se quedaban quietas, y cuando ellos ascendían, las ruedas ascendían con ellos, porque el espíritu de la criatura viva estaba en las ruedas. 18 Entonces la gloria del SEÑOR salió desde sobre el umbral de la casa y se detuvo sobre los querubines. 19 Los querubines levantaron sus alas y ascendieron desde de la tierra a mi vista cuando ellos salieron, y las ruedas hicieron lo mismo junto a ellos. Ellos se detuvieron a la entrada del este de la casa del SEÑOR, y la gloria del Dios de Israel vino sobre ellos desde arriba. 20 Estos fueron las criaturas vivas que yo había visto debajo del Dios de Israel junto al río Quebar, ¡así que yo sabía que ellos eran querubines! 21 Ellos tenían cada uno cuatro caras, y cada uno cuatro alas, y la semejanza de manos humanas por debajo de sus alas, 22 y la semejanza de sus caras era como las caras que yo había visto en la visión en el río Quebar, y cada uno de ellos fue directo al frente.

1 Entonces el Espíritu me levantó y me llevó a la puerta del este de la casa de SEÑOR, mirando hacia al este, y he aquí, en el camino de la puerta habían veinticinco hombres. Yo vi a Jaazanías, hijo de Azur, y Pelatías, hijo de Benaía, líderes del pueblo, entre ellos. 2 Dios me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, estos son los hombres que inventan iniquidad, y quienes deciden los planes malvados en esta ciudad. 3 Ellos están diciendo: 'El tiempo para construir casas no es ahora; esta ciudad es la olla, y nosotros la carne.' 4 Por lo tanto profetiza contra ellos. Profetiza, hijo de hombre." 5 Después el Espíritu de SEÑOR cayó sobre mí y Él me dijo: "Diles: Así dicel el SEÑOR: 'así hablan ustedes, oh casa de Israel; Sé lo que pasa por su mente. 6 Ustedes han multiplicado las personas que han matado en esta ciudad y llenado sus calles con ellos. 7 Por lo tanto, el Señor DIOS dice esto: La gente que has matado, cuyos cuerpos ustedes han puesto en medio de Jerusalén, son la carne, y esta ciudad la olla. Pero ustedes van a ser sacados de en medio de esta ciudad. 8 Ustedes han temido la espada, entonces Yo traigo espada sobre ustedes, esto es declaración del SEÑOR DIOS. 9 Yo voy a sacarlos del medio de la ciudad, y los pondré en manos de los extranjeros, Yo traeré juicio contra ustedes. 10 Ustedes van a caer por la espada. Yo voy a juzgarlos entre las fronteras de Israel, para que ustedes sepan que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 11 Esta ciudad no será su olla de cocinar, ni ustedes serán la carne en medio de ella. Yo voy a juzgarlos entre las fronteras de Israel. 12 Luego ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, Aquél en cuyos estatutos ustedes no han caminado y cuyos decretos no han cumplido. En cambio, han cumplido los decretos de las naciones que los rodean." 13 Sucedió que según yo profetizaba, Pelatías hijo de Benaía, murió. Entonces caí postrado sobre mi cara y lloré en alta voz, y dije: "Ay, SEÑOR DIOS, ¿Tú vas a destruir completamente el remanente de Israel?" 14 La palabra de SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 15 "Hijo de hombre, ¡tus hermanos! ¡Tus hermanos! ¡Los hombres de tu clan y toda la casa de Israel! ¡Ellos son a quienes les fue dicho por los que viven en Jerusalén: 'Aléjense del SEÑOR! Esta tierra fue dada a nosotros como nuestra posesión.' 16 Por lo tanto di: "El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: 'Aunque Yo los he removido lejos de entre las naciones, y aunque Yo los dispersé entre las tierras, He sido un santuario para ellos por un corto tiempo en las tierras donde ellos han ido.' 17 Por lo tanto di: 'El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: Yo los recogeré de entre los pueblos, y reuniré de entre las tierras donde ustedes fueron dispersos, y Yo voy a darles la tierra de Israel. 18 Después, ellos irán allá y removerán cada cosa detestable y cada abominación de aquel lugar. 19 Yo voy a darles un corazón, y Yo voy a poner un nuevo espíritu en ellos. Yo voy a sacar el corazón de piedra de su carne y les daré un corazón de carne, 20 entonces ellos van a caminar en Mis estatutos, ellos van a cumplir Mis decretos y los harán. Entonces serán Mi pueblo, y Yo seré su Dios. 21 Pero a aquellos que caminan con afecto hacia sus cosas detestables y sus abominaciones, Yo voy a traer sus conductas sobre sus cabezas.'" esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 22 Los querubines levantaron sus alas y las ruedas que estaban bajo ellas, y la gloria del Dios de Israel estaba sobre ellos. 23 Después la gloria de SEÑOR se elevó en el medio de la ciudad y se detuvo en la montaña al este de la ciudad. 24 El Espíritu me levantó y me trajo a Caldea, a los exiliados, en la visión del Espíritu de Dios, y la visión que Yo había visto se fue de mí. 25 Después yo le hablé a los exiliados todas las cosas del SEÑOR que he visto.

Chapter 12

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, tu vives en medio de una casa rebelde, donde ellos tienen ojos para ver, pero ellos no ven; y donde ellos tienen oídos para oír, pero ellos no escuchan, porque son una casa rebelde. 3 Por lo tanto en cuanto ti, hijo de hombre, prepara tus cosas para el exilio, y comienza a irte durante el día ante su vista, pues Yo te enviaré ante vista de tu lugar a otro lugar. Quizás ellos comiencen a ver, aunque sean una casa rebelde. 4 Tú sacarás tus cosas para el exilio de día ante su vista; sal en la tarde ante su vista en el camino en que cualquiera entra al exilio. 5 Cava un agujero a través del muro ante su vista, y ve a través de él. 6 En su vista, carga tus cosas en tus hombros, y sácalos en la oscuridad. Cubre tu rostro, pues tú no debes ver la tierra, ya que, Yo te he establecido como señal a la casa de Israel. 7 Así que lo hice, como me fue encomendado. Yo saqué mis cosas del exilio a la luz del día, y en la tarde cavé un agujero a través del muro a mano. Yo saqué mis cosas en la oscuridad y las cargué sobre mis hombros a la vista de ellos. 8 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí en la mañana, diciendo: 9 "Hijo de hombre, la casa de Israel, esa casa rebelde, no pregunta: '¿Qué haces?' 10 Diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Esta acción profética concierne al príncipe en Jerusalén, y toda la casa de Jerusalén, y toda la casa de Israel en cuyo medio ellos están.'" 11 "Di: 'Yo soy una señal para ustedes. Como he hecho, eso les será hecho a ellos; ellos entrarán al exilio y a la cautividad. 12 El prínicipe, quien está entre medio de ellos, cargará sus cosas en sus hombros en la oscuridad, y saldrán a través del muro. Ellos cavarán un agujero y sacarán sus cosas. Él cubrirá su rostro, pues no verá la tierra con sus ojos. 13 Yo extenderé mi red sobre él y él será atrapado en mi trampa; luego Yo lo traeré a Babilonia, la tierra de los caldeos, pero él no lo verá. Él morirá allí. 14 Yo también esparciré en cada dirección a todos aquellos a su alrededor que debían ayudarlo y a su ejército entero, y enviaré una espada tras él. 15 Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR, cuando los esparza entre las naciones y los disperse en todas las tierras. 16 Pero yo preservaré a algunos hombres de la espada, hambruna, y la plaga, para que ellos puedan contar todas sus abominaciones en las tierras a donde Yo los lleve, para que ellos sepan que Yo Soy el SEÑOR."' 17 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 18 "Hijo de hombre, come tu pan con temblor, y bebe tu agua con temblores y preocupación. 19 Luego dile al pueblo de la tierra: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto acerca de los habitantes de Jerusalén, y de la tierra de Israel: "Ellos comerán su pan con temblor y beberán su agua, mientras tiemblan, ya que la tierra será despojada de su plenitud, por causa de la violencia de todos los que viven allí. 20 Así que, las ciudades que fueron habitadas serán desoladas, y la tierra se volverá residuos; para que sepan que Yo Soy el SEÑOR.'" 21 Otra vez, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 22 "Hijo de hombre, ¿cuál es este proverbio que ustedes tienen en la tierra de Israel que dice: 'Los días son prolongados, y cada visión falla'? 23 Por lo tanto, dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo pondré final a este proverbio, y el pueblo de Israel no lo volverá a usar.' Dile a ellos: 'Los días se han acercado cuando cada visión será completada. 24 Pues ya no habrá falsas visiones, o adivinaciones favorables dentro de la casa de Israel. 25 ¡Pues Yo Soy el SEÑOR! Yo hablo, y Yo cumplo las palabras que hablo. El asunto ya no será atrasado. ¡Pues Yo hablaré esta palabra en tus días, casa rebelde, y yo la cumpliré!' Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."' 26 Otra vez, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 27 "¡Hijo de hombre! Mira, la casa de Israel ha dicho: 'La visión que él ve es para muchos días a partir de ahora, y él profetiza para tiempos lejanos.' 28 Por lo tanto, dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Mis palabras ya no serán restrasadas, pero la palabra que he hablado será hecha.'" Chapter 13

1 Otra vez, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, profetiza en contra de los profetas que están profetizando en Israel, y le dicen a esos a quienes les profetizan desde su propia imaginación: 'Escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR. 3 El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: ¡Ay de los profetas necios quienes siguen su propio espíritu, pero no han visto nada! 4 Israel, tus profetas han sido como chacales en tierras estériles. 5 Ustedes no han ido a las rupturas de la pared alrededor de la casa del Israel para repararlas, para resistir en la batalla del día del SEÑOR. 6 La gente tiene visiones falsas, y hacen predicciones falsas, estos que dicen: "Tal y tal es la declaración del SEÑOR." Y el SEÑOR no los ha enviado, pero igual ellos han hecho a la gente desear que sus mensajes se hagan realidad. 7 ¿No han tenido visiones falsas y hecho predicciones falsas, tú que dices: "Tal y tal es la declaración del SEÑOR," cuando Yo mismo no he hablado?' 8 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: 'Porque han tenido visiones falsas y han dicho mentiras, por lo tanto esta es la declaración del SEÑOR en contra de ustedes: 9 Mi mano será en contra de los profetas quienes tienen visiones mentirosas y hacen predicciones falsas. Ellos no estarán en la asamblea de Mi pueblo, ni registrados en el libro de la casa de Israel; ni entrarán a la tierra de Israel. ¡Pues ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR DIOS! 10 A causa de esto, y porque desviaron a Mi gente y dijeron: "¡Paz!" cuando no hay paz, ellos están construyendo una pared que pintaran con lodo.' 11 Dile a esos que están pintado la pared: 'Ella caerá; habrá una lluvia torrencial, y Yo enviaré granizo para hacerla caer, y una tormenta de viento para romperla. 12 Mira, la pared caerá. Que otros no les digan a ustedes: "¿Dónde está el lodo que le pusieron?" 13 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: ¡Yo traeré una tormenta de viento en Mi ira, y habrán inundaciones de lluvia en mi furia! Granizadas en Mi ira la destruirán completamente. 14 Pues Yo derribaré la pared que ustedes han cubierto con lodo, y la demoleré hasta el suelo y dejaré descubiertas sus fundaciones. Así caerá, y ustedes serán aniquilados en medio de todo esto. Entonces, ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 15 Pues Yo aniquilaré en mi furor la pared y a esos que la pintaron. Y les diré a ustedes: "La pared ya no existe, ni los que la pintaron tampoco, 16 ni los profetas de Israel, quienes profetizaron sobre Jerusalén y tuvieron visiones de paz por ella. ¡Pero no hay paz! Ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR DIOS.'" 17 Entonces, tú, hijo de hombre, pon tu rostro en contra de las hijas de tu pueblo que profetizan de sus propias mentes, profetiza en contra de ellas. 18 Y diles: 'El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: Ay de las mujeres que cosen amuletos mágicos en cada parte de sus manos y hacen velos para sus cabezas de todo tamaño, usados para cazar a la gente. ¿Ustedes cazaran a Mi pueblo pero salvarán sus propias vidas? 19 Ustedes me han profanado entre Mi pueblo por manojos de cebada y migajas de pan, para matar gente que no debería morir, y preservar las vidas de aquellos que no deberían continuar viviendo, mintiendo a Mi pueblo que los escuchan. 20 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: Yo estoy en contra de los amuletos mágicos que ustedes han usado para atrapar las vidas de la gente como si ellos fueran pájaros. De hecho, Yo arrancaré de sus brazos; a la gente que han atrapado como pájaros, Yo los dejaré libres. 21 Yo arrancaré sus velos y rescataré a Mi pueblos de sus manos, para que ya no estén atrapados en sus manos. Ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 22 Porque ustedes desalientan el corazón de gente justa con mentiras, aunque Yo no deseaba desalentarlos, y en su lugar apoyan las acciones de la persona malvada para que él no se aleje de este camino y pueda salvar su vida. 23 Por lo tanto, ustedes ya no tendrán visiones falsas ni continuarán haciendo predicciones, pues Yo rescataré a Mi pueblo de su mano. Ezekiel 13:15

Yo:
hace referencia al SEÑOR.

Lo aniquilaré en mi furia:
"cuando actúe desde mi enojo, le pondré un final".

Blanquearon:
"pintaron el muro de blanco" (Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:10).

Ya no existe el muro, ni el pueblo:
"el muro ya no está ahí, y tampoco el pueblo".

Visiones de paz para ella:
la palabra "ella" hace referencia a Jerusalén.

Esta es la declaración del Señor Dios:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Ezekiel 13:17

Hijo de hombre:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:1.

Pon tu rostro en contra:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:1.

Las hijas de tu pueblo:
las mujeres de Israel.

Profetizan desde sus propias mentes:
esto significa que están creando profecías desde su propia imaginación. Traducción Alterna: "imaginando sus propias profecías"

Profetizar contra:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:6.

Talismanes:
objetos de los que se cree que tienen poderes mágicos.

Hacer velos para sus cabezas de todo tamaño, usados para cazar personas:
las decoraciones que vestían las profetizas eran como una "trampa" porque usaban la belleza, el misterio y las mentiras para engañar al pueblo para que les creyeran y pecaran contra Dios.

Ezekiel 13:19

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablando en contra de las falsas profetizas en Israel.

Puñados de cebada y migajas de pan:
la cebada es un grano utilizado para hacer pan y la palabra "migaja" es una pequeña cantidad de pan. Ambas frases son pequeñas porciones de comida y se usan para enfatizar lo baja que era la paga a las profetizas.

Ezekiel 13:20

El Señor Dios dice esto:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:5.

Talismanes:
objetos de losque se cree que tienen poderes mágicos.

Cazar:
"entrampar". Una trampa es una soga con un lazo pequeño que caza algo por su pie.

Cazar las vidas de las personas como si fueran pájaros ... personas a quienes han cazado como pájaros:
el SEÑOR compara a las decoraciones de las profetizas con trampas para pájaros.

Arrancarlos de tus brazos:
la palabra "brazos" se refiere al control de las profetizas. Las mentiras que usan para controlar al pueblo de Israel son como brazos que los retienen de escapar. Traducción Alterna: "déjalos ir de tu control".

-ya no estarán atrapados en tus manos:
Decir que no estarán atrapados es lo mismo que decir que serán libres. La frase "atrapado en tu mano" se refiere al pueblo de Israel que está bajo el control de las falsas profetisas. Traducción alterna: "estarán libres de tu control"

Yo soy El Señor:
Los significados posibles son 1) "entiende quién soy El Señor" o 2) "entiende que soy El Señor, el único Dios verdadero" o 3) "sé que yo, El Señor, tengo el poder de hacer lo que digo que haré hacer "(UDB)

Ezekiel 13:22

Desanima el corazón de la persona justa:
el corazón de la persona justa se usa para hacer referencia a sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "desanima la persona justa".

-Darse vuelta de su camino:
para referirse a dejar de haceralgo, se usa el "girar" en una dirección diferente. Traducción Alterna: "dejar lo que está haciendo"

Tener visiones falsas o continuar haciendo predicciones:
ambas frases hacen referencia a hablar sobre lo que sucederá en el futuro. Traducción Alterna: "continuar haciendo falsas predicciones"

Fuera de tu mano:
la palabra "mano" se usa para hacer referencia al control de las profetizas. Traducción Alterna: "fuera de tu control"

Chapter 14

1 Algunos de los ancianos de Israel vinieron a mí y se sentaron frente a mí. 2 Luego la palabra del Señor vino a mí, diciendo: 3 "Hijo de hombre, estos hombres han llevado sus ídolos dentro de sus corazones y han puesto la piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad ante sus propios rostros. ¿Debo ser Yo cuestionado por ellos? 4 Por lo tanto anúnciales esto a ellos y diles: 'El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: Todo hombre de la casa de Israel que pone sus ídolos dentro de su corazón, o quien pone la piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad ante su rostro, y quien luego viene al profeta, Yo, SEÑOR, le contestaré de acuerdo al número de sus ídolos, 5 Yo haré esto para poder retomar la casa de Israel en sus corazones que fueron apartados de mí debidob a sus ídolos.' 6 Por lo tanto di a la casa de Israel: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Arrepiéntanse y apártense de sus ídolos! Tornen sus rostros de todas sus abominaciones. 7 Porque cualquiera de la casa de Israel y cada uno de los forasteros quedándose en Israel quien me abandona, quien pone sus ídolos a su corazón y pone la piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad ante su propio rostro, y que luego va al profeta a buscarme, Yo El Señor, le contestaré Yo mismo. 8 Yo pondré mi rostro en contra de ese hombre y lo convertiré en una señal y un proverbio, puesto que lo cortaré de entre el pueblo y ustedes sabrán que yo soy el Señor. 9 Si un profeta es engañado y habla un mensaje, entonces Yo, el SEÑOR, engañé al profeta; Yo le alcanzaré con mi mano en su contra y lo destruiré en medio de mi pueblo Israel. 10 Ellos cargarán su propia iniquidad; la iniquidad del profeta será la misma que la iniquidad del que le preguntó a él. 11 Debido a esto, la casa de Israel no vagará más lejos de Mí ni se deshonrarán más a sí mismos a través de todas sus transgresiones. Ellos serán mi pueblo, y Yo seré su Dios. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.'" 12 Luego la palabra del Señor vino a mí, diciendo: 13 "Hijo de hombre, cuando una tierra peca en Mi contra cometiendo pecado de modo que yo extiendo mi mano en su contra y rompo el sustento de su pan, y envío sobre ella hambruna y corto a ambos, hombre y bestia de la tierra; entonces, 14 aún cuando estos tres hombres: Noé, Daniel y Job, estuviesen en medio de la tierra, ellos sólo podrían rescatar sus propias vidas por su integridad. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 15 Si Yo envío bestias a través de esa tierra y la hago estéril para que se vuelva devastada donde ningún hombre pueda pasar por ella debido a las bestias, entonces, 16 aún si estos mismos tres hombres estuviesen en ella, así como Yo vivo, declara el SEÑOR DIOS, ellos no podrían rescatar ni sus propios hijos o hijas; sólo sus propias vidas serían rescatadas, pero la tierra se convertiría en desperdicio. 17 O si yo traigo espada en contra de esa tierra y digo: 'Espada, ve a través de la tierra y corta ambos hombre y bestia de esta', 18 entonces, aún si estos tres hombres estuviesen en medio de la tierra, así como vivo Yo, declara el SEÑOR Dios, ellos no podrían rescatar aun sus propios hijos o hijas; sólo sus propias vidas serían rescatadas. 19 O si Yo envío una plaga en contra de esta tierra y derramo mi furia en su contra a través del derramamiento de sangre, para cortar a ambos hombre y bestia, 20 entonces, aún si Noé, Daniel y Job estuviesen en esta tierra, vivo Yo, declara el SEÑOR Dios, ellos no serían capaces de rescatar aun sus propios hijos o hijas; sólo sus propias vidas serían rescatadas por su integridad. 21 Puesto que el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo de cierto haré cosas peores enviando mis cuatro castigos: hambruna, espada, animales salvajes y plaga en contra de Jerusalén para cortar a ambos, hombre y bestia, de ella. 22 ¡Sin embargo! Un remanente quedará en ella, sobrevivientes que saldrán con hijos e hijas. Ellos saldrán a ustedes, y ustedes verán sus caminos y acciones y serán consolados en cuanto al castigo que Yo he enviado a Jerusalén, y sobre todo lo demás que Yo he enviado en contra de la tierra. 23 ¡Los sobrevivientes los consolarán cuando vean sus caminos y sus acciones, para que ustedes sepan todas estas cosas que Yo he hecho en contra de ella, que no he hecho en vano! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

Ezekiel 14:1

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"el SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Han recibido a sus ídolos en sus corazones: Traducción Alterna:
"consideran que sus ídolos son muy importantes" o "tienen afecto por sus ídolos".

Ante sus propios rostros:
Dios está diciendo que los hombres han puesto a sus ídolos donde los pueden ver. Esto demuestra que los ídolos son importantes para ellos. Traducción Alterna: "donde pueden ser vistos".

Piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad:
se hace referencia a los ídolos como algo con lo que su pecado les hace tropezar y caer.

¿Debo ser consultado por ellos en modo alguno?
Traducción Alterna: "no deberían pedirme nada".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ezekiel 14:4

Así que anuncia esto a ellos:
la palabra "ellos" hace referencia a "los hombres de los ancianos de Israel".

-Quien recibe sus ídolos en su corazón:
Traducción Alterna: "quien considera a sus ídolos como muy importantes" o "quien tiene afecto por sus ídolos".

La piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad ante su rostro:
las palabras "ante su rostro" significan "con su atención completa". Traducción Alterna: el ídolo que ha usado para pecar adorándolo"

Luego viene a un profeta:
una persona va a un profeta para escuchar lo que Dios tiene que decir.

El número de sus ídolos:
Traducción Alterna: "cuántos ídolos tiene".

Puedo reclamar el corazón de la casa de Israel:
Traducción Alterna: "voy a hacer que el pueblo de Israel me ame nuevamente".

-Reclamar ... se han alejado de mí:
Él dice que va a traerlos de regreso para hacer que lo amen aunque sus ídolos los hayan alejado de Dios.

Ezekiel 14:6

La casa de Israel:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:1

¡Arrepiéntanse y vuélvanse de sus ídolos! Vuelvan sus rostros de todas sus abominaciones:
ambas frass son maneras de decirle al pueblo de Israel que dejen de adorar ídolos.

Arrepiéntanse y vuélvanse:
las palabras "arrepentirse" o "volverse" significan básicamente lo mismo. Juntas, fortalecen el mandamiento de dejar dea dorar a los ídolos.

Ezekiel 14:7

Quien recibe a sus ídolos en su corazón:
Traducción Alterna: "quien considera a sus ídolos como muy importantes" o "quien tiene afecto por sus ídolos".

Y pone la piedra de tropiezo de su iniquidad ante su propio rostro.
Traducción Alterna: "el ídolo que ha usado para pecar adorándolo"

Pondré mi rostro en contra de ese hombre:
Traducción Alterna: "voy a estar en su contra" o "voy a poner atención en estar en su contra".

Hacer que sea una señal y un proverbio:
aquí las palabras "señal" y "proverbio" hacen referencia a algo que sirve para alertar a otros de las consecuencias malas de un comportamiento malvado.

Ezekiel 14:9

Extenderé mi mano contra él:
La mano de Dios hace referencia a lo que Él hace. Traducción Alterna: "obraré en su contra"

Llevarán su propia iniquidad:
Traducción Alterna: "serán responsables por lo que han hecho mal"

Ya no vagarán ni dejarán de seguirme:
esta frase compara el no hacer lo que Dios quiere con caminar alejándose de Él.

Ezekiel 14:12

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"El SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Ezekiel 14:15

Estos mismos tres hombres:
Noé, Daniel y Job.

Mientras viva, declara el Señor Dios:
esto puede ser reordenado: "El Señor Dios declara: mientras viva".

Sólo sus propias vidas serían rescatadas:
"El SEÑOR sólo rescataría sus vidas"

Ezekiel 14:17

Estos tres hombres:
Noé, Daniel y Job.

Mientras viva, declara el Señor Dios:
esto puede ser reordenado: "El Señor Dios declara: mientras viva".

Ezekiel 14:19

Derramaré mi furia:
como un jarrón que tiene agua, Dios ha estado conteniendo su juicio. Entonces "derramar mi furia" significa que Dios ya no se contendrá de actuar desde su anojo, sino que actuará desde su enojo en contra del pueblo de Israel.

Aislar tanto hombre como bestia:
esta frase hace referencia a ser asesinado como un acto de juicio divino por el pecado. Traducción Alterna: "matar tanto a hombre como a bestia"

1 Entonces la Palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, ¿cómo es que una vid es mejor que cualquier árbol con ramas que se encuentra entre los árboles en un bosque? 3 ¿Acaso la gente toma madera de una vid para hacer cualquier cosa? ¿O, acaso ellos hacen una estaca para colgar algo de ella? 4 Y si es lanzada al fuego como combustible, y si el fuego ha quemado sus dos puntas y también el centro, ¿es buena para algo? 5 ¡Mira! Cuando estaba entera, no podía hacer ninguna cosa; seguramente entonces, cuando el fuego la haya quemado, entonces no servirá para hacer nada útil. 6 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR DIOS dice así: Al contrario de los árboles en el bosque, Yo he dado la vid como combustible para el fuego; Yo actuaré de la misma manera hacia los habitantes de Jerusalén. 7 Pues pondré Mi rostro contra ellos. Aunque salgan del fuego, aún el fuego los consumirá; así sabran que Yo soy el SEÑOR, cuando ponga Mi rostro contra ellos. 8 Entonces Yo convertiré la tierra en un terreno estéril porque ellos han cometido pecado. Chapter 16

1 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo del hombre, informa a Jerusalén sobre sus abominaciones, 3 y declara: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice así a Jerusalén: Tu principio y tu nacimiento tuvieron lugar en la tierra de Canaán; tu padre era un amorreo, y tu madre era una hetea. 4 En el día de tu nacimiento, tu madre no cortó tu cordón umbilical, ni te purificó en agua ni te restregó con sal, ni te cubrió con telas. 5 Ningún ojo tuvo compasión de ti para hacer estas cosas para ti, para ser compasivo hacia ti. En el día que tú naciste, con odio hacia tu vida, fuiste lanzada fuera hacia el campo abierto. 6 Pero Yo pasé por donde ti, y te vi retorciéndote en tu propia sangre, así que te dije en tu sangre: "¡Vive!" Yo te dije a ti en tu propia sangre, "¡Vive!" 7 Yo te hice crecer como una planta en el campo. Te multiplicaste y te hiciste grande, y te convertiste en la joya de las joyas. Tus senos se hicieron firmes, y tu pelo creció grueso, aunque habías estado desnuda y descubierta. 8 Yo pasé por donde ti otra vez, y te vi. El tiempo del amores vino a ti, así que, puse Mi manto sobre ti y cubrí tu desnudez. Entonces, Yo te juré y entré en pacto contigo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, y te hice Mía. 9 Así que te lavé con agua y enjuagué la sangre de ti, y te ungí con aceite. 10 Yo te vestí con ropas bordadas y puse sandalias de cuero en tus pies. Te envolví en lino fino y te cubrí con seda. 11 Luego, te adorné con joyas, y te puse brazaletes en tus manos, y una cadena en tu cuello. 12 Te puse un anillo en la nariz y pantallas en las orejas, y una hermosa corona en tu cabeza. 13 Así que fuiste adornada con oro y plata, y fuiste vestida de lino fino, seda, y ropas bordadas; comiste harina fina, miel, y aceite, y eras muy hermosa, y te convertiste en una reina. 14 Tu fama llegó a las otras naciones por tu belleza, pues era perfecta en la majestad que Yo te había dado. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 15 Pero tú confiaste en tu propia belleza, y actuaste como una prostituta debido a tu fama; tú derramaste tus actos de prostitución sobre todos los que pasaban, de manera que tu belleza se hizo suya. 16 Entonces, tú tomaste tus ropas y con ellas hiciste lugares altos para ti misma decorados con varios colores, y ahí actuaste como prostituta. Esto no debió haber pasado. Ni debería existir tal cosa. 17 Tú tomaste las joyas finas del oro y la plata que Yo te di, e hiciste para ti misma figuras varoniles, e hiciste con ellas lo que haría una prostituta. 18 Tú tomaste tus vestidos bordados y los cubriste, y pusiste Mis aceites y perfumes delante de ellos. 19 Mi pan que Yo te di, hecho con harina fina, aceite y miel, tú lo pusiste delante de ellos como aroma fragante, esto fue lo que sucedió. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 20 Entonces, tú tomaste a tus hijos e hijas los cuales pariste para Mí, y los sacrificaste a las imágenes para ser devorados como comida. ¿Son tus actos de prostitución un asunto pequeño? 21 Tú sacrificaste a Mis hijos y los pusiste en el fuego. 22 En todas tus abominaciones y tus actos de prostitución tú no has pensado en los días de tu juventud, cuando estabas desnuda y descubierta mientras te revolcabas en tu sangre. 23 ¡Ay! ¡Ay de ti! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, por lo tanto, en adición a toda esta maldad, 24 tú te construíste un aposento cerrado en cada lugar público. 25 Tú construiste tu lugar alto en la cabecera de cada calle y profanaste tu belleza, pues tú ofreciste tu cuerpo a todo el que pasaba e hiciste muchos más actos de prostitución. 26 Tú has actuado como una prostituta con los egipcios, tus vecinos lujuriosos, y cometiste muchos más actos de prostitución, para provocarme a la ira. 27 Yo te golpearé con Mi mano y te quitaré tu alimento. Yo entregaré tu vida a tus enemigos, las hijas de los filisteos, que se avergonzaron de tu comportamiento obsceno. 28 Tú has actuado como una prostituta con los asirios porque no podías ser satisfecha. Tú actuaste como una prostituta y todavía no estabas satisfecha. 29 Tú también hiciste muchos más actos de prostitución en la tierra de los comerciantes de Caldea, y ni esto te satisfizo. 30 ¿Cuán enfermo está tu corazón, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, que hicieras todas estas cosas, actos de una prostituta desvergonzada? 31 Tú has construido tus lugares altos en la cabecera de toda calle y has hecho tu aposento encerrado en cada lugar público. Pero tú no eras como una prostituta porque te rehusabas a recibir paga. 32 Tú, mujer adúltera, tú aceptas a extraños en vez de a tu esposo. 33 La gente le paga a toda prostituta, pero tú das tu salario a todos tus amantes y los sobornas para que vengan a ti de todo lugar para tus actos de prostitución. 34 Así que hay una diferencia entre ti y esas otras mujeres, ya que nadie va a ti para pedirte que duermas con ellos. En cambio, tú les pagas a ellos. Nadie te paga a ti. 35 Por lo tanto, tú, prostituta, escucha la palabra del SEÑOR. 36 El SEÑOR Dios dice así: Porque has derramado tu deseo y has expuesto tus partes privadas a través de tus actos de prostitución con todos tus amantes y con todos tus ídolos asquerosos, y debido a la sangre de tus hijos que diste a tus ídolos, 37 por lo tanto, Yo reuniré a todos tus amantes que has conocido, a todos los que has amado y a todos los que has odiado, y Yo los reuniré a todos en contra de ti a cada lado. Yo expondré tus partes privadas a ellos para que todos puedan ver tu desnudez. 38 Pues, Yo te castigaré por adulterio y por el derramamiento de sangre, y traeré sobre ti el derramamiento de sangre de Mi ira y celo. 39 Yo te entregaré a sus manos

para que derriben tu aposento cerrado y hagan caer tus lugares altos y ellos rasgarán tus vestidos y tomarán todas tus joyas. Ellos te dejarán desnuda y descubierta. 40 Entonces, traerán una multitud en contra de ti y te apedrearán con piedras, y te cortarán con sus espadas. 41 Ellos quemarán tus casas y harán muchos actos de castigo en ti a la vista de muchas mujeres, pues detendré tu prostitución, y ya no le pagarás a tus amantes. 42 Entonces, yo calmaré Mi furor en contra de ti; Mi ira se alejará de ti, pues Yo estaré satisfecho, y ya no estaré más enojado. 43 ¡Porque no trajiste a tu mente los días de tu juventud y Me has hecho temblar de ira por todas estas cosas, por lo tanto, Yo por Mi cuenta haré descender sobre tu propia cabeza el castigo por lo que has hecho, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. ¿No has añadido la prostitución a todas tus otras prácticas detestables? 44 Todo el que hable proverbios referentes a ti dirán: "Como es la madre, así es la hija." 45 Tú eres la hija de tu madre, que detestaba a su esposo y a sus hijos, y eres la hermana de tus hermanas que detestaban a sus esposos y a sus hijos. Tu madre era una hitita, y tu padre un amorreo. 46 Tu hermana mayor era Samaria y sus hijas eran las que vivían en el norte, mientras que tu hermana menor era la que vivía al sur de ti, esa es, Sodoma y sus hijas. 47 Tú no solo caminaste en sus pasos y copiaste su comportamiento y sus prácticas, sino que en todos tus caminos has sido peor que ellas. 48 Vivo Yo, dice el SEÑOR Dios, que tu hermana Sodoma y sus hijas, no han hecho tanta maldad como tú y tus hijas han hecho. 49 Este fue el pecado de tu hermana Sodoma: ella fue arrogante en su ocio, descuidada y despreocupada de cualquier cosa. Ella no fortaleció las manos de los pobres y los necesitados. 50 Ella fue arrogante y cometió acciones asquerosas delante de Mí, así que, me los llevé así como has visto. 51 ¡Ni Samaria cometió la mitad de tus pecados; a cambio, tú has hecho más cosas abominables que ellas, y has demostrado que tus hermanas eran mejor que tú por todas las cosas abominables que haces! 52 Especialmente tú, muestra tu propia vergüenza; de esta manera has demostrado que tus hermanas eran mejor que tú, por los pecados que cometiste en todas esas maneras aabominables. Tus hermanas ahora se ven mejor que tú. Especialmente tú, muestra tu propia vergüenza, pues, de esta manera tú has demostrado que tus hermanas eran mejores que tú. 53 Pues, Yo restauraré sus fortunas, las fortunas de Sodoma y sus hijas, y las fortunas de Samaria y sus hijas; pero tus fortunas estarán entre ellas. 54 Por causa de estas cosas mostrarás tu propia vergüenza; tú serás humillada por todo lo que has hecho, y de esta manera serás de consuelo para ellas. 55 Así que, tu hermana Sodoma y sus hijas serán restauradas a su condición pasada, y Samaria y sus hijas serán restauradas a su herencia pasada. Entonces, tú y tus hijas serán restauradas a tu condición pasada. 56 Sodoma, tu hermana, no fue ni siquiera mencionada por tu boca en los días de tu orgullo, 57 antes de que tu maldad fuera revelada. Pero ahora eres un objeto de desdén a las hijas de Edom y a todas las hijas de los filisteos alrededor de ella. La gente de alrededor te desprecian. 58 ¡Tú mostrarás tu vergüenza y tus acciones aabominables! ¡Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR! 59 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo haré contigo como te mereces, tú que has despreciado tu juramento rompiendo el pacto. 60 Pero Yo mismo recodaré Mi pacto hecho contigo en los días de tu juventud, y estableceré un pacto eterno contigo. 61 Entonces, tú recordara tus caminos y te avergonzarás cuando recibas a tus hermanas mayores y menores. Yo te las daré como hijas, pero no debido a tu pacto. 62 Yo mismo estableceré Mi pacto contigo, y sabrás que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 63 Debido a estas cosas, recordarás y te avergonzarás, de manera que ya tú no abrirás tu boca para hablar debido a tu vergüenza, cuando Yo te haya perdonado por todo lo que has hecho. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

el SEÑOR continua hablando sobre Jerusalén como un bebé no deseado que crece para ser una mujer hermosa.

-Pero pasé cerca tuyo:
el SEÑOR camina cerca del bebé recién nacido.

Cabello:
vello corporal.

Te convertiste en joya de joyas:
aquí se habla de la mujer, quien representa a Jerusalén, como si se hubiera convertido en la más fina de todas las joyas, es decir, como si se hubiera convertido en la más bella de todas las mujeres.

Te convertiste en joya de joyas:
algunas versiones modernas traducen: "Creciste lo suficiente como para usar joyas".

Desnuda y descubierta:
ambas palabras significan lo mismo y enfatizan que ella estaba completamente denuda. Traducción Alterna: "completamente desnuda"

Ezekiel 16:8

Información General:
El SEÑOR continua hablándo de Jerusalén y el pueblo de Israel como de una mujer joven.

Pasé cerca tuyo nuevamente:
esto es para decir que el SEÑOR ha caminado cerca de la mujer joven.

El tiempo del amor vino a ti:
esto es para decir que el SEÑOR ve a la mujer joven lo suficientemente grande como para casarse.

Ezekiel 16:9

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablando sobre Jerusalén y el pueblo de Israel como una mujer joven.

Bordado:
trozos de tela de diferentes colores cosidos juntos para formar un diseño.

Chapter 17

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo, 2 "Hijo de hombre, presenta un acertijo y habla una parábola a la casa de Israel. 3 Di: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: un águila grande con alas grandes y largos piñones, lleno de plumas, y que era multicolor fue al Líbano y agarró el tope de un árbol de cedro. 4 Él le partió las puntas de las ramas y las llevó a la tierra de Canaán; él la plantó en una ciudad de mercaderes. 5 Él también tomó alguna semilla de la tierra y la sembró en tierra fértil. Él la puso junto a un gran cuerpo de agua como un sauce. 6 Entonces retoñó y se convirtió en una vid que se extendía bajo en el suelo. Sus ramas se giraron hacia él, y sus raíces crecieron debajo de él. Así que se convirtió en una vid y produjo ramas y retoñó. 7 Pero había otra gran águila con grandes alas y mucho plumaje. Esta vid giró sus raíces hacia el águila, y extendió sus ramas hacia el águila desde el lugar en donde había sido plantada para que fuera regada con agua. 8 Ella había sido plantada en buena tierra al lado de un gran cuerpo de agua para que produjera ramas y brotara fruto, para convertirse en una vid magnífica.' 9 Di al pueblo: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¿Prosperará? ¿No será desarraigado y despojado de su fruto para que se marchite, y todo su crecimiento fresco se marchitará? Ningún brazo fuerte ni mucha gente será necesario para arrancarlo por sus raíces. 10 Por tanto, después de que haya sido plantado, ¿crecerá? ¿No se marchitará cuando el viento del este lo toqué? Se marchitará completamente en su parcela."' 11 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 12 "Habla a la casa rebelde: '¿No saben ustedes lo que significan estas cosas? ¡Mirad! El rey de Babilonia vino a Jerusalén y se llevó a su rey y sus príncipes y los trajo con él a Babilonia. 13 Entonces él tomó un descendiente real, hizo un pacto con él, y lo puso bajo juramento. Él se llevó la gente poderosa de la tierra, 14 de modo que el reinado se humillara y no se levantara. Al mantener su pacto sobrevivirá. 15 Pero el rey de Jerusalén se rebeló contra él enviando sus embajadores a Egipto para adquirir caballos y un ejército. ¿Tendrá éxito? ¿Escapará el que hace estas cosas? ¿Escapará si rompe el pacto? 16 ¡Vivo yo! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, que de cierto morirá en la tierra del rey que lo hizo rey, el rey cuyo juramento él despreció, y cuyo pacto él rompió. Él morirá en medio de Babilonia. 17 Faraón con su ejército poderoso, ni el reunir de muchos hombres para guerra, no lo protegerá a él en batalla, cuando el ejército babilónico construya cercos de montículos y cercos de muros para destruir muchas vidas. 18 Pues el rey despreció su juramento al romper el pacto. Él estrechó su mano a ellos para hacer una promesa, sin embargo, él hizo todas estas cosas. Él no escapará. 19 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Vivo Yo, ¿no fue Mi juramento que él despreció y Mi pacto que él rompió? Así que, ¡Yo traeré su castigo sobre su cabeza! 20 Tenderé Mi red sobre él, y él será atrapado en Mi red de cazar. Entonces, ¡Yo lo traeré a Babilonia y ejecutaré juicio sobre él ahí por su traición que él cometió cuando Me traicionó! 21 Todos sus refugiados en sus ejércitos caerán por la espada, y los que permanezcan serán dispersados en todas direcciones. Entonces ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR; Yo he declarado que esto sucedería." 22 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Así que Yo mismo me llevaré la parte más alta del árbol de cedro, y Yo lo plantaré lejos de sus tiernas ramas. Yo lo arrancaré, y Yo mismo lo plantaré en una montaña alta. 23 Yo lo plantaré en las montañas de Israel para que eche ramas y produzca fruto, y él se convertirá en un cedro majestuoso, de manera que toda ave con alas vivirá debajo de él. Ellas anidarán en la sombra de sus ramas. 24 Entonces todos los árboles del campo sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR. Yo derrumbo los árboles altos y levanto los árboles bajos. Yo marchito el árbol regado con agua y causo que el árbol seco florezca. Yo soy el SEÑOR, Yo he declarado que esto sucederá; y Yo lo haré.'"

Chapter 18

1 La palabra del Señor vino a mí otra vez, diciendo, 2 ''¿Qué quieres decir tú, quien usas este proverbio con respecto a la tierra de Israel, y dices: 'Los padres comen las uvas agrias, y los dientes de los hijos tienen la dentera?' 3 Vivo Yo, esta es la declaración de el SEÑOR Dios, ciertamente no habrá ninguna ocasión para que tú tengas que usar éste proverbio en Israel." 4 ¡He aquí! Cada vida me pertenece, la vida del padre como la vida del hijo, las dos me pertenecen a mí!! El alma que peca esa morirá! 5 ¿Qué se puede decir acerca del hombre que es justo y que practica justicia y la rectitud, 6 el que no come sobre las montañas, ni alza sus ojos a los ídolos de la casa de Israel, y no mancha a la mujer de su vecino, ni se acerca a una mujer durante su período mensual? ¿es él un hombre justo? 7 ¿Qué se puede decir sobre un hombre que no oprime a nadie, y le devuelve al deudor la garantía que puso por su préstamo y no roba sino que da su comida a los que tienen hambre y cubre a los desnudos con ropa? ¿es él un hombre justo? 8 ¿Qué se puede decir de un hombre que no cobra mucho interés por el dinero que presta, y no saca demasiado provecho por lo que vende? De él se dice que hace justicia y establece fidelidad entre las personas. 9 Si ese hombre camina en Mis estatutos y guarda Mis decretos para actuar fielmente, entonces la promesa para este hombre justo es esta: "¡Ciertamente él vivirá! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios 10 Pero supongamos que él tiene un hijo violento que derrama sangre y hace muchas de las cosas que se listan aquí, 11 aunque su padre no hizó ningunas de estas cosas, pero él come sobre las montañas y contamina la mujer de su prójimo, ¿qué se puede decir sobre él? 12 Este hombre oprime a los pobres y necesitados, y se apodera y roba, y no devuelve una promesa, y él levanta sus ojos a los ídolos y comete acciones repugnantes, 13 y presta dinero con intereses muy altos y hace demasiado beneficio en lo que vende, ¿debería vivir ese hombre? ¡Seguramente no lo hará! Ciertamente él morirá y su sangre estará sobre él mismo porque él ha hecho todas estas cosas detestables. 14 ¡Pero he aquí! Supongamos que hay un hombre que tiene un hijo, y su hijo ve todos los pecados que su padre ha cometido, y aunque él los ve, él no hace esas cosas. 15 Ese hijo no come sobre las montañas, y no levanta sus ojos a los ídolos de la casa de Israel, y no mancha la mujer de su prójimo, ¿Qué se puede decir sobre él? 16 Ese hijo no oprime a nadie, ni se apodera de una promesa, ni cosas robadas. Pero en su lugar da su comida a los que tienen hambre y cubre los que están desnudos con ropa. 17 Ese hijo no oprime a nadie ni se apropia de intereses demasiado altos ni se hace de demasiado beneficios de un préstamo, pero él lleva Mis decretos y camina según Mis estatutos; ese hijo no morirá por el pecado de su padre: ¡Él ciertamente vivirá! 18 Su padre, puesto que él oprimió a otros por extorsión y le robó a su hermano, e hizo lo que no es bueno entre su pueblo, He aquí, el morirá en su iniquidad. 19 Pero tú dices: "¿Por qué no lleva la iniquidad de su padre el hijo?" Porque el hijo lleva a cabo la justicia y la rectitud y guarda todos mis estatutos; él los hace. ¡Él ciertamente vivirá! 20 El que peca, ese es el que morirá El hijo no llevará las iniquidades de su padre, y el padre no llevará las iniquidades de su hijo. La rectitud del que actúa correctamente estará sobre él mismo, y la maldad del malo estará sobre él mismo. 21 Pero si el malvado deja todos sus pecados que ha cometido, y sigue todos Mis estatutos y realiza justicia y rectitud, entonces ciertamente él vivirá y no morirá. 22 Todas las transgresiones que él ha cometido no serán traídas a la memoria contra él. Él vivirá por la rectitud que él practica. 23 ¿Me regocijo yo por la muerte de los malígnos? Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. ¿y no en el apartarse de su camino para que él pueda vivir? 24 Pero si la persona recta se aparta de su rectitud y hace iniquidad y practíca abominaciones como todas las abominaciones que la persona maligna hace, entonces ¿vivirá él? Toda la rectitud que él había hecho no será traída a la memoria cuando él me traicione en su traición. Pues él morirá en los pecados que cometió. 25 Pero tú dices: '¡El camino del Señor no es justo!' ¡Escucha casa de Israel! ¿Son mis caminos injustos? ¿No son sus caminos los injustos? 26 Cuando el hombre recto se aparta de su rectitud, y hace iniquidad y muere por ellas, entonces él morirá en la iniquidad que ha hecho. 27 Pero cuando el hombre malvado se aparta de sus iniquidades que ha hecho y hace justicia y rectitud, entonces él preservará su vida. 28 Pues él ha visto y se ha apartado de todas las transgresiones que él ha hecho. Él seguramente vivirá, y él no morirá. 29 Pero el pueblo de Israel dice: '¡El camino del Señor no es justo!' ¿Cómo no es justo mi camino, casa de Israel? Es tú camino el que no es justo. 30 Por lo tanto ¡Yo juzgaré a cada hombre entre ustedes según su camino, casa de Israel! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. Arrepiéntanse y apártense de todas sus trangresiones para que ellas no sean piedras de tropiezo de iniquidad contra tí. 31 Arrojen de ustedes mismos todas las trangresiones que han cometido; háganse para ustedes un corazón nuevo y un nuevo espíritu." ¿Por qué deberían ustedes morir, casa de Israel? 32 Pues Yo no me deleito en la muerte de aquel que muere. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. Así que arrepiéntete y vive!"

Ezekiel 18:1

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"el SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

¿A qué te refieres, tú que usas este proverbio ... "Los padres comen uvas agrias, y los dientes de los niños se embotan"?
Dios está reprendiendo al pueblo por pensar que están siendo castigados por los pecados de sus padres, pero creen que ellos mismos están sin pecado.

Los padres comen uvas agrias, y los dientes de los niños se embotan:
este proverbio significa que los hijos son castigados por las maldades de sus padres.

-La tierra de Israel:
esto hace referencia al pueblo de Israel.

Chapter 19

1 "Y tú, eleva una lamentación contra los líderes de Israel 2 y diles: '¿Quién era tu madre? Una leona, ella vivía con los hijos de un león; en medio de leones jóvenes, ella criaba sus cachoros. 3 Y ella crió a uno de sus cachoros para que se convirtiése en un joven león quien aprendió a desgarrar a sus víctimas. Él devoraba hombres. 4 Luego, las naciones escucharon sobre él. Él fue atrapado en una trampa, y ellos lo trajeron con ganchos a la tierra de Egipto. 5 Entonces, ella vió que aunque ella había esperado por su regreso, sus esperanzas ahora se habían ido, así que, ella tomó otro de sus cachorros y lo crió para convertirse en un joven león. 6 Este joven león vagabundeaba en medio de leones. Él era un joven león y aprendió a desgarrar a sus víctimas; él devoraba hombres. 7 Entonces, él violaba a sus viudas y arruinaba sus ciudades. La tierra y su plenitud fue abandonada por el sonido de su rugir. 8 Pero las naciones fueron en contra de él desde las provincias que lo rodeaban; ellos esparcieron redes sobre él. Él fue atrapado en su trampa. 9 Ellos los pusieron en una jaula con ganchos y lo trajeron al rey de Babilonia. Ellos lo trajeron a él a las fortalezas de la montaña para que su voz no fuese escuchada más en las montañas de Israel. 10 Tu madre era como una liana plantada en tu sangre al lado de las aguas, ella era fructífera y llena de ramas por la abundancia del agua. 11 Ella tenía ramas fuertes para los cetros de los gobernantes, y su altura fue exaltada entre las ramas del matorral. 12 Pero la liana fue desarraigada en furia y tirada a la tierra, y un viento del este secó sus frutos. Sus ramas fuertes fueron rotas y marchitas; fuego las consumió. 13 Así que, ahora ella está plantada en el desierto, en la tierra de sequía y sed. 14 Pues, fuego salió de sus grandes ramas y consumió sus frutos. No hay ramas fuertes en ella, no hay cetro para gobernar.' Esto es una lamentación y va a ser cantada como una lamentación."

Chapter 20

1 Vino a ser el año séptimo, en el día décimo del quinto mes, cuando los ancianos de Israel vinieron a indagar sobre el SEÑOR y se sentaron frente a mí. 2 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 3 "Hijo de hombre, declara a los ancianos de Israel y diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¿Han venido a preguntarme a Mí? Mientras viva, ¡no seré consultado por ustedes! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.' 4 ¿Los juzgarás? ¿Los juzgarás, tú hijo de hombre? Déjale saber sobre las abominaciones de sus padres. 5 Diles esto: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: En el día que escogí a Israel y levanté mi mano para hacer juramento con los descendientes de la casa de Jacob, me hice conocer en la tierra de Egipto, cuando levanté mi mano para hacer juramento a ellos. Yo dije: "Yo Soy el SEÑOR tu Dios"- 6 en aquel día levanté mi mano para jurar a ellos que yo los iba a sacar fuera de la tierra de Egipto hacia una tierra que Yo escogí, con mucho cuidado, para ellos. Que fluía leche y miel; era la más hermosa entre todas las tierras. 7 Yo les dije: "Que todo hombre eche fuera todas las cosas abominables de sus ojos y los ídolos de Egipto. No se hagan más inmundos; Yo Soy el SEÑOR su Dios." 8 Pero se rebelaron contra Mí y estaban indipuestos a escucharme, Cada hombre no echó fuera las cosas detestables de sus ojos ni olvidó los ídolos de Egipto, así que Me propuse derramar Mi ira sobre ellos y satisfacer Mi furia entre ellos en medio de la tierra de Egipto. 9 Actué por el bien de Mi nombre para que no sea profanado en ojos de las naciones entre quienes vivían. Me hice conocer a ellos, a sus ojos, al sacarlos de la tierra de Egipto. 10 Así que los envié fuera de la tierra de Egipto y los llevé al desierto. 11 Entonces les di mis estatutos y decretos a ellos, por el cual un hombre vivirá si los obedece. 12 También les di el Día de Reposo como señal entre ellos y Yo, para que ellos conocieran que Yo Soy el SEÑOR quien los santifíca. 13 Pero la casa de Israel se rebeló contra Mí en el desierto. Ellos no caminaron en mis estatutos; en cambio, rechazaron mis decretos, por los cuales un hombre vivirá si los obedece. Ellos profanaron mis Días del Reposo, así que derramaré mi furia sobre ellos en el desierto para acabarlos. 14 Pero actué por el bien de Mi nombre para que no sea profanado en los ojos de las naciones, a cuya vista Yo los saqué de Egipto. 15 Así que también levanté mi mano y juré en el desierto no llevarlos a la tierra que les iba a dar, una tierra donde fluye la leche y miel, la que era más bella de todas las tierras. 16 Yo juré esto porque ellos habían rechazado mis decretos y no caminaron en mis estatutos, y ellos profanaron mis Días de Reposo, desde que sus corazones caminaron en pos de sus ídolos. 17 Pero Mi ojo los perdonó de su destrucción y no los aniquilé en el desierto. 18 Le dije a sus hijos e hijas en el desierto: "No caminen de acuerdo a los estatutos de sus padres, no mantengan sus decretos o se contaminen con sus ídolos. 19 Yo Soy el SEÑOR su Dios, caminen en Mis estatutos; mantengan Mis decretos y obedézcanlos. 20 Mantengan Mis Días de Reposo santo para que ellos sean una señal entre ustedes y Yo, para que así conozcan que Yo Soy el SEÑOR su Dios." 21 Pero sus hijos e hijas se rebelaron contra Mí. Ellos no caminaron en Mis estatutos ni guardaron Mis decretos, por los cuales un hombre podía vivir si los obedecía. Ellos profanaron Mis Días de Reposo, así que estoy determinado a derramar Mi furia sobre ellos para satisfacer Mi ira contra ellos en el desierto. 22 Pero retiré Mi mano y actué por el bien de Mi nombre, para que no sea profanado a los ojos de las naciones a cuya vista saqué a los israelitas. 23 Yo también levanté Mi mano para jurarles en el desierto, que los iba a separar entre las naciones y dispersaría entre las tierras. 24 Decidí hacer esto ya que ellos no obedecían Mis decretos, y desde que ellos rechazaron Mis estatutos y profanaron Mis Días de Reposo. Sus ojos anhelaban a los ídolos de sus padres. 25 Entonces Yo también les di estatutos que no eran buenos, y decretos por los cuales ellos no podrían vivir. 26 Yo los hice impuros por sus regalos cuando ellos hacían sacrificios de cada primogénito del vientre y los ponían en el fuego. ¡Yo hice esto para aterrarlos y que ellos puedan conocer que Yo Soy el SEÑOR!' 27 Por lo tanto, hijo de hombre, habla a la casa de Israel y diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: En esto también sus padres blasfemaron en contra Mía cuando Me fueron infieles. 28 Cuando los traje hacia la tierra que prometí darles, y entonces dondequiera ellos vieran una colina alta y un árbol con hojas, ellos ofrecieron sacrificios, y ellos Me provocaron por sus ofrendas, y allí ellos también quemaron incienso fragante y derramaron sus bebidas en ofrenda. 29 Entonces les dije: "¿Qué es este lugar alto donde ustedes llevan ofrendas?" Así que el nombre es Bama hasta este día.' 30 Así que dile a la casa de Israel: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¿Por qué se hacen impuros a ustedes mismo con el camino de sus padres? ¿Por qué actúan como las prostitutas, buscando cosas detestables? 31 Pues cuando ustedes ofrecen sus regalos y ponen a sus hijos sobre fuego, hasta este día se han vuelto impuros con todos sus ídolos. Entonces ¿por qué les debo dejar que me cuestionen, casa de Israel? Vivo Yo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, Yo no los dejaré que me cuestionen. 32 Lo que están pensando en sus mentes nunca ocurrirá. Ustedes dicen: "Déjanos ser como las otras naciones, como los clanes en las otras tierras quienes adoran a la madera y la piedra." 33 Vivo Yo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, Yo ciertamente reinaré sobre ustedes con mano poderosa, un brazo alzado, y una furia que será derramada sobre ustedes. 34 Yo les traeré desde los otros pueblos y les reuniré desde los países a fueron ustedes esparcidos. Haré esto con mano poderosa y furia derramada. 35 Entonces los traeré en el desierto de los pueblos, y allí los juzgaré cara a cara. 36 Como he juzgado a tus padres en el desierto de la tierra de Egipto, así también los juzgaré a ustedes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 37 Yo causaré que pases bajo mi vara, y haré que obedezcas los requisitos del pacto. 38 Yo los limpiaré a ustedes de entre los rebeldes y de aquellos quienes se levantaron en contra de Mí. Yo los enviaré fuera de las tierras donde ellos están viviendo como forasteros, pero ellos no entrarán a la tierra de Israel. Entonces ustedes conocerán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 39 Para ustedes, casa de Israel, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Cada uno de ustedes vaya a sus propios ídolos. Adórenlos si van a rechazar el escucharme, pero no deben continuar profanando Mi santo nombre con sus regalos e ídolos. 40 Pues en Mi monte santo, en el pico del monte de Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, toda la casa de Israel me adorará aquí en la tierra. Yo estaré complacido de requirir sus ofrendas allí, y también las primicias de su tributo con todas las cosas santas. 41 Yo los aceptaré como incienso fragante cuando Yo los saque de los pueblos y los reúna de los países de donde fueron esparcidos. Me mostraré santo entre ustedes para que las naciones vean. 42 Entonces, cuando les traiga a la tierra de Israel, a la tierra donde les he levantado la mano para jurar lo que les iba a dar a sus padres, ustedes conocerán que, Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 43 Entonces recordarán de sus malos caminos, y de todas sus obras por los cuales se han vuelto impuros, y ustedes se odiarán en sus propios ojos por todas las acciones malas que usteden han cometido. 44 Entonces conocerán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR cuando les haga esto por el bien de Mi nombre, no por sus malos caminos o sus obras corruptas, casa de Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.'" 45 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 46 "Hijo de hombre, gira tu rostro hacia las tierras sureñas, y habla en contra del sur; profetiza en contra el bosque de Neguev. 47 Di al bosque de Neguev: 'Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo encenderé un fuego entre ustedes. Devorará cada árbol fresco y cada árbol seco entre ustedes. Las llamas flamantes no serán apagadas; cada rostro desde el sur hasta norte será quemado. 48 Entonces toda carne verá que Yo Soy el SEÑOR cuando encienda el fuego, y no será apagado.'" 49 Entonces dije: "¡Ah! SEÑOR Dios, ellos dicen: '¿Él solo es un contador de parábolas?'"

1 Luego, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, coloca tu rostro hacia Jerusalén, y habla en contra de los santuarios; profetiza en contra de la tierra de Israel. 3 Dile a la tierra de Israel: 'El SEÑOR dice esto: ¡Mira! ¡Estoy en contra tuya! ¡Yo sacaré mi espada de la vaina y cortaré a ambos, tanto los justos como a los malvados de ti!'" 4 Para que yo pueda cortar a ambos, tanto los justos como los malvados de ti, mi espada saldrá de su vaina en contra de toda carne desde el sur hasta el norte. 5 Entonces, toda carne sabrá que Yo, el SEÑOR, he sacado mi espada de su vaina. ¡Ya no se aguantará más! 6 En cuanto a ti, hijo de hombre, ¡gime hasta que tus lomos se rompan! ¡En amargura gime ante sus ojos! 7 Entonces ocurrirá que te preguntarán:'¿Por qué razón gimes?' entonces tu dirás: 'Por las noticias de lo que viene, ¡pues todo corazón se desvanecerá, y toda mano va a desfallecerse! Todo espíritu va a desvanecerse, y toda rodilla fluirá como el agua. ¡Mira! ¡Viene y así será! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.' 8 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 9 "Hijo de hombre, profetiza y di esto: 'El Señor dice esto: Di: ¡Una espada! ¡Una espada! ¡Será afilada y pulida! 10 ¡Será afilada para poder participar de una gran matanza! ¡Será pulida para poder ser como un rayo! ¿Deberíamos regocijarnos? ¡Cuando el cetro de Mi hijo y toda vara es despreciado por la espada! 11 Así que la espada será entregada para ser pulida, y luego para ser tomada por la mano! ¡La espada está afilada y pulida y estará para ser dada a la mano de uno que mata!' 12 ¡Llama por ayuda y laméntate, hijo de hombre! ¡Pues la espada viene en contra de Mi pueblo! Esta es en contra de todos los líderes de Israel. Ellos son arrojados a la espada junto con mi pueblo. Por lo tanto, ¡golpea tu muslo! 13 Porque es probado, ¿pero y qué tal si el cetro no dura? Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 14 Ahora tú, hijo de hombre, profetiza y golpea tus dos manos juntas, ¡pues la espada atacará hasta una tercera vez! ¡Una espada para aquellos que serán asesinados! Es una espada para que muchos sean masacrados, ¡traspasándolos por todos lados! 15 Para poder desmayar sus corazones y multiplicar sus caídos, he colocado la matanza de la espada delante de sus puertas! ¡Ay! ¡Está hecha como un rayo, liberada para el carnicero! 16 ¡Tú, espada! ¡Golpea a la derecha! ¡Golpea a la izquierda! Ve a donde sea que tu rostro de vuelta. 17 Pues Yo tambien golpearé mis dos manos juntas, y luego yo llevaré mi furia a descanso! ¡Yo, el SEÑOR, lo declaro! 18 La palabra del SEÑOR vino nuevamente a mí diciendo: 19 "Ahora, tú, hijo de hombre, asigna dos caminos para que la espada del rey de Babilonia venga. Los dos caminos comenzarán en la misma tierra, y un poste marcará uno de ellos como conduciendo hacia una ciudad. 20 Marca un camino para el ejército babilonio para que venga hacia Rabá, ciudad de los amonitas. Marca el otro para que conduzca a los soldados a Judá y a la ciudad de Jerusalén, la cual está fortificada. " 21 Pues el rey de Babilonia se detendrá en el cruce de los caminos, en la unión, para poder practicar la adivinación. El agitará algunas flechas y pedirá dirección a algunos ídolos y examinará un hígado. 22 En su mano derecha estará un presagio acerca de Jerusalén, para poner arietes en su contra, para abrir su boca, para ordenar una matanza, para levantar torres de asedio contra sus puertas, para edificar una rampa, y para levantar torres de sitio. 23 Parecerá ser un presagio inútil a los ojos de aquellos en Jersualén, para aquellos que han jurado un juramento a los babilonios! ¡Pero el rey los acusará de violar su tratado para poder sitiarlos! 24 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Porque traes tu iniquidad a Mi memoria, ¡tus trangresiones serán reveladas! ¡Tus pecados serán visto en todas tus acciones! ¡Por esta razón le recordarás a todos que serás capturado por la mano de tus enemigos! 25 En cuanto a ti, malvado e impuro gobernador de Israel, al que días de juicio le han llegado, y al que el tiempo de cometer inquidad ha terminado, 26 el SEÑOR Dios les dice esto: ¡Remueve tu turbante y quitate la corona! ¡Las cosas ya no serán igual! ¡Exalta al pobre y humilla al exaltado! 27 ¡Una ruina! ¡Una ruina! ¡Yo los haré una ruina! No será restaurada hasta que venga uno quien está asignado a realizar el juicio. 28 Así que tú, hijo de hombre, profetiza y di: 'El SEÑOR Dios le dice esto al pueblo de Amón en referencia a su desgracia venidera: Una espada, ¡Una espada es desenvainada! ¡Está afilada para la matanza en orden para devorar, así que será como un rayo! 29 Mientras los profetas ven visiones vacías para ti, mientras ellos hagan rituales para inventarse mentiras para ti, esta espada reposará en el cuello de los malvados quienes están a punto de ser asesinados, a quienes el día del castigo a llegado y a quienes el tiempo de la inquidad está por terminar. 30 Devuelve la espada a su vaina. En lugar de su creación, en la tierra de su origen, ¡Yo te juzgaré! 31 ¡Derramaré Mi indignación sobre ti! ¡Yo avivaré el fuego de Mi ira contra tí y te ajoraré en mano de hombres crueles, artesanos de la destrucción! 32 ¡Te convertirás en la gasolina del fuego! Tu sangre estará en medio de la tierra. ¡No serás recordado, pues Yo, el SEÑOR, lo he declarado!'" el SEÑOR continua dándole a Ezequiel su mensaje para el pueblo de Jerusalén y la tierra de Israel.

Será afilada ... y será pulida para:
esto puede decirse en la forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la afilaré ... y la puliré para que"

Para que sea como relámpago:
esto significa quel a espada será tan brillante que la luz se refleja en ella con facilidad y brillo. Traducción Alterna: "para que destelle como relámpago" o "para que la luz se refleje en ella tan brillante como un relámpago"

¿Deberíamos regocijarnos en el cetro de mi hijo?
Esta pregunta retórica enfatiza que el pueblo de Israel no va a celebrar el poder de su rey, porque no puede resistir la "espada". Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Judá no va a celebrar el cetro de su rey" o "no deberíamos celebrar el poder del cetro de su rey"

Deberíamos:
Ezequiel hace referencia al pueblo de Israel.

En el cetro de mi hijo:
aquí el SEÑOR habla del rey de Judá como su hijo. El cetro del rey representa su dominio como rey. Es importante mantener la imagen del cetro del rey aquí, porque sirve de referencia en la próxima frase. Traducción Alterna: "en el cetro del rey" o "en el poder representado por el cetro del rey"

La espada que viene detesta toda vara:
aquí la "espada" es personificada como que viene a atacar personas. Esto habla de que el rey no puede resistir la espada como si la "espada" detestara el cetro del rey. Traducción Alterna: "la espada vencerá su cetro como si se tratara de cualquier otro gobernante" o "porque el rey no podrá resistir cuando la espada venga contra él"

Toda vara:
esta frase es usada para burlarse del cetro del rey, llamándolo "vara". Traducción Alterna: "tal cetro"

La espada será dada para ser pulida:
esto puede decirse de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "puliré la espada"

Luego para ser tomada por la mano:
esto puede decirse en forma activa.Traducción Alterna: "luego la persona correcta la tendrá en su mano" (UDB)

Debe ser dada en manos de aquiel que mata:
esto puede decirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "está lista para que el asesino la use"

Chapter 22

1 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR Dios vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Ahora, hijo de hombre, ¿juzgarás tú? ¿Juzgarás tú la ciudad de sangre? Hazle saber a ella todas sus abominaciones. 3 Tú debes decir esto: 'El SEÑOR DIOS dice así: Ésta es una ciudad que derrama sangre entre ella para que su tiempo pueda venir; una ciudad que hace ídolos para hacerse a sí misma impura. 4 Eres culpable por la sangre que haz derramado, y eres impura por los ídolos que haz hecho. Pues haz avanzado tus días y acercado tus últimos años. Así que te haré reprochable ante las naciones y un escarnio ante los ojos de toda tierra. 5 Tanto aquellos que están cerca y como aquellos que estan lejos se burlarán de ti, ciudad inpura, con una reputación que se conoce en todos lados como una que está llena de confusión. 6 Los gobernantes de Israel, cada uno por su propio poder, han venido a ti para derramar sangre. 7 Han deshonrado padres y madres entre ustedes, y han causado opresión a los extranjeros entre ustedes. Han tratado mal a las viudas y a los huérfanos entre ustedes. 8 Tú haz despreciado Mis cosas santas y profanado el día de reposo. 9 Hombres calumniadores han venido en medio de ti para derramar sangre, y comer en tus montes. Haciendo maldad en medio de ti. 10 La desnudez de su padre es revelada ante ti. Ellos han abusado de la mujer inmunda en medio de ti durante su impureza. 11 Hombres que cometieron abominaciones con la esposa de su vecino, y hombres que han hecho vergonzosamente impuras a sus yernas, hombres que abusan de sus propias hermanas, hijas de sus propios padres, todos estos están dentro de ti. 12 Estos hombres reciben sobornos para derramar sangre dentro de ti. Han tomado intéres y adquirido demasiadas ganancia, han dañado a sus vecinos con opresiones, y se han olvidado de Mí, ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR DIOS. 13 ¡Mira! Con Mi mano he golpeado la ganancia deshonesta que ustedes han hecho, y el derramamiento de sangre que hay en medio de ti. 14 ¿Acaso se levantará tu corazón, serán tus manos se fuertes en el día en que Yo mismo venga contra ti? Yo, el SEÑOR, estoy declarando esto, y Yo lo haré. 15 Les dispersaré entre las naciones y los regaré por las tierras. Y de esta manera, limpiaré sus impurezas. 16 Así te volverás inmunda a los ojos de las naciones. Entonces sabrás que Yo soy el SEÑOR.'" 17 Luego, vino la palabra de el SEÑOR a mí diciendo: 18 "Hijo de hombre, la casa de Israel ha venido a ser escoria para mi. Todos ellos son las sobras de bronze y estaño, y hierro y plomo en medio tuyo. Ellos serán como escoria de plata en tu horno. 19 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Ya que todos ustedes han venido a ser como escoria, así que, ¡prepárense! Estoy a punto de reunirlos en el centro de Jerusalén. 20 Como una colección de plata y bronce, hierro y plomo y estaño en medio del horno debe tener fuego soplando contra ella, Yo te derretiré. Así te recojeré en Mi ira y en Mi furia. Yo te pondré ahí y prenderé el fuego para derretirte; así los juntare en Mi furor y en Mi ira, y te pondré ahí y te derramaré. 21 Así los juntaré y soplaré contra ustedes con el fuego de mi ira para que se derrame en medio de ella. 22 Como derritiendo plata en medio de un horno, ustedes se derretirán en medio de ella, y sabrás que Yo, el SEÑOR, ¡he derramado Mi furia contra ustedes!" 23 La palabra del SEÑOR DIOS vino a mí, diciendo: 24 "Hijo de hombre, dile a ella: 'Tu eres una tierra que no ha sido limpiada. ¡No hay lluvia en el día de la ira! 25 Hay una conspiración de sus profetas en medio de ella, como un león rugiente cuando desgarra su víctima. Ellos consumen la vida y toman riquezas preciadas; ¡ellos hacen muchas viudas dentro de ella! 26 Sus sacerdotes violentan Mi ley, y ellos profanan las cosas sagradas. Ellos no distinguen entre cosas santas y cosas profanas, y no enseñan la diferencia que hay entre lo impuro y lo puro. Ellos esconden sus ojos de Mis Días de Reposo, para que Yo sea profanado en medio de ellos. 27 Sus príncipes son como lobos destrozando a sus victimas. Ellos derraman sangre y destruyen la vida, para hacer ganancias deshonestas. 28 Sus profetas pintaron sobre ellos con cal; ellos ven visiones falsas y les predicen falsedades a ellos. Ellos dicen: "El SEÑOR DIOS dice esto", cuando el SEÑOR no ha hablado. 29 La gente de la tierra han oprimido usando la extorción y saqueando a través de robos, y han tratado mal al pobre y al necesitado, y han oprimido al extranjero sin justicia. 30 Así que busqué a un hombre entre ellos que construyera muro y que se pusiera delante de Mí en su brecha por la tierra para que Yo no los destruyera, pero Yo no encontré ninguno. 31 Así que derramaré Mi indignación sobre ellos. Yo los terminaré con el fuego de Mi indignación y estableceré sus caminos sobre sus propias cabezas, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.

Ezekiel 22:1

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"el SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Ahora tu, hijo de hombre, ¿juzgarás? ¿Juzgarás a la ciudad sanguinaria?
Traducción Alterna: "hijo de hombre, ve y juzga. Ve y juzga a la nación sanguinaria."

Ciudad sanguinaria:
el SEÑOR hace referencia a Jerusalén como la ciudad sanguinaria. Esto hace referencia a los asesinatos y la violencia que sucede en Jerusalén.

Ella ... ella misma:
hace referencia a Jerusalén. Se pensaba de las ciudades como una mujer. Esto continua hasta el versículo 32. .

Ezekiel 22:4

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole al pueblo de Jerusalén por medio de Ezequiel.

Pues has atraído tus días y entrado en tus últimos años:
ambas frases significan que el tiempo en que el SEÑOR castigará a Jerusalén está muy cercano.

Llena de confusión:
muchas personas en Jerusalén están confundidas.

Ezekiel 22:6

Información General:
el SEÑOR habla del gobernante de Israel en Jerusalén.

¡Mira! Traducción Alterna:
"Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que te estoy por decir."

Vienen a ti ... en medio tuyo:
las palabras "ti" y "tuyo" hacen referencia a Jerusalén.

Comen en las montañas:
aquí, "las montañas" hacen referencia a los altares de ídolos que están en las montañas. Comen carne que ha sido sacrificada a los ídolos de manera que tengan la bendición de los dioses falsos.

Hacen maldades en medio tuyo:
esto significa que hacen cosas malvadas dentro de la ciudad de Jerusalén.

Ezekiel 22:10

Información General:
Dios continua hablando a través de Ezequiel sobre las cosas terribles que el pueblo de Jerusalén ha hecho.

Tu... Ellos:
estos pronombres hacen referencia a Jerusalén (el pueblo de Jerusalén).

La desnudez de un padre es revelada:
"esta es la esposa del padre". Es la desnudez que se supone que sólo él debe ver.

Abusaron ... cometieron abominaciones con ... hicieron asus propias nueras vergonzosamente impuras:
son pequeñas maneras de expresar que los hombres habían estado durmiendo con mujeres con quienes no debían y cuán pecaminosas son sus acciones.

Interés:
esta palabra hace referencia al dinero pagado por una persona por usardinero prestado. Sin embargo, algunas versiones modernas interpretan "interés" en este pasaje como "demasiado interés".

Me has olvidado: negarse a obedecer al SEÑOR es como olvidarse de que él existe.

Ezekiel 22:13

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole al pueblo de Jerusalén dirigiéndose directamente a la ciudad de Jerusalén.

He golpeado la ganancia deshonesta ... la matanza:
la palabra "goolpeado" hace referencia al SEÑOR actuando en contra de esas cosas.

¿Soportará tu corazón, tendrán fuerzas tus manos en los días en que yo mismo trate contigo?
Traducción Alterna: "tu corazón no soportará, tus manos no tendrán fuerza en los días en que yo mismo trate contigo".

Todos ellos son las sobras de bronce, estaño, hierro y plomo en medio tuyo.
Traducción Alterna: "todos los pueblos alrededor tuyo no tienen valor".

Ezekiel 22:20

Información General:
Dios continua describiendo su castigo del pueblo de Israel en Jerusalén como metales que son fundidos y purificados en un horno.

Te derretiré:
se hace referencia al castigo de Dios como a un fuego de un horno que purificará a Jerusalén como un horno que separa materiales sin valor de metales preciosos cuando son derretidos.

Ezekiel 22:23

Información General:
el SEÑOR le dice a Ezequiel que le hable a Jerusalén.

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:

-No hay lluvia en el día de la ira:
la lluvia es usada como un ejemplo de la bendición de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "no hay bendición en el día de la ira"

Conspiración:
un plan secreto hecho entre dos o más personas para hacer algo dañino o ilegal.

Ezekiel 22:26

Ella:
este pronombre hace referencia a Jerusalén.

Derraman sangre y destruyen la vida:
estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la violencia que practican los príncipes de Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "asesinan personas"

Ezekiel 22:29

Capítulo 22
Capítulo 22

Ezekiel 22:30

Información General:
el SEÑOR compara a los líderes de Jerusalén con un muro y a él mismo con un ejército invasor.

Un hombre de entre ellos que edificara un muro:
un líder que se ponga entre el SEÑOR y el pueblo tomando la responsabilidad de liderarlos nuevamente hacia la justicia. Traducción Alterna: "un hombre de entre ellos que actuara como un muro".

Que se pare frente a mí en su brecha:
que se parara en el lugar en donde el muro tiene un hueco o donde ha sido quebrado. Un líder defendiendo al pueblo de Israel es como un guerrero defendiendo a una ciudad en la batalla.

¡Derramaré mi indignación sobre ellos!:
Un juicio que puede ser derramado como agua de un cuenco.

El fuego de mi indignación:
el juicio de Dios es como fuego porque es muy intenso.

Pondré su camino en su propia cabeza:
poner algo en la cabeza de una persona hace referencia a hacer que lo carguen o tomen responsabilidad porello. Traducción Alterna: "haré que tomen responsabilidad porlo que han hecho"

Chapter 23

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Mí, diciendo: 2 " Hijo de hombre: había dos mujeres, hijas de la misma madre. 3 Ellas actuaban como prostitutas en Egipto en el tiempo de su juventud. Ellas actuaban como prostitutas allí. Su pecho era exprimido y sus pezones vírgenes eran acariciados allí. 4 Sus nombres eran Aholá, la hermana mayor, y Alohibá, su hermana más joven. Entonces ellas vinieron a ser Mías y dieron a luz hijos e hijas. Sus nombres significan esto: Aholá significa Samaria, y Alohibá significa Jerusalén. 5 Pero Aholá actuaba como una prostituta aún cuando ella era Mía; ella tenía lujuria por sus amantes, por los asirios quienes eran los dominantes, 6 el gobernador quien vestía de violeta, y por sus oficiales, quienes eran fuertes y hermosos, hombres todos ellos cabalgando. 7 Así que ella se dio a sí misma como una prostituta a ellos, a todos los mejores hombres de Asiria, y ella se hizo a sí misma inmunda con todos los que ella sentía lujuria, y con todos sus ídolos. 8 Pues no había dejado su conducta de prostitución atrás en Egipto, cuando ellos durmieron con ella cuando ella era una jovencita, cuando ellos comenzaron a acariciar sus senos vírgenes, cuando ellos primero comenzaron a derramar su conducta promiscua sobre ella. 9 Por lo tanto la di en la mano de sus amantes, en la mano de los asirios por los cuales ella sentía lujuria. 10 Ellos descubrieron su desnudez. Ellos tomaron sus hijos e hijas, y la mataron con la espada, y ella se convirtió en verguenza para otras mujeres, así que pasaron juicio sobre ella. 11 Su hermana Aholibá vio esto, pero su lujuria era aún más apasionada y actuaba como una prostituta aún más que su hermana. 12 Ella sentía lujuria por los asirios, los gobernantes y los oficiales dominantes quienes vestían impresionantemente, quienes eran hombres que cabalgaban. Todos ellos eran hombres fuertes y hermosos. 13 Yo ví que ella se había hecho a sí misma inmunda. Era lo mismo con ambas hermanas. 14 Entonces ella aumentó su prostitución aún más. Ella vio hombres tallados en las paredes, figuras de los caldeos pintados en rojo, 15 usando correas alrededor de sus cinturas, con turbantes flotando en sus cabezas. Todos ellos tenían la apariencia de oficiales de tropas de carros, la semejanza de hijos de Babilonia, cuya tierra nativa es Caldea. 16 Tan pronto como sus ojos los vieron, ella sintió lujuria por ellos, así que ella envió a ellos mensajeros en Caldea. 17 Entonces los babilonios vinieron a ella y a su cama de lujuria, y ellos la hicieron inmunda con su promiscuidad. Por lo que ella hizo, ella fue hecha inmunda, así que ella se alejó de ellos en disgusto. 18 Ella desplegó sus actos de prostitución y ella mostró su cuerpo desnudo, así que Mi alma se volvió de ella, así como Mi alma se volvió de su hermana. 19 Entonces ella cometió muchos más actos de prostitución, según ella trajo a su mente e imitó los días de su juventud, cuando ella se comportaba como una prostituta en la tierra de Egipto. 20 Así que ella sintió lujuria por sus amantes, cuyas partes privadas eran como las de los asnos, y cuyas emisiones reproductivas eran como las de los caballos. 21 Así es como tú cometiste actos vergonzosos de tu juventud, cuando los egipcios acariciaban tus pezones y exprimían tus jóvenes senos. 22 Por lo tanto, Aholibá, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Mira! Yo volveré tus amantes contra ti. Aquellos de los cuales tú te alejaste, Yo los traeré contra ti desde todos lados: 23 los babilonios y todos los caldeos, los de Pecod, los soa, y los coa, y todos los asirios con ellos, fuertes, hombres hermosos, gobernantes y comandantes, todos ellos son oficiales y hombres de reputación, todos ellos cabalgando. 24 Ellos vendrán contra ti con armas, y con carros y carretas, y con una gran multitud de personas. Ellos establecerán grandes escudos, pequeños escudos, y cascos contra ti por todo alrededor. Yo les daré la oportunidad de castigarte, y ellos te castigarán con sus acciones. 25 Pues Yo pondré Mi celosa ira sobre ti, y ellos tratarán contigo en furia. Ellos cortarán tus narices y tus orejas, y tus sobrevivientes caerán por la espada. Ellos se llevarán tus hijos y tus hijas, y tus sobrevivientes serán devorados por fuego. 26 Ellos te desnudarán de tus ropas y te quitarán toda tu joyería. 27 Así que Yo removeré tu conducta vergonzosa de ti y tus actos de prostitución de la tierra de Egipto. Tú no levantarás tus ojos hacia ellos con anhelo, y tú ya no más pensarás en Egipto.' 28 Porque el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: '¡Mira! Yo te entregaré en la mano de los que tú odias, de vuelta en la mano de quienes tú te habías vuelto. 29 Ellos tratarán contigo odiosamente; ellos tomarán todas tus posesiones y te abandonarán desnuda y descubierta. La vergüenza desnuda de tu prostitución será revelada, tu conducta vergonzosa y tus promiscuidades. 30 Estas cosas te serán hechas a ti en tu actuar como una prostituta, con lujuria tras las naciones por las cuales te hiciste inmunda con sus ídolos. 31 Tú has caminado en el camino de tu hermana, así que pondré su copa de castigo en tu mano.' 32 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Tú tomarás la copa de tu hermana que es honda y grande. Tú te convertirás en hazmereír y en un sujeto para burla, esta copa contiene una gran capacidad. 33 Tú serás llena con borrachera y dolor, la copa de horror y devastación; la copa de tu hermana Samaria. 34 Tú la tomarás la drenarás vacía; entonces tú la romperás y rasgarás tus senos con los pedazos. Pues Yo lo he declarado, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.' 35 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Porque tú me has olvidado y tirado fuera detrás de ti, así también tú cargarás las consecuencias de tu conducta desvergonzada y actos de inmoralidad sexual.''' 36 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, ¿juzgarás a Aholá y a Aholibá? Así que preséntale a ellas sus asquerosas acciones, 37 porque han cometido adulterio, y porque hay sangre en sus manos. Ellas han cometido adulterio con sus ídolos, y ellas hasta han puesto sus hijos en el fuego, como comida para sus ídolos. 38 Entonces ellas continúan haciéndome esto a Mí: Ellas hacen Mi santuario inmundo, y en el mismo día ellas contaminan Mis días de reposo. 39 Porque cuando ellas habían sacrificado sus niños para sus ídolos, ¡entonces ellas vinieron a Mi Santuario en el mismo día para deshonrarlo! Así que ¡mira! Esto es lo que ellas han hecho en medio de Mi casa. 40 Ustedes enviaron por hombres que vinieron desde lejos, a los que mensajeros habían sido enviados. Ellos en efecto vinieron, esos por los que ustedes se bañaron, pintaron sus ojos, y se adornaron con joyas. 41 Ahí ustedes se sentaron en una hermosa cama y a una mesa arreglada ante ella donde pusieron Mi incienso y Mi aceite. 42 Así el sonido de una ruidosa multitud estaba alrededor de ella; incluyendo toda clase de hombres, aún los sabeos fueron traidos del desierto, y ellos pusieron brazaletes en sus manos y hermosas coronas en sus cabezas. 43 Entonces Yo dije de ella que estaba desgastada por el adulterio: 'Ahora ellos serán sexualmente inmorales con ella y ella con ellos.' 44 Ellos entraron a ella y durmieron con ella según los hombres entran para estar con una prostituta. De esta manera ellos durmieron con Aholá y Aholibá, quienes eran mujeres inmorales. 45 Pero los hombres justos pasarán juicio y las castigarán como adúlteras, y ellos las castigarán con la sentencia para los que han derramado sangre, porque ellas son adúlteras y sangre hay en sus manos. 46 Así dijo el SEÑOR Dios: Yo levantaré una compañía contra ellos y los daré para que sean aterrorizados y saqueados. 47 Entonces esa compañía los apedreará con piedras y los cortará con su espada. Ellos matarán sus hijos e hijas y quemarán sus casas. 48 Porque Yo removeré la conducta vergonzosa de la tierra y disciplinaré todas las mujeres para que no actuen más como las prostitutas. 49 Así ellas establecerán tu conducta vergonzosa contra ti. Ustedes soportarán la culpa de sus pecados con sus ídolos, y de esa manera ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR Dios.''

Ezekiel 23:1

Información General:
el SEÑOR le cuenta a Ezequiel una historia sobre dos mujeres jóvenes en Egipto para expresar cómo ve el comportamiento del pueblo de Israel.

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"El SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Sus pechos fueron apretados:
Traducción Alterna: "los hombres apretaron sus pechos".

Sus pezones vírgenes fueron acariciados allí:
esta frase significa básicamente lo mismo que la frase anterior y enfatiza el comportamiento inmoral de las dos jóvenes. Traducción Alterna: "allí los hombres acariciaron sus pezones vírgenes."

Acariciados:
ser tocados con amor o suavidad.

Oholá:
este es un nombre femenino que significa "su tienda".

Oholibá:
este es un nombre femenino que significa "mi tienda está en ella"

Ezekiel 23:5

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua contando su historia a Ezequiel sobre su esposa infiel Oholá.

Dominante:
"en control".

Los mejores de los hombres de Asiria:
esto identifica a quién se refiere la palabra "ellos".

Ezekiel 23:8

-Información General:
el SEÑOR continua contándole a Ezequiel su historia sobre su esposa infiel Oholá.

Para derramar su comportamiento promiscuo:
la frase "derramar" usa la idea de agua derramándose para expresar algo que sucede en gran cantidad.

En la mano de sus amantes, en la mano de los asirios:
la palabra "mano" hace referencia al poder o la autoridad. La segunda frase explica que "sus amantes" eran "los asirios".Traducción Alterna: "ladi a sus amantes, los asirios".

Información General:
el SEÑOR comienza a contar la historia a Ezequiel sobre su esposa infiel Oholibá, la hermana de Oholá.

Oholiba:
Ver cómo tradujo este nombre en 23: 1.

Quienes vestía de manera impresionante, eran hombres que montaban caballos.
Traducción Alterna: "quienes eran ricos"

Fue igual para ambas hermanas:
Traducción Alterna: "ambas hermanas se hicieron impuras por medio de sus actos de prostitución"

Ezekiel 23:14

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua contándole a Ezequiel la historia sobre su esposa infiel Oholibá.

Turbantes:
gorros hechos de largas telas y envueltas encima de la cabeza de un hombre.

Ezekiel 23:16

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua contándole a Ezequiel la historia sobre su esposa infiel Oholibá.

Así que se volvió de ellos con aversión:
Traducción Alterna: "sus emociones hacia ella cambiaron de deseo a aversión".

Ezekiel 23:18

Trajo a su mente e imitó los días de su juventud:
Traducción Alterna: "recordó e hizo las mismas cosas que había hecho cuando era joven"

Ezekiel 23:20

Información General:
el SEÑOR termina de hablar acerca de Oholibá y los asirios y empieza a hablarle a Oholibá.

Cuyas partes privadas eran como las de burros, y cuyas emisiones reproducciones eran como las de los caballos:
imposiblemente grandes, para demostrar cuan perverso era el deseo de Oholibá.

Ezekiel 23:22

-¡Mira!
Traducción Alterna: "Mira" o "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que estoy por decirte".

Pecod, Soa y Coa:
estos son pueblos que vivían en Babilonia.

Ezekiel 23:24

Armas:
aquí la palabra hebrea traducida como "armas" es rara. Muchas versiones modernas la traducen de esta manera, pero algunas versiones la sustraen.

-Pondrán grandes escudos, escudos pequeños y cascos contra ti:
estos objetos defensivos hacen referencia a diferentes tipos de soldados en un ejército.

Cortarán tu nariz y tus oídos:
esto describe el castigo en Babilonia para las mujeres casadas que se acostaban con hombres que no eran sus esposos. Traducción Alterna: "te castigarán como a una adúltera".

Ezekiel 23:26

No levantarás tus ojos:
esta es una manera de hacer referencia a una persona que gira su cabeza para mirar algo: Traducción Alterna: "no vas a mirar"

Ya no pensarás más en Egipto:
la frase "pensar en Egipto" hace referencia a los actos de prostitución que aprendió en Egipto. Ya no va a pensar en ellos porque ha aprendidoque no va a darle las cosas lindas que los egipcios, babilonios y asirios tienen. Por el contrario, los actos de prostitución han hecho que ella sea castigada y no va a querer pensar en cometerlos nuevamente.

Ezekiel 23:28

-Mira:
aquí la palabra "mira" agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "ciertamente".

Desnuda y descubierta:
estas dos palabras significan lo mismo y enfatizan que va a estar completamente desnuda.

Tu comportamiento vergonzoso y promiscuo:
esta frase describe su prostitución y cuan malo era este comportamiento.

Ezekiel 23:30

Actuando como una prostituta, con lujuria entre otras naciones: l a razón por la que esta frase dice que Oholibá actúa como una prostituta con las naciones es porque los hombres con quienes se ha acostado son símbolos de riqueza y poder de estas naciones.

Pondré su copa:
la palabra "copa" hace referencia al castigo de Oholibá. Representa la cosa que ha recibido

Beberás de la copa de tu hermana:
beber del a misma copa es otra manera de decir que van a experimentar lo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "experimentarás el mismo castigo que tu hermana"

Que es profundo y grande:
esto hace referencia a la cantidad de castigo recibida. Traducción Alterna: "que es severa"

Un hazmereír .. un tema de burla:
ambas frases hacen referencia a una persona de la cual se ríen y critican por su comportamiento tonto.

Esta copa contiene una gran cantidad:
esta oración no dice qué hay en la copa porque eso se entiendede leer 23:30. Traducción Alterna: "esta copa contiene una gran cantidad de castigo"

Ezekiel 23:33

La copa de honor y devastación:
"la copa que causa horror y devastación". Las palabras "horror" y "devastación" comparten significados similares y enfatizan cuan terrible será su castigo.

La copa de tu hermana Samaria:
Oholá, la hermana de Oholibá ha representado a Samaria. A Samaria se la llama por su nombre pero aun se hace referencia a ella como a una hermana. La copa es un símbolo por el castigo que ha recibido.

Esta es la declaración del Señor Dios:

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí en el año noveno, en el mes décimo, y en el décimo día del mes, diciendo: 2 "Hijo del hombre, escribe para ti mismo el nombre de este día, este día exacto, porque este mismo día el rey de Babilonia ha sitiado Jerusalén. 3 Así que habla un proverbio contra esta casa rebelde, una parábola. Dile a ellos: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Colóca la olla de cocinar. Colócala y échale agua. 4 Recolecta piezas de comida dentro de ella, cada pedazo bueno, la cadera y el hombro y llénala con los mejores huesos. 5 Toma lo mejor del rebaño y acumula huesos debajo de ella. Hiérvela y cocina los huesos dentro de ella. 6 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Aflige a la ciudad de sangre, una olla de cocinar que tiene moho por dentro y ese moho no saldrá de ella. Toma pedazo a pedazo de ella, pero no eches suertes sobre ella. 7 Pues su sangre está en medio de ella. Ella lo ha puesto en la roca lisa; ella no la ha echado fuera en el piso para cubrirlo con polvo, 8 así que trae la furia hasta a la venganza exacta. Yo he colocado su sangre en la roca lisa para que no pueda ser cubierta. 9 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice ésto: Aflige a la ciudad de sangre. Yo engranderé la pila de madera. 10 Apila la madera y encienda el fuego. Cocina la carne bien y mézclalo ahí las especias y deja que los huesos sean carbonizados. 11 Entonces pon la olla en sus carbones vacíos, en orden que se caliente y queme su bronce, para que su inmundicia en medio de ella sea derretida, su corrosión consumida.' 12 Ella se ha vuelto cansada por su esfuerzo, pero su corrosión no ha estado fuera de ella por el fuego. 13 Tu comportamiento vergonzoso está en tu inmundicia, porque Yo te he limpiado, pero como quiera no quieres volverte pura. Tú no estarás libre de tu inmundicia hasta que Mi furia descanse de ti. 14 Yo, el SEÑOR, lo he declarado, y Lo haré. Yo no cederé o descansaré de él. Como eran tus caminos, y por tus actividades, ¡ellos te juzgarán! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR DIOS." 15 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí diciendo: 16 "¡Hijo de hombre! Mirad, yo quito el deseo de tus ojos con una plaga, pero tú no debes lamentar, ni llorar, y tus lágrimas no deben fluir. 17 Tú debes gemir silenciosamente. No presentes un funeral para los muertos. Amarra tu turbante en ti y coloca tus sandalias en tus pies, pero no cubras tu pelo facial ni comas el pan de hombres que se lamentan por perder sus esposas." 18 Así que hablé al pueblo en la mañana, y mi esposa murió en la noche. En la mañana yo hice lo que me han mandado hacer. 19 El pueblo me preguntaba: "¿No nos dirá que estas cosas significan, las cosas que tú estás haciendo?" 20 Así que yo les dije: "La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 21 'Dile a la casa de Israel, el SEÑOR DIOS dice esto: ¡Mirad! Yo profonaré mi santuario, el orgullo de su poder, el deleite de tus ojos, y el anhelo de tu alma, y sus hijos y sus hijas quienes dejaste atrás caerán por la espada. 22 Entonces harás exactamente como lo he hecho: ¡tú no peinarás tu pelo facial, o comerás pan de hombres lamentosos! 23 En cambio, sus turbantes estarán en sus cabezas, y sus sandalias en sus pies; tú no lamentarás o llorarás, por que te consumirás en tus iniquidades, y cada hombre gemirá por su hermano. 24 Así que Ezequiel será una señal para ustedes, como todo lo que él ha hecho ustedes lo harás cuando ésto venga. ¡Entonces sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR Dios!" 25 "Pero tú, hijo de hombre, en el día en el que Yo quite su templo, que es su gozo, su orgullo, y lo que ellos ven y anhelan, y cuando Yo les quite sus hijos e hijas, 26 en ese día, ¡un refugiado vendrá a ti a darte las noticias! 27 En ese día, tu boca se abrirá a ese refugiado y tú hablarás, ya no serás silenciado. Tú serás una señal para ellos para que sepan que Yo soy SEÑOR."

Ezekiel 24:6

Una olla de cocinar:
el SEÑOR compara a Jerusalén con una olla de cocina.

Óxido:
el material rojo que se forma en el metal. El óxido va comiendo el metal y eventualmente lo destruye.

Toma:
el SEÑOR no da este mandamiento a una persona específica, por el contrario, se lo está dando a una persona imaginaria que es parte de la metáfora.

Pero no echen suertes por él:
echar suertes era una manera de elegir qué trozos de carne sacar, pero porque el SEÑOR quería sacar todos los trozos de carne, no había necesidad de echar suertes.

Ezekiel 24:7

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua dándole a Ezequiel su mensaje para el pueblo de Jerusalén.

Ella:
la palabra "ella" hace referencia a Jerusalén, representada por la olla de cocina.

La ha puesto sobre la piedra suave:
"ha puesto la sangre sobre rocas descubiertas".

Para cubrirla con polvo:
"y la ha cubierto con tierra".

Ezekiel 24:9

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua comparando a Jerusalén con una olla.

Yo también agrandaré el montón de madera:
está implícito que el montón de madera está debajo de la olla, que representa a Jerusalén. "Haré aun más grande el montón de madera el fuego debajo tuyo".

Apila ... enciende ... cocina ... deja que los huesos se carbonicen:
el SEÑOR le da estos mandamientos a personas imaginarias que son parte de la metáfora.

Deja que los huesos se carbonicen:
"quema los huesos".

Ezekiel 24:11

Chamuscar:
quemar la superficie de algo.

Corrosión:
cuando algo causa que el metal se rompa y se oxide.

Consumido:
"quemado".

Se ha fatigado:
Traducción Alterna: "Jerusalén se ha cansado".

Esfuerzo:
trabajo difícil

Ezekiel 24:13

No debes lamentarte ni llorar, y no deben caer tus lágrimas:
estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo, y enfatizan que Ezequiel no debe llorar por la muerte de su esposa. Traducción Alterna: "no debes expresar aflicción".

Turbante:
una cobertura para la cabeza hecha de una tela larga envuelta alrededor de la cabeza.

Sandalias:
un calzado simple que se sujeta al pie con tiras alrededor de los tobillos.

No encubras el vello de tu rostro:
en Israel, los hombres se afeitarían sus barbas para expresar tristeza, y luego cubrirse nuevamente el rostro hasta que les creciera nuevamente el vello. El SEÑOR le dijo a Ezequiel que no cubriera su vello facial para demostrar que no se había afeitado el rostro para expresar tristeza.

Traducción Alterna: "ser muerto en la guerra"

Ezekiel 24:22

Te derretirás:
aquí se habla de derretirse como de morirse o desperdiciarse.

En tus iniquidades:
esto implica que Dios no va a perdonar los pecados de estas personas. Sin embargo, algunas versiones modernas traducen: "por motivo de tus iniquidades".

Gemir:
el sonido que hace una persona que quiere ayuda, pero cuyo dolor o angustia es tan fuerte que no le permite hablar.

Ezekiel 24:25

Refugiado:
alguien que ha sido forzado a dejar su país por una guerra u otro desastre.

Tu boca será abierta:
"El SEÑOR abrirá tu boca". Esto describe a alguien a quien se le da entendimiento y la capacidad de hablar sobre algo. Traducción Alterna: "sabrás qué decir"

Hablarás. Ya no tequedarás en silencio:
ambas significan que el pueblo de Israel hablará. Se dice otra vez en negativo para enfatizar el positivo.

Serás señal:
esto hace referencia al pueblo de Israel como a una señal porque ayudarán a los refugiados a entender por qué Jerusalén fue destruida.

Chapter 25

1 Entonces palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, pon tu rostro contra la gente de Amón y profetiza contra ellos. 3 Di a las gente de Amón: 'Escucha la palabra de el SEÑOR Dios. Esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice: Porque ustedes dijeron: "¡Ajá!" contra Mi santuario cuando fue profanado, y contra la tierra de Israel cuando fue desolada, y contra la casa de Judá cuando fueron llevados al exilio, 4 por lo tanto, he aquí, Yo los estoy entregando a ustedes a un pueblo en el este como su posesión. Ellos armarán campamento contra ustedes y estableceran sus tiendas entre ustedes. Ellos comerán tus frutos y beberán tu leche. 5 Yo haré de Rabá un pastizal para camellos y el pueblo de Amón un campo para rebaños. Entonces ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 6 El SEÑOR Dios dice: Ustedes han aplaudido con sus manos y pisoteado con sus pies, y se regocijan con todo el desprecio dentro de ustedes contra la tierra de Israel. 7 Por lo tanto, ¡he aquí! Yo los golpearé con mi mano y los daré a ustedes como botín a las naciones. ¡Yo te separaré de los pueblos y te haré perecer de entre los países! Yo los destruiré a ustedes, y ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR.' 8 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Porque Moab y Seir dicen: La casa de Judá es como todas las naciones." 9 Por lo tanto, ¡espera! Yo abriré el lado de Moab, comenzando en sus ciudades en la frontera, el esplendor de Bet Jesimot, Baal Meón y Quiriataim, 10 al pueblo del este quien ha estado en contra del pueblo de Amón. Los entregaré como a una posesión para que la gente de Amón no sea recordada entre las naciones. 11 Entonces haré juicios contra Moab, y ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR.' 12 El SEÑOR Dios dice: 'Edom ha tomado venganza contra la casa de Judá y ha cometido un error haciendo esto. 13 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice: Yo golpearé a Edom con Mi mano y destruiré a cada persona y animal ahí. Yo los convertiré en un lugar arruinado y abandonado, desde Temán hasta Dedán. Ellos caerán por la espada. 14 Yo pondré Mi venganza sobre Edom por la mano de Mi pueblo Israel, y ellos le harán a Edom de acuerdo con Mi ira y Mi furia, y ellos conocerán Mi venganza, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 15 El SEÑOR Dios dice: 'Los filisteos han tomado venganza con malicia y por su propia cuenta ellos trataron destruir a Judá una y otra vez. 16 Así que esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice: ¡Mirad! Yo extenderé Mi mano contra los filisteos, y Yo cortaré a los cereteos y destruiré al remanente que esté a lo largo de la costa del mar. 17 Porque Yo tomaré grande venganza contra ellos con furiosos actos de castigo, para que ellos sepan que Yo soy el SEÑOR, cuando tome Mi venganza sobre ellos."

Chapter 26

1 Entonces fue en el año once, en el primer día del mes, que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, porque Tiro ha dicho contra Jerusalén, '¡Aja! ¡Las puertas del pueblo están rotas! Ella se volvió a mí; Me llenaré porque ella está arruinada.' 3 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR dice esto: '¡Miren! Yo estoy contra ti, Tiro, y voy a levantar muchas naciones contra ti como el mar levanta sus olas. 4 Ellos van a destruir las paredes de Tiro y tirarán abajo sus torres. Yo voy a barrer su polvo fuera y la haré como una roca desnuda. 5 Ella se convertirá en lugar para que las redes se sequen en medio del mar, ya que Yo lo he declarado, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, y ella se convertirá en saqueo para las naciones. 6 Sus hijas quienes están en los campos serán sacrificadas por las espadas, y ellos van a saber que Yo Soy el SEÑOR.' 7 Porque esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: Mira, desde el norte Yo traígo a Nabucodonosor rey de Babilonia, rey de reyes, contra Tiro, con caballos y carros, y con jinetes y muchas personas. 8 Él va a matar tus hijas en el campo. Él va a trabajar asedio y a construir una rampa contra tus paredes y levantará escudos contra ti. 9 Él va a colocar sus arietes para golpear contra tus paredes, y sus herramientas van a derribar tus torres. 10 Sus caballos van a ser tantos que su polvo te cubrirá. Tus paredes van a temblar con el sonido de caballos, vagones y carros. Cuando él entre por tus puertas, él va a entrar como los hombres vienen a la ciudad cuyas paredes han sido derribadas. 11 Las pezuñas de sus caballos van a pisotear todas tus calles. Él va a matar tu pueblo con la espada y tus poderosos pilares de piedra van a caer al suelo. 12 Ellos van a saquear tus riquezas y tomarán tus mercancías. Ellos van a derribar tus paredes y destruirán tus lujosas casas. Tus piedras, tu madera, y el escombro será tirado a las aguas. 13 Yo voy a detener el sonido de tus canciones. El sonido de tus arpas no se oirá más. 14 Yo voy a hacerte roca desnuda, tú te convertirás en un lugar donde las redes son tendidas para que se sequen. Tú nunca serás reconstruído nuevamente, porque Yo, el SEÑOR Dios he hablado, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 15 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto a Tiro: '¿No temblarán las islas con el sonido de tu caída, y con los gemidos de dolor cuando la terrible matanza esté en medio de tí? 16 Entonces todas los príncipes del mar bajarán de sus tronos y se quitarán sus túnicas y desecharán sus prendas bordadas. Ellos se vestirán con temblor, ellos se sentarán en el suelo y temblarán cada momento, y ellos estarán horrorizados a causa tuya. 17 Ellos levantarán un lamento para ti y dirán: ¡Cómo tú, quien eras habitado por marineros, has sido destruido. La famosa ciudad que fue tan fuerte, está ahora fuera del mar! Aquellos que vivían en ella esparcieron terror, acerca de ellos, sobre todo el que vivía cerca. 18 Ahora las costas tiemblan en el día de tu caída. Las islas en el mar están espantadas, porque tú has muerto.' 19 Porque el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Cuando yo haga de ti una ciudad desolada, como las otras ciudades que no están habitadas, cuando Yo levante las profundidades contra ti, y cuando las grandes aguas te cubran, 20 entonces Yo te traeré a los pueblos de tiempos antiguos, como los otros que han bajado al pozo; porque yo te haré vivir en los reinos más bajos de la Tierra como en las ruinas de los tiempos antiguos. Debido a esto tú no regresarás y te pararás en la tierra de los vivientes. 21 Yo voy a traer desastre sobre tí, y tú no vas a ser nunca más. Después tú vas a ser buscado, pero no serás encontrado nunca jamás, esto es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

Chapter 27

1 Otra vez, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Ahora tú, hijo del hombre, comienza una lamentación acerca de Tiro, 3 y di a Tiro, quien vive entre las puertas del mar, comerciantes de los pueblos entre muchas islas, el SEÑOR Dios te dice esto: Tiro, tú has dicho: 'yo soy perfecta en belleza.' 4 Tus fronteras están en el corazón de los mares; tus constructores han perfeccionado tu belleza. 5 Ellos han hecho todas tus tablas con ciprés del Monte Senir; ellos tomaron cedro del Líbano para hacerte un mastil. 6 Ellos hicieron tus remos de los robles de Basán; ellos hicieron tus cubiertas de madera de ciprés de Chipre, y ellos los cubrieron con marfil. 7 ¡Tus velas eran lino colorido de Egipto que eran como tus banderas! 8 Aquellos que vivían en Sidón y Arvad eran tus remeros; los sabios de Tiro estaban entre ustedes; eran sus pilotos. 9 Artesanos altamente experimentados de Gebal llenaron tus costuras; todos los barcos del mar y sus marineros entre ustedes cargaban tu mercancía para intercambio. 10 Persia, Lud y Fut estaban en tu ejército, tus hombres de guerra. Ellos colgaron escudo y casco dentro de ti; ellos mostraban tu esplendor. 11 Los hombres de Arvad y Helec en tu ejército estaban en tus paredes rodeándote, y los gamadeos estaban en tus torres. ¡Ellos colgaron sus escudos en tus paredes alrededor de ti! Ellos completaron tu belleza. 12 Tarsis era un socio de comercio contigo por tu abundante riqueza de bienes para vender: plata, hierro, estaño y plomo. 13 ¡Ellos compraron y vendieron tus mercancías! Javán, Tubal y Mesec, ellos intercambiaron esclavos y artículos hechos de bronce. Ellos manejaban tu mercadería. 14 Los de Bet Togarmá brindaron caballos, semental y mulas como tu mercancía. 15 Los hombres de Dedán eran tus comerciantes en muchas costas. ¡La mercancía estaba en tu mano; ¡ellos enviaron de vuelta cuerno, marfil y ébano como tributo! 16 Aram era un distribuidor de tus muchos productos; ellos proporcionaban esmeraldas, púrpura, paños a color, tela fina, perlas y rubíes como tu mercancía. 17 Judá y la tierra de Israel comerciaban contigo. Ellos proporcionaron trigo de Minit, tortas, miel, aceite y bálsamo como tu mercancía. 18 Damasco era un vendedor de todos tus productos, de toda tu enorme riqueza, y del vino de Helbón y la lana de Sahar. 19 Dán y Javán de Uzal te proporcionaron mercancía de hierro forjado, canela y cálamo. Esto se convirtió en mercancía para ti. 20 Dedán era tu distribuidor de mantas finas de silla de montar. 21 Arabia y los jefes de Cedar eran comerciantes contigo; ellos te trajeron corderos, carneros y cabras. 22 Los comerciantes de Sabá y Raama vinieron a venderte lo mejor de cada especia y todo tipo de piedras preciosas; ellos intercambiaron oro por tu mercancía. 23 Harán, Cane y Edén eran comerciantes contigo, así como Sabá, Asiria y Quilmad. 24 Estos eran tus distribuidores en túnicas adornadas de paños violetas con colores tejidos, y en sábanas multicolores, bordadas y telas bien tejidas en tus mercados. 25 ¡Los barcos de Tarsis eran los que transportaban tu mercancía! ¡Así que estabas llena, muy cargada con mercancía en el corazón de los mares! 26 Tus remeros te han traído a extensos mares; el viento del este te ha roto en medio de ellos. 27 Tus riquezas, mercancías y bienes de intercambio; tus marineros y pilotos, y constructores de barcos; tus comerciantes de mercancía y todo los hombres de guerra que están en ti, y toda tu tripulación, ellos se hundirán hacia las profundidades del mar en el día de tu destrucción. 28 Ciudades en el mar temblarán al sonido del grito de tus pilotos. 29 Todos aquellos que manejan los remos bajarán de sus barcos; marineros y todos los pilotos del mar se levantarán en la tierra. 30 Entonces, ellos te harán escuchar su voz y gemirán amargamente; ellos lanzarán polvo sobre sus cabezas. Se revolcarán en cenizas. 31 Ellos razurarán sus cabezas calvas para ti y se atarán a sí mismos con tela de saco, y llorarán amargamente sobre ti y ellos gritarán. 32 Levantarán sus quejas de lamento para ti y cantarán endechas sobre ti. ¿Quién es cómo Tiro que ha sido ahora llevado a silencio en el medio del mar? 33 ¡Cuando tu mercancía llegó a la tierra del mar, satisfizo a muchas personas! ¡tú enriqueciste a los reyes de la tierra con tu gran riqueza y mercancía! 34 ¡Pero cuando fuiste destrozado por los mares, por aguas profundas, tu mercancía y toda tu tripulación se hundió! 35 ¡Todos los habitantes de las costas se espantaron de ti, y sus reyes se estremecieron de horror! ¡Sus rostros temblaron! 36 Los mercaderes del pueblo te silban; tú te has convertido en un horror, y tú no serás más para siempre."

Chapter 28

1 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí y dijo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, dile al gobernante de Tiro: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Tu corazón es arrogante! Tú has dicho: "¡Yo soy un dios! ¡Yo me voy a sentar en el asiento de los dioses en el corazón de los mares!" Aunque tú eres un hombre y no un dios, tú haces de tu corazón como el de un dios; 3 ¡tú piensas que tú eres más sabio que Daniel, y que ningún secreto te sorprende! 4 ¡Tú te has hecho rico en sabiduría y habilidad, y obtuviste oro y plata en tus tesorerías! 5 Por gran sabiduría y por tu intercambio, tú has multiplicado tus riquezas, así que, tu corazón es arrogante por tus riquezas. 6 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Porque tú has hecho tu corazón como el corazón de un dios, 7 Yo voy, por lo tanto, a traer extranjeros en contra tuya, hombres aterradores de otras naciones. Y ellos van a traer sus espadas en contra de la belleza de tu sabiduría, y ellos van a profanar tu esplendor. 8 Ellos van a enviarte a la foza, y tú vas a morir la muerte de aquellos quienes mueren en el corazón de los océanos. 9 ¿Verdaderamente tú vas a decir: "Yo soy un dios" en la cara de quien te mate? Tú eres un hombre y no Dios, y tú vas a estar en la mano de quien te atraviese. 10 Tú vas a morir la muerte de los no circuncidados por la mano de un extranjero, pues, Yo lo he declarado, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.'" 11 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mi otra vez y dijo: 12 "Hijo de hombre, levanta un lamento para el rey de Tiro y dile: ' El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Tú eras un modelo de perfección, lleno de sabiduría y perfecto en belleza. 13 Tú estabas en Edén, el jardín de Dios. Cada piedra preciosa te cubría: rubí, topaz, esmeralda, crisolito, onix, jaspe, safiro, turquesa, y berilo. Tus configuraciones y montajes eran echos de oro. Fue en el día que tú fuiste creado que ellos fueron preparados. 14 Yo te coloqué en el monte santo de Dios como el querubín Yo te ungí. Tú estabas en el medio de las piedras ardientes donde caminabas. 15 Tú tenías integridad en tus caminos desde el día que tú fuiste creado hasta que la injusticia fue encontrada dentro de ti. 16 Por las grandes cantidades tus intercambios fuiste lleno con violencias, así que, pecaste. Yo te he echado como profanado del monte de Dios y te he destruido a ti, tú, guardián querubín, de entre las piedras ardientes. 17 Tú corazón era arrogante con tu belleza; tú arruinaste tu sabiduría por tu esplendor. Yo te he bajado a la Tierra. Yo te he colocado ante reyes para que ellos puedan verte. 18 Porque por tus muchos pecados y tus intercambios deshonestos, tú has profanado tus lugares santos. Así que, Yo he hecho fuego salir de ti; que te va a consumir. Voy a convertirte en cenizas en la Tierra a la vista de todos quienes te miran. 19 Todos los que una vez te conocían de entre los pueblos van a estremecerse; ellos van a estar horrorizados, y tú jamás vas a volver a existir otra vez.'" 20 Luego, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí y dijo: 21 "Hijo de hombre, pon tu cara en contra de Sidón y profetiza en contra de ella. 22 Di: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: ¡Mira! ¡Yo estoy en contra tuya, Sidón! Pues, Yo voy a ser glorificado en medio de ti porque así tu gente va a saber que Yo soy El SEÑOR, cuando Yo ejecute justicia dentro de ti. Yo voy a ser santificado en ti. 23 Yo voy a enviar una plaga en ti y sangre en tus calles, y los muertos van a caer en medio de ti. Cuando la espada vaya en contra tuya de todos lados, entonces tú vas a saber que Yo soy El SEÑOR. 24 Entonces, no va haber más espinas punzantes ni espinas dolorosas en la casa de Israel de todos aquellos alrededor de ella quienes desprecian a sus personas. ¡Porque ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR Dios! 25 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: 'Cuando Yo reuna la casa de Israel de los pueblos entre quienes ellos fueron esparcidos, y cuando Yo me separe de entre ellos, para que las naciones puedan ver. Entonces, ellos harán sus casas en la tierra que Yo le voy a dar a mi siervo Jacob. 26 Luego, ellos van a vivir seguros dentro de ella y construirán casas, sembrarán viñedos, y vivirán seguros cuando Yo ejecute justicia en todos aquellos quienes ahora los desprecian de todos lados. ¡Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo soy El SEÑOR su Dios!'"

Chapter 29

1 En el año diez, en el día doce del mes diez, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, pon tu rostro en contra del Faraón, el rey de Egipto; profetiza en contra de él y en contra de todo Egipto. 3 Declara y di: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Mira! Yo estoy en contra tuya, Faraón, rey de Egipto. Tú, el gran monstruo de mar que acecha en medio del río, que dice: "Mi río es mío. Yo lo he hecho para mí mismo." 4 Pues Yo pondré anzuelos en tu quijada, y los peces de tu Nilo se pegarán a tus escamas; Yo te levantaré desde el centro de tu río junto con todos los peces del río que se pegan a tus escamas. 5 Yo te arrojaré en el desierto, a ti y a todos los peces de tu río. Tú caerás en el campo abierto; tú no serás recogido ni levantado. Yo te daré a ti como comida para las cosas vivas de la tierra y para los pájaros de los cielos. 6 Entonces, todos los habitantes de Egipto sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, porque ellos han sido un tallo de caña para la casa de Israel. 7 Cuando ellos te tomaron en su tierra, tú rompiste y abriste su hombro; y cuando ellos se recostaron en ti, tú estabas roto, y tú hiciste que sus piernas fueran inestables. 8 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Mira! Yo traigo una espada en contra tuya. Yo cortaré tanto a hombre como bestia de ti. 9 Para que la tierra de Egipto se vuelva desolada y una ruina. Entonces, ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, porque el monstruo marino ha dicho: "El río es mío, pues yo lo he hecho." 10 Por lo tanto, ¡mira! Yo estoy en contra tuya y en contra de tu río, pues Yo le daré la tierra de Egipto a la desolación y a la pérdida, y ustedes serán vueltos a una tierra estéril desde Migdol hasta Sevene y las fronteras de Cus. 11 Ningún pie de hombre pasará por ella, ni la pata de ningún animal salvaje pasará por ella. No será habitada por cuarenta años. 12 Pues Yo haré la tierra de Egipto una desolación en medio de tierras deshabitadas, y sus ciudades en el medio de ciudades destruidas se volverán una desolación por cuarenta años; entonces Yo regaré a Egipto entre las naciones, y los dispersaré a través de las tierras. 13 Pues el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Al final de los cuarenta años, Yo reuniré a Egipto de entre los pueblos en donde fueron regados. 14 Yo restauraré las fortunas de Egipto y los traeré de vuelta a la región de Patros, a la tierra de su origen. Entonces, ellos serán un reino humilde allí. 15 Será el más humilde de los reinos, y no será levantado otra vez de entre las naciones. Yo los rebajaré a ellos para que ya no puedan gobernar sobre las naciones. 16 Los egipcios ya no serán una razón de confianza para la casa de Israel. En cambio, ellos serán un recordatorio de la iniquidad que Israel cometió cuando ellos fueron a Egipto por ayuda. Entonces, ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR Dios." 17 Entonces, pasó que en el año veintisiete, en el primer día del mes, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 18 "Hijo de hombre, Nabucodonosor, el rey de Babilonia puso a su ejército a hacer un trabajo forzado en contra de Tiro. Cada cabeza fue frotada hasta que se hizo calva, y cada hombro se hizo carne viva. Aún así, él y su ejército no recibieron pago de Tiro por el duro trabajo que él llevó a cabo en contra de ella. 19 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: '¡Mira! Yo le estoy dando la tierra de Egipto a Nabucodonosor, el rey de Babilonia, y él se llevará toda su riqueza, saqueará sus posesiones, y cargará con todo lo que él encuentre allí; eso serán los pagos de su ejército. 20 Yo le he dado a él la tierra de Egipto como los pagos por el trabajo que él hizo por Mí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 21 En ese día, Yo haré crecer un cuerno de la casa de Israel, y Yo te haré hablar de en medio de ellos, para que ellos sepan que Yo Soy el SEÑOR.'"

Chapter 30

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, profetiza y di, 'El SEÑOR dice: Giman, "Ay del día que viene." 3 El día está cerca. El día está cerca para el SEÑOR. Será un día de nubes, un tiempo de fatalidad para las naciones. 4 Entonces una espada vendrá en contra de Egipto, y habrá angustia en Etiopía cuando la gente caiga muerta en Egipto, cuando tomen sus riquezas, y cuando sus fundamentos sean arruinados. 5 Etiopía, Put y Lud, y todos los extranjeros, junto con el pueblo perteneciente al pacto, todos ellos caerán por la espada. 6 El SEÑOR dice: Así que los que apoyan a Egipto caerán, y el orgullo de su fuerza bajará. Desde Migdol hasta Sevene sus soldados caerán por la espada, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 7 Ellos estarán horrorizados en medio de las tierras abandonadas, y sus ciudades estarán en medio de todas la ciudades arruinadas. 8 Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR, cuando prenda fuego en Egipto, y cuando todos sus ayudantes estén destruidos. 9 En ese día mensajeros saldrán de delante de Mí en naves para aterrorizar una Etiopía segura, y habrá angustia entre ellos en el día de la fatalidad de Egipto. Pues, ¡Miren! El día vendrá. 10 El SEÑOR Dios dice: Yo traeré un final da las multitudes de Egipto por la mano de Nabucodonosor, el rey de Babilonia. 11 Él y su ejército, el terror de naciones, serán traídos para destruir la tierra; ellos sacarán sus espadas en contra de Egipto y llenarán la tierra con gente muerta. 12 Yo convertiré los ríos en tierra seca, y venderé la tierra en la mano de hombres malvados. Yo haré la tierra y su llenura desolada por la mano de extranjeros, Yo, el SEÑOR, he hablado. 13 El SEÑOR Dios dice: Yo destruiré ídolos, y pondré fin a los ídolos sin valor de Menfis. Ya no habrá más príncipe en la tierra de Egipto, y Yo pondré terror sobre la tierra de Egipto. 14 Entonces haré desolada a Patros y prenderé fuego en Zoán, y Yo ejecutaré actos de juicio en Tebas. 15 Pues Yo derramaré mi furia sobre Sin, la fortaleza de Egipto, y cortaré la multitud de Tebas. 16 Entonces Yo prenderé fuego en Egipto; Sin estará en agonía severa, Tebas será rota, y Menfis enfrentará enemigos todos los días. 17 Los hombres jóvenes en On y Pi Besset caerán por la espada, y sus ciudades irán a cautiverio. 18 En Tafnes, el día retendrá su luz cuando Yo rompa el yugo de Egipto ahí, y el orgullo de su fuerza se acabará. Habrá una nube cubriéndola, y sus hijas caminarán hacia el cautiverio. 19 Yo ejecutaré actos de juicio en Egipto, para que sepan que Yo Soy el SEÑOR."' 20 Entonces sucedió en el año once, en el primer mes, en el séptimo día del mes, que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo, 21 "Hijo de hombre, Yo he roto el brazo del Faraón, el rey de Egipto. ¡Mira! No ha sido vendado, o fijado para sanar con un vendaje, de manera que se pondrá suficientemente fuerte para agarrar una espada. 22 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR dice, 'Miren, Yo estoy en contra de Faraón, el rey de Egipto. Pues yo romperé su brazo, tanto el fuerte como el roto, y Yo haré la espada caer de su mano. 23 Entonces yo esparciré a Egipto entre las naciones y los dispersaré entre las tierras. 24 Yo fortaleceré los brazos del rey de Babilonia y pondré mi espada en su mano de modo que Yo pueda destruir los brazos de Faraón. Él gemirá ante el rey de Babilonia con los gemidos de un hombre moribundo. 25 Pues Yo fortaleceré los brazos del rey de Babilonia, mientras los brazos de Faraón caerán. Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR, cuando ponga mi espada en la mano del rey de Babilonia; pues él atacará la tierra de Egipto con ella. 26 Así que Yo esparciré Egipto entre las naciones y los dispersaré por las tierras. Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR."'

Profetiza y dile:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 21:08.

Gime:
"exclama con pesar" este mandamiento es para Egipto y las naciones alrededor de Egipto.

Viene el día de la aflicción:
"ese día es muy aterrorizante" o "cosas muy malas sucederán ese día".

El día está cercano:
estaba implícito que "el día" era el tiempo en que el pueblo gemiría. Traducción Alterna: "pronto vendrá el día en que ustedes gemirán."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El día está cercano para el SEÑOR:
está implícito que en ese día, el SEÑOR castigará al pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "pronto será el día en que el SEÑOR castigará al pueblo".

-Un día de nubes:
Traducción Alterna: "será como un día con nubes oscuras" o "será aterrorizante como un día con nubes oscuras". .

Un tiempo de perdición para las naciones:
Traducciones Alternas: "un tiempo en que le sucederán cosas terribles a las naciones" o "será un tiempo en que el pueblo de las naciones sufrirá".

Ezekiel 30:4

Información General:
estas son las palabras del SEÑOR acerca de Egipto.

Entonces una espada vendrá contra Egipto:
la palabra "espada" hace referencia a la guerra o a un ataque. Traducción Alterna: "habrá guerra contra Egipto" o "un ejército enemigo atacará Egipto".

Habrá angustia en Cus:
"Cus estará muy triste" o "el pueblo de Cus estará lleno de pesar".

Cuando los muertos caigan en Egipto:
"cuando muchas personas sean muertas en Egipto" o "cuando muchas personas en Egipto mueran en la guerra".

Cuando tomen su riqueza:
"los atacantes se llevarán la riqueza de Egipto".

Cuando sus fundamentos sean derribados:
"los atacantes incluso derribarán los fundamentos de las edificaciones en Egipto".

Libia:
Libia es un país al oeste de Egipto. Ezequiel denominaba a esta región "Put".

Lidia:
esto probablemente haga referencia al reino de Lidia, que estaba en lo que ahora es Turquía. Ezequiel denominaba esta región "Lud".

El pueblo que pertenecía al pacto:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "los judíos que viven en Egipto" o 2) "el otro pueblo en las tierras de los aliados de Egipto". No está claro si "el pacto" hace referencia al acuerdo que el SEÑOR hizo con los israelitas o a un acuerdo que Egipto hizo con otros pueblos.

Todos caerán por la espada:
"todos morirán en batalla" o "todos morirán en la guerra". Esto no significa que cada persona morirá, pero que morirán muchas personas de estos países.

Ezekiel 30:6

El SEÑOR dice esto:
"esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR". Esta oración presenta lo que el SEÑOR dirá.

Así que aquellos:
"de esta manera, los pueblos" o "de este modo, las naciones".

Que apoyan a Egipto:
"que ayudan a Egipto".

Caerán:
"morirán" o "serán arruinados".

El orgullo de su fuerza caerá:
"la fuerza de Egipto, que la enorgulleció, desaparecerá" o "la fuerza que enorgulleció a Egipto será arruinada".

Desde Migdol hasta Sevene:
Ezequiel nombra pueblos en las fronteras de Egipto para referirse a todo Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "en todo Egipto" o "desde la frontera norte de Egipto hasta la frontera sur de Egipto".

Sus soldados caerán por la espada:
"los soldados de Egipto caerán por la espada." Traducción Alterna: "el ejército atacante matará a los soldados de Egipto en batalla".

Estarán espantados en medio de las tierras abandonadas:
"los soldados de los aliados de Egipto estarán horrorizados cuando queden rodeados de nada más que tierras abandonadas.

En medio de:
"entre" o "rodeados por".

-Sus ciudades estarán entre las ciudades arruinadas:
"sus ciudades estarán rodeadas por ciudades arruinadas en naciones cercanas".

Ezekiel 30:8

Información General:
estas son las palabras del SEÑOR acerca de Egipto.

Entonces ellos:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "entonces el pueblo" o 2) "entonces los egipcios".

Cuando encienda en fuego a Egipto:
el fuego hace referencia a los incendios que suelen ocurrir en la guerra. Traducción Alterna: "cuando destruya a Egipto con fuego" o "cuando envíe un ejército atacante a incendiar a Egipto con fuego."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Todos sus ayudantes sean destruidos: Traducción Alterna:
"yo destruya todos los aliados de Egipto" o "yo quebrante a todos aquellos que ayudan a Egipto". .

Saldrán mensajeros delante mío en barcos para aterrorizar a la segura Cus:
los mensajeros llevarán las noticias de la destrucción de Egipto a Cus, quienes se aterrorizarán de estas noticias.

Para aterrorizar a la segura Cus:
"para aterrorizar a Cus, que ahora se siente segura del peligro".

Habrá angustia entre ellos en el día de la maldición de Egipto:
"el pueblo de Cus también tendrá dolor cuando yo castigue a Egipto".

¡Mira!
La palabra "mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue. También puede ser traducida como "¡ciertamente!".

Ya viene:
hace referencia al "gran dolor" o al a "gran angustia" que Cus tendrá cuando sean castigados junto a Egipto.

Ezekiel 30:10

El Señor Dios dice esto:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:5.

Pondré un fin a las multitudes de Egipto:
Traducción Alterna: "haré que Egipto no tenga un pueblo tan grande".

-Por la mano de Nabucodonosor:
Nabucodonosor será el que trae este castigo.

El y su ejército con él ... serán traídos para destruir la tierra.
Esto puede decirse de manera activa: Traducción Alterna: "traeré a Nabucodonosor y su ejército ... para destruir la tierra".

Él y su ejército con él, el terror de las naciones:
el SEÑOR llama a Nabucodonosor "el terror de las naciones" porque todas las naciones están grandemente asustadas de este ejército.

-Para destruir la tierra:
"para que ellos destruyan la tierra". El SEÑOR traerá a Nabucodonosor y su pueblo para que destruyan la tierra".

Saquen sus espadas contra Egipto:
"peleen contra Egipto".

Llenen la tierra con muertos:
esta es una exageración que demuestra que los babilonios matarán muchos egipcios. Habrá tantos egipcios muertos que parecerá que sus cadáveres cubren toda la tierra de Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "matarán a tantas personas que parecerá que sus cadáveres están por todos lados" .

Ezekiel 30:12

Información General:
estas son las palabras del SEÑOR acerca de Egipto.

Convertiré sus ríos en tierra seca: "
"secaré los ríos de Egipto".

Venderé la tierra en manos de hombres malvados:
el SEÑOR dará a los babilonios el control sobre Egipto tal como una persona que vende algo le da al comprador el control sobre esa cosa. Traducción Alterna: "le daré el control de la tierra a hombres malvados".

Haré que la tierra y su plenitud queden desoladas de mano de extraños:
"haré que personas de otra nación destruyan la tierra y todo en ella".

Su plenitud:
"todo en la tierra".

Ezekiel 30:13

El Señor Dios dice esto:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:5.

Pondré fin a los ídolos sin valor:
"destruiré los ídolos inútiles".

Menfis:
Menfis era una ciudad muy importante en Egipto. Estaba cerca de lo que hoy es Cairo.

Un príncipe en la tierra de Egipto:
un gobernador importante en la tierra de Egipto.

Pondré terror en la tierra de Egipto:
"haré que el pueblo de Egipto esté muy asustado".

Patros:
esta era una región en el sur de Egipto.

Encenderé un fuego en Zoán:
"encenderé a Zoán con fuego".

Zoán:
Zoán era otra ciudad importante en Egipto.

Pelusio:
esta era una ciudad importante en el norte de Egipto.

Cortaré a la multitud de Tebas:
"mataré al gran número de personas que hay en Tebas".

Tebas:
vea cómo tradujo el nombre de esta ciudad en 30:13.

-Luego encenderé un fuego en Egipto:
"luego encenderé a Egipto con fuego".

Estará en agonía severa:
"tendrá un dolor muy grande" o "sentirá un gran dolor".

Tebas será quebrantada:
Tebas será destruida. Traducción Alterna: "los enemigos conquistarán Tebas".

Menfis:
vea cómo tradujo el nombre de esta ciudad en 30:13.

Menfis tendrá enemigos todos los días:
Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Menfis estará preocupado todos los días".

Ezekiel 30:17

Información General:
estas son las palabras del SEÑOR acerca de Egipto.

Heliópolis y Bubastis:
estas eran ciudades en el norte de Egipto.

Caerán por la espada:
la palabra "espada" es utilizada para hacer referencia a la batalla o a la guerra. Traducción Alterna: "morirá en batalla" o "morirá en la guerra".

Las ciudades irán a cautividad:
"el pueblo de sus ciudades se convertirá en cautivo" o "las personas serán llevadas como prisioneras".

Tafnes:
esta era una ciudad importante en el norte de Egipto.

El día retendrá su luz:
se habla deldía como si fuera capaz de hacer que su propia luz no brille. Traducción Alterna: "el día se oscurecerá".

Cuando quebrante el yugo de Egipto allí:
la palabra "yugo" aquí hace referencia al poder de Egipto para oprimir a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "cuando detenga a Egipto para que no oprima más al pueblo" o "cuando yo termine con el poder de Egipto para controlar cruelmente otras naciones".

El orgullo de su fortaleza se acabará:
"Egipto ya no estará orgullosa de ser fuerte" o "ese país ya no estará orgulloso de ser fuerte" (UDB).

Habrá una nube cubriéndola:
"una nube estará sobre Egipto" o "será como si hubiera una nube sobre Egipto". Algunos significados posibles son 1) la nube negra representa cuan triste se sentirá el pueblo de Egipto, o 2) habrá una nube de polvo sobre Egipto de todo lo que fue destruido.

Sus hijas:
algunos significados posibles son 1) el pueblo de los poblados egipcios o 2) las hijas delos egipcios.

Ejecutaré actos de de juicio en Egipto:
"castigaré a Egipto de muchas maneras"

Para que ellos:
"para que los egipcios".

Fortaleceré los brazos del rey de Babilonia:
"haré que los brazos del rey de Babilonia sean fuertes"

Gemirá ante el rey de Babilonia:
cuando el rey de Babilonia venga a atacar Egipto, Faraón gemirá.

Gemido:
un gemido es un sonido fuerte que las personas hacen cuando tienen mucho dolor o cuando están muriendo.

Con los gemidos de un hombre moribundo:
"como gime un hombre moribundo" o "como un hombre que se está muriendo".

Ezekiel 30:25

Fortaleceré los brazos del rey de Babilonia:

Chapter 31

1 Entonces, vino a ser el año once, en el tercer mes, en el primer día del mes, que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mi y dijo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, dile al faraón, rey de Egipto, y a sus sirvientes alrededor de él: 'En tu grandeza, ¿a quién te pareces? 3 ¡Mira! Asiria era un cedro en el Líbano con ramas hermosas, un dosel arbolado, y en gran altura. Y el tope de los árboles era entre las nubes. 4 Muchas aguas lo hicieron alto; las aguas profundas lo hicieron enorme. Rios fluían por todo su lugar, pues los canales se habían estirado a todos los árboles en el campo. 5 Su gran altura era más que cualquiera de los otros árboles en el campo, y sus ramas se convirtieron en muchas; sus ramas crecieron largas por las muchas aguas mientras ellas crecían. 6 Cada pájaro de los cielos anidó en sus ramas, mientras cada cosa viviente del campo daba a luz a sus crías bajo su frondosidad. Todas de las muchas naciones vivieron bajo su sombra. 7 Pues, era hermoso en su grandeza y la longitud de sus ramas, pues, sus raíces estaban en muchas aguas. 8 Los cedros en el jardín de Dios no podían igualarlo. Ninguno entre los árboles de cipreses igualaban sus ramas, y los árboles planos no podían igualar sus ramas. No había ningún otro árbol en el jardín de Dios que fuera como ese en su belleza. 9 Yo lo hice hermoso con muchas ramas y todos los árboles del Edén que estaban en el jardín de Dios lo envidiaban. 10 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Porque tú eras tan alto, y porque creció alto y ponía su tope entre las nubes, 11 Yo lo entregué a las manos de una nación poderosa, para que lo maneje de acuerdo a lo que su maldad merece. Yo lo he desechado. 12 Extranjeros quienes eran el terror de todas las naciones lo cortaron y lo dejaron para morir. Sus ramas cayeron en las montañas y todos los valles, y todas sus ramas permanecieron rotas en todos los barrancos de la tierra. Luego, todas las naciones de la Tierra van a salir de abajo de su sombra y se alejarán de ella. 13 Todos los pájaros de los cielos han descansado en su tronco y todas las bestias del campo se sentaban en sus ramas. 14 Esto pasaba para que así ninguno de los otros árboles regados con agua pudiesen crecer a esa altura, para que ellos no pudieran levantarse hasta el tope de los árboles encima de su frondosidad, pues, ningún otro árbol que haya bebido agua crecerá otra vez así de alto. Pues, ellos fueron todos entregados a la muerte abajo, a los lugares más bajos de la tierra, en medio de los pueblos de la humanidad quienes bajan al fozo. 15 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: En el día cuando el cedro bajó al Seol Yo traje el llanto a la tierra. Yo cubrí las aguas profundas sobre él, y detuve las aguas del océano. Mantuve atrás las aguas grandiosas, y Yo traje un gemido al Libano por él. Por lo tanto, todos los árboles del campo gimieron por cause de él. 16 Yo traje un temblor a las naciones al sonido de su caída, cuando lo derrumbé hacia el Seol con aquellos que se cayeron al fozo. Y Yo consolé a todos los árboles del Edén en las partes más profundas de la tierra. Estos habían sido los seleccionados y los mejores árboles del Líbano, los árboles que bebían las aguas. 17 Pues ellos también se fueron abajo con él al Seol, a aquellos quienes fueron muertos a espada. Estos fueron sus brazos fuertes, aquellas naciones que han vivido a su sombra. 18 ¿Cuál de los árboles del Edén era semejante a tu gloria y grandeza? Pues tú seras derrumbado con los árboles del Edén a las partes más profundas de la tierra junto a los incircuncisos; vivirás con aquellos quienes fueron asesinados a espada.' Este es el faraón y todos sus sirvientes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

Ezekiel 31:3

Información General:
estas son las palabras de Dios a Faraón sobre Asiria. Dios da su mensaje en forma de parábola sobre un gran árbol de cedro.

¡Mira!
Traducción Alterna: "¡Escucha!" o "¡Presta atención a lo que estoy por decirte!"

Un frondoso ramaje:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "con tantas ramas que proveía una buena sombra" o 2) "que proveía sombra para otros árboles del bosque".

Y gran altura:
"y muy alto".

Su copa estaba entre las nubes:
algunos significados son 1) "la copa del árbol estaba en las nubes" o 2) "su copa estaba encima de las ramas de otros árboles".

Las muchas aguas lo hicieron alto:
"porque el cedro tenía mucho agua, creció muy alto".

Las aguas profundas lo hicieron enorme:
"el agua profunda en la tierra hizo que el cedro creciera muy grande".

Pues sus canales se extendían a todos los árboles en el campo:
"y las corrientes fluían de los ríos a todos los árboles del campo".

Ezekiel 31:5

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

Su gran altura era mayor que cualquiera de los otros árboles en el campo:
"el cedro era más alto que cualquiera de los otros árboles en el campo".

Sus ramas se hicieron muchas:
"le crecieron muchas ramas".

Por sus muchas aguas mientras crecía:
"porque tenía mucha agua".

Toda ave del cielo anidaba en sus ramas:
"todo tipo de aves que vuelan en el cielo hacían nidos en sus ramas".

Mientras que todo lo que vive del campo daba a luz bajo su follaje:
"y todas las criaturas que viven en el campo daban luz bajo las ramas del cedro".

Todas las naciones vivían bajo su sombra:
"todas las naciones poderosas vivían bajo su sombra" o "todas las grandes naciones vivían en la sombra de ese árbol" (UDB).

Era hermoso en su grandeza y en lo largo de sus ramas:
"era hermoso porque era muy grande y sus ramas eran muy largas".

Ezekiel 31:8

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

Los cedros en el jardín de Dios no podían igualarlo:
debido a que estas eran las palabras de Dios para Faraón, también puede ser traducido como "los cedros en mi jardín no eran tan grandes como ese árbol".

El jardín de Dios:
esta es otra manera de referirse al "jardín del Edén".

Ninguno entre los árboles cipreses igualaban sus ramas:
el SEÑOR estaba comparando cuántas ramas tenía el árbol. Traducción Alterna: "ninguno de los árboles cipreses tenía tantas ramas como el cedro."

Árboles cipreses:
los árboles cipreses tienen muchas ramas. Pueden crecer hasta ser muy altos.

El plátano no podía igualar sus ramas:
estaba implícito que el SEÑOR estaba comparando las largas ramas del cedro con las largas ramas del plátano. Traducción Alterna: "el platano no tenía ramas como el cedro" o "ningún plátano tenía ramas tan largas como las ramas del cedro".

Plátanos:
los árboles plátanos son grandes y frondosos con ramas fuertes. Son similares a los sicomoros.

Era semejante en su hermosura:
"era tan hermoso como el cedro".

Lo hice hermoso con sus muchas ramas:
"yo hice que el cedro fuera hermoso, dándole sus muchas ramas largas."

Lo envidiaban:
"estaban celosos del cedro".

Ezekiel 31:10

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

-Estableció su copa entre las nubes:
lgunos significados son 1) "levantó su copa sobre las ramas de otros árboles" o 2) "levantó su copa entre las nubes". Vea cómo tradujo una oración similar en 31:3.

Estableció su copa:
este pasaje continua haciendo referencia al rey de Asiria, quien estaba representado por el árbol de cedro.

Lo he entregado en mano de un poderoso de las naciones:
"lo puse en el poder de la nación más poderosa." La palabra "entregado" representa el control. "Le he dadoa la nación más poderosa poder sobre él".

Lo he arrojado fuera:
"envié al cedro fuera de la tierra del cedro porque el cedro era malvado".

Ezekiel 31:12

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

Que eran el terror de todas las naciones:
"que atemorizaban a todas las naciones".

Lo cortaron:
"derribaron el cedro".

Sus ramas quedaron rotas:
"los extranjeros quebraron las ramas del cedro".

Ramas:
hay ramas muy grandes de las que usualmente crecen ramas más pequeñas.

Salieron de debajo de su sombra:
"dejaron la sombra del cedro".

Ezekiel 31:13

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

Todos los pájaros de los cielos:
"todos los pájaros que vuelan en el cielo".

Descansaban en su tronco:
esto puede traducirse como "vivían en los restos del cedro" o "vivían en la madera muerta del cedro que quedaba en el suelo".

Tronco:
el tronco es la parte muy gruesa del árbol que sale del suelo y sostiene el resto del árbol.

Las bestias del campo se sentaban en sus ramas:
"los animales salvajes vivían en las ramas del cedro".

Árboles regados:
"árboles que reciben mucho agua".

No levante sus copas sobre el follaje:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "no crecerían más alto que las ramas de otros árboles" o 2) "no pondrían sus copas en las nubes".

Para que ya ningún otro árbol que reciba agua creza tan alto:
"y ya no otro árbol que recibe mucho agua crecería tan alto".

Pues todos fueron entregados a muerte:
"pues los entregué a la muerte" o "pues hice que todos murieran". El SEÑOR está hablando. .

-Hacia la parte más baja de la tierra:
"e hice que fueran a lo más profundo bajo la tierra". .

En medio de las personas de la humanidad que descienden al abismo:
"para estar con aquellas personas que murieron y descendieron a la tumba"

Ezekiel 31:15

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

El día en que el cedro descendió al Seol:
la frase "descendió al Seol" significa "murió". Traducción Alterna: "en el día en que murió el cedro" o "en el día en que el cedro fue derribado".

Traje lamentación a la tierra:
"causé que la tierra se lamentara". Era como si el SEÑOR hiciera que las aguas, el Líbano y los árboles salvajes se lamentaran por el cedro.

Lo cubrí con las aguas profundas:
la palabra "cubrí" posiblemente hace referencia a vestirse con ropas de luto. Traducción Alterna: "hice que el agua de las vertientes lamentara por el cedro" o "era como si las vertientes que lo regaban se lamentaran por el" (UDB).

Contuve las aguas del océano:
"contuve el agua del océano de regar la tierra".

Contuve las grandes aguas:
"hice que ya no hubiera tanto agua".

Traje lamentación por él al Líbano:
"e hice que el Líbano se lamentara por el cedro".

Ezekiel 31:16

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

Cuando lo arrojé al Seol:
"cuando arrojé ese árbol al Seol". Esta frase significa "cuando maté al cedro".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Con quienes descendieron al abismo:
"con todos los demás que habían muerto y descendido al suelo".

En las partes más profundas de la tierra:
"que ya estaban muy debajo del suelo". Esta frase significa "que ya habían muerto".

Los mejores árboles y los más escogidos del Líbano; los árboles que tomaban de las aguas:
"los mejores árboles del Líbano que cualquiera pudiera desear, arboles que recibían mucha agua". Estos son los árboles del Edén que estaban en las partes más profundas de la tierra.

-Los escogidos:
se trata de algo que cualquiera desearía porque es muy bueno.

Ezekiel 31:17

Información General:
continua la parábola del SEÑOR acerca del cedro.

También descendieron con él al Seol:
"esos árboles del Líbano también murieron y descendieron al Seol con el cedro".

Que habían muerto por la espada:
Traducción Alterna: "a quienes los enemigos habían matado con espadas" o "quienes habían muerto en batalla"

Estos eran su brazo fuerte
"estos árboles del Líbano eran su brazo fuerte". La frase "brazo fuerte" significa "poder". Traducción Alterna: "estos árboles del Líbano eran el poder del cedro" o "estos árboles fortalecían al cedro"

¿Cuál de los árboles en el Edén te igualaba en gloria y grandeza? "¿Cuál de estos árboles en Edén tenía tanta gloria como tú y era tan grande como tú?"
Dios le hace esta pregunta a Faraón parademostrarle que la parábola aplica a él y su país. Puede comenzar "Faraón" o "Egipto".

Pues serás derribado:
Traducción Alterna: "pues te derribaré".

Con los árboles del Edén:
Traducción Alterna: "como los otros árboles del Edén".

A las partes más bajas de la tierra:
"a un lugar bien en lo bajo de la tierra".

-Entre los incircuncisos:
Traducción Alterna: "donde estarás con quienes no han sido circuncidados"

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:

Chapter 32

1 Entonces ocurrió en el duodécimo mes del duodécimo año, en el primer día del mes, que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo del hombre, levanta un lamento sobre Faraón, el rey de Egipto; dile a él: 'Tú eres como un león joven entre las naciones, pero eres como un monstruo en los mares; tú agitas el agua, tú revuelves las aguas con tus pies y enlodas sus aguas. 3 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Extenderé Mi red sobre ti en la asamblea de muchos pueblos, y te levantarán en Mi red. 4 Te abandonaré en la tierra. Te lanzaré a un campo y haré que todas las aves del campo se posen en ti; el hambre de todo animal viviente en la tierra será satisfecho por ti. 5 Pues pondré tu carne en las montañas, y llenaré los valles con tu cadáver lleno de gusanos. 6 Entonces derramaré tu sangre sobre las montañas, y los fondos de los arroyos serán llenados con tu sangre. 7 Entonces te extinguiré, cubriré los cielos y oscureceré sus estrellas; cubriré el sol con nubes, y la luna no brillará su luz. 8 Todas las luces brillantes en los cielos las oscureceré sobre ti, y pondré oscuridad sobre tu tierra - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 9 Así que aterrorizaré los corazones de muchos pueblos en tierras que no conoces, cuando Yo traiga el colapso tuyo entre las naciones, hasta tierras que no conoces. 10 Horrorizaré a muchos pueblos por causa de lo que te vaya a pasar; sus reyes se estremecerán con horror acerca de ti cuando mueva Mi espada ante ellos. En todo momento cada uno de ellos temblará, en el día de tu perdición. 11 Pues el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: La espada del rey de Babilonia vendrá contra de ti. 12 Yo causaré que tus multitudes caigan por las espadas de guerreros, cada guerrero un terror de naciones. Estos guerreros devastarán el orgullo de Egipto y destruirán todas sus multitudes. 13 Pues Yo destruiré todo el ganado alrededor de las abundantes aguas; el pie del hombre no volverá a revolver las aguas, ni las pezuñas de las reses las revolverán. 14 Entonces yo calmaré sus aguas y haré que sus ríos corran como aceite - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 15 Cuando Yo haga la tierra de Egipto un lugar abandonado, cuando la tierra quede despojada de toda su abundancia, cuando Yo ataque todos los habitantes de ella, ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 16 Habrá lamento; las hijas de las naciones se lamentarán sobre ella; se lamentarán sobre Egipto, sobre todas sus multitudes ellas se lamentarán, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.'" 17 Entonces ocurrió en el duodécimo año, en el día quince del mes, que la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 18 "Hijo del hombre, llora por las multitudes de Egipto y tráelas abajo, ella y las hijas de naciones majestuosas, a la tierra más baja con aquellos que han bajado a la fosa. 19 '¿De verdad eres más hermosa que cualquier otra? Ve abajo y acuéstate con los no circuncidados.' 20 Ellos caerán entre aquellos que murieron por la espada. ¡La espada ha sido sacada! Egipto ha sido dado a la espada; ellos la sujetarán a ella y sus multitudes. 21 Los guerreros más fuertes del Seol declararán por Egipto y sus aliados: '¡Ellos han bajado hasta aquí! Ellos se yacen con los no circuncidados, con aquellos que murieron por la espada.' 22 Asiria está allí con toda su asamblea. Sus tumbas la rodean; todos ellos murieron por la espada. 23 Aquellos cuyas tumbas están puestas en lo profundo de la fosa están allí, con toda su asamblea. Sus tumbas rodean a todos aquellos que murieron, que cayeron por la espada, aquellos que trajeron terror a la tierra de los vivientes. 24 Elam está allí con todas sus multitudes. Sus tumbas la rodean; todos ellos murieron. Aquellos que cayeron por la espada, que han bajado siendo no circuncidados a las partes más bajas de la tierra, que trajeron su terror en la tierra de los vivientes y que cargan su propia vergüenza, junto a los que bajan a la fosa. 25 Ellos han hecho un lecho para Elam y todas sus multitudes en medio de los asesinados; sus tumbas la rodean. Todos ellos son no circuncidados, traspasados por la espada, porque habían traído sus terrores a la tierra de los vivientes. Así que cargan su propia vergüenza, junto a los que bajarán a la fosa entre todos los que han muerto. Elam está entre aquellos que fueron asesinados. 26 ¡Mesec, Tubal, y todas sus multitudes están allí! Sus tumbas los rodean. Todos ellos son no circuncidados, muertos por la espada, porque habían traído sus terrores en la tierra de los vivientes. 27 Ellos no yacen con los guerreros caídos de los no circuncidados que han bajado al Seol con todas sus armas de guerra, y con sus espadas puestas bajo sus cabezas y sus iniquidades sobre sus huesos. Pues ellos eran el terror de los guerreros en la tierra de los vivientes. 28 ¡Así que tú, Egipto, serás roto en medio de los no circuncidados! Tú te yacerás junto a aquellos que fueron traspasados por la espada. 29 Edom está allí con sus reyes y todos sus líderes. Ellos han sido puestos en su fuerza con aquellos que murieron por la espada. Con los no circuncidados ellos están acostados, con aquellos que han bajado a la fosa. 30 Los príncipes del norte están allí, todos ellos y todos los sidonios que cayeron con los que fueron traspasados. Ellos eran poderosos e hicieron que otros tuvieran miedo, pero ahora están avergonzados, los no circuncidados, con aquellos que fueron traspasados por la espada. Ellos cargan su propia vergüenza, junto con los que bajan a la fosa. 31 Faraón mirará y será consolado sobre todas sus multitudes que fueron traspasados por la espada, Faraón y todo su ejército, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 32 Yo lo puse como mi terror en la tierra de los vivientes, pero descenderá en medio de los no circuncidados, entre aquellos que fueron traspasados por la espada, Faraón y todas sus multitudes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

esta frase se usa para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Si tu idioma tiene una manera de hacer esto, puedes considerar usarla aquí.

En el doceavo mes ... en el primer día del mes:
"este es el doceavo y último mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día está cerca del final de febrero.

Del doceavo año:
Traducción Alterna: "del doceavo año del exilio del Rey Joaquín"

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"El SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Hijo de hombre:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:1.

Eres como un león joven ... como un mounstro en el mar:
algunos significados posibles son 1) Él pensaba que era un león, pero realmente era sólo un mounstro, o 2) él era como un león y como un mounstro.

Como un joven león entre las naciones:
Egipto era más fuerte que otras naciones, así como los leones son más fuertes que otros animales.

Como un mounstro en los mares:
Faraón era poderoso pero sólo causó problemas para otros, como esta descripción de un mounstro en el agua.

Mounstro:
un mounstro es un animal grande y peligroso. Este puede ser un cocodrilo. Vea cómo tradujo esta palabra en 29:1.

Ezekiel 32:3

Información General:
El SEÑOR continua hablándole a Faraón y comparándolo con un mounstro que vive en el agua.

El Señor Dios dice esto:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:5.

Esparciré mi red sobre ti en la asamblea de muchos pueblos:
Traducción Alterna: "entonces juntaré muchos pueblos y echaré mi red sobre tu."

Te levantarán en mi red:
Traducción alterna: "usando mi red, los pueblos te sacarán del agua

Te abandonaré en la tierra:
"te dejaré sin ayuda en la tierra". El mounstro que asustaba estando en el agua, no puede hacer nada cuando se lo deja en tierra seca.

-Todos los pájaros de los cielos:
"todos los pájaros que vuelan en el cielo".

El hambre de todos los animales vivientes en la tierra serán satisfechos contigo:
Traducción Alterna: "dejaré que todos los animales de la tierra coman tu cuerpo hasta que ya no tengan hambre"

Ezekiel 32:5

Información General:
El SEÑOR continua hablándole a Faraón y comparándolo con un mounstro que vive en el agua.

Tu cadáver lleno de gusanos:
"tu cuerpo en corrupción"

Luego derramaré tu sangre sobre las montañas:
Traducción Alterna: "inundaré la tierra con tu sangre hasta las montañas".

Las corrientes serán llenas de tu sangre:
Traducción Alterna: "llenaré las corrientes con tu sangre" o "y llenarán todas las corrientes con tu sangre"

Ezekiel 32:7

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua diciéndole a Faraón lo que hará con Egipto.

Luego apagaré tu lámpara:
"cuando extinga tu llama": El SEÑOR compara la manera en que destruirá a Faraón con la manera en que apagaría la llama de una lámpara. Traducción Alterna: "cuando te destruya"

Cubriré los cielos:
el SEÑOR cubrirá el cielo para que las personas en la tierra no puedan ver la luz de las estrellas, el sol y la luna.

Oscureceré sus estrellas:
"haré oscuras las estrellas". No tendrán luz.

Pondré oscuridad sobre tu tierra:
"haré que tu tierra quede oscura".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Ezekiel 32:9

Información General:
El SEÑOR continua hablándole a Faraón.

Aterrorizaré el corazón de muchos pueblos:
Traducción Alterna: "haré que los corazones de muchos estén asustados" o "haré que muchos estén aterrorizados".

En tierras que tú no conoces:
la manera en que el Señor destruya a Egipto será tan espantoso que lo sabrán incluso las personas de tierras que Faraón desconocía

Cuando traiga tu caída entre las naciones:
Traducción Alterna: "cuando las naciones oigan de la manera en que te destruí".

Espantaré a muchos pueblos en cuanto a ti:
"haré que muchos pueblos se horriricen por lo que te suceda a ti".

Sus reyes se estremecerán de terror en cuanto a ti:
Traducción Alterna: "sus reyes estarán tan espantados de lo que te sucederá, que temblarán"

A cada momento cada uno temblará a causa tuya:
Traducción Alterna: "cada uno de ellos continunará temblando por su temor".

En el día de tu ruina:
Traducción Alterna: "cuando yo te destruya".

Ezekiel 32:11

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Faraón.

La espada del rey de Babilonia vendrá contra ti:
La palabra "espada" aquí hace referencia a un ejército. Traducción Alterna: "el ejército del rey de Babilonia te atacará".

Haré que tus sirvientes caigan por las espadas de guerreros:
Traducción Alterna: "haré que tu pueblocaiga por las espadas de hombres poderosos".

-Cada guerrero, un temor de naciones:
Traducción Alterna: "cada guerrero atemoriza a las naciones" o "cada uno de ellos hace que las naciones tengan miedo".

Y destruirán todas sus multitudes:
"y matarán un gran número de personas que viven en Egipto".

Ezekiel 32:13

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablando.

Todo el ganado:
el ganado consiste de animales que poseen las personas para comer y por otras razones. Vacas, ovejas y cabras, todas son ganado.

Que están al lado de aguas abundantes:
"de los lugares donde hay mucha agua".

Los pies del hombre:
"los pies de las personas".

Luego calmaré las aguas:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "calmaré las aguas" o 2) "aclararé las aguas". Cuando nadie remueve el agua, la suciedad se asienta y el agua se vuelve más clara.

Haré que sus ríos corran como el aceite:
el aceite fluye con lentitud y suavidad. Traducción Alterna: "haré que los ríos corran suavemente como el aceite"

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Ezekiel 32:15

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablando.

-Una tierra que estaba llena:
Traducción Alterna: "una tierra que estaba llena de criaturas vivientes" o "una tierra que estaba llena de vida".

Cuando ataque a todos sus habitantes:
"cuando destruya a todos los que viven allí".

Sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:6.

Habrá un lamento:
Traducción Alterna: "esta es la canción de lamento que el pueblo cantará". 6-Las hijas de las naciones: algunos significados posibles son 1) "las mujeres de otras naciones" o 2) "personas de otras naciones".

Las hijas de las naciones:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "las mujeres de otras naciones" o 2) "personas de otras naciones".

Lamentarán por ella:
la palabra "ella" hace referencia al país de Egipto.

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Ezekiel 32:17

-Luego sucedió:
esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el inicio de una nueva parte de la historia. Si tu idioma tiene una manera de decir esto, puedes considerar usarla aquí.

En el doceavo año:
algunos significados posibles son 1) esto sucedió en el doceavo año luego de que los babilonios se llevaran a los israelitas hacia Babilonia o 2) esto sucedió en el doceavo año luego de que los babilonios se llevaran a Joaquín a Babilonio.

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"El SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Hijo de hombre:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:1.

-Llora por los sirvientes de Egipto:
"llora fuerte por el ejército de Egipto".

Derríbalos:
a ella y a las hijas de naciones majestuosas: Traducción Alterna: "derriba a Egipto y a las hijas de naciones majestuosas".

Las hijas de naciones majestuosas:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "las personas de naciones poderosas" o 2) "otras naciones poderosas".

A la tierra más profunda:
"a lugares debajo del suelo". Cuando las personas morían, las ponían debajo del suelo. Entonces, "derríbalas ... a la tierra más profunda" significa "házlos morir".

¡Con aquellos que han descendido al abismo!
"Con todos los demás que murieron y fueron a la tierra"

El abismo:
"el abismo" hace referencia a la tumba. Es el pozo en el suelo al que van las personas luego de que han muerto.

Ezekiel 32:19

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel.

Pregúntales:
"pregúntale a Egipto y su ejército".

Vayan abajo:
está implícito que bajan al Seol. Traducción Alterna: "baja al Seol".

Ellos:
Egipto y su ejército.

Caerán:
"morirán"

Que fueron asesinados por la espada
Traducción Alterna: "a quienes los enemigos mataron con espadas" o "quienes murieron en batalla"

Egipto es entregado a la espada:
Traducción Alterna: "los enemigos atacarán a Egipto".

Sus enemigos la tomarán a ella y a sus sirvientes:
"sus enemigos arrastrarán a Egipto y a sus sirvientes".

Sus sirvientes:
algunos significados posibles son 1) el pueblo de Egipto o 2) los ejércitos de Egipto.

Acerca de Egipto y sus aliados:
Traducción Alterna: "sobre los egipcios y aquellos que se unen a ellos".

Ezekiel 32:22

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel sobre las naciones en Seol. Debido a que lo que Dios le muestra a Ezequiel será para un tiempo futuro, para estos versículos y los siguientes, cabe bien el tiempo presente (como en la ULB) como el tiempo futuro.

Asiria está allí con toda su asamblea: Traducción Alterna: " Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Asiria y todo su ejército están aquí en el Seol"

Todos ellos fueron muertos por la espada: Traducción Alterna:
"todos ellos murieron por la espada" o "todos ellos habían muerto en batalla". Vea cómo tradujo "que habían sido muertos por la espada" en 31:17.

Están en lo más hondo del abismo:
"están en la parte más honda del abismo".

-Todos aquellos que fueron asesinados, que cayeron por la espada:
Traducción Alterna: "todos aquellos a quienes los enemigos asesinaron con espadas" o "todos aquellos que murieron cuando los enemigos los mataron en batalla".

Aquellos que trajeron el terror a la tierra de los vivientes:
"aquellos que causaban que las personas en la tierra de los vivientes tuvieran mucho miedo". Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que, cuando aún vivían, hacían que las personas tuvieran muchísimo miedo".

Ezekiel 32:24

-Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel sobre las naciones en el Seol.

Elam está aquí:
aquí "Elam" hace referencia al pueblo de ese país. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Elam también están allí en el Seol"

Sus sirvientes:
algunos significados posibles son 1) su pueblo abundante o 2) su ejército.

Sus tumbas la rodean:
vea cómo tradujo "sus tumbas la rodean" en 32:22.

Todos aquellos fueron asesinados:
Traducción Alterna: "sus enemigos los asesinaron a todos".

Aquellos que cayeron por la espalda:
"quienes cayeron por la espada" en 32:22.

Quienes cayeron sin circuncidarse:
"quienes no habían sido circuncidados cuando cayeron".

A las partes más profundas de la tierra:
"a lugares muy en lo profundo del suelo" o "a la tierra muy por debajo del suelo". Vea cómo tradujo "en los reinos más profundos de la tierra" en 26:19.

Quienes traían sus temores en la tierra de los vivientes:
vea cómo tradujo "trajeron terror a la tierra de los vivientes" en 32:22.

Quienes ahora cargan ellos mismos su propia vergüenza:
"quienes se sienten avergonzados" o "quienes ahora están deshonrados".

Dispusieron un saco de dormir para Elam y todos sus sirvientes:
"le dieron cama a Elam y todos sus sirvientes".

En medio de los asesinados:
"con todas las otras personas que habían sido asesinadas".

Todos aquellos son incircuncisos:
"los egipcios detestaban a quienens no estaban circuncidados".

Elam está entre todos aquellos que fueron asesinados:
esto es muy similar a la primera parte del versículo. Traducción Alterna: "los muertos le dieron a Elam un lugar para acostarse entre ellos".

Ezekiel 32:26

Oración de Enlace:
el SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel sobre las naciones en el Seol.

Todos sus sirvientes:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "todo su ejército" o 2) "todo su pueblo numeroso".

Sus tumbas los rodean:
vea cómo tradujo "sus tumbas a su alrededor" en 32:22.

Todos aquellos ... tierra de los vivientes:
vea cómo tradujo "todos ellos ... tierra de los vivientes" en 32:24.

Sus escudos sobre sus huesos:
a diferencia de los otros incircuncisos, los pueblos de Mesec y Tubal recibían entierros apropiados.

Pues eran el terror de los guerreros en la tierra de los vivientes:
"porque, cuando aún estaban vivos, hacían que los guerreros tuvieran mucho miedo".

Ezekiel 32:28

Información General:
el SEÑOR continua hablando.

Serás destruido:
Traducción Alterna: "te destuiré"

En medio de los incircuncisos:
Traducción Alterna: "junto con los incircuncisos".

Aquellos muertos por la espada:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:24.

Edom está allí con sus reyes y todos sus líderes:
"Edom está en Seol con sus reyes y todos sus líderes". Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo de Edom está en Seol con sus reyes y todos sus líderes".

Eran poderosos:
"tenían mucho poder".

Ezekiel 32:30

Los príncipes del norte:
"los príncipes que dominaban a las naciones en el norte".

Están allí:
"están en el Seol"

Descendieron:
"descendieron al Seol"

Con los muertos:
"con aquellos que habían sido asesinados".

Ezekiel 32:31

Faraón mirará:
Traducción Alterna: "Faraón verá a todos los muertos de otras naciones".

-Y ser consolado sobre todos sus siervos:
está implícito que Faraón será consolado porque los ejércitos de otros grandes reyes también murieron.
Traducción Alterna: "y se consolará así mismo de no ser el único rey cuyo ejército entero murió".

Quienes habían sido asesinados por la espada:
vea cómo tradujo "aquellos que habían sido asesinados por la espada" en 31:17.

-Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Hice que causara terror en la tierra de los vivientes.
Traducción Alterna "mientras Faraón aun vivía, le permití aterrorizar al pueblo".

Será enterrado en medio de los incircuncisos:
aquí "ser enterrado" hace referencia a que su cuerpo sea puesto en la tumba cuando muera.
Traducción Alterna: "su cadáver será enterrado con quienes no están circuncidados".

Chapter 33

1 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, declara esto a tu pueblo; dile a ellos: 'Cuando Yo traiga una espada en contra de cualquier país, entonces el pueblo de esa tierra tome a un hombre de entre ellos mismos y lo hagan guardián para ellos. 3 ¡Él viera la espada mientras viene a la tierra, y él sopla su cuerno para advertir al pueblo! 4 Si el pueblo escucha el sonido del cuerno, pero no presta atención, y si la espada viene y los mata, entonces la sangre de cada uno está en su propia cabeza. 5 Si alguien escucha el sonido del cuerno y no presta atención, su sangre está sobre él; pero si presta atención, él salvará su propia vida. 6 Sin embargo, si el guardián ve la espada mientras viene, pero no sopla el cuerno, con el resultado que la gente no está apercibida, y si la espada viene y toma la vida de cualquiera, entonces la persona muere en su propio pecado, pero yo demandaré su sangre al guardián.' 7 ¡Ahora, tú mismo, hijo de hombre! Yo te he hecho un guardián para la casa de Israel; tú oirás las palabras de mi boca y les advertirás de mi parte. 8 Si Yo le digo a una persona malvada: '¡Malvado, tú de seguro morirás!' pero si tú no anuncias esto para advertir al malvado sobre su camino, entonces el que es malvado morirá en su pecado, pero ¡Yo demandaré su sangre de tu mano! 9 Pero tú, si adviertes al malvado sobre su camino, para que él pueda volverse de este, y si él no se vuelve de su camino, entonces él morirá en su pecado, pero tú, habrás salvado tú propia vida. 10 Así que tú, hijo de hombre, di a la casa de Israel, 'Tú estás dices esto: "¡Nuestras transgresiones y nuestros pecados están sobre nosotros, y nosotros estamos pudriéndonos en ellos! ¿Cómo podremos vivir?'" 11 Dile a ellos: 'Vivo Yo', esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, Yo no me deleito en la muerte del malvado, puesto que si el malvado se arrepiente de su camino, ¡entonces él vivirá! ¡Arrepiéntete! ¡Arrepiéntete de tus caminos malvados! Porque ¿por qué deberías morir, oh casa de Israel? 12 Así que ahora tú, hijo de hombre, dile a tu pueblo: '¡La justicia de una persona justa no lo salvará si pecare! ¡La maldad de una persona malvada no causará que perezca si él se arrepiente de su pecado! Porque la persona justa no podrá vivir por su justicia si peca. 13 Si Yo le digo al justo: "¡De seguro vivirás!" y si él confía en su justicia y luego comete injusticia, Yo no traeré a la mente ninguna de sus justicias. Él morirá por la maldad que cometió. 14 Así que, si digo al malvado: "Tú seguramente morirás," pero si él entonces se arrepiente por sus pecados y hace lo que es justo y recto, 15 si él restaura la garantía del préstamo la cual él demandó perversamente, o si él hace restitución de lo que él ha robado, y si él anda en los estatutos que dan vida y no comete más pecado, entonces él de seguro vivirá. No morirá. 16 Ninguno de los pecados que él ha cometido serán traidos a la memoria por él. ¡Él ha actuado justa y rectamente, y así, él de seguro vivirá! 17 Pero tu pueblo dice: "¡El camino del Señor no es justo!" ¡pero son sus caminos los que no son justos! 18 ¡Cuando la persona justa se vuelve de su justicia y comete pecado, entonces él morirá en este! 19 Cuando el malvado se vuelve de su propia maldad y hace lo que es justo y recto, ¡él vivirá por estas cosas! 20 Pero ustedes dicen: "¡El camino del Señor no es justo!" ¡Yo los juzgaré a cada uno, de acuerdo a su camino, oh casa de Israel!'" 21 Sucedió en el año duodécimo, en el quinto día del décimo mes de nuestra cautividad, que un fugitivo vino a mí desde Jerusalén y dijo: "¡La ciudad ha sido capturada!" 22 La mano del SEÑOR Dios había estado sobre mí en la tarde antes que el fujitivo viniese, y mi boca fue abierta cuando él vino a mí al amanecer. Así que mi boca estaba abierta; ¡Yo ya no estaba mudo! 23 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR Dios vino a mí, diciendo: 24 "Hijo de hombre, aquellos que habitan esas ruinas en la tierra de Israel están hablando y dicen: '¡Abraham era sólo una persona, y él heredó la tierra, pero nosotros somos muchos! La tierra nos ha sido dada como posesión.' 25 Por lo tanto diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: Ustedes comen sangre y alzan sus ojos hacia sus ídolos, luego ustedes derraman la sangre de la gente. ¿Deberían ustedes poseer la tierra? 26 Ustedes han dependido de sus espadas y han hecho cosas asquerosas; cada hombre profana a la esposa de su vecino. ¿Deberían ustedes poseer la tierra?' 27 Tú dirás esto: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: Mientras YO viva, les aseguro que aquellos en las ruinas caerán por la espada, y Yo le daré a aquellos que viven en los campos a las criaturas vivientes como comida, y a aquellos en las fortalezas y en las cuevas morirán de plagas. 28 Entonces Yo convertiré la tierra en una desolación y horror, y el orgullo de su fuerza acabará, puesto que las montañas de Israel estarán desiertas, y no habrá ni uno que pase a través de ellas.' 29 Así que ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR Dios, cuando Yo convierta la tierra en desolación y horror por todas las abominaciones que ellos han hecho. 30 Así que ahora tú, hijo de hombre, tu pueblo está diciendo cosas sobre ti al lado de las paredes y las puertas de las casas, y se dicen uno al otro, cada hombre a su hermano: '¡Vayamos y escuchemos la palabra del profeta que viene del SEÑOR Dios!' 31 Así que mi pueblo vendrá a ti, como muchas veces hacen, y se sentarán frente a ti y escucharán tus palabras, pero ellos no las obedecerán. Palabras correctas están en sus bocas, pero sus corazones van tras ganancia injusta. 32 Puesto que tú eres como una canción de amor para ellos, un lindo sonido que está siendo tocado bien en un instrumento de cuerda, así que escucharán tus palabras, pero ninguno de ellos

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

las obedecerán. 33 Así que cuando todo esto suceda, ¡Y esto sucederá! Entonces ellos sabrán que un profeta ha estado entre ellos."

Ezekiel 33:1

Vino la palabra del SEÑOR:
"El SEÑOR dio su palabra". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1.

Hijo de hombre:

Doceavo año:

En el quinto día del décimo mes:
este es el décimo mes del calendario hebreo. El quinto día está cerca del comienzo de enero en calendarios occidentales.

De nuestra cautividad:
aquí "nuestra" hace referencia a Ezequiel y los israelitas, quienes han estado en Babilonia desde el tiempo en que los babilonios forzaron al Rey Joaquín a que dejara Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "después de que nos convirtiéramos en cautivos" o "después de que los babilonios nos llevaran cautivos a Babilonia".

Vino a mí un fugitivo de Jerusalén:
"alguien escapó de Jerusalén y vino a mí". Los babilonios habían destruido Jerusalén y mataron al pueblo de Jerusalén, pero algunas personas escaparon.

La ciudad ha sido capturada.
Traducción Alterna: "los babilonios han destruido la ciudad". La frase "la ciudad" hace referencia a Jerusalén.

La mano del SEÑOR había estado sobre mí:

Chapter 34

1 Entonces la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo de hombre, profetiza contra los pastores de Israel. Profetiza y diles: 'El SEÑOR dice esto a los pastores: Ay de los pastores de Israel quienes se están pastoreando a ellos mismos. ¿No deberían los pastores cuidar el rebaño? 3 Ustedes comen las porciones de grosuras y se visten en lana. Ustedes matan los animales engordados del rebaño. Ustedes no pastorean en nada. 4 Ustedes no han fortalecido a aquellos que tienen enfermedades, ni han sanado a aquellos que están heridos. Ustedes no han restablecido a aquellos que están rotos, y ustedes no han restaurado a los marginados o buscado los perdidos. En cambio, ustedes reinan sobre ellos a través de fuerza y violencia. 5 Después ellos fueron dispersos sin pastor, y ellos se convirtieron en alimento para todas las bestias vivientes en los campos, después de ser esparcidos. 6 Mi rebaño se desvía en todas las montañas y en cada colina, y está dispersada sobre toda la superficie de la tierra. Y aún nadie los busca. 7 Por lo tanto, pastores, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR: 8 'Vivo Yo', esto es declaración del SEÑOR Dios, porque Mi rebaño se ha convertido en saqueo y comida para todas las bestias en los campos, porque no había pastor y ninguno de Mis pastores veló Mi rebaño, sino que los pastores se cuidaron a sí mismos y no pastorearon Mi rebaño. 9 Por lo tanto, pastores, escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR: 10 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡He aquí! Yo estoy contra los pastores, y Yo voy a demandar Mi rebaño de sus manos. Después Yo voy a destituirlos del pastoreo de rebaños; tampoco los pastores se pastorearán a ellos mismos porque que Yo arrebataré Mi rebaño de sus bocas, para que Mi rebaño ya no sea alimento para ellos. 11 Porque el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Miren! Yo mismo buscaré Mi rebaño y Yo voy a buscar Mi rebaño y Yo voy a cuidar de ellos, 12 como un pastor buscando a su rebaño en el día que él está en medio de su rebaño esparcido. Así Yo voy a buscar Mi rebaño, y Yo voy a rescatarlos de todos los lugares donde fueron esparcidos en el día de nubes y oscuridad. 13 Entonces Yo voy a sacarlos de entre los pueblos; Yo voy a reunirlos desde las tierras y los traeré a su tierra. Yo los pondré en pastos en las laderas de las montañas de Israel, por las corrientes, y en cada asentamiento en la tierra. 14 Yo voy a ponerlos en buenos pastos; las altas montañas de Israel serán sus lugares de pastar. Ellos van a descansar en lugares buenos para pastar, en abundancia de pasto, y ellos pastarán en las montañas de Israel. 15 Yo mismo voy a pastorear a Mi rebaño, y Yo mismo voy a hacerlos descansar, esto es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 16 Yo voy a buscar a los perdidos y restauraré a los marginados. Yo restauraré la oveja quebrantada y sanaré la oveja enferma pero la fuerte y gorda Yo las destruiré. Yo voy a pastorear con justicia. 17 Por lo tanto ahora ustedes, Mi rebaño, esto es lo que SEÑOR Dios dice, miren, Yo seré juez entre oveja y oveja, entre carneros y machos cabríos. 18 ¿No es suficiente alimentarse de buen pasto, para que ustedes tengan que pisotear con sus pies lo que quede del pasto; y tomar de las aguas claras, para que ustedes enfanguen los ríos con sus pies? 19 ¿Deben Mis ovejas comer lo que ustedes han pisoteado con sus pies, y beber lo que ustedes han enfangado con sus pies? 20 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR Dios dice esto a ellos: ¡Miren! Yo mismo voy a juzgar entre las ovejas gordas y las flacas, 21 porque ustedes las han empujado con sus costados y hombros, y ustedes han corneado a todas las débiles con sus cuernos hasta que las han esparcido lejos de la tierra. 22 ¡Yo voy a salvar a Mi rebaño y ellos no serán más saqueados, y juzgaré entre una oveja y la otra! 23 Yo voy a colocar sobre ellos a un pastor, a mi siervo David. Él los pastoreará, él los alimentará, y él será su pastor. 24 Porque Yo, el SEÑOR, seré su Dios, y mi siervo David será príncipe entre ellos, Yo, el SEÑOR, he declarado esto. 25 Después Yo voy a hacer un pacto de paz con ellos y removeré los animales salvajes y malvados de la tierra, para que ellos puedan vivir seguros en el desierto y duerman seguros en los bosques. 26 Yo voy a traer también bendiciones sobre ellos y en los lugares alrededor de mi colina, pues Yo voy a enviar lluvias a su debido tiempo. Estas serán lluvias de bendición. 27 Entonces los árboles del campo producirán sus frutos, y la tierra ofrecerá su producto. Mis ovejas estarán seguras en su tierra; entonces ellas sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, cuando Yo rompa las vigas de su yugo, y cuando Yo las rescate de la mano de aquellos que las esclavizaron. 28 Ellas no serán más saqueadas por las naciones, y los animales salvajes en la tierra ya no las devorarán. Porque ellas vivirán seguras, y nadie las atemorizará. 29 Porque Yo voy a crear un lugar de plantío pacífico para ellas, para que ellas ya no pasen hambre en la tierra, y las naciones no traerán insultos contra ellas. 30 Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo, el SEÑOR su Dios, estoy con ellos. Ellos son mi pueblo, la casa de Israel, esto es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 31 Porque ustedes son Mis ovejas, el rebano de Mis pastos, y Mi pueblo, y Yo Soy su Dios, esto es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios.'"

1 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "Hijo del hombre, pon tu rostro en contra del Monte de Seir y profetiza en contra de este. 3 Dile: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Eh aquí, Yo estoy en contra de ti, Monte de Seir, y Yo te golpearé con mi mano y te convertiré en una desolación y un horror. 4 Haré de tus ciudades ruinas, y tú, tú mismo, te convertirás en desolación; entonces tú sabrás que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 5 Porque tú siempre has sido hostil con el pueblo de Israel, y porque tú los entregaste en manos de la espada en el tiempo de su angustia, en el tiempo en que su castigo estaba en su momento mayor. 6 Por lo tanto, Vivo Yo, está es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. ¡Yo te prepararé para el derramamiento de sangre y el derramamiento de sangre te perseguirá! Ya que no odiaste el derramamiento de sangre, el derramamiento de sangre te perseguirá. 7 Yo haré del Monte Seir una completa desolación cuando corte de este a cualquiera que pase a través y retorne otra vez. 8 Luego llenaré sus montañas con sus muertos. Tus altas colinas y valles y todas tus corrientes, aquellos muertos por la espada caerán en ellas. 9 Yo te convertiré en una desolación perpetua. Tus ciudades no serán habitadas, pero tú sabrás que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 10 Tú has dicho: "Estas dos naciones y estas dos tierras serán mías, y nosotros las poseeremos," aún cuando el SEÑOR estaba presente con ellos. 11 Por lo tanto, 'Vivo Yo', está es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, así haré según tu enojo y según tu celo que tuviste en tu odio a Israel, y Yo me mostraré a ellos cuando Te juzgue. 12 Así que sabrás que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. He escuchado todos los insultos que hablaste en contra de las montañas de Israel, cuando dijiste: "Ellos han sido destruidos; ellos nos han sido entregados para devorar." 13 Tú te exaltaste en contra Mía con lo que dijiste, y tú multiplicaste las palabras que dijiste en Mi contra; y Yo lo escuché todo. 14 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo haré de ti una desolación, mientras la Tierra entera se regocija. 15 Como te regocijaste sobre la herencia del pueblo de Israel debido a su desolación, Yo te haré lo mismo. Tú te convertirás en una desolación, Monte Seir, y todo Edom, ¡todo ello! Luego ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR.'"

Cuando corte de él a cualquiera que pase por allí y regrese nuevamente:
algunos significados posibles son 1) "destruiré a cualquiera que entre o salga de él" (UDB) o 2) "haré que el pueblo no vayan y vengan de él".

-Muertos por la espada:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 31:17.

-Una desolación perpetua:
"desolada por siempre". Esto es exagerado para enfatizar la destrucción.

Tus ciudades estarán inhabitadas:
sto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Esto puede ser una exageración para ganar énfasis. Traducción Alterna: "el pueblo no vivirá en tus ciudades".

Pero sabrán:
esto es plural. Dios le está hablando al pueblo del Monte de Seir, en lugar de hablarle a una montaña.

Sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR:

Información General:
esta es la continuación del mensaje del SEÑOR para el pueblo del Monte Seir.

Tú has dicho:
la palabra "tú" hace referencia al monte de Seir, que representa a la nación de Edom.

Y nosotros:
la palabra "nosotros" hace referencia al pueblo de Edom.

Incluso cuando el SEÑOR estaba presente con ellos:
está implícito que el SEÑOR estaba protegiendo a Israel y Judá. Traducción Alterna: pero el SEÑOR estaba allí protegiendo a Israel y Judá".

Mientras viva:

Chapter 36

1 "Ahora tú, hijo de hombre, profetiza a las montañas de Israel y diles: 'Montañas de Israel, escuchen a la Palabra del SEÑOR. 2 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: El enemigo ha dicho de ti, "¡Ajá!" y "Los antiguos lugares altos se han convertido en nuestra posesión.'" 3 Por lo tanto profetiza y di: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice así: Debido a tu desolación y debido a los ataques que te han llegado de todas partes, tú haz venido a ser posesión de otras naciones; tú haz venido a ser tema de difamaciones en labios y lenguas, y de historias de los pueblos. 4 Por lo tanto, montañas de Israel, escuchen a la Palabra del SEÑOR Dios: El SEÑOR Dios dice esto a las montañas y las altas colinas, los lechos de los ríos y los valles, a las desolaciones deshabitadas y las ciudades abandonadas que se han convertido en un botín y un tema de burla para las otras naciones que les rodean a ellos. 5 Por lo tanto el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo ciertamente he hablado en el fuego de mi furia contra las otras naciones, contra Edom y todo el que tome mi tierra para ellos como su posesión, contra todos aquellos que tenían ambos: gozo en su corazón y desprecio en su espíritu, como cuando se apoderaron mi tierra para reclamar sus pastizales para sí mismos.' 6 Por lo tanto, profetiza a la tierra de Israel y di a las montañas y a las altas colinas, a los lechos de las colinas y a los valles, ' el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Miren! En mi furia y en mi coraje Yo he declarado esto porque ustedes han llevado los insultos de las naciones. 7 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo levantaré mi mano para jurar, que las naciones que los rodean a ustedes, ciertamente cargarán su propia vergüenza. 8 Pero ustedes, montes de Israel, en ustedes crecerán ramas y darán fruto para mi pueblo Israel, ya que pronto regresaré a ustedes. 9 Pues mira, Yo estoy para ustedes, y Yo los favoreceré; ustedes serán arado y sembrados con semillas. 10 Así que, Yo multiplicaré en ustedes, montes, los hombres en toda la casa de Israel, todo ella. Las ciudades serán habitadas y las ruinas reconstruidas. 11 Yo multiplicaré hombres y bestias en tus montes para que así ellos se multipliquen y sean fructíferos. Entonces, Yo haré que tú seas habitada como anteriormente tú lo eras, y te haré próspera más de lo que fuiste en el pasado, para que sepas que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. 12 Yo traeré hombres, Mi pueblo de Israel, para que caminen sobre ti. Ellos te poseerán, y tú serás su herencia, y ya no harás morir a sus hijos. 13 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Porque ellos te dicen: "Tú devoras a las personas, y los hijos de tu nación han muerto," 14 Por lo tanto, no consumirás más personas por más tiempo, y ni harás que tu nación llore más tus muertos. Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR Dios. 15 Ni permitiré que escuches los insultos de las naciones por más tiempo; ni soportarás más la vergüenza de las personas o ni harás que tu nación caiga más, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios." 16 Entonces, la Palabra de el SEÑOR, vino a mi diciendo: 17 "Hijo de hombre, cuando la casa de Israel habitaba sus tierras, ellos la profanaron con sus caminos y sus hechos. Sus caminos eran como la menstruación inmunda de una mujer ante Mí. 18 Entonces, derramé Mi furia contra ellos por la sangre que ellos habían derramado en la tierra y por haberla contaminado con sus ídolos. 19 Los dispersé entre las naciones; ellos fueron dispersados por las tierras. Yo los jugué según sus caminos y sus acciones. 20 Ellos fueron a las naciones, y dondequiera que ellos fueron, profanaron Mi santo nombre cuando la gente decía de ellos: '¿Realmente este es el pueblo de el SEÑOR? Pues ellos han sido arrojados fuera de sus tierras.' 21 Pero Yo tengo compasión de Mi santo nombre, que la casa de Israel había profanado entre las naciones, cuando ellos fueron allí. 22 Por lo tanto, di a la casa de Israel: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Yo no estoy haciendo esto por su bien, casa de Israel, pero por Mi santo nombre, que ustedes han profanado entre las naciones a donde fueron. 23 Porque haré santo Mi gran nombre, que ustedes han profanado entre las naciones, en medio de las naciones, ustedes lo profanaron. Entonces, las naciones sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR, esta es declaración de el SEÑOR Dios, cuando ustedes vean que Yo soy santo. 24 Yo los sacaré de las naciones y los reuniré de todas las tierra, y Yo los llevaré a sus tierras. 25 Entonces, Yo les rociaré encima con agua pura y serán purificados de todas sus impurezas, y Yo los purificaré de todos sus ídolos. 26 Yo les daré un nuevo corazón y un nuevo espíritu dentro de ustedes, y les quitaré el corazón de piedra de sus carnes. Porque les daré un corazón de carne. 27 Yo pondré Mi Espíritu en ustedes y los permitiré caminar en mis estatutos y mantener mis decretos, así ustedes lo harán. 28 Entonces, ustedes habitarán la tierra que Yo le di a sus ancestros; ustedes serán Mi pueblo, y Yo seré su Dios. 29 Porque Yo los salvaré de todas sus inmundicias. Yo convocaré al trigo y lo multiplicaré. Yo ya no pondré mas hambruna sobre ustedes. 30 Yo multiplicaré el fruto de los árboles y el producto del campo para que así no tengan que soportar la vergüenza de hambruna entre las naciones. 31 Entonces, ustedes pensarán de sus malos caminos y sus obras que no son buenas, y ustedes mostrarán aversión en sus caras por sus propios pecados y sus hechos desagradables. 32 Yo no estoy haciendo esto por su bien, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, sepánlo ustedes. Así que, estén avergonzados y deshonrados por sus maneras, casa de Israel. 33 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: En el día que Yo los purifique de todas sus iniquidades, Yo causaré que ustedes habiten las ciudades y reconstruyan lugares arruinados. 34 Porque ustedes ararán la tierra arruinada hasta que ya no sea más una ruina ante los ojos de todo el que pase. 35 Entonces ellos dirán: "Esta tierra fue desolada, pero se ha convertido como el jardín del Edén; las ciudades desoladas y deshabitadas ruinas que fueron derribadas son ahora fortificadas y habitadas. 36 Entonces, las otras naciones alrededor de ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, que Yo levanto las ruinas y replanto los lugares abandonados. Yo Soy el SEÑOR. Yo lo he declarado y Yo lo haré. 37 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Nuevamente, la casa de Israel me pedirá que haga esto por ellos, para aumentarlos como un rebaño de hombres. 38 Como el rebaño se aparta para sus sacrificios, como el rebaño en Jerusalén señalados para sus fiestas, así serán las ciudades en ruinas llenas de rebaños de hombres y ellos sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR."

Ezekiel 36:1

Información General:
El SEÑOR continua hablándole a Ezequiel. Ahora este mensaje es para las montañas de Israel.

Hijo de hombre:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:1.

Profetiza a las montañas de Israel:
Dios quiere que Ezequiel le hable a las montañas como si fueran personas.

Ajá:
esta es una expresión de alegría. Puede ser traducida como "estoy muy feliz" o "esto es muy bueno".

Los antiguos lugares altos:
esto hace referencia a las altas montañas de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "las montañas muy antiguas".

Se han convertido en nuestra posesión:
"ahora nos pertenecen".

-Por tu desolación:
Traducción Alterna: "porque tus montañas se han vuelto desoladas".

Debido a los ataques que vinieron a ti de todos lados:
"pues fuiste atacada de todas direcciones" o "porque tus enemigos te atacaron de todas direcciones".

Has sido objeto de las historias de las personas y de labios y lenguas difamatorias:
Traducción Alterna: "las personas están diciendo cosas malas sobre ti, y las naciones están contando historias malas sobre ti".

Labios y lenguas difamatorias:
Traducción Alterna: "palabras difamatorias"

Ezekiel 36:4

Información General:
aquí continua el mensaje del SEÑOR para las montañas de Israel. Puede ser útil usar un versículo puente aquí, como hace el UDB, para acomodar el texto en un orden más lógico.

Escucha la palabra del Señor Dios:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:1.

Las desolaciones inhabitadas:
"las ciudades desoladas que no tienen gente viviendo en ellas".

Las ciudades olvidadas:
esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las ciudades que la gente ha dejado atrás"

Que se han vuelto botín:
"de donde los enemigos han robado"

Un objeto de burla para las demás naciones que las rodean:
"de las que se burlan las otras naciones de alrededor"

En el fuego de mi furia:
el SEÑOR ama mucho a Israel, por lo que se vuelve celoso y se enoja cuando otras naciones se burlan de ella. Traducción Alterna: "por mis intensos celos" o "por mi enojo muy fuerte"

Contra Edom y todos:
"y contra todo Edom".

Tenían tanto gozo en su corazón como desdén en su espíritu.
Traducción Alterna: "han insultado a tu pueblo israel ... y se la han llevado con alegría".

Gozo en su corazón:
"con alegría en su corazón" o "estando muy felices".

Desdén en su espíritu:
está implícito que su desdén es hacia Israel. Traducción Alterna: "desdén en su espíritu hacia Israel" o "despreciendo a Israel"

¡Mira!
La palabra "mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "¡ciertamente!"

En mi furia y en mi enojo:
las palabras "furia" y "enojo" significan básicamente lo mismo. Juntas enfatizan la intensidad de su enojo. Traducción Alterna: "porque estoy extremadamente enojado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Has llevado el insulto de las naciones:
"otras naciones te han insultado" o "otras naciones se han burlado de tí".

Ezekiel 36:7

Información General:
aquí continua el mensaje del SEÑOR para las montañas de Israel.

Yo mismo alzaré mi mano para jurar:
Traducción Alterna: "yo personalmente alzaré mi mano y juraré". Levantar la mano demuestra que verdaderamente hará lo que ha jurado hacer.

Que las naciones que te rodean ciertamente llevarán su propia vergüenza.
Traducción Alterna: "que las personas ciertamente burlarán a las naciones que te rodean".

Te rodean:
la palabra "te" hace referencia a las montañas de Israel.

Ezekiel 36:8

Información General:
aquí continua el mensaje del SEÑOR para las montañas de Israel.

Te brotarán ramas y darás fruto:
Traducción Alterna: "de tus árboles brotarán ramas y darán fruto".

¡Mira!
La palabra "mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue. Traducción Alterna: "¡ciertamente!"

Estoy con ustedes:
"quiero hacerles cosas buenas a ustedes". La palabra "ustedes" hace referencia a las montañas de Israel.

Y las trato con favor:
"y seré bueno con ustedes"

Serán aradas y sembradas con semilla: Traducción Alterna:
"Mi pueblo, Israel, arará su tierra y sembrará semilas". Arar significa cortar filas en el suelo para plantar semillas en ellas.

Ezekiel 36:10

Información General:
aquí continua el mensaje del SEÑOR para las montañas de Israel.

La casa de Israel:

-Las ciudades estarán inhabitadas y las ruinas reconstruidas:
Traducción Altern: "el pueblo vivirá en las ciudades y reconstruirá las ruinas".

Se multiplicarán y serán fructíferos:
"se volverán un pueblo muy grande y tendrán mucha descendencia"

Haré que quedes deshabitada como solías ser:
"que tu gente viva en las montañas, como solían hacer".

Sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR:
vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:6.

Te poseerán:
la palabra "te" está singular y hace referencia a "la tierra de Israel".

Ya no harán que los niños mueran:
está implícito que en el pasado los niños morían porque no había suficiente comida en la tierra. Ahora la tierra produciría suficiente comida.

Ezekiel 36:13

Información General:
aquí continua el mensaje del SEÑOR para las montañas de Israel.

Te están diciendo:
"otras naciones están diciéndole a ustedes, montañas".

Devoras personas:
"haces que muchas personas mueran". Esto está en singular y hace referencia a "la tierra de Israel".

Los hijos de tu nación han muerto:
"haces que los hijos de tu pueblo mueran". Está implícito que las montañas hacen esto al no producir buenos cultivos. Esto puede hacerse explícito como en la UDB. .

Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR:
Vea cómo tradujo esto en 5:11.

Ni te permitiré escuchar los insultos de las naciones:
Traducción Alterna: "ya no permitiré que otras naciones te insulten".

Ya no deberás cargar con la vergüenza de los pueblos:
"los pueblos no volverán a causar que te sientas avergonzada".

-Ni causarás que tu nación caiga:
"ni tus montañas harán que tu nación sufra derrotas". (UDB).

Chapter 37

1 La mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre mí, y me sacó en el espíritu del SEÑOR y me puso en medio de un valle; que estaba lleno de huesos. 2 Entonces me hizo pasar en medio de ellos, en derredor de ellos. He aquí muchos de ellos estaban en el valle. ¡Mira! Ellos estaban bien secos. 3 Él me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, ¿pueden estos huesos vivir otra vez?" Así que dije: "SEÑOR Dios, solo tú sabes." 4 Entonces me dijo, "Profetiza sobre estos huesos y dile: 'Huesos secos. Escuchen la palabra del SEÑOR. 5 El SEÑOR Dios dice a estos huesos: ¡Mira! Yo estoy apunto de poner aliento en ustedes, y vivirán. 6 Yo voy a colocar tendones sobre ustedes y traeré carne sobre ustedes. Yo les cubriré con piel y pondré aliento en medio de ustedes para que puedan vivir. Entonces ustedes sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR.'" 7 Asi que profeticé como se me ordenó; mientras profetizaba, he aquí, vino un sonido, el de un temblor. Luego los huesos se juntaron, hueso contra hueso. 8 Yo miré y, eh aquí, tendones estaban ahora en ellos, y la carne creció y la piel los cubrió. Pero todavía no habia aliento en ellos. 9 Entonces el SEÑOR me dijo: "Profetiza al aliento, profetiza, hijo del hombre, y dile al aliento: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: Aliento, ven de los cuatro vientos, y alienta a aquellos quienes han sido muertos, para que ellos puedan vivir.'" 10 Así que profetizé como me han mandado; el aliento vino a ellos y ellos vivieron. Entonces ellos se pusieron de pie, un ejército bien grande. 11 Entonces el SEÑOR me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, estos huesos son la casa completa de Israel. ¡Mira! Ellos están diciendo: 'Nuestros huesos han sido secos, y nuestra esperanza se fue. Hemos sido cortados.' 12 Por lo tanto, profetiza y diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: ¡Mira! Yo abriré sus tumbas y los sacaré fuera, pueblo Mío. Y Les llevaré a ustedes otra vez a la tierra de Israel. 13 Entonces tu sabrás que Yo Soy SEÑOR, cuando abra sus tumbas y los sacaré fuera, pueblo Mío. 14 Yo pondré Mi Espíritu en medio de ustedes para que puedan vivir, y Yo les daré descanso en su tierra cuando ustedes sepan que Yo Soy SEÑOR. Yo lo declaré y lo hice, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.'" 15 Entonces, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí diciendo: 16 "Así que ahora, hijo del hombre, toma una vara para tí mismo y escribe en ella, 'Para Judá y para el pueblo de Israel, sus compañeros.' Entonces toma otra vara y escríbe en ella, 'Para José, la rama de Efraín, y para todo el pueblo de Israel, sus compañeros.' 17 Trae ambos de ellos juntos en una sola vara, para que ellos se conviertan en uno en tu mano. 18 Cuando tu pueblo te hable y digan: '¿No nos dirás que significan estas cosas tuyas?' 19 entonces diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: ¡Mira! Yo estoy tomando la rama de José que está en la mano de Efraín y las tribus de Israel sus compañeros y uniéndose a la rama de Judá, para que ellos puedan hacer una rama, y que ellos se conviertan en uno en Mi mano.' 20 Sostén en tu mano las ramas que tu escribistes ante sus ojos. 21 Diles, 'El SEÑOR Dios dice: ¡Miren! Yo estoy apunto de tomar el pueblo de Israel de entre las naciones donde ellos fueron. Yo los reuniré de las tierras del alrededor y los traeré a su tierra. 22 Los haré una nación en la tierra, en las montañas de Israel, y estará un rey como rey sobre todos ustedes, y ya no serán dos naciones. Ya no serán divididos en dos reinos. 23 Entonces ellos ya no van a contaminarse con sus ídolos, sus cosas abominables, o cualquiera de sus otros pecados. Por que yo los salvaré de todas las acciones desleales con las cuales han pecado, y los purificaré, para que ellos sean Mí pueblo y Yo seré su Dios. 24 David mi siervo será rey sobre ellos. Así que habrá un pastor sobre todos ellos, y caminarán de acuerdo a mis decretos y guardarán mi estatutos y los obedecerán. 25 Ellos vivirán en la tierra que Yo he dado a mi siervo Jacob, donde sus padres han quedado. Ellos vivirán en ella para siempre, ellos, sus hijos, y sus nietos, por que David mi siervo será su jefe para siempre. 26 Yo estableceré un pacto de paz con ellos. Será un pacto eterno con ellos. Yo los estableceré y los multiplicaré y pondré Mí lugar santo en el centro para siempre. 27 Mí morada será con ellos; Yo seré su Dios, y ellos serán mi pueblo. 28 Entonces las naciones sabrán que Yo Soy el SEÑOR quien separa a Israel, cuando Mi lugar santo esté entre ellos para siempre.'"

Chapter 38

1 La palabra del Señor Dios vino a mí, diciendo: 2 ''Hijo de hombre, coloca tu rostro hacia Gog, la tierra de Magog, el príncipe de Mesec y Tubal; y profetiza contra él. 3 Di: 'El Señor Dios dice esto: ¡Mira! Yo estoy contra ti, Gog, príncipe de Mesec y Tubal. 4 ¡Así que Yo te haré regresar y te pondré anzuelos en tu quijada; Yo te sacaré con todo tu ejército, caballos, y jinetes, todos ellos vestidos con sus armaduras completas, una gran compañía con grandes escudos y pequeños escudos, todos ellos sosteniendo sus espadas! 5 ¡Persia, Cus y Libia están con ellos, todos ellos con escudos y cascos! 6 ¡Gomer y todas sus tropas, Bet Togarmá, de las partes lejanas del norte y todas sus tropas! ¡Muchos pueblos están contigo! 7 ¡Prepárense! Sí, prepárate tú y reúne tus tropas contigo y sé su comandante. 8 Tú serás llamado después de muchos días, y después de muchos años irás a una tierra que se ha recuperado de la espada y ha sido recogida de entre muchos pueblos, recogida de regreso a los montes de Israel que habían sido una ruina constante. Pero este pueblo fue sacadode entre otros pueblos, y ellos vivirán seguros, ¡todos ellos! 9 Así que tú subirás como sube una tormenta; tú serás como una nube que cubre la tierra, tú y todas tus tropas, y los muchos soldados contigo. 10 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Pasará en ese día, que planes se formarán en tu corazón, y tú crearás conspiraciones malignas.' 11 Entonces tú dirás: 'Yo subiré a la tierra abierta; yo iré a la gente tranquila, viviendo en seguridad, todos ellos que viven en donde no hay paredes ni barras, y en donde no hay puertas de ciudad. 12 Yo capturaré botín y saquearé, para poder traer mi mano en contra de las ruinas que están habitadas hace poco, y en contra de el pueblo reunido de entre las naciones, que están adquiriendo ganado y propiedades, y quienes están viviendo en el centro de la tierra.' 13 Sabá y Dedán, y los comerciantes de Tarsis, junto con todos sus jóvenes guerreros, te dirán a ti: '¿Has venido a saquear? ¿Has reunido a tus ejércitos para tomar el botín, para llevarte la plata y el oro, para tomar su ganado y propiedad y arrastrar mucha ganancia?' 14 Por lo tanto, profetiza, hijo de hombre, y dile a Gog: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: En ese día, cuando Mi pueblo de Israel esté viviendo seguramente, ¿no sabrás tú de ellos? 15 Tú vendrás de tu lugar lejano en el norte con un gran ejército, todos ellos montando a caballos, una gran compañía, un gran ejército. 16 Tú atacarás a Mi pueblo de Israel como una nube que cubre la tierra. En los días venideros, Yo te traeré a ti en contra de Mi tierra, para que las naciones puedan conocerme a Mí cuando me muestre a Mí mismo a través de ti, oh Gog, para ser Santificado frente a sus ojos. 17 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¿No eres tú a quien Yo le hablé en días pasados por la mano de Mis siervos, los profetas de Israel, quienes profetizaron en su propio tiempo por años, que Yo te llevaría a ti en contra de ellos? 18 Pues, pasará en ese día cuando Gog ataque la tierra de Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, subirá Mi ira y Mi enojo. 19 En Mi celo y en el fuego de Mi enojo, Yo declaro que en ese día que habrá un gran terremoto en la tierra de Israel. 20 Ellos temblarán ante Mí, los peces del mar y los pájaros del cielo, las bestias de los campos, y todas las criaturas que se arrastran en la tierra, y cada hombre que está en la superficie de la tierra. Las montañas serán derribadas y los precipicios caerán, hasta que toda pared caiga en la tierra. 21 Yo convocaré una espada en contra de él en todas Mis montes, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, la espada de cada hombre estará en contra de su hermano. 22 Entonces, Yo lo juzgaré con plaga y sangre; y lluvia desbordante y granizo; y azufre ardiente caerá sobre él y sus tropas y las muchas naciones que están con él. 23 Pues Yo mostraré Mi grandeza y Mi santidad y Me haré a Mí mismo conocido en los ojos de muchas naciones, y ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR.'"

Chapter 39

1 "Ahora tú, hijo de hombre, profetiza contra Gog y diles: 'El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: ¡Mirad! Yo estoy contra tuya, Gog, jefe de Mesec y Tubal. 2 Yo te cambiaré y te guiaré, Yo te subiré desde el lejano norte y te traeré hasta las montañas de Israel. 3 Luego, tumbaré el arco de tu mano izquierda y haré que las flechas se caigan de tu mano derecha. 4 Caerás muerto en los montes de Israel, tú y todas tus tropas y los soldados que estan contigo. Te daré a las aves de rapiña y a los animales salvajes del campo por comida. 5 Tú caerás muerto en la superficie del campo, pues Yo mismo lo he hablado, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR DIOS. 6 Después, enviaré fuego a Magog y sobre aquellos que viven seguros en las costas, y ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR. 7 Pues Yo haré que Mi santo nombre sea conocido en medio de mi pueblo Israel, y ya no permitiré que Mi nombre SANTO sea profanado; las naciones sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR, El SANTO de Israel. 8 ¡Mirad! El día viene, y se cumplirá, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 9 Los que viven en las ciudades de Israel saldrán y usarán armas para encender y hacer fuegos y quemarlos, escudos pequeños, escudos grandes, arcos, flechas, mazos y lanzas; ellos encenderán fuegos con ellos por siete años. 10 Ellos no recogerán madera de los campos ni cortarán los árboles de los bosques, ya que quemarán sus armas; ellos despojarán a los que querían despojarlos; ellos saquearán a los que querían saquearlos a ellos, ésta es la declaración de el SEÑOR Dios." 11 Entonces sucederá en ese día que Yo haré un lugar allí para Gog, una tumba en Israel, un valle para los que hacen jornadas por el este del mar. Esto obstruirá el paso de los que quieran pasar por encima. Allí ellos sepultarán a Gog con todas sus multitudes. Ellos la llamarán el Valle de Hamón Gog. 12 Por siete meses la casa de Israel los estará enterrando para así poder purificar la tierra. 13 Pues toda la gente de la tierra los enterrara; será un día memorable para ellos cuando Yo sea glorificado, ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 14 Entonces, ellos designarán hombres para que continuamente vayan a lo largo de la tierra, para encontrar a los que estaban viajando por ella, pero que mueran y sus cuerpos queden en la superficie de la tierra, para que ellos los entierren, para que así sea purificada la tierra. Al finalizar el séptimo mes, ellos comenzarán la búsqueda. 15 Mientras estos hombres pasan por la tierra, cuando vean cualquier hueso humano, ellos lo marcarán, hasta que los sepultureros vengan a enterrarlos en el valle de Hermon Gog. 16 Allí habrá una ciudad llamada Hamona. De esta manera purificarán la tierra. 17 Ahora a tí, hijo de hombre, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Dile a todos los pájaros alados y a todos las bestias salvajes del campo, 'Junténse y vengan. Junténse de todos los alrededores para el sacrificio que Yo mismo estoy haciendo para ustedes, un gran sacrificio sobre los montes de Israel, para que puedan comer carne y beber sangre. 18 Comerán la carne de los guerreros y beberán la sangre de los príncipes de la tierra; ellos serán: carneros, ovejas, cabras, y toros, todos ellos ellos fueron engrodados en Basán. 19 Después comerán grasa hasta satisfacerce; beberán sangre hasta que se emborrachen; éste será el sacrificio que Yo mataré para ustedes. 20 Ustedes se saciarán en Mi mesa con caballos, carruajes, guerreros, y todo hombre de guerra, ésta es la declaración de el SEÑOR Dios. 21 Yo pondré Mi gloria entre las naciones, y todas las naciones verán Mi juicio que Yo hago y Mi mano que Yo he puesto en contra de ellos. 22 La casa de Israel sabrá que Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios desde ese día en adelante. 23 Las naciones sabrán que la casa de Israel fue a cautiverio por causa de su iniquidad por la cual me traicionarón, así que Yo escondí mi rostro de ellos y los pusé en manos de sus adversarios para que todos ellos cayeran por la espada. 24 Yo hice con ellos conforme a sus impurezas y sus pecados, cuando Yo escondí mi rostro de ellos. 25 Así que el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Ahora restauraré las fortunas de Jacob, y tendré compasión en toda la casa de Israel, cuando Yo actúe con celo por Mi Santo nombre. 26 Entonces, ellos vestiran su vergüenza y toda la traición con la cual Me traicionaron. Ellos se olvidarán de todo esto cuando estén descansando en sus tierras de manera segura, sin que nadie los aterrorize. 27 Cuando Yo les restaure de entre los pueblos y los reuna de entre las tierras de sus enemigos, Yo Me mostraré a Mi mismo Santo a los ojos de muchas naciones. 28 Entonces ellos sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios, pues los envié en cautividad entre las naciones, pero luego los juntaré otra vez en su tierra. No dejaré a ninguno de ellos entre las naciones. 29 Ya no esconderé Mi rostro de ellos cuando Yo derrame Mi Espíritu en la casa de Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR DIOS."

Chapter 40

1 En el año veinticinco de nuestra cautividad en el principio del año en el décimo día del mes, en el año catorce luego que la ciudad fuese capturada, en ese mismo día, la mano del SEÑOR estaba sobre mí, y Él me llevó allá. 2 En visiones de Dios Él me llevó a la tierra de Israel. Él me llevó a en un monte muy alto; al sur había lo que parecían ser edificios de una ciudad. 3 Entonces Él me llevó allí. He aquí, un hombre! Su apariencia era como la apariencia de bronce. Un cordón de lino y una vara de medir estaban en su mano, y él se paró en la puerta de la ciudad. 4 El hombre me dijo: ''Hijo de hombre, mira con tus ojos y escucha con tus oídos, y fija tu mente en todo lo que te estoy revelando, porque has sido traído aquí para que yo te lo pueda revelar a ti. Reporta todo lo que veas a la casa de Israel.'' 5 Había un muro rodeando el área del templo. El largo de la caña de medir en la mano del hombre era de seis codos de largo, el largo de cada codo era un codo y un palmo menor. Él midió el muro; era una caña de ancho y una caña de alto. 6 Entonces él fue a la puerta del templo de cara al este. Él subió los escalones y midió el umbral de la puerta, una caña de profundidad y una caña de alto. 7 Los cuartos de los guardias eran cada uno una caña de longitud y una caña de ancho; había cinco codos entre cada dos de los cuartos, y el umbral del portón del templo por el pórtico de la puerta del templo era una caña de profundidad. 8 Él midió el pórtico de la entrada; era una caña de largo. 9 Él midió el pórtico de la entrada. Era una caña de profundidad. Los postes de la puerta eran dos codos de ancho. Este era el pórtico de la entrada de cara al templo. 10 Había tres cuartos de los guardias a cada lado de la puerta del este, y cada uno de ellos tenía la misma medida, y los muros que los separaban tenían la misma medida. 11 Entonces el hombre midió el ancho de las puertas de entrada, diez codos; y él midió el largo de la puerta de entrada, trece codos. 12 Él midió el muro que estaba bordeando el frente de los cuartos, un codo de alto. Los cuartos medían seis codos en cada lado. 13 Entonces él midió la puerta desde el techo de un cuarto hasta el próximo cuarto, veinticinco codos, desde la entrada del primer cuarto hasta el segundo. 14 Entonces él midió el muro que iba entre los cuartos de los guardias- sesenta codos de largo; él midió tan lejos como hasta el pórtico de la puerta. 15 La entrada desde el frente de la puerta hasta el otro extremo del pórtico de la puerta era cincuenta codos. 16 Había ventanas estrechas hacia los cuartos y hacia sus pilares dentro de las puertas todo alrededor; e igualmente para las entradas. Había ventanas por todo alrededor del interior, y cada quicial estaba decorado con palmeras. 17 Entonces el hombre me trajo al patio exterior del templo. Mira, había cuartos, y había pavimento en el patio, con treinta cuartos al lado del pavimento. 18 El pavimento subía al lado de las puertas, y su ancho era el mismo que el largo de las puertas. Este era el pavimento bajo. 19 Entonces el hombre midió la distancia desde el frente de la puerta baja hasta el frente de la puerta interior; era cien codos en el lado este, y lo mismo en el lado norte. 20 Entonces él midió el largo y el ancho de la puerta que estaba al norte del patio exterior. 21 Allí había tres cuartos en cada lado de la puerta, y la puerta y su pórtico medían lo mismo que la puerta principal: cincuenta codos en el largo total y veinticinco codos de ancho. 22 Sus ventanas, pórtico, cuartos, y palmeras correspondían a la puerta que mira al este. Siete escalones subían a éste y a su pórtico. 23 Había una puerta al patio interior al frente de la puerta mirando al norte, así como también había una puerta al este; el hombre midió de una puerta a la otra puerta, cien codos de distancia. 24 Entonces el hombre me trajo a la puerta de la entrada del sur, y sus muros y pórtico medían lo mismo que las puertas de afuera. 25 Había ventanas cerradas en la puerta y su pórtico igual que en el portón. La puerta del sur y su pórtico medían cincuenta codos de largo y veinticinco codos de ancho. 26 Había siete escalones hacia arriba hacia la puerta y su pórtico, y había tallados de palmeras en los muros a cada lado. 27 Había una puerta hacia el patio interior en el lado sur, y el hombre midió desde esa puerta hasta la puerta de la entrada del sur, cien codos de distancia. 28 Entonces el hombre me llevó al patio interior por la puerta del sur, la cual tenía las mismas medidas de las otras puertas. 29 Sus cuartos, muros, y pórticos medían lo mismo que las otras puertas; había ventanas todas alrededor en el pórtico. La puerta interior y su pórtico medían cincuenta codos de largo y veinticinco codos de ancho. 30 Había también pórticos por todo alrededor de la puerta interior; estas eran veinticinco codos de largo y cinco codos de ancho. 31 Este pórtico daba al patio de afuera con palmeras talladas en sus muros y ocho escalones subiendo hasta ahí. 32 Entonces el hombre me llevó al patio interior por el camino del este y midió la puerta, la cual tenía las mismas medidas que las otras puertas. 33 Sus cuartos, muros, y pórtico medían lo mismo que las otras puertas, y había ventanas por todo alrededor. La puerta interior y su pórtico medían cincuenta codos de largo y veinticinco codos de ancho. 34 Su pórtico daba hacia el frente del patio; tenía palmeras en cada lado de él y ocho escalones hacia arriba. 35 Luego el hombre me trajo a la puerta del norte y la midió; midió lo mismo que las otras puertas. 36 Sus cuartos, muros, y pórtico medían lo mismo que las otras puertas, y había ventanas alrededor. La puerta y su pórtico medían cincuenta codos de largo y veinticinco de ancho. 37 Su pórtico daba al patio exterior; tenía palmeras en cada lado de él y ocho escalones subiendo. 38 Había un cuarto con una puerta al lado de cada una de las entradas interiores. Esto era donde ellos lavaban las ofrendas quemadas. 39 Había dos mesas en cada lado de cada pórtico, en las cuales las ofrendas quemadas se sacrificaban, y también las ofrendas por el pecado y las ofrendas por la culpa. 40 Al lado del muro del patio, subiendo a la puerta del norte, había dos mesas. También al otro lado había dos mesas en el pórtico de la puerta. 41 Había cuatro mesas en cada lado de la puerta; ellos sacrificaban animales en las ocho mesas. 42 Había cuatro mesas de piedra cortada para las ofrendas quemadas, un codo y medio de largo, un codo y medio de ancho, y un codo de alto. Sobre ellos pusieron las herramientas con las que ellos mataban las ofrendas quemadas para los sacrificios. 43 Ganchos de dos puntas del largo de la palma de la mano fueron sujetados en el pórtico alrededor, y la carne de las ofrendas estaba puesta en las mesas. 44 Cerca de la puerta interior, en el patio interior, había cuartos para los cantores. Uno de estos cuartos estaba en el lado norte, y uno en el sur. 45 Entonces el hombre me dijo: ''Este cuarto mirando al sur es para los sacerdotes quienes están en servicio en el templo. 46 El cuarto mirando al norte era para los sacerdotes en servicio en el altar. Esos son los hijos de Sadok quienes se acercan al SEÑOR para servirle a Él; ellos se encuentran entre los hijos de Leví.'' 47 Luego él midió el patio- cien codos de largo y cien codos de ancho en un cuadrado, con el altar en frente de la casa. 48 Entonces el hombre me trajo al pórtico de la casa y midió los marcos de las puertas, ellos eran de cinco codos de grueso en cada lado. La entrada en sí era de catorce codos de ancho, y los muros a cada lado de ella eran de tres codos de ancho. 49 El largo del pórtico era de veinte codos, y su profundidad era once codos. Había escalones que subían a él y columnas paradas a cada lado de él.

Chapter 41

1 Entonces, el hombre me llevó al lugar santo del templo y midió los marcos de la puerta, seis codos de ancho en cada lado. 2 El ancho de la entrada de la puerta era de diez codos; la pared a cada lado era de cinco codos de largo. Entonces, el hombre midió las dimensiones del lugar santo, cuarenta codos de largo y veinte codos de ancho. 3 Entonces, el hombre entró en el mismísimo lugar santo y midió los marcos de la entrada de la puerta, dos codos, y la entrada de la puerta era de seis codos de ancho. Las paredes a cada lado eran de siete codos de ancho. 4 Entonces, él midió el largo del cuarto, veinte codos. Su ancho, veinte codos hasta el frente del salón del templo. Entonces, él me dijo: "Éste es el lugar santísimo." 5 Entonces, el hombre midió la pared de la casa, era de seis codos de grosor. El ancho de cada esquina del cuarto alrededor de la casa era de cuatro codos de ancho. 6 Habían cuartos de esquina en tres niveles, un cuarto sobre el otro, treinta cuartos en cada nivel. Habían plataformas alrededor de la pared de la casa, para apoyar a todos los cuartos de esquina, pues no había soporte puesto en la pared de la casa. 7 Pues, los cuartos de esquina se ampliaron y fueron hacia arriba por alrededor, ya que la casa se hacia alta y más alta; los cuartos se ampliaron mientras la casa subía, y una escalera subía al nivel más alto, a través del nivel del medio. 8 Entonces vi una parte levantada alrededor de la casa, los cimientos de las cámaras del lado; medía una vara completa en altura, seis codos. 9 El ancho de la pared de los cuartos de esquina de afuera era de cinco codos. Había un espacio abierto afuera de estos cuartos en el santuario. 10 Al otro lado de este espacio abierto estaban los cuartos del lado exterior de los sacerdotes; este espacio era de veinte codos de ancho en todo alrededor del santuario. 11 Habían puertas hacia los cuartos de esquina, una entrada estaba en el lado norte, y la otra en el lado sur. El ancho de esta área abierta era de cinco codos en todo alrededor. 12 El edificio que miraba al patio en el lado oeste era de setenta codos de anchura. Sus paredes medían cinco codos de grosura en todo alrededor, y era de noventa codos de largo. 13 Entonces, el hombre midió el santuario, cien codos de largo. El edificio separado, su pared, y el patio también medían cien codos de largo. 14 El ancho del frente del patio en frente del santuario era también de cien codos. 15 Entonces, el hombre midió el largo del edificio detrás del santuario, a su oeste, y y las galerías al otro lado, cien codos. El lugar santo y el pórtico, 16 las paredes interiores y las ventanas, incluyendo las ventanas estrechas, y las galerías en todo alrededor de los tres niveles, estaban panelados/ cubiertos con madera. 17 Sobre la entrada hacia el santuario interior y distribuido a lo largo de las paredes había un patrón medido. 18 Estaba decorado con querubines y árboles de palma; con un árbol de palma entre cada querubín, y cada querubín tenía dos caras: 19 la cara de un hombre miraba hacía el árbol de palma a un lado, y la cara de un joven león miraba hacia un árbol de palma en el otro lado. Ellos estaban tallados alrededor de la casa entera. 20 Desde el suelo hasta encima de la entrada, los querubines y los árboles de palma estaban tallados y en la pared de afuera de la casa. 21 Los postes de la entrada al lugar santo eran cuadrados. Su apariencia era como la apariencia 22 del altar de madera al frente del lugar santo, el cual era de tres codos de alto y dos codos de ancho en cada lado. Sus postes de las esquinas, base, y enmarcado estaban hechos de madera. Entonces, el hombre me dijo a mí: "Ésta es la mesa que se pone delante el SEÑOR." 23 Había puertas dobles hacia el lugar santo y al lugar santísimo. 24 Estas puertas tenían dos paneles con bisagras cada uno, dos paneles por cada puerta y dos paneles por la otra. 25 Tallados en ellas, en las puertas del lugar santo, había querubines y árboles de palma tal como estaban decoradas las paredes, y había un techo de madera sobre el pórtico al frente. 26 Había ventanas estrechas y árboles de palma a cada lado del pórtico. Estos eran los cuartos al lado de la casa, y también tenían techos sobresalientes.

Chapter 42

1 Luego el hombre me envió al patio exterior en el lado norte, y me trajo a las habitaciones frente al patio exterior y la pared del norte exterior. 2 Aquellas habitaciones eran de cien codos a lo largo en su frente y cincuenta codos de ancho. 3 Algunos de esos cuartos enfrentaban el patio interior y estaban a veinte codos de distancia del santuario. Habían tres niveles de habitaciones, y los de arriba miraban hacia las habitaciones que estaban abajo y estaban abiertos a ellos, teniendo una pasillo. Algunas de las habitaciones miraban hacia el patio exterior. 4 Un corredor de diez codos en ancho y cien codos en largo corría delante de las habitaciones. Las puertas de las habitaciones estaban en dirección hacia el norte. 5 Pero las salas superiores eran pequeñas, porque los pasillos les quitaban más espacio que en los niveles más bajos y medianos del edificio. 6 Porque los pasillos en el tercer piso no tenían columnas, a diferencia de los patios, los cuales tenian columnas. Así que las habitaciones de los niveles mas altos era más pequeños en comparación con las habitaciones en los niveles bajos y medianos. 7 La pared de afuera corría a lo largo de las habitaciones del patio exterior, el patio que está frente a las habitaciones. Esa pared era de cincuenta codos de longitud. 8 La longitud de los cuartos del patio exterior eran de cincuenta codos, y las habitaciones frente al santuario eran de cien codos de longitud. 9 Había una entrada para las habitaciones más bajas del lado este, que procedía del patio exterior. 10 A lo largo de la pared del patio exterior en el lado derecho del patio exterior, al frente del santuario del patio interior, tambien habían habitaciones 11 con un pasillo en frente de ellos. Ellos eran como la apariencia de las habitaciones del lado norte. Ellos tenían la misma longitud y amplitud y las mismas salidas y arreglos y puertas. 12 En el lado sur habían puertas que daban a los cuartos similares a los que habían en el lado norte. Un pasillo en el interior tenía una puerta en su cabecera, y el pasillo abierto hacia varias habitaciones. En el lado este había una entrada al pasillo en un extremo. 13 Luego el hombre me dijo: "Las habitaciones del norte y las habitaciones del sur que están frente al patio exterior son las habitaciones santas donde los sacerdotes que trabajan más cerca a Jehová pueden comer la ofrendas santísimas. Ellos pondrán las cosas santísimas allí, la ofrenda de grano, la ofrenda por el pecado y la ofrenda por la culpa, porque este es un lugar santo. 14 Cuando los sacerdotes entren allí, ellos no deberán salir del lugar santo para el patio exterior, sin dejar a un lado las vestiduras en las cuales ellos sirvieron, ya que estas son santas. Así que deberán vestirse con otra ropa antes de acercarse al pueblo" 15 El hombre terminó midiendo la parte interior de la casa y luego me llevó afuera para la puerta que daba para el este y midió todo alrededor allí. 16 Él midió el lado este con una caña de medir, quinientos codos con la caña de medir. 17 Él midió el lado norte, quinientos codos con la caña de medir. 18 Él también midió el lado sur, quinientos codos con la vcañaa de medir. 19 Él también se dio vuelta y midió el lado oeste, quinientos codos con la caña de medir. 20 Él lo midió en cuatro lados. Tenía un muro alrededor que era de quinientos codos de longitud, y quinientos codos de anchura, para separar lo santo de aquello que es común.

Chapter 43

1 El hombre entonces me trajo a la puerta que abría hacia el este. 2 ¡He aquí! La gloria del Dios de Israel vino del este; su voz era como el sonido de muchas aguas, y la tierra brilló con su gloria. 3 Era de acuerdo a la apariencia de la visión que vi, de acuerdo a la visión que vi cuando Él había venido a destruir la ciudad, y las visiones eran como la visión que vi en el Canal de Quebar, y caí en mi cara. 4 Así que la gloria del SEÑOR Dios vino a la casa entrando por la puerta que abría hacia el este. 5 Entonces el Espíritu me levantó y me trajo a la corte interna. ¡He aquí! La gloria del SEÑOR Dios estaba llenando la casa. 6 El hombre estaba parado junto a mí, y escuché a alguien más hablándome desde la casa. 7 Él me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, este es el lugar de Mi trono y el lugar para las suelas de Mis pies, donde Yo viviré en medio Mi pueblo de Israel por siempre. La casa de Israel nunca más profanará Mi nombre Santo, ellos ni sus reyes, con su falta de fe o con los cadáveres de sus reyes en sus lugares altos. 8 Ellos nunca más profanarán Mi Santo nombre poniendo su umbral junto a Mi umbral, y sus postes junto a mis postes, con solo una pared entre ellos y Yo. Ellos profanaron Mi Santo nombre con sus acciones abominables, así que los consumí con Mi ira. 9 Remuevan su infidelidad y los cadáveres de sus reyes de delante de Mí, y viviré en medio de ellos por siempre. 10 Hijo del hombre, tú mismo debes decirle a la casa de Israel sobre esta casa para que estén avergonzados de sus iniquidades. Ellos deberían pensar acerca de esta descripción. 11 Pues si ellos están avergonzados de todo lo que han hecho, entonces revélales a ellos el diseño de la casa, sus detalles, sus salidas, sus entradas, y todos sus diseños, y todos sus decretos y reglas. Entonces escribe esto ante sus ojos para que mantengan todo su diseño y todas sus reglas, para que así las obedezcan. 12 Esta es la regulación de la casa: Desde el pico de la colina hasta todo el borde alrededor de él, será lo más santo. ¡He aquí! Esta es la regulación para la casa. 13 Estas serán las medidas para el altar en codos, ese codo siendo un codo regular y un palmo menor en longitud. Así que la canaleta alrededor del altar tendrá un codo de profundidad, y su ancho también será de un codo. El borde que lo rodea será de un palmo. Esta será la base del altar. 14 Desde la canaleta en el nivel de la tierra hasta el alero debajo del altar son dos codos, y ese mismo alero mide un codo de ancho. Entonces desde el alero pequeño hasta el borde grande del altar, son cuatro codos, y el borde grande mide un codo de ancho. 15 El fogón en el altar para las ofrendas quemadas mide cuatro codos de altura, y hay cuatro cuernos apuntando hacia arriba en el fogón. 16 El fogón mide doce codos de longitud y doce codos de ancho, un cuadrado. 17 Su borde es de catorce codos de largo y catorce codos de ancho en cada uno de los cuatro lados, y su orilla mide medio codo de ancho. La canaleta mide un codo de ancho alrededor con sus pasos hacia el este." 18 Luego Él me dijo: "Hijo del hombre, el SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Estas son las regulaciones para el altar en el día que lo hagan, para ofrecer la ofrenda quemada en él, y para rociar sangre en él. 19 Darás un toro del ganado como ofrenda de pecado por los sacerdotes Levíticos que son descendientes de Sadoc, aquellos que se acercan a Mí para servirme, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 20 Entonces tú tomarás un poco de su sangre y la pondrás en los cuatro cuernos del altar y los cuatro bordes y la orilla que lo rodea; lo lavarás y harás expiación para él. 21 Entonces toma el toro como ofrenda de pecado y quémalo en la parte fijada del área del templo fuera del santuario. 22 Entonces en el segundo día tú ofrecerás un cabro sin manchas de las cabras como ofrenda por el pecado; los sacerdotes lavarán el altar así como lo lavaron con el toro. 23 Cuando termines con su lavado, ofrece un toro sin mancha del ganado y un carnero sin macha del rebaño. 24 Ofrécelos ante el SEÑOR; los sacerdotes les tirarán sal a ellos y los ofrecerán como ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR. 25 Tú debes preparar un cabro como ofrenda por el pecado cada día por siete días, y los sacerdotes también deben preparar un toro sin macha del ganado y un carnero sin mancha del rebaño. 26 Ellos deberán expiar para el altar por siete días y purificarlo, y de esta manera ellos deberán consagrarlo. 27 Ellos deberán completar estos días, y en el octavo día en adelante acontecerá que los sacerdotes prepararán tus ofrendas quemadas en el altar, y Yo te aceptaré, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

1 Entonces el hombre me trajo de vuelta a la puerta de afuera del santuario que daban hacia el este; estaba cerrada fuertemente. 2 El SEÑOR Dios me dijo: "Esta puerta ha sido cerrada herméticamente; y no se abrirá. Ningún hombre entrará por ella, porque el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, ha entrado por ella, así que ha sido cerrada herméticamente. 3 El gobernante de Israel se sentará en ella para comer delante de el SEÑOR. Él entrará por la entrada de el pórtico de la puerta y saldrá por el mismo lugar." 4 Despues Él me trajo por el camino de la puerta del norte que queda frente a la casa. Así que miré y he aquí, la gloria de el SEÑOR que llenaba la casa de el SEÑOR, y caí sobre mi rostro. 5 Entonces el SEÑOR me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, pon tu corazón y mira con tus ojos y escucha con tus oídos a todas las cosas que Yo te declaro, a todos los estatutos de la casa del SEÑOR y a todas sus regulaciones. Piensa sobre las entradas y salidas de la casa. 6 Luego diles a los rebeldes, la casa de Israel: "El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Todas tus abominaciones son suficientes para ti, oh casa de Israel, 7 trajistes extranjeros con corazones incircuncisos y con carne incircuncisa para que estuvieran en Mi santuario, profanando Mi casa, mientras tú Me ofrecias pan, grasa y sangre, tú rompíste Mi pacto con todas tus abominaciones. 8 Tú no haz llevado acabo tus deberes respecto a Mis cosas santas, pero designastes a otros para que tomaran tus deberes, y les asignastes para que cuidaran de Mi lugar santo. 9 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Ningún extranjero, incircunsiso de corazón y carne, de entre cualquiera que vive entre el pueblo de Israel, pueden entrar a Mi lugar santo. 10 Aún así los levitas se apartaron de mi, se alejaron de Mi, llendo tras sus ídolos, pero ellos pagarán por sus pecados. 11 Ellos son sirvientes en Mi santuario, que velan las puertas de la casa y sirven en la casa y masacran las ofrendas quemadas y los sacrificios del pueblo, y ellos estarán ante el pueblo y les servirán. 12 Pero por causa de que ellos hacían sacrificios ante sus ídolos, ellos se convirtieron en una piedra de tropiezo para pecar para la casa de Israel. Así que Yo levantaré Mí mano para jurar un juramento en contra de ellos, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, ellos llevarán su castigo. 13 Ellos no se acercarán a Mi para ser Mis sacerdotes o para acercarce a ninguna de Mis cosas santas, las cosas santísimas. Por el contrario, ellos llevarán su reproche y su culpa por las abominaciones que ellos han hecho. 14 Pero Yo los pondré como guardas del trabajo en la casa, en todas sus tareas y en todo lo que se haga en ella. 15 Entonces los sacerdotes Levitas, esos hijos de Sodoc que completaron las tareas de Mi santuario cuando el pueblo de Israel vagaba lejos de Mi, ellos se acercarán a Mi para adorarme. Ellos estarán de pie ante Mi para ofrecerme la grasa y la sangre, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 16 Ellos vendrán a Mi santuario; ellos se acercarán a Mi mesa para rendirme culto y para llevar a cabo sus tareas para Mi. 17 Así será que cuando ellos vengan a las puertas del patio interior, ellos tendrán que vestir con ropas de lino, pues ellos no deberán entrar con lana dentro de las puertas del atrio interior y la casa. 18 Deberán tener turbantes de lino en sus cabezas y ropa interior de lino en sus caderas. Ellos no deberán vestirse en ropa que los haga sudar. 19 Cuando ellos salgan para los patios externos, externos de manera que puedan ir al pueblo, ellos deben quitarse la ropa que usaron cuando servían; ellos deberán quitársela y ponerlas en un cuarto santo, para que no hagan santos al pueblo por el contacto con sus ropas especiales. 20 Tampoco deben afeitarse sus cabezas, ni dejar sus cabellos sueltos, pero deben recortarse los cabellos de sus cabezas. 21 Ningún sacerdote debe beber vino cuando entre al patio interno, 22 ni tomar a una viuda o a una mujer divorciada como esposa para sí mismo, sino tan solo una virgen por el linaje de la casa de Israel o una viuda que previamente estuvo casada con un sacerdote. 23 Pues ellos ensañarán a Mi pueblo la diferencia entre lo santo y lo profano; ellos le harán saber lo inmundo de lo limpio. 24 Durante un pleito ellos se pararán a juzgar con Mis decretos; ellos deberán ser justos. Ellos guardaran Mis leyes y Mis estatutos en todas las fiestas, y ellos celebrarán Mi santo día de reposo. 25 Ellos no irán a donde una persona muerta para hacerse inmundo, a menos que sea su padre o madre, hijo o hija, hermano o una hermana que no ha dormido con un hombre; de lo contrario, ellos se tornarán inmundos. 26 Después que un sacerdote se ha vuelto inmundo, ellos contarán un periodo de siete días para él. 27 En el día en que el entre en el lugar santo, en los patios internos para servir en el lugar santo, él deberá traer una ofrenda por su propio pecado, esta es la declaración de el SEÑOR Dios. 28 Esta será su herencia: Yo soy su herencia, y ustedes no deben darles ninguna propiedad en Israel; Yo seré su propiedad! 29 Ellos comerán las ofrendas de los granos, las ofrendas por los pecados, las ofrendas por sus culpas, y todo lo dedicado al SEÑOR de Israel, será de ellos. 30 Lo mejor de los primeros frutos de todas las cosas y toda contribución, cualquier cosa de todas tus contribuciones pertenecerá a los sacerdotes para que la bendición se pose en la casa de ustedes. 31 El sacerdote no comerá ningún cadáver o animal destrozado por una fiera, sea pájaro o bestia.

Chapter 45

1 Cuando repartan por suertes la tierra como herencia, tienen que hacer una ofrenda al SEÑOR; esta ofrenda será una parte sagrada de la tierra, veinticinco mil codos de longitud, y diez mil codos de ancho. Será santa, toda su área alrededor. 2 De ahí, habrán quinientos codos por quinientos codos cuadrados rodeando el Lugar Santo, con un borde circundante de cincuenta codos de ancho. 3 De esta área tú medirás una porción que es veinticinco mil codos de largo y diez mil en ancho; será el Santuario, el Lugar Santo. 4 Será un Lugar Santo en la tierra para los sacerdotes que le sirven al SEÑOR, que se acercan al SEÑOR para servirle. Será un lugar para sus casas y un lugar sagrado para el Santuario. 5 Así que será veinticinco mil codos de largo y diez miel de ancho, y será para pueblos para los levitas que sirven en la casa. 6 Tú designarás un área para la ciudad, cinco mil codos de ancho y veinticinco mil de largo, estará junto a la zona reservada para el Lugar Santo; esta ciudad pertenecerá a toda la casa de Israel. 7 La tierra del príncipe estará en ambos lados de la zona reservada para el Lugar Santo y la ciudad. Será hacia el occidente y a su oriente. La longitud le correspondá a la longitud de una de las partes, desde el occidente al oriente. 8 Esta tierra será propiedad para el príncipe en Israel. Mis príncipes ya no oprimirán a Mí pueblo; en su lugar, ellos le darán la tierra a la casa de Israel, para sus tribus. 9 El SEÑOR Dios dice así: "¡Basta ya, príncipes de Israel! ¡Dejen la violencía y los conflictos; hagan justicia y rectitud! ¡Dejen de desalojar a mi pueblo! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 10 ¡Ustedes tienen que tener balanzas exactas, canastas exactas, y recipientes exactos! 11 La canasta para medir el cosas secas y el recipiente para medir líquidos serán de la misma medida, de modo que el recipiente sea un décimo del homer; la canasta será un décimo del homer. Sus medidas serán corespondiente a la del homer. 12 El siclo será veinte geras; sesenta siclos hará una mina para ustedes. 13 Ésta es la contribución que tienes que presentar: una sexta parte de una canasta por cada homer de trigo, y darás una sexta parte de la canasta por cada homer de cebada. 14 La regulación de la ofrenda de aceite será una décima parte de un recipiente por cada coro (que son diez recipientes), o por cada homer, porque un homer es también diez recipientes. 15 Una oveja o una cabra del rebaño por cada doscientos animales de los abrevaderos de Israel serán usadas para cualquier holocausto u ofrenda de paz para hacer expiación por el pueblo, ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 16 Todas las personas de la tierra darán esta contribución al príncipe en Israel. 17 Será la responsibilidad del príncipe de suplir animales para el holocaustos, la ofrenda de grano, y las ofrendas de bebidas en las fiestas y en las celebraciones de las lunas nuevas, y en los Días de Reposo, todos las fiestas señalados por la casa de Israel. Él proveerá la ofrenda por el pecado, la ofrenda del grano, la ofrenda quemada y la ofrenda de paz para hacer expiación por la casa de Israel. 18 El SEÑOR Dios dice así: en el primer mes, en el primer día del mes, tomarás del rebaño un novillo sin mancha y harás una ofrenda por el pecado por el santuario. 19 El sacerdote tomará parte de la sangre de la ofrenda por el pecado y la pondrá en los postes de las puertas de la casa y las cuatro esquinas del borde del altar, y en los postes de las puerta del atrio interior. 20 Harás esto en el séptimo día del mes por el pecado de cada persona por accidente o ignorancia; de ésta manera tú expiarás por el templo. 21 En el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes, habrá para ti una fiesta solemne, una fiesta de siete días. Comerás pan sin levadura. 22 En aquel día, el príncipe preparará para él y para todo el pueblo de la tierra un novillo como ofrenda por el pecado. 23 Durante los siete días del festival, el príncipe preparará un holocausto para el SEÑOR: siete novillos y siete carneros sin manchas cada día por siete días, y un macho cabrío cada día como una ofrenda de pecado. 24 Entonces el príncipe ofrecerá de grano de una canasta por cada novillo y una canasta por cada carnero con un hin de aceite por cada efa. 25 En el séptimo mes en el día quince del mes, en el festival, el príncipe realizará ofrendas en estos siete días: ofrendas por pecados, holocaustos, ofrendas de grano, y ofrendas de aceite.

Chapter 46

1 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: La puerta del patio interior, de frente al este, estará cerrada los seis días de trabajo, pero en el Día de Reposo estará abierta, y en el día de la luna nueva estará abierta. 2 El príncipe entrará al patio exterior por medio de la puerta y su pórtico desde afuera, y él se parará ante el marco de la puerta interior mientras los sacerdotes llevan a cabo su ofrenda quemada y ofrenda de paz. Entonces él adorará en el umbral de la puerta interior y saldrá, pero la puerta no se cerrará hasta la noche. 3 El pueblo de la tierra también adorará ante el SEÑOR a la entrada de la puerta en el Día de Reposo y lunas nuevas. 4 La ofrenda quemada que el príncipe ofrece al SEÑOR en el Día de Reposo serán seis corderos sin mancha y un carnero sin mancha. 5 La ofrenda de grano con carnero será una canasta, y la ofrenda de grano con los corderos será lo que él desee ofrecer, y un hin de aceite con cada canasta de grano. 6 En el día de la luna nueva él debe ofrecer un toro sin mancha de una manada, seis corderos y un carnero sin macha. 7 Él debe dar una canasta de ofrenda de grano por el toro y una canasta por el carnero, y lo que él desee dar por los corderos y un hin de aceite por cada canasta de grano. 8 Cuando el príncipe entre por el camino de la puerta y su pórtico, él debe salir por el mismo camino. 9 Pero cuando el pueblo de la tierra venga ante el SEÑOR en las fiestas designadas, cualquiera que entre a través de la puerta del norte para adorar saldrá a través de la puerta del sur; y cualquiera que entre a través de la puerta del sur debe salir a través de la puerta del norte. Nadie puede volverse a la puerta a través de la cual entró, puesto que debe salir de frente. 10 El príncipe debe estar en el centro; cuando ellos vayan adentro, él debe entrar, y cuando ellos salgan, él debe salir. 11 En las fiestas, la ofrenda de grano debe ser una canasta de grano por el toro y una canasta de carnero, y lo que él desee dar con los corderos, y un hin de aceite por cada canasta. 12 Cuando el príncipe dé una ofrenda por voluntad propia, sea una ofrenda quemada o una ofrenda de paz al SEÑOR, la puerta de frente al este será abierta para él. Él ofrecerá su ofrenda quemada o su ofrenda de paz como lo hace en el Día de Reposo. Luego, él debe salir, y cuando haya salido fuera la puerta será cerrada. 13 En adición, tú ofrecerás un cordero sin mancha de un año de edad como una ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR diariamente; tú harás esto mañana tras mañana. 14 Y con éste tú darás una ofrenda de grano mañana tras mañana, la sexta parte de una canasta y la tercera parte de un hin de aceite para humedecer la harina de la ofrenda de grano para el SEÑOR, de acuerdo al estatuto permanente. 15 Ellos prepararán el cordero, la ofrenda de grano, y el aceite mañana tras mañana, una ofrenda quemada permanente. 16 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Si el príncipe da un regalo a alguno de sus hijos, esta es su herencia. Esta será la propiedad de sus hijos, es una herencia. 17 Pero si él regala de su herencia a uno de sus sirvientes, entonces será del sirviente hasta el año de libertad, y luego retornará al príncipe. Su herencia ciertamente será para sus hijos. 18 El príncipe no tomará las propiedades de la herencia del pueblo; él debe proveerle a sus hijos de su propia propiedad para que Mi pueblo no sea disperso, cada hombre dé su propia propiedad.'" 19 Luego el hombre me llevó a través de la entrada en la puerta de los cuartos santos de los sacerdotes, los cuales estaban frente al norte y ¡He aquí! Había un lugar hacia el oeste. 20 Él me dijo: "Este es el lugar donde los sacerdotes deben hervir la ofrenda por la culpa y la ofrenda por el pecado y ellos deben hornear la ofrenda de grano. Ellos no deben traer la ofrenda al patio exterior, porque entonces el pueblo estará consagrado." 21 Luego él me trajo al patio exterior y él me dirigió pasando las cuatro esquinas del patio, y yo ví que en cada esquina del patio había otro patio. 22 En las cuatro esquinas de los patios exteriores habían cuatro pequeños patios, cuarenta codos de longitud y treinta de ancho. Son la misma dimensión para todos los cuatro patios. 23 Había una fila hecha de piedra toda alrededor de ellos cuatro, y fogones de cocina estaban debajo de la fila de piedra. 24 El hombre me dijo: "Estos son los lugares donde los sirvientes del templo hervirán los sacrificios del pueblo."

Chapter 47

1 Entonces, el hombre me llevó nuevamente a la entrada del templo, y allí había agua fluyendo fuera por debajo del umbral del templo de la casa hacia el este, pues el frente del templo enfrentaba el este, y el agua estaba fluyendo bajo el lado sur del templo, hacia la derecha del altar. 2 Así que, él me trajo a través de la puerta del norte y me llevó alrededor de la puerta que da al este, y ahí el agua estaba fluyendo desde esta entrada en su lado sur. 3 Mientras el hombre estaba yendo hacia el este, había un cordel de medir en su mano; él midió mil codos y me trajo a través del agua a aguas hasta el tobillo de profundas. 4 Entonces, él midió mil codos otra vez y me trajo através del agua a aguas hasta las rodillas de profundas; y él midió otros mil codos y me trajo a agua de profundidad hasta la cadera. 5 Después él midió otros mil codos, pero era un río que yo no podía cruzar porque el agua se había elevado y estaba lo suficientemente profundo para nadar, era un río que no se podía cruzar. 6 El hombre me dijo: "Hijo de hombre, ¿tu ves ésto?" y él me trajo fuera y me hizo volver a caminar junto a la orilla del río. 7 Mientras yo caminaba de vuelta, allí la orilla del río tenía muchos árboles en su lado y también en el otro lado. 8 El hombre me dijo: "Esta agua está saliendo al territorio del este y abajo al Arabá; esta agua fluye hacia el mar Muerto y lo hará fresco. 9 Será que cada criatura viva que nada vivirá donde el agua fluya; habrán muchos peces, por que estas aguas fluyen allí. Hará el agua salada fresca. Todo vivirá donde quiera que el río vaya. 10 Entonces, sucederá que los pescadores de En Gadi estarán por el agua, y tendrán un lugar para secar los redes de pescar por En Eglaim. Habrán muchos tipos de peces en el mar Muerto, como los peces en el Mar Grande por su abundancia. 11 Pero los pantanos y las ciénagas del mar Muerto no serán hechos fresco, ellos serán para proveer sal. 12 Al lado de este río en sus orillas, en ambos lados, todo tipo de árboles crecerán y darán fruto. Sus hojas no se marchitarán y su fruto nunca dejará de crecer. Cada mes los árboles darán frutos, porque el agua del santuario fluye hacia ellos. Su fruto será para comida, y sus hojas serán para curación. 13 El SEÑOR Dios dice esto: Esta será la forma que ustedes van a dividir la tierra para las doce tribus de Israel: José tendrá dos porciones. 14 Ustedes deben dividir equitativamente lo que Yo he jurado, con Mi mano levantada, dar a sus padres. Esta tierra vendrá a ustedes como una herencia. 15 Este será el límite de la tierra por el norte desde el Mar Grande hasta Hetlón, y luego hasta Zedad. 16 Luego, el límite irá a Berota, a Sibraim, lo cual está en medio de Damasco y Hamat, y luego a Hazar Haticón, que está al lado del límite de Haurán. 17 Entonces, el límite será desde el mar hasta Hazar Enán en la frontera con Damasco y Hamat para el norte. Este será el lado norte. 18 En el lado este, entre Haurán y Damascos, y en medio de Galaad y la tierra de Israel estará el río Jordan. Ustedes deben medir desde la frontera hacia el mar oriental; todo esto será la frontera del este. 19 Luego el lado sur: al sur de Tamar hacia las aguas de Meriba de Cades, el arroyo de Egipto hacia el Mar Grande, y el lado sur hacia el sur. 20 Luego, el límite oeste será el Mar Grande hacia donde se opone el Lebo Hamat. Este será el lado oeste. 21 De esta forma, ustedes van a dividir la tierra para ustedes, para las tribus de Israel. 22 Así que, ustedes distribuirán la herencia para ustedes y para los extranjeros en medio de ustedes, aquellos que han dado a luz a niños en medio de ustedes y quienes son, contigo, como el nativo nacido pueblo de Israel. Ustedes van a dar mucha herencia en medio de las tribus de Israel. 23 Entonces, ocurrirá que el extranjero va a estar con la tribu entre quienes él está viviendo. Ustedes deben darle una herencia. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios."

Chapter 48

1 Estos son los nombres de las tribus. La tribu de Dan recibirá una porción de tierra; su límite correrá junto al límite del norte de Israel por camino de Hetlón y Lebo Hamat. Su límite seguirá hasta Hazar Enán y junto a la frontera con Damasco hacia el norte y luego hacia Hamat. El límite de Dan irá del este todo el camino hasta el Gran Mar. 2 Contiguo a la frontera de Dan, desde el lado este al oeste, Aser tendrá una porción. 3 Contiguo a la frontera de Aser desde el lado este hasta el oeste, Neftalí tendrá una porción. 4 Contiguo a la frontera de Neftalí desde el lado este hasta el oeste, Manasés tendrá una porción. 5 Contiguo a la frontera de Manasés desde el lado este al oeste, Efraín tendrá una porción. 6 Contiguo a la frontera de Efraín desde el lado este al oeste, Rubén tendrá una porción. 7 Contiguo a la frontera de Rubén desde el lado al oeste, Judá tendrá una porción. 8 La ofrenda de tierra que tú harás será junto a la frontera con Judá y se extiende desde el lado este al lado oeste; será veinticinco mil codos de ancho. Su largo corresponderá a la porción de una tribu desde el lado este al lado oeste, y el templo estará en el medio de ella. 9 Esta tierra que tú ofrecerás al SEÑOR será de veinticinco mil codos de largo y diez mil codos de ancho. 10 Estas serán las asignaciones de esta porción santa de tierra: los sacerdotes tendrán tierras asignadas a ellos midiendo veinticinco mil codos de largo en el lado norte; diez mil codos de ancho en el lado oeste; diez mil codos de ancho en el lado este; y veinticinco mil codos de largo en el lado sur, con el lugar santo del SEÑOR en el medio de él. 11 Esto será para la consagración de los sacerdotes de la línea de Sadoc, que Me han servido fielmente y que no se descarriaron cuando el pueblo de Israel se descarrió, según hicieron los levitas. 12 La ofrenda para ellos será una porción de esta tierra santa, extendiéndose hasta la frontera de los levitas. 13 La tierra de los levitas junto a la frontera con la tierra de los sacerdotes será veinticinco mil codos de largo y diez mil codos de ancho. El largo entero de las dos extensiones de tierra será veinticinco mil codos de largo y veinte mil codos de ancho. 14 Ellos no podrán venderlo o intercambiarlo; ninguna de estas primicias de la tierra de Israel podrá jamás ser separada de estas extensiones, pues todo ello es santo al SEÑOR. 15 La tierra restante, cinco mil codos de ancho y veinticinco mil codos de largo, será para el uso colectivo de la ciudad, las casas, y el pastizal; la ciudad estará en su medio. 16 Estas serán las medidas de la ciudad: el lado norte será 4, 500 codos de largo; el lado sur sera 4, 500 codos de largo, el lado este será 4, 500 codos de largo y el lado oeste será 4, 500 codos de largo. 17 Habrá pastizal para la ciudad hacia el norte, 250 codos de profundo; al sur, 250 codos de profundo; al este, 250 codos de profundo, y al oeste, 250 codos profundo. 18 El área restante de la ofrenda santa se extenderá por diez mil codos al este y diez mil codos al oeste. Se extenderá a lo largo de la frontera de la ofrenda santa, y sus cultivos serán alimento para aquéllos trabajando en la ciudad. 19 La gente que trabaja en la ciudad, gente perteneciente a todas las tribus de Israel, cultivará esa tierra. 20 Toda la ofrenda de tierra medirá veinticinco mil codos por veinticinco mil codos. De esta manera harán la ofrenda santa de la tierra, junto con la tierra para la ciudad. 21 El restante de la tierra a ambos lados de la ofrenda santa y el área de la ciudad será para el príncipe. La extensión de tierra del príncipe hacia el este se extenderá por veinticinco mil codos desde el límite de la ofrenda santa hasta el borde este, y su extensión de tierra hacia el oeste se extenderá por veinticinco mil codos hacia la frontera oeste. En el medio estará la santa ofrenda, y el santo lugar del templo estará en su medio. 22 La tierra extendiéndose desde la propiedad de los levitas y el área de la ciudad en su medio será para el príncipe; será entre la frontera de Judá y la frontera de Benjamín, esta tierra será para el príncipe. 23 En cuanto a las tribus restantes, sus porciones tambíen correrán del lado este al lado oeste. Benjamín recibirá una porción. 24 Contiguo a la frontera de Benjamín del lado este al oeste, Simeón tendrá una porción. 25 Contiguo a la frontera de Simeón desde el lado este al oeste, Isacar tendrá una porción. 26 Contiguo a la frontera de Isacar desde el lado este al oeste, Zabulón tendrá una porción. 27 Hacia el sur del límite de Zabulón, corriendo desde el lado este al lado oeste, será la tierra de Gad, una porción. 28 El límite sur de Gad se extenderá desde Tamar hasta la aguas de Meriba de Cades, y más lejos hasta el arroyo de Egipto, y entonces hasta el Gran Mar. 29 Esta es la tierra por la cual echarán suertes; ella será la herencia de las tribus de Israel. Estas serán sus porciones. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios. 30 Estas serán las salidas de la ciudad: en el lado norte, la cual medirá 4, 500 codos de largo, 31 habrá tres puertas, con nombres de las tribus de Israel: una puerta por Rubén, una puerta por Judá y una puerta por Leví. 32 En el lado este, la cual medirá 4, 500 codos de largo, habrá tres puertas: una puerta por José, una puerta por Benjamín y una puerta por Dan. 33 En el lado este, la cual medirá 4, 500 codos de largo, habrá tres puertas: una puerta por Simeón, una puerta por Isacar y una puerta por Zabulón. 34 En el lado oeste, la cual medirá 4, 500 codos, habrá tres puertas: una puerta por Gad, una puerta por Aser y una puerta por Neftalí. 35 La distancia alrededor de la ciudad será de dieciocho mil codos; desde ese día en adelante, el nombre de la ciudad será el SEÑOR Está Allí."

Book: Daniel

Daniel

Chapter 1

1 En el tercer año del reinado de Joacim, rey de Judá, Nabucodonosor, rey de Babilonia, vino a Jerusalén y rodeó la ciudad para impedir todos los suministros hacia ella. 2 El Señor le dio la victoria a Nabucodonosor sobre el rey Joacim, rey de Judá, y parte de los objetos sagrados de la casa de Dios. Él los trajo a la tierra de Babilonia, a la casa de su dios, y colocó los objetos sagrados en la casa del tesoro de su dios. 3 El rey habló a Aspenaz, su oficial principal, a que trajera a algunos del pueblo de Israel, tanto de la familia real como de la nobleza, 4 hombres jóvenes sin tacha, atractivos en apariencia, diestros en toda sabiduría, llenos de conocimiento, entendimiento, y calificados para trabajar en el palacio del rey. Él debía enseñarles la literatura y la lengua de los babilonios. 5 El rey les repartió una porción diaria de sus manjares y algo del vino que él bebía. Estos hombres jóvenes serían enseñados por tres años, y después de eso, ellos servirían al rey. 6 Entre éstos estaban Daniel, Ananías, Misael y Azarías, algunos del pueblo de Judá. 7 El oficial principal les dio nombres: a Daniel lo llamó Beltsasar; a Ananías lo llamó Sadrac, a Misael lo llamó Mesac, y a Azarías lo llamó Abed Nego. 8 Pero Daniel decidió en su mente que él no se contaminaría con los manjares del rey ni con el vino que él bebía. Así que le pidió permiso al oficial principal para no contaminarse. 9 Dios hizo que se ganara el afecto del oficial principal. 10 El oficial principal le dijo a Danel: "Yo le tengo miedo a mi amo el rey. Él ha ordenado qué ustedes deben tener comida y bebida. ¿Por qué debe él ver que ustedes se vean peor que los demás jóvenes de su edad? El rey podría mandar a cortar mi cabeza debido a ustedes." 11 Entonces Daniel le habló al mayordomo, a quien el oficial principal había asignado sobre Daniel, Ananías, Misael y Azarías. 12 Él dijo: "Por favor, prueba a tus siervos por diez días. Dános solamente algunos vegetales para comer y agua para beber. 13 Luego compara nuestra apariencia con la apariencia de los jóvenes que comen los manjares del rey, y trátanos, a tus siervos, basado en lo que veas." 14 Entonces el mayordomo acordó con él hacer esto, y los probó por diez días. 15 Al cabo de los diez días la apariencia de ellos era más saludable, y estaban mejor nutridos que todos los hombres jóvenes que comían de los manjares del rey. 16 Así que el mayordomo se llevaba sus manjares y su vino y les dio sólo vegetales. 17 En cuanto a estos cuatro jóvenes, Dios les dio conocimiento y entendimiento en toda literatura y sabiduría, y Daniel pudo comprender toda clase de visiones y sueños. 18 Al terminar el tiempo establecido por el rey para hacerlos entrar, el oficial principal los trajo ante Nabucodonosor. 19 El rey habló con ellos, y entre todo el grupo no había ninguno que se comparara con Daniel, Ananías, Misael y Azarías. Ellos estaban de pie delante del rey, listos para servirle. 20 En toda pregunta de sabiduría y entendimiento que el rey les hizo, los encontró diez veces mejor que todos los magos y aquellos que decían hablar con los muertos, quienes estaban en todo su reino. 21 Daniel estuvo allí hasta el primer año del Rey Ciro.

Chapter 2

1 En el segundo año del reinado de Nabucodonosor, él tuvo sueños. Su mente estaba atribulada, y no podía dormir. 2 Entonces el rey convocó a los magos y a los que decían hablar con los muertos. También llamó a los hechiceros y a los sabios. Él quería que le hablaran de sus sueños. Así que entraron y estuvieron de pie delante del rey. 3 El rey les dijo: "He tenido un sueño, y mi mente está inquieta por saber qué significa el sueño." 4 Entonces los sabios le hablaron al rey en arameo: "¡Larga vida al rey!
Díganos el sueño y nosotros sus siervos revelaremos el significado." 5 El rey respondió a los sabios: "Este asunto ha sido determinado. Si ustedes no me revelan el sueño y lo interpretan, sus cuerpos serán despedazados y sus casas se convertirán en montones de basura. 6 Pero si me dicen el sueño y su significado, recibirán regalos de mí parte, una recompensa, y gran honor. Así que, díganme el sueño y su significado." 7 Ellos respondieron otra vez y dijeron: "Que el rey nos diga a sus siervos el sueño y nosotros le diremos el significado." 8 El rey contestó: "Sé ciertamente que ustedes quieren más tiempo porque ven lo firme que es mi decisión sobre esto. 9 Pero si no me dicen el sueño, hay solo una sentencia. Ustedes han decidido preparar palabras falsas y engañosas para decirme hasta que cambie de parecer. Así que, díganme el sueño, y así yo sabré que me lo podrán interpretar." 10 Los sabios respondieron al rey: "No hay ningún hombre sobre la tierra que pueda cumplir con la demanda del rey. No hay rey grande y poderoso que haya demandado tal cosa de ningún mago, o de nadie que pretenda hablar con los muertos, o de un hombre sabio. 11 Lo que demanda el rey es difícil, y no hay nadie que pueda contárselo al rey, excepto los dioses, y ellos no viven entre los humanos." 12 Esto puso al rey enojado y muy furioso, y dio una orden para destruir a todos los que eran conocidos por su sabiduría en Babilonia. 13 Así que salió la ley de que todos los que eran conocidos por su sabiduría serían llevados a la muerte. Debido a esta ley, buscaron a Daniel y a sus amigos para llevarlos a la muerte. 14 Entonces Daniel respondió con prudencia
y discreción a Arioc, el comandante de seguridad del rey, que había venido a matar a todos los que eran conocidos como sabios en Babilonia. 15 Daniel le preguntó al comandante del rey: "¿Por qué es tan urgente el decreto del rey?" Así que Arioc le contó a Daniel lo que había sucedido. 16 Entonces Daniel entró y pidió una cita con el rey para poderle presentar la interpretación. 17 Daniel fue a su casa y le explicó a Ananías, Misael y Azarías lo que había sucedido. 18 Él los motivó a buscar misericordia del Dios del cielo acerca de este misterio a fin de que ninguno de ellos fuera asesinado con el resto de los hombres que eran conocidos como sabios en Babilonia. 19 Esa noche el misterio fue revelado a Daniel en una visión. Entonces Daniel alabó al Dios del cielo 20 y dijo: "Alaben el nombre de Dios por siempre y para siempre; pues la sabiduría y el poder le pertenecen. 21 Él cambia los tiempos y las temporadas; Él remueve los reyes y coloca los reyes en sus tronos. Él da sabiduría a los sabios y conocimiento a aquellos que tienen entendimiento. 22 Él revela las cosas profundas y escondidas porque Él conoce lo que está en la oscuridad, y la luz vive con Él. 23 Dios de mis antepasados, yo te doy gracias y te alabo por la sabiduría y el poder que me diste. Ahora Tú me has dado a conocer lo que pedimos de Ti; Tú nos diste a conocer el asunto que concierne al rey." 24 Entonces Daniel fue a ver a Arioc al que el rey nombró para matar a todo sabio en Babilonia. Y le dijo: "No mates a los hombres sabios en Babilonia. Llévame al rey y le mostraré la interpretación de su sueño." 25 Entonces Arioc trajo rápidamente a Daniel delante del rey y dijo: "He encontrado entre los exiliados de Judá a un hombre que revelará el significado del sueño del rey." 26 El rey dijo a Daniel, a quien se llamaba Beltsasar: "¿Eres capaz de decirme el sueño que yo vi y su significado?" 27 Daniel respondió al rey y dijo: "El misterio del cual el rey ha preguntado no puede ser revelado por aquellos que tienen sabiduría, ni por los que dicen que hablan con los muertos, ni por magos, ni por astrólogos. 28 Sin embargo, hay un Dios que vive en los cielos, que revela misterios, y Él le ha dado a conocer a usted, Rey Nabucodonosor, lo que sucederá en los días por venir. Este fue su sueño y las visiones de su mente mientras dormía en su cama. 29 En cuanto a usted, rey, sus sueños eran acerca de cosas por venir, y el único que revela misterios le ha dado a conocer lo que está por suceder. 30 Este misterio me fue revelado a mi no porque tenga mayor sabiduría que cualquier otra persona viva. Este misterio me fue revelado a mí para que usted, rey, pueda comprender el significado, y para que pueda conocer los pensamientos profundos dentro de usted. 31 Rey, usted miró y vio una estatua grande. Esta estatua, que era muy poderosa y brillante, estaba en pie delante de usted. Su brillo era aterrarrador. 32
La cabeza de la estatua estaba hecha de oro fino. Su pecho y sus brazos eran de plata. Su parte del medio y sus muslos estaban hechos de bronce, 33 y sus piernas estaban hechas de hierro. Sus pies estaban hechos en parte de hierro y en parte de barro. 34 Usted miró y una piedra fue cortada, aunque no por manos humanas, y golpeó la estatua en sus pies de hierro y barro, y los destrozó. 35 Entonces el hierro, el barro, el bronce, la plata, y el oro, a la misma vez, fueron rotos en pedazos y se hicieron como la cascarilla en los pisos de trillar en el verano. El viento se los llevó y no quedaron trazos de ellos. Pero la piedra que golpeó la estatua se convirtió en una gran montaña y llenó toda la tierra. 36 Este fue su sueño. Ahora le diremos al rey el significado. 37 Usted, rey, es rey de los reyes a quien el Dios del cielo le ha dado el reino, el poder, la fortaleza, y el honor. 38 Él ha puesto en su mano el lugar donde viven los seres humanos. Él le ha entregado los animales de los campos y las aves de los cielos en sus manos, y Él le ha hecho a usted gobernar sobre todos ellos. Usted es la cabeza de oro de la estatua. 39 Después de usted, otro reino se levantará que es inferior a usted, y aún un tercer reino de bronce gobernará sobre toda la tierra. 40 Habrá un cuarto reino, fuerte como el hierro, porque el hierro rompe otras cosas en pedazos y destroza todo. Destrozará todas estas cosas y las aplastará. 41 Tal como usted vio, los pies y los dedos de los pies fueron hechos en parte de barro horneado y parte fueron hechos de hierro, así que será un reino dividido; algo de la fuerza del hierro estará en él, tal como usted vio el hierro mezclado con el barro blando. 42 Así como los dedos de los pies fueron hechos en parte de hierro y parte de barro, así el reino será fuerte en parte y frágil en parte. 43 Como usted vio el hierro mezclado con barro blando, así el pueblo será una mezcla; ellos no se mantendrán juntos, así como el hierro no se mezcla con el barro. 44 En los días de esos reyes, el Dios del cielo establecerá un reino que jamás será destruido, ni tampoco será conquistado por otro pueblo. Romperá los otros reinos en pedazos y acabará con todos ellos, y permanecerá para siempre. 45 Tal como usted vio, una piedra fue cortada de la montaña, pero no por manos humanas. Rompió el hierro, el bronce, el barro, la plata y el oro en pedazos. El gran Dios le ha dado a conocer a usted, rey, lo que sucederá después de esto. El sueño es verdadero y esta interpretación es confiable." 46 El Rey Nabucodonosor cayó sobre su rostro delante de Daniel y lo honró; él ordenó que se hiciera una ofrenda y que el incienso fuera ofrecido a él. 47 El rey dijo a Daniel: "Ciertamente tu Dios es el Dios de los dioses, el Señor de los reyes, y Aquel que revela misterios, pues has sido capaz de revelar este misterio." 48 Entonces el rey honró altamente a Daniel y le dio muchos regalos maravillosos. Lo hizo gobernante sobre toda la provincia de Babilonia. Daniel vino a ser el principal gobernante sobre los hombres más sabios de Babilonia. 49 Daniel le hizo un pedido al rey, y el rey nombró a Sadrac, Mesac y Abed Nego para ser administradores sobre la provincia de Babilonia. Pero Daniel permaneció en el palacio del rey.

Chapter 3

1 El Rey Nabucodonosor hizo una estatua de oro que era 27 metros de alto y dos metros con setetenta centímetros de ancho. Él la levantó en el Llano de Dura en la provincia de Babilonia. 2 Entonces Nabucodonosor envió mensajes para reunir a los gobernadores de provincias, los regionales, y los locales, junto con los consejeros, tesoreros, jueces, magistrados, y todos los altos oficiales de las provincias para venir a la dedicación de la estatua que él había levantado. 3 Entonces los gobernadores de provincias, los regionales y los locales, junto con los consejeros, tesoreros, jueces, magistrados y todos los altos oficiales de las provincias se reunieron para la dedicación de la estatua que Nabucodonosor había levantado. Ellos estuvieron de pie delante de ella. 4 Entonces el mensajero del rey gritó fuertemente: "Se les ordena, pueblos, naciones y lenguas, 5 que en el momento en que ustedes oigan el sonido de los cuernos, flautas, cítaras, liras, arpas y pipas, y toda clase de música, tienen que inclinarse y postrarse hacia la estatua dorada que el Rey Nabucodonosor ha levantado. 6 Cualquiera que no se incline y adore, en ese mismo momento, será lanzado en un horno abrasador." 7 Así que cuando todos los pueblos oyeron el sonido de los cuernos, flautas, cítaras, liras, arpas, y pipas, y toda clase de música, todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas cayeron y se postraron hacia la estatua dorada que Nabucodonosor el rey había levantado. 8 En este tiempo ciertos caldeos vinieron y trajeron acusaciones en contra de los judíos. 9 Ellos le dijeron a Nabucodonosor el rey: "¡Qué viva el rey! 10 Usted, rey, ha hecho un decreto que toda persona que oiga el sonido de los cuernos, flautas, cítaras, liras, arpas, y pipas, y toda clase de música, tiene que inclinarse y postrarse hacia la estatua de oro. 11 Quienquiera que no se postre y adore tiene que ser echado a un horno abrasador. 12 Hay ciertos judíos a quienes usted ha nombrado sobre los asuntos de la provincia de Babilonia; sus nombres son Sadrac, Mesac y Abed Nego. Estos hombres, rey, no le hacen caso. Ellos ni adoran ni sirven a sus dioses, ni se postran delante la estatua de oro que usted ha levantado." 13 Entonces Nabucodonosor, lleno de enojo y furia, mandó que les trajeran a Sadrac, Mesac y Abed Nego. Así que trajeron a estos hombres delante del rey. 14 Nabucodonosor les dijo: "¿Han decidido, Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego, que no adorarán mis dioses ni se postrarán ante la estatua dorada que yo he levantado? 15 Ahora, si ustedes están listos a inclinarse y postrarse ante la estatua que he hecho, cuando oigan el sonido de los cuernos, flautas, cítaras, liras, arpas, y pipas, y toda clase de música, todo estará bien. Pero si ustedes no adoran, serán echados inmediatamente a un horno abrasador. ¿Quién es el dios que puede rescatarlos de mis manos?" 16 Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego le contestaron al rey: "Nabucodonosor, nosotros no tenemos ninguna necesidad de contestarle sobre este asunto. 17 Si es que hay una respuesta, es que nuestro Dios al cual servimos, es capaz de guardarnos seguros del horno abrasador, y Él nos rescatará de su mano, rey. 18 Pero si no, que se le haga saber a usted, rey, que nosotros no adoraremos sus dioses, y no nos postraremos delante de la estatua de oro que usted ha levantado." 19 Entonces Nabucodonosor se llenó de furia; la semblanza en su rostro cambió en contra de Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego. Él mandó que el horno debiera calentarse siete veces más caliente de lo que normalmente se calentaba. 20 Entonces mandó que algunos hombres muy fuertes de su ejército amarraran a Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego, y que los lanzaran al horno abrasador. 21 Ellos fueron amarrados aún vestidos con sus mantos, túnicas, turbantes, y otras ropas, y fueron lanzados al horno abrasador. 22 Debido a que el mandato del rey fue estrictamente seguido, y el horno estaba muy caliente, las llamas mataron a los hombres que llevaron a Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego. 23 Estos tres hombres, Sadrac, Mesac y Abed Nego, cayeron dentro del horno abrasador aún estando amarrados. 24 Entonces Nabucodonosor el rey se maravilló y se puso de pie rápidamente. Él le preguntó a sus consejeros: "¿No lanzamos nosotros a tres hombres amarrados al fuego?" Ellos respondieron al rey: "Ciertamente, rey." 25 Él dijo: "Pero yo veo a cuatro hombres que no están amarrados, paseando dentro del fuego, y no están heridos. La brillantez del cuarto es como un hijo de los dioses." 26 Entonces Nabucodonosor se acercó a la puerta del horno abrasador y gritó: "Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego, siervos de Dios Altísimo, ¡salgan! ¡Vengan aquí!" Entonces Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego salieron del fuego. 27 Los gobernadores de las provincias, los regionales, otros gobernadores, y los consejeros del rey que se habían reunido vieron a estos hombres. El fuego no les había hecho daño a sus cuerpos; el cabello en sus cabezas no se había chamuscado; sus mantos no estaban dañados, y no hubo olor a fuego en ellos. 28 Nabucodonosor dijo: "Alabemos al Dios de Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego, quien ha enviado a Su mensajero y ha dado su mensaje a sus siervos. Ellos confiaron en Él cuando ignoraron mi mandato, y entregaron sus cuerpos antes que adorar o postrarse ante cualquier dios excepto su Dios. 29 Por lo tanto, yo hago una ley de que todo pueblo, nación o lengua que hable cualquier cosa en contra del Dios de Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego, deberá ser despedazado, y sus casas deben convertirse en montones de basura porque no hay otro dios que puede salvar así." 30 Entonces el rey promovió a Sadrac, Mesac, y Abed Nego en la provincia de Babilonia.

Chapter 4

1 El Rey Nabucodonosor envió este decreto a todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas que habitaban en la tierra: "Que aumente su paz. 2 Me ha parecido bien a mí contarles acerca de las señales y maravillas que el Altísimo ha hecho por mí. 3 ¡Cuán grandes son sus señales, y cuán poderosas son sus maravillas! Su reino es un reino eterno, y su dominio dura de generación a generación." 4 Yo, Nabucodonosor, estaba viviendo felizmente en mi casa, y estaba disfrutando de la prosperidad en mi palacio. 5 Pero un sueño que tuve me dio miedo. Mientras estaba acostado allí, las imágenes que yo vi y las visiones en mi mente me perturbaron. 6 Así que di un decreto para que se me trajeran ante mí todos los hombres de Babilonia que tenían sabiduría para que pudieran interpretar el sueño por mí. 7 Entonces vinieron los magos, aquellos que clamaban hablar con los muertos, los hombres sabios, y los astrólogos. Yo les conté el sueño, pero ellos no pudieron interpretármelo. 8 Pero a lo último entró Daniel, el que se llama Beltsasar como el nombre de mi dios, y en quien está el espíritu de los dioses santos, y yo le conté el sueño. 9 "Beltsasar, jefe de los magos, yo sé que el espíritu de los dioses santos está en ti y que ningún misterio es demasiado difícil para ti. Dime lo que yo vi en mi sueño y qué significa. 10 Estas son las visiones que yo vi en mi mente mientras estaba acostado en mi cama: Yo miré, y había un árbol en el centro de la tierra, y su altura fue muy grande. 11 El árbol creció y se hizo fuerte. Su parte más alta llegaba a los cielos, y podía verse hasta los fines de la tierra entera. 12 Sus hojas eran bellas, su fruto era abundante, y en él había comida para todos. Los animales salvajes encontraban sombra debajo de él, y las aves de los cielos vivían en sus ramas. Todas las criaturas vivientes fueron alimentadas de él. 13 Yo vi en mi mente mientras yacía en mi cama, y un mensajero santo descendió de los cielos. 14 El gritó y dijo: 'Derriben el árbol y córtenle sus ramas, arránquenle sus hojas, y desparramen su fruto. Que huyan los animales de debajo de él y que las aves vuelen de sus ramas. 15 Dejen el tocón de sus raíces en la tierra, atado con una franja de hierro y bronce, en el medio de la hierba tierna del campo. Déjenlo mojado con el rocío de los cielos. Dejen que viva con los animales entre las plantas sobre la tierra. 16 Dejen que sea cambiada su mente de la mente del hombre, y dejen que la mente de un animal le sea dada hasta que siete años pasen. 17 Esta decisión es por el decreto que fue informado por el mensajero. Es una decisión tomada por los santos para que así, aquellos que están vivos puedan saber que el Altísimo gobierna sobre los reinos de los pueblos y se los da a cualquiera a quien Él quiera poner sobre ellos, aun a los hombres más humildes.' 18 Yo, Rey Nabucodonosor, tuve este sueño. Ahora tú, Beltsasar, dime la interpretación, porque ninguno de los hombres con sabiduría en mi reino me lo puede interpretar. Pero tú lo puedes hacer, porque el espíritu de los santos dioses está en ti." 19 Entonces Daniel, quien también tenía por nombre Beltsasar, se turbó grandemente por un rato, y sus pensamientos lo alarmaron. El rey dijo: "Beltsasar, no dejes que el sueño o su interpretación te alarmen." Beltsasar respondió: "Mi amo, que el sueño sea para aquellos que lo odian a usted; que su interpretación sea para sus enemigos. 20 El árbol que usted vio, el cual creció y se hizo fuerte, y cuya parte mas alta alcanzó hasta los cielos, y que se podía ver hasta los fines de la tierra entera, 21 cuyas hojas eran hermosas, y cuyo fruto era abundante, de manera que en él había comida para todos, y debajo de él los animales del campo encontraban sombra, y en el cual las aves de los cielos vivían, 22 este árbol es usted, rey, usted que ha crecido tan fuerte. Su grandeza ha crecido y alcanza hasta los cielos, y su autoridad llega hasta los fines de la tierra. 23 Usted, rey, vio un mensajero santo descendiendo del cielo y diciendo: "Derriba el árbol y destrúyelo, pero deja el tocón de sus raíces en la tierra, atado con una franja de hierro y bronce, en el medio de la hierba tierna del campo. Que esté mojado con el rocío de los cielos. Deja que viva con los animales salvajes en los campos hasta que pasen siete años.' 24 Esta es la interpretación, rey. Es un decreto del Altísimo que le ha llegado a usted, mi amo, el rey. 25 Usted será echado de entre los hombres, y usted vivirá con los animales salvajes en los campos. Se le obligará a usted comer hierba como un buey, y usted estará mojado con el rocío de los cielos, y siete años pasarán hasta que usted reconozca que el Altísimo gobierna sobre los reinos de los pueblos y que Él los da a cualquiera que Él desee. 26 Así como fue ordenado dejar el tocón de las raíces del árbol, de esta manera su reino se le devolverá a usted desde el momento en que usted aprenda que el cielo gobierna. 27 Por lo tanto, rey, permita que mi consejo sea aceptable a usted. Deje de pecar y haga lo que es correcto. Aléjese de sus iniquidades, mostrando misericordia a los oprimidos, y puede ser que su prosperidad sea extendida." 28 Todas estas cosas le sucedieron al Rey Nabucodonosor. 29 Doce meses después, él estaba caminando en el techo del palacio real en Babilonia, 30 y él dijo: "¿No es ésta la gran Babilonia, la cual yo he construido para mi residencia real, para la gloria de mi majestad?" 31 Mientras las palabras estaban todavía en los labios del rey, una voz vino del cielo: "Rey Nabucodonosor, se le anuncia a usted que este reino se le ha quitado a usted. 32 Usted será alejado de la gente, y su hogar será con los animales salvajes en los campos. A usted se le obligará comer hierba como a un buey. Siete años pasarán hasta que usted reconozca que el Altísimo gobierna sobre los reinos de los pueblos y Él los da a quienquera que él desee." 33 Este decreto contra Nabucodonosor fue llevado a cabo inmediatamente. Él fue echado lejos de la gente. Él comió hierba como un buey, y su cuerpo estaba mojado con el rocío de los cielos. Su cabello creció tan largo como las plumas de águilas, y sus uñas llegaron a ser como las garras de las aves. 34 Al final de los días, yo, Nabucodonosor, levanté mis ojos hacia el cielo, y mi cordura me fue devuelta. "Yo alabé al Altísimo, y yo honré y glorifiqué al que vive para siempre. Porque su reinado es un reinado eterno, y su reino permanece desde todas las generaciones hasta todas las generaciones. 35 Todos los habitantes de la tierra son considerados por Él como nada; Él hace entre el ejército del cielo y los habitantes de la tierra según su voluntad. Nadie lo puede detener ni retar. Nadie le puede decir: "¿Por qué has hecho esto?" 36 A la misma vez que mi cordura regresó a mí, mi majestad y esplendor me regresaron para la gloria de mi reino. Mis consejeros y nobles buscaron mi favor. Me fue devuelto mi trono, y aun más grandeza me fue dada. 37 Ahora yo, Nabucodonosor, alabo, ensalzo, y honro al Rey del cielo, porque todas sus obras son correctas, y sus caminos son justos. Él puede humillar a aquellos que caminan en su propio orgullo.

Chapter 5

1 Belsasar el rey hizo una gran fiesta para mil de sus nobles, y bebió vino frente a los mil de ellos. 2 Mientras Belsasar saboreaba el vino, él dio órdenes para que se le trajeran los contenedores hechos de oro o plata que Nabucodonosor su padre, había sacado del templo en Jerusalén, de los cuales él, sus nobles, y sus esposas y concubinas pudieran beber. 3 Los sirvientes trajeron los contenedores de oro que se habían sacado del templo, la casa de Dios, en Jerusalén. El rey, sus nobles, y sus esposas y concubinas bebieron de ellos. 4 Ellos bebieron el vino y alabaron sus ídolos hechos de oro y plata, bronce, hierro, madera, y piedra. 5 En ese momento los dedos de una mano humana aparecieron frente al candelabro y escribieron en la pared de yeso en el palacio del rey. El rey pudo ver parte de la mano mientras escribía. 6 Entonces el rostro del rey cambió y sus pensamientos lo asustaron; sus extremidades no lo pudieron sostener, y sus rodillas chocaban entre sí. 7 El rey gritó una orden para hacer entrar a aquellos que decían que hablaban con los muertos, los hombres sabios, y los astrólogos. El rey les dijo a aquellos conocidos por su sabiduría en Babilonia: "Quienquiera que explique este escrito y su significado será vestido de púrpura y tendrá una cadena de oro alrededor de su cuello. Él tendrá la autoridad del tercero en mando en el reino." 8 Entonces todos los hombres del rey que eran conocidos por su sabiduría entraron, pero ellos no pudieron leer el escrito ni explicar su significado al rey. 9 Entonces el Rey Belsasar se alarmó grandemente y la mirada en su rostro cambió. Sus nobles se quedaron perplejos. 10 Ahora la reina entró a la casa del banquete debido a lo que el rey y los nobles habían dicho. La reina dijo: "¡Rey, viva para siempre! No deje que sus pensamientos lo inquieten. No deje que la mirada en su rostro cambie. 11 Hay un hombre en su reino que posee el espíritu de los dioses santos. En los días de su padre, la luz, el entendimiento y la sabiduría como la sabiduría de los dioses fueron hallados en él. El Rey Nabucodonosor, su padre el rey, lo hizo jefe de los magos, así también como jefe de los que hablan con los muertos, de los hombres sabios, y de los astrólogos. 12 Un espíritu excelente, conocimiento, entendimiento, interpretación de sueños, explicación de adivinanzas y solución de problemas; todas estas cualidades fueron halladas en este hombre Daniel, a quien el rey llamó Beltsasar. Ahora llame a Daniel y él le dirá el significado de lo que ha sido escrito." 13 Entonces Daniel fue traído ante el rey. El rey le dijo: "Tú eres ese Daniel, uno de entre el pueblo de los exiliados de Judá, a quien mi padre, el rey, sacó de Judá. 14 Yo he escuchado acerca de ti, que el espíritu de los dioses está en ti, y que luz, entendimiento y una excelente sabiduría se hallan en ti. 15 Ahora los hombres conocidos por sabiduría y aquellos que claman hablar con los muertos han sido traídos delante de mí para leer este escrito y darme a conocer su interpretación, pero ellos no me pudieron dar a conocer su interpretación. 16 Yo he escuchado que tú puedes dar interpretaciones y resolver problemas. Ahora, si tú puedes leer el escrito y decirme su significado, tú serás vestido de púrpura y tendrás una cadena de oro colocada alrededor de tu cuello, y tendrás la autoridad del tercero en mando en el reino." 17 Entonces Daniel contestó delante del rey: "Que sus regalos sean para usted mismo, y déle sus recompensas a otra persona. Sin embargo, yo le leeré el escrito, rey, y le diré su significado. 18 En cuanto a usted, rey, el Dios Altísimo le dio a Nabucodonosor, su padre, el reino, la grandeza, el honor y la majestad. 19 Debido a la grandeza que Dios le dio, todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas temblaron y le temieron. Él mandó a matar a aquellos que él quería que murieran, y dejó vivir a los que él quería que vivieran. Él exaltó a los que él deseaba, y humilló a los que él deseaba. 20 Pero cuando su corazón fue arrogante y su espíritu fue endurecido de manera que actuó pretenciosamente, él fue derribado de su trono real, y le quitaron su majestad. 21 Fue echado de la humanidad, tuvo la mente de un animal, y vivió con los asnos salvajes. Comió hierba como un buey. Su cuerpo estaba mojado con el rocío de los cielos hasta que aprendió que el Dios Altísimo gobierna sobre los reinos de los pueblos y que él coloca sobre ellos a cualquiera que él desea. 22 Usted, su hijo, Belsasar, no ha humillado su corazón, aunque usted sabía todo esto. 23 Usted se ha levantado en contra del Señor del cielo. De su casa le han traído a usted los contenedores de los cuales usted, sus nobles, sus esposas y sus concubinas bebieron vino, y usted alabó los ídolos hechos de plata y oro, bronce, hierro, madera y piedra, ídolos que no ven, oyen, ni saben nada. Usted no ha honrado al Dios que sostiene su aliento en su mano y quien conoce todos sus caminos. 24 Entonces Dios envió una mano de su presencia y este escrito fue hecho. 25 Esto es el escrito que fue hecho: 'Mene, Mene, Tekel, y Parsin.' 26 Esto es su significado: 'Mene,' 'Dios ha contado su reino y lo ha traído a su final.' 27 'Tekel,' 'Usted fue pesado en la balanza y es hallado falto.' 28 'Parsin,' 'Su reino está dividido y es entregado a los medos y persas.'" 29 Entonces Belsasar dio una orden, y vistieron a Daniel de púrpura. Una cadena de oro fue puesta alrededor de su cuello, y el rey hizo una proclama acerca de él de que tendría la autoridad del tercero en mando en el reino. 30 Esa noche Belsasar, el rey de Babilonia, fue asesinado, 31 y Darío, el Medo, recibió el reino cuando tenía cerca de sesenta y dos años.

Chapter 6

1 Le agradó a Darío nombrar sobre el reino, a 120 gobernadores de provincia quienes gobernarían sobre todo el reino. 2 Sobre ellos había tres administradores principales, y Daniel fue uno de ellos. Estos administradores principales fueron nombrados para que pudieran supervisar a los gobernadores de provincia, para que el rey no sufriera ninguna pérdida. 3 Daniel fue distinguido sobre los otros administradores principales y los gobernadores de provincia, porque tenía un espíritu extraordinario. El rey estaba planificando ponerlo a él sobre todo el reino. 4 Entonces los otros administradores principales y los gobernadores de provincia buscaron errores en el trabajo que Daniel hacía para el reino, pero no pudieron encontrar ninguna corrupción o falta en su deber porque él era fiel. Ningún error o negligencia fueron hallados en él. 5 Entonces estos hombres dijeron: "Nosotros no podemos encontrar ninguna razón para quejarnos contra este Daniel, a menos que encontremos algo contra él respecto a la ley de su Dios." 6 Entonces estos administradores y gobernadores trajeron un plan delante del rey. Ellos le dijeron: "Rey Darío, ¡viva usted para siempre! 7 Todos los administradores principales del reino, los gobernadores regionales, y los gobernadores de provincias, los consejeros, y los gobernadores han consultado entre sí y han decidido que usted, el rey, debe emitir un decreto y hacerlo cumplir, que cualquiera que haga un pedido a cualquier dios u hombre por treinta días, excepto a usted, rey, esa persona deberá ser lanzada en el foso de los leones. 8 Ahora, Rey, emita un decreto y firme el documeto de manera que no pueda ser cambiado, según las leyes de los medos y persas, para que no pueda ser revocado." 9 Así que el Rey Darío firmó el documeto convirtiendo el decreto en una ley. 10 Cuando Daniel supo que el documento había sido firmado convirtiéndolo en ley, él entró a su casa (ahora sus ventanas en su aposento alto estaban abiertas hacia Jerusalén), y se arrodilló, como lo hacía tres veces al día, y oró y dio gracias delante de su Dios, como lo había hecho antes. 11 Entonces estos hombres que habían hecho la trama entre sí vieron a Daniel hacer pedidos y buscar ayuda de Dios. 12 Entonces se acercaron al rey y hablaron con él acerca de su decreto: "¿No hizo usted un decreto de que todo el que haga un pedido a cualquier dios o ser humano durante los próximos treinta días, excepto a usted, rey, deberá ser lanzado al foso de los leones?" El rey contestó: "El asunto está decidido, según la ley de los medos y persas; no puede ser revocado." 13 Entonces ellos le respondieron al rey: "Esa persona, Daniel, quien es una de las personas del exilio de Judá, no le hace caso a usted, rey, ni al decreto que usted ha firmado. Él ora a su Dios tres veces al día." 14 Cuando el rey oyó esto, se afligió terriblemente, y concentró su mente para rescatar a Daniel de este fallo. Él trabajó hasta la puesta del sol para tratar de salvar a Daniel. 15 Entonces estos hombres que habían hecho este complot se reunieron con el rey y le dijeron: "Sepa usted, rey, que es una ley de los medos y persas, que ningún decreto o estatuto que el rey emite puede ser cambiado." 16 Entonces el rey dio una orden, y trajeron a Daniel, y lo lanzaron al foso de los leones. El rey le dijo a Daniel: "Que tu Dios, a Quien tú sirves continuamente, te rescate." 17 Una piedra fue traída sobre la entrada al foso, y el rey la selló con su propio anillo grabado y con los anillos grabados de sus nobles para que nada pudiera ser cambiado respecto a Daniel. 18 Entonces el rey fue a su palacio y pasó la noche ayunando. Ningún entretenimiento fue traído delante de él, y el sueño se le escapó. 19 Entonces a la salida del sol, el rey se levantó y rápidamente fue al foso de los leones. 20 Mientras se acercaba al foso, él llamó a Daniel con una voz triste, diciéndole a Daniel: "Daniel, siervo del Dios viviente, ¿ha podido tu Dios, a quien tú sirves continuamente, salvarte de los leones?" 21 Entonces le dijo Daniel al rey: "¡Rey, viva para siempre! 22 Mi Dios ha enviado a su mensajero y ha cerrado las bocas de los leones, y no me han lastimado. Porque fui hallado inocente delante de Él y también delante de usted, rey, y yo no le he hecho ningún daño a usted." 23 Entonces el rey se alegró mucho. Él dio una orden para que sacaran a Daniel del foso. Así que Daniel fue sacado del foso. No le encontraron ningún daño en él, porque él había confiado en su Dios. 24 El rey dio una orden, y le trajeron a aquellos hombres que habían acusado a Daniel y los lanzaron al foso de los leones, a ellos, sus niños y sus esposas. Antes de que llegaran al piso, los leones se apoderaron de ellos y rompieron todos sus huesos en pedazos. 25 Entonces el Rey Darío escribió a todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas que moraban en toda la tierra: "Aumente la paz sobre ustedes. 26 Por la presente, yo hago un decreto de que en todo el dominio de mi reino, tiemblen y teman los hombres ante el Dios de Daniel, porque El es el Dios viviente y vive para siempre, y su reino no será destruido; su dominio será hasta el final. 27 Él nos guarda y nos rescata, y hace señales y maravillas en el cielo y en la tierra; Él ha guardado a Daniel de la fuerza de los leones." 28 Así que Daniel prosperó durante el reinado de Darío y durante el reinado de Ciro el Persa.

Aquí "espíritu" se refiere a Daniel. Esto significa que él era inusualmente capaz. Traducción Alterna: "él era una persona excepcional"

extraordinario
" impresionante" o "excelente"

ponerlo a él sobre
" darle a él autoridad sobre" o "ponerlo a cargo de"

Daniel 6:4

Entonces los otros administradores principales y los gobernadores de provincia ... para el reino
Los otros administradores estaban celosos de Daniel. Esto puede ser hecho explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces los otros administradores principales y los gobernadores de provincia se pusieron celosos. Así que buscaban errores en los trabajos que Daniel hacía para el reino"

Ningunos errores o negligencia fueron hallados en él.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos no podían encontrar ningún error o negligencia en su trabajo."

negligencia
mirando demasiado tus responsabilidades para quejarnos contra este Daniel "para quejarnos sobre Daniel"

Daniel 6:6

trajeron un plan delante del rey
"presentaron un plan al rey"

¡viva usted para siempre!
Esta era una forma normal de saludar al rey.

por treinta días
"por 30 días"

cualquiera que haga un pedido
"cualquiera que haga una petición"

esa persona deberá ser lanzada en el foso de los leones Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "tus soldados deben tirar a esa persona en el foso de los leones"

Chapter 7

1 En el primer año de Belsasar, rey de Babilonia, Daniel tuvo un sueño y visiones en su mente mientras estaba acostado en su cama. Entonces él escribió lo que había visto en el sueño. Él escribió los eventos más importantes: 2 Daniel explicó: "En mi visión en la noche yo vi que los cuatro vientos del cielo estaban agitando el mar grande. 3 Cuatro animales grandes, cada uno diferente del otro, salieron del mar. 4 El primero era como un león pero tenía alas de águila. Mientras yo miraba, sus alas fueron arrancadas y el fue levantado de la tierra y obligado a pararse sobre dos patas, como un hombre. La mente de un hombre le fue dada. 5 Entonces allí había un segundo animal, como un oso, y estaba agachado; tenía tres costillas entre sus dientes dentro de su boca. Se le dijo: 'Levántate y devora mucha gente.' 6 Después de esto miré otra vez. Había allí otro animal, uno que parecía un leopardo. Sobre su espalda tenía cuatro alas, como alas de ave, y tenía cuatro cabezas. Le fue dada autoridad para gobernar. 7 Después de esto yo vi en mi sueño en la noche un cuarto animal, aterrador, espantoso, y muy fuerte. Este tenía grandes dientes de hierro; devoraba, despedazaba y pisoteaba bajo sus patas lo que quedaba. Este era diferente a los otros animales, y tenía diez cuernos. 8 Mientras yo estaba considerando los cuernos, miré y vi otro cuerno crecer entre ellos, un cuerno pequeño. Tres de los primeros cuernos fueron arrancados de raíz. Yo vi en este cuerno ojos, como los ojos de un hombre, y una boca que se estaba jactando acerca de grandes cosas. 9 Mientras yo miraba, tronos fueron colocados en su lugar, y el Anciano de Días tomó su asiento. Su vestidura era tan blanca como la nieve, y el cabello de su cabeza era como lana pura. Su trono era llamas de fuego, y sus ruedas eran fuego ardiendo. 10 Un río de fuego fluyó de delante de Él; millones Le servían, y cien millones estaban de pie delante de Él. La corte estaba en sesión, y los libros fueron abiertos. 11 Yo continué mirando a causa de las palabras jactanciosas dichas por el cuerno. Yo miré mientras mataban el animal y su cuerpo era destruído, y fue entregado para ser quemado. 12 En cuanto al resto de los cuatro animales, sus autoridadades para gobernar les fueron quitadas, pero sus vidas fueron prolongadas por un período de tiempo. 13 Esa noche en mis visiones, vi uno que venía con las nubes del cielo como un Hijo de Hombre; Él vino al Anciano de Días y fue presentado delante de Él. 14 Autoridad para gobernar y gloria y poder real les fueron dadas a él para que todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas le sirvieran. Su autoridad para gobernar es una autoridad eterna que no terminará, y su reino es uno que nunca será destruído. 15 En cuanto a mí, Daniel, mi espíritu estaba afligido dentro de mí, y las visiones que yo vi en mi mente me perturbaron. 16 Yo me acerqué a uno de los que estaban allí parados y le pedí que me mostrara el significado de estas cosas. 17 Estos grandes animales, cuatro en número, son cuatro reyes que se levantarán de la tierra. 18 Pero el pueblo santo del Altísimo recibirá el reino, y ellos lo poseerán para siempre y siempre. 19 Entonces yo quise saber más acerca del cuarto animal; era tan diferente a los demás y muy horrible con sus dientes de hierro y garras de bronce; devoraba, despedazaba y pisoteaba lo que quedaba con sus patas. 20 Yo quise saber acerca de los diez cuernos sobre su cabeza, y sobre el otro cuerno que creció, y ante el cual los otros tres cuernos cayeron. Yo quería saber acerca del cuerno que tenía ojos y acerca de la boca que se jactaba acerca de grandes cosas y que parecia ser más grande que sus compañeros. 21 Mientras yo miraba, este cuerno hizo la guerra en contra del pueblo santo y lo estaba derrotando 22 hasta que el Anciano de Días vino, y le hizo justica al pueblo santo del Altísimo. Entonces llegó el tiempo cuando el pueblo santo recibió el reino. 23 Esto es lo que esa persona dijo: 'En cuanto al cuarto animal, este será un cuarto reino sobre la tierra que será diferente a todos los otros reinos. Devorará toda la tierra, y la pisoteará y la despedazará. 24 En cuanto a los diez cuernos, de este reino se levantarán diez reyes, y otro se levantará después de ellos. Él será diferente a los anteriores, y conquistará a los tres reyes. 25 Él dirá palabras contra del Altísimo y oprimirá al pueblo santo del Altísimo. Él tratará de cambiar los festivales y la ley. Estas cosas le serán dadas a su mano por un año, dos años, y medio año. 26 Pero la corte estará en sesión, y ellos le quitarán su poder real para ser consumido y destruído en el fin. 27 El reino y el dominio, y la grandeza de los reinos debajo de todo el cielo, le será dados a las personas que pertenecen al pueblo santo del Altísimo. Su reino es un reino eterno, y todos los demás reinos le servirán y obedecerán.' 28 Aquí está el final del asunto. En cuanto a mí, Daniel, mis pensamientos me alarmaron grandemente y mi rostro cambió en apariencia. Pero yo guardé estas cosas para mí."

Daniel 7:1

Información General:
Los capítulos 7 y 8 no están en orden cronológico. Estos sucedieron mientras Belsasar aún era rey, antes de que gobernara Dario y Ciro eso fue discutido en el capítulo 6.

Información General:
En la visión de Daniel, él vió animales que eran símbolos de otras cosas. Mas tarde en la visión alguien explicó el significado de esos símbolos.

Belsasar
Este era el nombre del hijo de Nabucodonozor, Ver como escribiste este nombre en 5:1.

un sueño y visiones
Las palabras "sueños" y "visiones" ambas se refieren al mismo sueño que es descrito en este capítulo. Traducción Alterna: "visiones mientras él estaba soñando"

los cuatro vientos del cielo
"Vientos de todos lados" o "fuertes vientos de todas las cuatro direcciones"(UDB)

estaban agitando
"azotaron" o "agitaron" o causaron altas olas

Daniel 7:4

El primero era como un león pero tenía alas de águila
Esta era una criatura ssimbólica, y no un animal que existe. (Ver:|Symbolic Language)

sus alas fueron arrancadas y el fue levantado de la tierra y obligado a pararse sobre dos patas, como un hombre
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "alguien desgarró sus alas y la levantó del suelo y le hizo pararse como un ser humano" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

La mente de un hombre le fue dada
Aquí "mente" se refiere a pensar. Esto puede expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien le dió la habilidad de pensar como un ser humano" (Ver:|Metonymy and|Active or Passive)

un segundo animal, como un oso
Esto no es un oso real sino un animal simbólico que es similar a un oso. (Ver:|Symbolic Language)

Chapter 8

1 En el tercer año del reinado del Rey Belsasar, yo, Daniel, me apareció una visión (después de la que se me apareció al principio). 2 Yo vi en la visión, mientras miraba, que estaba yo en la fortaleza de Susa en la provincia de Elam. Yo vi en la visión que yo estaba al lado del Canal Ulai. 3 Yo levante la vista y vi delante de mí un carnero con dos cuernos, parado junto al canal. Un cuerno era más largo que el otro, pero el más largo crecía más lentamente que el más corto por cual, este le sobrepasó en longitud. 4 Yo vi el carnero arremetiendo al oeste, luego al norte, y luego al sur; ningún otro animal podía mantenerse de pie delante de él. Ninguno de ellos fue capaz de rescatar a nadie de su mano. Él hizo todo lo que quizo hacer, y se hizo grande. 5 Mientras yo pensaba en esto, vi un macho cabrío venir del oeste, quien iba atravesando toda la superficie de la tierra, corriendo rápido, no parecía tocar la tierra. El macho cabrío tenía un cuerno grande entre sus ojos. 6 Él fue hacía el carnero que tenía dos cuernos; yo había visto el carnero parado en la orilla del canal, y el macho cabrío corrió hacia el carnero con una furia poderosa. 7 Yo vi al macho cabrío acercarse al carnero. Él estaba muy enojado con el carnero, golpeó el carnero y le rompió sus dos cuernos. El carnero estaba sin fuerzas para pararse frente a él. El macho cabrío lo tumbó al suelo y lo pisoteó. No hubo nadie que pudiera rescatar al carnero de su poder. 8 Entonces el macho cabrío se hizo muy grande. Pero cuando se hizo fuerte, el cuerno grande se rompió, y en su lugar otros cuatro cuernos grandes crecieron, los cuales apuntaban hacia los cuatro vientos de los cielos. 9 De uno de ellos, creció otro cuerno, pequeño al principio, pero que se hizo muy grande en el sur, en el este y en la tierra de la hermosura. 10 Se hizo tan grande como para enfrascarse en guerra con el ejército del cielo. Algunos de ese ejército y algunas de las estrellas fueron arrojadas a la tierra, y este las pisoteó. 11 Se hizo a sí mismo, tan grande como el comandante del ejército. Este quitó de él la ofrenda quemada de costumbre, y el lugar de Su santuario fue contaminado. 12 A causa de la rebelión, el ejército será entregado al cuerno del macho cabrío, y la ofrenda quemada será detenida. El cuerno tirará la verdad al suelo, y tendrá éxito en lo que haga. 13 Entonces escuché a un santo hablando, y a otro santo contestándole: "¿Cuánto tiempo durarán estas cosas, esta visión acerca de la ofrenda quemada, el pecado que trae destrucción, la entrega del santuario, y el ejército del cielo pisoteado?" 14 Él me dijo: "Esto durará 2, 300 tardes y mañanas. Después de eso, el santuario será purificado." 15 Cuando yo, Daniel, vi la visión, yo traté de entenderla. Entonces allí, parado delante de mí habia uno que parecía un hombre. 16 Yo oí la voz de un hombre llamando entre las orillas del Canal de Ulai. Él dijo: "Gabriel, ayúdale a este hombre a entender la visión." 17 Así que él vino cerca de donde yo estaba parado. Cuando él vino, yo tuve miedo y me postré en la tierra. Él me dijo: "Entiende, hijo de hombre, que la visión es para el tiempo del fin." 18 Cuando él me habló, caí en un sueño profundo con mi rostro al suelo. Entonces él me tocó, he hizo que me pusiera de pie. 19 Él dijo: "Mira, yo te mostraré lo que sucederá mas tarde en el tiempo de la ira, porque la visión es concerniente al tiempo señalado para el fin. 20 En cuanto al carnero que viste, el que tenía dos cuernos, ellos son los reyes de Media y de Persia. 21 El macho cabrío es el rey de Grecia. El cuerno grande entre sus ojos es el primer rey. 22 En cuanto al cuerno que fue roto, en el lugar del cual se levantaron otros cuatro, cuatro reinos surgirán de su nación, pero no con su gran poder. 23 En el tiempo postrero de esos reinos, cuando los transgresores habrán alcanzado su límite, un rey de rostro serio, uno que es muy inteligente, se levantará. 24 Su poder será grande, pero no por su propio poder. Él será asombroso en lo que destruye; él actuará y tendrá éxito. Él destruirá gente poderosa, personas de entre los santos. 25 Por su astucia hará que el engaño prospere bajo su mano. Él llegará a ser grande en su propia mente. Él destruirá inesperadamente a mucha gente. Él aun se levantará en contra del Rey de reyes, y él será quebrantado, pero no por ninguna mano humana. 26 La visión acerca de las tardes y las mañanas que se te ha contado es cierta. Pero sella la visión, pues se refiere a muchos días en el futuro." 27 Entonces yo, Daniel, fui sobrecogido y estuve acostado por varios días. Entonces me levanté, y seguí atendiendo los negocios del rey. Pero fui horrorizado por la visión, y no hubo nadie que la entendiera.

Chapter 9

1 Darío era el hijo de Asuero, un descendiente de los Medos. Fue Asuero quién habíá sido hecho rey sobre el reino de los babilonios. 2 Ahora, en el primer año del reinado de Darío, yo, Daniel, estaba estudiando los libros que contenían la palabra del SEÑOR, la palabra que había venido a Jeremías el profeta. Yo observé que pasarían setenta años hasta que el abandono de Jerusalén debía terminar. 3 Yo volví mi rostro al Señor Dios, para buscarlo con oración y ruegos, con ayuno, vistiendo ropas ásperas, y sentado en cenizas. 4 Yo oré al SEÑOR mi Dios, e hice confesión de nuestros pecados. Yo dije: "Por favor, Señor, Tú eres el Dios grande y asombroso, Tú eres aquel que guarda el pacto y eres fiel para amar a aquellos que Te aman y guardan Tus mandamientos. 5 Nosotros hemos pecado y hemos hecho lo malo. Hemos actuado malvadamente y nos hemos rebelado, dejando a un lado Tus mandatos y decretos. 6 Nosotros no hemos escuchado a Tus siervos los profetas quienes hablaron en Tu nombre a nuestros reyes, nuestros líderes, nuestros antepasados y a todo el pueblo de la tierra. 7 A ti, Señor, pertenece la justicia. A nosotros hoy, sin embargo, nos pertenece la vergüenza sobre nuestros rostros, para el pueblo de Judá y en aquellos que viven en Jerusalén, y a todo Israel. Esto incluye a aquellos que están cerca y aquellos que están lejos en todas las tierras donde los esparciste. Esto es debido a la gran traición que nosotros cometimos contra tí. 8 A nosotros, SEÑOR, pertenece la vergüenza sobre nuestros rostros, a nuestros reyes, y a nuestros líderes, y a nuestros antepesados, porque nosotros hemos pecado contra tí. 9 Al Señor nuestro Dios pertenecen la compasión y el perdón, porque nosotros nos hemos rebelado contra Él. 10 Nosotros no hemos obedecido a la voz del SEÑOR nuestro Dios al caminar en Sus leyes que él nos dió por medio de Sus siervos los profetas. 11 Todo Israel ha transgredido tu ley y se ha echado a un lado, rehusando obedecer tu voz. La maldición y el juramento que están escritos en la ley de Moisés, el siervo de Dios, han sido derramados sobre nosotros, pues hemos pecado contra él. 12 El SEÑOR ha confirmado las palabras que él habló contra nosotros y contra los gobernantes sobre nosotros, al traer sobre nosotros un gran desastre. Porque debajo de todo el cielo no se ha hecho nada que pueda compararse con lo que se le ha hecho a Jerusalén. 13 Como está escrito en la ley de Moisés, todo este desastre ha venido sobre nosotros, sin embargo, nosotros no hemos suplicado por misericordia del SEÑOR, nuestro Dios, alejándonos de nuestras iniquidades y poniendo atención a tu verdad. 14 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR ha mantenido listo el desastre y lo ha traído sobre nosotros, pués el SEÑOR nuestro Dios es justo en todas las obras que él hace, sin embargo, nosotros no obedecimos Su voz. 15 Ahora, Señor, nuestro Dios, tú sacaste a tu pueblo de la tierra de Egipto con mano poderosa, y te has hecho un nombre famoso para ti mismo, como hasta hoy. Pero aún, nosotros pecamos; hemos hecho cosas malas. 16 Señor, por todas tus obras justas, deja que tu enojo y tu ira se alejen de tu ciudad Jerusalén, tu montaña santa. Debido a nuestros pecados, y debido a todos las iniquidades de nuestros antepasados, Jerusalén y tu pueblo han llegado a ser un objeto de desprecio para todos aquellos alrededor de nosotros. 17 Ahora, nuestro Dios, escucha la oración de tu siervo y sus plegarias por misericordia; por tu bien, Señor, haz resplandecer tu rostro en tu santuario que está desolado. 18 Mi Dios, abre tus oídos y escucha; abre tus ojos y ve. Nosotros hemos sido devastados; mira la ciudad que es llamada por tu nombre. Nosotros no rogamos por tu ayuda debido a nuestra justicia, sino por tu gran misericordia. 19 Señor, ¡escucha! Señor, ¡perdona! Señor, ¡presta atención y toma acción! Por tu propio bien, no tardes, mi Dios, pués tu ciudad y tu pueblo son llamados por tu nombre." 20 Mientras yo estaba hablando, orando y confesando mi pecado y el pecado de mi pueblo Israel, y presentando mis ruegos delante del SEÑOR mi Dios en favor del monte santo de Dios, 21 mientras yo oraba, el hombre, Gabriel, a quién yo había visto en la visión al principio, voló hacia mí rápidamente, al tiempo del sacrificio de la tarde. 22 Él me dio entendimiento y me dijo: "Daniel, yo he salido ahora para darte visión y entendimiento. 23 Cuando tú empezaste a pedir misericordia, la orden fue dada y yo he venido para darte la respuesta, pues tú eres grandemente amado. Por lo tanto, considera esta palabra y entiende la revelación. 24 Setenta semanas de años son decretadas para que tu pueblo y tu ciudad santa para que termine su culpa y pongan fin al pecado, para expiar la maldad, para traer justicia eterna, para llevar a cabo la visión y la profecía, y para consagrar el lugar santísimo. 25 Conoce y entiende que desde que se dé la orden de salida para restaurar y reconstruir a Jerusalén, hasta la venida del ungido (quien será un líder), habrá siete semanas y sesenta y dos semanas de años (70 semanas). Jerusalén será reconstruída con calles y un foso, a pesar de los tiempos de aflicción. 26 Después de las sesenta y dos semanas de años, el ungido será destruído y no tendrá nada. El ejército de un gobernante que viene destruirá la ciudad y el lugar santo. Su fin vendrá con una inundación y habrá guerra aún hasta el fin. Desolaciones han sido decretadas. 27 Él confirmará un pacto con muchos por siete años. A la mitad de los siete años, él pondrá fin al sacrificio y la ofrenda. Sobre las alas de abominaciones vendrá alguien que hace desolación. Un fin completo y destrucción son decretados para ser derramados sobre el que ha hecho la desolación."

Chapter 10

1 En el tercer año de Ciro, rey de Persia, un mensaje fue revelado a Daniel, quién también era llamado Beltsasar. Este mensaje era cierto. Era acerca de una gran guerra. Daniel comprendió el mensaje cuando tuvo entendimiento de la visión. 2 En esos días yo, Daniel, estuve de luto por tres semanas. 3 Yo, no comí manjares, no comí carne, no bebí vino, y no me ungí a mí mismo con aceite, hasta completar las tres semanas enteras. 4 En el día veinticuatro del primer mes, mientras yo estaba al lado del gran río (esto es, el Tigris), 5 yo alce la vista y vi a un hombre vestido de lino, con un cinturón alrededor de su cintura hecho de oro puro de Ufaz. 6 Su cuerpo era como el topacio, y su rostro era como un relámpago. Sus ojos eran como antorchas ardientes, y sus brazos y sus pies eran como bronce pulido. El sonido de sus palabras era como el sonido de una gran multitud. 7 Solo yo Daniel, vi la visión, pués los hombres que estaban conmigo no vieron la visión. Sin embargo, un gran terror vino sobre ellos, y ellos huyeron para esconderse. 8 Así que yo quedé solo y vi esta gran visión. Ninguna fuerza quedó en mí; mi apariencia radiante se convirtió en una apariencia arruinada, y no quedó fuerza dentro de mí. 9 Entonces yo oí sus palabras, y mientras las oía, caí sobre mi rostro en un sueño profundo con mi cara hacia el suelo. 10 Una mano me tocó, y me hizo temblar en mis rodillas y las palmas de mis manos. 11 El ángel me dijo: "Daniel, hombre altamente estimado, entiende las palabras que yo te estoy diciendo. Párate derecho, pués yo he sido enviado a tí." Cuando me dijo este mensaje, me levante temblando. 12 Entonces él me dijo: "No tengas miedo, Daniel. Desde el primer día en que te decidiste a entender y a humillarte delante de tu Dios, tus palabras fueron oídas, y yo he venido debido a tus palabras. 13 El príncipe del reino de Persia me resistió, y fui mantenido allí, con los reyes de Persia, por veintiún días. Pero Miguel, uno de los príncipes jefes, vino a ayudarme. 14 Ahora Yo he venido para ayudarte a entender lo que le sucederá a tu pueblo en los últimos días. Pués la visión es para los días aún por venir." 15 Mientras él me hablaba usando estas palabras, volví mi rostro hacia el suelo y fui incapaz de hablar. 16 Uno que era como los hijos de hombre tocó mis labios, y yo abrí mi boca y le hablé a aquel que estaba parado delante de mí: "Mi amo, yo estoy en agonía por causa de la visión; no me quedan fuerzas. 17 Yo soy tu siervo. ¿Cómo puedo yo hablar con mi amo? Pués yo ahora no tengo fuerza, y no queda aliento dentro de mí." 18 Otra vez, aquel con apariencia de hombre me tocó y me fortaleció. 19 Él dijo: "No tengas miedo, hombre altamente estimado. ¡La paz sea contigo! ¡Sé fuerte ahora, sé fuerte!" Mientras él me hablaba, yo fui fortalecido. Yo dije: "Hable mi amo, pues usted me ha fortalecido." 20 Él dijo: "¿Sabes tú, por qué yo he venido a tí? Pronto yo regresaré a pelear contra el príncipe de Persia. Cuando yo me vaya, el príncipe de Grecia vendrá. 21 Pero yo te diré lo que está escrito en el Libro de la Verdad. No hay nadie que se muestre tan fuerte conmigo en contra de ellos, excepto Miguel, el príncipe de ustedes."

Chapter 11

1 En el primer año de Darío el Medo, yo mismo vine a apoyar y a proteger a Miguel. 2 Ahora yo te diré la verdad. Tres reyes se levantarán en Persia, y un cuarto será mucho más rico que los otros. Cuando él haya alcanzado poder por medio de sus riquezas, él provocará a todos en contra del reino de Grecia. 3 Un rey poderoso se levantará, quién gobernará un reino muy grande, y actuará según sus deseos. 4 Cuando se haya levantado, su reino será roto y dividido a los cuatro vientos del cielo, pero no a sus propios descendientes, ni con el poder con el cual él había gobernado. Pués su reino será desarraigado para otros aparte de sus descendientes. 5 El rey del Sur se hará fuerte, pero uno de sus comandantes llegará a ser aún más fuerte que él y gobernará su reino con gran poder. 6 Después de algunos años, cuando sea el tiempo correcto, ellos harán una alianza. La hija del rey del Sur vendrá al rey del Norte para confirmar el acuerdo. Pero ella no mantendrá la fuerza de su brazo, ni él se pondrá de pie, o su brazo. Ella será abandonada, ella y aquellos que la trajeron, y su padre, y el que la apoyaba en aquellos tiempos. 7 Pero un retoño de sus raíces se levantará en su lugar. Él atacará el ejército y entrará a la fortaleza del rey del Norte. Él peleará contra ellos, y los conquistará. 8 Él se llevará a Egipto sus dioses junto a sus figuras de metal fundido y sus preciosas vasijas de plata y oro. Por algunos años él se mantendrá lejos del rey del Norte. 9 Entonces el rey del Norte invadirá el reino del rey del Sur, pero él se retirará a su propia tierra. 10 Sus hijos se prepararán y reunirán un gran ejército. Seguirán avanzando e inundarán todo; pasarán a lo largo del camino hacia su fortaleza. 11 Entonces, el rey del Sur se enojará mucho; él irá y peleará contra el rey del Norte. El rey del Norte levantará un gran ejército, pero el ejército será entregado en su mano. 12 El ejército será llevado cautivo, y el corazón del rey del Sur se enaltecerá, y él hará que caigan decenas de miles de sus enemigos, pero él no saldrá victorioso. 13 Entonces, el rey del Norte levantará otro ejército, más grande que el primero. Después de algunos años, el rey del Norte seguramente vendrá con un gran ejército con mucho equipo. 14 En esos tiempos muchos se levantarán en contra del rey del Sur. Los hijos de los violentos de entre tu pueblo, se establecerán a fin de hacer cumplir una visión, pero ellos tropezarán. 15 El rey del Norte vendrá, derramará tierra para formar montículos contra las murallas, y capturará una ciudad rompiendo sus murallas. Las fuerzas del Sur no serán capaces de permanecer, ni aún sus mejores soldados. Allí no habrá fuerzas para permanecer. 16 En cambio, el que viene, actuará contra él de acuerdo a sus deseos; nadie se interpondrá en su camino. Él permanecerá en la tierra de la hermosura, y la destrucción estará en su mano. 17 El rey del Norte afirmará su rostro para venir con la fuerza de todo su reino, y con él habrá un acuerdo que él hará con el rey del Sur. Él le dará una hija de sus mujeres en matrimonio para arruinar el reino del Sur. Pero el plan no tendrá éxito, ni le ayudará. 18 Después de esto, el rey del Norte se fijará en las costas y capturará muchas de ellas. Pero un comandante le pondrá fin a su arrogancia y causará que su arrogancia le haga daño a él. 19 Entonces él se fijará en las fortalezas de su propia tierra, pero él tropezará y caerá; él no será hallado. 20 Entonces alguien se levantará en su lugar, quién hará que un recaudador de impuestos pase a hacer la gente pagar impuestos por el bien del esplendor del reino. Pero en los días subsiguientes, él será destrozado, pero no en ira o en batalla. 21 En su lugar se levantará una persona despreciable a quién el pueblo no le habrá dado el honor del poder real; él vendrá inesperadamente y tomará el reino por engaño. 22 Un ejército será barrido como un diluvio delante de él. Ambos, ese ejército y el líder del pacto serán destruídos. 23 Desde el momento en que se haga una alianza con él, él actuará engañosamente; con sólo un pequeño número de personas él se hará fuerte. 24 Sin aviso, él vendrá a la parte más rica de la provincia, y él hará lo que ni su padre, ni su abuelo hicieron. Él repartirá entre sus seguidores el botín, los despojos, y la riqueza. Él planeará el derrocamiento de fortalezas, pero sólo por un tiempo. 25 Él despertará su poder y su corazón en contra del Rey del Sur con un gran ejército. El Rey del Sur hará guerra con un ejército grande y muy poderoso, pero no prevalecerá porque otros conspirarán contra él. 26 Aún aquellos que comen sus manjares tratarán de destruirlo. Su ejército será barrido como un diluvio, y muchos de ellos caerán asesinados. 27 Estos dos reyes, con sus corazones decididos a hacer mal el uno contra el otro, se sentarán en la misma mesa y se mentirán el uno al otro, pero será inútil. Porque el fin vendrá a la hora que se ha fijado. 28 Entonces el Rey del Norte regresará a su tierra con grandes riquezas, con su corazón puesto contra del pacto santo. Él actuará y entonces regresará a su propia tierra. 29 En el tiempo señalado, él regresará y vendrá contra el Sur nuevamente. Pero esta vez no será como antes. 30 Pués barcos de Quitim vendrán contra él, y a él le dará miedo y se retirará. Él estará furioso en contra del pacto santo, y mostrará favor a aquellos que abadonen el pacto santo. 31 Sus fuerzas se levantarán y profanarán el santuario de la fortaleza. Ellos eliminarán la ofrenda quemada regular, y pondrán la abominación que causa desolación. 32 En cuanto a aquellos que actuaron malvadamente en contra del pacto, él los engañará y corromperá. Pero el pueblo que conoce a su Dios será fuerte y tomará acción. 33

Los sabios de entre el pueblo harán que muchos entiendan. Pero ellos tropezarán por la espada y por la llama; ellos tropezarán dentro de la cautividad y sus enemigos le robarán sus posesiones. 34 En su tropiezo, ellos serán ayudados con un poco de ayuda. En hipocresía muchos se les unirán. 35 Algunos de los sabios tropezarán a fin de que sean refinados, y limpiados, y purificados, hasta el tiempo del fin. Porque el tiempo señalado está aún por venir. 36 El rey actuará de acuerdo a sus deseos. Él se exaltará y se hará grande a sí mismo sobre cada dios. Contra el Dios de dioses, él dirá cosas asombrosas, pués él tendrá éxito hasta que la ira sea completada. Pués lo que se ha decretado será hecho. 37 Él no pondra atención a los dioses de sus antepasados, ni al dios deseable de las mujeres. Tampoco pondrá atencion a ningún otro dios. Porque por encima de todos, él se hará grande a sí mismo. 38 Él honrará al dios de las fortalezas en vez de a estos. Es a un dios a quien sus padres no reconocieron, al que él honrará con oro y plata, con piedras preciosas y regalos valiosos. 39 Él atacará las fortalezas más fuertes con la ayuda de un dios extranjero. A cualquiera que lo reconozca a él, él le dará mucho honor. Él los hará gobernantes sobre mucha gente, y él dividirá la tierra como recompensa. 40 En el tiempo del fin el rey del Sur atacará. El rey del Norte tronará contra él con carros y jinetes, y con muchos barcos. Él irá contra tierras, las inundirá, y las pasará. 41 Él entrará a la tierra de la hermosura, y decenas de millares de israelitas caerán. Pero estos escaparán de su mano: Edom, Moab, y el restante del pueblo de Amón. 42 Él extenderá su mano dentro de las tierras; la tierra de Egipto no será rescatada. 43 Él tendrá el control sobre los tesoros de oro y plata, y sobre todas las riquezas de Egipto; los libios y los etíopes seguirán sus pasos. 44 Pero las noticias del este y del norte lo asustarán, y él saldrá con gran furia para destruir completamente y para apartar a muchos para la destrucción. 45 Él establecerá la tienda de su residencia real entre los mares y la montaña de la hermosura de la santidad. Él vendrá a su fin, y no habrá ayudador para él.

Chapter 12

1 "Para ese tiempo, Miguel, el gran príncipe que guarda a tu pueblo, se levantará. Habrá un tiempo de problemas como nunca ha habido desde el comienzo de cualquier nación hasta ese tiempo. Para ese tiempo, tu pueblo será salvado, todos cuyos nombres se hallan escritos en el libro. 2 Muchos de aquellos que duermen en el polvo de la tierra se levantarán, algunos para vida eterna y algunos para la vergüenza y el desprecio eterno. 3 Aquellos que son sabios brillarán como la brillantez del cielo arriba, y aquellos que lleven a muchos a la justicia, son como las estrellas por los siglos de los siglos. 4 Pero tú, Daniel, cierra estas palabras; mantén sellado el libro hasta el tiempo del fin. Muchos correrán de aquí para allá, y el conocimiento aumentará." 5 Entonces yo, Daniel, miré, y habían otros dos de pie. Uno estaba parado en la orrilla este lado del río, y uno estaba parado en la orrilla al otro lado del río. 6 Uno de ellos le dijo al hombre vestido de lino, al que estaba río arriba al lado del río: "¿Cuánto tiempo pasará hasta el fin de estos eventos sorprendentes?" 7 Yo oí al hombre vestido de lino, quien estaba río arriba al lado del río, él levantó su mano derecha y su mano izquierda al cielo y juró por Aquel que vive para siempre que sería por un tiempo, tiempos, y medio tiempo. Cuando el poder del pueblo santo finalmente haya sido roto, todas estas cosas serán completadas. 8 Yo oí, pero no entendí. Así que pregunté: "Mi amo, ¿cuál será el resultado de todas estas cosas?" 9 Él dijo: "Sigue tu camino, Daniel, pués las palabras están cerradas y selladas hasta el tiempo del fin. 10 Muchos serán purificados, limpiados, y refinados, pero los malvados actuarán malvadamente. Ninguno de los malvados entenderán, pero aquellos que son sabios entenderán. 11 Desde el tiempo en que la ofrenda quemada regular sea quitada y se establezca la abominación que causa completa desolación, habrá 1, 290 días. 12 Bendecido es aquel que espera hasta el fin de los 1, 335 días. 13 Tú debes seguir tu camino hasta el fin, y tú descansarás. Tú subirás al lugar asignado para ti, en el fin de los días."

Hosea

Chapter 1

1 Ésta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Oseas hijo de Beeri en los días de Uzías, Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías, reyes de Judá y en los días de Jeroboam hijo de Joás, rey de Israel. 2 Cuando El SEÑOR habló por primerea vez a través de Oseas, Él le dijo: "Ve, toma una esposa quien es una prostituta. Ella va a tener hijos quienes son el resultado de su prostitución. Pues el pueblo está cometiendo gran prostitución al olvidar al SEÑOR." 3 Así que, Oseas fué y se casó con Gomer hija de Diblaim y ella le concibió un hijo. 4 El SEÑOR le dijo a Oseas: "Llámalo Jezreel. Pues por un pequeño momento Yo voy a castigar la casa de Jehú por la matanza en Jezreel y Yo voy a poner fin al reino de la casa de Israel. 5 Va a pasar en el día que Yo rompa el arco de Israel en el Valle de Jezreel." 6 Gomer concebió otra vez y dio a luz una hija. Luego El SEÑOR le dijo a Oseas: "Llámala Lo Ruhamá, pues Yo no voy a seguir teniendo misericordia con la casa de Israel, que Yo no los perdonaré. 7 Aún así, Yo voy a tener misericordia con la casa de Judá y Yo voy a salvarlos, Yo mismo, El SEÑOR su Dios. Yo no voy a salvarlos a ellos por arco, espada, guerra, caballos ni jinetes." 8 Ahora, después que Gomer había destetado a Lo Ruhamá, ella concebió y dió a luz a otro hijo. 9 Entonces El SEÑOR dijo: "Llámalo Lo Ammí, pues ustedes no son Mi pueblo y Yo no soy su Dios. 10 Aún así, el número de personas de Israel va a ser como la arena en la costa, la cual no puede ser medida ni contada. Ésto será donde fué dicho a ellos: "Ustedes no son Mi pueblo', va a ser dicho a ellos: ''Ustedes son el pueblo viviente de Dios.'' 11 El pueblo de Judá y el pueblo de Israel van a ser reunidos. Ellos van a escoger un líder y van a subir de la tierra pues va a ser un día grande el día de Jezreel.

Chapter 2

1 Díle a tus hermanos, ''¡Pueblo Mío!'' y a tus hermanas, ''A ustedes se le ha mostrado compasión.'' 2 Acúsen a su madre, acúsenla, ya que ella no es mi esposa, y tampoco soy su esposo. Deja que ella quite la prostitución de ella, y sus actos de adulterio de entre sus pechos. 3 Si no, yo la desnudaré y le mostraré su desnudez como en el día que ella nació. La haré como un desierto, como una tierra sin agua y la haré morir de sed. 4 No tendré ninguna misericordia sobre sus hijos, ya que son hijos de prostitución. 5 Ya que su madre ha sido prostituta, y ella los concebió actuando sin verguenza. Ella dijo: "Yo buscaré a mis amantes, ya que ellos me dan mi pan y agua, mi lana y lino, mi aceite y bebida.'' 6 Por tanto, Yo construiré un muro con espinas para no permitir su paso. Yo construiré una pared en contra de ella para que no pueda encontrar su camino. 7 Ella buscará sus amantes, pero no podrá alcanzarlos. Ella los buscará pero no los encontrará. Luego ella dirá: "Yo me regresaré a mi primer marido, porque fue mejor para mí antes de lo que es ahora." 8 Pues ella no supo que era Yo quien le daba su trigo, el vino nuevo, y el aceite, y quien le prodigaba en su plata y oro, el cual ellos luego usaban para Baal. 9 Pues Yo le recuperaré su trigo en tiempo de la cosecha y Mi vino nuevo en su tiempo. Yo le quitaré Mi lana y lino que fueron usados para cubrir su desnudez. 10 Luego la desnudaré a la vista de sus amantes, y nadie la salvará de Mi mano. 11 Yo también haré que todas sus diversiones terminen, sus fiestas, de celebración de luna nueva, sus Días de Reposo, y todos los festivales asignados. 12 Yo destruiré sus viñas y sus árboles de higos, de los cuales ella dijo: 'Éstos son el pago que mis amantes me dieron.' Yo le haré un bosque, y los animales del campo se los comerán. 13 Yo la castigaré por los días festivos de los Baales, cuando ella quemaba incienso a ellos, cuando ella se adornaba con sus anillos y sus joyas y salía tras sus amantes y se olvidó de Mí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR." 14 Pues Yo me la voy a ganar de nuevo. Yo la llevaré al desierto y le hablaré tiernamente. 15 Yo le devolveré sus viñas, y su Valle de Acor como una puerta de esperanza. Ella me contestará como lo hizo en sus días de juventud, como en los días en que ella salió de Egipto. 16 Será en ese día, declaró El SEÑOR, que tú Me llamarás, 'Mi marido', y tu jamás Me llamarás, 'Mi Baal'. 17 Pues yo quitaré los nombres de los Baales de la boca de ella; sus nombres no serán recordados jamás." 18 En ese día yo haré pacto para ellos con las bestias del campo, con las aves del cielo, y con las cosas que se arrastan en la tierra. Yo desviaré el arco, la espada, y la batalla de su tierra, y los dejaré acostarse con seguridad. 19 Yo prometeré ser tu esposo para siempre. Yo prometeré ser tu esposo justo, recto, pacto de fidelidad, y misericordia. 20 Yo me comprometeré contigo en fidelidad, y tu conocerás al SEÑOR. 21 En ese día, Yo responderé, ésta es la declaración del SEÑOR, Yo responderé a los cielos, y ellos responderán la tierra. 22 La tierra reponderá al grano, el vino nuevo y el aceite y luego ellos reponderán a Jezreel. 23 Yo la pondré para Mi en la tierra, y tendré misericordia en Lo Ruhamá. Yo le diré a Lo Ammí: 'Ustedes son Ammí Attá, y ellos me dirán, 'TU eres Mi SEÑOR.'"

Esta es una queja de una persona contra otra persona en un tribunal de justicia.

su madre
Aqui "madre" refiere a la nación de Israel.

ya que ella no es mi esposa
El SEÑOR está declarando que Israel, al que se habla aquí como mujer, ya no actúa como una esposa para El SEÑOR. En cambio, Israel se ha apartado de seguirlo y adorarlo.

tampoco soy su esposo
El SEÑOR ya no puede estar en relación con la nación de Israel como lo sería un esposo para su esposa.

Una esposa adúltera deja a su esposo para dormir con otro hombre. Así actuó Israel hacia El SEÑOR.

de entre sus pechos
Esta imagen sugiere que Israel está confiando en los ídolos y no en El SEÑOR.

yo la desnudaré y le mostraré su desnudez como en el día que ella nació
El SEÑOR ya no protegerá y proveerá a Israel porque la nación se ha alejado de él. En Israel, los esposos estaban obligados por ley a proporcionar ropa para sus esposas. No hacerlo era una señal de que un hombre estaba rechazando a su esposa. El significado completo de esto puede quedar claro.

La haré como un desierto
El SEÑOR cambiará a Israel para que se parezca al desierto, que es una región desnuda e improductiva.

y la haré morir de sed
Aquí, "sed" se refiere a la necesidad de adorar y confiar en El SEÑOR, no en ídolos, o Israel no podrá sobrevivir como nación.

Hosea 2:4

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando a Oseas

ya que son hijos de prostitución
Los israelitas están actuando como si no pertenecieran al SEÑOR. Así como sus padres no adoraban a Dios, tampoco ellos.

Ya que su madre ha sido prostituta,
Las generaciones anteriores que buscaban a otros dioses eran consideradas prostitutas porque eran infieles al SEÑOR.

Yo buscaré a mis amantes, ya que ellos me dan mi pan y agua, mi lana y lino, mi aceite y bebida Aquí "mis amantes" se refiere a Baal y otros dioses falsos, a quienes Israel ha elegido adorar en lugar del SEÑOR. La lista de cosas son elementos esenciales que permiten a las personas vivir.

Hosea 2:6

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando a Oseas

Yo construiré un muro con espinas para no permitir su paso. Yo construiré una pared en contra de ella para que no pueda encontrar su camino
Este pasaje indica que El SEÑOR evitará que su gente encuentre el éxito y la prosperidad, porque seguirán adorando a los ídolos.

Luego ella dirá: "Yo me regresaré a mi primer marido, porque fue mejor para mí antes de lo que es ahora
Israel regresará al SEÑOR no por su amor por él, sino porque están decepcionados por su adoración a Baal.

Chapter 3

1 El SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "Ve otra vez, ama una mujer, amada por su esposo, pero quien es una adúltera. Ámala tal como Yo, El SEÑOR, amó a la gente de Israel, aunque se vayan con otros dioses y les ofrezcan tortas de pasas." 2 Así que la compré para Mí por quince piezas de plata, un gomer y un letek de cebada. 3 Yo le dije a ella: "Tú debes vivir Conmigo por muchos días. Tú no serás una prostituta o serás de ningún otro hombre. En la misma manera, Yo estaré contigo." 4 Porque la gente de Israel vivirá por muchos días sin un rey, príncipe, sacrificio, pilar de piedra, efod o ídolos en el hogar. 5 Luego, la gente de Israel regresará y buscará al SEÑOR su Dios y a David su rey, y en los últimos días, ellos vendrán temblando ante El SEÑOR y Su bondad.

Hosea 3:1

Ve otra vez, ama una mujer, amada por su esposo, pero quien es una adúltera Esto se refiere de nuevo a 1: 1. El SEÑOR otra vez le dice a Oseas que ame a una mujer adúltera.

Ámala tal como Yo, El SEÑOR, amo a la gente de Israel
Al amar a la mujer adúltera, Oseas será un ejemplo del amor del SEÑOR por Israel.

se vayan con otros dioses y les ofrezcan tortas de pasas
Las personas comían pasas o pasteles de higo durante los festivales donde adoraban a los falsos dioses.

quince piezas de plata, un gomer y un letek de cebada Este fue el precio para comprar un esclavo.

quince piezas
"15 piezas"

un gomer y un letek
"un gomer y medio de un gomer"

Hosea 3:4

Porque la gente de Israel vivirá por muchos días sin un rey, príncipe, sacrificio, pilar de piedra, efod o ídolos en el hogar
Así como Oseas vivió sin su esposa porque ella cometió adulterio, Israel vivirá sin un rey y sin adorar a Dios, porque cometieron idolatría.

buscará al SEÑOR su Dios
Aquí "buscar" significa que le están pidiendo a Dios que los acepte y su adoración.

David su rey,
Aquí "David" representa a todos los descendientes de David. Traducción Alterna: "un descendiente de David para ser su rey"

en los últimos días Aquí "los últimos días" se refiere a un período de tiempo en el futuro. Traducción Alterna: "en el futuro"

ellos vendrán temblando ante El SEÑOR y Su bondad Aquí "temblando" representa sentimientos de asombro y humildad. Traducción Alterna: "volverán al SEÑOR y se humillarán, lo honrarán y le pedirán sus bendiciones"

Chapter 4

1 Escucha la voz del SEÑOR, ustedes, pueblo de Israel. El SEÑOR tiene una acusación en contra de ustedes, los habitantes de la tierra, porque no hay verdad o fidelidad al pacto, no hay conocimieto de Dios en la tierra. 2 Hay maldición, mentira, asesinato, robo y adulterio. El pueblo ha roto todos los límites, y matanza tras matanza. 3 Así que la tierra se está secando, y todos los que están viviendo en ella se están consumiendo; las bestias en los campos y las aves en el cielo, incluso los peces en el mar, están muriendo. 4 Pero no le permitan a nadie que traiga una acusación; no dejen que nadie acuse a nadie más. Pues son ustedes, los sacerdotes, a quienes Yo acuso. 5 Ustedes sacerdotes desobedecerán durante el día; los profetas también desobedecerán con ustedes durante la noche, y Yo destruiré a Israel que es como tu madre. 6 Mi pueblo está siendo destruído por la falta de conocimiento. Porque ustedes, sacerdotes, han rechazado el conocimiento, Yo también los rechazaré a ustedes como mis sacerdotes. Porque ustedes han olvidado mi ley, aunque Yo soy su Dios, Yo también me olvidaré de sus hijos. 7 Cuanto más los sacerdotes se multipliquen, más han pecado contra Mí. Ellos intercambiaron su honor por vergüenza. 8 Ellos se alimentan del pecado de mi pueblo; ellos codician más por su maldad. 9 Será lo mismo para el pueblo, como para los sacerdotes; Yo los castigaré a todos por sus obras; Yo les devolveré según sus hechos. 10 Ellos comerán pero no tendrán suficiente; ellos cometerán prostitución pero no tendrán hijos, porque se han ido lejos del SEÑOR. 11 Ellos aman la promiscuidad sexual, el vino, y el vino nuevo, lo cual se ha llevado su entendimiento. 12 Mi pueblo consulta a sus ídolos de madera, y sus bastones les dan profecías. Pues una mente de promiscuidad los ha guiado mal, y ellos han actuado como prostitutas en vez de ser fieles a su Dios. 13 Ellos sacrifican en las cimas de las montañas y queman incienso en las colinas, debajo de los robles, los álamos y terebintos, porque la sombra es buena. Así que, sus hijas cometen inmoralidad sexual, y sus nueras cometen adulterio. 14 Yo no castigaré a sus hijas cuando ellas elijan cometer inmoralidad sexual, ni a sus nueras, cuando cometan adulterio. Pues los hombres también se dan a sí mismos a prostitutas, y ellos ofrecen sacrificos para que puedan cometer actos inmorales con prostitutas sagradas. Así que, este pueblo, que no entiende será derribado. 15 Aunque tú, Israel, has cometido adulterio, que Judá no se vuelva culpable. No vayan a Gilgal, ustedes; no vayas a Bet Avén, y no juren diciendo: "Como El SEÑOR vive." 16 Pues Israel se ha comportado tercamente, como un vaquilla terca. ¿Cómo El SEÑOR puede traerlos a pastar como corderos en un prado? 17 Efraín se unió a sí mismo con ídolos; déjenlo solo. 18 Incluso cuando su bebida fuerte se haya ido, ellos siguen cometiendo adulterio; sus gobernantes aman su vergüenza. 19 El viento lo envolverá en sus alas; y ellos serán avergonzados por causa de sus sacrificos.

Hosea 4:1

Información General
Este capítulo comienza la discusión del SEÑOR contra los israelitas infieles.

El SEÑOR tiene una acusación en contra de ustedes, los habitantes de la tierra Se habla del SEÑOR declarando que el pueblo de Israel pecó contra él y quebrantó su pacto, como si El SEÑOR los acusara en la corte.

acusación
Esta es una queja de una persona contra otra persona en un tribunal de justicia. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2: 2.

El pueblo ha roto todos los límites Aquí "obligación" representa los límites de lo que la ley permite. Traducción Alterna: "La gente ha desobedecido la ley de todas las maneras posibles"

matanza tras matanza
Aquí, "matanza" significa "asesinato", que a menudo implica hacer sangrar a la víctima. Traducción Alterna: "comete un asesinato tras otro"

Hosea 4:3

Así que la tierra se está secando
Esta expresión se refiere a la sequía, cuando no llueve durante mucho tiempo.

Ustedes sacerdotes tropezarán
Aquí "tropezar" significa desobedecer a Dios o incluso dejar de confiar en él.

Yo destruiré a tu madre
Aquí "madre" se refiere a la nación de Israel. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2: 2.

Hosea 4:6

Información General
En 4: 6, El SEÑOR está hablando a los sacerdotes sobre el pueblo de Israel. Pero en 4: 7, él está hablando de los sacerdotes, no de ellos. Es posible que el traductor siga el ejemplo de la UDB, que describe a El SEÑOR como hablando con los sacerdotes también en 4: 7.

Mi pueblo está siendo destruído por la falta de conocimiento Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Mi gente está pereciendo porque ustedes, los sacerdotes, no les han enseñado apropiadamente acerca de mí para que me obedezcan"

conocimiento
Aqui "conocimiento" se refiere a el conocimiento de Dios.

Ellos intercambiaron su honor por vergüenza.
Los posibles significados son 1) "honor" es una metonimia que representa al SEÑOR, y "vergüenza" es una metonimia que representa ídolos. Traducción Alterna: "Han dejado de adorarme a mí, a su Dios honorable, y ahora adoran a ídolos vergonzosos" o 2) algunas versiones de la Biblia traducen esto como "cambiaré su honor por vergüenza". Esto significa que El SEÑOR quitará las cosas que los sacerdotes honran y avergonzarán a los sacerdotes.

Hosea 4:8

Información General
El SEÑOR continua hablando a los sacerdotes

Ellos se alimentan del pecado de mi pueblo Cuando la gente pecaba, ofrecían sacrificios para que Dios los perdonara. A los sacerdotes se les permitió comer estos sacrificios. Se habla de los sacerdotes que comen estos sacrificios por el pecado como si realmente se alimentaran de los pecados de la gente.

ellos codician más por su maldad
Los sacerdotes quieren que la gente peque más para que la gente ofrezca más sacrificios para que los sacerdotes puedan comer.

Será lo mismo para el pueblo, como para los sacerdotes
" El pueblo y los sacerdotes serán castigados de la misma manera"

sus hechos
"sus hábitos " o " su conducta"

promiscuidad sexual, el vino, y el vino nuevo, lo cual se ha llevado su entendimiento El pueblo de Israel está practicando el sexo fuera del matrimonio y está bebiendo demasiado vino. Al hacer estas actividades, han olvidado los mandamientos de Jehová. Aquí se habla de estas acciones como si fueran alguien que pudiera evitar que otras personas comprendan la importancia de obedecer al SEÑOR .

sus bastones les dan profecías
Los adoradores de ídolos usaban bastones para ayudarles a predecir el futuro. Aquí se habla de los bastones como si fueran personas que hablaron profecías.

una mente de promiscuidad los ha guiado mal Adorar a los ídolos y dormir con las prostitutas del templo ha desarrollado en el pueblo de Israel el deseo de siempre pecar contra SEÑOR de esta manera. Aquí se habla de "mente" como si fuera una persona separada quien pudo convencer a la gente de desobedecer a el SEÑOR.

ha convencido a la gente a pecar

en las cimas de las montañas...en las colinas Era común que la gente estableciera ídolos en estos lugares, a menudo llamados "lugares altos" en el Antiguo Testamento.

prostitutas sagradas
Estas eran mujeres que tenían relaciones sexuales con hombres que venían a adorar a ciertos ídolos. Esto fue visto como una acción sagrada en honor de los dioses falsos.

Así que, este pueblo, que no entiende será derribado.
El SEÑOR destruirá a la nación de Israel porque no entienden ni obedecen los mandamientos de Dios.

Hosea 4:15

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Judá y de Israel

que Judá no se vuelva culpable
Dios sabe cuán pecadora se ha vuelto Israel y no quiere que Judá haga lo mismo.

No vayan a Gilgal, ustedes; no vayan a Bet Avén
Se le está advirtiendo a la gente de Judá que no vaya a las ciudades de Gilgal o Beth Aven para adorar ídolos en esos lugares. Gilgal fue una vez un lugar donde El SEÑOR había sido adorado, pero se había convertido en un lugar de adoración de ídolos.

Bet Avén
Esta era una ciudad en la frontera entre el reino del norte de Israel y la tribu de Benjamín en el reino del sur.

como una vaquilla terca
Israel es comparado con una vaca joven que no obedece a su amo.

¿Cómo El SEÑOR puede traerlos a pastar como corderos en un prado?
El SEÑOR usa una pregunta para enfatizar que no puede seguir cuidando a la gente porque es terco. Se dice que El SEÑOR ya no cuida a su pueblo como si fuera un pastor que no podía llevar a sus corderos al campo a comer porque son tercos. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR no pastoreará a un pueblo rebelde". o "Por lo tanto, El SEÑOR no continuará cuidándolos".

Aquí El SEÑOR está hablando de sí mismo en tercera persona. Se puede expresar en primera persona. Traducción Alterna: "Cómo puedo"

Hosea 4:17

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Israel

Efraín se unió a sí mismo con ídolos; déjenlo solo Aquí "Efraín" se refiere a las personas en el reino del norte de Israel. Eligieron adorar a los ídolos, en lugar de al SEÑOR. El SEÑOR le está ordenando a Oseas que no intente corregirlos. El pueblo de Israel no escuchará.

sus gobernantes aman su vergüenza
Los gobernantes no se avergüenzan de lo que están haciendo cuando adoran ídolos y se vuelven en contra del SEÑOR.

El viento lo envolverá en sus alas
Aquí "viento" representa el juicio de Dios y la ira contra la nación de Israel. El SEÑOR permitirá que el ejército enemigo derrote al pueblo de Israel y los tome como cautivos.

Chapter 5

1 ¡''Oigan esto, sacerdotes! ¡Pongan atención, casa de Israel! ¡Escuchen, casa del rey! Porque juicio viene contra todos ustedes. Ustedes han sido una trampa en Mizpa y una red extendida sobre Tabor. 2 Los rebeldes se han sumergido profundamente en la matanza, pero los castigaré a todos ellos. 3 Yo conozco a Efraín, e Israel no está escondida de Mí. Efraín, ahora te has convertido en una prostituta; Israel esta contaminada. 4 Sus obras no les permiten volverse a Dios, porque la mente de adulterio está en ellos, y ellos no conocen al Señor. 5 El orgullo de Israel lo condena; asi Israel y Efraín tropezarán con su pecado; y Judá también tropezará con el. 6 Ellos se irán con sus manadas y rebaños a buscar al SEÑOR, pero no lo encontrarán, porque Él se ha alejado de ellos. 7 Ellos eran infieles al SEÑOR, porque ellos han engendrado hijos ilegítimos. Ahora los nuevos festivales de la luna los devorarán junto con sus campos. 8 Toquen la bocina en Gibeá, y la trompeta en Ramá. Sonido de batalla lloró en Bet Avén: ¡Nosotros te seguiremos tí Benjamín! 9 Efraín se destruirá en el día del castigo. Entre las tribus de Israel Yo he declarado lo que de seguro pasará. 10 Los líderes de Judá son como esos quienes quieren extender los límites de sus territorios. Yo derramaré Mi ira en ellos como agua. 11 Efraín está aplastado; él está taplastado en juicio, porque él ha caminado voluntariamente tras los ídolos. 12 Yo seré como una polilla a Efraín, y como pudrición a la casa de Judá. 13 Cuando Efraín vió su enfermedad y Judá vió su herida, entonces Efraín fue a Asiria y Judá envió mensajeros al gran rey. Pero el no era capaz de curarlos a ustedes o sanar sus heridas. 14 Yo seré como un león a Efraín, y como un leoncillo a la casa de Judá. Yo, incluso, destruiré y Me iré; los lejos, y no habrá nadie que los rescate. 15 Yo iré y regresaré a Mi lugar, hasta que ellos reconozcan su culpa y busquen Mi rostro, hasta que Me busquen en sus angustias.

Hosea 5:1

Oración de Enlace:
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Israel

Ustedes han sido una trampa en Mizpa y una red extendida sobre Tabor Una trampa y una red son objetos que se usan para atrapar presas. En este caso, los sacerdotes y la casa real habían ideado formas de mantener a la gente alejada de Yahvé, mientras los inducía a la idolatría. Mizpah y Tabor eran lugares para la adoración de ídolos en la tierra de Israel.

Los rebeldes se han sumergido profundamente en la matanza, Aquí, "rebeldes" se refiere a todas aquellas personas que se habían alejado de El SEÑOR , y "en el fondo de la matanza" podía referirse al asesinato de personas inocentes, o de la masacre de animales ofrecidos a los ídolos paganos.

Los rebeldes
El traductor puede representar esto como "Ustedes rebeldes", porque Dios realmente está hablando con el pueblo rebelde de Israel.

en la matanza
Algunas versiones modernas interpretan que la expresión hebrea representa la maldad.

los castigaré a todos ellos
El traductor puede representar esto como "los castigaré a todos".

Hosea 5:3

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Israel

Yo conozco a Efraín, e Israel no está escondida de Mí Aquí, "Efraín" e "Israel" se refieren a las personas que viven en el reino del norte de Israel. Aquí Dios dice que él sabe cómo son y lo que están haciendo.

Efraín, ahora te has convertido en una prostituta Efraín se presenta en términos de una prostituta porque las personas se han vuelto infieles a Dios, ya que una prostituta no es fiel a nadie.

porque la mente de adulterio está en ellos Esto significa que tienen el deseo de ser infieles a Dios. Ellos quieren adorar a los ídolos.

volverse a Dios...ellos no conocen al SEÑOR
El traductor puede representar esto como "volverse hacia mí ... no me conocen" o "volverse hacia mí ... no me conocen, al SEÑOR".

y ellos no conocen al Señor Israel ya no obedece al Señor de ninguna manera. Ellos no reconocen al SEÑOR como su Dios.

Hosea 5:5

El orgullo de Israel lo condena
Esto describe al "orgullo" como una persona que testifica contra el pueblo de Israel en la corte. Su actitud y comportamiento de orgullo muestran que son culpables de no seguir obedeciendo a El SEÑOR .

asi Israel y Efraín tropezarán con su pecado; y Judá también tropezará con el.
Los dos reinos se volverán completamente desobedientes a Dios debido a su orgullo y pecado.

Ellos eran infieles al SEÑOR, porque ellos han engendrado hijos ilegítimos Los posibles significados son 1) esto significa que los israelitas se casaban con personas de otras naciones y tenían hijos con ellos o 2) esto significa que los padres israelitas eran infieles al SEÑOR y estaban enseñando a sus hijos a adorar ídolos.

Ahora los nuevos festivales de la luna los devorarán junto con sus campo
El pueblo de Israel debía celebrar durante la luna nueva. Aquí, esta expresión parece describir el festival de la luna nueva como una bestia que se comerá a la gente y sus campos. Sin embargo, es difícil interpretar esta expresión; Muchas versiones lo traducen sin darle mucho sentido. Sin embargo, el significado general es ciertamente que Dios castigará a las personas por su infidelidad hacia él.

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Israel

Toquen la bocina en Gibeá, y la trompeta en Ramá Aquí "cuerno" y "trompeta" significan lo mismo. Este comando se da a la gente de Gibea y Rama para enfatizar que el enemigo está llegando.

Sonido de batalla lloró en Bet Avén: ¡Nosotros te seguiremos a tí Benjamín Esto puede ser una solicitud para que los soldados de la tribu de Benjamín lleven a la gente a la batalla. Pero las versiones modernas hacen varios intentos de interpretar esta expresión.

Bet Avén
Esta era una ciudad en la frontera entre el reino del norte de Israel y la tribu de Benjamín en el reino del sur. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:15.

Entre las tribus de Israel Yo he declarado lo que de seguro pasará.
"Haré a las tribus de Israel lo que he declarado"

Hosea 5:10

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Judá y de Israel

Los líderes de Judá son como esos quienes extienden los límites de sus territorios
"Mover una piedra limítrofe" se refiere a mover el punto de referencia que marcaba la frontera de algunas propiedades, lo cual era un delito según la ley israelita.

Yo derramaré Mi ira en ellos como agua
La ira de El SEÑOR contra Judá será como una gran corriente de agua que los destruye. En las escrituras, a menudo se habla de emociones y cualidades morales como si fueran líquidos.

Efraín está aplastado; él está aplastado en juicio Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Esta declaración se hace dos veces para el énfasis. Aquí "Efraín" se refiere a la gente del reino del norte de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Voy a castigar severamente al pueblo de Israel"

caminado tras los ídolos
Aquí "caminado" representa la idea de adorar.

ídolos
La palabra hebrea traducida aquí como "ídolos" es incierta en su significado, y se traduce por versiones modernas de muchas maneras diferentes.

Hosea 5:12

Información General
El SEÑOR esta hablando acerca de Judá y de Israel

Yo seré como una polilla a Efraín, y como pudrición a la casa de Judá Una polilla en un pedazo de lana y la podredumbre en un pedazo de madera son destructivas. Yahvé destruirá a ambas naciones.

polilla...pudrición
Estos dos términos se traducen de varias maneras porque el significado de la palabra hebrea es muy amplio o es incierto.

Cuando Efraín vió su enfermedad y Judá vió su herida Tanto Efraín

entonces Efraín fue a Asiria y Judá envió mensajeros al gran rey Efraín y Judá pidieron ayuda a Asiria en lugar de pedirle ayuda a Yahvé. "Gran rey" era un título para el rey de Asiria.

Pero el no era capaz
Aqui "el " se refiere a el rey de Asiria

Yo seré como un león a Efraín
El SEÑOR va a perseguir y atacar a Efraín como un león.

y como un leoncillo a la casa de Judá
El SEÑOR va a tratar a Judá de una manera similar. El SEÑOR está mostrando su disgusto con los reinos del norte y del sur.

Yo, incluso yo
El SEÑOR está enfatizando que él es el que está juzgando a todo su pueblo.

arrancaré
Cuando un león desgarra al animal que está comiendo, El SEÑOR arrancará a su gente de sus hogares y de su país.

Chapter 6

1 "Vengan, volvamos al SEÑOR. Pues Él nos ha roto en pedazos, pero Él nos va a sanar; Él nos ha herido, pero Él va a vendar nuestras heridas. 2 Después de dos días Él nos va a revivir; Él nos va a levantar en el tercer día y nosotros vamos a vivir delante de Él. 3 Déjanos saber, SEÑOR; déjanos conocer al SEÑOR. Su venida es tan segura como el amanecer; Él va a venir a nosotros como lloviznas, como las lluvias de primavera que mojan la tierra." 4 ¿Qué haré contigo Efraín? ¿Qué haré contigo Judá? Tu fidelidad es como una nube de la mañana, como la niebla que se va temprano. 5 Así que, Yo he cortado en pedazos a los profetas, Yo los he matado con las palabras de Mi boca. Tu ley es como la luz que brilla. 6 Pues Yo deseo fidelidad y no sacrificio y el conocimiendo de Dios más que ofrendas quemadas. 7 Como Adán, ellos han roto el pacto; ellos fueron infieles a Mí. 8 Galaad es una ciudad de malhechores con huellas de sangre. 9 Como grupo de ladrones que espera a alguien, así es el grupo de sacerdotes que se junta para cometer un asesinato de camino a Siquem; ellos han cometido un crimen vergonzoso. 10 En la casa de Israel Yo he visto cosas horribles; la prostitución de Efraín está allí e Israel se ha vuelto impura. 11 Pues ustedes también, Judá, su cosecha será escogida, cuando Yo restaure la fortuna de Mi pueblo.

Hosea 6:1

Oración de Enlace:
El pueblo de Israel confiesa su necesidad de arrepentirse.

Él nos ha roto en pedazos...Él nos ha herido
Dios ha castigado al pueblo de Israel porque lo desobedecieron y adoraron a los ídolos.

Él nos va a sanar....Él va a vendar nuestras heridas
Israel cree que Dios será misericordioso con ellos cuando se arrepientan y él los librará de sus problemas.

Después de dos días Él nos va a revivir; Él nos va a levantar en el tercer día Esto representa un corto período de tiempo. Israel cree que Dios vendrá rápidamente para rescatarlos de sus enemigos.

dos días...tercer día
"2 días ... 3er día"

Déjanos saber, SEÑOR
Aquí "saber" significa no solo aprender el carácter y las leyes de Dios, sino también ser fiel a él. (Ver UDB)

Su venida es tan segura como el amanecer el SEÑOR vendrá a ayudar a su gente con la misma seguridad con que sale el sol cada mañana.

Hosea 6:4

Oración de Enlace:
El SEÑOR está hablando

Qué haré contigo
Dios está expresando que su paciencia está llegando a su fin y que lo que queda es el juicio.
Traducción Alterna: "¡es difícil saber qué hacer contigo!"

Así que, Yo he cortado en pedazos a los profetas,
A través de sus profetas, el SEÑOR ha declarado la destrucción de la nación rebelde. La destrucción, aquí llamada "cortar en pedazos", es tan segura como la condenación.

Tu ley es como la luz que brilla.
Aquí el profeta Oseas habla a Dios. Puede querer decir que cuando Dios da la orden de que alguien muera como castigo, es como un rayo que golpea

Tu ley
"Mandatos del SEÑOR"

Hosea 6:6

Informacion General
el SEÑOR está hablando

Pues Yo deseo fidelidad y no sacrificio
Esta construcción gramatical en hebreo señala aquí la idea de "más que", como lo muestra la siguiente línea ("y el conocimiento de Dios más que las ofrendas quemadas"). Traducción Alterna: "Porque deseo fidelidad más que sacrificio"

Como Adán
Los posibles significados son 1) esto se refiere a Adán, el primer hombre o 2) este es una metónimia que representa a las personas que viven en una ciudad en Israel llamada Adán. Traducción Alterna: "Como las personas en la ciudad de Adán" o 3) esto se refiere a las personas en general. La palabra "Adán" significa "hombre" o "humanidad". Traducción Alterna: "Como toda la humanidad"

Galaad es una ciudad....con huellas de sangre
"Huellas de sangre" probablemente representa a los malhechores y sus actos de asesinato.

el grupo de sacerdotes que se junta para cometer un asesinato de camino a Siquem
No sabemos a qué se refiere esto. ¿Los sacerdotes eran realmente culpables de atacar a las personas en su camino hacia Siquem, que era un importante centro religioso y político? ¿O está diciendo el profeta que los sacerdotes han "matado" el verdadero conocimiento y la adoración de el SEÑOR? Es mejor traducir esta expresión lo más claramente posible.

Hosea 6:10

Informacion General
el SEÑOR está hablando

prostitución de Efraín
Aquí "prostitución" se refiere a la adoración de los falsos dioses por parte de Efraín.

Israel se ha vuelto impura
Israel se ha vuelto inaceptable para Dios debido a sus acciones.

Pues ustedes también, Judá, su cosecha será escogida, Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "También he establecido un tiempo de cosecha para ti, Juda"

cosecha
Aquí "la cosecha" representa el juicio final de Dios sobre Israel y Judá.

fortuna
prosperidad y seguridad

Chapter 7

1 Cuando Yo he querido sanar a Israel, el pecado de Efraín ha sido descubierto, igual que los actos malvados de Samaria, porque ellos practican el engaño; un ladrón entra, y una banda de asaltantes ataca las calles. 2 Ellos no se dan cuenta en sus corazones que Yo recuerdo todos sus actos malvados. Ahora sus actos los rodean; ellos estan frente a mi rostro. 3 Con sus maldades ellos hacen al rey feliz, y a los oficiales con sus mentiras. 4 Todos ellos son adúlteros, como un horno calentado por el panadero, quien deja de revolver el fuego de la masa hasta que se levante. 5 En el día de nuestro rey, los oficiales se enfermaron con el calor del vino. Él extiende la mano a esos que estaban burlándose. 6 Porque con corazones como un horno, ellos hacen sus planes engañosos. Su enojo se calma toda la noche; en la mañana arde como un alto fuego. 7 Todos ellos arden como un horno, y devoran a aquellos que gobiernan sobre ellos. Todos sus reyes han caído; ninguno de ellos clama a Mí. 8 Efraín se mezcla a sí mismo entre la gente. Efraín es una tortilla que no ha sido volteada. 9 Extranjeros han devorado sus fuerzas, pero él no lo sabe. Canas han sido esparcidas en su cabeza, pero él no lo sabe. 10 El orgullo de Israel testifica en contra de él; sin embargo, ellos no han regresado al SEÑOR su Dios, ni lo han buscado, a pesar de todo ésto. 11 Efraín es como una paloma, tonta y sin entendimiento, clamando por Egipto, y luego escápando a Asiria. 12 Cuando ellos vayan, Yo abriré mi red sobre ellos, Yo los derribaré como aves del cielo. Yo los castigaré todos juntos. 13 ¡Ay de ellos! Porque ellos se han alejado de Mí. ¡La destrucción viene a ellos! ¡Ellos se han rebelado en contra Mía! Yo los hubiera rescatado, pero ellos hablan mentiras en contra Mía. 14 Ellos no han clamado a Mí con todo su corazón, pero ellos han llorado en sus camas. Ellos se juntan por el grano y vino nuevo, y ellos me han dado la espalda. 15 Aunque Yo les adiestré y les fortalecí los brazos, ellos ahora están planeando maldad en contra Mía. 16 Ellos van y vienen, pero no regresan a Mí, El Altísimo. Ellos son como un arco flojo. Sus oficiales caerán por la espada debido a la insolencia de sus lenguas. Ésta se volverá su burla en la tierra de Egipto.

Hosea 7:1

Informacion General
el SEÑOR está hablando

Yo quiero sanar a Israel
Hacer que Israel vuelva a ser obediente a Dios y se habla a los receptores de su bendición como si fuera una curación.

porque ellos practican el engaño
The people are selling and buying products dishonestly.

banda de asaltantes
Este es un grupo de personas que están atacando a otras personas sin causa.

sus actos los rodean
Las malas acciones de la gente probablemente se mencionan aquí como si fueran otras personas dispuestas a acusarlos de sus crímenes.

ellos estan frente a mi rostro
"Cara" se refiere a la presencia de Dios, o la conciencia de Dios. Los "testigos", es decir, las malas acciones, están en la presencia de Dios para presentar sus acusaciones.

Hosea 7:3

Informacion General
El SEÑOR está hablando. El texto hebreo no está claro en varios lugares. Sin embargo, muchas personas lo interpretan como si describieran a los funcionarios reales como infieles a Dios, y también como planeando asesinar al rey, y luego llevar a cabo sus planes. Esto parece haber ocurrido más de una vez. Estos crímenes se mencionan como ilustraciones de la maldad en que se ha hundido la nación.

Todos ellos son adúlteros
Las personas cometieron adulterio espiritual al adorar ídolos y ser infieles a Yahvé. Probablemente también estaban siendo infieles a sus esposos o esposas al acostarse con otras personas.

como un horno calentado por el panadero, Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Esto significa que la gente tenía fuertes deseos de hacer el mal. Traducción Alterna: "como un horno que calienta el panadero"

amasar la masa
Esta es una parte del proceso de hacer pan

En el día de nuestro rey,
Este es quizás un festival celebrado por el rey.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él extiende la mano
Esto probablemente significa unirse o unirse con alguien. Puede significar que el rey se une a sus funcionarios para burlarse de cosas o personas que no deberían ser burladas, incluso de Dios mismo.

Hosea 7:6

Informacion General
Se describe la conspiración de los funcionarios de la corte. Su ira es lo que los motiva a matar a su rey.

Porque con corazones como un horno
Esto significa que como un fuego arde en un horno, estas personas tienen fuertes deseos malvados dentro de ellos.

Su enojo se arde
La palabra "arder" significa que algo se está quemando lentamente sin una llama. Traducción Alterna: "Su ira crece lenta y silenciosamente"

arde como un alto fuego
Se habla de la intensidad de su ira como si fuera un fuego muy caliente. Traducción Alterna: "se pone muy intenso"

Todos ellos arden como un horno
Esto compara su enojo con el calor que proviene de un horno.

y devoran a aquellos que gobiernan sobre ellos
Esto parece significar que los oficiales de la corte matan a sus reyes.

Hosea 7:8

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

Efraín se mezcla a sí mismo entre la gente
Esta es probablemente una referencia a los esfuerzos realizados por los reyes del reino del norte para aliarse con otras naciones para protegerse contra los ataques.

Efraín es una tortilla que no ha sido volteada
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Aquí "Efraín" se refiere al reino del norte de Israel. La nación es débil, ya que el panadero no ha doblado el pan plano en el horno para obtener más fuerza. Traducción Alterna: "La gente de Efraín es como un pastel que nadie ha entregado"

Canas han sido esparcidas en su cabeza Aquí los "cabellos grises" representan la vejez.

pero él no lo sabe.
Sin embargo, esta "vejez" es claramente una forma de decir que el reino del norte se está debilitando cada vez más, porque la nación no sabe que es "vieja".

Hosea 7:10

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

El orgullo de Israel testifica en contra de él Esto describe al "orgullo" como una persona que testifica contra el pueblo de Israel en la corte. Esto significa que su actitud y comportamiento orgullosos demuestran que son culpables de no seguir obedeciendo a El SEÑOR.

ni lo han buscado
Se habla de la falta de interés de Israel en El SEÑOR como si estuviera perdido y no trataran de encontrarlo. Traducción Alterna: "ni han intentado que él les preste atención"

a pesar de todo ésto
Aquí "esto" se refiere a Dios permitiendo a los extranjeros derrotarlos y debilitarlos.

Efraín es como una paloma, tonta y sin entendimiento,
Se pensaba que las palomas eran aves tontas.

Egipto.....Asiria
Estas eran naciones poderosas a quienes Israel podría pedir ayuda.

Hosea 7:12

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

Yo abriré mi red sobre ellos
Esta es una forma de atrapar pájaros. El SEÑOR continúa comparando al pueblo de Israel con las palomas. Cuando vayan a Egipto o a Asiria en busca de ayuda, El SEÑOR los castigará.

Yo los derribaré como aves del cielo
El SEÑOR habla de la forma en que juzgará a Israel como si fueran pájaros que atraparía en una red. Traducción Alterna: "Los cazaré como pájaros" o "Los atraparé como un cazador atrapa pájaros"

en su rebaño juntos
Esta expresión amplía la metáfora de los pájaros.

Hosea 7:14

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

ellos han llorado en sus camas
Era habitual que los adoradores de ídolos comieran alimentos ceremoniales mientras se recostaban en sillones o camas.

Chapter 8

1 "¡Coloca una trompeta en tus labios! Un águila viene sobre la casa del SEÑOR porque el pueblo ha roto Mi pacto y se ha rebelado en contra de Mi ley. 2 Ellos claman a Mí: 'Mi Dios, nosotros en Israel te conocemos.' 3 Pero Israel ha rechazado lo que es bueno, y su enemigo lo perseguirá. 4 Ellos han puesto reyes, pero no por Mí. Ellos han hecho prínicipes, pero sin Mi conocimiento. Con su plata y su oro han hecho ídolos para sí mismos, pero sólo para su destrucción." 5 "Su becerro ha sido rechazado, Samaria. Mi enojo arde en contra de estas personas. ¿Por cuánto tiempo permanecerán culpables? 6 Pues este ídolo vino de Israel; un obrero lo hizo; ¡no es Dios! El becerro de Samaria será roto en pedazos. 7 Pues el pueblo sembró el viento y cosechó tempestad. Los granos no tienen espigas, no producen harina. Si no llega a madurez, los extranjeros los devorarán. 8 Israel ha sido devorado; ahora están entre las naciones como algo inútil. 9 Pues ellos fueron hasta Siria como un burro salvaje, solo. Efraín ha alquilado amantes para ella misma. 10 Incluso cuando ellos han alquilado amantes entre las naciones, Yo ahora los reuniré a todos juntos. Ellos comenzarán a consumirse por causa de la opresión de los reyes y de los príncipes. 11 Pues Efraín ha multiplicado los altares para ofrendas de pecado, pero en vez, ellos se han vuelto altares para cometer pecado. 12 Yo pudiera escribir Mi ley diez mil veces, pero ellos lo verían como algo extraño para ellos. 13 En cuanto a los sacrificios de mis ofrendas, ellos sacrifican carne y se la comen, pero Yo, El SEÑOR, no lo acepto. Ahora Yo pensaré en su maldad y castigaré sus pecados. Ellos regresarán a Egipto. 14 Israel se ha olvidado de Mí, su Creador, y han construído palacios. Judá ha fortificado muchas ciudades, pero Yo enviaré fuego a sus ciudades; destruirá sus fuertes.

Hosea 8:1

Informacion General
Yahvé está hablando de la llegada del ejército asirio para atacar el reino del norte.

Un águila viene sobre la casa del SEÑOR
El águila, un ave de presa, a veces se utiliza para representar a los enemigos de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Mientras un águila caza a otro animal, los enemigos de Israel vienen a capturar a mi gente"

ha roto Mi pacto
Aquí "roto" representa "desobedecido", "violado".

Los posibles significados son 1) este es el profeta que habla

Su becerro
El rey Jeroboam el segundo de Israel

Mi enojo arde en contra de estas personas.
A menudo se habla de la ira como si fuera un fuego. Traducción Alterna: "Estoy muy enojado con estas personas"

¿Por cuánto tiempo permanecerán culpables?
El SEÑOR hace esta pregunta para expresar su enojo por la impureza de su pueblo. "Estoy enojado con estas personas porque no desean ser inocentes".

Hosea 8:6

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

Pues el pueblo sembró el viento y cosechó tempestad
Sembrar o plantar el viento es actuar de manera inútil o destructiva. Cosechar tempestad es sufrir un desastre por las propias acciones.

Los granos no tienen espigas
Aquí "espiga" se refiere a la parte de la planta donde está el grano. Un tallo sin espiga no tiene nada que dar al granjero. De la misma manera, las acciones de Israel resultarán en nada bueno.

Si no llega a madurez, los extranjeros los devorarán
Si alguna de las acciones de Israel resulta en algo bueno, los enemigos de Israel vendrán y se lo quitarán.

Israel ha sido devorado
"tragado" significa ser derrotado y llevado al exilio. Esto se expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los enemigos de Israel se han llevado a los israelitas a otras tierras"

como un burro salvaje, solo
La gente amenudo piensa que los burros son tercos. Esto significa que el pueblo de Israel se negó a escuchar al SEÑOR, sino que fue a pedir ayuda al pueblo de Asiria.

Efraín ha alquilado amantes para ella misma
Se habla de las alianzas de Efraín con otras naciones como si les hubieran pagado para convertirse en prostitutas para Efraín. Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo de Israel ha tratado de pagar a otras naciones para protegerlos"

Chapter 9

1 No te alegres, Israel, con gozo como las otras personas. Pues ustedes han sido infieles, olvidando a su Dios. Ustedes aman pagar el salario de una prostituta sobre las eras de trillar. 2 Pero las eras de trillar y los lagares no los van a alimentar; el nuevo vino va a fallarles. 3 Ellos no van a seguir viviendo en la tierra del SEÑOR; por el contrario, Efraín va a volver a Egipto y un día ellos van a comer comida impura en Asiria. 4 Ellos no van a derramar ofrendas de vino al SEÑOR, ni tampoco ellos le serán agradables a Él. Sus sacrificios van a ser para ellos como la comida de luto: todo que lo coman los volverá impuros. Pues su comida va a ser para ellos solamente; no van a venir a la casa del SEÑOR. 5 ¿Qué harán ustedes en el día elegido para la fiesta, en el día de la fiesta para El SEÑOR? 6 Pues, mira, si ellos escapan de la destrucción, Egipto los va a reunir, y Menfis los va a enterrar. Las ortigas poseerán sus tesoros de plata y las espinas llenarán sus casas. 7 Los días de castigo están llegando; los días de pagar están viniendo. Deja que todo Israel sepa todas estas cosas. El profeta es un tonto y el hombre inspirado es un hombre loco, por su gran maldad y gran odio. 8 El vigilante es el guardián para Dios sobre Efraín. La gente hace una trampa para el donde quiera que el va. 9 Ellos se han corrompido profundamente como en los días de Guibeá. Dios va a traer a memoria su maldad y Él los va a castigar por sus pecados. 10 El SEÑOR dice: "Cuando Yo encontré a Israel, fué como encontrar uvas en el desierto. Como la primera fruta de la temporada del árbol de higo, Yo encontré a sus padres. Pero ellos fueron donde Baal Peor y ellos se dedicaron a ese ídolo vergonzoso. Ellos se volvieron detestables como el ídolo que ellos amaron. 11 Mientras por Efraín, su gloria va a volar como un pájaro. No va haber ningún nacimiento, ningún embarazo y ninguna concepción. 12 Aunque ellos hayan traído niños, Yo voy a llevármelos para que ninguno quede. ¡Ay de ellos cuando Yo me aleje de ellos! 13 Yo he visto a Efraín, está como Tiro, plantado en una pradera, pero Efraín va a llevar sus hijos a alguien que los va a asesinar." Dáles, SEÑOR-- ¿qué les darás? 14 Dáles a ellas un aborto en el vientre y senos que no den leche. 15 "Por toda su maldad en Gilgal, que es donde Yo comencé a odiarlos. Por sus actos malvados, Yo los voy a sacar de Mi casa. Yo no los voy amar más; sus gobernantes son rebeldes. 16 Efraín es una enfermedad y sus raíces están secas; ellas no llevan frutos. Aún si ellos tienen hijos, Yo voy a poner sus amados hijos a muerte." 17 Mi Dios los va a rechazar porque ellos no le obedecieron a Él. Ellos se convertirán en nómadas entre las naciones.

Oseas el profeta esta hablando

Pero las eras de trillar y los lagares no los van a alimentar Esto describe la trilla y el lagar como si fueran seres humanos que puedan alimentar a alguien. Esto significa que la cosecha no proporcionará suficiente grano para la trilla para satisfacer las necesidades de la gente, y que no proporcionará las uvas para prensar para hacer suficiente vino.

las eras de trillar
Estas eran áreas amplias utilizadas no solo para la trilla del grano, sino también para ceremonias comunitarias y religiosas. Las prostitutas del templo vinieron para ayudar a los hombres a celebrar el festival de la cosecha a los ídolos.

Esta expresión señala que el SEÑOR sigue considerando la tierra de Israel como su propiedad, no la propiedad de los israelitas.

comida impura
Este es un alimento que los israelitas normalmente se negarían a comer porque los haría inaceptables para el SEÑOR.

Sus sacrificios van a ser para ellos como la comida de luto
Aquí, la "comida de los enlutados" se refiere a lo que las personas comían mientras se lamentaban porque estaban contaminados y no eran aceptables para Dios. Esto significa que el SEÑOR considerará que los sacrificios de las personas están contaminados y él no los aceptará.

Pues su comida va a ser para ellos solamente; no van a venir a la casa del SEÑOR.
El pueblo de Israel tendrá comida para comer, pero el SEÑOR no lo aceptará como un sacrificio.

no van a venir a la casa del SEÑOR.
Se habla de la comida impura como si fuera capaz de ir a lugares por sí misma. Por supuesto, la gente tenía que llevárselo.

Oseas el profeta esta hablando

Qué harán ustedes en el día elegido para la fiesta, en el día de la fiesta para El SEÑOR?
Oseas usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que la gente ya no podrá observar sus festivales cuando sus enemigos los derroten y los lleven cautivos. Traducción Alterna: "No podrás celebrar las festividades que El SEÑOR te asignó".

el día elegido para la fiesta, en el día de la fiesta para El SEÑOR Ambos de esto significan la misma cosa.

si ellos escapan
Aquí "ellos" todavía se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Puedes continuar afirmando que es segunda persona. Traducción Alterna: "si te escapas"

Egipto los va a reunir, y Menfis los va a enterrar Egipto y Menfis se refieren a las personas que viven allí. Traducción Alterna: "el ejército de Egipto te capturará. Morirás allí y la gente de la ciudad de Memphis te enterrará"

En cuanto a sus tesoros de plata, las ortigas los poseerán.
Se habla de las ortigas que crecen en los lugares donde los israelitas almacenan su plata, como si las ortigas fueran enemigos humanos que tomarían las posesiones preciosas de los israelitas para ellos mismos. Traducción Alterna: "Las ortigas crecerán donde almacenen sus tesoros de plata" las ortigas los poseerán, y las espinas llenarán sus casas.

Aquí "ortigas" y "espinas" significan lo mismo. Tener ortigas y espinos en crecimiento representa una tierra que se ha vuelto desolada y como un desierto.

sus casas
Aquí las "casas" representan los hogares de los israelitas.

Oseas el profeta esta hablando

Los días de castigo están llegando; los días de pagar están viniendo Oseas dice estas dos frases similares para enfatizar que El SEÑOR pronto juzgará al pueblo de Israel por sus malas acciones.

El profeta es un tonto y el hombre inspirado es un hombre loco Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Los posibles significados son 1) que la gente consideraba a los profetas como locos o 2) que los profetas se habían vuelto locos por los pecados que la gente había cometido.

El profeta es un tonto y el hombre inspirado es un hombre loco Aquí, "profeta" y "hombre inspirado" significan una persona que dice recibir mensajes de Dios. Se implica que estas personas son falsos profetas y solo pensaron que recibieron mensajes de Dios.

por su gran maldad y gran odio.
Las frases "gran iniquidad" y "gran hostilidad" comparten significados similares. La iniquidad de la gente se manifestó en hostilidad hacia El SEÑOR y sus profetas.

Oseas el profeta esta hablando

El profeta es el guardián para Dios sobre Efraín
Un "vigilante" mira fuera de su ciudad para ver si hay peligro. Se habla del profeta que advierte a la gente cuando está pecando y está en peligro de que su Dios lo castigue como si fuera un vigilante de la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "El profeta es como un vigilante de Dios sobre Efraín"

El profeta es el guardián para Dios sobre Efraín
Algunas versiones traducen este pasaje como "El profeta con mi Dios es el vigilante de Efraín".

El profeta es
Esto se refiere a los profetas en general que Dios ha designado. Traducción Alterna: "Los profetas son" o "Los verdaderos profetas son"

Efrain
Aquí "Efraín" representa a todo el pueblo de Israel.

una trampa para pájaros está en todos sus caminos
Una "trampa para pájaros" es una trampa que se usa para atrapar un ave. Esto significa que el pueblo de Israel hace todo lo posible para detener al profeta de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "la gente pone una trampa para él donde quiera que vaya" o "la gente hace todo lo posible para hacerle daño"

Ellos se han corrompido profundamente como en los días de Guibeá
"El pueblo de Israel ha pecado y se ha vuelto muy corrupto como lo hicieron en Gibeah hace mucho tiempo". Esta es probablemente una referencia a las acciones impactantes de la tribu de Benjamín, relatadas en Jueces 19-21.

Cuando Yo encontré a Israel
Esto se refiere a cuando El SEÑOR comenzó por primera vez su relación con el pueblo de Israel al reclamarlos como su propio pueblo especial.

fué como encontrar uvas en el desierto. Como la primera fruta de la temporada del árbol de higo Ambas declaraciones enfatizan situaciones que son agradables para una persona. Esto significa que El SEÑOR estaba muy feliz cuando comenzó su relación con el pueblo de Israel.

Baal Peor
Este es el nombre de una montaña en la tierra de Moab donde se adoraba al falso dios Baal.

Hosea 9:11

Informacion General
El SEÑOR esta hablando

su gloria va a volar como un pájaro
La gente de Efraín, o el reino del norte de Israel, perderá todo lo que hace que otras naciones los respeten. Su gloria desaparecerá rápidamente, como un pájaro vuela lejos. Traducción Alterna: "su gloria será como un pájaro que vuela lejos de ellos" cuando Yo me aleje de ellos!

Cuando Dios deje de ayudar al reino del norte, será como si físicamente se apartara de ellos.

Hosea 9:13

Informacion General
Oseas el profeta esta hablando

Yo he visto a Efraín, está como Tiro, plantado en una pradera
"plantado" se refiere a estar en un lugar seguro. Traducción Alterna: "La nación de Israel fue una vez hermosa y agradable como la ciudad de Tiro, como un árbol que alguien planta en un prado"

pero Efraín va a llevar sus hijos
Los "niños" son las personas de esa nación.Traducción Alterna: "pero el pueblo de Israel sacará a sus hijos"

Dáles, SEÑOR-- ¿qué les darás? Dáles a ellas Oseas usa una pregunta para enfatizar que quiere que el SEÑOR le dé a la gente de Israel lo que merecen. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que te pido, SEÑOR, que les des: dales"

un vientre abortivo
Para "aborto involuntario" significa que un embarazo termina demasiado temprano y el bebé muere. Oseas está pidiendo que todas las mujeres de la nación sean así.

Chapter 10

1 Israel es una vid frondosa que produce su fruto. Mientras su fruto aumentaba, más altares él construía. Mientras su tierra más producía, él mejoró sus pilares. 2 Su corazón es engañoso; ahora ellos deben soportar su culpa. El SEÑOR demolerá sus altares; ellos destruirán sus pilares. 3 Pues entonces ellos dirán: "No tenemos ningún rey---¿qué podría hacer él por nosotros?" 4 Ellos hablan palabras vacías y hacen pactos jurando falsamente. Así que, la justicia brota como hierbas venenosas en los surcos de un campo. 5 Los habitantes de Samaria estarán con miedo por los becerros de Bet Avén. Su gente se lamentó sobre ellos, así como aquellos sacerdotes idólatras que se habían alegrado sobre ellos y su esplendor ya no está ahí. 6 Ellos serán llevados a Asiria como regalo para el rey. Efraín será desgraciada, e Israel será avergonzada de su ídolo. 7 El rey de Samaria será destruído, como un astilla de madera sobre la superficie del agua. 8 Los lugares altos de maldad serán destruídos. ¡Éste es el pecado de Israel! Espinas y cardos crecerán sobre sus altares. Las personas dirán a las montañas: "¡Cúbranos!" y a las colinas: "¡Caigan sobre nosotros!" 9 "Israel, has pecado desde los días de Guibeá; ahí te has mantenido. ¿Acaso la guerra no los alcanzará en Guibeaá a los hijos del mal? 10 Cuando Yo lo desee, Yo los disciplinaré a ellos. Las naciones se reunirán contra ellos y los atarán por su doble maldad. 11 Efraín es una vaquilla domesticada que ama trillar el grano, así que, Yo pondré un yugo en su hermoso cuello. Yo pondré un yugo en Efraín; Judá arará; Jacob jalará la grada por sí mismo. 12 Siembra justicia por sí mismos, y cosechen el fruto de su fiel pacto. Rompan sus terrenos sin labrar, pues es tiempo de buscar a El SEÑOR, hasta que Él venga y llueva justicia sobre ustedes. 13 Ustedes han arado maldad, y cosecharon injusticia. Ustedes han comido el fruto de la mentira porque confiaron en sus planes y en sus muchos soldados. 14 Entonces la confusión se levantará de entre su gente, y todas sus ciudades fortificadas serán destruídas. Será como Salmán destruyó Bet Arbel en un día de batalla, donde madres fueron cortadas en pedazos con sus hijos. 15 Así les pasará a ustedes, Betel, debido a su gran maldad. Al amanecer el rey de Israel será completamente destruído."

Hosea 10:1

Información general:
Oseas está hablando sobre Israel.

Israel es una vid frondosa que produce su fruto
Se habla de Israel como si fuera una vid muy fructífera. Por un tiempo el pueblo prosperó y fue fuerte.

una vid frondosa
Esta vid produce más fruto de lo normal.

Mientras su fruto aumentaba...Mientras su tierra más producía
Estas dos frases significan: mientras el pueblo prosperaba, y se volvía más fuerte y más rico.

Su corazón es engañoso
"Corazón" se refiere a las personas mismas. "Ellos son engañosos"

ahora ellos deben soportar su culpa
"Ahora es el momento en que el SEÑOR los castigará por sus pecados"

Hosea 10:3

Información general:
Oseas está hablando de Israel.

y un rey---¿qué podría hacer él por nosotros?
Los testamentos de las personas dicen que sus reyes no podrían haberlos ayudado. Traducción Alterna: "Aunque tuvieramos un rey ahora, él no podría ayudarnos".

Ellos hablan palabras vacías
Aquí "palabras vacías" se refiere a las mentiras. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos hablan mentiras".

Así que, la justicia brota como hierbas venenosas en los surcos de un campo
Se habla de lo que su pueblo llama justicia en sus leyes y decisiones legales como si fuera una planta que brota. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces sus decisiones no son justas, en cambio, son dañinas" como hierbas venenosas en los surcos de un campo

Sus mentiras e injusticia se esparcen por toda la nación y lastiman a todos como plantas venenosas.

Ellos serán llevados a Asiria
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los asirios se los llevarán"

Efraín será desgraciada, e Israel será avergonzada de su ídolo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Y el pueblo de Israel estará muy avergonzado porque habían adorado a ídolos"

su ídolo
Muchas versiones interpretan a la palabra hebrea en este versículo como "consejo", "planes" o "intenciones".

Hosea 10:7

El rey de Samaria será destruído Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los asirios destruirán al rey de Samaria" como un astilla de madera sobre la superficie del agua Esto significa que el rey de Samaria será tan indefenso como una pequeña pieza de madera a la que las olas de agua sacuden hacia atrás y adelante.

Los lugares altos de maldad serán destruídos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los asirios destruirán los lugares altos de Israel donde las personas actuaban con mucha maldad"

Las personas dirán a las montañas: "¡Cúbranos!" y a las colinas: "¡Caigan sobre nosotros!"
Las personas normalmente no le hablan a las cosas que no pueden pensar o escucharlos. Los traductores pueden elegir un formato diferente para este versículo si sus idiomas no permiten esa forma de habla. Traducción Alterna: "La gente dirá, "¡Deseamos que las montañas nos cubran!" y "¡Deseamos que las colinas caigan sobre nosotros!""

días de Guibeá
Esto es probablemente una referencia a las acciones ofensivas de la tribu de Benjamín que se relatan en Jueces 19-21. Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 9:8.

ahí te has mantenido
Este pasaje probablemente significa que la gente del presente continúa actuando de la misma manera en la que sus ancestros lo hacían en Guibeá. Traducción Alterna: "y ustedes piensan como pensaban ellos"

¿Acaso la guerra no los alcanzará en Guibeá a los hijos del mal?
El SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para hacer énfasis en que aquellos en Guibeá que hacen el mal ciertamente tendrán que padecer la guerra. Y esto habla de las personas que tienen que padecer la guerra cuando vienen sus enemigos como si la guerra fuera una persona que los alcanza. Traducción Alterna: "La guerra ciertamente vendrá sobre aquellos que hacen el mal en Guibeá" o "Los enemigos ciertamente atacarán a los que hagan el mal en Guibeá".

los hijos del mal
Aquí "hijos de" es una expresión idiomática que significa "tener la característica de ". Traducción Alterna: "aquellos que hacen el mal" o " los malvados"

Hosea 10:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR está hablando.

doble maldad
Esto se refiere a los tantos pecados de Israel.

Efraín es una vaquilla domesticada que ama trillar
Una vaquilla ama trillar porque puede caminar libremente sin un yugo. El SEÑOR quiere decir que Él ha permitido que el pueblo de Israel sea libre y viva una vida agradable.

Yo pondré un yugo en su hermoso cuello. Yo pondré un yugo en Efraín Aquí "yugo" se refiere al sufrimiento y la esclavitud. El SEÑOR ha sido bueno con el pueblo de Israel pero las personas han sido infieles a Él. Por lo tanto, Él los castigará y los enviará como esclavos.

Judá arará; Jacob jalará la grada por sí mismo Aquí "Judá" se refiere a las personas del reino sur y "Jacob" son las personas del reino sur. Esto significa que Dios traerá tiempos difíciles para los dos reinos.

grada
Una herramienta utilizada para ablandar la tierra y cubrir las semillas luego de arar.

Hosea 10:12

Rompan sus terrenos sin labrar
Cuando el terreno está "sin labrar" no está listo para ser sembrado. El SEÑOR se refiere a que Él quiere que las personas se arrepientan para que puedan empezar a hacer lo que está bien.

Ustedes han arado maldad, y cosecharon injusticia
Se habla de la maldad y de la injusticia como si fueran cultivos que pueden ser sembrados y cosechados.

Ustedes han comido el fruto de la mentira
Se habla del fruto de la mentira como si fuera una comida que puede comerse. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes ahora sufren las consecuencias de haberse engañado los unos a los otros"

Hosea 10:14

Será como Salmán destruyó Bet Arbel en un día de batalla
Se compara a la guerra que viene con una batalla de hace mucho tiempo.

Salmán
Este es el nombre de un rey que destruyó la ciudad de Bet Arbel alrededor del 740 a.C.. Su ejército asesinó a mujeres y niños en el ataque.

Bet Arbel
Este es probablemente el nombre de una ciudad de la tribu de Neftalí.

Así les pasará a ustedes, Betel, debido a su gran maldad Aquí "Betel" representa a las personas que viven allí. El profeta se dirige a las personas de Betel como si lo estuvieran escuchando.

Chapter 11

1 Cuando Israel era un niño, Yo lo amé, y Yo llamé a Mi hijo fuera de Egipto. 2 Mientras más los llamaba, ellos más se alejaban de Mí. Ellos sacrificaron a los baales y quemaron incienso a sus ídolos. 3 Sin embargo, fuí Yo quien le enseñó a Efraín a caminar. Fuí Yo quien lo levantó en brazos, pero ellos no sabían que Yo cuidé de ellos. 4 Yo los guié con cuerdas de humanidad, con lazos de amor. Yo fuí para ellos como alguien que aligera el yugo de sus quijadas, y Yo me incliné a ellos y los alimenté. 5 ¿No regresarán ellos a la tierra de Egipto? ¿No gobernará Asiria sobre ellos, porque ellos se niegan a regresar a Mí? 6 La espada caerá en sus ciudades y destruirá las cerraduras de sus puertas; los destruirá por sus propios planes. 7 Mi gente está decidida a alejarse de Mí. Aunque ellos claman por El Altísimo, nadie les ayudará a ellos. 8 ¿Cómo puedo renunciar a tí, Efraín? ¿Cómo puedo Yo entregarte, Israel? ¿Cómo puedo Yo hacerlos como Adma? ¿Cómo puedo Yo hacerlos como Zeboim? Mi corazón ha cambiado dentro de Mí; todas mis compasiones han sido agitadas. 9 Yo no ejecutaré mi enojo feroz; Yo no destruiré denuevo a Efraín. Pues Yo soy Dios y no un hombre; Yo soy el Santo entre ustedes, y Yo no vendré en ira. 10 Ellos seguirán al SEÑOR; y Él rugirá como un león. Cuando Él ruge, sus hijos vendrán temblando del oeste. 11 Ellos vendrán temblando como un ave de Egipto, como una paloma de la tierra de Asiria. Yo los haré vivir en sus hogares--esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 12 Efraín me rodea con falsedad, y la casa de Israel con engaño. Pero Judá todavía está lejos de Dios, aún, en contra del Santo."

Hosea 11:1

Información general:
El SEÑOR habla de preocuparse por Israel como un padre se precupa por su hijo.

Cuando Israel era un niño
El SEÑOR habla de las personas de Israel como si fueran un niño. El SEÑOR se refiere a cuando Él comenzó su relación con la nación al principio.

Yo llamé a Mi hijo fuera de Egipto
"Hijo" se refiere al pueblo de Dios el Padre.
Traducción Alterna: "Yo guié a mi hijo fuera de Egipto"

Mientras más los llamaba, ellos más se alejaban de Mí
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción Alterna: "Mientras más los llamaba para que sean mi pueblo, más me rechazaban."

Hosea 11:3

Información general:
El SEÑOR habla de cómo Él se preocupaba por Israel.

fuí Yo quien le enseñó a Efraín a caminar
El SEÑOR habla de Israel como si fuera un niño pequeño a quien Él le enseñó a caminar.

Fuí Yo quien lo levantó en brazos
Esta expresión continúa con la metáfora.
Traducción Alterna: "los cuidé".

Yo los guié con cuerdas de humanidad, con lazos de amor
El SEÑOR amó a su pueblo de formas en las que ellos, como humanos, podían entender y apreciar.

Yo fuí para ellos como alguien que aligera el yugo de sus quijada
El SEÑOR habla de la nación de Israel como un animal trabajador, cuyo trabajo Él hizo más fácil.

Yo me incliné a ellos y los alimenté
Esta expresión continúa la metáfora en la que Israel es descrita como un niño. Puede significar que el SEÑOR atendió todas sus necesidades físicas.

Hosea 11:5

Información general:
El SEÑOR está hablando de Israel.

¿No regresarán ellos a la tierra de Egipto?
Esta pregunta significa que la nación de Israel será de nuevo esclava como lo fue en Egipto.

¿No gobernará Asiria sobre ellos, porque ellos se niegan a regresar a Mí?
La nación de Israel será prisionera de Asiria a causa del rechazo a mantenerse fieles al SEÑOR.

La espada caerá en sus ciudades Aquí la "espada" representa a los enemigos de Israel que destruirán las ciudades de Israel.

destruirá las cerraduras de sus puertas
Las puertas ofrecían seguridad a los habitantes de la ciudad contra sus enemigos y las cerraduras protegían las puertas cerradas. Destruir las cerraduras significaba quitar la seguridad de las personas.

Aunque ellos claman por El Altísimo Aquí Dios habla de sí mismo en tercera persona. Esto puede ser expresado en primera persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción Alterna: "Aunque ellos me llamen, El Altísimo"

nadie les ayudará a ellos
El SEÑOR no permitirá que nadie le ayude a Israel porque ellos se alejaron de Él.

Hosea 11:8

Información general:
El SEÑOR habla de Israel.

¿Cómo puedo renunciar a tí, Efraín? ¿Cómo puedo Yo entregarte, Israel?
El SEÑOR ama tanto a su pueblo que no lo destruirá totalmente. Estas preguntas pueden traducirse como afirmaciones. Traducción Alterna: "Yo no renunciaré a tí, Efraín. Yo no te entregaré, Israel".

¿Cómo puedo Yo hacerlos como Adma? ¿Cómo puedo Yo hacerlos como Zeboim?
El SEÑOR ama tanto a su pueblo que no lo destruirá totalmente. Estas preguntas pueden traducirse como afirmaciones. Traducción Alterna: "Yo no quiero actuar con ustedes como lo hice con Adma o hacerlos como Zeboim, ciudades que destruí junto con Sodoma" (UDB)

Pues Yo soy Dios y no un hombre
Dios no es como las personas, quienes por lo general deciden muy rápido vengarse.

Mi corazón ha cambiado dentro de Mí
Aquí "corazón" representa a la voluntad y las decisiones de Dios.

Yo no vendré en ira
El sustantivo abstracto "ira" puede ser expresado como el adjetivo "enojado". Traducción Alterna: "Yo no vendré sobre ustedes y no estaré enojado con ustedes"

Hosea 11:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR habla sobre el momento en el que Él restaurará a su pueblo.

Ellos seguirán al SEÑOR
Se habla de que adorar y honrar al SEÑOR es como si lo estuvieran siguiendo

Él rugirá como un león
Se habla de que el SEÑOR que hace posible que su pueblo vuelva a su tierra es como si Él los estuviera llamando.

Ellos vendrán temblando como un ave...como una paloma Ellos volverán a casa rápido, al igual que un ave que vuelve a su nido. "Temblando" puede referirse al aleteo de las alas del ave

la declaración del SEÑOR
"lo que el SEÑOR ha declarado" o "lo que el SEÑOR solemnemente ha dicho". Ver cómo tradujiste esto en 2:12.

Hosea 11:12

Información general:
El SEÑOR está hablando de Israel y Judá.

Efraín me rodea con falsedad, y la casa de Israel con engaño
Se habla de que las mentiras y los actos engañosos son como objetos con los que las personas del reino norte rodean al SEÑOR.

Pero Judá todavía sigue andando conmigo
Las personas del reino sur todavía son fieles a Dios. Aquí "andando conmigo" representa el estar junto a Dios. Sin embargo, muchas versiones tienen diferentes interpretaciones de este pasaje díficil.

Chapter 12

1 Efraín se alimenta en el viento y sigue tras el viento del este. Él contínuamente multiplica sus mentiras y violencia. Ellos hacen pacto con Asiria y llevan aceite de olivo a Egipto. 2 Él SEÑOR también ha hecho demanda contra Judá y castigará a Jacob por lo que ha hecho; Él le pagará por sus hechos. 3 En el vientre Jacob agarró a su hermano por el talón, y en su hombría el luchó con Dios. 4 Él luchó contra el ángel y ganó. Él lloró y suplicó por Su favor. Él conoció a Dios en Betel; allí Dios le habló a él. 5 Éste es él SEÑOR, El Dios de los ejércitos; "SEÑOR'' es Su nombre por el cuál deben llamarlo. 6 Así que vuélvanse a su Dios. Mantengan fielmente el pacto y la justicia, y esperen continuamente por su Dios. 7 Los comerciantes tienen balanzas falsas en sus manos; ellos aman el fraude. 8 Efraín dijo: ''Yo ciértamente me he vuelto muy rico; yo he encontrado riquezas para mi mismo. En todo mi trabajo ellos no hallarán iniquidad en mí, nada que pudiera ser pecado.'' 9 "Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios desde la tierra de Egipto. Yo les haré volver a vivir en tiendas, como en los días del festival establecido. 10 Yo hablé a los profetas, y les dí muchas visiones para ustedes. Por las manos de los profetas Yo les dí parábolas.'' 11 Si hay maldad en Galaad, seguramente los pueblos serán sin valor. En Gilgal ellos sacrifican toros; sus altares serán como montones de piedras en los surcos de los campos. 12 Jacob huyó a la tierra de Aram; Israel trabajó para poder tener una esposa; y él cuidó rebaños de ovejas para tener una esposa. 13 Él SEÑOR sacó a Israel fuera de Egipto por el profeta, y por el profeta Él los cuidó. 14 Efraín ha irritado amargamente al SEÑOR. Así que su SEÑOR le dejará su sangre sobre él y le devolverá su desgracia.

Hosea 12:1

Información General
Oseas el profeta está hablando.

Efaín se alimenta del viento
Aquí "Efraín" representa a todo el pueblo de Israel. También "viento" representa algo que es inútil o temporal. Se habla del pueblo de Israel que hace cosas que no lo ayudarán como si se comieran el viento.

y sigue el viento del este
Los vientos del este eran muy calientes y destructivos para la tierra. Aquí representa todo lo que es destructivo. Se habla de las personas que hacen cosas que se destruirán a sí mismas como si estuvieran siguiendo el viento del este.

llevar aceite de oliva a Egipto
El pueblo de Israel envió un aceite de oliva como regalo al rey de Egipto para tratar de persuadirlo de que los ayudara.

El Señor también tiene una demanda contra Judá.
Se habla de El Señor afirma que el pueblo de Judá ha pecado contra él y ha roto su pacto como si El Señor estuviera acusándolos en la corte. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 4: 1.

contra Judá ... castigar a Jacob por lo que ha hecho ... pagarle por sus obras Aquí "Judá" y "Jacob" representan a la gente de Judá. Traducción alterna: "contra el pueblo de Judá ... castigarlos por lo que han hecho ... pagarles por sus obras" demanda judicial Esta es una queja de una persona contra otra persona en un tribunal de justicia. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2: 2.

Hosea 12:3

Información general
Oseas el profeta está hablando de Jacob, el antepasado de los israelitas.

En el vientre Jacob agarró a su hermano por el talón
Jacob quería tomar el lugar de su hermano como el primogénito, por lo que trató de evitar que su hermano naciera primero.

Él luchó contra el ángel y ganó
Jacob luchó con un ángel para que el ángel lo bendijera.

balanzas falsas
Los comerciantes usan balanzas que no miden con precisión el peso del dinero o los productos que compran o venden.

ellos aman el fraude
Los comerciantes engañan a sus clientes al mentirles y tomando mas dinero de lo que debieran.

Yo ciértamente me he vuelto muy rico; yo he encontrado riquezas para mi mismo.
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y significan que la gente de Efraín se considera muy próspera.

he encontrado riquezas
Se habla de convertirse en rico mediante el comercio como encontrar riqueza. Traducción alterna: "He ganado mucho dinero" ellos no hallarán iniquidad en mí, nada que pudiera ser pecado.'' Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que la gente de Efraín se considera irreprensible. Se habla de aprender que alguien ha pecado como encontrar pecado en esa persona. Traducción Alterna: "no descubrirán que he hecho algo pecaminoso"

Hosea 12:9

información general
El Señor está hablando a la gente de Israel.

Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios desde la tierra de Egipto
Los posibles significados son 1) "Soy El Señor tu Dios, que trajo a tus antepasados de la tierra de Egipto" o 2) "He sido tu Dios desde que estuviste en la tierra de Egipto" o 3) "Me convertí en tu Dios cuando estabas en la tierra de Egipto "

Yo les haré volver a vivir en tiendas
Los posibles significados son 1) El Señor está amenazando con obligar al pueblo de Israel a abandonar sus hogares y hacer que vivan en tiendas de campaña. Por lo tanto, aquí "vivir en tiendas de campaña" representaría ser enviado al exilio, o 2) es una promesa de que después de su exilio la gente volverá a vivir en tiendas de campaña y El Señor se encargará de ellos como lo hizo cuando los israelitas salieron de Egipto . Así que, "vivir en tiendas de campaña" representaría un regreso a una situación ideal cuando El Señor se hizo cargo de su pueblo.

1 "Cuando Efraín habló, hubo un temblor. Él se exaltó a sí mismo en Israel, pero él se volvió culpable por la adoración a Baal y él murió. 2 Ahora, ellos pecan más y más. Ellos hacen figuras de metal con su plata, ídolos tan hábilmente trabajados, como sea posible, todos ellos trabajo de los artesanos. Las personas dicen de ellos: "Estos hombres quienes sacrifican besan los terneros.' 3 Así que ellos serán como las nubes en la mañana, como el rocío que se va temprano, como la paja que es impulsada por el viento lejos del piso para el trillado, y como el humo de una chimenea. 4 Pero Yo soy EL SEÑOR su Dios de la tierra de Egipto. Ustedes no deben reconocer ningún dios sino a Mí; ustedes deben reconocer que aparte de Mí, no hay otro salvador. 5 Yo los conocí en el desierto, en la tierra de gran sequía. 6 Cuando ustedes tenían pastos, entonces ustedes se llenaron; y cuando ustedes se llenaron, sus corazones se alzaron. Por esa razón ustedes Me olvidaron. 7 Yo voy a convertirme como un león para ellos; como un leopardo, Yo voy a vigilarlos por el camino. 8 Yo voy a atacarlos como un oso al que le han robado un cachorro. Yo les voy a abrir el pecho y allí Yo voy a devorarlos como un león, como una bestia salvaje los romperé en pedazos. 9 Yo voy a destruirlos a ustedes, Israel;¿ quién va a poder salvarlos? 10 ¿Ahora dónde está su rey, puede él sarvalos a ustedes en todas las ciudades? ¿Dónde está sus gobernadores, sobre quienes ustedes me dijeron a Mí: 'Dános un rey y un príncipe? 11 Yo les dí a ustedes un rey en mi enojo y yo lo saqué en mi coraje. 12 La iniquidad de Efraín ha sido acumulada; su culpa ha sido acumulada. 13 Dolores de nacimiento van a llegar a él, pero él es un hijo necio, pues cuando sea el tiempo de nacer, él no va a salir del vientre. 14 ¿Los rescataré Yo a ellos de las manos del Seol? ¿Los rescataré Yo a ellos de la muerte? ¿Dónde, muerte, están tus plagas? ¿Dónde, Seol, está tu destrucción? La compasión está escondida de mis ojos. 15 Aunque Efraín sea próspero entre sus hermanos, un viento del este vendrá; el viento del SEÑOR va a soplar en el desierto. La primavera de Efraín va a secarse y su pozo no va a tener agua. Sus enemigos van a saquear de sus almacenes cada objeto precioso. 16 Samaria va a ser culpable, pues ella se ha rebelado contra su Dios. Ellos van a caer por la espada; sus hijos pequeños van a ser destrozados en pedazos y sus mujeres embarazadas van a ser desgarradas.

Hosea 13:1

Información general
El Señor está hablando.

Cuando Efraín habló
Oseas utiliza el nombre "Efraín" acá para referirse a todo el reino norte, aunque también era el nombre de una de las 10 tribus. Oseas parece estar hablando de algo que sucedió hace mucho tiempo. Cuando el reino del norte era fuerte y honrado, en comparación al momento presente.

hubo un temblor
La frase que falta "entre otras naciones" se entiende aquí. Otras naciones sintieron humildad frente al reino del norte. Traducción Alterna: "hubo temblor entre otras personas"

Él se exaltó a sí mismo en Israel,
Acá ''exaltarse'' significa ser importante para alguien.

pero él se volvió culpable por la adoración a Baal y él murió Cuando la gente de Efraín comenzó a adorar a Baal, se hicieron débiles, y sus enemigos los vencieron. Aquí ''morir'' se refiere a la nación haciéndose cada vez más débiles.

Ahora, ellos pecan más y más
Acá ''ellos'' se refiere a la tirbu de Efraín y toda la nación de Israel, quienes siguieron el ejemplo de Efraín.

Estos hombres quienes sacrifican besan los terneros
Parte de la idolatría era besar figuras de ídolo que eran imagenes de becerros.

Hosea 13:3

Así que, ellos van a ser como las nubes en la mañana, como la niebla... como la paja...como el humo de una chimenea Estas expresiones declaran que Israel es provisional y pronto desaparecerá si continúan adorando ídolos en lugar de seguir al SEÑOR.

que es impulsada lejos por el viento
Esto puede ser expresado de una forma activa. Traducción Alterna: ''Que el viento arrastra''

Estas dos frases son similares y significan básicamente lo mismo.

ha sido acumulada
La iniquidad del reino del norte y la culpabilidad son dichos como si fuesen objetos que pueden ser retenidos por un propósito.

Dolores de nacimiento van a llegarle a él Aquí el Señor está hablando del sufrimiento que la gente de Israel sufrirán como si fuese el dolor de un parto.

pero él tiene un hijo necio, pues cuando sea el tiempo de ser nacer, él no va a salir del vientre.
El Señor ahora describe a los israelitas como el bebé a quien la madre está dando luz. El bebé no es sabio porque no quiere nacer. Las personas no quieren arrepentirse y obedecer a Jehová.

Hosea 13:14

Información general
El Señor está hablando.

¿Los rescataré Yo a ellos de las manos del Seol? ¿Los rescataré Yo a ellos de la muerte?
El Señor usa estas preguntas para decirle al pueblo de Israel que no los salvará de la muerte. Ciertamente los castigará. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente no los rescataré de la muerte y de ir al Seol".

¿Dónde, muerte, están tus plagas? ¿Dónde, Seol, está tu destrucción?
El Señor habla a la "muerte" y al "Seol" como si fueran personas. El Señor usa preguntas para decir que pronto destruirá a la gente. Traducción alterna: "Ahora causaré plagas y dejaré morir al pueblo de Israel. Los destruiré y los enviaré al Seol".

La compasión está escondida
Se habla de la posibilidad de tener compasión como si fuera un objeto.

La compasión está escondida de mis ojos.
Se habla de no pensar en tener compasión se habla como si la compasión estuviera oculta para que no se pueda ver. Traducción Alterna: "No tengo compasión por ellos"

Chapter 14

1 Israel, vuelve al SEÑOR tu Dios, pues haz caído debido a tu iniquidad. 2 Toma contigo tus palabras y vuelve al SEÑOR. Di a Él: "Quíta de nosotros toda nuestra iniquidad y acepta lo que es bueno, para que podamos ofrecer a Ti el fruto de nuestros labios. 3 Asiria no nos salvará; nosotros no montaremos en caballos a la guerra. Tampoco diremos nosotros más al trabajo de nuestras manos: 'Ustedes son nuestros dioses,' pues en Ti la persona huérfana de padre encuentra compasión" 4 "Yo sanaré el alejamiento de ellos; Yo los amaré a ellos líbremente, pues Mi enojo se ha alejado de él. 5 Yo seré como el rocío para Israel; él florecerá como el lirio y echa raíz como el cedro en el Líbano. 6 Sus ramas se esparcerán; su belleza será como los árboles de olivas, y sus fragancias como el cedro en el Líbano. 7 La gente que vive en su sombra volverá; ellos resucitarán como el grano y florecerán como viñas. Su fama será como el vino del Líbano. 8 ¿Efraín, qué tengo Yo que ver con ídolos? Yo te responderé y te cuidaré. Yo soy como un ciprés, cuyas hojas siempre son verdes; de Mí viene tu fruto." 9 ¿Quién es sabio que él pueda entender estas cosas? ¿Quién entiende estas cosas para que él pueda conocerlas? Pues los caminos del SEÑOR son rectos, y los rectos caminarán en ellos, pero los rebeldes se tropezarán en ellos.

Hosea 14:1

Información general
Osea, el profeta, está hablando.

pues haz caído debido a tu iniquidad
Se habla de pecar es como si estuviese cayendo.

Toma contigo palabras
Esto probablemente significa palabras de confesión y alabanza. ''Confiesen sus pecados''

Joel

Chapter 1

1 Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR que vino a Joel, hijo de Petuel. 2 Oigan esto, ustedes ancianos, y escuchen, ustedes todos los habitantes de la tierra. ¿Ha sucedido esto alguna vez en sus días o en los días de sus antepasados? 3 Háblenle de esto a sus hijos, y que sus hijos se lo cuenten a sus hijos, y sus hijos a la próxima generación. 4 Lo que el enjambre de langostas ha dejado, la gran langosta se ha comido; lo que la gran langosta ha dejado, el saltamontes se ha comido; y lo que el saltamontes ha dejado, la oruga se ha comido. 5 ¡Despierten, borrachos, y lloren! Giman, todos los bebedores de vino, porque el vino dulce se les ha quitado. 6 Pues una nación se ha levantado sobre mi tierra, fuerte y sin número. Sus dientes son los dientes de un león, y tiene los dientes de una leona. 7 Ha convertido mi viña en un lugar terrible y ha rapado mi higuera. Le ha quitado su corteza y la ha desechado; las ramas están blancas. 8 Lamentense como una virgen vestida con un saco por la muerte de su joven esposo. 9 La ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida han sido cortadas de la casa del SEÑOR. Los sacerdotes, los siervos del SEÑOR, lamentense. 10 Los campos han sido devastados, y la tierra se ha debilitado. Porque el grano ha sido destruído, el vino nuevo se ha secado, y el aceite está dañado. 11 Avergüéncense, agricultores, y giman, viñadores, por el trigo y la cebada. Porque la cosecha de los campos se ha perdido. 12 Las vides se han marchitado y las higueras se han secado, los árboles de granadas y también las palmeras, y los manzanos-- todos los árboles del campo se han secado. Pues el gozo se ha secado de los descendientes de la humanidad. 13 ¡Vístanse con sacos y estén de luto, sacerdotes! Giman, siervos del altar. Vengan, pasen toda la noche en un saco, ustedes siervos de mi Dios. Porque la ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida han sido quitadas de la casa de su Dios. 14 Declaren un ayuno santo, y convoquen una santa asamblea. Reúnan a los ancianos y a todos los habitantes de la tierra a la casa del SEÑOR su Dios, y clamen al SEÑOR. 15 ¡Ay del día! Porque el día del SEÑOR ya casi está aquí. Con él vendrá la destrucción de parte del Todopoderoso. 16 ¿No se ha cortado el alimento frente a nuestros ojos, y el gozo y la alegría de la casa de nuestro Dios? 17 Las semillas se pudren debajo de sus terrones, los graneros están desolados, y los corrales han sido derribados, porque el grano se ha secado. 18 ¡Como gimen los animales! Los rebaños de ganado están sufriendo porque no tienen pastos. También los rebaños de ovejas sufren. 19 SEÑOR, yo clamo a Ti. Pues el fuego ha devorado los pastos del desierto, y las llamas han quemado todos los árboles de los campos. 20 Hasta los animales de los campos braman por Ti, pues los manantiales se han secado, y el fuego ha devorado los pastos del desierto.

Joel 1:1

Información General:
Dios habla a través de Joel al pueblo de Israel usando poesía.

la palabra del Señor que vino
"la palabra que el SEÑOR Dios habló"

SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que Él reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página translationWord acerca del SEÑOR para sobre como traducir esto.

Petuel
El padre de Joel.

¿Ha pasado esto alguna vez en tus días o en los días de tus ancestros?
Traducción Alterna: "Esto nunca ha pasado antes ya sea a ustedes o a sus ancestros"

Joel 1:4

el enjambre de langostas
grandes grupos de insectos como los saltamontes que vuelan juntos y se alimentan de grandes áreas de alimentos.

el enjambre de langostas...la gran langosta...saltamontes...oruga
Estos son, respectivamente, una langosta adulta que puede volar, una langosta muy grande para volar fácilmente, una langosta con alas muy pequeñas para volar y una langosta recién nacida

Joel 1:5

Información General:
Dios le advierte al pueblo de Israel sobre la llegada del ejército de langostas.

borrachos, y lloren! Giman, todos los bebedores de vino Si su lengua tiene sólo una palabra para "llorar" y "gemir", puede combinar estas líneas: "gente que ama el vino deben gritar en tristeza"

una nación
El enjambre de langostas es como un ejército invasor.

Sus dientes... tiene los dientes... Ha convertido ... ha rapado
Las langostas son como una nación que es como una persona. Se puede referir a la nación como "ella", o a las langostas como "ellas", o a los invasores como una persona (Versión ULB).

Sus dientes son los dientes de un león, y tiene los dientes de una leona.
Estas dos líneas comparten un significado similar. La referencia a que los dientes de las langostas son tan afilados como los dientes de los leones enfatiza la ferocidad con la que devoraran completamente todos los cultivos de la tierra.

mi tierra... mi viña... y mi higuera La tierra, viña e higuera del SEÑOR.

aterrador
Aquellos que ven la tierra están espantados u horrorizados porque está completamente destruída.

Joel 1:8

Información General:
Dios le continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

la tierra se ha debilitado
Aquí se habla de la tierra como si fuera una persona. Sin embargo, otras versiones interpretan este pasaje como una metáfora diferente: "la tierra se lamenta".

Chapter 2

1 ¡Soplen la trompeta en Sion, y suenen una alarma en Mi monte santo! Que todos los habitantes de la tierra tiemblen de miedo, porque ya viene el día del SEÑOR; de hecho, está cerca. 2 Es un día de oscuridad y tristeza, un día de nubes y densas tinieblas. Como el amanecer que se dispersa en las montañas, un gran y poderoso ejército se acerca. Nunca ha habido un ejército como éste, y nunca más lo habrá, aún después de muchas generaciones. 3 Un fuego está consumiendo todo lo que está frente a él, y detrás de él una llama está quemándose. La tierra es como el huerto del Edén frente a él, pero detrás hay un desierto arruinado. Por cierto, nada se le escapará. 4 La apariencia del ejército es como de caballos, y corren como jinetes. 5 Saltan con un ruido como el de los carros en las cimas de las montañas, como el ruido de llamas encendidas que devoran la hojarasca, como un poderoso ejército listo para la batalla. 6 En su presencia la gente está en angustia y a todos les palidecen los rostros. 7 Corren como poderosos guerreros; escalan las murallas como soldados; marchan, cada uno a su paso, y no se salen de sus filas. 8 Ninguno empuja al otro hacia el lado; ellos marchan, cada uno en su senda; penetran las defensas y no se salen de fila. 9 Se apresuran sobre la ciudad, corren sobre la muralla, se trepan en las casas, y penetran las ventanas como ladrones. 10 La tierra se sacude frente a ellos, los cielos tiemblan, el sol y la luna se oscurecen, y las estrellas dejan de brillar. 11 El SEÑOR alza Su voz delante de Su ejército, porque Sus guerreros son numerosos; porque son fuertes, esos que ejecutan Sus mandatos. Porque el día del SEÑOR es grande y muy terrible. ¿Quién lo sobrevivirá? 12 "Aún ahora," dice el SEÑOR, "regresen a Mí de todo corazón. Ayunen, lloren y lamentense." 13 Rasguen su corazón y no solo sus vestidos, y regresen a el SEÑOR su Dios. Porque Él es bondadoso y misericordioso, lento para airarse y abundante en la fidelidad del pacto, y Él quisiera dejar de inflir castigo. 14 ¿Quién sabe? ¿Quizas cambiará y tendrá compasión, y dejará una bendición tras Él, una ofrenda de grano y una ofrenda de bebida para el SEÑOR su Dios? 15 Toquen la trompeta en Sion, convoquen un ayuno santo, y convoquen una santa asamblea. 16 Reúnan al pueblo, convoquen una asamblea santa. Reúnan a los ancianos, junten a los niños y a los infantes de pecho. Dejen que los novios salgan de sus habitaciones, y las novias de sus cámaras nupciales. 17 Dejen que los sacerdotes, los siervos del SEÑOR, lloren entre el pórtico y el altar. Dejen que digan: "Ten piedad de Tu pueblo, SEÑOR, y no avergüences a Tu herencia, de manera que las naciones se enseñoreen sobre ellos. ¿Por qué habrían de decir entre las naciones: '¿Dónde está su Dios?'" 18 Entonces el SEÑOR sintió celo por Su tierra y tuvo piedad de Su pueblo. 19 El SEÑOR le contestó a Su pueblo: "Miren, Yo les enviaré grano, vino nuevo y aceite. Ustedes estarán satisfechos con ellos, y Yo ya no los convertiré en una desgracia entre las naciones. 20 Quitaré los atacantes del norte lejos de ustedes. y los conduciré a una tierra seca y abandonada. La parte delantera de su ejército entrará al mar oriental, y la parte postrera al mar occidental. Su hedor subirá, y su olor apestoso ascenderá." Ciertamente, Él ha hecho cosas grandes. 21 No temas, tierra, alégrate y regocíjate, porque el SEÑOR hará cosas grandes. 22 No teman, bestias del campo, porque los pastos del desierto brotarán, los árboles darán su fruto, y las higueras y las vides producirán su cosecha completa. 23 Alégrate, pueblo de Sion, y regocíjense en el SEÑOR su Dios. Porque Él les dará las lluvias de otoño a su tiempo y dejará caer lluvias para ustedes, la lluvia otoñal y la lluvia primaveral como antes. 24 Los pisos donde se trilla el grano se llenarán de trigo, y las tinajas rebosarán de vino nuevo y aceite. 25 "Yo les restauraré los años de cosechas que el enjambre de langostas se ha comido - la gran langosta, la langosta devoradora, y la langosta destructora - Mi poderoso ejército que Yo envié entre ustedes. 26 Ustedes comerán en abundancia y se saciarán, y alabarán el nombre de el SEÑOR su Dios, Quien ha hecho maravillas entre ustedes, y Yo jamás volveré a traer vergüenza sobre Mi pueblo. 27 Ustedes sabrán que Yo estoy entre Israel, y que soy el SEÑOR su Dios, y que no hay nadie más, y nunca más avergonzaré a Mi pueblo. 28 Acontecerá luego que Yo derramaré mi Espíritu sobre toda carne, y sus hijos y sus hijas profetizarán. Sus ancianos soñarán sueños, sus hombres jóvenes verán visiones. 29 También sobre los siervos y siervas, en aquellos días derramaré mi Espíritu. 30 Mostraré maravillas en los cielos y sn la tierra, sangre, fuego y pilares de humo. 31 El sol se convertirá en tinieblas y la luna se convertirá en sangre, antes de que llegue el gran y terrible día del SEÑOR. 32 Acontecerá que todos los que invoquen el nombre del SEÑOR serán salvos. Porque en el Monte Sion y en Jerusalén habrá quienes escaparán, como ha dicho el SEÑOR, y entre los sobrevivienes, aquellos a quienes el SEÑOR llama.

Chapter 3

1 Miren, en aquellos días y en ese tiempo, cuando Yo devuelva los exiliados de Judá y Jerusalén, 2 Yo reuniré a todas las naciones, y los bajaré al valle de Josafat. Yo los juzgaré allí, por causa de Mi pueblo y Mi heredad Israel, a quienes ellos dispersaron entre las naciones, y porque dividieron Mi tierra. 3 Ellos echaron suertes por Mi pueblo, cambiaron un niño por una prostituta, y vendieron una niña por vino para poder beber. 4 Ahora, ¿por qué están airados conmigo, Tiro, Sidón y todas las regiones de Filistea? ¿Se vengarán de Mí? Aunque se venguen de Mí, inmediatamente Yo devolveré su venganza sobre su propia cabeza. 5 Porque ustedes tomaron Mi plata y Mi oro, y trajeron Mis tesoros preciosos dentro de sus templos. 6 Ustedes vendieron a la gente de Judá y de Jerusalén a los griegos para removerlos lejos de su territorio. 7 Miren, estoy a punto de removerlos del lugar donde ustedes los vendieron, y les devolveré a ustedes el pago sobre sus propias cabezas. 8 Venderé sus hijos y sus hijas, por la mano del pueblo de Judá. Ellos los venderán a los Sabeos, a una nacion distante. Porque el SEÑOR ha hablado. 9 Proclamen esto entre las naciones: 'Prepárense ustedes mismos para la guerra, despierten a los hombres fuertes, dejen que se acerquen, dejen que todos los hombres de batalla suban. 10 Conviertan sus arados en espadas y sus cuchillos de podar en lanzas. Dejen que diga el débil: "Yo soy fuerte." 11 Avanzen y vengan, todas ustedes naciones cercanas, reúnanse allí. SEÑOR, trae a Tus poderosos guerreros.' 12 Dejen que las naciones se despierten a sí mismas y suban al valle de Josafat. Porque allí Me sentaré a juzgar a todas las naciones de alrededor. 13 Metan la hoz, porque la cosecha está madura. Vengan, aplasten las uvas, porque el lagar está lleno. Las tinajas rebosan, pues su maldad es enorme." 14 Hay un tumulto, un tumulto en el valle del Juicio. Porque el día del SEÑOR está cerca en el valle del Juicio. 15 El sol y la luna se oscurecen, las estrellas retienen su brillantez. 16 El SEÑOR rugirá desde Sion, y alzará Su voz desde Jerusalén. Los cielos y la tierra temblarán, mas el SEÑOR será un refugio para Su pueblo, y una fortaleza para el pueblo de Israel. 17 "Así conocerán que Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios que vivo en Sion, Mi monte santo. Entonces Jerusalén será santa, y ningún ejército volverá a marchar en medio de ella otra vez. 18 Acontecerá ese día que las montañas deramarán vino dulce, las colinas fluirán con leche, todos los arroyos de Judá fluirán con agua, y una fuente saldrá de la casa del SEÑOR y regará el valle de Sitim. 19 Egipto se convertirá en una devastación abandonada, y Edom se convertirá en un desierto abandonado, por la violencia infligida sobre el pueblo de Judá, porque derramaron sangre inocente en su tierra. 20 Mas Judá será habitada para siempre, y Jerusalén será habitada de generación a generación. 21 Yo vengaré su sangre que todavía no he vengado," pues el SEÑOR habita en Sion.

Joel 3:1

Información General:
Dios continúa hablando de eventos futuros.

Miren
Aquí la palabra "Miren" le añade énfasis a lo que sigue.

en aquellos días y en ese tiempo
La frase "en ese tiempo" significa lo mismo que "en aquellos días" y la intensifica. Traducción Alterna: "en esos mismos días" o "en ese mismo momento".

cuando Yo devuelva los exiliados de Judá y Jerusalén Traducción Alterna: "Cuando envíe los exiliados de vuelta a Judá y Jerusalén"

Mi pueblo y Mi heredad Israel
Estas dos frases enfatizan cómo el SEÑOR ve a Israel como Su propia gente preciosa. Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo de Israel, el cual es mi herencia."

cambiaron un niño por una prostituta, y vendieron una niña por vino para poder beber Estos son ejemplos de las cosas que ellos hicieron y no indican lo que le hicieron a dos niños en particular. Traducción alterna: "e hicieron cosas como cambiar a un niño por una prostituta y vender a una niña por vino, para que pudieran beber"

Joel 3:4

Información General:
Dios le habla a la gente de las naciones que rodean a Israel.

¿por qué están airados conmigo?
Dios usa esta pregunta para regañar a la gente de Tiro, Sidón y Filistea. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes no tienen el derecho de enojarse conmigo" .

¿Se vengarán de Mí?
Dios usa esta pregunta para hacer que la gente piense sobre lo que está haciendo. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes piensan que pueden vengarse de mí" .

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

inmediatamente Yo devolveré su venganza sobre su propia cabeza Aquí la palabra "cabeza" se refiere a la persona. La venganza que ellos le querían exigir al SEÑOR, Él se las hará pasar a ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Yo les causaré sufrir la venganza que ustedes intentaron poner en Mi"

venganza
"venganza" o "devolver"

Joel 3:7

del lugar donde ustedes los vendieron
El pueblo de Israel dejará los lugares en donde eran esclavos y regresarán a la tierra de Israel.

les devolveré a ustedes el pago Traducción Alterna: "devolver lo que merecen"

por la mano del pueblo de Judá Traducción Alterna: "por el poder de la gente de Judá" o "por la gente de Judá"

Sabeos
la gente de Sabea. Esta gente habitaba en el sur de Israel.

Joel 3:9

Prepárense ustedes mismos para la guerra ... despierten a los hombres fuertes Ambas de estas frases están diciendo que preparej soldados para la guerra.

despierten a los hombres fuertes
"preparen a los hombres poderosos para la acción"

Conviertan sus arados en espadas y sus cuchillos de podar en lanzas. Dejen que diga el débil: "Yo soy fuerte."
Estas dos frases comparten significados similares. Ambas instruyen a la gente a que conviertan sus herramientas agrícolas en armas.

hoja de arado herramientas que se utilizan para romper el suelo con el fin de plantar cultivos

cuchillos de podar
cuchillos que se utilizan para cortar pequeñas ramas

Joel 3:11

todas ustedes naciones, reúnanse allí
"reúnanse todos para la batalla."

SEÑOR, trae a Tus poderosos guerreros
En el medio de este mensaje para los enemigos de Israel, esta oración está dirigida al SEÑOR. Quizá esto era para hacer que los enemigos temieran al ejército del SEÑOR.

Joel 3:12

Información General:
El SEÑOIR le continúa hablando a las naciones.

Dejen que las naciones se despierten a sí mismas ... a todas las naciones de alrededor
Las palabras "naciones" y "las naciones de alrededor" se refieren a las mismas naciones que rodean a Judá. El SEÑOR los juzgará en el valle de Josafat por lo que le han hecho a Jerusalén.

Metan la hoz ... porque el lagar está lleno Los significados posibless son 1) que el ataque a las naciones pecadoras es como cosechar grano y aplastar uvas, o 2) la urgencia de juzgar a las naciones pecadoras es como la urgencia de recoger los cultivos maduros y triturar uvas.

lagar
prensa de vino

Metan la hoz, porque la cosecha está madura
El SEÑOR habla de las naciones como si ellas fueran un campo de cultivos listo para la cosecha. Traducción Alterna: "Metan en la hoz, porque las naciones son como una cosecha madura"

Metan la hoz
"Muevan la hoz para cortar el grano"

hoz
un cuchillo largo y curvo que se utiliza para cortar el grano

la cosecha está madura
"el grano está listo para ser cosechado"

Vengan, aplasten las uvas, porque el lagar está lleno
El SEÑOR habla de las naciones como si fueran un montón de uvas en un lagar, listas para que la gente las aplasten. Traducción Alterna: "Vengan, aplasten a las naciones, porque ellas son como uvas en un lagar"

Las tinajas rebosan, pues su maldad es enorme
El SEÑOR habla de la maldad de las naciones como si fuera el jugo que fluye del lagar hasta las tinajas que lo recogen. Las tinajas no son lo suficientemente grandes para contener la cantidad de maldad que fluye de ellas.

Joel 3:14

un tumulto, un tumulto
Un tumulto es ruido causado por una gran multitud. Esto se repite para mostrar que será muy ruidoso por todas las personas.

valle del Juicio ... valle del Juicio
Esta frase se repite para mostrar que el juicio ciertamente sucederá.

Joel 3:16

El SEÑOR rugirá desde Sion, y alzará Su voz desde Jerusalén Ambas frases significan que el SEÑOR gritará con una voz fuerte, clara y poderosa desde Jerusalén. Si su lengua solo tiene una palabra para "gritar", esto se puede usar como una frase. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR gritará desde Jerusalén"

El SEÑOR rugirá
Los significados posibles son 1) "El SEÑOR rugirá como un león" o 2) "El SEÑOR rugirá como trueno."

Los cielos y la tierra temblarán
El rugido del SEÑOR es tan poderoso que hará temblar los cielos y la tierra.

el SEÑOR será un refugio para Su pueblo, y una fortaleza para el pueblo de Israel Estas dos frases significan que el SEÑOR protegerá a su pueblo. Una fortaleza es un refugio fuerte usado para proteger a las personas durante la guerra. Traducción Alterna: "El SENOR será un fortaleza fuerte para su pueblo"

Joel 3:18

Información General:
Dios continúa hablando sobre el día del Señor.

las montañas deramarán vino dulce
"vino dulce será derramado de las montañas." Esta es una exageración para demostrar que la tierra es muy fértil. Traducción Alterna: "En las montañas habrá viñedos que producen mucho vino dulce" las colinas fluirán con leche

"leche fluirá de las colinas." Traducción Alterna: "en las colinas tu ganado y tus cabras producirán mucha leche"

todos los arroyos de Judá fluirán con agua
"agua fluirá a través de todos los arroyos de Judá"

regará el valle de Sitim
"enviará agua al Valle de Acacia." "Sitim" es el nombre de un lugar en el lado este del río Jordán. Significa "los árboles de Acacia."

Egipto se convertirá en una devastación abandonada
Traducción Alterna: "Egipto será destruído y la gente lo abandonará" o "Las naciones enemigas destruirán Egipto y el pueblo egipcio abandonará su país"

Edom se convertirá en un desierto abandonado
"Edom se convertirá en un desierto y la gente lo abandonará"

por la violencia infligida sobre el pueblo de Judá
"debido a las cosas violentas que Egipto y Edom le hicieron al pueblo de Judá" porque derramaron sangre inocente en su tierra

"sangre inocente" se refiere a las personas inocentes que fueron asesinadas. Traducción Alterna: "porque Egipto y Edom asesinaron personas inocentes en la tierra del pueblo de Judá"

Joel 3:20

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando sobre el día del Señor.

Judá será habitada para siempre
Esto se puede expresado en voz activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente habitará Judá para siempre"

Jerusalén será habitada de generación a generación
Traducción Alterna: "Generación tras generación, la gente habitará Jerusalén"

Yo vengaré su sangre que todavía no he vengado
Traducción Alterna: "Yo castigaré a los enemigos que asesinaron al pueblo de Israel y que aún no han sido castigados"

Book: Amos

Amos

Chapter 1

1 Estas son las cosas referentes a Israel que Amós, uno de los pastores en Tecoa, recibió en revelación. Él recibió estas cosas en los días de Uzías, rey de Judá, y también en los días de Jeroboam hijo de Joás, rey de Israel, dos años antes del terremoto. 2 Él dijo: "El SEÑOR rugirá desde Sión; Él levantará Su voz desde Jerusalén. Los pastizales de los pastores se secarán; la cima del Monte Carmelo se marchitará." 3 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Damasco, incluso por cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos trillaron Galaad con instrumentos de hierro. 4 Yo enviaré fuego a la casa de Hazael, y devorará las fortalezas de Ben Adad. 5 Yo romperé las cerraduras de Damasco y cortaré al hombre que vive en Biqat-aven, y también al hombre que sostiene el cetro en Bet Edén. El pueblo de Aram irá cautivo a Kir," dice el SEÑOR. 6 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Gaza, incluso cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos se llevaron cautivos un pueblo completo, para entregarlos a Edom. 7 Yo enviaré fuego sobre los muros de Gaza, y devorará su fortaleza. 8 Yo cortaré al hombre que viva en Asdod y al hombre que sostiene el cetro de Ascalón. Yo voltearé mi mano en contra de Ecrón, y el resto de los filisteos perecerán," dice el SEÑOR. 9 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Tiro, incluso cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos han entregado un pueblo completo a Edom, y ellos rompieron su pacto de hermandad. 10 Yo enviaré fuego sobre los muros de Tiro, y devorará su fortaleza." 11 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Edom, incluso cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque él persiguió a su hermano con la espada y arrojó toda compasión. Su enojo rugió continuamente y su ira duró para siempre. 12 Yo enviaré fuego sobre Temán, y devorará los palacios de Bosra." 13 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados del pueblo de Amón, incluso cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos desgarraron a las mujeres embarazadas de Galaad, para ellos poder agrandar sus fronteras. 14 Yo encenderé un fuego en los muros de Rabá, y devorará los palacios, con un grito en el día de batalla, con una tempestad en el día del torbellino. 15 Su rey irá cautivo, él junto con sus oficiales," dice el SEÑOR.

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Moab, aún por cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque él quemó los huesos del rey de Edom hasta calcinarlos. 2 Yo enviaré fuego sobre Moab, y devorará la fortaleza de Queriot. Moab morirá en un alboroto, con gritos y el sonido de trompeta. 3 Yo destruiré al juez en ella, y mataré a todos los príncipes con él," dice el SEÑOR. 4 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Judá, aún por cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos rechazaron la ley del SEÑOR y no guardaron sus estatutos. Sus mentiras causaron que ellos se desviaran, detrás de las cuales sus padres también caminaron. 5 Yo enviaré fuego a Judá, y devorará las fortalezas de Jerusalén." 6 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Por tres pecados de Israel, aún por cuatro, Yo no revocaré el castigo, porque ellos vendieron al inocente por plata y al necesitado por un par de sandalias. 7 Ellos pisotean sobre las cabezas de los pobres como la gente pisotea sobre polvo en el suelo; ellos echan lejos al oprimido. Un hombre y su padre duermen con la misma muchacha y así profanan Mi Santo nombre. 8 Ellos se acuestan junto a cada altar en ropas tomadas como promesas, y en la casa de los dioses de ellos beben el vino de aquellos quienes fueron castigados. 9 Aún así, Yo destruí a los amorreos delante de ellos, cuya altura era como la altura de los cedros; él era fuerte como los robles. Aún así, Yo destruí sus frutos arriba y sus raíces abajo. 10 También, Yo los traje a ustedes de la tierra de Egipto y los guié por cuarenta años en el desierto para poseer la tierra de los amorreos. 11 Yo levanté profetas de entre sus hijos y nazareos de sus hombres jóvenes. ¿No es así, gente de Israel?, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 12 Pero ustedes convencieron a los nazareos de beber vino y ordenaron a los profetas a no profetizar. 13 Miren, Yo los aplastaré a ustedes como un carreta que está llena de grano y puede aplastar a alguien. 14 La persona ágil no encontrará escape; el fuerte no le añadirá a su propia fuerza; tampoco ni el poderoso podrá salvarse a sí mismo. 15 El arquero no resistirá; el corredor rápido escapará; el jinete no se salvará a sí mismo. 16 Aún los soldados más valientes huirán desnudos en ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.

1 Escuchen esta palabra, ustedes vacas de Basán, ustedes que están en la montaña de Samaria, ustedes quienes oprimen a los pobres, ustedes que aplastan a los necesitados, ustedes que dicen a sus maridos: "Traiganos bebidas." 2 El Señor Dios ha jurado por su santidad: "Mira, los días vendrán sobre ustedes cuando se les llevará lejos con ganchos, y a los últimos de ustedes con anzuelos. 3 Ustedes saldrán a través de las grietas en la muralla de la ciudad, cada una de ustedes irá a través de ella, y serán arrojadas hacia Harmón, esta es la declaración del Señor." 4 "Vayan a Betel y pequen, a Gilgal y multipliquen el pecado, traigan sus sacrificios cada mañana, sus diezmos cada tres días. 5 Ofrezcan un sacrificio de acción de gracias con pan; anuncien ofrendas voluntarias; anunciénlas, por sus lugares, ustedes gente de Israel, esta es la declaración del Señor Dios. 6 Yo les di limpieza de dientes en todas tus ciudades y falta de pan en todos tus lugares. Sin embargo no te has vuelto a mí, esta es la declaración del Señor. 7 Yo también detuve la lluvia cuando todavía quedaban tres meses para la cosecha. Yo hice llover en una ciudad, y que no lloviera en otra ciudad. En un pedazo de tierra llovió, pero el pedazo de tierra donde no llovió se seco. 8 Dos o tres ciudades se tambalearon a otra ciudad para beber agua, pero no estaban satisfechos. Sin embargo ustedes no se han vuelto a mí, esta es la declaración del Señor. 9 Yo te afligí con tizón y moho. Las multitudes de tus jardines, tus viñedos, tus árboles de higo, y tus arboles de olivo, las langostas los devoraron a todos. Sin embargo ustedes no se han vuelto a mí, esta es la declaración del Señor 10 Yo te envie una plaga como en Egipto. Yo maté a tus jóvenes con la espada, se llevaron lejos tus caballos, e hice que el hedor de su campamento llegara hasta sus fosas nasales. Sin embargo ustedes no se han vuelto a mí, esta es la declaración del Señor. 11 Yo derribé ciudades entre ustedes, como cuando Dios derribó Sodoma y Gomorra. Fueron como una antorcha ardiente sacada del fuego. Sin embargo ustedes no se han vuelto a mí, esta es la declaración del Señor. 12 Por lo tanto Yo haré algo terrible a ustedes, Israel; y porque haré algo terrible a ustedes, ¡prepárate para conocer a tu Dios, Israel! 13 Pues, mira, Él que formó las montañas tambien creó el viento, revela sus pensamientos a la humanidad, hace de mañana la oscuridad, y pisa en los lugares altos de la Tierra. 1 Escucha esta palabra que yo levanto como lamento sobre ti, casa de Israel. 2 La virgen de Israel ha caído; ella no se levantará más; ella es abandonada en su tierra; no hay nadie para levantarla. 3 Porque esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios dice: "La ciudad que se fue con miles le quedarán cien, y la que se fue con cien le quedrán diez, pertenecientes a la casa de Israel." 4 Porque esto es lo que el SEÑOR le dice a la casa de Israel: "¡Búscame y vive! 5 No busques a Betel; ni entres a Gilgal; ni te aventures a Beerseba. Pues Gilgal ciertamente irá cautiva, y Betel se convertirá en nada. 6 Busca al SEÑOR y vive, o Él irrumpirá como fuego en la casa de José. Devorará, y no habrá quien lo apague en Betel. 7 ¡Aquellas personas convertirán la justicia en una cosa amarga y lanzarán la rectitud al suelo!" 8 Dios hizo las Pléyades y el Orión; Él convierte la oscuridad en la mañana; Él hace al día oscuro con la noche y llama a las aguas del mar; Él las derrama sobre la faz de la tierra. ¡El SEÑOR es Su nombre! 9 Él trae destrucción repentina sobre el fuerte para que la destrucción venga sobre las fortalezas. 10 Ellos odian a cualquiera que los corrige en la puerta de la ciudad, y aborrecen a quien habla la verdad. 11 Porque tú pisoteas al pobre y tomas las porciones de trigo de él, aunque has construido casas de piedra elaborada, tú no vivirás en ellas. Tienes viñedos encantadores, pero no beberás sus vinos. 12 Porque Yo sé cuántas son tus ofensas y cuán grande son tus pecados, tú que afliges al justo, tomas sobornos y haces a un lado al necesitado en la puerta de la ciudad. 13 Por lo tanto, cualquier persona prudente está silenciosa en tal tiempo, porque es un tiempo maligno. 14 Busca el bien y no el mal, para que puedas vivir. Así el SEÑOR, el Dios de los ejércitos, realmente estará contigo, mientras tú digas 'Él es.' 15 Odia el mal, ama el bien, establece justicia en la puerta de la ciudad. Quizás el SEÑOR, el Dios de los ejércitos, será gentil al remanente de José. 16 Por lo tanto, esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice, el Dios de los ejércitos, el Señor: "Llorando estarán en todas las esquinas, y ellos dirán en todas las calles: '¡Ay! ¡Ay!' Ellos llamarán a los granjeros para el luto y a los dolientes a llorar. 17 En todos los viñedos habrá llanto, porque Yo pasaré entre medio de ti," dice el SEÑOR. 18 ¡Ay para tí quien deseas el día del SEÑOR! ¿Por qué deseas el día del SEÑOR? Habrá oscuridad y no luz, 19 como cuando un hombre huye de un león y un oso lo encuentra, o va a una casa y pone su mano sobre el muro y una serpiente lo muerde. 20 ¿No será el día del SEÑOR oscuridad y no luz? ¿Tristeza y no resplandor? 21 "Yo odio, Yo desprecio tus festivales, Yo no me deleito en tus asambleas formales. 22 Aunque Me ofrezcas tus ofrendas quemadas y ofrendas de grano, Yo no las aceptaré, tampoco miraré a las ofrendas de compañerísmo de tus animales gordos. 23 Quita de Mí el ruido de tus canciones; Yo no escucharé el sonido de tus arpas. 24 En cambio, que la justicia fluya como agua, y la rectitud como un arroyo constantemente fluyendo. 25 ¿Me traíste sacrificios y ofrendas en el desierto por cuarenta años, casa de Israel? 26 Levantarán a Sicut como su rey, y Quiyún, su dios estrella, ídolos que han hecho para ustedes mismos. 27 Por lo tanto, Yo te exiliaré más allá de Damasco," dice el SEÑOR, cuyo nombre es el Dios de los ejércitos.

Chapter 6

1 ¡Ay de aquellos que están cómodos en Sión, y de aquellos que están seguros en el país montañoso de Samaria, los hombres notables de lo mejor de las naciones, a quienes la casa de Israel viene por ayuda! 2 Sus líderes dicen: "Vayan a Calne y miren; de ahí vayan a Hamat, la gran ciudad; entonces desciendan a Gat de los filisteos. ¿Son ellos mejores que sus dos reinos? ¿Es su frontera más grande que la frontera de ustedes?" 3 ¡Ay de aquellos que posponen el día del desastre y hacen que el trono de la violencia se acerque! 4 Ellos se acuestan en camas de marfíl y descansan en sus sofás. Ellos comen corderos del rebaño y becerros del establo. 5 Ellos cantan canciones tontas al son del arpa; ellos improvisan con instrumentos como David hizo. 6 Ellos beben vino de envases y se ungen a sí mismos con los más finos aceites, pero ellos no se afligen sobre la ruina de José. 7 Así que ellos ahora irán al exilio con los primeros exiliados, y el festín de aquellos quienes reposan ya pasará. 8 "Yo, el SEÑOR Dios, me he jurado a Mí mismo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de los ejércitos, Yo detesto el orgullo de Jacob; Yo odio sus fortalezas. Por lo tanto, Yo entregaré la ciudad con todo lo que hay en ella." 9 Y vendrá a ser que si quedan diez hombres en una casa, todos morirán. 10 Cuando el pariente de un hombre venga a recoger sus cuerpos, el que ha de cremarlos luego de sacar los cuerpos fuera de la casa, si él le dice a la persona en la casa: "¿Hay alguien contigo?" Si la persona dice: "No." Entonces, él dirá: "Estén callados, porque no debemos mencionar el nombre del SEÑOR." 11 Pues, miren, el SEÑOR dará una orden, y la casa grande será destrozada en pedazos, y la casa pequeña en pedacitos. 12 ¿Acaso los caballos corren en riscos rocosos? ¿Acaso alguno ara ahí con bueyes? Aún así, ustedes han convertido la justicia en veneno y la fruta de la virtud en amargura. 13 Ustedes quienes se alegran sobre Lo-debar, quienes dicen: "¿No hemos tomado Karnaim por nuestra propia fuerza?" 14 Pero miren, Yo levantaré contra ustedes una nación, casa de Israel, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de los ejércitos. Ellos los afligirán a ustedes desde Lebo-hamat hasta el arroyo de Arabá.

Chapter 7

1 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios me mostró a mí. Miren, el formó un enjambre de langostas cuando comenzó a brotar la cosecha de la primavera, y miren, esta fue la cosecha tardía luego de la cosecha del rey. 2 Cuando ellas terminaron de comer la vegetación de la tierra, entonces yo dije: "SEÑOR Dios, por favor perdona; ¿Cómo sobrevivirá Jacob? Pues él es muy pequeño." 3 El SEÑOR cedió en cuanto a esto. "Esto no pasará", Él dijo. 4 Esto es lo que el SEÑOR Dios me mostró: Miren, el SEÑOR DIOS llamó al fuego para juzgar. Este secó la extensa y profunda agua debajo de la tierra y habría devorado la tierra también. 5 Pero yo dije: "SEÑOR Dios, por favor detente;¿Cómo Jacob sobrevivirá? Pues él es muy pequeño." 6 El SEÑOR cedió en cuanto a esto, "Esto tampoco sucederá." dice el SEÑOR Dios. 7 Esto es lo que Él me mostró: Miren, el SEÑOR estaba de pie al lado del muro, con una plomada en su mano. 8 El SEÑOR me dijo: "¿Amós, qué tu ves? Yo dije: "Una plomada." Entonces el SEÑOR dijo: "Mira, Yo pondré una plomada entre mi pueblo de Israel. Yo no los perdonaré más. 9 Los lugares altos de Isaac serán destruídos, los santuarios de Israel serán arruinados, y Yo me levantaré contra la casa de Jeroboan con la espada. 10 Entonces Amasías, el sacerdore de Betel, envió un mensaje a Jeroboan, rey de Israel: "Amós ha conspirado contra tí en medio de la casa de Israel. La tierra no puede soportar todas sus palabras. 11 Pues esto es lo que Amós dijo: 'Jeroboan morirá por la espada, e Israel seguramente irá al exilio lejos de su tierra." 12 Amasías dijo a Amós: "Vidente, vete, vuelve corriendo a la tierra de Juda y allí come pan y profetiza. 13 Pero no profetices nunca más aquí en Betel, pues este es el santuario del rey y una casa real." 14 Entoces Amós le dijo a Amasías: "Yo no soy un profeta ni hijo de profeta. Yo soy un pastor, y cuido de los árboles de higos de sicómoro. 15 Pero el SEÑOR me tomó del pastoreo del rebaño y me dijo: 'Ve, profetiza a mi pueblo Israel.' 16 Ahora escucha la voz del SEÑOR. Tu dices: 'No profetices contra Israel y no hables contra la casa de Isaac.' 17 Por lo tanto esto es lo que el SEÑOR dice: 'Tu esposa será una prostituta en la ciudad; tus hijos y tus hijas caerán por la espada; tu tierra será medida y dividida; tu morirás en una tierra inmunda, e Israel seguramente irá al exilio desde esta tierra.'"

1 Esto es lo que el Señor Dios me mostró. ¡Mira, una canasta de frutas de verano! 2 Él dijo: "¿Qué es lo que ves, Amos?" Yo dije: "Una canasta de frutas de verano." Luego el Señor me dijo: "El final ha llegado para mi pueblo Israel; Yo no voy a perdónarlos más. 3 Las canciones del templo se convertirán en gemidos en ese día," esta es la declaración del Señor Dios. "Los cadáveres serán muchos, en cada lugar ellos los lanzarán en silencio!" 4 Escuchen esto, ustedes que pisotean a los necesitados y eliminan los pobres de la tierra. 5 Ellos dicen: "¿Cuándo pasará la luna nueva, para poder vender grano de nuevo? ¿Cuándo terminará el día de reposo, para que podamos vender trigo? Nosotros haremos la medida pequeña y aumentaremos el precio, mientras hacemos trampa con balanzas falsas. 6 Esto es para que podamos vender trigo malo, comprar al pobre con plata, y al necesitados para un par de sandalias." 7 El Señor ha jurado por el orgullo de Jacob: "Ciertamente Yo nunca olvidaré ninguna de sus acciones." 8 ¿No temblará por esto la tierra, y todo el que viva en ella llorará? Todo se levantará como el Río Nilo, y será lanzado y hundido, como el río de Egipto. 9 "Vendrá en este día, esta es la declaración del Señor Dios: Yo haré la puesta del sol a mediodía, y Yo voy a oscurecer la tierra a la luz del día. 10 Yo voy a cambiar sus festivales en luto y todas sus canciones en lamentación. Yo haré que todos ustedes vistan tela de costal y tengan calvicie en cada cabeza. Yo haré que sea como luto por un hijo unigénito, y amargura en su día final. 11 Mira, los días estan viniendo, esta es la declaración del Señor Dios, cuando Yo enviaré una hambruna en la tierra, no una hambre de pan, ni sed de agua, pero por oír las palabras del Señor. 12 Ellos tambalearán de mar a mar; ellos correrán desde el norte hacia el este para buscar la palabra del Señor, pero no la encontrarán. 13 En ese día, las hermosas vírgenes y los jóvenes se desmayarán de sed. 14 Aquellos que juran por el pecado de Samaria, ellos caerán y nunca volverán a levantarse."

Chapter 9

1 Yo ví al Señor parado al lado del altar, y Él dijo, " Golpea la parte superior de los pilares para que los cimientos se sacudan. Rómpelos en pedazos sobre todas sus cabezas, y yo mataré a los últimos de ellos con la espada. Ninguno de ellos irá lejos, ninguno de ellos escapará. 2 Aunque caven en el Seol, de allí mi mano los tomará. Aunque suban al cielo, de allí los haré descender. 3 Aunque ellos se escondan en la cima del Carmelo, allí los buscaré y los tomaré. Aunque ellos están ocultos a mi vista en el fondo del mar, allí daré órdenes a la serpiente, y ella los morderá. 4 Aunque ellos vayan al cautiverio, conducidos por sus enemigos ante ellos, allí daré órdenes a la espada, y ella los matará. Yo mantendré mis ojos en ellos para mal y no para bien." 5 El SEÑOR, Dios de los ejércitos toca la tierra y se derrite; todos los que viven en ella lloran; todo crecerá como el rio, y vuelve a hundirse como el rio de Egipto. 6 Es él quien construye sus pasos en los cielos, y ha establecido su bóveda sobre la tierra. El llama a las aguas del mar, y las derrama sobre la superficie de la tierra, y su nombre es el SEÑOR. 7 ¿No son ustedes como la gente de Etiopía para mí, pueblo de Israel? esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. ¿No saqué a Israel de la tierra de Egipto, a los filisteos de Creta y a los arameos de Kir? 8 Miren, los ojos del señor Dios están sobre el reino pecaminoso, y yo lo destruiré de la faz de la tierra, excepto que no destruiré totalmente la casa de Jacob; esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 9 Miren, Yo daré una orden, y Yo haré temblar la casa de Israel entre todas las naciones, como se sacude el grano en un colador, para que ni la piedra más pequeña caiga al suelo. 10 Todos los pecadores de mi pueblo morirán por la espada, aquellos que dicen, ' El desastre no sobrevendrá ni nos alcanzará a nosotros.' 11 En ese día levantaré la tienda de David que ha caído y cerraré sus brechas. Yo levantaré sus ruinas, y lo reconstruiré como en los días pasados. 12 Para que puedan poseer el remanente de Edom, y todas las naciones que son llamadas por mi nombre, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, él hace esto. 13 Miren, vendrán días, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, cuando el labrador alcanzará al segador, y el pisador de uvas alcanzará al que siembra. Las montañas derramarán vino dulce, y todas las colinas fluirán con él. 14 "Haré volver del cautiverio a mi pueblo Israel. Ellos construirán las ciudades arruinadas y las habitarán, plantarán viñas y beberán su vino, y ellos harán huertos y comerán sus frutos. 15 Los plantaré sobre su tierra, y nunca más serán arrancados de la tierra que yo les he dado", dice el SEÑOR tu Dios.

Chapter 1

1 La Visión de Abdías. El Señor Dios dice esto sobre Edom: Nosotros hemos escuchado un reclamo del SEÑOR y un embajador ha sido enviado entre las naciones, diciendo: "¡Levántense! ¡Levantémonos contra ella para la batalla! 2 Mira, Yo te haré pequeño entre las naciones, tú serás despreciado en gran manera. 3 El orgullo de tu corazón te ha engañado, tú que vives en las hendíduras de la roca, en tu noble casa; que dices en tu corazón: "¿Quién me derribará a tierra?" 4 Aunque te eleves alto como el águila y aunque tu nido se encuentra entre las estrellas, te derribaré de allí, dice el SEÑOR. 5 Si los ladrones vinieran a ti, si los robadores vinieran de noche (¡cómo ustedes serán eliminados!), ¿Robarían solo lo suficiente para ellos mismos? Si los recogedores de uvas vinieran a ti, ¿Dejarían ellos algunas espigas? 6 ¡Cómo Esaú ha sido saqueado y sus tesoros escondidos buscados! 7 Todos tus hombres aliados te enviarán camino hacia la frontera. Los hombres que estaban en paz contigo te han engañado, y prevalecieron contra ti. Los que comen tu pan te han tendido una trampa. No hay entendimiento en él. 8 "En ese día," dice el SEÑOR, " ¿destruiré los hombres sabios de Edom y el entendimiento desde la montaña de Esaú? 9 Tus hombres poderosos serán atemorizados, Temán, así que cada hombre sea cortado de la montaña de Esaú por la masacre. 10 Debido a la violencia hecha a tu hermano Jacob, estarás cubierto de vergüenza, y serás cortado para siempre. 11 El día que te pusiste a un lado, el día en que extraños se llevaron su riqueza, y los extranjeros entraron por sus puertas, y echaron suertes por Jerusalén, tú eras como uno de ellos. 12 Pero no te alegres en el día de tu hermano, en el día de su desgracia, y no te regocijes sobre Judá en el día de su destrucción; no te jactes en el día de su angustia. 13 No entres en la puerta de Mi pueblo en el día de su desgracia; no te regocijes de su aflicción en el día de su desastre, no hagas botín de su riqueza en el día de su ruina. 14 No te pares en las encrucijadas, para acabar a sus fugitivos y no entregues a sus sobrevivientes en el día de angustia. 15 Porque el día de el SEÑOR está cerca sobre todas las naciones. Como has hecho, se te hará; tus actos regresarán en tu propia cabeza. 16 Porque como tuviste bebiendo en Mi santo monte, beberán todas las naciones continuamente. Beberán y tragarán y serán como si nunca hubieran existido. 17 Pero en el Monte Sión habrá aquellos que escapen y estos serán santos; y la casa de Jacob recuperará sus posesiones. 18 La casa de Jacob será un fuego, y la casa de José una llama, y la casa de Esaú será hojarasca, y ellos los quemarán y consumirán. No habrá sobrevivientes en la casa de Esaú, porque el SEÑOR lo ha dicho." 19 Los del Neguev poseerán el monte de Esaú y los del Sefela la tierra de los filisteos. Ellos poseerán la tierra de Efraín y la tierra de Samaria; y Benjamín poseerá Galaad. 20 Los desterrados del ejército del pueblo de Israel poseerán la tierra de Canaán tan lejos como Sarepta. Los exiliados de Jerusalén, que están en Sefarad, poseerán las ciudades del Neguev. 21 Los libertadores subirán al Monte Sión para gobernar la región montañosa de Esaú, y el reino pertenecerá al SEÑOR.

Book: Jonah

Jonah

Chapter 1

1 Ahora la palabra de EL SEÑOR vino a Jonás hijo de Amitai, diciendo: 2 "Levántate y ve a Nínive, la gran cuidad, y profetiza en contra de ella, porque su maldad ha llegado delante de Mí." 3 Pero Jonás se levantó para huir de la presencia de EL SEÑOR y se fue a Tarsis. Él bajó a Jope y encontró un barco que iba a Tarsis. Así que pagó el boleto y abordó el barco para salir a Tarsis, lejos de la presencia de EL SEÑOR. 4 Pero EL SEÑOR envió un gran viento en el mar y se convirtió en una fuerte tormenta. Pronto parecía que el barco se iba a romper. 5 Los marineros se asustaron mucho y cada uno comenzó a clamar a su propio dios. Ellos echaron la carga del barco al mar para hacerlo más liviano. Pero Jonás había bajado al fondo del barco y estaba acostado profundamente dormido. 6 Así que el capitán vino a él y le dijo, "¿Qué tú haces durmiendo? ¡Levántate! ¡ Clama a tu dios! Puede ser que tu dios nos tome en cuenta y no nos haga morir" 7 Todos se dijeron unos a otros: " Vengan, vamos a echar suerte, para así saber quién es el causante de este mal que nos está ocurriendo." Así que echaron suerte, y ésta cayó en Jonás. 8 Luego ellos le dijeron a Jonás, " Por favor, dinos quién es el causante de este mal que nos está ocurriendo. ¿Cúal es tu trabajo, y de dónde vienes? ¿Cúal es tu país y de qué pueblo vienes?" 9 Jonás le dijo," Yo soy hebreo; y temo al SEÑOR, el Dios de los cielos, quién hizo el mar y la tierra seca." 10 Entonces los hombres sintieron más miedo y le dijeron a Jonás," ¿Qué es lo que has hecho? Los hombres sabían que él estaba huyendo de la presencia del SEÑOR, pues Jonás le había dicho. 11 Luego le dijeron a Jonás, "¿Qué te haremos para que el mar se calme para nosotros? Pues el mar se había vuelto más y más violento. 12 Jonás les dijo," Levánteme y echénme al mar. Luego el mar se calmará para ustedes, pues sé que es por mí que se ha levantado esta gran tormenta contra ustedes." 13 Sin embargo, los marineros remaron fuerte para volver a tierra, pero no pudieron porque el mar se volvía más y más violento contra ellos. 14 Luego, clamaron al SEÑOR y dijeron, "Te rogamos SEÑOR, te rogamos, no nos dejes morir y no permitas que carguemos la culpa de su muerte, porqué Tú, SEÑOR, has hecho como tú has querido." 15 Así que levantaron a Jonás y lo echaron al mar y este se calmo. 16 Luego, los hombres temieron mucho al SEÑOR. Ellos ofrecieron sacrificios al SEÑOR e hicieron votos. 17 Ahora, EL SEÑOR preparó un gran pez para que se tragara a Jonás y Jonás estuvo en el estómago del pez por tres días y tres noches.

Jonah 1:1

la palabra de SEÑOR vino

Pronto parecía
Esto se puede ver de manera explícita como que pensaban que se rompería el barco. Traducción Alterna: "Los hombres pensaron"

se iba a romper
Esto se puede ver de forma activa como. Tradución Alterna : "romperse en pedasos"

Los marineros
los hombres que trabajaban en el barco

su propio dios
Aquí "dios" se refiere a falsos dioses e ídolos que el pueblo adoraba.

Ellos echaron la carga del barco
" Los hombres lanzaron fuera del barco las cosas pesadas" Esto se hacia para prevenir que se hundiera el barco.

para hacerlo más liviano.
Haciendo que el barco fuera mas liviano, le premitiría flotar mejor. Traducción Alterna: "para ayudar al barco a flotar mejor"

Pero Jonás había bajado al fondo del barco Janás hizo esto antes de que la tormenta comenzara.

bajado al fondo del barco
"dentro del barco"

estaba acostado profundamente dormido
"estaba acostado durmiendo" o "estaba acostado ahí y profundamente dormido." Por esta razón, la tormenta no lo había despertado.

Jonah 1:6

Así que el capitán vino a él y le dijo
"El hombre encargado del barco fue donde Jonás y le dijo"

¿Qué estas haciendo durmiendo?
¿Por qué estas durmiendo? Él usó esta pregunta retórica para regañar a Jonás. Traducción Alterna. "Deja de dormir!"

¡Levántate!
Esto se refiere a hacer alguna actividad. Por causa de Jonás, el capitán le está diciendo que se levante y que ore a su Dios para que les permita llegar a salvo.

¡ Clama a tu dios!
"Ora a tu Dios!" "Llama" se refiere a atraer la atención de alguien.

Puede ser que tu dios nos tome en cuenta y no nos haga perecer"
La información implícita de que el Dios de Jonás podría salvarlos , se puede ver de manera explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Quizas tu Dios escuchará y nos salvará para que no muramos"

Todos se dijeron unos a otros:
"Los marineros se dijeron unos a otros"

Vengan, vamos a echar suerte, para así saber quién es el causante de este mal que nos está ocurriendo.
"Debemos tirar suerte para ver quién es el causante de este problema." Los hombres creían que los dioses controlarían el que la suerte cayera, de manera que les dijera, lo que ellos necesitaban saber. Esta era una forma de adivinación.

este mal
Esto se refiere a la terrible tormenta.

y ésta cayó en Jonás
"la suerte mostró que Jonás era la persona culpable"

Jonah 1:8

Luego ellos le dijeron a Jonás
"Entonces los hombres que estaban trabajando en el barco le dijeron a Jonás hacerte para que el mar se calme para nosotros

"hacer contigo para que el mar se calme"(UBD)

el mar se había vuelto más y más violento Esta era la razón por la cual los hombres le preguntaron a Jonás, que se supone que ellos debían hacer. La razón también se puede encontrar al principio del verso 11en el UDB.

pues sé que es por mí que se ha levantado esta gran tormenta contra ustedes
"por que yo sé que esta gran tormenta es por causa mia"

Sin embargo, los marineros remaron fuerte para volver a tierra
Los hombres no querían tirar a Jonás al mar, así que remaron fuertemente , como si estuvieran excavando en el agua para regresar a tierra.

el mar se volvía más y más violento

Chapter 2

1 Luego, Jonás le oró al SEÑOR, su Dios, desde el vientre del pez. 2 Él dijo: "Clamé al SEÑOR acerca de mi gran tristeza y Él me contestó; ¡desde el vientre del Seol grité por auxilio! Tú escuchaste mi voz. 3 Me habías echado a las profundidades, dentro del corazón de los mares, y las corrientes me rodearon; todas Tus olas y ondas pasaron sobre mí. 4 Y yo dije: "Estoy fuera de tus ojos; aún así volveré a mirar hacia tu santo templo." 5 Las aguas se cerraron a mi alrededor hasta mi cuello; la profundidad me rodeaba; las plantas marinas se arropaban alrededor de mi cabeza. 6 Bajé hasta las bases de las montañas; la tierra con sus barrotes me encerraron para siempre. ¡Más Tú rescataste mi vida de lo profundo, SEÑOR, mi Dios! 7 Cuando mi alma se desmayó dentro de mí, yo llamé desde mi mente al SEÑOR; luego mi oración llegó a Ti, a tu santo templo. 8 Aquellos quienes prestan atención a los dioses inútiles rechazan tu fidelidad hacia ellos mismos. 9 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo haré sacrificio a Ti con voz de acción de gracias; yo cumpliré aquello que he prometido. ¡La salvación viene del SEÑOR! 10 Luego, EL SEÑOR le habló al pez y vomitó a Jonás sobre la tierra seca.

Jonah 2:1

SEÑOR, su Dios
Esto significa "SEÑOR, el Dios que él adoraba." La palabra "su" no significa que Jonás era dueño de Dios.

Él dijo
"Jonás dijo"

Clamé al SEÑOR acerca de mi angustia
"Le oré al SEÑOR acerca de mi gran tribulación." Aunque Jonás le estaba orado al SEÑOR, él uso el nombre del SEÑOR aquí y no "Tú". Traducción Alterna: "SEÑOR te clamé a ti a acerca de mi angustia"

Él me contestó
"El SEÑOR me contestó" o "'Él me ayudó"

desde el vientre del Seol
"desde el centro del Seol" o "desde la parte profunda de Seol". Posibles significados son 1) Jonás estaba hablando como si el estar en el vientre del pez fuera estar en el Seol o 2) Jonás creyó que estaba a punto de morir e ir al Seol o 3) Él hablaba como si ya hubiera muerto he ido allí.

Jonah 2:3

Información General:
Esto es una continuación de la oración de Jonás que comenzó en 2:1. En el verso 4 Jonás habló de algo que él había orado antes de esta oración.

a las profundidades, dentro del corazón de los mares Esto habla de la inmensidad del océano en el cual estaba Jonás.

dentro del corazón de los mares
"al fondo del mar"

las corrientes me rodearon
"el agua del mar se me encerraba a mi alrededor"

olas y ondas
Estos son disturbios en la superficie del océano.

Estoy fuera
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Tu me haz alejado de ti" o "Me haz enviado lejos"

de tus ojos
"de ti". Cuando Jonás dijo "tus ojos" él estaba hablando del SEÑOR en su totalidad.

aún así volveré a mirar hacia tu santo templo
Jonás ha deseado que, a pesar de todo lo que estaba atravesando, él verá el templo.

Jonah 2:5

Información general:
Esto es una continuación de la oración de Jonás que comenzó en 2:1.

Las aguas
"Las aguas" se refiere al mar.

mi cuello
Algunas versiones entienden que la palabra hebrea en esta expresión significa "mi vida". En esa interpretación, las aguas estaban a punto de quitarle la vida a Jonás.

la profundidad me rodeaba
"las aguas profundas estaban a mi alrededor"

algas
"hierba que crece en el mar"

la tierra cerro sobre mi sus barras para siempre Jonás uso una metáfora para comparar la tierra a una prisión. Traducción Alterna: "la tierra era como

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

uns prisión que estaba a punto de encerrarme para siempre"

Más Tú levantaste mi vida de la fosa
Jonás habla del lugar de los muertos como si fuera una fosa. Traducción Alterna: "Pero Tú salvastes mi vida del lugar de los muertos" o "Pero Tú me salvastes del lugar donde las personas muertas están"

SEÑOR, mi Dios!
En algunis lenguajes puede ser más natural poner esto al comienzo de la oración o al lado de la palabra "Tú".

Jonah 2:7

Información general:
Esta es la continuación de la oración de Jonás que comenzó en 2:1.

yo me acorde del SEÑOR
Como Jonás estaba orandole al SEÑOR, puede estar más claro en algunos lenguajes decir "yo pesé en ti, SEÑOR" o "SEÑOR, pensé en ti". (UDB)

luego mi oración llegó a Ti, a tu santo templo Jonás habla como si su oración pudiera viajar hacia Dios y su tiempo. Traducción Alterna: "entonces Tú en tu santo templo escuchastes mi oración"

Aquellos quienes prestan atención a los dioses inútiles
"Personas que le prestan atención a los dioses inútiles"

rechazan tu fidelidad hacia ellos mismos
"te rechazan a ti, quien sería fiel a ellos"

Jonah 2:9

Información general:
Esta es la continuación de la oración de Jonás que comenzó en 2:1.

Pero en cuanto a mí
Esta expresión en español muestra que hay un contraste entre las personas de las cuales Jonás acababa de hablar y él mismo. Ellos prestaron atención a dioses inútiles, pero él adoraban al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Pero yo"

yo haré sacrificio a Ti con voz de acción de gracias Esto significa que Jonás le agradecería a Dios mientras le ofrecía un sacrificio a él. No es claro si Jonás pensaba en agradecer a Dios cantando o gritando alegremente.

¡La salvación viene del SEÑOR!
Esto puede ser refrasiado para que el nombre abstracto "salvación" sea expresado como el verbo "salvar". "El SEÑOR es el que salva personas"

sobre la tierra seca
"sobre el suelo" o "hacia la orilla"

Chapter 3

1 La palabra del SEÑOR vino a Jonás una segunda vez, diciendo: 2 "Levántate, ve a Nínive, esa gran ciudad, y proclama el mensaje que te ordené que dieras." 3 Así que Jonás se levantó y fue a Nínive en obediencia a la palabra del SEÑOR. Nínive era una ciudad grande, que tomaba tres días para caminarla. 4 Jonás comenzó a entrar a la ciudad y después de un día de viaje él habló fuerte y dijo: "En cuarenta días Nínive será destituída." 5 La gente de Nínive le creyó a Dios y proclamaron un ayuno. Todos ellos se vistieron de cilicio, desde el mayor de ellos hasta el menor. 6 Pronto las noticias llegaron al rey de Nínive. Él se levantó de su trono, se quitó su túnica, se cubrió de cilicio y se sentó en cenizas. 7 Él envió una proclamación que decía: "En Nínive, por la autoridad del rey y sus nobles, no permitan que ningún hombre o animal, manada o rebaño, pruebe algo. Que ellos no coman ni tomen agua. 8 Pero permitan que tanto hombre y animal se cubran de cilicio y clamen en alta voz a Dios. Permitan que todos se vuelvan de sus malos caminos y de la violencia que hay en sus manos. 9 ¿Quién sabe si Dios se arrepienta y cambie de opinión y aleje su ira feroz para que no muramos." 10 Dios vió lo que ellos hicieron, que se volvieron de sus malos caminos. Así que Dios cambió de opinión, acerca del castigo que Él había dicho que les haría a ellos, y no lo hizo.

Esto se refiere a dos tipos de animales que la gente cuidadban. Traducción Alterna: "ganado u ovejas"

Que ellos no coman ni tomen agua
"Ellos no deben comer ni beber nada." La razón que para que no debían comer o beber nada se puede expresar explícitamente añadiendo "para mostrar que estaban arrepentidos de sus pecados"

Jonah 3:8

Información general
Esto es una continuación de lo que el rey le dijo al pueblo de Nínive.

Pero permita que ambos
"Permita a ambos"

hombre y animal se cubran con ropa de saco Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "permita a la gente y los animales vestir tela de saco" o "permita que la gente se cubran y sus animales de tela de saco"

animal
La palabra se refiere a los animales que la gente poseen.

clamen en alta voz a Dios
"oren fervientemente a Dios". Por lo que deben orar puede expresarse más explícitamente. Traducción Alterna: "clamen fuertemente a Dios y pidan misericordia"

la violencia que hay en sus manos
Esto quiere decir "las cosas violentas que él hace"

¿Quién sabe?
El rey usó esta pregunta retórica para lograr que la gente pensara acerca de algo que quizás no habían pensado posible, que si ellos dejaran de pecar, Dios quizás no los mataría. Podría traducirse com una declaración: "No sabemos" o podría decirse como una palabra y ser parte de la próxima oración: 'Quizás"

Dios puede desistir y cambie de opinión
"Dios puede decidir hacer algo diferente" o "Puede que Dios no haga lo que dijo que haría"

nosotros no perezcamos
"no muramo"Aquí perecer es igual a ahogarse en el mar.

Jonah 3:10

Dios vió lo que ellos hicieron
"Dios entendió que ellos dejaron de hacer cosas malas."

se volvieron de sus malos caminos
El autor habla de la gente que dejaron de pecar como quienes vuelven la epalda a un objeto.

Dios cambió de opinión, acerca del castigo que Él había dicho que les haría a ellos
"Dios cambió su modo de pensar sobre el castigo que había dicho que les daría" o "Dios decidió no castigarles como había dicho que haría"

Él no lo hizo.
Lo que Dios iba hacer puede expresarse explicitamente. Traducción Alterna: "y él no los castigó' o y él no los destruyó"

Chapter 4

1 Pero esto no le gusto a Jonás y se enojo mucho. 2 Así que Jonás oró a SEÑOR y dijo, "Ah, SEÑOR, "¿no fue esto lo que dije cuando estaba en mi propia tierra? Por eso yo actué así y traté de huir a Tarsis- porque sé que eres un Dios de gracia, de compasión, lento para la ira, de gran fidelidad y te arrepientes de enviar desastres. 3 Por tanto, ahora SEÑOR, te ruego que me quites la vida, pues es mejor para mi morir que estar vivo." 4 El SEÑOR dijo, "¿Es bueno que estés tan enojado?" 5 Luego Jonás salió de la ciudad y se sentó en la parte este de la ciudad. Allí construyó un refugio y se sentó debajo de él, en la sombra para ver que le podría pasar a la cuidad. 6 EL SEÑOR Dios preparó una planta trepadora e hizo que creciera sobre Jonás para que sirviera de sombra sobre su cabeza para aliviar su gran tristeza. Jonás estaba muy agradecido por la planta. 7 Pero Dios tenía listo un gusano al amanecer del siguiente día. Este atacó la planta y esta se marchitó. 8 Sucedió que cuando el sol salió la siguiente mañana, Dios preparó un viento caliente que venía del este. También, el sol castigó la cabeza de Jonás y se desmayó. Luego Jonás deseó morir. Se dijo a sí mismo," Es mejor para mí morir que vivir." 9 Luego Dios le dijo a Jonás: "¿Esta bien que te enojes por causa de la planta?" Jonás le contestó: "Es bueno que esté enojado, aún hasta la muerte." 10 EL SEÑOR dijo, "Tú has tenido compasión por la planta, por la cual no trabajastes ni la hicistes crecer. Creció en una noche y se murió en una noche. 11 En cuanto a Mí, ¿no debo tener compasión por Nínive, la gran cuidad, en la cual hay más de cientoveintemil personas que no saben la diferencia entre su mano derecha y su mano izquierda, y tambíen mucho ganado?"

Jonah 4:1

Ah, SEÑOR
La palabra "Ah" expresa los sentimientos de frustración de Jonás.

no fue esto lo que dije cuando estaba en mi propia tierra Jonás usa esta pregunta retórica para demostrarle a Dios cuán enojado él estaba. También, lo que Jonás dijo cuando estaba en su ciudad puede ser indicado explícitamente. TA: "Cuando yo estaba en mi propia ciudad yo sabía que si yo advertía a las personas de Nínive, ellos se arrepentirían y Tú no los destruirías" yo actué así y traté de huir a Tarsis Los posibles significados son 1) "Yo traté de prevenir esto de viajar a Tarsis" o 2) "Yo actué rápidamente y traté de viajar a tarsis" o 3) "Yo hice todo lo que Yo podía para viajar a Tarsis".

abundante fidelidad
"muy fiel" o "amar a una persona mucho" (UDB)

que desiste de enviar desastres Esto significa "Tú dijiste que enviarías un desastre por los pecados, pero luego Tú decidiste que no". TA: "Tú decidiste no castigar a las personas que pecaron"

que me quites la vida
La razón de Jonás por querer morir puede ser indicada explícitamente. TA: "desde que Tú no destruirás a Nínive así como Tú dijiste que harás, por favor déjame morir"

pues es mejor para mi morir que estar vivo
"Yo prefiero morir que vivir" o "porque Yo quiero morir. Yo no quiero vivir"

Jonah 4:4

Es bueno que estés tan enojado Dios usa est pregunta retórica para confrontar a Jonás por algo que no se supone que él se enoje. TA: "Tu enojo no es bueno."

salió de la ciudad
"se fue de la ciudad de Nínive"

que seriá de la cuidad
"Lo que le pasaría a la ciudad" (UDB). Jonás quería ver si Dios destruiría la ciudad o no la destruiría.

Jonah 4:6

sobre Jonás para que sirviera de sombra sobre su cabeza
"sobre la cabeza de Jonás para raparla"

para aliviar su angustia
"para proteger a Jonás del calor del sol"

Pero Dios tenía listo un gusano
"Dios envío un gusano" (UDB)

Este atacó la planta
"el gusano se comió la planta"

esta se marchitó
La planta se secó y murió. TA: "la planta murió"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Jonah 4:8

Dios preparó un viento caliente que venía del este Dios causó que un viento caliente del este a soplar en Jonás. Si el viento solo significa un fresco o frío viento puede tratar esto. TA: "Dios envió un soplo de aire caliente desde el este hacia Jonás"

el sol castigó
"el sol estaba muy caliente"

en la cabeza de Jonás Jonás debió sentirse el soplo de calor en su cabeza. TA: "en Jonás"

se desmayó
"él se volvió muy débil" o "él perdió su fuerza"

Es mejor para mí morir que vivir
"Yo prefiero morir que vivir" o "porque Yo quiero morir. Yo no quiero vivir." Ver como tradujo esto en 4:1.

Está bien que estés tan enojado por causa de la planta
Dios reta a Jonás por estar enojado porque la planta se murió y como quiera querer que Dios matara las personas de Nínive. TA: "Tu enojo sobre la planta muriéndose no es bueno".

Está bien que estés tan enojado por causa de la planta
La información implícita puede ser echa explícita. TA: "Ustedes deben estar más concientes sobre el pueblo de Nínive muriendo que sobre una planta morirse."

Esta bien que estoy enojado, aún hasta la muerte
"Es bueno que Yo esté enojado. ¡Ahora Yo estoy enojado lo suficiente para morir!" (UDB)

Jonah 4:10

el SEÑOR dijo
el SEÑOR dijo a Jonás"

no debo tener compasión por Nínive, la gran cuidad...ganado Dios usa esta pregunta para enfatizar con su clamor que él debía tener compasión con Nínive. TA: "Yo ciertamente debería tener compasión por Nínive, porque es una ciudad importante...castigo".

en la cual hay más Esto puede ser el comienzo de una nueva oración. TA: "Aquí hay más" o "Tiene más" cientoveintemil personas 120,000 personas

que no saben la diferencia entre su mano derecha y su mano izquierda Esto puede ser una manera de decir "Ellos no pueden distinguir la diferencia entre el bien y el mal."

y tambíen mucho ganado
El autor está apuntando el profundo arrepentimiento de Nínive por el alcance que SEÑOR tomó nota de la participación de las bestias en el acto de arrepentimiento.

Book: Micah

Micah

Chapter 1

1 Esta es la palabra del Señor que vino a Miqueas el de Moréset, en los días de Jotam, Acaz, y Ezequías, reyes de Judá, la palabra que él vio concerniente a Samaria y Jerusalén. 2 Escuchen, todos los pueblos. Escucha, tierra, y todo lo que está en ti. Dejen que el SEÑOR Dios sea testigo contra ustedes, el Señor desde Su santo templo. 3 Miren, el SEÑOR sale de Su lugar; Él descenderá y pisará sobre los lugares altos de la tierra. 4 Las montañas se derretirán debajo de Él; los valles se romperán como cera ante el fuego, como las aguas que se vierten en un lugar empinado. 5 Todo esto es por causa de la rebelión de Jacob, y por causa de los pecados de la casa de Israel. ¿Cuál fue la razón de la rebelión de Jacob? ¿No fue Samaria? ¿Cuál fue la razón para los lugares altos de Judá? ¿No fue Jerusalén? 6 "Yo haré a Samaria un montón de ruinas en el campo, como un lugar para plantar viñedos. Voy a tirar sus piedras de construcción en el valle; voy a descubrir sus cimientos. 7 Todas las figuras talladas de ella serán destrozadas en pedazos; y todas las ofrendas a ella serán quemadas. De todos sus ídolos haré una ruina. Ella los reunió con las ganancias de su prostitución, y como el pago a una prostituta ellos regresarán." 8 Por esta razón me lamentaré y gemiré; iré descalzo y desnudo; aullaré como chacales y lamentaré como buhos. 9 Porque su herida es incurable, pues ha llegado a Judá. Ha alcanzado la puerta de mi pueblo, a Jerusalén. 10 No lo digas en Gat; no lloren por nada. En Bet Le Afrá yo me revuelco en el polvo. 11 Pasen por ahí, habitantes de Safir, en desnudez y vergüenza. Los habitantes de Zaanán no salgan. Bet Esel lamenta, pues su protección les es quitada. 12 Porque los habitantes de Marot esperan ansiosamente buenas noticias, porque el desastre ha bajado del SEÑOR a las puertas de Jerusalén. 13 Amarren el carro al equipo de caballos, habitantes de Laquis. Tú, Laquis, fuiste el comienzo del pecado de la hija de Sion, porque las transgresiones de Israel fueron encontradas en ti. 14 Así que tú le darás un regalo de despedida a Moréset Gat; el pueblo de Aczib decepcionará a los reyes de Israel. 15 Yo volveré a traerles un conquistador, habitantes de Maresa; el esplendor de Israel volverá a Adulam. 16 Afeítate la cabeza y córtate el cabello por los niños en quienes te deleitas. Hazte tan calvo como las águilas, porque tus hijos irán al exilio lejos de ti.

Micah 1:1

La palabra del Señor que vino
"La palabra que el Señor Dios habló"

Jehová
Este es el nombre de Dios que El reveló a Su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Ver la página de Palabra de Traducción acerca de Jehová referente a cómo traducir esto.

El Moreset
Esto significa que él es de Moreset, la cual es una ciudad de Judá.

En los días de Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías, reyes de Judá
"Cuando Jotam, Acaz y Ezequías era reyes de Judá"

La palabra que él vio concerniente a Samaria y Jerusalén Traducción Alterna: "la visión que él vio concerniente a la gente de Samaria y Jerusalén"

Micah 1:2

Informacion General
Miqueas 1: 2-7 es acerca del juicio de Dios sobre Samaria

Escuchen, todos Uds. pueblos. Escucha, Tierra y todo lo que está en tí Esto comienza la profecía de Miqueas. Ambas oraciones significan lo mismo y enfatizan que todo el mundo sobre la Tierra debe escuchar. Miqueas habla como si toda la gente de la Tierra lo estuvieran escuchando a él. (Ver: y)

El descenderá y pisará sobre los lugares altos de la Tierra Traducción Alterna: El destruirá completamente los lugares altos de la Tierra como si El estuviera aplastándolos con Su pie"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Las montañas se derretirán debajo de El, los valles se separarán como la cera ante el fuego, como las aguar que se vierten desde un lugar empinado
Esto significa que cuando Dios venga a destruir a los santuarios paganos, no habrá nada que pueda detenerlo.

Micah 1:5

Todo esto a causa de la rebelión de Jacob y a causa de los pecados de la casa de Israel
Estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que Jehová está actuando debido a los pecados del reino del Norte tanto como del reino del Sur.

Todo esto es
"El Señor vendrá y juzgará"

¿Cuál fue la razon de la rebelión de Jacob? ¿No fue Samaria?
Aqui "Jacob" se refiere al reino del Norte de Israel. Miqueas utiliza la pregunta para enfatizar que los pueblos de Samaria son la razón por la cual Dios vendrá a juzgar el reino de Israel.

Cual fue la razón para los lugares altos de Judá? ¿No fue Jerusalén?
Miqueas utiliza la pregunta para enfatizar que el pueblo de Jerusalén es la razón por la cual Dios vendrá a juzgar el reino de Judá

Micah 1:6

Yo haré
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Jehová.

serán triturados a pedazos... serán quemados
"Yo lo trituraré... Yo lo quemaré"

Yo arrastraré sus piedras de construcción
Aquí "su" se refiere a la ciudad de Samaria.

Porque desde la ofrenda de su prostitucion ella los reunió, y como el pago de una prostituta ellos volverán
A menudo la adoración a los ídolos incluían dormir con una prostituta en el templo pagano.

Micah 1:8

Información General
Miqueas 1: 8-16 es acerca del juicio de Dios sobre Judá

Yo me lamentaré
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Miqueas

Yo iré descalzo y desnudo
Esto es un símbolo de extremo luto y angustia

Desnudo
Seguramente Miqueas no estaba enteramente desnudo. Probablemente estaba usando un taparrabo.

Aullaré como los chacales y me lamentaré como los búhos
Estos animales son conocidos por sus gritos fuertes y ásperos. Y se encuentran en desiertos. Traducción Alterna: "Tu aullarás y te lamentarás como los animales de la noche"

Porque su herida es incurable
Aquí "su" se refiere a la ciudad de Samaria. Esto significa que nada puede detener al ejército enemigo que viene a destruir al pueblo de Israel.

Porque ha llegado a Judá
Aquí se refiere a la "herida", esto es, al ejército que Dios usará para castigar a Samaria.

Bet Le Afra
Quizás quieras hacer una anotación que diga "El nombre de la ciudad significa "casa de polvo"

Yo me revuelco en el polvo
Los pueblos bajo el juicio de Dios están expresando su dolor de una manera intensa.

Micah 1:11

Información General
Para los significados de los nombres de las aldeas y las ciudades, quizás quieras incluir esa información en una nota.

Safir
El nombre de esta ciudad suena como uno que significa "hermoso". Contrasta con la "desnudez y verguenza".

En desnudez y vergüenza
Los ejércitos enemigos a menudo hacían caminar a sus prisioneros totalmente desnudos. Y había vergüenza en ser un pueblo conquistado.

Zaanán
El nombre de esta ciudad significa "salir". Ellos tienen demasiado miedo como para salir y ayudar.

Bet Esel
El nombre de esta ciudad significa "casa de quitar"

Porque su protección les es quitada
Traducción Alterna: "Porque Yo he quitado todo aquello que pueda protegerlos"

Marot
El nombre de esta ciudad signifca "amargura"

Porque el desastre ha bajado del Señor
"Desastre" es una palabra importante en Miqueas y que surgirá nuevamente.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Micah 1:13

Laquis
Hay un juego de palabras aquí, ya que Laquis suena como "a los carros" en Hebreo. El pueblo estaba enganchando sus carros para escapar, no para pelear. Laquis le seguía en importancia a Jerusalén en Judá.

La hija de Sión
La "hija" de una ciudad significa las personas de la ciudad. Traducciones alternativas: "el pueblo de Sion" o "las personas que viven en Sión"

Porque las transgresiones de Israel fueron encontradas en tí Traducción Alterna: "porque tú desobedeciste como lo hizo el pueblo de Israel"

Mereset Gat
Quizás quieras agregar una nota que diga "El nombre de Moreset significa "partir" y es similar en sonido a la palabra "novio". Es como si Moreset es la novia que Asiria lleva y el "regalo de despedida" es la dote. Moreset Gat era el pueblo natal de Miqueas.

Aczib
Quizás quieras agregar una nota que diga: "El nombre de esta ciudad suena casi como la palabra Hebrea "cosa engañosa"

Micah 1:15

Yo volveré a traerles
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Jehová.

Maresa
Quizás quieras hacer una nota que diga: "Aquí hay un juego de palabras con el nombre de la aldea y la palabra hebrea para "conquistador". Este término fue usado en la conquista de Canaán por parte de Israel; ahora Israel será conquistada. Esta aldea probablemente está cerca de la aldea natal de Miqueas, Moreset Gat

Adulam
Esto se refiere a la ciudad real de los Filisteos.

Aféitate la cabeza y córtate el pelo
Afeitarse la cabeza era un signo de luto para los israelitas.

Chapter 2

1 Ay de aquellos quienes planifican iniquidad, a aquellos quienes planifican en sus camas para hacer el mal. En la luz de la mañana lo hacen porque tienen poder. 2 Ellos desean campos y se apoderan de ellos; ellos desean casas y las toman. Ellos oprimen a un hombre y su casa, a un hombre y su heredad. 3 Por lo tanto, el SEÑOR dice esto: "Miren, Yo estoy a punto de traer desastre en contra de este clan, del cual ustedes no removerán sus cuellos. Ustedes no caminarán arrogantemente, porque será un tiempo de maldad. 4 En ese día sus enemigos cantarán una canción acerca de ustedes, y lamentarán con una lamentación angustiosa. Ellos cantarán: 'Nosotros los israelitas estamos completamente arruinados; el SEÑOR cambia el territorio de mi pueblo. ¿Cómo puede Él quitármelo? ¡Él reparte nuestros campos a los traidores!'" 5 Por lo tanto, ustedes, gente rica, no tendrán descendientes para dividir el territorio por suertes en la asamblea del SEÑOR. 6 "No profeticen," dicen ellos. "Ellos no deben profetizar estas cosas; reproches no deben venir." 7 ¿Realmente debería ser dicho, casa de Jacob: "Está el Espíritu del SEÑOR enojado? ¿Realmente son éstas Sus obras?" ¿Acaso Mis palabras no le hacen bien a cualquiera que camine rectamente? 8 Últimamente Mi pueblo se ha levantado como un enemigo. Ustedes quitan la túnica, la vestidura, de aquellos quienes pasan sin sospechar nada, como soldados que regresan de la guerra a lo que ellos creen que es seguridad. 9 Ustedes sacan a las mujeres que le pertenecen a Mi pueblo de sus agradables casas; ustedes quitan Mi bendición de sus niños para siempre. 10 Levántense y váyanse, porque este no es un lugar donde ustedes se pueden quedar, a causa de su inmundicia; está destruido con total destrucción. 11 Si alguien viene a ustedes en un espíritru de falsedad y miente diciendo: "Yo les profetizaré sobre vino y bebida fuerte," él sería considerado como profeta para este pueblo. 12 Yo seguramente los reuniré a todos ustedes, Jacob. Yo seguamente reuniré el remanente de Israel. Yo los traeré a todos juntos como ovejas en un redil, como un rebaño en medio de su pasto. Allí habrá un fuerte ruido a causa de la multitud. 13 Alguien que abre el camino para ellos, irá delante de ellos. Ellos forzarán la puerta y saldrán; su Rey pasará delante de ellos. El SEÑOR estará a la cabeza,

---

Micah 2:1

Información General
Ahora, en Miqueas 2:1-11 la atención gira de las ciudades que están siendo juzgadas hacia los líderes en Israel que están tomando ventaja de los pobres y no están siguiendo las órdenes de Dios.

Micah 2:3

Este clan
Este "clan" se refiere a toda la comunidad de Israel, cuya gente rica están oprimiendo a los pobres. Los pecados de los líderes están regresando sobre la nación entera.

Del cual Uds. no removerán sus cuellos.
Jehová pretende que Su castigo es como el yugo alrededor de sus cuellos. Es algo que derribará el orgullo de los ricos.

Lamentarán con lamentaciones en gemidos
" ellos llorarán fuertemente"

¿Cómo puede El quitarlo de mí?
El enemigo utiliza una pregunta en su canción para expresar la sorpresa que los líderes ricos en Israel sentían porque Dios había tomado sus tierras y las había entregado a alguien más, tal como ellos las habían tomado de los pobres. Traducción Alterna: "¡El la ha tomado de mí!"

Por lo tanto, Uds. gente rica no tendrán descendencia para dividir el territorio por suertes en la asamblea de Jehová Aquellos que tomaron la tierra de los pobres no recibirán la herencia que les negaron a otros.

Micah 2:6

Información General
Miqueas 2:6-11 se enfoca en los profetas que no han predicado correctamente, aquellos que han rechazado a Miqueas y más modos en que los ricos han abusado de su poder.

Ellos dicen
"el pueblo de Israel dice"

Ellos no deben profetizar
"Los profetas no deben profetizar"

¿Está el Espíritu del Señor enojado? ¿Son éstas realmente Sus obras?
El pueblo usa las preguntas para enfatizar que han mal interpretado y no creen que Dios realmente los castigaría ¿Acaso mis palabras no hacen bien a cualquiera que camine rectamente?

Miqueas utiliza una pregunta para enseñar al pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Mi mensaje es bueno para aquellos que están preocupados en hacer lo que está correcto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Mi pueblo
Aquí "Mi" se refiere a Jehová.

Uds. quitan la túnica, las vestiduras de aquellos que pasan sin sospechar nada.
Los significados posibles son 1) Miqueas quiere decir que los malvados hombres ricos están literalmente robando las túnicas, pero esto no es muy probable. O 2) Miqueas se refiere a los acreedores que retenían la vestidura exterior de la gente pobre que venía a pedir dinero, y entregaban esa vestidura como garantía de que reintegrarían el dinero. De acuerdo a la ley en Exodo ellos debían devolver la vestidura antes de caer la noche porque podría ser la única cosa que el hombre pobre tuviera para mantenerlo abrigado a la noche.

Micah 2:9

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando a las personas ricas malvadas de Israel

Uds. le quitan Mi bendición a sus pequeños hijos para siempre Esto se refiere, en general, a las bendiciones que Dios le ha dado a Su pueblo. Puede referirse a 1) ser propietarios de tierras en Israel 2) un futuro promisorio o 3) a los padres de los niños, granjeros que trabajaron duro para restablecer la nación.

Está destruido con total destruccion
Traducción Alterna: "Yo lo destruiré completamente"

El será considerado
Traducción Alterna: "Uds. lo considerarán"

Micah 2:12

Información General
Jehová continúa hablando. Al final de este capítulo, Jehová se muestra a Si Mismo como un pastor que protege a Su pueblo. El puede estar refiriéndose a aquellos en Jerusalén que han regresado de Asiria.

Alguien que abre su camino... Jehová estará a su cabeza.
Esta es una imagen del Rey liderando a Su pueblo fuera de una ciudad amurallada.

Chapter 3

1 Yo dije: "Ahora escuchen, ustedes líderes de Jacob y gobernantes de la casa de Israel: ¿no es correcto para ustedes entender la justicia? 2 Ustedes, que odian el bien y aman el mal, ustedes que les quitan su piel, su carne de sus huesos-- 3 ustedes que también comen la carne de Mi pueblo, y les arrancan su piel, rompen sus huesos, y los cortan en pedazos, tal como carne para una olla, tal como carne en un caldero. 4 Entonces, ustedes gobernantes, clamarán al SEÑOR, pero Él no les responderá. Él ocultará Su rostro de ustedes en ese tiempo, porque han hecho obras malas." 5 El SEÑOR dice esto acerca de los profetas que hacen que Mi pueblo deambule: "Para aquellos que los alimentan, ellos anuncian: 'Habrá prosperidad.' Pero para aquellos que nada ponen en sus bocas, ellos empiezan una guerra en su contra. 6 Por lo tanto, será para ustedes noche sin visión; será oscura para que ustedes no hagan ninguna adivinación. El sol se ocultará sobre los profetas, y el día será oscuro sobre ellos. 7 Los videntes serán puestos en vergüenza, y los adivinos serán confundidos. Todos ellos se cubrirán sus labios, pues no hay respuesta de Mí." 8 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo estoy lleno de poder por el Espíritu del SEÑOR, y estoy lleno de justicia y fuerza, para declarar a Jacob su transgresión, y a Israel su pecado. 9 Ahora, escuchen esto, ustedes líderes de la casa de Jacob, y gobernantes de la casa de Israel, ustedes, los que detestan la justicia, y pervierten todo lo correcto. 10 Ustedes construyen Sion con sangre y Jerusalén con iniquidad. 11 Sus líderes juzgan por un soborno, sus sacerdotes enseñan por un precio, y sus profetas hacen adivinación por dinero. Aún así, se apoyan en el SEÑOR y dicen: "¿No está el SEÑOR con nosotros? Ningún mal vendrá sobre nosotros." 12 Por lo tanto, a causa de ustedes, Sion será arado como un campo, Jerusalén será un montón de escombros, y la colina del templo será como una colina boscosa.

Micah 3:1

Informacion General
El Capítulo 3 se enfoca en los líderes corruptos de Israel.

Yo dije
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Miqueas.

¿No es correcto para Uds. entender la justicia?
Miqueas utiliza una pregunta para regañar a los líderes porque no estaban protegiéndolos o tratándolos justamente.

Uds. que les arrancan la piel, su carne de sus huesos, tal como la carne en una olla
Miqueas utiliza esta terrible imagen de un carnicero cortando a los animales en trozos de carne para enfatizar cuán molesto está Dios con los líderes porque son tan crueles con aquellos a quienes deberían estar protegiendo.

Micah 3:4

Información General
Miqueas continúa hablando

clamarán a Jehová
"clamar a Jehová por ayuda"

El ocultará Su rostro de Uds.
Esto significa que Dios no escuchará sus lamentos. Ellos no escuchaban los lamentos de los pobres, y entonces recibirán el mismo trato de parte de Dios.

Micah 3:5

Información General
Miqueas continúa hablando juicio contra los falsos profetas.

Será noche para Uds... el día será oscuridad sobre ellos
Jehová está diciendo en 3:6 que estos falsos profetas ya no recibirán el mensaje de Dios para el pueblo de israel. Los profetas a veces recibían los mensajes de Dios a través de visiones, o sueños por la noche.

Los videntes serán avergonzados y los adivinos serán confundidos
"Esto causará que los videntes sean avergonzados, y Yo confundiré a los adivinos"

Todos ellos cubrirán sus labios
"Ellos ya no hablarán"

Pues no hay respuesta de Mi
Esto significa que Dios estará callado como parte de su castigo.

Micah 3:8

Pero en cuanto a mi.
El "mi" se refiere a Miqueas, un verdadero profeta, colocándose aparte de los falsos profetas.

Yo estoy lleno del poder del Espíritu de Jehová, y estoy lleno de Justicia y fuerza El Espíritu de Jehová ha elegido darle a Miqueas poder, justicia y fuerza de un modo especial y fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "El Espíritu de Jehová

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

me ha llenado con poder, justicia y fuerza" o "El Espíritu de Jehová me ha otorgado poder, justicia y fuerza"

Para declararle a Jacob su transgresión, y a Israel su pecado Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que tanto los pueblos del reino del norte como del reino del sur han pecado.

Micah 3:9

Uds. construyen a Sión con sangre y a Jerusalén con iniquidad
Los ricos se estaban construyendo hermosas casas para sí, a menudo a expensas y maltrato de los pobres.

sangre
Aquí "sangre" se refiere a asesinato (Ver:)

¿No está Jehová con nosotros? Ningún mal vendrá sobre nosotros.
Miqueas cita a los líderes que creen erróneamente que Jehová no los va a castigar por sus obras pecaminosas. La palabra hebrea para "malvado" aquí es la misma que para "desastre" en 2:3, una palabra clave en el libro.

Micah 3:12

A causa de Uds.
Aquí "Ustedes" se refiere a los sacerdotes, profetas y líderes del versículo anterior.

Sión será arado como un campo, Jerusalén será un montón de escombros, y la colina del templo será como una colina forestada.
Miqueas quiere decir que Jerusalén será totalmente destruida. Una ciudad grande con muchas personas viviendo allí será abandonada y crecerá

Sión será arada como un campo
Después de su destrucción, Jerusalén estará lista para ser arada. Traducción Alterna: "Otros pueblos ararán a Sión como un campo"

Y la colina del templo será como una colina forestada
Ni siquiera el área del templo será perdonada. Los líderes lo han corrompido y también será destruido.

Chapter 4

1 Pero en los últimos días sucederá que el monte de la casa del SEÑOR será establecido sobre los otros montes. Será extaltado sobre las colinas, y pueblos fluirán a él. 2 Muchas naciones irán y dirán: "Vengan, subamos al monte del SEÑOR, a la casa del Dios de Jacob. Él nos enseñará Sus caminos, y nosotros caminaremos en sus senderos." Pues desde Sion la ley saldrá, y la palabra del SEÑOR desde Jerusalén. 3 Él juzgará de entre muchos pueblos y decidirá concerniente a numerosas naciones lejanas. Ellos forjarán sus espadas en azadas y sus lanzas en hoces. Una nación no levantará espada contra otra nación, ni se entrenarán más para la guerra. 4 En cambio, ellos sentarán a cada persona debajo de su viña y debajo de su higuera. Nadie los asustará, porque la boca del SEÑOR de los ejércitos ha hablado. 5 Pues todos los pueblos caminan, cada uno, en el nombre de su dios. Pero nosotros caminaremos en el nombre del SEÑOR nuestro Dios por siempre y para siempre. 6 "En ese día," dice el SEÑOR, "Yo juntaré al cojo y reuniré al marginado, aquellos a quienes Yo he afligido. 7 Yo convertiré al cojo en un remanente, y a los expulsados en una nación fuerte, y Yo, el SENOR, reinaré sobre ellos en el Monte Sion, ahora y para siempre. 8 En cuanto a ti, vigilante para el rebaño, colina de la hija de Sión, a ti vendrá, tu antiguo dominio será restaurado, el reino que le pertenece a la hija de Jerusalén. 9 Ahora, ¿por qué gritas tan alto? ¿No hay rey entre ustedes? ¿Su consejero ha muerto? ¿Es esto el por qué el dolor te aflige como a una mujer de parto? 10 Ten dolor y trabaja para dar a luz, hija de Sion, como una mujer de parto. Pues ahora irás fuera de la ciudad, vivirás en el campo e irás a Babilonia. Allí serás rescatada. Allí el SEÑOR te rescatará de la mano de tus enemigos. 11 Ahora, muchas naciones se han juntado en contra tuya; ellas dicen: 'Déjala que sea profanada; deja que nuestros ojos se jacten sobre Sion.'" 12 El profeta dice: "Ellos no conocen los pensamientos del SEÑOR, ni tampoco entienden Sus planes, pues Él los ha reunido como gavillas para la era." 13 El SEÑOR dice: "Levántate y trilla, hija de Sion, porque Yo haré que tu cuerno sea de hierro, y haré que tus pezuñas sean de bronce. Tú aplastarás a muchos pueblos. Yo dedicaré su injusta riqueza a Mí mismo, el SEÑOR, sus posesiones para Mí, el Señor de toda la tierra."

Micah 4:1

El monte de la casa de Jehová será establecido Traducción Alterna: "Jehová establecerá el monte sobre el cual se construye Su templo."

Sobre los otros montes
Esto significa que el Monte Sión será el más importante de todos los montes. Puede también significar que este monte será el más alto en el mundo, no sólo en el área.

Será establecido sobre los otros montes
Traducción Alterna: "será honrado más que cualquier otro monte"

Los pueblos fluirán hacia él
Los pueblos de las naciones irán al monte de Jehová como fluye un arroyo. Esto significa que mucha gente irá. Traducción Alterna: "los pueblos de las naciones fluirán como un arroyo hacia él" o "los pueblos de las naciones irán a él"

Micah 4:2

Subamos al monte de Jehová, a la casa del Dios de Jacob Tanto el monte como la casa son referencias al templo en Jerusalén.

El nos enseñará Sus caminos, y nosotros andaremos por Sus senderos Aquí "Sus caminos" y "Sus senderos" refieren a lo que Dios quiere que haga el pueblo. También "caminar" significa que ellos obedecerán lo que El diga.

Porque la ley saldrá de Sión, y la palabra de Jehová desde Jerusalén Aqui las palabras "ley" y "palabra" hablan de la misma cosa. Las naciones del mundo escucharán la ley de Dios en Jerusalén.

azadas
Una azada es un filo que las personas utilizan para cavar en la tierra para poder plantar semillas.

Ellos forjarán sus espadas en azadas y sus lanzas en hoces.
Ambas frases significan que ellos tornarán sus instrumentos de guerra en herramientas que usarán para proveer comida.

Hoces
Una hoz es utilizada para cortar ramas o tallos de una planta para hacerla producir mejor. (podar)

Micah 4:4

Información General
Miqueas continúa describiendo "los últimos días" cuando la gente aprenda y obedezca la ley de Jehová.

Bajo su viña y bajo sus higueras
Esta es una imagen de la gente viviendo en paz.

Porque la boca de Jehova de los Ejércitos ha hablado
Traducción Alterna: "Porque Jehová de los Ejércitos ha hablado"

Caminaremos... en el nombre de Esta frase significa adorar y obedecer.

Micah 4:6

Información General
Jehová describe "los últimos días" cuando el pueblo aprenda y obedezca la ley de Jehová.

En ese día
"En el futuro"

Yo juntaré al cojo
"Yo reuniré a aquellos que son débiles"

Y recogeré a los expulsados
"Y recogeré a aquellos que yo causé que salieran"

Y a los expulsados en una nación fuerte
Traducción Alterna: "Y los que yo ahuyenté, los haré una nación fuerte"

Torre de vigilancia para el rebaño
Jehová utiliza esta frase para enfatizar que la gente de Jerusalén se supone que deben guardar y cuidar de todas las demás personas de Israel

Colina de la hija de Sión La "hija" de una ciudad significa a las personas de esa ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "la colina donde vive la gente de Sión"

colina
Algunas versiones modernas entienden que esta palabra hebrea significa "fuerte" o "fortaleza"

Micah 4:9

Ahora, ¿porqué gritas tan fuerte?
Miqueas se burla de la gente, tratando de hacer que ellos piensen acerca de porqué Dios los está tratando de esta forma. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora gritan fuerte"

¿No hay un rey entre ustedes? ¿Ha muerto su concejero? ¿Es por esto que el dolor aflige como a una mujer de parto?
Miqueas continúa dirigiéndose a la gente en un tono burlón. La respuesta a estas preguntas es "NO". El rey y los consejeros aún están ahí, pero son inútiles e impotentes. Traducción Alterna: "Así que ¿porque gimen ahora? ¿Es porque no tienen rey? ¿Toda su gente sabia ha muerto? Están gimiendo fuerte como una mujer que está dando a luz a un bebé" (UDB)

Ten dolor y trabaja para dar a luz, hija de Sión, como una mujer en trabajo de parto.
Miqueas utiliza la imagen de una mujer de parto para enfatizar la agonía del exilio. El quiere decir que ellos deberían estar en dolor porque Dios los está castigando al enviarlos lejos de Israel. Muchos de ellos no regresarán jamás a casa.

Allí serás rescatada. Ahí Jehová te rescatará Traducción Alterna: "Allí Jehová te rescatará"

Micah 4:11

Informacion General
Jerusalén derrotará a sus enemigos.

Déjala que sea deshonrada; deja que sus ojos se relaman sobre Sión Traducción Alterna: "Destruyamos la ciudad de Jerusalén y destruyamos a su gente para que nos sintamos muy complacidos con su caída"

Porque El los ha reunido como gavillas para el piso trillado.
Esto significa que Dios también está preparando castigo para los pueblos de las naciones.

Micah 4:13

Información General
Jahová presenta las metáforas del piso trillado. (Ver: 4:11)

Levántate y trilla, hija de Sión
Dios usará el pueblo de Sión para castigar a los pueblos de las naciones.

Haré que tu cuerno sea de hierro, y yo haré que tus cascos sean de bronce Jehová está comparando al pueblo de Sión a los fuertes bueyes que apisonarían el trigo. Esto significa que Jehová hará que el pueblo de Israel sea fuerte nuevamente para que puedan derrotar a otras naciones.

Chapter 5

1 Ahora, júntense en rangos de batalla, hija de soldados; los soldados han levantado un sitio alrededor de la ciudad, con una vara ellos golpearán al juez de Israel en la mejilla. 2 Pero tú, Belén Efrata, a pesar de que tú eres pequeña entre los clanes de Judá, de ti uno vendrá para gobernar en Israel, cuyo orígen es desde los tiempos antiguos, desde la eternidad. 3 Por lo tanto, Dios los entregará, hasta el tiempo cuando ella, quien está de parto de a luz un niño, y el resto de sus hermanos, regresen al pueblo de Israel. 4 Él se levantará y pastoreará Su rebaño en la fuerza del SEÑOR, en la majestad del nombre del SEÑOR Su Dios. Ellos permanecerán, pues entonces Él será grande hasta los confines de la tierra. 5 Él será nuestra paz. Cuando los asirios vengan a nuestra tierra, cuando ellos marchen contra nuestras fortalezas, entonces nosotros nos levantaremos contra ellos a siete pastores y ocho líderes sobre los hombres. 6 Ellos pastorearán la tierra de Asiria con la espada, y la tierra de Nimrod en sus puertas. Él nos rescatará de los asirios, cuando ellos vengan a nuestra tierra, cuando ellos marchen dentro de nuestras fronteras. 7 El remanente de Jacob será en medio de muchos pueblos, como rocío del SEÑOR, como lluvia sobre la hierba, que no espera por un hombre, y ellos no esperan por los hijos de los hombres. 8 El remanente de Jacob será entre las naciones, entre muchos pueblos, como un león entre los animales del bosque, como un leoncillo entre rebaños de ovejas. Cuando él pasa entre ellos, él los pisoteará y los rasgará en pedazos, y no habrá quien los salve. 9 Tu mano se levantará contra tus enemigos, y los destruirá. 10 "Esto sucederá en aquel día," dice el SEÑOR, "que Yo destruiré tus caballos de entre ustedes y demoleré tus carros. 11 Yo destruiré las ciudades en tu tierra y derribaré todas tus fortalezas. 12 Yo destruiré la hechicería en tu mano, y tú nunca más tendrás ningún adivino. 13 Yo destruiré tus figuras talladas y tus pilares de piedra de entre ustedes. Tú nunca más adorarás la fabricación de tus manos. 14 Yo arrancaré de raíz las imágenes de Asera de entre ustedes y Yo destruiré tus ciudades. 15 Yo ejecutaré venganza con ira y furia en las naciones que no han escuchado."

Micah 5:2

Pero tú, Belén Efrata
Jehováhabla a la gente de este pueblo como si estuvieran allí escuchando.

Efrata
Este es el nombre donde se encontraba Belén o es simplemente otro nombre para Belén.Belén está a unas seis millas al sur de Jerusalén. Era la ciudad natal del rey David. Los traductores pueden agregar esta nota al pie: "El nombre 'Ephrathah' significa 'para ser fructífero'"

Aunque seas pequeño entre los clanes de Judá Esto significa que Dios hará grandes cosas a través de un pueblo pequeño e insignificante.

vendrá a mí
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Yahvé.

cuyo comienzo es desde la eternidad.
Esto se refiere al gobernante que desciende de la antigua familia del rey David. Las frases "de la la eternidad" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la antigüedad.

Por eso Dios los entregará.
"Por eso Dios abandonará al pueblo de Israel"

Hasta el momento en que la que está de parto tiene un hijo.
Esto se refiere al momento en que nace el gobernante, un tiempo limitado.

el resto de sus hermanos
"El resto de sus compañeros israelitas". Estos son los israelitas en el exilio. Aquí "su" se refiere al niño que será gobernante.

Micah 5:4

Información General
Estos versículos continúan describiendo al soberano de Belén.

El se levantará y pastoreará a su rebaño en la fuerza de Jehová Traducción Alterna: "El liderará a Su pueblo en la fuerza de Jehová"

En la majestad del nombre de Jehova su Dios Traducción Alterna: "En la poderosa autoridad de Jehová su Dios"

Ellos permanecerán
Aquí "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. La palabra "Israel" o "Jerusalén" está implícita. Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo permanecerá en Israel" o "El pueblo permanecerá en Jerusalén"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Porque entonces El será grande hasta los confines de la tierra
Esto significa que en el futuro todos los pueblos de cada nación dará honor al soberano de Israel

El será nuestra paz
Aquí "nuestra" se refiere a Miqueas y al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "El será un hombre de paz" siete pastores y siete líderes por encima de los hombres Aquí "pastores" significa "gobernantes" También quizás desees agregar una nota que diga "Los números "siete" y "ocho" combinados significan que habrá más que suficientes líderes para alcanzar las necesidades.

Micah 5:6

Ellos pastorearán la tierra de Asiria
Aquí se menciona la derrota de los Asirios como si fueran ovejas pastoreadas.

la tierra de Nimrod Este es otro nombre para la tierra de Asiria. Nimrod fue un cazador y uno de los primeros líderes. Los traductores pueden agregar esta nota: "El nombre de "Nimrod" significa "rebelión"

en sus entradas
Esta expresión puede ser entendida como "en sus puertas". Las puertas de la ciudad eran espacios públicos donde los líderes a menudo tomaban importantes decisiones.

El nos rescatará
"El soberano rescatará"

Como rocío de Jehová, como chubascos sobre el pasto
Esto enfatiza que el pueblo de Judá será una bendición refrescante para las naciones.

Que no espera por un hombre, y ellos no esperan por los hijos de los hombres Tradución Alterna: "y ellos esperan y dependen de Dios"

Micah 5:8

Entre las naciones, entre muchos pueblos
Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan que el "remanente de Jacob" vivirá en muchas naciones diferentes.

como un león entre los animales del bosque, como un león joven entre los rebaños de ovejas. Cuando el pasa entre ellas, las pisoteará y las despedazará.
Esto enfatiza que el pueblo de Israel tendrá el poder y el coraje -durante el exilio- para juzgar y destruir a sus enemigos.

Micah 5:10

Sucederá en aquel día
Esto se refire a un momento indefinido en el futuro, probablemente durante el exilio.

Yo destruiré tus caballos de entre ustedes y demoleré sus carruajes
El puelo de Israel utilizaba caballos y carruajes solamente en la batalla. También podría haber involucrado alianzas con extranjeros, con países impíos. Dios no quería que el pueblo confiara en sus armas de guerra para protegerlos, más de lo que ellos confiaban en El.

Micah 5:12

Chapter 6

1 Ahora escuchen lo que el SEÑOR dice: "Levántate y presenta tu caso ante las montañas; deja que las colinas escuchen tu voz. 2 Escuchen la acusación del SEÑOR, ustedes montañas, y ustedes cimientos duraderos de la tierra. Porque el SEÑOR tiene una acusación con su pueblo, y Él peleará en la corte contra Israel." 3 "Pueblo mío, ¿qué te he hecho? ¿Cómo te he agobiado? ¡Testifica contra Mí! 4 Porque Yo te hice subir de la tierra de Egipto y te rescaté de la casa de esclavitud. Envié a Moisés, Aarón y Miriam a tí. 5 Pueblo mío, recuerda lo que Balac, rey de Moab tramó, y cómo Balaam, hijo de Beor, le respondió a él mientras ibas desde Sitim hasta Gilgal, para que pudieras conocer los hechos justos del SEÑOR." 6 ¿Qué debería traer yo al SEÑOR, mientras me inclino al Dios Altísimo? ¿Debería venir a Él con ofrendas quemadas, con terneros de un año? 7 ¿El SEÑOR estará complacido con miles de carneros o con diez mil ríos de aceite? ¿Debería dar mi primogénito por mi transgresión, el fruto de mi cuerpo por mi propio pecado? 8 Él te ha dicho, hombre, lo que es bueno y lo que el SEÑOR requiere de tí: Actúa justamente, ama la bondad y camina humildemente con tu Dios. 9 La voz del SEÑOR está haciendo una proclamación a la ciudad, aún ahora, la sabiduría reconoce Tu nombre: "Presta atención a la vara y al que la ha puesto en su lugar. 10 Hay riqueza en las casas de los malvados que es deshonesta, y falsas medidas que son abominables. 11 ¿Debería Yo considerar inocente a una persona que usa balanzas fraudulentas, con un saco de pesas engañosas? 12 Los hombres ricos están llenos de violencia, los habitantes han hablado mentiras y su lengua en su boca es engañosa. 13 Por lo tanto, Yo te he golpeado con una herida severa, te he hecho una ruina por causa de tus pecados. 14 Tú comerás pero no estarás satisfecho; tu vacío permanecerá dentro de ti. Tú almacenarás bienes, pero no están a salvo, y lo que salves, Yo lo entregaré a la espada. 15 Tú sembrarás, pero no cosecharás; Tú pisaras las aceitunas, pero no té ungirás con el aceite; prensaras las uvas pero no tomarás el vino. 16 Los mandamientos hechos por Omri han sido guardados, y todas las obras de la casa de Acab. Tú caminas por sus consejos. Así que Yo té haré, ciudad, una ruina, y ustedes, habitantes, un objeto de burla, y ustedes cargarán desprecio como mi pueblo.

Micah 6:1

Levántate y presenta tu caso... El peleará en la corte contra Israel En 6: 1-5 Miqueas utiliza la figura de una corte. Jehová habla delante de los testigos para determinar porqué el pueblo de Israel ha abandonado a Dios y ha comenzado a adorar ídolos.

Las montañas... las colinas.. cimientos duraderos de la tierra
Miqueas está hablándoles a estas cosas como si fueran humanos. Miqueas está utilizando las montañas, las colinas y los cimientos de la tierra como un testigo eterno contra la idolatría de Su pueblo.

Micah 6:3

Informacion General
Esto continúa la demanda de Jehová contra el pueblo de Israel. (Ver 6:1)

Pueblo mio, ¿qué te he hecho? ¿Cómo te he agobiado? ¡Testifica en contra de mi!!
Dios utiliza preguntas para enfatizar que El es un Dios bueno, y que El no ha hecho nada para motivar que el pueblo deje de adorarle. Traducción Alterna: "Mi pueblo, Yo he sido bueno con ustedes. No he hecho nada para hacer que Uds. se cansen de mi. Si Uds. piensan que lo he hecho, testifiquen en mi contra, ahora"

Casa de Esclavitud
Traducción alterna: "el lugar donde ustedes fueron esclavos"

Traer a la mente
"recuerda"

Balac. rey de Moab tramó, y lo que Balaam, hijo de Beor, le respondió Esto hace referencia a un evento en el pasado, cuando el Rey Balac contrató a Balaam para maldecir al pueblo de Israel. Sin embargo, Dios solamente le permitió a Balaam bendecir al pueblo.

Beor
Este es el nombre del padre de Balaam.

Sitim
Este es el nombre de un lugar en Moab.

Para que pudieras conocer los hechos justos de mí, Jehová
"Para que recuerden quien soy Yo, y qué he hecho por ustedes"

Micah 6:6

¿Qué debería traer a Jehová, mientras me inclino ante el Dios Altísimo? ¿Debería venir a El con ofrendas quemadas, con terneros de un año? ¿Estará Jehová complacido con miles de carneros o con diez mil rios de aceite? ¿Debería yo entregar a mi primogénito por mi

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

transgresión, el fruto de mi cuerpo por mi propio pecado?
Miqueas utiliza las preguntas para enseñar al pueblo de Israel acerca de lo que realmente es complacer a Dios. Traducción Alterna:" Seguramente no pensarán que podrán complacer a Dios trayéndole un ternero de un año, 1.000 carneros, 10.000 ríos de aceite, o aún su primogénito como sacrificio por sus pecados."

Mi primogénito por mi transgresión, el fruto de mi cuerpo por mi propio pecado Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa.

El te ha dicho
"Jehová te ha dicho"

Micah 6:9

La voz de Jehová está haciendo una proclama a la ciudad Traducción Alterna: "Jehová está haciendo un anuncio al pueblo de Jerusalén"

Aún ahora la sabiduría reconoce Tu nombre Traducción Alterna: "y la persona sabia temerá a Jehová" o "y la persona sabia obedecerá lo que Jehová diga"

Presten atención a la vara, y a Aquel que la ha puesto en su lugar Aquí "la vara" se refiere al ejército enemigo con quien Jehová disciplinará a Su pueblo.

Falsas medidas
Esto se refiere a pesas que pesaban los artículos de manera incorrecta,, a fin de que la persona pudiera engañar a otros a conciencia y ganar más dinero para sí.

Micah 6:11

Debería yo considerar inocente a una persona si utiliza balanzas fraudulentas, con una bolsa de pesas engañosas Jehová utiliza una pregunta para enfatizar que El considera culpable a la persona que engaña a otros a fin de ganar más dinero. Traducción Alterna: "Yo ciertamente consideraré culpable a una persona si utiliza balanzas injustas y pesas a fin de engañar a otros y ganar más dinero para sí"

Los hombres ricos están llenos de violencia
"Los hombres ricos se aprovechan de los pobres"

Los habitantes han hablado mentiras, y sus lenguas en sus bocas son engañosas Ambas cláusulas significan la misma cosa y están combinadas para otorgar énfasis. Traducción Alterna: "Todos ustedes son mentirosos". Esto debería tener un impacto emocional en los lectores.

Micah 6:13

Por lo tanto, Yo les he herido con una herida severa... pero no beberás vino
Jehová describe Su castigo hacia Su pueblo como permitir que el ejército enemigo venga y tome todo lo que han sembrado, preparado y almacenado para sí

Micah 6:16

Informacion General
Jehová continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel

Los mandamientos hechos por Omri han sido guardados
"Ustedes han hecho lo que Omri mandó"

Omri... Acab
Estos dos hombres fueron reyes del reino de Israel en el Norte. Dios los consideraba muy malvados.

Ustedes caminan por sus consejos
"Ustedes han hecho las cosas malvadas que Omri y Acab decían a la gente que hicieran"

Un objeto de burla
Esto es, algo motivo de burla mediante un silbido.

Chapter 7

1 ¡Ay de mí! Pora mí es como cuando la cosecha de los frutos de verano ha terminado, y aún la recolección del sobrante de uvas en los viñedos. No hay más racimos de frutas para ser encontrados, ninguno de los higos tempranos que yo deseo. 2 La gente fiel ha desaparecido de la tierra, no hay persona recta en toda la humanidad. Todos ellos están al acecho para derramar sangre, cada uno caza a su propio hermano con una red. 3 Sus manos son muy buenas haciendo daño: el gobernante pide dinero, el juez está listo para los sobornos, y el hombre poderoso le dice a otros lo que él desea obtener. Así, ellos conspiran juntos. 4 El mejor de ellos es como el zarzal, el más recto es como el arbusto de espinos. Este es el día anunciado por tus vigilantes, el día de tu castigo. Ahora es el tiempo de su confusión. 5 No confíen en ningún vecino, no pongan confianza en ningún amigo. Sean cuidadosos sobre lo que ustedes dicen aún a la mujer que descansa en tus brazos. 6 Pues un hijo deshonra a su padre, una hija se levanta en contra de su madre, y una nuera en contra de su suegra. Los enemigos del hombre son la gente de su propia casa. 7 Pero en cuanto a mí, yo miraré al SEÑOR. Yo esperaré por el Dios de mi salvación, mi Dios me escuchará. 8 No te regocijes sobre mí, mi enemigo. Luego de yo caer, yo me levantaré. Cuando me siente en la oscuridad, el SEÑOR será una luz para mí. 9 Debido a que yo pequé en contra del SEÑOR, yo soportaré Su ira hasta que Él defienda mi causa, y ejecute el juicio para mí. Él me traerá a la luz, y yo Lo veré rescatándome en Su justicia. 10 Entonces mi enemiga lo verá y vergüenza cubrirá a la que me dijo: "¿Dónde está el SEÑOR tu Dios?" Mis ojos la verán, ella será pisoteada como el lodo en las calles. 11 El día de construir tus murallas vendrá, en ese día las fronteras se extenderán bien lejos. 12 En aquel día tu pueblo vendrá a tí, desde Asiria y las ciudades en Egipto, desde Egipto hasta el gran río, el Eufrates, de mar a mar, y de montaña a montaña. 13 Esas tierras serán abandonadas debido al pueblo que está viviendo ahí ahora, debido a los frutos de sus obras. 14 Pastorea a Tu pueblo con Tu vara, el rebaño de Tu heredad. Ellos viven solos en un bosque, en el medio de la plantación. Que ellos pasten en Basán y en Galaad como en los días pasados. 15 Como en los días cuando ustedes salieron de la tierra de Egipto, Yo les mostraré a ellos maravillas. 16 Las naciones verán y se avergonzarán de todo su poder. Ellos pondrán sus manos en sus bocas; sus oídos serán ensordecidos. 17 Ellos lamerán el polvo como una serpiente, como las criaturas que se arrastran sobre la tierra. Ellos vendrán fuera de sus guaridas con miedo; ellos vendrán con miedo a Ti, SEÑOR nuestro Dios, y ellos se asustarán debido a Ti. 18 ¿Quién es un Dios como Tú, Tú que quitas el pecado, Tú que pasas por alto la transgresión del remanente de tu heredad? Tú no guardas Tu ira para siempre, porque Tú amas enseñarnos Tu pacto de fidelidad. 19 Tú tendrás otra vez compasión de nosotros; Tú pisotearás nuestras iniquidades bajo Tus pies. Tú lanzarás todos nuestros pecados en las profundidades del mar. 20 Tú le darás la verdad a Jacob y el pacto de fidelidad a Abraham, como Tú juraste a nuestros ancestros en los días pasados.

Micah 7:1

Para mí es como la cosecha de la fruta de verano... los higos tempranos.
Miqueas enfatiza que ya no hay gente honesta, leal a Dios en Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Para mi el pueblo de Israel son como la viña luego de la cosecha y el espigueo. Las viñas están desnudas. Yo ya no puedo encontrar fruta, pero aún anhelo comer un higo maduro.

La gente fiel ha desaparecido... con una red.
Miqueas exagera para mostrar cuan mala es la situación. El siente que no queda nadie bueno en Israel.

Micah 7:3

Información General
Miqueas continúa hablando acerca del pueblo de Israel.

Sus manos son muy buenas
Traducción Alterna: "Las personas son muy buenas"

El mejor de ellos es como las zarzas, el más recto es una cerca de espinas
Esto significa que aún los mejores líderes en Israel causaban daño y no tenían valor alguno.

Es el día anunciado por tus guardianes, el día de tu castigo Aqui "tus" aún se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Sus profetas les han dicho que Jehová los castigaría"

Ahora es el tiempo de su confusión Esto puede referirse a una derrota militar. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora está aquí, y ellos no entenderán que está sucediendo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Micah 7:5

Información General
Miqueas continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

No confíen en ningún vecino... gente de su propia casa.
Miqueas continúa mostrando que ya no hay nadie bueno, honesto y leal a Dios entre el pueblo de DIos. Aquí el enfatiza que ellos ni siquiera pueden confiar en amigos o familia.

Micah 7:7

Pero en cuanto a mí
Aqui "mi" se refiere a Miqueas.

No te regocijes por mi
Miqueas no se está refiriendo sólo a él. El quiere decir que el enemigo no debería regocijarse por lo que le pase a todo el pueblo de Israel.

Cuando me siente en la oscuridad, Jehová será una luz para mi.
Miqueas se refiere al desastre que está viniendo sobre el pueblo de Israel como la "oscuridad". El quiere decir que aunque DIos dejará que el enemigo venga a destruirlos ahora, El vendrá y los rescatará en el futuro.

Micah 7:9

Porque yo pequé
Miqueas no está refiriéndose sólo a él. El quiere decir que todo el pueblo de Israel ha pecado.

Hasta que El defienda mi causa y ejecute el juicio para mi
Esto se refiere a cuando Dios decida que El ha castigado a Su pueblo lo suficiente. Entonces El castigará a los pueblos de otras naciones que hayan dañado al pueblo de Israel.

El me traerá a la luz Traducción Alterna: "El vendrá y nos salvará de nuestros enemigos. Será como traer a una persona desde la oscuridad a la luz"

Micah 7:10

Entonces mi enemigo
Miqueas no se refiere sólo a sí. El se refiere al enemigo de todo el pueblo de Israel.

¿Adonde está Jehová tu Dios?
El enemigo utiliza una pregunta para burlarse del pueblo de Israel. TA: "Jehová tu Dios no puede ayudarte"

Mis ojos
Traducción Alterna: "Yo" o "Nosotros"

La mirarán
Aquí "la" se refiere al enemigo que hirió al pueblo de Israel.

Ella será pisoteada
Traducción Alterna: "Sus enemigos los pisoterán"

Micah 7:11

Vendrá el día de construir tus murallas
Aquí "murallas" hace referencia a las murallas alrededor de sus ciudades, que proveían seguridad y preservación de sus enemigos.

Las fronteras serán extendidas muy lejos
Traducción Alterna: "Jehová extenderá grandemente las fronteras de tu tierra" o "Jehová aumentará grandemente el tamaño de tu reino"

Esas tierras serán abandonadas
Traducción Alterna: "Esas tierras estarán vacías" o "Nadie vivirá en esas tierras"

Micah 7:14

Pastorea a tu pueblo con tu vara, el rebaño de tu heredad.
Miqueas está orando a Jehová, pidiéndole que proteja a Su pueblo de Israel una vez más. Aquí "vara" se refiere al liderazgo de Dios y Su guía, como un pastor utiliza su palo para guiar y proteger a sus ovejas.

Ellos viven solos en un bosque
Miqueas quiere decir que algunos pueblos están viviendo donde la tierra es pobre y están aislados y no pueden adquirir los bienes que necesitan fácilmente.

Déjalos pastar en Basán y Galaad
Estas regiones son conocidas como tierra rica para producir comida. Así que Miqueas está pidiendo que se extienda el territorio, uno que había sido perdido ante los invasores años antes.

Como en los días pasados
Esto puede hacer referencia a cuando Salomón era rey.

Yo les mostraré
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Jehová.

Micah 7:16

Ellos pondrán sus manos sobre sus bocas, sus oídos estarán sordos
Esto muestra cuán consternados están, tanto que no pueden responder. Ver el UDB

Ellos lamerán el polvo como una serpiente, como criaturas que se arrastran sobre la tierra Ambas frases significan casi lo mismo. Los enemigos de Dios serán completamente humillados

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y vendrán a El con temor luego que vean las cosas poderosas que El hace.

Micah 7:18

Quien es un Dios como Tú
Miqueas utiliza la pregunta para enfatizar que no hay nadie que hace las cosas que Jehová hace.

El remanente de Tu heredad
"Aquellos de nosotros, Tu pueblo elegido, que hemos sobrevivido a Tu castigo"

Micah 7:19

Tu tendrás
Aquí "Tu" se refiere a Jehová

De nosotros
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Miqueas y el pueblo de Israel.

Tu pisotearás nuestras iniquidades debajo de Tus pies. Tu arrojarás todos nuestros pecados a la profundidad del mar
Esto significa que Dios perdonará completamente los pecados del pueblo y nunca más castigará a la gente por ellos.

Darás verdad a Jacob y Pacto de Fidelidad a Abraham
Aquí "Jacob" y "Abraham", que son ancestros de la nación de Israel, se refieren al pueblo de Israel ahora.

A nuestros ancestros
Esto hace referencia a Abraham y Jacob, y quizás a otros que estaban vivos cuando Dios hizo Su pacto con Israel.

Book: Nahum

Nahum

Chapter 1

1 La declaración sobre Nínive. El Libro de la Visión de Nahúm, el Elcosita. 2 El SEÑOR es un Dios celoso y se desquita; el SEÑOR se venga y está lleno de ira; el SEÑOR toma venganza de Sus adversarios, y prolonga su ira hacia sus enemigos. 3 El SEÑOR es lento para airarse y grande en poder; de ninguna manera declarará inocente a sus enemigos. El SEÑOR se mueve en el torbellino y en la tormenta, y las nubes son el polvo de sus pies. 4 Él reprende el mar y lo hace secar; Él seca todos los ríos. Basán es debil, y también Carmel; las flores del Líbano son débiles. 5 Las montañas tiemblan en su presencia, y las colinas se derriten; la tierra colapsa en su presencia, de hecho, el mundo y toda la gente que lo habitan. 6 ¿Quién puede pararse frente a su ira? ¿Quién puede resistir la fureza de su enojo? Su ira se derrama como fuego, y las piedras son partidas por Él. 7 El SEÑOR es bueno, una fortaleza en el día del problema; y es fiel con los que buscan refugio en Él. 8 Pero acabará completamente con sus enemigos con una inundación abrumadora; Él los perseguirá hasta dentro de las tinieblas. 9 Que tramas contra Jehova? 10 El arrasara y no tomara venganza dos veces de su enemigo! Cual espinas entretejidas y cual borrachos en su embriaguez, seran consumidos como paja seca. 11 De ti salio un consejero de Balial que tramo el mal contra Jehovah. 12 Esto dice el SEÑOR: "Aunque ellos estén en su fuerza máxima y en su mayor numero, aún así serán cortados; su pueblo no será más. Mas tú, Judá: aunque Yo te haya afligido, ya no te afligiré más. 13 Ahora yo romperé el yugo de ellos de encima de ti; Yo quebraré tus cadenas." 14 Y el SEÑOR ha dado un mandato acerca de ustedes, Nínive: "No habrá más descendientes que lleven tu nombre. Yo echaré las figuras talladas y las figuras de metal de las casas de tus dioses. Yo excavaré tus tumbas porque ustedes son despreciables." 15 Miren, ¡en las montañas están los pies de alguien que está trayendo buenas noticias; que está anunciando la paz! Celebren sus festivales, Judá, y cumplan sus votos, pues el malo no les invadirá más; está completamente cortado de entre ustedes.

Chapter 2

1 El que los hara pedazos se está levantando contra ustedes. Pongan guardias en las murallas de la ciudad, protejan los caminos, háganse fuertes, reúnan sus ejércitos. 2 Pues el SEÑOR está restaurando la majestad de Jacob, como la majestad de Israel, aunque los saqueadores los debastaron y destruyeron las ramas de sus vides. 3 Los escudos de sus hombres fuertes son rojos, y los valientes están vestidos de escarlata; los carros brillan con su metal en el día que se preparan, y las lanzas de ciprés se tiran al aire. 4 Los carros de caballos avanzan por las calles; van y vienen por las calles anchas. Parecen antorchas y corren como relámpago. 5 El que los quebrará en pedazos a ustedes llama a sus oficiales; ellos tropiezan contra ellos mismos al marchar; avanzan para atacar la muralla de la ciudad. El escudo grande se prepara para proteger a estos atacantes. 6 Las puertas en los ríos se abren con fuerza y el palacio cae en ruinas. 7 Huzzab es despajada de sus ropas y es quitada. Sus sirvientas gimen como palomas golpeándose sus pechos. 8 Nínive es como un estanque de agua que se desborda con su gente que huye como agua rápida. Otros gritan: "Paren, paren," pero nadie mira hacia atrás. 9 Tomen el botín de plata, tomen el botín de oro, pues no tiene fin el esplendor de todas las cosas hermosas de Nínive. 10 Nínive está vacía y en ruinas. El corazón de todos se derrite; tiemblan las rodillas de todos y la angustia está en todos; sus rostros están pálidos. 11 ¿Dónde está ahora la guarida de los leones, el lugar donde lactan los cachorros, el lugar donde el león y la leona andan con los cachorros, donde no le temían a nada? 12 El león destrozó a sus víctimas por sus cachorros; estranguló a sus víctimas por sus leonas, y llenó su cueva de víctimas, sus guaridas de osamenta destrozadas. 13 "Miren, Yo estoy contra ustedes - esta es la declaración de el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. Yo haré arder los carros de ustedes en el humo, y la espada devorará a sus leones jóvenes. Yo quitaré el botín de la tierra de ustedes, y las voces de sus mensajeros no se escucharán más."

Nahum 2:1

Información general:
Nahúm continúa describiendo la destrucción de Nínive en la poesía que comenzó en 1:1.

El que los quebrantará en pedazos
La imagen es la de alguien rompiendo una maceta. Traducción alterna: "Él, quien los destruirá".

El que los quebrará
La persona que es "el que" no es clara, entonces traduzca usando el término general: "Alguien que los romperá en pedazos."

Pongan guardias en las murallas de la ciudad, protejan los caminos háganse fuertes, reúnan sus ejércitos.
Prepararse para la guerra

Pongan guardias en las murallas de la ciudad
"Pongan guardias en las murallas para protección."

Pues el SEÑOR está restaurando la majestad de Jacob Esto significa que el SEÑOR hará a Jacob y a Israel grandes y la gente los admirará nuevamente.

Saqueadores
Personas que roban cosas por la fuerza, usualmente en la guerra.

Los devastaron
Destruyeron todo.

Destruyeron las ramas de sus vides
Aquí se refiere a la nación como si fuera una vid cultivada. TA: " y arrancaron de raíz a tu nación como si fuera un viñedo". .

Nahum 2:3

Sus hombres fuertes
Los soldados del que "quebrará" a Nínive "en pedazos" (2:1).

Ciprés
Un tipo de árbol cuya madera se utiliza para fabricar armas. .

Los carros avanzan por las calles
"Los conductores de los carros manejan alocadamente por las calles". .

Los carros parecen antorchas
Esto se refiere al brillo de los carros, debido a que ellos reflejan la luz del sol. .

Nahum 2:5

Quebrará en pedazos
Traducir esto de la misma forma como lo hiciste en 2:1.

Llama a sus oficiales Posibles significados: 1) "Reune a sus oficiales" o 2) "piensa en sus oficiales".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ellos, ellos mismos, avanzan
Los soldados que atacarán Nínive.

Al marchar
Mientras marchan

Nahum 2:6

Huzzab (la reina)
Puede referirse a la reina o ídolo asirio. Si se refiere a la reina, entonces el versículo quiere decir que los soldados que atacaron le quitaron su ropa para humillarla. Si se refiere a ella como ídolo, entonces el versículo quiere decir que los atacantes quitaron el oro y la plata de la imagen.

Sus sirvientas gimen como palomas
"La sirvientas de la reina suenan como las palomas cuando gimen" al lamentar la pérdida de poder de la reina.

Nahum 2:8

Saqueado
Cosas robadas a la fuerza, usualmente en la guerra.

No tiene fin
Esta es una forma de decir que existe una gran cantidad de algo. Traducción Alterna: "existe una gran cantidad de eso"

El esplendor de todas las cosas hermosas de Nínive Posibles significados: 1) "abundancia de todas las cosas hermosas" o 2) " cantidad de todas las cosas hermosas".

El corazón de todos se derrite
"Todas las personas pierden su valentía"

Nahum 2:11

Guarida de los leones
Se compara a Nínive con la guarida de un león porque es un lugar donde viven los asesinos y donde ellos traen lo que han robado de la gente a la que asesinaron.

Estranguló
"Asfixió". Los leones muerden la garganta de sus víctimas para que dejen de respirar.

Llenó su cueva de sus víctimas, sus guaridas de cadáveres destrozados.
Estas dos frases dicen lo mismo de maneras distintas. La guarida de un león, su lugar de escondite, es generalmente una cueva.

Nahum 2:13

Vean
"Entiendan esto".

La espada devorará a sus leones jóvenes.
"Sus soldados morirán violentamente".

La espada
"soldados con espadas"

Devorará
"comer por completo"

Sus leones jóvenes
"Sus mejores hombres jóvenes"

Yo quitaré el saqueo de la tierra de ustedes
La palabra "saqueo" hace referencia a la riqueza que Nínive quitó y trajo de otras tierras. Esto significa que el SEÑOR destruirá la habilidad de Nínive para robar a otras naciones.

Chapter 3

1 ¡Ay de la ciudad llena de sangre! Está llena de mentiras y propiedades robadas; siempre hay víctimas en ella. 2 Pero ahora es el sonido de latigazos y el ruido del alboroto de ruedas, y los brincos de carros de caballos. 3 Hay hombres de a caballo atacando, espadas flameantes, lanzas brillantes, grandes montones de cuerpos muertos. Son innumerables; sus atacantes tropiezan con ellos. 4 Esto está sucediendo debido a las acciones lujuriosas de la hermosa prostituta, la experta en brujería, que vende naciones con su prostitución, y pueblos con sus actos de brujería. 5 Miren, Yo estoy contra ti - esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos - alzaré tu falda sobre tu rostro y mostraré tus partes privadas a las naciones, tu vergüenza a los reinos. 6 Lanzaré suciedad repugnante sobre ti y te haré detestable; te convertiré en alguien que todos mirarán. 7 Acontecerá que todo el que te mire huirá de ti y dirá: 'Nínive está destruida; ¿quién llorará por ella?' ¿Dónde hallaré a alguien que te consuele?" 8 Nínive, ¿eres tú mejor que Tebas, que fue construida sobre el Río Nilo, que tenía agua alrededor de ella, cuya defensa fue el océano, cuya muralla fue el mismo mar? 9 Etiopía y Egipto eran su fortaleza, y no habia final en esto; Fut y Libia fueron aliadas para ella. 10 Sin embargo, Tebas fue llevada; fue al cautiverio; sus niños pequeños fueron destrozados en pedazos a la entrada de cada calle; sus enemigos echaron suertes por sus hombres honorables, y todos sus grandes hombres fueron encadenados. 11 Tú también te emborracharás; tratarás de esconderte y tú también buscarás refugio de tus enemigos. 12 Todas tus fortalezas serán como árboles de higos con los higos maduros: que si son sacudidos, caen en la boca del que come. 13 Mira, la gente entre ustedes son mujeres; las puertas de tu tierra han sido abiertas de par en par ante tus enemigos; el fuego ha devorado sus vigas. 14 Ve a saca agua para el asedio; refuerza tus fortalezas; entra al barro y pisa el mortero; recoge los moldes para los ladrillos. 15 El fuego te devorará allí, y la espada te destruirá. Te devorará como las langostas jóvenes que lo devoran todo. multipliquense ustedes tantos como las langostas jóvenes, tantos como las langostas maduras. 16 Has multiplicado a tus mercaderes más que las estrellas en los cielos; pero son como langostas jóvenes: saquean la tierra y luego se van volando. 17 Tus príncipes son tantos como las langostas maduras, y tus generales son como enjambres de ellas que acampan en las murallas en un día frío. Pero cuando sale el sol, se van volando a dónde nadie sabe. 18 Rey de Asiria, tus pastores están dormidos; tus gobernantes están descansando. Tu pueblo está disperso por las montañas, y no hay quien lo reúna. 19 No hay sanidad posible para tus heridas. Tus heridas son severas. Todo el que oiga las noticias acerca de ti aplaudirá con gozo sobre ti. ¿Quién ha escapado de tu maldad constante?

Nahum 3:1

Información general:
Nahúm continúa describiendo la destrucción de Nínive en la poesía que comenzó en 1:1.

La ciudad llena de sangre
Los soldados de Nínive mataron a mucha gente. Traducción Alterna: "la ciudad es responsable por la muerte de muchas personas."

Nahum 3:3

Grandes montones de cuerpos. Son innumerables
El autor destaca la masacre contra Nínive, razón por la cual lo menciona 3 veces.

Cuerpos
Cuerpos de personas que han muerto

Son innumerables
"Hay muchos cuerpos".

La hermosa prostituta... experta en brujería
Al igual que las prostitutas venden placer físico y que los brujos venden conocimiento y poder a través de la magia; la gente de Nínive vende a las personas que han capturado en la guerra y se benefician de sus pecados.

Nahum 3:5

Vean
Esta palabra sirve para llamar la atención a lo que sigue.

¿Quién llorará por ella? " ¿Dónde hallaré a alguien que te consuele?"

¿eres tú mejor que Tebas, ... , cuya muralla fue el mismo mar?
Traducción Alterna: " No eres mejor que Tebas, ..., cuya muralla fue el mismo mar".

Tebas
La antigua capital de Egipto que había sido conquistada por los asirios.

cuya defensa fue el océano, cuya muralla fue el mismo mar
Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar. Las palabras "océano" y "mar" se refieren al Río Nilo que pasaba cerca de la ciudad y dificultó los ataques. .

Defensa... muralla
Las ciudades antiguas tenían un "muro" principal para alejar a los atacantes y una fila exterior de "defensa" para mantener alejados del muro a los atacantes.

Nahum 3:10

Información general:
Nahúm le habla a las personas de Nínive como si ellos fueran la ciudad.

Sin embargo
Esto señala que continúa la comparación entre Nínive y Tebas en 3:8. Posibles significados: "aún así" (UDB)o "a pesar de eso"

Tebas
La antigua capital de Egipto que había sido conquistada por los asirios.

Fue llevada... sus enemigos
Se refiere a Tebas.

Destrozados en pedazos
Los invasores mataron a los niños de Tebas con la misma facilidad en la que alguien rompe una maceta de barro .

Encadenados
Esclavizados. Traducción Alterna: "hechos esclavos"

Nahum 3:12

Información general:
Nahúm le habla a las personas de Nínive como si ellos fueran la ciudad.

Fortalezas
Esta palabra, que también puede traducirse como "fortificación", se refiere a todos los de Nínive y al Imperio Asirio.

Todas tus fortalezas serán como higueras con los higos maduros más tempranos: si son sacudidos, caen en la boca del que come.
La ciudad de Nínive será fácilmente arrebatada como el fruto de un árbol.

la gente entre ustedes son mujeres
"Tu gente es débil y no se puede defender a sí misma".

Sus vigas
Largas barras de madera que fortalecen las puertas e impiden que puedan ser abiertas desde afuera de la ciudad. Al quemar las barras es imposible cerrar la ciudad de nuevo.

Nahum 3:14

Información general:
Nahúm le habla a las personas de Nínive como si ellos fueran la ciudad.

Te devorará como las langostas jóvenes que lo devoran todo
Te destruirán como las langostas que devoran todo en su camino.

Te devorará
El "fuego" y la "espada"

Multiplíquense tanto como las langostas jóvenes, tanto como las langostas maduras Langostas maduras- "¡Multiplíquense como langostas jóvenes! ¡Multiplíquense como langostas adultas!" Estas palabras probablemente inician un nuevo párrafo.

Multiplíquense tanto como las langostas jóvenes
Esto significa que ellos se convertirán en una gran ciudad con mucha gente y destruirán otras tierras.

Nahum 3:16

Información general:
Nahúm le habla a las personas de Nínive como si ellos fueran la ciudad.

Has multiplicado a tus mercaderes más que las estrellas en los cielos
Los mercaderes de Nínive, al igual que las estrellas en el cielo, son imposibles de contar. Traducción Alterna: "Tienes más mercaderes de los que alguien puediera contar".

Mercaderes
"Comerciantes" o "quienes compran y venden cosas"

Príncipes
Usar una palabra equivalente a "líderes" políticos. (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Generales
Usar una palabra equivalente a "líderes" militares u otra autoridad de gobierno.

¿Quién ha escapado de tu maldad constante?

Book: Habakkuk

Habakkuk

Chapter 1

1 El mensaje que recibió Habacuc el profeta, 2 "SEÑOR, ¿he llorado por Tú ayuda por mucho tiempo, y tú actuas como si no me escucharás? He gritado con horror, "¡Violencia!" pero tú no me salvas. 3 ¿Por qué me haces ver la iniquidad y ver malas acciones? La destrucción y la violencia están delante de mí; hay lucha, y peleas en todas partes. 4 Por lo tanto, la ley se debilita, y la justicia no dura por mucho tiempo. Pues los malos rodean a los justos; por lo tanto, la falsa justicia sale." EL SEÑOR le responde a Habacuc: 5 "Mira a las naciones y examínalas; ¡Quedate maravillado y asombrado! Pues ciertamente haré algo en tús días que tú no creerás cuando se te informe. 6 ¡Pues mira! Estoy por levantar a los Caldeos, esa nación feroz e impetuosa. Ellos marchan por todo lo ancho de la tierra para apoderarse de las casas que no son de ellos. 7 Son terribles y espantosos; su juicio y esplendor salen de ellos mismos. 8 Sus caballos también son más veloces que los leopardos, más rápidos que los lobos nocturnos. De manera que sus caballos galopean y sus jinetes vienen de una gran distancia, vuelan como un águila avanzando para comer. 9 Todos ellos vienen por violencia; sus multitudes se van como el viento del desierto, y se reúnen cautivos como arena. 10 Así que se burlan de los reyes, y los gobernantes son sólo una burla para ellos. Se ríen de cada fortaleza, pues amontonan tierra y se la llevan. 11 Entonces el viento soplará con prisa; este destruirá. Son hombres culpables y su fuerza es su dios." Habacuc le hace otra pregunta al SEÑOR: 12 ¿No eres tú de los tiempos antiguos, SEÑOR mi Dios, Mi Santo? Nosotros no moriremos. El SEÑOR ha ordenado juicio para ellos, y tu, ROCA, tú los has puesto para correción de ellos. 13 Tus ojos son demasiado puros para mirar al mal, y no puedes mirar la maldad con favor; ¿por qué entonces has mirado favorablemente a esos quienes traicionan? ¿Por qué guardas silencio mientras los malvados destruyen a los que son más justos que ellos? 14 Tú creas a los hombres como peces en el mar, como cosas que se arrastran sin alguien que los gobierne a ellos. 15 Ellos los sacan a todos con anzuelos; arrastran a los hombres y los recogen en su red. Esto es el porque ellos se regocijan y gritan con entusiasmo. 16 Es por esto que hacen sacrificio a sus redes de pescar y queman incienso a su malla, pues las bestias gordas son su porción y las carnes grasientas son su alimento. 17 ¿Irán ellos entonces a vaciar sus redes y continuar la masacre de las naciones, no sintiendo compasión?

Casas
Casas

Ellos...ellos...ellos mismos
Los soldados caldeos. Dios elevará a la nación caldea, y los soldados caldeos invadirán Judá.

Son aterradores y temibles
Las palabras "aterradores" y "temibles" quieren decir básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que ellos hicieron a otros tener miedo. Traducción alterna: "Ellos hicieron a otros temer"

Proceden de
"Vienen de"

Habakkuk 1:8

Sus caballos...sus caballos
Los caballos de los caldeos

Más rápidos que los lobos nocturnos
Los caballos de los caldeos son comparados con los lobos feroces que corren tras su presa por la noche cuando están muy hambrientos porque no han comido en todo el día.

Sus jinetes
Los soldados caldeos que andan a caballo

Leopardos
Gatos grandes y ágiles

Vuelan como un águila
"Los jinetes cabalgan tan rápido como las águilas vuelan"

Sus multitudes se van como el viento del desierto, y reúnen cautivos como arena.
Los caldeos son muchos, y así como los granos de arena que el viento levanta en una tormenta son muchos para contar, nadie puede contar las personas que ellos capturan y hacen prisioneras.

Habakkuk 1:10

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa describiendo a los soldados caldeos.

El viento soplará con prisa
El ejército de los invasores caldeos es comparado al viento, el cual sopla con prisa en un lugar y rápidamente continúa con el lugar siguiente.

Habakkuk 1:12

Información general
Habacuc habla al SEÑOR acerca de los caldeos.

Chapter 2

1 Me pararé en mi puesto de guardia y me colocaré en la torre de vigilancia, y yo velaré con cuidado para ver qué él me dirá y yo debo dejar de quejarme y estar de acuerdo con Dios. 2 El SEÑOR me contestó y dijo: "Escribe esta visión, y escribe sin duda en las tablas para que él que esté leyendo entonces pueda correr. 3 Porque la visión es aún para un tiempo futuro y va finalmente a hablar y no fallará. Aunque se demore, espéralo. Pues ciertamente vendrá y no tardará. 4 ¡Mira! Aquel cuyos deseos no están bien dentro de él, está hinchado. Pero el justo vivirá por su fé. 5 Porque el vino es un traidor del jóven hombre arrogante, de manera que no se mantenga, sino que agrande su deseo como el sepulcro y, como la muerte, nunca satisfecha. Él toma para sí mismo a toda nación y reúne para sí mismo a todas las personas. 6 No creará todo esto un dicho para ridiculizarlo y una canción burlona acerca de él, diciendo: ¡Ay de aquel que está aumentando lo que no es de él! Pues, ¿por cuánto tiempo aumentarán el peso de las promesas que ustedes han tomado? 7 ¿Los que están enojados contigo vendrán otra vez, de los que tú temes comenzarán a atacar? Llegarás a ser una víctima para ellos. 8 Porque tú has asaltado a muchos pueblos, todo el remanente de los pueblos te asaltarán a ti. Porque has derramado sangre humana y has actuado con violencia en contra de la tierra, las ciudades. y todos los que viven en ellas. 9 ¡Ay! para el quien crea ganancias deshonestas para su casa, para así poner en alto su nido para guardarse a sí mismo de la mano del mal. 10 Porque tú cortaste muchos pueblos, provocarás vergüenza para tu familia y para tí mismo. 11 Porque las piedras clamarán desde el muro, y las vigas de madera les responderán. 12 ¡Ay! de aquel que edifica una ciudad con sangre, y establece un pueblo en injusticia. 13 ¿No viene del SEÑOR de los ejércitos que los pueblos trabajen para el fuego y que todas las otras naciones se fatiguen para nada? 14 Mas la tierra será llena del conocimiento de la gloria del SEÑOR como las aguas cubren el mar. 15 ¡Ay!, de aquel que hace que beba su vecino, tú que añades tu veneno a la bebida hasta emborracharlos para poder mirar su desnudez. 16 Serás lleno de vergüenza en vez de gloria. Bebe de el también, y revela tu propia desnudez. La copa de la mano derecha del SEÑOR llegará en su turno a tí, y la desgracia cubrirá tu honor. 17 La violencia hecha al Líbano te incomodará y la destrucción de animales te horrorizará. Porque has derramado sangre humana y has actuado con violencia contra la tierra, las ciudades, y todos los que viven en ellas. 18 ¿De qué te sirve la figura tallada? Porque el que la ha tallado, o el que funde una figura de metal fundido, es un maestro de mentiras; porque confía en su propia obra cuando hace estos dioses mudos. 19 ¡Ay! de aquel que le dice a la madera: "¡Despierta! O a la piedra muda: "¡Levántate!" ¿Estas cosas enseñan? Mira, está cubierta de oro y plata, pero no hay ningún aliento en ella. 20 ¡Mas el SEÑOR está en Su santo templo! Estas frases dicen la misma cosa de dos formas diferentes. "Me pararé en mi puesto en la torre de vigilancia". Habacuc usa estas frases para compararse a sí mismo, esperando escuchar a Dios, con un soldado en guardia en una torre de vigilancia.

Debo dejar de quejarme
La palabra "dejar" habla de cambiar la forma de pensar como si esto fuera cambiar una cosa por otra. Traducción Alterna: "Debo dejar de quejarme y estar de acuerdo con Dios."

Habakkuk 2:2

Información general:
El SEÑOR responde a Habacuc

Graba esta visión, y escribe claramente en las tablas.
Ambas frases están diciendo lo mismo de dos formas diferentes. Traducción Alterna: "escribe claramente en las tablas lo que Dios va a decirte."

Tablas
Estas son pedazos planos de piedra o barro que eran usados para escribir.

El que las lea, pueda correr Esto puede decir que: 1) alguien correrá con las tablas y se las leerá a las personas. 2) cualquiera que las lee será capaz de leerlas fácilmente.

y hablará finalmente
Lo que está escrito sucederá o se hará realidad.

Y no tardará
Significados posibles: 1) y no esperará o 2) "y no vendrá lentamente"

Habakkuk 2:4

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa respondiendo a Habacuc.

¡Mira!
La palabra "¡mira!" aquí, añade énfasis a lo que sigue.

Aquel cuyos deseos no están bien dentro de él...el joven arrogante...él no se mantenga, sino que agranda su deseo...toma para sí mismo...reúne para sí mismo
El SEÑOR habla de los caldeos como si fueran sólo una persona.

Toma para sí mismo a toda nación y reúne para sí mismo a todos los pueblos
Esto es decir lo mismo en dos maneras diferentes. "Él junta a todas las personas de cada nación" "Él" se refiere a los caldeos como si fueran una sóla persona.

Reúne Junta

toda...todos
Un número muy grande

Habakkuk 2:6

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa respondiendo a Habacuc.El SEÑOR se refiere a los caldeos como si fueran una sóla persona.

¿Por cuánto tiempo aumentarán el peso de las promesas que ustedes han tomado?
"En algún momento ya no podrán tomar promesas de las personas" Esto puede significar: 1)Los caldeos son como ladrones que están tomando promesas que ellos han forzado a otras personas a hacer 2) El SEÑOR está teniendo en cuenta lo que los caldeos han robado y algún día les pedirá que paguen por ello.

Promesas
Promesas por una deuda a pagar, normalmente escrita en arcilla.

¿No se levantarán de repente los que te están mordiendo, y despertarán los que te están aterrorizando?
Esta pregunta fue hecha con el fin de hacer que los caldeos piensen acerca de la respuesta. "Aquellos que están enojados contigo vendrán contra ti, aquellos a los que les temes comenzarán a atacar"

Los que te están mordiendo
Esta es una expresión idiomática que habla de aquellos que tienen deudas que deben pagar. Sin embargo, algunas versiones modernas interpretan que esta frase significa acreedores, no deudores.

Los que te están aterrorizando
Esto se refiere a los mismos deudores. Ellos aterrorizarán a los caldeos al atacarlos en venganza de las deudas injustas que ellos fueron forzados a tener.

Levantarán
"crecer en número" o "hacerse más poderosos"

Saqueado
Robado o tomado a la fuerza

Habakkuk 2:9

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa respondiendo a Habacuc. Él se refiere a los caldeos como si fueran una sola persona.

Quien crea ganancias deshonestas para su casa
"Quien trabaja para obtener ganancias deshonestas para su familia"

Poner en alto su nido
"construir su casa lejos de los problemas"

La mano del mal
Traducción Alterna: "la mano del mal", tratando al "mal" como una persona o "persona mala". .

Has concebido vergüenza para tu casa al cortar a tantos pueblos
"Porque tú cortaste a tantos pueblos, tu familia sufrirá vergüenza."

cortar
destruyendo

Has pecado contra ti mismo
"Te has lastimado a ti mismo"

Piedras...vigas de madera
Las "piedras" y "vigas de madera" representan a la gente lastimada en la construcción de la casa, quienes representan a la gente destruida por los caldeos.

Clamarán
Hacer acusaciones a Dios en contra del constructor de la casa.

Les responderán
Estar de acuerdo con las acusaciones

Habakkuk 2:12

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa respondiendo a Habacuc. Él se refiere a los caldeos como si fueran una sola persona.

Ay de quel que edifica una ciudad con sangre, y establece un pueblo en iniquidad.
Estas dos frases dicen lo mismo en formas diferentes. Traducción Alterna: "Una advertencia a los caldeos que construyeron sus ciudades con lo que le robaron a la gente que mataron".

Con sangre
Matando pueblos .Traducción Alterna: "aquel que mata pueblos y roba sus bienes para construir una ciudad".

Y establece un pueblo en iniquidad
"Aquel que construye una ciudad con mal comportamiento". Los caldeos construyeron sus ciudades usando los bienes de los pueblos que mataron.

¿No viene del SEÑOR de los ejércitos que los pueblos trabajen para el fuego y que todas las otras naciones se fatiguen para nada?
Dios causó la destrucción de lo que los pueblos construyeron. Está dicho en dos maneras diferentes con el fin de hacer más claro el significado. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR es el único que hace que aquello que los pueblos se esforzaron en construir sea destruido por el fuego y quede en la nada."

Habakkuk 2:15

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa respondiendo a Habacuc. Él se refiere a los caldeos como si fueran una persona.

Añades tu veneno
"Añades tu veneno a su bebida"

Serás atracado de vergüenza en vez de gloria
"Como buscaste grande gloria, Dios traerá sobre ti grande vergüenza"

Bebe de él
Bebe de la copa envenenada

La copa de la mano derecha del SEÑOR llegará en su turno a ti
"Así como El SEÑOR castigó a otras naciones con su poder, te castigará a ti con todo su poder".

La copa
"El vino envenenado"

Mano derecha
La mano más fuerte

Llegará en su turno a ti
"vendrá a ti como lo hizo con otros"

desgracia cubrirá tu honor
"Todos verán tu desgracia y nadie verá tu honor"

Habakkuk 2:17

Información general
Dios continúa hablando de cómo él castigará a los caldeos.

La destrucción de animales te horrorizará
"La muerte de animales te hará tener miedo"

Chapter 3

1 La oración de Habacuc el profeta: 2 SEÑOR, he oído tu noticia, y tengo miedo. SEÑOR, aviva tu obra en medio de estos tiempos; en medio de estos tiempos hazla conocer; recuerda tener compasión en tu ira. 3 Dios vino de Temán, y el Santo, del Monte Parán. Selah. Su gloria cubrió los cielos, y la tierra estaba llena de Su alabanza. 4 Los dos rayos de Su mano eran tan brillantes como el relámpago, donde Su fuerza estaba escondida. 5 La enfermedad mortal fue delante de Él, y la plaga iba detrás de Sus pies. 6 Se puso de pie y midió la tierra; miró y sacudió las naciones. Aún las montañas eternas fueron despedazadas, y las colinas perpetuas se postraron. Su camino es eterno. 7 Vi las tiendas de Cusán en aflicción, y las telas de las tiendas en la tierra de Madián temblar. 8 ¿Estaba el SEÑOR enojado con los ríos? ¿Estaba tu ira contra los ríos, o tu furia contra el mar, cuando cabalgaste sobre tus caballos y tus carros victoriosos? 9 ¡Has sacado tu arco sin cubierta; pusiste flechas en tu arco! Selah. Dividiste la tierra con ríos. 10 Las montañas te vieron y se torcieron de dolor. Los diluvios de agua pasaron sobre ellas; el mar profundo levantó un clamor. Alzó sus olas. 11 El sol y la luna se detuvieron arriba en sus lugares altos a la luz de tus flechas y volaron, al resplandor del relámpago de tu lanza. 12 Has marchado sobre la tierra con indignación. En ira has trillado las naciones. 13 Saliste para la salvación de tu pueblo, para la salvación de tu ungido. Destrozaste la cabeza de la casa de los malvados para exponer la base del cuello. 14 Has perforado la cabeza de sus guerreros con sus propias flechas ya que vinieron como una tormenta para dispersarnos, su vanagloria es como uno que devora al pobre en un escondite. 15 Has viajado sobre el mar con tus caballos, y amontonado las grandes aguas. 16 ¡Escuché, y mis entrañas temblaron! Mis labios temblaron al sonido. La descomposición entra en mis huesos, y debajo de mí mismo tiemblo mientras espero en silencio para que el día de la gran tristeza llegue sobre el pueblo que nos invade. 17 Aunque la higuera no florezca y no haya fruto en las viñas; y aunque el producto del olivo decepcione y los campos no produzcan alimento; y aunque el rebaño esté separado de la manada y no haya ganado en los corrales, esto es lo que haré. 18 Pero, yo me regocijaré en el SEÑOR. Estaré gozoso debido al Dios de mi salvación. 19 El SEÑOR Dios es mi fortaleza y hace mis pies como de venados. Él me hace seguir adelante en mis lugares altos.

Habakkuk 3:1

He oído tu informe
Esto puede significar: 1) "He oído a pueblos hablar acerca de lo que has hecho" o 2) "He oído lo que has dicho"

Aviva tu obra
"Devuélvele la vida a tu obra" o "Haz de nuevo lo que has hecho antes"

Hazla conocer
"Haz que tu trabajo sea conocido"

Habakkuk 3:4

Información general

Del SEÑOR

Habakkuk 3:6

Información general
Habacuc continúa describiendo su visión del SEÑOR.

Midió la tierra
Esto puede significar: 1) Él la estudió de la manera en que un conquistador lo haría antes de asignar porciones a sus gobernadores o 2) Él la hizo sacudir.

Montañas eternas...colinas perpetuas
"Montañas que han existido desde el principio de los tiempos... colinas que existirán hasta el fin de los tiempos". Si en tu idioma no hay palabras diferentes para "colinas" y "montañas" o para "eternas" y "perpetuas", puedes combinarlas como hizo la ULB.

Se postraron
En adoración a Dios. "Se tiraron al piso"

Las tiendas de Cusán en aflicción, y las telas de las tiendas...de Madián temblar.
Los pueblos de Madián y Cusán que tiemblan con miedo son como telas de tiendas que se mueven cuando el viento sopla.

Cusán
Esto puede ser 1) el nombre de un grupo de personas desconocidas o 2) lo mismo que Cus

¿Estaba el SEÑOR enojado con los ríos? ¿Estaba tu ira contra los ríos, o tu furia contra el mar...carros victoriosos?
Si en tu idioma no existen palabras diferentes para "enojado", "ira" y "furia", puedes combinar las oraciones: "¿Estaba el SEÑOR enojado con los ríos? ¿Estaba tu furia contra el mar... carros victoriosos?" Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR no estaba enojado con los ríos. Tu ira no estaba contra los ríos, ni estaba tu furia contra el mar... carros victoriosos".

Cabalgaste sobre tus caballos y tus carros victoriosos
Así como un soldado cabalgaría sobre un caballo o un carro hacia la batalla, el SEÑOR vino para salvar al pueblo de Israel.

Habakkuk 3:9

Selah
Este término significa "parar y pensar" o "levantar, exaltar"

Las montañas te vieron y se torcieron de dolor
Cuando Dios dividió la tierra, las montañas se movieron, como si ellas pudieran ver las acciones de Dios y reaccionar desviándose de donde la tierra fue dividida.

El mar profundo levantó un clamor
El sonido de grandes olas en el mar

¡Alzó sus olas!
el nivel del agua se levanta

Habakkuk 3:11

Información general
Habacuc continúa describiendo su visión del SEÑOR.

A la luz de tus flechas
Porque la luz de las flechas del SEÑOR eran muy brillantes.

Has marchado sobre la tierra con indignación. En ira has trillado las naciones.
Estas dos oraciones tienen significados similares. Ambas refieren a que el SEÑOR castiga a las naciones por su maldad.

Indignación
Enojo por algo que está mal.

Habakkuk 3:13

Información general
Habacuc describe al SEÑOR

Tu ungido
Esto puede también significar "tu Mesías", pero la referencia es claramente hacia "tu pueblo", así que usa un sustantivo común aquí, no como un nombre propio.

Destrozaste la cabeza de la casa de los malvados
"Tu destrozaste completamente al líder de los malvados" .

Habakkuk 3:14

Información general
Habacuc describe al SEÑOR destruyendo a los caldeos.

Vinieron como una tormenta
El poder y la rapidez de los caldeos mientras atacaban al pueblo de Israel se compara con la venida de una tormenta repentina.

Alarde
fanfarroneo

Devora al pobre en un escondite
Encuentra a la gente pobre que se esconde de ellos y los mata y les quita todos sus bienes

Devora
Come todo rápidamente

Habakkuk 3:16

Información general
Habacuc describe su miedo cuando él piensa sobre cómo el SEÑOR castigará a los caldeos.

¡Mis entrañas temblaron! mis labios temblaron...la descomposición entra en mis huesos y debajo de mi mismo tiemblo
Esto se refiere al miedo causado al pensar en los momentos venideros. Habacuc usa varias partes de su cuerpo para expresar que cada parte de él tiene miedo.

Descomposición
Pudrición

Habakkuk 3:17

Higuera...vides...olivo...campos...rebaño...ganado
No hay alimento. Estas son casi todas las fuentes de alimento que se pueden encontrar en la tierra de Israel.

Habakkuk 3:18

Información general
Habacuc alaba al SEÑOR.

Regocijaré... estar feliz
Ambas palabras quieren decir "estar alegre", pero si en tu idioma existe una palabra especial para alegrarse después de ganar una batalla, usa esa "exaltación" aquí.

Hace mis pies como los del ciervo; me hace seguir adelante en mis lugares altos
Tener los pies como los del ciervo le da a Habacuc la habilidad de trepar precipicios rocosos y empinados. Las palabras "lugares altos" hacen referencia a los lugares fuera del alcance del peligro. Él dice que Dios le está dando la habilidad de encontrar un lugar de seguridad.

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

1 Esta es la palabra de SEÑOR que vino a Sofonías hijo de Cushi, hijo de Gedalías, hijo de Amarías, hijo de Ezequías, en los días de Josías hijo de Amón, rey de Judá. 2 "YO destruiré por completo todo sobre la superficie de la tierra, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 3 YO voy a destruir hombres y bestias; YO voy a destruir las aves del cielo y los peces del mar, haré ruinas a los malvados. Quitaré a los hombres de la superficie de la tierra, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR 4 Levantaré mi mano sobre Judá y todos los habitantes de Jerusalén. Yo cortaré cada remanente de Baal de este lugar y los nombres de las personas idólatras entre sus sacerdotes, 5 las personas que en sus casas adoran los cuerpos celestiales, y las personas que adoran y juran al SEÑOR, pero también juran por su rey. 6 Yo también voy a cortar a aquellos que se han apartado de seguir al SEÑOR, los que ni buscan al SEÑOR ni piden su dirección." 7 ¡Estén en silencio ante el SEÑOR! Porque el día del SEÑOR está cerca; el SEÑOR ha preparado el sacrificio, y separó sus invitados. 8 "Ocurrirá en el día del sacrificio del SEÑOR, que YO castigaré a las princesas y a los hijos del rey, y a todos los que están vestidos en vestimenta de extranjero. 9 En ese día, voy a castigar a todos aquellos que adoran a Dagón, los que llenan las casas de sus amos con violencia y engaño. 10 Y será en aquel día, esta es la declaración de SEÑOR, que un clamor vendrá de la entrada del Pez, desde el Segundo Distrito, y un quebrantamiento desde las colinas. 11 Laméntensen, habitantes del mercado, porque todos los mercaderes van a ser arruinados; todos esos que pesan plata serán cortados. 12 Y acontecerá en ese tiempo que YO voy a buscar a Jerusalén con lámparas, y castigaré a los hombres que han reposado como el vino, y que dicen en sus corazones, el SEÑOR no hará nada, bueno, o malo.' 13 ¡Sus bienes serán arrebatados, y sus casas serán abandonadas en ruinas! Ellos construirán casas, pero no vivirán en ellas, y plantarán viñedos pero no beberán de sus vinos. 14 ¡El gran día del SEÑOR está cerca, muy cerca! 15 ¡El sonido del día de SEÑOR será el de un guerrero que llora profundamente! Ese día será el día de furia, un día de quebranto y angustia; un día de tormenta y devastación, un día de oscuridad y tinieblas, un día de nubes y profunda oscuridad. 16 Será un día de trompetas y alarmas contra las ciudades fortificadas y las altas murallas. 17 Porque traeré tribulación sobre los hombres, para hacerlos caminar como hombres ciegos, porque cometieron pecado contra el SEÑOR. Su sangre será derramada como polvo, y su carne interna como basura. 18 Ni su plata ni su oro podrá salvarlos en el día de la furia de SEÑOR. En el fuego de su celo toda la tierra será consumida, porque Él traerá un completo y terrible fin para todos los habitantes de la tierra."

Zephaniah 1:1

la palabra de SEÑOR que vino
"la palabra que el SEÑOR Dios habló"

SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que El reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Ver la página traducciónPalabra sobre SEÑOR sobre como traducir esto.

Yo destruiré por completo todo sobre la superficie de la tierra...Quitaré a los hombres de la superficie de la tierra
Estas son exageraciones deliberadas por el SEÑOR para expresar su ira por el pecado del pueblo.

Quitaré
Se habla de destruir como si fuera cortar aquello de que era parte.

Zephaniah 1:4

Milcom
"Milcom" es posiblemente otro nombre para el ídolo "Molech".

Zephaniah 1:7

el SEÑOR ha preparado el sacrificio, y separó sus invitados
Este lenguaje muestra el plan último de Dios y como usa los enemigos de su pueblo para lograr sus propósitos. .

Traducción Alterna: "Clamar fuertemente desde el Segundo Distrito". El Segundo Distrito era una parte nueva de Jerusalén.

desde las colinas
esto se refiere a las colinas alrededor de Jerusalén. Traducción Alterna: "desde las colinas alrededor de Jerusalén."

mercaderes van a ser arruinados; todos esos que pesan plata serán cortados.
Traducción Alterna: "para aquellos que compran y venden bienes, los mercaderes, serán matados."

Zephaniah 1:12

buscar a Jerusalén con lámparas Nadie podrá esconderse de Dios.

reposado como el vino
Se sienten seguros de problemas.

dicen en sus corazones
hablan con certeza.

Zephaniah 1:14

cerca, cerca y apresurándose
la repetición de la palabra "cerca" junto a la frase äpresurándose rápidamente" enfatizan que el día cuando el SEÑOR juzgue la gente pronto sucederá. Traducción Alterna: "cerca y estará aquí pronto"

Ese día será el día de furia, un día de quebranto y angustia Esta declaración enfatiza cuán terrible será el juicio de Dios. Las múltiples figuras retóricas son acumulativas y muestran la naturaleza destructiva de este juicio final por Dios. Crea énfasis.

día de quebranto y angustia
Las palabras "quebranto" y "angustia" significan casi lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad del quebranto de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "un día cuando el pueblo sentirá un quebranto terrible."

día de tormenta y devastación Aquí la palabra "tormenta" se refiere a juicio divino. La palabra "devastación" describe los efectos de ese juicio. Traducción Alterna: "un día de tormentas devaltadoras" o "un dóa de juicio devastador".

día de oscuridad y tinieblas
Las palabras"oscuridad" y "tinieblas" comparten significados similares y enfatizan la intensidad de la oscuridad. Ambas palabras se refieren a un tiempo de desastre o juicio divino. Traducción Alterna: "un día que está lleno de oscuridad" o "un día de juicio terrible."

día de nubes y profunda oscuridad Esta frase significa lo mismo como, e intensifica la idea de la frase anterior. Como esa frase, ambas las "nubes" y "tinieblas" se refieren a juicio divino. Traducción Alterna: "un día lleno de oscura nubes de tormenta."

día de trompetas y alarmas
Las palabras "trompetas" y "alarmas" basicamente significan lo mismo aquí. Ambas son medios para llemar a soldados a prepararse para : "un día cuando la gente suenen la alarma para la batalla."

las ciudades fortificadas y las altas torres Estas dos frases se refieren ambas a fortalezas militares. Traducción Alterna: 'ciudades bien fortificadas"

Zephaniah 1:17

caminar como hombres ciegos, ...derramada como polvo,... y su carne interna como basura
Estas tres frases indican comparaciones para mostra lo que tienen en común.

El fuego de su celo
Esto se refiere al poder de la ira de el SEÑOR.

Chapter 2

1 Congréguense y reúnanse, nación no avergonzada, 2 antes que el decreto tenga efecto, y el día pase como el tamo; antes que la furia de la ira del SEÑOR venga sobre ustedes, antes que el día de la ira del SEÑOR venga sobre ustedes. 3 ¡Busquen al SEÑOR, toda la gente humilde en la tierra, obedezcan este decreto! Busquen la justicia. Busquen humildad y quizás ustedes serán protegidos en el día de la ira del SEÑOR. 4 ¡Porque Gaza será abandonada, y Ascalón será asolada. Ellos expulsarán a Asdod en el mediodía, y sacarán de raíz a Ecrón! 5 Dolor fuerte a los habitantes en la costa del mar, la nación de los queretitas. El SEÑOR ha hablado contra ustedes, Canaán, tierra de los filisteos. YO voy a destruirlos hasta que no quede ningún habitante. 6 Entonces la costa del mar va a convertirse en pastos para los pastores, y corrales para las ovejas. 7 La región de la costa será para el remanente de la casa de Judá, quien va a pastorear sus rebaños allí. En el atardecer, el pueblo dormirá en las casas de Ascalón, porque el SEÑOR su Dios va a cuidar de ellos y restaurará sus fortunas. 8 "YO he escuchado las burlas de Moab, y las maldiciones del pueblo de Amón, cuando ellos se burlaron de mi pueblo, y violaron sus límites. 9 Por lo tanto, mientras YO viva, esta es la declaración de SEÑOR de los ejercitos, Dios de Israel, Moab va a convertirse como Sodoma, y el pueblo de Amón como Gomorra; un lugar de ortigas y pilas de sal, desierto por siempre. Pero el remanente de mi pueblo les va a robar, y el resto de mi nación tomará posesión de ellos. 10 Esto le pasará a Moab y a Amón por causa de su orgullo, porque afrentaron y se burlaron del pueblo del SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 11 Entonces ellos van a temer al SEÑOR, porque él se burlará de todos los dioses de la tierra. Desde cada costa, todos van a adorarlo a Él, cada uno desde su propio lugar. 12 Ustedes etíopes también serán traspasados por mi espada 13 y la mano de Dios atacará el norte y destruirá Asiria, para que Nínive se convierta en desastre abandonado, tan seca como un desierto. 14 Luego, rebaños se recostarán allí, cada animal de las naciones, ambos, el búho del desierto, y el erizo, van a descansar en la parte alta de sus columnas. Un llamado saldrá de las ventanas; escombros estarán en los caminos de las puertas; sus vigas de árboles talladas serán expuestas. 15 Esta es la ciudad regocijada que vivía sin temor, que dijo en su corazón, "Yo soy, y nada me es igual." Como ella se ha convertido en un horror, un lugar para que las bestias se recuesten en ella. Cualquiera que pase junto a ella silbará y agitará su puño.

Zephaniah 2:1

Congréguensen y reúnanse
Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa. Juntos intensifican el mandato para que las personas se reúnan para arrepentirse de sus pecados.
Traducción alterna: "'juntarse"'

Nación no avergonzada
La nación no es culpable de sus pecados.

El día pasecomo el tamo
El tamo es una parte insignificante parte de la planta que será desechado y asi este día pasará rápidamente. .

Antes que la furia de la ira de el SEÑOR venga sobre ustedes, antes que el día de la ira de el SEÑOR venga sobre ustedes.
Este profeta repite la misma frase casi exactamente para enfatizar cuan terrible será el juicio de el SEÑOR y la urgencia de que la gente se arrepienta.

Ira de el SEÑOR
Esto representa la intención de Dios de castigar.

Zephaniah 2:4

Saquearán a Asdod en el día, y sacarán de raíz a Ecrón!
Las personas serán rápido y completamente removidas de estas ciudades.

Hasta que no quede ningún habitante
Traducción alterna: "'hasta que no haya nadie"'

Zephaniah 2:6

Entonces la costa del mar se convertirá .. rebaño para las ovejas
Parte del significado de este verso no esta claro y es traducido en diferentes formas por versiones modernas.

Dormirá
significa dormir en una cama.

Chapter 3

1 ¡Aflicción para la ciudad rebelde! La violenta ciudad es deshonra. 2 Ella no ha escuchado la voz de Dios, ni ha aceptado la corrección del SEÑOR. Ella no ha creído al SEÑOR. Ella no confía en el SEÑOR y no va a acercarse a Dios. 3 Sus príncipes son leones rugiendo en medio de ella. Sus jueces son lobos de tardes que no dejan nada para ser mordido en la mañana. 4 Sus profetas son insolentes y hombres traidores. Sus sacerdotes han profanado lo que es santo, y han violentado la ley. 5 El SEÑOR es justo en medio de ella. Él no puede hacer nada malo. ¡Mañana tras mañana, va ha dispensar su justicia! No será escondida en la luz, pero todavía las personas injustas no conocen la vergüenza. 6 " Yo he destruído naciones; sus fortalezas son ruinas. Yo he hecho arruinar sus calles, para que nadie pase por ellas. Sus ciudades están destruídas para que allí no habite nadie. 7 Yo dije, ' Ciertamente me temerán; aceptarán la corrección, y no será destruida su morada por todo lo que he planeado.' Sin embargo, ellos estaban ansiosos por iniciar cada mañana corrompiendo todo sus actos. 8 Por lo tanto esperen por mí, dice el SEÑOR, hasta que yo me levante a destruir la víctima. Porque mi decisión es reunir las naciones, reunir los reinos, y dejar salir mi enojo contra ellos, toda mi ira furiosa, para que toda la tierra sea devorada por el fuego de mi enojo. 9 Pero entonces yo voy a dar labios puros a las personas, para llamarlos en el nombre del SEÑOR, para que me sirvan hombro a hombro. 10 Desde más allá del río de Etiopía, mis adoradores, mi pueblo esparcido, va a traerme ofrendas. 11 En aquel día no serás puesto en vergüenza por todos tus actos que cometiste contra mí, porque yo removeré de entre ustedes aquellos que celebraron tu orgullo, porque ustedes no van a actuar más arrogantemente en mi santo monte. 12 Y voy a dejarlos como un pueblo humilde y pobre, y ustedes van a tomar refugio en el nombre del SEÑOR. 13 El remanente de Israel nunca más cometerá injusticia o hablará mentira, y ninguna lengua engañosa será encontrada en sus bocas; entonces serán apacentados y se recostarán, y ninguno los hará temer. 14 ¡Canta, hija de Sión! ¡Grita, Israel! Sé agradecido y regocíjate con todo tu corazón, hija de Jerusalén. 15 El SEÑOR ha quitado tu castigo; Él ha expulsado tus enemigos! El SEÑOR es el rey de Israel entre ti. ¡Tú nunca jamás temerás al mal! 16 En aquel día ellos van a decir a Jerusalén, " No temás, Sión. No dejes que tus manos desfallezcan. 17 El SEÑOR tu Dios está en medio de ti, poderoso para salvarte. Él va a celebrar sobre ti, y con gozo hará silencio sobre ti en su amor. Se alegrará sobre ti, y gritará de gozo, 18 como en el día de su fiestas señaladas. Yo voy a quitar el desastre de ti; tu no volverás a soportar la vergüenza. 19 Mira, YO estoy a punto de trabajar con tus opresores. En aquella hora, YO voy a rescatar a los cojos y a recoger los marginados. YO voy a hacerlos como alabanza, y YO voy a cambiar sus vergüenzas en fama en toda la tierra. 20 En aquel tiempo, YO voy a dirigirte; en ese tiempo, YO voy a reunirte. Yo voy a hacer que todas las naciones de la tierra te respeten y te alaben, cuando tú veas eso YO te restaurare," dice el SEÑOR.

Chapter 1

1 En el segundo año del rey Darío, en el sexto mes, en el primer día del mes, la palabra del SEÑOR vino por la mano de Hageo, el profeta, para el gobernador de Judá, Zorobabel hijo de Salatiel, y para el sacerdote principal, Josué hijo de Jehosadac, diciendo: 2 "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Esté pueblo dice: 'No es el tiempo para nosotros venir o construir la casa del SEÑOR."' 3 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino por la mano de Hageo el profeta, diciendo: 4 "¿Es tiempo para ustedes mismos vivir en sus casas terminadas, mientras esta casa permanece arruinada? 5 Así que ahora el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: ¡Consideren sus caminos! 6 ¡Ustedes han sembrado mucha semilla, pero traen poca cosecha; ustedes comen, pero no tienen suficiente; ustedes beben, pero no pueden emborracharse. Ustedes visten ropa, pero no pueden calentarse a ustedes mismos, y el asalariado gana dinero sólo para ponerlo en un bolso lleno de agujeros! 7 El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: "¡Consideren sus caminos! 8 ¡Suban a la montaña, traigan madera y construyan mi casa; luego Me complaceré en ella, y Yo seré glorificado! -- dice el SEÑOR." 9 "¡Ustedes buscan mucho, pero miren! ¡Ustedes han traído poco a la casa, y yo lo esparcí soplando! ¿Porqué?", declara Él SEÑOR de los ejércitos. "Porque mi casa permanece en ruinas, mientras cada uno de ustedes está trabajando en su propia casa. 10 Por causa de ustedes es que los cielos retienen el rocío y la tierra retiene su producto. 11 ¡Yo he invocado una sequía sobre la tierra y sobre las montañas, sobre el grano y sobre el vino nuevo, sobre el aceite y sobre la cosecha de la tierra, sobre los hombres y sobre las bestias, y sobre todo el trabajo de sus manos! 12 Luego Zorobabel hijo de Salatiel, y el sacerdote principal, Josué hijo de Jehosadac, junto con todo el remanente del pueblo, obedecieron la voz del SEÑOR su Dios y las palabras de Hageo el profeta, porque el SEÑOR su Dios lo había enviado a él y el pueblo temía al rostro del SEÑOR. 13 Luego Hageo, el mensajero del SEÑOR, llevó el mensaje al pueblo y dijo: "¡Yo estoy con ustedes! ¡Esta es la declaración de SEÑOR!" 14 Así que, el SEÑOR despertó el espíritu del gobernador de Judá, Zorobabel hijo de Salatiel, y el espíritu del sacerdote principal Josué hijo de Jehosadac, y el espíritu de todo el remanente de las personas, para que ellos fueran y trabajaran en la casa de SEÑOR de los ejércitos, su Dios, en el día veinticuatro del sexto mes, 15 en el segundo año de Darío el rey.

1 En el séptimo mes en el día veintiuno del mes, la palabra de SEÑOR vino por la mano de Hageo el profeta, diciendo: 2 "Habla a el gobernador de Judá, Zorobabel hijo de Salatiel, y al sumo sacerdote Josué hijo de Jehosadac, y al remanente del pueblo. Díciendo, 3 '¿Quién queda entre ustedes que vio esta casa en su pasada gloria? ¿Cómo ustedes la ven ahora? ¿No está como nada a sus ojos? 4 ¡Ahora, sé fuerte, Zorobabel! esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, ¡y sé fuerte, sumo sacerdote Josué hijo de Jehosadac; y sean fuertes, todo el pueblo en la tierra! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y trabajen, ¡para que Yo esté con ustedes! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 5 Este es el pacto que yo establecí con ustedes cuando ustedes salieron de Egipto, y mi Espíritu permanece con ustedes. ¡No teman! 6 Pues el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: ¡En un corto tiempo yo nuevamente sacudiré cielos y tierra, el mar y la tierra seca! 7 Yo sacudiré cada nación, y cada nación va a traer sus cosas preciosas a mí, y Yo voy a llenar esta casa con gloria, dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 8 ¡La plata y oro son míos! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 9 ¡La gloria de esta casa va a ser mayor en el futuro que en el principio, dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, y Yo daré paz en este lugar! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos." 10 En el día veinticuatro del noveno mes, en el segundo año de Darío, la palabra del SEÑOR vino por Hageo el profeta, diciendo: 11 "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Pregunten a los sacerdotes sobre la ley y digan: 12 Si un hombre carga la carne que está separada para el SEÑOR en las faldas de sus prendas, y las faldas tocan pan o estofado, vino o aceite, o cualquier tipo de comida, ¿Esto se convierte santo?" Los sacerdotes contestaron y dijeron: "No." 13 Luego Hageo dijo: "Si alguien que es inmundo por el contacto con un cadáver y toca cualquiera de estas cosas, ¿estas se vuelve inmunda?" Los sacerdotes contestaron y dijeron: "Sí, se vuelve inmunda." 14 Entonces Hageo contestó y dijo: "¡Así es con este pueblo y esta nación ante de mí! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR, y así es con todo lo hecho por sus manos: lo que ellos me ofrecen a mí es inmundo. 15 Entonces ahora, piensen en sus mentes sobre el pasado que nos ha traído a este préciso día. Antes de que piedra fuera puesta sobre piedra en el templo del SEÑOR, 16 ¿Cómo era antes? Cuando ustedes vinieron al montón de veinte medidas de granos, eran solo diez; y cuando ustede vinieron a la tina de vino para sacar cincuenta medida, eran solo veinte. 17 Yo los he afligido a ustedes y a todo el trabajo de sus manos con plagas y hongos, pero aún así no se volvieron hacia mí, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 18 Consideren desde este día en adelante, desde el día veinticuatro del noveno mes, desde el día que la fundación del templo del SEÑOR fue puesta. ¡Consideren esto! 19 ¿Hay todavía semilla en el almacén? ¡La vid, el árbol de higo, el granado, y el árbol de olivo no han producido! ¡Pero desde este día Yo voy a bendecirlos! 20 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR vino por segunda vez a Hageo en el día veinticuatro del mes y dijo: 21 ''Habla al gobernador de Judá, Zorobabel, y dile: 'Yo haré temblar los cielos y la tierra. 22 ¡Porque Yo derribaré el trono de los reinos y destruiré la fuerza de los reinos de las naciones! Yo derribaré los carros y sus jinetes; los caballos y sus jinetes se caerán, cada uno por la espada de su hermano. 23 En aquel día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos, Yo te tomaré a ti, Zorobabel, hijo de Salatiel, como Mi siervo, esta es declaración del SEÑOR. ¡Yo te haré a ti como un anillo de sello, porque te He elegido! ¡Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de ejércitos!'"

Chapter 1

1 En el octavo mes del segundo año del reinado de Darío, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Zacarías, hijo de Berequías, hijo de Iddo, el profeta, diciendo: 2 "¡EL SEÑOR estaba extremadamente enojado con sus padres! 3 Díganles a ellos: "EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: "¡Régresen a Mí!", esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, "Y yo regresaré a ustedes", dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos." 4 No sean como sus padres, a quienes los profetas les advirtieron previamente diciendo: "El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: "¡Apártense de sus malvados caminos y sus malas prácticas!" Pero ellos no me prestaron atención a Mí. Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR". 5 Sus padres, ¿dónde están? Dónde están los profetas, están aquí por siempre? 6 Pero mis palabras y decretos, que YO le ordené a mis siervos los profetas, ¿no han sobrepasado a sus padres? Entonces, ellos se arrepintieron y dijeron: "Tal como EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos planeó hacernos a nosotros, lo que nuestras maneras y acciones merecían, así ÉL ha hecho con nosotros." 7 En el día veinticuatro del undécimo mes, el cual es el mes de Sebat, en el segundo año del reinado de Darío, la palabra del SEÑOR vino a Zacarías, hijo de Beraquías, hijo de Iddo, el profeta, diciendo: 8 "En la noche yo ví, y, ¡mira! Un hombre estaba montando un caballo rojo, y él estaba entre los árboles de mirto que están en el valle; y detrás de él habían caballos rojos, marron, rojizos, y blancos. 9 Yo dije: "¿Qué son estas cosas, SEÑOR?" Entonces el ángel del SEÑOR que hablaba conmigo me dijo a mí: "Yo te mostraré a tí lo que son estas cosas". 10 Entonces el hombre que se paró entre los árboles de mirto, respondió y dijo: "Estos son aquellos que EL SEÑOR ha enviado a vagar por la tierra". 11 Ellos respondieron al ángel del SEÑOR que se paró entre los árboles de mirto; ellos le dijeron a él: "Hemos estado vagando por la tierra; mira, toda la tierra esta sentada tranquila y esta descansando". 12 Entonces, el ángel del SEÑOR respondió y dijo: "SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, ¿por cuánto más Tú no le mostrarás compasión a Jerusalén y a las ciudades de Judá que han sufrido indignación estos setenta años?" 13 El SEÑOR le respondió al ángel que hablaba conmigo, con buenas palabras, palabras de consuelo. 14 Entonces, el ángel que había estado hablando conmigo me dijo a mí: "Clama y dí: El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: ¡Yo he estado celoso de Jerusalén y por Sión con una gran pasión! 15 Yo estoy muy molesto con las naciones que descansan. Cuando Yo estaba solo un poco enojado con ellos, ellos hicieron el desastre peor. 16 Por lo tanto, EL SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: YO he regresado a Jerusalén con misericordias. ¡Mi casa será construída en ella; esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. Y la cinta de medir será estirada para alcanzar sobre Jerusalén!" 17 Otra vez, clama, diciendo: "El SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice esto: Mis ciudades otra vez sobreabundarán con bien, y el SEÑOR otra vez consolará a Sión, y Él otra vez escogerá a Jerusalén". 18 Entonces, ¡levanté mis ojos y ví cuatro cuernos! 19 Yo le hablé al ángel que habló conmigo: "¿Qué son estos?" Él respondió: "Estos son los cuernos que han dispersado a Judá, Israel y Jerusalén". 20 Entonces EL SEÑOR me mostró a cuatro artesanos. 21 Yo dije: "¿Qué vienen a hacer estas personas?" Él respondió, y dijo: "Estos son los cuernos que dispersaron a Judá, para que ningún hombre pudiera levantar la cabeza. Pero esta gente viene a sacarlos, a derribar los cuernos de las naciones que levantaron cualquier cuerno en contra de la tierra de Judá para dispersarla a ella".

Chapter 3

1 Luego EL SEÑOR me mostró a Josué el alto sacerdote parado ante el ángel del SEÑOR y satanás estaba parado a su mano derecha para acusarlo a él de pecado. 2 El ángel del SEÑOR le dijo a satanás: "¡Que EL SEÑOR te reprenda a tí, satanás; que EL SEÑOR, quien ha escogido a Jerusalén, te reprenda a tí! ¿No es esta un tizón sacado del fuego?" 3 Josué estaba vestido con prendas sucias mientras estaba parado ante el ángel. 4 El ángel habló y dijo a aquellos quienes se pararon ante él: "Remueve las prendas sucias de él". Luego ÉL le dijo a Josué: "¡Mira! YO he causado que tu iniquidad pase de tí y YÖ voy a vestirte a ti en rompa fina!" 5 Él dijo: "¡Deja que ellos pongan un turbante limpio en su cabeza!" Así que, ellos pusieron un turbante limpio en la cabeza de Josué y lo vistieron a él con prendas limpias mientras el ángel del SEÑOR estaba ahí. 6 Después el ángel del SEÑOR solemnemente ordenó a Josué y dijo: 7 "EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: "Si tú caminaras en mis caminos y si tú mantuvieras mis mandamintos, entonces gobernarás mi casa y vigilarás mi corte, pues YO voy a permitirte a tí ir y venir entre estos quienes se paran ante Mí. 8 ¡Escucha, Josué el Alto Sacerdote, tú y tus compatriotras quienes viven contigo! Pues estos hombres son una señal, pues YO mismo voy a levantar mi siervo el Renuevo. 9 Ahora mira la piedra que YO he puesto ante Josué. Hay siete ojos en esta sola piedra y YO voy a grabar una inscripción; esto es una declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, y YO voy a remover el pecado de esta tierra en un día. 10 En ese día; esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, cada hombre invitará a su vecino a sentarse bajo su vid y debajo de su higuera.

Chapter 4

1 Entonces el ángel quien estaba hablando conmigo vino a mi y me levantó como un hombre que ha sido levantado de su sueño. 2 Él me dijo a mí: "Qué ves tú?" Yo dije: "Yo veo un candelabro hecho completamente de oro, con un envase encima. Tiene siete lámparas encima de él y siete tubos de lámpara encima de cada lámpara. 3 Dos árboles de olivo están cerca de él, uno al lado derecho del envase y el otro al lado izquierdo". 4 Así que yo hablé con el ángel quien estaba hablándome a mí. Yo dije: "Qué significan estas cosas, mi señor?" 5 El ángel quién estaba hablando conmigo me contestó y me dijo: "¿Sabes lo que estas cosas significan?" Yo dije: "No, mi señor". 6 Así que él me dijo: "Esta es la palabra del SEÑOR a Zorobabel: No es por fuerza, ni por poder, pero por MI ESPÍRITU, dice el SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 7 ¿Qué eres tú, gran montaña? Ante Zorobabel tu te convertirás en una llanura, y él sacará la piedra de arriba entre gritos de "¡Gracia! ¡Gracia a ella!" 8 La Palabra del SEÑOR vino a mí, diciendo: 9 "Las manos de Zorobabel han sentado el fundamento de esta casa y sus manos la completarán. Entonces sabrás que EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos me ha enviado a tí. 10 ¿Quién ha despreciado el día de cosas pequeñas? Este pueblo se alegrará y verá la plomada en la mano de Zorobabel. (Estas siete lámparas son los ojos del SEÑOR que recorren toda la tierra.)" 11 Entonces yo le pregunté al ángel: "¿Qué son estos árboles de olivo que están a la izquierda y a la derecha del candelabro?" 12 Una vez más yo le pregunté a él: "¿Qué son estas dos ramas al lado de los dos tubos de oro que tienen aceite dorado derramándose fuera de ellos?" 13 Entonces, él me dijo a mí: "¿No sabes tú lo que estos son?" Yo dije: "No, mi señor." 14 Así que él dijo: "Estos son los dos hijos a quienes se les ungió con de oliva fresco, quién están de pie delante del SEÑOR de toda la tierra."

Zechariah 4:6

Oración de enlace:
El ángel que habla con Zacarías continúa explicando la visión.

Zorobabel
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

No es por fuerza, ni por poder
Posibles significados son 1)que las palabras "fuerza" y "poder" significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan la grandeza de la fuerza de Zorobabel, o 2) que la palabra "fuerza" se refiere a fuerza militar y la palabra "poder" se refiere a la habilidad física de Zorobabel. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente no por tu propia fuerza" o "No por fuerza miitar ni por tu propio poder."

¿Qué eres tú, gran montaña?
El SEÑOR le hace esta pregunta a la montaña para señaar que por medio del Espíritu del SEÑOR, ni aún una montaña es tan fuerte como para dominar a Zorobabel. Traducción alterna: "Gran montaña, aún tú eres débil comparada con Zorobabel."

él sacará la piedra de arriba
La piedra de arriba es la última piedra que se coloca cuando se está construyendo algo.

Zechariah 4:8

Chapter 5

1 Entonces yo levanté mis ojos, y yo vi, he aquí, ¡un rollo que volaba! 2 El ángel me dijo:''¿Qué ves tú?'' Yo contesté". Yo veo un rollo que vuela, veintidos codos de largo o sea cuarenta y cuatro metros, y diez codos de ancho o sea cinco metros''. 3 Luego él me dijo: ''Esta es la maldición que sale por la superficie de toda la tierra, porque cada ladrón será cortado fuera de ahora en adelante basado en lo que se dice en ese lado, mientras que a todos los que juran falsamente serán cortados basado en lo que dice en el otro lado, de acuerdo a sus palabras. 4 "Yo los sacaré afuera, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los ejércitos, así que, va a entrar en la casa del ladrón y en la casa del que jura falsamente en Mí Nombre. Esto permanecerá en su casa y consumirá su madera y sus piedras''. 5 Entonces el angel quién estaba hablando conmigo salió y me dijo: ¡''Levanta tus ojos y mira que está viniendo! 6 Yo dije:"¿Qué es eso?" Él dijo: "Esto es una canasta conteniendo un efa (treinta ysiete litros) lo que está viniendo. Esta es su iniquidad en toda la tierra.'' 7 Entonces una cubierta de plomo fue levantada fuera de la cesta y ¡había una mujer debajo sentada en ella! 8 El ángel dijo:''¡Esta es la maldad! Él la lanzó de nuevo en la cesta, y él lanzó la cubierta de plomo sobre la abertura. 9 Yo levanté mis ojos y ví dos mujeres viniendo hacia mí, y viento era en sus alas, porque tenían alas como de cigüeña. Ellas levantaron la cesta entre la tierra y el cielo. 10 Así que, yo le dije al ángel quien me estaba hablando: ''¿A dónde están llevando la canasta?'' 11 Él me dijo: ''Para construir un templo en la tierra de Sinar para ellas, así que, cuando el templo esté listo, la canasta será puesta allí, en su base preparada.''

Zechariah 5:1

Entonces yo levanté
La palabra "yo" se refiere a Zacarías

levanté mis ojos
Esto significa mirar arriba a algo. Él dice "Yo levanté mis ojos" porque esa es la parte del cuerpo con que una persona mira. Traducción alterna: "miré hacia arriba"

Chapter 7

1 Cuando el rey Darío había gobernado por cuatro años, en el cuarto día de Quisleu (el cual era el noveno mes), la Palabra del SEÑOR vino a Zacarías. 2 La gente de Betel había enviado a Sarezer y a Regem Melec y a sus hombres a rogar ante el Rostro del SEÑOR. 3 Ellos le hablaron a los sacerdotes quienes estaban en la casa del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos y a los profetas; ellos dijeron: "¿Debería yo lamertarme en el quinto mes por medio de un ayuno, como lo he hecho estos muchos años?" 4 Entonces, la Palabra del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos vino a mí, diciendo: 5 "Háblale a toda la gente de la tierra y a los sacerdotes y dí: "Cuando ustedes ayunaron y se lamentaron en el quinto y el sexto por estos setenta años, ¿estaban realmente ayunando por Mí? 6 Cuando ustedes comieron y bebieron, ¿no comieron y bebieron para ustedes mismos? 7 ¿No fueron estas las mismas palabras que EL SEÑOR proclamó de la boca de los profetas anteriores, cuando ustedes aún habitaban en Jerusalén y las ciudades alrededor en prosperidad y estaban establecidos en Neguev, y en las colinas al oeste?"' 8 La Palabra del SEÑOR vino a Zacarías, diciendo: 9 "El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice así: "Juzguen con verdadera justicia, fidelidad del pacto, y misericordia. Dejen que cada hombre haga esto por su hermano. 10 A cerca de la viuda y el húerfano, el extranjero, y la persona pobre, no los opriman, no dejen a ninguno de ustedes planificar ningún daño en contra de otro en su corazón". 11 Pero ellos se negaron a prestar atención y asentaron sus hombros tercamente. Ellos cerraron sus oídos para no escuchar. 12 Ellos hicieron sus corazones tan duros como la roca, para no escuchar la ley o las palabras del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. ÉL había enviado estos mensajes a la gente por su Espíritu en momentos anteriores, por la boca de sus profetas. Pero la gente se negó a escuchar, así que, EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos estaba muy enojado con ellos. 13 Ocurrió que cuando ÉL llamó, ellos no escucharon. En la misma manera, dijo EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos: "ellos clamarán a Mí, pero YO no los escucharé. 14 Pues YO los esparciré a ellos con un torbellino a todas las naciones que ellos no han visto, y la tierra estará desolada detrás de ellos. Porque nadie pasará a través de la tierra o regresará a ella, ya que la gente ha convertido su agradable tierra en un baldío".

Zechariah 7:1

Cuando el Rey Darío había gobernado por cuatro años

Chapter 8

1 La palabra del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos vino a mí, diciendo: 2 "EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: ¡Estoy apasionado por Sión con gran celo y estoy apasionado por ella con gran enojo! 3 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: ¡YO regresaré a Sión y yo viviré en medio de Jerusalén, pues Jerusalén será llamada La Ciudad de la Verdad y la Montaña del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos será llamada la Santa Montaña!" 4 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: Ancianos y ancianas, otra vez estarán en las calles de Jerusalén y cada persona necesitará un bastón en sus manos porque se han vuelto tan viejos. 5 Las calles de la ciudad estarán llenas de niños y niñas jugando en ellas. 6 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: ¿Si algo parece imposible en los ojos del remanente de este pueblo en aquellos días, también debería parecer imposible en Mis Ojos?, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. 7 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: ¡Miren, Estoy a punto de rescatar a Mi pueblo de la tierra del amanecer y de la tierra del atardecer! 8 ¡Pues YO los traeré de regreso, y ellos vivirán en medio de Jerusalén, así que ellos otra vez serán mi pueblo, y YO seré su DIOS en verdad y justicia! 9 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: Ustedes que saben, continúan oyendo las mismas palabras que vienen de la boca de los profetas cuando el fundamento de Mi Casa fue puesto, ésta casa Mía, El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos: Fortalezcan sus manos, para que el templo pueda ser construído. 10 Pues, antes de esos días ningún cultivo fue recogido por nadie, no había ganancia, ni para el hombre o bestia, y no hubo paz de ningún enemigo para nadie yendo o viniendo. YO había puesto a cada persona en contra de su vecino. 11 Pero ahora, no será como en los días pasados, será con el remanente de este pueblo, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 12 Pues las semillas de paz serán sembradas; la vid trepadora dará su fruto y la tierra dará su producto; los cielos darán su rocío, pues YO haré que el remanente de este pueblo herede todas estas cosas. 13 Ustedes eran un ejemplo a otras naciones de una maldición, casa de Judá y casa de Israél. Así que, yo los rescataré y ustedes serán una bendición. No tengan miedo; ¡dejen que sus manos sean fuertes! 14 Pues El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice: Así como planifiqué hacerles daño cuando sus ancestros provocaron Mi enojo, dice EL SEÑOR de los Ejércios, y no cedió, 15 ¡así también YO planificaré en estos días hacerles bien otra vez a Jerusalén y a la casa de Judá! ¡No teman! 16 Estas son las cosas que deben hacer: Hablen verdad cada persona con su vecino. Juzguen con verdad, justica, y paz en sus puertas. 17 No planifiquen hacer el mal dentro de su corazón uno contra el otro, y no amen falsos juramentos, ¡pues estas son las cosas que YO odio!, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR". 18 Luego la palabra del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos vino a mí, diciendo: 19 "EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: Los ayunos del cuarto mes, del quinto mes, del séptimo mes, y del décimo mes, se volverán tiempos de gozo, alegría ¡y felices festivales para la casa de Judá!" ¡Por lo tanto, amen la verdad y la paz! 20 EL SEÑOR de los ejérctios dice esto: La gente vendrá otra vez, incluso aquellos que viven en muchas diferentes ciudades. 21 Los habitantes de una ciudad irán a otra ciudad y dirán: "¡Déjanos ir rápido a rogar ante el rostro del SEÑOR y a buscar al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos! Nosotros mismos también vamos. 22 ¡Muchas personas y naciones poderosas vendrán a buscar al SEÑOR de los Ejércitos en Jerusalén y rogarán por el favor del SEÑOR!" 23 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos dice esto: "En esos días, diez hombres de cada lengua y nación agarrán el dobladillo de tu túnica y dirán: '¡Déjanos ir contigo, pues hemos escuchado que DIOS está contigo!"

Chapter 9

1 Esta es una declaración de la palabra del SEÑOR concerniente a a la tierra Hadrac y Damasco. Pues el Ojo del SEÑOR está en toda la humanidad, y también en todas las tribus de Israél. 2 Esta declaración también concierne a Hamat, que limita en Damasco, y esto concierne a Tiro y Sidón, aunque son muy sabias. 3 Tiro ha construído ella misma una fortaleza y ha amontonado plata como el polvo y el oro refinado como el lodo en las calles. 4 ¡Mira! EL SEÑOR desposeerá su fuerza en el mar, así que ella será devorada por fuego. 5 ¡Ascalón verá y se asustará! ¡Gaza también temblará grandemente! ¡Ecrón, sus esperanzas serán decepcionadas! ¡El rey perecerá de Gaza, y Ascalón ya no será más habitada! 6 ¡Extraños harán sus hogares en Asdod y YO cortaré el orgullo de los filisteos. 7 Pues YO quitaré su sangre de sus bocas y sus abominaciones de entre sus dientes. Después, ellos se convertirán en un remanente para nuestro DIOS como un clan en Judá, y Ecrón se volverá como el jebuseo. 8 YO acamparé alrededor de mi tierra en contra de ejércitos enemigos para que nadie pueda pasar a través o regresar, pues ya ningún opresor pasará a través de ella. ¡Pues ahora YO velaré sobre mi tierra con mis propios Ojos! 9 ¡Grita con gran gozo, hija de Sión! ¡Grita con felicidad, hija de Jerusalén! ¡Mirad! Tu Rey viene a tí con justicia y te está rescatando. ÉL es Humilde y está montado en un burro, en el potro de un burro. 10 Luego cortaré el carruaje de Efraín y el caballo de Jerusalén, y el arco será cortado de la batalla; ¡pues ÉL hablará paz a las naciones y Su dominio será de mar a mar y desde el río hasta los fines de la tierra! 11 En cuanto a tí, debido a la sangre de Mi Pacto contigo, YO haré a tus prisioneros libres del pozo donde no hay agua. 12 ¡Vuelvan a la fortaleza, prisioneros de esperanza! también hoy Estoy declarando que YO te devolveré el doble a tí, 13 pues He doblado a Judá como Mi arco. He llenado Mi bolso de flechas con Efraín. YO he despertado a tus hijos Sión, contra tus hijos Grecia, y te He hecho a tí, Sión, ¡como la espada de un guerrero! 14 EL SEÑOR se aparecerá a ellos, ¡y Sus flechas se dispararán como rayos! Pues mi SEÑOR soplará la trompeta y se adelantará con las tormentas de Temán. 15 EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos los defenderá a ellos, y ellos los devorarán a ellos y derrotarán las piedras de las hondas. Después, ellos beberán y gritarán como hombres borrachos en vino, y ellos serán llenos con vino como tazones, como las esquinas del altar. 16 Así que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS los rescatará a ellos en ese día; ellos serán como un rebaño que contiene a Su pueblo, pues ellos erán como joyas de una corona, levantada sobre Su tierra. 17 ¡Cuán buenos y cuán hermosos serán ellos! ¡Los hombres jóvenes florecerán en grano y las vírgenes en vino dulce!

Zechariah 9:1

Esta es una declaración de la palabra del SEÑOR concerniente Traducción alterna: "Este es el mensaje del SEÑOR sobre"

la tierra Hadrac y Damasco Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de la tierra de Hadrac y de la ciudad de Damasco

Pues el Ojo del SEÑOR está en toda la humanidad
Traducción alterna: "Pues el SEÑOR está mirando a cada persona" Sin embargo, muchas versiones modernas traducen este pasaje como "los ojos de la humanidad y aquellos de todas las tribus de Israel están en el SEÑOR".

Hamat
Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de la tierra de Hamat"

Tiro y Sidón
Traducción alterna: "el pueblo de Tiro y Sidón"

aunque son muy sabias
Zacarías probablemente no quería decir realmente que el pueblo de Hamat era sabio. Traducción alterna: "aunque ellos piensan que son muy sabios"

Zechariah 9:3

ha construído ella misma una fortaleza Aquí la ciudad de Tio es imaginada como una mujer. Traducción alterna: "construido como una fortaleza fuerte" o "construido como una muralla alta" ha amontonado plata como el polvo y el oro refinado como el lodo en las calles Traducción alterna: "acumulado plata y oro tanto como el suelo en las calles"

¡Mira! EL SEÑOR desposeerá Traducción alterna: "¡Presten atención! El Señor se llevará las posesiones de Tiro" su fuerza en el mar

Traducción alterna: "y destruirá los barcos de Tiro en los cuales los hombres pelean en el mar"

"verá que Tiro será destruida"

Extraños harán sus hogares en Asdod Traducción alterna: "Los extraños tomarán a Asdod como suyo y vivirán allí"

y Yo cortaré el orgullo de los filisteos Traducción alterna: "Yo haré que los filisteos ya no estén orgullosos de sí mismos"

Yo quitaré su sangre de sus bocas y sus abominaciones de entre sus dientes Estos se refieren a la carne con sangre en ella, y a la carne ofrecida a los ídolos. La versión UDB hace explícito esto. Traducción alterna: "Yo ya no les permitiré comer carne que tenga sangre en ella, y Yo les prohibiré comer alimentos que ellos ofrecieron a los ídolos."

Zechariah 9:8

Yo acamparé alrededor de mi tierra
Dios está hablando de sí mismo como si Él fuera un ejército. Traducción alterna: "Yo protegeré mi tierra"

Zechariah 9:9

¡Grita con gran gozo, hija de Sión! ¡Grita con felicidad, hija de Jerusalén!
Estas dos oraciones significan la misma cosa e intensifica el mandato para alegrarse.

hija de Sión ... hija de Jerusalén
"Sión" es lo mismo que "Jerusalén". El profeta habla de la ciudad como a una hija. Ver cómo usted tradujo "hija de Sión" en el 2:10.

en un burro, en el potro de un burro
Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y se refieren a un animal. La segunda frase clarifica que es un burro joven. Traducción alterna: "en un burro joven".

cortaré el carruaje de Efraín Traducción alterna: "destruyan los carruajes en Israel que son usados para la batalla"

el caballo de Jerusalén Traducción alterna: "los caballos de guerra en Jerusalén"

el arco será cortado de la batalla Aquí el arco representa todas las armas que son usadas en la guerra. Traducción alterna: "todas las armas de guerra serán destruidas"

pues ÉL hablará paz a las naciones Aquí la acción de anunciar paz rrepresenta la acción de hacer paz. Traducción alterna: "pues Su rey traerá paz a las naciones"

Su dominio será de mar a mar y desde el río hasta los fines de la tierra!
"su reino estará por sobre toda la tierra"

Zechariah 9:11

En cuanto a ti
Aquí "ti" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

del pozo donde no hay agua
Este pozo representa el exilio.

Vuelvan a la fortaleza Traducción alterna: "Regresa a tu nación donde estarás a salvo"

prisioneros de esperanza
Esta expresión se refiere a los israelitas en exilio que todavía confiaban que Dios los rescatara.

pues he doblado a Judá como mi arco
El pueblo de Judá es referifo como si ellos fueran

He llenado mi bolso de flechas con Efraín
El pueblo de Israel , el reino del norte, es referido como si ellos fueran las flechas que Dios lanzaría a sus enemigos. Un bolso es un saco que sostiene las flechas de un soldado.

Yo he despertado a tus hijos Sión, contra tus hijos Grecia Dios está hablando a las personas de dos naciones diferentes al mismo tiempo.

Zechariah 9:14

Información general:
Esta parte de la profecía continúa con las palabras de Oseas, en lugar de las palabras del SEÑOR habladas a través de él.

se aparecerá a ellos
La palabra "a ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Dios. Traducción alterna: "serán vistos en el cielo por Su pueblo" o "vendrán a Su pueblo"

se dispararán como rayos
Los israelitas algunas veces creyeron que los rayos eran flechas que Dios disparaba.

soplará la trompeta
Las trompetas eran cuernos de carneros. Las personas soplaban en ellos para dar señales en las batallas y en otras ocasiones.

se adelantará con las tormentas de Temán
Los israelitas a veces pensaban que Dios viajaba en tormentas violentas que venían del sur.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los devorarán
Traducción alterna: "los derrotará por completo"

derrotarán las piedras de las hondas
Los israelitas derrotarán a los soldados que pelean con hondas. Estos soldados representan a todos los enemigos de Israel, no importando cuáles armas estén llevando.

Después, ellos beberán y gritarán como hombres borrachos en vino Traducción Alterna: "Ellos gritarán y celebrarán su victoria en voz alta como si ellos estuvieran borrachos."

ellos serán llenos con vino como tazones Esto probablemente se refiere a los tazones que los sacerdotes usaban para llevar la sangre del animal al altar. Traducción alterna: "ellos estarán tan llenos de vino como las vasijas en las cuales los sacerdotes llevan sangre al altar"

como las esquinas del altar
Los altares tenían esquinas proyectadas donde se recogía la sangre de animal. Traducción alterna: "como las esquinas del altar están llenas de sangre"

Zechariah 9:16

Información General:
Zacarías continúa hablándole a las personas.

pues ellos erán como joyas de una corona Traducción Alterna: "en nuestra tierra ellos serán como piedras hermosas en una corona"

Los hombres jóvenes florecerán en grano
Los hombres jóvenes vivirán del alimento que ellos reciben de la cosecha.

y las vírgenes en vino dulce
Las mujeres jóvenes disfrutarán del vino nuevo. Estas referencias a hombres jóvenes y mujeres jóvenes representan a la población entera de Israel.

Chapter 10

1 Pídele por lluvia al SEÑOR en la época de las lluvias de primavera, EL SEÑOR quien hace las tormentas, y ÉL da lloviznas a todos y vegetación en los campos. 2 Pues los ídolos domésticos hablan falsamente; las visiones de los adivinos son mentiras; ellos dicen sueños engañosos y dan consuelos vacíos, así que ellos se extravían como una oveja y sufren porque no hay pastor. 3 Mi ira arde en contra de los pastores; estos son los machos cabríos, líderes que YO voy a castigar. ¡EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos también va a atender a Su rebaño, la casa de Judá, y los hará a ellos como Sus caballos de guerra en batalla! 4 De ellos va a venir la Piedra Angulár; de ellos va a venir la clavija de tienda; de ellos va a venir el arco de guerra; de ellos van a venir todos los líderes unidos. 5 Ellos van a ser como guerreros, quienes pisotean a sus enemigos en el fango en las calles de batallas; ellos van hacer guerra, pues EL SEÑOR está con ellos, y ellos van a avergonzar aquellos quienes montan caballos de guerra. 6 YO Voy a fortalecer la casa de Judá y a salvar la casa de José; pues YO Voy a restaurarlos a ellos y Voy a tener misericordia con ellos. Ellos van a ser como si YO no los hubiera descartado, pues YO SOY EL SEÑOR SU DIOS, y YO Voy a responderle a ellos. 7 ¡Luego, Efraín va a ser como un guerrero, y sus corazones se van a regocijar como con vino; sus hijos van a ver y se regocijarán! ¡Sus corazones van a regocijarse en Mí! 8 ¡YO Voy a silvar por ellos y los reuniré a ellos, pues YO Voy a rescatarlos a ellos, y ellos volverán a ser tan grandes como ellos eran antes! 9 YO los He sembrado a ellos entre las personas, así ellos y sus hijos van a vivir y volver. 10 Pues YO Voy a restaurarlos a ellos de la tierra de Egipto y los reuniré a ellos de Asiria. YO Voy a traerlos a ellos a la tierra de Galaad y del Líbano hasta que no haya más espacio para ellos. 11 YO Voy a pasar a través del mar de su aflicción; YO Voy a atacar las olas de ese mar y Voy a secar todas las profundidades del Nilo. La majestad de Asiria será derribada y el cetro de Egipto se irá de los egipcios. 12 YO Voy a fortalecerlos a ellos en Mí Mismo y ellos van a caminar en Mí Nombre esta es la declaración del SEÑOR.

Zechariah 10:1

Información general:
Zacarías continúa hablándole a las personas.

hace las tormentas
"hace las nubes de tormentas"

los ídolos domésticos hablan falsamente Traducción alterna: "los ídolos dan mensajes falsos"

ellos se extravían como una oveja
Traducción alterna: "las personas no saben qué camino seguir"

Zechariah 10:3

Mi ira arde en contra de los pastores
"Pastores" representan a los líderes del pueblo de Dios. Traducción alterna: "Mi ira hacia los pastores de mi pueblo es fuerte" o "Yo estoy muy enojado con los líderes de mi pueblo"

estos son los machos cabríos, líderes que YO voy a castigar
"Machos cabríos" representa los líderes opresivos.

El SEÑOR de los Ejércitos también va a atender a Su rebaño, la casa de Judá Traducción alterna: "Yo cuidaré de la casa de Judá"

los hará a ellos como Sus caballos de guerra en batalla Traducción alterna: "les daré mi poderosa fuerza sin miedo"

Zechariah 10:4

De ellos va a venir la Piedra Angular
"La Piedra Angular vendrá de ellos." Se habla de un gobernante importante como si Él fuera la principal piedra base de un edificio. Traducción alterna: "Algunos de sus descendientes serán gobernantes muy importantes" de ellos va a venir la clavija de tienda

"la clavija de tienda vendrá de ellos." Se habla de los líderes principales como si ellos fueran grandes clavijas que sostienen en su lugar un tienda. Traducción alterna: "los líderes que sostendrán a la nación unida vendrán de ellos"

de ellos va a venir el arco de guerra
"el arco de guerra vendrá de ellos." Se habla de los líderes militares como si ellos fueran el arvo que fue usado en batalla. Traducción alterna: "los líderes militares vendrán de ellos"

Traducción alterna: "Ellos serán poderosos en batalla" quienes pisotean a sus enemigos en el fango en las calles de batallas Traducción alterna: "que derrotan a sus enemigos por completo"

y ellos van a avergonzar aquellos quienes montan caballos de guerra Traducción alterna: "y ellos derrotarán a sus enemigos a caballo, que pelean con ellos"

Zechariah 10:6

Yo voy a fortalecer la casa de Judá Traducción Alterna: "Yo haré al pueblo de Judá fuerte"

la casa de José
Esto se refiere al pueblo del reino del norte de Israel.

Yo no los hubiera descartado
Traducción Alterna: "Yo no los he rechazado"

Efraín va a ser como un guerrero
"Efraín" se refiere aquí al norte del reino de Israel.
Traducción Alterna: ''Efraín será muy fuerte"

sus corazones se van a regocijar como con vino Traducción Alterna: "y ellos serán verdaderamente muy felices" sus hijos van a ver y se regocijarán! ¡Sus corazones van a regocijarse en Mí!

Traducción Alterna: "¡Sus hijos verán lo que ha llegado y serán felices por lo que el SEÑOR ha hecho por ellos!"

Zechariah 10:8

Yo voy a silvar
Silvar es producir un alto y chillante sonido con aire a través de labios entrecerrados. Es a menudo hecho para dar una señal a otras personas, como aquí.

hasta que no haya más espacio para ellos
Las personas continuarán regresando a Judá y estará muy lleno de personas sin ningún cuarto más para que las personas vivan allí.

Zechariah 10:11

a pasar a través del mar de su aflicción
Las escrituras a menudo se refieren al mar como una imagen de muchos problemas y penurias.

voy a secar todas las profundidades del Nilo Traducción Alterna: "Yo causaré que el Río Nilo pierda toda su agua"

La majestad de Asiria será derribada Aquí "la majestad de Asiria" probablemente se refiere al ejército asirio. Traducción Alterna: "Yo destruiré al orgulloso ejército asirio."

y el cetro de Egipto se irá de los egipcios Traducción alterna: "y el poder de Egipto para gobernar sobre otras nacines acabará."

esta es la declaración del SEÑOR
Esta frase es menudo traducida como "el SEÑOR dice" en la versión UDB. Usted puede traducir este concepto de cualquier manera que sea mejor en su lenguaje. Esta frase es usada muchas veces en Zacarías.

1 ¡Abre tus puertas Líbano, que el fuego devore tus cedros! 2 ¡Lamenténse árboles de ciprés, por cuánto los árboles de ciprés han caído! ¡Lo que era majestuoso ha sido devastado! Laméntense ustedes robles de Basán, por cuánto el fuerte bosque ha caído. 3 ¡Los pastores gritan, por cuánto su gloria ha sido destruída! ¡La voz de los leones jóvenes rugen, por cuanto el orgullo del río Jordán ha sido devastado! 4 Esto es lo que EL SEÑOR MI DIOS Dice: "¡Como un pastor, vigila sobre el rebaño destinado para el matadero! 5 (Aquellos que los compran los matan y no son castigados, y los que los venden dicen: "¡Bendecido sea EL SEÑOR! ¡Yo me he vuelto rico!" por cuánto los pastores trabajando para los dueños de los rebaños no tienen piedad de ellos.) 6 Porque YO nunca más tendré piedad de los habitantes de la tierra! Esta es la declaración del SEÑOR. ¡mira! YO Mismo Estoy a punto de entregar cada persona en las manos de su vecino y en las manos de su rey, y ellos destruirán la tierra y no libraré a ninguno de ellos de sus manos." 7 Así que YO Me Volví el Pastor del rebaño destinado para la matanza, por aquellos quienes se ocupaban de las ovejas. YO Tomé dos cayados; un cayado YO Llamé "Favor" y el otro YO lo Llamé "Unidad." De esta manera YO Pastorié el rebaño. 8 En un mes YO Destruí los tres pastores, porque YO Perdí la paciencia con ellos, y ellos Me odiaron también. 9 Entonces YO le Dije a los dueños: "YO no Trabajaré ya como un pastor para ustedes. Las ovejas que están muriendo déjalas morir; las ovejas que están siendo destruídas déjalas ser destruídas. Deja las ovejas que quedan, comer de la carne de su vecino". 10 Así que Tomé Mi cayado "Favor" y lo Rompí para romper el pacto que YO Hice con todas las tribus. 11 En ese día el Pacto fué roto, y aquellos que comercian con ovejas y quienes estaban observándome sabían que EL SEÑOR había hablado. 12 YO le Dije a ellos: "Si te parece bien a tí, págame mis salarios. Pero si no, no lo hagas." Así que ellos pesaron Mi salario treinta piezas de plata. 13 Entonces EL SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "¡Deposita la plata en tesorería, el precio excelente en el cual te valoraron a tí!" Así que Yo tomé treinta piezas de plata y las deposité en tesorería en la Casa del SEÑOR. 14 Entonces YO Rompí el segundo cayado, "Unidad," para romper la hermandad entre Judá e Israél. 15 El SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "Otra vez, toma el equipo de un pastor tonto para tí, 16 para que veas, YO Estoy a punto de colocar a un pastor en la tierra. Él no le importará las ovejas que perecen. Él no buscará las ovejas que no aparecen, ni sanará la oveja quebrantada. Él no alimentará las ovejas saludables, pero comerá la carne de las ovejas engordadas y arrancará sus pezuñas. 17 ¡Aflicción al pastor inútil quién abandona el rebaño! ¡Que la espada venga en contra de su brazo y de su ojo derecho! ¡Que su brazo se marchite y que su ojo derecho se enceguezca!"

Zechariah 11:1

Abre tus puertas Líbano, que el fuego devore tus cedros
Este profeta está hablánfole a la tierra del Líbano como si esta fuera una persona. Traducción alterna: "Pueblo del Líbano, prepárense para que el fuego queme tus árboles de cedro"

Lamenténse árboles de ciprés, por cuánto los árboles de ciprés han caído Traducción alterna: "Si los árboles fueran personas, estos llorarían por amargura. Los árboles de ciprés se quedan solos, porque los árboles de cedro se han quemado y caído."

Traducción alterna: "Que amargura le espera a este pastor inútil"

venga en contra de su brazo y de su ojo derecho Traducción alterna: "hiere su brazo derecho y perfora su ojo derecho!"

Que la espada venga en contra
"Espada" aquí representa a los enemigos que atacarán a los pastores.

su brazo
su poder para pelear

su ojo derecho
su habilidad para ver mientras pelea.

Chapter 12

1 Esta es la declaración de la Palabra del SEÑOR sobre Israél, una declaración del SEÑOR, Quien extendió los cielos y Pusó la base de la tierra, Quien diseña el espíritu de la humanidad dentro del hombre: 2 "Mira, YO Estoy a punto de convertir a Jerusalén en una copa, haciéndo a las personas de su alrededor tambalearse. También así será para Judá durante el asedio contra de Jerusalén. 3 En ese día, YO Haré a Jerusalén una piedra pesada para todas las personas. Cualquiera que trate de levantar esa piedra se lastimará a sí mismo muchísimo, y todas las naciones de la tierra se levantarán en contra de esa ciudad. 4 En ese día, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR; YO Golpearé cada caballo con terror y a cada jinete con locura. YO Miraré con favor sobre la casa de Judá y Haré ciego a cada caballo del enemigo. 5 Entonces, los líderes de Judá dirán en sus corazones: "Los habitantes de Jerusalén son nuestra fuerza por EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, su DIOS". 6 En ese día, YO Haré a los líderes de Judá como a braseros entre madera y como una antorcha ardiente entre grano apilado, porque ellos consumirán a todas las personas alrededor, a su derecha y a su izquierda. Jerusalén otra vez vivirá en su propio lugar 7 EL SEÑOR Salvará las tiendas de Judá primero, para que el honor de la casa de David y el honor de aquellos que viven en Jerusalén no sea más grande que el resto de Judá. 8 En ese día, EL SEÑOR Será el Defensor de los habitantes de Jerusalén, y en ese día aquellos que son débiles entre ellos serán como David, mientras la casa de David será como Dios, como el ángel del SEÑOR delante de ellos. 9 "En ese día que YO comenzaré a destruir a todas las naciones que vengan en contra de Jerusalén. 10 Pero YO Derramaré un espíritu de compasión y súplica en la casa de David y en los habitantes de Jerusalén, para que ellos me miren a Mí, al que han traspasado. Ellos se lamentarán por Mí, como alguien que se lamenta por un hijo único; ellos se lamentarán amargamente por él, como aquellos que se lamentan por la muerte de un hijo primogénito. 11 En ese día, los lamentos en Jerusalén serán como los lamentos en Hadad Rimón en el llano de Meguido. 12 La tierra se lamentará, cada clan separado de otros clanes. El clan de la casa de David será separado y sus esposas serán separadas de los hombres. El clan de la casa de Natán se separará y sus esposas serán separadas de los hombres. 13 El clan de la casa de Leví será separado y sus esposas serán separadas de los hombres. El clan de los simeítas será separado y sus esposas serán separadas de los hombres. 14 Cada clan de los clanes restantes, cada clan será separado y las esposas serán separadas de los hombres.

Chapter 13

1 "En ese día una primavera será abierta para la casa de David y los habitantes de Jerusalén, por su pecado e impureza. 2 En ese día, esto es una declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, que YO Voy a cortar los nombres de los ídolos de la tierra para que ellos ya no sean traídos a la mente. YO también Voy a causar que los falsos profetas y sus espíritus impuros se vayan de la tierra. 3 Si cualquier hombre continúa profetizando, su padre y madre quienes lo cargaron van a decirle a él: "¡Tú no vas a vivir pues tú hablas mentiras en el nombre del SEÑOR!" Luego el padre y la madre quienes lo cargaron lo van a perforar cuando él profetice. 4 En ese día cada profeta va a estar avergonzado de su visión cuando él este a punto de profetizar. Estos profetas no van a seguir utilizando capas peludas, con el fin de engañar a las personas. 5 Pues cada uno va a decir: "¡Yo no soy un profeta! ¡Yo soy un hombre que trabaja en el suelo, pues la tierra se convirtió en mi trabajo mientras Yo era un hombre joven!" 6 Pero alguien va a decirle a él: "¿Qué son estas heridas entre tus brazos?" y él va a contestar: 'Yo fui herido con esas en la casa de mi amigo". 7 "¡Espada! Despiérate contra mi pastor, el hombre que está cerca de mÍ, esta es la declaración del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. ¡Golpea al pastor y el rebaño se va a dispersar! Pues yo voy a volver mi mano contra los humilde. 8 Entonces ocurrirá eso en toda la tierra, esto es la declaración del SEÑOR, ¡que dos tercios de ella serán cortados! Aquellas personas van a perecer; solo un tercio va a permanecer ahí. 9 YO Voy a traer ese tercio a través del fuego y refinarlos a ellos como la plata es refinada; YO Voy a probarlos a ellos como el oro es probado. Ellos van a llamar mi nombre y YO Voy a contestarle a ellos y dire: "¡Este es mi pueblo!" y ellos van a decir: "¡EL SEÑOR es mi Dios!"

Chapter 14

1 ¡Miren! Un día por El SEÑOR viene donde tu saqueo será dividido en medio de tí. 2 Pues YO reuniré cada nación en contra de Jerusalén para batallas y la ciudad será capturada. La casas serán saqueadas y las mujeres serán violadas. Mitad de la ciudad se irá cautiva, pero el remanente del pueblo no será cortado de la ciudad. 3 Pero EL SEÑOR saldrá y hará guerra en contra de aquellas naciones como cuando ÉL hace la guerra en el día de batalla. 4 En ese día Sus Pies se pararán en el Monte de Olivos, el cual está al lado de Jerusalén al este. El Monte de Olivos será dividido a la mitad entre el este y el oeste en un gran valle y mitad de la montaña volverá hacia el norte y mitad hacia el sur. 5 Luego ustedes huirán por el valle entre las montañas del SEÑOR, pues el valle entre esas montañas alcanzará hasta Azal. Ustedes huirán así como huyeron del terremoto en los días de Uzías, rey de Judá. Entonces EL SEÑOR MI DIOS vendrá y todos los santos estarán con ÉL. 6 En ese día que no habrá luz, pero ningún frío, ni escarcha tampoco. 7 En ese día, un día conocido sólo por EL SEÑOR, ya no habrá un día o noche, pues la tarde será un tiempo de luz. 8 En ese día aguas vivas fluirán de Jerusalén. Mitad de ellas fluirán hacia el mar oriental, y mitad hacia el mar occidental, en verano y en invierno. 9 EL SEÑOR será rey sobre toda la tierra. En ese será EL SEÑOR, el Único DIOS, y Su Nombre Solo. 10 Toda la tierra, será como el Arabá, desde Gueba has Rimón, sur de Jerusalén. Y Jerusalén continuará siendo elevada. Ella vivirá en su propio lugar, desde la Puerta de Benjamín, hasta el lugar donde estaba la primera puerta, hasta la Puerta de Esquina, y desde la Torre de Jananel, hasta el lagar del rey. 11 El pueblo vivirá en Jerusalén y no habrá más destrucción completa de DIOS en contra de ellos. Jerusalén vivirá en paz. 12 Esta será la plaga con la cual EL SEÑOR atacará a todas las personas que hicieron la guerra contra de Jerusalén: su carne se pudrirá, incluso aunque se estén parando sobre sus pies. Sus ojos no se pudrirán en sus cabezas y sus lenguas se pudrirán en sus bocas. 13 En ese día ese gran miedo del SEÑOR vendrá sobre ellos. Cada uno buscará la mano de otro, y la mano de uno será levantada en contra de la mano de otro. 14 Judá, también peleará en contra de Jerusalén. Ellos reunirán las riquezas de todas las naciones que los rodean, oro, plata y ropas finas en gran abundancia. 15 Una plaga también estará sobre los caballos y las mulas, los camellos y los burros, y en cada animal en esos campamentos tambien sufrirán la msima plaga. 16 Luego pasará que todos aquellos que queden en esas naciones que vinieron en contra de Jerusalén, por el contrario irán de año en año para adorar al rey, EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos y a mantener la fiesta de las Enramadas. 17 Y pasará que si nadie de todas las naciones de la tierra no suben a Jerusalén para adorar al rey, EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos, luego EL SEÑOR no traerá lluvia en ellos. 18 Y si la nación de Egipto no sube, entonces ellos no recibirán lluvia. Una plaga del SEÑOR atacará las naciones que no suben, ni mantienen la Fiesta de las Enramadas. 19 Este será el castigo de Egipto y el castigo para cada nación que no sube la Fiesta de las Enramadas. 20 Pero en ese día, las campanas de los caballos dirían: "Separa para EL SEÑOR," y los lavabos en la casa del SEÑOR serán como los envases frente al altar. 21 Pues cada tarro en Jerusalén y en Judá será apartado para EL SEÑOR de los Ejércitos y cada cual que traiga un sacrificio comerá de ellos y hervirá en ellos. En ese día los comerciantes no estarán más en la casa del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos.

Chapter 1

1 La declaración de la palabra del SEÑOR a Israel por la mano de Malaquías. 2 "Los he amado," dice el SEÑOR. Pero ustedes dicen: "¿Cómo nos has amado?" "¿No era Esaú hermano de Jacob?" declara el SEÑOR. "Aún Yo he amado a Jacob, 3 pero a Esaú lo he odiado. He hecho de sus montañas una devastación abandonada, y he hecho de su herencia un lugar para los chacales del desierto." 4 Si Edom dice: "Estamos derrotados, pero nosotros reconstruiremos las ruinas," el SEÑOR de los ejércitos dice: "Ellos pueden reconstruir, pero Yo los derribaré otra vez. Otros pueden llamarlos: 'El país de la maldad' y 'La gente a quienes el SEÑOR maldijo para siempre.' 5 Sus propios ojos verán esto, y ustedes dirán: 'El SEÑOR es grande más allá de los bordes de Israel.'" 6 Un hijo honra al padre, y un siervo honra al amo. Si yo, entonces, soy un Padre, ¿dónde está mi honor? Y si yo soy un amo, ¿dónde está la reverencia por mí?" dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos a sus sacerdotes, quienes desprecian mi nombre. "Pero ustedes dicen: '¿Cómo hemos despreciado tu nombre?' 7 Al ofrecer pan contaminado en mi altar. Y ustedes dicen: '¿Cómo te hemos contaminado?' Al decir que el altar del SEÑOR es insignificante." 8 "Cuando ofrecen animales ciegos para sacrificio, ¿eso no es maligno? Y cuando ofrecen animales torpes y enfermos, ¿eso no es maligno? Preséntenle eso a su gobernante, ¿los aceptará él o les levantará la cara?" dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 9 Ahora, sigan buscando el rostro de Dios, que Él quizás sea clemente con nosotros. Si ustedes me ofrecen sacrificios que nos son aceptables a mí, ¿porqué yo debo ayudarles? 10 "¡Oh, si sólo hubiera uno de ustedes que cierre las puertas del templo, para que ustedes no enciendan fuegos en el altar en vano! Yo no agrado de ustedes," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "y no aceptaré ninguna ofrenda de sus manos. 11 Porque desde la salida del sol hasta que se va, Mi nombre será grande entre las naciones y en cada lugar será ofrecido incienso y ofrendas puras en mi nombre. Porque mi nombre será grande entre las naciones," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 12 "Pero ustedes lo están profanando cuando dicen que la mesa del SEÑOR está contaminada, y que su fruto, y su comida, es para ser despreciada. 13 Ustedes también dicen: 'Que agotador es esto,' y resoplas por esto," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. "Ustedes traen lo que ha sido tomado por un animal salvaje, o es torpe o enfermo; y esto lo que ustedes traen como su ofrenda. ¿Debería aceptar esto de su mano?" dice el SEÑOR. 14 "Que el mentiroso sea maldito, quien tiene un animal macho en su rebaño y jurá darmelo a mí, y sin embargo me sacrifica a mí, el SEÑOR, ¡un animal que es imperfecto! Porque Yo soy un gran Rey," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "y mi nombre será honrado entre las naciones."

Malachi 1:1

La declaración de la palabra del SEÑOR a Israel por la mano de Malaquías
Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. "Esta es la declaración de la palabra del SEÑOR a Israel por parte de Malaquías"

SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página de traducción de SEÑOR sobre cómo traducir esto.

por la mano de Malaquías Aqui "mano" represente por actuar o hacer. Traducción Alterna: "A través de la acción de Malaquías.

Cómo nos has amado?
Esta pregunta indica que la gente duda de la verdad de lo que Dios dice. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Tu no nos has mostrado que nos amas"

No era Esaú hermano de Jacob?
Esta pregunta, una respuesta del SEÑOR que le recuerda a la gente la historia de su nación, también puede expresarse como una declaración.Traducción Alterna: "Tu sabes que Esaú era hermano de Jacob"

declara el SEÑOR
"El SEÑOR ha dicho solemnemente esto"

Yo he amado a Jacob
Aquí "amado" implica una relación de lealtad entre el SEÑOR y Jacob, en la cual existía un pacto entre ellos. Esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "como saben, me comprometí con un pacto para amar a Jacob"

Yo he amado a Jacob
Este nombre "Jacob" se refiere aquí no solo a Jacob, sino también a todos sus descendientes.

a Esaú lo he odiado
Aquí "odiado" implica que no hubo pacto entre Yahvé y Esaú. Sin embargo, esto no implica que Yahvé estaba emocionalmente en contra de Esaú.

a Esaú lo he odiado
Este nombre "Esaú" se refiere aquí no solo a Esaú, sino también a todos sus descendientes.

sus montañas
Esto se refiere a la región montañosa de Edom.

y he hecho de su herencia un lugar para los chacales del desierto
En el Antiguo Testamento, la presencia de animales salvajes como los chacales era una descripción frecuente de la tierra abandonada por las personas que alguna vez vivieron allí.

su herencia
Aquí, "herencia" representa la región que los descendientes de Esaú, la nación de Edom, ocupada.

Malachi 1:4

Si Edom dice
Aquí "Edom" significa la gente de Edom. Traducción Alterna: "Si la gente de Edom dice"

Yo lo derribaré
Aquí "tirar abajo" significa "destruir". Traducción Alterna:: "Voy a destruir" país de la maldad

Aquí la "maldad" representa a las personas malvadas o las acciones malvadas. Traducción Alterna: "país de gente malvada"

Sus propios ojos verán esto
Aquí "sus propios ojos" significa la gente misma. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes mismos verán esto"

Malachi 1:6

Información General:
El SEÑOR reprende a los sacerdotes usando una conversación imaginaria en la que los sacerdotes protestan porque están haciendo lo correcto y el SEÑOR les dice qué están haciendo mal.

desprecian mi nombre
Aquí "mi nombre" significa el SEÑOR mismo. Traducción Alterna: : "trátame como si me odiaras"

Cómo hemos despreciado tu nombre?
Aquí los sacerdotes están haciendo una pregunta para afirmar que realmente no han despreciado al SEÑOR. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración.Traducción Alterna: "Realmente no hemos despreciado tu nombre". o "Dínos cómo hemos despreciado su nombre, porque no creemos que lo hayamos hecho".

pan contaminado
Aquí "contaminado" describe cualquier cosa que no es adecuada para sacrificarse a Dios.

Cómo te hemos contaminado?'
Aquí los sacerdotes están haciendo una pregunta para afirmar que realmente no han contaminado a Yahvé. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No te hemos contaminado". o "Dínos cómo lo hemos contaminado, porque no creemos que lo hayamos hecho".

contaminado
esta expresión se refiere a insultar a Dios dándole sacrificios inadecuados.

mesa
Esto se refiere a un altar

Al decir que el altar del SEÑOR es despreciable Esta es la respuesta que el SEÑOR da a los sacerdotes, pero la respuesta completa solo está implícita. Esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Me has contaminado diciendo: 'La mesa de Yahvé es despreciable'" despreciable

considerado como sin valor

Malachi 1:8

Cuando ofrecen animales ciegos para sacrificio, ¿eso no es maligno?
Aquí el SEÑOR está haciendo una pregunta para hacer una declaración. Esta oración funciona como un reproche para la gente. Traducción Alterna: "¡Sabes muy bien que es malo para ti ofrecer animales ciegos para el sacrificio!"

Y cuando ofrecen animales torpes y enfermos, ¿eso no es maligno?
Aquí el SEÑOR está haciendo una pregunta para hacer una declaración. Traducción Alterna: " Sabes muy bien que es malo para ti ofrecer animales torpes y enfermos!"

Preséntenle eso a su gobernante
Aquí el SEÑOR da una orden para expresar una idea condicional. Traducción Alterna: "Si le presenta eso a su gobernador"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los aceptará él o les levantará la cara?
Aquí Yahvé da una orden para que Yahvé haga esta pregunta para reprender a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Si haces esas cosas, sabes que el gobernador no te aceptará. Él no levantará la cara".

les levantará la cara?
Levantar la cara de alguien se refiere a aceptarlo con favor. Traducción Alterna:: "te aceptará con favor" o "aceptará ayudarte"

Presente
dar como un regalo para mostrar respeto

Ahora, sigan buscando el rostro de Dios, que Él quizás sea clemente con nosotros Malaquías ya no está hablando por Dios. Él está hablando directamente a los israelitas; los critica por atreverse a pensar que Dios tendrá misericordia de ellos.

sigan buscando el rostro de Dios Aquí "rostro" significa Dios y también su presencia. Traducción Alterna: "sigue preguntando a Dios en su presencia" con tal ofrenda en sus manos, ¿levantaría el alguno de sus rostros?

Aquí Yahvé está haciendo una pregunta para hacer una declaración de reproche. Traducción Alterna: "si ofreces ofrendas inaceptables, Dios ciertamente no levantará sus rostros".

con tal ofrenda en sus manos
Esta frase difícil en hebreo se interpreta de muchas maneras diferentes en las versiones modernas.

en sus manos
Aquí "mano" significa las personas que traen la ofrenda. Traducción Alterna: "traído por ti"

Malachi 1:10

Oh, si sólo
Esto expresa gran deseo

para que ustedes no enciendan fuegos en el altar en vano Aquí, "los fuegos de mi altar" representan sacrificios en el altar del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "para que no hagas fuegos para quemar ofrendas que no aceptaré"

de sus manos
Aquí "tu mano" significa "tú". Traducción Alterna:: "de ti"

desde la salida del sol hasta su puesta Esta doble expresión significa "en todas partes". Es paralelo a "entre las naciones" y "en todos los lugares"

mi nombre será grande entre las naciones Aquí "mi nombre" significa "yo". Traducción Alterna: "Seré honrado en otras naciones"

Mi nombre
Aqui "nombre" significa para "reputación", "honor"

en cada lugar será ofrecido incienso y ofrendas puras en mi nombre.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "en estas naciones la gente me ofrecerá incienso y ofrendas puras para adorarme"

en mi nombre
Aquí "nombre" significa SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "para mí"

su fruto, y su comida,
Los posibles significados son 1) "la carne sacrificada en el altar de animales cuyas otras partes los sacerdotes deben comer" o 2) "la carne sacrificada en el altar".

Malachi 1:13

desdeñosamente resopla
mostrar gran falta de respeto al hacer ruidos por la nariz

Debería aceptar esto de su mano?
Aquí el SEÑOR está haciendo una pregunta para hacer una declaración de reproche. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente no debería aceptar esto de ti!"

de su mano
Aquí "tu mano" significa "tú". Traducción Alterna: "de ti"

mi nombre será honrado entre las nacione Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "las personas en las otras naciones honran mi nombre" mi nombre será honrado

Aquí "mi nombre" significa SEÑOR. AT: "Seré honrado"

Chapter 2

1 Y ahora, ustedes sacerdotes, esto les ordeno. 2 Si ustedes no escuchan, y si ustedes no inclinan su corazón para darme honor a mí," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "entonces les enviaré una maldición a ustedes, y yo maldeciré sus bendiciones. Ciertamente, yo los maldije, porque ustedes no están poniéndo mi mandato en su corazón. 3 Miren, estoy cerca de rechazar a sus descendientes, y Yo les hecharé excremento en sus rostros, el excremento de sus festivales, y el los enviaré lejos con él. 4 Y ustedes sabrán que Yo les he dado esta orden, y mi pacto continuará estando con Leví," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 5 Mi pacto con él era vida y paz, y YO se los dí a él; YO le dí temor, y él tuvo temor de mí, y él estuvo maravillado de mi nombre. 6 Verdadera instrucción estaba en su boca, y nada falso se encontró en sus labios. Él caminó conmigo en paz y justicia y él sacó a muchos del pecado. 7 Porque los labios de un sacerdote deben mantener el conocimiento y la gente debe buscar instrucción de su boca, porque él es mensajero del SEÑOR de los Ejércitos. 8 Pero ustedes se han salido del camino verdadero. Ustedes han causado que muchos tropiecen con respecto a la ley. Ustedes han roto el pacto de Leví," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 9 "Entonces yo también, les he hecho despreciables y viles ante todo el pueblo, porque ustedes no han mantendido mis órdenes, pero en su lugar han enseñado a la gente diferentes cosas de acuerdo a cúan importantes son." 10 ¿Acaso no hay un Padre para todos nosotros? ¿No nos ha creado un solo Dios? ¿Por qué somos incrédulos cada hombre contra su hermano, profanando el pacto de nuestros padres? 11 Judá ha sido incrédulo. Una cosa asquerosa ha sido cometida en Israel y en Jerusalén. Porque Judá ha profanado el lugar santo del SEÑOR, el cual el ama, y se ha casado con la hija de un dios extranjero. 12 Que el SEÑOR corte de las tiendas de Jacob al hombre que haga esto, aquel que está despierto y al que responda, aún si él está trayéndole ofrenda al SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 13 Y también hacen esto: ustedes cubren el altar del SEÑOR con lágrimas, con llanto y quejas, porque todavía el no mira la ofrenda o la acepta con favor de sus manos. 14 Pero ustedes dicen: "¿Por qué el no lo hace?" Porque el SEÑOR fue testigo entre tú y la esposa de tu juventud, contra quien has sido desleal, aunque ella fue tu compañera y tu esposa por pacto. 15 ¿No los hizo el uno, con una porción de su Espíritu? ¿Y por qué los hizo uno? Porque el buscaba un descendiente de Dios. Así que guárdense en su espíritu, y no le sean infieles a la esposa de su juventud. 16 "Porque odio el divorcio," dice el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, "y aquel que cubre sus ropas con violencia," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. "Así que guárdense en su espíritu y no sean infieles." 17 Han cansado al SEÑOR con sus palabras. Pero ustedes dicen: ¿Cómo le hemos cansado?" Cuando ustedes dicen: "Todo el que hace mal es bueno en los ojos del SEÑOR, y el se agrada en ellos," o "¿Dónde está el Dios de la justicia?"

Malachi 2:1

inclinan su corazón
Esto se refiere a considerar que algo es muy importante. Traducción Alterna: "considero que es muy importante" para dar honor a mí nombre

Se habla de honor como si fuera un objeto que se le puede dar a alguien.

mí nombre
Aqui esta expresión refiere a Dios

Yo enviaré una maldición a ustedes
Se habla de una maldición como si fuera un objeto que podría enviarse sobre alguien. Traducción Alterna: "Te maldeciré"

ustedes no están poniéndo mi mandato en su corazón Esto se refiere a considerar que el mandato de Dios es muy importante. Traducción Alterna: "no consideras que mi orden sea muy importante"

Malachi 2:3

y Yo les extenderé excremento en sus rostros Aquí "excremento en sus rostros" significa desgracia. Traducción Alterna: "Lo más seguro es que te ponga en una profunda desgracia; será tan malo como si hubiera extendido excremento en sus rostros"

el excremento de sus festivales
Aquí "festivales" significa los animales que los sacerdotes ofrecían en sacrificio en los festivales israelitas. "El excremento" probablemente se refiere tanto al excremento producido por los animales justo antes de ser sacrificados para sacrificio, como al excremento que se encontró dentro de los animales cuando sus cuerpos fueron abiertos antes de ser sacrificados. Los trabajadores del templo tenían que transportar este excremento a un lugar fuera del templo, y probablemente fuera de Jerusalén.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y el los llevara lejos con él
Esta expresión difícil se puede traducir como "y Dios te llevará con ello", es decir, con el excremento. Esta expresión continúa con la misma metáfora de sacrificar animales para el sacrificio, y se puede poner en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y te arrojarán al montón de excremento; Dios se asegurará de que te lleven cuando remuevan todo el excremento"

los llevara lejos con él
Los significados posibles de esta expresión son 1) Dios castigará a los sacerdotes infieles matándolos y causando que sus cuerpos se lleven sobre las pilas de excremento animal, o 2) Dios castigará a los sacerdotes infieles de una manera tan horrible que será Como si sus cuerpos hubieran sido llevados con el excremento animal.

Leví
El SEÑOR habla de Leví como si él fuera el mismo que sus descendientes, la tribu de Leví. Traducción Alterna: "para que mi pacto sea contigo, los descendientes de Levi"

Malachi 2:5

Información General:
El SEÑOR habla de la tribu de Leví como si fueran una sola persona.

Mi pacto con él era vida y paz
Aquí se habla de los resultados previstos del pacto como si fueran el pacto mismo. Traducción Alterna: "El propósito de mi pacto con Levi era que los sacerdotes vivieran en prosperidad y paz"

temor, y él tuvo temor de mí, Esta expresión continúa con la misma metáfora, pero omite una idea que está implícita en el texto. Esto puede comenzar una nueva oración. Traducción Alterna: "Mi pacto con él también era temor, y él me temía" o "En mi pacto con él, le pedí que me temiera, y él me temía"

maravillado de mi nombre Aqui "mi nombre " significa Dios mismo.

nada falso se encontró Aquí encontrar algo significa por aquello que existe. Traducción Alterna: "no había falsedad"

en sus labios
Aqui "labios" significa la habilidad de una persona para hablar.

Él caminó conmigo
Aqui caminar significa por vivir, conducir una vida de una cierta manera.

en paz y justicia
Aqui la idea de ubicación representa por la manera en la cual vivió. Traducción Alterna: "pacificamente y justamente"

él sacó a muchos del pecado
Aquí se habla de persuadir a la gente para que deje de pecar como si los alejara del pecado. Traducción Alterna: "persuadió a muchas personas para que dejaran de pecar"

Porque los labios de un sacerdote deben mantener el conocimiento
Aquí se habla del conocimiento como si fuera un objeto que un sacerdote pudiera mantener. En este pasaje, la idea de "mantener conocimiento" implica comunicar el verdadero conocimiento acerca de Dios.

Labios
Aqui "labios" significa la habilidad de una persona para hablar.

buscar instrucción
"querer ser instruido"

buscar instrucción
Aquí se habla de instrucción como si fuera un objeto que la gente podría buscar. Traducción Alterna: "quiero que un sacerdote les enseñe de verdad"

de su boca
Aqui "boca" significa lo que una persona dice.

Malachi 2:8

ustedes se han salido del camino verdadero
Se habla de la manera correcta de comportarse como si fuera el camino correcto a seguir, y de abandonar la conducta correcta se habla como si se estuviera alejando de ese camino.

han causado que muchos tropiecen
Desobedecer a Dios de aqui se habla como si fuera un tropiezo.

Ustedes han causado que muchos tropiecen con respecto a la ley La expresión "con respecto a la ley" dad el contexto para el "tropiezo". Traducción Alterna" : "Has hecho que muchos desobedezcan la ley "

ante todo el pueblo
Esta idea espacial representa la conciencia de la gente sobre el mal comportamiento de los sacerdotes.

mantendido mis formas Aquí "formas" significa "deseos" y "comportamiento". Estas formas se mencionan como si fueran cosas que las personas pudieran conservar. Traducción Alterna: "siguió mis deseos en cómo deberías vivir" mostrado parcialidad de acuerdo a la instrucción

"Establecer normas de comportamiento fáciles para las personas que le gustan y normas de comportamiento difíciles para las personas que no le gustan"

mostrado parcialidad Aquí se habla del hábito de favorecer a algunas personas más que a otras como si fuera algo que podría mostrarse a otras. Traducción Alterna: "hizo que la gente se diera cuenta de que favorece a algunas personas más que a otras

Malachi 2:10

Información General:
Aqui el profeta Malaquías comienza a hablar a sus compañeros israelies

Acaso no hay un Padre para todos nosotros? ¿No nos ha creado un solo Dios?
Malaquías hace estas preguntas para recordarle a sus compañeros israelitas lo que ya saben. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes saben que todos tenemos un padre, que nuestro Dios ha creado una nación con nosotros". o "Todos saben que Dios es el padre de todos los israelitas, porque él es el que hizo nuestra nación".

No nos ha creado un solo Dios?
Esta pregunta está destinada a expresar una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente es el mismo Dios quien nos ha creado".

nos ha creado
Esto probablemente se refiere a Dios formando a los hebreos en una nación.

Por qué somos incrédulos cada hombre contra su hermano, profanando el pacto de nuestros padres?
Malaquías hace esta pregunta para reprender a sus compañeros israelitas. Esta pregunta puede ser expresada como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente, no debemos maltratar a nuestros hermanos y no respetar el pacto de Dios al desobedecer sus mandamientos, como lo ha estado haciendo usted".

Judá ha sido incrédulo
Aquí "Judá" representa a la gente en la región de Judá, y se habla del hecho de que han sido infieles al SEÑOR como si fueran un solo hombre llamado "Judá". Traducción Alterna: "El pueblo de Judá ha sido infiel"

Una cosa asquerosa ha sido cometida en Israel y en Jerusalén.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente ha hecho cosas repugnantes en Israel y en Jerusalén"

Porque Judá ha profanado el lugar santo del SEÑOR Aquí "Judá" se refiere nuevamente al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Porque el pueblo de Judá ha profanado el lugar santo del SEÑOR"

se ha casado con la hija de un dios extranjero
La gente de Judá es mencionada nuevamente como si fuera un hombre llamado "Judá". Traducción Alterna: "se han casado con mujeres de otras naciones, mujeres que adoran ídolos"

Que el SEÑOR corte de las tiendas de Jacob al hombre que
A menudo se habla de destruir algo que lo estaba cortando de otra cosa. Traducción Alterna: "Que el SEÑOR destruya a cualquiera en las tiendas de Jacob que" o "Que el SEÑOR mate a cualquiera en la comunidad de Israel que"

las tiendas de Jacob
Aqui "tiendas de Jacob" significa la comunidad de Israel

Jacob
Aqui "Jacob" significa por todos los israelitas debido a que Jacob fue uno de los patrircas de quien los israelitas descendieron.

aquel que está despierto y al que responda
Esta espresión parece significar "absolutamente todas las personas"

Malachi 2:13

Información General :
Malaquías continua hablando a sus compañeros israelitas

ustedes cubren el altar del SEÑOR con lágrimas Esto representa una forma exagerada de que los fieles lloren mientras oran al SEÑOR por ayuda. Esta declaración está destinada a señalar la desaprobación de la adoración falsa de los adoradores de el SEÑOR.

con llanto y quejas
Las palabras "llorar" y "suspirar" comparten significados similares e intensifican la idea de llorar. Traducción Alterna: "con gran llanto"

no se vuelve hacia la ofrenda
Aquí volverse hacia el obsequio significa recibirlo y mostrarle favor al dador.

no se vuelve hacia la ofrenda
Esto implica que aquellos que están llorando en el altar del SEÑOR le han ofrecido sacrificios.

en sus manos
Aqui "manos" significa de la persona que esta dando la ofrenda. Traducción Alterna: "De tí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Malachi 2:14

Por qué el no
El pensamiento completo es "¿Por qué no se vuelve hacia la ofrenda o la acepta con favor de nuestra mano?"

la esposa de tu juventud
"la mujer con que te casaste cuando eras joven"

el SEÑOR fue testigo entre tú y la esposa de tu juventud Esta declaración asume que esta mujer está aun viviendo.

fue testigo entre tú y la esposa de tu juventud
Aquí se considera que un testigo de un acuerdo entre dos personas se coloca entre ellos para testificar acerca de lo que acordaron, en caso de que surja una disputa entre las dos personas. Esta declaración también significaba recordar a la gente que el SEÑOR castigaría a cualquier israelita que rompiera el pacto del matrimonio.

¿No los hizo el uno, con una porción de su Espíritu?
Esta pregunta puede ser expersada como una declaración. Trducción Alterna: "El ciertamente hizo esposo y esposa uno, con una proción de su espíritu".

los hizo el uno
Esta expresión implica haciendo esposo y esposa una sola carne. Traducción Alterna: "hacer que el marido y la esposa sean una sola carne"

una ofrenda de Dios Niños quienes honrarían y obedecen a Dios

ella fue tu compañera y tu esposa por pacto Esta declaración implica que muchos de los israelitas se han divorciado de sus esposas.

por pacto
"por el pacto de matrimonio que ustedes acordaron para"

yo odio el divorcio
Aqui "divorcio" significa por el acto de divorcio, cuando un hombre envia lejos su esposa, asi como para teminar su matrmonio con ella. Traducción Alterna: " Yo odio cuando un hombre se divorcia de su esposa"

aquel que cubre sus ropas con violencia
Esta frase probablemente significa cualquier hombre quien es violento hacia su esposa.

Así que guárdense en su espíritu y no sean infieles.
"Así que sean cuidadosos y leales a su esposa"

Malachi 2:17

Han cansado al SEÑOR
Se habla de el SEÑOR como si el comportamiento humano lo cansara, pero Dios no puede cansarse en un sentido físico o emocional. Esta declaración probablemente significa que el SEÑOR se ha ofendido o exasperado. Traducción Alterna: "Has ofendido aj SEÑOR"

Cómo le hemos cansado?
Esta pregunta está orientada a negar que las personas hayan hecho algo malo. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente no lo hemos cansado".

diciendo
La idea completa aquí es: "Lo has cansado al decirlo". Esta es la respuesta del profeta a la pregunta retórica.

en los ojos del SEÑOR
Aqui "los ojos del SEÑOR" significa "la opinión del SEÑOR".

Dónde está el Dios de la justicia?
Los sacerdotes hacen esta pregunta para reclamar que al SEÑOR no le importa si las personas hacen mal o no, o que nunca castiga a los malhechores. Traducción Alterna: "¡Dios ciertamente no castiga a las personas malvadas!"

Dios de la justicia
el Dios que castiga justamente a los malvados

Chapter 3

1 "Mirad, estoy a punto de enviar a mi mensajero, y él preparará el camino delante de mí. Y el SEÑOR, a quién buscan, vendrá de repente a su templo. Y el mensajero del pacto en quien ustedes se deleitan, mirad, él vendrá," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 2 Pero, ¿quién será capaz de soportar el día de su llegada? ¿Y quién será capaz de estar de pie cuando el aparezca? Porque el será como un fuego que refina o como un jabón de lavar ropa. 3 Él se sentará como un refinador y purificador de plata, y el purificará a los hijos de Leví. Él los refinará como oro y plata, y ellos traerán ofrendas de justicia al SEÑOR. 4 Entonces las ofrendas de Judá y Jerusalén serán agradables al SEÑOR, como en los días antiguos, y como en años antiguos. 5 "Entonces me acercaré a ustedes para juicio. Yo me volveré testigo rápidamente contra los hechiceros, adúlteros, los falsos testigos, y en contra de esos quienes oprimen al trabajador contratado en sus pagos, esos quienes oprimen a la viuda y al huérfano, en contra de esos quienes devuelven al extranjero, y en contra de esos que no me honran," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 6 "Porque Yo, el SEÑOR, no he cambiado, por lo tanto ustedes, hijos de Jacob, no han llegado a su fin. 7 Desde los días de sus padres ustedes se han apartado de mis ordenanzas y no las han mantenido. Regresen a mí, y Yo me regresaré a ustedes," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. "Pero ustedes dicen: '¿ Cómo regresaremos?' 8 ¿Una persona robará a Dios? Si, ustedes me estan robando. Pero ustedes dicen: '¿Cómo te hemos robado?' En diezmos y ofrendas. 9 Ustedes están malditos con maldición, por que me estan robando, la nación entera. 10 Traígan el diezmo completo al almacén, para que haya comida en mi casa. Y pruébenme ahora en esto," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "Si yo no les abro las ventanas del cielo y derramo una bendición sobre ustedes hasta que ya no haya espacio para ella. 11 Otra vez hablaré en contra de esos quienes destruyen sus cosechas, para que ellos no destruyan la cosecha en su tierra. Sus viñedos en los campos no perderán su fruto," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 12 "Todas las naciones les llamarán bendecidos, porque ustedes serán una tierra de alegría," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 13 "Sus palabras en contra de mí han sido fuertes," dice el SEÑOR. "Pero ustedes dicen: '¿Qué hemos dicho entre nosotros en tu contra?' 14 Ustedes han dicho: 'Es inútil servirle a Dios. ¿Qué ganacía hay en que hayamos guardado sus ordenanzas o caminemos con tristeza por hablar contra el SEÑOR de los ejércitos? 15 Entonces ahora nosotros llamamos a los orgullosos bendecidos. Los que hacen maldad no solo prósperan, pero hasta prueban a Dios y escapan.'" 16 Entonces esos que le temen al SEÑOR hablen el uno con el otro. El SEÑOR presta atención y escucha, y un libro de memorias fue escrito ante el, acerca de esos quienes le temen al SEÑOR y honran su nombre. 17 "Ellos serán míos," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "Mi propia posesión atesorada, en el día que actué. Yo me compadeceré de ellos, como un hombre que se compadece por su propio hijo que le obedece. 18 Entonces una vez más ustedes verán la diferencia entre los justo y los malos, entre uno que adora a Dios y uno que no le adora.

Malachi 3:1

Información General:
El SEÑOR comienza hablando de Israel en el verso 1, pero el profeta Malaquías comienza hablando en el verso 2.

Mirad
"Vean"o "Escuchen" o "Presten atención a lo que les estoy diciendo a ustedes"

él preparará el camino delante de mí
Aquí se habla de preparar a las personas para recibir al SEÑOR como si se estuviera despejando un camino para que el SEÑOR siga avanzando.

Y el SEÑOR, a quién buscan...el mensajero del pacto en quien ustedes se deleitan Algunas versiones modernas traducen así para implicar que estas dos expresiones se refieren a la misma persona. Otras versiones modernas dejan esta cuestión ambigua. Recomendamos que las traducciones dejen este asunto ambiguo, al igual que la ULB y la UDB.

Pero, ¿quién será capaz de soportar el día de su llegada? ¿Y quién será capaz de estar de pie cuando el aparezca?
Estas preguntas retóricas implican que nadie podrá resistir al SEÑOR cuando venga. Se pueden combinar en una sola declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Sin embargo, nadie podrá resistir al SEÑOR cuando venga a juzgarlos".

el día de su llegada Aqui "dia" significa "tiempo". Traducción Alterna: "el tiempo cuando él venga" capaz de estar de pie

Aquí estar de pie representa resistir el ataque o las acusaciones de alguien.

Porque el será como un fuego que refina o como un jabón de lavar ropa Esta oración da la razón por la cual nadie podrá resistir a Dios cuando venga. Se habla del poder de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Dios para juzgar a la gente y evitar que pequen como si fuera el poder de un jabón fuerte para limpiar la ropa, o el poder del fuego para derretir un objeto. Estas son formas de decir que el poder de Dios para hacer estas cosas no se puede detener.

y el purificará a los hijos de Leví
Se habla de perdonar a los hijos de Leví y persuadirlos para que no pequen como si fuera un metal purificador. AT: "y él corregirá a los hijos de Leví y los perdonará por haber pecado"

los hijos de Leví
Aquí "hijos" se refiere a los descendientes. Los descendientes varones de Leví eran los sacerdotes y trabajadores en el templo.

Él se sentará
Aquí sentarse implica la acción de un trabajador de metal, que se sienta para purificar pequeñas cantidades de oro o plata. También implica la acción de un rey, que se sienta para juzgar a las personas y dar decretos.

Él los refinará como oro y plata Aquí se habla de persuadir a la gente de no pecar como si un obrero metalúrgico estuviera haciendo oro y plata más puros. .

y ellos traerán ofrendas de justicia al SEÑOR.
Aquí "de justicia" significa "motivado por deseos justos de adorar a Dios". AT: "y traerán ofrendas aceptables al SEÑOR para adorar a Yahweh"

Malachi 3:4

información General
Malaquías continua hablando en el verso 4, pero el SEÑOR comienza hablando de nuevo en el verso 5

las ofrendas de Judá y Jerusalén Aquí "Judá" y "Jerusalén" representan a la gente en esos lugares. Traducción Alterna: "las ofrendas traídas por el pueblo de Judá y Jerusalén" como en los días antiguos, y como en años antiguos Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que una vez la ofrenda fue agradable al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "como era en el pasado distante"

Entonces me acercaré a ustedes para juicio Aquí el "juicio" se refiere al acto de juzgar. Aquí el "juicio" se refiere al acto de juzgar. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces me acercaré a ti para juzgarte" oprimen al trabajador contratado en sus pago

"causar que el trabajador contratado sufra por no pagarle por su trabajo"

devuelven al extranjero
Es decir, alejando al extranjero de obtener sus derechos. Se habla de privar a las personas de sus derechos como si estuvieran físicamente alejándolos de uno mismo. Tal vez la idea es rechazar a alguien que viene por un error para que se corrija. Traducción Alterna: "niega a los extranjeros que viven en Israel los derechos que deberían tener"

Malachi 3:6

Informacion General
El SEÑOR continua hablando al pueblo de Israel

no han llegado a su fin
"no ha perecido"

Desde los días de sus padres ustedes se han vuelto a un lado de mis decretos y no los han mantenido.
Se habla de desobedecer las ordenanzas de Dios como si se estuvieran alejando de ellas. Traducción Alterna: "Has desobedecido mis ordenanzas desde los días de tus antepasados"

Regresen a mí, y Yo me regresaré a ustedes Aquí, amarse unos a otros y ser fieles unos a otros se habla de como si estuvieran volviéndose unos a otros. Traducción Alterna: "Ámame y honrame, y siempre te ayudaré"

Cómo regresaremos?'
Las personas hacen esta pregunta para afirmar que nunca han dejado de obedecer a Dios. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Nunca nos hemos alejado de ti, así que no podemos volver a ti". o "Nunca nos hemos alejado de usted, por lo que no tiene sentido hablar de que volveremos a usted".

Malachi 3:8

Información General
El SEÑOR continua hablando al pueblo de Israel

Una persona robara a Dios?
Esta pregunta implica que la idea de robar a Dios es muy perversa. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Un hombre ciertamente no debe robar a Dios". o "Nadie debería robarme nunca".

Cómo te hemos robado?
Esta pregunta implica que la gente no cree haber robado a Dios. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente no te hemos robado".

En diezmos y ofrendas
Esta respuesta del Jehová implica una respuesta más completa. Traducción Alterna: "Me has robado mediante la retención de mí sus diezmos y ofrendas"

ustedes están malditos con maldición Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "¡Ciertamente te he maldecido!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Malachi 3:10

Información General
El SEÑOR continua hablando al pueblo de Israel

el diezmo completo
"todos los diezmos"

mi casa
Aqui "casa" significa el templo. Traducción Alterna: "mi templo".

Y pruébenme ahora en esto,...Si yo no les abro las ventanas del cielo
Aquí el mandato "ponme a prueba" significa algo que la gente puede hacer y debería hacer: "si me pruebas". Esto también se puede dividir en dos oraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Y si me pruebas ... abriré las ventanas del cielo" o "Y deberías probarme ... Si lo haces, abriré las ventanas del cielo"

Todas las naciones les llamarán bendecidos Aquí ser llamado bienaventurado significa ser bendecido. Traducción Alterna: "Todas las naciones sabrán que has sido bendecido"

Todas las naciones
Esta expresión representa a la gente en todas las naciones. Traducción Alterna: "La gente en todas las naciones"

una tierra de alegría
Aquí "delicia" significa la condición en la cual los habitantes de una tierra se deleitan en su tierra.

Malachi 3:13

Información General
Estos versos comienzan en una nueva sección en el libro. Aqui el SEÑOR está hablando a el pueblo de Israel

Sus palabras en contra de mí han sido fuerte Aquí "fuerte" significa "duro" o "terrible". Y "Tus palabras" significa "Lo que has dicho". Traducción Alterna:: "Lo que has dicho sobre mí es terrible"

Qué hemos dicho entre nosotros en tu contra?'
La gente hace esta pregunta para afirmar que no han dicho nada en contra de Dios. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No hemos dicho nada entre nosotros contra ti".

Qué ganacía hay en que hayamos guardado sus requerimientos o caminado penosamente ante el SEÑOR de los ejércitos?
La gente hace esta pregunta entre ellos para hacer una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Es inútil que hayamos cumplido con sus requisitos y caminado con tristeza ante el Señor de los ejércitos".

caminado penosamente ante el SEÑOR de los ejércitos?
Aquí "caminar con tristeza" significa "comportarse de una manera triste", probablemente para indicar el dolor por sus pecados.

ante el SEÑOR de los ejércitos?
Aquí, esta expresión se refiere a que Dios es consciente de lo que la gente estaba haciendo.

nosotros llamamos a los arrogantes bendecidos Aquí ser llamado "bendito" significa ser bendecido. Traducción Alterna: "decimos que los arrogantes son bendecidos"

nosotros llamamos a los arrogantes bendecidos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "decimos que los arrogantes están bien"

Información General
El evento descrito aquí puede haber tenido lugar después de que la gente piadosa en Israel se arrepintiera de sus pecados. (Ver UDB)

y un libro de memorias fue escrito ante el, acerca de esos quienes le temen al SEÑOR Esto puede significar que 1) los israelitas escribieron un libro para que recordaran lo que habían prometido y enumeraron los nombres de las personas que temían al SEÑOR o 2) el SEÑOR hizo que alguien en el cielo escribiera un libro con los nombres de las personas que lo temían.

libro de memorias
Esta expresión se refiere a cualquier libro que ayude a las personas a recordar cosas importantes, como eventos o personas que vivieron en el pasado.

honran su nombre
Aqui "su nombre" representa a Dios mismo.

Malachi 3:17

Chapter 4

1 "Mirad, el día viene, quemándo como una hoguera, cuando todos los arrogantes y malignos se volverán paja. El día que viene los quemará," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos, "y no los dejará como raíz ni como rama. 2 Pero para ustedes que le temen a mi nombre, el sol de la justicia se levantará con sanidad en sus alas. Ustedes saldrán, y saltarán como becerros del establo. 3 Y ustedes atropellarán a los malvados, porque ellos serán ceniza bajo la suela de sus pies en el día que yo actúe," dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos. 4 Recuerden las enseñánzas de mi siervo Moisés que le dí en Horeb para todo Israel, los estatutos y las reglas. 5 Miren, les enviaré a ustedes a Elías, el profeta, antes de la venida del gran y temible día del SEÑOR. 6 Él cambiará el corazón de los padres a los hijos, y el corazón de los hijos a los padres, para que Yo no venga y ataque la tierra con completa destrucción."

Malachi 4:1

Mirad,
"mirar" o "escuchar" o "prestar atención a lo que voy a decirle"

el día viene, quemándose como una hoguera,
Se habla del desastre que se produce en este momento como si el día se estuviera quemando. A menudo se habla del juicio de Dios como si fuera un fuego.

arrogantes y malignos
Traduce estas palabras de la misma manera que hiciste en 3:13.

cuando todos los arrogantes y malignos se volverán gravilla
Se habla de estas personas como si fueran plantas secas aptas solo para quemarse. Es común que la Biblia hable de las personas como si fueran plantas o árboles. Traducción Alterna:: "todos los arrogantes y todos los malhechores se quemarán como plantas secas"

El día que viene los quemará
Aquí "el día" representa los eventos que ocurrirán ese día. Traducción Alterna: "En ese día los quemaré"

y no los dejará como raíz ni como rama Esta expresión sigue hablando de personas como si fueran plantas o árboles. Por lo tanto, ser privado de todas las raíces y ramas significa ser completamente eliminado. Traducción Alterna: "nada quedará"

ustedes que le temen a mi nombre Aqui "mi nombe" significa por Dios mismo.

el sol de la justicia se levantará con sanación en sus alas Esto puede significar que 1) el SEÑOR, que siempre actúa con rectitud, vendrá y sanará a su pueblo en ese día o 2) en ese día, el SEÑOR revelará la justicia de la gente y la sanará.

sanación en sus alas
Los posibles significados son 1) se habla del acto de curar a alguien como si fuera un objeto que el sol llevó a las personas por medio de sus alas o 2) la curación tiene lugar debajo de las alas, es decir, en la seguridad que Dios da a su gente.

alas
Era común en el antiguo Cercano Oriente hablar del sol como si tuviera alas, con las que se movía a través del cielo. Los posibles significados son 1) se habla de los rayos de luz que dan vida al sol como si fueran sus alas o 2) se dice que las alas cubren al pueblo de Dios para darles paz y seguridad.

Ustedes saldrán, y saltarán como becerros del establo Aquí se habla de la gente redimida del SEÑOR como si fueran jóvenes toros liberados de sus puestos, permitidos salir a su pasto.

ustedes atropellarán a los malvados, porque ellos serán ceniza bajo la suela de sus pie Aquí se habla de la victoria del pueblo de Dios como si estuvieran caminando sobre los cuerpos quemados de sus enemigos.

ellos serán ceniza
Se dice que los enemigos de los israelitas fueron quemados en cenizas. (Ver 4: 1)

Malachi 4:4

Recuerden las enseñánzas de mi siervo Moisés que le di
Se habla de los contenidos de la enseñanza de Dios como si fueran objetos que Dios le dio a Moisés.

Recuerden
Aqui "recuerden" significa "piensa acerca de eso" y al mismo tiempo, "obedece"
