1 Cuando Isaac estaba viejo y sus ojos estaban borrosos de manera que no podía ver, él llamó a Esaú, su hijo mayor, y le dijo: "Mi hijo." Él le dijo: "Aquí estoy." 2 Él dijo: "Mira aquí, yo estoy viejo. No conozco el día de mi muerte. 3 Por lo tanto, toma tus armas, tu aljaba y tu arco, y ve al campo y caza presas para mí. 4 Haz comida deliciosa para mí, la que yo amo, y tráemela para que yo la pueda comer y te bendiga antes de que yo me muera." 5 Ahora Rebeca lo escuchó cuando Isaac le habló a Esaú su hijo. Esaú fue al campo a cazar presas y a llevarlas de vuelta. 6 Rebeca habló a Jacob su hijo y dijo: "Mira aquí, yo escuché a tu padre hablar a Esaú tu hermano. Él dijo: 7 'Tráeme presas y hazme comida deliciosa, que yo la pueda comer y bendecirte en la presencia del SEÑOR antes de mi muerte.' 8 Ahora, por lo tanto, mi hijo, obedece mi voz según yo te mando. 9 Ve a la manada y tráeme dos buenos cabritos; y yo haré comida deliciosa de ellos para tu padre, así como la que él ama. 10 Tú la llevarás a tu padre, para que él la pueda comer, a fin de que él te pueda bendecir antes de su muerte." 11 Jacob le dijo a su madre Rebeca: "Mira, Esaú mi hermano es un hombre velludo, y yo soy hombre lampiño. 12 Quizá mi padre me toque, y yo le pareceré a él como engañador. Yo traeré a mí mismo una maldición y no una bendición." 13 Su madre le dijo: "Mi hijo, deja que caiga sobre mí cualquier maldición. Solamente obedece mi voz, y ve, tráemelos a mí." 14 Así que Jacob fue y trajo los cabritos a su madre, y su madre hizo comida deliciosa, tal como la que amaba su padre. 15 Rebeca tomó las mejores ropas de Esaú, su hijo mayor, que estaban con ella en la casa, y las puso sobre Jacob, su hijo menor. 16 Le puso las pieles de los cabritos en sus manos y en la parte lisa de su cuello. 17 Ella puso la comida deliciosa y el pan que había preparado en la mano de su hijo Jacob. 18 Jacob fue a su padre y le dijo: "Padre mío." Él le dijo: "Aquí estoy; ¿quién eres, hijo mío?" 19 Jacob le dijo a su padre: "Yo soy Esaú tu primogénito; he hecho tal como me dijiste. Ahora siéntate y come de mis presas, para que me bendigas." 20 Isaac le dijo a su hijo: "¿Cómo es que las has encontrado tan rápidamente, hijo mío?" Él le dijo: "Porque el SEÑOR tu Dios me las trajo." 21 Isaac le dijo a Jacob: "Acércate para poderte tocar, hijo mío, y saber si eres o no mi verdadero hijo Esaú." 22 Jacob se acercó a su padre Isaac e Isaac lo tocó y dijo: "La voz es la voz de Jacob, pero las manos son las manos de Esaú." 23 Isaac no lo reconoció porque sus manos eran velludas como las manos de su hermano Esaú, así que Isaac lo bendijo. 24 Él dijo: "¿Eres verdaderamente mi hijo Esaú?" Y él le dijo: "Lo soy." 25 Isaac dijo: "Tráeme la comida y comeré de tus presas, para que pueda bendecirte." Jacob le trajo la comida. Isaac comió, y Jacob le trajo vino, y él bebió. 26 Entonces su padre Isaac le dijo: "Acércate ahora y bésame, hijo mío." 27 Jacob se acercó y lo besó, y olió el olor de sus ropas y lo bendijo. Él dijo: "Ves, el olor de mi hijo es como el olor de un campo que El SEÑOR ha bendecido. 28 Te dé Dios una porción del rocío del cielo, una porción de la grosura de la tierra, y abundantes granos y vino nuevo. 29 Que los pueblos te sirvan y las naciones se postren ante ti. Sé amo sobre tus hermanos, y que los hijos de tu madre se postren ante ti. Que todo el que te maldiga sea maldecido; que todo el que te bendiga sea bendecido." 30 Tan pronto Isaac había terminado bendiciendo a Jacob, y Jacob apenas había salido de la presencia de su padre Isaac, Esaú su hermano llegó de la cacería. 31 Él también preparó comida deliciosa y la trajo a su padre. Él le dijo a su padre: "Padre, levántate y come algo de las presas de tu hijo, para que me bendigas." 32 Isaac su padre le dijo: "¿Quién eres?" Él dijo: "Yo soy tu hijo, tu primogénito Esaú." 33 Isaac tembló muchísimo y dijo: "¿Quién fue el que cazó estas presas y me las trajo? Yo las comí todas antes de que tú vinieras, y lo he bendecido. Ciertamente, él será bendecido." 34 Cuando Esaú oyó las palabras de su padre, lloró con llanto grande y amargo, y le dijo a su padre: "Bendíceme a mí también, padre mío." 35 Isaac le dijo: "Tu hermano ha venido aquí engañosamente y te ha quitado tu bendición." 36 Esaú dijo: "¿No ha sido Jacob nombrado correctamente? Porque me ha engañado estas dos veces. Me quitó mi primogenitura, y mira, ahora me ha quitado mi bendición." Entonces él dijo: "¿No has guardado una bendición para mí?" 37 Isaac respondió y dijo a Esaú: "Mira, yo lo he puesto como tu amo, y le he dado a todos sus hermanos como siervos y le he dado granos y vino nuevo. ¿Qué más puedo hacer para ti, hijo mío?" 38 Esaú dijo a su padre: "¿No tienes ni siquiera una bendición para mí, padre mío? Bendíceme a mí también, padre mío." Esaú lloró en alta voz. 39 Isaac su padre le respondió y le dijo: "Mira, el lugar donde vives estará lejos de la riqueza de la tierra, lejos del rocío del alto cielo. 40 Por tu espada vivirás, y servirás a tu hermano. Mas cuando te rebeles, sacudirás su yugo de tu cuello." 41 Esaú odió a Jacob debido a la bendición que su padre le había dado. Esaú dijo en su corazón: "Los días de luto por mi padre se acercan; después de eso mataré a mi hermano Jacob." 42 Las palabras de Esaú su hijo mayor les fueron dichas a Rebeca. Así que envió a llamar a su hijo Jacob su hijo menor y le dijo: "Mira, tu hermano Esaú se está consolando a si mismo planificando tu muerte. 43 Ahora, por lo tanto, hijo mío, obedéceme y huye a Labán, mi hermano,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en Harán. 44 Quédate con él allá por un tiempo, hasta que se calme la furia de tu hermano, 45 hasta que la ira de tu hermano hacia ti se calme, y se olvide de lo que le has hecho. Entonces yo enviaré a traerte de allá. ¿Por qué he de perderlos a ambos en un día? " 46 Rebeca le dijo a Isaac: "Estoy hastiada de la vida debido a las hijas de Het. Si Jacob toma una de las hijas de Het por esposa, como estas mujeres, algunas de las hijas de la tierra, ¿para qué bien me servirá mi vida?"

Genesis 27:1

sus ojos estaban borrosos
Esto habla sobre estar casi ciego como si los ojos fuesen una lámpara y la luz se hubiese apagado. TA: "él estaba casi ciego" o "él fue por poco ciego" (Ver:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/:)

Aquí estoy
"Yo estoy aquí" o "Yo estoy escuchando". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:1.

Mira aquí
La frase "Mira aquí" agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. TA: "Escucha atentamente"

No conozco el día de mi muerte Está implícito que Isaac sabe que va morir pronto. TA: "Puedo morir ahora en cualquier día"

muerte
Esto se refiere a la muerte física.

Genesis 27:3

Información General
Isaac continúa dando instrucciones a su hijo mayor Esau.

tus armas
tu equipo de caza

tu aljaba
Una aljaba es un estuche para sostener flechas. TA: "tu aljaba de flechas"

caza presas para mí
cazar un animal silvestre para mí

Haz comida deliciosa para mí, la que yo amo.
La palabra "deliciosa" se refiere a algo con sabor muy bueno. TA: "Cocina para mí la carne sabrosa que me gusta"

te bendiga
En los tiempos bíblicos, un padre solía pronunciar una bendición formal sobre sus hijos.

Genesis 27:5

Ahora
Este versículo es información de trasfondo para la descripción de los eventos que siguen. La palabra "ahora" muestra que el autor va a comenzar a hablar sobre Rebeca y Jacob.

Rebeca lo escuchó cuando Isaac le habló a Esaú su hijo.
Rebeca escuchó a Isaac hablarle a su hijo Esaú.

a Esaú su hijo ... a Jacob su hijo Esaú y Jacob eran hijo de ambos, Isaac y Rebeca. El "su hijo" para enfatizar que Isaac prefería a Esaú y Rebeca prefería a Jacob.

Rebeca habló a Jacob
Este versículo continúa con la información de trasfondo que comienza con las palabras "Esaú fue ... llevarlas de vuelta" en el versículo 5. Es información de trasfondo para la descripción de los eventos que siguen. Después de que Esaú se va, Rebeca le habla a Jacob por lo que ella ha escuchado. "Entonces, cuando Esaú fue ... traerlo, Rebeca le habló a Jacob"

a Jacob su hijo
Jacob fue el hijo de ambos, Isaac y Rebeca. El autor llama a Jacob "su hijo" aquí para enfatizar que Rebeca prefirió a Jacob sobre Esaú.

Mira aquí
La frase "mira aquí" agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. TA: "Escucha con cuidado"

'Tráeme presas y hazme comida deliciosa, que yo la pueda comer y bendecirte en la presencia de Jehová antes de mi muerte'.
Estas son las palabras que el autor introduce con las palabras "Él dijo" en el versículo 6. Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede decir como una cita indirecta. "Le dijo a Esaú que cazara un animal silvestre y que hiciera una carne sabrosa que a él le gusta. Luego, antes de morir, tu padre bendecirá a Esaú en presencia del SEÑOR".

Tráeme caza
Tráeme un animal silvestre que cazaste y mataste

hazme comida deliciosa Cocina para mí la carne sabrosa que me gusta. Vea cómo esto fue traducido en [Génesis 27: 4] (../27/03.md).

te bendiga en la presencia del SEÑOR
te bendiga ante el Señor

antes de mi muerte
antes de morir

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 27:8

Información General
Rebeca continúa hablando con su hijo menor, Jacob.

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero es usado para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue

Obedece mi voz cuando te mando
Rebeca dijo "mi voz" para referirse a lo que ella estaba diciendo. TA: "obedéceme y haz lo que te digo"

Haré una comida deliciosa de ellos para tu padre, así como la que él ama.
La palabra "deliciosa" se refiere a algo de sabor muy bueno. Vea cómo se tradujo una oración similar en [Génesis 27: 4].

la llevarás a tu padre Luego lo llevarás a tu padre para que él lo coma, a fin de que él te pueda bendecir y después que lo coma, te bendecirá.

él te pueda bendecir
La palabra "bendecir" se refiere a la bendición formal que un padre pronuncia sobre sus hijos.

antes de su muerte
antes que él muera

Genesis 27:11

yo soy hombre lampiño
Yo soy un hombre con piel tersa o "yo no soy peludo"

Yo le pareceré a él como un engañador
Él pensará que soy un mentiroso o "él sabrá que yo lo estoy engañando"

Yo me traeré a mí mismo una maldición y no una bendición.
Ser maldecido o bendecido se habla de como si una maldición y una bendición fueran objetos que se colocan sobre una persona. TA: "Entonces, por eso, él me maldecirá y no me bendecirá"

Genesis 27:13

Mi hijo, deja que caiga sobre mí cualquier maldición.
"que tu maldición sea conmigo, hijo mío". Se habla de ser maldecido como si la maldición fuera sobre un objeto que se coloca sobre la persona. TA: "que tu padre me maldiga en vez de a ti, hijo mío"

obedece mi voz Rebeca dijo "mi voz" para referirse a lo que ella estaba diciendo. TA: "obedece lo que te digo" o "obedéceme" (Ver:

tráemelos a mí
tráeme los cabritos jóvenes

hizo deliciosa comida, tal como la que amaba su padre.
La palabra "deliciosa" se refiere a algo de sabor muy bueno. Ver cómo una oración similar fue traducida en [Genesis 27:4].

Genesis 27:15

Le puso las pieles de los cabritos en sus manos
Las pieles de cabra todavía tenía los pelos en ella.

Ella puso la comida deliciosa y el pan que había preparado en la mano de su hijo Jacob.
Ella le dio a su hijo Jacob la comida deliciosa y el pan que había preparado.

Genesis 27:18

Él le dijo
"Y su padre respondió" o "Isaac respondió" (UDB)

Aquí estoy
Sí, estoy escuchando o "Sí, ¿qué es?" Vea cómo tradujo esto en Genesis 22:1.

He hecho tal como me dijiste
"Yo he hecho lo que me dijiste que hiciera"

come de mis presas
La palabra "presas" se refiere a los animales silvestres que alguien caza y mata. Vea cómo se tradujo "presas" en [Genesis 27:3].

Genesis 27:20

Él dijo
Jacob respondió

me las trajo
Este es una expresión que significa que Dios hizo que sucediera. AT: "me ayudó a tener éxito mientras cazaba"

si eres o no mi verdadero hijo Esaú
"si realmente eres mi hijo Esaú"

Genesis 27:22

Jacob se acercó a Isaac su padre
Jacob se acercó a Isaac su padre

"La voz es la voz de Jacob Aquí Issac habla de la voz de Jacob como describiendo a Jacob. TA: "Te pareces a Jacob"

pero las manos son las manos de Esaú Aquí Isaac habla de las manos de Esaú como describiendo a Esaú. TA: "pero tus manos se sienten como las manos de Esaú"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 27:24

Él dijo
Isaac hace esta pregunta antes de bendecir a su hijo. TA: "Pero primero Isaac preguntó"

comeré de tus presas
La palabra "caza" se refiere a un animal silvestre que las personas cazan y matan. Vea cómo se tradujo "caza" en [Genesis 27:7].

él bebió
Isaac lo bebió

Genesis 27:26

y olió el olor de sus ropas y lo bendijo
Se puede hacer explícito que la ropa olía como la ropa de Esaú. TA: "él olía su ropa y olían como la ropa de Esaú, así que Isaac lo bendijo"

y olió
"e Isaac olió"

el olor
"el perfume"

y lo bendijo
"entonces él lo bendijo". Esto se refiere a la bendición formal que un padre pronuncia sobre sus hijos.

Ves, el olor de mi hijo
La palabra "ves" se usa como una figura enfática del discurso para decir "es verdad". TA: "Verdaderamente, el olor de mi hijo"

que El SEÑOR ha bendecido Aquí, la palabra "bendecido" significa que el Señor ha hecho que pasen cosas buenas al campo y se ha vuelto fructífera. Traducción alterna: "lo que el Señor ha hecho para ser muy productivo"

Genesis 27:28

Información General
Esta es la bendición de Isaac. Él pensó que estaba hablando con Esaú, pero él estaba hablando con Jacob.

Te dé
Aquí "te" es singular y se refiere a Jacob. Pero la bendición también se aplicaría a los descendientes de Jacob.

rocío del cielo
El rocío, son gotas de agua que se forman en las plantas durante la noche. Esto se puede hacer explícito en la traducción. TA: "niebla nocturna del cielo para regar tus cultivos"

grosura de la tierra Hablar de tierra fértil es como si la tierra fuera gorda o rica. TA: "buen suelo para producir cultivos" abundantes granos y vino nuevo.

Si "grano" y "vino" son desconocidos, esto se puede decir de manera más general. TA: "abundantes comidas y bebidas"

Genesis 27:29

ti ... tus
Aquí estos pronombres son singulares y se refieren a Jacob. Pero la bendición también se aplica a los descendientes de Jacob.

las naciones se postren Aquí "naciones" se refiere a la gente. TA: "personas de todas las naciones se inclinen"

postren
Esto significa inclinarse para expresar humildemente respeto y honor hacia alguien.

Sé amo sobre tus hermanos Conviértete en maestro de tus hermanos.

tus hermanos ... los hijos de tu madre
Isaac está hablando esta bendición directamente a Jacob. Pero, también se aplica a los descendientes de Jacob que gobernarán sobre los descendientes de Esaú y los descendientes de cualquier otro de los hermanos de Jacob que pueda tener.

que los hijos de tu madre se postren ante ti
los hijos de tu madre se inclinarán ante ti

Que todo el que te maldiga sea maldecido Esto se puede ser expresado en la forma activa. TA: "Que Dios maldiga a todos los que te maldicen" que todo el que te bendiga sea bendecido

Esto se puede expresado en la forma activa. TA: "Que Dios bendiga a todos los que te bendicen"

Genesis 27:30

apenas había salido de la presencia de su padre Isaac Acababa de salir de la tienda de Isaac su padre.

comida deliciosa
Sabrosa carne que me gusta. Vea como esto fue traducido en [Genesis 27:3].

algo de las presas de tu hijo
Aquí, "tu hijo" era una forma educada de Esaú refiriéndose a su propia comida que preparó.

las presas de tu hijo
La palabra "presas" se refiere a los animales salvajes que la gente caza para comer. Vea cómo se tradujo "presas" en [Genesis 27:7].

me bendigas
Esto se refiere a la bendición formal que un padre pronuncia sobre sus hijos.

Genesis 27:32

le dijo
le dijo a Esaú

Isaac tembló
Isaac comenzó a temblar

cazó estas presas
"presas" se refiere a un animal salvaje que la gente caza y mata. Vea cómo se tradujo "presas" en [Génesis 27:5].

Genesis 27:34

lloró con llanto grande y amargo La angustia de Esaú era similar al sabor de algo amargo. TA: "gritó ruidosamente"

te ha quitado tu bendición
Esta es una figura de discurso que significa que Jacob tomó lo que era de Esaú. TA: "Lo he bendecido en vez de a ti"

Genesis 27:36

¿No ha sido Jacob nombrado correctamente?
Esaú usa una pregunta para enfatizar su enojo hacia Jacob. TA: "¡Jacob ciertamente es el nombre correcto para mi hermano!"

Jacob
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre de Jacob significa 'él agarra el talón'. En el idioma original, el nombre 'Jacob' también suena como la palabra 'él engaña' ".

Me quitó mi primogenitura Esto habla de un derecho de nacimiento como si fuera un objeto que una persona pudiera quitar. TA: "Lo que una vez fue mi derecho de nacimiento es ahora suyo porque me engañó"

ahora me ha quitado mi bendición
Esto habla de una bendición como si fuera un objeto que la persona pudiera quitar. Traducción Alterna: "ahora él te ha engañado para que le bendigas en vez de a mí"

¿No has guardado una bendición para mí?
Esaú sabe que su padre no puede bendecirlo con las mismas cosas que bendijo a Jacob. Esaú pregunta si queda algo por decirle que Isaac no dijo mientras bendecía a Jacob.

¿Qué más puedo hacer para ti, hijo mío?
Isaac usa una pregunta para enfatizar que no hay nada más que pueda hacer. TA: "¡No hay nada más que pueda hacer por ti!"

Genesis 27:38

¿No tienes ni siquiera una bendición para mí, padre mío?
Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. "Mi padre, tienes una bendición más para mí"

Genesis 27:39

le dijo
le dijo a Esaú

Mira, el lugar
Esto agrega énfasis en lo que Isaac dice a continuación. AT: "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que estoy por decirte"

lejos de la riqueza de la tierra Esta es una figura del discurso que se refiere a la fertilidad de la tierra. TA: "lejos del suelo fértil"

rocío del alto cielo
Rocío son gotas de agua que se forman en las plantas durante la noche. Esto se puede hacer explícito en la traducción. TA: "la niebla nocturna del cielo para regar tus cultivos"

tu ... tu
En 27: 39-40 estos pronombres son singulares y se refieren a Esaú, pero lo que Isaac dice también se aplica a los descendientes de Esaú

Por tu espada vivirás Aquí "espada" significa violencia. TA: "Robarás y matarás personas para obtener lo que necesitas para vivir"

sacudirás el yugo de tu cuello
Esto habla de alguien que tiene un maestro como si el control del maestro sobre la persona fuera un yugo que la persona tenía que llevar. TA: "te liberarás de su control"

Genesis 27:41

Esaú dijo en su corazón
Aquí "corazón" significa el mismo Esaú. TA: "Esaú se dijo a sí mismo"

Los días de luto por mi padre se acercan
Esto se refiere a la cantidad de días que una persona sufre cuando un miembro de la familia muere.

Las palabras de Esaú su hijo mayor les fueron dichas a Rebeca.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Alguien le dijo a Rebeca sobre el plan de Esaú"

Mira
Mira o "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que voy a decirte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

se está consolando a si mismo se esta haciendo sentir mejor a sí mismo

Genesis 27:43

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

huye a Labán
sal de aquí rápidamente y andá junto a Labán.

por unos días
por un lapso de tiempo

hasta que se calme la furia de tu hermano hasta que tu hermano se calme

hasta que la ira de tu hermano hacia ti se calme
Se habla de "hasta que ya no esté enojado" como si la ira cambia a una dirección diferente lejos de la persona. TA: "hasta que él ya no esté enojado contigo"

¿Por qué he de perderlos a ambos en un día?
Rebeca usa una pregunta para enfatizar su preocupación. TA: "¡No quiero perderlos a los dos en un solo día!"

perderlos a ambos en un día Esto implica que si Esaú mata a Jacob, luego ellos ejecutarán a Esaú como un asesino.

he de perderlos
Esta es una forma educada de referirse a la muerte de sus hijos.

Genesis 27:46

Estoy hastiada de la vida Rebeca está exagerando para enfatizar lo molesta que está con las mujeres hititas con las que se casó Esaú. TA: "Estoy terriblemente molesta"

las hijas de Het
"estas mujeres hititas" o "descendientes de Het"

como estas mujeres, algunas de las hijas de la tierra
La frase "hijas de la tierra" significa las mujeres locales. TA: "como estas mujeres que viven en esta tierra"

¿para qué bien me servirá mi vida?"
Rebeca usa una pregunta para enfatizar qué tan molesta estaría si Jacob se casa con una mujer hitita. TA: "¡Mi vida será horrible!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 Isaac llamó a Jacob, lo bendijo y le ordenó: "No debes tomar por esposa a una de las mujeres cananitas. 2 Levántate, ve a Padán Aram, a la casa de Betuel, el padre de tu madre, y toma una esposa de allí, una de las hijas de Labán, el hermano de tu madre. 3 Que Dios Todopoderoso te bendiga, te haga fructífero y te multiplique, para que llegues a ser una multitud de pueblos. 4 Que Él te dé la bendición de Abraham, a ti y a tus descendientes después de ti, de manera que heredes la tierra donde has estado viviendo, que Dios le dio a Abraham." 5 Así que Isaac despidió a Jacob. Jacob fue a Padán Aram, a Labán, hijo de Betuel el arameo, el hermano de Rebeca, madre de Jacob y Esaú. 6 Ahora Esaú vio que Isaac había bendecido a Jacob y lo había enviado a Padán Aram, para tomar esposa de allá. Él también vio que Isaac lo había bendecido y le había dado una orden diciendo: "No debes tomar esposa de las mujeres de Canaán." 7 Esaú también vio que Jacob había obedecido a su padre y a su madre, y se había ido a Padán Aram. 8 Esaú vio que las mujeres de Canaán no agradaban a Isaac su padre. 9 Así que él fue a Ismael y tomó, además de las esposas que él tenía, a Mahalat, la hija de Ismael, hijo de Abraham, la hermana de Nebaiot, como su esposa. 10 Jacob salió de Beerseba y fue hacia Harán. 11 Llegó a cierto lugar y se quedó allí toda la noche, porque el sol se había puesto. Él tomó una de las piedras en ese lugar, la puso debajo de su cabeza, y se acostó en ese lugar para dormir. 12 Él soñó y vio una escalera levantada sobre la tierra. Su cima alcanzó hasta el cielo y los ángeles de Dios subían y bajaban por ella. 13 Miren, EL SEÑOR estaba de pie sobre ella y dijo: "Yo soy EL SEÑOR, el Dios de Abraham tu padre, y el Dios de Isaac. La tierra donde estás acostado, Yo te la daré a ti y a tus descendientes. 14 Tus descendientes serán como el polvo de la tierra, y te dispersarás lejos al oeste, al este, al norte y al sur. Por medio de ti y de tus descendientes todas las familias de la tierra serán bendecidas. 15 Mira, Yo estoy contigo, y te guardaré dondequiera que vayas. Te traeré nuevamente a esta tierra porque no te dejaré. Yo haré todo lo que te he prometido." 16 Jacob despertó de su sueño y dijo: "Seguramente EL SEÑOR está en este lugar, y yo no lo sabía." 17 Él tuvo miedo y dijo: "¡Qué terrible es este lugar! Esto no es nada menos que la casa de Dios. Es la puerta del cielo." 18 Jacob se levantó temprano en la mañana y tomó la piedra que había puesto debajo de su cabeza. La levantó como un pilar y derramó aceite sobre ella. 19 Él llamó el nombre de ese lugar Betel, pero el nombre de la ciudad originalmente fue Luz. 20 Jacob juró un juramento diciendo: "Si Dios fuera conmigo y me protegiera en este camino sobre el que ando, y me diera pan para comer y ropa para vestir, 21 de manera que yo regrese sano y salvo a la casa de mi padre, entonces EL SEÑOR será mi Dios. 22 Entonces esta piedra que he puesto como un pilar será una piedra sagrada. De todo lo que me dieras, de seguro Te devolveré la décima parte."

Genesis 28:1

No debes tomar
No tomes

Levántate, ve
Ir de inmediato

Padán Aram
Este era otro nombre para la región de Mesopotamia, que se encuentra en el mismo lugar del moderno Irak. Vea como esto fue traducido en [Genesis 25:20].

casa de
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de una persona u otros familiares. TA: "familia"

Betuel
Betuel era el padre de Rebeca. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en [Genesis 22:22].

el padre de tu madre tu abuelo

una de las hijas de las hijas

el hermano de tu madre tu tío

Genesis 28:3

Información General
Isaac sigue hablando con Jacob te haga fructífero y te multiplique

La palabra "multiplicar" explica cómo Dios haría a Jacob "fructificar". TA: "te dan muchos hijos y descendientes"

Que Él te dé la bendición de Abraham, a ti y a tus descendientes después de ti Esto habla de bendecir a alguien como si la bendición fuera un objeto que una persona puede

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

dar. El sustantivo abstracto "la bendición" puede ser declarado como "bendición". TA: "Que Dios te bendiga a ti y a tus descendientes al bendecir a Abraham" o "Que Dios te dé a ti y a tus descendientes lo que le prometió a Abraham"

de manera que heredes la tierra
Dios le da la tierra de Canaán a Jacob y sus descendientes como si un hijo heredara dinero o posesiones de su padre.

la tierra donde has estado viviendo la tierra donde has estado permaneciendo que Dios le dio a Abraham lo que Dios prometió a Abraham

Genesis 28:5

Padán Aram
Este era otro nombre para la región de Mesopotamia, que se encuentra en el mismo lugar que el moderno Irak. Vea como esto fue traducido en [Genesis 25:20].

Betuel
Betuel era el padre de Rebeca. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en [Genesis 22:22].

Genesis 28:6

Información General
La historia cambia de Jacob a Esaú.

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Esaú.

Padán Aram
Este era otro nombre para la región de Mesopotamia, que se encuentra en el mismo lugar que el moderno Irak. Vea como esto fue traducido en [Genesis 25:20].

tomar esposa
tomar una esposa para sí mismo

Él también vio que Isaac lo había bendecido
Esaú también vio que Isaac había bendecido a Jacob

No debes tomar
No tomes

las mujeres de Canaán
"hijas de Canaán" o "mujeres cananeas"

Genesis 28:8

Información General
Esto continúa la información de fondo sobre Esaú.

Esaú vio
Esaú se dio cuenta

que las mujeres de Canaán no agradaban a Isaac su padre
"su padre Isaac no aprobó a las mujeres de Canaán"

mujeres de Canaán
"Hijas de Canaán" o "las mujeres cananeas"

Así que él fue
Por eso, se fue

además de las esposas que él tenía
Aparte de las esposas que ya tenía

Mahalat
Este es el nombre de una de las hijas de Ismael.

Nebaiot
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Ismael.

Genesis 28:10

Información General:
La historia vuelve a Jacob

Llegó a cierto lugar y se quedó allí toda la noche, porque el sol se había puesto
Llegó a cierto lugar y, como se había puesto el sol, decidió quedarse a dormir.

Genesis 28:12

Él soñó
Jacob tuvo un sueño

levantada sobre la tierra con el fondo tocando el suelo

alcanzó hasta el cielo
Esto se refiere al lugar donde vive Dios

He aquí
La palabra "he aquí" nos alerta a prestar atención a la sorprendente información que sigue.

Jehová estaba de pie sobre ella
Los posibles significados son 1) "Él Señor estaba parado en la parte superior de la escalera" o 2) "Él Señor estaba parado junto a Jacob"

Abraham tu padre
Aquí "padre" significa "ancestro". TA: "Abraham tu ancestro" o "Abraham tu antepasado"

Genesis 28:14

Información General
Dios continúa hablando a Jacob en sueños.

Tus descendientes serán como el polvo de la tierra Dios compara a los descendientes de Jacob con el polvo de la tierra para enfatizar su enorme número. TA: "Tendrás más descendientes de los que puedes contar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

te dispersarás lejos al oeste La palabra "te" es singular y se refiere a Jacob. Aquí Jacob representa a sus descendientes. TA: "tus descendientes se extenderán hacia el oeste"

te dispersarás lejos
Esto significa que la gente extenderá las fronteras de sus tierras y ocupará más territorio.

al oeste, al este, al norte y al sur
Estas frases se usan juntas para significar "todas las direcciones". TA: "en todas las direcciones"

En ti y en tus descendientes todas las familias de la tierra serán bendecidas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Bendeciré a todas las familias de la tierra a través de ustedes y sus descendientes"

He aquí, Yo
Esto agrega énfasis a lo que se dice a continuación. TA: "Preste atención a lo que estoy por decirte" porque no te dejaré. Yo haré todo porque no te dejaré hasta que haya hecho todo

te guardaré
"Te mantendré a salvo" o "Te protegeré"

Te traeré nuevamente a esta tierra
Te traeré de vuelta a esta tierra

Genesis 28:16

despertó de su sueño
levantó de su sueño

la casa de Dios. Es la puerta del cielo."
La frase "la puerta del cielo" explica que este lugar es la entrada a "la casa de Dios" y "la entrada a donde vive Dios".

Es la puerta del cielo
Esto habla de la entrada al lugar donde Dios vive como si fuera un reino literal que tenía una puerta que alguien tiene que abrir para dejar entrar a la gente.

Genesis 28:18

pilar
Este es un pilar conmemorativo, es decir, simplemente una piedra grande o una roca colocada de punta.

derramó aceite sobre ella
Esta acción simboliza que Jacob está dedicando el pilar a Dios. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. TA: "Vertió aceite en la parte superior para dedicar el pilar a Dios"

Betel
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre de Betel significa 'casa de Dios'".

Luz
Es el nombre de una ciudad.

Genesis 28:20

juró un juramento
"hizo un voto" o "solemnemente prometió a Dios"

Si Dios fuera conmigo... ropa para vestir Jacob le está hablando a Dios en tercera persona. Esto puede ser expresado en segunda persona. TA: "Si Tú quieres ... ropa para vestir" en este camino sobre el que ando Esto representa el viaje de Jacob para encontrar una esposa y regresar a casa. TA: "en este viaje"

me diera pan para comer
Aquí "pan" significa comida en general.

de manera que yo regrese sano ... entonces Él Señor será mi Dios.
El voto que comenzó con las palabras "Si Dios quiere ... ropa para vestir" en el versículo 20 continúa aquí. Jacob le está hablando a Dios en tercera persona. Esto puede ser expresado en segunda persona. "Si quieres ... ropa para vestir ... para que regrese a salvo ... entonces tú, Señor, serás el Dios que adoraré"

a la casa de mi padre Aquí "casa" significa la familia de Jacob. TA: "a mi padre y al resto de mi familia"

una piedra sagrada
Esto significa que la piedra marcará el lugar donde Dios se le apareció a él y será un lugar donde la gente puede adorar a Dios. TA: "la casa de Dios" o "el lugar de Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 Entonces Jacob se fue de viaje y llegó a la tierra de la gente del este. 2 Al mirar, él vio un pozo en el campo, y, mira, tres rebaños de ovejas estaban acostadas allí al lado. Porque de aquel pozo ellos daban agua a los rebaños, y la piedra sobre la boca del pozo era grande. 3 Cuando todos los rebaños se habían reunido allí, los pastores rodaban la piedra de la boca del pozo y le daban agua a las ovejas, y entonces ponían la piedra otra vez sobre la boca del pozo, de vuelta a su lugar. 4 Jacob les dijo: "Hermanos míos, ¿de dónde vienen?" Ellos respondieron: "Somos de Harán." 5 Él les dijo: ¿Conocen ustedes a Labán, hijo de Nacor?" Ellos dijeron: "Lo conocemos." 6 Él les dijo: "¿El está bien?" Ellos dijeron: "Él está bien, y, mira allí, Raquel su hija viene con las ovejas." 7 Jacob dijo: "Mira, es el mediodía. No es la hora de juntar a los rebaños. Deberían darle agua a las ovejas y entonces ir y apacentarlas." 8 Ellos dijeron: "No podemos darles agua hasta que todos los rebaños estén juntos. Los hombres entonces rodarán la piedra de la boca del pozo, y le daremos agua a las ovejas." 9 Mientras Jacob todavía hablaba con ellos, Raquel vino con las ovejas de su padre, porque ella las atendía. 10 Cuando Jacob vio a Raquel, la hija de Labán, el hermano de su madre, y las ovejas de Labán, el hermano de su madre, Jacob fue allí, rodó la piedra de la boca del pozo, y le dio agua al rebaño de Labán, el hermano de su madre. 11 Jacob besó a Raquel y lloró en voz alta. 12 Jacob le dijo a Raquel que él era pariente de su padre, y que él era hijo de Rebeca. Entonces ella corrió y se lo dijo a su padre. 13 Cuando Labán oyó las noticias acerca de Jacob el hijo de su hermana, él corrió a encontrarlo, lo abrazó, lo besó y lo llevó a su casa. Jacob le dijo a Labán todas estas cosas. 14 Labán le dijo: "Tú en verdad eres mi hueso y mi carne." Entonces Jacob se quedó con él por cerca de un mes. 15 Entonces Labán le dijo a Jacob: "Porque eres mi pariente, ¿deberías entonces servirme por nada? Dime, ¿qué sería tu paga?" 16 Ahora Labán tenía dos hijas. El nombre de la mayor era Lea, y el nombre de la menor era Raquel. 17 Los ojos de Lea eran tiernos, pero Raquel era hermosa en forma y apariencia. 18 Jacob amaba a Raquel, así que dijo: "Te serviré siete años por Raquel, tu hija menor." 19 Labán dijo: "Es mejor que te la dé a ti, que dársela a otro hombre. Quédate conmigo." 20 Así que Jacob sirvió por siete años por Raquel; y para él fueron como solo unos días, por el amor que le tenía a ella. 21 Entonces Jacob le dijo a Labán: "Dame a mi esposa, porque mis días han sido completados para poder casarme con ella." 22 Entonces Labán reunió a todos los hombres del lugar e hizo un banquete. 23 En la noche, Labán tomó a Lea su hija y se la llevó a Jacob, quien durmió con ella. 24 Labán dio a su sirvienta Zilpa a su hija Lea como sirvienta. 25 En la mañana, mira, ¡era Lea! Jacob le dijo a Labán: "¿Qué es esto que me has hecho? ¿No te serví yo por Raquel? ¿Por qué entonces me has engañado?" 26 Labán dijo: "No es nuestra costumbre dar a la hija menor antes que la primogénita. 27 Completa la semana matrimonial de esta hija, y te daremos la otra también a cambio de servirme por otros siete años." 28 Jacob así lo hizo, y completó la semana de Lea. Entonces Labán le dio a Raquel su hija también como esposa. 29 Labán también le dio a Bilha a su hija Raquel, para que fuera su sirvienta. 30 Así que Jacob se durmió con Raquel también, pero él amaba a Raquel más que a Lea. Entonces Jacob sirvió a Labán por otros siete años. 31 Él SEÑOR vio que Lea no era amada, así que Él abrió su vientre, pero Raquel era estéril. 32 Lea concibió y tuvo un hijo, y lo llamó Rubén. Pues ella dijo: "Porque el SEÑOR ha mirado mi aflicción; ahora seguramente mi esposo me amará." 33 Entonces ella concibió otra vez y tuvo un hijo. Ella dijo: "Porque El SEÑOR ha oído que yo no soy amada, Él, por lo tanto, me ha dado este hijo también," y ella llamó su nombre Simeón. 34 Entonces ella concibió otra vez y tuvo un hijo. Ella dijo: "Ahora esta vez mi esposo estará unido a mí, porque le he dado tres hijos." Entonces fue llamado Leví. 35 Ella concibió otra vez y tuvo un hijo. Ella dijo: "Esta vez alabaré al SEÑOR." Por lo tanto, ella llamó su nombre Judá; entonces dejó de tener hijos.

Genesis 29:1

la gente del este
Esto significa la gente de Padán Aram, que es una tierra al este de la tierra de Canaán.

y, mirad, tres rebaños de ovejas estaban allí cerca
La palabra "mirad" marca el comienzo de otro evento en la historia más amplia. Tu idioma puede tener una forma de hacer esto.

Porque de aquel pozo
"Pues a partir de ese pozo". Esta frase marca un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre cómo los pastores daban agua a los rebaños.

ellos daban agua
Los pastores daban agua o "los que cuidaban las ovejas daban agua"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

la boca del pozo
Aquí "boca" es una forma de referirse a una apertura. TA: "la apertura del pozo"

Genesis 29:4

Jacob les dijo
Jacob les dijo a los pastores

Hermanos míos
Esta es una forma educada de saludar a un extraño.

Labán, hijo de Nacor
Aquí "hijo" se refiere a un descendiente masculino. Otro posible significado es "Labán, el nieto de Nacor".

y, mira allí, Raquel su hija viene con las ovejas ¡Ahora mira! Raquel su hija viene con las ovejas

Genesis 29:7

es la mitad del día
"el sol todavía está alto en el cielo" o "el sol todavía brilla intensamente"

juntar a los rebaños Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "para que reúnas los rebaños" juntar

Esto significa reunirlos dentro de un cercado para que se queden a pasar la noche. El significado completo de esto se puede hacer explícito.

apacentarlas
Dejarlos comer hierba en el campo.

No podemos darles agua
"Nosotros tenemos que esperar para darles agua". Esto tiene que ver con el tiempo, no con el permiso.

hasta que todos los rebaños estén aquí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "hasta que los otros pastores reúnan sus rebaños"

de la boca del pozo Aquí "boca" es la manera de referirse a una abertura. TA: "desde el pozo" o "desde la abertura del pozo"

y le daremos agua a las ovejas luego nosotros le daremos agua a las ovejas

Genesis 29:9

el hermano de su madre
"su tío"

La boca del pozo
Aquí "boca" es una forma de referirse a una abertura. TA: "el pozo" o "la abertura del pozo"

Genesis 29:11

Jacob besó a Raquel
En el antiguo Medio Oriente, es común saludar a un familiar con un beso. Sin embargo, normalmente se hace entre hombres. Si su idioma tiene un saludo afectuoso para un familiar, úselo. Si no, usa lo que sea apropiado.

lloró en voz alta
Jacob llora porque es tan feliz. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser expresado de manera explícita.

él era pariente de su padre familiar con su padre

Genesis 29:13

el hijo de su hermana
su sobrino

lo abrazó le dió un abrazo

lo besó
En el antiguo Medio Oriente, es común saludar a un familiar con un beso. Sin embargo, normalmente se hace entre hombres. Si su idioma tiene un saludo afectuoso para un familiar, úselo. Si no, use lo que sea apropiado.

Jacob le dijo a Labán todas estas cosas
"luego Jacob le contó a Labán todo lo que le contó a Raquel"

mi hueso y mi carne Esta frase significa que están directamente relacionados. TA: "mi pariente" o "un miembro de mi familia"

Genesis 29:15

Porque eres mi pariente, ¿deberías entonces servirme por nada?
Labán usa una pregunta para enfatizar que debe pagarle a Jacob por trabajar para él. La pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Esto también ser expresado en forma positiva. TA: "Ciertamente es correcto que te pague por trabajar para mí aunque seas mi pariente".

Ahora Labán tenía
La palabra "ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Labán y sus hijas.

Los ojos de Lea eran tiernos Los posibles significados son 1) "Los ojos de Lea eran bonitos" o 2) "Los ojos de Lea eran claros"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Jacob amaba a Raquel
Aquí la palabra "amaba" se refiere a una atracción romántica entre un hombre y una mujer.

Genesis 29:19

que dársela a otro hombre en lugar de entregarla a otro hombre

y para él fueron como solo unos días Pero el tiempo le parecía ser sólo de unos días.

por el amor que le tenía a ella
a causa del amor que tenía por ella o "por su amor por ella"

Genesis 29:21

Dame a mi esposa, porque mis días han sido completados-- para poder casarme con ella La frase "han sido completados" puede ser expresado en forma activa. La afirmación es enfática. TA: ¡Dame a mi esposa para que pueda casarme con ella, ya que he completado el tiempo que tenía para trabajar para ti! "Dame a Raquel para que pueda casarme con ella, porque he trabajado siete años para ti!"

hizo un festín.
"preparó un banquete de bodas". Lo más probable es que Labán hiciera que otros prepararan la fiesta. TA: "hizo que otros prepararan un banquete de bodas"

Genesis 29:23

quien durmió con ella
"que tuvo relaciones sexuales con ella". Puede que necesites usar otras palabras más educadas aquí.

Labán también dio a Zilpa ... su sirvienta Aquí el autor da información de trasfondo sobre Labán dando Zilpa a Lea. Lo más probable es que le dio Zilpa a Lea antes de la boda.

Zilpa
Es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea.

mirad, ¡era Lea!
Jacob se sorprendió al ver que Leah estaba en la cama con él. La palabra "mira" muestra que Jacob estaba sorprendido por lo que vio.

¿Qué es esto que me has hecho a mí?
Jacob usa una pregunta para expresar su enojo y sorpresa. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡No puedo creer que me hayas hecho esto!"

¿Que no te serví por Raquel?
Jacob usa estas preguntas para expresar su dolor que Labán le había engañado. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Te serví durante siete años para casarme con Rachel!"

Genesis 29:26

No es nuestra costumbre dar
En nuestra familia nosotros no damos

Completa la semana matrimonial de esta hija Termina de celebrar la semana nupcial de Lea.

te daremos la otra también
El significado completo puede ser expresado de manera explícita. TA: "La próxima semana también te daremos Rachel"

Genesis 29:28

Jacob así lo hizo, y completó la semana de Lea
Jacob hizo lo que le pidió Labán y terminó de celebrar la semana nupcial de Lea

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Raquel.

Jacob se casó con Raquel
Jacob tuvo relaciones sexuales con Raquel. Puede que necesites usar otras palabras más educadas aquí. Vea cómo se traducen palabras similares en [Genesis 29:23].

él amaba a Raquel
Esto se refiere al amor romántico entre un hombre y una mujer.

Genesis 29:31

Lea no era amada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Jacob no amaba a Lea"

no era amada
Esto es una exageración para enfatizar que Jacob amó a Rachel más que a Lea. TA: "amada menos que Raquel"

Él hizo que ella quedara embarazada
Se dice que Dios hace que Lea pueda quedar embarazada como si Dios estuviera abriendo su vientre.

estaba sin hijos
no pudo quedar embarazada

Lea concibió y tuvó un hijo
Lea quedó embarazada y dio a luz un hijo

y lo llamó Rubén
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Rubén significa 'Mira, un hijo'"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Porque el SEÑOR ha mirado mi aflicción
Lea estaba experimentando dolor emocional porque Jacob la había rechazado. El sustantivo abstracto "aflicción" se puede expresar como un verbo. TA: "El Señor vio que estaba sufriendo"

Genesis 29:33

Entonces ella concibió Entonces Lea quedó embarazada

tuvo un hijo
dio a luz a un hijo

Porque Él SEÑOR ha escuchado que no soy amada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "El Señor ha escuchado que mi esposo no me ama"

llamó su nombre Simeón Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Simeón significa 'escuchado'" mi esposo estará unido a mí mi esposo me aceptará

porque le he dado tres hijos Yo he dado a luz tres hijos para él

fue llamado Leví
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Levi significa 'unido'"

Genesis 29:35

Ella concibió otra vez
Lea quedó embarazada otra vez

tuvo un hijo
dio a luz un hijo

ella llamó su nombre Judá
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Judá significa 'alabanza'".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Cuando Raquel vio que no le daba hijos a Jacob, Raquel envidió a su hermana. Ella le dijo a Jacob: "Dame hijos, o moriré." 2 El enojo de Jacob ardió contra Raquel. Él dijo: "¿Estoy yo en el lugar de Dios, quien te ha negado el tener hijos?" 3 Ella dijo: "Mira, ahí está mi sirvienta Bilha. Duerme con ella, para que ella dé a luz a niños sobre mis rodillas, y yo tendré hijos por ella." 4 Así que ella le dio a su sirvienta Bilha como esposa, y Jacob durmió con ella. 5 Bilha concibió y le dio un hijo a Jacob. 6 Entonces Raquel dijo: "Dios ha juzgado en mi favor. Él ciertamente ha escuchado mi voz y me ha dado un hijo." Por esta razón ella llamó su nombre Dan. 7 Bilha, la sirvienta de Raquel, concibió otra vez y le dio a Jacob un segundo hijo. 8 Raquel dijo: "Con poderosa lucha he peleado con mi hermana y he prevalecido." Ella lo llamó por nombre Neftalí. 9 Cuando Lea vio que había dejado de tener hijos, tomó a Zilpa, su sirvienta, y se la dio a Jacob como esposa. 10 Zilpa, la sirvienta de Lea, le dio a Jacob un hijo. 11 Lea dijo: "¡Esto es afortunado!" así que ella lo llamó por nombre Gad. 12 Entonces Zilpa, la sirvienta de Lea, le dio a Jacob un segundo hijo. 13 Lea dijo: "¡Estoy felíz! Porque las hijas me llamarán feliz." Así que ella le llamó Aser. 14 Rubén fue en los días de la cosecha de trigo y encontró mandrágoras en el campo. Él las trajo a su madre Lea. Entonces Raquel le dijo a Lea: "Dame algunas de las mandrágoras de tu hijo." 15 Lea le dijo a ella: "¿Es un asunto pequeño para ti, que me has quitado a mi esposo? ¿Acaso ahora me quieres quitar las mandrágoras de mi hijo también?" Raquel le dijo: "Entonces él dormirá contigo esta noche, a cambio de las mandrágoras de tu hijo." 16 Jacob vino del campo al anochecer. Lea salió a recibirlo y dijo: "Debes dormir conmigo esta noche, porque te he contratado con las mandrágoras de mi hijo." Así que Jacob durmió con Lea esa noche. 17 Dios escuchó a Lea, y ella concibió y le dio a Jacob un quinto hijo. 18 Lea dijo: "Dios me ha dado mi pago, porque le di mi sirvienta a mi esposo." Y lo llamó por nombre Isacar. 19 Lea concibió otra vez y le dio un sexto hijo a Jacob. 20 Lea dijo: "Dios me ha dado un buen regalo. Ahora mi esposo me honrará, porque le he dado seis hijos." Ella llamó su nombre Zabulón. 21 Luego dio a luz a una hija y la llamó Dina. 22 Dios se acordó de Raquel y la escuchó. Él hizo que ella quedara embarazada. 23 Ella concibió y dio a luz un hijo. Ella dijo: "Dios ha quitado mi vergüenza." 24 Ella llamó su nombre José, diciendo: "EL SEÑOR me ha añadido otro hijo." 25 Luego que Raquel había dado a luz a José, Jacob le dijo a Labán: "Envíame lejos, para que yo pueda ir a mi propio hogar y a mi país. 26 Dame a mis esposas y a mis hijos por quienes te he servido, y déjame ir, porque tú sabes el servicio que te he dado." 27 Labán le dijo: "Si ahora he encontrado favor en tus ojos, espera, porque he conocido por adivinación que El SEÑOR me ha bendecido por tu causa." 28 Entonces él dijo: "Nombra tus salario, y yo te lo pagaré." 29 Jacob le dijo: "Tú sabes cómo te he servido, y cómo le ha ido a tu ganado conmigo. 30 Porque tenías poco antes de que yo viniera, y ha aumentado abundantemente. EL SEÑOR te ha bendecido en dondequiera que yo trabajé. Ahora, ¿cuándo proveeré yo para mi propia casa también?" 31 Entonces Labán dijo: "¿Qué te pagaré?" Jacob dijo: "Tú no me darás nada. Si haces esto por mí, yo volveré a alimentar tu rebaño y a cuidarlo. 32 Déjame caminar entre tu rebaño hoy, sacando de él toda oveja moteada y manchada, y cada oveja negra entre ellas, y las manchadas y moteadas entre las cabras. Estas serán mi salario. 33 Mi integridad testificará por mí luego, cuando tú vengas a revisar mi salario. Cada una que no sea moteada o manchada entre las cabras, y negras entre las ovejas, si alguna es encontrada conmigo, será considerada robada." 34 Labán dijo: "De acuerdo. Que sea de acuerdo a tu palabra." 35 Ese día Labán removió los cabros que eran rayados y manchados, y todas las cabras que eran moteadas y manchadas, cada una que tenía blanco en ella, y todas las ovejas negras entre las ovejas, y las dio en manos de sus hijos. 36 Labán también puso tres días de jornada entre él y Jacob. Así que Jacob se quedó atendiendo el resto de los rebaños de Labán. 37 Jacob tomó ramas recién cortadas de álamo, y del almendro y del plátano, y peló rayas blancas en ellas, e hizo que la madera blanca de adentro pareciera que estaba en los palos. 38 Entonces él puso los palos que había pelado frente a los rebaños, en frente de los abrevaderos donde venían a beber. Ellos concebían cuando venían a beber. 39 Los rebaños se reproducían en frente de los palos, y los rebaños producían crías rayadas, moteadas y manchadas. 40 Jacob separó estos corderos, pero hizo que el resto de ellos miraran hacia los animales rayados y todas las ovejas negras en el rebaño de Labán. Entonces él separó sus rebaños para sí mismo y no los juntó con los rebaños de Labán. 41 Cuando las ovejas más fuertes en el rebaño se estaban reproduciendo, entonces Jacob ponía los palos en los abrevaderos frente a los ojos del rebaño, para que concibieran entre los palos. 42 Pero cuando los animales mas débiles en el rebaño venían, él no les ponía los palos al frente de ellos. Así que los animales más débiles eran de Labán, y los mas fuertes eran de Jacob. 43 El hombre se volvió muy próspero. Tenía grandes rebaños, mujeres sirvientes y hombres sirvientes, y camellos y burros.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 30:1

Cuando Raquel vio que no le daba hijos a Jacob Cuando Raquel se dio cuenta de que no podía quedar embarazada.

o moriré
Raquel está exagerando para mostrar cuán molesta está por no tener hijos. TA: "Me sentiré completamente sin valor"

Dame hijos
Provoca que me quede embarazada

El enojo de Jacob ardía contra Raquel
Se habla de la ira de Jacob como si fuera un fuego. Traducción alterna: "Jacob estaba muy enojado con Raquel" ¿Estoy yo en lugar de Dios, quien te ha guardado de tener hijos?

Esta es una pregunta retórica que Jacob usa para regañar a Raquel. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. TA: "¡No soy Dios! ¡No soy el que te impide tener hijos!"

Genesis 30:3

Ella dijo
Raquel dijo

Mira
Mira o "Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que voy a decirte"

ahí está mi sirvienta Bilha... y yo tenga hijos por ella
En aquel tiempo, esta era una forma aceptable para que una mujer estéril tuviera hijos que legalmente le pertenecían. El significado completo de esto puede ser expresado de manera explícita.

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Raquel. Vea cómo fue traducido este nombre en [Genesis 29:29].

durmió con ella
Esta es una forma educada de hablar sobre las relaciones sexuales. Es posible que necesite usar diferentes palabras en su idioma. TA: "Tener relaciones sexuales con ella"

en mis rodillas
Esta es una manera de decir que el niño al que Bilhah da a luz pertenecerá a Raquel. TA: "para mí" yo tenga hijos por ella

y así me hará tener hijos.

Jacob durmió con ella.
Esta es una forma educada de hablar sobre las relaciones sexuales. Es posible que necesite usar diferentes palabras en su idioma. TA: "Jacob tuvo relaciones sexuales con ella"

Genesis 30:5

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Rachel. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en Genesis 29:29.

le dio un hijo a Jacob dio a luz un hijo para Jacob

ella llamó su nombre Raquel le dio el nombre

llamó su nombre Dan
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Dan significa 'él juzgó'"

Genesis 30:7

Bilha, ... concibió otra vez
Bilha ... volvió a embarazarse

le dio a Jacob un segundo hijo
dio a luz un segundo hijo para Jacob

Con poderosa lucha he peleado con mi hermana
La frase "con poderosa lucha he peleado" es una expresión idiomática usada para énfasis. También es una metáfora que habla de los intentos de Raquel de tener un hijo, como su hermana, como si estuviera teniendo una pelea física con Lea. TA: "He tenido una gran lucha para tener hijos como mi hermana mayor, Lea"

he prevalecido
"Yo he ganado" o "Yo he tenido éxito"

lo llamó por nombre Neftalí
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Neftalí significa 'mi lucha'".

Genesis 30:9

Cuando Lea vio que
Cuando Lea se dio cuenta que

tomó a Zilpa, su sirvienta, y se la dio a Jacob como esposa le dio Zilpa, su sirvienta, a Jacob como una esposa

Zilpa
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea. Ver como tradujo esto en [Genesis 29:24].

le dio a Jacob un hijo dio a luz un hijo a Jacob

¡Esto es afortunado!
¡Cuán afortunado! o ¡Qué suerte!

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo llamó por nombre Gad
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Gad significa 'afortunado'".

Genesis 30:12

Zilpa
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea. Ver cómo fue traducido este nombre en [Genesis 29:24].

le dio a Jacob un segundo hijo
dio a luz a un segundo hijo para Jacob

¡Estoy felíz!
¡Qué bienaventurada soy! o "¡Qué feliz soy!"

las hijas
las mujeres o "las mujeres jóvenes"

le llamó Aser
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Aser significa 'feliz'"

Genesis 30:14

Rubén fue
Rubén salió

en los días de la cosecha de trigo Aquí la frase "en los días de" es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a la temporada o época del año. TA: "en la época del año de la cosecha de trigo" o "durante la cosecha de trigo"

mandrágoras
Esta es una fruta que se dice que aumenta la fertilidad y el deseo de dormir con el amante. TA: "fruta del amor"

¿Es un asunto pequeño para ti, que me has quitado a mi esposo?
¿No te importa ... mi marido? Esta es una pregunta retórica usada para regañar a Raquel. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Ya es bastante malo ... mi marido".

¿Acaso ahora me quieres ... también?
Esta es una pregunta retórica, usada para regañar a Raquel. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Ahora quieres ... también!"

Entonces el dormirá contigo
Aquí "dormirá contigo" es un eufemismo. TA: "Entonces Jacob tendrá relaciones sexuales contigo"

Genesis 30:16

Debes dormir conmigo Aquí "dormir" es un eufemismo. TA: "Debes tener relaciones sexuales conmigo" las mandrágoras de mi hijo Por el precio de las mandrágoras de mi hijo. Vea cómo tradujo "mandrágora" en [Genesis 30:14].

ella concibió
ella quedó embarazada

le dio a Jacob un quinto hijo dio a luz un quinto hijo a Jacob

Dios me ha dado mi pago
Se habla de que Dios recompensa a Lea como si fuera un jefe que paga los salarios a alguien que trabaja para él. TA: "Dios me ha dado lo debido" o "Dios me ha recompensado" lo llamó por nombre Isacar.

Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Isacar significa 'hay una recompensa'".

Genesis 30:19

Lea concibió otra vez
Lea quedó embarazada otra vez

le dio un sexto hijo a Jacob dio a luz un sexto hijo para Jacob

Ella llamó su nombre Zabulón
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Zabulón significa 'honor'".

la llamó Dina
Este es el nombre de la hija de Lea.

Genesis 30:22

Dios se acordó de Raquel y la escuchó
La frase "se acordó" significa recordar. Esto no significa que Dios se olvidó de Raquel. Significa que él consideró su petición. TA: "Dios consideró a Raquel y le concedió lo que quería"

Dios ha quitado mi vergüenza
Se dice que Dios hace que Raquel ya no se sienta avergonzada como si "vergüenza" fuera un objeto que esa persona pudiera quitarle a otra persona. El sustantivo abstracto "vergüenza" puede ser declarado como "avergonzado". TA: "Dios mandó que ya no me sienta avergonzada"

Ella llamó por nombre José
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre José significa 'Él puede añadir'".

El SEÑOR me ha añadido otro hijo
Los primeros hijos de Raquel fueron a través de su sirvienta Bilha.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 30:25

Luego que Raquel había dado a luz a José Después Raquel dio a luz a José que yo pueda ir para que pueda ir

tú sabes el servicio que te he dado Jacob le está recordando a Labán su contrato.)

Genesis 30:27

Labán le dijo
Labán le dijo a Jacob

Si ahora he encontrado favor en tus ojos
Los ojos representan la vista, y la vista representa pensamientos o juicio. TA: "Si he encontrado favor contigo" o "Si estás contento conmigo"

encontrado favor
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa que alguien es aprobado por alguien más.

espera, porque
por favor quédate, porque

porque he divinado que
He descubierto por mis propias prácticas espirituales y mágicas.

por tu causa debido a ti

Nombra tus pagos Esto puede ser expresado de forma más explícita. TA: "Díme cuánto debo pagarte para mantenerte aquí"

Genesis 30:29

Jacob le dijo
Jacob le dijo a Labán

como le ha ido a tu ganado conmigo cuán bien le ha ido a tu ganado desde que empecé a cuidarlos

Porque tenías poco antes de que yo viniera tus ganados eran pequeños antes que trabajase para ti.

y ha aumentado abundantemente
Pero ahora tu riqueza ha aumentado mucho

Ahora, ¿cuándo proveeré yo en mi propia casa también?
"Ahora, ¿cuándo voy a cuidar de mi propia familia?". Jacob usa una pregunta para enfatizar que quiere comenzar a proveer para su propia familia. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una afirmación. TA: "¡Ahora yo quiero cuidar de mi familia!"

Genesis 30:31

¿Qué te pagaré?
¿Qué puedo pagarte o "qué puedo darte"? Esto puede ser expresado de manera explícita. TA: "¿Qué puedo pagarte para que te quedes y trabajes para mí?"

Si haces esto por mí
La palabra de conexión "Si" puede usarse al principio para mostrar que lo que Jacob está a punto de decir contrasta con lo que acaba de decir. TA: "Pero si haces esto por mí" alimentar tu ganado y a cuidarlo alimenta y cuida tu rebaño sacando de él toda oveja moteada y manchada, y cada negra entre las ovejas, y las manchadas y moteadas entre las cabras removiendo cada oveja con manchas, cada oveja negra y cada cabra con manchas.

Estas serán mi pago
Este será el costo de mantenerme aquí

Genesis 30:33

Mi integridad testificará por mi luego
La palabra "integridad" significa "honestidad". Esto habla de integridad como si fuera una persona que pudiera testificar a favor o en contra de otra persona. TA: "Y luego sabrás si he sido honesto contigo o no"

Cada una que no sea moteada o manchada entre las cabras, y negras entre las ovejas, si alguna es encontrada conmigo, será considerada robada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Si encuentras alguna cabra sin manchas o alguna oveja que no sea negra, puedes considerarlas como robadas"

Que sea de acuerdo a tu palabra
"Que sea como dices" o "Nosotros haremos lo que has dicho"

Genesis 30:35

que eran rayados y manchados que tenían rayas y manchas que eran moteadas y manchadas que eran manchadas

cada una que tenía blanco en ella cada cabra que tenía algo de blanco en ella todas las ovejas negras entre las ovejas todas las ovejas negras.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

las dio en manos
Aquí "manos" significa control o cuidado. TA: "hizo que sus hijos los cuidaran"

Genesis 30:37

ramas recién cortadas de álamo, y del almendro y del plátano Estos son todos los árboles con madera blanca.

peló rayas blancas en ellas, y hizo que la madera blanca de adentro pareciera que estaba en los palos Se desprendieron trozos de corteza para que se viera la madera blanca debajo.

los canales de agua Recipientes largos abiertos para contener agua para que los animales beban

Genesis 30:39

los rebaños producían crías
Los animales de los rebaños concebidos o "Los animales apareados".

producían crías rayadas, moteadas y manchadas.
dio a luz a bebés con rayas y manchas.

Jacob separó
Eso puede ser expresado de manera explícita que esto sucedió durante varios años. TA: "Durante los años siguientes, Jacob separó" sus rostros hacia mirar hacia

él separó sus rebaños y ya no los mezcló más él dispuso sus rebaños aparte

Genesis 30:41

frente a los ojos de los rebaños Aquí los "ojos" del rebaño representan a las ovejas y enfatizan lo que ven. TA: "para que el rebaño pueda verlos") entre los palos en frente de los palos

los animales débiles
los animales frágiles

Entonces los animales débiles eran de Labán, y los fuertes eran de Jacob
"Así que la descendencia más débil pertenecía a Labán, mientras que la descendencia más fuerte pertenecía a Jacob". Esto puede ser expresada de manera más explícita. TA: "Así que la descendencia más débil no tenía rayas o manchas y pertenecía a Labán, mientras que la descendencia más fuerte tenía rayas o manchas y pertenecía a Jacob"

Genesis 30:43

El hombre
Jacob

se volvió muy próspero
"prosperó en gran medida" o "se hizo muy rico"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 Ahora, Jacob escuchó las palabras de los hijos de Labán, que ellos dijeron: "Jacob ha tomado todo lo que era de nuestro padre, y es de las posesiones de nuestro padre que él ha obtenido toda esta riqueza." 2 Jacob vio la mirada del rostro de Labán. El vio que su actitud hacia él había cambiado. 3 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Jacob: "Vuelve a la tierra de tus padres y a tus parientes y Yo estaré contigo." 4 Jacob envió y llamó a Raquel y a Lea al campo de su rebaño 5 y les dijo: "Yo he visto que la actitud de su padre hacia mí ha cambiado, pero el Dios de mi padre ha estado conmigo. 6 Ustedes saben que es con todas mis fuerzas que yo he servido a su padre. 7 Su padre me ha engañado y cambiado mi sueldo diez veces, pero Dios no le ha permitido hacerme daño. 8 Si él decía: 'Los animales moteados serán tu salario,' entonces todo el rebaño daba crías moteadas. Si él decía: 'Las rayadas serán tu salario,' entonces todo el rebaño daba crías rayadas. 9 De esta manera Dios ha tomado los animales de su padre y me los ha dado a mí. 10 En una ocasión durante la temporada de apareamiento, yo vi en un sueño chivos que se apareaban con el rebaño. Los chivos eran rayados, moteados y manchados. 11 El ángel de Dios me dijo en el sueño: 'Jacob.' Yo dije: 'Aquí estoy.' 12 El dijo: 'Alza tus ojos y mira todos los chivos que se están apareando con el rebaño. Ellos son rayados, moteados y manchados, porque Yo he visto todo lo que Labán te está haciendo. 13 Yo soy el Dios de Betel, donde tú ungiste un pilar, donde tú Me hiciste un voto. Ahora, levántate y deja esta tierra y regresa a la tierra donde naciste.'" 14 Raquel y Lea respondieron y le dijeron: "¿Hay alguna porción o herencia para nosotras en la casa de nuestro padre? 15 ¿Acaso no somos tratadas por él como extranjeras? Porque él nos ha vendido y también ha devorado completamente nuestro dinero. 16 Pues todas las riquezas que Dios le ha quitado a nuestro padre son ahora nuestras y de nuestros hijos. Ahora entonces, lo que sea que Dios te haya dicho, hazlo." 17 Entonces Jacob se levantó y colocó a sus hijos y a sus esposas sobre camellos. 18 Él dirigió todo su ganado delante de él, con toda su propiedad, incluyendo el ganado que él había adquirido en Padán Aram. Entonces él partió para ir a su padre Isaac a la tierra de Canaán. 19 Cuando Labán había salido a trasquilar sus ovejas, Raquel robó los dioses domésticos de su padre. 20 Jacob también engañó a Labán el arameo al no decirle que se iba. 21 Así que huyó con todo lo que tenía y rápidamente cruzó el Río, y se dirigió a la región montañosa de Galaad. 22 Al tercer día le fue dicho a Labán que Jacob había huído. 23 Así que él tomó a sus parientes con él para perseguirlo por siete días de viaje. Él lo alcanzó en la región montañosa de Galaad. 24 Ahora Dios vino a Labán el arameo en un sueño durante la noche y le dijo: "Cuídate de no hablarle a Jacob ni bien ni mal." 25 Labán alcanzó a Jacob. Ahora Jacob había colocado su tienda en la zona montañosa. Labán también acampó con sus parientes en la zona montañosa de Galaad. 26 Labán le dijo a Jacob: "¿Qué has hecho, que me has engañado y te has llevado a mis hijas como si fueran prisioneras de guerra? 27 ¿Por qué huiste secretamente y me engañaste y no me dijiste? Yo te hubiera despedido con celebración y con canciones, con panderos y arpas. 28 No me permitiste despedir con besos a mis nietos y mis hijas. Ahora has obrado neciamente. 29 Está en mi poder hacerte daño, pero el Dios de tu padre me habló anoche y dijo: 'Cuídate de no hablarle a Jacob ni bien ni mal.' 30 Ahora te has ido porque anhelaste regresar a la casa de tu padre. Pero, ¿por qué robaste mis dioses? 31 Jacob contestó y dijo a Labán: "Porque tuve miedo y pensé que tú me quitarías a tus hijas por la fuerza es que yo me fui secretamente. 32 Quien haya tomado tus dioses no continuará con vida. En la presencia de nuestros parientes, identifica cualquier cosa que yo tenga que sea tuya y tómala." Porque Jacob no sabía que Raquel los había robado. 33 Labán fue a la tienda de Jacob, a la tienda de Lea y a la tienda de las dos sirvientas, pero no los encontró. Él salió de la tienda de Lea y entró en la de Raquel. 34 Ahora Raquel había tomado los dioses domésticos, los colocó en un sillín de camello y se sentó sobre ellos. Labán buscó por toda la tienda pero no los encontró. 35 Ella dijo a su padre: "No se enoje, mi señor, si no me levanto frente a usted, es que yo estoy en mi período menstrual." Así que él buscó pero no encontró sus dioses domésticos. 36 Jacob estaba enojado y discutió con Labán. Él le dijo: "¿Cuál es mi ofensa? ¿Cuál es mi pecado, que me has perseguido acaloradamente? 37 Pues tú has buscado en todas mis posesiones. ¿Qué has encontrado de todos tus bienes domésticos? Colócalos aquí frente a nuestros parientes, para que ellos puedan juzgar entre nosotros dos. 38 Durante veinte años yo he estado contigo. Ni tus ovejas ni tus cabras han abortado ni he comido ningún carnero de tus rebaños. 39 Lo que fue desgarrado por las bestias no lo traje ante ti. En su lugar, yo asumí la pérdida. Siempre me hiciste pagar por cada animal perdido, fuera robado durante el día o durante la noche. 40 Allí estaba, en el día el calor me consumía y me helaba durante la noche y no dormía. 41 Estos veinte años yo he estado en tu casa. Yo trabajé catorce años por tus dos hijas y seis años por tu rebaño. Has cambiado mi salario diez veces. 42 Si no fuera porque el Dios de mi padre, el Dios de Abraham y al que teme Isaac, estuviera conmigo, seguramente me habrías despedido con las manos vacías. Dios ha visto mi opresión y cuan duro he trabajado y Él te reprendió anoche." 43 Labán respondió y le dijo a Jacob: "Las hijas son mis hijas, los nietos son mis nietos y los rebaños son mis rebaños. Todo lo que ves es mío. ¿Pero qué puedo hacer hoy a estas mis hijas o a sus hijos que ellas han parido? 44 Así que ahora, hagamos un pacto, tú y yo, y que sea un testimonio entre tú y yo." 45 Así que Jacob tomó una piedra y la estableció como un pilar. 46 Jacob dijo a sus parientes: "Junten piedras." Así que ellos tomaron piedras e hicieron una pila. Entonces ellos comieron allí al lado de la pila. 47 Labán lo llamó Jegar Sahaduta, pero Jacob lo llamó Galed. 48 Labán dijo: "Esta pila es un testimonio entre tú y yo hoy." Por lo tanto, su nombre será llamado Galed. 49 También es llamado Mizpa, porque Labán dijo: "Que el SEÑOR vigile entre tú y yo, cuando estemos fuera de la vista uno del otro. 50 Si tú maltratas a mis hijas o si tomas esposas además de mis hijas, aunque nadie más esté con nosotros, mira, Dios es testigo entre tú y yo." 51 Labán dijo a Jacob: "Mira esta pila y mira este pilar, que yo he puesto entre tú y yo. 52 Esta pila es testigo y este pilar es testigo, de que yo no pasaré más allá de esta pila hacia ti y que tú no pasarás de esta pila hacia mí para hacer daño. 53 Que el Dios de Abraham, y el Dios de Nacor, los dioses de su padre, juzguen entre nosotros." Jacob juró por el que temía su padre Isaac. 54 Jacob ofreció un sacrificio en la montaña y llamó a sus parientes a comer una comida. Ellos comieron y pasaron la noche entera en la montaña. 55 Temprano en la mañana Labán se levantó, besó a sus nietos y a sus hijas y los bendijo. Entonces Labán se fue y regresó a su casa.

Genesis 31:1

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en la línea principal de la historia. Aquí el autor comienza a contar una nueva parte de la historia.

Jacob escuchó las palabras de los hijos de Labán, ellos dijeron
Jacob escuchó que los hijos de Labán decían

Jacob ha tomado todo lo que era de nuestro padre
Los hijos de Labán estaban exagerando porque estaban enojados. TA: "Todo lo que Jacob ha tomado pertenece a nuestro padre"

Jacob vio la apariencia del rostro de Labán. El vio que su actitud hacia él había cambiado.
Estas dos oraciones significan básicamente lo mismo. La segunda explica la mirada que Jacob vio en el rostro de Labán. TA: "Jacob notó que Labán ya no estaba satisfecho con él"

tus padres tu padre Isaac y tu abuelo Abraham

Genesis 31:4

Jacob envió y llamó a Raquel y a Lea para el campo de su rebaño Jacob envió a Raquel y Lea y les dijo que se encontraran con él en el campo con los rebaños.

y les dijo
Puedes comenzar una nueva oración aquí. TA: "Él les dijo"

Yo he visto que la actitud de su padre hacia mi ha cambiado
He notado que tu padre ya no está contento conmigo

Ustedes saben que es con todas mis fuerzas que yo he servido a su padre
La palabra "ustedes" aquí se refiere tanto a Raquel como a Lea. También añade énfasis. TA: "Ustedes mismas saben que he servido a su padre con todas mis fuerzas"

Genesis 31:7

me ha engañado me ha mentido o "no me ha tratado con justicia"

tu salario
lo que dijo que me pagaría

hacerme daño
Los posibles significados son 1) daño físico o 2) para causar que Jacob sufra de alguna manera.

Los animales moteados
Los animales con manchas

el rebaño daba crías el rebaño daba a luz a las rayadas

Los animales con rayas

De esa manera Dios ha tomado los animales de su padre para dármelos a mí
Así es como Dios me dio los animales de tu padre

Genesis 31:10

Información General
Jacob continúa su historia a sus esposas Lea y Raquel

En una ocasión durante la temporada de apareamiento Durante la época de reproducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

apareaban con el rebaño Aquí "rebaño" representa sólo las cabras hembras. TA: "aparearse con las cabras del rebaño"

eran rayados, moteados y manchados tenía rayas, manchas pequeñas y manchas grandes.

ángel de Dios
Los posibles significados son 1) Dios mismo apareció como un hombre o 2) uno de los mensajeros de Dios apareció. Como la frase no se comprende bien, es mejor traducirla simplemente como "el ángel de Dios", usando la palabra normal que usas para "ángel".

Yo dije
Y yo respondí

Aquí estoy
"Sí, estoy escuchando" o "Sí, ¿qué es?" Vea cómo tradujo esto en [Genesis 22:1].

Genesis 31:12

Información General
El ángel del Señor continúa hablando a Jacob ([Genesis 31:10]).

alza tus ojos
Esta es una forma de decir "Busca".

que se están apareando con el rebaño Aquí "rebaño" significa sólo las cabras hembras. TA: "que se están reproduciendo con las cabras hembras del rebaño" son rayados, moteados y manchados tienen rayas y manchas

donde tu ungiste una columna
Jacob vertió aceite sobre el pilar para dedicarlo a Dios.

la tierra donde naciste
la tierra de tu nacimiento

Genesis 31:14

Raquel y Lea respondieron diciéndole
Esto no significa que hayan hablado al mismo tiempo. Destaca que coincidían entre sí.

¿Hay alguna porción o herencia para nosotras en la casa de nuestro padre?
Raquel y Lea usan una pregunta para enfatizar que no hay nada más que su padre pueda darles. TA: "¡No nos queda absolutamente nada que heredar de nuestro padre!"

¿Acaso no somos tratadas por él como extranjeras?
Usan una pregunta para mostrar su enojo sobre cómo los trata su padre. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "¡Nuestro padre nos trata como a mujeres extranjeras en lugar de hijas!"

Él nos vendió
Esto puede hacerse más explícito. TA: "Él nos ha vendido para su propio beneficio" también devoró completamente nuestro dinero Labán, que utiliza completamente el dinero que debería haberle dado a sus hijas, se dice como si fuera una bestia salvaje que se comía el dinero como si fuera comida. TA: "Él usó nuestro dinero por completo" es ahora nuestra y de nuestros hijos nos pertenece a nosotros y a nuestros hijos

Ahora entonces
Aquí "Ahora" no significa "en este momento", sino que se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

lo que sea que Dios te haya dicho, hazlo
haz todo lo que Dios te ha dicho

Genesis 31:17

sus hijos
Jacob se llevó a todos sus hijos. Solo menciona a los hijos porque son importantes como sus herederos. TA: "sus hijos"

Él comenzó a dirigir todo su ganado
Él condujo todo su ganado. Aquí el "ganado" se refiere a todos sus animales domesticados.

el ganado y las posesiones que había adquirido en Padan-aran
y la otra manada de ganado de la cual tomó posesión cuando estaba en Padan-Aran

Él partió a Isaac su padre, a la tierra de Canaán.
Fue a la tierra de Canaán, donde vivía su padre Isaac.

Genesis 31:19

Ahora Labán salió a esquilar sus ovejas Cuando Labán salió a cortar la lana de las ovejas

el río
Esto se refiere al río Eufrates se dirigió a viajó hacia

la región montañosa de Galaad
"las montañas de Galaad" o "Monte de Galaad"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 31:22

Al tercer día
Era costumbre judía contar el día de salida como el primer día. TA: "Dos días después de que se habían ido"

le fue dicho a Labán Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "alguien le dijo a Labán"

que Jacob había escapado Solo se menciona a Jacob porque él es el líder de la familia. Puede ser expresado de manera explícita que su familia se fue con él. TA: "que Jacob había huido con sus esposas e hijos"

Así que él tomó
Así que Labán tomó

perseguirlo lo persiguió

por siete días de viaje
Laban tardó siete días caminando para alcanzar a Jacob.

Él lo alcanzó
Él lo atrapó

Genesis 31:24

Ahora Dios vino a Labán el arameo en un sueño durante la noche
La palabra "ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Labán. TA: "Esa noche, Dios vino a Labán en un sueño"

Cuidado de hablar a Jacob algún bien o mal
La frase "bien o mal" en conjunto significa "cualquier cosa". TA: "No digas nada para tratar de evitar que Jacob se vaya"

Labán alcanzó a Jacob. Ahora Jacob había colocado su tienda en la zona montañosa. Labán y sus parientes también acamparon en la zona montañosa de Galaad.
La palabra "ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Jacob y Labán. TA: "Cuando Labán alcanzó a Jacob, Jacob había establecido un campamento en la región montañosa. Luego Labán y sus parientes también acamparon en la región montañosa de Galaad"

Genesis 31:26

te has llevado a mis hijas como si fueran prisioneras de guerra Labán habla de que Jacob se llevó a su familia con él a la tierra de Canaán, como si Jacob los tomara como prisioneros, después de una batalla y los obligara a ir con él. Labán está exagerando porque está enojado y está tratando de hacer que Jacob se sienta culpable por lo que hizo.

te escapaste secretamente escapar en secreto

con celebración con gozo

con tambores y arpas Estos instrumentos representan la música. TA: "y con música" tambor

un instrumento musical con una cabeza como un tambor que puede ser golpeado y con piezas de metal alrededor del lado que suenan cuando se agita el instrumento

besos de despedida a mis nietos Aquí "nietos" incluiría a todos los nietos, ya sean hombres o mujeres. TA: "besar a mis nietos"

Ahora neciamente has hecho
tý has actuado neciamente

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que continua.

Genesis 31:29

Está en mi poder hacerte daño
La palabra "hacerte" es plural y se refiere a todos con Jacob. TA: "Tengo suficientes personas conmigo para hacerles daño a todos"

Cuídate de hablar a Jacob algún bien o mal Las palabras "bien o mal" juntas significan "cualquier cosa". Vea cómo tradujo esto en [Genesis 31:24]. TA: "No digas nada para tratar de evitar que Jacob se vaya"

te vas
Este "te" es singular y se refiere a Jacob.

la casa de tu padre Aquí "casa" significa familia. TA: "estar en casa con tu padre y el resto de tu familia"

mis Dioses mis ídolos

Genesis 31:31

Me escapé secretamente porque yo tuve miedo y pensé que me quitarías a tus hijas por la fuerza
Me fui en secreto porque temía que me quitaras a tus hijas por la fuerza

Quien haya tomado tus dioses no continuará con vida Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. TA: "Mataremos a quien haya robado a tus dioses"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

En presencia de nuestros parientes
La palabra "nuestros" se refiere a los familiares de Jacob e incluye a los familiares de Labán. Todos los familiares vigilarán para asegurarse de que todo sea justo y honesto.

identifica cualquier cosa que yo tenga que sea tuyo y tómalo Busca cualquier cosa que tengamos que sea tuyo y tómalo.

Pero Jacob no sabía que Raquel los había robado Esto cambia de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Jacob.

Genesis 31:33

dos de sus sirvientas Esto se refiere a Zilpa y Bilha.

pero no los encontró
él no encontró los ídolos.

Genesis 31:34

Ahora Raquel... de su
La palabra "ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Raquel.

sillín
un asiento colocado en la espalda de un animal para que una persona pueda montar en él

mi señor
Llamar a alguien "mi señor" es una forma de honrarlo.

si no me levanto frente a usted porque soy incapaz de pararme en tu presencia es que yo estoy en mi periodo menstrual Esto se refiere al tiempo del mes en que una mujer sangra de su vientre.

Genesis 31:36

Él le dijo
Jacob le dijo a Labán

¿Cuál es mi ofensa? ¿Cuál es mi pecado por el cual acaloradamente me persigues?
Las frases "Cuál es mi ofensa" y "Cuál es mi pecado" significan básicamente lo mismo. Jacob le está pidiendo a Labán que le cuente lo que hizo mal. TA: "¿Qué he hecho mal para que me persigas así?"

acaloradamente me persigues
Aquí la palabra "acaloradamente" significa que Labán persiguió a Jacob con la intención de capturarlo.

¿Encontraste los dioses de tu familia?
¿Qué has encontrado que te pertenece?

Colócalos aquí frente a nuestros parientes Aquí la palabra "nuestros" se refiere a los familiares de Jacob e incluye a los familiares de Labán. TA: "Coloque todo lo que haya encontrado frente a nuestros familiares"

ellos puedan juzgar entre nosotros dos Aquí "nosotros dos" se refiere a Jacob y Labán. La frase "juzgar entre" significa decidir qué persona tiene razón en una disputa. TA: "ellos pueden juzgar entre nosotros dos"

Genesis 31:38

Información General
Jacob continua hablando a Labán

veinte años
20 años

ovejas oveja hembra

ni... abortaron
Esto significa que no han tenido un embarazo antes de tiempo e inesperadamente con el cordero o el cabrito nacido muerto.

Lo rasgado por las bestias no lo traje ante ti
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "Cuando un animal salvaje mató a uno de tus animales, no te lo traje"

En su lugar, yo asumí la pérdida
Para que Jacob contara los animales muertos de Labán como una pérdida de su propio rebaño, se habla de él como si fuera una carga que él cargaría sobre sus hombros. TA: "En lugar de contarlo como una pérdida de su rebaño, lo conté como una pérdida de mi rebaño"

Allí estaba, en el día el calor me consumía y me helaba durante la noche
Se habla del sufrimiento en las temperaturas cálidas y frías como si las temperaturas fueran animales que comían a Jacob. TA: "Me quedé con sus rebaños incluso durante la parte más calurosa del día y la parte más fría de la noche"

Genesis 31:41

Información General
Jacob continúa hablando a Labán.

Esos veinte años
Esos últimos 20 años

catorce años
14 años

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Haz cambiado mi salario diez veces
Cambió lo que dijo que me pagaría diez veces. Vea cómo tradujo "mi salario" en [Genesis 31:7].

Si no fuera por el Dios de mi padre; el Dios de Abraham y al que teme Isaac, que estuvo conmigo Jacob se refiere al mismo Dios, no a tres dioses diferentes. TA: "Si el Dios de Abraham e Isaac, mi padre, no hubiera estado conmigo"

el Dios de mi padre Aquí la palabra "padre" se refiere a su pariente, Isaac.

al que teme Isaac
Aquí, la palabra "teme" se refiere al "temor del Señor", que significa respetarlo profundamente y mostrar ese respeto al obedecerlo.

manos vacías
Esto significa no tener nada. TA: "con absolutamente nada"

Dios ha visto mi opresión y cuan duro he trabajado
El sustantivo abstracto "opresión" puede ser declarado como "oprimiste". TA: "Dios ha visto cuánto trabajé y cómo me oprimiste"

Genesis 31:43

¿Pero que puedo hacer hoy por mis hijas o por sus hijos que le han nacido?
Labán usa una pregunta para enfatizar que no hay nada que pueda hacer. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Pero, no hay nada que pueda hacer para que mis hijas y nietos vuelvan conmigo".

que sea testigo
Aquí la palabra "testigo" no se refiere a una persona, sino que se usa en sentido figurado y se refiere al pacto que hacen Jacob y Labán. Se habla del pacto como si fuera una persona que está allí cuando ellos aceptan actuar pacíficamente uno con el otro.

Genesis 31:45

pilar
Esto significa que simplemente se colocó una piedra grande de punta para marcar el lugar donde ocurrió este evento importante.

hicieron una pila
los apilan uno encima del otro

Entonces ellos se sentaron junto a la pila
Comer juntos era una parte de hacer el pacto entre sí. El significado completo de esto puede ser expresado de manera explícita.

Jegar Sahduta
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Jegar Sahduta significa 'montón de testigos' en el lenguaje de Labán".

Galaad
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Galeed significa 'montón de testigos' en el lenguaje de Jacob

Genesis 31:48

Esta pila es testimonio entre tú y yo Las piedras en realidad no dan testimonio como persona. TA: "Esta pila será un recordatorio entre tú y yo"

Galaad
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Galaad significa 'montón de testigos' en el lenguaje de Jacob. Vea cómo tradujo esto en [Genesis 31:47].

Mizpa
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Mizpah significa 'atalaya'" cuando estemos fuera de la vista uno del otro Aquí "fuera de la vista" significa ya no estar en la presencia del otro. TA: "cuando ya no estemos entre ellos"

aunque nadie más esté con nosotros Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Labán y Jacob. TA: "incluso si nadie más está ahí para vernos"

mira
Mira o "recuerda" o "presta atención a lo que voy a decirte"

Genesis 31:51

Esta pila es testigo y este pilar es testigo
Estas pilas de piedras debían actuar como un recordatorio y un marcador fronterizo para Jacob y Laban con respecto a su acuerdo de paz. Se habla de ellos como si fueran testigos humanos.

Que el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Nacor, el Dios de su Padre, juzge entre nosotros Abraham es el abuelo de Jacob. Nahor es el abuelo de Labán. El padre de Abraham y Nahor es Taré. No todos ellos adoraban al SEÑOR.

aquel a quien su padre Isaac temía Aquí la palabra "temor" se refiere al Señor, a quien Isaac respetó profundamente y mostró ese respeto al obedecerlo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 31:54

llamó a sus parientes a comer una comida
Comer juntos era parte de hacer el pacto entre sí. El significado completo de esto puede ser expresado de manera explícita.

Temprano en la mañana... regresó a su casa.
El versículo 55 es el primer verso del capítulo 32 en el texto hebreo original, pero el último versículo del capítulo 31 en la mayoría de las Biblias modernas. Le sugerimos que siga la numeración de Biblias en su idioma nacional.

bendijo
Esto significa expresar el deseo de que le sucedan cosas positivas y beneficiosas a alguien.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Jacob también tomó su camino y los ángeles de Dios lo encontraron. 2 Cuando Jacob los vio, dijo: "Este es el campamento de Dios," así que llamó a ese lugar Mahanaim. 3 Jacob envió mensajeros delante de él a su hermano Esaú, en la tierra de Seir, en la región de Edom. 4 Él les ordenó, diciendo: "Esto es lo que dirán a mi señor Esaú: 'Esto es lo que su siervo Jacob dice: 'Estuve quedándome con Labán y he retrasado mi regreso hasta ahora. 5 Yo tengo bueyes, burros y rebaños, sirvientes y sirvientas. Yo le he enviado este mensaje a mi señor, para hallar favor ante esus ojos.'" 6 Los mensajeros regresaron a Jacob diciendo: "Fuimos donde tu hermano Esaú. Él viene a encontrarse contigo y cuatrocientos hombres están con él." 7 Entonces Jacob se atemorizó mucho y se perturbó. Así que dividió las personas que estaban con él en dos campamentos y también los rebaños, las manadas y los camellos. 8 Él dijo: "Si Esaú viene a un campamento y lo ataca, entonces el campamento que quede podrá escapar." 9 Jacob dijo: "Dios de mi padre Abraham y Dios de mi Ppdre Isaac, EL SEÑOR, quien me dijo: 'Regresa a tu país y a tus parientes y Yo te prosperaré.' 10 Yo no soy merecedor de todos Tus actos de misericordia ni de toda la fidelidad que le has mostrado a Tu siervo. Porque solo con mi cayado crucé sobre este Jordán y ahora he llegado a tener dos campamentos. 11 Por favor, rescátame de la mano de mi hermano, de la mano de Esaú, porque tengo miedo de él, de que él venga y me ataque a mí y a las madres con los hijos. 12 Pero Tú dijiste: 'Yo ciertamente te haré prosperar. Yo haré tu descendencia como la arena del mar, que no se puede contar por su número." 13 Jacob se quedó allí esa noche. Él tomó algo de lo que tenía con él como un regalo para Esaú, su hermano: 14 doscientas cabras, veinte machos cabríos, doscientas ovejas y veinte carneros, 15 treinta camellas con leche y sus crías, cuarenta vacas y diez toros, veinte asnas y diez burros. 16 Estos él los dio en las manos de sus sirvientes, cada manada por sí misma. Él le dijo a sus sirvientes: "Vayan delante de mí y pongan un espacio entre cada una de las manadas." 17 El instruyó al primer sirviente, diciendo: "Cuando mi hermano Esaú te encuentre y te pregunte diciendo: '¿A quién perteneces? ¿A dónde vas? ¿De quién son esos animales que van delante de ti?' 18 Entonces le dirás: 'Ellos son de tu siervo Jacob. Ellos son un regalo enviado a mi amo Esaú. Mira, él viene también detrás de nosotros.'" 19 Jacob también le dio instrucciones al segundo grupo, al tercero y a todos los hombres que seguían las manadas. Él dijo: "Ustedes le dirán lo mismo a Esaú cuando se encuentren con él. 20 Le dirán también: 'Tu sirviente Jacob viene detrás de nosotros.'" Porque él pensó: "Lo apaciguaré con los regalos que van delante de mí. Así cuando lo encuentre después, tal vez me reciba." 21 Así que los regalos fueron delante de él. Él mismo se quedó solo esa noche en el campamento. 22 Jacob se levantó durante la noche y tomó a sus dos esposas y a sus dos sirvientas y a sus once hijos. Él los envió al otro lado del vado de Jaboc. 23 De esta manera él los envió a través del arroyo junto con todas sus posesiones. 24 Jacob se quedó solo y un hombre luchó con él hasta el amanecer. 25 Cuando el hombre vio que no podía vencerlo, golpeó la cadera de Jacob. La cadera de Jacob fue dislocada mientras él luchaba con él. 26 El hombre dijo: "Déjame ir, porque ya está rompiendo el amanecer." Jacob dijo: "Yo no te dejaré ir a menos que me bendigas." 27 El hombre le dijo: "¿Cuál es tu nombre?" Jacob contestó: "Jacob." 28 El hombre dijo: "Tu nombre ya no será Jacob, sino Israel. Porque tú has luchado con Dios y con los hombres y has prevalecido." 29 Jacob le preguntó: "Dime tu nombre por favor." Él dijo: "¿Porqué preguntas mi nombre?" Luego lo bendijo allí. 30 Jacob llamó ese lugar Peniel, porque dijo: "He visto a Dios cara a cara y mi vida es liberada." 31 El sol salió sobre Jacob mientras él pasaba Peniel. Él cojeaba por causa de su cadera. 32 Es por eso que hasta el día de hoy, el pueblo de Israel no come los ligamentos de la cadera que están en la coyuntura de la cadera, porque el hombre hirió esos ligamentos cuando le dislocó la cadera a Jacob.

Genesis 32:1

Mahanaim
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Mahanaim significa dos campamentos'".

Genesis 32:3

Seir
Esta es una zona montañosa en la región de Edom.

Esto es lo que dirán a mi señor Esaú: 'Ésto es lo que su siervo Jacob dice: 'Estuve quedándome.... ante sus ojos Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. La cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. TA: "'Esto es lo que quiero que le digas a mi maestro Esaú. Dile que he estado ... ante sus ojos.'"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

mi señor Esaú
Jacob está usando un lenguaje cortés y se refiere a su hermano como "mi señor".

su siervo Jacob
Jacob está usando un lenguaje cortés y se refiere a sí mismo como "su siervo".

para hallar favor ante sus ojos Aquí, "ojos" se refiere a los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. TA: "que puedes aprobarme"

Genesis 32:6

cuatrocientos hombres
400 hombres

se atemorizó
Esto se refiere al sentimiento desagradable que tiene una persona cuando existe una amenaza de daño para sí mismo o para los demás.

perturbó
"angustiado"

a un campamento y lo ataca, entonces el campamento que quede podrá escapar Aquí "campamento" se refiere a las personas. TA: "para atacar a las personas en un campamento, entonces las personas en el otro campamento escaparán"

Genesis 32:9

Dios de mi Padre Abraham y Dios de mi Padre Isaac, El SEÑOR
Esto no se refiere a dioses diferentes, sino al único Dios que todos adoran. TA: "El Señor , que es Dios de mi abuelo Abraham y mi padre Isaac"

El Señor, quien me dijo: Regresa a tu país y a tus parientes y Yo te prosperaré Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar una cita indirecta. TA: "SEÑOR, tú que dijiste que debería volver a mi país y a mi parentela, y que me prosperarías"

y a tus parientes
"ya tu familia"

y Yo te prosperaré
"Lo haré bien por ti" o "Te trataré bien"

Yo no soy merecedor de toda tu fidelidad y actos de convenio ni de todo lo que le haz confiado a tu siervo
Los sustantivos abstractos "fidelidad" y "actos de convenio" pueden declararse como "fiel" y "leal". TA: "No merezco que permanezcas fiel a tu pacto o que seas leal a mí, tu sirviente"

tu siervo Esta es una forma educada de decir "yo"

ahora tengo dos campamentos
Aquí "ahora tengo dos campamentos" significa lo que ahora tiene. TA: "y ahora tengo suficientes personas, bandadas y posesiones conmigo para hacer dos campamentos"

Genesis 32:11

rescátame
"Sálvame"

de la mano de mi hermano, de la mano de Esaú Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere al poder. Las dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. El segundo aclara que el hermano a quien Jacob pretendía era a Esaú. TA: "del poder de mi hermano, Esaú" o "de mi hermano, Esaú"

tengo miedo de él, de que él venga
"Tengo miedo de que lo haga"

Pero Tú dijiste: Yo ciertamente te haré prosperar. Yo haré tu descendencia... por su cantidad Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar en una cita indirecta. TA: "Pero dijiste que ciertamente me prosperarías, y que harías que mis descendientes ... numerosos" haré prosperar.

"Haz el bien a ti" o "te trata bien"

Yo haré tu descendencia como la arena del mar
Esto habla de la gran cantidad de descendientes de Jacob como si su número fuera como los granos de arena a la orilla del mar.

que no se puede contar por su cantidad.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que nadie puede contar debido a su número"

Genesis 32:13

doscientas
"200"

veinte ... treinta ... cuarenta ... diez
"20 ... 30 ... 40 ... 10"

y sus crías
"y sus jóvenes"

Los entregó a sus siervos, cada manada por sí mismo Aquí "en la mano" significa dar control sobre ellos. TA: "Los dividió en pequeños rebaños, y le dio a cada uno de sus sirvientes el control de un rebaño"

pongan espacio entre cada una de las manadas
"Permita que cada manada viaje a una distancia de las otras manadas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 32:17

El instruyó
"Él ordenó"

te pregunte ...que van delante de ti?
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "te pregunta quién es tu maestro, a dónde vas y a quien pertenecen estos animales que están delante de ti"

¿A quién perteneces?
¿Quién es tu señor?

¿de quién son esos animales que van delante de ti?
"¿Quién es el dueño de estos animales que están frente a ti?"

Entonces le dirás, ellos son de tu siervo Jacob. Ellos son un regalo enviado a mi amo Esaú. Mira, él viene también detrás de nosotros.'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Entonces quiero que le digas que todas estas cosas pertenecen a Jacob, su siervo, y él se las da a su maestro, Esaú. Y dile que Jacob está en camino a reunirse con él"

tu siervo Jacob
Jacob se está refiriendo a sí mismo de manera educada como el sirviente de Esaú.

a mi amo Esaú
Jacob se está refiriendo a Esaú ,de una manera educada como su maestro.

él viene detrás de nosotros
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a los sirvientes que hablan y a los otros sirvientes que llevan manadas a Esaú.

Genesis 32:19

dio instrucciones al segundo grupo
"ordenó el segundo grupo"

Le dirás también
Los posibles significados son 1) También dirás, Tu siervo Jacob o 2) Dirás,También, tu siervo Jacob

Lo apaciguaré
"Lo calmaré" o "Haré que su ira se vaya"

tal vez me acepte
"él me dará la bienvenida amablemente"

Así que los regalos fueron delante de él
Aquí "regalos" significa los sirvientes que toman los regalos.

Él se quedó solo
Aquí el "mismo" enfatiza que Jacob no fue con los sirvientes.

Genesis 32:22

sus dos sirvientas
"Las dos sirvientas de sus esposas". Esto significa Zilpa y Bilha.

vado
Un lugar poco profundo en un río que es fácil de cruzar.

Jaboc
Este es el nombre de un río.

todas sus posesiones
"todo lo que tenia"

Genesis 32:24

hasta el amanecer
"hasta el amanecer" (UDB)

cadera
"unión del muslo". Este es el lugar donde el hueso de la pierna superior se conecta a la cadera.

La cadera de Jacob fue dislocada cuando él lo golpeó Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El hombre lesionó la cadera de Jacob mientras luchaba con él" ya está rompiendo el amanecer

"el sol saldrá pronto"

bendigas
Aquí, "bendigas" significa pronunciar una bendición formal sobre alguien y hacer que le sucedan cosas buenas a esa persona.

Yo no te dejaré ir a menos que me bendigas.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. TA: "¡Absolutamente no! Debes bendecirme primero, luego te dejaré ir"

Genesis 32:27

Israel
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Israel significa 'Él lucha con Dios'"

y con los hombres
Aquí "hombres" significa "gente" en general.

Genesis 32:29

Él dijo: ''¿Porqué preguntas mi nombre?
"Dijo: '¿Por qué preguntas por mi nombre?'". Esta pregunta retórica estaba destinada a sorprender, reprender y hacer que Jacob reflexione sobre lo que acaba de suceder entre él y el otro hombre con el que luchó. TA: "¡No me preguntes por mi nombre!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Peniel
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: El nombre Peniel significa "el rostro de Dios".

cara a cara
Ser "cara a cara" significa que dos personas se están viendo en persona, a una distancia cercana.

y mi vida ha sido liberada.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "sin embargo, me perdonó la vida"

Genesis 32:31

por eso que hasta el día de hoy
Esto marca un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre los descendientes de Israel.

para este día
Esto significa que el día que el autor estaba escribiendo esto.

ligamento de la cadera
Esto se refiere al músculo que conecta el hueso del muslo a la cavidad del muslo.

coyuntura de la cadera
"Unión del muslo"

cuando le dislocó
"cuando lo golpeó"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 Jacob miró hacia arriba y, miren, Esaú venía, y con él cuatrocientos hombres. Jacob dividió los hijos entre Lea, Raquel, y las dos sirvientas. 2 Entonces puso a las dos sirvientas y a sus hijos al frente, seguidos por Lea y sus hjos, y seguidos por Raquel y José detrás de todos. 3 Él mismo fue al frente de ellos. Él se inclinó hacia el suelo siete veces, hasta que se acercó a su hermano. 4 Esaú corrió a encontrarse con él, lo abrazó, le apretó el cuello, y lo besó. Entonces ellos lloraron. 5 Cuando Esaú levantó la mirada, él vio a las mujeres y a los niños. Él dijo: "¿Quiénes son estas personas contigo?" Jacob le dijo: "Los hijos quienes Dios ha dado generosamente a tu siervo." 6 Entonces las sirvientas vinieron adelante con sus hijos, y se inclinaron. 7 Después Lea también y sus hijos vinieron al frente y se inclinaron. Finalmente José y Raquel vinieron al frente y se inclinaron. 8 Esaú dijo: "¿Qué quieres decir con todos estos grupos que encontré?" Jacob dijo: "Para encontrar favor a la vista de mi señor." 9 Esaú dijo: "Tengo suficiente, mi hermano. Quédate con lo que tienes para ti mismo." 10 Jacob dijo: "No, por favor, si he encontrado favor en tu vista, entonces acepta mi regalo de mi mano, porque ciertamente, he visto tu rostro, y es como ver el rostro de Dios, y tú me has aceptado. 11 Por favor, acepta mi regalo que te fue traído, porque Dios me ha dado generosamente, y porque tengo suficiente." Así Jacob le insistió, y Esaú aceptó. 12 Entonces Esaú le dijo: "Vamos por nuestro camino. Yo iré delante de ti." 13 Jacob le dijo: "Mi señor sabe que los niños son tiernos, y que las ovejas y las vacas están amamantando sus crías. Si los esforzamos fuertemente aunque sea un día, todos los animales morirán. 14 Por favor, deje que mi señor vaya delante de su siervo. Yo viajaré más lentamente, al paso del ganado que va delante de mí, y al paso de los niños, hasta que alcance a mi señor en Seir." 15 Esaú dijo: "Déjame dejar contigo algunos de los hombres quienes están conmigo." Pero Jacob dijo: "¿Por qué hacer eso? Mi awñor ya ha sido suficientemente amable conmigo." 16 Así que Esaú empezó ese día su viaje de regreso a Seir. 17 Jacob viajó a Sucot, se construyó a sí mismo una casa, e hizo establos para su ganado. Por lo tanto el nombre del lugar es Sucot. 18 Cuando Jacob vino desde Padán Aram, él llegó sin novedad a la ciudad de Siquem, la cual está en la tierra de Canaán. Él acampó cerca de la ciudad. 19 Entonces compró el pedazo de tierra donde había puesto su tienda de los hijos de Hamor, padre de Siquem, por cien piezas de plata. 20 Ahí levantó un altar y lo llamó El Elohe Israel.

Genesis 33:1

Vió
La palabra "Vió" nos alerta a prestar atención a una parte nueva y sorprendente de la historia.

cuantrocientos hombres.
"400 hombres"

Jacob dividió los hijos .. las sirvientas
Esto no significa que Jacob dividió a los niños de manera equitativa para que cada mujer tuviera la misma cantidad de hijos que ella. Jacob dividió a los niños para que cada uno fuera con su madre.

Sirvientas
"esposas de siervo". Esto se refiere a Bilhah y Zilpah.

Él mismo fue al frente de ellos.
Aquí el "mismo" enfatiza que Jacob fue solo delante de los demás.

Se inclinó
Aquí la palabra "Reverencia" significa inclinarse para expresar humildemente respeto y honor hacia alguien. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Genesis 33:4

a encontrarse con él
"Encontrar a Jacob"

lo tomó, lo abrazó por el cuello, y lo besó.
Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración. TA: "Esaú puso sus brazos alrededor de Jacob, lo abrazó y lo besó"

Entonces ellos lloraron.
Esto puede traducirse más explícitamente. TA: "Entonces Esaú y Jacob lloraron porque estaban felices de verse otra vez" él vió a las mujeres y a los niños.

"Vio a las mujeres y los niños que estaban con Jacob".

Los hijos quienes Dios ha dado generosamente a tu sirviente La frase "su siervo" es una forma educada para que Jacob se refiera a sí mismo. TA: "Estos son los hijos que Dios me ha dado amablemente, a tu servidor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 33:6

Sirvientas
"esposas de siervo". Esto se refiere a Bilhah y Zilpah.

Se inclinaron
Este es un signo de humildad y respeto ante otra persona.

¿A qué te refieres con todos estos grupos que veo?
La frase "todos estos grupos" se refiere a los grupos de sirvientes que Jacob envió para dar regalos a Esaú. TA: "¿Por qué enviaste a todos esos grupos diferentes a encontrarse conmigo?"

A encontrar favor en la vista de mi señor Aquí, "vista" significa los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. TA: "Para que usted, mi maestro, esté satisfecho conmigo"

mi señor
La frase "mi señor" es una forma educada de referirse a Esaú.

Genesis 33:9

Tengo suficiente
Se sobreentiende la palabra "animales" o "propiedad". TA: "Tengo suficientes animales" si he encontrado favor en tu vista Aquí, "vista" significa los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. TA: "si está satisfecho conmigo"

mi regalo de mi mano Aquí "mano" se refiere a Jacob. TA: "este regalo que te estoy dando" mi mano, por que la verdad Esto se puede traducir como una nueva frase: "mi mano. Por supuesto"

he visto tu rostro, y es como ver el rostro de Dios El significado de este símil no está claro. Los posibles significados son 1) Jacob está feliz de que Esaú lo haya perdonado como Dios lo ha perdonado o 2) Jacob se asombra al ver a su hermano nuevamente como se asombró al ver a Dios o 3) Jacob se siente honrado de estar en la presencia de Esaú como lo era Humillado para estar en la presencia de Dios.

he visto tu rostro
Aquí "cara" se refiere a la de Esaú. Puede ser mejor traducir "cara" debido a la importancia de la palabra "cara" aquí con "cara de Dios" y "cara a cara" en el 32:29.

que te fue traído
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "que te trajeron mis sirvientes"

Dios me ha dado generosamente
"Dios me ha tratado muy bien" o "Dios me ha bendecido mucho"

Así Jacob le insistió, y Esaú aceptó.
Era costumbre rechazar un regalo primero, pero luego aceptar el regalo antes de que el donante se ofendiera.

Genesis 33:12

Mi maestro sabe
Esta es una forma educada y formal de referirse a Esaú. TA: "Tú, mi maestro, sabes"

los niños son jovenes
El significado puede ser expresado más explícitamente. TA: "los niños son demasiado pequeños para viajar rápido"

Si ellos los sobremarchan hasta un día
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Si los obligamos a ir demasiado rápido incluso por un día"

Que mi maestro vaya delante de su sirviente.
Esta es una forma educada y formal de que Jacob se refiera a sí mismo. TA: "Mi señor, soy tu sirviente. Por favor, adelante de mí"

al paso de los ganados que van delante de mí
"A la velocidad que puedan ir los animales que estoy cuidando"

Seir
Esta es una zona montañosa en la región de Edom. Vea cómo tradujo esto en el 32: 3.

Genesis 33:15

¿Por qué hacer eso?
Jacob usa una pregunta para enfatizar que Esaú no necesita dejar a los hombres. TA: "¡No hagas eso!" o "¡No necesitas hacer eso!"

Mi maestro ya ha sido
Esta es una forma educada y formal de referirse a Esaú. TA: "Tú, mi maestro, tienes" .

Sucot
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Sucot significa 'refugios'".

construyó a sí mismo una casa
Se da a entender que la casa es también para su familia. TA: "construyó una casa para él y su familia"

para su ganado
"Por los animales que cuidaba".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 33:18

Información general:
Comienza una nueva parte de la historia. El autor describe lo que hizo Jacob después de descansar en Sucot.

Cuando Jacob vinó desde Padan Aram
"Después de que Jacob se fue de Padan Aram"

Cuando Jacob... él llegó ... Él acampó
Esto solo menciona a Jacob porque él es el líder de la familia. Se da a entender que su familia estaba con él.

Él acampó cerca
"Él instaló su campamento cerca"

pedazo de tierra
"pedazo de suelo"

Hamor
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

padre de Siquem
Siquem es el nombre de una ciudad y el nombre de un hombre.

Cien
"100"

El Elohe Israel.
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre El Elohe Israel significa" Dios, el Dios de Israel ".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 Ahora Dina, la hija que Lea le dio a Jacob, salió a encontrarse con las mujeres jóvenes de la tierra. 2 Siquem, hijo de Hamor el heveo, el príncipe de la tierra, la vio y la tomó, la asaltó, y durmió con ella. 3 Él estaba atraído a Dina, la hija de Jacob. Él amó a la joven mujer y le habló tiernamente. 4 Siquem habló con su padre Hamor, diciendo: "Consígueme esta mujer joven como esposa para mí." 5 Ahora Jacob oyó que él había deshonrado a Dina su hija. Sus hijos estaban con su ganado en el campo, así que Jacob guardó silencio hasta que ellos llegaron. 6 Hamor el padre de Siquem salió a donde Jacob para hablar con él. 7 Los hijos de Jacob llegaron del campo cuando oyeron sobre el asunto. Los hombres estaban ofendidos. Estaban muy enojados porque él había avergonzado a Israel al forzarse sobre la hija de Jacob, porque tal cosa no debió haber sido hecha. 8 Hamor les habló, diciendo: "Mi hijo Siquem ama a su hija. Por favor dásela a él como esposa. 9 Emparéntense con nosotros, dénnos a sus hijas, y tomen a nuestras hijas para ustedes. 10 Vivirán con nosotros, y la tierra estará abierta para ustedes para vivir y comerciar, y para adquirir propiedad.'' 11 Siquem le dijo a su padre y a sus hermanos: "Déjenme encontrar favor en sus ojos, y lo que me digan se lo daré. 12 Pídanme el dote y regalo más grande que quieran, y yo les daré lo que me digan, pero denme a la mujer joven como esposa." 13 Los hijos de Jacob respondieron a Siquem y a Hamor su padre con engaño, porque Siquem había deshonrado a Dina su hermana. 14 Ellos les dijeron: "No podemos hacer esta cosa, de darle a nuestra hermana a alguno que sea incircunciso; porque eso sería una desgracia para nosotros. 15 Solo bajo esta condición nos pondremos de acuerdo con ustedes: si ustedes se circuncidan como nosotros, si todo hombre entre ustedes es circuncidado. 16 Entonces les daremos nuestras hijas a ustedes, y nosotros tomaremos sus hijas para nosotros mismos, y viviremos con ustedes y nos volveremos un solo pueblo. 17 Pero si ustedes no nos escuchan para circuncidarse, entonces tomaremos a nuestra hermana y nos iremos. 18 Sus palabras complacieron a Hamor y a su hijo Siquem. 19 El hombre joven no se tardó en hacer lo que dijeron, porque él se deleitaba con la hija de Jacob, y porque él era la persona más honrada en toda la casa de su padre. 20 Hamor y Siquem su hijo fueron a la puerta de la ciudad y hablaron con los hombres de su ciudad, diciendo: 21 "Estos hombres están en paz con nosotros, así que déjenlos vivir en la tierra y que hagan negocios en ella porque, verdaderamente, la tierra es lo suficientemente grande para ellos. Tomemos a sus hijas como esposas, y démosles nuestras hijas. 22 Solo bajo esta condición los hombres aceptarán vivir con nosotros y llegar a ser un solo pueblo: si todo varón entre nosotros es circuncidado, como ellos son circuncisos. 23 Su ganado y su propiedad, todos sus animales, ¿no serán nuestros? Así que pongámonos de acuerdo con ellos, y ellos vivirán entre nosotros." 24 Todos los hombres de la ciudad escucharon a Hamor y a Siquem, su hijo. Todo hombre fue circuncidado. 25 Al tercer día, cuando todavía estaban adoloridos, dos de los hijos de Jacob, Simeón y Leví, hermanos de Dina, cada uno tomó su espada y fueron a la ciudad que estaba confiada de su seguridad, y mataron a todos los hombres. 26 Ellos mataron a Hamor y a Siquem, su hijo, con el filo de la espada. Ellos tomaron a Dina de la casa de Siquem y se fueron. 27 Los otros hijos de Jacob vinieron a los cuerpos muertos y saquearon la ciudad, porque la gente había deshonrado a su hermana. 28 Tomaron sus rebaños, sus manadas, sus burros, y todo en la ciudad y en los campos de los alrededores con 29 todas sus riquezas. Todos sus niños y sus esposas, ellos los capturaron. Ellos hasta tomaron todo lo que había en las casas. 30 Jacob le dijo a Simeón y a Leví: "Ustedes han traído aflicción sobre mí, al hacer que yo apeste ante los habitantes de la tierra, los cananeos y los ferezeos. Mi familia es pequeña. Si ellos se juntan en contra mía y me atacan, entonces seré destruido, yo y mi casa." 31 Pero Simeón y Leví dijeron: "¿Debió Siquem tratar con nuestra hermana como con una prostituta?"

Genesis 34:1

Ahora
Aquí esta palabra se usa para marcar una nueva parte de la historia.

Dina
Este es el nombre de la hija de Lea. Vea cómo se tradujo este nombre en el 30:19.

Heveo
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas. Vea cómo se tradujo la palabra similar "Heveo" en el 10:15.

el príncipe de la tierra
Esto se refiere a Hamor, no a Siquem. Además, "príncipe" aquí no significa hijo de un rey. Significa que Hamor fue el líder de la gente en esa área.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

la asaltó, y durmió con ella.
Siquem violó a Dina.

Él estaba atraído a Dina
"Se sintió muy atraído por ella"

le habló tiernamente.
Esto significa que habló con afecto para convencerla de que la amaba y que quería que ella también lo amara.

Genesis 34:4

Ahora Jacob
"Ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Jacob.

Jacob escuchó que él
La palabra "él" se refiere a Siquem.

él había deshonrado
Esto significa que Siquem había deshonrado y desdichado a Dina al obligarla a dormir con él.

mantuvo su paz
Esta es una forma de decir que Jacob no dijo ni hizo nada al respecto.

Genesis 34:6

Hamor ... salió a donde Jacob
"Hamor ... fue a encontrarse con Jacob"

Los hombres estaban ofendidos
"Los hombres estaban indignados"

Estaban muy molestos ... porque tal cosa no debió haber sido hecha.
Esto se puede afirmar como una cita directa pronunciada por el hijo de Jacob, como en la UDB.

él había avergonzado a Israel Aquí la palabra "Israel" se refiere a cada miembro de la familia de Jacob. Israel como grupo de personas fue deshonrado. TA: "había humillado a la familia de Israel" o "había avergonzado al pueblo de Israel"

al violentarse contra la hija de Jacob
"agrediendo a la hija de jacob"

porque tal cosa no debió haber sido hecha.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "porque no debería haber hecho algo tan terrible"

Genesis 34:8

Hamor les habló
"Hamor habló con Jacob y sus hijos"

ama a su hija
Aquí la palabra "amor" se refiere al amor romántico entre un hombre y una mujer. TA: "la ama y quiere casarse con ella"

dénsela a él como esposa
En algunas culturas, los padres deciden con quién se casarán sus hijos.

Cásense con nosotros
Es casarse con un miembro de un grupo racial, social, religioso o tribal diferente. TA: "Permite los matrimonios entre tu pueblo y el nuestro"

la tierra les será abierta para ustedes
"La tierra estará disponible para ti"

Genesis 34:11

Siquem le dijo a su padre
"Siquem le dijo al padre de Dina, Jacob"

Déjenme encontrar favor en sus ojos, y lo que sea que me digan se los daré Aquí "ojos" representa los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. TA: "Si me aprueban, les daré lo que pidan"

novia un precio
En algunas culturas, es costumbre que un hombre dé dinero, bienes, ganado y otros regalos a la familia de la novia en el momento del matrimonio.

Los hijos de Jacob respondieron a Siquem con engaño
El sustantivo abstracto "engaño" se puede expresar como el verbo "mentir". TA: "Pero los hijos de Jacob mintieron a Siquem y Hamor cuando les respondieron"

Siquem había deshonrado a Dina
Esto significa que Siquem había deshonrado y desgraciado a Dina al obligarla a dormir con él. Vea cómo se tradujo "profanado" en el 34: 4.

Genesis 34:14

Ellos les dijeron
"Dijeron los hijos de Jacob a Siquem y Hamor".

No podemos hacer eso, darte a nuestra hermana
"No podemos aceptar dar a Dina en matrimonio" porque eso sería una desgracia para nosotros

"porque eso nos haría avergonzar". Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a los hijos de Jacob y a todo el pueblo de Israel.

Entonces te daremos nuestras hijas ... tomáremos sus hijas para nosotros Esto significa que permitirán que una persona de la familia de Jacob se case con una persona que vive en la tierra de Hamor.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 34:18

Sus palabras complacieron a Hamor y a su hijo Siquem Aquí "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. AT: "Hamor y su hijo Siquem estuvieron de acuerdo con lo que dijeron los hijos de Jacob"

en hacer lo que dijeron
"hacerse la circunsión"

la hija de Jacob
"La hija de Jacob, Dina"

porque él era la persona más honrada en toda la casa de su padre Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración. Se puede hacer explícito que Siquem sabía que los otros hombres estarían de acuerdo en ser circuncidados porque lo respetaban mucho. TA: "Siquem sabía que todos los hombres en la casa de su padre estarían de acuerdo con él porque él era el más honrado entre ellos"

Genesis 34:20

la puerta de la ciudad
Era común que los líderes se reunieran en la puerta de la ciudad para tomar decisiones oficiales.

Estos hombres
"Jacob, sus hijos y el pueblo de Israel"

están en paz
Aquí "nosotros" incluye a Hamor, su hijo y todas las personas con las que hablaron en la puerta de la ciudad.

déjenlos vivir en la tierra y hagan negocios en ella
"Déjalos vivir y comerciar en la tierra"

porque, verdaderamente, la tierra es lo suficientemente grande para ellos Siquem usa la palabra "verdaderamente" para agregar énfasis a su declaración. "porque, ciertamente, la tierra es lo suficientemente grande para ellos" o "porque, de hecho, hay un montón de tierra para ellos"

tomar a sus hijas ... darles a nuestras hijas a ellos Esto se refiere a los matrimonios entre las mujeres de un grupo y los hombres del otro grupo. Vea cómo se tradujeron frases similares en el 34: 8.

Genesis 34:22

Información general:
Hamor y Siquem, su hijo, continúan hablando con los ancianos de la ciudad.

Solo bajo esta condición los hombres han aceptado vivir con nosotros y volvernos un solo pueblo: si todo hombre entre nosotros es circuncidado, como ellos son circuncisos
"Solo si todos los hombres entre nosotros son circuncidados, como los hombres de Israel son circuncidados, aceptarán vivir entre nosotros y unirse con nosotros como un solo pueblo"

¿No serán su ganado y su propiedad --todos sus animales nuestros?
Siquem usa una pregunta para enfatizar que el ganado y las propiedades de Jacob pertenecerán a la gente de Siquem. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Todos sus animales y propiedades serán nuestros".

Genesis 34:24

Todo hombre fue circuncidado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Así que Hamor y Siquem hicieron que alguien circuncidara a todos los hombres"

Al tercer día
"tercer" es el número ordinal de tres. Se puede establecer sin el número ordinal. AT: "Después de dos días"

cuando estaban muy adoloridos
"Cuando los hombres de la ciudad seguían sufriendo".

cada uno tomó su espada
"tomaron sus espadas"

fueron a la desprevenida ciudad Aquí "ciudad" significa la gente. TA: "atacaron a la gente de la ciudad" desprevenida ciudad, y mataron a todos los hombres.

Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración. "desprevenida ciudad. Simeon y Levi mataron a todos los hombres de la ciudad"

con el filo de la espada
Aquí "borde" representa la hoja de la espada. TA: "con la hoja de sus espadas" o "con sus espadas"

Genesis 34:27

los cuerpos muertos
"Los cadáveres de Hamor, Siquem, y sus hombres".

saquearon la ciudad
"Robaron todo lo que era valioso en la ciudad".

porque la gente había deshonrado a su hermana Solo Siquem había contaminado a Dina, pero los hijos de Jacob consideraban a toda la familia de Siquem y a todos en la ciudad responsables de este acto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

había deshonrado
Esto significa que Siquem había deshonrado y desgraciado a Dina al obligarla a dormir con él. Vea cómo se tradujo "profanado" en el 34: 4.

Tomaron sus rebaños
"Los hijos de Jacob tomaron los rebaños de la gente"

todas sus riquezas
"todas sus posesiones y dinero"

Todos sus niños y sus esposas, ellos los capturaron.
"Ellos capturaron a todos sus hijos y esposas"

Genesis 34:30

han traído aflicción sobre me
Se habla de causar que alguien experimente problemas como si los problemas fueran un objeto que se trae y se coloca sobre una persona. TA: "me causó grandes problemas"

al hacerme apestar a los inhabitantes de la tierra
Se habla de hacer que la gente de las áreas circundantes odie a Jacob como si los hijos de Jacob le hicieran oler mal físicamente. Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración. TA: "Me has hecho repulsivo a las personas que viven en la tierra"

Yo soy pocos en número ... en contra mía y me atacan, entonces seré destruído, yo y mi casa Aquí las palabras "yo" y "yo" se refieren a toda la casa de Jacob. Jacob solo dice "yo" o "yo" ya que él es el líder. TA: "Mi casa es pequeña ... contra nosotros y nos atacan, entonces nos destruirán a todos"

Si ellos se juntan ellos mismos en contra mía y me atacan
"formar un ejército y atacarme" o "formar un ejército y atacarnos"

entonces seré destruído
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "me destruirán" o "nos destruirán" ¿Debía Siquem tratar con nuestra hermana como con una prostituta?

Simeón y Levi usan una pregunta para enfatizar que Siquem hizo lo que estaba mal y merecía morir. TA: "¡Siquem no debería haber tratado a nuestra hermana como si fuera una prostituta!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 Dios le dijo a Jacob: "Levántate, ve a Betel, y quédate ahí. Construye allí un altar a Dios, quien se te apareció cuando huías de Esaú tu hermano." 2 Entonces Jacob dijo a los de su casa y a todos los que estaban con él: ''Pongan a un lado los dioses extranjeros que están entre ustedes, purifíquense a ustedes mismos, y cambien sus ropas. 3 Entonces salgamos y subamos a Betel. Yo le construiré un altar ahí a Dios, quien me respondió en el día de mi angustia, y ha estado conmigo dondequiera que he ido." 4 Así que le dieron a Jacob todos los dioses extranjeros que estaban en sus manos, y los anillos que estaban en sus orejas. Jacob los enterró bajo la encina que estaba cerca de Siquem. 5 Mientras viajaban, Dios hizo que el pánico cayera sobre las ciudades que estaban a su alrededor, de manera que esa gente no persiguió a los hijos de Jacob. 6 Asi que Jacob llegó a Luz (eso es, Betel), la cual está en la tierra de Canaán, él y todas las personas que estaban con él. 7 Él construyó un altar allí y llamó el lugar El Betel, porque ahí Dios se había revelado a Sí mismo a él, cuando estaba huyendo de su hermano. 8 Débora, la enfermera de Rebeca, murió. Ella fue enterrada más abajo de Betel debajo de un árbol de encina, así que fue llamado Alón Bacut. 9 Cuando Jacob vino de Padán Aram, Dios se le apareció otra vez y lo bendijo. 10 Dios le dijo a él: "Tu nombre es Jacob, pero tu nombre ya no será Jacob. Tu nombre será Israel." Entonces Dios llamó su nombre Israel. 11 Dios le dijo a él: "Yo soy Dios Todopoderoso. Sé fructífero y multiplícate. Una nación y una compañía de naciones vendrán de ti, y habrá reyes entre tus descendientes. 12 La tierra que Yo le di a Abraham y a Isaac, te la daré a ti. A tus descendientes después de ti también les doy la tierra." 13 Dios subió de él en el lugar donde le había hablado. 14 Jacob puso un pilar en el lugar donde Dios le había hablado, un pilar de piedra. Él derramó una ofrenda de bebida sobre él y derramó aceite sobre él. 15 Jacob llamó el nombre del lugar donde Dios habló con él, Betel. 16 Ellos viajaron desde Betel. Cuando todavía estaban a alguna distancia de Efrata, Raquel comenzó a dar a luz. Tuvo un parto difícil. 17 Mientras estaba en el momento más difícil del parto, la partera le dijo: "No temas, porque ahora tendrás otro hijo." 18 Mientras moría, con su último aliento ella lo llamó Benoni, pero su padre lo llamó Benjamín. 19 Raquel murió y fue sepultada en el camino a Efrata (eso es, Belén). 20 Jacob puso un pilar sobre su tumba. Esa es la marca de la tumba de Raquel hasta este día. 21 Israel siguió viajando y montó su tienda más allá de la torre de vigilancia del rebaño. 22 Mientras Israel estaba viviendo en esa tierra, Rubén durmió con Bilha la concubina de su padre, e Israel lo supo. Ahora Jacob tenía doce hijos. 23 Sus hijos por Lea fueron Rubén, el primogénito de Jacob, y Simeón, Leví, Judá, Isacar, y Zebulón. 24 Sus hijos por Raquel fueron José y Benjamín. 25 Sus hijos por Bilha, la sirvienta de Raquel, fueron Dan y Neftalí. 26 Los hijos de Zilpa, la sirvienta de Leah, fueron Gad y Aser. Todos estos son los hijos de Jacob quienes le nacieron en Padán Aram. 27 Jacob vino a Isaac, su padre, en Mamre en Quiriat Arba (lo mismo que Hebrón), donde Abraham e Isaac habían vivido. 28 Isaac vivió por ciento ochenta años. 29 Isaac suspiró su último aliento y murió, y fue recogido a sus ancestros, un viejo lleno de años. Esaú y Jacob, sus hijos, lo enterraron.

Genesis 35:1

ve a Bet-el,
La frase "sube" se usa porque Betel tiene una elevación más alta que Siquem.

Construye allí un altar al Dios
Dios habla de sí mismo en tercera persona.
Traducción Alterna: "Construye un altar para mí, tu Dios"

dijo a los de su casa
"dijo a su familia"

Pongan a un lado los dioses extranjeros entre ustedes
"Tira tus ídolos" o "Deshazte de tus falsos dioses"

purifíquense a ustedes mismos, y cambien sus ropas Esta era la costumbre de purificarse mental y físicamente antes de ir a adorar a Dios.

cambien sus ropas
Ponerse una ropa nueva era una señal de que se habían limpiado antes de acercarse a Dios. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

en el día de mi angustia
Los posibles significados para "día" son 1) el día en que Jacob huyó de Esaú o 2) "día" significa un período de tiempo en que Jacob estaba angustiado.
Traducción Alterna: "cuando estaba en una situación difícil" o "cuando estaba en problemas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 35:4

Entonces le dieron
"Así que todos en la casa de Jacob dieron" o "Así dieron todos sus familiares y sirvientes"

que estaban en sus manos Aquí "en su mano" significa lo que poseen. Traducción Alterna: "que estaban en su poder" o "que tenían"

los anillos que estaban en sus oídos
"Sus pendientes" (UDB). Los posibles significados son 1) el oro en los aretes podría haber sido usado para hacer más ídolos o 2) tomaron estos aretes de la ciudad de Siquem después de que atacaron y mataron a todas las personas. Los pendientes les habrían recordado su pecado.

en las ciudades
Aquí "ciudades" significa las personas que viven en las ciudades.

Dios hizo que pánico cayera en las ciudades Diios hizo que la gente de las ciudades le temieran a Jacob y a su familia como si el pánico fuera un objeto que cae por sobre las ciudades. El sustantivo abstracto "pánico" puede ser declarado como "asustado". Traducción Alterna: Dios hizo que la gente de las ciudades circundantes le temieran a Jacob y a quienes estaban con él"

los hijos de Jacob Está implícito que nadie atacó a nadie en la familia de Jacob. Pero dos de los hijos, Simeón y Levi, atacaron a los parientes cananeos de Siquem después de que él se apoderó y durmió con la hija de Jacob. Jacob temía que buscaran venganza en 34:30. Traducción Alterna: "la familia de Jacob" o "la casa de Jacob"

Genesis 35:6

Luz
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 28:18.

El-betel
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre El Betel significa 'Dios de Betel'"

ahí Dios se había revelado a sí mismo a él
"Allí Dios se dio a conocer a Jacob".

Débora
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

La enfermera de Rebeca
Una enfermera es una mujer que cuida al hijo de otra mujer. La enfermera fue muy honrada e importante para la familia.

Ella fue enterrada abajo de Betel Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La enterraron de Betel"

abajo de Betel
La frase "abajo de" se usa porque la enterraron en un lugar que tenía una elevación más baja que Betel.

Alón-bacut
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Alón Bacut significa "Roble donde hay llanto'".

Genesis 35:9

Cuando Jacob vino de Padan-aram
Puede hacerse explícito que estaban en Betel. Traducción Alterna: "Después de que Jacob dejó a Padan-aram, y mientras estaba en Betel"

Bendijo
Aquí, "bendecir" significa pronunciar una bendición formal sobre alguien y hacer que le sucedan cosas buenas a esa persona.

Pero tu nombre ya no será llamado Jacob Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero tu nombre ya no será Jacob"

Genesis 35:11

Dios le dijo a él
Dios le dijo a Jacob

Se fructífero y multiplícate
Dios le dijo a Jacob que tenga hijos para que hubieran muchos de ellos. La palabra "multiplicar" explica cómo iba a ser "fructífero". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:22.

Una nación y una compañía de naciones vendrán de ti
Aquí, "nación" y "naciones" se refieren a los descendientes de Jacob que establecerán estas naciones.

Dios subió de él
Aquí se usa "subió" porque el lugar donde Dios mora se suele considerar como estar arriba o por encima del mundo. Traducción Alterna "Dios lo dejó"

Genesis 35:14

Pilar
Este es un pilar conmemorativo que era simplemente una piedra grande o una roca en su extremo.

Él derramó una ofrenda de bebida sobre el y derramó aceite en el Esta es una señal de que él está dedicando el pilar a Dios. (Ver: ranslate_symaction)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Bet-el
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre de Betel significa "casa de Dios'".

Genesis 35:16

Efrata
Este es otro nombre para la ciudad de Belén

Tuvo un parto difícil.
"Ella estaba teniendo un momento muy difícil para dar a luz al niño"

Mientras estaba en el momento más difícil
"Cuando el dolor del parto estaba en su peor momento"

partera
Una persona que ayuda a una mujer cuando está dando a luz a un niño.

Mientras moría, con su último aliento
Un "último aliento" es el último aliento de una persona antes de morir. Traducción Alterna: "Justo antes de morir, ya que estaba tomando su último aliento"

Benoni
El traductor puede agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Benoni significa 'hijo de mi dolor'"

Benjamín
El traductor puede agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre Benjamín significa 'hijo de la mano derecha'." La frase "mano derecha" indica un lugar de favor especial

y fue sepultada
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "y la enterraron"

en el camino
"a lo largo de la carretera" (UDB)

Esa es la marca de la tumba de Raquel hasta este día.
"Esto marca la tumba de Raquel hasta hoy"

hasta este día
"Hasta la actualidad". Esto significa al tiempo que el autor estaba escribiendo esto.

Genesis 35:21

Israel viajó
Se implica que la familia y los sirvientes de Israel están con él. El significado completo de esta información se puede hacer explícito.

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Rachel. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 29:28.

Ahora Jacob tenía doce hijos
Esta oración comienza un nuevo párrafo, que continúa en los siguientes versículos.

doce hijos
"12 hijos"

Genesis 35:23

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Raquel. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 29:28.

Genesis 35:26

Zilpa
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 29:23.

quienes le nacieron en Padan-aran Está implicito que esto no incluye a Benjamín que nació en la tierra de Canaán, cerca de Belén. Solo menciona a Padan-aran ya que es donde nacieron la mayoría de ellos. El significado completo de esto puede hacerse explícito Traducción Alterna: "que le nacieron en Padan-aran, excepto Benjamin que nació en la tierra de Canaán"

Jacob vino a Isaac
Aquí "vino" se puede decir como "fue".

Mamre
Este era otro nombre para la ciudad de Hebrón. Puede haber sido nombrado después de Mamre, el amigo de Abraham que vivió allí. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:16.

Kiriat-arba
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:1.

Genesis 35:28

ciento ochenta años
180 años

Isaac suspiró su último aliento y murió,
"Isaac tomó su último aliento y murió". Las frases "dio su último suspiro" y "murieron" significan básicamente lo mismo. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 25:7 Traducción Alterna: "Isaac murió"

suspiró su último
Esta es una forma educada de decir que una persona murió. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 25:7

y fue recogido a sus ancestros Esto significa que después de que Isaac murió, su alma fue al mismo lugar que sus parientes que murieron antes que él. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "se unió a los miembros de su familia que ya habían muerto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un viejo lleno de años.
Las frases "viejo" y "lleno de años" significan básicamente lo mismo. Destacan que Isaac vivió mucho tiempo. TA: "después de haber vivido mucho tiempo y era muy viejo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Estos fueron los descendientes de Esaú (también llamado Edom). 2 Esaú tomó sus esposas de entre los cananeos. Estas fueron sus esposas: Ada la hija de Elón el hitita, Aholibama hija de Aná, la nieta de Zibeón el heveo, 3 y Basemat, hija de Ismael, hermana de Nebaiot. 4 Ada dio a luz a Elifaz para Esaú, y Basemat dio a luz a Reuel. 5 Aholibama dio a luz a Jeús, a Jalaam, y a Coré. Estos fueron los hijos de Esaú quienes le nacieron en la tierra de Canaán. 6 Esaú tomó a sus esposas, sus hijos, sus hijas, y a todos los miembros de su casa, su ganado, todos sus animales, y todas sus posesiones, las cuales había acumulado en la tierra de Canaán, y se fue a una tierra lejos de su hermano Jacob. 7 Él hizo esto porque sus posesiones eran demasiadas para ellos quedarse juntos. La tierra en donde se habían establecido no podía mantenerlos a causa de su ganado. 8 Así que Esaú, también conocido como Edom, se estableció en la región montañosa de Seir. 9 Estos fueron los descendientes de Esaú, el ancestro de los edomitas en la región montañosa de Seir. 10 Estos fueron los nombres de los hijos de Esaú: Elifaz hijo de Ada, la esposa de Esaú; Reuel hijo de Basemat, la esposa de Esaú. 11 Los hijos de Elifaz eran Temán, Omar, Zefo, Gatam y Quenaz. 12 Timna, una concubina de Elifaz, hijo de Esaú, dio a luz a Amalec. Estos fueron los nietos de Ada, esposa de Esaú. 13 Estos eran los hijos de Reuel: Nahat, Zera, Sama y Miza. Estos fueron los nietos de Basemat, esposa de Esaú. 14 Estos fueron los hijos de Aholibama, esposa de Esaú, quien era la hija de Aná y la nieta de Zibeón. Ella dio a luz a Esaú, Jeús, Jaalam y Coré. 15 Estos fueron los clanes entre los descendientes de Esaú: los descendientes de Elifaz, el primogénito de Esaú: Temán, Omar, Zefo, Quenaz, 16 Coré, Gatam y Amalec. Estos fueron los clanes descendidos de Elifaz en la tierra de Edom. Ellos fueron los nietos de Ada. 17 Estos fueron los clanes de Reuel: hijo de Esaú: Nahat, Zera, Sama y Miza. Estos fueron los clanes descendidos de Reuel en la tierra de Edom. Estos fueron los nietos de Basemat, esposa de Esaú. 18 Estos fueron los clanes de Aholibama, esposa de Esaú: Jeús, Jaalam y Coré. Estos fueron los clanes que descendieron de la esposa de Esaú Aholibama, hija de Aná. 19 Estos fueron los hijos de Esaú, y estos fueron sus clanes. 20 Estos fueron los hijos de Seir el horeo, los habitantes de la tierra: Lotán, Sobal, Zibeón, Aná, 21 Disón, Ezer y Disán. Estos fueron los clanes de los horeos, los habitantes de Seir en la tierra de Edom. 22 Los hijos de Lotán fueron Hori y Hemam, y Timna era hermana de Lotán. 23 Estos fueron los hijos de Sobal: Alván, Manahat, Ebal, Sefo y Onam. 24 Estos fueron los hijos de Zibeón: Aja y Aná. Este Aná fue quien encontró las aguas termales en el desierto, mientras pastoreaba los burros de Zibeón su padre. 25 Estos fueron los hijos de Aná: Disón y Aholibama, la hija de Aná. 26 Estos fueron los hijos de Disón: Hemdán, Esbán, Itrán y Querán. 27 Estos fueron los hijos de Ezer: Bilhán, Zaaván y Acán. 28 Estos fueron los hijos de Disán: Uz y Arán. 29 Estos fueron los clanes de los horeos: Lotán, Sobal, Zibeón, y Aná, 30 Disón, Ezer y Disán: estos son los clanes de los horeos, de acuerdo al listado de sus clanes en la tierra de Seir. 31 Estos fueron los reyes que reinaron en la tierra de Edom antes que algún rey reinara sobre los israelitas: 32 Bela hijo de Beor, reinó en Edom, y el nombre de su ciudad fue Dinaba. 33 Cuando Bela murió, entonces Jobab hijo de Zera de Bosra, reinó en su lugar. 34 Cuando Jobab murió, Husam de la tierra de los temanitas reinó en su lugar. 35 Cuando Husam murió, Hadad hijo de Bedad, quien derrotó a los madianitas en la tierra de Moab, reinó en su lugar. El nombre de su ciudad era Avit. 36 Cuando Hadad murió, entonces Samla de Masreca reinó en su lugar. 37 Cuando Samla murió, entonces Saúl de Rehobot junto al río reinó en su lugar. 38 Cuando Saúl murió, entonces Baal Hanán hijo de Acbor reinó en su lugar. 39 Cuando Baal Hanán hijo de Acbor, murió, entonces Hadar reinó en su lugar. El nombre de su ciudad era Pau. El nombre de su esposa era Mehetabel, la hija de Matred, la nieta de Mezaab. 40 Estos fueron los nombres de los líderes de los clanes de los descendientes de Esaú, de acuerdo a sus clanes y a sus regiones, por sus nombres: Timna, Alva, Jetet, 41 Aholibama, Ela, Pinón, 42 Quenaz, Temán, Mibsar, 43 Magdiel e Iram. Estos fueron los líderes de los clanes de Edom, de acuerdo a sus poblados en la tierra que poseían. Este fue Esaú, el padre de los edomitas.

Genesis 36:1

Estos eran los descendientes de Esaú (también llamado Edom)
"Estos son los descendientes de Esaú, que también se llaman Edom". Esta oración introduce el relato de los descendientes de Esaú en Génesis 36: 1-8. Traducción Alterna: "Esta es una cuenta de los descendientes de Esaú, que también se llama Edom".

Ada... Aholibama
Estos son los nombres de las esposas de Esaú.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Elon el hitita
"Elon el descendiente de Het" o "Elon un descendiente de Het". Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo se traduce esto en 26:34.

Aná…Zibeón…Nebaiot
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Heteo
Esto se refiere a un grupo más grande de personas. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 10:15.

Basemat
Este es el nombre de una de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 26:34.

Nebaiot
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Ismael. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 28:8.

Genesis 36:4

Ada…Basemat…Aholibama
Estos son los nombres de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos en 36:1.

Elifaz…Rehuel…Jeús…Jalaam…Coré
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Esaú.

Genesis 36:6

las cuales había recogido en la tierra de Canaán Esto se refiere a todas las cosas que había acumulado mientras vivía en la tierra de Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "que había acumulado mientras vivía en la tierra de Canaán"

fue hacía una tierra Esto significa mudarse a otro lugar y vivir allí. TA: "fue a vivir a otra tierra"

sus posesiones
"Las posesiones de Esaú y Jacob"

no podía mantenerlos a causa de su ganado La tierra no era lo suficientemente grande como para soportar todo el ganado que poseían Jacob y Esaú. Traducción Alterna: "no era lo suficientemente grande como para mantener todo su ganado" o "no era lo suficientemente grande para los rebaños de Esaú y de Jacob"

donde se habían colocado
La palabra "colocado" significa mudarse a algún lugar y vivir allí. TA: "donde se habían mudado a"

Genesis 36:9

Siguéndolo están los descendientes de Esaú Esta oración introduce el relato de los descendientes de Esaú en Génesis 36: 9-43. Traducción Alterna: "Esta es una cuenta de los descendientes de Esaú"

en la colina de Seir Esto significa que vivían en la región montañosa de Seir. El significado completo de esto puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "quien vivió en la región montañosa de Seir"

Elifaz…Rehuel
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:4.

Ada…Besemat
Estos son los nombres de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:1.

Temán, Omar, Zefo, Gatam y Quenaz…Amalec
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Elifaz.

Timna
Este es el nombre de la concubina de Elifaz.

Genesis 36:13

Reuel…Jeús, Jaalam y Coré.
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36: 4.

Nahat…Zera…Sama…Miza.
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Reuel.

Aná…Zibeón.
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Basemat…Aholibama
Estos son los nombres de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos en 36:1.

Genesis 36:15

Elifaz
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo su nombre en 36:4.

Temán, Omar, Zefo, Quenaz, Coré, Gatam y Amalec
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Elifaz.

Ada
Este es el nombre de una de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo su nombre en 36:1.

Genesis 36:17

Reul…Jeús, Jaalam y Coré
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:4.

Nahat, Zera, Sama y Miza.
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Reuel. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:13.

en la tierra de Edom Esto significa que vivían en la tierra de Edom. AT: "quien vivió en la tierra de Edom"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Basemat... Aholibama
Estos son los nombres de las esposas de Esaú. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36: 1.

Aná
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 36: 1.

Genesis 36:20

Seir
La palabra "Seir" es el nombre de un hombre y de un país.

los horeos
La palabra "Horeos" se refiere a un grupo de personas. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 14: 3.

los habitantes de la tierra
"que vivió en la tierra de Seir, que también se llama Edom"

Lotán, Sobal, Zibeón, Aná, Disón, Ezer y Disán..Hori y Hemam
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Timna
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Genesis 36:23

Sobal...Zibeón
Estos son nombres de hombres. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:20.

Alván, Manahat, Ebal, Sefo y Onam... Aja y Aná
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Genesis 36:25

Aná...Disón...Ezer..Disán
Estos son nombres de hombres. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:20.

Aholibama
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Hemdán, Esbán, Itrán y Querán...Bilhán, Zaaván y Acán... Uz y Arán.
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Genesis 36:29

Los Horeos
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14:3.

Lotán, Sobal, Zibeón, Aná, Disón, Ezer y Disán
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 36:20.

en la tierra de Seir Esto significa que vivían en la tierra de Seir. Traducción Alterna: "de los que vivían en la tierra de Seir"

Genesis 36:31

Bela...Beor...Jobab...Zera
Estos son nombres de hombres.

el nombre de su ciudad
Esto significa que esta era la ciudad donde vivía. Traducción Alterna: "el nombre de la ciudad donde vivió"

Dinaba...Bosra
Estos son nombres de lugares.

Genesis 36:34

Jobab
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 36:31.

Husan...Hadad...Bedad...Samla
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Husam de la tierra de los Temanitas reinó en su lugar
Esto significa que Husham vivió en la tierra de los temanitas. TA: "Husham que vivió en la tierra de los temanitas"

Avit...Masreca
Estos son nombres de lugares.

Temanitas
"los descendientes de Temán"

El nombre de su ciudad
Esto significa que esta era la ciudad donde vivía. TA: "El nombre de la ciudad donde vivió"

Samla de Masreca
"Samla de Masreca"

Genesis 36:37

Samla
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 36:34.

entonces Saúl de Rehobot junto al río reinó en su lugar Saúl vivió en Rehobot. Rehobot estaba junto al río Éufrates. Esta información se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "entonces Saúl reinó en su lugar. Era de Rehobot, que está junto al río Éufrates"

Saúl...Baal-hanán...Acbor...Hadar....Matred...Mezaab
Estos son nombres de hombres.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Rehobot...Pau
Estos son nombres de lugares.

El nombre de su ciudad
Esto significa que esta era la ciudad donde vivía. Traducción Alterna: "El nombre de la ciudad donde vivió" la hija de Matred, la nieta de Mezaab.

La información que falta se puede agregar. Traducción Alterna: "ella era la hija de Matred, y la nieta de Mezaab"

Mehetabel
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Genesis 36:40

Los líderes de los clanes
"Las cabezas de los clanes".

de acuerdo a sus clanes y a sus regiones, por sus nombres
Los clanes y las regiones fueron nombrados por los jefes de los clanes. Ver la UDB para una traducción más clara. Traducción Alterna: "el nombre de sus clanes y las regiones donde vivían fueron nombrados después de ellos. Estos son sus nombres:"

Timna, Alva, Jetet, Aholibama, Ela, Pinón, Quenaz, Temán, Mibzar, Magdiel e Iram Estos son nombres de grupos de personas.

poblados
"Lugares de residencia" o "Los lugares donde vivían".

Este era Esaú
Esta lista dice "para ser" de Esaú, lo que significa que es la lista completa de sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "Esta es la lista de los descendientes de Esaú"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 37

1 Jacob vivió en la tierra donde su padre se estaba quedando, en la tierra de Canaán. 2 Estos fueron los eventos concernientes a Jacob. José, quien era un joven de diecisiete años de edad, estaba cuidando el rebaño con sus hermanos. El estaba con los hijos de Bilha y con los hijos de Zilpa, las esposas de su padre. José trajo un informe desfavorable acerca de ellos a su padre. 3 Ahora Israel amaba a José más que a todos sus hijos porque él fue el hijo de su vejez. Él le hizo una hermosa prenda de vestir. 4 Sus hermanos vieron que su padre lo amaba más que a todos sus hermanos. Ellos lo odiaban y no le hablaban cordialmente. 5 José soñó un sueño, y se lo contó a sus hermanos. Ellos lo odiaron aún más. 6 El les dijo a ellos: "Por favor escuchen este sueño que yo soñé. 7 Miren, nosotros estábamos atando manojos de grano en el campo y, miren, mi manojo se elevó y se puso derecho, y miren, los manojos de ustedes se pusieron alrededor y se inclinaron hacía mi manojo." 8 Sus hermanos le dijeron a el: "¿De verdad crees que tú reinarás sobre nosotros? ¿De veras que nos gobernarás?'' Ellos le odiaron aún más por sus sueños y por sus palabras. 9 Él tuvo otro sueño y se lo contó a sus hermanos. Él dijo: " Miren, yo tuve otro sueño: El sol y la luna y once estrellas se inclinaban ante mi." 10 El se lo contó a su padre así como a sus hermanos, y su padre lo reprendió. El le dijo: "¿Qué es este sueño que tú has soñado? ¿Tu madre y yo y tus hermanos realmente nos postraremos en tierra delante de ti?" 11 Sus hermanos estaban celosos de él, pero su padre mantuvo el asunto en su mente. 12 Sus hermanos fueron a cuidar el rebaño de su padre en Siquem. 13 Israel le dijo a José: "¿No están tus hermanos cuidando el rebaño en Siquem? Ven, y yo te enviaré a ellos." José le dijo a él: "Estoy listo." 14 Él le dijo: "Ve ahora, mira si está todo bien con tus hermanos y todo bien con el rebaño y tráeme noticias." Así que Jacob lo envió fuera del Valle de Hebrón y José fue a Siquem. 15 Cierto hombre encontró a José. Miren, José estaba vagando en un campo. El hombre le preguntó: "¿Que buscas?" 16 José dijo: "Estoy buscando a mis hermanos. Dígame, por favor, dónde están ellos cuidando el rebaño." 17 El hombre dijo: "Ellos dejaron este lugar, pues yo les oí decir: 'Vayamos a Dotán.'" José fue tras sus hermanos y los encontró en Dotán. 18 Ellos lo vieron a la distancia, y antes de que él se acercara a ellos, ellos tramaron contra él para matarlo. 19 Sus hermanos dijeron unos a otros: " Miren, este soñador se está acercando. 20 Vengan ahora, por lo tanto, matémosle y echémosle en uno de los pozos. Diremos: 'Un animal salvaje lo ha devorado.' Nosotros veremos qué será de sus sueños." 21 Rubén lo escuchó y lo rescató de sus manos. El dijo: "No tomemos su vida." 22 Rubén les dijo: "No derramen sangre. Échenlo en este pozo que está en el desierto, pero no le pongan una mano sobre él," para él poder rescatarlo de sus manos y llevarlo a su padre de vuelta. 23 Sucedió que cuando José llegó donde sus hermanos, ellos lo despojaron de su hermosa prenda. 24 Lo tomaron y lo echaron en el pozo. El pozo estaba vacío sin agua en él. 25 Ellos se sentaron a comer pan. Ellos levantaron su vista y miraron, y miren, una caravana de ismaelitas venía de Galaad, con sus camellos cargando especias y bálsamo y mirra. Ellos estaban viajando para llevarlos a Egipto. 26 Judá le dijo a sus hermanos: "¿Qué provecho tenemos de matar a nuestro hermano y esconder su sangre? 27 Vengan, y vendámoslo a los ismaelitas y no pongamos nuestras manos sobre el. Porque él es nuestro hermano, nuestra carne." Sus hermanos lo escucharon. 28 Los mercaderes madianitas pasaron. Sus hermanos sacaron a José y lo subieron del pozo. Ellos vendieron a José a los ismaelitas por veinte piezas de plata. Los ismaelitas se llevaron a José a Egipto. 29 Rubén regresó al pozo, y, miren, José no estaba en el pozo. El se rasgó sus vestiduras. 30 El regresó a sus hermanos y dijo: "¿Dónde está el muchacho? Y yo, ¿a dónde puedo ir? 31 Ellos mataron una cabra y entonces tomaron la prenda de José y la mojaron en la sangre. 32 Entonces ellos la trajeron a su padre y dijeron: "Nosotros encontramos esto. Por favor, mira a ver si es la ropa de tu hijo o no." 33 Jacob la reconoció y dijo: "Es la ropa de mi hijo. Un animal salvaje lo ha devorado. José ciertamente ha sido hecho pedazos." 34 Jacob se rasgó sus vestiduras y puso saco sobre sus lomos. El lloró por su hijo muchos días. 35 Todos sus hijos e hijas se levantaron a consolarlo, pero él rehusó ser consolado. El dijo: "Ciertamente yo bajaré al Seol lamentando a mi hijo." Su padre lloró por él. 36 Los madianitas lo vendieron en Egipto a Potifar, un oficial de Faraón, el capitán de los guardaespaldas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 37:1

la tierra donde su padre había permanecido, en la tierra de Canaán
"En la tierra de Canaán donde había vivido su padre"

Estos fueron lo eventos concernientes a Jacob Esta oración introduce el relato de los hijos de Jacob en Génesis 37:1- 50:26. Aquí "Jacob" se refiere a toda su familia. Traducción Alterna: "Esta es la cuenta de la familia de Jacob" diecisiete años de edad,

"17 años de edad"

Bila
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Raquel. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 29:28.

Zilpa
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 29:23.

esposas
"concubinas" (UDB). Estas mujeres eran sirvientas de Lea y Raquel que fueron entregadas a Jacob para tener hijos.

un informe de ellos muy desfavorable.
"Un mal informe sobre sus hermanos"

Genesis 37:3

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de trasfondo sobre Israel y José.

amaba
Esto se refiere al amor fraternal o al amor de un amigo o familiar. Este es el amor humano natural entre amigos o familiares.

de su vejez
Esto significa que José nació cuando Israel era un hombre viejo. Traducción Alterna: "quien nació cuando Israel era un hombre viejo"

Él le hizo
"Israel hizo a José"

una hermosa prenda de vestir
"una hermosa túnica"

y no le hablaban cordialmente a él.
"No podía hablarle con amabilidad"

Genesis 37:5

José soñó un sueño, y le dijo a sus hermanos sobre el. Ellos le odiaron aún más Este es un resumen de los eventos que ocurrirán en 37: 6-11.

Ellos le odiaron aún más.
"Y los hermanos de José lo odiaron incluso más de lo que lo odiaron antes"

Por favor escuchen sobre este sueño que yo soñé.
"Por favor escucha este sueño que tuve" (UDB)

Genesis 37:7

Información general
José le cuenta a sus hermanos sobre su sueño.

Observa
La palabra "observaba" nos alerta a prestar atención a la información sorprendente que sigue.

nosotros estábamos
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a José e incluye a todos sus hermanos.

atando manojos del grano
Cuando el grano se cosecha, se atan en paquetes y se apilan hasta que llega el momento de separar el grano de la paja.

y observaba
Aquí la palabra "observaba" muestra que José estaba sorprendido por lo que vio.

que mi manojo se elevó y se mantuvo firme hacia arriba ...que sus manojos venían a su alrededor y se inclinaban hacía mi manojo Aquí los paquetes de grano están de pie y arrodillados como si fueran personas. Estos paquetes representan a José y sus hermanos.

¿De verdad crees que tú reinaras sobre nosotros? ¿Gobiernas tú actualmente sobre nosotros?
Ambas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Los hermanos de José están usando preguntas para burlarse de él. Se pueden escribir como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nunca serás nuestro rey, y nunca nos rendiremos ante ti!"

reinarás sobre nosotros
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a los hermanos de José pero no a José.

por sus sueños y sus palabras.
"Por sus sueños y por lo que ha dicho".

Genesis 37:9

Él tuvo otro sueño
"José tuvo otro sueño"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

once estrellas 11 estrellas

su padre le reprendió. El le dijo
"Israel lo regañó, diciendo"

¿Qué es este sueño que tu has soñado? ¿Tu madre... nos postramos en tierra delante de tí?
Israel usa preguntas para corregir a José. Esto puede ser escrito como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Este sueño que tuviste no es real. ¡Tu madre, hermanos, y yo no nos inclinaremos ante ti!"

celosos
Esto significa estar enojado porque alguien más tiene éxito o es más popular.

mantuvo el asunto en su mente.
Significa que él siguió pensando en el significado del sueño de José. Traducción Alterna: "siguió pensando en lo que podría significar el sueño"

Genesis 37:12

¿No están tus hermanos cuidando el rebaño en Siquem?
Israel usa una pregunta para comenzar una conversación. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Tus hermanos cuidan el rebaño en Siquem".

Ven
Aquí se implica que Israel le está pidiendo a José que se prepare para irse y ver a sus hermanos. Traducción Alterna: "Prepárate"

estoy listo
Él está listo para irse. "Estoy listo para ir"

El le dijo
"Israel le dijo a José"

tráeme la palabra
Israel quiere que José regrese y le cuente cómo están sus hermanos y sus rebaños. Traducción Alterna: "ven, dime lo que descubres" o "dame un informe"

fuera del valle
"del valle"

Genesis 37:15

Cierto hombre encontró a José. Observó, que José estaba errando por un campo
"Un cierto hombre encontró a José vagando en un campo"

Observó
Esto marca el comienzo de otro evento en la historia más grande. Puede involucrar a personas diferentes a los eventos anteriores. Tu idioma puede tener una forma de hacer esto.

¿Que buscas?
"¿Qué estás buscando?"

Por favor, dígame, donde
"Por favor dime donde"

cuidando el rebaño.
"pastoreando su rebaño"

Dotán
Este es el nombre de un lugar que está a unos 22 kilómetros de Siquem.

Genesis 37:18

Ellos le vieron a la distancia
"Los hermanos de José lo vieron mientras estaba lejos" confabularon en contra de él para matarlo.

"Hicieron planes para matarlo"

el soñador se esta acercando
"Aquí viene el que tiene los sueños".

Vengamos ahora
Esta redacción muestra que los hermanos actuaron de acuerdo con sus planes. Traducción Alterna: "Así que ahora"

animal salvaje
"animal peligroso" o "animal feroz" devoró

haber comido ansiosamente

Nosotros veremos que sera de sus sueños
Sus hermanos planearon matarlo, por lo tanto, es irónico que hablen de su sueño hecho realidad, ya que él estaría muerto. Traducción Alterna: "De esa manera nos aseguraremos de que sus sueños no se hagan realidad"

Genesis 37:21

escucho esto
"escucharon lo que decían"

rescato de sus manos
La frase "su mano" se refiere al plan de los hermanos para matarlo. Traducción Alterna: "de ellos" o "de sus planes"

No tomemos su vida
La frase "tomar la vida" es un eufemismo para "matar a alguien". Traducción Alterna: "No matemos a José"

No derramemos sangre
La negación se puede colocar en el verbo. Además, "derramar sangre" es un eufemismo por matar a alguien. Traducción Alterna: "No derrames sangre" o "No lo mates"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no pongamos una mano sobre él
Esto significa no hacerle daño ni herirlo. Traducción Alterna: "no le hagas daño"

para él poder rescatarle de sus manos Esto se puede traducir como una nueva oración: "Rubén dijo esto para poder rescatar a José"

de sus manos
La frase "sus manos" se refiere al plan de los hermanos para matarlo.Traducción Alterna: "de ellos" o "de sus planes"

y llevarlo de vuelta
y devolverlo

Genesis 37:23

Sucedió que cuando José llegó donde
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

ellos lo despojaron de su hermosa prenda
"Le arrancaron su hermosa prenda"

hermosa prenda
"hermosa túnica". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 37: 3.

Genesis 37:25

Ellos se sentaron a comer pan
"Pan" es un metónimo para "comida". Traducción Alterna: "Se sentaron a comer" o "Los hermanos de José se sentaron a comer"

Ellos levantaron su vista y observaron, que una caravana Aquí se habla de mirar hacia arriba como si una persona literalmente alzara sus ojos. Además, la palabra "observaron" se usa aquí para llamar la atención del lector sobre lo que vieron los hombres. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos miraron hacia arriba y de repente vieron una caravana"

transportando
"que lleva"

especias
condimentos

bálsamo
Una sustancia grasa con un olor dulce utilizado para curar y proteger la piel. "medicina"

Ellos estaban viajando para llevarlas a Egipto
"Trayéndolas a Egipto". Esto puede hacerse más explícito. Traducción Alterna: "llevarlas a Egipto para venderlos"

¿que provecho tenemos de matar a nuestro hermano y cubrirlo de sangre?
Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No obtenemos ganancias al matar a nuestro hermano y encubrir su sangre"

cubrirlo de sangre
Esta es una figura de discurso que se refiere a ocultar la muerte de José. Traducción Alterna: "esconder su asesinato"

Genesis 37:27

a los ismaelitas
"A estos hombres que son descendientes de Ismael" (UDB)

no pongamos nuestras manos sobre él
Esto significa no hacerle daño ni herirlo. Traducción Alterna: "no le hagas daño"

él es nuestro hermano, nuestra carne
La palabra "carne" es un metónimo que significa un familiar. Traducción Alterna: "él es nuestro pariente de sangre" .

Sus hermanos le escucharon
"Los hermanos de Judá lo escucharon" o "Los hermanos de Judá estuvieron de acuerdo con él"

madianitas... ismaelitas
Ambos nombres se refieren al mismo grupo de comerciantes que se encuentran los hermanos de José.

por veinte piezas de plata
"por el precio de 20 piezas de plata"

se llevaron a José a Egipto
"llevó a José a Egipto" (UDB)

Genesis 37:29

Rubén regreso al pozo, y observó que José no estaba en el pozo
"Rubén regresó al hoyo y se sorprendió al ver que Jose no estaba allí". La palabra "observó" muestra que Rubén se sorprendió al descubrir que Jose se había ido.

El se rasgó sus vestiduras
Este es un acto de profunda angustia y dolor. Esto se puede escribir más claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Estaba tan afligido que se rasgó la ropa"

¿Dónde está el muchacho? ¿Y adonde debo ir?
Rubén usa preguntas para enfatizar el problema que José estaba faltando. Estos pueden ser escritos como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "¡El muchacho se ha ido! ¡No puedo volver a casa ahora!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 37:31

la prenda de José
Esto se refiere a la hermosa prenda que su padre hizo para él.

la sangre
"la sangre de la cabra"

la trajeron
"trajeron la prenda"

le ha devorado
"le ha comido"

José ciertamente ha sido hecho pedazos
Jacob piensa que un animal salvaje ha destrozado el cuerpo de José. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente ha hecho pedazos a José"

Genesis 37:34

Jacob se rasgó sus vestiduras
Este es un acto de profunda angustia y dolor. Esto se puede escribir más claramente. Traducción Alterna: "Jacob estaba tan afligido que rasgó sus prendas"

puso saco sobre sus lomos Aquí "lomos" se refiere a la parte media del cuerpo o la cintura. Traducción Alterna: "poner en cilicio"

se levantaron
Aquí se habla de los niños que vienen a su padre como "levantarse". Traducción Alterna: "vino a él"

En efecto yo bajaré al Seol a llorar por mi hijo.
Lo que significa que él estará de luto desde ahora hasta que muera. Traducción Alterna: "De hecho, cuando muera y baje al Seol, todavía estaré de luto"

pero el rehusaba ser consolado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero él no dejaría que lo consolaran"

Los madianitas lo vendieron
"Los madianitas vendieron a José"

el capitán de los guardaespaldas
"El líder de los soldados que custodiaban al rey".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 38

1 Sucedió para ese tiempo que Judá dejó a sus hermanos y se quedó con cierto adulamita, cuyo nombre era Hira. 2 Él conoció allí la hija de un hombre cananeo cuyo nombre era Súa. Él se casó con ella y durmió con ella. 3 Ella quedó embarazada y tuvo un hijo. Él fue llamado Er. 4 Ella quedó embarazada nuevamente y tuvo un hijo. Ella lo llamó Onán. 5 Ella nuevamente tuvo un hijo y lo llamó Sela. Fue en Quezib donde ella lo dio a luz. 6 Judá encontró una esposa para Er, su primogénito. Su nombre fue Tamar. 7 Er, el primogénito de Judá, era malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. EL SEÑOR lo mató. 8 Judá le dijo a Onán: "Duerme con la esposa de tu hermano. Cumple el deber de un cuñado con ella, y cría un hijo para tu hermano." 9 Onán sabía que el hijo no sería de él. Cuando él dormía con la esposa de su hermano, él derramaba el semen en el suelo, para así no tener un hijo para su hermano. 10 Lo que él hizo fue malo ante los ojos del SEÑOR. EL SEÑOR también lo mató. 11 Entonces Judá le dijo a Tamar, su nuera: "Quédate viuda en la casa de tu padre hasta que Sela, mi hijo, crezca." Porque él temía: "Él podría también morir, así como sus hermanos." Tamar se fue y vivió en la casa de su padre. 12 Luego de un largo tiempo, la hija de Súa, la esposa de Judá, murió. Judá fue consolado y subió a los trasquiladores de sus ovejas en Timnat, él y su amigo Hira el adulamita. 13 Se le dijo a Tamar: "Mira, tu suegro está subiendo hacia Timnat para trasquilar sus ovejas." 14 Ella se quitó la ropa de su viudez y se cubrió con su velo y se envolvió. Se sentó a la puerta de Enaim, la cual está en el camino hacia Timnat. Pues ella vio que Sela había crecido pero ella no había sido entregada a él como esposa. 15 Cuando Judá la vio, él pensó que ella era una prostituta porque ella se había cubierto el rostro. 16 Él fue hacia ella en el camino y dijo: "Ven, por favor, déjame dormir contigo" pues él no sabía que ella era su nuera, y ella dijo: "¿Qué me darás para que tú puedas dormir conmigo?" 17 Él dijo: "Yo te enviaré un cabrito del rebaño." Ella dijo: "¿Me darás una prenda hasta que me lo envíes?" 18 Él dijo: "¿Qué prenda te puedo dar?" Ella respondió: "Tu sello, y tu cordón y el bastón que está en tu mano." Él se los dio a ella y durmió con ella y ella quedó embarazada de él. 19 Ella se levantó y se fue. Se quitó su velo y se puso la ropa de su viudez. 20 Judá envió el cabrito del rebaño con su amigo el adulamita para recibir la prenda de la mano de la mujer, pero él no la encontró. 21 Entonces el adulamita le preguntó a los hombres del lugar: "¿Dónde está la prostituta cúltica que estuvo en Enaim por el camino?" Ellos dijeron: "No ha habido una prostituta cúltica por aqui." 22 Él regresó hacia Judá y dijo: "No la encontré. También, los hombres del lugar dijeron: 'Aquí no ha estado una prostituta cúltica.'" 23 Judá dijo: "Deja que se quede con las cosas, para que no seamos puestos en vergüenza. Ciertamente, yo envié este cabrito joven, pero tú no la encontraste." 24 Sucedió que luego cerca de tres meses que le fue dicho a Judá: "Tamar tu nuera ha cometido prostitución, y en efecto, está embarazada del acto." Judá dijo: "Tráiganla aquí y dejen que sea quemada." 25 Cuando se le trajo afuera, ella le envió un mensaje a su suegro: "Por el hombre que posee estos yo estoy embarazada." Ella dijo: "Determine por favor de quién son estos: el sello, el cordón y el bastón." 26 Judá los reconoció y dijo: "Ella es más justa que yo, ya que yo no la di como esposa a mi hijo Sela." Él no volvió a dormir con ella. 27 Sucedió que en el tiempo para dar a luz, miren, eran gemelos en su vientre. 28 Ocurrió que cuando ella estaba dando a luz uno sacó una mano, y la partera sacó un hilo de escarlata y lo amarró en su mano y dijo: "Este salió primero." 29 Pero entonces él retiró su mano y, miren, su hermano salió primero. La partera dijo: "¡Cómo te has abierto tu camino!" Asi que fue llamado Fares. 30 Luego su hermano salió, el que tenía el hilo de escarlata en su mano, y fue llamado Zara.

Genesis 38:1

Pasó alrededor de ese tiempo cuando Judá
Esto introduce una nueva parte de la historia que se centra en Judá.

cierta Adulamita, cuyo nombre era Hira Hira es el nombre de un hombre que vivió en Adulam. Adulamita es su nacionalidad.

cuyo nombre era Súa
Súa es una mujer cananea que se casó con Judá.

Genesis 38:3

Ella se embarazó
"La esposa de Judá quedó embarazada"

Él fue llamado Er
Esto puede ser escrito en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Su padre lo llamó Er"

Er...Onán...Sela
Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Judá.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

llamó su nombre
lo llamó

Quezib
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

Genesis 38:6

Er
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Judá. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:3.

era malo ante los ojos del Señor
La frase "a la vista" se refiere al Señor viendo la maldad de Er. Traducción Alterna: "era malvado y el Señor lo vio"

El Señor lo mató
El Señor lo mató porque era malvado. Esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Y el Señor lo mató"

Genesis 38:8

Onán
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Judá. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:3.

Haz la labor de un cuñado Esto se refiere a la costumbre de que cuando el hermano mayor muere antes de que él y su esposa tengan un hijo, el siguiente hermano mayor se casará y tendrá relaciones sexuales con la viuda. Cuando la viuda dio a luz al primer hijo, ese hijo era considerado el hijo del hermano mayor y él recibiría la herencia del hermano mayor.

fue malo ante los ojos del Señor
La frase "a la vista" se refiere a el Señor viendo la maldad de Onán. Traducción Alterna: "era malo y el Señor lo vio"

EL Señor también lo mató.
El Señor lo mató porque lo que hizo fue malvado. Esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Y el Señor también lo mató"

Genesis 38:11

su nuera
"la esposa de su hijo mayor"

en la casa de tu padre Esto significa que ella vivirá aquí en la casa del padre. Traducción Alterna: "y vive en la casa de tu padre" hasta que Sela, mi hijo, crezca.

Judá tiene la intención de que Tamar se case con Sela cuando él crezca. Traducción Alterna: "y cuando Sela, mi hijo, crezca, él puede casarse contigo"

Sela
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Judá. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:3.

Porque él temía: Él podría también morir, así como sus hermanos.
Judá temía que si Sela se casaba con Tamar, él también moriría como lo hicieron sus hermanos. Traducción Alterna: "Porque temía: 'Si se casa con ella, también puede morir como lo hicieron sus hermanos'"

Genesis 38:12

Súa
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:1.

Judá se conformó y
"Cuando Judá ya no estaba de duelo, él"

a los trasquiladores de sus ovejas en Timnat,
"Timnat, donde sus hombres estaban esquilando ovejas"

Timnat...Enaim
Estos son nombres de lugares.

él y su amigo Hira el adulamita.
"Su amigo Hira, de Ádulam, fue con él" (UDB)

Hira el adulamita
"Hira" es el nombre de un hombre, y "Ádulam" es el nombre de un pueblo donde vivía. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:1.

Se le dijo a Tamar:
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien le dijo a Tamar"

Mira, tu suegro
"Escucha". Aquí la palabra "mira" se usa para llamar la atención de Tamar.

suegro
"el padre de tu marido"

de su viudez que usan las viudas

Velo
Un material muy delgado que se usa para cubrir la cabeza y la cara de una mujer.

se envolvió bien
Esto significa que se escondió con su ropa para que la gente no la reconociera. Tradicionalmente, parte de la ropa de las mujeres eran grandes piezas de tela con las que se envolvían. Traducción Alterna: "y se envolvió en su ropa para que la gente no la reconociera"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en el camino
"por el camino" o "en el camino"

ella no había sido entregada a él como esposa.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Judá no la había entregado a Sela como esposa"

Genesis 38:15

porque ella se había cubierto el rostro
Judá no pensaba que era una prostituta solo porque su cara estaba cubierta, sino también porque estaba sentada en la puerta. Traducción Alterna: "porque se cubrió la cabeza y se sentó donde solían sentarse las prostitutas"

Él fue hacia ella en el camino Tamar estaba sentada junto a la carretera. Traducción Alterna: "Él fue a donde ella estaba sentada junto a la carretera"

ven
"Ven conmigo" o "Ven ahora"

Cuando Judá la vio
"Cuando Judá vio a Tamar"

su nuera
"la esposa de su hijo"

Genesis 38:17

del rebaño
"de mi rebaño de cabras"

Tu sello, tu cordón...bastón
Un "sello" es similar a una moneda con un diseño grabado en ella, que se utiliza para imprimir cera fundida. El "cordón" fue puesto a través del sello para que el dueño lo pudiera usar alrededor de su cuello. Un bastón era un palo largo de madera que ayudaba a caminar sobre un terreno accidentado.

Ella quedó embarazada de él.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "él la hizo quedar embarazada"

Genesis 38:19

velo
Este era un material muy delgado utilizado para cubrir la cabeza y la cara de una mujer. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:12.

ropa de su viudez
"La ropa que usan las viudas". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:12

del rebaño
"de su rebaño"

Adulamita
"Adulam" es el nombre de un pueblo donde vivía Hiram. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:1. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:1.

recibir las prendas Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traduccion Alterna: "recuperar el compromiso" de la mano de la mujer, Aquí la "mano" enfatiza que estaban en posesión. La mano de la mujer se refiere a la mujer. Traducción Alterna: "de la mujer"

Genesis 38:21

Adulamita
"Adulam" es el nombre de un pueblo donde vivía Hiram. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38:1. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:1.

los hombres del lugar
"Algunos de los hombres que vivieron allí".

prostituta cúltica
"prostituta que sirve en el templo"

Enaim
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:12.

para que no seamos puestos en vergüenza
Cuando la gente descubriera lo que había sucedido, ridiculizarían a Judá y se reirían de él. Esto se puede aclarar y declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "o si no, la gente se reirá de nosotros cuando descubran lo que sucedió"

Genesis 38:24

Fue
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia.

le fue dicho a Judá Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "alguien le dijo a Judá"

Tamar tu nuera
"Tamar, la esposa de tu hijo mayor"

y en efecto, está embarazada Aquí la palabra "eso" se refiere a la "prostitución" que ella cometió. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la ha dejado embarazada" o "está embarazada"

Tráiganla aquí
saquenla

y quémenla
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la quemaremos hasta la muerte"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cuando se le trajo
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando la sacaron" su suegro

"el padre de su marido"

sello y cordón y bastón
Un "sello" es similar a una moneda con un diseño grabado en ella, usado para hacer una impresión en cera fundida. El "cordón" fue puesto a través del sello para que el dueño lo pudiera usar alrededor de su cuello. Un bastón era un palo largo de madera que ayudaba a caminar sobre un terreno accidentado. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 38:17.

Sela
Este es el nombre de uno de los hijos de Judá. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 38: 3.

Genesis 38:27

Surgió que al momento
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia.

mira
La palabra "mira" nos alerta de la sorpresa de que Tamar estaba embarazada de gemelos, que antes era desconocida.

Surgió que al momento de ella dar a luz Esta palabra "Sucedió" marca un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

uno sacó una mano
"Uno de los bebés le tendió la mano".

partera
Esta es una persona que ayuda a una mujer cuando está dando a luz a un niño. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 35:16.

hilo de escarlata
"hilo rojo brillante"

en su mano
"alrededor de su muñeca"

Genesis 38:29

Ocurrió
Esta frase marca un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

mira
La palabra "mira" nos alerta a prestar atención a la información sorprendente que sigue.

¡Como has salido!
Esto muestra la sorpresa de la partera al ver salir primero al segundo bebé. Traducción Alterna: "¡Así que esta es la forma de salir primero!" o "¡Has salido primero!"

fue llamado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ella lo llamó"

Fares
Este es el nombre de un niño. Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Fares significa romperse'"

Zara
Este es el nombre de un niño. Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre Zara significa 'rojo escarlata o brillante'"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 39

1 José fue traído a Egipto. Potifar, un oficial de Faraón quien era capitán de la guardia y un egipcio, lo compró de los ismaelitas, quienes le trajeron hasta allí. 2 Él SEÑOR estaba con José y él vino a ser un hombre próspero. Él vivió en la casa de su amo egipcio. 3 Su amo vio que El SEÑOR estaba con él y que El SEÑOR prosperaba todo lo que él hacía. 4 José encontró favor ante su vista. Él sirvió a Potifar. Potifar hizo de José el encargado sobre su casa, y todo lo que él poseía lo puso bajo su cuidado. 5 Aconteció que desde el tiempo en que él lo hizo encargado de toda su casa y sobre todo lo que poseía, que EL SEÑOR bendijo la casa del egipcio por causa de José. La bendición del SEÑOR estaba sobre todo lo que Potifar tenía en la casa y en el campo. 6 Potifar puso todo lo que él tenía bajo el cuidado de José. Él no tenía que pensar en nada a excepción de la comida que comía. Ahora, José era hermoso y atractivo. 7 Sucedió después de esto que la esposa de su amo sintió lujuria por José. Ella dijo: "Duerme conmigo." 8 Pero él rehusó y le dijo a la esposa de su amo: "Mira, mi amo no le presta atención a lo que yo hago en la casa, y él ha puesto todo lo que le pertenece bajo mi cuidado. 9 Nadie es más grande que yo en esta casa. Él no ha retenido nada de mí excepto a ti, porque tú eres su esposa. ¿Cómo entonces puedo yo hacer esta gran maldad y pecar contra Dios? 10 Ella le hablaba a José día tras día, pero él se rehusaba a dormir con ella o estar con ella. 11 Sucedió un día que él fue a la casa para hacer su trabajo. Ninguno de los hombres de la casa estaban allí en la casa. 12 Ella lo agarró por sus ropas y dijo: "Duerme conmigo." El dejó su ropa en la mano de ella, huyó y salió fuera. 13 Aconteció que cuando ella vio que él había dejado su ropa en su mano y había huído fuera, 14 que ella llamó a los hombres de su casa y les dijo: "Mira, Potifar trajo a un hebreo para burlarse de nosotros. Él vino a mí para dormir conmigo y yo grité. 15 Sucedió que cuando él me escuchó gritar, él dejó su ropa conmigo, huyó y salió fuera." 16 Ella puso su rops a su lado hasta que su señor vino a la casa. 17 Ella le dio esta explicación: "El sirviente hebreo que tú trajiste a nosotros, vino a burlarse de mí. 18 Sucedió que cuando yo grité, él dejó su ropa conmigo y huyó fuera." 19 Sucedió que, cuando su señor oyó la explicación que su esposa le contó: "Esto es lo que tu siervo me hizo," él se enojó mucho. 20 El amo de José lo tomó y lo puso en prisión, el lugar donde los prisioneros del rey estaban confinados. Él estuvo allí en la prisión. 21 Pero el SEÑOR estaba con José y mostró un pacto de fidelidad hacia él. Él le dio favor ante los ojos del guardián de la prisión. 22 El guardián de la prisión puso en las manos de José a todos los prisioneros que estaban en la prisión. José estaba a cargo de cualquier cosa que ellos hacían allí. 23 El guardián de la prisión no se preocupaba por nada de lo que estaba en su mano, porque el SEÑOR estaba con él. Todo lo que él hacía, el SEÑOR lo prosperaba.

Genesis 39:1

José fue traído a Egipto
Viajar a Egipto siempre se considera como "ir hacia abajo" en contraste con ir "hacia arriba" a la tierra prometida. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los ismaelitas habían llevado a José a Egipto"

El Señor estaba con José
Esto significa que el Señor ayudó a José y siempre estuvo con él. Traducción Alterna: "El Señor guió a José y lo ayudó"

Él vivió en la casa Aquí el autor habla de trabajar en la casa del maestro como si estuviera viviendo en la casa del maestro. Sólo a los servidores más confiables se les permitía trabajar en la casa de su amo. Traducción Alterna: "trabajó en la casa" su señor egipcio.

José era ahora el esclavo de Potifar.

Genesis 39:3

Su señor vió que el SEÑOR estaba con él
Esto significa que el maestro vio cómo el Señor estaba ayudando a José. Traducción Alterna: "Su maestro vio que el SEÑOR lo estaba ayudando"

el SEÑOR lo prosperaba en todo lo que él hacía
"El Señor hizo que todo lo que hacía José prosperara".

José encontró favor ante su vista "Encontrar favor" significa ser aprobado por alguien. La expresión idiomática "ante su vista" se refiere a la opinión de una persona. Los posibles significados son 1) Traducción Alterna: "Potifar estaba complacido con José" o 2) Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR estaba complacido con José"

Él sirvió a Potifar
Esto significa que él era el sirviente personal de Potifar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Potifar hizo de José el administrador sobre su casa, y todas sus posesiones las puso bajo su cuidado
"Potifar puso a José a cargo de su casa y de todo lo que pertenecía a Potifar" puso bajo su cuidado.

Cuando algo se "pone bajo el cuidado de alguien", significa que la persona es responsable de su cuidado y seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "él tenía a José a cargo de"

Genesis 39:5

Vino a ser que para el tiempo
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de la siguiente parte de la historia.

él lo hizo administrador de toda su casa y sobre todas sus posesiones
"Potifar puso a José a cargo de su casa y de todo lo que le pertenecía"

bendijo
Aquí, "bendecir" significa causar que cosas buenas y beneficiosas le ocurran a la persona o cosa que está siendo bendecida.

La Bendición del SEÑOR fue sobre Aquí el autor habla de la bendición que el Señor dio como si fuera una cubierta física puesta sobre algo. Traducción Alterna: "El Señor ha bendecido"

todo lo que Potifar tenía en la casa y en el campo Esto se refiere a su casa y sus cultivos y ganado. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "La casa de Potifar y todos sus cultivos y ganado"

Potifar puso todo lo que él tenía bajo el cuidado de José
Cuando algo se "pone bajo el cuidado de alguien", significa que la persona es responsable de su cuidado y seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "Así que Potifar puso a José a cargo de todo lo que tenía"

Él no tenía que pensar sobre nada a excepción de la comida que comería
No tenía que preocuparse por nada en su casa; solo tenía que tomar decisiones sobre lo que quería comer. Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Potifar solo tenía que pensar en lo que quería comer. No tenía que preocuparse por nada más en su casa"

Ahora
La palabra "ahora" marca una ruptura en la línea de la historia cuando el autor brinda información de antecedentes sobre José.

hermoso y atractivo
Ambas palabras tienen el mismo significado. Se refieren a la apariencia agradable de José. Probablemente era guapo y fuerte. Traducción Alterna: "bien parecido y fuerte"

Genesis 39:7

Fue después de esto que
"Y entonces." Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un nuevo evento en la historia.

Mira
"Escucha." José usa esta palabra para llamar la atención de la esposa de Potifar.

"Mira, mi señor no le presta atención a lo que yo hago en esta casa
"mi maestro no tiene ninguna preocupación sobre su casa conmigo a cargo". Esto puede ser escrito en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "mi maestro me confía su casa" (Ver:

ha puesto todo lo que le pertenece bajo mi cuidado
Cuando algo se "pone bajo el cuidado de alguien", significa que la persona es responsable de su cuidado y seguridad. Traducción Alterna: "él me ha puesto a cargo de todo lo que le pertenece"

Nadie es más grande que yo en esta casa
Aquí el autor habla de autoridad como si fuera grandeza. Traducción Alterna: "Tengo más autoridad en esta casa que nadie"

Él no ha retenido nada de mí excepto a ti
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Él me ha dado todo excepto a ti"

Cómo entonces voy a hacer esta gran maldad y pecado contra Dios?
José usa una pregunta para enfatizar. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente no puedo hacer semejante maldad y pecar contra Dios".

Genesis 39:10

Ella le hablaba a José día tras día Esto significa que ella seguía pidiéndole que se acostara con ella. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Ella siguió pidiéndole a Jose que se acostara con ella"

estar con ella
"estar cerca de ella"

Vino a ser
"Y entonces." Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un nuevo evento en la historia.

Ninguno de los hombres de la casa
"Ninguno de los otros hombres que trabajaban en la casa".

huyó y salió fuera.
"y rápidamente corrió afuera" o "y rápidamente salió corriendo de la casa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 39:13

Vino a ser que....que ella llamó
"Entonces ... ella llamó". La frase "vino a ser " se usa aquí para marcar el próximo evento en la historia.

y huyó fuera
"Y se había ido rápidamente de la casa"

a los hombres de su casa
"Los hombres que trabajaban en su casa".

vean
"Escuchen." La esposa de Potifar usa esta palabra para llamar la atención de los sirvientes.

Él vino a mí para dormir conmigo
Aquí, la esposa de Potifar está acusando a José de intentar agarrarla y dormir con ella.

Vino a ser que cuando él me escuchó gritar, que él
"Cuando me escuchó gritar, él". La frase "vino a ser" se usa aquí para marcar el próximo evento en la historia.

Genesis 39:16

su señor
"El amo de José". Esto se refiere a Potifar.

Ella le dio esta explicación
"Ella lo explicó así"

tú trajiste a nosotros,
La palabra "nosotros" se refiere a Potifar, su esposa, e incluye al resto de la familia.

vino para burlarse de mí
"vino para tomarme por tonta". Aquí, la palabra "burlarse" es un eufemismo para "agarrar y dormir". Traducción Alterna: "Entré en donde estaba y traté de obligarme a dormir con él"

Vino a ser que
"Entonces." La esposa de Potifar usa esta frase para marcar el próximo evento en la cuenta que le está contando sobre José tratando de acostarse con ella.

huyó afuera
"salió corriendo de la casa rápidamente"

Genesis 39:19

Vino a ser que
"Y entonces." Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un nuevo evento en la historia.

su señor
"El amo de José". Esto se refiere a Potifar. Esta información puede hacerse explícita. Traducción Alterna: "El maestro de José, Potifar"

escuchó la explicación que su esposa le dio
"Escuchó a su esposa explicarle". La palabra "su" y "él" aquí se refieren a Potifar.

él se enojo mucho
"Potifar se enojó mucho"

el lugar donde prisioneros del rey estaban confinados Esto se puede decir en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el lugar donde el rey puso a sus prisioneros"

El estaba ahi
"José se quedó allí"

Genesis 39:21

Pero el SEÑOR estaba con Jose
Esto se refiere a cómo el SEÑOR cuidó a José y fue amable con él.Traducción Alterna: "Pero el SEÑOR fue amable con José"

Él le dio favor ante los ojos del guardián de la prisión Esto significa que el SEÑOR hizo que el director de la prisión aprobara a José y lo tratara bien. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR hizo que el director de la prisión se complaciera con José"

guardián de la prisión
"El gerente de la prisión" o "El encargado de la prisión".

puso en las manos de José Aquí "mano" representa el poder o la confianza de José. Traducción Alterna: "poner a José a cargo de"

José estaba a cargo de cualquier cosa que ellos hacían allí.
"José estuvo a cargo de todo lo que hicieron allí"

porque el SEÑOR estaba con él.
Esto se refiere a cómo el SEÑOR ayudó a José y lo guió. Traducción Alterna: "porque el Señor guió a José"

Todo lo que él hacía, EL SEÑOR lo prosperaba
"El SEÑOR hizo que todo lo que hizo José prosperara".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 40

1 Sucedió que luego de estas cosas, el copero y el panadero del rey de Egipto ofendieron a su señor, el rey de Egipto. 2 Faraón estaba enojado con sus dos oficiales, el jefe de los coperos y el jefe de los panaderos. 3 Él los puso bajo custodia en la casa del capitán de la guardia, en la misma prisión donde José estaba confinado. 4 El capitán de la guardia asignó a José a ser su sirviente. Ellos permanecieron bajo custodia por algún tiempo. 5 Los dos de ellos soñaron un sueño, el copero y el panadero del rey de Egipto, que estaban confinados en la prisión, cada hombre tuvo su propio sueño en la misma noche, y cada sueño tuvo su propia interpretación. 6 José vino a ellos en la mañana y les vio. Miren, estaban tristes. 7 Él preguntó a los oficiales de Faraón que estaban con él bajo custodia en la casa de su señor, diciendo: "¿Porque se ven tan tristes hoy?" 8 Ellos le dijeron: "Los dos hemos soñado un sueño y nadie lo ha podido interpretar." José les dijo: "¿No pertenecen las interpretaciones a Dios? Díganme, por favor." 9 El jefe de los coperos le dijo su sueño a José. Él le dijo: "En mi sueño, mira, una vid estaba frente a mí. 10 En la vid había tres ramas. Según brotaba, florecía y los racimos de uvas maduraban. 11 La copa de Faraón estaba en mi mano. Yo tomé las uvas y las exprimí en la copa de Faraón, y puse la copa en la mano de Faraón." 12 José le dijo: "Esta es la interpretación de él. Las tres ramas son tres días. 13 Dentro de tres días Faraón levantará su cabeza y lo restaurará a su posición. Us pondrá la copa de Faraón en su mano, así como cuando usted era su copero. 14 Pero piense en mí cuando le vaya bien, y por favor muéstreme bondad. Menciónenme ante Faraón y sáqueme de esta prisión. 15 Porque en verdad fui secuestrado de la tierra de los hebreos. Aquí tampoco he hecho nada para que me pongan en este calabozo." 16 Cuando el jefe de los panaderos vio que la interpretación era favorable, le dijo a José: "Yo también tuve un sueño, y, mire, tres cestas de pan que estaban sobre mi cabeza. 17 En la cesta de arriba había toda clase de cosas horneadas para Faraón, pero los pájaros se los comieron de la cesta sobre mi cabeza." 18 José respondió y dijo: "Esta es la interpretación. Las tres cestas son tres días. 19 En tres días Faraón levantará su cabeza de sobre usted y le colgará en un árbol. Los pájaros comerán la carne de su cuerpo." 20 Sucedió que al tercer día, era el día de cumpleaños de Faraón. Él hizo un banquete para todos sus sirvientes. Él levantó la cabeza del jefe de los coperos y la cabeza del jefe de los panaderos, entre sus sirvientes. 21 Él restauró al jefe de los coperos a su responsabilidad, y puso la copa en la mano de Faraón otra vez. 22 Pero él ahorcó al jefe de los panaderos, así como José se lo había interpretado a ellos. 23 Pero el jefe de los coperos no se acordó de José. sino que se olvidó de él.

Genesis 40:1

Sucedió que luego de Esta oración se usa aquí para marcar un nuevo evento en la historia.

el copero
Esta es la persona que trajo las bebidas al rey.

panadero del rey
Esta es la persona que hizo comida para el rey.

ofendieron a su señor
"molesto a su amo"

el jefe de los coperos y el jefe de los panaderos
"el copero líder y el panadero líder"

Él los puso en custodia la cárcel del capitán de la guardia
"Los puso en la prisión que estaba en la casa que fue supervisada por el capitán de la guardia"

Él los puso
El rey no los encarceló, sino que ordenó que fueran encarcelados. Traducción Alterna: "Él los puso" o "Le ordenó a su guardia que pusiera"

en la misma prisión donde José estaba confinado Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Esta fue la misma prisión en la que estuvo José" o "Esta fue la misma prisión en la que Potifar puso a José"

Genesis 40:4

permanecieron en custodia por algún tiempo
"Permanecieron en prisión durante mucho tiempo"

Genesis 40:6

José vino a ellos
"José vino al copero y al panadero"

Observó que estaban tristes
La palabra "observó" muestra que José estaba sorprendido por lo que vio. Traducción Alterna: "Se sorprendió al ver que estaban tristes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

oficiales de Faraón quienes estuvieron con él Esto se refiere al copero y al panadero.

en custodia en la casa de su señor
"En la cárcel de él en la casa del amo". "Su señor" se refiere al maestro de José, el capitán de la guardia.

¿No pertenecen las interpretaciones a Dios?
José usa una pregunta para enfatizar. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Las interpretaciones le pertenecen a Dios!" o "¡Es Dios quien puede decir el significado de los sueños!"

Díganme, por favor
José les pide que le cuenten sus sueños. Traducción Alterna: "Cuéntame los sueños, por favor"

Genesis 40:9

El efe de los coperos
La persona más importante que trae bebidas al rey. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40:1.

En mi sueño, observé una viña frente a mí
"En mi sueño, vi una enredadera frente a mí!" El copero usa la palabra "observé" para mostrar que se sorprendió por lo que vio en su sueño y para alertar a José para que le prestara atención.

los racimos de uvas maduraban
"sus racimos maduraron en uvas"

las exprimía
Esto significa que exprimió el jugo de ellos. Traducción Alterna: "exprimió el jugo de ellos"

Genesis 40:12

Esta es la interpretación de él
"Esto es lo que significa el sueño"

Las tres ramas son tres días.
"Las tres ramas representan tres días"

En tres días
"En tres días más"

levantará tu cabeza
Aquí, José habla de que el faraón liberó al copero de la prisión como si el faraón lo obligara a levantar la cabeza. Traducción Alterna: "te liberará de la prisión"

te restaurará a tu oficio
"te devolverá tu trabajo"

asi como cuando
Las palabras que faltan pueden ser añadidas. Traducción Alterna: "tal como lo hiciste cuando"

Genesis 40:14

y por favor muéstrame bondad
"y por favor se amable conmigo"

Menciónname ante el Faraón y sácame de ésta prisión
José quiere que el copero le cuente a Faraón sobre él para que Faraón lo libere de la prisión. Traducción Alterna: "Ayúdame a salir de esta prisión contándole a Faraón sobre mí"

Porque en verdad fui sacado Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "De hecho, la gente me tomó" o "De hecho, los ismaelitas me tomaron"

la tierra de los Hebreos
"La tierra donde vive el pueblo hebreo".

Aquí tampoco he hecho nada para que me pongan en este calabozo.
"Y también mientras estuve aquí en Egipto, no hice nada por lo que mereciera que me encarcelaran" (UDB)

Genesis 40:16

el jefe de los panaderos
Esto se refiere a la persona principal que hace la comida del rey Vea cómo se tradujo en 40:1.

Yo también he tenido un sueño
"También tuve un sueño, y en mi sueño"

observé tres cestas de pan que estaban sobre mi cabeza ¡había tres canastas de pan en mi cabeza! El panadero usa la palabra "observé" para mostrar que se sorprendió por lo que vio en su sueño y para alertar a José para que le prestara atención.

cosas horneadas para el Faraón
"alimentos horneados para el faraón"

Genesis 40:18

Esta es la interpretación
"Esto es lo que significa el sueño"

Las tres cestas son tres días
"Las tres canastas representan tres días"

levantará tu cabeza
José también usó la frase "levantará tu cabeza" cuando le habló al copero en 40:12. Aquí tiene un significado diferente. Los posibles significados son 1) "levantará tu cabeza para poner una cuerda alrededor de su cuello" o 2) "levantará tu cabeza para cortarla.

carne
Aquí, "carne" significa literalmente el tejido blando del cuerpo de una persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 40:20

Sucedió que al tercer día
"Después, al tercer día". La frase "surgió" se usa aquí para marcar un nuevo evento en la historia.

Él hizo un festín
"Tuvo un banquete"

el jefe de los coperos
Esta fue la persona principal que preparó y sirvió bebidas al rey. Vea cómo esto fue traducido en 40:1.

el jefe de los panaderos
Esto se refiere a la persona principal que hacía la comida para el rey. Vea cómo se tradujo en 40:1.

Él restauró al jefe de los coperos a su responsabilidad
La "responsabilidad" del jefe de coperos se refiere a su trabajo como jefe de los coperos. Traducción Alterna: "Le devolvió el trabajo al jefe de los coperos"

Pero él colgó al jefe de los panaderos
El Faraón no ahorcó personalmente al panadero, sino que ordenó que fuera ahorcado. Traducción Alterna : "Pero él ordenó que el jefe de los panaderos fuera ahorcado" o "Pero le ordenó a sus guardias que colgaran al jefe de los panaderos"

así como José se lo había interpretado a ellos Esto se refiere a cuando José interpretó sus sueños. Traducción Alterna: "tal como José había dicho que sucedería cuando interpretaba los sueños de los dos hombres"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 41

1 Ocurrió que al final de dos años completos que Faraón tuvo un sueño. Miren, él se paró junto al Nilo. 2 Miren, siete vacas salían del Nilo, deseables y gordas y ellas pastaban en las cañas. 3 Miren, otras siete vacas salían del Nilo despues de ellas, indeseables y flacas. Ellas se pararon al lado de las otras vacas a la orilla del río. 4 Entonces las vacas no deseables y flacas se comieron a las siete vacas deseables y gordas. Entonces Faraón desperttó. 5 Entonces él durmió y soñó una segunda vez. Miren, siete espigas de grano salieron en un tallo, sano y bueno. 6 Miren, siete espigas, flacas y quemadas por el viento del este, brotaron después de ellas. 7 Las espigas flacas se tragaron a las siete espigas sanas y llenas. Faraón se despertó, y, miren, era un sueño. 8 Sucedió que en la mañana su espíritu estaba turbado. Él envió y llamó a todos los magos y hombres sabios de Egipto. Faraón les contó sus sueños, pero no había alguien que los pudiera interpretar a Faraón. 9 Entonces el jefe de los coperos dijo al Faraón: "Hoy estoy pensando acerca de mis ofensas. 10 Faraón estaba molesto con sus sirvientes, y me colocó bajo custodia en la casa de los capitanes de la guardia, al jefe panadero y a mí. 11 Nosotros tuvimos un sueño la misma noche, él y yo. Nosotros soñamos, cada uno, de acuerdo a la interpretación de su sueño. 12 Estaba con nosotros un joven hebreo, un sirviente del capitán de la guardia. Nosotros le dijimos a él y él nos interpretó nuestros sueños. Él interpretó a cada uno de nosotros de acuerdo a su sueño. 13 Según como él nos lo interpretó, así mismo sucedió. Faraón me restauró a mi puesto, pero al otro lo ahorcó." 14 Faraón envió y llamó a José. Ellos rápidamente lo sacaron del calabozo. Él se afeitó a sí mismo, se cambió su ropa y vino a Faraón. 15 El Faraón le dijo a José: "Yo tuve un sueño, pero no hay intérprete para el mismo. Pero yo he oído sobre ti, que cuando tú escuchas un sueño lo puedes interpretar." 16 José le contestó a Faraón diciendo: "No está en mi. Dios va a contestarle a Faraón con favor." 17 Faraón habló a José: "En mi sueño, miren, yo estaba parado en la orilla del Nilo. 18 Miren, siete vacas salieron del Nilo, gordas y deseables, y ellas pastaron entre las cañas. 19 Miren, otras siete vacas fueron después de ellas, débiles, muy indeseables y flacas. Yo nunca he visto en la tierra de Egipto unas vacas tan indeseables como ellas. 20 Las vacas flacas e indeseables se comieron a las primeras siete vacas gordas. 21 Cuando ellas se las habían comido, no se podía saber que se las habían comido, ya que ellas se quedaron tan indeseables como antes. Entonces desperté. 22 Yo miré en mi sueño, y, miren, siete espigas salieron en un tallo, lleno y bueno. 23 Miren, siete espigas más, marchitas, flacas y quemadas por el viento del este, brotaron después de ellas. 24 Las espigas flacas se tragaron a las siete espigas buenas. Yo le dije estos sueños a los magos, pero no había nadie que me los pudiera explicar." 25 José le dijo a Faraón: "Los sueños de Faraón son los mismos. Lo que Dios está por hacer, Él se lo ha declarado a Faraón. 26 Las siete vacas buenas son siete años, y las siete espigas buenas son siete años. Los sueños son los mismos. 27 Las siete vacas flacas e indeseables que salieron después de ellas son siete años, y también las siete espigas flacas y quemadas por el viento del este van a ser siete años de hambruna. 28 Esto es de lo que le hablé a Faraón. Lo que Dios está por hacer, Él se lo ha revelado a Faraón. 29 Mira, siete años de gran abundancia van a venir a lo largo de toda la tierra de Egipto. 30 Siete años de hambruna vendrán luego de ellos, y toda la abundancia va a ser olvidada en la tierra de Egipto, y la hambruna devastará la tierra. 31 La abundancia no va a ser recordada en la tierra por la hambruna que le seguirá, porque será muy severa. 32 Que el sueño fuera repetido a Faraón es porque el asunto ha sido establecido por Dios, y Dios pronto lo va a hacer. 33 Ahora que Faraón busque a un hombre que tenga discernimiento y sabiduría, y que lo ponga a cargo de la tierra de Egipto. 34 Que Faraón haga esto: que asigne supervisores sobre la tierra. Que ellos tomen una quinta parte de las cosechas de Egipto durante los siete años de abundancia. 35 Que ellos reúnan toda la comida de estos buenos años que van a venir y que guarden el grano bajo la autoridad de Faraón, para que la comida sea utilizada en las ciudades. Ellos deben preservarla. 36 La comida será una reserva para la tierra durante los siete años de hambruna que ocurrirán en la tierra de Egipto. De esta manera la tierra no será devastada por la hambruna." 37 Este consejo fue bueno ante los ojos de Faraón y ante los ojos de todos sus sirvientes. 38 Faraón dijo a sus sirvientes: "¿Podemos nosotros encontrar a un hombre como éste, en el cual esté el Espíritu de Dios?" 39 Así que Faraón le dijo a José: "Como Dios te ha mostrado todo esto, no hay quien tenga discernimiento ni sabiduría como tú. 40 Tú estarás sobre mi casa y de acuerdo a tu palabra todo mi pueblo será gobernado. Solamente en el trono yo seré mayor que tú." 41 El Faraón dijo a José: "Mira, yo te he puesto a cargo de toda la tierra de Egipto." 42 Faraón se quitó el anillo de sellar de su mano y lo colocó en la mano de José. Él lo vistió con ropa de lino fino y puso una cadena de oro en su cuello. 43 Lo hizo subir al segundo carro que él poseía. Los hombres gritaban ante él: "Doblen la rodilla." Faraón lo puso sobre toda la tierra de Egipto. 44 Faraón le dijo a José: ''Yo soy Faraón y aparte de ti,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ningún hombre levantará su mano o su pie en toda la tierra de Egipto." 45 Faraón llamó a José "Zafnat Panea." Le dio a Asenat, la hija de Potifera, sacerdote de On, como esposa. José salió a toda la tierra de Egipto. 46 José tenía 30 años cuando él se paró frente a Faraón, rey de Egipto. José salió de la presencia de Faraón y fue por toda la tierra de Egipto. 47 En los siete años generosos la tierra produjo abundantemente. 48 Él reunió toda la comida de los siete años que había en la tierra de Egipto y puso la comida en las ciudades. Él puso en cada ciudad la comida de los campos que la rodeaban. 49 José guardó granos como la arena del mar, tanto que él paró de contar, porque era más de lo que se podía contar. 50 José tuvo dos hijos antes de los años de hambruna, quienes Asenat, la hija de Potifera sacerdote de On, le parió. 51 José llamó por nombre a su primogénito Manasés, porque él dijo: "Dios me ha hecho olvidar todos mis problemas y toda la familia de mi padre." 52 Él llamó por nombre a su segundo hijo Efraín, porque él dijo: "Dios me ha hecho fructífero en la tierra de mis aflicciones." 53 Los siete años de abundancia que hubo en la tierra de Egipto llegaron a su fin. 54 Los siete años de hambruna comenzaron, como José había dicho. Hubo hambruna en todas las tierras, pero en toda la tierra de Egipto había comida. 55 Cuando toda la tierra de Egipto estaba hambrienta, el pueblo clamó a Faraón para comida. Faraón le dijo a todos los egipcios: "Vayan a donde José y hagan todo lo que él diga." 56 La hambruna estaba en toda la faz de la tierra. José abrió todos los graneros y vendía a los egipcios. La hambruna fue severa en la tierra de Egipto. 57 Toda la tierra iba a Egipto para comprarle granos a José, porque la hambruna fue severa en toda la tierra.

Genesis 41:1

Ocurrió que
Esta frase es usada aquí para marcar el principio de una nueva parte de la historia. Si tu idioma tiene una forma de marcar eto, puedes considerar usarla aquí.

al final de dos años completos
Dos años pasaron después de que José interpretó correctamente los sueños del copero y el panadero del Faraón, quienes estuvieron en prisión con José.

Miren, él se paró
La palabra "miren" marca el comienzo de otro evento en la historia más amplia. Tu idioma puede tener una forma de hacer esto.

se paró
"Faraón estaba parado"

Miren
"de repente". La palabra "miren" aquí muestra que Faraón estaba sorprendido por lo que vió.

deseables y gordas
"saludables y gordas"

pastaban en las cañas
"Estaban comiendo la hierba junto al río"

cañas
pasto alto y delgado que crece en áreas húmedas.

Miren, otras siete vacas
La palabra "miren" aquí muestra que Faraón estaba sorprendido por lo que vió.

indeseables y flacas
"enfermas y flacas"

la orilla del río
"al lado del río" o "ribera". Este es el terreno más alto a lo largo del borde de un río.

Genesis 41:4

no deseadas y flacas
"Débiles y flacas". Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 41:1.

deseadas y gordas.
"sanos y bien alimentados". Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 41:1.

se levantó
"despertado"

por segunda vez
La palabra "segundo" es un número ordinal. Traducción Alterna: "otra vez"

Miren, siete espigas
La palabra "he aquí" muestra que Faraón se sorprendió por lo que vio.

espigas de grano
Las cabezas son partes de la planta de maíz en la que crecen las semillas.

salieron en un tallo
"creció en un tallo". El tallo es la parte gruesa o alta de una planta.

en un tallo, sano y bueno
"En un tallo y estaban sanos y bellos"

flacas y quemadas por el viento del este Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que eran delgadas y quemadas debido al viento caliente del este"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el viento del este
El viento del este soplaba desde el desierto. El calor del viento del este era a menudo muy destructivo.

brotaron
"creció" o "desarrollado"

Genesis 41:7

Las espigas flacas
Se entienden las palabras "de grano". Traducción Alterna: "Las finas espigas de grano"

se tragaron
"comió". El faraón está soñando que el maíz no saludable podría comer maíz saludable al igual que una persona come alimentos.

sanas y llenas.
"Cabezas sanas y buenas". Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41: 4.

se levantó
"despertó"

Miren
La palabra "he aquí" muestra que Faraón estaba sorprendido por lo que había visto.

era un sueño
"habia estado soñando"

Vino la mañana
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de señar esto , podría considerar usarlo aquí.

su espíritu estaba inquieto
Aquí la palabra "espíritu" se refiere a su ser interior o sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "estaba preocupado en su interior" o "estaba preocupado"

El envió y llamó
Se entiende que envió siervos. Traducción Alterna: "Él envió a sus sirvientes a llamar" o "Él envió a sus sirvientes a convocar"

magos y hombres sabios de Egipto Antiguos reyes y gobernantes usaban magos y sabios como consejeros.

Genesis 41:9

jefe copero
La persona más importante que trae bebidas al rey. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40:1

El Faraón estaba molesto
El copero se refiere a Faraón en tercera persona. Esta es una forma común en que alguien con menos poder para hablar con alguien con mayor poder. Traducción Alterna: "Tú, faraón, estabas enojado"

Hoy estoy pensando sobre mis ofensas
La palabra "Hoy" se usa para enfatizar. Sus "ofensas" son que debería haberle dicho algo al Faraón mucho antes, pero no lo hizo. Traducción Alterna: Me acabo de dar cuenta de que olvidé decirte algo con sus sirvientes

Aquí "sus" se refiere a Faraón. Aquí "sirvientes" se refiere al copero y al panadero principal. Traducción Alterna: "con nosotros, tus sirvientes" me colocó bajo custodia en la casa de los capitanes de la guardia, al jefe panadero y a mí

"Pusieron al jefe panadero y a mí en la prisión donde estaba a cargo el capitán de la guardia". Aquí "casa" se refiere a la prisión.

el capitán de la guardia
El soldado a cargo de la guardia real. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40:1.

el jefe panadero
La persona más importante que hizo comida para el rey. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40:1.

Nosotros tuvimos un sueño la misma noche, él y yo "Una noche los dos tuvimos sueños"

nosotros soñamos
Aquí "Nosotros" se refiere al jefe de los coperos y al panadero principal.

Nosotros soñamos, cada uno, de acuerdo a la interpretación de sus sueños
"Nuestros sueños tenían significados diferentes"

Genesis 41:12

Información general:
El jefe de los coperos sigue hablando con el faraón.

Estaba con nosotros
"En la cárcel estaba con el jefe panadero y conmigo"

del capitán de la guardia
El soldado a cargo de la guardia real. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 40: 1.

Nosotros le dijimos a él y él nos interpretó nuestros sueños
"Le contamos nuestros sueños y nos explicó sus significados"

Él interpretó a cada uno de nosotros de acuerdo a sus sueños Aquí "sus" se refiere al copero y al panadero individualmente, no al que interpreta el sueño. Traducción Alterna: "Él explicó lo que les iba a pasar a los dos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Según
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de señar esto , podría considerar usarlo aquí.

Según como él nos lo interpretó, así mismo sucedió
"Lo que explicó sobre los sueños es lo que más tarde pasó".

El Faraón me devolvió mi puesto Aquí el copero usa el título del Faraón al hablarle como una forma de honrarlo. Traducción Alterna: "Me permitiste regresar a mi trabajo"

a otro
el jefe de los panaderos

lo colgó
Aquí "él" se refiere a Faraón. Y, representa a los soldados que el Faraón ordenó que ahorcaran al panadero principal. Traducción Alterna: "ordenaste a tus soldados que cuelguen"

Genesis 41:14

El Faraón envió y llamó
Se entiende que el faraón envió siervos. Traducción Alterna: "El Faraón envió a sus siervos para buscar a José"

lo sacaron del calabozo
"fuera de la cárcel" o "fuera de la prisión"

Él se afeitó a sí mismo
Era una práctica común afeitarse tanto el vello facial como el cabello cuando se preparaba para presentarse ante el Faraón.

fue donde el Faraón Aquí "fue" se puede decir como "vino". Tradución Alterna: "vino ante el faraón"

no hay interprete para el mismo
"Nadie puede explicar el significado"

lo puedes interpretar
"puedes explicar su significado"

no está en mi
"No soy yo quien puede explicar el significado"

Dios va a contestarle al Faraón con favor
"Dios responderá favorablemente al faraón"

Genesis 41:17

miren, yo estaba
Faraón usa la palabra "miren" para hacer que José preste atención a la información sorprendente.

orilla del Nilo
Este es el terreno más alto a lo largo del borde del río Nilo. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:1. Traducción Alterna: "al lado del Nilo"

Miren, siete vacas
Faraón usa la palabra "miren" para hacer que José preste atención a la información sorprendente.

gordas y deseables
"bien alimentados y sanos". Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 41:1.

pastaron en las cañas.
Estábamos comiendo la hierba a lo largo del lado del río. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:1.

Genesis 41:19

Miren, otras siete vacas
Faraón usa la palabra "miren" para hacer que José preste atención a la información sorprendente.

poco deseables y flacas
"débiles, y flacas". Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 41: 1.

tan indeseables
El sustantivo abstracto "indeseable" se puede traducir con un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "tales vacas feas" o "tales vacas que no valen nada"

vacas gordas
"vacas bien alimentadas". Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 41: 1.

no se podía saber si se las habían comido
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "nadie hubiera podido decir que las vacas delgadas habían comido las vacas gordas"

Genesis 41:22

Información general
El faraón continúa contandole a José sus sueños

Yo miré en mis sueños Esto comienza el siguiente sueño de Faraón después de que se despertó y volvió a dormir. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces volví a soñar"

miren, siete espigas
Faraón usa la palabra "miren" para hacer que José preste atención a la información sorprendente.

siete espigas
Se entienden las palabras "de grano". Traducción Alterna: "siete espigas de grano"

salieron en un tallo
"crecieron en un tallo". El tallo es la parte gruesa o alta de una planta. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:4

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Miren, siete espigas más
El faraón usa la palabra "Miren" para hacer que José preste atención a la información sorprendente.

marchitas, flacas y quemadas por el viento del este Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que estaban marchitos, delgados y chamuscados por el viento caliente del este"

el viento del este
El viento del este soplaba desde el desierto. El calor del viento del este era a menudo muy destructivo para los cultivos.

marchito
"descompuesto" o "marchito"

brotaron
"creció" o "se desarrolló"

Las espigas flacas
Se entienden las palabras "de grano". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 41:7. Traducción Alterna: "Las finas espinas de grano"

se tragaron
"comió". El faraon estaba soñando que el maiz no saludable puede comer maiz saludable como una persona come alimentos. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:7

No habia nadie quien me los pudiera
"No hubo ninguno que pudiera" o "ninguno de ellos pudo"

Genesis 41:25

Los sueños del Faraón son los mismos
Se implica que los significados son los mismos. Traducción Alterna: "Ambos sueños significan lo mismo"

Lo que Dios está por hacer, Él se lo ha declarado al Faraón José le habla a Faraón en tercera persona. Esta es una forma de mostrar respeto. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. Traducción Alterna: "Dios te está mostrando lo que pronto hará"

siete espigas buenas
Se entienden las palabras "de grano". Traducción Alterna: "siete espigas buenas de grano"

Genesis 41:27

Información General
José continúa su interpretación de los sueños de Faraón.

vacas flacas y no deseadas
"Vacas flacas y débiles". Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:1

siete espigas flacas y quemadas por el viento del este Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Aterna: "siete finas cabezas de grano quemadas por el viento caliente del este"

Esto es de lo que le hablo al Faraón.....revelado al Faraón José le habla a Faraón en tercera persona. Esta es una forma de mostrar respeto. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. Traducción Alternativa : "Estos eventos sucederán tal como les he dicho ... revelados a usted, faraón"

se lo ha revelado
se ha dado a conocer

Mira
Esto se usa para enfatizar lo que José dice a continuación. Traducción Alterna: "Presta atención a lo que estoy diciendo"

siete años de gran abundancia
Esto habla de los años de abundancia como si el tiempo fuera algo que viaja y llegue a un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "habrá siete años en los que habrá un montón de comida en toda la tierra de Egipto"

Genesis 41:30

Información General
José sigue interpretando los sueños de Faraón.

Siete años de hambruna vendrán luego de ellos Esto habla de los siete años de hambruna como si fueran algo que viaja y llega a un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces habrán siete años en los que habrá muy poca comida"

y toda la abundancia va a ser olvidada...y la hambruna devastará la tierra. La abundancia no va a ser recordada ...porque la hambruna que le seguirá va a ser bien severa José expresa una idea de dos maneras para enfatizar su importancia.

y toda la abundancia va a ser olvidada en la tierra de Egipto Aquí "tierra" se refiere a la gente. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "el pueblo de Egipto se olvidará de los años en que hubo mucha comida"

devastará la tierra
Aquí "tierra" se refiere al suelo, a la gente y al país entero.

porque la hambruna que le seguirá Esto habla de la hambruna como si fuera algo que viaja y sigue detrás de otra cosa. Traducción Alterna: "debido al tiempo de hambruna que ocurrirá después"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Es por esto que el sueño fue repetido para el Faraón, porque este asunto ha sido establecido por Dios Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios te dio dos sueños para mostrarte que ciertamente hará que sucedan estas cosas"

Genesis 41:33

Información general
José continúa dirigiéndose al faraón

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

permítan que el Faraón busque
José le habla a Faraón en tercera persona. Esta es una forma de mostrar respeto. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tú, faraón, debes mirar"

lo ponga a cargo de la tierra de Egipto La frase "ponerlo sobre" significa dar autoridad a alguien. Traducción Alterna: "dale autoridad sobre el reino de Egipto" o "ponlo a cargo del reino de Egipto" tierra de Egipto

Aquí "tierra" representa a todas las personas y todo en Egipto.

Permitan que ellos tomen una quinta parte de la cosecha de Egipto La palabra "quinta" es una fracción. Traducción Alterna: "Permítales dividir los cultivos de Egipto en cinco partes iguales, luego tome una de esas partes" (Ver: traducir_fracción)

en los siete años de abundancia
"Durante los siete años en que hay mucha comida".

Genesis 41:35

Información General
José sigue aconsejando al faraón

Permitan que ellos reúnan
"Permitir que los supervisores se reúnan"

de estos buenos años que van a venir Esto habla de años como si fueran algo que viaja y llega a un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "durante los años buenos que pronto sucederán"

guarden los granos bajo la autoridad del Faraón
La frase "bajo la autoridad de Faraón" significa que Faraón les da autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "usa la autoridad de Faraón para almacenar el grano"

Ellos deben preservarla
Almacene el grano por un tiempo cuando haya poca comida disponible. Traducción Alterna: "Los supervisores deben dejar soldados allí para proteger el grano"

La comida será suplida para la tierra
Aquí "tierra" se refiere a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Esta comida será para la gente"

De esta manera la tierra no va a ser devastada por la hambruna Aquí "tierra" significa la gente. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "De esta manera la gente no morirá de hambre durante la hambruna"

Genesis 41:37

Este consejo fue bueno ante los ojos del Faraón y ante los ojos de todos sus sirvientes Aquí "ojos" representa los pensamientos u opiniones de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Faraón y sus sirvientes pensaron que este era un buen plan"

sus sirvientes
Esto significa que los funcionarios del faraón.

un hombre como este
"un hombre como el que describió José"

en el cual esté el Espíritu de Dios
"en quien vive el Espíritu de Dios"

Genesis 41:39

no hay quién tenga discernimiento
"Nadie más es tan capaz de tomar decisiones". Vea cómo tradujo "discernir" en 41:33.

Tú vas a estar sobre mi casa Aquí, "casa" significa el palacio de Faraón y la gente en el palacio. La frase "estarás sobre" significa que José tendrá autoridad sobre ella . Traducción Alternativa: "Estarás a cargo de todos en mi palacio"

de acuerdo a tu palabra todo mi pueblo será reinado Aquí "palabra" se refiere a una orden o a lo que se dice. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alternativa: "gobernarás a mi gente y ellos harán lo que tú ordenas" (Ver: y

Solamente en el trono
Aquí "trono" significa el gobierno de Faraón como rey. Traducción Alternativa: "Solo en mi papel de rey"

Ves, yo te he puesto
La palabra "Ves" agrega énfasis a lo que Faraón dice a continuación. Traducción Alternativa: "mira, te he puesto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

yo te he puesto a cargo de toda la tierra de Egipto La frase "ponerte encima" significa dar autoridad. Aquí "tierra" se refiere a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Te puse a cargo de todos en Egipto"

Genesis 41:42

El Faraón se quitó el anillo de sello...cadenas de oro en su cuello Todas estas acciones simbolizan que el Faraón le está dando a José la autoridad para hacer todo lo que José planeó. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

anillo de sello
Este anillo tenía grabado el sello de Faraón. Esto le dio a José la autoridad y el dinero necesarios para llevar a cabo sus planes.

ropa de lino fino
"Lino" es una tela suave y resistente hecha de la planta de lino de flores azules.

Lo hizo subir en la segunda carrosa que él poseía
Este acto deja en claro a la gente que José es el segundo después de Faraón. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

doblen sus rodillas
"Inclínate y honra a José". Doblar la rodilla e inclinarse era un signo de honor y respeto. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

El Faraón lo puso a él a cargo toda la tierra
La frase "puso a él a cargo" significa dar autoridad. Aquí "tierra" se refiere a la gente. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 41:39. Traducción Alterna: "Te puse a cargo de todos en Egipto"

Genesis 41:44

Yo soy el Faraón y a parte de ti Faraón está enfatizando su autoridad. Traducción Alternativa: "Como Faraón, ordeno que aparte de ti"

a parte de ti, ningún hombre puede levantar su mano o su pie en toda la tierra de Egipto Aquí, "mano" y "pie" representan las acciones de una persona. Traducción Alternativa: "ninguna persona en Egipto hará nada sin tu permiso" o "cada persona en Egipto debe pedir tu permiso antes de hacer cualquier cosa"

ningún hombre
Aquí "hombre" se refiere a cualquier persona en general, ya sea hombre o mujer.

Zafnat-panea
Los traductores pueden agregar la siguiente nota a pie de página: El nombre de Zafnat-panea significa "un revelador de secretos".

Le dio a Asenat, la hija de Potífera sacerdote de On, como esposa
Los sacerdotes en Egipto eran la estirpe más alta y privilegiada. Este matrimonio significa el lugar de honor y privilegio de José. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Le dio a Asenat
"Asenat" es el nombre de la mujer que el Faraón le dio a José como su esposa.

hija de Potífera
"Potífera" es el padre de Asenat.

Sacerdote de on
En es una ciudad, también llamada Heliópolis, que era "la Ciudad del Sol" y el centro de adoración del dios sol Ra.

José fue a toda la tierra de Egipto
José viajó por la tierra para supervisar los preparativos para la próxima sequía.

Genesis 41:46

treinta años
30 años

cuando él se paró frente al Faraón Aquí "estaba delante de" significa José que comienza a servir al Faraón. Traducción Alterna: "cuando comenzó a servir al faraón"

fue por toda la tierra de Egipto
José está inspeccionando el país mientras se prepara para llevar a cabo sus planes.

En los siete años generosos
"Durante los siete buenos años"

la tierra produjo abundantemente.
"La tierra produjo grandes cosechas"

Genesis 41:48

Él reunió toda... Él ubicó
Aquí "Él" representa a los siervos de José. Traducción Alterna: José ordenó a sus sirvientes que se reunieran ... Ellos pusieron"

José guardó granos como la arena del mar
Esto compara el grano con la arena del mar para resaltar su gran cantidad. Traducción Alterna: "El grano que José almacenó era tan abundante como la arena en la orilla del mar"

José guardó...él paró Aquí "José" y "él" representan a los siervos de José. Traducción Alterna: "José hizo que se guardaran sus sirvientes ... se detuvieron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 41:50

antes que lleguen de los años de hambruna
Esto habla de los años como si fueran algo que viaja y llega a un lugar. Traducción Alterna: "antes de que comenzaran los siete años de hambruna"

Asenat
"Asenat" es el nombre de la mujer que el Faraón le dio a José como su esposa. Vea cómo tradujo esto es 41:44.

Hija de Potifera Potifera" es el padre de Asenat. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 41:44.

sacerdote de On
En es una ciudad, también llamada Heliópolis, que era "la Ciudad del Sol" y el centro de adoración del dios sol Ra. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 41:44.

Manasés
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre 'Manasés' significa 'causar que se olvide'"

familia de mi padre
Esto se refiere al padre de José, Jacob y su familia

Efraín
Los traductores también pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre 'Efraín' significa 'ser fructífero' o 'tener hijos'".

me ha hecho fructífero
Aquí "fructífero" significa prosperar o tener hijos.

en la tierra de mis aflicciones.
El sustantivo abstracto "aflicción" se puede decir como "He sufrido". Traducción Alternativa: "en esta tierra donde he sufrido"

Genesis 41:53

en todas las tierras
En todas las naciones circundantes más allá de Egipto, incluida la tierra de Canaán.

pero en toda la tierra de Egipto había comida
Se da a entender que hubo alimentos debido a que José ordenó a su gente que almacenara alimentos durante los siete buenos años.

Genesis 41:55

Cuando toda la tierra de Egipto estaba en hambruna
Aquí "tierra" significa la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando todos los egipcios se morían de hambre"

La hambruna estaba en toda la superficie de la tierra
La palabra "cara" se refiere a la superficie de la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "La hambruna se había extendido por toda la tierra"

José abrió todos los graneros y vendía a los egipcios
Aquí "José" representa a los siervos de José. Traducción Alterna: "José hizo que sus sirvientes abrieran todos los almacenes y vendieran granos a los egipcios"

Toda la tierra iba a Egipto
Aquí "tierra" significa la gente de todas las regiones. Traducción Alterna : "La gente venía a Egipto de todas las regiones circundantes"

Toda la tierra
"por toda la tierra". Es probable que todos los diferentes socios comerciales y naciones que formaron parte de las rutas comerciales egipcias efectuadas por la sequía hayan venido a Egipto en busca de grano.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 42

1 Ahora Jacob supo que había grano en Egipto. Él le dijo a sus hijos: "¿Porqué se miran los unos a los otros?" 2 Él dijo: "Miren, yo he oído que hay grano en Egipto. Vayan allá y compren para nosotros de allí, para que nosotros podamos vivir y no morir." 3 Los diez hermanos de José fueron a Egipto para comprar grano. 4 Pero a Benjamín, hermano de José, Jacob no lo envió con sus hermanos, porque él temía que le podría suceder algún daño. 5 Los hijos de Israel vinieron a comprar entre aquellos que venían, porque la hambruna estaba en la tierra de Canaán. 6 Ahora José era gobernador sobre la tierra. Él era el que le vendía a todas las personas de la tierra. Los hermanos de José vinieron y se postraron delante de él con sus caras hacia el suelo. 7 José vio a sus hermanos y los reconoció, pero él se disfrazó a sí mismo y habló rudamente con ellos. Él les dijo:"¿De dónde han venido?" Ellos dijeron: "De la tierra de Canaán para comprar comida." 8 José reconoció a sus hermanos pero ellos no lo reconocieron a él. 9 Entonces José recordó los sueños que él había tenido acerca de ellos y él les dijo a ellos: "¡Ustedes son espías! Ustedes han venido a ver las partes indefensas de la tierra." 10 Ellos le dijeron: "No, mi amo. Tus sirvientes han venido para comprar comida. 11 Todos somos hijos de un hombre. Somos hombres honestos. Tus sirvientes no son espías." 12 Él les dijo a ellos: "No, ustedes han venido para ver las partes indefensas de la tierra." 13 Ellos dijeron: "Nosotros tus sirvientes somos doce hermanos, hijos de un hombre en la tierra de Canaán. Mire, el hermano más joven en este día está con nuestro padre, y un hermano ya no está vivo." 14 José les dijo: "Es lo que yo les dije; ustedes son espías. 15 Por esto ustedes serán probados. Por la vida de Faraón, ustedes no se van, al menos que su hermano menor venga a este lugar. 16 Envíen a uno de ustedes y dejen que él busque a su hermano. Ustedes permanecerán en prisión, que sus palabrsa sean probadas, a ver si hay verdad en ustedes." 17 Él los puso a todos bajo custodia por tres días. 18 José le dijo a ellos al tercer día: "Hagan esto y vivirán, porque yo le temo a Dios. 19 Si ustedes son hombres honestos, dejen que uno de sus hermanos sea confinado en esta prisión, pero ustedes vayan, carguen el grano para la hambruna de sus casas. 20 Traigan a su hermano menor a mí para que sus palabras sean verificadas y ustedes no morirán." Así ellos hicieron. 21 Ellos se dijeron unos a los otros: "Nosotros somos verdaderamente culpables con respecto a nuestro hermano, en que vimos la angustia de su alma cuando el rogó a nosotros y no escuchamos. Por lo tanto, esta angustia ha venido sobre nosotros." 22 Rubén le contestó a ellos: "¿Acaso no les dije 'No pequen contra el muchacho,' pero ustedes no escuchaban? Ahora, vean, su sangre es requerida de nosotros." 23 Ellos no sabían que José los entendía a ellos, porque había un intérprete en medio de ellos. 24 Él se apartó de ellos y lloró. Él regresó donde ellos y les habló. Él les quitó a Simeón de entre ellos y lo ató delante de sus ojos. 25 Luego José ordenó a sus sirvientes a que le llenaran las bolsas de sus hermanos de grano, y que devolvieran el dinero de cada hombre de vuelta a su saco, y que les dieran provisiones para el viaje. Fue hecho para ellos. 26 Los hermanos cargaron sus burros con su grano y se fueron de alli. 27 Al uno de ellos abrir su saco para darle a su burro de comer en el lugar de alojamiento, él vio su dinero. Miren, estaba en la apertura de su saco. 28 Él le dijo a sus hermanos: "Mi dinero ha sido devuelto. Mírenlo; está en mi saco." Sus corazones se hundieron y ellos se viraron temblorosamente los unos hacia los otros diciendo: "¿Qué es esto que Dios nos ha hecho a nosotros?" 29 Ellos fueron donde Jacob, su padre en la tierra de Canaán y le dijeron a él todo lo que les había sucedido. Ellos dijeron: 30 ''El hombre, el señor de aquella tierra, habló rudamente con nosotros y pensó que nosotros éramos espías en la tierra. 31 Nosotros le dijimos a él: 'Nosotros somos hombres honestos. Nosotros no somos espías. 32 Somos doce hermanos, hijos de nuestro padre. Uno ya no vive, y el más joven este día está con nuestro padre en la tierra de Canaán.' 33 El hombre, señor de aquella tierra, nos dijo: 'Por esto yo voy a saber que ustedes son hombres honestos. Dejen a uno de sus hermanos conmigo, llévense el grano para la hambruna en sus casas y vayan por su camino. 34 Tráiganme a su hermano menor. Entonces yo voy a saber que ustedes no son espías, sino que son hombres honestos. Luego yo libraré a su hermano, y ustedes van a comerciar en la tierra." 35 Ocurrió que mientras ellos vaciaban sus sacos, que, miren, la bolsa de plata de cada hombre estaba en su saco. Cuando ellos y su padre vieron sus bolsas de plata, ellos temieron. 36 Jacob su padre les dijo: "Ustedes me han privado de mis hijos. José ya no está vivo, Simón no está, y ustedes se llevarán a Benjamín. Todas estas cosas están en mi contra." 37 Rubén habló con su padre diciéndole: "Tú podrás matar a mis dos hijos si yo no traigo de vuelta a Benjamín. Ponlo en mis manos, y yo te lo traeré de vuelta nuevamente." 38 Jacob dijo:" Mi hijo no va a ir con ustedes. Porque su hermano está muerto y solo él queda. Si algún daño le ocurre en el camino que vayan, entonces ustedes van a llevar mis canas con pena al Seol."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 42:1

Cuando Jacob supo
La palabra "Cuando" marca una nueva parte de la historia.

¿Porqué se miran los unos a los otros?
Jacob usa una pregunta para regañar a sus hijos por no hacer nada con el grano. TA: "¡No se sienten aquí como si nada pasara!"

Vayan allá ... fueron
"Vayan allá abajo". Era común hablar de ir de Canaán a Egipto como ir "abajo".

a Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere a las personas que venden granos. TA: "de los que venden granos en Egipto"

Benjamín, hermano de Jospe, Jacob no lo envió Benjamín y José tuvieron el mismo padre y madre. Jacob no quería arriesgarse a enviar al último hijo de Raquel.

Genesis 42:5

Los hijos de Israel fueron a comprar entre aquellos quienes fueron
La palabra "fueron" se puede traducir como "vinieron". Además, se entienden las palabras "grano" y "Egipto". AT: "Los hijos de Israel fueron por grano junto con otras personas que fueron a Egipto"

Ahora José
"Ahora" marca un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre José.

Sobre la tierra
Aquí "tierra" se refiere a Egipto. TA: "sobre Egipto"

Todas las personas de la tierra.
Aquí "tierra" incluye Egipto y otros países vecinos. TA: "todas las personas de todas las naciones que vinieron a comprar grano"

Los hermanos de José fueron
Aquí "fueron" se puede traducir como "vinieron".

Se postraron ante él con sus caras en el suelo.
Esta es una forma de mostrar respeto.

Genesis 42:7

José miró a sus hermanos y los reconoció
"Cuando José vio a sus hermanos, los reconoció".

Se disfrazó a sí mismo
"actuó como si no fuera su hermano" o "no les hizo saber que era su hermano"

¿De dónde vienen?
Esta no era una pregunta retórica, aunque José sabía la respuesta. Era parte de su decisión de para guardar su identidad de sus hermanos.

Genesis 42:9

Ustedes son espías
Los espías son personas que intentan secretamente obtener información sobre un país para ayudar a otro país.

Ustedes vinieron a ver las partes indefensas de la tierra.
El significado completo puede ser expresado explícitamente. TA: "Viniste a descubrir dónde no estamos protegiendo nuestra tierra para poder atacarnos"

Nuestro amo
Esta es una manera de referirse a alguien para honrarlo.

Tus sirvientes han
Los hermanos se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. TA: "Nosotros, tus sirvientes, tenemos" o "Tenemos"

Genesis 42:12

Él les dijo a ellos
"José le dijo a sus hermanos"

No, ustedes han venido para ver las partes indefensas de esta tierra
El significado completo puede ser expresado explícitamente. TA: "No, han venido a descubrir dónde no estamos protegiendo nuestra tierra, para asi poder atacarnos"

Doce hermanos
"12 hermanos"

Mire, el hermano más jóven
"Escúchanos, el más jóven". La palabra "Mire" se usa para enfatizar lo que dicen a continuación.

El hermano más jóven en este día está con nuestro padre
"Ahora mismo nuestro hermano menor está con nuestro padre"

Genesis 42:14

Es lo que yo les digo; ustedes son espías.
"Como ya dije, ustedes son espías". Vea cómo tradujo "espías" en el 42: 9.

Por esto ustedes serán probados Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Así es como los probaré"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Por la vida del Faraón
Esta frase indica un juramento solemne. TA: "Juro por la vida de Faraón" (Ver: [[rc://*/tw/bible/other/oath]])

Envíen a uno de ustedes y dejen que el busque a su hermano.
"Elijan a uno de ustedes para ir a buscar a su hermano "

Ustedes permaneceran en prisión
"El resto de ustedes permanecerán en prisión"

Que su palabra sea probada, a ver si hay verdad en ustedes Aquí "palabra" se refiere a lo que se dijo. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "para que pueda averiguar si está diciendo la verdad"

En custodia
"En prisión" (UDB)

Genesis 42:18

En el tercer día
La palabra "tercero" es un número ordinal. TA: "después del segundo día"

Hagan esto y vivirán
La información entendida puede ser indicar claramente. TA: "Si hacen lo que les digo, los dejaré vivir"

Temo a Dios
Esto se refiere a respetar profundamente a Dios y mostrar ese respeto al obedecerlo.

Dejen que uno de sus hermanos sea confinado en esta prisión
Esto se puede decir en forma activa. TA: "deja a uno de tus hermanos aquí en la cárcel"

Pero ustedes vayan
"Ustedes" se refiere a todos los hermanos que no van a permanecer en prisión. TA: "pero el resto de ustedes van"

Carguen el grano para la hambruna de su casa
Aquí "casa" significa familia. TA: "llevar grano a casa para ayudar a su familia durante esta hambruna"

Su palabra sea verificada
Aquí "palabra" significa lo que se dijo. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "para que sepa lo que dices es cierto"

Ustedes no morirán
Esto implica que José haría que sus soldados ejecuten a los hermanos si descubre que son espías.

Genesis 42:21

Al cual vimos la angustia de su alma
La palabra "alma" se refiere a José. AT: "porque vimos cuán angustiado estaba José" o "porque vimos que José estaba sufriendo"

Por esto esta angustia ha venido sobre nosotros
El sustantivo abstracto "angustia" se puede expresar como el verbo "sufrimiento". TA: "Es por eso que estamos sufriendo así ahora" ¿Acaso no les dije 'No pequen contra el niño', pero ustedes no escuchaban?

Rubén usa una pregunta para regañar a sus hermanos. TA: "Te dije que no lastimes al niño, ¡pero que no escucharías!"

Acaso no les dije 'No pequen contra el niño
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "¿No te dije que no pecaras contra el chico?" O "Te dije que no le hicieras daño al chico"

Ahora, vean
Aquí "Ahora" no significa "en este momento", sino que tanto "Ahora" como "ver" se usan para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Su sangre es requerida por nosotros.
Aquí "sangre" significa la muerte de José. Sus hermanos pensaron que José estaba muerto. La frase "se nos exige" significa que deben ser castigados por lo que hicieron. TA: "estamos obteniendo lo que merecemos por su muerte" o "estamos sufriendo por haberlo matado"

Genesis 42:23

Ellos no sabían... había un intérprete en medio de ellos
Esto cambia de la historia principal a la información de fondo que explica por qué los hermanos pensaron que José no podía entenderlos.

Un intérprete
Un "intérprete" es alguien que traduce lo que una persona dice a otro idioma. José colocó un intérprete entre él y sus hermanos para que pareciera que no hablaba su idioma.

Él se apartó de ellos y lloró.
Se da a entender que José lloró porque se emocionó después de escuchar lo que sus hermanos dijeron.

Habló a ellos
José todavía hablaba un idioma diferente y usaba el intérprete para hablar con sus hermanos.

Lo ató delante de ellos Aquí los "ojos" se refieren a su vista. TA: "lo ató ante sus ojos" o "lo ató mientras lo observaban"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los dió a ellos como provisión
"Para darles los suministros que necesitaban".

Fue hecho por ellos.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Los sirvientes hicieron por ellos todo lo que José ordenó"

Genesis 42:26

Al uno de ellos abrir su saco para darle a su burro de comer en el lugar de alojamiento, él vió su dinero. Miren, estaba en la apertura de su saco.
"Cuando se detuvieron en un lugar para pasar la noche, uno de los hermanos abrió su saco para conseguir comida para su burro. ¡En el saco vio su dinero!"

Miren
La palabra "miren" nos alerta a prestar atención a la sorprendente información que sigue.

Mi dinero lo pusieron de vuelta
Esto se puede decir en forma activa. TA: "Alguien ha devuelto mi dinero"

Mirenlo
"¡Mira en mi saco!"

Sus corazones se hundieron
Para tener miedo se habla de como si su corazón se estuviera hundiendo. Aquí "corazones" significa coraje. TA: "Ellos se asustaron mucho" (Ver: y

Genesis 42:29

Rey de la tierra
"el señor de Egipto"

Habló rudamente
"Habló con dureza"

Nosotros no somos espías
Los espías son personas que intentan secretamente obtener información sobre un país para ayudar a otro país. Vea cómo se tradujo "espías" en el 42: 9.

Nosotros le dijimos a él: 'Nosotros somos hombres honestos. Nosotros no somos espías. Somos doce hermanos, hijos de nuestro padre. Uno ya no vive... tierra de Canaán.
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Le dijimos que somos hombres honestos y no espías. Dijimos que somos doce hermanos, hijos de nuestro padre, y que un hermano ya no está vivo ... la tierra de Canaán"

Uno ya no vive
La palabra "hermano" se entiende. TA: "Un hermano ya no está vivo"

El más jóven en este día está con nuestro padre
La palabra "hermano" se entiende. TA: "el hermano más joven está con nuestro padre en este momento"

Genesis 42:33

El rey de la tierra
"El señor de Egipto"

Llevense el grano para la hambruna en su casa
Aquí "casas" significa "familia". TA: "toma grano para ayudar a tu familia durante la hambruna"

Vayan en su camino
"Vayan a casa" o "salgan"

Y ustedes van a intercambiar en la tierra.
"Y te permitiré comprar y vender en esta tierra"

Genesis 42:35

Ocurrió que mientras
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

Ustedes me han desamparado de mis hijos.
"Me has privado de mis hijos" o "Me has hecho perder a dos de mis hijos"

Todas estas cosas están en mi contra
"todas estas cosas me hieren"

Genesis 42:37

Ponlo en mis manos
Esta es una solicitud para que Rubén se lleve a Benjamín con él y lo cuide en el viaje. TA: "Ponme a cargo de él" o "Déjame cuidar de él"

Mi hijo no va a ir con ustedes
Era común usar la frase "bajar" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto. TA: "Mi hijo Benjamín, no bajará con ustedes a Egipto"

Con ustedes
Aquí "Ustedes" se refiere a los hijos mayores de Jacob.

Porque su hermano está muerto y solo él queda.
El significado completo se hace explícito. TA: "Para mi esposa, Raquel, solo tuve dos hijos. José está muerto y Benjamin es el único que queda"

En el camino que vayan
"mientras viajan a Egipto y regresan" o "mientras estás fuera". Aquí "camino" significa viajar.

Entonces ustedes van a llevar mi cabello gris con pena al Seol
"llevar ... al Seol" es una forma de decir que lo harán morir e ir al Seol. Él usa la palabra "abajo" porque comúnmente se creía que el seol está en

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

algún lugar subterráneo. TA: "entonces me harás morir, de edad, un viejo hombre

Mi cabello gris
Esto representa a Jacob y destaca su vejez. TA: "yo, un viejo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 43

1 La hambruna fue severa en la tierra. 2 Sucedió que cuando ellos se habían comido el grano que ellos habían traído de Egipto, su padre les dijo: ''Vayan otra vez, compren para nosotros comida." 3 Judá le dijo: "El hombre solemnemente nos advirtió: 'Ustedes no van a ver mi cara a menos que su hermano esté con ustedes.' 4 Si usted envía a nuestro hermano con nosotros, iremos y compraremos comida. 5 Pero si no lo envía, nosotros no iremos. Pues el hombre nos dijo a nosotros: 'Ustedes no verán mi cara a menos que su hermano esté con ustedes.'" 6 Israel dijo: "¿Por qué ustedes me trataron tan mal al decirle al hombre que ustedes tenían otro hermano?" 7 Ellos dijeron: "El hombre preguntó detalles sobre nosotros y nuestra familia. Él dijo: '¿Su padre todavía está vivo? ¿Ustedes tienen otro hermano?' Nosotros le contestamos de acuerdo a estas preguntas. ¿Cómo nosotros íbamos a saber que él diría: 'Traigan a su hermano?'" 8 Judá le dijo a Israel su padre: "Envíe al niño conmigo. Nos levantaremos e iremos para que vivamos y no perezcamos, tanto nosotros, usted, y también nuestros hijos. 9 Yo voy a ser una garantía para él. Usted me hará responsable. Si yo no lo traigo de vuelta a usted y lo presento ante usted, entonces, déjeme cargar la culpa para siempre. 10 Pues si no nos hubiéramos atrasado, seguramente ahora nosotros hubiéramos ido y venido por segunda vez." 11 Su padre Israel les dijo a ellos: "Si así fuera, entonces hagan esto. Llévense algunos de los mejores productos de la tierra en sus bolsas. Llévenle al hombre un regalo: algún bálsamo y miel, especias y mirra, nueces de pistacho y almendras. 12 Lleven el doble de dinero en sus manos. El dinero que fue devuelto en la apertura de sus sacos, llévenlo nuevamente en sus manos. Tal vez fue un error. 13 Llévense también a su hermano. Levántense y vayan nuevamente al hombre. 14 Que Dios Todopoderoso les dé misericordia delante del hombre, para que así él pueda liberarles a ustedes a su otro hermano y a Benjamín. Si he de ser privado de mis hijos, que así sea." 15 Los hombres se llevaron los regalos, y en sus manos llevaban el doble de dinero, junto a Benjamín. Ellos se levantaron y fueron a Egipto y se pararon frente a José. 16 Cuando José vio a Benjamín con ellos, le dijo al mayordomo de su casa: "Trae los hombres dentro de la casa, mata un animal y prepáralo, pues los hombres van a comer conmigo al mediodía." 17 Él mayordomo hizo como dijo José. Él trajo a los hombres a la casa de José. 18 Los hombres tenían miedo porque ellos fueron llevados a la casa de José. Ellos dijeron: "Es por el dinero que fue devuelto en nuestros sacos la primera vez que nos trajeron, para que él pueda buscar una oportunidad en contra nuestra. Él puede arrestarnos y tomarnos como esclavos y llevarse nuestros burros." 19 Ellos se acercaron al mayordomo de la casa de José y le hablaron en la puerta de la casa diciendo: 20 "Mi amo, nosotros vinimos la primera vez para comprar comida. 21 Sucedió que, cuando nosotros nos acercamos al lugar de alojamiento, que nosotros abrimos nuestros sacos y, mire, todo el dinero de cada hombre estaba en la apertura de su saco, nuestro dinero completo. Nosotros hemos venido a traerlo de vuelta en nuestras manos. 22 Otro dinero también hemos traído en nuestras manos para comprar comida. Nosotros no sabemos quién puso el dinero en nuestros sacos." 23 El mayordomo dijo: "Que la paz sea con ustedes, no teman. Su Dios y el Dios de su padre debió haber puesto su dinero en sus sacos. Yo recibí su dinero." El mayordomo entonces les trajo a Simeón donde ellos. 24 El mayordomo llevó a los hombres a la casa de José. Él les dio agua, y ellos se lavaron sus pies. Él les dio comida a sus burros. 25 Ellos prepararon los regalos para la venida de José al mediodía, porque ellos habían oído que ellos comerían allí. 26 Cuando José llegó a su casa, ellos trajeron dentro de la casa los regalos que tenían en sus manos y se inclinaron delante de él hacia el suelo. 27 Él les pregunto sobre su bienestar y dijo: "¿Su padre está bien, el hombre viejo de quien ustedes hablaron? ¿Él sigue vivo?" 28 Ellos dijeron: "Su sirviente nuestro padre está bien. Él sigue vivo." Ellos se postraron y se inclinaron. 29 Cuando él levantó su mirada él vio a BenjamÍn su hermano, el hijo de su madre, y él dijo: "¿Éste es su hermano menor de quien ustedes me hablaron?" Entonces él dijo: "Que la gracia de Dios sea contigo, mi hijo." 30 José se apresuró a salir de la habitación, pues él fue profundamente conmovido por su hermano. Él buscó algún lugar para llorar. Él fue a su recámara y lloró allí. 31 Él se lavó su cara y salió. Se controló a sí mismo diciendo: "Sirvan la comida." 32 Los sirvientes le sirvieron a José para él solo y a los hermanos para ellos aparte. Los egipcios allí comieron con él aparte porque los egipcios no podían comer pan con los hebreos, pues eso es detestable para los egipcios. 33 Los hermanos se sentaron delante de él, el primogénito de acuerdo a sus derechos de primogenitura, y el menor de acuerdo a su juventud. Los hombres estaban asombrados entre sí. 34 José envió de la comida delante de él porciones para ellos. Pero la porción de Benjamín era cinco veces más que la de cualquiera de sus hermanos. Ellos bebieron y estaban alegres con él.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 43:1

La hambruna era severa en la tierra.
Se entiende la palabra "Canaán". Esta información puede hacerse explícita. TA: "La hambruna fue severa en la tierra de Canaán"

Se produjo
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

Cuando ellos se habían comido
"cuando Jacob y su familia habían comido"

Ellos habían traído
"Los hijos mayores de Jacob habían traído"

comprenos
Aquí esta palabra se refiere a comprar comida para Jacob, sus hijos y el resto de la familia.

Genesis 43:3

Judá le dijo
"Judá le dijo a su padre Jacob"

El hombre
Esto se refiere a José, pero los hermanos no sabían que era José. Se referían a él como "el hombre" o "el hombre, el señor de la tierra" como en 42:29.

Nos advirtió: 'Ustedes no van a ver mi cara al menos que su hermano esté con ustedes.
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "nos advirtió que no veríamos su rostro a menos que trajéramos a nuestro hermano menor"

Solemnemente nos advirtió
"fue muy serio cuando nos advirtió, diciendo"

Ustedes no verán mi cara
Judá usa esta frase dos veces en 43: 3-5 para enfatizar a su padre que no pueden regresar a Egipto sin Benjamín. La frase "mi cara" se refiere al hombre, que es José. TA: "No me verás"

Su hermano esté con ustedes
Judá se refiere a Benjamín, el último hijo de Raquel antes de morir.

Nosotros no iremos.
"no bajaremos". Era común usar la frase "bajar" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Genesis 43:6

Por qué ustedes me tratan tan mal
"¿Por qué me causan tantos problemas?"

El hombre preguntó detalles
"El hombre hizo muchas preguntas"

Sobre nosotros
Aquí "nosotros" es exclusivo y se refiere a los hermanos que fueron a Egipto y hablaron con "el hombre".

Él dijo: '¿Su padre todavía está vivo? ¿Ustedes tienen otro hermano?'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Nos consultó si nuestro padre todavía estaba vivo y si teníamos otro hermano".

Nosotros le contestamos de acuerdo a estás preguntas.
"Respondimos las preguntas que nos hizo".

Cómo nosotros ibamos a saber que el diría: ... abajo
Los hijos usan una pregunta para enfatizar que no sabían lo que el hombre les diría que hicieran. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "No sabíamos que él diría ... hermano!"

el diría: "Traigan a su hermano"
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "nos diría que lleváramos a nuestro hermano a Egipto"

Traigan a su hermano
"bajen a su hermano con ustedes". Era común usar la palabra "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Genesis 43:8

Nos levantaremos e iremos para que vivamos y no moriremos, ambos, nosotros, ustedes y también nustros hijos
Las frases "para que vivamos" y "no moriremos" significan lo mismo. Judá está enfatizando que tienen que comprar comida en Egipto para sobrevivir. TA: "Iremos ahora a Egipto y conseguiremos grano para que viva toda nuestra familia"

Nos levantaremos
Aquí "Nos" se refiere a los hermanos que viajarán a Egipto.

Para que vivamos
Aquí "vivamos" se refiere a los hermanos, Israel y toda la familia.

Ambos, nosotros
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a los hermanos.

Nosotros, Usted
Aquí se refiere a Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

también nustros hijos
Aquí "nuestro" se refiere a los hermanos. Esto se refiere a los niños pequeños que tenían más probabilidades de morir durante una hambruna.

Yo voy a ser una garantía por él
El sustantivo abstracto "garantía" se puede expresar como el verbo "promesa". TA: "Prometeré traerlo de vuelta"

Usted me mantendrá responsable.
La manera en que Jacob responsabilizará a Judá se puede establecer claramente. TA: "Me harás responderte sobre lo que le sucede a Benjamin"

pues dejeme tener la culpa
Esto habla de la "culpa" como si fuera un objeto que una persona tiene que llevar. TA: "puedes culparme"

Pues si no nos hubieramos atrasado
Judá está describiendo algo que pudo haber sucedido en el pasado pero no sucedió. Judá está regañando a su padre por esperar tanto tiempo para enviar a sus hijos a Egipto para obtener más comida.

Seguramente ahora nosotros hubieramos ido y venido por segunda vez.
"hubiéramos vuelto dos veces"

Genesis 43:11

Que así sea, ahora hagan esto.
"Si esta es nuestra única opción, entonces hazlo"

Llevenla abajo
Era común usar la palabra "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Bálsamo
Una sustancia grasa con un olor dulce utilizado para curar y proteger la piel. Vea cómo se tradujo estas palabras en el 37:25. TA: "medicina"

Especias
"condimentos". Vea cómo se tradujo estas palabras en el 37:25.

Nueces de pistacho
un pequeño, árbol de nuez verde

Almendras
Árbol de nuez que tiene un sabor dulce

Lleven el doble de dinero en sus manos.
Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. TA: "Lleva el doble de dinero contigo"

El dinero que fue de vuelto en la apertura de sus sacos, llevenlo nuevamente en sus manos.
Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. La frase "que fue de vuelto" se puede indicar en forma activa. TA: "lleve a Egipto el dinero que alguien puso en sus sacos"

Genesis 43:13

Llevense también a su hermano.
"Toma también Benjamín"

Vayan nuevamente
"regresen"

Que Dios Todopoderoso les de misericordia delante del hombre El sustantivo abstracto "misericordia" se puede declarar como el adjetivo "amable". TA: "Que Dios Todopoderoso haga que el hombre sea amable con usted"

su otro hermano
"Simeón"

Si yo soy desamparado de mis hijos, yo soy desamparado
"Si pierdo a mis hijos, pierdo a mis hijos". Esto significa que Jacob sabe que debe aceptar lo que sea que le pase a sus hijos.

en sus manos llevaban
Aquí "mano" se refiere a toda la persona. TA: "tomaron"

Y fueron a Egipto
"bajaron a Egipto". Era común usar la frase "bajó" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Genesis 43:16

Benjamín con ellos
"Benjamín con los hermanos mayores de José"

El sirviente de su casa
El "sirviente" era responsable de administrar las actividades domésticas de José.

Él llevó a los hombres
Aquí "llevó" se puede traducir como "tomó".

A la casa de José
"en la casa de José"

Genesis 43:18

Los hombres tenían miedo
"Los hermanos de José tenían miedo"

ellos fueron llevados a la casa de José Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "ellos iban a la casa de José" o "el mayordomo los llevaba a la casa de José"

Es por el dinero que fue de vuelto en nuestros sacos la primera vez que nos trajeron Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El mayordomo nos trae a la casa por el dinero que alguien puso en nuestros sacos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Para que el pueda buscar una oportunidad en contra nuestra. Él puede arrestarnos Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración. TA: "Él está esperando la oportunidad de acusarnos, para poder arrestarnos"

Nosotros vinimos abajo
Es común usar la frase "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Genesis 43:21

Oración de enlace:
Los hermanos continúan hablando con el mayordomo de la casa.

Sucedió que
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

Cuando nosotros nos acercamos al lugar de alojamiento
"Cuando llegamos al lugar donde íbamos a pasar la noche"

Mire
La palabra "Mire" muestra que los hermanos se sorprendieron por lo que vieron.

Todo el dinero de cada hombre estaba en la apertura de su saco, nuestro dinero completo.
"Cada uno de nosotros encontró la cantidad total de su dinero en su bolsa"

Nosotros hemos venido a traerlo de vuelta en nuestras manos Aquí "manos" significa la persona entera. TA: "Hemos traído el dinero con nosotros"

Otro dinero también hemos traido en nuestras manos para comprar comida.
Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. TA: "También hemos traído más dinero para comprar alimentos"

Traido
"traído abajo". Es común usar la palabra "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Que la paz sea con ustedes,
El sustantivo abstracto "Paz" puede ser declarado como un verbo. AT: "Relajense"

Su Dios y el Dios de su padre
Los mayordomos no están hablando de dos dioses diferentes. TA: "Tu Dios, el Dios que tu padre adora" (UDB)

Genesis 43:24

Limpiaros sus pies
Esta costumbre ayudar a los viajeros cansados a refrescarse después de caminar largas distancias.

El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

Dió comida a sus burros
"alimentar "era un alimento seco que se reserva para los animales

Genesis 43:26

Ellos llevaron a la casa los regalos que tenían en sus manos Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. TA: "los hermanos trajeron los regalos que tenían con ellos"

Se inclinaron delante del el Esta es una forma de mostrar honor y respeto.

Genesis 43:28

Su sirviente nuestro padre
Se refieren a su padre como "su sirviente" para mostrar respeto. TA: "Nuestro padre que te sirve"

Ellos se postraron y se inclinaron Estas palabras básicamente significan lo mismo. Se acostaron frente al hombre para mostrarle respeto. TA: "Se inclinaron frente a él"

él levanta su mirada Esto significa "miró hacia arriba".

el hijo de su madre, él dijo:
Esto se puede traducir con una nueva oración. TA: "el hijo de su madre. José dijo"

Este es su hermano menor... hablado?
Los posibles significados son 1) José está realmente haciendo una pregunta para confirmar que este hombre es Benjamín, o 2) es una pregunta retórica. TA: "Así que este es tu hermano menor ... yo".

Mi hijo
Esta es una manera amistosa en que un hombre le habla a otro hombre de rango inferior. TA: "joven" (UDB)

Genesis 43:30

se apresuró a salir de la habitación
"salió corriendo de la habitación"

pues él fue profundamente movido por su hermano
La frase "profundamente conmovido" se refiere a tener un sentimiento fuerte o emoción cuando algo importante sucede. TA: "porque tenía fuertes sentimientos de compasión por su hermano" o "porque tenía fuertes sentimientos de afecto por su hermano"

Dijo
Se puede hacer explícito a quien José está hablando. TA: "y dijo a sus sirvientes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sirvan la comida
Esto significa distribuir la comida para que la gente pueda comer.

Genesis 43:32

Los siervos le sirvieron a José para él solo y a los hermanos para ellos aparte. Los egipcios allí comieron con él aparte Esto significa que José, los hermanos y los otros egipcios están comiendo en tres lugares diferentes dentro de la misma habitación. TA: "Los sirvientes sirvieron a José solo y a los hermanos solos y a los egipcios, que estaban comiendo con él, solos"

Los egipcios allí comieron con él aparte
Estos son probablemente otros funcionarios egipcios que comieron con José, pero aún se sentaron separados de él y de los hermanos hebreos.

Porque los egipcios no podían comer pan con los Heberos, pues eso es detestable para los egipcios.
Esto se puede traducir como una nueva oración: "Hicieron esto porque los egipcios pensaban que era una vergüenza comer con los hebreos"

No podían comer pan
Aquí "pan" significa comida en general.

Los hermanos se sentaron delante de él
Se da a entender que José había dispuesto dónde se sentaría cada hermano. Puedes aclarar la información implícita. TA: "Los hermanos se sentaron frente al hombre, según cómo organizó sus lugares"

El primogénito de acuerdo a sus derechos al nacer, y el menor de acuerdo a su juventud.
El "primogénito" y el "más joven" se usan juntos para significar que todos los hermanos estaban sentados en orden de acuerdo a su edad.

Los hombres estaban asombrados entre sí
"Los hombres se sorprendieron mucho cuando se dieron cuenta de esto".

Pero la de Bejamín era cinco veces más que la de cualquiera de sus hermanos.
La frase "cinco veces" se puede decir de manera más general. TA: "Pero Benjamín recibió una porción que era mucho más grande de lo que sus hermanos recibieron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 44

1 José le ordenó al mayordomo de su casa diciéndole: "Llena los sacos de los hombres con comida, todo lo que ellos puedan cargar, y pon el dinero de cada hombre en la apertura de su saco. 2 Pon mi copa, la copa de plata, en la apertura del saco del más joven y también su dinero para el grano." El mayordomo hizo como José le dijo. 3 Al amanecer, los hombres fueron despedidos, ellos y sus burros. 4 Cuando ellos ya estaban fuera de la cuidad, pero no muy lejos, José le dijo a su mayordomo: "Levántate, sigue a los hombres y cuando los alcances diles: '¿Por qué han devuelto mal por bien? 5 ¿No es ésta la copa de la cual mi señor bebe y la copa que él usa para adivinación? Ustedes han hecho lo malo, esta cosa que han hecho."' 6 El mayordomo los alcanzó y les habló estas palabras a ellos. 7 Ellos le dijeron a él: "¿Por qué mi amo habla palabras como éstas? Lejos esté de sus sirvientes que ellos hagan tal cosa. 8 Mire, el dinero que encontramos en la apertura de nuestros sacos, nosotros lo trajimos nuevamente a usted desde la tierra de Canaán. Entonces, ¿cómo podríamos nosotros robar de la casa de su señor plata u oro? 9 A cualquiera de sus sirvientes que se encuentre con el dinero, deje que muera, y nosotros también seremos esclavos de mi señor." 10 El mayordomo dijo: "Ahora, que suceda según sus palabras. Aquél a quien se le encuentre la copa será mi esclavo, y los otros serán inocentes." 11 Entonces cada hombre se apresuró y puso su saco en el suelo, y cada hombre abrió su saco. 12 El mayordomo buscó. Él comenzó con el mayor y terminó con el menor, y la copa fue encontrada en el saco de Benjamín. 13 Entonces, ellos rasgaron sus ropas. Cada hombre cargó su burro y regresaron a la cuidad. 14 Judá y sus hermanos fueron a la casa de José. Él todavía estaba allí, y ellos se postraron delante de él en el suelo. 15 José les dijo a ellos: "¿Qué es esto que ustedes han hecho? ¿Ustedes no saben que un hombre como yo practica adivinación?" 16 Judá dijo: "¿Qué le podremos decir a mi señor? ¿Qué podemos hablar? ¿O cómo podemos justificarnos a nosotros mismos? Dios ha encontrado la iniquidad de sus sirvientes. Mire, nosotros somos los esclavos de nuestro amo; tanto nosotros como él, en cuyas manos se ha encontrado la copa." 17 José dijo: "Que lejos esté de mí hacer eso. El hombre en cuyas manos la copa fue encontrada, esa persona será mi esclavo, pero en cuanto a los demás, suban en paz donde su padre." 18 Entonces Judá se acercó a él y le dijo: "Mi señor, por favor deje que su siervo hable una palabra a los oídos de mi señor, y no deje que su enfado se consuma en contra de su siervo porque usted es como Faraón. 19 Mi amo preguntó a sus siervos, diciendo: '¿Ustedes tienen un padre o un hermano?' 20 Nosotros le dijimos a mi señor: 'Nosotros tenemos un padre, un hombre viejo, y un niño de su vejez, un pequeño. Pero su hermano está muerto, y solo queda él de su madre, y su padre lo ama.' 21 Entonces usted le dijo a sus siervos: 'Tráiganmelo para que pueda verlo.' 22 Después de eso, le dijimos a mi señor: 'El niño no puede dejar a su padre. Porque si él dejara a su padre, su padre moriría.' 23 Entonces usted le dijo a sus siervos: "A menos que su hermano menor baje con ustedes, no volverán a ver mi rostro.' 24 Entonces aconteció que cuando subimos a donde su siervo mi padre, le dijimos las palabras de mi señor. 25 Nuestro padre dijo: "Vayan nuevamente, cómprennos comida.' 26 Entonces nosotros dijimos: 'Nosotros no podemos bajar. Si nuestro hermano menor está con nosotros, entonces nosotros bajaremos, porque nosotros no podremos ver la cara del hombre a menos que nuestro hermano esté con nosotros.' 27 Su siervo mi padre nos dijo: "Ustedes saben que mi esposa me dio dos hijos. 28 Uno de ellos se fue de mí y yo dije: 'Seguramente él está hecho pedazos, y yo no lo he visto desde entonces." 29 Ahora si ustedes se llevan a este también de mí y algún daño le pasa, ustedes bajarán mis canas con tristeza al Seol.' 30 Ahora, por lo tanto, cuando yo venga a su siervo mi padre y el muchacho no esté con nosotros, ya que su vida está ligada a la vida del muchacho, 31 pasará que cuando él vea que el muchacho no está con nosotros, él morirá. Sus siervos traerán las canas de su siervo nuestro padre con tristeza al Seol. 32 Porque su siervo se convirtio en una garantía del muchacho para mi padre, y dije: 'Si yo no se lo traigo, entonces cargaré la culpa de mi padre para siempre.' 33 Ahora, por lo tanto, por favor deje que su siervo se quede como esclavo de mi señor en el lugar del muchacho, y deje que el muchacho suba con sus hermanos. 34 Porque, ¿cómo puedo subir a donde mi padre si el muchacho no está conmigo? Tengo miedo de ver el mal que le vendría a mi padre."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 44:1

Información general
Comienza un nuevo evento en la historia. Lo más probable es que sea a la mañana siguiente después de la fiesta.

mayordomo de su casa
El "Mayordomo" era responsable de administrar las actividades domésticas de Joseph.

el dinero de cada hombre
Su dinero era monedas de plata muy probablemente en una pequeña bolsa.

en la apertura de su saco
"en sus sacos"

Pon mi copa, la copa de plata
"Pon mi copa de plata"

en la apertura del saco del más joven
La palabra "hermano" se entiende. TA: "en el saco del hermano más joven"

Genesis 44:3

La mañana se levantó
"La luz de la mañana se muestra"

los hombres fueron despedidos, ellos y sus burros Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "enviaron a los hombres lejos, junto con sus burros"

¿Por qué han devuelto mal por bien?
Esta pregunta se usa para regañar a los hermanos. TA: "¡Nos han tratado mal, después de haber sido bueno con ustedes!"

¿No es ésta la copa de la cual mi señor bebe y la copa que él usa para adivinación?
Esta pregunta se usa para regañar a los hermanos. TA: "¡Ya saben que esta es la taza que mi maestro usa para beber y para decir su fortuna!"

Has hecho mal, esta cosa que has hecho
Esto se repite "has hecho" para el énfasis. TA: "Lo que has hecho es muy malo" (Ver: paralelismo de higos)

Genesis 44:6

les habló estas palabras a ellos.
Aquí "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. TA: "habló lo que José le dijo que dijera"

¿Por qué mi señor habla pablabras como éstas?
Aquí "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. Los hermanos se refieren al mayordomo como "mi señor". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. TA: "¿Por qué dices esto, mi señor?"

Que lejos esté de tus sirvientes que ellos hagan tal cosa
Los hermanos se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes" y "ellos". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. TA: "¡Nunca haríamos tal cosa!"

Que lejos esté de tus sirvientes
Se habla de algo que una persona nunca haría como si fuera un objeto que la persona quiere poner muy lejos de sí misma.

Genesis 44:8

Mira
Esto agrega énfasis a lo que dicen los hermanos a continuación.

el dinero que encontramos en la apertura de nuestros sacos
"Conoces el dinero que encontramos en nuestros sacos".

nosotros lo trajímos nuevamente a ti desde de la tierra de Canaán
"Te trajimos de Canaán"

¿cómo podremos nosotros robar de la casa de tu señor oro o plata?
Los hermanos usan una pregunta para enfatizar que no le robarían al señor de Egipto. TA: "¡Así que nunca tomaríamos nada de la casa de tu amo!"

oro o plata
Estas palabras se usan juntas para dar a enterner que no robarían nada de ningún valor.

A quien sea de tus sirvientes que le encuentre con ello
Los hermanos se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en primera persona. Además, "se encuentra" se puede indicar en forma activa. TA: "Si encuentras que uno de nosotros ha robado la copa"

nosotros también seremos esclavos de mi señor
La frase "mi amo" se refiere al mayordomo. Esto se puede afirmar en segunda persona. TA: "puedes tomarnos como tus esclavos"

Ahora, que suceda según tus palabras
Aquí "ahora" no significa "en este momento", sino que se utiliza para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue. Además, "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. TA: "Muy bien. Haré lo que dijiste"

Aquél a quien se le encuentre la copa será mi esclavo Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Si encuentro la taza en uno de tus sacos, esa persona será mi esclava"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 44:11

puso su saco en el suelo
"bajó su saco"

El mayor... el menor
La palabra "hermano" se entiende. TA: "el hermano mayor ... el hermano menor" el menor, y la copa fue encontrada en el saco de Benjamín.

Esto puede traducirse como una nueva oración y en forma activa. TA: "el más joven. El mayordomo encontró la copa en el saco de Benjamin"

Entonces, ellos rasgaron sus ropas.
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los hermanos. Desgarrar la ropa era un signo de gran angustia y dolor.

Y regresaron
"y ellos regresaron"

Genesis 44:14

Él todavía estaba allí
"José todavía estaba allí" ellos se postraron delante de él

"cayeron delante de él". Esta es una señal de los hermanos que desean que el señor sea misericordioso con ellos.

¿Ustedes no saben que un hombre como yo practica adivinación?
José usa una pregunta para regañar a sus hermanos. AT: "¡Seguramente saben que un hombre como yo puede aprender cosas por magia!"

Genesis 44:16

¿Qué le podremos decir a mi señor? ¿Qué podemos hablar? ¿O cómo podemos justificarnos nosotros mismos?
Las 3 preguntas significan básicamente lo mismo. Usan estas preguntas para enfatizar que no hay nada que puedan decir para explicar lo que sucedió. TA: "No tenemos nada que decir, mi maestro. No podemos decir nada de valor. No podemos justificarnos".

¿Qué le podremos decir a mi señor? ... los esclavos de nuestro señor Aquí "mi señor" se refiere a José. Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. TA: "¿Qué podemos decirle ... sus esclavos?"

Dios ha encontrado la iniquidad de tus sirvientes.
Aquí "encontrado" no significa que Dios acaba de descubrir lo que hicieron los hermanos. Significa que Dios ahora los está castigando por lo que hicieron. TA: "Dios nos está castigando por nuestros pecados pasados"

la iniquidad de tus sirvientes
Los hermanos se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en primera persona. TA: "nuestra iniquidad"

en cuyas manos se ha encontrado la copa Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. Además, "se encontró" se puede indicar en forma activa. TA: "y el que tomó tu taza"

Que lejos esté de mí hacer eso
Se habla de algo que una persona nunca haría como si fuera un objeto que la persona quiere que se le aleje. TA: "No me gusta hacer algo así"

El hombre en cuyas manos la copa fue encontrada Aquí "mano" significa la persona entera. Además, "se encontró" se puede indicar en forma activa. TA: "El hombre que tenía mi copa"

Genesis 44:18

se acercó a
"acercado"

deja que tu sirviente
Judá se refiere a sí mismo como "tu siervo". Esta es una manera formal de hablarle a alguien con más autoridad. Esto se puede afirmar en primera persona. TA: "déjame, tu sirviente"

hable palabra a los oídos de mi señor Aquí "palabra" es un metónimo que representa lo que se dice. Y "oídos" es una sinécdoque que representa a toda la persona. TA: "hable con usted, mi señor"

a los oídos de mi señor Aquí "mi señor" se refiere a José. Esta es una manera formal de hablarle a alguien con más autoridad. Esto se puede afirmar en segunda persona. TA: "a usted"

deja que tu enfado se consuma en contra de su siervo Se habla de estar enojado como si fuera un fuego ardiente. TA: "por favor, no te enojes conmigo, tu sirviente" tú eres como el Faraón.

Judá compara al señor con el faraón para enfatizar el gran poder que tiene el señor. También está insinuando que quiere que el señor se enoje y lo ejecute. TA: "porque eres tan poderoso como el Faraón y podrías que tus soldados me maten"

Mi amo preguntó esto a sus sirvientes, diciendo: '¿Ustedes tienen un padre o un hermano?'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Mi amo nos preguntó si tenemos un padre o un hermano".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Mi amo preguntó esto a sus sirvientes
Judá se refiere a José con las palabras "mi amo". También se refiere a sí mismo y a sus hermanos como "sus sirvientes". TA: "Tú, mi amo, nos pediste, tus sirvientes" o "Nos pediste"

Genesis 44:20

Información General:
Judá continúa hablando ante José

nosotros le dijimos a mi señor: 'Nosotros tenemos un padre ... su padre lo ama.'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Y le dijimos a mi señor que tenemos un padre ... su padre lo ama"

nosotros le decimos a mi señor Judá se refiere a José como "mi señor". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. TA: "te dijimos, mi señor"

su padre lo ama
Esto se refiere al amor por un amigo o miembro de la familia.

tú le dices a tus sirvientes: 'Bájalo a donde mí para que pueda verlo'.
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Y dijiste a tus sirvientes que deberíamos llevarte a nuestro hermano menor para que lo veas"

Y tú le dices a tus sirvientes
Judá se refiere a sí mismo y a sus hermanos como "tus siervos". AT: "Entonces nos dijiste, tus sirvientes"

Bájalo a donde mí
Era común usar la palabra "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto. TA: "Tráemelo a mí"

Y nosotros le decimos a mi señor: 'El niño no puede... su padre moriría' Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "En respuesta, le dijimos a mi maestro que el niño no puede ... el padre moriría"

su padre moriría
Se implica que su padre moriría de pena.

Genesis 44:23

Información general:
Judá continúa contando su historia a José.

Y tú le dices a tus sirvientes: "A menos que su hermano menor baje con ustedes, no volverán a ver mi rostro otra vez
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Entonces dijiste a tus sirvientes que a menos que nuestro hermano menor venga con nosotros, no te volveremos a ver"

Y tú le dices a tus sirvientes
Judá se refiere a sí mismo y a sus hermanos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. TA: "Entonces nos dijiste, tus sirvientes"

baje con ustedes ... bajar Era común usar la palabra "bajar" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

no volverán a ver mi rostro otra vez Aquí "rostro" significa la persona entera. TA: "no volverás a verme"

Y aconteció que cuando subimos
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

cuando subimos a donde tu sirviente mi padre Era común utilizar la frase "subió" cuando se habla de viajar de Egipto a Canaán.

le dijimos las palabras de nuestro señor
Judá se refiere a José como "mi señor". Además, "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. TA: "le dijimos lo que dijiste, mi señor"

Y nuestro padre dijo: 'Vayan nuevamente, y cómpranos comida'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Nuestro padre nos dijo que fuéramos nuevamente a Egipto para comprar comida para nosotros y nuestras familias"

Y nosotros dijimos: 'Nosotros no podemos bajar. Si nuestro hermano menor ... está con nosotros Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Entonces le dijimos que no podemos bajar a Egipto. Le dijimos que si nuestro hermano menor está con nosotros ... está con nosotros"

ver la cara del hombre Aquí "cara" significa la persona entera. TA: "ver al hombre"

Genesis 44:27

Información general:
Judá continúa contando su historia a José.

nos dijo: "Tu sabes que mi esposa me dio dos hijos. Y uno se alejó de mí y yo dije: 'Seguramente él está hecho pedazos, y yo no lo he visto desde entonces. Y si tú te llevas a este también de mí y algún daño le pasa, tú traerás canas a mi pelo con tristreza al Seol.
Esto tiene una cita de dos niveles y tres niveles. Pueden indicarse como citas indirectas. TA: "nos dijo que sabemos que su esposa, Raquel, le dio solo dos hijos, y que uno de ellos salió y un animal lo hizo pedazos, y no lo ha visto desde entonces. Luego dijo que si nosotros toma a su otro hijo y algo malo le sucede, entonces haremos que se muera de pena".

nos dijo
Aquí "nos" no incluye a José.

tú sabes
Aquí "tú" es plural y se refiere a los hermanos.

él está hecho pedazos Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "un animal salvaje lo ha hecho pedazos"

algún daño le pasa
Se habla de algo malo que le sucede a una persona como si "daño" fuera algo que viaja y llega a una persona.

tú traerás canas a mi pelo con tristreza al Seol
"Traerás ... al Seol" es una forma de decir que lo harán morir e ir al Seol. Él usa la palabra "abajo" porque comúnmente se creía que el Seol está en algún lugar subterráneo. TA: "entonces me harás morir, de edad, un viejo hombre

canas a mi pelo
Esto representa a Jacob y destaca su vejez. TA: "yo, un viejo"

Genesis 44:30

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

por lo tanto, cuando venga ... con tristeza al Seol.
Judá le está describiendo a José un caso realista pero hipotético de lo que él esperará que le suceda a Jacob cuando regrese sin Benjamín.

cuando venga a tu sirviente
Aquí "venga" puede traducirse como "ir" o "regresar".

el chico no esté con nosotros
"el niño no esté con nosotros"

ya que su vida esta ligada a la vida del muchacho El padre dice que él moriría si su hijo muriera es como si sus dos vidas estuvieran unidas físicamente. TA: "ya que dijo que moriría si el niño no regresara"

pasará que
Judá está hablando de un caso hipotético en el futuro como si ciertamente sucediera.

Y tus sirvientes traerán canas a tu sirviente nuestro padre con tristeza al Seol
"traerán ... a Seol" es una forma de decir que lo harán morir e ir al Seol. Él usa la palabra "abajo" porque comúnmente se creía que el Seol está en algún lugar subterráneo. TA: "Y haremos que nuestro viejo padre muera de tristeza"

canas a tu sirviente nuestro padre Aquí las "canas" hace referencia a Jacob y destaca su vejez. TA: "nuestro viejo padre"

Tus sirvientes
Judá se refiere a sí mismo y a sus hermanos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. TA: "Y nosotros, tus sirvientes" o "Y nosotros"

Porque tu sirviente se volvió una garantía, del muchacho a mi padre El sustantivo abstracto "garantía" se puede expresar con el verbo "prometido". TA: "Porque le prometí a mi padre acerca del niño"

Porque tu sirviente Judá se refiere a sí mismo como "tu sirviente". TA: "Para mi, tu sirviente" o "Para mí" entonces cargaré la culpa de mi padre

Ser considerado culpable es hablado como si la "culpa" fuera algo que una persona lleva. TA: "entonces mi padre puede culparme"

Genesis 44:33

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

deja que tu sirviente
Judá se refiere a sí mismo como "tu sirviente". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. TA: "déjame, tu sirviente" o "déjame"

de tu señor
Judá se refiere a José como "mi señor". TA: "para ti, mi señor" o "para ti" deja que el muchacho suba con sus hermanos.

Iba a usar la frase "subir" cuando se habla de viajar desde Egipto a Canaán.

¿cómo puedo subir a donde mi padre si el muchacho no está conmigo?
Judá usa una pregunta para enfatizar el dolor que tendría si Benjamín no regresara a casa. TA: "No puedo volver con mi padre si el niño no está conmigo".

Tengo miedo de ver el mal que vendría sobre mi padre
Se habla de una persona que sufre terriblemente como si el "mal" fuera algo que se viene a una persona. TA: "Tengo miedo de ver cuánto sufriría mi padre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 45

1 Entonces, José no se pudo controlar ante todos los sirvientes que estaban junto a él. Él dijo fuertemente: "Todos tienen que dejarme." Así que ningún sirviente se quedó junto a él cuando José se dio a conocer a sus hermanos. 2 Él lloró fuertemente, los egipcios lo oyeron y la casa de Faraón lo oyó. 3 José le dijo a sus hermanos: "Yo soy José. ¿Todavía está vivo mi padre?" Sus hermanos no pudieron contestarle, porque ellos estaban atónitos en su presencia. 4 Entonces, José le dijo a sus hermanos: "Acérquense a mí, por favor." Ellos se acercaron. Él dijo: "Yo soy José su hermano, a quien ustedes vendieron a Egipto. 5 Y ahora, no estén apenados o enojados con ustedes mismos porque me vendieron aquí, porque Dios me envió delante de ustedes para preservar vida. 6 Por estos dos años la hambruna ha estado en la tierra y todavía habrá cinco años más en los cuales no habrá arado ni cosecha. 7 Dios me envió frente a ustedes para preservarles como un remanente en la tierra y para mantenerlos con vida por medio de una gran liberación. 8 Así que, no fueron ustedes quienes me enviaron aquí, sino Dios; y Él me ha hecho un padre para Faraón, amo de toda su casa y gobernante sobre toda la tierra de Egipto. 9 Apúrense y suban donde mi padre y díganle: 'Esto es lo que tu hijo José dice: 'Dios me ha hecho amo de todo Egipto. Baja donde mí y no te demores. 10 Vivirás en la tierra de Gosén y estarás cerca de mí, tú, tus hijos, los hijos de tus hijos, tus rebaños, tus manadas y todo lo que tienes. 11 Yo te proveeré allí, porque todavía habrá cinco años de hambruna, para que no seas empobrecido; tú, tu familia y todo lo que tienes.'" 12 Miren, sus ojos ven, y los ojos de mi hermano Benjamín, que es mi boca la que les habla a ustedes. 13 Ustedes le dirán a mi padre sobre todo mi honor en Egipto y todo lo que han visto. Ustedes se apurarán y traeran a mi padre hasta aquí." 14 Él abrazó el cuello de su hermano Benjamín y lloró, y Benjamín lloró en el cuello de él. 15 Él besó a todos sus hermanos y lloró sobre ellos. Después de eso, sus hermanos hablaron con él. 16 Las noticias del asunto fueron dichas en la casa del Faraón: "Los hermanos de José han llegado." Eso agradó mucho a Faraón y a sus sirvientes. 17 Faraón le dijo a José: "Dile a tus hermanos: 'Hagan esto: carguen sus animales y vayan a la tierra de Canaán. 18 Tomen a su padre, a sus familiares y vengan donde mí. Yo les daré a ustedes lo bueno de la tierra de Egipto y comerán la grosura de la tierra.' 19 Ahora, tú estás ordenado: 'Hagan esto: tomen las carretas fuera de la tierra de Egipto para sus hijos y sus esposas. Tomen a su padre y vengan. 20 No se preocupen por sus posesiones, porque lo bueno de toda la tierra de Egipto es de ustedes."' 21 Los hijos de Israel lo hicieron así. José les dio carretas de acuerdo al mandato de Faraón y les dio provisiones para el viaje. 22 A todos ellos, él les dio a cada hombre cambios de ropa, pero a Benjamín le dio trescientas piezas de plata y cinco cambios de ropa. 23 Para su padre él le envió esto: diez burros cargados con las buenas cosas de Egipto y diez mulas cargadas con grano, pan y otros suministros para su padre para el viaje. 24 Así que él envió a sus hermanos y ellos se fueron. Él les dijo a ellos: "Vean que ustedes no discutan en el viaje." 25 Ellos subieron fuera de Egipto y llegaron a la tierra de Canaán donde Jacob su padre. 26 Ellos hablaron con él diciendol: "José todavía está vivo y es gobernante sobre toda la tierra de Egipto." Su corazón estaba asombrado, porque él no les creía lo que ellos le decían. 27 Ellos le dijeron a él todas las palabras que José les había dicho a ellos. Cuando Jacob vio las carretas que José había enviado para cargarlo a él, el espíritu de Jacob, su padre, revivió. 28 Israel dijo: "Es suficiente. José mi hijo aún está vivo. Iré a verlo antes de que yo muera."

Genesis 45:1

no se pudo controlar
Esto significa que no pudo controlar sus emociones. Se puede afirmar en forma positiva. TA: "estaba a punto de empezar a llorar"

Junto a él
"cerca de él"

la casa del Faraón
Aquí, "casa" significa la gente en el palacio del faraón. TA: "todos en el palacio del faraón"

estaban atónitos en su presencia
"aterrorizados de él"

Genesis 45:4

a quien ustedes vendieron en Egipto
El significado puede ser expresado más explícitamente. TA: "a quien vendiste como esclavo del comerciante que me trajo a Egipto"

no estén apenados
"No se molesten" o "No se angustien"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ustedes mismos porque me vendieron aquí
El significado puede ser expresado más explícitamente. TA: "que me vendieron como esclavo y me enviaron a Egipto"

para preservar vida Aquí, "vida" significa la gente que José salvó de morir durante la hambruna. TA: "para poder salvar muchas vidas" todavía habrá cinco años más en los cuales no habrá arado ni cosecha.

"Habrá cinco años más sin plantar o cosechar". Aquí "ni arado ni cosecha" significa que los cultivos aún no crecerán debido a la hambruna. TA: "y el hambre durará cinco años más"

Genesis 45:7

para preservarles como un remanente en la tierra
"para que ustedes y sus familias no perezcan completamente de la tierra" o "para asegurarse de que sus descendientes sobrevivan" (UDB)

para mantenerlos con vida para que muchos de ustedes sobrevivan
El sustantivo abstracto "sobrevivan" puede ser declarado como "sean rescatados". TA: "para mantenerte vivo rescatándote de manera poderosa"

Él me ha hecho un padre para el Faraón José aconseja y ayuda al Faraón como si José fuera el padre del Faraón. TA: "él me ha hecho una guía para el Faraón" o "me ha hecho el asesor principal de Faraón"

de toda su casa
Aquí "casa" significa las personas que viven en su palacio. TA: "de toda su casa" o "de todo su palacio"

gobernante sobre toda la tierra de Egipto Aquí "tierra" significa la gente. TA: "gobernante sobre todo el pueblo de Egipto"

Gobernante
Aquí José quiere decir que él es el gobernante en segundo lugar de Faraón, el rey de Egipto. Esta información entendida se puede aclarar.

Genesis 45:9

suban donde mi padre Era común usar la frase "subir" cuando se habla de ir de Egipto a Canaán. TA: "vuelve con mi padre" díganle: 'Esto es lo que tu hijo José dice: 'Dios me ... todo lo que tienes.'

Esta es una cita con tres capas. Se puede simplificar a dos capas. TA: "dile que esto es lo que dije: 'Dios tiene ... todo lo que tienes"

Baja donde mí
Era común usar la frase "bajar" cuando se habla de ir de Canaán a Egipto. TA: "Ven aquí a mí"

seas empobrecido
Esto habla de "pobreza" como si fuera un destino. TA: "desperdiciar" o "morir de hambre"

Genesis 45:12

sus ojos ven, y los ojos de mi hermano Benjamín La palabra "ojos" significa toda la persona. TA: "Todos ustedes y Benjamin pueden ver" es mi boca la que les habla a ustedes.

La palabra "boca" significa toda la persona. TA: "que yo, José, te estoy hablando"

sobre todo mi poder en Egipto
"Cómo la gente en Egipto me honra mucho"

bajarán a mi padre hasta aquí
Era común usar la palabra "abajo" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto. TA: "mi padre aquí para mí"

Genesis 45:14

Él abrazó el cuello de su hermano Benjamín y lloró, y Benjamín lloró en el cuello de él.
"José abrazó a su hermano Benjamín, y ambos lloraron"

Él besó a todos sus hermanos
En el antiguo Cercano Oriente, es común saludar a un familiar con un beso. Si su idioma tiene un saludo afectuoso para un familiar, úselo. Si no, usa lo que sea apropiado.

lloró sobre ellos
Esto significa que José estaba llorando mientras los besaba.

Después de eso, sus hermanos hablaron con él.
Antes tenían demasiado miedo de hablar. Ahora sienten que pueden hablar libremente. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. TA: "Después de eso sus hermanos hablaron libremente con él"

Genesis 45:16

Las noticias del asunto fueron dichas en la casa del Faraón: "Los hermanos de José han llegado.
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cotización indirecta. También puede ser declarado en forma activa. TA: "Todos en el palacio de Faraón se enteraron de que los hermanos de José habían venido"

la casa del Faraón
Esto representa el palacio del faraón.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Dile a tus hermanos: 'Hagan esto: carguen sus animales y vayan a la tierra de Canaán. Tomen a su padre, a sus famliares y vengan donde mí. Yo les daré a ustedes lo bueno de la tierra de Egipto y comerán la grosura de la tierra'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Díganles a sus hermanos que carguen sus animales y vayan a Canaán a buscar a su padre y sus familias. Díganles que vengan aquí, y les daré la mejor tierra de Egipto y la mejor comida que tenemos para ofrecer"

Yo les daré a ustedes lo bueno de la tierra de Egipto
"Les daré la mejor tierra de Egipto"

comerán la grosura de la tierra
Se habla de la mejor comida que produce una tierra como si fuera la porción gruesa de la tierra. TA: "comerás la mejor comida de la tierra"

Genesis 45:19

Información general:
Faraón continúa contando a José qué decir a sus hermanos.

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

tú estás ordenado: 'Hagan esto: tomen las carretas fuera de la tierra de Egipto para sus hijos y sus esposas. Tomen a su padre y vengan. No se preocupen por sus posesiones, porque lo bueno de toda la tierra de Egipto es de ustedes."' Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "también díganles que saquen carros de la tierra de Egipto para sus hijos y esposas, y que traigan a su padre y vengan aquí. No deben preocuparse por traer sus posesiones, porque les daré las mejores cosas que tenemos en Egipto "

tú estás ordenado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "También te mando que les digas" o "también les digas"

tomen las carretas fuera
Las "carretas" son vagones con dos o cuatro ruedas. Los animales tiran de los carros.

Genesis 45:21

y les dio provisiones para el viaje
"Y les dio lo que necesitaban para viajar".

él les dio a cada hombre cambios de ropa
Cada hombre recibió un juego de ropa, excepto Benjamin, que recibió 5 juegos de ropa.

trescientas piezas de plata
"300 piezas"

diez burros ... y diez mulas
Los burros fueron incluidos como parte del regalo.

Genesis 45:24

no discutan
Los posibles significados incluyen 1) "no discutan" y 2) "no tengan miedo"

Ellos subieron fuera de Egipto Era común usar la palabra "subieron" cuando se habla de viajar de Egipto a Canaán.

es gobernante sobre toda la tierra de Egipto Aquí "tierra de Egipto" significa el pueblo de Egipto. TA: "gobierna a todo el pueblo de Egipto" su corazón estaba asombrado Aquí el "corazón" representa a toda la persona. TA: "y se sorprendió" o "se sorprendió mucho" porque él no les creía.

"No aceptó que lo que dijeron fuera verdad".

Genesis 45:27

Ellos le dijeron a él
"Le dijeron a Jacob"

todas las palabras que José les había dicho a ellos.
Aquí "palabras" significa lo que se dijo. TA: "todo lo que José les había dicho" el espíritu de Jacob, su padre, revivió.

La palabra "espíritu" significa toda la persona. TA: "Jacob su padre se recuperó" o "Jacob su padre se emocionó mucho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 46

1 Israel hizo su viaje con todo lo que tenía y fue a Beerseba. Ahí él ofreció sacrificios al Dios de su padre Isaac. 2 Dios le habló a Israel en una visión durante la noche, diciendo: "Jacob, Jacob." Él dijo: "Aquí estoy." 3 Él dijo: "Yo soy Dios, el Dios de tu padre. No temas bajar a Egipto, porque allí Yo haré de ti una gran nación. 4 Yo bajaré contigo a Egipto, y Yo de seguro te traeré otra vez y José cerrará tus ojos con su propia mano." 5 Jacob se levantó de Beerseba. Los hijos de Israel transportaron a Jacob su padre, sus hijos, y sus esposas, en las carretas que Faraón había enviado para llevarlo a él. 6 Ellos se llevaron su ganado y sus posesiones que habían acumulado en la tierra de Canaán. Ellos entraron a Egipto, Jacob y todos sus descendientes con él. 7 Él trajo consigo a Egipto sus hijos y los hijos de sus hijos, sus hijas y las hijas de sus hijos, y todos sus descendientes. 8 Estos fueron los nombres de los hijos de Israel quienes vinieron a Egipto, Jacob y sus hijos: Rubén, el primogénito de Jacob; 9 los hijos de Rubén: Hanoc, Falú y Hezrón y Carmi. 10 Los hijos de Simeón: Jemuel, Jamín, Ohad, Jaquín, Zohar, y Saúl, el hijo de una mujer cananea. 11 Los hijos de Leví: Gersón, Coat y Merari. 12 Los hijos de Judá: Er, Onán, Sela, Fares y Zara, (pero Er y Onán habían muerto en la tierra de Canaán). Los hijos de Fares fueron Hezrón y Hamul. 13 Los hijos de Isacar: Tola, Fúa, Job y Simrón. 14 Los hijos de Zabulón: Sered, Elón y Jahleel. 15 Estos fueron los hijos que Lea le parió a Jacob en Padán Aram, con su hija Dina. Sus hijos y sus hijas enumeraban treinta y tres. 16 Los hijos de Gad fueron Zifión, Hagui, Suni, Ezbón, Eri, Arodi y Areli. 17 Los hijos de Aser: Imna, Isúa, Isúi, Bería, y Sera su hermana. Los hijos de Bería fueron Heber y Malquiel. 18 Estos fueron los hijos de Zilpa, quien Labán dio a su hija Lea. Estos hijos ella le parió a Jacob, dieciseis en total. 19 Los hijos de Raquel, esposa de Jacob fueron José y Benjamín. 20 En Egipto, Manasés y Efraín le nacieron a José por Asenat, la hija de Potifera, sacerdote de On. 21 Los hijos de Benjamín fueron Bela, Bequer, Asbel, Gera, Naamán, Ehi, Ros, Mupim, Hupim, y Ard. 22 Estos fueron los hijos de Raquel quienes le nacieron a Jacob, catorce en total. 23 El hijo de Dan fue Husim. 24 Los hijos de Neftalí fueron Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer y Silem. 25 Estos fueron los hijos nacidos a Jacob por Bilha, quien Labán dio a Raquel, su hija, siete en total. 26 Todos aquellos que fueron a Egipto con Jacob, que eran sus descendientes, sin contar las esposas de los hijos de Jacob; fueron sesenta y seis en total. 27 Con los dos hijos de José quienes le nacieron a él en Egipto, los miembros de su familia que fueron a Egipto fueron setenta en total. 28 Jacob envió a Judá delante de él a José para mostrar el camino ante él a Gosén, y ellos llegaron a la tierra de Gosén. 29 José preparó su carro y subió a encontrarse con Israel su padre en Gosén. Él lo vio, abrazó su cuello, y lloró sobre su cuello un largo rato. 30 Israel dijo a José: "Ahora déjame morir, ya que he visto tu rostro, que tú aún estás vivo." 31 José dijo a sus hermanos y a la casa de su padre: "Yo subiré y contaré a Faraón, diciendo: 'Mis hermanos y la casa de mi padre, quienes estaban en la tierra de Canaán, han venido a mí. 32 Los hombres son pastores, puesto que han sido cuidadores de ganado. Ellos han traído sus rebaños, sus manadas, y todo lo que tienen.' 33 Sucederá que cuando Faraón les llame y pregunte: '¿Cuál es su ocupación?' 34 que ustedes deben decir: 'Tus sirvientes hemos sido cuidadores de ganado desde la juventud hasta ahora, tanto nosotros como nuestros antepasados.' Hagan esto para que ustedes puedan vivir en la tierra de Gosén, puesto que todo pastor es una abominación para los egipcios."

Genesis 46:1

fue a Beerseba.
"vino a Beerseba"

Aquí estoy
"Si, estoy escuchando"

bajar a Egipto
Era común usar la frase "bajar" cuando se habla de viajar de Canaán a Egipto.

Yo haré de ti una gran nación.
Aquí se refiere a Jacob. Este "ti" también representa a los descendientes de Israel que se convertirán en una gran nación. TA: "Te daré muchos descendientes, y se convertirán en una gran nación"

En Egipto
"a Egipto"

Yo de seguro te traeré otra vez
La promesa fue hecha a Jacob, pero la promesa se cumpliría a todos los descendientes de Israel. TA: "Seguramente sacaré a tus descendientes de Egipto de nuevo"

te traeré otra vez
"te traeré arriba otra vez". Era común usar la palabra "arriba" cuando se hablaba de viajar de Egipto a Canaán

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y José cerrará tus ojos con su propia mano.
La frase "cierra los ojos con su propia mano" es una forma de decir que José estará presente cuando muera Israel y será José quien cerrará los párpados de Jacob en el momento de su muerte. TA: "Y José estará presente contigo en el momento de tu muerte"

Cerrará tus ojos
Era una costumbre bajar los párpados cuando una persona moría con los ojos abiertos. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. (Ver: higos explícitos)

Genesis 46:5

se levantó de
"salió de"

en los carros
"Carros" son vagones con dos o cuatro ruedas. Los animales tiran de los carros. Vea cómo se tradujo "carros" en el 45:19.

que habían acumulado
"habían adquirido" (UDB) o "habían ganado"

Él trajo consigo
"Jacob trajo consigo"

los hijos de sus hijos
"sus nietos"

las hijas de sus hijos
"sus nietas"

Genesis 46:8

Estos son los nombres
Esto se refiere a los nombres de las personas que el autor está a punto de enumerar.

de los hijos de Israel
"de los miembros de la familia de Israel"

Hanoc, Falú y Hezrón y Carmi ... Jemuel, Jamín, Ohad, Jaquín, Zohar, y Saúl ... Gerson, Coat y Merari
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

Genesis 46:12

Er, Onán, Sela
Estos fueron los hijos de Judá por su esposa, Sua. Vea cómo tradujo estos nombres en 38:3.

Fares y Zara
Estos fueron los hijos de Judá por su nuera, Tamar. Vea cómo se tradujo estos nombres en el 38:29.

Hezrón ... Hamul ..Tola, Fúa, Job ... Simrón ... ered, Elón ... Jahleel
Todos estos son nombres de hombres.

Dina
Este es el nombre de la hija de Lea. Vea cómo se tradujo este nombre en el 30:19.

Sus hijos y sus hijas enumeraban treinta y tres Aquí "hijos" e "hijas" se refieren a los hijos, hijas y nietos de Jacob relacionados con Lea. TA: "En total tuvo 33 hijos, hijas y nietos"

Genesis 46:16

Zifión ... Hagui, Suni... Ezbón, Eri, Arodi ... Areli ... Imna ... Isúa, Isúi... Bería ...Heber ... Malquiel
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Sera
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Zilpa
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Lea. Vea cómose tradujo este nombre en el 29:23.

Estos ella le parió a Jacob-dieciseis personas
Esto se refiere a 16 hijos, nietos y bisnietos que estaban relacionados con Zilpa.

Genesis 46:19

Asenat
"Asenat" es el nombre de la mujer que Faraón le dio a José como su esposa. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 41:44.

Potifera
"Potifera" es el padre de Asenat. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en 41:44.

Sacerdote de On Es una ciudad, también llamada Heliópolis, que era "la Ciudad del Sol" y el centro de adoración del dios sol Ra. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 41:44.

Bela, Bequer, Asbel, Gera, Naamán, Ehi, Ros, Mupim, Hupim, Ard
Estos son nombres de hombres.

catorce en número
Esto se refiere a los 14 hijos y nietos relacionados con Rachel.

Genesis 46:23

Husim ... Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer ... Silem
Estos son los nombres de los hombres.

Bilha
Este es el nombre de la sirvienta de Raquel. Vea cómo se tradujo este nombre en el 29:28.

Siete en número
Esto se refiere a los 7 hijos y nietos relacionados con Bilha.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 46:26

sesenta y seis
"66"

Setenta
"70"

Genesis 46:28

para mostrar el camino ante él a Gosén
"Para mostrarles el camino a Gosén"

José preparó su carruaje y subió Aquí "José" representa a sus siervos. TA: "Los sirvientes de José prepararon su carro y José subió"

subió a encontrarse con Israel La frase "subió" se usa porque José está viajando a una elevación más alta para encontrarse con su padre. TA: "fue a encontrarse con Israel"

abrazó su cuello, y lloró en su cuello un largo tiempo
"puso sus brazos alrededor de su padre, y lloró durante mucho tiempo"

Ahora déjame morir
"Ahora estoy listo para morir" o "Ahora moriré feliz" ya que he visto tu rostro, que tú aún estás vivo Aquí "cara" significa la persona entera. Jacob estaba expresando alegría al ver a José. TA: "desde que te he vuelto a ver vivo"

Genesis 46:31

la casa de su padre Aquí "casa" significa su familia. TA: "la familia de su padre" o "la casa de su padre" yo subiré y contaré a Faraón Era común usar la frase "subir" cuando se refiere a alguien que va a hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad. TA: "Iré a decirle al Faraón" contaré a Faraón, diciendo, 'mis hermanos... todo lo que tienen.'

Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "diré a Faraón que mis hermanos ... todo lo que tienen"

Genesis 46:33

Será que
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante que está a punto de ocurrir en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

y pregunte, '¿Cuál es su ocupación? ustedes deben decir Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "y les pregunta qué tipo de trabajo hacen, deben decir" ustedes deben decir, 'Tus sirvientes... ambos nosotros, y nuestros antepasados.'

Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "debeN decir que tieneN ... tanto ustedes como sus antepasados"

Tus sirvientes
La familia de José debe referirse a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes" cuando hablan con el faraón. Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en primera persona. TA: "Nosotros, tus sirvientes"

todo pastor es una abominación para los egipcios El sustantivo abstracto "abominación" se puede traducir con el adjetivo "repugnante". TA: "Los egipcios piensan que los pastores son asquerosos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 47

1 Entonces José entró y le dijo a Faraón: "Mi padre y mis hermanos, sus rebaños, sus manadas, y todo lo que poseen, han llegado de la tierra de Canaán. Mire, ellos están en la tierra de Gosén." 2 Él tomó a cinco de sus hermanos y se los presentó a Faraón. 3 Faraón le dijo a sus hermanos: "¿Cuál es su ocupación?" Ellos le dijeron a Faraón: "Sus sirvientes son pastores, como nuestros ancestros." 4 Entonces le dijeron a Faraón: "Venimos como residentes temporales en la tierra. No hay pastos para los rebaños de sus sirvientes porque la hambruna es severa en la tierra de Canaán. Así que ahora, por favor, deje a sus sirvientes vivir en la tierra de Gosén." 5 Entonces Faraón le habló a José, diciendo: "Tu padre y tus hermanos han venido a ti. 6 La tierra de Egipto está delante de ti. Establece a tu padre y a tus hermanos en la mejor región, la tierra de Gosén. Si conoces de algunos hombres capaces entre ellos, ponlos a cargo de mi ganado." 7 Entonces José trajo a Jacob su padre y se lo presentó a Faraón. Jacob bendijo a Faraón. 8 Faraón le dijo a Jacob: "¿Cuánto tiempo has vivido?" 9 Jacob le dijo a Faraón: "Los años de mis viajes son ciento treinta. Los años de mi vida han sido pocos y dolorosos. No han sido tan largos como los de mis ancestros." 10 Entonces Jacob bendijo a Faraón y se fue de su presencia. 11 Entonces José asentó a su padre y a sus hermanos. Él les dio un territorio en la tierra de Egipto, el mejor de la tierra, en la tierra de Ramsés, como Faraón había ordenado. 12 José proveyó comida para su padre, sus hermanos, y todos en la casa de su padre, de acuerdo al número de sus dependientes. 13 Ahora, no había comida en toda la tierra; porque la hambruna era severa. La tierra de Egipto y la tierra de Canaán se consumieron por la hambruna. 14 José recogió todo el dinero que había en la tierra de Egipto y en la tierra de Canaán, al venderle grano a los habitantes. Entonces José trajo el dinero al palacio de Faraón. 15 Cuando todo el dinero de la tierra de Egipto y Canaán se gastó, todos los egipcios vinieron a José diciendo: "¡Danos comida! ¿Por qué deberíamos morir en tu presencia porque nuestro dinero se haya acabado?" 16 José dijo: "Si se les acabó el dinero, traigan su ganado y yo les daré comida en cambio por su ganado." 17 Así que le trajeron su ganado a José. José les dio comida a cambio de caballos, de rebaños, de manadas, y de burros. Él los alimentó con pan a cambio de todos sus ganados ese año. 18 Cuando ese año terminó, ellos vinieron a él el año siguiente y le dijeron: "No ocultaremos de mi señor que todo nuestro dinero se acabó, y los rebaños de ganado son de mi señor. No queda nada a la vista de mi señor, excepto nuestros cuerpos y nuestra tierra. 19 ¿Por qué hemos de morir ante tus ojos, tanto nosotros como nuestra tierra? Cómpranos a nosotros y a nuestra tierra a cambio de comida, y nosotros y nuestra tierra seremos siervos de Faraón. Danos semillas para que podamos vivir y no morir, y que la tierra no se vuelva desolada." 20 Entonces José compró toda la tierra de Egipto para Faraón. Porque todo egipcio vendió su campo, ya que la hambruna era muy severa. De esta manera, la tierra se volvió propiedad de Faraón. 21 En cuanto a la gente, él los hizo esclavos de un extremo de la frontera de Egipto hasta el otro. 22 Fue solo la tierra de los sacerdotes la que José no compró, porque los sacerdotes recibían una ración. Ellos comían de la parte que Faraón les daba. Por lo tanto, ellos no vendieron su tierra. 23 Entonces José le dijo a la gente: "Miren, los he comprado a ustedes y a su tierra hoy para Faraón. Ahora aquí hay semilla para ustedes, y ustedes sembrarán la tierra. 24 En la cosecha, ustedes deben darle una quinta parte a Faraón, y cuatro partes serán para ustedes, para la semilla del campo y para la comida de sus casas y sus niños." 25 Ellos dijeron: "Has salvado nuestras vidas. Que hallemos favor en tus ojos. Seremos siervos de Faraón." 26 Entonces José hizo un estatuto, el cual aún es efectivo en la tierra de Egipto hasta el día de hoy, que una quinta parte le pertenece a Faraón. Solo la tierra de los sacerdotes no llegó a ser de Faraón. 27 Así que Israel vivió en la tierra de Egipto, en la tierra de Gosén. Su pueblo adquirió posesiones allí. Ellos fueron fructíferos y se multiplicaron en gran manera. 28 Jacob vivió en la tierra de Egipto diecisiete años, así que los años de la vida de Jacob fueron ciento cuarenta y siete años. 29 Cuando el tiempo de morir se acercó a Israel, él llamó a su hijo José y le dijo: "Si ahora he encontrado favor en tu vista, pon tu mano debajo de mi muslo, y muéstrame fidelidad y confiabilidad. Por favor no me entierres en Egipto. 30 Cuando yo duerma con mis padres, me llevarás fuera de Egipto y me enterrarás en la tumba de mis ancestros." José dijo: "Haré como has dicho." 31 Israel dijo: "Júramelo," y José se lo juró. Entonces Israel se inclinó en el cabezal de su cama.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 47:1

Él tomó a cinco de sus hermanos
La UDB reordena el evento con Faraón cronológicamente, mientras que la ULB enumera los eventos como el autor lo escribió.

Genesis 47:3

Tus sirvientes son pastores
"Tus siervos son pastores de rebaños"

Tus sirvientes
"Tus siervos pastorean los rebaños" Los hermanos de José se refieren a sí mismos como "tus siervos". Esta es una manera formal de hablarle a alguien con más autoridad. Esto se puede afirmar en primera persona. TA: "Nosotros, tus sirvientes" o "Nosotros"

como sus ancestros
"tanto nosotros como nuestros antepasados" o "tanto nosotros como nuestros antepasados"

Venimos como residentes temporales en la tierra
"Hemos venido a quedarnos un tiempo en Egipto"

No hay pastos
"No hay hierba para comer"

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Genesis 47:5

La tierra de Egipto está ante ti.
"La tierra de Egipto está abierta para ti" o "Toda la tierra de Egipto está disponible para ti"

Coloca a tu padre y a tus hermanos en la mejor región, la tierra de Gosén
"Coloca a tu padre ya tus hermanos en la tierra de Gosén, que es la mejor región"

Si conoces de algún hombre capaz entre ellos
Implica que son capaces de cuidar a los animales. TA: "Si conoces a algún hombre entre ellos que tenga una gran habilidad en el cuidado de los animales"

Genesis 47:7

Jacob bendijo al Faraón.
Aquí "bendijo" significa expresar un deseo de que cosas positivas y beneficiosas le sucedan a esa persona.

¿Cuánto tiempo has vivido?
"¿Cuantos años tienes?"

Los años de mis viajes son unos ciento treinta.
La frase "años de mis viajes" se refiere a cuánto tiempo ha vivido en la tierra viajando de un lugar a otro. TA: "He viajado por la tierra durante 130 años"

Los años de mi vida han sido pocos ... No han sido tan largos como esos de mis ancestros Jacob da a entender que su vida es corta en comparación con las vidas de Abraham e Isaac.

y dolorosos
Jacob ha experimentado mucho dolor y problemas durante su vida.

Genesis 47:11

Entonces José asentó a su padre y a sus hermanos
"Entonces José cuidó a su padre y sus hermanos y los ayudó a establecer dónde vivirían"

la tierra de Ramsés Este es otro nombre para la tierra de Gosén.

de acuerdo al número de sus descendientes.
Aquí, la palabra "dependientes" significa los niños pequeños en la familia. TA: "según la cantidad de niños pequeños en sus familias"

Genesis 47:13

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una ruptura en la historia principal. Aquí el autor comienza a contar una nueva parte de la historia.

La tierra de Egipto y la tierra de Canaán Esto se refiere a las personas que viven en estas tierras. TA: "El pueblo de Egipto y el pueblo de Canaán"

se dañó
"se hizo delgado y débil"

José recogió todo el dinero que había en la tierra de Egipto y en la tierra de Canaán, al venderle grano a los habitantes.
"Los pueblos de Egipto y Canaán gastaron todo su dinero comprando granos de José"

José recogió ... José trajo
Lo más probable es que José ordenó a sus sirvientes que se reunieran y trajeran el dinero.

Genesis 47:15

Cuando todo el dinero de la tierra de egipto y Canaán se gastó Aquí "tierras" significa las personas que viven en las tierras. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Cuando la gente de Egipto y Canaán gastaron todo su dinero"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

de la tierra de egipto y Canaán
"de la tierra de Egipto y de la tierra de Canaán"

¿Por qué deberíamos morir en tu presencia porque nuestro dinero se acabo?
La gente usó una pregunta para enfatizar cuán desesperados están por comprar comida. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Por favor, ¡no nos dejes morir porque hemos agotado todo nuestro dinero!"

Él los alimentó con pa
Aquí "pan" significa comida en general. TA: "Les dio comida"

Genesis 47:18

ellos fueron a él
"La gente vino a José"

No ocultaremos de mi señor
La gente se refiere a José como "mi señor". Esta es una manera formal de hablar con alguien de mayor autoridad. Se puede afirmar en segunda persona. TA: "Nosotros no esconderemos de ti, nuestro señor" o "Nosotros no esconderemos de ti"

No queda nada a la vista de mi señor
Aquí "la vista" significa el mismo José. TA: "No tenemos nada más que darte, nuestro señor"

¿Por qué habríamos de morir ante tus ojos, nosotros y nuestra tierra?
La palabra "ojos" se refiere a la vista de José. La gente usa una pregunta para enfatizar cuán desesperados están por comprar comida. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Por favor, no solo vean como morimos y nuestra tierra está arruinada!"

Por qué habríamos de morir... nosotros y nuestra tierra
La tierra se vuelve inútil y arruinada porque no hay semilla para sembrar; así se habla de como si la tierra muriera.

Genesis 47:20

De esta manera, la tierra se volvió propiedad de Faraón
"Así se convirtió la tierra del faraón".

Fue solo la tierra de los sacerdotes la que José no compró
"Pero él no compró la tierra de los sacerdotes"

los sacerdotes ya recibían una ración de comida
Una "ración" o "subsidio" es una cantidad de dinero o comida que alguien da regularmente a otra persona. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El Faraón le dio a los sacerdotes una cierta cantidad de comida cada día"

Ellos comían de la parte que el Faraón les daba.
"Ellos comieron de lo que el Faraón les dio"

Genesis 47:23

y sembrarán
"para que puedas sembrar"

En la cosecha, ustedes deben darle una quinta parte al Faraón, y cuatro partes serán para ustedes La palabra "quinta" es una fracción. TA: "En el momento de la cosecha, dividirá los cultivos en cinco partes. Le devolverá una parte al Faraón para que la pague y las cuatro partes son para la suya propia" (Ver:

para la comida de sus casas y sus niños Puede indicar claramente la información entendida. TA: "para alimentos para sus hogares y para alimentos para sus hijos"

Genesis 47:25

Esperamos poder encontrar favor en tus ojos Aquí "ojos" significa pensamientos u opiniones. TA: "Puede estar contento con nosotros"

encontrar favor
Esto significa que alguien es aprobado por alguien más.

en la tierra de Egipto
"sobre la tierra de Egipto" o "en toda la tierra de Egipto"

Hasta hoy
Esto significa el tiempo que el autor estaba escribiendo esto.

una quinta
Se traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste "una quinta" en el 47:23.

Genesis 47:27

Ellos fueron fructíferos y se multiplicaron en gran manera.
La palabra "multiplicaron" explica cómo fueron "fructíferos". TA: "Tenían muchos hijos"

Ellos fueron fructíferos
Aquí "fructíferos" significa prosperar o tener hijos.

diecisiete años
"17 años"

pues los años de la vida de Jacob fueron ciento cuarenta y siete años.
"por lo que Jacob vivió hasta los 147 años"

Genesis 47:29

Cuando el tiempo de morir se acercó a Israel
Esto habla del tiempo como si viajara y llegara a un lugar. TA: "Cuando casi era hora de que Israel muriera"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Si ahora he encontrado favor en tu vista
Aquí "vista" significa pensamientos u opiniones. TA: "Si he encontrado favor contigo" o "Si te he complacido" (UDB)

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Encontrado favor
Esto significa que alguien es aprobado por alguien más.

pon tu mano bajo mi muslo
Este acto es un signo de hacer una promesa seria. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 24:1.

muéstrame lealtad y confianza
Los sustantivos abstractos "lealtad" y "confianza" pueden traducirse como adjetivos. TA: "trátenme de manera fiel y confiable"

Por favor no me entierres en Egipto
La palabra "por favor" agrega énfasis a esta solicitud.

Cuando yo duerma con mis padres Aquí "dormir" es una forma educada de referirse a morir. TA: "Cuando muero y me uno a los miembros de mi familia que murieron antes que yo"

Jurámelo
"Prométeme" o "Hazme un juramento"

Se lo juró
"Le prometió" o "le hizo un juramento"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 48

1 Aconteció después de estas cosas, que alguien le dijo a José: ''Mire, su padre está enfermo.'' Así que él tomó a sus dos hijos con él, Manasés y Efraín. 2 Cuando se le dijo a Jacob: ''Mire, su hijo José ha venido a verlo,'' Israel reunió fuerzas y se sentó en la cama. 3 Jacob le dijo a José: ''Dios Todopoderoso se me apareció en Luz en la tierra de Canaán. Él me bendijo 4 y me dijo: 'Mira, Yo te haré fructífero, y te multiplicaré. Yo haré de ti una multitud de naciones. Yo le daré esta tierra a tus descendientes como posesión eterna.' 5 Ahora tus dos hijos, quienes te nacieron en la tierra de Egipto antes de que yo viniera a ti en Egipto, ellos son míos. Efraín y Manasés serán míos, asi como Rubén y Simeón son míos. 6 Los hijos que tengas despúes de ellos serán tuyos; ellos serán puestos bajos los nombres de sus hermanos para su heredad. 7 Pero en cuanto a mí, cuando vine de Padán, para mi dolor Raquel murió en la tierra de Canaán en el camino, cuando todavía había alguna distancia para llegar a Efrata. Yo la enterré allí en el camino a Efrata" (esto es, Belén). 8 Cuando Israel vio los hijos de José, él dijo: ''¿De quién son estos?" 9 José le dijo a su padre: ''Ellos son mis hijos, quienes Dios me ha dado aquí. '' Israel dijo: ''Tráelos a mí, para yo bendecirles.'' 10 Ahora los ojos de Israel estaban fallando por su edad, de manera que él no podía ver. Así que José los acercó a él, y él los besó y los abrazó. 11 Israel le dijo a José: ''Yo nunca esperaba ver tu rostro otra vez, pero Dios hasta me ha permitido ver a tus hijos.'' 12 José los tomó a ellos de entre las rodillas de Israel, y él se inclinó con su rostro en tierra. 13 José los tomó a ambos, Efraín en su mano derecha hacia la mano izquierda de Israel, y Manasés en su mano izquierda hacia la mano derecha de Israel, y los llevó cerca de él. 14 Israel alcanzó con su mano derecha y la puso sobre la cabeza de Efraín, quien era el más joven, y su mano izquierda sobre la cabeza de Manasés. Él cruzó sus manos, porque Manasés era el primogénito. 15 Israel bendijo a José diciendo: ''El Dios delante de Quien mis padres Abraham e Isaac caminaron, el Dios que ha tenido cuidado de mí hasta el día de hoy, 16 el ángel quien me ha protegido de todo daño, que Él bendiga a estos muchachos. Que mi nombre sea nombrado en ellos, y el nombre de mis padres Abraham e Isaac. Que ellos puedan crecer a ser una multitud en la tierra.'' 17 Cuando José vio que su padre puso su mano derecha sobre la cabeza de Efraín, le desagradó. Él tomó la mano de su padre para moverla de la cabeza de Efraín a la cabeza de Manasés. 18 José le dijo a su padre: ''No así, mi padre; porque este es el primogénito. Pon tu mano derecha sobre su cabeza.'' 19 Su padre rehusó y dijo: ''Yo lo sé, mi hijo, lo sé. Él también llegará a ser un pueblo, y él también será grande. Sin embargo, su hermano menor será más grande que él, y sus descendientes serán una multitud de naciones.'' 20 Israel los bendijo a ellos ese día con estas palabras: ''El pueblo de Israel pronunciará bendiciones por los nombres de ustedes diciendo: 'Que Dios te haga como a Efraín y como a Manasés.'" De esta manera, Israel puso a Efraín antes de Manasés. 21 Israel le dijo a José: ''Mira, yo estoy a punto de morir, pero Dios estará con ustedes, y los traerá de vuelta a la tierra de sus padres. 22 A ti, como a uno que está sobre sus hermanos, yo te doy la ladera de la montaña que tomé de los amorreos con mi espada y mi arco.''

Genesis 48:1

Surgió
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia.

uno le dijo a José
"alguien le dijo a jose"

Mira, tu padre
"Escucha, tu padre". Aquí la palabra "mira" se usa para llamar la atención de José.

Él tomó
"Así tomó José"

Cuando se le dijo a Jacob Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Cuando alguien le dijo a Jacob"

tu hijo José ha venido a verte
"tu hijo Jose ha venido a ti"

Israel reunió fuerzas y se sentó en su cama.
Aquí el autor habla de Israel luchando para sentarse en la cama como si estuviera reuniendo "fuerza" como alguien reúne cosas reales. TA: "Israel hizo un gran esfuerzo para sentarse en la cama" o "Israel luchó mientras se sentaba en la cama"

Genesis 48:3

Luz
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea cómo se tradujo el nombre de esta ciudad en el 28:18.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en la tierra de Canaán. Él me bendijo y me dijo Esto se puede traducir con la nueva oración comenzando en un lugar diferente. TA: "en la tierra de Canaán, y él me bendijo. Y él me dijo"

Bendijo
Esto se refiere a Dios pronunciando una bendición formal en alguien.

y me dijo: 'Mirad, Yo te haré fructífero, y te multiplicaré. Yo hare de ti una multitud de naciones. Yo le daré esta tierra a tus descendientes como posesión eterna.'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "y me dijo que me haría fructificar y multiplicar. Y dijo que me haría una multitud de naciones y que le daría esta tierra a mis descendientes como una posesión eterna".

Mirad
Dios usó la palabra "Mirad" para alertar a Jacob de que prestara atención a lo que estaba a punto de decirle.

Yo te haré fructífero, y te multiplicaré
La frase "multiplícate" explica cómo Dios haría a Jacob "fructífero". TA: "Te daré muchos descendientes"

Yo hare de tí una multitud de naciones.
Se refiere a Jacob, pero representa a los descendientes de Jacob. TA: "Haré de tus descendientes en muchas naciones"

como posesión eterna
"una posesión permanente"

Genesis 48:5

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Efraín y Manasés serán míos Efraín y Manasés recibirán una porción de tierra al igual que los hermanos de José.

ellos serán puestos bajos los nombres de sus hermanos para su heredad.
Los posibles significados son 1) el resto de los hijos de José heredarían la tierra como parte de las tribus de Efraín y Manasés o 2) José recibirá tierras separadas de Efraín y Manasés y los otros hijos de José heredarán esa tierra. TA: "en cuanto a su herencia, los enumerarás bajo los nombres de sus hermanos"

Efrata
Este es otro nombre para la ciudad de Belén. Vea cómo se tradujo el nombre de esta ciudad en el 35:16.

(Esto es Belén)
El autor está dando información de fondo.

Genesis 48:8

¿Quiénes son ellos?
"¿De quién son estos hijos?"

Bendecirles
Un padre solía pronunciar una bendición formal sobre sus hijos o nietos.

Ahora los ojos de Israel ... no podía ver
La palabra "Ahora" se usa aquí para marcar un cambio de la historia a la información de fondo sobre Israel.

él los beso
"Israel los besó"

Genesis 48:11

ver tu rostro otra vez Aquí "rostro" significa la persona entera. TA: "verte de nuevo"

entre las rodillas de Israel
Cuando José colocó a sus hijos en el regazo o las rodillas de Israel, fue una señal de que Israel los estaba adoptando. Esto le dio a los niños derechos especiales de la herencia de Jacob.

él se inclinó con su rostro en tierra.
José se inclinó para mostrar honor a su padre.

Manasés a su izquierda a la mano derecha de Israel
José coloca a los niños para que Israel ponga su mano derecha sobre Manasés. Manasés era el hermano mayor y la mano derecha era la señal de que recibiría la mayor bendición.

Genesis 48:14

su mano derecha y la puso sobre la cabeza de Efraín
Poner la mano derecha sobre la cabeza de Efraín era la señal de que recibiría la mayor bendición.

Israel bendijo a José
Aquí "José" también significa Efraín y Manasés. Como José es el padre, él es el único que se menciona aquí.

El Dios quien estuvo caminando con mis padres Abraham y Isaac Se habla de servir a Dios como si estuviera caminando delante de Dios. TA: "El Dios a quien mi abuelo Abraham y mi padre Isaac sirvieron"

que ha tenido cuidado de mí Dios ha cuidado a Israel como un pastor cuida a sus ovejas. TA: "quien se ha preocupado por mí como un pastor cuida de sus animales"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el ángel Los posibles significados son 1) esto se refiere al ángel que Dios envió para proteger a Jacob o 2) esto se refiere a Dios que apareció en forma de ángel para proteger a Jacob.

me ha protegido
"me entregó"

Que mi nombre sea nombrado en ellos , y el nombre de mis padres Abraham e Isaac.
Aquí "nombre" significa la persona. La frase "mi nombre se nombre en ellos" es una expresión idiomática, significa que una persona es recordada debido a otra persona. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Que la gente recuerde a Abraham, Isaac y a mí a causa de Efraín y Manasés"

Que ellos puedan crecer en multitud en la tierra.
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a Efraín y Manasés, pero representa a sus descendientes. TA: "Que tengan muchos descendientes que vivirán en toda la tierra"

Genesis 48:17

Pon tu mano derecha sobre su cabeza.
La mano derecha era el signo de la mayor bendición que se suponía que debía recibir el hijo mayor.)

Genesis 48:19

Él también se volverá en un pueblo, y él además será importante.
Aquí "Él" se refiere a Manasés, pero representa a sus descendientes. TA: "Tu hijo mayor tendrá muchos descendientes y se convertirán en un gran pueblo"

ese día con estas palabras Aquí las "palabras" representan lo que se dice. TA: "ese día, diciendo"

La gente de Israel pronunciará bendiciones por sus nombres diciendo
"El pueblo de Israel pronunciará sus nombres cuando bendicen a otros"

por sus nombres diciendo: 'Que Dios te haga como a Efraín y como a Manasés' Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "por sus nombres. Le pedirán a Dios que haga a otros como Efraín y como Manasés"

como a Efraín y como a Manasés
Al decir Israel el nombre de Efraín primero es otra forma en la que indica que Efraín será mayor que Manasés.

Israel puso a Efraín antes de Manasés
Darle a Efraín la mayor bendición y hacerlo más importante que Manasés es como si Israel pusiera físicamente a Efraín frente a Manasés.

Genesis 48:21

va a estar contigo ... los traerá de vuelta ... tus padres Se refieren a todo el pueblo de Israel.

va a estar contigo
Este es una expresión idiomática que significa que Dios ayudará y bendecirá al pueblo de Israel. TA: "Dios te ayudará" o "Dios te bendecirá"

los traerá de vuelta
Aquí "traer" se puede traducir como "tomar".

tierra de tus padres
"tierra de tus antepasados"

A ti, como alguien que está sobre sus hermanos, yo te doy la colina de la montaña Los posibles significados son 1) Se dice que José tiene más honor y autoridad que sus hermanos como si estuviera físicamente por encima de ellos. TA: "Para ti, que eres más grande que tus hermanos, doy la ladera de la montaña" o 2) Jacob significa que le está dando más tierra a José que lo que le está dando a los hermanos de José. TA: "A ti, te doy una cresta más de la que le doy a tus hermanos. Te doy la ladera de la montaña"

A ti
Se refiere a José.

la colina de la montaña que tomé de los Amorreos con mi espada y mi arco.
Aquí "espada" y "arco" significan luchar en la batalla. TA: "la porción de tierra por la que luché y tomé de los amorreos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 49

1 Entonces Jacob llamó a sus hijos, y dijo: "Júntense, y les diré lo que les pasará a ustedes en el futuro. 2 Reunánse y escuchen, hijos de Jacob. Escuchen a Israel, su padre. 3 Rubén, tú eres mi primogénito, mi poder, y el principio de mi fuerza, sobresaliente en dignidad, y sobresaliente en poder. 4 Incontrolable como una corriente de agua que corre, no tendrás la preeminencia, porque subiste a la cama de tu padre. Entonces la profanaste; tú fuiste hasta mi cama. 5 Simeón y Leví son hermanos. Armas de violencia son sus espadas. 6 Oh mi alma, no entre a su consejo; no te unas a sus reuniones, porque mi corazón tiene demasiado honor para eso. Porque en su enojo, ellos mataron hombres. Fue por placer que mutilaron bueyes. 7 Que su ira sea maldita, porque era feroz y su furia, porque era cruel. Yo los dividiré en Jacob y los regaré por Israel. 8 Judá, tus hermanos te alabarán. Tu mano estará en el cuello de tus enemigos. Los hijos de tu padre se inclinarán ante ti. 9 Judá es un cachorro de león. Mi hijo, has subido desde tus víctimas. Él se encorvó, se agachó como un león, como una leona. ¿Quién se atrevería a despertarlo? 10 El cetro no se apartará de Judá, ni el bastón de líder saldrá de entre sus pies, hasta que venga Siloh. Las naciones le obedecerán. 11 Amarrando su burro a la vid, y el potro de burro a la vid escogida, él ha lavado sus ropas en vino, y su capa en la sangre de las uvas. 12 Sus ojos serán tan oscuros como el vino, y sus dientes tan blancos como la leche. 13 Zabulón vivirá a las orillas del mar. Él será un puerto para barcos, y su frontera se extenderá hasta Sidón. 14 Isacar es un burro fuerte, acostándose entre los apriscos. 15 Él ve un buen lugar de descanso y la tierra placentera. Él doblará su hombro a la carga y se volverá en sirviente para la tarea. 16 Dan juzgará a su pueblo como una de las tribus de Israel. 17 Dan será una serpiente junto al camino, una serpiente venenosa en el camino que muerde las patas del caballo, para que su jinete se caiga hacia atrás. 18 Yo espero por tu salvación, SEÑOR. 19 Gad, jinetes lo atacarán, pero él los atacará a ellos en sus talones. 20 La comida de Aser será rica, y él proveerá delicias reales. 21 Neftalí es una cierva suelto, él tendrá hermosos cervatillos. 22 José es una rama llena de frutas, una rama fructífera cerca de un manantial, cuyas ramas suben por encima de la pared. 23 Los arqueros lo atacarán y le dispararán y lo acosarán. 24 Pero su arco se mantendrá firme, y sus manos serán diestras debido a las manos del Poderoso de Jacob, debido al nombre del Pastor, la Roca de Israel. 25 El Dios de tu padre te ayudará, y el Dios Todopoderoso te bendecirá con bendiciones del cielo arriba, bendiciones de la profundidad que está abajo, y bendiciones de los pechos y el vientre. 26 Las bendiciones de tu padre son más grandes que las bendiciones de las antiguas montañas o las cosas deseables de las antiguas colinas. Que ellas estén sobre la cabeza de José, incluso sobre la corona de la cabeza del príncipe de sus hermanos. 27 Benjamín es un lobo hambriento. En la mañana devorará la presa, y en la tarde dividirá el botín. 28 Estas son las doce tribus de Israel. Esto es lo que su padre les dijo cuando les bendijo. A cada uno bendijo con una bendición apropiada. 29 Entonces los instruyó y les dijo: "Estoy pronto a irme con mi pueblo. Entiérrenme con mis antepasados en la cueva que está en el campo de Efrón el hitita, 30 en la cueva que está en el campo de Macpela, la cual está cerca de Mamre en la tierra de Canaán, el campo que Abraham le compró a Efrón el hitita para ser lugar de sepultura. 31 Allí enterraron a Abraham y a Sara, su esposa; allí enterraron a Isaac y a Rebeca, su esposa; y allí yo enterré a Lea. 32 El campo y la cueva que está en él fueron comprados de la gente de Het." 33 Cuando Jacob terminó de darle estas instrucciones a sus hijos, él haló sus pies sobre la cama, respiró su último aliento, y se fue con su pueblo.

Genesis 49:1

Información general
Esto es el inicio de las bendiciones finales de Jacob a sus hijos. Esto continúa hasta el 49:27. La bendiciones de Jacob son escritas en forma poética.

Reúnanse y escuchen, hijos de Jacob. Escuchen a Israel, su padre.
Ambas oraciones dicen lo mismo para dar éfasis. TA: "Vengan y escuchen cuidadosamente a su padre"

Ustedes hijos de Jacob. Escuchen a Israel, su padre.
Jacob se está refiriendo a sí mismo en tercera persona. Esto puede afirmarse en primera persona. TA: "Hijos míos. Escuchenme a mi, su padre"

Genesis 49:3

Mi primogénito, mi poder y el principio de mi fuerza
Las frases "mi primogenito, mi poder" y "el inicio de mi fuerza" significan lo mismo. Las palabras "poder" y "fuerza" representa la capacidad de Jacob para producir niños. Las palabras "primogénito" e "principio" significan que Ruben es su primer hijo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

TA: "mi primer hijo antes de convertirme en hombre"

Sobresaliente en dignidad, y sobresaliente en poder
Esto puede como una eclararse como una nueva oracion. TA: "Eres el principal en honor y poder" o "Usted supera a todos los demas en honor y poder"

Incontrolable como una corriente de agua
Jacob compara a Rubén con agua en una corriente fuerte para enfatizar que el no puede controlar su ira y que no es estable.

No tendrás la preminencia
"No serás el primero entre tus hermanos"

porque subiste a la cama de tu padre. Entonces la profanaste; tú fuiste hasta mi cama Aquí "cama" y "sofá" representan la concubina de Jacob, Bilhah. Jacob se refiere a cuando Rubén se acostó con Bila

Porque subiste a la cama de tu padre... hasta mi cama
Ambas afirmaciones significan lo mismo.

Genesis 49:5

Simeon y Levi son hermanos
Esto no solo significa que son hermanos de nacimiento. Jacob está enfatizando que trabajaron juntos para matar a la gente de Siquem.

Armas de violencia son sus espadas
"Usan sus espadas para herir y matar personas"

Ay de mi alma... mi corazón
Jacob usa las palabras "alma" y "corazón" para referirse a sí mismo y está diciendo que otras personas, y quizás Dios también, lo honran tanto que no desea unirse a aquellos que hacen planes para hacer el mal.

No vayan por sus consejo; no se junten en sus reuniones Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Jacob los combina para enfatizar que él no quiere participar en sus planes malvados. TA: "Ciertamente no me uniré a ellos para hacer planes"

sacrificaron bueyes
Esto se refiere a que Simeon y Levi paralizaban a los bueyes por diversión

sacrificaron
Esto se refiere a cortar los tendones de la pierna de un animal para que no pueda caminar.

Genesis 49:7

Que su ira sea maldita, porque era feroz y su furia, porque era cruel Dios maldiciendo a Simeón y Levi se habla como si Dios estuviera maldiciendo su ira y furia. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El Señor dice: 'Los maldeciré por su enojo feroz y su furia cruel" o "Yo, el Señor, los maldeciré por su enojo feroz y su furia cruel"

Que su ira sea maldita
En la profecía, el profeta a menudo pronunciará las palabras de Dios como si Dios mismo estuviera hablando. Esto enfatiza cuán estrechamente unidos están el profeta y Dios.

Y su furia, porque era cruel.
Las palabras "maldeciré" son entendidas. TA:" y yo maldeciré su furia, porque fue cruel"

Yo los dividiré en Jacob y los dispersaré en Israel
La palabra "Yo" se refiere a Dios. La palabra "ellos" se refiere a Simeon y Levi, pero son una metonimia que representa a sus descendientes. Las palabras "Jacob" e "Israel" son una metonimia que representa a todas las personas de Israel. TA: "Dividiré a sus descendientes y los dispersaré entre todos los pueblos de Israel"

Genesis 49:8

Tus hermanos te alabarán ... Los hijos de tu padre se inclinarán ante ti.
Estas dos afirmaciones significan lo mismo.

Te alabarán. Tu mano
La segunda oración establece el motivo de la primera oración. La palabra "para" o "porque" se puede agregar para aclarar esto. TA: "Te alabarán. Por tu mano" o "Te alabarán porque tu mano"

Tu mano estará en el cuello de tus enemigos.
Esta es una forma de decir "Vencerás a tus enemigos".

inclinarán
Esto significa inclinarse para expresar humildemente respeto y honor hacia alguien.

Genesis 49:9

Judá es un cachorro de león
Jacob habla de Judá como si fuera un cachorro de león. Jacob está enfatizando la fuerza de Judá. TA: "Judá es como un león joven"

Hijo mío, has subido sobre tus victimas
"Tú, hijo mío, has vuelto de devorar tu presa"

Como una leona
Jacob también compara a Judá con una león hembra. La leona es la principal cazadora y protectora de sus cachorros.

¿Quién se atrevería a despertarlo?
Jacob usa una pregunta para enfatizar cuán aterrador es Judá para otras personas. TA "Nadie quiere despertarlo".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 49:10

El cetro no se apartará de Judá, ni el bastón de líder de entre sus pies.
El "cetro" y el "bastón" son palos largos decorados que los reyes llevaban. Aquí están las metonimias que representan el poder de gobernar. Y, "Judá" representa a sus descendientes. TA: "El poder de gobernar siempre estará con los descendientes de Judá"

Hasta que venga Siloh. Las naciones le obedecerán Los posibles significados son 1) "Siloh" significa "tributo". TA: "hasta que las naciones le obedezcan y le traigan tributo" o 2) "Siloh" se refiere a la ciudad de Siloh. TA: "hasta que el gobernante venga a Siloh. Entonces las naciones lo obedecerán". Mucha gente considera esto como una profecía sobre el Mesías que es descendiente del rey David. David es un descendiente de Judá.

Las naciones le obedecerán
Aquí las "naciones" se refieren a la gente. TA: "El pueblo de las naciones lo obedecerá"

Genesis 49:11

Amarrando su burro ... a la viña elegida.
Ambas afirmaciones significan lo mismo. Se implica que las viñas están tan llenas de uvas que al maestro no le importa que su burro se coma algunas de ellas.

Su... Él
Los posibles significados para todas las ocurrencias de "su" o "él" son 1) se refieren a los descendientes de Judá. TA: "sus ... ellos" o 2) se refieren al gobernante en 49:10, que puede referirse al Mesías.

ha lavado ... en la sangre de las uvas Ambas afirmaciones significan lo mismo. Esto implica que hay tantas uvas que pueden lavar su ropa en el jugo.

ha lavado
A menudo en la profecía, los eventos que sucederán en el futuro se describen como algo que ya sucedió en el pasado. Esto enfatiza que este evento seguramente sucederá. TA: "ellos lavarán" o "él lavará"

La sangre de la uvas Esto habla del jugo de uva como si fuera sangre. Esto enfatiza qué tan rojo es el jugo.

Sus ojos serán tan oscuros como el vino.
Esto se refiere al color de los ojos de una persona al color rojo del vino. Los posibles significados son 1) los ojos oscuros implican ojos sanos o 2) los ojos de las personas estarán enrojecidos por beber demasiado vino.

Sus dientes tan blancos como la leche
Esto compara el color de los dientes de la persona con el color blanco de la leche. Esto implica que habrá tantas vacas sanas que tendrán mucha leche para beber.

Genesis 49:13

Zabulón vivirá
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Zabulón.

Él sera un puerto
Aquí, "Él" representa las ciudades marinas que habitarán o construirán las personas de Zabulón. Estas ciudades proporcionarán refugio para los barcos.

Puerto
Una parte del mar que está cerca de la tierra y es un lugar seguro para los barcos.

Genesis 49:14

Isacar es un burro fuerte
Jacob habla de Isacar y sus descendientes como si fueran un asno. Esto enfatiza que trabajarán muy duro. TA: "Los descendientes de Isacar serán como un asno fuerte"

Isacar es
A menudo en la profecía, los eventos que sucederán en el futuro se describen como algo que ya está sucediendo. Esto enfatiza que el evento seguramente ocurrirá. Se puede afirmar en tiempo futuro. TA: "Isacar será" o "Los descendientes de Isacar serán"

Isacar ... Él ve ... Él
Aquí "Isacar" es una metonimia que representa a sus descendientes. TA: "Los descendientes de Isacar ... Ellos ven ... Ellos lo harán"

Acostándose entre los apriscos
Los posibles significados son 1) "acostado entre los paquetes que llevaban" o 2) "acostado entre dos corrales de ovejas". De cualquier manera, Jacob habla de los descendientes de Isacar como si fueran burros que han trabajado duro y están acostados para descansar.

Un buen lugar de descanso y la tierra placentera.
"Un lugar de descanso que es bueno y que la tierra es agradable".

Él doblará su hombro a la carga
La frase "doblar su hombro a la carga" es una forma de decir "trabaja muy duro para llevar la carga"

se volverá un sirviente a la labor
"Trabajará para otros como esclavos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Genesis 49:16

Dan juzgará a su gente
Aquí "Dan" representa a sus descendientes. TA: "Los descendientes de Dan juzgarán a su pueblo"

Su gente
Los posibles significados para "su pueblo" son 1) "los descendientes de Dan" o 2) "el pueblo de Israel"

Dan será una serpiente al lado del camino.
Jacob habla de Dan y sus descendientes como si fueran serpientes. Aunque una serpiente es pequeña, puede derribar a un jinete de su caballo. Así que Dan, aunque es una pequeña tribu, es muy peligroso para sus enemigos. TA: "Los descendientes de Dan serán como una serpiente al lado del camino"

Espero tu salvación, SEÑOR.
El sustantivo abstracto "salvación" se puede traducir como "salvar". TA: "Te espero, Yahweh, para salvarme"

Yo espero
La palabra "Yo" se refiere a Jacob

Genesis 49:19

Gad... Aser... Neftalí
Estos se refiere a los descendientes de cada hombre.

En sus tobillos
Aquí "tobillos" significa los asaltantes que huyen de los descendientes de Gad.

será rica
Aquí "rica" es una forma de decir "deliciosa".

Neftalí es un ciervo suelto
Jacob habla de los descendientes de Neftalí como si fueran un ciervo hembra que es libre de correr. Esto puede enfatizar que serán mensajeros rápidos. TA: "Los descendientes de Neftalí serán como ciervos liberados"

Tendrá hermosos cervatillos
Un "cervatillo" es un venado bebé. El significado de la palabra hebrea no está claro. Algunas versiones lo traducen como "tienen palabras bonitas" o "hablan cosas hermosas"

Genesis 49:22

José es una rama llena de frutas
Aquí "José" es una metonimia que representa a sus descendientes. Jacob habla de ellos como si fueran una rama de árbol que produce mucha fruta. Esto enfatiza que aumentarán enormemente en número.

Rama
Una rama principal de un arbol

Cuyas ramas suben por la pared
Se habla de las ramas que crecen y se extienden sobre una pared como si estuvieran escalando.

Genesis 49:24

Información general
Jacob contnúa bendiciendo a José y sus descendientes

Su arco se mantendrá firme
Se habla de la persona que sostiene el arco como si el arco se mantuviera estable. Se da a entender que lo mantiene firme mientras apunta a su enemigo. TA: "mantendrá su arco firme mientras apunta a su enemigo"

Su arco... sus manos
Aquí "su" se refiere a José que representa a sus descendientes. TA: "su arco ... las manos de ellos"

Sus manos serán hábiles
Aquí, "manos" significa los brazos de la persona mientras mantiene firme su arco. TA: "sus brazos se mantendrán fuertes mientras apunta su arco"

Las manos del Poderoso.
Las "manos" están expresando el poder de Yahweh TA: "El poder del Poderoso"

Por el nombre del pastor
Aquí "nombre" se refiere a toda la persona. TA: "por el pastor"

El pastor
Jacob habla del SEÑOR como si el fuese un "pastor". Este énfatiza que el SEÑOR guía y protege a su pueblo.

La piedra
Jacob habla del SEÑOR como si fuera una "piedra" que la gente puede escalar para encontrar seguridad de los enemigos. Esto enfatiza que El SEÑOR protege a su pueblo.

Genesis 49:25

Información general
Jacob contnúa bendiciendo a José y sus descendientes. (Ver: 49:22)

Te ayudará... Te bendecirá
Aquí "te" se refiere a José quien representa a su descendencia. TA: "Ayudaré a tu descendencia ... los bendeciré"

Bendiciones del cielo
Aquí "cielo" significa la lluvia que ayuda a los cultivos a crecer.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Bendiciones de la profundidad que se encuentra abajo
Aquí, "profundidad" significa el agua debajo de la tierra que abastece a los ríos y pozos.

Bendiciones de los pechos y el vientre
Aquí "pechos y el vientre" representan la capacidad de una madre para tener hijos y alimentarlos con leche.

Genesis 49:26

Información general
Jacob contnúa bendiciendo a José y sus descendientes.

Las antigua montañas
El significado del idioma original no es seguro. Algunas traducciones de la Biblia tienen "mis ancestros" en lugar de "montañas antiguas".

Que ellas estén sobre la cabeza de José.
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a las bendiciones de su padre.

Sobre la corona de la cabeza del príncipe de sus hermanos
Jacob desea que estas bendiciones se transmitan incluso a los más importantes de sus descendientes. TA: "sobre la cabeza de los descendientes más importantes de José"

Principe de sus hermanos
"el más importante de sus hermanos"

Genesis 49:27

Benjamín es un lobo hambriento
Aquí "Benjamín" es una metonimia que representa a sus descendientes. Jacob habla de los descendientes de Benjamín como si fueran un lobo hambriento. Esto enfatiza que serán guerreros feroces. TA: "Los descendientes de Benjamín serán como lobos hambrientos"

Genesis 49:28

Estas son las doce tribus de Israel.
"Estas" se refiere a los hijos que Jacob mencionó en 49: 1-27. Cada hijo se convirtió en el líder de su propia tribu.

cuando les bendijo
Aquí la palabra "bendijo" se refiere al hablar de bendiciones formales.

A cada uno bendijo con una bendición apropiada
"Le dio a cada hijo una bendición apropiada"

los instruyó
"Él les ordenó"

Estoy pronto a irme con mi pueblo Esta es una forma educada de decir que está a punto de morir. TA: "Estoy a punto de morir"

irme con mi pueblo
Jacob se refiere a dónde irá su hombre interior cuando muera. Él espera unirse a Abraham e Isaac en la otra vida.

Efrón el hitita
Este es el nombre de un hombre. "Hitita o heteo" significa "descendiente de Het". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:7.

Macpela
Macpela era el nombre de un área o región. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:7.

Mamre
Este era otro nombre para la ciudad de Hebrón. Puede haber sido nombrado después de Mamre, el amigo de Abraham que vivió allí. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:16.

Genesis 49:31

Informacion general
Jacob sigue hablando a sus hijos.

En é fueron comprados
La compra puede hacerse explícita. TA: "en él fueron comprados por Abraham"

De los hititas
"de los hititas o heteos"

Terminó de darles estas instrucciones a sus hijos.
"terminó de instruir a sus hijos" o "terminó de ordenar a sus hijos"

Él haló sus pies sobre la cama
Jacob estaba sentado en la cama. Ahora, Jacob se da vuelta y pone sus pies en la cama para que pueda recostarse.

respiró su último aliento
Esta es una forma educada de decir que una persona murió.

Fue a su gente
Después de que Jacob murió, su hombre interior fue al mismo lugar que sus parientes que murieron antes que él.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 50

1 Entonces José estaba tan angustiado que colapsó sobre el rostro de su padre, y lloró sobre él y lo besó. 2 José ordenó a sus sirvientes los médicos que embalsamaran a su padre. Así que los médicos embalsamaron a Israel. 3 Ellos tomaron cuarenta días, que era el tiempo completo para embalsamar. Los egipcios lloraron por él setenta días. 4 Cuando los días de luto terminaron, José habló a la corte real de Faraón, diciendo: "Si ahora yo he encontrado favor ante sus ojos, por favor hablen a Faraón diciendo: 5 'Mi padre me hizo jurar diciendo: "Vean, estoy por morir. Entiérrenme en mi tumba que yo cavé para mí en la tierra de Canaán. Allí ustedes me enterrarán." Ahora, déjenme subir y enterrar a mi padre, y entonces yo regresaré.'" 6 Faraón contestó: "Ve y entierra a tu padre, así como te hizo jurar." 7 José subió para enterrar a su padre. Todos los oficiales de Faraón fueron con él, los cortesanos de su casa, todos los oficiales de la tierra de Egipto, 8 con toda la casa de José y sus hermanos, y la casa de su padre. Pero sus hijos, sus rebaños y sus manadas fueron dejados en la tierra de Gosén. 9 Carros y jinetes también fueron con él. Era un grupo muy grande de personas. 10 Cuando llegaron al suelo de trillar de Atad al otro lado del Jordán, ellos se lamentaron con grande y dolorosa tristeza. Allí José realizó un duelo de siete días por su padre. 11 Cuando los habitantes de la tierra, los cananeos, vieron el duelo en el suelo de Atad, ellos dijeron: ''Esta es una ocasión muy triste para los egipcios." Fue por esto que el lugar fue llamado Abel Mizraim, el cual está mas allá del Jordán. 12 Así que sus hijos hicieron por Jacob justo como él les instruyó. 13 Sus hijos lo cargaron a la tierra de Canaán y lo enterraron en la cueva en el campo de Macpela, cerca de Mamre. Abraham había comprado la cueva con el campo para lugar de entierro. Él lo había comprado de Efrón el hitita. 14 Después de haber enterrado a su padre, José regresó a Egipto, él, junto a sus hermanos y todos los que le acompañaron a enterrar a su padre. 15 Cuando los hermanos de José vieron que su padre había muerto, ellos dijeron: "¿Que tal si José guarda ira contra nosotros y quiere devolvernos por completo todo el mal que nosotros le hicimos?" 16 Así que ellos solicitaron la presencia de José, diciendo: "Tu padre dio instrucciones antes de morir diciendo: 17 'Díganle a José esto: "Por favor, perdona la transgresión de tus hermanos y su pecado con el que ellos te hicieron mal."' Ahora, por favor, perdona los siervos del Dios de tu padre." José lloró cuando ellos le hablaron. 18 Sus hermanos también fueron y se postraron frente a él. Ellos dijeron: "Mira, nosotros somos tus siervos." 19 Pero José les respondió: "No tengan miedo. ¿Estoy yo en el lugar de Dios? 20 En cuanto a ustedes, ustedes pretendieron hacerme daño, pero Dios lo usó para bien, para preservar las vidas de muchas personas, como pueden ver hoy. 21 Así que, ahora no tengan miedo. Yo proveeré para ustedes y para sus pequeños hijos." Él los confortó de esta manera y les habló amablemente a sus corazones. 22 José vivió en Egipto, junto con la familia de su padre. Él vivió ciento diez años. 23 José vio los hijos de Efraín hasta la tercera generación. Él también vio los hijos de Maquir, hijo de Manasés, quienes fueron puestos en las rodillas de José. 24 José dijo a sus hermanos: "Yo estoy cercano a morir; pero Dios seguramente vendrá a ustedes y les guiará fuera de esta tierra a la tierra que Él juró dar a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob." 25 Entonces José hizo que el pueblo de Israel jurara un juramento. Él dijo: "Seguramente Dios vendrá a ustedes. En ese tiempo ustedes deberán cargar mis huesos desde aquí." 26 Así que José murió, 110 años de edad. Ellos lo embalsamaron y fue puesto en un ataúd en Egipto.

Genesis 50:1

que colapsó en el rostro de su padre
El término "colapsó" es un modismo para ser superado. TA: "que cayó sobre su padre en pena"

Sus sirvientes los médicos
"Sus sirvientes que cuidaban los cadáveres".

Que embalsamaran a su padre
"Embalsamar" es una forma especial de preservar un cuerpo muerto antes de ser enterrado. TA: "para preparar el cuerpo de su padre para el entierro"

Ellos tomaron cuarenta días
Les tomó cuarenta días

Setenta días
"70 días"

Genesis 50:4

días del lloro
"días de luto" o "días de llanto por él"

José habló a la corte real del Faraón Aquí, "corte real" significa los funcionarios que conforman la corte real de Faraón. TA "José habló a los oficiales de Faraón"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Si ahora yo he encontrado favor ante sus ojos.
La frase "en sus ojos" es un metónimo que representa los pensamientos u opiniones de Jacob. TA: "Si he encontrado favor contigo" o "Si estás contento conmigo"

Encontrado favor
Este es un idioma que significa que alguien es aprobado por alguien más.

por favor hablen al Faraón diciendo: 'Mi padre me hizo jurar diciendo: "Vean, estoy por morir. Entiérenme en la tumba que yo cavé para mí en la tierra de Canaán. Allí entiérenme." Ahora, déjame subir y enterrar a mi padre, y entonces yo regresaré Esto tiene una cita de dos niveles y una cita de tres niveles. Estos pueden ser indicados como citas indirectas. TA: "por favor, dígale al Faraón que mi padre me hizo jurar que después de que muriera, lo enterraría en la tumba, que cavó para sí mismo en la tierra de Canaán. Pídale al Faraón que me deje ir a enterrar a mi padre, y luego regresaré"

Vean, estoy a punto de morir
"Mira, me estoy muriendo"

Déjame subir
Era común usar la frase "subir" cuando se habla de viajar de Egipto a Canaán.

Faraón contestó
Se da a entender que los miembros de la corte hablaron con el faraón, y ahora el faraón le responde a José.

Como te hizo jurar
"como le juraste"

Genesis 50:7

José subió
Era común usar la frase "subió" cuando se habla de viajar de Egipto a Canaán.

Todos los oficiales ... los cortesanos ... los oficiales
Todos los líderes más importantes de Faraón asistieron a la procesión del entierro.

Cortesanos
Esta persona era un consejero real.

Los cortesanos de su casa
Aquí "casa" se refiere a la corte real del faraón.

Tierra de Egipto, con toda la casa de José y sus hermanos, y la casa de su padre Esto se puede traducir como una nueva frase: "tierra de Egipto. La casa de José, sus hermanos y la casa de su padre también fueron con él"

La casa de José ... La casa del padre.
Aquí "casa" se refiere a sus familias.

Carruajes
Aquí esto representa a los hombres que viajan en los carruajes.

Era un grupo grande de personas.
"Fue una reunión muy grande"

Genesis 50:10

Cuando llegaron
La palabra "llegaron" se refiere a los participantes en la procesión del entierro.

suelo de trillar de Atad Los posibles significados son 1) la palabra "Atad" significa "espina" y puede referirse a un lugar donde crecieron grandes cantidades de espinas, o 2) puede ser el nombre de la persona que posee el campo

se lamentaron con gran tristeza y dolor
"Estaban extremadamente tristes y lloraban mucho".

Siete días
7 días

En el suelo de Atad
En el campo de trilla de Atad

Esta es una ocasión muy triste para los egipcios.
"El luto de los egipcios es muy grande"

Abel Mizraim
El traductor puede agregar una nota al pie que dice: "El nombre Abel Mizraim significa "el luto de Egipto "

Genesis 50:12

Así que sus hijos
"Así que los hijos de Jacob"

justo como él les instruyó
"tal como él los había dirigido"

Sus hijos lo cargaron
"Sus hijos tomaron su cuerpo"

Macpela
Macpela era el nombre de un área o región. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:7.

Mamre
Este era otro nombre para la ciudad de Hebrón. Puede haber sido nombrado después de Mamre, el amigo de Abraham que vivió allí. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:16.

Efrón el hitita
Este es el nombre de un hombre. "Hitita o heteo" significa "descendiente de Het". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:7.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

José regresó a Egipto
José vuelve a Egipto

Todos los que le acompañaron
"todos los que habían venido con él"

Genesis 50:15

¿Que tal si José guarda ira contra nosotros?
Aquí se habla de la ira como si fuera algo físico que José pudiera sostener en sus manos. TA: "¿Y si José está realmente enojado con nosotros?"

quiere devolvernos por completo todo el mal que nosotros le hicimos
Se habla de vengarse contra alguien que le hizo daño como si la persona le pagara a otra persona lo que se le debe. TA: "quiere venganza por la malda que le hicimos"

"Tu padre dió instrucciones antes de morir diciendo: 'Díganle a José esto: "Por favor, perdona la transgresión de tus hermanos y su pecado con el que ellos te hicieron mal."
Esto tiene una cita de dos niveles y una cita de tres noveles. Se pueden afirmar como citas indirectas. TA: "Tu padre nos instruyó antes de morir que te dijera que nos perdones por lo malvado que te hicimos"

y su pecado con el que ellos te hicieron mal.
"Por las cosas malas que te hicieron".

Ahora
Esto no significa "en este momento", pero se usa para llamar la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Por favor perdona a los siervos del Dios de tu padre.
Los hermanos se refieren a sí mismos como "los siervos del Dios de tu padres". Esto puede ser expresado en primera persona. TA: "por favor perdónanos, a nosotros los siervos del Dios de nuestro padre"

José lloró cuando ellos le hablaron.
"José lloró cuando escuchó este mensaje"

Genesis 50:18

se postraron frente a él
Se postraron con la cara hacia el suelo. Este es un signo de humildad y respeto por José.

¿Estoy yo en el lugar de Dios?
José usa una pregunta para consolar a sus hermanos. TA: "No estoy en el lugar de Dios" o "No soy Dios".

ustedes pretendían hacerme daño
"ustedes pretendían hacer el mal contra mi"

Dios lo usó para bien
"Dios lo quiso para bien"

Así que ahora no tengan miedo
"Así que no me teman"

Yo proveeré para ustedes y para sus pequeños hijos
"Siempre me aseguraré de que usted y sus hijos tengan suficiente para comer"

los confortó de esta manera y les habló amablemente
"Él los consoló hablándoles amablemente"

Genesis 50:22

Cientodiez años
110 años

Los hijos de Efraín a la tercera generación.
Los hijos y nietos de Efraín "(UDB)

Maquir
Este es el nombre del nieto de José.

Que fueron puestos de rodillas de José
Esta expresión significa que José adoptó a estos hijos de Maquir como sus propios hijos. Esto significa que tendrían derechos especiales de herencia de José.

Genesis 50:24

Seguramente vendrá a ustedes
En 50:24 la palabra "ustedes" se refiere a los hermanos de José, pero también representa a sus descendientes.

les guiará fuera de esta tierra a la tierra
"Les guiará hacia arriba". Era común usar la palabra "arriba" cuando se habla de viajar de Egipto a Canaán. TA: "sacarte de esta tierra y llevarte a la tierra"

Lo embalsamaron
"Embalsamar" es una forma especial de preservar un cuerpo muerto antes de ser enterrado. Vea cómo tradujo "embalsamado" en 50:1.

Fue puesto
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "lo pusieron"

En un ataúd
"En un cofre" o "En un caso". Esta es una caja donde se coloca una persona muerta.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Exodus

Exodus

Chapter 1

1 Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Israel quienes vinieron de Egipto con Jacob, cada uno con su familia: 2 Rubén, Simeón, Leví, Judá, 3 Isacar, Zabulón, Benjamín, 4 Dan, Neftalí, Gad y Aser. 5 Todos los que salieron con Jacob era un total de setenta personas. José estaba en Egipto. 6 Entonces José, todos sus hermanos y toda aquella generación murieron. 7 Los israelitas fueron fructíferos, se multiplicaron grandemente en número y vinieron a ser fuertes y la tierra estaba llena con ellos. 8 Entonces un nuevo rey comenzó a gobernar en Egipto, uno que no conocía de José. 9 Él le dijo a su pueblo, "Miren, los israelitas son más numerosos y fuertes que nosotros. 10 Vengan, tratémoslos sabiamente, de otra manera ellos continuarán creciendo en número, y si somos atacados, ellos se unirán a nuestros enemigos, peleando en contra de nosotros y abandonarán la tierra." 11 Así que ellos pusieron mayordomos que los oprimieran con labores fuertes. Los israelitas construyeron ciudades para Faraón: Pitón y Ramsés. 12 Pero mientras más los Egipcios los oprimían, mas los israelitas crecían en número y extensión. Así que, los Egipcios comenzaron a temerle a los israelitas. 13 Los egipcios hicieron trabajar a los israelitas rigurosamente. 14 Ellos hicieron sus vidas amargas con duro servicio con morteros y ladrillos, y toda clase de trabajo en los campos. Todo trabajo requerido era duro. 15 Entonces el rey de Egipto habló a las parteras hebreas; el nombre de una de ellas era Sifra, y la otra Puá. 16 El dijo: "Cuando ustedes asistan a las mujeres hebreas en su alumbramiento, observen cuando sea el nacimiento. Si es un niño, deben matarlo; pero si es una niña, dejénla vivir." 17 Pero las parteras temieron a Dios y no hicieron como el rey de Egipto les ordenó; en su lugar, dejaron que los niños vivieran. 18 El rey de Egipto citó a las parteras y les dijo a ellas: "¿Por qué han hecho esto y han permitido que los bebés varones vivan?" 19 Las parteras le contestaron al Faraón: "Las mujeres hebreas no son como las mujeres egipcias. Ellas son vigorosas y han terminado de dar a luz antes de que una partera llegue a donde ellas." 20 Dios protegió a estas parteras. El pueblo creció en número y se volvió muy fuerte. 21 Porque estas parteras temieron a Dios, Él les dio familias a ellas. 22 El Faraón le ordenó a todo su pueblo: "Tienen que lanzar a todo varón que nazca hacia el río, pero tienen que dejar vivir a toda mujer."

Exodus 1:1

familia
Esto se refiere a todas las personas que viven juntas en una casa, generalmente una familia grande con sirvientes.

Setenta
"70"

José estaba en Egipto
"José vivió en Egipto antes que sus hermanos"

Exodus 1:6

Todos su hermanos
Esto incluye sus 10 hermanos mayores y 1 hermano menor

Fueron fructíferos
Se habla del nacimiento de los hijos de los israelitas como si fueran plantas que estaban produciendo frutos. TA: "tuvo muchos hijos" o "dio a luz a muchos hijos"

La tierra estaba llena con ellos Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Llenaron la tierra"

con ellos
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los israelitas.

Exodus 1:8

Se levantó sobre Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere al pueblo de Egipto. TA: "comenzó a gobernar sobre el pueblo de Egipto"

Él le dijo a su pueblo
"El rey dijo a su pueblo"

Su pueblo
Estas eran las personas que vivian en Egipto, los egipcios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tratémoslos
La palabra "Tratémoslos" es inclusiva y se refiere al rey y al pueblo, los egipcios.

si somos atacados
Aquí se habla de la guerra como una persona que es capaz de actuar.

Abandonarán la tierra
"Dejarán Egipto"

Exodus 1:11

mayordomos
"Capataces". Estos eran egipcios cuyo trabajo era obligar a los israelitas a trabajar arduamente.

que los oprimieran con labores fuertes
"para forzar a los israelitas a hacer trabajo duro para los egipcios"

construyeron ciudades
Estos eran lugares donde los líderes ponían comida y otras cosas importantes para mantenerlos seguros.

Exodus 1:13

Hicieron... trabajar... rigurosamente
"hicieron... trabajar... muy duro" o "duramente hicieron ... trabajo"

Hicieron sus vidas amargas
Se habla de las vidas difíciles de los israelitas como si fueran alimentos amargos que eran difíciles de comer.

Morteros
Este era un pegamento húmedo o barro colocado entre ladrillos o piedras que los mantenían juntos cuando se secaba.

Todo trabajo requerido era duro.
"Los egipcios les hicieron trabajar muy duro" o "Los egipcios los obligaron a trabajar muy duro"

Exodus 1:15

Rey de Egipto
El Rey de Egito es llamado faraón.

Parteras
Estas eran mujeres que ayudaban a una mujer a dar a luz.

Sifra...Púa
Estos son nombres hebreos de mujeres.

alumbramiento
Las mujeres se sentaban en este pequeño puesto mientras daban a luz. Por lo tanto, se asocia con el nacimiento. TA: "Mientras dan a luz"

Exodus 1:18

Parteras
Estas eran mujeres que ayudaban a una mujer a dar a luz. Vea como se traduce esto en 1:15.

¿Por qué han hecho esto y han permitido que los bebés varones vivan?
El Faraón hizo esta pregunta para reprender a las parteras por permitir que los hijos varones vivieran. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Has desobedecido mi orden al no matar a los bebés varones!" .

Las mujeres hebreas no son como las mujeres egipcias
Las parteras respondieron sabiamente para apaciguar el enojo del faraón.

Exodus 1:20

Dios protegió a estas parteras
Dios evitó que el Faraón matara a estas parteras.

Parteras
Estas eran mujeres que ayudaban a una mujer a dar a luz. Vea como se traduce esto en 1:15.

El pueblo creció en número
Los israelitas aumentaron en numero

Temieron a Dios
"reverenciaron a Dios" o "tuvieron reverencia por Dios"

Les dió familias
"El les permitió tener hijos"

"Tienen que lanzar a todo varón ... hacia el río Esta orden fue dada para ahogar a los hijos varones. El significado completo de esto puede hacerse explícito. TA: "Debes ... en el río para que se ahoguen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Ahora, un hombre de la tribu de Leví se casó con una mujer de Leví. 2 La mujer quedó embarazada y le dió a luz a un hijo. Cuando ella vio que él era un niño sano, ella lo escondió por tres meses. 3 Pero cuando ella no podía esconderlo más, ella tomó una canasta de papiro y la selló con betún y brea. Luego ella colocó al niño en la canasta y la colocó entre las cañas en las aguas de la orilla del río. 4 Su hermana se paró a la distancia para ver lo que le pasaba a él. 5 La hija del Faraón fue a bañarse en el río mientras sus asistentes caminaban a lo largo de la orilla del río. Ella vió la canasta entre las cañas y envió a sus asitentes a que la buscaran. 6 Cuando ella la abrió, ella vió al niño. Advirtió, que el bebé estaba llorando. Ella tuvo compasión de él y dijo: "Este ciertamente es un hijo de los Hebreos." 7 Luego la hermana del bebé le dijo a la hija del Faraón:"¿Debería yo ir y encontrarte una mujer hebrea para que cuide al niño para ti?" 8 La hija del Faraón le dijo a ella: "Ve." Así que la niña fue y buscó a la madre del bebé. 9 La hija del faraón le dijo a la mamá del bebé: "Toma este bebé y cuídalo por mí, y yo te pagaré un salario." Así que la mujer tomó el niño y lo cuidó. 10 Cuando el niño creció, ella lo llevó a la hija del faraón y él vino a ser su hijo. Ella lo llamó Moisés y dijo: "Porque yo lo saqué de las aguas." 11 Cuando Moisés creció, fue a su gente y observó su duro trabajo. El vió a un egipcio golpeando a un hebreo, uno de su propio pueblo. 12 Él miró a un lado y al otro lado y cuando él vió que no había nadie allí, él mató al egipcio y escondio su cuerpo en la arena. 13 Él salió al día siguiente, y, observó, dos hombres hebreos que estaban peleando. Él le dijo a aquel que estaba equivocado: "¿Porqué golpeas a tu compañero?" 14 Pero el hombre dijo: " ¿Quién te hizo líder y juez sobre nosotros? ¿Estás planificando matarme como mataste al egipcio? Entonces a Moisés le dio miedo y dijo: "Lo que yo hice ciertamente es conocido a otros." 15 Ahora cuando faraón escuchó esto, él intentó matar a Moisés. Pero Moisés huyó de faraón y se quedó en la tierra de Madián. Allí él se sentó cerca de un pozo. 16 Ahora, el sacerdote de Madián tenía siete hijas. Ellas vinieron, sacaron agua, y llenaron los abrevaderos de agua para el rebaño de su padre. 17 Los pastores vinieron e intentaron llevárselas, pero Moisés fue y las ayudó. Luego él hecho agua al rebaño. 18 Cuando las niñas fueron hacia Reuel su padre, él dijo, "¿Porqué están en casa tan temprano?" 19 Ellas dijeron, "Un egipcio nos rescató de unos pastores. Él incluso sacó agua para el rebaño." 20 Él le dijo a sus hijas, "Entonces, ¿Donde está él? ¿Porque dejaron al hombre? Llamenlo para que pueda comer con nosotros." 21 Moisés aceptó en quedarse con el hombre, quien le iba a dar a su hija Sefora en matrimonio. 22 Ella concibió un hijo, y Moisés lo llamó Gersón; él dijo, "Yo he sido un residente en una tierra extraña." 23 Un largo tiempo despúes, el rey de Egipto murió. Los Israelitas gimieron por el trabajo de esclavo. Ellos gimieron por ayuda, y sus suplicas subieron a Dios debido a su servidumbre. 24 Cuando Dios escuchó sus gemidos, Dios se recordó su pacto con Abraham, con Isaac y con Jacob. 25 Dios miró a los Israelitas, y Él comprendió su situación.

Exodus 2:1

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una pausa en el evento principal. Aquí el autor comienza a contar una nueva parte de la narrativa. Si tiene una forma de hacerlo en su idioma, considere usarlo aquí.

Tres
"3"

Exodus 2:3

Canasta de papiro
Esta es una canasta hecha de una hierba alta que crece junto al río Nilo en Egipto.

Selló con Betún y brea Podrías decir explícitamente que esto fue para mantener fuera el agua. TA: "esparce el alquitrán para evitar que entre agua"

Selló
Aquí "selló" significa que ella aplicó un recubrimiento impermeable.

Betún
Esta es una pasta pegajosa negra hecha de petróleo. Se puede utilizar para mantener el agua fuera. TA: "tar"

Brea
Esta es una pasta pegajosa de color marrón o negro que se puede hacer a partir de savia de árbol o de petróleo. Por lo tanto, "brea" incluiría no solo "betún" sino también resinas de origen vegetal. También se puede utilizar para mantener el agua fuera. TA: "alquitrán" o "resina"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cañas
Estas "cañas" eran un tipo de hierba alta que crecía en áreas planas y húmedas.

A la distancia
Esto significa que se mantuvo lo suficientemente alejada para no ser notada, pero lo suficientemente cerca para ver la canasta.

Exodus 2:5

Asistentes
"Siervos"

Advirtió
La palabra "advirtió" señala la sorprendente información que sigue.

Exodus 2:7

que cuide
"amamantar"

Exodus 2:9

Ella lo llevó
"la mujer hebrea lo llevó"

él vino a ser su hijo.
"se convirtió en el hijo adoptivo de la hija de Faraón"

Porque lo saqué del agua.
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga "El nombre de Moisés suena como la palabra hebrea que significa 'sacar'".

Lo saqué
Lo estiré

Exodus 2:11

golpeando
"golpear" o "paliza"

Él miró a un lado y al otro lado
Estas dos direcciones opuestas tienen el significado combinado de "en todas partes". TA: "Miró a su alrededor"

Exodus 2:13

El salió
"Moisés salió"

observó
La palabra "observó" muestra que Moisés estaba sorprendido por lo que vio. Puede usar una palabra en su idioma que le dará este significado.

a aquel que estaba equivocado
Esta era una forma habitual de decir "el que comenzó la pelea". TA: "el culpable de comenzar la pelea"

¿Quién te hizo líder y juez sobre nosotros?
El hombre usó esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés por intervenir en la lucha. TA: "¡No eres nuestro líder y no tienes derecho a juzgarnos!"

¿Estás planificando matarme como mataste al egipcio?
El hombre utilizó una pregunta aquí para ser sarcástico. TA: "Sabemos que mataste a un egipcio ayer. ¡Es mejor que no me mates!"

Exodus 2:15

Ahora cuando faraón escuchó esto
La palabra "ahora" es usada aquí para marcar un quiebre en el evento. Aquí el autor empieza a relatar una nueva parte del incidente

Ahora, el sacerdote de Madián tenía siete hijas La palabra "ahora" es usada aquí para marcar un quiebre en el evento. Aqui el autor introduce nuevos personajes en la narrativa.

sacaron agua Esto significa que ellas quitaban agua de un pozo abrevaderos

Un recipiente largo, estrecho, abierto para que los animales coman o beban de él llevárselas

"perseguirlas"

Las ayudó
"las rescató"

Exodus 2:18

Por qué dejaron al hombre?
Esta pregunta es una suave amonestación a las hijas por no invitar a Moises a su casa de acuerdo a la hospitalidad que es normal de esa cultura. TA: "Ustedes no debian dejado a este hombre en el pozo!"

Exodus 2:21

Moisés aceptó en quedarse con el hombre
"Moises estuvo de acuerdo en vivir con Reuel"

Séfora
Esta es hija de Reuel

Gersón
Este es hijo de Moisés.

un residente en una tierra extraña
"extraño en una tierra extrangera"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 2:23

Gimieron
Ellos hicieron esto a acusa de su sufrimiento y miseria. TA: "suspiraron profundamente"

Su suplicas subieron a Dios
El llanto de los israelitas es considerado como si ellos fuesen una persona y fuese capaz de ir donde Dios está. TA: "Dios escuchó sus suplicas"

Dios se recordó su pacto Esto era una habitual costumbre de decir que Dios pensó en lo que habia prometido. TA: "Dios recordó sus promesas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Ahora Moisés aún estaba pastoreando el rebaño de Jetro su sueggro, el sacerdote de Madián. Moisés dirigió el rebaño a la lejanía del desierto y llegó a Horeb, la montaña de Dios. 2 Allí el ángel del SEÑOR se le apareció en un llama en un arbusto. Moisés miró, y observo que el arbusto se estaba quemando, pero no se descomponía. 3 Moisés dijo, "Me hecharé a un lado y observaré esta cosa maravillosa, porque el arbusto no se quema." 4 Cuando el SEÑOR observó que se apartó para mirar, Dios lo llamó desde el arbusto y le dijo, "Moisés, Moisés." Moisés dijo, "Aquí estoy." 5 Dios dijo, "¡No te acerques! Quitate el calzado de tus pies, porque el lugar donde estas parado es tierra dedicada a Mí." 6 Él añadió, "Yo soy el Dios de tus padres, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac, y el Dios de Jacob." Entonces Moisés se cubrió el rostro, pues él tuvo miedo de mirar a Dios. 7 El SEÑOR dijo, "Yo he visto el sufrimiento de mi pueblo quienes están en Egipto. Yo he escuchado sus ruegos por sus capataces, pues Yo conozco su sufrimiento. 8 Yo he venido para librarlos del poder de los Egipcios y traerles de esas tierras a una buena, y grande tierra, a una tierra donde fluye leche y miel; a las regiones de los cananeos, hititas, amorreos, ferezeos, heveos y jebuseos. 9 Ahora los clamores de las personas de Israel me han llegado. Además, Yo he visto la opresión causada por los Egipcios. 10 Ahora entonces, Yo te enviaré a Faraón para que puedas traer a mi pueblo, los Israelitas, fuera de Egipto. 11 Pero Moisés le dijo a Dios, "¿Quién soy yo, que iré a Faraón y traeré a los Israelitas de Egipto?" 12 Dios contestó, "Yo ciertamente estaré contigo. Esto será por señal para ti de que te he enviado. Cuando saques a mi pueblo de Egipto, ustedes me adorarán en esta montaña." 13 Moisés le dijo a Dios, "Cuando vaya a los Israelitas y les diga 'El Dios de sus ancestros me ha enviado a ustedes,' y cuando ellos me pregunten, '¿Cuál es Su nombre?' ¿Qué les diré?" Dios le dijo, "YO SOY EL QUE SOY." 14 Dios le dijo, "Debes decirle a los Israelitas, 'EL YO SOY me ha enviado a ustedes.'" 15 Dios también le dijo a Moisés "Debes decirle a los Israelitas, 'El SEÑOR, el Dios de tus ancestros, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac y el Dios e Jacob, me ha enviado a ustedes. Este es mi nombre por siempre, así permaneceré en la mente de todas las generaciones.' 16 Ve y junta a los ancianos de Israel. Dile a ellos, 'El SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac y el Dios de Jacob, se me ha aparecido y me dijo, "Yo ciertamente los he observado y he visto lo que Egipto les ha hecho. 17 Yo he prometido sacarlos de la opresión de Egipto a las tierras de los cananeos, hititas, amorreos, ferezeos, heveos y jebuseos, una tierra donde fluye la leche y la miel.'" 18 Ellos te escucharán. Tu y los ancianos de Israel deberán ir delante del rey de Egipto, y deberás decirle, 'EL SEÑOR, el Dios de los Hebreos, se ha encontrado con nosotros. Así que vámonos tres días hacia el desierto, en orden que podamos sacrificarnos al SEÑOR, nuestro Dios.' 19 Pero yo sé que el rey de Egipto no les dejarpa ir, a menos que mano sea forzada. 20 Yo estrecharé mi mano contra ellos y atacaré a ls Egipcios con todos los milagros que haré entre ellos. 21 Yo les daré favor a este pueblo de los Egipcios, para cuando se vayan, no se vayan sin nada. 22 Cada mujer va a pedir joyas de oro y plata y ropa de sus vecinas las Egipcias y de cualquier mujer que se hospede allí. Ustedes las pondrán sobre sus hijos e hijas. De esta manera ustedes saquearán a los Egipcios."

Exodus 3:1

Ángel del SEÑOR
Esto era el SEÑORr apareciendo en forma de un angel, no solo un ángel que el SEÑOR mandó. "El SEÑOR apareció como un ángel" (UDB)

El SEÑOR
"Yahweh". Este es un nombre de Dios que él reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo testamento. Vea la pagina de translationWord sobre lo que concierne a El SEÑOR y como traducir esto.

observó
La palabra "observó" aquí muestra que Moisés vió algo que fue muy diferente de lo que él esperaba.

Exodus 3:4

dedicada
"santificado"

El Dios de tus padres, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac y el Dios de Jacob Todos estos hombres adoraron al mismo Dios. TA: "el Dios de tu padre, de Abraham, de Isaac, y de Jacob"

Tus padres
Posibles significados son 1) "tu ancestro" o 2) "tu padre". Si esto significa "tu ancestro", entonces las frases que le siguen aclaran a quien se refiere "tu padre": se refiere a Abraham, Isaac y a Jacob. Si significa "tu padre", entonces se refiere al padre de Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 3:7

capataces
"Opresores". Estos eran egipcios cuyo trabajo era obligar a los israelitas a trabajar arduamente. Vea como tradujo esto en el 1:11

Una tierra donde fluye la leche y la miel.
"una tierra en donde leche y miel fluyen". Dios habló de la tierra siendo buena para los animales y plantas como si la leche y miel de estos animales y plantas estaban fluyendo por la tierra. TA: "Una tierra que es excelente para criar ganado y el cultivo"

Donde fluye
"llena de " o "con abundancia de"

Leche
Ya que la leche viene de las vacas y cabras, esto representa produccion de comida por ganadería. TA: "Comida proveniente de ganadería"

Miel
Ya que la miel es producida a partir de las flores, esto representa comida a partir de la agricultura. TA: "comida de la agricultura"

Exodus 3:9

Los clamores de las personas de Israel me han llegado
Aquí se habla de la palabra "clamores" como si fueran personas capaces de moverse por sí mismas. TA: "He escuchado los clamores del pueblo de Israel"

Exodus 3:11

Quién soy yo, que iré a Faraón ... Egipto?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para decirle a Dios que Él no es nadie y nadie lo escuchará. TA: "No soy lo suficientemente importante como para ir a Faraón ... ¡Egipto!"

Exodus 3:13

Dios le dijo, "YO SOY EL QUE SOY
Esta es la respuesta de Dios a la pregunta de Moisés acerca del nombre de Dios. Esto puede hacerse explícito. TA: "Dios le dijo a Moisés: 'Dígales que Dios dice que su nombre es: 'YO SOY EL QUE YO SOY' ".

YO SOY EL QUE YO SOY
Los posibles significados son 1) toda esta oración es el nombre de Dios o 2) Dios no está diciendo su nombre sino algo acerca de sí mismo. Al decir esto, Dios está enseñando que él es eterno; Él siempre ha vivido y siempre vivirá.

YO SOY
Es posible que los idiomas que no tienen un equivalente al verbo "SOY" deban representarse como "YO VIVO" o "YO EXISTO".

Exodus 3:16

Información General
Dios continúa hablando de Moisés

El Dios de sus ancestros, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac y el Dios de Jacob
Abraham, Isaac y Jacob eran tres de los antepasados de Moisés. Todos adoraban al mismo Dios.

Yo ciertamente los he observado
La frase "los he observado" se refiere al pueblo de Israel

Una tierra donde fluye la leche y la miel.
"una tierra en donde leche y miel fluyen". Dios habló de la tierra siendo buena para los animales y plantas como si la leche y miel de estos animales y plantas estaban fluyendo por la tierra. Vea como tradujo esto en 3:7. TA: "Una tierra que es excelente para criar ganado y el cultivo"

Donde fluye
"llena de " o "con abundancia de"

Leche
Ya que la leche viene de las vacas y cabras, esto representa produccion de comida por ganadería. TA: "Comida proveniente de ganadería"

Miel
Ya que la miel es producida a partir de las flores, esto representa comida a partir de la agricultura. TA: "comida de la agricultura"

Ellos te escucharan
La palabra "te" se refiere a Moisés. TA: "Los ancianos te escucharán"

Exodus 3:19

Información general
Dios continúa hablando a Moisés.

a menos que mano sea forzada Esto se puede decir en forma activa. La palabra "mano" es una metonimia para el poder del dueño de la mano. Los posibles significados son 1) "sólo si ve que no tiene poder para hacer nada más"

Yo estrecharé mi mano Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder de Dios. TA: "Voy a atacar poderosamente"

no se vayan sin nada entregado las palabras aquí "mano vacía" son usadas para enfatizar el significado opuesto. TA:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"irán con las manos llenas de cosas buenas" o "irán con muchas cosas valiosas"

Cualquier mujer que se hospede allí
"cualquier mujer egipcia alojada en las casas de sus vecinos egipcios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Moisés respondió: "¿Pero si no me creen o no me escuchan, pero en su lugar dicen: 'el SEÑOR no se te ha aparecido'?" 2 El SEÑOR le dijo a él: "¿Qué es éso en tu mano?" Moisés le dijo: "Una vara". 3 El SEÑOR le dijo: "Lánzala al suelo". Moisés la lanzó al suelo, y se convirtió en una serpiente. Moisés huyó de ella. 4 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Alcánzala con tu mano y tómala por la cola". Entonces él la alcanzó y agarró la serpiente. Otra vez se convirtió en una vara en su mano. 5 "Esto es para que ellos puedan creer que el SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac, y el Dios de Jacob, se te ha aparecido". 6 El SEÑOR también le dijo: "Ahora pon tu mano dentro de tu capa". Entonces Moisés puso su mano dentro de su capa. Cuando la sacó, contemplad, su mano estaba leprosa, tan blanca como la nieve. 7 El SEÑOR dijo: "Pon tu mano dentro de tu capa otra vez". Entonces Moisés puso su mano dentro de su capa, y cuando la sacó, él vió que estaba saludable otra vez, como el resto de su carne. 8 El SEÑOR dijo: "Si ellos no te creen --si ellos no prestan atención a la primera señal de Mi poder o creen en ella, entonces ellos creerán en la segunda señal. 9 Y si ellos no creen incluso en estas dos señales de Mi poder, ni te escuchan, entonces toma un poco de agua del río y derrámala sobre la tierra seca. El agua que tomes se convertirá en sangre en la tierra seca". 10 Entonces Moisés le dijo al SEÑOR: "Señor, yo nunca he sido eloquente, ni en el pasado ni desde que le hablaste a tu siervo. Yo soy lento en el hablar y lento de lengua". 11 El SEÑOR le dijo a él: "¿Quién fue el que hizo la boca del hombre? ¿Quién es el que hace a un hombre mudo, o sordo, o que pueda ver, o ciego? ¿No soy Yo, el SEÑOR? 12 Así que ahora ve y Yo estaré con tu boca y te enseñaré que decir". 13 Pero Moisés dijo: "Señor, por favor envía cualquier otra persona, a quien sea que desees enviar". 14 Entonces el SEÑOR se enojó con Moisés. Él dijo: "¿Qué tal Aarón, tu hermano, el Levita? Yo sé que él habla bien. Más aún, él viene a encontrarse contigo, y cuando te vea, él se alegrará en su corazón. 15 Tu le hablarás y pondrás las palabras a decir en su boca. Yo estaré con tu boca y con la boca de él, y Yo les mostraré a ambos qué hacer. 16 Él le hablará a la gente en tu lugar. Él será tu boca y tú le serás a él como Yo, Dios. 17 Tú llevarás en tu mano esta vara. Con ella tu harás las señales". 18 Entonces Moisés regresó a Jetro, su suegro, y le dijo: "Déjame ir, para poder regresar donde mis parientes quienes están en Egipto y ver si ellos aún están vivos". Jetro le dijo a Moisés: "Ve en paz". 19 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés en Madián: "Ve, regresa a Egipto, ya que todos los hombres que trataban de tomar tu vida están muertos". 20 Moisés tomó a su esposa y a sus hijos y los puso en un burro. Él regreso a la tierra de Egipto, y tomó la vara de Dios en su mano. 21 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Cuando regreses a Egipto, ve que hagas ante Faraón todas las maravillas que he puesto en tu poder. Pero endureceré su corazón, y él no dejará ir al pueblo. 22 Debes decirle a Faraón: 'Esto es lo que dice el SEÑOR: Israel es Mi hijo, Mi primógenito, 23 y Yo te digo a ti: Deja ir a Mi hijo, para que él pueda adorarme. Pero como te haz negado a dejarle ir, Yo ciertamente mataré a tu hijo, tu primógenito'". 24 Ahora, en el camino, cuando ellos se detuvieron por la noche, el SEÑOR se encontró con Moisés e intentó matarlo. 25 Entonces Séfora tomó un cuchillo de piedra y le cortó el prepucio a su hijo, y lo puso a sus pies. Entonces ella dijo: "Ciertamente tu eres un novio para mí por la sangre". 26 Así que el SEÑOR lo dejó en paz. Ella dijo: "Tú eres un novio de sangre" a causa de la circuncisión. 27 El SEÑOR le dijo a Aarón: "Ve al desierto y encuéntrate con Moisés". Aarón fue a verlo, lo encontró en la montaña de Dios, y lo besó. 28 Moisés le dijo a Aarón todas las palabras que el SEÑOR que le había enviado a decir y todas las señales del poder del SEÑOR que Él le había ordenado hacer. 29 Entonces Moisés y Aarón fueron y juntaron a todos los ancianos de los israelitas. 30 Aarón les habló todas las palabras que el SEÑOR le había hablado a Moisés. Él también mostró las señales del poder del SEÑOR a la vista de las personas. 31 La gente creyó. Cuando ellos escucharon que el SEÑOR había observado a los israelitas y que había visto su opresión, entonces ellos inclinaron sus cabezas y Lo adoraron.

Exodus 4:1

Si no me creen
Si los israelitas no creen

Exodus 4:4

Tómala por la cola
"recogerlo por la cola" o "agarrarlo por la cola"

Se convirtió en una vara
"convertió en un bastón" o "cambiado a un bastón"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El Dios de sus ancestros, el Dios de Abraham, el Dios de Isaac y el Dios de Jacob Abraham, Isaac y Jacob eran tres de los antepasados de Moisés. Todos adoraban al mismo Dios.

Exodus 4:6

contemplad
Esta palabra se utiliza para crear una exclamación, mostrando sorpresa.

Tan blanca como la nieve
La palabra "como" aquí se utiliza para comparar cómo era la mano de Moisés. La lepra hace que la piel se vea blanca. Es posible que no tenga una palabra para nieve en su idioma. Si es así, considere una alternativa que describe algo blanco. TA: "tan blanco como la lana o blanco como la arena de la playa"

Exodus 4:8

Prestan atención
"reconozcan" "o acepten"

Exodus 4:10

Elocuente
"un excelente orador"

Yo soy lento en el hablar y lento de lengua
Las frases "lento del habla" y "lento de la lengua" significan básicamente la misma cosa. Moisés los utiliza para enfatizar que no es un buen orador.

Lento de lengua
Aquí "lengua" se refiere a la capacidad de Moisés para hablar. TA: "incapaz de hablar bien"

¿Quién fue el que hizo la boca del hombre?
El SEÑOR usa esta pregunta para enfatizar que él es el Creador que hace posible que la gente hable. TA: "¡Yo Jehová soy el que creó la boca humana y la capacidad de hablar!"

¿No soy yo, el SEÑOR?
El SEÑOR utiliza esta pregunta para enfatizar que sólo él toma estas decisiones. TA: "¡Yo, el SEÑOR, soy el que hace esto!"

Estaré con tu boca
Aquí "boca" se refiere a la capacidad de Moisés para hablar. TA: "Te daré la capacidad de hablar"

Exodus 4:14

Se alegrará en su corazón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a los pensamientos y emociones interiores. TA: "él será muy feliz"

Pondras las palabras a decir en su boca
Las palabras aquí se hablan como si fueran algo que puede ser colocado físicamente en la boca de una persona. Aquí "palabras" se refiere al mensaje. TA: "darle el mensaje de que se repite"

Estaré con tu boca
Aquí "boca" se refiere a la capacidad de Moisés para hablar. TA: "Te daré la capacidad de hablar"

Con tu boca
La palabra "boca" aquí representa la elección de palabras de Aarón. TA: "Le daré las palabras correctas para hablar"

Él será tu boca
La palabra "boca" aquí representa a Aarón repitiendo lo que Moisés le dijo. TA: "Él dirá lo que usted le diga"

serás para él como Yo, Dios
La palabra "como" aquí significa que Moisés representaría la misma autoridad a Aarón como lo hizo Dios a Moisés. TA: "hablarás con Aarón con la misma autoridad con la que te hablé"

Exodus 4:18

Suegro
Esto se refiere al padre de la esposa de Moisés.

Exodus 4:21

Endureceré su corazón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere al faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. TA: "hará que el faraón sea terco"

Israel es mi hijo
La palabra "Israel" aquí representa a todo el pueblo de Israel. TA: "El pueblo de Israel son mis propios hijos"

Es mi hijo, mi primogénito
Aquí se habla del pueblo de Israel como si fuera un hijo primogénito que causa alegría y orgullo. TA: "es como mi propio hijo primogénito"

Te has negado a dejarle ir
La palabra "dejarle" se refiere al pueblo de Israel como hijo de Dios. TA: "usted se ha negado a dejar ir a mi hijo"

Ciertamente mataré a tu hijo, tu primogénito
La palabra "hijo" aquí se refiere al verdadero hijo de Faraón.

Exodus 4:24

El SEÑOR se encontró con Moisés y trató de matarlo Esto pudo haber sido porque Moisés no había circuncidado a su hijo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Séfora
Este es el nombre de la esposa de Moisés.

Cuchillo de piedra
Era un cuchillo con una hoja de piedra afilada.

a sus pies
Es posible que la palabra "pies" aquí haya sido una manera más respetuosa de referirse al área genital del cuerpo.

Eres un novio para mí por la sangre
El significado de esta metáfora no está claro. Era probablemente un dicho conocido en esa cultura. TA: "estás relacionado conmigo por esta sangre" o "eres mi marido por la sangre"

Exodus 4:27

El SEÑOR dijo a Aaron
Es posible que desee agregar una palabra que marca el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia, como lo hace la UDB.

en la montaña de Dios
Esto puede haber sido la montaña en el Sinaí, pero el texto no incluye esa información.

Él le habia enviado a decir
La palabra "Él" se refiere al SEÑOR, y "le" se refiere a Moisés.

Exodus 4:29

En las señales a la gente
"ante el pueblo" o "en presencia del pueblo"

Había observado a los israelitas
"vió a los israelitas" o "estaba preocupado por los israelitas"

Ellos inclinaron sus cabezas Posibles significados son 1) "inclinaron la cabeza en asombro" o 2) "se inclinaron hacia abajo en la reverencia."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Después que estas cosas sucedieron, Moisés y Aarón fueron al Faraón y dijeron: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice: 'Deja ir a mi pueblo, para que así ellos puedan tener una fiesta para Mí en el desierto.'" 2 Faraón dijo: "¿Quién es el SEÑOR? ¿Por qué debo escuchar Su voz y permitir a Israel irse? Yo no conozco a el SEÑOR; por otra parte, yo no permitiré que Israel se vaya." 3 Ellos dijeron: "El Dios de los hebreos se ha reunido con nosotros. Déjanos ir en un viaje de tres días hacia el desierto y sacrificar para el el SEÑOR nuestro Dios, para que así Él no nos ataque con plaga o con espada." 4 Pero el rey de Egipto les dijo: "Moisés y Aarón, ¿por qué están tomando al pueblo de su trabajo? Vuelvan a su trabajo." 5 Él también dijo: "Ahora hay muchos hebreos en nuestra tierra, y tú estás haciendo que detengan su trabajo." 6 En ese mismo día, Faraón dio una orden a los capataces de esclavos y los supervisores del pueblo. Él dijo: 7 "A diferencia de antes, ustedes ya no deben darle al pueblo paja para hacer ladrillos. Déjenlos ir y que junten paja por sí mismos. 8 Sin embargo, aun así ustedes deben demandar de ellos el mismo número de ladrillos que hacían antes. No acepten nada menos, porque ellos son perezosos. Es por esto que ellos están clamando y diciendo: 'Permítenos ir y sacrificar para nuestro Dios.' 9 Aumenten la carga de trabajo a los hombres para que así ellos se mantengan en eso y no presten más atención a las palabras engañosas." 10 Así que los capataces de esclavos y los supervisores salieron e informaron al pueblo. Ellos dijeron: "Esto es lo que Faraón dice: 'Ya no les daré mas paja. 11 Ustedes mismos deben ir y conseguir paja donde sea que la puedan encontrar, pero su carga de trabajo no será reducida.'" 12 Así que el pueblo se esparció a través de toda la tierra de Egipto para juntar manojos de paja. 13 Los capataces de esclavos seguían apresurándolos y diciendo: "Terminen su trabajo, así como cuando la paja les era dada a ustedes." 14 Los capataces de esclavos del Faraón golpeaban a los supervisores israelitas, aquellos mismos hombres a quienes ellos colocaron a cargo de los trabajadores. Los capataces de esclavos seguían preguntando: "¿Por qué ustedes no producen todos los ladrillos que se les requieren, ya sea ayer y hoy, como ustedes solían hacer en el pasado?" 15 Así que los supervisores israelitas vinieron donde el Faraón y se quejaron. Ellos dijeron: "¿Por qué estás tratando a tus sirvientes de esta manera? 16 Ya ninguna paja le está siendo dada a tus sirvientes, pero todavía ellos nos dicen: '¡Hagan más ladrillos!' Nosotros, tus sirvientes, incluso estamos siendo golpeados ahora, pero es la culpa de tu propio pueblo." 17 Pero Faraón dijo: "¡Ustedes son perezosos! ¡Ustedes son perezosos! Ustedes dicen: 'Permítenos ir a sacrificar para el el SEÑOR.' 18 Así que ahora vayan de vuelta a trabajar. Ninguna paja más les será dada a ustedes, pero todavía deben hacer el mismo número de ladrillos." 19 Los supervisores israelitas vieron que ellos estaban en problemas cuando se les dijo: "No deben reducir el número diario de ladrillos." 20 Ellos se encontraron con Moisés y Aarón, quienes estaban parados afuera del palacio, mientras ellos se fueron lejos del Faraón. 21 Ellos le dijeron a Moisés y Aarón: "Que el el SEÑOR los mire y los castigue, porque ustedes nos han hecho ofensivos a la vista del Faraón y sus sirvientes. Ustedes han puesto una espada en su mano para matarnos." 22 Moisés se tornó alel SEÑOR y dijo: "Señor, ¿por qué has causado problemas para este pueblo? ¿Por qué me enviaste en primer lugar? 23 Desde que yo vine al Faraón a hablarle en tu nombre, él ha causado problema para este pueblo, y tú no has liberado a tu pueblo en lo absoluto."

Exodus 5:1

Después que estas cosas sucedieron
No está claro cuánto tiempo Moisés y Aarón esperaron hasta que fueron a ver a Faraón.

Fiesta para mi
Esto es una celebración de adoración al Señor

Quién es el SEÑOR?
Faraón utiliza esta pregunta para mostrar que no reconoce al Señor como un dios legítimo. AT: "No conozco al Señor"

¿Por qué debo... permitir a Israel irse?
Faraón usa esta pregunta para declarar que no tiene interés en obedecer al Señor o en dejar que los israelitas vayan a adorarlo. TA: "¡Él no es nada para mí y no dejaré ir a Israel!"

Escuchar su voz
Las palabras "su voz" representan las palabras que Dios dijo. TA: "escuchar lo que dice"

Exodus 5:3

Dios de los hebreos
Este es un término también usado para el Dios de los israelitas o el Señor.

O con espada
Aquí "espada" representa guerra o un ataque por enemigos. TA: "o causar a nuestros enemigos para atacarnos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Por qué están tomando al pueblo de su trabajo?
Faraón utiliza esta pregunta para expresar su ira hacia Moisés y Aarón por tomar a los israelitas fuera de su trabajo. TA: "¡Deja de distraer a la gente de hacer su trabajo!"

Exodus 5:6

capataces de esclavos
"Opresores" Estos eran egipcios cuyo trabajo era obligar a los israelitas a trabajar arduamente. Vea como tradujo esto en el 1:11

Ustedes ya no deben darle
La palabra "ustedes" en estos versículos es plural y se refiere a los opresores y capataces.

Exodus 5:10

capataces de esclavos
"Opresores" Estos eran egipcios cuyo trabajo era obligar a los israelitas a trabajar arduamente. Vea como tradujo esto en el 1:11

Ya no les daré más paja ... conseguir paja donde sea que la puedan encontrar
La palabra "les" en estos versículos es plural y se refiere al pueblo israelita.

Ustedes mismos deben ir
Aquí "ustedes" enfatizan que los egipcios ya no les ayudarán.

Su carga de trabajo no será reducida
Esto se puede decir en forma positiva. TA: "usted debe continuar para hacer el mismo número de ladrillos que antes"

Exodus 5:12

Toda la tierra de Egipto
Esta es una exageración usada para mostrar el esfuerzo extra que Israel hizo para satisfacer las demandas del faraón. TA: "un área amplia"

capataces de esclavos
"Opresores" Estos eran egipcios cuyo trabajo era obligar a los israelitas a trabajar arduamente. Vea como tradujo esto en el 1:11

manojos
La parte de la planta que queda despues de la cosecha

Por qué ustedes no producen todos los ladrillos que se les requieren... en el pasado?
Los opresores utilizaron esta pregunta para mostrar que estaban enojados con la falta de ladrillos. TA: "¡No estás produciendo suficientes ladrillos, ni ayer ni hoy, como lo hiciste en el pasado!"

Exodus 5:15

quejaron
Quejaron

ellos nos dicen: '¡Hagan más ladrillos!
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los opresores egipcios.

Exodus 5:19

Cuando se les dijo
Esto se puede decir en forma activa. TA: "cuando el faraón les dijo"

Palacio
Esto es una casa muy grande en donde un rey vive.

Ustedes nos han hecho ofensivos
Los egipcios respondieron a los israelitas de la misma manera que responderían a un olor asqueroso. TA: "has causado que nos odien"

Han puesto una espada en su mano para matarnos
Aquí "una espada" representa una oportunidad para destruir a los enemigos. TA: "les han dado una razón para matarnos" (UDB)

Exodus 5:22

Señor, ¿por qué has causado problemas a esta gente?
Esta pregunta demuestra lo decepcionado que estaba que los egipcios estaban tratando a los israelitas aún más duramente ahora. TA: "Señor, siento que hayas causado este problema a este pueblo."

¿Por qué me enviaste en primer lugar?
Esta pregunta muestra lo decepcionado que estaba Moisés de que Dios lo había enviado a Egipto. TA: "¡Ojalá nunca me hubieras enviado aquí!"

a hablarle en tu nombre La palabra "nombre" aquí representa el mensaje de Dios. TA: "darle tu mensaje"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Entonces el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Ahora tú verás lo que Yo le haré a Faraón. Tú verás esto, pues él los dejará ir por mi mano fuerte. Por causa de mi mano fuerte, él los expulsará de su tierra." 2 DIOS habló a Moisés y le dijo: "Yo soy el SEÑOR. 3 Yo me le aparecí a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob como DIOS todo poderoso; pero por Mi nombre, el SEÑOR, Yo no era conocido a ellos. 4 Yo también establecí un pacto con ellos, de manera que les daría la tierra de Canaan, la tierra donde no vivían como ciudadanos, la tierra en el cual ellos vagabundeaban. 5 Además, Yo he escuchado el gemido de los Israelitas a quienes los Egipcios han esclavizado, y he llamado a memoria Mi pacto. 6 Por lo tanto, dí a los Israelitas: 'Yo soy el SEÑOR. Yo los sacaré de la esclavitud bajo los Egipcios, y Yo los liberaré de su poder. Yo los rescataré a ustedes con una muestra de Mi poder, y con poderosos actos de juicio. 7 Yo los traeré a Mi como mi gente, y Yo seré su DIOS. Ustedes sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios, quien los sacó de la esclavitud bajo los Egipcios. 8 Yo los traeré a ustedes a la tierra que le juré a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob. Yo se la daré a a ustedes como posesión. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 9 Cuando Moisés le dijo esto a los Israelitas, ellos no lo escuchaban a el por causa del desánimo de su dura esclavitud. 10 Así el SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 11 "Vé y dí a Faraón, rey de Egipto, que deje ir a la gente de Israel de su tierra." 12 Moisés dijo al SEÑOR: "Si los Israelitas no me han escuchado a mí, ¿por qué el Faraón me escuchará, ya que no soy bueno hablando?" 13 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y a Aarón. Él les dio una orden para los Israelitas y el Faraón, rey de Egipto, de sacar los Israelitas fuera de la tierra de Egipto. 14 Éstas eran las cabezas de las casas de sus padres: los hijos de Rubén, el primogénito de Israel, fueron Hanóc, Falú, Hezrón y Carmi. Éstos eran el clan los ancestros de Rubén. 15 Los hijos de Simeón eran Jemuel, Jamín, Ohad, Jaquín, Zohar, y Saúl, el hijo de una mujer Cananea. Éstos eran el clan los ancestros de Simeón. 16 Aquí están enumerados los nombres de los hijos de Leví, junto con sus descendientes. Ellos fueron Gersón, Coat y Merari. Leví vivió hasta que tenía 137 años de edad. 17 Los hijos de Gersón fueron Libni y Simei. 18 Los hijos de Cohat fueron Amram, Izhar, Hebrón y Uziel. Cohat vivió hasta que tenía 133 años de edad. 19 Los hijos de Merari fueron Mahli, Musi. Éstos se convirtierón en el clan ancestro de los Levitas, junto con sus descendientes. 20 Amram se casó con Jocabed, la hermana de su padre. Ella le dio a Aarón y a Moisés. Amram vivió 137 años y luego murió. 21 Los hijos de Izhar fueron Coré, Nefeg y Zicri. 22 Los hijos de Uziel fueron Misael, Elzafán y Sitri. 23 Aaron se casó con Eliseba, hija de Aminadab, hermana de Naasón. Ella le dio a Nadab, Abiú, Eleazar e Itamar. 24 Los hijos de Coré fueron Asir, Elcana y Abiasaf. Éstos eran el clan los ancestros de los Coreítas. 25 Eleazar, hijo de Aaron, se casó con una de las hijas de Futiel. Ella le dio a el Finees. Éstos eran la cabeza de la casa de los padres entre los Levitas, junto con sus descendientes. 26 Éstos dos hombres eran el Aarón y Moisés a quien el SEÑOR dijo: "Saquen a los Israelitas de la tierra de los Egipcios, por sus grupos de guerreros." 27 Aarón y Moisés hablaron al Faraón, rey de Egipto, para que les permitiera sacar a los Israelitas de la tierra de Egipto. Éstos eran los mismo Moisés y Aarón. 28 Cuando el SEÑOR habló a Moisés en la tierra de Egipto, 29 Él le dijo: "Yo soy el SEÑOR. Dí a Faraón, rey de Egipto, todo lo que Yo te diga." 30 Pero Moisés le dijo al SEÑOR: "Yo no soy bueno hablando, ¿entonces por qué el Faraón me escuchará?

Exodus 6:1

Mi mano fuerte
La palabra "mano" representa las acciones o obras de Dios. TA: "el poder que muestro en mis obras"

Exodus 6:2

Me aparecí a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob
Me mostré a Abraham, a Isaac, y a Jacob

No era conocido a ellos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. TA: "ellos no me conocieron"

Gemido
Esto significa hacer sonidos tristes a causa de dolor y sufrimiento.

Exodus 6:6

Di a los israelitas
Este es un mandamiento del Señor a Moisés. TA: "El Señor le dijo a Moisés que dijera a los israelitas".

Exodus 6:8

le juré
"Lo prometí" o "Dije que lo haría"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 6:10

Si los israelitas no me han escuchado a mí, ¿por qué me escuchará el faraón, ya que no soy bueno hablando?
Moisés hizo esta pregunta con la esperanza de que Dios cambiara de opinión acerca de usar a Moisés. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Como los israelitas no me escucharon, tampoco lo hará el Faraón, porque no soy bueno para hablar".

Exodus 6:14

Las cabezas de las casas de sus padres.
Aquí "cabezas" se refiere a los ancestros originales del clan. TA: "Los ancestros de los clanes".

Hanoc...Saúl
Estos son nombres de hombres

Exodus 6:16

Gersón... Merari
Estos son nombres de hombres

Amram ... Uziel
Estos son nombres de hombres

Exodus 6:20

Izhar... Coré ... Zicri
Estos son nombres de hombres

Uziel... Misael...Sitri
Estos son nombres de hombres

Exodus 6:23

Nadab... Itamar
Estos son nombres de hombres

Finees
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

Estos eran las cabezas de las casas de los padres.
La palabra "cabezas" aquí representa a los líderes familiares. AT: "Estos eran los líderes de las familias"

Exodus 6:26

por sus grupos de guerreros
"una tribu a la vez" o "un grupo familiar tras otro"

Exodus 6:28

No soy bueno ... ¿por qué el Faraón me escuchará?
Moisés hace esta pregunta con la esperanza de hacer que Dios cambie de parecer. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "No soy bueno ... ¡Faraón ciertamente no me escuchará!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Mira, Yo te he hecho como un dios para Faraón. Aarón, tu hermano, será tu profeta. 2 Tú dirás todo lo que Yo te ordene que digas. Aarón, tu hermano, hablará a Faraón para que él deje salir de su tierra al pueblo de Israel. 3 Pero Yo endureceré el corazón de Faraón y Yo mostraré muchas señales de Mi poder, muchas maravillas, en la tierra de Egipto. 4 Pero Faraón no los escuchará a ustedes, así que Yo pondré mi mano sobre Egipto y sacaré a mis grupos de luchadores, mi pueblo, los descendientes de Israel, fuera de la tierra de Egipto con grandes actos de castigo. 5 Los egipcios sabrán que Yo soy el SEÑOR cuando los alcance con mi mano en Egipto y saque a los Israelitas de entre ellos." 6 Moisés y Aarón lo hicieron así; ellos hicieron justo como el SEÑOR les ordenó. 7 Moisés tenía ochenta años y Aarón tenía ochenta y tres años cuando ellos le hablaron a Faraón. 8 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés y a Aarón: 9 "Cuando Faraón les diga a ustedes: 'Hagan un milagro', tú le dirás a Aarón: 'Toma tu vara y lánzala delante de Faraón, para que se convierta en una serpiente.'" 10 Entonces Moisés y Aarón fueron donde Faraón, y ellos hicieron justo como el SEÑOR les había ordenado. Aarón lanzó su vara delante de Faraón y sus sirvientes, y ésta se convirtió en una serpiente. 11 Luego, Faraón llamó también a sus hombres sabios y hechiceros. Ellos hicieron lo mismo con su magia. 12 Cada hombre lanzó su vara, y las varas se convirtieron en serpientes. Pero la vara de Aarón se tragó las serpientes de ellos. 13 El corazón de Faraón fue endurecido y él no escuchó, justo como el SEÑOR había dicho. 14 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "El corazón de Faraón está duro, y él se niega a dejar ir al pueblo. 15 Vé al Faraón en la mañana cuando él vaya para el agua. Paraté a la orilla del río para que te encuentres con él, y toma en tu mano la vara que se había convertido en serpiente. 16 Dile a él: el SEÑOR, el Dios de los Hebreos, me ha enviado a ti para decirte: 'Deja ir a mi pueblo, para que me pueda adorar en el desierto. Hasta ahora tú no haz escuchado.' 17 El SEÑOR dice esto: 'Por esto conocerás que Yo Soy el SEÑOR. Yo voy a golpear el agua del Río Nilo con la vara que está en mi mano y el río se convertirá en sangre. 18 Los peces que están en el río morirán y el río apestará. Los Egipcios no podrán tomar agua del río.'" 19 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Dile ésto a Aarón: 'Toma tu vara y extiende tu mano sobre las aguas de Egipto, y sobre sus ríos, arroyos, estanques y todas sus charcas, para que así sus aguas se conviertan en sangre. Haz esto para que haya sangre a través de toda la tierra de Egipto, incluso en los contenedores de madera y piedra."" 20 Moisés y Aarón hicieron como el SEÑOR les ordenó. Aarón levantó la vara y golpeó el agua en el río, a la vista de Faraón y sus sirvientes. Toda el agua en el río se convirtió en sangre. 21 Los peces en el río murieron y el río comenzó a apestar. Los Egipcios no podían tomar agua del río y la sangre estaba en todas partes de la tierra de Egipto. 22 Pero los magos de Egipto hicieron lo mismo con su magia, así que el corazón de Faraón fue endurecido y se negó a escuchar a Moisés y Aarón, justo como el SEÑOR había dicho que ocurriría. 23 Entonces, Faraón regresó y fue a su casa. Él ni tan siquiera le prestó atención a esto. 24 Todos los egipcios cavaron alrededor del río para tomar agua, pero ellos no podía tomar el agua del mismo río. 25 Siete días pasaron después que el SEÑOR atacó el río.

Exodus 7:1

Te he hecho como un dios
"Haré que el Faraón te considere como un dios"

Exodus 7:3

Endureceré el corazón de faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:21. TA: "hará que el Faraón sea terco"

Muchas señales ... muchas maravillas
Las palabras "señales" y "maravillas" significan básicamente lo mismo. Dios los usa para enfatizar la grandeza de lo que hará en Egipto.

Pondré mi mano sobre.. los alcance con mi mano
Las palabras "mi mano" representan el gran poder de Dios. TA: "usar mi poder contra ... mostrar mis actos poderosos en contra"

Exodus 7:6

y Aarón de ochenta y tres años
"y Aaron tenía ochenta y tres años"

Exodus 7:8

"Cuando Faraón les diga a ustedes: 'Hagan un milagro', tú le dirás a Aarón: 'Toma tu vara y lánzala delante de Faraón, para que se convierta en una serpiente.'" Esto podría ser declarado como una expresión indirecta. TA: "Cuando el Faraón te dice que hagas un milagro, entonces le dirás a Aarón que tome su

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

bastón y lo arroje ante el Faraón, para que se convierta en una serpiente"

Exodus 7:11

Tragó
¨comió" o "devoró"

El corazón de Faraón fue endurecido
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. TA: "El faraón se volvió más desafiante"

Exodus 7:14

El corazón de Faraón está duro.
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:11. TA: "Faraón es terco"

cuando él vaya para el agua
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. TA: "cuando baja al río Nilo para bañarse"

Exodus 7:16

Dile
Di a Faraón

Golpear el agua
"golpear el agua"

Exodus 7:19

a través de toda
"En cada parte"

Exodus 7:20

el corazón de Faraón fue endurecido
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:11. TA: "El faraón se volvió más desafiante"

En el río
El nombre del río puede hacerse explícito. TA: "en el río Nilo"

Exodus 7:23

Todos los egipcios
La palabra "todos" aquí es una exageración para enfatizar cuán serio fue el problema. TA: "Muchos de los egipcios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Luego el SEÑOR habló a Moisés, "Ve al Faraon y dile: 'el SEÑOR dice: Deja ir a mi pueblo para que me adore. 2 Si te niegas a dejarlos ir, Yo afligiré todo tu país con ranas. 3 El río se llenará de ranas. Saldrán e irán dentro de sus casas, sus dormitorios y sus camas. Entrarán en las casas de sus sirvientes. Irán a tu gente, a tus hornos y a tus envases de amasar. 4 Las ranas te atacarán a tí, a tu gente y a tus sirvientes.'" 5 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Dile a Aarón: Extiende tu mano y tu vara sobre los ríos, arroyos y charcas, y haz que salgan ranas sobre la tierra de Egipto." 6 Aarón extendió su mano sobre las aguas de Egipto y las ranas salieron y cubrieron la tierra de Egipto. 7 Pero los magos hicieron lo mismo con sus magias: ellos sacaron ranas sobre la tierra de Egipto. 8 Luego, Faraón llamó a Moisés y a Aarón y dijo: "Oren al SEÑOR para que saque las ranas de mí y de mi gente. Luego yo dejaré ir al pueblo, para que ellos puedan hacer sacrificio a Él. 9 Moisés dijo a Faraón: "Tú puedes tener el privilegio de decirme cuando debo orar por tí, tus siervos y tu gente, para que las ranas puedan ser sacadas de tí, tus casas y permanezcan solo en el río. 10 Faraón dijo: "Mañana." Moisés dijo: "Que sea como tu haz dicho, para que tu puedas saber que no hay nadie como el SEÑOR, nuestro Dios. 11 Las ranas se irán de tí, de tus casas y de tus sirvientes y de tu gente. Ellas permanecerán sólo en el río. 12 Moisés y Aarón salieron de la presencia de Faraón. Luego Moisés clamó al SEÑORconcerniente a las ranas que Él había traído al Faraón. 13 El SEÑOR hizo como Moisés pidió: los sapos murieron en las casas, las cortes y los campos. 14 La gente las reunió en pilas y la tierra apestaba. 15 Pero cuando Faraón vió que había alivio, endureció su corazón y no escuchó a Moisés ni a Aarón, así como el SEÑOR había dicho que haría. 16 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Dile a Aarón: 'Extiende tu vara y golpea el polvo de la tierra, para que pueda convertirse en jejenes a través de toda la tierra de Egipto'". 17 Ellos hicieron así: Aarón extendió su mano y su vara. Golpeó el polvo de la tierra. Jejenes llegaron hasta los hombres y las bestias. Todo el polvo de la tierra se convirtió en jejenes a través de toda la tierra de Egipto. 18 Los magos trataron de producir los jejenes con su magia, pero no pudieron. Había jejenes sobre las personas y los animales. 19 Los magos le dijeron al Faraón: "Esto es el dedo de Dios." Pero el corazón de Faraón estaba endurecido, así que se negó a escucharlos. Era justo como el SEÑOR había dicho que el Faraón haría. 20 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Levántate temprano en la mañana y ponte en pie frente al Faraón cuando él salga para el río. Dile: 'el SEÑOR dice: "Deja ir a mi pueblo para que puedan adorarme. 21 Si no dejas ir a mi pueblo, yo enviaré enjambres de moscas a tí, a tus sirvientes, a tu gente y al interior de tus casas. Las casas de los egipcios estarán llenas de enjambres de moscas y toda la tierra que ellos estén estará llena de moscas. 22 Pero en ese día, Yo trataré la tierra de Gosén diferente, la tierra donde mi pueblo está vivendo, para que los enjambres de moscas no estén a allí. Esto lo haré para que ustedes sepan que Yo Soy el el SEÑOR en medio de esta tierra. 23 Haré una distinción entre mi gente y tu gente. Esta señal de mi poder tomará lugar mañana.'" 24 El el SEÑOR hizo así, y densos enjambres de moscas vinieron a la casa de Faraón y a las casas de sus siervos. A través de toda la tierra de Egipto, la tierra fue arruinada por causa de los enjambres de moscas. 25 Faraón llamó a Moisés y a Aarón y les dijo: "vayan y hagan sacrificio a su Dios en nuestra tierra." 26 Moisés dijo: "No está bien para nosotros que hagamos eso, porque los sacrificios que hacemos al SEÑOR nuestro Dios son asquerosos para los egipcios. Si hacemos sacrificios delante de sus ojos, que son asquerosos para los egipcios, ¿no nos apedrearán? 27 No, es un viaje de tres días por el desierto el que tenemos que hacer, para así ofrecer el sacrificio al nuestro Dios, como Él nos ha ordenado." 28 Faraón dijo: "yo les permitiré ir y hacer sacrificio al SEÑOR su Dios en el desierto. Solo que no deben ir muy lejos y orad por mí. 29 Moisés dijo: "Tan pronto salga de tu presencia yo oraré al SEÑOR para que los enjambres de moscas los dejen a tí, Faraón, a tus siervos y a tu gente mañana. Pero tu no debes tratarnos de forma engañosa impidiendo a nuestra gente salir a ofrecer sacrificios al SEÑOR. 30 Moísés salió de la presencia de Faraón y oró al SEÑOR. 31 El SEÑOR hizo como Moísés le pidió: removió los enjambres de moscas de Faraón, sus siervos y su gente. Ninguna permaneció. 32 Pero Faraón endureció su corazón también esta vez y no dejó ir al pueblo.

Exodus 8:1

EL río
"El río Nilo"

envases de amasar
Estos son recipientes en los que se hace el pan.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 8:5

Aarón
Aarón fue hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para que sea el primer sumo sacerdote de Israel. Aaron ayudó a Moisés a hablar a Faraón sobre dejar ir libres a los israelitas. Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. *Dios también ungió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes [sacerdotes] (../kt/priest.md) para el pueblo de Israel. Ver tambien: priest, priesthood Moses Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

Vara
Una vara es un palo o varilla de madera larga, que a menudo se usa como bastón. Cuando Jacob era viejo, usé un bastón para ayudarlo a caminar. Dios convirtió la vara de Moisés en una serpiente para mostrar su poder al Faraón. Los pastores también usaban un cayado para ayudar a guiar a sus ovejas, o para rescatar a las ovejas cuando se caían o vagaban. El cayado del pastor tenía un gancho en el extremo, que era diferente de la vara del pastor, que era recta y se usaba para matar animales salvajes que intentaban atacar a las ovejas. Ver también: Pharaoh, king of Egypt power, powers sheep, ram, ewe shepherd, to shepherd

Egipto, Egipcio
Egipto es un país en la parte noreste de África, al suroeste de la tierra de Canaán. Un egipcio es una persona que es del país de Egipto. En la antigüedad, Egipto era un país poderoso y rico. El antiguo Egipto se dividió en dos partes, el Bajo Egipto (parte norte, donde el río Nilo desembocaba en el mar) y el Alto Egipto (parte sur). En el Antiguo Testamento, estas partes se conocen como "Egipto" y "Pathros" en el texto del idioma original. Varias veces, cuando había poca comida en Canaán, los patriarcas de Israel viajaron a Egipto para comprar comida para sus familias. Durante varios cientos de años, los israelitas fueron esclavos en Egipto. *José y María bajaron a Egipto con el niño Jesús, para escapar de Herodes el Grande. Ver también: Herod the Great Joseph (NT) Nile River, River of Egypt patriarchs

Agua, aguas
Además de su significado principal, "agua" también se refiere a un cuerpo de agua, como un océano, mar, lago o río. El término "aguas" se refiere a cuerpos de agua o muchas fuentes de agua. También puede ser una referencia general para una gran cantidad de agua. Un uso figurativo de "aguas" se refiere a gran angustia, dificultades y sufrimiento. Por ejemplo, Dios promete que cuando "atravesemos las aguas" él estará con nosotros. La frase "muchas aguas" enfatiza cuán grandes son las dificultades. "Aguar" al ganado y otros animales significa "proveer agua para" ellos. En los tiempos bíblicos, esto usualmente involucraba sacar agua de un pozo con un balde y verter el agua en un recipiente u otro recipiente para que los animales beban. En el Antiguo Testamento, a Dios se le conoce como el manantial o fuente de "aguas vivas" para su pueblo. Esto significa que él es la fuente del poder espiritual y el refrigerio. En el Nuevo Testamento, Jesús usó la frase "agua viva" para referirse al Espíritu Santo que trabaja en una persona para transformar y traer nueva vida. Sugerencias de traducción La frase "sacar agua" podría traducirse como "sacar agua de un pozo con un balde". "Flujos de agua viva fluirán de ellos" podría traducirse como "el poder y las bendiciones del Espíritu Santo fluirán de ellos como arroyos de agua". En lugar de "bendiciones", se podría utilizar el término "regalos" o "frutos" o "carácter piadoso". Cuando Jesús está hablando con la mujer samaritana en el pozo, la frase "agua viva" podría traducirse como "agua que da vida" o "agua vivificadora". En este contexto, las imágenes de agua deben mantenerse en la traducción. Dependiendo del contexto, el término "aguas" o "muchas aguas" podría traducirse como "gran sufrimiento" Ver también: life, live, living, alive spirit, spiritual Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord power, powers

Magia, mago
El término "magia" se refiere a la práctica de usar un poder sobrenatural que no proviene de Dios. Un "mago" es alguien que practica magia. En Egipto, cuando Dios hizo cosas milagrosas a través de Moisés, los magos del faraón egipcio pudieron hacer algunas de las mismas cosas, pero su poder no vino de Dios. La magia a menudo involucra lanzar hechizos o repetir ciertas palabras para hacer que algo sobrenatural suceda. Dios ordena a su pueblo que no haga ninguna de estas prácticas de magia o adivinación. Un hechicero es un tipo de mago, generalmente uno que usa magia para hacer daño a los demás. Ver también: divination, diviner, soothsaying, soothsayer Egypt, Egyptian Pharaoh, king of Egypt power, powers sorcery, sorcerer, witchcraft

Exodus 8:8

Luego, Faraón llamó a Moisés y a Aarón
"Entonces el faraón mandó llamar a Moisés ya Aarón"

Tú puedes tener el privilegio de decirme cuando debo orar por tí
"Puedes elegir cuándo rezaré por ti" o "Puedes elegir el momento en que debería orar por ti"

Exodus 8:10

Dios
En la Biblia, el término "Dios" se refiere al ser eterno que creó el universo de la nada. Dios existe como Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. El nombre personal de Dios es "El Señor". Dios siempre ha existido; existió antes de que existiera cualquier

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

otra cosa, y seguirá existiendo para siempre. Él es el único Dios verdadero y tiene autoridad sobre todo en el universo. Dios es perfectamente justo, infinitamente sabio, santo, sin pecado, justo, misericordioso y amoroso. Él es un Dios que guarda el pacto, que siempre cumple sus promesas. Las personas fueron creadas para adorar a Dios y él es el único a quien deben adorar. Dios reveló su nombre como "Yahvé", que significa "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que (siempre) existe". *La Biblia también enseña acerca de los "dioses" falsos que son ídolos no vivientes que las personas adoran erróneamente.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "Dios" podrían incluir "Deidad" o "Creador" o "Ser Supremo". Otras formas de traducir "Dios" podrían ser, "Creador Supremo" o "Señor Soberano Infinito" o "Ser Supremo Eterno". Considere cómo se hace referencia a Dios en un idioma local o nacional. Puede que ya haya una palabra para "Dios" en el idioma que se traduce. Si es así, es importante asegurarse de que esta palabra se ajuste a las características del único Dios verdadero como se describe anteriormente. Muchos idiomas ponen en mayúscula la primera letra de la palabra para el único Dios verdadero, para distinguirla de la palabra para un dios falso. Otra forma de hacer esta distinción sería usar dos términos diferentes para "Dios" y "dios". La frase "Yo seré su Dios y ellos serán mi pueblo" también podría traducirse como "Yo, Dios, gobernaré sobre estas personas y me adorarán". Ver también: idol, idolatrous Yahweh

Exodus 8:13

Endureció su corazón

"Faraón endureció su corazón". Aquí "endurecido" significa que se volvió terco.

Tal como el SEÑOR había dicho que haría

"tal como el Señor había dicho que el Faraón haría"

Exodus 8:16

Yahvé

El término "Yahvé" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. El nombre "Yahvé" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". Los posibles significados de "Yahvé" incluyen "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que causa ser". Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "el SEÑOR" para representar a "Yahvé". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre de Yahvé y comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Yahvé" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos de ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Yahvé", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Yahvé" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento.

Sugerencias de traducción

"Yahvé" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "yo soy" o "uno que vive" o "el que es" o "el que está vivo". Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Yahvé". *Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Yahvé" y en lugar de usar la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre Ver también: God lord, master, sir Lord Moses reveal, revelation

Moisés

Moisés fue un profeta y líder de los israelitas por más de 40 años. Cuando Moisés era un bebé, los padres de Moisés lo pusieron en una canasta en las cañas del río Nilo para esconderlo del faraón egipcio. La hermana de Moisés, Miriam, lo cuidó allí. La vida de Moisés se salvó cuando la hija del faraón lo encontró y lo llevó al palacio para criarlo como su hijo. Dios eligió a Moisés para liberar a los israelitas de la esclavitud en Egipto y para guiarlos a la Tierra Prometida. Después de que los israelitas escaparon de Egipto y mientras vagaban por el desierto, Dios le dio a Moisés dos tablas de piedra con los Diez Mandamientos escritos en ellos. Cerca del final de su vida, Moisés vio la Tierra Prometida, pero no pudo vivir en ella porque desobedeció a Dios. Ver también: Miriam Promised Land Ten Commandments

Aarón

Aarón fue hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para que sea el primer sumo sacerdote de Israel. -Aaron ayudó a Moisés a hablar a Faraón sobre dejar ir libres a los israelitas. -Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. -Dios también ungió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes [sacerdotes] (../kt/priest.md) para el pueblo de Israel. Ver tambien: priest, priesthood Moses Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

Exodus 8:18

Este es el dedo de Dios.

Las palabras "dedo de Dios" representan el poder de Dios. TA: "Esta es la poderosa obra de Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El corazón de Faraón estaba endurecido
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:11. TA: "El faraón se volvió más desafiante"

Exodus 8:20

ponte en pie frente al Faraón
"preséntate ante el faraón"

Deja ir a mi pueblo
"libera a mi gente"

Exodus 8:22

Información general
El Señor continúa hablando a Faraón a través de Moisés.

La tierra fue arruinada por causa de los enjambres de moscas.
Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. TA: "los enjambres de moscas devastaron la tierra"

Exodus 8:25

delante sus ojos
Esta era una forma habitual de decir "en presencia de alguien". TA: "en su presencia"

¿No nos apedrearán?
Moisés hace esta pregunta para mostrar a Faraón que los egipcios permitirían a los israelitas adorar a Yahvé. TA: "¡ciertamente nos apedrearán!"

Exodus 8:28

tu no debes tratarnos de forma engañosa impidiendo a nuestra gente salir a ofrecer sacrificios al SEÑOR Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. TA: "debe comenzar a tratar con sinceridad con nosotros y dejar que nuestra gente se vaya"

Pero tu no debes tratarnos de forma engañosa
"Pero de ninguna manera no nos engañes" o "Pero de ninguna manera no nos mientas"

Exodus 8:30

Faraón endureció su corazón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:11. AT: "El faraón se volvió más desafiante"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Ve a donde Faraón y dile a él, 'el SEÑOR, el Dios de los Hebreos, dice esto: "Deja ir a Mi pueblo para que ellos puedan adorarme a Mí.' 2 Pero si tú te niegas a dejarlos ir, si tú aún los retienes, 3 entonces la mano del SEÑOR estará sobre tu ganado en los campos y en los caballos, asnos, camellos, manadas, y rebaños, y causará una terrible enfermedad. 4 El SEÑOR tratará el ganado de Israel y el ganado de Egipto diferente: ningún animal que le pertenezca a los israelitas morirá. 5 El SEÑOR ha establecido un tiempo; Él ha dicho: 'Será mañana que yo haré ésta cosa en la tierra.'" 6 El SEÑOR hizo esto al siguiente día: todo el ganado de Egipto murió. Pero ninguno de los animales de los Israelitas murió, ni un sólo animal. 7 Faraón investigó, y, contemplad, ni un sólo animal de los Israelitas murió. Pero su corazón era terco, así que no dejó ir al pueblo. 8 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés y a Aarón: "Toma algunos puñados de cenizas de la caldera. Tú, Moisés, debes lanzar las cenizas al aire mientras Faraón observa. 9 Ellas se convertirán en polvo fino sobre toda la tierra de Egipto. Ellas causarán ampollas e irritaciones que brotarán sobre la gente y animales a través de toda la tierra de Egipto." 10 Así que Moisés y Aarón tomaron cenizas de la caldera y se pararon frente a Faraón. Entonces Moisés arrojó las cenizas al aire. Las cenizas causaron que ampollas e irritaciones brotaran sobre la gente y los animales. 11 Los magos no podían resistir a Moisés por causa las ampollas, porque las ampollas estaban sobre ellos y sobre todos los demás egipcios. 12 El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón, así que Faraón no escuchó a Moisés ni a Aarón. Esto era justamente lo que el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés que Faraón haría. 13 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Levántate temprano en la mañana, párate frente a Faraón, y dile a él: 'el SEÑOR, el Dios de los Hebreos, dice así: "Deja ir a Mi pueblo para que ellos me puedan adorar. 14 Porque para este tiempo Yo enviaré todas mis plagas sobre ti mismo, sobre tus sirvientes y tu pueblo. Yo haré esto para que tú sepas que no hay otro como Yo en toda la tierra. 15 A este punto, Yo pude haber extendido mi mano y haberte atacado a ti y a tu pueblo con enfermedades, y tú hubieras sido erradicado de la tierra. 16 Pero fue por esta razón que Yo permití que tú sobrevivieras: de manera que Yo pudiera mostrarte a ti Mi poder, para que Mi nombre pudiera ser proclamado a través de toda la tierra. 17 Tú todavía te estás levantando en contra de Mi pueblo al no dejarlos ir. 18 ¡Escucha! Mañana, para esta hora, Yo traeré una tormenta de granizo muy fuerte, como nunca antes ha sido vista en Egipto, desde el día que empezó hasta ahora. 19 Ahora pues, envía hombres y reúne tu ganado y todo lo que tienes en los campos en un lugar seguro. Todo hombre y animal que se encuentre en el campo y no es traído a casa --el granizo descenderá sobre ellos, y ellos morirán." 20 Entonces, aquellos sirvientes de Faraón quienes creyeron en el mensaje del SEÑOR se apresuraron a traer sus esclavos y ganado a sus casas. 21 Pero aquellos quienes no tomaron el mensaje del SEÑOR en serio dejaron sus esclavos y ganado en los campos. 22 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Extiende tu mano hacia el cielo para que haya granizo en toda la tierra de Egipto, sobre la gente, sobre animales, y sobre todas las plantas en los campos a través de la tierra de Egipto." 23 Moisés extendió con su vara hacia el cielo, y el SEÑOR envió truenos, granizo, y rayos al suelo. Él tambien hizo llover granizo sobre la tierra de Egipto. 24 Así que hubo granizo y relámpagos mezclados con granizo, muy severo, tal como nunca había ocurrido en la tierra de Egipto desde que se convirtió en nación. 25 A través de toda la tierra de Egipto, el granizo golpeó fuertemente todos los campos, tanto personas como animales. Golpeó fuertemente cada planta en los campos y partió cada árbol. 26 Sólo en la tierra de Gosén, donde los Israelitas vivían, no hubo granizo. 27 Entonces Faraón envió hombres a citar a Moisés y a Aarón. Él le dijo a ellos: "Yo he pecado esta vez. El SEÑOR es justo, y yo y mi pueblo somos malvados. 28 Ora al SEÑOR, porque los poderosos relámpagos y granizo son demasiado. Yo los dejaré ir, y ustedes no se quedarán aquí más tiempo." 29 Moisés le dijo a él: "Tan pronto como yo deje la ciudad, yo extenderé mis manos hacia el SEÑOR. El trueno se detendrá, y no habrá más granizo. De esta manera sabrás que la tierra le pertenece al SEÑOR. 30 Pero en cuanto a ti y a tus sirvientes, yo sé que ustedes realmente no honran al SEÑOR Dios." 31 Ahora, el lino y la cebada fueron arruinados, porque la cebada estaba madurando en su espiga y el lino estaba floreciente. 32 Pero el trigo y el centeno no recibieron daño porque era una cosecha tardía. 33 Cuando Moisés dejó a Faraón y la ciudad, él extendió sus manos hacia el SEÑOR; el trueno y el granizo se detuvo, y la lluvia dejó de caer. 34 Cuando Faraón vió que la lluvia, el granizo, y el trueno habían cesado, él pecó otra vez y endureció su corazón, junto con sus sirvientes. 35 El corazón de Faraón estaba endurecido, así que el no dejó ir al pueblo de Israel. Esta era la manera que el SEÑOR le había dicho a Moisés que Faraón actuaría.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 9:1

Información general
El SEÑOR continúa hablando con Moisés acerca de tratar con el Faraón y sacar al pueblo hebreo de Egipto.

si tú te niegas a dejarlos ir, si tú aún los retienes Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Ellos enfatizarán al Faraón lo que sucederá si Faraón hace esto. TA: "si continúas negándote a dejarlos ir"

Entonces la mano del SEÑOR estará sobre tu ganado.
La palabra "mano" aquí representa el poder del SEÑOR para afligir a sus animales con enfermedades. TA: "entonces el poder del Señor afligirá tu ganado"

sobre tu ganado
La palabra "tu" aquí se refiere a todas las personas de Egipto que poseían ganado.

El ganado de Israel
Aquí "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. TA: "el ganado que pertenece al pueblo de Israel"

El ganado de Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere al pueblo de Egipto. TA: "el ganado que pertenece al pueblo de Egipto"

Exodus 9:5

establecido un tiempo
"establecer una hora" o "designar una hora"

Todo el ganado de Egipto murió
Esto es exagerado para enfatizar la seriedad del evento.TA: "un gran número del ganado de Egipto murió"

El ganado de Egipto
Aquí "Egipto" se refiere al pueblo de Egipto. TA: "el ganado que pertenece al pueblo de Egipto"

Faraon investigó
Faraón recogió hechos sobre la situación.

contemplad
La palabra "contemplad" muestra que Faraón se sorprendió por lo que vio.

Su corazón era terco
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. TA: "se negó a cambiar de opinión"

Exodus 9:8

caldera
horno

Fino
Muy pequeño

brotarán
"para aparecer rápidamente en"

Exodus 9:11

El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 7:11. TA: "El SEÑOR hizo que el Faraón se volviera más desafiante"

Exodus 9:13

sobre ti mismo
Esto significa que incluso el faraón será herido por las plagas.

Haré esto para que tú sepas
La palabra "esto" se refiere a las plagas de las que Moisés acababa de hablarle a Faraón.

Exodus 9:15

Extendido mi mano y haberte atacado
Aquí "mi mano" se refiere al poder de Dios. TA: "usé mi poder para golpearte"

Para que mi nombre sea proclamado a través de toda la tierra.
Aquí "mi nombre" representa la reputación del Señor. TA: "para que la gente de todo el mundo sepa que soy grandioso"

Levantando en contra de mi pueblo
La oposición del faraón a dejar que Israel vaya a adorar al Señor se habla de que se estaba levantando como una barrera para ellos. (Ver: metáfora de los higos)

Exodus 9:18

¡Escucha!
"Presta atención a la cosa importante que te diré"

Exodus 9:20

Faraón rey de egipto
En la antigüedad, los reyes que gobernaban el país de Egipto se llamaban faraones. En total, más de 300 faraones gobernaron Egipto durante más de 2,000 años. Estos reyes egipcios eran muy poderosos y ricos. Varios de estos faraones se mencionan en la Biblia. A menudo, este título se utiliza como un nombre en lugar de como un título. En estos casos, está en mayúsculas y escrito como "Faraón". Ver también: king

Yahvé
El término "Yahvé" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. -El nombre "Yahvé" viene de la palabra

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

que significa "ser" o "existir". -Los posibles significados de "Yahvé" incluyen "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que causa ser". -Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. -Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "el SEÑOR" para representar a "Yahvé". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre de Yahvé y comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Yahvé" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos de ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Yahvé", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Yahvé" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento. Sugerencias de traducción -"Yahvé" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "yo soy" o "uno que vive" o "el que es" o "el que está vivo". -Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Yahvé". -Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Yahvé" y en lugar de usar la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre Ver también: God lord, master, sir Lord Moses reveal, revelation

siervo, esclavo, esclavitud

La palabra "siervo" también puede significar "esclavo" y se refiere a una persona que trabaja para otra persona, ya sea por elección o por la fuerza. El texto circundante generalmente deja en claro si se hace referencia a un sirviente o un esclavo. En los tiempos de la Biblia, había menos diferencia entre un siervo y un esclavo de lo que hay hoy. Tanto los sirvientes como los esclavos eran una parte importante de la casa de su amo y muchos eran casi como miembros de la familia. A veces, un sirviente elegiría convertirse en un sirviente de por vida para su amo. Un esclavo es un tipo de sirviente que es propiedad de la persona para quien trabaja. La persona que compra un esclavo se llama su "dueño" o "amo". Algunos amos tratan a sus esclavos con mucha crueldad, mientras que otros tratan a sus esclavos muy bien, como un sirviente que es un miembro valioso de la familia. En la antigüedad, algunas personas se convirtieron voluntariamente en esclavos de una persona a la que les debían dinero para pagar su deuda a esa persona. En la Biblia, la frase "Soy tu siervo" se usó como una señal de respeto y servicio a una persona de rango más alto, como un rey. No significa que la persona que hablaba fuera un verdadero sirviente. En el Antiguo Testamento, los profetas de Dios y otras personas que adoraban a Dios a menudo se conocen como sus "siervos". En el Nuevo Testamento, las personas que obedecen a Dios a través de la fe en Cristo a menudo se llaman sus "siervos". *Los cristianos también son llamados "esclavos de la justicia", que es una metáfora que compara el compromiso de obedecer a Dios con el compromiso de un esclavo de obedecer a su amo. Ver también:

Exodus 9:22

Yahvé

El término "Yahvé" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. -El nombre "Yahvé" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". -Los posibles significados de "Yahvé" incluyen "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que causa ser". -Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. -Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "el SEÑOR" para representar a "Yahvé". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre de Yahvé y comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Yahvé" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos de ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Yahvé", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Yahvé" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento. Sugerencias de traducción -"Yahvé" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "yo soy" o "uno que vive" o "el que es" o "el que está vivo". -Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Yahvé". -Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Yahvé" y en lugar de usar la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre Ver también: God lord, master, sir Lord Moses reveal, revelation

Moisés

Moisés fue un profeta y líder de los israelitas por más de 40 años. -Cuando Moisés era un bebé, los padres de Moisés lo pusieron en una canasta en las cañas del río Nilo para esconderlo del faraón egipcio. La hermana de Moisés, Miriam, lo cuidó allí. La vida de Moisés se salvó cuando la hija del faraón lo encontró y lo llevó al palacio para criarlo como su hijo. -Dios eligió a Moisés para liberar a los israelitas de la esclavitud en Egipto y para guiarlos a la Tierra Prometida. -Después de que los israelitas

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

escaparon de Egipto y mientras vagaban por el desierto, Dios le dio a Moisés dos tablas de piedra con los Diez Mandamientos escritos en ellos. -Cerca del final de su vida, Moisés vio la Tierra Prometida, pero no pudo vivir en ella porque desobedeció a Dios. Ver también: Miriam Promised Land Ten Commandments

Egipto, Egipcio
Egipto es un país en la parte noreste de África, al suroeste de la tierra de Canaán. Un egipcio es una persona que es del país de Egipto. -En la antigüedad, Egipto era un país poderoso y rico. -El antiguo Egipto se dividió en dos partes, el Bajo Egipto (parte norte, donde el río Nilo desembocaba en el mar) y el Alto Egipto (parte sur). En el Antiguo Testamento, estas partes se conocen como "Egipto" y "Pathros" en el texto del idioma original. -Varias veces, cuando había poca comida en Canaán, los patriarcas de Israel viajaron a Egipto para comprar comida para sus familias. -Durante varios cientos de años, los israelitas fueron esclavos en Egipto. -José y María bajaron a Egipto con el niño Jesús, para escapar de Herodes el Grande. Ver también: Herod the Great Joseph (NT) Nile River, River of Egypt patriarchs

cielo, cielo, cielo, celestial El término que se traduce como "cielo" se refiere a donde vive Dios. La misma palabra también puede significar "cielo", según el contexto. El término "cielos" se refiere a todo lo que vemos sobre la tierra, incluyendo el sol, la luna y las estrellas. También incluye los cuerpos celestes, como planetas lejanos, que no podemos ver directamente desde la tierra. El término "cielo" se refiere a la expansión azul sobre la tierra que tiene nubes y el aire que respiramos. A menudo, también se dice que el sol y la luna están "arriba en el cielo". En algunos contextos de la Biblia, la palabra "cielo" podría referirse al cielo o al lugar donde vive Dios. Cuando "el cielo" se usa figurativamente, es una forma de referirse a Dios. Por ejemplo, cuando Mateo escribe sobre el "reino de los cielos", se refiere al reino de Dios.

Sugerencias de traducción

Cuando "cielo" se usa figurativamente, podría traducirse como "Dios". Para el "reino de los cielos" en el libro de Mateo, es mejor mantener la palabra "cielo" ya que esto es distintivo del evangelio de Mateo. Los términos "cielos" o "cuerpos celestes" también podrían traducirse como "sol, luna y estrellas" o "todas las estrellas en el universo". La frase "estrellas del cielo" podría traducirse como "estrellas en el cielo" o "estrellas en la galaxia" o "estrellas en el universo". Ver también: kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

Vara
Aarón fue hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para que sea el primer sumo sacerdote de Israel. -Aaron ayudó a Moisés a hablar a Faraón sobre dejar ir libres a los israelitas. -Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. -Dios también ungió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes [sacerdotes] (../kt/priest.md) para el pueblo de Israel. Ver tambien: priest, priesthood Moses Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

Nación
Una nación es un gran grupo de personas gobernadas por algún tipo de gobierno. Las personas de una nación a menudo tienen los mismos antepasados y comparten una etnia común. El término "nación" generalmente incluye la idea de una cultura bien definida y límites territoriales. En la Biblia, una "nación" puede ser un país (como Egipto o Etiopía), pero a menudo es más general y se refiere a un grupo de personas, especialmente cuando se usa en plural. Es importante verificar el contexto. Las naciones en la Biblia incluían a los israelitas, los filisteos, los asirios, los babilonios, los cananeos, los romanos y los griegos, entre muchos otros. A veces, la palabra "nación" se usa en sentido figurado para referirse al antepasado de cierto grupo de personas, como cuando Dios le dijo a Rebeca que sus hijos no nacidos eran "naciones" que pelearían entre sí. Esto podría traducirse como "los fundadores de dos naciones" o los "ancestros de dos grupos de personas". *La palabra traducida como "nación" también se usa a veces para referirse a "gentiles" o a personas que no adoran al Señor. El contexto suele dejar claro el significado. Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, la palabra "nación" también podría traducirse como "grupo de personas" o "personas" o "país". Si un idioma tiene un término para "nación" que es distinto de estos otros términos, entonces ese término se puede usar dondequiera que aparezca en el texto de la Biblia, siempre que sea natural y preciso en cada contexto. El término plural "naciones" a menudo se puede traducir como "grupos de personas". En ciertos contextos, este término también podría traducirse como "gentiles" o "no judíos". Ver también: Assyria, Assyrian, Assyrian Empire Babylon, Babylonian Canaan, Canaanite Gentile Greek, Grecian people group, peoples, the people, a people Philistines Rome, Roman

Exodus 9:25

Egipto, egipcios
Egipto es un país en la parte noreste de África, al suroeste de la tierra de Canaán. Un egipcio es una persona que es del país de Egipto. -En la antigüedad, Egipto era un país poderoso y rico. -El antiguo Egipto se dividió en dos partes, el Bajo Egipto (parte norte, donde el río Nilo desembocaba en el mar) y el Alto Egipto (parte sur). En el Antiguo Testamento, estas partes se conocen como "Egipto" y "Pathros" en el texto del idioma original. -Varias veces, cuando había poca comida en Canaán, los patriarcas de Israel viajaron a Egipto

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para comprar comida para sus familias. -Durante varios cientos de años, los israelitas fueron esclavos en Egipto. -José y María bajaron a Egipto con el niño Jesús, para escapar de Herodes el Grande. Ver también: Herod the Great Joseph (NT) Nile River, River of Egypt patriarchs

Gosén
Gosén es el nombre de una región fértil de tierra que estaba ubicada a lo largo del río Nilo en la parte norte de Egipto. Cuando José era un gobernante en Egipto, su padre, sus hermanos y sus familias vinieron a vivir a Goshen para escapar del hambre en Canaán. Ellos y sus descendientes vivieron bien en Gosén por más de 400 años, pero luego fueron forzados a la esclavitud por el faraón egipcio. Finalmente, Dios envió a Moisés para ayudar al pueblo de Israel a abandonar la tierra de Gosén y escapar de esta esclavitud. Ver también: Egypt, Egyptian famine Moses Nile River, River of Egypt

Israel, Israelitas, nación de Israel.
El término "Israel" es el nombre que Dios le dio a Jacob. Significa, "él lucha con Dios". Los descendientes de Jacob fueron conocidos como el "pueblo de Israel", la "nación de Israel" o los "israelitas". Dios formó su pacto con el pueblo de Israel. Eran su pueblo elegido. La nación de Israel estaba formada por doce tribus. Poco después de la muerte del rey Salomón, Israel fue dividido en dos reinos: el reino del sur, llamado "Judá" y el reino del norte, llamado "Israel". *A menudo, el término "Israel" se puede traducir como "el pueblo de Israel" o "la nación de Israel", según el contexto. Ver también: Jacob, Israel kingdom of Israel Judah, kingdom of Judah nation twelve tribes of Israel

Exodus 9:27

Convocar
"llamar"

Exodus 9:29

Moisés le dijo
"Moisés le dijo a Faraón"

Extenderé mis manos hacia el SEÑOR
Este gesto simbólico acompaña a la oración. TA: "levantaré mis manos y oraré al Señor" (UDB) (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Honran al SEÑOR Dios
Honrar a Dios implica obedecerlo y vivir de una manera que muestre lo bueno que es.

Exodus 9:31

Lino
Esta es una planta que produce fibras que pueden convertirse en lienzos.

Cebada
Este es un tipo de grano usado para hacer pan; También se utiliza para la alimentación del ganado.

centeno
Este es un tipo de trigo.

Extendió sus manos al SEÑOR
Este gesto simbólico acompaña a la oración. TA: "levantó sus manos hacia el Señor y oró" (UDB). Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 9:29. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Exodus 9:34

Endureció su corazón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. TA: "se volvió más desafiante"

El corazón de Faraón estaba endurecido
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:11. TA: "El faraón se volvió más desafiante"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 El el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Ve a Faraón, pues he endurecido su corazón y los corazones de sus sirvientes. He hecho esto para mostrar las señales de mi poder entre ellos. 2 También he hecho esto para que le puedas contar a tus hijos y nietos las cosas que he hecho, cúan fuertemente he tratado a Egipto y cómo he dado varias señales de mi poder entre ellos. De esta forma sabrás que yo soy el el SEÑOR." 3 Así que Moisés y Aarón fueron a Faraón y le dijeron: "el SEÑOR, el Dios de los hebreos, dice esto: '¿Por cuánto tiempo te rehusarás a humillarte delante de mí? Deja ir a mi pueblo para que me puedan alabar. 4
Pero si te rehúsas en dejar a mi pueblo ir, escucha, mañana enviaré langostas a tu tierra. 5 Estas cubrirán la superficie del suelo para que nadie pueda ver la tierra. Comerán los restos de lo que sea que haya escapado del granizo. Estas también comerán de todo árbol que crece para ti en los campos. 6 Estas llenarán tus casas, las de tus sirvientes y las de todos los egipcios—algo que ni tu padre ni tu abuelo jamás haya visto, nada que se haya visto desde el día que estuvieron en esta tierra hasta este día.''' Luego Moisés se fue y se retiró de Faraón. 7 Los sirvientes del Faraón le dijeron: "¿Por cuánto tiempo este hombre será una amenaza para nosotros? Deja ir a los israelitas para que alaben al SEÑOR su Dios.
¿Todavía no entiendes que Egipto está destruído?" 8 Moisés y Aarón fueron traídos otra vez al Faraón, quien les dijo: "Vayan y alaben al SEÑOR su Dios. Pero ¿qué pueblo irá?" 9 Moisés dijo: "Nos iremos con nuestros jóvenes y nuestros ancianos, con nuestros hijos y nuestras hijas. Nos iremos con nuestros rebaños y manadas, pues celebraremos un festival para el SEÑOR." 10 Faraón les dijo: "Que el SEÑOR esté con ustedes, si en algún momento los dejo ir y a sus pequeños. Miren, tienen malas intenciones. 11
¡No! Vayan sólo con los hombres de entre ustedes y alaben al SEÑOR, pues eso es lo que quieren." Luego
Moisés y Aarón fueron echados fuera de la presencia de Faraón. 12 Luego el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés:
"Extiende con tu mano sobre la tierra de Egipto a las langostas, para que estas puedan atacar la tierra de Egipto y comer cada planta que hay en ella, todo lo que el granizo dejó." 13 Moisés extendió con su vara sobre la tierra de Egipto y el SEÑOR trajo un viento del este sobre la tierra todo ese día y esa noche.
Cuando fue de mañana, el viento del este trajo las langostas. 14 Las langostas recorrieron toda la tierra de Egipto e infectaron todas sus partes. Nunca antes hubo un enjambre de langostas en la tierra y nada como esto vendrá después. 15 Cubrieron la superficie de toda la tierra para que hubiera oscuridad. Se comieron cada planta de la tierra y todas las frutas de los árboles que el granizo dejó. En toda la tierra de Egipto no quedó planta verde, ni árbol o planta en los campos. 16 Luego el Faraón rápidamente convocó a Moisés y Aarón y dijo: "He pecado contra el SEÑOR su Dios y contra ustedes. 17 Ahora bien, perdonen mi pecado esta vez y oren al SEÑOR su Dios para que él aparte de mí esta muerte." 18 Así que Moisés se apartó de delante del Faraón y oró al SEÑOR. 19 El SEÑOR trajo un fuerte viento del oeste que recogió todas las langostas y las arrastró al Mar Rojo; ni una langosta quedó en todo el territorio de Egipto. 20
Pero el SEÑOR endureció el corazón del Faraón y Faraón no dejó ir a los israelitas. 21 Luego el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Extiende tu mano hacia el cielo para que haya oscuridad sobre la tierra de Egipto, oscuridad que pueda ser sentida." 22 Moisés extendió su mano hacia el cielo y hubo una densa oscuridad en toda la tierra de Egipto por tres días. 23 Nadie podía ver nada; ninguno salió de su casa por tres días.
Sin embargo, todos los israelitas tenían luz en el lugar donde vivían. 24 Faraón convocó a Moisés y dijo:
"Ve a alabar al SEÑOR. Hasta tus familias pueden ir contigo, pero tus rebaños y manadas se deben quedar." 25 Pero Moisés dijo: "Nos debes dar también animales para sacrificios y holocaustos para que los podamos sacrificar para el SEÑOR nuestro Dios. 26 Nuestro ganado también debe ir con nosotros; ni una pezuña de ellos se quedará atrás, pues nosotros debemos tomarlos para alabar al SEÑOR nuestro Dios.
Pues nosotros no sabemos con qué debemos alabar al SEÑOR hasta que lleguemos allí." 27 Pero el SEÑOR endureció el corazón del Faraón y no los dejó ir. 28 Faraón dijo a Moisés: "¡Apártate de mí! Ten cuidado de una cosa, que no me vuelvas a ver, pues en el día que me veas el rostro, morirás." 29 Moisés dijo: "Tú mismo has hablado. Yo no volveré a ver tu rostro."

Exodus 10:1

pues he endurecido su corazón y los corazones de sus sirvientes.
El Señor habla de hacer que el faraón y sus siervos sean tercos como si les estuviera haciendo el corazón duro. Vea cómo tradujo "El Señor endureció el corazón de Faraón" en 9:11.

varias
"muchos diferentes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 10:3

Escucha
Esta palabra agrega énfasis a lo que se dice a continuación. TA: "Preste atención a lo que voy a decirle"

Exodus 10:5

Granizo
Granizos son gotas de lluvia que se congelan mientras que cae de las nubes.

Nada que se haya visto
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "nada que nadie haya visto"

Exodus 10:7

Amenaza
Una "amenaza" es alguien que trae problemas o daños.

¿Por cuánto tiempo este hombre será una amenaza para nosotros?
Los sirvientes del faraón hacen esta pregunta para mostrarle al faraón el alcance de la destrucción en Egipto. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡No podemos permitir que este hombre continúe causándonos problemas!"

¿Todavía no entiendes que Egipto está destruido?
Los sirvientes del faraón hacen esta pregunta para que el faraón reconozca lo que se niega a ver. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Debes darte cuenta de que Egipto está destruido!"

Que Egipto está destruido
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "que estas plagas han destruido Egipto" o "que su Dios ha destruido Egipto"

Exodus 10:9

si en algún momento los dejo ir y a sus pequeños
Faraón dice esto para enfatizar que no permitiría que Moisés se llevara a los niños con ellos para adorar al Señor

Luego Moisés y Aarón fueron echados fuera de la presencia de Faraón Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Entonces el Faraón expulsó a Moisés y Aarón de su presencia" o "Entonces el Faraón hizo que sus siervos expulsaran a Moisés y Aarón de su presencia"

Exodus 10:12

mano, mano derecha, a entregar
Hay varias formas figurativas en que la "mano" se usa en la Biblia: "Darle" algo a alguien significa poner algo en las manos de esa persona. El término "mano" se usa a menudo en referencia al poder y la acción de Dios, como cuando Dios dice: "¿No hizo mi mano todas estas cosas?" Las expresiones como "entregar a" o "entregar en las manos de" se refieren a hacer que alguien esté bajo el control o el poder de otra persona. Poner las manos sobre alguien a menudo se hace mientras se dice una bendición sobre esa persona. El término "imposición de manos" se refiere a poner una mano sobre una persona para dedicar a esa persona al servicio de Dios o para orar por sanidad. Algunos otros usos figurativos de "mano" incluyen: "Poner una mano en" significa "dañar". "Salvar de la mano de" significa evitar que alguien dañe a otra persona. Estar "a la mano" significa estar "cerca". La posición de estar "en la mano derecha" significa "en el lado derecho" o "a la derecha". La expresión "de la mano de" alguien significa "por" o "a través de" la acción de esa persona. Por ejemplo, "por la mano del Señor" significa que el Señor es el que causó que algo sucediera. *Cuando Pablo dice "escrito por mi mano", significa que esta parte de la carta fue escrita físicamente por él, en lugar de hablarle a otra persona para que la escriba.

Sugerencias de traducción

*Estas expresiones y otras figuras del habla se podrían traducir usando otras expresiones figurativas que tienen el mismo significado. O el significado podría traducirse utilizando un lenguaje directo y literal. Ver también:adversary, enemy bless, blessed, blessing captive, captivity honor, to honor power, powers

Vara
Una vara es un palo o varilla de madera larga, que a menudo se usa como bastón. -Cuando Jacob era viejo, usé un bastón para ayudarlo a caminar. -Dios convirtió la vara de Moisés en una serpiente para mostrar su poder al Faraón. -Los pastores también usaban un cayado para ayudar a guiar a sus ovejas, o para rescatar a las ovejas cuando se caían o vagaban. -El cayado del pastor tenía un gancho en el extremo, que era diferente de la vara del pastor, que era recta y se usaba para matar animales salvajes que intentaban atacar a las ovejas. Ver también: Pharaoh, king of Egypt power, powers sheep, ram, ewe shepherd, to shepherd

Exodus 10:14

para que hubiera oscuridad
Había tantas langostas que la tierra parecía estar oscura. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "para que oscurecieran la tierra" o "para que la tierra apareciera oscura"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 10:16

Esta vez
"Una vez más"

para que él aparte de mí esta muerte
La palabra "muerte" aquí se refiere a la destrucción por las langostas de todas las plantas en Egipto, que eventualmente llevaría a la muerte de personas porque no había cultivos. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. TA: "detener esta destrucción que llevará a nuestra muerte"

Exodus 10:19

Recogió todas las langostas
"movió las langostas hacia arriba"

El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 9:11. TA: "hizo que el Faraón se volviera más desafiante"

Exodus 10:21

Oscuridad que pueda ser sentida
El Señor habla de la oscuridad extrema como si fuera tan espesa que la gente la pueda agarrar con las manos. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "densa oscuridad que la gente puede agarrar con sus manos"

Exodus 10:24

ni una pezuña de ellos se quedará atrás Aquí la palabra "pata" se refiere a todo el animal. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "no podemos dejar atrás un solo animal"

Exodus 10:27

El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 9:11. TA: "hizo que el Faraón se volviera más desafiante"

no los dejó ir
"Faraón no los dejaría ir"

Ten cuidado de una cosa
"Asegúrese de una cosa" o "Esté seguro de una cosa"

Veas mi rostro
Aquí la palabra "rostro" se refiere a toda la persona. TA: "me ves"

Tu mismo has hablado
Con estas palabras, Moisés enfatiza que Faraón ha dicho la verdad. TA: "Lo que has dicho es cierto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Entonces el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Aún hay una plaga más que traeré sobre Faraón y Egipto. Después de esto, él te dejará ir de aquí. Cuando finalmente te deje ir, te guiará completamente fuera. 2 Instruye a tu pueblo para que todo hombre y toda mujer pida a su prójimo por artículos de plata y oro." 3 En este momento el SEÑOR había hecho que los Egipcios quisieran complacer a los israelitas. Más aún, el hombre, Moisés había logrado la aprobación a la vista de todos los sirvientes de Faraón y al pueblo de Egipto. 4 Moisés dijo: "El SEÑOR dice esto: 'A medianoche pasaré por Egipto. 5 Todo primogénito de la tierra de Egipto morirá, desde el primogénito de Faraón, sentado en su trono, hasta el primogénito de la mujer esclava que se sienta detrás del molino y el primogénito del ganado. 6 Habrá un gran clamor por toda la tierra de Egipto, como el que nunca ha habido y el que nunca volverá a haber. 7 Pero ni aún un perro ladrará contra el pueblo de Israel, ni contra hombre o bestia. De esta manera sabrán que estoy tratando a los egipcios y los israelitas de manera distinta'. 8 Todos tus sirvientes, Faraón, llegarán a mí y se inclinarán ante mí. Ellos dirán: '¡Vayan, ustedes y todo su pueblo que los persiguen!'. Luego de esto yo saldré." Luego él partió con gran ira de la presencia del Faraón. 9 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Faraón no te escuchará. Esto es por que yo haré muchas maravillas en la tierra de Egipto." 10 Moisés y Aarón hicieron maravillas ante Faraón. Pero el SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón, y Faraón no dejó que el pueblo de Israel saliera de su tierra.

Exodus 11:1

Él te dejará ir
Cada aparición de la palabra "te" en este verso es plural y se refiere a Moisés y al resto de los israelitas.

Exodus 11:4

Medianoche
Este es el horario de 12 am (por la noche) o 2400 horas.

Todo primogénito ... el primogénito de Faraón ... el primogénito de la mujer esclava ... el primogénito del ganado
El "primogénito" siempre se refiere a la descendencia masculina más antigua.

sentado en su trono
Esta frase se refiere a Faraón.

se sienta detrás del molino
"quién está moliendo en el molino de mano" o "quién está detrás del molino de mano moliendo grano"

Exodus 11:6

Luego de esto yo saldré
Esto significa que Moisés y el pueblo de Israel dejarán Egipto. TA: "Después de eso me iré de aquí" o "Después de eso saldré de Egipto"

Exodus 11:9

El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 9:11. TA: "hizo que el Faraón se volviera más desafiante"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y a Aarón en la tierra de Egipto. Él dijo: 2 "Para ustedes este mes será el comienzo de meses, el primer mes del año para ustedes. 3 Digan a la asamblea de Israel: 'En el décimo día de este mes deben coger una oveja o un cabro jóven para ellos, cada familia haciéndo esto, una oveja para cada hogar. 4 Si el hogar es muy pequeño para un cordero, el hombre y su vecino deben coger suficiente carne de cordero o cabrito que sea suficiente para el número de personas. Debe ser suficiente para que todos coman, así que deben coger suficiente carne para alimentarlos a todos. 5 Tus corderos o cabritos debe estar sin defecto, un macho de un año. Ustedes pueden coger una oveja o cabros. 6 Lo deben mantener hasta el día catorce de ese mes. Después toda la asamblea de Israel debe matar estos animales en el crepúsculo. 7 Deben coger alguna de la sangre y ponerla en las jambas de puertas y los marcos de las puertas de las casas donde comerán la carne. 8 Deben comer la carne esa noche, luego de asarla sobre el fuego. Cómanla con pan hecho sin levadura, junto con hierbas amargas. 9 No se la coman cruda o hervida en agua. En vez deben asarla sobre el fuego con su cabeza, las patas, y sus partes internas. 10 No deben dejar que quede nada de él en la mañana. Deben quemar cualquier cosa que sobre en la mañana. 11 Así es como se debe comer: con tu correa amarrada, tus zapatos puestos en tus pies, tu callado en tu mano. Debes comerla rápido. Eso es la Pascua del SEÑOR. 12 El SEÑOR dice así: Iré a traves de la tierra de Egipto en la noche y atacaré a todo primogénito de hombre o animal en la tierra de Egipto. Traeré castigo a todos los dioses de Egipto. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 13 La sangre será señal en sus casas para Mi venida a ustedes. Cuando Yo vea la sangre, Yo pasaré sobre ustedes cuando ataque la tierra de Egipto. Esta plaga no vendrá a ustedes y no los destruirá. 14 Este día se convertirá en un día de recordatorio para ustedes, y que deben observar como un festival al SEÑOR. Siempre sera una ley para ustedes, a lo largo de las generaciones de su pueblo deben observar este día. 15 Comerán el pan sin levadura durante siete días. En el primer día removerán la levadura de sus casas. Cualquiera que coma levadura el pan desde el primer día hasta el séptimo día, esa persona será cortada de Israel. 16 En el primer día habrá una asamblea apartada para Mí, y en el séptimo día habrá una reunión. Ningún trabajo se hará en estos días, excepto cocinar para que todos coman. Ese debe ser el único trabajo hagan ustedes. 17 Deben observar este Festival del pan sin levadura porque es en este día en que habré traído a su pueblo, grupo armado por grupo armado, fuera de la tierra de Egipto. Así que deben observar este día a traves de las generaciones. Esta siempre será una ley para ustedes. 18 Deben comer pan sin levadura desde el crepúsculo del día catorce en el primer mes del año hasta el crepúsculo del día veintiuno del mes. 19 Durante estos siete días, no se encontrará levadura en sus casas. Cualquiera que coma pan hecho con levadura debe ser cortado de la comunidad de Israel, sea un extranjero o alguien nacido en tu tierra. 20 No deben comer nada con levadura. Dondequiera que vivan, deben comer pan sin levadura". 21 Luego Moisés convocó a los ancianos de Israel y les dijo: "Vayan y seleccionen ovejas o cabritos que sean suficientes para alimentar sus familias y maten al cordero de la Pascua. 22 Despues cojan un manojo de hisopo y mójenlo en la sangre que va a estar en la cuenca. Apliquen la sangre que está en la vasija en la parte alta del marco de la puerta y los dos postes de las puertas. Ninguno de ustedes debe salir por la puerta hasta que llegue la mañana. 23 Porque el SEÑOR pasará y atacará los Egipcios. Cuando Él vea la sangre en el marco de la puerta y en los postes de las puertas, Él pasará por sus puerta y no permitirá al destructor que entre en sus casas a atacarlos. 24 Deben observar este evento. Está siempre será una ley para ustedes y sus descendientes. 25 Cuando entren a la tierra que el SEÑOR les dará, así como les ha prometido, deben observar este acto de adoración. 26 Cuando sus hijos les pregunten: '¿Qué significa este acto de adoración?' 27 entonces ustedes tienen que decir: 'Es el sacrificio de la Pascua del SEÑOR, porque el SEÑOR pasó sobre las casas de los Israelitas en Egipto cuando atacó a los Egipcios. Él liberó a los Israelitas'". Entonces la gente se postró y adoró al SEÑOR. 28 Los Israelitas fueron y hicieron exactamente como el SEÑOR le había mandado a Moisés y Aarón. 29 Pasó a la media noche que el SEÑOR atacó a todo primogénito en la tierra de Egipto, desde el primogénito de Faraón, quien se sentaba en su trono, hasta el primogénito de los que estaban en la cárcel y a todo primogénito del ganado. 30 Faraón se levantó de noche, él y todos los siervos y todos los Egipcios. Y hubó un gran lamento en Egipto, porque no había casa en donde no hubiera alguien muerto. 31 Faraón llamó a Moisés y a Aarón en la noche y dijo: "Levántense, y vállanse de mi pueblo, ustedes y los Israelitas. Vayan, adoren al SEÑOR, como han dicho que querían hacer. 32 Tomen también sus rebaños y sus manadas, como han dicho y váyanse, y también bendíganme". 33 Los Egipcios estaban en un gran apuro para sacarlos de la tierra, porque decían: "Todos somos muertos." 34 Entonces el pueblo cogió la masa sin añadirle ninguna levadura. Sus platos de amasar ya estaban amarrados, en sus ropas y en sus hombros. 35 Ahora el pueblo de Israel hiso lo que dijo Moisés. Y pidieron a los Egipcios objetos de plata, objetos de oro, y ropa. 36 El SEÑOR hizo que los Egipcios se sintieran ansiosos de complacer a los Israelitas. Así que Egipcios les dieron todo lo que ellos pidieron. De esta manera, los Israelitas saquearon a los Egipcios. 37 Los Iraelitas viajaron de Ramsés hasta Sucot. Ellos eran unos 600, 000 hombres a pie, en adición de las mujeres y los niños. 38 Una multitud mixta que no era de Israelitas también fue con ellos, junto con sus rebaños y manadas, una gran cantidad de ganado. Ellos hornearon pan sin levadura con la masa que trajeron de Egipto. 39 Era sin levadura porque habían sido sacados de Egipto y no podían retrasarse para preparar la comida. 40 Los Israelitas habían vivido en Egipto por 430 años. 41 Al final de los 430 años, ese mismo día, todos los groupos armados del SEÑOR salieron de la tierra de Egipto. 42 Esta fue la noche de permanecer despiertos, para el SEÑOR sacarlos de la tierra de Egipto. Esta fue la noche del SEÑOR para ser celebrada por todos los Israelitas a través de las generaciones del pueblo. 43 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés y a Aarón: "Esta es la ordenanza de la Pascua: ningún extranjero puede participar de la comida. 44 Sin embargo, todo esclavo de Israelitas, comprado con dinero, podrá comerlo depués de que lo hayan circuncidado. 45 Los extranjeros y los jornaleros no pueden comer de ningun alimento. 46 La comida tiene ser comida en una casa. No puede sacar la carne fuera de la casa, y no puede partir ninguno de los huesos. 47 Toda la comunidad de Isreal debe celebrar el festival. 48 Si un extranjero reside con ustedes y quiere celebrar la Pascua para el SEÑOR, todos los familiares varones deben ser circuncidados. Entonces él puede venir y observarla. Vendrá a ser como la gente nacida en la tierra. Sin embargo, ninguna persona incircuncisa puede comer nada de la comida. 49 Esta misma ley se aplicará tanto para nativos como para extranjeros que vivan entre ustedes". 50 Así que todos los Israelitas hicieron exactamente como el SEÑOR había encomendado a Moisés y Aarón. 51 Y aquel mismo dia, el SEÑOR sacó a los Israelitas de la tierra de Egipto por sus ejércitos.

Exodus 12:1

"Para ustedes este mes será el comienzo de meses, el primer mes del año para ustedes
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que el mes en que se llevarán a cabo los eventos de este capítulo será el comienzo de su año calendario.

El primer mes del año
El primer mes del calendario hebreo incluye la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales. Marca cuando El SEÑOR rescató a los israelitas de los egipcios.

Exodus 12:3

Si el hogar es demasiado pequeño para una oveja.
Esto significa que no hay suficientes personas en la familia para comer una oveja entera. TA: "Si no hay suficientes personas en el hogar para comer un cordero entero"

El hombre y su vecino
Aquí "el hombre" se refiere al hombre que es el líder de la casa.

Exodus 12:5

Crepúsculo
Esto se refiere a la hora de la tarde después de que el sol se haya puesto, pero mientras todavía hay algo de luz.

en las jambas de puertas y los marcos de las puertas de las casas
"En los costados y en la parte superior del camino hacia la casa".

Cómanla con pan hecho sin levadura
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Cómelo con pan que has hecho sin levadura"

Hierbas amargas
Estas son plantas pequeñas que tienen un sabor fuerte y usualmente malo.

Exodus 12:9

No se la coman cruda
"No comas el cordero o la cabra crudos"

No debes dejar que quede nada hasta la mañana.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "No deje nada de eso hasta la mañana"

correa amarrada
Esto se refiere a una tira de cuero o tela para atar alrededor de la cintura.

Debes comerla rápido
"comelo rapido"

Eso la pascua del SEÑOR
Aquí la palabra "eso" se refiere a comer al animal el décimo día del mes. TA: "Esta observancia es la Pascua del Señor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 12:12

Traeré castigo a todos los dioses de Egipto.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma verbal. TA: "Castigaré a todos los dioses de Egipto"

Para mi venida a ti
Esto implica que El Señor verá la sangre que indica un hogar israelita. TA: "que veré cuando llegue a ti"

Yo pasaré sobre ustedes
Las palabras "pasar sobre ustedes" eran una forma habitual de decir no visitar o entrar. TA: "No entraré en tu casa" (Ver: idioma de perros)

Para ustedes, a lo largo de las generaciones de su pueblo.
"Para ustedes y para todas las generaciones de sus descendientes".

Exodus 12:15

Esa persona debe ser cortada de israel
La metáfora "cortado" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Pueden expresarse en forma activa: 1) "el pueblo de Israel debe enviarlo lejos" o 2) "Ya no lo consideraré como uno de los pueblos de Israel" o 3) "el pueblo de Israel debe matarlo" . "

Una asamblea que me es apartada.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "un conjunto que me has separado"

No se trabajará en estos días.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "No vas a trabajar en estos días"

Ese debe ser el único trabajo que usted puede hacer.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Ese debe ser el único trabajo que haces"

Exodus 12:17

Grupo armado por grupo armado.
El término utilizado para estos grupos es un término militar que se refiere a un gran número de soldados. TA: "división por división" o "regimiento por regimiento"

Crepúsculo
Esto se refiere a la hora de la tarde después de que el sol se haya puesto, pero mientras todavía hay algo de luz. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 12: 5.

día catorce en el primer mes Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. El decimocuarto día está cerca de principios de abril en los calendarios occidentales. (Ver: y

día veintiuno del mes
"el vigésimo primer día del primer mes". Esto es cerca de mediados de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

Exodus 12:19

no se encontrará levadura en sus casas
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "no debe haber levadura en sus casas"

Debe ser cortado de la comunidad de Israel.
La metáfora "cortado" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Pueden expresarse en forma activa: 1) "el pueblo de Israel debe enviarlo lejos" o 2) "Ya no lo consideraré como uno de los pueblos de Israel" o 3) "el pueblo de Israel debe matarlo". Vea cómo tradujo "debe ser cortado de Israel" en 12:15.

Pan sin levadura
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 12: 5. TA: "pan que has hecho sin levadura" (ver: activo o pasivo)

Exodus 12:21

Convocó
"oficialmente llamado"

Hisopo
Esta es una planta de la familia de la menta, que es leñosa y se usa para ramitas delgadas.

La parte alta del marco de la puerta y los dos postes de la puerta.
"En los costados y en la parte superior del camino hacia la casa". Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 12: 5.

Exodus 12:23

Pasará por sus puertsa
Aquí la palabra "puerta" implica toda la casa. Esto significa que Dios perdonará a los israelitas en casas con sangre en las puertas.TA: "pasare por alto tu casa"

Exodus 12:24

Este evento ... este acto de adoración
Estas frases se refieren a la Pascua o Fiesta de Panes sin Levadura. La observación de la Pascua fue un acto de adoración al Señor.

Exodus 12:26

Él liberó a los Israelitas
Esto significa que El Señor perdonó a los primogénitos de los israelitas. TA: "No mató a los primogénitos en nuestras casas"

Como el Señor lo había mandado a Moisés y a Aarón.
"todo lo que el Señor le dijo a Moisés y Aarón que hicieran"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 12:29

A la media noche
"En medio de la noche"

Todos los primogénitos en la tierra de Egipto ... Todos los primogénitos del ganado.
Aquí, "primogénito" siempre se refiere a la descendencia masculina de más edad. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 11: 4.

quien se sentaba en su trono
Esto se refiere a Faraón.

el primogénito de los que estaban en la cárcel
"Al primogénito de los presos". Esto se refiere a los presos, en general, y no a una persona específica en prisión.

hubó un gran lamento en Egipto Esto se puede afirmar de forma verbal. TA: "Todos los egipcios lloraron en voz alta"

Porque no había una casa donde no hubiera alguien muerto.
Este doble negativo enfatiza lo positivo. TA: "porque alguien murió en cada casa"

Exodus 12:31

Todos somos muertos
Los egipcios usan el tiempo presente para enfatizar que seguramente morirán si los israelitas no se fueron de Egipto. TA: "Todos moriremos si no te vas"

Exodus 12:34

Sus platos de amasar ya estaban amarrados, en sus ropas y en sus hombros Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Ya habían amarrado sus tazones amasados en sus ropas y en sus hombros"

Exodus 12:37

Ramsés.
Ramsés era una importante ciudad egipcia donde se almacenaba el grano. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:11.

Ellos eran unos 600,000 hombres a pie
"El número total de hombres fue 600,000"

Pan sin levadura con la masa.
"Pan con masa que no contenía levadura"

Habían sido sacados de Egipto.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "los egipcios los habían expulsado de Egipto"

Exodus 12:41

Grupos armados del Señor.
Esto se refiere a las tribus de Israel. Vea cómo tradujo "grupo armado" en 12:17.

Para ser celebrada por todos los israelitas.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "que todos los israelitas debían observar"

Todos los israelitas a través de las generaciones del pueblo.
"Todos los israelitas y todas las generaciones de sus descendientes"

Exodus 12:43

Ningún extranjero puede participar de la comida
"comida" se refiere a la comida de la Pascua.

todo esclavo de Israelitas
"cualquier esclavo de un israelita"

Comprado con dinero.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "a quien el israelita ha comprado con dinero"

Exodus 12:45

La comida tiene que ser en una casa.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Cada familia israelita debe comer la comida en una casa" no puede partir ninguno de los huesos.

"No debes romper ninguno de sus huesos".

Exodus 12:47

todos los familiares varones deben ser circuncidados Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "alguien debe circuncidar a todos sus parientes masculinos"

la gente nacida en la tierra Aquí la palabra "tierra" se refiere a Canaán. La expresión "nacido en la tierra" significa una persona que es un israelita nativo. TA: "aquellos que son israelitas de nacimiento"

ninguna persona incircuncisa puede comer nada de la comida
Esto se puede afirmar en términos positivos. TA: "solo las personas circuncidadas pueden comer"

Exodus 12:49

Como el Señor había encomendado a Moisés y Aarón
"todo lo que el Señor le dijo a Moisés y Aarón que hicieran"

Y aquel mismo día
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Por sus ejércitos
El término utilizado para estos grupos es un término militar que se refiere a un gran número de soldados. Vea cómo tradujo "grupo armado" en 12:17. TA: "por sus divisiones" o "por sus regimientos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moíses y dijo: 2 "Sepárame todo primogénito de Israel, hombres y animales. Los primogénitos me pertenecen. 3 Moíses dijó al pueblo: "Trae a la mente, el día en cuál ustedes salieron de Egipto, fuera de la casa de esclavitud, que por la mano fuerte de el SEÑOR te ha sacado de ese lugar. No comeras pan con levadura. 4 Ustedes saldrán de Egipto en este día, en el mes de Abib. 5 Cuando el SEÑOR te lleve a la tierra de los Cananeos, del Hitita, de los Amorreos, de los Heveos y del Jebuseo, la tierra cual juró a tus antepasados darte a ti, la tierra que fluye leche y miel, entonce debes observar este acto de adoración en este mes. 6 Por siete días debes comer pan sin levadura; en el séptimo día habrá una celebración en honor al SEÑOR. 7 Deberás comer pan sin levadura durante los siete días; no deberá ser visto pan con levadura entre ustedes. No deberá verse levadura con ustedes ni dentro de tus límites. 8 En ese día dirás a tus hijos: "Por lo que el SEÑOR hizo conmigo cuando salí de Egipto. 9 Éste será un recuerdo para tí en tus manos, y un recordatorio en tu frente. Esto es para que la ley de el SEÑOR esté en tu boca, porque con mano fuerte el SEÑOR te sacó de Egipto. 10 Por lo tanto deberás guardar esta ley en su tiempo designado, de año en año. 11 Y cuando el SEÑOR te lleve a la tierra del Cananeo, como Él te juró a tí y a tus antepasados y cuando Él te dé la tierra, 12 debes apartar para Él todo hijo primogénito y todo primogenito de tus animales. Los machos pertenecerán al SEÑOR. 13 Todo primogenito de asno comprarás de vuelta con un cordero. Si no lo compras de vuelta, entonces quebráras su cuello. Pero cada primogenito de entre tus hijos, deberás comprarlos de vuelta. 14 Cuando tus hijos te pregunten luego: ''¿Qué significa esto?" entonce dirás: "con mano fuerte te sacó de Egipto, de la casa de esclavitud. 15 Cuando el Faraón obstinadamente se negó a dejarnos ir, el SEÑOR mató a todo primogénito en la tierra de Egipto, ambos primogenitos, de hombre y animal. Por esta razón yo sacrifico al SEÑOR todo primogenito macho de animal, y por que yo compro de vuelta a todo primogénito de mis hijos.'' 16 Este será un recordatorio en tus manos, y un recordatorio en tu frente, porque fue con mano fuerte que el SEÑOR nos sacó de Egipto. 17 Cuando Faraón dejó ir al pueblo, Dios los llevó por el camino de la tierra de los Filisteos, aunque la tierra estaba cerca. Porque Dios dijo: "Quizas Mi pueblo se arrepienta cuando experimente la guerra y vuelvan a Egipto.'' 18 Así que Dios llevó a su pueblo por el desierto al Mar de cañas. Los Israelitas salieron de la tierra de Egipto armados para la batalla. 19 Moíses llevó los huesos de José con él, porque José le hizo jurar a los Israelitas cuando dijo: "Seguramente Dios los rescatará, y llevaran mis huesos con ustedes." 20 Los Israelitas viajaron de Sucot y acamparon en Etam al borde de el desierto. 21 El SEÑOR iba delante de ellos de día en una nube para guiarlos por el camino. Por la noche en una columna de fuego para darles luz. De esta forma ellos podían viajar por el día y por la noche. 22 El SEÑOR no quitó de frente del pueblo la columna de nube durante el día o la columna de fuego durante la noche.

Exodus 13:1

epárame todo primogénito de Israel, hombres y animales
Dios requiere que todo hijo primogénito sea apartado para él.

Exodus 13:3

Trae a la mente, el día
Las palabras "trae a la mente" eran una forma habitual de decirle a alguien que recuerde algo. TA: "Recuerden y celebren este día"

La casa de la esclavitud.
Moisés habla de Egipto como si fuera una casa donde la gente tiene esclavos. TA: "el lugar donde eran esclavos"

La mano fuerte del Señor.
Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere al poder. Vea cómo tradujo "mano fuerte" en 6: 1.

No comeras pan con levadura
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "No debes comer pan con levadura"

El mes de Abib.
Este es el nombre del primer mes del calendario hebreo. Abib es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

tierra donde fluye la leche y la miel.
"una tierra en donde leche y miel fluyen". Dios habló de la tierra siendo buena para los animales y plantas como si la leche y miel de estos animales y plantas estaban fluyendo por la tierra. TA: "Una tierra que es excelente para criar ganado y el cultivo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Debes observar este acto de adoración
Cuando los israelitas viven en Canaán, deben celebrar la Pascua en este día de cada año. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 12:24.

Exodus 13:6

Información general
Moisés continua hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Por siete días
"Por 7 días"

Deberás comer pan sin levadura
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Debes comer pan sin levadura"

No deberá verse levadura con ustedes Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Puede que no tenga pan con levadura entre ustedes" ni dentro de tus límites

"Dentro de cualquiera de los confines de tu tierra".

Exodus 13:8

En ese día dirás a tus hijos: "Por lo que YAHVÉ hizo conmigo cuando salí de Egipto
La cita se puede establecer como una cita indirecta. TA: "Ese día debes decirles a tus hijos que esto se debe a lo que el Señor hizo por ti cuando saliste de Egipto"

Esto será un recuerdo para tí en tus manos, y un recordatorio en tu frente Estos son dos tipos diferentes de recordatorios físicos para que las personas no olviden algo importante.

recuerdo para tí en tus manos
Moisés habla de celebrar el festival como si estuviera atando un objeto alrededor de sus manos para recordarles lo que el Señor había hecho. TA: "como algo que atas alrededor de tu mano como recordatorio"

Un recordatorio en tu frente.
Moisés habla de celebrar el festival como si estuviera atando un objeto alrededor de sus frentes para recordarles lo que el Señor había hecho. TA: "como algo que atas alrededor de tu cabeza como un recordatorio"

para que la ley del Señor esté en tu boca Las palabras "en tu boca" aquí se refieren a las palabras que hablan. TA: "para que siempre puedas estar hablando de la ley del Señor"

Mano fuerte.
La palabra "mano" aquí representa las acciones u obras de Dios. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6: 1. TA: "el poder que muestro en mis obras"

Exodus 13:11

y cuando Él te dé la tierra
"Y cuando te entregue la tierra de los cananeos"

Todo primogenito de asno
A Israel se le da la opción de matar al burro primogénito o comprarlo de nuevo con un cordero.

cada primogenito de entre tus hijos
Todos en Israel que tuvieron un hijo primogénito, deben recomprarlo.

Exodus 13:14

4Cuando tus hijos te pregunten luego: ''¿Qué significa esto?" entonce dirás
La primera cita puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. TA: "Cuando tu hijo te pregunte más tarde qué significa esto, entonces debes decirle"

Mano fuerte
La palabra "mano" aquí representa las acciones u obras de Dios. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:1. TA: "el poder que muestro en mis obras"

La casa de esclavitud.
Moisés habla de Egipto como si fuera una casa donde la gente tiene esclavos. TA: "el lugar donde eran esclavos"

Este será un recordatorio en tus manos, y un recordatorio en tu frente
Esto expresa dos maneras de recordar la importancia del evento de la Pascua. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 13:8.

Exodus 13:17

Cerca.
"cerca de donde estaban ubicados"

Mi pueblo se arrepienta... y ... vuelvan a Egipto.
Como los israelitas habían vivido en esclavitud toda su vida, estaban más acostumbrados a la paz que a la guerra y preferían volver a la esclavitud que luchar.

Exodus 13:19

Acamparon en Etam.
Etam se encuentra al sur de la ruta en dirección a los filisteos, en el límite del desierto.

columna de nube ... columna de fuego
"una nube en forma de columna ... fuego en forma de columna". Dios está con ellos en una nube durante el día y en el fuego durante la noche.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moíses y dijo, 2 "Dí a los Israeilitas que deben dar vuelta y acampar antes de Pi Hahirot, entre Migdol y el mar antes de Baal Zefón. Ustedes acamparan frente al mar opuesto a Pi Hahirot. 3 Faraón dirá de los Israelitas, ellos estan vagabundeando por la tierra. El desierto los ha encerrado. 4 Yo endureceré el corazón de Faraón, y el los perseguirá. Yo sere honrado por causa de faraón y todo su ejercito. Los Egipcios sabrán que Yo soy El SEÑOR." Así acamparon los Israeilitas según las instrucciones. 5 Cuando le dijeron al Rey de Egipto que los Israelitas habían huido, las mentes de Faraón y sus sirvientes se volvieron en su contra. Dijeron ellos "que hemos hecho al dejar a Israel libre de trabajar para nosotros?" 6 Entonces Faraón preparó sus carruajes y tomó su ejercito con él. 7 El tomó 600 carruajes escogidos y todos los otros carruajes de Egipto, con oficiales en todos ellos. 8 El SEÑOR endureció el corazón de Faraón, Rey de Egipto, y el Rey persiguió a los Israelitas. Ahora Los Israelitas se marcharon triunfantes. 9 Pero los Egipcios los perseguían a ellos, juntamente con todos sus caballos y carruajes, sus hombres de a caballo, y su ejercito. Ellos alcanzaron a los Israelitas acampando frente al mar al lado de Pi Hahirot, al lado de Baal Zefón. 10 Cuando Faraón se acercó, los Israelitas miraron hacia arriba y fueron sorprendidos. Los Egipcios marchaban detras de ellos, y estaban aterrorizados. Los Israeilitas clamaron al SEÑOR. 11 Le dijeron a Moisés, "Es porque no habían tumbas en Egipto, que tu nos sacas a morir en el desierto? Porqué nos tratas así, sacandonos de Egipto? 12 No fue esto lo que te dijimos en Egipto? Te dijimos, 'Dejanos tranquilos, que trabajemos para los Egipcios.' Hubiese sido mejor para nosostros trabajar para ellos que morir en el desierto." 13 Moisés le dijo a la gente, "No tengan miedo. Estén quietos y vean el rescate que El SEÑOR proveerá a ustedes hoy. Pues no verán más a los Egipcios que ven hoy. 14 El SEÑOR peleará por ustedes, y ustedes solo tendrán que estarse quietos" 15 Entonces El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés, "Porque estas tu, Moisés, continuamente llamandome? Dile a los Israelitas que marchen adelante. 16 Levanta tu vara, y extiendela sobre el mar y divÍdelo en dos, para que así la gente pase a través en tierra seca. 17 Ten presente que Yo endureceré el corazón de los Egipcios para que asi vayan tras ellos. Recibiré honra por causa de Faraón y todo su ejercito, sus caruajes, y sus hombres de a caballo. 18 Entonces los Egipcios sabrán que soy El SEÑOR cuando Yo haya recibido honra por causa de Faraón, sus carruajes y sus hombres de a caballo." 19 El angel de Dios, quien fue delante de los Israelitas, se movió y fue detras de ellos. La columna de nube se movió de delante de ellos y fue detras de ellos. 20 La nube vino entre el campamento de Egipto y el campamento de Israel. Era una nube oscura para los Egipcios, pero alumbraba la noche para los Israelitas, asÍ un lado no se acercaba al otro toda la noche. 21 Moisés extendió con su mano al mar. El SEÑOR echo hacia atras el mar por un viento fuerte del este toda esa noche y torno el mar en tierra seca. De esta manera las aguas fueron divididas. 22 Los Israelitas fueron al medio del mar en tierra seca. Las aguas formaron una pared para ellos a su mano derecha y a su izquierda. 23 Los Egipcios los perseguían. Fueron tras ellos en el medio del mar, todos los caballos de Faraón, carruajes, y hombres de a caballo. 24 Pero en las horas tempranas de la mañana, El SEÑOR miró al ejercito Egipcio entre la columna de fuego y nube. El causó pánico entre los Egipcios. 25 Las ruedas de sus carruajes se atascaron y los jinetes tenían dificultad. Así los Egipcios dijeron, "permítannos huir de Israel, porque El SEÑOR esta peleando por ellos en contra nuestra." 26 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés, "extiende tu mano sobre el mar para que las aguas vuelvan a los Egipcios, sus carruajes, y sus hombres de a caballo." 27 Así que Moisés extendió su mano sobre el mar, y volvió a su curso normal cuando apareció la mañana. Los Egipcios huían en el mar y El SEÑOR los llevaba en medio de el. 28 Las aguas volvieron y cubrieron los carros de Faraón, hombres de a caballo, y su ejercito entero que seguía los carruajes al mar. Nadie sobrevivió. 29 Sin embargo, los Israelitas caminaron en tierra seca en medio del mar. Las aguas eran paredes para ellos a su mano derecha y a su izquierda. 30 Así El SEÑOR salvó a Israel aquel día de la mano de los Egipcios, y vio Israel los cuerpos de los Egipcios a la orila del mar. 31 Cuando Israel vio el poder que El SEÑOR uso contra los egipcios, la gente honró al SEÑOR, y ellos confiaron en El SEÑOR y en su siervo Moisés.

Exodus 14:1

Pi Hahirot... Migdol... Baal Zefón
Estas son ciudades en la frontera oriental de Egipto.

Ustedes acamparan
Aquí la palabra "Ustedes" es plural y se refiere a Moisés y los israelitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Faraón dirá de los Israelitas, ellos estan vagabundeando por la tierra. El desierto los ha encerrado.
Esto se puede afirmar como una cotización indirecta. TA: "Faraón dirá que los israelitas están vagando en la tierra y el desierto se ha cerrado sobre ellos"

El desierto los ha encerrado.
Faraón habla del desierto como una persona que ha atrapado a los israelitas.

Exodus 14:4

Información general:
El Señor continúa instruyendo a Moisés sobre a dónde ir y qué hará el Señor

Endureceré el corazón de Faraón.
Aquí el "corazón" se refiere al faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 9:11. TA: "Haré que el Faraón se vuelva más desafiante"

Los perseguirá.
"Faraón perseguirá a los israelitas"

sere honrado
"La gente me honrará"

Los egipcios sabrán que yo soy el Señor.
"Los egipcios entenderán que yo soy el Señor, el único Dios verdadero"

Así acamparon los Israeilitas según las instrucciones
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Así que los israelitas acamparon como el Señor los había instruido"

Cuando le dijeron al rey de Egipto.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Cuando alguien le dijo al rey de Egipto"

El rey de egipto.
Esto se refiere a Faraón.

Habían huido.
"Se habían escapado"

las mentes de Faraón y sus sirvientes se volvieron en su contra Aquí la palabra "mentes" se refiere a sus actitudes hacia los israelitas. TA: "Faraón y sus sirvientes cambiaron sus actitudes sobre la gente" que hemos hecho al dejar a Israel libre de trabajar para nosotros?"

Hicieron esta pregunta para demostrar que pensaron que habían hecho una tontería. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡Hemos hecho algo estúpido al dejar que Israel se libere de trabajar para nosotros!"

Exodus 14:6

Tomó seiscientos carruajes escogidos.
"Tomó 600 de sus mejores carros"

El Señor endureció el corazón de Faraón
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Faraón. Se habla de su actitud terca como si su corazón fuera duro. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 9:11. TA: "hizo que el Faraón se volviera más desafiante"

Pi-hahirot... Migdol... Baal-zefón
Estas son ciudades en la frontera oriental de Egipto.

Exodus 14:10

Cuando el faraón se acercó.
La palabra "Faraón" aquí representa a todo el ejército egipcio. TA: "Cuando el faraón y su ejército se acercaron"

Estaban aterrorizados
"los israelitas estaban aterrorizados"

¿Es porque no había tumbas en Egipto, que nos sacas a morir en el desierto?
Los israelitas hacen esta pregunta para expresar su frustración y temor de morir. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "Había muchos cementerios en Egipto para ser enterrados. ¡No tenías que llevarnos al desierto para morir!"

¿Por qué nos tratas así, sacándonos de Egipto?
Los israelitas hacen esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés por llevarlos al desierto a morir. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡No deberías habernos tratado así sacándonos de Egipto!"

Te dijimos: 'Dejanos tranquilos, que trabajemos para los Egipcios.'
Esto se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "Te pedimos que nos dejes en paz, para que podamos trabajar para los egipcios".

Exodus 14:13

Moisés dijo a la gente
Moisés responde a los temores de los israelitas.

Proveerá a ustedes
El pronombre "usted" se refiere a los israelitas.

Pues no verán más a los Egipcios Moisés usó una forma educada de decir que Dios iba a destruir al ejército egipcio. TA: "Porque Dios matará a los egipcios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 14:15

Porque estas tu, Moisés, continuamente llamandome?
Al parecer, Moisés había estado orando a Dios por ayuda, así que Dios usa esta pregunta para obligar a Moisés a actuar. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "No me llames más, Moisés". Ver:

Divídelo en dos
Divide el mar en dos partes

Ten presente que
"Ten en cuenta que" o "conoce que"

Endureceré el corazón de los Egipcios para que asi vayan tras ellos Aquí "corazón" se refiere a los egipcios mismos. Se habla de su actitud obstinada como si sus corazones fueran duros. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 9:11. TA: "Haré que los egipcios se vuelvan más desafiantes"

asi vayan tras ellos
"Para que los egipcios vayan al mar después de los israelitas"

Exodus 14:19

El campamento de Egipto y el campamento de Israel.
"El ejército egipcio y el pueblo israelita" (UDB)

asÍ un lado no se acercaba al otro toda la noche.
Esto significa que los egipcios y los israelitas no podían acercarse unos a otros.

Exodus 14:21

Viento fuerte del este.
Un viento del este se origina en el este y sopla hacia el oeste.

Este.
Donde sale el sol

Las aguas fueron divididas.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El Señor dividió las aguas"

a su mano derecha y a su izquierda
"a cada lado de ellos" o "a ambos lados de ellos"

Exodus 14:23

Él causó pánico entre los egipcios.
El pánico es cuando alguien tiene tanto miedo que no puede pensar normalmente.

Las ruedas de sus carruajes se atascaron
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El barro obstruyó sus ruedas de carro" o "Sus ruedas de carro se atascaron en el barro"

Exodus 14:26

El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Extiende tu mano ... y sus hombres de a caballo".
Esto se puede afirmar como una cita indirecta. TA: "El Señor le dijo a Moisés que extendiera su mano sobre el mar para que las aguas regresaran a los egipcios, sus carros y sus jinetes".

vuelvan a
"caigan sobre"

Los Egipcios huían en el mar
Como el mar se estaba acercando a los egipcios, en lugar de escapar, en realidad corrían directamente hacia el agua.

El SEÑOR los llevaba en medio de el
"El Señor empujó a los egipcios" o "El Señor arrojó a los egipcios"

Exodus 14:29

Israel.
Cada una de las ocurrencias de "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. TA: "el pueblo de Israel" o "los israelitas"

De la mano de los egipcios.
Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere al poder. TA: "del poder de los egipcios"

A la orilla del mar.
"En la tierra a lo largo del borde del mar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 Entonces Moisés y el pueblo de Israel cantaron esta canción al SEÑOR. Ellos cantaron: '' Yo le canto al SEÑOR, porque Él triunfó gloriosamente; al caballo y el jinete Él los lanzó en el mar. 2 El SEÑOR es mi fuerza y canción, y Él se ha convertido en mi salvación. Éste es mi Dios, y yo le adoraré a Él, Dios de mi padre, y yo le exaltaré. 3 El SEÑOR es un guerrero; el SEÑOR es su nombre. 4 Él ha lanzado los carros y el ejercito del faraón en el mar. Los oficiales escogidos del Faraón fueron ahogados en el Mar de Las Cañas. 5 La profundidad los cubría; ellos bajaron a los más profundo como una piedra. 6 Tu mano derecha, oh SEÑOR, es gloriosa en poder; tu mano derecha, oh SEÑOR, ha destrozado al enemigo. 7 En tu gran majestad has derrotado aquellos que se han levantado contra Ti. Enviaste tu ira; los consumió como paja. 8 Por la sacudida de tu naríz las aguas se acumularon; las aguas fluyentes se detuvieron amontonadas; las aguas profundas fueron congeladas en el corazón de la mar. 9 El enemigo dijo: 'Yo perseguiré, yo alcanzaré, repartiré el saqueo; mi deseo se satisfacerá en ellos; dibujaré mi espada; mi mano los destruirá'. 10 Pero Tú soplaste con Tu viento, y el mar los cubrió; ellos se undieron como plomo en las poderosas aguas. 11 ¿Quién es como Tú, SEÑOR, entre los dioses? ¿Quién es como Tú, majestuoso en santidad, honrado en alabanzas, haciendo milagros? 12 Tú alcanzaste con Tu mano derecha, y la tierra se los tragó. 13 En Tu pacto leal has guiado al pueblo que rescataste. En Tu fuerza los has guiado al lugar santo donde Tú vives. 14 Los pueblos oirán, y ellos temblarán, el terror se apoderará de los habitantes de Filistea. 15 Entonces los jefes de Edom temerán; los soldados de Moab temblarán; y todos los habitantes de Canaán se dispersarán. 16 Terror y pavor caerán sobre ellos. Por el poder de Tu mano, ellos se volverán tan fijos como una roca hasta que Tu pueblo pase, SEÑOR, hasta que Tu pueblo que has rescatado pase. 17 Tú los traerás y los plantarás en la montaña de Tu herencia, el lugar, oh SEÑOR, que Tú has hecho para vivir en el, el santuario, nuestro Señor, que Tus manos han construido. 18 El SEÑOR reinará por siempre y siempre. 19 Porque los caballos de faraón fueron con sus carros y jinetes al mar. El SEÑOR envió de vuelta las aguas del mar sobre de ellos. Pero los israelitas caminaron en tierra seca en el medio del mar. 20 Miriam la profetiza, hermana de Arón, tomó una tamburina y todas las mujeres fueron con tamburinas, bailando junto a ella. 21 Miriam les cantó: 'Canten al SEÑOR, porque Él ha triunfado gloriosamente. Los caballos y jinetes Él a lanzado al mar." 22 Entonces Moisés guió a Israel hacia adelante desde el Mar de las Cañas. Ellos se fueron al desierto de Shur. Ellos viajaron por tres días dentro del desierto y no encontraron agua. 23 Luego llegaron a Mara, pero no pudieron beber agua ahí porque el agua era amarga. Así que llamaron a ese lugar Mara. 24 Así que el pueblo se quejó con Moisés y dijeron: "¿Qué podemos tomar?" 25 Moisés clamó al SEÑOR, y el SEÑOR le mostró un árbol. Moisés lo arrojó a las aguas, luego las aguas se volvieron dulces para tomar. Ahí fue donde el SEÑOR le dió a ellos las leyes estríctas, y fue ahí donde Él los probó. 26 Él les dijo: "Si ustedes atienden cuidadosamente la voz del SEÑOR su Dios, y hacen lo que es correcto ante Sus ojos, y si ustedes prestan oídos a sus mandamientos y obedecen todas sus leyes, Yo no pondré en ustedes ninguna de las enfermedades que Yo puse a los egipcios, pues Yo soy El SEÑOR quien los sana a ustedes." 27 Entonces el pueblo vino a Elim, donde habían doce fuentes de aguas y sesenta palmeras. Ellos acamparon allí junto a las aguas.

Exodus 15:1

Información General
Esta es una canción sobre los eventos ocurridos en 14:26.

al caballo y el jinete Él los lanzó en el mar.
Moisés cantó acerca de que Dios hizo que el mar cubriera y ahogara al caballo y al jinete como si Dios los hubiera arrojado al mar. TA: "ha hecho que el mar cubra al caballo y al jinete" o "ha hecho que el caballo y el jinete se ahoguen en el mar"

al caballo y el jinete.
Esto se refiere a todos o muchos de los caballos y jinetes egipcios que perseguían a los israelitas. TA: "los caballos y sus jinetes"

Jinete.
Esta es una persona que se sienta en un caballo o viaja en un carro que un caballo está tirando.

Exodus 15:2

El SEÑOR es mi fuerza
Los posibles significados son 1) "El Señor es el que me da fuerzas" o 2) "El Señor es el fuerte que me protege".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y canción.
Moisés llama al Señor su canción porque el Señor es el que canta.TA: "y sobre el que canto"

Él se ha convertido en mi salvación.
Moisés llama a Dios su salvación porque Dios lo salvó.TA: "él me ha salvado" o "él es el que me salva"

El SEÑOR es un guerrero.
Moisés llama a Dios un guerrero porque Dios luchó poderosamente contra los egipcios y ganó. TA: "El Señor es como un guerrero"

Exodus 15:4

ha lanzado los carros y el ejercito del faraón en el mar
Moisés canta acerca de que Dios hizo que el mar cubriera los carros y el ejército del Faraón como si Dios los hubiera arrojado al mar. TA: "ha hecho que el mar cubra sobre los carros y el ejército de Faraón" o "Ha hecho que los jinetes y el ejército de Faraón se ahoguen en el mar"

La profundidad los cubría; ellos bajaron a los más profundo como una piedra
Así como una piedra no flota, sino que se hunde hasta el fondo del mar, los soldados enemigos se hunden en el fondo del mar. TA: "bajaron al agua profunda como una piedra que se hunde hasta el fondo del mar"

Exodus 15:6

Tu mano derecha, SEÑOR, es gloriosa en poder.
Moisés habla de Dios como si Dios tuviera manos. La mano derecha se refiere al poder de Dios o las cosas que Dios hace poderosamente. TA: "Señor, tu poder es glorioso" o "Señor, lo que haces es glorioso en poder" Ver:

tu mano derecha, SEÑOR, ha destrozado al enemigo.
Moisés habla de Dios como si Dios tuviera manos. La mano derecha se refiere al poder de Dios. TA: "El Señor, tu poder ha destrozado al enemigo" o "El Señor, con tu poder has destrozado al enemigo"

Ha destrozado al enemigo.
Moisés habla del enemigo como si fuera frágil y podría romperse como un vaso o una cerámica. TA: "ha destruido completamente al enemigo"

aquellos que se han levantado contra Ti
Se dice que rebelarse contra Dios como levantarse contra él. TA: "los que se rebelaron contra ti" o "tus enemigos"

Enviaste tu ira.
Moisés habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera un siervo que Dios envió a hacer algo. TA: "Mostraste tu ira" o "Actuaste de acuerdo con tu ira"

los consumió como paja
Moisés habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera fuego que pudiera quemar completamente las cosas. Sus enemigos fueron completamente destruidos como rastrojos en un incendio. TA: "destruyó completamente a tus enemigos como un fuego que quema paja"

Por la sacudida de tu naríz
Moisés habla de Dios como si Dios tuviera una nariz, y él habla del viento como si Dios hubiera soplado el viento de su nariz. TA: "Soplaste en el mar y" (UDB).

Exodus 15:9

Mi deseo se satisfacerá en ellos
Esto se puede expresar con una forma activa. TA: "Cumpliré mi deseo con ellos" o "Tomaré todo lo que quiera de ellos"

Mi mano los destruirá
Los enemigos hablan de destruir a los israelitas por el poder de sus manos como si fueran sus manos las que los destruirían. TA: "Los destruiré con mi mano"

Pero Tú soplaste con Tu viento Moisés habló de que Dios hizo que el viento soplara como si Dios lo soplara por la nariz o la boca. TA: "Pero hiciste soplar el viento"

ellos se undieron como plomo en las poderosas aguas
El plomo es un metal pesado que se usa comúnmente para hacer que las cosas se hundan en el agua. La palabra "guía" se usa aquí para mostrar qué tan rápido fueron destruidos los enemigos de Dios. TA: "se hundieron tan rápido como el plomo en las profundas aguas turbulentas"

¿Quién es como tú, SEÑOR, entre los dioses?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para mostrar cuán grande es Dios. TA: "¡Oh Señor, nadie es como tú entre los dioses!" o "¡Señor, ninguno de los dioses es como tú!"

¿Quién es como tú, ... haciendo milagros?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para mostrar cuán grande es Dios. TA: Nadie es como tú. Nadie es majestuoso en santidad como tú, nadie es honrado en alabanzas como eres, ¡y nadie hace milagros como tú! "

Exodus 15:12

con tu mano derecha
La frase "mano derecha" representa el fuerte poder de Dios. TA: "con tu fuerte poder"

Tú alcanzaste con Tu mano derecha Moisés habla sobre Dios haciendo que algo suceda como si Dios extendiera su mano. TA: "Con tu fuerte

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

poder lo hiciste realidad" (Ver: metáfora de los higos)

La tierra se los tragó.
Moisés personifica la tierra como si pudiera tragar o devorar con su boca. TA: "la tierra los devoró"

Exodus 15:14

temblarán
Esto significa agitar porque tienes miedo.

El terror se apoderará de los habitantes de Filistea.
Moisés habla del terror como si fuera una persona que pudiera agarrar a alguien con fuerza y asustarlo. TA: "los habitantes de Filistea tendrán miedo"

se dispersarán
Moisés habla de que las personas se debilitan debido a que su miedo se desvanece. TA: "será débil por temor" o "tendrá miedo y se desmayará"

Exodus 15:16

Oración de Enlace:
Moisés continúa cantando sobre cómo se sentirán las personas de otras naciones cuando vean al pueblo de Dios.

Terror y pavor caerán sobre ellos Estas dos palabras significan que el miedo vendrá sobre ellos. TA: "El miedo vendrá sobre ellos"

pavor
El pavor es el miedo extremo o la ansiedad por algo que va a suceder o podría suceder.

Por el poder de Tu mano
El brazo de Dios representa su gran fuerza. TA: "Por tu gran fuerza" se volverán tan fijos como una roca

Los posibles significados son 1) "Estarán silenciosos como la piedra" o 2) "Estarán inmóviles como la piedra"

Exodus 15:17

Los traerás
Donde Dios los traería puede ser declarado claramente. Como Moisés no estaba ya en Canaán, algunos idiomas usarían "tomar" en lugar de "traer". TA: "Llevarás a tu gente a Canaán"

los plantarás en la montaña Moisés habla de que Dios le dio a su pueblo la tierra para vivir como si fuera un árbol que Dios estaba plantando. TA: "colóquelos en la montaña" o "déjelos vivir en la montaña"

la montaña de Tu herencia Esto se refiere al Monte Sión en la tierra de Canaán.

De tu herencia.
Moisés habla sobre la promesa de Dios de dar a su pueblo la montaña para siempre como si él se la diera a ellos como herencia. TA: "que les has dado como herencia"

Que tus manos han construido.
La frase "tus manos" se refiere al poder de Dios. TA: "que has construido por tu poder")

Exodus 15:19

Miriam ... Aarón
Miriam era la hermana mayor de Moisés y Aarón.

tamburinas
Este es un instrumento musical como un pequeño tambor que también tiene piezas de metal alrededor del lado que hacen un sonido cuando se agita.

ha triunfado gloriosamente
"Triunfó gloriosamente sobre sus enemigos"

Los caballos y jinetes Él a lanzado al mar
Miriam cantó acerca de que Dios hizo que el mar cubriera y ahogara al caballo y al jinete como si Dios los hubiera tirado al mar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en [Exodus 15:1]

Exodus 15:22

Moisés guió a Israel.
La palabra "Israel" representa al pueblo de Israel. TA: "Moisés dirigió a los israelitas"

Desierto de Shur... Mara
No sabemos la ubicación exacta de estos lugares.

Exodus 15:24

se quejó con Moisés y dijeron
"Fueron infelices y le dijeron a Moisés" o "Le dijeron a Moisés enojados"

La voz del SEÑOR su Dios.
El Señor está hablando de su propia voz. TA: "mi voz"

hacen lo que es correcto ante Sus ojos
La frase "ante sus ojos" aquí representa lo que Dios piensa o ha decidido. TA: "hacen lo que el Señor considera correcto"

Yo no pondré en ustedes ninguna de las enfermedades Dios habla de causar que las personas tengan enfermedades como ponerles enfermedades. TA: "No haré que ninguno de ustedes tenga las enfermedades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 15:27

Doce
"12"

Elim
Este es un oasis en el desierto, un lugar con agua y árboles de sombra.

Setenta
"70"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 El pueblo viajó desde Elim y toda la comunidad de los israelitas vino al desierto de Sin, el cual está entre Elim y Sinaí, en el decimoquinto día del segundo mes luego de su partida de la tierra de Egipto. 2 Toda la comunidad de los israelitas se quejó contra Moisés y Aarón en el desierto. 3 Los israelitas les dijeron: "Si tan sólo hubiéramos muerto por la mano del SEÑOR en la tierra de Egipto cuando estábamos sentados junto a las ollas de carne y comiendo pan hasta saciarnos. Pero ustedes nos han traído hasta el desieto para matar de hambre a toda nuestra comunidad." 4 Luego el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Yo haré llover pan desde el cielo para ustedes. El pueblo saldrá y recogerá una porción de un día cada día para yo probarlos y ver si caminarían en mi ley o no. 5 Será como en el sexto día, que ellos recogerán el doble de lo que hayan recogido cada día anterior a ese y cocinarán lo que hayan traído." 6 Luego Moisés y Aarón dijeron a todo el pueblo de Israel: "En la tarde sabrán que es el SEÑOR quien los ha sacado de la tierra de Egipto. 7 En la mañana verán la gloria del SEÑOR, pues Él escucha tu queja en su contra. ¿Quiénes somos nosotros para que ustedes se quejen contra nosotros?" 8 Moisés también dijo: "Ustedes sabrán esto cuando el SEÑOR les dé la carne en la tarde y el pan en la mañana hasta saciars, pues él ha escuchado las quejas que tienen contra él. ¿Quiénes somos Aarón y yo? Sus quejas no son en nuestra contra; son contra el SEÑOR." 9 Moisés le dijo a Aarón: "Dile a toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel: 'Acérquense ante el SEÑOR, pues Él ha escuchado sus quejas.'" 10 Se produjo, mientras Aarón hablaba a toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel, que ellos miraron hacia el desierto y, he aquí, la gloria del SEÑOR se apareció en la nube. 11 Luego el SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 12 "He escuchado las quejas del pueblo de Israel. Háblales y diles: 'En la tarde comerán carne y en la mañana serán saciados con pan. Luego sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR, su Dios.'" 13 Surgió en la tarde que las codornices subieron y cubrieron el campamento. En la mañana el rocío se extendió alrededor del campamento. 14 Cuando el rocío había desaparecido, allí en la superficie del desierto habían finas escamas como escarcha en el suelo. 15 Cuando el pueblo de Israel lo vio, se dijeron el uno al otro: "¿Qué es eso?" Ellos no sabían qué era eso. Moisés les dijo: "Eso es pan que el SEÑOR les ha dado para que coman. 16 Este es el mandato que el SEÑOR ha dado: 'Deben recoger, cada uno de ustedes, la cantidad que ustedes necesiten para comer, dos litros por cada persona del número de su pueblo. Así es como lo recogerán: Recogan lo suficiente para comer, por cada persona que vive en su tienda.'" 17 El pueblo de Israel así lo hizo. Algunos tomaron más, otros tomaron menos. 18 Cuando lo midieron con una medida dos de litros, aquellos que recogieron mucho, no les sobró nada y aquellos que recogieron poco no les faltó. Cada persona recogió lo suficiente para cubrir su necesidad. 19 Entonces Moisés les dijo: "Ninguno debe dejar nada de eso hasta la mañana." 20 Sin embargo, ellos no escucharon a Moisés. Algunos de ellos dejaron algo hasta la mañana, pero le salieron gusanos y se echó a perder. Entonces Moisés se enojó con ellos. 21 Ellos lo recogían mañana tras mañana.
Cada persona recogía lo suficiente para comer por ese día. Cuando el sol se volvió caliente, lo derritió. 22 Vino a ser que en el día sexto ellos recogieron el doble del pan, dos litros para cada persona. Todos los líderes de la comunidad llegaron a decirle esto a Moisés. 23 Él les dijo: "Ésto es lo que ha dicho el SEÑOR: 'Mañana es de solemne descanso, día de reposo en honor al SEÑOR. Horneen lo que quieran hornear, hiervan lo que quieran hervir. Todo lo que sobre, pónganlo aparte para ustedes hasta la mañana.'" 24 Así que lo colocaron aparte hasta la mañana, como Moisés les instruyó. No se echó a perder ni hubo gusanos en él. 25 Moisés dijo: "Coman esa comida hoy, porque hoy es un día reservado como día de reposo en honor al SEÑOR. Hoy ustedes no lo encontrarán en los campos. 26 Ustedes lo recogerán durante seis días, pero el día séptimo es de reposo. En el día de reposo no habrá maná." 27 Vino a ser que el día séptimo, algunas personas salieron a recoger maná, pero ellos no encontraron nada. 28 Entonces el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "¿Cuánto tiempo se rehusarán a guardar mis mandamientos y mis leyes? 29 Miren, el SEÑOR les ha dado el día de reposo. Así que en el día sexto Él les está dando pan para dos días. Cada uno de ustedes debe permanecer en su propio lugar; ninguno debe salir de su lugar en el día séptimo." 30
Así que las personas descansaron en el día séptimo. 31 El pueblo de Israel llamó a esa comida, "maná".
Era blanco como la semilla del cilantro y su sabor era como hojuelas hechas con miel. 32 Moisés dijo:
"Esto es lo que el SEÑOR ha ordenado: 'Dejen que un omer de maná sea preservado a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo, para que así tus descendientes puedan ver el pan con el cual Yo les alimenté en el desierto, después que los saqué de la tierra de Egipto.'" 33 Moisés le dijo a Aarón: "Tomen una vasija y coloquen un omer de maná en él. Presérvenlo delante del SEÑOR para guardarlo a través de las generaciones." 34 Como el SEÑOR ordenó a Moisés, Aarón lo almacenó al lado de los decretos del pacto en el arca. 35 El pueblo de Israel comió maná cuarenta años hasta que llegaron a tierra habitada. Ellos lo comieron hasta que llegaron a la frontera de la tierra de Canaán. 36 Ahora un omer es una décima parte de un efa.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 16:1

El desierto de Sin.
La palabra "Sin" aquí es el nombre hebreo del desierto. No es la palabra inglesa "pecado".

en el decimoquinto día del segundo mes
Este tiempo coincide con finales de abril y principios de mayo en los calendarios occidentales. TA: "el día 15 del segundo mes"

Toda la comunidad de los israelitas
"Todos los israelitas". Esta es una generalización. Moisés y Aarón no se quejaron. TA: "Los israelitas"

Quejó
"se enojaron y hablaron"

Si tan solo hubiéramos muerto.
Esta es una forma de decir que desearon haber muerto. TA: "Ojalá hubiéramos muerto"

Por la mano del SEÑOR
La frase "la mano del Señor" representa la acción del Señor. TA: "por la acción del SEÑOR"

Exodus 16:4

Yo haré llover pan desde el cielo para ustedes
Dios habla de los alimentos que bajan del cielo como si fuera lluvia. TA: "Haré que el pan descienda del cielo como la lluvia" o "Les haré caer pan del cielo"

Pan
Dios habla de la comida que enviará como si fuera pan. Los israelitas comían esta comida todos los días, tal como habían comido pan todos los días antes de esto. TA: "comida" o "comida como el pan"

caminarían en mi ley
Dios habla de obedecer su ley como caminar en ella. TA: "obedeceran mi ley" o "viviran de acuerdo con mi ley"

Mi ley
"Mi mandato"

El sexto día sucederá que ellos.
"Ocurrirá en el sexto día que ellos" o "En el sexto día ellos"

En el sexto dia
"en el día 6"

el doble
"dos veces" o "2 veces"

Exodus 16:6

¿Quiénes somos nosotros para que ustedes se quejen contra nosotros?
Moisés y Aarón usaron esta pregunta para mostrar a la gente que era tonto quejarse de ellos. TA: "No somos lo suficientemente poderosos para que ustedes se quejen de nosotros". o "Es tonto quejarse contra nosotros, porque no podemos hacer lo que ustedes quieren".

Pan
Moisés habla de la comida que Dios enviará como si fuera pan. Los israelitas comían esta comida todos los días, tal como habían comido pan todos los días antes de esto. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 16: 4. TA: "comida" o "comida como el pan"

¿Quiénes somos Aaron y yo?
Moisés usó esta pregunta para mostrarle a la gente que él y Aarón no tenían el poder de darles lo que querían. TA: "Aaron y yo no podemos darles lo que quieren".

Sus quejas no son contra nosotros; son contra el SEÑOR
La gente se quejaba contra Moisés y Aarón, que eran siervos del Señor. Entonces, al quejarse contra ellos, la gente realmente se quejaba contra El SEÑOR. TA: "Sus quejas no son realmente contra nosotros; están contra del SEÑOR, porque nosotros somos sus siervos "

Exodus 16:9

Se produjo
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. El evento importante aquí es la gente que ve la gloria del Señor. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

He aqui
La palabra "he aquí" muestra que la gente vio algo interesante.

Pan
Dios habla de la comida que enviará como si fuera pan. Los israelitas comían esta comida todos los días, tal como habían comido pan todos los días antes de esto. TA: "comida" o "comida como el pan"

Exodus 16:13

Surgió ... que
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. El evento importante aquí es la gente que ve la gloria del Señor. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Codornices
Estas son aves pequeñas, regordetas.

Como escarcha
Los lectores originales sabían cómo es la escarcha, por lo que esta frase les ayudaría a comprender cómo eran los copos. La escarcha es el rocío congelado que se forma en el suelo. Esta muy bien TA: "que parecía escarcha" o "que estaba bien como escarcha"

Pan
Moisés habla de la comida que Dios enviará como si fuera pan. Los israelitas comían esta comida todos los días, tal como habían comido pan todos los días antes de esto. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 16: 4. TA: "comida" o "comida como el pan"

Exodus 16:16

Oración de enlace:
Moisés continúa hablándole a la gente acerca de los alimentos que Dios les estaba proporcionando.

dos litros
"2 litros"

No les faltó
"no faltó" o "tuvo suficiente"

Exodus 16:19

Enojado, enojo.
"Enojarse" o "tener enojo" significa estar muy disgustado, irritado y molesto por algo o contra alguien. Cuando la gente se enoja, a menudo es pecaminosa y egoísta, pero a veces es justa y enojada contra la injusticia u opresión. La ira de Dios (también llamada "ira") expresa su fuerte disgusto por el pecado. *La frase "provocar el enojo" significa "causa para estar enojado". Ver también: wrath, fury

Exodus 16:22

Vino a ser
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar el comienzo de una nueva parte de la historia. Los versículos 16: 22-30 cuentan lo que hicieron las personas con respecto al maná en los días sexto y séptimo de la semana. Si su idioma tiene una forma de marcar esto como una nueva parte de la historia, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

En el día sexto
"en el dia 6"

el doble
"dos veces" o "2 veces"

Pan
Esto se refiere al pan que apareció como escamas delgadas en el suelo cada mañana.

Solemne
"serio" o "tranquilo y considerado"

Exodus 16:24

No se ha ensuciado.
"no olía a podrido"

Hoy es un día reservado como un sábado para honrar al Señor.
"hoy es sábado y debe usarse solo para honrar al Señor"

Exodus 16:26

Pero el día séptimo.
"pero en el día siete"

Maná
Este fue el nombre que los israelitas dieron al pan que el Señor hizo aparecer para ellos cada mañana.

No encontraron ninguno.
"no encontraron ningún maná"

Exodus 16:28

Información general:
El SEÑOR le habla a Moisés, pero la palabra "ustedes" se refiere al pueblo de Israel en general ¿Cuánto tiempo se rehusarán a guardar mis mandamientos y mis leyes?

Dios usó esta pregunta para regañar a la gente porque no obedecían sus leyes. TA: "¡Ustedes todavía no guardan mis mandamientos y leyes!"

a guardar mis mandamientos y mis leyes
"obedecer mis mandamientos y mis leyes"

El SEÑOR les ha dado el día de reposo.
El Señor habla sobre enseñar a las personas a descansar en el sábado como si el sábado fuera un regalo. TA: "Yo, El SEÑOR, te he enseñado a descansar en el día de reposo" día sexto ... dos días ... día séptimo.

"día 6 ... 2 días ... día 7"

Pan
Esto se refiere al pan que apareció como escamas delgadas en el suelo cada mañana.

Exodus 16:31

Maná
Este fue el nombre que los israelitas dieron al pan que El SEÑOR hizo aparecer para ellos cada mañana. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 16:26

Semilla de cilantro
El cilantro también se conoce como cilantro. Las personas secan las semillas y las muelen hasta

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

formar un polvo y lo ponen en los alimentos para darle sabor.

hojuelas
Galletas o galletas muy finas

omer
"2 litros"

Pan
Esto se refiere al pan que apareció como escamas delgadas en el suelo cada mañana.

Exodus 16:33

Ahora un gomer es una décima parte de un efa.
Un omer y una efa son recipientes para medir el volumen. Los lectores originales habrían sabido cuánto era un efa. Esta oración les ayudaría a saber cuánto era un gomer. Para los idiomas que no usan fracciones, esto se puede volver a redactar. TA: "Ahora, diez omers es igual a un efa"

Un omer
"2 litros"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 Toda la comunidad de los israelitas viajó desde el desierto de Sin, siguiendo las instrucciones del SEÑOR. Acamparon en Refidim, pero ahí no había agua para la gente bebiera. 2 Por lo cual, culparon a Moisés por su situación y dijeron: "Danos agua para beber." Moisés dijo: "¿Por qué pelean conmigo? ¿Por qué prueban al SEÑOR?" 3 La gente estaba bien sedienta, y se quejaron contra Moisés. Ellos dijeron: "¿Por qué nos has sacado fuera de Egipto? ¿Para matarnos a nosotros, nuestros hijos y nuestro ganado de sed?" 4 Entonces Moisés clamó al SEÑOR: "Qué debo hacer con esta gente? Están casi listos para apedrearme." 5 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Adelántate al pueblo, y llévate algunos ancianos de Israel contigo. Llévate la vara con la que golpeaste el río y vete. 6 Yo me pararé ante ti sobre la roca de Horeb, y tu golpearás la roca. Agua saldrá de ella para que tomen." Y así hizo Moisés ante los ojos de los ancianos de Israel. 7 El llamó al lugar Masah y Meriba por la queja de los israelitas y porque ellos habían probado al Señor diciendo: ¿Está el SEÑOR entre nosotros o no?" 8 Entonces un ejército del pueblo amalecita vino y atacó a Israel en Refidim. 9 Entonces Moisés le dijo a Josué: "Escoge algunos hombres y sal. Pelea con Amalec. Mañana me pararé sobre el tope de la colina con la vara de Dios en mi mano." 10 Josué peleó contra Amalec como Moisés le había instruido, mientras Moisés, Aarón y Hur subieron a la cumbre de la colina. 11 Mientras Moisés levantaba sus manos, Israel estaba ganando; cuando bajaba sus manos para descansar, Amalec comenzaba a ganar. 12 Cuando las manos de Moisés se ponían pesadas, Aarón y Hur tomaron una roca y la colocaron debajo de él para que pudiera sentarse. Al mismo tiempo, Aarón y Hur levantaron sus manos, uno a cada lado de él. Así las manos de Moisés fueron sostenidas firmes hasta que bajó el sol. 13 Así Josué derrotó al pueblo de Amalec con la espada. 14 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Escribe esto en un libro y léelo para que Josué lo oiga, porque borraré completamente la memoria de Amalec debajo de los cielos." 15 Entonces Moisés construyó un altar y lo llamó "El SEÑOR es mi estandarte." 16 Él dijo: "Pues una mano fue levantada al trono del SEÑOR, que el SEÑOR hará guerra con Amalec de generación a generación."

Exodus 17:1

Desierto de Sin
La palabra "Sin" aquí es el nombre hebreo del desierto. No es la palabra inglesa "sin" que signfica "pecado". Vea como tradujo esto en 16:1

Refidim
Esto significa "el lugar de descanso", un lugar para descansar durante largos viajes a través del desierto.

¿Por qué pelean conmigo? ¿Por qué prueban al SEÑOR?
Moisés usa estas preguntas para regañar a la gente. TA: "¡No deben pelear conmigo! ¡No deben probar al Señor!"

matarnos a nosotros, nuestros hijos y nuestro ganado de sed?
La gente usa esta pregunta para acusar a Moisés de querer matarlos. TA: "¡Solo nos trajiste aquí para matarnos a nosotros, a nuestros hijos y al ganado, al no permitirnos beber agua!"

Exodus 17:4

Masah
Un lugar en el desierto cuyo nombre significa "prueba"

Meriba
Un lugar en el desierto cuyo nombre significa "quejarse"

Exodus 17:8

Refidim
Este fue el nombre de un lugar en el desierto.

Josué peleó contra Amelec
Josué representa a los israelitas que él llevó a la batalla. TA: "Así que Josué y los hombres que eligió lucharon contra los amalecitas"

Hur
Hur era un amigo de Moisés y Aarón

Exodus 17:11

Israel estaba ganando ... Amalec comenzaba a ganar Las palabras "Israel" y "Amalec" representan a los combatientes de esos grupos. TA: "los combatientes israelitas estaban ganando ... los combatientes amalecitas comenzarían a ganar"

las manos de Moisés se ponían pesadas El autor escribe que los brazos de Moisés se cansaron como si sus manos se pusieran pesadas. TA: "los brazos se cansaron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Con la espada.
La espada representa la batalla. TA: "en batalla"

Exodus 17:14

Borraré completamente la memoria de Amalec
Dios habla de destruir a Amalec como si estuviera eliminando la memoria de las personas de Amalec. Cuando un grupo de personas se destruye por completo, no hay nada que recordar a las personas sobre ellos. TA: "Voy a destruir completamente a Amalec"

Una mano fue levantada.
La gente levantaría la mano cuando hiciera una promesa o compromiso, por lo que levantar la mano representa hacer una promesa. TA: "se hizo una promesa"

Una mano fue levantada.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "El SEÑOR levantó su mano" o "El SEÑOR hizo una promesa solemne"

Amelec
Esto se refiere a los amalecitas. TA: "amalecitas".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Jetro, el sacerdote de Madián, el suegro de Moisés, escuchó todo lo que Dios había hecho por Moisés y por Israel su pueblo. Él escuchó que el SEÑOR había sacado a Israel de Egipto. 2 Jetro, el suegro de Moisés, tomó a Séfora, la esposa de Moisés, después que él la había enviado a casa, 3 y a sus dos hijos; el nombre de un hijo era Gersón, pues Moisés había dicho: "Yo he sido un extranjero en una tierra extranjera." 4 El nombre del otro era Eliezer, pues Moisés había dicho: "El Dios de mis antepasados fue mi ayuda. Él me rescató de la espada del Faraón." 5 Jetro, el suegro de Moisés, vino con los hijos de Moisés y su esposa a Moisés en el desierto donde él acampó en la montaña de Dios. 6 Él le dijo a Moisés: "Yo, tu suegro Jetro, estoy viniendo a tí con tu esposa y sus dos hijos". 7 Moisés salió a encontrarse con su suegro, se inclinó, y lo besó. Ellos se preguntaron sobre el bienestar de cada uno y luego entraron a la tienda. 8 Moisés le dijo a su suegro todo lo que el SEÑOR había hecho al Faraón y a los egipcios por el bien de Israel, sobre todas las dificultades que habían venido a ellos a lo largo del camino, y cómo el SEÑOR los había rescatado. 9 Jetro se regocijó sobre todo lo bueno que el SEÑOR había hecho por Israel, en qué Él los había rescatado de la mano de los egipcios. 10 Jetro dijo: "Que el SEÑOR sea alabado, pues Él los ha rescatado de la mano de los egipcios y de la mano del Faraón, y ha liberado al pueblo de la mano de los egipcios. 11 Ahora yo sé que el SEÑOR es más grande que todos los dioses, porque cuando los egipcios trataron a los israelitas arrogantemente, Dios rescató a su pueblo." 12 Jetro, el suegro de Moisés, trajo una ofrenda de holocausto y sacrificios para Dios. Aarón y todos los ancianos de Israel vinieron a comer una comida delante de Dios con el suegro de Moisés. 13 Al siguiente día Moisés se sentó a juzgar al pueblo. El pueblo se paró alrededor de él, desde la mañana hasta la noche. 14 Cuando el suegro de Moisés vio todo lo que él había hecho por el pueblo, él dijo: "¿Qué es esto que estás haciendo con el pueblo? ¿Por qué es esto, que te sientas solo y todo el pueblo se para cerca de ti desde la mañana hasta la noche?" 15 Moisés dijo a su suegro: "El pueblo viene a mí para pedir por la dirección de Dios. 16 Cuando ellos tienen una disputa, ellos vienen a mí. Yo decido entre una persona y otra, y les enseño los estatutos y leyes de Dios." 17 El suegro de Moisés le dijo: "Lo que tú haces no es muy bueno. 18 Tú seguramente te desgastarás, tú y el pueblo que está contigo. Esta carga es muy pesada para ti. Tú no eres capaz de hacerlo por tí mismo. 19 Escúchame. Yo te daré consejo, y Dios estará contigo, porque tú eres el representante del pueblo ante Dios, y tú traes sus disputas a Él. 20 Tú debes enseñarles sus estatutos y leyes. Tú debes mostrarles el camino a caminar y el trabajo a hacer. 21 Además, tú debes escoger a hombres capaces de entre todo el pueblo, hombres que honren a Dios, hombres de verdad que odien ganancia injusta. Tú debes ponerlos sobre el pueblo, para ser líderes a cargo de miles, cientos, cincuenta y de decenas. 22 Ellos juzgarán al pueblo en todos los casos rutinarios, pero los casos difíciles ellos los traerán a ti. En cuanto a todos los casos pequeños, ellos pueden juzgarlos esos ellos mismos. De esta manera, será más fácil para tí, y ellos cargarán la carga contigo. 23 Si haces esto, y si Dios te que lo hagas, entonces tú serás capaz de soportar, y el pueblo entero será capaz de irse a casa satisfecho." 24 Así que Moisés escuchó las palabras de su suegro e hizo todo lo que él había dicho. 25 Moisés escogió a hombres capaces de entre todo Israel y los hizo cabezas sobre el pueblo, líderes a cargo de miles, cientos, cincuenta, y decenas. 26 Ellos juzgaban al pueblo en circunstancias normales. Los casos difíciles ellos los traían a Moisés, pero ellos mismos juzgaban todos los casos pequeños. 27 Entonces Moisés permitió a su suegro irse, y Jetro volvió a su propia tierra.

Exodus 18:1

El suegro de Moisés
Se refiere al padre de la esposa de Moisés

Tomó a Séfora, esposa de Moisés ... y a sus dos hijos
Los posibles significados son 1) Jetro tomó a Séfora y los dos hijos de Moisés, o 2) Jetro había dado la bienvenida a Séfora y a sus dos hijos.

Despues de que él la ha enviado a casa
Esto es algo que Moisés había hecho antes. El significado completo de la puede hacerse explícito.

TA: "después de que Moisés la había enviado a casa con sus padres"

Gersón
Este es un hijo de Moises y Séfora, cuyo nombre significa "extranjero"

Eliezer
Este es un hijo de Moisés y Séfora, cuyo nombre significa "Dios es el que me ayuda"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La espada del faraón.
Esto representa ser asesinado por el faraón o el ejército del faraón. TA: "ser asesinado por el Faraón" o "ser asesinado por el ejército del Faraón"

Exodus 18:5

Donde él acampó
Esto puede ser afirmado en forma activa. TA: "donde él acampó con los israelitas"

Exodus 18:7

Se inclinó, y lo besó.
Estos actos simbólicos eran la forma normal en que las personas mostraban un gran respeto y devoción en esa cultura. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Por el bien de Israel
La palabra "Israel" representa al pueblo israelita. TA: "para ayudar a los israelitas" todas las dificultades que habían venido

Moisés escribe sobre las dificultades que les suceden como si las dificultades hubieran llegado a ellos. TA: "todas las dificultades que les habían sucedido" o "todas las dificultades que habían experimentado"

Exodus 18:9

La mano de los egipcios ... La mano del Faraón.
La mano representa el poder de alguien para hacer algo. TA: "el poder de los egipcios ... el poder de Faraón" o "lo que los egipcios les estaban haciendo ... lo que Faraón les estaba haciendo"

Exodus 18:12

Holocausto, ofrenda por fuego
Un "holocausto" era un tipo de sacrificio a Dios que se quemaba con fuego en un altar. Fue ofrecido para hacer expiación por los pecados de la gente. Esto también fue llamado una "ofrenda por fuego". Los animales utilizados para esta ofrenda eran generalmente ovejas o cabras, pero también se usaban bueyes y pájaros. Excepto por la piel, todo el animal era quemado en esta ofrenda. La piel o la piel era entregada al sacerdote. *Dios ordenó al pueblo judío que ofreciera holocaustos dos veces al día. Ver también: altar atonement, atone ox, oxen priest, priesthood sacrifice, offering

Sacrificio, Ofrenda
En la Biblia, los términos "sacrificio" y "ofrenda" se refieren a los regalos especiales que se le dan a Dios como un acto de adoración. La gente también ofrecía sacrificios a los dioses falsos. La palabra "ofrenda" generalmente se refiere a todo lo que se ofrece o se da. El término "sacrificio" se refiere a algo que se da o se hace a un gran costo para el donante. Las ofrendas a Dios eran cosas específicas que él ordenó a los israelitas que dieran para expresar devoción y obediencia a él. Los nombres de las diferentes ofrendas, como "holocausto" y "ofrenda de paz", indicaban qué tipo de ofrenda se estaba dando. Los sacrificios a Dios a menudo implicaban el asesinato de un animal. Solo el sacrificio de Jesús, el Hijo perfecto de Dios, sin pecado, puede limpiar completamente a las personas del pecado. Los sacrificios de animales nunca podrían hacer eso. La expresión figurativa "ofrécete como un sacrificio vivo" significa "vive tu vida en completa obediencia a Dios, renunciando a todo para servirle".

Sugerencias de traducción

El término "ofrenda" también podría traducirse como "un regalo a Dios" o "algo dado a Dios" o "algo valioso que se presenta a Dios". Dependiendo del contexto, el término "sacrificio" también podría traducirse como "algo valioso dado en la adoración" o "un animal especial matado y presentado a Dios". La acción "sacrificar" podría traducirse como "renunciar a algo valioso" o "matar a un animal y dárselo a Dios". Otra forma de traducir "preséntese como un sacrificio vivo" podría ser: "Al vivir su vida, ofrézcase a Dios tan completamente como un animal que se ofrece en un altar". Ver también: altar burnt offering, offering by fire drink offering false god, foreign god, god, goddess fellowship offering freewill offering peace offering priest, priesthood sin offering worship

Aaron
Aarón fue hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para que sea el primer sumo sacerdote de Israel. -Aaron ayudó a Moisés a hablar a Faraón sobre dejar ir libres a los israelitas. -Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. -Dios también ungió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes [sacerdotes] (../kt/priest.md) para el pueblo de Israel. Ver tambien: priest, priesthood Moses Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

Ancianos
Los ancianos son hombres espiritualmente maduros que tienen responsabilidades de liderazgo espiritual y práctico entre el pueblo de Dios. El término "anciano" proviene del hecho de que los ancianos eran originalmente hombres mayores que, debido a su edad y experiencia, tenían mayor sabiduría. En el Antiguo Testamento, los ancianos ayudaron a guiar a los israelitas en asuntos de justicia social y la Ley de Moisés. En el Nuevo Testamento, los ancianos judíos seguían siendo líderes en sus comunidades y también eran jueces para el pueblo. En las primeras iglesias cristianas, los ancianos cristianos dieron liderazgo espiritual a las asambleas locales de creyentes. Los ancianos en estas iglesias incluían a jóvenes que eran espiritualmente maduros. Este término podría traducirse como "hombres mayores" o "hombres espiritualmente maduros que dirigen la iglesia".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 18:13

¿Qué es esto que estás haciendo con el pueblo?
Jetro usa esta pregunta para mostrarle a Moisés que lo que estaba haciendo no era bueno. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "¡No deberías estar haciendo todo esto por la gente!"

¿Por qué ... te sientas solo ... desde la mañana hasta la tarde?
Jetro usó esta pregunta para mostrarle a Moisés que él estaba haciendo demasiado. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. TA: "No debes sentarte solo ... ¡desde la mañana hasta la tarde!"

Te sientas solo
La palabra "sentarse" aquí es un metónimo para "juez". Los jueces se sentarían mientras escuchaban las quejas de la gente. TA: "usted juzga solo" o "usted es el único que juzga a la gente"

Exodus 18:15

Moisés
Moisés fue un profeta y líder de los israelitas por más de 40 años. -Cuando Moisés era un bebé, los padres de Moisés lo pusieron en una canasta en las cañas del río Nilo para esconderlo del faraón egipcio. La hermana de Moisés, Miriam, lo cuidó allí. La vida de Moisés se salvó cuando la hija del faraón lo encontró y lo llevó al palacio para criarlo como su hijo. -Dios eligió a Moisés para liberar a los israelitas de la esclavitud en Egipto y para guiarlos a la Tierra Prometida. -Después de que los israelitas escaparon de Egipto y mientras vagaban por el desierto, Dios le dio a Moisés dos tablas de piedra con los Diez Mandamientos escritos en ellos. -Cerca del final de su vida, Moisés vio la Tierra Prometida, pero no pudo vivir en ella porque desobedeció a Dios. Ver también: Miriam Promised Land Ten Commandments

Dios
En la Biblia, el término "Dios" se refiere al ser eterno que creó el universo de la nada. Dios existe como Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. El nombre personal de Dios es "El Señor". -Dios siempre ha existido; existió antes de que existiera cualquier otra cosa, y seguirá existiendo para siempre. -Él es el único Dios verdadero y tiene autoridad sobre todo en el universo. -Dios es perfectamente justo, infinitamente sabio, santo, sin pecado, justo, misericordioso y amoroso. -Él es un Dios que guarda el pacto, que siempre cumple sus promesas. -Las personas fueron creadas para adorar a Dios y él es el único a quien deben adorar. -Dios reveló su nombre como "Yahvé", que significa "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que (siempre) existe". -La Biblia también enseña acerca de los "dioses" falsos que son ídolos no vivientes que las personas adoran erróneamente. Sugerencias de traducción -Las formas de traducir "Dios" podrían incluir "Deidad" o "Creador" o "Ser Supremo". -Otras formas de traducir "Dios" podrían ser, "Creador Supremo" o "Señor Soberano Infinito" o "Ser Supremo Eterno". -Considere cómo se hace referencia a Dios en un idioma local o nacional. Puede que ya haya una palabra para "Dios" en el idioma que se traduce. Si es así, es importante asegurarse de que esta palabra se ajuste a las características del único Dios verdadero como se describe anteriormente. -Muchos idiomas ponen en mayúscula la primera letra de la palabra para el único Dios verdadero, para distinguirla de la palabra para un dios falso. -Otra forma de hacer esta distinción sería usar dos términos diferentes para "Dios" y "dios". -La frase "Yo seré su Dios y ellos serán mi pueblo" también podría traducirse como "Yo, Dios, gobernaré sobre estas personas y me adorarán". Ver también: idol, idolatrous Yahweh

estatuto, estatutos
Un estatuto es una ley escrita específica que proporciona orientación para que las personas vivan. El término "estatuto" tiene un significado similar al de "ordenanza" o "orden" o "ley" o "decreto". Todos estos términos involucran instrucciones y requisitos que Dios le da a su pueblo. El rey David dijo que se deleitaba en los estatutos de Jehová. El término "estatuto" también podría traducirse como "mandato específico" o "decreto especial". Ver también: command, to command, commandment decree law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh ordinance Yahweh

Ley, lay de Moisés, ley de Dios, ley de el Señor
Todos estos términos se refieren a los mandamientos e instrucciones que Dios le dio a Moisés para que los israelitas obedezcan. Los términos "ley" y "ley de Dios" también se usan de manera más general para referirse a todo lo que Dios quiere que su pueblo obedezca. Dependiendo del contexto, la "ley" puede referirse a: Los Diez Mandamientos que Dios escribió en tablas de piedra para los israelitas. Todas las leyes dadas a Moisés. Los primeros cinco libros del Antiguo Testamento. todo el Antiguo Testamento (también conocido como "escrituras" en el Nuevo Testamento). Todas las instrucciones y la voluntad de Dios. *La frase "la ley y los profetas" se usa en el Nuevo Testamento para referirse a las escrituras hebreas (o "Antiguo Testamento").

Sugerencias de traducción

Estos términos podrían traducirse usando el plural, "leyes", ya que se refieren a muchas instrucciones. La "ley de Moisés" podría traducirse como "las leyes que Dios le dijo a Moisés que les diera a los israelitas". Dependiendo del contexto, "la ley de Moisés" también podría traducirse como "la ley que Dios le dijo a Moisés" o "las leyes de Dios que Moisés escribió" o "las leyes que Dios le dijo a Moisés que entregue a los israelitas". Las formas de traducir "la ley" o "ley de Dios" o "leyes de Dios" podrían incluir: "leyes de Dios" o "mandamientos de

Dios" o "leyes que Dios dio" o "todo lo que Dios manda" o "todo lo que Dios dice" instrucciones" *La frase "ley del Señor" también podría traducirse como "leyes del Señor" o "leyes que el Señor dijo que obedecieran" o "leyes del Señor" o "cosas que el Señor mandó". Ver también: instruct, instruction Moses Ten Commandments lawful, lawfully, unlawful Yahweh

Exodus 18:17

Tú seguramente te desgastarás
"Seguramente te cansarás demasiado"

Esta carga es muy pesada para ti
Jetro habla del trabajo arduo que Moisés está haciendo como si fuera una carga física que Moisés llevaba. TA: "Este trabajo es demasiado para ti"

Consejo
"guía" o "instrucción"

Dios estará contigo Jetro habla de Dios ayudando a Moisés como si Dios estuviese con Moisés. TA: "Dios te ayudará" o "Dios te dará sabiduría"

tú traes sus disputas Jetro habla de que Moisés le contó a Dios acerca de sus disputas como si Moisés estuviera trayendo sus disputas a Dios. TA: "le dices a Dios acerca de sus disputas" o "le dices a Dios de qué están discutiendo"

Debes mostrarles el camino a caminar
Jetro habla de vivir o comportarse como caminar. TA: "Debes mostrarles cómo vivir" o "Debes mostrarles cómo comportarse"

Exodus 18:21

Oración de enlace:
Jetro continua hablando a Moisés

Además, tú debes escoger
"Además, debes elegir" o "También debes elegir"

Debes ponerlos sobre el pueblo Jetro habla de darles autoridad sobre las personas como poniendolo sobre las personas. TA: "Debes darles autoridad sobre el pueblo " miles, cientos, cincuenta, y de decenas

"grupos de 1000, grupos de 100, grupos de 50, y grupos de 10"

casos rutiniaros
"los casos simples"

Los casos difíciles ellos los traerán a ti.
Jetro habla de contarle a Moisés acerca de los casos difíciles como que le traen casos difíciles. TA: "los casos difíciles sobre los que te hablarán" o "cuando hay casos difíciles, te contarán sobre ellos para que puedas juzgarlos"

Ellos cargarán la carga contigo
Jetro habla del trabajo duro que harían como si fuera una carga que cargarían. TA: "harán el trabajo duro contigo" o "te ayudarán a hacer el trabajo duro"

Soportar
Lo que soportarán puede ser declarado claramente. TA: "soportar el estrés del trabajo"

Exodus 18:24

Cabezas sobre el pueblo
Moisés escribe sobre los líderes de las personas como si fueran la cabeza de un cuerpo. TA: "líderes del pueblo"

Hombres capaces
Los que fueron capaces de hacer, se puede decir claramente. TA: "hombres que pudieron liderar" o "hombres que pudieron juzgar"

Circunstancias
"situaciones"

Los casos difíciles ellos traían a Moisés.
El autor escribe acerca de contarle a Moisés sobre los casos difíciles, como trayendo estos casos a él. TA: "los casos difíciles le contaron a Moisés" o "cuando hubo casos difíciles, le contaron a Moisés acerca de ellos para que los juzgara"

Los casos pequeños
"los casos fáciles"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 Al tercer mes de haber salido el pueblo de Israel de la tierra de Egipto, el mismo día, vinieron al desierto de Sinaí. 2 Salieron de Refidim y vinieron al desierto de Sinaí, acamparon en el desierto frente a la montaña. 3 Moíses fue a Dios. El SEÑOR lo llamó desde la montaña y le dijo: "Debes decirle a la casa de Jacob, el pueblo de Israel: 4 Han visto lo que yo hice a los egipcios, cómo en alas de águila los cargué y los traje a mí. 5 Ahora pues, si obedientemente oyeren mi voz y guardan mi pacto, entonces serán mi posesión especial de entre todos los pueblos, porque la tierra es toda mía. 6 Ustedes serán un reino de sacerdotes y nación santa para mí. Estas son las palabras que debes hablar al pueblo de Israel." 7 Entonces Moisés convocó a los ancianos del pueblo. Les presentó todas las palabras que el SEÑOR le había ordenado, 8 Todo el pueblo junto le contestó diciendo: "Haremos todo lo que el SEÑOR ha dicho." Entonces Moisés vino al SEÑOR e informó las palabras del pueblo al SEÑOR. 9 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Yo vendré a ti en una nube densa para que así el pueblo pueda oir cuando hable contigo y también puedan creerte para siempre." Entonces dijo Moisés las palabras del pueblo al SEÑOR. 10 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Ve al pueblo. Hoy y mañana, debes apartarlos para mí, y hazlos lavar sus ropas. 11 Estén preparados para el tercer día, porque al tercer día Yo, el SEÑOR, bajaré al Monte Sinaí. 12 Debes colocar límites alrededor de la montaña para las personas. Dile a ellos: 'Cuidado de no acercarse a la montaña o tocar su borde. Cualquiera que toque la montaña seguramente morirá'. 13 Nadie debe tocar tal persona. En cambio, deberá morir apedreado o a flecha. Sea animal o persona, debe morir. Cuando la trompeta suene con un sonido prolongado, ellos deben acercarse al pie de la montaña." 14 Entonces Moisés bajó de la montaña al pueblo. Apartó el pueblo para el SEÑOR y lavaron sus ropas. 15 Él le dijo al pueblo: "Estén listos al tercer día; no se acerquen a sus esposas." 16 En el tercer día, cuando era de mañana, allí hubo truenos y relámpagos y una nube espesa cubría la montaña, y el sonido alto de una trompeta. Todo el pueblo en el campamento tembló. 17 Moisés trajo al pueblo fuera del campamento para encontrarse con Dios, y se detuvieron al pie de la montaña. 18 El Monte Sinaí se llenó por completo de humo porque el SEÑOR descendió allí en fuego y humo. El humo subió como el de un horno, y toda la montaña tembló violentamente. 19 Cuando el sonido de la trompeta aumentó, Moisés habló, y Dios le contestó en voz audible. 20 El SEÑOR bajó al Monte Sinaí, a la cima de la montaña, y convocó a Moisés a la cima. Y subió Moisés. 21 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Baja y avísale al pueblo que no se acerquen para mirarme, o muchos perecerán. 22 Deja que los sacerdotes también se acerquen a mí para apartarse, que se preparen para mi llegada- para que así que Yo no los ataque." 23 Moisés dijo al SEÑOR: "El pueblo no puede acercarse a la montaña, pues ordenaste: 'Pon límites alrededor de la montaña y sepárala al SEÑOR.'" 24 El SEÑOR dijo: "Ve, baja de la montaña, y trae a Aarón contigo, pero no permitas que los sacerdotes y el pueblo cruzen los límites para venir a mí, o Yo los atacaré." 25 Así Moisés bajó al pueblo y les habló.

Exodus 19:1

Al tercer mes... el mismo día
Esto significa que llegaron al desierto el primer día del mes, justo como cuando salían de Egipto el primer día del mes. El primer día del tercer mes en el calendario hebreo es cerca de mediados de mayo en los calendarios occidentales. TA: "En el tercer mes ... el primer día del mes"

Haber salido de
"Haber dejado"

Refidim
Esto significa "el lugar de descanso", un lugar para descansar durante largos viajes a través del desierto. Vea como tradujo este nombre en 17:1

Exodus 19:3

La casa de Jacob
La palabra "casa" aquí representa la familia de Jacob y su descendencia. TA: "los descendientes de Jacob"

La casa de Jacob, el pueblo de Israel
La frase "el pueblo de Israel" explica lo que significa "la casa de Jacob".

Han visto
La segunda persona plural "han" aquí se refiere a los israelitas. El Señor le está diciendo a Moisés qué decirle a los israelitas.

en alas de águila los cargué Dios habla de cuidar a su gente mientras viajaban como si fuera un águila y los cargara en sus alas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

TA: "Te ayudé a viajar como un águila que lleva a sus bebés en sus alas"

Obedientemente oyeren mi voz Obedientemente puede ser expresado como un verbo. TA: "obedecieren oyendo mi voz"

Mi voz
La voz de Dios representa lo que el dice. TA: "lo que digo" o "mis palabras"

Guarda mi pacto
"Haz lo que mi pacto requiere que hagas"

Posesión especial
"tesoro"

Un reino de sacerdotes
Dios habla de su pueblo como si fueran sacerdotes. TA: "un reino de personas que son como sacerdotes" o "un reino de personas que hacen lo que hacen los sacerdotes"

Exodus 19:7

Les presentó todas las palabras
El autor escribe que Moisés le contó cosas a la gente como si estuviera poniendo las palabras delante de ellos. TA: "les dijo todas estas palabras"

Todas estas palabras que el SEÑOR le había ordenado.
La palabra "palabras" se refiere a lo que el SEÑOR dijo. TA: "todo lo que el SEÑOR le había ordenado"

Moisés vino ... e informó.
Donde Moisés fue se puede establecer explícitamente. TA: "Moisés volvió a subir a la montaña para informar"

Las palabras del pueble
La palabra "palabras" se refiere a lo que el pueblo dice. TA: "lo que dijo el pueblo"

Exodus 19:10

Debes apartarlos para mí.
Esto probablemente significa "Dígales que se dediquen a mí" o "Dígales que se purifiquen por mí".

ropas
"vestidos"

Esten preparados
Este fue un mandamiento para el pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 19:12

Informacion general:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Moisés.

colocar límites.
"poner un límite". Esto era una marca o algún tipo de barrera.

Cualquiera que toque la montaña seguramente morirá Esto se puede afirmar con una forma activa. TA: "Seguramente debes matar a cualquier persona que toque la montaña" o "Seguramente debes matar a cualquiera que toque la montaña"

cualquiera que toque
"Cualquier persona que toque" o "Quien toque"

tal persona
"una persona que hace eso" o "una persona que toca la montaña"

deberá morir apedreado o a flecha Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "ciertamente debes apedrearlo o dispararle"

a flecha
Esto se refiere a ser asesinado por alguien que dispara flechas desde un arco o piedras desde una honda.

un sonido prolongado
"un sonido largo y fuerte"

Exodus 19:14

No se acerquen a sus esposas
Esta es una forma educada de hablar acerca de dormir con sus esposas. TA: "no se acuesten con sus esposas" (ver: eufemismo de higos)

Exodus 19:16

Tembló
"temblaron de miedo"

Descendió
"bajó"

El humo subió como el de un horno
Esto demuestra que era una gran cantidad de humo. TA: "como el humo de un fuego muy grande"

Horno
Un horno que se puede hacer extremadamente caliente

Exodus 19:19

aumentó
"Continuó haciéndose cada vez más fuerte"

en voz
La palabra "voz" aquí se refiere a un sonido que Dios hizo. Los posibles significados son 1) "hablando en voz alta como un trueno" o 2) "hablando" o 3) "haciendo que suene un trueno"

onvocó a Moisés
"le ordenó a Moisés que subiera"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Que no se acerquen
Dios habló acerca de caminar más allá del límite como si pudieran derribar una barrera y caminar a través de ella. Vea cómo tradujo "establecer límites" en 19:12. TA: "no ir más allá del límite" o "no atravesar la barrera"

cruzen los límites Dios habló acerca de caminar más allá del límite como si pudieran derribar una barrera y caminar a través de ella. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 19:19. TA: "vayan más allá del límite" o "atraviecen la barrera"

Exodus 19:23

Baja Descender

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Habló Dios todas estas palabras: 2 "Yo Soy el SEÑOR tu Dios, que te sacó fuera de la tierra de Egipto, fuera de la casa de esclavitud. 3 No debes tener otros dioses ante Mí. 4 Ustedes no debem hacer para ti ninguna imagen tallada en semejanza a nada que esté arriba en el cielo, o que esté debajo de la tierra, o que esté debajo del agua. 5 Ustedes no se deben inclinar a ellas o adorarlas, porque Yo, el SEÑOR tu Dios, soy un Dios celoso. Yo castigo la maldad de los antepasados trayendo castigo a su descendencia, a la tercera y cuarta generación de los que me odian. 6 Pero Yo demuestro pacto de fidelidad a millares que a Mí me aman y guardan mis mandamientos. 7 Ustedes no deben tomar mi nombre, el SEÑOR su Dios, en vano, pues yo no dejaré por inocente a cualquiera que tome Mí nombre en vano. 8 Recuerda el día de reposo, y sepáralo para mí. 9 Debes trabajar y hacer todo el trabajo en seis días. 10 Pero el séptimo es el día de reposo para Mí, SEÑOR tu Dios. En ese día no debes hacer trabajo alguno, tú, ni tu hijo, ni tu hija, ni tu siervo, ni tu sierva, ni tu ganado, ni el extranjero que vive a tus puertas. 11 Porque en seis días Yo, el SEÑOR, hice los cielos, tierra, y mar, y todo lo que está en ellos, y descansé en el dia séptimo. Por eso Yo, el SEÑOR, bendije el día de reposo y lo separé para Mí. 12 Honra a tu padre y a tu madre, para que ustedes vivan largo tiempo en la tierra cual Yo, el SEÑOR tu Dios, les estoy dando. 13 Ustedes no deben asesinar a nadie. 14 Ustedes no deben cometer adulterio. 15 Ustedes no deben robar de nadie. 16 Ustedes no deben dar falso testimonio contra tu vecino. 17 Ustedes no deben codiciar la casa de su vecino; ustedes no deben codiciar la mujer de su vecino, su siervo varón, su sierva hembra, su buey, su burro, o cualquier cosa que pertenece a tu vecino." 18 Toda la gente vio la tormenta y los relámpagos, y escucharon la voz de la trumpeta, y vieron la montaña humeando. Cuando la gente lo vio, ellos temblaron y se pararon lejos. 19 Ellos dijeron a Moisés, "Habla a nosotros, y nosotros escucharemos; pero no permitas que DIOS hable a nosotros, o nosotros moriremos." 20 Moisés dijo a la gente, "No tengan miedo, pues DIOS ha venido a probarlos para que el honor de El este en ustedes, y así ustedes no pequen". 21 Así la gente se paró lejos, y Moisés se acercó a la densa oscuridad donde DIOS estaba. 22 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés, "Esto es lo que tu debes decirle a los Israelitas: 'Ustedes mismos han visto que Yo he hablado con ustedes desde el cielo. 23 Ustedes no harán para ustedes otros dioses a mi lado, dioses de oro y dioses de plata. 24 Ustedes deben hacer un altar terrenal para Mi, y ustedes deben sacrificar sobre el sus ofrendas quemadas, ofrendas de compañerismo, ovejas, y bueyes. En cada lugar donde hago que Mi nombre sea honrado, 25 Yo vendré a ustedes y los bendeciré. Si me hacen un altar de piedra, no deben de contruirlo de piedras cortadas, pues si ustedes usan sus herramientas en el, lo habrán contaminado. 26 Ustedes no deben subir por escalones a Mi altar; esto es para evitar que expongan sus partes privadas."

Exodus 20:1

Casa de esclavitud
"lugar donde estaban los esclavos"

No debes tener otros dioses delante de Mí.
"No debes adorar a ningún otro Dios sino a mí"

Exodus 20:4

en semejanza
"y no debes hacer la semejanza"

Ustedes no se deben inclinar a ellas o adorarlas,
La palabra "ellas" se refiere a las figuras talladas o ídolos.

Celoso
Dios quiere que su pueblo lo adore solo a él.

Castigo la maldad de los antepasados trayendo castigo a su descendencia Dios castigará al pueblo por el pecado de sus padres.

La tercera y cuarta generación
"la 3ra y la 4ta generación". Aquí "tercera" y "cuarta" son numeros ordinales para "3" y "4".

Yo demuestro pacto de fidelidad a millares
"A causa de mi pacto, Yo soy fiel para millares" o "Yo fielmente amo a miles"

Millares que
"muchas generaciones de aquellos"

Exodus 20:7

Tomar mi nombre
"usar mi nombre"

En vano
"descuidadamente" o "sin el debido respeto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

No dejaré por inocente
"Ciertamente lo consideraré culpable" o "ciertamente castigaré"

Exodus 20:8

hacer todo el trabajo
"hagan todos sus deberes habituales"

a tus puertas.
Las ciudades a menudo tenían paredes a su alrededor para mantener fuera a los enemigos y puertas para que la gente entrara y saliera. TA: "dentro de su comunidad" o "dentro de su ciudad"

En el día septimo
"En el día siete". Aquí "séptimo" es el número ordinal de "7".

Bendije el día de reposo
Los posibles significados son que 1) Dios causó que el día de reposo produjera buenos resultados, o 2) que Dios dijo que el día de reposo era bueno.

Separé
"lo separé por un proposito especial"

Exodus 20:12

No deben cometer adulterio
"No debes tener relaciones sexuales con nadie más que tu cónyuge"

Exodus 20:15

No deben dar falso testimonio
"no debe decir un informe falso" o "no debe decir mentiras sobre alguien"

Ustedes no deben codiciar
"no debe querer tener" o "no debe querer tomar"

Exodus 20:18

Voz
"sonido"

La montaña humeando
"humo saliendo de la montaña"

Ellos temblaron
"se sacudieron de miedo"

Se pararon lejos.
"estaba muy lejos" o "estaba a una distancia" (UDB)

El honor de El este en ustedes, y así ustedes no pequen
"para que lo honres y no peques"

Se acercó
"Fue más cerca de"

Exodus 20:22

Esto es lo que tu debes decirle a los Israelitas
"Dile esto a los israelitas"

Ustedes mismos han visto que Yo he hablado con ustedes desde el cielo
"Ustedes me han oido hablarles desde el cielo"

No se harán otros dioses a mi lado.
"No debes hacer ídolos como otros dioses en lugar de mí" dioses de oro y dioses de plata

"dioses hechos de plata u oro" o "ídolos hechos de plata u oro"

Exodus 20:24

Altar terrenal
Un altar hecho de materiales del suelo, como piedra, tierra o arcilla.

Mi nombre sea honrado
Aquí "nombre" es un metónimo para el ser de Dios. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "elige para que me honres"

Ustedes no deben subir por escalones a Mi altar
"No hagas un altar que tenga escalones"

Expongan sus partes privadas
"mostrando su cuerpo desnudo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 "Ahora estos son los decretos que tú debes presentar delante de ellos: 2 'Si compran un siervo hebreo, él está para servir por seis años, y en el séptimo año él saldrá libre sin pagar nada. 3 Si él vino solo, él debe salir libre solo; si él está casado, entonces su esposa debe salir libre con él. 4 Si su amo le dio una esposa y ella le dio hijos o hijas, la esposa y sus hijos pertenecerán al amo de ella, y él debe salir libre solo. 5 Pero si el siervo claramente dice: "Yo amo mi amo, mi esposa y mis hijos; yo no saldré libre", 6 entonces su amo debe traerlo a Dios. El amo debe traerlo a una puerta o al marco de una puerta, y su amo debe agujerear su oreja con un punzón. Entonces el siervo le servirá por el resto de su vida. 7 Si un hombre vende su hija como una sierva, ella no debe salir libre, como los siervos varones lo hacen. 8 Si ella no complace a su amo, quien la ha designado para él mismo, entonces él debe dejar que sea comprada de vuelta. Él no tiene derecho para venderla a personas extranjeras. Él no tiene tal derecho, ya que él la ha tratado engañosamente. 9 Si su amo la designa como una esposa para su hijo, él debe tratarla igual como si fuera su hija. 10 Si él toma otra esposa para sí mismo, él no debe disminuir su comida, ropa, o sus derechos maritales. 11 Pero si él no provee estas tres cosas para ella, entonces ella pueda salir libre sin pagar ningún dinero. 12 Quien golpee a un hombre y este muere, ciertamente esa persona debe ser puesto a muerte. 13 Si el hombre no lo hizo con premeditación, pero en cambio por accidente, entonces yo arreglaré un lugar donde él pueda huir. 14 Si un hombre intencionalmente ataca a su vecino y lo mata de acuerdo a un plan astuto, entonces debe ser tomado, incluso si él está en el altar de Dios, para que él muera. 15 Cualquiera que golpea a su padre o madre debe ciertamente ser puesto a muerte. 16 Cualquiera que secuestre a una persona y la venda, o la persona es encontrada en su posesión, ese secuestrador debe ciertamente ser puesto a muerte. 17 Cualquiera que maldiga a su padre o a su madre debe ciertamente ser puesto a muerte. 18 Si los hombres pelean y uno golpea al otro con una piedra o con su puño, y esa persona no muere, pero está confinada a su cama; 19 entonces si él se recupera y es capaz de pasearse usando su bastón, el hombre que lo golpeó debe pagar por la pérdida de su tiempo; él debe también pagar por su completa recuperación. Pero ese hombre no es culpable de asesinato. 20 Si un hombre golpea a su siervo o sierva con un bastón, y si el siervo muere como resultado de la lesión, entonces ese hombre debe ser ciertamente castigado. 21 Sin embargo, si el sirviente vive por un día o dos, el amo no debe ser castigado, pues él habrá sufrido la pérdida del siervo. 22 Si hombres pelean y lastiman a una mujer embarazada y ella aborta, pero no hay ninguna otra lesión en ella, entonces el hombre culpable deber ser ciertamente multado, como el esposo de la mujer demande de él, y él debe pagar como lo determinen los jueces. 23 Pero si hay una lesión seria, entonces tú debes dar una vida por una vida, 24 un ojo por un ojo, un diente por un diente, una mano por una mano, un pie por un pie, 25 una quemadura por una quemadura, una herida por una herida, o un moretón por un moretón. 26 Si un hombre golpea el ojo de su siervo o sierva y lo destruye, entonces él debe permitir que el siervo salga libre en compensación por su ojo. 27 Si le saca un diente de su siervo o sierva, él debe permitir que el siervo salga libre como compensación por el diente. 28 Si un buey cornea a un hombre o una mujer a muerte, el buey debe ciertamente ser apedreado, y su carne no debe ser comida; pero el dueño del buey debe ser absuelto de culpa. 29 Pero si el buey tenía un hábito de cornear en el pasado, y su dueño estuvo advertido pero no lo mantuvo encerrado, y el buey ha matado un hombre o una mujer, ese buey debe ser apedreado, y su dueño también debe ser puesto a muerte. 30 Si un pago es requerido por su vida, él debe pagar lo que sea que le es requerido pagar. 31 Si el buey ha corneado al hijo o hija de un hombre, el dueño del buey debe hacer lo que este decreto le requiere hacer. 32 Si el buey cornea a un siervo o una sierva, el dueño del buey debe pagar 30 siclos de plata, y el buey debe ser apedreado. 33 Si un hombre abre un pozo, o si un hombre cava un pozo y no lo cubre, y un buey o asno cae en él, 34 el dueño del pozo debe pagar por la pérdida. Él debe darle dinero al dueño del animal muerto, y el animal muerto será suyo. 35 Si el buey de un hombre lastima al buey de otro hombre y muere, entonces ellos deben vender al buey vivo y dividir su precio, y ellos deben también dividir al buey muerto. 36 Pero si era conocido que el buey tenía un hábito de cornear en el pasado, y su dueño no lo ha mantenido dentro, él debe ciertamente pagar buey por buey, y el animal muerto se convertirá en el suyo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 21:1

Información general
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés

Debes presentar delante de ellos
"debes darles" o "debes decirles"

Exodus 21:2

Información general
El Señor le dice a Moisés sus leyes para el puelo de Israel

Si él vino solo, él debe salir libre solo
Lo que significa "sólo" se puede decir claramente. Algunos idiomas requieren que la condición adicional, que se case mientras es un esclavo, se indique claramente. TA: "Si se convirtió en esclavo mientras no tenía esposa, y si se casa mientras es esclavo, el maestro solo necesita liberar al hombre"

solo
"Por si mismo" o "sin una esposa"

Si él está casado
"si estaba casado cuando se convirtió en esclavo" o "si vino como hombre casado"

Exodus 21:5

claramente dice
"dice claramente"

No saldré libre.
"No quiero que mi maestro me libere"

Agujerear su oreja
"poner un agujero en su oreja"

Punzón
Una herramienta puntiaguda utilizada para hacer un agujero.

Por el resto de su vida.
"Hasta el final de su vida" o "Hasta que muera".

Exodus 21:7

Ha designado
"ha elegido"

Él debe dejar que sea comprada de vuelta.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "él debe permitir que su padre la compre de nuevo"

No tiene derecho para venderla
"no tiene autoridad para venderla"

Él la ha tratado con engaño.
"la ha engañado"

Exodus 21:9

Designa
"elige"

no debe disminuir su comida, ropa o sus derechos matrimoniales.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma positiva. TA: "él debe darle a la primera esposa la misma comida, ropa y derechos conyugales que tenía antes"

Disminuir.
"quitar" o "reducir"

O sus derechos maritales
Esto incluye cosas que un esposo debe hacer por su esposa, incluso dormir con ella. TA: "y él debe seguir durmiendo con ella como antes"

Exodus 21:12

golpee
"agreda "o" ataque"

Esa persona seguramente debe ser puesto a muerte
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "ciertamente debes ejecutar a esa persona" o "ciertamente debes matar a esa persona"

No lo hizo con premeditación.
"No planeé hacerlo" o "No lo hice a propósito"

Arreglaré un lugar donde él pueda huir.
El propósito de elegir un lugar puede ser puede ser declarado claramente aquí. TA: "Elegiré un lugar donde pueda huir para estar seguro"

de acuerdo a un plan astuto
"Después de pensarlo cuidadosamente"

Debe ser tomado
Se refiere al que mató a su vecino.

Para que él muera
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "para que puedas matarlo"

Exodus 21:15

Cualquiera que golpea a su padre o madre ciertamente debe ser puesto a muerte Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Si alguien golpea a su padre o madre, seguramente debes darle muerte" o "Seguramente debes matar a cualquiera que golpee a su padre o madre" ciertamente debe

"Seguramente debe"

En su posesión
"con él"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ese secuestrador seguramente debe ser puesto a muerte.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "ciertamente debes matar a ese secuestrador"

Cualquiera que maldiga a su padre o a su madre ciertamente debe ser puesto a muerte.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "seguramente debes matar a cualquiera que maldice a su padre o a su madre"

Exodus 21:18

Está confinada a su cama
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "no puede levantarse de la cama" o "tiene que quedarse en la cama"

Se recupera
"mejora"

Bastón
Este es un palo que puede apoyarse mientras se camina.

La pérdida de su tiempo
Esto se refiere a una situación en la que alguien no puede trabajar para ganar dinero. Puedes expresarlo claramente en la traducción. TA: "el tiempo en que no pudo trabajar"

Pagar por su completa recuperación.
"pagar sus costos médicos" o "pagar sus costos de sanación" (UDB)

Exodus 21:20

Como resultado de la lesión
"por la lesión" o "porque su maestro lo golpeó"

Ese hombre ciertamente debe ser castigado.
Esto puede ser afirmado de forma activa. TA: "ciertamente debes castigar a ese hombre"

pues él habrá sufrido la pérdida del siervo Puedes expresar claramente en la traducción que el sirviente fue valioso para su amo. TA: "porque ya ha perdido a su sirviente que era valioso para él"

Exodus 21:22

Ella aborta
"su bebé muere en su vientre" o "su bebé nace demasiado pronto y muere"

El hombre culpable ciertamente deber ser multado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "ciertamente debe multar al culpable" o "el culpable debe pagar una multa"

Como determinen los jueces
"lo que deciden los jueces"

Debes dar una vida por una vida, un ojo por un ojo.
Esto significa que si ella está herida, la persona que la lastimó debe ser herida de la misma manera. TA: "él debe dar su vida por la vida de ella, su ojo por el ojo de ella"

Exodus 21:26

Si un hombre
Aquí "hombre" se refiere al dueño de un esclavo.

En compensación
"como pago". La compensación es lo que alguien hace por otra persona o le da a otra persona para compensar lo que ha causado que esa persona pierda.

Exodus 21:28

Cornea
"Lesiona con sus cuernos".

El buey ciertamente debe ser apedreado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "debes apedrear al buey hasta la muerte"

Su carne no debe ser comida
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "no debes comer su carne"

El dueño del buey debe ser absuelto
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "debes absolver al dueño del buey"

Su dueño también debe ser puesto a muerte
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "también debes matar a su propietario"

Si un pago es requerido por su vida
Si el dueño del buey puede pagar una multa para salvar su propia vida, entonces debe pagar lo que decidan los jueces. El significado completo de esto se puede establecer claramente. Esto también se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si el dueño del toro puede pagar una multa para salvar su propia vida, debe pagar la cantidad total que los jueces dicen que debe pagar"

Exodus 21:31

Ha corneado
"Ha herido con sus cuernos".

30 ciclos de plata
"330 gramos de plata". Un ciclo de plata pesaba once gramos.

El buey debe ser apedreado.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "debes matar al buey apedreandolo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 21:33

Abre un pozo
"descubre un agujero en el suelo" o "quita la tapa de un agujero en el suelo"

Pagar por la pérdida
El dueño debe pagar por la pérdida de su animal. TA: "pagar al propietario por el animal muerto"

será suyo
El que pagó por la pérdida del animal se convertirá en el dueño del animal muerto y podrá hacer lo que quiera con él. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. TA: "pertenecerá al propietario del foso"

Exodus 21:35

Dividir su precio
"divide el dinero" o "divide el dinero que reciben"

Si era conocido
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si la gente sabía" o "si el propietario sabía"

un hábito de cornear en el pasado
"Había corneado otros animales antes"

Su dueño no lo ha mantenido dentro
Esto significa que el dueño no mantuvo su buey de manera segura dentro de una cerca. Esto se puede indicar claramente en la traducción. TA: "su dueño no lo mantuvo dentro de una cerca"

El debe ciertamente pagar buey por buey
El dueño del buey que mató debe dar un buey al hombre que perdió su buey. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. TA: "el dueño del buey que mató seguramente debe darle un buey vivo al dueño del buey que murió"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 Si una persona se roba un buey o una oveja, y la mata o la vende, entonces él pagará cinco bueyes por un buey y cuatro ovejas por una oveja. 2 Si un ladrón es encontrado violentando una propiedad, y si es herido y muere, en ese caso ninguna culpa de asesinato será aplicada en el caso. 3 Pero, si el sol ha salido antes de que él entre, será acusado de asesinato la persona que lo mate. Un ladrón tiene que reponer su daño. Si él no tiene nada, tiene que ser vendido por el valor de su robo. 4 Si el animal robado se encuentra vivo en su posesión, sea un buey, burro u oveja, él tiene que pagar el doble. 5 Si un hombre pastorea su ganado en una campo o viñedo y deja a sus animales sueltos y comen en el campo de otro hombre, el dueño tiene que reparar el daño con lo mejor de su propio campo o con lo mejor de su viñedo. 6 Si se desata un fuego y se propaga por las espigas, el granero, los sembrados de grano nuevo o si se consume el campo, la persona que comenzó el fuego tiene que ciertamente reponer el daño. 7 Si un hombre le da dinero o bienes a su vecino para guardarlos y es robado de la casa de su vecino, si se encuentra al ladrón, éste tiene que pagar el doble. 8 Si no se encuentra al ladrón, entonces el dueño de la casa tiene que ir ante los jueces para determinar si él puso su mano en la propiedad de su vecino. 9 Por cada controversia acerca de algo, sea un buey, un burro, oveja, ropa, o cualquier otra cosa perdida por la cual alguien diga: "Esto me pertenece a mí", la reclamación de ambas partes tiene que hacerse ante los jueces. La persona a quien los jueces encuentren culpable tiene que pagar el doble a su vecino. 10 Si un hombre le da a su vecino un asno, un buey, una oveja o cualquier animal para cuidarlo y el mismo se muere o sufre daño o se lo roban sin que nadie lo vea, 11 ambas partes tienen que ofrecer un juramento al SEÑOR, de que ninguno de los dos ha puesto sus manos en la propiedad de su vecino. El dueño tiene que aceptar esto y el otro no tendrá que reparar el daño. 12 Pero si le fue robado, el otro tiene que repararle el daño al dueño. 13 Si un animal es despedazado, permite que el otro hombre lo presente como evidencia. Él no tendrá que pagar por lo que fue despedazado. 14 Si una persona toma prestado cualquier animal de su vecino y el animal se lesiona o se muere sin que el dueño esté presente, el otro hombre tiene que ciertamente reponer el daño. 15 Pero si el dueño estaba presente, el otro hombre no tendrá que pagar; si el animal fue alquilado, será pagado el monto del alquiler. 16 Si un hombre seduce una mujer virgen que no está comprometida, y duerme con ella, él ciertamente tiene que hacerla su esposa pagando el precio de casamiento establecido. 17 Si el padre de ella se niega a dársela a él, el hombre tiene que pagar una suma de dinero igual al precio de la virginidad de la novia. 18 No puedes permitir que una hechicera viva. 19 Quien sea que duerma con una bestia ciertamente tiene que morir. 20 Cualquiera que ofrezca sacrificio a otro dios que no sea al SEÑOR tiene que ser completamente destruido. 21 No puedes maltratar a un extranjero ni oprimirlo, pues tú fuiste extranjero en la tierra de Egipto. 22 No puedes maltratar a ninguna viuda o huérfano. 23 Si los afliges y si ellos me claman a Mí, El SEÑOR, Yo de seguro oiré su clamor. 24 Mi ira se encenderá y los mataré a ustedes con la espada; sus esposas se convertirán en viudas y sus hijos en huérfanos. 25 Si le prestas dinero a cualquiera de mi pueblo que sea pobre, no puedes ser como un prestamista con él o cobrarle interéses. 26 Si tú tomas prestado una manta, tienes que devolvésela antes de la puesta del sol, 27 porque ésa es su única pieza para cubrirse; es su vestimenta para su cuerpo. ¿Qué otra cosa usará para dormir? Cuando él me llame a Mí, Yo lo oiré, porqueYo soy compasivo. 28 No puedes blasfemarme a Mí, Dios, ni maldecir al gobernante de tu pueblo. 29 No puedes retener las ofrendas de tus cosechas o de tus lagares. Tienes que darme a Mí el primero de tus hijos. 30 También tienes que hacer lo mismo con tus bueyes y ovejas. Por siete días se quedarán con sus madres, pero al octavo día tienes que dármelos a Mí. 31 Ustedes serán el pueblo separado para Mí. Así que no pueden comer carne que fue despedazada por los animales en el campo. En cambio, tienen que echarlo a los perros.

Exodus 22:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Si un ladrón es encontrado
Esto puede ser afirmado de forma activa. TA "Si alguien encuentra un ladrón"

Violentando
"usando la fuerza para entrar a una casa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Si es herido y muere
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si alguien golpea al ladrón para que muera"

Ninguna culpa de asesinato será aplicada en el caso.
"nadie será culpable de su asesinato"

Si el sol ha salido antes de que él entre
"Si hay luz antes de que él entre" o "Si él irrumpe y es después del amanecer"

Será acusado de asesinato la persona que lo mate.
"La persona que lo mata será culpable de asesinato"

reponer su daño
"paga por lo que robó"

tiene que ser vendido por el valor de su robo.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma activa. TA: "debes venderlo como esclavo para pagar por lo que robó"

Si el animal robado se encuentra vivo en su posesión.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Si encuentran que todavía tiene el animal vivo que robó"

Pagar el doble
Pagar dos animales por cada animal que el tomó

Exodus 22:5

Si un hombre pastorea su ganado
"Si un hombre deja que sus animales coman plantas"

comen
"comen plantas"

tiene que reparar el daño
"Debe devolver al dueño de ese campo"

Exodus 22:6

Si se desata un fuego y se propaga por las espigas
"Si alguien comienza un incendio y se extiende por las espinas"

se propaga por las espigas
"Se mueve por el suelo a través de plantas secas".

granero
Este es un grano que ha sido cortado y atado en paquetes. "grano empaquetado" o "grano cosechado"

los sembrados de grano nuevo
Este es un grano que no se ha cortado, pero está listo para ser cosechado.

Se consume el campo.
"el fuego consume un campo" o "el fuego destruye un campo"

ciertamente reponer el daño
"Ciertamente hay que pagar por el grano que destruyó el fuego"

Exodus 22:7

Para guardarlos
"Vigilarlo" o "mantenerlo seguro"

es robado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si alguien lo roba"

Ladrón
Alguien que roba algo

Si el ladrón es encontrado Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si encuentras al ladrón" tiene que ir ante los jueces

"vengan ante los jueces para que puedan averiguar si"

él puso su mano en la propiedad de su vecino Esta es una expresión idiomática. Si tiene una manera de decir esto en su idioma, puede usarlo aquí. TA: "ha robado la propiedad de su vecino"

la reclamación de ambas partes tiene que hacerse ante los jueces
Los jueces deben escuchar a ambas personas que afirman que el artículo les pertenece y los jueces decidirán quién es el culpable.

Exodus 22:10

ambas partes tienen que ofrecer un juramento al SEÑOR Solo el hombre acusado de robar el animal debe jurar. El dueño del animal perdido debe aceptar el juramento que se ha jurado. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "el hombre que cuidaba al animal debe jurar ante el Señor y el dueño debe aceptar ese juramento"

Pero si le fue robado.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Pero si alguien le robó el animal"

Si un animal fue despedazado Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Pero si una bestia salvaje despedazó al animal"

Él no tendrá que pagar por lo que fue despedazado.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "No tendrá que pagar por el animal que destruyó la bestia salvaje"

Exodus 22:14

ciertamente reponer el daño
"ciertamente debe pagar con otro animal" o "ciertamente debe pagar al dueño por el animal"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Si el animal fue alquilado Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "si alguien alquiló el animal" será pagado el monto del aquiler.

Quien haya pedido prestado el animal no tendrá que pagarle al propietario más que la tarifa de alquiler o alquiler. Esta tarifa pagará por la pérdida del animal. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. TA: "el dinero que alguien pagó para alquilar el animal cubrirá la pérdida del animal"

Monto de alquiler
"tarifa de alquiler" o "dinero pagado para alquilar el animal"

Exodus 22:16

Seduce
"persuade"

No comprometida
"No prometida para casarse"

y duerme con ella
Dormir con alguien es un eufemismo para tener relaciones sexuales. TA: "si él tiene sexo con ella" (Ver: eufemismo de higos)

Precio de casamiento establecido
"dote" o "precio de la novia"

Él, él
Estos pronombres se refieren al hombre que sedujo a la virgen.

Exodus 22:18

Quien sea que duerma con una bestia ciertamente tiene que morir.
Aquí "dormir con una bestia" es un eufemismo que significa que alguien tiene relaciones sexuales con un animal. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Ciertamente debes matar a cualquiera que tenga relaciones sexuales con un animal"

Exodus 22:20

Al SEÑOR, tiene que ser completamente destruido.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "Al SEÑOR, debes destruirlo completamente"

Maltratar a un extranjero.
"maltratar a un extranjero" o "engañar a un extranjero"

Exodus 22:22

No puedes maltratar a ninguna viuda o huérfano
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. TA: "Debe tratar a todas las viudas e hijos sin padre de manera justa"

Viuda
"mujer cuyo marido ha muerto"

huérfano
"niño sin padres"

los mataré a ustedes con la espada
Ser asesinado "con la espada" es un metónimo que significa que una persona morirá violentamente, o tal vez peleando en una guerra. TA: "morirás una muerte violenta"

Exodus 22:25

Prestamista
"uno que presta dinero"

Cobrarle intereses
"cobrarle dinero extra por los préstamos" o "cobrarle dinero extra por el préstamo"

prestado una manta
"abrigo como garantía" o "abrigo como garantía para pagar el préstamo"

Única pieza para cubrirse
"único abrigo" o "única prenda para mantenerlo abrigado"

¿Qué otra cosa usará para dormir?
Esta pregunta añade énfasis. Puedes traducirlo como una declaración fuerte. TA: "¡No tendrá nada que ponerse mientras duerme!"

Compasivo
"misericordioso" o "amable"

Exodus 22:28

No puedes blasfemarme a Mí, Dios
"No insultes a Dios" o "No hables mal de Dios"

ni maldecir al gobernante
"y no le pidas a Dios que le haga cosas malas a un gobernante"

Exodus 22:29

No puedes retener las ofrendas Esto se puede afirmar de forma positiva. TA: "Debe traer todas sus ofrendas" darme a Mí el primero de tus hijos

"Dedicar sus primeros hijos varones para mí"

Hacer lo mismo con
"Dedícame al primogénito de".

Por siete días
Esto se puede escribir como un número. TA: "Por 7 días después de nacer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El octavo día
Esto se puede escribir como un número. TA: "día número 8"

Dármelos a Mí
"dedícalos a mí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 No puedes dar un informe falso acerca de nadie. No te unas a un hombre malvado para ser un testigo deshonesto. 2 No puedes seguir una multitud para hacer el mal, ni ser un testigo influenciado por la multitud para así pervertir la justicia. 3 No puedes favorecer a un hombre pobre en su demanda. 4 Si encuentras el buey de tu enemigo o su asno perdido, tienes que llevarlo de vuelta a él. 5 Si ves el asno de alguien que te odia caer al suelo por el peso de la carga, no puedes dejar a esa persona. Ciertamente tienes que ayudarlo con su asno. 6 No puedes pervertir la justicia cuando ésta debería ir hacia tu pobre pueblo en la demanda de un hombre pobre. 7 No te unas a otros en hacer falsas acusaciones, y no mates al inocente o al recto, porque Yo no absolveré al malvado. 8 Nunca tomes una extorsión, porque una extorsión ciega aquellos quienes ven, y pervierte las palabras de una persona honesta. 9 No puedes oprimir al extranjero, ya que ustedes conocen la vida de un extranjero, porque ustedes fueron extranjeros en la tierra de Egipto. 10 Por seis años sembrarás semilla en tu tierra y recogerás su producto. 11 Pero en el séptimo año lo dejarás descansar y sin sembrar, para que los pobres de entre tu pueblo puedan comer. Lo que ellos dejen, los animales salvajes lo comerán. Harás lo mismo con tus viñedos y huerto de olivos. 12 Durante seis días harás tu trabajo, pero en el séptimo día tienes que descansar. Haz esto para que tu buey y tu asno puedan descansar, y para que el hijo de tu esclava y cualquier extranjero pueda descansar y refrescarse. 13 Pon atención a todo lo que te estoy diciendo. No menciones los nombres de otros dioses, ni dejes que los nombres de ellos sean escuchados de entre tu boca. 14 Debes viajar para darme un festival tres veces al año. 15 Debes observar el Festival de los Panes sin Levadura. Como te ordené, tu comerás pan sin levadura durante siete días. En ese tiempo, tu aparecerás delante de Mí en el mes de Abib, el cual es estipulado para ese propósito. Fue en este mes que saliste de Egipto. No debes aparecer delante de Mí con las manos vacías. 16 Debes observar la Fiesta de la Cosecha, el primer fruto de tu trabajo cuando cosechas semillas en tus campos. También tienes que observar la Fiesta de la Siega al final del año, cuando recoges el producto de tus campos. 17 Todos tus varones deben aparecer delante de Mí, el SEÑOR, tres veces al año. 18 No puedes ofrecer la sangre de sacrificios hechos para Mí con pan que contenga levadura. La grosura de los sacrificios en mis festivales no puede permanecer toda la noche hasta la mañana. 19 Tienes que traer lo primero de las cosechas de tu tierra a mi casa, la casa de el SEÑOR, tu Dios. No debes hervir al joven cordero en la leche de su madre. 20 Yo voy a enviar un ángel delante de ti para guardarte en tu camino, y para llevarte al lugar que Yo he preparado. 21 Sé atento con él y obedécelo. No lo provoques, porque no perdonará tus transgresiones. Mi nombre está sobre él. 22 Si en verdad obedeces su voz y haces todo lo que Yo te diga, entonces Yo seré un enemigo a tus enemigos y un adversario a tus adversarios. 23 Mi Ángel irá delante de ti y te traerá a los Amorreos, Hititas, Ferezeos, Cananitas, Hetitas y Jebuseos. Yo los destruiré. 24 No debes inclinarte ante sus dioses, adorarlos, o hacer como ellos hacen. En vez de esto, debes derribarlos completamente y destruir sus pilares de piedra en pedazos. 25 Tienes que adorarme a Mí, al SEÑOR, tu Dios. Si lo haces, Yo te bendeciré tu pan y agua. Yo quitaré la enfermedad de en medio de ti. 26 Ninguna mujer será estéril o abortará su criatura en tu tierra. Te daré larga vida. 27 Yo enviaré temor de Mí mismo sobre aquellos de cuya tierra tú avances. Yo mataré a toda la gente que conozcas. Yo haré que todos tus enemigos vuelvan su espaldas hacia ti en terror. 28 Yo enviaré avispas delante de ti que harán huir a los Heveos, Cananeos y a los Hititas de delante de ti. 29 Yo no los quitaré de delante de ti en un año, o la tierra sería abandonada, y los animales salvajes serían demasiados para ti. 30 En su lugar, Yo los sacaré poco a poco de delante de ti hasta que seas lleno de fruto y heredes la tierra. 31 Yo arreglaré tus fronteras desde el Mar Rojo hasta el Mar de los Filisteos, y desde el desierto al Río Éufrates. Yo te daré la victoria sobre los habitantes de la tierra. Tú los echarás de delante de ti mismo. 32 Tú no puedes hacer pacto con ellos o con sus dioses. 33 Ellos no pueden vivir en tu tierra, o ellos los harán pecar a ustedes en contra Mía. Si tu adoras a sus dioses, esto ciertamente se convertiría en una trampa para ti."

Exodus 23:1

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Testigo deshonesto.
Esto es lo mismo que un testigo mentiroso o falso

Ni ser testigo
"y tú tampoco debes hablar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

influenciado por la multitud
Esta es una metáfora que describe el hecho de estar de acuerdo con un grupo de personas como si realmente se acercara y estuviera junto a ese grupo. TA: "hacer lo que la multitud quiere" o "estar de acuerdo con la mayoría"

Pervertir la justicia.
Hacer acciones ilegales o inmorales que resulten en una decisión injusta.

Exodus 23:4

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 23:6

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

No puedes pervertir la justicia.
"No debe realizar acciones que produzcan un resultado legal inadecuado" que dé lugar a la libertad de una persona culpable o al castigo de un inocente.

ésta debería ir
En esta frase, "esta" se refiere a la justicia apropiada, a una decisión correcta.

Demanda
"disputa"

No absolveré al malvado
"No encontraré inocente a los malvados" o "No diré a los malvados que son inocentes"

extorción ciega ... pervierte.
Aquí se describe una "extorsión" como si fuera una persona. TA: "la extorsión desacredita ... socava"

La vida de un extranjero
"El tipo de vida que un extranjero vive en tierra extraña".

Exodus 23:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Producto
"productos alimenticios de plantas"

lo dejarás descansar
"sin cultivar" o "sin labranza"

sin sembrar
"En su estado natural" o "Sin uso para producción".

los pobres de entre tu pueblo puedan comer
Los pobres pueden comer cualquier alimento que crezca solo en un campo que no se cultiva. Esto se puede afirmar claramente en la traducción. TA: "para que los pobres de tu pueblo puedan cosechar y comer cualquier alimento que crezca solo en ese campo"

Exodus 23:12

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Pon atención
"Haz" u "obedece"

Tu buey y tu asno
"tu animales para trabajar"

Cualquier extranjero pueda descansar y refrescarse.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. TA: "cualquier extranjero puede descansar y recuperar su fuerza"

No menciones los nombres de otros dioses
Aquí "nombres" es un metónimo para orar a otros dioses. TA: "No ores a otros dioses"

Exodus 23:14

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Abib
Este es el nombre del primer mes del calendario hebreo. Abib es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13: 3.

No debes aparecer delante de Mí con las manos vacías.
aquí se usa la subestimación para enfatizar que los israelitas deben traer una ofrenda adecuada al Señor. TA: "ven a mí sin una ofrenda adecuada" o "siempre tráeme una ofrenda"

Exodus 23:16

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Debes observar
"Debes honrar" o "Debes celebrar"

Fiesta de la Cosecha
Este festival celebra la recolección final de todos los cultivos para el año.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Todos tus varones deben aparecer delante de Mí Aquí "aparecer" significa reunirse para la adoración. TA: "Todos los hombres deben reunirse para adorarme"

Exodus 23:18

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

La grosura de los sacrificios
La grasa se quemó como una ofrenda al SEÑOR y nunca se comió.

Lo primero de las cosechas
"El mejor y primer producto de la cosecha".

No debes hervir al joven cordero en la leche de su madre.
Esta fue una práctica de fertilidad mágica entre los cananeos, en la que a los israelitas no se les permitió participar.

Exodus 23:20

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Sé atento con él
"Escúchalo a él"

No lo provoques, porque no perdonará
"Si lo provocas, no perdonará"

Mi nombre está sobre él.
Aquí "nombre" se refiere a la autoridad de Dios. TA: "Él tiene mi autoridad"

Si en verdad obedeces su voz
Aquí la "voz" representa lo que dice el ángel. TA: "Si obedeces cuidadosamente lo que dice"

Un enemigo a tus enemigos y un adversario a tus adversarios.
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo y se usan para enfatizar.

Exodus 23:23

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

No debes ... hacer como ellos hacen.
Los israelitas no deben vivir como las personas que adoran a otros dioses. TA: "No debes ... vivir como las personas que adoran a esos dioses"

Yo te bendeciré tu pan y agua Este es un merismo que significa comida y bebida. TA: "Bendeciré tu comida y bebida" o "Te bendeciré dándote comida y bebida"

Exodus 23:26

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Ninguna mujer será estéril o abortará su criatura en tu tierra.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma positiva. TA: "Todas las mujeres podrán quedar embarazadas y dar a luz bebés sanos"

Aborto
Para que un embarazo termine temprano e inesperadamente

Avispas
Un insecto volador que puede picar a las personas y causar dolor.

O la tierra sería abandonada
"Porque nadie estaría viviendo en la tierra".

Exodus 23:30

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés sus leyes para el pueblo de Israel.

Esto ciertamente se convertiría en una trampa para ti.
Esto significa que adorar a otros dioses llevará al pueblo de Israel a una destrucción segura, como si fueran un animal atrapado en la trampa de un cazador.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 Luego el SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Sube hacia mí, tú, Aarón, Nadab, Abiú y setenta de los ancianos de Israel, y adórenme a una distancia. 2 Solamente Moisés puede acercarse a Mí. Los demás no pueden acercarse a Mí, ni el pueblo puede subir con él." 3 Moisés fue y le dijo al pueblo todas las palabras de el SEÑOR y los decretos. Todo el pueblo respondió con una sola voz y dijo: "Nosotros haremos todas las palabras que el SEÑOR ha dicho." 4 Entonces, Moisés escribió todas las palabras de el SEÑOR. Temprano en la mañana, Moisés construyó un altar a los pies de la montaña y organizó doce pilares de piedra, para que las piedras pudieran representar las doce tribus de Israel. 5 Él envió algunos jóvenes israelitas para ofrecer holocaustos y sacrificar ofrendas de comunión de bueyes al SEÑOR. 6 Moisés recolectó la mitad de la sangre y la puso en tazones; él esparció la otra mitad en el altar. 7 Él tomó el Libro del Pacto y lo leyó en voz alta al pueblo. Ellos dijeron: "Nosotros haremos todo lo que el SEÑOR ha hablado. Nosotros seremos obedientes." 8 Luego, Moisés recolectó la sangré y la esparció sobre el pueblo. Él dijo: "Esta es la sangre del pacto que el SEÑOR ha hecho con ustedes, dándoles esta promesa con todas estas palabras." 9 Luego Moisés, Aarón, Nadab, Abiú y setenta de los ancianos de Israel subieron a la montaña. 10 Ellos vieron al Dios de Israel. Debajo de Sus pies había un pavimento hecho de piedra de zafiro, tan claro como el mismo cielo. 11 Dios no puso su mano de ira sobre los líderes israelitas. Ellos vieron a Dios, y ellos comieron y bebieron. 12 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Sube donde Mí en la montaña y permanece allí. Yo te daré las tabletas de piedra y la ley y los mandamientos que Yo he escrito, para que tú puedas enseñarlos." 13 Así que Moisés salió con su asistente Josué y subió a la montaña de Dios. 14 Moisés le había dicho a los ancianos: "Permanezcan aquí y esperen por nosotros hasta que nosotros vayamos a donde ustedes. Aarón y Hur estáran con ustedes. Si alguno tiene una disputa, déjenlo que vaya a donde ellos." 15 Así que Moisés subió a la montaña, y la nube la cubrió. 16 La gloria del SEÑOR se estableció en el Monte Sinaí, y la nube cubrió lo cubrió por seis días. Al séptimo día Él llamó a Moisés desde adentro de la nube. 17 La apariencia de la gloria del SEÑOR era como un fuego devorador en la cima de la montaña ante los ojos de los israelitas. 18 Moisés entró en la nube y subió a la montaña. Él estuvo arriba de la montaña por cuarenta días y cuarenta noches.

Exodus 24:1

Setenta ancianos de Israel
"70 de los ancianos de Israel."

Exodus 24:3

Con una voz
Esto en una expresión idiomática, significa que las personas estaban en completo acuerdo. Traducción alterna: "juntos" o "de acuerdo"

A los pies de la montaña
"Base de la montaña" o " El inicio de la montaña"

Exodus 24:5

Moisés tomó la mitad de la sangre y la puso en tazones.
Moisés juntó la mitad de la sangre en tazones para salpicarla sobre las personas en 24:7. Esto confirmaría la participación de las personas del pacto entre el pueblo de Israel y Dios.

Él roció la otra mitad sobre el altar.
Aquí el altar representa a Dios. Esto confirmaría la participación de Dios del pacto entre Dios y el pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 24:7

Nosotros seremos obedientes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Nosotros obederecemos en todo"

Luego Moisés tomó la sangre
Esto hace referencia a la sangre que Moisés había puesto en los tazones. Esto se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "Luego Moisés tomó la sangre que había puesto en los tazones"

Exodus 24:9

Debajo de sus pies
Esto habla de Dios como si Él tuviera pies humanos.

Un pavimento hecho de piedras de zafiro
"Un pavimento hecho de piedras azules llamadas zafiros"

Pavimento
Una superficie dura para caminar o cabalgar.

Piedra de Zafiro
Esta es una piedra preciosa de color azul.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tan claro como el cielo mismo
Esta es una comparación. Traducción alterna: "Tan claro como el cielo cuando no hay nubes"

Dios no puso su mano de ira sobre los líderes israelitas
Esto significa que Dios no dañó a los líderes. Traducción alterna: "Dios no daño a los líderes israelitas"

Exodus 24:12

Tablas de piedras y las leyes y los mandamientos
Dios había escrito las leyes y mandamientos en las tablas de piedra. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: " Dos losas de piedra en las que he escrito todas las leyes"

Con su asistente Josué
"Con Josué quien lo asistió" o "con Josué quien lo ayudó"

Exodus 24:14

Esperen por nosotros
"Esperen a Josué y a mí"

Hur
Hur fue un hombre que era amigo de Moisés y Aarón. Ver como se ha traducido este nombre en 17:8.

Exodus 24:16

La gloria del Señor
Esta era la luz brillante de la presencia de Dios. Traducción alterna: "La luz brillante demostraba la presencia de Dios"

Como un fuego devorador
Esto significa que la gloria del Señor era muy grande y parecía quemar brillatemente como un fuego. Traducción alterna: "Como un gran fuego ardiente"

En los ojos de los Israelitas
Aquí "ojos" se refiere a los pensamientos sobre lo que ellos vieron. Traducción alterna: "A los Israelitas"

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches
"40 días y 40 noches"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y le dijo: 2 "Dile a los Israelitas que tomen una ofrenda para Mí de todo aquél cuyo corazón le mueva a hacerlo. Tú tomarás estas ofrendas por Mí. 3 Y éstas son las ofrendas que debes recibir de ellos: oro, plata y bronce; 4 tela azul, púrpura y escarlata, lino fino, pelo de cabra, 5 pieles de carnero teñidas de rojo, pieles de marsopa, y madera de acacia; 6 aceite para el santuario, especias para el aceite de la unción y para el incienso aromático; 7 piedras de ónice y otras piedras de engaste para el efod y para el pectoral. 8 Deja que Me hagan un santuario, para que Yo habite entre ellos. 9 Debes hacerlo exactamente como te voy a mostrar en los planos para el tabernáculo y para todo su equipo. 10 Harán también un arca de madera de acacia. Su longitud debe ser de dos y medio codos; su anchura uno y medio codos y su altura será de un codo y medio. 11 La revestiriás por dentro y afuera de oro puro, y le debes hacer una moldura de oro alrededor del tope. 12 Debes moldear cuatro argollas de oro para ella, y las pondrás en las cuatro esquinas del arca, dos argollas a un lado y dos argollas al otro lado. 13 También harás varas de madera de acacia y las revestirás de oro. 14 Meterás las varas por las argollas a los lados del arca, para cargar el arca. 15 Las varas permanecerán en las argollas del arca, no serán quitadas de ella. 16 Y pondrás en el arca los decretos del pacto que Yo te daré. 17 Harás además la tapa del propiciatorio de oro puro. Su longitud será de dos y medio codos y su anchura será de un y medio codos. 18 Harás también dos querubines de oro para los dos extremos de la tapa del propiciatorio. 19 Harás un querubín en un extremo de la tapa del propiciatorio y otro querubín en el otro extremo. Deben ser hechos como si fueran una solo pieza con la tapa del propiciatorio. 20 Los querubines deben extender sus alas hacia arriba, y cubrir la tapa propiciatorio con ellas. Los querubines deben estar uno frente al otro y mirar hacia el centro de la tapa del propiciatorio. 21 Pondrás la tapa del propiciatorio encima del arca, y dentro del arca pondrás los decretos del pacto que Yo te estoy dando. 22 Es en el arca que me encontraré contigo. Hablaré contigo desde mi posición sobre la tapa del propiciatorio. Será de entre los dos querubines sobre el arca del testimonio que te hablaré acerca de todos las ordenes que te daré para los Israelitas. 23 Harás asimismo una mesa de madera de acacia. Su longitud será de dos codos, y su ancho de un codo y su altura será de un codo y medio. 24 La revestirás de oro puro y harás una moldura de oro alrededor del tope. 25 Le harás también aldrededor un borde de palmo de ancho, y harás una moldura de oro aldrededor del borde. 26 Le harás cuatro argollas de oro, y pondrás argollas en las cuatro esquinas, donde estaban sus cuatro patas. 27 Las argollas deben estar sujetas al borde para proveer lugar a las varas, a fin de llevar la mesa. 28 Harás las varas de madera de acacia y las revestirás de oro para que la mesa pueda ser cargada por ellos. 29 Harás también los platos, cucharas, jarros y sus tazones para usarlos al servir la bebida de las ofrendas. De oro puro los harás. 30 Y regularmente pondrás el pan de la presencia en la mesa delante de Mí. 31 Entonces harás un candelabro de oro puro. El candelabro se hará con su base y su caña. Sus copas, sus cálices y sus flores serán todos hechos de una sola pieza con él. 32 Y saldrán de sus lados seis brazos --tres brazos deben extenderse de un lado del candelabro, y tres brazos del candelabro deben extenderse del otro lado. 33 El primer brazo debe tener tres copas en forma de flor de almendro en un brazo, con un cáliz y una flor; y tres copas en forma de flor de almendro en el otro brazo, con un cáliz y una flor. Así debe ser en todos los seis brazos que salen del candelabro. 34 En la caña del centro del candelabro, habrán cuatro copas en forma de flor de almendro, con sus cálices y sus flores. 35 Habrá un cáliz debajo de los dos primeros brazos --hechos como una sola pieza, y un cáliz debajo del segundo par de brazos-- también hechos como una sola pieza. De la misma manera, debe haber un cáliz debajo del tercer par brazos, hechos como una sola pieza. Debe ser así para todos los seis brazos que se extienden fuera del candelabro. 36 Sus cálices y brazos deben todos ser una sola pieza con él, una sola pieza labrada en oro puro. 37 Entonces harás el candelabro y sus siete lámparas; y pondrás sus lámparas para que alumbren y den luz del candelabro. 38 Sus tenazas y platillos serán de oro puro. 39 Usa un talento de oro puro para hacer el candelabro y sus accesorios. 40 Asegúrate que los hagas según el diseño que te ha sido mostrado en la montaña.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 25:1

Aquel cuyo corazón le mueva a hacerlo
Esta es una expresión idiomática que indica el deseo de una persona de dar una ofrenda.
Traducción alterna: "Quien quiera dar una ofrenda"

Deben recibir
La palabra "ustedes" hace referencia a Moisés y los líderes.

Exodus 25:3

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Material azul, púrpura, y escarlata Posiblemente los significados son: 1) "material teñido en azul, púrpura y escarlata", probablemente hilo de lana, o 2) " Tinte azul, púrpura y escarlata" para teñir el lino.

Escarlata
"rojo"

Manatí
Un animal grande que vive en el mar y come plantas

Especias
Plantas secas que las personas muelen en polvo y ponen en aceite o comida para dar un buen aroma o sabor.

Ónix
Una piedra valiosa que tiene capas de blanco y negro, rojo o marrón.

Piedras preciosas a ser colocadas
Esto pueder ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "piedras preciosas para que alguien las coloque"

Piedras preciosas
"gemas valiosas" o "gemas atesoradas"

Exodus 25:8

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciendole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Santuario... tabernáculo
Aquí estas palabras significan la misma cosa.

Ustedes tienen que hacerlo
Aquí "ustedes" es plural y se refiere a Moises y el pueblo de Israel.

Te voy a mostrar en los planos
"te muestro en el diseño" o "te muestro en el patrón". Aquí "tú" es singular y hace referencia a Moisés.

Exodus 25:10

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moises lo que pueblo tiene que hacer.

Dos codos y medio... Un codo y medio
"2,5 codos... 1.5 codos"

Exodus 25:12

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Funde cuatro argollas de oro
La fundición era un proceso en el cual el oro era derretido, vertido dentro de un molde que le daba forma de argollas, y luego se deja endurecer.

Para llevar el arca
"para que puedas llevar el arca"

Exodus 25:15

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

La tapa del propiciatorio
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación fue hecha.

Dos codos y medio... Un codo y medio
"2,5 codos... 1,5 codos"

Oro martillado
"Oro golpeado"

Exodus 25:19

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer

La tapa de propiciatorio
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación fue hecha. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:15.

Deben ser hechos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Debes hacerlos"

Deben ponerlo
Aquí "Ustedes" hace referencia a Moisés y el pueblo de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 25:22

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablandole a Moíses.

Es en el arca donde me encontraré contigo
"Yo me encontraré contigo en el arca". En 25:22 la palabra "Tú" es singular y se refiere a Moisés.

La tapa del propiciatorio
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación fue hecha. Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:15.

Exodus 25:23

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

dos codos... un codo... un codo y medio.
"2 codos... 1 codo... 1,5 codos"

Exodus 25:25

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Un palmo de ancho
Una medida de 7 a 8 centimetros.

Marco para ello
"Marco para la mesa"

Estaban las patas
"Son patas"

Los anillos deben estar sujetas
Esto puedeser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: " Debes ligar los anillos"

Para llevar
''Para que puedas llevar''

Exodus 25:28

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Para que la mesa pueda ser cargada con ellos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Para que tu puedas llevar la mesa con ellos"

Para ser utilizada para derramar la bebida de las ofrendas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "los cuales se usarán para derramar la bebida de las ofrendas"

Pan de la presencia
Este pan representaba la presencia de Dios.

Exodus 25:31

Oro labrado a martillo
"Oro golpeado" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:15.

El candelabro se hará
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Haz el candelero"

Sus copas, su base frondosa, y sus flores deben estar hechas en una sola pieza.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Haz sus copas, su base frondosa, y sus flores todo en una sola pieza con el candelero"

Exodus 25:33

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer. El Señor esta describiendo el candelabro.(Ver: 25:31)

Flor de almendro
Flores blancas o rosadas que tienen cinco pétalos.

Exodus 25:35

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer. Jehová esta describiendo el candelabro. (Ver: 25:31)

Hechos como una sola pieza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Debes hacerlos una sola pieza con el candelabro"

Exodus 25:37

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Para que den luz
"Para que brille la luz de el"

Las tenazas y ceniceros deben ser de oro puro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Haz las tenazas y ceniceros de oro puro"

Un talento
Un talento pesa 34 kilogramos.

Y sus accesorios
Las tenazas y los ceniceros

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Te ha sido mostrado en la montaña
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: " Yo te lo mostraré en la montaña"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Contruirás el tabernáculo con diez cortinas hechas de lino fino, y lana azul, púrpura y escarlata con diseños de querubines. Este será el trabajo de un artesano calificado. 2 El largo de cada cortina debe ser de veintiocho codos, el ancho de cuatro codos. Todas las cortinas deben ser del mismo tamaño. 3 Cinco cortinas deben estar unidas una con otra, las otras deben estar unidas unas con otras también. 4 Le harás lazos de tela azul alrededor de el borde exterior. De la misma manera, deben hacer lo mismo con el borde exterior de la cortina al final en el segundo conjunto. 5 Harás cincuenta lazos en la primera cortina, y harás cincuenta lazos en la cortina que está al final en el segundo conjunto. Hagan esto de manera que queden opuestos el uno del otro. 6 Deben hacer cincuenta broches de oro y unir las cortinas con los mismos para que el tabernáculo quede como una misma unidad. 7 Harás cortinas de pelo de cabra con la forma de tienda de campaña sobre el tabernáculo. Debes hacer once de estas cortinas. 8 El largo de cada cortina debe ser de treinta codos, y el ancho de cada cortina debe ser de cuatro codos. Cada una de las once cortinas debe ser del mismo tamaño. 9 Deben unir cinco cortinas una con otra y las otras seis también. La sexta cortina la doblarás al frente de la tienda de campaña. 10 Harás cincuenta lazos en el borde de la cortina del primer conjunto, y cincuenta lazos en el borde de la cortina al final que une el segundo conjunto. 11 Fabricarás cincuenta broches de bronce y los unirás a los lazos. Unirás toda la tienda de manera que sea un todo. 12 El sobrante de la cortina, es decir, la parte que sobresale de la tienda de campaña debe colgar sobre la parte trasera del tabernáculo. 13 Debe haber un codo de cortina a un lado y otro codo de cortina al otro lado --aquel que sobra del largo de la cortina de la tienda de campaña debe colgar sobre el otro lado del tabernáculo a un lado y al otro lado, para cubrirlo. 14 Harás para el tabernáculo una cubierta de piel de carnero teñido de rojo, y otra cubierta de piel fina para ponerla sobre él. 15 Harán un marco en posición vertical hecho de madera de acacia para el tabernáculo. 16 El largo de cada armazón debe ser diez codos, y de ancho codo y medio. 17 Usarás dos clavijas de madera en cada armazón para unir uno con el otro. Construirás todos los armazones de esta manera. 18 Cuando los construyan para el tabernáculo, deben hacer veinte armazones para el lado sur. 19 Construirán cuarenta bases de plata que van debajo de veinte armazones. Debe haber dos bases debajo del primer armazón que serviran de pedestal para ellos y también dos bases debajo de los otros armazones para sus dos pedestales. 20 Para el segundo lado del tabernáculo, al lado norte, deben hacer veinte armazones 21 y sus cuarenta bases de plata. Deben haber dos bases debajo del primer armazón, dos bases debajo del próximo armazón, y así sucesivamente. 22 Para la parte posterior del tabernáculo al lado oeste, deben construir seis armazones. 23 Deben hacer dos para las esquinas posteriores del tabernáculo. 24 Estos armazones deben estar separados en la parte inferior, pero unidos en la parte superior, por el mismo anillo. Lo harán así para ambos esquinas posteriores. 25 Deben haber ocho armazones, unidos a sus bases de plata. Deben haber dieciséis bases en total. Dos debajo del primer armazón, dos marcos debajo del próximo armazón, y así subsiguientemente. 26 Harán barras transversales de madera de acacia --cinco para los armazones de un lado del tabernaculo, 27 cinco barras transversales para los armazones del otro lado del tabernáculo, y cinco barras transversales para los armazones en el lado oeste del tabernáculo. 28 La barra transversal en el centro de los armazones es decir, a mitad de la barra, debe alcanzar de un extremo al otro. 29 Cubrirán los armazones con oro. Fabricarán anillos de oro, para ellos que sirvan de sujetadores para las barras transversales, y cubrirán las barras con oro. 30 Deben configurar el tabernáculo siguiendo el plan que se les enseñó en la montaña. 31 Harán una cortina de tela de lana fina azul, púrpura, y escarlata, con diseños de querubines, el trabajo de un artesano diestro. 32 Deben colgarla en cuatro pilares de madera de acacia cubiertas de oro. Estos pilares deben tener ganchos de oro en cuatro bases de plata. 33 Deben colgar la cortina debajo de broches, y deben traer el arca del testimonio. La cortina es para separar el Lugar Santo del Lugar Santísimo. 34 Colocarán la cubierta de arca de expiación sobre el arca del testimonio, el cual está en el lugar santísimo. 35 Colocarán la mesa afuera de la cortina. El candelero debe ser colocado en el lado opuesto a la mesa en el lado sur del tabernáculo. La mesa debe estar en el lado norte. 36 Harás un tápiz para la entrada a la tienda de campaña. Lo harán de tela azul, púrpura, y escarlata y lino fino torcido, trabajo de un bordador. 37 Para colgarlo, deben hacer cinco pilares de acacia cubiertos de oro. Los ganchos deben ser de oro, y deben fundir bases de bronce para ellos.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 26:1

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer. (Ver: 25:1)

Debes asegurarte
El Señor está hablando a Moises, asi que la palabra "Tú" es singular. El Señor probablemente espera que Moisés le diga a otra persona para hacer el trabajo real, pero Moisés sería el responsable de asegurarse que el trabajo sea realizado correctamente. "Dile a un artesano que lo haga"

Cortinas
Estas eran secciones grandes y pesadas de tela tejida que se usaban para formar las paredes que cubrían y dividían el tabernáculo.

Lana escarlata
Lana teñida de un rojo intenso

Artesano
Una persona que es experta en hacer hermosos objetos a mano.

Veintiocho codos... cuatro codos ocho codos ... cuatro codos- "28 codos ... 4 codos"
Un codo mide 46 centimetros

Cinco cortinas deben ser unidas entre sí.. también deben ser unidas con las otras.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cosa cinco cortinas para hacer un conjunto, y cosa las otras cinco cortinas para hacer otro conjunto"

Exodus 26:4

Ojales... broches
Encaja los broches en los ojales para mantener las cortinas juntas.

Un conjunto
"Un conjunto de cinco cortinas"

El segundo conjunto
"El segundo conjunto de cinco cortinas"

Exodus 26:7

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Once ... treinta ... cuatro
"11 ... 30 ... 4"

Codos
Un codo mide 46 centímetros.

Exodus 26:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Ojales ... broches
Encaja los broches en los ojales para mantener las cortinas juntas. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:4.

Exodus 26:12

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Codo
Un codo mide 46 centímetros.

Teñido
"Coloreado"

Exodus 26:15

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Armazón
Hace referencia a los marcos o paneles que hicieron al juntar las piezas más pequeñas de madera.

Diez codos ... Uno codo y medio.
"10 codos ... 1,5 codos"

Exodus 26:19

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer

Bases de plata
Estos eran bloques de plata que tenían una ranura para mantener la tabla en su lugar.

Pedestales
Las bases de plata mantuvieron la tabla de madera fuera del suelo

Debe haber dos bases
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: " Pon dos bases"

Y así sucesivamente
Esto significa que lo que se dijo sobre las dos primeras tablas debía hacerse con el resto de las tablas. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: " y dos bases para cada uno del resto de las tablas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 26:22

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Estos marcos deben estar separados en la parte inferior, pero unidos en la parte superior Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Separe estos marcos en la parte inferior, pero únalos en la parte superior"

Bases de plata
Estos eran bloques de plata que tenían una ranura para mantener la tabla en su lugar. Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 26:19.

En total
"Completo"

Y así subsiguientemente
Esto significa que lo que se dijo acerca de los dos primeros marcos debería hacerse para el resto de los marcos. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:19. Traducción alterna: " y dos bases para cada uno del resto de los marcos"

Exodus 26:26

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés como debe ser construido el tabernáculo.

Barra transversal
Estos son vigas de soportes horizontales que dan estabilidad a la estructura.

La parte trasera del tabernáculo debe estar hacia el oeste
La parte delantera del tabernáculo debe estar hacia el este.

Exodus 26:29

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés como debe ser construido el tabernáculo

Para que sirvan de sujetadores para las barras transversales "que sostendrán las barras transversales" o "porque ellos sostendrán las barras transversales"

Barras transversales
Estos son vigas de soportes horizontales que dan estabilidad a la estructura. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 26:26

Te lo mostraron en la montaña.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: " Que te he mostrado aquí en esta montaña"

Exodus 26:31

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés como debe ser construido el tabernáculo.

Debes hacerlo
El Señor está hablando a Moises, asi que la palabra "Tú" es singular. El Señor probablemente espera que Moisés le diga a otra persona para hacer el trabajo real, pero Moisés sería el responsable de asegurarse que el trabajo sea realizado correctamente. "Dile a un artesano que lo haga" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:1.

Broches
Encaja los broches en los ojales para mantener las cortinas juntas. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 26:4.

Debes traer el arca del testimonio
El arca del testimonio es el cofre que contiene los mandamientos. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "debes traer el cofre que contiene los mandamientos"

La cortina es para separar el lugar santo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "La cortina separará el lugar santo"

Exodus 26:34

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

La tapa del propiciatorio
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación era hecha. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:15.

En el arca del el testimonio.
"En el cofre que contiene los mandamientos"

La mesa debe estar en el lado norte.
Esta es la mesa que contiene el pan que representa la presencida de Dios. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "Coloque la mesa para el pan de la presencia de Dios en el lado norte"

Exodus 26:36

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés como debe ser construido el tabernáculo.

Un Colgante
Esta era una gran cortina hecha de tela.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El material era azul, púrpura y escarlata.
Posiblemente los significados son: 1) "material teñido en azul, púrpura, y escarlata", probablemente hilo de lana, o 2) " Tinte azul, púrpura y escarlata" para teñir el lino. Vea como se ha traducido esto en 25:3

Lino fino torcido
"Fino lino trenzado." Esta fue una tela hecha de finos hilos de lino que alguien trenzó para hacer un hilo más fuerte.

Un bordador
"Una persona que cose diseños en la tela" o " una persona que borda"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Debes hacer el altar de madera de acacia, cinco codos de largo y cinco codos de ancho. El altar nesecita ser cuadrado de tres codos de alto. 2 Debes hacer las extenciones de las cuatro esquinas en forma de cuernos de buey. Los cuernos serán de una pieza con el altar, y tu deberás cubrirlos con bronce. 3 Debes hacer el equipo para el altar: un caldero para los cenizas, y tambien palas, tazones, tenedor para carne y braseros. Debes hacer todos estos utencilios con bronce. 4 Debes hacer rejas para el altar, una red de bronce. Haz argollas de bronce para cada una de sus cuatro esquinas. 5 Debes poner las rejas debajo del borde del altar, desde la mitad hacia abajo. 6 Debes hacer varas para el altar, varas de madera acacia, y debes revestirlas con bronce. 7 Las varas deben de meterlas en las argollas, y las varas deben estar en los dos lados de altar, para cargar. 8 Debes hacer el altar hueco, de tablas. Debes hacerlo de la misma manera como se te mostró en el monte. 9 Debes hacer un patio para el tabernáculo. Debe haber cortinas en el lado sur del patio, cortinas de lino fino de cien codos de largo. 10 Las cortinas tienen que tener postes, con veinte bases de bronce. También debe haber ganchos amarrados a los postes, como también barras de plata. 11 Así también a lo largo del lado norte, debe haber cortinas de cien codos de largo con veinte postes, veinte bases de bronce, ganchos atados a los postes, y barras de plata. 12 A lo largo del patio en el lado oeste debe haber una cortina de cincuenta codos de largo. Debe haber diez postes y diez bases. 13 El patio también debe ser cincuenta codos de largo en el lado este. 14 Las cortinas para un lado de la entrada debe ser de quince codos de largo. Deben tener tres postes con tres bases. 15 El otro lado también debe tener cortinas de quince codos de largo. Debe tener tres postes y tres bases. 16 El portón del patio debe ser una cortina de veinte codos de largo. La cortina debe estar hecha de material azul, púrpura, y escarlata y lino fino torcido, el trabajo de un tejedor. Debe tener cuatro postes con cuatro bases. 17 Todos los postes del patio deben tener barras de plata, ganchos de plata, y bases de bronce. 18 El largo del patio debe ser de cien codos, la anchura debe ser de cincuenta codos, y la altura de cinco codos con cortinas de lino fino torcido por todo el largo, y bases de bronce. 19 Todo el equipo a ser usado en el tabernáculo, y todos las diez estacas para el tabernáculo y el patio debe estar hechas de bronce. 20 Debes ordenar al pueblo de Israel que traigan aceite de oliva, puro y presionado, para las lámparas para que puedan arder contínuamente. 21 En la tienda de reunión, afuera de la cortina que está al frente del tabernáculo que contiene el arca del testimonio, Aarón y sus hijos deben mantener las lámparas ardiendo ante el SEÑOR, desde el anochecer hasta la mañana. Este requisito debe ser un ordenanza para siempre a través de las generaciones del pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 27:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Cinco codos de largo y cinco codos de ancho
"2.2 metros de largo en cada lado"

El altar necesita ser cuadrado y de tres codos de alto.
"El altar debe ser cuadrado y de 1.3 metros de altura"

Codos
Un codo mide 46 centímetros.

Debes hacer las extenciones de las cuatro esquinas en forma de cuernos de buey
"Debes hacer proyecciones que parezcan cuernos de buey en sus cuatro esquinas"

Se harán los cuernos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Debes hacer los cuernos"

Debes cubrirlos
"Debes cubrir el altar y los cuernos"

Exodus 27:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Tazón
"Recipiente"

caldero
Habían sartenes que sostenían las brasas del altar.

Utensilios
Estos eran cualquier instrumento, recipiente o herramienta que servían para un propósito útil.

Debes hacer rejas para el altar, una red de bronce.
"Debes hacer una reja de bronce para el altar."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Reja
Un marco de barras cruzadas para sujetar madera al quemar.

Exodus 27:5

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo necesita hacer.

Debes poner las rejas debajo del borde del altar.
La reja se colocó dentro del altar. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "Debes poner la rejadebajo del borde del altar, en el interior del altar"

Reja
Un marco de barras cruzadas para sujetar madera al quemar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:3

Debes hacer varas para el altar
Estas varas eran usadas para cargar el altar. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: ''Debes hacer varas para cargar el altar''

Exodus 27:7

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Las varas deben de meterlas en las argollas, y las varas deben estar en los dos lados de altar, para cargar
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes colocar las varas en los anillos y ubicarlas en cada lado del altar para llevarlo"

Tablas
Una pieza de madera larga y plana que es más gruesa que una tabla.

Se te mostró en el monte
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Lo que te he mostrado aquí, en esta montaña"

Exodus 27:9

Debe haber cortinas ... en el patio
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes colocar los colgantes ... en el patio"

colgante de lino fino trenzado
Un "colgante" era una gran cortina hecha de tela. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:36

Lino fino trenzado
"Lino fino trenzado." Esta fue una tela hecha de finos hilos de lino que alguien trenzó para hacer un hilo más fuerte.

Cien codos
" Son 44 metros"

También debe haber ganchos... en los postes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Deberás amarrar ganchos... a los postes"

Postes
Una pieza de madera resistente, que se coloca en posición vertical y se usa como soporte

Exodus 27:11

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Asi también... las barras de plata
Para el 27:11 ver como se ha traducido las palabras similares en el 27:9

Debe haber cortinas
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: " Debes hacer las cortinas"

Debe haber una cortina
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: " Debes hacer una cortina"

Debe haber diez postes
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: "Debes hacer diez postes"

El atrio debe medir cincuenta codos de largo
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: "Haz el patio de cincuenta codos de largo"

Exodus 27:14

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Las cortinas
Un "colgante" era una gran cortina hecha de tela. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:36

Postes
Estas eran piezas de madera resistente, que se colocan en posición vertical y se usan como soporte. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:9.

Bases
Estos eran bloques de plata que tenían una ranura para mantener la tabla en su lugar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:19.

Quince codos
Apróximadamente unos siete metros

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El portón del patio debe ser de una cortina de veinte codos de largo.
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: "Debes hacer una cortina de veinte codos de largo para la puerta del patio."

Las cortinas deben hacerse ... de lino fino torcido, trabajado por un tejedor
Esto pueder ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos deben hacer la cortina ...lino fino torcido, el trabajo de un tejedor." o " Los bordadores deben hacer la cortina ... de lino fino trenzado"

Material azul, púrpura, y escarlata y lino fino trenzado Posiblemente los significados son: 1) "material teñido en azul, púrpura, y escarlata", probablemente hilo de lana, o 2) " Tinte azul, púrpura y escarlata" para teñir el lino.

Un tejedor
Una persona que cose diseños en la tela

Exodus 27:17

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Cien codos
"100 codos". Un codo mide 46 centímetros.

Lino fino trenzado
"Lino fino trenzado." Esta era una tela hecha de finos hilos de lino que alguien trenzó para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:36.

Y todas las estacas para el tabernáculo y el patio deben estar hechas de bronce.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: " y haz todas las estacas de la tienda para el tabernáculo y el atrio de bronce"

Estacas de la tienda
Pieza afilada de madera o metal usada para asegurar las esquinas de una tienda al suelo.

Exodus 27:20

Informaciones generales:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo.

Arca de testimonio
Este es el cofre que contiene las sagradas placas de piedra en las que el Señor había escrito sus mandamientos.

Este requisito debe ser una ordenanza para siempre
"Exijo que la gente haga esto como una ordenanza perpetua"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 Llama a tu hermano Aarón y sus hijos Nadab, Abiú, Eleazar, e Itamar, para que los israelitas me puedan servir como sacerdotes. 2 Debes hacer para tu hermano, Aarón, las vestiduras que son separadas para mí. Estas vestiduras serán para su honor y esplendor. 3 Deberás hablar a toda persona sabia de corazón, a aquellos que he llenado con espíritu de sabiduría, para que ellos puedan hacer las vestiduras de Aarón y separarlo para que me sirva como mi sacerdote. 4 Las vestiduras que ellos han de hacer serán, un pectoral, un efod, un manto, un abrigo tejido, un turbante, y un cinturón. Ellos deberán hacer estas vestimentas que los separarán para mí. Serán para tu hermano Aarón y sus hijos para que puedan servirme como sacerdotes. 5 Los artesanos deberán usar lino fino, que sea oro, azul, púrpura, y escarlata. 6 Ellos deberán hacer el efod de oro, de azul, púrpura, lana escarlata, y de lino fino torcido. Debe ser el trabajo de un artesano adiestrado. 7 Debe tener dos piezas para los hombros atados a las dos esquinas superiores. 8 El cinturón finamente tejido debe ser como el efod, debe hacerse con un pedazo del efod, hecho de lino fino torcido que sea oro, azul, púrpura y escarlata. 9 Debes tomar dos piedras de ónice y grabarles los nombres de los doce hijos de Israel. 10 Seis de sus nombres deben estar sobre una piedra, y seis nombres deben estar en la otra piedra, en orden del nacimiento de los hijos. 11 Con el trabajo de un joyero que grabe sobre piedra, como un grabado sellado, debes grabar dos piedras con los nombres de los doce hijos de Israel. 12 Deberás montar sobre el engaste el grabado en oro. Deberás colocar las dos piedras sobre las piezas del hombro del efod, para que el SEÑOR recuerde a los hijos de Israel. Aarón cargará sus nombres delante del SEÑOR sobre sus dos hombros como recordatorio a él. 13 Tu engastarás en oro 14 y trenzarás dos cadenas de oro puro como cuerdas, y atarás las cadenas al engaste. 15 Debes hacer un pectoral para tomar decisiones, será el trabajo de un artesano diestro, como la obra del efod. Hazlo de oro, de azul, púrpura y lana escarlata y de lino fino. 16 Deberá ser cuadrado. Debes doblar el pectoral en dos. Debe ser un palmo de largo y un palmo de ancho. 17 Deberás colocarlo en cuatro filas de joyas preciosas. La primera fila debe tener un rubí, un topacio, y una esmeralda. 18 La segunda fila debe tener una turquesa, un zafiro y un diamante. 19 La tercera fila debe tener un jacinto, una ágata y una amatista. 20 La cuarta fila debe tener un berilo, y un ónice, y un jaspe. Deben estar montadas sobre engastes de oro. 21 Las piedras deben estar ordenadas según los doce nombres de los hijos de Israel, todos ordenados por nombres. Deben estar grabados en el sello el nombre representativo de cada una de las doce tribus. 22 Debes hacer en el pectoral cadenas como cuerdas, un trabajo trenzado de oro puro. 23 Debes tener dos anillos de oro para el pectoral y debes pegarlos a las dos puntas del pectoral. 24 Debes pegar las dos cadenas de oro a las dos esquinas del pectoral. 25 Debes pegar las puntas de las cadenas trenzadas a los dos engastes. Entonces, debes pegar las piezas de los hombros en el frente del efod. 26 Debes hacer dos anillos de oro, y debes colocarlos en las otras dos esquinas del pectoral cerca del borde interior. 27 Debes hacer dos anillos de oro adicionales, y los debes adherir abajo en las dos piezas de los hombros al frente y, cerca de la costura encima del cinturón tejido del efod. 28 Debes amarrar el pectoral por sus anillos a las anillos del efod con un cordón azul, para que pueda ser pegado sobre el cinturón tejido. Esto es para que el pectoral no se pueda desprender del efod. 29 Cuando Aarón entre al lugar santo, debe cargar los nombres de los hijos de Israel sobre su corazón en el pectoral de la toma de decisiones, como un contínuo recordatorio delante del SEÑOR. 30 Debes poner el Urim y el Tumim en el pectoral de la toma de decisones, para que pueda estar sobre el corazón de Aarón cuando el vaya delante del SEÑOR. Pues Aarón siempre cargará los medios para poder tomar las decisiones del pueblo de Israel sobre su corazón delante del SEÑOR. 31 Debes hacer el manto del efod completamente de tela púrpura. 32 Debe tener una abertura en el centro para la cabeza. La abertura debe tener una orilla redonda tejida que no se rompa. Esto debe ser el trabajo de un tejedor. 33 En su borde inferior, debes de hacer granadas de tela azul, púrpura y lana escarlata todo alrededor. 34 Deben haber campanas doradas entre todas. Debe de haber una campana dorada y una granada, una campana dorada y una granada, y así sucesivamente, alrededor del ruedo del manto. 35 El manto debe estar sobre Aarón cuando el sirva, para que el sonido pueda ser escuchado cuando el entre al lugar santo delante del SEÑOR y cuando el salga. Esto es para que él no muera. 36 Deberás hacer una placa de oro puro y grabar en ella, como el grabado en el engaste. "Santo para el SEÑOR". 37 Debes pegar esta placa con un cordón azul al frente del turbante. 38 Debe estar en la frente de Aarón, él debe cargar cualquier culpa que pudiera estar atada a las ofrendas sagradas que los israelitas pudieran apartar para el SEÑOR. El turbante siempre debe estar sobre su cabeza para que el SEÑOR pueda aceptar sus presentes. 39 Debes hacer la túnica con lino fino y debes hacer un turbante de lino fino. También deberás hacer un cinturón, trabajo de un tejedor. 40 Para los hijos de Aarón debes hacer túnicas, cinturones, y cintas para su honor y esplendor. 41 Vestirás a Aarón

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tu hermano, y a sus hijos con él. Los debes ungir, ordenarlos y apartarlos para mí, para que me puedan servir como sacerdotes. 42 Deben hacer para ellos ropa interior para cubrir sus cuerpos desnudos, lo cual cubrirá desde la cintura hasta los muslos. 43 Aarón y sus hijos deberán usar estas vestimentas cuando entren a la tienda de reunión o cuando se acerquen al altar para servir en la lugar santo. Esto lo deberán hacer para no tener culpa, de lo contrario morirán. Esto es una ley permanente para Aarón y sus descendientes.

Exodus 28:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer. (Ver: 25:1)

Llamar tu mismo
Aquí "tu mismo" se refiere a Moises.

Deben hacerlo
Aquí "Ustedes" se refiere al Pueblo de Israel.

Las vestiduras que son separadas para mi
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.Traducción alterna: "prendas que apartarás para mi"

Exodus 28:4

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Un abrigo tejido
"Un traje con un diseño tejido en él".

Turbante
Un gorro alto hecho de tela que se enrolla alrededor de la cabeza varias veces.

Cinturón
Una pieza de tela que las personas usan alrededor de la cintura o en el pecho

Exodus 28:6

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Lino fino torcido
Lino torcido- "Lino fino trenzado" Esta era una tela hecha de finos hilos de lino que alguien retorció para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:36.

Artesano adiestrado
Una persona que puede hacer objetos bellos a mano.

Debe hacerse en una pieza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ellos deben hacerlo en una pieza"

Piedras de ónix
Estas son piedras preciosas que tienen capas de color blanco y negro, rojo o marrón. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:3.

Exodus 28:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer

Con el trabajo de un joyero que grabe sobre piedra, como un grabado sellado
"En la misma forma que una persona graba en un sello"

Grabador
Una persona que corta diseños en un material duro como madera, piedra o metal.

Sello
Un grabado en piedra usado para estampar un diseño en una cera de sello

Engastes
Piezas de metal que sostienen la piedra sobre el efod

Exodus 28:13

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Engastes
Piezas de metal que sostienen la piedra sobre el efod. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:10.

Dos cadenas de oro puro trenzadas como cuerdas.
"Dos cadenas de oro puro que se trenzan como cuerdas".

Exodus 28:15

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El trabajo de un artesano diestro, como la obra del efod
"Un obrero habilidoso lo hará como el efod"

Palmo
Un palmo mide 22 centímetros.

Exodus 28:17

Información general:
Los colores de las piedras preciosas mencionadas aquí pueden ser diferentes a los de la UDB.

Piedras preciosas
"Gemas valiosas" o "piedras atesoradas". Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:3.

Rubí ... jaspe
Estas son piedras preciosas.

Zafiro
Esta es una piedra preciosa de color azul. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 24:9.

Ónix
Esta es una piedra preciosa que tienen capas de color blanco y negro, rojo o marrón. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:3.

Deben ser montados en engastes de oro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes montarlos en engastes dorados"

Exodus 28:21

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer

Las piedras deben estar ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes ordenas las piedras"

Anillo en sello
Un sello es una piedra grabada usada para estampar un diseño en la cera para sello. Aquí la piedra es colocada sobre un anillo. Ver como se ha traducido "sello" en el 28:10.

cadenas como cuerdas, un trabajo trenzado de oro puro
"Cadenas que están hechas de oro puro y están trenzadas como cuerdas".Ver como se ha traducido en frases similares en el 28:13.

Exodus 28:25

Información general:
El señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Cadenas trenzadas
"Cadenas trenzadas como cordones," ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:13.

A los dos engastes
Estos son dos engastes que encierran las piedras. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "a los dos engastes que encierran las piedras"

Exodus 28:27

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer

Tirantes finamente tejidos
Tirantes tejidos - Este era un cinturón de tela hecho de hilos de lino estrechos que alguien entrelazó para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 28:6.

Para que pueda ser pegado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que puedan unirlos"

El pectoral no se pueda desprender del efod
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El pectoral quedaría unido al efod"

Exodus 28:29

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Debe cargar los nombres de los hijos de Israel sobre su corazón en el pectoral.
Esto se refiere a los nombres de las tribus grabadas en las doce piedras del pectoral como se describió en el 28:17.

Sobre su corazón
" Sobre el corazón de Aarón" o " en su pecho"

El Urim y el Tumim ... los medios para tomar decisiones.
La segunda frase parece referirse a Urim y Tumim y explican su propósito.

El Urim y el Tumim
No está claro que son estos. Eran objetos, posiblemente piedras, que el sacerdote usaba para determinar de alguna manera la voluntad de Dios.

Exodus 28:31

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Este debe ser el trabajo de un tejedor
Esto puede ser expresado como un mandato. Traducción alterna: " Un tejedor debe hacer esta manto"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Un tejedor
"una persona que teje" o " una persona que crea tela usando hilo"

Exodus 28:33

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Granadas
Una granada es una fruta redonda con una cáscara roja.

Una campana dorada y una granada
Esta frase se repite para mostrar el patrón de diseño del manto.

El manto debe estar sobre Aarón cuando el sirva
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Aarón debe usar el manto cuando el sirva"

Para que el sonido pueda ser escuchado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Entonces las campanas harán un sonido"

Esto es para que él no muera
Esto implicaba que el podría morir si no obedecía al Señor. Esto puede ser expresado. Traducción alterna: "Como resultado, él no morirá por desobedecer mis instrucciones."

Exodus 28:36

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Graba en ella, como el grabado en el engaste
" Escribe en él de la misma forma que una persona graba en un sello". Ver como se ha traducido las palabras similares en el 28:18.

Turbante
Un gorro alto hecho de tela que se enrolla alrededor de la cabeza varias veces. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4.

Debe estar en la frente de Aarón
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Aarón debe usarlo en su frente"

El turbante siempre debe estar sobre su cabeza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Aarón debe usarel turbante siempre sobre su cabeza"

Exodus 28:39

Información General:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Turbante
Un gorro alto hecho de tela que se enrolla alrededor de la cabeza varias veces. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4.

Cinturón
Un cinturón o faja es una pieza de tela que las personas usan alrededor de la cintura o del pecho. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4.

El trabajo de un tejedor
Un bordador es una persona que cose diseños en la tela. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:36.

Exodus 28:40

Información general:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

cinturones
Un cinturón o faja es una pieza de tela que las personas usan alrededor de la cintura o del pecho. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4.

Cintas
La cinta es una tira de tela estrecha y decorativa que se usa alrededor de la cabeza sobre los ojos.

Vestirás a Aarón tu hermano
Aarón era el hermano mayor de Moisés. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: " Pon estas vestiduras a tu hermano mayor Aarón"

Exodus 28:42

Información general:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

ropa interior
Estos son ropa interior, ropa usada debajo de la ropa exterior, a lado de la piel.

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20.

Una ley permanente
"Una ley que no tendrá fin"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 Ahora, esto es lo que tienes hacer para separarlos para Mí y para que me sirvan a Mí como sacerdotes.
Tomen un toro joven y dos carneros sin mancha, 2 panes sin levadura y tortas sin levadura y mézclenlas con aceite. También, toma obleas sin levadura frotadas con aceite. Haz las obleas usando harina de trigo fina. 3 Tienes que colocarlos en una sola canasta, llevarlos en la canasta y presentarlos junto al toro y los dos carneros. 4 Tienes que presentar a Aarón y a sus hijos a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. Tienes que lavar en el agua a Aarón y a sus hijos. 5 Tienes que llevar las vestiduras y vestir a Aarón con el manto, la falda del efot, el efot y el pectoral, amarrando el cinto de tejido fino del efot alrededor de de su torso. 6 Tienes que colocar el turbante en su cabeza y ponerle la corona santa encima del turbante. 7
Luego toma el aceite para ungir y derrámarlo en su cabeza, y de esta forma estará ungido. 8 Tienes que traer a sus hijos y colocar túnicas sobre ellos. 9 Tienes que vestir a Aarón y a sus hijos con fajas y ponerles una cintas en sus cabezas. El trabajo sacerdotal le pertenecerá a ellos como ley permanente. De esta forma, tienes que consagrar a Aarón y a sus hijos para que ellos me sirvan. 10 Tienes que traer al toro ante la tienda de reunión, y Aarón y sus hijos tienen que posar sus manos en la cabeza de éste. 11
Tienes que matar al toro delante de Mí, el SEÑOR, en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 12 Tienes que tomar parte de la sangre del toro y ponerla en los cuernos del altar con tu dedo, y tienes que derramar el resto de la sangre en la base del altar. 13 Tienes que tomar toda la grasa que cubre los órganos, y también tomar la cubierta del hígado y los dos riñones con la grasa que está en ellos; quémalo todo en el altar. 14 Pero en cuanto a la carne del toro, así como su piel y el excremento, tienes que quemarlas fuera del campamento. Esto será una ofrenda por el pecado. 15 También tienes que tomar un carnero y Aarón y sus hijos tienen que posar sus manos en la cabeza del carnero. 16 Tienen que matar el carnero, luego
tomar su sangre y rociarla en todas las partes del altar. 17 Tienes que cortar el carnero en piezas, lavar sus órganos y sus piernas, tomar sus órganos junto con sus pedazos y la cabeza, y colocarlas 18 en el altar. Luego quemar el carnero completo. Será una ofrenda quemada para Mí, el SEÑOR. Producirá un dulce aroma para Mí; será una ofrenda hecha para Mí por el fuego. 19 Entonces, tienes que tomar al otro carnero y Aarón y sus hijos tienen que posar sus manos en la cabeza del carnero. 20 Luego tienes que matar al carnero y tomar un poco de su sangre. Colócala en el lóbulo de la oreja derecha de Aarón, en el lóbulo de la oreja derecha de cada uno de sus hijos, en el pulgar de sus manos derechas y en el dedo gordo de sus pies derechos. Luego tienes que esparcir la sangre contra cada lado del altar. 21 Tienes que tomar un poco de la sangre que está en el altar y un poco del aceite para ungir y esparcirla toda sobre Aarón, sus vestiduras y también sobre sus hijos y sus vestiduras. Así, Aarón estará separado para Mí, así como sus vestiduras, sus hijos y las vestiduras de sus hijos con él. 22 Tienes que tomar la grasa del carnero, la grasa de su rabo, la grasa que cubre sus órganos, la cobertura del hígado, los dos riñones y la grasa que hay en ellos y la cadera derecha, ya que este carnero es la consagración del sacerdote para Mí.
23 Tomarás una hogaza de pan, una torta de pan hecho con aceite y una oblea fuera de la canasta del pan sin levadura, delante de Mí, el SEÑOR. 24 Tienes que poner esto en manos de Aarón y en las manos de sus hijos y agitarlos delante de Mí como una ofrenda movida delante de el SEÑOR. 25 Luego tienes que tomar la comida de sus manos y quemarla en el altar con la ofrenda quemada. Esto producirá un dulce aroma para Mí; será una ofrenda hecha para Mí por fuego. 26 Tienes que tomar la pechuga del carnero de Aarón para la dedicación y agitarlos como una ofrenda de movimiento delante de el SEÑOR y ésta será tu parte. 27 Tienes que separar para Mí la pechuga de la ofrenda que ha sido agitada y la cadera que es la contribución para los sacerdotes, la pechuga que ha sido agitada y la cadera que ha sido contribuida para Aarón y sus hijos. 28 Estas porciones de carne dadas por los Israelitas tienen que siempre pertenecer a Aarón y a sus descendientes. Por las regulaciones de las ofrendas de comunión, estas ofrendas serán para los sacerdotes escogidos por los Israelitas, ofrendas presentadas a Mí, el SEÑOR. 29 Las santas vestiduras de Aarón también tienen que ser reservadas para su descendencia. Ellos serán ungidos en ellas y serán ordenados por Mí en ellas. 30 El sacerdote que lo herede de entre sus hijos, quien entre en la tienda de reunión para servirme a Mí en el lugar santo, tendrá que llevar las vestiduras por siete días. 31
Tienes que tomar al carnero de la instalación de los sacerdotes para Mí y hervir su carne en el lugar santo. 32 Aarón y sus hijos tienen que comer la carne del carnero y el pan que está en la canasta en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 33 Ellos tienen que comer la carne y el pan que les fue dado para expiarlos y ordenarlos, para que fueran separados para Mí. Nadie más puede comer esa comida, porque tienen que tratarla como consagrada para Mí, servida por Mí. 34 Si alguna de esta carne de la ofrenda de ordenación, o cualquier pan, permaneciere hasta la mañana siguiente, entonces tienes que quemarla. No puede comerse, porque ha sido separada para Mí. 35 De esta manera, siguiendo todo lo que Yo te he ordenado a ti que hagas, tienes que tratar a Aarón y a sus hijos. Por siete días tienes que prepararlos. 36 Cada día tienes que ofrecer un toro como ofrenda de pecado para la expiación. Tienes que purificar el altar haciendo expiación por el mismo, y tienes que ungirlo para separarlo para Mí. 37 Por siete días tienes que hacer la expiación del altar y separarlo para el SEÑOR. Luego el altar estará completamente separado para Mí. Cualquier cosa que toque el altar estará separado para el SEÑOR. 38 Tienes que regularmente ofrecer en el altar, cada día, dos corderos de un año. 39 Tienes que ofrecer un cordero en la mañana y el otro cordero deberán ofrecerlo al atardecer. 40 Con el primer cordero, ofrece una décima de harina fina mezclada con la cuarta parte de un litro de aceite de olivos prensados y la cuarta parte de un litro de vino como ofrenda de bebida. 41 Deberán ofrecer el segundo cordero al atardecer. Deberán ofrecer el mismo grano que ofrecieron en la mañana y la misma ofrenda de bebida. Esto producirá un dulce aroma para Mí; será una ofrenda hecha para Mí por el fuego. 42 Éstas deben ser ofrendas quemadas que se hagan regularmente a través de las generaciones. Deberán hacerlas en la entrada de la tienda de reunión delante de Mí, el SEÑOR, donde me encontraré con ustedes para hablarles. 43 Allí será donde me encontraré con los Israelitas, en la tienda que ha sido separada para Mí por mi gloria. 44 Yo separaré la tienda de reunión y el altar para esos que se encuentren conmigo a solas. También separaré a Aarón y a sus hijos para que me sirvan como sacerdotes. 45 Yo viviré entre los Israelitas y seré su Dios. 46 Ellos conocerán que yo soy el SEÑOR, su Dios, quien los sacó de la tierra de Egipto para que Yo pueda vivir entre ellos. Yo soy el SEÑOR, su Dios.

Exodus 29:1

Ahora
La palabra "ahora" marca un cambio en el asunto de las prendas entre los sacerdotes y los sacerdotes consagrados

Debes hacer
Aquí "Tú" se refiere a Moisés.

Para separarlos
" para apartar a Aarón y sus hijos"

Me sirvan
Aquí "me" se refiere al Señor.

Un toro joven
Un bovino masculino

También toma obleas sin levadura frotadas con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "También toma hojaldres sin levadura y úntalos con aceite"

Pan ... tortas ... obleas
Estas son diferentes clases de alimentos hechos de harina.

Exodus 29:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Tienes que colocarlos
"Debes colocar el pan, la torta, y la oblea"

Y presentarlos con el toro y los dos carneros
Aquí "presentarlos" significa ofrecer en sacrificio. El significado completo puede ser traducido claramente. Traducción alterna: "Y ofrécelos cuando sacrifiques el toro y los dos carneros."

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20

Exodus 29:5

Información general:
El Señor continua hablando a Moisés

Manto
Este era un abrigo con un diseño tejido en él. Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4

Tirantes finamente tejidos
Tirantes tejidos - Este era un cinturón de tela hecho de hilos de lino estrechos que alguien entrelazó para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:6.

Turbante
Un gorro alto hecho de tela que se enrolla alrededor de la cabeza varias veces. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4.

Corona santa
Esta corona es descripta en el 29:5 fue grabada con las palabras "Dedicado al Señor" (UDB) y hecho de oro puro.

Exodus 29:8

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Trae a sus hijos
"Trae a los hijos de Aarón"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Manto
Estos eran abrigos con un diseño tejido en él. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4

cinturones
Un cinturón faja es una pieza de tela que las personas usan alrededor de la cintura o del pecho. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:4

Cintas
La cinta es una tira de tela estrecha y decorativa que se usa alrededor de la cabeza sobre los ojos. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 28:40

El trabajo sacerdotal
"El deber de ser sacerdotes"

Pertenecerá a ellos
El deber de ser sacerdotes también pertenecerá a los descendientes de los hijos de Aarón. Se puede expresar claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna:" Le pertenecerá a ellos y a sus descendientes"

Ley permanente
"Una ley que no tiene final" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:42.

Exodus 29:10

Información General:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido en el 27:20.

Tienes que matar al toro
El toro ofrecido en sacrificio debe ser matado por Moisés, no por el sacerdote, en la entrada, no dentro de la tienda de reunión.

Mata el toro
En los siguientes versículos explicará que hará con la sangre del toro, el término usado para "matar" implicará un método similar a "cortar su garganta y recorger la sangre en un recipiente"

Exodus 29:12

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Los cuernos
Estos tienen proyecciones que parecían cuernos de buey unidas a las cuatro esquinas del altar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:1.

El resto de la sangre
"La sangre restante"

Cubre las partes internas
"Cubre los órganos"

hígado ... riñones
Estos son órganos del cuerpo.

Pero en cuanto a la carne del toro, así como su piel y el excremento
"Pero en cuanto a las partes restantes del toro"

Exodus 29:15

Debes matar al carnero
Para estos sacrificios de consagración de los sacerdotes, era Moisés, no Aaron ni sus hijos, los que tenían que matar a los animales.

Sobre el altar
A diferencia del toro que fue quemado fuera de la tienda, el carnero tendrá que ser quemado en el interior de la tienda.

Las partes interiores
"los órganos". Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 29:12.

Exodus 29:19

Informaciónes generales:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Luego tendrás que matar al carnero.
El carnero fue matado por un corte de garganta. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "Luego mata al carnero rajando su garganta"

Exodus 29:21

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Aarón estará separado para Mí
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Al hacer esto, me dedicarás a Aarón"

Exodus 29:22

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Partes internas ... hígado ... riñones
Esto se refiere a los órganos internos del cuerpo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 29:12.

Toomarás una hogaza de pan ... delante de Mí. el Señor.
Para el 29:23 ver como se ha traducido las palabras similares en el 29:21.

Eso se hará delante de Mí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: esto tienes que hacer delante de Mí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 29:24

Información general:
Dios continúa hablando a Moisés.

Tienes que poner esto
Aquí "esto" se refiere a las partes del sacrificio mencionados en los versículos previos.

Será una ofrenda hecha para Mí por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Quémalo como una ofrenda para Mí"

Exodus 29:26

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés

Carnero para la dedicación
"el carnero que dedicaste" o "el carnero que mataste"

El carnero de Aarón para la dedicación
"el carnero que usaste para dedicarle a Aarón"

Dado por los israelitas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que los israelitas darán"

Por las regulaciones de las ofrendas de comunión, estas
"Estas serán una ley permanente"

Tomado de las ofrendas de los israelitas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que tomarán de las ofrendas de los israelitas"

Exodus 29:29

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Las santas vestiduras de Aarón también tienen que ser reservadas para su descendencia
Estas vestiduras pertenecen a los sacerdotes y no son solamente de uso personal para Aarón. Tradución alterna: "Aarón debe resevar las santas vestiduras para su descendencia"

Ellos serán ungidos en ellas y serán ordenados por Mí en ellas.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ellos deberán usar las santas vestiduras cuando sean ungidos sus hijos y ordenados por Mí"

Tienda de Reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20.

Exodus 29:31

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

El carnero de la instalación de los sacerdotes
"El carnero que mataste cuando instalaste a los sacerdotes"

En el lugar santo Esto no es el mismo que el lugar santo fuera del lugar santísimo. Esto se refiere a un lugar dentro del patio. Traducción alterna: "a la entrada de la tienda de reunión''

Tienda de Reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20

Que fueron dados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que sacrificaste"

No pueden comerse
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ninguno puede comerlo" porque ha sido separada para Mí.

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "porque me lo has apartado"

Exodus 29:35

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

De esta manera, siguiendo todo lo que Yo te he ordenado a ti que hagas, tienes que tratar a Aarón y a sus hijos.
"Te he ordenado que trates a Aaron y a sus hijos de esta manera"

Luego el altar estará completamente separado para Mí
"Luego el altar será santo" (UDB)

Estará separado para el Señor
"también será muy santo"

Exodus 29:38

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Tienes que regularmente ofrecer en el altar
"Harás una ofrenda regularmente sobre el altar"

Exodus 29:40

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moises.

una décima ... la cuarta parte
"1/10 ... 1/4"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ephah
Un ephah equivale a 22 litros.

hin
Un hin equivale a 3,7 litros.

Exodus 29:41

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Será una ofrenda hecha para Mí por el fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Será una ofrenda quemada para Mí"

A través de las generaciones
"A través de todas las generaciones de tus descendientes" Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 12:12

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20.

Exodus 29:43

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

La tienda será apartada para mí por mi gloria Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Mi presencia impresionante dedicará la tienda para mí"

Exodus 29:45

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Ustedes harán un altar para quemar incienso. Lo harán con madera de acacia. 2 Su largo debe ser de un codo y su ancho de un codo. Debe ser cuadrado y su altura debe ser de dos codos. Sus cuernos deben ser hechos de una sola pieza. 3 Deben cubrir el altar de incienso con oro puro- su tope, sus lados, y sus cuernos. Deben hacer una frontera circundante de oro para ello. 4 Deben hacer dos anillos de oro para atarlos a este por debajo de su borde en sus dos lados opuestos. Los anillos deben ser portadores de postes para cargar el altar. 5 Deben hacer los postes de madera de acacia y deben cubrirlos con oro. 6 Deben colocar el altar de incienso delante de la cortina que está al lado del arca del testimonio. Estará antes de la tapa de la expiación que está sobre el arca del testimonio, donde Me encontraré con ustedes. 7 Aarón debe quemar incienso fragante cada mañana. Debe quemarlo cuando prepare las lámparas. 8 Cuando Aarón encienda las lámparas nuevamente al anochecer, deberá quemar el incienso en el altar del incienso. Este debe ser quemado de forma regular ante mí, el SEÑOR, a lo largo de todas las generaciones de tu pueblo. 9 Pero ustedes no ofrecerán ningún otro incienso en el altar del incienso, ni ninguna ofrenda quemada u ofrenda de grano. No derramarán ninguna ofrenda de bebida sobre ello. 10 Aarón debe hacer expiación en los cuernos del altar del incienso una vez al año. Él deberá hacer esto usando la sangre de la ofrenda de pecado de la expiación. El sumo sacerdote debe hacer esto durante todas las generaciones de tu pueblo. Esta ofrenda será separada completamente para Mí, el SEÑOR." 11 el SEÑOR habló a Moises y dijo: 12 "Cuando hagas un censo de los Israelitas, entonces cada persona debe dar un rescate por su vida al SEÑOR. Debes hacer esto luego de contarlos, para que no haya ninguna plaga entre ellos cuando los cuentes. 13 Todo el que es contado durante el censo debe pagar un siclo de plata de acuerdo al peso del ciclo del santuario (el ciclo es igual a veinte gerahs). Este medio ciclo será una ofrenda para Mí, el SEÑOR. 14 Todo el que sea contado, de veinte años hacia arriba, deberá darme esta ofrenda a Mí. 15 Cuando las personas Me den esta ofrenda para hacer expiación por sus vidas, los ricos no deben dar más de medio ciclo, y los pobres no deben dar menos. 16 Deberás recibir este dinero de la expiación de los Israelistas y debes asignarlo al trabajo de la tienda de la reunión. Debe ser un recordatorio a los Israelitas ante Mí, el hacer expiación por sus vidas." 17 El SEÑOR habló a Moises y dijo: 18 "También debes hacer una vasija de bronce con un soporte de bronce, una vasija para el lavado. Lo debes colocar entre la tienda de la reunión y el altar, y debes colocar agua en el. 19 Aarón y sus hijos deben lavar sus manos y sus pies con el agua dentro de ella. 20 Cuando entren a la tienda de la reunión o cuando estén cerca del altar para servirme quemando una ofrenda, deben lavarse con agua para que no mueran. 21 Deberán lavar sus manos y pies para que ellos no mueran. Esto debe ser una ley permanente para Aarón y sus descendientes a lo largo de todas las generaciones de su gente." 22 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y dijo: 23 "Toma estas especias finas: quinientos siclos de mirra que fluye, 250 siclos de canela dulce y olorosa, 250 siclos de caña dulce y olorosa, 24 quinientos siclos de casia, medidos por el peso del siclo del santuario, y un hin de aceite de oliva. 25 Harás aceite de unción santo con estos ingredientes, el trabajo de un perfumista. Será aceite de unción santo reservado para Mí. 26 Deberás ungir la tienda de reunión con este aceite, también el arca del testimonio, 27 la mesa y todos sus utensilios, el candelabro y su equipo, el altar del incienso, 28 el altar para quemar ofrendas con todo su equipo, y la vasija con su estante. 29 Deberás separarlos para Mí para que sean santos para Mí. Cualquier cosa que los toque también será santo. 30 Deberás ungir a Aarón y a sus hijos y ponerlos aparte para Mí para que Me sirvan como sacerdotes. 31 Deberás decirle a los Israelitas: 'Este deberá ser un aceite de unción el cual es separado para el SEÑOR a lo largo de las generaciones de tu pueblo. 32 No debe ser aplicado a la piel de la gente, ni podrá hacerse ningún aceite como éste con la misma fórmula, porque está separado para el SEÑOR. Deberás considerarlo de esta manera. 33 Cualquiera que haga perfume como éste, o cualquiera que se lo unte a alguien, esa persona deberá ser separada de su pueblo.'" 34 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Toma especias- estacte, uña aromática, y gálbano - especias dulces junto al incienso puro, ambos en cantidades iguales. 35 Hazlo en forma de incienso, mezclado por un perfumista, sasonado con sal, puro y ponlo aparte. 36 Lo vas a moler en una mezcla muy fina. Coloca parte enfrente del arca del testimonio, el cual está ubicado en la tienda de reunión, donde Me encontraré contigo. Lo considerarás como muy sagrado para Mí. 37 En cuanto a este incienso que tú harás, no debes hacer ninguno con la misma fórmula para ustedes mismos. Debe ser de lo más sagrado para tí. 38 Quienquiera haga algo similar para usar como un perfume debe ser separado de su pueblo."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 30:1

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés como construir el equipo de adoración.

Deben hacerlo
Aquí "deben" hace referencia a Moisés y el pueblo de Israel.

Sus cuernos deben ser hechos
Estas eran proyecciones que parecían cuernos de buey unidos a las cuatro esquinas del altar. Ver como se ha traducido "cuernos" en el 27:1. Traducción alterna: "Deben hacer los cuernos"

Exodus 30:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

El altar de incienso
"Un altar en donde se quema incienso"

Estar atados a este
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los cuales atarás al altar"

Exodus 30:5

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

El arca de testimonio
El arca es el cofre que contiene los mandamientos. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:31. Traducción alterna:"el cofre contiene los mandamientos"

La tapa de expiación
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación era hecha. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 25:15.

Donde Me encontraré contigo
Aquí "contigo" se refiere a Moisés.

Exodus 30:7

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

A lo largo de las generaciones de tu pueblo.
"Por todas las generaciones de tus descendientes" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 12:12.

Pero debes ofrecer
Aunque la palabra "usted" está dirigida a Moisés, la instrucción se da específicamente a Aarón y sus descendientes sobre cuándo y qué ofrecerán en el altar del incienso.

Exodus 30:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Cuernos
Estas eran proyecciones que parecían cuernos de buey unidos a las cuatro esquinas del altar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:1

A lo largo de las generaciones de tu pueblo.
"Por todas las generaciones de tus descendientes" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 12:12.

Exodus 30:11

Cuando hagas
Los posibles significados son: 1) "Usted" se refiere solo a Moisés o 2) "Ustedes" se refiere a Moisés y los líderes de Israel en las futuras generaciones cuando ellos realicen el censo.

Un censo de los Israelitas
Los líderes solo contaban a los hombres israelitas.

Todo el que es contado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Sólo contaban los hombres. AT: "Todos los que cuentan" o "Todos los hombres que cuentan"

Medio ciclo de plata
"1/2 siclo de plata." Los traductores pueden usar una unidad de medida para que las personas puedan entender y redondear en números: "5,5 gramos de plata" o "seis gramos de plata"

De acuerdo al peso del ciclo del santuario Evidentemente, había siclos de más de un peso en ese momento. Esto especificaba cual se iba a usar.

Veinte gerahs
"20 gerahs." Un gerah es una unidad que las personas usaban para medir cuanto pesaba algo muy pequeño.

Desde los 20 años hacia arriba
Se dice que los números más grandes están por encima o arriba de números más pequeños. Traducción alterna: "de veinte años y más" o "quien tiene veinte años o más"

Exodus 30:15

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El pueblo
Solo los hombres hicieron esta ofrenda.

Medio ciclo
Los traductores pueden usar una unidad de medida para que las personas puedan entender y redondear en números: "5,5 gramos de plata" o "seis gramos de plata"

Debe ser un recordatorio a los Israelitas ante Mí, el hacer expiación por sus vidas Los posibles significados son 1) "Les recordará a los israelitas que hagan expiación por sus vidas" o 2) "Les recordará a los israelitas que han hecho expiación por sus vidas".

Exodus 30:17

Ustedes deben hacer
Aquí "Ustedes" hace referencia a Moisés y el Pueblo de Israel.

vasija
"Bol" o "balde"

Un soporte de bronce
Esto es en donde se pondría el tazón.

vasija para el lavado
Esta frase explica para que usarían los sacerdotes el gran tazón de bronce.

El altar
El altar de sacrificio

Exodus 30:19

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

El agua dentro de ella
"el agua en la vasija"

Para Aarón y sus descendientes a lo largo de todas las generaciones de su gente
"para Aarón y todas las generaciones de sus descendientes." Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en el 12:12.

Exodus 30:22

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Especias
Plantas secas que las personas muelen en polvo y ponen en aceite o comida para dar un buen aroma o sabor. Vea como se ha traducido esto en el 25:3.

Quinientos siclos ... 250 siclos
"500 siclos ... 250 siclos." Un siclo son como 11 gramos. Los traductores pueden usar unidades que las personas conocen y redondear números: "5.7 kilogramos ... 11.4 kilogramos" o "seis kilogramos ... tres kilogramos"

Canela ... caña ... casia Estas son especias dulces.

el peso del siclo del santuario
Evidentemente, había siclos de más de un peso en ese momento. Esto especificaba cual se iba a usar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 30:11.

Un hin
Los traductores usan unidades que las personas conocen y redondean números: "3,7 litros" o "cuatro litros"

Con estos ingredientes
"Con estos artículos"

El trabajo de un perfumista
Los posibles significados son 1) Moisés tenía que hacer que un perfumista haga el trabajo o 2) Moisés tenía que hacer el trabajo de la misma manera que lo haría un perfumista.

Un perfumista
Una persona que es habilidosa mezclando especias y aceites.

Exodus 30:26

Información General:
El Señor continúa hablándo a Moisés.

Deberás ungir
Aquí "Usted" se refiere a Moisés.

El arca de testimonio
El arca del testimonio es el cofre que contiene los mandamientos. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 26:31. Traducción alterna: "debes traer el cofre que contiene los mandamientos"

El altar para quemar ofrendas
"el altar sobre el cual se quemó la ofrenda"

Exodus 30:29

Información General:
El Señor continúa hablándo a Moisés.

Separarlos
Esto se refiere a la lista de artículos del 30:26.

A lo largo de todas las generaciones de su Pueblo
"Todas las generaciones de sus descendientes." Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en el 12:12.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 30:32

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

No debe ser aplicado a la piel de la gente
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debes poner el aceite de la unción que se dedica al Señor en la piel de una persona"

Con la misma fórmula
"con los mismos ingredientes" o "con los mismos artículos"

esa persona deberá ser cortada de su pueblo
La metáfora "cortada" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Pueden expresarse en forma activa: 1) "Ya no lo consideraré como uno de los habitantes de Israel" 2) "el pueblo de Israel debe enviarlo lejos" o 3) "el pueblo de Israel debe matarlo".

Exodus 30:34

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés qué hacer. El Señor le da las órdenes solo a Moisés: todas las instancias de "Usted" son singulares. Sin embargo, las palabras "mezclado por un perfumista" podrían significar que Moisés podría hacer que el perfumista tomara las especias, las mezclara, las triturara y se las diera a Moisés para que Moisés pudiera poner una parte de la mezcla frente al arca, como en UDB .

Estacte, uña aromática, y gálbano Estas son especias.

Hazlo en forma de incienso, mezclado por un perfumista
La frase con "mezclado" se puede traducir en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hazlo en la forma de incienso que un perfumista ha mezclado" o "Un perfumista debe mezclarlo en un tipo de incienso"

Mezclado por un perfumista
Los posibles significados son 1) Moisés tenía que hacer que un perfumista haga el trabajo o 2) Moisés tenía que hacer el trabajo de la misma manera que lo haría un perfumista. Ver como se ha traducido estas palabras en el 30:22.

Lo vas a moler
"Lo aplastarás". Aquí "usted" se refiere a Moisés.

Lo considerarán
Aquí "Ustedes" es plural y se refiere a Moisés y el Pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 30:37

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

No debes hacer ninguno
La palabra "ustedes" se refiere aquí al Pueblo de Israel.

Con la misma fórmula
"con los mismos ingredientes" o "con los mismos artículos" Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 30:32.

Debe ser de lo más sagrado para tí.
"Debes considerarlo como lo más sagrado"

Perfume
Este es un líquido de olor agradable que una persona pone en su cuerpo.

Esa persona deberá ser cortada de su pueblo
La metáfora "cortada" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Pueden expresarse en forma activa: 1) "Ya no lo consideraré como uno de los habitantes de Israel" 2) "el pueblo de Israel debe expulsarlo" o 3) "el pueblo de Israel debe matarlo". Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 30:32.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 2 "Mira, he llamado por nombre a Bezalel hijo de Uri, hijo de Hur, de la tribu de Judá. 3 He llenado a Bezalel con Mi Espíritu, para darle sabiduría, entendimiento y conocimiento, para todo tipo de artesanía, 4 para hacer diseños artísticos y para trabajar en oro, plata y bronce; 5 también para cortar y colocar piedras y tallar madera, para hacer todo tipo de artesanía. 6 Ademas de él, he nombrado a Aholiab hijo de Ahisamac, de la tribu de Dan. He puesto habilidad en los corazones de todos los que son sabios para que puedan hacer todo lo que yo te he mandado. Esto inlcuye 7 la tienda de reunión, el arca del testimonio, la tapa de expiación sobre el arca y todos los muebles de la tienda: 8 la mesa y sus utensilios, el candelabro puro con todo su equipo, 9 el altar de incienso, el altar para ofrendas quemadas con todo su equipo, y la basija grande con su base. 10 Esto también incluye las vestiduras finamente tejidas: las vestiduras santas para Aarón el sacerdote y las de sus hijos, reservados para Mí para que puedan servir como sacerdotes. 11 Esto también incluye el aceite de unción y el incienso dulce para el lugar santo. Estos artesanos harán todas estas cosas justo como Yo te he mandado. 12 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 13 "Dile a los Israelitas: 'ciertamente guardarán los días de Reposo del SEÑOR, porque ésto será una señal entre Él y ustedes a través de las generaciones de sus pueblos para que ustedes sepan que él es el SEÑOR, quien los separa para Sí mismo. 14 Así que guardarán el Día de Reposo, porque tiene que ser tratado por ustedes como santo, reservado para Él. Todo el que lo deshonre ciertamente tendrá que ser puesto a muerte. Todo el que trabaje en el Día de Reposo, esa persona ciertamente deberá ser cortada de su gente. 15 El trabajo se hará por seis días pero el séptimo día será un día de completo Reposo, santo, reservado para el honor del SEÑOR. Cualquiera que haga cualquier trabajo en el Día de Reposo, ciertamente deberá ser puesto a muerte. 16 Por lo tanto, los Israelitas tendrán que guardar el Día de Reposo. Lo tendrán que observar a través de las generaciones de su gente como una ley permanente. 17 El Día de Reposo siempre será una señal entre el SEÑOR y los Israelitas, ya que en seis días el SEÑOR hizo el cielo y la tierra, y en el séptimo día descansó y fue refrescado." 18 Cuando Dios hubo terminado de hablar con Moisés en el Monte Sinaí, le dio dos tablas de decretos de pacto, echas de piedra, escritas con Su propia mano.

Exodus 31:1

He llamado por nombre
Dios habla de elegir personas específicas llamándolas por su nombre. Traducción alterna: "He elegido"

Exodus 31:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés

He llenado a Bezalel con Mi Espíritu.
El Señor habla de darle su espirítu a Bezalel como si fuera un recipiente y el Espíritu de Dios un líquido. Traducción alterna: "Le he dado mi Espíritu a Bezalel"

Para todo tipo de artesanía
El sustantivo abstracto "artesanía" se puede traducir como "hacer manualidades" o "hacer cosas". Traducción alterna: "para hacer todo tipo de manualidades" o "para que él pueda hacer todo tipo de cosas"

Exodus 31:6

Información General:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

He puesto habilidad en los corazones de todos los que son sabios
Dios habla de hacer a las personas capaces para que puedan hacer las cosas como si él estuviera poniendo la habilidad en sus corazones. Traducción alterna: "He dado habilidad a todos los que son sabios" o "He hecho que todos los que son sabios sean capaces de hacer las cosas bien"

Tienda de reunión
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 27:20.

El arca del testimonio
El arca del testimonio es el cofre que contiene los mandamientos. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Ver como se ha traducito esto en el 26:31. Traducción alterna: "debes traer el cofre que contiene los mandamientos"

La tapa de expiación
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación era hecha. Ver como se ha traducito esto en el 25:15.

Altar de incienso
"altar para quemar el incienso." Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 30:3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El altar para quemar ofrendas
"el altar sobre el cual se quemó la ofrenda." Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 30:26.

Exodus 31:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

Vestiduras finamente tejidas
Prendas tejidas - Esta era una tela hecha de finos hilos de lino que alguien trenzó para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en el 28:6

Estos artesanos
"Estas personas que son expertos en hacer cosas hermosas"

Exodus 31:12

Ciertamente guardarán los días de Reposo del Señor.
Dios habla de obedecer sus instrucciones acerca del sábado y como guardar el sábado. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente debes obedecer las instrucciones del Señor acerca del sábado"

A lo largo de las generaciones de tu pueblo
"A través de todas las generaciones de tus descendientes." Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 12:12.

Quien los separa para Sí mismo
Dios habla de elegir a las personas para que sean suyas y las aparten para sí mismo. Traducción alterna: "quién te ha elegido para ser su pueblo"

Tiene que ser tratado por ustedes como santo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "porque debes tratarlo como santo"

Todo el que lo deshonre
Dios habla de tratar el sábado con falta de respeto como profanándolo. Traducción alterna: "Todos los que tratan el sábado con falta de respeto" o "Todos los que no obedecen las leyes sobre el sábado"

ciertamente deberá ser puesto a muerte
"De seguro debe ser asesinado". Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "seguramente debes matar" o "seguramente debes ejecutar"

Ciertamente deberá ser cortada de su Pueblo.
La metáfora "cortado" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Se pueden expresar en forma activa: 1) "El Señor ya no lo considerará como uno de sus miembros" 2) "seguramente debes despedirlo" o 3) "seguramente debes matarlo".

Pero el séptimo día
"Pero el día 7"

Exodus 31:16

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que debe decirle al Pueblo de Israel.

Debe guardar el sábado
Dios habla de obedecer sus instrucciones acerca del sábado como el guardar el sábado. Traducción alterna: "debe obedecer las instrucciones del Señor acerca del sábado"

Lo tendrán que observar a través de las generaciones de su gente
''Ellos y toda la generaciones de su descendencia deberán observarlo.'' Ver como se ha traducido esto '' através de las generaciones de su gente'' en 12:12

Ley permanente
"Una ley que no tiene fin". Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 28:42.

Exodus 31:18

Escritas con Su propia mano Esto puede ser traducido con un verbo activo. Traducción alterna: "Lo que escribió el Señor con su propia mano"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Cuando el pueblo vió que Moisés se demoraba en bajar de la montaña, ellos fueron con Aarón y le dijeron: "Ven, haznos un ídolo para que vaya delante de nosotros. Porque de este tal Moisés, el hombre que nos sacó de la tierra de Egipto, no se sabe qué ha pasado con él. 2 Así que Aarón les dijo: "Quiten las argollas de oro de sus mujeres, hijos e hijas, y entreguenmelas." 3 Todas las personas se quitaron las argollas de oro que tenían en sus orejas y las trajeron a Aarón. 4 Él recibió el oro de ellos, lo fundió en un molde y lo hizo en forma de becerro. Entonces el pueblo dijo: "Israel, este es tu dios que te saco de la tierra de Egipto." 5 Cuando Aarón vió esto, construyó un altar ante el becerro e hizo una proclamación; él dijo: "Mañana será el festival en honor al SEÑOR." 6 El pueblo se levantó temprano al próximo día y ofreció ofrendas quemadas y trajeron ofrenda de paz. Entonces se sentaron a comer y a beber, y luego se levantaron a parrandear en celebración salvaje. 7 Entonces el SEÑOR habló a Moisés: "Vé rápido, porque tu pueblo, el que sacaste de la tierra de Egipto, se ha corrompido. 8 Han abandonado rápidamente el camino que le ordené. Han formado un becerro y lo han adorado con sacrificios. Han dicho: 'Israel, éste es tu dios el que te saco de la tierra de Egipto.'" 9 Entonces el SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "He visto este pueblo. Míralo, son un pueblo altivo. 10 Ahora, no trates de detenerme. Mi furia ardera fuerte en contra ellos, así que lo destruiré. Entonces haré de tí una gran nación." 11 Pero Moisés trató de calmar al SEÑOR su Dios. Le dijo: "SEÑOR, ¿por qué tu furia arde en contra de tu pueblo, el cual sacaste de la tierra de Egipto con gran poder y con asombrosa mano? 12 ¿Porque deberían decir los Egipcios: 'Él los saco con maléfica intención, para matarlos en las montañas y destruírlos de la faz de la tierra?' Vuélvete de tu furia ardiente y arrepiéntete de este castigo contra tu pueblo. 13 Acuérdate de Abraham, Isaac y de Israel, tus siervos, a quienes juraste por tí mismo y les dijiste: 'Haré a tu descendencia como las estrellas de los cielos, y le daré a tus descendientes toda esta tierra de la cual le he hablado. Ellos la heredarán para siempre.'" 14 Entonces el SEÑOR cedió del castigo que dijo le inflijaría a su pueblo. 15 Entonces Moisés se volteó y bajó de la montaña, cargando en sus manos las dos tablas de los decretos del pacto. Las dos tablas fueron escritas en ambos lados, por frente y por detrás. 16 Las tablas eran el propio trabajo de Dios, y la escritura era la propia escritura de Dios, grabada en ellas. 17 Cuando Josué escuchó el alboroto del pueblo que gritaba, le dijo a Moisés: "Hay un alboroto de combate en el campamento." 18 Pero Moisés le dijo: "No es el sonido de victoria y tampoco de un pueblo en derrota, sino más bien el sonido de cánticos el que escucho." 19 Cuando Moisés se acercó al campamento, vió a el becerro y al pueblo danzando también. Él se enojó mucho. Tiró las tablas de sus manos y las rompió al pié de la montaña. 20 Tomó el becerro que el pueblo hizo, lo quemó, lo molió en polvo, y lo derramó en el agua. Entonces hizo que el pueblo de Israel bebiera del agua. 21 Luego Moisés le preguntó a Aarón: "¿Qué te hizo este pueblo, que le haz traído tan grande pecado sobre ellos?" 22 Aarón le contestó: "No dejes que tu furia arda, mi señor. Tú conoces este pueblo, y cómo se confabulan para hacer el mal. 23 Ellos me dijeron: 'Haznos un dios que vaya delante de nosotros. De este tal Moisés, el hombre que nos saco de la tierra de Egipto, no sabemos qué ha sucedido con él. 24 Así que les dijé, 'todo aquél que tuviese oro puesto que se lo quitara.' Ellos me dieron el oro y yo lo tiré al fuego, y salió este becerro." 25 Moisés vió que el pueblo corría salvajemente (dado que Aarón los había dejado salirse de control, causando que sus enemigos se burlaran de ellos). 26 Entonces Moisés se detuvo a la entrada del campamento y dijo: "Todo aquél que esté del lado del SEÑOR, venga conmigo." Entonces todos los Levitas se reunieron a su lado. 27 Entonces él les dijo: "El SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, dice así: Que cada hombre saque su espada y vaya de entrada a entrada através del campamento, y mate con esta a su hermano, a su acompañante, y a su vecino." 28 Los Levitas hicieron lo que Moisés les ordenó. Ese día murieron cerca de tres mil personas. 29 Entonces Moisés dijo a los Levitas: "Ustedes han sido ubicados hoy al servicio del SEÑOR, dado que cada uno ha tomado acción en contra de su hijo y de su hermano, por lo cual el SEÑOR entregará una bendición hoy." 30 Al próximo día Moisés le dijo al pueblo: "Ustedes han cometido un gran pecado. Ahora subiré donde el SEÑOR. Quizás pueda hacer una expiación por su pecado." 31 Moisés regresó donde el SEÑOR y dijo: "Óh, este pueblo ha cometido un gran pecado y se ha hecho un ídolo de oro. 32 Ahora bien, perdona su pecado; más si no lo haces, sácame del libro que haz escrito." 33 El SEÑOR le contestó a Moisés: "Todo aquél que haya pecado contra mí, esa persona será borrada de mi libro. 34 Así que ahora ve, guía a mi pueblo hasta el lugar que he hablado. Fíjate, mi ángel irá delante de tí. Pero en el día que los castigue, los castigaré por su pecado." 35 Entonces el SEÑOR envió una plaga al pueblo porque había hecho un becerro, el que Aarón formó.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 32:1

El Pueblo vió
Aquí se habla de entender algo como si se estuviera viendo. Traducción alterna: "El Pueblo se dio cuenta"

Ven, haznos un ídolo
La palabra "ven" refuerza la fuerza del comando que lo sigue. El Pueblo exigía que Aaron hiciera un ídolo para ellos.

Vaya delante de nosotros
"nos lidere" o "sea nuestro líder"

Entreguenmelas
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a los anillos de oro.

Exodus 32:3

Todo el Pueblo
Esto se refiere a todo el Pueblo que rechazó a Moisés como su líder y al Dios de Moisés como su Dios.

Lo fundió en un molde y lo hizo en forma de becerro.
Aaron fundió el oro y lo vertió en un molde que tenía la forma de un becerro. Cuando el oro se endureció, retiró el molde y el oro endurecido tenía la forma de un becerro.

Exodus 32:5

Cuando Aarón vió esto
"Cuando Aarón vió lo que el Pueblo hizo"

Para cuidar en la celebración salvaje
"tener una fiesta salvaje". El Pueblo probablemente se comportó de manera inmoral en la fiesta.

Exodus 32:7

Han abandonado rápidamente el camino que le ordené
Aquí Dios habla del Pueblo que desobede lo que les ordenó como si les hubiera dicho que caminen en un camino determinado y ellos dejaron ese camino. Traducción alterna: "dejó de hacer lo que les ordené que hicieran" o "dejaron de obedecer lo que les ordené que hicieran"

Han formado un becerro
"Han hecho una estatua de oro con forma de becerro".

Exodus 32:9

He visto a este pueblo
Aquí el Señor compara el conocer al pueblo con verlos. Traducción alterna: "Conozco a esta gente"

Un pueblo de cuello rígido (pueblo altivo) gente con cuello - El Señor habla de las personas que son tercas como si tuvieran el cuello rígido. Traducción alterna: "gente obstinada"

Ahora
La palabra "ahora" se usa aquí para marcar una pausa en lo que el Señor le estaba diciendo a Moisés. Aquí El Señor dice lo que hará al pueblo

Mi furia ardera fuerte en contra ellos
El Señor habla de su ira como si fuera un fuego que podría arder. Traducción alterna: "Mi ira hacia ellos será terrible" o "Estoy extremadamente enojado con ellos" (UDB)

De tí
La palabra "tí" hace referencia a Moisés.

Por qué tu furia arde en contra de tu pueblo Moisés usó esta pregunta para tratar de persuadir al Señor de que no estuviera tan enojado con su pueblo. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración.Traducción alterna: "No dejes que tu ira arda contra tu gente" o "No te enfades con tu gente"

Gran poder ... asombrosa mano
Estas dos frases comparten significados similares y se combinan para dar énfasis.

Una mano poderosa
Aquí la palabra "mano" se refiere a las cosas que el Señor hizo. Traducción alterna: "y las cosas poderosas que hiciste"

Exodus 32:12

Información general:
Moisés sigue razonando con Dios para no destruir a Israel.

¿Porque deberían decir los Egipcios: 'Él los saco ... para destruírlos de la faz de la tierra?'
Moisés utilizó esta pregunta para tratar de persuadir a Dios de que no destruyera a su pueblo. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir con una declaración. Traducción alterna: Si destruyes a tu pueblo, los egipcios podrían decir: 'Él los sacó ... para destruirlos de la faz de la tierra'.

De la faz de la Tierra
" de la supercie de la Tierra" o "de la Tierra"

Vuélvete de tu furia ardiente
"Detén tu ira ardiente" o "Deja de estar tan enojado"

Tu furia ardiente Moisés habla de la furia de Dios como si esta fuese un fuego ardiente. Traducción alterna: ''tu terrible ira''

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Trae a memoria a Abraham
"Acuérdate de Abraham" o " Piensa sobre Abraham"

Juró
"hizo un juramento" o "prometió solemnemente"

La heredarán para siempre
Dios habla de que poseen la tierra como si la heredaran. Traducción alterna: "Lo poseerán para siempre"

Exodus 32:15

Las tablas de los decretos del pacto
Estas son las dos losas de piedra en las que Dios había grabado sus mandamientos.

Las tablas eran el propio trabajo de Dios, y la escritura era la propia escritura de Dios Estas dos frases comparten significados similares. El segundo explica cómo las tablas eran "la obra de Dios".

Exodus 32:17

Le dijo a Moisés
Se supone que Josué se encontró con Moisés mientras Moisés regresaba al campamento.

Exodus 32:19

Las tablas
"Las dos losas de piedra que el Señor había escrito"

Exodus 32:21

Luego Moisés le preguntó a Aarón: "¿Qué te hizo este pueblo ... tan grande pecado sobre ellos?"
Esto puede ser expresado como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Entonces Moisés le preguntó a Aarón qué le hace el pueblo, que él les ha cometido un pecado tan grande"

Haz traído tan grande pecado sobre ellos
Moisés habló de hacer que la gente pecara como si el pecado fuera un objeto y Aarón se lo puso encima de ellos. Traducción alterna: "los has hecho pecar tan terriblemente"

No dejes que tu furia arda
Aarón habló de la ira de Moisés como si fuera un fuego que pudiera arder. "No estés tan enojado"

se confabulan para hacer el mal
Estar determinado a hacer el mal se dice que está puesto en el mal. Traducción alterna: "están decididos a hacer lo que es malo" (Ver: metáfora de los higos)

Este Moisés
La gente mostró falta de respeto al poner la palabra "este" antes de su nombre, como si Moisés fuera alguien a quien no conocían y no podían confiar.

Así que les dijé, 'todo aquél que tuviese oro puesto que se lo quitara.'
Esto puede ser expresado como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Así que les dije que quienquiera que tuviera oro debería quitárselo"

Yo lo tiré al fuego, y salió este becerro
En lugar de tomar culparse por hacer el becerro, Aaarón afirma que el becerro salió del fuego de manera sobrenatural.

Exodus 32:25

corrían salvajemente
"se estaban comportando salvajemente" o "no se estaban controlando asi mismos"

Entonces Moisés se detuvo a la entrada ... "Todo aquél que esté del lado del Señor, venga conmigo."
Esto puede ser expresado como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Entonces Moisés se paró a la entrada del campamento y dijo que quienquiera que estuviera del lado del Señor debería venir a él"

Todo aquél que esté del lado del Señor
Moisés habla de ser leal al Señor como si estuviera del lado del Señor. Traducción alterna: "El que sea leal al Señor" o "El que sirve al Señor "

Vaya de entrada a entrada
"Entrar y salir de una entrada del campamento a la otra entrada"

Exodus 32:28

Tres mil personas
"3000 de las personas"

Ustedes han sido ubicados hoy al servicio del Señor
Esto son sus posibles significados "Ustedes han sido escogidos para servir al Señor" o "Ustedes se han convertido en sirvientes del Señor."

Dado que cada uno ha tomado acción en contra de su hijo y de su hermano
El hecho de que hicieron esto en obediencia a Dios puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "porque has obedecido al Señor y has matado a tus hijos y a tus hermanos"

Exodus 32:30

Ustedes han cometido un gran pecado.
Ellos adoraron a un ídolo.

Quizás pueda hacer una expiación por su pecado Moisés habló de persuadir a Dios para que perdonara a la gente como si él pudiera hacer expiación por su pecado. Traducción alterna: "Quizás pueda persuadir al Señor para que les perdone"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sácame del libro que haz escrito
La palabra "mi" aquí se refiere al nombre de Moisés. Traducción alterna: "borra mi nombre del libro"

El libro que has escrito
Lo que Dios había escrito en el libro puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "el libro en el que ha escrito los nombres de su gente"

Exodus 32:33

Esa persona será borrada de mi libro
La frase "esa persona" representa "el nombre de esa persona". Traducción alterna: "Borraré el nombre de esa persona de mi libro"

Mi libro
Esto se refiere al libro del Señor del que habló Moisés en 32:30.

Pero en el día que los castigue, los castigaré
El día que Dios decida castigarlos, quedará claro que es Dios quien los está juzgando.

El Señor envió una plaga al pueblo Esta plaga pudo haber sido una enfermedad grave. Traducción alterna: "El Señor hizo que la gente se pusiera muy enferma"

Ellos habían hecho un becerro, el que Aarón formó.
A pesar de que Aaron hizo el becerro, la gente también era culpable porque le dijeron a Aaron que lo hiciera. Traducción alterna: "le dijeron a Aaron que hiciera el becerro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 El SEÑORé habló a Moisés: "Sal de aquí, tú y la gente a quien haz traído de la tierra de Egipto. Vayan a la tierra acerca de la cual hice un juramento a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob, cuando les dije: 'Yo se la daré a tus descendientes.' 2 Yo enviaré un ángel delante de ustedes, y sacaré a los Cananeos, Amorreos, Hititas, Ferezeos, Heveos y Jebuseos. 3 Vayan a la tierra, que está fluyendo con leche y miel, pero no iré con ustedes, porque son personas tercas. Yo podría destruirles en el camino." 4 Cuando la gente escuchó estas palabras preocupantes, hicieron duelo y nadie se puso joya alguna. 5 El SEÑOR le había dicho a Moisés: "Dile a los Israelitas: 'Ustedes son personas tercas. Si Yo fuera entre ustedes tan sólo un momento, Yo los destruiría. Así que ahora, quiten sus joyas para decidir qué hacer con ustedes." 6 Así que los Israelitas no usaron ninguna joya desde el Monte Horeb en adelante. 7 Moisés tomó una tienda de campaña y la colocó fuera del campamento, lejos del campamento. La llamó la tienda de la reunión. Todo aquel que le pedía algo a el SEÑOR iba a la tienda de la reunión, fuera del campamento. 8 Cuando Moisés iba a la tienda de campaña, toda la gente se paraba a la puerta de su tienda y miraba a Moisés hasta que entraba a la tienda. 9 Cada vez que Moisés entraba a la tienda, bajaba la columna de nube y se situaba a la entrada de la tienda, y el SEÑOR hablaba con Moisés. 10 Cada vez que toda la gente veía la columna de nube en la entrada de la tienda, se levantaban y adoraraban, cada hombre a la entrada de su tienda. 11 El SEÑORhablaba con Moisés cara a cara, como un hombre habla con su amigo. Luego Moisés regresaba al campamento, pero su siervo Josué hijo de Nun, un hombre jóven, se quedaba en la tienda. 12 Moisés le dijo al SEÑOR: "Mira, Me haz dicho: 'Lleva a esta gente en su viaje,' pero no me has dicho a quién enviarás conmigo. Haz dicho: 'te conozco por tu nombre, y además haz encontrado favor ante mi vista.' 13
Ahora si he encontrado favor ante tu vista, muéstrame Tus caminos para que Te pueda conocer y siga encontrando favor ante tu vista. Recuerda que esta nación es tu pueblo. 14 El SEÑOR contesto: "Mi propia presencia irá contigo, y Yo te daré descanso." 15 Moisés le dijo: "Si tu presencia no va con nosotros, no nos saques de aquí. 16 Porque de lo contrario, ¿cómo se sabrá que tu pueblo y yo hemos encontrado favor ante tu vista? ¿No será solamente si tú vas con nosotros para que tu pueblo y yo seamos diferentes de todos los demás que están sobre la faz de la tierra?" 17 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés:
"También haré esto que me haz pedido, por que haz encontrado favor ante mi vista, y te conozco por tu nombre." 18 Moisés dijo: "Por favor enséñame tu gloria." 19 El SEÑOR dijo: "Haré que toda mi bondad pase frente a tí, y proclamaré mi nombre 'El SEÑOR' ante tí. Seré compasivo con el que seré compasivo, y mostraré misericordia a quien le muestre misericordia." 20 Pero el SEÑOR dijo: "No podrás ver mi rostro, ya que nadie me puede ver y vivir." 21 El SEÑOR dijo: "Mira, aquí hay un lugar cerca de Mí; tú te pondrás en pie sobre esta roca. 22 Mientras Mi gloria pase, Yo te pondré en una hendidura de la roca y te cubriré con Mi mano hasta que Yo haya pasado. 23 Después quitaré mi mano, y verás mi espalda, pero Mi rostro no será visto."

Exodus 33:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés sobre su enojo.

Esa tierra, que está fluyendo con leche y miel
La tierra era buena para criar ganado y cultivar. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 3:7. Traducción alterna: "una tierra que es excelente para criar ganado y cultivar"

Fluye
"llena de" o "con abundancia de"

Leche
Dado que la leche proviene de vacas y cabras, esto representa alimentos producidos por el ganado. Traducción alterna: "alimentos de ganado"

Miel
Dado que la miel se produce a partir de flores, esto representa alimentos de cultivos. Traducción alterna: "alimentos de cultivos"

Personas tercas
"gente que se niega a cambiar"

Exodus 33:4

Joya
Bonita ropa así como cadenas y anillos con joyas.

Personas tercas
"gente que se niega a cambiar" Ver como se ha traducido esto en 33:1

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 33:7

La columna de nube
La nube tenía la forma de un pilar. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 13:19. Traducción alterna: "la nube con forma de pilar"

Bajaba
De donde descendió, puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "bajaría del cielo"

Exodus 33:10

El Señor hablaba con Moisés cara a cara
Hablando directamente en lugar de a través de sueños y visiones, se habla de Moisés y Dios como si estos se vieran los rostros mientras hablaban. Traducción alterna: "El Señor hablaría directamente a Moisés"

Hombre joven
Lo suficientemente viejo para ser un soldado (17: 8), pero mucho más joven que Moisés

Exodus 33:12

Ver
"Mira!" o "Escucha!" o "Pon atención a lo que te voy a contar."

Te conozco por tu nombre
Conocer a alguien por su nombre es conocerlo bien. Traducción alterna: "Te conozco bien"

Haz encontrado favor ante mi vista
Esto es parte de lo que Dios le había dicho a Moisés. Traducción alterna: "Estoy satisfecho con usted" o "Lo apruebo"

Ahora si he encontrado favor ante tu vista Esto es parte de lo que Moisés le estaba diciendo a Dios. Traducción alterna: "Ahora si está satisfecho conmigo" o "Ahora si me aprueba"

Muéstrame Tus caminos
Posibles significados: 1) "muéstrame lo que vas a hacer en el futuro" o 2) "muéstrame cómo el pueblo puede hacer para complacerte".

Exodus 33:14

Mi propia presencia irá
La presencia de Dios representa a sí mismo. Traducción alterna: "Voy a ir"

Irá contigo ... te daré
Se refiere a Moisés.

Yo te daré descanso
"Te dejaré descansar"

De lo contrario
"Porque si tu presencia no va con nosotros".

Como se sabrá
Esto puede ser expresado como forma activa. Traducción alterna: cómo sabrá la gente "

¿Cómo se sabrá ... la gente?
Moisés usó esta pregunta para enfatizar que si Dios no va con ellos, nadie sabrá que Moisés había encontrado favor ante los ojos de Dios. Traducción alterna: "nadie sabrá ... gente".

No será solo si
"No solo se sabrá si"

Exodus 33:17

Información general:
Cuando el Señor usa la palabra "Usted" en el versículo, es en singular y se refiere a Moisés.

Haz encontrado favor ante mi vista
Este es un modismo que significa que Dios está complacido con él. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 33:12. Traducción alterna: "Estoy satisfecho con usted" o "Lo apruebo"

Te conozco por tu nombre
Conocer a alguien por su nombre es conocerlo bien. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 33:12. Traducción alterna: "Te conozco bien"

Exodus 33:19

Haré que toda mi bondad pase frente a tí
Dios habla de pasar por delante de Moisés para que Moisés pueda ver su bondad como si solo su bondad fuera más allá de Moisés. Traducción alterna: "Me moveré más allá de ti para que puedas ver mi bondad"

Exodus 33:21

Ver
"Mirar" o "Escuchar" o "Pon atención a lo que te voy a contar"

Verás mi espalda.
Esto es porque el Señor caminará alejado de Moisés.

Pero Mi rostro no será visto Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "pero no verás mi cara"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Corta dos tablas de piedra como las primeras tablas. Yo escribiré en estas tablas las palabras que estaban escritas en las primeras tablas, las tablas que tú rompiste. 2 Esté listo en la mañana y sube al Monte Sinaí, y preséntate allí a Mí en la cima de la montaña. 3 Nadie podrá subir contigo. No permitas que nadie más sea visto en ningún lugar de la montaña. Ningún rebaño o manada ni siquiera pueden comer frente de la montaña." 4 Así que Moisés cortó dos tablas de piedra como las primeras, y se levantó temprano en la mañana y subió al Monte Sinaí, como el SEÑOR le instruyó. Moisés cargó las tablas de piedra en su mano. 5 El SEÑOR bajó en la nube y se paró junto a Moisés allí, y pronunció el nombre "SEÑOR." 6 El SEÑOR pasó frente a él y proclamó: "SEÑOR, SEÑOR, Dios es misericordioso y gentil, lento para enfadarse, y abundante en fidelidad de pacto e integridad, 7 manteniendo la fidelidad de pacto por miles de generaciones, perdonando iniquidades, transgresiones y pecados. Pero Él por ningún medio perdonará al culpable. Él traerá castigo por los pecados de los padres en sus hijos y en los hijos de sus hijos, tan lejos como la tercera y cuarta generación." 8 Moisés rápidamente bajó su cabeza hacia el suelo y adoró. 9 Luego él dijo: "Si ahora he encontrado favor en tu vista, mi Señor, por favor ve con nosotros, porque este pueblo es obstinado. Perdona nuestra iniquidad y nuestro pecado, y tómanos como tu herencia." 10 El SEÑOR dijo: "Observa, Yo estoy apunto de hacer un pacto. Ante todo tu pueblo, Yo haré maravillas como no se han hecho en toda la tierra ni en nación alguna. Todas las personas de entre ustedes verán mis obras, porque algo temible es lo estoy haciendo con ustedes. 11 Obedece lo que te ordeno hoy. Yo estoy apunto de expulsar ante ustedes a los Amorreos, Cananeos, Hititas, Ferezeos, Heveos, y Jebuseos. 12 Tengan cuidado de no hacer pacto con los habitantes de las tierras a donde irán, o ellos se convertirán en una trampa entre ustedes. 13 En su lugar, tienen que romper los altares de ellos, aplastar sus pilares de piedra, y cortar sus postes de Asera. 14 Porque no pueden adorar a ningún otro dios, pues Yo, el SEÑOR, cuyo nombre es 'Celoso', soy un Dios celoso. 15 Así que ten cuidado de no hacer pacto con los habitantes de la tierra, pues se prostituyen a sí mismos para sus dioses y se sacrifican a sus dioses. Entonces uno de ellos te invitará y tú comerás algo de sus sacrificios, 16 e incluso tú tomarás algunas de sus hijas para tus hijos, y sus hijas se prostituirán a sí mismas para sus dioses, y ellos harán que tus hijos se prostituyan a sus dioses. 17 No hagan para ustedes mismos dioses de metal fundido. 18 Tienes que mantener el Festival de los Panes sin Levadura. Como Yo te ordené, tú tienes que comer pan sin levadura por siete días en el tiempo señalado en el mes de Abib, porque fue en el mes de Abib que saliste de Egipto. 19 Todos los primeros en nacer son Míos, hasta los machos primerizos del ganado, tanto el buey como la oveja. 20 Tienes que volver a comprar el primer nacido de un burro y un cordero, pero si no lo vuelves a comprar, entonces tienes que romper su cuello.
Tienes que volver a comprar todos los primerizos de tus hijos. Nadie puede presentarse ante Mí con las manos vacías 21 Tienes que trabajar por seis días, pero al séptimo día tienes que descansar. Incluso en el tiempo de arar y en el de la cosecha, tienes que descansar. 22 Tienes que observar el Festival de la Semana con el primer rendimiento de la cosecha del trigo, y tienes que observar el Festival de la Cosecha al final del año. 23 Todos tus hombres tienen que presentarse ante Mí, el SEÑOR, el Dios de Israel, tres veces cada año. 24 Pues yo traeré a las naciones delante de ti y expandiré tus fronteras. Nadie deseará invadir tus tierras y tomarlas cuando vengas ante Mí, el SEÑOR tu Dios, tres veces cada año. 25 No puedes ofrecer la sangre de Mi sacrificio con ninguna levadura, ni ninguna carne del sacrificio del Festival de la Pascua puede quedarse hasta la mañana. 26 Tienes que traer lo mejor de los primeros frutos de tus campos a Mi casa. No puedes hervir a un cabrito en la leche de su madre." 27 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Escribe estas palabras, porque Yo mismo prometo estas palabras que he hablado, y he hecho un pacto contigo y con Israel." 28 Moisés estuvo ahí con el SEÑOR por cuarenta días y noches; él no comió ninguna comida ni tomó agua alguna. Él escribió en las tablas las palabras del pacto, los diez Mandamientos. 29 Cuando Moisés bajó del Monte Sinaí con las dos tablas del pacto del decreto en sus manos, él no sabía que la piel de su cara se había vuelto resplandeciente mientras estaba hablando con Dios. 30 Cuando Aarón y los Israelitas vieron a Moisés, la piel de su cara estaba brillando, y ellos tuvieron temor de acercarce a él. 31 Pero Moisés los llamó, y Aarón y todos los líderes de la comunidad subieron donde él. Luego Moisés habló con ellos. 32 Después de esto, todo el pueblo de Israel subió donde Moisés, y él les dijo todos los mandamientos que el SEÑOR le había dado en el Monte Sinaí. 33 Cuando Moisés había terminado de hablar con ellos, se puso un velo sobre su rostro. 34 Cada vez que Moisés se presentaba ante el SEÑOR para hablar con Él, éste se removía el velo hasta que salía. Cuando él salía, le decía a los Israelitas lo que se le había ordenado a decir. 35 Cuando los Israelitas vieron el rostro de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Moisés brillar, éste se ponía el velo sobre su rostro ora vez hasta que volvía y entraba a hablar con el SEÑOR.

Exodus 34:1

Las tablas
"Losas planas de piedra". Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 31:18

Exodus 34:3

Información General:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

No permitas que nadie más sea visto en ningún lugar de la montaña.
Ser visto haciendo algo representa hacer eso. Traducción alterna: "No permita que nadie más esté en ningún lugar de la montaña"

Ningún rebaño o manada ni siquiera pueden comer frente de la montaña.
"Incluso a los rebaños o manadas no se les permite acercarse a la montaña para comer."

Exodus 34:5

Se paró junto a Moisés allí
"estaba con Moisés en la montaña"

Y pronunció el nombre del Señor.
Los posibles significados son 1) "él habló el nombre del "Señor" o 2) "él proclamó quién es el Señor". Para el segundo significado, "nombre" representaría quién es Dios.

El Señor, el Señor, Dios es misericordioso y clemente.
Dios está hablando de sí mismo. Traducción alterna: "Yo, el Señor, soy Dios, y soy misericordioso y misericordioso"

Abundante en fidelidad de pacto e integridad
"Siempre mostrando fidelidad y honradez"

Abundando en la fidelidad del pacto
"Siempre siendo fiel a mi pacto". Ver cómo tradujo una frase similar en 20: 4.

Abundante en ... confiabilidad
"Siempre mostrando fidelidad y confianza de pacto"

Pero lo hará
El Señor está hablando de sí mismo. Traducción alterna: "Pero lo haré"

Él por ningún medio perdonará al culpable.
El Señor está hablando de sí mismo. Traducción alterna: "De ninguna manera limpiaré a los culpables"

Él por ningún medio perdonará al culpable.
"Ciertamente no aclarará a los culpables" o "ciertamente no dirá que los culpables son inocentes" o "ciertamente no liberará a las personas culpables"

Él traerá castigo por los pecados de los padres en sus hijos
Se habla de castigar a las personas como si el castigo fuera un objeto que alguien pudiera traer sobre las personas. Traducción alterna: "Él castigará a los niños por el pecado de sus padres"

Sus hijos
La palabra "hijos" representa a los descendientes. Traducción alterna: "sus descendientes"

Exodus 34:8

Si ahora he encontrado favor en tu vista
Ser amable con alguien se habla de encontrar un favor ante sus ojos. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 33:12. Traducción alterna: "Ahora si está satisfecho conmigo" o "Ahora si me aprueba"

Nuestra iniquidad y nuestro pecado
Las palabras "iniquidad" y "pecado" significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para enfatizar. Traducción alterna: "todos nuestros pecados"

Tómanos como tu herencia.
Se habla de algo que alguien posee para siempre como si fuera algo que había heredado. Traducción alterna: "tómanos como las personas que posees para siempre" o "acéptanos como las personas que te pertenecen para siempre"

Exodus 34:10

Tu pueblo
Aquí "Tu" se refiere a Moisés.

Algo temible es lo estoy haciendo con ustedes
Una cosa temerosa es una cosa que hace que la gente tenga miedo. En este caso, las personas temerán a Dios cuando vean lo que él hace. Traducción alterna: "lo que hago por ti hará que las personas me teman"

Estoy haciendo con ustedes
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a Moisés y al pueblo de Israel.

Exodus 34:12

Información general:
El Señor sigue hablando a Moisés. Aquí le dice lo que deben hacer Moisés y el pueblo

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ellos se convertirán en una trampa entre ustedes
Se habla de las personas que tientan a otros para pecar como si fueran una trampa. Traducción alterna: "te tentarán a pecar"

Cuyo nombre es 'Celoso'
La palabra "nombre" aquí representa el carácter de Dios. Traducción alterna: "Yo, el Señor, que siempre estoy celoso" o "Yo, el Señor, siempre estoy celoso"

Yo, el Señor, cuyo nombre es 'Celoso',
La palabra "celoso" aquí significa que Dios se preocupa por mantener su honor. Si su gente adora a otros dioses, pierde honor, porque cuando su gente no lo honra, otras personas tampoco lo honrarán. Traduccióna altera: "Yo, el Señor, siempre cuido mi honor"

Exodus 34:15

Declaración de conexión:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés cómo se comportará su pueblo con los forasteros.

Pues se prostituyen a sí mismos para sus dioses
Dios habla de personas que adoran a otros dioses como si fueran prostitutas yendo a otros hombres. Traducción alterna: "porque adoran a otros dioses" o "porque adoran a otros dioses como prostitutas que van a otros hombres"

Y comerás algo de su sacrificio
La consecuencia de comer alimentos que se sacrifican a otro dios se puede establecer claramente. Traducción alterna: "y comerás un poco de su sacrificio y serás culpable de adorar a sus dioses" o "y te prostituirás a su dios comiendo un poco de su sacrificio"

Exodus 34:18

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Siete días
"7 días"

En el mes de Abib
Este es el nombre del primer mes del calendario hebreo. Abib es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en los calendarios occidentales. Ver cómo se tradujo "Abib" en 13: 3.

Exodus 34:19

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Recomprar
Los hijos primogénitos y los asnos primogénitos pertenecían al Señor, pero el Señor no quería que fueran sacrificados a Él. En cambio, los israelitas debían sacrificar un cordero en su lugar. Esto permitió a los israelitas comprar los asnos y los hijos al Señor.

Nadie puede presentarse ante Mí con las manos vacías mano - Dios habla de la ofrenda como si la persona fuera a llevarla en sus manos. Traducción alterna: "Nadie puede venir a mí sin una ofrenda" o "Todos los que vienen a mí deben traerme una ofrenda"

Exodus 34:21

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Incluso en el tiempo de arar y en el de la cosecha
"Incluso cuando estás preparando el suelo o recogiendo los cultivos"

El Festival de la Semana
Este festival también fue conocido como el Festival de Refugios o el Festival de las Cabañas. La idea surgió de la práctica de los granjeros que viven en cabañas temporales, o chozas, en los campos para proteger la cosecha a medida que ésta maduraba. La palabra "Recolección" significa cuando cosechan su cosecha.

Exodus 34:23

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Exodus 34:25

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

La sangre de Mi sacrificio
El hecho de que la sangre es de un animal se puede afirmar claramente. Traducción alterna: "la sangre de un animal que me sacrificas"

Con ninguna levadura
El hecho de que nada de levadura esté en el pan se expresa claramente. Traducción alterna: "con pan que no contenga levadura"

Exodus 34:27

Moisés estuvo ahí
"Moisés estaba en la montaña"

Cuarenta días
"40 días"

Por cuarenta días y noches
"Por cuarenta días, tanto de día como de noche".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él escribió
"Moisés escribió"

Exodus 34:29

Se había vuelto resplandeciente
"Habia empezado a brillar"

Subieron donde él
"Se le acercó" o "se dirigió a él". No subieron a la montaña.

Exodus 34:32

Todos los mandamientos que el Señor le había dado
Al hablar de mandamientos se habla como si los mandamientos fueran objetos que podrían darse.
Traducción alterna: "todos los mandamientos que el Señor le había dicho" o "todo lo que el Señor les había ordenado"

Exodus 34:34

El podía retirar
"Moisés podía retirar"

Que se le había ordenado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "lo que el Señor le había ordenado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 Moisés reunió a toda la comunidad de los israelitas y les dijo: "Estas son las cosas que el SEÑOR les ha ordenado hacer a ustedes. 2 En seis días trabajo se puede hacer, pero para ustedes, el séptimo día debe ser un día santo, un día sábado de completo descanso, santo para el SEÑOR. Quienquiera que haga cualquier trabajo en ese día debe ser puesto a muerte. 3 Ustedes no deben encender un fuego en ninguno de sus hogares en el día de reposo." 4 Moisés habló a toda la comunidad de los israelitas, diciendo: "Esta es la cosa que el SEÑOR ha ordenado. 5 Tomen una ofrenda para el SEÑOR, todos ustedes que tienen un corazón dispuesto. Traigan una ofrenda al SEÑOR, oro, plata, bronce, 6 azul, violeta, y lana escarlata y lino fino; cabello de cabras; 7 pieles de carnero pintadas de rojo y cueros de marsopa; madera de acacia; 8 aceite para las lámparas del santuario, especias para el aceite ungido y el incienso fragante, 9 piedras de ónice y otras piedras preciosas para que sean fijadas al efod y pectoral. 10 Todo hombre hábil entre ustedes vendrá, y harán todo lo que el SEÑOR ha ordenado, 11 el tabernáculo con su tienda, su cubierta, sus ganchos, marcos, barras, postes y bases; 12 también el arca con sus astas, la tapa de expiación, y la cortina para sellarla. 13 Ellos trajeron la mesa con sus astas, todos sus utensilios, y el pan de la presencia; 14 el candelabro para las luces, con sus accesorios, sus lámparas, y el aceite para las lámparas; 15 el incienso del altar con sus astas, el aceite ungido y el incienso fragante; el colgante para la entrada del tabernáculo; 16 el altar para los holocaustos con su reja de bronce y sus astas y utensilios; y la cuenca grande con su base. 17 Ellos trajeron los colgantes para el patio con sus astas y bases, y la cortina para la entrada del patio; 18 y las estacas de tienda para el tabernáculo y patio, junto con sus cuerdas. 19 Ellos trajeron las vestiduras finamente tejidas para servir en el lugar santo, las vestiduras santas para Aarón el sacerdote y sus hijos, para que ellos sirvieran como sacerdotes." 20 Entonces todas las tribus de Israel se fueron lejos de la presencia de Moisés. 21 Todo a quien su corazón lo animó y a quien su espíritu hizo dispuesto a venir y traer una ofrenda para el SEÑOR para la construcción del tabernáculo, para todos los elementos de servicio en el, y para las vestiduras santas. 22 Ellos vinieron, ambos hombres y mujeres, todos quienes tenían un corazón dispuesto. Ellos trajeron broches, aretes, anillos, y ornamentos, todo tipo de joyería de oro. Ellos todos presentaron ofrendas de oro como una ola de ofrenda al SEÑOR. 23 Todo aquel que tenía lana azul, violeta o escarlata, lino fino, cabello de cabra, piel de carnero pintada de rojo, o pieles de marsopa, los trajeron. 24 Todos haciendo una ofrenda de plata o bronce, las trajeron como una ofrenda al SEÑOR, y todos los que tenían madera de acacia para cualquier uso en el trabajo, las trajeron. 25 Toda mujer hábil hiló lana con sus manos y trajo lo que ella había hilado, lana azul, violeta, o escarlata, o lino fino. 26 Todas las mujeres, a quienes sus corazones las animaron y quienes tenían destreza para hilar cabello de cabras. 27 Los líderes trajeron piedras de ónice y otras gemas para ser fijadas al efod y al pectoral; 28 ellos trajeron especias y aceite para las lámparas, para el aceite ungido, y para el incienso fragante. 29 Los israelitas trajeron una ofrenda voluntaria al SEÑOR; todo hombre y mujer, quien su corazón estaba dispuesto, trajo materiales para todo el trabajo que el SEÑOR había ordenado a través de Moisés para ser hecho. 30 Moisés le dijo a los israelitas: "Miren, el SEÑOR ha llamado por nombre en Bezalel, hijo de Uri, hijo de Hur, de la tribu de Judá. 31 Él ha llenado a Bezalel con su Espíritu, para darle sabiduría, entendimeinto y conocimiento, para todos los tipos de artesanía, 32 para hacer diseños artísticos y para trabajar en oro, plata y bronce; 33 también para cortar y fijar piedras y para tallar madera, para hacer todo tipo de diseño y artesanía. 34 Él lo ha puesto en su corazón para enseñar, ambos él y Aholiab hijo de Ahisamac, de la tribu de Dan. 35 Él ha los ha llenado con destreza para hacer todo tipo de trabajo, para trabajar como artesanos, como grabadores, como bordadores en lana azul, violeta, y escarlata y lino fino, y como tejedores. Ellos son artesanos en todo tipo de trabajo, y ellos son diseñadores artísticos.

Exodus 35:1

El séptimo día
"Día número siete" o "Sábado"

Quienquiera que haga cualquier trabajo en ese día debe ser puesto a muerte
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Debes matar a cualquiera que trabaje ese día"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 35:4

Información generales
Moisés les dice a los israelitas que hagan las cosas que el Señor le mandó en 25:3.

Toma una ofrenda para el Señor
"Toma una colección para el Señor"

Todos ustedes que tienen un corazón dispuesto
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona que trae la ofrenda. Traducción alterna: "todos los que quieran"

Exodus 35:10

Información generales:
Moisés les dice a los israelitas que hagan las cosas que El Señor le mandó

Todo hombre hábil
"Todo hombre con habilidades"

Broches
Encaja los broches en los ojales para mantener las cortinas juntas. Ver como se tradujo esto en el 26:4.

Bases
Estos son objetos pesados que descansan en el suelo y evitan que el objeto adherido a ellos se mueva. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 25:31.

La tapa de expiación
Esta es la tapa que se sitúa por encima del arca donde la ofrenda de expiación era hecha. Ver como se tradujo esto en el 25:15.

Exodus 35:13

Ellos trajeron
"El Pueblo de Israel trajo"

El pan de la presencia
Este pan representaba la presencia de Dios. Ver como se tradujo esto en el 25:28.

Rejilla de bronce.
Este es un marco de barras de bronce cruzadas para sujetar la madera cuando se quema. Ver cómo se tradujo "rejilla" en el 27:3.

Exodus 35:17

Tapices
Estas eran grandes cortinas hechas de tela. Ver cómo tradujo esto en el 26:36.

Postes
Estas eran piezas fuertes de madera colocadas en posición vertical y utilizadas como soportes. Ver cómo se tradujo estos en el 27: 9.

Bases
Estos eran bloques que tenían una ranura para mantener el tablero en su lugar. Ver cómo tradujo esto en el 26:19.

Estacas de tienda
Piezas afiladas de madera o metal utilizadas para asegurar las esquinas de una tienda al suelo. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 27:17.

Prendas finamente tejidas
Prendas tejidas - Esta fue una ropa hecha de hilos de lino estrechos que alguien trenzó para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 28: 6.

Exodus 35:20

Todas las tribus de Israel
Esto se refiere a la gente en las tribus. Traducción alterna: "las personas de todas las tribus de Israel"

A quien su corazón lo animó
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona. Se habla del corazón que respondió a Dios como si fuera agua agitada por una tormenta. Traducción alterna: "quien respondió a Dios"

A quien su espíritu hizo dispuesto
Aquí "espíritu" se refiere a la persona. Traducción alterna: "quién estaba dispuesto" o "quién quería"

Todos los que tenían un corazón dispuesto
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona. Traducción alterna: "todos los que quisieron"

Broches, pendientes, anillos y adornos.
Estos son diferentes tipos de joyas.

Exodus 35:23

Todo aquel que tenía ... los trajeron.
Para 35:23 ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 25:3.

Exodus 35:25

Lana azul, púrpura o escarlata
Los posibles significados son 1) "material que se tiñe de azul, púrpura y escarlata", probablemente hilo de lana, o 2) "tinte azul, púrpura y escarlata" para teñir el lino. Ver cómo tradujo una frase similar en 25: 3.

A quienes sus corazones las animaron Aquí "corazones" se refiere a las mujeres. Se habla de los corazones de las mujeres que respondieron a Dios como si fueran agua agitada por una tormenta. Traducción alterna: "quien respondió a Dios"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 35:27

Los líderes trajeron ... Moisés para hacerse
Para 35: 27-29, ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 25:1 y 25:3.

Quien su corazón estaba dispuesto
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a las personas. Traducción alterna: "quien estaba dispuesto"

Exodus 35:30

Él ha llenado a Bezalel con su Espíritu
Aquí se habla del Espíritu de Dios que le dio a Bezalel la capacidad de trabajar como si fuera algo que llenara a Bezalel.

Diseño y artesanía
Para 35: 30-33, ver cómo se tradujo estas palabras en 31:1 y 31:3.

Exodus 35:34

Información general:
Moisés continúa hablando al Pueblo

Él lo ha puesto en su corazón para enseñar
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a Bezalel. Se habla de la capacidad de enseñar como si fuera algo que podría colocarse en un corazón. Traducción alterna: "Le dio a Bezalel la capacidad de enseñar"

Él ha los ha llenado con destreza
Se habla de la habilidad para crear objetos bellos como si fuera algo que podría llenar a una persona. Traducción alterna: "los hizo muy hábiles"

Grabadores
Una persona que graba diseños en materiales duros tales como madera, piedra o metal

Bordadora
Una persona que cose diseños en tela

Artesanos
Personas que son hábiles en hacer hermosos objetos a mano.

Tejedores
Una persona que crea tela usando hilo

Diseñadores artísticos
Una persona que crea belleza con materiales.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Así que Bezalel y Aholiab y toda persona hábil a quien el SEÑOR le ha dado destreza y habilidad para conocer cómo hacer cualquier trabajo en la construcción del lugar santo, están para hacer el trabajo de acuerdo a todo lo que el SEÑOR había ordenado." 2 Moisés llamó a Bezael, Aholiab y a toda persona hábil en cuya mente el SEÑOR había dado talento, y cuyo corazón se revolvía dentro de él para ir y hacer el trabajo. 3 Ellos recibieron de Moisés todas las ofrendas que los israelitas habían traído para la construcción del lugar santo. La gente todavía traía ofrenda voluntarias cada mañana a Moisés 4 Así que toda la gente habilidosa trabajando en el lugar santo vino del trabajo que habían estado haciendo. 5 Los artesanos le dijeron a Moisés: "La gente está trayendo más de lo necesario para hacer el trabajo que el SEÑOR nos a ordenado hacer". 6 Entonces Moisés ordenó a que nadie en el campamento debería traer ninguna otra ofrenda para la construcción del lugar santo. Entonces la gente dejó de traer estos regalos. 7 Ellos tenían material más que suficiente para todo el trabajo. 8 Entonces todos los artesanos entre ellos construyeron el tabernáculo con diez cortinas hechas de lino fino y lana azul, púrpura, y escarlata con diseños de querubines. Éste esta el trabajo de Bezael, un artesano muy talentoso. 9 El largo de cada cortina era de veíntiocho codos, el ancho de cuatro codos. Todas las cortinas eran del mismo tamaño. 10 Bezael unió cinco cortinas una con la otra, y las otras cinco cortinas él también las unió la una con la otra. 11 Él hizo nudos de azul a lo largo de los bordes al final de un par de cortinas, e hizo lo mismo a lo largo del borde al final del segundo par de cortinas. 12 Él hizo cincuenta nudos en la primera cortina y cincuenta nudos en el borde al final del segundo par. Así que los nudos estaban opuestos el uno al otro. 13 Él hizo cincuenta corchetes de oro y unió las cortinas con ellos para que el tabernáculo se uniera. 14 Bezael hizo cortinas de pelo de cabra para una tienda sobre el tabernáculo; él hizo once de estas cortinas. 15 El largo de cada cortina era de treinta codos, y el ancho de cada cortina era de cuatro codos. Cada una de las once cortinas era del mismo tamaño. 16 Él unió cinco cortinas a cada una y otras seis cortinas a cada una. 17 Él hizo cincuenta nudos en el borde al final de la cortina del primer grupo, y cincuenta nudos a lo largo del borde al final de la cortina que se unía al segundo grupo. 18 Bezalel hizo cincuenta broches de bronce para unir la carpa para para que esta fuera una sola pieza. 19 Él hizo para el tabernáculo unas cubiertas de piel de carnero teñidas de rojo y otras cubiertas de piel fina que colocó sobre de esta. 20 Bezalel hizo los armazones verticales en madera de acacia para el tabernáculo. 21 El largo de cada marco era diez codos y el ancho de uno y medio codos. 22 Cada marco tenía dos clavijas de madera para unir los marcos. Hizo esto para todos los armazones del tabernáculo. 23 Él hizo todos los armazones para el tabernáculo de esta manera: veinte marcos para el lado sur. 24 Bezalel hizo cuarenta bases de plata para colocar debajo de los veinte marcos. Había dos bases bajo cada marco para unirlas, además dos bases debajo de cada uno de los otros marcos para mantenerlos unidos. 25 Para el segundo lado del tabernáculo, en el lado norte, el construyó veinte marcso 26 y sus cuarenta bases de plata. Habían dos bases debejo del primer marco, dos bases debajo del segundo marco y así sucesivamente. 27 Para la parte posterior del tabernáculo en la parte oeste, Bezalel hizo seis marcos. 28 Hizo dos marcos para las esquinas de la parte de atrás del tabernáculo. 29 Estos marcos estaban separados en la parte inferior, pero unidos en la parte superior por un anillo. Él hizo dos de esta manera para las dos esquinas. 30 Habían ocho marcos, juntos con sus bases en plata. Habían dieciseis bases por todo, dos bases debajo del primer marco, y dos bases debajo del próximo marco y así sucesivamente. 31 Bezalel hizo barras cruzadas de madera de acacia, cinco marcos en un lado del tabernáculo, 32 cinco barras cruzadas para los marcos de la otra parte del tabernáculo, y cinco barras cruzadas para los marcos de la otra parte del tabernáculo al área oeste. 33 Él hizo las barras cruzadas del centro de los marcos, esto es, mitad para arriba, para alcanzar de extremo a extremo. 34 Él cubrió los marcos con oro. Él hizo los anillos de oro, para que sirvieran de sostén para las barras cruzadas y él cubrió las barras de oro. 35 Bezalel hizo la cortina de azul, violeta, y lana escarlata, y de lino fino, con diseños de querubín, la obra de un trabajador habilidoso. 36 Él hizo para la cortina cuatro pilares de madera de acacia, y él las cubrió con oro. Él también hizo ganchos de oro para los pilares, y él fundió para ellos cuatro bases de plata. 37 Él hizo un tápiz para la entrada de la tienda. La hizo de tela azul, púrpura, lana escarlata, usando lino fino, trabajo de un bordador. 38 Él tambien hizo cinco pilares corgantes con ganchos. Cubrió las superficies y varillas con oro. Sus cinco bases fueron fabricadas de bronce.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 36:1

Información general:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo.

A quien el Señor ha dado destreza y habilidad
Aquí se habla de habilidad y habilidad como si fueran algo que el Señor puede colocar dentro de una persona.

Conforme a todo lo que ha mandado El Señor
"Tal como El Señor lo ha mandado"

Exodus 36:2

En cuya mente el Señor había dado talento
Aquí "mente" se refiere a la persona que fue hecha hábil por el Señor. Traducción alterna: "a quien el Señor le había dado habilidad"

Cuyo corazón se agitó dentro de él
Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona. Se habla del corazón que respondió a Dios como si fuera agua agitada por una tormenta. Traducción alterna: "quien respondió a Dios"

Exodus 36:5

Los artesanos le dijeron a Moisés ... nos a ordenado hacer
Puede ser expresado como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Los artesanos le dijeron a Moisés que la gente traía mucho más que suficiente para hacer el trabajo que el Señor les ha ordenado que hagan"

Los artesanos le dijeron a Moisés
"Los hombres que trabajan en el santuario le dijeron a Moisés"

Exodus 36:8

Entonces todos los artesanos ... unidos entre sí
Para 38: 8-10, ver cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26: 1.

Diez cortinas hechas de lino fino.
Estas cortinas son sábanas de tela tejidas y cosidas juntas para que puedan colgarse y formar una pared o tienda de campaña.

Exodus 36:11

Él hizo nudos ... se uniera
Para 36: 11-13, vea cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26: 4.

Nudos de azul
Nudos de tela azul

Cortina
Estas eran secciones grandes y pesadas de tela tejida que se usaban para formar las paredes que cubrían y dividían el tabernáculo. Vea cómo se tradujo esto en el 26: 1.

El hizo
Aquí "él" se refiere a Bezalel, pero incluye a todos los hombres que trabajan en el santuario.

Cincuenta broches de oro
"50 broches de oro"

Exodus 36:14

Bezalel hizo cortinas ... el segundo set.
Para 36: 14-17, ver cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26: 7 y 26:10.

Haz once
"Haz 11"

Treinta codos
"30 codos"

Cincuenta nudos
"50 nudos"

Exodus 36:18

Bezalel hizo ... ir por encima de eso
Para 36: 18-19, ver cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26:10 y 26:12.

Cincuenta broches de bronce
"50 broches de bronce"

Exodus 36:20

Bezalel hizo ... para el lado sur.
Para 36: 20-23, ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26:15.

Diez codos ... un codo y medio.
"10 codos ... 1,5 codos"

Dos clavijas de madera para unir
Una clavija de madera es una pequeña pieza de madera que sobresale más allá del extremo del tablero para que pueda ser asegurada.

Exodus 36:24

Bezalel hizo ... y así sucesivamente
Para 36: 24-26, ver cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 26:19.

Cuarenta bases de plata
"40 bases de plata"

Veinte marcos
"20 marcos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y así sucesivamente
Habrá dos bases debajo de cada cuadro.

Exodus 36:27

Para la parte posterior ... del tabernáculo
Para 36: 27-28, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 26:22.

En el oeste
en el lado que está en el oeste

Para las esquinas de la parte de atrás
Para las esquinas en la parte trasera del tabernáculo.

Exodus 36:29

Estos marcos ... y así sucesivamente
Para 36: 29-30, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 26:22.

Dieciseis bases en total
"16 bases en total"

Y así sucesivamente
Habrá dos bases debajo de cada cuadro.

Exodus 36:31

Bezalel hizo ... con oro
Para 36: 31-34 ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 26:26 y 26:29.

Hacia el oeste
Hacia el lado oeste

De extremo a extremo
de un lado del tabernáculo al otro lado

Exodus 36:35

Bezalel hizo ... bases de plata
Para 36: 35-36, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 26:31.

Exodus 36:37

Él hizo ... fabricadas en bronce
Para 36: 37-38 ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 26:36.

Él hizo
Aquí "él" se refiere a Bezalel y los que trabajan para él. "Bezalel y sus hombres hicieron"

Colgante
Una cortina

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 37

1 Bezalel hizo el arca de madera de acacia. Su largo era de dos y medio codos; su anchura era de un codo y medio; y su altura era de un codo y medio. 2 Él lo cubrió por dentro y por afuera con oro puro e le hizo un borde de oro alrededor de la parte superior. 3 Él fundió cuatro anillos de oro para los cuatro pies, con dos anillos en un lado de él, y dos anillos en el otro lado. 4 El hizo varas de madera de acacia y las cubrió con oro. 5 El colocó las varas dentro de los anillos de los lados del arca, para poder llevar el arca. 6 El hizo una tapa de oro puro para el propiciatorio. Su largo era de dos codos y medio, y su anchura era un codo y medio. 7 Bezalel hizo dos querubines de oro martillado para las dos tapas del propiciatorio. 8 Un querubín era para un extremo de la tapa del propiciatorio, y el otro querubín era para el otro extremo. Eran hechos como una sola pieza con la tapa del propiciatorio. 9 El querubín extendía sus alas hacia arriba y hacía sombra sobre la tapa del propiciatorio. Los querubines estaban de frente el uno al otro y mirando hacia el centro de la tapa del propiciatorio. 10 Bezalel hizo la mesa de madera de acacia. Su longitud era de dos codos, su anchura era un codo, y su altura era un codo y medio. 11 Él lo cubrió con oro puro y colocó un borde de oro puro alrededor de la tapa. 12 Él hizo un marco alrededor de un palmo de ancho, con un borde de oro alrededor para el marco. 13 El fundió cuatro anillos de oro y unió los anillos a las cuatro esquinas, donde estaban los cuatro pies. 14 Los anillos estaban unidos al marco para proveer lugar para las varas, de manera que se pudiera cargar la mesa. 15 Él hizo las varas de madera de acacia y las cubrió con oro, de manera que pudiera cargar la mesa. 16 Él hizo los objetos que estuvieran en la mesa: los platos, cucharas, basijas y jarras a ser usados para derramar las ofrendas. Él los hizo de oro puro. 17 Él hizo el candelero de puro oro martillado. Él hizo el candelero con su base y asta. Sus tazones, sus cálices y sus flores fueron hechos todos de una pieza con el. 18 Seis brazos se extendían hacia afuera en los lados, tres brazos de un lado, y tres brazos del candelero extendida del otro lado. 19 El primer brazo tenia tres tazones hechos como flor de almendro, con una base de cálices y una flor, y tres tazones hechos de flor de almendro en el otro brazo, con una base de cáliz y una flor. Era igual para todos los seis brazos que se extienden hacia afuera del candelero. 20 En el candelero mismo, el asta central, habia cuatro tazones hechos de flor de almendro, con sus bases de cálices y de flores. 21 Había una base de cáliz debajo del primer par de brazos, hechos de una sola pieza, y una base de cáliz debajo del segundo par de brazos, también hechos como una sola pieza con el. De la misma manera había una base de cáliz debajo del tercer par de brazos, hecho de un sola pieza con el. Era lo mismo con todos los seis brazos extendiéndose fuera del candelero. 22 Sus cálices y sus brazos eran todos una sola pieza con el, una sola pieza de trabajo labrada a martillo de oro puro. 23 Bezalel hizo el candelero y sus siete lámparas, sus pinzas y sus bandejas de oro puro. 24 Él hizo el candelero y sus accesorios con un talento de oro puro. 25 Bezalel hizo el altar de incienso. Él lo hizo con madera de acacia. Su longitud era de un codo, y sus anchura de un codo. Era cuadrado, y su altura era de dos codos. Sus cuernos eran hechos de una sola pieza con el. 26 Él cubrió el altar de incienso con oro puro, su parte superior, sus lados, y sus cuernos. Él también hizo un borde alrededor de oro para el. 27 Él hizo dos anillos dorados para ser pegados a el debajo de su borde en sus dos lados opuestos. Los anillos eran los que sostendrían las varas para calgar el altar. 28 Él hizo las varas de madera de acacia, y las cubrió con oro. 29 Él hizo el aceite sagrado de la unción y el incienso puro fragante, el trabajo de un perfumista.

Exodus 37:1

Dos codos y medio ... un codo y medio
"2.5 codos ... 1.5 codos"

Son cuatro patas
Se habla de estas cuatro piezas de madera que sostuvieron el arca como si fueran pies humanos o de animales.

Exodus 37:4

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Él hizo ... un codo y medio
Para 37: 4-6, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 25:12 y 25:15.

Él hizo
Aunque "él" se refiere a Bezalel, "él" puede incluir a todos los trabajadores que lo ayudaron.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Dos codos y medio ... un codo y medio
"2.5 codos ... 1.5 codos"

Exodus 37:7

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... el centro de la tapa del propiciatorio.
Para 37: 7-9, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 25:15 y 25:19.

Eran hechos como una sola pieza
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Los hizo como una sola pieza"

El querubín extendía sus alas hacia arriba y hacía sombra Bezalel colocó las estatuas de los querubines como si fueran verdaderos querubines que extendían sus alas y ensombrecían la tapa de la expiación. Traducción alterna: "Colocaron a las criaturas aladas para que sus alas se tocaran entre sí y se extendieran sobre"

Los querubines estaban de frente el uno al otro y mirando hacia Bezalel colocó las estatuas de los querubines como si fueran verdaderos querubines que se enfrentaban y miraban hacia la tapa de la expiación.

Exodus 37:10

Información general
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... donde estaban las cuatro patas.
Para 37: 10-13, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 25:23 y 25:25.

Dos codos ... un codo ... un codo y medio
"2 codos ... 1 codo ... 1,5 codos"

Un palmo de ancho
Este era el ancho de la mano de un hombre con los dedos extendidos.

Las cuatro patas
Se habla de estas cuatro piezas de madera que sostuvieron el arca como si fueran pies humanos o animales.

Exodus 37:14

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Los anillos ... los hizo de oro puro.
Para 37:14 - 16 ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 25:25 y 25:28.

Los anillos estaban unidos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Bezalel ató los anillos"

Los platos, cucharas, tazones y jarras a ser usados para derramar las ofrendas.
Solo los tazones y las jarras se usan para derramar las ofrendas. Traducción alterna: "platos y tazas, y también los frascos y cuencos que los sacerdotes usarán para derramar las ofrendas"

Exodus 37:17

Declaración de conexión:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Información general:

Él hizo ... para el candelero
Para 37: 17-19, ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 25:31 y 25:33.

Sus tazones, sus cálices y sus flores fueron hechos todos de una pieza con el.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hizo las copas, sus bases frondosas y sus flores como una sola pieza con el candelero"

Tres tazones hechos como flor de almendro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y él hizo que las 3 tazas parecieran flores de almendra"

Flores de almendro
Una flor de almendro es una flor blanca o rosa con cinco pétalos que crece en un almendro.

Exodus 37:20

En el candelero ... de oro puro
Para 37: 20-22, ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 25:33 y 25:35.

Habia cuatro tazones hechos de flor de almendro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "había 4 tazas que Bezalel hizo para que parecieran flores de almendra"

Hechos de una sola pieza con él
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que hizo de una sola pieza con el candelero"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 37:23

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... talento de oro puro
Para 37: 23-24, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 25:37.

Pinza
Esta es una herramienta hecha de dos palos de madera o metal conectados en un extremo y utilizados para recoger objetos.

Un talento
"34 kilogramos"

Exodus 37:25

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... oro para el
Para 37: 25-26, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 30: 1 y 30: 3.

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Sus cuernos eran hechos de una sola pieza con el.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Hizo los cuernos como una sola pieza con el altar"

Exodus 37:27

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Él hizo dos anillos de oro ... con oro
Para 37: 27-28, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 30: 3 y 30: 5

Para estar unidos a él
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "que se unieron al altar"

El trabajo de un perfumista
Un perfumista es un experto en mezclar especias y aceites. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 30:22.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 38

1 Bezalel hizo el altar para las ofrendas quemadas de madera de acacia. Era de cinco codos de largo y cinco codos de ancho---un cuadrado--- y tres codos de alto. 2 Él hizo extenciones de sus cuatro esquinas con forma de cuernos de buey. Los cuernos fueron hechos de una pieza junto con el altar, y él lo cubrió con bronce. 3 Él hizo todas las herramientas para el altar--recipientes para las cenizas, palas, tazones, tenedores para carne y parrillas. Él hizo todas estas herramientas con bronce. 4 Él hizo una rejilla para el altar, una red de bronce para que fuera ubicada debajo del estante, hasta la mitad del fondo. 5 Él fundió cuatro anillos para las cuatro esquinas de la rejilla de bronce, como sostenedores para las varas. 6 Bezalel hizo varas de madera de acacia y las cubrió con bronce. 7 Él puso las varas a través de los anillos a los lados del altar, para cargarlo. Él hizo el altar hueco, de tablones. 8 Bezalel hizo el gran tazón de bronce con un soporte de bronce. Él hizo el tazón de espejos pertenecientes a la mujer que servía a la entrada de la tienda de encuentro. 9 Él también hizo el patio. Los cortinajes en el lado sur del patio eran de lino fino, cien codos de largo. 10 Los cortinajes tenían veinte postes, con veinte bases de bronce. Habían ganchos unidos a los postes, como también varillas de plata. 11 Igualmente, a lo largo del lado norte habían cortinajes de cien codos de largo con veinte postes, veinte bases de bronce, ganchos unidos a los postes, y varillas de plata. 12 Los cortinajes del lado oeste eran de cincuenta codos de largo con diez postes y bases. Los ganchos y varillas de los postes eran de plata. 13 El patio también era de cincuenta codos de largo en el lado este. 14 Los cortinajes para un lado de la entrada eran de cincuenta codos de largo. Tenían tres postes con tres bases. 15 En el otro lado de la entrada del patio también habían cortinajes de quince codos de largo, con tres postes y tres bases. 16 Todos los cortinajes de alrededor del patio fueron hechos de lino fino. 17 La bases para los postes fueron hechas de bronce. Los ganchos y varillas para los postes fueron hechas de plata, y la cubierta para la partes de arriba de los postes también fueron hechas de plata. Todos los postes del patio estaban cubiertos con plata. 18 La cortina en la entrada del patio era de veinte codos de largo. La cortina fue hecha de azul, púrpura y lino escarlata, lino fino torcido y era de veinte codos de largo. Eran veinte codos en longitud y cinco codos en altura, como las cortinas (cortinajes) del patio. 19 Tenía cuatro bases de bronce y ganchos de plata. La cubierta para sus partes de arriba y sus varillas fueron hechas de plata. 20 Todas las estacas de tienda de campaña para el tabernáculo y el patio fueron hechas de bronce. 21 Este es el inventario del tabernáculo, el tabernáculo del decreto del pacto, como fue tomado siguiendo las instrucciones de Moisés. Fue el trabajo de los levitas bajo la dirección de Itamar, hijo de Aarón, el sacerdote. 22 Bezalel, hijo de Urim, hijo de Hur, de la tribu de Judá, hizo todo lo que el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 23 Aholiab, hijo de Ahisamac, de la tribu de Dan, trabajó con Bezalel como un grabador, como un trabajador habilidoso, y como un bordador en azul, púrpura, lana escarlata y en lino fino. 24 Todo el oro que fue usado para el proyecto, en todo el trabajo conectado con el lugar santo--el oro de la ofrenda de movimiento--fue de veintinueve talentos y 730 siclos, medido por el estándard del siclo del santuario. 25 La plata dada por la comunidad pesó cien talentos y 1, 775 siclos, de acuerdo al siclo del santuario, 26 o un becá por cada hombre, lo cual es medio siclo, medido por el siclo del santurario. Esta cifra fue alcanzada basada en cada persona que fue contada en el censo, aquellos de veinte años para arriba---603, 550 hombres en total. 27 Cien talentos de plata fueron fundidos para las bases del lugar santo y las bases de las cortinas: cien bases, un talento por cada base. 28 Con el restante de los 1, 775 siclos de plata, Bezalel hizo los ganchos para los postes, cubrió las partes de arriba de los postes, e hizo las varillas con ellos. 29 El bronce de la ofrenda de movimiento pesó setenta talentos y 2, 400 siclos. 30 Con esto él hizo las bases para la entrada de la tienda de encuentro, el altar de bronce, su rejilla de bronce, todas las herramientas para el altar, 31 las bases para el patio, las bases para la entrada del patio, todas las estacas de tienda de campaña para el tabernáculo y todas las estacas de tienda de campaña para el patio.

Exodus 38:1

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... el equipamiento con bronce
Para 38: 1-3 ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 27: 1 y 27: 3.

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los cuernos fueron hechos de una pieza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hizo los cuernos como una sola pieza"

Exodus 38:4

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Él hizo ... para las varas
Para 38: 4-5 ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en 27: 3 y 27: 5.

Para que fuera ubicada debajo del estante
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que colocaron debajo de la repisa"

Exodus 38:6

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Bezalel hizo ... de tablones
Un tablón es una pieza de madera larga y plana que es más gruesa que una tabla. Ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 27: 7.

Exodus 38:8

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Gran tazón de bronce con un soporte de bronce
El soporte sostenía la cuenca de bronce. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 30:17.

Él hizo el tazón de espejos
El bronce venía de los espejos. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "El bronce para el lavabo vino de los espejos"

Espejos
Un espejo es una pieza de metal pulido o vidrio que refleja una imagen.

Exodus 38:9

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Él también hizo ... como también varillas de plata
Para 38: 9-10, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras enel 27: 9.

cien ... veinte
"100 ... 20"

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Exodus 38:11

Igualmente, a lo largo del lado norte ... los postes eran de plata
Para 38: 17-20, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 27:14 y 27:17.

cien ... veinte ... cincuenta ... diez
"100 ... 20 ... 50 ... 10"

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Exodus 38:13

El patio
Para 38: 13-16, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 27:11 y 27:14.

Cincuenta ... quince ... tres
"50 ... 15 ... 3"

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Todos los cortinajes de alrededor del patio fueron hechos de lino fino.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Bezalel y los trabajadores hicieron todas las cortinas alrededor del patio con lino fino"

Exodus 38:17

Las bases ... patio fueron hechas de bronce.
Para 38: 17-20, ver cómo se tradujeron muchas de estas palabras en el 27:14 y 27:17.

La bases para los postes fueron hechas de bronce.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Bezalel y los trabajadores hicieron las bases para los postes en bronce"

Los ganchos y varillas para los postes fueron hechas de plata, y la cubierta para la partes de arriba de los postes también fueron hechas de plata.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hicieron los ganchos, las varillas para los postes y la cubierta para la parte superior de los postes de plata"

Todos los postes del patio estaban cubiertos con plata.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cubrieron los postes del patio con plata"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Veinte ... cinco ... cuatro
"20 ... 5 ... 4"

Codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Las cortinas fueron hechas de Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. "Hicieron la cortina de"

La cubierta para sus partes de arriba y sus varillas fueron hechas de plata.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hicieron la cubierta de la parte superior de los postes y sus varillas de plata"

Todas las estacas de tienda de campaña para el tabernáculo y el patio fueron hechas de bronce.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Hicieron todas las estacas de la tienda para el tabernáculo y el patio de bronce"

Exodus 38:21

Declaración de conexión:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Información general:

Como fue tomado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Ttaducción alterna: "que Moisés instruyó a los levitas a escribir"

El Señor le había ordenado a Moisés.
"Todo lo que el Señor le dijo a Moisés que hiciera".

Como un grabador, como un trabajador habilidoso, y como un bordador
"como un experto grabador y bordador"

Exodus 38:24

Todo el oro que fue usado para el proyecto
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Todo el oro que las personas usaron para el proyecto"

Veintinueve talentos ... cien talentos nueve talentos ... cien talentos - "29 talentos ... 100 talentos." Un talento son 34 kilogramos.

730 siclos ... 1,775 siclos
Un siclo son 11 gramos.

Medido por el estándard del siclo del santuario
Evidentemente, había siclos de más de un peso en ese momento. Esto especificaba cuál se iba a utilizar. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 30:11.

La plata dada por la comunidad
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "La plata que la comunidad dio"

Un becá
Un becá es 1/2 siclo.

Medio siclo
"1/2 siclo"

Esta cifra fue alcanzada basada en cada persona que fue contada en el censo
Todos los hombres que tenían 20 años o más estaban incluidos en el censo y tenían que dar medio shekel.

Veinte años
"20 años"

Exodus 38:27

Cien talentos de plata fueron fundidos
Un talento es de 34 kilogramos. Traducción alterna: "Los trabajadores lanzan 100 talentos de plata" o "Los trabajadores lanzan 3,400 kilogramos de plata"

Cien ... setenta
"100 ... 70"

Siclos
Un siclo equivale a 11 gramos.

Exodus 38:30

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Rejilla
Este es un marco de barras cruzadas para sujetar la madera cuando se quema. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 27: 3.

Estacas de tienda
Estas son estacas de bronce afiladas que se usaron para asegurar las esquinas de una tienda al suelo. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 27:17.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 39

1 Con el azúl, púrpura y lana escarlata ellos hicieron vestimentas de tejido fino para el servicio en el lugar santo. Ellos hicieron las vestimentas de Aarón para el lugar santo, como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 2 Bezalel hizo el efod de oro, de azúl, púrpura y lana escarlata y de lino fino torcido. 3 Ellos martillaron láminas de oro y las cortaron en cables para atarlas con el azúl, púrpura y lana escarlata y al lino fino, el trabajo de un obrero habilidoso. 4 Ellos hicieron hombreras para el efod, juntas a sus dos esquinas superiores. 5 Su cinto de tejido fino era como el efod; fue hecho de una sola pieza con el efod, hecho de lino fino torcido que era oro, azúl, púrpura y escarlata, justo como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 6 Ellos elaboraron las piedras de ónice, contenidas en marcos de oro, establecidas con grabados como en un sello, y grabados con los nombres de los doce hijos de Israel. 7 Bezalel las puso en las hombreras del efod como piedras para recordar al SEÑOR los doce hijos de Israel; como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 8 El hizo el pectoral, el trabajo de un trabajador diestro, diseñado como el efod. Lo hizo en oro, de lana azúl, púrpura y escarlata y de lino fino. 9 Era cuadrado. Ellos, doblaron el pectoral doble. Era un palmo de largo y palmo de ancho. 10 Le colocaron cuatro hileras de piedras preciosas. La primera hilera tenía un rubí, un topacio y un granate. 11 La segunda hilera tenía una esmeralda, un safiro y un diamante. 12 La tercera hilera tenía un jacinto, una ágata y una amatista. 13 La cuarta hilera tenía un berilo, un ónice y un jaspe. Las piedras fueron montadas en un engaste de oro. 14 Las piedras eran ordenadas según los nombres de las doce tribus de Israel, todos en orden por sus nombres. Eran como grabados en un anillo de sello, cada nombre significaba una de las doce tribus. 15 En el pectoral hicieron cadenas como cuerdas, trabajo trenzado de puro oro. 16 Hicieron dos engastes de oro y dos anillos de oro y pegaron los dos anillos a las esquinas del pectoral. 17 Ellos pusierom dos cadenas trenzadas de oro en los dos anillos en las esquinas del pectoral. 18 Ellos unieron las otras dos esquinas de las cadenas trenzadas a los dos marcos. Ellos las unieron a las piezas de las hombreras de efod como su principio. 19 Ellos hicieron dos anillos de oro y los pusieron en las otras dos esquinas del pectoral, en el borde a lado del borde interno. 20 Ellos hicieron dos anillos más de oro y los unieron en la parte baja de las piezas de las hombreras frente al efod, cercano a la costura por encima de la cintura finamente tejida de efod. 21 Ellos unieron el pectoral por su anillos a los anillos del efod con un cable azúl, para que así pudiese estar unido arriba de la cintura finamente tejida de efod. Esto era para que el pectoral no se desamarrara del efod. Esto fue hecho como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 22 Bezalel hizo el manto del efod completamente de tela púrpura, el trabajo de un tejedor. 23 Tenía una apertura para la cabeza en el medio. La apertura tenía un borde tejido circularmente para que no se rompiera. 24 En la parte baja del dobladillo, ellos hicieron granadas de azúle, púrpura, hilo escarlata y lino fino. 25 Ellos hicieron campanas de oro puro y ellos pusieron esas campanas entre las granadas alrededor de la parte baja del manto. 26 Una campana y una granada, una campana y una granada, en el borde del manto de Arón. Esto era como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 27 Ellos hicieron los abrigos de lino fino para Arón y para sus hijos. 28 Ellos hicieron un turbante de lino fino, los ornamentos en la banda de la cabeza de lino fino, ropa interior de lino fino, 29 y la faja de lino fino de azúl, púrpura y lana escarlata, el trabajo de un bordador. Esto fue hecho como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 30 Ellos hicieron el plato de la corona santísima de oro puro; ellos grabaron en él, como el grabado en un sello, "Santidad al SEÑOR." 31 Ellos le amarraron al turbante un cable azul a la parte superior del turbante. Esto fue como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 32 Así que el trabajo en el tabernáculo, la tienda de reuniones, fue terminado. Las personas de Israel hicieron todo. 33 Ellos siguieron todas las instrucciones que el SEÑOR le había dado a Moisés. Ellos le trajeron el tabernáculo a Moisés: la tienda y todo su equipo, sus broches, marcos, barras, postes y bases; 34 la cubierta de pieles de carnero teñidas de rojo, la cubierta de cuero de vaca marina, y la cortina encubrir 35 el arca del testimonio, así como los polos y la tapa de expiación. 36 Ellos trajeron la mesa, todo sus utensilios, y el pan de la presencia, 37 el candelabro de oro puro y sus lámparas en una fila, con sus accesorios y el aceite para las lámparas; 38 el altar de oro, el aceite de unción y el inciencio fragante; el colgante para la entrada del tabernáculo; 39 el altar de bronce con su rejilla de bronce y sus postes y utencilios y su cuenca grande con su base. 40 Ellos trajeron los colgantes para el patio con sus postes y bases, y las cortinas para la entrada del patios; sus sogas y sus estacas para tiendas; y todo el equipo para el servicio del tabernáculo, la tienda de reuniones. 41 Ellos trajeron prendas tejidas finas para servir en el lugar santo, las prendas santas para Arón el sacerdote y sus hijos, para que ellos le sirvan como sacerdotes. 42 Así las personas de Israel hicieron todo el trabajo como el SEÑOR había ordenado a Moisés. 43 Moisés examinó todo el trabajo, y, vean, ellos lo habían hecho. Como el SEÑOR le había ordenado, de esa manera ellos lo hicieron. Luego Moisés los bendijo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Exodus 39:1

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa construyendo el tabernáculo y los muebles.

Ellos hicieron
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a Bezalel, Oholiab y los otros trabajadores.

Como el Señor le había ordenado a Moisés
"tal como el Señor le dijo a Moisés que hiciera"

Exodus 39:2

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Exodus 39:4

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Fue hecho de una sola pieza con el efod, hecho de lino fino
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "lo hicieron de una sola pieza con el efod con lino fino retorcido"

Como le había ordenado a Moisés.
"tal como el Señor le dijo a Moisés que hiciera". Ver cómo se tradujo esta frase en el 39: 1.

Exodus 39:6

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Sello
Esta fue una piedra grabada que se usó para estampar un diseño en un sello de cera. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 28:10.

Doce hijos
"12 hijos"

Como le había ordenado a Moisés.
"tal como el Señor le dijo a Moisés que hiciera". Ver cómo se tradujo esta frase en el 39: 1.

Exodus 39:8

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

El hizo
"Bezalel hizo" o "Bezalel y los trabajadores hicieron"

Palmo
Un palmo equivale a 23 centímetros.

Exodus 39:10

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Le colocaron
"Los trabajadores colocados en el pectoral".

Rubí ... jaspe
Algunos idiomas pueden no tener palabras para cada una de estas piedras. El hecho importante es que eran valiosos y diferentes entre sí. Ver cómo se tradujo estos en el 28:17.

Las piedras fueron montadas en un engaste de oro.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Montaron las piedras en ajustes de oro"

Exodus 39:14

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Las piedras eran ordenadas
Esto puedo ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Los trabajadores arreglaron las piedras"

Exodus 39:17

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Dos cadenas trenzadas
"Cadenas que están hechas de oro puro y están trenzadas como cuerdas". Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 28:13.

Exodus 39:19

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa confeccionando las vestiduras sacerdotales que fueron ordenadas en 28:25 y 28:27.

Pretina finamente tejida
Cintura tejida - Este era un cinturón de tela hecho de hilos de lino estrechos que alguien se retorció

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para hacer un hilo más fuerte. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 28: 6.

Exodus 39:21

Información general
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa confeccionando las vestiduras sacerdotales que fueron ordenadas en el 28:27.

para que así pudiese estar unido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que puedan adjuntarlo"

Esto era para que el pectoral no se desamarrara del efod
"el pectoral se mantendría unido al efod"

Exodus 39:22

Información general
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa confeccionando las vestiduras sacerdotales que fueron ordenadas en 28:31 y 28:33.

Exodus 39:25

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa confeccionando las vestiduras sacerdotales que fueron ordenadas en el 28:33

Campanas de oro puro
Estos eran campanas pequeñas

Una campana y una granada, una campana y una granada
Así es como se supone que el patrón se repita a lo largo del borde inferior de la túnica.

Exodus 39:27

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel sigue confeccionando las prendas sacerdotales.

Ellos hicieron ... ordenado a Moisés
Para 39: 27-29, vea cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en el 28:39, 28:40 y 28:42.

Turbante
Esta es una cubierta para la cabeza usada por hombres hechos de una larga tira de tela enrollada alrededor de la cabeza.

Ropa interior
Esto es ropa usada debajo de la ropa exterior, al lado de la piel. Traducción alterna: "ropa interior"

Faja
Este es un pedazo largo de tela que se usa sobre el hombro o alrededor de la cintura.

Exodus 39:30

Información general:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa haciendo las vestimentas sacerdotales como se ordenó en 28:36.

Corona Santísima
Esta fue una corona grabada hecha de oro puro. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 29: 5.

Exodus 39:32

Información general:
Los israelitas terminan de hacer las cosas que Jehová mandó en el 35: 4 y 35:10.

Así que el trabajo en el tabernáculo, la tienda de reuniones, fue terminado. Las personas de Israel hicieron todo El "tabernáculo" y la "tienda de reunión" son lo mismo. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Así que el pueblo de Israel terminó todo el trabajo en el tabernáculo"

Broches
Los broches encajan en los bucles para mantener las cortinas juntas. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 26: 4.

Base
Estos son objetos pesados que descansan en el suelo y evitan que el objeto adherido a ellos se mueva. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 25:31.

Tapa de expiación
Esta es la tapa que se encuentra en la parte superior del arca donde se realizó la ofrenda de expiación. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 25:15

Exodus 39:36

Información general
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa presentando todo lo que hicieron a Moisés.

El pan de la presencia
Este pan representaba la presencia de Dios. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 25:28.

Rejilla
Este es un marco de barras cruzadas que sostuvieron la madera mientras se quema. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 27: 3.

Exodus 39:40

Información General:
El equipo de trabajo de Bezalel continúa presentando todo lo que hicieron a Moisés.

Ellos trajeron
"El pueblo de Israel trajo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El tabernáculo, y la tienda de reunión
Esto se refiere al mismo lugar

Exodus 39:42

Así las personas
"Y así la gente"

Mirad
La palabra "he aquí" llama la atención sobre la información que sigue.

Como el Señor le había ordenado, de esa manera ellos lo hicieron.
"Lo hicieron de la manera que Yahweh les había mandado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 40

1 Entonces Yavhé le habló a Moisés y dijo: 2 "En el primer día del primer mes del nuevo año ustedes deben preparar el tabernáculo, la tienda de reunión. 3 Debes colocar el arca del testimonio en el, y tú debes de proteger el arca con una cortina. 4 Debes de traer la mesa y colocar en orden las cosas que pertenecen a ella. Entonces tú debes de traer el candelabro y preparar las lámparas. 5 Debes colocar el altar dorado de incienso delante del arca del testimonio, y tú debes colocar la cortina en la entrada del tabernáculo. 6 Debes de colocar el altar para las ofrendas quemadas delante de la entrada del tabernáculo, la tienda de reunión. 7 Debes colocar un recipiente grande entre la tienda de reunión y el altar y debes colocar agua en el. 8 Debes preparar un patio alrededor, y debes colgar la cortina en la entrada del patio. 9 Debes tomar el aceite ungido y ungir el tabernáculo y todo lo lo que hay en el. Tú debes separarlo y todo su mobiliario para Mí; entonces será santo. 10 Tú debes ungir el altar de las ofrendas quemadas y todos sus utensilios. Tú debes separar el altar para Mí y se volverá en algo bien santo para Mí. 11 Debes ungir el recipiente de bronce y su base y separarlo para Mí. 12 Tú traerás a Aarón y a sus hijos a la entrada de la tienda de reunión y tú les lavarás con agua. 13 Tú vestirás a Aarón con las vestiduras que han sido separadas para Mí, úngelo y separalo para que él me sirva como Mi sacerdote. 14 Tú Me traerás a sus hijos y los vestirás con abrigos. 15 Tú los ungirás como ungiste a su padre para que así ellos Me sirvan como sacerdotes. Su ungimiento hará de ellos un sacerdocio permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente." 16 Esto fue lo que hizo Moisés; él siguió todo lo que Yavhé le ordenó a el. Él hizo todas estas cosas. 17 Así que el tabernáculo estaba preparado el primer día en el primer mes en el segundo año. 18 Moisés preparó el tabernáculo, colocó sus bases en su lugar, colocó sus marcos, unió sus barras y colocó sus pilares y sus postes. 19 El esparció la cubierta sobre el tabernáculo y colocó la tienda sobre el, como Yavhé le ordenó. 20 Él tomó los decretos del pacto y los colocó dentro del arca. Él también colocó los postes en el arca y colocó la tapa de expiación en ella. 21 Él trajo el arca dentro del tabernáculo. Colocó la cortina para protejer el arca del testimonio, como Yavhé le había ordenado. 22 Él colocó la mesa dentro de la tienda de reunión, en lado norte del tabernáculo, fuera de la cortina. 23 El colocó el pan en orden en la mesa delante de Yavhé, como Yavhé le había ordenado. 24 Él colocó el candelabro dentro de la tienda de reunión, al otro lado de la mesa, en el lado sur del tabernáculo. 25 Iluminó las lámparas delante de Yavhé, así como Yavhé le había ordenado. 26 Él colocó el altar dorado de incienso dentro de la tienda de reunión delante de las cortinas. 27 Quemó incienso fragante en él, así como Yavhé le había ordenado. 28 Él colgó la cortina en la entrada del tabernáculo. 29 Colocó el altar para la ofrenda quemada en la entrada del tabernáculo, la tienda de reunión. Ofreció en el la ofrenda quemada y la ofrenda del grano, como Yavhé le había ordenado a él. 30 Él colocó el recipiente entre la tienda de reunión y el altar, y él colocó agua en ella para lavarse. 31 Moisés, Aarón, y sus hijos se lavaban sus manos y sus pies en el recipiente 32 cada vez que ellos iban a entrar a la tienda de reunión y cada vez que ellos iban al altar. Ellos se lavaban a sí mismos, como Yavhé le había ordenado a Moisés. 33 Moisés preparó el patio alrededor del tabernáculo y el altar. El colocó la cortina en la entrada del patio. De esta forma, Moisés terminó el trabajo. 34 Entonces la nube cubrió la tienda de reunión, y la gloria de Yavhé llenó el tabernáculo. 35 Moisés no era capaz de entrar en la tienda de reunión porque la nube se había posado en ella, y porque la gloria de Yavhé había llenado el tabernáculo. 36 Cada vez que la nube era quitada de sobre el tabernáculo, el pueblo de Israel se pondría en marcha en su viaje. 37 Pero si la nube no se levantaba del tabernáculo, entonces el pueblo no viajaba. Ellos permanecían hasta el día que se levantará. 38 Porque la nube de Yavhé estaba sobre el tabernáculo en el día, y su fuego estaba sobre el por la noche, delante de todo el pueblo de Israel a través de su viaje.

Exodus 40:1

En el primer día del primer mes del nuevo año
El año nuevo marca el momento en que Dios rescató a su pueblo de Egipto. Esto sucede a mediados de marzo en los calendarios occidentales.

Exodus 40:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Coloca el arca del testimonio en el
"Coloca el arca de los pactos en el cofre sagrado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Debes de proteger el arca con una cortina
"Pon el arca detrás de la cortina"

Exodus 40:5

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

El arca del testimonio
Esto se refiere al "cofre sagrado" (UDB)

Exodus 40:8

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Todos los muebles
"Todas las cosas que son parte de ello "

Exodus 40:12

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés

Tú traerás
Moisés hará estas cosas él mismo.

Han sido separadas para Mí
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que me has apartado"

Exodus 40:14

Información general:
El Señor continúa hablando a Moisés.

a lo largo de las generaciones de su Pueblo
"A través de todas las generaciones de sus descendientes". Ver cómo se tradujo una frase similar en el 12:12.

Exodus 40:17

Así que el tabernáculo estaba preparado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Así que la gente prepara el tabernáculo"

El primer día en el primer mes
Esto se refiere exactamente a un año después de que Dios rescató a su pueblo de Egipto. Esto sucede a mediados de marzo en los calendarios occidentales. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en el 40: 1.

En el segundo año
Este es el segundo año después de que Yahvé sacó a su pueblo de Egipto.

Moisés preparó
Moisés fue el líder. La gente lo ayudó a establecer el tabernáculo.

Postes
Una pieza de madera resistente que se coloca en posición vertical y se usa como soporte.

Exodus 40:21

Él trajo
Moisés fue el líder. Tenía trabajadores que lo ayudaban.

Para protejer
"En frente de"

Exodus 40:24

Él colocó el candelabro dentro de la tienda de reunión
Moisés instruyó a sus trabajadores para mover el candelero. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alternas: "Los obreros de Moisés colocan el candelero dentro de la tienda sagrada"

Exodus 40:26

Delante de las cortinas
Esta cortina separa el lugar santo del lugar Santísimo. Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "frente a la cortina que separaba el lugar santo del lugar más sagrado"

Exodus 40:28

Tabernáculo
El tabernáculo era una estructura especial similar a una tienda de campaña donde los israelitas adoraban a Dios durante los 40 años que viajaron por el desierto. Dios les había dado a los israelitas instrucciones detalladas para construir esta gran carpa, que tenía dos habitaciones y estaba rodeada por un patio cerrado. Cada vez que los israelitas se mudaban a un lugar diferente en el desierto para vivir, los sacerdotes desarmaban el tabernáculo y lo llevaban a su próximo campamento. Luego lo instalarían de nuevo en el centro de su nuevo campamento. El tabernáculo estaba construido con marcos de madera colgados con cortinas hechas de tela, pelo de cabra y pieles de animales. El patio que lo rodeaba estaba cerrado con más cortinas. Las dos secciones del tabernáculo eran el Lugar Santo (donde se encontraba el altar para quemar incienso) y el Lugar Santísimo (donde se guardaba el arca del pacto). El patio del tabernáculo tenía un altar para quemar sacrificios de animales y un lavabo especial para la limpieza ritual. Los israelitas dejaron de usar el tabernáculo cuando se construyó el templo de Salomón en Jerusalén.

Sugerencias de traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La palabra "tabernáculo" significa "lugar de morada". Otras formas de traducirlo podrían incluir, "tienda sagrada" o "tienda donde Dios estaba" o "tienda de Dios". Asegúrese de que la traducción de este término sea diferente de la traducción de "templo".

Ver también: altar altar of incense ark of the covenant, ark of the covenant decrees, ark of Yahweh temple tent of meeting

Altar

Un altar era una estructura elevada en la que los israelitas quemaban animales y granos como ofrendas a Dios. Durante los tiempos bíblicos, los altares simples se hacían a menudo formando un montículo de tierra empacada o colocando cuidadosamente piedras grandes para formar una pila estable. Algunos altares especiales en forma de caja estaban hechos de madera cubierta con metales como el oro, el latón o el bronce. *Otros grupos de personas que vivían cerca de los israelitas también construyeron altares para ofrecer sacrificios a sus dioses.

Ver también: altar of incense false god, foreign god, god, goddess grain offering

Holocausto, ofrenda por fuego

Una "ofrenda quemada" era un tipo de sacrificio a Dios que se quemaba con fuego en un altar. Fue ofrecido para hacer expiación por los pecados de la gente. Esto también fue llamado una "ofrenda por fuego". Los animales utilizados para esta ofrenda eran generalmente ovejas o cabras, pero también se usaban bueyes y pájaros. Excepto por la piel, todo el animal era quemado en esta ofrenda. La piel o cuero se le dio al sacerdote. *Dios ordenó al pueblo judío que ofreciera holocaustos dos veces al día.

Ver también: altar atonement, atone ox, oxen priest, priesthood sacrifice, offering

Tienda de reunión

El término "tienda de reunión" se refiere a una tienda de campaña que era un lugar temporal donde Dios se reunía con Moisés antes de que se construyera el tabernáculo. La tienda de reunión se estableció fuera del campamento de los israelitas. Cuando Moisés entró en la tienda de reunión para reunirse con Dios, una columna de nube se situaría a la entrada de la tienda como un signo de la presencia de Dios allí. *Después de que los israelitas construyeron el tabernáculo, la tienda temporal ya no era necesaria y el término "tienda de reunión" se usaba a veces para referirse al tabernáculo.

Ver también: Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel Moses pillar, column tabernacle tent

Ofrenda de grano

ofrenda de grano

Una ofrenda de grano era un regalo de harina de trigo o cebada ofrecida a Dios, a menudo después de una ofrenda quemada. El grano utilizado para la ofrenda de grano tenía que ser finamente molido. A veces se cocinaba antes de ofrecerse, pero otras veces se dejaba sin cocer. El aceite y la sal se agregaban a la harina de grano, pero no se permitía la levadura ni la miel. *Parte de la ofrenda de grano era quemada y parte de ella fue consumida por los sacerdotes.

Ver también: burnt offering, offering by fire guilt offering sacrifice, offering sin offering

Yahweh

El término "Yahvé" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. El nombre "Yahvé" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". Los posibles significados de "Yahvé" incluyen "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que causa ser". Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "el SEÑOR" para representar a "Yahvé". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre de Yahvé y comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Yahvé" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "SEÑOR" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Señor", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos de ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Yahvé", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Yahvé" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento. Sugerencias de traducción -"Yahvé" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "yo soy" o "uno que vive" o "el que es" o "el que está vivo". Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Yahvé". *Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Yahvé" y en lugar de usar la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre Ver también: God lord, master, sir Lord Moses reveal, revelation

Mandato, ordenanza, Mandamiento

El término "mandar" significa ordenar a alguien que haga algo. Un "comando" o "mandamiento" es lo que se le ordenó a la persona que hiciera. Aunque estos términos tienen básicamente el mismo significado, "mandamiento" a menudo se refiere a ciertos mandatos de Dios que son más formales y permanentes, como los "Diez Mandamientos". Un comando puede ser positivo ("Honra a tus padres") o negativo ("No robar"). *"Tomar el comando" significa "tomar el control" o "hacerse cargo" de algo o alguien.

Sugerencias de traducción

Es mejor traducir este término de manera diferente al término "ley". También comparar con las definiciones de "decreto" y "estatuto". Algunos traductores pueden preferir traducir "comando" y "mandamiento" con la misma palabra en su idioma. Otros pueden preferir usar una palabra especial para mandamiento que se refiere a mandatos formales y duraderos que Dios ha hecho.

Exodus 40:31

Se lavaban sus manos y sus pies en el recipiente
Se lavaron con agua del tazón . Esto puede ser expresado claramente en la traducción. Traducción alterna: "se lavaron las manos y los pies con agua del tazón"

De esta forma
"Y asi"

Exodus 40:34

La gloria del Señor llenó
"La asombrosa presencia del Señor llenó"

Exodus 40:36

Era quitada de sobre el Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se levantó de"

Que fue levantado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuando se levantó"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Leviticus

Leviticus

Chapter 1

1 El SEÑOR llamó a Moisés y le habló desde la tienda de reunión, diciendo: 2 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Cuando cualquier hombre de entre ustedes trae una ofrenda al SEÑOR, trae como ofrenda uno de sus animales, ya sea de tu ganado o de su rebaño. 3 Si su ofrenda es una ofrenda quemada del ganado, él debe ofrecer un macho sin defecto. Él lo ha de ofrecer en la entrada de la tienda de reunión, para que pueda ser aceptada ante el SEÑOR. 4 Él ha de poner su mano en la cabeza de la ofrenda quemada, y entonces será aceptada en su lugar como expiación por sí mismo. 5 Luego él debe matar el toro ante el SEÑOR. Los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes, presentarán la sangre y la esparcirán sobre el altar que está a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 6 Después él debe pelar la piel de la ofrenda quemada y cortarla en pedazos. 7 Luego los hijos de Aarón el sacerdote pondrán el fuego en el altar y pondrán madera para alimentar el fuego. 8 Los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes, han de poner las piezas, la cabeza y la grasa, en orden sobre la madera que está en el fuego que está sobre en el altar. 9 Pero sus partes internas y sus piernas deben lavar con agua. Luego los sacerdotes quemarán todo lo que está en el altar como una ofrenda quemada. Esto producirá un dulce aroma para Mí; esto será una ofrenda hecha a Mí por fuego. 10 Si su ofrenda quemada es del rebaño, una de las ovejas o una de las cabras, él debe ofrecer un varón sin defecto. 11 Él debe matarlo en el lado norte del altar ante el SEÑOR. Los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes, esparcirán la sangre en cada lado del altar. 12 Después él debe cortarlo en pedazos, con su cabeza y su grasa, y los sacerdotes lo pondrán en orden sobre la madera que está en el fuego, que está en el altar, 13 pero las partes internas y las piernas él debe lavar con agua. Luego el sacerdote ofrecerá todo, y lo quemará en el altar. Es una ofrenda quemada, y esta producirá un dulce aroma para el SEÑOR; será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego. 14 Si su ofrenda al SEÑOR es una ofrenda quemada de aves, entonces debe traer como su ofrenda o una tórtola o una paloma jóven. 15 El sacerdote debe traerlo al altar, retorcer su cabeza, y quemarlo en el altar. Luego su sangre debe ser vaciada fuera en el lado del altar. 16 Él debe remover su buche con su contenido, y tirarlo al lado este del altar, en el lugar para las cenizas. 17 Él debe cortarlo abierto por las alas, pero él no debe separarlo en dos partes. Luego el sacerdote lo quemará en el altar, sobre la madera que está en el fuego. Esto será una ofrenda quemada, y esto producirá un aroma dulce para el SEÑOR; será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego.

Leviticus 1:1

El Señor
Este es el nombre de Dios ''Yahweh'' que reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Ver la página de traducción de palabras sobre Yahweh para ver cómo se tradujo esto.

Le habló desde la tienda de reunión, diciendo: "Habla al pueblo de Israel y diles, 'Cuando cualquier hombre Aquí El Señor comienza a hablarle a Moisés. Este discurso termina en el 3:17. Esto puede ser traducido sin la cita dentro de la cita. Traducción alterna: "de la tienda de reunión y le dijo a Moisés que dijera esto al pueblo de Israel: 'Cuando cualquier hombre"

Cuando cualquier hombre de entre ustedes
"Cuando alguno de ustedes" o "Cuando alguno de vosotros"

Leviticus 1:3

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Si su ofrenda ... debe ofrecer
Aquí "su" y "él" se refieren a la persona que trae una ofrenda al Señor. Se puede ser traducido en segunda persona como en 1: 1. Traducción alterna: "Si su ofrenda ... debe ofrecer" (Ver:|First, Second or Third Person)

Para que pueda ser aceptada ante el Señor
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que el Señor lo acepte" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

Poner su mano en la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

manera, la persona se ofrece a sí misma a través del animal al Señor, para que Dios perdone los pecados de la persona cuando mata al animal. (Ver:| Symbolic Action)

Entonces será aceptada en su lugar como expiación por sí mismo.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "entonces el Señor lo aceptará en su lugar y perdonará sus pecados" (Ver: |Active or Passive)

Leviticus 1:5

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Luego él debe matar el toro
Aquí "él" se refiere al que hace la ofrenda. Esto puede ser expresador en segunda persona. Traducción alterna: "Entonces debes matar al toro"

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor"

Presentarán la sangre
Se da a entender que los sacerdotes recogen la sangre en un recipiente, que drena fuera del animal. Luego traen el recipiente con la sangre en él y lo presentan al Señor en el altar.

Después él debe pelar la piel de la ofrenda quemada y cortarla en pedazos.
Como se indica en 1: 9, la persona también debe lavar con agua las partes internas y las patas del animal. La persona haría esto antes de entregar las piezas a los sacerdotes para que pudieran colocarlas en el altar. Al igual que en la UDB, puede indicar aquí las instrucciones para las partes internas y las patas.

Él debe pelar la piel
Aquí "Él" se refiere a la persona que hace la ofrenda.

Leviticus 1:7

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Pondrán el fuego en el altar y pondrán madera para alimentar el fuego.
Esto puede significar que los sacerdotes colocaron brasas sobre el altar y luego colocaron la madera sobre las brasas. O puede que necesite reordenar esto como en la UDB. Traducción alterna: "pondrá madera en el altar y encenderá un fuego"

Para alimentar el fuego.
Esta es una expresión idiomática que significa seguir poniendo leña al fuego. Se traduce esta expresión idiomática para que se entienda que el fuego en el altar debe mantenerse encendido. Traduccióna alterna: "para mantener el fuego encendido"

Pero sus partes internas y sus piernas él debe lavar con agua.
La persona haría esto antes de entregar las piezas a los sacerdotes para colocarlas en el altar. Puede indicar esto al final de 1: 5.

Partes internas
Estos son el estómago y los intestinos.

Él debe lavar con agua.
Aquí "él" se refiere al que hace la ofrenda.

Esto producirá un dulce aroma para Mí
El Señor está complacido con el sincero adorador que ofrece el sacrificio como si el Señor estuviera complacido por el aroma del sacrificio ardiente.

Esto será una ofrenda hecha a Mí por fuego.
El Señor le está diciendo a Moisés que las ofrendas serán quemadas con fuego. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "una ofrenda quemada para mí"

Leviticus 1:10

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndo a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor"

Leviticus 1:12

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Después él debe cortarlo ... hecha para Él por fuego.
Para 1: 12-13, ver cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en el 1: 7.

Después él debe cortarlo
Aquí "él" se refiere a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio. Se puede expresar en segunda persona. Traducción alterna: "Entonces debes cortarlo"

Luego el sacerdote ofrecerá el todo, y lo quemará en el altar
"Luego el sacerdote quemará todo en el altar"

Esta producirá un dulce aroma para el Señor
Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo se tradujo esto en 1: 7.

Será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego.
El Señor le dice a Moisés que los sacerdotes deben quemar sus ofrendas con fuego. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "será una ofrenda quemada para mí" o "será una ofrenda quemada para el Señor"

Leviticus 1:14

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Torcer fuertemente su cabeza
"girar su cabeza"

Luego su sangre debe ser drenada fuera
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Entonces el sacerdote debe drenar su sangre"

Leviticus 1:16

Él debe
"El sacerdote debe"

Remover su buche con su contenido
Un buche es una bolsa en la garganta del ave donde se almacenan los alimentos predigeridos.

Y tirarlo al lado del altar
Aquí "eso" se refiere al cultivo y sus contenidos.

Esto producirá un aroma dulce para el Señor
El Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio se habla de Dios como si estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 1: 7.

Será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "será una ofrenda quemada para MÍ" o "será una ofrenda quemada para el Señor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Cuando alguien traiga una ofrenda de grano al SEÑOR, su ofrenda debe ser harina fina, y él deberá derramar aceite sobre ella y poner incienso sobre ella. 2 Él deberá llevar su ofrenda a los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes, y allí un sacerdote tomará un puñado de la harina fina con el aceite y el incienso sobre ella. Luego, el sacerdote quemará la ofrenda en el altar como una ofrenda representativa. Ella producirá un aroma dulce para el SEÑOR; ésta será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego. 3 Lo que sea que sobre de la ofrenda de grano le pertenecerá a Aarón y a sus hijos. Es muy santo para el SEÑOR de las ofrendas al SEÑOR hechas en fuego. 4 Cuando tú ofrezcas una ofrenda de grano sin levadura que está horneada en un horno, debe ser pan suave de harina fina mezclado con aceite, o pan duro sin levadura, que esté rociado con aceite. 5 Si tu ofrenda de grano está horneada en un sartén de hierro, debe ser de harina fina, sin levadura, que esté mezclada con aceite. 6 Tú debes dividirlo en pedazos y echar aceite sobre él. Esta es una ofrenda de grano. 7 Si tu ofrenda de grano está cocinada en un sartén, debe estar hecho con harina fina y aceite. 8 Tú debes traer la ofrenda de grano, hecha de estas cosas al SEÑOR, y será presentada al sacerdote, quien la traerá al altar. 9 Luego, el sacerdote tomará algunas de las ofrendas de grano como una ofrenda en su lugar, y él la quemará en el altar. Será una ofrenda hecha por fuego, y producirá un dulce aroma al SEÑOR. 10 Lo que queda de la ofrenda de grano le pertenecerá a Aarón y a sus hijos. Es muy santo para el SEÑOR de las ofrendas al SEÑOR hechas en fuego. 11 Ninguna ofrenda de grano que ustedes ofrezcan al SEÑOR debe ser hecha con levadura, porque ustedes no deben quemar ninguna levadura, ni ninguna miel, como una ofrenda hecha en fuego para el SEÑOR. 12 Ustedes la ofrecerán al SEÑOR como una ofrenda de primeros frutos, pero no serán usadas para producir un dulce aroma en el altar. 13 Ustedes deben sazonar cada una de tus ofrendas de grano con sal. Ustedes nunca deben permitir que la sal del pacto de su Dios falte en sus ofrendas de grano. Con todas sus ofrendas ustedes deben ofrecer sal. 14 Si ustedes ofrecen una ofrenda de grano de sus primeros frutos al SEÑOR, ofrezcan grano fresco, que estén tostados con fuego y luego aplastados en comida. 15 Luego, debes poner aceite e inicienso sobre ella. Esto es una ofrenda de grano. 16 Luego el sacerdote quemará parte de la ofrenda aplastada y el aceite y el inicienso como una ofrenda en su lugar. Esto es una ofrenda hecha por fuego para el SEÑOR.

Leviticus 2:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Debe ser harina fina
"Debe ser la harina más fina" o "debe ser la mejor harina"

Harina
Un polvo hecho de trigo

Él deberá llevar
"Él debe llevar"

Sacar un puñado
"saca lo que pueda sostener en su mano"

Una ofrenda representativa
El puñado de la ofrenda de grano representa la ofrenda de grano entero. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece al Señor.

Producirá un aroma dulce para el Señor
El Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio se habla como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo tradujo esto en 1: 7.

Ésta será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "será una ofrenda quemada para él"

Leviticus 2:4

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Está horneada en un horno
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que cocinaste en un horno"

Horno
Este fue probablemente un objeto hueco hecho de arcilla. Se encendió un fuego debajo del horno, y el calor calentaría la masa dentro del horno.

Pan suave de harina fina
Se entiende que el pan blando no contenía levadura.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Se esparce con aceite
Esta frase es traducida para indicar que el aceite debe esparcirse sobre el pan. Traducción alterna: "con aceite en el pan"

Si tu ofrenda de grano está horneada en un sartén de hierro
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si horneas tu ofrenda de grano en una sartén de hierro plana"

Una sartén plana de hierro
Esta es una placa gruesa hecha de arcilla o metal. La placa se colocaba sobre el fuego y la masa se cocinaba sobre la placa.

Leviticus 2:6

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Debes dividirlo
Aquí "eso" se refiere a la ofrenda de grano cocida en una sartén de hierro plano

Si tu ofrenda de grano está cocinada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si cocinas tu ofrenda de grano"

En una sartén
Una sartén es una placa de metal con bordes redondeados. La masa se colocó en la sartén y se cocinó al fuego.

Debe ser hecho
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes hacerlo"

Leviticus 2:8

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Hecha de estas cosas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que hiciste de la harina y el aceite"

Será presentada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "lo presentarás"

Luego el sacerdote ... hecha por fuego
Para 2: 9-10, vea cómo se tradujo muchas de estas palabras en el 2: 1.

Una ofrenda representativa
El puñado de la ofrenda de grano representa la ofrenda de grano entero. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece al Señor. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en el 2: 1.

Será una ofrenda hecha por fuego.
Esto hecha por fuego en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Será una ofrenda quemada"

Producirá un dulce aroma al Señor.
Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio, se habla de Dios como si estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

De las ofrendas hechas la Señor por el fuego.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de las ofrendas quemadas al Señor"

Leviticus 2:11

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

Ninguna ofrenda de grano que ustedes ofrezcan al Señor debe ser hecha con levadura.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No uses levadura en una ofrenda de grano que le ofreces al Señor "

Como una ofrenda hecha en fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "como ofrenda quemada"

Ustedes la ofrecerán
"Ofrecerás las ofrendas de grano hechas con levadura o miel".

Pero no serán usadas para producir un dulce aroma en el altar.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no los usarás para producir un aroma dulce en el altar" o "no los quemarás en el altar"

La sal del pacto de su Dios
Se implica que la sal es un símbolo que representa el pacto con Dios.

Leviticus 2:14

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer para que sus sacrificios sean aceptables para Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Se asa con fuego y luego se tritura.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que has cocinado al fuego y luego aplastado"

Una ofrenda representativa
El puñado de la ofrenda de grano representa la ofrenda de grano entero. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece al Señor. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en el 2: 1.

Esto es una ofrenda hecha por fuego para el Señor.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Esta es una ofrenda quemada al Señor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Si alguien ofrece un sacrificio el cual es una ofrenda de paz de un animal de una manada, ya sea macho o hembra, debe ofrecer un animal sin defecto ante el SEÑOR. 2 Él podrá su mano sobre la cabeza de su ofrenda y la matará en la puerta de la tienda de reunión. Luego los hijos de Aarón el sacerdote rociará su sangre sobre los lados del altar. 3 El hombre ofrecerá el sacrificio de una ofrenda de paz por fuego para el SEÑOR. La grasa que cubre o está conectada a las parte internas, 4 y los dos riñones y la grasa que está sobre ellos por los lomos, y en el hígado, con los riñones él removerá todo esto. 5 Los hijos de Aarón quemarán eso sobre el altar con la ofrenda quemada, la cual está sobre la madera que está en el fuego. Esto producirá un aroma dulce para el SEÑOR; será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego. 6 Si el sacrificio del hombre de una ofrenda de paz para el SEÑOR es del rebaño; macho o hembra, él debe ofrecer un sacrificio sin defecto. 7 Si él ofrece un cordero como su sacrificio, entonces él debe ofrecerlo ante el SEÑOR. 8 Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza de su sacrificio y lo matará delante de la tienda de reunión. Luego los hijos de Aarón rociarán la sangre en los lados del altar. 9 El hombre ofrecerá el sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz como una ofrenda hecha por fuego para el SEÑOR. La grasa, toda la grasa de la cola debe cortarse cerca a la columna vertebral, y la grasa que cubre todas las partes internas y toda la grasa que está cerca de las partes internas, 10 y los dos riñones y la grasa que está con ellos, la cual está por los lomos y el hígado, con los riñones él removerá todo esto. 11 Luego, el sacerdote lo quemará todo sobre el altar como una ofrenda de comida quemada al SEÑOR. 12 Si la ofrenda del hombre es una cabra, entonces él la ofrecerá ante el SEÑOR. 13 Él debe poner su mano sobre la cabeza de la cabra y la matará delante de la tienda de reunión. Luego los hijos de Aarón rociará la sangre sobre los lados del altar. 14 El hombre ofrecerá su sacrificio hecho por fuego al SEÑOR. Él removerá la grasa que cubre las partes internas, y toda la grasa cerca de las partes internas. 15 Él también removerá los dos riñones y la grasa que está con ellos, la cual está por los lomos, y el hígado con los riñones. 16 El sacerdote quemará todo eso sobre el altar como una ofrenda quemada de comida, para producir un aroma dulce. Toda la grasa le pertenece al SEÑOR. 17 Será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo en cada lugar que ustedes hagan su hogar, que ustedes no pueden comer grasa ni sangre.'"

Leviticus 3:1

Información general:
Moisés continúa diciéndole a la gente lo que el Señor quiere que ellos hagan.

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor" o " al Señor"

Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 1: 3.

Los hijos de Aarón el sacerdote rociará su sangre
Da a entender que antes de rociar la sangre, atrapan la sangre en un recipiente a medida que se drena del animal.

Leviticus 3:3

Partes internas
Estos son el estómago y los intestinos

Por el lomo
Esta es la parte del cuerpo en los lados de la columna vertebral entre las costillas y la cadera.

El lóbulo del hígado
Esta es la parte curva o redondeada del hígado. Esto se considera la mejor parte del hígado para comer. Traducción alterna: "la mejor parte del hígado"

Esto producirá un aroma agradable al Señor
El Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio, se habla como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

Será una ofrenda hecha para Él por fuego.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "será una ofrenda quemada para el Señor"

Leviticus 3:6

Ofrécelo ante el Señor
"Ofrécelo en presencia del Señor" o "Ofrécelo al Señor"

Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Los hijos de Aarón rociarán la sangre
Da a entender que antes de rociar la sangre, atrapan la sangre en un recipiente a medida que se drena del animal.

Leviticus 3:9

Como ofrenda hecha por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "como ofrenda quemada"

La grasa, toda la grasa ... los riñones -- él removerá todo esto
La declaración "eliminará todo esto" se puede colocar al principio de la oración. Traducción alterna: "Él eliminará la grasa, toda la grasa ... los riñones"

Partes internas
Este es el estómago y los intestinos.

Está cerca de las partes internas, y los dos riñones
Una nueva oración puede comenzar aquí. Traducción alterna: "que está cerca de las partes internas. Debe extirpar los riñones"

Por los lomos
Esta es la parte del cuerpo en los lados de la columna vertebral entre las costillas y el hueso de la cadera.

El lóbulo del hígado
Esta es la parte curva o redondeada del hígado. Esto se considera la mejor parte del hígado para comer. Traducción alterna: "la mejor parte del hígado"

Lo quemará todo sobre el altar como una ofrenda de comida quemada al Señor.
Traduce esto de manera que quede claro que el Señor no come la comida. Traducción alterna: "quemará esas cosas en el altar como una ofrenda a Yahweh. Esas cosas vendrán de sus suministros de alimentos" (UDB)

Leviticus 3:12

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor" o "Al Señor"

Debe poner su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en el 1: 3.

Los hijos de Aarón el sacerdote rociará su sangre
Da a entender que antes de rociar la sangre, atrapan la sangre en un recipiente a medida que se drena del animal.

Ofrecerá su sacrificio hecho por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ofrecerá su sacrificio por fuego" o "quemará su sacrificio"

Leviticus 3:15

Él también
Aquí "Él" se refiere a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio.

Quemará todo eso sobre el altar como una ofrenda quemada de comida traduce esto de manera que no se de a entender que el Señor realmente come la comida. Traducción alterna: "quemará esas cosas en el altar para ser una ofrenda al Señor. Será como si fueran alimentos dados al Señor" (UDB)

Para producir un aroma dulce.
El Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio, se habla como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

Será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo
Esto significa que ellos y sus descendientes deben obedecer este mandato para siempre.

O sangre
"o consumir sangre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Dile al pueblo de Israel: 'Cuando alguien peque sin querer pecar, haciendo cualquiera de las cosas que el SEÑOR ha ordenado que no se haga, y si él hace algo que está prohibido, debe hacerse lo siguiente. 3 Si es el sumo sacerdote quien peca, de manera que trae culpa sobre el pueblo, entonces él debe ofrecer por su pecado que ha cometido, un toro joven sin mancha al SEÑOR como una ofrenda por el pecado. 4 Él debe traer el toro a la entrada de la tienda de reunión delante del SEÑOR, colocar su mano sobre su cabeza, y matar el toro delante del SEÑOR. 5 El sacerdote ungido tomará un poco de la sangre del toro y la llevará a la tienda de reunión. 6 El sacerdote hundirá su dedo en la sangre y rociará un poco de ella siete veces delante del SEÑOR, ante la cortina del lugar más santo. 7 Entonces el sacerdote pondrá un poco de la sangre sobre los cuernos del altar de incienso fragante delante del SEÑOR, el cual está en la tienda de reunión, y él derramará el resto de la sangre del toro en la base del altar para las ofrendas quemadas, el cual está en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 8 El cortará toda la grasa del toro de la ofrenda de pecado; la grasa que cubre las partes internas, toda la grasa que está adjunta a las partes internas, 9 los dos riñones y la grasa que está sobre ellos, la cual está por los lomos, y el hígado, con los riñones él cortará todo esto. 10 Él lo cortará todo, así como él lo corta del toro del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz. Luego, el sacerdote quemará estas partes sobre el altar para ofrendas quemadas. 11 La piel del toro y toda la carne restante, con su cabeza y sus patas y sus partes internas y su estiércol, 12 todo el resto de las partes del toro, él cargará todas estas partes fuera del campamento a un lugar que ellos han limpiado para Mí, donde derraman las cenizas; ellos quemarán esas partes allí en la madera. Ellos deben quemar esas partes donde ellos derramaron las cenizas. 13 Si toda la asamblea de Israel peca sin querer pecar, y la asamblea no sabe que ellos han pecado y que han hecho cualquiera de las cosas que el SEÑOR ha mandado no hacer, y si son culpables, 14 entonces, cuando el pecado que ellos han cometido sea conocido, entonces la asamblea debe ofrecer un toro joven para una ofrenda por el pecado y traerlo delante de la tienda de reunión. 15 Los ancianos de la asamblea pondrán sus manos sobre la cabeza del toro delante del SEÑOR, y el toro será matado delante del SEÑOR. 16 El sacerdote ungido traerá un poco de la sangre del toro a la tienda de reunión, 17 y el sacerdote hundirá su dedo en la sangre y la rociará siete veces delante del SEÑOR, ante la cortina. 18 Él colocará un poco de la sangre en los cuernos del altar que está delante del SEÑOR, el cual está en la tienda de reunión, y él derramará toda la sangre en la base del altar para las ofrendas quemadas, la cual está a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 19 Él cortará toda la grasa y la quemará en el altar. 20 Eso es lo que él debe hacer con el toro. Así como él hizo con el toro de la ofrenda por el pecado, así también él hará con este toro, y el sacerdote hará expiación por el pueblo, y ellos serán perdonados. 21 Él cargará al toro fuera del campamento y lo quemará así como quemó el primer toro. Esta es la ofrenda del pecado para la asamblea. 22 Cuando un gobernante peca sin la intención de pecar, haciendo cualquiera de las cosas que el SENOR su Dios ha mandado que no hiciera, y él es culpable, 23 entonces su pecado el cual él ha cometido sea conocido, él debe traer para su sacrificio un cabro, un macho sin mancha. 24 Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza del cabro y lo matará en el lugar donde ellos matan la ofrenda quemada delante del SEÑOR. Esta es una ofrenda de pecado. 25 El sacerdote tomará la sangre de la ofrenda de pecado con su dedo y la pondrá sobre los cuernos del altar para ofrendas quemadas, y él derramará su sangre en la base del altar de la ofrenda quemada. 26 Él quemará toda la grasa sobre el altar, así como la grasa del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz. El sacerdote hará expiación por el gobernante respecto a su pecado, y el gobernante será perdonado. 27 Si cualquier persona común peca sin la intención de pecar, haciendo cualquiera de las cosas que el SEÑOR le ha ordenado que no sea hecha, y cuando él se de cuenta de su culpa, 28 entonces su pecado el cual ha cometido, es reconocido por él, entonces él traerá una cabra para su sacrificio, una hembra sin defecto, por el pecado que él ha cometido. 29 Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza de la ofrenda del pecado y matará la ofrenda del pecado en el lugar de la ofrenda quemada. 30 El sacerdote tomará un poco de sangre con su dedo y la pondrá sobre los cuernos del altar para ofrendas quemadas. Él derramará todo el resto de la sangre en la base del altar. 31 Él cortará toda la grasa, así como la grasa es cortada del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz. El sacerdote la quemará sobre el altar para producir un aroma dulce para el SEÑOR. El sacerdote hará expiación por el hombre, y él será perdonado. 32 Si el hombre trae un cordero como su sacrificio para una ofrenda de pecado, él traerá una hembra sin defecto. 33 Él pondrá su mano sobre la ofrenda de pecado y lo matará para una ofrenda de pecado en el lugar donde ellos mataron la ofrenda quemada. 34 El sacerdote tomará un poco de la sangre de la ofrenda del pecado con su dedo y la pondrá sobre los cuernos del altar para una ofrenda quemada, y él derramará toda su sangre en la base del altar. 35 Él cortará toda la grasa, así como la grasa del cordero es cortada del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz, y el sacerdote la quemará sobre el altar encima de las ofrendas del

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

SEÑOR hechas por fuego. El sacerdote hará expiación por el pecado que él ha cometido y el hombre será perdonado.

Leviticus 4:1

El Señor habló a Moisés, diciendo: "Dile al pueblo de Israel: 'Cuando cualquiera peque Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cotización cita. Traducción alterna: "El Señor le habló a Moisés y le dijo que le dijera al pueblo de Israel esto: 'Cuando alguien peca"

El Señor ha mandado que no se hagan
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que el Señor ha ordenado a la gente que no haga"

Si él hace algo que está prohibido
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si él hace algo que el Señor no permite"

Lo siguiente debe ser hecho.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "él debe hacer lo siguiente"

Trae culpa sobre el pueblo
El sustantivo abstracto "culpa" se puede declarar como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "para que la gente sea culpable"

Leviticus 4:4

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

El debe traer el toro
"El sumo sacerdote debe traer el toro"

Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 1: 3.

El sacerdote ungido tomará un poco de la sangre
Está implícito que el sacerdote atrapa la sangre en un recipiente mientras drena del animal.

Leviticus 4:6

Rociará un poco de ella
"gotea un poco" o "salpica un poco"

Los cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar. Tienen forma de cuernos de buey. Traducción alterna: "Las proyecciones en las esquinas del altar" (UDB)

Derramará
"vaciar el resto de la sangre"

en la base del altar
"Al pie del altar"

Leviticus 4:8

El cortará
"El sacerdote cortará"

La grasa que cubre las partes con los riñones--él cortará todo esto
La frase "él cortará todo esto" se puede colocar al principio de la oración. Traducción alterna: "Él cortará la grasa que cubre las partes internas ... con los riñones"

Partes internas
Estos son el estómago y los intestinos.

Por los lomos
Esta es la parte del cuerpo en los lados de la columna vertebral entre las costillas y el hueso de la cadera.

El lóbulo del hígado,
Esta es la parte curva o redondeada del hígado. Esto se considera la mejor parte del hígado para comer. Traducción alterna: "la mejor parte del hígado"

Leviticus 4:11

La piel ... las otras partes del toro--él cargará todas estas partes fuera
La declaración "él llevará todas estas partes" se puede colocar al principio de la oración. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote llevará la piel ... las partes del toro afuera"

Un lugar que ellos hayan limpiado para Mí
Se habla de un lugar que es ritualmente puro y adecuado para el servicio a Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Ellos hayan limpiado para Mí
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los sacerdotes, y "mí" se refiere al Señor.

Leviticus 4:13

Es inconsiente
"No sabe"

Ha ordenado no hacer
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "les ordenó que no hicieran"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y si ellos son culpables
"y son culpables" o "y merecen que Dios los castigue"

Cuando el pecado que ellos han cometido se vuelva conocido
Esto se puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuando se dan cuenta de que han pecado"

Colocarán sus manos sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a las personas con el animal que están ofreciendo. De esta manera, la gente se ofrece a Yahvé a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en 1:3.

El toro será matado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y matarán al toro"

Leviticus 4:16

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

El sacerdote ungido traerá un poco de la sangre
Se da a entender que el sacerdote atrapó la sangre en un recipiente mientras la sangre se drenaba del toro.

Delante de la cortina
Se implica que esta es la cortina antes del lugar santísimo.

Leviticus 4:18

El colocará
"El sacerdote colocará"

Cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar. Tienen forma de cuernos de buey. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 4: 6.

Él derramará toda la sangre
"Él derramará el resto de la sangre"

Toda la grasa de él y la quemará
"Toda la grasa del toro y quema la grasa".

Leviticus 4:20

Él debe hacer
"El sacerdote debe hacer"

El sacerdote hará expiación por el pueblo
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote expiará los pecados de la gente"

Ellos serán perdonados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor los perdonará"

Leviticus 4:22

Dios ha ordenado que no sea hecho
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios ha ordenado a la gente que no haga"

Entonces su pecado que él ha cometido se le ha dado a conocer.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "entonces se da cuenta de que ha pecado"

Leviticus 4:24

El tendrá
"El gobernante echará"

Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 1: 3.

Donde matan
"Donde matan los sacerdotes"

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor" o "Al Señor"

El sacerdote tomará la sangre
Esto implica que el sacerdote recogerá la sangre en un recipiente mientras la sangre drena de la cabra.

Cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar, que tienen la forma de los cuernos de un buey. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 4: 6.

Leviticus 4:26

Él quemará
"El sacerdote quemará"

El sacerdote hará expiación por el gobernante.
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote expiará al gobernante"

El gobernante será perdonado.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Yahvé perdonará los pecados del gobernante"

Leviticus 4:27

El Señor le ha ordenado que no sea hecha
A todo el pueblo de Israel se le ordenó no pecar. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción alterna: "El Señor ordenó a la gente que no hiciera"

Su pecado que ha cometido se le ha dado a conocer.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se da cuenta del pecado que cometió"

Leviticus 4:29

Él pondrá su mano sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 3.

El sacerdote tomará un poco de sangre
Implica que el sacerdote atrapará la sangre en un recipiente mientras la sangre se drena del animal.

Cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar, que tienen la forma de los cuernos de un buey. Ver como se ha traducido en el 4: 6.

Todo el resto de la sangre
"Toda la sangre que queda en el recipiente"

Leviticus 4:31

Él cortará
Aquí "Él" se refiere a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio.

así como la grasa es cortada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tal como una persona corta la grasa"

Lo quemará
"Quemará la grasa"

Para producir un aroma dulce para el Señor
Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente.Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

El sacerdote hará expiación por el hombre
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote expiará los pecados del hombre"

Él será perdonado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor perdonará los pecados del hombre"

Leviticus 4:32

Él pondrá su mano
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a la persona con el animal que está ofreciendo. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 3.

Donde ellos matan
"Donde matan los sacerdotes"

Leviticus 4:34

Cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar, que tienen la forma de los cuernos de un buey. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 4: 6.

Él derramará toda la sangre
"Él derramará el resto de su sangre"

Él cortará
Aquí "Él" se refiere a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio.

Así como la grasa del cordero es cortada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tal como una persona corta la grasa del cordón"

El sacerdote lo quemará
"el sacerdote quemará la grasa"

Ofrendas del Señor hechas por fuego Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "holocaustos para el Señor"

Hará expiación por el pecado que él ha cometido
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "expiará el pecado cometido por la persona"

El hombre será perdonado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor perdonará los pecados del hombre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Si alguien peca porque no testifica cuando ha dado testimonio de algo sobre lo cual se requiere que él testifique, sea que él haya visto o escuchado sobre eso, él será responsable. 2 O si alguien toca algo que Dios ha señalado como impuro, ya sea el cadáver de un animal salvaje inmundo o el cadáver de cualquier ganado que haya muerto, o de un animal que se arrastra, incluso si la persona no tenía la intención de tocarlo, él es inmundo y culpable. 3 O si él toca la impuresa de alguien, cualquiera que sea esa inmundicia, y si él no está consciente de ella, entonces él será culpable cuando se entere de esto. 4 O si alguien jura bruscamente con sus labios para hacer maldad, o para hacer bien, lo que sea que ese hombre jura bruscamente con un juramento, incluso si él no está consciente de eso, cuando él se entere de eso, entonces él será culpable, en cualquiera de estas cosas. 5 Cuando alguien es culpable de alguna de estas cosas, él debe confesar cualquier pecado que él haya cometido. 6 Entonces él debe traer su ofrenda por la culpa al SEÑOR por el pecado que él ha cometido, un animal hembra del rebaño, sea una oveja o una cabra, para una ofrenda por el pecado, y el sacerdote hará expiación por él, concerniente a su pecado. 7 Si él no puede comprar un cordero, entonces él puede traer como ofrenda por su pecado dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes al SEÑOR, una para ofrenda por el pecado y la otra para una ofrenda quemada. 8 Él debe traerlos al sacerdote, quien ofrecerá uno para la ofrenda por el pecado primero, él le torcerá la cabeza de su cuello pero no la cortará completamente del cuerpo. 9 Después él rociará un poco de sangre de la ofrenda por el pecado en el lado del altar, y él vaciará el resto de la sangre a la base del altar. Esto es una ofrenda por el pecado. 10 Después él debe ofrecer la segunda ave como ofrenda quemada, como está descrito en las instrucciones, y el sacerdote hará expiación por él, por el pecado que él ha cometido, y la persona será perdonada. 11 Pero si no puede comprar dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes, entonces él deberá traer como su sacrificio por su pecado 3. 7 kg. de harina fina para una ofrenda de pecado. Él no debe poner aceite o ningún incienso en ella, pues es una ofrenda por el pecado. 12 Él debe traerla al sacerdote, y el sacerdote tomará un puñado de ella como representación de la ofrenda después quemarlo en el altar, encima de las ofrendas hechas por fuego para el SEÑOR. Esto es una ofrenda por el pecado. 13 El sacerdote hará expiación por cualquier pecado que la persona haya cometido, y esa persona será perdonada. Las sobras de la ofrenda pertenecerán al sacerdote, así como la ofrenda de granos." 14 Después el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 15 "Si alguien viola un mandamiento y peca contra las cosas que pertenecen al SEÑOR, pero lo hizo sin intención, entonces él deberá traer su ofrenda por la culpa al SEÑOR. Esta ofrenda debe ser un carnero sin mancha del rebaño; su valor debe ser valorado en 11. 4 kg. de plata, como una ofrenda por la culpa. 16 Él debe satisfacer al SEÑOR por lo que él haya hecho mal en conección con lo que es santo, y él debe añadir una quinto parte y dárselo al sacerdote. Entonces el sacerdote hará expiación por él con el carnero de la ofrenda por la culpa, y esa persona será perdonada. 17 Si alguien peca y hace cualquier cosa que el SEÑOR ha mandado que no se haga, incluso si no estaba consciente de eso, sigue siendo culpable y debe cargar su propia culpa. 18 Él debe traer un carnero sin mancha fuera del rebaño, valorado en el valor actual, como ofrenda por la culpa al sacerdote. Entonces el sacerdote hará expiación por él concerniente al pecado que él ha cometido, del cual él no estaba consciente, y él será perdonado. 19 Es una ofrenda por la culpa, y él es ciertamente culpable ante el SEÑOR."

Leviticus 5:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndo a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

Algo que se requiere que testifique
Tanto la ley judía como los líderes requerían que las personas declararan si eran testigos de un crimen. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "algo sobre lo que un juez le ha requerido que testifique"

Dios ha designado como inmundo
Algo que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que las personas lo toquen o coman se habla como si fuera físicamente impuro.

El cadáver
"el cuerpo muerto"

El es inmundo
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 5:3

Si toca la inmundicia de alguien, cualquiera que sea esa inmundicia
El sustantivo abstracto "impureza" se puede declarar como un adjetivo. Traducción alterna: "si toca algo que hace que una persona esté sucia"

La inmundicia
Algo que el Señor ha declarado que no es apto para que una persona lo toque o coma se habla como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Él no está consciente de eso
"No se da cuenta" o "No lo sabe".

Si alguien jura bruscamente con sus labios
Aquí los "labios" representan a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "si alguien jura precipitadamente"

Si alguien jura bruscamente
Esto significa jurar sin pensar seriamente en ello. Implica que después de que la persona jura el juramento de que no puede cumplirlo o que realmente no quiere cumplirlo.

Leviticus 5:5

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el Pueblo debe hacer.

El sacerdote hará expiación por él.
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote expiará por él"

Leviticus 5:7

Si él no puede comprar un cordero
"Si no tiene suficiente dinero para comprar un cordero"

Él le torcerá la cabeza de su cuello pero no la removerá completamente
"Lo matará torciendo la cabeza y rompiéndole el cuello, pero no quitará la cabeza"

Leviticus 5:10

Como está descrito en las instrucciones
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "como el Señor ha instruido"

El sacerdote hará expiación por él, por el pecado que él a cometido
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote expiará el pecado que la persona cometió"

La persona será perdonada.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Yahvé perdonará a la persona"

Leviticus 5:11

Un décimo de un efa
Un efa es de 22 litros. Una décima parte de un efa es de aproximadamente dos litros.

Una décima
Esta es una parte de diez partes iguales.

Leviticus 5:12

Él debe traerlo
"Debe traer la harina fina"

Representación de la ofrenda
El puñado que el sacerdote quema en el altar representa toda la ofrenda. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece al Señor. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 2: 1.

Encima de las ofrendas hechas por fuego para el Señor Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "en la parte superior de las ofrendas quemadas a Yahweh"

Hará expiación
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "hará expiación"

Esa persona será perdonada.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor perdonará los pecados de esa persona"

Leviticus 5:14

Peca contra las cosas que pertenecen a el Señor
Esto significa que la persona pecó al no darle a Yahweh lo que Yahweh le ordenó dar. Traducción alterna: "pecados al no dar al Señor lo que le pertenece al Señor "

Su valor debe ser valorado en siclos de plata
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "él debe determinar cuántos siclos vale el carnero"

Siclos
Un siclo es de unos 11 gramos de peso.

Los siclos del santuario
Esto probablemente significa que había al menos dos formas de medir un shekel. Esto hace referencia a cómo los sacerdotes del santuario pesan un siclo. Traducción alterna: "el estándar oficial en la tienda sagrada" (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El santuario
Este es otro nombre para la tienda santa.

Él debe añadir un quinto quinto - Esto significa que la persona debe pagar una quinta parte del valor de lo que le debe al Señor.

Un quinto
quinto - Esta es una parte de cinco partes iguales. (Ver:

El sacerdote hará expiación por él
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote expiará por él"

Esa persona será perdonada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor perdonará a esa persona"

Leviticus 5:17

Ha mandado que no se haga
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ha ordenado a la gente que no haga"

Debe lelvar su propia culpa
Se habla de la culpa de una persona como si fuera un objeto físico que la persona lleva. Aquí la palabra "culpa" representa el castigo por esa culpa. Traducción alterna: "él es responsable de su propia culpa" o "El Señor lo castigará por su pecado"

Valorado en el actual valor
Esto significa que la persona debe determinar cuántos siclos vale el carnero utilizando el estándar oficial de la tienda sagrada. Ver 5:14.

Él será perdonado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor lo perdonará"

Él es ciertamente culpable ante el Señor
El Señor ciertamente lo considera culpable

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Si alguien peca y rompe un mandato en contra del SEÑOR, tal como tratar falsamente a su vecino, respecto a algo confiado a él, o si le hace trampa o le roba, o ha oprimido a su vecino, 3 o ha encontrado algo que su vecino perdió y miente acerca de ello, y jura la mentira, o en asuntos como estos en los que la gente peca, 4 entonces sucederá que si ha pecado y es culpable, debe restaurar lo que sea que tomó por robo o a la fuerza, o tomó de lo que le fue confiado a él o la cosa perdida que encontró. 5 O si mintió por cualquier asunto, él deberá restaurarlo completamente y debe añadir un quinto más para pagarle a aquel a quien le debe, en el día que es hallado culpable. 6 Luego, debe traer su ofrenda de culpa al SEÑOR: un carnero sin mancha del rebaño que vale el valor actual, como una ofrenda de culpa al sacerdote. 7 El sacerdote hará expiación por él delante del SEÑOR, y él será perdonado en relación a lo que lo ha hecho culnpable de hacer." 8 Luego el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 9 Ordena a Aarón y a sus hijos, diciendo: 'Esta es la ley de las ofrendas quemadas: La ofrenda quemada debe estar sobre el altar toda la noche hasta la mañana, y el fuego del altar se mantendrá ardiendo. 10 El sacerdote se pondrá su ropa de lino, y también se pondrá su ropa interior de lino. El recogerá las cenizas que sobren después de que el fuego haya consumido la ofrenda quemada en el altar, y el pondrá las cenizas al lado del altar. 11 Él se quitará sus vestiduras y se pondrá otras vestiduras para llevar las cenizas afuera del campamento, a un lugar que esté limpio. 12 El fuego del altar se mantendrá ardiendo. No debeberá apagarse, y el sacerdote quemará madera en el mismo, todas las mañanas. Él arreglará la ofrenda quemada en él, como se le requiere, y quemará en él la grasa de las ofrendas de paz. 13 El fuego debe seguir ardiendo en el altar continuamente. Él no deberá apagarse. 14 Ésta es la ley de la ofrenda de grano. Los hijos de Aarón la ofrecerán ante el SEÑOR, delante de altar. 15 El sacerdote tomará un puñado de la harina fina de la ofrenda de grano y del aceite y del inicienso, el cual está en la ofrenda de grano, y él la quemará en el altar para producir un dulce aroma como una ofrenda por ellos. 16 Aarón y sus hijos comerán lo que sea que quede de la ofrenda. Debe ser comido sin levadura en el lugar santo. Ellos lo comerán en el patio de la tienda de reunión. 17 No deberá ser horneado con levadura. Lo he dado como parte de mis ofrendas hechas en fuego. Es tan santo como las ofrendas de pecado y las ofrendas de culpa. 18 Para que todo el tiempo por venir a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo, todo varón descendiente de Aarón pueda comerlo como su porción, tomado de las ofrendas del SEÑOR, hechas por fuego. Quien sea que las toque se volverá santo." 19 Así que, el SEÑOR habló a Moisés otra vez, diciendo, 20 "Esta es la ofrenda de Aarón y sus hijos, la cual ellos ofrecerán al SEÑOR en el día cuando todo hijo sea ungido: unos 3. 7kg de harina fina como una ofrenda de grano regular, mitad de ella en la mañana y mitad en la tarde. 21 Será hecha con aceite en un sartén para hornear. Cuando esté empapada, tú la traerás adentro. En pedazos horneados las ofrecerás como ofrenda de grano para producir un aroma dulce para el SEÑOR. 22 El hijo del alto sacerdote quien se esté volviendo en el nuevo alto sacerdote de entre sus hijos lo ofrecerá. Como es ordenado por siempre, todo ello debe ser quemado al SEÑOR. 23 Cada ofrenda de grano del sacerdote debe ser completamente quemada. No debe ser comida. 24 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés otra vez, diciendo: 25 "Háblale a Aarón y a sus hijos y diles: 'Esta es la ley de la ofrenda de pecado: La ofrenda de pecado debe ser matada en el lugar donde la ofrenda es quemada delante del SEÑOR. Es muy santo. 26 El sacerdote que la ofrezca por pecado se la comerá. Debe ser comido en un lugar santo en el patio de la tienda de reunión. 27 Lo que sea que toque su carne se volverá santo, y si la sangre es rociada en cualquier vestidura, debes lavarla, la parte donde fue rociada, en un lugar santo. 28 Pero la olla de barro en donde fue hervida debe romperse. Si es hervida en una olla de bronce, debe ser restregada y secada limpia en agua. 29 Cualquier varón entre los sacerdotes puede comer un poco ello, porque es más santo. 30 Pero cualquier ofrenda de pecado, cuya sangre sea traída a la carpa de reunión para hacer expiación en el lugar santo, no debe ser comida. Debe ser quemada.

Leviticus 6:1

Rompe un mandato en contra del Señor
"desobedece uno de los mandamientos del Señor"

Tratar falsamente a su vecino, respecto a algo confiado a él
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "mintiéndole a su vecino sobre algo que el vecino le prestó"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Su vecino
Aquí, "vecino" significa cualquier israelita, no solo alguien que vive cerca.

Tomando lo que le fue confiado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no devolviendo algo que tomó prestado"

Leviticus 6:5

Completamente
"Completo" o "totalmente"

Añadir un quinto
quinto - Esto significa que la persona debe devolver lo que debe a alguien y pagar una quinta parte del valor. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 5:14.

Para pagarle a aquel a quien le debe
Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para pagar a la persona que debe"

Es hallado culpable
La persona que robó debe comparecer ante el juez y declararse culpable. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el juez lo declara culpable"

Vale el valor actual
Esto significa que la persona debe determinar cuántos siclos vale el carnero utilizando el estándar oficial de la tienda sagrada. Puede aclarar la información entendida. Ver como se ha traducido en el 5:14.

El sacerdote hará expiación por él
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote expiará por él"

Ante el Señor
"En la presencia del Señor"

Él será perdonado
Esto significa que el Señor perdonará a la persona, no al sacerdote. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Dios lo perdonará"

Leviticus 6:8

Luego el Señor le habló a Moisés, diciendo: "Ordena a Aarón y a sus hijos, diciendo: 'Esta es la ley
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Entonces el Señor le habló a Moisés y le dijo que ordenara a Aarón y a sus hijos, diciendo: 'Esta es la ley"

Debe estar sobre el altar
"debe estar encima del altar"

El fuego del altar se mantendrá encendido.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes mantener el fuego del altar encendido"

Leviticus 6:10

Su ropa de lino
El lino es un tela blanca. Traducción alterna: "su ropa blanca"

El recogerá las cenizas
"Él va a recoger las cenizas"

Despues de que el fuego haya consumido la ofrenda quemada
Se habla del fuego que quema completamente la ofrenda como si consumiera o consumiera la ofrenda quemada.

A un lugar que esté limpio.
Se habla de un lugar adecuado para ser usado para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 6:12

El fuego del altar se mantendrá ardiendo.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote mantendrá encendido el fuego del altar"

Como se requiere en él
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "en él como al Señor exige"

Leviticus 6:14

Para producir un dulce aroma
Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 1: 7.

Ofrenda representativa
El puñado de la ofrenda de grano representa la ofrenda de grano entero. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece al Señor. Ver como se ha traducidoesto en el 2: 1.

Leviticus 6:16

Debe ser comido
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Deben comerlo"

Debe ser comido sin levadura Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No lo hornee con levadura"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ofrendas hechas en fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ofrendas quemadas"

Quien sea que las toque se volverá santo
Esta es una advertencia implícita de que aquellos que no son descendientes masculinos de Aarón no deben tocar esta ofrenda. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar.

Leviticus 6:19

Cuando todo hijo sea ungido
Se implica que serán ungidos cuando se conviertan en sacerdotes. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Esto también puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuando unge a cada hijo, ordenándolos como sacerdotes"

Una décima parte de una efa
Un efa son 22 litros. Una décima parte de un efa es de aproximadamente 2 litros.

Una décima
Esta es una parte de diez partes iguales.

Leviticus 6:21

Será hecha
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Lo harás"

En una bandeja para hornear
Esta es una placa gruesa hecha de arcilla o metal. La placa se colocaba sobre un fuego y la masa se cocinaba sobre la placa. Ver como se ha traducido "sartén de hierro plano" en 2: 4.

Cuando esté empapada
"Cuando la harina está completamente mojada con aceite"

Tú la traerás adentro
Aquí "Tú" se refiere a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio.

Para producir un aroma dulce para el Señor
Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofreció el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 1: 7.

Un mandato
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Como el Señor te ha mandado"

Todo será quemado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe quemarlo todo"

Debe ser completamente quemada.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe quemarlo completamente"

No debe ser comido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Nadie debe comerlo"

Leviticus 6:24

El Señor le habló a Moisés otra vez, diciendo: "Háblale a Aarón y a sus hijos y diles: 'Esta es la ley
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "El Señor habló a Moisés nuevamente y le dijo que hablara con Aarón y sus hijos, diciendo: 'Esta es la ley"

Háblale a Aarón y a sus hijos
El Señor está hablando con Aarón y sus hijos, pero estas regulaciones se aplican a todos los sacerdotes que realizan estos sacrificios. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar.

La ofrenda de pecado debe ser matada ... Delante del Señor
Se puede hacer explícito que esto se refiere al lado norte del altar. Ver 1:10.

La ofrenda de pecado debe ser matada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes matar la ofrenda por el pecado"

Donde se mata el holocausto
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "donde matas al animal por la ofrenda quemada"

Delante del Señor
"Al Señor"

Debe ser comido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Él debe comerlo"

Leviticus 6:27

Lo que sea que toque su carne se volverá santo Esta es una advertencia implícita de que nadie, además de los sacerdotes, debe tocar la carne de la ofrenda por el pecado. El significado completo de esta declaración es claro.

Si la sangre es rociada en
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si la sangre salpica"

La olla de barro en la que se hierve debe romperse.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes romper la olla de barro en la que cociste la carne"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Si se hierve en una olla de bronce, debe lavarse y enjuagarse con agua.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Si hierves la carne en una olla de bronce, debes fregar la olla y enjuagarla con agua limpia"

Leviticus 6:29

Ninguna ofrenda de pecado debe ser consumida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "nadie puede comer la ofrenda por el pecado"

Cuya sangre sea traída a la carpa de reunión
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "de donde el sacerdote lleva la sangre a la tienda de reunión"

Debe ser quemada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote debe quemarlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Esta es la ley de la ofrenda de la culpabilidad. Es lo más santo. 2 Ellos deben matar la ofrenda de la culpabilidad en el lugar para matarla, y ellos deben rocíar la sangre sobre cada lado del altar. 3 Toda la grasa en ella debe ser ofrecida: la grasa del rabo, la grasa que está sobre las partes internas, 4 los dos riñones y la grasa en ellos, la cual esta junto a los lomos, y que cubre el hígado, con los riñones, todo esto debe ser removido. 5 El sacerdote debe quemar estas partes en el altar como una ofrenda hecha con fuego al SEÑOR. Esta es la ofrenda de la culpabilidad. 6 Cada hombre entre los sacerdotes puede comer parte de este sacrificio. Debe ser comido en un lugar santo porque es lo más santo. 7 La ofrenda del pecado es como la ofrenda por la culpa. La misma ley se aplica a ambos. Ellas le pertenecen al sacerdote que haga expiación con ellas. 8 El sacerdote que ofrezca la ofrenda quemada de cualquiera, puede tener para sí mismo el cuero de esa ofrenda. 9 Cada ofrenda de grano que es horneada en un horno, y como tal cada ofrenda que es cocinada en un sartén de freir o en un sartén de hornear le pertenecera al sacerdote que lo ofrezca. 10 Cada ofrenda de granos, sea seca o mezclada con aceite, le pertenecerá por igual a los hijos de Aarón. 11 Esta es la ley del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz, las cuales la gente ofrecerá al SEÑOR. 12 Si alguno la ofrece para dar gracias, entonces él debe ofrecerla con un sacrificio de pan hecho sin levadura, pero mezclado con aceite, de panes hechos sin levadura, pero esparcidos con aceite, y de panes hechos con harina fina que es mezclada con aceite. 13 También, con el propósito de dar gracias, él debe ofrecer con su ofrenda de paz piezas de pan hechas con levadura. 14 Él va a ofrecer uno de cada tipo de estos sacrificios como una ofrenda presentada al SEÑOR. Ella le pertenecerá a los sacerdotes que rocíen la sangre de la ofrenda de paz en el altar. 15 La persona presentando una ofrenda de paz para el propósito de dar gracias, debe comer la carne de su ofrenda en el día del sacrificio. Él no debe dejar nada de ella hasta la mañana siguiente. 16 Pero si el sacrificio de su ofrenda es por el propósito de un voto, o por el propósito de una ofrenda de libre voluntad, la carne debe ser comida en el día que él ofrezca el sacrificio, pero lo que quede de ella puede ser comido en el próximo día. 17 Sin embargo, cualquier carne del sacrificio que quede en el tercer día debe ser quemada. 18 Si algo de la carne del sacrificio de la ofrenda de paz de alguien es comida en el tercer día, no será aceptada, ni tampoco será tomada en cuenta a quien la ofreció. Será una cosa asquerosa, y la persona que la coma cargará la culpa de su pecado. 19 Cualquier carne que toque una cosa impura no debe ser comida. Debe ser quemada. Mientras con el resto de la carne, cualquiera que esté limpio puede comerla. 20 Sin embargo, una persona impura que coma cualquier carne del sacrificio de una ofrenda de paz que le pertenece al SEÑOR esta persona debe ser cortada de su gente. 21 Si alguno toca cualquier cosa impura sea impura de hombre, o de bestia inmunda, o de alguna cosa inmunda y asquerosa, y si él entonces come algo de la carne de un sacrificio de ofrenda de paz que le pertenece al SEÑOR, esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo.'" 22 Entonces el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 23 "Háblale a la gente de Israel y diles: 'Ustedes no deben comer grasa de buey o de oveja o de cabra. 24 La grasa de un animal que murió sin ser sacrificado, o la grasa de un animal despedazado por animales salvajes, puede ser usada para otros propósitos, pero ustedes ciertamente no deben comerla. 25 Cualquiera que coma la grasa de un animal que los hombres pueden ofrecer como un sacrificio por fuego al SEÑOR, esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo. 26 Ustedes no deben comer nada de sangre en ninguna de sus casas, sea de pájaro o de un animal. 27 Cualquiera que coma alguna sangre, esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo.'" 28 Entonces el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y dijo: 29 "Háblale a la gente de Israel y diles: 'Aquel que ofrezca el sacrificio de una ofrenda de paz al SEÑOR debe traer parte de su sacrificio al SEÑOR. 30 La ofrenda para el SEÑOR debe ser hecha por fuego, sus propias manos deben traerla. Él debe traer la grasa con el pecho, para que el pecho sea mecido como una ofrenda mecida ante el SEÑOR. 31 El sacerdote debe quemar la grasa en el altar, pero el pecho le pertenecerá a Aarón y a sus hijos 32 Ustedes deben darle el muslo derecho al sacerdote como una ofrenda presentada fuera del sacrificio de sus ofrendas de paz. 33 El sacerdote, uno de los hijos de Aarón, quien ofrece la sangre de las ofrendas de paz y la grasa él tendrá el muslo derecho como su parte de la ofrenda. 34 Pues Yo he tomado de la gente de Israel, el pecho de la ofrenda mecida, y el muslo que es la contribución, y ellos han sido entregados a Aarón el sacerdote y a sus hijos como su porción regular. 35 Esta es la porción para Aarón y sus hijos de las ofrendas para el SEÑOR hechas por fuego, en el día cuando Moisés los presentó para servir al SEÑOR en el trabajo de sacerdote. 36 Esta es la porción que el SEÑOR ordenó que le fuera entregada a ellos del pueblo de Israel, en el día que Él ungió a los sacerdotes. Siempre será su porción a través de todas las generaciones. 37 Esta es la ley de la ofrenda quemada, de la ofrenda de granos, de la ofrenda por el pecado, de la ofrenda de la culpabilidad, de la ofrenda de consagración, y del sacrificio de las ofrendas de paz, 38 sobre las cuales el SEÑOR dio mandatos a Moisés

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en el Monte Sinaí, en el día que Él le ordenó a la gente de Israel a ofrecer sus sacrificios al SEÑOR en el desierto de Sinaí.

Leviticus 7:1

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que debe decirle a Aarón y a sus hijos.

En el lugar para matarlo
Se puede hacer explícito que esto se refiere al lugar donde se matan los animales para las ofrendas quemadas. Ver 1:10.

Toda la grasa en ella debe ser ofrecida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote debe ofrecer toda la grasa que contiene"

Partes internas
Esto son el estómago y los intestinos

Hígado ... Riñones
Traduce estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3: 3.

Junto a los lomos
Esta es la parte del cuerpo en los lados de la columna vertebral entre las costillas y el hueso de la cadera. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 3: 3.

Todo esto debe ser removido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote debe eliminar todo esto"

Leviticus 7:5

Como una ofrenda hecha con fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "como ofrenda quemada"

Debe ser comido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Deben comerlo"

Leviticus 7:7

La misma ley aplica a ambos
"La ley es la misma para ambos"

Al sacerdote que haga expiación con ellas
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "al sacerdote que ofrece el sacrificio para expiar los pecados de alguien"

Cuero
La capa o piel de un animal de rebaño

Leviticus 7:9

Que se cocina en un horno ... que se cocina en una sartén
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que alguien hornee en un horno ... que alguien cocine en una sartén"

Horno
Este fue probablemente un objeto hueco hecho de arcilla. Se encendió un fuego debajo del horno, y el calor calentaría la masa dentro del horno. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 2: 4.

Una sartén de freír
Esta es una placa de metal con bordes redondeados. La masa se colocaba en la sartén y se cocinaba al fuego. Ver como se ha traducido "sartén" en 2: 6.

Sartén de hornear
Esta es una placa gruesa hecha de arcilla o metal. La placa se colocaba sobre el fuego y la masa se cocinó sobre la placa. Ver como se ha traducido "sartén de hierro plano" en 2: 4.

Leviticus 7:11

Pan hecho sin levadura, pero mezclado con aceite
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de los panes que hizo sin levadura pero mezclados con aceite"

Panes ... mezclado con aceite
Aquí "panes" se refiere a un pan grueso.

De panes hechos sin levadura, pero esparcidos con aceite
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de tortas finas que hizo sin levadura pero esparcidas con aceite"

Panes ... esparcidos con aceite
Aquí "panes" se refiere a un pan grueso.

De panes hechas con harina fina que se mezcla con aceite.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de los pasteles que hizo con harina fina mezclada con aceite"

Panes hechos con harina fina Aquí "panes" se refiere a un pan grueso. Es similar al primer tipo de pan, excepto que se hace con la harina más fina.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 7:13

Tartas de Pan Con Levadura.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "pasteles de pan que hizo con levadura"

Pan
Esto se refiere a un pan grueso.

Leviticus 7:15

La persona presentando
"La persona que ofrece"

Para el propósito de dar gracias
El sustantivo abstracto "gracias" se puede expresar como un verbo.Traducción alterna: "con el propósito de agradecer a Yahweh"

La carne debe ser consumida ... puede ser consumida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe comer la carne ... puede comerla"

Leviticus 7:17

En el tercer día
Tercero es el número ordinal para tres. Traducción alterna: "después de dos días"

Debe ser quemado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la persona debe quemarlo"

Si algo de la carne del sacrificio de la ofrenda de paz de alguien es comida en el tercer día Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si alguien come la carne de su sacrificio de ofrenda de paz en el tercer día"

No será aceptado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el Señor no lo aceptará"

Ni tampoco será acréditada a quien la ofreció.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ni el Señor honrará el sacrificio que la persona ofreció"

Llevará la culpa de su pecado
Se habla de una persona responsable del pecado que cometió como si tuviera que cargar físicamente con la culpa.

Leviticus 7:19

Cualquier carne que toque una cosa inmunda no debe ser comida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Nadie puede comer carne que toca algo sucio"

Una cosa inmunda
Algo que el Señor ha declarado que no es apto para tocar o comer se dice que es físicamente impuro.

Debe ser quemado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes quemarlo"

Cualquiera que sea limpio
Se habla de una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Persona impura
Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

Esta persona debe ser cortada de su gente.
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no puede vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a esa persona de su gente"

Leviticus 7:21

Cualquier cosa inmunda
Algo que el Señor ha declarado que no es apto para tocar o comer se dice que es físicamente impuro.

Si la inmundicia del hombre o la bestia inmunda
Aquí "hombre" significa humanos en general. Traducción alterna: "ya sea de una persona o una bestia"

O de alguna cosa sucia y asquerosa
"o de alguna cosa sucia que disgusta al Señor"

Esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 7:19.

Leviticus 7:22

Entonces el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: "Háblale a la gente de Israel y diles: 'Ustedes no deben comer grasa
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Entonces Yahvé le habló a Moisés y le dijo que le dijera al pueblo de Israel esto: 'No debes comer grasa"

Murió sin ser sacrificado
"Murió pero no fue un sacrificio"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La grasa de un animal despedazado por animales salvajes
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la grasa de un animal que mataron los animales salvajes"

Puede ser usado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "puedes usar"

Leviticus 7:25

Sacrificio por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ofrenda quemada"

Esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 7:19.

No deben comer sangre
"No debes consumir sangre"

En cualquiera de sus casas
"en cualquiera de tus casas" o "donde vives"

Leviticus 7:28

Entonces el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y dijo: "Háblale a la gente de Israel y diles: 'Aquel que ofrezca el sacrificio
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "Entonces el Señor le habló a Moisés y le dijo que le dijera al pueblo de Israel esto: 'El que ofrece"

La ofrenda para el Señor debe ser hecha por fuego, sus propias manos deben traerla.
La frase "sus propias manos deben traerla" se puede colocar al comienzo de la oración. La frase "para ser hecha por fuego" puede ser en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Él mismo debe traer la ofrenda que planea quemar como un sacrificio al Señor"

Sus propias manos deben traerlo
Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "él debe traerlo él mismo"

Pecho
La parte frontal del cuerpo del animal debajo del cuello.

Para que el pecho sea mecido como una ofrenda mecida ante el SEÑOR.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que el sacerdote pueda presentárselo al Señor como una ofrenda de onda"

Como una ofrenda mecida ante el Señor.
Levantar la ofrenda es un gesto simbólico que muestra que la persona está dedicando el sacrificio a Yahvé.

Leviticus 7:31

Muslo
La parte superior de la pierna por encima de la rodilla

Como una ofrenda presentada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y presentarlo como una ofrenda"

Leviticus 7:33

Porque he tomado
Aquí "Yo" se refiere al Señor

Esa es la contribución
"que se da como ofrenda"

Leviticus 7:35

Las ofrendas para el SEÑOR hechas por fuego Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las ofrendas quemadas para el Señor"

El Señor ordenó que le fuera entregada a ellos del pueblo de Israel Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que el Señor le ordenó al pueblo de Israel que les diera"

Él ungió a los sacerdotes.
"que Moisés ungió a los sacerdotes"

Todas las generaciones.
Traduce estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3:15.

Leviticus 7:37

Declaración de conexión
Este es el final de un discurso que comenzó en el versículo 7:28.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 El Señor habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Toma a Aarón y a sus hijos con él, las vestiduras y el aceite de la unción, el toro para las ofrendas por el pecado, los dos carneros, y la canasta del pan sin levadura. 3 Reúne a toda la asamblea en la entrada de la tienda de reunión." 4 Así que Moisés hizo lo que el SEÑOR le había mandado, y la asamblea vinieron juntos a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 5 Entonces Moisés dijo a la asamblea: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR ha ordenado que se haga." 6 Moisés trajo a Aarón y a sus hijos y los lavó a ellos con agua. 7 Le puso a Aarón la túnica y le amarró la faja alrededor de la cintura, lo vistió con el manto y puso el efod sobre él, y después le amarró el efod alrededor de él con el cinto finamente tejido y lo ligó a él. 8 Él colocó el pectoral en él, y en el pectoral puso el Urim y el Tumim. 9 El colocó el turbante en su cabeza, y en el turbante, en frente, él colocó el plato dorado, la santa corona, como el SEÑOR había ordenado. 10 Moisés tomó el aceite de la unción, ungió el tabernáculo y todo lo que había en el y lo apartó para el SEÑOR. 11 El roció el aceite sobre el altar siete veces, y ungió el altar y todos sus utensilios, y el lavabo y su base, para apartarlos para EL SEÑOR. 12 El derramó parte del aceite de la unción sobre la cabeza de Aarón y lo ungió para consagrarlo. 13 Moisés trajo a los hijos de Aarón y los vistió con túnicas. El amarró fajas alrededor de sus cinturas y envolvió telas de lino sobre sus cabezas, como el SEÑOR había ordenado. 14 Moisés trajo el toro para la ofrenda por el pecado, y Aarón y sus hijos colocaron sus manos sobre la cabeza del toro que habían traído para la ofrenda por el pecado. 15 Él lo mató, y tomó sangre y la puso sobre los cuernos del altar con su dedo, purificó el altar, derramó la sangre en la base del altar y lo consagró para Dios a fin de hacer expiación por ello. 16 El tomó toda la grasa que estaba en las partes interiores, cubriendo el hígado, y los dos riñones y su grasa, y Moisés lo quemó todo en el altar. 17 Pero el toro, su cuero, su carne y su estiércol los quemó fuera del campamento, como el SEÑOR había ordenado. 18 Moisés presentó el carnero para la ofrenda quemada, y Aarón y sus hijos colocaron sus manos sobre la cabeza del carnero. 19 Él lo mató y roció su sangre a cada lado del altar. 20 Él cortó el carnero en piezas y quemó la cabeza y las piezas y la grasa. 21 Lavó las partes interiroes y las piernas con agua, y él quemó todo el carnero sobre el altar. Esto era una ofrenda quemada y produjo un aroma agradable, una ofrenda hecha mediante fuego para el SEÑOR como el SEÑOR había ordenado a Moisés. 22 Entonces Moisés presentó el otro carnero, el carnero de la consagración, y Aarón y sus hijos colocaron sus manos sobre la cabeza del carnero. 23 Aarón lo mató y Moisés tomó parte de su sangre y la puso sobre en la punta de la oreja derecha de Aarón, sobre el pulgar de su mano derecha y sobre el dedo gordo de su pie derecho. 24 El trajo a los hijos de Aarón, y puso parte la sangre sobre el la punta de la oreja derecha, el pulgar derecho y el dedo gordo del pie derecho de cada uno de ellos. entonces Moisés roció la sangre a cada lado del altar. 25 Moisés tomó la grasa, la cola gorda, toda la grasa que estaba sobre las partes interiores, la cubierta del hígado, los dos riñones con su grasa y el muslo derecho. 26 De la canasta del pan sin levadura que estaba delante del Señor, él tomó una rebanada de pan sin levadura, y una pieza de pan engrasado y una tortilla, y las colocó sobre la grasa y sobre el muslo derecho. 27 El puso todo en las manos de Aarón y en las manos de sus hijos y lo ondearon delante del SEÑOR como ofrenda mecida. 28 Entonces Moisés tomó de las manos de ellos y lo quemó en el altar de la ofrenda quemada. Esto fue una ofrenda consagrada y produjo un aroma agradable. Era una una ofrenda mediante fuego al SEÑOR. 29 Moisés tomó la pechuga y la ondeó como una ofrenda mecida al SEÑOR. Esta fue la porción del carnero que Moisés compartió para la ordenación de los sacerdotes, como el SEÑOR había madado. 30 Moisés tomó parte del aceite de la unción y de la sangre que estaba en el altar; la roció sobre Aarón, sobre sus ropas, sobre sus hijos y sobre las ropas de sus hijos. De esta manera consagró a Aarón y sus ropas, y a sus hijos y sus ropas para el SEÑOR. 31 Así que Moisés dijo a Aarón y a sus hijos, "Hiervan la carne a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, y allí cómanla y el pan que está en la canasta de la consagración, como yo lo he ordenado, diciendo, 'Aarón y sus hijos lo comerán.' 32 Los restos de la carne y del pan ustedes deben quemarlo. 33 Y ustedes no saldrán de la entrada de la tienda de reunión por siete días, hasta que los días de su ordenación estén completos. Porque el SEÑOR los consagrará a ustedes por siete días. 34 Lo que se ha hecho este día, el SEÑOR ha ordenado que se haga expiación por ustedes. 35 Estarán por siete días y siete noches a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, y guardarán el mandamiento del SEÑOR, para que no mueran, porque esto es lo que se me ha ordenado.'' 36 Así Aarón y sus hijos hicieron todas las cosas las cuales el SEÑOR había mandado a ellos a través de Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 8:1

Información general:
En el capítulo 8, Moisés ordena a Aarón y sus hijos como sacerdotes según los mandatos que el Señor que Moisés registró en el libro de Éxodo.

Vestiduras
"Las vestiduras sacerdotales" o "La ropa que llevaban los sacerdotes".

Leviticus 8:4

el Señor le había mandado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El Señor nos ordena que hagamos"

Leviticus 8:6

Y los lavó a ellos con agua.
Esta es una acción simbólica. Es una ritual de limpieza que los prepara para convertirse en sacerdotes.

La túnica ... la faja ... el manto ... el efod ..el cinto finamente tejido cinto finamente tejido - Estas son prendas especiales que el Señor le ordenó a la gente que hiciera para los sacerdotes.

Faja
Un pedazo largo de tela que se ata alrededor de la cintura o el pecho.

Alrededor de él
"atado a su alrededor"

Leviticus 8:8

Él colocó el pectoral en él
"Moisés colocó el pectoral sobre Aarón"

El pectoral ... el turbante ... el plato dorado , la santa corona
Estas son todas las prendas especiales que el Señor ordenó a la gente que hicieran para los sacerdotes.

El Urim y el Tumim
No está claro qué son estos. Eran objetos que el sacerdote de alguna manera usaba para determinar la voluntad de Dios.

Turbante
La cabeza de un hombre que cubre es un pedazo largo de tela envuelto alrededor de la cabeza

El plato dorado, la corona santa Estas dos frases se refieren a la misma cosa. Era un plato de oro puro unido al turbante.

Leviticus 8:10

Todos los utensilios
Estas son todas las ollas, sartenes, palas y tenedores utilizados en el altar.

El lavabo
Este es un lavabo de bronce que estaba ubicado entre el altar y el tabernáculo.

Su base
Este es un soporte de bronce en el que se colocó el lavabo.

Leviticus 8:12

Él derramó
"Moisés derramó"

Fajas
Esta es la forma plural de "faja". Ver como se ha traducido esto en el 8: 6.

Leviticus 8:14

Ponen sus manos sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a Aaron y sus hijos con el animal que están ofreciendo. De esta manera se están ofreciendo al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 3.

Cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar. Tienen forma de cuernos de buey. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 4: 6.

Sepáralo para Dios
"separe el altar para Dios"

Hacer expiación por ello.
Aquí, "expiación" significa hacer que el altar sea apto para el servicio a Dios. Traducción alterna: "para que sea un lugar adecuado para quemar sacrificios por el pecado"

Leviticus 8:16

Partes internas
Este es el estómago y los intestinos. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

Hígado ... riñones
Traduce estas palabras como lo hiciste en el 3: 3.

Cuero
La capa o la piel de un rebaño de animales.

Leviticus 8:18

Colocaron sus manos sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a Aaron y sus hijos con el animal que están ofreciendo. De esta manera se están ofreciendo al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 3. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Leviticus 8:20

Él cortó el carnero
"Moisés cortó el carnero"

Produjo un aroma agradable
El Señor está complacido con el sincero adorador que ofrece el sacrificio como si el Señor estuviera complacido por el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en 1: 7.

Una ofrenda hecha mediante fuego para el Señor Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "una ofrenda que quemó al Señor"

Leviticus 8:22

El carnero de la consagración
La palabra "consagración" es un nombre abstracto. Traducción alterna: "el carnero para separar a Aarón y sus hijos para servir a Dios"

Colocaron sus manos sobre la cabeza
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a Aaron y sus hijos con el animal que están ofreciendo. De esta manera, ellos se están ofreciendo al Señor a través del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 3. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Moisés tomó parte de su sangre
Se da a entender que Moisés recogió la sangre en un recipiente mientras la sangre se drenaba del animal. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

Leviticus 8:25

Partes internas
Las partes internas - Este es el estómago y los intestinos. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1: 7.

Hígado ... riñones
Traduce estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hiciste en el 3: 3.

Muslo derecho
El muslo es la parte superior de la pierna por encima de la rodilla. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 7:31.

La canasta de pan sin levadura que había delante del Señor.
Esto no se refiere a la ubicación de la cesta de pan. Significa que este es el pan que Moisés había dedicado al Señor.

El puso todo en las manos de Aarón y en las manos de sus hijos Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "se lo dio todo a Aaron y sus hijos"

Y lo ondearon delante del SEÑOR como ofrenda mecida
Se implica que Aarón y sus hijos presentaron la ofrenda. El significado completo de esta declaración es claro. Traducción alterna: "los agitaron ante el Señor como una ofrenda de onda"

Los agitó
Esta es una acción simbólica que dedica la ofrenda al Señor.

Leviticus 8:28

Moisés los tomó
Aquí "los" se refiere a la grasa, el muslo y todo el pan.

De las manos de ellos
Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Traducción alterna: "de Aaron y sus hijos"

Esto fue una ofrenda consagrada
"Eran una ofrenda por separar a Aarón y sus hijos para servirlos al Señor"

Una ofrenda mediante fuego al Señor Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "una ofrenda quemada al Señor"

Produce un agradable aroma
El Señor está complacido con el sincero adorador que ofrece el sacrificio como si el Señor estuviera complacido por el aroma del sacrificio ardiente. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en 1: 7.

Pecho
La parte frontal del cuerpo del animal debajo del cuello.

Ordenación
Una ceremonia oficial que convierte a alguien en sacerdote.

Leviticus 8:30

Moisés
Moisés fue un profeta y líder de los israelitas por más de 40 años. Cuando Moisés era un bebé, los padres de Moisés lo pusieron en una canasta en las cañas del río Nilo para esconderlo del faraón egipcio. La hermana de Moisés, Miriam, lo cuidó allí. La vida de Moisés se salvó cuando la hija del faraón lo encontró y lo llevó al palacio para criarlo como su hijo. Dios eligió a Moisés para liberar a los israelitas de la esclavitud en Egipto y para guiarlos a la Tierra Prometida. Después de que los israelitas escaparon de Egipto y mientras vagaban por el desierto, Dios le dio a Moisés dos tablas de piedra con los Diez Mandamientos escritos en ellos. Cerca del final de su vida, Moisés vio la Tierra Prometida, pero no pudo vivir en ella porque desobedeció a Dios.

Ver también: Miriam Promised Land Ten Commandments

Ungir, Ungido
El término "ungir" significa frotar o verter aceite sobre una persona u objeto. A veces el aceite se mezclaba con especias, dándole un olor dulce y perfumado. El término también se usa figurativamente para referirse al Espíritu Santo que elige y capacita a alguien. En el Antiguo Testamento, sacerdotes, reyes y profetas fueron ungidos con aceite para apartarlos para un servicio especial a Dios. Objetos como los altares o el tabernáculo, también fueron ungidos con aceite para mostrar que debían ser usados para adorar y glorificar a Dios. En el Nuevo Testamento, las personas enfermas fueron ungidas con aceite para su curación. El Nuevo Testamento registra dos veces que Jesús fue ungido con aceite perfumado por una mujer, como un acto de adoración. Una vez, Jesús comentó que al hacer esto, ella lo estaba preparando para su futuro entierro. Después de que Jesús murió, sus amigos prepararon su cuerpo para enterrarlo ungiéndolo con aceites y especias. Los títulos "Mesías" (hebreo) y "Cristo" (griego) significan "el Ungido (Uno)". *Jesús el Mesías es el que fue elegido y ungido como Profeta, Sumo Sacerdote y Rey.

Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, el término "ungir" se podría traducir como "verter aceite" o "poner aceite" o "consagrar vertiendo aceite perfumado". Para "ser ungido" se podría traducir como "ser consagrado con aceite". o "ser nombrado" o "ser consagrado". En algunos contextos, el término "ungir" podría traducirse como "nombrar". Una frase como "el sacerdote ungido" se podría traducir como "el sacerdote que fue consagrado con aceite" o "el sacerdote que fue apartado por el derramamiento de aceite".

Ver también: consecrate

Aceite
El aceite es un líquido espeso y claro que se toma de ciertas plantas o frutas. En los tiempos bíblicos, el aceite generalmente provenía de aceitunas.

El aceite de oliva se usaba para cocinar, ungir, sacrificar, lámparas y medicina. En la antigüedad, el aceite de oliva era muy apreciado y la posesión de petróleo se consideraba una medida de riqueza. *Asegúrese de que la traducción de este término se refiere al tipo de aceite que se puede usar para cocinar, no al aceite de motor. Algunos idiomas tienen diferentes palabras para estos diferentes tipos de aceite.

Ver también: olive sacrifice, offering

Sangre
El término "sangre" se refiere al líquido rojo que sale de la piel de una persona cuando hay una lesión o herida. La sangre aporta nutrientes que dan vida a todo el cuerpo de una persona. La sangre simboliza la vida y cuando se derrama o se derrama, simboliza la pérdida de la vida o la muerte. Cuando la gente hacía sacrificios a Dios, mataban a un animal y vertían su sangre en el altar. Esto simbolizaba el sacrificio de la vida del animal para pagar por los pecados de las personas. A través de su muerte en la cruz, la sangre de Jesús limpia simbólicamente a las personas de sus pecados y paga el castigo que merecen por esos pecados. La expresión "carne y sangre" se refiere a los seres humanos. *La expresión "propia carne y sangre" se refiere a personas que están relacionadas biológicamente.

Sugerencias de traducción

Este término debe traducirse con el término que se utiliza para la sangre en el idioma de destino La expresión "carne y sangre" podría traducirse como "personas" o "seres humanos". Dependiendo del contexto, la expresión "mi propia carne y sangre" podría traducirse como "mi propia familia" o "mis propios familiares" o "mi propia gente". Si hay una expresión en el idioma de destino que se usa con este significado, esa expresión podría usarse para traducir "carne y hueso". Ver también: Flesh

Altar
Un altar era una estructura elevada en la que los israelitas quemaban animales y granos como ofrendas a Dios. Durante los tiempos bíblicos, los altares simples se hacían a menudo formando un montículo de tierra empacada o colocando cuidadosamente piedras grandes para formar una pila estable. Algunos altares especiales en forma de caja estaban hechos de madera cubierta con metales como el oro, el latón o el bronce. *Otros grupos de personas que viven cerca de los israelitas también construyeron altares para ofrecer sacrificios a sus dioses.

Ver también: altar of incense false god, foreign god, god, goddess grain offering

Apartado
El término "apartarse" significa estar separado de algo para cumplir un determinado propósito. Los israelitas fueron apartados para servir a Dios. El Espíritu Santo ordenó a los cristianos en Antioquía que apartaran a Pablo y Bernabé para la obra que Dios quería que hicieran. Un creyente que está "apartado" para servir a Dios está "dedicado a" cumplir la voluntad de Dios. Un significado del término "santo" es ser apartado como perteneciente a Dios y separado de los caminos pecaminosos del mundo. *El término "santificar" significa apartar a una persona para el servicio de Dios.

Sugerencias de traducción

Las formas de traducir "separar" podrían incluir "seleccionar especialmente" o "separarse de usted" o "separar para realizar una tarea especial". Para "ser apartado" se podría traducir como "ser separado

Ver también: holy, holiness sanctify, sanctification appoint, appointed

Aarón

Aarón fue el hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para que sea el primer sumo sacerdote de Israel. Aaron ayudó a Moisés a hablar a Faraón sobre dejar ir libres a los israelitas. Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. *Dios también ungió a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes [sacerdotes] (../kt/priest.md) para el pueblo de Israel.

Ver tambien: priest, priesthood Moses Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

Vestir, vestirse

Cuando se usa figurativamente en la Biblia, "vestirse con" significa estar dotado o equipado con algo. "Vestir" a uno mismo con algo significa buscar tener una cierta calidad de carácter.

De la misma manera en que la ropa es externa a su cuerpo y es visible para todos, cuando está "vestido" con cierta calidad de carácter, otros pueden verlo fácilmente. "Vestirse con amabilidad" significa dejar que sus acciones se caractericen por la amabilidad de manera que todos puedan verla fácilmente. Estar "vestido con poder de lo alto" significa que se le otorgue poder. *Este término también se usa para expresar experiencias negativas, como "vestido con vergüenza" o "vestido con terror"

Sugerencias de traducción

Si es posible, es mejor mantener la figura literal del discurso, "vístanse con". Otra forma de traducir esto podría ser "ponerse" si esto se refiere a ponerse ropa. Si eso no da el significado correcto, otras formas de traducir "vestidas con" podrían ser "mostrar" o "manifestar" o "llenar con" o "tener la calidad de". *El término "vestirse con" también podría traducirse como "cubrirse con" o "comportarse de una manera que se muestre".

Hijo, hijo de

El término "hijo" se refiere a un niño u hombre en relación con sus padres. Puede referirse a la descendencia masculina de alguien o a un hijo adoptado. "Hijo" se usa a menudo en forma figurada en la Biblia para referirse a cualquier descendiente masculino, como un nieto o bisnieto. El término "hijo" también se puede usar como una forma de dirección cortés para un niño o joven que es más joven. Algunas veces, los "hijos de Dios" se usan en el Nuevo Testamento para referirse a los creyentes en Cristo. Dios llama a Israel su "hijo primogénito". Esto se refiere a la elección de Dios de que la nación de Israel sea su pueblo especial. Es a través de ellos que vino el mensaje de Dios de redención y salvación, con el resultado de que muchas otras personas se han convertido en sus hijos espirituales. La frase "hijo de" a menudo tiene el significado figurativo, "tiene las características de". Ejemplos de esto incluyen, "hijos de la luz", "hijos de desobediencia", "hijo de paz" e "hijos del trueno". La frase "hijo de" también se usa para decir quién es el padre de una persona. Esta frase se usa en genealogías y en muchos otros lugares. Usar "hijo de" para dar el nombre del padre con frecuencia ayuda a distinguir a las personas que tienen el mismo nombre. Por ejemplo, "Azarías, hijo de Sadoc" y "Azarías, hijo de Natán" en 1 Reyes 4, y "Azarías, hijo de Amasías en 2 Reyes 15 son tres hombres diferentes.

Sugerencias de traducción

En la mayoría de las apariciones de este término, es mejor traducir "hijo" usando el término literal en el lenguaje que se usa para referirse a un hijo. Al traducir el término "Hijo de Dios", se debe utilizar el término común del lenguaje de proyecto para "hijo". Cuando se usa para referirse a un descendiente en lugar de a un hijo directo, el término "descendiente" se podría usar, como para referirse a Jesús como el "descendiente de David" o en genealogías donde a veces "hijo" se refiere a un descendiente masculino, no a un descendiente masculino. hijo actual A veces, "hijos" se puede traducir como "niños", cuando se hace referencia tanto a hombres como a mujeres. Por ejemplo, "hijos de Dios" podría traducirse como "hijos de Dios", ya que esta expresión también incluye niñas y mujeres. *La expresión figurativa "hijo de" también podría traducirse como "alguien que tiene las características de" o "alguien que es como" o "alguien que tiene" o "alguien que actúa como".

Ver también: Azariah descendant, descended from ancestor, father, forefather firstborn Son of God, the Son, Son sons of God

Leviticus 8:31

La canasta de consagración

Esto significa que la canasta contiene las ofrendas utilizadas al consagrar a Aarón y sus hijos. Traducción alterna: "la canasta"

Como yo lo he ordenado, diciendo, 'Aarón y sus hijos lo comerán.'

Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede indicarse como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "como te ordené que hicieras"

Hasta que los días de su ordenación estén completos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "hasta que cumpla con los días de su ordenación"

Ordenación
Esta es una ceremonia oficial que hace a alguien un sacerdote. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 8:28.

Hagan para expiación por ustedes.
El sustantivo abstracto "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "para expiar tus pecados"

Esto es lo que me han ordenado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "esto es lo que me ha ordenado"

Leviticus 8:34

Lo que se ha hechos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nosotros para hacer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 En el octavo día, Moisés llamó a Aarón, a sus hijos y a los ancianos de Israel. 2 Él le dijo a Aarón: "Toma un becerro del rebaño para una ofrenda por el pecado, y un cordero sin mancha para una ofrenda quemada, y ofrécelos ante el SEÑOR. 3 Tú debes hablarle a la gente de Israel y decirles: 'Tomen un macho cabrío para ofrenda por el pecado y un becerro y un ternero, ambos de un año de edad y sin mancha, para una ofrenda quemada; 4 también toma un buey y un cordero para la ofrenda de paz para sacrificarlos ante el SEÑOR, y una ofrenda de grano mezclada con aceite, porque hoy el SEÑOR se aparecerá ante ustedes.'" 5 Así que ellos trajeron todo lo que Moisés ordenó a la tienda de reunión, y toda la asamblea de Israel se acercó y se paró ante el SEÑOR. 6 Entonces Moisés dijo: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR les ordena a ustedes hacer, para que Su gloria pueda aparecer ante ustedes." 7 Moisés le dijo a Aarón: "Ven cerca del altar y ofrece tu ofrenda por el pecado y tu ofrenda quemada. y haz expiación por ti mismo y por la gente, y ofrece el sacrificio por la gente para hacer expiación por ellos, como el SEÑOR ha ordenado." 8 Entonces Aarón fue cerca del altar y mató al becerro para la ofrenda por el pecado, la cual era para sí mismo. 9 Los hijos de Aarón le presentaron a él la sangre, y él mojó su dedo en ella y la puso en los cuernos del altar; entonces él regó la sangre en la base del altar. 10 Sin embargo, él quemó la grasa, los riñones, y el hígado en el altar como una ofrenda por el pecado, tal como el SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 11 La carne y el cuero, él los quemó fuera del campamento. 12 Aarón mató la ofrenda quemada, y sus hijos le dieron a él la sangre, la cual él salpicó sobre cada lado del altar. 13 Entonces ellos le dieron a él la ofrenda quemada, pedazo por pedazo, junto con la cabeza, y él los quemó en el altar. 14 Él lavó las partes interiores y las piernas y las quemó encima de la ofrenda quemada en el altar. 15 Aarón presentó el sacrificio de la gente el macho cabrío, entonces lo tomó como el sacrificio por su pecado y lo mató; él lo sacrificó por el pecado, como él había hecho con la primera cabra. 16 Él presentó la ofrenda quemada y la ofreció como el SEÑOR había ordenado. 17 Él presentó la ofrenda de grano; él llenó su mano con ella y la quemó en el altar, junto con las ofrendas quemadas de la mañana. 18 Él mató al buey y al cordero, el sacrificio de la ofrenda de paz, la cual era para la gente. Los hijos de Aarón le dieron a él la sangre, la cual él salpicó a cada lado del altar. 19 Sin embargo, ellos cortaron la grasa del toro y del cordero, la grasa del rabo, la grasa que cubre las partes internas, los riñones, y el hígado. 20 Ellos tomaron las partes que fueron cortadas y pusieron estas con los pechos, y entonces Aarón quemó la grasa en el altar. 21 Aarón meció los pechos y el muslo derecho como una ofrenda mecida ante el SEÑOR, como Moisés había ordenado. 22 Entonces Aarón levantó sus manos hacia la gente y los bendijo; entonces él bajó de ofrecer la ofrenda por el pecado, la ofrenda quemada, y la ofrenda de paz. 23 Moisés y Aarón entraron en la tienda de reunión, entonces salieron otra vez y bendijeron a la gente, y la gloria del SEÑOR se le apareció a toda la gente. 24 Fuego salió del SEÑOR y consumió la ofrenda quemada y la grasa en el altar. Cuando toda la gente vió esto, ellos gritaron y se hincaron cara al suelo

---

Leviticus 9:1

la octava noche
La palabra "octava" es un número ordinal para ocho.

ante El Señor
"al Señor" o "en la presencia del Señor"

Leviticus 9:3

Información General:
Moisés continua hablando a Aaron.

Debes hablar a la gente de Israel y decir, 'Toma un chivo ... aparecerá a ti Moises continua hablando con Aaron. Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede ser fijada como una cita inderecta. Traducción alterna: "Y dí a la gente de Israel para tomar un chivo... aparecerá a todas las personas"

un año de edad
"doce meses de edad"

para sacrificar ante Yahvé
"para sacrificar para Yahvé"

Leviticus 9:6

ordenado para que ustedes hagan
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a la gente de Israel.

de tal manera que su gloria pueda apareder para ustedes Aquí "gloria" representa la presencia del Señor. Traducción alterna: "de tal manera que el pueda mostrarles la gloria de su presencia"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hacer expiación para ustedes mismos y para la gente ... ofrezcan el sacrificio para la gente para la expiación para ellos Estos son dos sacrificios diferentes. El primer sacrificio es para expiar por los pecados del sumo sacerdote. Cuando el sumo sacerdote peca también hace que la gente sea culpable (Ver: 4:1). El segundo sacrificio es para expiar los pecados cometidos por la gente.

Leviticus 9:8

los hijos de Aaron presentaron la sangre a él Esto implica que ellos juntaron la sangre en un tazón que era derramada del animal. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

cuernos del altar
Esto se refiere a los cuernos del altar. Tienen forma de cuernos de un buey. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 4:6.

en la base del altar
"en la parte inferior del altar"

Leviticus 9:10

el quemó
"Aaron quemó"

riñones ... hígado
Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 3:3.

la piel
Esto es la capa o la piel de un rebaño de animales. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 7:7

Leviticus 9:12

sus hijos le dieron la sangre
Esto implica que los hijos juntaron la sangre derramada del animal en un tazón. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

partes interiores
partes interiores - Esto es el estómago y los intestinos.Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1:7.

Leviticus 9:15

el primer chivo
La palabra "pimer" es un número ordinal para uno. Traducción alterna: "el chivo para su propio sacrificio"

junto con el holocausto
Esto se refiere al primer sacrificio de cada día. Los sacerdotes ofrecerían este sacrificio quemado en la mañana antes de cualquier otro sacrificio. El significado real de esta declaración puede hacerse explícita.

Leviticus 9:18

El mató
"Aaron mató"

Los hijos de Aaron le dieron la sangre
Se da a entender que la sangre estaba en un tazón. El significado real de esta declaración puede hacerse explícita.

partes internas
Esto es el estómago y los intestinos. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1:7.

riñones ... hígado
Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 3:3.

Leviticus 9:20

Ellos tomaron las partes
"Los hijos de Aaron tomaron las partes"

pusieron estas
La palabra "estas" se refiere a la grasa y las partes internas mencionadas anteriormente.

los pechos
Esta es la parte frontal debajo del cuello del cuerpo del animal. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 7:28.

muslo derecho
Esta es la parte superior de la pierna sobre la rodilla. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 7:31.

ante el Señor
"al Señor"

Leviticus 9:22

Entonces él bajó
La frase "se bajó" es usada porque el lugar del altar estaba más alto que de donde la gente estaba parada.

la gloria del Señor se le apareció a toda la gente Aquí "gloria" representa la presencia del Señor. Traducción alterna: "El Señor mostró la gloria de su presencia a toda la gente"

Fuego salió de el Señor y consumió
"El Señor envió un fuego que consumió"

consumió la ofrenda quemada
Se habla de que el fuego consume completamente el sacrificio como si el fuego consumiera o agotado el holocausto.

yacía boca abajo
"acostados con sus caras al suelo." Esto es una señal de respeto y honor.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 Nadab y Abiú, hijos de Aarón, cada uno tomó su incensario, pusieron fuego en él y luego incienso. Después ellos ofrecieron fuego no aprobado ante el SEÑOR, lo cual Él no le había ordenado a ellos ofrendar. 2 Así que fuego salió delante del SEÑOR y los consumió a ellos y ellos murieron ante el SEÑOR. 3 Entonces Moisés le dijo a Aarón: "Esto es lo que el SEÑOR estaba hablando cuando Él dijo: 'Yo les revelaré mi santidad a aquellos que se acercan a Mí. Seré glorificado delante de todo el pueblo.'" Aarón no dijo nada. 4 Moisés llamó a Misael y a Elzafán, los hijos de Usiel, el tío de Aarón, y les dijo: "Vengan aquí y cargen a sus hermanos fuera del campamento de delante del tabernáculo." 5 Así que, ellos se acercaron y los cargaron, todavía vistiendo sus túnicas sacerdotales, fuera del campamento, como Moisés le había instruído. 6 Luego, Moisés le dijo a Aarón y a Eleazar y a Itamar, sus hijos: "No permitan que los cabellos en sus cabezas estén sueltos, y no se rasguen sus vestiduras, para que no se mueran y para que el SEÑOR no se enoje con toda la asamblea. Pero permitan que sus parientes, la casa entera de Israel, lloren por aquellos que el fuego del SEÑOR ha incendiado. 7 Ustedes no podrán salir por la entrada de la tienda de reunión, o morirás, ya que el aceite ungido del SEÑOR está sobre ustedes." Así que ellos actuaron de acuerdo a las intrucciones de Moisés. 8 El SEÑOR habló a Aarón, diciendo: 9 "No beban vino o bebida fuerte, tú o tus hijos, quienes permanecen contigo, cuando entren a la tienda de reunión, para que así no mueran. Esto será un mandamiento permanente a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo, 10 para distinguir entre lo santo y lo común, y entre lo impuro y lo puro, 11 para que le puedas enseñar al pueblo de Isarel todos los mandamiento que el SEÑOR ha ordenado a través de Moisés." 12 Moisés habló a Aarón y a Eleazar y a Itamar, sus últimos hijos: "Toma la ofrenda de granos que queda de las ofrendas al SEÑOR hechas por fuego, y cómela sin levadura junto al altar, pues esta es más santa. 13 Debes comértela en un lugar santo, porque es tu parte y la parte de tus hijos de la ofrenda al SEÑOR hecha por fuego, pues es lo que lo que me han ordenado decirles. 14 El pecho y la cadera que fueron agitados y presentados al SEÑOR, los debes comer en un lugar puro, aceptable para Dios. Tú y tus hijos e hijas contigo deberán comer esas porciones, ya que son dadas como tu parte y la parte de tus hijos fuera de los sacrificios de la ofrenda de paz del pueblo de Israel. 15 La cadera que es presentada y el pecho que es agitado deben ser traídos con las ofrendas de grasa hechas por fuego, para agitarlas ante el SEÑOR. Ellas serán siempre tu parte y la de tus hijos como el SEÑOR ha ordenado." 16 Entonces, Moisés preguntó por el macho cabrío para la ofrenda de pecado, y descubrió que ya estaba quemado. Así que él se molestó con Eleazar e Itamar, los últimos hijos de Aarón; y dijo: 17 "¿Por qué no se han comido la ofrenda de pecado en el área del tabernáculo, ya que es lo más sagrado, y ya que el SEÑOR la ha dado a ustedes para quitarle la maldad de la asamblea, y hacer expiación para ellos ante Él? 18 Miren, su sangre no fue traída dentro del tienda de reunión, así que ciertamente ustedes debieron habérsela comido en el área del tienda de reunión, como yo ordené." 19 Entonces Aarón contestó a Moisés: "Ves, hoy ellos han hecho sus ofrendas de pecado y sus ofrendas quemadas ante el SEÑOR, y esta cosa me ha pasado hoy. Si yo hubiese comido la ofrenda de pecado hoy, ¿hubiese sido agradable ante los ojos del SEÑOR?" 20 Cuando Moisés escuchó eso, él estuvo satisfecho.

Leviticus 10:1

incensario
un recipiente de metal poco profundo que los sacerdotes usaban para llevar carbones calientes o incienso

poner fuego en ella
"poner carbones encendidos en ella"

Después ellos ofrecieron fuego no aprobado ante el SEÑOR, lo cual Él no le había ordenado a ellos ofrendar
"Pero El Señor no aprobó su ofrenda porque no estaba de acuerdo con lo que Él les ordenó que ofrecieran"

fuego no aprobado ante el SEÑOR
"fuego no aprobado para El Señor"

Así que fuego salió delante del SEÑOR
"Entonces El Señor envió un fuego"

salió de delante del Señor
"salió de El Señor"

los devoró
Se habla de que el fuego quemó por completo a los hombres como si el fuego haya devorado o los haya terminado por completo.

murieron ante El Señor
"murieron en la presencia de El Señor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 10:3

"Esto es lo que el SEÑOR estaba hablando cuando Él dijo: 'Yo les revelaré mi santidad...delante de todo el pueblo.'"
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa se puede declarar como una cita indirecta. Traducción alterna: "De esto era de lo que hablaba El Señor cuando dijo que revelaría su santidad ... quienes se acercan a él, y que será glorificado... personas".

Revelaré mi santidad a los que se me acercan
La frase "los que se me acercan" se refiere a los sacerdotes que sirven al Señor. "Mostraré a los que se me acercan para servirme que soy santo" o "Los que se me acerquen a servirme deben tratarme como santo"

Me glorificaré ante toda la gente
Esta segunda parte de la declaración del Señor todavía concierne a los sacerdotes, quienes son los que se acercan al Señor. Esto puede sertraducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Deben glorificarme ante toda la gente" o "Deben honrarme en la presencia de toda la gente"

sus hermanos
Esto no quiere decir que fueran literalmente hermanos. Aquí "hermanos" significa parientes o primos.

Leviticus 10:5

Ellos se acercaron
''Entonces Misael y Elzafán se acercaron.''

los cargaron, todavía vistiendo sus túnicas sacerdotales CArgaron los cuerpos de Nadab y Abihu, los cuales todavía vestían sus túnicas sacerdotales.

No permitan que los cabellos en sus cabezas estén sueltos, y no se rasguen sus vestiduras
El Señor le esta diciendo a Aaron y a sus hijos que no muestren ningún signo exterior de duelo o de lamento.

Para que no se mueran
''Para que no vayan a morir.''

no se enoje con toda la asamblea Aquí ''asamblea'' se refiere a toda la congregación de Israel, no solo a un grupo de líderes. Traducción alterna: ''Que no se enoje con todo el pueblo de Israel''

La casa entera de Israel
Aquí ''casa'' representa al pueblo. Traducción alterna: '' Todo el pueblo de Israel''

Leviticus 10:8

Esto será
Aquí "Esto" se refiere a la orden para que los sacerdotes no beban vino o bebidas fuertes cuando entren a la Tienda de reunión.

Un estatuto permanente para las generaciones de tu pueblo
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:15.

distinguir
Puede comenzar una nueva oración aquí. "Debes hacer esto para que puedas distinguir"

entre lo santo y lo común
Los adjetivos nominales "lo santo" y "lo común" pueden ser expresados como adjetivos. Traducción alterna: "entre lo que es santo y lo que es común" o "entre lo que está dedicado a Dios y lo que es ordinario"

entre lo inmundo y lo limpio
Los adjetivos nominales "lo inmundo" y "lo limpio" pueden ser expresados como adjetivos. Traducción alterna: "entre lo que es impuro y lo que está limpio" o "entre lo que Dios no aceptará y lo que aceptará"

lo inmundo
Se habla de una persona o cosa que El Señor ha declarado que no es apta para tocar como si fueran físicamente impuras.

Lo limpio
Se habla de una persona o cosa que El Señor ha declarado que es apta para tocar como si fueran físicamente impuras.

Leviticus 10:12

las ofrendas al SEÑOR hechas por fuego Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las ofrendas quemadas para El Señor"

pues esta es más santa
"porque la ofrenda de grano es santísima"

pues es lo que lo que me han ordenado decirles Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "esto es lo que El Señor me ordenó que les dijera"

Leviticus 10:14

El pecho y la cadera que fueron agitados y presentados al SEÑOR Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El pecho y el muslo que una persona mecía y presentaba al Señor"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el pecho
la parte frontal del cuerpo del animal debajo del cuello

el muslo
la parte superior de la pierna por encima de la rodilla

un lugar puro
Se habla de un lugar adecuado para ser usado para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

ya que son dadas como tu parte Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "porque El Señor los ha dado como tu parte" tu parte y la de tus hijos Aquí "Tú" se refiere a Aaron.

serán siempre tu parte y la de tus hijos como el SEÑOR ha ordenado.
Traduzca esto para que se entienda que la porción pertenece a Aarón y sus hijos. Traducción alterna: "Esta parte siempre será para ti y tus hijos"

Leviticus 10:16

Ya estaba quemado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los sacerdotes lo habían quemado todo"

¿Por qué no se han comido ... ante Él?
Moisés usa una pregunta para reprender a Eleazar e Itamar. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "Deberías haber comido ... delante de Él".

ya que es lo más sagrado
"ya que la ofrenda por el pecado es santísima"

para quitarle la inquidad de la asamblea
Se habla de hacer que El Señor perdone al pueblo de Israel como si la iniquidad fuera un objeto que El Señor quita del pueblo.

ante Él
"en su presencia"

su sangre no fue traída
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no trajiste su sangre"

Leviticus 10:19

esta cosa me ha pasado hoy
Aarón se refiere a la muerte de sus dos hijos.

¿hubiese sido agradable ante los ojos del SEÑOR?
Estos sacrificios debían ser comidos con alegría y felicidad. Aarón usa una pregunta para enfatizar que al Señor no le complacería que él comiera los sacrificios ya que está triste por la muerte de sus hijos. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción alterna: "ciertamente, al Señor no le habría gustado".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y a Aarón, diciendo: 2 ''Habla al pueblo de Israel, diciendo: 'Estas son las cosas vivientes que ustedes puedan comer de entre todos los animales que están en la tierra. 3 Ustedes pueden comer cualquier animal que tenga pezuña dividida y que también mastica el bolo alimenticio. 4 Sin embargo, algunos animales, ya sea que mastiquen el bolo alimenticio o que tengan la pezuña dividida, no los debes comer, animales tales como el camello, porque mastica el bolo alimenticio pero no tiene la pezuña dividida. Así que el camello es impuro para ustedes. 5 Tambien el tejón de roca, porque mastica el bolo alimenticio pero no tiene pezuña dividida, tambien es impuro para ustedes. 6 El conejo, porque mastica el bolo alimenticio, pero no tiene pezuña dividida, es impuro para ustedes. 7 El cerdo, a pesar de que tiene la pezuña dividida, no mastica el bolo alimenticio, es impuro para ustedes. 8 Ustedes no deben comer ninguna de sus carnes, ni tocar sus cadáveres. Ellos son impuros para ustedes. 9 Los animales que viven en el agua que ustedes pueden comer son todos esos que tienen aletas y escamas, ya sean del océano o en los ríos. 10 Pero todas las criaturas vivientes que no tienen aletas y escamas en los océanos o ríos, incluyendo todo lo que se mueve en el agua y todas las criaturas vivas que están en el agua ellos deben ser detestadas por ustedes. 11 Ya que deben ser detestadas, ustedes no deben comer de su carne; también sus cadáveres deben ser detestados. 12 Todo lo que no tiene aletas o escamas en el agua debe ser detestado por ustedes. 13 Las aves que debes detestar y las que no pueden comer son estas; el águila, el buitre, 14 el milano, todo tipo de falcón, 15 todo tipo de cuervo, 16 el búho cornudo y la lechuza campestre, la gaviota, y cualquier clase de halcón. 17 Ustedes también deben detestar al pequeño búho y al gran búho, al cormorán, 18 el búho blanco y la lechuza común, el quebrantahuesos, 19 la cigueña, cualquier clase de garza, la abubilla, y también el murciélago. 20 Todos los insectos alados que caminan en cuatro patas serán detestables para ustedes. 21 Aún así, ustedes pueden comer cualquiera de los insectos voladores que también caminan en cuatro patas si estos tienen patas articuladas para saltar en el suelo. 22 Pueden comer también cualquier tipo de langosta, grillos, o saltamontes. 23 Pero todos los insectos voladores que tienen cuatro patas deben ser detestados por ustedes. 24 Ustedes serán impuros hasta el atardecer por estos animales si ustedes tocan el cadáver de uno de ellos. 25 Quien sea que recoja uno de sus cadáveres deben lavar su ropa y permanecerá impuro hasta el atardecer. 26 Cada animal que tenga una pezuña dividida que no esté completamente dividida o que no mastique el bolo alimenticio, es impuro para ustedes. Todo el que los toque será impuro. 27 Lo que sea que camine en sus garras de entre todos los animales que caminan en sus cuatro patas, ellos son impuros para ustedes. Quienquiera que toque tal cadáver estará impuro hasta el atardecer. 28 Quienquiera que recoja tal cadáver debe lavar sus ropas y será impuro hasta el atardecer. Estos animales serán impuros para ustedes. 29 De los animales que se arrastran en el suelo, estos son los animales que serán impuros para ustedes: el topo, la rata, toda clase de lagarto grande, 30 el geco, el lagarto monitor, el lagarto, reptiles y el camaleón. 31 De todos los animales que se arrastran, estos son los animales los cuales serán impuros para ustedes. Quienquiera que los toque cuando estén muertos será impuro hasta el atardecer. 32 Si alguno de ellos muere y cae sobre cualquier cosa, esa cosa será impura, sea que esté hecha de madera, paño, cuero, o saco. Lo que sea y para lo que sea su uso, debe ser puesto en agua; eso será impuro hasta el atardecer. Entonces será limpio. 33 Para toda vasija de barro dentro o sobre en la cual cualquier animal impuro cae, lo que sea que esté en la vasija será impuro, y ustedes deben destruir esa vasija. 34 Toda comida que es limpia y permitida ser comida, pero en la cual el agua de una vasija impura ha caído, entonces será impura. Todo lo que pueda ser bebido de tales vasijas será impuras. 35 Todo en lo que alguna parte del cadáver de un animal impuro caiga, entonces será impuro, sea en un horno o vasijas de cocinar. Deben ser rotas en pedazos. Es impuro y debe ser impuro para ustedes. 36 Una fuente o cisterna de donde se recoge agua se mantendrá limpia si tal criatura cae en ella. Pero si alguno tocara el cadáver de un animal impuro en el agua, él será impuro. 37 Si cualquier parte de un cadáver impuro cae sobre alguna semilla para plantío, esas semillas seguirán siendo limpias. 38 Pero si se pone agua en las semillas, y si cualquier parte de un cadáver impuro cae en ella, entonces serán impuras para ustedes. 39 Si algún animal que puedas comer muere, entonces quien toque el cadáver será impuro hasta el atardecer. 40 Quien coma algo de ese cadáver debe lavar sus ropas y será impuro hasta el atardecer. Quien levante tal cadáver lavará sus ropas y será impuro hasta el atardecer. 41 Todo animal que se arrastre en el suelo será detestado; no se podrá comer. 42 Lo que sea que se arrastre sobre su vientre, y lo que sea que camine en todas sus cuatro patas, o lo que tenga muchos pies- todos los animales que se arrastran en el suelo, estos no los deben comer, porque son para ser detestados. 43 Ustedes no se harán impuros a ustedes mismos con cada criatura viviente que se arrastre; ustedes no se harán a ustedes mismos impuros con ellos, que ustedes deban ser

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hechos impuros por ellos. 44 Porque Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. Ustedes se mantendrán a sí mismos santos, por lo tanto, sean santos, porque Yo soy santo. Ustedes no se deben contaminar a sí mismos con cualquier tipo de animal que se mueva en el suelo. 45 Porque Yo soy el SEÑOR, quien les trajo fuera de la tierra de Egipto, para ser tu Dios. Ustedes por lo tanto sean santos, porque Yo soy santo. 46 Esta es la ley acerca de los animales, las aves, toda criatura viviente que se mueve en las aguas, y toda criatura que se arrastra en el suelo, 47 para que se haga una distnción entre lo impuro y lo puro, y entre las cosas vivientes que se deben comer y las cosas vivientes que no se puedan comer.'"

Leviticus 11:1

entre todos los animales
"de todos los animales"

Leviticus 11:3

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

pezuña dividida
Esto significa un casco que se divide en dos partes en lugar de ser un todo.

mastiquen el bolo alimenticio
Esto significa un animal que saca su comida del estómago y la mastica nuevamente.

algunos animales, ya sea que mastiquen el bolo alimenticio o que tengan la pezuña dividida Es decir, tienen uno o el otro, pero no ambos.

el camello es inmundo para ustedes
Se dice que el camello no es apto para que las personas coman como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 11:5

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

tejón de roca
Un animal pequeño que vive en lugares rocosos.

impuro para ustedes
Se habla de estos animales que Dios declaró que no eran aptos para que las personas comieran como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

conejo
un animal pequeño con orejas largas que generalmente vive en agujeros en el suelo

ni tocar sus cadáveres
"ni tocar sus cadáveres"

Leviticus 11:9

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

aletas
la parte delgada y plana que el pez usa para moverse a través del agua

escamas
las pequeñas láminas que cubren el cuerpo del pez todas las criaturas vivientes que no tienen aletas y escamas en el océano o los ríos

"todas las criaturas que viven en el océano o los ríos que no tienen aletas y escamas"

deben ser detestados por ustedes
El Señor le ordena a la gente que rechace y desprecie el comer estas criaturas. Esto puede sertraducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes detestarlos" o "debes rechazarlos completamente"

Leviticus 11:11

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

Ya que deben ser detestados
"detestar" es rechazar y despreciar un objeto. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ya que debes detestarlos" o "Ya que debes rechazarlos completamente"

sus cadáveres deben ser detestados
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes detestar a sus cuerpos muertos" o "no debes tocar sus cuerpos muertos"

Todo lo que no tiene aletas o escamas en el agua
"Lo que está en el agua que no tiene aletas o escamas"

debe ser detestado por ustedes Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes detestar" o "debes rechazar completamente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 11:13

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

buitre ... milano... falcón... cuervo... búho cornudo... lechuza campestre... gaviota ... halcón
Estas son aves que están despiertas por la noche o que se alimentan de roedores y animales muertos.

Leviticus 11:17

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

pequeño búho ... gran búho... el cormorán... búho blanco... lechuza común ... quebrantahuesos(águila pescadora)... abubilla Estas son aves que comen roedores e insectos y están despiertas principalmente de noche.

el gran búho
"el búho grande"

cigüeña ... garza
Estas son aves que se alimentan de roedores y lagartos.

murciélago
Aunque no sea una ave, el murciélago está incluido en esta lista porque tiene alas y vuela. Tiene un cuerpo peludo y se despierta principalmente de noche. Come insectos y roedores.

Leviticus 11:20

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que permite que coman las personas y lo que les prohíbe comer.

Todos los insectos con alas (alados) que caminan en cuatro patas son detestables para ti
La palabra "detestable" se puede traducir con una frase verbal. Traducción alterna: "Detestarás a todos los insectos con alas que caminan sobre cuatro patas"

insectos que caminan sobre cuatro patas Aquí la frase "cuatro patas" es una expresión idiomática que significa arrastrarse por el suelo y diferencia a estos insectos de otros voladores, como las aves, que solo tienen dos pies. Traducción alterna: "insectos que se arrastran por el suelo" langosta, esperanzas, grillos, o saltamontes.

Estos son pequeños insectos que comen plantas y pueden saltar.

insectos voladores que tienen cuatro patas
"insectos voladores que tienen cuatro patas"

Leviticus 11:24

Información General:
El Señor comienza a decirle a Moisés y a Aarón qué animales deben considerar impuros para las personas.

Te volverás impuro hasta la noche por estos animales si tocas el cadáver de uno de ellos Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Los cuerpos muertos de estos animales te harán impuro si tocas alguno de ellos"

Te volverás impuro
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque ha tocado a uno de estos animales muertos como si la persona fuera físicamente impura.

estos animales
Esto se refiere a los animales que está a punto de enumerar en los siguientes versos.

Leviticus 11:26

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

Cada animal ... es inmundo para ustedes.
Se habla de estos animales que Dios declaró que no eran aptos para que las personas comieran como si estuvieran físicamente sucios.

pezuña dividida
Esto significa una pezuña que se divide en dos partes en lugar de ser un todo. Ver como se ha traducido estos en 11:3.

mastique el bolo alimenticio
Esto significa un animal que saca su comida del estómago y la mastica nuevamente. Ver como se ha traducido estos en 11:3.

Quienquiera que los toque estará impuro
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque ha tocado uno de estos animales como si fuera físicamente impuro.

patas pies de animales con garras

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 11:29

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

estos son los animales que serán impuros para ti
Se habla de estos animales que Dios declaró que no eran aptos para que las personas los tocaran o comieran como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

Comadreja
un animal pequeño con pelaje marrón que come aves y pequeños animales el geco, el lagarto monitor, el lagarto, el escinco y el camaleón.

Estos son diferentes tipos de reptiles con cuatro patas.

escinco
"lagartija de arena"

Leviticus 11:31

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

los animales los cuales serán impuros para ustedes
Se habla de estos animales que Dios declaró que no eran aptos para que las personas los tocaran o comieran como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

Quienquiera que los toque ... será impuro
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque ha tocado a uno de estos animales muertos como si fuera físicamente impuro.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

esa cosa será impura
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que la gente lo toque porque uno de estos animales muertos ha caído sobre él, como si fuera físicamente impuro. Se habla de que es físicamente limpio después de haber sido lavado.

entonces estará limpio
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado que es apto para que la gente lo toque después de haberlo lavado, como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

para lo que sea su uso, debe ser puesto en agua
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "y como lo uses, debes ponerlo en el agua"

Leviticus 11:34

Toda la comida que es limpia
Se habla de la comida que Dios ha declarado apta para que la gente coma, como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

y permitida ser comida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "para que comas"

entonces será impuro
Se habla de que la comida se vuelve inaceptable para que la gente la coma porque el agua sucia ha caído sobre ella, como si fuera físicamente impura.

pueda ser bebido
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "puedes beber"

del cadáver
"del cuerpo muerto"

Deben ser rotas en pedazos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Debes romperlo en pedazos" o "Debes destruirlo"

Leviticus 11:36

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

Una fuente o cisterna... se mantendrá limpia
Se habla del agua que las personas pueden beber de un manantial, fuente o de una cisterna, como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

cisterna de donde se recoge agua
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "una cisterna que recoge agua potable"

el cadáver de un animal impuro
Se habla del cuerpo muerto de un animal que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que la gente lo toque o coma como si fuera físicamente impuro.

él será impuro
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque ha tocado el cadáver de uno de estos animales como si fuera físicamente impuro.

semillas para plantío
"semillas que pretendes plantar"

esas semillas seguirán siendo limpias... entonces serán impuras Se habla de las semillas que Dios ha declarado aceptables para que las personas planten, como si

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

estuvieran físicamente limpias, y las que son inaceptables se mencionan como si fueran impuras.

si se pone agua en las semillas
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Pero si pones agua sobre las semillas"

Leviticus 11:39

quien toque el cadáver será impuro hasta el atardecer
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque toca el cuerpo de un animal muerto como si fuera físicamente impuro.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

Leviticus 11:41

Información general:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

será detestado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "debes detestar" o "debes rechazar"

no los deben comer
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "no debes comerlo"

son para ser detestados
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "tienes que detestarlos" o "debes rechazarlos"

Leviticus 11:43

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón cuáles son los animales que el pueblo debe considerar impuros.

no se harán a ustedes mismos impuros... ustedes deban ser hechos impuros por ellos
El Señor repite la misma idea dos veces para reforzar el mandato de que no deben comer ningún animal inmundo.

ustedes no se harán a ustedes mismos impuros
Se habla de una persona que es inaceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

que ustedes deban ser hechos impuros por ellos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "para que ya no seas puro a causa de ellos"

Leviticus 11:46

Información General:
El Señor termina de decirle a Moisés y a Aarón qué le permite comer a la gente y qué les prohíbe comer.

para que se haga una distinción
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "para lo cual debes distinguir entre"

entre lo inmundo y lo limpio
Se habla de animales que Dios declaró que no eran aptos para que las personas los tocaran o comieran como si fuesen físicamente inmundos, y se habla de aquellos que él declaró aceptables para que las personas los tocaran y comieran como si fuesen físicamente limpios.

que se deben comer... que no se puedan comer
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "para que comas ... para que no comas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: 2 "Háblale al pueblo de Israel, diciendo: 'Si una mujer concibe y da a luz un hijo varón, entonces ella estará inmunda por siete días, tal como cuando ella está impura durante los días de su período mensual. 3 En el octavo día la carne del prepucio del bebé tiene que ser cortada. 4 Entonces la purificación de la madre de su sangrado continuará por treinta y tres días. Ella no deberá tocar ninguna cosa santa o entrar al área del tienda de reunión hasta que los días de su purificación estén terminados. 5 Pero si ella da a luz a una niña, entonces ella estará impura por dos semanas, como cuando está en su período. Entonces la purificación de la madre continuará por sesenta y seis días. 6 Cuando los días de la purificación hayan terminado, por un hijo o por una hija, ella debe traer un cordero de un año de edad como una ofrenda quemada, y una paloma jóven o tórtola como una ofrenda de pecado, a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, al sacerdote. 7 Entonces él lo ofrecerá ante el SEÑOR y hará expiación por ella, y ella será limpiada del flujo de su sangre. Esta es la ley acerca de una mujer que de a luz a un varón o a una niña. 8 Si ella no es capaz de comprar un cordero, entonces ella debe llevar dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes, uno como una ofrenda quemada y otro como una ofrenda por el pecado, y el sacerdote hará expiación por ella; entonces ella será limpia.'"

Leviticus 12:1

ella estará inmunda
Se habla de una mujer a la que otras personas no deben tocar porque está en su periodo menstrual como si fuera físicamente impura.

durante los días de su período mensual
Esto se refiere a la época del mes en que una mujer sangra de su vientre.

la carne del prepucio del bebé tiene que ser circunsidada Solo el sacerdote podría realizar esta acción. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "un sacerdote debe circuncidar al niño"

Leviticus 12:4

la purificación de la madre de su sangrado continuará durante treinta y tres días Esto significa que la madre permanecerá impura durante treinta y tres días.

treinta y tres días
"33 días"

entonces ella estará inmunda por dos semanas
Se habla de una mujer a la que otras personas no deben tocar porque está en su periodo menstrual como si fuera físicamente impura.

por dos semanas
"por 14 días"

cuando está en su período
Esto se refiere a la época del mes en que una mujer sangra de su vientre. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 12:1.

sesenta y seis días
"66 días"

Leviticus 12:6

Cuando los días de la purificación hayan terminado
"Cuando terminen los días de la purificación de la madre"

por un hijo o por una hija
Esto se refiere a la diferente número de días para la purificación en base a si ella dio a luz a un hijo o hija.

Leviticus 12:7

y ella será limpiada del flujo de su sangre
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y esto la limpiará de la hemorragia que se produce durante el parto"

Si ella no es capaz de comprar un cordero Traduzca esto para que aclare la incapacidad de la mujer para comprar un animal para sacrificio. Traducción alterna: "Si no tiene dinero suficiente para comprar un cordero"

entonces ella será limpia
Se habla de una mujer a la que otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y a Aarón diciendo: 2 "Cuando alguien tiene en la piel de su cuerpo una hinchazón o costra o una mancha brillosa y se vuelve infectado y hay una enfermedad de la piel en su cuerpo, entonces él debe ser llevado a Aarón el alto sacerdote, o a uno de sus hijos, los sacerdotes. 3 Luego el sacerdote va a examinar la enfermedad de la piel de su cuerpo. Si el pelo en el lugar se ha vuelto blanco, y si la enfermedad parece ser más profunda que simplemente en la piel, entonces es una enfermedad infecciosa. Después que el sacerdote lo examine, él debe pronunciarse a sí mismo como impuro. 4 Si la mancha brillosa en su piel es blanca, y la aparencia de la misma no es más profunda que la piel y si el pelo en el lugar de la enfermedad no se ha puesto blanco, entonces el sacerdote debe aislar a el de la enfermedad por siete días. 5 En el séptimo día, el sacerdote debe examinarlo a él para ver en su opinión si la enfermedad no ha empeorado, y si no se ha extendido en la piel. Si no, entonces el sacerdote debe aislarlo siete días más. 6 El sacerdote lo va a examinar otra vez en el séptimo día para ver si la enfermedad ha mejorado y si no se ha extendido más allá en la piel. Si no, entonces el sacerdote lo va a pronunciar a él como limpio. Es una erupción en la piel. Él debe lavar su ropa, y luego él está limpio. 7 Pero si la erupción se ha extendido en la piel después que él se había enseñado él mismo al sacerdote para su limpieza, él debe entonces presentarse al sacerdote otra vez. 8 El sacerdote lo va a examinar a él para ver si la erupción se ha extendido más allá en la piel. Si se ha regado, entonces el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro. Es una enfermedad infecciosa. 9 Cuando una enfermedad infecciosa de la piel está en alguien, entonces él debe ser llevado al sacerdote. 10 El sacerdote va a examinarlo a él para ver si hay una hinchazón blanca en la piel, si el pelo se ha vuelto blanco o si hay carne cruda en la hinchazón. 11 Si lo hay, entonces es una enfermedad crónica de la piel, y el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro. No lo va a aislar, porque él ya es impuro. 12 Si la enfermedad brota ampliamente en la piel y cubre toda la piel de la persona con la enfermedad desde la cabeza hasta los pies, en lo que le parece al sacerdote, 13 entonces el sacerdote debe examinarlo a él para ver si la enfermedad ha cubierto todo su cuerpo. Si lo ha hecho, entonces el sacerdote debe pronunciar a la persona quien tiene la enfermedad como pura. Si todo está se ha vuelto blanco, entonces él es puro. 14 Pero si carne cruda aparece en él, él va a ser impuro. 15 El sacerdote debe mirar la carne cruda y pronunciarlo a él como impuro porque la carne cruda es impura. Es una enfermedad infecciosa. 16 Pero si la carne cruda se vuelve blanca otra vez, entonces la persona tiene que ir con el sacerdote. 17 El sacerdote debe examinarlo a él para ver si la carne se ha vuelto blanca. Si lo ha hecho entonces el sacerdote debe declarar a la persona pura. 18 Cuando una persona tiene una úlcera en la piel y ha sanado, 19 y en el lugar de la úlcera hay una inchazón blanca o una mancha brillante, blanca--rojiza, entonces debe ser mostrado al sacerdote. 20 El sacrdote lo va a examinar para ver si aparece más profundo de la piel, y si su pelo se ha vuelto blanco. Si lo ha hecho, el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro. Es una enfermedad infecciosa, si se ha desarrollado en un lugar donde la úlcera estaba. 21 Pero si el sacerdote la examina y ve que no hay pelos blanco en ella y que no está bajo la piel pero se ha desvanecido, entonces el sacerdote debe aislarlo a él por siete días. 22 Si se esparce ampliamente en la piel, entones el sacerdote debe declararlo como impuro. 23 Pero si la mancha brillante se queda en su lugar y no se ha regado, entonces es una cicatriz de la úlcera y el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como puro. 24 Cuando la piel tiene una quemadura y la carne cruda de la quemadura se ha convertido blanca rojiza o mancha blanca, 25 entonces el sacerdote va a examinarlo para ver si el pelo en la mancha se ha vuelto blanco y si aparece ser más profunda que la piel. Si lo ha hecho, entonces es una enfermedad infecciosa. Se ha extendido en la quemadura y el sacerdote debe declararlo como impuro. Es una enfermedad infecciosa. 26 Pero si el sacerdote lo examina y encuentra que no hay pelos blanco en la mancha, y que no está debajo de la piel pero se ha desvanecido, entonces el sacerdote debe aislarlo a él por siete días. 27 Entonces e sacerdote debe examinarlo en el séptimo día. Si se ha extendido ampliamente en la piel, entonces el sacerdote debe declararlo a él como impuro. Es una enfermedad infecciosa. 28 Si la mancha se queda en su lugar y no se ha extendido pero se ha desvanecido, entonces es una hinchazón de la quemadura y el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo como puro, pues no es nada más que la cicatriz de la quemadura. 29 Si un hombre o mujer tiene una enfermedad infecciosa en su cabeza o barbilla, 30 entonces el sacerdote debe examinar a la persona para una enfermedad infecciosa para ver si aparece más profunda que la piel, y si hay pelos finos amarillos en él. Si lo hay, entonces el sacerdote debe declararlo a él como impuro. Es una picazón, una enfermedad infecciosa en su cabeza o barbilla. 31 Si el sacerdote examina la enfermedad de picazón y ve que no es debajo de la piel y que no hay pelo negro en él, entonces el sacerdote va a aislar a la persona con la enfermedad de picazón por siete días. 32 En el séptimo día el sacerdote va a examinar la enfermedad para ver si se ha extendido. Si no hay pelos amarillos y si la enfermedad sólo aparece en la

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

piel, 33 entonces él debe ser afeitado pero el lugar de la enfermedad no puede ser afeitado y el sacerdote debe aislar a la persona con la enfermedad de picazón por siete días más. 34 En el séptimo día el sacerdote va a examinar la enfermedad para ver si ha dejado de extenderse en la piel. Si no aparece ser más profunda que la piel, entonces el sacerdote debe declararlo como puro. La persona debe lavar su ropa y entonces él será puro. 35 Pero si la enfermedad de picazón se ha extendido ampliamente en la piel después que el sacerdote dijo que él estaba limpio, 36 entonces el sacerdote debe examinarlo a él otra vez. Si la enfermedad se ha regado en la piel, el sacerdote no necesita buscar por pelos amarillos. La persona es impura. 37 Pero si en la vista del sacerdote la enfermedad de picazón ha dejado de extenderse y pelo negro ha crecido en el lugar, entonces la enfermedad ha sanado. Él es puro, y el sacerdote debe declararlo como puro. 38 Si un hombre o mujer tiene manchas blancas en la piel, 39 entonces el sacerdote debe examinar a la persona para ver si las manchas son blanca opaco, cual es solamente una erupción que ha salido en la piel. Él está puro. 40 Si el pelo de un hombre se le ha caido de la cabeza, él es calvo pero el está limpio. 41 Si su pelo se ha caído de la parte de en frente de la cabeza y su frente está calva, él está limpio. 42 Pero si hay una llaga rojiza-blanca en su cabeza calva o frente, esto es una enfermedad infecciosa que ha brotado. 43 Entonces, el sacerdote debe examinarlo a él para ver si la hinchazón del área de la enfermedad en su cabeza calva o frente es rojiza-blanca, como la apariencia de una enfermedad infecciosa en la piel. 44 Si lo es, entonces él tiene una enfermedad infecciosa y él es impuro. El sacerdote debe seguramente declarado a él impuro por la enfermedad en su cabeza. 45 La persona que tiene una enfermedad infecciosa debe usar ropa rasgada, su pelo debe colgar holgamente, y él debe cubrir su cara hasta su nariz y gritar: 'Impuro, impuro.' 46 Todos los días que él tenga la enfermedad infecciosa él estará impuro. Porque él es impuro con una enfermedad que puede extendersse, él debe vivir solo. Él debe vivir fuera del campamento. 47 Una prenda que es contaminada con plaga de lepra, sea lana o prenda de lino, 48 o lo que sea entrelazado o tejido de lana o lino, o cuero o cualquier cosa hecha con cuero 49 si hay una contaminación verdoza o rojiza en la prenda, el cuero, el material trenzado o tejido, o cualquier cosa hecha de cuero, entonces es lepra que se riega; debe ser mostrado al sacerdote 50 El sacerdote debe examinar la prenda por si hay plaga; él debe aislar cualquier cosa que tenga plaga por siete días. 51 Él debe examinar la lepra otra vez en el séptimo día. Si se ha extendido en la prenda o lo que sea trenzada o tejida de lana o material de lino, o cuero o cualquier cosa en la cual el cuero es usado, entonces es lepra dañina y los artículos son impuros. 52 Él debe quemar la prenda, o cualquier cosa que sea trenzada o tejida de material de lana o lino, o cuero cualquier cosa que sea hecha con cuero, cualquier cosa en lo cual se encuentre plaga dañina, pues puede conducir a una enfermedad. La prenda debe ser quemada completamente. 53 Si el sacerdote examina las prendas y ve que la plaga no se ha extendido en las prendas o material trenzado o tejido de tela o lino, o productos de cuero, 54 entonces él va a ordenarles a ellos a limpiar las prendas en los cuales se encontró lepra, y él debe aislarlo por siete días más. 55 Entonces el sacerdote examinará las prendas después que la prenda fue lavada. Si la plaga no cambió su color, aunque no se haya extendido, es impura. Tú debes quemar la prenda, sin importar donde la plaga la ha contaminado. 56 Si el sacerdote examina la prenda y ve que la plaga se ha descolorado después que fue lavado, entonces él debe romper la parte contaminada de la prenda o del cuero, o del material trenzado o tejido. 57 Si la plaga todavía aparece en la prenda, sea en el material trenzado o tejido, o en cualquier cosa que sea hecha de cuero, se está extendiendo. Tú debes quemar cualquier prenda que tenga plaga 58 La prenda o todo lo que sea trenzado o tejido, o cuero o cualquier cosa hecha con cuero si tu lavas el artículo y la plaga se va, entonces el artículo debe ser lavado una segunda vez y va a ser puro. 59 Esta es la ley sobre la plaga en una prenda de lana o lino o cualquier cosa que sea de material trenzado o tejido, o cuero o lo que sea hecho con cuero, para que ustedes puedan pronunciarlo como puro o impuro."

Leviticus 13:1

entonces él debe ser llevado
Esto pueder ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "entonces alguien debe traerlo"

a uno de sus hijos
"a uno de los hijos de Aarón"

Leviticus 13:3

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

piel de su cuerpo
Aquí "su" se refiere a la persona con la enfermedad de la piel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

enfermedad infectuosa
una enfermedad que puede propagarse fácilmente de una persona a otra

debe declararlo impuro
"el sacerdote debe declarar impuro al hombre". Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

por siete días
"por 7 días"

Leviticus 13:5

el sacerdote debe examinarlo
Aquí "examinarlo" se refiere a la persona con la enfermedad de la piel.

si no se ha regado en la piel
Esto significa que si la enfermedad de la piel no ha aumentado de tamaño o se ha movido a otras partes del cuerpo.

séptimo día
"Séptimo" es el número ordinal para 7. Traducción alterna: "7mo día"

siete días
"7 días"

el sacerdote lo va a pronunciar a él como limpio... luego él está limpio.
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

erupción
Esta es una parte de la piel que está irritada, pero la erupción no se propagará a otras personas.

Leviticus 13:7

él ... él mismo
Esto se refiere a la persona con la enfermedad de la piel.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

enfermedad infectuosa
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

Leviticus 13:9

él debe ser llevado al sacerdote
Los sacerdotes determinaban si una enfermedad se estaba extendiendo. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "alguien debe llevarlo al sacerdote"

si hay carne cruda en la hinchazón Aquí, "carne cruda" podría referirse a heridas abiertas en la piel o podría referirse a una nueva piel que ha crecido, pero el área que la rodea todavía está enferma. Cualquiera de los dos indica que la enfermedad de la piel no se está curando adecuadamente.

enfermedad crónica de la piel
Esta es una enfermedad que continúa o vuelve a aparecer durante un largo período de tiempo.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro... ya es impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 13:12

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

el sacerdote debe pronunciar a la persona... pura... será impuro
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio y se menciona al hombre a quien otras personas no deben tocar como si estuviera físicamente inmundo.

Leviticus 13:15

El sacerdote debe... pronunciarlo a él como impuro porque la carne cruda es impura
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Aquí "él" se refiere a la persona con la enfermedad de la piel.

carne cruda
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:9.

enfermedad infecciosa
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

el sacerdote debe pronunciar a la persona pura.
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 13:18

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

úlcera
un área dolorosa en la piel que está infectada

entonces debe ser mostrado al sacerdote Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "entonces debe mostrarlo al sacerdote"

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 13:21

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

la examina
Aquí "la" se refiere a la hinchazón blanca o punto brillante en la piel.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como limpio
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 13:24

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

enfermedad infecciosa
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 13:26

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

lo examina
Aquí "lo" se refiere a la quemadura en la piel de la persona.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

enfermedad infecciosa
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo como puro
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 13:29

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como impuro
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 13:31

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

Leviticus 13:32

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

entonces él debe ser afeitado pero el lugar de la enfermedad no puede ser afeitado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la persona debe afeitarse el cabello cerca de la llaga, pero no el vello en la llaga"

Leviticus 13:34

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

la enfermedad
Aquí "la enfermedad" se refiere a la enfermedad en la cabeza o el mentón de la persona.

el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como puro... entonces él será puro
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 13:35

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

después de que el sacerdote dijo que él estaba limpio... Él es puro, y el sacerdote debe pronunciarlo a él como puro
Se habla del hombre a quien otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

La persona es impura
Se habla del hombre al que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 13:38

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

son blanca opaca
"un blanco descolorido"

erupción
Traduzca esta palabra de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:5.

Él está puro
"Esa persona esta limpia"

Él está puro
Se habla de la persona que otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Leviticus 13:40

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

él está limpio
Se habla de la persona que otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Leviticus 13:42

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

enfermedad infecciosa
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

él es impuro... pronunciarlo a él impuro
Se habla de la persona a la que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

Leviticus 13:45

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien tiene una enfermedad de la piel.

fuera del campamento
El campamento es el área donde vivía la mayoría de los israelitas. A la persona impura no se le permitía vivir entre ellos porque su enfermedad podría propagarse a otros.

Impuro, impuro
se habla de la persona a la que otras personas no deben tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

Leviticus 13:47

Una prenda que es contaminada con moho
"Una prenda que tiene moho en ella" o "Una prenda que haya desarrollado moho" contaminado

volverse impuro porque se le ha añadido algo dañino

moho
un hongo, a menudo de color blanco, que crece sobre cosas que están húmedas o mojadas

o lo que sea entrelazado o tejido de lana o lino Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "o cualquier cosa que alguien haya tejido o tricotado"

si hay una contaminación verdosa o rojiza en la prenda
"si hay moho verdoso o rojizo en la prenda"

cualquier cosa hecha con cuero Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "todo lo que alguien hizo de cuero"

debe ser mostrado al sacerdote
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el dueño debe mostrarlo a un sacerdote" (UDB)

Leviticus 13:50

siete días
"7 días"

séptimo día
"séptimo" es el número ordinal para 7. Traducción alterna: "7mo. día"

cualquier cosa en la cual el cuero es usado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cualquier cosa en la que una persona use cuero"

cualquier cosa en lo cual se encuentre moho dañino Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cualquier cosa en la que encuentre un moho perjudicial"

los artículos son impuros
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que la gente lo toque como si fuera físicamente impuro.

pues puede conducir a una enfermedad
El moho dañino puede causar enfermedad en una persona que entra en contacto con el artículo.

El artículo debe ser quemado completamente Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debe quemar el objeto por completo" (Ver:

Leviticus 13:53

entonces él va a ordenarles a ellos
"entonces el sacerdote ordenará a los dueños" Aquí el sacerdote le dice a la gente qué hacer con los artículos del hogar que posiblemente fueron infectados.

en los cuales se encontró moho Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "en el que encontraron el moho" después que el artículo mohoso fue lavado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "después de lavar el artículo con moho"

es impuro
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que la gente lo toque como si fuera físicamente impuro.

tú debes quemar el artículo
Aquí "tú" no se refiere específicamente al sacerdote. Simplemente significa que alguien debe quemar el objeto.

Leviticus 13:56

después que fue lavado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "después de que el dueño lo lavó"

Tú debes quemar
Aquí "tú" no se refiere específicamente al sacerdote. Simplemente significa que alguien debe quemar el artículo.

si tu lavas el artículo Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si el dueño lo lava" entonces el artículo debe ser lavado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "entonces el dueño debe lavarlo"

va a ser puro
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado apto para que la gente lo toque como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 13:59

moho en una prenda... hecho con cuero
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:47.

para que ustedes puedan pronunciarlo
"para que un sacerdote lo declare"

puro o impuro
Se habla de algo que Dios ha declarado que es apto para que la gente lo toque como si estuviera físicamente limpio y algo que Dios ha declarado que no es apto para que la gente lo toque como si fuera físicamente impuro.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Esta será la ley para la persona enferma en el día de su limpieza. Él debe ser traído al sacerdote. 3 El sacerdote saldrá del campamento para examinar la persona a ver si la enfermedad infecciosa de la piel está sanada. 4 Luego el sacerdote ordenará que el que vaya a ser limpiado deba tomar dos aves vivas limpias, madera de cedro, hilo escarlata e hisopo. 5 El sacerdote le ordenará matar una de las aves sobre agua fresca que esté en una vasija de barro. 6 El sacerdote entonces tomará el ave viva y la madera de cedro, y el hilo escarlata y el hisopo, y él hundirá todas estas cosas, incluyendo al ave viva, en la sangre del ave que fue matado sobre el agua fresca. 7 Luego el sacerdote rociará esta agua siete veces sobre la persona quien va a ser limpiada de la enfermedad, y entonces el sacerdote lo pronunciará limpio. Luego el sacerdote liberará al ave viva en los campo abiertos. 8 La persona quien está siendo limpiada lavará sus ropas, rapará todo su cabello, y se bañará en agua, y entonces él será limpio. Después de eso debe venir al campamento, pero él vivirá fuera de su tienda por siete días. 9 En el séptimo día él debe afeitarse todo el cabello de su cabeza, y también debe afeitarse su barba y cejas. Debe afeitarse todo su cabello, y él debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua; entonces él será limpio. 10 En el octavo día él debe tomar dos corderos machos sin mancha, un cordero hembra de un año de edad sin mancha, y 11. 1kg. de harina fina mezclada con aceite como una ofrenda de grano, y una taza de aceite. 11 El sacerdote quien lo limpia parará a la persona quien será limpiada, junto a esas cosas, delante del SENOR en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 12 El sacerdote tomará uno de los corderos machos y lo ofrecerá como una ofrenda de culpa, junto con una taza de aceite; él los mecerá para una ofrenda agitada delante del SEÑOR. 13 Él debe matar al cordero macho en el lugar donde ellos matan las ofrendas por el pecado y las ofrendas quemadas, en el área del la tienda de reunión, pues la ofrenda por el pecado le pertenece al sacerdote, así como la ofrenda de culpa, porque es muy santa. 14 El sacerdote tomará un poco de sangre de la ofrenda de culpa y lo pondrá en la punta del lóbulo de la oreja de la persona quien será limpiada, en el pulgar de su mano derecha, y en el dedo grande del pie derecho. 15 Entonces el sacerdote tomará aceite de la taza y lo derramará en la palma de su propia mano izquierda, 16 y hundirá su dedo derecho en el aceite que está en su mano izquierda, y rociará un poco del aceite con su dedo siete veces delante del SEÑOR. 17 El sacerdote colocará el resto del aceite en su mano sobre el lóbulo de la oreja derecha de la persona que va a ser limpiada, sobre el pulgar de su mano derecha, y sobre el dedo grande del pie derecho. El debe colocar este aceite encima de la sangre de la ofrenda de culpabilidad. 18 En cuanto al resto del aceite que está en la mano del sacerdote, él la pondrá en la cabeza de la persona que va a ser limpiada, y el sacerdote hará expiación por él delante del SEÑOR. 19 Entonces el sacerdote ofrecerá la ofrenda de pecado y hará expiación por él, quien va a ser limpiado a causa de su impureza, y después él matará la ofrenda quemada. 20 Entonces el sacerdote ofrecerá la ofrenda quemada y la ofrenda de grano sobre el altar. El sacerdote hará expiación por la persona, y entonces él será limpio. 21 Sin embargo, si la persona es pobre y no puede costear estos sacrificios, entonces él debe tomar un cordero macho como una ofrenda de culpabilidad para que sea mecido, para hacer expiación para él mismo, y 3. 7kg. de harina fina mezclada con aceite como una ofrenda de grano, y un litro de aceite, 22 junto con dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes, según como él las pueda obtener; un ave será una ofrenda de pecado y la otra una ofrenda quemada. 23 En el octavo día él debe traerlas para su limpieza al sacerdote, en la entrada de la tienda de reunión, delante del SEÑOR. 24 El sacerdote tomará el cordero para una ofrenda, y él lo tomará con el litro de aceite de oliva, y él los levantará alto mientras él los presenta al SEÑOR. 25 Él matará al cordero para la ofrenda de culpabilidad, y él tomará un poco de sangre de la ofrenda de culpabilidad y lo pondrá sobre el lóbulo de la oreja derecha del que va a ser limpiado, sobre el pulgar de su mano derecha, y sobre el dedo grande de su pie derecho. 26 Luego el sacerdote derramará un poco del aceite en la palma de su propia mano izquierda, 27 y él rociará con su dedo derecho un poco del aceite que está en su mano izquierda siete veces delante del SEÑOR. 28 El sacerdote entonces pondrá un poco del aceite que está en su mano sobre el lóbulo de la oreja derecha del que va a ser limpiado, en el pulgar de su mano derecha, y en el dedo grande del pie derecho, y los mismos lugares donde el puso la sangre de la ofrenda de culpa. 29 Él pondrá el resto del aceite que está en su mano sobre la cabeza del que va a ser limpiado para hacer expiación por él delante del SEÑOR. 30 Él debe ofrecer una de las tórtolas o palomas jóvenes, según como la persona haya podido obtener-- 31 una como una ofrenda de pecado y el otro como una ofrenda quemada, junto con la ofrenda de grano. Luego el sacerdote hará expiación por el que va a ser limpiado delante del SEÑOR. 32 Esta es la ley para una persona en quien hay una enfermedad infecciosa de la piel, quien no puede pagar las ofrendas comunes para su limpieza." 33 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y a Aarón, diciendo: 34 "Cuando hayas entrado a la tierra de Canaán la cual les di como una posesión, y si pongo plaga que se esparza en una casa en la tierra de su posesión, 35 entonces el que sea dueño de la casa debe venir y decírselo al sacerdote. Él debe decir: 'Me parece que hay algo como plaga en mi casa.' 36 Luego el sacerdote ordenará que ellos vacíen la casa antes de que él entre a ver la evidencia de la plaga, para que nada en la casa sea hecho impuro. Después el sacerdote debe entrar para ver la casa. 37 Él debe examinar la plaga para ver si está en las paredes de la casa, y para ver si aparece verdoso o rojizo en las superficies de la pared. 38 Si la casa sí tiene plaga entonces el sacerdote saldrá de la casa y cerrará la puerta de la casa por siete dias. 39 Entonces el sacerdote regresará otra vez en el séptimo día y la examinará para ver si la plaga se ha extendido en las paredes de la casa. 40 Si lo ha hecho, entonces el sacerdote ordenará que ellos saquen las piedras en las cuales la plaga se ha encontrado y las tiren en un lugar impuro fuera de la ciudad. 41 Él requerirá que todas las paredes de la casa sean raspadas, y ellos deben tomar el material contaminado que ha sido raspado fuera de la ciudad y tirarlo en el lugar impuro. 42 Ellos deben tomar otras piedras y colocarlas en el lugar de las piedras que fueron removidas, y ellos deben usar nuevo barro para cubrir la casa. 43 Si la plaga vuelve otra vez e invade la casa en la cual las piedras han sido removidas y las paredes han sido raspadas y recubiertas, 44 entonces el sacerdote debe entrar y examinar la casa para ver si la plaga se ha esparcido en la casa. Si lo ha hecho, entonces es plaga dañina, y la casa es impura. 45 Esta casa debe ser derribada. Las piedras, madera, y todo el enyesado de la casa debe ser llevado fuera de la ciudad a un lugar impuro. 46 En adición, quien sea que entre a la casa durante el tiempo que esté cerrada será impuro hasta el atardecer. 47 Cualquiera que durmió en la casa debe lavar sus ropas, y cualquiera quien coma en la casa debe lavar sus ropas. 48 Si el sacerdote entra en la casa para examinarla a ver si la plaga se ha esparcido dentro de la casa después que la casa fue cubierta, entonces, si la plaga se ha ido, él declarará la casa limpia. 49 Entonces el sacerdote debe tomar dos aves para limpiar la casa, y madera de cedro e hilo escarlata, e hisopo. 50 Él matará una de las aves sobre agua fresca en una jarra de barro. 51 Él tomará la madera de cedro, el hisopo, el hilo escarlata, y el ave viva, y los hundirá en la sangre del ave muerta, en el agua fresca, y rociará la casa siete veces. 52 Él limpiará la casa con la sangre del ave y con agua fresca, con el ave viva, la madera de cedro, el hisopo, y el hilo escarlata. 53 Pero él dejará la ave viva ir fuera de la ciudad a los campos abiertos. De esta manera él debe hacer expiación para la casa, y ésta será límpia. 54 Esta es la ley para todo tipo de enfermedad infecciosa de la piel y cosas que causan tal enfermedad, y para picazón, 55 y para plaga en la ropa y en una casa, 56 para hinchazón, para una erupción, y para una mancha brillosa, 57 para determinar cuando cualquiera de estos casos es impuro o cuando es puro. Esta es la ley para enfermedades infecciosas de la piel y plaga"

Leviticus 14:1

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

el día de su limpieza
Esto se refiere al día en que el sacerdote declara que la persona está limpia por medio de un ritual.

Él debe ser traído al sacerdote
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Alguien debe llevarlo al sacerdote" o "Él debe ir al sacerdote"

Leviticus 14:3

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

enfermedad infecciosa de la piel
Traduzca esta frase de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

el que vaya a ser limpiado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona que está limpiando"

aves vivas limpias
Se habla de los pájaros que Dios les permitió a las personas comer y ofrecer como sacrificios como si estuvieran físicamente limpios.

hilo escarlata
"hilo rojo"

hisopo
una hierba con un olor agradable que se usaba con propósitos medicinales

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 14:6

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

ave que fue matado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "el pájaro que la persona mató"

la persona quien va a ser limpiada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona a la que está limpiando"

el sacerdote lo pronunciará limpio
Se habla de la persona que otras personas pueden tocar y que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 14:8

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

La persona quien está siendo limpiada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "La persona a quien el sacerdote está limpiando"

entonces él será limpio
Se habla de la persona que otras personas pueden tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Leviticus 14:10

él debe tomar
Aquí "él" se refiere al hombre que fue limpiado.

efa
Una efa equivale a 22 litros.

log
Un log equivale a 0,31 litros.

la persona quien será limpiada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona que está limpiando"

Leviticus 14:12

log
Un log equivale a 0,31 litros.

en el área del tabernáculo
Esta frase aclara la frase anterior y define con más detalle dónde estaba el sacerdote para matar al cordero.

Leviticus 14:14

la persona quien será limpiada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona a la que está limpiando"

log
Un log equivale a 0,31 litros.

rociará un poco del aceite... delante del SEÑOR
"rocíe un poco de aceite ... en presencia del Señor". No hay indicios de lo que el sacerdote roció con aceite.

Leviticus 14:17

el resto del aceite en su mano
"el resto del aceite que está en su mano"

persona que va a ser limpiada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona a quien está limpiando"

delante del SEÑOR
"en presencia de El Señor"

Leviticus 14:19

quien va a ser limpiado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona a la que está limpiando"

él será limpio
Se habla de la persona que la gente puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Leviticus 14:21

Información General:
El Señor le dice a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

no puede costear
"no tiene suficiente dinero para comprar"

para que sea mecido... para él mismo
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "que el sacerdote mecerá ... por él"

una décima de un efa
décimo de un efa - Un décimo de un efa es de 22 litros.

log
Un log equivale a 0,31 litros.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 14:24

log
un log equivale a 0.31 litros.

el que va a ser limpiado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que él está limpiando"

Leviticus 14:26

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón lo que la gente debe hacer cuando alguien se limpia de una enfermedad de la piel.

rociará... un poco del aceite...delante del Señor
"espolvorea ... un poco de aceite ... en presencia de El Señor". No hay indicios de lo que el sacerdote roció con aceite.

Leviticus 14:28

del que va a ser limpiado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que él está limpiando"

Leviticus 14:30

Él debe ofrecer
"El sacerdote debe ofrecer"

el que va a ser limpiado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que él está limpiando"

enfermedad infecciosa de la piel
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

quien no puede costear
Traduzca esto para que quede claro que la persona no tiene suficiente dinero para comprar una oferta estándar. Traducción alterna: "quien no tiene suficiente dinero para comprar"

Leviticus 14:33

Cuando hayas entrado
Aquí "hayas" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

moho
Traduzca esta palabra de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:47.

en la tierra de su posesión
La palabra "posesión" se puede ser traducida como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "en la tierra que posees"

Leviticus 14:36

para que nada en la casa sea hecho impuro Una vez que el sacerdote haya declarado que la casa estaba sucia, todas la cosas en la casa también se volvían impuro. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que no tenga que declarar impuro todo lo que quede en la casa"

la casa quedará impura
Se habla de la casa que El Señor ha declarado que no es apta para que la gente la toque o viva en ella como si fuera físicamente impura.

en las depresiones de la superficie de la pared
Esto significa que el sacerdote debe determinar si el moho ha ido más profundo que solo la superficie de las paredes.

Leviticus 14:39

en las cuales el moho se ha encontrado Esto puede ser traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "en el que encontraron el moho"

un lugar impuro
Se habla de un lugar que no es apto para que la gente lo ocupe o se use para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 14:41

Él requerirá
Aquí "Él" se refiere al sacerdote.

todas las paredes de la casa sean raspadas Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que el dueño raspe todas las paredes interiores"

el material contaminado que ha sido raspado Esto se refiere al material con moho en él.Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el material contaminado que rasparon"

el lugar impuro
Se habla de un lugar que no es apto para que la gente lo ocupe o se use para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impuro.

las piedras que fueron removidas Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las piedras que sacaron" deben usar nuevo barro para cubrir la casa

"deben cubrir las piedras con barro nuevo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 14:43

en la casa ...recubiertas
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "en la casa después de que el propietario retire las piedras, raspe las paredes y cubra las piedras nuevas con arcilla"

la casa es impura
Se habla de una casa que no es apta para que la gente ocupe como si fuera físicamente impura.

Leviticus 14:45

La casa debe ser derribada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Deben derribar la casa"

Las piedras, madera, y todo el enyesado de la casa debe ser llevados
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Deben llevarse las piedras, la madera y todo el yeso de la casa"

quien sea que entre a la casa... será impuro
Se habla de una persona a la que la gente no puede tocar y que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios porque ha entrado en la casa como si la persona fuera físicamente impura.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso''

Leviticus 14:48

la casa fue cubierta
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "el dueño puso arcilla nueva sobre las piedras"

él pronunciará la casa limpia
Se habla de un lugar adecuado para que la gente ocupe como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 14:49

madera de cedro e hilo escarlata, e hisopo
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 14:3.

la sangre del ave matado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "La sangre del ave que mató"

Leviticus 14:52

Él limpiará la casa
"El sacerdote hará la casa ritualmente limpia"

será limpia
Se habla de una casa que es apta para que la gente ocupe como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Leviticus 14:54

enfermedad infecciosa de la piel
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:3.

moho
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:47.

erupción
Traduzca estas palabras de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:5.

impuro o ... puro
Se habla de personas y objetos que otras personas no pueden tocar como si estuvieran físicamente sucios, y se habla de aquellos que las personas pueden tocar como si estuvieran físicamente limpios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aarón, diciendo: 2 "Hablen al pueblo de Israel, y díganles: 'Cuando cualquier hombre tiene un fluido infectado que sale de su cuerpo, él se vuelve inmundo. 3 Su impureza es debido a este fluido infectado. Ya sea si su cuerpo fluye con fluido o es detenido, es impuro. 4 Toda cama en la que él se recuesta será impura, y en todo lo que él se siente será impuro. 5 Quien sea que toque su cama debe lavar su ropa y bañarse a sí mismo en agua, y será impuro hasta el atardecer. 6 Cualquiera que se siente sobre cualquier cosa en la cual el hombre con el fluido infectado se sentó, esa persona debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse a sí mismo en agua, y él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 7 Cualquiera quien tocase el cuerpo de aquel que tiene un flujo de fluido infectado debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse a sí mismo en agua, y será impuro hasta el atardecer. 8 Si la persona quien tiene tal flujo de fluido escupe en alguien quien está limpio, entonces esa persona debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua, y él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 9 Cualquier silla de montar en cual aquel que tiene un flujo se monta en ella será impura. 10 Cualquiera que toque algo que estaba bajo esa persona será impuro hasta el atardecer, y cualquiera que cargue esas cosas debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse a sí mismo en agua; él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 11 Quien sea aquél quien tiene tal flujo toca sin primero haber enjuagado sus manos en agua, la persona que fue tocada debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua, y él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 12 Cualquier vasija de barro que aquel con tal flujo de fluido toca debe ser quebrada, y todo contenedor de madera debe ser enjuagado en agua. 13 Cuando aquel que tiene un flujo es limpiado de su flujo, entonces él debe contar para sí mismo siete días por su limpieza; después él debe lavar sus ropas y lavar su cuerpo en agua con corriente. Entonces él será limpio. 14 En el octavo día él debe tomar dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes y venir delante del SEÑOR en la entrada de la tienda de reunión; ahí él tendrá que dar las aves al sacerdote. 15 El sacerdote debe ofrecerlas, una como ofrenda de pecado y la otra como ofrenda quemada, y el sacerdote debe hacer expiación por él delante del SEÑOR por su fluido. 16 Si algún hombre tiene una emisión de semen, entonces él debe lavar todo su cuerpo en agua; él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 17 Toda vestimenta o cuero en donde hay semen debe ser lavado con agua; será impuro hasta el atardecer. 18 Y si una mujer y un hombre duermen juntos y hay una transferencia de semen a ella, deben ambos bañarse en agua; ellos serán impuros hasta el atardecer. 19 Cuando una mujer mestrúa, su impureza continuará por siete días, y quienquiera que la toque será impuro hasta el atardecer. 20 En todo lo que ella se recueste durante su periodo será impuro; todo aquello en que ella se siente también será impuro. 21 Cualquiera que toque su cama debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua; esa persona será impura hasta el atardecer. 22 Cualquiera que toque algo en que ella se haya sentado debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua; esa persona será impura hasta el atardecer. 23 Sea que está en la cama o algo en lo que ella se sienta, si él lo toca, esa persona será impura hasta el atardecer. 24 Si algún hombre duerme con ella, y si su flujo impuro lo toca, él será impuro por siete días. Toda cama en la cual él se recueste será impura. 25 Si una mujer tiene un flujo de sangre por muchos días que no es en su tiempo de su menstruación, o si ella tiene un flujo fuera del tiempo de su menstruación, durante todos los días del flujo de su impureza, ella será como si estuviera en los días de su periodo. Ella es impura. 26 Toda cama en donde ella se recueste, todo, durante su flujo de sangre será para ella tal como la cama en donde ella se recuesta durante su menstruación, y todo en donde ella se siente será impuro, justo como la impureza de su menstruación. 27 Quienquiera que toque cualquiera de esas cosas será impuro; él debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua, y él será impuro hasta el atardecer. 28 Pero si ella es limpiada de su flujo de sangre, entonces ella contará para sí misma siete días, y después de eso ella será limpia. 29 En el octavo día ella tomará dos tórtolas o dos palomas jóvenes y los llevará al sacerdote a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 30 El sacerdote ofrecerá un ave como una ofrenda por el pecado y la otra como una ofrenda quemada, y él hará expiación por ella delante del SEÑOR por su impuro flujo de sangre. 31 Así es cómo ustedes deben separar al pueblo de Israel de su impureza, para que así ellos no mueran debido a su impureza, al profanar mi tienda de reunión, donde Yo vivo entre ellos. 32 Estas son las regulaciones para cualquiera que tenga un flujo de fluido, por cualquier hombre cuyo semen sale de él y lo hace impuro, 33 por cualquier mujer que tiene un periodo menstrual, por cualquiera con un flujo de fluidos, sea hombre o mujer, y por cualquier hombre que duerme con una mujer impura.'"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 15:1

sale de su cuerpo
Esto se refiere a las partes privadas del hombre.

se vuelve inmundo
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

es impuro
"su cuerpo es inmundo" o "él es inmundo"

Leviticus 15:4

impura
Se habla de la cama o de cualquier cosa sobre la que se sienta el hombre que otras personas no deben tocar, como si fuesen físicamente impuras.

Quien sea que toque su cama... sea impuro
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

Leviticus 15:6

él será impuro
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

quien tocase el cuerpo
"quien toca cualquier parte del cuerpo"

Leviticus 15:8

alguien quien está limpio
Se habla de la persona que la gente puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

él será impuro
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

silla de montar
Una silla de montar o montura es un asiento de cuero que una persona pone en la espalda de un caballo para montarlo.

Cualquier silla de montar... será impura
Se habla de algo que El Señor ha declarado que no es apto para tocar como si fuera físicamente impuro.

Leviticus 15:10

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés y Aarón qué deben hacer las personas para evitar la infección.

esa persona
Esto se refiere a la persona con el fluido infectado.

será impuro
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

hasta la atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

Quien sea aquél quien tiene tal flujo toca
"Quienquiera que toque la persona con el flujo infectado"

la persona que fue tocada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "la persona a quien tocó"

Cualquier vasija de barro que aquel con tal flujo de fluido toca debe ser quebrada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Alguien debe romper cualquier olla de barro que haya sido tocado por el que tiene tal flujo"

todo contenedor de madera debe ser enjuagado en agua
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "alguien debe enjuagar cada recipiente de madera con agua"

Leviticus 15:13

es limpiado de su flujo
Se habla del hombre que se recupera de su enfermedad como si estuviera físicamente limpio.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "se recupera de su flujo"

Entonces él será limpio
Se habla del hombre a quien la gente puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

Leviticus 15:16

inmundo hasta el atardecer
Se habla de personas y objetos que la gente no debe tocar como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

hasta la el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

Toda vestimenta ... debe ser lavado con agua
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "Alguien debe lavar con agua toda prenda o cuero sobre el que haya semen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 15:19

menstrúa ... su periodo
Ambos se refieren al momento en que la sangre fluye desde el vientre de una mujer.

su impureza continuará
"ella seguirá siendo impura"

será impuro
Se habla de personas y objetos que la gente no debe tocar como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

Leviticus 15:21

su cama
Esto se refiere a la mujer que está menstruando.

esa persona será impura
Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

hasta el atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

Leviticus 15:24

su flujo impuro
"su flujo inmundo" o "la sangre de su vientre"

será impuro
Se habla de personas y objetos que la gente no debe tocar como si fuesen físicamente impuros.

Leviticus 15:25

ella será como si estuviera en los días de su periodo
Esto significa que si la mujer sangra de su útero en un momento que no sea su tiempo normal de menstruación, sigue siendo inmunda al igual que durante su menstruación.

Ella es impura... cualquier cosa que toque ... será impuro
Se habla de personas a las que la gente no puede tocar como si fueran físicamente impuras.

todo en donde ella se siente será impuro
Se habla de los objetos que otras personas no deben tocar como si fueran físicamente impuros.

Leviticus 15:28

Pero si ella
La palabra "ella" se refiere a la mujer que está menstruando.

es limpiada de su flujo de sangre
Se habla de la mujer que se está recuperando de su sangrado como si se limpia físicamente. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se recupera de su flujo de sangre"

ella será limpia
Se habla de la mujer a la que la gente puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

ella tomará para ella
"ella tomará para sí misma"

su impuro flujo de sangre
"su flujo de sangre que la hace impura"

Leviticus 15:31

Así es cómo ustedes deben separar al pueblo de Israel de su impureza.
El Señor habla de evitar que las personas se vuelvan impuras como si estuvieran manteniendo a las personas a una distancia segura de la impureza. Traducción alterna: "Así es como debes evitar que el pueblo de Israel se vuelva inmundo"

su impureza
Se habla de las personas que la gente no puede tocar y que no son aceptables para los propósitos de Dios como si fueran físicamente impuras.

Leviticus 15:32

Estas son las regulaciones
"Estas son las cosas que deben hacerse"

lo hace impuro... una mujer impura
Se habla de personas a las que la gente no puede tocar como si fueran físicamente impuras.

que tiene un periodo menstrual
"quién está menstruando" o "quién está sangrando de su matriz"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés--esto fue luego de la muerte de los dos hijos de Aarón, cuando ellos se acercaron al SEÑOR y entonces murieron. 2 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Háblale a Aarón, tu hermano, y dile que no venga al lugar más santo dentro de la cortina a cualquier momento, ante la tapa de la expiación que está en el arca. Si él lo hace, él morirá, porque Yo apareceré en una nube sobre la tapa de la expiación. 3 Así es como Aarón tiene que entrar al lugar más santo. Él debe entrar con un toro joven como una ofrenda al pecado, y un carnero como una ofrenda quemada. 4 Él debe ponerse la santa túnica de lino, y él mismo debe ponerse la ropa interior de lino, y él debe vestir la faja de lino y el turbante de lino. Él debe lavar su cuerpo en agua y entonces vestirse a sí mismo en estas ropas. 5 Él debe tomar de la asamblea de la gente de Israel dos chivos como ofrenda al pecado y un cordero como una ofrenda quemada. 6 Luego, Aarón debe presentar el toro como una ofrenda por el pecado, la cual será para él mismo, para hacer expiación por sí mismo y su familia. 7 Entonces él debe tomar los dos chivos y ponerlos ante el SEÑOR a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 8 Luego, Aarón debe echar suertes por dos machos cabríos, uno por EL SEÑOR y otro por la expación 9 Aarón, entonces, debe presentar el macho cabrío al cual le cayó la suerte por el SEÑOR, y ofrecer ese macho cabrío como ofrenda al pecado. 10 Pero el macho cabrío al que le cayó la suerte para la expiacion debe ser traído vivo ante el SEÑOR, para hacer expiación al mandarlo lejos como macho cabrío expiatorio al desierto. 11 Luego, Aarón debe presentar el toro como ofrenda por el pecado, la cual será para sí mismo. Él debe hacer expiación por sí mismo y por su familia, por lo tanto él debe matar al toro como una ofrenda por el pecado para sí mismo. 12 Aarón debe quitar un incensario lleno de carbones del fuego del altar delante del SEÑOR, con sus manos llenas de incienso dulce finamente molido, y traer estas cosas dentro de la cortina. 13 Ahí, él debe poner el incienso en el fuego ante el SEÑOR para que la nube del incienso pueda cubrir la tapa de expiación sobre los decretos del pacto. Él debe hacer esto para que él no muera. 14 Entonces, él debe tomar algo de la sangre del toro y rocíarla con su dedo al frente de la tapa de la expiación. Él debe rocíar algo de la sangre con su dedo siete veces ante la tapa de expiación. 15 Luego, él debe matar al macho cabríoo por la ofrenda por el pecado que es por la gente y traer su sangre dentro de la cortina. Ahí él debe hacer con la sangre como hizo con la sangre del toro: él debe rocíarla en la tapa de expiación y entonces ante la tapa de la expiación. 16 Él debe hacer expiación por el lugar más santo por las acciones inmundas de la gente de Israel, y por la rebelión y todos sus pecados. Él también debe hacer esto en la tienda de reunión, donde el SEÑOR vive entre ellos, en la presencia de sus acciones inmundas. 17 Nadie debe estar en la tienda de reunión cuando Aarón entre en ella para hacer expiación en el lugar más santo, y hasta que salga y haya terminado de hacer expiación por sí mismo y por su familia, y por toda la asamblea de Israel. 18 Él debe salir del altar que está delante del SEÑOR y hacer expiación por él, y él debe tomar algo de la sangre del toro y algo de la sangre del macho cabrío y ponerla en los cuernos del altar en todo alrededor. 19 Él debe rocíar algo de la sangre en él con su dedo, siete veces para limpiarlo, y separarlo para el SEÑOR, lejos de las acciones inmundas de la gente de Israel. 20 Cuando él haya terminado la expiación por el lugar más santo, la tienda de reunión, y el altar, él debe presentar al macho cabrío. 21 Aarón debe poner ambas manos en la cabeza del macho cabrío y confesar sobre él toda la maldad de la gente de Israel, toda su rebelión, y todos sus pecados. Entonces él debe poner ese pecado en la cabeza del macho cabrío y mandarlo lejos, al cuidado de un hombre que esté listo para llevar el macho cabrío al desierto. 22 El cabro debe llevar en sí mismo todo el pecado de la gente a un lugar solitario. Ahí en el desierto, el hombre debe dejar al cabro en libertad. 23 Luego, Aarón debe regresar a la tienda de reunión y quitarse las vestiduras de lino que se puso antes de entrar en el lugar más santo, y él debe dejar esas vestiduras ahí. 24 Él debe lavar su cuerpo en agua en el lugar más santo, y ponerse sus vestiduras normales; entonces él debe salir y ofrecer su ofrenda quemada y la ofrenda quemada de la gente, y en esta manera hacer expiación por sí mismo y por la gente. 25 Él debe quemar la grasa de la ofrenda por el pecado en el altar. 26 El hombre que deje libre al macho cabrío expiatorio debe lavar sus ropas y lavar su cuerpo en agua; luego de eso, él puede regresar al campamento. 27 El toro de la ofrenda por el pecado y el macho cabrío de la ofrenda por el pecado, cuya sangre se haya traido para hacer expiación en el lugar más santo, deben ser llevados fuera del campamento. Ahí deben quemar sus pieles, carne y excremento. 28 El hombre que queme esas partes debe lavar su ropa y lavar su cuerpo en agua; luego de eso, él puede regresar al campamento. 29 Siempre será un estuto para ustedes en el séptimo mes, en el décimo día del mes, ustedes deben humillarse y no trabajar, ni el nativo ni el extranjero que vive entre ustedes. 30 Esto es porque en este día, la expiación será hecha para ustedes, para limpiarlos de sus pecados, para que ustedes esten limpios ante el SEÑOR. 31 Es un solemne Día de Reposo para ustedes, y ustedes deben humillarse a sí mismos y no trabajar. Esto siempre será un estatuto entre ustedes. 32 El alto sacerdote, el que será ungido y ordenado para ser alto sacerdote en lugar de su padre, él debe hacer esta expiación y ponerse las vestiduras de lino, esas son, las vestiduras santas. 33 Él debe hacer expiación por el lugar más santo; él debe hacer expiación por la tienda de reunión y por el altar, y él debe hacer expiación por los sacerdotes y por toda la gente de la asamblea. 34 Esto será un estuto para ti, el hacer expiación por la gente de Israel por todos sus pecados, una vez al año." Esto fue hecho como el SEÑOR le ordenó a Moisés.

Leviticus 16:1

Los dos hijos de Aaron
Esto se refiere a Nadab y Abihu. Murieron porque trajeron fuego al Señor que él no aprobó. (Ver: 10:1)

Leviticus 16:3

Así es como
"Así que aquí es cómo"

ropa interior
"ropa interior." Esta es la ropa que se usa junto a la piel debajo de la ropa exterior.

faja
un pedazo de tela que se ata alrededor de la cintura o el pecho

turbante
Esta es una cubierta para la cabeza hecha de tiras de tela envueltas.

de la asamblea
"de la congregación"

Leviticus 16:6

ofrenda por el pecado, la cual será para él mismo
"la ofrenda por el pecado para sí mismo"

Leviticus 16:8

cabros expiatorio
"el cabro que es liberado". Aarón iba a tener a alguien que libere al cabro en el desierto.

al cual le cayó la suerte
"que la suerte designó"

Pero el cabro ... debe ser traído vivo ante el SEÑOR
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Pero Aarón debe traer al cabro ... vivo ante El Señor"

Leviticus 16:11

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que Aarón debe hacer en el Día de la Expiación.

él debe matar al toro
Aaron atraparía la sangre del toro en un tazón para luego rociarlo en la tapa de la expiación. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

Leviticus 16:12

incensario
un recipiente para fuego e incienso, utilizado por los sacerdotes

incienso dulce
"incienso de olor dulce". Esto se refiere al olor y no al sabor del incienso.

Leviticus 16:14

la sangre del toro
Esta es la sangre que Aaron juntó con un tazón en 16:11.

rocíarla con su dedo
Usaba su dedo para salpicar la sangre.

al frente de la tapa de la expiación
Puso la sangre en la parte superior de la tapa. También lo puso en el lado de la tapa que lo enfrentó cuando entró en el lugar más sagrado.

antes la tapa de la expiación
Los posibles significados son 1) "debajo de la tapa de la expiación sobre el cofre" o 2) "sobre el suelo frente a la tapa de la expiación".

Leviticus 16:15

Información General:
El Señor continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que Aarón debe hacer en el Día de la Expiación.

debe esparcirlo sobre la tapa de la expiación y luego antes de la tapa de la expiación Aarón roció la sangre de la misma manera que lo hizo con la sangre del toro. Ver cómo se ha traducido las instrucciones anteriores en 16:14.

Él debe hacer expiación por el lugar más santo por las acciones inmundas de la gente de Israel
Los pecados del pueblo de Israel hicieron impuro el lugar santo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

acciones inmundas... rebelión ... pecados Estas palabras significan básicamente lo mismo. Destacan que las personas han cometido todo tipo de pecados.

acciones inmundas
Las acciones pecaminosas que hacen que las personas sean inaceptables para El Señor se mencionan como si fueran acciones físicamente impuras.

en la presencia de sus acciones inmundas
La frase "sus acciones impuras" representa a las personas que cometen acciones pecaminosas. Traducción alterna: "en presencia de personas que cometen acciones pecaminosas"

Leviticus 16:17

Él debe salir al altar que está delante de El Señor
Este es el altar de sacrificio justo dentro del patio del tabernáculo.

para hacer expiación en el Como el lugar santo y la tienda de reunión, el altar está sucio debido a los pecados de la gente.

cuernos del altar
"Las proyecciones en las esquinas del altar" (UDB). Esto se refiere a las esquinas del altar. Tienen forma de cuernos de buey. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 4:6.

para limpiarlo
Se dice que el altar es apto para ser usado para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpio.

separarlo para el SEÑOR, lejos de las acciones inmundas de la gente de Israel Se habla del altar dedicado a El Señor como si estuviera físicamente separado de los pecados de la gente.

las acciones inmundas
Se hablan de las acciones pecaminosas que hacen que las personas sean inaceptables para El Señor como si fueran acciones físicamente impuras.

Leviticus 16:20

debe presentar el cabro vivo
Este cabro se llama el chivo expiatorio en el versículo 16:8.

confesar sobre él
"confesar sobre la cabra"

él debe poner ese pecado en la cabeza del chivo
Las acciones de Aarón aquí fueron una transferencia simbólica del pecado de la gente a la cabra como una señal de que la cabra soportaría el castigo por su culpa.

maldad ... rebelión ... pecados
Todas estas palabras significan básicamente lo mismo. Aarón está confesando todo tipo de pecado que la gente cometió.

Leviticus 16:23

y quitarse las vestiduras de lino
Estas eran las prendas especiales que Aarón usaba solo cuando ingresaba al lugar más sagrado.

Él debe lavar su cuerpo en agua en el lugar más santo Aquí "lugar santo" no se refiere a la tienda de reunión. Este era un lugar diferente reservado para que él se bañara.

y ponerse sus vestiduras normales
Estas son las ropas que Aarón usaba para sus deberes ordinarios.

Leviticus 16:25

Él debe quemar
"Aaron debe quemar"

El hombre que deje libre al cabro expiatorio debe lavar sus ropas y lavar su cuerpo en agua
El hombre era impuro debido a su contacto con el chivo expiatorio que llevaba el pecado del pueblo.

cabro expiatorio
"el cabro que es despedido". Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 16:8.

Leviticus 16:27

cuya sangre se haya traído Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuya sangre que Aaron trajo"

deben ser llevados
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "alguien debe llevar"

sus pieles
"sus pieles". Aquí "sus" se refiere al toro y al cabro.

Leviticus 16:29

para ustedes
La palabra "ustedes" es plural y se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

en el séptimo mes, en el décimo día del mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El décimo día está cerca del final de septiembre en el calendario occidental.

la expiación será hecha para ustedes Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Aaron hará expiación por ti"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para limpiarlos ... para que ustedes esten limpios
Se habla de las personas que son aceptables para los propósitos de Dios como si estuvieran físicamente limpias.

Es un solemne Día de Reposo para ustedes
Esto no es lo mismo que el día de reposo de cada semana en el séptimo día. Este era un día de reposo especial en el Día de la Expiación.

Leviticus 16:32

el que será ungido y ordenado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que ungirán y consagrarán"

en lugar de su padre
Cuando el sumo sacerdote muriera, uno de sus hijos lo reemplazaría.

las vestiduras santas
Estas son ropas especiales que el sumo sacerdote debía usar cuando ingresara al lugar más sagrado.

por toda la gente de la asamblea
"para todo el pueblo de Israel"

Leviticus 16:34

Información General:
El Señor termina de decirle a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer en el Día de la Expiación.

Esto fue hecho como El Señor ordenó a Moisés Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "E hizo Moisés como El Señor lo mandó" o "E hizo Aarón como El Señor mandó a Moisés"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Háblale a Aarón y a sus hijos, y a todo el pueblo de Israel. Diles lo que el SEÑOR ha ordenado: 3 'Cualquier hombre de Israel que mate a un buey, cordero o cabra en el campamento, o que lo mate fuera del campamento, para sacrificarlo -- 4 si él no lo trae a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, para ofrendarlo como sacrificio al SEÑOR ante su su tabernáculo, ese hombre es culpable de derramamiento de sangre. Él ha derramado sangre, y ese hombre deberá ser cortado de entre su pueblo. 5 El propósito de este mandato es que el pueblo de Israel traiga sus sacrificios al SEÑOR a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, al sacerdote, para ser sacrificado como ofrenda de compañerismo al SEÑOR, en vez de ofrecer sacrificos en un campo abierto. 6 El sacerdote rociará la sangre en el altar del SEÑOR, a la entrada de la tienda de reunión; él quemará la grasa para que produzca un aroma dulce al SEÑOR. 7 El pueblo ya no deberá ofrecer sus sacrificios a ídolos, por lo cual ellos actúan como prostitutas. Esto será un estatuto permanente para ellos a través de todas sus generaciones.' 8 Tu debes decirle a ellos: 'Cualquier varón de Israel, o cualquier extranjero que vive entre ellos, que ofrezca una ofrenda quemada o sacrificio, 9 y no lo traiga a la entrada de la tienda de reunión para sacrificarlo al SEÑOR, ese varón debe ser cortado de su pueblo. 10 Y cualquiera de Israel, o cualquier extranjero que vive entre ellos, quien consume cualquier sangre, yo pondré mi rostro en contra de esa persona, cualquiera que consume sangre; yo lo cortaré de entre su pueblo. 11 Pues la vida de un animal está en su sangre. Yo les he dado su sangre a ustedes para hacer expiación en el altar por sus vidas, porque es la sangre que hace expiación, pues es la sangre la que expía para la vida. 12 Por lo tanto, yo le dije al pueblo de Israel que ninguno entre ustedes deben comer sangre, ni tampoco ningún extranjero que viva entre ustedes debe comer sangre. 13 Y ninguno del pueblo de Israel, o ninguno de los extranjeros que viven entre ellos, que cazan y matan un animal o un ave que pueda ser comido; esa persona debe derramar la sangre y cubrir la sangre con tierra. 14 Pues la vida de cada criatura es su sangre. Por esto es que le dije al pueblo de Israel, "Ustedes no deben comer la sangre de ninguna criatura, pues la vida de toda criatura viviente es su sangre. Quien sea que la come debe ser cortado. 15 Toda persona que coma un animal que haya muerto o haya sido desgarrado por animales salvajes, ya sea que la persona sea nativo nacido o extranjera, viviendo entre ustedes, él debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua, y él será impuro hasta la tarde. Entonces el estará limpio. 16 Pero si él no lava sus ropas o baña su cuerpo, entonces él deberá cargar su culpa."'

Leviticus 17:1

ante su tabernáculo
"delante del tabernáculo de El Señor"

ese hombre deberá ser cortado de entre su pueblo
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si se fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 7:19. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no puede vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a esa persona de su gente"

Leviticus 17:5

al sacerdote, para ser sacrificado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "al sacerdote para que los sacrifique"

Leviticus 17:7

por lo cual ellos actúan como prostitutas
Se dice que las personas que son infieles a El Señor al adorar a dioses falsos actúan como un hombre que traiciona a su esposa al cometer adulterio. Traducción alterna: "por lo que son infieles a El Señor"

un estatuto permanente para ellos a través de todas sus generaciones Traduzca esta frase de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:15.

Leviticus 17:8

ese varón debe ser cortado de su puebloese varón debe ser cortado de su pueblo
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 7:19. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no puede vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a esa persona de su gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 17:10

yo pondré mi rostro contra esa persona
La palabra "rostro" representa a la persona. Esta expresión significa rechazar a alguien o algo. Traducción alterna: "Me pondré en contra de esa persona" o "Voy a rechazar a esa persona" yo lo cortaré de entre su pueblo

Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Traducción alterna: "No permitiré que esa persona viva entre su gente por más tiempo" o "Separaré a esa persona de su gente"

Pues la vida de un animal está en su sangre ... que expía para la vida
Esto significa que Dios usa la sangre para expiar los pecados de las personas porque la sangre es vida. La gente no debe consumir la sangre porque tiene este propósito especial.

Leviticus 17:12

Yo le dije
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a El Señor.

nadie entre ustedes debe comer sangre
"nadie entre ustedes puede comer carne con sangre"

pueda ser comido
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que Yo haya dicho que coman"

y cubrir la sangre con tierra
"y cubrir la sangre con tierra"

Leviticus 17:14

la vida de cada criatura es su sangre
Esto significa que la sangre es lo que permite que la criatura esté viva. El significado completo de esta declaración es claro. Traducción alterna: "cada criatura es capaz de vivir debido a su sangre"

Quien sea que la come debe ser cortado
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si se fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El que come sangre ya no vivirá entre su gente" o "Debes separar de su gente a quien come sangre"

Leviticus 17:15

Información General:
El Señor continua hablando.

o haya sido desgarrado por animales salvajes Se habla de un animal que es asesinado por animales salvajes como si los animales salvajes hicieran pedazos al animal. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "lo que los animales salvajes han matado"

sea nativo
"es un israelita"

será impuro ... Entonces él estará limpio Se habla de la persona a la que la gente no puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente sucia y se menciona a la persona que la gente puede tocar como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

hasta la atardecer
"hasta el ocaso"

entonces él deberá cargar su culpa
Se habla de la culpa de una persona como si fuera un objeto físico que la persona lleva. Aquí la palabra "culpa" representa el castigo por esa culpa. Traducción alterna: "entonces él es responsable de su propia culpa" o "entonces lo castigaré por su pecado"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés diciendo: 2-3 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y dile: 'Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. Tu no tienes que hacer las cosas que la gente hace en Egipto, donde ustedes vivieron previamente. Ustedes no tienen que hacer las cosas que la gente de Canaán hace, la tierra a la cual Yo los estoy llevando. No sigan sus costumbres. 4 Mis leyes son lo que ustedes deben hacer y mis mandamientos son los que ustedes deben guardar, para que ustedes caminen en ellos, porque Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 5 Por lo tanto, ustedes tienen que guardar mis decretos y mis leyes. Si una persona los obedece, él vivirá a causa de ellos. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 6 Nadie debe acostarse con nadie de quien él es pariente cercano. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 7 No deshonren a su padre al acostarse con su madre. ¡Ella es tu madre! Tú no debes deshonrarla. 8 No te acuestes con ninguna de las esposas de tu padre; tú no debes deshonrar a tu padre de esa manera. 9 No te acuestes con ninguna de sus hermanas, sea que ella sea la hija de tu padre o la hija de tu madre, sea que ella fuera criada en tu casa o distante de tí. Tú no debes acostarse con sus hermanas. 10 No te acuestes con las hijas de sus hijos o las hijas de sus hijas. Esto sería tu propia vergüenza. 11 No te acuestes con la hija de la esposa de tu padre, quien nació de tu padre. Ella es tu hermana y tú no debes acostarse con ella. 12 No te acuestes con la hermana de su padre. Ella es una pariente cercana de tu padre. 13 No se acuesten con la hermana de tu madre. Ella es una pariente cercana de tu madre. 14 No deshonren al hermano de tu padre al acostarte con su esposa. No te acerques a ella con ese próposito; ella es tu tía. 15 No te acuestes con tus nueras. Ella es la esposa de tu hijo; no te acuestes con ella. 16 No te acuestes con el hermano de tu esposa; no lo deshonres de esta manera. 17 No se acuesten con una mujer y su hija, ni con la hija del hijo de ella ni con la hija de la hija de ella. Ellos son parientes cercanos a ella y acostarse con ellos sería malvado. 18 Tú no te casarás con la hermana de tu esposa como una segunda esposa y dormir con ella mientras tu primera esposa está viva. 19 No te acuestes con una mujer durante su menstruación. Ella es impura durante ese tiempo. 20 No te acuestes con la esposa de tu vecino y te profanes tú mismo con ella de esta manera. 21 Ustedes no deben dar a ningunos de sus hijos para ponerlos en el fuego, para que ustedes los sacrifiquen a Moloc, porque ustedes no deben profanar el nombre de su Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 22 No te acuestes con otros hombres como con una mujer. Esto sería malvado. 23 No te acuestes con ningún animal y te profanes tú mismo con esto. Ninguna mujer debe considerar el acostarse con ningún animal. Esto sería una perversión. 24 No se profanen a ustedes mismos en ninguna de estas maneras, pues en todas estas maneras las naciones son profanadas, las naciones que Yo sacaré de delante de ustedes. 25 La tierra se volvió profana, entonces Yo castigué su pecado, y la tierra vomitó sus habitantes. 26 Tú, por lo tanto, debes guardar mis mandamientos y decretos, y tú no debes hacer ninguna de estas cosas detestables, ni los israelitas, ni los extranjeros quienes viven entre ustedes. 27 Pues esta es la maldad que la gente en la tierra ha cometido, aquellos quienes vivieron aquí antes que ustedes y ahora la tierra esta contaminada. 28 Por lo tanto, tengan cuidado para que la tierra no los vomite a ustedes también después que ustedes la hayan contaminado, como esta vomitó la gente quienes estaban antes que ustedes. 29 Cualquiera que haga alguna de estas cosas detestables, las personas quienes hagan estas cosas serán cortadas de su pueblo. 30 Por lo tanto, ustedes deben guardar mi mandamiento de no practicar ninguna de estas costumbres detestables, las cuales fueron practicadas aquí antes de ustedes, para que ustedes no se contaminen ustedes con dichas practicas. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios.'"

Leviticus 18:4

Mis leyes son lo que ustedes deben hacer y mis mandamientos son los que ustedes deben guardar Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que las personas deben obedecer todo lo que el SEÑOR les ha mandado hacer. Puede traducir este paralelismo en una declaración que transmite el requisito de mantener todos los mandamientos del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Debes obedecer todas mis leyes y mis mandamientos"

para que ustedes caminen en ellos
Se habla de obedecer los mandamientos del SEÑOR como si los mandamientos fueran un camino por el que la persona camina. Traducción alterna: "para que lleves tu comportamiento de acuerdo con ellos"

Leviticus 18:6

las esposas de tu padre
A veces los hombres tenían más de una esposa. Dios no permitió que un hijo durmiera con ninguna mujer casada con su padre.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 18:9

sea que ella sea la hija de tu padre o la hija de tu madre Esto significa que un hombre no puede dormir con su hermana si tienen los mismos padres o incluso si ella tiene una madre o un padre diferente.

sea que ella fuera criada en tu casa o distante de tí Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si ella creció en tu casa o lejos de ti"

No te acuestes con la hija de la esposa de tu padre
Los posibles significados son 1) "No duermas con tu media hermana" (UDB) o 2) "No duermas con tu hermanastra". Aquí el hombre no tiene el mismo padre o madre que la mujer. Se convirtieron en hermano y hermana cuando sus padres se casaron.

Leviticus 18:12

No te acerques a ella con ese próposito
"No vayas a ella para acostarte con ella"

Leviticus 18:15

no te acuestes con ella
El SEÑOR repite esto para enfatizar el mandamiento.

Leviticus 18:19

menstruación
Este es el período de tiempo en que una mujer sangra de su vientre.

Ella es impura
Se habla de la mujer a la que otras personas no pueden tocar como si fuera físicamente impura.

la esposa de tu vecino
"la esposa de cualquier hombre"

Leviticus 18:21

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo no debe hacer para profanarlos.

Ustedes no deben dar a ningunos de sus hijos para ponerlos en el fuego La frase "pasar por el fuego" significa quemar algo con fuego como un sacrificio. Traducción alterna: "No debes quemar vivos a tus hijos"

ustedes no deben profanar el nombre de su Dios Aquí la palabra "profano" significa deshonra. La palabra "nombre" representa a Dios mismo. Traducción alterna: "no debes deshonrar a tu Dios"

Leviticus 18:22

Esto sería una perversión
Aquí "perversión" se refiere a una violación del orden natural de las cosas como El SEÑOR pretendía que fueran.

Leviticus 18:24

las naciones son profanadas
Esto se refiere a los grupos de personas que ya viven en Canaán. Traduzca esto para que el término "naciones" se aclare como personas. Traducción alterna: "la gente de las naciones se contaminó"

La tierra se volvió profana
"La gente profanó la tierra"

la tierra vomitó sus habitantes
El SEÑOR sacó a la gente de la tierra a la fuerza se habla de la tierra como si esta fuera una persona que vomitó a la gente. Traducción alterna: "Saqué a la gente de la tierra a la fuerza, como si una persona vomitara comida"

Leviticus 18:26

ninguna de estas cosas detestables
"cualquiera de estas cosas asquerosas"

esta es la maldad
Esto se refiere a "estas cosas detestables".

Por lo tanto, tengan cuidado Por lo tanto ten cuidado de obedecerme" para que la tierra no los vomite a ustedes ... como esta vomitó la gente

El SEÑOR sacó a la gente de la tierra a la fuerza, se habla de la tierra como si esta fuera una persona que vomitó a la gente. Ver cómo se ha traducido esta metáfora en 18:24. Traducción alterna: "para que te saque por la fuerza de la tierra ... como eliminé a la gente por la fuerza"

Leviticus 18:29

Información general:
El SEÑOR termina de decirle a Moisés lo que el pueblo no debe hacer.

las personas ... serán cortadas de su pueblo Se habla de las personas excluidas de la comunidad como si hubieran sido aisladas de su gente, como si se cortara un trozo de tela o se cortara una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las personas ... ya no pueden vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a las personas ... de su gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

las cuales fueron practicadas aquí ante ustedes
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa.
Traducción alterna: "lo que la gente hizo aquí antes de que vinieras"

por ellas
Aquí "ellas" se refiere a las costumbres detestables.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Háblale a toda la asamblea del pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Ustedes deben ser santos, ya que Yo el SEÑOR tu Dios soy santo. 3 Todos deben respetar a su madre y su padre, y deben guardar mis Días de Reposo. Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 4 No se vuelvan a ídolos indignos, ni tampoco se hagan para ustedes mismos dioses de metal. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios. 5 Cuando ofrezcan un sacrificio de ofrendas de paz al SEÑOR, deben ofrecerla para que sean aceptados. 6 Debe ser comida el mismo día que la ofrecieron, o al día siguiente. Si sobra algo hasta el tercer día, debe ser quemada. 7 Si es comida en el tercer día, está contaminada. No debe ser aceptada, 8 pero todo aquel que la coma debe llevar su propia culpa porque ha deshonrado lo que era santo para el SEÑOR. Esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo. 9 Cuando cosechen la cosecha de su tierra, no deberán cosechar completamente las esquinas de tu campo, ni tampoco juntarán todo el producto de tu cosecha. 10 No deberán juntar todas las uvas de su viñedo, ni tampoco las uvas que caen al suelo en sus viñedos. Las deben dejar para los pobres y para los extranjeros. Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 11 No debes robar. No deberás mentir. No se engañen unos a otros. 12 No deben jurar por mi nombre falsamente ni profanar el nombre del SEÑOR tu Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 13 No debes oprimir a tu vecino ni robarle. El salario de un siervo contratado no debe permanecer contigo toda la noche hasta la próxima mañana. 14 No debes maldecir al sordo ni ponerle un bloque de tropiezo frente a un ciego. En cambio, debes temer a tu Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 15 No debes provocar falso juicio. Tú no debes mostrar favoritismo a alguien porque él sea pobre, ni tú tampoco debes mostrar favoritismo a alguien porque él es importante. Por el contrario, juzga tu vecino justamente. 16 No debes caminar regando falsas murmuraciones entre tu pueblo, pero busca proteger la vida de tu vecino. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 17 No odies a tu hermano en tu corazón. Tú debes reprender honestamente a tu vecino para no compartir pecado por causa de él. 18 No debes tomar venganza ni guardar rencor contra cualquiera de tu pueblo, en cambio ama a tu vecino como a ti mismo. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 19 Ustedes deben guardar mis mandamientos. No traten de cruzar sus animales con diferentes tipos de otros animales. No mezcles dos diferentes tipos de semillas cuando siembres en tu tierra. No uses vestiduras hechas de dos tipos de material mezclado junto. 20 Quien se acueste con una joven esclava que está prometida a un marido, pero que no ha sido redimida o dada su libertad, debe ser castigado. Ellos no deben ser puestos a muerte porque ella no era libre. 21 Un hombre debe traer su ofrenda de culpa al SEÑOR a la entrada de la tienda de reunión- un carnero como ofrenda de culpa. 22 Luego, el sacerdote hará expiación para él con el carnero por la ofrenda de culpa ante el SEÑOR, por el pecado que él ha cometido. Entonces, el pecado que él ha cometido será perdonado. 23 Cuando entres a la tierra y hayas plantado todo tipo de árboles para alimento, entonces debes considerar el fruto producido como prohibido para comerlo. Este fruto debe ser prohibido a ustedes por tres años. No debe ser comido. 24 Pero en el cuarto año toda la fruta será santa, una ofrenda de alabanza al SEÑOR. 25 En el quinto ustedes pueden comer la fruta, habiendo esperado para que así los árboles puedan producir más. Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 26 No comas ninguna carne que aún contenga sangre en ella. No consultes los espíritus acerca del futuro, y no busques controlar a otros a través de poderes sobrenaturales. 27 No sigas hábitos paganos tales como, razurarse los lados de la cabeza o recortar las orillas de tu barba. 28 No cortes tu cuerpo para los muertos o pongas marcas tatuadas en tu cuerpo. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 29 No deshonren a su hija convirtiéndola en prostituta, o la nación caerá a la prostitución y la tierra se llenará de maldad. 30 Ustedes deben guardar mis Días de Reposo y honrar el santuario de mi tienda de reunión. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 31 No recurran donde aquellos que hablan con los muertos o con espíritus. No los busquen porque ellos los contaminarán a ustedes. Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 32 Deben ponerse de pie ante las personas con canas y honrar la presencia de un anciano. Debes temer a tu Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 33 Si un extrajero vive entre ustedes en sus tierras, no deben hacerle ningún daño. 34 El extranjero que vive con ustedes debe ser para ustedes como un israelita de nacimiento que vive entre ustedes, lo deben amar como a ustedes mismos, porque ustedes fueron extranjeros en la tierra de Egipto. Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 35 No utilicen medidas falsas cuando midan la longitud, peso o cantidad. 36 Deben usar balanzas justas, pesas justas, y medidas de capacidad justas. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios, quien los sacó de la tierra de Egipto. 37 Deben obedecer todos mis decretos y todas mis leyes, y hacerlas. Yo soy el SEÑOR.'"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 19:1

deben guardar mis Días de Reposo
"observen mis sábados" o "respeten mi día de descanso"

No se vuelvan a ídolos indignos
Se habla de adorar a los ídolos como si estuvieran girando físicamente hacia ellos. Traducción alterna: "No empiecen a adorar ídolos sin valor"

Leviticus 19:5

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

debes ofrecerla para que sean aceptados Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Los posibles significados son 1) El SEÑOR aceptará a la persona que ofrece el sacrificio. Traducción alterna: "debes ofrecerlo correctamente para que te acepte" o 2) El SEÑOR aceptará el sacrificio de la persona. Traducción alterna: "debes ofrecerlo correctamente para que acepte tu sacrificio"

Debe ser comida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes comerlo"

debe ser quemada
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes quemarlo"

Si es comida
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si comes algo de eso"

No debe ser aceptada Comer la ofrenda después del tiempo designado es contra Dios y aumenta la culpa que la ofrenda debía cubrir. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Puede que no lo aceptes para comer"

todo aquel ... debe llevar su propia culpa
Se habla de la culpa de una persona como si fuera un objeto físico que la persona lleva. Aquí la palabra "culpa" representa el castigo por esa culpa. Traducción alterna: "todos ... son responsables de su propia culpa" o "El SEÑOR castigará a todos ... por su pecado"

Esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo.
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si se fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 7:19. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no puede vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a esa persona de su gente"

Leviticus 19:9

Cuando cosechen la cosecha de su tierra, no deberán cosechar completamente las esquinas de tu campo
"Cuando recolectas tus cultivos, no juntes hasta los bordes de tus campos"

ni tampoco juntarán todo el producto de tu cosecha
Esto se refiere a la práctica de volver a los campos por segunda vez para recolectar cualquier producto que haya quedado después de la primera vez. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "y no retrocedas y recojas todo lo que dejaste atrás"

Leviticus 19:11

No deben jurar por mi nombre falsamente
"No uses mi nombre para jurar sobre algo que no es verdad"

Leviticus 19:13

No debes oprimir tu vecino ni robarle
Aquí "vecino" significa "cualquiera". El significado de esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "No lastimes ni robes a nadie"

El salario de un siervo contratado no debe permanecer contigo toda la noche hasta la próxima mañana
El SEÑOR le ordena al empleador que pague a su criado puntualmente cuando termine su trabajo ese día. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar.

Leviticus 19:15

No debes provocar falso juicio
Este doble negativo se utiliza para el énfasis. Puede ser expresado de forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "Siempre juzga correctamente"

Tú no debes mostrar favoritismo a alguien porque él sea pobre, ni tú tampoco debes mostrar favoritismo a alguien porque él es importante Las palabras "pobre" e "importante" son dos extremos, que en conjunto significan "cualquiera". Puedes traducir esto para aclarar los términos. Traducción alterna: "No debes mostrar favoritismo a nadie en base a la cantidad de dinero que tienen"

juzga tu vecino justamente
"juzguen a todos de acuerdo a lo que es correcto"

No debes caminar regando falsas murmuraciones
"No andes chismeando a otras personas"

Leviticus 19:17

No odies a tu hermano en tu corazón
Continuamente se habla de odiar a una persona como si fuera odiar a una persona en el corazón.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traducción alterna: "No odies continuamente a tu hermano"

Tú debes reprender honestamente a tu vecino
"Debes corregir a una persona que está pecando"

Leviticus 19:19

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

vestiduras hechas de dos tipos de material mezclado junto
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ropa que alguien hizo con dos tipos de materiales"

Leviticus 19:20

que está prometida a un marido Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "quien está comprometido para casarse con otro hombre"

pero que no ha sido redimida o dada su libertad Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "pero a quien su futuro esposo no ha rescatado o dado su libertad"

debe ser castigado
Esto ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes castigar a la esclava y al hombre que se acostó con ella"

no deben ser puestos a muerte
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debes matarlos"

Un hombre debe traer su ofrenda de culpa al SEÑOR a la entrada de la tienda de reunión- un carnero como ofrenda de culpa
"Un hombre debe traer un carnero como ofrenda de culpa al SEÑOR a la entrada de la tienda de reunión"

el pecado que él ha cometido será perdonado Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR perdonará el pecado que ha cometido"

Leviticus 19:23

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

entonces debes considerar el fruto producido como prohibido para comerlo ... No debe ser comido El SEÑOR repite la prohibición para enfatizarla y aclarar que está vigente durante los primeros tres años que el árbol da frutos. Traduzca esto para aclarar el período de tiempo que los árboles deben estar solos. Traducción alterna: "entonces no debes comer el fruto de los árboles durante los primeros tres años"

entonces debes considerar el fruto producido como prohibido para comerlo Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes considerar la fruta que producen como algo que te he prohibido comer"

Este fruto debe ser prohibido a ustedes
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Te he prohibido la fruta"

No debe ser comido
Estopuede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debes comerlo"

Leviticus 19:29

la nación caerá a la prostitución y la tierra se llenará de maldad Aquí las palabras "nación" y "tierra" representan a las personas que viven allí. Se habla de muchas personas que practican la prostitución y otras acciones perversas como si hubieran caído o se hayan llenado de esas cosas. Traducción alterna: "la gente comenzará a practicar la prostitución y muchas cosas malas"

Leviticus 19:31

con los muertos o con espíritu
Los posibles significados son 1) que "los muertos" y "los espíritus" son dos cosas diferentes o 2) que esto es un doblete que significa "los espíritus de los muertos"

No los busquen porque ellos los contaminarán a ustedes
"No busquen a esas personas. Si lo hacen, te contaminarán"

Leviticus 19:32

Deben levantarse
Pararse frente a alguien es una señal de respeto. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

las personas de pelo gris persona con cabeza - Se refiere a un persona cuyo cabello se ha vuelto gris por la edad, o "una persona mayor".

Leviticus 19:35

No utilicen medidas falsas
Esto prohíbe la práctica de usar intencionalmente instrumentos que dan lecturas inexactas al medir cosas.

efa
Esta fue una medida para el grano.

hin
Esta fue una medida para líquidos.

deben obedecer ... y hacerlas
Estas frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan el mandato de obediencia.

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Dile al pueblo de Israel: 'Cualquiera entre el pueblo de Israel, o cualquier extranjero que vive en Israel que le dé cualquiera de sus hijos a Moloc, debe, ciertamente, ser puesto a muerte. La gente en la tierra debe apedrearlo. 3 Yo también pondré mi rostro en contra de este hombre, y lo cortaré de entre su pueblo porque ha dado su hijo a Moloc, porque ha contaminado Mi lugar santo y ha profanado Mi santo nombre. 4 Si la gente de la tierra cierra sus ojos a ese hombre cuando le de cualquiera de sus hijos a Moloc, si no lo ponen a muerte, 5 entonces Yo mismo pondré mi rostro en contra de ese hombre y su clan, Y Yo lo cortaré a él y todos aquellos que se prostituyan a sí mismos, para hacerse una prostituta con Moloc. 6 La persona que se vuelva a aquellos que hablan con los muertos, o aquellos que hablan con espíritus para prostituírse a sí mismos con ellos, yo pondré mi rostro en contra de ellos; yo lo cortaré a él de entre su pueblo. 7 Por lo tanto, conságrense a ustedes mismos y sean santos, porque Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios. 8 Ustedes deben guardar mis mandamientos y llevarlos a cabo. Yo soy el SEÑOR, quien los separa como santos. 9 Todo los que maldigan a su padre o a su madre deben seguramente ser puestos a muerte. Él ha maldecido a su padre o a su madre, así que es culpable y merece morir. 10 El hombre que cometa adulterio con la esposa de otro hombre, esto es, cualquiera que cometa adulterio con la esposa de su vecino-- el adúltero y la adúltera ambos deben ser puestos a muerte. 11 El hombre que se acueste con la esposa de su padre para dormir con ella ha deshonrado a su propio padre. Ambos, tanto el hijo y la esposa de su padre deben, ciertamente, ser puestos a muerte. 12 Si un hombre duerme con su nuera, ambos deben, ciertamente, ser puestos a muerte. Ellos han cometido perversión. Ellos son culpables y merecen morir. 13 Si un hombre duerme con otro hombre, como con una mujer, ambos han hecho algo detestable. Ellos deben, seguramente, ser puestos a muerte. Ellos son culpables y merecen morir. 14 Si un hombre se casa con una mujer y también se casa con su madre, esto es maldad. Deben ser quemados, ambos, él y la mujer, para que no haya maldad entre ustedes. 15 Si un hombre duerme con un animal, seguramente, debe ser puesto a muerte, y ustedes deben matar al animal. 16 Si una mujer se acerca a cualquier animal para dormir con él, ustedes deben matar a la mujer y al animal. Ellos deben, ciertamente, ser puestos a muerte. Ellos son culpables y merecen morir. 17 Si un hombre duerme con su hermana, tanto la hija de su padre, o la madre de su hija-- si el duerme con ella y ella con el, es una cosa vergonzosa. Ellos deben ser cortados de la presencia de su pueblo, porque él ha dormido con su hermana. Él debe cargar su culpa. 18 Si un hombre duerme con una mujer durante su período menstrual y ha dormido con ella, él ha descubierto el flujo de su sangre, la fuente de su sangre. Ambos, el hombre y la mujer, deben ser cortados de entre su pueblo. 19 Ustedes no deben dormir con la hermana de su madre, o con la hermana de su padre, porque ustedes deshonrarían a su pariente cercano. Ustedes deberán cargar su propia culpa. 20 Si un hombre duerme con su tía, ha deshonrado a su tío. Cuando ellos mueran, los castigaré a ambos, y cuando ellos mueran, Yo tomaré cualquier herencia que sus hijos puedieran recibir de sus padres. 21 Si un hombre se casa con la esposa de su hermano cuando su hermano todavía vive, esto es vergonozoso. Él ha deshonrado a su hermano, y yo tomaré de sus hijos cualquier propiedad que ellos puedieran heredar de sus padres. 22 Ustedes por lo tanto, deben mantener todos mis estatutos y todos mis decretos; ustedes deben obedecerlos para que la tierra a la que yo los estoy trayendo para vivir no los vomite a ustedes. 23 Ustedes no deben caminar en las costumbres de las naciones que voy a sacar delante de ustedes, pues ellos han hecho todas estas cosas, y yo los detesto. 24 Yo le dije a ustedes: "Ustedes herederán la tierra; Yo se las daré a ustedes para poseerla, una tierra que fluye de leche y miel. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios, quien los ha separado a ustedes de otros pueblos. 25 Ustedes deben entonces distinguir entre los animales limpios y los impuros, y entre las aves impuras y las limpias. Ustedes no se deben contaminar con animales o aves impuras o con cualquier criatura que se arrastra en el suelo, los cuales he separado como impuros para ustedes." 26 Ustedes deben ser santos, pues Yo, el SEÑOR, soy santo, y yo los he separado a ustedes de los otros pueblos, pues ustedes me pertenecen a mí. 27 Un hombre o una mujer que habla con los muertos o que habla con espíritus, deben ciertamente ser puestos a muerte. El pueblo debe apedrearlos. Ellos son culpables y merecen morir.'"

Leviticus 20:1

le dé cualquiera de sus hijos a Moloc
Los que adoraban a Moloc sacrificaban sus hijos a él por medio de fuego. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "mata a cualquiera de sus hijos como un sacrificio a Moloc"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

debe, ciertamente, ser puesto a muerte. La gente en la tierra debe apedrearlo con piedras.
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la gente de la tierra debe apedrearlo hasta la muerte"

Leviticus 20:3

Yo también pondré mi rostro en contra de este hombre
La frase "poner mi cara en contra" es una expresión idiomática que significa "rechazar" o "oponerse fuertemente". Traducción alterna: "También lo rechazaré" o "También me opondré a él"

ha dado su hijo
"ha sacrificado a su hijo"

porque ha contaminado Mi lugar santo y ha profanado Mi santo nombre
"y al hacer eso, él ha contaminado mi lugar santo y ha profanado mi santo nombre"

profanado Mi santo nombre El nombre de Dios representa a Dios y su reputación. Traducción alterna: "deshonrar mi reputación" o "deshonrarme"

cierra sus ojos a La frase "cerrar los ojos" implica que "no pueden ver" y representa su incapacidad para comprender. Traducción alterna: "ignorar" o "ignorar" (UDB)

todos aquellos que se prostituyan a sí mismos, para hacerse una ramera con Moloc Esta frase compara a los que son infieles al SEÑOR con a las prostitutas. Traducción alterna: "quien es infiel al SEÑOR"

Leviticus 20:6

para prostituírse a sí mismos con ellos Esta frase compara a las personas infieles con las prostitutas. Traducción alterna: "haciendo eso, buscan el consejo de los espíritus en lugar de mí"

pondré mi rostro en contra de ellos
"rechazar" o "oponerse fuertemente" . Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 20:3.

Leviticus 20:8

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Ustedes deben guardar mis mandamientos y llevarlos a cabo
Las palabras "guardar" y "llevar a cabo" significan básicamente lo mismo. Se usan juntos para enfatizar que las personas deben obedecer a Dios.

deben seguramente ser puestos a muerte
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente debes dar muerte"

Leviticus 20:10

El hombre que cometa adulterio con la esposa de otro hombre, esto es, cualquiera que cometa adulterio con la esposa de su vecino El significado completo de esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "El hombre que comete adulterio con la esposa de otra persona"

deben ser puestos a muerte Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ciertamente debes darles muerte a ambos"

se acueste con la esposa de su padre para dormir con ella Esta es una forma educada de decir que tuvo relaciones sexuales con la esposa de su padre. Algunos idiomas usan frases más directas como "tiene relaciones sexuales con la esposa de su padre".

Ellos han cometido perversión
Aquí, Dios llama a un hombre que tiene relaciones sexuales con la esposa de su hijo una "perversión", un pecado grave. Ver cómo se ha traducido "perversión" en 18:22.

Leviticus 20:13

un hombre duerme con
Esta es una forma educada de decir que tuvo relaciones sexuales con otro hombre. Algunos idiomas usan frases más directas como "un hombre con quien tuvo relaciones sexuales".

como con una mujer
La forma en que trata al hombre es de la misma manera que trataría a una mujer. Traducción alterna: "tal como lo haría con una mujer"

algo detestable
"algo vergonzoso" o "algo repulsivo"

Ellos deben, seguramente, ser puestos a muerte
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Seguramente debes matarlos"

Deben ser quemados, ambos, él y la mujer
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes quemar a muerte tanto al hombre como a las mujeres"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 20:15

seguramente, debe ser puesto a muerte Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "seguramente deben darle muerte" ustedes deben matar a la mujer y al animal. Ellos deben, ciertamente, ser puestos a muerte Ambas cláusulas significan lo mismo. Destacan que la mujer y el animal deben morir.

Ellos deben, ciertamente, ser puestos a muerte
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente deben darles muerte"

Leviticus 20:17

un hombre duerme con
Esta es una forma educada de decir que tuvo relaciones sexuales con su hermana. Algunos idiomas usan frases más directas como "un hombre con quien tuvo relaciones sexuales".

tanto la hija de su padre, o la madre de su hija Esto significa que un hombre no puede dormir con su hermana, incluso si tiene una madre o un padre diferente. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "si es su hermana completa o su media hermana"

deben ser cortados de
Se habla de una persona que está siendo excluida de su comunidad como si hubiera sido aislada de su gente, como si se fuera a cortar un trozo de tela o cortar una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Ver como se ha traducido esta idea en 7:19. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no puede vivir entre su gente" o "debes separar a esa persona de su gente"

Él debe cargar su culpa
Esta frase significa que el hombre es responsable de su pecado. Traducción alterna: "Él es responsable de su pecado" o "Debes castigarlo"

período mentrual
el tiempo que una mujer sangra desde su vientre

él ha descubierto el flujo de su sangre, la fuente de su sangre Esta frase compara el hecho de tener relaciones sexuales con una mujer durante su período menstrual con la eliminación de la cobertura de algo que debería permanecer oculto. El hecho de que esto fue algo vergonzoso de hacer puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "él ha hecho algo vergonzoso al descubrir el flujo de su sangre"

Ambos, el hombre y la mujer, deben ser cortados
Se puede decir claramente por qué esto debe hacerse. Traducción alterna: "Debido a que han hecho esta cosa vergonzosa, tanto el hombre como la mujer deben ser eliminados"

Leviticus 20:19

dormir con
Esta es una forma educada de decir que tuvo relaciones sexuales con su tía. Algunos idiomas usan frases más directas como "tener sexo con".

Ustedes deberán cargar su propia culpa
El lenguaje "cargue su propia culpa" significa "usted es responsable de su propio pecado". Traducción alterna: "Eres responsable de tu pecado" o "Te castigaré"

Yo tomaré cualquier herencia que sus hijos puedieran recibir de sus padres Muchas versiones de la Biblia traducen esto como "morirán sin hijos".

Leviticus 20:22

la tierra a la que yo los estoy trayendo para vivir no los vomite a ustedes Esta frase describe la tierra como una persona que vomita y necesita rechazar la mala comida. En lugar de rechazar la mala comida, la tierra rechaza a la gente y la elimina. Ver como se ha traducido esta metáfora en 18:24. Traducción alterna: "la tierra a la que te traigo no te rechazará"

Ustedes no deben caminar en
Se habla de hacer las acciones de los adoradores de ídolos como si se andara en sus caminos. Traducción alterna: "no debes seguir"

sacar
"retirar"

Leviticus 20:24

una tierra que fluye de leche y miel
La frase "que fluye de leche y miel" significa "que es rica y productiva con suficiente comida para todos". Traducción alterna: "una tierra que es excelente para el ganado y la agricultura" o "una tierra productiva"

Leviticus 20:26

yo los he separado a ustedes
"los he distinguido" o "los he apartado"

Leviticus 20:27

habla con
"intenta comunicarse con"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

deben ciertamente ser puestos a muerte Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ciertamente deben dar muerte"

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Habla a los sacerdotes, los hijos de Aarón, y diles a ellos: 'Ninguno entre ustedes se hará a sí mismo impuro por aquellos que mueren entre su pueblo, 2 excepto por sus parientes más cercanos su madre, su padre, su hijo, su hija, su hermano, 3 o su hermana virgen que es dependiente de él, ya que ella no tiene esposo por ella, él se puede hacer impuro a sí mismo. 4 Pero él no debe hacerse impuro por otros parientes y así profanarse. 5 Sacerdotes no deben afeitarse sus cabezas o afeitarse las esquinas de sus barbas, o cortar sus cuerpos. 6 Ellos deben ser santos a su Dios y no deben deshonrar el nombre de su Dios, porque los sacerdotes ofrecen al SEÑOR ofrendas de comidas, el pan de su Dios. Por lo tanto, los sacerdotes deben ser santos. 7 Ellos no se deben casar con ninguna mujer que es una prostituta y que esté profanada, y ellos no deben casarse con una mujer divorciada de su esposo, pues ellos están separados para su Dios. 8 Tú lo separarás, pues él es quien le ofrenda pan a su Dios. Él debe ser santo a ti, porque Yo, el SEÑOR, quien te hace santo Yo también soy santo. 9 Cualquier hija de cualquier sacerdote que se profane a sí misma por convertirse en una prostituta desgracia a su padre. Ella debe ser quemada. 10 Aquel que es el Sumo Sacerdote entre sus hermanos, en cuya cabeza se ha vertido el aceite de la unción, y quien ha sido consagrado para usar los vestidos del alto sacerdote, no usará su cabello suelto o rasgará sus ropas. 11 Él no debe ir a ningún lugar en el que esté presente un cuerpo muerto, y que se contamine a sí mismo, aún por su padre o su madre. 12 El alto sacerdote no debe dejar el área del santuario de la tienda de reunión o profanar el santuario de su Dios, porque él ha sido consagrado como alto sacerdote por el aceite de la unción de su Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 13 El alto sacerdote debe casarse con una virgen como su esposa. 14 Él no debe casarse con una viuda, con una mujer divorciada, o una mujer que es una prostituta. Él no se casará con este tipo de mujeres. Él sólo se casará con una virgen de su propia gente, 15 así que, él no contaminará a sus hijos entre su gente, pues yo soy el SEÑOR, quien lo hace santo. 16 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 17 "Háblale a Aarón y dile a él: 'Quien sea de tus descendientes a través de sus generaciones que tenga un defecto corporal, el no debe acercarse a ofrendar la comida a su Dios. 18 Cualquier hombre que tenga un defecto corporal no debe acercarse al SEÑOR, tal como un hombre ciego, o un hombre que no esté capaz para caminar, uno que esté desfigurado o deformado, 19 un hombre con una mano o pie lisiado, 20 un hombre que tenga una joroba en su espalda, o es anormalmente flaco o de baja estatura, o un hombre con un defecto en sus ojos, o con alguna enfermedad, dolor, costras en la piel, o cuyos testículos hayan sido aplastados. 21 Ningún hombre entre los descendientes de Aarón el sacerdote con un defecto corporal; él no deberá acercarse a ofrendar pan a su Dios. 22 Él podrá comer la comida de su Dios, ya sea alguna de la más santa o alguna de la santa. 23 Sin embargo, él no deberá entrar adentro de la cortina o entrar cerca del altar, porque el tiene un defecto corporal, para que él no contamine Mi lugar santo, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR, quien los hace a ellos santo."' 24 Así que, Moisés habló estas palabras a Aarón, a sus hijos, y a todo el pueblo de Israel.

Leviticus 21:1

se hará a sí mismo impuro
Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

entre su pueblo
"entre los israelitas"

virgen
Esto también puede traducirse como "mujer joven"

Leviticus 21:4

esquinas
"bordes" (UDB) o "cualquier parte"

Ellos deben ser santos
"Deben ser apartados"

no deben deshonrar el nombre de su Dios Esta palabra "nombre" se usa para representar el carácter del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "no deshonrar la reputación de Dios" o "no deshonrar a su Dios"

el pan de su Dios
Aquí el "pan" representa la comida en general. El SEÑOR realmente no come estas ofrendas. Es la sinceridad de quienes ofrecen el alimento que agrada a Dios.

Leviticus 21:7

Ellos no se deben
"Los sacerdotes no deben"

pues ellos están separados
"porque están separados" (UDB)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú lo separarás
"Ustedes deben tratar al sacerdote como santo"

pues él es quien le ofrenda pan a su Dios Aquí el "pan" representa la comida en general. El SEÑOR realmente no come estas ofrendas. Traduzca esto de manera que quede claro que El SEÑOR no come la comida.

Él debe ser santo a ti
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes considerarlo santo"

Ella debe ser quemada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes quemarla hasta la muerte"

Leviticus 21:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que deben hacer los sacerdotes.

el aceite de la unción
Esta es una referencia al aceite de unción usado en la ceremonia de consagración del nuevo sumo sacerdote. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

en cuya cabeza se ha vertido el aceite de la unción, y quien ha sido consagrado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "sobre cuya cabeza derramaron aceite de unción y lo consagraron"

no usará su cabello suelto o rasgará sus ropas Cabello suelto y ropa desgarrada eran signos de luto. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

no debe dejar el área del santuario
Esto no significa que el sumo sacerdote nunca podría irse. Dios no le permitió que se fuera para lamentarse por alguien que murió.

Leviticus 21:13

de su propia gente
"de entre su propia tribu, la tribu de Levi"

él no contaminará a sus hijos entre su gente
Al casarse con una mujer no santa o impía, el sacerdote tendría hijos indignos de ser sacerdote. Traducción alterna: "para que no tenga hijos indignos al casarse con una mujer impía"

Leviticus 21:16

él no debe acercarse a ofrendar la comida a su Dios
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "él no debe venir a quemar la ofrenda quemada de comida en el altar de Dios"

Leviticus 21:18

no debe acercarse al SEÑOR
Un sacerdote tenía que cumplir con estándares físicos específicos para acercarse al SEÑOR. Esto no implica que los defectos físicos fueran el resultado de la inmoralidad o que todas las personas con defectos físicos no puedan acercarse al SEÑOR.

uno que esté desfigurado o deformado
"aquel cuyo cuerpo o rostro está deformado"

él no deberá acercarse a ofrendar pan a su Dios Aquí el "pan" representa la comida en general. Traducción alterna: "para hacer un holocausto en el altar de Dios"

Leviticus 21:22

Él podrá
Aquí "él" se refiere al sacerdote con el defecto corporal.

comer la comida de su Dios
"comer la ofrenda de alimentos de su Dios". Partes de los sacrificios pertenecían a los sacerdotes y podían ser comidos.

alguna de la más santa o alguna de la santa Esto también se refiere a la comida que fue sacrificada. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción alterna: "algunos de los sacrificios ofrecidos en el lugar santísimo o algunos de los sacrificios ofrecidos en el lugar santo"

a sus hijos
"a los hijos de Aarón"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 2 "Habla a Aarón y a sus hijos, dile a ellos que se mantengan lejos de las cosas santas del pueblo de Israel, las cuales ellos han apartado para Mí. Ellos no deben profanar Mi santo nombre. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 3 Dile a ellos: 'Si alguno de sus descendientes a través de sus generaciones se acerca a las cosas santas que el pueblo de Israel ha apartado para el SEÑOR, mientras él es impuro, esa persona debe ser cortada de delante de Mí: Yo soy el SEÑOR. 4 Ninguno de los descendientes de Aarón quien tenga una enfermedad infecciosa de la piel, o una infección fluyendo en su cuerpo, puede comer ninguno de los sacrificios hechos al SEÑOR hasta que él sea limpio. Cualquiera que toque algo impuro mediante el contacto con muertos, o por contacto con un hombre que tiene un flujo de semen, 5 o cualquiera que toque cualquier animal que se arrastre, que lo haga impuro, o cualquier persona que lo haga a él impuro, cualquier tipo de impureza que pueda ser- 6 entonces el sacerdote que toque cualquier cosa impura, va a ser impuro hasta la tarde. Él no debe comer ninguna de las cosas santas, a menos que él se haya bañado su cuerpo en agua. 7 Cuando el sol se haya puesto, entonces él será límpio. Después del atardecer él puede comer de las cosas santas, porque estas son su comida. 8 Él no debe comer nada encontrado muerto o matado por animales salvajes, por lo cual él se profanaría a sí mismo. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 9 Los sacerdotes deben seguir mis instrucciones, o ellos serán culpables de pecado y pueden morir por profanarme a Mí. Yo soy el SEÑOR quien los hace santos. 10 Nadie fuera de la familia sacerdotal, incluyendo invitados de un sacerdote o sus sirvientes a los servicio, pueden comer algo que es santo. 11 Pero si un sacerdote compra algún esclavo con su propio dinero, el esclavo puede comer de las cosas apartadas para el SEÑOR. Los miembros de la familia sacerdotal y los esclavos nacidos en su casa, ellos también pueden comer con él de esas cosas. 12 Si la hija de un sacerdote se casa con alguien que no es un sacerdote, ella no puede comer nada de las contribuciones santas ofrendadas. 13 Pero si la hija del sacerdote es una viuda o divorciada, y si ella no tiene hijo, y ella vuelve a vivir en la casa de su padre como en su juventud, ella puede comer de la comida de su padre. Pero nadie que no esta en la familia sacerdotal puede comer de la comida del sacerdote. 14 Si un hombre come comida santa sin saberlo, entonces él debe reembolsarle al sacerdote por ella; él deberá añadirle una quinta parte a este y devolverselo al sacerdote. 15 El pueblo de Israel no puede deshonrar las cosas santas que ellos ha levantado en alto y presentado al SEÑOR, 16 y causar que ellos mismo carguen el pecado que los haría a ellos culpables de comer la comida santa, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR quien los hace a ellos santos.'" 17 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés diciendo: 18 "Habla a Aarón y sus hijos, y a todo el pueblo de Israel. Dile a ellos: "Cualquier israelita, o extranjero viviendo en Israel, cuando ellos presenten un sacrificio--sea para cumplir un voto o sea una ofrenda voluntaria, o ellos presenten al SEÑOR una ofrenda quemada, 19 para que puede ser aceptada, ellos tienen que ofrecer un animal macho sin defecto del ganado, oveja o cabra. 20 Pero tú no debes ofrecer lo que tenga defecto. Yo no lo aceptaré de parte tuya. 21 Cualquiera que ofresca un sacrificio de ofrenda de compañerismo del rebaño, al SEÑOR para cumplir un voto, o como una ofrenda voluntaria, debe ser sin defecto para ser aceptada. No puede haber ningún defecto en el animal. 22 Ustedes no deben ofrecer animales que son ciegos, discapacitados o mutilados, o que tengan berrugas, llagas, o costras. Ustedes no deben ofrecer estos al SEÑOR como un sacrificio por fuego sobre el altar. 23 Ustedes pueden presentar como una ofrenda voluntaria un buey o un cordero que es deformado o pequeño, pero una ofrenda como esa no será aceptada para un voto. 24 No ofrezcan ningún animal al SEÑOR que tenga testiculos magullados, aplastados, estropeados, o cortados. No hagan esto dentro de su tierra. 25 Ustedes no deben presentar el pan de su Dios de la mano de un extranjero. Esos animales son deformados y tienen defectos en ellos, ellos no te serán aceptados.'" 26 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 27 "Cuando un becerro o una oveja o una cabara es nacido, tiene que permanecer siete días con su madre. Entonces, desde el octavo día en adelante, este podrá ser aceptado como un sacrificio por una ofrenda hecha por fuego al SEÑOR. 28 No mates una vaca u oveja junto a con su cria, ambos en el mismo día. 29 Cuando ustedes sacrifiquen una ofrenda de gratitud al SEÑOR, ustedes deben sacrificarla de manera aceptable. 30 Esta debe ser comida en el mismo día que fue sacrificada. Ustedes no deben dejar nada de ella para el día siguiente. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 31 Así que, ustedes deben guardar mis mandamientos y llevarlos a cabo. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 32 Ustedes no deben deshonrar Mi santo nombre. Yo debo ser reconocido como santo por el pueblo de Israel. Yo soy el SEÑOR, quien los hace a ustedes santos, 33 quien los sacó a ustedes de la tierra de Egipto para ser su Dios: Yo soy el SEÑOR."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 22:1

dile a ellos que se mantengan lejos de las cosas santas
"Diles cuándo deben mantenerse alejados de las cosas santas". El SEÑOR está a punto de describir situaciones en las que un sacerdote es impuro y no se le permite tocar cosas santas.

profanar Mi santo nombre La palabra "profano" aquí significa deshonra. La palabra "nombre" representa el carácter del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "deshonrar mi reputación" o "deshonrarme"

a través de sus generaciones
"de ahora en adelante"

mientras él es impuro
Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

esa persona debe ser cortada de delante de Mí
Se habla de un sacerdote que ya no puede servir al SEÑOR como si esa persona hubiera sido cortada de la presencia del SEÑOR, como si uno cortara un trozo de tela o cortara una rama de un árbol. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "esa persona ya no podrá servir como sacerdote"

Leviticus 22:4

enfermedad infectuosa de la piel
una enfermedad en la piel que se propaga fácilmente de una persona a otra una infección fluyendo en su cuerpo

"una descarga corporal"

en su cuerpo
Esta es una forma educada de referirse a las partes privadas de un hombre. Ver cómo se ha traducido una frase similar en 15:1. Traducción alterna: "de sus partes privadas"

hasta que él sea limpio
Se habla de una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

Cualquiera que toque algo impuro
Se habla de algo que El SEÑOR ha dicho que no es apto para tocar o comer como si fuera físicamente impuro.

mediante el contacto con muertos
"tocando un cuerpo muerto"

los sacrificios hechos al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los sacrificios que alguien le ha ofrecido al SEÑOR"

o cualquiera que toque cualquier animal que se arrastre, que lo haga impuro, o cualquier persona que lo haga a él impuro Esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "o el que sea impuro al tocar un animal que se arrastra o al tocar a otra persona impura"

el sacerdote ... va a ser impuro
Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

hasta la tarde
"hasta el ocaso"

Leviticus 22:7

entonces él será límpio
"entonces el sacerdote será considerado limpio". Se habla de una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si estuviera físicamente limpia.

encontrado muerto o matado por animales salvajes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que alguien encontró muerto o que un animal salvaje ha matado"

Leviticus 22:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que Aarón y sus hijos deben hacer.

Leviticus 22:12

las contribuciones santas ofrendadas
La palabra "contribución" puede ser traducido con una frase verbal. Traducción alterna: "las ofrendas sagradas que las personas han contribuido"

Leviticus 22:14

él debe reembolsarle al sacerdote por ella; él deberá añadirle un-quinto a este y devolverselo quinto - Los posibles significados son 1) que la persona tuvo que reemplazar la comida que había comido con el mismo tipo de comida o 2) que la persona tenía que pagar dinero al sacerdote por la comida que había comido.

un-quinto
quinto - Esta es una parte de cinco partes iguales.

no puede deshonrar las cosas santas Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. Traducción alterna: "debe tratar las cosas santas con honor"

ellos ha levantado en alto y presentado
La frase "levantado en alto" se refiere a un gesto simbólico de respeto que representa ofrecer algo al SEÑOR. Significa básicamente lo mismo que

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"presentado". Traducción alterna: "que han ofrecido"

causar que ellos mismo carguen el pecado que los haría a ellos culpables Se habla del pecado como si fuera un objeto que la gente puede llevar. Los posibles significados son 1) serían responsables del pecado y, por lo tanto, se volverían culpables. Traducción alterna: "serían culpables por el pecado que cometieron" o 2) la palabra "pecado" es un metónimo de castigo por el pecado que cometieron. Traducción alterna: "recibirían el castigo porque son culpables"

Leviticus 22:17

extranjero
"un extranjero"

para que puede ser aceptada
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si el SEÑOR debe aceptarlo" o "si yo, el SEÑOR, debo aceptarlo"

Leviticus 22:20

para ser aceptada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que lo acepte" o "para que el SEÑOR lo acepte"

Leviticus 22:22

mutilados, o que tengan berrugas
Estas palabras se refieren a defectos causados por accidentes.

berrugas, llagas,o costras
Estos se refieren a los tipos de enfermedades de la piel.

no será aceptada
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No aceptaré" o "El SEÑOR no aceptará"

deformado o pequeño
Estas palabras se refieren a los defectos que el animal tiene desde el nacimiento.

Leviticus 22:24

no deben presentar el pan de su Dios Aquí el "pan" representa la comida en general. Dios en realidad no comió los sacrificios. Los sacerdotes ofrecían el sacrificio en el altar de Dios y comían un poco de la carne. Traducción alterna: "no debe presentar un animal como ofrenda de comida a su Dios"

de la mano de un extranjero La palabra "mano" representa a toda la persona. Se da a entender que los israelitas no podrían usar animales como un sacrificio a Dios si lo compraban de un extranjero, porque los extranjeros castran a sus animales haciéndolos inaceptables para Dios. Traducción alterna: "que un extranjero te ha dado, porque castran a sus animales"

ellos no te serán aceptados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El SEÑOR no los aceptará de ti"

Leviticus 22:26

podrá ser aceptado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "puedes aceptarlo" por una ofrenda hecha por fuego

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para una ofrenda quemada"

Leviticus 22:28

debe ser comida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes comerlo" que fue sacrificada

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que lo sacrificaste"

Leviticus 22:31

guardar mis mandamientos y llevarlos a cabo.
Las palabras "guardar" y "llevar a cabo" significan lo mismo. Enfatizan que las personas deben obedecer los mandamientos de Dios. Traducción alterna: "obedecer mis mandamientos"

no deben deshonrar Mi santo nombre Aquí la palabra "nombre" representa al SEÑOR mismo y su reputación. Traducción alterna: "No debes deshonrarme" o "No debes deshonrar mi santa reputación"

Yo debo ser reconocido como santo por el pueblo de Israel Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El pueblo de Israel debe reconocerme como santo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés: 2 "Háblale a la gente de Israel, y dile a ellos: 'Estos son los festivales asignados por el SEÑOR, los cuales ustdes deben proclamar como asambleas santas; ellos son mis festivales regulares. 3 Ustedes pueden trabajar por seis días, pero el séptimo día es un Día de Reposo completo, una santa asamblea. Ustedes no deben hacer trabajo, porque es un Día de Reposo para el SEÑOR en todos los lugares donde ustedes viven. 4 Estos son los festivales señalados por el SEÑOR, las asambleas santas que ustedes deben anunciar en sus tiempos señalados: 5 en el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes al anochecer, es la Pascua del SEÑOR. 6 En el día quince del mismo mes, es el Festival de los Panes sin Levadura para el SEÑOR. Por siete días, ustedes deben comer pan sin levadura. 7 Ustedes deben separar el primer día para reunirse; ustedes no harán nada de su trabajo regular. 8 Ustedes presentarán una ofrenda de comida al SEÑOR por siete días. El séptimo día es una asamblea separada para el SEÑOR, y en ese día ustedes no deben hacer ningún trabajo regular.'" 9 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 10 "Háblale a la gente de Israel y dile a ellos: 'Cuando hayan venido a la tierra que Yo les daré, y cuando hayan levantado su cosecha, entonces ustedes deben traer una parte de sus primicias al sacerdote. 11 Él levantará la primicia ante el SEÑOR y se lo presentará a Él, para que sea aceptado en nombre de ustedes. Es en el día después del Día de Reposo que el sacerdote lo levantará y lo presentará a Mí. 12 En el día que ustedes levanten las primicias y lo presenten a Mí, ustedes deben ofrecer un cordero de un año de edad y sin macha como una ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR. 13 La ofrenda de grano debe ser tres cuartos de harina fina mezclada con aceite, una ofrenda hecha por fuego al SEÑOR, para producir un dulce aroma, y con ella una ofrenda de un litro y medio de vino, 14 Ustedes no deben comer ningún pan, ni tostado ni grano fresco, hasta el mismo día que hayan traído esta ofrenda a su Dios. Esto será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente, en cada lugar en que ustedes vivan. 15 Empezando desde el día luego del Día de Reposo ese era el día que ustedes trajeron las primicias de la ofrenda mecida cuenten siete semanas completas. 16 Ustedes deben contar cincuenta días, el cual será el día luego del séptimo Día de Reposo. Entonces, ustedes deben presentarle una ofrenda de grano nuevo al SEÑOR. 17 Ustedes deben sacar de sus casas dos piezas grandes de pan hechas con dos tres cuartos de harina. Ellas deben estar hechas de harina fina y horneadas con levadura; ellas serán una ofrenda mecida de las primicias para el SEÑOR. 18 Ustedes deben presentar con el pan, siete corderos de un año de edad y sin mancha, un toro joven y dos carneros. Ellos deben ser una ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR, con sus ofrendas de grano y sus ofrendas de bebidas, una ofrenda hecha con fuego y produciendo un dulce aroma para el SEÑOR. 19 Ustedes deben ofrecer un macho cabrío, una ofrenda por el pecado, y dos corderos de un año para un sacrificio, como ofrendas de paz. 20 El sacerdote debe mecerlos junto con el pan de las primicias ante el SEÑOR, y preséntarselos a Él como una ofrenda con los dos corderos. Ellos serán ofrendas santas al SEÑOR para el sacerdote. 21 Ustedes deben hacer una proclamación en ese mismo día. Habrá una santa asamblea, y ustedes no deben hacer trabajo ordinario. Esto será un mandamiento permanente a través de las generación es de su gente en todos los lugares donde ustedes vivan. 22 Cuando levanten la cosecha de su tierra, ustedes no deben completamente cosechar los bordes de sus campos, y ustedes no deben levantar las espigas de su cosecha. Ustedes deben dejarlas para los pobres y para el extranjero. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios.'" 23 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 24 "Háblale a la gente de Israel y diles: 'En el séptimo mes, el primer día de ese mes, será un solemne descanso para ustedes, un recordatorio con el sonido de trompetas, y una santa asamblea. 25 Ustedes no deben hacer trabajo ordinario, y ustedes deben ofrecer un sacrificio hecho por fuego al SEÑOR.'" 26 Entonces el SEÑOR le habló a Moisés, diciendo: 27 "Ahora, en el décimo día de este séptimo mes en el Día de la Expiación. Es una santa asamblea, y ustedes deben humillarse a sí mismos y presentarle al SEÑOR una ofrenda de fuego. 28 Ustedes no deben hacer trabajo en ese día porque es el Día de la Expiación, para hacer expiación por ustedes mismos ante el SEÑOR su Dios. 29 Cualquiera que no se humille a sí mismo ese día, deberá ser cortado de su gente. 30 Cualquiera que haga algún trabajo en ese día, Yo, el SEÑOR, lo destruiré de entre su gente. 31 Ustedes no deben hacer ningún tipo de trabajo en ese día. Esto será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente en todos los lugares donde ustedes vivan. 32 Este día debe ser para ustedes un Día de Reposo solemne, y ustdes deben humillarse a sí mismos el noveno día del mes en la tarde. De tarde a tarde, ustedes están para celebrar su Día de Reposo." 33 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés diciendo: 34 "Háblale a la gente de Israel, diciedo: 'En el día quince del séptimo mes será el Festival de los Tabernáculos para el SEÑOR. Durará siete días. 35 En el primer día debe haber una santa asamblea. Ustedes no deben hacer trabajo ordinario. 36 Por siete días ustedes deben ofrecer un sacrificio hecho por fuego al SEÑOR. En el octavo día debe haber una santa asamblea, y ustedes deben hacer un sacrificio ofrecido con fuego al SEÑOR. Esto es una asamblea solemne, y ustedes no deben hacer ningún trabajo ordinario. 37 Estos son los festivales señalados para el SEÑOR, los cuales ustedes deben proclamar como asambleas santas para ofrecerle sacrificio por fuego al SEÑOR, una ofrenda quemada y una ofrenda de grano, sacrificios y ofrendas de bebida, cada una en su día. 38 Estos festivales serán añadidos a los Días de Resposo del SEÑOR y sus regalos, todos sus votos, y todas las ofrendas voluntarias que ustedes le dan al SEÑOR. 39 De acuerdo al Festival de los Tabernáculos, en el día quince del séptimo mes, cuando ustedes hayan recogido los frutos de la tierra, ustedes deben mantener este festival por siete días. El primer día será un solemne descanso, y el octavo día también será un descanso solemne. 40 En el primer día, ustedes deben tomar la mejor fruta de los árboles, ramas de palma, ramas frondosas de los árboles gruesos, y sauces de los arroyos, y ustedes se alegrarán ante el Señor su Dios por siete días. 41 Por siete días cada años, ustedes deben celebrar este festival para el SEÑOR. Esto será un mandamiento permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente en todos los lugares donde ustedes vivan. Ustedes deben celebrar este festival en el séptimo mes. 42 Ustedes deben vivir en pequeños refugios por siete días. Todos los nativos israelitas deben vivir en pequeños refugios por siete días, 43 para que sus descendientes, generación tras generación, puedan aprender como Yo hice que la gente de Israel viviera en refugios cuando los saqué fuera de la tierra de Egipto. Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios.'" 44 De esta manera, Moisés anunció a la gente de Israel los festivales asignados por el SEÑOR.

Leviticus 23:1

los festivales asignados por el SEÑOR Estos eran festivales para los cuales el Señor había señalado tiempos. La gente debía adorarle en estos festivales. Traducción alterna: "las fiestas para el SEÑOR" o "las fiestas del SEÑOR"

Leviticus 23:3

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer en días y horas especiales.

el séptimo día es un Día de Reposo completo Esto es algo que la gente debe hacer habitualmente. Después de cada seis días en que pueden trabajar, deben descansar en el séptimo día.

una santa asamblea
Se habla del requisito de que las personas se reúnan para adorar a Dios en ese día como si ese día fuera la asamblea. Traducción alterna: "un día santo, cuando deben reunirse para adorarme"

Leviticus 23:4

en sus tiempos asignados
"a su debido tiempo"

el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes ... el día quince del mismo mes
El primer mes del calendario hebreo marca cuando el SEÑOR sacó a los israelitas de Egipto. El decimocuarto día y el decimoquinto día son alrededor de principios de abril en el calendario occidental.

al anochecer
"al atardecer"

Leviticus 23:7

Ustedes deben separar el primer día para reunirse
"Deben separar el primer día para reunirse" o "Deben tratar el primer día como diferente y reunirse"

presentarán una ofrenda de comida
Ellos lo presentarían al SEÑOR quemándolo en el altar.

El séptimo día es una asamblea separada para el SEÑOR
Se habla del requisito de que las personas se reúnan ese día como si ese día fuera la asamblea. Estar apartado al SEÑOR significa que cuando se reúnen, deben adorar al SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "El séptimo día es un día en el que debe reunirse para adorar al SEÑOR"

Leviticus 23:9

un recogido de sus primicias
"la primera gavilla" o "el primer paquete de grano". Una "gavilla" es un montón de grano que una persona ha atado.

para que sea aceptado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para que el SEÑOR lo acepte" o "y lo aceptaré"

Leviticus 23:12

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

dos décimas de una efa
Un efa es de 22 litros. Traducción alterna: "cuatro litros y medio"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un cuarto de un hin
Un hin es de 3,7 litros. Traducción alterna: "un litro" ni tostado ni grano fresco

"ni grano cocido ni crudo"

Esto será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente
Esto significa que ellos y sus descendientes deben obedecer este mandato para siempre. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 3:15.

Leviticus 23:15

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

cincuenta días
"50 días"

séptimo
Esta es la forma ordinal para el número siete.

Leviticus 23:17

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

hechas con dos décimas de una efa. Ellas deben estar hechas de harina fina y horneadas con levadura Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que has hecho de dos décimas de efa de harina y luego horneadas con levadura"

dos décimas de una efa
Esto es de aproximadamente 4,5 litros. Traducción alterna: "cuatro litros y medio"

produciendo un dulce aroma para el SEÑOR
El placer del Señor con el aroma representa su placer con la persona que quema la ofrenda. Traducción alterna: "y el SEÑOR estará complacido contigo" o "que agrada al SEÑOR"

Leviticus 23:19

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Leviticus 23:22

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Cuando segen la cosecha de su tierra, ustedes no deben completamente segar los bordes de sus campos
"Cuando recolecten sus cultivos, no los acumulen hasta los bordes de sus campos"

Leviticus 23:23

el séptimo mes, el primer día de ese mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de mediados de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales.

un solemne descanso
un período de tiempo que fue solo para la adoración y no para el trabajo

ustedes deben ofrecer un sacrificio hecho por fuego al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "deben ofrecer un sacrificio que hacen con fuego para el SEÑOR" o "deben quemar una ofrenda en el altar para el SEÑOR"

Leviticus 23:26

en el décimo día de este séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El décimo día está cerca del final de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales.

el Día de la Expiación
En este día, cada año, el sumo sacerdote hacía un sacrificio para el SEÑOR para que el SEÑOR perdonara todos los pecados del pueblo de Israel. Traducción alterna: "El Día del Sacrificio por el Perdón"

Leviticus 23:28

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer cada año.

deberá ser cortado de su gente
Se habla de ser excluido como se fuera a ser cortado. Ver como se ha traducido esta idea en 7:19. Traducción alterna: "debe ser excluido de su gente" o "debe separar a esa persona de su gente"

Leviticus 23:30

expresión de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer cada año.

en ese día
"en el día de la expiación"

Esto será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones de su gente
Esto significa que ellos y sus descendientes deben obedecer este mandato para siempre. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en 3:15.

un Día de Reposo solemne Esto no es lo mismo que el sábado que observaron cada semana en el séptimo día. Este fue un sábado especial en el día de la expiación.

ustedes deben humillarse a sí mismos
En este caso, humillarse a sí mismo implica que no comerían ningún alimento. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "deben humillarse y no comer nada"

el noveno día del mes
Esto se refiere al séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El noveno día está cerca del final de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales. Esto se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "el noveno día del séptimo mes"

De tarde a tarde
"De la puesta de sol a la puesta de sol del día siguiente"

Leviticus 23:33

el día quince del séptimo mes
Esto es cerca de principios de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

Festival de los Refugios
Esta es una celebración durante la cual el pueblo de Israel vivió en refugios temporales durante siete días como una forma de recordar el tiempo que pasaron viviendo en el desierto después de salir de Egipto.

Leviticus 23:35

Información general:
El SEÑOR está dando instrucciones para el Festival de Refugios.

Leviticus 23:37

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer cada año.

Estos son los festivales asignados
Esto se refiere a los festivales mencionados en 23:1-36.

Leviticus 23:39

Declaración de conexión:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer cada año.

Festival de los Refugios
Esta es una celebración durante la cual el pueblo de Israel vivió en refugios temporales durante siete días como una forma de recordar el tiempo que pasaron viviendo en el desierto después de salir de Egipto. Ver como se ha traducido en 23:33.

el día quince del séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El decimoquinto día está cerca de principios de octubre en los calendarios occidentales.

cuando ustedes hayan recogido los frutos
La palabra "frutos" aquí representa varios tipos de cultivos. Traducción alterna: "después de haber recogido los cultivos"

Leviticus 23:40

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa sus instrucciones para el Festival de Refugios.

ramas de palma ... sauces de los arroyos Los posibles usos de estas ramas son 1) para hacer refugios temporales o 2) para agitarlos como parte de su feliz celebración. Algunas traducciones establecen claramente su uso; Otras traducciones lo dejan implícito.

sauces
árboles con hojas largas y estrechas, que crecen cerca del agua

Leviticus 23:42

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa sus instrucciones para el Festival de Refugios.

sus descendientes, generación tras generación, puedan aprender
"Generación tras generación" es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a cada generación que vive después de otra. Traducción alterna: "tus descendientes que pertenecen a todas las generaciones futuras pueden aprender" o "todos tus descendientes pueden aprender para siempre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 El Señor habló a Moisés diciendo: 2 "Ordena al pueblo de Israel a traerte aceite de olivos puro machacado para ser usado en las lámparas, que su luz pueda arder continuamente. 3 Fuera de la cortina ante el decreto del pacto en la tienda de reunión, Aarón debe continuamente, desde la tarde hasta la mañana, mantener la lámpara encendida ante el SEÑOR. Esto será un mandamiento permanente a través de las generaciones del pueblo. 4 El alto sacerdote debe mantener siempre las lámparas encendidas ante el SEÑOR, las lámparas en los candelero de oro puro. 5 Ustedes tomarán harina fina y hornearán 12 piezas de pan grandes con ella. Debe haber tres cuartos de harina en cada pieza. 6 Luego, ustedes deben ponerlas en dos hileras, seis en cada hilera, en la mesa de oro puro ante el SEÑOR. 7 Ustedes deben poner incienso puro a lo largo de cada hilera de pan como una ofrenda representativa. Éste incienso deberá ser quemado para el SEÑOR. 8 Cada día de reposo el alto sacerdote debe regularmente colocar el pan ante el SEÑOR en favor del pueblo de Israel, como señal de un pacto eterno. 9 Esta ofrenda será por Aarón y sus hijos, y ellos lo comerán en un lugar que es santo, porque es una porción de las ofrendas al Señor hechas por fuego.'' 10 Ahora sucedió que el hijo de una mujer israelita, cuyo padre era un egipcio, fue entre el pueblo de Israel. Este hijo de la mujer israelita luchó contra un hombre israelita en el campamento. 11 El hijo de la mujer israelita blasfemó el nombre del SEÑOR y maldijo a Dios, así que, la gente lo trajo ante Moisés. El nombre de su madre era Selomit, la hija de Dibri, de la tribu de Dan. 12 Ellos lo tomaron en custodia hasta que el SEÑOR por sí mismo les declarara su voluntad a ellos. 13 Entonces el SEÑOR habló a Moisés, diciendo: 14 "Toma al hombre que ha maldecido a Dios fuera del campamento. Todos quienes lo han oído deben poner sus manos sobre su cabeza, y entonces toda la asamblea debe apedrearlo. 15 Ustedes deben explicarle al pueblo de Israel y decirle: 'Cualquiera que maldiga su Dios deberá cargar su propia culpa. 16 Aquel que blasfeme el nombre del SEÑOR seguramente deberá ser puesto a muerte. Toda la asamblea debe ciertamente apedrearlo, así sea un extranjero o un nativo-israelita. Si cualquiera blasfema el nombre del SEÑOR, él deberá ser puesto a muerte. 17 Si alguno mata a otro ser humano, él ciertamente debe ser puesto a muerte. 18 Si alguno mata el animal de alguien, él debe pagarle, vida por vida. 19 Si alguno lastima a su vecino, se le debe hacer a él como el hizo a su vecino: 20 fractura por fractura, ojo por ojo, diente por diente. Así como él ha causado una lesión a una persona, se le debe hacer a él. 21 Cualquiera que mate un animal debe pagarlo, y cualquiera que mate a una persona debe ser puesto a muerte. 22 Deben tener la misma ley para ambos el extranjero y el nativo-Israelita, porque Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios.''' 23 Así que, Moisés habló al pueblo de Israel, y el pueblo trajo el hombre fuera del campamento, el que había maldecido al SEÑOR. Lo apedrearon. Él pueblo de Israel llevó a cabo el mandato del SEÑOR a Moisés.

Leviticus 24:1

Información general:
Dios le da instrucciones a Moisés acerca de las cosas en la tienda de reunión.

aceite de olivos puro
"aceite de oliva puro"

las lámparas
Esto se refiere a la lámpara o lámparas en la tienda sagrada del SEÑOR. Esto se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "la lámpara en la tienda de la reunión"

Leviticus 24:3

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa dando instrucciones a Moisés acerca de las cosas en la tienda de reunión.

Fuera de la cortina ante el decreto del pacto
La frase "decretos del pacto" representa o a las tablas en que las se escribieron los decretos o la caja en la que se colocaron las tablas. Se guardaron en el lugar más sagrado, que era la habitación detrás de la cortina en la tienda de reunión. Traducción alterna: "Fuera de la cortina que está frente a las tablas de los decretos del pacto" o "Fuera de la cortina que está frente a la caja del pacto"

cortina
Esta era una tela gruesa colgada como una pared. No era como una cortina de ventana ligera.

desde la tarde hasta la mañana
"desde el atardecer hasta el amanecer" o "toda la noche"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esto será un estatuto permanente a través de las generaciones del pueblo
Esto significa que ellos y sus descendientes deben obedecer este mandato para siempre. Ver como se ha traducido una frase similar en 3:15.

Leviticus 24:5

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa dando instrucciones a Moisés acerca de las cosas en la tienda de reunión.

dos décimas de un efa
Esto es alrededor de 4.5 litros. Traducción alterna: "cuatro litros y medio"

la mesa de oro puro ante el SEÑOR
Esta mesa está en el lugar santo, que está antes del lugar santísimo.

Leviticus 24:7

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa dando instrucciones a Moisés acerca de las cosas en la tienda de reunión.

Ustedes deben poner incienso puro a lo largo de cada hilera de hogazas
El incienso probablemente estaba al lado de los panes, en lugar de estar directamente sobre los panes.Traducción alterna: "Debes poner incienso puro junto a los panes en cada fila" una ofrenda representativa

Lo que representaría el incienso puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "para representar los panes como una ofrenda" o "para ser una ofrenda que representa los panes"

Éste incienso deberá ser quemado para el SEÑOR Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Quemarás el incienso para el SEÑOR"

esta ofrenda
"Este pan que se ofrece"

porque es una porción de las ofrendas
"porque lo tomaron de las ofrendas"

las ofrendas al Señor hechas por fuego
"las ofrendas quemadas para el SEÑOR" o "las ofrendas que ustedes queman para el SEÑOR"

Leviticus 24:10

Ahora sucedió
Esta frase marca una nueva sección del libro.

blasfemó el nombre del SEÑOR y maldijo a Dios Ambas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Traducción alterna: "blasfemó al SEÑOR maldiciéndolo" o "dijo cosas terribles sobre el SEÑOR" (Ver: paralelismo de figs)

Leviticus 24:13

Todos quienes lo han oido deben poner sus manos sobre su cabeza
Debían poner sus manos sobre su cabeza para demostrar que él era el culpable. (Ver: traducir_simacción)

Leviticus 24:15

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que deben hacer al hombre que maldijo a Dios.

deberá cargar su propia culpa Se habla del sufrimiento por el pecado como si una persona fuera a cargar con su culpa. Traducción alterna: "debe sufrir por su pecado" o "debe ser castigado seguramente deberá ser puesto a muerte

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la gente seguramente debe darle muerte" o "la gente seguramente debe matarlo"

Leviticus 24:17

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés qué debe hacer la gente cuando alguien hace algo malo.

él ciertamente debe ser puesto a muerte
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Ciertamente debes matar a cualquiera que mate a otra persona"

él debe pagarle
Se puede decir claramente cómo se lo devolverá. Traducción alterna: "debe pagarlo devolviéndole un animal vivo" vida por vida

Este es una expresión idiomática que significa que una vida reemplazaría a la otra. Traducción alterna: "una vida para reemplazar la otra vida" o "para reemplazar la que mató"

Leviticus 24:19

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés qué debe hacer la gente cuando alguien hace algo malo.

se le debe hacer a él Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes hacerle a él" fractura por fractura, ojo por ojo, diente por diente Estas frases enfatizan que una persona debe recibir el mismo daño que le hizo a otra persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

fractura por fractura
Esto se refiere a los huesos rotos. Traducción alterna: "hueso roto por hueso roto" o "Si rompe el hueso de alguien, uno de sus huesos debe serr roto" o "Si rompe el hueso de alguien, él romperá uno de sus huesos"

ojo por ojo
Esto se refiere a los ojos que están gravemente heridos o arrancados. Traducción alterna: "Si destruye el ojo de alguien, uno de sus huesos debe ser destruido" o "Si destruye el ojo de alguien, él destruirá su ojo"

diente por diente
Esto se refiere a los dientes que se sacan de la boca. Traducción alterna: "Si golpea el diente de alguien, uno de sus dientes debe ser removido" o "Si golpea el diente de alguien, ellos sacarán uno de sus dientes"

cualquiera que mate a una persona debe ser puesto a muerte Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "deben matar a cualquiera que mate a una persona"

Leviticus 24:22

llevó a cabo el mandato
"obedeció el mandamiento"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés en el Monte Sinaí diciendo: 2 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y dile a ellos: 'Cuando tú entren a la tierra que Yo te doy, entonces la tierra debe ser hecha para mantener un Día de Reposo para el SEÑOR. 3 Tú debes sembrar tu campo por seis años, y por seis años tú debes podar tú viña y recoger el producto. 4 Pero en el séptimo año, un Día de Reposo de descanso solemne para la tierra debe ser observado, un Día de Reposo para el SEÑOR. Tú no debes sembrar tú campo o podar tú viña. 5 Tú no conducirás una cosecha organizada de cualquier cosa que crezca por sí mismo, y tú no debes conducir una cosecha organizada de cualquier clase de uvas que crezca en tú viña sin podar. Este será un año de descanso solemne para la tierra. 6 Lo que sea que la tierra sin trabajar produzca durante ese Año de Reposo será alimento para ti. Tú, tus sirvientes varones y siervientes mujeres, tus sirvientes contratados y los forasteros que viven contigo podrán recoger comida. 7 Y tú ganado y también tus animales salvajes pueden comer lo que sea que la tierra produzca. 8 Tú debes contar siete años de Reposo, eso es, siete veces siete años, así que, habrán siete años de Reposo, totalizando cuarentinueve años. 9 Entonces tú debes sonar fuertemente una trompeta en todo lugar en el décimo día del séptimo mes. En el Día de Expiación debes sonar la trompeta a través de toda tú tierra. 10 Tu debes separar el quincuagésimo año al SEÑOR y proclamar libertad a través de la tierra a todos sus habitantes. Será un Jubileo para ti, en cuya propiedad y esclavos deben retornar a sus familias. 11 El quincuagésimo año será de Jubileo para ti. Tu no debes sembrar o conducir una cosecha organizada. Come lo que crezca por sí mismo, y recoge las uvas que crecen en las viñas sin podar. 12 Por cuanto es un Jubileo, el cual será santo para ti. Tú debes comer el producto que crece sólo fuera del campo. 13 Tu debes regresar a todos a su propia propiedad en este año de Jubileo. 14 Si tú vendes alguna tierra a tu vecino o compras cualquier tierra de tú vecino, tú no debes hacer trampa o engañar el uno al otro. 15 Si tú compras tierra de tu vecino, considera el número de años y cosechas que pueden ser recogidas hasta el próximo Jubileo. Tu vecino vendiendo la tierra debe considerar eso también. 16 Un número mayor de años hasta el próximo Jubileo aumentará el valor de la tierra, y y un número de años menor hasta el próximo Jubileo bajará el valor, porque el número de cosechas que la tierra produce para el nuevo dueño está relacionado al número de años antes del próximo Jubileo. 17 Tú no debes hacer trampa o engañar uno al otro, en vez de eso, tú debes honrar a tu Dios, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR tu Dios. 18 Por lo tanto tú debes obedecer mis decretos, mantener mis leyes y llevarlas a cabo. Entonces, tú vivirás en la tierra en seguridad. 19 La tierra rendirá su producto, y tú comerás tú porción y vivirás allí en seguridad. 20 Tú podrás decir: "¿Qué comeremos durante el séptimo año? Mira, no podemos sembrar ni recoger nuestro producto. 21 "Yo mandaré mi bendición sobre ti en el sexto año, y producirá cosecha suficiente para tres años. 22 Tú sembrarás en el octavo año y continurás comiendo productos de los años previos y de comida almacenada. Hasta que la cosecha del noveno año venga, tú podrás comer de las provisiones almacenadas en los años previos. 23 La tierra no debe ser vendida a un nuevo dueño permanente, porque la tierra es mía. Todos ustedes son forasteros y residentes temporales en mi tierra. 24 Tú debes observar el derecho de redención para toda la tierra que tú adquieres; tú debes permitir que la tierra la vuelva a comprar la familia de quien tú la compraste. 25 Si tu compañero israelita se volvió pobre y por esa razón vendió parte de su propiedad, entonces su familiar más cercano puede venir y volver a comprar la propiedad que él te vendió a ti. 26 Si un hombre no tiene familia que redima su propiedad, pero si ha prosperado y tiene la habilidad para redimirla, 27 entonces él debe calcular los años desde que la tierra fue vendida y pagar la proporcion al hombre a quien él la vendió. Entonces él puede regresar a su propiedad. 28 Pero si él no es capaz de recuperar la tierra por sí mismo, entonces la tierra que él ha vendido permanecerá en posesión de quien la compró hasta el año de Jubileo. En el año de Jubileo, la tierra será regresada al hombre que la vendió, y el dueño original regresará a su propiedad. 29 Si un hombre vende una casa en una ciudad amurallada, entonces el puede volverla a comprar dentro de un año después de venderla. Por un año completo tendrá el derecho de rescatarla. 30 Si la casa no es rescatada dentro de un año completo, entonces la casa en la ciudad amurallada será propiedad permanente del hombre que la compró, a través de las generaciones de sus descendientes. Esa casa no será devuelta en el año del Jubileo. 31 Pero las casas de las aldeas que no tienen murallas alrededor de ellas serán consideradas como el campo de la tierra. Ellas pueden ser rescatarlas, y ellas deben ser regresadas durante el año de Jubileo. 32 Sin embargo, las casas perteneciente a los Levitas en sus ciudades pueden ser rescatadas en cualquier momento. 33 Si uno de los Levitas no rescata una casa que el vendió, entonces la casa que fue vendida en la ciudad donde está localizada debe ser regresada en el año del Jubileo, por cuanto las casa de las ciudades de los Levitas son su propiedad entre el pueblo de Israel. 34 Pero los campos alrededor de sus ciudades no pueden ser vendidas, porque ellas son la propiedad permanente de los Levitas. 35 Si tu compatriota se vuelve pobre, de modo que ya no puede proveer para él mismo, entonces tú debes ayudarlo como ayudarías a un forastero o cualquiera viviendo como un extranjero entre ustedes. 36 No le cobres interés o trates de obtener ganancia de él en cualquier manera, pero honra a Dios para que tu hermano siga viviendo contigo. 37 Tú no debes darle a él un préstamo de dinero y cobrarle interés, ni venderle a él tu comida para obtener ganancia. 38 Yo soy EL SEÑOR tu Dios, quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto, de manera que Yo te dé la tierra de Canaán, y que Yo sea tu Dios. 39 Si tu compatriota se ha vuelto pobre y se vende a sí mismo a tí, tú no debes hacerlo trabajar como esclavo. 40 Trátalo como un siervo empleado. Él debe ser como alguién que vive contigo temporeramente. Él te servirá hasta el año de Jubileo. 41 Entonces, se irá lejos de ti, él y sus hijos con él, y él regresará a su propia familia y a la propiedad de su padre. 42 Por cuanto ellos son mis sirvientes a quienes Yo saqué de la tierra de Egipto. Ellos no serán vendidos como esclavos. 43 No debes gobernar sobre ellos duramente, pero tú debes honrar a tú Dios. 44 En cuanto a tus esclavos y esclavas, a quienes tú puedes obtener de las naciones que viven alrededor de tí, puedes comprar esclavos de ellos. 45 Ustedes también pueden comprar esclavos de los forasteros que están viviendo entre ustedes, eso es, de sus familias quienes están contigo, hijos que han sido nacidos en tu tierra. Ellos pueden convertirse en tu propiedad. 46 Ustedes pueden proveer tales esclavos como una herencia para tus hijos después de ellos, para mantenerlos como propiedad. De ellos ustedes siempre pueden comprar sus esclavos, pero ustedes no deben gobernar sobre sus hermanos entre el pueblo de Israel con dureza. 47 Si un forastero o alguien viviendo contigo temporeramente se ha vuelto rico, y si uno de tus compatriotas israelitas se ha vuelto pobre y se vende a sí mismo a ese forastero, o a alguien en una familia forastera, 48 después que tu compatriota israelita ha sido comprado, el puede ser comprado de vuelta. Alguien en su familia lo podrá rescatar. 49 Puede ser que el tío de la persona, o el hijo de su tío, quien lo rescata, o alguien quien es un pariente cercano de su familia. O, si él se ha vuelto próspero, él puede resctarlo. 50 Él debe negociar con el hombre quien lo compró; ellos deben contar los años desde el año que él se vendió a sí mismo a su comprador hasta el año de Jubileo. El precio de su rescate debe ser calculado manteniendo el sueldo pagado a un sirviente contratado, por el número de años que él puede continuar trabajando para el que lo compró. 51 Si aún hay muchos años hasta el año del Jubileo, él debe pagarle para atrás, como el precio por su rescate, una cantidad de dinero que es en proporción al número de años. 52 Si sólo hay unos pocos años hasta el año del Jubileo, entonces el debe negociar con su comprador para reflejar el número de años que quedan antes del año de Jubileo, y él debe pagar por su rescatar estando en armonía con el número de años. 53 Él debe ser tratado como un hombre contratado año por año. Tú debes asegurarte que él no es tratado con dureza. 54 Si él no es rescatado por este medio, entonces él debe servir hasta el año del Jubileo, él y sus hijos con él. 55 Para Mí el pueblo de Israel son sirvientes. Ellos son mis sirvientes quienes Yo saqué fuera de la tierra de Egipto. Yo soy El SEÑOR tu Dios.

Leviticus 25:1

la tierra debe ser hecha para mantener un Día de Reposo para el SEÑOR
Se habla de la tierra como si fuera una persona que pudiera obedecer el sábado descansando. Así como la gente tenía que descansar cada séptimo día, la gente debía honrar a Dios al no cultivar la tierra cada séptimo año. Traducción alterna: "debes obedecer la ley del día de reposo dejando que la tierra descanse cada siete años para el SEÑOR" o "debes obedecer el día de reposo del SEÑOR no cultivando la tierra cada siete años"

Leviticus 25:3

podar tú viña
Podar un viñedo es cortar las ramas y las vides para ayudar a que la fruta crezca mejor.

un Día de Reposo de descanso solemne para la tierra debe ser observado Se habla de no cultivar la tierra como de dejar que la tierra descanse. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "deben observar un día de reposo solemne para la tierra" o "debes obedecer la ley del día de reposo al no cultivar la tierra cada séptimo año"

Leviticus 25:5

Tú no conducirás ... que viven contigo podrán recoger comida
En 25:5-6 el SEÑOR dice que no permitirá que el dueño de un campo organice a sus trabajadores y coseche la tierra como lo hace los otros seis años. Sin embargo, el SEÑOR permitirá que los individuos pasen por los campos para recoger y comer el fruto que encuentren.

tú viña sin podar
Esto significa que nadie ha cuidado las vides y las ha cortado como lo han hecho durante los otros seis

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

años. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las vides que no podas"

Lo que sea que la tierra sin trabajar produzca
"lo que crezca en la tierra no trabajada"

tierra sin trabajar
Esto significa que nadie ha cuidado de los jardines o las granjas como lo hacen durante los otros seis años. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tus jardines que no cuidas"

lo que sea que la tierra produzca
"lo que sea que crezca en la tierra"

Leviticus 25:8

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

habrán siete años de Reposo
"serán siete series de siete años"

cuarentinueve años
nueve años - "49 años"

el décimo día del séptimo mes
Este es el séptimo mes del calendario hebreo. El décimo día está cerca del final de septiembre en los calendarios occidentales.

el Día de Expiación
En este día, cada año, el sumo sacerdote haría un sacrificio para el SEÑOR para que el SEÑOR perdonara todos los pecados del pueblo de Israel. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 23:26.

Leviticus 25:10

quincuagésimo año
Este es un número ordinal. Traducción alterna: "año 50"

un Jubileo para ti
El Jubileo era un año en que los judíos tenían que devolver la tierra a sus dueños originales y liberar a los esclavos. Traducción alterna: "un año de restauración para ti" o "un año para que devuelvas tierra y liberar esclavos"

propiedad y esclavos deben retornar
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes devolver las propiedades y los esclavos"

Leviticus 25:11

será de Jubileo para ti
"un año de restauración" o "un año para que devuelvas la tierra". Se puede decir claramente a quién le estaban devolviendo la tierra. Traducción alterna: "un año para que me devuelvas la tierra"

Tú debes comer el producto que crece sólo fuera del campo
El SEÑOR no permitió que el propietario de la tierra organizara a sus trabajadores y cosechara la tierra como lo hizo durante los otros seis años. Sin embargo, él permitió que las personas fueran a través de los campos y comieran lo que encontraban.

Leviticus 25:13

este año de Jubileo
"este año de restauración" o "este año para devolver tierras y liberar esclavos"

Leviticus 25:15

Información general:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

que pueden ser recogidas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que puedes cosechar"

el próximo Jubileo
"el próximo año de restauración" o "el próximo año para devolver la tierra"

Leviticus 25:18

obedecer mis decretos, mantener mis leyes y llevarlas a cabo Todas estas frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Ellos enfatizan que la gente debe obedecer todo lo que el SEÑOR dice.

tú comerás tú porción
Esto significa que comerían lo suficiente hasta que su estómago estuviera lleno. Traducción alterna: "comerás hasta que estés lleno" o "comerás mucho"

Leviticus 25:20

Tú podrás decir
Aquí "Tú" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

Yo mandaré mi bendición sobre ti Dios habla de su bendición como si fuera una persona que pudiera obedecerle. Traducción alterna: "Te enviaré mi bendición" o "Te bendeciré"

de las provisiones almacenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de la comida que almacenas"

Leviticus 25:23

Información general:
El SEÑOR continua hablando.

La tierra no debe ser vendida a un nuevo dueño permanente
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debes vender tu tierra permanentemente a otra persona"

Tú debes observar el derecho de redención
El sustantivo "redención" se puede expresar con los verbos "redimir" o "comprar". Traducción alterna: "Debe recordar que el propietario original tiene el derecho de redimir la tierra cuando quiera"

tú debes permitir que la tierra la vuelva a comprar la familia de quien tú la compraste Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe permitir que la familia a la que le compró el terreno lo compre nuevamente"

Leviticus 25:26

la tierra fue vendida Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "vendió la tierra"

pagar el balance al hombre a quien él la vendió Esto puede ser expresado explícitamente. Traducción alterna: "reembolsar al comprador que lo compró el dinero que hubiera hecho el comprador"

el año de Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra". Ver como se ha traducido esto en 25:10.

la tierra será regresada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que lo compró devolverá el terreno" regresara a su propiedad

"volveré a su tierra"

Leviticus 25:29

después de venderla
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "después de que lo vendió"

el derecho de redención
El sustantivo "redención" se puede expresar con los verbos "redimir" o "comprar". Traducción alterna: "el derecho a canjearlo"

Si la casa no es redimida Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si él o su familia no redime la casa"

Esa casa no será devuelta Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El hombre que compró esa casa no tendrá que devolverla"

año del Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra y liberar a los esclavos"

Leviticus 25:31

Pero las casas de las aldeas que no tienen murallas
Algunos pueblos no tenían un muro alrededor de ellos.

Ellas pueden ser redimidas, y ellas deben ser regresadas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Puede volver a comprar esas casas y los que las compraron deben devolverlas"

el año del Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra y liberar a los esclavos"

las casas perteneciente a los Levitas en sus ciudades Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las casas que los levitas poseen en sus ciudades"

pueden ser redimidas en cualquier momento Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los levitas pueden redimirlas en cualquier momento"

Leviticus 25:33

la casa que fue vendida en la ciudad donde está localizada debe ser regresada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el que compró la casa en la ciudad donde está ubicada debe devolverla"

el año del Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra y liberar a los esclavos"

su propiedad entre el pueblo de Israel
La tierra de Canaán estaba dividida entre el pueblo de Israel, pero de esa tierra, a los levitas solo se les dieron 48 ciudades con los campos que los rodeaban. Traducción alterna: "su parte de la tierra que los israelitas poseían" o "su propiedad en la tierra de Israel"

Pero los campos alrededor de sus ciudades no pueden ser vendidas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Pero los levitas no deben vender los campos alrededor de sus ciudades"

Leviticus 25:35

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

No le cobres interés
"No hagas que te pague más de lo que le prestas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 25:39

tú no debes hacerlo trabajar como esclavo. Trátalo como un siervo empleado Esto significa que el propietario debía tratar al israelita con más respeto del que trataría a un esclavo.

el año del Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra y liberar a los esclavos"

Leviticus 25:42

Declaración de conexión:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que debe decirle a la gente.

ellos son mis sirvientes
"tus compatriotas son mis sirvientes"

Ellos no serán vendidos como esclavos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debes venderlos como esclavos" puedes comprar esclavos de ellos

"puedes comprar esclavos de esas naciones"

Leviticus 25:47

después que tu compatriota israelita ha sido comprado, el puede ser comprado de vuelta. Alguien en su familia lo podrá redimir Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "después de que el extranjero compre a su compañero israelita, alguien en la familia del israelita puede volver a comprarlo"

Leviticus 25:49

hasta el año de Jubileo
Un israelita podría ser un esclavo solo hasta el año de jubileo. Estas instrucciones son para cuando un israelita quisiera recomprar su libertad antes del año de Jubileo.

el año de Jubileo
"el año de la restauración" o "el año para devolver la tierra y liberar esclavos".

El precio de su redención debe ser calculado
El verbo "calcular" se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Deben calcular el precio de su redención" o "Deben calcular cuánto pagar por el extranjero para liberar al israelita"

manteniendo el sueldo pagado a un sirviente contratado
Si el israelita recomprara su libertad, el extranjero tendría que contratar a un sirviente para hacer el trabajo que el israelita habría hecho pero no hará. Los verbos "pagados" y "contratados" se pueden expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "de acuerdo con la tarifa que una persona pagaría para contratar a un servidor"

por el número de años que él puede continuar trabajando
"por el número de años hasta el jubileo en que el israelita hubiera continuado trabajando pero no lo hará"

Leviticus 25:51

él debe pagarle
"el esclavo israelita debe pagar"

Leviticus 25:53

Él debe ser tratado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El extranjero que lo compró como esclavo debe tratarlo"

él no es tratado con dureza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nadie lo trata mal"

Si él no es redimido por este medio
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa, y se puede indicar claramente de quién se debe redimir. Traducción alterna: "Si nadie lo redime por este medio de quien lo compró como esclavo" por este medio

"de este modo"

él debe servir hasta el año del Jubileo, él y sus hijos con él
El esclavo israelita y sus hijos servirían al extranjero hasta el año de jubileo, y luego el extranjero tendría que liberar al israelita y sus hijos.

Para Mí el pueblo de Israel son sirvientes
"Porque es para mí que el pueblo de Israel es siervo". Esta es la razón por la que Dios quería que los israelitas fueran liberados en el año de jubileo. Eran sus sirvientes. No se les permitía ser esclavos permanentes de nadie más.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 "Ustedes no deben hacer ídolos, ni tampoco deben levantar una figura tallada, o un pilar de piedra sagrada, y no deben colocar ninguna imagen tallada en piedra en su tierra para la cual se inclinen, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios. 2 Ustedes deben mantener el Día de Reposo y honrar mi santurario. Yo soy el SEÑOR. 3 Si ustedes caminan en mi leyes y mantienen mis mandamientos y los obedecen, 4 entonces les daré lluvia en su temporada; la tierra rendirá su producto, y los árboles del campo rendirán su fruto. 5 Su trilla continurá en el tiempo de la cosecha de la uva, y la cosecha de uva se extenderá a la temporada de siembra. Ustedes comerán su pan al máximo y vivirán seguros donde hagan sus hogares en la tierra. 6 Yo les daré paz en la tierra; ustedes se acostarán sin nada que les dé miedo. Yo tomaré a los animales peligrosos lejos de la tierra, y la espada no pasará a través de su tierra. 7 Ustedes perseguirán a sus enemigos, y ellos caerán ante ustedes por la espada. 8 Cinco de ustedes perseguirán lejos a cientos, y cien de ustedes perseguirán a diez mil; sus enemigos caerán ante ustedes por la espada. 9 Yo los miraré a ustedes con favor, y los haré fructíferos y los multuplicaré; Yo establecere mi pacto con ustedes. 10 Ustedes comerán comida guardada por mucho tiempo. Ustedes tendrán que sacar la comida guardada porque ustedes necesitarán el espacio para la nueva cosecha. 11 Yo colocaré mi tienda de reunión entre ustedes, y Yo no los detestaré. 12 Yo caminaré entre ustedes y seré su Dios, y ustedes serán Mi pueblo. 13 Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios, quien los sacó de la tierra de Egipto, para que ustedes no fueran sus esclavos. Yo he roto las barreras de su yugo y les hice caminar de pie, rectos. 14 Pero si ustedes no me escuchan, y no obedecen todos estos mandamientos, 15 y si ustedes rechazan mis decretos y detestan mis leyes, para que no obedezcan todos mis mandaamientos, sino que rompen mi pacto 16 si hacen estas cosas, entonces les haré esto: Yo provocaré terror en ustedes, enfermedades y fiebres que les destruirán los ojos y que drenarán sus vidas. Ustedes plantarán sus semillas para nada, porque sus enemigos se comerán su producto. 17 Yo pondré mi rostro en contra de ustedes, y ustedes serán dominados por sus enemigos. Hombres que los odian gorbernarán sobre ustedes, y ustedes huirán, incluso cuando nadie los esté persiguiendo. 18 Si ustedes no escuchan mis mandamientos, entonces Yo los castigaré siete veces, tan severamente como sus pecados. 19 Yo les romperé el orgullo en su poder. Yo haré el cielo sobre ustedes como hierro y su tierra como bronce. 20 Su fuerza será agotada para nada, porque su tierra no producirá su cosecha, y sus árboles en la tierra no producirán su fruto. 21 Si ustedes caminan en contra mía, y no me escuchan, Yo les treré golpes, siete veces más sobre ustedes, en proporción a sus pecados. 22 Yo les enviaré animales peligrosos en contra de ustedes, quienes les robarán a sus hijos, destruirám sus ganados, y les harán pocos en número. Así que, sus caminos se volverán desiertos. 23 Si a pesar de estas cosas, ustedes todavía no aceptan mi corrección y continúan caminando en oposición a Mí, 24 entonces Yo también caminaré en oposición a ustedes, y Yo mismo los castigaré siete veces más por sus pecados. 25 Yo traeré una espada a ustedes que ejecutará venganza por romper el pacto. Ustedes se reunirán dentro de sus ciudades, y Yo les enviaré enfermedad entre ustedes allí, y entonces ustedes serán entregados a la mano de sus enemigos. 26 Cuando Yo les corte la provisión de comida, diez mujeres todavía serán capaces de hornear su pan en un horno, y ellas le distribuirán su pan por peso. Ustedes comerán pero no serán satisfechos. 27 Si ustedes no me escuchan, a pesar de estas cosas, pero continúan caminando en contra mía, 28 entonces Yo caminaré en contra de ustedes en enojo, y Yo los castigaré incluso siete veces más, tanto más por sus pecados. 29 Ustedes comerán la carne de sus hijos; ustedes comerán la carne de sus hijas. 30 Yo destruiré sus lugares altos, cortaré sus altares de inicienso, y tiraré sus cadáveres sobre los cadáveres de sus ídolos, y Yo mismo los aborreceré. 31 Yo cambiaré sus ciudades en ruinas y destruiré sus santurios. Yo no estaré agradado con el aroma de sus ofrendas. 32 Yo detruiré la tierra. Sus enemigos, que vivirán allí, estarán asustados por la destruccion. 33 Yo los esparciré entre las demás naciones, y Yo sacaré mi espada y los perseguiré. Su tierra será abandonada, y sus ciudades serán arruinadas. 34 Luego, la tierra disfrutará su Día de Reposo, mientras permanezca abandonada y ustedes estén en la tierras de sus enemigos. Durante ese tiempo, la tierra descansará y disfrutará su Día de Reposo. 35 Mientras permanezca abandonada, tendrá descanso, el cual será el descanso que no tuvo en los Días de Reposo de ustedes, cuando ustedes vivían en ella. 36 En cuanto a ustedes, los que queden en las tierras de sus enemigos, Yo enviaré miedo a los corazones, para que incluso el sonido de una hoja sonando en el viento los asuste a ustedes, y ustedes huyan como si le estuvieran huyendo a la espada. Ustedes caerán, incluso cuando nadie los esté persiguiendo. 37 Ustedes tropezarán entre ustedes como si ustedes estuvieran corriendo de la espada, incluso cuando nadie los esté persiguiendo. Ustedes no tendrán poder para pararse ante sus enemigos. 38 Ustedes perecerán entre las naciones, y la tierra de sus enemigos se los comerá a ustedes por sí misma. 39 Aquellos que queden entre ustedes, se consumirán en sus propios

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

pecados, ellos están en la tierra de sus enemigos, y por los pecados de sus padres ellos se consumirán de igual manera. 40 Todavía si confiesan sus pecados y los pecados de sus padres, y su traición por la cual fueron infieles a Mí, y también el caminar en contra mía 41 lo que haré es que andaré en contra de ellos y los traeré a la tierra de sus enemigos-- si sus corazones incircuncisos se humillan, y si ellos aceptan el castigo por sus pecados, 42 entonces Yo traeré a mi mente el pacto con Jacob, mi pacto con Isaac, y mi pacto con Abraham; también, Yo llamaré la tierra a mi mente. 43 La tierra será abandonada por ellos, así que estará en agrado con sus Días de Reposo mientras permanezca abandonada sin ellos. Ellos tendrán que pagar la penalidad por sus pecados porque ellos mismos han rechazado mis mandamientos y han desechado mis leyes. 44 Todavía, a pesar de todo esto, cuando ellos estén en la tierra de sus enemigos, Yo no los rechazaré, tampoco Yo los separaré para destruirlos por completo, y acabar con mi pacto con ellos, pues Yo soy el SEÑOR su Dios. 45 Pero por su bien, Yo traeré a mi mente el pacto con sus antepasados, a quienes yo traje de la tierra de Egipto a la vista de las naciones, para que yo pueda ser su Dios. Yo soy el SEÑOR" 46 Estos son los mandamientos, ordenes y leyes que el SEÑOR hizo entre el mismo y el pueblo de Israel en el Monte Sinaí a través de Moisés.

Leviticus 26:1

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

mantener el Día de Reposo
"obedece las reglas de mis Días de Reposo"

Leviticus 26:3

caminan en mi leyes y mantienen mis mandamientos y los obedecen Estas son tres formas de decir lo mismo. Enfatizan que las personas deben obedecer todo lo que Dios les ordena hacer. Traducción alterna: "Si obedecen cuidadosamente mis leyes y órdenes"

caminan en mi leyes
Se habla de comportarse de acuerdo con las leyes como si fueran a caminar en las leyes. Traducción alterna: "Si te comportas de acuerdo con mis leyes" o "Si vives de acuerdo con mis leyes"

Leviticus 26:5

comerán su pan al máximo
Aquí el pan representa la comida. "Al máximo" significa hasta que sus estómagos estén llenos de comida. Traducción alterna: "comerán hasta que estén lleno" o "tendrán suficiente comida para comer"

Yo les daré paz en la tierra
"Haré que haya paz en la tierra"

la espada no pasará a través de su tierra Aquí la palabra "espada" representa ejércitos enemigos o ataques enemigos. Traducción alterna: "ningún ejército te atacará"

Leviticus 26:7

ellos caerán ante ustedes por la espada
Aquí "caer" representa morir, y "la espada" representa atacar a las personas con una espada o la batalla en general. Traducción alterna: "morirán cuando los ataques con la espada" o "los matarás en la batalla"

Cinco de ustedes perseguirán lejos a cientos, y cien de ustedes perseguirán a diez mil
Esto significa que los israelitas tendrán la victoria contra ejércitos más grandes.

Cinco ... cien ... diez mil
"5 ... 100 ... 10,000"

Leviticus 26:9

Yo los miraré a ustedes con favor
"Te mostraré un favor" o "Te bendeciré" (UDB)

los haré fructíferos y los multuplicaré
Estas dos frases se refieren a Dios, lo que hace que tengan muchos descendientes, por lo que se convierten en un grupo numeroso.

los haré fructíferos
Dios habla de tener muchos hijos como si fueran árboles que dan muchos frutos. Traducción alterna: "porque tienes muchos hijos"

Ustedes comerán comida guardada por mucho tiempo
"Tendrá suficiente alimento almacenado para comer durante mucho tiempo" o "tendrá suficiente comida para almacenar y comer durante mucho tiempo"

Leviticus 26:11

Yo colocaré mi tabernáculo entre ustedes
"Pondré mi morada entre vosotros"

Yo no los detestaré
"Te aceptaré"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Yo caminaré entre ustedes Caminar entre ellos representa vivir con ellos. Traducción alterna: "Viviré contigo"

Yo he roto las barreras de su yugo
Dios habla de su esclavitud como si tuvieran que usar un yugo que los animales usan para hacer un trabajo duro. Romper las barras del yugo representa liberarlos. Traducción alterna: "Te he liberado de la ardua labor que te obligaron a hacer"

Leviticus 26:14

Información general:
El SEÑOR le está diciendo a Moisés qué sucederá si la gente no obedece sus mandamientos.

Leviticus 26:16

si hacen estas cosas
La frase "estas cosas" se refiere a las cosas enumeradas en 26:14.

Yo infligiré terror en ustedes Aquí el "terror" representa las cosas que los aterrorizarán. Traducción alterna: "Enviaré los desastres que te aterrorizarán"

drenarán sus vidas
"te quitará la vida lentamente" o "te hará morir lentamente". Son las enfermedades y la fiebre las que harán esto.

Ustedes plantarán sus semillas para nada
La frase "para nada" significa que no obtendrían nada de su trabajo. Traducción alterna: "Plantarán sus semillas en vano" o "Plantarán sus semillas, pero no obtendrán nada de ellas"

Yo pondré mi rostro en contra de ustedes Esto significa que él se opondrá a ellos. Su rostro mostrará su ira y luchará contra ellos. Traducción alterna: "Me opondré a ti" o "Estaré en tu contra"

ustedes serán dominados por sus enemigos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tus enemigos te derrotarán"

Leviticus 26:18

siete veces
Aquí "siete veces" no es literal. Significa que el SEÑOR aumentará la severidad de su castigo.

Yo les romperé el orgullo en su poder
Se habla de usar la fuerza para hacer que no se sientan orgullosos como si él fuera a romper su orgullo. Traducción alterna: "Te castigaré y así acabaré con el orgullo que sientes por tu poder" y "Te castigaré para que ya no te sientas orgulloso de tu poder"

Yo haré el cielo sobre ustedes como hierro y su tierra como bronce
Esto significa que Dios evitará que la lluvia caiga del cielo. Esto hará que el terreno sea duro para que las personas no puedan plantar semillas o cultivar.

Su fuerza será agotada para nada
Se habla de trabajar muy duro como si fueran a usar toda su fuerza hasta que no tuvieran más fuerza. La frase "para nada" significa que no obtendrían nada por trabajar tan duro. Traducción alterna: "Trabajarás muy duro en vano" o "Trabajarás muy duro, pero no recibirás nada bueno de trabajar tan duro"

Leviticus 26:21

caminan en contra mía
Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar contra Dios representa oponerse a él o rebelarse contra él. Traducción alterna: "rebelarse contra mí"

Yo les traeré golpes, siete veces más sobre ustedes
El sustantivo abstracto "golpes" se puede expresar como el verbo "golpear". Traducción alterna: "Te golpearé siete veces más"

Yo les traeré golpes, siete veces más sobre ustedes
Se habla del SEÑOR causando desastres a los israelitas como si los golpeara. Traducción alterna: "Voy a provocar siete veces más desastres en tu contra" o "Te castigaré siete veces más severamente"

siete veces
Aquí "siete veces" no es literal. Significa que el SEÑOR aumentará la severidad de su castigo.

en proporción a sus pecados
El sustantivo "pecados" se puede expresar con el verbo "pecar". Traducción alterna: "según cuánto has pecado" quienes les robarán a sus hijos

Robar representa atacar o atacar y arrastrarlos. Traducción alterna: "que atacará a tus hijos" o "que arrastrará a tus hijos"

Así que, sus caminos se volverán desiertos
"Así que nadie viajará en tus caminos". Desierto significa que no hay nadie allí.

Leviticus 26:23

Si a pesar de estas cosas
"Si cuando te castigo así" o "Si te disciplino así y"

ustedes todavía no aceptan mi corrección Aceptar su corrección representa responder correctamente a ella. En este caso, responder correctamente es elegir obedecerlo. Traducción alterna: "todavía no escuchas mi corrección" o "todavía no me obedeces"

caminando en oposición a Mí Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar en oposición a él significa oponerse a él o luchar contra él. Traducción alterna: "oponerme" o "luchar contra mí"

Yo también caminaré en oposición a ustedes Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar en oposición a ellos significa enfrentarlos o luchar contra ellos. Traducción alterna: "También me opondré a ti" o "También pelearé contra ti"

Yo mismo los castigaré siete veces
El número 7 representa la completitud. Traducción alterna: "Personalmente te castigaré muchas veces" o "Yo mismo te castigaré más severamente"

por sus pecados
El sustantivo "pecado" se puede expresar con el verbo "pecar". Traducción alterna: "porque sigues pecando contra mí"

Leviticus 26:25

Yo traeré una espada a ustedes Aquí la palabra "espada" representa un ejército o un ataque de un ejército. Traducción alterna: "Traeré un ejército enemigo contra ustedes" o "Haré que un ejército enemigo los ataque" que ejecutará venganza

"que los castigará"

por romper el pacto
"por desobedecer el pacto" o "porque desobedecen el pacto"

Ustedes se reunirán Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Se reunirán" o "Se ocultarán"

ustedes serán entregados a la mano de sus enemigos Aquí "a la mano" significa "en el control" y se refiere a la derrota de su enemigo. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "su enemigo los derrotará"

Cuando Yo les corte su suplido de comida
Se habla de destruir la comida que la gente ha almacenado o impedir que la gente pueda obtenerla como si se fuera a cortar el suministro de comida. Traducción alterna: "Cuando destruya la comida que tienes almacenada" o "Cuando te detenga para que no puedas obtener comida"

diez mujeres todavía serán capaces de hornear su pan en un horno Esto implica que habrá tan poca harina que un horno pequeño podrá contener todo el pan que muchas mujeres puedan poner en él.

ellas le distribuirán su pan por peso
Esto significa que habrá tan poca comida que tendrán que medir cuánto le corresponde cada persona.

Leviticus 26:27

Si ustedes no me escuchan
El escuchar representa obedecer lo que él ha dicho. Traducción alterna: "Si no me obedecen"

caminando en contra mía
Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar contra alguien representa oponerse a él o luchar contra él. Traducción alterna: "oponerme" o "luchar contra mí"

Yo caminaré en contra de ustedes
Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar contra alguien representa oponerse a él o luchar contra él. Traducción alterna: "Me opondré a ustedes"

Yo los castigaré incluso siete veces más
Aquí "siete veces más" no es literal. Significa que el SEÑOR aumentará la severidad de su castigo.

Leviticus 26:29

Yo destruiré ... cortaré ... tiraré sus cadáveres Debido a que Dios enviaría un ejército para hacer estas cosas, él habla como si las hiciera. Traducción alterna: "Enviaré un ejército enemigo para destruir ... cortar ... tirar sus cadáveres"

sus cadáveres
"sus cuerpos muertos"

los cadáveres de sus ídolos
Dios habla de que los ídolos no están vivos como si hubieran estado vivos y luego murieron. Traducción alterna: "sus ídolos sin vida"

Leviticus 26:31

Yo tornaré sus ciudades en ruinas y destruiré sus santurios Debido a que Dios enviaría ejércitos para hacer estas cosas, él habla como si los hiciera. Traducción alterna: "Enviaré ejércitos enemigos para convertir sus ciudades en ruinas y destruir sus santuarios"

sus santurios
Estos eran lugares donde la gente adoraba a los ídolos en lugar de a Dios.

Yo no estaré agradado con el aroma de sus ofrendas
Normalmente, el placer del Señor con el aroma representa su placer con los que queman la ofrenda. Pero en este caso, la gente quemaría las ofrendas, pero Dios no estaría complacido con ellas. Traducción alterna: "Quemarán ofrendas, pero no estaré complacido con ustedes"

Yo sacaré mi espada y los perseguiré
Esto representa enviar ejércitos para atacarlos. Traducción alterna: "Enviaré ejércitos enemigos para atacarlos" o "Enviaré ejércitos enemigos para atacarlos con sus espadas"

Su tierra será abadonada, y sus ciudades serán arruinadas
Esto puede ser expresado en en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Abandonarán su tierra y sus enemigos destruirán sus ciudades"

Leviticus 26:34

Luego, la tierra disfrutará su Día de Reposo
Se suponía que la gente obedecía la ley del Día de Reposo al no cultivar la tierra cada siete años. Dios habla de esto como si la tierra fuera una persona que obedecería la ley del Día de Reposo y descansaría. Traducción alterna: "Entonces la tierra descansará de acuerdo con la ley del Día de Reposo" o "Entonces, como lo exige la ley del Día de Reposo, la tierra no se cultivará"

tendrá descanso
Dios habla de que la tierra no se cultiva como si fuera una persona que descansaría. Traducción alterna: "no se cultivará"

Yo enviaré miedo a los corazones Enviar miedo a sus corazones representa asustarlos. Traducción alterna: "Los haré tener miedo terriblemente" como si estuvieran huyendo de la espada

La espada representa a alguien que está listo para matar con una espada o un ataque de un ejército enemigo. Traducción alterna: "como si estuvieran huyendo de alguien que les estaba persiguiendo con una espada" o "como si estuvieran huyendo de un ejército enemigo"

Leviticus 26:37

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa describiendo lo que les sucederá a los israelitas cuando se vean obligados a ir a los países de sus enemigos.

como si ustedes estuvieran corriendo de la espada
La espada representa a alguien que está listo para matar con una espada o un ataque de un ejército enemigo. Traducción alterna: "como si estuvieran huyendo de alguien que les estaba persiguiendo con una espada" o "como si estuvieran huyendo de un ejército enemigo"

pararse ante sus enemigos Pararse ante los enemigos representa no caer cuando los enemigos atacan y luchan contra ellos. Traducción alterna: "para resistir a sus enemigos cuando los atacan" o "para luchar contra sus enemigos"

la tierra de sus enemigos se los comerá a ustedes
El SEÑOR habla de la tierra de los enemigos como si fuera un animal salvaje que se comería a los israelitas. La palabra "devorar" enfatiza que la mayoría de los israelitas morirán allí. Traducción alterna: "morirán en la tierra de sus enemigos"

Aquellos que queden entre ustedes
"Aquellos de ustedes que no mueren"

se consumirán en sus propios pecados
Se consumiran en sus pecados representa el ser consumido debido a sus pecados.

los pecados de sus padres
Aquí "sus padres" representan a sus antepasados.

Leviticus 26:40

los pecados de sus padres
Aquí "sus padres" representan a sus antepasados.

su traición por la cual fueron infieles a Mí
su traición por la cual fueron infieles a Mí

caminar en contra mía Caminar representa el comportamiento. Caminar contra Dios representa oponerse a él o rebelarse contra él. Traducción alterna: "oponerme" o "rebelarse contra mí"

tornarme en contra de ellos Esto representa oponerse a ellos. Traducción alterna: "oponerse a ellos" si sus corazones incircuncisos se humillan Aquí el término "corazones incircuncisos" se refiere a la persona en su totalidad. Traducción alterna: "si serán humildes en lugar de ser desobedientes obstinadamente"

entonces Yo traeré a mi mente el pacto con Jacob, mi pacto con Isaac, y mi pacto con Abraham
"traeré a mi mente" es una expresión idiomática que significa "recordar intencionalmente". Aquí representa cumplir su pacto. Traducción alterna: "entonces cumpliré el pacto que hice con Jacob, Isaac y Abraham"

Yo llamaré la tierra a mi mente
"Llamada a la mente" es una expresión idiomática que significa "recordar intencionalmente". Aquí representa cumplir su promesa concerniente a la tierra. Traducción alterna: "Cumpliré mi promesa sobre la tierra"

Leviticus 26:43

La tierra será abandonada por ellos, Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El pueblo de Israel abandonará su tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

así que estará en agrado con sus Días de Reposo El SEÑOR habla de la tierra como si fuera una persona que está feliz de descansar, porque nadie plantará semillas o cultivará en ella. Esto permitirá que la tierra se vuelva más fértil. Traducción alterna: "para que se beneficie de los Días de Reposo"

Leviticus 26:44

Información general:
Esto concluye el mensaje del SEÑOR a Moisés en el Monte Sinaí con respecto a las bendiciones por la obediencia y los castigos por la desobediencia.

Yo traeré a mi mente el pacto con sus antepasados
"traer a la mente" es una expresión idiomática que significa "recordar intencionalmente". Aquí representa cumplir su pacto. Traducción alterna: "Cumpliré el pacto con sus ancestros"

a la vista de las naciones Esto representa el conocimiento de las naciones. Traducción alterna: "en el conocimiento de las naciones" o "y las naciones lo sabían"

las naciones
Esto representa a la gente de las naciones. Traducción alterna: "a la vista de la gente de las naciones"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 El Señor habló a Moisés y dijo: 2 "Háblale al pueblo de Israel y dile a ellos: 'Si alguien hace un voto especial al SEÑOR, use las siguientes valoraciones. 3 El valor estándar de un varón de veinte a sesenta años de edad debe ser cincuenta monedas de plata, según la moneda del santuario. 4 Para una mujer de las mismas edades, el valor estándar debe ser de treinta monedas de plata. 5 Desde los cinco años hasta los veinte años de edad, tu valor estándar para un varón debe ser de veinte monedas de plata, y para la varona, diez monedas de plata. 6 Desde un mes de edad hasta los cinco años de edad, tu valor estándar para un varón debe ser de cinco monedas de plata, y para una varona, tres monedas de plata. 7 Desde los sesenta años o más, para un varón, tu valor básico debe ser de quince monedas de plata, para una mujer, diez monedas de plata. 8 Pero si la persona haciendo el voto no puede pagar el valor básico, entonces la persona que se entrega debe ser presentada al sacerdote, y el sacerdote valolará a la persona por la cantidad que la persona haciendo el voto puede pagar. 9 Si alguien quiere sacrificarle un animal al SEÑOR, y si el SEÑOR lo acepta, entonces ese animal debe ser separado para Él. 10 La persona no debe alterar o cambiar a tal animal, uno bueno por uno malo o uno malo por uno bueno. Si él cambia al animal por otro, entonces ambos, ese y el animal por el cual se está cambiando, se vuelven santos. 11 Sin embargo, si lo que la persona ha jurado darle al SEÑOR es de hecho inmundo, para que el SEÑOR no lo acepte, entonces la persona debe traerle el animal al sacerdote. 12 El sacerdote evaluará el valor del animal en el mercado. Cualquier valor que el sacerdote ponga en el animal, ese será su valor. 13 Si el sacerdote desea rescatarlo, entonces un cino por ciento de su valor será añadido al precio del rescate. 14 Cuando un hombre separe su casa como un regalo santo al SEÑOR, entonces el sacerdote pondrá su valor como bueno o como malo. Cualquier valor que le ponga el sacerdote, eso será. 15 Pero si el dueño que separó su casa desea rescatarla, él debe añadir un cino por ciento de su valor a su precio de rescate, y le pertenecerá a él. 16 Si un hombre separa algo de su propia tierra, entonces el precio de ella será en proporción a la cantidad de semilla que se requiere para plantarla, 370 lts. de cebada será valorado en cincuenta monedas de plata. 17 Si el separa su campo durante el año del Jubileo, el precio se mantendrá. 18 Pero si el separa su campo luego del año del Jubileo, entonces el sacerdote debe calcular el valor del campo por el número de años que queden hasta el próximo año del Jubileo, y el precio de él será rebajado. 19 Si el hombre que separa el campo desea rescatarlo, entonces él debe añadir un cinco por ciento al precio, y le pertenecerá. 20 Si él no rescata el campo, o si él lo ha vendido a otro hombre, ya no puede ser rescatarlo. 21 En su lugar, el campo, cuando sea liberado en el año del Jubileo, será un regalo santo al SEÑOR, como los campos que han sido completamente dados al SEÑOR. Le pertenecerá al sacerdote. 22 Si un hombre separa un campo que él ha comprado, pero ese campo no es parte de la tierra de su familia, 23 entonces el sacerdote calculará el valor de él hasta el año del Jubileo, y el hombre deberá pagar su valor en ese día como un regalo santo al SEÑOR. 24 En el año del Jubileo, el campo regresará al hombre de quien fue comprado, al dueño de la tierra. 25 Todos las valoraciones deben ser puestos por el peso de la moneda de plata del santuario. que equivale a 20 veces la medida de. 57gms. 26 Nadie debe separar el primogénito entre los animales, ya que el primogénito le pertenece al SEÑOR; sea buey o oveja, es del SEÑOR. 27 Si es un animal inmundo, entonces el dueño puede comprarlo de vuelta al valor de él, una quinta parte debe ser añadido a ese valor. Si el animal no es rescatado, entonces será vendido al valor fijado. 28 Pero nada que un hombre consagra al SEÑOR, de todo lo que tiene, sea humano o animal, o la tierra de su familia, puede ser vendido o rescatado. Todo lo que sea consagrado es muy santo para el SEÑOR. 29 Ningún rescate que sea pagado por la persona que es consagrada para la destrucción. Esa persona debe ser asesinada. 30 Todo el diezmo de la tierra, sea de grano crecido en la tierra o fruto de los árboles, es del SEÑOR. Es santo para el SEÑOR. 31 Si un hombre redime algo de su diezmo, él debe añadir un quinto a su valor. 32 Para cada décimo de una manada o rebaño, lo que sea que pase bajo la vara del pastor, una décima debe ser separada para el SEÑOR. 33 El pastor no debe buscar los mejores o los peores animales, y él no debe sustituirlos por otro. Si él lo cambia del todo, entonces ambos, ese y aquel por el cual se cambió, se vuelve santo. Ya no puede ser rescatado.'" 34 Estos son los mandamientos que el SEÑOR dio en el Monte Sinaí a Moisés para la gente de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Leviticus 27:1

Si alguien hace un voto especial al SEÑOR
En este caso, el voto implicaría entregarse a sí mismo u otra persona a Dios. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "Si alguien jura dar alguien al SEÑOR"

use las siguientes valoraciones
En lugar de dar a la persona, le daría al Señor una cierta cantidad de plata. Traducción alterna"usen los siguientes valores como su regalo al Señor en lugar de la persona" o "denle al Señor las siguientes cantidades de plata en lugar de la persona"

Leviticus 27:3

Su valor estándar
"La cantidad a pagar" o "Ustedes deben pagar"

veinte ... sesenta ... cincuenta ... treinta
"20 ... 60 ... 50 ... 30"

cincuenta ciclos de plata
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "cincuenta piezas de plata, cada una de las cuales pesa diez gramos" o "quinientos gramos de plata"

según el ciclo del santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Su peso es de unos 11 gramos. Traducción alterna: "Usa el tipo de ciclo que se usa en el santuario" o "Cuando pesas la plata, usa el peso que se usa en el santuario"

treinta ciclos
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "treinta piezas de plata, cada una de las cuales pesa diez gramos" o "trescientos gramos de plata"

Leviticus 27:5

cinco ... veinte ... diez ... tres
"5 ... 20 ... 10 ... 3"

tu valor estándar
"la cantidad a pagar" o "ustedes deben pagar"

veinte ciclos
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "veinte piezas de plata" o "doscientos gramos de plata"

y para la hembra diez ciclos
Las frases "de esa edad" y "su valor estándar debe ser" se omiten, pero deben entenderse. Traducción alterna: "y para la hembra de esa edad, su valor estándar debe ser de diez ciclos"

diez ciclos
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "diez piezas de plata" o "cien gramos de plata"

cinco ciclos de plata
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "cinco piezas de plata" o "cincuenta gramos de plata"

tres ciclos
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "tres piezas de plata" o "treinta gramos de plata"

Leviticus 27:7

sesenta años o más
"sesenta años y mayores"

sesenta ... quince ... diez
"60 ... 15 ... 10"

quince ciclos
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "quince piezas de plata" o "150 gramos de plata"

para una mujer, diez ciclos
Las frases "de esa edad" y "su valor estándar debe ser" se omiten, pero deben entenderse. Traducción alterna: "y para una mujer de esa edad, su valor estándar debe ser de diez ciclos"

la persona que se entrega debe ser presentada al sacerdote Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe presentar al sacerdote la persona que está dando"

Leviticus 27:9

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

separado para Él
"apartado para el SEÑOR"

ambos, ese y el animal por el cual se está cambiando
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "tanto él como para quien lo intercambia" o los animales se pueden denominar simplemente como "ambos animales"

Leviticus 27:11

es de hecho inmundo, para que el SEÑOR no lo acepte Si el SEÑOR no acepta cierto animal como ofrenda, se habla del animal como si estuviera físicamente sucio. Puede ser impuro porque es un cierto tipo de animal o porque tiene un defecto. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

alterna: "es, de hecho, una que el SEÑOR no aceptará"

valor del animal en el mercado
Este es el valor que normalmente vale el animal cuando alguien lo compra o lo vende.

desea redimirlo
"desea volver a comprarlo"

Leviticus 27:14

él debe añadir un quinto de su valor a su precio de redención
"Un quinto" es una parte de algo que se divide en cinco partes iguales. Traducción alterna: "él debe dividir el valor de la casa en cinco partes iguales, sumar la cantidad igual a una de esas partes y pagarla toda"

Leviticus 27:16

la cantidad de semilla que se requiere para plantarla Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la cantidad de semilla que una persona necesitaría para plantarla"

un homer de cebada será valorado en Aquí "un homer de cebada" representa un pedazo de tierra que necesitaría un homer de cebada para plantar todo. Traducción alterna: "un pedazo de tierra que requiere un homer de cebada para plantar todo se valorará en" o "el valor de la tierra que requiere un homer de cebada será"

homer
Un homer es de 220 litros.

cincuenta ciclos de plata
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "cincuenta piezas de plata, cada una de las cuales pesa diez gramos" o "quinientos gramos de plata"

Leviticus 27:17

el año del Jubileo
Esto ocurre cada 50 años. Vea cómo tradujo "Jubileo" en 25:10.

el precio se mantendrá
"mantener" representa "permanecer" o "permanecer igual". Traducción alterna: "su valor seguirá siendo el mismo" o "su valor será la cantidad total"

el precio de él será rebajado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe reducir el valor estimado"

Leviticus 27:19

ya no puede ser redimido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ya no puede volver a comprarlo"

Si él no redime el campo
El tiempo para canjear el campo se puede establecer claramente. Traducción alterna: Si no redime el campo antes del año de Jubileo "

en el año del Jubileo
"en el año de la restauración" o "el año para que devuelvas tierra y liberar esclavos". Este era un año en que los judíos tenían que devolver la tierra a sus dueños originales y liberar a los esclavos. Veer como se ha traducido esto en 25:13

que han sido completamente dados al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que alguien le ha dado completamente al SEÑOR"

Leviticus 27:24

al hombre de quien fue comprado ... dueño de la tierra.
Estas dos fases se refieren a la misma persona. Normalmente la tierra sería comprada a su dueño.

al hombre de quien fue comprado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el hombre que lo vendió"

Todas las valoraciones deben ser puestos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Los sacerdotes deben determinar los valores estimados"

por el peso del ciclo del santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada.

Veinte geras deben ser el equivalente de un siclo
El propósito de esta oración es decir cuánto pesa el siclo del santuario. El gera era la unidad de peso más pequeña que usaban los israelitas. Traducción alterna: "Un siclo debe ser igual a veinte geras"

Veinte geras deben ser el equivalente de un siclo
Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay una manera de hacerlo. Traducción alterna: "Un siclo debe pesar diez gramos"

Leviticus 27:26

Nadie debe separar
"Nadie puede apartarse para el SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un quinto debe ser añadido a ese valor
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debe agregar un quinto a ese valor"

Si el animal no es redimido Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Si la persona no vuelve a comprar el animal"

será vendido al valor fijado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "el sacerdote debe venderlo al valor establecido"

Leviticus 27:28

nada que un hombre consagra al SEÑOR, de todo lo que tiene, sea humano o animal, o la tierra de su familia, puede ser vendido o redimido Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Nadie puede vender o redimir nada de lo que un hombre haya dedicado para el SEÑOR, de todo lo que tiene, ya sea un ser humano, un animal o la tierra de su familia" o "Si un hombre dedica para el SEÑOR todo lo que tiene, ya sea "humano o animal, o la tierra de su familia, nadie puede venderlo o redimirlo"

Todo lo que sea consagrado es muy santo para el SEÑOR
"Todo lo que alguien dedica es muy santo para el SEÑOR"

Ningún rescate que sea pagado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. "Nadie puede pagar un rescate"

por la persona que es consagrada para la destrucción Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "para cualquier persona a quien el SEÑOR ha dedicado a la destrucción"

por la persona que es consagrada para la destrucción
Se puede aclarar del porqué una persona podría estar dedicada a la destrucción. Traducción alterna: "para cualquier persona que el SEÑOR haya determinado debe morir a causa de su pecado"

Esa persona debe ser asesinada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "hay que poner a esa persona a la muerte" o "hay que matar a esa persona"

Leviticus 27:30

Si un hombre redime algo de su diezmo
"Si un hombre quiere redimir algo de sus diezmos"

Leviticus 27:32

lo que sea que pase bajo la vara del pastor
Esto se refiere a la forma en que contarían a sus animales. Traducción alterna: "cuando cuenten a sus animales levantando su vara de pastor y haciéndolos caminar debajo de ella hacia el otro lado" o "cuando cuenten a los animales"

una décima debe ser separada para el SEÑOR la décima debe ser separada para el SEÑOR - Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes apartar una décima parte para el SEÑOR"

décima décima - "cada décimo animal"

entonces ambos, ese y aquel por el cual se cambió
"entonces ambos animales"

no puede ser redimido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No puede redimirlo" o "No puede volver a comprarlo"

Leviticus 27:34

Estos son los mandamientos
Esta es una declaración de resumen. Se refiere a los mandamientos que fueron dados en los capítulos anteriores.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Numbers

Numbers

Chapter 1

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés en la tienda de reunión en el desierto de Sinai. Esto sucedió en el primer día del segundo mes durante el segundo año después que el pueblo de Israel salió de la tierra de Egipto. El SEÑOR dijó, 2 "Realicen un censo de todos los hombres de Israel en cada clan, en las familias de sus padres. Cuenten cada hombre, cada hombre 3 que sea mayor de veinte años de edad. Cuenten a todos los que puedan pelear como soldados de Israel. Tú y Aarón deben anotar el número de los hombres en sus grupos armados. 4 Un hombre de cada tribu, una cabeza del clan, te deberá servir como jefe de su tribu. Cada jefe deberá diriguir a los hombres que pelearán por su tribu. 5 Éstos son los nombres de los jefes que deberán pelear contigo. De la tribu de Rubén, Elizur, hijo de Sedeur; 6 de la tribu de Simeón, Selumiel, hijo de Zurisadai, 7 de la tribu de Judá, Naasón, hijo de Aminadab; 8 de la tribu de Isacar, Natanael, hijo de Zuar; 9 de la tribu de Zabulón, Eliab, hijo de Helón; 10 de la tribu de Efraín, hijo de José, Elisama, hijo de Amiud; de la tribu de Manasés, Gamaliel, hijo de Pedazur; 11 de la tribu de Benjamín, Abidán, hijo de Gedeoni. 12 de la tribu de Dan, Ahiezer, hijo de Amisadai; 13 de la tribu de Aser, Pagiel, hijo de Ocrán; 14 de la tribu de Gad, Eliasaf, hijo de Deuel; 15 y de la tribu de Neftalí, Ahira, hijo de Enán." 16 Éstos fueron los hombres nombrados del pueblo. Ellos dirigieron las tribus de sus antepasados. Ellos eran los jefes de las tribus de Israel. 17 Moisés y Aarón tomaron a estos hombres, quienes fueron anotados por nombre, 18 y junto con estos hombres, ellos reunieron a todos los hombres de Israel en el primer día del segundo mes. Luego, cada hombre de veinte años o más identificó sus antepasados. Él tenía que nombrar las tribus y las familias descendientes de sus antepasados. 19 Entonces Moisés registró sus nombres en el desierto de Sinaí, como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado. 20 De los descendientes de Rubén, el primogénito de Israel, fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 21 Contaron 46, 500 hombres de la tribu de Rubén. 22 De los descendientes de Simeón fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más habil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 23 Ellos contaron 59, 300 hombres de la tribu de Simeón. 24 De los descendientes de Gad fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 25 Ellos contaron 45, 650 hombres de la tribu de Gad. 26 De los descendientes de Judá fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 27 Ellos contaron 74, 600 hombres de la tribu de Judá. 28 De los descendientes de Isacar fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 29 Ellos contaron 54, 400 hombres de la tribu de Isacar. 30 De los descendientes de Zabulón fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 31 Ellos contaron 57, 400 hombres de la tribu de Zabulón. 32 De los descendientes de Efraín, hijo de José, fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 33 Ellos contaron 40, 500 hombres de la tribu de Efraín. 34 De los descendientes de Manasés, hijo de José, fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 35 Ellos contaron 32, 200 hombres de la tribu de Manasés. 36 De los descendientes de Benjamín fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 37 Ellos contaron 35, 400 hombres de la tribu de Benjamín. 38 De los descendientes de Dan fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 39 Ellos contaron 62, 700 de la tribu de Dan. 40 De los descendientes de Aser fueron contados todos los nombres y cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra, de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus descendientes. 41 Ellos contaron 41, 500 hombres de la tribu de Aser. 42 De los descendientes de Neftalí fueron contados todos los nombres de cada hombre de veinte años o más hábil para ir a la guerra de los registros de las tribus y familias de sus antepasados. 43 Ellos contaron 53, 400 de la tribu de Neftalí. 44 Moisés y Aarón

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

contaron todos estos hombres, juntos con los doce hombres que estaban dirigiendo las doce tribus de Israel. 45 Por tanto, todos los hombres de Israel de veinte años o más, todos los que podían pelear en la guerra, fueron contados en cada una de sus familias. 46 Ellos contaron 603, 500 hombres. 47 Pero los hombres que eran descendientes de Leví no fueron contados, 48 porque El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: 49 "Tú no deberás contar los de la tribu de Leví ni incluirlos en el total del pueblo de Israel. 50 En su lugar, pon a los levitas al cuidado de la tienda de reunión de las leyes del pacto, y al cuidado de todos los muebles en la tienda de reunión y por todo lo que está dentro de él. Los levitas deberán cargar el tabernáculo, ellos cargarán los muebles de la tienda de reunión. Cuidarán la tienda de reunión y harán campamento alrededor de él. 51 Cuando la tienda de reunión sea movido a otro lugar, los levitas deben desmontarla. Cuando haya que montar la tienda de reunión, los levitas la deberán montar. Cualquier extranjero que se acerque a la tienda de reunión debe ser muerto. 52 Cuando el pueblo de Israel monte sus tiendas, cada hombre debe montar cerca de la bandera que pertenece a su grupo armado. 53 Sin embargo, los levitas deben montar sus tiendas alrededor de la tienda de reunión de las leyes del pacto para que mi enojo no venga sobre el pueblo de Israel. Los levitas deben cuidar la tienda de reunión de las leyes del pacto." 54 El pueblo de Israel hizo todas estas cosas. Ellos hicieron todo lo que El SEÑOR le había ordenado a través de Moisés.

Numbers 1:1

El SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Ver la página de traducción del SEÑOR sobre cómo traducir esto.

el primer dia del segundo mes
"El 1er día del 2do mes". Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de mediados de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

el segundo año
"el segundo año" o "año 2"

Cuéntalos por nombre Esto significa contar a los hombres grabando sus nombres. Traducción alterna: "Cuéntalos, grabando el nombre de cada uno de los hombres"

veinte años de edad
"20 años de edad"

registra el número de hombres en sus grupos armados
Esto se refiere a asignar a los hombres a sus divisiones militares.

Numbers 1:4

una cabeza del clan
"un líder de un clan"

te deberá servir
"ayudarte"

Numbers 1:7

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa listando a los líderes de las tribus de Moisés.

Numbers 1:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa listando a los líderes de las tribus de Moisés.

Numbers 1:12

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa listando a los líderes de las tribus de Moisés.

Numbers 1:16

los hombres nombrados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "los hombres a quienes el SEÑOR designó"

Numbers 1:17

tomaron a estos hombres
"reunieron a estos hombres juntos"

quienes fueron registrados por nombre Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "cuyos nombres habían registrado"

el primer día del segundo mes
"El 1er día del 2do mes". Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de mediados de abril en los calendarios occidentales. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1:1.

Luego, cada hombre de veinte años o más identificó sus antepasados. Él tenía que nombrar los clanes y las familias descendientes de sus antepasados
La segunda oración significa básicamente lo mismo que la primera y se agrega para aclaración.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él tenía que nombrar
Aquí "nombrar" significa "decir". Traducción alterna: "Cada hombre tenía que decir"

Numbers 1:20

fueron contados todos los nombres Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres" apto para ir a la guerra

"quien pudo ir a la guerra"

46,500 hombres
"cuarenta y seis mil quinientos hombres"

Numbers 1:22

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:24

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:26

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo.Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:28

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:30

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo.Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:32

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo.Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:34

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción altern: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:36

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:38

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:40

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:42

fueron contados todos los nombres de cada varón ... clanes y familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede expresar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "contaron todos los nombres de todos y cada uno de los hombres ... clanes y familias"

Numbers 1:44

Por tanto, todos los hombres de Israel ... fueron contados en cada una de sus familias
La frase "fueron contados" se puede declarar en forma activa. Esta frase larga se repite varias veces en el censo. Ver como se ha traducido en 1:20. Traducción alterna: "Entonces contaron a todos los hombres de Israel ... en cada una de sus familias"

Numbers 1:47

los hombres quienes eran descendientes de Leví no fueron contados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés y Aarón no contaron a los hombres que descendían de Levi"

quienes eran descendientes de Leví En algunos idiomas este es un verbo pasivo. Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir de manera diferente. Traducción alterna: "que eran de la tribu de Levi"

no deberás contar los de la tribu de Leví Aquí, la "tribu de Levi" se refiere a todos los hombres en la tribu de Levi. Traducción alterna: "no debe contar a los hombres de la tribu de Levi"

Numbers 1:50

el tabernáculo de los decretos del pacto
El tabernáculo también fue llamado por este nombre más largo porque el arca con la ley de Dios fue colocada dentro de él.

por todo lo que está dentro de él
Aquí "él" se refiere al tabernáculo

Los levitas deberán cargar el tabernáculo
Su trabajo era llevar el tabernáculo cuando viajaban. Traducción alterna: "Cuando viajan, los levitas deben llevar el tabernáculo"

harán campamento alrededor de él
Esto significa que debían instalar sus tiendas alrededor del tabernáculo. Traducción alterna: "configuren sus tiendas alrededor de él"

Numbers 1:51

Cuando haya que montar el tabernáculo
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cuando es el momento de montar el tabernáculo"

Cualquier extranjero ... debe ser matado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cualquier extraño ... debe morir" o "Debes matar a cualquier extraño que se acerque al tabernáculo"

la bandera una gran bandera

su grupo armado
"su división militar"

Numbers 1:53

el tabernáculo de los decretos del pacto
El tabernáculo también fue llamado por este nombre más largo porque el arca con la ley de Dios fue colocada dentro de él. Ver como se ha traducido esto en 1:50.

para que mi enojo no venga sobre el pueblo de Israel Aquí el SEÑOR habla de no castigar a los israelitas ya que su ira no viene sobre ellos. La frase "sobre" se refiere a su ira aplicada a ellos. Traducción alterna: "para que en mi ira no castigue al pueblo de Israel"

El SEÑOR le había ordenado a través de Moisés
El SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés todo lo que los israelitas debían hacer, y luego Moisés les había ordenado a los israelitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 El SEÑOR habló otra vez a Moisés y Aarón. Él dijo: 2 "Cada uno de los israelitas tiene que acampar alrededor de su estandarte, con las banderas de las casas de sus padres. Ellos acamparán alrededor de la tienda de reunión a cada lado. 3 Los que estarán acampando al este de la tienda de reunión, por donde el sol sale, son el campamento de Judá y estarán acampando debajo de su estandarte. Naasón, hijo de Aminadab, es el jefe de la gente de Judá. 4 El número de la gente de Judá es 74, 600. 5 La tribu de Isacar tiene que acampar al lado de Judá. Natanael, hijo de Zuar, tiene que dirigir el ejército de Isacar. 6 El número en su división es 54, 400 hombres. 7 La tribu de Zabulón tiene que acampar al lado de Isacar. Eliab, hijo de Helón, tiene que dirigir el ejército de Zabulón. 8 El número en su división es 57, 400. 9 Todo el número del campamento de Judá es 186, 400. Ellos se establecerán primero. 10 En el lado sur estará el campamento de Rubén debajo de su estandarte. El jefe del campamento de Rubén es Elisur hijo de Sedeur. 11 El número en su división es 46, 500. 12 Simeón está acampando al lado de Rubén. El jefe de la gente de Simeón es Selumiel hijo de Zurisadai. 13 El número en su división es 59, 300. 14 La tribu de Gad es la próxima. El jefe del pueblo de Gad es Eliasaf, hijo de Deuel. 15 El número en su división es 45, 650. 16 Todos aquellos contados en el campamento de Rubén, de acuerdo a sus divisones, son 151, 450. Ellos se pondrán en segundo lugar. 17 Luego, la tienda de reunión tiene que ir fuera del campamento con los levitas en medio de todos los campamentos. Ellos tienen que ir fuera del campamento en el mismo orden que entraron al campamento. Cada hombre tiene que estar en su lugar, junto a su bandera. 18 Las divisiones del campamento de Efraín debajo de su estandarte. El jefe de la gente de Efraín es Elisama, hijo de Amiud. 19 El número en su división es 40, 500. 20 Junto a ellos está la tribu de Manasés. El jefe de Manasés es Gamaliel, hijo de Pedasur. 21 El número en su división es 32, 200. 22 Después, estará la tribu de Benjamín. El jefe de Benjamín es Abidán, hijo de Gedeoni. 23 El número en su división es 35, 400. 24 Todos aquellos contados en el campamento de Efraín son 108, 100. Ellos se pondrán en tercer lugar. 25 Al norte estarán las divisiones del campamento de Dan. El jefe de la gente de Dan es Ahiezer, hijo de Amisadai. 26 El número en su división es 62, 700. 27 La gente de la tribu de Aser acampa al lado de Dan. El jefe de Aser es Pagiel, hijo de Ocrán. 28 El número en su división es 41, 500. 29 La tribu de Neftalí es la próxima. El jefe de Neftalí es Ahira, hijo de Enán. 30 El número en su división es 53, 400. 31 Todos aquellos contados en el campamento con Dan son 157, 600. Ellos saldrán del campamento en último lugar, debajo de su bandera." 32 Estos son los israelitas, contados de acuerdo a sus familias. Todos aquellos contados en sus campamentos, por sus divisiones, son 603, 550. 33 Pero Moisés y Aarón no contaron a los levitas de entre el pueblo de Israel. Esto fue como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 34 El pueblo de Israel hizo todo lo que EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. Acamparon junto a sus banderas. Salieron del campamento por sus tribus, en el orden de las familias de sus antepasados.

Numbers 2:1

alrededor de su estandarte
Los "estandartes" eran cuatro grupos más grandes en los que se dividían las tribus. Cada estandarte fue ordenada a acampar juntos. Los estandartes estaban representados por una bandera.

con las banderas de las casas de sus padres Cada familia extendida también tenía una bandera debajo del campamento, que estaba dentro del área designada para su estandarte.

banderas son banderas grandes

Numbers 2:3

debajo de su estandarte
Los "estandartes" eran cuatro grupos más grandes en los que se dividían las tribus. A cada estandarte se le ordenó acampar juntos, y estaba representada por una bandera. Ver como se ha traducido "estandartes" en 2:1.

Naasón, hijo de Aminadab
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:7.

74.600
"setenta y cuatro mil seiscientos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 2:5

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Natanael, hijo de Zuar
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:7.

división
Este es un término militar para un gran grupo de soldados. Cada tribu era su propia "división".

Numbers 2:7

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Eliab, hijo de Helón
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:7.

57.400
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "57.400 hombres"

Numbers 2:9

Todo el número del campamento de Judá es 186.400
Este número incluye a todos los hombres en las tribus que acamparon bajo el estandarte de Judá. Traducción alterna: "El número de los hombres acampados bajo el estandarte de Judá es 186.400"

Ellos se establecerán primero Esto significa que saldrán primero cuando se mueva el campamento israelita. Traducción alterna: "Cuando viajen, saldrán primero"

primero
"1ro."

Numbers 2:10

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

debajo de su estandarte
Los "estandartes" eran cuatro grupos más grandes en los que se dividían las tribus. A cada estandarte se le ordenó acampar juntos, y estaba representada por una bandera. Ver como se ha traducido "estandartes" en 2:1.

Elisur hijo de Sedeur
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:4.

46.500
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "46.500 hombres"

Numbers 2:12

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Selumiel hijo de Zurisadai
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:4.

59.300
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "59.300 hombres"

Numbers 2:14

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Eliasaf, hijo de Deuel
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

45.650
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "45.650 hombres"

Numbers 2:16

Todos aquellos enumerados en el campamento de Rubén, de acuerdo a sus divisones, son 151,450
Este número incluye a todos los hombres en las tribus que acamparon bajo el estandarte de Rubén. Traducción alterna: "El número de todos los hombres acampados bajo el estandarte de Rubén, según sus divisiones, es 151,450"

segundo
"2do."

Numbers 2:17

la tienda de reunión tiene que salir fuera ... en medio de todos los campamentos
Esto significa que la tienda de reunión debe ser llevada por los levitas en medio de las tribus mientras viajan.

Ellos tienen que salir
"Ellos" se refiere a las doce tribus.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

junto a su bandera
Cada hombre no tiene su propio estandarte personal; más bien, esto se refiere a la bandera que pertenece a su tribu. Traducción alterna: "por el estandarte de su tribu"

Numbers 2:18

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

debajo de su estandarte
Los "estandartes" eran cuatro grupos más grandes en los que se dividían las tribus. A cada estandarte se le ordenó acampar juntos, y estaba representada por una bandera. Ver como se ha traducido "estandartes" en 2:1.

40.500
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "40.500 hombres"

Numbers 2:20

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Junto a ellos
Esto significa que la tribu de Manasés saldrá a continuación, después de la tribu de Efraín.

32.200
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "32.200 hombres"

Numbers 2:22

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Abidán, hijo de Gedeoni
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:10.

35.400
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "35.400 hombres"

Numbers 2:24

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Todos aquellos enumerados en el campamento de Efraín son 108,100
Este número incluye a todos los hombres en las tribus que acamparon bajo el estandarte de Efraín. Traducción alterna: "El número de los hombres acampados bajo el estandarte de Efraín es 108.100"

tercero
"3ro."

Numbers 2:25

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

las divisiones del campamento de Dan Esto se refiere a las divisiones de Dan, Asher y Neftalí que están bajo el estandarte de Dan. Traducción alterna: "las divisiones que acampan bajo el estandarte de Dan"

Ahiezer, hijo de Amisadai
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

62.700
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "62.700 hombres"

Numbers 2:27

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Pagiel, hijo de Ocrán
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

41.500
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "41.500 hombres"

Numbers 2:29

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Ahira, hijo de Enán
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

53.400
Esto modifica a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "53.400 hombres"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 2:31

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde acamparán cada tribu y su ejército alrededor de la tienda de la reunión.

Todos aquellos enumerados en el campamento con Dan son 157,600
Este número incluye a todos los hombres en las tribus que acamparon bajo el estandarte de Dan. Traducción alterna: "El número de hombres acampados bajo el estandarte de Dan es 157.600"

Numbers 2:32

Todos aquellos contados
''Todos los contados'' esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés y Aarón los contaron a todos"

por sus divisiones
Aquí "sus" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

Numbers 2:34

Ellos salieron del campamento Esto se refiere a cuándo viajarían a otro lugar. Traducción alterna: "Cuando viajaban, salían del campamento"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Ahora esta es la historia de los descendientes de Aarón y Moisés cuando EL SEÑOR habló con Moisés en el Monte Sinaí. 2 Los nombres de los hijos de Aarón eran Nadab el primogénito, y Abiú, Eleazar e Itamar. 3 Estos son los nombres de los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes que fueron ungidos y que fueron ordenados a servir como sacerdotes. 4 Pero Nadab y Abiú cayeron muertos ante EL SEÑOR cuando ofrecieron a Él fuego inaceptable en el desierto de Sinaí. Nadab y Abiú no tenían hijos, así que solo Eleazar e Itamar sirvieron como sacerdotes con Aarón su padre. 5 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 6 "Trae la tribu de Leví y preséntalos a Aarón el sacerdote para que ellos le ayuden a él. 7 Ellos deben hacer las tareas a nombre de Aarón y en beneficio de la comunidad completa delante de la tienda de reunión. Ellos deben servir en la tienda de reunión. 8 Ellos deben cuidar de los muebles en la tienda de reunión, y ellos deben ayudar a las tribus de Israel para llevar a cabo el servicio de la tienda de reunión. 9 Debes darle los levitas a Aarón y a sus hijos. Ellos han sido dados completamente para ayudarlo a servir al pueblo de Israel. 10 Debes nombrar a Aarón y a sus hijos como sacerdotes, pero cualquier extranjero quien se acerque debe morir." 11 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 12 "Mira, Yo he escogido a los levitas de entre el pueblo de Israel. Yo he hecho esto en vez de escoger cada hombre primogénito que ha nacido entre el pueblo de Israel. Los levitas me pertenecen a Mí. 13 Todos los primogénitos me pertenecen. En el día que Yo ataqué a todos los primogénitos en la tierra de Egipto, Yo separé para Mí a todos los primogénitos en Israel, ambos gente y animales. Ellos me pertenecen. Yo soy EL SEÑOR." 14 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés en el desierto de Sinaí. Y Él dijo: 15 "Cuenta los descendientes de Leví en cada familia, en la casa de sus antepasados. Cuenta cada hombre que tienga un mes y mayores." 16 Moisés los contó, siguiendo la palabra del SEÑOR, de la manera como le fue ordenado a hacer. 17 Los nombres de los hijos de Leví fueron Gersón, Coat y Merari. 18 Las familias de los hijos de Gersón fueron Libni y Simei. 19 Las familias de los hijos de Coat eran Amram, Izhar, Hebrón y Uziel. 20 Las familias de Merari fueron Mahli y Musi. Estos son las familias de los Levitas, enumerados familia por familia. 21 Las familias de los libnitas y los simeitas vienen de Gersón. Estos son las familias de los gersonitas. 22 Todos los hombres de un mes y mayores fueron contados, totalizando 7, 500. 23 Las familias de los gersonitas deben acampar en el lado oeste de la tienda de reunión. 24 Eliasaf, hijo de Lael, debe guiar las familias de los descendientes de los gersonitas. 25 La familia de Gersón debe cuidar la tienda de reunión. Deben cuidar la tienda, su cubierta y la cortina usada como entrada a la tienda de reunión. 26 Deben cuidar de la cortina del patio, la cortina del patio de entrada-- el patio que rodea el santuario y el altar. Deben cuidar de las cuerdas de la tienda de reunión y de todo lo que hay en ella. 27 Estas familias vienen de Coat: la familia de los amramitas, la familia de los izharitas, la familia de los hebronitas y la familia de los uzielitas. Estas familias pertenecen a los coatitas. 28 8, 600 hombres han sido contados de edad de un mes y mayores para cuidar de las cosas del SEÑOR. 29 Las familias de los descendientes de Coat deben acampar en el lado sur de la tienda de reunión. 30 Elizafán, hijo de Uziel, debe guiar las familias de los coatitas. 31 Ellos deben cuidar del arca, la mesa, el candelabro, los altares, las cosas santas que son usadas en el servicio, la cortina y todo el trabajo alrededor. 32 Eleazar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote, debe guiar los hombres que guian a los levitas. Él debe supervisar a los hombres que cuidan el lugar santo. 33 Dos familias de Merari: la familia de los mahlitas y la familia de los musitas. Estas familias vienen de Merari. 34 6, 200 hombres han sido contados de edad de un mes y mayores. 35 Zuriel, hijo de Abihail, debe guiar las familias de Merari. Deben acampar en el lado norte de la tienda de reunión. 36 Los descendientes de Merari deben cuidar la estructura de la tienda de reunión, las barras cruzadas, postes, bases, todo los utensilios y todo lo relacionado a ellos, incluyendo 37 los pilares y postes del patio que rodean la tienda de reunión, con sus bases, sus estacas y cuerdas. 38 Moisés y Aarón y sus hijos deben acampar al lado este de la tienda de reunión, al frente, hacia el amanecer. Son responsables de cumplir las tareas del santuario en beneficio del pueblo de Israel. Cualquier extranjero que se acerque al santuario debe morir. 39 Moisés y Aarón contaron todos los hombres en las familias de Leví de edad de un mes y mayores, de la manera como EL SEÑOR mandó. Contaron veintidos mil hombres. 40 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Cuenta todos los hombres primogénitos del pueblo de Israel de edad de un mes y mayores. Haz una lista de sus nombres. 41 Debes tomar los levitas para Mí- Yo soy EL SEÑOR- en lugar de todos los primogénitos del pueblo de Israel, y el ganado de los levitas en vez del primogénito del ganado de los descendientes de Israel." 42 Moisés contó todos los primogénitos del pueblo de Israel como EL SEÑOR le había mandado a hacer. 43 Contó todos los hombres primogenitos por nombre, edad desde un mes y mayores. Él contó 22, 273 hombres. 44 Otra vez, EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 45 "Toma los levitas en vez de todos los primogénitos entre el pueblo de Israel, y toma el ganado de los levitas en vez

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

del ganado del pueblo. Los levitas me pertenece a Mí- Yo soy EL SEÑOR. 46 Debes recoger cinco siclos para la redención de cada uno de los 273 primogenitos del pueblo de Israel que excedan el número de los levitas. 47 Debes usar el siclo del santuario como peso. El siclo es igual a once gramos de plata. 48 Debes dar el precio de la redención que tú pagues a Aarón y a sus hijos." 49 Así Moisés recogió el pago de redención de aquellos que excedían en número de aquellos redimidos por los Levitas. 50 Moisés recogió el dinero de los primogénitos del pueblo de Israel. Él recogió 1, 365 siclos, pesándolo con el siclo del santuario. 51 Moisés dió el dinero de la redención a Aarón y a sus hijos. Moisés hizo todo lo que le dijo la palabra del SEÑOR, como el SEÑOR le había ordenado.

Numbers 3:1

ahora
Aquí el autor usa la palabra "ahora" para empezar una nueva cuenta histórica

Nadab el primogenito
Nadab quien fue el primogenito.

Numbers 3:3

Los sacerdotes que fueron ungidos y que fueron ordenados
Esto puede ser expresado de forma activa Traducción alterna: los sacerdotes que Moisés ungió y ordenó

cayó muerto delante de El Señor La frase "cayó muerto" significa morir repentinamente. Traducción alterna: "De repente murió delante de El Señor"

ante El Señor
Esto se refiere a la presencia de El Señor, lo que significa que El Señor vio todo lo que sucedió. Traducción alterna: "en presencia de El Señor"

Le ofrecieron fuego inaceptable.
Aquí la palabra "fuego" se usa para referirse a "quemar incienso". Traducción alterna: "quemaron una ofrenda de incienso de una manera que El Señor no lo aprobó"

Numbers 3:5

Trae la tribu de Levi
Aquí la palabra "tribu" se refiere a los hombres en la tribu. Traducción alterna: "Traer a los hombres de la tribu de Levi"

Numbers 3:7

a nombre de
"para." Esto significa hacer algo por alguien más, como representante de ellos.

ayudar a las trtibus de Israel
Aquí las "tribus de Israel" se refieren al pueblo de Israel. Traducción alterna: "ayudar al pueblo de Israel"

Deben ayudar a las tribus de Israel a llevar a cabo el servicio del tabernáculo.
La frase "llevar a cabo" significa "servir". Traducción alterna: "deben ayudar a las tribus de Israel sirviendo en el tabernáculo"

servicio del tabernáculo
"obra del tabernáculo"

Numbers 3:9

Debes darle
"Tú" se refiere a Moisés.

han sido completamente dados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "les he dado enteramente" cualquier extranjero quien se acerque debe morir Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "debes matar a cualquier extranjero que se acerque" o "cualquier extranjero que se acerque debe morir"

pero cualquier extranjero quien se acerque
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "pero cualquier extranjero que se acerque al tabernáculo"

Numbers 3:11

mira
"Escucha" o "Presta atención a lo que voy a decirte

he escogido a los levitas
"He elegido a los levitas"

Numbers 3:14

Cuenta los descendientes
El Señor le estaba ordenando a Moisés que solo contara a los descendientes varones. Traducción alterna: "Cuenta los descendientes masculinos"

en la casa de sus ancestros Aquí sus "casas de antepasados" significa sus "casas de antepasados". Esta es una metonimia para sus "clanes". Traducción alterna: "por sus clanes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

siguiendo la palabra del SEÑOR, justo como le fue ordenado a hacer Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que él obedeció a El Señor.

Numbers 3:17

Información general:
Esta es una lista de los descendientes de Levi.

Los clanes viniendo de Aquí el autor habla de "descender" como si se tratara de "venir". Traducción alterna: "Los clanes que descienden de"

Numbers 3:21

vienen de Gersón
Aquí el autor habla de "descender" como si se tratara de "venir". Traducción alterna: "desciende de Gersón"

Libnitas ... Simeitas ... Gersonitas
"Libnites" y "Shimeites" son el nombre de clanes, nombrados después del jefe de su familia. El "Gersonitas" es el nombre de las personas que descendieron de Gersón.

Todos los varones de un mes y mayores fueron contados
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés contó todos los mvarones de un mes y más"

7,500
"setenta y cinco mil" o "siete mil quinientos"

Numbers 3:24

la cortina del patio de entrada
"Las cortinas en el patio".

El patio que rodea el santuario y el altar.
"Es decir, el patio que rodea el santuario y el altar".

Numbers 3:27

Información general:
Esta es una lista de clanes que descendieron de Coat.

Coat
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3:17.

8, 600 varones han sido contados
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés contó 8,600 varones"

de edad de un mes y mayores
"a partir de un mes y mayores"

Numbers 3:30

Información general:
Estos versículos nos dan información sobre los clanes que descendieron de Coat.

Las cosas santas que se usan en su servicio.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las cosas santas que los sacerdotes usan para el servicio"

Numbers 3:33

Información general:
Esta es una lista de clanes que descendieron de Merari.

6, 200 varones han sido contados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés contó 6,200 hombres"

Numbers 3:36

el enmarcado
Esto a los paneles que hicieron al juntar piezas más pequeñas de madera.

las barras cruzadas
Son vigas de soporte que le dan estabilidad a la estructura.

postes
Un poste es una pieza fuerte de madera que se coloca en posición vertical y se usa como soporte.

bases
Las bases mantuvieron los puestos en su lugar.

utensilios
Esto significa todo lo que se usa para unir las barras transversales, las publicaciones y las bases.

con sus bases
Aquí "su" se refiere a los "pilares y postes".

sus bases, sus estacas y cuerdas
Estos son todos los artículos utilizados para asegurar los pilares y postes en su lugar.

Numbers 3:38

sus hijos
Aquí "su" se refiere a Aaron

hacia el amanecer
Este es el lado este del tabernáculo. Traducción alterna: "en el lado este, donde sale el sol"

cumplimiento de las tareas
La palabra "cumplimiento" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "para realizar los deberes"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cualquier extranjero que se acerque al santuario debe morir
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Debes matar a cualquier extranjero que se acerque al santuario" o "Cualquier extranjero que se acerque al santuario debe morir"

veintidos mil hombres veintidos mil hombres - "22,000 hombres" o "22,000 hombres"

Numbers 3:40

y el ganado de los levitas
Esto se refiere al ganado de todos los levitas. Traducción alterna: debes llevar el ganado de todos los levitas

Numbers 3:42

todos los primogénitos
"todos los hijos primogénitos"

Numbers 3:46

para la redención de...
El sustantivo "redención" se puede traducir con el verbo "redimir". Traducción alterna: "para canjear"

primogenitos del pueblo de Israel
"primogénitos hijos de israel"

cinco siclos
Un siclo es una unidad de peso equivalente a unos 11 gramos. Traducción alterna: "unos 55 gramos de plata" que excedan el número de los levitas

Esto significa que hay 273 varones primogénitos más entre las otras tribus de los israelitas que el número total de varones levitas.

Debes usar el ciclo del santuario como tu peso estándar Esto significa que el siclo debe tener el mismo peso que los del santuario. Traducción alterna: "Debes usar el peso de los siclos en el santuario como peso de tu soporte"

veinte gerahs
"20 gerahs". Un gerah es una unidad de peso equivalente a aproximadamente .57 kilogramos.

el precio de redención que tú pagues Aquí la palabra "precio" se refiere a los siclos que Moisés recolectó. Traducción alterna: "el dinero que recolectaste para su redención"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aarón. Y Él dijo: 2 "Hagan un censo de los hombres descendientes de Coat de entre los levitas, por sus familias y las familias de sus antepasados. 3 Cuenten a todos los hombres que tengan entre treinta y cincuenta años de edad. Estos hombres tienen que unirse para servir en el tienda de reunión. 4 Los descendientes de Coat tienen que cuidar de las cosas más santas reservadas para Mí en la tienda de reunión. 5 Cuando el campamento se prepare para seguir adelante, Aarón y sus hijos tienen que entrar en la tienda, quitar la cortina que separa el lugar más santo del lugar santo y cubrir el arca del testimonio con la cortina. 6 Tienen que cubrir el arca con pieles de tejón. Tienen que extender una tela azul sobre la misma. Tienen que poner las varas para cargarla. 7 Extenderán la tela azul sobre la mesa del pan de la presencia. Sobre la tela azul tienen que poner los platos, cucharas, tazones y jarras para derramar. El pan tiene que estar siempre sobre la mesa. 8 Tienen que cubrilos con telas rojas y de nuevo con pieles de tejón. Tienen que poner varas para cargar la mesa. 9 Tienen que tomar una tela azul y cubrir el candelabro, junto con sus lámparas, agarraderas, bandejas, y todos los contenedores de aceite para las lámparas. 10 Tienen que poner las lámparas y todos sus accesorios en una cortina de piel de tejón, y tienen que ponerlo en una estructura de carga. 11 Tienen que colocar una tela azul sobre el altar de oro. Tienen que cubrirlo con pieles de tejón, y luego poner las varas de carga. 12 Tienen que tomar todos los utencilios para el trabajo en el lugar santo y envolverlos con una tela azul. Tienen que cubrirlos con pieles de tejón y colocarlos sobre la estructura de carga. 13 Tienen que quitar todas la cenizas del altar y extender una tela morada sobre el altar. 14 Tienen que colocar en una estructura de carga todos los utencilios que ellos usan en el trabajo del altar. Estos objetos son las parrillas, tenedores, palas, tazones, y todos los otros utensilios para el altar. Tienen que cubrir el altar con pieles de tejón y después poner las varas de carga. 15 Cuando Aarón y sus hijos hayan cubierto completamente el lugar santo y todos sus utensilios, y cuando el campamento se mueva, entonces los descendientes de Coat tienen que venir a cargar el lugar santo. Si ellos tocan los utensilios santos, morirán. Éste es el trabajo de los descendientes de Coat, cargar los muebles de la tienda de reunion. 16 Eleazar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote supervisará el cuidado del aceite para las luces, el incienso dulce, el grano regular para ofrendar y el aceite para ungir. Él supervisará el cuidado de la tienda de reunión completa y las cosas que están en él, el lugar santo y sus utensilios." 17 EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aarón. 18 Y Él dijo: "No permitas que las familias de Coat sean quitados de entre los levitas. 19 Protéganlos, para que ellos vivan y no mueran, al hacer esto. Cuando se acerquen a las cosas más santas 20 no podrán entrar a ver el lugar más santo ni por un momento, o morirán. Aarón y sus hijos tienen que entrar, y luego tienen que asignarle a cada uno de los coatitas su trabajo, sus tareas especiales." 21 El SEÑOR le habló de nuevo a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 22 "Haz un censo de los descendientes de Gersón, por las familias de sus antepasados, y por sus familias. 23 Cuenta aquellos que tienen de treinta a cincuenta años de edad. Cuenta a todos los que se unirán para servir en la tienda de reunión. 24 Éste es el trabajo de las familias de los gersonitas, cuando sirvan y carguen. 25 Tienen que cargar las cortinas del tabernáculo, la tienda de reunión, sus cubiertas, la cubierta de piel de tejón que está sobre el mismo y las cortinas de la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 26 Tienen que cargar las cortinas del patio, la cortinas de la entrada del portón del patio, la cual está cerca de la tienda de reunión y cerca del altar, sus cuerdas, y todos los utencilios para su servicio. Lo que sea que deba hacerse con estas cosas, ellos tienen que hacerlo. 27 Aarón y sus hijos tienen que dirigir el servicio de los descendientes de los gersonitas, en todo lo que ellos transporten, y en todo su servicio. Tú tienes que asignarles todas sus responsabilidades. 28 Este es el servicio de las familias de los descendientes de los gersonitas para la tienda de reunión. Itamar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote tiene que dirigirlos en su servicio. 29 Tú tienes que contar los descendientes de Merari por sus familias, y ordenarlos por las familias de sus antepasados, 30 desde treinta años hasta los cincuenta años de edad. Cuenta a todos los que van a unirse y servir en la tienda de reunión. 31 Esta es su responsabilidad y su trabajo en todo su servicio para la tienda de reunión. Tienen que cuidar la estructura de la tienda de reunión, sus varas, postes, y bases, 32 junto con los postes del patio alrededor de la tienda de reunión, sus bases, estacas, y sus cuerdas, con todos sus utensilios. Enlista por nombre todos los artículos que ellos tienen que transportar. 33 Este es el servicio de las familias de la descendencia de Merari, lo que harán para la tienda de reunión, bajo la dirección de Itamar hijo de Aarón el sacerdote." 34 Moisés y Aarón y los jefes de la comunidad contaron los descendientes de los coatitas por las familias de sus ancestros. 35 Los contaron desde treinta hasta cincuenta años de edad. Contaron a todos los que se unirían a servir en la tienda de reunión. 36 Contaron 2, 750 hombres por sus familias. 37 Moisés y Aarón contaron a todos los hombres en las familias de los coatitas quienes servirían en la tienda

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

de reunión. Haciendo esto, obedecieron lo que EL SEÑOR les ordenó hacer a través de Moisés. 38 Los descendientes de Gersón fueron contados en sus familias, por las familias de sus ancestros, 39 desde treinta a cincuenta años de edad, a todos los que unirían para servir en la tienda de reunión. 40 Todos los hombres, contados por sus familias y las familias de sus antepasados, fueron 2, 630. 41 Moisés y Aarón contaron las familias de los descendientes de Gersón quienes servirían en la tienda de reunión. Haciendo esto, obedecieron lo que EL SEÑOR les ordenó hacer a través de Moisés. 42 Los descendientes de Merari fueron contados en sus familias por las familias de sus ancestros, 43 desde treinta hasta cincuenta años de edad, a todos los que se unirían para servir en la tienda de reunión. 44 Todos los hombres, contados por sus familias y las familias de sus antepasados, fueron 3, 200. 45 Moisés y Aarón contaron a todos estos hombres, los descendientes de Merari. Haciendo esto, obedecieron lo que EL SEÑOR les ordenó hacer a través por medio de Moisés. 46 Así que Moisés, Aarón y los jefes de Israel contaron a todos los levitas por las familias en las familias de sus antepasados 47 desde treinta hasta cincuenta años de edad. Contaron a todos los que harían trabajos en la tienda de reunión, y que cargarían y cuidarían los utensilios en la tienda de reunión. 48 Contaron 8, 580 hombres. 49 A la orden del SEÑOR, Moisés contó a cada hombre, manteniendo cuenta de cada uno por el tipo de trabajo que era asignado hacer. Él contó a cada hombre por el tipo de responsabilidad que podía cargar. Haciendo esto, obedecieron lo que EL SEÑOR les ordenó hacer a través de Moisés.

Numbers 4:1

Coat
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3:17.

treinta a cincuenta años
"30 a 50 años"

unirse en compañía
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión.

reservadas para mi
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que he seleccionado especialmente para mí"

Numbers 4:5

Cuando el campamento se prepare Aquí "campamento" se refiere a todas las personas en el campamento. Traducción alterna: "Cuando la gente se prepara"

para seguir adelante Esto se refiere a las personas que se mudan a otro lugar. Traducción alterna: "para moverse a otra ubicación"

cubrir el arca del testimonio con la cortina
La palabra "eso" se refiere a la cortina que separaba el lugar más santo del lugar santo.

insertar los postes
Los postes se insertaron en anillos en los lados del arca para que los postes pudieran usarse para llevar el arca. Esto se puede decir claramente. Traducción alterna: "inserta los postes en los anillos en los lados del arca"

Numbers 4:7

el pan de la presencia
Este pan representa la presencia de Jehová. Traducción alterna: "El pan de la presencia de Jehová".

En ello deben poner
Aquí "eso" se refiere a la tela azul.

tazones y jarras para vertir
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "tazones y frascos utilizados para derramar ofrendas de bebidas"

tienen que cubrilos
Aquí se refiere a "los platos, cucharas, tazones y frascos"

El pan tiene que estar siempre sobre la mesa Siempre debe haber pan

trapos rojos
"paño rojo escarlata"

insertar postes
Los postes se insertaron en anillos en las esquinas de la mesa para que los postes pudieran usarse para transportar la mesa. Esto se puede expresar claramente. Traducción alterna: "inserte postes en los anillos en las esquinas de la mesa"

Numbers 4:9

Ellos tienen que colocar ... en una cobertura de piel de tejón
"Deben cubrirse ... con pieles de manatí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tienen que ponerlo en un marco de carga
"Deben colocar todas estas cosas en un marco para llevarlas"

insertar los postes de carga.
Los postes se insertaron en anillos a los lados del altar para que pudieran usarse para transportarlo. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "inserte los palos de transporte en los anillos a los lados del altar"

Numbers 4:12

el marco de carga
Un rectángulo de madera hecho con postes usados para llevar cosas.

para el trabajo en el lugar santo La palabra "trabajo" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar con el verbo "servir". Traducción alterna: "usado al servir a Jehová en el lugar santo"

en el trabajo del altar
La palabra "trabajo" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar con el verbo "servir". Traducción alterna: "cuando se sirve en el altar"

insertar los postes de carga
Los postes se insertaron en anillos a los lados del altar para que pudieran usarse para llevarlo. Esto puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción alterna: "inserte los palos de transporte en los anillos a los lados del altar"

Numbers 4:15

tienen que venir a cargar el lugar santo Aquí el lugar santo se refiere a todos los artículos que conforman el lugar santo que Aarón y sus hijos cubrieron con telas y pieles. Traducción alterna: "para llevar todos los artículos del lugar santo"

cuando el campamento se mueva Aquí la palabra "campamento" se refiere a todas las personas en el campamento. Traducción alterna: "cuando la gente avanza"

Coat
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3:17.

los instrumentos santos
"el equipo sagrado"

el aceite para las luces Aquí la palabra "luces" se usa para referirse a las "lámparas". Traducción alterna: el aceite para las lámparas

el cuidado del
Aquí el sustantivo abstracto "cuidado" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "los que cuidan"

Numbers 4:17

Coatitas
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Coat. Traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste en 3:27.

sean quitados de entre los levitas Esta frase se refiere a la muerte de los coathitas. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "hacer cualquier cosa que me lleve a eliminarlos por completo entre los levitas"

al hacer esto
Esta frase se refiere a lo que El Señor dice a continuación. Moisés protegerá a los coatitas al no permitirles entrar y ver el lugar santo.

su trabajo, sus tareas especiales
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para dar énfasis.

Numbers 4:21

de los descendientes de Gerson Esto se refiere sólo a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "de los descendientes masculinos de Gershon" treinta a cincuenta años de edad

"30 años a 50 años"

se unirán en compañía para servir en la tienda de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Ver como se ha traducido esta frase en 4: 1.

Numbers 4:24

Este es el trabajo de los clanes ... cuando sirven y lo que llevan
Esta oración es una descripción que nos dice de qué se tratan los siguientes versículos.

Gersonitas
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Gerson. Traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste en 3:21.

la cubierta de piel de tejón que está sobre el mismo
Esta es una cubierta exterior que se coloca en la parte superior de la carpa de la cubierta de la reunión. Traducción alterna: "la cubierta de piel de vaca marina que se coloca encima de eso" o "la cubierta exterior hecha de piel de vaca marina"

Lo que sea que deba hacerse con estas cosas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Cualquier trabajo que requieran estas cosas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 4:27

dirigir
"supervisar"

Este es el servicio de los clanes de los descendientes de los gersonitas para la tienda de reunión Aquí la palabra "servicio" es un nombre abstracto que puede ser expresado por un verbo. Aquí la palabra "Esto" se refiere a lo que Yahweh acaba de decir. Traducción alterna: "Así es como los clanes de los descendientes de los gershonitas servirán en la tienda de reunión"

Itamar
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3: 1.

Numbers 4:29

los descendientes de merari
Esto se refiere sólo a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "los descendientes masculinos de Merari

Merari
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 3:17.

Ordenalos
"ponlos en una lista"

treinta años ... cincuenta años
"30 años ... 50 años"

unirse y servir en la tienda de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Ver como se ha traducido esta frase en 4: 1.

Numbers 4:31

Esta es su responsabilidad
"Esto" se refiere a lo que el Señor dice a continuación sus basas, estacas, y sus cuerdas, con todos sus utensilios Aquí "sus" se refiere a los postes de la corte.

sus barras, postes, y basas ... y sus cuerdas
Estas son todas las partes de la estructura del tabernáculo. Ver como se ha traducido todas estas partes en 4:31.

Enlista por nombre todos los artículos que ellos tienen que transportar
"Listar por el nombre de cada hombre los artículos que debe llevar"

Numbers 4:33

bajo la dirección de Itamar hijo de Aarón el sacerdote La palabra "dirección" es un nombre abstracto que se expresa mediante un verbo. Traducción alterna: "como Itamar, hijo de Aarón, el sacerdote los dirige"

Itamar
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3: 1.

Numbers 4:34

los descendientes de los coatitas
El se refiere a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "los descendientes varones de los coatitas"

Coatitas
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Coat. Traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste en 3:27.

treinta años ... cincuenta años
"30 años ... 50 años"

todos los que se unirían en compañía
Aquí la palabra "unirían" no significa que los hombres "eligieron" unirse a la compañía, sino que fueron "asignados" a la compañía. Traducción alterna: "todos los que fueron asignados a unirse en compañía"

unirían en compañía a servir en la tienda de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Ver como se ha traducido esta frase en 4: 1.

2,750 hombres
"dos mil setecientos cincuenta"

Numbers 4:38

Los descendientes de Gerson.
Esto se refiere a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "Los descendientes masculinos de Gerson"

Los descendientes de Gerson fueron contados.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés y Aarón contaron los descendientes de Gersón"

desde treinta a cincuenta años de edad
"de 30 a 50 años"

todos los que unirían en compañía Aquí la palabra "unirían " no significa que los hombres "eligieron" unirse a la compañía, sino que fueron "asignados" a la compañía. Traducción alterna: "todos los que fueron asignados a unirse a la empresa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

todos los que unirían en compañía para servir en la tienda de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Ver como se ha traducido esta frase en 4: 1.

contados por sus clanes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "a quienes Moisés y Aarón contaron por sus clanes"

2,630
"2.630 hombres"

Numbers 4:41

ellos obedecieron
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a Moisés y Aarón.

Numbers 4:42

Se contaron los descendientes de Merari.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Moisés y Aarón contaron los descendientes de Merari"

de treinta a cincuenta años
"de 30 a 50 años"

todos los que se unirían en compañía
Aquí la palabra "unirían " no significa que los hombres "eligieron" unirse a la compañía, sino que fueron "asignados" a la compañía. Traducción alterna: "todos los que fueron asignados a unirse a la empresa"

unirían en compañía para servir en la tienda de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Ver como se ha traducido esta frase en 4: 1

contados por sus clanes
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "a quienes Moisés y Aarón contaron por sus clanes"

Numbers 4:45

ellos obedecieron
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a Moisés y Aarón.

Numbers 4:46

desde treinta hasta cincuenta
Esto se refiere a los hombres. Traducción alterna: "hombres de treinta a cincuenta"

desde treinta hasta cincuenta
de treinta a cincuenta"

Numbers 4:49

A la orden de el Señor
"Como El Señor mandó"

contó a cada hombre, manteniendo cuenta de cada uno por el tipo ... Él contó a cada hombre por el tipo de responsabilidad que podía cargar Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar y se usan juntas para enfatizar cómo Moisés contó a todos los hombres.

por el tipo de trabajo que él era asignado hacer Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "por su tipo de asignación de trabajo" o "por el tipo de trabajo que le había asignado a cada hombre"

que podía cargar
"que debería tener"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él le dijo: 2 "Manda al pueblo de Israel a enviar fuera del campamento a todos los que tengan una enfermedad infecciosa de piel, y a todos los que tengan una herida abierta, y cualquier otro que este sucio por tocar un cuerpo muerto. 3 Ya sea hombre o mujer, deben enviarlos fuera de campamento. No deben manchar el campamento, por que Yo vivo en el." 4 El pueblo hizo como se le mandó. Los enviaron fuera del campamento, como EL SEÑOR mandó a Moisés. El pueblo de Israel obedeció a EL SEÑOR. 5 Otra vez El SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 6 "Habla al pueblo de Israel. Cuando un hombre o mujer cometa algún pecado como los que cometen de una persona a otra, y es infiel a Mí, esa persona es culpable. 7 Entonces deberá confesar el pecado que ha hecho. Deberá pagar completamente el precio de su culpa y agregar al precio una quinta parte. Debe dar esto a la persona que él trató injustamente. 8 Pero si la persona a quién trató injustamente no tiene parientes cercanos para recibir su pago, debe pagar el precio de su culpa a Mí por medio del sacerdote, junto con un carnero para expiar su pecado. 9 Cada ofrenda del pueblo de Israel, las cosas que son puestas a un lado y llevadas al sacerdote por el pueblo de Israel, les pertenecerán a él. 10 Las ofrendas de todas las personas serán para el sacerdote; si alguno da alguna cosa al sacerdote, serán de su propiedad." 11 Otra vez, El SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 12 "Habla al pueblo de Israel. Diles: 'supongamos que la esposa de un hombre le da la espalda y peca en contra de su esposo. 13 Entónces supongamos que otro hombre durmió con ella. En ese caso, ella está sucia. Aún cuando su esposo no lo vea o sepa de esto, y si nadie la atrapa en el acto y si no hay testigo alguno en su contra, 14 como sea, un espíritu de celos le informa a su esposo que su esposa esta sucia. Sin embargo, un espíritu de celos puede llegar falsamente sobre un hombre cuando su esposa no está sucia. 15 En ese caso, el hombre deberá traer a su esposa al sacerdote. El esposo deberá traer una bebida como ofrenda para ella. Él deberá traer dos litros de harina de cebada. Él no deberá vertir aceite o incienso por que es una ofrenda de grano por celos, una ofrenda de cereal es un indicador posiblemente de pecado. 16 El sacerdote deberá traerla cerca y colocarla ante El SEÑOR. 17 El sacerdote deberá tomar una vasija del agua santa y tomar polvo del suelo de la tienda de reunion. El deberá poner el polvo en el agua. 18 El sacerdote pondrá a la mujer ante El SEÑOR y el soltará el cabello de la cabeza de la mujer. Él pondrá en las manos de ella la ofrenda memorial de grano, que es el grano que se ofrece por sospecha. El sacerdote sostendrá en sus manos el agua amarga que puede traer maldición. 19 El sacerdote pondrá a la mujer bajo juramento y le dirá: 'Si ningún otro hombre ha tenido relaciones sexuales contigo, y si tú no te has descarriado y cometido impureza, entonces serás libre del agua amarga que puede traerte una maldición. 20 Pero si tú, una mujer bajo su esposo te has descarriado, si tú estás sucia, y si otro hombre ha dormido contigo,' 21 entonces, (el sacerdote deberá hacer a la mujer decir un juramento que traerá una maldición sobre ella, y después seguirá hablándole)' El SEÑOR traerá maldición sobre ti que será mostrada al pueblo como tal. Esto pasará si El SEÑOR causa que tú no puedas tener hijos y tú abdomen se hinche. 22 Esta agua que trae la maldición entrará en tu estómago y hará que tu abdomen se hinche y tú no puedas tener hijos.' La mujer responderá: 'Si, deja que pase eso, si soy culpable.' 23 El sacerdote deberá escribir estas maldiciones sobre un rollo, y después debe lavar las maldiciones escritas en el agua amarga. 24 El sacerdote deberá hacer que la mujer beba el agua amarga que trae maldición. El agua que trae maldición entrará en ella y se amargará. 25 El sacerdote deberá quitar la ofrenda de grano por celos de la mano de la mujer. Él debe tomar en alto la ofrenda de grano ante El SEÑOR y llevarla al altar. 26 El sacerdote tomará un puñado con su mano de la ofrenda de grano como una ofrenda representativa, y la quemará en el altar. Después el dará a la mujer el agua amarga para beber. 27 Cuando él le dé el agua para beber, si ella está sucia por que ha cometido un pecado en contra de su esposo, entonces el agua que trae maldición entrará en ella y se amargará. Su abdomen se hinchará y no podrá tener hijos. La mujer será maldita entre su pueblo. 28 Pero si la mujer no está sucia y si está limpia, entonces será libre. Ella podrá tener hijos. 29 Esta es la ley de celos. Está es la ley para una mujer que se aleja de su esposo y se ensucia así misma. 30 Está es la ley para el hombre con espíritu de celos cuando él está celoso de su esposa. Él debe traer a la mujer ante El SEÑOR, y el sacerdote debe hacerle a ella todo lo que la ley de celos describe. 31 El hombre será libre de culpa por traer a su esposa al sacerdote. La mujer debe soportar cualquier culpa que ella tal vez tenga."

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 5:1

enfermedad infecciosa de la piel
Esto se refiere a la lepra, que es una enfermedad que afecta la piel y se propaga fácilmente a otras personas.

herida abierta
Esto se refiere a un corte abierto que está goteando fluidos.

que este sucio por tocar un cuerpo muerto
Si una persona tocaba un cadáver era considerada impura. Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

debes enviarlos
Aquí "ustedes" es plural y se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

El pueblo de Israel lo hizo.
Esto significa que despidieron a los impuros. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "El pueblo de Israel envió a los que estaban sucios fuera del campamento"

Numbers 5:5

algún pecado como los que cometen de una persona a otra
"Cualquier pecado que las personas usualmente cometen unos contra otros"

y es infiel a Mí
Si alguien peca contra otra persona, significa que también ha pecado contra El Señor y El Señor considera que esa persona le es infiel. Traducción alterna: "también me han hecho mal"

el precio de su culpabilidad Aquí, el "pecado" de la persona se conoce como su "culpa". Traducción alterna: "lo que se considera una cantidad adecuada de dinero por el mal que ha hecho"

agregar al precio una quinta parte más quinto más... Esto significa que la persona debe pagar un quinto extra del precio que debe.

un quinto
quinto... Esta es una parte de cinco partes iguales.

Numbers 5:8

Pero si la persona a quién trato injustamente no tiene parientes cercanos para recibir su pago
Por lo general, la persona perjudicada recibiría el pago, pero si esa persona ha fallecido, el pago va al pariente más cercano. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "Pero si la persona ofendida ha fallecido y no tiene un pariente cercano para recibir el pago"

si la persona a quién trato injustamente Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si la persona a quien el culpable ha hecho daño"

él debe pagar el precio de su culpabilidad a Mí por medio del sacerdote Si una persona hacía un pago a un sacerdote para pagar su culpa, era lo mismo que si la persona hubiera hecho el pago a El Señor.

para expiar su pecado
La expiación está hecha para el pecado del hombre. Aquí El Señor se refiere al pecado del hombre como "él mismo". Traducción alterna: "para expiar su pecado las cosas que son puestas a un lado y llevadas al sacerdote por el pueblo de Israel Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las cosas que el pueblo de Israel deja de lado y trae al sacerdote"

Las ofrendas de todas las personas serán para el sacerdote; si alguno da alguna cosa al sacerdote, serán de su pertenencia
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y pueden combinarse para afirmar que las ofrendas que alguien da pertenecen al sacerdote al que se les ha dado.

Numbers 5:11

supongamos que la esposa de un hombre le da la espalda y peca en contra de su esposo Esto es algo que posiblemente podría pasar. El Señor le está diciendo a Moisés qué hacer si sucede.

la esposa de un hombre le da la espalda Esto significa que ella se aleja de él y le es infiel. Traducción alterna: "la mujer de un hombre es infiel"

peca en contra de su esposo
Esto significa que ella es infiel a su esposo y peca contra él al dormir con otro hombre. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "Peca contra su marido por dormir con otro hombre"

Numbers 5:13

Entónces supongamos que otro hombre durmió con ella
"Y otro hombre se acuesta con ella". Esta oración se puede escribir como parte de la oración anterior. Esto explica cómo ella pecó contra su marido. Esto es algo que posiblemente podría pasar. El Señor le está diciendo a Moisés qué hacer si sucede.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

ella está sucia ... su esposa esta sucia ... su esposa no está sucia Estas frases pueden ser expresadas en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "ella se ha contaminado ... su mujer se ha contaminado ... su mujer no se ha contaminado"

en el acto
Esto se refiere al acto de adulterio. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "en el acto de adulterio" o "durmiendo con él"

un espíritu de celos le informa a su esposo Aquí la palabra "espíritu" se refiere a la actitud y las emociones de una persona. Se habla de su "celosamente" como si fuera una persona que le hablara. Traducción alterna: "el marido puede sentirse celoso y sospechar"

un espíritu de celos puede llegar falsamente sobre un hombre Aquí la palabra "espíritu" se refiere a la actitud y las emociones de una persona. La idea del espíritu "viniendo sobre él" significa que él comenzó a tener estos sentimientos celosos. Traducción alterna: "un hombre puede sentirse celoso por ninguna razón"

Numbers 5:15

una ofrenda de grano por celos una ofrenda de grano para los celos indicador posiblemente de pecado.

Un "indicador" es algo que muestra evidencia de algo. En este caso, hizo la ofrenda para determinar si su esposa había cometido adulterio o no.

Numbers 5:16

cerca y colocarla ante El SEÑOR
"En la presencia de Jehová". El sacerdote la acercaría al altar. Traducción alterna: "cerca del altar y colócala en presencia de El Señor"

Numbers 5:18

antes de El Señor
"en presencia del Señor"

grano que se ofrece por sospecha Traducir esta frase de la misma manera que lo hizo 5:15.

si tú no te has descarriado
Las palabras "se han extraviado" es un idioma que significa "ser infiel". Traducción alterna: "si no le has sido infiel a tu marido"

y cometido impureza
"Al cometer impureza". Esta frase se refiere a "cometer adulterio".

serás libre del agua amarga
La frase "ser libre" de algo significa no ser dañado por ello. Traducción alterna: "esta agua amarga no te hará daño, aunque es capaz de hacerlo"

agua amarga que puede traerte una maldición Aquí el agua amarga se describe como poder traer una maldición. Esto significa que cuando la mujer bebe el agua, puede ser incapaz de tener hijos, si es culpable. Traducción alterna: "esta agua amarga puede ser una maldición para ti"

Numbers 5:20

bajo su esposo
Esta frase significa que ella está bajo la autoridad de su esposo. Traducción alterna: "bajo la autoridad de su marido"

te has descarriado
Las palabras "has descarriado" es un idioma que significa "ser infiel". Traducción alterna: "le he sido infiel a tu marido"

estás sucia
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "te has contaminado" que traerá una maldición sobre ella,

La frase "derribar una maldición" es una expresión idiomática que significa que una maldición vendrá sobre ella. Traducción alterna: "eso puede causar que una maldición caiga sobre ella"

El SEÑOR traerá maldición sobre ti ... al pueblo como tal Aquí el autor habla sobre la mujer que lleva la maldición que El Señor le da, lo que hace que otras personas la maldigan. Se habla de esto como si la mujer misma se convirtiera en una maldición. Traducción alterna: "Debido a que El Señor te maldice, otras personas también te maldecirán, y El Señor les mostrará a las personas que estás verdaderamente maldecido que será mostrada al pueblo como tal Esto puede ser expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que él mostrará a tu gente como una maldición" que tu abdomen se hinche y tú vientre sea un desperdicio Los posibles significados son 1) que la mujer no podrá tener hijos o 2) que el embarazo de la mujer terminará demasiado pronto y que el bebé morirá.

tú vientre sea un desperdicio Aquí, la palabra "vientre" es una forma educada de referirse al útero de la mujer o sus partes privadas. Traducción alterna: "Tu vientre de ser inútil"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 5:23

el debe lavar las maldiciones escritas
Esto significa que él debe lavar la tinta del pergamino.

las maldiciones escritas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "las maldiciones que ha escrito"

Numbers 5:24

Información general:
En estos versículos el orden de los eventos es algo confuso, está escrito de esta manera para enfatizar cómo el agua trae la maldición. Parece que la mujer bebe el agua, el sacerdote quema la ofrenda y luego la mujer vuelve a beber el agua. Ella solo bebe el agua una vez, como queda claro en la traducción UDB.

El sacerdote deberá hacer que la mujer beba ... maldición entrará en ella y se amargará.
Puede ser útil reordenar la información en estos versículos al colocar el versículo 24, que brinda información sobre la mujer que está bebiendo el agua, después del versículo 26. La UDB traduce estos versículos de una manera similar.

una oferta representativa
El puñado de la ofrenda de grano representa la ofrenda de grano entero. Esto significa que toda la ofrenda pertenece a El Señor.

ofrenda de grano por celos
"Una ofrenda de grano para los celos". Ver como se ha traducido esto en 5:15.

Numbers 5:27

si ella está sucia por que ha cometido
Esto puede ser escrito en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "si ella se ha definido cometiendo".

ha cometido un pecado
Aquí el "pecado" se refiere específicamente a cometer adulterio. El significado de esta declaración es aclarar. Traducción alterna: "cometió adulterio"

Su abdomen se hinchará y su vientre será un desperdicio
Los posibles significados son 1) que la mujer no podrá tener hijos o 2) que el embarazo de la mujer terminará demasiado pronto y que el bebé morirá. Aquí, la palabra "muslo" es una forma educada de referirse al útero de la mujer o sus partes privadas.

a mujer será maldita entre su pueblo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Su gente la maldecirá"

no está sucia
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "no se ha contaminado"

si está limpia
Aquí se habla de "ser inocente" como "ser limpio".

entonces será libre Los posibles significados son 1) "entonces ella no será maldita" o 2) "entonces está libre de culpa".

capaz de dar hijos
"quedar embarazada"

Numbers 5:29

la ley de los celos
"La ley para tratar con los celos".

mujer que se aleja de su esposo
Las palabras "se aleja" es un idioma que significa "ser infiel". Traducción alterna: "quien le es infiel a su esposo"

y se ensucia
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "y se contamina"

espíritu de celos
Esta frase se refiere a la actitud del hombre y las emociones de los celos. Ver cómo se ha traducido esto en 5:13. Traducción alterna: "quien es celoso"

cuando el está celoso de su esposa Este es un idioma que significa que sospecha que su esposa le ha sido infiel al acostarse con otro hombre. Traducción alterna: "y sospecha que su esposa le ha sido infiel" o "y sospecha que su esposa se ha acostado con otro hombre"

ante El SEÑOR
"en presencia del Señor"

Numbers 5:31

será libre de culpa por traer a su esposa al sacerdote
"no será culpable de hacer algo mal al traer a su esposa al sacerdote"

debe soportar
"debe soportar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 El SEÑOR hablo a Moisés. Él dijo: 2 "Habla al pueblo de Israel. Diles: "cuando un hombre o mujer se dedique al SEÑOR por un voto especial de Nazareo, 3 él debe abstenerse de vino y bebida fermentada. No debe beber vinagre de vino o de bebida fermentada. Él no deben beber jugo de uva o comer uvas o pasas frescas. 4 En todos los días que esté dedicado a Mí, no debe comer nada hecho con uvas, incluyendo cualquier cosa hecha desde la semilla hasta la piel de la uva. 5 Durante todo el tiempo de su voto de dedicación, no se cortará el cabello de su cabeza hasta que los días de su dedicación al SEÑOR sean cumplidos. Debe apartarse para El SEÑOR. Deberá dejar crecer su cabello sobre su cabeza. 6 Durante todo el tiempo que se dedique a El SEÑOR, no debe estar cerca de muerto alguno. 7 No debe contaminarse, ni por su padre, madre, hermano o hermana, si mueren. Esto es por que él está dedicado a Dios, como todos lo ven por su cabello largo. 8 Durante todo el tiempo de su dedicación él es santo, reservado para EL SEÑOR. 9 Si alguien repentinamente muere a su lado y contamina su cabeza consagrada, entonces tendrá que rapar su cabeza en el día de su purificación - en el día séptimo deberá raparse. 10 En el octavo día, deberá traer dos tórtolas o dos pichones de paloma al sacerdote en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 11 El sacerdote deberá ofrecer un ave como ofrenda por pecado y el otro como ofrenda quemada. Esto pagará su pecado por estar cerca de un cuerpo muerto. Deberá consagrar su cabeza otra vez en ese día. 12 Él deberá apartarse para EL SEÑOR por los días de su dedicación. Deberá traer un cabrito macho de un año de edad como ofrenda por la culpa. Los días antes no se contarán, porque su dedicación fue contaminada. 13 Esta es la ley del Nazareo para cuando los días de su dedicación se cumplan. Deberá ser llevado a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 14 Deberá presentar su ofrenda a EL SEÑOR. Deberá ofrecer como ofrenda quemada un cordero de un año de edad sin defecto. Deberá traer como ofrenda de pecado una corderita de un año de edad sin defecto. Deberá traer un carnero como ofrenda de paz sin defecto. 15 También deberá traer una canasta de pan sin levadura, panes de buena harina fina amasada con aceite, pedazos de pan sin levadura con aceite, junto con su ofrenda de grano y su ofrenda de bebida. 16 El sacerdote deberá presentarlas ante EL SEÑOR. Deberá ofrecer sus ofrendas por el pecado y ofrendas quemadas. 17 Con la canasta de panes sin levadura, debe presentar el carnero como sacrificio, la ofrenda de paz al SEÑOR. El sacerdote deberá presentar también la ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida. 18 El Nazareo deberá rapar su cabeza indicando la separación para Dios a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. Deberá tomar el cabello de su cabeza y la pondrá en el fuego que está debajo del sacrificio de la ofrenda de paz. 19 El sacerdote deberá tomar la espaldilla hervida del carnero, un pedazo de pan sin levadura de la canasta, y un pedacito de pan sin levadura. Deberá colocarlos en las manos del Nazareo después de que haya rapado su cabeza indicando la separación. 20 El sacerdote debe mecerlas como una ofrenda ante EL SEÑOR. Una porción sagrada para el sacerdote, junto con el pecho que fue mecido y el muslo que fue presentado para el sacerdote. Después de todo esto, el Nazareo puede tomar vino. 21 Esta es la ley del Nazareo que hace voto de ofrenda al SEÑOR por su separación. Cualquiera otra cosa que él dé, debe mantener la obligación del voto que ha hecho, para mantener la promesa indicada por la ley del Nazareo.'" 22 Otra vez El SEÑOR hablo a Moisés. Él dijo: 23 "Habla a Aarón y sus hijos y diles: 'Ustedes deben bendecir de esta manera al pueblo de Israel. Ustedes deben decirles: 24 "Que EL SEÑOR te bendiga y te guarde. 25 Que El SEÑOR haga brillar su luz sobre ustedes, y sea su gracia sobre ustedes. 26 Que El SEÑOR te vea favorable y te de paz." 27 "Es de esta manera que ellos deben pronunciar mi nombre al pueblo de Israel. Entonces Yo los bendeciré."

Numbers 6:1

se dedique ... el esté dedicado
"Separarse de alguien" significa "dedicarse" a esa persona. Traducción alterna: "se dedica ... se dedica" él debe abstenerse de Esta expresión significa que no debe comerlos ni beberlos. Traducción alterna: "no debe consumir"

vinagre de vino
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "vinagre que la gente hace del vino"

vinagre
Una bebida que se produce cuando el vino y otras bebidas fuertes fermentan durante demasiado tiempo y se vuelven agrias.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

o de bebida fuerte.
Puede aclarar la información entendida. Traducción alterna: "o vinagre que las personas hacen de bebida fuerte''

Pasas
"pasas de uva"

que el esté dedicado a M Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se separa a mí"

nada hecho por uvas Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nada que la gente haga de las uvas"

desde la semilla hasta la piel
Estos dos extremos se dan para enfatizar que no se puede comer toda la uva. Traducción alterna: "de cualquier parte de una uva"

Numbers 6:5

voto de dedicación
Este es una expresión idiomática. Aquí "dedicación" significa "separación" Traducción alterna: "voto de separación"

no se cortará el cabello de su cabeza
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "nadie debe usar una navaja en su cabeza"

Los días de su dedicación a Jehová.
La palabra "dedicación" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar como un verbo.. Traducción alterna: "los días que se ha separado para el señor" o "los días que se ha dedicado a El Señor"

a El Señor se cumplen Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "a El Señor están completos"

Él debe ser apartado a El Señor Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Él debe apartarse a El Señor"

Numbers 6:6

dedica ... dedica ... dedicación Aquí "dedicación" significa "separación". Traducción alterna: "separa... separa... separación"

ensuciarse
Se habla de una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios como si fuera físicamente impura.

él está dedicado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se ha dedicado" '' se ha separado''

de su dedicación
El sustantivo abstracto "dedicación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "que se ha dedicado" ''que se ha separado''

reservado para El Señor Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se ha reservado para El Señor" o "apartado para El Señor"

Numbers 6:9

ensucia su cabeza consagrada
Aquí la "cabeza" representa el cabello del hombre nazareo, que simboliza su voto. Traducción alterna: "profana su cabello largo que muestra a todos que está separado de Dios" o "se contaminó"

en el día de su purificación El sustantivo abstracto "purificación" se puede establecer como la frase verbal. Traducción alterna: "el día en que se haga aceptable a Dios"

el día séptimo
"el séptimo día"

Numbers 6:10

el octavo día
"el octavo día"

Numbers 6:12

por los días de su dedicación
"Durante el tiempo que está siendo apartado de nuevo"

Él deberá traer un cabrito macho ... como ofrenda de culpa.
El hombre debe traer el cordero al sacerdote para que pueda ser sacrificado. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción alterna: "Debe traer un cordero de un año de edad al sacerdote como ofrenda de culpa"

Los días antes de su suciedad no se contarán Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "No debe contar los días antes de profanarse"

su dedicación fue corrompida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "se profanó" o "se hizo inaceptable"

Numbers 6:13

de su dedicación
Aquí "dedicación" significa "separación". Además, este sustantivo abstracto se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "que se ha dedicado".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

deberá ser llevado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "Alguien debe traerlo" o "Él debe ir"

Él debe presentar su ofrenda a El Señor.
Él debe traer su ofrenda al sacerdote para ser sacrificado a El Señor. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción alterna: "Debe presentar su ofrenda a El Señor llevándola al sacerdote para que la sacrifique" o "Debe presentar su ofrenda a El Señor llevándola al sacerdote que la sacrificará"

pan sin levadura
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "pan que hizo sin levadura" harina fina buena mezclada con aceite Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que él mezcló con aceite"

pedazos de pan sin levadura con aceite Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "obleas sin levadura que frotó con aceite"

pan sin levadura
pequeños trozos de pan plano

junto con su ofrenda de grano y su ofrenda de bebida
La palabra "su" se refiere a las otras ofrendas que se le dijo al hombre nazareno que trajera. A menudo se requerían ofrendas de granos y ofrendas de bebidas para acompañar otros tipos de sacrificios. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida que El Señor requirió para acompañar las otras ofrendas"

Numbers 6:16

Él deberá ofrecer sus ofrendas de pecado.
"Él" se refiere al sacerdote y "sus" se refiere al hombre que hizo una promesa.

la ofrenda de paz
"como la ofrenda de paz"

El sacerdote deberá presentar también ... ofrenda de bebida Puede aclarar la información entendida. Traducción alterna: "El sacerdote debe presentar también ... la ofrenda de bebida a El Señor"

Numbers 6:18

indicando lu separación
Aquí "separación" significa "dedicación". Además, este sustantivo abstracto puede ser escrito como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "indicando su dedicación" o "indicando cómo se ha separado"

Numbers 6:19

el hombro hervido del carnero
Esto significa que había hervido el hombro del carnero. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "El hombro del carnero que hirvió".

indicando separación
Aquí "separación" significa "dedicación". Además, este sustantivo abstracto se puede expresar con el verbo "separado". Traducción alterna: "indicando dedicación" o "indicando que se ha dedicado a El Señor"

El sacerdote debe mecerlas
Después de entregar los artículos al nazareo, el sacerdote los devuelve para ofrecérselos a El Señor. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción alterna: "Entonces el sacerdote debe recuperarlos y agitarlos"

Juntas con
"tanto como"

fue mecido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que el sacerdote agitó" que fue presentado

Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "que él presentó"

Numbers 6:21

su separación

- Aquí "separación" significa "dedicación". Además, este sustantivo abstracto puede ser escrito como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "su dedicación" o "por haberse dedicado a Yahvé"

Cualquiera otra cosa que él dé Esto se refiere a que el nazareo decide dar otra ofrenda más allá de lo que se le ha ordenado dar. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción alterna: "Si decide dar alguna ofrenda adicional"

él debe mantener la obligación del voto que ha hecho
"Él todavía debe obedecer los requisitos del voto que ha tomado".

debe cumplir con las obligaciones ... para mantener la promesa indicada por la ley del Nazareo Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para enfatizar que debe obedecer las obligaciones de su voto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

La promesa indicada por la ley del nazareno.
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "la promesa que indica la ley para los naziritas"

Numbers 6:22

deben bendecir de esta manera al pueblo de Israel
"Tú" es plural.

Que el Señor te bendiga y te guarde.
Aquí "tú" es singular.

te guarde
Este es un idioma. Aquí "guardar" significa "proteger".

Numbers 6:25

haga brillar su luz sobre ustedes Este es un idioma que significa tener buenas intenciones hacia alguien. También se puede expresar con una sonrisa. Traducción alterna: "sonríale" (UDB) o "mírale con amabilidad"

te vea favorable
Aquí la frase "mirar" significa mostrar cierta actitud hacia esa persona. Traducción alterna: "mostrarte favor"

Que El SEÑOR haga brillar su luz sobre ustedes ... y te dé paz.
Aquí "tú" es singular.

deben dar mi nombre
Aquí El Señor habla acerca de reclamar a los israelitas como suyos diciendo que les está dando "su nombre". Traducción alterna: "deben hacer saber al pueblo de Israel que son míos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 En el día que Moisés completó la tienda de reunión, la ungió con aceite y la apartó para El SEÑOR, junto con todos sus muebles. Hizo lo mismo para el altar y todos sus utensilios. Los ungió con aceite y lo apartó para El SEÑOR. 2 En ese día, los jefes de Israel, las cabezas de sus familias de sus antepasados, ofrecieron sacrificios. Estos hombres dirigian a las tribus. Ellos dirigieron las cuentas de los hombres en los censos. 3 Trajeron sus ofrendas ante El SEÑOR. Trajeron seis carros cubiertos y doce bueyes. Trajeron una carreta por cada dos jefes, y cada jefe trajo un buey. Presentaron estas cosas frente a la tienda de reunión. 4 Después El SEÑOR habló a Moisés. El dijo: 5 "acepta las ofrendas de ellos y usa las ofrendas para el trabajo en la tienda de reunión. Da las ofrendas a los Levitas, a cada uno según su trabajo lo requiera." 6 Moisés tomo las carretas y los bueyes, y los dio a los Levitas. 7 Dio dos carretas y cuatro bueyes a la descendencia de Gersón, por lo que el trabajo necesitaba. 8 Dio cuatro carretas y ocho buyes a la descendencia de Merari, al cuidado de Itamar hijo de Aarón el sacerdote. Hizo esto por qué el trabajo de ellos lo requería. 9 Pero no dio nada de esas cosas a la descendencia de Coat, por que el trabajo de ellos relacionado a las cosas que le pertenecen al SEÑOR debian cargarlo en sus propios hombros. 10 Los jefes ofrecieron sus bienes para la dedicación del altar en el día que Moisés ungió el altar. Los jefes ofrecieron sus sacrificios frente del altar. 11 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "cada jefe deberá ofrecer en su propio día su sacrificio para la dedicación del altar." 12 En el primer día, Naasón hijo de Aminadab, de la tribu de Judá, ofreció su sacrificio. 13 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata pesando 130 siclos y un tazón de plata pesando setenta siclos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos de los objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 14 El dio un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 15 Dio como ofrenda quemada un toro joven, un carnero, y una cordero de un año de edad. 16 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 17 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Naasón hijo de Aminadab. 18 En el segundo día, Natanael hijo de Zuar, jefe de Isacar, ofreció su sacrificio. 19 Ofreció como su sacrificio una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos de los objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 20 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 21 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 22 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 23 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Natanael hijo de Zuar. 24 En el tercer día, Eliab hijo de Helón, jefe de la tribu de Zebulón, ofreció su sacrificio. 25 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos de los objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 26 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 27 El dio como ofrenda quemada un toro joven, un carnero, y una cordero de un año de edad. 28 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 29 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Eliab hijo de Helón. 30 En el cuarto día, Elisur hijo de Sedeur, jefe de la tribu de Rubén, ofreció su sacrificio. 31 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 32 Tambien dio un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 33 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 34 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 35 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Elisur hijo de Sedeur. 36 En el quinto día, Selumiel hijo de Zurisadai, jefe de la tribu de Simeón, ofreció su sacrificio. 37 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 38 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 39 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 40 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 41 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Elisur hijo de Sedeur. 42 En el día sexto, Eliasaf hijo de Deuel, jefe de la tribu de Gad, ofreció su sacrificio. 43 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 44 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 45 Dio como ofrenda

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 46 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 47 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Eliasaf hijo de Deuel. 48 En el séptimo día, Elisama hijo de Amiud, jefe de la tribu de Efraín, ofreció su sacrificio. 49 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 50 Tambien dio un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 51 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 52 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 53 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Elisama hijo de Amiud. 54 En el octavo día, Gamaliel hijo de Pedasur, jefe de la tribu de Manasés, ofreció su sacrificio. 55 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 56 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 57 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 58 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 59 El dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Gamaliel hijo de Pedasur. 60 En el noveno día, Abidán hijo de Gedeoni, jefe de la tribu de Benjamín, ofreció su sacrificio. 61 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 62 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 63 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 64 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 65 El dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Abidán hijo de Gedeoni. 66 En el décimo día, Ahiezer hijo de Amisadai, jefe de la tribu de Dan, ofreció su sacrificio. 67 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 68 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 69 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 70 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda por el pecado. 71 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Ahiezer hijo de Amisadai. 72 En el onceavo día, Pagiel hijo de Ocrán, jefe de la tribu de Aser, ofreció su sacrificio. 73 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 74 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 75 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 76 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda de pecado. 77 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Pagiel hijo de Ocrán. 78 En el doceavo día, Ahira hijo de Enán, jefe de la tribu de Neftalí, ofreció su sacrificio. 79 Su sacrificio fue una fuente de plata de 1. 48 kilos y un tazón de plata de 798 gramos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. Ambos objetos estaban llenos de flor de harina amasada con aceite como ofrenda de grano. 80 Tambien dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso, lleno de incienso. 81 Dio como ofrenda quemada un becerro, un carnero, y un cordero de un año de edad. 82 Dio un cabrito como ofrenda de pecado. 83 Dio dos yuntas, cinco carneros, cinco cabritos, y cinco corderos que fueran de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Éste fue el sacrificio de Ahira hijo de Enán. 84 Los jefes de Israel colocaron estás cosas aparte en el día que Moisés bendijo el altar. Colocaron aparte las doce fuentes de plata, doce tazones de plata y doce recipientes de oro. 85 Cada fuente de plata pesaba 1. 48 kilos y cada tazón de plata 798 gramos. Todos los recipientes de plata pesaron 27. 4 kilos, conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario. 86 Cada uno de los doce recipientes de oro, llenos de incienso, pesaron 114 gramos de acuerdo al peso del siclo en el santuario. Todos los utencilios de oro pesaron 1. 4 kilos. 87 Colocaron aparte a todos los animales para la ofrenda quemada, doce becerros, doce carneros, y doce corderos de un año de edad. Dieron sus ofrendas de grano. Dieron doce cabritos como ofrenda por el pecado. 88 De todo su ganado, dieron veinticuatro becerros, sesenta carneros, sesenta cabrios, y sesenta corderos de un año de edad, como sacrificio de ofrenda de paz. Esto fue por la dedicación del altar despues de ser bendecido. 89 Cuando Moisés se adentro a la tienda de reunión para hablar con El SEÑOR, el escuchó su voz hablándole. El SEÑOR le habló del propiciatorio sobre el arca del testimonio, de entre los dos querubines. Le habló.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 7:1

Moisés completó el tabernáculo
"Moisés terminó de colocar el tabernáculo"

Los líderes de Israel ... las cabezas de sus familias ancestrales.
Estas dos frases describen al mismo grupo de personas de dos maneras diferentes. Traducción alterna: "los líderes de Israel que también son los jefes de las familias de sus antepasados"

las cabezas de sus familias ancestrales Aquí a los líderes de las familias se les llama "jefes". Traducción alterna: "los líderes de las familias de sus antepasados"

dirigieron las cuentas de los hombres
El sustantivo abstracto "contar" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción alterna: "había ayudado a Aarón y a Moisés a contar a los hombres"

Ellos trajeron sus ofrendas ante El SEÑOR ... presentaron estas cosas enfrente del tabernáculo Esto significa que dieron sus ofrendas a El Señor y las llevaron al tabernáculo. Estas frases pueden combinarse para agregar claridad. Traducción alterna: "Ellos trajeron sus ofrendas a El Señor y se las presetaron ante el tabernáculo"

seis carros cubiertos y doce bueye
"6 carros cubiertos y 12 bueyes"

Numbers 7:4

a cada uno según su trabajo lo requiera
"A cada hombre como los necesite para su trabajo".

Numbers 7:6

por lo que el trabajo necesitaba
"Porque era lo que necesitaban para hacer su trabajo".

al cuidado de Itamar hijo de Aarón el sacerdote
"bajo la supervisión de Itamar, hijo de Aarón, el sacerdote" o "Itamar, hijo de Aarón, el sacerdote supervisó su trabajo"

Itamar
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3: 1.

Él hizo esto porque
La palabra "él" se refiere a Moisés.

por qué el trabajo de ellos lo requería
"Porque era lo que necesitaban para hacer su trabajo".

Numbers 7:9

nada de esas cosas
Esto se refiere a los carros y bueyes.

el suyo seria el trabajo
"su trabajo sería"

las cosas que le pertenecen al SEÑOR
Puedes hacer explícito el significado implícito de lo que le pertenece a El Señor. Traducción alterna: "las cosas que El Señor reservó para el tabernáculo"

Numbers 7:10

ofrecieron sus recursos
"regalos ofrecidos"

cada líder deberá ofrecer en su propio día su sacrificio
"Cada día, un líder debe ofrecer su sacrificio"

Numbers 7:12

el primer día
"el 1er día" o "día 1"

una fuente de plata pesando 130 siclos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata pesando setenta siclos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

por el peso estándar del santuario siclo
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Si está convirtiendo los pesos a medidas modernas, aquí hay otra forma de traducir esta frase. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

flor de Harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

El dio un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción alterna: "un recipiente de oro que pesaba una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesaba 110 gramos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 7:15

de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Éste fue el sacrificio de Naasón hijo de Aminadab
"Esto fue lo que presentó Naason, hijo de Aminadab"

Naasón hijo de Aminadab
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1: 7.

Numbers 7:18

El segundo día
"el segundo día" o "día 2"

sacrificio una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducidos estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

Numbers 7:20

un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

que fueran de un año de edad,
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Natanael hijo de Zuar.
"Esto fue lo que presentó Natanael hijo de Zuar"

Numbers 7:24

el tercer día
"el 3er día" o "día 3"

Eliab hijo de Helón
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1: 7.

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:27

de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Éste fue el sacrificio de Eliab hijo de Helón
"Esto fue lo que Eliab, hijo de Helón, dio como sacrificio".

Numbers 7:30

el cuarto dia
"El cuarto día" o "Día 4"

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se ha traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:33

que tenían un año
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Elizur hijo de Shedeur.
"Esto fue lo que Elisur hijo de Sedeur dio como sacrificio"

Numbers 7:36

el quinto día
"el quinto día" o "día 5"

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

dio un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:39

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Elisur, hijo de Sedur.
"Esto fue lo que Elisur, hijo de Sedeur, dio como sacrificio"

Numbers 7:42

el sexto dia
"el sexto día" o "día 6"

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas.Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:45

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Eliasaf hijo de Deuel.
"Esto fue lo que Eliasaf hijo de Deuel dio como sacrificio"

Numbers 7:48

el séptimo día
"el séptimo día" o "día 7"

fue una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:51

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Elisama, hijo de Amiud.
"Esto fue lo que Elisama hijo de Amiud presentó"

Numbers 7:54

el octavo día
"el octavo día" o "día 8

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:57

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Gamaliel hijo de Pedasur.
"Esto fue lo que Gamaliel, hijo de Pedasur, dio como sacrificio"

Numbers 7:60

el noveno día
"el noveno día" o "día 9"

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

un resipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:63

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Abidan hijo de Gedeoni.
"Esto fue lo que Abidan, hijo de Gideoni, dio como sacrificio".

Numbers 7:66

el décimo día
"el décimo día" o "día 10"

Ahiezer hijo de Amisaddai
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

una fuente de plata de 1.48 kilos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata de 798 gramos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

conforme al peso del siclo en el santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

un recipiente de oro de 114 gramos en peso
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:69

que fueran de un año de edad
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Ahiezer hijo de Amisadai.
"Esto fue lo que Ahiezer, hijo de Amisadai, dio como sacrificio"

Numbers 7:72

el undécimo día
"el día 11" o "día 11"

Pagiel hijo de Ocran
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

una bandeja de plata que pesa 130 siclos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata que pesa setenta siclos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

por el peso estándar del santuario siclo
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina fina mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un plato de oro que pesa diez siclos
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:75

que tenían un año
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Pagiel hijo de Ochran.
"Esto fue lo que Pagiel hijo de Ocran dio como sacrificio"

Pagiel hijo de Ocran
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

Numbers 7:78

el duodécimo día
"el día 12" o "día 12"

Ahira hijo de Enan
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

una bandeja de plata que pesa 130 siclos
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "una bandeja de plata que pesa casi un kilogramo y medio" o "una bandeja de plata que pesa un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

un tazón de plata que pesa setenta siclos
"Un cuenco de plata que pesa 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un tazón de plata que pesa casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "un tazón de plata que pesa 770 gramos"

por el peso estándar del santuario siclo
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

harina fina mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "harina fina que había mezclado con aceite".

un plato de oro que pesa diez siclos
Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "un plato de oro que pesa una décima de kilogramo" o "un plato de oro que pesa 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:81

que tenían un año
"que eran cada uno de un año"

Este fue el sacrificio de Ahira hijo de Enan.
"Esto fue lo que Ahira, hijo de Enan, dio como sacrificio".

Ahira hijo de Enan
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12.

Numbers 7:84

establece todos estos aparte
La frase "apartar" significa estar dedicado a un propósito específico. En este caso, las ofrendas fueron dedicadas a Yahvé.

El día que Moisés ungió el altar.
Aquí la palabra "día" se refiere a un período general de tiempo. Los líderes de Israel dedicaron estas cosas a lo largo de 12 días. Traducción alterna: "cuando Moisés ungió el altar"

Cada bandeja de plata pesaba 130 siclos.
Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "cada bandeja de plata pesaba casi un kilogramo y medio" o "cada bandeja de plata pesaba un kilogramo y 430 gramos"

cada tazón pesaba setenta siclos
"Cada tazón pesaba 70 siclos". Si es necesario, estos pesos se pueden escribir en medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido este mismo peso en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "cada tazón pesaba casi ocho décimas de kilogramo" o "cada tazón pesaba 770 gramos"

por el peso estándar del santuario siclo
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "medido por los pesos estándar utilizados en el santuario"

Todas las vasijas de plata pesaron ... Todos los platos de oro pesaron "Todos los recipientes de plata pesaron juntos ... Todos los platos de oro pesaron juntos"

los vasos de plata
Esto se refiere a todas las ofrendas que fueron hechas de plata, tanto las fuentes como los tazones.

Cada uno de los doce platos de oro ... pesaba diez siclos.
"Cada uno de los 12 platos de oro ... pesaba 10 siclos". Si es necesario, esto se puede escribir en

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

medidas modernas. Ver como se han traducido estos mismos pesos en 7:12. Traducción alterna: "Cada uno de los 12 platos de oro ... pesaba una décima de kilogramo" o "Cada uno de los 12 platos de oro ... pesaba 110 gramos"

Numbers 7:87

doce ... veinticuatro ... sesenta cuatro ... sesenta - "12 ... 24 ... 60." Estos números se pueden escribir con números en lugar de con palabras.

un año de edad
"que tenían un año de edad"

después de que fue ungido Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción alterna: "después de que Moisés lo había ungido"

Numbers 7:89

escuchó su voz hablándole
Aquí "su voz" se refiere a El Señor. Traducción alterna: "escuchó a Jehová que le hablaba" desde arriba de la tapa de la expiación ... de entre los dos querubines Estas dos frases describen la misma ubicación.

arca del pacto
Traduce esta frase de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 4: 5.

Le habló
"El Señor habló a Moisés"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 2 "Háblale a Aarón. Dile a él: 'Las siete lámparas alumbrarán al frente del candelabro cuando lo enciendas.'" 3 Aarón hizo esto. Encendió las lámparas del candelabro para dar luz frente al candelabro, como EL SEÑOR le ordenó a Moisés. 4 El candelabro estaba hecho de esta forma y EL SEÑOR le mostró a Moisés el modelo. Era para hacerlo de oro martillado desde su base hasta su tope, con copas martilladas como flores. 5 Otra vez, EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 6 "Toma a los levitas de entre la gente de Israel y purifícalos. 7 Haz esto para purificarlos: rocía agua de la expiación sobre ellos. Haz que ellos se afeiten el cuerpo entero, laven sus ropas, y de esta manera quedarán purificados. 8 Entonces, haz que tomen un becerro y su ofrenda de grano de harina fina amasada con aceite. Deja que tomen otro becerro como ofrenda por el pecado. 9 Tú traerás a los levitas al frente de la tienda de reunión y convocarás a toda la congregación de la gente de Israel. 10 Cuando traigas a los levitas ante EL SEÑOR, la gente de Israel debe poner sus manos sobre los levitas. 11 Aarón debe ofrecer a los levitas ante EL SEÑOR, como una ofrenda mecida de la gente de Israel, para que ellos puedan hacer el servicio al SEÑOR. 12 Los levitas deben poner sus manos sobre las cabezas de los becerros. Tú debes ofrecer un becerro como una ofrenda por el pecado y otro becerro como una ofrenda quemada a Mí, para expiar a los levitas. 13 Presenta a los levitas ante Aarón y ante sus hijos, y levántalos como una ofrenda mecida a Mí. 14 De esta manera debes separar a los levitas de entre la gente de Israel. Los levitas me pertenecerán a Mí. 15 Luego de esto, los levitas deben ir a servir en la tienda de reunión. Debes purificarlos. Debes ofrecerlos como una ofrenda mecida. 16 Haz esto, porque son completamente míos de entre la gente de Israel. Ellos ocuparán el lugar de cada niño varón que abra el vientre, el primógenito de todos los descendientes de Israel. Yo he tomado a los levitas para Mí. 17 Todos los primógenitos nacidos entre la gente de Israel son míos, tanto de la gente como de los animales. En el día que Yo tomé las vidas de todos los primógenitos en la tierra de Egipto, Yo los separé para Mí. 18 Yo he tomado a los levitas de entre la gente de Israel, en lugar de todos los primógenitos. 19 Yo he dado a los levitas como regalo a Aarón y a sus hijos. Yo los he tomado a ellos de entre la gente de Israel para hacer el trabajo de la gente de Israel en la tienda de reunión. Yo los he dado a ellos para expiar la gente de Israel para que ninguna plaga lastime a la gente cuando se acerquen a lugar santo. 20 Moisés, Aarón, y toda la comunidad de la gente de Israel hizo esto con los levitas. Hicieron todo lo que EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés acerca de los levitas. La gente de Israel hizo esto con ellos. 21 Los levitas quedaron purificados y lavaron sus ropas, y Aarón los presentó como una ofrenda mecida al SEÑOR e hizo expiación por ellos para limpiarlos. 22 Luego de eso, los levitas fueron a hacer su servicio en la tienda de reunión ante Aarón y ante los hijos de Aarón. Esto fue como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés acerca de los levitas. Trataron a todos los levitas de esta manera. 23 El SEÑOR le habló otra vez a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 24 "Todo esto es para los levitas que son de veinticinco años o más. Deben unirse para servir en la tienda de reunión. 25 Deben dejar de servir en esta manera a la edad de los cincuenta años. A esa edad ellos ya no deben servir. 26 Pueden ayudar a sus hermanos que continuan trabajando en la tienda de reunión, pero ellos ya no deben servir. Tú debes dirigir a los levitas en todos estos asuntos."

Numbers 8:1

debe dar luz al frente
"debe brillar hacia el frente"

Numbers 8:3

dar luz
"brillar"

El candelero fue hecho Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Habían hecho el candelero" con copas martilladas como flores

Se les ordenó que formaran las copas martilladas de modo que se parecieran a flores de flores. AT: "con copas martilladas que se asemejan a flores de flor"

Numbers 8:5

Levita levi
Leví fue uno de los doce hijos de Jacob, o Israel. El término "levita" se refiere a una persona que es miembro de la tribu israelita cuyo antepasado fue Levi. Los levitas eran responsables de cuidar el templo y realizar rituales religiosos, incluso ofrecer sacrificios y oraciones. Todos los sacerdotes judíos eran levitas, descendientes de Levi y parte de la

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tribu de Levi. (Sin embargo, no todos los levitas eran sacerdotes). Los sacerdotes levitas fueron apartados y dedicados a la obra especial de servir a Dios en el templo. Otros dos hombres llamados "Levi" eran ancestros de Jesús y sus nombres están en la genealogía en el evangelio de Lucas. El discípulo de Jesús, Mateo también fue llamado Leví.

Grupo de personas, pueblos, las personas, un pueblo.
El término "pueblos" o "grupos de personas" se refiere a grupos de personas que comparten una lengua y cultura comunes. La frase "la gente" a menudo se refiere a una reunión de personas en un lugar determinado o en un evento específico. Cuando Dios separa a "un pueblo" para sí mismo, significa que escogió a ciertas personas para que le pertenezcan y le sirvan. En los tiempos bíblicos, los miembros de un grupo de personas generalmente tenían los mismos antepasados y vivían juntos en un país o área de tierra en particular. Dependiendo del contexto, una frase como "su gente" puede significar "su grupo de personas" o "su familia" o "sus familiares". El término "pueblos" se usa a menudo para referirse a todos los grupos de personas en la tierra. A veces se refiere más específicamente a personas que no son israelitas o que no sirven a Yahweh. En algunas traducciones de la Biblia en inglés, el término "naciones" también se usa de esta manera. Sugerencias de traducción

El término "grupo de personas" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que significa "grupo familiar numeroso" o "clan" o "grupo étnico". Una frase como "mi gente" podría traducirse como "mis parientes" o "mis compatriotas israelitas" o "mi familia" o "mi grupo de personas", según el contexto. La expresión "dispersarte entre los pueblos" también podría traducirse como "hacer que vayas a vivir con muchos grupos diferentes de personas" o "hacer que te separes unos de otros e ir a vivir a muchas regiones diferentes del mundo". El término "los pueblos" o "las personas" también podría traducirse como "las personas en el mundo" o "grupos de personas", según el contexto. La frase "las personas de" podría traducirse como "las personas que viven en" o "las personas que descienden de" o "la familia de" dependiendo de si va seguida del nombre de un lugar o de una persona. "Todos los pueblos de la tierra" podrían traducirse como "todos los que viven en la tierra" o "cada persona en el mundo" o "todas las personas". La frase "un pueblo" también podría traducirse como "un grupo de personas" o "ciertas personas" o "una comunidad de personas" o "una familia de personas".

Israel, Israelitas, nación de Israel.
El término "Israel" es el nombre que Dios le dio a Jacob. Significa, "él lucha con Dios". Los descendientes de Jacob fueron conocidos como el "pueblo de Israel", la "nación de Israel" o los "israelitas". Dios formó su pacto con el pueblo de Israel. Eran su pueblo elegido. La nación de Israel estaba formada por doce tribus. Poco después de la muerte del rey Salomón, Israel fue dividido en dos reinos: el reino del sur, llamado "Judá" y el reino del norte, llamado "Israel". A menudo, el término "Israel" se puede traducir como "el pueblo de Israel" o "la nación de Israel", según el contexto.

puro purificar purificar
Ser "puro" significa no tener defectos o no tener nada mezclado, ya que se supone que no está allí. Purificar algo es limpiarlo y eliminar todo lo que lo contamine o contamine. Con respecto a las leyes del Antiguo Testamento, "purificar" y "purificar" se refieren principalmente a la limpieza de las cosas que hacen que un objeto o una persona sea ritualmente impuro, como las enfermedades, los fluidos corporales o el parto. El Antiguo Testamento también tenía leyes que decían a las personas cómo ser purificadas del pecado, generalmente mediante el sacrificio de un animal. Esto fue solo temporal y los sacrificios tuvieron que repetirse una y otra vez. En el Nuevo Testamento, ser purificado a menudo se refiere a ser limpiado del pecado. La única manera en que las personas pueden purificarse completa y permanentemente del pecado es a través del arrepentimiento y la recepción del perdón de Dios, a través de la confianza en Jesús y su sacrificio. Sugerencias de traducción

El término "purificar" se podría traducir como "purificar" o "limpiar" o "limpiar de toda contaminación" o "deshacerse de todo pecado". Una frase como "cuando se terminó el tiempo de su purificación" se podría traducir como "cuando se hayan purificado a sí mismos esperando el número de días requerido". La frase, "proveyó la purificación de los pecados", podría traducirse como "proveyó una manera para que las personas sean completamente limpiadas de su pecado". Otras formas de traducir "purificación" podrían incluir, "limpiar" o "lavado espiritual" o "hacerse ritualmente limpio".

Numbers 8:7

para purificarlos
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los levitas.

Espolvorea el agua de expiación sobre ellos.
Moisés rociando agua sobre ellos era un símbolo de su expiación. AT: "Espolvorear sobre el agua que simboliza la expiación"

lavar su ropa
Se supone que los levitas lavan sus propias ropas. Puede aclarar la información entendida. AT: "entonces hazles lavar la ropa"

Un toro joven y su ofrenda de grano.
Cuando se ofrecía un toro joven, generalmente se requería una ofrenda de grano para acompañarlo.

De harina fina mezclada con aceite.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "De harina fina que se han mezclado con aceite.

Numbers 8:9

reunir a toda la comunidad
"reunir a toda la comunidad"

delante de mi señor
Aquí YEl Señor se refiere a sí mismo por su propio nombre.

El pueblo de Israel debe poner sus manos sobre los levitas.
La acción de "poner las manos" en alguien a menudo se realizaba para dedicarlos al trabajo o servicio de El Señor. AT: "El pueblo Israel debe poner sus manos sobre los levitas, dedicándolos a mí"

como una ofrenda de onda
Aarón debía presentar los levitas a Yahvé con la misma dedicación que si fueran un sacrificio dado a él. AT: "si fueran una ola ofreciendo"

Numbers 8:12

Los levitas deben poner sus manos sobre las cabezas de los toros.
Esta es una acción simbólica que identifica a los levitas con los animales que se ofrecen. De esta manera, la persona se ofrece a sí misma a través del animal a El Señor.

Levántalos como una ola que me ofrece.
Aarón tenía que presentar los levitas a Yahvé como si él estuviera levantando una ofrenda a Yahvé. AT: "dedícalos a mí, como si los estuvieras levantando en una ola ofreciéndome"

Numbers 8:14

Debes purificarlos. Debes ofrecerlos como ofrenda de olas.
El Señor repite estas cosas para enfatizar su importancia. Esto debe suceder antes de que los levitas vayan a servir en la tienda de reunión. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. AT: "Pero primero, debes purificarlos. Debes ofrecerlos como una ofrenda de onda"

Debes ofrecerlos como ofrenda de olas.
Aarón tenía que presentar los levitas a Yahvé como si fueran una ofrenda mecida a él. AT: "Debes dedicármelas a mí, como si estuvieras presentándome una ola"

Numbers 8:16

Cada niño varón que abre la matriz, el primogénito.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para enfatizar a los hijos primogénitos.

niño varón que abre la matriz
Este es un idioma. "Abrir la matriz" significa dar a luz por primera vez. Aquí se refiere al primer hijo varón al que da a luz una madre. AT: "niño que es el primogénito de su madre"

Tomé las vidas
Esta es una forma educada de referirse a cuando una persona mata a alguien. AT: "yo maté"

Los separo
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a "el primogénito de entre el pueblo de Israel".

Numbers 8:18

He dado los levitas como un regalo a Aarón y sus hijos
El hecho de que El Señor designe a los levitas para ayudar a Aarón y a sus hijos se menciona como si fueran un regalo que Yahvé le estaba dando a Aarón y a sus hijos.

Los he tomado ... los he dado.
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los levitas.

en lugar de todos los primogénitos Las palabras que faltan se pueden agregar para aclarar el significado. AT: "en lugar de tomar a todos los primogénitos"

cuando se acercan
Aquí "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

Numbers 8:20

Moisés, Aarón y toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel ... El pueblo de Israel hizo esto con ellos Aquí hay tres oraciones paralelas que dan la misma información. Se repite para enfatizar que la gente hizo a los levitas como Jehová lo había mandado. AT: "Moisés, Aarón y toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel hicieron con los levitas todo lo que Jehová había mandado a Moisés con respecto a los levitas"

Numbers 8:22

para hacer su servicio
La palabra "servicio", un nombre abstracto, se puede expresar como un verbo. AT: "servir"

antes de Aarón y antes de los hijos de Aarón
"En presencia de Aarón y sus hijos"

Esto era
Lo que hicieron fue

Trataron a todos los levitas de esta manera.
"Hicieron a los levitas lo que mandó Jehová". La palabra "Ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 8:23

Todo esto es para los levitas.
"Todos estos mandamientos son para los levitas"

veinticinco años de edad
cinco años "25 años"

Debe unirse a la empresa para servir en la carpa de reunión
La palabra "compañía" se refiere al resto de las personas que trabajan en la tienda de reunión. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 4: 1.

Numbers 8:25

a la edad de cincuenta años
"a los 50 años" o "cuando cumplan 50 años"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés en el desierto de Sinaí, en el primer mes del segundo año luego que salieron de la tierra de Egipto. Y Él dijo: 2 "Deja que el pueblo de Israel celebre la Pascua así como está señalado para este tiempo del año. 3 En el día catorce de este mes, en la tarde, van a celebrar la Pascua así como está arreglado para este tiempo del año. La deben celebrar, siguiendo todas las instrucciones, y obedecer todos las leyes que están relacionadas a esto." 4 Entonces, Moisés le dijo a la gente de Israel que debían celebrar la Fiesta de la Pascua. 5 Así celebraron en el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes, en la tarde, en el desierto de Sinaí. La gente de Israel obedeció todo lo que EL SEÑOR le mandó a Moisés que hiciera. 6 Había ciertos hombres que se contaminaron por causa del cuerpo de un hombre muerto. No podían celebrar la Pascua en ese día. Fueron ante Moisés y Aarón ese mismo día. 7 Esos hombres le dijeron a Moisés: "Estamos contaminados por causa del cuerpo de un hombre muerto. ¿Por qué no nos permites ofrecer sacrificio en el tiempo fijado del año entre la gente de Israel?" 8 Moisés les dijo:"Esperen a que oiga lo que EL SEÑOR me instruya sobre ustedes." 9 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 10 "Habla al pueblo de Israel. Dile: 'Si alguno de ustedes o sus descendientes están contaminados por causa de un cuerpo muerto, o si están en un largo viaje, todavía puede celebrar la Pascua del SEÑOR.' 11 Deben celebrar la Pascua en el segundo mes, en el día catorce, en la tarde. Deben comerla con pan sin levadura y con hierbas amargas. 12 No deben dejar nada para el dia siguiente, ni romper ninguno de sus huesos. Deben seguir todas las instrucciones de la Pascua. 13 Pero cualquier persona que esté limpia y no esté de viaje, pero que falle en celebrar la Pascua, esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo porque no ha ofrecido el sacrificio que EL SEÑOR requiere en el tiempo establecido del año. Ese hombre debe cargar su pecado. 14 Si un extraño vive entre ustedes y celebra la Pascua en honor al SEÑOR, él debe seguir todos los mandamientos, manteniendo las reglas de la Pascua, y obedeciendo las leyes para eso. Debes tener las mismas leyes para el extranjero y para todos los que han nacido en la tierra.'' 15 En el día en que la tienda de reunion fue levantada, la nube la cubrió, la tienda del pacto. Al atardecer la nube estaba sobre la tienda de reunión. Se aparecía sobre ella como fuego hasta la mañana. 16 Continuaba de esa manera. La nube cubría la tienda de reunión y aparecía como fuego en la noche. 17 Cuando la nube se levantaba de la tienda, el pueblo de Israel debía seguir su viaje. Donde quiera que la nube se detuviera, el pueblo debía acampar. 18 Al mando del SEÑOR, el pueblo de Israel debía viajar, y a su mandato, debían acampar. Mientras la nube se detenía sobre la tienda de reunion, ellos debían permanecer en su campamento. 19 Cuando la nube permanecía en la tienda de reunion por muchos días, entonces el pueblo de Israel debía obedecer las instrucciones del SEÑOR y no viajar. 20 Algunas veces la nube permanecía algunos días sobre la tienda de reunión. En ese caso, debían obedecer los mandamientos del SEÑOR--debían acampar y entonces viajar nuevamente a Su mandato. 21 Algunas veces la nube estaba presente en el campamento desde la tarde hasta la mañana. Cuando la nube se levantaba en la mañana, viajaban. Si la nube continuaba por un día y por una noche, sólo cuando la nube se levantaba podían continuar el viaje. 22 Si la nube estaba en la tienda de reunión por dos días, un mes, o un año, mientras se mantuviera allí, el pueblo de Israel debía permanecer en el campamento y no viajar. Pero si la nube se levantaba, podían continuar su viaje. 23 Acampaban al mandato del Señor, y viajaban por Su mandato. Obedecieron al mandato del SEÑOR dado a través de Moisés.

Numbers 9:1

en el primer mes
"En el 1er mes". Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. Marca cuando Dios sacó al pueblo de Israel de Egipto.

el segundo año
"el segundo año" o "año 2"

después de que salieron de la tierra de Egipto Aquí "ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. La frase "salió" significa irse. AT: "después de que salieron de la tierra de Egipto"

Deja que la gente ... en su época fija del año.
La palabra "fijo" significa "previamente establecido". Esto significa que esto es cuando lo observamos cada año. AT: "Que la gente ... en el momento del año lo observen actualmente"

En el decimocuarto día ... en su época fija del año Este es el tiempo establecido del año en que celebran la Pascua. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. AT: "En el decimocuarto día ... y obsérvalo, porque este es el momento en que lo celebras todos los años"

el decimocuarto día
"el día 14"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Sigue todas las regulaciones, y obedece todos los decretos.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para enfatizar que necesitaban obedecer las órdenes.

Debes mantenerlo
Aquí la frase "guárdalo" es una expresión idiomática que significa observarla. AT: "Debes observarlo" o "Debes celebrarlo"

Numbers 9:4

Mantener el Festival de la Pascua
Aquí la palabra "guardar" significa observar. AT: "observar el Festival de la Pascua" o "celebrar el Festival de la Pascua"

En el primer mes, a los catorce días del mes.
"En el 1er mes, el día 14 del mes".

Numbers 9:6

Quedó impuro por el cuerpo de un hombre muerto.
Esto implica que tocaron al hombre muerto, lo que los hizo impuros. Puede aclarar el significado completo de esta declaración. AT: "se volvió impuro porque tocaron el cuerpo de un hombre muerto"

inmundo
Se habla de una persona que Dios considera espiritualmente inaceptable o contaminada como si la persona fuera físicamente impura.

guarda la pascua
Aquí la palabra "guardar" significa observar. AT: "observar la Pascua" o "celebrar la Pascua"

por el cuerpo muerto de un hombre
Esto significa que habían tocado el cuerpo de un hombre muerto. Puede aclarar el significado completo de esta declaración. AT: "porque hemos tocado el cuerpo de un hombre muerto"

¿Por qué nos impides ofrecer el sacrificio ... entre el pueblo de Israel?
Los hombres hacen esta pregunta para quejarse de que no se les permite participar en la celebración de la Pascua. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "No es justo que nos alejes de ofrecer el sacrificio ... entre el pueblo de Israel".

fijo
establecido o predeterminado

Numbers 9:9

inmundo
Se habla de una persona que Dios considera espiritualmente inaceptable o contaminada como si la persona fuera físicamente impura.

por un cuerpo muerto
Esto se refiere a alguien tocando un cuerpo muerto. AT: "porque has tocado un cadáver"

guarda la pascua
Aquí la palabra "guardar" significa observar. AT: "observar la Pascua" o "celebrar la Pascua"

Numbers 9:11

guarda la pascua
Aquí la palabra "guardar" significa observar. AT: "observar la Pascua" o "celebrar la Pascua"

el segundo mes en el decimocuarto día
"El segundo mes del día 14"

En la tarde
"al atardecer"

Deben comerlo
"Deben comer el cordero pascual"

con pan sin levadura
"con pan hecho sin levadura" o "con pan que no contiene levadura"

hierbas amargas
Estas son plantas pequeñas que tienen un sabor fuerte y usualmente malo.

o romper alguno de sus huesos
"Y no deben romper ninguno de sus huesos".

Numbers 9:13

cualquier persona que este limpia
Se habla de una persona que Dios considera espiritualmente aceptable como si la persona estuviera físicamente limpia.

guarda la pascua
Aquí la palabra "guardar" significa observar. AT: "observar la Pascua" o "celebrar la Pascua"

esa persona debe ser cortada Aquí la frase "cortar" significa ser repudiado y expulsado. AT: "esa persona debe ser sen

fijo
establecido o predeterminado

Ese hombre debe llevar su pecado Aquí se habla del concepto de que el hombre tiene que soportar las consecuencias de su pecado como si su pecado fuera un objeto pesado que tenía que llevar. AT: "Ese hombre debe soportar el castigo por su pecado"

vive entre ustedes
Aquí "usted" es plural y se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él debe guardarlo y hacer todo lo que manda.
"ese extraño debe guardarlo y hacer todo lo que Yahweh manda"

guardando las reglas de la Pascua, y obedeciendo las leyes para ello Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se usan juntas para enfatizar que el extraño debe obedecer todas las reglas sobre la Pascua.

en la tierra
"En la tierra de Israel"

Numbers 9:15

el tabernáculo fue establecido Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "los levitas levantaron el tabernáculo"

la tienda del pacto decreta
Este es otro nombre para el tabernáculo. Vea cómo tradujo la frase "el tabernáculo de los decretos del pacto" en 1:50.

Apareció como fuego hasta la mañana.
Esto se refiere a la apariencia de la nube durante la noche. Aquí la nube se compara con parecer un fuego. AT: "Durante la noche la nube parecía un gran fuego hasta la mañana"

Continuó de esa manera Puede ser útil explicar que esto se refiere a que la nube está sobre el tabernáculo. AT: "La nube quedó así sobre el tabernáculo"

apareció como fuego en la noche
La apariencia de la nube se compara con un gran fuego. AT: "parecía un gran fuego en la noche".

la nube fue tomada
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "movido" o "El Señor tomó la nube"

la nube se detuvo
"la nube dejó de moverse"

Numbers 9:18

A la orden de El Señor
La palabra "comando" se puede expresar como un verbo. EN: "Cuando Jehová mandó"

Numbers 9:20

en el tabernáculo
"sobre el tabernáculo"

hacer campamento
Aquí la palabra "hacer" significa "configurar". AT: "armar su campamento"

desde la tarde hasta la mañana
Esto significa que la nube solo se quedó sobre el tabernáculo durante una noche. Usted aclara el significado completo de esta declaración. AT: "solo desde la tarde hasta la mañana" o "sobre el tabernáculo por solo una noche"

Si continuaba
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. "Si la nube se quedó sobre el tabernáculo"

solo cuando la nube se levantara ellos viajaran en
"Luego, después de que la nube se moviera, viajarían"

Numbers 9:22

la nube fue tomada
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "la nube se levantó" o "El Señor tomó la nube"

por orden de El Señor
La palabra "comando" se puede expresar como un verbo. "lo que mandó Jehová"

Jehová dio la orden a través de Moisés.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "El mandamiento que Jehová había dado a través de Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 2 "Haz dos trompetas de plata. Martilla la plata para hacerlas. Debes usar las trompetas para reunir a la comunidad y para llamar a la comunidad a mover sus tiendas. 3 Los sacerdotes deben sonar las trompetas para llamar a toda la comunidad frente a la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 4 Si los sacerdotes suenan solamente una trompeta entonces, los jefes, de las cabezas de las familias de Israel, deben reunirse contigo. 5 Cuando toques una señal fuerte, los campamentos del lado este deben comenzar su marcha. 6 Cuando suenes la señal fuerte por segunda vez, los campamentos del sur deben comenzar su marcha. Ellos deben sonar una señal fuerte para su marcha. 7 Cuando la comunidad está toda reunida suenen las trompetas, pero no muy fuerte. 8 Los hijos de Aarón, los sacerdotes, deberán sonar las trompetas. Esto será siempre una regla para ustedes por sus generaciones. 9 Cuando salgan a la guerra en su tierra contra su adversario que les oprime, entonces ustedes deben tocar una alarma con las trompetas. Yo, El SEÑOR su Dios, los recordaré y los salvaré de sus enemigos. 10 También, en los tiempos de celebración, tanto en sus fiestas regulares y al principio de los meses, deberán sonar las trompetas en honor a sus ofrendas quemadas y sobre los sacrificios de sus ofrendas de paz. Estos actos servirán como un recordatorio de ustedes a Mí, su Dios. Yo soy El SEÑOR su Dios." 11 En el segundo año, en el segundo mes, en el día veinte del mes, se levantó la nube de la tienda de reunion. 12 La gente de Israel entonces marchó del desierto de Sinaí. La nube se detuvo en el desierto de Parán. 13 Hicieron su primer viaje, siguiendo las instrucciones del SEÑOR dadas a través de Moisés. 14 El campamento bajo la bandera de los descendientes de Judá salieron primero, moviendo sus ejércitos. Naasón, hijo de Aminadab, dirigió el ejército de Judá. 15 Natanael, hijo de Zuar, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Isacar. 16 Eliab, hijo de Helón, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Zabulón. 17 Los descendientes de Gersón y de Merari, quienes cuidaban la tienda de reunion, la desmontaron y comenzaron su viaje. 18 Luego, los ejércitos bajo la bandera de Rubén comenzaron su viaje. Elisur, hijo de Sedeur, dirigió el ejército de Rubén. 19 Selumiel, hijo de Zurisadai, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Simeón. 20 Eliasaf, hijo de Deuel, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Gad. 21 Los coatitas comenzaron su marcha. Cargaron todo el equipo sagrado del santuario. Otros montarían la tienda de reunión antes que los coatitas llegaran al próximo campamento. 22 Los ejércitos bajo la bandera de los descendientes de Efraín marcharían luego. Elisama, hijo de Amiud, dirigió el ejército de Efraín. 23 Gamaliel, hijo de Pedasur, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Manasés. 24 Abidán, hijo de Gedeoni, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Benjamín. 25 Los ejércitos que acamparon bajo la bandera de los descendientes de la tribu de Dan fueron los últimos en salir. Aheizer, hijo de Amisadai, dirigió el ejército de Dan. 26 Pagiel, hijo de Ocrán, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Aser. 27 Ahira, hijo de Enán, dirigió el ejército de los descendientes de la tribu de Neftalí. 28 Esta es la manera en que los ejércitos del pueblo de Israel comenzaban su marcha. 29 Moisés le habló a Hobab, hijo de Reuel, el madianita. Reuel era el padre de la esposa de Moisés. Moisés le habló a Hobab y dijo: "Estamos viajando a un lugar que El SEÑOR describió. El SEÑOR dijo: 'Yo se lo daré a ustedes.' Vengan con nosotros y le haremos bien. El SEÑOR ha prometido hacerle bien a Israel." 30 Pero Hobab le dijo a Moisés: "Yo iré a mi propia tierra y a mi propia gente." 31 Entonces Moisés contestó: "Por favor no nos dejes. Tú sabes como acampar en el desierto. Tú debes vigilar por nosotros. 32 Si vas con nosotros, haremos por ti el mismo bien que El SEÑOR hace por nosotros." 33 Viajaron desde la montaña del SEÑOR por tres días. El arca del pacto del SEÑOR iba frente a ellos por tres días para hallar un lugar de descanso. 34 La nube del SEÑOR estaba por encima de ellos durante el día mientras viajaban. 35 Cuando el arca del pacto salía Moisés decia: "Levántate, SEÑOR. Esparce a tus enemigos. Haz que aquellos que Te odian huyan de Ti." 36 Cuando el arca se detenía, Moisés decia: "Regresa, SEÑOR, a las muchas decenas de miles de Israel."

Numbers 10:1

Hacer dos trompetas de plata
Esto significa que El Señor le ordenó a Moisés que alguien hiciera la trompeta. Él no los hizo ellos mismos. AT: "Dile a alguien que haga dos trompetas de plata"

Debes usar las trompetas
Moisés no tocará las trompetas él mismo, sino que ordenará a los sacerdotes que las toquen.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 10:3

delante de ti
"Mientras estés presente". Esto significa que Moisés debía estar allí con el sacerdote cuando tocaba las trompetas.

Los líderes, los jefes de los clanes de Israel.
Los líderes, los jefes de los clanes de Israel. Estas dos frases se refieren al mismo grupo de personas. Aquí la segunda frase se usa para describir la primera frase. AT: "los líderes, que son los jefes de los clanes de Israel"

Cuando soplas una señal fuerte
Aquí la palabra "tú" es plural. YEl Señor le está hablando a Moisés, pero él se refiere a los sacerdotes. Los sacerdotes tocarán las trompetas, Moisés no. AT: "Cuando suenan una señal fuerte"

Numbers 10:6

Cuando soplas una señal fuerte
Aquí la palabra "tú" es plural. Yahvé le habla a Moisés, pero se refiere a los sacerdotes. Los sacerdotes tocarán las trompetas, Moisés no. AT: "Cuando suenan una señal fuerte"

Cuando la comunidad se reúne
"Reunir a la comunidad"

segundo
"2do"

Deben sonar una fuerte señal para sus viajes.
"Ellos" se refiere a los sacerdotes y la palabra "sus" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

ser un reglamento para ti
"Séa una regla para ti". Aquí "usted" es plural y se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

Numbers 10:9

Cuando vas a la guerra ... te oprime
El Señor le está hablando a Moisés y usa la palabra "usted", pero en realidad se refiere a que el pueblo de Israel va a la guerra. AT: "Cuando el pueblo de Israel a la guerra ... oprime a Israel"

Entonces debes hacer sonar una alarma con las trompetas.
Aquí El Señor nuevamente le habla a Moisés usando la palabra "tú" pero en realidad quiere que Moisés haga que los sacerdotes toquen las trompetas. AT: "entonces debes ordenar a los sacerdotes que hagan sonar una alarma con las trompetas"

llamarte a la mente
Esta frase "llamar a la mente" significa recordar. AT: "te recuerdo"

Numbers 10:10

de celebracion
El sustantivo "celebración" se puede expresar con el verbo "celebrar". AT: "cuando celebras"

debes tocar las trompetas Aquí El Señor nuevamente le habla a Moisés usando la palabra "tú", pero en realidad quiere que los sacerdotes toquen las trompetas. AT: "debes ordenar a los sacerdotes que toquen las trompetas"

a inicios de los meses.
Hay 12 meses en el calendario hebreo. La fase inicial de la luna con su astilla de luz marcó el comienzo de cada mes en el calendario lunar.

tus ofrendas quemadas ... tus ofrendas de compañerismo ... tú para mí En estas frases, las palabras "tu" y "tú" son plurales y se refieren al pueblo de Israel.

sobre los sacrificios
"En honor a los sacrificios"

actuará como un recordatorio de ti para mí
"Actuará como un memorial para ti de mí". La palabra "recordatorio" se puede expresar con el verbo "recordar". AT: "siempre te recordará a mí".

Estos actuaran
La palabra "estos" se refiere a las trompetas y los sacrificios.

Numbers 10:11

En el segundo año
"En el segundo año" o "En el año 2". Este es el segundo año después de que Yahvé sacó a los israelitas de Egipto.

En el segundo mes, a los veinte días del mes.
"En el 2º mes, a los 20 días del mes". Este es el segundo mes del calendario hebreo.

la nube fue levantada Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "la nube se levantó" o "El Señor levantó la nube"

el tabernáculo del pacto decreta
El tabernáculo también fue llamado por este nombre más largo porque el arca con la ley de Dios fue colocada dentro de él. Traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste en 1:50.

Jehová dio la orden a través de Moisés.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "los mandamientos que El Señor había dado a través de Moisés"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 10:14

El campamento bajo la bandera de los descendientes de Judá.
Este campamento incluye las tres tribus bajo la división.

salió primero
"salí primero." La frase "salió" significa que empacaron su campamento y comenzaron a moverse.

Naason hijo de Aminadab
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1: 7.

Netanael hijo de Zuar
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1: 7.

Eliab hijo de Helon
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1: 7.

Numbers 10:17

Gerson... Merari
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:17

Los ejércitos bajo el estandarte del campamento de Rubén.
Esto se refiere a los ejércitos de las tribus bajo la división de Ruben: Ruben, Simeon y Gad.

Elisur hijo de Sedeur
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:4

Selumiel hijo de Zurisadai
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:4

Eliasaf hijo de Deuel
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:12

Numbers 10:21

Coatitas
Esto se refiere a los descendientes de Coat. Traduce esto de la misma manera que hiciste en 3:27.

Los ejércitos bajo la bandera de los descendientes de Efraín.
Esto se refiere a los ejércitos de las tribus bajo la división de Efraín: Efraín, Manasés y Benjamín.

Elisama hijo de Amiud
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:10.

Gamaliel hijo de Pedasur
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:10.

Abidan hijo de Gedeoni
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 1:10.

Numbers 10:25

Los ejércitos que acamparon bajo el estandarte de los descendientes de Dan.
Esto se refiere a los ejércitos de las tribus bajo la división de Dan: Dan, Asher y Neftalí.

Ahiezer hijo de Amisadai
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:12.

Pagiel hijo de Ocran
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:12.

Ahira hijo de Enán
Traduce el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hiciste en 1:12.

Numbers 10:29

Hobab hijo de Reuel
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

que Yahvé describió
"que el Señor nos describió"

te haremos bien
"Te trataremos bien"

Numbers 10:31

Debes tener cuidado con nosotros
La frase "cuidado" significa guiar y cuidar. AT: "Puedes guiarnos y mostrarnos cómo vivir en el desierto"

Numbers 10:33

Ellos viajaron
"Ellos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

la montaña de El Señor Esto se refiere al monte Sinaí. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. EN: "Monte Sinaí, la montaña de El Señor"

El arca del pacto de Jehová iba delante de ellos.
El grupo de levitas que portaban el arca del pacto fue ante el pueblo de Israel como viajaba. EN: "Los hombres llevaban el arca del pacto de El Señor delante de ellos mientras viajaban"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

a la luz del dia
"todos los días" o "durante el día"

Numbers 10:35

Siempre que el arca partiera.
Aquí se habla del arca como si de una persona viajara. El arca era realmente llevada por los hombres. AT: "Cada vez que las personas que llevan el arca parten"

Levántate, Señor
Aquí, la frase "levantarse" es una petición para que El Señor actúe, en este caso, Moisés le está pidiendo que esparce a sus enemigos.

Haz que los que te odian huyan de ti
Aquí Moisés habla sobre El Señor que hace que sus enemigos huyan del pueblo de Israel como si estuvieran huyendo de El Señor mismo. AT: "Haz que los que te odian huyan de tu arca y de tu gente"

Cada vez que el arca se detuvo
Aquí se habla del arca como si de una persona viajara. El arca era realmente llevada por los hombres. AT: "Cuando las personas que llevaban el arca se detenían"

muchas decenas de miles
Esto se refiere a las personas. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. AT: "muchas decenas de miles de personas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Un dia las personas se quejaron de sus problemas mientras EL SEÑOR escuchaba. El SEÑOR escuchó a las personas y se molestó. Fuego del SEÑOR ardió entre ellos y consumió parte del campamento en sus esquinas. 2 Luego las personas llamaron a Moisés, así que Moisés oró al SEÑOR, y el fuego se detuvo. 3 Aquel lugar fue llamado Tabera, porque el fuego del SEÑOR ardió entre ellos. 4 Algunas personas extranjeras comenzaron a acampar con los desendientes de Israel. Ellos querían mejor comida para comer. Luego el pueblo de Israel comenzó a llorar y a decir: "¿Quién nos dará carne para comer?" 5 Nosotros recordamos los pescados que comimos libremente en Egipto, los pepinos, los melones, los puerros, las cebollas y ajos. 6 Ahora, nuestro apetito se ha ido, porque todo lo que nosotros podemos ver es este maná." 7 El maná era como semilla de cilantro. Parecía resina. 8 El pueblo caminaba y lo recogia. Ellos lo molían en molinos, lo machacaban en morteros, lo herbían en ollas, y lo hacían pan. Sabía como aceite de oliva fresco. 9 Cuando el rocío caía sobre el campo en la noche, el maná también caía. 10 Moisés escuchó al pueblo y a sus familias llorar, y cada hombre estaba en la entrada de su tienda. El SEÑOR estaba muy enojado, y ante los ojos de Moisés sus quejas estaban mal. 11 Moisés dijo al SEÑOR: "¿Por qué Tú has tratado a tu siervo tan mal? ¿Por qué no estás complacido conmigo? Tú haces que yo cargue todo este pueblo. 12 ¿Acaso yo concebí a todas estas personas? ¿Les he dado a luz para que Tú me digas a mí, 'Cárgalos cerca de tu pecho como un padre carga a su bebé'? ¿Debería yo cargarlos a ellos a la tierra que Tú juraste a sus antepasados darles? 13 ¿Dónde puedo yo encontrar carne para darle a todas estas personas? Ellos están llorando frente a mí y están diciendo: 'Danos carne para comer.' 14 Yo no puedo soportar a todas estas personas solo. Ellos son demasiado para mí. 15 Ya que me estás tratando de esta manera, mátame ahora, si eres bueno conmigo, y llévate mi miseria." 16 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Tráeme setenta ancianos de Israel. Asegúrate que ellos sean ancianos y oficiales del pueblo. Tráelos a ellos a la tienda de reunión para pararse allí contigo. 17 Yo bajaré y hablaré contigo allí. Yo voy a tomar un poco del Espíritu que está en ti y lo pondré sobre ellos. Ellos van a cargar la carga del pueblo contigo. Tú no vas a tener que soportarla solo. 18 Dile al pueblo: 'Conságrense para mañana y ustedes comerán carne, pues ustedes han llorado y EL SEÑOR los ha escuchado. Usteden dijeron: '¿Quién nos dará a nosotros carne para comer? Fue bueno para nosotros estar en Egipto.' Por lo tanto, EL SEÑOR les dará a ustedes carne, y se la comerán. 19 Ustedes no comerán carne por sólo un día, dos días, cinco días, diez días o veinte días, 20 sino que ustedes comerán carne por un mes entero hasta que se les salga por su nariz. Les va a dar asco porque ustedes han rechazado al SEÑOR, que está entre ustedes. Ustedes han llorado ante Él. Ustedes dijeron: '¿Por qué nos fuimos de Egipto?"" 21 Luego Moisés dijo: "Yo estoy con 600, 000 personas, y Tú has dicho 'Yo voy a darle a ellos carne para comer por un mes entero.' 22 ¿Deberíamos nosotros matar rebaños y manadas para satisfacerlos a ellos? ¿Deberíamos nosotros atrapar todos los peces en el mar para satisfacerlos a ellos?" 23 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "¿Acaso Mi mano es pequeña? Ahora ustedes van a ver si Mi palabra es verdad o no." 24 Moisés salió y le dijo al pueblo las palabras del SEÑOR. Reunió a setenta ancianos del pueblo y los puso alrededor de la tienda. 25 El SEÑOR bajó en una nube y habló a Moisés. El SEÑOR tomó un poco del Espíritu que estaba en Moisés y lo puso en los setenta ancianos. Cuando el Espíritu descansó en ellos, ellos profetizaron pero sólo en aquella ocasión y no otra vez. 26 Dos hombres se quedaron en el campamento, llamados Eldad y Medad. El Espíritu también descansó en ellos. Sus nombres fueron escritos en la lista, pero ellos no habían salido de la tienda. Sin embargo, ellos profetizaron en el campamento. 27 Un hombre joven en el campamento corrió y le dijo a Moisés: "Eldad y Medad están profetizando en el campamento." 28 Josué hijo de Nun, el ayudante de Moisés, uno de sus hombres escogidos, dijo a Moisés: "Mi amo Moisés, deténlos a ellos." 29 Moisés le dijo a él: "¿Tienes celos por mi? ¡Yo desearía que todas las personas del SEÑOR fueran profetas y que Él pusiera Su Espíritu en todos ellos!" 30 Luego Moisés y los ancianos de Israel regresaron al campamento. 31 Luego un viento del SEÑOR vino y trajo codornices desde el mar. Cayeron cerca del campamento, un día de viaje en un lado y un día de viaje al otro lado. Las codornices rodearon el campamento casi un metro sobre la tierra. 32 El pueblo estuvo ocupado recogiendo las codornices todo aquel día, toda la noche y todo el día siguiente. Nadie reunió menos de diez homeres de codornices. Compartieron las codornices a través de todo el campamento. 33 Mientras la carne estaba todavía entre sus dientes, mientras ellos estaban masticándola, EL SEÑOR se molestó con ellos. Atacó al pueblo con una gran enfermedad. 34 Aquel lugar fue llamado Kibrot Hataava, porque allí ellos enterraron a las personas quienes habían deseado carne. 35 Desde Kibrot Hataava las personas viajaron hasta Hazerot, donde se quedaron.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 11:1

Fuego de Jehová quemó
"Jehová envió fuego que quemó"

Ese lugar fue nombrado
Esto se puede afirmar en la forma activa. AT: "Llamaron a ese lugar"

Numbers 11:4

¿Quién nos dará carne para comer?
Los israelitas hacen esta pregunta para quejarse y expresar su deseo de comer algo que no sea el maná. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. AT: "Ojalá tuviéramos carne para comer".

nuestro apetito se ha ido
"No queremos comer" o "No podemos comer"

Numbers 11:7

semilla de cilantro
El cilantro también se conoce como cilantro. Esta semilla sirve como especia cuando se seca.

resina
Esta es una sustancia pegajosa con un color amarillo pálido.

Numbers 11:9

en los ojos de Moisés
La frase "los ojos de Moisés" representa su opinión o sus pensamientos. AT: "en la opinión de Moisés"

Numbers 11:11

Información general:
Moisés se queja a El Señor usando varias preguntas retóricas.

¿Por qué has tratado tan mal a tu sirviente? ¿Por qué no estás contento conmigo?
Moisés usó estas preguntas para quejarse de la manera en que Dios lo estaba tratando. Se pueden expresar como declaraciones. AT: "No debes tratarme tan mal, tu sirviente. No deberías estar enojado conmigo" o "Yo, tu sirviente, no he hecho nada malo para que me trates tan mal".

Me haces llevar la carga de todas estas personas.
Moisés se queja y habla de guiar al pueblo y proveerlo como si estuviera cargando una carga pesada. AT: "Tú me haces responsable de todas estas personas, pero es demasiado difícil para mí"

¿He concebido a todas estas personas? ¿Les he dado a luz para que me digas?
Moisés usó estas preguntas para hacer que Dios pensara en el hecho de que Moisés no era su padre. AT: "No soy el padre de todas estas personas. No es justo que me digas".

Llévelos cerca de su pecho como un padre lleva un bebé.
Esto significa que Moisés debe ser responsable de las personas que no pueden cuidarse a sí mismas, ya que un padre debe cuidar a un bebé ¿Debo llevarlos ... para darles?

Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "No debes esperar que los lleve ... para darlos" o "No puedo llevarlos ... para darlos".

Numbers 11:13

¿Dónde puedo encontrar carne para dar a toda esta gente?
Moisés usó esta pregunta para quejarse de que le era imposible dar carne a todas las personas. AT: "No puedo encontrar suficiente carne para dar a todas estas personas".

No puedo soportar a todas estas personas solo
Moisés habla de guiar y proveer a la gente como si él los estuviera llevando. AT: "No puedo proveer para todas estas personas solo"

Son demasiado para mi
Este es un idioma. AT: "Esta responsabilidad es demasiado difícil para mí"

Numbers 11:16

algo del Espíritu que está sobre ti
El "Espíritu" aquí representa el poder que el Espíritu de Dios le había dado a Moisés para que Moisés pudiera hacer lo que Dios le dijo que hiciera. AT: "algo del poder que el Espíritu te ha dado"

Ellos llevarán contigo la carga de la gente.
Dios habla de la responsabilidad de liderar y proveer a la gente como si fuera una carga que Moisés y los líderes cargarían. AT: "Te ayudarán a cuidar a la gente".

No tendrás que soportarlo solo.
Dios habla de la responsabilidad de liderar y proveer a la gente como si fuera una carga que Moisés y los líderes cargarían. AT: "No te preocupes solo por ellos"

Numbers 11:18

Información general
El Señor sigue hablando a Moisés.

¿Quién nos dará carne para comer?
Los israelitas habían hecho esta pregunta para quejarse y expresar su deseo de comer algo más que maná. Se puede expresar como una declaración. AT: "Ojalá tuviéramos carne para comer".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hasta que salga de tus narices
Los posibles significados son 1) Dios habla de vomitar como si la comida saliera por la nariz. AT: "hasta que esté enfermo y vomite" 2) comían tanta carne que sería como si saliera de sus fosas nasales. AT: "hasta que se siente como si tuviera que salir por la nariz"

¿Por qué nos fuimos de Egipto?
La gente había usado esta pregunta para expresar su pesar y para quejarse. AT: "Nunca deberíamos haber dejado Egipto".

Numbers 11:21

¿Debemos matar rebaños y manadas para satisfacerlos? ¿Deberíamos capturar todos los peces en el mar para satisfacerlos?
Moisés usa estas preguntas para expresar su duda de que podría haber suficiente carne para alimentar a todas las personas. AT: "¡Tendríamos que matar manadas y manadas enteras y atrapar a todos los peces en el mar para satisfacerlos!"

rebaños y manadas
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo. Juntos destacan una gran cantidad de animales.

todos los peces en el mar
Moisés usa esta exageración para mostrar lo imposible que él creía que era proporcionar alimento a todo el pueblo de Israel.

para satisfacerlos
"para satisfacer su hambre"

¿Mi mano es corta?
Aquí la palabra "mano" representa el poder de Dios. Dios usa esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés por pensar que Dios no tenía el poder de proveer suficiente carne para la gente. AT: "¿Crees que no soy lo suficientemente poderoso para hacer esto?" o "Debes saber que soy más que lo suficientemente fuerte para hacer esto".

Numbers 11:24

Palabras de El Señor
La frase "las palabras de El Señor" representa lo que El señor había dicho. AT: "lo que El Señor había dicho"

algo del Espíritu que estaba sobre Moisés El "Espíritu" aquí representa el poder que el Espíritu de Dios le había dado a Moisés. AT: "algo del poder que el Espíritu le había dado a Moisés" Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 11:16.

ponlo en los setenta ancianos
Dar poder a los ancianos se habla de poner el Espíritu sobre ellos. AT: "se lo dio a los setenta ancianos" Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 11:16.

Cuando el Espíritu reposó sobre ellos.
Hablar del poder del Espíritu es como si el Espíritu descansara sobre ellos. AT: "Cuando tenían poder del Espíritu"

Numbers 11:26

El Espíritu también descansó sobre ellos.
Se habla del Espíritu que les da poder como si el Espíritu descansara sobre ellos. AT: "El Espíritu también les dio poder"

Sus nombres fueron escritos en la lista.
Esto puede ser escrito en forma activa. AT: "Moisés había escrito sus nombres en la lista"

Numbers 11:28

páralos
"Diles que dejen de profetizar"

¿Estás celoso por mi causa?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para reprender a Josué. Se puede traducir como una declaración, si es necesario. AT: "No deberías estar celoso por mi causa".

¿Estás celoso por mi causa?
De lo que Josué pudo haber estado celoso se puede decir claramente si es necesario. AT: "¿Te preocupa que puedan estar quitando algo que me pertenece?" o "¿Te preocupa que las personas no respeten mi autoridad?"

que él pondría su Espíritu sobre todos ellos Moisés habla de que el Espíritu de Dios le da poder a la gente como si Dios pusiera su Espíritu sobre ellos. AT: "que el Espíritu de Dios les daría todo poder"

Numbers 11:31

codorniz
un pequeño pájaro

sobre el viaje de un día en un lado y el viaje de un día en el otro lado
"en cada dirección hasta donde una persona pueda caminar en un día"

alrededor de dos codos
Un codo es una unidad de medida igual a unos 46 centímetros. AT: "alrededor de 92 centímetros" o "alrededor de 1 metro"

Nadie reunió menos de diez cuadrangulares de codornices.
Este es un doble negativo que puede expresarse como una afirmación positiva. AT: "Todos reunieron al menos diez jonrones de codorniz"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

diez cuadrangulares
Un cuadrangular es una unidad de volumen igual a unos 220 litros. AT: "2,200 litros"

Numbers 11:33

Mientras la carne todavía estaba entre sus dientes, mientras la masticaban Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Juntos enfatizan que Dios los castigó de inmediato, incluso mientras comían la carne. AT: "Mientras aún comían la carne".

Ese lugar fue llamado Kibrot Hataava
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "Llamaron a ese lugar Kibrot Hataava"

Hazeroth
Este es el nombre de un lugar en el desierto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Entonces Miriam y Aarón hablaron contra Moisés porque se había casado con una mujer cusita. 2 Dijeron: "¿Ha hablado EL SEÑOR sólo con Moisés? ¿No ha hablado también con nosotros?" Ahora EL SEÑOR escuchó lo que dijeron. 3 Moisés era muy humilde, más humilde que cualquiera en la tierra. 4 En seguida EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés, Aarón y Miriam: "Salgan, ustedes tres, a la tienda de reunión. Así que, los tres salieron. 5 Entonces EL SEÑOR bajó en una columna de nube. Se puso en la entrada de la tienda de reunión y llamó a Aarón y a Miriam. Ambos se acercaron. 6 El SEÑOR dijo: "Ahora escucha mis palabras. Cuando un profeta mio está con ustedes, Yo me revelaré a él en visiones y hablaré a él en sueños. 7 mi siervo Moisés no será así. Él es fiel en toda mi casa. 8 Yo hablo a Moisés directamente, no con visiones o acertijos. Él ve mi forma. Así que, ¿por qué no tuvieron temor de hablar contra mi siervo Moisés?" 9 La ira del SEÑOR se encendió contra ellos, y EL SEÑOR se fue. 10 La nube se elevó de sobre la tienda, y Miriam de pronto estaba leprosa, estaba tan blanca como la nieve. Cuando Aarón se volvió hacia Miriam, vio que estaba leprosa. 11 Aarón dijo a Moisés: "Oh, mi Señor, por favor no pongas este pecado en contra de nosotros. Hemos hablado tontamente y hemos pecado. 12 Por favor, no dejes que ella sea como un recién nacido muerto cuya carne está consumida cuando sale del vientre de su madre." 13 Así que, Moisés clamó al SEÑOR. Él dijo: "Por favor sánala, Dios." 14 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Si su padre hubiera escupido en su rostro, ella sería desgraciada por siete días. Expúlsala fuera del campamento durante siete días. Después de eso tráela dentro nuevamente." 15 Así que, Miriam fue expulsada del campamento por siete días. El pueblo no viajó hasta que ella regresó al campamento. 16 Después de eso, el pueblo viajó de Hazerot y acampó en el desierto de Parán.

Numbers 12:1

¿Habló El Señor solo con Moisés? ¿No ha hablado también con nosotros?
María y Aarón usan estas preguntas para quejarse de que Moisés tenía tanta autoridad y ellos no. Esto se puede expresar como una declaración. AT: "El Señor no ha hablado solo con Moisés. Él también ha hablado con nosotros".

Y El Señor oyó.
La palabra "Ahora" oye llama la atención sobre el punto importante que sigue.

Ahora el hombre Moisés
"Ahora" se usa para marcar una ruptura en la línea principal de la historia. El narrador da información de fondo sobre el personaje de Moisés.

Numbers 12:4

un pilar de nube
Se habla de la forma de la nube como si fuera un pilar. AT: "una nube con forma de pilar" o "una nube alta"

Numbers 12:6

Mi siervo Moisés no es así.
"No le hablo así a Moisés"

Es fiel en toda mi casa
Aquí "mi casa" representa a la nación de Israel. Ser fiel en la casa de Dios representa ser fiel en guiar a Israel. AT: "Moisés dirige fielmente a mi pueblo" o "Moisés es aquel en quien confío para que guíe a mi pueblo Israel"

Entonces, ¿por qué no tienes miedo de hablar contra mi siervo, contra Moisés?
El Señor hace esta pregunta para reprender a Miriam y Aarón. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Deberías tener miedo de hablar contra mi siervo, contra Moisés".

Contra mi siervo, contra Moisés.
La frase "contra Moisés" aclara que él es el "siervo" de quien habla Jehová. EN: "contra mi siervo, Moisés"

Numbers 12:9

La ira de Jehová se encendió contra ellos.
Se habla de la ira de El Señor como si fuera un fuego. AT: "El Señor se enojó mucho con ellos"

era tan blanco como la nieve
La lepra volvió la piel de Miriam blanca. AT: "se volvió muy blanco"

Numbers 12:11

no tengas este pecado contra nosotros
Sostener el pecado de la gente contra ellos es decir que son culpables por su pecado. Aquí representa castigarlos por su pecado.

Por favor, no la dejes ser como un recién nacido muerto cuya carne está medio consumida
La lepra de Miriam causaría que su cuerpo se descomponga hasta que muera. La carne que se descompone se habla de como si hubiera sido

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

comido. AT: "Por favor, no la dejes ser como un bebé recién nacido muerto cuya carne está medio podrida"

Numbers 12:13

Por favor, sánala, Dios, por favor.
Aquí "por favor" se repite para el énfasis.

Si su padre le hubiera escupido en la cara.
Esto describe algo que pudo haber sucedido pero no sucedió. Escupir en la cara de alguien era un insulto terrible.

Miriam estaba cerrada fuera del campamento
Hablar de que salgan del campamento y no se les permita volver a entrar se habla como si hubiera una puerta cerrada detrás de ella. AT: "Miriam fue enviada fuera del campamento" o "Miriam fue mantenida fuera del campamento"

Miriam estaba cerrada fuera del campamento
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "Moisés cerró a Miriam fuera del campamento" o "Moisés envió a Miriam fuera del campamento"

Numbers 12:16

Hazerot
traduzca este nombre de la misma forma que lo hizo en 11:33

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 Luego EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 2 "Envía algunos hombres a investigar la tierra de Canaán, la cual Yo he dado a la gente de Israel. Envía un hombre de cada tribu de sus antepasados. Cada hombre debe ser un jefe entre ellos." 3 Moisés los envío desde el desierto de Parán, para que ellos pudieran obedecer el mandato del SEÑOR. Todos ellos eran jefes entre el pueblo de Israel. 4 Estos eran sus nombres: de la tribu de Rubén, Samúa hijo de Zacur; 5 de la tribu de Simeón, Safat hijo de Hori; 6 de la tribu de Judá, Caleb hijo de Jefone; 7 de la tribu de Isacar, Igal hijo de José; 8 de la tribu de Efraín, Oseas hijo de Nún; 9 de la tribu de Benjamín, Palti hijo de Rafú; 10 de la tribu de Zabulón, Gadiel hijo de Sodi; 11 de la tribu de José (es decir, de la tribu de Manasés), Gadi hijo de Susi; 12 de la tribu de Dan, Amiel hijo de Gemali; 13 de la tribu de Aser, Setur hijo de Micael; 14 de la tribu de Neftalí, Nahbi hijo de Vapsi; 15 de la tribu de Gad, Geuel hijo de Maqui. 16 Estos eran los nombres de los hombres que Moisés envió a explorar la tierra. Moisés llamó a Oseas hijo de Nun por el nombre de Josué. 17 Moisés los envió a explorar la tierra de Canaán. Él les dijo a ellos: "Acérquense por el Neguev y suban a la región montañosa. 18 Exploren la tierra para ver como es. Observen la gente que viven allí, si son fuertes o débiles, y si son muchos o pocos. 19 Miren como es la tierra donde viven. ¿Si es buena o mala? ¿Qué ciudades hay allí? ¿Si son como campamentos, o son ciudades fortificadas? 20 Miren como es la tierra, si es buena para cultivar o no, y si hay árboles allí o no. Sean valientes y traigan muestras del producto de la tierra." Ahora es el tiempo la época de las primeras uvas maduras. 21 Así que los hombres subieron y exploraron la tierra del desierto de Zin hasta Rehob, cerca de Lebo Hamat. 22 Subieron del Neguev y llegaron a Hebrón. Ahimán, Sesai, y Talmai, las tribus que descendieron de Anac, estan allí. Hebrón había sido construída siete años antes de Zoán en Egipto. 23 Cuando ellos llegaron al valle de Escol, cortaron una rama con un racimo de uvas. Lo cargaron en una vara entre dos de su grupo. También trajeron granadas e higos. 24 Aquel lugar fue llamado el valle de Escol, debido al racimo de uvas que la gente de Israel cortó allí. 25 Después de cuarenta días, volvieron de explorar la tierra. 26 Volvieron a Moisés, Aarón, y a toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel en el desierto de Parán, en Cades. Trajeron palabra a ellos y a toda la comunidad, y les enseñaron el producto de la tierra. 27 Dijeron a Moisés, "Llegamos a la tierra a donde nos enviaste. Ciertamente fluye leche y miel. Aquí hay algo del producto de ella. 28 Sin embargo, las personas que hacen sus casas allí son fuertes. Las ciudades son fortificadas y muy grandes. También vimos desendientes de Anac allí. 29 Los amalecitas viven en el Neguev. Los hititas, jebuseos, y amorreos tienen sus casas en la región montañosa. Los cananeos viven por el mar y a lo largo del río Jordán." 30 Luego Caleb calló a la gente quienes estaban frente a Moisés y dijo: "Déjanos ir y subir y tomar posesión de la tierra, pues nosotros podemos conquistarla." 31 Pero los otros hombres que habían ido con él dijeron: "Nosotros no podemos atacar esa gente porque ellos son más fuertes que nosotros." 32 Así que ellos dijeron un informe desalentador al pueblo de Israel acerca de la tierra que ellos exploraron. Ellos dijeron:"La tierra que vimos es una tierra que come a sus habitantes. Todas las personas que vimos allí son personas de gran altura. 33 Allí vimos gigantes, decendientes de Anac, personas que vinieron de gigantes. En nuestra propia vista éramos como saltamontes en comparación con ellos, y así éramos a sus ojos, también.

Numbers 13:1

que he dado
Dios había decidido que la tierra de Canaán pertenecería al pueblo de Israel, pero aún no se habían mudado a ella. AT: "que he decidido dar" o "que pronto daré"

Cada hombre debe ser un líder entre ellos.
"Cada hombre que envíes debe ser un líder entre su tribu"

Numbers 13:3

Samúa hijo de Zacur
estos son nombres de hombres

Numbers 13:5

Safat ... Hori ... Jefone ... Igal ... Jose ... Nun
Estos son los nombres de todos los hombres.

Numbers 13:9

Palti ... Rafú ... Gadiel ... Sodi ... Gadi ... Susi ... Ammiel ... Gemalli
Estos son los nombres de todos los hombres.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

de la tribu de José es decir, de la tribu Manasés La relación entre José y Manasés se puede establecer claramente. EN: "de la tribu del hijo de José Manasés"

Numbers 13:13

Setur ... Micael ... Nahbi ... Vapsi ... Geuel ... Maqui
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Josué hijo de Nun
Traduce los nombres de estos hombres como lo hiciste en 13: 5.

Numbers 13:17

¿Es bueno o malo? ¿Qué ciudades hay? ¿Son como los campamentos, o son ciudades fortificadas?
Moisés hace estas preguntas para explicar el tipo de información que los hombres debían informarle. Estos se pueden expresar como una declaración. AT: "Vea si la tierra es buena o mala, qué tipo de ciudades hay, y si esas ciudades son solo campamentos, o si tienen muros defensivos a su alrededor".

¿Son como los campamentos, o son ciudades fortificadas?
Las ciudades fortificadas tenían fuertes muros a su alrededor para protegerlos de los ejércitos enemigos. Los campamentos no tenían estas paredes.

Numbers 13:21

Zin ... Rehob ... Zoan
Estos son nombres de lugares.

el desierto de pecado
La palabra "pecado" aquí es el nombre hebreo del desierto. No es la palabra inglesa "pecado".

Hebrón había sido construido siete años antes de Zoan en Egipto.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "los cananeos habían construido Hebrón 7 años antes de que los egipcios construyeran Zoan"

Ahiman ... Sesai ... Talmai
Estos son nombres de clanes que fueron nombrados después de sus antepasados.

Anac
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

Numbers 13:23

Escol
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

entre dos de su grupo
"entre dos hombres de su grupo"

Ese lugar fue nombrado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Llamaron a ese lugar"

Numbers 13:25

Después de cuarenta dias
"Después de 40 días"

Trajeron la palabra
Aquí "palabra" se refiere a un informe. AT: "Trajeron su informe" o "Informaron lo que habían visto"

Numbers 13:27

Ciertamente fluye con leche y miel.
"La leche y la miel ciertamente fluyen allí". Hablaron de que la tierra era buena para los animales y las plantas como si la leche y la miel de esos animales y plantas fluyeran por la tierra. AT: "Sin duda es excelente para criar ganado y cultivar" o "Sin duda es una tierra muy fértil"

Leche
Dado que la leche proviene de vacas y cabras, representa el ganado y los alimentos producidos a partir del ganado. AT: "alimentos de ganado"

miel
Dado que la miel se produce a partir de flores, representa los cultivos y los alimentos producidos a partir de los cultivos. AT: "alimentos de cultivos"

Numbers 13:30

Caleb
Caleb fue uno de los doce espías israelitas que Moisés envió a explorar la tierra de Canaán. Él y Josué le dijeron a la gente que confiara en Dios para ayudarles a derrotar a los cananeos. Josué y Caleb fueron los únicos hombres de su generación que pudieron ingresar a la Tierra Prometida de Canaán. Caleb solicitó que la tierra de Hebrón se le entregara a él y a su familia. Él sabía que Dios lo ayudaría a derrotar a las personas que vivían allí.

animar, alentar
Los términos "animar" y "alentar" se refieren a decir y hacer cosas para que alguien tenga consuelo, esperanza, confianza y valor. Un término similar es "exhortar", que significa instar a alguien a rechazar una actividad que está mal y, en cambio, a hacer cosas que son buenas y correctas. El apóstol Pablo y otros escritores del Nuevo Testamento enseñaron a los cristianos a animarse unos a otros para amar y servir a los demás.
Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, las formas de traducir "alentar" podrían incluir, "urgencia" o "comodidad" o "decir cosas amables" o "ayuda y apoyo". La frase "dar palabras de aliento" significa "decir cosas que

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hacen que otras personas se sientan amadas, aceptadas y empoderadas".

Numbers 13:32

se esparcieron alrededor ... dijeron
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a todos los hombres que examinaron la tierra, excepto Caleb y Josué.

la tierra que habían examinado
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a todos los hombres que examinaron la tierra, incluidos Caleb y Josué.

Una tierra que se come a sus habitantes.
Los hombres hablan de la tierra, o de la gente de la tierra, siendo muy peligrosos como si la tierra consumiera a la gente. AT: "una tierra muy peligrosa" o "una tierra donde la gente nos matará"

Anac
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

A nuestra vista ... a su vista.
Aquí la vista representa la opinión. AT: "En nuestra opinión ... en su opinión"

Éramos como saltamontes en comparación con ellos.
Los hombres hablan de saltamontes para mostrar cuán pequeños se creían que se comparaban con la gente de la tierra. AT: "somos tan pequeños como saltamontes en comparación con ellos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 Esa noche, toda la comunidad lloró en voz alta. 2 Todo el pueblo de Israel criticó a Moisés y Aaron. Toda la comunidad les dijo: "¡Nosotros desearíamos haber muerto en la tierra de Egipto, o aquí en este desierto! 3 ¿Por qué EL SEÑOR nos trajo a esta tierra para morir a espada? Nuestras esposas y nuestros pequeños serán víctimas. ¿No es mejor para nosotros regresar a Egipto?" 4 Ellos se dijeron unos a otros: "Déjennos escoger otro jefe, y déjennos regresar a Egipto." 5 Entonces Moisés y Aaron se acostaron bocabajo frente a toda la asamblea de la comunidad del pueblo de Israel. 6 Josué hijo de Nun y Caleb hijo de Jefone, que eran algunos de los enviados a explorar la tierra, rompieron su ropa. 7 Hablaron a toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel. Dijeron: "La tierra por la que pasamos y exploramos es una tierra muy buena. 8 Si EL SEÑOR está complacido con nosotros, entonces Él nos llevará a esta tierra y nos la dará a nosotros. De la tierra fluye leche y miel." 9 Pero no se rebelen contra EL SEÑOR, y no le teman al pueblo de esta tierra. Nosotros los consumiremos a ellos tan fácil como a la comida. Su protección será removida de ellos, porque EL SEÑOR está con nosotros. No les teman." 10 Pero toda la comunidad los amenazó con apedrealos hasta la muerte. Entonces la gloria del SEÑOR apareció en la tienda de reunión a todo el pueblo de Israel. 11 El SEÑOR le dijó a Moisés: "¿Cuánto tiempo más este pueblo me despreciará? ¿Cuánto tiempo más fallarán en confiar en mi, a pesar de toda las señales de mi poder que he hecho en medio de ellos? 12 Los atacaré con plagas, los desheredaré, haré de tu propia familia una nación que será más grande y poderosa de lo que ellos son." 13 Moisés le dijo al SEÑOR: "Si tú haces esto, entonces los egipcios escucharán esto, porque Tú rescastaste de ellos a este pueblo con Tú poder. 14 Ellos se lo dirán a los habitantes de esta tierra. Ellos han escuchado que Tú SEÑOR, estás con estas personas, porque has sido visto cara a cara. Tu nube está sobre Tu pueblo. Tú vas delante de ellos en una columna de nube en el día y en una columna de fuego por la noche." 15 Ahora si matas a este pueblo como a un hombre, entonces todas las naciones que han escuchado de tu fama hablarán y dirán: 16 "Porque EL SEÑOR no puede llevar a este pueblo a la tierra que Él juró darles, los ha matado en el desierto." 17 Ahora, te suplico, usa tu gran poder. Pues Tú has dicho: 18 "El SEÑOR es lento para enojarse y grande en misericordia. Perdona la maldad y la rebeldia. De ninguna manera, tendra por inocente al culpable cuando traiga el castigo de los pecados de los antepasados en sus descendientes, a la tercera y cuarta generación.' 19 Perdona, te ruego, el pecado de este pueblo, por la grandeza de tu misericordia, así como siempre has perdonado a este pueblo desde el tiempo que estuvieron en Egipto hasta ahora. 20 El SEÑOR dijo: "Yo los he perdonado a ellos, de acuerdo a tu petición, 21 pero de verdad, como Yo vivo, y como toda la tierra será llena de mí gloria, 22 todas aquellas personas que vieron mi gloria y las señales de poder que Yo hice en Egipto y en el desierto, ellos aún me han tentado estas diez veces y no han escuchado mi voz. 23 Así que, Yo digo que no verán la tierra, que juré a sus antepasados. Ninguno de aquellos que me han despreciado la verán, 24 excepto por mi siervo Caleb, porque tenía otro espíritu. Él me ha seguido completamente; yo lo traeré a la tierra que fue a explorar. Sus descendientes la poseerán. 25 (Ahora los amalecitas y los cananeos viven el el valle.) Mañana vuelve y ve al desierto, por el camino del Mar de Juncos." 26 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aaron. Y Él dijo: 27 "¿Cuánto tiempo debo Yo tolerar a esta comunidad malvada que me critica? He escuchado la queja del pueblo de Israel en contra mía." 28 Diles: 'Como vivo Yo' dice EL SEÑOR ' como han hablado a mis oidos, haré esto a ustedes: 29 Sus cuerpos muertos caerán en este desierto, todos ustedes que se quejaron en contra mía, ustedes que fueron contados en el censo, el número completo de las personas de veinte años en adelante. 30 Ustedes no entrarán a la tierra que prometí hacer su hogar, excepto Caleb, hijo de Jefone y Josué, hijo de Nun. 31 Pero sus pequeños, aquellos que dijeron que serían víctimas, Yo los llevaré a la tierra. ¡Ellos conocerán la tierra que ustedes han rechazado! 32 En cuanto a ustedes, sus cuerpos muertos caerán en el desierto. 33 Sus hijos serán pastores en el desierto por cuarenta años. Ellos llevarán las consecuencias de sus actos de rebelión hasta que todos ustedes mueran en el desierto. 34 Así como los días que exploraron la tierra, cuarenta días, ustedes deberán igualmente llevar las consecuencias de sus pecados por cuarenta años, un año por cada día, y deben saber que se siente ser mi enemigo. 35 Yo, EL SEÑOR he hablado. Yo, ciertamente, haré esto a toda esta comunidad malvada que se han juntado contra mí. Serán completamente cortados, y aquí morirán."' 36 Así que, los hombres que Moisés habia enviado a explorar la tierra, todos murieron por la plaga, delante del SEÑOR. 37 Estos fueron los hombres que habían regresado y trajeron un mal reporte acerca de la tierra. Esto hizo que toda la comunidad se quejara contra Moisés. 38 De esos hombres que fueron a explorar la tierra, solo Josué, hijo de Nun y Caleb, hijo de Jefone quedaron con vida. 39 Cuando Moisés reportó estas palabras a todo el pueblo de Israel, lloraron profundamente. 40 Se levantaron temprano en la mañana y fueron a lo alto de la montaña y dijeron:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"Mira, estamos aquí, y nosotros iremos al lugar que EL SEÑOR ha prometido, pues nosotros hemos pecado." 41 Pero Moisés dijo: "¿Por qué desobedecen el mandamiento del SEÑOR? Ustedes no tendrán éxito. 42 No vayan, porque EL SEÑOR no está con ustedes para evitar que sean derrotados por sus enemigos. 43 Los amalecitas y los cananeos están allí, y morirán por la espada porque se volvieron de seguir al SEÑOR. Así que, Él no estará con ustedes." 44 Pero ellos insistieron en subir a la montaña; sin embargo, ni Moisés ni el arca del pacto del SEÑOR dejó el campamento. 45 Luego los amalecitas bajaron, al igual que los cananeos, quienes vivían en esas montañas. Atacaron a los israelitas y los vencieron en todo el camino a Horma.

Numbers 14:1

¿Por qué El Señor nos trajo a esta tierra para morir por la espada?
La gente usa esta pregunta para quejarse y acusar a El Señor de tratarlos injustamente. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "El Señorno debería habernos traído a esta tierra solo para morir por la espada".

morir por la espada
Aquí "la espada" representa ser matado por la espada o ser matado en la batalla. AT: "morir cuando las personas nos atacan con espadas" o "morir en batalla"

¿No es mejor para nosotros regresar a Egipto?
La gente usa esta pregunta para alentar a la gente a estar de acuerdo con ellos en que sería mejor regresar a Egipto. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Sería mejor para nosotros regresar a Egipto que tratar de conquistar Canaán".

Numbers 14:4

Se dijeron el uno al otro Esto se refiere al pueblo de Israel.

tumbado boca abajo
"Recuéstate con sus caras tocando el suelo". Moisés y Aarón hicieron esto para demostrar que se estaban humillando ante Dios. Temían que Dios castigara a la gente por rebelarse contra él. AT: "acuéstate boca abajo en humildad a Dios" o "acuéstate boca abajo para orar a Dios"

Numbers 14:6

Nun ... Jefone
Estos son nombres de hombres.

quienes fueron algunos de los enviados Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "quienes fueron algunos de los que Moisés envió"

rasgaron sus ropas
Rasgar la ropa fue un gesto que indica que la persona está muy preocupada y está de luto.

La tierra fluye con leche y miel.
Hablaron de que la tierra era buena para los animales y las plantas como si la leche y la miel de esos animales y plantas fluyeran a través de ella. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:27. AT: "Es excelente para criar ganado y cultivar" o "Es una tierra muy fértil"

Numbers 14:9

Declaración de conexión:
Josué y Caleb continúan hablando con el pueblo de Israel.

Los consumiremos tan fácilmente como los alimentos.
Josué y Caleb hablan de destruir a sus enemigos como si fueran a comérselos. AT: "Los destruiremos tan fácilmente como podamos comer alimentos"

Su protección les será quitada.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "El Señor les quitará la protección"

Su proteccion
Esto se refiere a quien o lo que pueda protegerlos. AT: "Cualquiera que pueda protegerlos"

Numbers 14:11

¿Cuánto tiempo debe esta gente despreciarme? ¿Cuánto tiempo deben dejar de confiar en mí, a pesar de todas las señales ... de ellos?
El Señor usa estas preguntas para mostrar que estaba enojado y que había perdido la paciencia con la gente. Se pueden traducir como declaraciones. AT: "Esta gente me ha despreciado durante demasiado tiempo. No han podido confiar en mí durante demasiado tiempo, a pesar de todas las señales ... de ellos".

desheredarlos
"Recházalos de ser mi pueblo". Esto puede implicar que los destruiría, y algunas versiones lo traducen de esa manera.

haz de tu propio clan
Aquí "tu" es singular y se refiere a Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 14:13

te ven cara a cara
Los posibles significados son 1) Moisés habla de que Dios se muestra a sí mismo a su pueblo como si Dios le hubiera permitido ver su rostro. AT: "te han visto" 2) Moisés habla de la relación íntima entre él y Dios como si Moisés pudiera ver el rostro de Dios cuando Dios le hablaba. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "usted me habla directamente"

Numbers 14:15

como un hombre
Matarlos a todos al mismo tiempo se habla de matarlos como a una sola persona. AT: "todo a la vez"

Numbers 14:17

De ninguna manera va alimpiar a los culpables.
"Ciertamente no va a limpiar a los culpables". Eliminar el pecado de la gente es una metáfora de negarse a castigarlos. Dios no quita el pecado de los culpables. AT: "Él siempre castigará a los culpables"

Cuando trae el castigo del pecado de los antepasados sobre sus descendientes.
Se habla de castigar a las personas como si el castigo fuera un objeto que pudiera traerse y ponerse sobre las personas. AT: "cuando castiga a los descendientes de los culpables por los pecados de los culpables"

Numbers 14:20

Toda la tierra será llena de mi gloria.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "mi gloria llenará toda la tierra"

todavía me han tentado
"me han seguido probando"

estas diez veces
Aquí el número 10 representa demasiadas veces. AT: "demasiadas veces"

no han escuchado mi voz Aquí "escuchado" representa obediencia, y la voz de Dios representa lo que él dijo. AT: "no he obedecido lo que he dicho"

Numbers 14:23

Declaración de conexión:
El Señor sigue hablando a Moisés.

porque tenia otro espiritu
Aquí el "espíritu" representa su actitud. Caleb estaba dispuesto a obedecer a Dios. Cuál fue su actitud se puede decir claramente. AT: "porque tenía una actitud diferente" o "porque estaba dispuesto a obedecer a Dios"

Numbers 14:26

¿Cuánto tiempo debo tolerar esta comunidad malvada que me critica?
El Señor hace esta pregunta porque él ha perdido la paciencia con la gente. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "He tolerado a esta comunidad malvada que me ha criticado el tiempo suficiente".

He escuchado las quejas del pueblo de Israel
La palabra "quejarse", un nombre abstracto, se puede expresar como un verbo. AT: "He oído a la gente de Israel quejarse"

Numbers 14:28

como has hablado en mi audiencia
"como te he oído decir"

Tus cadáveres caerán
La caída de sus cuerpos muertos los representa muriendo. AT: "Morirás"

ustedes que fueron contados en el censo Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "tú a quien Moisés contó en el censo"

A partir de los veinte años.
"veinte años y mayores"

Numbers 14:31

tus cuerpos muertos caerán
La caída de sus cuerpos muertos los representa muriendo. AT: "morirás"

Tus hijos serán pastores en el desierto.
Algunas versiones modernas eligen traducir: "Tus hijos vagarán en el desierto". Esto se debe a que en la antigüedad, los pastores solían vagar de un lugar a otro para que sus rebaños y manadas pudieran encontrar pastos.

Deben soportar las consecuencias de tus actos.
"Deben sufrir las consecuencias de tus actos" o "Deben sufrir por tus actos"

Hasta el final de tus cadáveres.
Un cadáver es un cuerpo muerto. El final de sus cadáveres representa el último de los que murieron. AT: "hasta que el último de ustedes muera" o "hasta que todos ustedes mueran"

Numbers 14:34

soportar las consecuencias de tus pecados
"sufre las consecuencias de tus pecados" o "sufre por tus pecados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ellos serán completamente cortados
Esto probablemente significa que ya no existirán. AT: "llegarán a su fin" o "todos serán destruidos"

Numbers 14:36

Así que los hombres que ... se quejan de Moisés
La información en 14:36 se ha reorganizado para que su significado pueda entenderse más fácilmente.

Numbers 14:39

Mira
"Mira" aquí añade énfasis a lo que sigue. "En efecto"

Numbers 14:41

¿Por qué ahora estás violando el mandato de El Señor?
Moisés hace esta pregunta para reprender al pueblo de Israel. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "No deberías estar violando el mandato de El Señor otra vez".

El Señor no está contigo
Se dice que ayudar con ellos es estar con ellos. EN: "El señorno te ayudará" para evitar que seas derrotado por tus enemigos Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "para evitar que tus enemigos te derroten" o "para darte la victoria sobre tus enemigos"

Morirás por la espada Aquí "la espada" se refiere a la batalla. AT: "morirás en la batalla" o "te matarán cuando luches contra ellos"

te apartaste de seguir a El Señor Se dice que obedecer a El Señor lo sigue, y dejar de hacer lo que se dice es que se aleja de él. AT: "dejaste de obedecer a El Señor" o "has decidido no obedecer a El Señor"

el no estará contigo
Se dice que ayudar con ellos es estar con ellos. AT: "él no te ayudará"

Numbers 14:44

se presume que subirían a la región montañosa
"Se atrevieron a subir a la región montañosa a pesar de que Dios no lo aprobó".

en la región montañosa
Gran parte de la tierra de Israel está elevada. Cuando los israelitas cruzaron el valle del río Jordán para atacar a los cananeos, hubo colinas que tuvieron que escalar para ir más lejos en la tierra de Canaán.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 Luego EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 2 "Háblale al pueblo de Israel y diles a ellos: 'Cuando vayan a la tierra donde vivirán, la cual EL SEÑOR les dará, 3 prepararán una ofrenda por fuego al SEÑOR, ya sea una ofrenda quemada o un sacrifico para cumplir un voto o una ofrenda voluntaria, o una ofrenda en sus fiestas, para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR, de la manada o del rebaño. 4 Tienen que ofrecerle al SEÑOR una ofrenda quemada, al igual que una ofrenda de cereal de una décima de una efa de harina fina amasada con un cuarto de litro de aceite. 5 Tú también tienes que ofrecer una ofrenda quemada, o para el sacrificio, un cuarto de litro de vino para la ofrenda de bebida por cada cordero. 6 Si están ofreciendo un carnero, tienen que preparar una ofrenda de grano, dos décimas de una efa de harina fina amasada con un tercio de un litro de aceite. 7 Para las ofrendas de bebidas, deben ofrecer un tercio de un litro de vino. Producirá un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. 8 Cuando preparen un toro como una ofrenda quemada o como un sacrificio para cumplir un voto, o como una ofrenda de paz para EL SEÑOR, 9 luego tienen que ofrecer con el toro una ofrenda de grano de tres décimas de un efa de harina fina amasada con un litro de aceite. 10 Ustedes tienen que ofrecerla como la ofrenda de bebida medio litro de vino, como una ofrenda hecha por fuego, para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. 11 Tiene que ser hecho de esta manera por cada toro, por cada carnero y por cada cordero o cabrito. 12 Cada sacrificio que prepraren y ofrezcan tiene que ser hecho como está descrito aquí. 13 Todos los que son nativos israelitas tienen que hacer estas cosas de esta manera, cuando cualquiera traiga una ofrenda hecha por fuego, para producir un aroma que sea agradable para EL SEÑOR. 14 Si un extranjero se está quedando con ustedes, o quien sea que viva entre ustedes por las generaciónes de su pueblo, tiene que hacer una ofrenda hecha por fuego, para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. Tiene que actuar como ustedes actúan. 15 Tiene que haber la misma ley para la comunidad y para el extranjero que se quede con ustedes, una ley permanente para las generaciones de su pueblo. Como ustedes son, así también tiene que ser el viajero que se quede con ustedes. Él tiene que actuar como ustedes actúan ante EL SEÑOR. 16 La misma ley y decreto tiene que aplicarse a ustedes y al extranjero que se está quedando con ustedes.'" 17 Otra vez EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 18 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Cuando vayan a la tierra donde Yo los llevaré, 19 cuando coman la comida producida en la tierra, tienen que ofrecer una ofrenda y presentármela a Mí. 20 Desde su primera masa tienen que ofrecer una rebanada para levantarla como una ofrenda levantada del suelo de trillar. Tienen que levantarla de esta manera. 21 Tienen que dármela a Mí como una ofrenda levantada por las generaciones de su pueblo, desde la primera masa. 22 Algunas veces pecarán sin intención de hacerlo, cuando no obedezccan todas estas órdenes que Yo he hablado a Moisés-- 23 todo lo que Yo les he ordenado a través de Moisés desde el día que Yo comencé a darles órdenes y en adelante por las generaciones su pueblo. 24 En el caso de pecado sin intención sin el conocimiento de la comunidad, entonces toda la comunidad tiene que ofrecer un becerro como una ofrenda quemada para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. Junto con esto tiene que ser hecha una ofrenda de grano y ofrenda de bebida, como ordenado por la ley, y un macho cabrío como una ofrenda de pecado. 25 El sacerdote tiene que hacer una expiación por toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel. Serán perdonados porque el pecado fue un error. Han traído sus sacrificios, una ofrenda hecha por fuego para Mí. Han traído su ofrenda por el pecado ante Mí por su error. 26 Luego toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel será perdonada, y también los extranjeros que se estén quedando con ellos, porque todo el pueblo cometió el pecado sin intención. 27 Si una persona peca sin intención, entonces debe ofrecer una cabra de un año como una ofrenda por el pecado. 28 El sacerdote tiene que hacer una expiación ante EL SEÑOR por la persona que peque sin intención. La persona será perdonada cuando la expiación haya sido hecha. 29 Tienen que tener la misma ley para el que haga algo sin intención, la misma ley para el que es nativo entre el pueblo de Israel y para los extranjeros que se estén quedando entre ustedes. 30 Pero la persona que haga algo en desafío, ya sea el nativo o un extranjero, me blasfema a Mí. Esa persona debe ser cortada de su pueblo. 31 Porque ha despreciado Mi palabra y ha roto Mi mandamiento, esa persona debe ser cortada completamente. Su pecado va a estar sobre él.'" 32 Mientras el pueblo de Israel estaba en el desierto, encontraron a un hombre juntando leña en el día de reposo. 33 Aquellos que lo encontraron lo trajeron a Moisés, a Aarón y a toda la comunidad. 34 Lo mantuvieron en custodia porque no había sido declarado lo que debía hacerse con él. 35 Luego EL SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "El hombre ciertamente debe morir. Toda la comunidad debe apedrearlo con piedras fuera del campamento." 36 Así que, toda la comunidad lo llevó fuera del campamento y lo apedreó hasta la muerte como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 37 Otra vez EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés. Él dijo: 38 "Háblale a los descendientes de Israel y ordénales que se hagan flecos para que cuelguen de los bordes de sus ropas, para colgarlas de cada borde con un cordón azúl. Deben hacer esto por las

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generaciones de su pueblo. 39 Esto será un recordatorio especial para ustedes de todos mis mandamientos cuando los vean, para que no vean sus propios corazones, y sus propios ojos y se prostituyan. 40 Hagan esto para que puedan traer a la memoria y obedecer todos mis mandamientos, y para que puedan ser santos, apartados para Mí, su Dios. 41 Yo soy EL SEÑOR su Dios, quien los sacó de la tierra de Egipto, para convertirme en su Dios. Yo soy EL SEÑOR su Dios."

Numbers 15:1

Información general:
Números 15: 1-32 dice lo que Dios le dijo a Moisés que le contara a la gente de Israel.

Para producir un aroma agradable para El Señor desde la manada o el rebaño.
"para producir de la manada o rebaño un olor que agrada a El Señor". El placer del Señor con el aroma representa su placer con la persona que quema la ofrenda. AT: "complacer a El Señor quemando un sacrificio de la manada o del rebaño"

Numbers 15:4

una ofrenda quemada
Esto se refiere a las ofrendas mencionadas en 15: 4.

una décima parte de un efa
Un efa es una unidad de volumen igual a unos 22 litros. AT: "unos 2 litros" o "dos litros"

una cuarta parte de un hin cuarto de un hin - Un hin es una unidad de volumen igual a aproximadamente 3.7 litros. AT: "alrededor de 1 litro" o "un litro"

Numbers 15:6

dos décimas de un efa
Un efa es una unidad de volumen igual a unos 22 litros. AT: "4 litros" o "cuatro litros y medio"

un tercio de un hin
Un hin es una unidad de volumen igual a aproximadamente 3,7 litros. AT: "un litro"

Producirá un dulce aroma para El Señor.
"Producirá un olor que agrada a El Señor". El placer del Señor con el aroma representa su placer con la persona que quema la ofrenda. AT: "Usted agradará a El Señor ofreciéndolo"

Numbers 15:8

tres décimas de un efa Puedes convertir esto a una medida moderna. AT: "seis litros y medio"

medio hin
Puede convertir esto a una medida moderna en: "dos litros"

hecho por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "aquello que quemas en el altar"

Producir un dulce aroma para El Señor.
"Para producir un olor que agrada a El Señor". Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofrece el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio. AT: "complacer a El Señorofreciéndolo"

Numbers 15:11

Debe hacerse
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Debes hacerlo" debe hacerse como se describe Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "debes hacer lo que te he descrito"

hecho por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "que se queman en el altar"

Producir un aroma agradable a El Señor.
"Para producir un olor que agrada a El Señor". Se le dice a El Señorque está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofrece el sacrificio como si El Señor estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio. AT: "complacer a El Señor ofreciéndolo"

Numbers 15:14

él debe hacer una ofrenda hecha por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "debe quemar una ofrenda en el altar"

Producir un dulce aroma para El Señor.
"Para producir un olor que agrada a El Señor". Se dice que el Señor está complacido con el adorador sincero que ofrece el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio. AT: "complacer a El Señor ofreciéndolo"

Como eres, también debe ser el viajero.
Los posibles significados son 1) "Usted y el viajero que se hospeda con usted son iguales ante El Señor" 2) "La misma ley se aplica tanto a usted como al viajero"

Él debe actuar como tú actúas ante El Señor.
"Él debe actuar como tú actúas en la presencia de El Señor. Debido a que dice que deben actuar como

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los israelitas en la presencia de El Señor, se implica que deben obedecer todos los mandamientos de El Señor. AT:" debe actuar como tú actúas y obedecer todos Los mandamientos de Jehová "

Numbers 15:17

La comida producida en la tierra.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "el alimento que produce la tierra" o "el alimento que usted produce en la tierra"

Numbers 15:20

el primero de tu masa
Los posibles significados son que esto se refiere a 1) el primer grano que recolectarían durante la cosecha 2) la masa que harían del primero de su grano.

un pan
Llamarlo un pan implica que primero cocinarían la masa.

levantarlo como ofrenda elevada
Este lenguaje "levántalo" se refiere a ofrecerlo como un regalo. AT: "Ofrecerlo como regalo".

una ofrenda elevada de la trilla
Se dice que la ofrenda proviene de la era de la trilla porque aquí es donde separarían el grano de las otras partes de la planta.

Numbers 15:22

Declaración conectiva
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que debe decirle a la gente.

Información general:
La palabra "usted" aquí se refiere a los israelitas.

Producir un dulce aroma para El Señor.
"Para producir un olor que agrada a El Señor". Se dice que el Señor está complacido con los adoradores sinceros que ofrecen el sacrificio como si Dios estuviera complacido con el aroma del sacrificio. AT: "complacer a El Señor quemándolo"

Debe hacerse una ofrenda de grano y una ofrenda de bebida.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "debes hacer una ofrenda de grano y una ofrenda de bebida"

según lo ordenado por el decreto
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "como ordena el decreto" o "como ordené cuando hice el decreto"

Numbers 15:25

Serán perdonados
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Los perdonaré"

hecho por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que hicieron fuego" o "que quemaron en el altar"

Toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel será perdonada.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Perdonaré a toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel"

Numbers 15:27

una cabra de un año
"Una cabra de un año"

Esa persona será perdonada cuando se haya hecho expiación.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Perdonaré a esa persona cuando el sacerdote haya hecho expiación"

Numbers 15:30

Esa persona debe ser separada de entre su gente
La metáfora "cortado" tiene al menos tres significados posibles. Se pueden expresar en forma activa: 1) "su gente debe enviarlo lejos" 2) "Ya no lo consideraré como uno de los pueblos de Israel" 3) "su gente debe matarlo".

Ha quebrantado mi mandamiento
No se habla de obedecer un mandamiento como quebrantarlo. AT: "ha desobedecido mi mandamiento" "no ha obedecido lo que he ordenado"

Su pecado estará sobre él.
Aquí "pecado" representa 1) castigo por ese pecado 2) culpa de ese pecado. El hecho de estar con él es una metáfora de 1) ser castigado o 2) ser culpable. AT: 1) "Lo castigaré por su pecado" 2) "Lo consideraré culpable"

Numbers 15:32

No se había declarado qué debía hacerse con él.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "El Señor no había declarado qué debían hacer con él"

Numbers 15:35

El hombre seguramente debe ser condenado a muerte.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Seguramente debes dar muerte al hombre" o "El hombre debe morir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 15:37

los descendientes de israel
Israel era otro nombre para Jacob. El pueblo de Israel eran sus descendientes. EN: "El pueblo de Israel" para llevarlos a cabo

"obedecerlos"

Para que no mires a tu propio corazón y tus propios ojos.
"Mirar a" aquí hay una metáfora para pensar. El corazón representa lo que una persona quiere, y los ojos representan lo que una persona ve y quiere. AT "para que no pienses en lo que quieras"

prostitúyanse con ellos
Ser infiel a Dios al elegir hacer lo que quiera se habla de ellos como si fueran mujeres que le fueron infieles a su esposo al elegir tener relaciones pecaminosas con otros hombres. Se puede decir claramente que esto fue algo vergonzoso. AT: "sé vergonzosamente infiel a mí" o "haz esas cosas en lugar de obedecerme"

Numbers 15:40

Declaración de conectiva:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés qué decirle al pueblo de Israel. La palabra "tú" se refiere a la gente.

llamar a la mente
Este es un idioma. AT: "recuerda"

Yo soy Jehová tu Dios
Esta cláusula se repite para enfatizar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 Coré, hijo de Izhaer, hijo de Coat, hijo de Leví, junto a Datán y Abiram, hijos de Eliab, y On, hijo de Pelet, descendientes de Rubén, reunieron algunos hombres. 2 Se levantaron en contra de Moisés, junto con otros hombres del pueblo de Israel, doscientos cincuenta jefes de la comunidad, que eran muy conocidos en la comunidad. 3 Se reunieron en asamblea juntos para confrontar a Moisés y Aarón. Les dijeron: "¡Ustedes han ido muy lejos! Toda la comunidad está separada para EL SEÑOR, cada uno de ellos, y EL SEÑOR está entre ellos. ¿Por qué ustedes se levantan por encima del resto de la comunidad del SEÑOR? 4 Cuando Moisés escuchó eso, se acostó, rostro en tierra. 5 Habló a Coré y a todos los que estaban con él: "En la mañana EL SEÑOR dará a conocer quién le pertenece a Él y quién está separado de Él. Él traerá a esa persona cerca de Él. Al que Él escoja, Él lo atraerá cerca de Sí mismo. 6 Haz esto, Coré y todo tu grupo. Toma incensarios 7 mañana y coloca fuego y pon incienso en ellos ante EL SEÑOR. El que EL SEÑOR escoja, ese hombre será apartado para EL SEÑOR. Ustedes han ido muy lejos, ustedes descendientes de Leví." 8 Otra vez, Moisés dijo a Coré: "Ahora escuchen, descendientes de Leví: 9 ¿es para ustedes cosa pequeña que el Dios de Israel los haya separado de la comunidad de Israel, para atraerlos cerca de Él, para hacer trabajo en la tienda reunión del SEÑOR, y para estar en pie ante la comunidad para servirles? 10 Él te ha traído cerca, y todos tus hermanos, los descendientes de Leví, contigo, ¡aún así estás buscando el sacerdocio también! 11 Eso es porque tú y todo tu grupo se ha reunido en contra del SEÑOR. ¿Así que por qué te estás quejando de Aarón, quien obedece al SEÑOR?" 12 Entonces Moisés llamó a Datán y Abiram, los hijos de Eliab, pero ellos dijeron: "Nosotros no iremos. 13 ¿Es una cosa pequeña que tú nos hayas sacado de una tierra que fluye leche y miel, para matarnos en el desierto? ¡Ahora quieres hacerte gobernante sobre nosotros! 14 Ademas, tú no nos has traído a una tierra que fluye leche y miel, ni nos has dado campos y viñas como herencia. ¿Ahora quieres cegarnos con promesas vacías? Nosotros no iremos a ti." 15 Moisés estaba muy enojado y le dijo al SEÑOR: "No respetes su ofrenda. No he tomado un asno de ellos, y no he dañado a ninguno de ellos." 16 Entonces Moisés le dijo a Coré: "Mañana tú y tu compañía debe ir ante EL SEÑOR-- tú y ellos, y Aarón. 17 Cada uno de ustedes debe tomar su incesario y colocar incienso en él. Entonces cada hombre debe traer ante EL SEÑOR su incensario, doscientos cincuenta incensarios. Tú y Aarón, también, debe cada uno traer su insensario." 18 Así que cada hombre tomó su incensario, colocó fuego en él, y puso incienso en él, y se detuvieron a la entrada de la tienda de reunión con Moisés y Aarón. 19 Coré reunió toda la comunidad en contra de Moisés y Aarón a la entrada de la tienda de reunión, y la gloria del SEÑOR apareció a toda la comunidad. 20 Entonces EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aarón: 21 "Sepárense ustedes de entre esta comunidad para que Yo los consuma a ellos inmediatamente." 22 Moisés y Aarón se acostaron boca abajo y dijeron: "Dios, Dios de los espíritus de toda la humanidad, si un hombre peca, ¿debes Tú estar enojado con toda la comunidad?" 23 El SEÑOR respondió a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 24 "Habla a la comunidad. Diles: 'Aléjense de la tienda de Coré, Datán y Abiram.'" 25 Entonces Moisés se levantó y fue a Datán y Abiram; los ancianos de Israel lo siguieron. 26 Él habló a la comunidad y dijo: "Ahora dejen las tiendas de estos hombres malvados y no toquen nada de ellos, o ustedes serán consumidos por todos sus pecados." 27 Así que la comunidad de todos los lados de las tiendas de Coré, Datán y Abiram los dejaron. Datán y Abiram salieron y se detuvieron a la entrada de sus tiendas, con sus esposas, hijos y sus pequeños. 28 Entonces Moisés dijo: "De esta manera ustedes sabrán que EL SEÑOR me ha enviado a hacer todos estos trabajos, por cuanto no los he hecho por mi propia cuenta. 29 Si estos hombres mueren de muerte natural como normalmente ocurre, entonces EL SEÑOR no me ha enviado a mí. 30 Pero si EL SEÑOR crea una abertura en la tierra que se los trague como una boca grande, junto a todas sus familias, y si bajan vivos al Seol, entonces ustedes deben comprender que estos hombres han despreciado al SEÑOR." 31 Tan pronto Moisés terminó de hablar estas palabras, la tierra se abrió debajo de estos hombres. 32 La tierra abrió su boca y se los tragó a ellos, sus familias y toda la gente que pertenecía a Coré, como también todas sus posesiones. 33 Ellos, y todos en sus familias, bajaron vivos al Seol. La tierra se cerró sobre ellos, y de esta manera perecieron de en medio de la comunidad. 34 Todo Israel alrededor de ellos huyeron de sus gritos. Ellos exclamaron: "¡La tierra puede tragarnos a nosotros también!" 35 Entonces fuego salió del SEÑOR y devoró a los 250 hombres que habían ofrecido incienso. 36 Otra vez EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y ÉL dijo: 37 "Habla a Eleazar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote, y permítele tomar los incensarios de las llamas, por cuanto los incensarios son separados para Mí. Entonces, déjale regar los carbones encendidos a una distancia. 38 Toma los incensarios de aquellos que perdieron sus vidas por su pecado. Deja que sean hechos platos amartillados como una cubierta sobre el altar. Esos hombres los ofrecieron delante de Mí, así que están separados para Mí. Serán una señal de mi presencia al pueblo de Israel." 39 Eleazar el

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

sacerdote tomó los incensarios de bronce que habían usado los hombres que fueron quemados, y fueron amartillados en una cubierta para el altar, 40 para ser un recordatorio al pueblo de Israel, para que ningún forastero que no fuera descendiente de Aarón pudiera venir a quemar incienso delante del SEÑOR, para que no vinieran a ser como Coré y su grupo-- tal como EL SEÑOR lo había mandado a través de Moisés. 41 Pero la siguiente mañana toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel se quejó contra Moisés y Aarón. Ellos dijeron: "Ustedes han matado a la gente del SEÑOR." 42 Entonces ocurrió, cuando la comunidad se reunió en contra de Moisés y Aarón, que miraron hacia la tienda de reunión y, he aquí, la nube la estaba cubriendo. La gloria del SEÑOR apareció, 43 y Moisés y Aarón vinieron al frente de la tienda de reunión. 44 Entonces EL SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 45 "Aléjate del frente de esta comunidad para que Yo pueda consumirlos inmediatamente." Entonces Moisés y Aarón se acostaron boca abajo. 46 Moisés le dijo a Aarón: "Toma el incensario, pon fuego en él del altar, pon incienso en él, llévalo rápidamente a la comunidad, y haz expiación por ellos, porque ira está viniendo del SEÑOR. La plaga ha comenzado." 47 Así que Aarón hizo según Moises le indicó. Corrió al centro de la comunidad. La plaga había comenzado a extenderse entre la gente, así que él puso incienso e hizo expiación por el pueblo. 48 Aarón se paró entre los muertos y los vivos; de esta forma la plaga se detuvo. 49 Aquellos muertos por la plaga fueron 14, 700 en número, además de aquellos muertos en el asunto de Coré. 50 Aarón regresó a Moisés en la entrada de la tienda de reunión, y la plaga cesó.

Numbers 16:1

Coat
Traduzca el nombre de este hombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:17.

se levantó contra Moisés
Se dice que rebelarse o criticar a alguien con autoridad como si estuvieran de pie para luchar. AT: "se rebeló contra Moisés"

doscientos cincuenta
"250"

Miembros conocidos en la comunidad.
miembros conocidos en la comunidad "miembros famosos de la comunidad" o "hombres importantes en la comunidad"

Has ido demasiado lejos
Esto representa hacer más de lo que uno debería. AT: "Has hecho más de lo que deberías" o "Asumes que tienes más autoridad de la que deberías"

¿Por qué os eleváis por encima del resto de la comunidad de El Señor?
Los hombres hacen esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés y Aarón. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Se equivocan al elevarse por encima del resto de la comunidad de El Señor".

Levántense por encima del resto Considerar a alguien importante es hablar de levantarlo. AT: "considérense más importantes que el resto"

Numbers 16:4

yacía boca abajo
Esto indica que Moisés se estaba humillando ante Dios. Temía que Dios castigara a la gente por rebelarse contra Dios y sus líderes elegidos.

quien se le aparta
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "a quien el SEÑOR ha apartado para sí mismo"

Numbers 16:6

Declaración de conexión:
Moisés continúa hablando con Coré y los hombres que estaban con Coré.

incensarios
Recipientes en los cuales quemar incienso.

antes de El Señor
Este es un idioma. EN: "en presencia de Jehová"

Ese hombre será apartado a Jehová.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "El Señor apartará a ese hombre para sí mismo"

Has ido demasiado lejos
Esto representa hacer más de lo que uno debería. AT: "Has hecho más de lo que deberías" o "Asumes que tienes más autoridad de la que deberías"

Numbers 16:8

¿Es algo pequeño para ti ... servirlos?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para reprender a Coré y a los hombres que están con él. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Se comporta como si fuera una cosa pequeña para usted ... servirlos" o "No debería considerarlo una cosa pequeña ... servirlos".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

una pequeña cosa para ti
"No es suficiente para ti" o "no es importante para ti"

también estás buscando el sacerdocio
Se habla de querer tener el sacerdocio como si lo estuvieran buscando. AT: "también quieres tener el sacerdocio" o "también quieres ser sacerdote"

Entonces, ¿por qué te quejas de Aarón, que obedece a El Señor?
Moisés usa esta pregunta para mostrarles que cuando se quejan de lo que hace Aarón, realmente se quejan de El Señor, porque Aarón estaba haciendo lo que Yahvé le dijo que hiciera. AT: "No te quejas realmente de Aarón, sino de El Señor, a quien Aarón obedece".

Numbers 16:12

¿Es algo pequeño que nos has traído ... para matarnos en el desierto?
Datán y Abiram usan esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Te comportas como si fuera una pequeña cosa que nos traigas ... para que podamos morir en el desierto".

una pequeña cosa
"No es suficiente" o "sin importancia"

una tierra que fluye leche y miel
Hablaron de que la tierra era buena para los animales y las plantas como si la leche y la miel de esos animales y plantas fluyeran por la tierra. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 14: 6. AT: "eso es excelente para criar ganado y cultivar" o "una tierra muy fértil"

como una herencia
Hablaron de lo que Dios les daría para que fueran suyos para siempre como si fuera una herencia.

¿Ahora quieres cegarnos con promesas vacías?
La gente usó esta pregunta para acusar a Moisés. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Ahora quieres cegarnos con promesas vacías".

para cegarnos
Se dice que engañar a la gente los hace ciegos. AT: "engañarnos"

con promesas vacias
Hablan de promesas que no se cumplen como si fueran contenedores vacíos. AT: "con promesas que no cumples" o "prometiendo hacer cosas que no haces"

Numbers 16:15

No les he quitado un asno.
Un burro aquí representa cualquier cosa que una persona mi toma de otra persona. AT: "No he tomado nada de ellos, ni siquiera un burro"

incensario
Un recipiente para quemar incienso.

Numbers 16:18

fuego
El fuego es el calor, la luz y las llamas que se producen cuando se quema algo. La leña quemada por el fuego convierte la madera en cenizas. El término "fuego" también se usa en sentido figurado, generalmente se refiere al juicio o la purificación. El juicio final de los incrédulos está en el fuego del infierno. El fuego se utiliza para refinar el oro y otros metales. En la Biblia, este proceso se usa para explicar cómo Dios refina a las personas a través de las cosas difíciles que suceden en sus vidas. La frase "bautizar con fuego" también podría traducirse como "hacer que experimentes el sufrimiento para purificarte".

tienda de reunión
El término "tienda de reunión" se refiere a una tienda de campaña que era un lugar temporal donde Dios se reunió con Moisés antes de que se construyera el tabernáculo. La tienda de reunión se estableció fuera del campamento de los israelitas. Cuando Moisés entró en la tienda de reunión para reunirse con Dios, una columna de nube se situaría a la entrada de la tienda como un signo de la presencia de Dios allí. Después de que los israelitas construyeron el tabernáculo, la tienda temporal ya no era necesaria y el término "tienda de reunión" se usaba a veces para referirse al tabernáculo.

Moisés
Moisés fue un profeta y líder de los israelitas por más de 40 años. Cuando Moisés era un bebé, los padres de Moisés lo pusieron en una canasta en las cañas del río Nilo para esconderlo del faraón egipcio. La hermana de Moisés, Miriam, lo cuidó allí. La vida de Moisés se salvó cuando la hija del faraón lo encontró y lo llevó al palacio para criarlo como su hijo. Dios eligió a Moisés para liberar a los israelitas de la esclavitud en Egipto y para guiarlos a la Tierra Prometida. Después de que los israelitas escaparon de Egipto y mientras vagaban por el desierto, Dios le dio a Moisés dos tablas de piedra con los Diez Mandamientos escritos en ellos. Cerca del final de su vida, Moisés vio la Tierra Prometida, pero no pudo vivir en ella porque desobedeció a Dios.

Aaron
Aarón era el hermano mayor de Moisés. Dios eligió a Aarón para ser el primer sumo sacerdote para el pueblo de Israel. Aarón ayudó a Moisés a hablarle a Faraón acerca de dejar que los israelitas salieran libres. Mientras los israelitas viajaban por el desierto, Aarón pecó al hacer un ídolo para que la gente adorara. Dios también designó a Aarón y sus descendientes para que fueran los sacerdotes para el pueblo

Core
Coré era el nombre de tres hombres en el Antiguo Testamento. Uno de los hijos de Esaú se llamaba Coré. Se convirtió en un líder en su comunidad. Coré también era descendiente de Leví y sirvió como sacerdote en el tabernáculo. Se puso celoso de Moisés y Aarón y llevó a un grupo de hombres a rebelarse contra ellos. Un tercer hombre llamado Coré está catalogado como descendiente de Judá.

Yahvé
El término "Yahvé" es el nombre personal de Dios que reveló cuando habló a Moisés en la zarza ardiente. El nombre "Yahvé" viene de la palabra que significa "ser" o "existir". Los posibles significados de "Yahvé" incluyen, "él es" o "Yo soy" o "el que causa ser". Este nombre revela que Dios siempre ha vivido y seguirá viviendo por siempre. También significa que él está siempre presente. Siguiendo la tradición, muchas versiones de la Biblia usan el término "SEÑOR" o "el SEÑOR" para representar a "Yahvé". Esta tradición resultó del hecho de que, históricamente, el pueblo judío temía pronunciar mal el nombre de Yahweh y comenzó a decir "Señor" cada vez que aparecía el término "Yahweh" en el texto. Las Biblias modernas escriben "LORD" con todas las letras mayúsculas para mostrar respeto por el nombre personal de Dios y para distinguirlo de "Lord", que es una palabra hebrea diferente. Los textos ULB y UDB siempre traducen este término como "Yahvé", como ocurre literalmente en el texto hebreo del Antiguo Testamento. El término "Yahvé" nunca aparece en el texto original del Nuevo Testamento; solo se usa el término griego para "Señor", incluso en citas del Antiguo Testamento. Sugerencias de traducción

"Yahvé" podría traducirse por una palabra o frase que signifique "yo soy" o "uno que vive" o "el que es" o "el que está vivo". Este término también podría escribirse de manera similar a cómo se deletrea "Yahvé". Algunas denominaciones de iglesias prefieren no usar el término "Yahvé" y en su lugar usan la traducción tradicional, "SEÑOR". Una consideración importante es que esto puede ser confuso cuando se lee en voz alta porque sonará igual que el título "Señor". Algunos idiomas pueden tener un afijo u otro marcador gramatical que podrían agregarse para distinguir "SEÑOR" como nombre

gloria glorioso
En general, el término "gloria" significa honor, esplendor y grandeza extrema. Todo lo que tiene gloria se dice que es "glorioso". A veces la "gloria" se refiere a algo de gran valor e importancia. En otros contextos, comunica esplendor, brillo o juicio. Por ejemplo, la expresión "gloria de los pastores" se refiere a los exuberantes pastos donde sus ovejas tenían mucho pasto para comer. La gloria se usa especialmente para describir a Dios, que es más glorioso que nadie ni nada en el universo. Todo en su carácter revela su gloria y su esplendor. La expresión "gloriarse" significa jactarse o enorgullecerse de algo. Sugerencias de traducción

Dependiendo del contexto, las diferentes formas de traducir "gloria" podrían incluir "esplendor" o "brillo" o "majestad" o "grandeza impresionante" o "valor extremo". El término "glorioso" se podría traducir como "lleno de gloria" o "extremadamente valioso" o "brillantemente brillante" o "increíblemente majestuoso". La expresión "glorificar a Dios" podría traducirse como "honrar la grandeza de Dios" o "alabar a Dios por su esplendor" o "decirle a otros cuán grande es Dios". La expresión "gloria en" también podría traducirse como "alabanza" o "enorgullecerse de" o "jactarse de" o "complacerse"

Numbers 16:20

para que yo pueda consumirlos Se dice que destruirlos es como si Dios se los tragara. AT: "para que pueda destruirlos" o "y los destruiré"

tumbado boca abajo
Esto muestra que Moisés y Aarón se estaban humillando ante Dios.

El Dios de los espíritus de toda la humanidad.
Aquí los "espíritus" representan la capacidad de vivir. AT: "El Dios que da vida a toda la humanidad".

Si un hombre peca, ¿debes estar enojado con toda la comunidad?
Moisés y Aarón usan esta pregunta para rogar a Dios por el pueblo. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "por favor, no te enojes con toda la comunidad porque un hombre peca"

Numbers 16:23

tienda
Una carpa es un refugio portátil hecho de tela resistente que se cubre con una estructura de postes y se fija a ellos. Las carpas pueden ser pequeñas, con suficiente espacio para que duerman algunas personas, o pueden ser muy grandes, con espacio para que una familia entera duerma, cocine y viva. Para muchas personas, las tiendas de campaña se utilizan como viviendas permanentes. Por ejemplo, durante la mayor parte del tiempo en que la familia de Abraham vivía en la tierra de Canaán, moraban en grandes carpas hechas de tela resistente hecha de pelo de cabra. Los israelitas también vivían en tiendas de campaña durante sus cuarenta años de peregrinación por el desierto de Sinaí. El edificio del tabernáculo era una especie de carpa muy grande, con paredes gruesas hechas de cortinas de tela. Cuando el apóstol Pablo viajó a diferentes ciudades para compartir el evangelio, hizo tiendas para ganar dinero para mantenerse a sí mismo. El término "tiendas de campaña" se usa a veces de manera figurada para referirse en general al lugar donde viven las personas. Esto también podría traducirse como "casas" o "viviendas" o "casas".

Numbers 16:25

serás consumido
Ser destruidos se habla de como si fueran comidos. AT: "serás destruido"

serás consumido por todos sus pecados
Ser destruido por sus pecados se habla de como si los pecados los destruyeran. AT: "serás destruido por todos sus pecados"

serás consumido por todos sus pecados
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "todos sus pecados te destruirán" o "El Señor te destruirá por todos sus pecados

Numbers 16:28

Por esto sabras
Aquí "esto" se refiere a lo que Moisés dirá a continuación.

que los traga como una gran boca
Moisés habla como si la tierra estuviera viva y la abertura en la tierra en la que caería esta gente era una boca grande que los comería. AT: "y caen en ella y están enterrados debajo de la tierra"

Numbers 16:31

La tierra abrió su boca y los tragó.
Moisés habla de la tierra como si estuviera viva, y el agujero en el que la gente cayó como si fuera la boca de la tierra. AT: "La tierra se abrió como una gran boca, y cayeron en ella y fueron enterrados en ella" o "Había un agujero gigante en el suelo, y cayeron en ella y fueron enterrados en ella"

Numbers 16:33

bajó vivo al Seol
Una frase similar ocurre en 16:28. Ver cómo se tradujo allí.

Ellos exclamaron
"Ellos" se refiere a "Todo Israel".

La tierra también puede tragarnos.
La gente habla de la tierra como si estuviera viva. AT: "La tierra podría abrirse y nosotros también caeremos en ella" o "Si la tierra se abre nuevamente, nosotros también caeremos en ella y seremos enterrados"

fuego salió de El Señor y devoró a los 250 hombres Ser destruidos por el fuego se habla de como si fueran devorados por el fuego. AT: "fuego salió de El Señor y destruyó a los 250 hombres"

Numbers 16:36

fuera de las llamas
Esto se refiere a las llamas que quemaron los 250 hombres.

los que perdieron la vida
Perder sus vidas representa morir. AT: "los que murieron"

Que se hagan
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a los incensarios. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "Deja que Eleazar los haga"

están apartados ... serán una señal
Aquí "ellos" y "ellos" se refieren a los incensarios.

Numbers 16:39

que había sido utilizado por los hombres que fueron quemados Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que habían usado los hombres a quienes había quemado el fuego".

volverse como Core y su grupo
La forma en que podrían llegar a ser como ellos se puede establecer claramente. AT "muere como Core y su grupo habían muerto"

Numbers 16:41

Entonces sucedió
Esta frase se usa aquí para marcar un evento importante en la historia. Si su idioma tiene una forma de hacerlo, podría considerar usarlo aquí.

Se había reunido contra Moisés y Aarón.
"se había reunido para quejarse contra Moisés y Aarón"

Mirad
"repentinamente." Aquí "he aquí" muestra que la gente estaba sorprendida por lo que vieron.

Numbers 16:44

para que yo pueda consumirlos
Dios habla de destruirlos como si los comiera. AT: "para que pueda destruirlos" o "y los destruiré"

Acostados con sus caras al suelo.
Esto indica que Moisés y Aarón se están humillando ante Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

la ira viene de El Señor
La ira que viene de Dios representa a Dios mostrando su ira. AT: "El Señornos muestra su enojo" o "El Señor está muy enojado y está actuando de acuerdo con su enojo"

Numbers 16:47

puso en el incienso Poner el incienso en el incensario aquí significa quemarlo. EN: "quemó el incienso"

la plaga fue detenida
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "la plaga dejó de extenderse"

Numbers 16:49

Coré
Coré era el nombre de tres hombres en el Antiguo Testamento. Uno de los hijos de Esaú se llamaba Coré. Se convirtió en un líder en su comunidad. Coré también era descendiente de Leví y sirvió como sacerdote en el tabernáculo. Se puso celoso de Moisés y Aarón y llevó a un grupo de hombres a rebelarse contra ellos. Un tercer hombre llamado Coré está catalogado como descendiente de Judá.

tienda de reunión
El término "tienda de reunión" se refiere a una tienda de campaña que era un lugar temporal donde Dios se reunió con Moisés antes de que se construyera el tabernáculo. La tienda de reunión se estableció fuera del campamento de los israelitas. Cuando Moisés entró en la tienda de reunión para reunirse con Dios, una columna de nube se situaría a la entrada de la tienda como un signo de la presencia de Dios allí. Después de que los israelitas construyeron el tabernáculo, la tienda temporal ya no era necesaria y el término "tienda de reunión" se usaba a veces para referirse al tabernáculo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés. Y Él dijo: 2 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y consigue varas de ellos, una por cada tribu ancestral, doce varas. Escribe el nombre de cada hombre en su vara. 3 Debes escribir el nombre de Aarón en la vara de Leví. Debe haber una vara por cada jefe de la tribu de sus antepasados. 4 Debes colocar las varas en la tienda de reunión al frente de la ley del pacto, donde yo me reuno contigo. 5 Pasará que la vara del hombre que Yo escoja florecerá. Yo haré que las quejas del pueblo de Israel se detengan, los que están hablando en contra de tí." 6 Así que Moisés habló al pueblo de Israel. Todos los jefes de las tribus le dieron varas, una vara por cada jefe, seleccionada de cada tribu ancestral, doce varas en total. La vara de Aarón estaba entre ellas. 7 Entonces Moisés puso las varas delante del SEÑOR en la tienda de los decretos del pacto. 8 Al siguiente día, Moisés entró a la tienda de las leyes del pacto y, he aquí, la vara de Aarón para la tribu de Leví había florecido. ¡Le crecieron brotes y produjo flores y almendras maduras! 9 Moisés trajo fuera todas las varas de delante del SEÑOR a todo el pueblo de Israel, y cada hombre tomó su vara. 10 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Pon la vara de Aarón al frente de las leyes del pacto. Manténla como una señal de culpa en contra del pueblo que se rebeló, de manera que termines las quejas en mi contra, o ellos morirán." 11 Moisés hizo tal como EL SEÑOR le había mandado. 12 El pueblo de Israel habló a Moisés y dijo: "Nosotros moriremos aquí. ¡Nosotros todos pereceremos! 13 Todos los que vengan, que se acerquen a la tienda de reunión del SEÑOR, morirán. ¿Debemos todos perecer?"

Numbers 17:3

Declaración de conectiva
El Señor sigue hablando a Moisés.

El personal de levi
El nombre Levi aquí se refiere a la tribu de Levi.

para cada líder de la tribu de sus antepasados Aquí "su" se refiere a "cada líder".

el pacto decreta
La frase "los decretos del pacto" se refiere a la caja que contenía las tablas en que se escribieron los decretos del pacto. AT: "el arca del pacto" o "la caja que contiene los decretos del pacto"

la vara del hombre que yo elija brotará.
"Los cogollos comenzarán a crecer en la vara del hombre que yo elija" hacer que cesen las quejas del pueblo de Israel, que están hablando en su contra Aquí "quejas" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar como un verbo. AT: "haz que el pueblo de Israel deje de quejarse contra ti"

Numbers 17:6

Seleccionados de cada una de las tribus ancestrales.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "a quien Moisés seleccionó de cada una de las tribus de los ancestros"

la tienda del pacto decreta
La frase "los decretos del pacto" se refiere a la caja que contenía las tablas en que se escribieron los decretos del pacto. AT: "la tienda de la caja del pacto" o "la tienda en la que se encuentra el pacto"

Numbers 17:8

contemplad
La palabra "he aquí" muestra que algo especialmente importante ha sucedido. Es posible que tenga una palabra similar en su idioma.

Numbers 17:10

el pacto decreta
La frase "los decretos del pacto" se refiere a la caja que contenía las tablas en que se escribieron los decretos del pacto. AT: "el arca del pacto" o "la caja que contiene los decretos del pacto"

para que puedas poner fin a las quejas en mi contra La palabra "quejas" es un nombre abstracto que se puede expresar como un verbo. AT: "para que puedas evitar que se quejen de mí"

o morirán
Esto es lo que sucedería si la gente siguiera quejándose. Dios quiso prevenir esto. AT: "para que no mueran"

Numbers 17:12

Moriremos aquí. ¡Todos pereceremos!
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para dar énfasis.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 El SEÑOR le dijo a Aaron: "Tú, tus hijos, y la familia de tus antepasados serán responsables por todos los pecados cometidos en contra del santuario. Pero solo tú y tus hijos serán responsables por los pecados cometidos por cualquiera en el sacerdocio. 2 En cuanto a tus compañeros, miembros de la tribu de Leví, la tribu de tus antepasados, debes traerlos contigo para que ellos se unan a ti y te ayuden cuando tú y tus hijos sirvan frente a la tienda de las leyes del pacto. 3 Deben servirte a ti y a toda la tienda. Sin embargo, no deben acercarse a nada del lugar santo o relacionado al altar, o ellos y tú también, morirán. 4 Deben unirse a ti y cuidar de la tienda de reunión, para todo el trabajo relacionado a la tienda. Un extranjero no debe acercarse a ustedes. 5 Tú debes tomar la responsabilidad del lugar santo y del altar, para que mi enojo no esté sobre el pueblo de Israel otra vez. 6 Mira, yo mismo he escogido a tus compañeros, de los levitas de entre los descendientes de Israel. Ellos son un regalo para ti, dado a mi para hacer el trabajo relacionado a la tienda de reunión. 7 Pero sólo tú y tus hijos pueden ejercer el sacerdocio, relacionado a el altar y todo lo de dentro de la cortina. Deben llenar estas responsabilidades. Les estoy dando el sacerdocio como un regalo. Cualquier extranjero que se acerque se debe morir." 8 Luego El SEÑOR le dijo a Aarón: "Mira, Yo te he dado la tarea de manejar las ofrendas levantadas a mí, y todas las santas ofrendas que el pueblo de Israel me dé a Mí. Yo les he dado estas ofrendas a tí y a tus hijos como su porción para siempre. 9 Estas son las cosas muy santas, llevadas al fuego: de toda ofrendas de ellos, toda ofrenda de granos y toda ofrenda de culpa, ellas son muy santas para ti y para tus hijos. 10 Estas ofrendas son muy santas, todo varón debe comerlas, pues son santas para ti. 11 Estas son las ofrendas que pertences a ti: sus regalos, todas las ofrendas mecidas del pueblo de Israel. Te las he dado a ti, y a tus hijos y a tus hijas, como su porción para siempre. Todos los que estén limpios en tu familia puede comer cualquiera de estas ofrendas. 12 Todo lo mejor del aceite, todo lo mejor del vino nuevo y grano, las primeras frutas que el pueblo me dé a Mí- todas estas cosas las he dado a ti. 13 Los primeros productos maduros de todo lo que hay en su tierra, que traen a mi, serán tuyos. Todos los que están limpios en tu familia pueden comer estas cosas. 14 Toda cosa dedicada en Israel, será tuya. 15 Todo lo que abre el vientre, todos los primogénitos, los que el pueblo ofrece al SEÑOR, tanto de hombre y animal, será tuyo. Pero, el pueblo debe pagar de nuevo todo hijo primogénito, y deben pagar de nuevo el primogénito varón de animales impuros. 16 Aquellos que serán pagados de nuevo por el pueblo deben ser pagados de nuevo después de cumplir un mes. Luego la gente podrá pagarlos de nuevo, por el precio de cinco siclos, por el peso estándar del siclo santuario, lo que equivale a veinte geras. 17 Pero el primogénito de una vaca, o el primogénito de una oveja, o el primogénito de una cabra- no debes pagar de nuevo estos animales; serán apartados para Mi. Debes rociar su sangre en el altar y quemar su grasa como una ofrenda de fuego, un aroma agradable al SEÑOR. 18 Su carne será tuya. Como el pecho levantado y muslo derecho, su carne será para ti. 19 Todas las santas ofrendas que el pueblo de Israel presentó al SEÑOR, yo te las he dado a ti, y a tus hijos y a tus hijas contigo, como porción para siempre. Es un pacto eterno de sal, un pacto de unión para siempre, delante del SEÑOR tanto para ti y para tus descendientes contigo." 20 El SEÑOR le dijo a Aarón: "Tú no tendrás ninguna herencia en la tierra del pueblo, ni tampoco tendrás ninguna porción de propiedad en medio del pueblo. Yo soy tu porción y tu herencia en medio del pueblo de Israel." 21 A los descendientes de Leví,, yo les he dado todos los diezmos en Israel como su herencia en cambio del servicio que ha provisto trabajando en la tienda de reunión. 22 De ahora en adelante el pueblo de Israel no debe acercarse a la tienda de reunión, o serán responsables por este pecado y morirán. 23 Los levitas deberán hacer el trabajo relacionado a la tienda de reunión. Serán responsables de cualquier pecado relacionado a esto. Esto será ley para siempre a través de las generaciones de tu pueblo. Dentro del puebo de Israel no deben tener ninguna herencia. 24 Por los diezmos del pueblo de Israel, lo que ofrecen como contribución a mi - es esto lo que les he dado a los levitas como su herencia. Es por esto que les he dicho: 'No deben tener herencia dentro del pueblo de Israel.' 25 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y ÉL dijo: 26 "Tú deberás hablar con los levitas y decirles: Cuando recibas del pueblo de Israel los diezmos que te he dado de ellos como tu herencia, debes presentar una contribución al SEÑOR, un décimo del diezmo. 27 Tu contribución debe ser considerada por ti como si fuera un décimo del grano de la era o de la producción de vino." 28 Así que, tú también deberás hacer una contribución al SEÑOR de todos los diezmos que tú recibas del pueblo de Israel. Ellos deberás dar su contribución a Aarón, el sacerdote. 29 De todos los regalos que recibas, deberás hacer un regalo al SEÑOR. Esto deberás hacerlo de todo las mejores y santísimas cosas que sean dadas a ti.' 30 Por lo tanto, debes decirle a ellos: 'Cuando presentes lo mejor de ello, entonces debe ser de los levitas, como producto de la era y del vino. 31 Tú puedes comer el resto de tus regalos en cualquier lugar, tú y tus familias, porque es tú paga en cambio de tu trabajo en la tienda de reunión. 32 Tú no debes incurrir en culpa al comerlo y beberlo, si has presentado al SEÑOR

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

lo mejor de lo que has recibido. Pero no debes profanar las santas ofrendas del pueblo de Israel, o morirás."'

Numbers 18:1

Todos los pecados cometidos contra el santuario.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "todos los pecados que cualquiera comete contra el santuario"

Todos los pecados cometidos por cualquiera en el sacerdocio.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "todos los pecados cometidos por el sacerdocio"

cualquiera en el sacerdocio
"cualquier sacerdote"

Numbers 18:3

Declaración de conexión:
El Señor continúa hablando con Aarón.

Deben servirte ... Deben unirse a ti.
"Ellos" se refiere a los miembros de la tribu de Levi; La palabra "tú" es singular y se refiere a Aaron.

o ellos y también morirás
Aquí, "ellos" se refiere a cualquier miembro de la tribu de Leví que "se acerca a cualquier cosa en el santuario"; la palabra "usted" es plural y se refiere tanto a Aarón como al resto de los levitas que cumplen funciones aprobadas.

No te acerques a ti. Debes asumir la responsabilidad Aquí "usted" es plural y se refiere tanto a Aarón como al resto de los levitas.

para que mi ira no vuelva a la gente de Israel Los posibles significados son 1) esto representa que Dios está extremadamente enojado con su gente. AT: "para no volver a enojarme mucho con el pueblo de Israel" o 2) esto representa a Dios castigándolos por su enojo. AT: "para que no vuelva a castigar al pueblo de Israel"

Numbers 18:6

Declaración conectiva:
El Señor continúa hablando con Aarón.

Son un regalo para ti
El Señor nombrando a los levitas para ayudar a Aarón se habla de ellos como si fueran un regalo que El Señor le estaba dando a Aarón. AT: "Son como un regalo para ti"

Dado a mi
Aquí, "dado" a Dios, representa ser apartado para servir a Dios. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que he puesto aparte para mí mismo" o "y los he puesto aparte para mí mismo"

solo tu y tus hijos Aquí "tú" y "tu" son singulares y se refieren a Aaron. Otras ocurrencias de "usted" y "su" son plurales y se refieren a Aarón y sus hijos.

ejercer el sacerdocio
"hacer el trabajo de los sacerdotes"

todo dentro de la cortina
Estar dentro de la cortina representa estar dentro de la habitación detrás de la cortina. AT: "todo en la habitación detrás de la cortina"

Cualquier extranjero que se acerque debe ser condenado a muerte.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Cualquier extranjero que se acerque debe morir" o "Debe matar a cualquier extranjero que se acerque"

quien se acerca
Lo que no deben abordar puede ser declarado claramente. AT: "quien se acerca a las cosas sagradas"

Numbers 18:8

las ofrendas levantadas para mi
Aquí "levantado para mí" representa dar u ofrecer algo a Dios. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Las ofrendas que la gente me da".

Te he dado estas ofrendas Dios habla como si ya hubiera hecho esto porque es una decisión que ya había tomado. AT: "Te doy estas ofrendas" como su participación en curso Una parte es una porción de algo que alguien recibe. AT: "como la porción que recibirás continuamente"

guardado del fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que no se queme completamente sobre el altar"

son muy sagrados
"estas porciones son muy santas"

Numbers 18:10

Declaración conectiva
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

ritualmente limpio
Ser aceptable ante Dios se habla de como si estuvieran limpios. AT: "aceptable para mí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 18:12

Declaración conectiva
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

las primicias
Esto se refiere al primero de los mejores aceites, vinos y granos que cosechan.

Todos los que están limpios en tu familia.
Ser aceptable ante Dios se habla de como si estuvieran limpios. AT: "Todos en tu familia que me sean aceptables"

Numbers 18:14

Declaración conectiva:
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

Todo lo que abre la matriz, todos los primogénitos.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. AT: "Todo hombre primogénito"

Todo lo que abre la matriz.
El idioma "abre el vientre" significa ser el primer hombre que una madre da a luz.

La gente ciertamente debe recomprar a cada hijo primogénito
En lugar de sacrificar a sus hijos primogénitos, las personas tenían que pagar a los sacerdotes por sus hijos.

Los que deben ser comprados por la gente deben ser comprados nuevamente después de cumplir un mes de edad.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "La gente debe comprarlos cuando tengan un mes de edad"

Los que van a ser comprados de nuevo.
Lo más probable es que esto se refiera solo a los humanos primogénitos que deben comprarse y no a los animales primogénitos inmundos.

Cinco siclos ... que equivalen a veinte gerahs Si es necesario usar unidades de peso modernas, aquí hay dos formas de hacerlo. AT: "cinco piezas de plata ... cada una de las cuales equivale a diez gramos" o "cincuenta gramos de plata, usando los pesos estándar que se usan en el santuario"

cinco siclos
Un siclo es una unidad de peso. Lo que se pesó se puede afirmar claramente. EN: "cinco siclos de plata"

siclo del santuario
Había siclos de diferentes pesos. Este es el que la gente tenía que usar en el santuario de la tienda sagrada. Su peso era de veinte gerahs, que era de unos 11 gramos.

Numbers 18:17

declaracion de conectividad
Dios continua hablando a Aaron

Debes rociar su sangre Que él debe matar a los animales primero se puede decir claramente. AT: "Debes matarlos y esparcir su sangre"

hecho por fuego
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que haces con fuego" o "que arde con fuego sobre el altar"

Un aroma agradable a El Señor.
El placer del Señor con el aroma representa su placer con la persona que quema la ofrenda. AT: "y El Señor estará complacido contigo"

El pecho levantado y el muslo derecho.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "el pecho y el muslo derecho que levantas como regalo para mí"

Numbers 18:19

Declaración de conexión:
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

Te he dado
Dios habla como si ya hubiera hecho esto porque es una decisión que ya había tomado. AT: "Te doy"

como una participación continua
Una parte es una porción de algo que alguien recibe. AT: "como la porción que recibirás continuamente"

un pacto eterno de sal ... un pacto vinculante para siempre Las dos frases se refieren a la misma cosa. Juntos enfatizan que el pacto durará por siempre. AT: "un acuerdo para siempre"

un pacto eterno de sal
"Un pacto hecho con sal". La sal representaba la permanencia y se usaba en ofrendas y comidas de alianza. AT: "un pacto permanente" o "un pacto eterno"

No tendrás herencia en la tierra del pueblo.
Dios habla de la tierra que las otras personas poseerán como si la heredaran. AT: "No poseerás ninguna de las tierras de la gente" o "No recibirás ninguna de las tierras que los israelitas poseerán"

Soy tu parte y herencia Dios habla del gran honor que Aarón y sus descendientes tendrán al servirle como sacerdotes como si Dios fuera algo que heredarán. AT: "En cambio, soy lo que tendrás" o "En cambio, te

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

permitiré que me sirvas y te proporcionaré a través de ese servicio"

Numbers 18:21

Declaración de conexión:
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

mira he dado
La palabra "mirar" aquí agrega énfasis a lo que sigue. AT: "de hecho, he dado"

como su herencia
Dios habla de lo que Aarón y sus descendientes recibirán como si lo heredaran. AT: "como su porción de lo que doy a todo Israel"

Numbers 18:23

Declaración conectiva:
Dios sigue hablando a Aaron.

Entre el pueblo de Israel no deben tener herencia.
Dios habla de la tierra que los demás pueblos de Israel poseerán como si la heredaran. Los levitas no recibirían nada de la tierra. AT: "no deben tener ninguna de las tierras que reciben los demás pueblos de Israel"

como su herencia
Dios habla de lo que Aarón y sus descendientes recibirán como si lo heredaran. AT: "como su porción de lo que doy a todo Israel"

Numbers 18:25

Cuando recibas del pueblo de Israel la décima parte que te he dado de ellos.
El pueblo de Israel le ofrecería a Jehová una décima parte de sus cultivos y animales, y El Señor se lo daría a los levitas.

por tu herencia
Dios habla de lo que Aarón y sus descendientes recibirán como si lo heredaran. AT: "como tu porción de lo que doy a todo Israel"

Tu contribución debe ser considerada por ti.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Debes considerar tu contribución"

Numbers 18:28

Declaración conectiva:
Dios continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que debe decirle a los levitas.

Debes dar su aporte al sacerdote Aarón.
Aquí "su" se refiere a El Señor. Fue la contribución de El Señor en el sentido de que tenían que dársela a El Señor. AT: "debes dar al sacerdote Aarón la contribución que debes a El Señor"

que te han sido entregados Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "que el pueblo de Israel te dé"

Numbers 18:30

Declaración conectiva
Dios sigue hablando a Moisés.

lo mejor del caso
"Lo mejor de lo que has recibido del pueblo de Israel"

el resto de tus regalos
Los "regalos" son las ofrendas que los israelitas le dan a Dios y que los levitas reciben de ellos.

No incurrirás en ninguna culpa al comerla y beberla.
"No serás culpable cuando lo comas y bebas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y a Aarón. Y Él dijo: 2 "Esto es un estatuto, una ley que Yo les estoy ordenando: Digan a la gente de Israel que deben traer a ustedes una novilla roja sin defecto o mancha, y que nunca ha llevado un yugo. 3 Entreguen la novilla a Eleazar el sacerdote. Debe traerla fuera del campamento, y alguien debe matarla frente a él. 4 Eleazar el sacerdote debe tomar parte de la sangre con su dedo y rocíarla siete veces frente a la tienda de reunión. 5 Otro sacerdote debe quemar la novilla a su vista. Debe quemar su cuero, su carne y su sangre con su estiércol. 6 El sacerdote debe tomar madera de cedro, hisopo y lana escarlata, y arrojarlo todo en medio del fuego en que arde la novilla. 7 Entonces, debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua. Entonces, puede entrar al campamento, en donde permanecerá inmundo hasta la noche. 8 El que haya quemado la novilla debe lavar sus ropas en agua y bañarse en agua. Quedará inmundo hasta el atardecer. 9 Alguien que esté limpio debe recoger las cenizas de la novilla y ponerlas fuera del campamento en un lugar limpio. Estas cenizas deben ser guardadas para la comunidad de la gente de Israel. Ellos mezclarán las cenizas con agua para la purificación de pecado, ya que las cenizas fueron una ofrenda por el pecado. 10 El que recoja las cenizas de la novilla debera lavar sus ropas. Permanecerá inmundo hasta el atardecer. Esto será una ley para siempre para la gente de Israel y los extranjeros que se queden con ellos. 11 Cualquiera que toque el cuerpo muerto de cualquier hombre será inmundo por siete días. 12 Tal persona debe purifícarse a sí mismo en el tercer día y en el séptimo día. Entonces será limpio. Pero si no se purifíca a sí mismo en el tercer día, entonces no será limpio en el séptimo día. 13 Cualquiera que toque una persona muerta, el cuerpo de un hombre que haya muerto, y no se limpie a sí mismo-- esta persona contamina la tienda de reunión del SEÑOR. Esa persona deberá ser cortada de Israel porque el agua de la impureza no fue rocíada sobre él. Quedará inmundo, su impureza permanecerá en él. 14 Esta es la ley para cuando alguien muera en una tienda. Cualquiera que entre en la tienda y cualquiera que ya esté en la tienda será inmundo por siete días. 15 Cada envase abierto sin tapa se volverá inmundo. 16 Similarmente, cualquiera fuera de la tienda quien toque a alguien que haya sido asesinado por la espada, cualquier otro cuerpo muerto, hueso humano, o tumba-- esa persona será inmunda por siete días. 17 Haz esto por la persona inmunda: toma algo de ceniza de la ofrenda por el pecado quemada y mézclalas en una jarra con agua fresca. 18 Alguien que esté limpio debe tomar hisopo, mojarlo en el agua, y rociarlo en la tienda, en todos los envasess de la tienda, en las personas que estuvieron ahí, y sobre cualquiera que tocó hueso, el que fue asesinado, el que haya muerto, o la tumba. 19 En el tercer día y en el séptimo día, la persona limpia debe rociar la persona inmunda. En el séptimo día la persona inmunda debe purifícarse a sí mismo. Él debe lavar sus ropas y bañarse en agua. En la noche, él se volverá limpio. 20 Pero cualquiera que permanezca inmundo, quien no quiera purificarse a sí mismo-- esa persona será cortada de la comunidad, porque él ha contaminado el santuario del SEÑOR. El agua para la impureza no será rociada en él; él quedará inmundo. 21 Esto será una ley para siempre sobre estas situaciones. El que rocíe el agua para la impureza debe lavar sus ropas. El que toque el agua para la impureza se volverá inmundo hasta el atardecer. 22 Lo que sea que la persona inmunda toque se volverá inmundo. La persona que lo toque se volverá inmunda hasta el atardecer."

Numbers 19:1

un estatuto, una ley Estas dos palabras comparten significados similares. AT: "un estatuto de la ley" o "un estatuto legal"

traerlo a ti
Aquí "tú" es singular y se refiere a Moisés.

defecto o defecto
Estas dos palabras significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que este animal no debe tener imperfecciones.

Numbers 19:3

en su vista
"en su opinión" o "para que él pudiera verlo"

sacerdote debe tomar madera de cedro
"El sacerdote" se refiere a Eleazar.

lana escarlata
"lana roja"

Numbers 19:7

Luego debe lavarse la ropa.
Aquí "él" se refiere al sacerdote Eleazar.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

permanecerá inmundo
Ser inaceptable para Dios o incapaz de hacer cualquier trabajo sagrado se dice que no está limpio.

Numbers 19:9

Alguien que esta limpio
Ser aceptable ante Dios y estar en forma para hacer un trabajo sagrado se dice que es limpio.

Estas cenizas deben mantenerse Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Debes guardar estas cenizas" en un lugar limpio

Ser aceptable ante Dios se dice que es limpio.

Él permanecerá inmundo
Ser inaceptable para Dios o incapaz de hacer cualquier trabajo sagrado se dice que no está limpio.

Numbers 19:11

Información general:
Las ideas de "limpio" y "purificar" representan ser aceptables para Dios.

Información general:
Las ideas de "impuro", "profanación", "impureza" y "impureza" representan no ser aceptables para Dios.

el cuerpo muerto de cualquier hombre
"el cuerpo muerto de cualquier persona" purificarse

La persona le pediría a alguien que esté limpio que lo purifique rociándolo con un poco de agua mezclada con las cenizas de las vacas. Pedirle a alguien que lo purifique se habla como si fuera a purificarse a sí mismo. AT: "pedir a alguien que lo purifique"

Si no se purifica a sí mismo el tercer día, entonces no estará limpio en el séptimo día.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma positiva. AT: "él estará limpio el séptimo día solo si se purifica a sí mismo el tercer día"

Esa persona debe ser cortada
Aquí la frase "ser cortado" significa ser repudiado y expulsado. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 9:13. AT: "Esa persona debe ser enviada" o "usted debe enviar a esa persona"

El agua para la impureza no fue rociada sobre él.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "nadie roció el agua por impureza sobre él"

el agua para la impureza
"El agua que se rocía sobre las cosas impuras para purificarlas" o "El agua para purificar las cosas".

Él permanecerá inmundo; su inmundicia permanecerá sobre él
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y se combinan para dar énfasis.

Numbers 19:14

Información general:
La idea de "impuro" representa no ser aceptable para Dios o apto para su uso.

Todo contenedor abierto sin tapa se vuelve sucio.
Esto se puede afirmar de forma positiva. AT: "Los contenedores abiertos se mantendrán limpios solo si tienen tapas"

alguien que ha sido asesinado con una espada Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "alguien a quien otra persona ha matado con una espada"

Numbers 19:17

Información general:
La idea de "impuro" representa no ser aceptable para Dios o apto para su uso.

Información general:
Las ideas de "limpio" y "purificar" aquí representan ser aceptables para Dios.

Numbers 19:20

Información general:
Las ideas de "limpio" y "purificar" representan ser aceptables para Dios.

Información general:
Las ideas de "inmundo", "profano" e "impureza" representan no ser aceptable para Dios.

esa persona será cortada
Aquí la frase "ser cortado" significa ser repudiado y expulsado. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 9:13. AT: "Esa persona debe ser enviada" o "usted debe enviar a esa persona"

El agua para la impureza no ha sido rociada sobre él.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Nadie le ha salpicado el agua por impureza"

el agua para la impureza
"el agua que se rocía sobre las cosas impuras para purificarlas" o "el agua para purificar las cosas". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 19:11

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Así que todo el pueblo de Israel, toda la comunidad, fue al desierto de Zin en el primer mes; se quedaron en Cades. Allí, Miriam murió y fue enterrada. 2 No había agua para la comunidad, así que se reunieron en contra de Moisés y Aarón. 3 El pueblo se quejó contra Moisés. Decían: "¡Hubiera sido mejor si hubiéramos muerto cuando nuestros compañeros Israelitas murieron frente al SEÑOR! 4 ¿Por qué has traído la comunidad del SEÑOR a este desierto para morir aquí, nosotros y nuestros animales? 5 ¿Por qué nos has hecho salir de Egipto para traernos a este horrible lugar? Aquí no hay semilla, higos, viñas o granadas, y no hay agua para beber.'' 6 Así que Moisés y Aarón se fueron de en frente de la asamblea. Fueron a la entrada de la tienda de reunión y se acostaron boca abajo. Allí la gloria del SEÑOR se les apareció a ellos. 7 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 8 ''Agarra la vara y reúne a la comunidad, tú, y Aarón, tu hermano. Háblale a la roca ante sus ojos, y ordénale que fluya agua. Tú producirás agua para ellos de esa roca, y tienes que dársela a la comunidad y a su ganado para beber.'' 9 Moisés agarró la vara de delante del SEÑOR, como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado que hiciera. 10 Entonces Moisés y Aarón reunieron a la asamblea frente a la roca. Moisés les dijo: ''Escuchen ahora, ustedes rebeldes. ¿Tenemos que sacar agua de esta roca para ustedes?'' 11 Luego Moisés levantó su mano y golpeó la roca dos veces con su vara, y mucha agua salió. La comunidad bebió, y su ganado bebió. 12 Entonces EL SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés y a Aarón: "Porque no confiaron en Mí ni Me honraron como Santo ante los ojos del pueblo de Israel, ustedes no llevaran esta asamblea a la tierra que Yo les he dado.'' 13 Este lugar fue llamado las aguas de Meriba, porque el pueblo de Israel había discutido con EL SEÑOR allí, y Él se mostró a Sí mismo a ellos como Santo. 14 Moisés envió mensajeros desde Cades al rey de Edom: Tu hermano Israel dice esto:"Tú sabes todas las dificultades que nos han ocurrido a nosotros. 15 Tú sabes que nuestros antepasados bajaron a Egipto y vivieron en Egipto por un largo tiempo. Los egipcios nos trataron duramente y también a nuestros antepasados. 16 Cuando nosotros clamamos al SEÑOR, Él escuchó nuestra voz y envió un ángel y nos sacó de Egipto. Mira, estamos en Cades, una ciudad en la frontera de tu tierra. 17 Te estoy pidiendo que nos dejes pasar por tu tierra. Nosotros no pasaremos por tus campos o viñedos, ni beberemos las aguas en tus pozos. Iremos por el camino de los reyes. No nos desviaremos ni a mano derecha ni a la izquierda hasta que hayamos pasado tus fronteras.'' 18 Pero el rey de Edom le contestó a él: ''Tú no puedes pasar por aquí. Si lo haces, yo vendré con espada a atacarte.'' 19 Entonces el pueblo de Israel le dijo a él: "Iremos por el camino principal. Si nosotros o nuestro ganado bebe de tu agua, pagaremos por ella. Sólo déjanos caminar a pie, sin hacer nada más.'' 20 Pero el rey de Edom respondió: "Ustedes no podrán pasar.'' Así que el rey de Edom vino contra Israel con mano dura con muchos soldados. 21 El rey de Edom se negó a dejar a Israel cruzar por su frontera. A causa de esto, Israel se alejó de la tierra de Edom. 22 Así el pueblo viajó desde Cades. El pueblo de Israel, toda la comunidad, vino al Monte Hor. 23 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y Aarón en el Monte Hor, en la frontera de Edom. Él dijo: 24 "Aarón tiene que ser reunido a su gente, porque él no entrará a la tierra que le he dado al pueblo de Israel. Esto es porque ustedes dos se rebelaron contra Mi palabra en las aguas de Meriba. 25 Toma a Aarón y a Eleazar su hijo, y súbelos al Monte Hor. 26 Quítale a Aarón las vestiduras sacerdotales y pónselas a Eleazar su hijo. Aarón tiene que morir y ser reunido a su gente ahí.'' 27 Moisés hizo lo que EL SEÑOR mandó. Subieron al Monte Hor a la vista de toda la comunidad. 28 Moisés tomó las vestiduras sacerdotales de Aarón y se las puso a su hijo Eleazar. Aarón murió allí en la cima de la montaña. Entonces Moisés y Eleazar bajaron. 29 Cuando toda la comunidad vio que Aarón estaba muerto, la nación entera lloró a Aarón por treinta días.

Numbers 20:1

el desierto de pecado
La palabra "pecado" aquí es el nombre hebreo del desierto. No es la palabra inglesa "pecado".

el primer mes
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. Marca cuando Dios rescató a los israelitas de los egipcios. El primer mes es durante la última parte de marzo y la primera parte de abril en el calendario occidental.

y fue enterrado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "y la enterraron"

Numbers 20:2

se reunieron
quí "ellos" se refiere a la comunidad.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

reunidos
"vino como una turba"

delante de El Señor
Esto representa estar delante de la tienda de Jehová.

Numbers 20:4

Declaración conectiva:
El pueblo de Israel continúa quejándose a Moisés y Aarón.

¿Por qué has traído a la comunidad de El Señor a este desierto para morir aquí, nosotros y nuestros animales?
La gente usa esta pregunta para quejarse contra Moisés y Aarón. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "No deberías haber llevado a la comunidad de El Señor a este desierto para que muriera aquí, nosotros y nuestros animales".

¿Por qué nos hiciste subir de Egipto para llevarnos a este lugar horrible?
La gente usa esta pregunta para quejarse contra Moisés y Aarón. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "No deberías habernos hecho salir de Egipto para llevarnos a este lugar horrible".

Numbers 20:6

tumbado boca abajo
Esto indica que Moisés y Aarón se están humillando ante Dios.

Numbers 20:7

ante sus ojos
Aquí "sus ojos" representan a la gente que ve lo que hace Moisés. AT: "mientras te miran"

de delante de El Señor Esto representa la tienda de El Señor. EN: "de la tienda de Jehová"

Numbers 20:10

¿Debemos sacar agua de esta roca para ti?
Moisés hace esta pregunta por frustración para reprender a la gente por quejarse. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. AT: "Te quejas de que no hay agua. Bueno, haremos que el agua salga de esta roca". o "No serías feliz incluso si hiciéramos que saliera agua de esta roca. Pero lo haré de todos modos".

Debemos traer
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Moisés y Aarón y puede incluir a Yahvé, pero no incluye a la gente.

Numbers 20:12

Porque no confiaste en mí ni me honraste como santo ante los ojos del pueblo de Israel Cómo Moisés demostró que no confiaba ni honraba a Dios, se puede decir claramente. AT: "Porque no confiaste en mí ni me honraste como santo ante los ojos del pueblo de Israel, sino que golpeaste la roca en lugar de hablarle como te dije"

a los ojos del pueblo de Israel
Aquí los ojos representan a la gente que ve lo que hizo Moisés. AT: "mientras el pueblo de Israel te estaba mirando"

Este lugar fue llamado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "La gente llamó a este lugar"

Numbers 20:14

Tu hermano israel
Moisés usa esta frase para enfatizar que los israelitas y los edomitas están relacionados porque sus antepasados, Jacob y Esaú, eran hermanos.

Cuando llamamos a El Señor
"Cuando oramos a El Señor suplicándole que nos ayudara"

escucho nuestra voz
Aquí la "voz" representa su llanto o lo que le dijeron. AT: "escuchó nuestro grito" o "escuchó lo que pedimos"

Mira
Mira aquí marca un cambio en el tema. Solo estaban hablando de su pasado. Ahora hablan sobre su situación actual mientras se preparan para pedirle al rey que haga algo.

Numbers 20:17

Declaración conectiva
Los mensajeros siguen hablando con el rey de Edom.

No giraremos a la derecha ni a la izquierda.
Aquí "desviarse" representa salir del camino. AT: "No vamos a salir del camino en ninguna dirección".

el camino del rey
Esta es la carretera principal que conecta Damasco en el norte con el Golfo de Aqabah en el sur.

Numbers 20:18

No puedes pasar ... para atacarte.
Aquí "usted" es singular y se refiere a Moisés, que representa al pueblo de Israel. AT: "Tu gente no puede pasar ... para atacarlos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Vendré con la espada
Aquí la espada representa al ejército del rey. AT: "Enviaré mi ejército"

el pueblo de Israel
Esta frase se refiere a los mensajeros israelitas.

caminar a pie
Este idioma significa que simplemente viajarían por el área caminando. No vendrían en carros para atacar a la gente de Edom.

Numbers 20:20

El rey de Edom vino contra Israel con mano fuerte y con muchos soldados.
Aquí la mano representa al poderoso ejército del rey. AT: "el rey de Edom envió un fuerte ejército de muchos soldados para atacar a Israel"

cruzar sobre su frontera
Aquí "su" se refiere a los edomitas.

Numbers 20:22

El pueblo de Israel, toda la comunidad.
La frase "toda la comunidad" enfatiza que todas las personas que formaron parte del "pueblo de Israel" estaban presentes, sin excepción.

Aaron debe ser reunido a su pueblo Esta es una manera suave de decir que Aaron debe morir. Significa que es hora de que Aarón muera y que su espíritu vaya al lugar donde se encuentran sus antepasados. EN: "Aaron debe morir"

se rebela contra mi palabra Aquí "mi palabra" representa lo que Dios dijo. AT: "se negó a hacer lo que dije"

Numbers 20:25

Declaración conectiva
Dios sigue hablando a Moisés.

Debe morir y reunirse con su pueblo.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Significan que es tiempo de que Aarón muera y que su espíritu vaya al lugar donde están sus antepasados.

Numbers 20:27

treinta días
30 dias

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 Cuando el Rey cananeo de Arad que vivía en el Neguev, escuchó que el pueblo de Israel estaba pasando por el camino hacia Atarim, el peleó contra Israel y tomó algunos de ellos cautivos. 2 Israel se acostó boca abajo al SEÑOR y dijo: "Si nos das la victoria sobre estas personas, entonces nosotros destruiremos sus cuidades completamente." 3 El SEÑOR escuchó la voz de Israel y Él le dió la victoria sobre los cananeos. Ellos destruyeron sus ciudades completamente. El lugar fue llamado Horma. 4 Ellos viajaron desde el Monte Hor por el camino hacia el Mar de Juncos para ir alrededor de la tierra de Edom. El pueblo se sintió muy desanimado en el camino. 5 El pueblo habló contra Dios y contra Moisés: "¿Por qué nos has traído fuera de Egipto para morir en el desierto? No hay pan, no hay agua y detestamos esta comida miserable." 6 Entonces El SEÑOR envió serpientes venenosas entre el pueblo. Las serpientes mordieron a la gente; muchos murieron. 7 El pueblo fue a Moisés y le dijeron: "Hemos pecado porque hemos hablado contra El SEÑOR y contra ti. Ora a El SEÑÓR para que Él aleje las serpientes de nosotros." Así oró Moisés para su pueblo. 8 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Haz una serpiente y átala a un poste. Sucederá que todo el que fuera mordido sobrevivirá, si la ve." 9 Así que, Moisés hizo una serpiente de bronce y la ató a un poste. Cuando una serpiente mordía a una persona si él veia la serpiente, él sobrevivía. 10 El pueblo de Israel continuó viajando y acamparon en Obot. 11 Viajaron desde allí y acamparon en Ije Abarim en el desierto frente a Moab hacia el este. 12 Desde allí viajaron y acamparon en el Valle de Zered. 13 Desde allí continuaron su marcha y acamparon al otro lado del Río Arnón, que está en el desierto que se extiende desde la frontera de los Amorreos. El Río Arnón forma la frontera entre Moab y los Amorreos. 14 Por eso se dice en el rollo de las Guerras de El SEÑOR: "Vaheb está en Sufa, en los valles de Arnón, 15 la pendiente de los valles que descansan en el pueblo de Ar y baja hacia la frontera de Moab. 16 De allí continuaron hacia Beer, donde está el pozo donde El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Reune al pueblo para darle agua." 17 Entonces cantó Israel este cántico: "Levántate, pozo". Canten sobre él. 18 El pozo que nuestros jefes cavaron, el pozo que los nobles cavaron con su cetro y sus varas." Desde el desierto viajaron a Mataná. 19 Desde Mataná viajaron a Nahaliel, y de Nahaliel a Bamot, 20 y de Bamot a un valle en la tierra de Moab. Allí es donde la cima del Monte Pisga mira hacia abajo al desierto. 21 Entonces Israel envió mensajeros al Rey Sehón de los Amorreos diciendo: 22 "Déjanos pasar por tu tierra. No nos desviaremos a ningún campo o viña. No tomaremos las aguas de sus pozos. Viajaremos por el camino del Rey hasta que crucemos tu fronteras." 23 Pero el Rey Sehón no permitiría que Israel pasara por sus fronteras. En su lugar, Sehón reunió todo su ejército y atacaron a Israel en el desierto. Él vino a Jahaza, donde peleó contra Israel. 24 Israel atacó el ejército de Sehón a filo de espada y tomó sus tierras desde Arnón hasta el río Jaboc, tan lejos como la tierra del pueblo de los amonitas. Ahora la fronteras de los amonitas estaba fortificada. 25 Israel tomó todas las ciudades de los Amorreos y vivió en todas, incluyendo Hesbón y todas sus aldeas. 26 Hesbón era la ciudad del Rey Sehón de los amorreos, quien había peleado contra el rey anterior de Moab. Sehón había tomado toda su tierra desde su territorio hasta el Río Arnón. 27 Por eso aquellos que hablan en proverbios diciendo: "Vengan a Hesbón. Dejen que la ciudad de Sehón sea reconstruída y establecida nuevamente. 28 Fuego salió de Hesbón, una llama desde la ciudad de Sehón que devoró Ar de Moab, y los dueños de los lugares altos de Arnón. 29 ¡Ay de ti, Moab! Ustedes han perecido, pueblo de Quemos. Él ha hecho que sus hijos sean fugitivos y sus hijas sean prisioneras del rey Sehón de los amorreos. 30 Pero nosotros hemos conquistado Sehón. Hesbón está devastada hasta Dibón. Nosotros los hemos derrotado hasta Nofa, que llega hasta Medeba." 31 Así que, comenzó Israel a vivir en la tierra de los amorreos. 32 Entonces Moisés envió hombres a observar a Jazer. Tomaron sus aldeas y expulsaron a los amorreos que estaban allí. 33 Luego dieron vuelta y subieron por el camino de Basán. Og, el rey de Basán, salió en contra de ellos, él y todo su ejército, para pelear en Edrei. 34 Entonces El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "No le temas, porque Yo te he dado victoria sobre él, sus ejércitos y sus tierras. Hazle a él como le hiciste al rey de los amorreos, Sehón, que vivió en Hesbón." 35 Lo mataron a él, sus hijos y todo su ejército hasta que no quedó nadie vivo. Y se apoderaron de sus tierras.

Numbers 21:1

luchó contra Israel
Aquí "luchó" significa que su ejército luchó. AT: "su ejército luchó contra Israel"

Israel juró
Esto se refiere al pueblo de Israel. AT: "El pueblo de Israel juró" o "Los israelitas hicieron una promesa"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

escuchado la voz de israel
Aquí "escuchar" significa que El Señor hizo lo que le pedían. AT: "hizo lo que pidió Israel"

La voz de israel
Aquí "voz" es un metónimo que se refiere a su solicitud. AT: "lo que pidió Israel"

Los destruyeron completamente a ellos y sus ciudades.
"El pueblo de Israel destruyó completamente el ejército cananeo y sus ciudades"

Ese lugar se llamaba Hormah Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. EN: "Ellos llamaron a ese lugar Horma"

Numbers 21:4

¿Por qué nos has sacado de Egipto para morir en el desierto?
La gente usó esta pregunta para reprender a Moisés. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "¡No deberías hacernos salir de Egipto para morir en el desierto!"

Numbers 21:6

Hemos hablado contra Jehová y contra ti.
"Hemos dicho cosas malas sobre Yahvé y sobre ti".

nosotros
La palabra "nosotros" aquí se refiere al pueblo pero no a El Señor o Moisés.

Numbers 21:8

Hacer una serpiente
Como a Moisés le resulta imposible hacer una serpiente real, se da a entender que él debía hacer un modelo de una serpiente. Esta información implícita se puede aclarar. AT: "Hacer un modelo de una serpiente"

todos los que son mordidos Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "todos a los que muerde una serpiente"

una serpiente de bronce
"una serpiente de bronce"

Si miraba a la serpiente de bronce, sobrevivía.
Aquí "él" se refiere a "cualquier persona" que fue mordida por una serpiente.

Numbers 21:10

que enfrenta a Moab
Aquí "caras" es un idioma que significa "está frente a" o "está al lado de". AT: "que está al lado de Moab"

Numbers 21:12

Forma la frontera de Moab, entre Moab y los amorreos.
Esto significa que los dos pueblos vivían en diferentes lados del río, que era un límite entre ellos. Los moabitas vivían al sur del río y los amorreos vivían en el norte.

Numbers 21:14

Vaheb en Sufa
Estos son los dos nombres de lugares.

La pendiente de los valles que conducen hacia la ciudad de Ar y desciende hacia la frontera de Moab.
"Descenso hasta la ciudad de Ar y la frontera del país de Moab"

Numbers 21:16

A beber, que es donde está el pozo.
Esto puede ser declarado como dos oraciones. AT: "A Beber. Había un pozo allí".

donde El Señor le dijo a Moisés: "Reúne a la gente para que les dé agua".
Esto se puede afirmar como una cotización indirecta. AT: "donde El Señor le dijo a Moisés que reuniera a la gente para que les diera agua"

Numbers 21:17

brotará, bien
Aquí "bien" representa el agua en el pozo. Los israelitas están hablando al agua como si fuera una persona que pudiera escucharlos, y piden que llene el pozo. EN: "Agua, llenar el pozo"

El pozo que cavaron nuestros líderes, el pozo que cavaron los nobles del pueblo.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan el papel de los líderes en la excavación del pozo.

Con el cetro y sus bastones.
Un cetro fue llevado por aquellos con autoridad, y el personal fue llevado por todos. Ninguno de estos son herramientas de excavación. Estos dos elementos enfatizan que no estaban tan orgullosos de usar ningún medio disponible. AT: "usando incluso su cetro y bastón"

Numbers 21:19

Nahaliel ... Bamot
Estos son los nombres de los lugares.

Monte Pisga
Este es el nombre de una montaña.

mira hacia abajo en el desierto Este es un idioma. Es una forma de decir que la montaña es alta y habla de la montaña como si fuera una persona que mira hacia abajo para ver el desierto debajo de él. AT: "se eleva sobre el desierto"

Numbers 21:21

Entonces israel
Aquí, "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel, y especialmente a sus líderes. EN: "Entonces los israelitas"

No nos convertiremos en ningún campo o viña.
"No entraremos en ninguno de tus campos o viñedos"

la carretera del rey
Esta es la carretera principal que conecta Damasco en el norte con el Golfo de Aqaba en el sur. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 20:17.

pasar por su frontera
"Para cruzar sobre su frontera". Aquí "su" se refiere a los amorreos.

Jahaza
Este es el nombre de un lugar.

luchó contra Israel
Aquí "él" se refiere al ejército del rey Sihon, e "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. AT: "su ejército luchó contra los israelitas

Numbers 21:24

Israel atacó
Aquí "Israel" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. EN: "Los israelitas atacaron"

con el filo de la espada
"Con la parte afilada de la espada". El "filo de la espada" está asociado con la muerte y la destrucción completa. AT: "y los derrotó completamente"

tomaron su tierra
"conquistó la tierra de los amorreos". Aquí la palabra "su" se refiere a los amorreos.

la gente de Amón ... los amorreos
"los amonitas ... los amorreos" o "la gente de Amón ... la gente de Arnon". Estos nombres son similares, pero se refieren a dos grupos de personas diferentes.

fue fortificado
"fue fuertemente defendido"

Hesbón y todos sus pueblos
Aquí "su" es posesivo para mostrar que existía una relación entre la ciudad de Hesbon y estos pueblos cercanos. AT: "Hesbon y los pueblos cercanos que controlaba"

Sihon había tomado toda su tierra.
Aquí "su" se refiere al rey de Moab.

Numbers 21:27

Hesbon ... ciudad de Sehon
Estos son dos nombres que se refieren a la misma ciudad.

Que la ciudad de Sehon sea reconstruida y establecida nuevamente.
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Que alguien reconstruya y establezca de nuevo la ciudad de Sehon"

reconstruido y establecido
Estos dos términos son muy similares y enfatizan que la ciudad será completamente reconstruida. EN: "completamente reconstruido"

Un incendio ardió de Hesbon, una llama de la ciudad de Sehon.
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que la destrucción comenzará en Hesbon. El fuego se refiere a un ejército destructor. EN: "El rey Sehon dirigió un ejército fuerte de la ciudad de Hesbón".

Ar de Moab devorado
Se habla del ejército de Sehon como si fuera un animal que se comió la ciudad de Ar. AT: "destruyó la ciudad de Ar en la tierra de Moab"

Numbers 21:29

Moab ... la gente de Quemos
Estas dos frases se refieren a las mismas personas.

gente de Quemos
"Quemos" era el nombre del dios falso a quien adoraban los moabitas. AT: "las personas que adoran a Quemos"

El hecho sus hijos
"Él" y "su" se refieren a Quemos.

tenemos que conquistar
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a los israelitas que derrotaron a Sehon.

Hesbon está devastado
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Hemos devastado a Hesbon"

Hesbon ... hasta Dibon ... hasta Nofa ... hasta Medeba
Estos son todos los lugares en el reino de Sehon. Esto significa que los israelitas destruyeron la nación entera de Sehon.

Numbers 21:31

expulso ahuyentado

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 21:33

salió contra ellos
"los atacaron"

Haz con él lo que hiciste con Sihón, rey de los amorreos.
Los israelitas habían destruido completamente a Sehon. AT: "Destrúyelo como tú destruiste a Sehon, rey de los amorreos"

Así que lo mataron
"Así el ejército de Israel mató a Og"

ninguno de su pueblo quedó vivo Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "todo su pueblo estaba muerto"

se apoderaron de su tierra
"tomaron el control de su tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 La gente de Israel continuó viajando hasta que acamparon en los llanos de Moab cerca de Jericó, en el otro lado del río Jordán desde la ciudad. 2 Balac hijo de Zipor vió todo lo que Israel le había hecho a los amorreos. 3 Moab estaba muy asustado de la gente porque eran muchos, y Moab estaba en terror del pueblo de Israel. 4 El rey de Moab dijo a los ancianos de Madián: "Esta multitud se comerá todo lo que está alrededor nuestro así como un buey come la hierba en un campo." Balac hijo de Zipor era rey de Moab en aquél tiempo. 5 Él envió mensajeros a Balaam hijo de Beor, en Petor que está por el río Éufrates, en la tierra de su nación y su gente. Él lo llamó y dijo: "Mira, una nación ha venido aquí desde Egipto. Ellos cubren toda la tierra y están ahora mismo aqui junto a mí. 6 Así que, por favor ven ahora y maldice esta nación por mí, porque ellos son muy fuertes para mí. Tal vez entonces pueda lograr atacarlos y sacarlos de la tierra. Sé que todo el que bendigas será bendito, y cualquiera que maldigas será maldito." 7 Así que, los ancianos de Moab y los anciaos de Madián se fueron, tomando el pago para la adivinación. Ellos vinieron a Balaam y habló a ellos las palabras de Balac. 8 Balaam dijo a ellos: "Quédense aquí esta noche. Yo traeré a ustedes lo que EL SEÑOR me diga." Así que, los jefes de Moab se quedaron con Balaam esa noche. 9 Dios vino a Balaam y dijo: "¿Quienes son estos hombres que vinieron a ti?" 10 Balaam le respondió a Dios: "Balac hijo de Zipor, rey de Moab, los ha enviado a mí. Él dijo: 11 'Mira, la gente que vino desde Egipto cubren toda mi tierra. Ahora, ven y maldícelos por mí. Tal vez yo logre luchar contra ellos y sacarlos.' 12 Dios respondió a Balaam: "Tú no debes ir con esos hombres. Tú no debes maldecir la gente de Israel porque ellos han sido bendecidos." 13 Balaam se levantó en la mañana y dijo a los jefes de Balac: "Vuelvan a su tierra pues EL SEÑOR se rehúsa a permitirme ir con ustedes." 14 Así que, los jefes de Moab se fueron y se volvieron a Balac. Ellos dijeron, "Balaam se rehúso a venir con nosotros." 15 Balac envió entonces más jefes que eran más honrados que el primer grupo. 16 Ellos vinieron a Balaam y le dijeron: "Balac hijo de Zipor dice esto 'Por favor no permitas que nada te detenga de venir a mí, 17 porque yo te pagaré extremadamente bien y te daré gran honor, y haré todo lo que me digas que haga. Así que, por favor ven y maldice a esta gente por mí.'" 18 Balaam respondió y dijo a los hombres de Balac: "Aún si Balac me diera su palacio lleno de plata y oro, no puedo ir más allá de la palabra del SEÑOR, mi Dios, y hacer menos o más de lo que Él me dice. 19 Ahora pues, por favor esperen aquí esta noche tambíen, para que yo pueda aprender algo más de lo que EL SEÑOR me dice." 20 Dios vino a Balaam de noche y le dijo: "Ya que estos hombres vinieron a convocarte, levántate y ve con ellos. Pero haz solo lo que Yo te diga que hagas." 21 Balaam se levantó en la mañana, ensilló a su burra, y fue con los jefes de Moab. 22 Pero como fue, la ira de Dios se encendió. El ángel del SEÑOR se puso en medio del camino como un enemigo hacia Balaam, que estaba montando sobre su burra. Los dos sirvientes de Balaam también estaban con él. 23 La burra vió el ángel del SEÑOR parado en el camino con su espada desenvainada en su mano. La burra giró fuera del camino y se fue dentro de un campo. Balaam golpeó a la burra para que girára hacia el camino. 24 Entonces el ángel del SEÑOR se paró en una parte angosta del camino entre algunos viñedos, con una pared a su lado derecho y otra pared a su lado izquierdo. 25 La burra vió al ángel del SEÑOR de nuevo. Fue contra la pared y atoró el pie de Balaam contra ella. Balaam la golpeó de nuevo. 26 El ángel del SEÑOR fue más allá y se paró en otro lugar angosto donde no había manera de girar a ningún lado. 27 La burra vió al ángel del SEÑOR, y se acostó bajo Balaam. La ira de Balaam se encendio, y golpeó a la burra con su vara. 28 Entonces EL SEÑOR abrió la boca de la burra para que pudiera hablar. Ella dijo a Balaam: "¿Qué te he hecho que te ha provocado a golpearme estas tres veces?" 29 Balaam le respondió a la burra: "Es porque actuaste tan estúpidamente conmigo. Deseo que hubiera una espada en mi mano. Si hubiera una, ya te habría matado." 30 La burra dijo a Balaam: "¿Acaso no soy yo la burra en quien te haz montado toda tu vida hasta presente dia? ¿Alguna vez he hecho tales cosas anteriormente?" Balaam dijo: "No." 31 Luego EL SEÑOR abrió los ojos de Balaam, y el vió que el ángel del SEÑOR en el camino con su espada desenvainada en su mano. Balaam bajó su cabeza y su acostó boca abajo. 32 El ángel del SEÑOR le dijo: "¿Por qué haz golpeado a tu burra estas tres veces? Mira, he venido a ti como un enemigo porque tus acciones hacia Mí han sido malvadas. 33 La burra me vió y se desvió de Mí estas tres veces. Si ella no se hubiese desviado de Mí, Yo ciertamente te hubiera matado y perdonado la vida de ella." 34 Balaam dijo al ángel del SEÑOR: "Yo he pecado. Yo no sabía que Tú estabas parado contra mí en el camino. Así que, ahora yo me regresaré." 35 Pero el ángel del SEÑOR dijo a Balaam: "Ve delante con esos hombres. Pero tú debes hablar las palabras que Yo te diga." Así que, Balaam fue con los jefesde Balac. 36 Cuando Balac escuchó que Balaam había venido, fue afuera a recibirlo a una ciudad en Moab en el Arnón, que está en la frontera. 37 Balac dijo a Balaam: "¿Acaso yo no te envié hombres a convocarte? ¿Por qué no viniste a mí? ¿Acaso no soy capaz de honrarte?" 38 Entonces Balaam respondió a Balac: "Mira, he venido a ti. ¿Acaso

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tengo ahora poder para decir algo? Yo sólo puedo decir las palabras que Dios pone en mi boca." 39 Balaam fue con Balac, y llegaron a Quiriat Huzot. 40 Entonces Balac sacrificó bueyes y ovejas y dio algo de carne a Balaam y a los jefes que estaban con él. 41 En la mañana, Balac llevó a Balaam al lugar alto de Baal. De ahí Balaam podía ver solo una parte de los israelitas en su campamento

---

Numbers 22:1

Al otro lado del río Jordán desde la ciudad.
Los israelitas estaban acampados en el lado este del río Jordán. Jericó estaba en el lado oeste del río.

Numbers 22:2

Balac hijo de Zipor
Balac era rey de Moab.

Zipor
Zipor es el padre de Balac.

Moab tenía mucho miedo de la gente ... Moab estaba aterrorizado de la gente de Israel
Estas dos frases significan lo mismo, y enfatizan cuán asustado estaba Moab

Moab estaba muy asustado Aquí "Moab" se refiere a la gente de Moab. AT: "Todos los moabitas tenían mucho miedo"

porque eran muchos
"porque había muchos de ellos"

El rey de Moab dijo a los ancianos de Madián.
Los moabitas y los madianitas eran dos grupos diferentes de personas, pero los madianitas vivían en la tierra de Moab en ese momento

Esta multitud se comerá todo lo que nos rodea como un buey se come la hierba en un campo
Se habla de la forma en que los israelitas destruirán a sus enemigos como si fueran un buey que se come la hierba en un campo.

Y Balac, hijo de Zipor, era rey de Moab en aquel tiempo.
Esto cambia de la historia principal a la información de fondo sobre Balak.

Numbers 22:5

Envió mensajeros
"Balac envió mensajeros"

Beor
Este es el nombre del padre de Balaam.

Petor
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

de su nación y su pueblo
"De la nación y pueblo de Balaam".

El lo llamo
"Balac llamó a Balaam". Balac no le habló directamente a Balaam, pero lo hizo a través de los mensajeros que envió.

Cubren la faz de la tierra Esto es una exageración para enfatizar cuán numerosos fueron. AT: "Son extremadamente numerosos"

la faz de la tierra
Esto se refiere a la superficie de la tierra.

conducirlos
"persíguelos"

Sé que el que bendigas será bendecido, y el que maldigas será maldecido Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Sé que tienes el poder de bendecir o de maldecir a la gente"

Numbers 22:7

pago por adivinación
El sustantivo abstracto "adivinación" puede ser declarado como una acción. AT: "dinero para pagar a Balaam para maldecir a Israel"

Vinieron a balaam
Usted puede preferir decir "Fueron a Balaam"

Le habló las palabras de Balac.
Aquí "palabras" se refiere al mensaje. AT: "le dijo el mensaje de Balac"

Balac
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22: 2.

te traeré
Se habla del informe de Balaam como si fuera algo que él llevaría a los mensajeros. AT: "Te lo diré"

Numbers 22:9

Dios vino a Balaam
"Dios se apareció a Balaam"

¿Quiénes son estos hombres que vinieron a ti?
el Señor usa una pregunta para introducir un nuevo tema de conversación. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "Háblame de estos hombres que vinieron a ti".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Balac ... Zipor
Estos son los nombres de los hombres. Vea cómo tradujo estos en 22: 2.

Mira, la gente ... los echa Balaam reitera el mensaje que Balac le envió. Vea cómo tradujo muchas de estas frases en 22: 5.

expulsarlos
"ahuyéntelos"

Numbers 22:12

porque han sido bendecidos
Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "porque los he bendecido"

Balac
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22: 2.

Numbers 22:15

Vinieron a balaam
Usted puede preferir decir "Fueron a Balaam"

Balac
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22: 2.

esta gente
El nombre singular se refiere a los israelitas como un grupo. AT: "este grupo de personas"

Numbers 22:18

Balac
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22: 2.

Incluso si Balac me diera su palacio lleno de plata y oro.
Balaam está describiendo algo que nunca sucedería. Él está enfatizando que no hay nada que pueda hacer que desobedezca a El Señor.

No puedo ir más allá de la palabra de El Señor... y hacer menos o más de lo que me dice.
Esto significa que Balaam no puede desobedecer a El Señor de ninguna manera.

Numbers 22:21

ensillado su burro
Una silla de montar es un asiento que se coloca en la espalda de un animal para montarlo.

La ira de Dios fue encendida
Se habla del aumento en la ira de Dios como si fuera un fuego que comenzara a arder. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. AT: "Dios se enojó mucho"

como alguien hostil a Balaam
"como enemigo de Balaam" o "para detener a Balaam"

con su espada desenvainada
Se saca una espada de su vaina para estar lista para usar. AT: "con su espada lista para atacar"

El burro salió de la carretera y entró en un campo.
El burro hizo esto para evitar al ángel de El Señor.

para darle la espalda
A veces los animales son referidos como "ella" o "ella". AT: "para darle la vuelta"

Numbers 22:24

Ella fue contra la pared
Este fue un intento de escapar del ángel de El Señor en el camino.

Ella fue
A veces los animales son referidos como "ella" o "ella". EN: "Se fue"

Puso el pie de Balaam contra él.
"empujó el pie de Balaam contra él" o "lastimó el pie de Balaam contra él"

Numbers 22:26

La ira de Balaam se encendió.
Se habla del aumento en la ira de Balaam como si fuera un fuego que comenzara a arder. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 22:21. AT: "Balaam se enojó mucho"

Numbers 22:28

Entonces El Señor abrió la boca del burro para que ella pudiera hablar.
Abrir la boca se asocia con la capacidad de hablar. AT: "Entonces El Señorle dio al burro la capacidad de hablar como hablaría un humano"

Ella le dijo a Balaam
"El asno le dijo a Balaam"

¿No soy tu burra en el que has conducido toda tu vida hasta el día de hoy?
Esta pregunta retórica se usó para condenar a Balaam de que su juicio del burro fue injusto. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "Soy tu burra en el que has montado toda tu vida, hasta el momento presente".

¿Alguna vez he tenido la costumbre de hacerte esas cosas antes?
Esta pregunta retórica se usó para convencer aún más a Balaam de que su juicio del burro fue injusto. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "¡Nunca he tenido el hábito de hacerte tales cosas!"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 22:31

Entonces Jehová abrió los ojos de Balaam, y vio al ángel de Jehová.
"Abrir los ojos" está asociado con ser capaz de ver. AT: "Entonces El Señor le dio a Balaam la capacidad de ver al ángel de El Señor"

con su espada desenvainada
Se saca una espada de su vaina para estar lista para usar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:21. AT: "con su espada lista para atacar"

Balaam bajó la cabeza y se tumbó boca abajo.
Esto indica que Balaam se está humillando ante el ángel.

¿Por qué has golpeado a tu burro estas tres veces?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para acusar a Balaam de hacer el mal. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "No deberías haber golpeado a tu burro estas tres veces"

como alguien hostil a ti
"como un enemigo para ti" o "para oponerte"

Si ella no se hubiera convertido ... te mató y le perdonó la vida
Esta declaración hipotética indicaba lo que podría haber ocurrido, pero no fue así porque las acciones del burro salvaron a Balaam.

Numbers 22:34

Así que ahora, si te desagrada.
"Así que si no quieres que continúe yendo"

con los líderes de Balac
"Con los líderes que Balac había enviado". Vea cómo tradujo "Balac" en 22: 2.

Numbers 22:36

Arnon
Este es el nombre de un río. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 21:12.

¿No te he enviado hombres para que te llamen?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para reprender a Balaam por demorarse en llegar. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. EN: "Seguramente envié a los hombres a convocarlos"

¿Por qué no viniste a mí?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para reprender a Balaam por demorarse en llegar. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "Deberías haber venido a mí!"

¿No soy capaz de honrarte?
Esta pregunta retórica se usa para reprender a Balaam por demorarse en llegar. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "Seguramente sabes que puedo pagarte por venir a mí".

Numbers 22:38

¿Tengo ahora poder para decir algo?
Balaam usa esta pregunta retórica para decirle a Balac que no podrá hacer todo lo que Balac le pide que haga. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "Pero no tengo poder para decir lo que quiero"

las palabras que Dios pone en mi boca Aquí "palabras" se refiere al mensaje de Dios. Se habla del mensaje como si fuera algo que Dios puso en su boca. AT: "El mensaje que Dios quiere que diga".

Quiriat Huzot
Este es el nombre de un pueblo.

algo de carne
Algunas de las carnes de los sacrificios

Numbers 22:41

el lugar alto de baal
Los posibles significados son 1) esto se refiere al mismo lugar que Bamoth en 21:19. La palabra Bamoth significa "el lugar alto", o 2) este es otro lugar alto donde las personas se sacrificaron a Baal.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 Balaam le dijo a Balac: "Construye siete altares aquí para mi y prepara siete toros y siete corderos." 2 Así que, Balac hizo lo que Balaam pidió. Luego Balac y Balaam ofrecieron un toro y un cordero en cada altar. 3 Luego Balaam le dijo a Balac: "Párate junto a tu ofrenda quemada y yo me iré. Tal vez EL SEÑOR va a venir a encontrarme. Lo que sea que Él me muestre yo te lo diré." Así que, él se fue lejos a una cima sin árboles. 4 Mientras él estaba en la cima, Dios lo encontró, y Balaam le dijo: "Yo he construido siete altares, y yo he ofrendado un toro y un cordero en cada uno." 5 El SEÑOR puso un mensaje en la boca de Balaam y dijo: "Regresa a donde Balac y habla a él." 6 Así que, Balaam regresó a Balac, que estaba parado junto a su ofrenda quemada, y todos los jefes de Moab estaban con él. 7 Luego Balaam comenzó a hablar su profecía y dijo: "Balac me has traído a mí desde Aram, el rey de Moab de las montañas orientales. 'Ven, maldice a Jacob para mí' dijiste. 'Ve, desafía a Israel.' 8 ¿Cómo puedo yo maldecir a aquellos a quienes Dios no ha maldecido? ¿Cómo puedo yo oponerme a aquellos a los que EL SEÑOR no se ha opuesto? 9 Pues de arriba de la roca yo lo veo a él; de las colinas yo lo miro a él. Mira, hay un pueblo que vive apartado y no se consideran a ellos mismos como una nación ordinaria. 10 ¿Quién puede contar el polvo de Jacob o el número de sólo un cuarto de Israel? ¡Déjame morir la muerte de una persona justa, y deja que mi vida termine como la de él!" 11 Balac le dijo a Balaam: "¿Qué me has hecho? Yo te traje para que maldigas a mis enemigos, pero mira, tú los has bendecido." 12 Balaam le contestó y le dijo: "¿No debería yo de tener cuidado de decir sólo lo que EL SEÑOR pone en mi boca?" 13 Así que Balac le dijo: "Por favor, ven conmigo a otro lugar donde los puedas ver. Sólo ves a los más cercanos de ellos, no a todos. Allí tú los vas a maldecir por mi." 14 Así que, él se llevó a Balaam al campo de Zofim, a la cima del Monte de Pisga, y contruyó siete altares más. Él ofrecio un toro y un cordero en cada altar. 15 Luego Balaam le dijo a Balac: "Párate aquí junto a tus ofrendas quemadas, mientras yo me encuentro con EL SEÑOR por allá." 16 Así que, EL SEÑOR se encontró con Balaam y puso un mensaje en su boca. Él dijo: "Vuelve a Balac y dale Mi mensaje." 17 Balaam volvió a él, y miró, él estaba parado junto a sus ofrendas quemadas, y los jefes de Moab estaban con él. Luego Balac le dijo a él: "¿Qué ha dicho EL SEÑOR?" 18 Balaam comenzó su profecía. Él dijo: "Levántate, Balac y escucha. Escúchame a mi, tú hijo de Zipor. 19 Dios no es un hombre, que deba mentir, ni un ser humano, que deba cambiar Su mente. ¿Él ha prometido algo sin haberlo cumplido? 20 Mira, yo he sido mandado a bendecir. Dios ha dado una bendición, y yo no puedo regresarla. 21 Él no ha visto ninguna dificultad en Jacob ni problemas en Israel. El SEÑOR su Dios está con ellos, y grita por su rey que está entre ellos. 22 Dios los sacó de Egipto con fuerza como la de un buey salvaje. 23 No hay ninguna brujería que funcione contra Jacob, y no hay adivinación que haga daño a Israel. Por el contrario, debe ser dicho sobre Jacob e Israel: '¡Mira lo que Dios ha hecho!' 24 Mira, el pueblo se levantó como una leona, como un león emerge y ataca. Él no se acuesta hasta que él se come a su victima y se bebe la sangre de lo que él ha matado." 25 Luego Balac le dijo a Balaam: "No los maldigas ni los bendigas en nada." 26 Pero Balaam contestó y dijo a Balac: "¿No te dije que yo debo decir todo lo que EL SEÑOR me diga?" 27 Así que, Balac le contestó a Balaam: "Ven ahora, yo voy a llevarte a otro lugar. Tal vez va a placerle a Dios que tú los maldigas por mi. 28 Así que, Balac llevó a Balaam a la cima del Monte Peor, el cual mira hacia bajo al desierto. 29 Balaam le dijo a Balac: "Constrúyeme siete altares aquí y prepara siete toros y siete corderos." 30 Así que, Balac construyo como Balaam había dicho; ofreció un toro y un cordero en cada altar.

Numbers 23:1

Balac
Este es el rey de Moab. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:2

prepara siete toros y siete carneros
"mata siete toros y siete carneros como sacrificio"

Párate en tu ofrenda quemada y yo me iré
"Quédate aquí con tu ofrenda quemada y me iré lejos"

Numbers 23:4

yo he ofrendado un toro y un carnero
Ya se ha indicado que él mató a estos animales como una ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "He matado un toro y un carnero y los quemé como una ofrenda"

El SEÑOR puso un mensaje en la boca de Balaam Aquí el SEÑOR da a Balaam un mensaje para hablar como si lo colocara en su boca. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR dijo a Balaam lo que quería que dijera a Balac"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 23:7

Balac me ha traído a mí desde Aram, el rey de Moab de las montañas orientales Estas frases tienen el mismo significado.

'Ven, maldice a Jacob para mí'... 'Ve, desafía a Israel'.
Ambas declaraciones tienen el mismo significado. Hacen énfasis en que Balac quiere que Balaam maldiga al pueblo de Israel.

¿Cómo puedo yo maldecir a aquellos a quienes Dios no ha maldecido? ¿Cómo puedo yo oponerme a aquellos a quienes el SEÑOR no se ha opuesto?
Estas preguntas retóricas hacen énfasis en la negativa de Balaam a desobedecer a Dios. Pueden ser traducidos como expresiones. Traducción Alterna: "Pero no puedo maldecir a quienes Dios no ha maldecido. ¡No puedo oponerme a aquellos a quienes el SEÑOR no se opone!" (Ver:)

Numbers 23:9

del tope de la roca yo lo veo a él...de las colinas yo lo miro a él Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado. Balaam vió a Israel desde la cima de una colina.

Yo lo veo a él... yo lo miro a él Aquí "él" es una metonimia

hay personas
"hay un grupo de personas"

no se consideran a ellos mismos como una nación ordinaria
Esta afirmación negativa se usa para enfatizar que lo contrario es cierto. Traducción Alterna: "ellos se consideran a sí mismos una nación especial".

Numbers 23:10

¿Quién puede contar el polvo de Jacob o el número de sólo un cuarto de Israel?
un cuarto de Israel - Aquí "polvo de Jacob" es una metáfora que habla acerca de el número de israelitas como si fueran tan numerosos como los granos de polvo. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Hay demasiados israelitas para contar. Nadie podría contar ni la cuarta parte de ellos por que hay demasiados".

la muerte de una persona justa
Se entiende que esta será una muerte pacífica. Esto puede afirmarse. Traducción Alterna: "la muerte pacífica de una persona justa"

una persona justa... como la de él
Estas son metonimias que se refieren al pueblo de Israel como una sola persona.

Numbers 23:11

Balac
Este es el rey de Moab. Vea cómo ha traducido esto en 22:2.

¿Qué me has hecho?
Balac utiliza esta pregunta para regañar a Balaam. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una expresión. Traducción Alterna: "¡No puedo creer que me hiciste esto!"

pero mira
Esto hace énfasis en la impactante acción que sigue.

¿No debería yo tener cuidado de decir sólo lo que el SEÑOR pone en mi boca?
Balaam utiliza esta pregunta retórica para defender sus acciones. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Debo tener mucho cuidado de decir sólo lo que el SEÑOR me dice que diga".

decir sólo lo que el SEÑOR pone en mi boca
Se habla del mensaje como si fuera algo que Dios puso en su boca. Vea como tradujo una frase similar en 22:38. Traducción Alterna: "decir sólo lo que el SEÑOR quiere que yo diga".

Numbers 23:13

Allí tú los vas a maldecir por mí
"Allí maldecirás a los israelitas por mí"

campo de Zofim
Los traductores pueden agregar una nota al pie que diga: "La palabra 'Zofim' significa 'mirar' o 'espiar'".

Monte de Pisga
Este es el nombre de una montaña. Vea como tradujo esto en 21:19.

Numbers 23:16

puso un mensaje en su boca
Se habla del mensaje como si fuera algo que Dios puso en su boca. Vea como tradujo una frase similar en 22:38. AT: "le dijo qué decir".

Él dijo
"Entonces dijo el SEÑOR"

Balac, y escucha. Escúchame a mí, tú hijo de Zipor Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado y se repiten para enfatizar qué tan importante era para Balac prestar atención.

hijo de Zipor
Esto se refiere a Balac. Vea como tradujo esto en 22:2.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 23:19

¿Él ha prometido algo sin haberlo cumplido? ¿Ha dicho que haría algo sin llevarlo a cabo?
Ambas preguntas tienen el mismo significado y enfatizan que Dios hace lo que dice que hará. Estas preguntas retóricas pueden traducirse como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Nunca ha prometido una cosa sin cumplir lo que prometió. Siempre ha hecho exactamente lo que dijo que haría".

Me han ordenado bendecir
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios me ha ordenado que bendiga a los israelitas".

Numbers 23:21

dificultad en Jacob... problemas en Israel Estas dos frases tienen el mismo significado. Los posibles significados son: 1) Dios le ha dado a Israel sólo cosas buenas o 2) no hay pecado en Israel que le haga juzgarlos.

gritos por su rey hay entre ellos
"gritan de alegría porque el SEÑOR es su rey"

con fuerza como la de un buey salvaje
Este símil dice que la gran fuerza del SEÑOR es igual a la de un buey.

Numbers 23:23

No hay ninguna brujería que funcione contra Jacob... no hay adivinación que haga daño a Israel daño a Israel - Estas dos líneas tienen el mismo significado, que ninguna maldición que alguien ponga sobre la nación de Israel será efectiva. Aquí "Jacob" es una metonimia

debe ser dicho
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa: "la gente debe decir".

¡Mira lo que Dios ha hecho!
Está implícito que lo que Dios hizo por ellos fue bueno. Traducción Alterna: ¡Mira las cosas buenas que Dios ha hechos por ellos!

Numbers 23:24

las personas se levantan como una leona... él ha matado
Este verso es una larga metáfora que habla acerca de Israel derrotando a sus enemigos como si Israel fuera un león devorando a su presa.

Numbers 23:25

Balac
Este es el rey de Moab. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:2.

¿No te dije que yo debo decir todo lo que el SEÑOR me dice que diga?
Balaam usa esta pregunta retórica para recordarle a Balac que él se negó a desobedecer a Dios incluso antes de que viniera a Balac. Puede ser traducido como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Te dije antes que debo decir todo lo que el SEÑOR me dice que diga".

Numbers 23:28

el cual mira hacia el desierto
Se entiende que este desierto estaba donde Israel se encontraba acampado. Traducción Alterna: "el cual mira hacia el desierto donde estaba Israel".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 Cuando Balaam vio que complacía al SEÑOR el bendecir a Israel, no fue, como en las otras ocasiones, para usar hechicería. En vez de eso, miró hacia el desierto. 2 Alzó sus ojos y vio que Israel estaba acampado, cada uno en su propia tribu, y el Espíritu de Dios vino sobre él. 3 Él recibió esta profecía y dijo: "Balaam hijo de Beor estás a punto de hablar, el hombre cuyos ojos están muy abiertos. 4 Habla y escucha las palabras de Dios. Ve visión del Todopoderoso, ante quien se acuesta boca abajo con sus ojos abiertos. 5 Cuan bellas son tus tiendas, Jacob, el lugar donde vives, ¡Israel! 6 Como valles se esparcieron, como jardines al lado del río, como áloes plantados por EL SEÑOR, como cedros junto a las aguas 7 Agua fluye de sus baldes, y su semilla es bien regada con agua. Su rey está por ser más engrandecido que Agag, y su reino será honrado. 8 Dios lo trae fuera de Egipto, con fuerza como de un buey salvaje. Se comerá a las naciones que luchan contra él. Romperá sus huesos en pedazos. Les disparará con sus flechas. 9 Se agacha como un león, como una leona. ¿Quién se atreve a molestarlo? Que todo aquél que lo bendiga sea bendito; que todo aquél que lo maldiga sea maldito." 10 La ira de Balac se encendió hacia Balaam y golpeó sus manos juntas en enojo. Balac dijo a Balaam: "Yo te llamé a maldecir a mis enemigos, pero mira, tú los has bendecido tres veces. 11 Así que déjame ahora mismo y vete a tu casa. Yo dije que te recompenzaría grandemente a ti, pero EL SEÑOR te ha guardado de tener cualquier recompensa." 12 Después Balaam respondió a Balac: "Yo dije a los mensajeros que enviaste a mí, 13 'Aún si Balac me diera su palacio lleno de plata y oro, yo no podría ir más allá de la palabra del SEÑOR y cualquier cosa buena o mala, o cualquier cosa que yo tal vez quisiera hacer. Yo solo puedo decir lo que EL SEÑOR me dice que diga.' ¿Acaso no dije esto a ellos? 14 Así que ahora, mira, yo volveré a mi pueblo. Pero primero déjame advertirte lo que este pueblo hará a tu pueblo en los próximos días." 15 Balaam comenzó esta profecía. Él dijo: "Balaam hijo de Beor habla, El hombre cuyos ojos están muy abiertos. 16 Esta es una profecía de alguien que escucha palabras de Dios, quien tiene conocimiento del Altísimo, quien tiene visiones del Todopoderoso, ante quien se acuesta boca abajo con los ojos abiertos. 17 Lo veo, pero no está aquí ahora. Yo lo veo, pero no está cerca. Una estrella saldrá de Jacob, y un cetro se levantará de Israel. Él destruirá a los jefes de Moab y destruirá a todos los decendientes de Set. 18 Después Edom vendrá ser una posesión de Israel, y Seir también se volverá su posesión, enemigos de Israel, quienes Israel conquistará con fuerza. 19 Fuera de Jacob un rey vendrá quien tendrá dominio, y él destruirá los sobrevivientes de sus ciudades." 20 Balaam miró a Amalec y comenzó su profecía. Él dijo: "Amalec fue una vez el más grandioso de las naciones, pero su final será destrucción." 21 Entonces Balaam miró hacia los Quenitas y comenzó su profecía. Él dijo: "El lugar donde tú vives es fuerte, y tu nido es en las rocas. 22 Sin embargo Caín será arruinado cuando Asiria te lleve cautivo." 23 Luego Balaam comenzó su profecía final. Él dijo: "¡Ay! ¿Quién sobrevivirá cuando Dios haga esto? 24 Naves vendrán de la costa de Quitim; atacarán a Asiria y conquistarán a Heber, pero ellos, también, terminarán en destrucción." 25 Entonces Balaam se levantó y se fue. Se volvió a su casa, y Balac también se fue.

Numbers 24:1

como en las otras ocasiones
"como lo hizo las veces anteriores"

Numbers 24:2

Él alzó sus ojos
Aquí "alzó sus ojos" es un modismo que significa mirar hacia arriba. Traducción Alterna: "Él miró hacia arriba".

Espíritu de Dios vino sobre él
Esto significa que el Espíritu de Dios tomó control de él para profetizar.

Él recibió esta profecía
Esto puede declararse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Dios le dió esta profecía".

Balaam hijo de Beor
Beor era el padre de Balaam. Vea como tradujo esto en 22:5.

cuyos ojos están muy abiertos
Este modismo significa que ve y entiende de manera clara.

Numbers 24:4

Información General:
Balaam continúa profetizando bajo el control del Espíritu de Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Él habla... Él ve... él se postra Aquí Balaam se refiere a sí mismo como "Él".

él se postra
Este es un acto de humildad.

con sus ojos abiertos
Aquí "ojos abiertos" es un modismo que significa que Balaam ha recibido la capacidad de saber lo que Dios quiere decir.

¡Cuan bellas son tus tiendas, Jacob, el lugar donde vives, Israel!
Ambas declaraciones tienen el mismo significado. Hacen énfasis en que el campamento israelita era hermoso para Balaam.

Numbers 24:6

Información General:
Balaam continúa profetizando bajo el control del Espíritu de Dios.

Como valles ellos se esparcieron
Balaam habla de los Israelitas como si fueran lo suficientemente numerosos como para cubrir valles enteros.

como jardines al lado del río Balaam habla de los Israelitas como si fuesen jardines bien regados que producen una cosecha abundante.

áloes plantados por el SEÑOR
Los áloes son plantas con un aroma agradable que crecen bien incluso en condiciones secas. Balaam habla de los israelitas como si prosperaran y fueran agradables como las plantas de aloe. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "áloes que el SEÑOR ha plantado".

como cedros junto a las aguas
Los árboles de cedro eran los árboles más grandes de Israel. Balaam habla de los israelitas como si crecieran tan grandes como árboles de cedro bien regados.

Numbers 24:7

Información General:
Balaam continúa profetizando bajo el control del Espíritu de Dios.

Agua fluye... bien regada regada - El agua abundante está asociada con la bendición de Dios sobre los cultivos de la tierra. Esto puede ser expresado: "Dios bendecirá a Israel con abundante agua para sus cultivos".

su semilla es bien regada regada- La semilla bien regada se refiere a la bendición de Dios sobre su pueblo para que tengan cosechas abundantes. Traducción Alterna: "tendrán suficiente agua para que sus semillas produzcan cultivos sanos".

Su rey está por ser más engrandecido... su reino será honrado
Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar, enfatizando cuánto Dios los bendecirá en comparación con otras naciones.

Su rey está por ser más engrandecido que Agag Aquí "más engrandecido" se refiere a un mayor honor y poder. Esto significa que el futuro rey de Israel tendrá más honor y será más poderoso que Agag. Agag fue rey de los amalecitas.

su reino será honrado
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "otra gente dará honor a su reino".

Numbers 24:8

Información General:
Balaam continúa profetizando bajo el control del Espíritu de Dios.

Dios lo trae
"Dios trae a los israelitas".

con fuerza como un buey salvaje
Este simíl enfatiza que los israelitas tienen gran fuerza.

Él se comerá a las naciones
Balaam habla de los israelitas como si fueran animales salvajes que se comen a sus enemigos. Esto significa que ellos destruirán a sus enemigos.

Numbers 24:9

Información General:
Balaam termina la profecía bajo el control del Espíritu de Dios.

Él se agacha como un león, como una leona
En este símil, Balaam compara a los israelitas con leones tanto macho como hembra. Esto significa que son peligrosos y están siempre listos para atacar.

¿Quién se atreve a molestarlo?
Balaam usa una pregunta para advertir a todas las personas que no provoquen a los israelitas. Esto se puede traducir como una declaración. AT: "¡Nadie se atreve a molestarlo!"

Que todo aquél que lo bendiga sea bendecido; que todo aquél que lo maldiga sea maldito Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que Dios bendiga a los que bendicen a los israelitas; que maldiga a los que maldicen a los israelitas"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 24:10

La ira de Balac se encendió
Se habla del aumento de la ira de Balac como si fuera un fuego que comienza a arder. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Balac se enojó mucho".

golpeó sus manos juntas en enojo
Esta fue una señal de gran frustración y enojo.

Numbers 24:12

Aún si Balac me diera su palacio lleno de plata y oro Balaam está describiendo algo que nunca sucedería. Esta declaración hace énfasis en que no hay nada que pudiera hacer que Balaam desobedezca a Dios.

¿Acaso no dije esto a ellos?
Balaam usa una pregunta para recordarle a Balac lo que le dijo antes. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una expresión. Traducción Alterna: "Les dije esto a ellos".

este pueblo
"los israelitas"

Numbers 24:15

Balaam hijo de Beor
Beor era el padre de Balaam. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:5.

cuyos ojos están bien abiertos
Esta expresión idiomática significa que ve y entiende claramente. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 24:2.

quien tiene conocimiento del Altísimo
El término abstracto "conocimiento" puede ser declarado como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "quien sabe cosas que Dios el Altísimo le ha revelado".

se postra
Esta es una señal de sumisión a Dios.

Numbers 24:17

Información General:
Balaam continúa la primera de sus cuatro profecías.

Lo veo, pero él no está aquí ahora. Yo lo miro, pero él no está cerca Ambas declaraciones tienen el mismo significado. Balaam está teniendo un visión de un evento futuro. La palabra "él" se refiere a un futuro líder de Israel.

Una estrella saldrá de Jacob Aquí "estrella" se refiere a un rey israelita que se levantará en poder.

saldrá de Jacob Aquí "Jacob" se refiere a los descendientes de Jacob. Traducción Alterna: "de entre los descendientes de Jacob".

un cetro se levantará de Israel
Esto significa lo mismo que la primera parte de la oración. Aquí "cetro" se refiere a un rey poderoso.

se levantará de Israel Aquí "Israel" se refiere a los futuros israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "de entre los israelitas en el futuro"

quebrará los líderes de Moab Los posibles significados son: 1) él romperá la cabeza de los líderes de Moab o 2) él destruirá a los líderes de Moab.

todos los descendientes de Set Esto también se refiere a los moabitas, que eran descendientes de Set.

Numbers 24:18

Información General:
Balaam concluye la primera de sus cuatro profecías.

Edom vendrá a ser una posesión de Israel
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Los israelitas ocuparán Edom"

Seir también se volverá su posesión
Aquí "Seir" se refiere a las personas que vivían cerca del Monte Seir. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Israel también conquistará a la gente de Seir".

Fuera de Jacob un rey vendrá
Jacob fue el antepasado de los israelitas. "Jacob" es una metonimia

de sus ciudades
Esto se refiere a la ciudad de Ar donde Balac encontró a Balaam.

Numbers 24:20

Balaam miró a Amalec
Aquí "Amalec" es una metonimia

su final
Se usa un pronombre singular porque se habla de los amalecitas como una sola persona.

Numbers 24:21

los quenitas
Este es el nombre de un pueblo que descendía de Caín.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El lugar donde tú vives es fuerte
"El lugar donde vives está bien defendido"

tú nido es en las rocas
Esta es una metáfora que significa que viven en un lugar seguro. Traducción Alterna: "tú lugar es tan seguro como un nido en lo alto de las rocas"

No obstante Caín será arruinado cuando Asiria te lleve cautivo Caín fue una de las principales ciudades donde vivían los quenitas. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Sin embargo los asirios destruirán a los quenitas y los tomarán cautivos".

Numbers 24:23

¿Quién sobrevivirá cuando Dios haga esto?
Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "¡Nadie sobrevivirá cuando Dios haga esto!".

Quitim
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en una isla en el Mar Mediterráneo.

ellos, también, terminarán en destrucción El nombre abstracto "destrucción" puede ser declarado como una acción. Traducción Alterna: "Dios también los destruirá.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 Israel se quedó en Sitim, y los hombres comenzaron a prostituirse con las mujeres de Moab, 2 pues los moabitas habían invitado al pueblo a los sacrificos de sus dioses. Así qué, el pueblo comió y se acostó boca abajo a los dioses moabitas. 3 Los hombres de Israel, se unieron a adorar a Baal de Peor, y el enojo del SEÑOR se encendió contra Israel. 4 El SEÑOR le dijo a Moisés: "Mata a todos los jefes del pueblo y cuélgalos delante de Mí para exponerlos a la luz del día, para que mi fuerte enojo pueda volverse de Israel." 5 Así que, Moisés le dijo a los jefes de Israel: "Cada uno de ustedes debe ejecutar a las personas que se han unido a adorar a Baal de Peor." 6 Luego, uno de los hombres de Israel vino y trajo entre su familia a una mujer madianita. Esto pasó ante la vista de Moisés y de toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel, mientras estaban llorando en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. 7 Cuando Finees, hijo de Eleazar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote, vio esto, se levantó de entre la comunidad y tomó una lanza en su mano. 8 Siguió al varón israelita a la tienda y empujó la lanza a través de los cuerpos, del varón israelita y de la mujer. Así que, una plaga que Dios había enviado al pueblo de Israel se detuvo. 9 Aquellos que murieron por la plaga fueron veinticuatro mil en número. 10 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y Él le dijo: 11 "Finees, hijo de Eleazar, hijo de Aarón el sacerdote, alejó mi furia del pueblo de Israel porque fue apasionado con mi celo entre ellos. Así que, no he consumido al pueblo de Israel en mi furia. 12 Por lo tanto dí: 'El SEÑOR dice: "Miren, le estoy dando a Finees mi pacto de paz. 13 Para él y sus descendientes después de él, será un pacto de un sacerdocio eterno, porque fue celoso por mi, su Dios. Él ha expiado al pueblo de Israel."' 14 El nombre del varón israelita que fue muerto con la mujer madianita, era Zimri hijo de Salu, un jefe de una familia de antepasados entre los simeonitas. 15 El nombre de la mujer madianita que fue muerta era Cozbi, hija de Zur, que era cabeza de una tribu y familia en Madián. 16 Así que, EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés y le dijo: 17 "Trata a los madianitas como enemigos y atácalos, 18 pues te han tratado como enemigo con su desprecio. Ellos te condujeron al mal en el caso de Peor y en el caso de su hermana Cozbi, la hija de un jefe en Madián, que fue muerta en el día de la plaga en el asunto de Peor."

Numbers 25:1

Sitim
Este es el nombre de un lugar en Moab.

se postró
Esto fue un acto de adoración.

Peor
Peor era el nombre de una montaña. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:28.

el enojo del SEÑOR fue encendido
Se habla del incremento de la ira del Señor como si fuera un fuego que comienza a arder. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 21:19. Traducción Alterna: "El Señor se enojó mucho".

Numbers 25:4

todos los líderes del pueblo
Se implica que esto se refiere a los líderes que eran culpables de idolatría. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "todos los líderes del pueblo que son culpables de idolatría".

para exponerlos a la luz del día
Esto significa que los líderes de Israel matarán a estas personas y dejarán sus cadáveres donde todo el pueblo pueda verlos.

a los líderes de Israel
"a los líderes de Israel que no fueron culpables de idolatría"

Peor
Peor era el nombre de una montaña. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:28.

Numbers 25:6

trajo entre su familia a una mujer madianita
Se implica que la trajo a su campamento para tener relaciones sexuales con ella. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "llevó a una mujer madianita al campamento israelita para dormir con ella".

ante la vista de Moisés y de toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel Aquí "ante la vista de" es una expresión idiomática que significa que ellos escucharon sobre eso, o se enteraron de ello.

Eleazar
Este es el nombre del hijo de Aarón. Vea cómo lo tradujo en 3:1.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 25:8

Él siguió
"Finees siguió"

Numbers 25:10

alejó mi furia del pueblo de Israel
Se habla de la ira de Dios como si fuera algo que pudiera ser físicamente apartado para detenerlo. Traducción Alterna: "hizo que ya no estuviera enojado con el pueblo de Israel".

no he consumido al pueblo de Israel en mi ferocidad
Se habla de Dios como si fuera un animal feroz que podría haber devorado al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "no he destruido al pueblo de Israel en mi terrible ira".

Numbers 25:12

Por lo tanto di: 'El SEÑOR dice: "Miren, le estoy dando a Finees... al pueblo de Israel'".
Esto continúa el discurso del SEÑOR del versículo anterior. Esto tiene citas dentro de las citas. Las citas directas pueden ser expresadas como citas indirectas.Traducción Alterna: "Por lo tanto, di a Finees que le estoy dando a él... al pueblo de Israel".

Numbers 25:14

Ahora
Esto cambia de la línea principal de la historia a información de antecedentes sobre Zimri y Cozbi.

que fue asesinado
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quien Finees mató".

Zimri... Salu... Zur
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Cozbi
Este es el nombre de una mujer.

Numbers 25:16

con su desprecio
El sustantivo abstracto "desprecio" se puede expresar como un verbo. AT: "al despreciarte".

te condujeron al mal
"Te persuadieron para que hicieras esta cosa malvada"

en el caso de Peor... en el asunto de Peor Ambas frases significan que estas cosas sucedieron en el Monte Peor.

Peor
Peor era el nombre de una montaña. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 23:28.

que fue asesinada Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quien Finees mató". (Ver:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Sucedió después de la plaga que EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés y Eleazar hijo de Aarón el sacerdote. Él dijo: 2 "Cuenta toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel, de veinte años hacia arriba, por los antepasados de sus familias, todos los que pueden ir a la guerra por Israel." 3 Así que Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote les hablaron en las planicies de Moab por el Jordán en Jericó y dijo: 4 "Cuenta la gente, de veinte años hacia arriba, como EL SEÑOR mandó a Moisés y al pueblo de Israel, que salió de la tierra de Egipto." 5 Rubén era el primogénito de Israel. De su hijo Enoc vino la familia de los enoquitas. De Falú vino la familia de los faluitas. 6 De Hezrón vino la familia de los hezronitas. De Carmi vino la familia de los carmitas. 7 Estas fueron las familias de los descendientes de Rubén, que sumaban 43, 730 hombres. 8 Eliab era un hijo de Falú. 9 Los hijos de Eliab fueron Nemuel, Datán y Abiram. Éstos eran los mismos Datan y Abiram quienes siguieron a Coré cuando ellos desafiaron a Moisés y a Aarón y se rebelaron contra EL SEÑOR. 10 La tierra abrió su boca y se los tragó junto con Coré cuando sus seguidores murieron. En ese tiempo, el fuego devoró 250 hombres, quienes se volvieron una señal de advertencia. 11 Pero la línea de Coré no murió. 12 Las familias de los descendientes de Simeón eran estos: por Nemuel, la familia de los nemuelitas, por Jamín, la familia de los jaminitas, por Jaquín, la familia de los jaquinitas, 13 por Zera, la familia de los zeraítas, por Saúl, la familia de los saulitas. 14 Estas fueron las familias de los descendientes de Semeón, que sumaban 22, 200 hombres. 15 Las familias de los descendientes de Gad fueron estas: por Zefón, la familia de los zefonitas, por Hagui, la familia de los haguitas, por Suni, la familia de los sunitas, 16 por Ozni, la familia de los oznitas, 17 por Eri, la familia de los eritas, 18 por Arod, la familia de los aroditas, por Areli, la familia de los arelitas. Estos fueron los descendientes de Gad, que sumaban 40, 500 hombres. 19 Los hijos de Judá fueron Er y Onán, pero estos hombres murieron en la tierra de Canaán. 20 Las familias de los otros descendientes de Judá fueron estas: por Sela, la familia de los selaítas, por Fares, la familia de los faresitas, y por Zera, la familia de los zeraítas. 21 Los descendientes de Fares fueron estos: por Hezrón, la familia de los hezronitas, por Hamul, la familia de los hamulitas. 22 Estas fueron las familias de los descendientes de Juda, que sumaban 76, 500 hombres. 23 Las familias de los descendientes de Isacar fueron estas: por Tola, la familia de los tolaítas, por Fúa, la familia de los funitas, 24 por Jasub, la familia de los jasubitas, por Simrón, la familia de los simronitas. 25 Estas fueron las familias de Isacar, que sumaban 64, 300 hombres. 26 Las familias de los descendientes de Zabulón fueron estas: por Sered, la familia de los sereditas, por Elón, la familia de los elonitas, por Jahleel, la familia de los jahleelitas. 27 Estas fueron las familias de los zabulonitas, que sumaban 60, 500 hombres. 28 Las familias de los descendientes de José eran Manasés y Efraín. 29 Los descendientes de Manasés eran estos: por Maquir, la famila de los maquiritas (Maquir era el padre de Galaad), por Galaad, la familia de los galaaditas. 30 Los descendientes de Galaad fueron estos: por Jezer, la familia de los jezeritas, por Helec, la familia de los helequitas, 31 por Asriel, la familia de los asrielitas, por Siquem, la familia de los siquemitas, 32 por Semida, la familia de los semidaítas, por Hefer, la familia de los heferitas. 33 Zelofehad hijo de Hefer no tuvo hijos, sólo hijas. Los nombres de sus hijas fueron Maala, Noa, Hogla, Milca y Tirsa. 34 Estas fueron las familias de Manasés, que sumaban 52, 700 hombres. 35 Las familias de los descendientes de Efraín eran estas: por Sutela, la familia de los sutelaítas, por Bequer, la familia de los bequeritas, por Tahán, la familia de los tahanitas. 36 Los descendientes de Sutela fueron, por Erán, la familia de los eranitas. 37 Estas eran las familias de los descendientes de Efrían, que sumaban 32, 500 hombres. Estos eran los descendientes de José, sumados por cada una de sus familias. 38 Las familias de los descendientes de Benjamín eran estas: por Bela, la familia de los belaítas, por Asbel, la familia de los asbelitas, por Ahiram, la familia de los ahiramitas, 39 por Sufam, la familia de los sufamitas, por Hufam, la familia de los hufamitas. 40 Los hijos de Bela eran Ard y Naamán. De Ard vino la familia de los arditas, y de Naamán vino la familia de los naamitas. 41 Estas fueron las familias de los descendientes de Benjamín. Que sumaban 45, 600 hombres. 42 Las familias de los descendientes de Dan eran, por Súham, las familias de los suhamitas. Estas eran las familias de los descendientes de Dan. 43 Todas las familias de los suhamitas sumaban 64, 400 hombres. 44 Las familias de los descendientes de Aser eran estas: por Imna, la familia de los imnitas, por Isúi, la familia de los isuítas, por Bería, la familia de los beritas. 45 Los descendientes de Bería eran estos: por Heber, la familia de los heberitas, por Malquiel, la familia de los malquielitas. 46 El nombre de la hija de Aser era Sera. 47 Estas eran las familias de los descendientes de Aser, que sumaban 53, 400 hombres. 48 Las familias de los descendientes de Neftalí eran estas: por Jahzeel, el clan de los jahzeelitas, por Guni, el clan de los gunitas, 49 por Jezer, el clan de los jezeritas, por Silem, el clan de los silemitas. 50 Estas eran las familias de los descendientes de Neftalí, que sumaban 45,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

400 hombres. 51 Esta era la cantidad completa de los hombres entre el pueblo de Israel: 601, 730. 52 El SEÑOR habló a moisés y dijo: 53 "La tierra debe ser dividida entre estos hombres como una herencia de acuerdo al número de sus nombres. 54 A las familias más grandes debes darle más herencia, y a las familias más pequeñas debes darle menos herencia. A cada familia debes darle una herencia de acuerdo al número de hombres que fueron contados. 55 Sin embargo, la tierra debe ser dividida por suerte. Ellos deben heredar la tierra según sea dividida entre los antepasados de las tribus. 56 Su herencia debe ser dividida entre las familias más grandes y las familias más pequeñas, distribuída entre ellos por suerte." 57 Las familias de los levitas, contados familia por familia, eran estos: por Gersón, la familia de los gersonitas, por Coat, la familia de los coatitas, por Merari, la familia de los meraritas. 58 Las familias de Leví eran estos: la familia de los Libnitas, la familia de los Hebronitas, la familia de los mahlitas, la familia de los musitas, y la familia de los Coreítas. Coat era el antepasado de Amram. 59 El nombre de la esposa de Amram era Jocabed, descendiente de Leví, que nació a los Levitas en Egipto. Ella dio a luz a Amram sus hijos, que eran Aarón y Moisés, y su hermana Miriam. 60 A Aarón le nació Nadab y Abiú, Eleazar e Itamar. 61 Nadab y Abiú murieron cuando ofrecieron delante del SEÑOR fuego inaceptable. 62 Los hombres que fueron contados entre ellos fueron veintitres mil, todos hombres de un mes de edad hacia arriba. Pero no fueron contados entre los descendientes de Israel porque no se le dio herencia a ellos entre el pueblo de Israel. 63 Estos fueron los contados por Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote. Contaron al pueblo de Israel en las planicies de Moab por el Jordán en Jericó. 64 Pero entre estos no habia hombre que hubiera sido contado por Moisés y Aarón el sacerdote cuando los descendientes de Israel fueron contados en el desierto de Sinaí. 65 Por cuanto EL SEÑOR había dicho que toda esa gente ciertamente morirían en el desierto. No quedó un sólo hombre entre ellos, excepto Caleb hijo de Jefone y Josué hijo de Nun.

Numbers 26:1

Cuenta toda la comunidad
Sólo debían contar a los hombres, no a las mujeres. El significado completo de esta expresión se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Cuenta a todos los hombres de la comunidad"

veinte años hacia arriba
"20 años y más"

Numbers 26:3

habló a ellos
"habló a los líderes israelitas" planicies

Una planicie es un gran área plana de tierra.

veinte años en adelante
"20 años y más"

Numbers 26:5

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

era el primogénito de Israel
Aquí "Israel" se refiere al hombre también conocido como Jacob.

De su hijo
La palabra "su" se refiere a Rubén.

Numbers 26:8

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Eliab... Datán... Abiram
Traduzca los nombres de estos hombres de la misma manera que lo hizo en 16:1.

Numbers 26:10

La tierra abrió su boca y se los tragó
Aquí se habla de la tierra como si fuera una persona que abre la boca y se come algo. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR hizo que la tierra se abriera, y los hombres cayeron en el agujero"

el fuego devoró 250 hombres Aquí se habla del fuego como si fuera un gran animal devorando algo. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR provocó un incendio que mató a 250 hombres"

la linea de Coré
"toda la familia de Coré"

murieron
"final"

Numbers 26:12

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 26:15

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:19

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:23

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:26

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:28

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:30

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:33

Información General
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:35

Información General
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Estos eran los descendientes de José
La palabra "estos" se refiere a todos los hombres descendientes de los hijos de José, Efraín y Manasés. El significado completo de esta expresión se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Estos fueron los descendientes de José, que descendían de sus hijos Manasés y Efraín" contados en cada uno de sus clanes

Esto se puede declarar en forma activa.Traducción Alterna: "los contaron en cada uno de sus clanes"

Numbers 26:38

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:42

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:44

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:48

Información General:
Los líderes de Israel están contando los hombres, de 20 años en adelante, según sus tribus y familias.

Numbers 26:51

la cantidad completa
"el número total"

601.730
"seiscientos un mil setecientos treinta"

Numbers 26:52

La tierra debe ser dividida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Debes dividir la tierra"

estos hombres
Esto se refiere a todos los hombres que fueron contados en sus clanes, comenzando en 26:5.

de acuerdo al número de sus nombres
"por el número de personas en cada clan"

Numbers 26:54

Información General:
El SEÑOR sigue hablando a Moisés.

darle menos herencia
En este pasaje, la palabra "herencia" se refiere a la tierra heredada. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "dar más tierra como herencia"

que fueron contados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quienes los líderes de Israel contaron"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

la tierra debe ser dividida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes dividir la tierra"

por suerte
"echando suertes"

debe ser dividida
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "lo dividirás"

distribuido entre ellos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y tú debes distribuirles la tierra a ellos"

Numbers 26:57

Información General:
Esta es una lista de los clanes levitas. Moisés cuenta a los levitas por separado de las otras tribus porque no recibieron ninguna tierra.

contados clan por clan
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que los líderes también contaron clan por clan"

Gersón... Coat... Merari... Amram
Traduzca estos nombres de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:17.

Ella dio a luz a Amram sus hijos
"Ella y Amram tuvieron hijos"

Numbers 26:60

Nadab... Abiú... Itamar
Traduzca los nombres de estos hombres de la misma manera que lo hizo en 3:1.

ofrecieron delante del SEÑOR fuego inaceptable Aquí la palabra "fuego" se usa para referirse a "quemar incienso". Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 3:3. Traducción Alterna: "quemaron una ofrenda de incienso al SEÑOR de una manera que él no aprobó"

que fueron contados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quienes los líderes contaron"

veintitrés mil
veintitrés mil - "23.000"

un mes de edad hacia arriba
"un mes de edad y mayores"

no fueron contados
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero los líderes no los contaron"

porque no se le dio herencia a ellos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Aquí "herencia" se refiere a la tierra heredada. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "porque el SEÑOR dijo que no recibirían ninguna tierra como herencia"

Numbers 26:63

los contados por Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quienes Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote contaron"

no había hombre
"no había hombres"

que hubiera sido contado por Moisés y Aarón el sacerdote Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "a quien Moisés y Aarón el sacerdote hubieran contado" cuando los descendientes de Israel fueron contados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "cuando ellos contaron los descendientes de Israel"

Numbers 26:65

No quedó un sólo hombre entre ellos, excepto
La palabra "ellos" se refiere a todas las personas que fueron contadas en el desierto de Sinaí. Esto se puede declarar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Los únicos que todavía estaban vivos eran"

hijo de Jefone Jefone era el padre de Caleb. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:5.

hijo de Nun
Nun era el padre de Josué. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 11:28.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Luego a Moisés vinieron las hijas de Zelofehad hijo de Hefer, hijo de Galaad, hijo de Maquir, hijo de Manasés, de las familias de Manasés, hijo de José. Estos fueron los nombres de sus hijas: Maala, Noa, Hogla, Milca y Tirsa. 2 Ellas se pararon frente a Moisés, Eleazar el sacerdote, los jefes y ante toda la comunidad en la entrada de la tienda de reunión. Ellas dijeron: 3 "Nuestro padre murió en el desierto. Él no estaba entre aquellos quienes conspiraron en contra del SEÑOR en la compañía de Coré. Él murió por su propio pecado, y él no tuvo hijos. 4 ¿Por qué el nombre de nuestro padre debería ser quitado de entre los miembros de su familia porque no tuvo hijos? Danos tierra de entre los parientes de nuestro padre." 5 Así que Moisés llevó su caso ante EL SEÑOR. 6 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 7 "Las hijas de Zelofehad están hablando correctamente. Ciertamente, debes darles la tierra como una herencia de entre los parientes de su padre, y debes asegurarte que la herencia de su padre se pase a ellas. 8 Debes hablarle al pueblo de Israel y decirles: "Si un hombre muere y no tiene hijos, entonces ustedes deben hacer que su herencia pase a sus hijas. 9 Si no tiene hija, entonces ustedes deben darle su herencia a sus hermanos. 10 Si no tiene hermanos, entonces deben darle su herencia a los hermanos de su padre. 11 Si su padre no tiene hermanos, entonces ustedes deben darle su herencia al pariente más cercano en su familia, y él debe tomarla para sí mismo. Esta será la ley establecida por orden para el pueblo de Israel, como EL SEÑOR me ha ordenado a mí."' 12 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Sube a las montañas de Abarim y mira la tierra que Yo le he dado al pueblo de Israel. 13 Después que la hayas visto, tú también debes reunirte con tu pueblo, como Aarón tu hermano. 14 Esto va a pasar porque ustedes dos se rebelaron en contra de Mi mandato en el desierto de Zin. Allí, cuando el agua fluyó de la roca, en tu enojo fallaste de hornarme como santo ante los ojos de toda la comunidad." Estas son las aguas de Meriba de Cades en el desierto de Zin. 15 Entonces Moisés habló al SEÑOR y dijo: 16 "Que puedas Tú, SEÑOR, el Dios de todos los espíritus de toda la humanidad, escoger a un hombre sobre toda la comunidad, 17 un hombre que pueda salir y entrar ante ellos y los guíe para salir y los traiga, para que Tu comunidad no sea como una oveja que no tiene pastor." 18 El SEÑOR dijo a Moisés: "Toma a Josué hijo de Nun, un hombre en quien mi Espíritu vive, y pon tu mano sobre él. 19 Ponlo delante de Eleazar el sacerdote y delante de toda la comunidad, y ordénalo a él ante los ojos de ellos para que los dirija. 20 Tú debes poner algo de tu autoridad sobre él, para que toda la comunidad del pueblo de Israel pueda obedecerlo. 21 Él va a ir delante de Eleazar el sacerdote a buscar Mi voluntad para él conforme a las decisiones de Urim. Estará bajo su mandato que la gente salga y entre, tanto él como todo el pueblo de Israel, toda la comunidad." 22 Así que Moisés hizo como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado. 23 Tomó a Josué y lo puso delante de Eleazar el sacerdote y toda la comunidad. Puso sus manos sobre él y le ordenó dirigir, como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado hacer.

Numbers 27:1

Luego a Moisés vinieron las hijas de Zelofehad hijo de Hefer
"Entonces las hijas de Zelofehad, hijo de Hefer, hijo de Galaad, hijo de Maquir, hijo de Manasés, de los clanes de Manasés, hijo de José, vinieron a Moisés". Esto nos dice la genealogía de Zelofehad.

Zelofehad hijo de Hefer... Maala, Noa, Hogla, Milca y Tirsa
Traduzca estos nombres de la misma manera que lo hizo en 26:33.

Galaad... Maquir
Traduzca estos nombres de la misma manera que lo hizo en 26:28.

Numbers 27:2

Ellas se pararon
"Las hijas de Zelofehad se colocaron de pie"

quienes conspiraron en contra del SEÑOR en la compañía de Coré Las personas en la compañía de Coré se reunieron y se rebelaron contra el SEÑOR. El SEÑOR los hizo morir a causa de su pecado. El significado de esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "quienes murieron porque estaban entre los seguidores de Coré que se rebelaron contra el SEÑOR"

por su propio pecado
"por causa de su propio pecado"

Numbers 27:4

¿Por qué el nombre de nuestro padre debería ser quitado de entre los miembros de su clan porque no tuvo hijos?
En ese momento, sólo los hijos recibían tierras como herencia. Las hijas usan esta pregunta para sugerir que deberían recibir la herencia y continuar el clan familiar. Esto puede ser escrito como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No debes quitar

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el nombre de nuestro padre de los miembros del clan sólo porque no tuvo un hijo"

Danos tierra entre los parientes de nuestro padre
Esto significa que están pidiendo heredar tierras cerca de donde los parientes de su padre están heredando tierras. El significado de esto se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Danos tierras donde viven los parientes de nuestro padre"

Numbers 27:6

de entre los parientes de su padre
Esto significa que ellas heredarán tierras donde los parientes de su padre están heredando tierras. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "donde viven los parientes de su padre"

Numbers 27:9

Información General:
Esto continúa la ley de Dios sobre quién recibirá tierras si un hombre no tiene hijos.

será la ley establecida por decreto para el pueblo de Israel Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "sea una ley que todo el pueblo de Israel debe obedecer"

me ha ordenado a mí
Aquí "a mí" se refiere a Moisés.

Numbers 27:12

montañas de Abarim
Esta es una serie de montañas en Moab.

que Yo le he dado al pueblo de Israel Aquí el SEÑOR habla sobre la tierra que le está dando a los israelitas como si ya se las hubiera dado. Habla de esta manera para enfatizar que está comprometido a dársela. Traducción Alterna: "que daré al pueblo de Israel"

tú, también, debes ser reunido con tu gente Este es un eufemismo que significa que Moisés morirá y su espíritu irá al lugar donde están sus antepasados. Traducción Alterna: "debes morir"

como Aarón tu hermano Usted puede dejar en claro la información entendida de que Aarón murió. Traducción Alterna: "como tu hermano mayor Aarón murió" ustedes dos se rebelaron

Esto se refiere a Moisés y Aarón.

desierto de Zin
Traduzca esta frase de la misma manera que lo hizo en 13:21.

cuando el agua fluyó de la roca, en tu enojo Esto se refiere a un evento en el que el SEÑOR hizo que fluyera agua milagrosamente de una roca. Dios le dijo a Moisés que le hablara a la roca. En cambio, Moisés golpeó la roca porque estaba enojado con el pueblo.

fallaste en honrarme como santo
"no me trataste como santo"

ante los ojos de toda la comunidad Aquí los "ojos de toda la comunidad" se refiere a la comunidad misma. Está escrito de esta manera para enfatizar lo que vieron. Traducción Alterna: "frente a toda la comunidad"

aguas de Meriba
Traduzca esto de la misma manera que lo hizo en 20:12.

Numbers 27:15

el Dios de los espíritus de toda la humanidad
Los posibles significados son: 1) aquí "espíritus" se refiere a todas las personas". Traducción Alterna: "el Dios sobre toda la humanidad" o 2) la referencia a "espíritus" se refiere a que Dios habiendo dado vida y aliento a todas las personas. Traducción Alterna: "el Dios que da aliento a todas las personas" o "el Dios que da vida a toda la humanidad"

un hombre sobre toda la comunidad Estar "sobre" un grupo de personas significa tener autoridad para dirigirlos. Traducción Alterna: "un hombre para liderar la comunidad"

un hombre que pueda salir y venir ante ellos y los guíe para salir y los traiga Esta es una expresión que significa una persona que liderará a todo el pueblo y también liderará al ejército en batalla.

para que Tu comunidad no sea como una oveja que no tiene pastor
Este es un símil que significa que sin un líder la gente vagará y estará indefensa.

Numbers 27:18

Toma a Josué hijo de Nun, un hombre en quien mi Espíritu vive
El Espíritu del SEÑOR está en Josúe, lo que significa que Josué obedece al SEÑOR y sigue sus mandamientos.

pon tu mano sobre él Esta es una señal de dedicar a alguien al servicio de Dios. Traducción Alterna: "pon tu mano sobre él para nombrarlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

y ordénale a él ante los ojos de ellos para que los dirija Aquí "los ojos de ellos" se refiere a las personas. Está escrito de esta manera para enfatizar lo que vieron. Traducción Alterna: "y frente a todos ellos ordénale a Josué que dirija al pueblo de Israel"

Numbers 27:20

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Moisés acerca de Josué.

Tú debes poner algo de tu autoridad sobre él
Aquí el SEÑOR habla de Moisés dándole un poco de su autoridad a Josué como si fuera un artículo o una prenda de vestir que pudiera ponerle. AT: "Debes darle algo de tu autoridad" o "Deja que él decida qué debería hacer el pueblo"

Urim
Esta era una piedra sagrada que el Sumo Sacerdote llevaba en la placa de su pecho. Lo usaba para determinar la voluntad de Dios.

Estará bajo su mandato que la gente salga y entre Esto significa que Josué tendrá autoridad para dirigir los movimientos de la comunidad de Israel. "Salir" y "entrar" son dos órdenes opuestas que se usan para enfatizar que él tendrá el control total de sus movimientos. Traducción Alterna: "Dirigirá los movimientos de la comunidad"

tanto él como todo el pueblo de Israel con él, toda la comunidad Ambas frases significan lo mismo, y se usan juntas para dar énfasis. Traducción Alterna: "Tanto él como toda la nación de Israel"

Numbers 27:22

lo colocó delante
"y le dijo que se colocara de pie delante de"

Él puso sus manos sobre él y le ordenó liderar
"Él" se refiere a Moisés, y "él" se refiere a Josué.

Él puso sus manos sobre él
El poner encima las manos era una forma de separar a una persona para hacer una tarea especial para Dios.

liderar
Puede aclarar la información comprendida de liderar a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "liderar al pueblo" o "ser el líder de los israelitas"

como el SEÑOR le había ordenado hacer Aquí "le" se refiere a Moisés.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 El SEÑOR le habló a Moisés y le dijo: 2 "Ordena al pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Ustedes deben ofrecerme sacrificos en el tiempo acordado, las ofrendas de comida hechas por fuego para producir un aroma agradable para mí.' 3 También debes decirles: 'Esta es la ofrenda, hecha por fuego que deben ofrecerle al SEÑOR- corderos machos de un año sin mancha, dos cada día, como una ofrenda quemada normal. 4 Deben ofrecer un cordero en la mañana, y deben ofrecer el otro cordero en la tarde. 5 Deben ofrecer un décimo de una efa de harina fina, como una ofrenda de grano, amasada con un cuarto de hin de aceite batido. 6 Esta es la ofrenda quemada normal, que fue ordenada en el Monte Sinaí para producir un aroma agradable, una ofrenda hecha por fuego al SEÑOR. 7 La ofrenda de bebida con ella debe ser un cuarto de hin por uno de los corderos. Deben derramar en el lugar santo una ofrenda de bebida fermentada al SEÑOR. 8 El otro cordero, deben ofrecerlo en la tarde junto con otra ofrenda de grano, como la ofrecida en la mañana. Deben también ofrecer otra ofrenda de bebida con ella, una ofrenda hecha en fuego, para producir un aroma agradable para el SEÑOR. 9 En el día de reposo deben ofrecer dos corderos machos, cada uno de un año, sin defecto, y dos décimos de un efa de harina fina, como una ofrenda de grano, amasada con aceite, y una ofrenda de bebida con ella. 10 Esta debe ser la ofrenda quemada cada día de reposo, ademas de la ofrenda quemada normal y la ofrenda de bebida con ella. 11 En el comienzo de cada mes, deben ofrecer una ofrenda quemada al SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer dos becerros, un carnero, y siete corderos machos de un año sin defecto. 12 También deben ofrecer tres décimos de una efa de harina fina como una ofrenda de grano amasada con aceite por cada becerro, y dos décimos de harina fina como una ofrenda de grano amasada con aceite, para un carnero. 13 También deben ofrecer un décimo de una efa de harina fina amasada con aceite como una ofrenda de grano por cada cordero. Esta será la ofrenda quemada, para producir una aroma agradable, una ofrenda hecha por fuego para EL SEÑOR. 14 Las ofrendas de bebida del pueblo deben ser mitad de un hin de vino por un becerro, un tercio de hin por un carnero, y un cuarto de hin por un cordero. Esta será la ofrenda por cada mes, a través de los meses del año. 15 Un macho cabrío, como una ofrenda por el pecado se debe ofrecer al SEÑOR. Esto será ademas de las ofrendas quemadas normales y las ofrenda de bebida con ellas. 16 Durante el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes, es la Pascua del SEÑOR. 17 En el día quince de este mes, una fiesta se debe celebrar. Por siete días, pan sin levadura debe ser comido. 18 En el primer día debe haber una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR. Ustedes no deben realizar trabajo normal en este día. 19 Sin embargo, deben ofrecer un sacrificio hecho en fuego, una ofrenda quemada para EL SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer dos becerros, un carnero, y siete corderos de un año, sindefecto. 20 Junto con el becerro, deben ofrecer una ofrenda de grano de tres décimos de una efa de harina fina amasada con aceite, y junto con el carnero, dos décimos. 21 Con cada uno de los siete corderos, deben ofrecer un décimo de una efa de harina fina amasada con aceite, 22 y un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado, para hacer expiación por ustedes. 23 Deben ofrecer esto además de las ofrendas normales requeridas cada mañana. 24 Como se ha descrito aquí, deben ofrecer estos sacrificios diariamente, por los siete días de la Pascua, la comida de las ofrendas hechas en fuego, un aroma agradable al SEÑOR. Debe ser ofrecido además de las ofrendas quemadas normales y las ofrendas de bebida con ellas. 25 En el día séptimo deben tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR, y no deben tener trabajo normal en este día. 26 De igual manera, en el día de los primeros frutos, cuando ofrescan una nueva ofrenda de granos al SEÑOR en el Festival de las Semanas, debes tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR, y no deben hacer trabajo normal en ese día. 27 Deben ofrecer una ofrenda quemada para producir un aroma agradable al SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer dos becerros, un carnero, y siete corderos machos de un año. 28 Ofrezcan también ofrendas de grano para acompañarlos: harina fina amasada con aceite, tres décimos de una efa de harina fina con aceite por cada becerro y dos décimos para el carnero. 29 Ofrezcan un décimo de una efa de harina fina amasada con aceite por cada siete corderos, 30 y un macho cabrío para hacer expiación por ustedes. 31 Cuando ofrezcan esos animales sin defecto, junto con sus ofrendas de bebida, esto debe ser además de las ofrendas quemadas normales y las ofrendas de granos con ellas."

Numbers 28:1

en el tiempo acordado
"en el tiempo que he escogido"

las ofrendas de comida hechas por fuego para producir
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.
Traducción Alterna: "las ofrendas de comida que quemarás en el altar producen"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un dulce aroma para mí
"un aroma que disfruto"

Numbers 28:3

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

la ofrenda hecha por fuego Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la ofrenda quemada" o "la ofrenda que has quemado con fuego en el altar"

mezclada con
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con" (Ver:

un décimo de un efa
"Un décimo" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

un cuarto de hin
cuarto de hin - "Un cuarto" significa una parte de cuatro partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "un litro" o "un cuarto de un hin

aceite batido
"Aceite prensado" o "aceite de oliva puro". Esto se refiere a aceite que ha sido prensado a partir de aceitunas.

Numbers 28:6

que fue ordenada en el Monte Sinaí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que el SEÑOR ordenó en el Monte Sinaí"

hecha por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que quemaste en el altar"

un cuarto de hin
cuarto de hin - "Un cuarto" significa una parte de cuatro partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "un litro" o "un cuarto de un hin

Deben derramar en el lugar santo una ofrenda de bebida fuerte al SEÑOR Esta oración describe la ofrenda de bebida que debe acompañar al cordero. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "Debe ser una ofrenda de una bebida fuerte y deben derramarla en el lugar santo al SEÑOR"

como la ofrecida
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como la que ofreciste"

Numbers 28:9

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

dos décimos de un efa
"Dos décimos" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio" o "dos décimos de un efa

mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con aceite"

la ofrenda de bebida con ella Muchas ofrendas tenían una ofrenda de bebida que se requería ofrecer con ellas. El significado completo de la expresión puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "la ofrenda de bebida que la acompaña"

Numbers 28:11

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

tres décimos de un efa
"Tres décimos" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimos de un efa

dos décimos
Las palabras "de un efa" faltan y pueden ser agregadas. "Dos décimos" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio" o "dos décimos de un efa

un décimo de un efa
"Un décimo" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa.Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con aceite"

hecha por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que quemaste en el altar"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 28:14

mitad de un hin
"Mitad" significa una parte de dos partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "dos litros" o "medio hin"

un tercio de hin
"Un tercio de un hin". "Un tercio" significa una parte de tres partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "1,2 litros" o "uno y un quinto litros" o "medio hin"

un cuarto de hin
cuarto de hin - "Un cuarto" significa una parte de cuatro partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "un litro" o "un cuarto de un hin

Un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado se debe ofrecer al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Debes ofrecerle un macho cabrío al SEÑOR como ofrenda por el pecado"

Numbers 28:16

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

el primer mes, en el día catorce del mes... el día quince de este mes
"el 1er mes, en el día 14 del mes... el día 15 de este mes". Esto se refiere al primer mes del calendario hebreo.

viene la pascua del SEÑOR
"debes celebrar la Pascua del SEÑOR"

una fiesta debe ser sostenida Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes tener una fiesta" pan sin levadura debe ser comido Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes comer pan sin levadura"

el primer día
"el 1er día"

debe haber una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"deben reunirse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que el pueblo se reúne para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar al SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

Numbers 28:19

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

deben ofrecer un sacrificio hecho en fuego, una ofrenda quemada Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes quemar una ofrenda en el altar"

tres décimos de un efa
"Tres décimos" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimos de un efa

mezclado con aceite
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con aceite"

dos décimos
Las palabras "de un efa de harina fina" faltan y pueden ser agregadas. "Dos décimos" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio de harina fina" o "dos décimos de un efa de harina fina

un décimo de un efa
"Un décimo" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

para hacer expiación
La palabra "expiación" se puede expresar como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "para expiar"

Numbers 28:23

requeridas cada mañana
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "lo que el SEÑOR requiere cada mañana"

Como se ha descrito aquí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Como Yo, el SEÑOR, he descrito aquí"

la comida de las ofrendas hechas en fuego Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes quemar la ofrenda de comida en el altar"

un dulce aroma al SEÑOR
"como un dulce aroma para el SEÑOR"

Debe ser ofrecido
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Debes ofrecerlo"

tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"reúnanse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que las personas se reúnen para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar al SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 28:26

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

el día de los primeros frutos
"el día de las primicias, ese es el día". Esto se refiere al día durante el Festival de las Semanas cuando ellos ofrecen la ofrenda de granos al SEÑOR.

tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"reúnanse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que el pueblo se reúne para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar a el SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

mezclado con aceite
esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con aceite"

tres décimos de un efa
"Tres décimos" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimos de un efa

dos décimos
Las palabras "de un efa de harina fina" faltan y pueden ser agregadas. "Dos décimos" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio de harina fina" o "dos décimos de un efa de harina fina

Numbers 28:29

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

un décimo de un efa
"Un décimo" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

harina fina mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "harina fina que tú mezclas con aceite"

hacer expiación
La palabra "expiar" se puede expresar con el verbo "expiar". Traducción Alterna: "para expiar"

sus ofrendas de bebidas
Esto se refiere a las ofrendas de bebidas que se requieren para acompañar a cada uno de los animales cuando se sacrifican. Traducción Alterna: "las ofrendas de bebidas que se ofrecen con ellos" o "las ofrendas de bebidas que los acompañan"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 "En el séptimo mes, en el primer día del mes, deben tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR. No deben hacer trabajos normales en ese día. Será un día cuando ustedes toquen trompetas. 2 Deben ofrecer una ofrenda quemada para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer un becerro, un carnero y siete corderos de un año de edad, cada uno sin defecto. 3 Deben ofrecer con ellos una ofrenda de grano, harina fina amasada con aceite, tres décimas de una efa para el becerro, dos décimas para el carnero, 4 y una-décima para cada cordero de los siete corderos. 5 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrio como una ofrenda por el pecado para hacer una expiación por ustedes mismos. 6 Hagan estas ofrendas en el séptimo mes además de todas las ofrendas que ustedes harán en el primero de cada mes: las ofrendas quemadas especiales y las ofrendas de grano irán con ellas. Estas deben ser además de las ofrendas quemadas normales, sus ofrendas de grano y las ofrendas de bebida. Mientras hacen estas ofrendas, obedecerán lo que ha sido ordenado que produzca un aroma agradable, una ofrenda hecha por fuego al SEÑOR. 7 En el día décimo del séptimo mes deben tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR. 8 Deben humillarse y no trabajar. Ustedes deben ofrecer una ofrenda para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer un becerro, un carnero y siete corderos de un año. Cada uno debe ser sin defecto. 9 Deben ofrecer con ellos una ofrenda de grano, harina fina amasada con aceite, tres décimas de efa para el becerro, dos décimas para el carnero, 10 y una décima de una efa para cada uno de los siete corderos. 11 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado. Esto será además de la ofrenda por el pecado de expiación, la ofrenda quemada normal, la ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida. 12 En el décimo quinto día del séptimo mes deben tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR. No deben hacer trabajo normal en ese día, y deben celebrar el festival para Él por siete días. 13 Deben ofrecer una ofrenda quemada, un sacrificio hecho por fuego para producir un aroma agradable para EL SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer trece becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año. Cada uno debe ser sin defecto. 14 Deben ofrecer con ellos una ofrenda de grano, harina fina amasada con aceite, tres décimas de una efa para cada uno de los trece becerros, dos décimas por cada carnero de los dos carneros, 15 y una décima de una efa para cada uno de los catorce corderos. 16 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado además de la ofrenda quemada normal, su ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida con ella. 17 En el segundo día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer doce becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 18 Deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida para los becerros, para los carneros y para los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 19 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado además de la ofrenda quemada normal, su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebida. 20 En el tercer día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer once becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 21 Deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida para los becerros, para los carneros y para los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 22 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado además de la ofrenda quemada normal, su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebida. 23 En el cuarto día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer diez becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 24 Deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebida para los becerros, para los carneros y para los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 25 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado además de la ofrenda quemada normal, su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebida. 26 En el quinto día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer nueve becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 27 Ustedes deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida para los becerros, para los carneros y para los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 28 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrio como una ofrenda por el pecado ademas de las ofrendas quemadas normales, su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebida. 29 En el sexto día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer ocho becerros, dos carneros y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 30 Deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de granos y una ofrenda de bebida para los becerros, los carneros y los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 31 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como ofrenda por el pecado además de la ofrenda quemada normal, la ofrenda de granos y la ofrenda de bebidas. 32 En el séptimo día de la asamblea, deben ofrecer siete becerros, dos carneros, y catorce corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 33 Deben hacer con ellos una ofrenda de grano y ofrenda de bebida para el becerro, los carneros y los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fue ordenado. 34 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como una ofrenda por el pecado ademas de la ofrenda quemada normal, la ofrenda de granos y la ofrenda de bebida. 35 En el octavo día deben tener una asamblea solemne. No deben hacer trabajo normal en ese día. 36 Deben hacer una ofrenda quemada, una ofrenda hecha por fuego para producir un aroma

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

agradable para EL SEÑOR. Deben ofrecer un becerro, un carnero y siete corderos de un año, cada uno sin defecto. 37 Deben ofrecer una ofrenda de grano y su ofrenda de bebida para el becerro, para el carnero y para los corderos, haciendo todas las ofrendas como fueron ordenadas. 38 Deben ofrecer un macho cabrío como ofrenda por el pecado, además de la ofrenda quemada normal, a la ofrenda de granos y a la ofrenda de bebida. 39 Esto es lo que deben ofrecer al SEÑOR en sus festivales establecidos. Estas deben ser añadidas a sus votos y ofrendas de libre voluntad. Deben ofrecer estas cosas como sus ofrendas quemadas, ofrendas de granos, ofrendas de bebida y ofrendas de compañerismo." 40 Moisés le dijo al pueblo de Israel todo lo que EL SEÑOR le había ordenado decir.

Numbers 29:1

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

el séptimo mes, en el primer día del mes
"el 7mo mes, en el 1er día del mes". Esto se refiere al séptimo mes del calendario hebreo.

tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"reúnanse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que el pueblo se reúne para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar al SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

Será un día cuando ustedes soplen trompetas
Aquí la palabra "ustedes" se refiere al pueblo de Israel que aquí representan los sacerdotes. Los sacerdotes tocaron la trompeta para comenzar un servicio de adoración o para reunir a la comunidad. Traducción Alterna: "Será un día en que los sacerdotes soplen trompetas"

Numbers 29:2

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

Numbers 29:3

su ofrenda de grano
Esto se refiere a las ofrendas de grano que son requeridas para acompañar a cada uno de los animales cuando son sacrificados. Traducción Alterna: "las ofrendas de grano que son ofrecidas con ellos" o "las ofrendas de grano que los acompañan"

mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que has mezclado con aceite"

tres décimas de un efa
"Tres décimas" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimas de un efa

dos décimas
Las palabras "de un efa" faltan y se pueden agregar. "Dos décimas" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio" o "dos décimas de un efa

una décima
décima - "una décima" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

hacer expiación
La palabra "expiar" se puede expresar con el verbo "expiación". Traducción Alterna: "para expiar"

Numbers 29:6

el séptimo mes... el primero de cada mes
"el 7mo mes... el 1er día de cada mes". La palabra "mes" se refiere a los meses del calendario hebreo.

de cada mes: las ofrendas quemadas especiales... con ellas
"de cada mes - las ofrendas especiales quemadas... con ellas". Esta es la ofrenda que se realiza el primer día de cada mes.

las ofrendas quemadas regulares, sus ofrendas de grano y las ofrendas de bebida Esto se refiere a las ofrendas que los sacerdotes debían dar todos los días. La ofrenda de granos y la ofrenda de bebidas eran ofrecidas con la ofrenda quemada regular. Traducción Alterna: "la ofrenda quemada regular, con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que la acompañan"

ustedes obedecerán lo que ha sido decretado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "obedecerán el decreto del SEÑOR" o "obedecerán lo que el SEÑOR había decretado"

una ofrenda hecha por fuego al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "una ofrenda que quemaron en el altar al SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 29:7

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

el décimo día del séptimo mes
"el 10mo día del 7mo mes". La palabra "mes" se refiere a los meses en el calendario hebreo.

tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"reúnanse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que el pueblo se reúne para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar a al SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

Numbers 29:9

mezclada con aceite
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que han mezclado con aceite"

tres décimas de un efa
"Tres décimas" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimas de un efa

dos décimas
Las palabras "de un efa" faltan y se pueden agregar. "Dos décimas" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio" o "dos décimas de un efa

una décima de un efa
"Una décima" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

de expiación
La palabra "expiación" se puede expresar con el verbo "expiar". Traducción Alterna: "que expía por ti"

la ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:12

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

el décimo quinto día del séptimo mes
"El día 15 del 7mo mes". La palabra "mes" se refiere a los meses en el calendario hebreo.

tener una asamblea santa para honrar al SEÑOR
"reúnanse para adorar y honrar al SEÑOR". La frase "una asamblea santa" significa que el pueblo se reúne para adorar al SEÑOR. Adorar al SEÑOR es un evento sagrado.

ustedes deben mantener el festival para Él Esta es una expresión idiomática. Aquí la palabra "mantener" significa observar o celebrar. La palabra "Él" se refiere al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "deben observar el festival para el SEÑOR" o "deben celebrar el festival para el SEÑOR"

un sacrificio hecho por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. "Deben quemarlo en el altar"

Trece toros jóvenes, dos carneros y catorce corderos
"13 toros jóvenes, 2 carneros y 14 corderos machos"

Numbers 29:14

mezclada con aceite
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que han mezclado con aceite"

tres décimas de un efa
"Tres décimas" significa tres partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "seis litros" o "tres décimas de un efa

trece toros... catorce corderos
"13 toros...14 corderos"

dos décimas
Las palabras "de un efa" faltan y se pueden agregar. "Dos décimas" significa dos partes de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "cuatro litros y medio" o "dos décimas de un efa

una décima de un efa
"Una décima" significa una parte de diez partes iguales. Esto se puede escribir en medidas modernas. Traducción Alterna: "2 litros" o "una décima parte de un efa

su ofrenda de grano, y la ofrenda de bebida con ella La ofrenda de grano y la ofrenda de bebida acompañan la ofrenda quemada regular.

Numbers 29:17

el segundo día de la asamblea
"El 2do día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

doce toros jóvenes, dos carneros y catorce corderos
"12 toros jóvenes, 2 carneros y 14 corderos machos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebidas
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:20

el tercer día de la asamblea
"El 3er día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

once toros, dos carneros y catorce corderos
"11 toros, 2 carneros y 14 corderos"

como fueron ordenadas
Esto se puede declarar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano, y sus ofrendas de bebidas
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:23

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer durante el festival en el séptimo mes.

el cuarto día de la asamblea
"El 4to día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

catorce corderos machos
"14 corderos machos"

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano, y sus ofrendas de bebidas
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:26

el quinto día de la asamblea
"El 5to día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

catorce corderos machos
"14 corderos machos"

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano, y sus ofrendas de bebida
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:29

el sexto día de la asamblea
"El 6to día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

catorce corderos machos
"14 corderos machos"

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano, y sus ofrendas de bebidas
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:32

el séptimo día de la asamblea
"El 7mo día del festival". Aquí la palabra "asamblea" se refiere al Festival de las Semanas.

catorce corderos machos
"14 corderos machos" (Ver:

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano, y sus ofrendas de bebida
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 29:35

Información general:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer después del festival de siete días en el séptimo mes.

octavo día
Este "octavo" es el número ordinal de ocho.

tener otra asamblea solemne
"Reúnanse nuevamente para adorar al SEÑOR". Esta es otra asamblea similar a la del primer día del festival.

una ofrenda hecha por fuego
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "debes quemarla en el altar"

Numbers 29:37

una ofrenda de grano y su ofrenda de bebidas Estas ofrendas debían ofrecerse con el toro, el carnero y los corderos. Traducción Alterna: "las ofrendas de granos y las ofrendas de bebidas"

como fueron ordenadas
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR ordenó"

su ofrenda de grano y sus ofrendas de bebidas
La ofrenda de grano debía ofrecerse con la ofrenda quemada. Las ofrendas de bebidas debían ofrecerse tanto con la ofrenda por el pecado como con la ofrenda quemada. Traducción Alterna: "junto con la ofrenda de grano y las ofrendas de bebidas que las acompañan"

Numbers 29:39

Esto es lo que ustedes deben ofrecer
"Estas ofrendas son lo que deben ofrecer"

festivales fijos
"festivales planeados". Estos son festivales que ocurrieron en tiempos regulares programados. La palabra "fijo" significa "establecido" o "predeterminado".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 30

1 Moisés habló a los jefes de las tribus del pueblo de Israel. Él dijo: "Esto es lo que EL SEÑOR ha mandado. 2 Cuando alguien hace un pacto con EL SEÑOR, o hace un juramento se obliga con una promesa, no debe romper su palabra. Debe mantener su promesa para cumplir todo lo que sale de su boca. 3 Cuando una mujer jóven viva en casa de su padre y hace un juramento al SEÑOR se obliga a sí misma con una promesa, 4 si su padre escucha el juramento y la promesa por la cual ella se ha obligado, y si él no dice nada para que dé marcha atrás, entonces todos sus juramentos permaneceran vigentes. Toda promesa por la cual ella se ha obligado permanecerá vigente. 5 Pero si su padre escucha acerca de sus votos y su promesa, y si él no le dice nada a ella, entonces todos los votos y las promesas que ella misma hizo van a permanecer vigentes. 6 Sin embargo, si su padre escucha todos los votos que ella hizo y su solemne promesa con la cual se ha obligado a sí misma, y si él la cancela ese mismo día, entonces no van a permanecer vigentes. El SEÑOR va a perdonarla porque su padre la ha cancelado. 7 Si ella se casa con un hombre mientras ella está bajo una promesa precipitada con las cual se obliga a sí misma, esas obligaciones van a permanecer vigentes. 8 Pero si su esposo la detiene en el día que él escucha sobre eso, entonces él cancela los votos que ella había hecho, las conversaciones precipitadas de sus labios las cuales la obligan a si misma. El SEÑOR la va a librar. 9 Pero para una viuda o una mujer divorciada, todo con lo que se ha obligado va a permanecer vigente contra ella. 10 Y si una mujer hace un voto con la casa de su esposo o se obliga a tomar un pacto, 11 y su esposo escucha pero no le dice nada a ella y él se opone a ella, entonces todos los votos deben permanecer y las obligaciones que ella había hecho deben permanecer vigentes. 12 Pero si su esposo los cancela, en el día que él escucha sobre ellos, entonces todo lo que sale de los labios de ella a cerca de los votos o promesas no van a permanecer vigentes. Su esposo los ha cancelado. El SEÑOR la va a librar. 13 Cada voto o pacto que una mujer toma que la obliga a negarse a sí misma puede ser confirmado o cancelado por su esposo. 14 Pero si él no le dice nada en el día tras día, entonces él confirma todos los votos de ella y la obliga a las promesas que ha hecho. Él las ha confirmado porque él no le ha dicho nada a ella en el tiempo que él escuchó a cerca de ellos. 15 Y si el esposo de ella trata de cancelar los votos de su esposa un tiempo después de que haya escuchado sobre los mismos, entonces él va a ser responsable de los pecados de ella." 16 Estos son los estatutos que EL SEÑOR le ha ordedado a Moisés para anunciar--leyes entre un hombre y su esposa y entre un padre y su hija cuando ella está en su juventud en la familia de su padre.

Numbers 30:1

Cuando cualquiera hace un pacto al SEÑOR, o hace un juramento Estas dos oraciones tienen significados similares y son combinadas para enfatizar el hacer un voto o promesa.

atarse con una promesa
Aquí Moisés habla de una persona que promete hacer algo como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ata a sí mismo. Traducción Alterna: "comprometerse a cumplir una promesa" o "prometer hacer algo"

él no debe romper su palabra. Él debe mantener su promesa de cumplir todo lo que sale de su boca Estas dos oraciones tienen significados similares y son combinadas para enfatizar que él debe cumplir sus promesas. Aquí "palabra" es un metónimo (figura literaria) que se refiere a lo que él dijo.

él no debe romper su palabra
La frase "su palabra" se refiere a los juramentos y votos de un hombre. Aquí Moisés habla de no cumplir estos juramentos como si fueran objetos físicos que el hombre pudiera romper. Traducción Alterna: "él debe cumplir sus promesas"

todo lo que sale de su boca
Aquí la palabra "boca" es un metónimo

Numbers 30:3

se ata a sí misma con una promesa Aquí Moisés habla de una mujer que promete hacer algo como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ella ata a sí misma. Traducción Alterna: "se compromete a cumplir una promesa" o "promete hacer algo"

el juramento y la promesa Estas dos frases tienen significados muy similares. Destacan lo que ella ha prometido hacer. Traducción Alterna: "el juramento"

por la cual ella se ha atado Aquí Moisés habla de cómo una mujer se ha comprometido a cumplir una promesa como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ella había atado a su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "que ella se ha comprometido a cumplir"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

para retractarla
"para cancelar lo que ella ha dicho"

entonces todos sus juramentos permanecerán vigentes. Cada promesa... permanecerá vigente Estas dos afirmaciones dicen básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que ella debe guardar todos sus juramentos.

permanecerá vigente
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Significa que sus votos permanecerán en efecto y que se le exigirá cumplirlos. Traducción Alterna: "ella estará obligada a cumplir"

Numbers 30:5

su voto y su promesa Estas dos frases tienen significados muy similares. Enfatizan lo que ella ha prometido hacer. Traducción Alterna: "su voto"

ella tomó en sí misma Aquí se habla de la mujer que se compromete a cumplir sus votos como si sus votos fueran una prenda que se colocó sobre sí misma. Traducción Alterna: "a lo que ella se comprometió" o "que ella hizo"

permanecerán vigentes
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Significa que sus votos permanecerán en efecto y que se le exigirá cumplirlos. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 30:3. Traducción Alterna: "ella estará obligada a cumplir"

Numbers 30:6

sus solemnes promesas que ella ha atado a sí misma Aquí Moisés habla de cómo una mujer se ha comprometido a cumplir una promesa como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ella había atado a su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "sus solemnes promesas que ella se ha comprometido a cumplir"

si él la desautoriza Aquí se habla del padre que anula la promesa de la mujer como si la estuviera desautorizando a ella. Traducción Alterna: "si él anula la promesa de ella" o "si él cancela su promesa"

no permanecerán vigentes
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Significa que sus votos no se mantendrán en vigor y no se le exigirá que los cumpla. Traducción Alterna: "ella no estará obligada a cumplir"

El SEÑOR la perdonará Esto se refiere al SEÑOR perdonándola por no cumplir sus votos. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traducción Alterna: "El Señor la perdonará por no cumplir sus votos"

mientras ella está bajo esos votos Esto es una expresión idiomática. Estar "bajo" sus votos significa que ella está comprometida con ellos y que todavía están vigentes. Traducción Alterna: "mientras ella todavía está comprometida con esos votos" (Ver:

precipitadas
"algo hecho sin pensar"

esas obligaciones
La palabra "obligaciones" se puede expresar con el verbo "obligar". Traducción Alterna: "las cosas a las que se ha obligado" (Ver:

Numbers 30:8

el voto que ella había hecho... las conversaciones precipitadas de sus labios
"el voto que ella ha hecho... es decir, la conversación precipitada de sus labios". Estas dos frases se refieren a la misma cosa. La segunda frase describe el voto que hizo la mujer.

las conversaciones precipitadas de sus labios
La frase "las conversaciones precipitadas" se refiere a las promesas impulsivas que ella hizo. Aquí "sus labios" significa toda la mujer. Se habla de ella como "sus labios" porque los labios son relacionados con lo que ella dice. Traducción Alterna: "las cosas precipitadas que ella ha dicho" o "su promesa precipitada"

con las cuales se ha atado a sí misma Aquí Moisés habla de cómo una mujer se ha comprometido a cumplir una promesa como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ella había atado a su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "que ella se ha comprometido a cumplir"

el SEÑOR la liberará
Aquí Moisés habla de que el SEÑOR perdonó a la mujer por no cumplir su promesa como si la estuviera liberando de algo que la ataba. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR la perdonará" o "el SEÑOR la perdonará por no cumplir su promesa"

Numbers 30:9

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndoles a los líderes de las tribus lo que el SEÑOR ha mandado.

una mujer divorciada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "una mujer que se ha divorciado de un hombre"

por lo cual ella se ha atado Aquí Moisés habla de cómo una mujer se ha comprometido a cumplir una promesa como si su promesa fuera un objeto físico que ella a atado a su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "que ella se ha comprometido a cumplir"

va a permanecer firme en contra de ella Esto es una expresión idiomática. Significa que sus votos permanecerán en vigencia y se le exigirá que los cumpla. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 30:3. Traducción Alterna: "ella estará obligada a cumplir"

si una mujer hizo un voto en la casa de su esposo Esto se refiere a una mujer casada. Usted puede aclarar el significado de esta expresión. Traducción Alterna: "Si una mujer casada hace un voto"

entonces todos sus votos deben mantenerse... permanecer firmes Este es una expresión idiomática. La frase "permanecer firmes" significa que sus votos permanecerán en vigencia y se le pedirá que los cumpla. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 30:3. Traducción Alterna: "entonces ella debe cumplir todos sus votos... debe cumplir" todos sus votos deben mantenerse... las obligaciones que ella hizo deben permaner firmes Estas dos afirmaciones dicen básicamente lo mismo dos veces para enfatizar y se pueden combinar. Traducción Alterna: "entonces todos los votos y promesas que ella ha hecho deben permanecer en vigor"

Numbers 30:12

entonces todo lo que salió de sus labios Aquí, lo que dijo la mujer es referido como algo que salió de sus labios. Traducción Alterna: "entonces cualquier cosa que ella dijo"

no van a permanecer firmes
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Significa que sus votos no se mantendrán en vigor y no se le exigirá que los cumpla. Vea cómo tradujo esta frase en 30:6. Traducción Alterna: "ella no estará obligada a cumplir"

El SEÑOR la va a librar
Aquí, Moisés habla de que el SEÑOR perdonó a la mujer por no cumplir su promesa como si la estuviera liberando de algo que la ataba. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR la perdonará" o "el SEÑOR la perdonará por no cumplir su promesa"

Numbers 30:13

Cada voto o pacto... puede ser confirmado o cancelado por su esposo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El esposo de una mujer puede confirmar o cancelar cualquier voto o juramento que ella haya hecho que la ata a negarse algo a sí misma"

que la ata
Aquí, Moisés habla de la promesa de una mujer con la cual ella está comprometida como si fuera algo que atara físicamente su cuerpo. Traducción Alterna: "a lo que ella está comprometida"

promesas obligantes
Moisés describe las promesas de una mujer como si fueran algo con lo que ella está físicamente atada. Traducción Alterna: "obligaciones" o "promesas"

porque él no le ha dicho nada a ella Usted puede aclarar la información sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "porque él no le dijo nada sobre ello"

Numbers 30:15

entonces él será responsable por el pecado de ella Esto significa que él será culpable de su pecado en lugar de ella si no cumple su voto. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "si ella no cumple su promesa, no será culpable de su pecado, y él será culpable en lugar de ella"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 31

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 2 "Toma venganza de los madianitas por lo que ellos le hicieron a los israelitas. Después de hacer esto, morirás y serás reunido a tu pueblo." 3 Así que, Moisés habló al pueblo. Él dijo: "Arma a algunos de tus hombre para la guerra para que puedan ir contra Madián y puedan llevar a cabo la venganza del SEÑOR sobre ella. 4 Toda tribu de Israel debe enviar mil soldados para la guerra." 5 Así que, de los miles y miles de hombres de Israel, mil eran provistos de cada tribu para la guerra, doce mil hombres en todo. 6 Entonces Moisés los envió a la batalla, mil de cada tribu, junto con Finees hijo de Eleazar el sacerdote, y con algunos artículos del lugar santo y las trompetas en su posesión para tocar señales. 7 Lucharon contra Madián, así como EL SEÑOR le ordenó a Moisés. 8 mataron a todos los hombres. Mataron a los reyes de Madián junto con el resto de sus muertos: Evi, Requem, Zur, Hur y Reba, los cinco reyes de Madián. También mataron a Balaam hijo de Beor, con la espada. 9 El ejército de Israel tomó cautivas las mujeres de Madián, sus hijos, todo su ganado, todos sus rebaños, y todos sus bienes. Tomaron esto como botín. 10 Quemaron todas sus ciudades donde vivían y todos sus campamentos. 11 Tomaron todo su botín y sus prisioneros, tanto personas como animales. 12 Trajeron a sus prisioneros, su botín, y las cosas capturadas a Moisés, a Eleazar el sacerdote, y a la comunidad del pueblo de Israel. Trajeron estos al campamento en los llanos de Moab, por el Jordán cerca de Jericó. 13 Moisés, Eleazar el sacerdote, y todos los jefes de la comunidad fueron a encontrarlos fuera del campamento. 14 Pero Moisés estaba muy molesto con los oficiales del ejército, los comandantes de miles y los capitanes de cientos, que vinieron de la batalla. 15 Moisés les dijo: "¿Han dejado a todas las mujeres vivir? 16 Miren, estas mujeres hicieron a la gente de Israel, a través del consejo de Balaam, cometer pecado contra EL SEÑOR en el asunto de Peor, cuando la plaga se propagó en la comunidad del SEÑOR. 17 Ahora pues, mata a todo hombre entre los pequeños, y mata a toda mujer que ha estado con un hombre. 18 Pero tomen para ustedes todas las mujeres jóvenes que no se han acostado con un hombre. 19 Deben acampar fuera del campamento de Israel por siete días. Todos los que han matado a alguien o han tocado un persona muerta--- deben purificarse en el tercer día y en el séptimo día- y sus prisioneros. 20 Deben purificar todo vestido y todo lo hecho de piel de animal y de pelo de cabra, y todo lo hecho de madera." 21 Eleazar el sacerdote dijo a los soldados que habían ido a la guerra: "Esta es una ley ordenada que EL SEÑOR había dado a Moisés: 22 El oro, plata, bronce, hierro, estaño, y plomo, 23 y todo lo que resiste el fuego, lo debes poner al fuego, y se volverá limpio. Tú después debes purificar esas cosas con el agua de la impureza. Cualquier cosa que no puedo pasar por el fuego limpiala con esa agua. 24 Deben limpiar su ropa en el día séptimo, y entonces se volverán limpios. Después de esto podrán entrar al campamento de Israel." 25 Luego EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 26 "Cuenten todo el botín que fue tomado, tanto la gente y los animales. Tú, Eleazar el sacerdote, y los jefes de la comunidad de las familias de los antepasados 27 deben dividir el botín en dos partes. Divídelo entre los soldados que fueron a batallar y entre el resto de la comunidad. 28 Luego impon un impuesto para ser dado a Mí de los soldados que fueron a batalla. Este impuesto debe ser uno de cada quinientos, sean personas, ganado, burros, ovejas, o cabras. 29 Toma este impuesto de su mitad y dáselo a Eleazar el sacerdote para una ofrenda para ser presentada a Mí. 30 También de la mitad del pueblo de Isarel, debes tomar uno de cada cincuenta---de las personas, ganado, burros, ovejas, o cabras. Da esto a los levitas que cuidan de mi tienda de reunión." 31 Así que, Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote hicieron como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 32 El botín que quedaba de lo que los soldados habían tomado era 675, 000 ovejas, 33 setenta y dos mil bueyes, 34 sesenta y un mil burros, 35 y treinta y dos mil mujeres que nunca se habían acostado con ningún hombre 36 La mitad que se separó para los soldados sumaba 337, 000 ovejas. 37 La parte del SEÑOR de las ovejas era 675. 38 Los bueyes eran treinta y seis mil de los cuales el impuesto del SEÑOR era setenta y dos. 39 Los burros eran 30, 500 de los cuales la parte del SEÑOR eran sesenta y uno. 40 Las personas eran diez y seis mil mujeres de las cuales el impuesto del SEÑOR era treinta y dos. 41 Moisés tomó el impuesto que era para ser la ofrenda presentada al SEÑOR. ÉL lo dió a Eleazer el sacerdote, como EL SEÑOR había ordenado a Moisés. 42 Mientras que la mitad del pueblo de Israel que Moisés había tomado de los soldados que habían ido a la guerra--- 43 la mitad de la comunidad era 337, 500 ovejas, 44 trenta y seis mil bueyes, 45 30, 500 burros, y diez 46 y seis mil mujeres. 47 De la mitad del pueblo de Israel, Moisés tomó uno de cada cincuenta, tanto de personas como de animales. Él los dió a los levitas que cuidaban de la tienda de reunión del SEÑOR, como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado que hiciera. 48 Luego los oficiales del ejército, los comandantes de miles y los capitanes de cientos, vinieron a Moisés. 49 Le dijeron: "tus sirvientes han contado los soldados que estaban bajo nuestro mando, y ni un hombre ha faltado. 50 Hemos traído la ofrenda del SEÑOR, lo que cada hombre encontró, artículos de oro,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

brazaletes, aros de sello, aretes, y collares, para hacer expiación por nosotros ante EL SEÑOR." 51 Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote recibieron de ellos el oro y todos los artículos de artesanía. 52 Todo el oro de las ofrendas que dieron al SEÑOR---las ofrendas de los comandantes de miles y los capitanes de cientos--- pesó 16, 750 de plata. 53 Cada soldado había tomado botín, cada hombre para sí mismo. 54 Moisés y Eleazar el sacerdote tomaron el oro de los comandantes de los miles y de los capitanes de los cientos. Lo tomaron para la tienda de reunión como recordatorio del pueblo de Israel para el SEÑOR.

Numbers 31:1

Toma venganza de los madianitas por lo que le hicieron a los israelitas El SEÑOR estaba castigando a los madianitas por convencer a los israelitas de que adoraran ídolos.

morirás y serás reunido con tu gente
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo. Esta es una manera cortés de enfatizar que es el tiempo para que Moisés muera y de que su espíritu vaya al lugar donde están sus antepasados.

Numbers 31:3

Arma a algunos de tus hombres para la guerra
"Dale armas a algunos de tus hombres"

ir contra Madián y puedan llevar a cabo la venganza del SEÑOR sobre ella
"Ve a pelear una guerra contra los madianitas y castígalos por lo que nos hicieron"

mil... doce mil
"1.000... 12.000"

los miles y miles de hombres de Israel
"Los muchos hombres de Israel"

mil eran provistos de cada tribu para la guerra Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "cada tribu envió 1.000 hombres a la guerra"

doce mil hombres en total Todas las 12 tribus enviaron hombres, incluída la tribu de Leví. Todas enviaron 1.000 hombres a la batalla.

Numbers 31:6

Evi, Requem, Zur, Hur y Reba
Estos son los nombres de reyes de Madián.

Balaam hijo de Beor
Beor era el padre de Balaam. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 22:5.

Numbers 31:9

tomaron esto como botín
"Tomaron las posesiones de los madianitas como propias"

quemaron todas sus ciudades donde vivían y todos sus campamentos
"El ejército de Israel quemó todas las ciudades donde vivían los madianitas y todos sus campamentos"

Numbers 31:11

tomaron
"El ejército de Israel tomó"

botín
Esto se refiere a los bienes materiales que recuperaron al matar a los hombres madianitas.

llanos
un gran área de tierra plana

Numbers 31:13

los comandantes de miles
Estos son líderes militares que comandaban a más de 1.000 hombres pero menos de 10.000 hombres.

de miles... de cientos
Las palabras "de soldados" están sobreentendidas. Traducción Alterna: "de miles de soldados... de cientos de soldados"

los capitanes de cientos
Estos son líderes militares que comandaban a más de 100 hombres pero menos de 1.000 hombres.

¿Han dejado a todas las mujeres vivir?
La ley era explícita sobre a quién se le permitiría vivir. El ejército violó la ley al permitir a todas las mujeres y niños vivir. Esto fue una reprensión a los líderes del ejército.

Numbers 31:16

Miren
Esto se refiere a escuchar y percibir lo que el hablante está diciendo a su audiencia.

dormido con un hombre
tuvo relaciones sexuales con un hombre

Numbers 31:18

Información General:
Moisés habla a los comandantes del ejército israelita acerca de volverse limpios ante Dios.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

que no han dormido con un hombre
Esto se refiere a las niñas que eran vírgenes.

Todos ustedes
Moisés se refiere a cualquiera que luchó en batalla, no sólo a los comandantes.

ustedes deben purificarse
Deben volverse espiritualmente limpios nuevamente antes de ingresar al campamento.

todo lo hecho de piel de animal y pelo de cabra, y todo lo hecho de madera Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "todo lo que alguien ha hecho de cuero, pelo de cabra o madera"

Numbers 31:21

Información General:
Eleazar enseña a los soldados las costumbres para volverse ceremonialmente limpios ante el SEÑOR después de ir a la guerra.

oro, plata, bronce, hierro, estaño y plomo Metales que fueron usados durante ese período de tiempo.

que resiste fuego
"que no se quema"

poner a través del fuego
"ponerlo en el fuego"

agua de limpieza
Esto se refiere a agua que alguien ha mezclado con las cenizas de una ofrenda por el pecado. Ver: 19:17.

entonces se volverán limpios
Estas son las costumbres para volverse ceremonialmente limpios ante el SEÑOR.

Numbers 31:25

Cuenten todo el botín que fue tomado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuenten todas las posesiones que tomaron los soldados"

botín
Esto se refiere a todos los artículos tomados de la gente que Israel mató o capturó en batalla.

los líderes de los clanes ancestrales de la comunidad
"Los líderes de cada clan"

Numbers 31:28

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Moisés

Información General:
"Mí" se refiere al SEÑOR.

Luego impón un impuesto a ser dado a Mí por los soldados que fueron a batallar Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Recauda un impuesto del botín de los soldados y entrégamelo"

cada quinientos
"cada 500"

de su mitad
"de la mitad de los soldados"

para ser presentada a Mí Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "que él me presentará"

Numbers 31:30

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Moisés

También de la mitad del pueblo de Israel
"También de la mitad del botín del pueblo de Israel"

cada cincuenta
"cada 50"

que cuidan
los que vigilan y mantienen el tabernáculo y los sacrificios al SEÑOR

Numbers 31:32

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una pausa en la enseñanza principal. Aquí Moisés comienza enumerando la cantidad del botín y cuánto fue para los soldados, para el pueblo y para el SEÑOR.

setenta y dos mil bueyes, sesenta y un mil burros y treinta y dos mil mujeres dos mil bueyes, sesenta y un mil burros, y treinta y dos mil mujeres - "72.000 bueyes, 61.000 burros y 32.000 mujeres"

mujeres que nunca habían dormido con ningún hombre esto se refiere a mujeres que son vírgenes.

Numbers 31:36

Informacion General:
Moisés está enumerando el botín que va para los soldados y el impuesto que va al SEÑOR.

La mitad que se separó para los soldados Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La parte de las ovejas de los soldados"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

treinta y seis mil seis mil - 36.000

setenta y dos dos - 72

Numbers 31:39

Información General:
Moisés está enumerando el botín que va para los soldados y el impuesto que va para el SEÑOR.

sesenta y uno uno - 61

diez y seis mil
16.000

treinta y dos
dos - 32

para ser la ofrenda presentada al SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ser una ofrenda para el SEÑOR"

Numbers 31:42

Información General:
Moisés está enumerando el botín que va para el pueblo y el impuesto que va para el SEÑOR.

treinta y seis mil bueyes seis mil bueyes - 36.000 bueyes

diez y seis mil mujeres
"16.000 mujeres". Se ha dicho anteriormente que todos los hombres y las mujeres casadas capturados fueron ejecutados.

Numbers 31:47

Información General:
Moisés está enumerando el botín que va para el pueblo y el impuesto que va para el SEÑOR.

Información General:
El impuesto sobre la porción del pueblo era más alto que el impuesto sobre la porción de los soldados.

Numbers 31:48

los comandantes sobre miles
Estos son líderes militares que comandaron a más de 1.000 hombres pero menos de 10.000 hombres. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 31:13.

sobre miles... sobre cientos
Las palabras "de soldados" se sobreentienden. Traducción Alterna: "sobre miles de soldados... sobre cientos de soldados"

los capitanes sobre cientos
Estos son líderes militares que comandaron a más de 100 hombres pero menos de 1.000 hombres. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 31:13.

tus sirvientes han contado
Los comandantes se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una forma cortés de hablar con alguien con mayor autoridad.

ni un hombre está faltando
Esto puede ser expresado en una declaración positiva. "Sabemos con certeza que cada hombre está aquí"

Numbers 31:50

Información General:
Los oficiales del ejército continúan hablando con Moisés.

brazaletes, anillos de sello, aretes y collares
Estos son todos los tipos de joyas que la gente usaba.

para hacer expiación por nosotros ante el SEÑOR
"para agradecer a Dios por salvar nuestras vidas"

el oro y todos los artículos de artesanía
"Todos los artículos de oro" o "todas las joyas de oro".

Numbers 31:52

Todo el oro de la ofrenda que ellos dieron al SEÑOR---las ofrendas de los comandantes de miles y los capitanes de cientos---pesó
"Todo el oro que los comandantes del ejército dieron al SEÑOR pesó"

16.750
"Dieciséis mil setecientos cincuenta"

siclo
Un siclo son 11 gramos.

como recuerdo del pueblo de Israel para el SEÑOR El oro recordará a la gente que el SEÑOR les dio la victoria. También le recordará al SEÑOR que la gente cumplió su venganza contra los madianitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 32

1 Los descendientes de Rubén y de Gad tenían grandes cantidades de ganado. Cuando ellos vieron la tierra de Jazer y Galaad, la tierra era un maravilloso lugar para el ganado. 2 Así que los descendientes de Gad y Rubén vinieron y hablaron a Moisés, a Eleazar el sacerdote, y a los jefes de la comunidad. Dijeron: 3 "Esta es una lista de los lugares que hemos visto: Atarot, Dibón, Jazer, Nimra, Hesbón, Eleale, Sebam, Nebo y Beón. 4 Estas son las tierras que EL SEÑOR atacó ante la comunidad de Israel, y son buenos lugares para el ganado. Nosotros, tus sirvientes, tenemos mucho ganado." 5 Dijeron: "Si nosotros hemos hallado favor ante tu vista, deja que esta tierra sea dada a nosotros, tus sirvientes, como una posesión. No nos hagas cruzar el Jordán." 6 Moisés le respondió a los descendientes de Gad y Rubén: "¿Deberían sus hermanos ir a la guerra mientras ustedes se establecen aquí abajo? 7 ¿Por qué desalentar los corazones de la gente de Israel de ir a la tierra que EL SEÑOR les ha dado? 8 Sus padres hicieron la misma cosa cuando yo los envié de Cades Barnea a explorar la tierra. 9 Subieron al Valle de Escol. Vieron la tierra y entonces deslalentaron los corazones de la gente de Israel así que se rehusaron a entrar en la tierra que EL SEÑOR les había dado. 10 El enojo del SEÑOR se encendió en aquel día. Él hizo un juramento y dijo: 11 'Ciertamente, ninguno de los hombres que salieron de Egipto, de veinte años de edad en adelante, verán la tierra sobre la que Yo le juré a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob, porque no me han seguido a Mí completamente, excepto por 12 Caleb, hijo de Jefone el cenezeo, y Josué, hijo de Nun. Solo Caleb y Josué me han seguido completamente.' 13 Entonces el enojo del SEÑOR se encendió en contra de Israel. Él los hizo vagar cuarenta años por el desierto, hasta que toda la generación que había hecho el mal ante Su vista fue destruída. 14 Miren, ustedes se han levantado en lugar de sus padres, como hombres más pecadores, para añadirle al ardiente enojo del SEÑOR hacia Israel. 15 Si ustedes se alejan de seguirlo a Él, Él dejará a Israel en el desierto otra vez y ustedes habrán destruído a toda su pueblo." 16 Entonces, se acercaron a Moisés y dijeron: "Permítenos construir unas cercas aquí para nuestro ganado y ciudades para nuestras familias. 17 Sin embargo, nosotros estaremos listos y armados para ir con el ejército de Israel hasta que los hayamos llevado hasta su lugar. Pero nuestras familias vivirán en las ciudades fortificadas, por las otras personas que aún viven en esta tierra. 18 Nosotros no regresaremos a nuestras casas hasta que cada una de las personas de Israel haya obtenido su herencia. 19 Nosotros no heredaremos la tierra con ellos al otro lado del Jordán, porque nuestra herencia está aquí en el lado este del Jordán." 20 Entonces, Moisés les respondió: "Si ustedes hacen lo que dicen, si ustedes se arman para ir ante EL SEÑOR a la guerra, 21 entonces cada uno de sus hombres armados debe cruzar sobre el Jordán ante EL SEÑOR, hasta que Él haya expulsado a sus enemigos de delante de Él 22 y la tierra sea domada ante Él. Entonces, después, pueden regresar. Estarán sin culpa ante EL SEÑOR y ante Israel. Esta tierra será su posesión ante EL SEÑOR. 23 Pero si no lo hacen, habrán pecado en contra del SEÑOR. Estén seguros que su pecado los encontrará. 24 Construyan ciudades para su familia y corrales para sus ovejas; entonces hagan lo que han dicho." 25 Los descendientes de Gad y Rubén le hablaron a Moisés y dijeron: "Tus siervientes harán como tú, nuestro amo, ordenas. 26 Nuestros pequeños, nuestras esposas, nuestros rebaños, y todo nuestro ganado se quedará allí en las ciudades de Galaad. 27 Sin embargo, nosotros, tus sirvientes, cruzaremos delante del SEÑOR para la batalla, cada hombre que esté armado para la guerra, como tú, nuestro amo, dice." 28 Así que Moisés dio instrucciones acerca de ellos a Eleazar el sacerdote, a Josué hijo de Nun, y a los jefes de las familias de los antepasados en las tribus del pueblo de Israel. 29 Moisés les dijo: "Si los descendientes de Gad y Rubén cruzan el Jordán con ustedes, cada hombre que esté armado para la batalla delante del SEÑOR, y si la tierra es domada ante ustedes, entonces ustedes les darán la tierra de Galaad como una posesión. 30 Pero si no cruzan con ustedes armados, entonces adquirirán sus posesiones entre ustedes en la tierra de Canaán." 31 Entonces los descendientes de Gad y Rubén respondieron y dijeron: "Como EL SEÑOR nos ha dicho a nosotros, tus sirvientes, esto es lo que nosotros haremos. 32 Nosotros cruzaremos armados delante del SEÑOR hacia la tierra de Canaán, pero nuestra herencia poseída se quedará con nosotros en este lado del Jordán." 33 Así, a los descendientes de Gad y Rubén, y también a la mitad de la tribu de Manasés, hijo de José, Moisés les dio el reino de Sehón, rey de los amorreos, y de Og, rey de Basán. Él les dio la tierra, y les distribuyó a ellos todas las ciudades con sus fronteras, las cuidades de la tierra alrededor de ellos. 34 Los descendientes de Gad reconstruyeron Dibón, Atarot, Aroer, 35 Atarot Sofán, Jazer, Jogbeha, 36 Bet Nimra, Bet Arán como ciudades fortificadas con corrales para ovejas. 37 Los descendientes de Rubén reconstruyeron Hesbón, Eleale, Quiritiaim, 38 Nebo, Baal Meón --sus nombres fueron luego cambiados, -- y Sibma. Le dieron otros nombres a las ciudades que reconstruyeron. 39 Los descendientes de Maquir, hijo de Manasés, fueron a Galaad y se la quitaron a los amorreos que estaban en ella. 40 Entonces Moisés le dio Galaad a Maquir,

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hijo de Manasés, y su gente se estableció allí. 41 Jair, hijo de Manasés, fué y capturó sus pueblos y los llamó Havot Jair. 42 Noba fué y capturó Kenat y sus villas, y lo llamó Noba, como su propio nombre.

Numbers 32:1

Ahora
Esta palabra se usa aquí para marcar una pausa en la historia principal. Aquí Moisés señala información de trasfondo sobre las tribus de Rubén y Gad.

Atarot, Dibón, Jazer, Nimra, Heshbón, Eleale, Sebam, Nebo y Beón
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

Numbers 32:4

Información General:
La gente de Rubén y Gad continúan hablando con Moisés, Eleazar y los otros líderes.

las tierras que el SEÑOR atacó ante la comunidad de Israel
Se habla del SEÑOR permitiendo a los israelitas conquistar a los pueblos que vivían en la tierra como si el SEÑOR hubiese ido antes que los israelitas y atacado a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "las tierras donde el SEÑOR nos permitió derrotar a las personas viviendo allí" (Ver:|Metaphor)

Nosotros, tus sirvientes
La gente de las tribus de Rubén y Gad se refiere a sí misma de esta manera para mostrar respeto a una persona de autoridad superior.

Si nosotros hemos hallado favor ante tu vista
La frase "ante tu vista" es un metónimo (figura literaria) para los pensamientos u opinión. Traducción Alterna: "Si hemos encontrado favor contigo" o "Si estás satisfecho con nosotros" (Ver:|Metonymy)

que esta tierra sea dada a nosotros
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "danos esta tierra a nosotros" (Ver:|Active or Passive)

No nos hagas cruzar el Jordán
Querían la tierra en el lado este del río Jordán en lugar de cruzar hacia el lado oeste y reclamar tierra allí. Traducción Alterna: "No nos hagas cruzar el Jordán para tomar posesión de tierra en ese lado" (Ver:|Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Numbers 32:6

¿Deberían sus hermanos ir a la guerra mientras ustedes se establecen aquí abajo?
Moisés hace esta pregunta para reprender al pueblo de las tribus de Gad y Rubén. Traducción Alterna: "Es incorrecto que se establezcan en esta tierra mientras sus hermanos van a la guerra".

¿Por qué desalentar los corazones... la tierra que el SEÑOR les ha dado a ellos?
Moisés hace esta pregunta para corregir a la gente de las tribus de Gad y Rubén. Traducción Alterna: "No desanimen los corazones... la tierra que el SEÑOR les ha dado" o "sus acciones desalentarán los corazones... la tierra que el SEÑOR les ha dado".

desalentar los corazones de la gente de Israel de ir Aquí la palabra "corazones" representa a las personas mismas y se refiere al asiento de sus emociones. Traducción Alterna: "desanimar a la gente de Israel de ir" o "hacer que la gente de Israel no quiera ir"

Numbers 32:8

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Rubén y Gad.

Valle de Escol
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 13:23.

vieron la tierra
Esto se refiere a ver lo que había en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "Vieron a la gente y ciudades fuertes en la tierra"

deslalentaron los corazones de la gente de Israel Aquí la palabra "corazones" representa a las personas mismas y se refiere al asiento de sus emociones. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 32:6. Traducción Alterna: "desanimaron al pueblo de Israel"

Numbers 32:10

El enojo del SEÑOR fue encendido
Se habla del SEÑOR enojándose como si su enojo fuera un fuego que comienza a arder. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR se enojó mucho" ninguno de los hombres

"nadie del pueblo". Esta frase se refiere tanto a hombres como a mujeres.

veinte años de edad en adelante
"20 años o más"

me han seguido a Mí completamente Estar dedicados al SEÑOR y obedecerlo se expresa como si estuvieran siguiendo al SEÑOR. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "me obedecieron completamente" o "se han dedicado por completo a Mí"

Jefone... Nun
Estos son nombres de hombres.

cenezeo
Este es el nombre de un pueblo.

Numbers 32:13

el enojo del SEÑOR fue encendido en contra de Israel Se habla del SEÑOR enojándose como si su enojo fuera un fuego que comienza a arder. Esto o puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR se enojó mucho con Israel"

cuarenta años
"40 años"

toda la generación... vista fue destruída Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "destruyó toda la generación... vista" o "toda la generación... vista había muerto" que había hecho el mal ante Su vista Estar a la vista de alguien significa estar frente a esa persona donde puede ver. Traducción Alterna: "que había hecho el mal ante el SEÑOR" o "que había hecho el mal en la presencia del SEÑOR" ustedes se han levantado en lugar de sus padres Se habla de la gente de Rubén y Gad al actuar de la manera que lo hicieron sus antepasados como si estuvieran en el lugar donde ellos estuvieron. Traducción Alterna: "han comenzado a actuar como sus ancestros"

para añadirle al enojo ardiente del SEÑOR hacia Israel Se habla de la gente que causa que el SEÑOR se enoje más como si su enojo fuera un fuego y la gente estuviera agregando más combustible a ese fuego. Traducción Alterna: "para hacer que el Señor se enoje aún más con Israel"

toda esta gente
"esta gente completa" o "toda esta generación de personas"

Numbers 32:16

estaremos listos y armados
"Estarán listos con armas" o "estarán listos para pelear una guerra"

en las ciudades fortificadas
"en las ciudades aseguradas"

Numbers 32:18

Información General:
Los líderes de Gad y Rubén siguen hablando.

haya obtenido su herencia
Se habla de la tierra que la gente iba a recibir como posesión permanente como si fuera una herencia que debían obtener. Traducción Alterna: "haya tomado posesión de su porción de la tierra"

Numbers 32:20

si ustedes se arman
"si toman sus armas"

ante el SEÑOR
Esto significa que el SEÑOR irá con ellos a la batalla y les permitirá derrotar a sus enemigos y tomar su tierra. Traducción Alterna: "en presencia del SEÑOR"

hasta que Él haya expulsado a sus enemigos de delante de Él
"hasta que el SEÑOR haya expulsado a sus enemigos de su presencia". Todos los pronombres aquí se refieren al SEÑOR. Se habla del SEÑOR permitiéndole a los israelitas derrotar a sus enemigos como si Él estuviera luchando sus batallas. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que el SEÑOR haya permitido a tus soldados derrotar al enemigo y forzarlos lejos de su presencia"

y la tierra sea sometida ante Él Aquí la palabra "tierra" se refiere a las personas que viven allí. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y en su presencia los israelitas han sometido a la gente que vive en la tierra"

pueden regresar
Está implícito que volverán al lado este del Jordán. Traducción Alterna: "pueden regresar a esta tierra en el lado este del Jordán"

Ustedes estarán sin culpa ante el SEÑOR y ante Israel
Los posibles significados son: 1) "Habrás cumplido tu obligación con el SEÑOR y con Israel" o 2) "No habrá nada por lo que el SEÑOR o el pueblo de Israel puedan culparte".

Numbers 32:23

Estén seguros que su pecado los encontrará
Moisés habla del pecado como si fuera una persona que condenará a la persona culpable. Esto significa que las personas no pueden escapar al castigo que su pecado merece. Traducción Alterna: "Sepan con seguridad que el SEÑOR les castigará por su pecado"

Tus sirvientes
La gente de Gad y Rubén se refieren a sí mismos como "tus sirvientes". Esta es una forma cortés de hablarle a alguien con mayor autoridad.

Numbers 32:26

cruzaremos Puede aclarar que cruzarán el Jordán. Traducción Alterna: "cruzaremos el río Jordán"

cada hombre que esté armado para la guerra
"cada hombre preparado para la guerra"

Numbers 32:28

cada hombre que esté armado
"cada hombre que esté preparado con su arma"

si la tierra es sometida ante ustedes Aquí la palabra "tierra" se refiere a la gente que vive allí. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si el SEÑOR somete ante ustedes a la gente que vive en la tierra" o "Si te ayudan a someter a la gente que vive en la tierra"

entonces ellos adquirirán sus posesiones entre ustedes en la tierra de Canaán
"Entonces los descendientes de Gad y Rubén recibirán tierras contigo en Canaán"

Numbers 32:31

Nosotros cruzaremos armados
Puede aclarar que cruzarán el Jordán. Traducción Alterna: "Cruzaremos el Jordán listos para pelear"

nuestra herencia poseída
Se habla de la tierra que la gente iba a recibir como posesión permanente como si fuera una herencia que debían obtener. Traducción Alterna: "la porción de tierra que poseeremos"

quedará con nosotros
Esta expresión idiomática se refiere a propiedad. Traducción Alterna: "será nuestra"

Numbers 32:33

El reino de Sehón... y de Og Estos son nombres de reyes que gobernaron dos reinos separados. Traducción Alterna: "el reino de Sehón... y el reino de Og"

Numbers 32:34

Dibón, Atarot, Aroer, Atarot Sofán, Jazer, Jogbeha, Bet Nimra y Bet Arán
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

Numbers 32:37

Hesbón, Eleale, Quiritiaim, Nebo, Baal Meón... Sibma
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

sus nombres fueron luego cambiados
Esto puede traducirse en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "la gente cambió luego los nombres de estas ciudades"

Maquir
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo este nombre en 26:28.

Numbers 32:40

Jair... Noba
Estos son nombres de hombres.

Havot Jair... Kenat
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 33

1 Estas fueron las rutas del pueblo de Israel luego que salieron de la tierra de Egipto por sus grupos armados bajo la dirección de Moisés y Aarón. 2 Moisés escribió los lugares desde donde salieron hasta donde fueron, como mandó EL SEÑOR. Estas fueron sus rutas, salida tras salida. 3 Viajaron desde Ramsés durante el primer mes, saliendo en el día quince del primer mes. En la mañana después de la Pascua, el pueblo de Israel se fue abiertamente, ante los ojos de los egipcios. 4 Esto sucedió mientras los egipcios estaban enterrando a todos sus primogénitos, esos que EL SEÑOR había matado de entre ellos, porque Él tambien había castigado a sus dioses. 5 El pueblo de Israel salió de Ramsés y acampó en Sucot. 6 Salieron de Sucot y acampó en Etam, en las orillas del desierto. 7 Salieron de Etam y regresaron a Pi Hahirot, el cual está frente a Baal Zefón, donde ellos acamparon frente a Migdol. 8 Entonces partieron del lado contrario de Pi Hahirot y pasaron por en medio del mar hacia el desierto. Viajaron una jornada de tres días hacia el desierto de Etam y acamparon en Mara. 9 Partieron de Mara y llegaron a Elim. En Elim había doce manantiales de agua y setenta palmeras. Ahí fue donde acamparon. 10 Salieron de Elim y acamparon junto al Mar de Juncos. 11 Ellos salieron del Mar de Juncos y acamparon en el desierto de Sin. 12 Salieron del desierto de Sin y acamparon en Dofca. 13 Salieron de Dofca y acamparon en Alús. 14 Salieron de Alús y acamparon en Refidim, donde no encontraron agua para que la gente bebiera. 15 Salieron de Refidin y acamparon en el desierto de Sinaí. 16 Salieron del desierto de Sinaí y acamparon en Kibrot Hataava. 17 Salieron de Kibrot Hataava y acamparon en Hazerot. 18 Salieron de Hazerot y acamparon en Ritma. 19 Salieron de Ritma y acamparon en Rimón Perez. 20 Salieron de Rimón Perez y acamparon en Libna. 21 Salieron de Libna y acamparon en Rissa. 22 Salieron de Rissa y acamparon en Ceelata. 23 Salieron de Ceelata y acamparon en el Monte Sefer. 24 Salieron del Monte Sefer y acamparon en Harada. 25 Salieron de Harada y acamparon en Macelot. 26 Salieron de Macelot y acamparon en Tahat. 27 Salieron de Tahat y acamparon en Tara. 28 Salieron de Tara y acamparon en Mitca. 29 Salieron de Mitca y acamparon en Hasmona. 30 Salieron de Hasmona y acamparon en Moserot. 31 Salieron de Moserot y acamparon en Bene Jaacán. 32 Salieron de Bene Jaacán y acamparon en Hor Haggidgad. 33 Salieron de Hor Haggidgad y acamparon en Jotbata. 34 Salieron de Jotbata y acamparon en Abrona. 35 Salieron de Abrona y acamparon en Ezión Geber. 36 Salieron de Ezión Geber y acamparon en el desierto de Zin en Cades. 37 Salieron de Cades y acamparon en el Monte Hor, al borde de la tierra de Edom. 38 Aarón el sacerdote subió al Monte Hor a la orden del SEÑOR y murió allí en el año cuarenta luego que el pueblo de Israel salió de la tierra de Egipto, en el quinto mes, en el primer día del mes. 39 Aarón era de 123 años de edad cuando murió en el Monte Hor. 40 El cananeo, el rey de Arad, que vivía al sur del desierto en la tierra de Canaán, escuchó que venía el pueblo de Israel. 41 Salieron del Monte Hor y acamparon en Zalmona. 42 Salieron de Zalmona y acamparon en Punón. 43 Salieron de Punón y acamparon en Obot. 44 Salieron de Obot y acamparon en Ije Abarim, en el borde de Moab. 45 Salieron de Ije Abarim y acamparon en Dibón Gad. 46 Salieron de Dibón Gad y acamparon en Almón Diblataim. 47 Salieron de Almón Diblataim y acamparon en las montañas de Abarim, frente al Nebo. 48 Salieron de las montañas de Abarim y acamparon en llanuras de Moab por el Jordán en Jericó. 49 Acamparon por el Jordán, desde Bet Jesimot, a Abel Sitim en las llanuras de Moab. 50 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés en la llanuras de Moab por el Jordán en Jericó y dijo: 51 ''Habla al pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Cuando ustedes crucen el Jordán a la tierra de Canaán, 52 entonces deben sacar a todos los habitantes de la tierra de delante de ustedes. Deben destruir todas sus figuras talladas. Deben destruir todas sus figuras fundidas y demoler todos sus lugares altos. 53 Deben tomar posesión de la tierra y establecerse en ella porque Yo les he dado la tierra para que la posean. 54 Deben heredar la tierra por lotes, de acuerdo a cada familia. A la familia más grande se le debe dar una parte mayor de la tierra, y a las familias más pequeñas les debes dar una parte menor de tierra. Dondequiera que el lote caiga a cada familia, esa tierra le pertenecerá. Ustedes heredarán la tierra de acuerdo a las tribus de sus antepasados. 55 Pero si no sacan de las tierras a los que habitaban delante de ustedes, entonces la gente a la que les permitan quedarse se volverán como aguijones en sus ojos y espinas en sus costados. Harán sus vidas difíciles en la tierra donde se establezcan. 56 Entonces sucederá que lo que Yo tengo intención de hacerle a esa gente, Yo se los haré también a ustedes."

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 33:1

por sus grupos armados
"Por sus divisiones militares". Esto significa que cada tribu tenía sus propios hombres armados para protegerlos. Vea cómo tradujo "grupos armados" en 1:1.

como mandó el SEÑOR Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "como el SEÑOR lo ordenó"

salida tras salida
"De un lugar a otro lugar"

Numbers 33:3

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de dejar Egipto.

durante el primer mes, saliendo a los quince días del primer mes Aquí "primero" es el número ordinal uno y "decimoquinto" es el número ordinal quince. Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. El decimoquinto día está cerca de principios de abril en los calendarios occidentales.

el pueblo de Israel se fue abiertamente, ante los ojos de todos los egipcios
"Los israelitas se fueron a plena vista de los egipcios"

sus primogénitos
Esto se refiere a los hijos primogénitos. Traducción Alterna: "sus hijos primogénitos"

Él tambien había castigado a sus dioses
Se habla del SEÑOR demostrando que Él es más poderoso que todos los dioses falsos que adoraban los egipcios como si Él había castigado a esos dioses falsos. Traducción Alterna: "también demostró que Él es más grande que sus dioses"

Numbers 33:5

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de dejar Egipto.

salió de
"partió de"

en las orillas del desierto
"en el borde del desierto"

Numbers 33:8

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

pasaron a través del medio del mar
Esto se refiere a cuando el SEÑOR dividió el Mar Rojo para que los israelitas pudieran escapar del ejército egipcio.

doce manantiales... setenta palmeras
"12 manantiales... 70 palmeras"

Numbers 33:11

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

donde no encontraron agua para que la gente bebiera Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "donde la gente no podía encontrar agua para beber"

Numbers 33:15

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:19

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:23

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:27

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:31

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:35

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:38

en el cuadragésimo año luego
Aquí "cuadragésimo" es el número ordinal de cuarenta. Traducción Alterna: "40 años después"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

En el quinto mes, en el primer día del mes
El "quinto" es el número ordinal de cinco. El "primero" es el número ordinal de uno. Este es el quinto mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de mediados de julio en los calendarios occidentales.

Numbers 33:40

El cananeo, el rey de Arad
"El rey cananeo de Arad"

Arad
Este fue el nombre de una ciudad cananea.

escuchó de que venía el pueblo de Israel
"oyó que el pueblo de Israel estaba viniendo"

Numbers 33:41

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:44

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

Numbers 33:47

Información General:
Moisés enumera los lugares a los que los israelitas fueron después de salir de Egipto.

llanuras
Un gran área de tierra plana

Numbers 33:50

demoler todos sus lugares altos
"Destruir todos sus lugares altos"

Numbers 33:53

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

heredar la tierra
Se habla de los israelitas reclamando la tierra como su posesión permanente como si estaban heredando la tierra.

Dondequiera que la suerte caiga a cada clan, esa tierra le pertenecerá
"Cada clan recibirá la tierra según cómo caiga la suerte"

Numbers 33:55

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que el pueblo debe hacer.

como objetos en sus ojos y espinas en sus costados
Al igual que un objeto pequeño en el ojo de una persona o una pequeña espina que se clava a la piel de una persona puede causar una gran irritación, así incluso una pequeña porción de los cananeos, si se dejaba en la tierra, causaría grandes problemas a los israelitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 34

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 2 "Manda al pueblo de Israel y diles, 'Cuando entres a la tierra de Canaán, la tierra que te pertenecerá, la tierra de Canaán y sus fronteras, 3 tu frontera sur se extenderá desde el desierto de Zin a lo largo de la frontera de Edom. El extremo este de la frontera sur estará en una línea que termina en el extremo sur del Mar Salado. 4 Tu frontera girara al sur desde la colina de Acrabim y pasa a lo largo del desierto de Zin. De ahí, pasará al sur de Cades Barnea y continúa a Hasaradar y mas allá hasta Asmón. 5 De ahí, la frontera pasará de Asmón hacia el arroyo de Egipto y sigue al mar. 6 La frontera occidental será la costa del Mar Grande. Esta será tu frontera occidental. 7 Tu frontera al norte se extenderá a lo largo de una línea que tu debes marcar desde el Mar Grande hasta el Monte Hor, 8 entonces del Monte Hor a Lebo Hamat, de ahí a Zedad. 9 Entonces la frontera continuará a Zifrón y terminará en Hazar Enán. Esta será tu frontera al norte. 10 Entonces debes marcar tu frontera oriental desde Hazar Enán al sur de Sefam. 11 Entonces la frontera oriental bajará desde Sefam a Ribla, al lado oriental de Aín. La frontera continuará a lo largo del lado oriental del Mar de Cineret. 12 Entonces la frontera continuará a lo largo del Río Jordán hasta el Mar Salado y continuará descendiendo por la frontera del Mar Salado. Esta será tu tierra, siguiendo sus fronteras alrededor." 13 Entonces Moisés mandó al pueblo de Israel y dijo: "Esta es la tierra que recibirás por suerte, la cual EL SEÑOR ha mandado a dar a las nueve tribus y a la media tribu. 14 La tribu de los descendientes de Rubén, siguiendo la asignación de la propiedad a la tribu de sus antepasados, y la tribu de los descendientes de Gad, siguiendo la asignación de la propiedad de la tribu de sus antepasados, y la media tribu de Manasés todos han recibido sus tierras. 15 Las dos tribus y la media tribu han recibido su parte de la tierra mas allá del Jordán al oriente de Jericó, hacia la salida del sol. 16 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 17 "Estos son los nombres de los hombres que dividirán la tierra para tu herencia: Eleazar el sacerdote y Josué hijo de Nun. 18 Debes escoger un jefe de cada tribu para dividir la tierra por familias. 19 Estos son los nombres de los hombres: de la tribu de Judá, Caleb hijo de Jefone. 20 De la tribu de los descendientes de Simeón, Semuel hijo de Amiud. 21 De la tribu de Benjamín, Elidad hijo de Quislón. 22 De la tribu de los descendientes de Dan un jefe, Buqui hijo de Jogli. 23 De los descendientes de José, de la tribu de los descendientes de Manasés un jefe, Haniel hijo de Efod. 24 De la tribu de los descendientes de Efraín un jefe, Kemuel hijo de Siftán. 25 De la tibu de los descendientes de Zabulón un jefe, Elizafán hijo de Parnac. 26 De la tribu de los descendientes de Isacar un jefe, Paltiel hijo de Azán. 27 De la tribu de los descendientes de Aser, Ahiud hijo de Selomi. 28 De la tribu de los descendientes de Neftalí un jefe, Pedael hijo de Amiud. 29 El SEÑOR mandó a estos hombres a dividir la tierra de Canaán y darle a cada una de las tribus de Israel su porción.

Numbers 34:1

desierto de Zin
Traduzca esta frase de la misma manera que lo hizo en 33:11.

Numbers 34:4

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde están las fronteras de la tierra que Él les está dando a los israelitas.

Numbers 34:6

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde están las fronteras de la tierra que Él les está dando a los israelitas.

Numbers 34:7

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde están las fronteras de la tierra que Él les está dando a los israelitas.

Monte Hor
Traduzca esto de la misma manera que lo hizo en 20:22.

Numbers 34:10

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés dónde están las fronteras de la tierra que Él les está dando a los israelitas.

Numbers 34:13

a las nueve tribus y a la media tribu Esto se refiere a las tribus restantes de Israel que vivirán en el lado oeste del río Jordán en la tierra de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Canaán. Las tribus de Rubén y Gad y la media tribu de Manasés ya habían recibido sus tierras en el lado este del río Jordán.

siguiendo la asignación de la propiedad de la tribu de sus ancestros
"De acuerdo a cómo el SEÑOR asignó la propiedad a la tribu de sus antepasados"

Las dos tribus y la media tribu
"Las tribus de Rubén y Gad, y la mitad de la tribu de Manasés"

Numbers 34:16

dividirán la tierra para su herencia
Aquí "su" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Estos hombres echarán suertes para dividir la tierra. Luego la repartirán a las tribus.

Numbers 34:19

Información General:
Esta es la lista de hombres que ayudarán a dividir la tierra entre las tribus.

Numbers 34:21

Información General:
Esta es la lista de hombres que ayudarán a dividir la tierra entre las tribus.

Numbers 34:24

Información General:
Esta es la lista de hombres que ayudarán a dividir la tierra entre las tribus.

Numbers 34:27

Información General:
Esto concluye la lista de hombres que ayudarán a dividir la tierra entre las tribus.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 35

1 El SEÑOR habló a Moisés en los llanos de Moab junto al Jordán en Jericó y dijo: 2 "Ordénale al pueblo de Israel a dar algunas de sus porciones de la tierra a los Levitas. Deben darle a ellos ciudades donde vivir y pastizales rodeando esas ciudades. 3 Los Levitas van a tener estas ciudades para vivir. Los pastizales van a ser para sus ganados, sus rebaños y todos sus animales. 4 Los pastizales alrededor de las ciudades que ustedes les van a dar a los Levitas deben extenderse desde las murallas de la ciudad por 450 metros en cada dirección. 5 Deben medir 900 metros desde las afueras de la ciudad en el lado este y 900 metros al lado sur, 900 metros al lado oeste y 900 metros al lado norte. Estos serán los pastizales para sus ciudades. Las ciudades estarán en el centro. 6 Seis de las ciudades que les van a dar a los Levitas deben servir como ciudades de refugio. Ustedes Deben proveer éstas como lugares a los que una persona que haya matado a alguien pueda huir. También, provee otras cuarenta y dos ciudades. 7 Las ciudades que les den a los levitas van a ser en total cuarenta y dos. Deben darles sus pastizales con ellas. 8 Las tribus más grandes del pueblo de Israel, las tribus que tienen más tierra, deben proveer más ciudades. Las tribus pequeñas van a proveer menos ciudades. Cada tribu debe proveer para los Levitas de acuerdo a la parte que han recibido." 9 Luego EL SEÑOR habló a Moisés y dijo: 10 "Habla al pueblo de Israel y diles: 'Cuando crucen el Jordán a la ciudad de Canaán, 11 entonces deben escoger las ciudades para servir como ciudades de refugio para ustedes, un lugar en el cual una persona que haya matado a alguien sin intención, pueda escapar. 12 Éstas ciudades deben ser su refugio de los vengadores, de manera que el hombre que ha sido acusado no pueda ser muerto sin antes comparecer a juicio delante de la comunidad. 13 Deben escoger seis ciudades como ciudades de refugio. 14 Deben proveer tres ciudades más allá del Jordán y tres en las tierras de Canaán. Éstas van a ser las ciudades de refugio. 15 Para que el pueblo de Israel, los extranjeros, para cualquiera que está viviendo entre ustedes, estas seis ciudades servirán como refugio para cualquier persona que haya matado a alguien sin intención, pueda escapar. 16 Pero si un hombre acusado ha golpeado a su víctima con un instrumento de hierro, y si su víctima muere, entonces el acusado es ciertamente un asesino. Él ciertamente debe ser muerto. 17 Si un hombre acusado ha golpeado a su víctima con una piedra en su mano que pueda matar a la víctima, y si la víctima muere, entonces el acusado es ciertamente un asesino. Él ciertamente debe ser muerto. 18 Si un hombre acusado a golpeado a su víctima con una arma de madera que pueda matar a la victima, y si la víctima muere, entonces el acusado es ciertametne un asesino. Él ciertamente debe ser muerto. 19 El vengador de la sangre, puede dar muerte al asesino. Cuando él lo encuentre, él puede darle muerte. 20 Y si un hombre acusado maltrata a alguien en odio o tira algo hacia él, mientras se esconde para emboscarlo, para que su víctima muera, 21 o si él lo ataca en odio con sus manos para que la víctima muera, entonces el acusado que lo golpeó ciertamente debe ser muerto. Él es un asesino. El vengador de la sangre puede dar muerte al asesino cuando se encuetre con él. 22 Pero si un hombre acusado de repente golpea a una víctima sin odio premeditado o lanza algo que golpea a la víctima sin acechar 23 o si lanza una piedra que podría matar a la victima sin haber visto a la víctima, entonces el acusado no era enemigo de la victima; no estaba tratando de lastimar a la víctima. Esto es lo que haces cuando la víctima muere de todas maneras. 24 En este caso, la comunidad debe juzgar entre el acusado y el vengador de la sangre con base en estas reglas. 25 La comunidad debe rescatar al acusado del poder del vengador de la sangre. La comunidad debe regresar al acusado a la ciudad de refugio a la cual había huído originalmente. Debe vivir allí hasta la muerte del alto sacerdote actual, que fue ungido con el aceite santo. 26 Pero si el hombre acusado en cualquier tiempo va más allá de la frontera de la ciudad de refugio a la cual él había huído, 27 y si el vengador de la sangre lo encuetra fuera de las fronteras de su ciudad de refugio, y si mata al hombre acusado, el vengador de la sangre no va a ser culpable por la muerte. 28 Esto es porque el hombre acusado debía permanecer en la ciudad de refugio hasta la muerte del alto sacerdote. Después de la muerte del alto sacerdote, el hombre acusado puede volver a la tierra donde tiene su propiedad. 29 Éstas leyes deben ser estatutos para ustedes a través de las generaciones de su pueblo en todos los lugares donde ustedes viven. 30 Quien sea que mate a una persona, el asesino debe ser muerto, como lo atestigüe la palabra de los testigos. Pero una sola palabra de los testigos no puede hacer que ninguna persona sea muerta. 31 También, ustedes no deben acepar ningún rescate por la vida del asesino que ha sido culpable de muerte. Debe ciertamente ser muerto. 32 Y no deben aceptar ningún rescate por la persona que ha huído a la ciudad de refugio. No deben de esta manera permitirle que viva en su propiedad hasta que el alto sacerdote muera. 33 No contaminen de esta manera la tierra donde viven, porque la sangre de un asesino contamina la tierra. Ninguna expiación puede ser hecha por la tierra cuando la sangre ha sido derramada en ella, excepto por la sangre de quien la ha derramado. 34 Así que, no deben profanar la tierra en la cual viven porque Yo estoy viviendo en ella. Yo, EL SEÑOR, vivo entre el pueblo de Israel."'

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 35:1

llanura
un gran área de tierra plana

darle algunas de sus porciones de la tierra a los levitas
El SEÑOR no les dio a los levitas su tierra propia, por lo que tuvieron que vivir en ciudades que pertenecían a otras tribus.

pastizales
Un área de tierra donde los animales se alimentan de pasto.

Numbers 35:3

mil codos
"1.000 codos". Si es necesario usar unidades de distancia modernas, aquí hay una forma de hacerlo. Traducción Alterna: "457 metros"

Numbers 35:5

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

dos mil codos
"2.000 codos". Un codo son 46 centímetros.

Numbers 35:6

una persona que haya matado a alguien
Esto se refiere a las personas que han matado a alguien, pero aún no se ha determinado si mataron a la persona intencionalmente o accidentalmente.

cuarenta y dos... cuarenta y ocho
...dos... cuarenta y ocho - "42... 48"

Numbers 35:8

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Numbers 35:9

sin intención
"accidentalmente"

Numbers 35:12

el vengador
Esto se refiere a un pariente cercano que busca venganza matando al hombre acusado.

de manera que el hombre que ha sido acusado no pueda ser matado sin antes comparecer a juicio delante de la comunidad Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "para que nadie mate al hombre acusado antes de que la comunidad pueda juzgarlo en la corte"

Numbers 35:14

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Numbers 35:16

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

Él ciertamente debe ser puesto a muerte
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ciertamente debes ejecutarlo"

Numbers 35:19

El vengador de sangre
Aquí la palabra "sangre" es una figura literaria

el acusado que lo golpeó seguramente debe ser muerto Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el pariente ciertamente debe ejecutar al hombre acusado" o "el hombre acusado debe morir"

Numbers 35:22

sin odio premeditado
"Sin planearlo por odio antes de tiempo"

sin acechar
Se habla de alguien que busca intencionalmente una forma de dañar a otra persona como si alguien se estuviera escondiendo para emboscar a esa otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "sin haber intentado intencionalmente dañar a la víctima"

Numbers 35:24

el vengador de la sangre
Aquí la palabra "sangre" es una figura literaria

La comunidad debe rescatar al acusado
Esto significa que si la comunidad juzga que la muerte fue accidental, entonces debe salvar al hombre acusado del pariente que quiere matarlo. Si la comunidad juzga que la muerte no fue accidental, entonces el familiar debe ejecutar al acusado.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

el que fue ungido con el aceite santo Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el que ungiste con aceite santo"

Numbers 35:26

el vengador de la sangre
Aquí la palabra "sangre" es una figura literaria

Numbers 35:29

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa diciéndole a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer.

a través de todas las generaciones de tu pueblo
"y todos tus descendientes que vivirán después de ti"

el asesino debe ser muerto Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "alguien debe ejecutar al asesino" como lo atestigüe la palabra de los testigos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "de acuerdo con el testimonio de testigos" o "como testigos atestigüen del asesinato"

Numbers 35:31

Él debe ciertamente ser muerto
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Debes ejecutarlo"

Ustedes no deben... permitirle que viva en su propiedad Esto implicaba que el hombre habría abandonado la ciudad de refugio y regresado a casa. Traducción Alterna: "No deben... permitirle que abandone la ciudad de refugio y regresar a casa para vivir en su propiedad"

de esta manera
"al aceptar un rescate"

Numbers 35:33

No contaminen de esta manera la tierra donde ustedes viven, porque la sangre de un asesinato contamina la tierra
Se habla de hacer que la tierra sea inaceptable para el SEÑOR como si se estuviera contaminando físicamente la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "No hagas que la tierra donde vives sea inaceptable para Mí de esta manera, porque la sangre de asesinatos hace que la tierra sea inaceptable para Mí"

de esta manera
Esto significa desobedecer las leyes relativas a una persona que mata a alguien.

Ninguna expiación puede ser hecha por la tierra cuando ha sido derramada sangre en ella, excepto por la sangre de quien la derramó Esto se refiere a cuando una persona mata intencionalmente a otra persona. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando alguien ha derramado sangre en la tierra, solo la ejecución del asesino puede hacer expiación por la tierra"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 36

1 Luego, los jefes de la familia de los antepasados de la familia de Galaad, hijo de Maquir (que era hijo de Manasés), que eran de la familia de los descendientes de José, vinieron y hablaron delante de Moisés y delante de los jefes que eran las cabezas de la familia de los antepasados del pueblo de Israel. 2 Dijeron: "El SEÑOR te ordenó, nuestro amo, dar una porción de la tierra por lote al pueblo de Israel. Fuiste ordenado por EL SEÑOR para darle la porción de Zelofehad, nuestro hermano, a sus hijas. 3 Pero si sus hijas se casan con hombres de otra tribu del pueblo de Israel, entonces su porción de tierra, será quitada de la porción de nuestros antepasados. Será añadida a la porción de la tribu a la que se unan. 4 En ese caso, será quitada la porción de nuestra herencia asignada. En ese caso, cuando el año del jubileo del pueblo de Israel venga, entonces su porción será añadida a la porción de la tribu a la que se hayan unido. De esta forma, su porción será tomada de la porción de la tribu de nuestros antepasados. 5 Así que, Moisés dio una orden al pueblo de Israel, en la palabra del SEÑOR. Él dijo: "Lo que la tribu de los descendientes de José dicen es correcto. 6 Esto es lo que EL SEÑOR ordena, sobre las hijas de Zelofehad. Él dice: 'Deja que se casen con quien piensen que sea mejor, pero sólo deben estar casadas entre los de la tribu de su padre.' 7 Ninguna porción del pueblo de Israel debe cambiar de una tribu a otra. Cada uno del pueblo de Israel debe continuar con la porción de tribu de su antepasado. 8 Cada mujer del pueblo de Israel, a quien le pertenezca una porción en su tribu debe casarse con alguien de las familias pertenecientes a la tribu de su padre. Esto es para que todos los del pueblo de Israel sean dueños de una herencia de sus antepasados. 9 Ninguna porción debe cambiar de manos de una tribu a otra. Todas las tribus del pueblo de Israel deben mantener su propia herencia." 10 Así que, las hijas de Zelofehad hicieron como EL SEÑOR le había ordenado a Moisés. 11 Maala, Tirsa, Hogla, Milca y Noa, las hijas de Zelofehad, se casaron con descendientes de Manasés. 12 Se casaron dentro de las familias de los descendientes de Manasés, hijo de José. De esta manera, sus herencias se mantuvieron en la tribu a la cual pertenecía la familia de su padre. 13 Estos son las ordenanzas y las leyes que EL SEÑOR dio a través de Moisés al pueblo de Israel en las llanuras de Moab, junto al Jordán, en Jericó.

Numbers 36:1

Maquir
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduzca este nombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 26:28.

Fuiste mandado por el SEÑOR
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR te lo mandó"

Zelofehad
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Traduzca este nombre de la misma manera que lo hizo en 26:33.

Numbers 36:3

será removida de la porción de nuestro antepasado
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traduccióndownloadn Alte "ya no pertenecerá a la parte de nuestro ancestro"

Será añadida Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Pertenecerá a"

será removida de la porción de nuestra herencia asignada Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ya no será parte de nuestra herencia" el año del jubileo del pueblo Esto se refiere a una celebración que ocurre una vez cada cincuenta años. En esta celebración, toda la tierra que alguien vendió o negoció debe regresar al propietario original.

su porción será unida Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "su parte pertenecerá" su porción será tomada de la porción de la tribu de nuestro antepasado Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "tomarán la parte de la tierra de nuestra tribu"

Numbers 36:5

en la palabra del SEÑOR
"según lo que dijo el SEÑOR"

Que se casen con quien mejor les parezca Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que se casen con quien quieran" pero sólo deben estar casadas entre los de la tribu de su padre Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "pero sólo pueden casarse con alguien de la tribu de su padre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Numbers 36:7

Ninguna porción
La palabra "porción" representa la porción de tierra que cada tribu recibió como herencia. Traducción Alterna: "Ninguna porción de la tierra"

Numbers 36:8

a quien le pertenezca una porción en su tribu
"que posee una porción de la tierra en su tribu"

sean dueños de una herencia
Se habla de la tierra que posee cada clan como si fuera una herencia que recibieron.

Ninguna porción debe cambiar de manos de una tribu a otra
La transferencia de la propiedad de una tribu a otra se expresa como si la propiedad pasara de las manos de una persona a las manos de otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie puede transferir la propiedad de ninguna porción de la tierra de una tribu a otra"

Numbers 36:10

Maala, Tirsa, Hogla, Milca y Noa
Estos son nombres de mujeres. Traduzca esto de la misma forma como lo hizo en 26:33.

sus herencias
Se habla de la tierra que cada una de las hijas de Zelofehad poseía como si fuera una herencia que recibieron. Traducción Alterna: "las tierras que recibieron como herencia"

Numbers 36:13

llanuras
Un gran área de tierra plana.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Book: Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy

Chapter 1

1 Estas son las palabras que Moisés habló a todo Israel mas allá del río Jordán en el desierto, en la parte plana del valle del río Jordán frente a la tierra de Suf, entre las tierras de Parán, Tofel, Labán, Hazerot y Dizahab. 2 Son once días de camino desde el Monte Horeb camino al Monte Seir rumbo a la tierra de Cades Barnea. 3 Despues de cuarenta años en el mes once, en el primer día del mes que salieron de Egipto, que Moisés habló al pueblo de Israel, diciéndoles todo lo que el SEÑOR le había ordenado a él acerca de ellos. 4 Esto fue después que el SEÑOR había atacado a Sehón el rey de los Amorreos, quién vivía en Hesbón, y a Og, el rey de Basán, quien vivía en Astarot en Edrei. 5 Mas allá del Jordán, en la tierra de Moab, Moisés comenzó a anunciar estas instrucciones, diciendo: 6 '"EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos habló en Horeb, diciendo: 'Ustedes han vivido mucho tiempo en estas montañas. 7 Caminene pues a las montañas de los Amorreos y a todos los lugares cerca de allí en las planicies del valle del río Jordán, en la zona montañosa, en la tierra baja, en el Neguev, y por la costa— la tierra de los cananeos, y en el Líbano, tan lejos como hasta el gran río, el Éufrates. 8 Miren, he puesto la tierra delante de ustedes; entren y posean la tierra que EL SEÑOR le juró a sus padres—a Abraham, a Isaac, y a Jacob—para darles a ellos y a sus descendientes después de ellos.' 9 Yo hablé a ustedes en ese tiempo, diciendo: ' Yo solo no puedo sostenerlos a ustedes. 10 EL SEÑOR su Dios los ha multiplicado, y miren hoy, ustedes son muchos como las estrellas del cielo. 11 ¡Qué EL SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres, los haga mil veces más de lo que son, y los bendiga, como Él les ha prometido! 12 Pero, ¿cómo puedo yo solo llevar sus cargas, sus aflicciones y sus desacuerdos? 13 Tomen hombres sabios, hombres entendidos, y hombres de buena fama en el pueblo, de cada tribu, y los haré cabezas sobre ustedes.' 14 Ustedes me respondieron y dijeron: 'La cosa que has hablado es bueno para que nosotros lo hagamos.' 15 Así que, tomé las cabezas de sus tribus, hombres sabios, y hombres de buena fama, y los hice cabezas sobre ustedes, jefes de mil hombres, capitanes de cien, jefes de cincuenta, jefes de diez, y oficiales, tribu por tribu. 16 Yo ordené a sus jueces en ese tiempo, diciendo: "Escuchen los desacuerdos entre sus hermanos, y juzguen rectamente entre un hombre y su hermano, y el extranjero quien está con él. 17 Ustedes no mostrarán preferencia por nadie en ningun desacuerdo; escucharán al pequeño y al grande del mísmo modo. No tendrán miedo de nadie, porque el juicio es de Dios. El desacuerdo que sea muy difícil para ustedes, lo traerán a mí, y yo la escucharé.' 18 Yo les ordené a ustedes en ese tiempo todas las cosas que debían hacer. 19 Viajamos lejos desde Horeb y fuimos por medio de todo el gran y terrible desierto que ustedes vieron, de camino a la zona montañosa de los amorreos, como EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos había ordenado; y llegamos a Cades Barnea. 20 Les dije: 'Han venido a la zona montañosa de los amorreros, la cual EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos está dando. 21 Miren, el SEÑOR su Dios ha puesto la tierra delante de ustedes; suban, tomen posesión, como EL SEÑOR, el Dios de sus padres, les ha hablado a ustedes; no tengan miedo, ni tampoco se desanimen.' 22 Cada uno de ustedes vino a mí y dijo: 'Déjanos enviar hombres delante de nosotros, para que ellos puedan explorar la tierra por nosotros, y nos traigan palabra acerca del camino por el cual deberíamos atacar, y acerca de las ciudades en las cuales entraremos.' 23 El consejo me pareció bien; tomé doce hombres de entre ustedes, un hombre por cada tribu. 24 Ellos se fueron y subieron a la zona montañosa, llegaron al valle de Escol y lo exploraron. 25 Tomaron de los frutos que dió la tierra en sus manos y nos la trajeron. Y también nos dijeron: 'Es una buena tierra la que EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos está dando.' 26 Aún así, ustedes no quisieron atacar, sino que no obedecieron la orden del SEÑOR su Dios. 27 Se quejaron en sus tiendas y dijeron: 'Es porque EL SEÑOR nos odió que Él nos ha traido fuera de la tierra de Egipto, para entregarnos en la mano de los amorreos para destruirnos. 28 ¿A dónde podremos ir ahora? Nuestros hermanos han hecho que nuestros corazones se llenen de miedo, diciendo: 'Esas personas son grandes y más altás que nosotros; sus ciudades son grandes y están rodeada totalmente de paredes muy altas hasta los cielos; y sobre todo, hemos visto a los hijos de Anac allí.'" 29 Luego les dije a ustedes: 'No se aterroricen, ni tampoco tengan miedo de ellos. 30 EL SEÑOR su Dios, quien va delante de ustedes, Él peleará por ustedes, como todo lo que hizo por ustedes en Egipto ante sus ojos, 31 y también en el desierto, en donde han visto cómo EL SEÑOR su Dios los sostuvo, como un hombre carga a su hijo, a todo lugar que ustedes fueron hasta que llegaron a este lugar.' 32 Pero a ustedes no les importó La Palabra de

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

SU SEÑOR y no creyeron en EL SEÑOR SU DIOS [33] quien fue delante de ustedes para encontrar lugar donde acampar, en fuego por la noche y en nubes de día. [34] EL SEÑOR escuchó el sonido de sus palabras y estaba enojado; Él juró y dijo: [35] 'Ciertamente ninguno de estos hombres de esta generación perversa verá la buena tierra que juré darle a sus antepasados, [36] excepto Caleb hijo de Jefone; él la verá. A él daré la tierra que ha pisado, y a sus hijos, porque él ha seguido enteramente a Dios.' [37] También, EL SEÑOR estaba enojado conmigo por culpa de ustedes, diciendo: 'Tú tampoco entrarás allí; [38] Josué hijo de Nun, quien está de pie delante de tí, él entrará allí; anímalo, porque él guiará a Israel a heredarla. [39] Además, tus pequeños hijos, los cuales dijiste que serían víctimas, quienes hoy no tienen conocimiento del bien o el mal—ellos entrarán allí. A ellos se la daré, y ellos la poseerán. [40] Pero en cuanto a ti, regresa y comienza tu viaje en el desierto a lo largo del camino al Mar Rojo.' [41] Luego ustedes respondieron y me dijeron: 'Hemos pecado contra EL SEÑOR; subiremos y pelearemos, y seguiremos todo lo que EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos ha ordenado hacer'. Cada hombre de entre ustedes se puso sus armas de guerra, y estaban listos para atacar la zona montañosa. [42] EL SEÑOR me dijo: 'Diles a ellos: ''No ataquen y no peleen, porque Yo no estaré con ustedes, y serán derrotados por sus enemigos.' [43] Yo les hablé de esta manera, pero no escucharon. Ustedes se rebelaron contra el mandato del SEÑOR; ustedes fueron arrogantes y atacaron la zona montañosa. [44] Pero los amorreos, quienes vivían en esa zona montañosa, salieron en contra de ustedes y los persiguieron como abejas, y los hirieron en Seir, tan lejos como hasta Horma. [45] Ustedes regresaron y lloraron ante El SEÑOR, pero EL SEÑOR no escuchó sus voces, ni les prestó atención a ustedes. [46] Así que se que quedaron en la tierra de Cades muchos días, todos los días que pasaron allí.

Deuteronomy 1:1

más allá del Jordán
Esto se refiere a la tierra cruzando del río Jordán, al este de Israel. Moisés estaba al este del Jordán cuando habló a los israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "Al este del Jordán"

Suf... Parán... Tofel... Labán... Hazerot... Dizahab
Estos son los nombres de lugares. (Ver:|How to Translate Names)

Es un viaje de once días desde Horeb... hasta Cades Barnea
"Se requieren once días para caminar desde Horeb... hasta Cades Barnea"

Monte Seir
Esta es una zona montañosa al sur del Mar Muerto. El área también es llamada "Edom".

Once
"11" (Ver:|Numbers)

Deuteronomy 1:3

Sucedió en el cuadragésimo año, en el undécimo mes, en el primer día del mes, que Moisés habló
Los números ordinales se pueden traducir como números cardinales. Traducción Alterna: "Habían vivido en el desierto durante 40 años, 11 meses y 1 día, cuando Moisés habló"

Cuadragésimo
40mo

en el undécimo mes, en el primer día del mes
Este es el undécimo mes del calendario hebreo. El primer día es cerca de mediados de enero en los calendarios occidentales.

undécimo
11mo

SEÑOR
Este es el nombre de Dios que Él reveló a su pueblo en el Antiguo Testamento. Vea la página de translationWord acerca del SEÑOR en cuanto a cómo traducir esto.

El SEÑOR había atacado
"El SEÑOR había permitido a los israelitas vencer".

Sehón... Og
Estos son nombres de reyes.

Hesbón... Astarot en Edrei
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

Deuteronomy 1:5

Mas allá del Jordán
Esto se refiere a la tierra cruzando el río Jordán, al este de Israel. Moisés estaba al este del Jordán cuando dijo esto. Traducción Alterna: "Al este del río Jordán". Traduzca esto como en 1:1.

nos habló
La palabra "nos" se refiere a Moisés y a las otras personas de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ustedes han vivido lo suficiente en esta zona montañosa
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "No necesitan permanecer cerca de esta montaña por más tiempo"

Deuteronomy 1:7

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que el SEÑOR les dijo.

Vuélvanse y tomen su travesía
La palabra "vuélvanse" es una expresión idiomática para comenzar la acción. Traducción Alterna: "Comienza de nuevo en tu viaje"

zona montañosa... Éufrates
El Señor está describiendo lugares en la tierra que prometió darles a los israelitas.

zona montañosa
Esta es un área en las colinas cerca del lugar donde vivían los amorreos.

tierras bajas
Un área de tierra baja y plana.

Miren
"Presten atención a lo que voy a decir"

que el SEÑOR juró
El SEÑOR habla como si fuera otra persona. Traducción Alterna: "que Yo, el SEÑOR, juré" padres

La palabra "padres" es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 1:9

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que el SEÑOR les dijo.

Yo hablé a ustedes en ese tiempo
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés. La frase "en ese tiempo" se refiere a cuando los israelitas estaban en Horeb, que es lo mismo que el Monte Sinaí. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando estuvimos en Horeb, hablé contigo"

Yo solo no puedo llevarlos a ustedes Aquí "llevarlos" significa "liderarlos" o "gobernarlos". Traducción Alterna: "Es demasiado para mí liderarlos yo solo"

como la multitud de las estrellas del cielo
Esto es una exageración que significa que Dios ha aumentado enormemente el número de israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "una gran multitud de muchas personas"

mil veces
La frase "mil" es una metáfora de "muchos". Traducción Alterna: "muchas veces"

mil
1000

Deuteronomy 1:12

Informacion General:
Moises continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Pero, ¿cómo puedo yo solo llevar sus cargas, sus aflicciones y sus disputas?
Moisés usa una pregunta para enfatizar que él no puede resolver todos los problemas de ellos por sí mismo. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No puedo llevar sus cargas, sus aflicciones y sus disputas por mí mismo".

llevar sus cargas, sus aflicciones Moisés habla como si los problemas y las quejas de la gente que él necesitaba atender fueran objetos físicos pesados que había estado cargando. Traducción Alterna: "cuiden de sus problemas, sus quejas"

sus disputas
"sus argumentos" o " sus desacuerdos"

hombres de buena reputación de cada tribu
"Hombres de cada tribu a quienes el pueblo de Israel respeta"

Deuteronomy 1:15

Información General:
Moisés continua hablando al pueblo de Israel.

y hombres de buena reputación
"y hombres a quienes tu pueblo respeta". Vea cómo se tradujo esto en 1:12.

de miles... de cientos... de cincuentenas... de decenas
"de grupos de 1.000... de grupos de 100... de grupos de 50... y grupos de 10"

capitanes... oficiales
Estos son títulos para diferentes líderes en el gobierno de Israel.

tribu por tribu
"de cada una de sus tribus"

juzguen rectamente entre un hombre y su hermano
"tomar decisiones correctas y justas sobre las disputas que los israelitas tienen entre sí"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 1:17

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando con los jueces, por lo que los mandatos son en plural.

No mostrarás parcialidad
"No mostrar parcialidad"

escucharán al pequeño y al grande del mismo modo Estos dos extremos "pequeño" y "grande" representan a todas las personas. Traducción Alterna: "tratará a todas las personas por igual"

no tendrán miedo del rostro del hombre
La palabra "rostro" es una figura literaria

En ese tiempo
Esto significa el momento en que estuvieron en Horeb, en el Monte Sinaí.

Deuteronomy 1:19

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

terrible desierto que ustedes vieron
"gran y peligroso desierto que ustedes atravesaron".

Deuteronomy 1:20

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

Mira... tu Dios... delante de ti; Sube, toma posesión... tus padres... a ti; no tengas miedo, ni te desanimes
Moisés está hablando a los israelitas como si le estuviera hablando a un hombre, por lo que estas formas deben ser singulares, no plurales. .

ha puesto la tierra delante de ti
"Ahora te está dando esta tierra". Vea cómo esto se tradujo en 1:7.

Deuteronomy 1:22

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

doce hombre
"12 hombres"

Ellos se fueron y subieron
"Salieron de ese lugar y se fueron"

Valle de Escol
Este es un valle en la región de Hebrón, que está al sur de Jerusalén. .

lo exploraron
"Buscaron lugares que ellos pudieran atacar"

Deuteronomy 1:25

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas

Tomaron
"Los 12 hombres tomaron"

Tomaron algunos de los productos de la tierra en sus manos
"Recogieron algunos de los productos de la tierra"

nos trajeron palabra y dijeron
El narrador habla como si una "palabra" fuera un objeto físico que alguien pudiera traer. Traducción Alterna: "nos dijeron" dijeron: 'Es una buena tierra la que nuestro Dios nos está dando' La cita directa puede traducirse como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "dijeron que la tierra que el SEÑOR nuestro Dios nos estaba dando era buena"

Deuteronomy 1:26

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

Aún así, ustedes se rehusaron a atacar
Dios ordenó a los israelitas atacar y destruir a los amorreos, pero los israelitas tuvieron miedo y se negaron a luchar contra ellos.

en la mano de los amorreos
Aquí "en la mano" significa dar a los amorreos poder sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "en poder de los amorreos"

¿A dónde podremos ir ahora?
Aquí esta pregunta enfatiza lo atemorizados que estaban. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No tenemos a dónde ir".

han hecho que nuestro corazón se derrita
Esto significa que se asustaron. Traducción Alterna: "nos dio mucho miedo"

Y están fortificados hasta los cielos
Esto es una exageración que enfatiza lo asustada que estaba la gente porque las ciudades eran tan grandes y fuertes.

están fortificadas hasta
"tienen paredes que son tan altas como"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

hijos de los anaqueos
Estos son descendientes del pueblo de Anac que eran muy grandes y feroces.

Deuteronomy 1:29

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

les dije a ustedes
"Le dije a sus ancestros"

ante sus ojos
Aquí la figura literaria

has visto... el SEÑOR tu Dios te sostuvo... fuiste... llegaste
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

El SEÑOR tu Dios te sostuvo, como un hombre carga a su hijo Aquí el cuidado del SEÑOR por su pueblo se compara con el de un padre. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR tu Dios te ha cuidado, como un padre cuida a su hijo" hasta que llegaste a este lugar

"hasta que llegaste a esta tierra que Dios prometió darte"

Deuteronomy 1:32

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

El SEÑOR su Dios... quien fue delante de ustedes Moisés les recuerda todas las formas en que el SEÑOR había ido delante de Israel durante todos sus viajes en el pasado.

acampar
"levantar sus carpas"

Deuteronomy 1:34

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que el SEÑOR les dijo.

escuchó el sonido de sus palabras
"escuchó lo que estaban diciendo"

Él juró y dijo
Dios hizo un juramento de no permitir que los que se rebelaron contra Él entren en la tierra que prometió darles.

Verá
"entrará"

salvo Caleb
"excepto Caleb"

Jefone
Este es el nombre del padre de Caleb.

él ha seguido enteramente al SEÑOR
El Señor habla como si Él fuera otra persona. Traducción Alterna: él me ha obedecido completamente"

Deuteronomy 1:37

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

El SEÑOR estaba enojado conmigo por culpa de ustedes
Esto se refiere a cuando Moisés desobedeció lo que El SEÑOR le dijo que hiciera porque Moisés estaba enojado con el pueblo de Israel.

Nun
Este es el nombre del padre de Josué.

quien está de pie delante de ti
El por qué Josué está de pie delante de Moisés puede ser expresado claramente. Traducción Alterna: "quien está ante ti como tu siervo" o "quien te ayuda"

Deuteronomy 1:39

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

no tienen conocimiento del bien o del mal Aún no saben qué es bueno y qué es malo.

regresa y comienza tu viaje
"da la vuelta y vuelve por el camino por donde viniste"

Deuteronomy 1:41

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

pecado contra el SEÑOR
"nos hemos rebelado contra el SEÑOR al desobedecerlo"

seguiremos
"vamos a obeceder"

para atacar la zona montañosa
Aquí la figura literaria

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

porque Yo no estaré con ustedes, y serán derrotados por sus enemigos Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "tus enemigos te derrotarán porque no estaré contigo"

Deuteronomy 1:43

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

atacaron la zona montañosa
La figura literaria

los persiguieron como abejas
Una "abeja" es un pequeño insecto volador que vuela en grandes grupos y pican a las personas que las amenazan. Esto significa que tantos amorreos atacaron a los soldados israelitas que tuvieron que abandonar la batalla.

Seir
Este es el nombre de una porción de tierra.

Horma
Este es el nombre de una ciudad.

los hirieron
"mataron a muchos de tus soldados"

Deuteronomy 1:45

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

regresaron
"regresaron a Cades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 2

1 Después dimos la vuelta y tomamos nuestro viaje al desierto por el camino hacia el Mar Rojo, como EL SEÑOR me ha hablado; nosotros fuimos alrededor del Monte Seir por muchos días. 2 El SEÑOR habló conmigo, diciéndo: 3 "Ustedes han ido alrededor de esta montaña por mucho tiempo; den vuelta hacia el norte. 4 Ordena a la gente, diciendo: "Ustedes pasarán la frontera de sus hermanos, los descendientes de Esaú, que viven en Seir; ellos te tendrán miedo. Por eso, ten cuidado 5 de no pelear con ellos, porque Yo no te daré nada de su tierra, no, ni siquiera lo suficiente que la planta de un pie pueda pisar; porque Yo le he dado el Monte Seir a Esaú como una posesión. 6 Ustedes comprarán comida de ellos por dinero, para que puedan comer; también comprarán agua de ellos por dinero, para que puedan beber. 7 Porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha bendecido en todo el trabajo de tus manos; ÉL ha sabido de tu caminar a través de este gran desierto. Por estos cuarenta años EL SEÑOR TU DIOS a estado contigo, y no te ha faltado nada. 8 Y pasamos de lado de la tierra de nuestros hermanos, los decendientes de Esaú que vivían en Seir, lejos del camino de Arabá, de Elat y de Ezión Geber. Luego dimos vuelta y pasamos por el camino del desierto de Moab. 9 El SEÑOR me dijo: 'No molesten a Moab, y no luchen con ellos en batalla. Porque no les daré esta tierra para su posesión, porque Yo le he dado la Ciudad de Ar a los descendientes de Lot, para su posesión.' 10 (Los Emitas vivieron allí anteriormente, un pueblo tan grandioso, eran muchos, y tan altos como los Anaceos; 11 estos también son considerados como los Refaítas, como los Anaceos; pero los Moabitas los llamaban los Emitas. 12 Los Horeos también vivían en Seir antes que ellos, pero los descedientes de Esaú los sucedieron. Ellos los destruyeron a ellos y vivieron en su lugar, como Israel hizo con la tierra de su posesión que El SEÑOR les dio a ellos.) 13 '"Ahora levántate y ve al arroyo Zered.' Así que fuimos al arroyo Zered. 14 Ahora, los días que pasaron desde que venimos de la tierra de Cades Barnea hasta que cruzamos el arroyo Zered, fueron treinta y ocho años. Fué desde ese momento hasta ahora, que toda esa generación de los hombres del pueblo aptos para la guerra, habian muerto, como EL SEÑOR le había jurado a ellos. 15 Además, la mano DEL SEÑOR estaba en contra de esa generación, con el fin de destruirlos de entre la gente, hasta que murieron. 16 Así que sucedió que cuando todos los hombres aptos para la lucha estaban muertos, y se fueron de entre la gente, 17 que El SEÑOR me habló, diciendo: 18 "Hoy vas a pasar por la Ciudad de Ar, la frontera de Moab. 19 Cuando te acerques al pueblo de Amón, no los molestes y no pelees con ellos; porque YO no les daré nada de la tierra del pueblo de Amón como una posesión; porque YO se les he dado a los hijos de Lot esa tierra como posesión. 20 También es conosida esa tierra como la tierra de los Refaim. Los Refaitas vivían ahí anteriomente, pero los Amonitas los llamaban Zomzomeos, que significa Gigantes. 21 un pueblo tan grande y numeroso, y tan altos como los Anaceos. Pero EL Señor los destruyó delante de los Amonitas, triunfando sobre ellos y vivieron en su lugar. 22 Esto también hizo EL SEÑOR a la gente de Esaú, quienes vivían en Seir, cuando ÉL destruyó a los Horeos delante de ellos, y los hijos de Esaú triunfaron sobre ellos y han vivido en su lugar hasta el día de hoy. 23 Para los Aveos que vivían en las aldeas tan lejos como Gaza, los Caftoreos, quienes vinieron de Caftor, los destruyó y se establecieron en su lugar. 24 "Ahora levántense, vayan en su camino y pasen por el Valle de Arnón; miren, les he dado en su mano a Sehón el Amorreo, rey de Hesbón, y su tierra. Comiencen a poseerlo, y peleen con él en batalla. 25 Hoy comenzaré a ponerles miedo y terror de ustedes en los pueblos que están debajo de todo el cielo; ellos oirán las noticias de ustedes y temblarán, estarán en angustia a causa de ustedes". 26 Yo mandé mensajeros desde el desierto de Cademot hacia Sehón, rey de Hesbón con palabras de paz, diciendo: 27 "Déjame pasar por tu tierra; iré por el camino; no iré a la derecha ni a la izquierda. 28 Me venderás comida por dinero, para que así pueda yo comer; dame agua por dinero, para que yo pueda tomar; solamente déjame pasar a pie; 29 como los hijos de Esaú que viven en Seir, y como los moabitas que viven en la Ciudad de Ar, hicieron por mí; hasta que pase sobre el Jordán a la tierra que EL SEÑOR Dios nos está dando". 30 Pero Sehón, rey de Hesbón, no nos permitió pasar por su tierra; porque El SEÑOR DIOS endureció su mente y su terco su corazón, que Él pueda derrotarlo y entregarlo en tus manos, como lo ha hecho hoy. 31 El Señor me dijo: "Mira, he comenzado a entregar a Sehón y su tierra delante de ustedes; empiezen a poseerla, para que así puedas heredar su tierra." 32 Entonces Sehón vino en contra de nosotros, él y toda su gente, para pelear en Jahaza. 33 ELSEÑOR DIOS lo entregó a nosotros y lo derrotamos; lo golpeamos hasta la muerte, a sus hijos, y toda su gente. 34 Tomamos todas sus ciudades en ese momento y destruimos completamente cada ciudad; hombre, mujer y también a los pequeños; no dejamos ningún sobreviviente. 35 Solamente tomamos el ganado como nuestro botín, junto con el botín de las ciudades que habíamos capturado. 36 Desde Aroer, que está a la orilla del Valle de Arnón, y de la ciudad que está en el valle, hasta Galaad, no había ninguna ciudad inalcanzable para nosotros. El SEÑOR nuestro DIOS nos dió la victoria sobre todos los enemigos que teníamos por delante. 37 Fue solo a la tierra de los descendientes de Amón que no fuiste, como a todo el lado del río Jaboc, y las ciudades del monte, donde sea que EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS nos prohibió ir.

Deuteronomy 2:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando al pueblo de Israel lo que hizo la generación anterior de israelitas.

Después viramos y tomamos nuestro viaje
"Entonces nos dimos la vuelta y nos fuimos"

nosotros fuimos alrededor del Monte Seir por muchos días Los posibles significados son: 1) Los israelitas viajaron alrededor de la montaña llamada Seir durante mucho tiempo o 2) Los israelitas vagaron en una región llamada Monte Seir durante mucho tiempo.

Monte Seir
Esta es una zona montañosa al sur del Mar Muerto. El área también es llamada "Edom". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:1

muchos días
Algunos idiomas traducen esto como "muchas noches".

Deuteronomy 2:4

Información General:
El SEÑOR sigue hablando a Moisés

de sus hermanos, los descendientes de Esaú
"de sus parientes, los descendientes de Esaú"

le he dado el Monte Seir a Esaú como una posesión
El SEÑOR le está recordando a los israelitas que le ha dado este territorio a los descendientes de Esaú.

Deuteronomy 2:6

Información General:
Moisés continúa instruyendo a Israel sobre cómo deben tratar a los descendientes de Esaú.

Ustedes comprarán comida de ellos
El SEÑOR les está dando permiso o instrucciones, no una orden, y les está diciendo que no roben. "Les permito que compren alimentos de ellos" o "Si necesitan alimentos, deben comprárselos a ellos"

de ellos
"de los descendientes de Esaú"

por dinero
Si estas palabras no son necesarias o hacen la traducción poco clara, puede omitirlas.

tu Dios te ha bendecido... tu mano... tu caminar... tu Dios... contigo, y nada te ha faltado
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

en todo el trabajo de tu mano
El "trabajo de tu mano" se refiere a todo el trabajo que habían hecho. Traducción Alterna: "todo tu trabajo"

Él ha sabido de tu caminar
Esta es una figura literaria (sinécdoque) para "Él sabe lo que te ha pasado mientras has estado caminando".

cuarenta años
"40 años"

no te ha faltado nada
Esta es otra manera de decir que "has tenido todo lo que necesitabas".

Deuteronomy 2:8

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

por nuestros hermanos
'por nuestros parientes"

Elat... Ezión Geber
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

nos volvimos
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "seguimos yendo"

Deuteronomy 2:9

Información General:
Este es el final de una parte del discurso de Moisés recordando a los israelitas cómo el SEÑOR los guió en el desierto.

No molesten a Moab
La palabra "Moab" es una figura literaria

Ar
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab.

Los descendientes de Lot
El pueblo de Israel estaba relacionado con los descendientes de Moab. Moab era el hijo de Lot. Lot era el sobrino de Abraham.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 2:10

Información General:
El escritor comienza a dar información de trasfondo sobre la gente de la tierra. Estas palabras no son parte del discurso de Moisés a los israelitas.

Los emitas vivieron... los llaman emitas
Estas palabras proporcionan información de trasfondo sobre los emitas que habían vivido en la tierra antes de los moabitas. Su idioma puede tener una forma especial de marcar información de trasfondo.

emitas... refaítas
Estos son nombres de pueblos que fueron considerados gigantes.

anaceos
Estos son descendientes de la gente de Anac que eran muy grandes y feroces. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:26.

Deuteronomy 2:12

Información General:
Esto continúa la información de trasfondo sobre los diferentes pueblos que han vivido en la tierra. .

horeos
Este es el nombre de un pueblo.

los destruyeron antes que ellos
"los mataron a todos de modo que ninguno de los horeos quedó viviendo con ellos" o "los sacaron de su presencia matándolos a todos"

Deuteronomy 2:13

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a los israelitas lo que les había sucedido en el desierto.

'Ahora levántate... Zered'. Así que
"'Entonces el SEÑOR dijo: 'Ahora levántate... Zered'. Así que". Esto puede traducirse como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces el SEÑOR nos dijo que nos levantáramos... Zered. Así que"

levántate Empezar a hacer algo.

al arroyo Zered
Esta corriente fluye hacia el Mar Muerto desde el sureste y crea la frontera entre Edom y Moab.

Ahora los días
La palabra "ahora" marca un cambio desde la historia a la información de trasfondo sobre cuánto viajó el pueblo de Israel y sobre la ira de Dios hacia esa generación. Si su idioma tiene una forma de mostrar que lo que sigue es información de trasfondo, debe usarla aquí.

treinta y ocho años
"...ocho años - 38 años". Ver:

se habían ido del pueblo
Esta es una forma cortés de decir "había muerto".

La mano del SEÑOR estaba en contra Aquí "la mano del SEÑOR" se refiere a su poder. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR usó su poder contra" o " El SEÑOR castigó"

Deuteronomy 2:16

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Debes... te acerques... no molestes... les daré Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre, por lo que todos los casos de "usted" y el mandato "no molesten" son singulares.

pasar por Ar
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab. Vea cómo tradujo "Ar" en 2:9.

a los descendientes de lot
El pueblo de Israel estaba relacionado con los descendientes de Amón. Amón era el hijo de Lot. Lot era el sobrino de Abraham.

Deuteronomy 2:20

Información General:
Estos versículos comienzan a dar información de trasfondo sobre los pueblos que vivieron en la tierra. Si su idioma tiene una forma de mostrar que lo que sigue es información de trasfondo, debe usarla aquí.

También es considerada
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La gente también considera eso"

Refaim
Este es el nombre de un pueblo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:10.

Zomzomeos
Este es otro nombre para el pueblo de Refaim.

Anaceos
Este es el nombre de un pueblo. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:26.

Triunfaron sobre ellos y vivieron en su lugar los amonitas se apoderaron de todo lo que los de Refaim habían poseído y han vivido donde los ellos habían vivido"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

los destruyó delantes de los Amonitas
"permitió que los amonitas los derrotaran" o "permitió que los amonitas los mataran a todos"

Horeos
Este es el nombre de un grupo de personas. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:12.

triunfaron sobre ellos y han vivido en su lugar
"se hizo cargo de todo lo que los Horeos habían poseído y han vivido donde los horeos habían vivido"

los destruyó delante de los amonitas
"Permitió que los amonitas los derrotaran" o "Permitió que los amonitas los mataran a todos".

Deuteronomy 2:23

Información General:
El escritor termina describiendo cómo Dios le permitió a Esaú conquistar la tierra que ahora está habitando.

aveos... caftoreos
Estos son nombres de pueblos.

Caftor
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Puede ser otro nombre para la isla de Creta ubicada en el mar Mediterráneo.

los destruyeron
"destruyeron a los aveos"

establecieron en su lugar
"vivieron donde habían vivido los aveos"

Deuteronomy 2:24

Información General:
El escritor ha terminado de dar información de trasfondo y ahora nuevamente está diciendo lo que Moisés dijo a los israelitas.

Ahora levántate
El SEÑOR le está diciendo a Moisés lo que la gente debe hacer. "Ahora levántate" o "Ahora ve"

vayan en su camino
"continúen su viaje"

Valle de Arnón
Este es el nombre del valle del río Arnón. Forma la frontera entre Moab y los amorreos.

les he dado en su mano
La figura literaria

tu mano... Comienza a poseerlo... pelea... terror de ti... noticias de ti... a causa de ti Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

Sehón
Este es el nombre de un rey. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:3.

Hesbón
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:3.

pelea con él
"luchar contra él y su ejército"

ponerles miedo y terror
Las palabras "miedo" y "terror" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que el miedo es intenso. Traducción Alterna: "poner un miedo terrible"

pueblos que están bajo el cielo entero Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "pueblos en cada tierra" temblarán y estarán en angustia

Esta es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 2:26

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Yo mandé
Aquí "Yo" se refiere a Moisés.

desierto de Cademot
Este es el nombre de un lugar cerca del valle de Arnon.

Sehón... Hesbón
Estos son los nombres de un hombre y un lugar. Vea cómo los tradujo en 1:3.

con palabras de paz
Aquí la figura literaria

No giraré a la derecha ni a la izquierda
Esta frase enfatiza que siempre irán en la misma dirección. Puede ser expresado en forma positiva. "No cambiaré de dirección" o "Siempre me mantendré en el camino"

Deuteronomy 2:28

Información General:
Esto continúa el mensaje de Moisés al rey Sehón.

Me venderás comida por dinero, para que así pueda yo comer; dame agua por dinero, para que yo pueda tomar
Moisés le dice a Sehón que los israelitas no robarán a los amorreos y le pide que él y su gente vendan comida y agua a los israelitas; él no les está dando una orden. Traducción Alterna: "Espero tener que pagar por la comida para poder comer y pagar por el agua para poder beber"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Me venderás... pueda yo comer... dame... yo pueda tomar Moisés se refiere al pueblo de Israel como si fueran el mismo Moisés. Traducción Alterna: "véndannos a mí y a mi gente... podamos comer... dennos... podamos beber"

solamente déjame pasar a pie
"Sólo déjanos caminar por tu tierra"

Ar
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:9.

Deuteronomy 2:30

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Sehón... Hesbón
Estos son los nombres de un hombre y un lugar. Vea cómo los tradujo en 1:3.

tu Dios... tu poder
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

endureció su mente e hizo terco su corazón Ambas frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que el SEÑOR "hizo que se volviera muy terco".

a entregar a Sehón y su tierra delante de ti
"para entregarles a Sehón y su tierra"

empieza a poseerla, para que así puedas heredar su tierra
"Toma posesión de su tierra, para que puedas heredarla"

Deuteronomy 2:32

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Sehón
Este es el nombre de un hombre. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:3.

Jahaza
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab

Deuteronomy 2:34

información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Tomamos todas sus ciudades
"Capturamos todas las ciudades del rey Sehón" destruimos completamente cada ciudad

"Mató a todas las personas que vivían en cada ciudad".

Deuteronomy 2:36

Aroer
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en la orilla norte del río Arnón.

Valle de Arnón
"Arnón" es el nombre de un río. Traducir como en 2:24.

no había ninguna ciudad inalcanzable para nosotros Esta declaración negativa se utiliza para enfatizar su éxito en la batalla. Esto puede ser expresado forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "pudimos derrotar a la gente de cada ciudad, incluso si la ciudad tenía altos muros a su alrededor"

no fuiste
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

río Jaboc
Este es el nombre de un río que formó la frontera entre la tierra de Sehón y la tierra de los amonitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 3

1 Luego regresamos y subimos a Basán. Og, el rey de Basán, vino y nos atacó, él y todo su pueblo para pelear en la Ciudad de Edrei. 2 EL SEÑOR me dijo a mí: "No le temas; porque te YO te he dado la victoria sobre él y te he puesto todo su pueblo y tierra bajo tu control. Tú le harás como le hiciste a Sehón, rey de los Amorreos, quien vivía en Hesbón." 3 Así que EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS también nos dio victoria sobre Og el rey de Basán, y todo su pueblo fue puesto bajo nuestro control. Los herimos hasta que ninguno de su pueblo permaneció. 4 En ese tiempo le quitamos todas sus ciudades; no hubo ni una ciudad que no le hayamos quitado: sesenta ciudades, todas en la región de Argob, el reino de Og en Basán. 5 Estas fueron todas ciudades reforzadas con sus altas murallas, puertas y barras; esto estaba al lado de muchas aldeas sin amurallar. 6 Nosotros las destruimos por completo, como le hicimos a Sehón el rey de Hesbón, destruyendo completamente cada ciudad; los hombres, mujeres y los pequeños. 7 Pero todo el ganado y el botín de las ciudades, lo tomamos como botines para nosotros. 8 En ese tiempo tomamos la tierra de la mano de los dos reyes de los Amorreos, quienes estaban más allá del Jordán, desde el Valle de Arnón hasta el Monte Hermón. 9 (El Monte Hermón los Sidonios lo llaman Sirión, y los Amorreos lo llaman Senir) 10 y todas las ciudades de la llanura, todo Galaad y todo Basán, todo el camino hasta Salca y Edrei, ciudades del reino de Og en Basán." 11 (Porque del remanente de Refaim gente de gigantes, solamente Og rey de Basán había permanecido. ¡Miren! Su cama era una cama de hierro. ¿No estaba su cama en Rabá, donde lo descendientes de Amón vivían? Era de nueve codos o cuatro metros y media de largo y cuatro codos o dos metros de ancho, pues hera de esta forma en codos, la forma en que la gente medía.) 12 "Esta tierra que tomamos en posesión para ese tiempo, desde Aroer, que es por el Valle de Arnón, y la mitad de la zona montañosa de Galaad y sus ciudades. Yo se las di a los Rubenitas y a los Gaditas. 13 El resto de Galaad y todo Basán, el reino de Og, yo se los di a la mitad de la tribu de Manasés: toda la región de Argob y todo Basán. (Este mismo territorio se llama la tierra de Refaim). 14 Jair, un descendiente de Manasés, tomó toda la región de Argob hasta la frontera de los Gesuritas y los Maacateos. Él llamó a la región, incluyendo Basán, por su propio nombre, Havot Jair, hasta este día. 15 Yo le entregué Galaad a Maquir. 16 A los Rubenitas y a los Gaditas les di territorio desde Galaad hasta el valle de Arnón, el centro del valle es la frontera del territorio hasta el Río Jaboc, el cual es la frontera con los descendientes de Amón. 17 Otra de sus fronteras es también la llanura del valle del Río Jordán, desde Cineret hasta el Mar de Arabá (que es el Mar Salado) hasta las cuestas del Monte Pisga al este. 18 Yo les ordené en ese tiempo, diciendo: "El SEÑOR su DIOS les ha dado esta tierra para poseerla; ustedes, todos los hombres de guerra, pasarán armados ante sus hermanos, el pueblo de Israel. 19 Pero sus esposas, sus pequeños y sus ganados (yo sé que tienen mucho ganado), se quedarán en sus cuidades que yo les he dado, 20 hasta que EL SEÑOR les de descanso a sus hermanos, así como lo ha hecho con ustedes, hasta que ellos también posean la tierra que EL SEÑOR su DIOS les está dando más allá del Jordán; luego regrasará todo hombre de ustedes, a la propiedad que les he entregado". 21 Yo le ordené a Josué en ese tiempo, diciendo: "Tus ojos han visto todo lo que EL SEÑOR tu DIOS le ha hecho a estos dos reyes; EL SEÑOR le hará lo mismo a todos los reinos que pasares por encima. 22 No temerás a ellos, porque EL SEÑOR tu Dios es quien peleará por tí". 23 Yo le rogué al SEÑOR en ese tiempo diciendo: 24 "Oh SEÑOR, Tú has empezado a enseñarle a tu siervo tu grandeza y tu mano fuerte; porque, ¿Qué dios hay en el cielo o en la tierra que pueda hacer las mismas obras que Tú has hecho y los mismo actos poderosos? 25 Dejame ir allá, te suplico, y ver la buena tierra que está más allá del Jordán, esa buena zona montañosa y también el Líbano". 26 Pero EL SEÑOR estaba molesto conmigo por culpa de ustedes; ÉL no me escuchó a mí. EL SEÑOR me dijo: ''Deja que esto sea suficiente para tí, no me hables más a Mí sobre este tema: 27 sube al Monte Pisga y alza tus ojos hacia el oeste, norte, sur y este; mira con tus ojos, porque no pasaras el Jordán. 28 En su lugar, prepara a Josué, anímalo y fortalécelo, porque él irá allá delante de estas personas y el les guiará a heredar la tierra que tú verás". 29 Y nosotros permanecimos en el valle opuesto a Bet-Peor.

Deuteronomy 3:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Og... Sehón
Estos son nombres de reyes. Vea cómo los tradujo en 1:3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Edrei... Hesbón
Estos son nombres de ciudades. Vea cómo los tradujo en 1:3.

El SEÑOR me dijo: "No le temas;... he dado... bajo tu control... Tú le harás como le hiciste... en Hesbón".
El SEÑOR le está hablando a Moisés como si Moisés fuera los israelitas.

le temas... sobre él... todo su pueblo y su tierra Aquí las palabras "él" y "su" se refieren a Og.

te he dado victoria
El SEÑOR habla de lo que hará como si ya lo hubiera hecho.

Le harás a él como le hiciste a Sehón
La palabra "él" es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 3:3

y todo su pueblo fue puesto bajo nuestro control Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "y el SEÑOR puso a todo el pueblo de Og bajo nuestro control"

ninguno de su pueblo permaneció Esto es una figura literaria

no hubo ni una ciudad que no les hayamos quitado Este es un doble negativo que enfatiza que tomaron todas las 60 ciudades. Traducción Alterna: "tomamos cada una de las ciudades"

sesenta ciudades
"60 ciudades"

La región de Argob
Este es el nombre de una región dentro de Basán.

Deuteronomy 3:5

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Estas fueron todas ciudades fortificadas con
"Estas fueron todas las ciudades protegidas por"

Además de
"Adicional a" o "sin incluir"

Sehón
Este es el nombre de un rey. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:3.

Hesbón
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 1:3.

destruyendo completamente cada ciudad
"Matando a todas las personas que vivían en cada ciudad".

Deuteronomy 3:8

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

de la mano de los dos reyes
Aquí la figura literaria

amorreos... Basán... Edrei... Og
"Amorreos... tierra de Basán... ciudad de Edrei... rey Og". Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 1:3.

más allá del Jordán
Esto se refiere a la tierra cruzando el río Jordán, al este de Israel. Moisés estaba al este del Jordán cuando dijo esto. Traducción Alterna: "al este del río Jordán". Traduzca esto como está en 1:1.

el valle del Arnón
Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 2:24.

Monte Hermón... Sirión... Senir
Todos estos son nombres de la misma montaña que se encuentra en la frontera norte de Basán.

de la llanura
Esta es una tierra alta y plana entre el río Arnón y el Monte Galaad.

Salca
Este es el nombre de una ciudad cerca de Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:11

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Porque del remanente... la forma en que la gente mide
Esta es información de trasfondo sobre el rey Og.

Refaim
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 2:10.

¡Miren!
"Presten atención a algo importante que les voy a decir".

¿No era en Rabá,...viven?
El escritor usa una pregunta para recordarle a la gente de Israel que podrían ir a Rabá y ver cuán grande debe haber sido Og. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Los posibles significados son: 1) "Estaba en Rabá,... viven". o 2) "Está en Rabá... viven".

codos
Un codo son 46 centímetros.

la forma en que la gente mide
"Según el codo que usa la mayoría de la gente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 3:12

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a la gente lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Aroer
Traducir esto como está en 2:36.

el valle de Arnón
Traducir esto como está en 2:24.

la región de Argob
Traducir esto como está en 3:3.

El mismo territorio se llama la tierra de Refaim
El escritor comienza a presentar información de trasfondo sobre la tierra que capturó el pueblo de Israel. Si su idioma tiene una forma de mostrar que lo que sigue es información de trasfondo, debe usarla aquí.

Refaim
Traducir esto como está en 2:10.

Deuteronomy 3:14

Información General:
Esto continúa la información de trasfondo sobre la tierra que el pueblo de Israel capturó. (Ver: 3:12)

Jair
Este es el nombre de un hombre.

los gesuritas y los maacateos
Estos son pueblos que vivían al oeste de Basán.

Havot Jair
Los traductores pueden hacer una nota a pie de página que diga: "El nombre 'Havot Jair' significa 'aldeas de tiendas de Jair' o 'reino de Jair'"

Deuteronomy 3:15

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Yo le entregué
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés.

a Maquir
Maquir era el hijo de Manasés. Él había muerto antes de que Moisés diera esta tierra. El nombre es un metónimo

el valle de Arnón
Este es el nombre del valle del río Arnon. Forma la frontera entre Moab y los amorreos. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:24.

río Jaboc
Este es el nombre de un río que formaba la frontera entre la tierra de Sehón y la tierra de los amonitas. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 2:36.

Deuteronomy 3:17

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Otra de sus fronteras es también
"La frontera occidental del territorio de Rubén y los gaditas es"

Cineret
"El mar de Cineret". Este es el mismo lugar que "el mar de Galilea" o "el lago de Genesaret".

Monte Pisga
Este es el nombre de una montaña en la parte norte de la cordillera de Abarim.

Deuteronomy 3:18

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Yo les ordené en ese tiempo Moisés le recuerda a la tribu de Rubén, a la tribu de Gad y a la media tribu de Manasés que deben ayudar a los otros israelitas a conquistar el resto de la tierra que Dios les prometió.

pasarán armados ante
"Tomarán sus armas y cruzarán el río Jordán delante de"

sus hermanos, el pueblo de israel
"sus compañeros israelitas"

Deuteronomy 3:19

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a las tribus de Rubén, Gad y la media tribu de Manasés.

el SEÑOR les dé descanso a sus hermanos
El escritor habla como si la capacidad de descansar fuera un objeto físico que podría darse como un regalo. La palabra "descanso" es también una metáfora de la vida pacífica en la que no hay guerra. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR permita a tus hermanos descansar" o "el SEÑOR permita a tus hermanos dejar de pelear guerras y vivir en paz"

más allá del Jordán
Esto se refiere a la tierra cruzando el río Jordán, al este de Israel. Moisés estaba al este del Jordán cuando dijo esto. Traducción Alterna: "al este del río Jordán". Traducir esto como lo está en 1:1.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

luego regrasarán
Moisés está enfatizando que las otras tribus deben poseer su tierra antes de que el SEÑOR permita que estas tres tribus posean su tierra. "Sólo entonces van a volver".

Deuteronomy 3:21

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Tus ojos han visto
Aquí "ojos" se refiere a Josué. Traducción Alterna: "Has visto"

Deuteronomy 3:23

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Yo le rogué
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés. Esto significa que le pidió a Dios de una manera muy ferviente y emocional.

a mostrarle a tu siervo
Aquí, "tu siervo" es una forma cortés de hablarle a alguien con mayor autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "a mostrar a mí, tu siervo".

tu mano fuerte
Aquí el metónimo

porque ¿qué dios hay... actos?
Moisés usa una pregunta para enfatizar que el Señor es el único Dios con el poder para hacer las obras que ha hecho. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "porque no hay dios... actos".

en el cielo o en la tierra
Estos dos extremos juntos significan "en cualquier lugar".

más allá del Jordán
"Al oeste del río Jordán". Cuando Moisés habló estas palabras al SEÑOR, él estaba al este del río Jordán en Moab.

Deuteronomy 3:26

Información General:
Moisés continúa contándole al pueblo de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

El SEÑOR estaba molesto conmigo por culpa de ustedes
Esto se refiere a cuando Moisés desobedeció lo que el SEÑOR le dijo que hiciera porque estaba enojado con el pueblo de Israel. Traduzca esto como está en 1:37.

Pisga
Traduzca esto como está en 3:17.

alza tus ojos
Las palabras " alza tus ojos" son una expresión idiomática que significa mirar. Traducción Alterna: "mira"

Deuteronomy 3:28

Información General:
El SEÑOR sigue hablando a Moisés.

Bet Peor
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab cerca del Monte Pisga.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 4

1 Ahora Israel, escucha las reglas y los decretos que estoy a punto de enseñarte, para que los hagas; para que puedas vivir, entrar y poseer la tierra que EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de tus padres, te está dando. 2 Tú no le añadirás a las palabras que yo te he encomendado, tampoco las diminuirás, para que tú puedas guardar los mandamientos que YO EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, estoy a punto de ordenarte. 3 Tus ojos han visto lo que el SEÑOR hizo a causa de Baal Peor; porque todos los hombres que siguieron a Baal-Peor, EL SEÑOR TU DIOS los ha destruido a ellos de entre ustedes. 4 Pero ustedes que no se separaron del SEÑOR SU DIOS están vivos hoy, cada uno de ustedes. 5 Mira, yo te he enseñado leyes y decretos, como EL SEÑOR MI DIOS me había encomendado que lo hicieras en medio de la tierra, a la cual estás entrando para que puedas poseerla. 6 Por lo tanto, guárdalos y hazlos; porque esto es tu sabiduría y tu entendimiento a la vista de las personas, quienes escucharán acerca de todos estos estatutos y dirán: "Seguramente esta gran nación es un pueblo sabio y entendido". 7 ¿Pues cuál otra gran nación hay que tenga un dios tan cercano a ellos, como EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS lo está de nosotros cuando lo llamamos? 8 ¿Qué otra gran nación hay que tenga leyes y decretos tan justos como toda esta ley que estoy colocando ante ti hoy? 9 Solamente presta atención y con cuidado guárdate, para que no se te olviden las cosas que tus ojos han visto, para que no se vayan de tu corazón todos los días de tu vida. Enseñalas a tus hijos y a los hijos de tus hijos. 10 En ese día que estuviste parado delante DEL SEÑOR TU DIOS en Horeb, cuando EL SEÑOR me dijo: "Reune a las personas, y yo los haré escuchar mis palabras, para que puedan aprender a temerme todos los días que ellos vivan en la tierra, y para que ellos puedan enseñarles a sus hijos". 11 Tú te acercaste y te paraste al pie de la montaña. La montaña se quemó con fuego que subió hasta el cielo, formando una nube de espesa oscuridad. 12 El SEÑOR habló a ustedes desde enmedio del fuego; tú oíste la voz de sus palabras, pero no viste forma ni imagen alguna; tú solamente escuchaste Su Voz. 13 ÉL declaró su Pacto que ordenó a ustedes obedecer, los Diez Mandamientos. ÉL los escribió en dos tablas de piedra. 14 EL SEÑOR me ordenó en ese tiempo a enseñarles estatutos y ordenanzas, para que ustedes puedan obedecerlas en la tierra que están cruzando para tomar posesión de ella. 15 Así que tengan cuidado porque ustedes no vieron ninguna figura en el día que el SEÑOR les habló en Horeb en medio del fuego-- 16 que no se corrompan ustedes mismos ni hagan una figura en la semejanza de alguna criatura, o en forma de hombre ó mujer, 17 o en la semejanza de cualquier bestia que esté en la tierra, o en la semejanza de cualquier animal con alas que vuele en los cielos, 18 o a la semejanza de cualquier cosa que se arrastra en el suelo, o ni en la semejanza de cualquier pez que esté en el agua debajo de la tierra. 19 Tú no levantarás tus ojos a los cielos para adorar el sol, la luna o las estrellas ni a todos los ejercitos de los cielos, y ser atraídos a alabarlos y adorarlos, de todas esas cosas en las cuales El SEÑOR TU DIOS les ha dado una parte a todas las personas que están bajo el cielo. 20 Pero El SEÑOR los ha tomado y los llevó afuera del horno de hierro, de Egipto, para ser un pueblo de su propia herencia, como ustedes lo son hoy. 21 El SEÑOR estaba molesto conmigo por ustedes; Él juró que yo no debería cruzar el rio Jordán, y que yo no debería entrar a la buena tierra, la tierra que El SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando como herencia. 22 En lugar de eso, yo debo morir en esta tierra; yo no debo ir al Jordán; pero tu pasarás y poseerás esa tierra buena. 23 Presten atención, para que no olviden el pacto que El SEÑOR TU DIOS ha hecho con ustedes, y tallen para ustedes una imagen en la forma de cualquier cosa que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha prohibido hacer. 24 Pues el SEÑOR TU DIOS es un fuego devorador, un DIOS celoso. 25 Cuando hayas tenido hijos e hijos de hijos, y cuando hayas estado en la tierra por mucho tiempo, si te corrompes a ti mismo y si tallas una figura en forma de cualquier cosa y haces lo que es malo a la vista del SEÑOR TU DIOS para provocarlo a enojarse. 26 Yo llamo hoy al cielo y la tierra para que sean titestigos contra tí, que pronto perecerás por completo de la tierra que ustedes van a pasar por el Jordán para poseer, no vas a prolongar tus días en ella, pero vas a hacer completamente destruido. 27 El SEÑOR los llevará entre los pueblos y quedarán pocos en número entre las naciones, donde El SEÑOR los llevará lejos. 28 Ahí ustedes servirán a otros dioses, dioses de madera y piedra, que son hechos por la mano del hombre, los cuales son dioses que no pueden ver, escuchar, comer ni oler. 29 Pero desde ahí, buscarás al SEÑOR TU DIOS, y lo encontrarás, cuando lo busques con todo tu corazón y toda tu alma. 30 Cuando estés en apuros, y cuando todas estas cosas vengan sobre ti, en esos dias de tu vejez, regresarás al SEÑOR TU DIOS y escucharás su voz. 31 Porque el SEÑOR tu Dios es un DIOS Misericordioso; ÉL no te fallará ni te destruirá, ni olvidará el Pacto que juró a tus Padres. 32 Pregunta ahora pues, sobre los días que pasaron, quien fué creado antes de tí: ¿Desde el día que DIOS creó al hombre en la tierra y desde un extremo de los cielos al otro, pregunta si ha habido algo como esta gran cosa, o si algo como esto se ha escuchado? 33 ¿Alguna vez una persona ha escuchado la voz de DIOS hablar de en medio del fuego, como lo has escuchado, y vivido? 34 ¿O alguna vez Dios ha intentado ir y coger para Él mismo una nación de en medio de otra nación, por juicios, por señales, por maravillas, por guerra, por una poderosa mano, por un brazo extendido, y por grandes terrores; como todo lo que el SEÑOR TU DIOS hizo por tÍ en Egipto ante tus ojos? 35 Para ti estas cosas fueron mostradas, para que sepas que el SEÑOR es DIOS, y que no hay nadie más que él. 36 Fuera de los cielos ÉL te hizo oír su voz, para que así ÉL pudiera instruirte; en la tierra que ÉL te hizo ver Su gran fuego; tu escuchaste Su voz en medio del fuego. 37 Porque ÉL amó tus padres, ÉL escogió sus descendientes después de ellos y te trajo fuera de Egipto con su presencia, con su gran poder; 38 para expulsar delante de tí naciones más grandes y más poderosas que tú, para traerte como hoy y darte su tierra como una herencia. 39 Por tanto conoce esto hoy y ponlo en tu corazón, que el SEÑOR es DIOS arriba en los cielos y abajo en la tierra; no hay nadie más. 40 Tú mantendrás sus estatutos y mandamientos que yo te mando hoy, para que te vaya bien a tí y a tus hijos después de tí, y que tú puedas prolongar tus días en la tierra que el SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando para siempre. 41 Luego, Moisés seleccionó tres ciudades en el lado este del Jordán, 42 que ahí fuera cualquiera que matara a algun hombre sin intención, sin haber sido enemigos antes de esto; y escondiendose en alguna de estas ciudades, el salvara su vida. 43 Estas eran: Beser en el desierto, el país llano, para los Rubenitas; Ramot en Galaad, para los Gaditas; y Golán en Basán, para los Manasitas. 44 Esta es la ley que Moisés colocó delante del pueblo de Israel; 45 estos son los decretos del Pacto, leyes y otros decretos que él habló al pueblo de Israel cuando ellos salieron de Egipto, 46 cuando ellos estaban al este del Jordán, en el valle opuesto a Bet-Peor, en la tierra de Sehón, rey de los amorreos, que habían vivido en Hebrón, a quien Moisés y el pueblo de Israel habían derrotado cuando ellos salieron de Egipto. 47 Ellos tomaron su tierra como una posesión, y la tierra de Og rey de Basán. Estos, los dos reyes de los amorreos, quienes estaban más allá del Jordán hacia el este. 48 Este territorio iba desde el Aroer, en el borde del valle de Arnón, hasta el Monte Sion (o Monte Hermón), 49 e incluyó toda la llanura del valle del Río Jordán, más allá del este del Jordán, al Mar de Arabá, a las cuestas del Monte Pisga.

Deuteronomy 4:1

estoy a punto de enseñarte Moisés le está diciendo al pueblo de Israel lo que Dios quiere que hagan.

para que los hagas
"y los obedezcas"

no le añadirás a las palabras... tampoco las disminuirás
El SEÑOR no quiere que su pueblo cree nuevas leyes, o que ignore las que ya les ha dado.

Deuteronomy 4:3

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Tus ojos han visto
Aquí "ojos" se refiere al pueblo de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Viste"

por Baal Peor
El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser aclarado. Traducción Alterna: "por los pecados que cometiste en Baal Peor"

Peor
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 3:28.

El SEÑOR tu Dios los ha destruido de en medio de ti Moisés habla al pueblo de Israel como si fuera una sola persona.

ustedes que se aferraron al SEÑOR
El escritor habla como si confiar en el SEÑOR y obedecerle fuera como sostenerse físicamente a una persona. Traducción Alterna: "ustedes que tuvieron cuidado de obedecer al SEÑOR"

Deuteronomy 4:5

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Mira
"Presta atención"

que lo hicieras en medio de la tierra
"para que los obedezcas cuando vivas en la tierra"

guárdalos y hazlos
Estas dos frases significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que ellos deben obedecerlos. Traducción Alterna: "obedécelos cuidadosamente"

esto es tu sabiduría y tu entendimiento a la vista de los pueblos
Los sustantivos abstractos "sabiduría" y "entendimiento" pueden traducirse como frases adjetivas, y el sustantivo abstracto "vista" se refiere a cómo los pueblos juzgan o deciden el valor de algo. Traducción Alterna: "esto es lo que le mostrará a los pueblos que eres sabio y que entiendes lo que es importante"

esta gran nación es un pueblo sabio y entendido La palabra "nación" es una figura literaria

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 4:7

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Pues, ¿cuál otra gran nación hay... lo llamamos? ¿Qué otra gran nación hay... hoy?
Estas preguntas retóricas pueden traducirse como declaraciones. Traducción Alterna: "Porque no hay otra gran nación... lo llamamos. No hay otra gran nación... hoy".

Deuteronomy 4:9

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Solamente presta atención... guárdate... no se te olviden... tus ojos... tu corazón... tu vida... hazlas conocidas por tus hijos y a los hijos de tus hijos... estuviste parado delante del SEÑOR tu Dios
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

Solamente presta atención y con cuidado guárdate
"Presta cuidadosa atención y asegúrate de recordar estas cosas siempre"

no se te olviden... que no se te vayan de tu corazón Estas frases significan lo mismo y enfatizan que el pueblo de Israel debe recordar lo que ha visto.

tus ojos han visto
Aquí los "ojos" son una figura literaria

Convócame a las personas
"Reúne a la gente y tráemela"

Deuteronomy 4:11

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a los israelitas su historia.

con fuego al corazón del cielo
Este es una expresión idiomática. "El corazón de" significa "el medio de" o "la parte más interna de". Traducción Alterna: "con un fuego que subió al cielo"

con oscuridad, nube y espesa oscuridad Aquí "espesa oscuridad" describe la nube. Traducción Alterna: "con una nube gruesa y oscura"

espesa oscuridad
Otro posible significado es "nube densa".

Deuteronomy 4:13

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Él declaró
"El SEÑOR declaró"

a ustedes
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a los israelitas que estaban en el Monte Horeb.

la tierra que ustedes están cruzando para tomar posesión de ella
"Después que hayan cruzado el río Jordán y tomado posesión de la tierra"

Deuteronomy 4:15

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Presten mucha atención de ustedes mismos
Los posibles significados son: 1) "Así que deben ser muy cuidadosos en cómo actúan" o 2) "Guarden sus almas con cuidado".

que no se corrompan ustedes mismos
"no hagan lo que está mal"

se desliza en el suelo
"se arrastra en el suelo"

Deuteronomy 4:19

No debes levantar tus ojos... y mirar... y ser atraído... el SEÑOR tu Dios
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

No debes... y ser atraído a alabarlos
Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No lo hagas... y no dejes que nadie te haga querer alabar" o "No lo hagas... y no te permitas adorar"

toda la hueste de los cielos
"Todo lo que puedes ver en el cielo". Esta es otra forma de referirse al sol, la luna y las estrellas.

de las cuales el SEÑOR tu Dios ha dado una parte a todos los pueblos Esta es una expresión idiomática. Moisés habla de las estrellas como si fueran pequeños objetos como comida que el SEÑOR estaba dividiendo y entregando a los pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "que el SEÑOR tu Dios ha puesto allí para ayudar a todos los pueblos"

los sacó del horno de hierro Moisés habla de Egipto y el duro trabajo que hicieron los israelitas allí como si fuera un horno en el que se calienta el hierro y los israelitas fueran el hierro. Traducción Alterna: "les sacó de la tierra donde la gente les hizo hacer un trabajo duro"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un pueblo de su propia herencia
Esto es una expresión idiomática que puede traducirse como "personas que sólo le pertenecen a él".

Deuteronomy 4:21

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

El SEÑOR estaba molesto conmigo por ustedes
Esto se refiere a cuando Moisés desobedeció lo que el SEÑOR le dijo que hiciera porque Moisés estaba enojado con el pueblo de Israel. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 1:37.

el SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un solo hombre.

Deuteronomy 4:23

Presten atención a ustedes mismos
"Presten cuidadosa atención"

el SEÑOR tu Dios te ha prohibido... el SEÑOR tu Dios Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

el SEÑOR tu Dios es un fuego devorador, un Dios celoso Moisés compara cómo el SEÑOR actúa cuando esta enojado con la manera como el fuego destruye cosas. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR tu Dios les castigará severamente y les destruirá como hace el fuego porque Él no quiere que adoren otros dioses"

Deuteronomy 4:25

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

engendrar
Convertirse en el padre o en el antepasado de si te corrompes

"Si haces lo que está mal". Palabras similares aparecen en 4:15.

y haces lo que es malo a la vista del SEÑOR tu Dios para provocarlo a enojarse Esta es una expresión metafórica. Traducción Alterna: "y haces enojar al SEÑOR tu Dios haciendo lo que Él dice que es malo"

Yo llamo al cielo y la tierra para que sean testigos Los posibles significados son: 1) Moisés hace un llamado a todos los que viven en el cielo y la tierra para que sean testigos de lo que dice o 2) Moisés habla del cielo y la tierra como si fueran personas, y los está llamando a ser testigos de lo que dice.

vas a prolongar tus días Días largos es una metáfora para una larga vida. Traducción Alterna: "no podrás vivir mucho tiempo"

pero vas a ser completamente destruido
Como se indica en 4:27, no todos los israelitas serán muertos. Aquí "destruir completamente" es una hipérbole y enfatiza que muchos de los israelitas morirán. Traducción Alterna: "pero el SEÑOR destruirá a muchos de ustedes"

Deuteronomy 4:27

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

El SEÑOR los dispersará entre los pueblos Moisés habla como si la gente fuera semillas que el SEÑOR dispersaría alrededor de un campo. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR te enviará a muchos lugares diferentes y te obligará a vivir allí"

los guiará lejos
"los enviará" o "hará que sus enemigos les lleven lejos"

el trabajo de la mano del hombre, madera y piedra Aquí "manos de los hombres" se refiere a los hombres mismos, y "el trabajo... madera y piedra" a los ídolos que han creado. Traducción Alterna: "los ídolos de madera y piedra que los hombres han hecho"

Deuteronomy 4:29

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel. Habla como si fueran un solo hombre.

Pero desde ahí
"Pero cuando estés en esas otras naciones"

cuando lo busques
"cuando realmente trates de encontrarlo" o "cuando realmente trates de conocerlo"

con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma
La expresión idiomática "con todo... corazón" significa "completamente" y "con toda... alma" significa "con todo... ser". Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Traducción Alterna: "con todo tu ser" o "con toda tu energía"

Deuteronomy 4:30

vengan sobre
"hayan sucedido"

en esos dias postreros
"después" o "entonces"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

escucharás su voz
Aquí "escuchar" significa oir y obedecer, y "su voz" se refiere al SEÑOR y lo que Él dice. Traducción Alterna: "obedece lo que dice"

Deuteronomy 4:32

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

¿Alguna vez un pueblo ha escuchado la voz de Dios hablar del medio del fuego, como lo has escuchado, y vivido?
Aquí se recuerda al pueblo de Israel cómo el SEÑOR les ha hablado de una manera asombrosa en el pasado. Esta pregunta retórica se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Ningún otro pueblo además de ti ha escuchado a Dios hablar desde el medio del fuego y ha vivido".

escuchado la voz de Dios hablar
La palabra "voz" es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 4:34

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

y por una mano poderosa, y por un brazo extendido Aquí "una mano poderosa" y "un brazo extendido" son metáforas del poder del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "y al mostrar su gran poder"

ante tus ojos
Aquí los "ojos" se refieren a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "frente a ti"

Deuteronomy 4:35

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando con el pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

Para ti estas cosas fueron mostradas
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR te mostró estas cosas"

Él te hizo oír... te hizo ver
"se aseguró de que escucharas... se aseguró de que vieras"

te hizo... tu escuchaste
Moisés habla como si las personas con quienes hablaba fueran las personas con las que había hablado en el Monte Sinaí muchos años antes. Las personas en el Monte Sinaí eran en realidad los padres de las personas a quienes él les estaba diciendo estas palabras. Traducción Alterna: "hizo que tus padres... tus padres escucharon"

Deuteronomy 4:37

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando con el pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

tus padres
Esto se refiere a los hijos de Abraham, Isaac, Jacob y los hijos de Jacob.

con su presencia, con su gran poder
"con el gran poder que viene de su presencia" o "con su gran poder".

Deuteronomy 4:39

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando con el pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

ponlo en tu corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "recuérdalo" en los cielos arriba y en la tierra abajo Las dos frases "en los cielos" y "en la tierra" muestran dos extremos y significan "en todas partes". Traducción Alterna: "sobre todo"

prolongar tus días
Los días largos son una metáfora para una larga vida. Traducción Alterna: "ser capaz de vivir mucho tiempo". Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 4:25.

Deuteronomy 4:41

Información General:
El discurso de Moisés, que comenzó en 1:5, ha terminado y el escritor continúa la narración que terminó en 1:5.

Beser... Ramot... Golán
Estos son nombres de ciudades.

Deuteronomy 4:44

Esta es la ley
Esto se refiere a las leyes que Moisés dará en los siguientes capítulos.

Bet Peor
Este es el nombre de una ciudad en Moab cerca del Monte Pisga. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 3:28.

Sehón... amorreos... Hebrón
"Rey Sehón... pueblo amorreo... ciudad de Hebrón". Tradúzcalos como lo hizo en 1:3.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 4:47

su tierra
Tierra del rey Sehón

Og rey de Basán
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 1:3.

más allá del Jordán hacia el este... más allá del este del Jordán Esto se refiere a la tierra al otro lado del río Jordán, al este de Israel. Moisés estaba al este del Jordán cuando dijo esto. Traducción Alterna: "desde el lado del río Jordán hacia el este... hacia el este desde el lado del río Jordán".

Aroer
Este es el nombre de una ciudad. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 2:36.

del valle de Arnón
Este es el nombre de un lugar. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 2:24.

Monte Sion... Monte Hermón
Estos son nombres de montañas. Tradúzcalos como lo hizo en 3: 8.

Mar de Arabá... Monte Pisga Tradúzcalos como lo hizo en 3:17.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 5

1 Moisés llamó a todo Israel y dijo: "Escucha Israel, los estatutos y decretos que yo hablo a tus oídos hoy, para que ustedes puedan aprenderlos y guardarlos. 2 EL SEÑOR DIOS hizo un pacto con nosotros en Horeb. 3 EL SEÑOR no ha hecho un pacto con nuestros antepasados, pero sí con todos nosotros, vivos aquí hoy. 4 El Señor habló con ustedes cara a cara en el monte en medio del fuego. 5 (Yo me paré enmedio del SEÑOR y ustedes en ese tiempo, para revelarles Su Palabra, pero ustedes estaban asustados por el fuego, y no quisieron subir a la montaña). EL SEÑOR dijo: 6 Yo soy EL SEÑOR su DIOS, quien les sacó de Egipto, fuera de la casa de la esclavitud. 7 Ustedes no tendrán otros dioses fuera de Mí. 8 No harán para ustedes alguna figura ni nada que se le parezca a lo que hay arriba en el cielo, abajo en la tierra, o de lo que está debajo de la tierra. 9 No se arrodillarán o los servirán, porque yo El SEÑOR TU DIOS soy un Dios celoso. Yo castigué la maldad de los antepsados, trayendo castigo a sus niños, hasta la tercera y cuarta generación de aquellos que me odian, 10 y enseñando un pacto de Misericordia a miles, a aquellos que me aman y guardan mis mandamientos. 11 No tomarás EL Nombre del SEÑOR TU DIOS en vano, pues EL SEÑOR no dejará sin culpa al que tome SU Nombre en vano. 12 Guarden el día de Reposo y mantengalo Santo, como EL SEÑOR les ha ordenado. 13 Por seis días trabajarán y harán todo su trabajo; 14 pero el séptimo día es un Día de Reposo para El SEÑOR SU DIOS. En él no harán ningún trabajo, ni ustedes, ni su hijo, ni su hija, ni su sirviente varón, ni su sirvienta mujer, ni su buey, ni su burro, ni ninguno en su ganado, ni ningún extranjero que este dentro de sus puertas. Esto es para que su sirviente varón y su sirvienta mujer puedan descansar tan bien como ustedes. 15 Ustedes recordarán que fueron esclavos en la tierra de Egipto, y EL SEÑOR SU DIOS les sacó con su Mano Poderosa y con su Brazo estirado. Por lo tanto, EL SEÑOR SU DIOS a ordenado guardar el Día de Reposo. 16 Honren a su Padre y a su Madre, como El SEÑOR SU DIOS les a ordenado hacer, para que puedan vivir una vida larga en la tierra que El SEÑOR SU DIOS les da, y para que les pueda ir bien. 17 Tú no matarás. 18 Tú no cometerás adulterio. 19 Tú no robarás. 20 Tú no darás falso testimonio en contra de tu prójimo. 21 Tú no codiciarás la mujer de tu prójimo, tú no codiciarás la casa de tu prójimo, o su campo, o su sirviente varón, o su sirvienta mujer, o su buey, o su burro, o cualquier cosa que pertenezca a tu prójimo. 22 Estas Palabras EL SEÑOR habló en voz alta a toda tu asamblea en la montaña de en medio del fuego, de las nubes, y de las densas tinieblas; ÉL no añadió más palabras. Y ÉL las escribió en dos tablas de piedra y me las dió. 23 Y sucedió, que cuando ustedes oyeron la Voz saliendo de en medio de las tinieblas, mientras las montañas se quemaban, cuando se acercaron a mí, todos tus ancianos y los jefes de tus tribus. 24 Tú dijiste: "Mira, El SEÑOR nuestro DIOS nos enseñó su Gloria y su Grandeza, y nosotros hemos escuchado su Voz salir de en medio del fuego; nosotros hemos visto hoy que cuando DIOS habla con su pueblo, ellos pueden vivir. 25 Pero ¿Por qué vamos a morir? Porque este gran fuego nos consumirá; si ecuchamos la Voz del SEÑOR nuestro DIOS por más tiempo, nosotros moriremos. 26 ¿Quién además de nosotros está entre toda persona que ha escuchado la Voz del DIOS VIVIENTE hablar de en medio del fuego y ha vivido, así como nosotros lo hemos echo? 27 Así que tú debes ir y escuchar lo que EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS dice; repítenos a nosotros todo lo que EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS te diga a tí; lo escucharemos y lo obedeceremos". 28 El SEÑOR TU DIOS escuchó tus palabras cuando hablaste conmigo. Él me dijo: "He escuchado las palabras de este pueblo, lo que ellos te dijeron a tÍ. Lo que ellos dijeron que es bueno. 29 ¡Oh, que ellos tuvieran tal corazón que Me Horaran, y siempre obedecieran todos mis mandamientos, para que les fuera bien a ellos y a sus hijos para siempre! 30 Ve y diles a ellos; ''Regresen a sus tiendas". 31 Pero en cuanto a tí, párate aquí al lado mío, y yo te diré todos los mandamientos, los estatutos y los decretos que le vas a enseñar a ellos, para que ellos la cumplan en la tierra que yo les daré para que posean. 32 Tú guardarás por tanto, lo que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha ordenado; tú no te desvíes hacia la mano derecha ni a la izquierda. 33 Tú caminarás en todo los caminos que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha mandado, para que puedas vivir, para que puedas salir bien y para que tus días se prolonguen en la tierra que tú poseerás.

Deuteronomy 5:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

llamó a todo Israel
Moisés quería que todos en Israel escucharan y obedecieran sus palabras, pero su voz probablemente no era tan fuerte como para que todos lo escucharan.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

que yo hablo en tus oídos hoy
Aquí "oídos" se refiere a la persona completa. Esta metáfora enfatiza que la gente sabe lo que Moisés les ha dicho, así que no pueden pecar y luego decir que no sabían que estaban pecando. Traducción Alterna: "que te hablaré hoy"

El SEÑOR no ha hecho un pacto con nuestros ancestros
Los posibles significados son: 1) El SEÑOR no sólo hizo un pacto con los que estaban en Horeb; el pacto también fue con las generaciones posteriores de israelitas; o 2) El SEÑOR no hizo este pacto con sus antepasados lejanos, como Abraham, Isaac y Jacob; en cambio, este pacto comenzó con los israelitas en Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

cara a cara
Use la expresión idiomática de su idioma para referirse a dos personas cercanas y que se miran cuando se hablan.

en el monte
"en la montaña"

en ese tiempo
Moisés se refiere a un evento que ocurrió unos 40 años antes.

fuera de la casa de la esclavitud
Aquí la expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 5:7

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a la gente lo que el SEÑOR les ha mandado. Las frases "lo harás" y "no lo harás" son mandatos. Él habla a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

No tendrás otros dioses delante de mí
"No debes adorar a ningún otro dios sino a mí".

que está debajo de la tierra , o que está debajo del agua Esto puede hacerse más explícito. Traducción Alterna: "que está en la tierra debajo de tus pies, o que está en el agua debajo de la tierra"

Deuteronomy 5:9

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

No te inclinarás a ellos ni les servirás
"No adorarás a las figuras talladas ni harás como te ordenen".

No te
"Nunca"

Yo... soy un Dios celoso
"Yo... quiero que me adores sólo a mí".

a miles, a aquellos que me aman
Algunas traducciones leen "a mil generaciones de los que me aman". La palabra "miles" es una expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 5:11

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

No tomarás el nombre del SEÑOR
"No usarás el nombre del SEÑOR"

No te inclinarás
Traducir esto como lo hizo en 5:9.

en vano
"descuidadamente" o "sin el debido respeto" o "para propósitos incorrectos"

El SEÑOR no dejará sin culpa
Esto se puede expresar de forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR lo considerará culpable" o "El SEÑOR lo castigará"

Deuteronomy 5:12

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

manténganlo santo
"para dedicárselo a Dios"

harás todo tu trabajo
"haz todos tus deberes habituales"

séptimo día
"7mo día". Aquí "séptimo" es el número ordinal de siete.

En él no harás
"En ese día nunca hagas"

dentro de tus portones
Aquí "puertas" es una referencia a la ciudad en sí. Traducción Alterna: "dentro de tu comunidad" o "dentro de tu ciudad" o "viviendo contigo"

Deuteronomy 5:15

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tú recordarás
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Debes recordar"

con una mano poderosa y con un brazo extendido Aquí "una mano poderosa" y "un brazo extendido" son metáforas del poder del SEÑOR. Traducir esto como está en 4:34. Traducción Alterna: "mostrando su gran poder"

Deuteronomy 5:16

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

Deuteronomy 5:17

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

No
Traducir esto como está en el 5:9.

No cometerás adulterio
"No dormirás con nadie más que tu cónyuge"

No darás falso testimonio en contra de tu prójimo
"No dirás mentiras sobre alguien"

Deuteronomy 5:21

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel como si fuera un solo hombre.

No
Traducir esto como está en el 5:9.

Deuteronomy 5:22

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel lo que dijo el SEÑOR.

Deuteronomy 5:23

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

oyeron la voz
La palabra "voz" es una expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 5:25

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a los israelitas lo que ellos le habían dicho a Moisés.

Pero ¿por qué vamos a morir?
Tenían miedo de morir si el SEÑOR les hablaba. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Tenemos miedo de morir".

¿Quién además de nosotros está... hemos hecho?
Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No hay otras personas además de nosotros... hemos hecho".

toda carne
Esta es una expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 5:28

cuando hablaste conmigo
Aquí "conmigo" se refiere a Moisés.

Oh, que ellos tuvieran
Si su idioma tiene un lenguaje que expresa un fuerte deseo de algo, es posible que desee utilizarlo aquí. Traducción Alterna: "Estaría muy feliz si tuvieran..."

Deuteronomy 5:31

Información General:
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a Moisés.

le vas a enseñar
"enseñarás al pueblo de Israel"

Deuteronomy 5:32

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando al pueblo de Israel.

Tú guardarás
Moisés está dando una orden al pueblo de Israel

no te desviarás hacia la mano derecha ni a la izquierda Esto compara a una persona que desobedece a Dios con una persona que se desvía del camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "no lo desobedecerás de ninguna manera" o "harás todo lo que Él diga"

tus días se prolonguen
Los días largos son una metáfora para una larga vida. Traducir esto como está en 4:39. Traducción Alterna: "seas capaz de vivir mucho tiempo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 6

1 Ahora estos son los mandamientos, estatutos, y decretos que ELSEÑOR SU DIOS me ha mandado para enseñarles, para que puedan mantenerlos en la tierra que ustedes van pasando por el Jordan para poseerla; 2 para que puedan honrar AL SEÑOR SU DIOS, para que mantengan todos los estatutos y mandamientos que yo estoy ordenándoles, a ustedes, a sus hijos, y los hijos de sus hijos, todos los días de sus vidas, para que tus días puedan ser prolongados. 3 Por eso escúchalos Israel, y quedate con ellos, para que te vaya bien y te multipliques de gran manera, en una tierra que fluye leche y miel, como El SEÑOR DIOS, EL DIOS de tus Padres, les ha prometido. 4 Escucha Israel: EL SEÑOR NUESTRO DIOS UNO ES. 5 Tu vas a amar AL SEÑOR TU DIOS con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con todas tus fuerzas. 6 Estas palabras que estoy ordenándote hoy, van a estar en tu corazón, 7 y tú vas diligentemente a enseñarselas a tus niños, tu vas a hablar de ellas cuando te sientes en tu casa, cuando andes en el camino, cuando te acuestes y cuando te levantes. 8 Tu las atarás como una señal en tus manos y ellas te servirán como insignias en medio de tus ojos. 9 Tu vas a escribirlas en los marcos de las puertas de tu casa y en las puertas de tu ciudad. 10 Cuando El SEÑOR TU DIOS te trajo a la tierra que juró a tus padres, a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob; que ÉL te daría, con grandes y buenas cuidades que tu no construiste, 11 y casas llenas de cosas buenas que no hiciste, pozos que no cavaste, viñas y olivos que tú no plantaste. Tu comerás y estarás satisfecho, 12 entonces ten cuidado que no te olvides DEL SEÑOR quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto, fuera de la casa de esclavitud. 13 Ustedes honrarán AL SEÑOR SU DIOS, a ÉL ustedes adorarán y jurarán por Su Nombre. 14 No irán detrás de otros dioses, los dioses de las personas que están alrededor de ustedes; 15 pues EL SEÑOR SU DIOS que está en medio de ustedes es un DIOS celoso. Si lo hacen, la ira del SEÑOR SU DIOS será encendida en contra suya y ÉL los destruirá de la superficie de la tierra. 16 No tentarán al SEÑOR TU DIOS como lo tentáste en Masah. 17 Guardarán diligentemente los mandamientos DEL SEÑOR SU DIOS, Sus mandatos Gloriodsos, y Sus estatútos, que ÉL les ha ordenado a ustedes. 18 Harán lo que es correcto y bueno a la vista DEL SEÑOR, para que les vaya bien a ustedes, y para que puedan ir y poseer la buena tierra que EL SEÑOR le juró a sus padres, 19 para que saquen a todos sus enemigos de delante de ustedes, como ELSEÑOR ha dicho. 20 Cuando tu hijo te pregunte en el tiempo que vendrá, diciendo: "¿Cuáles son los decretos del Pacto, los estatútos, y otros decretos que EL SEÑOR nuestro DIOS les ordenó a ustedes?". 21 Entonces le dirás a tu hijo: "Nosotros eramos esclavos del Faraón en Egipto; EL SEÑOR nos sacó fuera de Egipto con Mano Poderosa, 22 y Él mostró señales y maravillas, grandes y serias en Egipto, en casa de Faraón, delante de nuestros ojos; 23 y ÉL nos trajo fuera desde allí, para que así ÉL pudiera traernos aquí y darnos la tierra que ÉL le juró a nuestros Padres. 24 El SEÑOR nos ordenó que siempre guardemos todos estos estatútos, que le temamos al SEÑOR nuestroDIOS para nuestro bien, y así ÉL nos pueda mantener vivos, así como lo estamos hoy. 25 Si guardamos todos estos mandamientos delante del SEÑOR nuestro DIOS, como ÉL nos ha ordenado, esto será nuestra justicia".

Deuteronomy 6:1

Información General :
Moisés continúa el discurso al pueblo de Israel que comenzó en 5:1. Comenzando en el versículo 2, él le habla a la gente de Israel como si fueran una sola persona.

puedan mantenerlos... para que mantengas
"puedan obedecer... para que obedezcas"

pasando por el Jordán
"Ir al otro lado del río Jordán"

que tus días puedan ser prolongados
Los días largos son una metáfora para una larga vida. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Esto se puede traducir de manera similar a "prolongar tus días" en 4:25. Traducción Alterna: "para que Yo pueda prolongar tus días" o "para que Yo pueda hacerte vivir mucho tiempo"

Deuteronomy 6:3

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

escúchalos
Aquí "escuchar" significa obedecer, y "ellos" se refiere a los mandamientos del SEÑOR. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "escucha los mandamientos, estatutos y decretos del SEÑOR"

guárdalos
"obedécelos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

una tierra que fluye leche y miel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "una tierra donde fluye mucha leche y miel" o "una tierra que es excelente para el ganado y la agricultura"

Deuteronomy 6:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

El SEÑOR nuestro Dios es uno
"Nuestro Dios el SEÑOR es el único Dios"

con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con todas tus fuerzas
Estas frases combinadas enfatizan que una persona debe amar a Dios por completo y estar totalmente dedicada a él.

Deuteronomy 6:6

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

estoy ordenándote
Moisés está diciendo los mandamientos de Dios a la gente de Israel.

van a estar en tu corazón Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "siempre debes recordar" tú vas diligentemente a enseñarselas... tú vas a hablar

"Te mando que enseñes diligentemente... te ordeno que hables". El lector debe entender estas frases como mandatos.

Deuteronomy 6:8

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Tú las atarás
Esta es una expresión idiomática

como una señal en tus manos
"Como algo para hacerte recordar mis leyes".

ellas servirán como insignias
Esta es una expresión idiomática

insignias
Adornos que lleva una persona en la frente.

Tú vas a escribirlos
Esto es un mandato.

Deuteronomy 6:10

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

grandes y buenas ciudades que tú no construiste Todas estas ciudades pertenecerán a la gente de Israel cuando conquisten a la gente en Canaán.

fuera de la casa de esclavitud
Aquí, la expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 6:13

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Tú honrarás al SEÑOR tu Dios, a Él tú adorarás, y jurarás por Su nombre
"Es el SEÑOR tu Dios y nadie más a quien honrarás; solo a él adorarás, y es por Su nombre y sólo por Su nombre que jurarás". Su idioma puede tener otra forma de enfatizar que el SEÑOR le está diciendo a los israelitas que no adoren ni sirvan a ningún otro dios.

jurarás por Su nombre Jurar por el nombre del SEÑOR significa hacer de Él la base o el poder sobre el cual se hace el juramento. La expresión idiomática en medio de ti

"que vive en medio de ti"

la ira del SEÑOR su Dios será encendida en contra de ti Moisés compara la ira del SEÑOR con alguien que comienza un fuego para destruir cosas. Esto puede ser expresado en forma activa. Encender la ira es una metáfora para enfadarse mucho. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR tu Dios encenderá su ira" o "El SEÑOR tu Dios se enfadará mucho"

destruirá de la
"Destruirte para que no quede nada de ti en ningún lugar"

Deuteronomy 6:16

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

No tentarás al SEÑOR
Aquí "tentar" significa desafiar al SEÑOR y forzarlo a probarse a sí mismo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Masah
Este es el nombre de un lugar en el desierto. El traductor puede agregar una nota al pie que diga: "El nombre 'Masah' significa 'tentar'".

Deuteronomy 6:18

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Harán lo que es correcto y bueno a la vista del SEÑOR
Esta expresión idiomática es un mandato y una bendición. Si los israelitas obedecen al SEÑOR, recibirán bendiciones de Él. Traducción Alterna: "Haz lo que el SEÑOR dice que es correcto y bueno"

Deuteronomy 6:20

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Cuáles son los decretos del pacto... te ordenó
Esta pregunta es una expresión idiomática

tu hijo
Esto se refiere a los hijos de los adultos de Israel a quienes Moisés estaba hablando las palabras del SEÑOR.

con mano poderosa
Aquí "mano poderosa" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:34. Traducción Alterna: "con Su gran poder"

y en toda su casa
Aquí la expresión idiomática

delante de nuestros ojos Aquí la palabra "ojos" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "donde podíamos verlos"

pudiera traernos aquí
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "pudiera traernos a Canaán"

Deuteronomy 6:24

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona. Él les dice lo que deben decirles a sus hijos acerca de los mandamientos del SEÑOR.

delante del SEÑOR
"En presencia del SEÑOR " o "Donde el SEÑOR nos pueda ver" guardamos

"obedecemos"

esto será nuestra justicia
Esta es una expresión idiomática

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 7

1 Cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te traiga a la tierra que vas a poseer, y saque delante de tí muchas naciones: los hititas, los gergeseos, los amorreos, los cananeos, los ferezeos, los heveos y los jebuseos; siete naciones mayores y más poderosas que ustedes. 2 Y cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te dé la victoria sobre ellos, cuando los conozcas en batalla, debes atacarlos, después debes destruirlos completamente. Tú no harás pacto con ellos, ni mostrarás misericordia hacia ellos. 3 Tampoco arreglarás matrimonios con ellos; no les darás tus hijas a sus hijos y no tomarás sus hijas para tus hijos. 4 Pues ellos harán que tus hijos dejen de seguirme para que ellos puedan adorar a otros dioses. Así que el enojo del SEÑOR será encendido en contra de ustedes y ÉL te destruirá rápidamente. 5 Así es como tú los tratarás a ellos: tú les romperás sus altares, destrozarás sus pilares de piedra en pedazos, detruiras sus imágenes de la diosa Asera y quemarás sus moldes de ídolos. 6 Porque tú eres una nación que está apartada para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. ÉL te ha escogido para ser un pueblo Suyo, más que todos los otros pueblos que están en la faz de la tierra. 7 EL SEÑOR no ha puesto su amor sobre tí, ni te escogió porque eres más en número que otro pueblo, porque tú fuiste menos que todos los pueblos, 8 pero porque Él te ama, y deseó mantener el juramento que le juró a tus padres. Por esto es que EL SEÑOR te ha sacado fuera con Su Poderosa Mano y te redimió fuera de la casa de esclavitud, de la mano del Faraón, rey de Egipto. 9 Por tanto, conoce que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, ÉL ES DIOS, EL DIOS FIEL, quien mantiene su Pacto y Fidelidad por miles de generaciones con aquellos que lo aman y guardan sus mandamientos, 10 pero le paga cara a cara a aquellos a quienes lo odian, para destruirlos; Él no será indulgente con quien lo odia; Él se lo devolverá en su cara. 11 Tú por tanto, mantendrás los mandamientos, los estatutos y los decretos que YO te mando hoy hacer. 12 Si tú escuchas estos decretos, los guardas y los haces; sucederá que el SEÑOR tu DIOS cumplirá el pacto que hizo contigo y la fidelidad que ÉL juró a tus padres. 13 ÉL te amará, te bendecirá y te multiplicará; incluso bendecirá el fruto de tu cuerpo y el fruto de tu suelo, tu grano, tu nuevo vino y tu aceite, la multiplicación de tu ganado y las crías de tu rebaño, en la tierra que Él juró a tus padres dar. 14 Tú serás más bendecido que todas las otras personas; no habrá un varón sin hijos o mujer estéril entre ustedes o entre tu ganado. 15 EL SEÑOR alejará de tí toda enfermedad; ninguna de las enfermedades malignas de Egipto que tú has conocido las pondrá en ustedes, pero ÉL las pondrá sobre aquellos que te odian. 16 Tú conquistaras todo el grupo de personas que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te dé en victoria. Y tu ojo no le tendrá lástima. Y tú no adorarás sus dioses falsos, pues eso será una trampa para ti. 17 Si dices en tu corazón: " Estas naciones son más numerosas que yo; ¿Cómo puedo conquiatarlas?". 18 No le tengan miedo a ellos; te acordarás de lo que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS le hizo al Faraón y a todo Egipto; 19 los grandes sufrimientos que tus ojos vieron, las señales, las maravillas, la poderosa mano, y el brazo extendido por cual EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te sacó. EL SEÑOR ETU DIOS hará lo mismo a toda las personas a quienes temes. 20 Por otra parte, EL SEÑOR TU DIOS enviará el avispón entre ellos, hasta que aquellos que se quedaron y se esconden de tí, perezcan de tu presencia. 21 Tú no estarás asustado de ellos, pues EL SEÑOR TU DIOS está entre ustedes, UN GRAN Y TEMIBLE DIOS. 22 EL SEÑOR TU DIOS sacará esas naciones delante de tÍ poco a poco. Tú no los derrotarás a todos de inmediato, para que no se multipliquen los animales salvajes a tu alrededor. 23 Pero EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te dará la victoria sobre ellos cuando los conozcas en batalla; ÉL los confundirá grandemente hasta que sean destruidos. 24 Él pondrá sus reyes bajo tu poder, y tú harás sus nombres perecer desde abajo del cielo. Nadie podrá pararse delante de tí, hasta que los hayas destruido. 25 Tú quemarás las figuras talladas de sus dioses falsos. No codicies la plata o el oro que los cubre y lo tomes para ti mismo, porque si lo haces, serás atrapado por ellos, pues eso es una abominación para EL SEÑORTU DIOS. 26 Tú no traerás ninguna abominación a tu casa para que no comiences a adorarlos. Tú lo detestarás absolutamente y aborrecerás, porque está separado para destrucción.

Deuteronomy 7:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Deuteronomy 7:2

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

te dé la victoria sobre ellos Moisés habla de la victoria como si fuera un objeto físico que una persona pudiera dar a otra. Traducción Alterna: "te permita derrotarlos"

sobre ellos
Aquí "ellos" se refiere a las siete naciones de 7:1.

Deuteronomy 7:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Pues ellos harán
"Si permites que tus hijos se casen con la gente de las otras naciones, la gente de las otras naciones hará..."

Así que el enojo del SEÑOR será encendido en contra de ti Moisés compara la ira del SEÑOR con alguien que comienza un fuego. Esto enfatiza el poder del SEÑOR para destruir lo que le enoja. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR encenderá su ira contra ti" o "Entonces el SEÑOR se enfadará mucho contigo"

contra ti
La palabra "ti" se refiere a todos los israelitas.

los tratarás... les romperás... destrozarás... cortarás... quemarás Moisés les está hablando a todos los israelitas aquí.

Deuteronomy 7:6

Información General:
Moisés le dice al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

tú eres una nación que está apartada Se habla de que el SEÑOR elije al pueblo de Israel para que le pertenezca de una manera especial como si el SEÑOR los separara de todas las demás naciones. (Ver:

que están en la faz de la tierra
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "que viven en la tierra"

Deuteronomy 7:7

Informaciñon General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR.

no ha puesto su amor sobre ti Este es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "no te amaba más de lo que amaba a otros"

con una poderosa mano
Aquí "una poderosa mano" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "con su gran poder". Estas palabras también aparecen en 4:34.

te redimió fuera de la casa de esclavitud Moisés habla del SEÑOR rescatando a la gente de Israel de ser esclavos como si hubiera pagado dinero a un dueño de esclavos. Traducción Alterna: "te rescató de ser esclavo"

casa de esclavitud
Aquí, la expresión idiomática (metónimo) "casa de esclavitud" se refiere a Egipto, el lugar donde el pueblo de Israel había sido esclavo. Traducción Alterna: "fuera del lugar donde eras esclavo". Traduce estas palabras como en 6:10.

mano del Faraón de Aquí "mano" significa "el control de". Traducción Alterna: "control de Faraón"

Deuteronomy 7:9

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

por mil generaciones
"por 1.000 generaciones"

paga a los que le odian en sus caras
Esta expresión significa "les paga rápida y abiertamente para que sepan que Dios los ha castigado".

no será indulgente con quien lo odia
"El SEÑOR castigará severamente a todos los que lo odian"

Deuteronomy 7:12

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR. Él habla en el versículo 12 como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona y en el versículo 13 a todos ellos como un grupo.

y los multiplicará
"Y aumentará el número de su gente".

el fruto de sus cuerpos
Esta es una expresión idiomática para "sus hijos".

el fruto de su suelo
Esta es una expresión idiomática para "sus cultivos".

la multiplicación de su ganado
"Su ganado para que se conviertan en muchos".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 7:14

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciendo a las personas de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

serás más bendecido que todos los demás pueblos Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Te bendeciré más que a cualquier otro pueblo"

no habrá un varón sin hijos o mujer estéril entre ustedes o entre su ganado Moisés usa una declaración negativa para enfatizar que todos podrán tener hijos. Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Todos ustedes podrán tener hijos y su ganado podrá reproducirse"

alejará de ti toda enfermedad
"Se asegurará de que no enfermes" o "te mantendrá completamente sano"

ninguna de las enfermedades malignas... las pondrá en ti, pero Él las pondrá sobre aquellos que te odian Moisés habla como si la enfermedad fuera un objeto pesado que el SEÑOR pondría encima de las personas. Traducción Alterna: "no te enfermará con ninguna de las enfermedades malignas... pero sí enfermará a tus enemigos con ellas"

Deuteronomy 7:16

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciendo a las personas de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Tú consumirás todos los grupos de personas
"Te mando que destruyas por completo a todos los grupos de personas"

tu ojo no les tendrá lástima Este es un mandato. Moisés habla como si lo que el ojo ve fuera el ojo mismo. Traducción Alterna: "no permitas que lo que veas te haga sentir lástima de ellos" o "no tengas lástima de ellos porque veas que lo que estés haciendo les está lastimando"

no adorarás
"nunca adorarás"

eso será una trampa para ti
Si las personas adoran a otros dioses, serán como un animal capturado en la trampa de un cazador y no podrán escapar.

Deuteronomy 7:17

Información General :
Moisés continúa diciendo a las personas de Israel las palabras del Señor como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Si dices en tu corazón... no le tengas miedo
La gente no debería tener miedo, incluso si se dan cuenta de que las naciones son más fuertes de lo que ellos son. Traducción Alterna: "Incluso si dices en tu corazón"

dices en tu corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "piensas"

¿Cómo puedo desposeerlas?
Moisés usa una pregunta para enfatizar que la gente puede sentir miedo de las otras naciones. Esta pregunta se puede traducir como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "No puedo derrotarlos"

te acordarás
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "debes recordar"

que tus ojos vieron Aquí "ojos" se refiere a lo que la gente vió. Traducción Alterna: "que viste"

la poderosa mano y el brazo extendido
Aquí "la poderosa mano" y "el brazo extendido" son metáforas del poder del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "y el gran poder". Traducir esto como está en 4:34.

Deuteronomy 7:20

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciendo a las personas de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Por otra parte
"Y también"

enviará el avispón
Los posibles significados son: 1) Dios enviará insectos voladores reales que pican a las personas y causan dolor, o 2) Dios causará que las personas se aterroricen y quieran huir.

perezcan de tu presencia
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "mueran para que no los veas más"

Tú no
"Nunca"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

un gran y temible Dios
"un Dios grande y asombroso" o "un gran Dios que hace que la gente tenga temor"

poco a poco
"despacio"

Deuteronomy 7:23

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciendo a las personas de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

te dará la victoria sobre Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "te permitirá derrotar"

victoria sobre ellos
"victoria sobre los ejércitos de las otras naciones"

Él los confundirá grandemente
"Les hará que no puedan pensar con claridad".

hasta que sean destruidos
Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "hasta que los hayas destruido" tú harás sus nombres perecer de debajo el cielo

Los israelitas destruirán completamente a todas las personas de esas naciones y, en el futuro, nadie los recordará.

pararse delante de ti
"Estar en contra tuya" o "defenderse contra ti"

Deuteronomy 7:25

Información General:
Moisés continúa diciéndole al pueblo de Israel las palabras del SEÑOR. En el verso 25 él habla al pueblo como un grupo, pero en el versículo 26 habla como si los israelitas fueran una sola persona.

Ustedes quemarán
Este es un mandato.

sus dioses
"Los dioses de las otras naciones".

no codicien... atrapados por ello
Estas palabras se añaden a la instrucción de quemar los ídolos.

serán atrapados por ello Incluso tomar el oro o la plata de los ídolos podría hacer que la gente comience a adorarlos. Al hacer esto se convertirían en un animal capturado por una trampa. Esto se puede espresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "se convertirá en una trampa para ustedes"

pues eso es una abominación para el SEÑOR su Dios Estas palabras expresan por qué el SEÑOR desea que la gente queme los ídolos. "Hagan esto porque el SEÑOR su Dios lo odia mucho"

Tú lo detestarás absolutamente y aborrecerás
Las palabras "detestarás " y "aborrecerás" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad del odio. Traducción Alterna: "odiarás completamente"

porque está separado para destrucción
Se habla del SEÑOR maldiciendo algo y prometiendo destruirlo como si estuviese apartando el objeto de todo lo demás. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "porque el SEÑOR lo ha apartado para destrucción"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 8

1 Ustedes tienen que mantener todos los mandamientos que yo les estoy dando hoy para que ustedes puedan vivir y multiplicarse, y entrar y poseer la tierra que ELSEÑOR juró a sus padres. 2 Ustedes recordarán todos los caminos que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS los ha llevado estos cuarenta años en el desierto, para que así ÉL pueda hacerlos humildes, pueda probarlos para conocer lo que estaba en su corazón, en cuanto si ustedes mantendrían sus mandamientos ó no. 3 ÉL los humilló, les hizo tener hambre, y los alimentó con maná, el cual ustedes no han conocido y sus padres no han conocido. ÉL hizo esto para hacerles saber que no es por pan solamente que las personas viven; en cambio, es por todo lo que procede fuera de la boca DEL SEÑOR que las personas viven. 4 Sus ropa no se desgastó y ni se les cayó, y sus pies no se hincharon durante aquellos cuarenta años. 5 Ustedes pensarán en su corazón sobre, que así como un hombre disciplina a su hijo, así EL SEÑOR SU DIOS los disciplinó a ustedes. 6 Ustedes mantendrán los mandamientos DEL SEÑOR SU DIOS, para que ustedes puedan caminar en sus caminos y honrarlo. 7 Pues EL SEÑOR SU DIOS los está trayendo a una buena tierra, una tierra de arroyos de agua, de fuentes y manantiales, que fluye a los valles y entre las montañas; 8 una tierra de trigo y cebada, de vinos, higueras, y granadas; una tierra de olivos y miel 9 Es una tierra en la cual ustedes comerán pan sin falta, y donde ustedes no se irán sin nada; una tierra en donde las piedras son hechas de hierro, y en sus colinas ustedes pueden cavar cobre. 10 Ustedes comerán y serán llenos, y ustedes bendecirán AL SEÑOR TU DIOS por la buena tierra que ÉL les ha dado. 11 Tengan cuidado de no olvidar AL SEÑOR SU DI, y que ustedes no descuiden sus mandamientos, sus ordenanzas, y sus estatutos que yo estoy ordenádoles hoy, 12 sino, cuando coman y estén llenos, y cuando construyan casas buenas y vivan en ellas, y sus corazones se animen. 13 Tengan cuidado cuando sus rebaños y manadas se multipliquen y cuando tu plata y tu oro aumenten, y todo lo que tienes se multiplique, 14 entonces tu corazón se levantará y tu olvidarás AL SEÑOR TU DIOS, quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto, fuera de la casa de esclavitud. 15 No olvides a El que te guió a través del gran y aterrador desierto, con sus serpientes ardientes y sus escorpiones y terreno sediento donde no había agua, Quien te sacó agua de la roca del pedernal. 16 ÉL te alimentó en el desierto con maná del que tus antepasados no sabían, para que ÉL pueda humillarte y ponerte a prueba, para que hagas bien al final, 17 pero tú no debes decir en tu corazón, "Mi poder y la fuerza de mi mano adquirió toda esta riqueza". 18 Pero te acordarás DEL SEÑOR TU DIOS porque es ÉL quien te da el poder para obtener riquezas; para que ÉL pueda establecer su Pacto que juró a tus padres, como es hoy. 19 Sucederá que si tú olvidas a EL SEÑOR TU DIOS y caminas tras otros dioses y los adoraras, y los reverencías, yo testifico en contra tuya hoy que seguramente perecerás. 20 Como las naciónes que EL SEÑOR está haciendo perecer delante de tí, así perecerás, porque tú no escuchaste la voz de EL SEÑOR TU DIOS.

Deuteronomy 8:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

recordarás
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Debes recordar"

cuarenta años
"40 años"

Él pueda hacerte humilde
"Él pueda mostrarte lo débil y pecaminoso que eres"

para conocer
"para revelar" o " para mostrar"

lo que estaba en tu corazón
El corazón es un símbolo del carácter de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "qué tipo de personas eres" o "cómo te comportarías"

Deuteronomy 8:3

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona. Él continúa recordándoles lo que deberían "rememorar"

te humilló
"El SEÑOR te mostró lo débil y pecaminoso que eras". Vea cómo "Él pueda hacerte humilde" se traduce en 8:1.

te alimentó con maná
"te dió maná para comer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no es por pan solamente que las personas viven Aquí el "pan" representa todas las comidas. Traducción Alterna: "la comida no es lo único que necesitan las personas para que puedan vivir"

es por todo lo que procede de la boca del SEÑOR que las personas viven Aquí "la boca del SEÑOR" es una expresión idiomática (metónimo) para referirse a las palabras que el SEÑOR dice. Traducción Alterna: "las personas deben obedecer las órdenes del SEÑOR para que puedan vivir" o "las personas deben hacer lo que el SEÑOR les dice que hagan para que puedan vivir"

Deuteronomy 8:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

tu vestimenta... cuarenta años
Este es el último elemento que deben "rememorar" (8:1).

cuarenta años
"40 años"

Pensarás... Mantendrás... caminar en sus caminos y honrarlo Esto continúa la lista de mandatos que comienza en 8:1.

Pensarás en tu corazón
Aquí la expresión idiomática

Deuteronomy 8:7

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

una tierra de
"una tierra con" o "una tierra que tiene"

Deuteronomy 8:9

Información general:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

una tierra en la que comerás pan sin falta Esta expresión se puede traducir positivamente. Traducción Alterna: "una tierra donde habrá mucha comida para ti"

donde no te irás sin nada Esto se puede expresar en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "donde tendrás todo lo que necesitas"

las piedras son hechas de hierro
Las piedras están llenas de mineral de hierro. El hierro es un metal muy duro útil para espadas y arados.

cavar cobre
"extraer de una mina cobre". El cobre es un metal blando útil para hacer utensilios para el hogar.

comerás y te saciarás
"Tendrás suficiente comida para comer hasta que estés lleno"

bendecirás
"vas a alabar" o "darás gracias a"

Deuteronomy 8:11

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

no descuides sus mandamientos
"No dejes de obedecer sus mandamientos" o "sigue obedeciendo sus mandamientos"

cuando comas y estés lleno
"cuando tengas suficiente comida para comer"

tu corazón se levantará
Aquí el "corazón" representa a la persona interior. Se habla de volverse orgulloso y no obedecer más al SEÑOR como si el corazón de la persona se elevara. Traducción Alterna: "te volverás orgulloso y ya no obedecerás al SEÑOR"

Deuteronomy 8:13

Información Genera:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

tus rebaños y manadas
"tus rebaños de vacas y rebaños de ovejas y cabras"

multipliquen
"Incremento en número" o "hacerse muchos"

todo lo que tienes se multiplique Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "tengas muchas más cosas" o "tengas muchas más posesiones"

tú corazón se levantará
Aquí el "corazón" representa a la persona interior. Se habla de volverse orgulloso y no obedecer más al SEÑOR como si el corazón de la persona se elevara. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 8:11. Traducción Alterna: "te vuelvas orgulloso y ya no obedezcas al SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

quien te sacó
Moisés comienza a recordar a los israelitas lo que saben acerca del SEÑOR.

fuera de la casa de esclavitud
Esta es una metáfora de cuando fueron esclavos en Egipto. Traducción Alterna: "fuera del lugar donde eras esclavos"

Deuteronomy 8:15

Informacion General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

Él que te guió... al final Moisés continúa recordando a los israelitas lo que saben acerca del SEÑOR

Él que te guió... quien te trajo.. quien te alimentó
"El SEÑOR, el que te guió... el SEÑOR, quien te trajo... el SEÑOR que te alimentó"

serpientes ardientes
"Serpientes venenosas"

terreno sediento
Esta frase describe el terreno como sediento, al igual que una persona tiene sed cuando necesita agua. Traducción Alterna: "suelo seco"

para hacerte el bien
"para ayudarte" o "porque sería bueno para ti"

pero tú podrías decir en tu corazón
Esta es la tercera cosa que la gente podría hacer cuando sus corazones "se elevan" y "se olvidan del SEÑOR"

Mi poder y la fuerza de mi mano adquirió toda esta riqueza Aquí "mano" se refiere al poder o habilidad de un hombre. Traducción Alterna: "Obtuve esta riqueza porque soy muy fuerte y poderoso" o "He adquirido todas estas cosas por mi propia fuerza y capacidad"

Deuteronomy 8:18

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una sola persona.

Pero te acordarás
Esta expresión idiomática es un mandato. Traducción Alterna: "Pero recuerda" que Él pueda establecer Los posibles significados son 1) "de esta manera Él establece" o 2) "de esta manera Él es fiel en establecer".

que Él pueda
"para que Él pueda"

establecer
"cumplir" o "mantener"

como es hoy
"como lo está haciendo ahora" o "como está estableciendo su pacto ahora"

caminas tras otros dioses Caminar es una metáfora de obedecer. Traducción Alterna: "servir a otros dioses"

testifico contra tí
"Te lo advierto" o "Te lo digo frente a testigos"

seguramente perecerás
"ciertamente morirás"

delante de ti
"frente a ti"

no escucharas la voz del SEÑOR Aquí "la voz del SEÑOR" significa lo que Él le dice a su gente que haga. Traducción Alterna: "no obedecerías los mandamientos del SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 9

1 Escucha Israel; tú estas a punto de cruzar sobre el Jordan hoy, e ir a conquistar naciones más grandes y poderosas que tú, y ciudades que son grandes y reforzadas hasta el cielo, 2 una gente grande y alta, los hijos de los anaceos, a quienes tú conoces, y de quien has escuchado a la gente decir: "¿Quién puede estar ante los hijos de Anac?". 3 Conoce, por lo tanto, que hoy EL SEÑOR TU DIOS es el que va delante de tí como un fuego devorador; ÉL los destruirá ante tí, y ÉL los someterá ante tí; entoces tú los expulsarás y los harás perecer rápidamente, como EL SEÑOR te ha dicho. 4 No digas en tú corazón, después que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS los a empujado afuera ante tí: "Fue por mi justicia que EL SEÑOR me ha traído en posesión esta tierra", porque fue por la malicia de estas naciones que EL SEÑOR los está sacando de delante de tÍ. 5 No es por tu justicia o la nobleza de tu corazón que vas a ir a poseer su tierra, es por la malicia de las naciones que tu DIOS los está sacando de delante de tí, y para que ÉL pueda cumplir la palabra que le juró a tus antepasados, a Abraham, a Isaac, y a Jacob. 6 Conoce por lo tanto, que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS no te está dando esta tierra buena para poseer por tu justicia, porque eres un pueblo obstinado. 7 Acuérdense y no olviden como provocaron la ira al SEÑOR SU DIOS en el desierto; desde el día que salieron de la tierra de Egipto hasta que llegaron a este lugar, ustedes han sido rebeldes contra EL SEÑOR. 8 También en Horeb ustedes provocaron al SEÑOR a la ira, y el SEÑOR estaba lo muy molesto con ustedes para destruirlos. 9 Cuando yo subí a la montaña para recibir las tablas de piedra, las tablas del Pacto que EL SEÑOR hizo con ustedes, yo me quedé en la montaña cuarenta días y cuarenta noches; no comí pan ni tome agua. 10 El SEÑOR me dió las dos tablas de piedra escritas con su dedo; en ellas estaban escritas todas las palabras que el SEÑOR MI DIOS les anuncio a ustedes en la montaña desde en medio del fuego en el día de la asamblea. 11 Y aconteció al final de esos cuarenta días y cuarenta noches que EL SEÑOR me dió las dos tablas de piedra, las tablas del pacto. 12 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Levantate, y vete rápido de aquí, porque tú gente, quienes sacaste de Egipto, se han corrompido. Ellos rápidamente se han salido del camino que Yo les mandé. Ellos se han hecho una figura moldeada". 13 Además, EL SEÑOR me habló y dijo: "Yo he visto a esta gente; ellos son gente terca. 14 Déjame solo, para que Yo pueda destruirlos y borrar sus nombres de debajo del cielo, y hare de ti una nación mas poderosa y grande que el de ellos". 15 Entonces me giré y bajé de la montaña, y la montaña ardía en llamas. Las dos tablas del pacto estaban en mis manos. 16 Mire, y he aquí, ustedes habían pecado en contra del SEÑOR TU DIOS. Han hecho para sí mismos un becerro. Ustedes rápidamente se salieron del camino queEL SEÑOR les había mandado. 17 Yo tomé las dos tablas y las tiré fuera de mis manos. Yo las rompí delante de sus ojos. 18 Otra vez me incliné delante del SEÑOR por cuarenta días y cuarenta noches; yo no comí pan ni bebí agua, por causa de todos los pecados que ustedes cometieron, haciendo eso que era malo a los ojos de el SEÑOR, para provocarlo a ira. 19 Porque yo temía de la ira y del abrazador disgusto con el cual EL SEÑOR estaba lo suficientemente molesto contra ustedes para destruirlos. Pero EL SEÑOR me escucho aquella vez también. 20 El SEÑOR estaba tan furioso con Aarón como para querer destruirlo; Yo oré también por Aarón al mismo tiempo. 21 Yo tomé su pecado, el becerro que hicieron, y lo queme, lo batí, y lo molí bien pequeño, hasta que fuera fino como el polvo. Yo tiré el polvo a la corriente que bajaba de la montaña. 22 En Tabera, en Masah y en Kibrot Hataava, ustedes le provocaron la ira al SEÑOR. 23 Cuando EL SEÑOR los mandó de Cades Barnea y dijo,: "Suban y tomen posesión de la tierra que les he dado,", entonces ustedes se rebelaron en contra de los mandamientos del SEÑOR DIOS, y ustedes no creyeron o escucharon a su voz. 24 Ustedes has sido rebeldes en contra del SEÑOR desde el día en que los conocí. 25 Así que me incliné delante del SEÑOR por esos cuarenta días y esas cuarenta noches, porque ÉL ha dicho que los destruiría. 26 Yo oré al SEÑOR y dije: "Oh SEÑOR DIOS, no destruyas a tu gente ni a tu herencia quienes has redimido con tu grandeza, que tú has sacado de Egipto con mano poderosa. 27 Llama a memoria tus Padres Abraham, Isaac y Jacob; no mires a la terquedad de esta gente, tampoco a su malicia, ni su pecado, 28 así que la tierra de donde nos sacaste diría: "Porque EL SEÑOR no podía traerlos a la tierra que EL les prometió a ellos, y porque ÉL los odiaba, ÉL los ha sacado para matarlos en el desierto.'' 29 Todavía ellos son tu gente y tu herencia, quienes tu traiste fuera por tu gran fuerza y por la muestra de tu poder".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 9:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona

Escucha, Israel
La palabra "Israel" es una expresión idiomática

desposeer
"Tomar la tierra de"

fortificadas hasta el cielo
Esta es una exageración que enfatiza qué tan asustada estaba la gente porque las ciudades eran tan grandes y fuertes. Vea cómo tradujo palabras similares ene 1:26. Traducción Alterna: "Tienen paredes muy altas"

hijos de los anaceos
Decendientes de la gente de Anac que eran muy grandes y feroces. Vea cómo tradujo palabras similares en 1:26.

¿Quién puede estar ante los hijos de Anac?'
Esto significa que los hijos de Anac eran poderosos y que las personas tenian miedo de ellos. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: " No hay quien pueda defenderse de los hijos de Anac".

Deuteronomy 9:3

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los Israelitas como si fueran una persona.

hoy
"ahora"

como un fuego devorador
El SEÑOR es poderoso y capaz de destruir los ejércitos de otras naciones.

someterá ante ti
"hacerlos débiles para que tú tengas el control de ellos"

Deuteronomy 9:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una persona

No digas en tu corazón Aquí "en tu corazón" significa "en tus pensamientos". Traducción Alterna: "No pienses para ti mismo"

los ha empujado fuera
"ha llevado a las otras personas fuera"

Deuteronomy 9:5

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

la nobleza de tu corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática. "Porque tú siempre pensaste y deseaste las cosas correctas".

para que Él pueda cumplir la palabra
Aquí la expresión idiomática

tus ancestros, a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob Abram, Isaac y Jacob son los "ancestros" de quienes habla Moisés.

Deuteronomy 9:6

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una persona.

Deuteronomy 9:7

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una persona.

Acuérdate y no olvides Moises repite el mismo mandato tanto de manera positiva como negativa para enfatizar la importancia de recordar. Traducción Alterna: "Ten cuidado de recordar" (Ver: [[rc://*/ta;vol2/translate/figs-doublet]])

cómo le provocaste a ira al SEÑOR Aquí "le" se refiere a los israelitas que están presentes con Moisés y también los israelitas de la generación previa.

a este lugar
Esto se refiere al Valle del río Jordán.

Deuteronomy 9:9

Información General:
Moisés le está recordando a la gente de Israel lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Las tablas de piedra, las tablas del pacto que el SEÑOR hizo contigo Aquí la segunda frase aclara que "las tablas de piedra" son aquellas en las que Dios escribió los Diez Mandamientos.

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches
"40 días y 40 noches"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

en ellas estaban escritas justo todas las palabras que el SEÑOR mi Dios les anunció a ustedes Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "el SEÑOR escribió en ellas las mismas palabras que Él les había dicho"

el SEÑOR mi Dios les anunció... de entre medio del fuego Era como si El SEÑOR fuera una persona parada en el medio del fuego y hablando con voz alta.

en el día de la asamblea
El nombre abstracto "asamblea" puede ser expresado como el verbo "reunirse". Traducción Alterna: "En el día en que ustedes los israelitas vinieron y se reunieron en un solo lugar"

Deuteronomy 9:11

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches
"40 días y 40 noches"

las dos tablas de piedra, las tablas del pacto
La segunda frase aclara que "las dos tablas de piedra" son aquellas en las que Dios escribió los Diez Mandamientos.

tu gente... se ha corrompido
"tu gente... está haciendo lo incorrecto". Palabras similares aparecen en 4:15.

Ellos rápidamente se han salido del camino que Yo les mandé
Moisés habla como si obedecer los mandamientos de Dios fuera caminar por un sendero. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos ya han desobedecido mis mandamientos"

Deuteronomy 9:13

borrar sus nombres de debajo del cielo
"Hacer desaparecer completamente sus nombres" o "Matarlos a todos para que nadie alguna vez los recuerde". Vea como tradujo una frase similar en 7:23.

Deuteronomy 9:15

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

he aquí
Las palabras "he aquí" aquí muestran que Moisés fue sorprendido por lo que vió.

moldeado para sí mismos un becerro
Los israelitas de la generación anterior le habían pedido a Aarón que hiciera un becerro de metal para que pudieran adorarlo. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

se salieron del camino que el SEÑOR les había mandado Moisés habla como si obedecer los mandamientos de Dios fuera caminar por un sendero. Traducción Alterna: "Ustedes han desobedecido rápidamente lo que El SEÑOR les había ordenado." Palabras similares aparecen en 9:11.

Deuteronomy 9:17

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

las rompí delante de sus ojos Aquí "delante de sus ojos" es una figura literaria (sinécdoque) para referirse a la gente de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Las rompí justo enfrente de ustedes" o " las rompí donde podían verlas" me recosté boca abajo en el suelo

"me recosté con mi cara en el suelo". Esta es una forma de mostrar que El SEÑOR era grande y que Moisés no lo era.

Caurenta días y cuarenta noches
"40 días y 40 noches"(Ver:)

Deuteronomy 9:19

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

yo temía de la ira y del abrazador disgusto con el cual el SEÑOR estaba lo suficientemente molesto contra ustedes para destruirlos Las palabras "ira y del abrazador disgusto" son una figura literaria (metonimia) para lo que El SEÑOR haría porque estaba enojado y disgustado. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR estaba enojado contigo -Él estaba extremadamente disgustado contigo- Él estaba lo suficientemente enojado para destruirte, así que tenía miedo de lo que Él haría.

Deuteronomy 9:21

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Yo tomé... quemé... batí... molí... tiré Moisés probablemente ordenó a otros hombres hacer el trabajo real. Traducción Alterna: "Hice que la gente tomara... quemara... batiera... moliera... tirara"

su pecado
El becerro de oro. Traducción Alterna: " El ídolo con el que pecaron al hacerlo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 9:22

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Tabera... Masah... Kibrot Hataava
Estos son los nombres de lugares por los que pasaron las personas de Israel mientras estaban en el desierto.

Suban
Ellos estaban en tierras bajas, y la tierra que El SEÑOR les había dicho que tomaran estaba en las colinas, así que tuvieron que subir las colinas para llegar a ella

se rebelaron en contra de los mandamientos La palabra "mandamientos" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para referirse al mismo SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Se rebelaron contra El SEÑOR; no obedecieron al mandamiento" escucharon a su voz Aquí "su voz" significa lo que Dios había dicho. Traducción Alterna: "Obedecieron lo que dijo" desde el día en que los conocí

"Desde el momento en que empecé a liderarles". Algunas traducciones dicen "desde el día que les conoció", el día en que El SEÑOR primero los conoció.

Deuteronomy 9:25

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo sucedió en el pasado.

recosté boca abajo ante el SEÑOR
"me recosté con mi cara en el suelo". Traduzca esto como está en 9:17.

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches
40 días y 40 noches. (Ver:)

has redimido
Moisés habla como si el SEÑOR hubiera rescatado a los israelitas pagando dinero para librarlos de la esclavitud. Traducción Alterna: "Has rescatado"

con tu grandeza
La palabra "grandeza" es una figura literaria

con mano poderosa
Aquí "mano poderosa" se refiere al poder del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Con tu gran poder". Palabras similares también aparecen en 4:34.

Deuteronomy 9:27

Información General:
Moisés continúa orando a El SEÑOR para que no destruya a la gente de Israel.

Llama a memoria
Este es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

así que la tierra de donde nos sacaste Las palabras "la tierra" son una figura literaria (metonimia) para referirse a la gente de Egipto"

diría
"Puede decir"

por tu gran fuerza y por la muestra de tu poder
Estas frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatiza la grandeza del poder que El SEÑOR usó para rescatar a su pueblo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 10

1 En ese tiempo EL SEÑOR me dijo: "Talla dos tablas de piedra como la primera, y ven a Mí en la montaña, y haz un arca de madera. 2 Yo escribiré en las tablas las palabras que estaban en las primeras tablas que tú rompiste, y tú las colocarás en el arca". 3 Así que hice un arca con madera de acacia y talle dos tablas de piedra como las primeras y fuí a la montaña teniendo las dos tablas en mi mano. 4 ÉL escribió en las tablas como en la primera escritura, los Diez Mandamientos que EL SEÑOR me había hablado en la montaña desde en medio del fuego en el día de la asamblea; entonces EL SEÑOR me las dió a mí. 5 Yo me volví y baje de la montaña, y coloque las tablas en el arca que yo había hecho; allí están, como EL SEÑOR me ordenó. 6 (La gente de Israel viajó desde Beerot Bene Jaacán hacia Mosera. Allí murió Aarón, y allí fue sepultado; Eleazar su hijo sirvió como sacerdote en su lugar. 7 Desde allí ellos viajaron a Gudgoda, y de Gudgoda a Jotbata, la tierra de las corrientes de agua. 8 En ese tiempo EL SEÑOR escogió la tribu de Leví para cargar el arca del Pacto del SEÑOR, para que estuvieran delante del SEÑOR para servirle a ÉL y para bendecir a la gente en su nombre, como hasta hoy. 9 Por otro lado Leví no tenía porción ni herencia de tierra con sus hermanos; El SEÑOR sería su herencia, como EL SEÑOR SU DIOS les había hablado.) 10 "Yo me mantuve en la montaña como la primera vez, cuarenta días y cuarenta noches. El SEÑOR me escuchó en ese tiempo también; EL SEÑOR no quería destruirte. 11 EL SEÑOR me dijo: "Levantate, ve delante del pueblo para que los dirijas en su viaje; ellos irán y poseerán la tierra que yo juré darle a sus antepasados". 12 Ahora Israel, ¿Qué pide de tí EL SEÑOR TU DIOS? Excepto temer al SEÑOR TU DIOS, caminar en Sus pasos, amar y adorar al SEÑOR TU DIOS con todo tu corazón y toda tu alma, 13 guardar los mandamientos del SEÑOR y Sus estatutos, que te estoy ordenando hoy por tu propio bien? 14 He aquí, al SEÑOR TU DOS le pertenece el cielo y el cielo de los cielos; la tierra con todo lo que está en ella. 15 Solamente EL SEÑOR tomó placer en tus padres para amarlos y escogió a sus descendientes después de ellos, más que cualquiera de los otros pueblos, como Él lo hace hoy. 16 Por tanto, circuncida el prepucio de tu corazón y ya no seas más terco. 17 Porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, ÉL es DIOS de dioses y SEÑOR de señores, EL GRAN DIOS, EL PODEROSO y EL TEMIBLE, quien no favorece a nadie y no acepta sobornos. 18 ÉL hace justicia para el huérfano y la viuda, y ÉL muestra su amor para el extranjero dándole comida y ropa. 19 Por tanto, ama al extranjero; porque ustedes eran extranjeros en la tierra de Egipto. 20 Le temerás al SEÑOR TU DIOS; a ÉL le adorarás. A ÉL debes aferrarte y por Su Nombre jurarás. 21 ÉL es tu alabanza y ÉL es TU DIOS, quien te ha hecho estas grandes y temibles cosas, las cuales tus ojos han visto. 22 Tus padres bajaron a Egipto como setenta personas; ahora EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha hecho tantos como las estrellas de los cielos.

Deuteronomy 10:1

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

En ese tiempo
"Después de que terminé de orar"

primera
"primero" es el número ordinal para uno. Se refiere al primer conjunto de tabletas que Moisés había roto.

en la montaña
Aquí "la montaña" se refiere al Monte Sinaí.

Deuteronomy 10:3

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándle a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

como las primeras
Aquí "primeras" se refiere a las primeras tabletas de piedra. Traducción Alterna: "Al igual que las 2 primeras tabletas de piedra"

fuí a la montaña
"Subí al Monte Sinaí"

desde el medio del fuego Era como si El SEÑOR fuera una persona parada en medio del fuego y hablando en voz alta. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 9:9.

en el día de la asamblea
El nombre abstracto "asamblea" puede ser expresado como el verbo "reunirse". Traducción Alterna: "En el día en que ustedes los israelitas vinieron y se reunieron en un solo lugar." Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 9:9.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 10:5

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordándole a la gente de Israel acerca de lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Yo me volví
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés.

bajé de la montaña
"bajé del Monte Sinaí"

en el arca
"En la caja" o "en el pecho" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Deuteronomy 10:6

Información General:
El escritor da un breve relato de por dónde habían viajado los israelitas.

La gente de Israel... una tierra de corrientes de agua Esto da información de trasfondo sobre por dónde viajó la gente de Israel. También cubre la muerte natural de Aarón en Mosera.

Beerot Bene Jaacán hacia Mosera ... Gudgoda ... Jotbata
Estos son nombres de diferentes lugares por los que pasaron los Israelitas mientras estaban el desierto. (Ver:)

Beerot Bene Jaacán
El traductor puede agregar una nota al pie: "El nombre 'Beerot Bene Jaacán´ significa ´Los pozos que pertenecían a la gente de Jaacán'"

allí fue sepultado
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "ahí es donde lo enterraron" o " Los israelitas lo enterraron allí"

Eleazar
Este es el nombre del hijo de Aarón.

Deuteronomy 10:8

Información General:
El escritor da una información de trasfondo acerca de la tribu de Leví.

para que estuvieran delante del SEÑOR para servirle Esta es una expresión idiomática. "Para ofrecer los sacrificios que El SEÑOR requiere"

en su nombre
"Con la autoridad del SEÑOR" o "Como representante del SEÑOR"

como hasta hoy
"Como lo están haciendo hoy"

no tenía porción ni herencia de tierra
La tribu de Leví no recibió una porción de la tierra prometida cuando llegaron allí. El completo significado de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito.

El SEÑOR sería su herencia
El SEÑOR habla de la relación especial que Aarón y sus descendientes tendrán con él como si El SEÑOR fuera algo que heredarán. Traducción Alterna: " El SEÑOR es lo que ellos tendrán" o "El SEÑOR les permitirá servirle y Él los proveerá a través de ese servicio"

El SEÑOR tu Dios
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un solo hombre.

le habló
"Habló a la tribu de Leví"

Deuteronomy 10:10

Información General:
Moisés reanuda el recordatorio a la gente de Israel sobre lo que sucedió en el pasado.

Como la primera vez
"Primero" es el número ordinal para uno. Aquí se refiere a la primera vez que Moisés subió a el Monte Sinaí para recibir las tabletas del SEÑOR. "Como hice la primera vez".

Cuarenta días y cuarenta noches
"40 días y 40 noches" (Ver:)

Destruirte
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si fueran un hombre.

poseerán la tierra
"Tomar la tierra" o "Tomar posesión de la tierra"

Sus ancestros
Esto se refiere a Abraham, Isaac, Jacob

darle a ellos
"Que les daría a ustedes, sus descendientes".

Deuteronomy 10:12

Información General:
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

Ahora, Israel
Aquí la figura literaria (metonimia) "Israel" se refiere a la gente de Israel. Traducción Alterna: "Ahora, gente de Israel"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿qué el SEÑOR tu Dios requiere de ti, excepto temer... por tu propio bien?
Moisés usa una pregunta para enseñar a la gente de Israel. Esta pregunta retórica puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Esto es lo que El SEÑOR tu Dios requiere que hagas: Temer... por tu propio bien..."

caminar en todos sus caminos
Moisés habla como si obedecer a El SEÑOR es caminar por un sendero. Traducción Alterna: "Obedecer todos sus mandatos" con todo tu corazón y toda tu alma La expresión idiomática "con todo tu corazón" significa "completamente" y "con toda tu alma" significa "con todo tu ser". Estas dos frases tienen un significado similar. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:29. Traducción Alterna: "Con todo tu ser" o "Con toda tu energía" (Ver:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Deuteronomy 10:14

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas como si fueran una persona.

He aquí
La frase "he aquí" enfatiza que lo que se dice a continuación es importante. "Presta atención" u "Observa" o "Escucha"

cielo ... tierra
Estas palabras muestran dos extremos, y se combinan para significar que todas las cosas en todas partes pertenecen al SEÑOR.

el cielo de los cielos
Esto se refiere a los lugares más altos en los cielos. Todo en los cielos pertenece a Dios.

te escogió
Aquí la palabra "te" se refiere a todos los israelitas.

Deuteronomy 10:16

Por tanto
"Debido a esto"

circuncida el prepucio de tu corazón
La palabra "prepucio" se refiere al pliegue de la piel en las partes privadas de un hombre que se elimina durante la circuncisión. Aquí Moisés se refiere a la circuncisión espiritual. Esto significa que la gente debe retirar el pecado de sus vidas.

Dios de dioses
"El supremo Dios" o "El único Dios verdadero"

SEÑOR de maestros
"El supremo SEÑOR" o " El poderoso SEÑOR"

el temible
"El que hace temer a la gente"

Deuteronomy 10:18

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Él ejecuta justicia por el huérfano
"El SEÑOR se asegura de que la gente trate justamente a los huérfanos"

huérfano
Estos son niños cuyos padres murieron y no tienen parientes que los cuiden.

viuda
Una verdadera viuda es una mujer cuyo esposo ha muerto y no tiene hijos para que la cuiden en su vejez.

Por tanto
"Debido a esto"

Deuteronomy 10:20

Información General:
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un solo hombre.

A Él adorarás
"Él es el único a quien debes adorar"

A Él debes aferrarte
Se habla de tener una buena relación con El SEÑOR y confiar completamente en Él como si la persona se aferrase a El SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Tu debes confiar en Él" o "Él es en el único en el que debes confiar".

por su nombre jurarás
Jurar en el nombre de El SEÑOR significa hacer al SEÑOR la base o el poder sobre el cual se hace el juramento. Aquí "nombre" representa al mismo SEÑOR. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 6:13. Traducción Alterna: "Tu jurarás y le pedirás a El SEÑOR que lo confirme" o " Cuando jures hablarás su nombre".

las cuales tus ojos han visto
Aquí "ojos" se refiera a la persona entera. Traducción Alterna: "Que tú mismo has visto".

Él es tu alabanza Posibles significados son 1) "Él es a quien debes alabar" o 2) "Es porque tú lo adores que otras personas te alabarán".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 10:22

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel como si fueran un sólo hombre.

bajaron a Egipto
"viajaron hacia el sur a Egipto" o "fueron a Egipto" setenta personas

"70 personas"

tantas como las estrellas del cielo
Esto enfatiza el gran número de israelitas que estuvieron con Moisés. Traducción Alterna: "Más de lo que puedes contar".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 11

1 Por lo tanto van a amar al SEÑOR TU DIOS y siempre guardarán sus instrucciones, sus estatutos, sus decretos y sus mandamientos. 2 Noten que yo no hablo a sus hijos, quienes no han conocido ni han visto el castigo del SEÑOR TU DIOS, su grandeza, su mano poderosa o su brazo extendido, 3 las señales y obras que ÉL hizo en medio de Egipto al Faraón, rey de Egipto, y a toda su tierra. 4 Tampoco vieron lo que le hizo al ejército de Egipto, a sus caballos o a sus carruajes, cómo ÉL hizo que el agua del Mar Rojo los sobrecogiera mientras los estaban persiguiendo y como EL SEÑOR los destruyó hasta hoy 5 o lo que ÉL hizo por ustedes en el desierto hasta que ustedes llegaron a este lugar. 6 Ellos no han visto lo que EL SEÑOR le ha hecho a Datán y Abiram, los hijos de Eliab, hijo de Rubén; como la tierra abrió su boca y los tragó, sus casas, sus tiendas y todos los seres vivientes que les seguían, en medio de Israel. 7 Pero sus ojos han visto todas las grandes obras que EL SEÑOR ha hecho. 8 Por lo tanto guarda todos los mandamientos que YO les estoy ordenando hoy, para que sean fuertes y vayan y posean la tierra donde ustedes van a poseerla 9 y que ustedes puedan alargar sus días en la tierra que EL SEÑOR prometió dársela a sus padres y a sus decendientes, una tierra que fluye con leche ycon miel. 10 Pero la tierra que ustedes van a poseer, no es como la tierra de Egipto, desde donde vinieron, donde ustedes plantaban sus semillas y las regaban con tu pie, como un jardín de hierbas; 11 pero la tierra, donde van a ir a poseer, es una tierra de colinas y valles y bebe agua de la lluvia de los cielos, 12 una tierra que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS cuida; los ojos del SEÑOR SU DIOS siempre están sobre ella, desde el principio del año hasta el final del año. 13 Sucederá, que si ustedes escuchan diligentemente mis mandamientos que yo les ordeno hoy, para amar al SEÑOR SU DIOS y servirle a ÉL con todo su corazón y con toda su alma, 14 que yo les daré la lluvia de su tierra en su temporada, la lluvia primera y la última lluvia, para que ustedes puedan reunir su grano, su nuevo vino y su aceite. 15 Yo les daré pasto en sus campos para sus ganados y ustedes comerán y se llenarán. 16 Pongan atención a ustedes mismos para que su corazón no sea engañado, y ustedes se vuelvan y adoren otros dioses y se inclinen a ellos; 17 para que el enojo del Señor no se encienda contra ustedes; y así el no cerrará los cielos para que no vuelva a llover, y la tierra no produzca su fruto, y ustedes perezcan rápidamente al acabarse todo el bien de la tierra que EL SEÑOR te ha dado. 18 Por lo tanto pongan estas palabras mías en su corazón, en su alma, amarralas como un signo en su mano y dejénlas en sus frentes entre sus ojos. 19 Ustedes las enseñarán a sus hijos y hablarán de ellas cuando se sienten en su casa, cuando hablen en las calles, cuando se acuesten y cuando se levanten. 20 Ustedes las escribirán en los marcos de las puertas y en las entradas de las ciudades, 21 que tus días y los días de tus hijos sean multiplicados en la tierra que EL SEÑOR juró a tus antepasados darles por el tiempo en que los cielos estén sobre la tierra. 22 Pero si ustedes diligentemente mantienen todos estas ordenanzas que yo les he dado, así haciéndolas, amando al SEÑOR TU DOS, para caminar en todos SUS caminos, y para mantenerte unido a él, 23 entonces EL SEÑOR sacará todas estas naciones de delante de tí y tu destruirás naciones más grandes y más poderosas que ustedes. 24 Todo lugar donde la planta de sus pies pisaren será suyo; desde el desierto del Líbano, desde el río Eufrates, hasta el mar del oeste sera su borde. 25 Ningún hombre será capaz de mantenerse delante de ustedes. El SEÑOR TU DIOS dejará el miedo de ustedes y el terror de ustedes sobre toda la tierra que ustedes pisaren, así como ÉL les ha dicho a ustedes. 26 Mirén, Yo pongo delante de ustedes hoy una bendición y una maldición: 27 La bendición, si ustedes obedecen las ordenanzas del SEÑOR TU DIOS que yo les ordeno hoy, 28 y la maldición, si ustedes no obedecen las ordenanzas del SEÑOR TU DIOS, pero si se salen del camino que yo les ordeno hoy, para ir detrás de otros dioses que ustedes no conocen. 29 Sucederá, cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS traiga sobre la tierra que ustedes van a poseser, que ustedes establecerán la bendición del Monte Gerizim, y la maldición del Monte Ebal. 30 ¿No están ellos más allá del Jordán, al oeste del camino occidental, en la tierra de los cananeos quienes viven en el Araba, al frente de Gilgal, junto a los robles de Moré? 31 Así que ustedes cruzarán por el Jordán para ir a poseer la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está dando, y ustedes la poseerán y vivirán en ella. 32 Ustedes mantendrán estos estatutos y los decretos que yo establezco delante de ustedes hoy.

Deuteronomy 11:1

siempre guardarán
"Siempre obedecer"

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a las personas de Israel.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 11:2

quienes no han conocido ni han visto
"Quienes no han experimentado"

su mano poderosa o su brazo extendido Aquí "mano poderosa" y "brazo extendido" son metáforas del poder del SEÑOR. Palabras similares aparecen en 4:34. Traducción Alterna: "O su gran poder"

en medio de Egipto
"En Egipto"

a toda su tierra
Aquí "tierra" representa a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "A toda su gente"

Deuteronomy 11:4

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a los israelitas adultos que eran lo suficientemente mayores para entender lo que Dios hizo en Egipto

Tampoco vieron lo que le hizo
"Tampoco tus hijos vieron lo que El SEÑOR hizo"

el ejército de Egipto
"Los soldados Egipcios"

los estaban persiguiendo
Aquí "los" hace referencia a los israelitas que estaban vivos 40 años antes.

a este lugar
Esto hace referencia a la llanura del valle del Río Jordán, donde Moisés les habla antes de cruzar a Canaán.

Deuteronomy 11:6

Información General:
Moisés continúa recordando a los adultos que enseñen a sus hijos los hechos poderosos de Dios.

Datán y Abiram, los hijos de Eliab
Moisés se refiere a un evento en el pasado cuando Datán y Abiram se rebelaron contra Moisés y Aarón. El significado completo de esta declaración de puede hacer explícito. (Ver:)

Datán... Abiram... Eliab
Estos son nombres de hombres.

hijo de Rubén
"Descendiente de Rubén"

la tierra abrió su boca y los tragó
Se habla del SEÑOR ocasionando que la tierra se abriera para que la gente cayera como si la tierra tuviera una boca y la capacidad de tragar gente.

todos los seres vivientes que les seguían Esto se refiere a sus sirvientes y animales.

en el medio de todo Israel
Esto significa que todas las personas de Israel fueron testigos de lo que sucedió con Datán, Abiram, sus familias y sus posesiones.

Pero sus ojos han visto
Aquí "ojos" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Pero han visto" .

Deuteronomy 11:8

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

poseer la tierra
"Tomar la tierra"

donde ustedes van a poseerla
La frase "van a" es utilizada porque la gente de Israel va a tener que cruzar el río Jordán para entrar a Canaán.

alargar sus días
Largos días son una metáfora para una vida larga. Traducción Alterna: "Ser capaz de vivir mucho tiempo". Traduzca estas palabras como están en 4:25.

una tierra que fluye con leche y miel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Una tierra donde fluye mucha leche y miel" o "una tierra que es excelente para el ganado y la agricultura". Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:3.

Deuteronomy 11:10

las regaban con tu pie
Posibles significados son 1) "pie" es una figura literaria (metonimia) que representa el trabajo duro de caminar para llevar agua a los campos o 2) Ellos usarían sus pies para girar una rueda de agua que suministraba agua a los campos.

jardín de hierbas
"jardín vegetal" o "huerto de vegetales"

bebe agua de la lluvia de los cielos
Se habla de la tierra que recibe y absorbe mucha lluvia como si la tierra estuviera bebiendo el agua. Traducción Alterna: "La lluvia del cielo le da mucha agua".

los ojos del SEÑOR tu Dios su Dios siempre están sobre ella Aquí "ojos" representa atención y cuidado. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR tu Dios está siempre cuidándola"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

desde el principio del año hasta el final del año Aquí los dos extremos "principio" y "final" son usadas juntas para hacer referencia a un año entero. Traducción Alterna: "Continuamente durante todo el año"

Deuteronomy 11:13

Sucederá, que si
Esto significa que lo que El SEÑOR promete va a suceder si los israelitas obedecen sus mandamientos.

que yo les ordeno
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés.

con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma
La expresión idiomática "con todo tu corazón" significa "completamente" y "con... alma" significa "con todo tu ser". Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:29. Traducción Alterna: "Con todo tu ser" o "con toda tu energía".

les daré la lluvia de su tierra en su temporada
"Haré que llueva en tu tierra en la estación apropiada"

les daré
Aquí "les" se refiere al SEÑOR. Esto se puede afirmar en tercera persona. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR dará" o "Él dará"

la lluvia temprana y la lluvia tardía
Esto se refiere a la lluvia al comienzo de la temporada de siembra y la lluvia para madurar los cultivos para la cosecha. Traducción Alterna: "La lluvia de otoño y la lluvia de primavera" o " la lluvia en las estaciones adecuadas"

Deuteronomy 11:16

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Pongan atención a ustedes mismos
"Sean cuidadosos" o "tengan cuidado"

para que su corazón no sea engañado Aquí "corazón" representa a los pensamientos y deseos de las personas. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Para que tus deseos no te engañen" o "Para que no te engañes".

ustedes se vuelvan y adoren otros dioses
Se habla de rechazar al SEÑOR y adorar a otros dioses como si la persona giraría físicamente e iría en una dirección diferente lejos del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Empiecen a adorar a otros dioses".

para que el enojo del Señor no se encienda contra ustedes Se habla de Dios enojándose como si fuera un fuego que empezara. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Para que El SEÑOR no se enoje contigo". (Ver:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

así Él no cerrará los cielos para que no vuelva a llover, y la tierra no produzca su fruto Se habla de que Dios no hace que caiga lluvia del cielo como si estuviera cerrando el cielo. Traducción Alterna: "Para que Él no provoque que la lluvia deje de caer del cielo para que los cultivos no crezcan en la tierra"

Deuteronomy 11:18

pongan estas palabras mías en su corazón y en su alma Se habla de una persona siempre pensando y considerando lo que manda Moisés como si el corazón y el alma fueran el contenido para llenar el contenedor. Traducción Alterna: "Ten mucho cuidado de recordar estas palabras que te estoy diciendo"

estas palabras mías
Aquí "palabras" representa los mandamientos de los cuales Moisés está hablando.

su corazón y en su alma Aquí "corazón" y "alma" representan a la mente o pensamientos de la persona. VER:

átenlas
"Aten estas palabras". Esta es una figura literaria (metonimia) que representa a una persona que escribe las palabras en un pergamino, pone el pergamino en una bolsa y ata la bolsa. Esta figura literaria a su vez puede ser una metáfora, lo que significa que las personas deben tener cuidado de obedecer las órdenes de Moisés. Vea cómo tradujo frases similares en 6:8. VER:

como un signo en su mano
"como algo que les haga recordar mis reglas".

déjenlas ser como insignias entre sus ojos
"Dejen que mis palabras sean como insignias entre sus ojos". Esta es una figura literaria (metonimia) que representa a una persona que escribe las palabras de Moisés en el pergamino, pone el pergamino en una bolsa y ata la bolsa para que se acomode entre sus ojos. Esta figura literaria a su vez puede ser una metáfora que significa que la persona debe tener cuidado de obedecer todas las órdenes de Moisés. Vea cómo tradujo frases similares en 6:8. VER:(file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

insignias
Ornamentos que una persona usa en la frente.

cuando se sienten en su casa, cuando hablen en las calles, cuando se acuesten y cuando se levanten Usar las diferentes frases "en su casa" y "en la calle" y los opuestos "cuando se acuesten" y "cuando se levanten", representa en todo lugar, todo el tiempo. La gente de Israel debía discutir los mandamientos de Dios y enseñarle a sus hijos en cualquier momento y en cualquier lugar.

Deuteronomy 11:20

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Ustedes las escribirán en los marcos de las puertas y en las entradas de las ciudades
Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 6:8.

que tus días y los días de tus hijos serán multiplicados Aquí "días" representa un largo periodo de tiempo. Esto se puede expresar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que El SEÑOR puede hacer que usted y sus hijos vivan mucho tiempo".

a tus ancestros
Esto se refiere a Abraham, Isaac, y Jacob.

darles por el tiempo en que los cielos estén sobre la tierra
Esto compara cuánto tiempo las personas podrían permanecer en la tierra con el tiempo que existirá el cielo sobre la tierra. Esta es una manera de decir "por siempre". Traducción Alterna: "Para darles como una posesión para siempre" o "Para permitirles vivir ahí por siempre".

Deuteronomy 11:22

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Pero si ustedes diligentemente mantienen todos estas ordenanzas que yo les he dado, así que haciéndolas
"Porque si tienes cuidado de hacer todo lo que te he mandado"

caminar en todos sus caminos
Como quiere El SEÑOR que una persona viva y se comporte se puede decir como si fuera la manera, el camino o la carretera de El SEÑOR. Decir que una persona obedece al SEÑOR es como si la persona estaba caminando con El SEÑOR en su carretera o en su camino.

para mantenerte unido a Él
Se habla de tener una buena relación con El SEÑOR y confiar completamente en Él como si la persona se estuviera aferrando al Señor. Traducción Alterna: "Confiar en Él " o "Tener una buena relación con Él". Vea como palabras similares fueron traducidas en 10:20.

todas estas naciones de delante de ti, y tú desposeerás naciones Aquí "naciones" representa a los pueblos que vivían en Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "Todos estos pueblos de delante de ti, y tú tomarás la tierra de los pueblos".

más grandes y más poderosas que ustedes
Aunque el ejército de Israel es más pequeño y más débil que los pueblos que viven en Canaán, El SEÑOR permitirá que el pueblo de Israel los derrote.

Deuteronomy 11:24

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Todo lugar donde la planta de sus pies pisarán
Aquí "la planta de sus pies" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Cada lugar donde vayas".

Desde el río, el río Éufrates
"Desde el río Éufrates"

Ningún hombre será capaz de mantenerse delante de ustedes
La frase: "mantenerse delante de ustedes" es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Ninguno podrá detenerles" o "Ninguno podrá oponerse a ustedes"

El SEÑOR tu Dios dejará el miedo de ustedes y el terror de ustedes sobre toda la tierra que ustedes pisaren Se habla del SEÑOR haciendo que la gente tenga mucho miedo como si el miedo y el terror fueran un objeto que Él colocará en el lugar de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR tu DIOS hará que la gente en todos los lugares a los que vayan les tengan mucho miedo.

el miedo de ustedes y el terror de ustedes Las palabras "miedo" y "terror" significan lo mismo y enfatizan la intensidad del miedo. Traducción Alterna: "Un terrible miedo a ustedes"

sobre toda la tierra que ustedes pisaren
Aquí "la tierra" es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 11:26

Información General:
Aquí Moisés resume las dos opciones que la gente de Israel podría elegir. Podrían elegir obedecer y recibir la bendición de Dios o podrían elegir desobedecer y recibir el castigo de Dios.

Miren
"Presten atención"

Yo pongo delante de ustedes hoy una bendición y una maldición
Se habla de permitir que la gente elija si quiere que Dios los bendiga o maldiga como si una bendición o una maldición fueran objetos que Moisés está poniendo delante de ellos.

la bendición
Este nombre abstracto puede ser expresado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios les bendecirá"

la maldición
Este nombre abstracto puede ser expresado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Dios les maldecirá" pero se tornan a un lado del camino que yo les ordeno hoy, para ir detrás de otros dioses Los mandatos del SEÑOR que Moisés le está diciendo a la gente se mencionan como si fueran el camino o la carretera de Dios. No obedecer los mandamientos de Dios es como decir que las personas fisicamente giran en otra dirección alejándose del SEÑOR para seguir a otros dioses. Traducción Alterna: "Dejaron de obedecer lo que les ordené hoy para adorar a otros dioses".

otros dioses que ustedes no conocen.
Esto se refiere a los dioses que otros pueblos adoraban. Los israelitas conocían al SEÑOR porque Él se ha revelado a ellos y ellos experimentaron su poder.

Deuteronomy 11:29

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

ustedes establecerán la bendición en el monte Gerizim, y la madición en el Monte Ebal
La bendición y la maldición se mencionan como objetos que alguien pondría en las montañas. Traducción Alterna: "Algunos de ustedes deben pararse en la cima del monte Gerazim y proclamar qué hará que lL SEÑOR los bendiga, y los demás deben estar en la cima del monte Ebal y proclamar qué hará que El SEÑOR los maldiga" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada).

Monte Gerizim... Monte Ebal
Éstos son nombres de montañas en el lado oeste del río Jordán.

¿No están ellos más allá del Jordán... Moré?
Los israelitas están en el lado oriental del río Jordán. Moisés usa una pregunta para recordar a la gente donde estaban ubicadas estas montañas. Esta pregunta puede ser traducida como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: " Como ustedes saben ellos están más allá del Jordán... Moré".

más allá del Jordán
"En el lado oeste del río Jordán" oeste del camino occidental,

"En el oeste"

contra de Gilgal
"Cerca de Gilgal". Puede que este no sea el mismo lugar que la ciudad cerca de Jericó. Moisés puede estar refiriéndose a un lugar que está cerca de Siquem.

robles de Moré
Éstos son árboles sagrados cerca de Gilgal.

Deuteronomy 11:31

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

estos estatutos y los decretos
Éstos son los estatutos y decretos que Moisés dará en Deuteronomio 12-26.

establezco delante de ustedes hoy
Esto no significa que estos son nuevos. Moisés está repitiendo (repasando) los mismos estatutos y decretos que el dio 40 años antes.

establezco delante de ustedes
Se habla de los estatutos y decretos de Dios, que Moisés le dice a la gente, como si fueran objetos que Moisés está poniendo ante la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Les estoy dando" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 12

1 Estos son los estatutos y los decretos que tú vas a mantener en la tierra que EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de tus padres, te ha dado para poseer, todos los días que tú vivas en la tierra. 2 Tú seguramente destruíras todos los lugares donde las naciones que tu conquiataste adoraron a sus dioses, en montañas altas, en colinas, y debajo de cada árbol verde. 3 Y tú romperás sus altares y harás pedazos sus pilares de piedra, y quemarás sus imágenes de la diosa Asera; tú cortarás las figuras talladas de sus dioses y destruirás sus nombres de ese lugar. 4 No adorarán al SEÑOR SU DIOS así. 5 Pero ese lugar que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS escogerá de todas sus tribus para poner su Nombre, ese será el lugar dónde ÉL vivira, y es ahí donde tú irás. 6 Es ahí dónde traerás tus ofrendas quemadas, tus sacrificios, tus diezmos, y las ofrendas presentadas por tu mano, tus ofrendas por votos, tus ofrendas voluntarias, y el primogénito de tus ganados y de tus rebaños. 7 Es ahí donde vas a comer ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS y elegrarte en todo lo que has puesto tu mano, tú y tu casa, donde EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha bendecido. 8 Tu no harás todas las cosas que estamos haciendo aquí hoy, ahora todo el mundo está haciendo lo que es correcto en sus propios ojos, 9 porque tú no has llegado aún al descanso, a la herencia que SEÑOR TU DIOS te esta dando. 10 Pero cuando ustedes pasen por el Jordán y vivan en la tierra que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS está haciendo que ustedes hereden, y cuando ÉL les dé descanso de todo sus enemigos a su alrededor, para que ustedes vivan en seguridad, 11 entonces sucederá que al lugar donde EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá para hacer que su Nombre viva, ahí traerán todo lo que yo les mande: sus ofrendas quemadas, sus sacrificios, sus diezmos, y la ofrenda presentada de sus manos, toda las ofrendas que ustedes escojan como votos que ustedes darán como votos al SEÑOR. 12 Ustedes se alegraran ante el SEÑOR SU DIOS: tú, tus hijos, tus hijas, tus sirvientes varones, tus sirventas mujeres, y el levita que está entre tus puertas, porque él no tiene porción o herencia entre ustedes. 13 Préstense atención a ustedes mismos que no le ofrezcan su ofrenda quemada en todo lugar que vean; 14 pero será en el lugar que EL SEÑOR va a escoger entre una de sus tribus que ustedes ofrecerán sus ofrendas quemadas, y ahí ustedes harán todo lo que yo les mande. 15 Sin embargo, ustedes pueden matar y comer a los animales dentro de todos tus puertas, como deseen, recibiendo las bendiciones del SEÑOR TU DIOS por todo lo que Él les ha dado; las personas impuras y las personas puras, pueden comer de esto por igual, animales como la gacela y el venado. 16 Pero ustedes no se tomarán la sangre; ustedes la derramarán sobre la tierra como agua. 17 No puedes comer dentro de tus puertas de los diezmos de tu grano, tu vino nuevo, tu aceite, o el primogénito de tu ganado o rebaño; y no puedes comer de cualquier carne que sacrifiques junto con cualquiera de los votos que haces, ni ése que ofredas libremente, ni de las ofrendas que presentas con tus manos. 18 En cambio, vas a comerlos delante del SEÑOR TU DIOS en el lugar que el SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá; tú, tus hijos, tus hijas, tus sirviente varón, tus sirviente mujer, y el Levita quien está entre tus puertas; se alegrarán ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS acerca de todo lo que pongas tu mano. 19 Pon atención de tí mismo para que no abandones al Levita mientras viva en tu tierra. 20 Cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS agrande tus fronteras, como ÉL te ha prometido, y tú digas: "Yo comeré carne", a causa de tu deseo de comer carne, tú podrás comer carne, como tu alma desee. 21 Si el lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS selecciona para colocar Su Nombre está muy lejos de tí, entonces matarás parte de tu ganado y tu rebaño que EL SEÑOR te ha dado, como yo te he ordenado, podrás comer dentro de tus puertas, como sus almas deseen. 22 Como la gacela y el venado son comidos, así comerás de ellas; las personas limpias y no limpias pueden comer de ellas por igual. 23 Solo asegúrate de no consumir la sangre, pues la sangre es la vida; no comerás la vida con la carne. 24 No la comerás; la derramarás en la tierra como el agua. 25 No te la comerás, para que te pueda ir bien a tí, y a tus hijos después de tí, cuando hagas lo que es correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR. 26 Pero las cosas que le pertenecen al SEÑOR que tú tienes y las ofrendas por tus votos, estas tomarás e irás al lugar que EL SEÑOR escoga. 27 Allí ofrecerás tus ofrendas quemadas, la carne y la sangre, en el altar del SEÑOR TU DIOS; la sangre de tus sacrificios será derramada en el altar del SEÑOR TU DIOS, y comerás la carne. 28 Guarda y escucha todas estas palabras que YO te ordeno, para que te pueda ir bien a tí y a tus hijos después de tí para siempre, cuando hagas lo que es bueno y correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR TU DIOS. 29 Cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS corte las naciones de delante de tí, cuando entres para disponerlas, y dispongas de ellas, y vivas en la tierra de ellos, 30 presta atención de tí mismo, que no seas atrapado al seguirlos, después que ellos sean destruidos de delante de tí, engañados al investigar sus dioses, y preguntando: "¿Cómo estas naciones adoran a sus dioses? Yo haré lo mismo". 31 No puedes adorar al SEÑOR TU DIOS de esa manera, pues todo lo que es abominación para EL SEÑOR, las cosas que ÉL odia, ellos han hecho estas con sus dioses; ellos incluso queman a sus hijos y a sus hijas en fuego para sus dioses. 32 Lo que sea que YO te ordene, observálo. No le añadas ni le quites de ello.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 12:1

Información General:
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel.

tú vas a mantener
"Tú debes obedecer"

todos los días que tú vivas en la tierra
Aquí "días" representa un período más largo de tiempo. También, "vivir en la tierra", es una expresión idiomática que significa mientras viva la persona.

Tú seguramente destruíras
"Debes destruir"

las naciones que tú desposees
Aquí "naciones" representa los pueblos que vivían en Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "Los pueblos cuya tierra tomarás".

Deuteronomy 12:3

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Y tú romperás sus altares
"Debes destrozar los altares de esas naciones" o "Debes destruir los altares de esas naciones"

Harás pedazos
"Romper en pedazos" O "romper"

destruirás sus nombres
Aquí "sus nombres" representa "la memoria de ellos". Traducción Alterna: "Destrúyelos tan completamente que nadie los recordará" o "Destruye cuaquier cosa que represente a estos dioses falsos".

Ese lugar
Esto se refiere a cada lugar donde las naciones adoraban a sus dioses.

No adorarás a EL SEÑOR tu Dios de esa manera
"No deberías adorar al SEÑOR tu Dios como esas naciones adoran a sus dioses"

Deuteronomy 12:5

el lugar que El SEÑOR su Dios escogerá de todas sus tribus para poner su nombre Aquí "su nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. El SEÑOR escogerá un lugar donde Él vivirá y las personas vendrán a adorarle.

es ahí donde tú irás Ellos irán a adorar donde Dios decide

Las ofrendas presentadas por tu mano Aquí "mano" representa a toda persona. Traducción Alterna: "Las ofrendas que tú presentas".

tus ofrendas por votos, tus ofrendas voluntarias
"Tus ofrendas para cumplir un voto, tus ofrendas voluntarias". Estos son tipos de ofrendas.

el primogenito de tus ganados y de tus rebaños Dios requiere que la gente le dé cada primogénito de su ganado.

Deuteronomy 12:7

Es ahí
Esto se refiere al lugar que El SEÑOR eligirá para que los hijos de Israel le adoren.

regocijarte de todo en lo que has puesto tu mano Aquí "en lo que has puesto tu mano" representa a toda la persona y el trabajo que ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "Regocíjate por todo el trabajo que has hecho"

Deuteronomy 12:8

Tú no harás todas las cosas que estamos haciendo aquí hoy
"Tú no harás como estamos haciendo aquí ahora". Esto significa que ellos adorarán en la tierra prometida de diferente manera en la que estaban adorando en ese momento.

ahora todo el mundo está haciendo lo que es correcto en sus propios ojos Aquí "ojos" representa a los pensamientos u opiniones de las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Todos están haciendo lo que consideran correcto".

Al descanso
El sustantivo abstracto "el descanso" puede ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: " A la tierra donde ustedes van a descansar".

a la herencia que El SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando
La tierra que Dios está dando a la gente de Israel se menciona como si fuera una posesión que un padre deja como herencia para su hijo. Traducción Alterna: "La tierra que El SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando como posesión permanente".

Deuteronomy 12:10

y vivan en la tierra
esto se refiere a la tierra de Canaán

en la tierra que el SEÑOR su Dios está haciendo que ustedes hereden Se habla de Dios dando la tierra de Canaán a la gente de Israel es como si él fuera un padre dando una herencia a su hijo.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Cuando El le dé descanso de todos sus enemigos alrededor
"Cuando El le da paz de todos sus enemigos alrededor"

Entonces sucederá que al lugar donde EL SEÑOR tu Dios escogerá para causar que su nombre viva Aquí "nombre" representa a Dios mismo. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces al lugar donde vive EL SEÑOR tu Dios."

la ofrenda presentada de sus manos Aquí "mano" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: " Las ofrendas que ustedes presentan".

todas las ofrendas que ustedes escojan como votos
"Todas sus ofrendas voluntarias para cumplir los votos"

Deuteronomy 12:12

Información General:
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Se regocijarán ante EL SEÑOR
"Se regocijarán en la presencia de EL SEÑOR"

Los levitas que están entre tus portones
Aquí "portones" es una referencia a la misma ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Los levitas que vivían dentro de su ciudad" o "Los levitas viviendo con ustedes".

porque él no tiene porción o herencia entre ustedes
El hecho de que EL SEÑOR no le daría nada de la tierra a los levitas se menciona como si un padre no estuviera dándoles una herencia.

Él no tiene porción
Aquí "él" se refiere a Leví. Leví representa a todos sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos no tienen porción"

Deuteronomy 12:13

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Préstense atención a ustedes mismos
"Sean cuidadosos"

en todo lugar que vean
"Cualquier lugar que les guste" o "Donde ustedes quieran"

pero será en el lugar que el SEÑOR va a escoger
Las ofrendas quemadas se harán en el tabernáculo. EL SEÑOR mismo escogerá donde estará ubicado el tabernáculo.

Deuteronomy 12:15

Sin embargo, ustedes pueden matar y comer los animales dentro de todos sus portones
Las personas sólo podían matar a los animales para sacrificios en el lugar que EL SEÑOR elija. Ellos podían matar animales para comer en el lugar que quisieran. El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser explícito.

Dentro de todos tus portones Aquí "portones" representan a toda la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de tu ciudad" o "en sus casas".

impuras ... personas
Una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios se menciona como si la persona estuviera físicamente sucia.

Las personas limpias
Una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios se menciona como una persona que está físicamente limpia.

La gacela y el venado
Estos son animales salvajes con largas patas finas que pueden correr rápido. Traducción Alterna: "El antílope y el venado".

Pero ustedes no tomarán la sangre.
La sangre representa vida y Dios no permite a la gente que tome la sangre junto con la carne. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito.

Deuteronomy 12:17

Información General
Moisés describe a la gente todas las ofrendas especiales y sacrificios que serán hechos en el tabernáculo.

Dentro de tus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa toda la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de tu ciudad" o "En sus casas".

Ni de las ofrendas que presentas con tus manos Aquí"manos" representa a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Ni ninguna de las ofrendas que traes al SEÑOR"

Deuteronomy 12:18

Información General
El SEÑOR continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

vas a comerlos
"Tú comerás tus ofrendas"

ante el SEÑOR
"En la presencia del SEÑOR"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El levita que está entre tus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa a toda la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "cualquier levita que viva dentro de la ciudad".

Todo lo que pongas sobre tus manos
Aquí "pongas sobre tus manos" representa a toda la persona y el trabajo que él ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "regocíjate acerca de todo el trabajo que hiciste".

Presta atención de ti mismo
"Sé cuidadoso"

Para que no abandones
Esto puede ser expresado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Para que cuides bien de"

Deuteronomy 12:20

Agrande tus fronteras
"Alargue tu territorio" o "Te dé aún más tierra"

tú digas: 'Yo comeré carne', a causa de tu deseo de comer carne Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Esta cita indirecta puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: " y tú decidirás qué quieres comer carne".

Como tu alma desee
Acá "alma" se refiere a toda persona. Traducción Alterna: "Como tú quieras" o " como tú pidas"

Deuteronomy 12:21

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

selecciona para colocar Su nombre Aquí "nombre" se refiere a Dios mismo. EL SEÑOR escogerá un lugar donde Él vivirá y la gente va ir a adorarlo. Traducción Alterna: " Elige morar".

dentro de sus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa a toda la ciudad. Traducción Alterna: " Dentro de tu ciudad" o "En tu comunidad".

Como sus almas deseen
Aquí "almas" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "como ustedes deseen".

Como la gacela y el ciervo son comidos
Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Así como comes la gacela y el ciervo".

Gacela y Ciervo
Estos son animales salvajes con patas largas y finas que pueden correr rápido. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 12:15.

Las personas... impuras
Una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios es como si la persona está fisicamente sucia.

Las personas limpias
Una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios se menciona como si esa persona está físicamente limpia.

Deuteronomy 12:23

La sangre es la vida
Aquí la manera que la sangre mantiene la vida se menciona como si la sangre es vida misma. Traducción Alterna: "La sangre mantiene la vida" o "La sangre ocasiona que los animales y las personas vivan".

No comerás la vida con la carne
La palabra "vida" aquí representa la sangre que mantiene vida. Traducción Alterna: "Tú no comerás lo que mantiene con vida a la carne" o "No tomarás la sangre, que mantiene la vida, con la carne".

Lo que es correco a los ojos de EL SEÑOR
Aquí "ojos" representa pensamientos, opiniones. Traducción Alterna: "Lo que es correcto de acuerdo al SEÑOR" o "Lo que El SEÑOR dice que es correcto"

Deuteronomy 12:26

Ofrendas por tus votos
"ofrendas para cumplir los votos" o "ofrendas de votos"

La sangre de tus sacrificios será derramada
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El sacerdote derramará la sangre del sacrificio".

Comerás la carne
La ley de Dios especifica qué partes del animal son para el holocausto, qué partes son para el sacerdote y qué partes son para el oferente para comer. El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Tú comerás un poco de la carne".

Deuteronomy 12:28

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel.

Guarda y escucha todas estas palabras que yo te ordeno
Aquí "palabras" representa lo que está diciendo Moisés. Traducción Alterna: "Cuidadosamente escucha y obedece todo lo que yo te ordeno".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Para que te pueda ir bien a ti y a tus hijos depués de ti Aquí "hijos" se refiere a todos sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "Que tú y tus descendientes puedan prosperar"

Cuando hagas lo que es bueno y correcto
Las palabras "bueno" y "correcto" tienen un significado similar y enfatiza la importancia del buen comportamiento. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando haces lo que es correcto".

A los ojos del SEÑOR
Aquí "ojos" representa pensamientos u opiniones. Traducción Alterna: "Conforme al SEÑOR".

Deuteronomy 12:29

Corte las naciones
EL SEÑOR destruyendo el grupo de personas en Canaan se menciona como si ÉL estuviera cortándoles, como uno cortaría una pieza de ropa o cortaría una rama de árbol.

Las naciones
Aquí "Naciones" representa a las personas viviendo en Canaán

Cuando entres para disponerlas, y y dispongas de ellas
"Cuando tomes todo de ellas"

Presta atención de ti mismo
"Sé cuidadoso"

No seas atrapado a seguirlos... engañados al investigar a sus dioses, y preguntando
La persona que aprende acerca de otros dioses y los adora se menciona como si ellos son atrapados en la trampa de los cazadores. Esto puede ser una declaración en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que no actúes como ellos... que intentas aprender de sus dioses, preguntando".

No seas atrapado a seguirlos
Los israelitas adorando ídolos como el grupo de personas de Canaán adorando ídolos se menciona como si los israelitas estuvieran siguiendo a otro grupo de personas.

Después que ellos sean destruidos de delante de ti Esto puede ser una declaración en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Después de que EL SEÑOR los destruya de delante de ti".

preguntando: '¿Cómo estas naciones adoran sus dioses? Yo haré lo mismo.'
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa que puede ser como una declaración directa. Traducción Alterna: "en preguntar acerca de cómo ese grupo de personas adoran a sus dioses para hacer lo mismo".

Deuteronomy 12:31

No le añadas ni le quites de ello
No deben crear más leyes ni ignorar las leyes que Dios les ha dado.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 13

1 Si de alguno de ustedes sale un profeta o un soñador de sueños, y si el te da una señal o maravilla, 2 y si la señal o maravilla viene, de quien hablo a ustedes y dijo: "Dejanos ir después a los otros dioses, que tu no has conocido, y dejanos adorarlos". 3 No escuches a las palabras de ese profeta, o a ese soñador de sueños; El SEÑOR TU DIOS te esta probando a ver si tu amas al SEÑOR TU DIOS con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma. 4 Tu caminarás detrás del SEÑOR TU DIOS, hónralo, guarda sus mandamientos, y obedece Su voz, y tu lo adorarás y dependerás de ÉL. 5 Ese profeta o ese soñador de sueños será puesto a muerte, porque él ha hablado rebelión contra El SEÑOR TU DIOS, quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto, quien te redimió fuera de la casa de esclavitud. Ese profeta quiere sacarte fuera del camino que El SEÑOR TU DIOS te ordena a caminar. Así que saca la maldad de entre ustedes. 6 Supón que tu hermano, el hijo de tu madre, o tu hijo, o tu hija, o la esposa amada, o tu amigo que es para tí como tu alma, secretamente te seduce y te dice, "Vayamos y adoremos otros dioses que tú no conoces, ni tú ni tus antepasados, 7 ninguno de los dioses de la gente que esta alrededor de tí, cerca de tí o lejos de tí, desde un lado de la tierra hasta el otro lado de la tierra". 8 No consientas con él o le escuches a él. Ni tan siquiera tu ojo le tenga lástima, tampoco lo condenes ni lo consueles. 9 En lugar de eso, tu debes seguramente matarlo; tu mano será la primera sobre él para matarlo, y luego la mano de todas las personas. 10 Lo apedrearás a muerte a él con piedras, porque él ha tratado de llevarte lejos del SEÑOR TU DIOS, quien te sacó de la tierra de Egipto, fuera de la casa de esclavitud. 11 Todo Israel escuchará y temerá, y no continuará haciendo esta clase de maldad entre ustedes. 12 Si escuchas a alguien diciendo acerca de una de tus ciudades, que el SEÑOR TU DIOS te de para que vivas: 13 "Algunos compañeros malvados han salido de entre ustedes y han llevado lejos los habitantes de sus ciudades y dicen: Vamos y adoremos a otros dioses que ustedes no concen." 14 Entonces examinarás la evidencia, harás busqueda, y la investigarás cuidadosamente. Cuando descubras que es verdad y cierto que cosa tan abominable se ha hecho entre ustedes, entonces tomarás acción. 15 De seguro atacarás los habitantes de esa ciudad con el filo de la espada, la destruirás completamente y a toda la gente que esté en ella, junto con todo su ganado, con el filo de la espada. 16 Tú juntarás todo el botín de ella en medio de sus calles y quemarás la ciudad, como así también su botín, para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. La ciudad será un montón de ruinas para siempre; nunca podrá ser construirda de nuevo. 17 Ninguna de esas cosas separadas para destrucción pueden pegarse en tu mano. Este tiene que ser el caso, para que ELSEÑOR se arrepienta de la furia de su ira, muestre misericordia, tenga compasión de tí, y te haga crecer en números, así como ÉL ha jurado a tus padres. 18 Él hará esto porque estás escuchando la voz DEL SEÑOR TU DIOS, para mantener todos sus mandamientos que yo te estoy ordenando hoy, para hacer lo que es correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR TU DIOS.

Deuteronomy 13:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Si de alguno de ustedes sale
"Si surge entre ustedes" o "Si alguno entre ustedes afirma ser"

Un soñador de sueños
Este es alguien que recibe mensajes de Dios através de sueños

una señal o maravilla
Estas dos palabras tienen significados similares y se refieren a varios milagros.

Viene
"Toma lugar" o "ocurre"

De la cual el les habló a ustedes y dijo: 'Déjanos ir detrás de otros dioses, que tú no has conocido y déjanos adorarlo'
Esto puede ser traducido como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: " y ÉL te dice que sirvas y adores a otros dioses que no conoces".

Déjanos ir detrás de otros dioses Adorar otros dioses es como decir que van detrás o siguiendo a otros dioses. Traducción Alterna: "Déjanos seguir a otros dioses"

ir detrás de otros dioses, que tú no has conocido La frase "dioses, que tú no has conocido" se refiere a los dioses que otro grupo de personas adoran. Los israelitas conocen al SEÑOR porque Él mismo se reveló a ellos y ellos experimentaron su poder.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

no escuches a las palabras de ese profeta, o a ese soñador de sueños Aquí "palabras" representa lo que es dicho. Traducción Alterna: "No escuchen lo que el profeta dice o lo que el soñador de sueños dice"

Con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma
La expresión idiomática "con todo tu corazón" significa "completamente" y "con ... alma" significa "con todo tu ser". Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 4:29. Traducción Alterna: "Con todo tu ser" o "con toda tu energía" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Deuteronomy 13:4

Tu caminarás detrás del SEÑOR tu Dios
Obedeciendo y adorando al SEÑOR es como si la gente estuviera caminando detrás o siguiendo al SEÑOR.

Obedece su voz
Aquí "voz" representa lo que EL SEÑOR dice. Traducción Alterna: "Obedece lo que ÉL dice".

dependerás de Él
Tener una buena relación con EL SEÑOR y completamente confiar en ÉL se menciona como si la persona dependiera de Él. Traducción Alterna: "Confiar en ÉL"

Será puesto a muerte
Esto puede ser una declaración en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Lo deberás matar".

Él ha hablado rebelión
El sustantivo abstracto "rebelión" puede ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Él ha tratado de hacerte rebelde"

Quién te redimió fuera de la casa de esclavitud
EL SEÑOR rescatando a la gente de Israel de ser esclavos en Egipto se menciona como si EL SEÑOR pagó dinero para redimir a su gente fuera de la esclavitud. Traducción Alterna: "Quién te rescató del lugar donde eras esclavo"

Casa de esclavitud
Aquí "casa de esclavitud" representa a Egipto donde el pueblo del SEÑOR fue esclavo. Traducción Alterna: "Egipto, donde fuiste esclavo".

Sacarte fuera del camino por el que el SEÑOR tu Dios te ordena caminar
Como Dios quiere que una persona viva o se comporte se menciona como si fuera un camino o una carretera en que Dios quiere que la gente camine. Una persona que trata que alguien pare de obedecer a Dios se menciona como si la persona está tratando de tomar a la otra para que pare de caminar en el camino o carretera de Dios. Traducción Alterna: " Hacerte desobedecer lo que EL SEÑOR tu Dios te mandó a hacer"

Así que saca la maldad fuera de ustedes
Aquí "la maldad" se refiere a la persona malvada o de mal comportamiento. Este adjetivo nominal puede ser expresado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces deben quitar de fuera de la gente de Israel a la persona que hace cosas malas".

Deuteronomy 13:6

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Esposa de tu seno
El seno es el pecho de una persona. Esta es una expresión idiomática que se refiere a que la sostiene cerca de su seno, que significa que él la ama y aprecia. Traducción Alterna: "Esposa que amas" o "Esposa que cariñosamente abrazas".

Amigo que es para ti como tu propia alma Aquí "alma" representa la vida de la persona. Esto significa que la persona cuida a su amigo asi como él cuida su propia vida. Traducción Alterna: "Tu amigo querido" o "Un amigo que amas tanto como a ti mismo".

Secretamente te seduce y te dice, 'Vayamos y adoremos ... el otro lado de la tierra Esto puede ser traducido como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Secretamente trata de convencerte para ir a adorar... el otro lado de la tierra".

que está alrededor de ti
"Que está rodeándote"

Desde un lado de la tierra hasta el otro lado de la tierra
Aquí la referencia de los dos extremos de la tierra significa "en todo lugar en la tierra" Traducción Alterna: "A través de la tierra entera".

Deuteronomy 13:8

No consientas con él
"No apruebes lo que él quiere"

Ni tan siquiera tu ojo le tenga lástima
Aquí "tu ojo" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Ni le mirarás a él con lástima" o "Ni le mostrarás misericordia".

Tampoco lo condenes ni lo consueles
"Tampoco le mostrarás misericordia ni esconderás de los demás lo que él ha hecho"

Tu mano será la primera en matarlo
Esto significa que él iba a tirar la primera piedra a la persona culpable. La palabra "mano" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tú debes ser el primero en golpearlo para matarlo".

La mano de todas las personas
Aquí "mano" representa toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Las otras personas te acompañarán".

Deuteronomy 13:10

Él ha tratado de llevarte lejos del SEÑOR
"Para alejarte del SEÑOR". La persona que trata de causar a alguien que pare de obedecer al SEÑORse menciona como si la persona está tratando que alguien físicamente se dé la vuelta y deje al SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "El ha tratado de hacerte desobedecer al Senor"

Fuera de la casa de esclavitud
Aquí "casa de esclavitud" representa a Egipto donde la gente del SEÑOR había sido esclavos. Traducción Alterna: "Fuera del lugar en donde tú fuiste esclavo".

Todo Israel escuchará y temerá
Está implícito que cuando la gente escuche acerca de la persona que fue ejecutada, temerá actuar como lo hizo él.

Deuteronomy 13:12

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Algunos compañeros malvados han salido de entre ustedes
La frase "de entre ustedes" significa que estos hombres malvados eran israelitas que vivieron en sus comunidades.

Han llevado lejos a los habitantes de sus ciuddes y dicen: ´Vamos y adoremos a otros dioses que ustedes no conocen´
Esto puede ser traducido como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Han persuadido a aquellos que viven en su ciudad para ir y adorar a otros dioses que ellos no conocían.

Han llevado lejos los habitantes de sus ciudades
Una persona que causa a alguien que se aparte de obedecer al SEÑOR se menciona como si la persona ha causado que la otra persona haya dado la vuelta y dejado al SEÑOR.

Examinarás la evidencia, harás búsqueda, y la investigarás cuidadosamente Todas estas frases significan básicamente la misma cosa. Moisés está enfatizando que ellos deben cuidadosamente encontrar qué pasó realmente en la ciuddad.

que cosa tan abominable se ha hecho entre ustedes
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que las personas de la ciudad hicieron tantas cosas terribles".

Deuteronomy 13:15

Con el filo de la espada
Aquí "filo" representa toda la espada. Traducción Alterna: "Con tus espadas".

Todo el botín
"todo el saqueo". Esto se refiere a las posesiones y tesoros que un ejército recoge después de ganar una batalla

Montón de ruinas
"Pila de ruinas"

Nunca podrá ser construida devuelta
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie debe nunca reconstruir la ciudad".

Deuteronomy 13:17

Ninguna de esas cosas separadas para destrucción pueden pegarse en tu mano
EL SEÑOR maldiciendo algo y prometiendo destruir se menciona como si estaba poniendo el objeto aparte de otras cosas. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Tú no deberías mantener alguna de las cosas que Dios te ha ordenado que destruyas.

pueden pegarse en tu mano Esta es una forma de decir que una persona guarda algo. Traducción Alterna: "Debes guardar".

el SEÑOR se arrepienta de la furia de su ira El SEÑOR no va a estar más enojado es como decir que su enojo era un objeto y que EL SEÑOR fisicamente se alejaría de eso. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR va a parar de estar enojado".

A tus padres
Aquí "padres" significa ancestros o antepasados.

estás escuchando la voz del SEÑOR Aquí "voz" representa a lo que EL SEÑOR dice. Traducción Alterna: "Estás obedeciendo lo que EL SEÑOR dice".

que es correcto a los ojos del SEÑOR tu Dios Aquí "ojos" representa pensamientos y opiniones. Traducción Alterna: "Que es lo correcto con respecto al SEÑOR tu Dios" o "Que EL SEÑOR tu Dios considera que es correcto".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 14

1 Ustedes son el pueblo DEL SEÑOR SU DIOS. No se corten, no se afeiten ninguna parte de su cara por los muertos. 2 Pues ustedes son una nación apartada para EL SEÑOR SU DIOS, y EL SEÑOR los ha escogido como su posesión, mas que a cualquier otro pueblo en la faz de la tierra. 3 No coman ninguna cosa abominable. 4 Estos son los animales que ustedes pueden comer: el buey, la oveja y la cabra; 5 el ciervo, la gacela, el corzo y la cabra salvaje; el íbice y el antílope, y el carnero de monte. 6 Pueden comer todo animal que tenga pezuña, estos son, los que tienen pezuñas y estas están divididas en dos, y rumien. 7 Sin embargo, ustedes no deben comer algunos animales que rumien o que tengan las pezuñas divididas en dos: el camello, el conejo, y el damán; porque rumien pero no tienen la pezuña dividida, estos no están limpios para ustedes. 8 El puerco no es limpio para ustedes porque tiene pezuñas pero no rumea; es impuro para ustedes. No coman carne de puerco, y tampoco toquen sus cadáveres. 9 Todas las cosas que estén en el agua pueden comer: todos los que tengan aletas y escamas; 10 pero si no tienen aletas y escamas no la coman; son impuros para ustedes. 11 Toda ave limpia tu podrás comer. 12 Pero estas son las aves que tu no debes comer: el águila, el buitre, el águila pescadora, 13 el buitre rojo y el buitre negro, cualquier especie de halcón. 14 Tu no debes comer cualquier tipo de cuervo, 15 y el avestruz, y el halcón nocturno, la gaviota, cualquier especie de halcón, 16 el búho pequeño, el gran búho, el búho blanco, 17 el pelicano, el buitre carroñero, el cormorán. 18 Tu no debes comer la cigueña, cualquier tipo de garza, la abubilla, y los murciélagos. 19 Toda cosa alada, enjambrada son inmundas para ti; no deben ser consumidas. 20 Tu puedes comer toda cosa voladora limpia. 21 Ustedes no deben comer nada que muere por si solo; tu lo debes dar al extranjero que está en tus pueblos, que él pueda comerlo; o tu puedas venderlo a un extranjero. Pues tu eres una nación apartada para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. Tu no debes hervir una cabra joven en la leche de su madre. 22 Tu seguramente debes diezmar de la cosecha de toda tu semilla, de la cual sale del campo año tras año. 23 Tu debes comer ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, en el lugar que el escoja como su santuario, el diezmo de tu grano, de tu vino nuevo y de tu aceite, y de los primogénitos de tu manada y rebaño; así ustedes aprendan a siempre honrar a EL SEÑÓR TU DIOS 24 Si el camino es muy largo para tí y no eres capaz de llevarlo, porque el lugar que Dios escogió para tí como su santuario es muy lejano, entonces, cuando EL SEÑOR te bendiga, 25 tú convertirás la ofrenda en dinero, ata el dinero en tu mano, y ve al lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá. 26 Allí podrás usar el dinero para cualquier cosa que desees: bueyes, o para ovejas, o para vino, o para bebidas fuertes, o para cualquier cosa que tu desees; allí tu comerás ante EL SEÑÓR TU DIOS, y te alegrarás, tu y tu casa. 27 El levita quien está dentro de tus puertas, no lo abandones, pues él no tiene porción ni herencia contigo. 28 Al final de cada tres años, tu presentarás todo el diezmo de tu producción en el mismo año, y tu almacenarás dentro de tus puertas; 29 y el levita, pues no tiene porción ni herencia contigo, y el extranjero, y los huerfanos y la viuda quienes están dentro de tus puertas, vendrán y comerán y estarán satisfechas. Haz esto para que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te bendiga en todo el trabajo que hagan tus manos.

Deuteronomy 14:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Ustedes son el pueblo ... ustedes son una nación ... los ha escogido Todas las apariciones de "ustedes" se refiere a la gente de Israel. Moisés fue incluido como parte de la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Nosotros somos el pueblo ... nosotros somo una nación .. Nos escogió"

No se corten, ni se afeiten ninguna parte de su cara por los muertos
Éstas eran manera en que el piueblo que vivía en Canaán mostraba que estaba de duelo por las personas que habían muerto. Moisés está diciendo a las personas de Israel que no actuén como ellos.

El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

Ni se afeiten ninguna parte de su cara
"ni afeiten el frente de su cabeza"

Pues ustedes son una nación... en la faz de la tierra
Traduzca estas palabras como hizo en 7:6.

Pues ustedes son una nación apartada para EL SEÑOR su Dios EL SEÑOR escogiendo a los israelitas para que le pertenezcan de manera especial se menciona como si los apartó de otras naciones. Esto se puede afirmar en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR su Dios los apartó de otras naciones". (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El SEÑOR los ha escogido para ser un pueblo de su posesión Esto significa básicamente la misma cosa que la primera parte de la oración. Ambas significan que la gente de Israel pertenece al SEÑOR de una manera especial.

pueblo de su posesión
"Un pueblo como su preciada posesión" o "Su gente"

más que a cualquier otro pueblo en la faz de la tierra
"De todos los grupos de personas en el mundo"

Deuteronomy 14:3

No coman ninguna cosa abominable
Las personas de Israel no debían comer cualquiera de las cosas que Dios dijo que era impropio

El ciervo, la gacela, el corzo
Estos eran todos los tipos de ciervos. Si su idioma no tiene una palabra para cada animal, puede ser traducido como "todas las clases de ciervos"

La gacela
Este es un animal salvaje con patas largas y delgadas que corre rápidamente. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 12:15

El corzo
Un tipo de ciervo

Cabra salvaje, y el antílope
Ambos de estos son tipos de antílope. Si su idioma no tiene una palabra para cada animal puede traducir como "Todos los tipos de antílopes"

Cabra salvaje
Un tipo de Antílope.

Deuteronomy 14:6

que tenga pezuña
"Que tienen pezuñas divididas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada). Esta es una pezuña que se divide en dos partes en lugar de ser una completa que rumien

Esto significa que el animal saca su comida del estómago y la mastica de nuevo.

Conejo
Este es un animal con orejas largas que usualmente vive en hoyos dentro de la tierra.

Damán
Este es un animal pequeño que vive en zonas rocosas. (Ver:)

estos no están limpios para ustedes
Algo que EL SEÑOR dice que es impropio para que la gente coma se menciona como si estuviera físicamente sucio.

Deuteronomy 14:8

El puerco no es limpio para ustedes
Algo que EL SEÑOR dice que es impropio para que la gente coma se menciona como si estuviera físicamente sucio.

Deuteronomy 14:9

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a las personas de Israel

De estas cosas que están en el agua, pueden comer
"Pueden comer estos tipos de animales que viven en el agua"

aletas
La parte delgada y plana que el pez usa para moverse a través del agua.

Escamas
Las pequeñas láminas platos que cubren el cuerpo del pez

son impuros para ustedes
Algo que EL SEÑOR dice que es impropio para que la gente coma se menciona como si estuviera físicamente sucio.

Deuteronomy 14:11

Toda ave limpia
Un animal que Dios dice que es apto para consumo de su pueblo se menciona como si el animal se encuentrara físicamente limpio.

Águila .. buitre .. Águila pescadora ... Buitre rojo ... Buitre negro ... Halcón
Estas son aves que están despiertas de noche o se alimentan de animales pequeños y muertos. (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 14:14

Cuervo ... Cormorán
Estos son todos tipos de aves que están despiertas por las noches o se alimentan de animales pequeños y animales muertos.

Deuteronomy 14:18

Cigueña ... Garza ... La abubilla
Estos son tipos de aves que comen animales pequeños y lagartijas.

El murciélago
Animal con alas y cuerpo peludo que está despierto principalmente de noche, come insectos y roedores

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Toda cosa alada, enjambrada
Esto se refiere a todo insecto que vuela y se mueve en grupos

Son sucios para ti
Animales que Dios dice que son impropios para el consumo de su gente se mencionan como si los animales están físicamente sucios.

No deben ser consumidos Esto puede ser una declaración en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No deben comerlos"

toda cosa voladora limpia
Animales que Dios dice que son propias para el consumo de su gente se mencionan los animales están físicamente limpios.

Deuteronomy 14:21

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

nada que muere por sí solo
Esto se refiere a un animal que muere de manera natural

Pues tu eres una nación apartada para el SEÑOR tu Dios
EL SEÑOR escogiendo a la gente de Israel para que les pertenezcan a él en forma especial se menciona como si EL SEÑOR los aparta de las otras naciones. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Pues EL SEÑOR tu Dios te ha separado de las otras naciones"

Deuteronomy 14:22

diezmar de la cosecha de toda tu semilla
Esto significa que ellos deben dar una parte de cada diez partes iguales de sus cultivos.

Años tras año
"Todos los años"

Ante EL SEÑOR
"En la presencia del SEÑOR"

Deuteronomy 14:24

llevarlo
Aquí "llevarlo" se refiere al diezmo de los cultivos y el ganado

Tú convertirás la ofrenda en dinero
"venderás tu ofrenda por dinero"

Ata el dinero a tu mano, y ve
"Pon el dinero en tu bolso y llévalo contigo"

Deuteronomy 14:26

Para cualquier cosa que desees
"Para cualquier cosa que quieras"

Ante EL SEÑOR
"En la presencia de EL SEÑOR"

El levita que está dentro de tus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa a la ciudad entera. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquier levita que vive en tus pueblos"

No lo abandones
Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Asegúrate de dar algo de tu diezmo al levita"

pues él no tiene porción ni herencia contigo
La tribu de Leví no recibió una porción de tierra como su herencia. Su parte de la herencia era el honor de servir al SEÑOR como sus sacerdotes. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito.

porción ni herencia contigo
Dios no dando tierra a los levitas se menciona como si a ellos no les estuviera dando una herencia.

Deuteronomy 14:28

Cada tres años presentarás todo el diezmo de tu producción
Una vez cada 3 años, los israelitas debían almacenar sus diezmos dentro de sus propias ciudades para que fueran utilizados para proveer a los levitas, huérfanos, viudas y extranjeros. .

Dentro de tus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa la ciudad entera o pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de tu ciudad"

Porque no tiene porción ni herencia contigo
Dios no dando una tierra a los levitas se menciona como si a ellos no les estuviera dando una herencia.

Huérfanos
Estos son niños que tienen a sus dos padres muertos y que no poseen parientes que cuiden de ellos

Viuda
Esta es una mujer cuyo marido ha muerto y no tiene hijos que ciuden de ella en su vejez.

En todo el trabajo que hagan tus manos Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Esto se refiere a todo el trabajo que alguien hace. Traducción Alterna: "En todo el trabajo que tú haces"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 15

1 Al final de cada siete años, tu debes cancelar deudas. 2 Ésta es la manera de la liberación: cada acreedor cancelará lo que por lo cual él haya prestado a su vecino; él no demandará a su vecino o a su hermano porque la cancelación de deudas de EL SEÑOR ha sido proclamada. 3 De un extranjero tu podías demandarlo; pero cualquier cosa que sea de ustedes es con tu hermano que tu mano debe liberar. 4 Sin embargo, no debería haber pobres entre ustedes (para EL SEÑOR seguramente serás bendecido en la tierra que ÉL te da como una herencia para poseer), 5 si solo tu diligentemente escuchas la voz de EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, para guardar todos estos mandamientos que yo te estoy mandando a tí hoy. 6 Pues EL SENOR TU DIOS te bendecirá, así como ÉL te ha prometido; tu prestarás a muchas naciones, pero tu no vas a pedir prestado; tu reinarás sobre muchas naciones, pero ellos no reinarán sobre tí. 7 Si hay un hombre pobre entre ustedes, uno de tus hermanos, dentro de cualquiera de sus puertas en tu tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando, tu no debes endurecer tu corazón ni cerrar tu mano de tu pobre hermano; 8 pero tu seguramente debes abrir tu mano a él y seguramente prestarle suficiente para su necesidad. 9 Ten cuidado de no tener un pensamiento malvado en tu corazón, diciendo: "En el año séptimo, el año de la liberación, está cerca", para que tu no seas tacaño en considerar a tu hermano pobre y no darle nada; el podría clamar al SEÑOR acerca de tí, y eso podría ser pecado para tí. 10 Tu seguramente debes darlo a él, y tu corazón no debe estar triste cuando tu le das a él, porque en cambio por ésto, EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te bendecirá a tí en todo tu trabajo y en todo lo que tú pusiste tu mano. 11 El pobre nunca cesará de existir en la tierra; por lo tanto, YO te mando y te digo: "Tu seguramente debes abrir tu mano a tu hermano, a tu necesitado, y a tu pobre en tu tierra." 12 Si tu hermano, un hombre hebreo, o una mujer hebrea, se te vende a tí y te sirven por séis años, luego en el año séptimo tu debes dejarlo ir libre de tí. 13 Cuando tu los liberas a ellos de tí, tu no debes dejarlos ir con las manos vacías. 14 Tu debes liberalmente proveer a él de tu rebaño, de tu piso trillado, y de tu lagar. Como EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha bendecido, tu debes darlo a él. 15 Tu debes recordar que tu eras un esclavo en la tierra de Egipto, y que EL SENOR TU DIOS te ha redimido; por lo tanto Yo te estoy mandando hoy a hacer ésto. 16 Ésto pasará que si él te dice a tí: "No me iré de tí," porque él ama a tí y a tu casa, y porque él esta bien contigo, 17 entonces tu debes tomar un punzón y perforar su oreja en el marco de una puerta, y él será tu siervo para siempre. Y también a tu sierva le harás lo mismo. 18 Eso no debe ser difícil el dejarlo libre de tí, porque él te ha servido por séis años y te ha dado el doble del valor de una persona contratada. EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te bendecirá en todo lo que haces. 19 Todo los primogénitos machos en tu manada y en tu rebaño deben ser apartados para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. Tu no trabajarás con el primogénito de tu manada ni esquilar el primogénito de tu rebaño. 20 Tu debes comer el primogénito ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS año tras año en el lugar que EL SEÑOR escogerá, tú y tu casa. 21 Si tienen cualquier defecto, por ejemplo, si es cojo o ciego, o tiene cualquier defecto lo que sea, tu no debes sacrificarlo a EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 22 Tu lo comerás dentro de tus puertas; las personas sucias y limpias igual lo deben comer, como tu podrías comer a una gacela o un venado. 23 Solamente no debes comer su sangre; tu debes derramar su sangre en el suelo como agua.

Deuteronomy 15:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Siete años
"7 años" (Ver:)

Debes cancelar deudas
"Perdona todo lo que la gente todavía te debe"

Esta es la manera de la liberación
"Así es como se cancelan las deudas"

Acreedor
Persona que presta dinero a otra persona.

Su vecino o su hermano
Las palabras "vecino" y "hermano" comparten significados similares y enfatiza la relación cercana que ellos tienen con sus compañeros israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "Su compañero israelita"

Porque la cancelación de deudas del SEÑOR ha sido proclamada Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Porque EL SEÑOR ha requerido que canceles deudas"

Tu mano debe liberar Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "No debes exigirlo devuelta" o "No debes exigir reembolso"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 15:4

pobres
El adjetivo nominal "pobres" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Gente pobre" o "Ninguno que es pobre".

La tierra que ÉL te da
Esto se refiere a la tierra de Canaán

Él te da como una herencia para poseer
La tierra que EL SEÑOR está dando a su gente se menciona como si fuera una herencia que EL SEÑOR les da.

Si sólo escuchas con diligencia la voz del SEÑOR tu Dios Aquí la figura literaria (metonimia) "Voz del SEÑOR" se refiere a lo que EL SEÑOR mismo dice. Traducción Alterna: "Si sólo eres cuidadoso para obedecer lo que EL SEÑOR tu Dios dice".

tú prestarás ... no vas a pedir prestado
La palabra "dinero" es sobrentendida. Puede hacer el significado completo de esta declaración claro. Traducción Alterna: " Vas a prestar dinero ... No vas a pedir dinero prestado"

A muchas naciones ... sobre muchas naciones Aquí "naciones" representa a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "A la gente de muchas naciones... Sobre la gente de muchas naciones" tú reinarás sobre muchas naciones, pero ellos no reinarán sobre ti Aquí "reinarás sobre" significa ser financieramente superior. Esto significa básicamente lo mismo que la anterior parte de la oración.

Deuteronomy 15:7

Si hay un hombre pobre
Aquí "hombre" significa una persona en general. Traducción Alterna: "Si hay una persona pobre"

Uno de tus hermanos
"Uno de tus compañeros israelitas"

Dentro de cualquiera de sus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representan a la ciudad entera o el pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de cualquiera de tus pueblos".

Tú no debes endurecer tu corazón
Ser terco se menciona como si la persona endureciera su corazón. Traducción Alterna: "No debes ser terco" ni cerrar tu mano de tu hermano pobre

Una persona que se niega a proveer a una persona se menciona como si estuviera cerrando su mano para que el pobre no pueda obtener nada de él. Traducción Alterna: "Ni negarte a ayudar a tu prójimo que es pobre".

pero tú seguramente debes abrir tu mano a él Una persona que ayuda a un pobre es como si estuviera abriendo su mano a la misma. Traducción Alterna: "Pero ciertamente debes ayudarlo".

Deuteronomy 15:9

No tener un pensamiento malvado en tu corazón, diciendo Aquí "corazón" representa a la mente de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "No pensar un pensamiento malvado"

El año séptimo, el año de la liberación, está cerca
Está implícito que debido a que el año de la liberación ocurrirá pronto, la persona que piensa esto será reacia a ayudar a una persona pobre, ya que es probable que la persona pobre no tenga que pagarle. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede aclarar.

El año séptimo
La palabra "séptimo" es el número ordinal para el siete.

El año de la liberación
"El año de cancelación de deudas"

Está cerca
Algo que va a pasar pronto se emnciona como que está fisicamente cerca. Traducción Alterna: "Va a pasar pronto".

para que tú no seas tacaño en considerar a tu pobre hermano y no darle nada
"Para que no seas terco y te niegues a dar nada a tu compañero israelita"

clamar al SEÑOR
"Gritar al SEÑOR por ayuda"

eso podría ser pecado para ti
"EL SEÑOR considerará lo que has hecho como pecaminoso"

tu corazón no debe estar triste
Aquí "corazón" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "No deberías arrepentirte" o "Deberías estar feliz" (VER: file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

En todo en lo que pones tu mano
Aquí "pones en tu mano" representa a toda la persona y el trabajo que ha hecho. Traducción Alterna: "En todo lo que haces"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 15:11

Porque el pobre nunca cesará de existir en la tierra
Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Porque siempre habrá gente pobre en la tierra".

Porque el pobre
El adjetivo nominal "el pobre" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Porque gente pobre" yo te mando y te digo: "Tú seguramente debes abrir tu mano ... en tu tierra Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Un cita directa puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "te ordeno que abras tus manos .. en tu tierra" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

abrir tu mano a tu hermano, a tu necesitado, y a tu pobre Una persona que está dispuesta a ayudar a otra se menciona como si su mano estuviera abierta. Traducción Alterna: "Ayuda a tus compañeros israelitas, esos que están necesitados, y esos que son pobres"

a tu hermano, a tu necesitado, y a tu pobre
Las palabras "necesitado" y "pobre" significan básicamente lo mismo y enfatizan que estas son personas que no pueden ayudarse a sí mismas. Traducción Alterna: "ayuda a tu compañero israelita que no pueda ayudarse a sí mismo".

Deuteronomy 15:12

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de israel

Si tu hermano
Aquí "hermano" significa un israelita en general, sea hombre o mujer. Traducción Alterna: " Si un compañero israelita" o "Si un compañero hebreo"

Se te vende
Si una persona no podía pagar su deuda, a veces se vendía a sí mismo en esclavitud por lo que debía. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Se vende a ti"

Seis años
"6 años"

Séptimo año
"7mo año". Este "séptimo" es el número ordinal para el siete.

No debes dejarlos ir con las manos vacías
Una persona que no tiene posesiones para proveerse a sí mismo y su familia se menciona como si sus manos están vacías. Traducción Alterna: "No debes dejarlo ir sin tener nada que proveer para él y su familia"

Tú debes liberalmente proveer a él
"Generosamente dar a él"

Deuteronomy 15:15

recordar que tú eras un esclavo
Aquí "tú" incluye a sus ancestros que fueron esclavos por muchos años. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda que tu gente fueron una vez esclavos"

Que EL SEÑOR tu Dios te ha redimido
El SEÑOR rescatando a las personas de Israel de ser esclavos en Egipto se menciona como si EL SEÑOR pagara con dinero para rescatar a su pueblo de la esclavitud.

si él te dice a ti: "No me iré de ti"
Esta es una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Si él te dice que no va a ir lejos de ti"

Tu casa
Aquí "casa" representa la familia de la persona.

entonces tú debes tomar un punzón y empujarlo a través de su oreja a una puerta
"Luego colocarás su cabeza cerca de un marco de tu puerta de madera en su casa, y luego colocará la punta del punzón a través de su oreja en la madera"

Punzón
una herramienta afilada y puntiaguda utilizada para hacer un agujero.

para siempre
"Hasta el fin de su vida" o"Hasta que él muera"

Deuteronomy 15:18

No debe parecer dificil dejarlo ir libre de ti
Esto significa que no están resentidos cuando dejan que alguien salga libre. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Estar contento cuando lo dejas ir libre"

Dado el doble del valor de una persona contratada
Esto significa que el propietario sólo tenía que pagar la mitad de la cantidad para que este esclavo trabajara de lo que hubiera pagado por una persona que contratase para hacer un trabajo.

Una persona contratada
Esta es una persona que trabaja por paga

Deuteronomy 15:19

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esquilar
Cortar lana o pelo

Ante EL SEÑOR
"En la presencia del SEÑOR"

Año tras año
"Cada año" o "Todo año"

cojo
lisiado o físicamente discapacitado

Deuteronomy 15:22

Dentro de tus puertas
Aquí "puertas" representa a la ciudad o pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "En tu comunidad" o "Dentro de tu ciudad"

Las personas sucias
Una persona que no es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios se menciona como si la persona está físicamente sucia.

Las personas limpias
Una persona que es aceptable para los propósitos de Dios se menciona como si la persona está físicamente limpia. (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/

Una gacela o un venado
Estos son animales salvajes con patas largas y delgadas que pueden correr rápidamente. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 12:15

No debes comer su sangre
"No debes consumir su sangre". EL SEÑOR no permitió a los israelitas consumir sangre porque la sangre representaba vida. (Ver: 12:23)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 16

1 Observen el mes de Abib, y mantengan la Pascua para EL SEÑOR SU DIOS, pues en el mes de Abib EL SEÑOR SU DIOS les sacó de Egipto por la noche. 2 Ustedes sacrifiquen la Pascua para EL SEÑOR SU DIOS con algunas ofrendas de sus rebaños y manadas en el lugar que EL SEÑOR escogerá como su santuario. 3 No deberán comer pan con levadura; siete días comerán pan sin levadura, el pan de aflicción; por que ustedes salieron aprisa de la tierra de Egipto. Hagan esto todos los días de sus vidas para que así traígan a memoria del día cuando salieron de la tierra de Egipto. 4 No debe ser hallada levadura entre todas tus fronteras durante siete dias; tampoco ninguna de la carne que sacrifiques en la tarde del primer día debe permanecer hasta la mañana. 5 No podrás sacrificar la Pascua dentro de cualquiera de las puertas de la ciudad que el SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando. 6 En cambio, sacrifiquen en el lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogió como su santuario. Ahí harás el sacrificio de la Pascua en la tarde mientras baja el sol, en el tiempo del año en que saliste de Egipto. 7 La cocinarás y la comerás en el lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá; en la mañana darás la vuelta y regresarás a tu habitación. 8 Por seis días comerás pan sin levadura; en el séptimo día harán una asamblea solemne para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS; en el día no harán ningún trabajo. 9 Tú contarás siete semanas por ustedes mismos; desde el momento que comienzas a poner la hoz del grano parado y desde ahí comienzas a contar siete semanas. 10 Mantendrás el Festival de Semanas para ELSEÑOR TU DIOS con la contribución de la ofrenda voluntaria de tu mano que le brindarás, de acuerdo comoEL SEÑOR TU DOS te ha bendecido. 11 Y tú te regocijarás ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS; tú, tu hijo, tu hija, tu siervo, tu sierva, los Levitas quienes habitan en tus ciudades, los extranjeros, los huerfános, y la viuda cerca de tí, en el lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogió para su santuario. 12 Deberán traer a memoria cuando eran esclavos en Egipto; ustedes deben observar y hacer estos estatutos. 13 Tu debes guardar la Fiesta de losTabernáculos por siete días, después de haber recogido de la cosecha de tu suelo trillado y de tu lagar. 14 Te alegrarás durante tu Fiesta, tú, tu hijo, tu hija, tu sirviente, tu sirvienta, el Levita, y el extranjero, y los huerfanos y las viudas que estan dentro de tus puertas. 15 Por siete días tu debes observar La Fiesta para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS en el lugar que EL SEÑOR escogerá, porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te bendecirá en todas tus cosechas y en todo el trabajo de tus manos, y tu debes estar completamente alegre. 16 Tres veces al año todos tus hombres deben mostrarse ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS en el lugar que ÉL escogerá: en La Fiesta del Pan sin Levadura, en La Fiesta de las Semanas, y en La Fiesta de los Refugios; y no van a mostrarse ante EL SEÑOR con las manos vacías; 17 en cambio, todo hombre dará según pueda, para que puedas saber las bendiciones que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado. 18 Tu debes nombrar jueces y oficiales dentro de todas las puertas de las ciudades que EL SEÑÓR TU DIOS te esta dando; ellos serán tomados de cada una de sus tribus, y ellos deben enjuiciar al pueblo con juicio justo. 19 Tu no debes tomar justicia por la fuerza; tu no debes mostrar parcialidad ni tomar soborno, pues el soborno ciega los ojos del justo y pervierte las palabras de los justos. 20 Tú debes seguir la justicia, solo la justicia, para que puedas vivir y heredar la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando. 21 Ustedes no deben hacer para ustedes mismos imágenes de la diosa Asera, cualquier clase de imagen, al lado del altar de EL SÑOR TU DIOS que hagas para tí. 22 Tampoco debes edificar para tí mismo cualquier imagen de piedra sagrada, los que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS odia.

Deuteronomy 16:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Mes de Abib
Este es el primer mes del calendario hebreo. Marca cuando Dios trajo a la gente de Israel fuera de Egipto. Es durante la última parte de Marzo y la primera parte de Abril en calendarios Occidentales.

Guarden la Pascua
Está implícito por "Guarden la Pascua" que ellos van a celebrar y comer la comida de Pascua. Traducción Alterna: "Celebren la comida de la Pascua" o "Coman la comida de la Pascua"

Van a sacrificar la Pascua
Aquí "Pascua" representa el animal que es sacrificado para la celebración de la Pascua. Traducción Alterna: "Para la Pascua ofrecerán un sacrificio"

Deuteronomy 16:3

con eso
Aquí "eso" hace referencia a el animal que ellos van a sacrificar para comer

siete días
"7 días"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El pan de aflicción
Este era el nombre del pan sin levadura. El completo significado puede ser declarado explícitamente.Traducción Alterna: "Este pan les recordará cuánto han sufrido mientras estuvieron en Egipto"

fuera de la tierra de Egipto en apuro
La gente dejó Egipto tan rápido que no tuvieron el tiempo suficiente para hacer pan con levadura. El completo significado de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Fuera de la tierra de Egipto en tanta prisa no tuvieron tiempo de hacer pan con levadura.

Haz esto todos los días de tu vida
"Haz esto mientras vivas"

Llama a la mente
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

Ninguna levadura debe ser vista entre ustedes.
Esto puede ser declarada en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No deben tener levadura entre ustedes"

Dentro de todas tus fronteras
"Dentro de todo su territorio" o "En toda su tierra"

Primer día
Este "primer" es el número ordinal para uno.

Deuteronomy 16:5

No podrán sacrificar la Pascua
Aquí "Pascua" representa el animal que va a ser sacrificado. Traducción Alterna: "Para la Pascua no podrás sacrificar el animal".

Cualquiera de las puertas de la ciudad Aquí "puertas" representa la ciudad o pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "En cualquiera de sus pueblos"

Mientras baja el sol
"Al atardecer"

Deuteronomy 16:7

Debes asarlo
"Debes cocinarlo"

Seis días
"6 días" (Ver:)

Séptimo día
"Séptimo" es el número ordinal para siete.

Asamblea solemne
"Reunión especial"

Deuteronomy 16:9

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Contar siete semanas
"contar 7 semanas" (Ver:)

Desde que comienzas a poner el hoz a el grano en pie
La frase "pon el hoz a el grano en pie" es una forma de referirse al comienzo del tiempo de la cosecha. Traducción Alterna: "Desde el momento en que comienzas a cosechar el grano".

Hoz
Herramienta con cuchilla curvilínea utilizada para cortar pasto, grano, y viñas. (Ver:)

Con la contribución de la ofrenda voluntaria que darás de tu mano Aquí "mano" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Y tu darás tu ofrenda voluntaria".

De acuerdo como EL SEÑOR tu Dios te ha bendecido
"De acuerdo con la cosecha que EL SEÑOR tu Dios te ha dado". Esto significa que la gente basará la cantidad que ofrecen en la cantidad que cosecharon ese año

Deuteronomy 16:11

tu hijo, tu hija, tu siervo, tu sierva, los levitas
Esto no se refiere a una persona en específico. Esto significa estos tipos de personas en general. Traducción Alterna: "Tus hijos, hijas, siervos hombres, siervos mujeres, cualquier levita"

Dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad.
Aquí "puertas" representan ciudades o pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de tus pueblos".

El extranjero, el huérfano y la viuda
Esto se refiere a este tipo de personas en general. Traducción Alterna: "Todos los extranjeros, huérfanos y viudas"

Huérfano
Estos son niños que sus padres han muerto y no tienen parientes que cuiden de ellos.

Viuda
Esto se refiere a una mujer que el esposo ha muerto y no tiene hijos que ciuden de ella en su vejez.

Llamar a la mente
Es un modismo. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

Deuteronomy 16:13

Festival de Refugiados
Otros nombres para este festival son "Fiesta de Tabernáculos", "Festival de cabinas , puestos", y el

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"Festival de la cosecha". Durante la cosecha los agricultores Establecerían refugios temporales en el campo. Este festival tomaba lugar después de la última cosecha del año

Siete días
"7 días" (Ver:)

Dentro de tus puertas
Aquí la palabra "puertas" representan ciudades o pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de sus pueblos".

Deuteronomy 16:15

El Festival
"El Festival de Tabernáculos"

Todo el trabajo de tus manos
Aquí "manos" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tod el trabajo que haces"

Deuteronomy 16:16

Tods tus hombres deben comparecer ante EL SEÑOR Mujeres estaban autorizadas, pero EL SEÑOR no requería que ellas vayan. El hombre podía representar a toda su familia.

Deben comparecer ante EL SEÑOR
"Deben venir y pararse en la presencia de EL SEÑOR"

Ellos no comparecerán ante EL SEÑOR con manos-vacias; en cambio, todo hombre en manos; en cambio, todo hombre - "No vendrán ante EL SEÑOR sin ofrenda; en cambio, todo hombre. Estas dos frases negativas juntas tienen un significado positivo. Traducción Alterna: "Toda persona que viene ante EL SEÑOR debe traer ofrenda. Todo hombre". (VER: file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/

Deuteronomy 16:18

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Tu debes nombrar jueces
"Tú debes señalar jueces" o "Tú debes elegir jueces"

Dentro de todas las puertas de las ciudades
Aquí "puertas" representa una ciudad o pueblo. Traducción Alterna: "Dentro de todos tus pueblos"

Ellos serán tomados
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Tú los eligirás"

Juzgar al pueblo con juicio justo
"Juzgar a las personas justamente"

No debes tomar justicia por la fuerza Moisés habla de justicia como si eso fuera un objeto físico que una persona puede quitar con violencia de una persona débil. Traducción Alterna: "No debes ser injusto cuando juzgas" Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Su idioma puede tener una palabra que signifique "usar la fuerza para quitar" Traducción Alterna: "Debes tomar decisiones justas".(VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Tú no debes
Aquí "tú" se refiere a aquellos que van a ser nombrados jueces y oficiales.

Porque un soborno ciega los ojos del sabio y pervierte las palabras del justo Tomar un soborno se menciona como que el soborno corrompe a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Incluso un hombre sabio que acepta un soborno será ciego, inluso el hombre correcto que acepta un soborno dirá mentiras".

un soborno ciega los ojos del sabio
Una persona sabia que acepta un soborno para que no hable en contra de algo malvado se menciona como si se ha vuelto ciego.

El sabio
El adjetivo nominal "sabio" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Una persona sabia" o "persona sabia"

Y pervierte las palabras del justo
El adjetivo nominal "justo" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Y causa que una persona recta mienta".

seguir la justicia, sólo la justicia
Se habla de la justicia como una persona que camina. Una persona que está haciendo lo que es correcto y justo se menciona como el que está siguiendo de cerca la justicia. Traducción Alterna: "Haz sólo lo que es correcto"

Heredar la tierra que EL SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando
Se habla de recibir la tierra que Dios le está dando a la gente como si la gente heredara la tierra de Dios.

Deuteronomy 16:21

no deben
Aquí "deben" se refiere a toda la gente de Israel.

Cualquier pilar de piedra sagrado, que EL SEÑOR tu Dios odia La frase "que EL SEÑOR tu Dios odia" está dando más información acerca de el pilar de piedra sagrado. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquier pilar de piedra sagrado porque EL SEÑOR tu Dios los odia"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Pilar de piedra sagrado
Esto se refiere a los pilares que son ídolos usados para adorar a falsos dioses.

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 17

1 Tu no debes sacrificar a EL SEÑOR TU DIOS un buey o una oveja el cual tenga algún defecto o cualquier cosa mala, pues eso podría ser una abominación a EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 2 sii ahí es encontrado entre ustedes, dentro de cualquiera de las puertas de tu ciudad que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado, cualquier hombre o mujer que es malvado en la vista de EL SEÑOR TU DIOS y transgrede su pacto, 3 nadie que va y adora a otros dioses y se han arrodillado ante ellos, ya sea el sol, la luna, o cualquiea de loe ejercitos de los cielos, nada que Yo Hé mandado, 4 y si te han dicho sobre ésto, o si tu has escuchado de esto, entonces tu debes hacer una investigación cuidadosa. Si es verdad y es cierto que tal abominación ha sido hecho en Israel; 5 entonces tu debes traer a ese hombre o aesa mujer quien ha hecho esta cosa malvada, a las puertas de tu ciudad, ese mismo hombre o mujer, tu debes apedrear hasta la muerte. 6 la boca de dos, o de tres testigos, aquel o aquellos que deben morir, seran llevados a la muerte; pero por la boca de solamente un testigo, éllos no deberán estar expuestos a la muerte. 7 Las manos de los testigos deben ser los primeros en darle muerte a pedradas, después la mano de todo el pueblo los apedreará; y ustedes eliminarán la maldad de entre ustedes. 8 Si pasa algo que es muy difícil para tí de juzgar, quizás una pregunta de homicidio, o muerte accidental, o del derecho de una persona y los derechos de otra, o una pregunta de un tipo de daño hecho u otro tipo de asunto, o asuntos de diferencias dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad, entonces tu debes ir al lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá como Su Santuario. 9 Tu debes ir a los sacerdotes, a los descendientes de Leví y al juez quien sirva en ese tiempo; tu buscarás sus consejos y ellos te darán su veredicto. 10 Tu debes seguir la ley dada a tí, en el lugar que EL SEÑOR escogerá como su Santuario. Tu tendrás cuidado en hacer todo lo que ellos te dirijan en qué hacer. 11 Sigue la ley que ellos te enseñan y lo harás de acuerdo a las decisiones que ellos te dan. No te desvíes de lo que te dicen, a la mano derecha o a la izquierda. 12 Cualquiera que actúe arrogantemente en no escuchar al sacerdote quien está en pie ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, o en no escuchar al juez, ese hombre debe morir. Tú hecharás fuera la maldad de Israel. 13 Todo el pueblo debe escuchar, temer y no actuar más arrogantemente; (ser humilde para escuchar y obedecer la ley). 14 Cuando tu hayas venido a la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado, cuando tomes posesión de ella y empieces a vivir en ella, y entonces tu digas: "Yo pondré un rey sobre mí mismo, como todas las naciones que están a mi alrededor", 15 entonces tu debes seguramente poner como rey sobre tí a alguien quien EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá. Tu debes poner como rey sobre tí a alguien de entre tus hermanos. Tu no puedes poner a un extranjero, quien no es tu hermano, sobre tí. 16 Pero él no debe multiplicar caballos para él mismo o hacer que las personas regresen a Egipto para que él pueda multiplicar caballos, pues EL SEÑOR te ha dicho: "Tu no debes desde ahora para siempre regresar por ese camino otra vez". 17 Y él no debe multiplicar esposas para él mismo, para que su corazón no se aleje de EL SEÑOR; tampoco él debe multiplicar extremadamente para si mismo plata u oro. 18 Cuando él se siente en el trono de su reino, él debe escribir para él mismo en un libro una copia de esta ley, de la ley que es ante los sacerdotes, quienes son levitas. 19 El libro debe estar con él y él debe leerlo en todos los días de su vida, para que él pueda aprender a honrar a EL SEÑOR TU DIOS, así como para guardar todas las palabras de esta ley y estos estatutos para observarlos. 20 Él debe hacer ésto así para que su corazón no se levante por encima de sus hermanos y así él no se aleje de los mandamientos a la mano derecha o a la izquierda; para el propósito que él pueda prolongar los días en su reino, él y sus hijos en medio de Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

el cual tenga algún defecto
"Eso tiene un defecto" o "Eso tiene algo malo en él" El animal debe parecer saludable sin ninguna deformidad.

eso podía ser una abominación al SEÑOR tu Dios
"Eso sería molesto para EL SEÑOR"

Deuteronomy 17:2

Si allí es encontrado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si encuentras a alguien" o "Si hay alguien"

Dentro de cualquiera de las puertas de tu ciudad Aquí "puertas de tu ciudad" representa a ciudades o pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "Viviendo en una de tus ciudades"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Lo que es malo a la vista del SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí "a la vista del SEÑOR" significa lo que EL SEÑOR piensa o considera acerca de algo. Traducción Alterna: "Algo que EL SEÑOR tu Dios piensa que es malvado".

Transgrede su pacto
"Desobedece su pacto"

cualquiera de las huestes del cielo
"Cualquiera de las estrellas"

Nada que Yo he mandado
" Lo que Yo no he ordenado que ninguno haga"

si te han dicho sobre esto
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si alguien te dice acerca de este acto de desobediencia"

Tú debes hacer una investigación cuidadosa
El sustantivo abstracto "investigación" puede ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú debes investigar cuidadosamente lo que sucedió"

Tal abominación ha sido hecha en Israel
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien ha hecho algo tan horrible en Israel".

Deuteronomy 17:5

En la boca de dos testigos, o tres testigos, el que debe morir será puesto a muerte
Aquí "la boca" representa el testimonio de un testigo. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si dos o tres testigos hablan en contra de la persona, entonces deberías ejecutarlo.

Pero en la boca de un solo testigo él no debería ser puesto a muerte
Aquí "la boca" representa el testimonio d eun testigo. Esto puede ser traducido en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Pero si solo una persona habla en contra de él, entonces no deberían ejecutarlo"

La mano de los testigos deben ser los primeros en ponerlo a muerte, y después la mano de todo el pueblo Aquí "mano" representa al grupo entero de testigos. Traducción Alterna: "Los testigos mismos deben ser los primeros en tirar las piedras.Después toda la gente ejecutará la persona tirandole piedras".

Eliminarán la maldad entre ustedes
El adjetivo nominal "la maldad" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Deben eliminar de entre los israelitas a la persona que hace estas cosas malas" o Deben ejecutar a esta persona malvada".

Deuteronomy 17:8

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Si un asunto surge
"Si hay un asunto" o "Si hay una situación"

El derecho de una persona y el derecho de otra persona
Un "derecho" es la autoridad legal de una persona para hacer algo o poseer algo.

dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad Aquí "puertas de tu ciudad" representa ciudades o pueblos. Traducción Alterna: "Entre sus pueblos"

Buscarás sus consejos
El sustantivo abstracto "Consejo" puede ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: " Tú le pedirás consejos a ellos".

Ellos te darán su veredicto
El sustantivo abstracto "veredicto" puede ser declarado como un verbo. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos decidirán en el asunto"

Deuteronomy 17:10

Tú debes seguir la ley dada a ti
La persona que obedece lo que decide el sacerdote y el juez se menciona como si la persona estuviera físicamente siguiendo detrás de la ley. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Tú debes obedecer lo que el juez y sacerdote decide acerca de un asunto".

No te desvíes de lo que te dicen, a la mano derecha o izquierda
La persona que no hace exactamente lo que el juez y el sacerdote se menciona como que él está torciendo el camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "No desobedezcas a nada de lo que ellos te dicen" Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Haz todo lo que ellos dicen".

Deuteronomy 17:12

En no escuchar al sacerdote... o en no escuchar al juez
"Y no obedezca al sacerdote ... o no obedezca al juez"

Tu hecharás fuera la maldad de Israel
El adjetivo nominal "la maldad" puede ser traducido como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Tú debes quitar fuera de entre los israelitas a la persona que hace cosas malas" o "Tú debes ejecutar a la persona malvada".

Todo el pueblo debe escuchar y temer, y no actuar más arrogantemente Está implicado que cuando las personas escuchan acerca de una persona que fue ejecutada por actuar

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

arrogantemente, ellos tendrán miedo y no actuarán arrogantemente.

Deuteronomy 17:14

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando has venido a la tierra
La palabra "has venido" puede ser traducida como "ido a" o "ingresado".

Entonces tú dices; ' Yo pondré un rey sobre mí mismo, como todas las naciones que están a mi alrededor Ésta es una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces decides que quieres un rey como los pueblos de las naciones que te rodean tienen reyes"

Yo pondré un rey sobre mí mismo ... están a mi alrededor Moisés está hablando a la gente como si fueran una sola persona. Podría ser más natural traducir esto con pronombres plurales. Traducción Alterna: "Nos pondremos sobre nosotros mismos ... alrededor de nosotros"

pondré un rey sobre mí mismo
Darle a alguien la autoridad para gobernar como rey en Israel se menciona como si la gente estuviera colocando a la persona en un lugar por encima de ellos.

todas las naciones que están a mi alrededor
"Todas las naciones circundantes"

Todas las naciones
Aquí "naciones" representa a la gente que vive en las naciones.

Alguien de entre tus hermanos
"Uno de tus compañeros israelitas"

un extranjero, quien no es tu hermano, sobre ti Ambas frases significan la misma cosa. Ambas se refieren a una persona que no es israelita. EL SEÑOR está enfatizando que la gente de Israel no debería dejar que extranjero domine sobre ellos. Traducción Alterna: "Un extranjero sobre ti" o "Un no israelita sobre ti".

Deuteronomy 17:16

Porque EL SEÑOR te ha dicho: "Tú no debes desde ahora para siempre regresar por ese camino otra vez.'
Esta es una cita que tiene dentro una cita. Una cita directa puede ser declarada como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna: "Porque el SEÑOR te ha dicho que nunca deberías de retornar a Egipto de vuelta"

Para que su corazón no se aleje Aquí "corazón" se refiere a toda la persona. Un rey israelita que se casa con una extranjera y empieza a adorar a sus dioses falsos se menciona como que su corazón fue alejado del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Para que no le causen alejarse del SEÑOR y comiencen a adorar a dioses falsos" (VER: file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Deuteronomy 17:18

Cuando él se sienta en el trono de su reino
Aquí "trono" representa el poder de la persona y su autoridad como rey. Sentarse en el trono significa convertirse en rey. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando él se convierte en rey"

El debe escribir para sí mismo en un rollo una copia de esta ley Los posibles significados son:1)"Él debe escribir personalmente para sí mismo en un rollo una copia de esta ley" 2)"Debe designar a alguien para que escriba en un rollo una copia de esta ley para él" de la ley que es ante los sacerdotes, quienes son levitas

"De la copia de la ley que guardan los sacerdotes levíticos" para guardar todas las palabras de esta ley y estos estatutos, para observarlos Estas dos frases significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan que el rey debe obedecer toda la ley de Dios.

Deuteronomy 17:20

Para que su corazón no se alce sobre sus hermanos Aquí "su corazón" se refiere a la persona entera. Un rey volviéndose arrogante se menciona como si su corazón se alzara. Traducción Alterna: "Para que no se vuelva arrogante" o "Para que no piense que es mejor que sus compañeros israelitas".

así él no se aleje de los mandamientos, a la mano derecha o a la izquierda Un rey que desobedece los mandamientos de Dios es como decir que una persona se desvió del Un rey desobedeciendo los mandamientos de Dios se menciona como si la persona se saliera del camino correcto. Traducción Alterna: "Para que no desobedezca ninguno de los mandamientos" Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Para que él obedezca todos los mandamientos". (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Prolongar sus días
Días largos es una metáfora para una larga vida. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar "prolongar sus

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

días" en 4:25. Traducción Alterna: "Ser capaz de vivir mucho tiempo".

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 18

1 Los sacerdotes quienes son levitas, y toda la tribu de Leví, no tendrán ninguna porción ni herencia con Israel; ellos deberán comer las ofrendas del SEÑOR hechas por fuego como su herencia. 2 No deberán tener herencia entre sus hermanos; el Señor es su herencia, como Él les dijo. 3 Este será el derecho de los sacerdotes de parte de su pueblo, de aquellos que ofrecen un sacrificio, sea buey u oveja: deberán dar al sacerdote el hombro, las dos mejillas y las partes internas. 4 Los primeros frutos de tu grano, de tu vino nuevo y de tu aceite, y la primera lana de tu oveja le debes dar. 5 Porque el SEÑOR TU DIOS lo ha escogido de entre todas tus tribus para pararse a servir en el nombre del SEÑOR, ÉL y sus hijos para siempre. 6 Si un levita viene de cualquiera de tus pueblos fuera de todo Israel de donde está viviendo, y desea con toda su alma venir al lugar que EL SEÑOR escogerá, 7 entonces él deberá servir en el nombre del SEÑOR SU DIOS como todos sus hermanos los levitas hacen, quienes están parados allí ante ELSEÑOR. 8 Deberán tener porciones similares para comer, aparte de lo que venga de la venta de la herencia de su familia. 9 Cuando hayas venido a la tierra que el SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando, deberáS aprender a no observar las abominaciones de esas naciones. 10 No se debe encontrar entre ustedes ninguno que ponga a su hijo o su hija en el fuego, ninguno que use adivinación, ninguno que practique augurios, o ningún encantador, o ningún brujo, 11 ningún hechicero, ninguno que hable con los muertos, o cualquiera que hable con espíritus. 12 Quien sea que haga estas cosas es abominación al SEÑOR; es por estas abominaciones que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS los expulsa fuera de delante de ustedes. 13 Ustedes deben estar sin culpa delante del SEÑOR TU DIOS. 14 Estas naciones que vas a despojar escuchan a aquellos quienes practican la hechicería y la adivinación; pero en cuanto a ustedes, EL SEÑORTU DIOS no te ha permitido hacerlo. 15 El SEÑOR TU DIOS levantará un Profeta de entre ustedes, uno de tus hermanos, como yo. Ustedes deben escucharlo. 16 Esto es lo que ustedes pidieron al SEÑOR TU DIOS en Horeb en el día de la asamblea, diciendo: "No escuchemos nuevamente la Voz del SEÑOR NUESTRO DIOS, no veamos más este gran fuego, o moriremos". 17 El SEÑOR me dijo: "Lo que ellos han dicho es bueno. 18 Yo levantaré un Profeta para ellos de entre sus hermanos, como ustedes. Yo pondré mis Palabras en su boca, y él hablará a ellos todo lo que YO le mande. 19 Esto sucederá que si cualquiera no escucha a las palabras Mías que él habla en mi Nombre, yo le pediré cuentas. 20 Pero el profeta que hable una palabra arrogantemente en mi nombre, una palabra que yo no le he mandado a hablar, o quien hable en el nombre de otros dioses, ese profeta debe morir". 21 Esto es lo que debes decir en tu corazón: "¿Cómo reconoceremos un mensaje que el SEÑOR no ha hablado?" 22 Tú reconocerás un mensaje que EL SEÑOR ha hablado cuando un profeta hable en el nombre del SEÑOR. Si esto no ocurre o no sucede, entonces eso es algo que EL SEÑOR no há hablado y el profeta lo ha hablado arrogantemente, y ustedes no deben temer de él.

Deuteronomy 18:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente que es lo que EL SEÑOR quiere que ellos hagan

No tendrán ninguna porción ni herencia con Israel
Los levitas no recibiendo alguna tierra de EL SEÑOR es como decir que ellos no van a recibir herencia. Traducción Alterna: "No poseerán ninguna de las tierras de las personas" o "No recibirán ninguna de las tierras que los Israelitas poseeen".

Sin porción
"Sin parte" o "Sin compartir"

Entre sus hermanos
"Entre otras tribus de Israel" o "Entre los otros Israelitas"

EL SEÑOR es su herencia
Moisés habla de el gran honor que Aarón y sus descendientes tenian siriendo AL SEÑOR como sacerdotes como si EL SEÑOR fuera algo que elos pudieran heredar. Ve cómo traduciste una frase similar en deu:10:08. Traducción Alterna: "En su lugar, ellos tendrán a EL SEÑOR" O "En su lugar, EL SEÑOR les permitirá servirle y ÉL proveerá a ellos atraves de ese servicio".

Deuteronomy 18:3

De los sacerdotes
"reclamo de sacerdotes" o "parte de los sacerdotes"

Las partes internas
Estos son el estómago e instentinos

Debes dar a el
"Debes dar al sacerdote"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Lo ha elegido
Aquí "Él" representa a todos los levitas". (Ver:)

Para pararse a servir en el nombre de EL SEÑOR
Aquí "El nombre de EL SEÑOR" representa a EL SEÑOR mismo y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Para ser sus siervos especiales" o "Para servir como representantes de EL SEÑOR"

Él y sus hijos para siempre
Aquí "Él" representa a todos los levitas. Traducción Alterna: "Los levitas y sus descendientes por siempre.

Deuteronomy 18:6

Desee con toda su alma
Este es un modismo. Traducción Alterna: " Fuertes deseos" o "quiere de verdad"

Entonces el debe servir en el nombre de EL SEÑOR su Dios Aquí "nombre" representa a El señor y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces debe servirr a EL SEÑOR su Dios como sacerdote"

Quién está parado ante EL SEÑOR
"Quien sirve en el santuario en la presencia de EL SEÑOR"

La herencia de su familia
Esto es lo que el sacerdote va a heredar de su padre

Deuteronomy 18:9

Cuando hayas venido
Aquí "venido" puede ser traducido como "ido" o "ingresado"

No deberás aprender a observar las bominaciones de esas naciones
Dios odia las actividades religiosas de las personas en las naciones que rodean. Él las considera terriblemnete malvadas. Aquí "naciones" representa a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Tu no debes hacer las cosas terribles que la gente de itras naciones hacen".

No se debe encontrar entre ustedes cualquiera
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No debe haber nadie entre ustedes".

Ponga a su hijo o a su hija en el fuego
"Sacrifique a su hijo/a con fuego en un altar"

Cualquiera que use la adivinación ... que hable con espíritus
Estas son diferentes personas que practican magia. Dios prohibe todo tipo de magia. Si tu no tienes una palabra para todos estos tipos de personas, puede ser declarado más generalmente. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquiera que use magia para tratar de averiguar que pasará en el futuro, lanzar hechizos, o para hablar con espíritus de personas muertas"

Augurio
El uso de la magia para predecir el futuro.

Deuteronomy 18:12

los expulsa
Aquí "los" hace referencia a las personas que ya viven en Canaán

Estas naciones
Aquí "naciones" representa a los grupos de personas que viven en Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "Este grupo de personas".

despojar
"Desplazar" o "expulsar"

Deuteronomy 18:15

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

EL SEÑOR tu Dios levantará un profeta
EL SEÑOR nombrando a una persona para ser profeta se menciona como si EL SEÑOR va a elevar o levantar a la persona.

Uno de tus hermanos
"Uno de tus compañeros israelitas"

Esto es lo que ustedes pidieron
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a los israelitas en el monte Horeb unos 40 años antes.

En Horeb en el día de la asamblea
""En el día que juntos se reunieron en el Horeb"

día de la asamblea, diciendo: 'No escuchemos nuevamente la voz del SEÑOR nuestro Dios, no veamos más este gran fuego, o moriremos.'
Esto tiene una cita dentro de una cita. Una cita directa puede ser declarada como una cita directa. Traducción Alterna: "El día de la asamblea cuando dijeron que no querían escuchar la voz del SEÑOR su Dios, ni ver más su gran fuego, porque temían que morirían"

No escuchemos nuevamente la voz del SEÑOR nuestro Diosro Dios Aquí "voz" representa al SEÑOR hablando. Traducción Alterna: " No volvamos a escuchar al SEÑOR nuestro Dios hablar otra vez"

Deuteronomy 18:17

Yo levantaré un profeta para ellos
El SEÑOR nombrando a una persona profeta se menciona como si EL SEÑOR va a levantar o elevar a la persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

De entre sus hermanos
"De entre sus compañeros israelitas"

Yo pondré mis palabras en su boca
EL SEÑOR diciendo al profeta qué decir se menciona como si EL SEÑOR pondrá palabras en la boca del profeta.

hablará a ellos
"Hablará a la gente de Israel"

no escucha a las palabras mías que él habla en mi nombre Aquí "palabras" representa lo que EL SEÑOR dice. Aquí lafigura literaria (metonimia) "mi nombre" repreesenta al SEÑOR y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "No le escuchan cuando él dice mi mensaje"

le pediré cuentas
"Lo haré responsable" o "Lo castigaré". Aquí "le" se refiere a la persona que no escucha al profeta.

Deuteronomy 18:20

Información General
EL SEÑOR continúa hablando

que hable una palabra arrogantemente Aquí "palabra" representa al mensaje. Traducción Alterna: "Quien se atreva a hablar un mensaje" o "Quien sea lo suficientemente arrogante para hablar un mensaje"

En mi nombre
Aquí "mi nombre" se refiere al SEÑOR mismo y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Por mi" o "Con mi autoridad" una palabra que yo no le he mandado Aquí "palabra" representa al mensaje. Traducción Alterna: "Un mensaje que no he ordenado" quien hable en el nombre de otros dioses

Aquí "nombre" representa a los dioses mismos o su autoridad. Esto significa que el profeta afirma que los dioses falsos le dijeron que hablara un mensaje determinado.

Esto es lo que debes decir en tu corazón
Aquí "corazón" representa los pensamientos de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Te preguntas a ti mismo" o "Debes deciter a ti mismo" ¿Cómo reconoceremos un mensaje que el SEÑOR no ha hablado?

"¿Como nosotros sabremos si el mensaje que el profeta dice es del SEÑOR?" Aquí "reconoceremos" hace referencia a la gente de Israel

Deuteronomy 18:22

Información General
EL SEÑOR continúa hablando

Un profeta habla en el nombre de EL SEÑOR
Aquí "nombre de EL SEÑOR" se refiere a EL SEÑOR mismo y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Un profeta afirma hablar por mi" o "un profeta afirma hablar con mi autoridad"

El profeta ha hablado arrogantemente
"El profeta ha hablado este mensaje sin mi autorización"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 19

1 Cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS quite las naciones, aquellas cuyas tierras EL SEÑOR TU DIOS le está dando a ustedes, y cuando ustedes vengan después de ellos y vivan en sus ciudades y casas, 2 ustedes deben seleccionar tres ciudades para ustedes mismos en medio de la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS está dándoles a ustedes para que posean. 3 Ustedes deben construir un camino y dividir los bordes de la tierra en tres partes, la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está dando a heredar, para que así todo quien mate a otra persona pueda huir allá. 4 Esta es la ley para aquel que mate a otro y huya allá para vivir: cualquiera que mate a su vecino sin querer, y no lo odiaba previamente, 5 como cuando un hombre va al bosque con su vecino a cortar madera y su mano tira con el acha para cortar un árbol, y la cabeza se desliza del eje y golpea a su vecino y él muere, entonces ese hombre debe huir a una de estas ciudades y vivir. 6 De otra forma el vengador de la sangre irá detrás de aquel quien tomó una vida, y ardiendo en cólera le alcance porque fue un largo viaje. Y él le golpee y le mate, aunque ese hombre no merecía morir; y él no merece la pena de muerte ya que él no odiaba a su vecino antes de que esto sucediera. 7 Por consiguiente, Yo ordeno que seleccionen tres ciudades para ustedes mismos. 8 Si EL SEÑOR TU DIOS extiende tus fronteras, como ÉL había jurado a tus antepasados hacer, y te dé toda la tierra que ÉL prometió dar a tus antepasados; 9 Y si tú mantienes todos estos mandamientos para hacerlos, los cuales yo estoy ordenando a ustedes hoy, mandamientos para amar al SEÑOR TU DIOS y para siempre caminar en sus caminos, entonces ustedes deben añadir tres ciudades más para ustedes mismos, además de estas tres. 10 Haz esto para que sangre inocente no sea derramada en medio de la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está dando a ustedes como una herencia, de tal forma que no se derrame culpa de sangre sobre ustedes. 11 Si alguno odia a su vecino, lo acecha, se levanta y le hiere mortalmente de tal forma que muera, y si entonces huye a una de estas ciudades, 12 entonces los ancianos de su ciudad lo mandaran traer de vuelta de allí, y lo entregarán en las manos de algún pariente responsable de la víctima, así el puede morir. 13 Tu ojo no sienta pena por él, sino que debes erradicar la sangre del culpable de Israel, para que te vaya bien. 14 No debes remover el punto de referencia del terreno de tu vecino que se estableció hace largo tiempo atrás, en la heredad que tu Dios te dió para que poseas. 15 Un solo testigo no se levantará en contra de una persona por alguna iniquidad, o pecado, en ningún asunto que pecare, de la boca de dos o tres testigos debe ser confirmado cualquier asunto. 16 Imagina que un testigo injusto se levante a testificar falsamente en contra de cualquiera, de que hizo mal. 17 Entonces ambos hombres, entre los que existe la controversia, deben venir delante del SEÑOR, delante de los sacerdotes y de los jueces que sirven en esos días. 18 Los jueces deberán investigar diligentemente; ver si el testigo es falso y ha testificado falsamente contra su hermano, 19 entonces debes hacerle a él lo que quiso hacerle a su hermano y removerás el mal de entre ustedes. 20 Entonces los que queden escucharán y temerán y no desearán cometer semejante maldad entre ellos. 21 No tengas misericordia; vida por vida, ojo por ojo, diente por diente, mano por mano, pie por pie.

Deuteronomy 19:1

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando EL SEÑOR tu Dios quite las naciones
El SEÑOR destruyendo a la gente que vive en Canaán se menciona como si ÉL estuviera cortándolos, como uno cotaría una pieza de ropa o cortaría una rama de un árbol.

Las naciones
Esto representa el grupo de personas que viven en Canaán

aquellas cuyas tierras el SEÑOR tu Dios le está dando a ustedes
"Aquellas naciones que estaban viviendo en la tierra que EL SEÑOR su Dios les está dando"

vengan después de ellos
"Tomen la tierra de esas naciones" o "posean la tierra después de que esas naciones se hayan ido"

Seleccionar tres ciudades
"Elegir 3 ciudades"

Ustedes deben construir un camino
Ellos debían construir carreteras, así eso haría fácil a la gente viajar a esas ciudades.

dividir los bordes de la tierra en tres partes Esto implica que una de las ciudades que elijan debe estar en cada parte del territorio

la tierra que el SEÑOR tu Dios les está otorgando heredar EL SEÑOR dando la tierra a la gente de Israel se menciona como si la gente está heredando la tierra

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 19:4

Esta es la ley
"Estas son las instrucciones" o "Estas son las direcciones"

Para el que mate a otro
La palabra "persona" es sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "La persona que mate a otra persona"

y huya allí
"y quien escape a una de esas ciudades" o "y quien corra a una de esasciudades"

A vivir
"Para salvar su propia vida". El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: " Entonces la familia del hombre que murió no va a matarlo para tomar venganza"

Cualquiera que mate a su vecino sin querer Aquí "vecino" quiere decir cualquier persona en general. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquier persona que mate a otra persona por accidente"

y no lo odiaba previamente
"Pero no odiaba a su vecino antes de matarlo". Esto implica que no hubo causa para que él matara a su vecino a propósito.

como cuando un hombre va al bosque ... a cortar madera
El autor da una situación hipotética donde una persona accidentalmente mata a otra persona.

La cabeza se desliza del eje
La parte de hierro del hacha se suelta del mango

golpea a su vecino y él muere
Esto significa que la cabeza del hacha golpea y mata al vecino.

a una de estas ciudades y vivir
"A una de estas ciudades para salvar su propia vida". Se implica que la familia del hombre muerto puede tratar de vengarse. El hombre que lo mato puede huir a una de estas ciudades, y las personas ahí podrán protegerlo.

Deuteronomy 19:6

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

El vengador de la sangre
Aquí "sangre" representa a la persona que fue asesinada. Un "vengador de la sangre" es un pariente cercano de una persona que fue muerta. Este pariente es el responsable del castigo del asesino.

Quien tomó una vida
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "El que mató a la otra persona.

En el calor de su ira Alguien estando muy enojado se menciona como si la ira es algo que se puede volver caliente. Traducción Alterna: "Y estando muy enojado".

le golpee y le mate
"Y el vengador de sangre ataca y mata al que habia matado a la otra persona".

aunque ese hombre no merecía morir, ya que él no odiaba a su vecino en el pasado
"Aunque ese hombre no merecia morir ya que accidentalmente mató a otra persona y no fue su enemigo, y él no había planeado herir al hombre

Deuteronomy 19:8

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Extiende tus fronteras
"Darte más tierras para poseer"

como Él había jurado a tus antepasados hacer
"Como él prometió a tus ancestros que iba a hacer"

Si guardas todos estos mandamientos para hacerlos
"Si tú obedeces todos estos mandamientos"

para siempre caminar en sus caminos
Como Dios quiere que una persona viva o se comporte es como si fuera el camino o carretera del SEÑOR. La persona que obedece al SEÑOR es como decir que él está caminando en el camino o carretera del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "Siempre obedecerlo"

entonces ustedes deben añadir tres ciudades más para ustedes mismos
El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecho explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces debes elegir tres ciudades más para una persona escape a ella si la misma accidentalmente mató a alguien".

Además de estas tres
"Además de las tres ciudades que ya estableciste"

Haz esto para que sangre inocente no sea derramada Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Haz esto para que los miembros de la familia no maten a una persona inocente".

sangre inocente no sea derramada Aquí "sangre" representa a la vida de la persona. Derramar sangre quiere decir matar a una persona. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Nadie mate a una persona

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

inocente" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

En medio de la tierra
"En la tierra" o "En el territorio"

el SEÑOR tu Dios les está dando a ustedes como una herencia La tierra que EL SEÑOR está dando a la gente de Israel se menciona como si fuera una herencia.

Para que no haya culpa de sangre en ustedes
La gente de Israel siendo culpables por una persona muerta porque ellos no construyeron una ciudad donde él estaría a salvo de los "vengadores de sangre" se menciona como si la culpa de su muerte está en ellos.

culpa de sangre
Aquí "sangre" representa a la vida y "culpa de sangre" se refiere a la culpa que alguien tiene por matar a una persona inocente.

en ustedes
Esto significa que si los miembros de la familia matan a una persona inocente, entonces toda la gente de Israel va a ser culpable por dejar que eso suceda.

Deuteronomy 19:11

Su vecino
Aquí "vecino" se refiere a cualquier persona en general.

lo acecha
El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Se esconde y espera para matarlo" o "Planea matarlo"

Se levanta contra él
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Lo atraca"

y le hiere mortalmente de tal forma que muera
"Y lo lastima para que muera" o "Y lo mata" enviarán y lo traerán de vuelta

"Deben enviar a alguien para que lo busque y traiga de vuelta de la ciudad a la que escapó"

lo traerán de vuelta Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Entréguenlo" en las manos de algún pariente responsable Aquí "las manos" representa la autoridad de alguien. Traducción Alterna: "A la autoridad del familiar responsable" o "Al familiar responsable"

pariente responsable
Este es el pariente de la persona que fue asesinada. Este pariente es responsable de dar castigo al asesino.

él puede morir
"El asesino puede morir" o "El pariente responsable puede ejecutar al asesino"

Tu ojo no sienta pena por él Aqui "tu ojo" representa a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "No le muestres misericordia" o "No sientas pena por él".

debes erradicar la culpa de sangre de Israel Aqui " la culpa de sangre" representa a la culpa por asesinar a una persona inocente. Traducción Alterna: "Deben ejecutar al asesino para que la gente de Israel no sea culpable de la muerte de una persona inocente.

De Israel
Aqui "Israel" se refiere a la gente de Israel.

Deuteronomy 19:14

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

No debes remover el punto de referencia del terreno de tu vecino El completo significado puede estar explícito. Traducción Alterna: "No debes tomar la tierra de tu vecino moviendo los marcadores de los bordes de su tierra"

que se estableció
"Que tus antepasados colocaron"

hace largo tiempo atrás
Moisés quiere decir que cuando la gente vivia en la tierra por un largo tiempo, no debian mover los bordes que sus ancestros hicieron cuando ellos primero tomaron la tierra.

en la heredad que tu Dios te dió para que poseas.
EL SEÑOR dando tierra a la gente de Israel se menciona como si ellos estuvieran heredando la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "En la tierra que EL SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando para que la poseas".

Deuteronomy 19:15

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Un solo testigo
"Un solo testigo" o "solo un testigo"

no se levantará en contra de una persona Aqui "levantará" significa pararse arriba en la corte y hablar en contra de alguien a el juez. Traducción

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Alterna: "No debe hablar a los jueces acerca de algo malo que ese hombre ha hecho"

en ningún asunto en que pecare
"Cada vez que un hombre hace algo malo"

de la boca de dos o tres testigos Aquí "boca" representa lo que el testigo dice. Está implicado que debe al menos haber dos o tres testigos. Traducción Alterna: "Al testimonio de al menos dos o tres personas" o "basado en que al menos dos o tres personas dicen que ha pasado"

debe ser confirmado cualquier asunto
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Confirmarás que el hombre es culpable".

Imagina que
"Cuando" o "si"

Un testigo injusto
"Un testigo que intente dañar a otra persona"

se levante a testificar erróneamente
Aquí "levante" significa pararse arriba en la corte y hablar encontra de alguien al juez. Traducción Alterna: "Dice al juez que un hombre pecó para poner al hombre en problemas" o "Dice al juez que un hombre pecó, para que el juez lo castigue"

Deuteronomy 19:17

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

entre los cuales existe la controversia
"Los que no están de acuerdo unos con otros"

deben venir delante del SEÑOR, delante de los sacerdotes y de los jueces Esto significa que dos personas deben ir al santuario donde mora la presencia del SEÑOR . En el santuario hay jueces y sacerdotes que tienen la autoridad para hacer decisiones legales para EL SEÑOR.

venir delante del SEÑOR, delante de los sacerdotes y de los jueces
La frase "venir delante" es una expresión idiomática. Esto significa ir a alguien con autoridad y dejar que él haga una decisión legal acerca del asunto.

Los jueces deberán investigar diligentemente
"Los jueces deben trabajar muy duro para determinar que ha ocurrido" entonces debes hacerle a él lo que quiso hacerle a su hermano

"Luego debes castigar a el testigo falso de la misma manera que el quería castigar al otro hombre"

quitarás el mal de entre ustedes
El sustantivo abstracto "el mal" puede ser declarado como un adjetivo. Traducción Alterna: "Al castigar al falso testigo, castigarás esta práctica malvada dentro de tu nación"

Deuteronomy 19:20

Entonces los que queden
"Cuando castigas al falso testigo, el resto de las personas"

escucharán y temerán
El completo significado de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Escucharán sobre el castigo y temerán ser castigados"

no desearán cometer semejante maldad
"Nunca más harán algo malo como eso"

Tus ojos no deberían tener lástima
Aquí "ojos" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "No debes sentir lástima por él" o "No le debes mostrar misericordia"

La vida se pagará por la vida... pie por pie Aquí las frases son acortadas porque el significado es sobrentendido. Eso significa que la gente debe castigar a una persona de la misma manera en que haya dañado a otra persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 20

1 Cuando marches hacia la batalla en contra de tus enemigos, y veas caballos, carros, y gente más numerosa que tú, no tengas miedo de ellos; porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS está contigo, el que te sacó de la tierra de Egipto. 2 Cuando estés a punto de entrar a la batalla, el sacerdote debe acercarse y hablarle a la gente. 3 El debe decirles: "Oye, Israel, vas a la guerra contra tus enemigos. No desmaye tu corazón. No temas o tiembles. No tengas miedo de ellos. 4 Porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS es el que vá contigo, a pelear por tí en contra de tus enemigos y salvarte". 5 Los oficiales deben hablarle a la gente y decirles: "Hay algún hombre que haya construido una casa y no ha vivido en ella? Déjenle regresar a su casa, no sea que muera en batalla y otro hombre la estrene. 6 Hay alguno que haya plantado una viña y no haya disfrutado de su fruto? Déjelo que vaya a casa, no sea que muera en batalla y otro hombre disfrute su fruto. 7 Qué hombre hay que esté comprometido en matrimonio pero no se ha casado aún? Déjenle ir a casa no sea que muera en batalla y otro se case con ella". 8 Los oficiales deben hablarle al pueblo y decirle: "¿Hay algún hombre que es miedoso o que desfallece? Déjenle regresar a casa no sea que el corazón de su hermano desfallezca igual que su propio corazón". 9 Cuando los oficiales hayan terminado de hablarle a la gente, deben nombrar comandantes sobre ellos. 10 Cuando ustedes marchen para atacar una ciudad, háganles una oferta de paz a esas personas. 11 Si ellos aceptan tu oferta y te abren sus puertas, todas las personas que se encuentren allí serán forzados a trabajar para ustedes y deben servirte. 12 Pero si no hacen una oferta de paz, y en cambio hacen guerra contra ustedes, entonces ustedes deben sitiarla, 13 y cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te dé la victoria y los ponga bajo tu control, ustedes deben matar a todo hombre en el pueblo. 14 Pero a las mujeres, a los pequeños, al ganado, y todo lo que está en la ciudad, y todas las cosas de valor, ustedes tomarán como botín para ustedes mismos. Consumirán el botín de tu enemigos, los cuales EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado. 15 Debes actuar de esta manera contra todas las ciudades que están muy lejos de tí, ciudades que no son las ciudades de las siguientes naciones. 16 En las ciudades de estas personas que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando como herencia, NO debes mantener vivo nada que respire. 17 En cambio, debes destruirlos completamente: al hitita y el amorreo, el cananeo, el ferezeo, el heveos y el jebuseo, como EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha ordenado. 18 Haz esto para que ellos no te enseñen a actuar en ninguna de sus maneras abominables, como ellos han hecho con sus dioses. Si lo haces, pecarás contra EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 19 Cuando sitees una ciudad por un largo tiempo, mientras le haces guerra contra ella para capturarla, ustedes no deben destruir sus árboles empuñando un hacha contra ellos. Pues ustedes pueden comer de ellos, así que no debes derribarlos. ¿Pues es el árbol del campo como un hombre a quien debas sitiar? 20 Solamente los árboles que ustedes conozcan que no son árboles para comida, ustedes pueden destruir y derribar; ustedes construirán obras de asedio contra la ciudad que hizo guerra con ustedes, hasta que caiga.

Deuteronomy 20:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando marches hacia la batalla en contra de tus enemigos
"Cuando vayas afuera a pelear en la guerra encontra de tus enemigos"

Y veas caballos, carros
Las personas consideran a una armada con muchos caballos y carros como muy fuerte. El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita.(Ver:)

ÉL que te sacó de la tierra de Egipto
EL SEÑOR sacó a las personas de Egipto a Canaán. Era común usar la palabra "subir" para referirse a viajar desde Egipto a Canaán. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR que los guió afuera de la tierra de Egipto"

Deuteronomy 20:2

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Hablarle a la gente
"Hablar a los soldados de Israel"

No desmaye tu corazón. No temas o tiembles. No tengas miedo de ellos Estas cuatro expresiones significan la misma cosa y enfatizan fuertemente que ellos no deben tener miedo. Si su idioma no tiene cuatro maneras de expresar este concepto, puede usar menos de cuatro.

No desmaye tu corazón Aquí "corazón" representa a la valentía de las personas. Un corazón que desmaya es una

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

expresión idiomática que significa "No tengan miedo" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

el SEÑOR tu DIOS es el que vá contigo, a pelear por tí en contra de tus enemigos EL SEÑOR derrotando a los enemigos de la gente de Israel se menciona como si EL SEÑOR fuera un guerrero que va a pelear junto con el pueblo de Israel.

y salvarte
"Para darte la victoria"

Deuteronomy 20:5

Información General
Moisés dice lo que los oficiales de la armada deben decir a la gente de Israel antes de la batalla

Los oficiales deben hablarle
Uno de los trabajos de los oficiales era el decidir quien podría dejar el ejército. El completo significado de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito.

Hay algún hombre ... Déjenle regresar a su casa
"Si algún soldado aquí ha construido una nueva casa y no la ha dedicado, debería volver a su casa"

no sea que muera en batalla y otro hombre la dedique
El oficial está describiendo la situación que posiblemente podría pasar a un soldado. Traducción Alterna: "De modo que, si muere en la batalla, otro hombre no dedicará su casa en lugar de él".

Deuteronomy 20:6

Información General
Moisés continúa describiendo situaciones que permiten a un hombre dejar la milicia.

Si hay alguno que haya plantado ... Déjenlo que vaya a casa
"Si algún soldado aqui tiene un nuevo viñedo, pero aún no ha cosechado sus uvas, debe regresar a su casa"

No sea que muera en batalla y otro hombre disfrute de su fruto
El oficial está describiendo una situación que posiblemente podría pasar a un soldado. Traducción Alterna: "De modo que, si muere en batalla, otro hombre no cosechará su fruto en lugar de él.

¿Qué hombre hay que está comprometido para casarse con una mujer? .. Déjenlo ir a casa
"Si cualquier soldado ahí ha prometido casarse con una mujer, pero no se ha casado aún, debe ir de vuelta a su casa"

no sea que muera en batalla y otro se case con ella
El oficial está describiendo una situación que es posible que pueda ocurrir a un soldado. Traducción Alterna: "Para que, si él muere en la batalla, otro hombre no se case con ella en lugar de él".

Deuteronomy 20:8

Información General
Moisés continúa describiendo situaciones que permiten a un hombre dejar la milicia

¿Hay algún hombre que es miedoso o que desfallece? Déjenle regresar a casa "Si algún soldado aquí está temeroso y no es valiente, él debe volver a su casa"

miedoso o que desfallece Ambas palabras significan básicamente la misma cosa. Traducción Alterna: "Temeroso de pelear en batalla" el corazón de su hermano desfallezca igual que su propio corazón Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Otro israelita no tiene miedo como él tiene miedo".

Corazón de su hermano ... Su propio corazón
Aquí "corazón" representa la valentía de una persona.

Deben nombrar comandantes sobre ellos
"Los oficiales deben nombrar personas para ser comandantes y para liderar a las personas de Israel"

Deuteronomy 20:10

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando ustedes marchen para atacar una ciudad Aquí "ciudad" representa a la gente. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando vas atacar a la gente de la ciudad" háganle una oferta de paz a esas personas

"Den a la gente en la ciudad el chance de rendirse"

abren sus puertas
Aquí "puertas" se refiere a las puertas de la ciudad. La frase "abren sus puertas" representa a las personas rindiéndose y permitiendo a los israelitas entrar a su ciudad. Traducción Alterna: "Permiten entrar en su ciudad pacíficamente" (VER:

Todas las personas que se encuentran allí Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Toda persona en la ciudad". (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/

serán forzados a trabajar para ustedes
"Deben volverse sus esclavos"

Deuteronomy 20:12

Pero si no hacen una oferta de paz
Aqui "hacen" se refiere a la ciudad que representa a las personas.vTraducción Alterna: "Pero si las personas de la ciudad no se rinden" o "Pero si las personas de la ciudad no aceptan la oferta de paz que ofrecen".

Deuteronomy 20:14

Los pequeños
"Los niños"

Y todo su botín
"Y todas las cosas valiosas"

Botín
Estas son las cosas valiosas que las personas que ganan una batalla toman de las personas que atacaron.

Todas las ciudades
Aquí "ciudades" representa a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Todas las personas que viven en las ciudades".

Deuteronomy 20:16

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

En las ciudades de estas personas que el SEÑOR tu Dios te está dando como herencia Las ciudades en Canaán que EL SEÑOR está dando a la gente se mencionan como si las ciudades fueran la herencia de las personas.

no debes mantener vivo nada que respire
"No debes dejar vivir a ningún ser vivo". Esto puede ser declarado en forma positiva. Traducción Alterna: "Debes matar a todo ser viviente"

Debes destruirlos completamente
"Debes destruir completamente estos grupos de personas"

Haz esto para que ellos
"Destruye estas naciones para que ellos"

Actuar en ninguna de sus ninguna abominables ... sus dioses
"Actuar de manera abominable como la gente de estas naciones ha hecho con sus dioses

Si lo haces, pecarás contra EL SEÑOR tu Dios
"Si actúas como esta gente, pecarás contra EL SEÑOR tu Dios"

Deuteronomy 20:19

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

haces guerra
"Luchar en la guerra"

empuñando un hacha contra ellos
"Cortando los árboles con un hacha"

¿Pues es el árbol del campo un hombre a quien debas sitiar?
Esta pregunta retórica recuerda a las personas lo que ya deberían saber. Esta pregunta puede traducirse como una declaración. Traducción Alterna: "Porque los árboles frutales no son personas, entonces no son tu enemigo".

conozcan que no son árboles para comida
"conozcan que no son árboles que producen frutos para comer"

Obras de asedio
Estas son herramientas y estructuras, como escaleras y torres, que se necesitan para asediar una ciudad.

Hasta que caiga
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Hasta que la gente de la ciudad pierda la guerra".

que caiga
Aquí "caiga" se refiere a la ciudad que representa las personas de la ciudad.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 21

1 Si alguien es hallado muerto en la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando para poseer, acostado en el campo, y no se sabe quién lo atacó; 2 entonces tus ancianos y jueces deberán salir, y deberán medir hasta las ciudades que estén alrededor de el que ha sido asesinado. 3 Entonces los ancianos del pueblo más cercano al cuerpo del hombre muerto deberán tomar una novilla de la manada, una que nunca haya sido puesta a trabajar, y que no haya llevado yugo. 4 Entonces deberán llevar la novilla abajo a un valle con aguas corriendo, un valle que no haya sido arado ni sembrado, y allí en el valle deberán romper el cuello de la novilla. 5 Los sacerdotes, descendientes de Leví, deberán acercarse; pues a quellos que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS ha escogido para que le sirvan y para bendecir a las personas en el nombre del SEÑOR; escuchen a sus consejos, pues sus palabras serán el veredicto en toda disputa y caso de asalto. 6 Todos los ancianos de la ciudad más cercana al hombre muerto deberán lavar sus manos sobre la novilla cuyo cuello fue roto en el valle; 7 y deberán responder al caso y decir: "Nuestras manos no han derramado esta sangre, ni nuestros ojos la han visto. 8 Perdona, SEÑOR, a tu pueblo Israel, a quien tú has redimido, y no pongas culpa por sangre inocente derramada en medio de tu pueblo Israel". Entonces la sangre derramada les será perdonada. 9 De esta manera quitarás la sangre inocente de en medio de tÍ, cuando hagas lo que es correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR. 10 Cuando tu salgas a la batalla en contra de tus enemigos EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te da la victoria y los pone bajo tu control, y tu te los lleves como cautivos, 11 si tu ves entre los cautivos una mujer hermosa y tu tienes un deseo por ella y deseas tomarla para tí como una esposa, 12 entonces tú la llevarás al hogar de tu casa; ella rapará su cabeza y cortará sus uñas. 13 Entonces ella se quitará la ropa que ella vestía cuando ella fue tomada cautiva y ella permanecerá en tu casa y llorará por su padre y su madre un mes completo. Después de eso tu puedes dormir con ella y ser su esposo, y ella será tu esposa. 14 Pero si no encuentras deleite en ella, entonces tú puedes dejarla ir a donde ella desee. Pero tú no debes venderla en absoluto por dinero, y tú no debes tratarla como una esclava, porque tú la has humillado. 15 Si un hombre tiene dos esposas y una es amada y la otra es odiada, y ambas le han dado a él hijos, tanto la esposa amada y la esposa odiada, si el hijo primogénito es de esa que es odiada, 16 entonces el día que el hombre reparta a sus hijos la heredad que él posee, él no puede hacer el hijo de la esposa amada el primogénito antes del hijo de la esposa odiada, el hijo quien es ciertamente el primogénto. 17 En cambio, él debe reconocer el primogénito, el hijo de la esposa odiada, dándole a él una doble porción de todo eso que él posee; ya que ese hijo es el inicio de su fuerza; el derecho de la primogenitura pertenece a él. 18 Si un hombre tiene un hijo terco y rebelde que no obedece la voz de su padre o la voz de su madre, y quien aún aunque ellos lo corrijan no los escucha a ellos; 19 entonces su padre y su madre deberán agarrarlo y llevarlo afuera a los ancianos de su ciudad y a la puerta de su ciudad. 20 Ellos deben decir a los ancianos de su ciudad: "Este hijo de nosotros es terco y rebelde; él no obedece nuestra voz; él es un glotón y un borracho". 21 Entonces todos los hombres de esa ciudad deberán apedrearlo hasta morir con piedras; y tu removerás la maldad de entre tí. Todo Israél escuchará de esto y temerá. 22 Si un hombre ha cometido un pecado digno de muerte y se le ha dado muerte, y tu lo cuelgas a él de un árbol, 23 entonces su cuerpo no debe permanecer toda la noche en el árbol. En cambio, tú debes seguramente enterrarlo el mismo día; quien sea colgado es maldito por DIOS. Obedece este mandamiento, de esta forma tu no contaminarás la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando en heredad.

Deuteronomy 21:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Si alguien es hallado muerto
Esto puede ser declarado en forma cativa.
Traducción Alterna: "Si alguien encuentra a alguien a quien otra persona ha matado"

Acostado en el campo
La persona muerta está acostada en el campo

Y no se sabe quién lo ha atacó
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa.
Traducción Alterna: "Y nadie sabe quién lo ha atacado".

deberán medir hasta las ciudades
"Deben medir la distancia a las ciudades"

del que ha sido asesinado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa.
Traducción Alterna: "Aquel a quien alguien ha matado" o "El cuerpo muerto".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 21:3

No ha llevado el yugo
"No ha usado un yugo"

Agua corriendo
Esta es una expresión idiomática para el agua que se está moviendo. Traducción Alterna: "Una corriente".

Un valle que no haya sido arado ni sembrado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Un valle donde nadie ha arado la tierra o plantado semillas".

Deuteronomy 21:5

Inofrmación General
Moisés Continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

deberán acercarse
"Deben venir al valle"

pues a ellos el SEÑOR tu Dios ha escogido para que le sirvan
"Porque el sacerdote es a quien EL SEÑOR tu Dios ha elegido para servirle"

EL SEÑOR tu Dios
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si estuviera hablando a un hombre.

Para bendecir a las personas
"Para bendecir a la gente de Israel"

En el nombre del SEÑOR
Aquí la figura literaria (metonimia) "en el nombre del" se refiere al SEÑOR y su autoridad. Traducción Alterna: "Como quien dice y hace lo que el propio SEÑOR diría y haría".

escuchen sus consejos
"Escuchen lo que dicen los sacerdotes"

pues sus palabras serán el veredicto Aquí la figura literaria (metonimia) "Sus palabras" se refiere a lo que los sacerdotes dicen. Traducción Alterna: "Porque sea lo que diga el sacerdote, esa será la decisión".

en toda disputa y caso de asalto
"Cada vez que las personas estén en el tribunal de justicia porque no están de acuerdo entre sí o alguien lastima a otra persona".

Deuteronomy 21:6

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

la novilla cuyo cuello fue roto Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La novilla cuyo cuello quebró el sacerdote".

y deberán responder al caso
"Y ellos deberán testificar al SEÑOR acerca de este caso".

Nuestras manos no han derramado esta sangre Aquí "manos" es una figura literaria (sinécdoque) para la persona completa y "derramado esta sangre" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para referirse a matar a una persona inocente. Traducción Alterna: "No hemos matado a esta persona inocente". (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Ni nuestros ojos la han visto Aquí "ojos" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Y no vimos a alguien matar a esta persona"

Deuteronomy 21:8

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendoles a los ancianos lo que deberían decir cuando se lavan las manos sobre la novilla. Habla a ellos como si estuviera hablando a un hombre.

A quien has redimido
EL SEÑOR rescatando a la gente de Israel de ser esclavos en Egipto se menciona como si EL SEÑOR pagó con dinero para redimir a su gente de la esclavitud.

y no pongas culpa por sangre inocente derramada en medio de tu pueblo Israel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Y no trates a tu gente Israel como si ellos fueran culpables de matar a una persona inocente".

Entonces la sangre derramada les será perdonada
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces EL SEÑOR va a perdonar a su pueblo Israel por la muerte de una persona inocente".

quitarás la sangre inocente de en medio de ti
"Ya no serás culpable por matar a una persona inocente"

lo que es correcto ante los ojos del SEÑOR
Las palabras "en los ojos del SEÑOR" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para "Lo que EL SEÑOR piensa que es correcto".

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 21:10

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel como si estuviera hablando a un hombre.

Tu salgas
"Ustedes que son soldados salgan afuera"(Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Tienes un deseo por ella Usa una frase cortés para "tú quieres acostarte con ella" deseas tomarla para ti como una esposa

"Quieres casarte con ella"

Ella rapará su cabeza
"Ella se rasurará el pelo de la cabeza"

cortará sus uñas
"Cortará las uñas de sus dedos"

Deuteronomy 21:13

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel como si fueran un hombre.

Entonces ella se quitará la ropa que ella vestía
Ella hará esto después de que el hombre la traiga a su casa y cuando se rasure la cabeza y se corte las uñas de sus manos y las uñas de sus pies como se menciona en 21:10. El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Ella se quitará la ropa de su gente y se pondrá ropa israelÍ"

Cuando ella fue tomada cautiva
Esta puede ser una declaración en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando la tomaste cautiva"

Un mes completo
"Un mes entero" o "Todo el mes"

Pero si no encuentras deleite en ella
Es posible que tenga que hacer explícito que el hombre duerme con la mujer. Traducción Alterna: "Pero si duermes con ella y entonces decides que no la quieres como esposa"

puedes dejarla ir a donde ella desee
"Déjala ir donde sea que ella quiera ir" porque tú la has humillado

"Porque la has avergonzado durmiendo con ella y luego enviándola lejos"

Deuteronomy 21:15

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

y una es amada y la otra odiada Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: Posibles significados:1) "Y el hombre ama a una de sus esposas y odia a la otra" o 2) "Y el hombre ama a una esposa más de lo que ama a la otra"

y ambas le han dado a él hijos
"Y ambas esposas han tenido hijos con él"

si el hijo primogénito es de esa que es odiada Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si el primogénito pertenece a la esposa que el hombre odia"

Entonces en el día que el hombre
"Cuando el hombre"

el hombre reparta a sus hijos la heredad que él posee
"El hombre da sus posesiones a sus hijos como una herencia" él no puede hacer al hijo de la esposa amada el primogénito antes que el hijo de la esposa odiada

"El no debe tratar al hijo de la esposa amada como si el fuera el primogénito en lugar del hijo de la esposa odiada"

una doble porción
"Dos veces más"

ese hijo es el inicio de su fuerza
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Ese hijo es el que muestra que el hombre puede volverse padre de hijos"

Deuteronomy 21:18

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

que no obedecerá la voz de su padre o la voz de su madre Aquí "voz" es una figura literaria (metonimia) de lo que una persona dice. Traducción Alterna: "Quien no obedece lo que su padre o madre dice"

Ellos lo corrijan
"Ellos lo castiguen por sus malas acciones" o "Ellos lo entrenen e instruyan" deberán agarrarlo y llevarlo afuera

"Deben forzarlo a salir"

Deuteronomy 21:20

Información General
Moisés continúa Hablando a la gente de Israel como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Este hijo de nosotros
"Nuestro hijo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

él no obedecerá nuestra voz
Aquí "voz" es una figura literaria

Un glotón
Una persona que come y toma demasiado

Un borracho
Una persona que toma demasiado alcohol y se emborracha a menudo.

apedrearlo hasta morir
"Tírenle piedras hasta que muera"

removerás la maldad de entre ti
El adjetivo "maldad" puede ser traducido como una frase sustantiva. Traducción Alterna: "Debes quitar de entre los israelitas a la persona que hace cosas malas" o "Debes ejecutar a esta mala persona"

Todo Israel
La palabra "Israel" es una figura literaria

escuchará de esto y temerá
El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Oirán acerca de lo que ha pasado al hijo y temerán que la gente también los castigue".

Deuteronomy 21:22

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel como si ellos estuvieran hablando a un hombre.

Si un hombre ha cometido un pecado digno de muerte
"Si un hombre ha hecho algo tan malo que tú necesitas castigarlo matándolo"

se le ha dado muerte
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "lo ejecutas" o "lo matas"

Y lo cuelgas de un árbol Posibles significados: 1) "Y depués de que haya muerto lo colgaste de un árbol" o 2) "Y lo mataste colgándolo de un poste de madera"

enterrarlo el mismo día
"Sepultarlo el mismo día que lo ejecutaste"

quien sea colgado es maldito por Dios Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: Posibles significados son 1)"Porque Dios maldice a todos a quienes la gente cuelga de los árboles" y 2)"La gente cuelga de los árboles a quienes Dios ha maldecido".

no contaminarás la tierra
Al dejar algo que Dios ha maldecido colgando en el árbol

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 22

1 No debes mirar el buey de tu compañero israelita o a su oveja ir por mal camino y ocultarlo de ellos; seguramente debes devorvérselos. 2 Si tu compañero israelita no está cerca de tí, o si no lo conoces, entonces debes llevarte el animal a tu casa, y debes estar con él hasta que lo busque, y después se lo debes devolver a él. 3 Debes hacer lo mismo con su burro; debes hacer lo mismo con sus prendas; debes hacer lo mismo con cada cosa perdida de tu compañero israelita, lo que sea que él haya perdido y tú hayas encontrado; no debes esconderlo para ti mismo. 4 No debes mirar al burro o el buey de tu compañero israelita caído en el camino y esconderte de ellos; tu debes seguramente ayudarlo a levantarlo otra vez. 5 Una mujer no debe vestir lo que le pertenece a un hombre, y tampoco un hombre debe ponerse ropa de mujer; pues quien haga una de estas cosas es una abominación para el SEÑOR tu Dios. 6 Si ocurre que un nido de un ave está delante tuyo en el camino, en cualquier árbol o en el suelo, con crías o huevos en él, y la madre está sentada en las crías o sobre los huevos, no debes llevarte a la madre junto con sus crías. 7 Seguramente debes dejar a la madre ir, pero a sus crías las puedes tomar para ti mismo. Obedece este mandato para que que te vaya bien, y que puedas prolongar tus días. 8 Cuando tú construyes una casa nueva, entonces debes hacer una baranda para tu techo para que no traigas sangre sobre tu casa si cualquiera se cae de allí. 9 No debes plantar tu viñedo con dos tipos de semillas, para que la cosecha completa no sea confiscada por el lugar santo, la semilla que tú has sembrado y el rendimiento del viñedo. 10 No debes arar con un buey y un burro juntos. 11 No debes ponerte ropas hechas de lana y lino juntos. 12 Tienes que hacerte flecos en las cuatro esquinas del manto con en el cual tú te vistes. 13 Suponiendo que un hombre toma a una esposa, duerme con ella, y después la odia, 14 y luego la acusa de cosas vergonzosas y le pone una mala reputación en ella, y dice: "Yo tomé a esta mujer, pero cuando me acerqué a ella, no encontré prueba de virginidad en ella." 15 Luego el padre y la madre de la niña tienen que llevar pruebas de su virginidad a los ancianos en la puerta de la ciudad 16 El padre de la niña tiene que decirle a los ancianos: "Yo le dí mi hija a este hombre como esposa, y él la odia. 17 Vean, él la ha acusado a ella de cosas vergonzosas y dijo: "Yo no encontré en tu hija prueba de virginidad.'' Pero aquí está la prueba de la virginidad de mi hija.' Entonces ellos deben extender la vestimenta ante los ancianos de la ciudad. 18 Los ancianos de esa ciudad tienen que llevarse a ese hombre y castigarlo; 19 y ellos tienen que multarle cien monedas de plata, y dárselo al padre de la niña, porque el hombre ha causado una mala reputación para una virgen de Israel. Ella tiene que ser su esposa; él no puede enviarla lejos durante todos sus días. 20 Pero si esta cosa es cierta, que la prueba de virginidad no fue encontrada en la niña, 21 entonces ellos deben traer a la niña a la puerta de la casa del padre, y los hombres de su ciudad tienen que apedrearla a muerte, porque ella ha cometido una acción vergonzosa en Israel, actuar como una ramera en la casa de su padre; y tu removerás el mal de entre ustedes. 22 Si un hombre es encontrado durmiendo con una mujer que está casada con otro hombre, entonces ambos deben morir, el hombre que estaba durmiendo con la mujer y la misma mujer; y tú removerás el mal de entre ustedes. 23 Si hay una mujer que es virgen, comprometida con un hombre, y otro hombre la encuentra en la ciudad y duerme con ella, 24 llévenlos a ambos a la puerta de la ciudad y apedréenlos hasta la muerte. Tú debes apedrear a la niña, porque ella no clamó, aunque ella estaba en la ciudad. Debes apedrear al hombre, porque él ha violado a la esposa del vecino; y tú removerás el mal de entre ustedes. 25 Pero si el hombre encuentra a la chica comprometida en el campo, y si él la toma y duerme con ella, entonces solamente el hombre que durmió con ella debe morir. 26 Pero a la niña no debes hacerle nada; porque no hay pecado digno de muerte en la niña. Para este caso es como cuando un hombre ataca a su vecino y lo mata. 27 Porque la encontró en el campo, la chica comprometida clamó, pero no había nadie para salvarla. 28 Si un hombre encuentra a una mujer que es virgen pero no está comprometida, y si él la toma y duerme con ella y ellos son descubiertos, 29 entonces el hombre que durmió con ella tiene que dar cincuenta monedas de plata al padre de la niña, y ella debe de convertirse en su esposa, porque él la ha humillado. Él no puede enviarla lejos durante todos sus días. 30 Un hombre no puede tomar la esposa de su padre como suya; él no puede quitar los derechos del matrimonio de su padre.

Deuteronomy 22:1

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

Extraviarse
"Caminar lejos de su dueño"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Esconderte de ellos
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Actuar como si tú no los ves" o "ir lejos sin hacer nada"

Si tu compañero israelita no está cerca de ti
"Si tu compañero israelita vive lejos de ti"

O si no lo conoces
"o si no conoces quien es el dueño del animal"

y debes estar con él hasta que lo busque
"Y debes tener el animal contigo hasta que su dueño vaya a ti a buscarlo"

Deuteronomy 22:3

Informaión General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Debes hacer lo mismo con su burro
"Debes devolver su burro de la misma manera"

Debes hacer lo mismo con sus prendas
"Debes devolver sus prendas de la misma manera"

No debes esconderte
Este es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: " No debes actuar como si no viste que él ha perdido algo" o "no debes ir lejos sin hacer algo"

Tú debes ciertamente ayudarlo a levantarlo otra vez
"Debes ayudar a tu compañero israelita a levantar el animal de nuevo sobre sus pies"

Deuteronomy 22:5

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Lo que pertenece a un hombre
"La ropa de un hombre"

Deuteronomy 22:6

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si estuviera hablando a un hombre.

Nido de un ave
Un hogar que las aves mismas hacen para ellas con palos, pastos, plantas, y lodo

Con crías o huevos en él
"Con pajaritos o huevos en el nido"

Y la madre está sentada en las crías
"Y la ave madre está sentada en los pajaritos"

Prolongar tus días
Días largos es una metáfora para una larga vida. Traducción Alterna: "Ser capaz de vivir por un largo tiempo". Traduzca estas palabras como lo hizo en 4:25.

Deuteronomy 22:8

Información General
Moisés habla alos Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Una baranda para tu techo
Una cerca baja alrededor del borde del techo para que las personas no se caigan del techo

Para que no traigas sangre sobre tu casa
La sangre es símbolo de muerte. Traducción Alterna: "Para que no sea culpa de tu atención del hogar si alguien muere"

si cualquiera se cae de allí
"Si alguien cae de el techo porque no hiciste una baranda"

Deuteronomy 22:9

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona, entonces las palabras \"tu\" y \"tus\" aquí son singulares.\n (Ver:).

Para que la cosecha entera no fuera confiscada por el lugar Santo Las palabras \"lugar santo\" es un metónimo para el sacerdote que trabaja en el lugar santo. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa.Traducción Alterna: "Para que el sacerdote en el lugar santo de EL SEÑOR no tome toda la cosecha\" o \"Para no ensuciar toda la cosecha y los sacerdotes no te permitan usarla\"\n(Ver: y)

Y la producción del viñedo
Y la fruta que crece en el viñedo

lana
Suave, pelo enrulado que crece en las ovejas.

Lino
Hilo hecho de la planta de lino.\n (Ver:

Deuteronomy 22:12

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Flecos
"Borlas" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada). Estos son los hilos que están unidos y cuelgan del final de cada esquina del manto.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El manto
Una larga prenda que una persona usa sobre sus otras ropas.

Deuteronomy 22:13

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Y luego la acusa de cosas vergonzosas
"Y luego la acusa de haber dormido con alguien antes de que se casaran"

Y pone mala reputación en ella
El sustantivo abstracto "reputación" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alterna: "Y hace que otras personas piensen que ella es mala persona"

Pero cuando me acerqué a ella
Esta es una forma cortés de decir "Tener relaciones sexuales con alguien" Traducción Alterna: "Pero cuando yo dormí con ella"

No encontré prueba de virginidad en ella
El sustantivo abstracto "prueba" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alterna: "Ella no podía probarme que era virgen"

Deuteronomy 22:15

Información General
Moisés todavía está hablando a la gente de Israel

tienen que llevar pruebas de su virginidad
El sustantivo abstracto "prueba" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alterna: "Deben tomar algo para probar que ella era virgen"

Deuteronomy 22:16

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

él la ha acusado de cosas vergonzosas
El significado completo de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Él la ha acusado de haber dormido con alguien antes de que se casara con ella"

Yo no encontré en tu hija prueba de virginidad
Los sustantivos abstractos "Prueba" y "virginidad" pueden ser expresados como frases verbales. Traducción Alterna: "Tu hija no ha podido probar que era virgen"

Pero aquí está la prueba de la virginidad de mi hija
Los sustantivos abstractos "prueba" y "virginidad" pueden ser traducidos como frases verbales. Traducción Alterna: "Pero esto prueba que mi hija era virgen"

Entonces ellos deben extender la vestimenta ante los ancianos de la ciudad El completo significado de esta declaración puede ser hecha explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Y entonces el padre y la madre mostrarán la ropa con la mancha de sangre a los ancianos como prueba de que ella era virgen"

Deuteronomy 22:18

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

y ellos tienen que multarle
"y ellos deben hacer que el pague como castigo"

Cien siclos
"100 siclos"

y dárselo al padre de la niña
"y dar el dinero al padre de la niña"

Ha causado una mala reputación para una virgen de Israel
El sustantivo abstracto "reputación" puede ser traducido como una frase verbal. Traducción Alterna: "Ha causado que la gente piense que una virgen de Israel es una mala persona"

El no puede enviarla lejos
"No le está permitido divorciarse de ella"

Durante todos sus días
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Por su vida entera"

Deuteronomy 22:20

Información General
Moisés continúa habando a la gente de israel

Pero si esta cosa es cierta
"Pero si esto es verdad" o "Pero si lo que el hombre dice es verdad"

Que la prueba de virginidad no fue encontrada en la niña
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que el hombre no encontró prueba de que la niña era virgen"

La prueba de virginidad
El sustantivo abstracto "prueba" y "virginidad" pueden ser traducidos como frases verbales. Traducción Alterna: "Algo que pruebe que la niña era virgen"

entonces ellos deben traer a la niña
"Los ancianos deben sacar a la niña"

Apedrearla a muerte
"Lanzar piedras a ella hasta que muera"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Porque ella ha cometido una acción vergonzosa en Israel
"Porque ella ha hecho algo vergonzoso en Israel"

Actuar como una ramera en la casa de su padre
"Actuar como una ramera mientras vivía en la casa de su padre"

tú removerás el mal
El adjetivo "mal" puede ser traducido como una frase nominal. Traducción Alterna: "Debes quitar de entre ustedes los israelitas a la persona que hace cosas malas"

Deuteronomy 22:22

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Si un hombre es encontrado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si alguien encuentra a un hombre"

Y tú removerás
"De esta manera tú quitarás" (Ver Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Deuteronomy 22:23

Información General
Moisés habla a los iIsraelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Comprometida con un hombre
"quien promete casarse con un hombre"

llévenlos .. y apedréenlos Estos mandamientos son dirigidos a Israel como grupo.

llévenlos a ambos
"Entonces debes traer a ambos, la niña y el hombre que se ha acostado con ella"

Porque ella no clamó
"Porque ella no pidió ayuda"

Porque el ha violado a la esposa del vecino
Los israelitas en ese momento pensaban en un hombre y una mujer que estaban comprometidos en matrimonio como esposo y esposa. El completo significado de esta declaración puede hacerce explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Porque el durmió con una niña que pertenecía a un compañero israelita"

y tú removerás el mal de entre ustedes
El adjetivo "mal" puede ser traducido como uan frase nominal. Traducción Alterna: "Deben quitar de entre ustedes los israelitas a la persona que hace cosas malas" o "Deben ejecutar a esta mala persona" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/

Deuteronomy 22:25

La niña comprometida
Esto se refiere a una niña que sus padres han estado de acuerdo en que se case con un cierto hombre, pero la niña no se ha casado con él todavía

Entonces solamente el hombre que durmió con ella debe morir
"Entonces sólo deben matar al hombre que durmió con ella"

No hay pecado digno de muerte en la niña
"No deben castigarla matándola por lo que ella hizo"

Para este caso es como cuando un hombre ataca a su vecino y lo mata
"Porque esta situación es como la situación cuando alguien ataca a otra persona y lo mata"

Porque la encontró en el campo
"Porque el hombre encontró a la niña trabajando en el campo"

Deuteronomy 22:28

Pero no está comprometida
"Pero aquellos padres que no prometieron a otro hombre que ella se casaría con él"

y ellos son descubiertos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si alguien se entera qué pasó"

Cincuenta monedas de plata
Un siclo pesa once gramos. Traducción Alterna: "Cincuenta piezas de plata" o "550 gramos de plata" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Él no puede enviarla lejos durante todos sus días
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Él nunca debe divorciarse de ella durante su vida entera"

Deuteronomy 22:30

No puede tomar a la esposa de su padre como suya
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "No debe casarse con la ex esposa de su padre, incluso si ella no es su madre"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 23

1 Ningún hombre herido por aplastamiento o cortado podrá entrar a la asamblea del SEÑOR. 2 Ningún niño ilegítimo podrá pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR, tan lejos como hasta la décima generación de sus descendientes, ninguno de ellos podrá pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR. 3 Un amonita o moabita no podrá pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR; tan lejos como hasta la décima generación de sus descendientes, ninguno de ellos podrá pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR. 4 Esto es porque ellos no salieron a tu encuentro con pan y con agua en el camino cuando ustedes salieron de Egipto, y porque ellos contrataron en contra tuya a Balaam hijo de Beor, de Petor en Aram-naharaim para maldecirte. 5 Pero EL SEÑOR TU DIOS no escuchó a Balaam; en cambio, EL SEÑOR TU DIOS cambió la maldición en bendición para tí, porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te amó. 6 Nunca puedes buscar la paz o prosperidad de ellos, durante todos tus días. 7 No puedes detestar a un edomita, porque es tu hermano, no puedes aborrecer al egipcio, porque fuiste extranjero en su tierra. 8 Los descendientes de la tercera generación que les nazcan podrán pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR. 9 Cuando marches fuera como un ejército en contra de tus enemigos, entonces tendrás que guardarte de cualquier cosa maligna. 10 Si hay en medio de tÍ un hombre que esté impuro por causa de lo que le pasó en la noche, entonces él tiene que salirse fuera del campamento del ejército; no podrá regresar al campamento. 11 Cuando llegue la tarde, él tiene que bañarse en agua; cuando el sol caiga, puede volver a entrar al campamento. 12 También tienes que tener un lugar fuera del campamento al cual vayas; 13 y tendrás algo entre tus herramientas para cavar; cuando te agaches para hacer tus necesidades, tienes que cavar con eso y luego volver a poner la tierra y cubrir aquello que salió de ti. 14 Porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS camina en medio de tu campamento para darte la victoria y para entregarte tus enemigos a tí. Por lo tanto, tu campamento tiene que ser santo para que ÉL no pueda ver ninguna cosa inmunda en medio de tií y se aparte de tí. 15 Tú no puedes devolverle a su amo un esclavo que ha escapado de su amo. 16 Déjalo vivir con ustedes, en cualquier pueblo que él escoga. No lo opriman. 17 No puede haber ninguna prostituta de culto entre cualquiera de las hijas de Israel, tampoco puede haber prostituta de culto entre los hijos de Israél. 18 No puedes traer el salario de una prostituta o el salario de un perro a la casa del SEÑOR TU DIOS para cualquier voto; pues ambos son abominación para EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 19 No puedes exigir intereses a tu compañero israelita, intereses de dinero, intereses de comida, o intereses de cualquier cosa que se exiga interés. 20 A un extranjero le puedes exigir intereses; pero a tu hermano israelita no le puedes exigir intereses, para que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS pueda bendecirte con todo a lo que le has puesto tu mano, en la tierra la cual vas a poseer. 21 Cuando hagas un voto al SEÑOR DIOS, no puedes ser lento en cumplirlo, porque EL SEÑOR TU DIOS ciertamente lo requerirá de tÍ; sería pecado para tÍ el no cumplirlo. 22 Pero si te abstienes de hacer un voto, no habrá pecado en medio de tÍ. 23 Eso que ha salido de tus labios tienes que cuidar y hacer; de acuerdo a lo que hayas prometido al Señor TU DIOS, cualquier cosa que libremente hayas prometido con tu boca. 24 Cuando vayas al viñedo de tu vecino, podrás comer todas las uvas que desees, pero no pongas alguna en tu cesto. 25 Cuando vayas a la cosecha de tu vecino, podrás arrancar las cabezas del grano con tu mano, pero no podrás poner una hoz a la mies de su vecino.

Deuteronomy 23:1

Hombre herido por aplastamiento o cortado
"Hombre que sus partes privadas alguien ha aplastado o cortado"

Podrá entrar la asamblea del SEÑOR
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Puede ser completamente un miembro de la comunidad israelita"

Niño ilegítimo
Posibles significados: 1) Un niño nacido de padres que han cometido incesto o adulterio o 2) Un niño nacido de una prostituta.

Tan lejos como hasta la décima generación de sus descendientes
Este "Décima" es el número ordinal para diez. Traducción Alterna: "Aún después de diez generaciones de los descendientes del niño ilegítimo"

Ninguno de ellos
"Ninguno de estos descendientes"

Deuteronomy 23:3

No podrá pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "No podrá ser un miembro completo de la comunidad israelita"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Tan lejos como hasta la décima generación
Este "décima" es el número ordinal para diez. Traducción Alterna: "Aún después de diez generaciones de sus descendientes"

Ellos no salieron a tu encuentro con pan y con agua
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos no te dieron la bienvenida trayéndote comida y qué beber"

En contra tuya ... maldecirte
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

Deuteronomy 23:5

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

no escuchó
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "No prestó atención" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada)

Cambió la maldición en bendición
"Te ha bendecido y no te maldijo"

Nunca puedes buscar la paz o prosperidad de ellos Posibles significados: 1)"Nunca debes hacer un tratado de paz con los amonitas y los moabitas". o 2)"Tú no debes hacer cualquier cosa que cause que a estos dos grupos personas les vaya bien

Durante todos tus días
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Mientras seas una nación".

Deuteronomy 23:7

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un solo hombre.

No puedes detestar a un edomita
"No odies a un edomita"

Porque es tu hermano
"Porque es tu pariente"

No puedes aborrecer a un egipcio
"No odies a un egipcio"

Los descendientes de la tercera generación que les nazcan podrán pertenecer a la asamblea del SEÑOR Este "tercera" es el número ordinal para tres. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Si un edomita o un egipcio viene a vivir en la comunidad israelita, sus nietos pueden convertirse en miembros plenos de esa comunidad" (VER:file:///C:/Program%20Files%20(x86)/translationStudio/resources/app/src/views/ Y file:///C:/Program%20Files%20

Deuteronomy 23:9

Cuando marchas como un ejército contra tus enemigos, entonces debes mantenerte Moisés habla aquí a los Israelitas como si fueran un hombre.

en contra de tus enemigos
"Pelear en contra de tus enemigos"

Guardarte de toda cosa maligna
"Manténte lejos de toda cosa mala"

Un hombre que esté impuro por causa de lo que le pasó en la noche
Esta es una forma cortés de decir que el tuvo una emisión de sémen. Traducción Alterna: "Todo hombre que esta impuro porque tuvo una emisión de sémen mientras dormía".

Deuteronomy 23:12

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Y tendrás algo entre tus herramientas para cavar
"Y tú tienes que tener una herramienta que puedas usar para cavar con ella"

cuando te agaches para hacer tus necesidades Esta es una forma cortés de decir defecar. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando te agachas para defecar".

tienes cavar con eso
"Debes cavar un hoyo con la herramienta" cubrir aquello que salió de ti

"Cubrir todo tu excremento

Para que Él no pueda ver ninguna cosa impura en medio de ti
"Para que EL SEÑOR no vea ninguna cosa impura en medio de ti"

Deuteronomy 23:15

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Un esclavo que ha escapado de su amo
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Un esclavo de otro país que haya escapado de su amo y va a Israel"

Déjalo vivir con ustedes
"Deja al esclavo vivir entre tu gente"

Deuteronomy 23:17

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Prostituta de culto... prostituta de culto... prostituta ... perro
EL SEÑOR da una lista completa de ambas formas de prostitución tanto de hombres como de mujeres para prohibir la prostitución de cualquier persona por cualquier motivo.

Prostituta de culto... Entre cualquiera de las hijas ... entre los hijos Los posibles significados son que Moisés: 1) Prohíbe abiertamente a mujeres y hombres realizar actos sexuales como parte del servicio en el templo o 2) Usa un eufemismo para prohibir a las mujeres y los hombres realizar actos sexuales para percibir dinero.

No puedes traer el salario de una prostituta ... a la casa
"Un mujer que gane dinero como una prostituta no debe traer ese dinero ... a la casa"

Un perro
Un hombre que permite a otros hombres tener sexo con él por dinero

a la casa del SEÑOR tu Dios
"Dentro del templo"

Para cualquier voto
"Para cumplir un voto"

Ambos
Los salarios de una mujer prostituta y un hombre prostituto

Deuteronomy 23:19

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

No puedes exigir intereses a tu compañero israelita
"Si prestas algo a tu compañero israelita, no debes hacer que te pague más de lo que él haya prestado"

exigir intereses
Prestar a alguien y forzar a esa persona que pague más de lo que ha pedido prestado intereses de dinero .. cualquier cosa que se exija intereses

"No debes cargar intereses cuando prestas a alguien dinero, comida, o cualquier otra cosa"

lo que le has puesto tu mano
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Todo lo que haces" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 23:21

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

No puedes ser lento en cumplirlo
"No debes tardar mucho en cumplir el voto"

Porque EL SEÑOR tu Dios ciertamente lo requerirá de ti
"Porque EL SEÑOR tu Dios te culpará y te castigará si tú no cumples tu voto"

Pero si te abstienes de hacer un voto, no habrá pecado en medio de ti
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Pero, si no haces una promesa, no pecarás porque no tendrás una promesa que cumplir"

Éso que ha salido de tus labios
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Las palabras que has dicho" (Ver:)

De acuerdo a lo que hayas prometido al Señor tu Dios
"Lo que sea que tu prometiste al SEÑOR tu Dios que harías"

Cualquier cosa que libremente hayas prometido con tu boca
"Cualquier cosa que la gente te ha oído prometer hacer porque tú quisiste"

Con tu boca
"Para que la gente te escuche decirlo"

Deuteronomy 23:24

Informcaión General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Podrás comer todas las uvas que desees
"Entonces tú puedes disfrutar comiendo uvas hasta que estes lleno"

Pero no pongas alguna en tu cesto
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Pero tú no debes poner ninguna uva en tu bolso para llevarla contigo"

Cuando vayas a la cosecha de tu vecino
"Cuando caminas a través del campo de tu vecino donde hay granos creciendo"

Podrás arrancar las cabezas del grano con tu mano
"Entonces podrás comer los centros de los granos con tu mano" pero no podrás poner una hoz a la mies de tu vecino

"Pero no cortes el grano maduro de tu vecino y lleves contigo"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Hoz
Una herramienta afilada que los agricultores utilizan para cosechar trigo.

---

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 24

1 Cuando un hombre toma a una esposa y se casa con ella, si ella no encuentra favor ante sus ojos porque ha encontrado algo inadecuado en ella, entonces el debe escribirle un certificado de divorcio, ponerlo en sus manos, y mandarla fuera de su casa. 2 Cuando ella se haya ido fuera de su casa, ella puede irse y ser la esposa de otro hombre. 3 Si el segundo hombre la odia y le escribe un certificado de divorcio, lo pone en sus manos, y la manda fuera de su casa; o si el segundo esposo muere, el hombre quien la tomó para ser su esposa, 4 entonces su esposo anterior, el que la echó por primera vez, no puede tomarla de nuevo como esposa, después de convertirse en impura; pues eso sería una abonimación al SEÑOR. No debes causar que la tierra sea culpable, la tierra que el SEÑOR TU DIOS te está dando como herencia. 5 Cuando un hombre toma a una nueva esposa, él no ira a guerra con el ejército, tampoco puede ser ordenado a ir a un trabajo forzado; el será libre de estar en su hogar por un año y animará a su esposa a la cual él ha tomado. 6 Ningún hombre puede tomar un molino o una piedra de molino superior como garantía, pues eso sería tomar la vida de una persona como garantía. 7 Si un hombre es hallado secuestrando alguno de sus hermanos entre el pueblo de Israél, y lo trata como un esclavo y lo vende, ese ladrón deber morir; y tú removerás la maldad entre ustedes. 8 Toma atención en cuanto a cualquier plaga de lepra, para que puedas observar cuidadosamente y seguir cada instrucción dada a tí la cual los sacerdotes, los Levitas, te enseñen; como YO les ordené, para que actúes. 9 Traigan a la mente lo que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS le hizo a Miriam mientras salías de Egipto. 10 Cuando le haces a tu vecino algún tipo de préstamo, no debes entrar a su casa a extraer su garantía. 11 Te pararás afuera, y el hombre a quien le prestaste te traerá la garantía a tí afuera. 12 Si él es un hombre pobre, no debes dormir con su garantía en tu poder. 13 Tu verdaderamente debes restaurarle su garantía a la puesta del sol, para que pueda dormir en su manto y bendecirte; será justicia para tí delante del SEÑOR TU DIOS. 14 No debes oprimir a un sirviente contratado quien es pobre y necesitado, sea un compañero Israelita, o de extranjeros que están en tu tierra dentro de los ppuertas de tu ciudad; 15 Cada día debe darle su ganancia; no debe bajar el sol en este asunto no resuelto, pues él es pobre y está contando con eso. Haz esto para que él no llore en contra tuya al SEÑOR, y para que no sea un pecado que hayas cometido. 16 N o deberán hacer morir a los padres por sus hijos, ni deberán hacer lmorir a los hijos por sus padres. En vez, todos deben morir por sus propios pecados. 17 No debes usar fuerza para quitar la justicia que se debe al extranjero o a los huérfanos, ni tomar el manto de la viuda como una garantía. 18 En su lugar, debes traer a memoria que fuiste un esclavo en Egipto, y queEL SEÑOR TU DIOS te rescató de allí. Por lo tanto YO te instruyo a que obedezcas este mandato. 19 Cuando recojas tu cosecha en tu campo, y si se te ha olvidado la gavilla en el campo, no debes ir por ella a buscarla; debe ser para el extranjero, para los huérfanos, o para la viuda, para queEL SEÑÓR TU DIOS pueda bendecirte en todo el trabajo de tus manos. 20 Cuando sacudas tu árbol de olivo, no debes ir de nuevo a las ramas; será para el extranjero, para el huérfano, o para la viuda. 21 Cuando reúnas las uvas de tu viña, no deberás recogerla otra vez. Lo que sobre será para el extranjero, para el huérfano, y para la viuda. 22 Debes llevar en mente que fuiste un esclavo en la tierra de Egipto; por lo tanto YO te instruyo a que obedezcas este mandato.

Deuteronomy 24:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando un hombre toma a una esposa y se casa con ella
Las frases "toma una esposa" o "se casa con ella" significan la misma cosa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando un hombre se casa con una mujer"

Si ella no encuentra favor ante sus ojos Aquí "ante sus ojos" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Si él decide que no le gusta ella".

Porque ha encontrado algo inadecuado en ella
"Porque por alguna razón él ha decido que no quiere mantenerla"

Debe escribirle un certificado de divorcio
"Él debe dar a su esposa un papel oficial diciendo que ellos ya no están casados"

Ella puede irse y ser la esposa de otro hombre
"Ella puede ir y casarse con otro hombre"

Deuteronomy 24:3

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel sobre una mujer que obtiene un divorcio y se casa con otro hombre

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

Si el segundo hombre la odia
"Si el segundo esposo decide que odia a la mujer"

Certificado de divorcio
Este es un papel oficial que dice que el hombre y la mujer ya no están casados. Traducir esto como 24:1

Lo pone en sus manos
"Se lo da a la mujer"

El hombre que la tomó para ser su esposa
"El segundo hombre que se casó con la mujer"

Después de convertirse en impura
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícita. Traducción Alterna: "Después de que ella se ha vuelto impura por el divorcio y el nuevo matrimonio con otro hombre" (Ver:)

No debes causar que la tierra sea culpable
Se habla de la tierra como si pudiera pecar. Traducción Alterna: "No debes derramar culpa alrededor de la tierra"

Deuteronomy 24:5

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Cuando un hombre toma una nueva esposa
"Cuando un hombre está nuevamente casado con una mujer"

Tampoco puede ser ordenado a ir a un trabajo forzado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Y nadie lo va a forzar a ir lejos de su casa y hacer cualquier tipo de trabajo"

Él será libre de estar en su hogar
"Él será libre de vivir en su casa"

Deuteronomy 24:6

Molino
Una herramienta para hacer harina moliendo el grano entre dos discos pesados de piedra

Molino superior
El disco superior de piedra en un molino

Pues eso sería tomar la vida de una persona como garantía
La palabra "vida" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para lo que una persona nececesita para seguir manteniédose viva. Traducción Alterna: "Porque él estaría quitando al hombre lo que necesita para hacer comida para su familia"

Deuteronomy 24:7

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona. (Ver:)

Si un hombre es hallado secuestrando Esto es una expresión idiomática para "Si un hombre secuestra". Eso puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si encuentras a un hombre secuestrando"

Secuestrando
Usando fuerza física para tomar a una persona inocente lejos de su casa y encarcelarla

Alguno de sus hermanos entre el pueblo de Israel
"Alguno de sus compañeros israelitas"

Ese ladrón debe morir
"Entonces otros israelitas deben matar a ese ladrón como castigo por lo que hizo"

tú removerás la maldad entre ustedes
El adjetivo "maldad" puede ser traducido como una frase nominal. Traducción Alterna: "Y debes de quitar de entre los israelitas a la persona que hace cosas malas" o "Tú debes ejecutar a esta persona mala"

Deuteronomy 24:8

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Toma atención ... observar cuidadosamente ... Trae a la mente lo que el SEÑOR tu Dios Moisés habla a los israelitas aquí como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Presta atención en cuanto a cualquier plaga de lepra
"Presta atención si tú sufres de lepra" o "Presta atención si tienes lepra"

cada instrucción dada a ti la cual los sacerdotes, los levitas, te enseñen Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Todas las instrucciones que yo te di y que los sacerdotes, que son levitas, te enseñaron a seguir"

enseñen... actúen .. salían de Egipto Moisés aquí habla a los israelitas como un grupo.

como yo les ordené, para que actúen
"Deben asegurarse de hacer exactamente lo que les he ordenado"

les ordené
La palabra "les" se refiere a los sacerdotes, que son levitas.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Traigan a la mente
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerden"

Mientras salian de Egipto
"Durante el tiempo que estaban dejando Egipto"

Deuteronomy 24:10

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Cuando le haces a tu vecino algún tipo de préstamo
"Cuando prestas alguna cosa a tu vecino"

a extraer su garantía
"A tomar su garantía"

Su garantía
Esta es una figura literaria (metonimia) para "Lo que prometió que le daría si no pagaba el préstamo"

Te pararás afuera
"Tú debes esperar afuera de su casa"

Deuteronomy 24:12

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un sólo hombre. (Ver:)

no debes dormir con su garantía en tu poder
"No debes mantener su abrigo durante la noche"

Su garantía
Esta es una figura literaria (metonimia) para "Lo que prometió que le daría si no pagaba el préstamo". Traduzca como lo hizo en 24:10

Restaurarle su garantía
"Devuélvele lo que él te ha dado para demostrar que pagará el préstamo"

Para que pueda dormir en su manto y bendecirte
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Para que tenga su abrigo para mantenerse abrigado cuando duerme, te lo agradecerá"

manto
Una capa u otra ropa que mantiene a la persona caliente por la noche. Esto fue probablemente la "garantía" de la que Moisés estaba hablando en 24:10

Será justicia para ti delante del Señor tu Dios
"EL SEÑOR tu Dios aprobará la manera en que manejaste este asunto"

Deuteronomy 24:14

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

No debes oprimir a un sirviente contratado
"No debes tratar mal a un sirviente contratado"

Sirviente contratado
Una persona que cobra diariamente por su trabajo

Pobre y necesitado
Estas dos palabras tienen similares significados y enfatizan que esta es una persona que no puede ayudarse a sí misma.

Dentro de los portones de tu ciudad Aquí "portones de tu ciudad" significan comunidades o ciudades. Traducción Alterna: "En una de tus ciudades"

Cada día debes darle su ganancia
"Debes dar al hombre el dinero que gana todos los días"

no debe ponerse el sol en este asunto
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Los israelitas consideran que comienza el nuevo día cuando el sol baja. Traducción Alterna: "Debes pagar al hombre el mismo día que él hace el trabajo"

Porque él es pobre y está contando con eso
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Porque él es pobre y depende de sus jornales para comprar su comida para el día siguiente" (Ver:)

él no llore en contra tuya al SEÑOR
"Él no llame al SEÑOR y pida que te castigue"

Deuteronomy 24:16

Los padres no deben ser puestos a muerte en lugar de sus hijos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "No debes ejecutar a los padres por algo malo que uno de sus hijos ha hecho"

Ni deberán los hijos ser puestos a muerte en lugar de sus padres Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Y tú no debes ejecutar al niño por algo malo que sus padres hicieron" (Ver:)

Todos deben morir por sus propios pecados Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Sólo debes ejecutar a la persona por algo malo que ella misma ha hecho"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 24:17

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

No debes usar la fuerza para quitar la justicia que se debe al extranjero o a los huérfanos
Moisés habla de justicia como si eso fuera un objeto físico que una persona fuerte podria arrancar violentamente de una persona débil. Traducción Alterna: "No debes tratar a un extranjero o a un huérfano injustamente"

Huerfáno
Esto se refiere a un niño cuyos padres han muerto y no tiene parientes que ciuden de él

Ni tomar el manto de la viuda como una garantía
Un prestamista tomaría algo del prestatario para asegurarse de que le devolvería el pago. No se le permitió tomar su abrigo porque ella lo necesitaba para mantenerse caliente. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Y no tomes el manto de la viuda como garantía porque ella lo necesita para mantenerse caliente"

traer a memoria
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

Deuteronomy 24:19

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Cuando recojes tu cosecha en tu campo
"Cuando cortes el grano en tu campo"

la gavilla
Grano que el segador ha atado

Debe ser para el extranjero, para los huérfanos, o para la viuda
Se puede aclarar la información sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "Debes dejar la gavilla para que un extranjero, huerfano, o viuda pueda tomarla" (Ver:)

En todo el trabajo de tus manos
Aquí "manos" se refiere la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "En todo el trabajo que hagas"

Cuando sacudas tu árbol de olivo
Se puede aclarar la información sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando sacudas las ramas de tu árbol de olivo, causando que los olivos caigan en el suelo para que ellos puedan juntarlos"

No debes ir de nuevo a las ramas
"No recojas cada aceituna del árbol"

será para el extranjero, para el huérfano, o la viuda
Se puede aclarar la información sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "Las aceitunas que se quedan en las ramas son para que los extranjeros, huérfanos, y viudas tomen y lleven con ellos.

Deuteronomy 24:21

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

será para el extranjero, para el huérfano, o para la viuda
"Las uvas que tú no recojas van a ser para que el extranjero, el huérfano, y la viuda recojan"

Para el extranjero, para el huérfano, o para la viuda
Esto se refiere a los grupos de personas. Traducción Alterna: "Para los extranjeros, para esos que son huérfanos, o para las viudas"

Llamar a la mente
Esto es uan expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Recuerda"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 25

1 Si hay disputa entre hombres y ellos van a la corte, y el juez los juzga a ellos, entonces los justos seran liberados y condenarán al malvado. 2 Si el hombre culpable merece que sea golpeado, luego el juez hará que él se acueste y sea golpeado en su presencia con la orden de golpes, como haya sido su crimen. 3 El juez puede darle a él cuarenta golpes, pero él no podrá exceder ese número; por cuanto si el excede el número y lo golpea con muchos más golpes, entonces tus compañeros Isrealitas serán humillados ante tus ojos. 4 Tú no debes colocarle un bozal al buey cuando pisa el grano. 5 Si hermanos viven juntos y uno de ello muere, sin tener hijos, entoces la esposa del hombre muerto no puede casarse con otro fuera de la familia. En vez de esto, el hermano de su esposo debe dormir con ella y tomarla a ella para él como una esposa, y toma el lugar de esposo para ella. 6 Esto es así para que el primogénito que ella tenga pueda tener éxito en el nombre del hermano muerto de ese hombre, para que su nombre no desaparezca de Israél. 7 Pero si el hombre no desea tomar la esposa de su hermano para él, entoces la esposa de su hermano debe ir a la puerta de los ancianos y decir; "El hermano de mi esposo rehusa criar para su hermano un nombre en Israél; El no cumplirá el deber del hermano de un esposo para mí". 8 Entonces los ancianos de su ciudad deben llamarlo a él y hablar con él. Pero suponiendo que él insista y diga, "Yo no deseo tomarla a ella". 9 Entonces la esposa de su hermano debe acercarse a él en la presencia de los ancianos, quitarle sus sandalias de sus pies, y escupirle la cara. Ella debe de responderle a él y decir, "Esto es lo que se le hace a un hombre que no construye la casa de su hermano." 10 Su nombre será llamado en Israél, "La casa del cual sus sandalias fueron removidas." 11 Si los hombres pelean entre ellos, y la esposa de uno llega al rescate de su esposo fuera de la mano de aquel que lo golpeó, y si ella extiende su mano y lo toma por sus partes privadas, 12 entoces tu tienes que cortarle su mano; tus ojos no pueden tenerle lástima. 13 Tu no debes tener en tu bolsa diferentes pesos, uno grande y uno pequeño. 14 Tú no debes tener en tu casa diferentes medidas, una grande y una pequeña. 15 Un perfecto y justo peso tu debes tener; una perfecta y justa medida tu debes tener, para que tus días puedan ser largos en la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te dió a tí. 16 Por cuanto todos los que hacen tales cosas, todo ese acto injustamente, son una abominacíon al SEÑOR TU DIOS. 17 Trae a tu memoria lo que Amalec te hizo a tí en el camino cuando tú saliste de Egipto, 18 como él te conoció a tí en el camino y atacó a los que estaban en la retaguardia, todos los que fueron débiles en la retaguardia, cuando estabas débil y cansado; él no honró a nuestro DIOS. 19 Por lo tanto, cuando EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado descanso de todos tus enemigos alrededor, en la tierra de EL SEÑOR TU DIOS te esta dando para poseer como herencia, tú no debes de olvidar que tú tienes que borrar el recuerdo de Amalec de debajo del cielo.

Deuteronomy 25:1

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Si el hombre culpable merece que sea golpeado Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Si el juez ordena a ellos golpear al hombre culpable"

Y sea golpeado en su presencia
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Y él va a mirar como ellos lo golpean"

Con el número ordenado de golpes, como fue su crimen
"El número de veces que haya ordenado debido a la mala acción que hizo"

Deuteronomy 25:3

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

El juez puede darle cuarenta golpes
"El juez puede decir que ellos deben golpear a la persona culpable 40 veces" (Ver:)

no podrá exceder ese número
"Pero el juez no puede ordenar a ellos golpearle más de 40 veces"

por cuanto si el excede el número y lo golpea con muchos más golpes
"Porque si el juez ordena a ellos a golpearlo más de 40 veces"

Entonces tu compañero israelita será humillado ante tus ojos Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces el juez humillará a tu compañero tsraelita en frente de toda la gente de Israel"

Humillado ante tus ojos Aquí la figura literaria (metonimia) "ente tus ojos" se refiere a lo que ellos verán. Traducción Alterna:

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

"humillado, y ustedes lo verán". Palabras similares aparecen en 1:7 (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 25:4

no debes colocarle un bozal al buey
"No debes poner algo encima de la boca de un buey"

Cuando pisa el grano
Mientras separa el grano del tallo caminando sobre él o arrastrando madera pesada sobre él

Deuteronomy 25:5

Información General
Moisés sigue hablando a la gente de Israel

Si hermanos viven juntos Posibles significados:1) "Si los hermanos viven en la misma propiedad" 2) "Si los hermanos viven cerca unos de otros"

entoces la esposa del hombre muerto no puede casarse con otro fuera Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Entonces la familia del hombre muerto no debe dejar que la viuda se case con alguien" (Ver:)

y tomar el lugar de esposo para ella
"Y haz lo que el hermano de un marido muerto debe hacer"

pueda tener exíto en el nombre del hermano muerto
La palabra "nombre" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para la línea familiar de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Va a continuar la línea familiar de su hermano muerto"

Para que su nombre no desaparezca de Israel
La palabra "nombre" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para la linea familiar de una persona. Traducción Alterna: "Para que su linea familiar no desaparezca de Israel" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 25:7

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

debe ir al portón de los ancianos El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explicito. Traducción Alterna: "Debe subir al portón de la ciudad donde los ancianos juzgan casos" rehusa levantar para su hermano un nombre Aquí "nombre" se refiere a la memoria de alguien a través de sus descendientes. Traducción Alterna: "Se rehúsa a dar a su hermano un hijo"

Él no cumplirá el deber del hermano de un esposo para mi
"Él no va a hacer lo que el hermano del esposo debería de hacer y casarse conmigo"

Yo no deseo tomarla
"Yo no deseo casarme con ella"

Deuteronomy 25:9

Información General
Moisés continúa habalndo a la gente de Israel

Debe acercarse a él en la presencia de los ancianos
"Debe caminar cerca de él con los ancianos allí observando" que no edifica la casa de su hermano Aquí "casa" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para la familia. Traducción Alterna: "Quien no le da un hijo a su hermano y continúa la línea familiar de su hermano"

Su nombre será llamado en Israel
"La gente en Israel va a conocer a su familia como"

La casa del cual sus sandalias fueron removidas
Aquí sandalias removidas simboliza que el hermano no va a recibir alguna propiedad de su hermano muerto. El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. Esto también puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "La casa de aquel cuya sandalia la viuda de su hermano le quitó del pie" o "La familia del hombre que no se casó con la esposa de su hermano muerto" o "La familia a la que todos desprecian" o "La familia que es vergonzosa"

Deuteronomy 25:11

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

de la mano de aquel que lo golpeó
Aquí "mano" se refiere a poder o control. Traducción Alterna: "Así que el que lo golpeó no volverá a golpearlo" o "Del hombre que lo golpeó"

Tus ojos no pueden tenerle lástima
Aquí "ojo" significa la persona entera. Traducción Alterna: "No debes sentir pena por ella" o "No debes mostrarle misericordia" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 25:13

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

No debes tener en tu bolso diferentes pesos, uno grande y un pequeño
El significado completo de esta declaración se puede hacer explícito. También puede aclarar la información sobrentendida. Traducción Alterna: "No debes engañar a la gente usando un peso que es más grande de lo que dijiste que era cuando compras cosas y usando un peso que es más chico de lo que dices cuando vendes cosas" (Ver: y)

Pesos
Los pesos eran piedras usadas en una balanza para determinar cuánto pesa una cosa

Medidas
Una medida era un cesto u otro contenedor para medir cuánto hay de algo

Deuteronomy 25:15

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel acerca de el uso de pesos justos y medidas cuando compran y venden. Él habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Un perfecto y justo
"Un correcto y justo"

Peso ... Medida
Traduzca estas palabras como en 25:13

Tus días puedan ser largos
Esto es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Tú puedes vivir por un largo tiempo"

Por cuanto todos los que hacen tales cosas, todos los que actúan de manera injusta
"Porque todo el que engaña a la gente usando pesos y medidas de diferentes tamaños"

Deuteronomy 25:17

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Trae a tu memoria lo que Amalec te hizo
Esto es una expresión idiomática, y "Amalec" es una figura literaria

Como te conoció en el camino
"Como ellos te conocieron a lo largo del camino"

y atacó a los que estaban en la retaguardia
"Y atacaron a aquellos de la gente de ustedes que estaban en la parte posterior de la línea"

Todos los débiles en tu retaguardia
"Toda la gente que era débil en la parte posterior de la línea"

Débil y cansado
Estas palabras tienen significados similares y enfatizan que tan cansadas las personas estaban. Traducción Alterna: "Cansado y agotado"

No honró a Dios
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "No temía del castigo de Dios" o "No respetaba a Dios" (Ver:)

tienes que borrar el recuerdo de Amalec de debajo del cielo
"Debes matar a todos los amalecitas para que nadie más los recuerde"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 26

1 Cuando ustedes hayan entrado a la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está dando como herencia, y cuando ustedes la posean y vivan en ella, 2 entonces ustedes deben tomar algo de lo primero de toda la cosecha de la tierra que ustedes han traído de la tierra que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está dando. Deben ponerla en una canasta e ir al lugar que EL SEÑOR TU DIOS escogerá como su santuario. 3 Ustedes deben ir donde el sacerdote quién estará sirviendo en aquellos días y decirle: "Yo reconozco hoy al DEÑOR TU DIOS que yo he venido a la tierra que EL SEÑOR juró a nuestros antepasados que nos daría". 4 El sacerdote debe tomar la canasta fuera de tu mano y colocarla delante del altar del SEÑOR TU DIOS. 5 Usteden deben decir ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS: "Mi antepasado era un arameo ambulante. Él descendió a Egipto y se quedó ahí, y su pueblo eran pocos en número. Ahí él se convirtió en una gran, poderosa y poblada nación. 6 Los egipcios nos trataron mal y nos afligieron. Ellos nos hicieron hacer el trabajo de esclavos. 7 Nosotros clamamos al SEÑOR, EL DIOS de nuestros padres, y ÉL escuchó nuestra voz y vio nuestra aflicción, nuestra labor y nuestra opresión. 8 EL SEÑOR nos sacó fuera de Egipto con una mano poderosa, con un brazo extendido, con gran terror, con señales y con maravillas; 9 y ÉL nos ha traído a este lugar y nos ha dado esta tierra, una tierra que fluye con leche y miel. 10 Ahora miren, yo he traído lo primero de la cosecha de la tierrra que TÚ SEÑOR me haz dado. Ustedes deben colocarla delante del SEÑOR SU DIOS y adorar delante de ÉL; 11 y ustedes deben alegrase en todo lo bueno que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS ha hecho por ustedes, por tu casa, tú y el levita, y el extranjero quien está entre ustedes. 12 Cuando ustedes hayan terminado de dar todo el diezmo de su cosecha en el tercer año, esto es, el año de diezmar, entonces ustedes deben darlo al levita, al extranjero, al huérfano de pobre y a la viuda, para que ellos puedan comer dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad y ser llenos. 13 Ustedes debes decir delante del SEÑOR SU DIOS: "Yo he traído de mi casa las cosas que le pertenecen al SEÑOR, y las he dado al levita, al extranjero, al huérfano y a la viuda, de acuerdo a todos tus mandamientos que TÚ me has dado. Yo no he transgredido ninguno de tus mandamientos, ni tampoco yo los he olvidado. 14 Yo no he comido nada de eso en mi luto, ni tampoco yo la he puesto en otro lugar donde yo era impuro, ni tampoco yo he dado algo de ellas en honor a los muertos. Yo he escuchado a la voz del SEÑOR MI DIOS; yo he obedecido todo lo que tú me has mandado a hacer. 15 Mira hacia abajo desde el Lugar Santo donde TÚ vives, desde el cielo bendice a tu pueblo Israél, y la tierra que TÚ nos has dado, así como has jurado a nuestros padres, una tierra fluyendo con leche y miel". 16 Hoy EL SEÑOR TU DIOS les está mandando a ustedes a obedecer estos estatutos y decretos; ustedes por lo tanto los mantendrán y los harán con todo su corazón y con toda su alma. 17 Ustedes han reconocido hoy que EL SEÑOR es SU DIOS, y que ustedes caminarán en SUS caminos y mantendrán SUS estatutos, SUS mandamientos y SUS decretos y que ustedes escucharán su VOZ. 18 Y hoy EL SEÑOR ha reconocido que ustedes son un pueblo quienes son su propia posesión, como ÉL ha prometido a ustedes hacerles, y que ustedes deben mantener todos sus mandamientos. 19 El SEÑOR ha reconocido hoy que ÉL los pondrá por encima de todas las otras naciones que ÉL ha hecho, como ejemplo para alabanza, para reputación y para Honra. Ustedes serán un pueblo que estará apartado para EL SEÑOR SU DIOS, justo como ÉL dijo.

Deuteronomy 26:1

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

algo de lo primero de toda la cosecha
"Algunas de las primeras frutas de la cosecha" o "alguno de los primeros cultivos de la cosecha". Este "primero" es el número ordinal de uno.

Deuteronomy 26:3

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 26:5

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Mi antepasado era un arameo ambulante
Este es el comienzo de la declaración que el hombre israelita debe hacer cuando trae su canasta.

Un arameo ambulante
Esto se refiere a Jacob, que era el ancestro de todos los israelitas. El vivió por muchos años en Aram-Nahairam una región ubicada en Siria

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Y se quedó allí
"Y vivieron el resto de sus vidas ahí"

Ahí se convirtió
La palabra "se" es una figura literaria

Una gran, poderosa
Estas palabras significan básicamente la misma cosa. Ellas enfatizan que Israel se convirtió en una gran y poderosa nación. Traducción Alterna: "Muy grandiosa" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 26:6

Información General
Esto continúa lo que el israelita debe decir cuando trae sus primeros cultivos al SEÑOR

Nos trataron mal y nos afligieron
Estas dos frases dicen básicamente la misma cosa. Ellas enfatizan que los egipcios actuaron muy duramente.

Nos trataron
Aquí "nos" se refiere a la gente de Israel que estaba viviendo en Egipto. El orador se incluye a sí mismo como una de las personas ya sea si vivió en Egipto o no. (Ver:)

Él escuchó nuestra voz Aquí "voz" se refiere a la persona entera y sus gritos u oraciones. Traducción Alterna: "El oyó nuestros gritos" o "Escuchó nuestras oraciones".

nuestra aflicción, nuestra labor y nuestra opresión
"Que los egipcios nos estaban afligiendo, que estábamos haciendo un trabajo muy duro, y que los egipcios nos estaban oprimiendo"

Deuteronomy 26:8

Información General
Esto continúa lo que el israelita debe decir cuando trae sus primeros cultivos al SEÑOR

EL SEÑOR nos sacó
Aquí "nos" se refiere a la gente de Israel que estaba viviendo en Egipto. El orador se incluye a sí mismo como una de las personas ya sea si vivió en Egipto o no.

Con una mano poderosa, con un brazo extendido
Aquí "mano poderosa" y "brazo extendido" son metáforas para el poder del SEÑOR. Traducción alterna: "Mostrando su gran poder". Palabras similares aparecen en 4:34.

Con gran terror
"Con actos que aterrorizaron a las personas que los vieron"

Una tierra que fluye leche y miel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Mire cómo h traducido esto en 6:3. Traducción Alterna: "Una tierra donde fluye mucha leche y miel" o " Una tierra que es excelente para el ganado y la agricultura"

Deuteronomy 26:10

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los israelitas lo que deben decir cuando traen sus primeras cosechas al SEÑOR. Él habla a ellos como si ellos fueran un hombre,

Lo primero de la cosecha
"primeras frutas de la cosecha" o "primeros cultivos de la cosecha" deben colocarla

"Debes dejar la cesta"

Debes regocijarte en todo lo bueno que EL SEÑOR tu Dios ha hecho por ti
"Debes regocijarte y estar agradecido por todas las cosas buenas que EL SEÑOR tu Dios ha hecho por ti"

Deuteronomy 26:12

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

En el tercer año
Este "tercer" es un número ordinal para tres. Cada tres años la gente de Israel dió una décima parte de la cosecha a los pobres.

Huérfano
Estos son niños cuyos padres murieron y no tienen familiares que los cuiden.

Viuda
Esto significa una mujer cuyo marido ha muerto y no tiene hijos que la cuiden ahora que es mayor.

comer dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad y ser llenos Aquí "puertas" significan comunidades o ciudades. Traducción Alterna:"Para los que están dentro de tus ciudades tengan suficiente comida para comer"

Yo he traído
Estas son las primeras palabras de otra declaración que el israelita debía decir

Tampoco los he olvidado
Estos significa que él ha obedecido todos los mandamientos de Dios

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 26:14

Información General
Esto continúa lo que el israelita debe decirle al SEÑOR cuando entrega su diezmo a los pobres

Yo no he comido nada de eso en mi luto
"No he comido nada del diezmo mientras estaba de luto"

Cuando yo era impuro
Aquí "impuro" significa la persona que está sucia de acuerdo a la ley. Dios no permite que una persona sucia toque el diezmo que está dando a Dios. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explicito. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando estaba sucio de acuerdo a la ley" o "Cuando la ley decía que yo no podía tocar eso"

Yo he escuchado a la voz del SEÑOR mi Dios; yo he obedecido todo lo que tú me has mandado a hacer
Aquí "voz del SEÑOR" es una figura literaria

Desde el Santo lugar donde vives, desde el cielo
Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa. Traducción Alterna: "Del cielo, tu Santa Morada"

Una tierra fluyendo con leche y miel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:3. Traducción Alterna: "Una tierra donde fluye mucha leche y miel" o "Una tierra que es excelente para la ganadería y agricultura"

Deuteronomy 26:16

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Con todo tu corazón y con toda tu alma
Esta expresión idiomática "con todo ... corazón" significa "completamente" y "con todo.. alma" significa "con todo tu ser". Estas dos frases tienen significados similares. Traducción Alterna: "Con todo tu ser" o "Con toda tu energía". Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 4:29.

Que caminarás en sus caminos y guardarás sus estatutos, sus mandamientos y sus decretos, y que escucharás su voz Las palabras "caminar" "guardar", y "oír" tienen significados similares aquí. Aquí "voz" se refiere a lo que Dios dijo. Traducción Alterna: "Que vas a obedecer completamente todo lo que EL SEÑOR te ordene"

Deuteronomy 26:18

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Un pueblo quienes son su propia posesión
"Un pueblo que le pertenece a ÉL"

Él los pondrá por encima
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "El los hará mas importantes que" o "Él los hará más grandiosos que"

Él los pondrá por encima de todas las otras naciones que Él ha hecho, en respeto para alabanza, para reputación y para honra Posibles significados: 1) "Te hará llegar a ser más grande que cualquier otra nación que haya establecido, y te permitirá alabarle y horranlo" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) O 2) "Él hará que la gente te elogie más que cualquier otra nación que haya hecho, la gente dirá que eres mejor que cualquier otra nación y te honrarán"

Ustedes serán un pueblo que serán apartados para EL SEÑOR su Dios EL SEÑOR escogiendo a la gente de Israel para pertenecerle de una manera especial se menciona como si EL SEÑOR los separó de otras naciones. Esto puede ser declarado de forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR tu Dios te apartará de otras naciones"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 27

1 Moisés y los ancianos de Israel le ordenaron al pueblo y dijeron: "Mantengan todos los mandamientos que yo les ordeno hoy. 2 En el día cuando ustedes pasen sobre el Jordán a la tierra que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS les está dando, deben colocar unas piedras grandes y empañetarlas con yeso. 3 Deben escribir sobre ellas todas las palabras de esta ley cuando hayan cruzado; que puedan ir a la tierra que EL SEÑOR SU DIOS les está dando, una tierra fluyendo con leche y miel, según EL SEÑOR, EL DIOS de sus antepasados, les ha prometido. 4 Cuando ustedes hayan pasado sobre el Jordán, pongan estas piedras sobre las cuales les estoy ordenando hoy, en el Monte Ebal, y empañétenlas con yeso. 5 Ahí deberán construir un altar al SEÑOR SU DIOS, un altar de piedras; pero no deberán levantar ninguna herramienta de hierro para trabajar las piedras. 6 Deberán construir el altar del SEÑOR SU DIOS de piedras no trabajadas; deberán ofrecer ofrendas quemadas sobre él al SEÑOR SU DIOS, 7 y sacrificarán ofrendas de hermandad y comerán ahí; se alegrarán ante EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 8 Escribirán sobre las piedras todas las palabras de esta ley muy claramente". 9 Moisés y los sacerdotes, los levitas, hablaron a todo Israél y dijeron: "Estén callados y escuche Israel: Hoy ustedes se han convertido en el pueblo del SEÑOR SU DIOS. 10 Deberán por lo tanto obedecer la VOZ del SEÑOR SU DIOS y obedecer sus mandamientos y estatutos que yo les estoy ordenando hoy". 11 Moisés le ordenó al pueblo el mismo día y dijo: 12 "Estas tribus se pararán sobre el Monte Gerizim para bendecir al pueblo después que hayas pasado sobre el Jordán: Simeón, Leví, Judá, Isacar, José y Benjamín. 13 Estas son las tribus que se pararán sobre el Monte Ebal para pronunciar maldiciones: Rubén, Gad, Aser, Zabulón, Dan y Neftalí". 14 Los levitas contestarán y dirán a todos los hombres de Israel en una voz alta: 15 "Maldito sea el hombre que haga una figura tallada o fundida, una abominación al SEÑOR, el trabajo de las manos de un artesano y al que la levante en secreto". Entonces todo el pueblo deberá contestar y decir: "Amén". 16 "Será maldito el hombre que deshonre a su padre o a su madre". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 17 "Será maldito el hombre que le quite la tierra a su vecino.". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 18 "Será maldito el hombre que haga al ciego apartarse de su camino". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 19 "Será maldito el hombre que use la fuerza para quitarle la justicia al extranjero, huérfano, o viuda". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 20 "Será maldito el hombre que se acueste con la esposa de su padre, porque le ha quitado los derechos de su padre". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 21 "Será maldito el hombre que se acueste con cualquier tipo de bestia". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 22 "Será maldito el hombre que duerma con su hermana, la hija de su padre; o con la hija de su madre". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 23 "Será maldito el hombre que duerma con su suegra". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 24 "Será maldito el hombre que mate a su vecino en secreto". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 25 "Será maldito el hombre que acepte un soborno para matar a una persona inocente". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén". 26 "Será maldito el hombre que no confirme las palabras de esta ley para obedecerlas". Y todo el pueblo tiene que decir: "Amén".

Deuteronomy 27:1

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Les ordeno hoy ... Ustedes pasen
Moisés está hablando a los israelitas como un grupo.

Yo ordeno
Aquí "yo" se refiere a Moisés. Los ancianos están ahí en aprobación con Moisés, pero él es el único hablando.

Empañetarlas con yeso
Yeso es usualmente una mezcla de cal, arena y agua que es derramada en alguna cosa. Se seca para formar una superficie dura y lisa en la que una persona puede escribir. Traducción Alterna: "Extender el yeso sobre ellos" o "Hazlas para que puedas escribir en ellos" (Ver:)

Una tierra fluyendo con leche y miel
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 6:3. Traducción Alterna: "Una tierra donde fluye mucha leche y miel" o "Una tierra que es excelente para la ganadería y agricultura"

Deuteronomy 27:4

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran una persona.

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ustedes hayan pasado... erijan ... les estoy ordenando
Moisés está hablando a los israelitas como un grupo.

Cubran con yeso
"Derramen yeso en eso" o "Háganlo para que puedan escribir en ellos". Traduzca esto como en 27:1

Monte Ebal
Esta es una montaña cerca de Siquem. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 11:29

No deberán levantar ninguna herramienta de hierro para trabajar las piedras
Esto se refiere a los cinceles que harían la piedras más suaves, para que encajen mejor. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "No moldearás las piedras del altar con herramientas de hierro".

Deuteronomy 27:6

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Piedras no trabajadas
Piedras en su forma natural que nadie ha formado con herramientas metálicas

Escribir en las piedras
Esto se refiere a las piedras que debían instalarse en el Monte Ebal y ser cubiertas con yeso. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:1 y 27:4

Deuteronomy 27:9

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Obedece las palabras del SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí la figura literaria

Yo estoy ordenando
Moisés está ordenando. Los levitas están ahí de acuerdo con Moisés, pero él es el único hablando.

Deuteronomy 27:11

Estas tribus
Aquí la figura literaria

Monte Gerizim
Una pequeña montaña al Norte del Monte Ebal. Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 11:29

José
Esto combina las tribus de Efraín y Manasés, que eran descendientes de José.

Deuteronomy 27:13

Monte Ebal
Traduzca esto como lo hizo en 11:29

Pronunciar maldiciones
"Decir en voz alta cómo EL SEÑOR va a maldecir a Israel"

Deuteronomy 27:15

Maldito sea el hombre ... la erija en secreto
Esta es la declaración que los levitas deben gritar a toda la gente de Israel. Eso puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que EL SEÑOR maldiga a la persona ... lo erija en secreto" (Ver:)

El trabajo de las manos de un artesano
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Alguna cosa que un hombre ha hecho"

Artesano
Un hombre que sabe cómo hacer las cosas bien

Deuteronomy 27:16

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente que es lo que ellos deben decir

Será maldito el hombre
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Puede EL SEÑOR maldecir al hombre"

Le quite la tierra a su vecino
El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Quien quita tierra a su vecino moviendo los marcadores de los bordes de su tierra" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 27:18

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente que es lo que ellos deben decir

Será maldito el hombre
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:16. Traducción Alterna: " Puede EL SEÑOR maldecir al hombre" (Ver:)

Use la fuerza para quitarle la justicia al extranjero ... Viuda Moisés habla de justicia como si eso fuera un objeto físico que una persona fuerte puede quitar violentamente a una persona débil. Su idioma podría tener una palabra que significa "usar la fuerza para quitar". Palabras similares aparecen en 24:17. Traducción Alterna: "Trata al extranjero ... Viuda injustamente"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Huérfano
Estos son niños cuyos padres han muerto y no tienen parientes que cuiden de ellos

Viuda
Significa una mujer cuyo esposo ha muerto y no tiene hijios que ciuden de ella en su edad avanzada

Deuteronomy 27:20

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente lo que ellos deben decir

Que el hombre sea maldito
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:16. Traducción Alterna: "Puede EL SEÑOR maldecir al hombre"

La esposa de su padre
Esto no se refiere a la madre del hombre, sino a otra esposa de su padre.

le ha quitado los derechos de su padre
Cuando un hombre se casa con una mujer, sólo él tiene el derecho legal de dormir con ella. El significado completo de esta declaración puede hacerse explícito. Traducción Alterna: "Se ha llevado el derecho legal de su padre" (Ver:)

Que se acueste con cualquier tipo de bestia
El completo significado de esta declaración puede hacerse explicita. Traducción Alterna: "Quien duerma con cualquier clase de bestia en la forma en la que un hombre se acuesta con una mujer" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 27:22

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente lo que ellos deben decir

Será maldito el hombre
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:16. Traducción Alterna: "Puede EL SEÑOR maldecir al hombre" (Ver:)

La hija de su padre, o con la hija de su madre
Esto significa que un hombre no puede dormir con su hermana, incluso si ella tiene madre o padre diferente

Deuteronomy 27:24

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente lo que ellos deben decir

Será maldito el hombre
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:16. Traducción Alterna: "Puede EL SEÑOR maldecir al hombre"

Deuteronomy 27:26

Información General
Moisés continúa diciendo a los levitas y a la gente lo que ellos deben decir

Será maldito el hombre
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Vea cómo tradujo esto en 27:16. Traducción Alterna: "Puede el SEÑOR maldecir al hombre" (Ver:)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 28

1 Si escuchan cuidadosamente la voz DEL SEÑOR SU DIOS para guardar todos sus mandamientos que YO les Estoy ordenando hoy, EL SEÑOR SU DIOS los pondrá sobre todas las naciones de la tierra. 2 Todas estas bendiciones vendrán sobre ustedes y les sucederán, si escuchan la voz DEL SEÑOR SU DIOS. 3 Benditos serán en la ciudad, y benditos serán en el campo. 4 Bendito será el fruto de su cuerpo, y el fruto de su tierra, y el fruto de sus bestias, el aumento de su ganado y las crías de su rebaño. 5 Bendita será su cesta y su amasador. 6 Benditos serán cuando ustedes entren, y benditos serán cuando salgan. 7 El SEÑOR causará que los enemigos que se levanten contra de ustedes sean derrotados delante de ustedes; ellos saldrán en su contra por un camino, pero huirán ante ustedes por siete caminos. 8 El SEÑOR le ordenará a las bendiciones que vengan sobre ustedes, en sus graneros y en todo lo que pongan sus manos; Él los bendecirá a ustedes en la tierra que ÉL les está dando. 9 El SEÑOR les establecerá como un pueblo que es separado para sí mismo, como ÉL les ha jurado a ustedes, si guardan los mandamientos del SEÑOR SU DIOS, y caminan en sus caminos. 10 Todos los pueblos de la tierra verán que ustedes son llamados por el nombre del SEÑOR, y ellos tendrán miedo de ustedes. 11 El SEÑOR los hará muy prósperos en el fruto de su cuerpo, en el fruto de su ganado, en el fruto de su tierra, en la tierra que ÉL le juró a sus antepasados que les daría. 12 El SEÑOR les abrirá a ustedes su almacén de los cielos para dar lluvia a la tierra de ustedes en el tiempo correcto, y para bendecir todo el trabajo de sus manos; le prestarán a muchas naciones, pero ustedes no tomarán prestado. 13 El SEÑOR les hará ser cabeza, pero no ser la cola; sólo estarán por encima, y nunca estarán por debajo, si escuchan los mandamientos del SEÑOR SE DIOS que YO les estoy ordenando hoy, para que los observen y los hagan, 14 y si ustedes no se apartan de ninguna de las palabras que YO les estoy ordenando hoy, a la mano derecha o a la izquierda, ni van detrás de otros dioses para servirles. 15 Pero si ustedes no escuchan la VOZ del SEÑOR SU DIOS para seguir todos Sus mandamientos y Sus estatutos que yo les estoy ordenando hoy, entonces todas estas maldiciones vendrán sobre ustedes y les sucederán. 16 Maldito serás en la ciudad, y maldito serás en el campo. 17 Maldita será tu canasta y tu artesa. 18 Maldito será el fruto de tu cuerpo, el fruto de tu tierra, el aumento de tu ganado, y las crías de tu rebaño. 19 Maldito serás cuando entres, y maldito serás cuando salgas. 20 El SEÑOR enviará sobre tí maldiciones, confusión, y reprimendas en todo lo que pongas tu mano, hasta que seas destruído, y hasta que perezcas rápidamente a causa de tus acciones malvadas por las cuales tu me has abandonado. 21 El SEÑOR hará que la plaga se adhiera a tí hasta que ÉL te destruya en las afueras de la tierra que vas camino a poseer. 22 El SEÑOR te atacará con enfermedades infecciosas, con fiebre, con inflamación, y con sequía y calor abrasador, y con intensos vientos y moho. Estas te perseguirán hasta que perezcas. 23 Los cielos que están sobre tu cabeza serán de bronce, y la tierra que está debajo de tí será de hierro. 24 El SEÑOR convertirá la lluvia de tu tierra en polvo y ceniza; desde los cielos caerán a tí, hasta que seas destruído. 25 El SEÑOR causará que seas derribado ante tus enemigos; tu saldrás por un camino contra ellos pero huirán ante ellos por siete caminos. Serás arrojado y esparcido por entre todos los reinos de la tierra. 26 Tu cadaver será alimento para todas las aves de los cielos y para las bestias de la tierra; no habrá quien los aleje. 27 El SEÑOR te atacará con los tumores de Egipto y con úlceras, sarna, y picazón, de los cuales no podrás ser sanado. 28 El SEÑOR te atacará con locura, con ceguera, y con confusión mental. 29 Irás a tientas durante el día como el ciego que tantea en la oscuridad, y no prosperarás en tus caminos; serás siempre oprimido y robado, y no habrá nadie para salvarte. 30 Tu te comprometerás con una mujer, pero otro hombre la tomará y la violará. Construirás una casa pero no vivirás en ella; tu plantarás un viñedo pero no disfrutarás su fruto. 31 Tu buey será descuartizado delante de tus ojos, pero no comerás su carne; tu burro será tomado por la fuerza ante tí y no te será restituido. Tu oveja será dada a tus enemigos, y tu no tendras a nadie para ayudarte. 32 Tus hijos y tus hijas serán dados a otras personas; tus ojos los buscarán todo el día, pero fallarán en las ansias por ellos. No habrá fuerza en tu mano. 33 La cosecha de tu tierra y de todas tus labores la comerá una nación que tu no conoces; siempre serás oprimido y aplastado, 34 así que te volverás loco por lo que tendrás que ver pasar. 35 Él SEÑOR te atacará en tus rodillas y piernas con llagas dolorosas de las cuales no podrás ser curado, desde la planta de tus pies hasta el tope de tu cabeza. 36 Él SEÑOR te llevará a tí, y al rey a quien escojerás sobre tí, a una nación que tú no conoces, ni tú ni tus ancestros; allí adorarás otros dioses de madera y piedra. 37 Tú te convertirás en una fuente de horror, un proverbio, y en un dicho, entre toda la gente donde Él SEÑOR te guiará lejos. 38 Tú sembrarás mucha semilla en tus campos, pero recogerás poca semilla, porque las langostas la consumirá. 39 Tú plantarás viñedos y los cultivarás, pero no tomarás ningun vino ni tampoco recogerás las uvas, porque los gusanos se las comerán. 40 Tú tendrás árboles de olivo por todo tu territorio, pero no aplicarás de su aceite en ti, porque tus árboles de olivo

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

dejarán caer sus frutos. 41 Tú tendrás hijos e hijas, pero no permanecerán tuyos, porque se irán en cautividad. 42 Todos tus árboles y los frutos de tu tierra, las langostas los tomarán. 43 El extranjero que esta entre ustedes se levantará sobre ti alto y más alto; tú mismo bajarás bajo y más bajo. 44 Él te prestará a ti y tú no le prestarás a él; él será la cabeza, y tú serás la cola. 45 Todas estás maldiciones vendrán sobre tí y te perseguirán y te sucederán hasta que tú seas destruido. Esto sucederá porque tú no escuchaste la voz del SEÑOR TU DIOS, para guardar Sus mandamientos y Sus estatutos que ÉL te mandó. 46 Estas maldiciones serán en ti como señales y maravillas, y en tus descendientes por siempre. 47 Porque tu no adoraste al SEÑOR TU DIOS con alegria y contentamiento de corazón cuando estabas en prosperidad, 48 por lo tanto servirás a los enemigos que el SEÑOR enviará en contra tuya; les servirás en hambruna, sediento, en desnudez y en pobreza. El pondrá un yugo de hierro en tu cuello hasta que te destruya. 49 El SEÑOR traerá desde lejos una nación en contra de tí, desde los confines de la tierra, como un águila vuela hacia su víctima, una nación cuya lengua tú no comprendes; 50 una nación con un rostro feroz que no respeta al viejo y no muestra favor al joven. 51 Ellos comerán las crías de tu ganado y el fruto de tu tierra hasta que seas destruído. Ellos no te dejarán ningún grano, vino nuevo, o aceite, ninguna cría de tu ganado ni de tu rebaño, hasta que hayan causado que perezcas. 52 Ellos te rodearán en todas las puertas de tu ciudad, hasta que tus altos y fortificados muros caigan en toda tu tierra, muros en los que has confiado. Ellos te sitiarán dentro de todas las puertas de tu ciudad a través de toda la tierra que el SEÑOR TU DIOS te ha dado. 53 Comerás el fruto de tu propio cuerpo, la carne de tus hijos y de tus hijas, quienes el SEÑOR TU DIOS te dió, en el asedio y en la angustia las cuales tus enemigos pondrán sobre tí. 54 El hombre que es tierno y muy delicado entre ustedes, será envidioso de su hermano y de su propia querida esposa, y de cualquier hijo que haya dejado. 55 Así que no dará a ninguno de ellos la carne de sus propios hijos porque el vá a comer solo, porque no le quedará nada para sí mismo en el asedio y la angustia que tu enemigo pondrá sobre tí dentro de todas las puertas de la ciudad. 56 La mujer tierna y delicada entre ustedes, que no se aventure a poner la parte inferior de su pie en el suelo por delicadeza y ternura, será envidiosa de su propio querido esposo, de su hijo, y de su hija, 57 y de su propio recién nacido que nace de entre sus piernas, y de los hijos a quienes ella soportará. Ella los comerá en privado por falta de cualquier otra cosa, durante el asedio y en la angustia, las cuales tu enemigo pondrá sobre tí dentro de las puertas de tu ciudad. 58 Si ustedes no guardan todas las palabras de esta ley y que están escritas en este libro, para honrar Su Glorioso y Temeroso Nombre; EL SEÑOR SU DIOS, 59 entonces el SEÑOR hará que sus plagas sean terribles, y sobre aquellos de sus desendientes; esas serán grandes plagas de larga duración, y enfermedades severas, de larga duración. 60 ÉL enviará sobre ustedes otra vez todas las enfermedades de Egipto, a las que les temían, ellas se pegarán a ustedes. 61 Además, toda enfermedad y plaga que no esté escrita en el libro de esta ley, estas también EL SEÑOR les enviará, hasta que estén destruídos. 62 Ustedes quedarán pocos en número, aunque eran numerosos como estrellas en el cielo, porque no escucharon a la voz del SEÑOR SU DIOS. 63 Como EL SEÑOR se alegró una vez sobre ustedes en hacerles bien, y en multiplicarles, así se alegrará en ustedes, haciéndoles perecer y destruyéndoles. Serán arrancados de la tierra que poseerán. 64 El SEÑOR los dispersará entre todos los pueblos desde un extremo de la tierra al otro extremo de la tierra; allí adorarán otros dioses que no han conocido ni ustedes, ni sus ancestros, dioses de madera y piedra. 65 Entre estas naciones no encontrarán descanso, y allí no habrá reposo para la planta de sus pies; en cambio, EL SEÑOR les dará allí un corazón tembloroso, ojos que fallan, y un alma que llora. 66 Su vida colgará en duda ante ustedes; temerán toda noche y día, y no tendrán certeza de toda su vida. 67 En las mañanas ustedes dirán: "¡desearíamos que fuera de noche!"y en las noches dirán: "¡desearíamos que fuera de mañana!" por el miedo en sus corazones y las cosas que sus ojos tendrán que ver. 68 El SEÑOR les llevará a Egipto otra vez en barcas, por la ruta en la cual yo les dije: "No verán a Egipto otra vez". Allí ustedes se ofrecerán a la venta a sus enemigos como hombres y mujeres esclavos, pero nadie les comprará.

Deuteronomy 28:1

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

La voz del SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí la figura literaria

Para guardar
"Y obedecer"

los pondrá sobre
Moisés habla de ser importante o de ser grande como si eso fuera ser físicamente alto, como una colina alta. Traducción Alterna: "Hacerte mas importante que" o "Hacerte mas grandioso que"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Todas estas bendiciones vendrán sobre ustedes y les sucederán
Moisés describe las bendiciones como una persona que los atacaría por sorpresa o los perseguiría y atraparía. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR les bendecirá así en maneras que les sorprenderá por completo, y eso será como si ustedes no puedan escapar de su bendición"

Deuteronomy 28:3

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Benditos serán
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR los bendecirá"

En la ciudad ... En el campo
Esta figura literaria (merismo) significa que EL SEÑOR los bendecirá en todo lugar (Ver:)

El fruto de su cuerpo, y el fruto de su tierra, y el fruto de sus bestias
Estas expresienes idiomáticas para "Tus niños, y tus cultivos, y tus animales" Forman una figura literaria

El fruto de sus bestias, el aumento de su ganado y los jóvenes de su rebaño
Este doblete son tres formas de decir que EL SEÑOR hará que los animales de los israelitas sean mucho más fuertes. Traducción Alterna: "Todos tus animales junto con los terneros del ganado y los corderos de los rebaños"

Deuteronomy 28:5

Información general
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Benditos serán
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR bendecirá" (Ver:)

Su cesta y su amasador
Los israelitas usaban cesta para llevar granos. Un "amasador" era un cuenco que ellos usaban para mezclar el grano y hacer pan. Traducción Alterna: "Toda la comida que cultivas y toda la comida que comes"

Cuando ustedes entren ... cuando salgan
Esta figura literaria (merismo) se refiere a todas las actividades de la vida donde quiera que vayan. (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:7

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Causará que los enemigos que se levanten contra de ustedes sean derrotados delante de ustedes
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hacer que derrotes a los ejércitos que te atacan"

Pero huirán ante ustedes de siete maneras
"Pero huirán de ustedes en siete direcciones"

Siete maneras
Esta es una expresión idiomática. El número real puede ser más o menos que siete. Traducción Alterna: "En muchas direcciones diferentes" (Ver:)

EL SEÑOR le ordenará a las bendiciones que vengan sobre ustedes, en sus graneros Moisés describe al SEÑOR bendiciendo a los israelitas como si EL SEÑOR le ordenara a una persona que los atacara por sorpresa. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando EL SEÑOR te bendiga, te sorprenderás de la cantidad de grano que tendrás en tus graneros"

Y en todo lo que pongan sus manos
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Y en todo lo que tú haces" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:9

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

EL SEÑOR les establecerá como un pueblo que es separado para sí mismo EL SEÑOR eligiendo a las personas de Israel para pertenecerle de una manera especial se menciona como si EL SEÑOR pone a ellos en un lugar diferente al lugar donde viven todas las demás naciones. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR les hará un pueblo Santo que le pertenece"

Ustedes son llamados por el nombre de EL SEÑOR
Aquí la figura literaria

Deuteronomy 28:11

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

En el fruto de su cuerpo, en el fruto de su ganado, en el fruto de su tierra Esta es unaexpresión idiomática. Palabras similares aparecen en 28:03. Traducción Alterna: "Con niños, animales, y cultivos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Su almacén de los cielos
Moisés habla de las nubes por las que cae la lluvia como si ellas fueran edificaciones donde se almacena la lluvia. Traducción Alterna: "Las nubes" (Ver:)

En el tiempo correcto
"Cuando los cultivos necesiten eso"

Todo el trabajo desus manos
La palabra "mano" es una figura literaria

Deuteronomy 28:13

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

La cabeza, pero no la cola
Esta metáfora describe la nación de Israel como un animal y significa que losisraelitas siempre serán los líderes encima de otras naciones y nunca los sirvientes siguiendo detrás a ellos. Los israelitas van a ser superiores en poder, dinero, y honor.

Sólo estarán por encima... nunca estarán abajo
Los israelitas mandarán sobre otros pero nunca otros mandarán a ellos.

Yo les estoy ordenando
Moisés está hablando a todos los israelitas.

Si ustedes no se apartan de ninguna de las palabras que yo les estoy ordenando hoy, a la mano derecha o a la izquierda, ni van detrás de otros dioses para servirles Desobedecer al SEÑOR adorando a otros dioses es como si una persona físicamente retorna y va en una dirección diferente de las palabras del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna:"Si no desobedecen lo que les estoy ordenando hoy por servir a otros dioses" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:15

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Pero si
Aquí Moisés empieza a describir las maldiciones que la gente va a recibir si ellos desobedecen

La voz del SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí la figura literaria

Entonces todas estas maldiciones vendrán sobre ustedes y les sucederán Moisés describe las maldiciones como una persona que les atacará de sorpresa o perseguirá y agarrará. Traducción Alterna: "El SEÑOR les maldecirá en maneras que les sorprenderá por completo, y eso será como si no pudieran escapar de tener su maldición" (Ver: y)

Vendrán sobre ustedes y les sucederán
Traduzca esto como en 28:1

Deuteronomy 28:16

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como su ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Información General
Estas frases aparecen con anterioridad en el capítulo. Vea cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 28:3 y 28:5

Maldito serás
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR te maldecirá" (Ver:)

En la ciudad ... En el campo
Esta figura literaria

Tu canasta y tu artesa
Los israelitas usaban canasta para llevar granos. Una "artesa" era un cuenco que ellos usaban para mezclar el grano y hacer el pan. Traduzca esto como en 28:5. Traducción Alterna: "Toda la comida que cultivaste y toda la comida que comiste" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:18

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Información General
Estas frases aparecen más temprano en el capítulo. Vea cómo tradujo muchas de estas palabras en 28:3 y 28:5

Maldito será
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR va a maldecir"

El fruto de tu cuerpo, el fruto de tu tierra
Esta es una expresión idiomática para "tus hijos, tus cultivos". Traduzca esto como en 28:3

El aumento de tu ganado, y las crías de tu rebaño
Este doblete son dos maneras de decir que EL SEÑOR hará a los animales de los israelitas muchos y fuertes. Traducción Alterna: "Los terneros del ganado y los corderos de los rebaños". (Ver:)

Cuando entres ... y cuando salgas
Este figura literaria (metonimia) se refiere a todas las actividades de vida donde quiera que vaya. Traduzca esto como en 28:5 (Ver:)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 28:20

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Maldiciones, confusión y reprimendas
"Desastres, miedo, y frustración"

En todo lo que pongas tu mano
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "En todo lo que hagas"

Hasta que seas destruido
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hasta que tus enemigos te destruyan" (Ver:)

Me has abandonado
Aquí "me has" se refiere al SEÑOR

Se adhiera a ti
"Permanezca en ti"

Deuteronomy 28:22

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Enfermedades infecciosas, con fiebre, con inflamación
"Enfermedades y fiebres elevadas que te debiliten". Todo esto se refiere a enfermedades que causan que la persona se debilite y muera.

con sequía
"Con falta de lluvia"

Moho
El moho que crece en los cultivos y causa que se pudran

Estos te perseguirán
Moisés habla de la cantidad de cosas que pueden pasar los israelitas como si fueran personas o animales que perseguirán a los israelitas. Traducción Alterna: "Sufrirás de ellos" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:23

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Cielos .. Serán bronces
Moisés habla de los cielos siendo como bronces porque no habrá lluvia. Traducción Alterna: "Cielos ... No darán lluvia"

La tierra ... Será Hierro
Moisés habla de la tierra siendo como hierro porque ninguna cosecha crecerá. Traducción Alterna: "Nada crecerá de la tierra" (Ver:)

EL SEÑOR convertirá la lluvia de tu tierra en polvo y ceniza
"En lugar de lluvia, EL SEÑOR mandará tormentas de arena"

Hasta que seas destruido
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hasta que eso te destruya"

Deuteronomy 28:25

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

EL SEÑOR causará que seas derribado ante tus enemigos Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR causará que tus enemigos te derriben" (Ver:)

Ser derribado ante
Traduzca esto como en 28:7

Huirán ante ellos por siete caminos
Esto significa que los israelitas tendrán miedo y pánico y correrán lejos de sus enemigos. Ver fraseología similar en 28:7. Traducción Alterna: "Huirás en siete direcciones"

Siete caminos
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "En varias direcciones diferentes "

Serás arrojado de aquí para allá entre todos los reinos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Las personas de otras naciones te conducirán de una nación a otra"

Deuteronomy 28:27

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

Los tumores de Egipto
"La misma enfermedad de la piel con la que maldije a los Egipcios"

tumores... úlceras, sarna, y picazón
Estas son direfentes tipos de enfermedades de la piel

De los cuáles no podrás ser sanado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "De las cuales ninguno puede ser capaz de curarte" (Ver:)

Irás a tientas durante el día como el ciego que tantea en la oscuridad
"Serás como las personas ciegas que tientan en la oscuridad incluso al medio día". Los israelitas

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

tendrán una vida difícil incluso cuando todos están disfrutando la vida. (Ver:)

Serás siempre oprimido y robado
"Personas fuertes siempre te oprimirán y robarán"

Deuteronomy 28:30

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Tu buey será matado ante tus ojos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Tu mirarás como alguien mata a tu Buey" (Ver:)

Tu burro será tomado forzosamente ante tí y no te será restituido
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Alguien tomará a tu burro por la fuerza y no te lo dará de vuelta"

Tu oveja será dada a tus enemigos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo daré tus ovejas a tus enemigos" o "Yo permitiré que tus enemigos tomen tus ovejas"

Deuteronomy 28:32

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Tus hijos y tus hijas serán dados a otras personas
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Yo daré a tus hijos y a tus hijas a otras personas" o "Tus enemigos tomarán a tus hijos y a tus hijas" (Ver:)

Tus ojos los buscarán todo el día, pero fallarán en las ansias por ellos Aquí "tus ojos" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Crecerás cansado mientras los observas constantemente y anhelarás volver a verlos"

No habrá fuerza en tu mano
Aquí la figura literaria

Deuteronomy 28:33

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Una nación
Aquí el figura literaria

Siempre serás oprimido y aplastado
Las palabras "oprimido" y "aplastado" significan básicamente la misma cosa. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Ellos siempre te oprimirán y aplastarán" o "Ellos te oprimirán contínuamente" (Ver: y)

Te volverás loco por lo que tendrás que ver pasar
"Lo que verás te volverá loco"

De las cuales no podrás ser curado
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que nadie podrá curar" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:36

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

De horror, un proverbio y en un dicho entre toda la gente donde EL SEÑOR te guiará lejos Aquí las palabras "proverbio" y "dicho" significan básicamente la misma cosa. Esto puede ser traducido como una nueva oración. Traducción Alterna:"De horror. La gente, en lugares donde EL SEÑOR te mandará, hará proverbios y dichos acerca de ustedes" o "De horror. EL SEÑOR te enviará a personas que se reirán de ti y te ridiculizarán" (Ver:)

Dicho
Una palabra o frase que la gente usa para avergonzar a otros

Deuteronomy 28:38

Información General
Moisés habla a losisraelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

Pero recogerás poca semilla en
"Pero cosecharás muy poca comida"

Deuteronomy 28:40

Información General
Moisés continúa describiendo las maldiciones de Dios si las personas le desobedecen. ÉL habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Pero aplicarás nada de aceite en ti
La gente aplica aceite de oliva en ellos mismos para hacer su piel saludable

Tus árboles de olivo dejarán caer sus frutos
Es posible que deba hacer explícito que la fruta caerá antes de que esté madura. Traducción Alterna: "Tus olivos dejarán caer su fruto antes de que el fruto esté maduro" o " Las aceitunas se caerán de tus olivos antes de que estén maduras"

Deuteronomy 28:42

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

El extranjero que esta... El lo hará ... A Él Esto no significa un extranjero específico, sino que se refiere a extranjeros en general. Traducción Alterna: "Los extranjeros que eran ... Lo harán ... a ellos"

Se levantará sobre ti alto y más alto; tú mismo bajarás bajo y más bajo
Esta expresión idiomática significa que los extranjeros tendrán más poder, dinero, y honor que los israelitas.

Él será la cabeza, y tú serás la cola
Esto significa que los extranjeros tendrán más poder y autoridad que los israelitas. Vea cómo tradujo una frase similar en 28:13

Deuteronomy 28:45

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

Todas estas maldiciones vendrán sobre ti y te perseguirán y te sucederán hasat que tú seas destruido Moisés describe las maldiciones como una persona que puede atacarlos por sorpresa o perseguirlos y agarrarlos. Vea cómo tradujo algo similar en 28:1. Traducción Alterna: EL SEÑOR te maldecirá así de diferentes maneras que te sorprenderán completamente, y será como si ÉL te estuviera persiguiendo y no puedas escapar de tener su maldicion"

La voz de EL SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí las palabras "Voz del SEÑOR" son una figura literaria

Sus mandamientos y sus estatutos
Las palabras "mandamientos" y "estatutos" son un doblete para "todo lo que EL SEÑOR te ha ordenado a hacer" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:47

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Regocijo y contentamiento de corazón
Aquí "regocijo" y " contentamiento del corazón" significan la misma cosa. Ellos enfatizan que las personas debería haber estado muy contenta de adorar al SEÑOR. (Ver:)

ÉL pondrá un yugo de hierro en tu cuello
Esta es una metáfora para EL SEÑOR permitiendo al enemigo tratar a los israelitas cruelmente y hacerlos sus esclavos.

Deuteronomy 28:49

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

Desde lejos, desde los confines de la tierra
Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa y enfatizan que el enemigo vendrá de una nación que está muy lejos de Israel.

Desde los confines de la tierra
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "De lugares de los que no sabes nada"

Como un águila vuela hacia su víctima
Esto significa que el enemigo vendrá repentinamente y los israelitas no podrán detenerlo.

Una nación con un rostro feroz que no respeta al viejo y no muestra favor al joven
La palabra "nación" es una figura literaria (metonimia) para la gente de esa nación. Traducción Alterna: "Una nación cuya gente tiene expresiones feroces, que no respetan a los ancianos y no muestran favor"

Hasta que hayan causado que perezcas
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:" Hasta que te destruyan" o "Hasta que te dejen sin nada" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:52

Información General
Moisés continúa describiendo a la armada que va a atacar a los israelitas si ellos no obedecen a EL SEÑOR. Él habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre, (Ver:)

Tu en todas las puertas de tu ciudad Aquí la frase "puertas de ciudad" representa a la ciudad. Traducción Alterna:"Tus ciudades" (Ver:)

El fruto de tu propio cuerpo, la carne de tus hijos y tus hijas
Aquí "la carne de tus hijos y de tus hijas" explica la metáfora "el fruto de tu propio cuerpo". La gente tendrá tanta hambre después de que la armada de el enemigo rodee la ciudad que ellos comerán a sus propios niños.

La fruta de tu propio cuerpo
Esto habla de niños como si ellos fueran frutos que fueron producidos de los cuerpos de sus padres. Traducción Alterna: "Tus propios hijos"

Deuteronomy 28:54

Inofrmación General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Que es tierno y muy delicado entre ustedes - El "Que es tierno y muy delicado entre ustedes- incluso él". Moisés esta diciendo que no solo ellos esperarán comer a sus hijos, sino incluso la última persona que uno no esperaría comerse a sus propios hijos.

Todas las puertas de su ciudad Aquí "puertas de la ciudad" representa las mismas ciudades. Traducción Alterna:"Todas tus ciudades"

Deuteronomy 28:56

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

La mujer tierna y delicada entre ustedes... Ternura- Ella
"La tierna y delicada mujer entre ustedes ... ternura-incluso ella". Moisés esta diciendo que no solo las que uno esperaría comerán a sus hijos, sino que incluso las mujeres de nacimiento noble y normalmente muy gentiles, a las que nunca se esperaría comerse a sus hijos, comerán a sus hijos. (Ver:)

Que no se aventure a poner la parte inferior de su pie en el suelo por delicadeza y ternura Moisés está exagerando. El está enfatizando que esta mujer noble es muy rica y vive en tanto lujo que ella no se permitirá ensuciarse.

Por delicadeza y ternura
Los sustantivos abstractos "delicadeza" y "ternura" pueden ser declaradas como cláusulas. Traducción Alterna:" Porque ella es muy delicada y tierna"

Entre las puertas de tu ciudad Aquí "puertas de tu ciudad" representan a las mismas ciudades. Traducción Alterna:"Entre tus ciudades"

Deuteronomy 28:58

Información General
Moisés habla a losisraelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre. (Ver:)

Que están escritas
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que yo he escrito" (Ver:)

Su glorioso y temeroso nombre, EL SEÑOR tu Dios
Aquí el figura literaria

EL SEÑOR hará que sus plagas sean terribles, y aquellas de sus descendientes
"EL SEÑOR enviará plagas terribles a ustedes y tus descendientes" o "EL SEÑOR se asegurará que tu y tus descendientes sufran de plagas terribles"

Deuteronomy 28:60

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre, (Ver:)

Él enviará sobre ustedes otra vez todas las enfermedades de Egipto Este es un modismo. Traducción Alterna: "Él se asegurará que tú de nuevo sufras las enfermedades de Egipto"

Ellas se pegarán a ustedes
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: " Las enfermedades no detendrán, y ninguno será capaz de curarlos de ellas"

Toda enfermedad y plaga que no esté escrita
Este hipérbole puede ser declarada en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Incluso enfermedades y plagas que no he escrito"

Hasta que estén destruidos
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Hasta que él te ha destruido" (Ver:)

Ustedes se quedarán ... ustedes estaban como ... no han escuchado
Moisés está hablando a los israelitas como un grupo

Serán como las estrellas de los cielos en número
Esto significa que en el pasado ellos eran muchos israelitas.

A la voz de EL SEÑOR
Aquí la figura literaria

Deuteronomy 28:63

EL SEÑOR se regocijó una vez sobre ustedes .. Multiplicandoles .. se regocijara en ustedes haciéndoles perecer y destruyéndoles. Serán arrancados Moisés está hablando a los israelitas como a un grupo.

Se regocijó una vez sobre ustedes en hacerles bien, y en multiplicarles
"EL SEÑOR una vez se regocijó haciéndote bien y causando que sean muchos"

Se regocijará en ustedes haciéndoles perecer
"Se regocijará haciéndoles morir"

Serán arrancados de la tierra que poseerán Moisés usa una metáfora para hablar a las personas como si fueran frutas que EL SEÑOR quitaría de un arbusto. Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna:" Él les quitará a ustedes de la tierra que estan entrando a poseer"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Ustedes irán .. Los dispersará ... allí adorarán ... que no han conocido ... ni ustedes ni sus ancestros
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Desde un extremo de la tierra a otro extremo de la tierra
Estos dos extremos juntos significan cualquier lugar en la tierra. Traducción Alterna: "A lo largo de la tierra" o " En toda la tierra" (Biblia Dinámica Desbloqueada) (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:65

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre

No habrá reposo para la planta de sus pies
Aquí la frase "planta de sus pies" se refiere a toda la persona. Traducción Alterna: "Tendrás que vagar continuamente porque no tendrás un hogar permanente donde puedas descansar" (Ver:)

EL SEÑOR les dará allí un corazón tembloroso, ojos que fallan, y un alma que llora Este es un modismo. Traduccion Alterna: "EL SEÑOR causará que tengas miedo, sin esperanza, y triste"

Su vida colgará en duda ante ustedes
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "No sabrás si vivirás o morirás" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 28:67

Información General
Moisés habla a los israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

Por el miedo en sus corazones
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Por el miedo que ustedes están sintiendo"

Las cosas que tus ojos tendrán que ver
Aquí "ojos" se refiere a la persona completa. Traducción Alterna: "Las cosas terribles que les forzaré ver"

Yo he dicho
Aquí "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Chapter 29

1 Estas son las palabras que EL SEÑOR le ha mandado a Moisés decirle al pueblo de Israél en la tierra de Moab, palabras que fueron añadidas al Pacto que ÉL ha hecho con ellos en Horeb. 2 Moisés llamó a todo Israél y les dijo: "Ustedes han visto todo lo que EL SEÑOR hizo ante tus ojos en la tierra de Egipto al Faraón, a todos sus sirvientes y a toda su tierra, 3 los grandes sufrimientos que sus ojos vieron, las señales y aquellas grandes maravillas. 4 Pero hasta hoy EL SEÑOR no les há dado a ustedes un corazón para conocer, ojos para ver u oídos para escuchar. 5 Yo los he guiado a ustedes por cuarenta años en el desierto; sus vestiduras no se desgastaron en ustedes y sus sandalias no se desgastaron en sus pies. 6 Ustedes no comieron nada de pan y no bebieron ningún vino u otras bebidas alcohólicas, para que así ustedes pudieran conocer que yo soy EL SEÑOR TU DIOS. 7 Cuando ustedes llegaron a este lugar, Sehón el rey de Hesbón, y Og el rey de Basán, salieron en contra de ustedes para pelear y nosotros los derrotamos. 8 Nosotros tomamos su tierra y la dimos como una herencia a los rubenitas, a los gaditas y a la mitad de la tribu de Manasés. 9 Por lo tanto, mantengan las palabras de este Pacto y háganlas, para que así ustedes puedan prosperar en todo lo que ustedes hagan. 10 Ustedes se paran hoy, todos ustedes, delante del SEÑOR SU DIOS; sus jefes, sus tribus, sus ancianos y sus oficiales, todos los hombres de Israél, 11 sus pequeños, sus esposas y el extranjero que está entre ustedes en su campamento, desde aquel que corta su madera hasta aquel que saca su agua. 12 Ustedes están aquí para que así entren al Pacto del SEÑOR SU DIOS y entren al juramento que el SEÑOR SU DIOS está haciendo con ustedes hoy, 13 para que así ÉL pueda hacerlos hoy un pueblo para ÉL mismo, y para que ÉL pueda ser DIOS para ustedes, así como ÉL habló a ustedes y así como ÉL juró a tus antepasados, a Abraham, a Isaac y a Jacob. 14 Y no es solamente con ustedes que estoy haciendo este Pacto y este juramento, 15 con todo el que esté parado aquí con nosotros hoy delante del SEÑOR NUESTRO DIOS, pero también con aquellos que no están aquí con nosotros hoy. 16 Ustedes saben cómo nosotros vivimos en la tierra de Egipto y cómo nosotros pasamos por medio de las naciones por las cuales ustedes pasaron. 17 Has visto sus cosas desagradables, sus ídolos de madera y piedra, plata y oro, que estaban entre ellos. 18 Asegúrense que no haya entre ustedes ningún hombre, mujer, familia, o tribu cuyo corazón se esté alejando hoy del SEÑOR NUESTRO DIOS, para ir a adorar los dioses de esas naciones. Asegúrense que no haya entre ustedes ninguna raíz que produzca hiel y ajenjo. 19 Cuando esa persona oiga las palabras de esta maldición, él se bendecirá en su corazón y dirá: "yo tendré paz, a pesar de caminar en la terquedad de mi corazón". Esto podría destruir lo mojado junto con lo seco. 20 Él SEÑOR no le perdonará a él, pero el enojo del SEÑOR y Su celo arderá contra ese hombre, y todas las maldiciones que están escritas en este libro vendrán sobre él, y EL SEÑOR borrará su nombre de debajo del cielo. 21 El SEÑOR lo separará aparte para desastre de todas las tribus de Israél, en acuerdo con todas las maldiciones del pacto que estan escritas en los libros de la ley. 22 La generación que vendrá, tus hijos quienes se levantarán después de tí, y el extranjero que viene de una tierra distante, hablarán cuando vean las plagas en esta tierra y las enfermedades con las que EL SEÑOR lo ha enfermado, 23 y cuando ellos vean que toda la tierra se ha convertido en azufre y sal ardiente, donde nada se siembra o produce fruto, donde ninguna vegetación crece, como la destrucción de Sodoma y Gomorra, Adma y Zeboim, que EL SEÑOR destruyó en Su enojo e ira. 24 Ellos dirán juntos con todas las otras naciones: "¿Porque ha hecho EL SEÑOR esto a esta tierra? ¿Que significará el ardor de esta gran ira?" 25 Entonces la gente dirá: "Es porque ellos abandonaron el pacto del SEÑOR, EL DIOS de sus antepasados, que ÉL hizo con ellos cuando los sacó de la tierra de Egipto, 26 y porque ellos fueron y sirvieron a otros dioses y se inclinaron ante ellos, dioses que ellos no habían conocido y que ÉL no se los había dado. 27 Por lo tanto, la ira del SEÑOR ha sido encendida contra esta tierra, para traer sobre ella todas las maldiciones que están escritas en este libro. 28 El SEÑOR los ha desarraigado de sus tierras en enojo, en ira, y en gran furia, y los ha lanzado en otra tierra, hasta hoy". 29 Las cosas secretas solo pertenecen al SEÑOR NUESTRO DIOS; pero las cosas que son reveladas pertenecen para siempre a nosotros y a nuestros descendientes, para que hagamos todas las Palabras de esta ley.

Deuteronomy 29:1

Estas son las palabras que EL SEÑOR le ha mandado a Moisés decirle al pueblo
Esto se refiere a las palabras que Moisés está por decir

En la tierra de Moab
Esto está en la parte este del Jordán donde los israelitas se estaban quedando antes que ellos entren en la tierra de Canaán. "Mientras ellos estaban en la tierra de Moab"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Palabras que fueron añadidas al pacto .. en Horeb
Estas órdenes adicionales fueron dadas para hacer que el pacto del SEÑOR se aplicara mejor a la gente una vez que se establecieron en su nueva tierra. Estas nuevas órdenes no pertenecian a un diferente pacto, sino que fueron adiciones al pacto original.

Deuteronomy 29:2

Ustedes han visto todo lo que EL SEÑOR hizo ante tus ojos Aquí "ojos" enfatiza que EL SEÑOR esperaba que ellos se recuerden que ellos lo han visto. Traducción Alterna:"Ustedes han visto todo lo que EL SEÑOR hizo entonces eso verás y recordarás que ha hecho"

Los grandes sufrimientos que sus ojos vieron Aquí "ojos" enfatizan que EL SEÑOR esperaba que ellos recordaran lo que ellos han visto. Traducción Alterna:"Ustedes mismos han visto que la gente sufría terriblemente"

Tus ojos
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre (Ver:)

Las señales y aquellas grandes maravillas
Las palabras "señales" y "maravillas" ambas se refieren a las plagas que EL SEÑOR había enviado a Egipto. Traducción Alterna:" Y todas las cosas poderosas que EL SEÑOR ha hecho"

EL SEÑOR no les ha dado a ustedes un corazón para conocer, ojos para ver u oídos para escuchar
Las personas tienen corazones, ojos, y orejas. Esta figura literaria

Dado a ustedes un corazón para conocer
Esta es una figura literaria (metonimia). Traducción Alterna: "Te permitió entender" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 29:5

Yo los he giuado
EL SEÑOR está hablando a la gente de Israel

cuarenta años
"40 años" (Ver:)

Tus sandalias ... tus pies
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Otras bebidas alcohólicas
Bebidas alcohólicas hechas probablemente de granos fermentados. No eran licores destilados

Deuteronomy 29:7

Sehón, el rey de Hesbón y Og, el rey de Basán
Traduzca estos nombres como en 1:3

Salieron en contra de ustedes
Aquí "ustedes" se refiere a Moisés y a la gente de Israel (Ver:)

Mantengan las palabras de este pacto y háganlas.
Estas dos frases significan la misma cosa y enfatizan que la gente van a obedecer las ordenanzas del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna:"Obedece todas las palabras de este pacto" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 29:10

Información General
Moisés continúa hablando a la gente de Israel

Entre ustedes en su campamento... su madera ... su agua
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

El extranjero que está entre ustedes en su campamento, desde aquel que corta madera hasta aquel que saca su agua.
Había muchos extranjeros entre los Israelitas. Traducción Alterna:" Los extranjeros que están entre ustedes en tu campamentos, desde los que cortan tu madera hasta los que toman tu agua" (Ver:)

Deuteronomy 29:12

Información General
Moisés habla a los Israelitas como si ellos fueran un hombre.

Para que entren al pacto del SEÑOR su Dios y entren al juramento que ÉL SEÑOR su Dios está haciendo con ustedes hoy
"Para concordar con el pacto y jurar que obedecerás todo lo que EL SEÑOR tu Dios ordena"

Un pueblo para ÉL mismo
"Un grupo de personas que solo pertenece a ÉL"

Deuteronomy 29:14

Estoy haciendo
Aquí "Yo" se refiere al SEÑOR. "EL SEÑOR está haciendo"

Esté parado aquí con nosotros
Aquí "nosotros" se refiere a Moisés y la gente de Israel

Aquellos que no están aquí
"Nuestros descendientes futuros, que no están aquí"

Nosotros vivimos
"Nosotros éramos esclavos"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

Deuteronomy 29:17

Cuyo corazón se está alejando del SEÑOR nuestro Dios Aquí "corazón" se refiere a la persona completa, y "alejándose" significa parar de obedecer. Traducción Alterna:"Que no obedece más al SEÑOR tu Dios"

Ninguna raíz que produzca hiel y ajenjo
Moisés habla de alguien que secretamente adora a otro dios como si el fuera una raíz, y las malas acciones que hace para servir a ese dios, y que él alienta a otros a hacer, como una planta amarga que envenena a las personas. Traducción Alterna: "Cualquier persona que adora idolos y causa que otros desobedezcan a EL SEÑOR" (Ver:)

Esa persona
"La persona descrita en el verso 18"

Se bendecirá en su corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: "Felicitarse a sí mismo" o "alentarse a sí mismo"

Apesar de caminar en la terquedad de mi corazón
Esta es una expresión idiomática. Traducción Alterna: " Aunque yo siga reusándome a obedecer a EL SEÑOR" (Ver:)

Esto podría destruir lo mojado junto con lo seco
Aquí las palabras "mojado" y "seco" son metáforas para las personas rectas y las personas débiles. Esto forma una figura literaria (merismo) para "todos". Traducción Alterna: "Esto podría causar que EL SEÑOR destruya a amabas a la persona recta y a la person débil en la tierra"

Mojado ... seco
Estos adjetivos nominales pueden ser traducidos como sustantivos. Porque la tierra era usualmente seca y la gente necesitaba lluvia para que sus cultivos pudieran crecer, estas palabras son metáforas para "vivir ... morir" o "bueno ... malo". Traducción Alterna: "Cosas Mojadas ... Cosas secas" o "Gente buena ... Gente mala"

Deuteronomy 29:20

El enojo de EL SEÑOR y su celo arderá
Sólo como el fuego puede crecer en intensidad, puede el enojo y celo de Dios crecer con intensidad. Traducción Alterna: " El enojo y los celos de EL SEÑOR crecerán como fuego"

El enojo de EL SEÑOR y su celo
Aquí la palabras "celo" describe "el enojo del SEÑOR". Traducción Alterna: "La ira celosa del SEÑOR"

Están escritas
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: " Que yo he escrito" (Ver:)

Las maldiciones que están escritas en este libro vendrán sobre él Moisés describe a las maldiciones como a una persona que va a atacarlos por sorpresa. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR lo maldecirá con maldiciones escritas en este libro en maneras que completamente lo sorprenderá a él" Palabras similares aparecen en 28:15 (Ver: y)

EL SEÑOR borrará su nombre de debajo de el cielo
Esto significa que Dios destruirá completamente la persona y su familia. En el futuro la gente no lo recordará. Una frase similar aparece en 7:23

Deuteronomy 29:22

La generación que vendrá, tus hijos que se levantarán después de ti
Las palabras "tus hijos ... después de ti" dice quién "la generación que viene" es

Las plagas en esta tierra y las enfermedades con las que EL SEÑOR la ha enfermado
"Como Dios maldijo la tierra de Canaán con plagas y enfermedades"

Cuando ellos vean que toda la tiera se ha convertido en azufre y sal ardiente
Gente pone azufre y sal en el suelo para mantener cualquier cosa de crecer. "Cuando ellos vean que EL SEÑOR ha quemado la tierra con azufre y sal"

Donde nada se siembra o produce fruto
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Donde nadie puede sembrar semillas y los cultivos no producen futo" (Ver:)

Como la destrucción de Sodoma y Gomorra
El sustantivo abstracto "destrucción" puede ser traducido como una cláusula. Traducción Alterna:"Como EL SEÑOR destruyó completamente Sodoma y Gomorra"

Adma y Zeboim
Estos nombres de ciudades que EL SEÑOR destruyó a lo largo con Sodoma y Gomorra

En su enojo e ira
Los sustantivos abstractos "enojo" e "ira" significan básicamente la misma cosa y pueden ser traduccidas como una frase adjetiva. Traducción Alterna: "Cuando estaba muy enojado"

Ellos dirán juntos con otras naciones .. significado?
Esto puede ser traducido como una cita indirecta. Traducción Alterna"

Ellos dirán juntos con otras naciones
"Tus descendientes y la gente de todas las otras naciones dirán"

generated on Sat Aug 12 14:26:13 2023

¿Qué significará el ardor de esta gran ira?
El escritor está comunicando una idea a travé s de dos palabras. Traducción Alterna: "¿Que significará esta terrible ira?

Deuteronomy 29:25

Es porque ellos abandonaron el pacto del SEÑOR, el Dios de sus ancestros
Esta es la respuesta a "¿Por qué ha hecho EL SEÑOR esto a esta tierra? 29:22 "EL SEÑOR ha hecho esto a esta tierra porque los israelitas no siguieron las promesas y las leyes de su pacto"

Sirvieron a otros dioses y se inclinaron ante ellos.
"Obedecieron y adoraron a otros dioses"

Deuteronomy 29:27

La ira de EL SEÑOR ha sido encendida contra esta tierra
Moisés compara al SEÑOR estando enojado con alguien como comenzando un fuego. Esto enfatiza el poder de Dios para destruir cualquier cosa que lo enoje, y puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "El Señor se ha enojado bastante con esta tierra"

Esta tierra, para traer sobre ella
Aquí "tierra" es una figura literaria

Que están escritas
Esto puede ser declarado en forma activa. Traducción Alterna: "Que yo he escrito" (Ver:)

EL SEÑOR los ha desarraigado de sus tierras ... y los ha lanzado
Israel es comparada a una planta mala que EL SEÑOR ha levantado y tirado en un jardín. Traducción Alterna: "EL SEÑOR los ha quitado de sus tierras ... y los a ha forzado a irse" (Ver:)

En enojo, en ira, y en gran furia.
Las palabras "enojo", "ira", y "furia" significan básicamente la misma cosa y enfatizan la gran intensidadde del enojo del SEÑOR. Traducción Alterna: "En extremadamente gran enojo" o "Porque ÉL estaba extremadamente enojado"

Deuteronomy 29:29

Las cosas secretas sólo pertenecen a EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios
"Algunas cosas EL SEÑOR nuestro Dios no ha revelado, y sólo Él las conoce"

Que son reveladas
