<sup>10</sup>Then the king took the signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.<sup>11</sup>The king said to Haman, "I will see that the money is given back to you and your people. You will do with it whatever you wish."

<sup>12</sup>Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree containing all that Haman had commanded was written to the king's provincial governors, those who were over all the provinces, to the governors of all the various peoples, and to the officials of all the people, to every province in their own writing, and to every people in their own language. It was written in the name of King Xerxes and was sealed with his ring.<sup>13</sup>Letters were delivered by the hand of couriers to all the king's provinces, to annihilate, kill, and destroy all Jews, from young to old, children and women, in one day—on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (which is the month of Adar)—and to plunder their possessions.

<sup>14</sup>A copy of the letter was made law in every province. In every province it was made known to all the people that they should prepare for this day.<sup>15</sup>The couriers went out and hurried to distribute the king's order. The decree was also distributed within the fortress of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes. He went out into the middle of the city, and cried out with a loud and a bitter cry.<sup>2</sup>He went up only as far as the king's gate, because no one was allowed to go through it clothed in sackcloth.<sup>3</sup>In every province, wherever the king's command and decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing. Many of them lay in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup>When Esther's young women and her servants came and told her, the queen was in great distress. She sent garments to clothe Mordecai (so he could take off his sackcloth), but he would not accept them.<sup>5</sup>Then Esther called for Hathak, one of the king's officials who had been assigned to serve her. She ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what had happened and what it meant.

<sup>13</sup>Mordecai sent back this message to Esther: "You must not think that in the king's palace, you will escape any more than all the other Jews.<sup>14</sup>If you remain silent at this time, relief and rescue will rise up for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows whether you have come to this royal position for such a time as this?"

<sup>15</sup>Then Esther sent this message to Mordecai,<sup>16</sup>"Go, gather together all the Jews who live in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My young girls and I will fast in the same way. Then I will go to the king, even though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish."<sup>17</sup>Mordecai went and did all that Esther had ordered him to do.

Chapter 5

<sup>2</sup>When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she received favor in his eyes. He held out to her the golden scepter in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said to her, "What do you want, Queen Esther? What is your request? Up to half of my kingdom, it will be given to you."<sup>4</sup>Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a feast that I have prepared for him."

<sup>5</sup>Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, to do what Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the feast that Esther had prepared.<sup>6</sup>When the wine was being served at the feast, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It will be granted you. What is your request? Up to half of the kingdom, it will be granted."

<sup>7</sup>Esther answered, "My petition and my request is this,<sup>8</sup>if I have found favor in the eyes of the king and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to honor my request, let the king and Haman come to the feast that I will prepare for them tomorrow and I will answer the king's question."

<sup>10</sup>Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went to his own house. He sent for his friends and gathered them together, with Zeresh his wife.<sup>11</sup>Haman recounted to them the splendor of his riches, the number of his many sons, all the promotions by which the king honored him, and how he had advanced above all the officials and the servants of the king.

<sup>12</sup>Haman said, "Queen Esther invited no one else but me to come with the king to the feast she prepared. Even tomorrow I am again invited by her along with the king."<sup>13</sup>But all this is worth nothing to me as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>14</sup>Then Zeresh his wife said to Haman and all his friends, "Let them make a gallows fifty cubits high. In the morning speak to the king for them to hang Mordecai on it. Then go joyfully with the king to the feast." This pleased Haman and he had the gallows constructed.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>That night the king could not sleep. He commanded servants to bring the book of the records of the events of his reign, and they were being read aloud to the king.<sup>2</sup>It was found recorded there that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officials who guarded the entrance, who had tried to harm King Xerxes.

<sup>3</sup>The king asked, "What great honor has been given to Mordecai for doing this?" Then the king's young men who served him said, "Nothing was done for him."

<sup>4</sup>The king said, "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Haman had entered the outer courtyard of the king's house to speak to him about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he set up for him.<sup>5</sup>The king's servants said to him, "Haman is standing in the courtyard." The king said, "Let him come in."<sup>6</sup>When Haman entered, the king said to him, "What should be done for the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring?" Now Haman said in his heart, "Whom would the king take pleasure in honoring more than me?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Do not fail in a single matter of what you have said."<sup>11</sup>Then Haman took the robe and the horse. He dressed Mordecai and led him on the horse through the city streets. He proclaimed before him, "This is what is done for a man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring!"

<sup>13</sup>Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that happened to him. Then his men who were known for their wisdom, and Zeresh his wife, said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is Jewish, you will not overcome him, but you will certainly fall before him."<sup>14</sup>While they were talking with him, the king's officials arrived. They hurried to bring Haman to the feast that Esther had prepared.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>So the king and Haman went to feast with Queen Esther.<sup>2</sup>On this second day, during the banquet of wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted to you. What is your request? Up to half of the kingdom, and it will be granted."

<sup>3</sup>Then Queen Esther replied, "If I have found favor in your eyes, king, and if it pleases you, let my life be given to me—this is my petition, and I request this also for my people.<sup>4</sup>For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, killed, and annihilated. If we had only been sold into slavery, as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, for no such distress as this would justify disturbing the king."<sup>5</sup>Then King Xerxes said to Esther the queen, "Who is he? Where is this person to be found who has filled his heart to do such a thing?"

<sup>8</sup>Then the king returned from the palace garden into the room where the banquet of wine had been. Haman had just fallen on the couch where Esther was. The king said, "Will he assault the queen in my presence in my own house?" As soon as this sentence came out of the king's mouth, the servants covered Haman's face.

<sup>9</sup>Then Harbona, one of the officials who served the king, said, "A gallows fifty cubits tall stands beside Haman's house. He set it up for Mordecai, the one who spoke up to protect the king." The king said, "Hang him on it."<sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's rage died down.

Chapter 8

<sup>3</sup>Then Esther spoke again to the king. She lay facedown on the ground and wept as she pleaded with him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman the Agagite, to the scheme that he had devised against the Jews.<sup>4</sup>Then the king held out the golden scepter to Esther, she arose and stood before the king.

<sup>5</sup>She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his eyes, if the thing seems proper before the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let a decree be written to revoke the letters written by Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the letters that he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.<sup>6</sup>For how could I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How could I endure watching the destruction of my relatives?"

<sup>9</sup>Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month. A decree was written containing all that Mordecai was commanding concerning the Jews. It was written to the provincial governors, the governors and officials of the provinces that were located from India to Cush, 127 provinces, to every province written in their own writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing and language.

<sup>13</sup>A copy of the decree was to be issued as a law in every province and publicly displayed to all the peoples. The Jews were to be ready on that day to take vengeance on their enemies.<sup>14</sup>So the couriers rode on the royal horses that were used in the king's service. They went without delay. The king's decree was also issued from the palace in Susa.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now in the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, when the king's law and decree were about to be carried out, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain power over them, it was reversed. The Jews gained power over those who hated them.<sup>2</sup>The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Xerxes, to lay hands on those who tried to bring disaster on them. No one could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen on all the peoples.

<sup>13</sup>Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the Jews who are in Susa be permitted to carry out this day's decree tomorrow also, and let the bodies of Haman's ten sons be hanged on gallows."<sup>14</sup>So the king commanded that this be done. A decree was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.

<sup>22</sup>These were the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and the month when their sorrow turned to joy, and mourning into a day of celebration. They were to make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending gifts of food to one another, and gifts to the poor.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Because of everything that was written in this letter, and everything that they had seen and that had happened to them,<sup>27</sup>the Jews accepted a new custom and duty. This custom would be for themselves, their descendants, and everyone who joined them. It would be that they would celebrate these two days every year. They would celebrate them in a certain way and at the same time each year.<sup>28</sup>These days were to be remembered and celebrated in every generation, every family, every province, and every city. These days of Purim should never fail from among the Jews, and their memory should never come to an end for their descendants.

<sup>30</sup>Letters were sent to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes, wishing the Jews safety and truth.<sup>31</sup>These letters confirmed the days of Purim at their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther obligated the Jews. The Jews accepted this obligation for themselves and their descendants, just as also they accepted times of fasting and lamenting.<sup>32</sup>The command of Esther confirmed these regulations regarding Purim, and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Then King Xerxes imposed a tax on the land and on the coastlands along the sea.<sup>2</sup>All the achievements of his power and might, together with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, they are written in the book of the events of the reigns of the kings of Media and Persia.

<sup>3</sup>Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Xerxes. He was great among the Jews and shown favor by his many Jewish brothers, for he sought the welfare of his people and he spoke for the peace of all his people.

Job

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and Job was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned from evil.<sup>2</sup>There were born to him seven sons and three daughters.<sup>3</sup>He possessed seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred donkeys and a great many servants. He was the man who was the greatest of all the people of the East.

<sup>4</sup>On each son's assigned day, he would give a feast in his house. They would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them.<sup>5</sup>When the days of the feast were over, Job would send for them and he would consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings for each of his children, for he would say, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job always did this.

<sup>16</sup>While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants. I alone have escaped to make it known to you."<sup>17</sup>While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three groups, made a raid on the camels, and have taken them away. As for the servants, they have struck them with the edge of the sword. I alone have escaped to make it known to you."

<sup>18</sup>While he was yet speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house."<sup>19</sup>A strong wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house. It fell on the young people, and they died. I alone have escaped to make it known to you."

<sup>20</sup>Then Job rose, tore his robe, shaved his head, lay facedown on the ground, and worshiped God.<sup>21</sup>He said, "I was naked when I came out of my mother's womb, and I will be naked when I will return there. It is Yahweh who gave, and it is Yahweh who has taken away. May the name of Yahweh be blessed."

<sup>22</sup>In all this matter, Job did not sin, nor did he accuse God of wrongdoing.

Chapter 2

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil. He still holds fast to his integrity, although you misled me against him, to destroy him without cause."

<sup>7</sup>Then Satan went away from the presence of Yahweh. He struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his feet to his head. <sup>8</sup>Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself with, and he sat down in the middle of ashes.

<sup>9</sup>Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die." <sup>10</sup>But he said to her, "You talk as a foolish woman talks. Should we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?" In all this matter, Job did not sin with his lips.

<sup>11</sup>Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, each of them came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They set a time to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

<sup>12</sup>When they lifted up their eyes at a distance, they did not recognize him. They raised their voices and wept; each tore his robe and threw dust into the air and upon his own head. <sup>13</sup>Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

<sup>1</sup>After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.<sup>2</sup>He said,

<sup>3</sup> "May the day on which I was born perish,
     the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived.'
<sup>4</sup> May that day be dark!
     May God not care about it,
     nor light shine on it.
<sup>5</sup> May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.
     May a cloud live over it;
     may everything that makes the day black truly terrify it.
<sup>6</sup> As for that night, may thick darkness seize it.
     May it not rejoice among the days of the year;
     may it not come into the number of the months.
<sup>7</sup> See, may that night be barren;
     may no joyful voice come into it.
<sup>8</sup> Those who curse the day—may they curse it,
     those who know how to wake up Leviathan.
<sup>9</sup> May the stars of that day's dawn be dark.
     May that day look for light, but find none;
     neither may it see the eyelids of the dawn, <sup>10</sup> because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
     and because it did not hide trouble from my eyes.
<sup>11</sup> Why did I not die when I came out from the womb?
     Why did I not perish when my mother bore me?
<sup>12</sup> Why did her knees welcome me?
     Why did her breasts receive me so that I should suck?
<sup>13</sup> For now I would have been lying down quietly.
     I would have slept and been at rest <sup>14</sup> with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up tombs for themselves that are now in ruins.
<sup>15</sup> Or I would have been lying down with princes who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver.
<sup>16</sup> Or perhaps I would have been stillborn,
     like infants that never see the light.
<sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease from trouble;
     there the weary are at rest.
<sup>18</sup> There the prisoners are at ease together;
     they do not hear the voice of the slave driver.
<sup>19</sup> Both small and great people are there;
     the servant is free from his master there.
<sup>20</sup> Why is light given to him who suffers?
     Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul, <sup>21</sup> to one who longs for death without it coming;
     to one who digs for it more than for hidden treasure?
<sup>22</sup> Why is light given to one who rejoices very much and is glad when he finds the grave?
<sup>23</sup> Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
     a man whom God has hedged in?
<sup>24</sup> For my sighing happens instead of eating;

my groaning is poured out like water.

<sup>25</sup> For the thing that I feared has come upon me;
what I was afraid of has come to me.

<sup>26</sup> I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest; trouble comes instead."

---

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, <sup>2</sup> If anyone tries to speak with you, will you be impatient?
But who can stop himself from speaking?
<sup>3</sup> See, you have instructed many;
you have strengthened weak hands.
<sup>4</sup> Your words have supported him who was falling;
you have made feeble knees strong.
<sup>5</sup> But now trouble has come to you, and you are weary;
it touches you, and you are troubled.
<sup>6</sup> Is not your fear your confidence,
and the integrity of your ways your hope?

<sup>7</sup> Think about this, please: Who has ever perished when innocent?
Or when were the upright people ever cut off?
<sup>8</sup> According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap it.
<sup>9</sup> By the breath of God they perish;
by the blast of his anger they are consumed.
<sup>10</sup> The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion,
the teeth of the young lions—they are broken.
the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere.

<sup>12</sup> Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper about it.
<sup>13</sup> Then came thoughts from visions in the night,
when deep sleep falls on people.
<sup>14</sup> It was at night when fear and trembling came upon me,
and all my bones shook.
<sup>15</sup> Then a spirit passed before my face,
and the hair of my flesh stood up.
but I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes;
there was silence, and I heard a voice that said, <sup>17</sup> "Can a mortal man be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?
<sup>18</sup> See, if God puts no trust in his servants;
if he accuses his angels of folly, <sup>19</sup> how much more is this true of those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed sooner than a moth?
<sup>20</sup> Between morning and evening they are destroyed;
they perish forever without anyone noticing them.
They die; they die without wisdom.

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
- <sup>2</sup> For anger kills the foolish;
jealousy causes the death of the silly.
- <sup>3</sup> I have seen a foolish person taking root,
but suddenly I cursed his home.
- <sup>4</sup> His children are far from safety;
they are crushed in the city gate.
There is no one to rescue them.
- <sup>5</sup> The hungry eat up their harvest;
they even take it from among the thorns.
The thirsty pant for their wealth.
- <sup>6</sup> For difficulties do not come out from the soil;
neither does trouble sprout from the ground.
- <sup>7</sup> Yet, mankind is born for trouble,
just as sparks fly upward.
- <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I would turn to God himself;
to him I would commit my cause—
- <sup>9</sup> he who does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.
- <sup>10</sup> He gives rain on the earth,
and sends water on the fields.
- <sup>11</sup> He does this in order to set up on high those who are low;
to raise to safety those who mourn.
- <sup>12</sup> He breaks the plans of crafty people,
so that their hands cannot achieve success.
- <sup>13</sup> He traps wise people in their own crafty actions;
the plans of twisted people are hurried to their end.
- <sup>14</sup> They encounter darkness in the daytime,
and grope at noonday as if it were night.
- <sup>15</sup> But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths and the needy person from the hand of mighty people.
- <sup>16</sup> So the poor person has hope,
and injustice shuts her own mouth.
- <sup>17</sup> See, blessed is the man whom God corrects;
therefore, do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.
- <sup>18</sup> For he inflicts pain and then binds up;
he wounds and then his hands heal.
- <sup>19</sup> He will rescue you out of six troubles;
indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you.
- <sup>20</sup> In famine he will ransom you from death,
and in war from the hands of the sword.
- <sup>21</sup> You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue;
and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
- <sup>22</sup> You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of beasts of the earth.
- <sup>23</sup> For you will have a covenant with the stones in your field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.
- <sup>24</sup> You will know that your tent is in safety;
you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss anything.

- <sup>25</sup> You will also know that your seed will be great,
that your descendants will be like the grass on the ground.
- <sup>26</sup> You will come to your grave at a full age, like a stack of grain bundles that goes up at its time.
- <sup>27</sup> See, we have examined this matter; it is like this;
listen to it, and know it for yourself."

<sup>2</sup> "Oh, if only my anguish were weighed;
     if only all my calamity were laid in the balance!
<sup>3</sup> For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas.
     That is why my words were reckless.
<sup>4</sup> For the arrows of the Almighty are in me,
     my spirit drinks up the poison;
     the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me.
<sup>5</sup> Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass?
     Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?
<sup>6</sup> Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt?
     Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
     they are like disgusting food to me.
<sup>8</sup> Oh, that I might have my request;
     oh, that God would grant me the thing I long for:
<sup>9</sup> that it would please God to crush me once,
     that he would set his hand free and cut me off from this life!

<sup>10</sup> May this still be my consolation—
     even if I rejoice in pain that does not lessen:
     that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
<sup>11</sup> What is my strength, that I should continue to hope?
     What is my end, that I should prolong my life?
<sup>12</sup> Is my strength the strength of stones?
     Or is my flesh made of bronze?
<sup>13</sup> Is it not true that I have no help in myself,
     and that wisdom has been driven out of me?

<sup>14</sup> To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend;
     even to him who abandons the fear of the Almighty.
<sup>15</sup> But my brothers have acted as deceitfully to me as a desert streambed, as channels of water that pass away to nothing, <sup>16</sup> which are darkened because of ice over them,
     and because of the snow that hides itself in them.
<sup>17</sup> When they thaw out, they vanish;
     when it is hot, they melt out of their place.
<sup>18</sup> The caravans that travel by their way turn aside for water;
     they wander into wasteland and then perish.
<sup>19</sup> Caravans from Tema looked there,
     while companies of Sheba hoped in them.
<sup>20</sup> They were disappointed because they had been confident of finding water.
     They went there, but they were put to shame.
<sup>21</sup> For now you friends are nothing to me;
     you see my dreadful situation and are afraid.
<sup>22</sup> Did I say to you, 'Give something to me'
     or, 'Offer me a bribe from your wealth' <sup>23</sup> or, 'Save me from my adversary's hand'
     or, 'Ransom me from the hand of oppressors'?

<sup>24</sup> Teach me, and I will hold my peace;

make me understand where I have been wrong.
But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?
<sup>26</sup> Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?
and haggle over your friend like merchandise.

<sup>28</sup> Now, therefore, please look at me,
for surely I would not lie to your face.
<sup>29</sup> Relent, I beg you; let there be no injustice with you;
Indeed, relent, for my cause is just.
<sup>30</sup> Is there evil on my tongue?
Cannot my mouth detect destructive things?

---

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> Does not man have hard labor on earth?
Are not his days like the days of a hired man?
- <sup>2</sup> Like a slave earnestly desires the shadows of evening, like a hired man looks for his wages—
- <sup>3</sup> so I have been assigned months of emptiness;
I have been given trouble-filled nights.
- <sup>4</sup> When I lie down, I say to myself,
'When will I get up and when will the night be gone?'
I am full of tossing to and fro until the day's dawning.
- <sup>5</sup> My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
the sores in my skin harden up and then dissolve and run afresh.
- <sup>6</sup> My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
they pass without hope.
- <sup>7</sup> God, call to mind that my life is only a breath;
my eye will no more see good.
- <sup>8</sup> The eye of God, who sees me, will see me no more;
God's eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.
- <sup>9</sup> As a cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.
- <sup>10</sup> He will return no more to his house;
neither will his place know him again.
- <sup>11</sup> Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- <sup>12</sup> Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?
- <sup>13</sup> When I say, 'My bed will comfort me,
and my couch will ease my complaint,'
- <sup>14</sup> then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me through visions,
- <sup>15</sup> so that my soul would choose strangling
and death rather than preserving these bones of mine.
- <sup>16</sup> I despise my life; I would not wish to always be alive;
let me alone, for my days are useless.
- <sup>17</sup> What is man that you should pay attention to him,
that you should set your mind on him,
- <sup>18</sup> that you should observe him every morning and test him every moment?
- <sup>19</sup> How long will it be before you look away from me, before you let me alone long enough for me to swallow down my own saliva?
- <sup>20</sup> Even if I have sinned, what would that do to you,
you who watch men?
Why have you made a target of me,
so that I am a burden for you?
- <sup>21</sup> Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?
For now will I lie down in the dust;
you will seek me carefully, but I will not exist."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said, <sup>2</sup> "How long will you say these things?
How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
Does the Almighty pervert righteousness?
<sup>4</sup> Your children have sinned against him;
we know this, for he gave them into the hand of their sins.
<sup>5</sup> But suppose you diligently sought God and sought the favor of the Almighty.
<sup>6</sup> If you are pure and upright,
then he would surely stir himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.
<sup>7</sup> Even though your beginning was small,
still your final condition would be much greater.

<sup>8</sup> Please ask the former generations,
and give your attention to what our ancestors learned.
<sup>9</sup> (We were only born yesterday and know nothing because our days on earth are a shadow.)
<sup>10</sup> Will they not teach you and tell you?
Will they not speak words from their hearts?
<sup>11</sup> Can papyrus grow without a marsh?
Can reeds grow without water?
<sup>12</sup> While they are still green and not cut down,
they wither before any other plant.
<sup>13</sup> So also are the paths of all who forget God;
the hope of the godless will perish.
<sup>14</sup> His confidence will break apart,
and his trust is as weak as a spider's web.
<sup>15</sup> He leans on his house, but it will not support him;
he takes hold of it, but it does not stand.
and his shoots go out over his entire garden.
<sup>17</sup> His roots are wrapped about the heaps of stone;
they look for good places among the rocks.
<sup>18</sup> But if this person is destroyed out of his place,
then that place will deny him and say, 'I never saw you.'
<sup>19</sup> See, this is the "joy" of such a person's behavior;
other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place.
<sup>20</sup> See, God will not reject an innocent man;
neither will he take the hand of evildoers.

your lips with shouting.
<sup>22</sup> Those who hate you will be clothed with shame;
the tent of the wicked will be no more."

---

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> "I truly know that this is so.
 But how can a person be in the right with God?

 he cannot answer him once in a thousand times.

 who has ever hardened himself against him and succeeded?—

<sup>5</sup> he who removes the mountains without warning anyone
 when he overturns them in his anger—

<sup>6</sup> he who shakes the earth out of its place and sets its pillars trembling.

<sup>7</sup> It is the same God who tells the sun not to rise, and it does not,
 and who covers up the stars,

<sup>8</sup> who by himself stretches out the heavens and tramples down the waves of the sea,

 and the constellations of the south.

<sup>10</sup> He does great and unsearchable things,
 and wonderful things that cannot be counted.

 he passes on, but I do not understand him.

 Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

<sup>13</sup> God will not withdraw his anger;
 the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.

 could I choose words to reason with him?

<sup>15</sup> Even if I were righteous, I could not answer him;
 I could only plead for mercy with my judge.

<sup>16</sup> Even if I called and he answered me,
 I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.

<sup>17</sup> For he breaks me with a tempest and multiplies my wounds without cause.

 but he fills me with bitterness.

 If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

<sup>20</sup> Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me;
 and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty.

<sup>21</sup> I am blameless, but I do not care any more about myself;
 I despise my own life.

 that he destroys blameless people and wicked people together.

 he mocks the despair of the innocent.

 God covers the faces of its judges.
 If it is not he who does it, then who is it?

<sup>25</sup> My days are swifter than a running messenger;
my days flee away; they see no good anywhere.
<sup>26</sup> They are as fast as papyrus reed boats, and as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim.
<sup>27</sup> If I said that I would forget about my complaints, that I would take off my sad face and be happy, <sup>28</sup> I would be afraid of all my sorrows
because I know that you will not consider me innocent.
<sup>29</sup> I will be condemned;
why, then, should I try in vain?
<sup>30</sup> If I washed myself with snow water
and made my hands ever so clean, <sup>31</sup> God would plunge me in a ditch,
and my own clothes would be disgusted with me.

<sup>32</sup> For God is not a man, as I am, that I could answer him, that we could come together in court.
<sup>33</sup> There is no judge between us who might lay his hand upon us both.
<sup>34</sup> There is no other judge who could take God's rod off me, who could keep his terror from frightening me.
<sup>35</sup> Then would I speak up and not fear him.
But as things are now, I cannot do that.

---

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> I am weary of my life;
     I will give free expression to my complaint;
     I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
- <sup>2</sup> I will say to God, 'Do not merely condemn me;
     show me why you accuse me.
- <sup>3</sup> Is it good to you that you should oppress me,
     to despise the labor of your hands
     while you smile on the plans of the wicked?
- <sup>4</sup> Do you have eyes of flesh?
     Do you see like a man sees?
- <sup>5</sup> Are your days like the days of mankind or your years like the years of people,
- <sup>6</sup> that you inquire after my iniquity
     and search after my sin,
- <sup>7</sup> although you know I am not guilty and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand?
- <sup>8</sup> Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about, yet you are destroying me.
- <sup>9</sup> Call to mind, I beg you, that you have fashioned me like clay;
     will you bring me into dust again?
- <sup>10</sup> Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?
- <sup>11</sup> You have clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.
- <sup>12</sup> You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness;
     your care has guarded my spirit.
- <sup>13</sup> Yet these things you hid in your heart—
     I know that this is what you were thinking:
- <sup>14</sup> that if I sinned, you would notice it;
     you would not acquit me of my iniquity.
- <sup>15</sup> If I have acted wickedly, woe to me;
     and even if I acted righteously,
     I could not lift up my head,
     since I am filled with disgrace—
     see my affliction!
- <sup>16</sup> If my head were lifted up,
     you would stalk me like a lion;
     and again you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power against me.
- <sup>17</sup> You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger against me;
     you attack me with fresh armies.
- <sup>18</sup> Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb?
     I wish I had died and that no eye had ever seen me.
- <sup>19</sup> I would have been as though I had never existed;
     I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
- <sup>20</sup> Are not my days only a few? Stop then, let me alone, so that I may have a little rest
- <sup>21</sup> before I go from where I will not return, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death,

<sup>22</sup> the land that is as dark as darkness,
the land of the shadow of death, without any order,
where the light is like darkness."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said, <sup>2</sup> "Should not such a multitude of words be answered?
Should this man, so full of talk, be acquitted?
When you mock, will no one make you feel ashamed?
<sup>4</sup> For you say to God, 'My beliefs are pure,
I am clean in your eyes.'
<sup>5</sup> But, oh, that God would speak and open his lips against you;
<sup>6</sup> that he would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For sound wisdom has two sides.
Know then that God demands from you less than your iniquity deserves.

<sup>7</sup> Can you understand God by searching for him?
Can you comprehend the Almighty perfectly?
<sup>8</sup> The matter is as high as heaven; what can you do?
It is deeper than Sheol; what can you know?
<sup>9</sup> Its measure is longer than the earth,
and wider than the sea.

<sup>10</sup> If he passes through and shuts anyone up,
if he calls an assembly, then who can stop him?
<sup>11</sup> For he knows deceitful people;
when he sees iniquity, does he not notice it?
<sup>12</sup> But foolish people will gain understanding when the foal of a wild donkey is born a man.

<sup>13</sup> But suppose that you set your heart right and reach out with your hands toward God; <sup>14</sup> suppose that iniquity is in your hand,
but that you put it far away from you,
and do not let unrighteousness live in your tents.
<sup>15</sup> Then you will certainly lift up your face without a sign of shame;
indeed, you will be steadfast and will not fear.
<sup>16</sup> You will forget your trouble;
you will remember it only like waters that have flowed away.
<sup>17</sup> Your life will be brighter than the noonday;
though there be darkness, it will become like the morning.
<sup>18</sup> You will be secure because there is hope;
indeed, you will find safety about you and will take your rest in safety.
<sup>19</sup> Also you will lie down in rest, and none will make you afraid;
indeed, many will seek your favor.
<sup>20</sup> But the eyes of wicked people will fail;
they will have no refuge;
their only hope will be a last gasp of life."

---

<sup>2</sup> "No doubt you are the people;
wisdom will die with you.

<sup>3</sup> But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

I, one who called on God and who was answered by him!
I, a just and blameless man—I am now something to laugh at.

he thinks in a way that brings more misfortune to those whose foot is slipping.

and those who provoke God feel secure;
their own hands are their gods.

<sup>7</sup> But now ask the animals, and they will teach you;
ask the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup> Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
the fish of the sea will declare to you.

that the hand of Yahweh has done this?

and the breath of all mankind.

<sup>11</sup> Does not the ear test words
just as the palate tastes its food?

in length of days is understanding.

he has counsel and understanding.

<sup>14</sup> See, he breaks things down, and they cannot be built again;
if he imprisons someone, there can be no release.

and if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.

<sup>16</sup> With him are strength and wisdom;
people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power.

<sup>17</sup> He leads counselors away barefoot in sorrow;
he turns judges into fools.

he wraps a cloth about their waists.

<sup>19</sup> He leads priests away barefoot in sorrow
and overthrows mighty people.

<sup>20</sup> He removes the speech of those who had been trusted and takes away the understanding of the elders.

<sup>21</sup> He pours contempt upon princes
and unfastens the belt of the strong.

and brings utter darkness into the light.

He enlarges nations, and he also leads them along as prisoners.

- <sup>24</sup> He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth;
he causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.
- <sup>25</sup> They grope in the dark without light;
he makes them stagger like a drunk man.

<sup>1</sup> See, my eye has seen all this;
     my ear has heard and understood it.
<sup>2</sup> What you know, the same I also know;
     I am not inferior to you.
     I wish to reason with God.
<sup>4</sup> But you whitewash the truth with lies;
     you are all worthless healers.
<sup>5</sup> Oh, that you would altogether hold your peace!
     That would be your wisdom.
<sup>6</sup> Hear now my own reasoning;
     listen to the pleading of my own lips.
<sup>7</sup> Will you speak unrighteousness for God,
     and will you talk deceitfully for him?
<sup>8</sup> Will you show him partiality?
     Will you argue the case for God?
<sup>9</sup> Will it be good for you when he examines you?
     Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?
<sup>10</sup> He would surely reprove you if in secret you showed partiality.
<sup>11</sup> Will not his majesty terrify you,
     and the dread of him fall upon you?
<sup>12</sup> Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes;
     your defenses are defenses made of clay.

<sup>13</sup> Hold your peace, let me alone, so that I may speak, let come what may on me.
<sup>14</sup> I will take my own flesh in my teeth;
     I will take my life in my hands.
<sup>15</sup> See, if he kills me, I will have no hope left;
     nevertheless, I will defend my ways before him.
<sup>16</sup> This will be the reason for my deliverance, for no godless person would come before him.
<sup>17</sup> God, listen carefully to my speech;
     let my declaration come to your ears.
<sup>18</sup> See now, I have set my defense in order;
     I know that I will be vindicated.
<sup>19</sup> Who is the one who would argue against me in court?
     If you came to do so, and if I were proved wrong, then I would be silent and die.

<sup>20</sup> God, do only two things for me,
     and then I will not hide myself from your face:
<sup>21</sup> withdraw your oppressive hand from me,
     and do not let your terrors make me afraid.
<sup>22</sup> Then call me, and I will answer;
     or let me speak to you, and you answer me.
<sup>23</sup> How many are my iniquities and sins?
     Let me know my transgression and my sin.
<sup>24</sup> Why do you hide your face from me
     and treat me like your enemy?
<sup>25</sup> Will you cause a driven leaf to tremble?
     Will you pursue dry stubble?

- <sup>26</sup> For you write down bitter things against me;
you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
- <sup>27</sup> You also put my feet in the stocks;
you closely watch all my paths;
you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked
- <sup>28</sup> although I am like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

- <sup>1</sup> Man, who is born of woman, lives only a few days and is full of trouble.
- <sup>2</sup> He sprouts from the ground like a flower and is cut down;
he flees like a shadow and does not last.
- <sup>3</sup> Do you look at any of these?
Do you bring me into judgment with you?
- <sup>4</sup> Who can bring something clean out of something unclean?
No one.
- <sup>5</sup> Man's days are determined.
The number of his months is with you;
you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass.
- <sup>6</sup> Look away from him that he may rest,
so that he may enjoy his day like a hired man if he can do so.
- <sup>7</sup> There can be hope for a tree;
if it is cut down, it might sprout again,
so that its tender stalk does not disappear.
- <sup>8</sup> Though its root grows old in the earth,
and its stump dies in the ground,
- <sup>9</sup> yet even if it only smells water, it will bud and send out branches like a plant.
- <sup>10</sup> But man dies; he becomes weak;
indeed, man stops breathing, and then where is he?
- <sup>11</sup> As water disappears from a lake,
and as a river becomes dry and dries up,
- <sup>12</sup> so people lie down and do not rise again.
Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused out of their sleep.
- <sup>13</sup> Oh, that you would hide me away in Sheol away from troubles, and that you would keep me in private until your wrath is over,
that you would set me a fixed time to stay there and then call me to mind!
- <sup>14</sup> If a man dies, will he live again?
All my time of service there I will wait until my release should come.
- <sup>15</sup> You would call, and I would answer you.
You would have a desire for the work of your hands.
- <sup>16</sup> You would number and care for my footsteps;
you would not keep track of my sin.
- <sup>17</sup> My transgression would be sealed up in a bag;
you would cover up my iniquity.
- <sup>18</sup> But even mountains fall and crumble to nothing;
even rocks are moved out of their place;
- <sup>19</sup> the waters wear down the stones;
their flooding washes away the dust of the earth.
Like this, you destroy the hope of man.
- <sup>20</sup> You forever defeat him, and he passes away;
you change his face and send him away to die.
- <sup>21</sup> If his sons are honored, he does not know it;
and if they are brought low, he does not see it.
- <sup>22</sup> He feels only the pain of his own body,

and he mourns for himself.

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup> "Should a wise man answer with useless knowledge and fill himself with the east wind?

or with speeches with which he can do no good?

you obstruct meditation before him,

you choose to have the tongue of the crafty.

indeed, your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup> Are you the first man that was born?
Were you brought into existence before the hills?

<sup>8</sup> Have you heard the secret knowledge of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

What do you understand that is not also in us?

<sup>10</sup> With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men who are much older than your father.

the words that are gentle toward you?

Why do your eyes flash,

<sup>13</sup> so that you turn your spirit against God
and bring out such words from your mouth?

What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

indeed, the heavens are not clean in his sight;

a man who drinks iniquity like water!

I will announce to you the things I have seen,

<sup>18</sup> the things that wise men have passed down from their fathers,
the things that their ancestors did not hide.

and among whom no stranger ever passed.

the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor to suffer.

while he is in prosperity, the destroyer will come upon him.

<sup>22</sup> He does not think that he will return out of darkness;
he has been marked out for the sword.

He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.

they prevail against him, as a king ready for battle.

- and has behaved proudly against the Almighty, <sup>26</sup> this wicked man runs at God with a stiff neck,
 with a thick shield.
- <sup>27</sup> This is true, even though he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins, <sup>28</sup> and has lived in desolate cities;
 in houses which no man inhabits now and which were ready to become heaps.
- <sup>29</sup> He will not be rich; his wealth will not last and his possessions will not spread over the land.
- <sup>30</sup> He will not depart out of darkness; <sup>1</sup>
 a flame will dry up his stalks;
 at the breath of God's mouth he will go away. <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>31</sup> Let him not trust in useless things, deceiving himself;
 for uselessness will be his reward.
- <sup>32</sup> It will happen before his time should come to die;
 his palm branch will not be green.
- <sup>33</sup> He will drop his unripe grapes like a grapevine;
 he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree.
- <sup>34</sup> For the company of godless people will be barren;
 fire will consume their tents of bribery.
- <sup>35</sup> They conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity; their womb conceives deceit."

<sup>2</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have He will go away by the breath of his mouth , which some modern translations interpret as meaning the breath of God's mouth . However, other modern translations follow the ancient Greek translation of the ancient Hebrew copies, which reads, his flower will fall with the wind .

Chapter 16

<sup>2</sup> "I have heard many such things;
you are all troublesome comforters.
<sup>3</sup> Will useless words ever have an end?
What is wrong with you that you answer like this?
<sup>4</sup> I also could speak as you do,
if you were in my place;
I could collect and join words together against you
and shake my head at you in mockery.
<sup>5</sup> I would strengthen you with my mouth,
and the quivering of my lips will bring you relief!

<sup>6</sup> If I speak, my grief is not lessened;
if I keep from speaking, how am I helped?
<sup>7</sup> But now, God, you have made me weary;
you have made all my family desolate.
<sup>8</sup> You have made me dry up,
which itself is a witness against me;
the leanness of my body rises up against me,
and it testifies against my face.
<sup>9</sup> God has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me;
He grinds his teeth in rage;
my enemy fastens his eyes on me as he tears me apart.
<sup>10</sup> People have gaped with open mouth at me;
they have hit me on the cheek with contempt;
they have gathered together against me.
<sup>11</sup> God hands me over to ungodly people,
and throws me into the hands of wicked people.
<sup>12</sup> I was at ease, and he broke me apart.
Indeed, he has taken me by the neck and dashed me to pieces;
he has also set me up as his target.
God pierces my kidneys and does not spare me;
he pours out my bile on the ground.
<sup>14</sup> He smashes through my wall again and again;
he runs upon me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup> I have sewn sackcloth on my skin;
I have thrust my horn into the ground.
on my eyelids is utter darkness, <sup>17</sup> although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

let my cry have no resting place.
<sup>19</sup> Even now, see, my witness is in heaven;
he who vouches for me is on high.
<sup>20</sup> My friends scoff at me,
but my eye pours out tears to God.
<sup>21</sup> I ask for that witness in heaven to argue for this man with God as a man does with his neighbor!

I will go to a place from where I will not return.

---

- <sup>1</sup> My spirit is broken, and my days are over;
the grave is ready for me.
- <sup>2</sup> Surely there are mockers with me;
my eye must always see their provocation.
- <sup>3</sup> Give now a pledge, be a guarantee for me with yourself;
who else is there who will help me?
- <sup>4</sup> For you, God, have kept their hearts from understanding;
therefore, you will not exalt them over me.
- <sup>5</sup> He who denounces his friends for a reward,
the eyes of his children will fail.
- <sup>6</sup> But he has made me a byword of the people;
they spit in my face.
- <sup>7</sup> My eye is also dim because of sorrow;
all my members are as thin as shadows.
- <sup>8</sup> Upright men will be appalled by this;
the innocent man will stir himself up against godless men.
- <sup>9</sup> The righteous man will keep to his way;
he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.
- <sup>10</sup> But as for you all, come on now;
I will not find a wise man among you.
- <sup>11</sup> My days are past; my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>12</sup> These people, these mockers, change the night into day; light is near to darkness.
- <sup>13</sup> If the only home I hope for is Sheol;
and if I have spread my couch in the darkness;
- <sup>14</sup> and if I have said to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'You are my mother or my sister,'
- <sup>15</sup> where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who can see any?
- <sup>16</sup> Will hope go down with me to the gates of Sheol when we descend to the dust?"

<sup>1</sup>Some modern translations have My days are past, as are my plans. The wishes of my heart are finished or ... the strings of my heart have been broken .
Some translations have My days are past; my plans are over, as are the wishes of my heart.

Chapter 18

- <sup>1</sup>Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said, <sup>2</sup> "When will you stop your talk?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
<sup>3</sup> Why are we regarded as cattle, stupid in your sight?
<sup>4</sup> You who tear at yourself in your anger,
should the earth be abandoned for you or should the rocks be removed out of their places?
- <sup>5</sup> Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out;
the spark of his fire will not shine.
<sup>6</sup> The light will be dark in his tent;
his lamp above him will be put out.
<sup>7</sup> The steps of his strength will be made short;
his own plans will cast him down.
<sup>8</sup> For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet;
he will walk into a pitfall.
<sup>9</sup> A trap will take him by the heel;
a snare will lay hold on him.
<sup>10</sup> A noose is hidden for him on the ground;
and a trap for him in the way.
<sup>11</sup> Terrors will make him afraid on every side;
they will chase him at every step.
and calamity will be ready at his side.
<sup>13</sup> The parts of his body will be devoured;
indeed, the firstborn of death will devour his parts.
<sup>14</sup> He is torn from the safety of his tent
and marched off to the king of terrors.
<sup>15</sup> People not his own will live in his tent
after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home.
<sup>16</sup> His roots will be dried up beneath;
above will his branch be cut off.
<sup>17</sup> His memory will perish from the earth;
he will have no name in the street.
<sup>18</sup> He will be driven from light into darkness and be chased out of this world.
<sup>19</sup> He has no offspring or descendants among his people, no survivor where he once lived.
<sup>20</sup> Those who live in the west are appalled at what happens to him one day,
and horror seizes those who live in the east.
<sup>21</sup> Surely such are the homes of unrighteous people,
the places of those who do not know God."

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered and said,
<sup>2</sup> "How long will you torment me
and crush me with words?
<sup>3</sup> These ten times you have insulted me;
you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly.
<sup>4</sup> If it is indeed true that I have erred,
my error remains my own concern.
<sup>5</sup> If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me
and use my humiliation against me, <sup>6</sup> then you should know that God has done wrong to me and has caught me in his net.

I call out for help, but there is no justice.
<sup>8</sup> He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass,
and he has set darkness in my path.
<sup>9</sup> He has stripped me of my glory,
and he has taken the crown from my head.
<sup>10</sup> He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone;
he has pulled up my hope like a tree.
<sup>11</sup> He has also kindled his wrath against me;
he regards me as one of his adversaries.
<sup>12</sup> His troops come on together;
they cast up siege mounds against me
and encamp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup> He has put my brothers far from me;
my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me.
<sup>14</sup> My kinsfolk have failed me;
my close friends have forgotten me.
<sup>15</sup> Those who once stayed as guests in my house and my female servants regard me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.
<sup>16</sup> I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer
although I seek his favor with my mouth.
<sup>17</sup> My breath is offensive to my wife;
I am even detestable to those who were born from my mother's womb.
<sup>18</sup> Even young children despise me;
if I rise to speak, they speak against me.
<sup>19</sup> All my familiar friends abhor me;
those whom I love have turned against me.
<sup>20</sup> My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh;
I survive only by the skin of my teeth.
<sup>21</sup> Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, my friends,
for the hand of God has touched me.
<sup>22</sup> Why do you pursue me like God does?
Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

<sup>23</sup> Oh, that my words were now written down!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
<sup>24</sup> Oh, that with an iron pen and lead
they were engraved in the rock forever!

- <sup>25</sup> But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that at last he will stand on the earth;
<sup>26</sup> after my skin, that is, this body, is destroyed, then in my flesh I will see God.
<sup>27</sup> I will see him with my own eyes—I, and not someone else.
My heart fails within me.
- <sup>28</sup> If you say, 'How we will persecute him!
The root of his troubles lies in him,' <sup>29</sup> then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword,
so that you may know there is a judgment."

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said, <sup>2</sup> "My thoughts make me answer quickly because of the worry that is in me.
<sup>3</sup> I hear a rebuke that dishonors me,
but a spirit from my understanding answers me.

when God placed man on earth:
<sup>5</sup> the triumph of a wicked man is short,
and the joy of a godless man lasts only for a moment?
<sup>6</sup> Though his height reaches up to the heavens,
and his head reaches to the clouds, <sup>7</sup> yet such a person will perish forever like his own dung;
those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
<sup>8</sup> He will fly away like a dream and will not be found;
indeed, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
<sup>9</sup> The eye that saw him will see him no more;
his place will see him no longer.
<sup>10</sup> His children will apologize to poor people;
his hands will have to give back his wealth.
but it will lie down with him in the dust.

although he hides it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup> although he holds it there and does not let it go but keeps it still in his mouth—<sup>14</sup> the food in his intestines turns bitter;
it becomes the poison of asps inside him.
<sup>15</sup> He swallows down riches, but he will vomit them up again;
God will cast them out of his stomach.
<sup>16</sup> He will suck the poison of asps;
the viper's tongue will kill him.
<sup>17</sup> He will not enjoy the streams,
the torrents of honey and butter.
<sup>18</sup> He will give back the fruit of his labor and will not be able to swallow it;
he will not enjoy the wealth earned by his commerce.
<sup>19</sup> For he has oppressed and neglected poor people;
he has violently taken away houses that he did not build.

he will not be able to save anything in which he takes pleasure.
<sup>21</sup> There is nothing left that he did not devour; therefore his prosperity will not be permanent.
<sup>22</sup> In the fullness of his abundance he will fall into trouble;
the hand of everyone who suffers will come against him.
God will throw the fierceness of his wrath on him;
God will rain it down on him while he is eating.
<sup>24</sup> Although that man will flee from the iron weapon,
a bow of bronze will shoot him.

- <sup>25</sup> He pulls it out of his back and the gleaming point comes out of his liver.
Terrors come over him.
- <sup>26</sup> Complete darkness is reserved for his treasures;
a fire not fanned will devour him;
it will consume what is left in his tent.
- <sup>27</sup> The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him as a witness.
- <sup>28</sup> The wealth of his house will vanish;
his goods will flow away on the day of God's wrath.
- <sup>29</sup> This is the wicked man's portion from God, the heritage decreed for him by God."

Chapter 21

<sup>2</sup> "Listen carefully to my words,
 and let this be the comfort you offer to me.
<sup>3</sup> Put up with me, and I also will speak;
 after I have spoken, mock on.
<sup>4</sup> As for me, is my complaint to a person?
 Why should I not be impatient?
<sup>5</sup> Look at me and be appalled,
 and lay your hand upon your mouth.
<sup>6</sup> When I think about my sufferings, I am terrified, and trembling seizes my body.
<sup>7</sup> Why do wicked people continue to live, become old, and grow mighty in power?
<sup>8</sup> Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
 and their offspring are established before their eyes.
<sup>9</sup> Their houses are safe from fear;
 neither is the rod of God on them.
<sup>10</sup> Their bull breeds; it does not fail to do so;
 their cow gives birth and does not lose her calf prematurely.
<sup>11</sup> They send out their little ones like a flock,
<sup>12</sup> They sing to the tambourine and harp
 and rejoice with the music of the flute.
<sup>13</sup> They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down quietly to Sheol.
<sup>14</sup> They say to God, 'Depart from us for we do not wish any knowledge of your ways.
<sup>15</sup> What is the Almighty, that we should worship him?
 What profit would we get if we prayed to him?'
<sup>16</sup> See, is not their prosperity in their own hands?
 I have nothing to do with the advice of wicked people.
<sup>17</sup> How often is it that the lamp of wicked people is put out,
 or that their calamity comes upon them?
 How often does it happen that God distributes sorrows to them in his anger?
<sup>18</sup> How often is it that they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away?
 Let him pay it himself, so that he might know it.
<sup>20</sup> Let his eyes see his own destruction,
 and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
<sup>21</sup> For what does he care about his family after him when the number of his months is cut off?
<sup>22</sup> Can anyone teach God knowledge,
 since he judges even those who are high?
<sup>23</sup> One man dies in his full strength,
 being completely quiet and at ease.
<sup>24</sup> His body is full of milk,
 and the marrow of his bones is moist.

- <sup>25</sup> Another man dies in bitterness of soul,
one who has never experienced anything good.
- <sup>26</sup> They lie down alike in the dust;
the worms cover them both.
- <sup>27</sup> See, I know your thoughts,
and your schemes to do violence to me.
- <sup>28</sup> For you say, 'Where now is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?'
- <sup>29</sup> Have you never asked traveling people?
Do you not know the evidence they can tell,
- <sup>30</sup> that the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity, and that he is led away from the day of wrath?
- <sup>31</sup> Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face?
Who will repay him for what he has done?
- <sup>32</sup> Yet he will be borne to the grave;
men will keep watch over his tomb.
- <sup>33</sup> The clods of the valley will be sweet to him;
all people will follow after him,
as there were innumerable people before him.
- <sup>34</sup> How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?"

Can a wise man be useful to him?

<sup>3</sup> Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous?
Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

<sup>4</sup> Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

Is there no end to your iniquities?

<sup>6</sup> For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason,
and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.

you have withheld bread from hungry people

<sup>8</sup> although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.

<sup>9</sup> You have sent widows away empty;
the arms of the fatherless have been crushed.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, snares are all around you,
and sudden fear troubles you.

<sup>11</sup> There is darkness, so that you cannot see;
an abundance of waters covers you.

<sup>12</sup> Is not God in the heights of heaven?
Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

<sup>13</sup> You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?

<sup>14</sup> Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us;
he walks on the vault of heaven.'

<sup>15</sup> Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked—

<sup>16</sup> those who were snatched away before their time,
those whose foundations have washed away like a river,

<sup>17</sup> those who said to God, 'Depart from us';
those who said, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

the plans of wicked people are far from me.

innocent people mock them.

fire has consumed their possessions.'

in that way, good will come to you.

store up his words in your heart.

if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.

the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,

<sup>25</sup> and the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you.

<sup>26</sup> For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty;
you will lift up your face to God.

<sup>27</sup> You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you;
you will pay your vows to him.

<sup>28</sup> You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you;
light will shine on your paths.

and he saves the one with humble eyes.

<sup>30</sup> He will rescue even the man who is not innocent;
who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands."

---

Chapter 23

<sup>2</sup> "Even today my complaint is rebellion; <sup>1</sup>
my hand <sup>2</sup> is heavy because of my groaning.

Oh, that I might come to his place!

<sup>4</sup> I would lay my case in order before him
and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup> I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.

No, he would pay attention to me.

In this way I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

<sup>8</sup> See, I go eastward, but he is not there,
and westward, but I cannot find him.

<sup>9</sup> To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him,
and to the south, where he hides himself so that I cannot see him.

<sup>10</sup> But he knows the way that I take;
when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

<sup>11</sup> My foot has held fast to his steps;
I have kept to his way and turned not aside.

I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

What he desires, he does.

there are many like them.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, I am terrified in his presence;
when I think about him, I am afraid of him.

<sup>16</sup> For God has made my heart weak;
the Almighty has terrified me.

<sup>17</sup> I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

- <sup>1</sup> Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty?
Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?
- <sup>2</sup> There are wicked people who remove boundary markers;
there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.
- <sup>3</sup> They drive away the donkey of those without fathers;
they take the widow's ox as a pledge.
- <sup>4</sup> They force needy people out of their path;
poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.
- <sup>5</sup> See, these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food;
perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.
- <sup>6</sup> They reap fodder in the field;
they glean the vineyard of the wicked.
- <sup>7</sup> They lie naked all night without clothing;
they have no covering in the cold.
- <sup>8</sup> They are wet with the showers of the mountains;
they lie next to large rocks because they have no shelter.
- <sup>9</sup> The fatherless is seized from the breast, and they take a pledge against the poor.
- <sup>10</sup> But the poor people go about naked without clothing;
although they go hungry,
they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people.
- <sup>11</sup> The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men;
they tread the wicked men's winepresses,
but they themselves suffer thirst.
- <sup>12</sup> From out of the city the dying groan,
and the throat of the wounded cries out for help.
But God does not charge anyone with wrongdoing.
- <sup>13</sup> Some of these wicked people rebel against the light;
they know not its ways,
nor do they stay in its paths.
- <sup>14</sup> Before daylight the murderer rises and he kills the poor and the needy;
in the night he is like a thief.
- <sup>15</sup> Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight;
he says, 'No eye will see me.'
He disguises his face.
- <sup>16</sup> In the darkness they dig into houses;
but they shut themselves up in the daytime;
they do not care for the light.
- <sup>17</sup> For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning;
for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.
- <sup>18</sup> Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters;
their portion of the land is cursed;
no one goes to work in their vineyards.
- <sup>19</sup> As drought and heat melt away the snow into waters, so Sheol takes away those who have sinned.
- <sup>20</sup> The womb that bore him will forget him;
the worm will feed sweetly on him;

he will be remembered no more;
in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.

<sup>21</sup> The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children;
he does no good to the widow.

he rises up and does not strengthen him in life.

<sup>23</sup> God gives him what he needs for security, and he is supported, but his eyes are on his ways.

<sup>24</sup> These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone;
indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others;
they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.

<sup>25</sup> If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar;
who can make my speech worth nothing?"

---

he makes order in his high places of heaven.

Upon whom does his light not shine?

How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?

the stars are not pure in his sight.

a son of man, who is a worm!"

---

Chapter 26

How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

<sup>3</sup> How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound wisdom!

<sup>4</sup> With whose help have you spoken these words?
Whose spirit was it that came out from you?

<sup>5</sup> The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters
and all who dwell in them.

destruction itself has no covering against him.

<sup>7</sup> He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space,
and he hangs the earth over nothing.

<sup>8</sup> He binds up the waters in his thick clouds,
but the clouds are not torn under them.

<sup>9</sup> He covers the surface of the moon and spreads his clouds on it.

<sup>10</sup> He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters
as the line between light and darkness.

and are astonished at his rebuke.

by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

<sup>13</sup> By his breath he made the skies clear;
his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

<sup>14</sup> See, these are but the fringes of his ways;
how small a whisper do we hear of him!
Who can understand the thunder of his power?"

---

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Job continued his discourse, and he said, <sup>2</sup> "As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice,
the Almighty, who made my life bitter, <sup>3</sup> while my life is yet in me,
and the breath from God is in my nostrils,
this is what I will do.
<sup>4</sup> My lips will not speak wickedness,
neither will my tongue speak deceit;
<sup>5</sup> I will never admit that you are right;
until I die I will never deny my integrity.
<sup>6</sup> I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go;
my conscience will not accuse me so long as I live.
<sup>7</sup> Let my enemy be like a wicked man;
let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.

<sup>8</sup> For what is the hope of a godless man when God cuts him off,
when God takes away his life?
<sup>9</sup> Will God hear his cry
when trouble comes upon him?
<sup>10</sup> Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

<sup>11</sup> I will teach you concerning the hand of God;
I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty.
<sup>12</sup> See, all of you have seen this yourselves;
why then have you become completely useless?

the inheritance of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty:
<sup>14</sup> If his children multiply, it is for the sword;
his offspring will never have enough food.
<sup>15</sup> Those who survive him will be buried by plague,
and their widows will make no lament for them.
<sup>16</sup> Though the wicked man heaps up silver like the dust,
and heaps up clothing like clay, <sup>17</sup> he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on,
and innocent people will divide up the silver among themselves.
<sup>18</sup> He builds his house like a spider,
like a hut that a guard makes.
<sup>19</sup> He lies down in bed rich, but he will not keep doing so;
he opens his eyes, and everything is gone.
<sup>20</sup> Terrors overtake him like waters;
a storm takes him away in the night.
<sup>21</sup> The east wind carries him away, and he leaves;
it sweeps him out of his place.
<sup>22</sup> It throws itself at him and does not stop;
he tries to flee out of its hand.
<sup>23</sup> It claps its hands at him and hisses him from his place.

---

Chapter 28

- <sup>1</sup> Surely there is a mine for silver,
     a place where they refine gold.
<sup>2</sup> Iron is taken out of the earth;
     copper is smelted out of the stone.
<sup>3</sup> A man sets an end to darkness and searches out to the farthest limit
     the stones in the blackest darkness.
<sup>4</sup> He breaks open a shaft away from where people live, places that are forgotten by anyone's foot.
     He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.
<sup>5</sup> As for the earth, out of which comes bread,
     it is turned up below as if by fire.
<sup>6</sup> Its stones are the place where sapphires are found,
     and its dust contains gold.
<sup>7</sup> No bird of prey knows the path to it,
     nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
<sup>8</sup> The proud animals have not walked such a path,
     nor has the fierce lion passed there.
<sup>9</sup> A man lays his hand on the flinty rock;
     he overturns mountains by their roots.
<sup>10</sup> He cuts out channels among the rocks;
     his eye sees every valuable thing there.
<sup>11</sup> He ties up the streams so they do not run;
     what is hidden there he brings out to the light.
- <sup>12</sup> Where will wisdom be found?
     Where is the place of understanding?
     neither is it found in the land of the living.
<sup>14</sup> The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me';
     the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
<sup>15</sup> It cannot be gotten for gold;
     neither can silver be weighed as its price.
<sup>16</sup> It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir,
     with precious onyx or sapphire.
<sup>17</sup> Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth;
     neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
     indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.
     neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.
- <sup>20</sup> From where, then, comes wisdom?
     Where is the place of understanding?
<sup>21</sup> Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things and is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens.
     'We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.'
<sup>23</sup> God understands the way to it;
     he knows its place.
<sup>24</sup> For he looks to the very ends of the earth and sees under all the heavens.

<sup>25</sup> He made the force of the wind and parceled out the waters by measure.
<sup>26</sup> He made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunder.
<sup>27</sup> Then he saw wisdom and announced it;
he established it, indeed, and he examined it.
<sup>28</sup> To people he said,
'See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom;
to depart from evil is understanding.'"

---

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>Job resumed speaking and said, <sup>2</sup> "Oh, that I were as I was in the past months
when God cared for me, <sup>3</sup> when his lamp shined on my head,
and when I walked through darkness by his light.
<sup>4</sup> Oh, that I were as I was in the ripeness of my days when the friendship of God was on my tent, <sup>5</sup> when the Almighty was yet with me,
and my children were around me, <sup>6</sup> when my way was covered with cream,
and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!

<sup>7</sup> When I went out to the city gate,
when I sat in my place in the city square, <sup>8</sup> the young men saw me and kept their distance from me in respect, and the aged people rose and stood for me.
<sup>9</sup> The princes used to refrain from talking when I came;
they would lay their hand on their mouths.
<sup>10</sup> The voices of the noblemen were hushed,
and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths.
<sup>11</sup> For after their ears heard me, they would then bless me;
after their eyes saw me, they would then give witness to me and approve of me <sup>12</sup> because I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out, and the one who had no father when he had no one to help him.
<sup>13</sup> The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me;
I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
<sup>14</sup> I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
my justice was like a robe and a turban.
<sup>15</sup> I was eyes to blind people;
I was feet to lame people.
<sup>16</sup> I was a father to needy people;
I would investigate the case even of one whom I did not know.

<sup>17</sup> I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man;
I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.
<sup>18</sup> Then I said, 'I will die in my nest;
I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.
<sup>19</sup> My roots are spread out to the waters,
and dew lies all night on my branches.
<sup>20</sup> The honor in me is always fresh,
and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.'
<sup>21</sup> To me men listened; they waited for me;
they stayed silent to hear my advice.
<sup>22</sup> After my words were done, they did not speak again;
my speech dropped like water on them.

they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words,
as they would do for the latter rain.
<sup>24</sup> I smiled on them when they did not expect it;
they did not reject the light of my face.

I lived like a king in his army,
like one who comforts mourners.

Chapter 30

     these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.
<sup>2</sup> Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me—men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?
<sup>3</sup> They were thin from poverty and hunger;
     they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.
<sup>4</sup> They plucked saltwort and bushes' leaves;
     the roots of the broom tree were their food.
<sup>5</sup> They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as one would shout after a thief.
<sup>6</sup> So they had to live in river valleys,
     in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
<sup>7</sup> Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys
     and they gathered together under the nettles.
<sup>8</sup> They were the sons of fools, indeed, sons of nameless people!
     They were driven out of the land with whips.

     I have become a byword for them.
<sup>10</sup> They abhor me and stand far off from me;
     they do not refrain from spitting in my face.
<sup>11</sup> For God has unstrung the string to my bow and afflicted me, and those who taunt me cast off restraint before my face.
<sup>12</sup> Upon my right hand rise the rabble;
     they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.
<sup>13</sup> They destroy my path;
     they push forward disaster for me,
     men who have no one to hold them back.
<sup>14</sup> They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall;
     in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.
<sup>15</sup> Terrors are turned upon me;
     my honor is driven away as if by the wind;
     my prosperity passes away as a cloud.

<sup>16</sup> Now my life is pouring out from within me;
     many days of suffering have laid hold on me.
<sup>17</sup> In the night my bones in me are pierced;
     the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.
<sup>18</sup> God's great force has seized my clothing;
     it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic.
<sup>19</sup> He has thrown me into the mud;
     I have become like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup> I cry to you, God, but you do not answer me;
     I stand up, and you merely look at me.
<sup>21</sup> You have changed and become cruel to me;
     with the might of your hand you persecute me.
<sup>22</sup> You lift me up to the wind and cause it to drive me along;
     you throw me back and forth in a storm. <sup>1</sup> <sup>23</sup> For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.

- <sup>24</sup> However, does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls?
Does no one in trouble call out for help?
- <sup>25</sup> Did not I weep for him whose day is hard?
Did I not grieve for the needy man?
- <sup>26</sup> When I hoped for good, then evil came;
when I waited for light, darkness came instead.
- <sup>27</sup> My heart is troubled and does not rest;
days of affliction have come on me.
- <sup>28</sup> I have gone about like one who was living in the dark,
but not because of the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.
- <sup>29</sup> I am a brother to jackals,
a companion of ostriches.
- <sup>30</sup> My skin is black and falls away from me;
my bones are burned with heat.
- <sup>31</sup> Therefore my harp is tuned for songs of mourning,
my flute for the singing of those who wail.

<sup>31</sup> Some modern translations have you dissolve me in a storm .

---

Chapter 31

- <sup>1</sup> I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then should I look with desire on a virgin?
- <sup>2</sup> For what is the portion from God above,
the inheritance from the Almighty on high?
- <sup>3</sup> I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people,
and that disaster is for those who behave wickedly.
- <sup>4</sup> Does not God see my ways
and count all my steps?
- <sup>5</sup> If I have walked with falsehood,
if my foot has hurried to deceit,
- <sup>6</sup> let me be weighed in an even balance
so that God will know my integrity.
- <sup>7</sup> If my step has turned aside from the way,
if my heart has gone after my eyes,
if any spot has stuck to my hands,
- <sup>8</sup> then let me sow, and let another eat,
and let my crops be uprooted.
- <sup>9</sup> If my heart has been deceived by a woman,
if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door,
- <sup>10</sup> then let my wife grind grain for another,
and let others bow down on her.
- <sup>11</sup> For that would be a terrible crime;
indeed, it would be a crime to be punished by judges.
- <sup>12</sup> For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root.
- <sup>13</sup> If I rejected the plea for justice from my male servant or my female servant
when they argued with me,
- <sup>14</sup> what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me?
When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?
- <sup>15</sup> Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also?
Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?
- <sup>16</sup> If I have withheld poor people from their desire, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying,
- <sup>17</sup> or if I have eaten my morsel alone and not allowed those without fathers to eat it also—
- <sup>18</sup> because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb.
- <sup>19</sup> If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or if I have seen that a needy man had no clothing;
- <sup>20</sup> if his heart has not blessed me because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep,
- <sup>21</sup> if I have lifted up my hand against the orphan because I saw my support in the city gate,
then bring charges against me!
- <sup>22</sup> If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.
- <sup>23</sup> For I dreaded destruction from God;

because of his majesty, I was not able to do those things.

- <sup>24</sup> If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in'; <sup>25</sup> if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
     because my hand had gotten many possessions,
 then bring charges against me!
<sup>26</sup> If I have seen the sun when it shone,
     or the moon walking in its splendor, <sup>27</sup> and if my heart has been secretly attracted,
     so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them—<sup>28</sup> this also would be a crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the God who is above.
- <sup>29</sup> If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him,
 then bring charges against me!
<sup>30</sup> Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.
<sup>31</sup> If the men of my tent have never said,
     'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?' <sup>32</sup> (even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler),
 and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!
<sup>33</sup> If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins
     by hiding my guilt inside my bosom <sup>34</sup> (because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of the families terrified me,
 so that I kept silent and would not go outside)—
- <sup>35</sup> Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!
     See, here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me!
     If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!
<sup>36</sup> Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder;
     I would bind it on myself like a crown.
<sup>37</sup> I would declare to him an accounting for my steps;
     as a confident prince I would go up to him.
<sup>38</sup> If my land ever cries out against me,
     and its furrows weep together, <sup>39</sup> if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives, <sup>40</sup> then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are finished.

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>So these three men stopped answering Job because he was righteous in his own eyes.<sup>2</sup>Then the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled; it was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God.

<sup>3</sup>Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job.<sup>4</sup>Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the other men were older than he.<sup>5</sup>However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.

"I am young, and you are very old.

That is why I held back and was afraid to tell you my own thoughts.

<sup>7</sup> I said, "Length of days should speak;
a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

<sup>8</sup> But there is a spirit in a man;
the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

nor the aged people alone who understand justice.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I say to you, 'Listen to me;
I will also tell you my knowledge.'

<sup>11</sup> See, I waited for your words;
I listened to your arguments while you were searching for a word.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, I paid attention to you, but, see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.

God will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.

<sup>14</sup> For Job has not directed his words against me,
so I will not answer him with your words.

they have not a word more to say.

<sup>16</sup> Should I wait because they are not speaking,
because they stand there silent and answer no more?

<sup>17</sup> No, I also will answer on my part;
I will also tell them my knowledge.

<sup>18</sup> For I am full of words;
the spirit in me compels me.

<sup>19</sup> See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent;
like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

<sup>20</sup> I will speak so that I may be refreshed;
I will open my lips and answer.

<sup>21</sup> I will not show favoritism;
neither will I give honorific titles to any man.

if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

- <sup>1</sup> So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech;
listen to all my words.
- <sup>2</sup> See now, I have opened my mouth;
my tongue has spoken in my mouth.
- <sup>3</sup> My words come from the uprightness of my heart;
my lips speak pure knowledge.
- <sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God has made me;
the breath of the Almighty has given me life.
- <sup>5</sup> If you can, answer me;
set your words in order before me and stand up.
- <sup>6</sup> See, I am just as you are in God's sight;
I also have been formed out of the clay.
- <sup>7</sup> See, terror of me will not make you afraid;
neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.
- <sup>8</sup> You have certainly spoken in my hearing;
I have heard the sound of your words saying,
- <sup>9</sup> 'I am clean and without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.
- <sup>10</sup> See, God finds opportunities to attack me;
he regards me as his enemy.
- <sup>11</sup> He puts my feet in stocks;
he watches all my paths.'
- <sup>12</sup> See, in this you are not in the right—I will answer you,
for God is greater than man.
- <sup>13</sup> Why do you struggle against him?
He does not account for any of his doings.
- <sup>14</sup> For God speaks once—
yes, twice, though man does not notice it.
- <sup>15</sup> In a dream, in a vision of the night,
when deep sleep falls upon men,
in slumber on the bed—
- <sup>16</sup> then God opens the ears of men,
and frightens them with threats,
- <sup>17</sup> to cause man to turn away from his deed,
and keep pride from a man.
- <sup>18</sup> God keeps man's life back from the pit,
his life from crossing over to death.
- <sup>19</sup> Man is punished also with pain on his bed,
with constant strife in his bones,
- <sup>20</sup> so that his life abhors food,
and his soul abhors delicacies.
- <sup>21</sup> His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen;
his bones, once not seen, now stick out.
- <sup>22</sup> Indeed, his soul draws close to the pit,
his life to those who wish to destroy it.
- <sup>23</sup> But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him,
one out of a thousand,
to tell a man what is right for him,
- <sup>24</sup> to be gracious to him and say,

'Save this person from going down to the pit;
I have found a ransom for him,' <sup>25</sup> then his flesh will become fresher than a youth's;
it is restored to the days of his youthful vigor.
<sup>26</sup> He will pray to God, and God will be kind to him, so that he sees God's face with joy.
God will restore to the person his righteousness.
<sup>27</sup> Then that person will sing in front of other people and say,
'I sinned and perverted that which was right,
but my sin was not punished.
<sup>28</sup> God has rescued my soul from going down into the pit;
my life will continue to see light.'

twice, yes, even three times, <sup>30</sup> to bring his soul back from the pit,
so that he may be enlightened with the light of life.

<sup>31</sup> Pay attention, Job, and listen to me;
be silent and I will speak.
<sup>32</sup> If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I wish to justify you.
<sup>33</sup> If not, then listen to me;
remain silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

<sup>2</sup> "Listen to my words, you wise men;
hear me, you who have knowledge.

<sup>3</sup> For the ear tests words
as the palate tastes food.

<sup>4</sup> Let us choose for ourselves what is just:
let us discover among ourselves what is good.

<sup>5</sup> For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
but God has taken away my rights.

I am considered to be a liar.
My wound is incurable,
although I am without sin.'

who drinks up mockery like water, <sup>8</sup> who goes around in the company of those who behave wickedly, and who walks with wicked men?

<sup>9</sup> For he has said, 'It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what God wants.'

<sup>10</sup> So listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God that he should do wickedness;
far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin.

he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways.

nor does the Almighty ever pervert justice.

<sup>13</sup> Who put him in charge over the earth?
Who put the whole world under him?

<sup>14</sup> If he ever set his intentions only on himself,
and if he ever gathered back to himself his spirit and his breath, <sup>15</sup> then all flesh would perish together;
mankind would return to dust again.

<sup>16</sup> If now you have understanding, listen to this;
listen to the sound of my words.

Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

or says to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

<sup>19</sup> God, who does not show favoritism to leaders and does not acknowledge rich people more than poor, for they all are the work of his hands.

<sup>20</sup> In a moment they will die;
at midnight people will be shaken and will pass away;
mighty people will be taken away, but not by human hands.

<sup>21</sup> For God's eyes are upon a person's ways;
he sees all his steps.

<sup>22</sup> There is no darkness and there is no deep shadow where those who behave wickedly may hide themselves.

<sup>23</sup> For God does not need to examine a person further;
there is no need for any person to go before him in judgment.
<sup>24</sup> He breaks mighty men into pieces for their ways that need no further investigation;
he puts others in their places.
<sup>25</sup> In this way he has knowledge of their deeds;
he overthrows these people in the night; they are crushed.
<sup>26</sup> In the open sight of others, he kills them for their wicked deeds like criminals
<sup>27</sup> because they turned away from following him and refused to acknowledge any of his ways.
<sup>28</sup> In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him;
he heard the cry of afflicted people.
<sup>29</sup> When he stays silent, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, who can see him?
He rules over nation and individual alike, <sup>30</sup> so that a godless man may not reign,
so that there may be no one to entrap people.

<sup>31</sup> Suppose someone says to God,
'I am certainly guilty, but I will not act corruptly any longer;
<sup>32</sup> teach me what I cannot see;
I have committed sin, but I will do it no longer.'
<sup>33</sup> Is it according to your desires that God must punish that person?
For you reject this!
You must choose, not I.
So say what it is that you know.
<sup>34</sup> Men of understanding will say to me—
indeed, every wise man who hears me will say, <sup>35</sup> 'Job speaks without knowledge;
his words are without wisdom.'
<sup>36</sup> If only Job were put on trial in the smallest details of his case because of his talking like wicked men.
<sup>37</sup> For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands in mockery in our midst;
he piles up words against God."

---

Chapter 35

<sup>2</sup> "Do you think this is just when you say, 'I am in the right before God'?"

<sup>3</sup> For you ask, 'What use is it to me?'
and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

<sup>4</sup> I will answer you,
both you and your friends.

<sup>5</sup> Look up at the sky, and see it;
see the sky, which is higher than you.

If your transgressions are many, what do you do to him?

What will he receive from your hand?

and your righteousness might benefit another son of man.

they call for help from the arms of mighty men.

who gives songs in the night,

<sup>11</sup> who teaches us more than he teaches the wild animals of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'

<sup>12</sup> There they cry out, but God gives no answer
because of the pride of evil men.

<sup>13</sup> God will certainly not hear a foolish cry;
the Almighty will pay no attention to it.

<sup>14</sup> How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!

<sup>15</sup> Now you say that his anger does not punish,
and he does not take even a little notice of transgression.

he multiplies words without knowledge."

---

<sup>2</sup> "Be patient with me a little longer, and I will show you some things because I have a little more to say in defense of God.

I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.

<sup>4</sup> For indeed, my words will not be false;
someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.

<sup>5</sup> See, God is mighty, and despises no one;
he is mighty in strength of understanding.

<sup>6</sup> He does not preserve the life of wicked people but gives justice those who suffer.

<sup>7</sup> He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but sets them on thrones with kings forever, and they are lifted up.

<sup>8</sup> If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering, <sup>9</sup> then he reveals to them what they have done,
and their transgressions and their pride.

<sup>10</sup> He also opens their ears to his instruction,
and commands them to turn back from iniquity.

<sup>11</sup> If they listen to him and worship him,
they will spend their days in prosperity,
their years in contentment.

<sup>12</sup> However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword;
they will die because they have no knowledge.

they do not cry out for help even when God ties them up.

their lives end among the cultic prostitutes.

he opens their ears by means of their oppression.

<sup>16</sup> Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.

<sup>17</sup> But you are full of judgment on wicked people;
judgment and justice have laid hold of you.

<sup>18</sup> Do not let your anger entice you to mockery,
or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.

<sup>19</sup> Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

when peoples are cut off in their place.

because you are being tested by suffering so that you will stay away from sinning.

who is a teacher like him?

<sup>23</sup> Who has ever instructed him about his way?

Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'
<sup>24</sup> Remember to praise his deeds,
of which people have sung.
<sup>25</sup> All people have looked on those deeds,
but they see those deeds only from far away.
<sup>26</sup> See, God is great, but we do not understand him well;
the number of his years is incalculable.

<sup>27</sup> For he draws up the drops of water that he distills as rain from his vapor, <sup>1</sup> <sup>28</sup> which the clouds pour down and drop in abundance on mankind.
<sup>29</sup> Indeed, can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut?
<sup>30</sup> See, he spreads his lightning around him
and covers the roots of the sea.
<sup>31</sup> In this way he judges the peoples and gives food in abundance.
<sup>32</sup> He fills his hands with the lightning until he commands it to strike its mark.
<sup>33</sup> Its thunder warns of the storm,
the cattle can also hear it is coming.

<sup>1</sup>Some modern translations have that distill as rain from his vapor .

---

Chapter 37

- <sup>1</sup> Indeed, my heart trembles at this;
it is moved out of its place.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice,
the sound that goes out from his mouth.
- <sup>3</sup> He sends it out under the whole sky, and he sends out his lightning to the edges of the earth.
- <sup>4</sup> A voice roars after it;
he thunders with the voice of his majesty;
he does not restrain the lightning bolts
when his voice is heard.
- <sup>5</sup> God thunders marvelously with his voice;
he does great things that we cannot comprehend.
- <sup>6</sup> For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
and to the rain shower, 'Be strong.'
- <sup>7</sup> He stops the hand of every man from working,
so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Then the beasts go into hiding
and stay in their dens.
- <sup>9</sup> The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.
- <sup>10</sup> By the breath of God ice is given;
the expanse of the waters is frozen like metal.
- <sup>11</sup> Indeed, he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture;
he scatters his lightning through the clouds.
- <sup>12</sup> He swirls the clouds around by his guidance,
so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the earthly world.
- <sup>13</sup> He makes all of this happen; sometimes it happens for correction, sometimes for his land, and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>14</sup> Listen to this, Job;
stop and think about God's marvelous deeds.
- <sup>15</sup> Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?
- <sup>16</sup> Do you understand the floating of the clouds,
the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?
- <sup>17</sup> Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still because the wind comes from the south?
- <sup>18</sup> Can you spread out the sky as he can—the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast metal?
- <sup>19</sup> Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.
- <sup>20</sup> Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?
Would a person wish to be swallowed up?
- <sup>21</sup> Now, people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.
- <sup>22</sup> Out of the north comes golden splendor—
over God is fearsome majesty.
- <sup>23</sup> As for the Almighty, we cannot find him!
He is great in power;
he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.

He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds."

---

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh called to Job out of a fierce storm and said, <sup>2</sup> "Who is this who brings darkness to plans
by means of words without knowledge?
<sup>3</sup> Now gird up your loins like a man
for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

<sup>4</sup> Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations?
Tell me, if you have so much understanding.
<sup>5</sup> Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know.
Who stretched the measuring line over it?
<sup>6</sup> On what were its foundations laid?
Who laid its cornerstone <sup>7</sup> when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup> Who shut up the sea with doors
when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb—<sup>9</sup> when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
<sup>10</sup> That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors, <sup>11</sup> and when I said to it, 'You may come this far, but no farther;
here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.'

<sup>12</sup> Have you given orders to the morning, or caused the dawn to know its place, <sup>13</sup> so that it might take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
<sup>14</sup> The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal;
all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.
<sup>15</sup> From wicked people their light is taken away;
their uplifted arm is broken.

<sup>16</sup> Have you gone to the springs of the sea?
Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?
<sup>17</sup> Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
<sup>18</sup> Have you understood the earth in its expanse?
Tell me, if you know it all.

as for darkness, where is its place?
<sup>20</sup> Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
<sup>21</sup> Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large!

<sup>22</sup> Have you entered the storehouses for the snow,
or have you seen the storehouses for the hail, <sup>23</sup> these things that I have kept for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?

<sup>24</sup> What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?

or who has made a path for the thunder,

<sup>26</sup> to cause it to rain on lands where no person exists,
and on the wilderness, in which there is no one,

<sup>27</sup> to satisfy the devastated and desolate places,
and to make the ground sprout with grass?

<sup>28</sup> Does the rain have a father,
or, who fathers the drops of dew?

<sup>29</sup> Out of whose womb did the ice come?

Who bore the white frost out of the sky?

the surface of the deep becomes frozen.

or undo the cords of Orion?

<sup>32</sup> Can you lead the constellations to appear at their proper times?

Can you guide the Bear with its children?

<sup>33</sup> Do you know the regulations of the sky?
Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?

so that an abundance of rainwater may cover you?

<sup>35</sup> Can you send out bolts of lightning that they may go out, that they say to you, 'Here we are'?

<sup>36</sup> Who has put wisdom in the clouds
or has given understanding to the mists?

<sup>37</sup> Who can number the clouds by his skill?
Who can pour out the water skins of the sky

<sup>38</sup> when the dust runs into a hard mass and the clods of earth clump tightly together?

<sup>39</sup> Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness
or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs

<sup>40</sup> when they are crouching in their dens and sheltering in hiding to lie in wait?

<sup>41</sup> Who provides victims for the ravens
when their young ones cry out to God and stagger about for lack of food?

Chapter 39

- <sup>1</sup> Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young?
Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?
- <sup>2</sup> Can you count the months that they gestate?
Do you know the time when they bear their young?
- <sup>3</sup> They crouch down and give birth to their young,
and then they finish their labor pains.
- <sup>4</sup> Their young ones become strong and grow up in the open fields;
they go out and do not return to them.
- <sup>5</sup> Who sent the wild donkey out free?
Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey,
- <sup>6</sup> whose home I have made in the Arabah,
his house in the salt land?
- <sup>7</sup> He laughs in scorn at the noises in the city;
he does not hear the driver's shouts.
- <sup>8</sup> He roams over the mountains as his pastures;
there he looks for every green plant to eat.
- <sup>9</sup> Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?
Will he consent to stay by your manger?
- <sup>10</sup> Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?
Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?
- <sup>11</sup> Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Will you leave your labor to him to do?
- <sup>12</sup> Will you depend on him to bring your grain home,
to gather the grain for your threshing floor?
- <sup>13</sup> The wings of the ostrich wave proudly, but are they the pinions and plumage of love?
- <sup>14</sup> For she leaves her eggs on the earth,
and she lets them keep warm in the dust;
- <sup>15</sup> she forgets that a foot might crush them or that a wild beast might trample them.
- <sup>16</sup> She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers;
she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,
- <sup>17</sup> because God has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.
- <sup>18</sup> When she runs swiftly,
she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.
- <sup>19</sup> Have you given the horse his strength?
Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?
- <sup>20</sup> Have you ever made him jump like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.
- <sup>21</sup> He paws in might and rejoices in his strength;
he rushes out to meet the weapons.
- <sup>22</sup> He mocks fear and is not dismayed;
he does not turn back from the sword.
- <sup>23</sup> The quiver rattles against his flank,
along with the flashing spear and the javelin.
- <sup>24</sup> He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage;
at the sound of the ram's horn, he cannot stand in one place.

He smells the battle from far away—
the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.

<sup>26</sup> Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars,
that he stretches out his wings for the south?

<sup>27</sup> Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?

<sup>28</sup> He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.

<sup>29</sup> From there he searches for victims;
his eyes see them from very far away.

where killed people are, there he is."

---

Chapter 40

He who argues with God, let him answer."

<sup>3</sup>Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

<sup>4</sup> "See, I am insignificant; how can I answer you?
I put my hand over my mouth.

<sup>5</sup> I spoke once, and I will not answer;
indeed, twice, but I will proceed no further."

for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

<sup>8</sup> Will you actually say that I am unjust?
Will you condemn me so you may claim that you are in the right?

<sup>9</sup> Do you have an arm like God's,
and can you thunder with a voice like his?

<sup>10</sup> Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity;
array yourself in honor and majesty.

look at everyone who is proud and bring him low.

<sup>12</sup> Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low;
trample down wicked people where they stand.

imprison their faces in the hidden place.

<sup>14</sup> Then will I also acknowledge about you that your own right hand can save you.

<sup>15</sup> See now, the behemoth, which I made when I made you—
he eats grass like an ox.

<sup>16</sup> See now, his strength is in his loins,
and his power is in his belly's muscles.

the sinews of his thighs are joined together.

his legs are like bars of iron.

Only God, who made him, can defeat him.

the beasts of the field play nearby.

<sup>21</sup> He lies under the lotus plants
in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.

the willows of the brook are all around him.

<sup>23</sup> See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble;
he is confident, though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth.

or pierce his nose through with a snare?

Chapter 41

- <sup>1</sup> Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?
Or tie up his jaws with a cord?
- <sup>2</sup> Can you put a rope into his nose,
or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
- <sup>3</sup> Will he make many pleas to you?
Will he speak soft words to you?
- <sup>4</sup> Will he make a covenant with you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?
- <sup>5</sup> Will you play with him as you would with a bird?
Will you tie him up for your servant girls?
- <sup>6</sup> Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?
Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?
- <sup>7</sup> Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
- <sup>8</sup> Put your hand on him just once,
and you will remember the battle and do it no more.
- <sup>9</sup> See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie;
will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?
- <sup>10</sup> None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up;
who, then, is he who can stand before me?
- <sup>11</sup> Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?
Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.
- <sup>12</sup> I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.
- <sup>13</sup> Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can penetrate his double armor?
- <sup>14</sup> Who can open the doors of his face—ringed with his teeth, which are a terror?
- <sup>15</sup> his back is made up of rows of shields,
tight together as with a close seal.
- <sup>16</sup> One is so near to another that no air can come between them.
- <sup>17</sup> They are joined to each other;
they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.
- <sup>18</sup> Light flashes out from his snorting;
his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn.
- <sup>19</sup> Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out.
- <sup>20</sup> Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.
- <sup>21</sup> His breath kindles coals into flame;
fires go out from his mouth.
- <sup>22</sup> In his neck is strength,
and terror dances in front of him.
- <sup>23</sup> The folds of his flesh are joined together;
they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.
- <sup>24</sup> His heart is as hard as a stone—indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.
- <sup>25</sup> When he raises himself up, even the gods become afraid;
because of its thrashing they draw back.
- <sup>26</sup> If a sword strikes him, it does nothing—and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.

and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.
<sup>28</sup> An arrow cannot make him flee;
to him sling stones become chaff.
he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear.
<sup>30</sup> His lower parts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery;
he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.
<sup>31</sup> He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water;
he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
<sup>32</sup> He makes a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had gray hair.
<sup>33</sup> On earth there is no equal to him,
who has been made to live without fear.
<sup>34</sup> He sees everything that is proud;
he is king over all the sons of pride."

Chapter 42

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

<sup>2</sup> "I know that you can do all things,
that no purpose of yours can be stopped.

Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.

<sup>4</sup> You said to me, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
I will ask you things,
and you will tell me.'

<sup>5</sup> I had heard about you by my ear's hearing,
but now my eye sees you.

I repent in dust and ashes."

<sup>7</sup>It came about that after he had said these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done.<sup>8</sup>Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done."<sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.

<sup>10</sup>When Job prayed for his friends, Yahweh reversed his captivity. Yahweh gave him twice as much as he had possessed before.<sup>11</sup>Then all Job's brothers, and all his sisters, and all who knew him before, came to him and ate food with him in his house. They showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the disasters that Yahweh had brought upon him, and each of them gave Job a piece of silver and a ring of gold.

<sup>15</sup>In all the land no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.<sup>16</sup>After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his sons and his sons' sons, up to four generations.<sup>17</sup>Then Job died, being old and full of days.

Psalms

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is the man
who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners,
or sit in the assembly of mockers.

and on his law he meditates day and night.

<sup>3</sup> He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaves do not wither;
whatever he does will prosper.

<sup>4</sup> The wicked are not so,

but are like the chaff that the wind drives away.

<sup>5</sup> So the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

but the way of the wicked will perish.

- <sup>1</sup> Why are the nations in turmoil, and why do the peoples devise vain plans?
- <sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth take their stand together and the rulers take counsel together against Yahweh and against his Messiah, saying,
- <sup>3</sup> "Let us tear off the shackles they put on us and throw off their chains."
- <sup>4</sup> He who sits in the heavens will sneer at them;
the Lord mocks them.
- <sup>5</sup> Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his rage, saying,
- <sup>6</sup> "I myself have set my king in place on Zion, my holy mountain."
- <sup>7</sup> I will announce a decree of Yahweh.
He said to me, "You are my son!
This day I have become your Father.
- <sup>8</sup> Ask me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession.
- <sup>9</sup> You will break them with an iron rod;
like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces."
- <sup>10</sup> So now, you kings, be prudent;
be corrected, you judges of the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> Worship Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.
- <sup>12</sup> Kiss the son or he will be angry with you,
and you will die in the way when his anger burns for just a moment.
How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

Chapter 3

A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

Many have risen against me.

"There is no deliverance for him from God."

Selah

<sup>3</sup> But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

<sup>4</sup> I lift up my voice to Yahweh,

and he answers me from his holy hill.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> I lay down and slept;

I awoke, for Yahweh protected me.

<sup>6</sup> I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

<sup>7</sup> Rise up, Yahweh! Save me, my God!

For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw;

you will break the teeth of the wicked.

May your blessings be on your people.

Selah

Chapter 4

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness;
give me room when I am hemmed in.
Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup> You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame?
How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

Selah

- <sup>3</sup> But know that Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself.
Yahweh will hear when I call to him.

- <sup>4</sup> Tremble in fear, but do not sin!
Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent.

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yahweh.

- <sup>6</sup> Many say, "Who will show us anything good?"
Yahweh, lift up the light of your face on us.

- <sup>7</sup> You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

- <sup>8</sup> It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep,
for you alone, Yahweh, make me safe and secure.

Chapter 5

For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my words, Yahweh;
    think about my groanings.
- <sup>2</sup> Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God,
    for it is to you that I pray.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, in the morning you hear my cry;
    in the morning I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.
- <sup>4</sup> Certainly you are not a God who takes pleasure in evil;
    evil people will not be your guests.
- <sup>5</sup> The arrogant will not stand in your presence;
    you hate all who behave wickedly.
- <sup>6</sup> You will destroy liars;
    Yahweh abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit.
- <sup>7</sup> But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness,
    I will come into your house;
    in reverence I will bow down toward your holy temple.
- <sup>8</sup> Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies;
    make your path straight before me.
- <sup>9</sup> For there is no truth in their mouth;
    their inward being is wicked;
    their throat is an open tomb;
    they flatter with their tongue.
- <sup>10</sup> Declare them guilty, God;
    may their schemes be their downfall!
Drive them out for their many transgressions,
    for they have rebelled against you.
- <sup>11</sup> But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice;
    let them always shout for joy because you defend them;
    let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.
- <sup>12</sup> For you will bless the righteous, Yahweh;
    you will surround them with favor as with a shield.

Chapter 6

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith style. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.
- <sup>2</sup> Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am frail;
heal me, Yahweh, for my bones are shaking.
- <sup>3</sup> My soul also is very troubled.
But you, Yahweh—how long will this continue?
- <sup>4</sup> Return, Yahweh! rescue me.
Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!
- <sup>5</sup> For in death there is no remembrance of you.
In Sheol who will give you thanks?
- <sup>6</sup> I am weary with my groaning.
All night I drench my bed with tears;
I dissolve my couch with my tears.
- <sup>7</sup> My eyes grow dim from grief;
they grow weak because of all my adversaries.
- <sup>8</sup> Get away from me, all you who behave wickedly;
for Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy;
Yahweh has accepted my prayer.
- <sup>10</sup> All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled.
They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Chapter 7

A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yahweh concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh my God, I take refuge in you!
Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.
  - <sup>2</sup> Otherwise, they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.
  - <sup>3</sup> Yahweh my God, if I have done this,
and there is injustice on my hands—
  - <sup>4</sup> if I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, or harmed my enemy for no reason—
  - <sup>5</sup> then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake me;
let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust.
- Selah
- <sup>6</sup> Arise, Yahweh, in your anger;
stand up against the rage of my enemies;
wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.
  - <sup>7</sup> The peoples are assembled all around you;
take once more your rightful place over them.
  - <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, judge the nations;
vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.
  - <sup>9</sup> May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous God, you who examine hearts and minds.
  - <sup>10</sup> My shield comes from God,
the one who saves the upright in heart.
  - <sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge,
a God who is indignant each day.
- <sup>12</sup> If a person does not repent, God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.
  - <sup>13</sup> He prepares to use deadly weapons against him;
he makes his arrows flaming shafts.
  - <sup>14</sup> Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.
  - <sup>15</sup> He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the pit he has made.
  - <sup>16</sup> His own destructive plans return to his own head,
for his violence comes down on his own head.
- <sup>17</sup> I will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice;
I will sing praise to the name of Yahweh Most High.

Chapter 8

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth, you who reveal your glory in the heavens above.
- <sup>2</sup> Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise <sup>1</sup> because of your enemies,
so that you might silence both the enemy and the avenger.
- <sup>3</sup> When I look up at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
- <sup>4</sup> Of what importance is the human race that you notice them,
or mankind that you pay attention to them?
- <sup>5</sup> Yet you have made them only a little lower than the heavenly beings and have crowned them with glory and honor.
- <sup>6</sup> You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet:
- <sup>7</sup> all sheep and oxen,
and even the wild animals of the field,
- <sup>8</sup> the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
everything that passes through the currents of the seas.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh our Lord,
how magnificent is your name in all the earth!

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text can be read either as established praise or established strength .

Chapter 9

For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart;
I will tell about all your marvelous deeds.
- <sup>2</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in you;
I will sing praise to your name, Most High!
- <sup>3</sup> When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before you.
- <sup>4</sup> For you have defended my just cause;
you sit on your throne, a righteous judge!
- <sup>5</sup> You rebuked the nations;
you have destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.
- <sup>6</sup> The enemy crumbled like ruins
when you overthrew their cities.
All remembrance of them has perished.
- <sup>7</sup> But Yahweh remains forever;
he has established his throne for justice.
- <sup>8</sup> He will judge the world with righteousness,
and he will execute judgment for the nations with fairness.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh also will be a stronghold for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.
- <sup>10</sup> Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Yahweh, do not abandon those who seek you.
- <sup>11</sup> Sing praises to Yahweh, who rules in Zion;
tell the nations of his deeds.
- <sup>12</sup> For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers;
he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.
- <sup>13</sup> Have mercy on me, Yahweh; see my affliction by those who hate me,
you who can snatch me from the gates of death.
- <sup>14</sup> Oh, that I might proclaim all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation!
- <sup>15</sup> The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made;
their feet are caught in the net that they hid.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh has made himself known; he has executed judgment;
the wicked is ensnared by his own actions.
- <sup>17</sup> The wicked are turned back and sent to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.
- <sup>18</sup> For the needy will not always be forgotten,
nor will the hope of the oppressed be forever dashed.
- <sup>19</sup> Arise, Yahweh; do not let man win against you;
may the nations be judged in your sight.
- <sup>20</sup> Terrify them, Yahweh;
may the nations know that they are mere men.

Selah

Selah

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> Why, Yahweh, do you stand far off?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- <sup>2</sup> Because of their arrogance, wicked people chase the oppressed;
but please let the wicked be trapped by their own schemes that they have devised.
- <sup>3</sup> For the wicked person boasts of his deepest desires;
he blesses the greedy and insults Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked in the haughtiness of his face does not seek God.
All his thoughts are that there is no God.
- <sup>5</sup> He is secure at all times,
but your righteous decrees are too high for him;
he snorts at all his enemies.
- <sup>6</sup> He says in his heart, "I will never fail;
throughout all generations I will not meet adversity."
- <sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of curses and lies and oppression;
under his tongue are mischief and evil.
- <sup>8</sup> He waits in ambush near the villages;
in the secret places he murders the innocent;
his eyes look for some helpless victim.
- <sup>9</sup> He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket;
he lies in wait to catch the oppressed.
He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net.
- <sup>10</sup> His victims are crushed and beaten down;
they fall into his strong nets.
- <sup>11</sup> He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
he covers his face; he will never see it."
- <sup>12</sup> Arise, Yahweh! Lift up your hand, God!
Do not forget the oppressed.
- <sup>13</sup> Why does the wicked man reject God and say in his heart, "You will not hold me accountable"?
- <sup>14</sup> You have taken notice, for you always see the one who inflicts the misery and sorrow.
The helpless entrusts himself to you;
you rescue the fatherless.
- <sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked and evil man.
Make him account for his evil deeds,
which he thought you would not discover.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh is King forever and ever;
the nations are driven out of his land.
- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh, you have heard the needs of the oppressed;
you strengthen their heart, you listen to their prayer;
- <sup>18</sup> You defend the fatherless and the oppressed
so that no man on the earth will cause terror again.

Chapter 11

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I take refuge in Yahweh;
how will you say to me,
"Flee like a bird to the mountain"?
- <sup>2</sup> For see! The wicked prepare their bows.
They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart.
- <sup>3</sup> For if the foundations are ruined,
what can the righteous do?
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is in his holy temple;
his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh examines both the righteous and the wicked,
but he hates those who love to do violence.
- <sup>6</sup> He rains burning coals and sulfur upon the wicked;
a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!
- <sup>7</sup> For Yahweh is righteous, and he loves righteousness;
the upright will see his face.

Chapter 12

For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Help, Yahweh, for the faithful ones have disappeared;
those who have integrity have vanished from the children of men.
- <sup>2</sup> Everyone says empty words to his neighbor;
everyone speaks with flattering lips and a double heart.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, cut off all flattering lips,
every tongue declaring great things.
- <sup>4</sup> These are those who have said, "With our tongues we will prevail.
When our lips speak, who can be master over us?"
- <sup>5</sup> "Because of violence against the poor, because of the groans of the needy,
I will arise," says Yahweh.
"I will provide the safety for which they long."
- <sup>6</sup> The words of Yahweh are pure words,
like silver purified in a furnace on the earth,
refined seven times.
- <sup>7</sup> You are Yahweh! You keep them.
You preserve the godly people from this wicked generation and forever.
- <sup>8</sup> The wicked walk on every side when evil is exalted among the children of mankind.

Chapter 13

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> How long, Yahweh, will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
  - <sup>2</sup> How long must I worry
and have grief in my heart all day?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
  - <sup>3</sup> Look at me and answer me, Yahweh my God!
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.
  - <sup>4</sup> Do not let my enemy say, "I have defeated him," so that my enemy may not say, "I have prevailed over my adversary";
otherwise, my enemies will rejoice when I am brought down.
  - <sup>5</sup> But I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness;
my heart rejoices in your salvation.
  - <sup>6</sup> I will sing to Yahweh because he has treated me very generously.

Chapter 14

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> A fool says in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh looks down from heaven on the children of mankind
who seek after him.
- <sup>3</sup> They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good, no, not one.
- <sup>4</sup> Do they not know anything, those who behave wickedly, those who eat up my people as they eat bread,
but who do not call on Yahweh?
- <sup>5</sup> They tremble with dread,
for God is with the righteous generation!
- <sup>6</sup> You want to humiliate the poor person
even though Yahweh is his refuge.
- <sup>7</sup> Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When Yahweh brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Chapter 15

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, who may stay in your tabernacle?
Who may live on your holy hill?
- <sup>2</sup> Whoever walks blamelessly, does what is right and speaks truth from his heart.
- <sup>3</sup> He does not slander with his tongue,
he does not harm others,
and he does not insult his neighbor.
- <sup>4</sup> The abhorrent is despised in his eyes,
but he honors those who fear Yahweh.
He swears to his own disadvantage and does not take back his promises.
- <sup>5</sup> He does not charge interest when he lends money.
He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.

Chapter 16

A michtam of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Protect me, God,
for I take refuge in you.
- <sup>2</sup> I say to Yahweh, "You are my Lord;
my goodness is nothing apart from you.
- <sup>3</sup> As for the holy people who are on the earth,
they are noble people; all my delight is in them.
- <sup>4</sup> Their troubles will be increased, those who seek out other gods.
I will not pour out drink offerings of blood to their gods or lift up their names with my lips.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, you are my chosen portion and my cup.
You hold onto my lot.
- <sup>6</sup> Measuring lines have been laid for me in pleasant places;
surely a beautiful inheritance is mine.
- <sup>7</sup> I will bless Yahweh, who counsels me;
even at night my mind instructs me.
- <sup>8</sup> I set Yahweh before me at all times,
so I will not be shaken from his right hand!
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore my heart is glad; my glory is rejoicing.
Surely I will live in security.
- <sup>10</sup> For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol.
You will not let your faithful one see the pit.
- <sup>11</sup> You teach me the path of life;
abundant joy resides in your presence;
delights abide in your right hand forever!"

Chapter 17

A prayer of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to my plea for justice, Yahweh;
pay attention to my cry for help!
Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit.
- <sup>2</sup> Let my vindication come from your presence;
let your eyes see what is right!
- <sup>3</sup> If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night,
you will purify me and will not find any evil plans;
my mouth will not transgress.
- <sup>4</sup> As for the deeds of mankind,
it is at the word of your lips that I have kept myself from the ways of the lawless.
- <sup>5</sup> My steps have held firmly to your tracks;
my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>6</sup> I call to you, for you answer me, God;
turn your ear to me and listen when I speak.
- <sup>7</sup> Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way, you who save by your right hand
those who take refuge in you from their enemies!
- <sup>8</sup> Protect me like the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings
- <sup>9</sup> from the presence of the wicked ones who deal violently with me, my enemies who surround me.
- <sup>10</sup> They have no mercy on anyone;
their mouths speak with pride.
- <sup>11</sup> They have surrounded my steps.
They set their eyes to strike me to the ground.
- <sup>12</sup> They are like a lion eager for a victim,
like a young lion crouching in hidden places.
- <sup>13</sup> Arise, Yahweh! Attack them! Throw them down on their faces!
Rescue my life from the wicked by your sword!
- <sup>14</sup> Rescue me from men by your hand, Yahweh, from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone!
You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches;
they will have many children
and will leave their wealth to their children.
- <sup>15</sup> As for me, I will see your face in righteousness;
I will be satisfied, when I awake, with a sight of you.

Chapter 18

For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yahweh, when he sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:

- <sup>1</sup> I love you, Yahweh, my strength.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, the one who brings me to safety;
he is my God, my rock; I take refuge in him.
He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.
- <sup>3</sup> I will call on Yahweh who is worthy to be praised,
and I will be saved from my enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> The cords of death surrounded me,
and the rushing waters of worthlessness overwhelmed me.
- <sup>5</sup> The cords of Sheol surrounded me;
the snares of death trapped me.
- <sup>6</sup> In my distress I called to Yahweh;
I called for help to my God.
He heard my voice from his temple;
my cry for help went into his presence;
it went into his ears.
- <sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken because God was angry.
- <sup>8</sup> Smoke went up from out of his nostrils,
and blazing fire came out of his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
- <sup>9</sup> He opened the heavens and came down,
and thick darkness was under his feet.
- <sup>10</sup> He rode on a cherub and flew;
he glided on the wings of the wind.
- <sup>11</sup> He made darkness a tent around him,
heavy rainclouds in the skies.
- <sup>12</sup> Hailstones and coals of fire fell from the lightning before him.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh thundered in the heavens!
- <sup>14</sup> He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies;
many lightning bolts dispersed them.
- <sup>15</sup> Then the water channels appeared;
the foundations of the world were laid bare
at your rebuke, Yahweh,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
- <sup>16</sup> He reached down from above; he took hold of me!
He pulled me out of the surging water.
- <sup>17</sup> He rescued me from my strong enemy,
from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.
- <sup>18</sup> They came against me on the day of my distress
but Yahweh was my support!
- <sup>19</sup> He set me free in a wide open place;
he saved me because he was pleased with me.
- <sup>20</sup> Yahweh has rewarded me because of my righteousness;
he has restored me because my hands were clean.

- <sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of Yahweh and have not wickedly turned away from my God.
<sup>22</sup> For all his righteous decrees have been before me;
 as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.
<sup>23</sup> I have also been innocent before him,
 and I have kept myself from iniquity.
<sup>24</sup> Therefore Yahweh has restored me because of my righteousness, because my hands were clean before his eyes.
- <sup>25</sup> To one who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful;
 to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.
<sup>26</sup> To one who is pure, you show yourself to be pure;
 but to one who is perverse, you show yourself to be shrewd.
<sup>27</sup> For you save afflicted people,
 but you abase those with proud, uplifted eyes!
<sup>28</sup> For you give light to my lamp;
 Yahweh my God lights up my darkness.
<sup>29</sup> For by you I can run over a barricade;
 by my God I can leap over a wall.
- <sup>30</sup> As for God—his way is perfect!
 The word of Yahweh is pure!
 He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.
<sup>31</sup> For who is God except Yahweh?
 Who is a rock except our God?
<sup>32</sup> It is God who puts strength on me like a belt, who places the blameless person on his path.
<sup>33</sup> He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the heights!
<sup>34</sup> He trains my hands for war and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
<sup>35</sup> You have given me the shield of your salvation.
 Your right hand has supported me,
 and your favor has made me great.
<sup>36</sup> You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me so that my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>37</sup> I pursued my enemies and caught them;
 I did not turn back until they were destroyed.
<sup>38</sup> I smashed them so that they were unable to rise;
 they have fallen under my feet.
<sup>39</sup> For you have girded me with strength for battle;
 you put under me those who rise up against me.
<sup>40</sup> You gave me the back of my enemies' necks;
 I annihilated those who hated me.
<sup>41</sup> They called for help, but no one saved them;
 they called out to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.
<sup>42</sup> I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind;
 I threw them out like mud in the streets.
- <sup>43</sup> You rescued me from the disputes of people;
 you have made me head over nations;
 people whom I have not known serve me.
<sup>44</sup> As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me;
 foreigners were forced to bow to me.

- <sup>45</sup> The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.
- <sup>46</sup> Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised.
May the God of my salvation be exalted.
- <sup>47</sup> He is the God who executes vengeance for me,
who subdues the nations under me.
- <sup>48</sup> I am set free from my enemies!
Indeed, you lifted me above the ones who rose against me!
You rescued me from violent men.
- <sup>49</sup> Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations;
I will sing praises to your name!
- <sup>50</sup> God gives great victory to his king,
and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one,
to David and to his descendants forever.

Chapter 19

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the skies make known the work of his hands!
- <sup>2</sup> Day after day speech pours out;
night after night it reveals knowledge.
- <sup>3</sup> There is no speech or spoken words;
their voice is not heard.
- <sup>4</sup> Yet their words go out over all the earth,
and their speech to the end of the world.
He has pitched a tent for the sun among them.
- <sup>5</sup> The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race.
- <sup>6</sup> The sun rises from the one horizon and crosses the sky to the other;
nothing escapes its heat.
- <sup>7</sup> The law of Yahweh is perfect,
restoring the soul;
the testimony of Yahweh is reliable,
making the simple wise.
- <sup>8</sup> The instructions of Yahweh are right, making the heart glad;
the commandment of Yahweh is pure,
bringing light to the eyes.
- <sup>9</sup> The fear of Yahweh is pure,
enduring forever;
the righteous decrees of Yahweh are true
and altogether right!
- <sup>10</sup> They are of greater value than gold,
even more than much fine gold;
they are sweeter than honey
and the dripping honey from the honeycomb.
- <sup>11</sup> Yes, by them your servant is warned;
in obeying them there is great reward.
- <sup>12</sup> Who can discern all his own errors?
Cleanse me from hidden faults.
- <sup>13</sup> Keep your servant also from arrogant sins;
let them not rule over me.
Then I will be perfect,
and I will be innocent from many transgressions.
- <sup>14</sup> May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, Yahweh, my rock and my redeemer.

Chapter 20

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> May Yahweh help you in the day of trouble;
    may the name of the God of Jacob protect you
  - <sup>2</sup> and send help from the holy place
    to support you from Zion.
  - <sup>3</sup> May he call to mind all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice.
  - <sup>4</sup> May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.
  - <sup>5</sup> Then we will rejoice in your victory,
    and, in the name of our God, we will raise banners.
May Yahweh grant all your petitions.
  - <sup>6</sup> Now I know that Yahweh will rescue his anointed one;
    he will answer him from his holy heaven
    with the saving strength of his right hand.
  - <sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots and others in horses,
    but we trust in the name of Yahweh our God.
  - <sup>8</sup> They will be brought down and fall,
    but we will rise and stand upright!
  - <sup>9</sup> Yahweh, rescue the king;
    help us when we call.

Chapter 21

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The king rejoices in your strength, Yahweh!
How greatly he rejoices in the salvation you provide!
- <sup>2</sup> You have given him his heart's desire and have not held back the request of his lips.
- <sup>3</sup> For you bring him rich blessings;
you placed on his head a crown of purest gold.
- <sup>4</sup> He asked you for life; you gave it to him;
you gave him the length of his days forever and ever.
- <sup>5</sup> His glory is great because of your victory;
you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.
- <sup>6</sup> For you grant him lasting blessings;
you make him glad with the joy of your presence.
- <sup>7</sup> For the king trusts in Yahweh;
through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High
he will not be moved.
- <sup>8</sup> Your hand will seize all your enemies;
your right hand will seize those who hate you.
- <sup>9</sup> At the time of your anger,
you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace.
Yahweh will consume them in his wrath,
and the fire will devour them.
- <sup>10</sup> You will destroy their offspring from the earth and their descendants from among the human race.
- <sup>11</sup> For they intended evil against you;
they conceived a plot with which they will not succeed!
- <sup>12</sup> For you will turn them back;
you will draw your bow before them.
- <sup>13</sup> Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength;
we will sing and praise your power.

Chapter 22

For the chief musician; set to "The rhythm of the deer." A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
Why are you so far from saving me
and far from the words of my anguish?
- <sup>2</sup> My God, I cry out in the daytime, but you do not answer, and at night I am not silent!
- <sup>3</sup> Yet you are holy;
you sit as king with the praises of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> Our ancestors trusted in you;
they trusted in you, and you rescued them.
- <sup>5</sup> They cried to you and they were rescued.
They trusted in you and were not disappointed.
- <sup>6</sup> But I am a worm and not a man,
a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.
- <sup>7</sup> All those who see me taunt me;
they mock me; they shake their heads at me.
- <sup>8</sup> They say, "He trusts in Yahweh;
let Yahweh rescue him.
Let him rescue him, for he delights in him."
- <sup>9</sup> For you brought me from the womb;
you made me trust you when I was on my mother's breasts.
- <sup>10</sup> I have been thrown on you from the womb;
you are my God since I was in my mother's womb!
- <sup>11</sup> Do not be far away from me, for trouble is near;
there is no one to help.
- <sup>12</sup> Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- <sup>13</sup> They open their mouths wide against me
like a roaring lion ripping its victim.
- <sup>14</sup> I am being poured out like water,
and all my bones are dislocated.
My heart is like wax;
it melts away within my inner parts.
- <sup>15</sup> My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have laid me in the dust of death.
- <sup>16</sup> For dogs have surrounded me;
a company of evildoers has encircled me;
they have pierced my hands and my feet.
- <sup>17</sup> I can count all my bones.
They look and stare at me.
- <sup>18</sup> They divide my garments among themselves,
they cast lots for my clothes.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not be far away, Yahweh;
please hurry to help me, my strength!

- <sup>20</sup> Rescue my soul from the sword,
my only life from the claws of wild dogs.
- <sup>21</sup> Save me from the lion's mouth;
rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.
- <sup>22</sup> I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you.
- <sup>23</sup> You who fear Yahweh, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!
- <sup>24</sup> For he has not despised or abhorred
the suffering of the afflicted one;
Yahweh has not hidden his face from him;
when the afflicted one cried to him, he heard.
- <sup>25</sup> My praise will be because of you in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.
- <sup>26</sup> The oppressed will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek Yahweh will praise him.
May your hearts live forever.
- <sup>27</sup> All the peoples of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh;
all the families of the nations will bow down before you.
- <sup>28</sup> For the kingdom is Yahweh's;
he is the ruler over the nations.
- <sup>29</sup> All the prosperous people of the earth will feast and will worship;
all those who are descending into the dust will bow before him,
those who cannot preserve their own souls alive.
- <sup>30</sup> A generation to come will serve him;
they will tell the next generation of the Lord.
- <sup>31</sup> They will come and tell of his righteousness;
they will tell to a people not yet born what he has done!

Chapter 23

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.
<sup>2</sup> He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
    he leads me beside tranquil water.
<sup>3</sup> He brings back my life;
    he guides me along paths that are right
    for his name's sake.
<sup>4</sup> Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
    I will fear no harm, for you are with me;
    your rod and your staff comfort me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
    you have anointed my head with oil;
    my cup runs over.
<sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me
    all the days of my life;
and I will live in the house of Yahweh
    for the length of my days!

Chapter 24

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The earth is Yahweh's, and its fullness,
the world, and all who live in it.
<sup>2</sup> For he has founded it upon the seas
and established it on the rivers.
- <sup>3</sup> Who will ascend the mountain of Yahweh?
Who will stand in his holy place?
<sup>4</sup> He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
who has not lifted up a falsehood,
and has not sworn an oath in order to deceive.
- <sup>5</sup> He will receive a blessing from Yahweh and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
<sup>6</sup> Such is the generation of those who seek him,
those who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

- <sup>7</sup> Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!
<sup>8</sup> Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh, strong and mighty;
Yahweh, mighty in battle.
<sup>9</sup> Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!
<sup>10</sup> Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh of hosts,
he is the King of glory.

Chapter 25

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> To you, Yahweh,
I lift up my life!
- <sup>2</sup> My God, I trust in you.
Do not let me be humiliated;
do not let my enemies rejoice triumphantly over me.
- <sup>3</sup> May no one who hopes in you be disgraced;
may those who act treacherously without cause be ashamed!
- <sup>4</sup> Make known to me your ways, Yahweh;
teach me your paths.
- <sup>5</sup> Guide me into your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
I hope in you all day long.
- <sup>6</sup> Call to mind, Yahweh, your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness;
for they have always existed.
- <sup>7</sup> Do not think about the sins of my youth or my rebelliousness;
Call me to mind with covenant faithfulness
because of your goodness, Yahweh!
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is good and upright;
therefore he teaches sinners the way.
- <sup>9</sup> He guides the humble in what is right and he teaches them his way.
- <sup>10</sup> All the paths of Yahweh are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his solemn commands.
- <sup>11</sup> For your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
- <sup>12</sup> Who is the man who fears Yahweh?
The Lord will instruct him in the way that he should choose.
- <sup>13</sup> His life will go along in goodness;
and his descendants will inherit the land.
- <sup>14</sup> The friendship of Yahweh is for those who honor him,
and he makes his covenant known to them.
- <sup>15</sup> My eyes are always on Yahweh,
for he will free my feet from the net.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
for I am alone and afflicted.
- <sup>17</sup> The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
draw me out from my distress!
- <sup>18</sup> See my affliction and my toils;
forgive all my sins.
- <sup>19</sup> See my enemies, for they are many;
they hate me with violent hatred.
- <sup>20</sup> Protect my life and rescue me;
do not let me be humiliated,
for I take refuge in you!
- <sup>21</sup> May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I hope in you.

<sup>22</sup> Rescue Israel, God,
from all of his troubles!

---

Chapter 26

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Judge me, Yahweh,
for I have walked with integrity;
I have trusted in Yahweh without wavering.
- <sup>2</sup> Examine me, Yahweh, and test me;
test the purity of my inner parts and my heart!
- <sup>3</sup> For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes,
and I walk about in your faithfulness.
- <sup>4</sup> I do not associate with deceitful people,
nor do I mingle with dishonest people.
- <sup>5</sup> I hate the assembly of evildoers,
and I do not live with the wicked.
- <sup>6</sup> I wash my hands in innocence,
and I go around your altar, Yahweh,
- <sup>7</sup> to sing a loud song of praise
and report all your wonderful deeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, I love the house where you live,
the place where your glory lives!
- <sup>9</sup> Do not sweep me away with sinners,
or my life with men of bloodshed,
- <sup>10</sup> in whose hands there is a plot,
and whose right hand is full of bribes.
- <sup>11</sup> But as for me, I will walk in integrity;
redeem me and have mercy on me.
- <sup>12</sup> My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies will I bless Yahweh!

Chapter 27

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?
Yahweh is my life's refuge;
whom should I dread?
- <sup>2</sup> When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh,
my adversaries and my enemies stumbled and fell.
- <sup>3</sup> Though an army encamps against me,
my heart will not fear;
though war rises up against me,
even then I will remain confident.
- <sup>4</sup> One thing have I asked of Yahweh,
and I will seek that:
that I may live in the house of Yahweh
all the days of my life,
to see the beauty of Yahweh
and to meditate in his temple.
- <sup>5</sup> For in the day of trouble
he will hide me in his shelter;
in the cover of his tent he will conceal me.
He will lift me high on a rock!
- <sup>6</sup> Then my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me,
and I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent!
I will sing and make songs to Yahweh!
- <sup>7</sup> Hear, Yahweh, my voice when I cry out!
Have mercy on me, and answer me!
- <sup>8</sup> My heart says about you,
"Seek his face!" I seek your face, Yahweh!
- <sup>9</sup> Do not hide your face from me;
do not turn your servant away in anger!
You have been my helper;
do not abandon me or reject me,
God of my salvation!
- <sup>10</sup> Even if my father and my mother abandon me, Yahweh will take me in.
- <sup>11</sup> Teach me your way, Yahweh!
Lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.
- <sup>12</sup> Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies,
for false witnesses have risen up against me,
and they breathe out violence!
- <sup>13</sup> What would have happened to me if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living?
- <sup>14</sup> Wait for Yahweh;
be strong, and let your heart be courageous!

Wait for Yahweh!

---

Chapter 28

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> To you, Yahweh, I cry out;
my rock, do not ignore me.
If you do not respond to me,
I will join those who go down to the pit.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear the sound of my pleading
when I call for help from you,
when I lift up my hands toward your most holy place!
- <sup>3</sup> Do not drag me away with the wicked,
those who behave wickedly,
who speak peace with their neighbors
but have evil in their hearts.
- <sup>4</sup> Give them what their deeds deserve and repay them what their wickedness demands; repay them for the work of their hands and render to them their due.
- <sup>5</sup> Because they do not understand the deeds of Yahweh or the work of his hands,
he will break them down
and never rebuild them.
- <sup>6</sup> Blessed be Yahweh
because he has heard the sound of my pleading!
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
and I will praise him with singing.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is the strength of his people,
and he is the saving refuge of his anointed one.
- <sup>9</sup> Save your people and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Chapter 29

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh, you sons of God, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!
- <sup>2</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh the glory his name deserves.
Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness!
- <sup>3</sup> The voice of Yahweh is heard over the waters;
the God of glory thunders, Yahweh thunders over many waters.
- <sup>4</sup> The voice of Yahweh is powerful;
the voice of Yahweh is majestic.
- <sup>5</sup> The voice of Yahweh breaks the cedars; Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox.
- <sup>7</sup> The voice of Yahweh sends out flames of fire.
- <sup>8</sup> The voice of Yahweh shakes the wilderness;
Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- <sup>9</sup> The voice of Yahweh causes the oaks to twist and strips the forests bare.
Everyone in his temple says, "Glory!"
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh sits as king over the flood;
Yahweh sits as king forever.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh gives strength to his people;
Yahweh blesses his people with peace.

Chapter 30

A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will exalt you, Yahweh,
    for you have raised me up
    and have not allowed my enemies to rejoice over me.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh my God, I cried to you for help,
    and you healed me.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol;
    you have kept me alive from going down to the pit.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing praises to Yahweh, you his faithful ones!
    Give thanks when you remember his holiness.
- <sup>5</sup> For his anger is only for a moment;
    but his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping comes for a night,
    but joy comes in the morning.
- <sup>6</sup> In confidence I said, "I will never be shaken."
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, by your favor
    you established me as a strong mountain;
but when you hid your face,
    I was troubled.
- <sup>8</sup> I cried to you, Yahweh,
    and sought favor from my Lord!
- <sup>9</sup> What advantage is there in my blood,
    if I go down to the grave?
Will the dust praise you?
    Will it declare your trustworthiness?
- <sup>10</sup> Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me!
    Yahweh, be my helper.
- <sup>11</sup> You have turned my mourning into dancing;
    you have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness.
- <sup>12</sup> So now my glory will sing praise to you and not be silent;
    Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Chapter 31

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
never let me be humiliated.
Rescue me in your righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup> Listen to me; rescue me quickly;
be my rock of refuge,
a stronghold to save me.
- <sup>3</sup> For you are my rock and my fortress;
therefore for your name's sake, lead and guide me.
- <sup>4</sup> Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me,
for you are my refuge.
- <sup>5</sup> Into your hands I entrust my spirit;
you will redeem me, Yahweh, God of trustworthiness.
- <sup>6</sup> I hate those who serve worthless idols,
but I trust in Yahweh.
- <sup>7</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness,
for you saw my affliction;
you knew the distress of my soul.
- <sup>8</sup> You have not given me into the hand of my enemy.
You have set my feet in a wide open place.
- <sup>9</sup> Have mercy upon me, Yahweh, for I am in distress;
my eyes grow weary with grief
with my soul and my body.
- <sup>10</sup> For my life is weary with sorrow and my years with groaning.
My strength fails because of my iniquity,
and my bones are wasting away.
- <sup>11</sup> Because of all my enemies, I have become contemptible;
my neighbors are appalled at my situation,
and those who know me are horrified.
Those who see me in the street run from me.
- <sup>12</sup> I am forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about.
I am like a broken pot.
- <sup>13</sup> For I have heard the whispering of many, terrifying news from every side
as they plot together against me.
They plot to take away my life.
- <sup>14</sup> But I trust in you, Yahweh;
I say, "You are my God."
- <sup>15</sup> My times are in your hand.
Rescue me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.
- <sup>16</sup> Make your face shine on your servant;
save me in your covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not let me be humiliated, Yahweh;
for I call out to you!
May the wicked be humiliated!
May they be silent in Sheol.

- <sup>18</sup> May lying lips be silenced that speak against the righteous defiantly with arrogance and contempt.
- <sup>19</sup> How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who revere you, that you perform for those who take refuge in you before all the children of mankind!
- <sup>20</sup> In the shelter of your presence, you hide them from the plots of men.
You hide them in a shelter from the strife of tongues.
- <sup>21</sup> Blessed be Yahweh,
for he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness when I was in a besieged city.
- <sup>22</sup> Though I said in my alarm,
"I am cut off from your eyes," yet you heard my plea for help
when I cried to you.
- <sup>23</sup> Love Yahweh, all you faithful ones.
Yahweh protects the faithful,
but he pays back the arrogant in full.
- <sup>24</sup> Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who trust in Yahweh for help.

Chapter 32

A psalm of David. A maschil.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the person whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man to whom Yahweh reckons no guilt and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- <sup>3</sup> When I remained silent,
    my bones were wasting away
    while I groaned all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.
    My strength withered as in summer drought.

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I no longer hid my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh,"
    and you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Selah

- <sup>6</sup> For this reason every one of your faithful followers should pray to you at a time of great distress.
When the surging waters overflow,
    the waters will not reach them.
- <sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place;
    you will guard me from trouble.
    You will surround me with the songs of victory.

Selah

- <sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go.
    I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be like a horse or like a mule,
    which have no understanding;
it is only with bridle and bit to control them that they will go where you want them to.
- <sup>10</sup> The wicked have many sorrows,
    but Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround the one who trusts in him.
- <sup>11</sup> Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous;
    shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Chapter 33

- <sup>1</sup> Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous;
praise is appropriate for the upright.
- <sup>2</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh with the harp;
sing praises to him with the lute having ten strings.
- <sup>3</sup> Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully and shout for joy.
- <sup>4</sup> For Yahweh's word is upright,
and all his deeds are done in faithfulness.
- <sup>5</sup> He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>6</sup> By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made,
and all the stars were made by the breath of his mouth.
- <sup>7</sup> He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap;
he puts the oceans in storehouses.
- <sup>8</sup> Let the whole earth fear Yahweh;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- <sup>9</sup> For he spoke, and it was done;
he commanded, and it stood in place.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh frustrates the alliances of nations;
he overrules the plans of the peoples.
- <sup>11</sup> The plans of Yahweh stand forever,
the plans of his heart for all generations.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh,
the people whom he has chosen as his own inheritance.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh looks from heaven;
he sees all the people.
- <sup>14</sup> From the place where he lives, he looks down on all who live on the earth.
- <sup>15</sup> He who shapes the hearts of them all observes all their deeds.
- <sup>16</sup> No king is saved by a vast army;
a warrior is not saved by his great strength.
- <sup>17</sup> A horse is a false hope for victory;
in spite of his great strength, he cannot rescue.
- <sup>18</sup> See, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his covenant faithfulness
- <sup>19</sup> to deliver their lives from death and to keep them alive in times of famine.
- <sup>20</sup> We wait for Yahweh;
he is our help and our shield.
- <sup>21</sup> Our hearts rejoice in him,
for we trust in his holy name.
- <sup>22</sup> Let your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, be with us as we put our hope in you.

Chapter 34

A psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him out.

- <sup>1</sup> I will praise Yahweh at all times,
his praise will always be in my mouth.
- <sup>2</sup> I will praise Yahweh!
May the oppressed hear and rejoice.
- <sup>3</sup> Praise Yahweh with me,
let us lift up his name together.
- <sup>4</sup> I sought Yahweh and he answered me,
and he gave me victory over all my fears.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who look to him are radiant,
and their faces are not ashamed.
- <sup>6</sup> This oppressed man cried and Yahweh heard him and saved him from all his troubles.
- <sup>7</sup> The angel of Yahweh camps around those who fear him and rescues them.
- <sup>8</sup> Taste and see that Yahweh is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.
- <sup>9</sup> Fear Yahweh, you his holy people.
There is no lack for those who fear him.
- <sup>10</sup> The young lions sometimes lack food and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh will not lack anything good.
- <sup>11</sup> Come, sons, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.
- <sup>12</sup> What man is there who delights in life
and loves many days,
that he may see good?
- <sup>13</sup> Then keep your tongue from evil and keep your lips from speaking lies.
- <sup>14</sup> Turn away from evil and do good.
Seek peace and go after it.
- <sup>15</sup> The eyes of Yahweh are on the righteous and his ears are directed toward their cry.
- <sup>16</sup> The face of Yahweh is against those who do evil,
to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
- <sup>17</sup> The righteous cry out and Yahweh hears and he rescues them from all their troubles.
- <sup>18</sup> Yahweh is close to the brokenhearted,
and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.
- <sup>19</sup> Many are the troubles of the righteous,
but Yahweh delivers them out of them all.
- <sup>20</sup> He keeps all his bones,
not one of them will be broken.
- <sup>21</sup> Evil will kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
- <sup>22</sup> Yahweh rescues the lives of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Chapter 35

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, work against those who work against me;
fight against those who fight against me.
- <sup>2</sup> Grab your small shield and large shield;
rise up and help me.
- <sup>3</sup> Use your spear and battle ax against those who chase me;
say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."
- <sup>4</sup> May those who seek my life
be shamed and dishonored.
May those who plan to harm me
be turned back and ashamed.
- <sup>5</sup> May they be as chaff before the wind,
as the angel of Yahweh drives them away.
- <sup>6</sup> May their way be dark and slippery,
as the angel of Yahweh chases them.
- <sup>7</sup> Without cause they set their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.
- <sup>8</sup> Let destruction overtake them by surprise.
Let the net that they have set catch them.
Let them fall into it, to their destruction.
- <sup>9</sup> But I will be joyful in Yahweh and rejoice in his salvation.
- <sup>10</sup> All my bones will say,
"Yahweh, who is like you,
who rescues the oppressed from those who are too strong for them and the poor and needy from those who try to rob them?"
- <sup>11</sup> Unrighteous witnesses rise up;
they accuse me falsely.
- <sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for good.
I am sorrowful.
- <sup>13</sup> As for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth;
I fasted for them,
and my prayer returned to my bosom.
- <sup>14</sup> I went about in grief as for my brother;
I bent down in mourning as for my mother.
- <sup>15</sup> But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together;
they gathered together against me, and I was surprised by them.
They tore at me without stopping.
- <sup>16</sup> With no respect at all they mocked me;
they grind their teeth at me in rage.
- <sup>17</sup> Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destructive attacks,
my only life from the lions.
- <sup>18</sup> Then I will thank you in the great assembly;
I will praise you among many people.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;

do not let them carry out their wicked schemes.
<sup>20</sup> For they do not speak peace,
but they devise deceitful words
against those in our land who live in peace.
<sup>21</sup> They open their mouths wide against me;
they said, "Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it."

<sup>22</sup> You have seen it, Yahweh, do not be silent;
Lord, do not be far from me.
<sup>23</sup> Arouse yourself and awake to my defense;
My God and my Lord, defend my cause.
<sup>24</sup> Defend me, Yahweh my God, because of your righteousness;
do not let them rejoice over me.
<sup>25</sup> Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha, we have what we wanted."
Do not let them say, "We have devoured him."

<sup>26</sup> May they be put to shame and may they be humiliated who rejoice at my distress.
May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor.
<sup>27</sup> Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad;
may they say continually, "Yahweh be praised,
he who delights in the welfare of his servant."
<sup>28</sup> Then I will tell of your justice and praise you all day long.

Chapter 36

For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup> An evil man speaks of his transgression from deep in his heart,
there is no fear of God in his eyes.
  - <sup>2</sup> For he comforts himself, thinking that his iniquity will not be discovered and be hated.
  - <sup>3</sup> The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
he does not want to be wise and do good.
  - <sup>4</sup> While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin;
he sets out on an evil way;
he does not reject evil.
  - <sup>5</sup> Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, reaches to the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
  - <sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;
your judgments are like the great deep.
Yahweh, you preserve both mankind and the animals.
  - <sup>7</sup> How precious is your covenant faithfulness, God!
Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.
  - <sup>8</sup> They feast upon the abundance of your house;
you let them drink from the river of your delights.
  - <sup>9</sup> For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we will see light.
  - <sup>10</sup> Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you,
your defense to the upright of heart.
  - <sup>11</sup> Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me.
Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
  - <sup>12</sup> Over there those who behave wickedly have fallen;
they have been pushed down and are not able to get up.

Chapter 37

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Do not be irritated because of evildoers;
do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.
- <sup>2</sup> For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.
- <sup>3</sup> Trust in Yahweh and do what is good;
settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.
- <sup>4</sup> Then delight yourself in Yahweh,
and he will give you the desires of your heart.
- <sup>5</sup> Give your ways to Yahweh;
trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.
- <sup>6</sup> He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.
- <sup>7</sup> Be still before Yahweh
and wait patiently for him.
Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does,
or when he makes evil plots.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not be angry and frustrated.
Do not worry. This only makes trouble.
- <sup>9</sup> Evildoers will be cut off,
but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.
- <sup>10</sup> In a little while the evil man will disappear;
you will look at his place, but he will be gone.
- <sup>11</sup> But the meek will inherit the land and will delight in great prosperity.
- <sup>12</sup> The wicked man plots against the righteous and he grinds his teeth in rage against him.
- <sup>13</sup> The Lord laughs at him,
for he sees that his day is coming.
- <sup>14</sup> The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows
to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.
- <sup>15</sup> Their swords will pierce their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
- <sup>16</sup> Better is the little that the righteous has
than the abundance of many wicked people.
- <sup>17</sup> For the arms of the wicked people will be broken,
but Yahweh supports the righteous people.
- <sup>18</sup> Yahweh watches over the blameless day by day,
and their heritage will be forever.
- <sup>19</sup> They will not be ashamed when times are bad.

When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.

- <sup>20</sup> But evil men will perish.
Yahweh's enemies will be like the splendor of the pastures;
they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.
- <sup>21</sup> The wicked person borrows but does not repay,
but the righteous person is generous and gives.
- <sup>22</sup> Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land;
those who are cursed by him will be cut off.
- <sup>23</sup> It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established, the man whose way is commendable in God's sight.
- <sup>24</sup> Though he stumbles, he will not fall down,
for Yahweh is holding him with his hand.
- <sup>25</sup> I was young and now am old;
I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.
- <sup>26</sup> All the day long he is gracious and lends,
and his children become a blessing.
- <sup>27</sup> Turn away from evil and do what is right;
then you will be safe forever.
- <sup>28</sup> For Yahweh loves justice and does not abandon his faithful ones.
They are preserved forever,
but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.
- <sup>29</sup> The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.
- <sup>30</sup> The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.
- <sup>31</sup> The law of his God is in his heart;
his feet will not slip.
- <sup>32</sup> The wicked person spies on the righteous person and seeks to kill him.
- <sup>33</sup> Yahweh will not abandon him into the evil person's hand or condemn him when he is judged.
- <sup>34</sup> Wait for Yahweh and keep his way,
and he will raise you up to possess the land.
You will see when the wicked are cut off.
- <sup>35</sup> I have seen the wicked and terrifying person spread out like a green tree in its native soil.
- <sup>36</sup> But when I passed by again, he was not there.
I looked for him, but he could not be found.
- <sup>37</sup> Observe the man of integrity, and mark the upright;
there is a good future for a man of peace.
- <sup>38</sup> Rebels will be totally destroyed;
the future for the wicked man is cut off.

- <sup>39</sup> Salvation of the righteous comes from Yahweh;
he is their place of safety in the times of trouble.
- <sup>40</sup> Yahweh helps them and rescues them.
He rescues them from evil men and saves them because they have taken refuge in him.

Chapter 38

A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger;
do not punish me in your wrath.
- <sup>2</sup> For your arrows pierce me,
and your hand presses me down.
- <sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my body because of your anger;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
- <sup>4</sup> For my iniquities overwhelm me;
they are a burden too heavy for me.
- <sup>5</sup> My wounds are infected and smell because of my foolish sins.
- <sup>6</sup> I am stooped over and humiliated every day;
I go about mourning all day long.
- <sup>7</sup> For within me, I am filled with burning;
there is no health in my flesh.
- <sup>8</sup> I am numb and utterly crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.
- <sup>9</sup> Lord, you understand my heart's deepest yearnings,
and my groanings are not hidden from you.
- <sup>10</sup> My heart pounds, my strength fades, and the light of my eyes, even that is not with me.
- <sup>11</sup> My friends and companions shun me because of my condition;
my neighbors stand far off.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who seek my life lay snares for me.
They who seek my harm speak destructive words and say deceitful words all day long.
- <sup>13</sup> But I, I am like a deaf man and hear nothing;
I am like a mute man who says nothing.
- <sup>14</sup> I am like a man who does not hear and who has no reply.
- <sup>15</sup> Surely I wait for you, Yahweh;
you will answer, Lord my God.
- <sup>16</sup> I say this so that my enemies will not rejoice over me.
If my foot slips, they will do terrible things to me.
- <sup>17</sup> For I am about to stumble,
and I am in constant pain.
- <sup>18</sup> I confess my guilt;
I am anxious about my sin.
- <sup>19</sup> But my enemies are numerous;
those who hate me wrongfully are many.
- <sup>20</sup> They repay me evil for good;
they hurl accusations at me
although I have pursued what is good.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not abandon me, Yahweh;
my God, do not stay far away from me.
- <sup>22</sup> Come quickly to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Chapter 39

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I decided, "I will watch what I say so that I do not sin with my tongue.
I will muzzle my mouth
while in the presence of an evil man."
<sup>2</sup> I kept silent;
I kept back my words even from saying anything good,
and my pain grew worse.
<sup>3</sup> My heart became hot;
when I thought about these things,
it burned like a fire.
Then finally I spoke.

<sup>4</sup> "Yahweh, make me know when will be the end of my life and the extent of my days.
Show me how transient I am.
<sup>5</sup> See, you have made my days only the width of my hand,
and my lifetime is like nothing before you.
Surely every man is a single breath.

Selah

- <sup>6</sup> Surely every man walks about like a shadow.
Surely everyone hurries about to accumulate riches although they do not know who will receive them.

<sup>7</sup> Now, Lord, for what am I waiting?
You are my only hope.
<sup>8</sup> Rescue me from my sins;
do not make me the scorn of fools.
<sup>9</sup> I am silent and cannot open my mouth,
because it is you who has done it.
<sup>10</sup> Stop wounding me;
I am overwhelmed by the blow of your hand.
<sup>11</sup> When you discipline people for iniquity,
you consume the things they desire like a moth;
surely all people are nothing but vapor.

Selah

- <sup>12</sup> Hear my prayer, Yahweh,
and give ear to my cry for help;
do not be deaf to my tears!
for I am like a foreigner with you,
a sojourner like all my ancestors were.
<sup>13</sup> Turn your gaze from me so that I may smile again before I die."

Chapter 40

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I waited patiently for Yahweh;
he listened to me and heard my cry.
- <sup>2</sup> He brought me up out of a horrible pit,
out of the miry clay,
and he set my feet on a rock
and made my steps secure.
- <sup>3</sup> He has put a new song in my mouth,
praise to our God.
Many will see it and honor him
and will trust in Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.
- <sup>5</sup> Many, Yahweh my God,
are the wonderful deeds that you have done,
and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered;
if I declared and spoke of them,
they would be more than could be counted.
- <sup>6</sup> You have no delight in sacrifice or offering,
but you have opened my ears;
you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.
- <sup>7</sup> Then said I, "See, I have come;
it is written about me in the scroll of the document.
- <sup>8</sup> I delight to do your will, my God;
your laws are in my heart."
- <sup>9</sup> I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly;
Yahweh, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.
- <sup>10</sup> I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart;
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation;
I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not keep back your acts of mercy from me, Yahweh;
let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me.
- <sup>12</sup> Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me;
my iniquities have caught up with me so that I am no longer able to see anything;
they are more than the hairs on my head,
and my heart has failed me.
- <sup>13</sup> Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me;
hurry to help me, Yahweh.
- <sup>14</sup> Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to sweep it away.
Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,
those who delight in hurting me.
- <sup>15</sup> Let them be appalled because of their shame,
those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

<sup>16</sup> But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let everyone who loves your salvation say continually,
"May Yahweh be praised."

<sup>17</sup> I am poor and needy;
yet the Lord thinks about me.
You are my help and you come to my rescue;
do not delay, my God.

---

Chapter 41

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak;
in the day of trouble, Yahweh will rescue him.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh will preserve him and keep him alive,
and he will be blessed on the earth;
Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering;
you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.
- <sup>4</sup> I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."
- <sup>5</sup> My enemies speak evil against me, saying,
'When will he die and his name perish?'
- <sup>6</sup> If my enemy comes to see me,
he says worthless things;
his heart gathers up wickedness for itself;
when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.
- <sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper together against me;
against me they hope for my hurt.
- <sup>8</sup> They say, "An evil disease holds on tightly to him;
now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more."
- <sup>9</sup> Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.
- <sup>10</sup> But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up so that I may pay them back.
- <sup>11</sup> By this I know that you delight in me,
for my enemy does not triumph over me.
- <sup>12</sup> As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.
- <sup>13</sup> May Yahweh, the God of Israel be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO

(Psalms 42-72)

---

Chapter 42

For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> As the deer pants after streams of water,
so I thirst for you, God.
- <sup>2</sup> I thirst for God, for the living God,
when will I come and appear before God?
- <sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food
day and night,
while my enemies are always saying to me,
"Where is your God?"
- <sup>4</sup> These things I call to mind
as I pour out my soul:
how I went with the throng
and led them to the house of God
with the voice of joy and praise,
a multitude celebrating a festival.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation.
- <sup>6</sup> My God, my soul is bowed down within me,
therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.
- <sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls;
all your waves and your billows have gone over me.
- <sup>8</sup> Yet Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime;
in the night his song will be with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.
- <sup>9</sup> I will say to God, my rock,
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?"
- <sup>10</sup> As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always say to me, "Where is your God?"
- <sup>11</sup> Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

- <sup>1</sup> Bring me justice, God,
and plead my case against a nation that is not faithful.
Deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
- <sup>2</sup> For you are the God of my strength.
Why have you rejected me?
Why do I go about in mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?
- <sup>3</sup> Oh, send out your light and your truth,
let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill
and to your dwelling.
- <sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God my exceeding joy.
I will praise you with the harp,
God, my God.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Chapter 44

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil.

- <sup>1</sup> We have heard with our ears, God,
our fathers have told us
what work you did in their days,
in the days of old.
- <sup>2</sup> You drove out the nations with your hand,
but you planted our people;
you afflicted the peoples,
but you spread our people out in the land.
- <sup>3</sup> For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;
but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face,
because you were favorable to them.
- <sup>4</sup> God, You are my King;
command victory for Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> Through you we will push down our adversaries;
through your name we will tread them under,
those who rise up against us.
- <sup>6</sup> For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.
- <sup>7</sup> But you have saved us from our adversaries,
and have put to shame those who hate us.
- <sup>8</sup> In God we have made our boast all the day long,
and we will give thanks to your name forever.

Selah

- <sup>9</sup> But now you have rejected us and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armies.
- <sup>10</sup> You make us turn back from the adversary;
and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
- <sup>11</sup> You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered and have scattered us among the nations.
- <sup>12</sup> You sell your people for nothing;
you have not increased your wealth by doing so.
- <sup>13</sup> You make us a rebuke to our neighbors,
scoffed and mocked by those around us.
- <sup>14</sup> You make us an insult among the nations,
a shaking of the head among the peoples.
- <sup>15</sup> All the day long my dishonor is before me,
and the shame of my face has covered me
- <sup>16</sup> because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.
- <sup>17</sup> All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.
- <sup>18</sup> Our heart has not turned back;
our steps have not gone from your way.
- <sup>19</sup> Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

- <sup>20</sup> If we have forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a strange god, <sup>21</sup> would not God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
<sup>22</sup> Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long;
we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.
- <sup>23</sup> Awake, why do you sleep, Lord?
Arise, do not reject us forever.
<sup>24</sup> Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?
- <sup>25</sup> For we have sunk down into the dust;
our bodies cling to the earth.
<sup>26</sup> Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

Chapter 45

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil. A song of loves.

- <sup>1</sup> My heart overflows on a good subject;
I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king;
my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
  - <sup>2</sup> You are fairer than the children of mankind;
grace is poured onto your lips;
therefore we know that God has blessed you forever.
  - <sup>3</sup> Gird your sword to your side, mighty one,
in your glory and your majesty.
  - <sup>4</sup> In your majesty ride on triumphantly because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness;
your right hand will teach you fearful things.
  - <sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp;
the peoples fall under you;
your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.
  - <sup>6</sup> Your throne, God, is forever and ever;
a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.
  - <sup>7</sup> You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.
  - <sup>8</sup> All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia;
out of ivory palaces
stringed instruments have made you glad.
  - <sup>9</sup> Kings' daughters are among your honorable women;
at your right hand stands the queen clothed in gold of Ophir.
  - <sup>10</sup> Listen, daughter, consider and incline your ear;
forget your own people and your father's house.
  - <sup>11</sup> In this way the king will desire your beauty;
he is your master; revere him.
  - <sup>12</sup> The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift;
the rich among the people will beg for your favor.
  - <sup>13</sup> The royal daughter in the palace is all glorious;
her clothing is worked with gold.
  - <sup>14</sup> She will be led to the king in embroidered dress;
the virgins, her companions who follow her,
will be brought to you.
  - <sup>15</sup> They will be led by gladness and rejoicing;
they will enter into the king's palace.
  - <sup>16</sup> In the place of your fathers will be your children, whom you will make princes in all the earth.
  - <sup>17</sup> I will make your name to be remembered in all generations;
therefore the peoples will give you thanks forever and ever.

Chapter 46

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song.

- <sup>1</sup> God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
<sup>2</sup> Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas, <sup>3</sup> though its waters roar and rage, and though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah

- <sup>4</sup> There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy, the holy place where the Most High dwells.
<sup>5</sup> God is in the middle of her; she will not be moved;
God will help her, and he will do so at the dawn of morning.
<sup>6</sup> The nations raged and the kingdoms were shaken;
he lifted up his voice, and the earth melted.

- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah

- <sup>8</sup> Come, behold the deeds of Yahweh,
who has set up objects of horror on earth.
<sup>9</sup> He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
he breaks the bow and cuts the spear into pieces;
he burns up the shields.
<sup>10</sup> Be quiet and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted on the earth.

- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah

Chapter 47

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with the sound of celebration.

<sup>2</sup> For Yahweh Most High is terrifying;
he is a great King over all the earth.

<sup>3</sup> He subdues peoples under us and nations under our feet.

<sup>4</sup> He chooses our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob whom he loved.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> God has gone up with a shout,
Yahweh with the sound of a ram's horn.

<sup>6</sup> Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.

<sup>7</sup> For God is the King over all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

<sup>8</sup> God reigns over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.

<sup>9</sup> The princes of the peoples have gathered together to the people of the God of Abraham;
for the shields of the earth belong to God;
he is greatly exalted.

---

Chapter 48

A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God on his holy mountain.

<sup>2</sup> Beautiful in elevation,
the joy of the whole earth,
is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
the city of the great King.

<sup>3</sup> God has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge.

<sup>4</sup> For, see, the kings assembled themselves;
they passed by together.

<sup>5</sup> They saw it, then they were amazed;
they were dismayed, and they hurried away.

<sup>6</sup> Trembling took hold of them there,
pain as when a woman is in labor.

<sup>7</sup> With the east wind
you break the ships of Tarshish.

<sup>8</sup> As we have heard,
so have we seen
in the city of Yahweh of hosts,
in the city of our God;
God will establish it forever.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> We have thought about your covenant faithfulness, God, in the middle of your temple.

<sup>10</sup> As your name is, God,
so is your praise to the ends of the earth;
your right hand is full of righteousness.

<sup>11</sup> Let Mount Zion be glad,
let the daughters of Judah rejoice
because of your righteous decrees.

<sup>12</sup> Walk around Mount Zion, go round about her;
count her towers,

<sup>13</sup> notice well her walls,
and look at her palaces
so that you may tell it to the next generation.

<sup>14</sup> For this God is our God forever and ever;
he will be our guide to death.

---

Chapter 49

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this, all you peoples;
give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
- <sup>2</sup> both low and high,
rich and poor together.
- <sup>3</sup> My mouth will speak wisdom and the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.
- <sup>4</sup> I will incline my ear to a parable;
I will begin my parable with the harp.
- <sup>5</sup> Why should I fear the days of evil,
when iniquity surrounds me at my heels?
- <sup>6</sup> Why should I fear those who trust in their wealth and boast about the amount of their riches?
- <sup>7</sup> It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,
- <sup>8</sup> For the redemption of one's life is costly,
and no one can pay what we owe.
- <sup>9</sup> No one can live forever
so that he would not see the pit.
- <sup>10</sup> For he will see decay. Wise men die;
the fool and the brute alike perish
and leave their wealth to others.
- <sup>11</sup> Their inner thought is that their families will continue forever,
and the places where they live, to all generations;
they call their lands after their own names.
- <sup>12</sup> But man, having wealth, does not remain alive;
he is like the wild animals that perish.
- <sup>13</sup> This, their way, is their folly;
yet after them, men approve of their sayings.
- <sup>14</sup> Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol,
and death will be their shepherd.
The upright will rule over them in the morning,
and their bodies will be consumed in Sheol,
with no place for them to live.
- <sup>15</sup> But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol;
he will receive me.
- <sup>16</sup> Do not be afraid when one becomes rich,
and the glory of his house increases.
- <sup>17</sup> For when he dies he will take nothing away;
his glory will not go down after him.
- <sup>18</sup> He blessed his soul while he lived—and men praise you when you live for yourself—
- <sup>19</sup> he will go to the generation of his fathers and they will never see the light again.
- <sup>20</sup> One who has wealth but no understanding is like the animals that perish.

Selah

Selah

Chapter 50

A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, has spoken and called the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.
- <sup>2</sup> Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shone.
- <sup>3</sup> Our God comes and does not stay silent;
a fire devours before him,
and it is very stormy around him.
- <sup>4</sup> He calls to the heavens above and to the earth so that he may judge his people:
- <sup>5</sup> "Gather my faithful ones together to me,
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens will declare his righteousness,
for God himself is judge.

Selah

- <sup>7</sup> "Hear, my people, and I will speak, Israel, and I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.
- <sup>8</sup> I will not reprove you for your sacrifices;
your burnt offerings are always before me.
- <sup>9</sup> I will take no bull out of your house,
or male goats out of your folds.
- <sup>10</sup> For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the cattle on a thousand hills.
- <sup>11</sup> I know all the birds of the mountains,
and the wild beasts of the field are mine.
- <sup>12</sup> If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
for the world is mine, and everything in it.
- <sup>13</sup> Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
- <sup>14</sup> Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.
- <sup>15</sup> Call on me in the day of trouble;
I will rescue you, and you will glorify me."
- <sup>16</sup> But to the wicked God says,
"What have you to do with declaring my statutes,
that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,
- <sup>17</sup> since you hate instruction
and throw my words away?
- <sup>18</sup> When you see a thief, you agree with him;
you participate with those who commit adultery.
- <sup>19</sup> You give your mouth to evil,
and your tongue expresses deceit.
- <sup>20</sup> You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.
- <sup>21</sup> You have done these things, but I have kept silent,

so you thought that I was someone just like yourself.
But I will reprove you and bring up, right before your eyes, all the things you have done.

- <sup>22</sup> Give this careful consideration, you who forget God, otherwise I will tear you to pieces,
and there will be no one to come to help you!
- <sup>23</sup> The one who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving praises me,
and to anyone who plans his path in the right way
I will show God's salvation."

Chapter 51

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone into Bathsheba.

- <sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, God, because of your covenant faithfulness;
for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions,
blot out my transgressions.
- <sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
- <sup>3</sup> For I know my transgressions,
and my sin is always before me.
- <sup>4</sup> Against you, you only, I have sinned
and done what is evil in your sight;
you are justified when you speak;
you are blameless when you judge.
- <sup>5</sup> See, I was born in iniquity;
as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.
- <sup>6</sup> See, you desire trustworthiness in my inner self;
and you teach me wisdom in the secret place within.
- <sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
- <sup>8</sup> Make me hear joy and gladness
so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.
- <sup>9</sup> Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.
- <sup>10</sup> Create in me a clean heart, God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not drive me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
- <sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of your salvation,
and sustain me with a willing spirit.
- <sup>13</sup> Then will I teach transgressors your ways,
and sinners will be converted to you.
- <sup>14</sup> Forgive me for shedding blood,
God of my salvation,
and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.
- <sup>15</sup> Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will express your praise.
- <sup>16</sup> For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;
you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.
- <sup>17</sup> The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
You, God, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.
- <sup>18</sup> Do good in your good pleasure to Zion;
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
- <sup>19</sup> Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;
then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

Chapter 52

For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelek."

The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

<sup>2</sup> Your tongue plans destruction
like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

<sup>3</sup> You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness.

Selah

<sup>4</sup> You love all words that devour others,
you deceitful tongue.

<sup>5</sup> God will surely destroy you forever;
he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent
and root you out of the land of the living.

Selah

<sup>6</sup> The righteous will also see it and fear;
they will laugh at him and say,

<sup>7</sup> "See, this is a man who did not make God his refuge,
but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth,
and he was strong when he destroyed others."

<sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> I will give you thanks forever for what you have done.
I will wait for your name, because it is good,
in the presence of your faithful ones.

---

Chapter 53

For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David.

- <sup>1</sup> A fool says in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven
on the children of mankind
to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after him.
- <sup>3</sup> They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.
There is not one who does good,
not even one.
- <sup>4</sup> Do those who behave wickedly have no understanding—those who devour my people as if they were eating bread and they do not call on God?
- <sup>5</sup> There they are, in great fear,
where there was nothing to cause them to be afraid;
for God will scatter the bones of those who encamp against you;
you put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.
- <sup>6</sup> Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When God brings back his people from the captivity,
then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Chapter 54

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Does David not hide himself with us?"

<sup>1</sup> Save me, God, by your name, and judge me in your might.

<sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

<sup>3</sup> For strangers have risen up against me,
and ruthless men have sought after my life;
they have not set God before them.

Selah

<sup>4</sup> See, God is my helper;
the Lord is the one who upholds me.

<sup>5</sup> He will repay my enemies with evil;
in your faithfulness, destroy them!

<sup>6</sup> I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering;
I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

<sup>7</sup> For he has rescued me from every trouble;
my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

---

Chapter 55

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my prayer, God;
and do not hide yourself from my plea.
- <sup>2</sup> Pay attention to me and answer me;
I am restless in my troubles
- <sup>3</sup> because of the voice of my enemies,
because of the oppression of the wicked;
for they bring trouble on me,
they are hostile to me with wickedness and anger.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart trembles within me,
and the terrors of death have fallen on me.
- <sup>5</sup> Fear and trembling have come on me,
and horror has overwhelmed me.
- <sup>6</sup> I said, "Oh, if only I had wings like a dove!
Then would I fly away and be at rest.
- <sup>7</sup> See, then I would wander far away;
I would stay in the wilderness.
- <sup>8</sup> I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest."
- <sup>9</sup> Destroy, Lord, and divide their tongue;
for I see violence and strife in the city.
- <sup>10</sup> Day and night they go about on its walls;
wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it.
- <sup>11</sup> Wickedness is in the middle of it;
oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.
- <sup>12</sup> For it was not an enemy who rebuked me,
then I could have borne it;
neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,
then I would have hidden myself from him.
- <sup>13</sup> But it was you, a man equal to myself,
my companion and my close friend.
- <sup>14</sup> We had sweet fellowship together;
we walked in the house of God with the throng.
- <sup>15</sup> Let death come deceitfully on them;
let them go down alive to Sheol,
for wickedness is where they live, right among them.
- <sup>16</sup> As for me, I will call on God,
and Yahweh will save me.
- <sup>17</sup> In the evening, morning, and at noonday I complain and moan;
he will hear my voice.
- <sup>18</sup> He will safely rescue my life from the battle that was against me,
for those who fought against me were many.
- <sup>19</sup> God, the one who rules from eternity,
will hear them and humiliate them.

Selah

Selah

They never change,
and they do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup> My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him;
he has not respected the covenant that he had.

<sup>21</sup> His mouth was smooth as butter,
but his heart was hostile;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were actually drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup> Place your burdens on Yahweh,
and he will sustain you;
he will never allow a righteous person to totter.

<sup>23</sup> But you, God, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction;
men of bloodshed and deceit will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

---

Chapter 56

For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath.

- <sup>1</sup> Be merciful to me, God,
for men are attacking me!
All the day long those who fight me oppress me.
- <sup>2</sup> My enemies trample me all day long;
for there are many who arrogantly fight against me.
- <sup>3</sup> When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
- <sup>4</sup> In God, whose word I praise—
in God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid;
what can mere man do to me?
- <sup>5</sup> All the day long they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.
- <sup>6</sup> They gather themselves together, they hide themselves,
and they mark my steps,
just as they have waited for my life.
- <sup>7</sup> Do not let them escape doing iniquity.
Bring down the peoples in your anger, God.
- <sup>8</sup> You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle;
are they not in your book?
- <sup>9</sup> Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you;
this I know, that God is for me.
- <sup>10</sup> In God—whose word I praise,
in Yahweh—whose word I praise,
- <sup>11</sup> in God I trust,
I will not be afraid.
What can anyone do to me?
- <sup>12</sup> The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me, God;
I will give thank offerings to you.
- <sup>13</sup> For you have rescued my life from death;
you have kept my feet from stumbling,
so that I may walk before God
in the light of the living.

Chapter 57

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

<sup>1</sup> Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for I take refuge in you until these troubles are over.
I stay under your wings for protection until this destruction is over.

<sup>2</sup> I will cry to God Most High,
to God, who does all things for me.
<sup>3</sup> He will send help from heaven and save me,
he rebukes those who hotly pursue me.

God will send me his steadfast love and his faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup> My life is among lions;
I am among those who are ready to devour me.
I am among people whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and whose tongues are sharp swords.

let your glory be above all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> They spread out a net for my feet;
I was bowed down.
They dug a pit in front of me.
They themselves have fallen into the middle of it!

Selah

<sup>7</sup> My heart is fixed, God, my heart is fixed;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

<sup>8</sup> Wake up, my glory!
Wake up, lute and harp!
I will wake up the dawn!

<sup>9</sup> I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to you among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens;
and your faithfulness to the clouds.

may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

Chapter 58

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam.

- <sup>1</sup> Do you rulers speak righteousness?
Do you judge uprightly, you people?
- <sup>2</sup> No, you commit wickedness in your heart;
you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands.
- <sup>3</sup> The wicked go astray even when they are in the womb;
they go astray from birth, speaking lies.
- <sup>4</sup> Their poison is like a snake's poison;
they are like a deaf asp that stops up its ears,
- <sup>5</sup> that pays no attention to the voice of charmers,
no matter how skillful they are.
- <sup>6</sup> Shatter their teeth in their mouths, God;
break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh.
- <sup>7</sup> Let them melt away as water that runs off;
when they shoot their arrows, let them be as though they had no points.
- <sup>8</sup> Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away, like the untimely born child of a woman that never sees the sunlight.
- <sup>9</sup> Before your pots can feel the thorn's burning heat,
he will take them away with a whirlwind,
the green thorns and the burning thorns alike.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous will rejoice when he sees God's vengeance;
he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,
- <sup>11</sup> so that men will say,
"Truly, there is a reward for the righteous person;
truly there is a God who judges the earth."

Chapter 59

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

- <sup>1</sup> Rescue me from my enemies, my God;
     set me on high away from those who rise up against me.
<sup>2</sup> Keep me safe from those who behave wickedly,
     and save me from men of bloodshed.
<sup>3</sup> For, see, they wait in ambush to take my life.
     The powerful men gather themselves together against me,
     but not because of my transgression or my sin, Yahweh.
<sup>4</sup> For no guilt of mine they prepare to run at me;
     awake and help me and see.
<sup>5</sup> You, Yahweh God of hosts,
     the God of Israel,
     arise and punish all the nations;
     do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors.

Selah

- <sup>6</sup> They return at evening, they howl like dogs and go around the city.
<sup>7</sup> See, they belch out with their mouths;
     swords are in their lips,
     for they say, "Who hears us?"
<sup>8</sup> But you, Yahweh, laugh at them;
     you mock at all the nations.
<sup>9</sup> God, my strength, I will pay attention to you;
     you are my high tower.
<sup>10</sup> My God will meet me with his covenant faithfulness;
     God will let me see my desire on my enemies.
<sup>11</sup> Do not kill them,
     or my people will forget.
     Scatter them by your power and make them fall,
     Lord our shield.
<sup>12</sup> For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips, let them be captured in their pride,
     and for the curses and lies that they express.
<sup>13</sup> Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more;
     let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth.

Selah

- <sup>14</sup> At evening they return, howling like dogs going around the city.
<sup>15</sup> They wander about looking for food and they growl like a dog if they are not satisfied.
<sup>16</sup> But I will sing about your strength, and in the morning I will praise your steadfast love!
     For you have been my high tower and a refuge in the day of my distress.

- <sup>17</sup> To you, my strength, I will sing praises;
for God is my high tower, the God of covenant faithfulness.

Chapter 60

For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching; when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

- <sup>1</sup> God, you have rejected us; you have broken through our defenses;
you have been angry; restore us again.
<sup>2</sup> You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart;
heal its cracks, for it is shaking.
<sup>3</sup> You have made your people see difficult things;
you have made us drink the wine of staggering.
<sup>4</sup> For those who honor you,
you have set up a banner
to be displayed against those who carry the bow.

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> So that those you love may be rescued,
rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
<sup>6</sup> God has spoken in his holiness, "I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
and apportion out the Valley of Sukkoth.
<sup>7</sup> Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is my helmet;
Judah is my scepter.
<sup>8</sup> Moab is my washbasin;
over Edom I will throw my sandal;
I will shout in triumph because of Philistia."
<sup>9</sup> Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
<sup>10</sup> But you, God, have you not rejected us?
You do not go into battle with our army.
<sup>11</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
for man's help is futile.
<sup>12</sup> We will triumph with God's help;
he will trample down our enemies.

Chapter 61

For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my cry, God;
attend to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup> From the ends of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint;
lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

<sup>3</sup> For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

<sup>4</sup> Let me live in your tabernacle forever!
Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> For you, God, have heard my vows, you have given me the inheritance of those who honor your name.

<sup>6</sup> You will prolong the king's life;
his years will be like many generations.

<sup>7</sup> He will reign before God forever;
appoint your steadfast love and faithfulness to protect him.

<sup>8</sup> I will sing praise to your name forever
so that I may perform my vows every day.<sup>2</sup>

Chapter 62

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I wait in silence for God alone;
my salvation comes from him.
- <sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower;
I will not be greatly moved.
- <sup>3</sup> How long, all of you, will you attack a man,
that you may murder him,
like a leaning wall or a shaky fence?
- <sup>4</sup> They consult with him
only to bring him down from his honorable position;
they love to tell lies;
they bless him with their mouths,
but in their hearts they curse him.

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> I wait in silence for God alone;
for my hope is set on him.
- <sup>6</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower; I will not be moved.
- <sup>7</sup> With God is my salvation and my glory;
the rock of my strength and my refuge are in God.
- <sup>8</sup> Trust in him at all times, you people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us.

Selah

- <sup>9</sup> Surely men of low standing are vanity,
and men of high standing are a lie;
they will weigh lightly in the scales;
weighed together, they are lighter than nothing.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not trust in oppression or robbery;
and do not hope uselessly in riches,
for they will bear no fruit;
do not fix your heart on them.
- <sup>11</sup> God has spoken once,
twice have I heard this:
power belongs to God.
- <sup>12</sup> Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness, for you pay back every person for what he has done.

Chapter 63

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- <sup>1</sup> God, you are my God!
I earnestly search for you,
my soul thirsts for you,
and my flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land
where there is no water.
- <sup>2</sup> So I have looked on you in the sanctuary,
to see your power and your glory.
- <sup>3</sup> Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life,
my lips will praise you.
- <sup>4</sup> So I will bless you while I live;
I will lift up my hands in your name.
- <sup>5</sup> It will be as if I ate a meal of marrow and fatness;
with joyful lips my mouth will praise you,
- <sup>6</sup> when I think about you on my bed
and meditate on you in the night watches.
- <sup>7</sup> For you have been my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
- <sup>8</sup> I cling to you;
your right hand supports me.
- <sup>9</sup> But those who seek to destroy my life will go down into the lowest parts of the earth;
- <sup>10</sup> they will be given over to those whose hands use the sword,
and they will become food for the jackals.
- <sup>11</sup> But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by him will be proud of him,
but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped up.

Chapter 64

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my voice, God, listen to my complaint;
preserve my life from fear of my enemies.
  - <sup>2</sup> Hide me from the secret plotting of evildoers,
from the commotion of those who behave wickedly.
  - <sup>3</sup> They have sharpened their tongues like swords;
they have aimed their arrows, bitter words,
  - <sup>4</sup> so that they may shoot from secret places at someone who is innocent;
suddenly they shoot at him and fear nothing.
  - <sup>5</sup> They encourage themselves in an evil plan;
they consult privately together in order to set traps;
they say, "Who will see us?"
  - <sup>6</sup> They invent injustices;
"We have finished," they say, "a careful plan."
The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep.
  - <sup>7</sup> But God will shoot them;
suddenly they will be wounded with his arrows.
  - <sup>8</sup> They will be made to stumble, since their own tongues are against them;
all who see them will wag their heads.
  - <sup>9</sup> All people will fear and will declare God's deeds.
They will wisely think about what he has done.
  - <sup>10</sup> The righteous will be glad about Yahweh and will take refuge in him;
all the upright in heart will take pride in him.

Chapter 65

For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David.

- <sup>1</sup> For you, God in Zion, our praise waits;
our vows will be carried out to you.
- <sup>2</sup> You who hear prayer,
to you all flesh will come.
- <sup>3</sup> Iniquities prevail against us;
as for our transgressions, you will forgive them.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man whom you choose to bring near to you
so that he may live in your courts.
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.
- <sup>5</sup> In righteousness you will answer us by doing awesome deeds, God of our salvation;
you who are hope of all the ends of the earth
and of those who are far across the sea.
- <sup>6</sup> For it is you who made the mountains firm,
you who are girded with strength.
- <sup>7</sup> It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the commotion of the peoples.
- <sup>8</sup> Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds;
you make the east and the west rejoice.
- <sup>9</sup> You come to help the earth; you water it;
you greatly enrich it;
the river of God is full of water;
you provide mankind grain when you have prepared the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> You water its furrows abundantly;
you settle down the furrows' ridges;
you make them soft with rain showers;
you bless the sprouts between them.
- <sup>11</sup> You crown the year with your goodness, and your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.
- <sup>12</sup> The pastures in the wilderness drip with dew,
and the hills are girded with joy.
- <sup>13</sup> The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered over with grain;
they shout for joy, and they sing.

Chapter 66

For the chief musician. A song, a psalm.

- <sup>1</sup> Shout out loud to God, all the earth;
- <sup>2</sup> Sing out the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious.
- <sup>3</sup> Say to God, "How terrifying are your deeds!
By the greatness of your power
your enemies will submit to you.
- <sup>4</sup> All the earth will worship you
and will sing to you;
they will sing praises to your name."

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> Come and see the works of God;
he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind.
- <sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land;
they went through the river on foot;
there we rejoiced in him.
- <sup>7</sup> He rules forever by his might;
his eyes observe the nations;
let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah

- <sup>8</sup> Give blessing to God, you people,
let the sound of his praise be heard.
- <sup>9</sup> He keeps us among the living,
and he does not permit our feet to slip.
- <sup>10</sup> For you, God, have tested us;
you have tested us as silver is tested.
- <sup>11</sup> You brought us into a net;
you laid a heavy burden on our backs.
- <sup>12</sup> You made people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us out into a spacious place.
- <sup>13</sup> I will come into your house with burnt offerings;
I will pay you my vows
- <sup>14</sup> which my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.
- <sup>15</sup> I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals with the sweet aroma of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats.

Selah

- <sup>16</sup> Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.
- <sup>17</sup> I cried to him with my mouth,
and he was praised with my tongue.
- <sup>18</sup> If I had seen wickedness within my heart,
the Lord would not have listened to me.

- <sup>19</sup> But God has truly heard;
he has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.
- <sup>20</sup> Blessed be God,
who has not turned away my prayer or his covenant faithfulness from me.

Chapter 67

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song.

<sup>1</sup> May God be merciful to us and bless us and cause his face to shine on us

Selah

<sup>2</sup> so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

<sup>3</sup> Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

<sup>4</sup> Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you will judge the peoples with justice and govern the nations on earth.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

<sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its produce and God, our God, has blessed us.

<sup>7</sup> God has blessed us,
and all the ends of the earth honor him.

---

Chapter 68

For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song.

- <sup>1</sup> Let God arise; let his enemies be scattered;
let those also who hate him flee before him.
- <sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.
- <sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be glad;
let them rejoice before God;
may they rejoice with gladness.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Praise the one who rides through the plains of the Jordan River valley!
Yah is his name! Rejoice before him! <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> A Father of the fatherless, a judge of the widows, is God in the holy place where he lives.
- <sup>6</sup> God puts the lonely into families;
he brings out the prisoners with singing;
but the rebellious live in a parched land.
- <sup>7</sup> God, when you went out before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness,
- <sup>8</sup> the earth trembled;
the heavens also dropped rain in God's presence, in the presence of God when he came to Sinai, in the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- <sup>9</sup> You, God, sent a plentiful rain;
you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary.
- <sup>10</sup> Your people lived in it;
You, God, gave from your goodness to the poor.
- <sup>11</sup> The Lord gave the word,
and those who announced them were a great army.
- <sup>12</sup> Kings of armies flee, they flee,
and the women waiting at home divide the plunder:
- <sup>13</sup> the wings of a dove are covered with silver,
its feathers with shining gold.
Yet some of you people lie down among the sheepfolds.
- <sup>14</sup> The Almighty scattered kings there,
it was as when it snowed on Mount Zalmon.
- <sup>15</sup> A mighty mountain is the hill country of Bashan;
a high mountain is the hill country of Bashan.
- <sup>16</sup> Why do you look in envy, you high hill country, at the mountain which God desires for the place he will live?
Indeed, Yahweh will live in it forever.
- <sup>17</sup> The chariots of God are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands;
the Lord is among them in the holy place, as at Sinai.
- <sup>18</sup> You have ascended on high;
you have led away captives;
you have received gifts from among men,
even from the rebellious,

Selah

so that Yah, God, might live there.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, the God who is our salvation.

Selah

<sup>20</sup> Our God is a God who saves;
Yahweh the Lord is the one who is able to rescue us from death.
<sup>21</sup> But God will strike through the heads of his enemies, through the hairy scalps of those who walk in offenses against him.
<sup>22</sup> The Lord said, "I will bring my enemies back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea <sup>23</sup> so that you may crush your enemies, dipping your foot in blood, and so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from your enemies."

<sup>24</sup> They have seen your processions, God, the processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.
<sup>25</sup> The singers went first, the minstrels followed after,
and in the middle were the unmarried girls playing tambourines.
<sup>26</sup> Bless God in the assemblies; praise Yahweh, you who are from the fountain <sup>3</sup> of Israel.
<sup>27</sup> There is Benjamin, the smallest tribe, ruling them, then the leaders of Judah and their multitudes,
the leaders of Zebulun and the leaders of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup> Your God, Israel, has decreed your strength;
reveal to us your power, God, as you have revealed it in times past.
<sup>29</sup> Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings bring tribute to you.
<sup>30</sup> Rebuke the wild beasts in the reeds, against the peoples, that multitude of bulls and calves.
Humiliate them and make them bring you silver;
scatter the peoples who love to wage war.
<sup>31</sup> Princes will come out of Egypt;
Cush will hurry to reach out with her hands to God.

<sup>32</sup> Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth.

Selah

Sing praises to the Lord, <sup>33</sup> to him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which exist from ancient times;
see, he lifts up his voice with power.
<sup>34</sup> Ascribe strength to God;
his majesty is over Israel,
and his strength is in the skies.
<sup>35</sup> God, you are fearsome in your holy place;
the God of Israel—he gives strength and power to his people.
Blessed be God.

<sup>3</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text can be read either as from the fountain or from the assembly .

Chapter 69

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Save me, God;
for the waters have put my life in danger.
- <sup>2</sup> I sink in deep mire, where there is no place to stand;
I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me.
- <sup>3</sup> I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry;
my eyes fail while I wait for my God.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without a cause
are more than the hairs on my head;
those who would cut me off,
being my enemies for wrong reasons, are mighty;
what I did not steal,
I have to give back.
- <sup>5</sup> God, you know my foolishness,
and my sins are not hidden from you.
- <sup>6</sup> Let not those who hope in you be put to shame because of me, Lord Yahweh of hosts;
let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me,
God of Israel.
- <sup>7</sup> For your sake I have borne rebuke;
shame has covered my face.
- <sup>8</sup> I have become a stranger to my brothers,
an alien to my mother's children.
- <sup>9</sup> For the zeal of your house has eaten me up,
and the rebukes of those who rebuke you have fallen on me.
- <sup>10</sup> When I weep and fast,
I must endure scorn.
- <sup>11</sup> When I put on sackcloth,
I became a byword to them.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who sit in the city gate talk about me;
I am a song of drunkards.
- <sup>13</sup> But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh,
at a time that you will accept;
answer me in the trustworthiness of your salvation.
- <sup>14</sup> Pull me out of the mire,
and do not let me sink;
let me be taken away from those who hate me
and rescued out of the deep waters.
- <sup>15</sup> Do not let the floods of water overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.
Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.
- <sup>16</sup> Answer me, Yahweh, for your covenant faithfulness is good;
because your mercies for me are many, turn to me.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not hide your face from your servant,
for I am in distress; answer me quickly.
- <sup>18</sup> Come to me and redeem me.
Because of my enemies, ransom me.

- <sup>19</sup> You know my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor;
my adversaries are all before you.
- <sup>20</sup> Rebuke has broken my heart;
I am full of heaviness;
I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
I looked for comforters, but I found none.
- <sup>21</sup> They gave me poison for my food;
in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- <sup>22</sup> Let their table before them become a snare;
when they think they are in safety, let it become a trap.
- <sup>23</sup> Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see;
and always make their loins shake.
- <sup>24</sup> Pour out your indignation on them,
and let your raging anger overtake them.
- <sup>25</sup> Let their encampment be a desolation;
let no one live in their tents.
- <sup>26</sup> For they persecuted the one you struck down.
They repeated the account of the pain of those you have wounded.
- <sup>27</sup> Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity;
do not let them come into your righteous victory.
- <sup>28</sup> Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written down along with the righteous.
- <sup>29</sup> But I am poor and in pain;
let your salvation, God, set me up on high.
- <sup>30</sup> I will praise the name of God with a song and will exalt him with thanksgiving.
- <sup>31</sup> That will please Yahweh better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.
- <sup>32</sup> The meek have seen it and are glad;
you who seek after God, let your hearts live.
- <sup>33</sup> For Yahweh hears the needy and does not despise his prisoners.
- <sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves in them.
- <sup>35</sup> For God will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah;
the people will live there and have it as a possession.
- <sup>36</sup> His servants' descendants will inherit it;
and those who love his name will live there.

Chapter 70

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup> Save me, God!

Yahweh, come quickly and help me.

<sup>2</sup> Let those who try to take my life

be ashamed and humiliated;

let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,

those who take pleasure in my pain.

<sup>3</sup> Let them be turned back because of their shame,

those who say, "Aha, aha."

<sup>4</sup> Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;

let those who love your salvation always say,

"May God be praised."

<sup>5</sup> But I am poor and needy;

hurry to me, God;

you are my help and you rescue me.

Yahweh, do not delay.

---

Chapter 71

- <sup>1</sup> In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
- <sup>2</sup> Rescue me and make me safe in your righteousness;
turn your ear to me and save me.
- <sup>3</sup> Be to me a rock for refuge
where I may always go;
you have given a command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.
- <sup>4</sup> Rescue me, my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
out of the hand of the unrighteous and ruthless.
- <sup>5</sup> For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh.
I have trusted in you ever since I was a child.
- <sup>6</sup> By you I have been supported from the womb;
you are he who took me out of my mother's belly;
my praise will be always about you.
- <sup>7</sup> I am a marvel to many people;
you are my strong refuge.
- <sup>8</sup> My mouth will be filled with your praise,
all the day with your honor.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not throw me away in my time of old age;
do not abandon me when my strength fails.
- <sup>10</sup> For my enemies are talking about me;
those who watch for my life are plotting together.
- <sup>11</sup> They say, "God has abandoned him;
pursue and take him,
for there is no one to save him."
- <sup>12</sup> God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.
- <sup>13</sup> Let them be put to shame and destroyed,
those who are hostile to my life;
let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor,
those who seek my hurt.
- <sup>14</sup> But I will always hope in you
and will praise you more and more.
- <sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day,
although I cannot understand it.
- <sup>16</sup> I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh;
I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.
- <sup>17</sup> God, you have taught me from my youth;
even now I declare your wonderful deeds.
- <sup>18</sup> Indeed, even when I am old and gray-headed, God,
do not abandon me,
as I have been declaring your strength to the next generation,
your power to everyone who is to come.
- <sup>19</sup> Your righteousness also, God, is very high;
you who have done great things,
God, who is like you?

- <sup>20</sup> You who made me see many troubles will revive us again
and will bring us up again
from the depths of the earth.
- <sup>21</sup> May you increase my honor;
turn again and comfort me.
- <sup>22</sup> I will also give thanks to you with the harp for your trustworthiness, my God;
to you I will sing praises with the harp,
Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you—even my soul, which you have redeemed.
- <sup>24</sup> My tongue will also talk about your righteousness
all day long;
for they have been put to shame and are confused,
those who sought my hurt.

Chapter 72

A psalm of Solomon.

- <sup>1</sup> Give the king your righteous decrees, God,
your righteousness to the king's son.
- <sup>2</sup> May he judge your people with righteousness and your poor with justice.
- <sup>3</sup> May the mountains produce peace for the people;
may the hills produce righteousness.
- <sup>4</sup> May he judge the poor of the people;
may he save the children of the needy and break in pieces the oppressor.
- <sup>5</sup> May they honor you while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon lasts throughout all generations.
- <sup>6</sup> May he come down like rain on the mown grass,
like showers that water the earth.
- <sup>7</sup> May the righteous flourish in his days,
and may there be an abundance of peace till the moon is no more.
- <sup>8</sup> May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
- <sup>9</sup> May those who live in the wilderness bow down before him;
may his enemies lick the dust.
- <sup>10</sup> May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands render tribute;
may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
- <sup>11</sup> Indeed, may all kings fall down before him;
may all nations serve him.
- <sup>12</sup> For he helps the needy person who cries out and the poor person who has no other helper.
- <sup>13</sup> He has pity on the poor and needy,
and he saves the lives of needy people.
- <sup>14</sup> He redeems their lives from oppression and violence,
and their blood is precious in his sight.
- <sup>15</sup> May he live!
May the gold of Sheba be given to him.
May people always pray for him;
may God bless him all day long.
- <sup>16</sup> May there be abundance of grain in the land;
on the mountaintops may their crops wave.
May the fruit of it be like Lebanon;
may the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.
- <sup>17</sup> May his name endure forever;
may his name continue as long as the sun;
may people be blessed in him;
may all nations call him blessed.
- <sup>18</sup> May Yahweh God, the God of Israel, be blessed,
who alone does wonderful things.
- <sup>19</sup> May his glorious name be blessed forever,
and may the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Amen and Amen.

BOOK THREE

(Psalms 73-89)

Chapter 73

A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> Surely God is good to Israel,
to those with a pure heart.
- <sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my feet almost slipped out from under me
- <sup>3</sup> because I was envious of the arrogant
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- <sup>4</sup> For they have no pain until their death,
but they are strong and well fed.
- <sup>5</sup> They are not in trouble like other men;
they are not afflicted like other men.
- <sup>6</sup> Pride adorns them like a necklace around their neck;
violence clothes them like a robe.
- <sup>7</sup> Out of such blindness comes sin;
evil thoughts pass through their hearts.
- <sup>8</sup> They mock and speak wickedly;
in their arrogance they threaten oppression.
- <sup>9</sup> They set their mouth against the heavens,
and their tongues march through the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Therefore his people turn to them and abundant waters are drained out.
- <sup>11</sup> They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge with the Most High?"
- <sup>12</sup> Take notice: these people are wicked;
they are always at ease, becoming richer and richer.
- <sup>13</sup> Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.
- <sup>14</sup> For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.
- <sup>15</sup> If I had said, "I will say these things,"
then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.
- <sup>16</sup> Though I tried to understand these things,
it was too difficult for me.
- <sup>17</sup> Then I went into God's sanctuary and came to understand their fate.
- <sup>18</sup> Surely you put them in slippery places;
you bring them down to ruin.
- <sup>19</sup> How they become a wilderness in a moment!
They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.
- <sup>20</sup> They are like a dream after one wakes up;
Lord, when you arise,
you will despise their image.
- <sup>21</sup> For my heart was embittered,
and I was deeply wounded.
- <sup>22</sup> I was ignorant and lacked insight;

I was like a senseless animal before you.

- <sup>23</sup> Yet I am always with you;
you hold my right hand.
- <sup>24</sup> You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.
- <sup>25</sup> Whom have I in heaven but you?
There is no one on earth that I desire but you.
- <sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart grow weak, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
- <sup>27</sup> Those who are far from you will perish;
you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.
- <sup>28</sup> But as for me, all I need to do is to approach God.
I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge.
I will declare all your deeds.

Chapter 74

A maschil of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?
- <sup>2</sup> Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times,
the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.
- <sup>3</sup> Come look at the everlasting ruins,
all the damage that the enemy has done in the holy place.
- <sup>4</sup> Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place;
they set up their battle flags.
- <sup>5</sup> They hacked away with axes
as in a thick forest.
- <sup>6</sup> They smashed and broke down all the engravings;
they broke them with axes and hammers.
- <sup>7</sup> They set your sanctuary on fire, knocking it to the ground;
they desecrated the dwelling place of your name.
- <sup>8</sup> They said in their hearts, "We will destroy them all."
They burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.
- <sup>9</sup> We do not see any more signs;
there is no prophet any more,
and no one among us knows how long this will last.
- <sup>10</sup> How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
- <sup>11</sup> Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.
- <sup>12</sup> Yet God has been my king from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.
- <sup>13</sup> You divided the sea by your strength;
you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
- <sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of leviathan;
you fed him to those living in the wilderness.
- <sup>15</sup> You broke open springs and streams;
you dried up flowing rivers.
- <sup>16</sup> The day is yours, and the night is yours also;
you set the light and the sun in place.
- <sup>17</sup> You have set all the borders of the earth;
you have made summer and winter.
- <sup>18</sup> Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yahweh, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not give the life of your dove to a wild animal.
Do not forget forever the life of your oppressed people.
- <sup>20</sup> Remember your covenant, for the dark regions of the land are full of places of violence.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame;
let the poor and oppressed praise your name.
- <sup>22</sup> Arise, God; plead your own cause;
call to mind how fools mock you all day long.

<sup>23</sup> Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

Chapter 75

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

- <sup>1</sup> We give thanks to you, God;
    we give thanks, for your name is near;
    people tell of your wondrous works.
- <sup>2</sup> At the appointed time
    I will judge fairly.
- <sup>3</sup> Though the earth and all the inhabitants shake in fear,
    I make steady the earth's pillars.
- <sup>4</sup> I said to the arrogant, "Do not be arrogant,"
    and to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not lift up your horn to the heights;
    do not speak with an arrogant neck."
- <sup>6</sup> It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.
- <sup>7</sup> But God is the judge;
    he brings down and he lifts up.
- <sup>8</sup> For Yahweh holds in his hand a cup of foaming wine,
    which is mixed with spices, and pours it out.
Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.
- <sup>9</sup> But I will continually tell what you have done;
    I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>10</sup> He says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be raised up."

Chapter 76

For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

- <sup>1</sup> God has made himself known in Judah;
his name is great in Israel.
<sup>2</sup> His tent is in Salem;
his dwelling place is in Zion.
<sup>3</sup> There he broke the arrows of the bow,
the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war.

Selah

- <sup>4</sup> You shine brightly and are majestic
as you descend from the mountains, where you killed your victims.
<sup>5</sup> The brave of heart were plundered;
they fell asleep.
All the warriors were helpless.
<sup>6</sup> At your rebuke, God of Jacob,
both charioteer and horse fell asleep.

- <sup>7</sup> You, yes you, are to be feared;
who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
<sup>8</sup> From heaven you made your judgment heard;
the earth was afraid and silent <sup>9</sup> when you, God, arose to execute judgment and to save all the oppressed of the earth.

Selah

- <sup>10</sup> Surely your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise;
you gird yourself with the remnant of your anger.
<sup>11</sup> Make vows to Yahweh your God and keep them.
May all who surround him bring tribute to him who is to be feared.
<sup>12</sup> He cuts off the spirit of the princes;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Chapter 77

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> I will call with my voice to God;
I will call out with my voice to God,
and my God will give ear to me.
- <sup>2</sup> In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
at night I stretched my hands out, and they would not become tired.
My soul refused to be comforted.
- <sup>3</sup> I thought of God as I groaned;
I thought about him as I grew faint.
- <sup>4</sup> You held my eyes open;
I was too troubled to speak.
- <sup>5</sup> I thought about the days of old,
about years long past.
- <sup>6</sup> During the night I called to mind the song I once sang.
I thought carefully
and tried to understand what had happened.
- <sup>7</sup> Will the Lord reject me forever?
Will he never again show me favor?
- <sup>8</sup> Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever?
Had his promise failed forever?
- <sup>9</sup> Had God forgotten to be gracious?
Had his anger shut off his compassion?
- <sup>10</sup> I said, "This is my sorrow:
the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us."
- <sup>11</sup> But I will remember the deeds of Yah; <sup>1</sup>
I will remember your miracles of long ago.
- <sup>12</sup> I will ponder all your deeds
and will reflect on them.
- <sup>13</sup> Your way, God, is holy;
what god compares to our great God?
- <sup>14</sup> You are the God who does wonders;
you have revealed your strength among the peoples.
- <sup>15</sup> You gave your people victory by your great power—
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.
- <sup>16</sup> The waters saw you, God;
the waters saw you, and they were afraid;
the depths trembled.
- <sup>17</sup> The clouds poured down water;
the cloudy skies gave voice;
your arrows flew about.
- <sup>18</sup> Your thunderous voice was heard in the wind;
the lightning lit up the world;

the earth trembled and shook.

<sup>19</sup> Your path went through the sea and your way through the surging waters,
but your footprints were not seen.

<sup>20</sup> You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Chapter 78

A maschil of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my teaching, my people,
listen to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>2</sup> I will open my mouth in parables;
I will sing about hidden things about the past.
- <sup>3</sup> These are things that we have heard and learned,
things that our ancestors have told us.
- <sup>4</sup> We will not keep them from their descendants.
We will tell the next generation
about the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.
- <sup>5</sup> For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel.
He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.
- <sup>6</sup> He commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees,
the children not yet born,
who should tell them in turn to their own children.
- <sup>7</sup> Then they would place their hope in God and not forget his deeds
but keep his commandments.
- <sup>8</sup> Then they would not be like their ancestors,
who were a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose hearts were not right,
and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to God.
- <sup>9</sup> The Ephraimites were armed with bows,
but they turned back on the day of battle.
- <sup>10</sup> They did not keep the covenant with God,
and they refused to obey his law.
- <sup>11</sup> They forgot his deeds,
the wonderful things that he had shown them.
- <sup>12</sup> They forgot the marvelous things he did in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the land of Zoan.
- <sup>13</sup> He divided the sea and led them across it;
he made the waters to stand like walls.
- <sup>14</sup> In the daytime he led them with a cloud and all the night with the light of fire.
- <sup>15</sup> He split the rocks in the wilderness,
and he gave them water abundantly,
enough to fill the depths of the sea.
- <sup>16</sup> He made streams flow out of the rock and made the water flow like rivers.
- <sup>17</sup> Yet they continued to sin against him, rebellious against the Most High in the wilderness.
- <sup>18</sup> They challenged God in their hearts
by asking for food to satisfy their appetites.
- <sup>19</sup> They spoke against God;
they said, "Can God really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?"
- <sup>20</sup> See, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out

and streams overflowed.
 But can he give bread also?
 Will he provide meat for his people?"
 21 When Yahweh heard this, he was angry;
 so his fire burned against Jacob,
 and his anger attacked Israel, 22 because they did not believe in God and did not trust in his salvation.
 23 Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of the sky.
 24 He rained down manna for them to eat,
 and gave them the grain from heaven.
 25 People ate the bread of angels.
 He sent them food in abundance.
 26 He caused the east wind to blow in the sky,
 and by his power he guided the south wind.
 27 He rained down meat on them like dust,
 birds as numerous as the sands of the sea.
 28 They fell in the middle of their camp,
 all around their tents.
 29 So they ate and were full.
 He gave them what they craved.
 30 But they had not yet filled up;
 their food was still in their mouths.
 31 Then God's anger attacked them
 and killed the strongest of them.
 He brought down the young men of Israel.

 32 Despite this, they continued to sin and did not believe his wonderful deeds.
 33 Therefore God cut short their days;
 their years were filled with terror.
 34 Whenever God killed them, they would start to seek him,
 and they would return and look earnestly for him.
 35 They would call to mind that God was their rock and that the Most High God was their rescuer.
 36 But they would flatter him with their mouth and lie to him with their words.
 37 For their hearts were not firmly fixed on him,
 and they were not faithful to his covenant.
 38 Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity
 and did not destroy them.
 Yes, many times he held back his anger
 and did not stir up all his wrath.
 39 He called to mind that they were made of flesh,
 a wind that passes away and does not return.

 40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the barren regions!
 41 Again and again they challenged God and offended the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not think about his power,
 how he had rescued them from the enemy 43 when he performed his terrifying signs in Egypt and his wonders in the region of Zoan.

 44 He turned the Egyptians' rivers to blood
 so that they could not drink from their streams.
 45 He sent swarms of flies that devoured them
 and frogs that destroyed them.
 46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust.
 47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with more hail.
 48 He rained hail on their cattle and hurled lightning bolts at their livestock.
 49 The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them.
 He sent wrath, fury, and trouble
 like angels who bring disaster.
 50 He leveled a path for his anger;
 he did not spare them from death
 but gave them over to the plague.
 51 He killed all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the firstborn of their strength in the tents of Ham.
 52 He led his own people out like sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.
 53 He led them secure and unafraid,
 but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
 54 Then he brought them to the border of his holy land,
 to this mountain that his right hand acquired.
 55 He drove out the nations from before them
 and assigned them their inheritance.
 He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

 56 Yet they challenged and rebelled against the Most High God
 and did not keep his solemn commands.
 57 They were unfaithful
 and acted treacherously like their fathers;
 they were as undependable as a faulty bow.
 58 For they made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols.
 59 When God heard this, he was angry and completely rejected Israel.
 60 He abandoned the sanctuary of Shiloh,
 the tent where he had lived among people.
 61 He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand.
 62 He handed his people over to the sword,
 and he was angry with his heritage.
 63 Fire devoured their young men,
 and their virgins had no wedding songs.
 64 Their priests fell by the sword,
 and their widows could not weep.

 65 Then the Lord awakened as one from sleep,
 like a warrior who shouts because of wine.
 66 He drove his adversaries back;
 he put them to everlasting shame.
 67 He rejected the tent of Joseph,

and he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>68</sup> He chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion that he loved.

<sup>69</sup> He built his sanctuary like the heavens,

like the earth that he has established forever.

<sup>70</sup> He chose David, his servant,

and took him from the sheepfolds.

<sup>71</sup> He took him from following the ewes with their young,

and he brought him to be shepherd of Jacob,

his people, and of Israel, his heritage.

<sup>72</sup> David shepherded them with the integrity of his heart, and he guided them with the skill of his hands.

Chapter 79

A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> God, foreign nations have come into your inheritance;
they have defiled your holy temple;
they have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.
- <sup>2</sup> They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the skies,
the bodies of your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem,
and there was none to bury them.
- <sup>4</sup> We are objects of contempt to our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us.
- <sup>5</sup> How long, Yahweh? Will you stay angry forever?
How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?
- <sup>6</sup> Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you
and on the kingdoms
that do not call upon your name.
- <sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his villages.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us;
may your merciful actions come to us,
for we are very low.
- <sup>9</sup> Help us, God of our salvation,
for the sake of the glory of your name;
save us and forgive our sins
for your name's sake.
- <sup>10</sup> Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the nations before our eyes.
- <sup>11</sup> May the groans of the prisoners come before you;
with the greatness of your power keep the children of death alive.
- <sup>12</sup> Pay back into the laps of our neighboring countries seven times as much as the contempt with which they have taunted you, Lord.
- <sup>13</sup> So we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks forever.
We will tell your praises
to all generations.

Chapter 80

For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear, Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock;
you who sit above the cherubim,
shine on us!
- <sup>2</sup> In the sight of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your power;
come and save us.
- <sup>3</sup> God, restore us;
make your face shine on us,
and we will be saved.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh God of hosts,
how long will you be angry at your people when they pray?
- <sup>5</sup> You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities.
- <sup>6</sup> You make us an object of strife for our neighbors,
and our enemies laugh in mockery about us among themselves.
- <sup>7</sup> God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us,
and we will be saved.
- <sup>8</sup> You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out nations and transplanted it.
- <sup>9</sup> You cleared the land for it;
it took root and filled the land.
- <sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered with its shade,
the cedars of God by its branches.
- <sup>11</sup> It sent out its branches as far as the sea and its shoots to the Euphrates River.
- <sup>12</sup> Why have you broken down its walls
so that all who pass by along the road pluck its fruit?
- <sup>13</sup> The boars out of the forest ruin it,
and the beasts of the field feed on it.
- <sup>14</sup> Turn back, God of hosts;
look down from heaven and take notice
and take care of this vine.
- <sup>15</sup> This is the root that your right hand planted,
the son that you have strengthened for yourself.
- <sup>16</sup> It has been burned and cut down;
they perish because of your rebuke.
- <sup>17</sup> May your hand be on the man of your right hand,
on the son of man whom you strengthened for yourself.
- <sup>18</sup> Then we will not turn away from you;
revive us, and we will call on your name.
- <sup>19</sup> Yahweh God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

Chapter 81

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> Shout joyfully to God our strength;
shout out for joy to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing a song and play the tambourine,
the pleasant harp with the lute.
- <sup>3</sup> Blow the ram's horn on the day of the new moon,
on the day of the full moon, when our feast day begins.
- <sup>4</sup> For it is a statute for Israel, a decree given by the God of Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> He issued it as a regulation in Joseph when he went against the land of Egypt, where I heard a voice that I did not recognize:
- <sup>6</sup> "I removed the burden from his shoulder;
his hands were freed from holding the basket.
- <sup>7</sup> In your distress you called out, and I helped you;
I answered you from a dark thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.
- <sup>8</sup> Listen, my people, for I will warn you,
Israel, if you would only listen to me!
- <sup>9</sup> There must be no foreign god among you;
you must not worship any foreign god.
- <sup>10</sup> I am Yahweh your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- <sup>11</sup> But my people did not listen to my words;
Israel did not obey me.
- <sup>12</sup> So I gave them over to their own stubborn way
so that they might follow their own devices.
- <sup>13</sup> Oh, that my people would listen to me;
oh, that my people would walk in my paths.
- <sup>14</sup> Then I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their oppressors.
- <sup>15</sup> May those who hate Yahweh cringe in fear before him!
May they be humiliated forever.
- <sup>16</sup> I would feed Israel with the finest wheat;
I would satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

Selah

Chapter 82

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> God stands in the divine assembly;
in the midst of the gods he renders judgment.

<sup>2</sup> How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked?

<sup>3</sup> Give justice to the poor and fatherless;
maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

<sup>4</sup> Rescue the poor and needy;
take them out of the hand of the wicked.

<sup>5</sup> They neither know nor understand;
they wander around in the darkness;
all the foundations of the earth crumble.

<sup>6</sup> I said, "You are gods,
and all of you are sons of the Most High.

<sup>7</sup> Nevertheless you will die like men and fall like one of the princes."

<sup>8</sup> Arise, God, judge the earth,
for you have an inheritance in all the nations.

Chapter 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> God, do not be silent!
Do not ignore us and remain unmoved, God.
- <sup>2</sup> Look, your enemies are making a commotion,
and those who hate you have raised their heads.
- <sup>3</sup> They make shrewd plans against your people and plan together against your protected ones.
- <sup>4</sup> They have said, "Come, and let us destroy them as a nation.
Then the name of Israel will no longer be remembered."
- <sup>5</sup> They schemed together with one strategy;
they made an alliance against you—
- <sup>6</sup> the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,
of Moab and the Hagrites,
- <sup>7</sup> Byblos,<sup>1</sup> Ammon, Amalek;
and also Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.
- <sup>8</sup> Assyria also has joined with them;
they have become an arm for the descendants of Lot.

Selah

- <sup>9</sup> Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and to Jabin at the Kishon River.
- <sup>10</sup> They perished at Endor and became like manure for the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb,
and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna.
- <sup>12</sup> They said, "Let us take for ourselves
the pastures of God."
- <sup>13</sup> My God, make them like the whirling dust,
like chaff before the wind,
- <sup>14</sup> like the fire that burns the forest,
and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire.
- <sup>15</sup> Chase them with your strong wind,
and terrify them with your windstorm.
- <sup>16</sup> Fill their faces with shame
so that they might seek your name, Yahweh.
- <sup>17</sup> May they be put to shame and be terrified forever;
may they perish in disgrace.
- <sup>18</sup> Then they will know that you alone,
whose name is Yahweh,
are the Most High over all the earth.

Chapter 84

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> How lovely is the place where you live, Yahweh of hosts!
- <sup>2</sup> I long for the courts of Yahweh;
my desire for it has made me exhausted.
My heart and all of my being shout for joy to the living God.
- <sup>3</sup> Even the sparrow has found herself a house and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young near your altars, Yahweh of hosts,
my King, and my God.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed are they who live in your house;
they praise you continually.
- <sup>5</sup> Blessed is the man whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways up to Zion.
- <sup>6</sup> As they go through the Valley of Tears
they make it a place of springs.
The early rains cover it with blessings. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>7</sup> They go from strength to strength;
every one of them appears before God in Zion.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh God of hosts, hear my prayer;
give ear, God of Jacob!
- <sup>9</sup> God, watch over our shield;
show concern for your anointed.
- <sup>10</sup> For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
than to live within the tents of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> For Yahweh God is our sun and shield; Yahweh will give grace and glory;
he does not withhold any good thing
from those who walk in integrity.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh of hosts,
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Chapter 85

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you have shown favor to your land;
you have restored the well-being of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> You have forgiven the iniquity of your people;
you have covered all their sin.
- <sup>3</sup> You have withdrawn all your wrath;
you have turned back from your hot anger.
- <sup>4</sup> Restore us, God of our salvation,
and let go of your displeasure with us.
- <sup>5</sup> Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you remain angry throughout future generations?
- <sup>6</sup> Will you not revive us again?
Then your people will rejoice in you.
- <sup>7</sup> Show us your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh;
grant us your salvation.
- <sup>8</sup> I will listen to what Yahweh God says,
for he will make peace with his people, his faithful ones.
Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways.
- <sup>9</sup> Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him;
then glory will remain in our land.
- <sup>10</sup> Steadfast love and faithfulness have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- <sup>11</sup> Trustworthiness springs up from the ground,
and righteousness looks down from the sky.
- <sup>12</sup> Yes, Yahweh will give his good blessings,
and our land will yield its crops.
- <sup>13</sup> Righteousness will go before him
and make a way for his footsteps.

Chapter 86

A prayer of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Listen, Yahweh, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
- <sup>2</sup> Protect me, for I am faithful;
my God, save your servant who trusts in you.
- <sup>3</sup> Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I cry out to you all day long.
- <sup>4</sup> Make your servant glad,
for to you, Lord, I lift up my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, abounding in steadfast love to all those who cry out to you.
- <sup>6</sup> Give ear, Yahweh, to my prayer;
hear the sound of my pleas.
- <sup>7</sup> In the day of my trouble I call on you,
for you will answer me.
- <sup>8</sup> There is no one who compares to you among the gods, Lord.
There are no deeds like your deeds.
- <sup>9</sup> All the nations that you have made will come and bow before you, Lord.
They will honor your name.
- <sup>10</sup> For you are great and do wonderful things;
you only are God.
- <sup>11</sup> Teach me your ways, Yahweh.
Then I will walk in your truth.
Unite my heart
to reverence your name.
- <sup>12</sup> Lord my God, I will praise you with my whole heart;
I will glorify your name forever.
- <sup>13</sup> For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me;
you have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol.
- <sup>14</sup> God, the arrogant have risen up against me.
A company of violent men seek my life.
They have no regard for you.
- <sup>15</sup> But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
give your strength to your servant;
save the son of your servant woman.
- <sup>17</sup> Show me a sign of your favor.
Then those who hate me will see it and be put to shame because you, Yahweh, have helped me and comforted me.

Chapter 87

A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song.

more than all the tents of Jacob.

<sup>3</sup> Glorious things are said of you,
city of God.

Selah

<sup>4</sup> "I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers.
See, there are Philistia, and Tyre, along with Cush—
and will say, 'This one was born there.'"

<sup>5</sup> Of Zion it will be said,
"Each of these was born in her;
and the Most High himself will establish her."

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh writes in the census book of the nations,
"This one was born there."

<sup>7</sup> So also the singers and the dancers say together,
"All my fountains are in you."

Chapter 88

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah; for the chief musician; set to the Mahalath Leannoth style. A maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, God of my salvation,
I cry out day and night before you.
- <sup>2</sup> Listen to my prayer;
pay attention to my cry.
- <sup>3</sup> For I am filled with troubles,
and my life has reached Sheol.
- <sup>4</sup> People treat me like those who go down into the pit;
I am a man with no strength.
- <sup>5</sup> I am free among the dead;
I am like the dead who lie in the grave,
about whom you care no more because they are cut off from your power.
- <sup>6</sup> You place me in the lowest part of the pit,
in the dark and deep places.
- <sup>7</sup> Your wrath lies heavy on me,
and all your waves crash over me.
- <sup>8</sup> Because of you, my acquaintances avoid me.
You have made me an abomination to them.
I am hemmed in and I cannot escape.
- <sup>9</sup> My eyes grow weary from trouble;
All day long I call out to you, Yahweh;
I spread out my hands to you.
- <sup>10</sup> Will you do wonders for the dead?
Will those who have died rise and praise you?
- <sup>11</sup> Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your faithfulness in the place of the dead?
- <sup>12</sup> Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness, or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?
- <sup>13</sup> But I cry to you, Yahweh;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide your face from me?
- <sup>15</sup> I have always been afflicted and on the verge of death since my youth.
I have suffered from your terrors;
I am in despair.
- <sup>16</sup> Your burning anger has passed over me,
and your terrifying deeds have annihilated me.
- <sup>17</sup> They surround me like water all the day long;
they have all encircled me.
- <sup>18</sup> You have removed every friend and acquaintance from me.
My only acquaintance is the darkness.

Chapter 89

A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness forever.
I will proclaim your truthfulness to future generations.
- <sup>2</sup> For I have said, "Covenant faithfulness has been established forever;
your truthfulness you have established in the heavens."
- <sup>3</sup> You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have made an oath to David my servant:
- <sup>4</sup> 'I will establish your descendants forever,
and I will establish your throne through all generations.'"

Selah

- <sup>5</sup> The heavens praise your wonders, Yahweh;
your truthfulness is praised in the assembly of the holy ones.
- <sup>6</sup> For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?
Who among the sons of the gods is like Yahweh?
- <sup>7</sup> He is a God who is greatly honored in the council of the holy ones and is awesome among all who surround him.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh God of hosts,
who is strong like Yah? <sup>1</sup>
Your truthfulness surrounds you.
- <sup>9</sup> You rule the raging sea;
when the waves surge, you calm them.
- <sup>10</sup> You crushed Rahab as one who is killed.
You scattered your enemies with your strong arm.
- <sup>11</sup> The heavens belong to you, and the earth also.
You established the world and all it contains.
- <sup>12</sup> You created the north and the south.
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
- <sup>13</sup> You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high.
- <sup>14</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Steadfast love and faithfulness come before you.
- <sup>15</sup> Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
Yahweh, they walk in the light of your face.
- <sup>16</sup> They rejoice in your name all day long,
and in your righteousness they exalt you.
- <sup>17</sup> You are their glorious strength,
and by your favor our horn is exalted.
- <sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to Yahweh;
our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>19</sup> Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones; <sup>2</sup> you said, "I have set a crown on a mighty one." <sup>3</sup>
I have raised up one chosen from among the people.
- <sup>20</sup> I have chosen David my servant;
with my holy oil have I anointed him.
- <sup>21</sup> My hand will support him;
my arm will strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup> No enemy will deceive him;
 no son of wickedness will oppress him.
<sup>23</sup> I will crush his enemies before him;
 I will kill those who hate him.
<sup>24</sup> My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him;
 by my name his horn will be exalted.
<sup>25</sup> I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers.
<sup>26</sup> He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.'
<sup>27</sup> I also will place him as my firstborn son,
 the most exalted of the kings of the earth.
<sup>28</sup> I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever;
 and my covenant with him will be secure.
<sup>29</sup> I will make his descendants endure forever and his throne as enduring as the skies above.

<sup>30</sup> If his children abandon my law
 and do not walk in my regulations, <sup>31</sup> if they break my rules and do not keep my commands, <sup>32</sup> then will I punish their rebellion with a rod and their iniquity with blows.
<sup>33</sup> But I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise.
<sup>34</sup> I will not break my covenant or change the words of my lips.
<sup>35</sup> Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness—
 I will not lie to David:
<sup>36</sup> his descendants will continue forever and his throne as long as the sun before me.
<sup>37</sup> It will be established forever like the moon,
 the faithful witness in the sky."

Selah

<sup>38</sup> But you have refused and rejected;
 you have been angry with your anointed king.
<sup>39</sup> You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
 You have desecrated his crown on the ground.
<sup>40</sup> You have broken down all his walls.
 You have ruined his strongholds.
<sup>41</sup> All who pass by have robbed him.
 He has become the scorn of his neighbors.
<sup>42</sup> You have raised the right hand of his enemies;
 you have made all his enemies rejoice.
<sup>43</sup> You turn back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand when in battle.
<sup>44</sup> You have brought his splendor to an end;
 you have brought down his throne to the ground.
<sup>45</sup> You have shortened the days of his youth.
 You have covered him with shame.

Selah

- <sup>46</sup> How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself forever?
 How long will your anger burn like fire?
- <sup>47</sup> Oh, think about how short my time is,
 and for what vanity you have created all the children of mankind!
- <sup>48</sup> Who can live and not die,
 or rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol?
- <sup>49</sup> Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?
- <sup>50</sup> Call to mind, Lord, the mocking directed against your servants and how I bear in my heart so many insults from the nations.
- <sup>51</sup> Your enemies hurl insults, Yahweh;
 they mock the footsteps of your anointed one.
- <sup>52</sup> Blessed be Yahweh forever.
 Amen and Amen.

(Psalms 90-106)

<sup>3</sup>The ancient copies of the Hebrew text have I will place help upon a warrior . Some scholars translate the word for help as crown and that is how the ULB editors have translated the word here.

Chapter 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, you have been our refuge throughout all generations.
- <sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were formed,
or you formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
- <sup>3</sup> You return man to dust,
and you say, "Return, you descendants of mankind."
- <sup>4</sup> For a thousand years in your sight
are as yesterday when it is past,
and as a watch in the night.
- <sup>5</sup> You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep;
in the morning they are like the grass that sprouts up.
- <sup>6</sup> In the morning it blooms and grows up;
in the evening it withers and dries up.
- <sup>7</sup> Truly, we are consumed in your anger,
and in your wrath we are terrified.
- <sup>8</sup> You have set our iniquities before you,
our hidden sins in the light of your presence.
- <sup>9</sup> Our life passes away under your wrath;
our years quickly pass like a sigh.
- <sup>10</sup> Our years are seventy,
or even eighty if we are healthy;
but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow.
Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.
- <sup>11</sup> Who knows the power of your anger,
and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?
- <sup>12</sup> So teach us to consider our life
so that we might gain a heart of wisdom.
- <sup>13</sup> Turn back, Yahweh! How long will it be?
Have pity on your servants.
- <sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with your covenant faithfulness so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
- <sup>15</sup> Make us glad in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble.
- <sup>16</sup> Let your servants see your work,
and let our children see your majesty.
- <sup>17</sup> May the favor of the Lord our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands;
indeed, prosper the work of our hands.

Chapter 91

- <sup>1</sup> He who lives in the shelter of the Most High will stay in the shadow of the Almighty.
- <sup>2</sup> I will say of Yahweh, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."
- <sup>3</sup> For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the destructive plague.
- <sup>4</sup> He will cover you with his wings,
and under his wings you will find refuge.
His faithfulness is a shield and protection.
- <sup>5</sup> You will not be afraid of terror in the night,
or of the arrow that flies by day,
- <sup>6</sup> or of the plague that stalks in the darkness,
or of the destruction that lays waste at noon.
- <sup>7</sup> A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not reach you.
- <sup>8</sup> You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked.
- <sup>9</sup> For Yahweh is my refuge!
Make the Most High your refuge also.
- <sup>10</sup> No evil will overtake you;
no affliction will come near your tent.
- <sup>11</sup> For he will put his angels in charge over you,
to guard you in all your ways.
- <sup>12</sup> They will lift you up with their hand
so that you will not hit your foot on a stone.
- <sup>13</sup> You will crush lions and asps under your feet;
you will trample on young lions and serpents.
- <sup>14</sup> Because he delights in me, I will rescue him.
I will protect him because he acknowledges my name.
- <sup>15</sup> When he calls to me, I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble;
I will give him victory and will honor him.
- <sup>16</sup> I will satisfy him with the length of his days,
and show him my salvation.

Chapter 92

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day.

- <sup>1</sup> It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh and to sing praises to your name, Most High, <sup>2</sup> to proclaim your covenant faithfulness in the morning and your truthfulness every night, <sup>3</sup> with a lute of ten strings and the resounding music of the harp.
- <sup>4</sup> For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your deeds.
I will sing for joy because of the deeds of your hands.
<sup>5</sup> How great are your deeds, Yahweh!
Your thoughts are very deep.
<sup>6</sup> A brutish person does not know,
nor does a fool understand this:
<sup>7</sup> When the wicked sprout like the grass,
and even when all those who behave wickedly thrive,
still they are doomed to eternal destruction.
- <sup>8</sup> But you, Yahweh, will reign forever.
- <sup>9</sup> Indeed, look at your enemies, Yahweh!
Indeed, look at your enemies. They will perish!
All those who behave wickedly will be scattered.
<sup>10</sup> You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox;
I am anointed with fresh oil.
<sup>11</sup> My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes.
- <sup>12</sup> The righteous will flourish like the palm tree;
they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup> They are planted in the house of Yahweh;
they flourish in the courts of our God.
<sup>14</sup> They bear fruit even when they are old;
they stay fresh and green,
<sup>15</sup> to proclaim that Yahweh is just.
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh reigns; he is robed in majesty;
Yahweh has clothed and girded himself with strength.
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
- <sup>2</sup> Your throne is established from ancient times;
you are from everlasting.
- <sup>3</sup> The oceans rise, Yahweh;
they have lifted up their voice;
the oceans' waves crash and roar.
- <sup>4</sup> Above the crashing of many waves,
the mighty breakers of the sea,
Yahweh on high is mighty.
- <sup>5</sup> Your solemn commands are very trustworthy;
holiness adorns your house,
Yahweh, for the length of your days.

Chapter 94

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, God who avenges,
God who avenges, shine over us.
<sup>2</sup> Rise up, judge of the earth,
give recompense to the proud.
<sup>3</sup> How long will the wicked, Yahweh,
how long will the wicked rejoice?
- <sup>4</sup> They pour out their arrogant words;
all those who behave wickedly boast.
<sup>5</sup> They crush your people, Yahweh;
they afflict your heritage.
<sup>6</sup> They kill the widow and foreigner who lives in their country,
and they murder the fatherless.
<sup>7</sup> They say, "Yah does not see;
the God of Jacob does not take notice of it." <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>8</sup> Pay attention, you stupid people!
You fools, when will you gain understanding?
<sup>9</sup> He who made the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?
<sup>10</sup> He who disciplines the nations, does he not correct?
He is the one who gives knowledge to man.
<sup>11</sup> Yahweh knows the thoughts of men,
that they are vapor.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed is the one whom Yah instructs,
the one whom you teach from your law. <sup>2</sup> <sup>13</sup> You give him rest in times of trouble until a pit is dug for the wicked.
<sup>14</sup> For Yahweh will not abandon his people or abandon his inheritance.
<sup>15</sup> For judgment will again be righteous;
and all the upright in heart will follow it.
- <sup>16</sup> Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against those who behave wickedly?
<sup>17</sup> Unless Yahweh had been my help,
I would soon be lying down in the place of silence.
<sup>18</sup> When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, held me up.
<sup>19</sup> When cares within me are many,
your consolations delight my soul.
- <sup>20</sup> Can a throne of destruction be allied with you,
one that creates trouble by statute?
<sup>21</sup> They conspire together to take the life of the righteous and they declare guilty the blood of the innocent.
<sup>22</sup> But Yahweh has been my high tower,
and my God has been the rock of my refuge.
<sup>23</sup> He will bring on them their own iniquity and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
Yahweh our God will cut them off.

<sup>2</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup> Oh come, let us sing to Yahweh;
let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.
- <sup>2</sup> Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving;
let us shout joyfully to him with psalms of praise.
- <sup>3</sup> For Yahweh is a great God and a great King superior to all gods.
- <sup>4</sup> In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his.
- <sup>5</sup> The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
- <sup>6</sup> Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before Yahweh, our Creator:
- <sup>7</sup> For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.
Today—oh, that you would hear his voice!
- <sup>8</sup> "Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah, or as on the day of Massah in the wilderness,
- <sup>9</sup> where your forefathers tested me;
they put me to the test, though they had seen my deeds.
- <sup>10</sup> For forty years I was angry with that generation and said, 'This is a people whose hearts wander astray;
they have not known my ways.'
- <sup>11</sup> Therefore I swore in my anger that they would never enter into my resting place."

Chapter 96

- <sup>1</sup> Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing to Yahweh, all the earth.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to Yahweh, bless his name;
announce his salvation day after day.
- <sup>3</sup> Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvelous deeds among all the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> For Yahweh is great and is to be praised greatly.
He is to be feared above all other gods.
- <sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but it is Yahweh who made the heavens.
- <sup>6</sup> Splendor and majesty are in his presence.
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- <sup>7</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh, you clans of peoples, ascribe praise to Yahweh for his glory and strength.
- <sup>8</sup> Give to Yahweh the glory that his name deserves.
Bring an offering and come into his courts.
- <sup>9</sup> Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."
The world also is established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar and that which fills it shout with joy.
- <sup>12</sup> Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them.
Then let all the trees in the forest shout for joy
- <sup>13</sup> before Yahweh, for he is coming.
He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Chapter 97

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh reigns; let the earth rejoice;
let the many coastlands be glad.
- <sup>2</sup> Clouds and darkness surround him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- <sup>3</sup> Fire goes before him and consumes his adversaries on every side.
- <sup>4</sup> His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax before Yahweh,
the Lord of the whole earth.
- <sup>6</sup> The skies declare his justice,
and all the nations see his glory.
- <sup>7</sup> All those who worship carved figures will be shamed,
those who boast in worthless idols—
bow down to him, all you gods!
- <sup>8</sup> Zion heard and was glad,
and the towns of Judah rejoiced
because of your righteous decrees, Yahweh.
- <sup>9</sup> For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.
- <sup>10</sup> You who love Yahweh, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his faithful ones,
and he takes them out of the hand of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for those with honest hearts.
- <sup>12</sup> Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous;
and give thanks when you remember his holiness.

Chapter 98

A psalm.

- <sup>1</sup> Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm
have given him victory.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh has made known his salvation;
he has openly showed his justice to all the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> He calls to mind his steadfast love and faithfulness for the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.
- <sup>4</sup> Shout for joy to Yahweh, all the earth;
burst into song, sing for joy, and sing praises.
- <sup>5</sup> Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp,
with the harp and melodious song.
- <sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the sound of the horn,
shout joyfully before the King, Yahweh.
- <sup>7</sup> Let the sea shout and everything in it,
the world and those who live in it!
- <sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands,
and let the mountains shout for joy.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh is coming to judge the earth;
he will judge the world with righteousness
and the nations with fairness.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh reigns;
let the nations tremble.
He sits enthroned above the cherubim;
the earth quakes.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is great in Zion;
he is exalted above all the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> Let them praise your great and awesome name;
he is holy.
- <sup>4</sup> The king is strong, and he loves justice.
You have established fairness;
you have done righteousness and justice in Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> Praise Yahweh our God
and worship at his footstool.
He is holy.
- <sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
and Samuel was among those who called on his name.
They called to Yahweh,
and he answered them.
- <sup>7</sup> He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept his solemn commands and the statutes that he gave them.
- <sup>8</sup> You answered them,
Yahweh our God.
A forgiving God you were to them,
but also an avenger of their sinful deeds.
- <sup>9</sup> Praise Yahweh our God,
and worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh our God is holy.

Chapter 100

A psalm of thanksgiving.

- <sup>1</sup> Shout joyfully to Yahweh, all the earth.
  - <sup>2</sup> Serve Yahweh with gladness;
    come before his presence with joyful singing.
  - <sup>3</sup> Know that Yahweh is God;
    he made us, and we are his.
    We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
  - <sup>4</sup> Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.
    Give thanks to him and bless his name.
  - <sup>5</sup> For Yahweh is good; his covenant faithfulness endures forever and his truthfulness through all generations.

Chapter 101

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice;
to you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.
  - <sup>2</sup> I will pay attention to the way of integrity.
Oh, when will you come to me?
I will walk with integrity of heart within my house.
  - <sup>3</sup> I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes;
I hate worthless evil;
it will not cling to me.
  - <sup>4</sup> A perverse heart will leave me;
I am not loyal to evil.
  - <sup>5</sup> I will destroy whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
I will not tolerate the haughty of eye and arrogant of heart.
  - <sup>6</sup> I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side.
Those who walk in the way of integrity may serve me.
  - <sup>7</sup> Deceitful people will not remain within my house;
liars will not be welcome before my eyes.
  - <sup>8</sup> Morning by morning
I will destroy all the wicked from the land;
I will remove all who behave wickedly from the city of Yahweh.

Chapter 102

A prayer of the afflicted when he is faint and pours out his lament before Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, Yahweh;
hear my cry to you.
- <sup>2</sup> Do not hide your face from me in my time of trouble.
Listen to me.
When I call out to you,
answer me quickly.
- <sup>3</sup> For my days pass away like smoke,
and my bones burn like fire.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart is crushed, and I am like grass that has withered.
I forget to eat any food.
- <sup>5</sup> With my continual groaning,
I have become very thin.
- <sup>6</sup> I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I have become like an owl in the ruins.
- <sup>7</sup> I lie awake like a solitary bird,
alone on the housetop.
- <sup>8</sup> My enemies taunt me all day long;
those who mock me use my name in curses.
- <sup>9</sup> I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with tears.
- <sup>10</sup> Because of your raging anger,
you have lifted me up to throw me down.
- <sup>11</sup> My days are like a shadow that fades,
and I have withered like grass.
- <sup>12</sup> But you, Yahweh, live forever,
and your fame is for all generations.
- <sup>13</sup> You will rise up and have mercy on Zion.
Now is the time to have mercy upon her;
the appointed time has come.
- <sup>14</sup> For your servants hold her stones dear and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.
- <sup>15</sup> The nations will respect your name, Yahweh, and all the kings of the earth will honor your glory.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh will rebuild Zion and will appear in his glory.
- <sup>17</sup> At that time, he will respond to the prayer of the destitute;
he will not reject their prayer.
- <sup>18</sup> This will be written for future generations, and a people not yet created will praise Yah. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>19</sup> For he has looked down from the holy heights;
from heaven Yahweh has viewed the earth,
- <sup>20</sup> to hear the groaning of the prisoners,
to release those who were condemned to death.
- <sup>21</sup> Then men will proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem
- <sup>22</sup> when the peoples and kingdoms gather together to serve Yahweh.

- <sup>23</sup> He has taken away my strength in the middle of life.
He has shortened my days.
- <sup>24</sup> I said, "My God, do not take me away in the middle of life;
you are here throughout all generations.
- <sup>25</sup> In ancient times you established the earth;
the heavens are the work of your hands.
- <sup>26</sup> They will perish, but you will remain;
they will all grow old like a garment;
like clothing, you will remove them,
and they will disappear.
- <sup>27</sup> But you are the same,
and your years will have no end.
- <sup>28</sup> The children of your servants will live on,
and their descendants will live in your presence."

<sup>1</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Chapter 103

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and with all that is within me,
I give praise to his holy name.
- <sup>2</sup> I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and I remember all of his good deeds.
- <sup>3</sup> He forgives all your iniquities;
he heals all your diseases.
- <sup>4</sup> He redeems your life from the pit;
he crowns you with covenant faithfulness and acts of tender mercy.
- <sup>5</sup> He satisfies your life with good things
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh does what is fair and does acts of justice for all who are oppressed.
- <sup>7</sup> He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the descendants of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is merciful and gracious;
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
- <sup>9</sup> He will not discipline forever;
he will not be angry to eternity.
- <sup>10</sup> He does not deal with us as our sins deserve or repay us for what our iniquities demand.
- <sup>11</sup> For as the skies are high above the earth,
so great is his covenant faithfulness toward those who honor him.
- <sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west,
this is how far he has removed the guilt of our sins from us.
- <sup>13</sup> As a father has compassion on his children,
so Yahweh has compassion on those who honor him.
- <sup>14</sup> For he knows how we are formed;
he knows that we are dust.
- <sup>15</sup> As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower in a field.
- <sup>16</sup> The wind blows over it, and it disappears,
and no one can even tell where it once grew.
- <sup>17</sup> But the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is from everlasting to everlasting on those who honor him.
His righteousness extends to their descendants.
- <sup>18</sup> They keep his covenant and remember to obey his instructions.
- <sup>19</sup> Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens,
and his kingdom rules over everyone.
- <sup>20</sup> Give praise to Yahweh, you his angels,
you mighty ones who are strong and do his word,
and obey the sound of his word.
- <sup>21</sup> Give praise to Yahweh, all his hosts, his servants who do his will.
- <sup>22</sup> Give praise to Yahweh, all his creatures, in all the places where he reigns.

I will give praise to Yahweh with all my life.

---

Chapter 104

- <sup>1</sup> I give praise to Yahweh with all my life, Yahweh my God, you are very magnificent;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.
- <sup>2</sup> You cover yourself with light as with a garment;
you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain.
- <sup>3</sup> You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds;
you make the clouds your chariot;
you walk on the wings of the wind.
- <sup>4</sup> He makes the winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.
- <sup>5</sup> He laid the foundations of the earth,
so that it will not totter forever and ever.
- <sup>6</sup> You covered the earth with water like a garment;
the water covered the mountains.
- <sup>7</sup> At your rebuke the waters retreated;
at the sound of your thunder they hurried away.
- <sup>8</sup> The mountains rose and the valleys went down to the places that you had appointed for them.
- <sup>9</sup> You have set a boundary for them that they will not cross;
they will not cover the earth again.
- <sup>10</sup> He made springs flow into the valleys;
the streams flow between the mountains.
- <sup>11</sup> They supply water for all the animals of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- <sup>12</sup> By the riverbanks the birds build their nests;
they sing among the branches.
- <sup>13</sup> He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky.
The earth is filled with the fruit of his labor.
- <sup>14</sup> He makes the grass grow for the cattle and plants for man to cultivate,
so that man may produce food from the earth.
- <sup>15</sup> He makes wine to make man happy,
oil to make his face shine,
and food to sustain his life.
- <sup>16</sup> The trees of Yahweh get plenty of rain;
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
- <sup>17</sup> There the birds make their nests.
The stork makes the cypress tree her home.
- <sup>18</sup> The wild goats live on the high mountains;
the mountain heights are a refuge for the hyraxes.
- <sup>19</sup> He appointed the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows its time for setting.
- <sup>20</sup> You make the darkness of the night when all the beasts of the forest come out.
- <sup>21</sup> The young lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.
- <sup>22</sup> When the sun rises, they retreat

- and sleep in their dens.
- <sup>23</sup> Meanwhile, people go out to their work
and labor away until the evening.
- <sup>24</sup> Yahweh, how many and varied are your works!
With wisdom you made them all;
the earth overflows with your works.
- <sup>25</sup> Over there is the sea, deep and wide,
teeming with innumerable creatures,
both small and great.
- <sup>26</sup> The ships travel there,
and Leviathan is also there, which you formed to play in the sea.
- <sup>27</sup> All these look to you in hope that you will give them their food on time.
- <sup>28</sup> When you give to them, they gather;
when you open your hand, they are satisfied.
- <sup>29</sup> When you hide your face, they are troubled;
if you take away their breath, they die
and return to dust.
- <sup>30</sup> When you send out your Spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the surface of the ground.
- <sup>31</sup> May the glory of Yahweh last forever;
may Yahweh enjoy his creation.
- <sup>32</sup> He looks down on the earth, and it shakes;
he touches the mountains, and they smoke.
- <sup>33</sup> I will sing to Yahweh all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.
- <sup>34</sup> May my thoughts be sweet to him;
I will rejoice in Yahweh.
- <sup>35</sup> May sinners vanish from the earth,
and let the wicked be no more.
I give praise to Yahweh with all my life.
Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>

Chapter 105

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name;
make known his deeds among the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to him, sing praises to him;
speak of all his marvelous deeds.
- <sup>3</sup> Boast in his holy name;
let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.
- <sup>4</sup> Seek Yahweh and his strength;
seek his presence continually.
- <sup>5</sup> Recall the marvelous things he has done,
his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,
- <sup>6</sup> you descendants of Abraham his servant,
you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.
- <sup>7</sup> He is Yahweh, our God.
His decrees are on all the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> He keeps in mind his covenant forever,
the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.
- <sup>9</sup> He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.
- <sup>10</sup> This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.
- <sup>11</sup> He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance."
- <sup>12</sup> He said this when they were only few in number,
so very few, and were strangers in the land.
- <sup>13</sup> They went from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another.
- <sup>14</sup> He did not allow anyone to oppress them;
he rebuked kings for their sakes.
- <sup>15</sup> He said, "Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets."
- <sup>16</sup> He called for a famine on the land;
he cut off the whole staff of bread.
- <sup>17</sup> He sent a man ahead of them;
Joseph was sold as a servant.
- <sup>18</sup> His feet were bound by shackles;
on his neck was put an iron collar,
- <sup>19</sup> until what he had said came to pass.
The word of Yahweh tested him.
- <sup>20</sup> The king sent servants to release him;
the ruler of the people set him free.
- <sup>21</sup> He put him in charge of his house
as ruler of all his possessions
- <sup>22</sup> to instruct his princes as he wished and to teach his elders wisdom.
- <sup>23</sup> Then Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.
- <sup>24</sup> Yahweh made his people fruitful,
and made them stronger than their enemies.

- <sup>25</sup> He caused their enemies to hate his people,
to mistreat his servants.
- <sup>26</sup> He sent Moses, his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
- <sup>27</sup> They performed his signs among the Egyptians, his wonders in the land of Ham.
- <sup>28</sup> He sent darkness and made that land dark,
and they did not rebel against his commands.
- <sup>29</sup> He turned their water into blood and killed their fish.
- <sup>30</sup> Their land swarmed with frogs,
even in the rooms of their rulers.
- <sup>31</sup> He spoke, and swarms of flies and gnats came throughout their country.
- <sup>32</sup> He turned their rain into hail,
with fire flaming on their land.
- <sup>33</sup> He destroyed their vines and fig trees;
he broke the trees of their country.
- <sup>34</sup> He spoke, and the locusts came,
so many locusts.
- <sup>35</sup> The locusts ate up all of the vegetation in their land;
They ate up all the crops of the ground.
- <sup>36</sup> He killed every firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.
- <sup>37</sup> He brought the Israelites out with silver and gold;
none of his tribes stumbled on the way.
- <sup>38</sup> Egypt was glad when they went away,
for the Egyptians were afraid of them.
- <sup>39</sup> He spread a cloud for a covering and made a fire to light up the night.
- <sup>40</sup> The Israelites asked for food, and he brought quail and satisfied them with bread from heaven.
- <sup>41</sup> He split the rock, and waters gushed from it;
they flowed in the wilderness like a river.
- <sup>42</sup> For he called to mind his holy promise that he made to Abraham his servant.
- <sup>43</sup> He led his people out with joy,
his chosen with shouts of triumph.
- <sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of the nations;
they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' labors
- <sup>45</sup> so that they might keep his statutes and obey his laws.
Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>

Chapter 106

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Who can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh or proclaim in full all his praiseworthy deeds?
- <sup>3</sup> Blessed are those who do what is right, and whose deeds are always just.
- <sup>4</sup> Call me to mind, Yahweh, when you show favor to your people;
help me when you save them.
- <sup>5</sup> Then I will see the prosperity of your chosen,
rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
and glory with your inheritance.
- <sup>6</sup> We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have done wrong, and we have done evil.
- <sup>7</sup> Our fathers did not pay attention to your marvelous deeds in Egypt;
they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness;
they were rebellious at the sea, the Sea of Reeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake
so that he might reveal his power.
- <sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Sea of Reeds, and it dried up.
Then he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.
- <sup>10</sup> He saved them from the hand of those who hated them,
and he rescued them from the hand of the enemy.
- <sup>11</sup> But the waters covered their adversaries;
not one of them survived.
- <sup>12</sup> Then they believed his words,
and they sang his praise.
- <sup>13</sup> But they quickly forgot his deeds;
they did not wait for his instructions.
- <sup>14</sup> They had insatiable cravings in the wilderness,
and they challenged God in the desert.
- <sup>15</sup> So he gave them what they requested,
but he sent a horrible disease upon them.
- <sup>16</sup> In the camp they became jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy priest of Yahweh.
- <sup>17</sup> The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the company of Abiram.
- <sup>18</sup> Fire broke out in their company;
the fire consumed the wicked.
- <sup>19</sup> They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure.
- <sup>20</sup> They traded the glory of God for the image of a bull that eats grass.
- <sup>21</sup> They forgot God their Savior,
who had done great deeds in Egypt.
- <sup>22</sup> He had done wonderful things in the land of Ham and awesome deeds at the Sea of Reeds.

<sup>23</sup> So he said he would destroy them—had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him,
to turn away his anger from destroying them.

<sup>24</sup> Then they despised the delightful land;
they did not believe his promise, <sup>25</sup> but grumbled in their tents,
and did not obey Yahweh.
<sup>26</sup> Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would let them die in the desert, <sup>27</sup> scatter their descendants among the nations,
and scatter them in foreign lands.

<sup>28</sup> They worshiped the Baal of Peor
and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.
<sup>29</sup> They provoked him to anger with their actions,
and a plague broke out among them.
<sup>30</sup> Then Phinehas stood up and mediated,
and the plague subsided.
<sup>31</sup> It was counted to him as a righteous deed to all generations forever.

<sup>32</sup> They also angered Yahweh at the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them.
<sup>33</sup> They made his spirit bitter,
and he spoke thoughtlessly with his lips.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the nations
as Yahweh had commanded them, <sup>35</sup> but they mingled with the nations,
learned their practices, <sup>36</sup> and worshiped their idols,
which became a snare to them.
<sup>37</sup> They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
<sup>38</sup> They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
desecrating the land with blood.
<sup>39</sup> They were defiled by their deeds;
in their actions they were like prostitutes.

<sup>40</sup> So Yahweh was angry with his people,
and he abhorred his inheritance.
<sup>41</sup> He gave them into the hand of the nations,
and those who hated them ruled over them.
<sup>42</sup> Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were brought into subjection to their authority.
<sup>43</sup> Many times he came to help them,
but they were rebellious in their purposes and were brought low by their own iniquity.

<sup>44</sup> Nevertheless, he paid attention to their distress
when he heard their cry for help.
<sup>45</sup> He called to mind his covenant with them and relented because of his steadfast love.

- <sup>46</sup> He caused all their captors to have pity on them.
- <sup>47</sup> Save us, Yahweh, our God.
Gather us from among the nations
so that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praises.
- <sup>48</sup> May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.
All the people said, "Amen."
Give praise to Yah. <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 107

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
and his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of Yahweh speak out,
those he has rescued from the hand of the enemy.
- <sup>3</sup> He has gathered them out of foreign lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- <sup>4</sup> They wandered in the wilderness on a desert road and found no city in which to live.
- <sup>5</sup> Because they were hungry and thirsty,
they fainted from exhaustion.
- <sup>6</sup> Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he rescued them out of their distress.
- <sup>7</sup> He led them by a direct path
so that they would go to a city to live in.
- <sup>8</sup> Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- <sup>9</sup> For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty, and the desires of those who are hungry he fills up with good things.
- <sup>10</sup> Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and chains.
- <sup>11</sup> This was because they had rebelled against God's word and rejected the instruction of the Most High.
- <sup>12</sup> He humbled their hearts through hardship;
they stumbled and there was no one to help them up.
- <sup>13</sup> Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distress.
- <sup>14</sup> He brought them out of darkness and gloom and broke their bonds.
- <sup>15</sup> Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- <sup>16</sup> For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
- <sup>17</sup> They were foolish in their rebellious ways and afflicted because of their iniquities.
- <sup>18</sup> Their soul abhorred all food,
and they came close to the gates of death.
- <sup>19</sup> Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distress.
- <sup>20</sup> He sent his word and healed them,
and he rescued them from the pits in which they were trapped.
- <sup>21</sup> Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- <sup>22</sup> Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his deeds with shouts of joy.
- <sup>23</sup> Some travel on the sea in ships and do business overseas.
- <sup>24</sup> These saw the deeds of Yahweh and his wonders on the seas.

<sup>25</sup> For he commanded and aroused the windstorm that stirs up the seas.
<sup>26</sup> They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths.
Their lives melted away in distress.
<sup>27</sup> They swayed and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.
<sup>28</sup> Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.
<sup>29</sup> He calmed the storm,
and the waves were stilled.
<sup>30</sup> Then they rejoiced because the sea was calm,
and he brought them to their desired harbor.
<sup>31</sup> Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
<sup>32</sup> Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

<sup>33</sup> He turns rivers into a wilderness, springs of water into dry land, <sup>34</sup> and a fruitful land into a barren place
because of the wickedness of its people.
<sup>35</sup> He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.
<sup>36</sup> He settles the hungry there,
and they build a city to live in.
<sup>37</sup> They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest.
<sup>38</sup> He blesses them so they are very numerous.
He does not let their livestock decrease in number.

<sup>39</sup> They were diminished and brought low
by oppression, distress, and suffering.
<sup>40</sup> He pours contempt on the leaders and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there are no roads.
<sup>41</sup> But he protects the needy from affliction and cares for his families like a flock.
<sup>42</sup> The upright will see this and rejoice,
and all wickedness shuts its mouth.

<sup>43</sup> Whoever is wise should take note of these things and meditate on Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness.

Chapter 108

A song, a psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> My heart is fixed, God!
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises with all my glory.
- <sup>2</sup> Wake up, lute and harp;
I will wake up the dawn.
- <sup>3</sup> I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
- <sup>4</sup> For your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens;
and your trustworthiness reaches to the skies.
- <sup>5</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens,
and may your glory be exalted over all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> So that those you love may be rescued,
rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
- <sup>7</sup> God has spoken in his holiness; "I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
and apportion out the Valley of Sukkoth.
- <sup>8</sup> Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is my helmet;
Judah is my scepter.
- <sup>9</sup> Moab is my washbasin;
over Edom I will throw my sandal;
I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.
- <sup>10</sup> Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?"
- <sup>11</sup> God, have you not rejected us?
You do not go into battle with our army.
- <sup>12</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
for man's help is futile.
- <sup>13</sup> We will triumph with God's help;
he will trample down our enemies.

Chapter 109

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> God whom I praise,
do not be silent.
- <sup>2</sup> For the wicked and deceitful attack me;
they speak lies against me.
- <sup>3</sup> They surround me and say hateful things,
and they attack me without cause.
- <sup>4</sup> In return for my love they accuse me,
but I pray for them.
- <sup>5</sup> They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
- <sup>6</sup> Appoint a wicked man over such an enemy as these people;
appoint an accuser to stand at his right hand.
- <sup>7</sup> When he is judged, may he be found guilty;
may his prayer be considered sinful.
- <sup>8</sup> May his days be few;
may another take his office.
- <sup>9</sup> May his children be fatherless,
and may his wife be a widow.
- <sup>10</sup> May his children wander about and beg,
seeking food far from their ruined home.
- <sup>11</sup> May the creditor seize all he owns;
may strangers plunder the product of his labor.
- <sup>12</sup> May no one extend any kindness to him;
may no one have pity on his fatherless children.
- <sup>13</sup> May his descendants be cut off;
may their name be blotted out in the next generation.
- <sup>14</sup> May his ancestors' iniquity be remembered before Yahweh;
and may the sin of his mother not be forgotten.
- <sup>15</sup> May their sins always be before Yahweh;
may he cut off their memory from the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> May Yahweh do this, for that man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness,
but harassed the oppressed, the needy,
and the brokenhearted to death.
- <sup>17</sup> He loved cursing;
may it come back upon him.
He hated blessing;
may it be far from him.
- <sup>18</sup> He clothed himself with cursing as his garment,
and his curse came into his body like water,
like oil into his bones.
- <sup>19</sup> May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself, like the belt he always wears.
- <sup>20</sup> May this be the reward of my accusers from Yahweh, of those who say evil things about me.
- <sup>21</sup> Yahweh my Lord, deal kindly with me for your name's sake.
Because your covenant faithfulness is good, save me.
- <sup>22</sup> For I am oppressed and needy,
and my heart is wounded within me.

- <sup>23</sup> I am fading away like the shadow of the evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.
- <sup>24</sup> My knees are weak from fasting;
my body has become thin and has no fat.
- <sup>25</sup> I have become an object of scorn to my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.
- <sup>26</sup> Help me, Yahweh my God;
save me by your covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>27</sup> Let them know that this is your hand,
that you, Yahweh, have done this.
- <sup>28</sup> They curse, but you bless;
when they attack, may they be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.
- <sup>29</sup> May my adversaries be clothed with shame;
may they wear their shame like a robe.
- <sup>30</sup> With my mouth I give great thanks to Yahweh;
I will praise him in the midst of a crowd.
- <sup>31</sup> For he will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy, to save him from those who condemn him.

Chapter 110

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The declaration of Yahweh to my lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies your footstool."
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh will hold out the scepter of your strength from Zion;
rule among your enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your people will follow you in holy garments of their own free will on the day of your power;
from the womb of the dawn your youth will be to you like the dew.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh has sworn and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever,
after the manner of Melchizedek."
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord is at your right hand.
He will kill kings on the day of his anger.
- <sup>6</sup> He will judge the nations;
he will fill the battlegrounds with dead bodies;
he will kill the leaders in many countries.
- <sup>7</sup> He will drink of the brook along the road,
and then he will lift his head up high after victory.

Chapter 111

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart in the assembly of the upright, in their gathering.
- <sup>2</sup> The works of Yahweh are great, eagerly awaited by all those who desire them.
- <sup>3</sup> His work is majestic and glorious,
and his righteousness endures forever.
- <sup>4</sup> He does wonderful things that will be remembered;
Yahweh is gracious and merciful.
- <sup>5</sup> He gives food to his faithful followers.
He will always call to mind his covenant.
- <sup>6</sup> He showed his powerful works to his people in giving them the inheritance of the nations.
- <sup>7</sup> The works of his hands are trustworthy and just;
all his instructions are reliable.
- <sup>8</sup> They are established forever,
to be observed faithfully and properly.
- <sup>9</sup> He sent redemption to his people;
he ordained his covenant forever;
holy and awesome is his name.
- <sup>10</sup> To honor Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;
those who carry out his instructions have good understanding.
His praise endures forever.

<sup>1</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Chapter 112

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
Blessed is the man who fears Yahweh, who greatly delights in his commandments.
- <sup>2</sup> His descendants will be powerful on earth;
the descendants of the godly man will be blessed.
- <sup>3</sup> Wealth and riches are in his house;
his righteousness will endure forever.
- <sup>4</sup> Light shines in the darkness for the godly person;
he is gracious, merciful, and just.
- <sup>5</sup> It goes well for the man who deals graciously and lends money,
who conducts his affairs with honesty.
- <sup>6</sup> For he will never be moved;
the righteous person will be remembered forever.
- <sup>7</sup> He does not fear bad news;
he is confident, trusting in Yahweh.
- <sup>8</sup> His heart is tranquil, without fear,
until he looks in triumph over his adversaries.
- <sup>9</sup> He gives freely to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn will be exalted with honor.
- <sup>10</sup> The wicked person will see this and be angry;
he will grind his teeth in rage and he will melt away;
the desire of the wicked people will perish.

<sup>1</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
Praise him, you servants of Yahweh;
praise the name of Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed be the name of Yahweh,
both now and forevermore.
- <sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh's name should be praised.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is exalted above all nations,
and his glory reaches above the skies.
- <sup>5</sup> Who is like Yahweh our God,
who has his seat on high,
- <sup>6</sup> who humbles himself to look down at the sky and at the earth?
- <sup>7</sup> He raises up the poor out of the dirt and lifts up the needy from the ash heap,
- <sup>8</sup> so that he may seat him with princes,
with the princes of his people.
- <sup>9</sup> He gives a home to the barren woman of the house;
he makes her a joyful mother of children.
Give praise to Yah! <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 114

- <sup>1</sup> When Israel left Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language, <sup>2</sup> Judah became his holy place,
Israel his kingdom.
- <sup>3</sup> The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.
<sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills skipped like lambs.
- <sup>5</sup> Why did you flee, sea?
Jordan, why did you turn back?
<sup>6</sup> Mountains, why did you skip like rams?
You little hills, why did you skip like lambs?
- <sup>7</sup> Tremble, earth, before the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob.
<sup>8</sup> He turned the rock into a pool of water,
the hard rock into a spring of water.

Chapter 115

- <sup>1</sup> Not to us, Yahweh, not to us,
but to your name bring honor,
for your covenant faithfulness
and for your trustworthiness.
- <sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
- <sup>3</sup> Our God is in heaven;
he does whatever he pleases.
- <sup>4</sup> The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
- <sup>5</sup> Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;
- <sup>6</sup> they have ears, but they do not hear;
they have noses, but they do not smell.
- <sup>7</sup> Those idols have hands, but do not feel;
they have feet, but they cannot walk;
nor do they speak from their mouths.
- <sup>8</sup> Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.
- <sup>9</sup> Israel, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.
- <sup>10</sup> House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.
- <sup>11</sup> You who honor Yahweh, trust in him;
he is your help and shield.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh takes notice of us and will bless us;
he will bless the family of Israel;
he will bless the family of Aaron.
- <sup>13</sup> He will bless those who honor him,
both young and old.
- <sup>14</sup> May Yahweh increase your numbers more and more,
yours and your descendants'.
- <sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.
- <sup>16</sup> The heavens belong to Yahweh;
but the earth he has given to mankind.
- <sup>17</sup> The dead do not give praise to Yah, <sup>1</sup> nor do any who go down into silence;
- <sup>18</sup> But we will give praise to Yah,
now and forevermore.
Give praise to Yah! <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 116

- <sup>1</sup> I love Yahweh because he hears
my voice and my pleas for mercy.
<sup>2</sup> Because he listened to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.
<sup>3</sup> The cords of death surrounded me,
and the snares of Sheol confronted me;
I felt anguish and sorrow.
<sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of Yahweh:
"I beg you, Yahweh, rescue my life."

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh is gracious and just;
our God is compassionate.
<sup>6</sup> Yahweh protects the naive;
I was brought low, and he saved me.
<sup>7</sup> My soul can return to its resting place,
for Yahweh has been good to me.

<sup>8</sup> For you rescued my life from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.
<sup>9</sup> I will serve Yahweh
in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup> I believed in him, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."
<sup>11</sup> In my alarm I said,
"All men are liars."

<sup>12</sup> How can I repay Yahweh for all his kindnesses to me?
<sup>13</sup> I will raise the cup of salvation,
and call on the name of Yahweh.
<sup>14</sup> I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people.

<sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of Yahweh
is the death of his faithful ones.
<sup>16</sup> Yahweh, indeed, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your servant woman;
you have taken away my bonds.
<sup>17</sup> I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call on the name of Yahweh.
<sup>18</sup> I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people, <sup>19</sup> in the courts of the house of Yahweh,
in your midst, Jerusalem.

---

- <sup>1</sup> Praise Yahweh, all you nations;
exalt him, all you peoples.
- <sup>2</sup> For his covenant faithfulness is great toward us,
and the trustworthiness of Yahweh endures forever.

---

<sup>1</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Chapter 118

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Let Israel say,
- <sup>3</sup> Let the house of Aaron say,
- <sup>4</sup> Let the loyal followers of Yahweh say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."
- <sup>5</sup> In my distress I called out to Yah;
Yah answered me and set me in a spacious place. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh is with me; I will not be afraid;
what can man do to me?
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh is on my side as my helper;
I will look in triumph on those who hate me.
- <sup>8</sup> It is better to take shelter in Yahweh than to put confidence in man.
- <sup>9</sup> It is better to take refuge in Yahweh than to put one's trust in princes.
- <sup>10</sup> All the nations surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- <sup>11</sup> They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- <sup>12</sup> They surrounded me like bees;
they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- <sup>13</sup> "You attacked me to knock me down,
but Yahweh helped me.
- <sup>14</sup> Yah is my strength and joy, and he is the one who rescues me." <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>15</sup> The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.
- <sup>16</sup> The right hand of Yahweh is exalted;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.
- <sup>17</sup> I will not die, but live and declare what Yah has done. <sup>3</sup>
- <sup>18</sup> Yah has punished me harshly, but he has not handed me over to death. <sup>4</sup>
- <sup>19</sup> Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them and I will give thanks to Yah. <sup>5</sup>
- <sup>20</sup> This is the gate of Yahweh;
the righteous enter through it.
- <sup>21</sup> I will give thanks to you, for you answered me,
and you have become my salvation.
- <sup>22</sup> The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

- <sup>23</sup> This is Yahweh's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
- <sup>24</sup> This is the day on which Yahweh has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.
- <sup>25</sup> We beg you, Yahweh, please give us victory!
We beg you, Yahweh, please give us success!
- <sup>26</sup> Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh;
we bless you from the house of Yahweh.
- <sup>27</sup> Yahweh is God, and he has given us light;
bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.
- <sup>28</sup> You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God; I will exalt you.
- <sup>29</sup> Oh, give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>5</sup>Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Chapter 119

ALEPH

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk in the law of Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed are they who keep his solemn commands, who seek him with all their heart.
- <sup>3</sup> They do no wrong;
they walk in his ways.
- <sup>4</sup> You have commanded us to keep your instructions
so that we should carefully observe them.
- <sup>5</sup> Oh, that I would be firmly established in the observance of your statutes!
- <sup>6</sup> Then I would not be put to shame
when I think of all your commandments.
- <sup>7</sup> I will give thanks to you with an upright heart
when I learn your righteous decrees.
- <sup>8</sup> I will observe your statutes;
do not leave me alone.

BETH

- <sup>9</sup> How can a young person keep his path pure?
By obeying your word.
- <sup>10</sup> With my whole heart I seek you;
Do not let me stray from your commandments.
- <sup>11</sup> I have stored up your word in my heart
so that I might not sin against you.
- <sup>12</sup> Blessed you are, Yahweh;
teach me your statutes.
- <sup>13</sup> With my mouth I have declared
all the righteous decrees that you have revealed.
- <sup>14</sup> I rejoice in the way of your covenant decrees more than in all riches.
- <sup>15</sup> I will meditate on your instructions and pay attention to your ways.
- <sup>16</sup> I delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

- <sup>17</sup> Be kind to your servant so that I may live and keep your word.
- <sup>18</sup> Open my eyes so that I may see marvelous things in your law.
- <sup>19</sup> I am a foreigner in the land;
do not hide your commandments from me.
- <sup>20</sup> My desires are crushed by the longing to know your righteous decrees at all times.

<sup>21</sup> You rebuke the proud, who are cursed,
 who wander from your commandments.
<sup>22</sup> Spare me from disgrace and contempt,
 for I have obeyed your solemn commands.
<sup>23</sup> Though rulers plot and slander me,
 your servant meditates on your statutes.
<sup>24</sup> Your solemn commands are my delight,
 and they are my counselors.

DALETH

<sup>25</sup> My life clings to the dust!
 Give me life by your word.
<sup>26</sup> I told you my ways, and you answered me;
 teach me your statutes.
<sup>27</sup> Make me understand the ways of your instructions,
 so that I can meditate on your wondrous teachings.
<sup>28</sup> I am overwhelmed with grief!
 Strengthen me by your word.
<sup>29</sup> Turn from me the path of deceit;
 graciously teach me your law.
<sup>30</sup> I have chosen the way of faithfulness;
 I have always kept your righteous decrees before me.
<sup>31</sup> I cling to your covenant decrees;
 Yahweh, do not let me be shamed.
<sup>32</sup> I will run in the path of your commandments, for you enlarge my heart to do so.

HE

<sup>33</sup> Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes, and I will keep them to the end.
<sup>34</sup> Give me understanding, and I will keep your law;
 I will observe it with all my heart.
<sup>35</sup> Guide me in the path of your commandments, for I delight to walk in it.
<sup>36</sup> Direct my heart toward your covenant decrees and away from unrighteous gain.
<sup>37</sup> Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;
 revive me in your ways.
<sup>38</sup> Carry out for your servant the word that you gave to those who revere you.
<sup>39</sup> Take away the disgrace I dread,
 for your judgments are good.
<sup>40</sup> See, I have longed for your instructions;
 revive me in your righteousness.

VAV

<sup>41</sup> Yahweh, give me your unfailing love—
     your salvation, according to your word; <sup>42</sup> then I will have a reply for the one who mocks me,
     for I trust in your word.
<sup>43</sup> Do not take the word of truth from my mouth,
     for my hope is in your righteous decrees.
<sup>44</sup> I will observe your law continually,
     forever and ever.
<sup>45</sup> I will walk securely,
     for I seek your instructions.
<sup>46</sup> I will speak of your solemn commands before kings and will not be ashamed.
<sup>47</sup> I delight in your commandments, which I love dearly.
<sup>48</sup> I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love;
     I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

<sup>49</sup> Call to mind your word to your servant
     because you have given me hope.
<sup>50</sup> This is my comfort in my affliction:
     that your word has kept me alive.
<sup>51</sup> The proud have scoffed at me,
     yet I have not turned away from your law.
<sup>52</sup> I have thought about your righteous decrees from ancient times, Yahweh, and I comfort myself.
<sup>53</sup> Hot anger has taken hold of me
     because of the wicked who reject your law.
<sup>54</sup> Your statutes have been my songs
     in the house of my sojourn.
<sup>55</sup> I think about your name during the night, Yahweh, and I keep your law.
<sup>56</sup> This has been my practice because I have observed your instructions.

HETH

<sup>57</sup> Yahweh is my portion;
     I have determined to observe your words.
<sup>58</sup> I earnestly request your favor with my whole heart;
     be merciful to me according to your word.
<sup>59</sup> I examined my ways and turned my feet to your solemn commands.
<sup>60</sup> I hurry and do not delay
     to keep your commandments.
<sup>61</sup> The cords of the wicked have ensnared me;
     I have not forgotten your law.
<sup>62</sup> At midnight I rise to give thanks to you
     because of your righteous decrees.
<sup>63</sup> I am a companion of all who honor you,
     to all who observe your instructions.

<sup>64</sup> The earth, Yahweh, is full of your covenant faithfulness;
teach me your statutes.

TETH

<sup>65</sup> You have done good to your servant,
Yahweh, by means of your word.
<sup>66</sup> Teach me proper discernment and understanding,
for I have believed in your commandments.
<sup>67</sup> Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I observe your word.
<sup>68</sup> You are good, and you are one who does good;
teach me your statutes.
<sup>69</sup> The arrogant have smeared me with lies,
but I keep your instructions with my whole heart.
<sup>70</sup> Their hearts are hardened,
but I delight in your law.
<sup>71</sup> It is good for me that I have suffered so that I would learn your statutes.
<sup>72</sup> Instruction from your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YOD

<sup>73</sup> Your hands have made and fashioned me;
give me understanding so that I may learn your commandments.
<sup>74</sup> Those who honor you will be glad when they see me because I find hope in your word.
<sup>75</sup> I know, Yahweh, that your decrees are just,
and that in faithfulness you afflicted me.
<sup>76</sup> Let your covenant faithfulness comfort me,
according to your word to your servant.
<sup>77</sup> Show me compassion so that I may live,
for your law is my delight.
<sup>78</sup> Let the proud be put to shame,
for they have slandered me;
but I will meditate on your instructions.
<sup>79</sup> May those who honor you turn to me,
those who know your solemn commands.
<sup>80</sup> May my heart be blameless with respect to your statutes
so that I may not be put to shame.

KAPH

<sup>81</sup> I faint with longing that you might rescue me!
I hope in your word.
<sup>82</sup> My eyes long for your word;
when will you comfort me?
<sup>83</sup> For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke;
I do not forget your statutes.

<sup>84</sup> How long must your servant endure this;
       when will you judge those who persecute me?
<sup>85</sup> The proud have dug pits for me,
       defying your law.
<sup>86</sup> All your commandments are reliable;
       those people persecute me wrongfully; help me.
<sup>87</sup> They have almost made an end to me on earth,
       but I do not reject your instructions.
<sup>88</sup> By your steadfast love, keep me alive,
       so that I may obey the solemn commands that come from your mouth.

LAMEDH

<sup>89</sup> Yahweh, your word stands forever;
       your word is established firmly in heaven.
<sup>90</sup> Your faithfulness lasts for all generations;
       you have established the earth, and it remains.
<sup>91</sup> All things continue to this day, just as you said in your righteous decrees, for all things are your servants.
<sup>92</sup> If your law had not been my delight,
       I would have perished in my affliction.
<sup>93</sup> I will never forget your instructions,
       for through them you have kept me alive.
<sup>94</sup> I am yours; save me,
       for I seek your instructions.
<sup>95</sup> The wicked prepare to destroy me,
       but I will seek to understand your solemn commands.
<sup>96</sup> All perfection I have seen has an end;
       but your command is exceedingly broad.

MEM

<sup>97</sup> Oh how I love your law!
       It is my meditation all day long.
<sup>98</sup> Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
       for your commandments are always with me.
<sup>99</sup> I have more understanding than all my teachers, for I meditate on your covenant decrees.
<sup>100</sup> I understand more than those older than I am;
       this is because I have kept your instructions.
<sup>101</sup> I have kept my feet back from every evil path
       so that I might observe your word.
<sup>102</sup> I have not turned aside from your righteous decrees, for you have instructed me.
<sup>103</sup> How sweet are your words to my taste,
       yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
<sup>104</sup> Through your instructions I gain discernment;
       therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

<sup>105</sup> Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.
<sup>106</sup> I have sworn and have confirmed it,
 that I will observe your righteous decrees.
<sup>107</sup> I am very afflicted;
 keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your word.
<sup>108</sup> Yahweh, please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, and teach me your righteous decrees.
<sup>109</sup> My life is always in my hand,
 yet I do not forget your law.
<sup>110</sup> The wicked have set a snare for me,
 but I have not strayed from your instructions.
<sup>111</sup> I claim your covenant decrees as my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.
<sup>112</sup> My heart is set on obeying your statutes forever to the very end.

SAMEKH

<sup>113</sup> I hate those who have a double mind,
 but I love your law.
<sup>114</sup> You are my hiding place and my shield;
 I hope in your word.
<sup>115</sup> Get away from me, you evildoers,
 so that I may observe the commandments of my God.
<sup>116</sup> Sustain me by your word so that I may live and not be ashamed of my hope.
<sup>117</sup> Support me, and I will be safe;
 I will always meditate on your statutes.
<sup>118</sup> You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for their deceit is vain.
<sup>119</sup> You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag;
 therefore I love your solemn commands.
<sup>120</sup> My body trembles in fear of you, and I am afraid of your righteous decrees.

AYIN

<sup>121</sup> I do what is just and right;
 do not abandon me to my oppressors.
<sup>122</sup> Guarantee the welfare of your servant;
 do not let the proud oppress me.
<sup>123</sup> My eyes grow tired as I wait for your salvation and for your righteous word.
<sup>124</sup> Show your servant your covenant faithfulness,
 and teach me your statutes.
<sup>125</sup> I am your servant; give me understanding so that I may know your solemn commands.
<sup>126</sup> It is time for Yahweh to act,
 for people have broken your law.
<sup>127</sup> Truly I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.

<sup>128</sup> Therefore I carefully follow all your instructions, and I hate every path of falsehood.

PE

<sup>129</sup> Your rules are wonderful,
that is why I obey them.
<sup>130</sup> The unfolding of your words gives light;
it gives understanding to the untrained.
<sup>131</sup> I open my mouth and pant,
for I long for your commandments.
<sup>132</sup> Turn to me and have mercy on me, as you always do for those who love your name.
<sup>133</sup> Direct my footsteps by your word;
do not let any wickedness rule me.
<sup>134</sup> Redeem me from human oppression
so that I may observe your instructions.
<sup>135</sup> Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your statutes.
<sup>136</sup> Streams of tears run down from my eyes because people do not observe your law.

TSADHE

<sup>137</sup> You are righteous, Yahweh,
and your decrees are fair.
<sup>138</sup> You have given your solemn commands righteously and faithfully.
<sup>139</sup> Zeal has destroyed me
because my adversaries forget your words.
<sup>140</sup> Your word has been tested very much,
and your servant loves it.
<sup>141</sup> I am insignificant and despised,
yet I do not forget your instructions.
<sup>142</sup> Your justice is forever justice,
and your law is trustworthy.
<sup>143</sup> Though distress and anguish have found me,
your commandments are still my delight.
<sup>144</sup> Your covenant decrees are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

QOPH

<sup>145</sup> I cried out with my whole heart, "Answer me, Yahweh,
I will keep your statutes.
<sup>146</sup> I call to you; save me,
and I will observe your solemn commands."
<sup>147</sup> I rise before the dawn of the morning and cry for help.
I hope in your words.
<sup>148</sup> My eyes are open before the night watches change

so that I might meditate on your word.
<sup>149</sup> Hear my voice in your covenant faithfulness;
 keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your righteous decrees.
<sup>150</sup> Those who are persecuting me are coming closer to me, but they are far from your law.
<sup>151</sup> You are near, Yahweh,
 and all your commandments are trustworthy.
<sup>152</sup> Long ago I learned from your solemn commands that you had set them in place forever.

RESH

<sup>153</sup> Look on my affliction and help me, for I do not forget your law.
<sup>154</sup> Plead my cause and redeem me;
 keep me alive according to your word.
<sup>155</sup> Salvation is far from the wicked,
 for they do not love your statutes.
<sup>156</sup> Great are your merciful actions, Yahweh;
 keep me alive, as you always do.
<sup>157</sup> My persecutors and my foes are many,
 yet I have not turned from your covenant decrees.
<sup>158</sup> I view the treacherous with disgust
 because they do not keep your word.
<sup>159</sup> See how I love your instructions;
 keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised by your covenant faithfulness.
<sup>160</sup> The essence of your word is truth;
 every one of your righteous decrees lasts forever.

SHIN

<sup>161</sup> Princes persecute me without cause,
 but my heart stands in awe of your word.
<sup>162</sup> I rejoice at your word like one who finds great plunder.
<sup>163</sup> I hate and abhor falsehood,
 but I love your law.
<sup>164</sup> Seven times a day I praise you
 because of your righteous decrees.
<sup>165</sup> Great peace they have, those who love your law;
 nothing makes them stumble.
<sup>166</sup> I hope for your salvation, Yahweh, and I obey your commandments.
<sup>167</sup> I observe your solemn commands,
 and I love them greatly.
<sup>168</sup> I keep your instructions and your solemn commands, for you are aware of everything I do.

TAV

- <sup>169</sup> Listen to my cry for help, Yahweh;
give me understanding into your word.
- <sup>170</sup> May my plea come before you;
help me according to your word.
- <sup>171</sup> May my lips pour out praise,
for you teach me your statutes.
- <sup>172</sup> Let my tongue sing about your word,
for all your commandments are right.
- <sup>173</sup> May your hand help me,
for I have chosen your instructions.
- <sup>174</sup> I long for your rescue, Yahweh,
and your law is my delight.
- <sup>175</sup> May I live and praise you,
and may your righteous decrees help me.
- <sup>176</sup> I have wandered off like a lost sheep;
seek your servant,
for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Chapter 120

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> In my distress I called out to Yahweh,
and he answered me.

<sup>2</sup> Rescue my life, Yahweh,
from those who lie with their lips
and deceive with their tongues.

<sup>3</sup> How will he punish you,
and what more will he do to you,
you who have a lying tongue?

<sup>4</sup> He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree.

I lived previously among the tents of Kedar.

<sup>6</sup> For too long I have lived with those who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup> I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

---

Chapter 121

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> I will lift up my eyes to the mountains.
From where will my help come?
- <sup>2</sup> My help comes from Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.
- <sup>3</sup> He will not allow your foot to slip;
he who protects you will not slumber.
- <sup>4</sup> See, the guardian of Israel never slumbers or sleeps.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is your guardian;
Yahweh is the shade at your right hand.
- <sup>6</sup> The sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh will protect you from all harm,
and he will protect your life.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh will protect you in all you do
now and forevermore.

Chapter 122

A song of ascents, of David.

<sup>1</sup> I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of Yahweh."

<sup>2</sup> Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!

<sup>3</sup> Jerusalem, built as a city carefully planned!

<sup>4</sup> The tribes go up to Jerusalem—the tribes of Yah— <sup>1</sup>
as a testimony for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> There thrones of judgment were set, thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
"May those who love you be at ease.

<sup>7</sup> May there be peace within the walls that defend you,
and may they have peace within your fortresses."

<sup>8</sup> For the sake of my brothers and my friends
I will say, "May there be peace within you."

<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God,
I will seek good for you.

---

---

Chapter 123

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> To you I lift up my eyes,
you who are enthroned in the heavens.
- <sup>2</sup> See, as the eyes of servants look to their master's hand, as the eyes of a servant girl look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to Yahweh our God until he has mercy on us.
- <sup>3</sup> Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us,
for we are filled with humiliation.
- <sup>4</sup> We are more than full of the scoffing of the insolent and with the contempt of the proud.

Chapter 124

A song of ascents. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> "If Yahweh had not been on our side,"
let Israel say now, <sup>2</sup> "if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side when men rose up against us, <sup>3</sup> then they would have swallowed us up alive
when their anger raged against us.
<sup>4</sup> The water would have swept us away;
the torrent would have overwhelmed us.
<sup>5</sup> Then the raging waters would have drowned us."
- <sup>6</sup> Blessed be Yahweh,
who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth.
<sup>7</sup> We have escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers;
the snare has been broken,
and we have escaped.
- <sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

Chapter 125

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> Those who trust in Yahweh are like Mount Zion, unshakable, forever enduring.
  - <sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds his people
now and forever.
  - <sup>3</sup> The scepter of wickedness must not rule
in the assigned portion of the righteous.
Otherwise the righteous might do what is wrong.
  - <sup>4</sup> Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good and to those who are upright in their hearts.
  - <sup>5</sup> But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Yahweh will lead them away with the those who behave wickedly.
May peace be on Israel.

Chapter 126

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> When Yahweh reversed the captivity of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

<sup>2</sup> Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with joyful shouting.
Then they said among the nations,
"Yahweh has done great things for them."

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh did great things for us;
how glad we were!

like the streams in the Negev.

<sup>5</sup> Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

<sup>6</sup> He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will return again with shouts of joy,
bringing his bundles of grain with him.

---

Chapter 127

A song of ascents, of Solomon.

- <sup>1</sup> Unless Yahweh builds the house,
they work uselessly, those who build it.
Unless Yahweh guards the city,
the watchman stands guard uselessly.
- <sup>2</sup> It is useless for you to rise up early,
to come home late,
or to eat the bread of hard work,
for Yahweh provides for his beloved as they sleep.
- <sup>3</sup> See, children are a heritage from Yahweh,
and the fruit of the womb is a reward from him.
- <sup>4</sup> Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
so are the children of one's youth.
- <sup>5</sup> How blessed is the man that has his quiver full of them.
He will not be put to shame
when he confronts his enemies in the gate.

Chapter 128

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is everyone who honors Yahweh, who walks in his ways.

<sup>2</sup> The labor of your hands you will enjoy;
you will be blessed and prosper.

<sup>3</sup> Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
in your house;
your children will be like olive plants
as they sit around your table.

<sup>4</sup> Yes, indeed, the man will be blessed who honors Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> May Yahweh bless you from Zion;
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

<sup>6</sup> May you live to see your children's children.
May peace be on Israel.

---

Chapter 129

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> "Often since my youth they have attacked me,"
let Israel say.
  - <sup>2</sup> "Often since my youth they have attacked me,
yet they have not defeated me.
  - <sup>3</sup> The plowers plowed on my back;
they made their furrows long.
  - <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is righteous;
he has cut off the ropes of the wicked."
  - <sup>5</sup> May they all be put to shame and turned back,
those who hate Zion.
  - <sup>6</sup> May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,
  - <sup>7</sup> that cannot fill the reaper's hand or the chest of the one who binds bundles of grain together.
  - <sup>8</sup> May those who pass by not say,
"May the blessing of Yahweh be on you;
we bless you in the name of Yahweh."
-

Chapter 130

A song of ascents.

<sup>2</sup> Lord, hear my voice;
let your ears be attentive
to my pleas for mercy.

Lord, who could stand? <sup>1</sup>

<sup>4</sup> But there is forgiveness with you,
that you may be revered.

<sup>5</sup> I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope.

<sup>6</sup> My soul waits for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning.

<sup>7</sup> Israel, hope in Yahweh.
Yahweh is merciful,
and with him is great redemption.

<sup>8</sup> It is he who will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

---

---

Chapter 131

A song of ascents; of David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty.

I do not have great hopes for myself or concern myself with things that are beyond me.

<sup>2</sup> Indeed I have stilled and quieted my soul;
like a weaned child with his mother,
my soul within me is like a weaned child.

<sup>3</sup> Israel, hope in Yahweh
now and forever.

---

Chapter 132

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, for David's sake call to mind
all his afflictions.
- <sup>2</sup> Call to mind how he swore to Yahweh,
how he vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob.
- <sup>3</sup> He said, "I will not enter the tent of my house or get on the couch of my bed,
- <sup>4</sup> I will not give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids
- <sup>5</sup> until I find a place for Yahweh, a tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob."
- <sup>6</sup> See, we heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.
- <sup>7</sup> We will go into God's tabernacle;
we will worship at his footstool.
- <sup>8</sup> Arise, Yahweh, to your resting place,
you and the ark of your strength!
- <sup>9</sup> May your priests be clothed with integrity;
may your faithful ones shout for joy.
- <sup>10</sup> For your servant David's sake,
do not turn away from your anointed king.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh swore a sure oath to David,
a sure oath that he will not revoke:
"I will place one of your descendants on your throne.
- <sup>12</sup> If your sons keep my covenant
and the solemn commands that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."
- <sup>13</sup> Certainly Yahweh has chosen Zion,
he has desired her for his seat.
- <sup>14</sup> "This is my resting place forever.
I will live here, for I desire her.
- <sup>15</sup> I will abundantly bless her with provisions.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
- <sup>16</sup> I will clothe her priests with salvation,
her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy.
- <sup>17</sup> There I will make a horn to sprout for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.
- <sup>18</sup> I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

Chapter 133

A song of ascents. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together!
- <sup>2</sup> It is like fine oil on the head pouring down on the beard—Aaron's beard,
and then it pours down on the collar of his robes.
- <sup>3</sup> It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there Yahweh commanded the blessing—life forevermore.

Chapter 134

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Come, bless Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, you who serve during the night in the house of Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup> Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup> May Yahweh bless you from Zion,
he who made heaven and earth.

---

Chapter 135

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah! <sup>1</sup>
     Praise the name of Yahweh.
     Praise him, you servants of Yahweh,
<sup>2</sup> you who stand in the house of Yahweh,
     in the courtyards of the house of our God.
- <sup>3</sup> Give praise to Yah, for he is good; <sup>2</sup> sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant to do so.
- <sup>4</sup> For Yah has chosen Jacob for himself, <sup>3</sup> Israel as his own possession.
- <sup>5</sup> I know that Yahweh is great,
     that our Lord is above all gods.
- <sup>6</sup> Whatever Yahweh desires, he does in heaven, on earth,
     in the seas and all the ocean depths.
- <sup>7</sup> He brings the clouds from far away,
     making lightning bolts accompany the rain and bringing the wind out of his storehouse.
- <sup>8</sup> He killed the firstborn of Egypt,
     both of man and animals.
- <sup>9</sup> He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
- <sup>10</sup> He attacked many nations
     and killed mighty kings,
- <sup>11</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites
     and Og king of Bashan
     and all the kingdoms of Canaan.
- <sup>12</sup> He gave us their land as an inheritance,
     an inheritance to Israel his people.
- <sup>13</sup> Your name, Yahweh, endures forever;
     your renown, Yahweh, endures throughout all generations.
- <sup>14</sup> For Yahweh defends his people and has compassion on his servants.
- <sup>15</sup> The nations' idols are silver and gold,
     the work of men's hands.
- <sup>16</sup> Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
     they have eyes, but they do not see;
- <sup>17</sup> they have ears, but they do not give ear,
     nor is there breath in their mouths.
- <sup>18</sup> Those who make them are like them,
     as is everyone who trusts in them.
- <sup>19</sup> Descendants of Israel, bless Yahweh;
     descendants of Aaron, bless Yahweh.
- <sup>20</sup> Descendants of Levi, bless Yahweh;
     you who honor Yahweh, bless Yahweh.
- <sup>21</sup> Blessed be Yahweh in Zion,
     he who lives in Jerusalem.
     Give praise to Yah. <sup>4</sup>

Chapter 136

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good.
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>2</sup> Give thanks to the God of gods.
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>3</sup> Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>4</sup> to him who alone does great wonders;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>5</sup> to him who by wisdom made the heavens;
- <sup>6</sup> to him who spread out the earth above the waters;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>7</sup> to him who made great lights;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>8</sup> to him who gave the sun to rule by day,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>9</sup> the moon and stars to rule by night;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>10</sup> to him who killed the firstborn of Egypt
- <sup>11</sup> and brought out Israel from among them
- <sup>12</sup> with a strong hand and a raised arm;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>13</sup> to him who divided the Sea of Reeds
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>14</sup> and made Israel to pass through the middle of it,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>15</sup> but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Reeds;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>16</sup> to him who led his people through the wilderness;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>17</sup> to him who killed great kings;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>18</sup> to him who killed majestic kings,
- <sup>19</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites
- <sup>20</sup> and Og king of Bashan;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>21</sup> to him who gave their land as an inheritance,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>22</sup> an inheritance to Israel his servant;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>23</sup> to him who called us to mind and helped us in our humiliation;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- <sup>24</sup> to him who has rescued us from our enemies,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

- <sup>25</sup> who gives food to all living beings.
- <sup>26</sup> Give thanks to the God of heaven.
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

Chapter 137

- <sup>1</sup> By the rivers of Babylon
we sat down and wept
when we thought about Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> There on the poplars in the midst of it
we hung our harps.
- <sup>3</sup> There our captors required songs from us,
and those who mocked us required joy from us, saying,
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
- <sup>4</sup> How could we sing a song about Yahweh
in a foreign land?
- <sup>5</sup> If I ignore the memory of you, Jerusalem,
let my right hand forget her skill.
- <sup>6</sup> Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I think about you no more,
if I do not prefer Jerusalem more than my greatest delights.
- <sup>7</sup> Call to mind, Yahweh, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell.
They said, "Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations."
- <sup>8</sup> Daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed—
may the person be blessed, whoever pays you back for what you have done to us.
- <sup>9</sup> May the person be blessed,
whoever takes and dashes your little ones against a rock.

Chapter 138

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will give you thanks with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to you.
  - <sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.
You have made your word and your name more important than anything else.
  - <sup>3</sup> On the day that I called you, you answered me;
you made me bold and strengthened my soul.
  - <sup>4</sup> All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they will hear the words from your mouth.
  - <sup>5</sup> Indeed, they will sing of the deeds of Yahweh, for great is the glory of Yahweh.
  - <sup>6</sup> For though Yahweh is high, yet he cares for the lowly,
but the proud he knows from far off.
  - <sup>7</sup> Though I walk in the middle of trouble,
you will preserve my life;
you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies,
and your right hand will save me.
  - <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is with me to the end;
your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever.
Do not abandon the works of your hands.

Chapter 139

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you have examined me,
and you know me.
- <sup>2</sup> You know when I sit down and when I get up;
you understand my thoughts from far away.
- <sup>3</sup> You observe my path and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.
- <sup>4</sup> For before there is a word on my tongue,
you know it completely, Yahweh.
- <sup>5</sup> Behind me and before me you surround me
and place your hand upon me.
- <sup>6</sup> Such knowledge is incomprehensible to me;
it is too high, and I cannot reach it.
- <sup>7</sup> Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
- <sup>8</sup> If I ascend up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.
- <sup>9</sup> If I fly away on the wings of the dawn and go to live in the uttermost parts across the sea,
- <sup>10</sup> even there your hand will lead me,
your right hand will hold on to me.
- <sup>11</sup> If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me,
and the light will become night around me,"
- <sup>12</sup> even the darkness would not be dark to you.
The night would shine like the day,
for the darkness and the light are both alike to you.
- <sup>13</sup> You formed my inner parts;
you formed me in my mother's womb.
- <sup>14</sup> I will praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows this very well.
- <sup>15</sup> My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in private,
when I was intricately made in the depths of the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> You saw me inside the womb;
all the days assigned to me were recorded in your book even before the first one happened.
- <sup>17</sup> How precious are your thoughts to me, God!
How vast is their sum!
- <sup>18</sup> If I tried to count them,
they would be more in number than the sand.
When I awake, I am still with you.
- <sup>19</sup> If only you would kill the wicked, God;
get away from me, you men of bloodshed.
- <sup>20</sup> They rebel against you and act deceitfully;
your enemies tell lies.
- <sup>21</sup> Do I not hate those, Yahweh, who hate you?

Do I not despise those who rise up against you?

<sup>22</sup> I hate them completely;
they have become my enemies.

<sup>23</sup> Examine me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my thoughts.

<sup>24</sup> See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the everlasting way.

---

Chapter 140

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, rescue me from the wicked;
preserve me from violent men.

<sup>2</sup> They plan evil in their hearts;
they cause battles every day.

<sup>3</sup> Their tongues wound like serpents;
vipers' poison is on their lips.

Selah

<sup>4</sup> Keep me from the hands of the wicked, Yahweh;
preserve me from violent men
who plan to push down my steps.

<sup>5</sup> The proud have set a trap for me;
they have spread a net;
they have set a snare for me.

Selah

<sup>6</sup> I said to Yahweh, "You are my God; give ear to the sound of my pleas."

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, my Lord, you are powerfully able to save me;
you shield my head in the day of battle.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, do not grant the desires of the wicked;
do not let their evil plans succeed.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> Those who surround me raise their heads;
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

<sup>10</sup> Let burning coals fall on them;
throw them into the fire,
into bottomless pits, never more to rise.

<sup>11</sup> May men of tongues not be made secure on the earth;
may evil hunt down the violent man to strike him dead.

<sup>12</sup> I know that Yahweh will judge in favor of the afflicted, and that he will give justice to the needy.

<sup>13</sup> Surely the righteous people will give thanks to your name;
the upright people will live in your presence.

---

Chapter 141

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I am crying out to you; come quickly to me.
Give ear to my voice when I call to you.
- <sup>2</sup> May my prayer be like incense before you;
may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, place a guard over my mouth;
guard the door of my lips.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not let my heart desire any evil thing or participate in wicked deeds with men who behave wickedly.
May I not eat any of their delicacies.
- <sup>5</sup> Let a righteous man hit me; it will be a kindness to me.
Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head;
may my head not refuse to accept it.
But my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.
- <sup>6</sup> Their judges will be thrown down from the top of cliffs;
they will hear that my own words are pleasant.
- <sup>7</sup> They will have to say, "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol."
- <sup>8</sup> Surely my eyes are on you, Yahweh, Lord;
in you I take refuge; do not leave my soul defenseless.
- <sup>9</sup> Protect me from the snares that they have laid for me,
from the traps of those who behave wickedly.
- <sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall into their own nets
while I escape.

Chapter 142

A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.

<sup>1</sup> With my voice I cry out for help to Yahweh;
with my voice I plead for Yahweh's favor.

I tell him my troubles.

<sup>3</sup> When my spirit is weak within me,
you know my path.
In the way that I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.

<sup>4</sup> I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares about me.
There is no escape for me;
no one cares about my life.

<sup>5</sup> I called out to you, Yahweh;
I said, "You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.

<sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry,
for I have been brought very low;
rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are stronger than I.

<sup>7</sup> Bring my soul out of prison
so that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will gather around me because you have been good to me."

---

Chapter 143

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, Yahweh;
give ear to my pleas.
Because of your faithfulness and righteousness,
answer me!
- <sup>2</sup> Do not enter into judgment with your servant,
for in your sight no one is righteous.
- <sup>3</sup> The enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed me to the ground;
he has made me to live in darkness
like those who have been dead a long time.
- <sup>4</sup> My spirit is overwhelmed within me;
my heart is appalled.
- <sup>5</sup> I call to mind the old days;
I meditate on all your deeds;
I reflect on your accomplishments.
- <sup>6</sup> I spread my hands out to you;
my soul thirsts for you in a parched land.
- <sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, Yahweh,
because my spirit faints.
Do not hide your face from me,
or I will become like those who go down into the pit.
- <sup>8</sup> Let me hear your covenant faithfulness in the morning, for I trust in you.
Show me the way where I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to you.
- <sup>9</sup> Rescue me from my enemies, Yahweh;
I flee to you to hide.
- <sup>10</sup> Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.
May your good Spirit
lead me in the land of uprightness.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh, for your name's sake, keep me alive;
in your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
- <sup>12</sup> In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies and destroy all the enemies of my life,
for I am your servant.

Selah

Chapter 144

A psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war
    and my fingers for battle.
- <sup>2</sup> You are my covenant faithfulness and my fortress,
    my high tower and the one who rescues me,
my shield and the one in whom I take refuge,
    the one who subdues nations under me.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?
- <sup>4</sup> Man is like a breath;
    his days are like a passing shadow.
- <sup>5</sup> Cause the sky to sink and come down, Yahweh;
    touch the mountains and make them smoke.
- <sup>6</sup> Send flashes of lightning and scatter my enemies;
    shoot your arrows and drive them back in confusion.
- <sup>7</sup> Reach out your hand from above;
    rescue me out of many waters,
    from the hand of foreigners.
- <sup>8</sup> Their mouths speak lies,
    and their right hand is falsehood.
- <sup>9</sup> I will sing a new song to you, God;
    on a lute of ten strings I will sing praises to you,
- <sup>10</sup> who gives salvation to kings,
    who rescues David your servant from an evil sword.
- <sup>11</sup> Rescue me and free me
    from the hand of foreigners.
Their mouths speak lies,
    and their right hand is falsehood.
- <sup>12</sup> May our sons be like plants who grow to full size in their youth and our daughters like carved corner pillars, shapely like those of a palace.
- <sup>13</sup> May our storehouses be full with every kind of produce, and may our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
- <sup>14</sup> Then our oxen will have many young.
    No one will break through our walls; there will be no exile and no outcry in our streets.
- <sup>15</sup> Blessed is the people with such blessings;
    happy is the people whose God is Yahweh.

Chapter 145

A psalm of praise. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will extol you, my God, King;
I will bless your name forever and ever.
  - <sup>2</sup> Every day will I bless you;
I will praise your name forever and ever.
  - <sup>3</sup> Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.
  - <sup>4</sup> One generation will praise your deeds to the next and will proclaim your mighty actions.
  - <sup>5</sup> I will meditate on the majesty of your glory and on your marvelous deeds.
  - <sup>6</sup> They will speak of the power of your awesome works,
and I will declare your greatness.
  - <sup>7</sup> They will declare your abounding goodness,
and they will shout joyfully about your righteousness.
  - <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and great in steadfast love.
  - <sup>9</sup> Yahweh is good to all;
his tender mercies are over all his works.
  - <sup>10</sup> All your works will give thanks to you, Yahweh;
your faithful ones will bless you.
  - <sup>11</sup> They will speak of the glory of your kingdom,
and they will tell of your power.
  - <sup>12</sup> They will make known to mankind God's mighty deeds and the glorious splendor of his kingdom.
  - <sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and your dominion endures throughout all generations.
  - <sup>14</sup> Yahweh supports all who are falling and raises up all those who are bent over.
  - <sup>15</sup> The eyes of all wait for you;
you give them their food at the right time.
  - <sup>16</sup> You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
  - <sup>17</sup> Yahweh is righteous in all his ways and faithful in all his deeds.
  - <sup>18</sup> Yahweh is near to all those who call to him,
to all who call to him in trustworthiness.
  - <sup>19</sup> He fulfills the desire of those who honor him;
he hears their cry and saves them.
  - <sup>20</sup> Yahweh watches over all those who love him,
but he will destroy all the wicked.
  - <sup>21</sup> My mouth will speak out the praise of Yahweh;
let all mankind bless his holy name
forever and ever.

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
Praise Yahweh, my soul.
- <sup>2</sup> I give praise to Yahweh with all my life;
I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not put your trust in princes or in mankind, in whom there is no salvation.
- <sup>4</sup> When a person's life's breath stops, he returns to the ground;
on that day his plans end.
- <sup>5</sup> Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yahweh his God.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them;
he observes trustworthiness forever.
- <sup>7</sup> He executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.
Yahweh frees the prisoners;
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind;
Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down;
Yahweh loves the righteous people.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh protects the foreigners in the land;
he supports the fatherless and widow,
but he opposes the wicked.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh will reign forever,
your God, Zion, for all generations.
Give praise to Yah. <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 147

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah, <sup>1</sup>
     for it is good to sing praises to our God;
     it is pleasant, and praise is suitable.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh rebuilds Jerusalem;
     he gathers together the scattered people of Israel.
- <sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
- <sup>4</sup> He counts the stars;
     he gives names to all of them.
- <sup>5</sup> Great is our Lord and awesome in power;
     his understanding cannot be measured.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh supports the oppressed;
     he brings the wicked down to the ground.
- <sup>7</sup> Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving;
     sing praises to our God with a harp.
- <sup>8</sup> He covers the heavens with clouds and prepares rain for the earth,
     making the grass to grow on the mountains.
- <sup>9</sup> He gives food to the animals and to the young ravens when they cry.
- <sup>10</sup> He finds no delight in the strength of a horse;
     he takes no pleasure in the strong legs of a man.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh takes pleasure in those who honor him,
     who hope in his covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>12</sup> Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem;
     praise your God, Zion.
- <sup>13</sup> For he strengthens the bars of your gates;
     he blesses your children among you.
- <sup>14</sup> He brings prosperity inside your borders;
     he satisfies you with the finest of wheat.
- <sup>15</sup> He sends out his commandment to earth;
     his command runs very swiftly.
- <sup>16</sup> He makes the snow like wool;
     he scatters the frost like ashes.
- <sup>17</sup> He dispenses the hail like crumbs;
     who can withstand the cold he sends?
- <sup>18</sup> He sends out his command and melts them;
     he makes the wind to blow and the water to flow.
- <sup>19</sup> He proclaimed his word to Jacob,
     his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel.
- <sup>20</sup> He has not done so with any other nation,
     and as for his decrees, they do not know them.
- Give praise to Yah. <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 148

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah. <sup>1</sup>
Praise Yahweh, you in the heavens;
praise him, you in the heights.
- <sup>2</sup> Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his hosts.
- <sup>3</sup> Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.
- <sup>4</sup> Praise him, highest heaven and you waters that are above the sky.
- <sup>5</sup> Let them praise the name of Yahweh,
for he gave the command, and they were created.
- <sup>6</sup> He has also established them forever and ever;
he issued a decree that will never change.
- <sup>7</sup> Praise him from the earth,
you sea monsters and all ocean depths,
- <sup>8</sup> fire and hail, snow and clouds,
stormy wind fulfilling his word.
- <sup>9</sup> Praise him, mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,
- <sup>10</sup> Wild animals and all livestock,
creatures that crawl and birds with wings.
- <sup>11</sup> Praise Yahweh, you kings of the earth and all nations,
you princes, and all you judges of the earth,
- <sup>12</sup> both young men and young women,
elderly and children.
- <sup>13</sup> Let them all praise the name of Yahweh, for his name alone is exalted and his glory extends over the earth and the heavens.
- <sup>14</sup> He has lifted up the horn of his people for praise from all his faithful ones,
the people of Israel, the people near to him.
Give praise to Yah. <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 149

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah! <sup>1</sup>
Sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.
- <sup>2</sup> Let Israel rejoice in the one who made them;
let the people of Zion rejoice in their king.
- <sup>3</sup> Let them praise his name with dancing;
let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp.
- <sup>4</sup> For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people;
he glorifies the humble with salvation.
- <sup>5</sup> Let the faithful ones rejoice in this honor;
let them sing for joy on their beds.
- <sup>6</sup> May the praises of God be in their mouths and a two-edged sword in their hand
- <sup>7</sup> to execute vengeance on the nations and acts of punishment on the peoples.
- <sup>8</sup> They will bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron shackles.
- <sup>9</sup> They will execute the judgment that is written.
This will be an honor for all his faithful ones.
Give praise to Yah. <sup>2</sup>

Chapter 150

- <sup>1</sup> Give praise to Yah! <sup>1</sup>
 Praise God in his holy place;
 praise him in the mighty heavens.
- <sup>2</sup> Praise him for his mighty acts;
 praise him for his surpassing greatness.
- <sup>3</sup> Praise him with the blast of the horn;
 praise him with lute and harp.
- <sup>4</sup> Praise him with tambourines and dancing;
 praise him with stringed instruments and pipe.
- <sup>5</sup> Praise him with loud cymbals;
 praise him with high sounding cymbals.
- <sup>6</sup> Let everything that has breath give praise to Yah!
 Give praise to Yah! <sup>2</sup>

Proverbs

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon son of David, the king of Israel.

- <sup>2</sup> These proverbs are to teach wisdom and instruction,
 to teach words of insight,
- <sup>3</sup> that you may receive instruction in prudent behavior, righteousness, justice, and uprightness.
- <sup>4</sup> These proverbs are also to give wisdom to the naive, and to give knowledge and discretion to the youth.
- <sup>5</sup> Let wise people listen and increase their learning, and let discerning people get wise counsel,
- <sup>6</sup> to understand proverbs, parables,
 and words of wise people and their riddles.
- <sup>7</sup> The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge—fools despise wisdom and instruction.
- <sup>8</sup> My son, hear the instruction of your father and do not abandon the rules of your mother;
- <sup>9</sup> they will be a graceful wreath for your head and pendants hanging from your neck.
- <sup>10</sup> My son, if sinners try to entice you into their sin,
 do not go with them.
- <sup>11</sup> If they say, "Come with us,
 let us lie in wait for blood,
 let us hide and attack innocent people for no reason;
- <sup>12</sup> let us swallow them up alive, like Sheol takes away those who are healthy, and make them like those who go down into the pit;
- <sup>13</sup> we will find all kinds of valuable things;

we will fill our houses with plunder;
 14 throw in your lot with us,
 and we will all have one purse together"— 15 my son, do not walk down that path with them;
 do not let your foot touch where they walk;
 16 their feet run to evil
 and they hurry to shed blood.
 17 For it is useless to spread the net
 in the sight of any bird.
 18 These men lie in wait for their own blood—
 they set an ambush for their own lives.
 19 So are the ways of everyone who gains profit by violence;
 unjust gain takes away the lives of those who hold on to it.

20 Wisdom cries aloud in the street,
 she raises her voice in the open places;
 21 at the head of the noisy streets she cries out,
 at the entrance of the city gates she speaks her sayings,

22 "How long, you naive people, will you love being naive?
 How long, you mockers, will you delight in mockery,
 and how long, you fools, will you hate knowledge?
 23 Turn at my correction;
 I will pour out my spirit to you;
 I will make my words known to you.
 24 I have called, and you have refused to listen;
 I reached out with my hand, but there was no one who paid attention.
 25 But you have ignored all my instruction and paid no attention to my correction.
 26 I will laugh at your calamity,
 I will mock you when the terror comes—27 when your fearful dread comes like a storm and disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

28 Then they will call upon me, and I will not answer;
 they will diligently seek me, but they will not find me.
 29 Because they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yahweh, 30 they would not follow my instruction,
 and they despised all my correction.
 31 They will eat the fruit of their ways,
 and with the fruit of their schemes they will be filled.
 32 For the naive are killed when they turn away,
 and the indifference of fools will destroy them.
 33 But whoever listens to me will dwell in safety and will rest secure with no fear of disaster."

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> My son, if you receive my words
and treasure up my commandments with you, <sup>2</sup> make your ears pay attention to wisdom and incline your heart to understanding.
<sup>3</sup> If you cry out for discernment and raise your voice for understanding, <sup>4</sup> if you seek it like you would seek silver and search for understanding as you would seek hidden treasures, <sup>5</sup> then you will understand the fear of Yahweh and you will find the knowledge of God.
<sup>6</sup> For Yahweh gives wisdom;
from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
<sup>7</sup> He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield for those who walk in integrity;
<sup>8</sup> he guards the paths of justice and he will preserve the way of his faithful ones.
- <sup>9</sup> Then you will understand righteousness, justice, and equity, and every good path.
<sup>10</sup> For wisdom will come into your heart,
and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
<sup>11</sup> Discretion will watch over you;
understanding will guard you.
- <sup>12</sup> They will rescue you from the way of evil,
from those who speak perverse things, <sup>13</sup> who abandon the paths of uprightness and walk in the ways of darkness.
<sup>14</sup> They rejoice when they do evil and delight in the perversities of evil.
<sup>15</sup> They follow crooked paths,
and using deception they hide their tracks.
- <sup>16</sup> Wisdom and discretion will save you from an adulteress, from an immoral woman and her flattering words.
<sup>17</sup> She abandons the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.
<sup>18</sup> For her house sinks down to death, and her tracks will lead you to those in the grave.
<sup>19</sup> All who go to her will not return again
and they will not reach the paths of life.
- <sup>20</sup> So you will walk in the way of good people and follow the paths of righteous people.
<sup>21</sup> For the upright will make a home in the land,
and those with integrity will remain in it.
<sup>22</sup> But the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the faithless will be cut off from it.

- <sup>1</sup> My son, do not forget my teaching,
and keep my commandments in your heart,
- <sup>2</sup> for the length of your days and years of your life,
they will add peace to you.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness ever leave you;
tie them together about your neck;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- <sup>4</sup> Then you will find favor and a good reputation in the sight of God and man.
- <sup>5</sup> Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding;
- <sup>6</sup> in all your ways acknowledge him
and he will make your paths straight.
- <sup>7</sup> Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear Yahweh and turn away from evil.
- <sup>8</sup> It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment for your bones.
- <sup>9</sup> Honor Yahweh with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce,
- <sup>10</sup> and your storehouses will be filled up
and your vats will be bursting, full of new wine.
- <sup>11</sup> My son, do not despise Yahweh's instruction and do not hate his rebuke,
- <sup>12</sup> for Yahweh disciplines those he loves,
as a father deals with a son who pleases him.
- <sup>13</sup> The one who finds wisdom is blessed;
he also gets understanding.
- <sup>14</sup> What you gain from wisdom is better than what silver will give in return and its profit is better than gold.
- <sup>15</sup> Wisdom is more precious than jewels and nothing you desire can compare to her.
- <sup>16</sup> She has the length of her days in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honor.
- <sup>17</sup> Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.
- <sup>18</sup> She is a tree of life to those who take hold of it;
those who hold on to it are happy.
- <sup>19</sup> By wisdom Yahweh founded the earth;
by understanding he established the heavens.
- <sup>20</sup> By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dropped their dew.
- <sup>21</sup> My son, do not let these depart from your eyes:
guard sound wisdom and discretion.
- <sup>22</sup> They will be life to your soul

and an adornment of favor to wear around your neck.
<sup>23</sup> Then you will walk on your way in safety and your foot will not stumble; <sup>24</sup> when you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
<sup>25</sup> Do not be afraid of sudden terror or devastation caused by the wicked, when it comes, <sup>26</sup> for Yahweh will be on your side and will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.

<sup>27</sup> Do not withhold good from those who deserve it,
when it is in your power to act.
<sup>28</sup> Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give it,"
when you have the money with you.

<sup>29</sup> Do not make a plan to harm your neighbor—
the one who dwells in safety with you.
<sup>30</sup> Do not argue with a person without a reason,
when he has done nothing to harm you.

<sup>31</sup> Do not envy a violent person or choose any of his ways.
<sup>32</sup> For the devious person is an abomination to Yahweh, but he brings the upright person into his confidence.

<sup>33</sup> The curse of Yahweh is on the house of the wicked person,
but he blesses the home of righteous people.
<sup>34</sup> He mocks mockers,
but he gives his favor to humble people.
<sup>35</sup> Wise people inherit honor,
but fools will be lifted up in their shame.

Chapter 4

- <sup>1</sup> Listen, sons, to a father's instruction, and pay attention so you will know what understanding is.
- <sup>2</sup> I am giving you good instructions;
do not abandon my teaching.
- <sup>3</sup> When I was a son of my father,
the tender and only child of my mother,
- <sup>4</sup> he taught me and said to me,
"Let your heart hold fast to my words;
keep my commands and live.
- <sup>5</sup> Acquire wisdom and understanding;
do not forget and do not reject the words of my mouth;
- <sup>6</sup> do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you;
love her and she will keep you safe.
- <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is the most important thing, so acquire wisdom and spend all you own so you can get understanding.
- <sup>8</sup> Cherish wisdom and she will exalt you;
she will honor you when you embrace her.
- <sup>9</sup> She will put a wreath of honor on your head;
she will give you a beautiful crown."
- <sup>10</sup> Listen, my son, and receive my words,
and you will have many years in your life.
- <sup>11</sup> I am teaching you in the way of wisdom;
I am leading you in upright paths.
- <sup>12</sup> When you walk, no one will stand in your way and if you run, you will not stumble.
- <sup>13</sup> Hold on to instruction, do not let it go;
guard it, for it is your life.
- <sup>14</sup> Do not follow the path of the wicked and do not go along the way of those who do evil.
- <sup>15</sup> Avoid it, do not go on it;
turn away from it and go another way.
- <sup>16</sup> For they cannot sleep until they do evil and they are robbed of sleep until they cause someone to stumble.
- <sup>17</sup> For they devour the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
- <sup>18</sup> But the path of righteous people is like the first light that grows brighter;
it shines more and more until the fullness of the day comes.
- <sup>19</sup> The way of the wicked is like darkness—
they do not know what it is they stumble over.
- <sup>20</sup> My son, pay attention to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not let them turn away from your eyes;
keep them in your heart.
- <sup>22</sup> For my words are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
- <sup>23</sup> Keep your heart safe and guard it with all diligence, for from it flow the springs of life.
- <sup>24</sup> Put crooked speech away from you and put corrupt talk far from you.

- <sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look straight ahead and fix your gaze straight before you.
- <sup>26</sup> Make a level path for your foot;
then all your ways will be established.
- <sup>27</sup> Do not turn aside to the right or to the left;
turn your foot away from evil.

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
    incline your ears to my understanding, <sup>2</sup> so you may learn about discretion and your lips may protect knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> For the lips of an adulteress drip with honey and her mouth is smoother than oil, <sup>4</sup> but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, cutting like a sharp sword.
<sup>5</sup> Her feet go down to death;
    her steps go all the way to Sheol.
<sup>6</sup> She gives no thought to the path of life.
    Her footsteps wander;
    she does not know where she is going.
- <sup>7</sup> Now, my sons, listen to me;
    do not turn away from listening to the words of my mouth.
<sup>8</sup> Keep your path far away from her
    and do not come near the door of her house.
<sup>9</sup> In that way you will not give away your honor to others or years of your life to a cruel person; <sup>10</sup> strangers will not feast on your strength;
    your labor will not go into the house of foreigners.
<sup>11</sup> At the end of your life you will groan
    when your flesh and your body waste away.
<sup>12</sup> You will say, "How I hated instruction and my heart despised correction!
<sup>13</sup> I would not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
<sup>14</sup> I was almost completely ruined
    in the midst of the assembly, among the gathering of the people."
- <sup>15</sup> Drink water from your own cistern and drink running water from your own well.
<sup>16</sup> Should your springs be dispersed everywhere and your streams of water flow in the public squares?
<sup>17</sup> Let them be for yourself alone and not for strangers with you.
<sup>18</sup> May your fountain be blessed and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth, <sup>19</sup> for she is a loving deer and a graceful doe.
    Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
    may you be continually intoxicated by her love.
<sup>20</sup> For why should you, my son, be captivated by an adulteress?
    Why should you embrace the bosom of an immoral woman?
- <sup>21</sup> Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes.
<sup>22</sup> A wicked person will be seized by his own iniquities;
    the cords of his sin will hold him tight.
<sup>23</sup> He will die because he lacks instruction;
    he is led astray by his great foolishness.

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup> My son, if you set aside your money as a guarantee for your neighbor's loan,
     if you gave your promise for a loan of someone you do not know, <sup>2</sup> then you have laid a trap for yourself by your promise and you have been caught by the words of your mouth.
<sup>3</sup> When you are caught by your words, my son,
     do this and save yourself,
     since you have fallen into the hand of your neighbor;
     go and humble yourself
     and make your case before your neighbor.
<sup>4</sup> Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber.
<sup>5</sup> Save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
- <sup>6</sup> Look at the ant, you lazy person,
     consider her ways, and be wise.
<sup>7</sup> It has no commander, officer, or ruler,
<sup>8</sup> yet it prepares its food in the summer and during the harvest it stores up what it will eat.
- <sup>9</sup> How long will you lie down, you lazy person?
     When will you rise from your sleep?
<sup>10</sup> "A little sleep, a little slumber,
     a little folding of the hands to rest"— <sup>11</sup> and your poverty will come like a robber
     and your needs like an armed soldier.
- <sup>12</sup> A worthless person—a wicked man—lives by the crookedness of his speech, <sup>13</sup> winking his eyes, making signals with his feet and pointing with his fingers.
<sup>14</sup> He plots evil with perversity in his heart;
     he always stirs up strife.
<sup>15</sup> Therefore his disaster will overtake him in an instant;
     in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.
- <sup>16</sup> There are six things that Yahweh hates,
     seven that are an abomination to him:
<sup>17</sup> the eyes of a proud person, a tongue that lies,
     hands that shed the blood of innocent people, <sup>18</sup> a heart that invents wicked schemes, feet that quickly run to do evil, <sup>19</sup> a witness who breathes out lies and one who sows discord among brothers.
- <sup>20</sup> My son, obey the command of your father and do not abandon the teaching of your mother.
<sup>21</sup> Always bind them on your heart;
     tie them about your neck.
<sup>22</sup> When you walk, they will guide you;
     when you lie down, they will watch over you;

and when you wake up, they will teach you.
<sup>23</sup> For the commands are a lamp,
and the teaching is a light;
the corrections that come by instruction
are the way of life.
<sup>24</sup> It keeps you from the evil woman,
from the smooth tongue of an immoral woman.
<sup>25</sup> Do not lust in your heart after her beauty and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes.
<sup>26</sup> The price of a prostitute is the cost of a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man hunts for a precious life.
<sup>27</sup> Can a man carry a fire against his chest without burning his clothes?
<sup>28</sup> Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
<sup>29</sup> So is the man who goes to his neighbor's wife;
the one who touches her will not go unpunished.

<sup>30</sup> People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his need when he is hungry.
<sup>31</sup> Yet if he is caught, he will pay back seven times what he stole;
he must give up everything of value in his house.
<sup>32</sup> The one who commits adultery lacks sense;
the one who does it destroys himself.
<sup>33</sup> Wounds and shame are what he deserves and his disgrace will not be blotted out.
<sup>34</sup> For jealousy makes a man furious;
he will show no mercy on the day of vengeance.
<sup>35</sup> He will accept no ransom and he cannot be bought off, though you offer him many gifts.

---

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> My son, keep my words
 and store up my commands within yourself.
<sup>2</sup> Keep my commands and live,
 and keep my instruction as the apple of your eye.
<sup>3</sup> Tie them on your fingers;
 write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>4</sup> Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
 and call understanding your kinsman, <sup>5</sup> in order to keep yourself from the adulterous woman,
 from the immoral woman who makes her words smooth.
- <sup>6</sup> At the window of my house
 I was looking out through the lattice.
<sup>7</sup> I looked at the naive people,
 and I noticed among the young men
 a youth who had no sense.
<sup>8</sup> That young man passed down the street near her corner,
 and he went toward her house.
<sup>9</sup> It was twilight, in the evening of the day,
 at the time of night and darkness.
- <sup>10</sup> There a woman met him,
 dressed like a prostitute, with a false heart.
<sup>11</sup> She was loud and rebellious;
 her feet did not stay at home.
<sup>12</sup> Now in the streets, then in the marketplace,
 and at every corner she waited in ambush.
<sup>13</sup> So she grabbed him and kissed him,
 with a strong face she said to him,
- <sup>14</sup> "I made my peace offering today,
 I fulfilled my vows,
<sup>15</sup> so I came out to meet you,
 to eagerly seek your face,
 and I have found you.
<sup>16</sup> I have spread coverings on my bed,
 colored linens from Egypt.
<sup>17</sup> I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
<sup>18</sup> Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning;
 let us take great pleasure in acts of love.
<sup>19</sup> For my husband is not at his house;
 he has gone on a long journey.
<sup>20</sup> He took a bag of money with him;
 he will come home on the day of the full moon."
- <sup>21</sup> With her great persuasiveness she turned him;
 with her smooth lips she compelled him.
<sup>22</sup> Suddenly he went after her like an ox going to slaughter, and like a fool is punished with shackles, <sup>1</sup> <sup>23</sup> until an arrow pierces through his liver.

He was like a bird rushing into a snare.
He did not know that it would cost him his life.

- <sup>24</sup> Now, my sons, listen to me;
pay attention to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>25</sup> May your heart not turn aside onto her paths;
do not be led astray onto her paths.
- <sup>26</sup> She has caused many people to fall down pierced;
those she has killed are numerous.
- <sup>27</sup> Her house is on the paths to Sheol;
they go down to the dark bedrooms of death.

<sup>1</sup>The Hebrew text is difficult to understand. The ancient Greek translation has: like a dog to the muzzle. Some translations have like a deer to the trap .

Chapter 8

- <sup>1</sup> Does not Wisdom call out?
 Does not Understanding raise her voice?
<sup>2</sup> On the hilltops beside the road,
 at the crossroads, Wisdom has taken her stand.
<sup>3</sup> Before the gates at the entrance into the city,
 at the entrances into the city, she cries out.
<sup>4</sup> "It is to you, people, that I call;
 my voice is for the sons of mankind.
<sup>5</sup> You who are naive, learn wisdom;
 and you who are foolish, you must get an understanding mind.
<sup>6</sup> Listen, because I will speak of noble things,
 and when my lips open I will say upright things.
<sup>7</sup> For my mouth speaks what is trustworthy,
 and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
<sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth are just;
 in them is nothing twisted or perverse.
<sup>9</sup> All of them are straight for the person who understands;
 my words are upright for those who find knowledge.
<sup>10</sup> Acquire my instruction rather than silver;
 acquire knowledge rather than choicest gold.
<sup>11</sup> For Wisdom is better than jewels;
 no desirable thing is equal to her.
- <sup>12</sup> I, Wisdom, live with Prudence,
 and I possess knowledge and discretion.
<sup>13</sup> The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil.
 I hate pride and arrogance, the evil way,
 and perverted speech. I hate them.
<sup>14</sup> I have good advice and sound wisdom;
 I am insight; strength belongs to me.
<sup>15</sup> By me kings reign, and rulers make laws that are just.
<sup>16</sup> By me princes rule, nobles, and all who judge with justice.
<sup>17</sup> I love those who love me,
 and those who diligently seek me, find me.
<sup>18</sup> With me are riches and honor, lasting wealth and righteousness.
<sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold;
 my produce is better than pure silver.
<sup>20</sup> I walk in the path of righteousness,
 in the midst of the paths of justice.
<sup>21</sup> As a result, I make those who love me inherit wealth;
 I fill up their treasuries.
- <sup>22</sup> Yahweh created me at the beginning,
 the first of his deeds long ago.
<sup>23</sup> In ages long ago I was established—from the first,
 from the beginnings of the earth.
<sup>24</sup> Before there were oceans, I was given birth—before there were springs abounding with water.
<sup>25</sup> Before the mountains were settled and before the hills, I was born.

<sup>26</sup> I was born before Yahweh had made the earth or the fields, or even the first dust in the world.

<sup>27</sup> I was there when he established the heavens, when he drew a circle on the surface of the deep.

<sup>28</sup> I was there when he established the clouds above and when the springs in the deep became fixed.

<sup>29</sup> I was there when he made his limit for the sea,
so the waters should not spread beyond his command, and when there was set the limit for the foundations of the dry land.

<sup>30</sup> I was beside him, as a skilled craftsman;
I was his delight day after day,
always rejoicing before him.

<sup>31</sup> I was rejoicing in his whole world,
and my delight was in the sons of mankind.

<sup>32</sup> Now, my sons, listen to me,
for those who keep my ways will be blessed.

<sup>33</sup> Listen to my instruction and be wise;
do not neglect it.

<sup>34</sup> The one who listens to me will be blessed.
He will be watching every day at my doors,
waiting beside the posts of my doors.

<sup>35</sup> For whoever finds me, finds life,
and he will find the favor of Yahweh.

<sup>36</sup> But he who fails, harms his own life;
all who hate me love death."

---

Chapter 9

- <sup>1</sup> Wisdom has built her own house;
she has carved seven pillars out of rocks.
- <sup>2</sup> She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine, and she has set her table.
- <sup>3</sup> She has sent out her maids; she calls out from the highest points of the city,
- <sup>4</sup> "Who is naive? Let him turn aside here!"
To the one lacking good sense she speaks.
- <sup>5</sup> "Come, eat my food,
and drink the wine I have mixed.
- <sup>6</sup> Leave your naive actions and live;
walk in the path of understanding.
- <sup>7</sup> Whoever disciplines a mocker receives dishonor,
and whoever rebukes a wicked person receives abuse.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not reprove a mocker, or he will hate you;
reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
- <sup>9</sup> Give to a wise person, and he will become even wiser;
teach a righteous person, and he will add to his learning.
- <sup>10</sup> The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- <sup>11</sup> For through me your days will be multiplied,
and years of life will be added to you.
- <sup>12</sup> If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you mock, you will carry it by yourself."
- <sup>13</sup> The woman of foolishness is ignorant;
she is untaught and knows nothing.
- <sup>14</sup> She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the highest places of the town.
- <sup>15</sup> She is calling out to those who pass by in the streets, to people walking straight on their way.
- <sup>16</sup> "Let anyone who is naive turn aside here," she says to those who have no sense.
- <sup>17</sup> "Stolen waters are sweet,
and bread of secrecy is delicious."
- <sup>18</sup> But he does not know that the dead are there,
that her invited guests are in the depths of Sheol.

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes his father rejoice
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

<sup>2</sup> Treasures accumulated by wickedness give no profit,
but doing what is right delivers from death.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh does not let the soul of the righteous person go hungry,
but he frustrates the cravings of the wicked.

but the hand of the diligent person gains riches.

<sup>5</sup> A wise son gathers a crop in the summer,
but it is disgraceful for him to sleep during harvest.

<sup>6</sup> Blessings from God are upon the head of the righteous person,
but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.

<sup>7</sup> The righteous person makes those who remember him happy,
but the name of the wicked will rot away.

<sup>8</sup> The wise of heart accept commands,
but a talkative fool will come to ruin.

<sup>9</sup> He who walks in integrity walks in safety,
but the one who makes his ways crooked, he will be found out.

<sup>10</sup> He who winks the eye causes grief,
but a talkative fool will come to ruin.

<sup>11</sup> The mouth of the righteous person is a water spring of life,
but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.

<sup>12</sup> Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers over all transgressions.

<sup>13</sup> Wisdom is found on the lips of a discerning person,
but a rod is for the back of the one who has no sense.

but the mouth of a fool brings destruction near.

the poverty of the poor is their destruction.

<sup>16</sup> The wage of the righteous person leads to life;
the income of the wicked leads them to sin.

<sup>17</sup> There is a path to life for the one who follows discipline, but the one who rejects correction is led astray.

<sup>18</sup> Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

<sup>19</sup> When there are many words, transgression is not lacking, but he who is careful in what he says is wise.

there is little value in the heart of the wicked.

<sup>21</sup> The lips of the righteous person nourish many,
but fools die because of their lack of sense.

<sup>22</sup> The blessings of Yahweh bring wealth and he adds no pain to it.

<sup>23</sup> Wickedness is a game a fool plays,
but wisdom is a pleasure to a man of understanding.

<sup>24</sup> The fear of the wicked person will overtake him,
but the desire of righteous people will be granted.

<sup>25</sup> The wicked are like the storm that passes by, and they are no more,
but the righteous person is a foundation that lasts forever.

<sup>26</sup> Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes,
so is the lazy person to those who send him.

<sup>27</sup> The fear of Yahweh prolongs life,
but the years of the wicked will be short.

<sup>28</sup> The hope of righteous people is their joy,
but the hope of wicked people will perish.

<sup>29</sup> The way of Yahweh is a stronghold for those who have integrity, but it is destruction for those who behave wickedly.

<sup>30</sup> The righteous person will never be overthrown, but the wicked will not remain in the land.

<sup>31</sup> Out of the mouth of the righteous person comes the fruit of wisdom,
but the perverse tongue will be cut out.

<sup>32</sup> The lips of the righteous person know what gains favor, but the mouth of the wicked, they know what is perverse.

---

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup> False scales are an abomination to Yahweh,
but he delights in a precise weight.
- <sup>2</sup> When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
but with humility comes wisdom.
- <sup>3</sup> The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the crooked ways of the treacherous destroy them.
- <sup>4</sup> Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath,
but doing right delivers you from death.
- <sup>5</sup> The right conduct of a blameless person makes his way straight,
but the wicked will fall because of their own wickedness.
- <sup>6</sup> The right conduct of the upright keeps them safe,
but the treacherous are trapped by their cravings.
- <sup>7</sup> When a wicked man dies, his hope perishes and the hope that was in his strength comes to nothing.
- <sup>8</sup> The righteous person is delivered from trouble and it comes upon the wicked instead.
- <sup>9</sup> With his mouth the godless person destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge righteous people are kept safe.
- <sup>10</sup> When righteous people prosper, a city rejoices;
when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
- <sup>11</sup> Through the blessings of the upright the city is exalted;
by the mouth of the wicked the city is thrown down.
- <sup>12</sup> The man who has contempt for his friend has no sense,
but a man of understanding keeps quiet.
- <sup>13</sup> Whoever goes around slandering reveals secrets,
but the trustworthy in spirit keeps a matter covered.
- <sup>14</sup> Where there is no counsel, a nation falls,
but victory comes through many counselors.
- <sup>15</sup> Whoever guarantees a loan for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but the one who hates giving a pledge in that kind of promise is safe.
- <sup>16</sup> A gracious woman gets honor,
but violent people grasp for wealth.
- <sup>17</sup> A merciful person benefits himself,
but one who is cruel hurts himself.
- <sup>18</sup> The wicked person lies to get his wages, but one who sows what is right reaps the wages of truth.

<sup>19</sup> An honest person who does what is right will live,
but the one who pursues evil will die.

<sup>20</sup> Those whose hearts are perverse are an abomination to Yahweh,
but he delights in those whose ways are blameless.

<sup>21</sup> Be sure of this—the wicked person will not go unpunished, but the descendants of righteous people will be kept safe.

<sup>22</sup> Like a gold ring in a pig's nose
is a beautiful woman without discretion.

<sup>23</sup> The desires of righteous people result in good,
but wicked people can only hope for wrath.

<sup>24</sup> There is one who scatters—he will accumulate even more;
another withholds what is just—he comes to poverty.

<sup>25</sup> The generous person will prosper and the one who gives water to others will have water for himself.

<sup>26</sup> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain,
but good gifts crown the head of him who sells it.

<sup>27</sup> The one who diligently seeks good is also seeking favor,
but the one who searches for evil will find it.

<sup>28</sup> Those who trust in their riches will fall,
but like the leaf, righteous people will flourish.

<sup>29</sup> The one who brings trouble on his own household will inherit the wind and the fool will become a servant to the wise of heart.

<sup>30</sup> The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
but violence takes away lives.

<sup>31</sup> Behold! The righteous person is rewarded on earth;
how much more the wicked and the sinner!

---

Chapter 12

- <sup>1</sup> Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge,
but the one who hates correction is stupid.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh gives favor to a good man,
but he condemns a man who makes evil plans.
- <sup>3</sup> A person cannot be established by wickedness,
but righteous people cannot be uprooted.
- <sup>4</sup> A worthy wife is her husband's crown,
but she who brings shame is like a disease that rots his bones.
- <sup>5</sup> The plans of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
- <sup>6</sup> The words of wicked people are an ambush waiting for bloodshed,
but the words of the upright keep them safe.
- <sup>7</sup> Wicked people are overthrown and they are gone,
but the house of the righteous person will stand.
- <sup>8</sup> A man is praised for prudent lips,
but the perverse heart is despised.
- <sup>9</sup> Better the person of low position who has a servant than the one who honors himself but has no food.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous person cares about the needs of his animal,
but even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.
- <sup>11</sup> The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever chases after worthless projects has no sense.
- <sup>12</sup> The evil person desires the plunder of the wicked,
but the righteous root endures.
- <sup>13</sup> An evil person is trapped by the transgression of his lips,
but the righteous person escapes from trouble.
- <sup>14</sup> From the fruit of his words a person is filled with good things, just as the work of his hands rewards him.
- <sup>15</sup> The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but a wise man listens to advice.
- <sup>16</sup> A fool shows his anger at once,
but one who ignores an insult is prudent.
- <sup>17</sup> The one who speaks the truth says what is right, but a false witness, deceit.
- <sup>18</sup> The words of one who speaks rashly are like the thrusts of a sword,

but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

<sup>19</sup> Truthful lips last forever,
but a lying tongue is only for a moment.

<sup>20</sup> There is deceit in the hearts of those who plan to do evil, but joy comes to the advisors of peace.

<sup>21</sup> No ill comes upon the righteous,
but the wicked are filled with distress.

<sup>22</sup> Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh,
but those who live faithfully are his delight.

<sup>23</sup> A prudent man conceals his knowledge,
but the heart of fools shouts out folly.

<sup>24</sup> The hand of the diligent will rule,
but lazy people will be put to forced labor.

<sup>25</sup> Anxiety in the heart of a person weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad.

but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

<sup>27</sup> Lazy people would not roast their own game,
but the diligent man will obtain precious wealth.

<sup>28</sup> Those who walk in the right way find life
and in its path there is no death.

---

Chapter 13

- <sup>1</sup> A wise son hears his father's instruction,
but a mocker will not listen to rebuke.
- <sup>2</sup> From the fruit of his mouth a person enjoys good things, but the appetite of the treacherous is for violence.
- <sup>3</sup> The one who guards his mouth protects his life, but the one who opens wide his lips will ruin himself.
- <sup>4</sup> The appetite of the lazy person craves but gets nothing, but the appetite of the diligent person will be richly satisfied.
- <sup>5</sup> The righteous person hates deceptive words, but a wicked person makes himself repugnant, and he does what is shameful.
- <sup>6</sup> Righteousness protects those who are faultless in their path, but wickedness ruins those who commit sin.
- <sup>7</sup> There is someone who enriches himself, but has nothing at all,
and there is someone who gives everything away, yet has much wealth.
- <sup>8</sup> The ransom of a rich man's life is his wealth,
but a poor person does not hear a threat.
- <sup>9</sup> The light of righteous people rejoices,
but the lamp of wicked people will be put out.
- <sup>10</sup> Pride only breeds conflict,
but for those who listen to good advice there is wisdom.
- <sup>11</sup> Wealth dwindles away when there is too much vanity, but the one who makes money by working with his hand will make his money grow.
- <sup>12</sup> When hope is postponed, it breaks the heart, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life.
- <sup>13</sup> Whoever despises instruction brings destruction on himself, but he who respects the commandment will be rewarded.
- <sup>14</sup> The teaching of a wise person is a fountain of life, turning you away from the snares of death.
- <sup>15</sup> Good insight wins favor, but the way of the treacherous is disaster. 1
- <sup>16</sup> Prudent people act out of knowledge in every decision, but a fool parades his folly.
- <sup>17</sup> A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a faithful envoy brings healing.

- <sup>18</sup> The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame,
but honor will come to him who learns from correction.
- <sup>19</sup> A longing realized is sweet to the appetite,
but turning away from evil is an abomination to fools.
- <sup>20</sup> Walk with wise people and you will be wise,
but the companion of fools will suffer harm.
- <sup>21</sup> Disaster runs after sinners,
but righteous people are rewarded with good.
- <sup>22</sup> A good person leaves an inheritance for his grandchildren, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous person.
- <sup>23</sup> An unplowed field owned by the poor could produce much food, but it is swept away by injustice.
- <sup>24</sup> The one who does not use his rod hates his son, but one who loves his son is careful to instruct him.
- <sup>25</sup> The righteous person eats until he satisfies his appetite, but the stomach of the wicked is always hungry.

---

<sup>1</sup>The ULB is following the ancient Greek translation because the Hebrew is difficult to understand. The Hebrew has: the way of the treacherous is unending.

- <sup>1</sup> The wise woman builds her house, but a foolish woman tears it down with her own hands.
- <sup>2</sup> The one who walks uprightly fears Yahweh, but the one who is dishonest in his ways despises him.
- <sup>3</sup> From the mouth of a fool comes a rod for his back,
but the lips of the wise will preserve them.
- <sup>4</sup> Where there are no cattle, the feeding trough is clean, but an abundant crop comes from the strength of an ox.
- <sup>5</sup> A faithful witness does not lie,
but a false witness breathes out lies.
- <sup>6</sup> A mocker seeks wisdom and there is none,
but knowledge comes easily to the one who is discerning.
- <sup>7</sup> Walk away from a foolish person,
for you will not find knowledge on his lips.
- <sup>8</sup> The wisdom of the prudent person is to understand his own way,
but the folly of fools is deception.
- <sup>9</sup> Fools mock when the guilt offering is sacrificed,
but among the upright favor is shared.
- <sup>10</sup> The heart knows its own bitterness and no stranger shares its joy.
- <sup>11</sup> The house of wicked people will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.
- <sup>12</sup> There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end only leads to death.
- <sup>13</sup> A heart can laugh but still be in pain and joy may end up being grief.
- <sup>14</sup> The faithless in heart will get what his ways deserve, but a good person will get what is his.
- <sup>15</sup> The one who is naive believes everything,
but the prudent man thinks about his steps.
- <sup>16</sup> A wise man fears and turns away from evil,
but the fool confidently dismisses a warning.
- <sup>17</sup> One who is quick to become angry does foolish things, and a person who makes evil schemes is hated.
- <sup>18</sup> The naive inherit foolishness,

but prudent people are crowned with knowledge.

<sup>19</sup> Evil people will bow down before those who are good and those who are wicked will bow down at the gates of the righteous person.

<sup>20</sup> The poor person is hated even by his own companions, but the rich people have many friends.

but the one who shows favor to the poor is blessed.

But those who plan to do good will receive steadfast love and faithfulness.

<sup>23</sup> With all hard work comes a profit,
but when there is only talk, it leads to poverty.

<sup>24</sup> The crown of wise people is their wealth,
but the folly of fools brings them only more folly.

<sup>25</sup> A truthful witness saves lives,
but he who breathes out lies brings betrayal.

<sup>26</sup> In the fear of Yahweh is strong confidence;
it will be a refuge for his children.

<sup>27</sup> The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life,
so that a person may turn away from the snares of death.

<sup>28</sup> The glory of a king is found in the great number of his people, but without people the prince is ruined.

<sup>29</sup> A patient person has great understanding,
but the quick-tempered person exalts folly.

<sup>30</sup> A tranquil heart is life for the body,
but envy rots the bones.

but the one who shows favor to the needy honors him.

<sup>32</sup> The wicked person is brought down by his evil actions, but the righteous person has a refuge even in death.

<sup>33</sup> Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning,
but even among fools she lets herself be known.

<sup>34</sup> Doing what is right exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.

<sup>35</sup> The favor of the king is with the servant who acts prudently, but his anger is for the one who acts shamefully.

---

- <sup>1</sup> A gentle answer turns away wrath,
but a harsh word stirs up anger.
- <sup>2</sup> The tongue of wise people compliments knowledge,
but the mouth of fools pours out folly.
- <sup>3</sup> The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere, keeping watch over the evil and the good.
- <sup>4</sup> A healing tongue is a tree of life,
but a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.
- <sup>5</sup> A fool has contempt for his father's instruction,
but he who learns from correction is prudent.
- <sup>6</sup> In the house of the righteous person there is great treasure,
but the earnings of the wicked person give him trouble.
- <sup>7</sup> The lips of wise people scatter knowledge about,
but not so the hearts of fools.
- <sup>8</sup> The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh,
but the prayer of the upright is his delight.
- <sup>9</sup> The way of wicked people is an abomination to Yahweh, but he loves the one who pursues what is right.
- <sup>10</sup> Harsh discipline awaits anyone who abandons the way and he who hates correction will die.
- <sup>11</sup> Sheol and destruction are open before Yahweh;
how much more the hearts of the sons of mankind?
- <sup>12</sup> The mocker does not love the one who corrects him;
he will not go to the wise.
- <sup>13</sup> A joyful heart makes the face cheerful,
but by an injured heart the spirit is broken.
- <sup>14</sup> The heart of the discerning seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
- <sup>15</sup> All the days of the afflicted are miserable,
but a cheerful heart has an unending feast.
- <sup>16</sup> Better is little with the fear of Yahweh than great treasure with tumult.
- <sup>17</sup> Better is a meal with vegetables where there is love than a fattened calf served with hatred.
- <sup>18</sup> An angry man stirs up strife,

but a person who is slow to anger quiets a quarrel.

<sup>19</sup> The path of the lazy person is like a place with a hedge of thorns,
but the path of the upright is a built-up highway.

<sup>20</sup> A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish person despises his mother.

<sup>21</sup> Folly delights a person who lacks sense,
but the one who has understanding walks a straight path.

<sup>22</sup> Plans go wrong where there is no advice,
but with numerous advisors they succeed.

<sup>23</sup> A person finds joy when he gives a pertinent reply;
how good is a timely word!

<sup>24</sup> The path of life leads upward for prudent people,
that they may turn away from Sheol beneath.

<sup>25</sup> Yahweh tears down the house of the proud,
but he protects the property of the widow.

<sup>26</sup> The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to Yahweh, but pleasant words are pure.

<sup>27</sup> The person who profits from unjust gain brings trouble to his family,
but the one who hates bribes will live.

<sup>28</sup> The heart of the righteous person ponders before it answers,
but the mouth of wicked people pours out all its evil.

<sup>29</sup> Yahweh is far away from wicked people,
but he hears the prayer of righteous people.

<sup>30</sup> The light of the eyes brings joy to the heart and good news is health to the body.

<sup>31</sup> The ear that listens to life-giving rebuke will dwell among wise people.

<sup>32</sup> The one who rejects discipline despises himself, but he who listens to correction gains understanding.

<sup>33</sup> The fear of Yahweh instructs in wisdom,
and humility comes before honor.

---

Chapter 16

- <sup>1</sup> The plans of the heart belong to a person,
but the answer from his tongue comes from Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> All of a person's ways are pure in his own eyes,
but Yahweh weighs the spirits.
- <sup>3</sup> Commit your works to Yahweh and your plans will succeed.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh has made everything for its purpose,
even the wicked for the day of trouble.
- <sup>5</sup> Every exalted heart is an abomination to Yahweh,
but be sure of this, they will not go unpunished.
- <sup>6</sup> By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for and by the fear of Yahweh people turn away from evil.
- <sup>7</sup> When a person's ways are pleasing to Yahweh,
he makes even that person's enemies to be at peace with him.
- <sup>8</sup> Better is a little with what is right,
than a large income with injustice.
- <sup>9</sup> In his heart a person plans out his way,
but Yahweh directs his steps.
- <sup>10</sup> Insightful decisions are on the lips of a king;
his mouth should not betray justice.
- <sup>11</sup> Honest scales come from Yahweh;
all the weights in the bag are his work.
- <sup>12</sup> Doing evil is an abomination to kings,
for a throne is established by doing what is right.
- <sup>13</sup> Righteous lips are the delight of the king, and he loves the person who speaks upright words.
- <sup>14</sup> A king's wrath is a messenger of death
but a wise man will try to calm his anger.
- <sup>15</sup> In the light of a king's face is life
and his favor is like a cloud that brings a spring rain.
- <sup>16</sup> How much better it is to get wisdom than gold.
To get understanding should be chosen more than silver.
- <sup>17</sup> The highway of the upright turns away from evil;
the one who guards his way preserves his life.
- <sup>18</sup> Pride comes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a downfall.

- <sup>19</sup> It is better to be of humble spirit among poor people than to divide the plunder with proud people.
- <sup>20</sup> Whoever contemplates what they are taught will find what is good,
and those who trust in Yahweh will be blessed.
- <sup>21</sup> The one who is wise in heart is called discerning and sweetness of speech improves the ability to teach.
- <sup>22</sup> Understanding is a fountain of life to the one who has it,
but the instruction of fools is their foolishness.
- <sup>23</sup> The heart of a wise person gives insight to his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
- <sup>24</sup> Pleasant words are a honeycomb—
sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.
- <sup>25</sup> There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.
- <sup>26</sup> The laborer's appetite works for him;
his hunger urges him on.
- <sup>27</sup> A worthless person digs up mischief and his speech is like a scorching fire.
- <sup>28</sup> A perverse person stirs up conflict and a gossip separates close friends.
- <sup>29</sup> A man of violence lies to his neighbor and leads him down a path that is not good.
- <sup>30</sup> The one who winks the eye is plotting perverse things;
those who purse the lips will bring evil to pass.
- <sup>31</sup> Gray hair is a crown of glory;
it is gained by living the right way.
- <sup>32</sup> It is better to be slow to anger than to be a warrior and one who rules his spirit is stronger than one who conquers a city.
- <sup>33</sup> The lots are cast into the lap,
but the decision is from Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup> It is better to have quiet with a dry morsel of bread than a house full of feasting with strife.
- <sup>2</sup> A wise servant will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.
- <sup>3</sup> The crucible is for silver and the furnace is for gold,
but Yahweh tests hearts.
- <sup>4</sup> The evildoer pays attention to wicked lips;
a liar gives ear to a destructive tongue.
- <sup>5</sup> Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker and the one who rejoices at misfortune will not go unpunished.
- <sup>6</sup> Grandchildren are the crown of the aged and parents bring honor to their children.
- <sup>7</sup> Eloquent speech is not suitable for a fool;
much less are lying lips suitable for a prince.
- <sup>8</sup> A bribe is like a magic stone to the one who gives it;
wherever he turns, he succeeds.
- <sup>9</sup> Whoever overlooks an offense seeks love,
but the one who repeats a matter alienates close friends.
- <sup>10</sup> A rebuke goes deeper into a person who has understanding than a hundred blows go into a fool.
- <sup>11</sup> An evil person only seeks rebellion,
so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
- <sup>12</sup> It is better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to meet a fool in his foolishness.
- <sup>13</sup> When someone returns evil for good,
evil will never leave his house.
- <sup>14</sup> The beginning of conflict is like one who releases water everywhere, so walk away from the dispute before it has broken out.
- <sup>15</sup> The person who acquits the wicked person and the person who condemns the righteous person—
both are an abomination to Yahweh.
- <sup>16</sup> Why should a fool pay money to learn about wisdom
when he has no sense?
- <sup>17</sup> A friend is loving at all times and a brother is born for times of trouble.
- <sup>18</sup> A man having no sense makes binding promises and becomes responsible for his neighbor's debts.

- <sup>19</sup> Whoever loves conflict loves sin;
whoever raises his door seeks destruction.
- <sup>20</sup> A person who has a crooked heart finds nothing that is good;
the one who has a perverse tongue falls into calamity.
- <sup>21</sup> Whoever is the parent of a fool brings grief to himself;
and the father of a fool has no joy.
- <sup>22</sup> A joyful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.
- <sup>23</sup> A wicked man accepts a secret bribe to pervert the ways of justice.
- <sup>24</sup> The one who has understanding sets his face toward wisdom, but the eyes of a fool are set on the ends of the earth.
- <sup>25</sup> A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to the woman who bore him.
- <sup>26</sup> Also, it is never good to punish the righteous;
neither is it good to flog the noble for their integrity.
- <sup>27</sup> One who has knowledge uses few words and he who is cool of spirit has understanding.
- <sup>28</sup> Even a fool is thought to be wise if he keeps silent;
when he keeps his mouth shut, he is considered to be intelligent.

Chapter 18

- <sup>1</sup> One who isolates himself seeks his own desire,
and he quarrels with all sound wisdom.
- <sup>2</sup> A fool finds no pleasure in understanding, but only in revealing what is in his own heart.
- <sup>3</sup> When a wicked person comes, contempt comes with him—along with shame and disgrace.
- <sup>4</sup> The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.
- <sup>5</sup> It is not good to be partial to the wicked person,
nor to deny justice to the righteous person.
- <sup>6</sup> A fool's lips bring him conflict and his mouth invites a beating.
- <sup>7</sup> A fool's mouth is his ruin
and he ensnares himself with his lips.
- <sup>8</sup> The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels and they go down into the inner parts of the body.
- <sup>9</sup> Also, one who is slack in his work is a brother to the one who destroys the most.
- <sup>10</sup> The name of Yahweh is a strong tower;
the righteous person runs into it and is safe.
- <sup>11</sup> The wealth of the rich is his fortified city and in his imagination it is like a high wall.
- <sup>12</sup> Before his downfall a person's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honor.
- <sup>13</sup> One who answers before listening—
it is his folly and shame.
- <sup>14</sup> A person's spirit will endure sickness,
but who can bear a broken spirit?
- <sup>15</sup> The heart of the intelligent acquires knowledge and the hearing of the wise seeks it out.
- <sup>16</sup> A man's gift may open the way and bring him before great men.
- <sup>17</sup> The first to plead his case seems just until his opponent comes and examines him.
- <sup>18</sup> Casting the lot settles disputes and separates strong opponents.

<sup>19</sup> An offended brother is harder to be won than a strong city, and quarrels are like the bars of a castle.

<sup>20</sup> From the fruit of his mouth one's stomach is filled; with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

<sup>21</sup> Death and life are controlled by the tongue,
and those who love the tongue will eat its fruit.

<sup>22</sup> He who finds a wife finds a good thing and receives favor from Yahweh.

<sup>23</sup> A poor person pleads for mercy,
but a rich person answers harshly.

<sup>24</sup> The one who claims many friends is brought to ruin by them, but there is a friend who comes closer than a brother.

---

- <sup>1</sup> Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in speech and is a fool.
- <sup>2</sup> Also, it is not good to have desire without knowledge and the one who runs too fast misses the path.
- <sup>3</sup> A person's folly ruins his life and his heart rages against Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup> Wealth adds many friends,
but a poor person is separated from his friends.
- <sup>5</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished
and he who breathes out lies will not escape.
- <sup>6</sup> Many will ask for a favor from a generous person and everyone is a friend of the one who gives gifts.
- <sup>7</sup> All the brothers of a poor man hate him;
how much more do his friends who go far away from him!
He pursues them with words,
but they are gone.
- <sup>8</sup> He who gets wisdom loves his own life;
he who keeps understanding will find what is good.
- <sup>9</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
but the one who breathes out lies will perish.
- <sup>10</sup> It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury—much less for a slave to rule over princes.
- <sup>11</sup> Discretion makes a person slow to anger and it is his glory to overlook an offense.
- <sup>12</sup> The wrath of the king is like the roaring of a young lion,
but his favor is like dew on the grass.
- <sup>13</sup> A foolish son is ruin to his father and a quarreling wife is a constant dripping of water.
- <sup>14</sup> A house and wealth are inherited from parents,
but a prudent wife is from Yahweh.
- <sup>15</sup> Laziness throws a person into a deep sleep,
but the one not willing to work will go hungry.
- <sup>16</sup> The one who obeys the command guards his life,
but the one who despises his ways will die.
- <sup>17</sup> Whoever is gracious to the poor lends to Yahweh and he will repay him for what he has done.

- <sup>18</sup> Discipline your son while there is hope and do not set your desire on putting him to death.
- <sup>19</sup> A person with great anger must bear the penalty;
if you rescue him, you will have to do it a second time.
- <sup>20</sup> Listen to advice and accept instruction,
so you may become wise by the end of your life.
- <sup>21</sup> Many are the plans in a person's heart,
but it is the purpose of Yahweh that will stand.
- <sup>22</sup> Loyalty is what a person desires and a poor person is better than a liar.
- <sup>23</sup> Honor for Yahweh leads people to life;
anyone who has it will rest satisfied and not afflicted by harm.
- <sup>24</sup> The lazy person buries his hand in the dish;
he will not even bring it back up to his mouth.
- <sup>25</sup> Strike a mocker, and the naive person will become prudent;
discipline one who is discerning, and he will gain knowledge.
- <sup>26</sup> The one who robs his father and drives his mother away is a son who brings shame and disgrace.
- <sup>27</sup> If you cease to hear instruction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- <sup>28</sup> A corrupt witness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.
- <sup>29</sup> Judgments are ready for mockers and flogging for the backs of fools.

- <sup>1</sup> Wine is a mocker and strong drink is a brawler;
whoever is led astray by drink is not wise.
- <sup>2</sup> The fear of a king is like the fear of a young lion that is roaring;
the one who makes him angry forfeits his life.
- <sup>3</sup> It is an honor for anyone to avoid conflict,
but every fool jumps into an argument.
- <sup>4</sup> The lazy person does not plow in autumn;
he seeks a crop at harvest time but will have nothing.
- <sup>5</sup> The purpose in a human heart is like deep water,
but someone with understanding will draw it out.
- <sup>6</sup> Many a person proclaims he is loyal,
but who can find one who is faithful?
- <sup>7</sup> The righteous person walks in his integrity,
and his sons who follow after him will be blessed.
- <sup>8</sup> A king who sits on the throne performing the duties of a judge is winnowing with his eyes all the evil that is before him.
- <sup>9</sup> Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am clean from my sin"?
- <sup>10</sup> Differing weights and unequal measures—
both are abominations to Yahweh.
- <sup>11</sup> Even a youth is known by his actions,
by whether his conduct is pure and upright.
- <sup>12</sup> Ears that hear and eyes that see—Yahweh made them both.
- <sup>13</sup> Do not love sleep or you will come to poverty;
open your eyes and you will have plenty to eat.
- <sup>14</sup> "Bad! Bad!" says the buyer, but when he goes away he boasts.
- <sup>15</sup> There is gold and an abundance of costly stones,
but lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
- <sup>16</sup> Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.
- <sup>17</sup> Bread gained by deceit tastes sweet,
but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel.
- <sup>18</sup> Plans are established by advice and only with wise guidance should you wage war.

- <sup>19</sup> A slanderer reveals secrets, and so you should not associate with people who talk too much.
- <sup>20</sup> If a person curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be put out in the middle of darkness.
- <sup>21</sup> An inheritance gained quickly at the beginning will not be blessed in the end.
- <sup>22</sup> Do not say, "I will pay you back for this wrong!"
Wait for Yahweh and he will rescue you.
- <sup>23</sup> Unequal weights are an abomination to Yahweh,
and deceptive scales are not good.
- <sup>24</sup> A person's steps are directed by Yahweh;
how then can he understand his way?
- <sup>25</sup> It is a snare for a person to say rashly, "This thing is holy,"
and begin to think about what it means only after making his vow.
- <sup>26</sup> A wise king winnows the wicked and he turns a threshing wheel over them.
- <sup>27</sup> The spirit of a person is the lamp of Yahweh, searching all his inmost parts.
- <sup>28</sup> Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king;
he makes his throne strong by love.
- <sup>29</sup> The glory of young men is their strength and the splendor of old people is their gray hair.
- <sup>30</sup> Blows that make a wound cleanse away evil and beatings make the innermost parts clean.

- <sup>1</sup> The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of Yahweh;
he turns it wherever he pleases.
- <sup>2</sup> Every person's way is right in his own eyes,
but it is Yahweh who weighs the hearts.
- <sup>3</sup> To do what is right and just
is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice.
- <sup>4</sup> Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the lamp of the wicked—are sin.
- <sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent lead only to prosperity,
but everyone who acts too quickly comes only to poverty.
- <sup>6</sup> Acquiring treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a deadly snare.
- <sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked will drag them away,
for they refuse to do what is just.
- <sup>8</sup> The way of a guilty person is crooked,
but the one who is pure does what is right.
- <sup>9</sup> It is better to live on a corner of the roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.
- <sup>10</sup> The appetite of the wicked craves evil;
his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
- <sup>11</sup> When the mocker is punished, the naive become wise, and when the wise person is instructed, he lays hold of knowledge.
- <sup>12</sup> The righteous person watches the house of the wicked person;
he brings wicked people to disaster.
- <sup>13</sup> The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor,
he also will cry out, but he will not be answered.
- <sup>14</sup> A gift in secret appeases anger and a concealed gift appeases strong wrath.
- <sup>15</sup> When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous person,
but it brings terror to workers of iniquity.
- <sup>16</sup> The one who wanders from the way of understanding,
he will rest in the assembly of the dead.
- <sup>17</sup> Whoever loves pleasure will become poor;
the one who loves wine and oil will not be rich.
- <sup>18</sup> A wicked person is ransom for the righteous, and the treacherous person is ransom for the upright.

- <sup>19</sup> It is better to live in the desert than with a quarreling and angry wife.
- <sup>20</sup> Desirable treasure and oil are kept in the dwelling of the wise, but a foolish person swallows it all up.
- <sup>21</sup> The one who does right and is kind—this person finds life, righteousness, and honor.
- <sup>22</sup> A wise man scales the city of the mighty ones,
and he brings down the stronghold in which they trusted.
- <sup>23</sup> Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.
- <sup>24</sup> The proud and haughty person—"Mocker" is his name—acts with arrogant pride.
- <sup>25</sup> The desire of the lazy person kills him,
for his hands refuse to work.
- <sup>26</sup> All day long he craves and craves more,
but the righteous person gives and does not hold back.
- <sup>27</sup> The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
it is even more detestable when he brings it with evil motives.
- <sup>28</sup> A false witness will perish,
but the one who listens will speak for all time.
- <sup>29</sup> A wicked man makes his face hard,
but the upright is certain about his ways. 1
- <sup>30</sup> There is no wisdom, there is no understanding, and there is no advice that can stand against Yahweh.
- <sup>31</sup> The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to Yahweh.

---

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient copies of the Hebrew text have but the upright thinks about his way .

- <sup>1</sup> A good name is to be chosen over great riches and favor is better than silver and gold.
- <sup>2</sup> Rich and poor people have this in common—Yahweh is the maker of all of them.
- <sup>3</sup> The prudent sees trouble and hides himself,
but the naive go on and suffer because of it.
- <sup>4</sup> The reward for humility and fear of Yahweh is riches, honor, and life.
- <sup>5</sup> Thorns and snares lie in the path of the perverse;
whoever guards his life will keep far from them.
- <sup>6</sup> Teach a child the way he should go and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction.
- <sup>7</sup> Rich people rule over poor people and one who borrows is a slave to the one who lends.
- <sup>8</sup> He who sows injustice will reap trouble and the rod of his fury will fade away.
- <sup>9</sup> The one who has a generous eye will be blessed,
for he shares his bread with the poor.
- <sup>10</sup> Drive away the mocker, and out goes strife;
disputes and dishonor will cease.
- <sup>11</sup> The one who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious,
he will have the king for his friend.
- <sup>12</sup> The eyes of Yahweh keep watch over knowledge,
but he overthrows the words of the treacherous.
- <sup>13</sup> The lazy person says, "There is a lion in the street!
I will be killed in the open places."
- <sup>14</sup> The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit;
Yahweh's anger is stirred up against anyone who falls into it.
- <sup>15</sup> Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child,
but the rod of discipline drives it far away.
- <sup>16</sup> The one who oppresses poor people to increase his wealth, or gives to rich people, will come to poverty.
- <sup>17</sup> Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise and apply your heart to my knowledge,
- <sup>18</sup> for it will be pleasant for you if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on your lips.

- <sup>19</sup> So your trust may be in Yahweh,
I teach them to you today—even to you.
- <sup>20</sup> Have I not written for you thirty sayings of instruction and knowledge,
- <sup>21</sup> to teach you truth in these trustworthy words,
so you may give trustworthy answers
to those who sent you?
- <sup>22</sup> Do not rob the poor because he is poor,
or crush the needy at the gate,
- <sup>23</sup> for Yahweh will plead their case,
and he will rob of life those who robbed them.
- <sup>24</sup> Do not make a friend of someone who is ruled by anger and you must not go with one who rages,
- <sup>25</sup> or you will learn his ways
and entangle yourself in a snare.
- <sup>26</sup> Do not be one who strikes hands in making a pledge,
or who puts up security for debts.
- <sup>27</sup> If you lack the means to pay,
what could stop someone from taking away your bed from under you?
- <sup>28</sup> Do not remove the ancient boundary stone that your fathers have set.
- <sup>29</sup> Do you see a man skilled at his work? He will stand before kings;
he will not stand before common people.

Chapter 23

- <sup>1</sup> When you sit to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you, <sup>2</sup> and put a knife to your throat
    if you are a person who likes to eat a lot of food.
<sup>3</sup> Do not crave his delicacies,
    for it is the food of lies.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not work too hard to gain wealth;
    be wise enough to know when to stop.
<sup>5</sup> Will you let your eyes light upon it? It will be gone, for it will surely take up wings like an eagle and fly off to the sky.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye—
    and do not crave his delicacies, <sup>7</sup> for he is the kind of man who counts the price of the food.
    "Eat and drink!" he says to you,
    but his heart is not with you.
<sup>8</sup> You will vomit up the little you have eaten and you will have wasted your compliments.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,
    for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach on the fields of orphans, <sup>11</sup> for their Redeemer is strong and he will plead their case against you.
- <sup>12</sup> Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.
- <sup>13</sup> Do not withhold instruction from a child,
    for if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.
<sup>14</sup> It is you who must beat him with the rod and save his soul from Sheol.
- <sup>15</sup> My son, if your heart is wise,
    then my heart also will be glad;
<sup>16</sup> my kidneys will rejoice
    when your lips speak what is right.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not let your heart envy sinners,
    but continue in the fear of Yahweh all the day.
<sup>18</sup> Surely there is a future
    and your hope will not be cut off.
- <sup>19</sup> Hear—you!—my son, and be wise and direct your heart in the way.
<sup>20</sup> Do not associate with those who drink much wine,
    or with gluttonous eaters of meat,

- <sup>21</sup> for the drunkard and the glutton become poor and slumber will clothe them with rags.
- <sup>22</sup> Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.
- <sup>23</sup> Buy the truth, but do not sell it;
buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.
- <sup>24</sup> The father of the righteous person will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will be glad in him.
- <sup>25</sup> Let your father and your mother be glad and let her who bore you rejoice.
- <sup>26</sup> My son, give me your heart and let your eyes observe my ways.
- <sup>27</sup> For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and an immoral woman is a narrow well.
- <sup>28</sup> She lies in wait like a robber and she increases the number of the treacherous among humanity.
- <sup>29</sup> Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaining?
Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?
- <sup>30</sup> Those who linger over wine,
those who try the mixed wine.
- <sup>31</sup> Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup
and goes down smoothly.
- <sup>32</sup> In the last it bites like a serpent and it stings like an adder.
- <sup>33</sup> Your eyes will see strange things and your heart will utter perverse things.
- <sup>34</sup> You will be as one who sleeps on the high seas or lies down on the top of a mast.
- <sup>35</sup> "They hit me," you will say, "but I was not hurt.
They beat me, but I did not feel it.
When will I wake up?
I will seek another drink."

Chapter 24

- <sup>1</sup> Do not be envious of those who are evil,
nor desire to associate with them, <sup>2</sup> because their hearts plot violence and their lips talk about trouble.
- <sup>3</sup> Through wisdom a house is built and by understanding it is established.
<sup>4</sup> By knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
- <sup>5</sup> A warrior of wisdom is strong,
and a man of knowledge increases his strength; <sup>6</sup> for with guidance you can wage your war and with many advisors there is victory.
- <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is too high for a fool;
in the gate he does not open his mouth.
- <sup>8</sup> There is one who plans to do evil—
people call him a master of schemes.
<sup>9</sup> A foolish plan is sin and a mocker is an abomination to people.
- <sup>10</sup> If you become weak with fear in the day of trouble, then your strength is small.
- <sup>11</sup> Rescue those who are being taken away to death and hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.
<sup>12</sup> If you say, "Behold, we knew nothing about this,"
does not the one who weighs the heart understand what you are saying?
The one who guards your life, does he not know it?
Will God not give to each one what he deserves?
- <sup>13</sup> My son, eat honey because it is good,
because the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
<sup>14</sup> Such is wisdom for your soul—
if you find it, there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.
- <sup>15</sup> Do not lie in wait like the wicked person who attacks the house of the righteous person.
Do not destroy his home!
<sup>16</sup> For the righteous person falls down seven times and rises again, but wicked people stumble at calamity.
- <sup>17</sup> Do not rejoice when your enemy falls and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles, <sup>18</sup> or Yahweh will see and disapprove and turn away his wrath from him.
- <sup>19</sup> Do not be angry because of evildoers,
and do not envy wicked people, <sup>20</sup> for the evil person has no future

and the lamp of wicked people will go out.

- <sup>21</sup> Fear Yahweh, and fear the king, my son;
do not associate with those who rebel against them, <sup>22</sup> for suddenly their disaster will come,
and who knows the extent of the destruction that will come from both of them?

<sup>23</sup> These also are sayings of the wise.

- Partiality in judging a case at law is not good.
<sup>24</sup> Whoever says to the wicked person, "You are a righteous person," will be cursed by peoples and abhorred by nations.
<sup>25</sup> But those who discipline the wicked will have delight and gifts of goodness will come to them.

<sup>26</sup> The one who gives a straight answer gives a kiss on the lips.

<sup>27</sup> Prepare your outdoor work,
and make everything ready for yourself in the field;
after that, build your house.

<sup>28</sup> Do not bear witness against your neighbor without cause and do not deceive with your lips.

<sup>29</sup> Do not say, "I will do to him what he has done to me;
I will pay him back for what he has done."

<sup>30</sup> I went by the field of a lazy person, past the vineyard of the man having no sense.

<sup>31</sup> Thorns had grown up everywhere,
the ground was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.

<sup>32</sup> Then I saw and considered it;
I looked and received instruction.

<sup>33</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—<sup>34</sup> and poverty comes marching upon you,
and your needs like an armed soldier.

<sup>2</sup> It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
but the glory of kings to search it out.

<sup>3</sup> Like the heavens are for height and the earth is for depth,
so the heart of kings is unsearchable.

<sup>4</sup> Remove the dross from the silver and a metal worker can use the silver in his craft.

<sup>5</sup> Even so, remove wicked people from the presence of the king and his throne will be established by doing what is right.

<sup>6</sup> Do not honor yourself in the king's presence and do not stand in the place designated for great people.

<sup>7</sup> It is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman.

What you have witnessed,
<sup>8</sup> do not bring quickly to trial.
For what will you do in the end
when your neighbor puts you to shame?

<sup>9</sup> Argue your case between you and your neighbor himself and do not reveal another's secret, <sup>10</sup> or else the one who hears you will bring shame upon you and an evil report about you that cannot be silenced.

<sup>11</sup> Apples of gold in settings of silver is a word spoken in the right situation.

<sup>12</sup> A gold ring or jewelry made of fine gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.

<sup>13</sup> Like the cold of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger for those who sent him;
he brings back the life of his masters.

<sup>14</sup> Clouds and wind without rain is the one who boasts about a gift he does not give.

<sup>15</sup> With patience a ruler can be persuaded
and a soft tongue can break a bone.

<sup>16</sup> If you find honey, eat just enough—
otherwise, having too much of it, you vomit it up.

<sup>17</sup> Do not set your foot in your neighbor's house too often;
he may become tired of you and hate you.

<sup>18</sup> A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club used in war, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.

- <sup>19</sup> An unfaithful man in whom you trust in a time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.
- <sup>20</sup> Like a person who takes off a garment in cold weather, or like vinegar poured upon carbonate of soda,
is the one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- <sup>21</sup> If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat,
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, <sup>22</sup> for you will shovel coals of fire on his head and Yahweh will reward you.
- <sup>23</sup> As surely as the north wind brings rain,
so a tongue that tells secrets will result in angry faces.
- <sup>24</sup> It is better to live on a corner of the roof
than in a house shared with a quarreling wife.
- <sup>25</sup> Like cold waters to one who is thirsty,
so is good news from a far country.
- <sup>26</sup> Like a fouled spring or a ruined fountain is a righteous person tottering before wicked people.
- <sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat too much honey;
that is like searching for honor after honor. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>28</sup> A person without self-control is like a city breached and without walls.

---

<sup>1</sup>Many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult verse.

---

- <sup>1</sup> Like snow in summer or rain in harvest,
so a fool does not deserve honor.
- <sup>2</sup> As the sparrow flutters and the swallow darts when they fly,
so an undeserved curse does not alight.
- <sup>3</sup> A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey and a rod is for the back of fools.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
or you will become like him.
- <sup>5</sup> Answer a fool and join in on his folly,
so he will not become wise in his own eyes.
- <sup>6</sup> Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
- <sup>7</sup> Like the legs of a paralytic which hang down is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
- <sup>8</sup> Like tying a stone in a sling is giving honor to a fool.
- <sup>9</sup> Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard
is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
- <sup>10</sup> Like an archer who wounds all those around him is one who hires a fool or hires anyone who passes by.
- <sup>11</sup> As a dog returns to his own vomit,
so is a fool who repeats his folly.
- <sup>12</sup> Do you see someone who is wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- <sup>13</sup> The lazy person says, "There is a lion on the road!
There is a lion between the open places!"
- <sup>14</sup> As the door turns on its hinges,
so is the lazy person upon his bed.
- <sup>15</sup> The lazy person puts his hand into the dish and yet he has no strength to lift it up to his mouth.
- <sup>16</sup> The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who respond with good judgment.
- <sup>17</sup> Like one who takes hold of the ears of a dog is a passerby who becomes angry at a dispute that is not his own.
- <sup>18</sup> Like a madman who throws

- firebrands, arrows, and death
<sup>19</sup> is the one who deceives his neighbor and says, "Was I not telling a joke?"
- <sup>20</sup> For lack of wood, the fire goes out;
and where there is no gossip, quarreling ceases.
- <sup>21</sup> As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.
- <sup>22</sup> The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels;
they go down into the inner parts of the body.
- <sup>23</sup> Like the glaze overlaying an earthen vessel,
so are burning lips and an evil heart.
- <sup>24</sup> One who hates others disguises his feelings with his lips and he lays up deceit within himself.
- <sup>25</sup> He will speak graciously, but do not believe him,
for there are seven abominations in his heart.
- <sup>26</sup> Though his hatred is covered with deception,
his wickedness will be revealed in the assembly.
- <sup>27</sup> Whoever digs a pit will fall into it and the stone will roll back on the one who pushed it.
- <sup>28</sup> A lying tongue hates the people it crushes and a flattering mouth brings about ruin.

Chapter 27

- <sup>1</sup> Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.
- <sup>2</sup> Let someone else praise you and not your own mouth;
a stranger and not your own lips.
- <sup>3</sup> Consider the heaviness of a stone and the weight of sand—
the provocation of a fool is heavier than both.
- <sup>4</sup> There is the cruelty of rage and the flood of anger,
but who is able to stand before jealousy?
- <sup>5</sup> Better is a rebuke that is clearly seen than hidden love.
- <sup>6</sup> Faithful are the wounds caused by a friend,
but many are the kisses of an enemy.
- <sup>7</sup> A person who has eaten to the full rejects even a honeycomb, but to the hungry person, every bitter thing is sweet.
- <sup>8</sup> Like a bird that wanders from its nest is a man who strays from where he lives.
- <sup>9</sup> Perfume and incense make the heart rejoice, but the sweetness of a friend comes from his sincere counsel. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>10</sup> Do not abandon your friend and your friend's father, and do not go to your brother's house on the day of your calamity.
Better is a neighbor who is nearby than a brother who is far away.
- <sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and make my heart rejoice;
then I will give back an answer to the one who mocks me.
- <sup>12</sup> The prudent sees trouble and hides himself,
but the naive go on and suffer for it.
- <sup>13</sup> Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger,
and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.
- <sup>14</sup> Whoever gives his neighbor a blessing with a loud voice early in the morning, that blessing will be considered to be a curse!
- <sup>15</sup> A quarreling wife is like the constant dripping on a rainy day; <sup>16</sup> restraining her is like restraining the wind,
or trying to catch oil in your right hand.
- <sup>17</sup> Iron sharpens iron;
in the same way, a man sharpens his friend.

- <sup>18</sup> The one who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit,
and the one who protects his master will be honored.
- <sup>19</sup> Just as water reflects a person's face,
so a person's heart reflects the person.
- <sup>20</sup> Just as Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied,
so a man's eyes are never satisfied.
- <sup>21</sup> A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold;
and a person is tested when he is praised.
- <sup>22</sup> Even if you crush a fool with the pestle—along with the grain—
yet his foolishness will not leave him.
- <sup>23</sup> Be sure you know the condition of your flocks and be concerned about your herds, <sup>24</sup> for wealth is not forever.
Does a crown endure for all generations?
- <sup>25</sup> You should know when the hay is gone and the new growth appears, and the time when the grass from the hills is gathered in.
- <sup>26</sup> Those lambs will provide your clothing and the goats will provide the price of the field.
- <sup>27</sup> There will be goats' milk for your food
—the food for your household—
and nourishment for your servant girls.

Chapter 28

- <sup>1</sup> The wicked people run away when no one chases them, but righteous people are as bold as a young lion.
- <sup>2</sup> Because of the transgression of a land, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, it will last a long time.
- <sup>3</sup> A poor person who oppresses other poor people is like a beating rain that leaves no food.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who abandon the law praise wicked people,
but those who keep the law fight against them.
- <sup>5</sup> Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek Yahweh understand everything.
- <sup>6</sup> It is better for a poor person who walks in his integrity than for a rich person who is crooked in his ways.
- <sup>7</sup> He who keeps the law is a son who has understanding, but one who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
- <sup>8</sup> The one who makes his fortune by usury and interest gathers his wealth for another who will be gracious to the poor.
- <sup>9</sup> If one turns away his ear from hearing the law,
even his prayer is an abomination.
- <sup>10</sup> Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit,
but the blameless will have a good inheritance.
- <sup>11</sup> The rich person may be wise in his own eyes, but a poor person who has understanding will find him out.
- <sup>12</sup> When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked arise, people are sought out.
- <sup>13</sup> The one who hides his sins will not prosper, but the one who confesses them and abandons them will be shown mercy.
- <sup>14</sup> The one who always lives with reverence is blessed,
but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.
- <sup>15</sup> Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.
- <sup>16</sup> The ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but the one who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.
- <sup>17</sup> If a man is burdened with a person's blood,
he will be a fugitive until death

and no one will help him.

- <sup>18</sup> Whoever walks with integrity will be kept safe,
but the one whose way is crooked will suddenly fall.
- <sup>19</sup> The one who works his land will have plenty of food,
but whoever follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.
- <sup>20</sup> A faithful man will have great blessings, but the one who gets rich quickly will not go unpunished.
- <sup>21</sup> It is not good to show partiality,
but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.
- <sup>22</sup> A stingy man hurries after riches,
but he does not know that poverty will come upon him.
- <sup>23</sup> Whoever disciplines someone, afterward will find more favor from him than from the one who flatters him with his tongue.
- <sup>24</sup> Whoever robs his father and his mother and says, "That is no sin," he is the companion of the one who destroys.
- <sup>25</sup> A greedy man stirs up conflict,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper.
- <sup>26</sup> One who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but whoever walks in wisdom will be delivered.
- <sup>27</sup> The one who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but whoever closes his eyes to them will receive many curses.
- <sup>28</sup> When the wicked arise, people hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

- <sup>1</sup> A person who has received many rebukes but who stiffens his neck will be broken in a moment beyond healing.
- <sup>2</sup> When righteous people increase, the people rejoice, but when a wicked person is the ruler, the people sigh.
- <sup>3</sup> Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
but he who keeps company with prostitutes destroys his wealth.
- <sup>4</sup> The king establishes the land by justice,
but the one who demands bribes throws it down.
- <sup>5</sup> A man who flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for his feet.
- <sup>6</sup> In the sin of an evil person is a trap,
but the righteous person sings and rejoices.
- <sup>7</sup> The righteous person knows the rights of the poor;
the wicked person does not understand such knowledge.
- <sup>8</sup> Mockers set a city on fire,
but those who are wise turn away wrath.
- <sup>9</sup> When a wise person has a legal dispute with a fool,
he rages and laughs, and there will be no rest.
- <sup>10</sup> Men of bloodshed hate the one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright.
- <sup>11</sup> A fool brings forth all his spirit,
but a wise man soothes it back.
- <sup>12</sup> If a ruler pays attention to lies,
all his officials will be wicked.
- <sup>13</sup> The poor person and the oppressor are similar,
for Yahweh gives light to the eyes of them both.
- <sup>14</sup> If a king judges the poor by the truth,
his throne will be established forever.
- <sup>15</sup> The rod and correction give wisdom,
but a child freed from discipline puts his mother to shame.
- <sup>16</sup> When wicked people are in power, transgression increases, but righteous people will see the downfall of those wicked people.
- <sup>17</sup> Discipline your son and he will give you rest;
he will bring delight into your life.
- <sup>18</sup> Where there is no prophetic vision the people run wild,

but the one who keeps the law is blessed.

<sup>19</sup> A slave will not be corrected by words,
for though he understands, there will be no response.

<sup>20</sup> Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

<sup>21</sup> One who pampers his slave from youth,
at the end of it there will be trouble.

<sup>22</sup> An angry person stirs up strife
and a master of rage commits many sins.

<sup>23</sup> A person's pride brings him low,
but one who has a humble spirit will be given honor.

<sup>24</sup> One who shares with a thief hates his own life;
he hears the curse and says nothing.

<sup>25</sup> The fear of man makes a snare,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be protected.

but from Yahweh is justice for a person.

<sup>27</sup> An unjust man is an abomination to righteous people, but the one whose way is upright is an abomination to the wicked person.

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>The words of Agur son of Jakeh—the burden.

This man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal: <sup>1</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Surely I am more like an animal than any human, and I do not have the understanding of a human being.

<sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom,
nor do I have knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup> Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered up the wind in the hollow of his hands?
Who has wrapped up the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is the name of his son?
Surely you know!

<sup>5</sup> Every word of God is tested;
he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup> Do not add to his words,
or he will discipline you,
and you will be proved to be a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things I ask of you;
do not withhold them from me before I die:

<sup>8</sup> Put vanity and lies far away from me.
Give me neither poverty nor riches,
just let me eat the food that is my portion.

<sup>9</sup> For if I have too much, I might deny you and say, "Who is Yahweh?"
Or if I become poor, I might steal and profane the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a slave before his master,
or he will curse you and you will be held guilty.

<sup>11</sup> There is a generation that curses their father and does not bless their mother.

<sup>12</sup> There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, and yet they are not washed of their filth.

<sup>13</sup> There is a generation whose eyes are raised up,
and how high are their eyelids lifted up!

<sup>14</sup> There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jawbones are knives,
so they may devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters:
"Give and give," they cry.

There are three things that are never satisfied,
four that never say, "Enough":

<sup>16</sup> Sheol; the barren womb;
land that is never satisfied with water;

and the fire that never says, "Enough!"

<sup>17</sup> The eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley and will be eaten by the vultures.

<sup>18</sup> There are three things that are too wonderful for me, four that I do not understand:
<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky;
the way of a snake on a rock;
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea;
and the way of a man with a young woman.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats and she wipes her mouth and says, "I have not behaved wickedly."

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:
<sup>22</sup> a slave when he becomes king;
a fool when he is filled with food;
<sup>23</sup> a hated woman when she marries;
and a slave girl when she takes the place of her mistress.

<sup>24</sup> Four things on earth are small and yet they are very wise:
<sup>25</sup> the ants are creatures that are not strong,
but they prepare their food in the summer; <sup>26</sup> the rock badgers are not mighty creatures,
but they make their homes in the rocks.
<sup>27</sup> Locusts have no king,
but all of them march in rank.
<sup>28</sup> As for the lizard, you can hold it in your two hands, yet it is found in kings' palaces.

<sup>29</sup> There are three things that are stately in their stride and four that are stately in how they walk:
<sup>30</sup> a lion, strongest among wild animals—
it does not turn away from anything; <sup>31</sup> a strutting rooster; a goat;
and a king whose soldiers are beside him.

<sup>32</sup> If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil—
put your hand over your mouth.
<sup>33</sup> As churning milk makes butter and as one's nose will produce blood if it is twisted, so deeds done in anger produce conflict.

<sup>1</sup>The second line of some ancient Greek translations of the ancient Hebrew reads This man declares: I am weary. I am weary and helpless. They appear to have translated the Hebrew names Ithiel and Ucal into the Greek as weary and helpless .

Chapter 31

<sup>2</sup> What, my son? What is it, son of my womb?
What do you want, son of my vows?

<sup>3</sup> Do not give your strength to women,
or your ways to those who destroy kings.

<sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine,
or for rulers to crave strong drink, <sup>5</sup> because when they drink they forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.

<sup>6</sup> Give strong drink to a person who is perishing and wine to those in bitter distress.

<sup>7</sup> He will drink and he will forget his poverty and he will not remember his trouble.

<sup>8</sup> Speak for those who cannot speak,
for the causes of all who are perishing.

<sup>9</sup> Speak out and judge by the measure of what is right and plead the cause of poor and needy people.

<sup>10</sup> Who can find a capable wife?
Her value is far more than jewels.

<sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will never be poor.

<sup>12</sup> She does good things for him and not evil
all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup> She searches for wool and flax
and works with the delight of her hands.

<sup>14</sup> She is like the merchant ships;
she brings her food from far away.

<sup>15</sup> She rises while it is night and gives food to her household, and she distributes portions to her female servants.

<sup>16</sup> She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup> She girds herself with strength and makes her arms strong.

<sup>18</sup> She knows what will make a good profit for her;
all night long her lamp is not extinguished.

<sup>19</sup> She puts her hands on the spindle,
and her hands grasp the twisting thread.

<sup>20</sup> She reaches out with her hand to poor people;
she reaches out with her hands to needy people.

for all her household are clothed in scarlet.

<sup>22</sup> She makes coverings for her bed,
and she wears clothes of fine purple linen.

<sup>23</sup> Her husband is known at the gates,
when he sits with the elders of the land.

<sup>24</sup> She makes linen garments and sells them,

and she supplies sashes to the merchants.
<sup>25</sup> She is clothed with strength and honor,
and she laughs at the future.
<sup>26</sup> She opens her mouth with wisdom and the law of kindness is on her tongue.
<sup>27</sup> She watches over the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
<sup>28</sup> Her children rise up and call her blessed,
and her husband praises her, saying, <sup>29</sup> "Many women have done well,
but you surpassed them all."
<sup>30</sup> Elegance is deceptive, beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears Yahweh, she will be praised.
<sup>31</sup> Give her the fruit of her hands and let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

says the Teacher.
"Absolutely meaningless!
Everything is meaningless!"

<sup>3</sup> What profit does a man gain from all the work that he labors at under the sun?

<sup>4</sup> One generation goes, and another generation comes,
but the earth remains forever.

<sup>5</sup> The sun rises, and it goes down and hurries back to the place where it rises again.

<sup>6</sup> The wind blows south and circles around to the north, always going around along its pathway and coming back again.

<sup>7</sup> All the rivers flow into the sea,
but the sea is never full.
To the place where the rivers go,
there they go again.

<sup>8</sup> Everything becomes wearisome,
and no one can explain it.
The eye is not satisfied by what it sees,
nor is the ear fulfilled by what it hears.

<sup>9</sup> Whatever has been is what will be,
and whatever has been done is what will be done.
There is nothing new under the sun.

<sup>10</sup> Is there anything about which it may be said,
'Look, this is new'?

Whatever exists has already existed for a long time,
during ages which came long before us.

<sup>11</sup> No one seems to remember the things that happened in ancient times, and the things that happened much later and that will happen in the future will not likely be remembered either."

<sup>12</sup>I am the Teacher, and I have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I applied my mind to study and to search out by wisdom everything that is done under heaven. That search is a burdensome task that God has given to the children of mankind to be busy with. <sup>14</sup>I have seen all the deeds that are done under the sun, and look, they all are meaningless and chasing the wind.

The missing cannot be counted!

<sup>16</sup>I have spoken to my heart, saying, "Look, I have acquired greater wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My mind has seen great wisdom and knowledge."<sup>17</sup>So I applied my heart to know wisdom and also madness and folly. I came to understand that this also was an attempt to shepherd the wind.

<sup>18</sup> For in the abundance of wisdom there is much frustration, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

---

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with happiness. So enjoy pleasure." But look, this also is meaningless.<sup>2</sup>I said about laughter, "It is crazy," and about pleasure, "What use is it?"

<sup>3</sup>I explored in my heart how to gratify myself with wine. I let my mind guide me with wisdom although I was still holding on to folly. I wanted to find out what is good for the children of mankind to do under heaven during the days of their lives.

<sup>7</sup>I purchased male slaves and female slaves; I had slaves born in my palace. I also had large herds and flocks of livestock, much more than any king who ruled before me in Jerusalem.<sup>8</sup>I also accumulated for myself silver and gold, the treasures of kings and provinces. I got singers, both male and female, and many concubines, the delight of the children of men. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>9</sup>So I became greater and wealthier than all who were before me in Jerusalem, and my wisdom remained with me.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever my eyes desired, I did not withhold from them.

I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, because my heart rejoiced in all my labor and pleasure was my reward for all my labor.

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished, and on the labor that I had done,
but again, everything was meaningless—like chasing the wind.
There was no profit under the sun in it.

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to consider wisdom,
and also madness and folly.
For what more can the man who becomes the next king do than what the king has already done?

<sup>13</sup> Then I began to understand that wisdom has advantages over folly, just as light is more profitable than darkness.

<sup>14</sup> The wise man uses his eyes in his head to see where he is going,
but the fool walks in darkness,
although I know
the same event happens to all of them.

<sup>15</sup> Then I said in my heart,
"What happens to the fool, will also happen to me.
So what difference does it make if I am very wise?"
I concluded in my heart,
"This too is meaningless."

<sup>16</sup> For the wise man, like the fool, is not remembered for very long.
In the days to come everything will have been long forgotten.
The wise man dies just like the fool dies.

<sup>17</sup>So I detested life because all the work done under the sun was evil to me. This was because everything is meaningless—like chasing the wind.<sup>18</sup>I hated all my toil for which I had toiled under the sun because I must leave it behind to the man who comes after me.

<sup>19</sup>For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master over everything under the sun that my labor and wisdom have built. This also is meaningless.<sup>20</sup>So I began to give my heart to despair over all the labor that I had done under the sun.

<sup>21</sup>For there might be someone who labors with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, but he will leave everything he has to a man who has not made any of it. This also is meaningless—a great injustice.<sup>22</sup>What profit does a man gain from all the work and from the striving of heart that he labors at under the sun?<sup>23</sup>Every day his work is painful and stressful, so at night his soul does not find rest. This also is meaningless.

<sup>24</sup>There is nothing better for a person than to simply eat and drink and find enjoyment in his labor. I saw that this truth comes from the hand of God.<sup>25</sup>For who can eat or who can have any kind of pleasure apart from God?

<sup>26</sup>For to a person who pleases him, God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy. However, to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and storing up so that he may give it away to someone who pleases God. This also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

<sup>1</sup>Many modern translations interpret the last part of this verse in different ways: and many concubines, and everything that pleases men or and everything that pleases people .

---

<sup>1</sup> For everything there is an appointed time,
 and a season for every matter under heaven.
<sup>2</sup> There is a time to be born and a time to die,
 a time to plant and a time to pull up plants, <sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal,
 a time to tear down and a time to build up.
<sup>4</sup> There is a time to weep and a time to laugh,
 a time to mourn and a time to dance, <sup>5</sup> a time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace other people, and a time to refrain from embracing.
<sup>6</sup> There is a time to look for things and a time to stop looking,
 a time to keep things and a time to throw away things, <sup>7</sup> a time to tear clothing and a time to repair clothing,
 a time to keep silent and a time to speak.
<sup>8</sup> There is a time to love and a time to hate,
 a time for war and a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup>What profit does the worker gain in his labor?<sup>10</sup>I have seen the work that God has given to human beings to complete.

<sup>11</sup>God has made everything suitable for its own time. He has also placed eternity in their hearts. But mankind cannot understand the deeds that God has done, from their beginning all the way to their end.

<sup>12</sup>I know that there is nothing better for a person than to rejoice and to do good so long as he lives—<sup>13</sup>and that everyone should eat and drink, and should understand how to find enjoyment in his labor. This is God's gift to mankind.

<sup>14</sup>I know that whatever God does lasts forever. Nothing can be added to it or taken away, because it is God who has done it so that people will approach him with honor.

<sup>15</sup> Whatever exists has already existed;
 whatever will exist has already existed.
 God makes human beings seek hidden things. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>16</sup>I have seen the wickedness that is under the sun,
 where there should be justice,
 and in place of righteousness, wickedness was there.

<sup>17</sup>I said in my heart,
 "God will judge
 the righteous and the wicked
 at the right time for every matter and every deed."

<sup>18</sup>I said in my heart, "God tests human beings to show them that they are like animals."

<sup>19</sup>For the fate of the children of mankind and the fate of animals is the same. The death of one is like the death of the other. The breath is the same for all of them. There is no advantage for mankind over the animals. Everything is meaningless.<sup>20</sup>Everything is going to the same place. Everything comes from the dust, and everything returns to the dust.

<sup>21</sup>Who knows whether the spirit of mankind goes upward and the spirit of animals goes downward into the earth? <sup>22</sup>So again I realized that there is nothing better for a person than to enjoy his work, for that is his assignment. Who can bring him back to see what happens after him?

<sup>2</sup>Some modern translations have Who knows the spirit of mankind, which goes upward, and the spirit of animals, which goes downward into the earth?

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Once again I thought about all the oppression that is done under the sun.

And behold, the tears of oppressed people,
and they had no one to comfort them!
Power was in the hand of their oppressors,
and there was no one to comfort them!

<sup>2</sup> So I considered those who are already dead
more fortunate than the living,
who are still alive.

<sup>3</sup> However, more fortunate than both of them is the one who has not yet lived, the one who has not seen any of the evil acts that are done under the sun.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw that every act of labor and every skillful work became the envy of one's neighbor. This also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

<sup>5</sup> The fool folds his hands and does not work,
so his food is his own flesh.

<sup>6</sup> But better is a handful of profit with quiet work than two handfuls with the labor that tries to shepherd the wind.

<sup>7</sup>I returned and I saw something meaningless under the sun.

<sup>8</sup> There is the kind of man who is alone.
He does not have a companion, no son or brother,
and yet there is no end to all his work,
and his eyes are not satisfied with gaining wealth.
He wonders, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?"
This also is meaningless—
a bad situation.

<sup>9</sup> Two people work better than one;
together they can earn a good wage for their labor.

<sup>10</sup> For if one falls,
the other can lift up his friend.
However, woe to the one who is alone when he falls
if there is no one to lift him up.

<sup>11</sup> If two lie down together, they can be warm,
but how can one be warm alone?

<sup>12</sup> One man alone can be overpowered,
but two can withstand an attack,
and a three-strand rope is not quickly broken.

<sup>13</sup>It is better to be a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to listen to warnings. <sup>14</sup>This is true even if the young man becomes king from prison, or even if he was born poor in his kingdom.

<sup>15</sup>I saw everyone who was alive and was walking around under the sun, along with a youth who was to rise up to take his place. <sup>16</sup>There is no end to all the people who want to obey the new king, but later many of them will no longer praise him. Surely this also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not understand that they are doing what is wrong.

<sup>2</sup> Do not be too quick to speak with your mouth, and do not let your heart be too quick to bring any matter up before God.

God is in heaven,
but you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

<sup>3</sup> If you have too many things to do and worry about, you will probably have bad dreams.
The more words you speak, the more foolish things you will probably say.

<sup>4</sup>When you make a vow to God, do not delay to do it, for God has no pleasure in fools. Do what you vow you will do.<sup>5</sup>It is better not to make a vow than to make one that you do not carry out.

<sup>6</sup>Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin. Do not say to the priest's messenger, "That vow was a mistake." Why make God angry by vowing falsely, provoking God to destroy the work of your hands?<sup>7</sup>For when there are many dreams and many words, they are meaningless. Instead, fear God!

<sup>8</sup>When you see the poor being oppressed and robbed of just and right treatment in your province, do not be astonished as if no one knows, because there are people in power who watch those under them, and there are even higher ones over them.<sup>9</sup>In addition, the produce of the land is for everyone, and the king himself takes produce from the fields.

nor will he who loves wealth be satisfied with his income.
This, too, is meaningless.

<sup>11</sup> As prosperity increases,
so also do the people who consume it.
What advantage in wealth is there to the owner except to watch it with his eyes?

<sup>12</sup> The sleep of a laborer is sweet,
whether he eats little or a lot,
but the wealth of a rich person
does not allow him to sleep well.

<sup>13</sup>There is an evil that I have seen under the sun:
riches hoarded by the owner, resulting in his own misery.

<sup>14</sup> When the rich man loses his wealth through bad luck,
his own son, one whom he has fathered,
is left with nothing in his hands.

<sup>15</sup> As a man comes from his mother's womb,
so also he will leave naked.
He can take none of the fruits of his labor
in his hand.

<sup>16</sup>Another evil is that as a person comes, so he goes away.
So what profit is there for him
who labors for the wind?

<sup>17</sup> During his days he eats with darkness and is greatly distressed with sickness and anger.

<sup>18</sup>Look, what I have seen to be good and suitable is for a person to eat and drink and to find enjoyment in his labor as he labors under the sun during the days of this life that God has given him. For this is man's assignment.

<sup>19</sup>Every person to whom God has given riches and wealth and the ability to receive his share and rejoice in his labor—this is a gift from God. <sup>20</sup>For he does not call to mind very often the days of his life, because God makes him keep busy with the things that he enjoys doing.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavy on men.<sup>2</sup>God gives riches, wealth, and honor to a man so that he lacks nothing that he desires for himself, but then God gives him no ability to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger enjoys them. This is meaningless and a terrible affliction.

<sup>3</sup>If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but if his heart is not satisfied with good and he is not buried, then I say that a baby that is born dead is better off than he is.<sup>4</sup>Such a baby is born without meaning and passes away in darkness, and its name is covered in darkness.

<sup>5</sup>Although this child does not see the sun or know anything, it has rest even though that man did not.<sup>6</sup>Even if a man should live for two thousand years but does not learn to enjoy good things, he goes to the same place as everyone else.

<sup>7</sup> All a man's labor is for his mouth,
yet his appetite is not satisfied.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, what advantage has the wise person over the fool?

What advantage does the poor man have even if he knows how to act in front of other people?

<sup>9</sup> What the eye sees is better than what the soul wanders after.
This also is meaningless—
like chasing the wind.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever has existed has already been given its name,
and what mankind is like has already been known.
So it has become useless for a man to dispute with the one who is stronger than he is.

<sup>11</sup> The more words there are,
the more meaningless they become.
What advantage is that to a man?

<sup>12</sup>For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few and meaningless days he passes through like a shadow? Who can tell a person what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

---

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> A good name is better than costly perfume, and the day of death is better than the day of birth.
- <sup>2</sup> It is better to go to a house of mourning
than to a house of feasting, for mourning comes to all people at the end of life,
so living people must take this to heart.
- <sup>3</sup> Grief is better than laughter,
for after sadness of face comes gladness of heart.
- <sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
but the heart of fools is in the house of feasting.
- <sup>5</sup> It is better to listen to the rebuke of the wise than to listen to the song of fools.
- <sup>6</sup> For like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot,
so also is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.
- <sup>7</sup> Extortion certainly makes a wise man foolish,
and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- <sup>8</sup> Better is the end of a matter than the beginning;
and the people patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be quick to anger in your spirit,
for anger resides in the hearts of fools.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not say, "Why were the days of old better than these?"
For it is not because of wisdom that you ask this question.
- <sup>11</sup> Wisdom, like an inheritance, is good.
It benefits those who see the sun.
- <sup>12</sup> For wisdom provides protection
as money can provide protection, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to whoever has it.
- <sup>13</sup> Consider the deeds of God:

Who can straighten out anything he has made crooked?
- <sup>14</sup> When times are good, live happily in that good,
but when times are bad, consider this:
God has allowed both
to exist side by side.
For this reason, no one will find out anything that is coming after him.
- <sup>15</sup> In my meaningless life I have seen everything.
There is a righteous person who perishes in spite of his righteousness, and there is a wicked person who lives a long life in spite of his evil deeds.
- <sup>16</sup> Do not be self-righteous,
wise in your own eyes.
Why should you destroy yourself?
- <sup>17</sup> Do not be too wicked or foolish.

- Why should you die before your time?
<sup>18</sup> It is good that you should take hold of this wisdom, and that you should not let go of righteousness.
For the person who fears God will meet all his obligations. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>19</sup> Wisdom is powerful in the wise man,
more than ten rulers in a city.
- <sup>20</sup> There is not a righteous man on earth
who does good and never sins.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not listen to every word that is spoken, because you might hear your servant curse you.
- <sup>22</sup> For very many times, your heart knows,
even you have cursed others.
- <sup>23</sup> All this have I proven by wisdom. I said,
"I will be wise,"
but it was more than I could be.
- <sup>24</sup> Wisdom is far off and very deep.
Who can find it?
- <sup>25</sup> I turned my heart to learn and examine and seek wisdom and the explanations of reality, and to understand that evil is stupid
and that folly is madness.
- <sup>26</sup> I found that more bitter than death is any woman
whose heart is full of snares and nets,
and whose hands are chains.
Whoever pleases God will escape from her,
but the sinner will be caught by her.
- <sup>27</sup> "Consider what I have discovered," says the Teacher.
"I have been adding one discovery to another in order to find an explanation of reality.
- <sup>28</sup> This is what I am still looking for,
but I have not found it.
I did find one righteous man among a thousand,
but a woman among all those I did not find.
- <sup>29</sup> I have discovered only this:
God created humanity upright,
but they have gone away looking for many difficulties."

---

<sup>1</sup> Instead of will meet all his obligations , many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult passage.

---

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup> Who is a wise man?

Who knows what the events in life mean?
Wisdom in a man causes his face to shine,
and the hardness of his face is changed.

<sup>2</sup>I advise you to obey the king's command because of God's oath to protect him.<sup>3</sup>Do not hurry out of his presence, and do not stand in support of something wrong, for the king does whatever he desires.<sup>4</sup>The king's word rules, so who will say to him, "What are you doing?"

<sup>5</sup> Whoever keeps the king's commands avoids harm.

A wise man's heart recognizes the proper course and time of action.

<sup>6</sup> For every matter there is a correct response and a time to respond, because the troubles of man are great.

<sup>7</sup> No one knows what is coming next.

Who can tell him what is coming?

<sup>8</sup> No one has power over the wind to restrain it, <sup>1</sup>
and so, no one has power over the day of his death.

No one is discharged from the army during a battle,
and wickedness will not rescue those who are its slaves.

<sup>9</sup>I have realized all this; I have applied my heart to every kind of work that is done under the sun. There is a time when a person exercises authority over another person to that person's hurt. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>10</sup>So I saw the wicked buried publicly. They were taken from the holy area and buried and were praised by people in the city where they had done their wicked deeds. This also is meaningless. <sup>3</sup>

<sup>11</sup>When a sentence against an evil crime is not executed quickly, it entices the hearts of human beings to do evil.

<sup>12</sup>Even though a sinner does evil a hundred times and still lives a long time, yet I know that it will be better for those who respect God, for those who stand before him and show him respect.<sup>13</sup>But it will not go well for a wicked man; his life will not be prolonged. His days are like a fleeting shadow because he does not honor God.

<sup>14</sup>There is something else meaningless that is done on the earth: there are righteous people who get what the wicked deserve, and there are wicked people who get what the righteous deserve. I said this too is meaningless.

<sup>15</sup>So I recommend enjoyment, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat and drink and to be merry. It is happiness that will accompany him in his labor for all the days of his life that God has given him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup>When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to understand the work that is done on the earth, work often done without sleep for the eyes at night or in the day,<sup>17</sup> then I considered all of God's deeds, and that man cannot understand the work that is done under the sun. No matter how much a man labors to find the answers, he will not find them. Even though a wise man might believe he knows, he really does not.

<sup>3</sup>Many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult verse: I saw wicked people come and go into the holy place. They proudly spoke in the city about the things they had done. This also is meaningless . Other modern translations have I saw wicked people come and go into the holy place. They were praised in the city for the things they had done. This also is meaningless .

---

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>So all of this I laid to my heart, to make it clear, and I concluded that the righteous and the wise, and all that they do, are in the hand of God, but no one knows whether love or hate awaits him.

<sup>2</sup>Everyone has the same fate. The same fate awaits righteous people and wicked, the good, <sup>1</sup> the clean and the unclean, and the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice.

As good people will die,
so also will the sinner.
As the one who swears will die,
so also will the man who fears to make an oath.

<sup>3</sup>There is an evil fate for everything that is done under the sun, the same event happens to them all. The hearts of human beings are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live. So after that they go to the dead.

<sup>4</sup>Whoever is joined with all the living has hope—even a live dog is better than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup> For those who are alive know they will die,
but the dead do not know anything.
They no longer have any reward
because their memory is forgotten.

<sup>6</sup> Their love, hatred,
and envy have vanished long ago.
They will never have a place again
in anything done under the sun.

<sup>7</sup>Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of your deeds.

<sup>9</sup>Enjoy life with the wife whom you love all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun—all your meaningless days. For this is your reward in life for your difficult work that you labored in under the sun.<sup>10</sup>Whatever your hand finds to do, work at it with your strength, because there is no work or explanation or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

<sup>11</sup>Again I saw under the sun:
the race is not to the swift,
nor is the battle to the strong,
nor does food come to the wise,
nor riches to the intelligent,
nor favor to those with knowledge,
but time and chance happen to them all.

<sup>12</sup>Surely, no one knows when his time will come.
As fish are caught in a deadly net,
or birds are caught in a snare,
the children of human beings are ensnared by evil times that suddenly fall upon them.

<sup>13</sup>I have also seen wisdom under the sun in a way that seemed great to me.<sup>14</sup>There was a small city with only a few men in it, and a great king came against it, he surrounded it and built great siege ramps against it.<sup>15</sup>Now in the city was found a poor, wise man, who by his wisdom saved the city. Yet later, no one remembered that same poor man.

<sup>16</sup>So I concluded, "Wisdom is better than strength, but the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard."

<sup>17</sup> The words of wise people spoken quietly are heard better than the shouts of any ruler among fools.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner can ruin much good.

---

<sup>18</sup>Some modern translations follow ancient translations which have the good and the bad . In this way, they make the phrase complete. Translators may decide to imitate them.

---

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> As dead flies cause perfume to stink,
so a little folly can outweigh wisdom and honor.
- <sup>2</sup> The heart of a wise person tends to the right,
but the heart of a fool tends to the left.
- <sup>3</sup> When a fool walks down a road,
his thinking is deficient,
proving to everyone he is a fool.
- <sup>4</sup> If the emotions of a ruler rise up against you,
do not leave your work.
Calm can quiet down great outrage.
- <sup>5</sup> There is an evil that I have seen under the sun,
a kind of error that comes from a ruler:
- <sup>6</sup> Fools are given leadership positions,
while wealthy men are given low positions.
- <sup>7</sup> I have seen slaves riding horses,
and princes walking on the ground like slaves.
- <sup>8</sup> The one who digs a pit will fall into it,
and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.
- <sup>9</sup> Whoever cuts out stones can be hurt by them,
and the man who chops wood is endangered by it.
- <sup>10</sup> If an iron blade is dull,
and a man does not sharpen it,
then he must use more strength,
but wisdom provides an advantage for success.
- <sup>11</sup> If a snake bites before it is charmed,
then there is no advantage for the charmer.
- <sup>12</sup> The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
but the lips of a fool consume him.
- <sup>13</sup> As words begin to flow from a fool's mouth, foolishness comes out,
and at the end his mouth flows with wicked madness.
- <sup>14</sup> A fool multiplies words,

but no one knows what is coming.
Who knows what is coming after him?
- <sup>15</sup> The toil of fools wearies them,
so that they do not even know the road to town.
- <sup>16</sup> Woe to you, land, if your king is a young boy,
and if your leaders begin feasting in the morning!
- <sup>17</sup> But blessed are you, land, if your king is the son of nobles,
and if your leaders eat at the right time,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!
- <sup>18</sup> Because of laziness the roof sinks in,
and because of idle hands the house leaks.
- <sup>19</sup> People prepare food for laughter,

wine brings enjoyment to life,
and money fills the need for everything.

- <sup>20</sup> Do not curse the king, not even in your mind,
and do not curse rich people in your bedroom.
For a bird of the sky might carry your words;
whatever has wings can spread the matter.

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup> Send out your bread on the waters,
for you will find it again after many days.
- <sup>2</sup> Share it with seven, even eight people,
for you do not know what disasters are coming on the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full of rain,
they empty themselves on the earth,
and if a tree falls toward the south or toward the north,
wherever the tree falls, there it will remain.
- <sup>4</sup> He who watches the wind might not plant,
and he who watches the clouds might not harvest.
- <sup>5</sup> As you do not know the path of the wind, nor how a baby's bones grow in the pregnant womb, <sup>1</sup>
so also you cannot comprehend the work of God,
who created everything.
- <sup>6</sup> In the morning plant your seed;
until the evening, work with your hands as needed,
for you do not know which will prosper,
whether morning or evening, or this or that,
or whether they will both alike be good.
- <sup>7</sup> Truly the light is sweet,
and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun.
- <sup>8</sup> If someone lives many years,
let him rejoice in all of them,
but let him think about the coming days of darkness,
for they will be many.
Everything to come is meaningless.
- <sup>9</sup> Take joy, young man, in your youth,
and let your heart be joyful in the days of your youth.
Pursue the good desires of your heart,
and whatever is within the sight of your eyes.
However, know that God will bring you into judgment for all these things.
- <sup>10</sup> Drive anger away from your heart,
and ignore any pain in your body,
because youth and its strength are meaningless.

<sup>1</sup>Some modern translations have As you do not know the path of the spirit to the baby's bones in the pregnant womb .

---

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup> Also call to mind your Creator
     in the days of your youth,
 before the days of difficulty come,
     and before the years arrive when you say,
     "I have no pleasure in them";
<sup>2</sup> do this before the light of the sun and the moon and the stars grows dark,
     and dark clouds return after the rain.
<sup>3</sup> That will be the time when the palace guards will tremble, and strong men are bent over,
     and the women who grind cease because they are few,
     and those who look through windows become dim.
<sup>4</sup> That will be the time when the doors are shut in the street, and the sound of grinding stops,
     when men are startled at the voice of a bird,
     and the singing of girls' voices fades away.
<sup>5</sup> That will be the time when men become afraid of heights and of terrors along the road,
     and when the almond tree blossoms,
     and when grasshoppers drag themselves along,
     and when natural desires fail.
 Then the man goes to his eternal home
     and the mourners go around in the streets.

<sup>6</sup> Call to mind your Creator before the silver cord is cut,
     or the golden bowl is crushed,
     or the pitcher is shattered at the spring,
     or the water wheel is broken at the cistern, <sup>7</sup> before the dust returns to the earth where it came from,
     and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

     "Everything is meaningless!"

<sup>9</sup>The Teacher was wise and he taught the people knowledge. He studied and searched out and set in order many proverbs.

<sup>10</sup>The Teacher sought to write using vivid, upright words of truth.

<sup>11</sup>The words of wise people are like goads. Like nails driven deeply are the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs, which are taught by one shepherd.

<sup>12</sup>My son, be warned about something more. The making of many books has no end, and much study brings weariness to the body.

<sup>13</sup> The end of the matter
     after everything has been heard,
 is that you must fear God and keep his commandments,
     for this is the whole duty of mankind.

<sup>14</sup> For God will bring every deed into judgment, along with every hidden thing,
     whether it is good or evil.

Song of Songs

<sup>1</sup>The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

<sup>2</sup> Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,
for your love is better than wine.
<sup>3</sup> Your anointing oils have a pleasing fragrance;
your name is like flowing perfume,
so the young women love you.
<sup>4</sup> Take me with you, and we will run.
The king has brought me into his rooms.

We are glad; We rejoice about you;
let us praise your love; it is better than wine.
It is right for the other women to love you.

<sup>5</sup> I am dark but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem—
dark like the tents of Kedar, lovely like the curtains of Solomon.
<sup>6</sup> Do not stare at me because I am dark,
because the sun has scorched me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me keeper of the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have not kept.
<sup>7</sup> Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where do you feed your flock?
Where do you rest your flock at noontime?
Why should I be like someone who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?
<sup>8</sup> If you do not know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of my flock,
and pasture your young goats near the shepherds' tents.
<sup>9</sup> I compare you, my love,
to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses.
<sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments,
your neck with strings of jewels.
<sup>11</sup> We will make for you gold ornaments with silver studs.
<sup>12</sup> While the king lay on his couch,
my nard emitted its fragrance.
<sup>13</sup> My beloved is to me like a bag of myrrh that spends the night lying between my breasts.
<sup>14</sup> My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.
<sup>15</sup> Listen, you are beautiful, my love;
listen, you are beautiful;
your eyes are doves.

- <sup>16</sup> Listen, you are handsome, my beloved, how handsome.
The lush plants are our bed.
- <sup>17</sup> The beams of our house are cedars;
our rafters are firs.

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> I am a meadow flower of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.
- <sup>2</sup> As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the young women.
- <sup>3</sup> As an apricot tree among the trees of the forest,
so is my beloved among the young men.
I sit down under his shadow with great delight,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.
- <sup>4</sup> He brought me to the house of wine,
and his banner over me was love.
- <sup>5</sup> Revive me with raisin cakes and refresh me with apricots, for I am weak with love.
- <sup>6</sup> His left hand is under my head,
and his right hand embraces me.
- <sup>7</sup> I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the fields,
that you will not awaken or arouse love
until she pleases.
- <sup>8</sup> There is the sound of my beloved! Listen, here he comes, leaping over the mountains,
jumping over the hills.
- <sup>9</sup> My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag;
look, he is standing behind our wall,
gazing through the window,
peering through the lattice.
- <sup>10</sup> My beloved spoke to me and said,
"Arise, my love;
My beautiful one, come away with me.
- <sup>11</sup> Look, the winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.
- <sup>12</sup> The flowers have appeared in the land;
the time for pruning and the singing of birds has come,
and the sound of the doves is heard in our land.
- <sup>13</sup> The fig tree ripens her green figs,
and the vines are in blossom;
they give off their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
- <sup>14</sup> My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret clefts of the mountain crags,
let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice,
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely."
- <sup>15</sup> Catch the foxes for us,
the little foxes that spoil vineyards,
for our vineyard is in blossom.
- <sup>16</sup> My beloved is mine, and I am his;

he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.
<sup>17</sup> Go away, my beloved,
before the day breathes and the shadows flee away.
Go away; be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the rugged mountains.

---

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> At night on my bed
I was longing for him whom my soul loves;
I looked for him, but I could not find him.
- <sup>2</sup> I said to myself, "I will get up and go through the city,
through the streets and squares;
I will search for him whom my soul loves."
I searched for him, but I did not find him.
- <sup>3</sup> The watchmen found me
as they were making their rounds in the city.
I asked them, "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
- <sup>4</sup> It was only a little while after I had passed them that I found him whom my soul loves.
I held on to him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the bedroom of the one who had conceived me.
- <sup>5</sup> I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the fields,
that you will not awaken or arouse love
until she pleases.
- <sup>6</sup> What is that coming up from the wilderness
like a column of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
with all the powders sold by merchants?
- <sup>7</sup> Look, it is the bed of Solomon;
sixty warriors surround it—
the mighty men of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup> All of them are skilled with a sword and are experienced in warfare.
Every man has his sword at his side,
armed against the terrors of the night.
- <sup>9</sup> King Solomon made himself a sedan chair of the wood from Lebanon.
- <sup>10</sup> Its posts were made of silver;
the back was made of gold,
and the seat of purple cloth.
Its interior was decorated with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.
- <sup>11</sup> Go out, daughters of Zion,
and gaze on King Solomon, bearing the crown with which his mother crowned him
on his wedding day,
on the day of the joy of his heart.

Chapter 4

- <sup>1</sup> Oh, you are beautiful, my love; you are beautiful.
 Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
 Your hair is like a flock of goats
 going down from Mount Gilead.
- <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn ewes,
 coming up from the washing place.
 Each one has a twin,
 and none among them is bereaved.
- <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a thread of scarlet;
 your mouth is lovely.
 Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves
 behind your veil.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like the tower of David built in rows of stone,
 with a thousand shields hanging on it,
 all the shields of soldiers.
- <sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns,
 twins of a gazelle,
 grazing among the lilies.
- <sup>6</sup> Before the day breathes and the shadows flee away,
 I will go to the mountain of myrrh
 and to the hill of frankincense.
- <sup>7</sup> You are beautiful in every way, my love and there is no blemish in you.
- <sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride.
 Come with me from Lebanon;
 come from the top of Amana,
 from the top of Senir and Hermon,
 from lions' dens,
 from mountain dens of leopards.
- <sup>9</sup> You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride;
 you have stolen my heart,
 with just one look at me,
 with just one jewel of your necklace.
- <sup>10</sup> How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!
 How much better is your love than wine,
 and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice.
- <sup>11</sup> Your lips, my bride, drip honey;
 honey and milk are under your tongue;
 the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
- <sup>12</sup> My sister, my bride is a garden locked up,
 a garden locked up, a spring that is sealed.
- <sup>13</sup> Your branches are a grove of pomegranate trees with fine fruits, and of henna and nard plants,
- <sup>14</sup> nard and saffron,
 calamus and cinnamon with all trees of frankincense,
 myrrh and aloes with all the finest spices.
- <sup>15</sup> You are a garden spring,
 a well of fresh water,

streams flowing down from Lebanon.

- <sup>16</sup> Awake, north wind;
come, south wind;
blow on my garden
so that its spices may give off their fragrance.
May my beloved come into his garden and eat some of its fine fruit.

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;
 I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
 I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
 I have drunk my wine with my milk.
- Eat, friends;
 drink and be drunk with love.
- <sup>2</sup> I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
 There is the sound of my beloved knocking and saying,
 "Open to me, my sister, my love,
 my dove, my perfect one,
 for my head is wet with dew,
 my hair with the night's dampness."
- <sup>3</sup> I have taken off my robe; must I put it on again?
 I have washed my feet; must I get them dirty?
- <sup>4</sup> My beloved put in his hand through the opening of the door latch,
 and my heart was stirred up for him.
- <sup>5</sup> I got up to open the door for my beloved;
 my hands were dripping with myrrh,
 my fingers with moist myrrh,
 on the door handle.
- <sup>6</sup> I opened the door for my beloved,
 but my beloved had turned and gone.
 My heart sank when he spoke. <sup>1</sup>
 I looked for him, but I did not find him;
 I called him, but he did not answer me.
- <sup>7</sup> The watchmen found me
 as they were making their rounds in the city.
 They struck me and wounded me;
 the guards on the walls took my cloak away from me.
- <sup>8</sup> I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
 that if you find my beloved—
 What will you make known to him?—
 that I am weak with love.
- <sup>9</sup> How is your beloved better than another beloved man,
 most beautiful among women?
 Why is your beloved better than another beloved,
 that you ask us to take an oath like this?
- <sup>10</sup> My beloved is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.
- <sup>11</sup> His head is the purest gold;
 his hair is curly and as black as a raven.
- <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, bathed in milk, mounted like jewels.
- <sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding aromatic scents. <sup>2</sup>
 His lips are lilies, dripping with myrrh.
- <sup>14</sup> His arms are rounded gold set with jewels;

his abdomen is ivory covered with sapphires.

<sup>15</sup> His legs are pillars of marble, set on bases of pure gold;
his appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

<sup>16</sup> His mouth is most sweet;
he is completely lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
daughters of Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>The Hebrew text: yielding aromatic scents. This phrase may possibly be read as: garden beds made of balsam .

- <sup>1</sup> Where has your beloved gone,
     most beautiful among women?
 In what direction has your beloved gone,
     so that we may seek him with you?
- <sup>2</sup> My beloved has gone down to his garden,
     to the beds of spices,
     to graze in the garden and to gather lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine;
     he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.
- <sup>4</sup> You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my love,
     as lovely as Jerusalem,
     as awe-inspiring as an army with its banners.
- <sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes away from me,
     for they overwhelm me.
 Your hair is like a flock of goats
     going down from the slopes of Gilead.
- <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of ewes
     coming up from the washing place.
 Each one has a twin,
     and none among them is bereaved.
- <sup>7</sup> Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves
     behind your veil.
- <sup>8</sup> There are sixty queens, eighty concubines,
     and young women without number.
- <sup>9</sup> My dove, my perfect one, is the only one;
     she is the only daughter of her mother;
     she is the pure child of the woman who bore her.
 The young women saw her and called her blessed;
     the queens and the concubines saw her also,
     and they praised her:
- <sup>10</sup> "Who is this who appears like the dawn,
     as beautiful as the moon,
 as pure as the sun,
     as awe-inspiring as an army with its banners?"
- <sup>11</sup> I went down into the grove of nut trees
     to see the young growth in the valley, to see whether the vines had budded,
     and whether the pomegranates were in bloom.
- <sup>12</sup> I did not know when my soul placed me on the chariots of my noble people.
- <sup>13</sup> Turn back, turn back, you Shulammité! <sup>1</sup> Turn back, turn back so that we may gaze on you!
- Why do you gaze on the Shulammité,
     as if on the dance of Mahanaim? <sup>2</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup>The meaning of Shulammité is uncertain. It may mean you perfect woman or you woman from Shulam .

Chapter 6

<sup>2</sup>The meaning of Mahanaim is uncertain. It may be the name of a place or "two armies." Two of the possible meanings of this last phrase of verse 13 are on the dance of Mahanaim and on the dance between two armies .

---

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> How beautiful your feet appear in your sandals, prince's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a master craftsman.
- <sup>2</sup> Your navel is like a round bowl;
may it never lack mixed wine.
Your belly is like a mound of wheat encircled with lilies.
- <sup>3</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.
- <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like a tower of ivory;
your eyes are the pools in Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower in Lebanon that looks toward Damascus.
- <sup>5</sup> Your head is on you like Carmel;
the hair on your head is dark purple.
The king is held captive by its tresses.
- <sup>6</sup> How beautiful and how lovely you are,
my love, with delights! <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>7</sup> Your height is like that of a date palm tree,
and your breasts like clusters of fruit.
- <sup>8</sup> I said, "I want to climb that palm tree;
I will take hold of its branches."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
and may the fragrance of your nose be like apricots.
- <sup>9</sup> May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing smoothly for my beloved,
gliding over the lips of those who sleep. <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>10</sup> I am my beloved's,
and he desires me.
- <sup>11</sup> Come, my beloved, let us go out into the countryside;
let us spend the night in the villages. <sup>3</sup>
- <sup>12</sup> Let us rise early to go to the vineyards;
let us see whether the vines have budded,
whether their blossoms have opened,
and whether the pomegranates are in flower.
There I will give you my love.
- <sup>13</sup> The mandrakes give off their fragrance;
at the door where we are staying are all sorts of choice fruits,
new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my beloved.

<sup>3</sup>The Hebrew could be read as either in the villages or among the henna blossoms .

---

Chapter 8

- <sup>1</sup> I wish that you were like my brother, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
 Then whenever I met you outside, I could kiss you,
     and no one would despise me.
- <sup>2</sup> I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house—
     she who taught me.
 I would give you spiced wine to drink and some of the juice of my pomegranates.
- <sup>3</sup> His left hand is under my head
     and his right hand embraces me.
- <sup>4</sup> I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
     that you will not awaken or arouse love
     until she pleases.
- <sup>5</sup> Who is this who is coming up from the wilderness,
     leaning on her beloved?
- I awakened you under the apricot tree;
     there your mother conceived you;
     there she gave birth to you, she delivered you.
- <sup>6</sup> Set me as a seal over your heart,
     like a seal on your arm,
 for love is as strong as death.
     Jealousy is as unrelenting as Sheol;
 its flames burst out; it is a blazing flame,
     a flame hotter than any other fire.
- <sup>7</sup> Surging waters cannot quench love,
     nor can floods sweep it away.
 If a man gave all the possessions in his house for love,
     the offer would be utterly despised.
- <sup>8</sup> We have a little sister,
     and her breasts have not yet grown.
 What can we do for our sister
     on the day when she will be promised in marriage?
- <sup>9</sup> If she is a wall,
     we will build on her a tower of silver.
 If she is a door,
     we will adorn her with boards of cedar.
- <sup>10</sup> I was a wall, and my breasts were now like fortress towers;
     so I am in his eyes as one who brings peace. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>11</sup> Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
     He gave the vineyard to those who would maintain it.
     Each one was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
- <sup>12</sup> My vineyard, my very own, is before me;
     the thousand shekels are for you, Solomon,
     and the two hundred shekels are for those who maintain its fruit.
- <sup>13</sup> You who live in the gardens,
     my companions are listening for your voice;

let me hear it.

- <sup>14</sup> Hurry, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

<sup>1</sup>Some scholars read a play on the Hebrew word for "peace" and translate the Hebrew either: I am in his eyes as one who brings peace or: so I have found favor in his eyes .

Isaiah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

- <sup>2</sup> Hear, heavens, and give ear, earth;
for Yahweh has spoken:
"I have nourished and brought up children,
but they have rebelled against me.
- <sup>3</sup> The ox knows his owner,
and the donkey his master's feeding trough,
but Israel does not know, Israel does not understand."
- <sup>4</sup> Woe! Nation, sinners, a people weighed down with iniquity,
offspring of evildoers,
sons who act corruptly!
They have abandoned Yahweh,
they have despised the Holy One of Israel,
they have estranged themselves from him.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you still being beaten?
Why do you rebel more and more?
The whole head is sick,
the whole heart is weak.
- <sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot to the head
there is no health;
only wounds, and bruises,
and fresh open wounds;
they have not been closed, cleansed, bandaged,
nor treated with oil.
- <sup>7</sup> Your country is ruined;
your cities are burned;
your fields—in your presence,
strangers are destroying them—
abandoned devastation, overthrown by strangers.
- <sup>8</sup> The daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shed in a garden of cucumbers,
like a besieged city.
- <sup>9</sup> If Yahweh of hosts had not left for us a few survivors,
we would have been like Sodom,

we would have been like Gomorrah.

- <sup>10</sup> Hear the word of Yahweh,
you rulers of Sodom;
listen to the instruction of our God,
you people of Gomorrah:
- <sup>11</sup> "What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me?"
says Yahweh.
"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fatted beasts;
and in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats
I do not delight.
- <sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before me,
who has required this of you, to trample my courts?
- <sup>13</sup> Bring no more meaningless offerings;
incense is an abomination to me;
your new moon and Sabbath assemblies—
I cannot tolerate these wicked assemblies.
- <sup>14</sup> I hate your new moons and your appointed feasts;
they are a burden to me; I am tired of enduring them.
- <sup>15</sup> So when you spread out your hands in prayer,
I hide my eyes from you;
even though you offer many prayers, I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.
- <sup>16</sup> Wash, cleanse yourselves;
remove the evil of your deeds from my sight;
stop being evil;
- <sup>17</sup> learn to do good;
seek justice, make straight the oppression, <sup>1</sup> give justice to the fatherless, defend the widow."
- <sup>18</sup> "Come now, and let us reason together,"
says Yahweh;
"though your sins are like scarlet,
they will be white like snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they will be like wool.
- <sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good of the land,
- <sup>20</sup> but if you refuse and rebel,
the sword will devour you,"
for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.
- <sup>21</sup> How the faithful city
has become a prostitute!
She who was full of justice—
she was full of righteousness,
but now she is full of murderers.
- <sup>22</sup> Your silver has become impure,
your wine mixed with water.
- <sup>23</sup> Your princes are rebels
and companions of thieves;
everyone loves bribes
and runs after payoffs.

They do not defend the fatherless,
nor does the widow's legal plea come before them.

- <sup>24</sup> Therefore this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel:
"Woe to them! I will comfort myself concerning my adversaries and avenge myself against my enemies;
<sup>25</sup> I will turn my hand against you, refine away your dross as with lye,
and take away all your dross.
<sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning;
after that you will be called
the city of righteousness,
a faithful town."
<sup>27</sup> Zion will be redeemed by justice,
and her repentant ones by righteousness.
<sup>28</sup> Rebels and sinners will be crushed together, and those who abandon Yahweh will be done away with.
<sup>29</sup> "For you will be ashamed of the sacred oak trees that you desired,
and you will be embarrassed by the gardens
that you have chosen.
<sup>30</sup> For you will be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden that has no water.
<sup>31</sup> The strong man will be like tinder,
and his work like a spark;
they will both burn together,
and no one will quench them."

---

<sup>1</sup>Instead of make straight the oppression , some of the ancient Hebrew copies have a phrase that may mean, help the oppressed .

---

Chapter 2

<sup>2</sup> It will be in the last days
that the mountain of the house of Yahweh
will be established as the highest of the mountains, and it will be raised up above the hills,
and all the nations will flow to it.

<sup>3</sup> Many peoples will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh,
to the house of the God of Jacob,
so he may teach us some of his ways,
and we may walk in his paths."
For out of Zion will go the law,
and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations and will render decisions for many peoples;
they will hammer their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war any longer.

<sup>5</sup> House of Jacob, come,
and let us walk in the light of Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup> For you have abandoned your people,
the house of Jacob,
because they are filled with customs from the east and they practice divination like the Philistines, and they shake hands with sons of foreigners.

<sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold,
and there is no limit to their wealth;
their land also is full of horses,
nor is there limit to their chariots.

<sup>8</sup> Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the craftsmanship of their own hands,
things that their own fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup> People bow down,
and men abase themselves.
So do not raise them up.

<sup>10</sup> Go into the rocky places and hide in the ground
from the terror of Yahweh
and from the glory of his majesty.

<sup>11</sup> The lofty gaze of man will be abased,
and the haughtiness of men will be brought down,
and Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

<sup>12</sup> For there will be a day of Yahweh of hosts against everyone who is proud and raised up,
and against everyone who is arrogant—
and he will be abased—

<sup>13</sup> and against all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,

and against all the oaks of Bashan.
<sup>14</sup> That day of Yahweh of hosts will be against all the high mountains, and against all the hills that are lifted up, <sup>15</sup> and against every high tower,
and against every impregnable wall, <sup>16</sup> and against all the ships of Tarshish,
and against all delightful sailing vessels.
<sup>17</sup> The pride of man will be brought down,
and the haughtiness of men will be abased;
Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.
<sup>18</sup> The idols will completely pass away.

<sup>19</sup> Men will go into the caves of the rocks
and the holes of the ground,
from the terror of Yahweh,
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he rises to terrify the earth.
<sup>20</sup> On that day people will throw away their idols of silver and of gold that they have made for themselves to worship—
they will throw them away to the moles and bats.
<sup>21</sup> The people will go into the crevices in the rocks and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
from the terror of Yahweh
and from the glory of his majesty,
when he rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>22</sup> Stop trusting in man, whose life-breath is in his nostrils,
for what does he amount to?

---

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> See, the Lord Yahweh of hosts is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff:
the whole supply of bread
and the whole supply of water,
- <sup>2</sup> the mighty man and the warrior,
the judge and the prophet,
the one who practices divination and the elder,
- <sup>3</sup> the captain of fifty and the respected citizen,
the counselor, the expert craftsman and the skillful enchanter.
- <sup>4</sup> "I will place mere youths as their leaders,
and the young will rule over them.
- <sup>5</sup> The people will be oppressed,
every one by another,
and every one by his neighbor;
the child will act arrogantly toward the elderly,
and the degraded will challenge the honorable.
- <sup>6</sup> A man will even take hold of his brother
in his father's house and say,
'You have a coat; be our ruler,
and let this ruin be in your hands.'
- <sup>7</sup> On that day he will shout and say,
'I will not be a healer;
I have no bread or clothing.
You will not make me ruler of the people.'"
- <sup>8</sup> For Jerusalem has stumbled,
and Judah has fallen,
because their speech and their actions are against Yahweh, rebellious against the eyes of his glory.
- <sup>9</sup> The look on their faces witnesses against them;
and they tell of their sin like Sodom;
they do not hide it.
Woe to them!
For they have completed a catastrophe for themselves.
- <sup>10</sup> Tell the righteous person that it will be well,
for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, for what his hands have earned will be done to him.
- <sup>12</sup> My people—children are their oppressors,
and women rule over them.
My people, those who guide you lead you astray and confuse the direction of your path.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh stands up for an accusation;
he is standing to accuse the people.
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will come with judgment against the elders of his people and their leaders:

"You have ruined the vineyard;
the plunder from the poor is in your houses.

<sup>15</sup> Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?"

This is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh says that because the daughters of Zion are proud, they walk with their necks extended,
with flirting eyes, walking with tiny steps as they go,
making tinkling sounds from bracelets on their ankles.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord will form scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and Yahweh will make them bald.

<sup>24</sup> Instead of sweet perfume there will be stench;
and instead of a belt, a rope;
instead of well-arranged hair, baldness;
and instead of a robe, a covering of sackcloth;
and branding instead of beauty.

<sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword,
and your strong men will fall in war.

<sup>26</sup> Jerusalem's gates will lament and mourn;
and she will be alone and sit upon the ground.

---

<sup>1</sup> On that day seven women will take hold of one man and say,
"Our own food we will eat,
our own clothing we will wear.
But let us take your name
to remove our shame."

<sup>2</sup>On that day the branch of Yahweh will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and delight of the escaped remnant in Israel.

<sup>3</sup>It will happen that the one who is left in Zion and the one who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is written down as living in Jerusalem.<sup>4</sup>This will happen when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have cleansed the blood stains from the midst of Jerusalem, by means of the spirit of judgment and the spirit of flaming fire.

<sup>5</sup>Then over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her place of assembly, Yahweh will create cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; it will be a canopy over all the glory.<sup>6</sup>It will be a shelter for shade in the daytime from the heat, and a refuge and a cover from the storm and rain.

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> Let me sing for my well beloved,
     a song of my beloved about his vineyard.
 My well beloved had a vineyard
     on a very fertile hill.
- <sup>2</sup> He spaded it, removed the stones,
     and planted it with an excellent kind of vine.
 He built a tower in the middle of it,
     and also built a winepress.
 He waited for it to produce grapes,
     but it only produced wild grapes.
- <sup>3</sup> So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah,
     judge between me and my vineyard.
- <sup>4</sup> What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it?
 When I looked for it to produce grapes,
     why did it produce wild grapes?
- <sup>5</sup> Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
 I will remove the hedge,
     I will turn it into a pasture,
 I will break down its wall,
     and it will be trampled down.
- <sup>6</sup> I will lay it waste,
     and it will not be pruned nor hoed.
 Instead, briars and thorns will spring up.
 I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.
- <sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts
     is the house of Israel, and the man of Judah
     his pleasant planting;
 he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing;
     for righteousness, but, instead, a shout for help.
- <sup>8</sup> Woe to those who join house to house,
     who join field to field,
 until no room remains,
     and you alone remain in the land!
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh of hosts told me,
     many houses will be desolate,
 even great and impressive ones,
     without any inhabitant.
- <sup>10</sup> For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath,
     and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah.
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to those who rise up early in the morning to obtain strong drink,
 those who linger late into the night
     until wine inflames them.
- <sup>12</sup> They have harp and lute,

- tambourine, flute, and wine at their feasts,
but they do not honor what Yahweh has done or respect the work of his hands.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding;
their honored leaders are famished,
and their common people have nothing to drink.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore Sheol has made its appetite greater and has opened its mouth very wide;
their elite, the people, their leaders, and the revelers
and those who are happy among them, descend into Sheol.
- <sup>15</sup> People bow low,
and men abase themselves.
the eyes of the lofty will be abased.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh of hosts will be exalted in his justice, and God the Holy One will show himself holy by his righteousness.
- <sup>17</sup> Then the sheep will feed as in their own pasture, and in the ruins, lambs will graze as foreigners. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>18</sup> Woe to those who pull along iniquity with useless cords and who pull along sin as if it were with a cart rope.
- <sup>19</sup> Woe to those who say, "Let God hurry,
let him work quickly, so we can see it happen;
and let the plans of the Holy One of Israel come,
so that we may know them."
- <sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good,
and good evil;
who represent darkness as light,
and light as darkness;
who represent bitter as sweet,
and sweet as bitter!
- <sup>21</sup> Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
and prudent in their own understanding!
- <sup>22</sup> Woe to those who are champions at drinking wine,
and masters at mixing strong drinks;
- <sup>23</sup> who acquit the wicked for a bribe,
and deprive those in the right of what is right!
- <sup>24</sup> Therefore as the tongue of fire devours stubble,
and as chaff goes down in flame,
so their root will rot,
and their blossom will blow away like dust.
This will happen because they have rejected
the law of Yahweh of hosts, and because they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>25</sup> Therefore the anger of Yahweh is kindled against his people.
He has reached out with his hand against them
and has punished them.
The mountains tremble,
and their corpses are like garbage in the streets.
In all these things, his anger does not subside;
his hand is still stretched out.

- <sup>26</sup> He will lift up a signal flag for faraway nations and will whistle for those at the end of the earth.
Look, they will come speedily and promptly.
- <sup>27</sup> None tire or stumble among them;
none slumbers or sleeps.
Nor are their belts loose,
or the thongs of their sandals broken.
- <sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharp and all their bows are bent;
their horses' hooves are like flint,
and their chariot wheels like storms.
- <sup>29</sup> Their roaring will be like a lion;
they will roar like young lions.
They will growl and seize the prey and drag it away, with none to rescue.
- <sup>30</sup> On that day they will roar against the prey
as the sea roars.
If anyone looks over the land,
he will see darkness and suffering;
even the light will be made dark by the clouds.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne; he was high and elevated, and the hem of his robe filled the temple.<sup>2</sup>Above him were the seraphim; each one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.

<sup>3</sup>Each one called to another and said,
"Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of hosts!
The whole earth is full of his glory."

<sup>4</sup>The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voices of those who were crying out, and the house was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am doomed because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, because my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh, Yahweh of hosts!"

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphim flew to me; he had a glowing coal in his hand, that he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.<sup>7</sup>He touched my mouth with it and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt has been taken away, and your sin atoned for."

<sup>8</sup>I heard the voice of the Lord say, "Whom will I send; who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am; send me."<sup>9</sup>He said, "Go and tell this people,

'Hearing, you will hear, but you will not understand;
seeing, you will see, but you will not know.'

<sup>10</sup> Make the heart of this people insensitive, and their ears dull, and blind their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and then turn and be healed."

<sup>11</sup>Then I said, "Lord, how long?" He answered,

"Until cities crash into ruins
and are without inhabitants,
and the houses are without people,
and the land falls into a desolate waste,

<sup>12</sup> and until Yahweh has sent the people far away,
and the whole land is completely abandoned.

<sup>13</sup> Even if a tenth of the people remain in it,
it will again be destroyed;
as a terebinth or an oak is cut down and whose trunk remains,
the holy seed is in its stump."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they could not prevail against it.<sup>2</sup>It was reported to the house of David that Aram was allied with Ephraim. His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest shake in the wind. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you; they have said,<sup>6</sup>"Let us attack Judah and terrify her, and let us break into her and set up our king there, the son of Tabeel."

<sup>7</sup>The Lord Yahweh says,

"It will not take place;
it will not happen,

<sup>8</sup> because the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin.

Within sixty-five years,
Ephraim will be shattered and will no longer be a people.

<sup>9</sup> The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.
If you do not remain firm in faith,
surely you will not remain secure."""

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz,<sup>11</sup>"Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask for it in Sheol below or in the height above."<sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I test Yahweh."

<sup>13</sup>So Isaiah replied, "Listen, house of David. Is it not enough for you people to test the patience of people? Must you also test the patience of my God?<sup>14</sup>Therefore the Lord himself will give you people a sign: See, the young woman will conceive, bear a son, and will call his name Immanuel.<sup>15</sup>He will eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.

<sup>16</sup>For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate.<sup>17</sup>Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house days unlike any since Ephraim seceded from Judah—he will bring on you the king of Assyria."

<sup>18</sup>At that time Yahweh will whistle for a fly from the distant streams of Egypt, and for a bee from the land of Assyria.<sup>19</sup>They will all come and settle down into all the gorges, into the clefts of the rocks, on all the thornbushes, and onto all the pastures.

<sup>20</sup>At that time the Lord will shave with a razor that was hired beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the legs; it will also sweep away the beard.<sup>21</sup>On that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,<sup>22</sup>and because of the abundance of milk they give, he will eat curds, for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.

<sup>23</sup>At that time, where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels, there will be nothing but briars and thorns.<sup>24</sup>Men will go there to hunt with bows, because all the land will be briars and thorns.<sup>25</sup>They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns; but it will be a place where cattle and sheep graze.

<sup>1</sup>Instead of that Aram was allied with Ephraim, some scholars translate the Hebrew to read: that Aram had camped in Ephraim.

---

Chapter 8

<sup>3</sup>I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz."<sup>4</sup>For before the child knows to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

<sup>6</sup> "Because this people has refused the gentle waters of Shiloah and rejoices over Rezin
and the son of Remaliah, <sup>7</sup> therefore the Lord is about to bring up on them
the waters of the River, mighty and many,
the king of Assyria and all his glory.
It will come up over all its channels
and overflow its banks.
<sup>8</sup> The River will sweep onward into Judah, flooding and passing on, until it reaches to your neck.
Its outstretched wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel."

<sup>9</sup> You peoples will be broken to pieces.
Listen, all you distant countries:
gird yourselves and be broken to pieces;
gird yourselves and be broken to pieces.
<sup>10</sup> Form a plan, but it will not be carried out;
issue the command, but it will not be carried out,
for God is with us.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh spoke to me, with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people.

<sup>12</sup> Do not call conspiracy anything that this people calls conspiracy, you will not fear what they fear,
and do not be terrified.
<sup>13</sup> It is Yahweh of hosts whom you will honor as holy;
he is the one you must fear,
and he is the one you must dread.
<sup>14</sup> He will become a sanctuary;
but he will be a stone of striking,
and a stone of stumbling—
for both the houses of Israel, and he will be a trap and a snare
to the people of Jerusalem.
<sup>15</sup> Many will stumble over it and fall and be broken,
and be ensnared and captured.
<sup>16</sup> Bind up my testimony,
seal the official record, and give it to my disciples.
<sup>17</sup> I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob;

I will trust in him.

<sup>18</sup>See, I and the sons whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of hosts, who lives on Mount Zion.

<sup>19</sup>They will say to you, "Consult with sorcerers and spiritists," the ones who chirp and mutter incantations. But should a people not consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?<sup>20</sup>To the law and to the testimony! If they do not say such things, it is because they have no light of dawn.

<sup>21</sup>They will pass through the land greatly distressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will become angry and curse their king and their God, as they turn their faces upward. <sup>22</sup>They will look at the earth and see distress, darkness, and gloom that causes anguish. They will be banished to thick darkness.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>The gloom will be dispelled from her who was in anguish. In an earlier time he humiliated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make it glorious, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

<sup>2</sup> The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who have lived in the land of the shadow of death,
the light has shone on them.

<sup>3</sup> You have multiplied the nation;
you have increased their joy.
They rejoice before you like the joy at harvest time,
as men rejoice when they divide the plunder.

<sup>4</sup> For the yoke of his burden,
the beam across his shoulder,
the rod of his oppressor,
you have broken to pieces as on the day of Midian.

<sup>5</sup> For every boot treading in the tumult and the garments rolled in blood will be burned,
fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup> For to us a child has been born,
to us a son has been given;
and the government will be on his shoulder;
and his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> Of the increase of his government and of peace
there will be no end,
as he rules on the throne of David,
and over his kingdom,
to establish it and sustain it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and for evermore.
The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this.

and it fell on Israel.

<sup>9</sup> All the people will know,
even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride
and with an arrogant heart,

<sup>10</sup> "The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with chiseled stone;
the sycamores have been cut down,
but we will put cedars in their place."

<sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh will raise up against him Rezin, his adversary, and will stir up his enemies,

<sup>12</sup> the Arameans on the east, and the Philistines on the west.
They will devour Israel with open mouth.
In all these things, his anger does not subside;
his hand is still stretched out.

- <sup>13</sup> Yet the people will not turn to him who struck them, nor will they seek Yahweh of hosts.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.
- <sup>15</sup> The elder and the noble man are the head;
and the prophet that teaches lies is the tail.
- <sup>16</sup> Those who lead this people lead them astray,
and those who are led by them are swallowed up.
- <sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men nor will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows, since every one is godless and an evildoer,
and every mouth speaks foolish things.
In all these things, his anger does not subside;
his hand is still stretched out.
- <sup>18</sup> Wickedness burns like a fire;
it devours the briars and thorns;
it even burns the thickets of the forest,
which rise in a column of smoke.
- <sup>19</sup> Through the fury of Yahweh of hosts
the land is scorched,
and the people are like fuel for the fire.
No man spares his brother.
- <sup>20</sup> They will grab food on the right hand
but still be hungry;
they will eat food on the left hand
but will not be satisfied.
Each will even eat the flesh of his own arm. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>21</sup> Manasseh will devour Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh;
and they together will attack Judah.
In all these things, his anger does not subside;
his hand is still stretched out.

---

<sup>1</sup>Instead of the flesh of his own arm , some scholars understand the Hebrew here to mean the flesh of his own children .

---

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who decree unjust decrees and write unjust laws.
- <sup>2</sup> They deprive the needy of justice,
rob the poor of my people of their rights,
plunder widows,
and make the fatherless their prey!
- <sup>3</sup> What will you do on judgment day
when the destruction comes from far away?
To whom will you flee for help,
and where will you leave your wealth?
- <sup>4</sup> Nothing remains, and you crouch among the prisoners or fall among the killed.
In all these things, his anger does not subside;
his hand is still stretched out.
- <sup>5</sup> Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of my anger,
the staff by whom I wield my fury!
- <sup>6</sup> I send him against a godless nation
and against the people who bear my overflowing wrath.
I order him to take the plunder, to take the prey,
and to trample them like mud in the streets.
- <sup>7</sup> But this is not what he intends,
nor does he think this way.
It is in his heart to destroy and eliminate many nations.
- <sup>8</sup> For he says, "Are not all my princes kings?
- <sup>9</sup> Is not Kalno like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Samaria like Damascus?
- <sup>10</sup> As my hand has overcome idolatrous kingdoms, whose carved figures were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
- <sup>11</sup> just as I did to Samaria and her worthless idols, will I not also do the same to Jerusalem and to her idols?"
- <sup>12</sup> When the Lord has finished his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and his prideful looks.<sup>13</sup> For he says,
"By my strength and by my wisdom I acted.
I have understanding,
and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples.
I have stolen their treasures,
and like a bull I have brought down the inhabitants.
- <sup>14</sup> My hand has seized, as from a nest,
the wealth of nations,
and as one gathers abandoned eggs,
I gathered all the earth.
None fluttered their wings or opened their mouth or chirped."
- <sup>15</sup> Will the ax boast about itself against the one who wields it?
Will the saw praise itself more than the one who cuts with it?
It is as if a rod could lift up those who raise it,
or as if a staff could lift up a person.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts

- will send emaciation among his elite warriors;
and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like fire.
- <sup>17</sup> The light of Israel will become a fire,
and his Holy One a flame;
it will burn and devour his thorns and briers
in one day.
- <sup>18</sup> Yahweh will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful land, both soul and body;
it will be like when a sick man's life wastes away.
- <sup>19</sup> The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few,
that a child could count them.
- <sup>20</sup> On that day, the remnant of Israel,
the family of Jacob that has escaped, will no longer rely on the one
who defeated them,
but will indeed depend on Yahweh,
the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>21</sup> A remnant of Jacob will return to the mighty God.
- <sup>22</sup> For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return.
Destruction is decreed,
as overflowing righteousness demands.
- <sup>23</sup> For the Lord Yahweh of hosts is about to carry out the destruction determined throughout the land.
- <sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts says,
"My people who live in Zion,
do not fear the Assyrian.
He will strike you with the rod and raise his staff against you, as the Egyptians did.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not fear him,
for in a very short time
my anger against you will end,
and my anger will lead to his destruction."
- <sup>26</sup> Then Yahweh of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he defeated Midian at the rock of Oreb.
He will raise his rod over the sea and lift it up as he did in Egypt.
- <sup>27</sup> On that day, his burden is lifted from your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck,
and the yoke will be destroyed
because of fatness. 1
- <sup>28</sup> The enemy has come to Aiath and has passed through Migron;
at Mikdash he has stored his provisions.
- <sup>29</sup> They have crossed over the pass
and they lodge at Geba.
Ramah trembles
and Gibeah of Saul has fled.
- <sup>30</sup> Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim!

Pay attention, Laishah!

Answer her, Anathoth!

<sup>31</sup> Madmenah is fleeing,
and the inhabitants of Gebim run for safety.

<sup>32</sup> This very day he will halt at Nob and shake his fist
at the mountain of the daughter of Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> Behold, the Lord Yahweh of hosts will lop off the boughs with a terrifying crash;
the tallest trees will be cut down,
and the lofty will be brought down.

<sup>34</sup> He will chop down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon in his majesty will fall.

---

<sup>1</sup>The last line of this verse is difficult because it does not seem to fit the context. Some modern translations leave out because of fatness . Other modern translations have and the yoke will be destroyed from off your neck. He has gone up from Rimmon . Here He means the Assyrian king and his army.

---

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup> A shoot will sprout from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.
- <sup>2</sup> The Spirit of Yahweh will rest upon him,
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the Spirit of instruction and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.
- <sup>3</sup> His delight will be the fear of the Lord;
he will not judge by what his eyes see,
nor decide by what his ears hear.
- <sup>4</sup> Instead, he will judge the poor with righteousness and decide fairly for the humble of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth,
and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked.
- <sup>5</sup> Righteousness will be the belt of his waist,
and faithfulness the belt around his hips.
- <sup>6</sup> The wolf will live with the lamb,
and the leopard will lie down with the young goat;
the calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together,
and a little child will lead them.
- <sup>7</sup> The cow and the bear will graze together,
and their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.
- <sup>8</sup> A baby will play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child will put his hand on the den of the adder.
- <sup>9</sup> They will not hurt nor destroy
on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of knowledge of Yahweh,
as the waters cover the sea.
- <sup>10</sup> On that day, the root of Jesse will stand as a signal flag for the peoples. The nations will seek him out, and his resting place will be glorious.<sup>11</sup> On that day, the Lord will again extend his hand to recover the remnant of his people who remain in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.
- <sup>12</sup> He will set up a signal flag for the nations and will gather the outcasts of Israel and the dispersed of Judah
from the four corners of the earth.
- <sup>13</sup> He will turn aside the envy of Ephraim,
and hostilities of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah,
and Judah will no longer be hostile to Ephraim.
- <sup>14</sup> Instead they will swoop down on the Philistine hills on the west, and together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will possess Edom and Moab,
and the people of Ammon will obey them.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh will completely destroy the gulf of the Sea of Egypt.
With his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River
and will divide it into seven streams,
so it can be crossed over in sandals.

- <sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that return from Assyria, as there was for Israel in their coming up
from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>On that day you will say,

"I will give thanks to you, Yahweh.
For though you were angry with me,
your wrath has turned away,
and you have comforted me.

<sup>2</sup> See, God is my salvation;
I will trust and will not fear,
for Yah, yes, Yahweh is my strength and song.
He has become my salvation." <sup>1</sup>

<sup>3</sup> With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

<sup>4</sup>On that day you will say,

"Give thanks to Yahweh and call upon his name;
declare his deeds among the peoples,
proclaim that his name is exalted.

<sup>5</sup> Praise Yahweh in song, for he has done majestic things;
let this be known throughout the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Cry aloud and shout for joy, you inhabitants of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

---

---

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Babylon, that Isaiah son of Amoz received:

- <sup>2</sup> On the bare mountain set up a signal flag, cry aloud to them,
wave your hand for them
to go into the gates of the nobles.
- <sup>3</sup> "I have commanded my consecrated ones;
I have summoned my mighty ones to vent my anger—
those who rejoice in my triumph.
- <sup>4</sup> The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
as of many people!
The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms
like many nations gathered together!
Yahweh of hosts is mustering
the army for the battle.
- <sup>5</sup> They come from a far country,
from way over the horizon.
It is Yahweh with his instruments of indignation,
to destroy the whole land.
- <sup>6</sup> Wail, for the day of Yahweh is near;
it comes with destruction from the Almighty.
- <sup>7</sup> Therefore all hands hang limp,
and every heart melts.
- <sup>8</sup> They will be terrified;
pain and agony will seize them,
like a woman in labor.
They will look in amazement at one another;
their faces will be aflame.
- <sup>9</sup> See, the day of Yahweh comes with cruel wrath and overflowing anger, to make the land a desolation
and to exterminate the sinners from it.
- <sup>10</sup> The stars of heaven and the constellations will not give their light.
The sun will be darkened even from dawn,
and the moon will not shine.
- <sup>11</sup> I will punish the world for its evil
and the wicked for their iniquity.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will abase the arrogance of the ruthless.
- <sup>12</sup> I will make men more rare than fine gold and mankind harder to find than the pure gold of Ophir.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble,
and the earth will be shaken out of its place,
by the fury of Yahweh of hosts,
and on the day of his fierce anger.
- <sup>14</sup> Like a hunted gazelle or like a sheep
with no one to gather them, every man will turn toward his own people and will flee to his own land.

- <sup>15</sup> Every one who is found will be thrust through,
and every one who is swept up will die by the sword.
- <sup>16</sup> Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes.
Their houses will be plundered and their wives raped.
- <sup>17</sup> Look, I am about to stir up the Medes to attack them, who will not be concerned about silver,
nor do they delight in gold.
- <sup>18</sup> Their bows will strike down the young men;
they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb
and they will not look with pity on children.
- <sup>19</sup> Then Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms,
the splendor of Chaldean arrogance,
will be overthrown by God
like Sodom and Gomorrah.
- <sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
The Arab will not pitch his tent there,
nor will shepherds have their flocks rest there.
- <sup>21</sup> But wild animals of the desert will lie there.
Their houses will be full of owls;
and ostriches and wild goats will skip about there.
- <sup>22</sup> Hyenas will cry in their fortresses,
and jackals in the beautiful palaces.
Her time is near,
and her days will not be delayed.

Chapter 14

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob;
 he will again choose Israel
 and restore them into their own land.
 Foreigners will join with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.
- <sup>2</sup> The nations will bring them to their own place.
 Then the house of Israel will take possession of them in the land of Yahweh as male servants and female servants.
 They will take captive those who had captured them,
 and they will rule over their oppressors.
- <sup>3</sup> On the day that Yahweh gives you rest from your suffering and anguish, and from the hard labor which you were required to perform,<sup>4</sup> you will sing this taunt song against the king of Babylon,
 "How the oppressor has come to an end,
 the proud fury ended! <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked,
 the scepter of those rulers,
- <sup>6</sup> that struck the peoples in wrath
 with unceasing blows,
 that ruled the nations in anger,
 with an attack that was unrestrained.
- <sup>7</sup> The whole earth is at rest and is quiet;
 they begin celebrating with singing.
- <sup>8</sup> Even the cypress trees rejoice over you with the cedars of Lebanon;
 they say, 'Since you are laid low,
 no woodcutter comes up to cut us down.'
- <sup>9</sup> Sheol below is eager to meet you when you go there.
 It arouses the dead for you,
 all the leaders of the earth,
 making them rise up from their thrones,
 all the kings of the nations.
- <sup>10</sup> They all will speak and say to you,
 'You have become as weak as us.
 You have become like us.
- <sup>11</sup> Your pomp has been brought down to Sheol with the sound of your lutes.
 Maggots are spread under you,
 and worms cover you.'
- <sup>12</sup> How you are fallen from heaven,
 daystar, son of the dawn!
 How you are cut down to the ground,
 you who made the nations weak!
- <sup>13</sup> You had said in your heart,
 'I will ascend into heaven,
 I will exalt my throne
 above the stars of God,
 and I will sit on the mount of assembly,
 in the far reaches of the north.

- <sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High God.'
- <sup>15</sup> Yet you are now brought down to Sheol,
to the depths of the pit.
- <sup>16</sup> Those who see you will gaze at you
and they will pay attention to you.
They will say, 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
who shook kingdoms,
- <sup>17</sup> who made the world like a wilderness, who overthrew its cities and did not let his prisoners go home?'
- <sup>18</sup> All the kings of the nations,
all of them lie down in honor, each one in his own tomb.
- <sup>19</sup> But you are cast out of your grave
like an abhorrent branch.
Those who were killed cover you like a garment,
those pierced by the sword,
who go down to the stones of the pit
like a trampled corpse.
- <sup>20</sup> You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land
and killed your people.
The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again."
- <sup>21</sup> Prepare your slaughter for his children,
for the iniquity of their ancestors,
so they will not rise up and possess the earth and fill the whole world with cities.
- <sup>22</sup> "I will rise up against them—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.
I will cut off from Babylon name, descendant, and posterity—
this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>23</sup> I will also make her into a possession of owls,
and into pools of water,
and I will sweep her with the broom of destruction—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts."
- <sup>24</sup> Yahweh of hosts has sworn,
"Surely, as I have intended, so it will come about;
and as I have purposed, so it will be:
- <sup>25</sup> I will break the Assyrian in my land,
and on my mountains trample him underfoot.
Then his yoke will be lifted from off them
and his burden from off their shoulder."
- <sup>26</sup> This is the plan that has been devised for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is raised over all the nations.
- <sup>27</sup> For Yahweh of hosts has planned this; who will stop him?
His hand is raised, and who will turn it back?
- <sup>28</sup> In the year that king Ahaz died this declaration came:
- <sup>29</sup> Do not rejoice, all you Philistines,
that the rod that struck you is broken.
For out of the serpent's root will grow an adder,
and his offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.

<sup>30</sup> The firstborn of the poor will graze their sheep in my pastures, and the needy will lie down in safety.
I will kill your root with famine that will put to death all your survivors.

<sup>31</sup> Wail, gate; cry, city;
all of you will melt away, Philistia.
For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke,
and there is no straggler in his ranks.

<sup>32</sup> How will they respond to the messengers of that nation?
"Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge."

<sup>32</sup>Because the Hebrew translated as proud fury ended is very difficult, other modern scholars and translations have tried other meanings such as: the golden city ended , the turmoil ended , the hostility ended , or the arrogance ended , and others.

Chapter 15

Indeed, in one night

Ar of Moab is laid waste and destroyed;

indeed, in one night

Kir of Moab is laid waste and destroyed.

<sup>2</sup> They have gone up to the temple,

the people of Dibon went up to the heights to weep;

Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba.

All their heads are shaved bare and all their beards are cut off.

<sup>3</sup> In their streets they wear sackcloth;

on their housetops and in the square

everyone wails, melting in weeping.

<sup>4</sup> Heshbon and Elealeh call out for help;

their sound is heard as far as Jahaz.

So the armed men of Moab cry out for help;

they tremble within themselves.

her fugitives flee to Zoar and to Eglath Shelishiyah.

They go up the ascent of Luhith weeping;

on the road to Horonaim

they raise a cry of distress over their destruction.

the grass is withered;

the vegetation has dried up;

there is no more green grass.

<sup>7</sup> The abundance they have grown and stored

they carry away over the brook of the poplars.

<sup>8</sup> The cry has gone around the territory of Moab;

the wailing as far as Eglaim and Beer Elim.

but I will bring even more upon Dimon.

A lion will attack those who escape from Moab and also those remaining in the land.

---

Chapter 16

- <sup>1</sup> Send rams to the ruler of the land from Selah in the wilderness,
to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> As wandering birds,
as a scattered nest,
so the women of Moab are at the fords of the Arnon River.
- <sup>3</sup> "Give instruction, execute justice;
provide some shade like night in the middle of the day;
hide the outcasts;
do not betray the fugitives.
- <sup>4</sup> Let them live among you, the outcasts from Moab;
be a hiding place for them from the destroyer."
For the oppression will stop,
and destruction will cease,
those who trample will disappear from the land.
- <sup>5</sup> A throne will be established in covenant faithfulness;
and one from David's tent will faithfully sit there.
He will judge as he seeks justice and does righteousness.
- <sup>6</sup> We have heard of Moab's pride, his arrogance,
his boasting, and his anger.
But his boastings are empty words.
- <sup>7</sup> So Moab wails for Moab—they all wail!
Mourn, you who are utterly destroyed,
for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>8</sup> The fields of Heshbon have dried up as well as the vines of Sibmah.
The rulers of the nations have trampled the choice vines that reached to Jazer
and spread into the desert.
Its shoots spread abroad;
they went over to the sea.
- <sup>9</sup> Indeed I will weep along with Jazer
for the vineyard of Sibmah.
I will water you with my tears,
Heshbon and Elealeh.
For on your fields of summer fruits and harvest
I have ended the shouts of joy.
- <sup>10</sup> Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruit tree groves;
and there is no singing, or shouts in the vineyards.
No one treads out wine in the presses,
for I have put an end to the shouts of the one who treads.
- <sup>11</sup> So my heart sighs like a harp for Moab, and my inward being for Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>12</sup> When Moab wears himself out on the high place and enters his sanctuary to pray,
his prayers will accomplish nothing.

<sup>13</sup>This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab previously.<sup>14</sup>Again Yahweh speaks, "Within three years, the glory of Moab will be dishonored; in spite of his many people, the remnant will be very few and insignificant."

---

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Damascus.

Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city,
and it shall be a fallen ruin.

They will be places for flocks to lie down,
and no one will frighten them.

<sup>3</sup> Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim,
the kingdom from Damascus,
and the remnant of Aram—
they will be like the glory of the people of Israel—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup> It will come about on that day
that the glory of Jacob will become thin,
and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

<sup>5</sup> It will be as when a harvester gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the heads of grain.
It will be as when one gleans heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>6</sup> Gleanings will be left,
however, as when the olive tree is shaken:
two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough,
four or five in the highest branches of a fruitful tree—
this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands,
nor will they look to what their fingers have made,
the Asherah poles or the sun images.

<sup>9</sup>On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned wooded slopes on the hill summits, which were abandoned because of the people of Israel, and they will become a desolation.

<sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have ignored the rock of your refuge.
So you plant pleasant plants,
and set out vine branches received from a stranger.

<sup>11</sup> But though on the day you plant them you hedge them in,
and though in the morning your seed grows,
the harvest will fail on a day of grief
and of desperate sorrow.

<sup>12</sup> Woe! The uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas,
and the rushing of nations,
who rush like the rushing of mighty waters!

<sup>13</sup> The nations will roar like the rushing of many waters, but he will rebuke them and they will flee far away,
they will be chased before the wind like chaff on the mountains,
and like weeds whirling before a storm.

<sup>14</sup> In the evening, see, terror!
Before the morning they will be gone!
This is the portion of those who loot us,
the lot of those who rob us.

---

Chapter 18

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the land of the rustling of wings, which is along the rivers of Cush;
<sup>2</sup> who send ambassadors by the sea,
in vessels of papyrus on the waters.
Go, you swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth,
to a people feared far and near,
a nation strong and treading down,
whose land the rivers divide.
- <sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world
and you who live on the earth,
when a signal flag is lifted up on the mountains, look;
and when the ram's horn is blown, listen.
- <sup>4</sup> This is what Yahweh said to me,
"I will quietly observe from my home,
like the simmering heat in sunlight,
like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.
- <sup>5</sup> Before the harvest, when the blossoming is over,
and the flower is ripening into a grape,
he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks,
and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.
- <sup>6</sup> They will be left together for the birds of the mountains and for the animals of the earth.
The birds of prey will spend the summer on them,
and all the animals of the earth will spend harvest time on them."
- <sup>7</sup> At that time tribute will be brought to Yahweh of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared far and near,
nation strong and trampling down,
whose land the rivers divide,
to the place of the name of Yahweh of hosts, to Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Egypt.

See, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt;
the idols of Egypt quake before him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within themselves.

<sup>2</sup> "I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians:

A man will fight against his brother,
and a man against his neighbor;
city will be against city,
and kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup> The spirit of Egypt will be weakened from within.

I will destroy his advice,
though they sought the advice of idols,
dead men's spirits, sorcerers, and spiritists.

<sup>4</sup> I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a severe master, and a strong king will rule over them—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts."

<sup>5</sup> The waters of the sea will dry up, and the river will dry up and become empty.

<sup>6</sup> The rivers will become foul;
the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up;
the reeds and flags will wither away.

<sup>7</sup> The reeds along the Nile,
at the mouth of the Nile,
and every sown field beside the Nile will become parched,
will be driven away, and will be no more.

<sup>8</sup> The fishermen will wail and mourn, and all who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn,
and those who spread nets on the waters will waste away.

<sup>9</sup> The workers in combed flax and those who weave white cloth will turn pale.

<sup>10</sup> The cloth workers of Egypt will be crushed;
all who work for wages will be grieved within themselves.

<sup>11</sup> The princes of Zoan
are completely foolish.
The advice of the wisest advisors of Pharaoh has become stupid.

How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am the son of wise men, a son of ancient kings?"

<sup>12</sup> Where then are your wise men?
Let them tell you and make known what Yahweh of hosts plans concerning Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> The princes of Zoan have become fools,
the princes of Memphis are deceived;
they have made Egypt go astray,
who are the cornerstones of her tribes. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh has mixed a spirit of distortion into her midst, and they have led Egypt astray in all she does,

like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup> There is nothing anyone can do for Egypt,
whether head or tail, palm branch or reed.

<sup>16</sup>In that day, the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the upraised hand of Yahweh of hosts that he raises over them.<sup>17</sup>The land of Judah will become a cause of staggering to Egypt. Whenever anyone reminds them of her, they will be afraid, because of the plan of Yahweh of hosts, that he is planning against them.

<sup>18</sup>In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to Yahweh of hosts. One of these will be called The City of the Sun. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>19</sup>In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a stone pillar at the border to Yahweh.<sup>20</sup>It will be as a sign and a witness to Yahweh of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them.

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yahweh on that day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to Yahweh and fulfill them.<sup>22</sup>Yahweh will afflict Egypt, afflicting and healing. They will return to Yahweh; he will hear their prayer and will heal them.

<sup>23</sup>In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come to Egypt, and the Egyptian to Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

<sup>24</sup>In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth;<sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts will bless them and say, "Blessed be Egypt, my people; Assyria, the work of my hands; and Israel, my inheritance."

<sup>1</sup>The name Memphis , is used in most modern translations, and that name represents the place in Egypt that is known in Hebrew as Noph .

<sup>2</sup>Instead of The City of the Sun , which probably refers to the Egyptian city of Heliopolis, some ancient and modern translations have The City of Destruction .

---

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it.<sup>2</sup>At that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah son of Amoz and said, "Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, it is a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Cush—<sup>4</sup>in this way the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>They will be dismayed and ashamed, because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their glory.<sup>6</sup>The inhabitants of these coasts will say on that day, 'Indeed, this was our source of hope, where we fled for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria, and now, how can we escape?'"

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about the desert by the sea.

Like stormwinds sweeping through the Negev it comes passing through from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

<sup>2</sup> A severe vision has been given to me:
the treacherous man deals treacherously,
and the destroyer destroys.
Go up and attack, Elam; besiege, Media;
I will stop all her groaning.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore my loins are filled with pain;
pains like the pains of a woman in labor
have taken hold of me;
I am bowed down by what I heard;
I am disturbed by what I saw.
<sup>4</sup> My heart pounds; I shake with fear.
Twilight was my desire, but it brought me terror.

<sup>5</sup> They prepare the table,
they spread rugs and eat and drink;
arise, princes,
anoint your shields with oil.

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the Lord said to me,
"Go, post a watchman;
he must report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> When he sees a chariot, a pair of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels,
then he must pay attention and be very alert."

<sup>8</sup>The watchman cries out, <sup>1</sup>
"Lord, on the watchtower I stand all day, every day, and at my post I stand all night long."

<sup>9</sup> Here comes a chariot with a man and a pair of horsemen.
He calls out, "Babylon has fallen, fallen,
and all the carved figures of its gods
are broken to the ground."

<sup>10</sup> My threshed and winnowed ones, children of my threshing floor!
What I have heard from Yahweh of hosts,
the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

<sup>11</sup>A declaration about Dumah.
One calls to me from Seir,
"Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the night?"

<sup>12</sup> The watchman said,
"The morning comes and also the night.
If you want to ask, then ask;
and come back again."

<sup>13</sup>A declaration about Arabia.

In the wilderness of Arabia you spend the night,
you caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup> Bring water for the thirsty;
inhabitants of the land of Tema,
meet the fugitives with bread.

<sup>15</sup> For they have fled from the sword,
from the drawn sword,
from the bent bow,
and from the weight of war.

<sup>16</sup>For this is what the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a laborer hired for a year would see it, all the glory of Kedar will end.<sup>17</sup>Only a few of the archers, the warriors of Kedar will remain," for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken.

---

<sup>13</sup>Instead of The watchman cries out which is attested by ancient Hebrew copies, but there are some ancient Hebrew copies that have A lion cries out .
The second reading, lion , appears to be a misspelling of the Hebrew for watchman .

---

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about the Valley of Vision:

What is the reason that you have all gone up to the housetops?

<sup>2</sup> Is it so you may hear a city full of noises,
a town full of revelry?

Your dead were not killed with the sword,
and they did not die in battle.

<sup>3</sup> All your rulers fled away together,
but they were captured without using a bow;
all of them were captured together,
though they had fled far away.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore I said, "Do not look at me,
I will weep bitterly;
do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."

<sup>5</sup> For there is a day of tumult, treading down, and confusion for the Lord Yahweh of hosts,
in the Valley of Vision,
a breaking down of the walls,
and people crying out to the mountains.

<sup>6</sup> Elam takes up the quiver,
with chariots of men and horsemen,
and Kir lays the shield bare.

<sup>7</sup> It will come about that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots,
and the horsemen will take their positions at the gate.

<sup>8</sup> He took away the protection of Judah;
and you looked in that day
to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.

<sup>9</sup> You saw the breaches of the city of David,
that they were many,
and you collected the water
of the lower pool.

<sup>10</sup> You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down the houses to fortify the wall.

<sup>11</sup> You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool.
But you did not consider the city's maker,
who had planned it long ago.

<sup>12</sup> The Lord Yahweh of hosts called on that day for weeping, for mourning,
for shaved heads, and the wearing of sackcloth.

<sup>13</sup> But look, there is celebration and gladness, killing cattle and slaughtering sheep,
eating meat and drinking wine:
"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die."

<sup>14</sup> This was revealed in my ears by Yahweh of hosts:
"Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you,

even when you die,"
says the Lord Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh of hosts, says this,
"Go to this administrator, to Shebna,
who is over the house, and say,

<sup>16</sup>"What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a tomb for yourself, hewing out a grave on the heights and carving out a resting place in the rock?"

<sup>17</sup>See, Yahweh is about to throw you, a mighty man, about to throw you down; he will grasp you tightly.

<sup>18</sup>He will surely wind you round and round,
and toss you like a ball into a vast country.
There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be;
you will be the shame of your master's house!

<sup>19</sup>"I will force you out of your office and from your station.
You will be pulled down.

<sup>20</sup>It will come about on that day that I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup>I will clothe him with your tunic and put on him your sash, and I will transfer your authority into his hand. He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup>I will place the key of the house of David on his shoulder; he will open, and none will shut; he will shut, and none will open.

<sup>23</sup>I will fasten him, a peg in a secure place, and he will become a seat of glory for his father's house. <sup>24</sup>They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and descendants, every small container from the cups to all the jugs.

<sup>25</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—the peg driven in a firm place will give way, break off, and fall, and the load that was on it will be cut off—for Yahweh has spoken.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Tyre:

Wail, you ships of Tarshish;
Tyre has been devastated,
with neither home nor harbor;
from the land of Cyprus
it has been revealed to them. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast;
the merchant of Sidon,
who travels over the sea, has filled you. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Upon the great waters was the grain of Shihor,
the harvest of the Nile was her produce;
and it became the commerce of the nations.

<sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken,
the fortress of the sea. He says,
"I have not labored nor given birth, nor have I raised young men nor brought up young women."

<sup>5</sup> When the report comes to Egypt,
they will be grieved concerning Tyre.

wail, you inhabitants of the coast.

<sup>7</sup> Has this happened to you, the joyful city, whose origin is from ancient times,
whose feet carried her far away
to foreign places to settle?

<sup>8</sup> Who has planned this against Tyre,
the giver of crowns,
whose merchants are princes,
whose traders are the honored ones of the earth?

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh of hosts has planned it to dishonor her pride and all her glory,
to shame all her honored ones of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Plow your land, as one plows the Nile, daughter of Tarshish.
There is no longer a marketplace in Tyre. <sup>3</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh has reached out with his hand over the sea,
and he has shaken the kingdoms;
he has given a command concerning Phoenicia,
to destroy the strongholds.

<sup>12</sup> He said, "You will not rejoice again, oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon;
arise, pass over to Cyprus;
but neither there you will have rest."

<sup>13</sup> See the land of the Chaldeans.
This people has ceased to be;
the Assyrians have made it
a wilderness for wild animals.
They set up their siege towers;

they demolished its palaces;
they made it a heap of ruins.

for your refuge has been destroyed.

<sup>15</sup> In that day, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of a king. After the end of seventy years there will happen in Tyre something like in the song of the prostitute.

<sup>16</sup> Take a harp, go about the city,
you forgotten prostitute;
play it well, sing many songs,
so that you may be remembered.

<sup>17</sup> It will come about that after seventy years, Yahweh will help Tyre, and she will start making her prostitute's wages again by doing the work of a prostitute, and she will offer her services to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>18</sup> Her profits and prostitute's wages will be set apart to Yahweh. They will not be stored up or kept in the treasury, for her profits will be given to those who live in Yahweh's presence and will be used to supply them with abundant food and so they can have the best quality clothing.

<sup>2</sup> Some ancient and modern translations have Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast; the merchants of Sidon, who travel over the sea, have filled you or Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast and you merchants of Sidon, whom those who travel over the sea have filled .

<sup>3</sup> The Hebrew is difficult here. Instead of ULB, Plow your land , some scholars have translated the Hebrew to mean Cross over your land or Flood your land .

- <sup>1</sup> Look, Yahweh is about to empty the earth,
to devastate it, mar its surface, and scatter its inhabitants.
- <sup>2</sup> It will come about that, as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the servant girl, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor;
as with the receiver of interest, so with the giver of interest.
- <sup>3</sup> The earth will be completely devastated and completely plundered;
for Yahweh has spoken this word.
- <sup>4</sup> The earth mourns and withers, the world shrivels up and withers,
the prominent people of the earth waste away.
- <sup>5</sup> The earth is polluted by its inhabitants because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore a curse devours the earth,
and its inhabitants are found guilty.
The inhabitants of the earth burn up, and few people are left.
- <sup>7</sup> The new wine mourns, the vine wastes away,
all the merry-hearted groan.
- <sup>8</sup> The happy sound of the tambourines stops,
and the revelry of those who rejoice;
the joy of the harp ceases.
- <sup>9</sup> They no longer drink wine and sing,
and the strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.
- <sup>10</sup> The city of chaos has been broken down;
every house is closed up and empty.
- <sup>11</sup> There is a crying in the streets because of the wine;
all joy is darkened, the gladness of the land has disappeared.
- <sup>12</sup> In the city is left a desolation,
and the gate is broken into a ruin.
- <sup>13</sup> For this is how it will be on the whole earth
among the nations,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
as the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.
- <sup>14</sup> They will lift up their voices and shout the majesty of Yahweh,
and will joyfully shout from the sea.
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore in the east glorify Yahweh,
and in the isles of the sea give glory
to the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.
- <sup>16</sup> From the farthest part of the earth we have heard songs,
"Glory to the righteous one!"
But I said, "I have wasted away,
I have wasted away, woe is me!
The treacherous have dealt treacherously;
yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously."
- <sup>17</sup> Terror, the pit, and the snare are upon you, inhabitants of the earth.
- <sup>18</sup> He who flees from the sound of terror
will fall into the pit,

and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit
will be caught in the snare.

The windows of the heavens will be opened,
and the foundations of the earth will shake.

<sup>19</sup> The earth will be completely broken, the earth ripped apart;
the earth will be violently shaken.

<sup>20</sup> The earth will stagger like a drunkard,
and it will sway back and forth like a hut.

Its sin will be heavy on it and it will fall and never rise again.

<sup>21</sup> On that day Yahweh will punish the host of the heaven in the heavens, and the kings of the earth on the earth.

<sup>22</sup> They will be gathered together, prisoners in a pit,
and will be shut up in a prison;
and after many days they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup> Then the moon will be ashamed, and the sun disgraced,
for Yahweh of hosts will reign
on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders in glory.

---

Chapter 25

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you are my God;
I will exalt you, I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
things planned long ago, in perfect faithfulness.
- <sup>2</sup> For you have made a city a heap,
a fortified city a ruin;
a palace of foreigners is no longer a city;
it will never be rebuilt.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore a strong people will glorify you;
a city of ruthless nations will fear you.
- <sup>4</sup> For you have been a place of safety
for the one who is poor,
a shelter for the one who is needy in his distress—
a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.
When the breath of the ruthless was like a storm against a wall, <sup>5</sup> and like heat in a dry land,
you subdued the noise of foreigners,
as the heat is subdued by the shade of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless ones is answered.
- <sup>6</sup> On this mountain Yahweh of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of tender meats,
a feast of choice wines,
of tender meats filled with marrow,
of refined choice wines.
- <sup>7</sup> He will destroy on this mountain
the covering over all peoples,
the web woven over all the nations.
- <sup>8</sup> He will swallow up death forever,
and the Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears
from off all faces;
the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for Yahweh has spoken it.
- <sup>9</sup> It will be said on that day,
"Look, this is our God;
we have waited for him, and he will save us.
This is Yahweh; we have waited for him,
we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."
- <sup>10</sup> For on this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest;
and Moab will be trampled down in his place,
even as straw is trampled down in a pit filled with manure.
- <sup>11</sup> They will spread their hands in the midst of it,
as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim.
But Yahweh will bring down their pride in spite of the skill of their hands.
- <sup>12</sup> The stronghold of your fortress walls he will bring down,
he will abase,
he will cause to fall to the ground, to the dust.

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;
 God has made salvation its walls and ramparts.

<sup>2</sup> Open the gates,
 that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

<sup>3</sup> The mind that is stayed on you,
 you will keep him in perfect peace, for he trusts in you.

 for in Yah, Yahweh is an everlasting rock. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup> For he will bring down those who live in the high place, the lofty city.
 He will abase it.
 He will abase it to the ground;
 he will cause it to fall to the dust.

<sup>6</sup> It will be trampled down by the feet of the poor and the treading of the needy.

<sup>7</sup> The path of the righteous is level,
 Righteous One; the path of the righteous you make straight.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, in the path of your judgments, Yahweh, we wait for you;
 your name and your reputation are our desire.

<sup>9</sup> I have longed for you in the night;
 yes, my spirit within me seeks you earnestly.
 For when your judgments come on the earth,
 the inhabitants of the world learn about righteousness.

<sup>10</sup> Let favor be shown to the wicked one,
 but he will not learn righteousness.
 In the land of uprightness he acts wickedly and does not see the majesty of Yahweh.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh, your hand is lifted up,
 but they do not notice.
 But they will see your zeal for the people and be put to shame,
 because fire of your adversaries will devour them.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh, you will ordain peace for us;
 for indeed, you have also performed all our works for us.

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh our God, other masters besides you have ruled over us;
 but we praise your name alone.

<sup>14</sup> They are dead, they will not live;
 they are deceased, they will not arise.
 Indeed, you came in judgment and destroyed them,
 and made every memory of them to perish.

<sup>15</sup> You have increased the nation, Yahweh,
 you have increased the nation; you are honored;
 you have extended all the borders of the land.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh, in trouble have they looked to you;
 they whispered prayers when your discipline was on them. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>17</sup> As a pregnant woman nears the time for her to give birth, when she is in pain and cries out in her labor pains,
 so we have been before you, Lord.

- <sup>18</sup> We have been pregnant, we have been in labor, but it is as if we have only given birth to wind.
We have not brought salvation to the earth,
and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.
- <sup>19</sup> Your dead will live; their dead bodies will arise.
Awake and sing for joy, you who live in the dust;
for your dew is the dew of light,
and the earth will bring forth its dead.
- <sup>20</sup> Go, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors behind you;
hide for a short time,
until the indignation has passed by.
- <sup>21</sup> For, look, Yahweh is about to come out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
the earth will uncover her bloodshed,
and will no longer conceal those she killed.

<sup>2</sup>This is a difficult verse and is translated in several ways by different modern English translations.

---

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>On that day

Yahweh with his hard, great and fierce sword will punish Leviathan the slithering serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent,
and he will kill the monster that is in the sea.

<sup>2</sup>In that day:

A vineyard of wine, sing of it.

<sup>3</sup> "I, Yahweh, am its protector;
I water it every moment.

I guard it night and day
so no one will hurt it.

<sup>4</sup> I am not angry,
Oh, that there were briers and thorns!
In battle I would march against them;
I would burn them all together;
<sup>5</sup> unless they take hold of my refuge and make peace with me; let them make peace with me.

<sup>6</sup> In the coming day, Jacob will take root;
Israel will blossom and bud;
and they will fill the surface of the world with fruit."

<sup>7</sup> Has Yahweh attacked Jacob and Israel
as he attacked those nations who attacked them?
Have Jacob and Israel been killed
as their killers were killed?

<sup>8</sup> In exact measure you have contended, sending Jacob and Israel away;
he drove them away with his severe breath
in the day of the east wind. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>9</sup> So in this way, the iniquity of Jacob will be atoned for,
for this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:
when he will make all the altar stones
as chalk and crushed to pieces, and no Asherah poles or incense altars
will remain standing.

<sup>10</sup> For the fortified city is desolate,
the habitation is deserted and abandoned like the wilderness.
There a calf feeds, and there he lies down
and consumes its branches.

<sup>11</sup> When the boughs are withered, they will be broken off.
Women will come and make fires with them,
for this is not a people of understanding.
Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them,
and he who made them will not be merciful to them.

<sup>12</sup>It will come about on that day that Yahweh will thresh from the Euphrates River to the Brook of Egypt and you, the people of Israel, will be gathered together one by one. <sup>13</sup>On that day a great ram's horn will be blown; and the perishing ones in the land of Assyria will come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt. They will worship Yahweh on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

1Instead of In exact measure , many modern translations have an idea similar to By driving them away .

Chapter 28

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the proud garland crown that is worn by each of the drunkards of Ephraim,
and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty,
the garland that is set on the head of the lush Valley of those who are overcome with wine!
- <sup>2</sup> Behold, the Lord sends one who is mighty and strong;
like a storm of hail and a destructive windstorm,
like a driving rain and overflowing waters;
and he will throw each garland crown down to the ground.
- <sup>3</sup> The proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden underfoot.
- <sup>4</sup> The fading flower of his glorious beauty,
which is on the head of the rich valley,
will be as the first ripe fig before the summer,
that, when someone sees it,
while it is yet in his hand, he swallows it down.
- <sup>5</sup> In that day Yahweh of hosts will become a beautiful crown and a diadem of beauty for the remainder of his people,
- <sup>6</sup> a spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment, and strength for those who turn back their enemies at their gates.
- <sup>7</sup> But even these reel with wine,
and stagger with strong drink.
The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink,
and they are swallowed up by wine.
They stagger with strong drink, staggering in vision and reeling in decision.
- <sup>8</sup> Truly, all tables are covered with filthy vomit,
so that there is no clean place.
- <sup>9</sup> To whom will he teach knowledge,
and to whom will he explain the message?
To those who are weaned from milk or to those just taken from the breasts?
- <sup>10</sup> For it is command upon command, command upon command;
rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little.
- <sup>11</sup> Indeed, with mocking lips and a foreign tongue
he will speak to this people.
- <sup>12</sup> In the past he said to them
"This is the rest, give rest to him who is weary;
and this is the refreshing,"
but they would not listen.
- <sup>13</sup> So the word of Yahweh will be to them
command upon command, command upon command;
rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little;
so that they may go and fall backward,
and be broken, ensnared, and captured.
- <sup>14</sup> So listen to the word of Yahweh, you who mock,

- you who rule over this people who are in Jerusalem.
<sup>15</sup> This will happen because you said,
 "We have made a covenant with death,
 and with Sheol we have reached an agreement.
 So when the overwhelming whip passes through,
 it will not reach us.
 For we have made a lie our refuge,
 and taken shelter in falsehood."
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord Yahweh says,
 "See, I will lay in Zion a foundation stone, a tried stone,
 a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation.
 He who believes will not be ashamed.
<sup>17</sup> I will make justice the measuring stick,
 and righteousness the plumbline.
 Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
 and the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.
<sup>18</sup> Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand.
 When the raging flood passes through,
 you will become its trampling place.
<sup>19</sup> Whenever it passes through, it will overwhelm you,
 and morning by morning it will pass through and by day and night it will come.
 When the message is understood,
 it will cause terror.
<sup>20</sup> For the bed is too short for a man to stretch out on,
 and the blanket too narrow for him to wrap himself in."
<sup>21</sup> Yahweh will rise up as on Mount Perazim;
 he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon
 to do his work, his strange work,
 and perform his strange deed.
<sup>22</sup> Now therefore do not mock,
 or your bonds will be tightened.
 I have heard from the Lord Yahweh of hosts,
 a decree of destruction on the earth.
- <sup>23</sup> Pay attention and listen to my voice;
 be attentive and listen to my words.
<sup>24</sup> Does a farmer who plows all day to sow, only plow the ground?
 Does he continually break up and harrow the field?
<sup>25</sup> When he has prepared the ground,
 does he not scatter caraway seed, sow the cumin, put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the right place,
 and the spelt at its edges? <sup>1</sup> <sup>26</sup> His God instructs him;
 he teaches him wisely.
- <sup>27</sup> Moreover, the caraway seed is not threshed with a sledge,
 nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cumin;
 but caraway is beaten out with a stick,
 and cumin with a rod.
<sup>28</sup> Bread grain is crushed,
 but the one who grinds it does not thresh it forever.
 The wheel of his cart and his horses would destroy it,
 so he does not continue to grind it.

<sup>29</sup> This too comes from Yahweh of hosts, who gives wonderful counsel and whose sound wisdom is great.

<sup>1</sup>The identification of some of these spices is in doubt, so different translations may have a different list of spices than here. In addition, other modern translations give different meaning to the expressions translated in the ULB as in rows and in the right place , because these expressions are uncertain in Hebrew.

Chapter 29

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to Ariel, Ariel,
the city where David encamped!
Add year to year;
let the festivals come round.
- <sup>2</sup> But I will besiege Ariel,
and she will be mourning and lamenting;
and she will be to me like Ariel.
- <sup>3</sup> I will encamp against you in a circle and will lay siege against you with a garrison, and I will raise siege works against you.
- <sup>4</sup> You will be abased and will speak from the ground;
your speech will be bowed down from the dust.
Your voice will sound like a spirit that speaks from the ground,
and out of the dust your speech will whisper.
- <sup>5</sup> The great number of your invaders will become like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff that passes away.
It will happen suddenly, in an instant.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh of hosts will come to you with thunder, earthquake, great noise, with strong winds and violent storm, and the flames of a devouring fire.
- <sup>7</sup> It will be like a dream, a vision of the night:
A horde of all the nations will fight against Ariel
and her stronghold.
They will attack her and her fortifications to press upon her.
- <sup>8</sup> It will be like when a hungry man dreams he is eating,
but when he awakes, his stomach is empty.
It will be like when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking and he awakes faint, with his thirst not quenched.
Yes, so will be the great number of nations that fights against Mount Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> Astonish yourselves and be astonished;
blind yourselves and be blind!
Be drunk, but not with wine;
stagger, but not with strong drink.
- <sup>10</sup> For Yahweh has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep.
He has closed your eyes, the prophets,
and has covered your heads, the seers.

<sup>11</sup>All revelation has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men might give to one who is learned, saying, "Read this." He also says, "I cannot, for it is sealed."<sup>12</sup>If the book is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."

- <sup>13</sup>The Lord said,
"This people comes close to me with their mouths and honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me.
Their honor for me
is only a commandment of men that has been taught.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore, see, I will proceed to do a marvelous thing among this people, wonder after wonder.
The wisdom of their wise men will perish,

- and the understanding of their prudent men will disappear."
- <sup>15</sup> Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in darkness.
They say, "Who sees us, and who knows us?"
- <sup>16</sup> You turn things upside down!
Should the potter be considered like clay,
so that the thing that is made should say about him who made it,
"He did not make me,"
or the thing formed say about him who formed it,
"He does not understand"?
- <sup>17</sup> In just a little while,
Lebanon will be turned into a field,
and the field will become a forest.
- <sup>18</sup> On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of the deep darkness.
- <sup>19</sup> The oppressed will again rejoice in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>20</sup> For the ruthless will cease, and the mocker will vanish.
All those who love to do evil will be eliminated,
- <sup>21</sup> who by a word make a man out to be an offender.
They lay a snare for him who seeks justice at the gate and put the righteous down with empty lies.
- <sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what Yahweh says concerning the house of Jacob—Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham,
"Jacob will no longer be ashamed,
nor will his face be pale.
- <sup>23</sup> But when he sees his children, the work of my hands,
they will make my name holy.
They will make holy the name of the Holy One of Jacob and they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.
- <sup>24</sup> Those who err in spirit will gain understanding, and complainers will accept instruction."

Chapter 30

- <sup>1</sup> "Woe to the rebellious children—
     this is Yahweh's declaration—
 They make plans, but not from me;
     they make alliances with other nations,
 but they were not directed by my Spirit,
     so they add sin to sin.
- <sup>2</sup> They set out to go down into Egypt,
     but have not asked for my direction.
 They seek protection from Pharaoh and take refuge in the shadow of Egypt.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore Pharaoh's protection will be your shame,
     and the refuge in Egypt's shade, your humiliation,
- <sup>4</sup> although their princes are at Zoan,
     and their messengers have come to Hanes.
- <sup>5</sup> They will all be ashamed because of a people who cannot help them,
 who are neither help nor aid,
     but a shame, and even a disgrace."
- <sup>6</sup> A declaration about the animals of the Negev:
 Through the land of trouble and anguish,
     of the lioness and the lion,
     the viper and fiery flying serpent,
 they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys,
     and their treasures on the camels' humps,
     to a people who cannot help them.
- <sup>7</sup> For Egypt's help is vain and empty;
     therefore I have called her Rahab, who sits still.
- <sup>8</sup> Now go, write it in their presence on a tablet,
     and inscribe it on a scroll,
 that it may be preserved
     for the time to come as a testimony.
- <sup>9</sup> For these are a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the instruction of Yahweh.
- <sup>10</sup> They say to the seers, "Do not see;"
     and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy the truth to us;
 speak flattering words to us,
     prophesy illusions.
- <sup>11</sup> Turn aside from the way, stray off the path;
     cause the Holy One of Israel to cease speaking before our face."
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore the Holy One of Israel says,
     "Because you reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and lean on it,
- <sup>13</sup> so this iniquity will be to you like a broken part ready to fall, like a bulge in a high wall whose fall will happen suddenly, in an instant."
- <sup>14</sup> It will break as a potter's vessel is broken;
     he will not spare it,

so that there will not be found among its pieces a shard
with which to scrape fire from the hearth, or to scoop up water out of the cistern.

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel says,
"In returning and resting you will be saved;
in quietness and in trust will be your strength.
But you were not willing.

<sup>16</sup> You said, 'No, for we will flee on horses,' so you will flee;
and, 'We will ride upon swift horses,'
so those who pursue you will be swift.

<sup>17</sup> One thousand will flee at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will flee until your remnant will be like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, or like a signal flag on a hill."

<sup>18</sup> Yet Yahweh is waiting to be gracious to you, therefore he is ready to show you mercy.
For Yahweh is a God of justice;
blessed are all those who wait for him.

<sup>19</sup>For a people will live in Zion, in Jerusalem, and you will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you.

<sup>20</sup>Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, even so, your teacher will not hide himself anymore, but you will see your teacher with your own eyes.<sup>21</sup>Your ears will hear a word behind you saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

<sup>23</sup>He will give the rain for your seed when you sow the ground, and bread with abundance from the ground, and the crops will be abundant. In that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures.<sup>24</sup>The oxen and the donkeys, who plow the ground, will eat seasoned feed that has been winnowed with a shovel and a fork.

<sup>25</sup>On every high mountain and on every high hill, there will be flowing brooks and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.<sup>26</sup>The light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the sunlight of seven days. Yahweh will bind up the breaking of his people and heal the bruises of his wounding them.

burning with his anger and in dense smoke.
His lips are full of fury,
and his tongue is like a devouring fire.

<sup>28</sup> His breath is like an overflowing torrent that reaches up to the middle of the neck,
to sift the nations with the sieve of worthlessness.
His breath is a bridle in the jaws of the peoples to cause them to wander away.

<sup>29</sup> You will have a song
as in the night when a holy feast is observed,
and gladness of heart,
as when one goes with a flute to the mountain of Yahweh,
to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> Yahweh will make the splendor of his voice heard and show the motion of his arm
in raging anger and flames of fire,

with windstorm, rainstorm, and hailstones.

<sup>31</sup> For at the voice of Yahweh, Assyria will be dismayed;
he will strike them with a staff.

<sup>32</sup> Every stroke of the appointed rod that Yahweh will lay on them will be accompanied with the music of tambourines and harps as he battles, waving his weapons, and fights with them.

<sup>33</sup> For a place of burning was prepared long ago.
Indeed, it is prepared for the king,
and God has made it deep and wide.
The pile is ready with a fire and much wood.
The breath of Yahweh, like a stream of sulfur,
will set it on fire.

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and lean on horses,
 and trust in chariots (for they are many)
 and in horsemen (for they are mighty).
 But they are not concerned about the Holy One of Israel,
 nor do they seek Yahweh!

<sup>2</sup> Yet he is wise, and he will bring disaster and will not retract his words.
 He will arise against the evil house
 and against the helpers of those who behave wickedly.

<sup>3</sup> Egypt is a man and not God,
 their horses flesh and not spirit.
 When Yahweh reaches out with his hand,
 both the one who helps will stumble,
 and the one who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

<sup>4</sup> This is what Yahweh says to me,
 "As a lion, even a young lion, growls over its torn prey,
 when a group of shepherds is called out against it,
 but it is not frightened by their voices,
 nor does it creep away from their sound;
 thus Yahweh of hosts will descend to fight on Mount Zion, on that hill.

<sup>5</sup> Like birds in flight,
 so Yahweh of hosts will protect Jerusalem;
 he will protect and rescue
 as he passes over it and preserves it.

<sup>6</sup> Return to him from whom you have deeply turned away, people of Israel.<sup>7</sup> For in that day each one will throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold that your own hands have made as a sin.

<sup>8</sup> Assyria will fall by the sword;
 a sword not wielded by man will consume him.
 He will flee from the sword,
 and his young men will be forced to do hard labor.

<sup>9</sup> They will lose all confidence because of terror, and his princes will be afraid
 at the sight of Yahweh's signal flag—
 this is the declaration of Yahweh—whose fire is in Zion and whose firepot is in Jerusalem."

Chapter 32

- <sup>1</sup> Look, a king will reign in righteousness,
and princes will rule in justice.
- <sup>2</sup> Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm,
like streams of water in a dry place,
like the shade of a great rock in a land of weariness.
- <sup>3</sup> Then the eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will hear attentively.
- <sup>4</sup> The rash will think carefully with understanding,
and the stutterer will speak distinctly and with ease.
- <sup>5</sup> The fool will no longer be called honorable,
nor the deceiver called principled.
- <sup>6</sup> For the fool speaks folly,
and his heart plans evil
and godless actions,
and he speaks wrongly against Yahweh.
He makes the hungry empty,
and the thirsty he causes to lack drink.
- <sup>7</sup> The deceiver's methods are evil.
He devises wicked schemes to destroy the poor with deceitful words, even when the poor say what is right.
- <sup>8</sup> But the honorable man makes honorable plans;
and because of his honorable actions he will stand.
- <sup>9</sup> Rise up, you women who are at ease,
and listen to my voice;
you carefree daughters,
give ear to my word.
- <sup>10</sup> For in a little more than a year
your confidence will be broken,
you carefree women,
for the grape harvest will fail,
the ingathering will not come.
- <sup>11</sup> Tremble, you women who are at ease;
be troubled, you confident ones;
take off your fine clothes and make yourselves bare;
gird your loins with sackcloth.
- <sup>12</sup> You will wail for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vines.
- <sup>13</sup> The land of my people will be overgrown with thorns and briers,
even in all the joyful houses in the jubilant city.
- <sup>14</sup> For the palace will be abandoned,
the crowded city will be deserted;
the hill and the watchtower will become caves forever,
a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;
- <sup>15</sup> until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is considered as a forest.
- <sup>16</sup> Then justice will reside in the wilderness;
and righteousness will live in the fruitful field.

- <sup>17</sup> The work of righteousness will be peace;
and the result of righteousness,
quietness and confidence forever.
- <sup>18</sup> My people will live in a peaceful habitation,
in secure homes, and in quiet resting places.
- <sup>19</sup> Though hail flattens the forest and the city is completely brought down,
- <sup>20</sup> you will be blessed when you sow your seed beside every stream and let the foot of the ox and donkey range free.

Chapter 33

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to you, destroyer who has not been destroyed!
Woe to the betrayer whom they have not betrayed!
When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed.
When you stop betraying, they will betray you.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, be gracious to us; we wait for you;
be our arm every morning,
our salvation in the time of trouble.
- <sup>3</sup> At the loud noise the peoples flee;
when you arise, the nations are scattered.
- <sup>4</sup> Your plunder is gathered as the locusts gather;
as locusts leap, men leap on it.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is exalted. He lives in a high place.
He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.
- <sup>6</sup> He will be the stability in your times,
abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge;
the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, their envoys cry in the streets;
the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
- <sup>8</sup> The highways are deserted;
there are no more travelers.
Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised,
and mankind is not respected. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>9</sup> The land mourns and wastes away;
Lebanon is ashamed and withers away; <sup>2</sup>
Sharon is like a desert plain;
and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
- <sup>10</sup> "Now will I arise," says Yahweh;
"now I will be lifted up; now I will be elevated.
- <sup>11</sup> You conceive chaff, and you give birth to stubble;
your breath is a fire that will consume you.
- <sup>12</sup> The peoples will be burned to lime,
as thornbushes are cut down and are burned.
- <sup>13</sup> You who are far away, hear what I have done;
and, you who are near, acknowledge my might."
- <sup>14</sup> The sinners in Zion are afraid;
trembling has seized the godless ones.
Who among us can sojourn with a raging fire?
Who among us can sojourn with everlasting burnings?
- <sup>15</sup> He who walks righteously and speaks honestly;
who despises the gain of oppression,
who shakes his hand so that it will not accept a bribe,
who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed,
and who shuts his eyes from looking on evil—
- <sup>16</sup> this is the man who will dwell on the heights, his stronghold will be the fortress among the cliffs,
his food will be given,
and his water will be in steady supply.

- <sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in his beauty;
they will see a land off in the distance.
- <sup>18</sup> Your heart will recall the terror;
where is the scribe,
where is he who weighed the money?
Where is he who counted the towers?
- <sup>19</sup> You will no longer see the defiant people, people who mock you
in a language that you do not understand.
- <sup>20</sup> Look at Zion, the city of our feasts;
your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation,
a tent that will not be removed,
whose stakes will never be pulled up nor will any of its cords be broken.
- <sup>21</sup> There Yahweh in majesty will be with us,
in a place of broad rivers and streams,
where no warship with oars will travel,
and no large ships will sail.
- <sup>22</sup> For Yahweh is our judge, Yahweh is our lawgiver, Yahweh is our king; he will save us.
- <sup>23</sup> Your riggings are slack;
they cannot hold the mast in place;
they cannot spread the sail;
when the plunder of abundant prey is divided,
even the lame will take away booty.
- <sup>24</sup> The inhabitants will not say, "I am sick;"
the people who live there will be forgiven for their iniquity.

---

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient Hebrew copies have the word for cities , but this is seen by many scholars to be a corruption of the more likely Hebrew word for witnesses , which is the ULB translation.

<sup>2</sup>The word mourns can be also be read as dries up . The two Hebrew words are spelled the same. Isaiah 24:4 is similar, and the meaning there is clearly dries up .

Chapter 34

- <sup>1</sup> Come near, you nations, and listen;
pay attention, you people!
The earth and all that fills it must listen,
the world and all its produce.
- <sup>2</sup> For Yahweh is angry with all the nations,
and furious against all their armies;
he has completely destroyed them,
he has handed them over to the slaughter.
- <sup>3</sup> The bodies of their dead will be thrown out.
The stench of the dead bodies will be everywhere;
and the mountains will soak up their blood.
- <sup>4</sup> All the host of heaven will waste away,
and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll;
and all their stars will fade away,
as the leaf fades from off the vine,
and as the overripe figs from the fig tree.
- <sup>5</sup> For when my sword will have drunk its fill in heaven;
look, it will now come down on Edom,
on the people I am setting apart for destruction.
- <sup>6</sup> The sword of Yahweh is dripping with blood and covered with fat,
dripping with the blood of lambs and goats,
covered with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- <sup>7</sup> Wild oxen will fall with them,
and young bulls with the mighty ones.
Their land will be drunk with blood,
and their dust made fat with fatness.
- <sup>8</sup> For it will be a day of vengeance for Yahweh and a year when he will pay them back for the cause of Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch,
her dust into sulfur,
and her land will become burning pitch.
- <sup>10</sup> It will burn night and day;
its smoke will rise forever;
from generation to generation it will be a wasteland;
no one will pass through it forever and ever.
- <sup>11</sup> But wild birds and animals will live there;
the owl and the raven will make their nest in it.
He will stretch over it the measuring line of ruin and the plumbline of destruction.
- <sup>12</sup> Her nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all her princes will be nothing.
- <sup>13</sup> Thorns will overgrow her palaces,
nettles and thistles her fortresses.
It will be a habitation of jackals,
a place for ostriches.
- <sup>14</sup> The wild animals of the desert and the hyenas will meet there,
and the wild goats will cry to one another.
Nocturnal animals will settle there

- and find for themselves a resting place.
- <sup>15</sup> Owls will make nests, lay and hatch their eggs,
hatch and protect their young.
Yes, there hawks will gather,
each one with its mate.
- <sup>16</sup> Search through the scroll of Yahweh;
not one of these will be missing.
None will lack for a mate; for his mouth has commanded it,
and his spirit has gathered them.
- <sup>17</sup> He has cast lots for their places,
and his hand has measured it out for them by a cord.
They will possess it forever;
from generation to generation they will live there.

Chapter 35

- <sup>1</sup> The wilderness and the Arabah will be glad;
and the desert will rejoice and blossom.
Like the rose,
- <sup>2</sup> it will blossom abundantly
and rejoice with joy and joyful shouting;
the glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
they will see the glory of Yahweh,
the splendor of our God.
- <sup>3</sup> Strengthen the weak hands,
and make steady the knees that shake.
- <sup>4</sup> Say to those with a fearful heart,
"Be strong, do not fear!
Look, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you."
- <sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will see,
and the ears of the deaf will hear.
- <sup>6</sup> Then the lame man will leap like a deer,
and the mute tongue will shout for joy,
for water breaks out in the Arabah,
and streams in the wilderness.
- <sup>7</sup> The burning sand will become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water;
in the place where jackals lived,
in their resting place, will be grass with reeds and rushes.
- <sup>8</sup> A highway will be there called The Holy Way.
The unclean will not travel it.
But it will be for him who walks in it.
No fool will go on it.
- <sup>9</sup> No lion will be there, no ferocious beast will be on it;
they will not be found there,
but the redeemed will walk there.
- <sup>10</sup> The ransomed of Yahweh will return
and come with singing to Zion,
and everlasting joy will be on their heads;
gladness and joy will overtake them;
sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Chapter 36

<sup>4</sup>The chief commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that the great king, the king of Assyria, says, 'What is the source of your confidence?'<sup>5</sup>You speak only useless words, saying there is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me?"

<sup>6</sup>Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed that you use as a walking staff, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to anyone who trusts in him.<sup>7</sup>But if you say to me, "We are trusting in Yahweh our God," is not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem"?

<sup>8</sup>Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them.

<sup>9</sup>How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen!<sup>10</sup>Now then, have I traveled up here without Yahweh to fight against this land and destroy it? Yahweh said to me, "Attack this land and destroy it.""

<sup>11</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramean language, Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall."<sup>12</sup>But the chief commander said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

<sup>18</sup>Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, 'Yahweh will rescue us.' Has any of the gods of the peoples rescued them from the hand of the king of Assyria?<sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power?<sup>20</sup>Among all the gods of these lands, is there any god who has rescued his land from my power, as if Yahweh could save Jerusalem from my power?"

<sup>21</sup>But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."<sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>It came about that when King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh.<sup>2</sup>He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet.

<sup>3</sup>They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother has no strength to give birth to her child.'<sup>4</sup>It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Now lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still here.'"

<sup>5</sup>So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,<sup>6</sup>and Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master: 'Yahweh says, 'Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me.

<sup>7</sup>Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear a rumor and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish.<sup>9</sup>Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message:<sup>10</sup>"Say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, 'Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'"

<sup>11</sup>See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued?<sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations rescued them, the nations that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar?<sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received this letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of Yahweh and spread it before him.<sup>15</sup>Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh:<sup>16</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.

<sup>17</sup>Turn your ear, Yahweh, and listen. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.<sup>18</sup>It is true, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations and their lands.

<sup>19</sup>They have put their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of men's hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them.<sup>20</sup>So now, Yahweh our God, save us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yahweh alone."

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria,<sup>22</sup>this is the word that Yahweh has spoken about him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you;
the daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.

<sup>23</sup> Whom have you defied and insulted?
Against whom have you exalted your voice
and lifted up your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> By your servants you have defied the Lord and have said, 'With the multitude of my chariots
I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon.
I will cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees there,
and I will enter into its farthest high places,
its most fruitful forest.

I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.'

<sup>26</sup> Have you not heard how I determined it long ago
 and worked it out in ancient times?
     Now I am bringing it to pass.
 You are here to reduce impregnable cities into heaps of ruins.

<sup>27</sup> Their inhabitants, of little strength,
     are dismayed and ashamed.
 They are plants in the field, green grass,
     the grass on the roof or in the field,
     before the east wind.

<sup>28</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out,
     your coming in, and your raging against me.

<sup>29</sup> Because of your raging against me,
     and because your arrogance has reached my ears,
 I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth;
     I will turn you back the way you came."

<sup>30</sup> This will be the sign for you:
     This year you will eat what grows wild,
     and in the second year what grows from that.
 But in the third year you must plant and harvest,
     plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup> The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.

<sup>32</sup> For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out;
     from Mount Zion an escaped remnant will come.
     The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this."

<sup>33</sup> Therefore Yahweh says this about the king of Assyria:
     "He will not come into this city
     and he will not shoot an arrow here.
     He will not come before it with shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

<sup>34</sup> The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave;
     he will not enter this city—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>35</sup> For I will defend this city and rescue it for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant."

<sup>36</sup> Then the angel of Yahweh went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers.
 When the men arose early in the morning, dead bodies lay everywhere.<sup>37</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went home and stayed in Nineveh.

<sup>38</sup> Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisrok his god, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword. Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>1</sup> Some ancient and modern translations have I have dug wells and drunk water in foreign lands .

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, not live.'"<sup>2</sup>Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh.<sup>3</sup>He said, "Please, Yahweh, I beg you, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done what was good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept loudly.

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying,<sup>5</sup>"Go and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of David your ancestor, says: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. See, I am about to add fifteen years to your life.'<sup>6</sup>Then I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.

<sup>7</sup>This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that I will do what I have promised.<sup>8</sup>Look, I will cause the shadow on the stairs of Ahaz to go back ten steps.'" So the shadow went back ten steps of the stairs on which it had advanced.

<sup>9</sup>This was the written prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and then recovered:

- <sup>10</sup> "I said that halfway through my life
       I will go through the gates of Sheol;
       I am sent there for the rest of my years.
- <sup>11</sup> I said that I will no longer see Yah, Yah in the land of the living; <sup>1</sup>
       I will no longer look on mankind or the inhabitants of the world. <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>12</sup> My dwelling place is removed and carried away from me like a shepherd's tent;
       I have rolled up my life like a weaver;
       you are cutting me off from the loom;
       between day and night you are ending my life.
- <sup>13</sup> I cried out <sup>3</sup> until the morning;
       like a lion he breaks all my bones.
       Between day and night you are ending my life.
- <sup>14</sup> Like a swallow I chirp;
       I coo like a dove;
       my eyes grow tired with looking upward.
       Lord, I am oppressed; help me.
- <sup>15</sup> What can I say?
       He has both spoken to me, and has done it;
       I will walk slowly all my years
       because of the bitterness of my soul.
- <sup>16</sup> Lord, the sufferings you send are good for me;
       may my life be given back to me;
       you have restored my life and health.
- <sup>17</sup> It was for my benefit that I experienced such bitterness.
       You have rescued me from the pit of destruction;
       for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.
- <sup>18</sup> For Sheol does not thank you;
       death does not praise you;
       those who go down into the pit
       do not hope in your trustworthiness.
- <sup>19</sup> The living person, the living person,
       he is the one who gives you thanks, as I do this day;
       a father makes known to children
       your trustworthiness.

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh is about to save me,
and we will celebrate with music
all the days of our lives in the house of Yahweh."

<sup>21</sup>Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs and put it on the boil, and he will recover."<sup>22</sup>Hezekiah also had said, "What will be the sign that I should go up to the house of Yahweh?"

<sup>2</sup>the inhabitants of the world : Most modern translations have this meaning. Ancient Hebrew copies have the inhabitants of the place of non-existence (that is, brief existence).

<sup>3</sup>The Hebrew could be read: I cried out or I calmed myself .

Chapter 39

<sup>1</sup>At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered.<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was pleased by these things; he showed the messengers his storehouse of valuable things—the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?" Hezekiah said, "They came to me from the distant country of Babylon."<sup>4</sup>Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them."

<sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the word of Yahweh of hosts:<sup>6</sup>Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>They will take away some of your own descendants, whom you will father, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."<sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of Yahweh that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and stability in my days."

Chapter 40

- <sup>1</sup> "Comfort, comfort my people,"
says your God.
- <sup>2</sup> "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem;
and proclaim to her
that her warfare has ended,
that her iniquity is pardoned,
that she has received double from Yahweh's hand for all her sins."
- <sup>3</sup> A voice cries out,
"In the wilderness prepare the way of Yahweh;
make straight in the Arabah a highway for our God." <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>4</sup> Every valley will be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill will be brought low;
and the rugged land will be made level,
and the rough places a plain;
- <sup>5</sup> and the glory of Yahweh will be revealed,
and all people will see it together;
for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.
- <sup>6</sup> A voice says, "Cry."
Another answers, "What should I cry?"
"All flesh is grass,
and all their covenant faithfulness is like the flower of the field.
- <sup>7</sup> The grass withers and the flower fades
when the breath of Yahweh blows on it;
surely humanity is grass.
- <sup>8</sup> The grass withers, the flower fades,
but the word of our God will stand forever."
- <sup>9</sup> Go up on a high mountain,
Zion, bearer of good news. <sup>2</sup>
Shout out loud,
Jerusalem. You who bring good news, raise your voice, do not be afraid. <sup>3</sup>
Say to the cities of Judah,
"Here is your God!"
- <sup>10</sup> Look, the Lord Yahweh comes as a victorious warrior, and his strong arm rules for him.
See, his reward is with him,
and his recompense goes before him.
- <sup>11</sup> He will feed his flock like a shepherd,
he will gather in his arm the lambs,
and carry them close to his heart,
and will gently lead the ewes nursing their young.
- <sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, measured the sky with the span of his hand,
held the dust of the earth in a basket,
weighed the mountains in scales,
or the hills in a balance?
- <sup>13</sup> Who has comprehended the mind of Yahweh, or instructed him as his counselor?
- <sup>14</sup> From whom did he ever receive instruction?

Who taught him the correct way to do things,
and taught him knowledge,
or showed to him the way of understanding?

- <sup>15</sup> Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,
and are regarded like the dust on the scales;
see, he weighs the isles as a speck.
- <sup>16</sup> Lebanon is not sufficient fuel,
nor its wild animals sufficient for a burnt offering.
- <sup>17</sup> All the nations are insufficient before him;
they are regarded by him as nothing and emptiness.
- <sup>18</sup> To whom then will you compare God?
To what idol will you liken him?
- <sup>19</sup> An idol! A craftsman casts it:
The goldsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.
- <sup>20</sup> To make an offering one chooses a wood that will not rot;
he seeks a skillful artisan to make an idol that will not fall over.
- <sup>21</sup> Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
- <sup>22</sup> He is the one who sits above the horizon of the earth;
and the inhabitants are like grasshoppers before him.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out as a tent to live in.
- <sup>23</sup> He reduces rulers to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth emptiness.
- <sup>24</sup> They are barely planted, barely sown, their stem has barely taken root in the earth,
when he blows upon them and they wither,
and the wind carries them away like straw.
- <sup>25</sup> "To whom then will you compare me, whom do I resemble?" says the Holy One.
- <sup>26</sup> Look up at the sky!
Who has created all these stars?
He leads out their formations
and calls them all by name.
By the greatness of his might and by the strength of his power,
not one is missing.
- <sup>27</sup> Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel,
"My way is hidden from Yahweh,
and my God is not concerned about my vindication"?
- <sup>28</sup> Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, Yahweh,
the Creator of the ends of the earth,
does not get tired or weary;
there is no limit to his understanding.
- <sup>29</sup> He gives strength to the tired;

and to the one who lacks might he gives power.

<sup>30</sup> Even young people become tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall:

<sup>31</sup> but those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength;
they will soar with wings like eagles;
they will run and not be weary;
they will walk and not faint.

<sup>3</sup>Some modern translations have Jerusalem, proclaimer of good news . Some other modern translations have proclaim good news to Jerusalem .

Chapter 41

- <sup>1</sup> "Listen before me in silence, you coastlands;
let the nations renew their strength;
let them come near and speak;
let us come near together to argue a dispute.
- <sup>2</sup> Who has stirred up one from the east,
calling him in righteousness to his service?
He hands nations over to him
and helps him subdue kings.
He turns them to dust with his sword,
like windblown stubble with his bow.
- <sup>3</sup> He pursues them and passes by safely,
by a swift path that his feet scarcely touch.
- <sup>4</sup> Who has performed and accomplished these deeds?
Who has summoned the generations from the beginning?
I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last ones, I am he.
- <sup>5</sup> The isles have seen and are afraid;
the ends of the earth tremble;
they approach and come.
- <sup>6</sup> Everyone helps his neighbor,
and every one says to one another, 'Be encouraged.'
- <sup>7</sup> So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith, and he who works with the hammer encourages him who works with an anvil, saying of the welding, 'It is good.'
They fasten it with nails so it will not topple over.
- <sup>8</sup> But you, Israel, my servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
the descendants of Abraham my friend,
- <sup>9</sup> I took you from the ends of the earth and called you from the farthest places, saying to you, 'You are my servant.'
I have chosen you and I have not rejected you.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not fear, for I am with you.
Do not be anxious, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you, and I will help you,
and I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
- <sup>11</sup> See, they will be ashamed and disgraced,
all who have been angry with you;
they will be as nothing and will perish,
those who oppose you.
- <sup>12</sup> You will seek and will not find those who contended with you;
those who warred against you will be like nothing, absolutely nothing.
- <sup>13</sup> For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not fear; I am helping you.'
- <sup>14</sup> Do not fear, Jacob you worm, and you men of Israel;
I will help you—this is the declaration of Yahweh,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

- <sup>15</sup> Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and two-edged;
you will thresh the mountains and crush them;
you will make the hills like chaff.
- <sup>16</sup> You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away;
the wind will scatter them.
You will rejoice in Yahweh,
you will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup> The oppressed and needy look for water, but there is none,
and their tongues are parched for thirst;
I, Yahweh, will respond to their prayers;
I, the God of Israel, will not abandon them.
- <sup>18</sup> I will make streams to flow down the slopes,
and springs in the middle of the valleys;
I will make the desert into a pool of water,
and the dry land into springs of water.
- <sup>19</sup> In the wilderness I will set the cedar,
the acacia, and the myrtle, and the olive tree.
I will set the cypress in the desert plain,
with the pines and the cypress box trees.
- <sup>20</sup> I will do this so that the people may see, learn, consider, and gain understanding together,
that the hand of Yahweh has done this,
that the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- <sup>21</sup> 'Present your case,' says Yahweh, 'present your best arguments for your idols,'
says the King of Jacob.
- <sup>22</sup> Let them bring us their own arguments;
have them come forward and declare to us what will happen,
so we may know these things well.
Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations,
so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.
- <sup>23</sup> Tell things about the future,
that we may know if you are gods;
do something good or evil,
that we may be frightened and impressed.
- <sup>24</sup> See, you idols are nothing and your deeds are nothing;
the one who chooses you is detestable.
- <sup>25</sup> I have raised up one from the north, and he comes;
from the sun's rising I summon him who calls on my name,
and he will trample the rulers like mud,
like a potter who is treading on the clay.
- <sup>26</sup> Who announced this from the beginning, that we might know?
Before this time, that we may say, 'He is in the right'?
Indeed none of them decreed it,
yes, none heard your words.
- <sup>27</sup> I first said to Zion,
'Look here they are!' I sent a herald to Jerusalem.
- <sup>28</sup> When I look, there is no one,
not one among them who can give good advice,
who, when I ask, can answer a word.
- <sup>29</sup> Look, all of them are nothing,
and their deeds are nothing;

their cast metal figures are wind and emptiness.

---

Chapter 42

- <sup>1</sup> Behold, my servant, whom I uphold;
     my chosen one, in him I take delight.
 I have put my Spirit upon him;
     he will bring justice to the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> He will not cry out nor shout,
     nor make his voice heard in the streets.
- <sup>3</sup> A crushed reed he will not break,
     and a dimly burning wick he will not quench:
     he will faithfully execute justice.
- <sup>4</sup> He will neither grow faint nor be crushed until he has established justice on the earth;
     and the coastlands wait for his law.
- <sup>5</sup> This is what God Yahweh says—
     the one who created the heavens and stretched them out,
     the one who made the earth and all its produce,
     the one who gives breath to the people on it and life to those who live on it:
- <sup>6</sup> "I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness and will hold your hand.
 I will keep you and set you as a covenant for the people,
     as a light for the Gentiles,
- <sup>7</sup> to open the eyes of the blind,
     to release the prisoners from the dungeon,
     and from the house of imprisonment
     those who sit in darkness.
- <sup>8</sup> I am Yahweh, that is my name;
     and my glory I will not share with another nor my praise with carved idols.
- <sup>9</sup> See, the previous things came to pass,
     now I am about to declare new events.
     Before they begin to occur I will tell you about them."
- <sup>10</sup> Sing to Yahweh a new song,
     and his praise from the end of the earth;
 you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
     the coastlands, and those who live there.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the desert and the cities cry out,
     the villages where Kedar lives, shout for joy!
 Let the inhabitants of Sela sing;
     let them shout from the mountaintops.
- <sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to Yahweh and declare his praise in the coastlands.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh will go out as a warrior;
     as a man of war he will stir up his zeal.
 He will shout, yes, he will roar his battle cries;
     he will show his enemies his power.
- <sup>14</sup> I have kept quiet for a long time;
     I have been still and restrained myself;
 now I will cry out like a woman in labor;
     I will gasp and pant.

- <sup>15</sup> I will lay waste mountains and hills
and dry up all their vegetation;
and I will turn the rivers into islands and will dry up the marshes.
- <sup>16</sup> I will bring the blind by a way that they do not know;
in paths that they do not know I will lead them.
I will turn the darkness into light before them,
and make the crooked places straight.
These things I will do,
and I will not abandon them.
- <sup>17</sup> They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame,
those who trust in carved figures,
who say to cast metal figures, "You are our gods."
- <sup>18</sup> Listen, you deaf;
and look, you blind, that you may see.
- <sup>19</sup> Who is blind but my servant?
Or deaf like my messenger I send?
Who is as blind as my covenant partner,
or blind as Yahweh's servant?
- <sup>20</sup> You see many things, but do not comprehend;
ears are open, but no one hears.
- <sup>21</sup> It pleased Yahweh to praise his justice and to make his law glorious.
- <sup>22</sup> But this is a people robbed and plundered;
they are all trapped in pits, held captive in prisons;
they have become prey with no one to rescue them,
and no one says, "Bring them back!"
- <sup>23</sup> Who among you will listen to this?
Who will listen and hear in the future?
- <sup>24</sup> Who gave Jacob over to the robber,
and Israel to the looters?
Was it not Yahweh, against whom we have sinned,
in whose ways they refused to walk,
and whose law they refused to obey?
- <sup>25</sup> Therefore he poured out on them
the heat of his anger and the violence of war,
Its flames encircled them, yet they did not understand;
it consumed them, but they did not take it to heart.

Chapter 43

- <sup>1</sup> But now this is what Yahweh says, he who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel:
 "Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you;
     I have called you by your name, you are mine.
- <sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
     and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.
 When you walk through the fire you will not be burned,
     and the flames will not destroy you.
- <sup>3</sup> For I am Yahweh your God,
     the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
 I have given Egypt as your ransom,
     Cush and Seba in exchange for you.
- <sup>4</sup> Since you are precious and special in my sight, I love you;
     therefore I will give people in exchange for you,
     and other peoples in exchange for your life.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid, for I am with you;
     I will bring your offspring from the east,
     and gather you from the west.
- <sup>6</sup> I will say to the north, 'Hand them over;'
     and to the south, 'Do not hold any back;'
 Bring my sons from afar,
     and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth,
- <sup>7</sup> everyone who is called by my name,
     whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.
- <sup>8</sup> Bring out the people who are blind,
     even though they have eyes,
 and the deaf,
     even though they have ears.
- <sup>9</sup> All the nations gather together,
     and the peoples assemble.
 Who among them could have declared this and announced to us earlier events?
 Let them bring their witnesses so they can be justified;
     let them listen and affirm, 'It is true.'
- <sup>10</sup> You are my witnesses—this is Yahweh's declaration—and my servant whom I have chosen,
 so that you may know and believe in me,
     and understand that I am he.
 Before me there was no god formed,
     and there will be none after me.
- <sup>11</sup> I, I am Yahweh,
     and there is no savior but me.
- <sup>12</sup> I have declared, saved, and proclaimed,
     and there is no other god among you.
 You are my witnesses—
     this is Yahweh's declaration—I am God.
- <sup>13</sup> From this day on I am he,
     and no one can rescue anyone from my hand.
     I act, and who can turn it back?"
- <sup>14</sup> This is what Yahweh says,

your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
 "For your sake I send to Babylon and lead them all down as fugitives, turning the Chaldeans' expressions of joy
 into songs of lamentation.

<sup>15</sup> I am Yahweh, your Holy One,
 the Creator of Israel, your King."

<sup>16</sup> This is what Yahweh says
 (who opened a way through the sea and a path in the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup> who led out the chariot and the horse,
 the army and the mighty man. They fell down together;
 they will never rise again;
 they are extinguished, quenched like a burning wick.)

<sup>18</sup> "Do not think about these former things, nor consider the things of long ago.

<sup>19</sup> Look, I am about to do a new thing;
 now it begins to happen; do you not know it?
 I will make a road in the desert and streams of water in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup> The wild animals of the field will honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches,
 because I give water in the wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert,
 for my chosen people to drink,

<sup>21</sup> this people whom I formed for myself,
 that they might recount my praises.

<sup>22</sup> But you have not called on me, Jacob;
 you have become tired of me, Israel.

<sup>23</sup> You have not brought me any of your sheep as burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices.
 I have not burdened you with grain offerings,
 nor wearied you with demands for incense.

<sup>24</sup> You have bought me no sweet-smelling cane with money, neither have you poured out to me the fat of your sacrifices;
 but you have burdened me with your sins,
 you have wearied me with your evil deeds.

<sup>25</sup> I, yes, I, am he who blots out your offenses for my own sake;
 and I will not call to mind your sins any longer.

<sup>26</sup> Remind me of what happened. Let us debate together;
 present your cause, that you may be proved to be in the right.

<sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned,
 and your teachers have transgressed against me.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore I will defile the holy officials;
 I will hand Jacob over to complete destruction, and Israel to abusive humiliation."

---

Chapter 44

- <sup>1</sup> Now listen, Jacob my servant,
and Israel, whom I have chosen:
- <sup>2</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
he who made you and formed you in the womb and who will help you: "Do not fear, Jacob my servant;
and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
- <sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty ground,
and flowing streams on the dry ground;
I will pour my Spirit on your offspring and my blessing on your descendants.
- <sup>4</sup> They will spring up among the grass,
like willows by the streams of water.
- <sup>5</sup> One will say, 'I belong to Yahweh,'
and another will call out the name of Jacob,
and another will write on his hand 'Belonging to Yahweh,' and name himself by the name of Israel."
- <sup>6</sup> This is what Yahweh says—
the King of Israel and his Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts:
"I am the first, and I am the last;
and there is no God but me.
- <sup>7</sup> Who is like me? Let him announce it and explain to me the events that occurred since I established my ancient people, and let them declare the events to come.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not fear or be afraid.
Have I not declared to you long ago, and announced it?
You are my witnesses: Is there any God besides me?
There is no other Rock; I know of none."
- <sup>9</sup> All who fashion idols are nothing;
the things they delight in are worthless;
their witnesses cannot see or know anything,
and they will be put to shame.
- <sup>10</sup> Who would form a god or cast an idol that is worthless?
- <sup>11</sup> Look, all his associates will be put to shame;
the craftsmen are only men.
Let them assemble together; let them stand up;
they will tremble and be put to shame.
- <sup>12</sup> The smith works with his tools, forming it, working over the coals.
He shapes it with hammers and works it with his strong arm.
He is hungry, and his strength wanes;
he drinks no water and becomes faint.
- <sup>13</sup> The carpenter measures the wood with a line,
and marks it with a stylus.
He shapes it with his tools and marks it out with a compass.
He shapes it after the figure of a man,
like a glorious human, so it may stay in a house.
- <sup>14</sup> He cuts down cedars,

- or chooses a cypress tree or an oak tree.
 He makes it grow for himself among the trees in the forest.
 He plants a fir tree and the rain makes it grow.
<sup>15</sup> Then a man uses it for a fire and warms himself.
 Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
 Then he makes from it a god and bows down to it;
 he makes an idol and bows down to it.
<sup>16</sup> He burns part of the wood for the fire, roasting his meat over it. He eats and is satisfied.
 He warms himself and says,
 "Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire."
<sup>17</sup> With the rest of the wood he makes a god, his carved image;
 he bows down to it and reverences it,
 and prays to it saying, "Rescue me, for you are my god."
<sup>18</sup> They do not know, nor do they understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see,
 and their hearts cannot gain understanding.
<sup>19</sup> No one's heart remembers, and no one has the knowledge, no one has the understanding to say,
 "I have burned part of the wood in the fire;
 yes, I have also baked bread upon its coals.
 I have roasted meat over its coals and eaten.
 Now should I make the other part of the wood into an abomination?
 Should I bow down to a block of wood?"
<sup>20</sup> It is as if he were eating ashes; his deceived heart misleads him.
 He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say,
 "This thing in my right hand is a false god."
<sup>21</sup> Think about these things, Jacob,
 and Israel, for you are my servant:
 I have formed you; you are my servant:
 Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
<sup>22</sup> I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your rebellious deeds, and like a cloud, your sins;
 return to me,
 for I have redeemed you.
<sup>23</sup> Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done this;
 shout for joy, you depths of the earth.
 Break out into a shout of joy, you mountains,
 you forest with every tree in it;
 for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob,
 and will show his glory in Israel.
<sup>24</sup> This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer,
 he who formed you from the womb:
 "I am Yahweh, who made everything,
 who alone stretched out the heavens,
 who alone fashioned the earth.
<sup>25</sup> I who frustrate the omens of the empty talkers and who disgrace those who interpret omens;
 I who overturn the wisdom of the wise
 and make their advice foolish.
<sup>26</sup> I, Yahweh, who confirmed the words of his servant and brings to pass the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,'

and of the towns of Judah,
"They will be built again, and I will raise up their ruins";
<sup>27</sup> who says to the deep sea,
"Be dry, and I will dry up your currents."
<sup>28</sup> Yahweh is the one who says of Cyrus,
"He is my shepherd, he will do my every wish;
he will decree about Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,'
and about the temple, 'Let its foundations be laid.'"

---

Chapter 45

- <sup>1</sup> This is what Yahweh says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I hold,
in order to subdue nations before him, to disarm kings,
and to open the doors before him, so that gates remain open:
- <sup>2</sup> "I will go before you
and level the mountains;
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut in pieces their iron bars,
- <sup>3</sup> and I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden away, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name,
I, the God of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> For Jacob my servant's sake,
and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name,
giving you a title of honor,
though you have not known me.
- <sup>5</sup> I am Yahweh, and there is no other;
there is no God but me.
I will gird you,
though you have not known me;
- <sup>6</sup> that people may know
from the rising of the sun, and from the west,
that there is no god but me:
I am Yahweh, and there is no other.
- <sup>7</sup> I form the light and create darkness;
I bring peace and create disaster;
I am Yahweh, who does all these things.
- <sup>8</sup> You heavens, rain down from above!
Let the skies rain down righteousness.
Let the earth absorb it,
that salvation may bear fruit,
and righteousness spring up together with it.
I, Yahweh, have created them both.
- <sup>9</sup> Woe to anyone who argues with the one who formed him,
to him who is like any other earthen pot
among all the earthen pots in the ground!
Does the clay say to the potter,
'What are you making?'
or 'Your work has no handles on it'?
- <sup>10</sup> Woe to him who says to a father,
What are you fathering?'
or to a woman,
'What are you giving birth to?'
- <sup>11</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
the Holy One of Israel, his Maker:
'Why do you ask questions about what I will do for my children?
Do you command me concerning the work of my hands?'
- <sup>12</sup> 'I made the earth and created man on it.

It was my hands that stretched out the heavens,
and I commanded all the stars to appear.

- <sup>13</sup> I stirred Cyrus up in righteousness,
and I will smooth out all his paths.
He will build my city;
he will let my exiled people go home,
and not for price nor bribe,"
says Yahweh of hosts.

- <sup>14</sup> This is what Yahweh says,

"The produce of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush with the Sabeans, men of tall stature,
will be brought to you.
They will be yours.
They will follow after you,
coming in chains.
They will bow down to you
and plead with you saying,
'Surely God is with you,
and there is no other except him.'"

- <sup>15</sup> Truly you are a God who hides yourself, God of Israel, Savior.

- <sup>16</sup> They will all be ashamed and disgraced together;
those who carve idols will walk in humiliation.

- <sup>17</sup> But Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation;
you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.

- <sup>18</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
who created the heavens,
the true God
who created the earth and made it,
who established it.
He created it, not as a waste,
but designed it to be inhabited:
"I am Yahweh,
and there is no other.

- <sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret,
in some dark land;
I did not say to Jacob's descendants,
'Seek me in vain!'
I am Yahweh, who speaks what is right;
I declare the things that are upright.

- <sup>20</sup> Assemble yourselves and come!
Gather together, you refugees from among the nations!
They have no knowledge, those who carry carved images and pray to gods that cannot save.

- <sup>21</sup> Come close and declare it to me, bring the evidence!
Let them conspire together.
Who has shown this from long ago?
Who announced it?

Was it not I, Yahweh?
There is no God except me,
a just God and a Savior;
there is no one besides me.

<sup>22</sup> Turn to me and be saved,
all the ends of the earth;
for I am God, and there is no other.

<sup>23</sup> By myself I swear, speaking my just decree,
and it will not turn back:
"To me every knee will bend,
every tongue will swear.

<sup>24</sup> They will say of me, "In Yahweh alone are righteousness and strength.""
They will all be ashamed who are angry at him.

<sup>25</sup> In Yahweh all the descendants of Israel will be justified;
they will take pride in him.

Chapter 46

- <sup>1</sup> Bel bows down, Nebo stoops low.
Their idols weigh down the animals who carry them,
and you load your cattle with heavy burdens for weary animals.
- <sup>2</sup> Together they bend low, kneel down;
they cannot rescue the images,
and they themselves have gone off into captivity.
- <sup>3</sup> Listen to me, house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who have been carried by me from before your birth,
carried from the womb.
- <sup>4</sup> Even to your old age I am he,
and until your hair is gray I will carry you.
I made you and I will bear you;
I will carry you and I will rescue you.
- <sup>5</sup> To whom will you compare me? Who do you think I resemble, so that we may be compared?
- <sup>6</sup> People pour out gold from the bag and weigh silver on the scale.
They hire a metalsmith, and he makes it into a god;
they bow down and worship it.
- <sup>7</sup> They lift it on their shoulder and carry it;
they set it in its place, and it stands in its place
and does not move from it.
They cry out to it, but it cannot answer
nor save anyone from his trouble.
- <sup>8</sup> Think about these things;
never ignore them, you rebels!
- <sup>9</sup> Think about the earlier things, those of times past,
for I am God, and there is no other,
I am God, and there is no one like me.
- <sup>10</sup> I announce the end from the beginning,
and beforehand what has not yet happened;
I say, "My plan will happen,
and I will do as I desire."
- <sup>11</sup> I call a bird of prey from the east,
the man of my choice from a distant land;
yes, I have spoken; I will also accomplish it;
I have purposed, I will also do it.
- <sup>12</sup> Listen to me, you stubborn people,
who are far from doing what is right.
- <sup>13</sup> I am bringing my righteousness near;
it is not far away,
and my salvation does not wait;
and I will give salvation to Zion
and my beauty to Israel.

Chapter 47

- <sup>1</sup> Come down and sit in the dust,
 virgin daughter of Babylon;
 sit on the ground without a throne,
 daughter of the Chaldeans.
 You will no longer be called dainty and delicate.
- <sup>2</sup> Take the millstone and grind flour;
 remove your veil,
 strip off your flowing robe, uncover your legs,
 cross the streams.
- <sup>3</sup> Your nakedness will be uncovered,
 yes, your shame will be seen:
 I will take vengeance
 and will not spare a man.
- <sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts is his name,
 the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>5</sup> Sit in silence and go into darkness,
 daughter of the Chaldeans;
 for you will no longer be called queen of kingdoms.
- <sup>6</sup> I was angry with my people;
 I defiled my heritage
 and gave them over into your hand,
 but you showed them no mercy;
 you placed a very heavy yoke on the old people.
- <sup>7</sup> You said, "I will rule forever
 as sovereign queen."
 You did not take these things to heart,
 nor did you consider how they would turn out.
- <sup>8</sup> So now hear this, you who love pleasure and sit securely;
 you who say in your heart,
 "I exist, and there is no one else like me;
 I will never sit as a widow,
 nor will I ever experience loss of children."
- <sup>9</sup> But these two things will come to you in a moment in one day:
 the loss of children and widowhood;
 in full force they will come on you,
 despite your sorceries
 and your many incantations and amulets.
- <sup>10</sup> You have trusted in your wickedness;
 you have said, "No one sees me";
 your wisdom and your knowledge lead you astray,
 but you say in your heart,
 "I exist, and there is no one else like me."
- <sup>11</sup> Disaster will overcome you;
 you will not be able to drive it away with your incantations.
 Destruction will fall on you;

you will not be able to ward it off.
Calamity will strike you suddenly,
before you know it.

- <sup>12</sup> Persist in casting your spells and your many sorceries which you have faithfully recited since your childhood;
perhaps you will profit from them,
perhaps you will cause trembling.
- <sup>13</sup> You are tired out from so much counsel;
let those men stand up and save you—
those who chart the heavens and prophesy by the stars, those who declare the new moons—
let them save you from what will happen to you.
- <sup>14</sup> See, they will become like stubble.
The fire will burn them up.
They will not save themselves
from the hand of the flame.
There are no coals to warm them
and no fire for them to sit by!
- <sup>15</sup> This is what they have become to you—
those with whom you have worked,
and you have bought and sold with them since your youth—
they wandered about each one in his own direction;
there is no one who can rescue you."

Chapter 48

- <sup>1</sup> Hear this, house of Jacob,
     who are called by the name Israel and have come from the waters of Judah;
 you who swear by the name of Yahweh
     and invoke the God of Israel,
     but not sincerely nor in a righteous manner.
- <sup>2</sup> For they call themselves people of the holy city and trust in the God of Israel.
     Yahweh of hosts is his name.
- <sup>3</sup> "I have declared the things from long ago;
     they came out from my mouth, and I made them known;
     then suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.
- <sup>4</sup> Because I knew that you were obstinate,
     your neck muscles tight as iron,
     and your forehead like bronze,
- <sup>5</sup> therefore I declared these things to you beforehand;
     before they happened I informed you,
 so you could not say,
     'My idol has done them,'
     or 'My carved figure and my cast metal figure has ordained these things.'
- <sup>6</sup> You heard about these things; look at all this evidence;
     and you, will you not admit what I said is true?

From now on, I am showing you new things, hidden things that you have not known.

- <sup>7</sup> Now, and not from previously, they come into being,
     and before today you have not heard about them,
 so you will not be able to say,
     'Yes, I knew about them.'
- <sup>8</sup> You never heard; you did not know;
     these things were not unfolded to your ears beforehand.
 For I knew that you have been very deceitful,
     and that you have been a rebel from birth.
- <sup>9</sup> For the sake of my name I will defer my anger, and for my honor I will hold back from destroying you.
- <sup>10</sup> Look, I refined you, but not as silver;
     I have purified you in the furnace of affliction.
- <sup>11</sup> For my own sake, for my own sake I will act;
     for how can I allow my name to be profaned?
     I will not give my glory to anyone else.

- <sup>12</sup> Listen to me, Jacob,
     and Israel, whom I called:
 I am he;
     I am the first, I also am the last.
- <sup>13</sup> Yes, my hand laid the foundation of the earth,
     and my right hand spread out the heavens;
 when I call to them,
     they stand up together.

- <sup>14</sup> Assemble yourselves, all of you, and listen!
     Who among you has announced these things?

Yahweh's ally will accomplish his purpose against Babylon.
He will carry out Yahweh's will against the Chaldeans.

<sup>15</sup> I, I have spoken,
yes, I have summoned him,
I have brought him,
and he will succeed.

<sup>16</sup> Come near to me, listen to this:
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; when it happens, I am there."
Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, and his Spirit.

your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says,
"I am Yahweh your God,
who teaches you how to profit,
who leads you by the way that you should go.

<sup>18</sup> If only you had obeyed my commandments!
Then your peace and prosperity would have flowed like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and the offspring from your womb as numerous as the grains of sand;
their name would not have been cut off
nor blotted out from before me.

<sup>20</sup> Come out from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With the sound of a ringing cry announce it!
Make this known,
make it go out to the ends of the earth!
Say, 'Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob.'

<sup>21</sup> They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;
he made the water to flow out of the rock for them;
he split open the rock,
and the waters gushed out.

<sup>22</sup> There is no peace for the wicked—says Yahweh."

---

Chapter 49

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to me, you coastlands!
 Now pay attention, you distant peoples.
 Yahweh has called me from birth by name,
 when my mother brought me into the world.
- <sup>2</sup> He has made my mouth like a sharp sword;
 he hid me in the shadow of his hand;
 he has made me into a polished arrow;
 in his quiver he has hidden me.
- <sup>3</sup> He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory."
- <sup>4</sup> But I replied, "Though I thought I have labored in vain,
 I have spent my energy for nothing,
 yet my justice is with Yahweh,
 and my reward is with my God."
- <sup>5</sup> Now Yahweh has spoken—
 he who formed me from birth to be his servant,
 to restore Jacob again to himself,
 so that Israel would be gathered to him,
 for I am honored in the eyes of Yahweh,
 and my God has become my strength—
- <sup>6</sup> and he says, "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant
 to reestablish the tribes of Jacob,
 and to restore the survivors of Israel.
 I will make you a light to the Gentiles,
 that you may be my salvation to the ends of the earth."
- <sup>7</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
 the Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One,
 to the one whose life is despised, hated by the nations,
 and a slave of rulers,
 "Kings will see you and arise,
 and princes will see you and bow down,
 because of Yahweh who is faithful,
 even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."
- <sup>8</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
 "At a time I decide to show my favor I will answer you,
 and in a day of salvation I will help you;
 I will protect you,
 and give you as a covenant for the people,
 to rebuild the land,
 to reassign the desolate inheritance.
- <sup>9</sup> You will say to the prisoners, 'Come out;'
 to those in dark dungeons, 'Show yourselves.'
 They will graze along the roads,
 and on all the bare slopes will be their pasture.
- <sup>10</sup> They will not be hungry or thirsty;
 nor will the heat or sun beat on them,
 for he who has mercy on them will lead them;
 he will guide them to springs of water.

- <sup>11</sup> Then I will make all my mountains into a road,
and make my highways level."
- <sup>12</sup> Look, these will come from far away,
some from the north and the west;
and others from the land of Sinim.
- <sup>13</sup> Sing, heavens, and be joyful,
earth; break into joyful shouting, you mountains!
For Yahweh comforts his people,
and will have compassion on his afflicted.
- <sup>14</sup> But Zion said, "Yahweh has abandoned me, and the Lord has forgotten me."
- <sup>15</sup> "Can a woman forget her baby, nursing at her breast, so she does not have compassion on the son she has borne?
Yes, they may forget,
but I will not forget you.
- <sup>16</sup> Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms;
your walls are continually before me.
- <sup>17</sup> Your children are hurrying back, while those who destroyed you and made you desolate are going away.
- <sup>18</sup> Look around and see,
they are all gathering and coming to you.
As surely as I live—this is Yahweh's declaration—
you will surely wear them like jewelry, and you will put them on like a bride.
- <sup>19</sup> Though you were a waste and desolate, a land that was in ruins,
now you will be too small for the inhabitants,
and those who devoured you will be far away.
- <sup>20</sup> The children born during the time of your bereavement will say in your hearing,
'The place is too cramped for us,
make room for us, so we may live here.'
- <sup>21</sup> Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has borne these children for me?
I was bereaved and barren,
exiled and divorced.
Who has raised these children?
Look, I was left all alone;
where did these come from?'"
- <sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord Yahweh says,
"Look, I will raise my hand to the nations;
I will raise my signal flag to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in their bosoms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.
- <sup>23</sup> Kings will be your foster fathers,
and their queens your nursemaids;
they will bow down to you with their faces to the earth and lick the dust of your feet;
and you will know that I am Yahweh;

those who wait for me will not be put to shame."

<sup>24</sup> Can the booty be taken from the warrior, or captives be rescued from the ruthless? <sup>1</sup>

"Yes, the captives will be taken away from the warrior,
and booty will be rescued from the ruthless;
for I will oppose your adversary and save your children.

<sup>26</sup> I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh;
and they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine.
Then all mankind will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

---

<sup>1</sup> Instead of from the ruthless , the copies of the ancient Hebrew text have from the righteous , but most modern translations correct it to from the ruthless .

---

Chapter 50

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

"Where is the certificate of divorce with which I divorced your mother?
To which of my creditors did I sell you?
Look, you were sold because of your iniquities,
and because of your rebellion your mother was sent away.

<sup>2</sup> Why did I come but there was no one there?
Why did I call but no one answered?
Was my hand too short to ransom you?
Was there no power in me to rescue you?

Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea;
I make the rivers a desert;
their fish die for lack of water and rot.

<sup>3</sup> I clothe the sky with darkness;
I cover it with sackcloth."

<sup>4</sup> The Lord Yahweh has given me a tongue as one of those who are taught,
so that I speak a sustaining word to the weary one;

he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
nor did I turn away backward.

<sup>6</sup> I gave my back to those who beat me,
and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;
I did not hide my face
from acts of shame and spitting.

<sup>7</sup> For the Lord Yahweh will help me;
therefore I am not disgraced;
so I have made my face like flint,
for I know that I will not be put to shame.

<sup>8</sup> He who will justify me is close by.
Who will oppose me?
Let us stand and confront one another.

Who is my accuser?
Let him come near to me.

<sup>9</sup> See, the Lord Yahweh will help me.
Who will declare me guilty?
See, they will all wear out like a garment;
the moth will eat them up.

<sup>10</sup> Who among you fears Yahweh?
Who obeys the voice of his servant?
Who walks in deep darkness without light?
He should trust in the name of Yahweh
and lean on his God.

<sup>11</sup> Look, all you who light fires,
who equip yourselves with torches:
walk in the light of your fire
and in the flames that you have ignited.

This is what you have received from me:
You will lie down in a place of pain.

---

Chapter 51

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness,
     you who seek Yahweh:
 look at the rock from which you were chiseled
     and to the quarry from which you were cut.
- <sup>2</sup> Look at Abraham, your father,
     and to Sarah, who bore you;
 for when he was a lone individual,
     I called him. I blessed him and made him many.
- <sup>3</sup> Yes, Yahweh will comfort Zion;
     he will comfort all her waste places;
 her wilderness he made like Eden,
     and her desert plains beside the Jordan River valley like the garden of Yahweh;
 joy and gladness will be found in her,
     thanksgiving, and the sound of singing.
- <sup>4</sup> "Be attentive to me, my people;
     and listen to me, my people!
 For a law will go out from me,
     and I will make my justice to be a light for the nations.
- <sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near;
     my salvation will go out,
     and my arm will judge the nations;
 the coastlands will wait for me;
     for my arm they will eagerly wait.
- <sup>6</sup> Lift up your eyes to the sky,
     and look at the earth beneath,
 for the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
     the earth will wear out like a garment,
     and its inhabitants will die like flies.
 But my salvation will continue forever,
     and my righteousness will never stop working.
- <sup>7</sup> Listen to me, you who know what is right,
     you people who have my law in your heart:
 Do not fear the scorn of men,
     nor be dismayed by their abuse.
- <sup>8</sup> For the moth will eat them up like a garment,
     and the worm will eat them like wool;
 but my righteousness will be forever,
     and my salvation to all generations."
- <sup>9</sup> Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, arm of Yahweh.
 Awake as in the days of old,
     the generations of ancient times.
 Is it not you who crushed Rahab,
     you who pierced the sea monster?
- <sup>10</sup> Did you not dry up the sea,
     the waters of the great deep,
 and make the depths of the sea into a way for the redeemed to pass through?
- <sup>11</sup> The ransomed of Yahweh will return

and come to Zion with cries of joy and with gladness forever on their heads;
and gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and mourning will flee away.

- <sup>12</sup> "I, I, am he who comforts you.
Why are you afraid of men, who will die,
the sons of mankind, who are made like grass?
- <sup>13</sup> Why have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched out the heavens
and laid the foundations of the earth?
You are in constant dread every day because of the hot fury of the oppressor
when he decides to destroy.
Where is the fury of the oppressor?
- <sup>14</sup> The one who is bent down, Yahweh will hurry to release;
he will not die and go down to the pit, nor will he lack bread.
- <sup>15</sup> For I am Yahweh your God,
who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—
Yahweh of hosts is his name.
- <sup>16</sup> I have placed my words in your mouth,
and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand,
that I may plant the heavens,
lay the foundations of the earth,
and say to Zion, 'You are my people.'"
- <sup>17</sup> Awake, awake,
stand up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk out of the hand of Yahweh
from the bowl of his anger;
you who have drunk out of the bowl,
down to the dregs from the cup of staggering.
- <sup>18</sup> There is no one among all the sons she has born to guide her;
there is no one among all the sons that she has raised
to take her by the hand.
- <sup>19</sup> These two troubles happened to you—who will grieve with you?—
desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword.
Who will comfort you? <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>20</sup> Your sons have fainted;
they lie at every street corner,
like an antelope in a net;
they are filled with the anger of Yahweh,
the rebuke of your God.
- <sup>21</sup> But now hear this, you oppressed one and drunken one, but not drunk with wine:
- <sup>22</sup> Your Lord Yahweh, your God, who pleads the cause of his people, says this,
"See, I have taken the cup of staggering from your hand—
the bowl, which is the cup of my anger—
so that you will not drink it again.
- <sup>23</sup> I will put it into the hand of your tormentors,
those who have said to you,

'Lie down, that we may walk over you';
you made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on."

---

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text and some modern translations have How will I comfort you? , most modern translations correct this passage to Who will comfort you?

---

Chapter 52

- <sup>1</sup> Awake, awake,
     put on your strength, Zion;
     put on your beautiful garments,
     Jerusalem, holy city;
     for never again will the uncircumcised
     or the unclean enter you.
- <sup>2</sup> Shake yourself off from the dust;
     arise and sit, Jerusalem;
     take off the chain from your neck,
     captive, daughter of Zion.
- <sup>3</sup>For this is what Yahweh says,
     "You were sold for nothing,
     and you will be redeemed without money."
- <sup>4</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh says,
     "In the beginning my people went down to live temporarily in Egypt;
     and Assyria has oppressed them for no good reason.
- <sup>5</sup>Now what do I have here—this is Yahweh's declaration—seeing that my people are taken away for nothing?
     Those who rule over them mock—this is Yahweh's declaration—and my name is blasphemed continually all day long. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore my people will know my name;
     they will know in that day that I am the one who says,
     "Yes, it is I!"
- <sup>7</sup> How beautiful on the mountains
     are the feet of the messenger who brings good news,
     who announces peace,
     who bears good tidings,
     who announces salvation,
     who says to Zion,
     "Your God reigns!"
- <sup>8</sup> Listen, your watchmen raise their voices, together they shout for joy,
     for they will see, every eye of theirs,
     Yahweh's return to Zion.
- <sup>9</sup> Break out into joyful singing together,
     you ruins of Jerusalem;
     for Yahweh has comforted his people;
     he has redeemed Jerusalem.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh has bared his holy arm
     in the sight of all the nations;
     all the earth will see
     the salvation of our God.
- <sup>11</sup> Leave, leave, go out from there;
     touch nothing unclean;

leave from her midst; purify yourselves,
you who carry the vessels of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup> For you will not go out in a rush,
nor will you leave in a panic;
for Yahweh will go before you;
and the God of Israel will be your rearguard.

<sup>13</sup> Look, my servant will act wisely;
he will be high and lifted up, and he will be exalted.

<sup>14</sup> As many were horrified at you—
his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and his form no longer looked like anything human.

<sup>15</sup> Even so, my servant will sprinkle many nations and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For that which they had not been told, they will see,
and that which they had not heard, they will understand.

Chapter 53

- <sup>1</sup> Who has believed our message,
and to whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed?
- <sup>2</sup> For he grew up before Yahweh like a sapling,
and like a sprout out of parched earth;
he had no remarkable appearance or splendor;
when we saw him, there was no beauty to attract us.
- <sup>3</sup> He was despised and rejected by people;
a man of sorrows, and one familiar with pain.
Like one from whom men hide their faces,
he was despised; and we considered him insignificant.
- <sup>4</sup> But surely he has borne our sicknesses
and carried our sorrows;
yet we thought he was being punished by God,
struck by God, and afflicted.
- <sup>5</sup> But he was pierced because of our rebellious deeds;
he was crushed because of our iniquities.
The punishment for our peace was on him,
and with his wounds we are healed.
- <sup>6</sup> We all like sheep have gone astray;
we have each turned to his own way,
and Yahweh has placed on him
the iniquity of us all.
- <sup>7</sup> He was oppressed; yet when he humbled himself,
he did not open his mouth;
as a lamb that is led to the slaughter,
and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
- <sup>8</sup> By coercion and judgment he was taken away.
As for his generation, who thought that he was cut off from the land of the living,
or that he was punished
for the transgression of my people?
- <sup>9</sup> They placed his grave with the criminals,
with a rich man in his death,
although he had done no violence,
nor had there been any deceit in his mouth.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet it was Yahweh's will to crush him and make him ill.
When he makes his life an offering for sin,
he will see his offspring, he will prolong his days,
and Yahweh's purpose will be accomplished through him.
- <sup>11</sup> After the suffering of his life,
he will see light and be satisfied by his knowledge. <sup>1</sup>
My righteous servant will justify many;
he will bear their iniquities. <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore will I give him his portion among the multitudes, and he will divide the plunder with the many,
because he exposed himself to death
and was numbered with the transgressors.
He bore the sin of many
and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 53

<sup>1</sup>Instead of After the suffering of his life , some modern translations have From the suffering of his life he will see the result .

<sup>2</sup>Many modern translations supply light . Some modern translations have By his knowledge, my righteous servant will justify many .

- <sup>1</sup> "Sing, you barren woman,
     you who have not given birth;
 break into joyful singing and cry aloud,
     you who have never been in birth labor.
 For the children of the desolate one are more than the children of the married woman,"
 says Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> "Make your tent larger and spread your tent curtains farther out, unsparingly;
 lengthen your ropes
     and strengthen your stakes.
- <sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left,
     and your descendants will conquer nations and resettle desolate cities.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not fear for you will not be ashamed,
     nor be discouraged for you will not be disgraced;
 you will forget the shame of your youth and you will remember no more the disgrace of your widowhood.
- <sup>5</sup> For your Maker is your husband;
     Yahweh of hosts is his name.
 The Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
     he is called the God of the whole earth.
- <sup>6</sup> For Yahweh has called you back
     as a wife abandoned and grieved in spirit, like a woman married young and rejected,"
     says your God.
- <sup>7</sup> "For a short time I abandoned you,
     but with great compassion I will gather you.
- <sup>8</sup> In a flood of anger
     I hid my face from you for a moment;
 but with everlasting covenant faithfulness
     I will have mercy on you—says Yahweh, the one who rescues you.
- <sup>9</sup> For this is like the waters of Noah to me:
     as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again pass over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.
- <sup>10</sup> Though the mountains may fall
     and the hills be shaken,
 yet my steadfast love will not turn away from you,
     nor will my covenant of peace be shaken—
     says Yahweh, who has mercy on you.
- <sup>11</sup> Afflicted one, storm-driven and uncomforted one,
     look, I will set your pavement in turquoise,
     and lay your foundations with sapphires.
- <sup>12</sup> I will make your pinnacles of rubies and your gates of sparkling stones,
     and your outer wall of beautiful stones.

- <sup>13</sup> Then all your children will be taught by Yahweh;
and the peace of your children will be great.
- <sup>14</sup> In righteousness you will be established,
and you will be far from oppression,
for you will not fear;
and you will be far from terror,
for it will not come near to you.
- <sup>15</sup> Look, if anyone stirs up trouble, it will not be from me;
anyone who stirs up trouble with you will fall in defeat.
- <sup>16</sup> See, I have created the craftsman, who blows the burning coals
and forges weapons as his work,
and I have created the destroyer to destroy.
- <sup>17</sup> No weapon that is formed against you will succeed;
and you will condemn everyone who accuses you.
This is the heritage of the servants of Yahweh,
and their vindication from me—
this is Yahweh's declaration."
-

Chapter 55

- <sup>1</sup> "Hey! Everyone who is thirsty, come to the water,
 and you who have no money,
       come, buy and eat!
 Come, buy wine and milk
       without money and without cost.
- <sup>2</sup> Why do you weigh out silver for what is not bread,
       and why do you labor for what does not satisfy?
 Listen carefully to me and eat what is good,
       and delight yourselves in fatness.
- <sup>3</sup> Turn your ears and come to me!
       Listen, that you may live!
 I will make an everlasting covenant with you—my reliable, faithful love that I promised to David.
- <sup>4</sup> Look, I have placed him as a witness to the nations,
       as a leader and commander to the peoples.
- <sup>5</sup> Look, you will call to a nation that you did not know;
       and a nation that did not know you will run to you because of Yahweh your God,
       the Holy One of Israel,
       who has glorified you."
- <sup>6</sup> Seek Yahweh while he may be found;
       call on him while he is nearby.
- <sup>7</sup> Let the wicked leave his path,
       and the man of sin his thoughts.
 Let him return to Yahweh, and he will pity him,
       and to our God, who will abundantly forgive him.
- <sup>8</sup> "For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
       nor are your ways my ways—
       this is Yahweh's declaration—
- <sup>9</sup> for as the heavens are higher than the earth,
       so are my ways higher than your ways,
       and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- <sup>10</sup> For as the rain and snow come down from heaven and do not return there unless they saturate the earth and make it produce and sprout and give seed to the farmer who sows and bread to the eater,
- <sup>11</sup> so also my word will be that goes from my mouth—
       it will not return to me empty, but it will achieve the purpose
       for which I sent it.
- <sup>12</sup> For you will go out in joy
       and be led along peacefully;
 the mountains and the hills
       will break out in joyful shouts before you,
 and all the trees of the fields
       will clap their hands.
- <sup>13</sup> Instead of the thornbushes, the cypress will grow;

and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree will grow,
and it will be for Yahweh, for his name,
as an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

---

Chapter 56

- <sup>1</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
 "Observe what is right, do what is just;
 for my salvation is near,
 and my righteousness is about to be revealed.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man that does this,
 and who holds it tightly.
 He observes the Sabbath, not defiling it,
 and keeps his hand from doing any evil."
- <sup>3</sup> Let no foreigner who has become a follower of Yahweh say,
 "Yahweh will certainly exclude me from his people."
 The eunuch should not say,
 "See, I am a dry tree."
- <sup>4</sup>For this is what Yahweh says,
 "To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me,
 and hold fast my covenant, <sup>5</sup> to them I will set up in my house and within my walls a monument
 that is better than having sons and of daughters.
 I will give them an everlasting monument that will never be cut off.
- <sup>6</sup> Also foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh—
 to serve him,
 and who love the name of Yahweh,
 to be his servants,
 every one who observes the Sabbath and who keeps from defiling it,
 and who holds fast my covenant—
- <sup>7</sup> I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer;
 their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar.
 For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,
- <sup>8</sup> this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel—
 I will still gather others
 in addition to them."
- <sup>9</sup> All you wild beasts of the field,
 come and devour, all you beasts in the forest!
- <sup>10</sup> All their watchmen are blind,
 they do not understand.
 They are all silent dogs
 who cannot bark.
 They dream,
 and lying down they love to sleep.
- <sup>11</sup> The dogs have big appetites;
 they can never get enough;

they are shepherds without discernment;
they have all turned to their own way,
each one covetous for unjust gain.

<sup>12</sup> "Come," they say, "let us get wine and drink much strong drink.
Tomorrow will be like today,
a day great beyond measure."

---

Chapter 57

- <sup>1</sup> The righteous perish,
     but no one considers it,
 and the people of covenant faithfulness are gathered away, but no one understands that the righteous is gathered away from the evil.
- <sup>2</sup> He enters into peace;
     they rest in their beds,
     those who walk in their uprightness.
- <sup>3</sup> But come here, you sons of the sorceress, children of the adulterer and the woman who has prostituted herself.
- <sup>4</sup> Whom are you merrily mocking?
     Against whom are you opening the mouth
     and sticking out the tongue?
 Are you not children of rebellion,
     children of deceit?
- <sup>5</sup> You heat yourselves up sleeping together under the oaks,
     under every green tree,
 you who kill your children in the dry riverbeds,
     under the rocky overhangs.
- <sup>6</sup> Among the smooth things of the river valley are the things that have been assigned to you.
     They are the object of your devotion.
 You pour out your drink offering to them
     and raise up a grain offering.
     Concerning these things should I repent?
- <sup>7</sup> You prepared your bed on a high mountain;
     you also went up there to offer sacrifices.
- <sup>8</sup> Behind the door and the doorposts
     you set up your symbols;
 you deserted me, made yourselves naked, and went up;
     you made your bed wide.
 You made a covenant with them; you loved their beds;
     you saw their private parts.
- <sup>9</sup> You went to Molech with oil and increased your perfumes. <sup>1</sup>
 You send your ambassadors far away;
     you went down to Sheol.
- <sup>10</sup> You were tired from your long journey, but you never said, "It is hopeless."
 You found life in your hand;
     therefore you did not weaken.
- <sup>11</sup> "Whom are you worried about? Whom do you fear?
     Is that the reason that you have acted deceitfully,
 so that you do not remember me
     or think about me?
 Is it because I was silent for so long that you are no longer afraid of me?"
- <sup>12</sup> I will proclaim all your righteous acts and tell all that you have done, but they will not help you.
- <sup>13</sup> When you cry out, let your collection of idols rescue you.

 The wind will carry them all away,
 a breath will carry them all away.
 But he who takes refuge in me will inherit the land
 and will possess my holy mountain.

P

<sup>14</sup>He will say,

'Build, build! Clear a way!
 Remove all the stumbling blocks from the path of my people!'"

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the high and elevated One says, who lives eternally, whose name is holy,

"I live in the exalted and holy place,
 with him also that is of a crushed and humble spirit,
 to revive the spirit of the humble ones,
 and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

<sup>16</sup>For I will not accuse forever,
 nor will I be angry forever,
 for then man's spirit would faint before me,
 the lives that I have made.

<sup>17</sup>Because of the sin of his violent gain,
 I was angry, and I punished him; I hid my face and was angry,
 but he went backward in the way of his heart.

<sup>18</sup>I have seen his ways, but I will heal him.
 I will lead him and comfort and console those who mourn for him, <sup>19</sup>and I create the fruit of the lips.

Peace, peace, to those who are far off and to those who are near—says Yahweh—I will heal them.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked are like the tossing sea,
 which cannot rest,
 and its waters churn up mire and mud.

<sup>21</sup>There is no peace for the wicked one—says God."

<sup>1</sup>Instead of to Molech, some scholars emend the Hebrew to read to the king.

Chapter 58

- <sup>1</sup> "Cry loudly; do not hold back.
 Lift up your voice like a ram's horn.
 Confront my people with their rebellion,
 and the house of Jacob with their sins.
- <sup>2</sup> Yet they seek me daily and delight in the knowledge of my ways, like a nation that practiced righteousness and did not abandon the law of their God.
 They ask me for righteous judgments;
 they take pleasure in the thought of God coming near.
- <sup>3</sup> 'Why have we fasted,' they say,
 'but you do not see it?'
 Why have we humbled ourselves,
 but you do not notice?
- Look, on the day of your fast you find your own pleasure and oppress all your laborers.
- <sup>4</sup> Look, you fast in quarreling and strife,
 and to hit with your fist of wickedness;
 you do not fast today
 to make your voice heard above.
- <sup>5</sup> Is this really the kind of fast that I would want:
 A day for anybody to humble himself,
 for him to bow down his head like a reed,
 and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?
 Do you really call this a fast,
 a day that pleases Yahweh?
- <sup>6</sup> Is not this the fast that I choose:
 To release wicked bonds,
 to undo the ropes of the yoke,
 to set the crushed ones free,
 and to break every yoke?
- <sup>7</sup> Is it not to break your bread with the hungry,
 to bring the poor and homeless into your house,
 to cloth the naked when you see them,
 and not to hide yourself from your own relatives?
- <sup>8</sup> Then your light would be broken open like the sunrise,
 and your healing would quickly sprout up;
 your righteousness would go before you,
 and the glory of Yahweh would be your rearguard.
- <sup>9</sup> Then you would call, and Yahweh would answer;
 you would cry out for help, and he would say, 'Here I am.'
- If you take away from among yourselves the yoke,
 the accusing finger, and the speech of wickedness,
- <sup>10</sup> if you yourselves provide for the hungry and satisfy the need of the distressed;
 then your light will rise in the darkness,
 and your darkness will be like the noonday.
- <sup>11</sup> Then Yahweh will lead you continually and satisfy you in regions where there is no water, and he will strengthen your bones.

You will be like a watered garden,

and like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

<sup>12</sup> Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins;

you will raise up the ruins of many generations;

you will be called 'The repairer of the wall,'

'The restorer of streets to live on.'

<sup>13</sup> Suppose that you turn back your feet from traveling on the Sabbath day,
and from doing your own pleasure on my holy day.

Suppose that you call the Sabbath a delight, and that you call the matters of Yahweh holy and honored.

Suppose that you honor the Sabbath by leaving your own business, and by not finding your own pleasure and by not speaking your own words.

<sup>14</sup> Then you will find delight in Yahweh;

and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth;

I will feed you from the inheritance of Jacob your father—for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken."

---

Chapter 59

- <sup>1</sup> Look, Yahweh's hand is not so short that it cannot save;
nor his ear so dull, that it cannot hear.
- <sup>2</sup> Your iniquities, however,
have separated you from your God,
and your sins have made him hide his face from you
and from hearing you.
- <sup>3</sup> For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with iniquity.
Your lips speak lies
and your tongue speaks maliciously.
- <sup>4</sup> No one calls in righteousness,
and none pleads his case in truth.
They trust in empty words, and tell lies;
they conceive trouble and give birth to iniquity.
- <sup>5</sup> They hatch eggs of an adder
and weave a spider's web.
Whoever eats of their eggs dies,
and if an egg is crushed, it hatches into a viper.
- <sup>6</sup> Their webs cannot be used for garments,
nor can they cover themselves with their works.
Their works are works of sin,
and deeds of violence are in their hands.
- <sup>7</sup> Their feet run to evil,
and they run to pour out innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of sin;
violence and destruction are their roads.
- <sup>8</sup> The way of peace they do not know,
and there is no justice in their paths.
They have made crooked paths;
whoever travels these paths does not know peace.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore justice is far from us,
nor does righteousness reach us.
We wait for light, but see darkness;
we look for brightness, but we walk in darkness.
- <sup>10</sup> We grope for the wall like the blind,
like those who cannot see.
We stumble at noonday as in the twilight;
among the strong we are like dead men.
- <sup>11</sup> We growl like bears
and moan like doves;
we wait for justice, but there is none;
for rescue, but it is far from us.
- <sup>12</sup> For our many transgressions are before you,
and our sins testify against us;
for our transgressions are with us,
and we know our iniquities.
- <sup>13</sup> We have rebelled, denying Yahweh and turning away from following our God.
We have spoken extortion and turning aside, conceived complaining from the heart and words of lying.

- <sup>14</sup> Justice is driven back,
and righteousness stands far off;
for truth stumbles in the public square,
and uprightness cannot come near.
<sup>15</sup> Trustworthiness has gone away,
and he who turns away from evil makes himself prey.

- Yahweh saw it and was displeased that there was no justice.
<sup>16</sup> He saw that there was no man,
and was appalled that there was no one to intervene.
Therefore his own arm brought salvation for him,
and his righteousness sustained him.
<sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon his head.
He clothed himself with garments of vengeance
and wore zeal as a mantle.
<sup>18</sup> He repaid them for their deeds, wrath on his adversaries,
recompense to his enemies;
he repaid recompense to the islands.
<sup>19</sup> So they will fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and his glory from the sun's rising;
for he will come as a rushing stream,
driven by the breath of Yahweh.

<sup>20</sup> "A redeemer will come to Zion and to those who turn from their rebellious deeds in Jacob—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>21</sup> As for me, this is my covenant with them—says Yahweh—my spirit who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or go out of the mouth of your children, or go out of the mouths of your descendants—says Yahweh—from this time and forever."

Chapter 60

- <sup>1</sup> Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you.
- <sup>2</sup> Though darkness will cover the earth,
and thick darkness the nations;
yet Yahweh will arise upon you,
and his glory will be seen on you.
- <sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light,
and kings to your bright light that is rising.
- <sup>4</sup> Look all around and see.
They all gather themselves together and come to you.
Your sons will come from far,
and your daughters will be carried in their arms.
- <sup>5</sup> Then you will look and be radiant,
and your heart will rejoice and overflow,
because the abundance of the sea will be poured out to you,
the wealth of the nations will come to you.
- <sup>6</sup> Camel caravans will cover you,
the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
all of them will come from Sheba;
they will bring gold and frankincense,
and will bring the good news of the praises of Yahweh.
- <sup>7</sup> All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you,
the rams of Nebaioth will serve your needs;
they will be acceptable offerings on my altar;
and I will glorify my glorious house.
- <sup>8</sup> Who are these who fly along like a cloud,
and like the doves to their shelters?
- <sup>9</sup> The coastlands look for me,
and the ships of Tarshish lead,
to bring your sons from far,
their silver and their gold with them,
for the name of Yahweh your God,
and for the Holy One of Israel,
because he has honored you.
- <sup>10</sup> Sons of foreigners will rebuild your walls,
and their kings will serve you;
though in my wrath I punished you,
yet in my favor I will have compassion on you.
- <sup>11</sup> Your gates also will remain open continually;
they will not be shut day or night,
so that the wealth of the nations may be brought,
with their kings being led.
- <sup>12</sup> Indeed, nations and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish;
those nations will be completely ruined.
- <sup>13</sup> The glory of Lebanon will come to you,
the cypress tree, the fir, and the cypress box tree together,
to beautify my sanctuary;
and I will glorify the place of my feet.

- <sup>14</sup> They will come to you to bow down, the sons of those who humbled you;
those who showed contempt for you will bow at the soles of your feet;
they will call you The City of Yahweh, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup> Instead of you remaining abandoned and hated,
with no one passing through you,
I will make you a thing of pride forever,
a joy from generation to generation.
- <sup>16</sup> You will also drink the milk of the nations,
and will nurse at the breast of kings;
you will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior and your Redeemer,
the Mighty One of Jacob.
- <sup>17</sup> Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
instead of iron I will bring silver;
instead of wood,
bronze, and instead of stones, iron.
I will appoint peace as your governors,
and justice your rulers.
- <sup>18</sup> Violence will no longer be heard in your land,
neither devastation nor crushing within your borders;
but you will call your walls Salvation,
and your gates Praise.
- <sup>19</sup> The sun will no longer be your light by day,
nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you;
but Yahweh will be your everlasting light,
and your God your glory.
- <sup>20</sup> Your sun will no longer set,
nor will your moon withdraw and disappear;
for Yahweh will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your mourning will be ended.
- <sup>21</sup> All your people will be righteous;
they will take possession of the land for all time,
the branch of my planting,
the work of my hands,
that I may be glorified.
- <sup>22</sup> The least of you will become a thousand,
and the smallest one a mighty nation;
I, Yahweh, will swiftly accomplish these things
when the time comes.

Chapter 61

- <sup>1</sup> The Spirit of the Lord Yahweh is on me, because Yahweh has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the afflicted.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and the opening of the prison for those who are bound.
- <sup>2</sup> He has sent me to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor,
the day of vengeance of our God,
and to comfort all who mourn.
- <sup>3</sup> He has sent me—to give to those who mourn in Zion—
to give them a turban instead of ashes, oil of joy
instead of mourning,
a mantle of praise
in place of a spirit of dullness,
to call them oaks of righteousness,
the planting of Yahweh,
that he may be glorified.
- <sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore the former desolations.
They will restore the ruined cities,
the desolations from many former generations.
- <sup>5</sup> Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and sons of foreigners will be your farmers and vineyard workers.
- <sup>6</sup> You will be called the priests of Yahweh;
they will call you servants of our God.
You will eat the wealth of the nations,
and you will boast in their riches.
- <sup>7</sup> Instead of your shame
you will have double;
and instead of dishonor
they will rejoice over their share.
So they will have a double share of their land;
everlasting joy will be theirs.
- <sup>8</sup> For I, Yahweh, love justice,
and I hate robbery and violent injustice.
I will faithfully repay them,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
- <sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations,
and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge them,
that they are the people whom Yahweh has blessed.
- <sup>10</sup> I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh;
in my God I will be very glad.
For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation;
he has clothed me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom adorns himself with a turban,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

- <sup>11</sup> For as the earth produces its sprouting plants,
and as the garden makes its planting grow,
so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up in front of all the nations.

Chapter 62

- <sup>1</sup> For Zion's sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet,
until her righteousness proceeds brightly,
and her salvation as a burning torch.
- <sup>2</sup> The nations will see your righteousness,
and all kings your glory.
You will be called by a new name
that Yahweh will choose.
- <sup>3</sup> You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a turban of kingship in the hand of your God.
- <sup>4</sup> It will no more be said of you, "Abandoned";
nor of your land any longer will it be said, "Desolate."
Indeed, you will be called "My delight is in her,"
and your land "Married,"
for Yahweh delights in you,
and your land will be married.
- <sup>5</sup> Truly, as a young man marries a young woman,
so your sons will marry you,
and as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
your God will rejoice over you.
- <sup>6</sup> I have put watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem;
they are not silent day or night.
You who keep reminding Yahweh,
do not pause.
- <sup>7</sup> Do not allow him to rest until he reestablishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise on earth.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh has sworn by his right hand and by the arm of his strength,
"Surely I will no longer give your grain
as food for your enemies.
Foreigners will not drink your new wine,
for which you have worked.
- <sup>9</sup> For those who harvest the grain will eat it and praise Yahweh,
and those who gather the grapes will drink the wine
in the courts of my holy sanctuary."
- <sup>10</sup> Come through, come through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people!
Build it, build the highway!
Gather out the stones!
Raise up a signal flag for the nations!
- <sup>11</sup> Look, Yahweh announces to the ends of the earth,
"Say to the daughter of Zion:
Look, your salvation is coming!
See, his reward is with him,
and his recompense is going before him."
- <sup>12</sup> They will call you, "The holy people;

the redeemed of Yahweh," and you will be called "Sought after;
a city not abandoned."

---

Chapter 63

- <sup>1</sup> Who is this who comes from Edom, wearing red garments, from Bozrah?
Who is this, splendid in his clothing,
marching in the greatness of his strength?
"It is I, speaking in righteousness, and mighty to save."
- <sup>2</sup> Why are your clothes red,
and why do your garments look like you have been treading grapes in a winepress?
- <sup>3</sup> "I have trodden grapes in the winepress alone,
and no one from the nations joined me.
I trod them in my anger
and trampled them in my fury.
Their blood is spattered on my clothes and stained all my clothes.
- <sup>4</sup> For I looked forward to the day of vengeance,
and the year for my redemption had arrived.
- <sup>5</sup> I looked, and there was no one to help.
I was appalled that there was none to help,
but my own arm brought victory for me,
and my strong anger drove me on.
- <sup>6</sup> I trampled down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath,
and I poured out their blood on the earth."
- <sup>7</sup> I will tell of the acts of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness, the praises of Yahweh.
I will tell of all that Yahweh has done for us,
and of his great goodness to the house of Israel.
This compassion he has shown us because of his mercy,
and with many deeds of covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>8</sup> For he said, "For certain they are my people, children who are not disloyal."
He became their Savior.
- <sup>9</sup> Through all their suffering, he suffered too,
and the angel from his presence saved them.
In his love and mercy he saved them,
and he lifted them up and carried them through all the ancient times.
- <sup>10</sup> But they rebelled and grieved his holy Spirit.
So he became their enemy
and fought against them.
- <sup>11</sup> His people thought about the ancient times of Moses.
They said, "Where is God, who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is God,
who put his holy Spirit among them?
- <sup>12</sup> Where is God, who made his glorious power go with the right hand of Moses,

- and divided the water before them,
to make an everlasting name for himself?
- <sup>13</sup> Where is God, who led them through the deep water?
Like a horse running in the wilderness,
they did not stumble.
- <sup>14</sup> As the cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of Yahweh gave them rest.
So you led your people,
to make yourself a glorious name.
- <sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven and take notice
from your holy and glorious habitation.
Where are your zeal and your mighty acts?
Your pity and your compassionate actions are kept from us.
- <sup>16</sup> For you are our Father,
though Abraham does not know us,
and Israel does not recognize us,
you, Yahweh, are our Father.
'Our Redeemer' has been your name from ancient times.
- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways and harden our hearts so we do not fear you?
Return for your servants' sake,
the tribes of your inheritance.
- <sup>18</sup> Your holy people possessed your sanctuary for a short time, but then our enemies trampled it.
- <sup>19</sup> We have become like those over whom you never ruled, like those who were never called by your name."

Chapter 64

- <sup>1</sup> "Oh, if you had split open the heavens and come down!
The mountains would have shaken at your presence, <sup>2</sup> as when fire kindles the brushwood,
or the fire makes water boil.
Oh, that your name would be known by your adversaries,
that the nations would tremble at your presence!
<sup>3</sup> Previously, when you did awesome things that we had not expected, you came down, and the mountains trembled at your presence.
<sup>4</sup> Since ancient times no one has heard or listened,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who takes action for the one who waits for him.
<sup>5</sup> You come to help those who rejoice in doing what is right,
those who remember you in your ways.
You became angry with us because we sinned for a long time.
How will we be saved?
<sup>6</sup> For we have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a menstrual rag.
We have all withered like leaves;
our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.
<sup>7</sup> There are none who calls on your name,
who makes an effort to take hold of you.
For you have hidden your face from us
and made us waste away in the hand of our iniquities.
- <sup>8</sup> Yet, Yahweh, you are our Father;
we are the clay. You are our potter;
and we all are the work of your hand.
<sup>9</sup> Be not too angry, Yahweh,
nor remember our iniquity against us forever.
Please look at us all,
your people.
<sup>10</sup> Your holy cities have become a wilderness;
Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.
<sup>11</sup> Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you, has been destroyed by fire, and all that was so dear is in ruins.
How can you remain silent and continue to humiliate us?"

Chapter 65

- <sup>1</sup> "I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask;
 I was ready to be found by those who did not seek.
 I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!'
 to a nation that did not call on my name.
- <sup>2</sup> I have spread out my hands all day
 to a stubborn people,
 who walk in a way that is not good,
 who have walked after their own thoughts and plans!
- <sup>3</sup> They are a people who continually provoke me, offering sacrifices in gardens,
 and burning incense on brick tiles.
- <sup>4</sup> They sit among the graves
 and keep watch all night,
 and eat pork with the broth of foul meat in their dishes.
- <sup>5</sup> They say, 'Stand away, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you.'
 These things are smoke in my nose,
 a fire that burns all day long.
- <sup>6</sup> Look, it is written before me:
 I will not keep quiet, for I will pay them back;
 I will repay them into their laps,
- <sup>7</sup> for their iniquities and the iniquities of their fathers together,"
 says Yahweh.
 "I will repay them for burning incense on the mountains and for mocking me on the hills.
 I will therefore measure out their past deeds into their laps."
- <sup>8</sup> This is what Yahweh says,
 "As when new wine is found in a cluster of grapes,
 when one says, 'Do not ruin it,
 for there is good in it,'
 this is what I will do for my servants' sake:
 I will not ruin them all.
- <sup>9</sup> I will bring descendants from Jacob,
 and from Judah ones who will possess my mountains.
 My chosen ones will possess the land,
 and my servants will live there.
- <sup>10</sup> Sharon will become a pasture for the flocks,
 and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds,
 for my people who seek me.
- <sup>11</sup> But you who abandon Yahweh,
 who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,
 and fill wine glasses of mixed wine for Destiny.
- <sup>12</sup> I will appoint you for the sword,
 and you will all bow down to the slaughter,
 because when I called, you did not answer;
 when I spoke, you did not listen.
 But you did what was evil in my sight

and chose to do what displeases me."

"Look, my servants will eat,
but you will be hungry;
look, my servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty;
look, my servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.

<sup>14</sup> Look, my servants will shout with joy
because of gladness of heart, but you will cry because of the pain of the heart,
and will wail because of the crushing of the spirit.

<sup>15</sup> You will leave behind your name
as a curse for my chosen ones to speak;
I, the Lord Yahweh, will kill you;
I will call my servants by another name.

<sup>16</sup> Whoever pronounces a blessing on the earth will be blessed by me, the God of truth.
Whoever takes an oath on the earth will swear by me, the God of truth, because the former troubles will be forgotten,
for they will be hidden from my eyes.

<sup>17</sup> For see, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth;
and the former things will not be remembered
or be brought to mind.

<sup>18</sup> But you will be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create.
See, I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy,
and her people as a source of gladness.

<sup>19</sup> I will rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad over my people;
the sounds of weeping and cries of distress will no longer be heard in her.

<sup>20</sup> Never again will an infant live there only a few days;
nor will an old man die before his time.
One who dies at one hundred years old
will be considered a young person.
Anyone who fails to reach the age of one hundred years old will be considered cursed.

<sup>21</sup> They will build houses and inhabit them,
and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup> No longer will they build a house and another live in it;
they will not plant, and another eat;
for as the days of trees
will be the days of my people.
My chosen will fully outlive
the work of their hands.

<sup>23</sup> They will not labor in vain,

nor give birth to dismay.

For they are the children of those blessed by Yahweh,
and their descendants with them.

<sup>24</sup> Before they call, I will answer;
and while they are still speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will graze together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox;
but dust will be the serpent's food.

They will no longer do evil or harm
on all my holy mountain,"

says Yahweh.

---

Chapter 66

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

"Heaven is my throne,
 and the earth is my footstool.
 Where then is the house you will build for me?
 Where is the place where I may rest?
<sup>2</sup> My hand has made all these things;
 that is how these things came to be—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.

This is the man of whom I approve,
 the broken and contrite in spirit,
 and who trembles at my word.
<sup>3</sup> He who slaughters an ox
 also murders a man;
 he who sacrifices a lamb
 also breaks a dog's neck;
 he who offers a grain offering offers swine's blood;
 he who offers a memorial of incense
 also blesses wickedness.
 They have chosen their own ways,
 and they take pleasure in their abominations.
<sup>4</sup> In the same way I will choose their own punishment;
 I will bring on them what they fear,
 because when I called, no one answered;
 when I spoke, no one listened.
 They did what was evil in my sight,
 and chose to do what displeases me."

 you who tremble at his word,
 "Your brothers who hate
 and exclude you for my name's sake have said,
 'May Yahweh be glorified,
 then we will see your joy,'
 but they will be put to shame.

<sup>6</sup> A sound of battle tumult comes from the city,
 a sound from the temple,
 the sound of Yahweh
 giving recompense to his enemies.

<sup>7</sup> Before she goes into labor,
 she gives birth;
 before pain is upon her,
 she gave birth to a son.

<sup>8</sup> Who has heard of such a thing?
 Who has seen such things?
 Will a land be born in one day?
 Can a nation be established in one moment?
 Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor,

she gives birth to her children.
<sup>9</sup> Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and not permit the child to be born?—asks Yahweh.
 Or do I bring a child to moment of delivery and then hold it back?—asks your God." <sup>10</sup> Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
 all you who love her;
 rejoice with her,
 all you who mourned over her!
<sup>11</sup> For you will nurse and be satisfied;
 with her breasts you will be comforted;
 for you will drink them to the full and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

<sup>12</sup> This is what Yahweh says,

"I am about to spread prosperity over her like a river,
 and the riches of the nations like an overflowing stream.
 You will nurse at her side, be carried in her arms,
 and be dandled on her knees.
<sup>13</sup> As a mother comforts her child,
 so I will comfort you,
 and you will be comforted in Jerusalem."
<sup>14</sup> You will see this, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will sprout like the tender grass.
 The hand of Yahweh will be made known to his servants,
 but he will show his anger against his enemies.
<sup>15</sup> For look, Yahweh is coming with fire,
 and his chariots are coming like the windstorm
 to bring the heat of his anger and his rebuke with flames of fire.
<sup>16</sup> For Yahweh executes judgment on mankind
 by fire and with his sword.
 Those killed by Yahweh will be many.

<sup>17</sup> They consecrate themselves and make themselves pure, so they may enter the gardens, following the one in the middle of those who eat the flesh of pig and abominable things like mice. <sup>1</sup> "They will come to an end—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>18</sup> For I know their deeds and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all nations and languages. They will come and will see my glory. <sup>2</sup> <sup>19</sup> I will set a sign among them. Then I will send survivors from them to the nations: To Tarshish, the Libyans and Lydians, <sup>3</sup> who draw the bow, to Tubal, Greece, <sup>4</sup> and to the distant coastlands that have not heard reports about me nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> They will bring back all your brothers out of all the nations, as an offering to Yahweh. They will come on horses, and in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem—says Yahweh. For the people of Israel will bring a grain offering in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Some of these I will even choose as priests and Levites—says Yahweh.

<sup>22</sup> For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I will make will remain before me—this is Yahweh's declaration—so your descendants will remain, and your name will remain. <sup>23</sup> From one month to the next, and from one Sabbath to the next, all people will come to bow down to me—says Yahweh.

<sup>24</sup> They will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me, for the worms that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not be quenched; and it will be an abhorrence to all flesh."

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

<sup>4</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup> "Before I formed you in the womb, I chose you;
before you came out from the womb I set you apart;
I made you a prophet to the nations."

<sup>6</sup>"Ah, Lord Yahweh!" I said, "I do not know how to speak, for I am too young."

<sup>7</sup>But Yahweh said to me, "Do not say, 'I am too young.' You must go everywhere I send you, and you must say whatever I command you!"<sup>8</sup>Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh reached out with his hand, touched my mouth, and said to me, "Now, I have placed my word in your mouth."<sup>10</sup>I am appointing you today over nations and over kingdoms, to uproot and break down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and plant."

I said, "I see an almond branch."

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to carry it out."

<sup>13</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a heated pot, whose surface is churning, tipping away from the north."

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Disaster will be opened up out of the north on all who live in this land.

<sup>15</sup>For I am calling all the tribes of the northern kingdoms—this is Yahweh's declaration.

They will come, and everyone will set his throne
at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all the walls that surround it,
and against all the cities of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> I will pronounce sentence against them
for all their evil in abandoning me,
in burning incense to other gods,
and in worshiping the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup>Gird up your loins! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be shattered before them, or I will shatter you before them!<sup>18</sup>Behold! Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.<sup>19</sup>They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you, for I will be with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>2</sup>"Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem. Say, 'Yahweh says this:

I have called to mind on your behalf
the covenant faithfulness of your youth,
your love at the time when we were engaged,
when you went after me in the wilderness,
the land that was not sown.

<sup>3</sup> Israel was set apart to Yahweh,
the firstfruits of his harvest!
All who ate from the firstfruits were held guilty;
disaster came upon them—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>4</sup> Hear the word of Yahweh, house of Jacob, all you clans of the house of Israel.

"What did your fathers find wrong with me,
that they went far from following me?
That they went after useless idols
and became useless themselves?

<sup>6</sup> They did not say,
'Where is Yahweh,
who brought us up from the land of Egypt?
Where is Yahweh,
who led us to the wilderness,
into the land of the Arabah and pits,
in a land of drought and utter darkness,
a land through which no one passes and where no one lives?'

<sup>7</sup> But I brought you to the land of Carmel, to eat its fruit and other good things!
Yet when you came,
you defiled my land,
you made my inheritance an abomination!

<sup>8</sup> The priest did not say
'Where is Yahweh?'
and the experts in the law did not care about me!
The shepherds transgressed against me.
The prophets prophesied for Baal
and walked after unprofitable things.

<sup>9</sup> So I will still accuse you—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
and I will accuse your sons' sons.

<sup>10</sup> For cross over to the coasts of Cyprus <sup>1</sup> and look.
Send messengers out to Kedar and find out and see if there has ever before been anything like this.

<sup>11</sup> Has a nation exchanged gods,
even though they were not gods?
But my people have exchanged their glory for what cannot help them. <sup>2</sup>

- <sup>12</sup> Shudder, heavens, because of this
Be shocked and very desolate—
this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>13</sup> For my people have committed two evils against me:
They have abandoned the springs of living waters,
and they have dug out cisterns for themselves,
broken cisterns that cannot hold water.
- <sup>14</sup> Is Israel a slave?
Was he born in his master's home?
So why has he become plunder?
- <sup>15</sup> Young lions roared against him.
They made a lot of noise
and made his land a horror.
His cities are destroyed
without any inhabitants.
- <sup>16</sup> Also, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes will shave your skull.
- <sup>17</sup> Did you not do this to yourselves
when you abandoned Yahweh your God,
while he was leading you along the way?
- <sup>18</sup> So now, why take the road to Egypt and drink the waters of Shihor?
Why take the road to Assyria and drink the waters of the Euphrates River?
- <sup>19</sup> Your wickedness rebukes you,
and your acts of apostasy punish you.
So think about it and understand that it is wicked and bitter when you abandon Yahweh your God,
and have no fear of me—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.
- <sup>20</sup> For in ancient days I broke your yoke;
I tore your fetters off you.
Still you said,
'I will not serve!'
On every high hill and beneath every leafy tree
you lay down as a prostitute.
- <sup>21</sup> I planted you as a choice vine,
completely from pure seed.
How then have you have changed yourself into a corrupt, worthless vine?
- <sup>22</sup> For even if you clean yourself in the river or wash with strong soap,
your iniquity is a stain before me—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.
- <sup>23</sup> How can you say,
'I am not defiled!'
I have not walked after the Baals'?
Look at what you did in the valleys!
Consider what you have done—
you are a swift female camel running here and there,
- <sup>24</sup> a wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness,
in her heat sniffing the wind!

Who can restrain her lust?
 None of the males need wear themselves out pursuing her;
 in her month they will find her.

<sup>25</sup> You must restrain your feet from becoming bare and your throat from being thirsty!
 But you have said, 'It is hopeless!
 No, I love strangers and go after them!'

<sup>26</sup> Like the shame of a thief when he is found, so the house of Israel will be ashamed—
 they, their kings, their princes, and their priests and prophets!

<sup>27</sup> These are the ones who say to the tree,
 'You are my father,'
 and to the stone, 'You gave birth to me.'
 For their back faces me and not their faces.
 Nevertheless, they say in the time of troubles,
 'Arise and save us!'

<sup>28</sup> Yet where are the gods that you made for yourselves?
 Let them arise if they wish to save you in your time of troubles, for your idols equal your cities in number, Judah!

<sup>29</sup> So why do you accuse me of doing wrong?
 All of you have sinned against me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>30</sup> I have punished your people in vain.
 They would not accept discipline.
 Your sword has devoured your prophets like a destructive lion!

<sup>31</sup> You who belong to this generation! Pay attention to my word, the word of Yahweh!
 Have I been a wilderness to Israel?
 Or a land of deep darkness?
 Why would my people say,
 'Let us wander around, we will not go to you anymore'?

<sup>32</sup> Will a virgin forget her jewelry,
 a bride her sash?
 Yet my people have forgotten me
 for days without number!

<sup>33</sup> How well you make your way to look for love.
 You have even taught your ways to wicked women.

<sup>34</sup> The blood that was the life of innocent, poor people has been found on your clothes.
 These people were not discovered in acts of burglary.

<sup>35</sup> Yet you say,
 'I am innocent;
 surely his anger has turned away from me.'
 But look! I will bring down judgment on you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

<sup>36</sup> Why do you treat so very lightly
 this change in your ways?
 You will also be disappointed by Egypt,
 just as you were by Assyria.

<sup>37</sup> You will also go out from there dejected, with your hands on your head,
 for Yahweh has rejected the ones whom you trusted,

so you will not be helped by them."

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> "If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife,
will he return to her again?
Would that land not be greatly polluted?
You have lived as a prostitute who has many lovers;
and would you return to me?—
this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>2</sup> Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and look!
Is there any place where you have not had illicit sex?
By the roadsides you sat waiting for your lovers,
as an Arab in the wilderness.
You have polluted the land
with your prostitution and wickedness.
- <sup>3</sup> So the showers have been withheld and the spring rains have not come;
yet you have the forehead of a prostitute;
you refuse to be ashamed.
- <sup>4</sup> Have you not just now called to me: 'My Father!
My closest friend even from my youth!
- <sup>5</sup> Will he always be angry?
Will he always keep his wrath to the end?'
Look! This is what you have said, but you do all the evil you can!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Do you see what apostate Israel has done? She has gone up every high hill and under every leafy tree, and there she has acted like a prostitute.<sup>7</sup>I said, 'After she does all these things, she will return to me,' but she did not return. Then her faithless sister Judah saw these things.

<sup>8</sup>So I saw that, in the same way that apostate Israel had committed adultery and I had sent her away and had given a certificate of divorce against her, her faithless sister Judah did not fear; she also went out and acted like a prostitute.<sup>9</sup>Her prostitution was nothing to her; she defiled the land, and she committed adultery with stones and trees.<sup>10</sup>Then after all of this, her faithless sister Judah returned to me, not with all her heart, but with a lie—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Apostate Israel has been more righteous than faithless Judah!<sup>12</sup>Go and proclaim these words to the north. Say,

'Return, apostate Israel!—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
I will not always be angry with you.
Since I am faithful—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
I will not stay angry forever.

- <sup>13</sup> Acknowledge your iniquity,
for you have transgressed against Yahweh your God;
you have shared your ways with strangers
under every leafy tree!
For you have not listened to my voice!—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>14</sup>Return, faithless people!—this is Yahweh's declaration—I am your husband! I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion! <sup>15</sup>I will give you shepherds after my heart, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and insight.

<sup>16</sup>Then it will happen that you will increase and bear fruit in the land in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will no longer say, "The ark of the covenant of Yahweh!" This matter will no longer come up in their hearts or be remembered; it will not be missed, and another one will not be made.'

<sup>17</sup>In that time they will proclaim about Jerusalem, 'This is Yahweh's throne,' and all the other nations will gather at Jerusalem in Yahweh's name. They will no longer walk in the stubbornness of their wicked hearts.<sup>18</sup>In those days, the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.

<sup>19</sup>As for me, I said,

    'How I want to treat you as my son and give you a delightful land, an inheritance more beautiful than what is in any other nation!
    I would have said, 'You will call me "my Father".'

I would have said

    that you would not turn from following me.

<sup>20</sup>But like a woman faithless to her husband,
    you have betrayed me, house of Israel—

<sup>21</sup>A voice is heard on the plains,
    the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel!
For they have changed their ways;
    they have forgotten Yahweh their God.

    I will heal you of your apostasy!"

"Behold! We will come to you, for you are Yahweh our God!

<sup>23</sup>Surely lies come from the hills,
    a confusing noise from the mountains;
surely Yahweh our God is the salvation of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Yet since our youth shameful idols have consumed the labor of our ancestors—their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters!

<sup>25</sup>Let us lie down in shame.
    May our shame cover us,
    for we have sinned against Yahweh our God!
We ourselves and our ancestors,
    from the time of our youth to this present day,
    have not listened to the voice of Yahweh our God!"

---

<sup>1</sup> "If you return, Israel—
     this is Yahweh's declaration—
     then it should be to me that you return.
 If you remove your detestable things from before me
     and do not wander from me again, <sup>2</sup> and if you are truthful, just, and righteous
     when you swear, 'As Yahweh lives,' then the nations will bless themselves in him,
     and in him they will glory."

<sup>3</sup>For Yahweh says this to each person in Judah and Jerusalem:

    'Plow your own ground,
     and do not sow among thorns.

<sup>4</sup> Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh,
     and remove the foreskins of your heart,
     men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
 or else my fury will break out like fire,
     and burn with no one to quench it,
     because of the wickedness of your practices.

<sup>5</sup> Report in Judah and let it be heard in Jerusalem.
     Say, "Blow the ram's horn in the land."
 Proclaim, "Gather together.
     Let us go to the fortified cities."

<sup>6</sup> Lift up the signal flag and point it toward Zion, and run for safety!
 Do not stay, for I am bringing disaster
     from the north and great crushing.

<sup>7</sup> A lion is coming out from his thicket and someone who will destroy nations is setting out.
 He is leaving his place to bring horror to your land,
     to turn your cities into ruins, where no one will live.

<sup>8</sup> Because of this, gird yourselves with sackcloth, lament and wail.
 For the force of Yahweh's anger
     has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup> Then it will happen in that day—
     this is Yahweh's declaration—
     that the hearts of the king and his officials will die.
 The priests will be appalled,
     and the prophets will be astounded."

<sup>10</sup>So I said, "Ah! Lord Yahweh. Surely you have completely deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'There will be peace for you.' Yet the sword is striking against their life."

<sup>11</sup>In that time it will be said of this people and Jerusalem, "A burning wind from the plains of the desert will make its way to the daughter of my people. It will not winnow or cleanse them."<sup>12</sup>A wind far stronger than that will come at my command, and I will now pass sentence against them.

<sup>13</sup> See, he comes up like clouds,
     and his chariots are like a storm.

His horses are faster than eagles.

Woe to us, for we will be devastated!

<sup>14</sup>Cleanse your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem,
so that you might be saved.

How long will wicked thoughts lodge within you?

<sup>15</sup>For a voice is bringing news from Dan and a report of trouble from the mountains of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup>Make the nations think about this:
See, announce to Jerusalem that besiegers are coming from a distant land to shout in battle against the cities of Judah.

<sup>17</sup>They will be like the watchmen of a cultivated field against her all around, since she has been rebellious against me—
this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>18</sup>and your conduct and your deeds have done these things to you.
This will be your punishment.
How bitter it will be!
It will strike your very heart.

<sup>19</sup>My heart! My heart!
I am in anguish in my heart.
My heart is turbulent within me.
I cannot keep quiet for I hear the sound of the horn,
an alarm for battle.

<sup>20</sup>Disaster follows after disaster;
for all the land lies in ruins.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed,
my curtains in a moment.

<sup>21</sup>How long will I see the signal flag?
Will I hear the sound of the horn?

<sup>22</sup>For the foolishness of my people—
they do not know me.
They are stupid children,
and they have no understanding.
They are skilled at doing evil,
but they do not know how to do good.

<sup>23</sup>I saw the land. Behold!
It was formless and empty.
For there was no light for the heavens.

<sup>24</sup>I looked at the mountains.
Behold, they were trembling,
and all the hills were shaking about.

<sup>25</sup>I looked. Behold, there was no one,
and all the birds of the heavens had fled.

<sup>26</sup>I looked. Behold, the productive land was a wilderness and all the cities had been pulled down before Yahweh, before the fury of his wrath."

<sup>27</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

"All the land will become a devastation,

but I will not completely destroy it <sup>28</sup> For this reason, the land will mourn, and the heavens above will darken.
For I have declared my intentions;
I will not hold back;
I will not turn from carrying them out.

<sup>29</sup> Every city will flee from the noise of the horseman and the archer with a bow;
they will run into the forests.
Every city will climb up into the rocky places.
The cities will be abandoned,
for there will be no one to inhabit them.

<sup>30</sup> Now that you have been devastated, what will you do? For though you are clothed in scarlet, and though you adorn yourself with gold jewelry, and though you make your eyes look bigger with paint, you are making yourself beautiful in vain. The men who lusted for you now reject you. They are trying to take away your life.

<sup>31</sup> So I hear the sound of anguish, distress as in the birth of a firstborn child,
the sound of the daughter of Zion.
She is gasping for breath.
She spreads out her hands,
'Woe to me! I am fainting because of these murderers.'"

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> "Rush about through the streets of Jerusalem;
 search in her city squares, too.
 Then look and think about this:
 If you can find a man or anyone who is acting justly and trying to act faithfully,
 then I will forgive Jerusalem.
- <sup>2</sup> Although they say, 'As Yahweh lives,' yet they are swearing falsely."
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, do your eyes not look for faithfulness?
 You struck the people, but they do not feel pain.
 You have completely defeated them,
 but they still refuse to receive discipline.
 They make their faces harder than rock,
 for they refuse to repent.
- <sup>4</sup> So I said,
 "Surely these are only poor people.
 They are foolish, for they do not know Yahweh's ways
 nor their God's decrees.
- <sup>5</sup> I will go to the important people and declare God's messages to them, for they at least know Yahweh's ways,
 the decrees of their God."
 But they all broke their yoke together;
 they all tore apart the chains that bound them to God.
- <sup>6</sup> So a lion from a thicket will attack them.
 A wolf from the Arabah will devastate them.
 A leopard is watching their cities
 Anyone who goes outside his city will be torn apart.
 For their transgressions increase.
 Their acts of apostasy are numerous.
- <sup>7</sup> Why should I pardon these people?
 Your sons have abandoned me
 and have made oaths by what are not gods.
 I fed them fully
 but they committed adultery
 and walked in great number to the houses of prostitutes.
- <sup>8</sup> They were horses in heat.
 They roamed about wanting to mate.
 Each man neighed to his neighbor's wife.
- <sup>9</sup> So should I not punish them—
 this is Yahweh's declaration—
 and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?
- <sup>10</sup> Go up onto her vineyards' terraces and destroy.
 But do not bring complete destruction to them.
 Trim their vines,
 since those vines do not come from Yahweh.
- <sup>11</sup> For the houses of Israel and Judah have completely betrayed me—

this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> They have spoken falsely about Yahweh and they said, "He will do nothing;
no harm will come upon us,
and we will not see sword or famine.

<sup>13</sup> The prophets will become wind,
the word is not in them,
so let what they say be done to them."

<sup>14</sup> So Yahweh, the God of hosts says this,

"Because you have said this, see,
I am about to place my word in your mouth.
It will be like a fire,
and this people will be like wood!
For it will consume them.

<sup>15</sup> Behold! I am about to bring a nation against you from far away, house of Israel—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
it is a lasting nation, an ancient nation!
It is a nation whose language you do not know,
nor will you understand what they say.

<sup>16</sup> Its quiver is like an open tomb.
They are all soldiers.

<sup>17</sup> They will eat up your harvest and your food.
They will devour your sons and daughters.
They will devour your flocks and herds.
They will devour your vines and fig trees.
They will beat down with a sword your fortified cities in which you put your trust.

<sup>18</sup> But even in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—I do not intend to destroy you completely.<sup>19</sup> When you, Israel and Judah, say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' then you, Jeremiah, will say to them, 'Just as you abandoned Yahweh and served foreign gods in your land, so you must also serve strangers in a land that is not your own.'

<sup>20</sup> Report this to the house of Jacob and let it be heard in Judah. Say,

<sup>21</sup> 'Hear this, you foolish people who have no understanding;
you have eyes but you cannot see,
and you have ears but you cannot hear.

<sup>22</sup> Do you not fear me—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
or tremble before my face?
I have placed a border of sand against the sea an ongoing decree that it does not violate—even though the sea rises and falls,
still it does not violate it.
Even though its waves roar,
they do not cross it.

<sup>23</sup> But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart.
They have turned aside and gone away.

<sup>24</sup> For they do not say in their hearts,
"Let us fear Yahweh our God,
the one who brings the rain—

the early rain and the late rains—
in their right time,
keeping the appointed weeks of the harvest for us."
<sup>25</sup> Your iniquities kept these things from happening.
Your sins have stopped good from coming to you.

<sup>26</sup> For wicked men are found with my people.
They watch as someone crouches to capture birds;
they set a trap and catch people.

<sup>27</sup> Like a cage full of birds,
their houses are full of deceit.
So they grow large and become rich.

<sup>28</sup> They have become fat;
they shine with well-being.
They crossed over all bounds of wickedness.
They do not plead the cause of the people,
or the cause of the orphan.
They prosper even though they have not given justice to the needy.

<sup>29</sup> Should I not punish them for these things—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
and will I not take vengeance for myself on a nation like this?

<sup>30</sup> An appalling and horrifying thing has occurred in the land.

<sup>31</sup> The prophets prophesy with deceit,
and the priests rule with their own power.
My people love it this way,
but what will happen in the end?"

---

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup> Find safety, people of Benjamin, by leaving Jerusalem.
 Blow a ram's horn in Tekoa.
 Raise up over Beth Hakkerem a signal, since wickedness is appearing from the north;
 a great crushing is coming.
- <sup>2</sup> The daughter of Zion,
 the beautiful and delicate woman, will be destroyed.
- <sup>3</sup> The shepherds and their flocks will go to them;
 they will set up tents against her all around;
 each man will shepherd with his own hand.
- <sup>4</sup> "Dedicate yourselves to the gods for the battle.
 Arise, let us attack at noon.
 Woe to us! For the daylight is fading away and the evening shadows are falling.
- <sup>5</sup> But let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses."
- <sup>6</sup> For Yahweh of hosts says this:
 Cut her trees,
 and heap up siege works against Jerusalem.
 This is the right city to attack,
 because it is filled with oppression.
- <sup>7</sup> As a well pours out fresh water,
 so this city keeps producing wickedness.
 Violence and devastation are heard within her;
 sickness and wounds are continually before my face.
- <sup>8</sup> Accept discipline, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make you into a ruin, an uninhabited land."
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh of hosts says this,
 "They will certainly glean the remnant of Israel like a vineyard.
 Reach out again with your hand to pick grapes from the vines.
- <sup>10</sup> To whom should I declare and warn
 so they will listen?
 Look! Their ears are uncircumcised;
 they are not able to pay attention!
 Look! The word of Yahweh has come to them to correct them, but they do not want it."
- <sup>11</sup> But I am filled with Yahweh's fury.
 I am tired of holding it in.
 He said, to me,
 "Pour it out on the children in the streets and on the groups of young men.
 For every man will be taken away with his wife;
 and every old person heavy with years.
- <sup>12</sup> Their houses will be turned over to others,
 both their fields and their wives together.
 For I will attack the inhabitants of the land with my hand—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh declares that from the least to the greatest,

- all of them are greedy for dishonest gain.
 From the prophet to the priest,
 all of them practice deceit.
- <sup>14</sup> They have healed the brokenness of my people lightly,
 saying, 'Peace, Peace,' when there is no peace.
- <sup>15</sup> Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations?
 They were not ashamed;
 they did not know how to blush!
 So they will fall among the fallen;
 they will be brought down
 when they are punished, says Yahweh.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh says this,
 "Stand at the road crossing and look;
 ask for the ancient pathways.
 'Where is this good way?'
 Then go on it and find a resting place for yourselves.
 But the people say,
 'We will not go.'
- <sup>17</sup> I appointed for you watchmen to listen for the ram's horn.
 But they said, 'We will not listen.'
- <sup>18</sup> Therefore, nations, listen!
 See, you witnesses, what will happen to them.
- <sup>19</sup> Hear, earth!
 See, I am about to bring disaster to this people,
 the fruit of their thoughts,
 because they paid no attention to my word
 and they have rejected my law.
- <sup>20</sup> What does this frankincense going up from Sheba mean to me or these sweet smells from a distant land?
 Your burnt offerings are not acceptable to me,
 nor are your sacrifices.
- <sup>21</sup> So Yahweh says this,
 'See, I am about to place a stumbling block against this people.
 They will stumble over it-fathers and sons together.
 Inhabitants and their neighbors will also perish.'
- <sup>22</sup> Yahweh says this,
 'See, a people is coming from the land of the north,
 a great nation is being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.
- <sup>23</sup> They will pick up bows and spears.
 They are cruel and have no compassion.
 Their sound is like the sea roar,
 and they are riding on horses,
 set out in order as men for battle, against you, daughter of Zion.'"
- <sup>24</sup> We have heard the reports about them
 and our hands fall limp in distress.
 Anguish seizes us as a woman giving birth.
- <sup>25</sup> Do not go out to the fields,
 and do not walk on the roads,
 for the swords of the enemy and terror are all around.
- <sup>26</sup> Daughter of my people,
 gird yourself with sackcloth and roll in ashes;

mourn with painful sobs as for an only son,
for the destroyer will suddenly come upon us.

- <sup>27</sup> "I have made you, Jeremiah,
one who tests my people like one would test metal,
so you will inspect and test their ways.
- <sup>28</sup> They are all the most stubborn of people,
who go about slandering others.
All of them are bronze and iron, acting corruptly.
- <sup>29</sup> The bellows are scorched by the fire that is burning them;
the lead is consumed in the flames.
The refining continues among them,
but it is useless, because the evil is not removed.
- <sup>30</sup> They will be called rejected silver, for Yahweh has rejected them."

Chapter 7

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Make your ways and practices good, and I will let you continue to live in this place. <sup>4</sup>Do not entrust yourself to deceitful words and say, "Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh!"

<sup>5</sup>For if you actually make your ways and practices good; if you completely execute justice between a man and his neighbor—<sup>6</sup>if you do not oppress the sojourner, the orphan, or the widow and do not pour out innocent blood in this place, and do not walk after other gods to your own harm—<sup>7</sup>then I will let you stay in this place, in the land that I gave to your ancestors from ancient times and forever.

<sup>12</sup>So go to my place that was in Shiloh, where I allowed my name to stay there in the beginning, and look at what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel. <sup>13</sup>So now, on account of your doing all of these practices—this is Yahweh's declaration—I spoke to you time and time again, but you did not listen. I summoned you, but you did not answer. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, what I did to Shiloh, I will also do to this house that is called by my name, the house in which you have trusted, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors. <sup>15</sup>For I will send you out from before me just as I had sent out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.'

<sup>16</sup>As for you, Jeremiah, do not pray for this people, and do not lift up a cry of distress or say a prayer on their behalf, and do not petition me, for I will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>The children are gathering wood and the fathers kindling the fire! The women are kneading dough to make cakes for the queen of the heavens and pour out drink offerings for other gods so that they will provoke me.

<sup>19</sup>Are they truly provoking me?—this is Yahweh's declaration—is it not themselves whom they are provoking, so that shame is on them? <sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'See, my anger and wrath will gush out onto this place, on both man and animals, on the tree in the fields and the fruit on the ground. It will burn and never be extinguished.'

<sup>27</sup>So proclaim all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. Proclaim these things to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>Say to them: This is a nation that does not listen to the voice of Yahweh its God and does not receive discipline. Truth is destroyed and cut off from their mouths.

<sup>31</sup>Then they built the high place of Topheth that is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. They did this to burn their sons and daughters in fire—something that I did not command, nor did it enter my mind.<sup>32</sup>So see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be called Topheth or Valley of Ben Hinnom. It will be the Valley of Slaughter; they will bury bodies in Topheth until there is no room left.

<sup>33</sup>The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the skies and the wild animals of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.<sup>34</sup>I will put an end to the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, for the land will become a desolation."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will bring out from the graves the bones of the kings of Judah and its officials, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.<sup>2</sup>Then they will spread them out in the light of the sun and moon and all the stars of the skies; these things in the sky that they have followed and served, that they have walked after and sought, and that they have worshiped. The bones will not be gathered or buried again. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth.<sup>3</sup>In every place where I have driven them, death will be chosen instead of life by all who remain from this evil family—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>So say to them, 'Yahweh says this:

Does anyone fall and not get up?

Does anyone get lost and not try to return?

<sup>5</sup> Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away in permanent apostasy?
They hold on to deceit
and refuse to repent.

<sup>6</sup> I paid attention and listened,
but they did not speak right;
no one repented of his wickedness,
no one who says, "What have I done?"
All of them go where they wish,
like a horse rushing toward battle.

<sup>7</sup> Even the stork in heaven knows the right times;
and the doves, swifts, and cranes.
They go on their migrations at the right time,
but my people do not know Yahweh's decrees.

<sup>8</sup> How can you say,
"We are wise, for the law of Yahweh is with us"?
Indeed, see!
The deceitful pen of the scribes has created deceit.

<sup>9</sup> The wise men will be ashamed.
They are dismayed and trapped.
Behold! They reject Yahweh's word,
so what use is their wisdom?

<sup>10</sup> So I will give their wives to others,
and their fields to those who will possess them,
because from the least to the greatest,
all of them are greedy for dishonest gain!
From the prophet to the priest,
all of them practice deceit.

<sup>11</sup> They have healed the brokenness of my people lightly,
saying, "Peace, Peace," when there is no peace.

<sup>12</sup> Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations?
They were not ashamed;
they did not know how to blush!
So they will fall among the fallen;
they will be brought down when they are punished,
says Yahweh.

<sup>13</sup> I will remove them completely—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
there will be no grapes on the vine,

nor will there be figs on the fig trees.
For the leaf will wither,
and what I have given to them will pass away.

<sup>14</sup> Why are we sitting here?
Come together;
let us go to the fortified cities,
and we will become silent there in death.
For Yahweh our God will silence us.
He will make us drink poison,
since we have sinned against him.

<sup>15</sup> We are hoping for peace,
but there will be nothing good.
We are hoping for a time of healing,
but see, there will be terror.

<sup>16</sup> The snorting of his stallions is heard from Dan.
The whole earth shakes
at the sound of the neighing of his strong horses.
For they will come
and consume the land and its wealth,
the city and the ones living in it.

<sup>17</sup> For see, I am sending out snakes among you, adders that you cannot charm.
They will bite you—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>18</sup> My sorrow has no end and my heart is sick.

<sup>19</sup> Behold! The cry for help of the daughter of my people from a land far away!
Is Yahweh not in Zion?
Is her king no longer there?

Why then do they provoke me to anger with their carved figures and their worthless foreign idols?

<sup>20</sup> The harvest has passed on, summer is over.
But we have not been saved.

<sup>21</sup> I am hurt because of the hurt of the daughter of my people.
I mourn at the horrible things that have happened to her;
I am dismayed.

<sup>22</sup> Is there no medicine in Gilead?
Is there no healer there?
Why will the healing of the daughter of my people not happen?

Chapter 9

- <sup>1</sup> If only my head could produce water,
and my eyes be a fountain of tears!
For I wish to weep day and night for those among the daughter of my people who have been killed.
- <sup>2</sup> If only someone would give me a place for travelers in the wilderness to stay,
where I could go to abandon my people.
If only I could leave them,
since all of them are adulterers, a company of traitors!
- <sup>3</sup> "They bend their tongues like their bows for lies,
and it is not because of any faithfulness of theirs
that they grow strong on the earth.
For they go from one wicked act to another.
They do not know me." This is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>4</sup> Each of you, be on guard against your neighbor and do not trust in any brother.
For every brother is certainly a deceiver,
and every neighbor walks in slander.
- <sup>5</sup> Each man mocks his neighbor and does not speak the truth.
Their tongues teach deceitful things.
They are exhausted from committing iniquity.
- <sup>6</sup> Your dwelling is in the midst of deception;
in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me—
this is Yahweh's declaration."
- <sup>7</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this,
"See, I am about to refine them and test them, for what else can I do, because of what my people have done?"
- <sup>8</sup> Their tongues are deadly arrows; they speak deceit.
With their mouths they proclaim peace with their neighbors,
but with their hearts they lie in wait for them.
- <sup>9</sup> Should I not punish them because of these things—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?
- <sup>10</sup> I will sing a song of mourning and wailing for the mountains, and a dirge will be sung for the meadows in the wilderness.
For they have been made desolate and no one can pass through them,
and the lowing of the cattle is not heard.
The birds of the skies and the animals have all fled away.
- <sup>11</sup> So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins,
a hideout for jackals.
I will make Judah's cities ruined places without inhabitants."
- <sup>12</sup>What man is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of Yahweh spoken, and he will declare it?
Why has the land perished and been made desolate like the wilderness that no one can pass through?

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh says, "It is because they have abandoned my law that I set before them, because they do not listen to my voice or walk by it.<sup>14</sup> It is because they have walked by their stubborn hearts and have followed the Baals as their fathers taught them to do.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to make this people eat wormwood and drink poisonous water.<sup>16</sup> Then I will scatter them among the nations that they have not known, neither they nor their ancestors. I will send out a sword after them until I have completely destroyed them.'

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this,

"Think about this: Summon funeral singers; let them come.

Send out for women skilled at lamenting;
let them come.

<sup>18</sup> Let them hurry and sing a mournful song over us, so our eyes may run with tears and our eyelids flow with water.

<sup>19</sup> For the sound of wailing is heard in Zion,
'How we are devastated.

We are greatly ashamed,
for we have abandoned the land
since they tore down our houses.'

<sup>20</sup> So you women, hear Yahweh's word;
pay attention to the messages that come from his mouth.
Then teach your daughters a mourning song,
and each neighbor woman a dirge.

<sup>21</sup> For death has come through our windows;
it goes into our palaces.
It destroys children from outside,
and young men in the city squares.

<sup>22</sup> Declare this, "This is Yahweh's declaration—the corpses of men will fall like dung in the fields, and like grain stalks after the reapers,
and there will be no one to gather them."

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh says this,

"Do not let the wise man take pride in his wisdom,
or the warrior in his might.
Do not let the wealthy man take pride in his riches.

<sup>24</sup> For if a man takes pride in anything,
let it be in this, that he has insight and knows me.
For I am Yahweh, who acts with covenant loyalty,
justice and righteousness on earth.
For it is in these that I take pleasure—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>25</sup>"See, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will punish all the circumcised who are such only in their body.<sup>26</sup> I will punish Egypt and Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, and all the desert people who cut the hair on the sides of their heads very short. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel has an uncircumcised heart."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>"Hear the word that Yahweh is announcing to you, house of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Yahweh says this,

'Do not learn the ways of the nations, and do not be dismayed by the signs in the heavens,
for the nations are dismayed by these.

<sup>3</sup> For the customs of these people are worthless.
Someone cuts down a tree from the forest.
It is the work of the hands of a craftsman using an axe.

<sup>4</sup> Then they decorate it with silver and gold.
They strengthen it with hammer and nails so it will not fall over.

<sup>5</sup> What they make with their hands is like scarecrows in a cucumber field, because they, too, can say nothing,
and they have to be carried because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them, for they cannot bring about evil,
nor are they able to do anything good."

<sup>6</sup> There is no one like you, Yahweh.
You are great, and your name is great in power.

<sup>7</sup> Who does not fear you, king of the nations?
For this is what you deserve, for there is no one like you among all the wise men of the nations or all their royal kingdoms.

<sup>8</sup> They are both brutish and stupid.
Their vain discipline—it is nothing but wood.

<sup>9</sup> They bring hammered silver from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz made by artificers,
the hands of refiners.

Their clothes are blue and purple cloth.
Their skillful men made all of these things.

<sup>10</sup> But Yahweh is the true God.
He is the living God and eternal king.
The earth quakes at his anger,
and the nations cannot endure his anger.

<sup>11</sup>You will speak to them like this, "The gods that did not make the heavens and earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

<sup>12</sup> But it was he who made the earth by his power,
and he established the world by his wisdom,
and by his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

<sup>13</sup> His voice makes the roar of waters in the heavens,
and he brings up the mists from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain and sends out wind from his storehouse.

<sup>14</sup> Every man has become stupid, without knowledge.
Every metalworker is put to shame by his idols.
For his cast metal images are frauds;
there is no life in them.

<sup>15</sup> They are useless, the work of mockers;
they will perish at the time of their punishment.

<sup>16</sup> But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these,
for he is the molder of all things.
Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>17</sup> Gather your bundle and leave the land,
you people who have been living under the siege.
<sup>18</sup> For Yahweh says this,
"See, I am about to throw the inhabitants of the land out this time.
I will cause them distress,
and they will find it to be so."

<sup>19</sup> Woe to me!
Because of my broken bones, my wound is infected.
So I said,
"Surely this is agony, but I must bear it."
<sup>20</sup> My tent is devastated, and all of my tent cords are cut in two.
They have taken my children away from me,
so they no longer exist.
There is no longer anyone to spread out my tent or to raise up my tent curtains.
<sup>21</sup> For the shepherds are stupid
and they do not seek Yahweh;
so they have not prospered,
and all their flock has been scattered.
<sup>22</sup> The report of news has arrived, "See! It is coming, a great earthquake is coming from the land of the north to make the cities of Judah into ruins, hideouts for jackals."
<sup>23</sup> I know, Yahweh, that the way of a man does not come from himself.
No person walking directs his own steps.
<sup>24</sup> Discipline me, Yahweh, with justice,
not in your anger or you would destroy me.
<sup>25</sup> Pour your fury on the nations that do not know you and on the families that do not call on your name.
For they have devoured Jacob and consumed him so as to completely destroy him and demolish his habitation.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Listen to the words of this covenant, and declare them to each man in Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Say to them, 'Yahweh, God of Israel says this: Cursed is anyone who does not listen to the words of this covenant.

<sup>4</sup>This is the covenant that I commanded your ancestors to keep the day I brought them out from the land of Egypt, from the furnace for smelting iron. I said, "Listen to my voice and do all of these things just as I have commanded you, for you will be my people and I will be your God."<sup>5</sup>Obey me so that I may confirm the oath that I swore to your ancestors, the oath that I would give them the land flowing with milk and honey, where you live today.'" Then I, Jeremiah, answered and said, "Let it be so, Yahweh!"

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. Say, 'Listen to the words of this covenant and carry them out.' For I have been giving solemn commands to your ancestors from the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt until this present time, persistently warning them and saying, "Listen to my voice."<sup>8</sup>But they did not listen or incline their ear. Each person has been walking in the stubbornness of his wicked heart. So I brought all the curses in the covenant that I commanded them to obey, but the people still did not obey."

<sup>9</sup>Next Yahweh said to me, "A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.<sup>10</sup>They have returned to the iniquities of their earliest ancestors, who refused to listen to my word. They walked after other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant that I established with their ancestors.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to bring disaster on them, disaster from which they will not be able to escape. Then they will call out to me, but I will not listen to them.'<sup>12</sup>The cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and call out to the gods to which they had given offerings, but they will certainly not be saved by them at the time of their disaster.<sup>13</sup>For you Judah, the number of your gods has increased to equal the number of your cities. You have made the number of shameful altars in Jerusalem, incense altars for Baal, equal to the number of her streets.

<sup>14</sup>So you yourself, Jeremiah, must not pray for this people. You must not cry for help or pray on their behalf. For I will not be listening when they call on me in their disaster.

<sup>15</sup> Why is my beloved one
the one who has had so many wicked intentions,
in my house?
The meat of your sacrifices cannot help you.
You rejoice because of your evil actions.

<sup>16</sup> In the past Yahweh called you a leafy olive tree, beautiful with lovely fruit.
But he will light a fire on it that will sound like the roar of a storm;
its branches will be broken.

<sup>17</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, the one who planted you, has decreed disaster against you because of the wicked acts that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have committed—they have angered me by giving offerings to Baal."

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh made me know these things, so I know them. You, Yahweh, made me see their deeds.<sup>19</sup>I was like a gentle lamb being led to the slaughter. I did not know that they had formed plans against me,

"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit!
Let us cut him off from the land of the living
so his name will be no longer remembered."

<sup>20</sup> Yet Yahweh of hosts is the righteous judge who examines the heart and the mind.
I will witness your vengeance against them,
for I have presented my case to you.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life, "They say, 'You must not prophesy in the name of Yahweh, or you will die by our hand.'"<sup>22</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this, 'See, I am about to punish them. Their vigorous young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine.'<sup>23</sup>No remnant will be left for them, because I am bringing disaster against the people of Anathoth, a year of their punishment."

---

Chapter 12

- <sup>1</sup> You are righteous, Yahweh,
    whenever I bring disputes to you.
I must certainly tell you of my reason to complain:
    Why do the ways of the wicked succeed?
    All the treacherous are at ease.
- <sup>2</sup> You planted them and they took root.
    They continue to produce fruit.
You are near to them in their mouths,
    but far away from their hearts.
- <sup>3</sup> Yet you, Yahweh, know me.
    You see me and you test my heart toward you.
Take them away like sheep to the slaughter,
    and set them apart for the day of slaughter!
- <sup>4</sup> How long will the land mourn
    and the grass in the field be withered?
Because those who live in it are wicked,
    the animals and the birds have been swept away,
    because the people said,
    "He will not see what happens to us."
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh said, "Indeed, if you, Jeremiah, have run with foot soldiers and they have tired you out,
    how can you compete against horses?
And if you are confident only in a peaceful land,
    how will you do in the majesty along the Jordan?"
- <sup>6</sup> For even your brothers and your father's family have betrayed you and have raised their voice against you.
Do not trust in them,
    even if they say nice things to you.
- <sup>7</sup> I have abandoned my house;
    I have abandoned my inheritance.
    I have given my beloved into the hands of her enemies.
- <sup>8</sup> My inheritance has become to me
    like a lion in a thicket;
she sets herself against me with her own voice,
    so I hate her.
- <sup>9</sup> Has not my prized possession become a speckled bird, that other birds of prey go against her all around?
Go and gather all the wild beasts and bring them to devour her.
- <sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard.
    They have trampled on my portion of land;
they turned my delightful portion into a wilderness,
    a desolation.
- <sup>11</sup> They have made her a desolation.
    I mourn for her; she is desolate.
All the land has been made desolate,
    for there is no one who takes it to heart.
- <sup>12</sup> Destroyers have come against all the bare places in the wilderness, for Yahweh's sword is devouring from one end of the land to the other.

There is no safety in the land
for any living creature.

<sup>13</sup> They have sown wheat but harvest thornbushes.
They are exhausted from work but have gained nothing.
So be ashamed of your gain
because of Yahweh's anger."

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh says this against all my neighbors, the wicked ones who strike at the possession that I made my people Israel inherit, "See, I am the one who is about to uproot them from their own ground, and I will pull up the house of Judah from among them."<sup>15</sup>Then after I uproot those nations, it will happen that I will have compassion on them and bring them back; I will return them—each man to his inheritance and his land.

<sup>16</sup>It will come about that if those nations carefully learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name 'As Yahweh lives' just as they have taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the midst of my people.

<sup>17</sup>But if any do not listen, then I will uproot that nation. It will certainly be uprooted and destroyed—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said this to me, "Go and buy a linen undergarment and put it on around your waist, but do not put it in water first."<sup>2</sup>So I bought an undergarment as Yahweh directed, and I put it on around my waist.<sup>3</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying,<sup>4</sup>"Take the undergarment that you purchased that is around your waist, get up and go now to Perath. <sup>1</sup>Hide it there in a rock crevice."<sup>5</sup>So I went and hid it in Perath, just as Yahweh had commanded me.

<sup>6</sup>After many days, Yahweh said to me, "Get up and go back to Perath. Take from there the undergarment that I commanded you to hide."<sup>7</sup>So I went back to Perath <sup>2</sup>and dug out the undergarment where I had hid it, and behold, it was destroyed and completely useless.

<sup>12</sup>So you must speak this word to them, 'Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this: Every jar will be filled with wine.' They will say to you, 'Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?'<sup>13</sup>So say to them, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to fill with drunkenness every inhabitant of this land, the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.<sup>14</sup>Then I will smash each man against the other, fathers and children together—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not pity them or have compassion, and I will not spare them from destruction.'"

Do not be arrogant, for Yahweh had spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Give honor to Yahweh your God

before he brings darkness,

and before he causes your feet to stumble on the mountains at twilight.

For you are hoping for light,

but he will turn it to deep darkness and change it to deep gloom.

<sup>17</sup> So if you will not listen,

I will weep alone because of your pride.

My eyes will certainly weep and flow with tears,

for Yahweh's flock has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup> "Say to the king and to the queen mother,

'Humble yourselves! Sit!

For your splendid crowns

have fallen from your heads.'

<sup>19</sup> The cities in the Negev will be shut up, with no one to open them.

All Judah will be taken captive, completely taken captive.

<sup>20</sup> Lift up your eyes and look at the ones coming from the north.

Where is the flock he gave to you,

the flock that was so beautiful to you?

<sup>21</sup> What will you say when God sets over you those whom you yourself had trained to be your special allies?

 Are these not the beginnings of the labor pains that will seize you just like a woman in childbirth?
<sup>22</sup> Then you might say in your heart,
 'Why are these things happening to me?'
 It will be for the multitude of your iniquities that your skirts are raised up and you have been violated.
<sup>23</sup> Can the people of Cush change their skin color, or a leopard change its spots?
 If so, then you yourself,
 although accustomed to wickedness,
 would be able to do good.
<sup>24</sup> So I will scatter them like chaff that perishes in the desert wind.
<sup>25</sup> This is what I have given to you,
 the portion I have decreed for you—
 this is Yahweh's declaration—
 because you have forgotten me
 and trusted in deceit.
<sup>26</sup> So also I myself will strip your skirts off you,
 and your nakedness will be seen.
<sup>27</sup> I have seen your adultery and neighing,
 the wickedness of your prostitution
 on the hills and in the fields, and I have seen these detestable things!
 Woe to you, Jerusalem!
 How long until you are made clean again?"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah regarding the drought,

     let her gates waste away.
 They are wailing for the land;
     their cries for Jerusalem are going up.
<sup>3</sup> Their mighty ones send out their servants for water.
     When they go to the trenches,
     they cannot find water.
 They all return with empty vessels;
     they cover their heads ashamed and dishonored.
<sup>4</sup> Because of this the ground is cracked,
     for there is no rain in the land.
 The plowmen are ashamed and cover their heads.
<sup>5</sup> For even the doe leaves her young in the fields and abandons them, for there is no grass.
<sup>6</sup> The wild donkeys stand on the bare plains
     and they pant in the wind like jackals.
 Their eyes fail to work,
     for there is no vegetation."
<sup>7</sup> Even though our iniquities testify against us
     Yahweh, act for the sake of your name.
 For our acts of apostasy increase;
     we have sinned against you.
<sup>8</sup> You are the Hope of Israel,
     the one who saves him in the time of distress,
 why will you be like a stranger in the land,
     like a foreign wanderer who stretches out and spends just one night?
<sup>9</sup> Why are you like someone who is astounded, or like a warrior who has no power to rescue?
 You are in our midst, Yahweh,
     and your name is called over us.
 Do not leave us!

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh says this to this people:
 "Since they love to wander,
     they have not held back their feet from doing so."
 Yahweh is not pleased with them
     Now he calls to mind their iniquity and has punished their sins.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Do not pray for good on behalf of this people.<sup>12</sup>For if they fast, I will not listen to their outcry, and if they offer up burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not take pleasure in them. For I will put an end to them by sword, famine, and plague."

<sup>13</sup>Then I said, "Oh, Lord Yahweh! Behold! The prophets are saying to the people, 'You will not see the sword; there will be no famine for you, for I will give you true peace in this place.'"

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh said to me, "The prophets prophesy deceit in my name. I did not send them out, nor did I give them any command or speak to them. But deceitful visions and worthless divination and the deceitfulness of their hearts—that is what they are prophesying to you."

<sup>15</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, "About the prophets prophesying in my name but whom I did not send out—those who say there will be no sword or famine in this land: These prophets will perish by sword and famine.<sup>16</sup>Then the people to whom they prophesied will be thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword, for there will be no one to bury them—they, their wives, their sons, or their daughters—for I will pour out their wickedness on them.

'Let my eyes flow with tears night and day.

Do not let them stop,
for there will be a great collapse of the virgin daughter of my people—
a great and incurable wound.

<sup>18</sup> If I go out to the field,
there are the ones who were killed by the sword!
If I come to the city,
there are the diseases that are caused by famine.
Both the prophet and the priest wander about the land,
and they do not know."

<sup>19</sup> Have you completely rejected Judah?
Do you hate Zion?
Why will you afflict us when there is no healing for us?
We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good—
and for a time of healing,
but see, there is only terror.

<sup>20</sup> We admit, Yahweh, our offenses,
the iniquity of our ancestors,
for we have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup> Do not reject us!
For the sake of your name,
do not make your glorious throne a disgrace.
Remember and do not break
your covenant with us.

<sup>22</sup> Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?
Or can the skies themselves send down showers?
Are you not the one, Yahweh our God?
We wait for you, for you are the one who does all these things.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Even if Moses or Samuel were standing in front of me, I would still not be in favor of this people. Send them out from before me, for them to go away.<sup>2</sup>It will happen that they will say to you, 'Where should we go?' Then you must say to them, 'Yahweh says this:

Those who are for death should go to death;
 those who are for the sword should go to the sword.
 Those who are for famine should go to famine;
 and those who are for captivity should go to captivity.'

<sup>3</sup>For I will assign them to four groups—this is Yahweh's declaration—the sword to slaughter some, the dogs to drag some away, the birds of the skies and the wild animals of the earth to consume and destroy some.<sup>4</sup>I will make of them a horrifying thing to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> For who will have compassion for you, Jerusalem?
 Who will grieve for you?

<sup>6</sup> You have abandoned me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration—
 you have gone back from me.
 So I will strike you with my hand and destroy you.
 I am tired of relenting.

<sup>7</sup> So I will winnow them with a pitchfork at the gates of the land.

I will bereave them.
 I will destroy my people
 since they will not turn from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> I will make their widows more numerous than the sands of the seashore.
 Against the mothers of young men I will send the destroyer at noontday.
 I will make horror and dismay suddenly fall on them.

<sup>9</sup> The mother who has borne seven children will waste away.
 She will gasp.
 Her sun will set while it is still day.
 She will be ashamed and embarrassed,
 for I will give those who remain to the sword in the presence of their enemies—
 this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>10</sup> Woe to me, my mother!
 For you have borne me,
 I who am a man of strife and argument through all the land.
 I have not lent, nor has anyone lent to me,
 but they all curse me.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh said:
 "Will I not rescue you for good?
 I will certainly make your enemies beg for help in the time of calamity and distress.

<sup>12</sup> Can one smash iron?
 Especially iron from the north that is mixed with bronze?

- <sup>13</sup> I will give to your enemies
your wealth and treasures as free plunder.
I will do this because of all your sins committed within all your borders.
- <sup>14</sup> Then I will make you serve your enemies
in a land that you do not know,
for a fire will ignite,
kindled in my wrath against you." <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, you know
Remember me and help me
Bring vengeance for me
against those who persecute me.
You are patient, but do not allow them to take me away;
know that I have suffered insult for your sake.
- <sup>16</sup> Your words have been found, and I consumed them
Your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart,
for I bear your name,
Yahweh God of hosts.
- <sup>17</sup> I did not sit in the circle of those who celebrated or rejoiced.
I sat alone because of your powerful hand,
for you filled me with indignation.
- <sup>18</sup> Why is my pain constant and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?
Will you be like deceitful waters to me,
waters that dry up?
- <sup>19</sup> Therefore Yahweh said this,
"If you repent, Jeremiah,
then I will restore you,
and you will stand before me and serve me.
For if you separate the foolish things from the precious things,
you will be like my mouth.
The people will come back to you,
but you yourself must not go back to them.
- <sup>20</sup> I will make you like an impenetrable bronze wall to this people,
and they will wage war against you.
But they will not defeat you,
for I am with you to save and rescue you—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
- <sup>21</sup> for I will rescue you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the hand of the ruthless."

<sup>1</sup>Instead of Then I will make you serve your enemies , some ancient copies have Then I will make your enemies take you .

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Do not take a wife for yourself, and do not have sons or daughters for yourself in this place. <sup>3</sup>For Yahweh says this to the sons and daughters who are born in this place, to the mothers who bear them, and to the fathers who caused them to be born in this land, <sup>4</sup>"They will die diseased deaths. They will not be mourned or buried. They will be like dung on the ground. For they will come to an end by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the skies and the wild animals of the earth.'

<sup>5</sup>For the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, 'Do not enter a house where there is mourning. Do not go to mourn or to show sympathy for them, for I have taken away my peace from this people—this is Yahweh's declaration—and my steadfast love and mercy. <sup>6</sup>Both the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried, and no one will mourn for them or cut themselves or shave their heads for them.

<sup>10</sup>Then it will happen that you will report all these words to this people, and they will say to you, 'Why has Yahweh decreed all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity and sin that we sinned against Yahweh our God?' <sup>11</sup>So say to them, 'Because your ancestors abandoned me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they went after other gods and worshiped and bowed down to them. They abandoned me and have not kept my law.

<sup>12</sup>But you yourselves have brought about more wickedness than your ancestors, for see, each person is walking by the stubbornness of his wicked heart; there is no one who listens to me. <sup>13</sup>So I will throw you from this land to a land that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, and you will worship other gods there by day and night, for I will not give any favor to you.'

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, behold, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be said, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.' <sup>15</sup>but, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of the north and from the lands where he had scattered them.' For I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>Behold! I will send for many fishermen—this is Yahweh's declaration—so they will fish the people out. After this I will send for many hunters so they will hunt for them among all the mountains and hills, and in rock crevices.

<sup>17</sup>For my eye is on all their ways; they cannot be hidden from before me. Their iniquity cannot be concealed from before my eyes. <sup>18</sup>I will first pay back double for their iniquity and sin. They have polluted my land. They have filled my inheritance with the corpses of their detestable idols and their abominations."

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh, you are my stronghold and my refuge,
     my place of safety in the day of distress.
 The nations will go to you from the ends of the earth and say,
     "Surely our ancestors inherited deceit.
 They are empty;
     there is no profit in them.

<sup>20</sup> Do people make gods for themselves?
     But they are not gods."

<sup>21</sup> Therefore see! I will cause them to know in this time, I will cause them to know my hand and my power,
     so they will know that Yahweh is my name.

Chapter 17

- <sup>1</sup> "The sin of Judah is written with an iron stylus having a diamond point.
It is engraved on the tablet of their heart and on the horns of your altars.
- <sup>2</sup> Even their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles that were beside the spreading trees
and on the high hills.
- <sup>3</sup> My mountain in the open country,
and your wealth and all your treasures
I will give away as plunder, together with your high places,
because of the sin you committed in all your territories.
- <sup>4</sup> You will, by your own actions,
let go of the inheritance that I gave to you.
I will enslave you to your enemies
in a land that you do not know,
for you have ignited a fire in my wrath,
which will burn forever."
- <sup>5</sup>Yahweh says,
"The person who trusts in mankind is accursed;
he makes flesh his strength
but turns his heart away from Yahweh.
- <sup>6</sup> For he will be like a small bush in the Arabah and will not see anything good coming.
He will stay in the stony places in the wilderness, barren land without inhabitants.
- <sup>7</sup> But the person who trusts in Yahweh is blessed,
for Yahweh is his reason for confidence.
- <sup>8</sup> For he will be like a tree planted by water,
its roots will spread out by the stream.
It will not fear the heat when it comes,
for its leaves are always green.
It is not anxious in a year of drought,
and it will not stop producing fruit.
- <sup>9</sup> The heart is more deceitful than anything else.
It is sick; who can understand it?
- <sup>10</sup> I am Yahweh,
the one who searches through the mind,
who tests the hearts.
I give to each person according to his ways,
according to the fruit of his deeds.
- <sup>11</sup> A partridge hatches an egg that she did not lay.
Someone may become rich unjustly,
but when half his days are over,
those riches will abandon him,

and in the end he will be a fool."

<sup>12</sup> "The place of our sanctuary is a glorious throne, elevated from the beginning.

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh is the hope of Israel.
All who abandon you will be put to shame;
those in the land who turn away from you will be written in the earth,
for they have abandoned Yahweh,
the fountain of living waters.

<sup>14</sup> Heal me, Yahweh, and I will be healed!
Rescue me, and I will be rescued
For you are my song of praise.

<sup>15</sup> See, they are saying to me,
'Where is the word of Yahweh? Let it come!'

<sup>16</sup> As for me,
I did not run from being a shepherd following you.
I did not long for the day of disaster.
You know the proclamations that came from my lips.
They were made in your presence.

<sup>17</sup> Do not be a terror to me.
You are my refuge on the day of calamity.

<sup>18</sup> May my pursuers be ashamed,
but do not let me be ashamed.
May they be dismayed,
but do not let me be dismayed.
Send the day of disaster against them and shatter them with a double share of destruction."

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh said this to me: "Go and stand in the gate of the people where the kings of Judah enter and where they exit, then in all the other gates of Jerusalem.<sup>20</sup>Say to them, 'Hear the word of Yahweh, kings of Judah and all you people of Judah, and every resident of Jerusalem who comes in through these gates.

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh says this: "Be careful for the sake of your lives and do not carry a burden on the Sabbath day to bring it to the gates of Jerusalem.<sup>22</sup>Do not bring a load out from your house on the Sabbath day. Do not do any work, but set apart the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors to do."<sup>23</sup>They did not listen or pay attention, but stiffened their neck so they would not hear me nor accept discipline.

<sup>24</sup>It will happen that if you truly listen to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do not bring a load to the gates of this city on the Sabbath day but instead set apart the Sabbath day and not do any work on it,<sup>25</sup> then kings, princes, and those who sit on David's throne will come to the gates of this city in chariots and with horses, they and their leaders, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever.

<sup>26</sup>They will come from the cities of Judah and from all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and the lowlands, from the mountains, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, thank offerings to the house of Yahweh.<sup>27</sup>But if you do not listen to me—to set apart the Sabbath day and to not carry heavy loads and to not enter the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day—then I will light a fire in its gates, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem, and it cannot be put out."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Arise and go out to the potter's house, for I will have you hear my word there." <sup>3</sup>So I went out to the potter's house, and behold! The potter was working on the potter's wheel. <sup>4</sup>But the pot he was making from the clay was ruined in the potter's hand, so he returned the clay and formed it into another pot, and he made that pot an object that was pleasing in his eyes.

<sup>5</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>6</sup>"Should I not be able to act like this potter with you, house of Israel?—this is Yahweh's declaration. Behold! Like clay in a potter's hand—that is how you are in my hand, house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>At one moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will drive it out, tear it down, or destroy it. <sup>8</sup>But if the nation about which I have made that proclamation turns from its evil, then I will relent from the disaster that I was planning to bring upon it.

<sup>9</sup>At another moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will build it up or plant it. <sup>10</sup>But if it does evil in my eyes by not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had said I would do for them.

<sup>11</sup>So now, speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to form disaster against you. I am about to devise a plan against you. Repent, each person from his wicked way, so your ways and your practices will bring good to you.' <sup>12</sup>But they will say, 'This is no use. We will act according to our own plans. Each one of us will do what his evil, stubborn heart desires.'

<sup>13</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this,

'Ask the nations,
who has ever heard of such a thing as this?
The virgin Israel has committed a horrible act.

<sup>14</sup> Does the snow in Lebanon ever leave the rocky hills on its sides?
Are the mountain streams coming from far away ever destroyed, those cold streams?

<sup>15</sup> Yet my people have forgotten me.
They have made offerings to useless idols
and been made to stumble in their paths;
they have left the ancient paths
to walk lesser paths.

<sup>16</sup> Their land will become a horror,
an object of everlasting hissing.
Everyone who passes by her will be astonished and shake his head.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them before their enemies like an eastern wind.
I will show them my back, and not my face,
on the day of their disaster.'"

<sup>18</sup>So the people said, "Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah, since the law will never perish from the priests, or advice from the wise men, or words from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our words and no longer pay attention to anything he proclaims."

and listen to the voice of my enemies.

<sup>20</sup> Will disaster from them really be my reward for being good to them?
For they have dug a pit for me.
Remember how I stood before you to speak for their welfare,
to cause your fury to turn away from them.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore give their children over to famine,
and give them to the hands of those who use the sword.

So let their women become bereaved and widows,
and their men be killed,
and their young men killed by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let a distressed shout be heard from their houses,
as you suddenly bring raiders against them.

For they have dug a pit to capture me
and have hidden traps for my feet.

<sup>23</sup> But you, Yahweh
you know all of their plans against me to kill me.

Do not forgive their iniquities.

Do not wipe their sins away from you.

Let them be overthrown before you.

Act against them in the time of your wrath.

---

Chapter 19

<sup>4</sup>I will do this because they have abandoned me and profaned this place. In this place they offer sacrifices to other gods that they did not know. They, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have also filled this place with innocent blood.<sup>5</sup> They built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to him—something that I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, see, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when this place will no longer be called Topheth, the Valley of Ben Hinnom, for it will be the Valley of Slaughter.<sup>7</sup> In this place I will make the plans of Judah and Jerusalem useless. I will make them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of the ones seeking their lives. Then I will give their corpses as food to the birds of the heavens and the wild animals of the earth.<sup>8</sup> Then I will make this city a ruin and the object of hissing, for everyone passing by it will be astonished and hiss regarding all of its plagues.<sup>9</sup> I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters; each man will consume the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the distress with which their enemies and the ones seeking their lives distress them."

<sup>10</sup>Then you will break the clay flask in the sight of the men who went with you.<sup>11</sup> You will say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: I will do this same thing to this people and this city—this is Yahweh's declaration—just as Jeremiah shattered the clay flask so that it could not be repaired again. People will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no place left for any more dead.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah went from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of the house of Yahweh and he said to all the people,<sup>15</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to bring to this city and to all of its towns all the disaster that I have proclaimed against it, since they stiffened their neck and refused to listen to my words.'"

Chapter 20

<sup>3</sup>It happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but you are Magor Missabib.<sup>4</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'Look, I will make you an object of horror, you and all of your loved ones, for they will fall by the sword of their enemies and your eyes will see it. I will give all of Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will make them captives in Babylon or attack them with the sword.

<sup>5</sup>I will give him all the wealth of this city and all the products of its labor, all of its precious items, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. I will place these things in the hand of your enemies, and they will plunder them. They will seize them and bring them to Babylon.<sup>6</sup>But you, Pashhur, and all the inhabitants of your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon and die there. You and all of your loved ones to whom you prophesied deceitful things will be buried there."

You are stronger than I,
and you overpowered me.

I have become a laughingstock all day long;
everyone mocks me.

<sup>8</sup> For whenever I have spoken,
I have called out and proclaimed,
'Violence and destruction.'

So the word of Yahweh
has brought me insult and mocking all the day.

<sup>9</sup> If I say, 'I will not think about Yahweh anymore.
I will not speak any longer in his name.'

Then it is like a burning fire in my heart,
held within my bones.
So I struggle to contain it but I cannot.

<sup>10</sup> I have heard rumors of terror from many people all around.
'Report! We must report it!'

Every one of my men of peace watches to see if I will fall.
'Perhaps he can be tricked.

If so, we can overpower him
and take our revenge on him.'

<sup>11</sup> But Yahweh is with me like a terrifying warrior, so the ones pursuing me will stagger.

They will not defeat me.
They will be greatly ashamed,
because they will not succeed.
They will have unending shame,
it will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup> But Yahweh of hosts,
you examine the righteous and see the mind and the heart.

Let me see your vengeance on them for I have committed my cause to you.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to Yahweh!

Praise Yahweh!
For he has rescued the lives of those who are oppressed from the hand of evildoers.

- <sup>14</sup> Let the day when I was born be cursed.
Do not let the day that my mother bore me be blessed.
- <sup>15</sup> Let the man who brought the joyful news
to my father be cursed,
the one who said,
'A male child has been born to you,' causing great joy.
- <sup>16</sup> Let that man be like the cities that Yahweh overthrew and he did not have compassion on them.
Let him hear a cry for help in the dawn,
a battle cry at noontime,
- <sup>17</sup> because he did not kill me in the womb,
making my mother to be my tomb,
a womb that was pregnant forever.
- <sup>18</sup> Why is it that I came out from the womb
to see troubles and agony,
so that my days are filled with shame?"

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him, and they said,<sup>2</sup>"Seek advice from Yahweh on our behalf, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us. Perhaps Yahweh will do miracles for us, as in times past, and will make him withdraw from us."

<sup>3</sup>So Jeremiah said to them, "This is what you must say to Zedekiah,<sup>4</sup>Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to turn back the instruments of war that are in your hand, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are closing you in from outside the walls! For I will gather them in the middle of this city.<sup>5</sup>Then I myself will fight against you with a raised hand and a strong arm, and with wrath, fury, and great anger.

<sup>8</sup>Then to this people you must say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to place before you the way of life and the way of death.<sup>9</sup>Anyone staying in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague; but anyone going out and falling on his knees before the Chaldeans who have closed in against you will live. His life will be his loot.<sup>10</sup>For I have set my face against this city in order to bring disaster and not to bring good—this is Yahweh's declaration. It has been given into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it.'

'Bring about justice in the morning.
Rescue the one who has been robbed
by the hand of the oppressor,
or my fury will go out like fire and burn,
and there is no one who can quench it,
because of the wickedness of your practices.

<sup>13</sup> See, inhabitant of the valley!
I am against you, rock of the plain—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
I am against anyone who is saying,
"Who will come down to attack us?"
or "Who will enter our houses?"

<sup>14</sup> I have assigned the fruit of your practices to come against you—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
and I will light a fire in the thickets, and it will consume everything around it.'"

Chapter 22

<sup>4</sup>For if you truly do these things, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter the gates of this house riding in a chariot and on horses—he, his servants, and his people!<sup>5</sup>But if you do not listen to these words, then I have sworn by myself—this is Yahweh's declaration—that this royal house will become a ruin."

'You are like Gilead,
or like the summit of Lebanon to me.
Yet I will turn you into a wilderness,
into cities with no inhabitants.

<sup>7</sup> For I have appointed destroyers to come against you!
Men with their weapons
will cut off the best of your cedars and let them fall into the fire.

<sup>8</sup>Then many nations will pass by this city. Each person will say to the next, "Why has Yahweh acted in this way toward this great city?"<sup>9</sup>Then the other will answer, "Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God and bowed down to other gods and worshiped them."

<sup>10</sup> Do not weep for the one who is dead or mourn for him;
but weep bitterly for him who is about to go away,
because he will never return
and see the land of his birth again.'

<sup>11</sup>For Yahweh says this about Shallum son of Josiah king of Judah, who served as king instead of Josiah his father, 'He has gone from this place and will not come back.<sup>12</sup>He will die there in the place to where they have exiled him, and he will never again see this land.'

<sup>13</sup> Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice,
who makes his neighbor work for him for nothing,
and he does not give him his wages;

<sup>14</sup> he says, 'I will build for myself a large house with spacious upper rooms.'
So he cuts out large windows for it,
and he panels it with cedar, and he paints it red.

<sup>15</sup> Is this what makes you a good king,
that you wanted to have boards of cedar?
Did not your father also eat and drink,
yet do justice and righteousness?
Then things went well for him.

<sup>16</sup> He judged in favor of the poor and needy.
It was good then.
Is this not what it means to know me?
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>17</sup>But there is nothing in your eyes and heart except worry for your unjust profit and for pouring out innocent blood, for producing oppression and crushing of others.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore this is what Yahweh says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not lament for him, saying,
'Woe, my brother!' or 'Woe, my sister!'
They will not lament for him, saying,
'Woe, master!' or 'Woe, majesty!'

<sup>19</sup>He will be buried with a donkey's burial, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>Go up Lebanon's mountains and shout.
Lift your voice in Bashan.
Shout from the Abarim mountains,
for all of your friends will be destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>I spoke to you when you were safe,
but you said, 'I will not listen.'
This was your custom since your youth,
for you have not listened to my voice.

<sup>22</sup>The wind will shepherd away all your shepherds,
and your friends will go into captivity.
Then you will certainly be ashamed and humiliated
by all of your evil deeds.

<sup>23</sup>You who live in 'Lebanon,' who is nestled in cedar buildings, how you will be pitied when the labor pains come upon you,
pain like that of a woman in labor!

<sup>24</sup>"As I live—this is Yahweh's declaration—even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on my right hand, I would tear you off.<sup>25</sup> For I have given you to the hand of the ones seeking your life and to the hand of those before whom you are afraid, even to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans.<sup>26</sup> I will throw you and your mother who bore you into another land, a country where you were not born, and there you will die.

<sup>27</sup>About this land to which they will want to return, they will not come back here.

<sup>28</sup>Is this a despised and shattered vessel?
Is this man Jehoiachin a pot that pleases no one?
Why have they thrown him and his descendants out,
and have poured them out into a land that they did not know?

<sup>29</sup>Land, Land, Land!
Hear the word of Yahweh!

<sup>30</sup>Yahweh says this,
'Write about this man Jehoiachin:
He will be childless.
He will not prosper during his days,
and no one among his descendants will achieve success or ever again sit on David's throne and rule over Judah.'"

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>"Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture—this is Yahweh's declaration."<sup>2</sup>Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this concerning the shepherds who are shepherding his people, "You have scattered my flock and have driven them away. You have not cared for them. So I am about to punish you for the wickedness of your practices—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>3</sup>I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all of the lands where I have driven them, and I will return them to a grazing place, where they will be fruitful and increase.<sup>4</sup>Then I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them so they will no longer fear or be dismayed. None of them will go missing—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>5</sup> See, the days are coming
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—when I will raise up for David a righteous branch.

He will reign as king;
he will act wisely
and cause justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6</sup> In his days Judah will be rescued,
and Israel will live in security.
Then this is the name by which he will be called:
Yahweh is our righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when they will no longer say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought the people of Israel up from the land of Egypt.'<sup>8</sup>Instead they will say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led back the descendants of the house of Israel from the northern land and all the lands where I had driven them.' Then they will live in their own land."

<sup>9</sup>Regarding the prophets,
my heart is broken in me,
and all of my bones tremble.
I have become like a drunk man,
like a man whom wine has overpowered,
because of Yahweh and his holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers.
Because of the curse the land mourns.
The meadows in the wilderness dry up.
These prophets' paths are wicked;
their power is not used in a right manner.

<sup>11</sup> "For both the prophets and the priests are polluted.
I even found their wickedness in my house!
—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>12</sup> therefore their way will be like a slippery place in the darkness.
They will be pushed down.
They will fall in it.
For I will send disaster against them
in the year of their punishment
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>13</sup> For I have seen the prophets in Samaria doing what is repulsive:

- They prophesied by Baal
and led my people Israel astray.
- <sup>14</sup> Among the prophets in Jerusalem
I have seen horrible things:
They commit adultery and walk in deceit.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers;
no one turns back from his wickedness.
All of them have become like Sodom to me and its inhabitants like Gomorrah!"
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this concerning the prophets,
"Look, I am about to make them eat wormwood and drink poisonous water, for pollution has gone out from the prophets of Jerusalem to all the land."
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh of hosts says this,
"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They are leading you into vanity!
They are announcing visions from their own minds,
not from Yahweh's mouth.
- <sup>17</sup> They are constantly saying to those who dishonor me,
'Yahweh declares there will be peace for you.'
For everyone walking
in the stubbornness of his own heart says,
'Disaster will not come upon you.'
- <sup>18</sup> Yet who has stood in Yahweh's council meeting?
Who sees and hears his word?
Who pays attention to his word and listens?
- <sup>19</sup> See, there is a storm coming from Yahweh!
His fury is going out, and a tempest is whirling about.
It is whirling around the heads of the wicked.
- <sup>20</sup> Yahweh's wrath will not return
until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's purposes.
In the final days,
you will understand it.
- <sup>21</sup> I did not send out these prophets,
but they ran.
I did not proclaim anything to them,
but they have still prophesied.
- <sup>22</sup> For if they had stood in my council meeting,
they would have caused my people to hear my word;
they would have caused them to turn from their wicked words and from the wickedness of their practices.
- <sup>23</sup> Am I only a God nearby
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—and not also a God far away?
- <sup>24</sup> Can anyone hide in a secret place so I cannot see him?
—this is Yahweh's declaration—
and do I not fill the heavens and the earth?
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>25</sup>I have heard what the prophets have said, those who were prophesying deceit in my name. They said, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!' <sup>26</sup>How long will this go on, prophets who prophesy lies from their minds, and who prophesy from the deceit in their hearts? <sup>27</sup>They are planning on making my people forget my name with the dreams that they report, each one to his neighbor, just as their ancestors forgot my name in favor of Baal's name.

<sup>28</sup>The prophet who has a dream, let him report the dream. But the one to whom I have declared something, let him declare my word truthfully. What does straw have to do with grain?—this is Yahweh's declaration—<sup>29</sup>Is not my word like fire?—this is Yahweh's declaration—and like a hammer that shatters a rock into pieces? <sup>30</sup>So see, I am against the prophets—this is Yahweh's declaration—anyone who steals words from another person and says they come from me.

<sup>32</sup>See, I am against the prophets who dream deceitfully—this is Yahweh's declaration—and then proclaim them and in this way mislead my people with their deceit and boasting. I am against them, for I have not sent them out nor given them commands. So they will certainly not help this people—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup>When these people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, 'What is the burden of Yahweh?' you will say to them, 'You are the burden, and I will cast you off'—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>34</sup>As for the prophets, priests, and people who are saying, 'This is the burden of Yahweh' I will punish that man and his house.

<sup>35</sup>You continue to say, each person to his neighbor and each man to his brother, 'What did Yahweh answer?' and 'What did Yahweh declare?' <sup>36</sup>But you must no longer talk about the 'burden of Yahweh,' for the burden is every man's own word, and you have perverted the words of the living God, Yahweh of hosts, our God.

<sup>37</sup>This is what you will say to the prophet, 'What answer did Yahweh give you?' or 'What did Yahweh say?' <sup>38</sup>But if you say, 'The burden of Yahweh,' this is what Yahweh says: 'Because you have said these words, 'The burden of Yahweh,' when I sent to you, saying, 'You will not say, "The burden of Yahweh,"' <sup>39</sup>therefore, behold, I am about to pick you up and throw you away from me, along with the city that I gave you and your ancestors. <sup>40</sup>Then I will put everlasting disgrace and everlasting shame on you that will not be forgotten.'"

Chapter 24

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: I will look on the exiles of Judah for their benefit, just like these good figs, the exiles whom I have sent out from this place to the land of Chaldea.<sup>6</sup>I will set my eyes on them for good and restore them to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down. I will plant them, and not uproot them.<sup>7</sup>Then I will give them a heart to know me, for I am Yahweh. They will be my people and I will be their God, so they will turn to me with all their heart.

<sup>8</sup>But like the bad figs that are too bad to be eaten—this is what Yahweh says—I will act in this way with Zedekiah, king of Judah, with his officials, and with the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land or go to stay in the land of Egypt.<sup>9</sup>I will turn them into a terrifying thing, a disaster, in the sight of all the kingdoms on earth, a disgrace and a subject for proverbs, taunts, and curses in every place where I will have driven them.<sup>10</sup>I will send out sword, famine, and plague against them, until they are destroyed from the land that I gave them and their ancestors."

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah. That was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon.<sup>2</sup>Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed this to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>He said, "For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah until this day, Yahweh's words have been coming to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh sent out all his servants the prophets to you again and again, but you have not listened or turned your ear to hear.

<sup>5</sup>These prophets said, 'Let each man turn from his wicked way and the wickedness of his practices and return to the land that Yahweh gave in ancient times to your ancestors and to you, as a permanent gift.<sup>6</sup>So do not walk after other gods to worship them or bow down to them, and do not provoke him with the work of your hands so that he does you harm.'

<sup>7</sup>But you have not listened to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—so you have provoked me with the work of your hands to do harm to you.<sup>8</sup>So Yahweh of hosts says this, 'Because you did not listen to my words,<sup>9</sup>see, I am about to send out a command to gather all the peoples of the north—this is Yahweh's declaration—with Nebuchadnezzar my servant, king of Babylon, and bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all the nations around you. For I will set them apart for destruction. I will turn them into a horror, an object for hissing, and an unending desolation.

<sup>10</sup>I will put an end to the sound of joy and sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.<sup>11</sup>Then all of this land will become a desolation and a horror, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup>Then it will happen when seventy years have been completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans—this is Yahweh's declaration—for their iniquity and make it an unending desolation.<sup>13</sup>Then I will carry out against that land all the words that I had spoken, and everything written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.<sup>14</sup>For also many other nations and great kings will make slaves out of these nations. I will repay them for their deeds and the works of their hands.'"

<sup>15</sup>For Yahweh, God of Israel, said this to me, "Take this cup of the wine of fury from my hand and make all the nations to which I am sending you drink it.<sup>16</sup>For they will drink and then stagger about and rant madly before the sword that I am sending out among them."

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup from Yahweh's hand, and I made all the nations to which Yahweh had sent me drink it:

<sup>18</sup>Jerusalem, the cities of Judah and her kings and officials—to turn them into ruins and a waste, and into an object for hissing and cursing, as they are at this present day.

<sup>27</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Now you must say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Drink and become drunk, then vomit, fall down, and do not rise before the sword that I am sending among you.'<sup>28</sup>Then it will happen that if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, you will say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: You must certainly drink it.<sup>29</sup>For see, I am about to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and should you yourselves be free from punishment? You will not be free, for I am calling a sword against all the inhabitants of the land!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.'

<sup>30</sup>You must prophesy all these words against them, and say to them,
'Yahweh will roar from the heights and he will shout with his voice from his holy dwelling,

 and he will roar mightily against his fold;
 and he will shout, like those who tread the grapes against all those who live on the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The sound of battle will resound to the ends of the earth, for Yahweh brings charges against the nations,
 and he brings judgment on all flesh,
 and the wicked ones he will put to the sword
 —this is Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>32</sup> Yahweh of hosts says this,
 'See, disaster is going out from nation to nation,
 and a great storm is beginning from the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>33</sup> Then those killed by Yahweh will on that day extend from one end of the earth to the other; they will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like dung on the ground.

<sup>34</sup> Wail, shepherds, and shout for help!
 Roll about in the dust, you noblemen of the flock,
 for the days of your slaughter have come;
 you will be scattered when you fall like fine pottery.

<sup>35</sup> There is no refuge for the shepherds,
 there will be no escape for the noblemen of the flock.

<sup>36</sup> Hear the outcry of the shepherds and the wails of the noblemen of the flock,
 for Yahweh is destroying their pastures.

<sup>37</sup> So the peaceful pastures will be devastated because of Yahweh's fierce anger.

<sup>38</sup> Like a young lion, he has left his den,
 for their land will become a horror
 because of the oppressor's anger, because of his angry wrath.'" <sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> Instead of the oppressor's anger , some ancient Hebrew copies and some modern translations have the oppressor's sword .

<sup>2</sup>"Yahweh says this: Stand in the courtyard of my house and speak about all the cities of Judah who come to worship at my house. Proclaim all the words that I have commanded you to say to them. Do not cut short any word!<sup>3</sup>It may be that they will listen, that each man will turn from his wicked ways, so I will relent concerning the disaster that I am planning to bring on them because of the wickedness of their deeds.

<sup>4</sup>So you must say to them, 'Yahweh says this: If you do not listen to me so as to walk in my law that I have placed before you—<sup>5</sup>if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I am persistently sending to you—but you have not listened!—<sup>6</sup>then I will make this house like Shiloh; I will turn this city into a curse in the sight of all the nations on earth.'"

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah announcing these words in the house of Yahweh.<sup>8</sup>So it happened that when Jeremiah had finished announcing all that Yahweh commanded him to say to all the people, the priests, prophets, and all the people seized him and said, "You will certainly die!<sup>9</sup>Why have you prophesied in Yahweh's name and said that this house will become like Shiloh and this city will become desolate, with no inhabitant?" For all the people had assembled together against Jeremiah in the house of Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>Then the officials of Judah heard these words and went up from the house of the king to the house of Yahweh. They sat in the gateway at the New Gate of the house of Yahweh.<sup>11</sup>The priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people. They said, "It is right for this man to die, for he prophesied against this city, just as you heard with your own ears!"<sup>12</sup>So Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people and said, "Yahweh has sent me out to prophesy against this house and this city, to say all the words that you have heard.

<sup>13</sup>So now, improve your ways and your practices, and listen to the voice of Yahweh your God so that he will relent concerning the disaster that he has proclaimed against you.<sup>14</sup>I myself—look at me!—am in your hand. Do to me what is good and right in your eyes.<sup>15</sup>But you must surely know that if you kill me, then you are bringing innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and its inhabitants, for Yahweh has truly sent me to you to proclaim all these words for your ears."

<sup>16</sup>Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, "It is not right for this man to die, for he has proclaimed things to us in the name of Yahweh our God."<sup>17</sup>Then men from the elders of the land rose up and spoke to the entire assembly of the people.

<sup>18</sup>They said, "Micah of Moresheth was prophesying in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He spoke to all the people of Judah and said, 'Yahweh of hosts says this:

Zion will become a plowed field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the hill of the temple will become a thicket.'

<sup>19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all of Judah put him to death? Did he not fear Yahweh and appease the face of Yahweh so that Yahweh would relent concerning the disaster that he proclaimed to them? So will we do greater evil against our own lives?"

<sup>20</sup>Meanwhile there was another man who prophesied in the name of Yahweh—Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim—he also prophesied against this city and this land, agreeing with all of Jeremiah's words.<sup>21</sup>But when King Jehoiakim and all his soldiers and officials heard his word, then the king tried to put him to death, but Uriah heard and was afraid, so he ran away and went to Egypt.

<sup>23</sup>They took Uriah out from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim. Then Jehoiakim killed him with a sword and sent his corpse out to the graves of the ordinary people.<sup>24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so he was not given into the hand of the people to be put to death.

Chapter 27

<sup>5</sup>"I myself made the earth by my great strength and my raised arm. I also made men and animals on the earth, and I give it to anyone who is right in my eyes.<sup>6</sup>So now, I myself am giving all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, my servant. Also, I am giving the living things in the fields to him to serve him.<sup>7</sup>For all the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his land comes. Then many nations and great kings will subdue him.

<sup>8</sup>So the nation and the kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and that does not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon—I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with the plague—this is Yahweh's declaration—until I have destroyed it by his hand.

<sup>9</sup>So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, and sorcerers, who have been speaking to you and saying, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon.'<sup>10</sup>For they are prophesying deceit to you in order to send you far away from your lands, for I will drive you away, and you will die.<sup>11</sup>But the nation that places its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow it to rest in its land—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they will cultivate it and make their homes in it.'"

<sup>12</sup>So I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah and gave him this message, "Place your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and you will live.<sup>13</sup>Why will you die—you and your people—by the sword, famine, and plague, just as I have declared about the nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon?

<sup>14</sup>Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you and say, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you.<sup>15</sup>For I have not sent them out—this is Yahweh's declaration—for they are prophesying deceit in my name so that I will drive you out and you will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.'"

<sup>16</sup>I proclaimed this to the priests and all the people and said, "Yahweh says this: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you and say, 'Look! The objects belonging to the house of Yahweh are being returned from Babylon now!' They are prophesying lies to you.<sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them. You should serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a ruin?<sup>18</sup>If they are prophets, and if the word of Yahweh has truly come to them, let them beg Yahweh of hosts not to send to Babylon the objects that remain in his house, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this about the pillars, the large basin known as "The Sea" and its base, and the rest of the objects that remain in this city—<sup>20</sup>the objects that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about the objects that remain in the house of Yahweh, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem,<sup>22</sup>"They will be brought to Babylon, and they will remain there until the day I have set to come for them—this is Yahweh's declaration—then I will bring them up and restore them to this place."

<sup>1</sup>Although most Hebrew copies have Jehoiakim, most modern translations have Zedekiah, because the events in this chapter occur during his reign.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>It happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azzur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Yahweh in front of the priests and all the people. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: I have broken the yoke imposed by the king of Babylon.

<sup>3</sup>Within two years I will bring back to this place all the objects belonging to the house of Yahweh house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from this place and transported to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>Then I will bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the captives of Judah who were sent to Babylon—this is Yahweh's declaration—for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

<sup>5</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Hananiah the prophet in front of the priests and to all the people who stood in the house of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>Jeremiah the prophet said, "Let it be so! May Yahweh confirm the words that you prophesied and bring back to this place the objects belonging to the house of Yahweh and all the captives from Babylon. <sup>7</sup>However, listen to the word that I am proclaiming in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.

<sup>8</sup>The prophets who existed before me and you from long ago also prophesied about many nations and against great kingdoms, about war, famine <sup>1</sup>, and plague. <sup>9</sup>So the prophet who prophesies that there will be peace—if his word comes true, then it will be known that he is indeed a prophet sent out by Yahweh."

<sup>10</sup>But Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. <sup>11</sup>Then Hananiah spoke in front of all the people and said, "Yahweh says this: Just like this, within two years I will break from off the neck of every nation the yoke imposed by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon." Then Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.

<sup>15</sup>Next Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen Hananiah! Yahweh has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup>So Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to send you out from the earth. You will die this year, since you proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh." <sup>17</sup>In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient copies have disaster instead of famine .

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>These are the words in the scroll that Jeremiah the prophet sent out from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the captives and to the priests, prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon.<sup>2</sup>This was after Jehoiachin the king, the queen mother, and the high officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen had been sent away from Jerusalem.<sup>3</sup>He sent this scroll by the hand of Elasah son of Shapan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, had sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>The scroll said, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this to all the captives whom I caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon,<sup>5</sup>Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit.

<sup>6</sup>Take wives and give birth to sons and daughters. Then take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands. Let them give birth to sons and daughters and increase there so you do not become too few.<sup>7</sup>Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be exiled, and intercede with me on its behalf since there will be peace for you if it is at peace.'

<sup>8</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'Do not let your prophets who are in your midst and your diviners deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that you encourage them to dream.<sup>9</sup>For they are prophesying deceitfully to you in my name. I did not send them—this is Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>10</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'When Babylon has ruled you for seventy years, I will help you and carry out my good word for you to bring you back to this place.<sup>11</sup>For I myself know the plans that I have for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—plans for peace and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will call to me, and go and pray to me, and I will listen to you.<sup>13</sup>For you will seek me and find me, since you will seek me with all your heart.<sup>14</sup>Then I will be found by you—this is Yahweh's declaration—and I will reverse your captivity; I will gather you from all the nations and places where I scattered you—this is Yahweh's declaration—for I will bring you back to the place from where I caused you to be exiled.'

<sup>15</sup>Since you said that Yahweh has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,<sup>16</sup>Yahweh says this to the king who sits on the throne of David and to all the people who are staying in that city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into captivity—<sup>17</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this, 'See, I am about to send sword, famine, and plague on them. For I will make them like rotten figs that are too bad to be eaten.

<sup>18</sup>Then I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and make them a terrifying thing to all the kingdoms on earth—a horror, an object of curses and hissing, and a shameful thing among all the nations where I scattered her.<sup>19</sup>This is because they did not listen to my word—this is Yahweh's declaration—that I sent out to them through my servants the prophets. I repeatedly sent them, but you would not listen—this is Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy falsely to you in my name: See, I am about to put them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will kill them before your eyes.

<sup>22</sup>Then a curse will be spoken about these persons by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon. The curse will say: "May Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire."<sup>23</sup>This will happen because of the disgraceful things they did in Israel when they committed adultery with their neighbor's wives and declared false words in my name, things that I never commanded them to say. For I am the one who knows; I am the witness—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>24</sup>About Shemaiah the Nehelamite, say this:<sup>25</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Because you sent out letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, and said,<sup>26</sup>"Yahweh has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, for you to be the overseer of the house of Yahweh. You are in control of all the people who rave and make themselves into prophets. You should put them in stocks and chains.

<sup>27</sup>So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself into a prophet against you?<sup>28</sup>For he has sent to us in Babylon and said, 'It will be a long time. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.'"<sup>29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>30</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>31</sup>"Send word to all the exiles and say, 'Yahweh says this about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you when I myself did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup>therefore Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be a man for him to stay among this people. He will not see the good that I will do for my people—this is Yahweh's declaration—for he has proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh.'"

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"This is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says, 'Write in a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup>For look, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will reverse the captivity of my people, Israel and Judah. I, Yahweh, have said it. For I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will possess it.'"

<sup>4</sup>These are the words that Yahweh declared concerning Israel and Judah, <sup>5</sup>"For Yahweh says this,

'We have heard a trembling voice of dread and not of peace.

<sup>6</sup> Ask and see if a man bears a child.
Why do I see every young man with his hand on his loins like a woman bearing a child?
Why have all their faces become pale?

<sup>7</sup> Woe! For that day will be great,
with none like it.
It will be a time of distress for Jacob,
but he will be rescued from it.

<sup>8</sup> For it will be in that day
—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts
—that I will break the yoke off your neck,
and I will shatter your chains,
so foreigners will no longer enslave you.

<sup>9</sup> But they will worship Yahweh their God and serve David their king, whom I will make king over them.

<sup>10</sup> So you, my servant Jacob, do not fear
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—and do not be dismayed, Israel.
For see, I am about to deliver you from the faraway place,
and your descendants from the land of captivity.
Jacob will return and be at ease;
he will rest secure,
and there will be no more terror.

<sup>11</sup> For I am with you
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—to save you.
Then I will bring a complete end
to all the nations where I have scattered you.
But I will certainly not put an end to you,
though I discipline you justly
and will certainly not leave you unpunished.'

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh says this,
'Your injury is incurable;
your wound is infected.

<sup>13</sup> There is no one to plead your case;
there is no remedy for your wound to heal you.

<sup>14</sup> All of your lovers have forgotten you.
They will not look for you,
for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy

- and the discipline of a cruel master because of your many iniquities
and your numerous sins.
- <sup>15</sup> Why do you call for help for your injury?
Your pain is incurable.
Because of your many iniquities,
your numerous sins,
I have done these things to you.
- <sup>16</sup> So everyone who consumes you will be consumed,
and all of your adversaries will go into captivity.
For the ones who have plundered you will become plunder,
and I will make all of the ones despoiling you a spoil.
- <sup>17</sup> For I will bring healing on you;
I will heal you of your wounds
—this is Yahweh's declaration—
I will do this because they called you:
Outcast. No one cares for this Zion."
- <sup>18</sup> Yahweh says this,
"See, I am about to bring back the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes.
Then a city will be built on the heap of ruins,
and a stronghold will exist again where it used to be.
- <sup>19</sup> Then a song of praise and a sound of merriment will go out from them,
for I will increase them and not diminish them;
I will honor them so they will not be humbled.
- <sup>20</sup> Then their people will be like before,
and their assembly will be established before me
when I punish all the ones who are now oppressing them.
- <sup>21</sup> Their ruler will come from among them.
He will emerge from their midst
when I draw him near and when he approaches me.
If I do not do this,
who would dare come close to me?
—this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>22</sup> Then you will be my people,
and I will be your God.
- <sup>23</sup> See, the tempest of Yahweh,
his fury, has gone out.
It is a continual tempest.
It will whirl on the heads of the wicked people.
- <sup>24</sup> Yahweh's wrath will not return until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's purposes.
In the final days,
you will understand it."

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people."

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh says this,

"The people who have survived the sword
have found favor in the wilderness;
I will go out to give rest to Israel."

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh appeared to me in the past and said,
"I have loved you, Israel, with everlasting love.
So I have drawn you toward myself with covenant faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup> I will build you up again
so you will be built, virgin Israel.
You will again pick up your tambourine and go out with happy dances.

<sup>5</sup> You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria;
the farmers will plant and put the fruit to good use.

<sup>6</sup> For a day will come when the watchmen in the mountains of Ephraim will proclaim,
'Arise, let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.'

<sup>7</sup>For Yahweh says this,

"Shout for joy over Jacob!
Shout in gladness for the chief people of the nations!
Let praise be heard.
Say, 'Yahweh has rescued his people, the remnant of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> See, I am about to bring them from the northern lands.
I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth.
The blind and lame will be among them;
pregnant women and those who are about to give birth
will be with them.

A great assembly will return here.

<sup>9</sup> They will come weeping;
I will lead them as they make their pleas.
I will have them journey to streams of water on a straight road.
They will not stumble on it,
for I will be a Father to Israel,
and Ephraim will be my firstborn.

<sup>10</sup> "Hear the word of Yahweh, nations.
Report along the coasts in the distance.
You nations must say,

'The one who scattered Israel is gathering her up and keeping her as a shepherd keeps his sheep.'

<sup>11</sup> For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from the hand that was too strong for him.

<sup>12</sup> Then they will come and rejoice on the heights of Zion.

Their faces will shine because of Yahweh's goodness,
 over the grain and the new wine,
 over the oil and the offspring of the flocks and herds.
 For their lives will become like a watered garden,
 and they will never again feel any more sorrow.
<sup>13</sup> Then virgins will rejoice with dancing,
 and young and old men will be together.
 For I will change their mourning into celebration.
 I will comfort them and give them joy for their sorrow.
<sup>14</sup> Then I will saturate the lives of the priests with abundance.
 My people will fill themselves with my goodness
 —this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh says this
 "A voice is heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping.
 It is Rachel weeping for her children.
 She refuses to be comforted over them,
 for they live no longer."

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh says this,
 "Hold your voice back from weeping and your eyes from tears;
 there is a reward for your work
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —your children will return from the land of the enemy.
<sup>17</sup> There is hope for your future
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —your descendants will return inside their borders.

<sup>18</sup> "I have certainly heard Ephraim sorrowing,
 'You punished me,
 and I have been punished like an untrained calf.
 Bring me back and I will be brought back,
 for you are Yahweh my God.
<sup>19</sup> For after I turned back to you, I repented;
 after I was trained, I slapped my thigh.
 I was ashamed and humiliated,
 for I have borne the disgrace of my youth.'
<sup>20</sup> Is not Ephraim my precious child?
 Is he not my dear, delightful son?
 For whenever I speak against him,
 I certainly still call him to my loving mind.
 In this way my heart longs for him.
 I will certainly have compassion on him

<sup>21</sup> Place road signs for yourself.
 Set up guideposts for yourself.
 Set your mind on the right path,
 the way you should take.
 Come back, virgin Israel!
 Come back to these cities of yours.

<sup>22</sup> How long will you waver, faithless daughter?
For Yahweh has created something new on earth
—a woman surrounds a strong man.

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, "When I reverse their captivity, they will say this in the land of Judah and its cities, 'May Yahweh bless you, you righteous place where he lives, you holy mountain.'<sup>24</sup>For Judah and all its cities will live together there, as will farmers and those who set out with flocks.<sup>25</sup>For I will cause those who are weary to drink their fill, and I fill up those who are faint."<sup>26</sup>After this I awoke, and I realized that my sleep had been refreshing.

<sup>27</sup>"Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will sow the houses of Israel and Judah with the seed of man and the seed of animals.<sup>28</sup>In the past, I kept them under surveillance in order to uproot them and to tear them down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring them harm. But in the coming days, I will watch over them, in order to build them up and to plant them—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>29</sup>In those days no one will say any longer,
'Fathers have eaten sour grapes,
but the children's teeth are dulled.'

<sup>30</sup>For each man will die in his own iniquity; everyone who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be dulled.

<sup>31</sup> Look, the days are coming—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It will not be like the covenant that I established with their fathers in the days when I took them by their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt, because they broke my covenant,
although I was a husband for them—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup> This is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel after these days
—this is Yahweh's declaration.
I will place my law within them
and will write it on their heart,
for I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup> Then each man will no longer teach his neighbor, or a man teach his brother and say, 'Know Yahweh!'
For all of them will know me, from the smallest of them to the greatest
—this is Yahweh's declaration—
for I will forgive their iniquity and will no longer call their sins to mind."

<sup>35</sup>Yahweh says this,
it is he who gives the sun for light by day and the ordinance of the moon and stars for light by night.
He is the one who sets the sea in motion
so that its waves roar—
Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>36</sup> "Only if these permanent things vanish from my sight

—this is Yahweh's declaration—
will Israel's descendants ever stop from forever being a nation before me."

<sup>37</sup>Yahweh says this,
"Only if the highest heavens can be measured,
and only if the earth's foundation below can be discovered, will I reject all of Israel's descendants because of all that they have done
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>38</sup>"Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when the city will be rebuilt for me, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>Then the measuring line will go out again farther, to the hill of Gareb and around Goah. <sup>40</sup>The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the terraced fields going out to the Kidron Valley as far as the corner of the Horse Gate on the east, will be set apart for Yahweh. The city will not be pulled up or overthrown again, forever."

Chapter 32

<sup>3</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him and said, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give over this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.'<sup>4</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, for he will certainly be given into the hand of the king of Babylon. His mouth will speak to the king's mouth, and his eyes will see the king's eyes.<sup>5</sup>He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will remain there until I have dealt with him—this is Yahweh's declaration. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed.'?"

<sup>8</sup>Then, as Yahweh had declared, Hanamel, the son of my uncle, came to me in the courtyard of the guard, and he said to me, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right of redemption belongs to you. Buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was Yahweh's word.<sup>9</sup>So I bought the field in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and I weighed out for him the silver, seventeen shekels in weight.

<sup>10</sup>Then I wrote in a scroll and sealed it, and had witnesses witness it. Then I weighed the silver in the scales.<sup>11</sup>Next I took the deed of purchase that was sealed, following the command and the statutes, as well as the unsealed deed.<sup>12</sup>I gave the sealed scroll to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah in front of Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and the witnesses who had written in the sealed scroll, and in front of all the Jews who sat in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>13</sup>So I gave a command to Baruch before them. I said,<sup>14</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Take these documents, both this receipt of purchase that is sealed and the unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last for a long time.<sup>15</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land."

<sup>17</sup>"Woe, Lord Yahweh! Look! You alone have made the heavens and the earth by your great strength and with your raised arm. Nothing you say is too difficult for you to do.<sup>18</sup>You show steadfast love to thousands and pour the guilt of fathers into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and mighty God; Yahweh of hosts is your name.

<sup>19</sup>You are great in wise counsel and mighty in deeds, for your eyes are open to all the ways of people, to give to each man what his conduct and deeds deserve.<sup>20</sup>You did signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. To this present day here in Israel and among all mankind, you have made your name famous.<sup>21</sup>For you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand, with a raised arm, and with great terror.

<sup>22</sup>Then you gave them this land—which you had sworn to their ancestors to give to them—a land flowing with milk and honey.<sup>23</sup>So they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or live in obedience to your law. They did nothing of what you had commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them.

<sup>24</sup>Look! The siege mounds have reached up to the city to capture it. For because of sword, famine, and plague, the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. For what you have said would happen is happening, and see, you are watching.<sup>25</sup>Then you, Lord Yahweh, said to me, "Purchase a field for yourself with silver and have witnesses witness it, even though this city is being given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

<sup>26</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying,<sup>27</sup>"Look! I am Yahweh, God of all mankind. Is anything too difficult for me to do?<sup>28</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He will capture it.

<sup>29</sup>The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come and set fire to this city and burn it, along with the houses on the roofs of which the people worshiped Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods in order to provoke me.<sup>30</sup>For the people of Israel and Judah have certainly been people who have been doing evil before my eyes since their youth. The people of Israel have certainly provoked me to anger with the works of their hands—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>31</sup>Yahweh declares that this city has been a provocation of my wrath and fury since the day that they built it. It has been that right up to this present day. So I will remove it from before my face<sup>32</sup>because of all the wickedness of the people of Israel and Judah, the things that they have done to provoke me—they, their kings, princes, priests, prophets, and every person in Judah and inhabitant of Jerusalem.

<sup>36</sup>So now therefore, I, Yahweh, the God of Israel, say this concerning this city, the city about which you are saying, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague.'<sup>37</sup>See, I am about to gather them from every land where I had driven them in my wrath, fury, and great anger. I am about to bring them back to this place and enable them to live in security.

<sup>38</sup>Then they will be my people, and I will be their God.<sup>39</sup>I will give them one heart and one way to honor me every day so it will be good for them and their descendants after them.<sup>40</sup>Then I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. I will set honor for me in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from me.

<sup>41</sup>Then I will rejoice in doing good to them. I will faithfully plant them in this land with all my heart and all my life.

<sup>42</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good things that I have said I would do for them.

<sup>43</sup>Then fields will be bought in this land, about which you are saying, "This is a ruined land, which has neither man nor animal. It has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."<sup>44</sup>They will buy fields with silver and write in sealed scrolls. They will assemble witnesses in the land of Benjamin, all around Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, in the cities in the hill country and in the lowlands, and in the cities of the Negev. For I will reverse their captivity—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 33

<sup>6</sup>But see, I am about to bring healing and a cure, for I will heal them and will bring to them abundance, peace, and faithfulness.<sup>7</sup>For I will reverse the captivity of Judah and Israel; I will build them up as in the beginning.<sup>8</sup>Then I will purify them from all the iniquity that they have committed against me. I will pardon all the iniquities that they have done against me, and all the ways that they rebelled against me.<sup>9</sup>For this city will become for me a joyful name, a song of praise and honor for all the nations of the earth who will hear of all the good things that I am going to do for it. Then they will fear and tremble because of all the good things and the peace that I will give to it.'

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh says this, 'In this place about which you are now saying, "It is desolate, a place with neither man nor animal," in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, having neither man nor animal, there will be heard again<sup>11</sup>the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of those who say, while they bring thank offerings to the house of Yahweh,

"Give thanks to Yahweh of hosts, for Yahweh is good,
and his unfailing love lasts forever!"

For I will reverse the captivity of the land to what they were before,' says Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: 'In this desolate place, where now there is neither man nor animal—in all its cities there will again be pastures where shepherds can rest their flocks.<sup>13</sup>In the cities in the hill country, the lowlands, and the Negev,in the land of Benjamin and all around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the ones counting them,' says Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>Look! Days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will do what I have promised for the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> In those days and in that time
I will make a righteous branch to grow for David, and he will carry out justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved,
and Jerusalem will live in security,
for this is what she will be called,
"Yahweh is our righteousness."

<sup>17</sup>For Yahweh says this: 'A man from David's line will never be lacking to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,
<sup>18</sup>nor will a man from the Levitical priests be lacking before me to raise burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to perform sacrifices all the time.'"

<sup>19</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>20</sup>"Yahweh says this: 'If you can break my covenant with day and night so that there will no longer be day or night at their proper times,<sup>21</sup>then you will be able to break my covenant with David my servant, so that he will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests, my servants.<sup>22</sup>As the hosts of heaven cannot be counted, and as the sand of the seashores cannot be measured, so I will increase the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who serve before me.'"

<sup>23</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Have you not considered what this people has declared when they said, 'The two families that Yahweh chose, now he has rejected them'? In this way they despise my people, saying that they are no longer a nation in their sight.

<sup>25</sup>I, Yahweh, say this, 'If I have not established the covenant of day and night, and if I have not fixed the laws of heaven and earth,<sup>26</sup> then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and not bring from them a person to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will reverse their captivity and show mercy to them.'"

Chapter 34

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all of his army, together with all the kingdoms of the earth, the domains under his dominion, and all their people were waging war against Jerusalem and all of her cities, saying:<sup>2</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, 'Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will burn it.<sup>3</sup>You will not escape from his hand, for you will certainly be seized and given into his hand. Your eyes will look at the eyes of the king of Babylon; he will speak directly to you as you go to Babylon.'

<sup>4</sup>Listen to the word of Yahweh, Zedekiah king of Judah! Yahweh says this concerning you, 'You will not die by the sword.<sup>5</sup>You will die in peace. As in the funeral burning of your ancestors, the kings who were before you, they will burn your body. They will say, "Woe, master!" They will lament for you. Now I have spoken—this is Yahweh's declaration.'"

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed to Zedekiah king of Judah all these words in Jerusalem.<sup>7</sup>The army of the king of Babylon made war against Jerusalem and all the remaining cities of Judah: Lachish and Azekah. These cities of Judah remained as fortified cities.

<sup>8</sup>The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem, to proclaim freedom to them,<sup>9</sup>that each man must send away his Hebrew slaves free, both male and female, so no one was to make a slave of a Jew, who was his brother.

<sup>10</sup>So all the leaders and people entered into the covenant that each person would free his male and female slaves so that they would not be enslaved any longer. They obeyed and set them free.<sup>11</sup>But after this they changed their minds. They brought back the slaves whom they had sent away free. They forced them to become slaves again.

<sup>12</sup>So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying,<sup>13</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, 'I myself made a covenant with your ancestors on the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out from the house of slavery. That was when I said,<sup>14</sup>"At the end of every seven years, each man must send away his brother, his fellow Hebrew who had sold himself to you and served you for six years. Send him away in freedom.'" But your ancestors did not listen to me or incline their ears to me.

<sup>15</sup>Now you yourselves repented and began to do what is right in my eyes. You proclaimed freedom, each man to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name.<sup>16</sup>But then you turned and polluted my name; you caused each man to bring back his male and female slaves, the ones whom you had sent away free. You forced them to become your slaves again.'

<sup>17</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'You yourselves have not listened to me. You should have proclaimed freedom, every one of you, to your brothers and fellow Israelites. So look! I am about to proclaim freedom to you—this is Yahweh's declaration—freedom from the sword, the plague, and famine, for I am going to make you a terrifying thing in the sight of every kingdom on earth.<sup>18</sup>Then I will deal with the people who have broken my covenant, who did not keep the words of the covenant that they established before me when they cut a bull in two and walked between its parts,<sup>19</sup>and then the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the eunuchs and the priests, and all the people of the land walked between the parts of the bull.

<sup>20</sup>I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their lives. Their corpses will be food for the birds of the skies and the wild animals on the earth.<sup>21</sup>So I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his leaders into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their life, and into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon that has risen up against you.<sup>22</sup>Look, I am about to give a command—this is Yahweh's declaration—and will bring them back to this city to wage war against it and take it, and to burn it. For I will turn the cities of Judah into ruined places in which there will be no inhabitants.'"

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Go to the family of the Rekabites and speak with them. Then bring them to my house, into one of the rooms there, and give them wine to drink."

<sup>3</sup>So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah and his brothers, all his sons, and all the family of the Rekabites. <sup>4</sup>I took them to the house of Yahweh, into the rooms of the sons of Hanan son of Igdliah, the man of God. These rooms were beside the room of the leaders, which was above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the gatekeeper.

<sup>8</sup>We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab son of Rekab, our ancestor, in all that he commanded us, to never drink wine all of our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters. <sup>9</sup>We will never build houses to live in, and there will be no vineyard, field, or seed in our possession. <sup>10</sup>We have lived in tents and we have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our ancestor commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape from the Chaldean and Aramean armies.' So we are living in Jerusalem."

<sup>15</sup>I persistently sent to you all my servants, the prophets, saying 'Let each person turn from his wicked way and do good deeds; let no one walk any longer after other gods and worship them. Then you will live in the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.' But you did not incline your ears and you did not listen to me. <sup>16</sup>For the descendants of Jonadab son of Rekab have observed the commands of their ancestor that he commanded them, but this people refuses to listen to me."

<sup>17</sup>So Yahweh, God of hosts and God of Israel, says this, 'Look, I am bringing upon Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem, all the disasters I pronounced against them because I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'"

<sup>18</sup>Jeremiah said to the family of the Rekabites, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: You have listened to the commands of Jonadab your ancestor and have kept them all—you have obeyed all that he commanded you to do —<sup>19</sup>so Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, "There will always be someone descended from Jonadab son of Rekab to serve me."

Chapter 36

<sup>1</sup>It came about in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, and he said, <sup>2</sup>"Take a scroll for yourself and write on it all the words that I have told you concerning Israel and Judah, and every nation. Do this for everything I have told from the days of Josiah until this very day.

<sup>3</sup>Perhaps the people of Judah will listen to all the disasters that I intend to bring on them. Perhaps everyone will turn away from his wicked way, so I can forgive their iniquity and their sin."

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in a scroll, at Jeremiah's dictation, all the words of Yahweh spoken to him. <sup>5</sup>Next Jeremiah gave a command to Baruch. He said, "I am in prison and cannot go to the house of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>So you must go and read from the scroll that you wrote at my dictation. On the day of the fast, you must read Yahweh's words in the hearing of the people in his house, and also in the hearing of all of Judah who have come from their cities. Proclaim these words to them.

<sup>7</sup>Perhaps their pleas for mercy will come before Yahweh. Perhaps each person will turn from his wicked way, since the wrath and fury that Yahweh has proclaimed against this people are severe."<sup>8</sup>So Baruch son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him to do. He read aloud from the scroll the words of Yahweh in the house of Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>It came about in the fifth year and ninth month of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, that all the people in Jerusalem and the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah proclaimed a fast before Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>Baruch read aloud from the scroll Jeremiah's words in the house of Yahweh, from the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, by the gate of the entrance to the house of Yahweh. He did this in the hearing of all the people.

<sup>11</sup>Now Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all of Yahweh's words in the scroll. <sup>12</sup>He went down to the house of the king, to the secretary's room. Look, all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials.

<sup>13</sup>Then Micaiah reported to them all the words that he had heard that Baruch read aloud from the scroll in the hearing of the people. <sup>14</sup>So all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi said to Baruch, "Take the scroll in your hand, the scroll from which you were reading in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and went to the officials. <sup>15</sup>Then they said to him, "Sit down and read this in our hearing." So Baruch read the scroll.

<sup>16</sup>It happened that when they heard all these words, each man turned in fear to the one next to him and said to Baruch, "We must certainly report all of these words to the king."<sup>17</sup>Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all these words at Jeremiah's dictation?"<sup>18</sup>Baruch said to them, "He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on this scroll."<sup>19</sup>Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go, hide yourself, and Jeremiah, too. Do not let anyone know where you are."

<sup>20</sup>So they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, and they went to the king in the courtyard and they reported everything in the hearing of the king. <sup>21</sup>Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi took it from the room of Elishama the secretary. Then he read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing beside him. <sup>22</sup>Now the king was staying in the winter house in the ninth month, and a brazier was burning in front of him.

<sup>23</sup>It happened that as Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut it off with a knife and throw it into the fire in the brazier until all of the scroll was destroyed. <sup>24</sup>But neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words were frightened, nor did they tear their clothes.

<sup>25</sup>Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had even urged the king not to burn the scroll, but he did not listen to them.

<sup>26</sup>Then the king commanded Jerahmeel, a relative, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but Yahweh had hidden them.

<sup>27</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the scroll and the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, saying, <sup>28</sup>"Go back, take another scroll for yourself, and write in it all the words that were on the original scroll, the one that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned."<sup>29</sup>Then you must say this to Jehoiakim king of Judah: "You burned that scroll, saying, "Why have you written on it, "The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, for he will cut off both man and animal from it?"'"

<sup>30</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this concerning you, Jehoiakim king of Judah: "No descendant of yours will ever sit on the throne of David. As for you, your corpse will be thrown out into the heat of day and the frost of night.<sup>31</sup>For I will punish you, your descendants, and your servants for the iniquity of you all. I will bring on you, on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on every person in Judah all the disasters with which I have threatened you—but you paid no attention."

<sup>32</sup>So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah the scribe. Baruch wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words that had been in the scroll burned by Jehoiakim king of Judah. Furthermore, many other similar words were added to this scroll.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>Now Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made Zedekiah king over the land of Judah.<sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Yahweh that he proclaimed by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup>So King Zedekiah, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest sent a message to Jeremiah the prophet. They said, "Pray on our behalf to Yahweh our God."<sup>4</sup>Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.<sup>5</sup>Pharaoh's army came out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them and left Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,<sup>7</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: This is what you will say to the king of Judah, because he has sent you to seek advice from me, 'See, Pharaoh's army, which came to help you, is about to go back to Egypt, its own land.'<sup>8</sup>The Chaldeans will return. They will fight against this city, capture it, and burn it.'

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh says this: Do not deceive yourselves by saying, 'Surely the Chaldeans are leaving us,' for they will not leave.<sup>10</sup>Even if you had defeated the entire Chaldean army that is fighting you so that only badly wounded men were left in their tents, they would get up and burn this city."

<sup>11</sup>So it was when the Chaldean army had left Jerusalem as Pharaoh's army was coming,<sup>12</sup>then Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin. He wanted to take possession of a tract of land there among his people.<sup>13</sup>As he was in the Benjamin Gate, a chief guard was there. His name was Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah. He grabbed hold of Jeremiah the prophet and said, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans."

<sup>14</sup>But Jeremiah said, "That is not true. I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah did not listen to him. He took Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.<sup>15</sup>The officials were angry with Jeremiah. They beat him and put him in prison, which had been the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had turned it into a prison.

<sup>16</sup>So Jeremiah was put into a dungeon, where he stayed for many days.<sup>17</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent someone who brought him to the palace. In his house, the king asked him privately, "Is there any word from Yahweh?" Jeremiah answered, "There is a word: You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon."

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you, your servants, or this people so that you have placed me in prison?<sup>19</sup>Where are your prophets, the ones who prophesied for you and said the king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?<sup>20</sup>But now listen, my master the king! Let my plea for favor come before you. Do not return me to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there."

<sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah gave an order. His servants confined Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard the words that Jeremiah was declaring to all the people. He was saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh says this: Anyone staying in this city will be killed by sword, famine, and plague. But anyone who goes out to the Chaldeans will survive. His life will be his loot, but he will survive." <sup>3</sup>Yahweh says this: This city will be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it."

<sup>4</sup>So the officials said to the king, "Let this man die, for in this way he is weakening the hands of the fighting men who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people. He is proclaiming these words, for this man is not working for safety for this people, but disaster." <sup>5</sup>So King Zedekiah said, "Look, he is in your hand since there is no king able to resist you."

<sup>6</sup>Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malkijah, son of the king. The cistern was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah down on ropes. There was no water in the cistern, but it was muddy, and he sank down into the mud.

<sup>7</sup>Now Ebed-Melek the Cushite was one of the eunuchs in the king's house. He heard that they had placed Jeremiah in the cistern. Now the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate. <sup>8</sup>So Ebed-Melek went from the king's house and spoke with the king. He said, <sup>9</sup>"My master the king, these men have done evil with the way they have treated Jeremiah the prophet. They threw him into a cistern for him to die in it from hunger, since there is no more food in the city."

<sup>10</sup>Then the king gave a command to Ebed-Melek the Cushite. He said, "Take command of thirty men from here and take Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies." <sup>11</sup>So Ebed-Melek took command of those men and went to the king's house, to a storeroom for clothing under the house. From there he took rags and worn-out clothing and then let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

<sup>12</sup>Ebed-Melek the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put the rags and worn-out clothing under your arms and on top of the ropes." So Jeremiah did so. <sup>13</sup>Then they pulled Jeremiah by the ropes. In this way they brought him up from the cistern. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>14</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent word and brought Jeremiah the prophet to himself, to the third entrance in the house of Yahweh. The king said to Jeremiah, "I want to ask you something. Do not keep the answer from me." <sup>15</sup>Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I answer you, will you not certainly kill me? But if I give you advice, you will not listen to me." <sup>16</sup>But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private and said, "As Yahweh lives, the one who made us, I will not kill you or give you into the hand of those men who are seeking your life."

<sup>17</sup>So Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Yahweh, God of hosts, God of Israel, says this: If you indeed go out to the officials of the king of Babylon then you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your family will live." <sup>18</sup>But if you do not go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans. They will burn it, and you will not escape from their hand."

<sup>20</sup>Jeremiah said, "They will not give you over to them. Obey the message from Yahweh that I am telling you, so that things will go well for you, and so that you will live." <sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to go out, this is what Yahweh has shown me. <sup>22</sup>Look! All the women who are left in your house, king of Judah, will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. These women will say to you,

"You have been deceived by your men of peace;
they have ruined you.
Your feet are now sunk into the mud,
and your friends will turn away from you."

<sup>23</sup>For all of your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself will not escape from their hand. You will be captured by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned."

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not inform anyone about these words, so that you do not die." <sup>25</sup>If the officials hear that I have talked with you, and if they come and say to you, "Tell us what you said to the king and do not hide it from us, or we will kill you,<sup>26</sup> then you must say to them, 'I made a humble plea before the king that he would not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.'"

<sup>27</sup>Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, so he answered them as the king had commanded him. So they stopped talking with him, because they had not heard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king.<sup>28</sup> So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Chapter 39

<sup>6</sup>The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes at Riblah. He also slaughtered all the noblemen of Judah.<sup>7</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in bronze chains in order to take him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the people's houses. They also tore down the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had given an order about Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards. He had said,<sup>12</sup>"Take him and care for him. Do not harm him. Do for him anything he tells you."<sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards, Nebushazban the high eunuch, Nergal-Sharezer the high official, and all the most important officials of the king of Babylon sent men out.<sup>14</sup>Their men took Jeremiah from the courtyard of the guard and entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, to take him home, so Jeremiah stayed among the people.

<sup>15</sup>Now the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah while he was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard, saying,

<sup>16</sup>"Speak to Ebed-Melek the Cushite and say, 'Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to carry out my words against this city for disaster and not for good. For they will all come true before you on that day.

<sup>17</sup>But I will rescue you on that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—and you will not be given into the hand of the men whom you fear.<sup>18</sup>For I will certainly rescue you. You will not fall by the sword. Your life will be your loot since you trust in me—this was Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 40

<sup>3</sup>So Yahweh brought it about. He did just as he had decreed, since you people sinned against him and did not obey his voice. That is why this thing has happened to you people.<sup>4</sup>But now look! I have released you today from the chains that were on your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it is not good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, then do not do so. Look at all the land before you. Go where it is good and right in your eyes to go."

<sup>5</sup>When Jeremiah did not reply, Nebuzaradan said, "Go to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has put in charge of the cities of Judah. Stay with him among the people or go wherever it is good in your eyes to go." The commander of the king's bodyguards gave him food and a gift, and then sent him away.<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. He stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Now some commanders of Judean soldiers who were still in the countryside—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor over the land. They also heard that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest people in the land, those who had not been exiled to Babylon.<sup>8</sup>So they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah; Johanan and Jonathan, sons of Kareah; Seraiah son of Tanhumeth; the sons of Ephai the Netophathite; and Jaazaniah son of the Maakathite—they and their men.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan took an oath to them and to their men and said to them, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.

<sup>10</sup>Look, I am living in Mizpah to meet with the Chaldeans who came to us. So harvest wine, summer fruit, and oil and store them in your containers. Live in the cities that you have occupied."

<sup>11</sup>Then all the Jews in Moab, among the people of Ammon, and in Edom, and in every land heard that the king of Babylon had allowed a remnant of Judah to stay, that he had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan over them.<sup>12</sup>So all the Jews returned from every place where they had been scattered. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They harvested wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

<sup>13</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah.<sup>14</sup>They said to him, "Do you realize that Baalis king of the people of Ammon sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to murder you?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

<sup>15</sup>So Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah and said, "Allow me to go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will suspect me. Why should he kill you? Why allow all of Judah that has been gathered to you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah destroyed?"<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Do not do this thing, for you are telling lies about Ishmael."

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>But it happened that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, and some officers of the king, came—ten men were with him—to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. They ate food together there in Mizpah.<sup>2</sup>But Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him rose up and attacked Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, with the sword. Ishmael killed Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.<sup>3</sup>Then Ishmael killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah in Mizpah and the Chaldean fighting men found there.

<sup>4</sup>Then it was the second day after the killing of Gedaliah, but no one knew.<sup>5</sup>Some men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria—eighty men who had shaved their beard, torn their clothes, and cut themselves—with food offerings and frankincense in their hands to go to the house of Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>So Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them as they went, walking and weeping. Then it happened that as he encountered them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!"<sup>7</sup>It came about that when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughtered them and threw them into a pit, he and the men who were with him.

<sup>8</sup>But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for there are provisions of ours in a field: Wheat and barley, oil and honey." So he did not kill them with their other companions.<sup>9</sup>The cistern where Ishmael threw all the dead bodies that he had killed, was a large cistern that King Asa dug to make a defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it in with the dead.

<sup>10</sup>Next Ishmael captured all the people who remained in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah whom Nebuzaradan the chief guard had assigned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. So Ishmael son of Nethaniah captured them and went to cross over to the people of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>But Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him heard of all the harm that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done.<sup>12</sup>So they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him at the great pool of Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup>Then it happened that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders who were with him, they were very happy.<sup>14</sup>So all the people whom Ishmael had captured at Mizpah turned around and went to Johanan son of Kareah.

<sup>15</sup>But Ishmael son of Nethaniah fled with eight men from Johanan. He went to the people of Ammon.<sup>16</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him took from Mizpah all the people who had been rescued from Ishmael son of Nethaniah. This was after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Johanan and his companions took the strong men, the fighting men, the women and children, and the eunuchs who had been rescued at Gibeon.

<sup>17</sup>Then they went and stayed for a while in Geruth Kimham, which is near Bethlehem. They were going to go to Egypt<sup>18</sup>because of the Chaldeans. They were afraid of them since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.

Chapter 42

<sup>1</sup>Then all the army commanders and Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>2</sup>They said to him, "Let our plea for favor come before you. Pray for us to Yahweh your God for these people who remain since we are so few in number, as you see.<sup>3</sup>Ask Yahweh your God to tell us the way we should go and what we should do."

<sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Look, I will pray to Yahweh your God as you have requested. Whatever Yahweh answers, I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you."<sup>5</sup>They said to Jeremiah, "May Yahweh be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not do everything that Yahweh your God tells us to do.<sup>6</sup>Whether it is good or if it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God."

<sup>7</sup>At the end of ten days, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah.<sup>8</sup>So Jeremiah called to Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him, and to all the people from the least to the greatest.<sup>9</sup>Then he said to them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel—to whom you sent me so I might lay your pleas before him—says,<sup>10</sup>"If you go back and live in this land, then I will build you and not tear you down; I will plant you and not pull you up, for I will relent concerning the disaster that I have brought on you.

<sup>11</sup>Do not fear the king of Babylon, whom you are fearing. Do not fear him—this is Yahweh's declaration—since I am with you to save you and rescue you from his hand.<sup>12</sup>For I will give you mercy. I will have compassion on you, and I will bring you back to your land.

<sup>13</sup>But suppose that you say, "We will not stay in this land"—if you do not listen to my voice, the voice of Yahweh your God.<sup>14</sup>Suppose that you say, "No! We will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see any war, where we will not hear the sound of the ram's horn, and we will not go hungry for food. We will live there."

<sup>15</sup>Now listen to this word of Yahweh, you remnant of Judah. Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'If you actually set out to go to Egypt, to go and live there,<sup>16</sup>then the sword that you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt. The famine that you are anxious about will pursue you to Egypt, and you will die there.<sup>17</sup>So it will happen that all the men who set out to go to Egypt to live there will die by sword, famine, or plague. There will be no survivor of them, no one to escape the disaster that I will bring on them.

<sup>18</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Just as my wrath and my fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, in the same way my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing and a horror, an object for speaking curses, and something dishonorable, and you will not see this place again."<sup>19</sup>Then Jeremiah said, "Yahweh has spoken concerning you—the remnant of Judah. Do not go to Egypt! You certainly know that I have been a witness against you today.

<sup>20</sup>For you fatally deceived yourselves when you sent me to Yahweh your God and said, 'Pray to Yahweh our God for us. Everything that Yahweh our God says, tell us, and we will carry it out.'<sup>21</sup>For I have reported to you today, but you have not listened to the voice of Yahweh your God or to anything about which he sent me to you.<sup>22</sup>So now, you should certainly know that you will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where you desired to go to live."

Chapter 43

<sup>1</sup>It happened that Jeremiah finished proclaiming to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God that Yahweh their God had told him to say.<sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling lies. Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to live there.'<sup>3</sup>For Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, for you to cause our death and to make us captives in Babylon."

<sup>4</sup>So Johanan son of Kareah, all the princes of the army, and all the people refused to listen to Yahweh's voice to live in the land of Judah.<sup>5</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders took away all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah.<sup>6</sup>They took the men and women, the children and the king's daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguards, had let remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. They also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.<sup>7</sup>They went to the land of Egypt, to Tahpanhes, because they did not listen to Yahweh's voice.

<sup>8</sup>So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,<sup>9</sup>"Take some large stones in your hand, and, in the sight of some Jewish men, hide them in the mortar in the pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes."<sup>10</sup>Then say to them, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to send messengers to bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, my servant. I will place his throne over these stones that you, Jeremiah, have buried. Nebuchadnezzar will place his pavilion over them.

<sup>11</sup>For he will come and attack the land of Egypt. Anyone who is assigned to death will be given to death. Anyone who is assigned to captivity will be taken captive. Anyone who is assigned to the sword will be given to the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Then I will light a fire in the temples of Egypt's gods. Nebuchadnezzar will burn them or capture them. He will clean out the land of Egypt just as shepherds clean vermin off their clothes. He will go out from that place in victory. <sup>13</sup>He will break the stone pillars at Heliopolis in the land of Egypt. He will burn the temples of Egypt's gods."

<sup>1</sup>Instead of I will light a fire , some ancient and modern translations have he will light a fire .

Chapter 44

<sup>1</sup>The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, the ones staying in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in Upper Egypt:<sup>2</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says, 'You yourselves have seen all the disasters that I brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. See, they are ruins today. There is no one to live in them.<sup>3</sup>This is because of the wicked things they did to provoke me to anger by going to burn incense and to worship other gods. These were gods that neither they themselves, nor you, nor your ancestors knew.'

<sup>4</sup>So I repeatedly sent all of my servants the prophets to them. I sent them to say, 'Stop doing these abominable things that I hate.'<sup>5</sup>But they did not listen. They refused to pay attention or turn from their wickedness in burning incense to other gods.<sup>6</sup>So my fury and my wrath were poured out and kindled a fire in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. So they became ruins and devastations, as at this present day.'

<sup>7</sup>So now Yahweh, the God of hosts and the God of Israel, says this, 'Why are you doing great wickedness against yourselves? Why are you causing yourselves to be cut off from among Judah—men and women, children and babies? No remnant of you will be left.'<sup>8</sup>By your wickedness you have provoked me to anger with the deeds of your hands, by burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live. You have gone there so that you will be destroyed, so that you will be a curse and a taunt among all the nations of the earth.<sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and the wickedness committed by the kings of Judah and their wives? Have you forgotten the evil committed by yourselves and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?<sup>10</sup>To this day, they still are not humbled. They do not honor my law or decrees that I placed before them and their ancestors, nor do they walk in them.'

<sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to set my face against you to bring disaster to you and to destroy all of Judah.'<sup>12</sup>For I will take the remnant of Judah that has set out to go to the land of Egypt to live there. I will do this so that they will all perish in the land of Egypt. They will fall by sword and famine. From the least to the greatest they will die by sword and famine. They will die and will become a curse, an object of horror—a curse and an insult.

<sup>13</sup>For I will punish the people inhabiting the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem with the sword, with famine, and with the plague,<sup>14</sup>so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in the land of Egypt will escape or survive or return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and live; and none of them will return except a few who escaped from there.'"

<sup>15</sup>Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, and all the women who were in the great assembly, and all the people who were living in Lower and Upper Egypt, answered Jeremiah.<sup>16</sup>They said, "About the word that you have told us in Yahweh's name—we will not listen to you.<sup>17</sup>For we will certainly do all the things that we said we would do—burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. Then we will be filled with food and will prosper, without experiencing any disaster.

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people—to the men and women, and all the people who answered him—he proclaimed and said,<sup>21</sup>"Did not Yahweh remember the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem—you and your ancestors, your kings and leaders, and the people of the land? For Yahweh calls this to mind; it comes to his thoughts.

<sup>22</sup>Then he was no longer able to bear it because of the wickedness of your practices, because of the abominations that you did. Then your land became a desolation, a horror, and a curse so there was no longer an inhabitant as at this present day.<sup>23</sup>Because you burned incense and sinned against Yahweh, and because you would not listen to his voice, his law, his statutes, or his covenant decrees, this disaster against you has happened as at this present day."

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. <sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'You and your wives both have said with your mouths and carried out with your hands what you said, "We will certainly carry out the vows that we made to worship the queen of heaven, to pour out drink offerings to her." Now fulfill your vows; carry them out.'

<sup>26</sup>So then, hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are staying in the land of Egypt, 'See, I have sworn by my great name—says Yahweh. My name will no longer be called upon by the mouths of any of the men of Judah in all the land of Egypt, you who now say, "As the Lord Yahweh lives."<sup>27</sup>See, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. Every person of Judah in the land of Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all finished. <sup>28</sup>Then the survivors of the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, only a small number of them. So all the remnant of Judah who went to the land of Egypt to live there will know whose word will stand—mine or theirs.

<sup>29</sup>This will be the sign for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—that I am setting against you in this place, so that you will know that my words will certainly attack you with disaster. <sup>30</sup>Yahweh says this, 'Look, I am about to give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek to kill him. It will be the same as when I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.'"

Chapter 45

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah. This happened when he wrote in a scroll these words from the mouth of Jeremiah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah. He said,

<sup>2</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup>You have said, 'Woe is me, for Yahweh has added agony to my pain. My groaning has wearied me; I find no rest.'

<sup>4</sup>This is what you must say to him: 'Yahweh says this: See, what I built, I am now tearing down. What I planted, I am now pulling up—I will do this throughout all the earth. <sup>5</sup>But are you hoping for great things for yourself? Do not hope for that. For see, disaster is coming on all humanity—this is Yahweh's declaration—but I am giving you your life as loot everywhere you will go.'"

Chapter 46

<sup>2</sup>For Egypt: "This is about the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt that was at Carchemish by the Euphrates River. This was the army that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

and go forward to fight.

<sup>4</sup> Put the harness on the horses;
mount up on the horses and take your stand with your helmets on;
polish the spears and put on your armor.

<sup>5</sup> What am I seeing here?
They are dismayed and are running away,
for their soldiers have been completely destroyed.
They are fleeing for refuge and are not looking back.
Terror is all around

<sup>6</sup> the swift cannot run away, and the soldiers cannot escape.
They stumble in the north and fall beside the Euphrates River.

<sup>7</sup> Who is this who rises like the Nile, whose waters toss up and down like the rivers?

<sup>8</sup> Egypt rises like the Nile,
like rivers of water that rise and fall.
Egypt says, 'I will go up and I will cover the earth.
I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.

<sup>9</sup> Go up, horses.
Be angry, you chariots.
Let the soldiers go out,
Cush and Put, men skillful with a shield, and Lydia,
<sup>1</sup> men skillful at bending their bows.'

<sup>10</sup> That day will be the day of vengeance for the Lord Yahweh of hosts,
and he will avenge himself on his foes.
The sword will devour and be satisfied.
It will drink its fill of their blood.
For there will be a sacrifice to the Lord Yahweh of hosts
in the northern land by the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup> Go up to Gilead and obtain medicine, virgin daughter of Egypt.
It is useless that you put much medicine on yourself.
There is no cure for you.

<sup>12</sup> The nations have heard of your disgrace.
The earth is filled with your cry of distress,
for soldier stumbles against soldier;
both of them fall together."

<sup>13</sup>This is the word that Yahweh told Jeremiah the prophet when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came and attacked the land of Egypt:

<sup>14</sup> "Announce in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes.
'Take your station and prepare yourself,
for the sword will devour those around you.'
<sup>15</sup> Why are your mighty ones facedown on the ground?
They will not stand,
because Yahweh has pushed them to the ground.
<sup>16</sup> He increases the numbers of those who stumble.
Each soldier falls against the next one.
They are saying, 'Get up. Let us go home.
Let us go back to our own people,
to the land of our birth,
and away from the sword of the oppressor.'
<sup>17</sup> They proclaimed there,
'Pharaoh the king of Egypt is only a noise,
one who has let his opportunity slip away.'

<sup>18</sup> As I live—declares the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts—someone will come like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel by the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Pack for yourselves baggage to carry into exile,
you who live in Egypt.
For Memphis will become a waste;
it will be burned, and no one will live there.

<sup>20</sup> Egypt is a very beautiful young cow,
but a stinging insect is coming from the north
It is coming.

<sup>21</sup> The hired soldiers in her midst are like a fattened bull, but they will also turn away and run away.
They will not stand together,
for the day of their disaster is coming against them,
the time of their punishment.

<sup>22</sup> Egypt hisses like a snake and crawls away,
for her enemies are marching against her.
They are going toward her like woodcutters with axes.

<sup>23</sup> They will cut down the forests
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—although it is very dense.
For the enemies will be more numerous than locusts,
unable to be counted.

She will be given into the hand of people from the north."

<sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says, "See, I am about to punish Amon of Thebes, Pharaoh, Egypt and her gods, her kings the Pharaohs, and those who trust in them."<sup>26</sup>I am giving them into the hand of the ones seeking their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his servants. Then after this Egypt will be inhabited as in previous days—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>27</sup> But you, my servant Jacob, do not fear.
Do not be dismayed, Israel, for see,

I am about to deliver you from the faraway place,
and your descendants from the land of their captivity.
Jacob will return and be at ease;
he will rest secure, and there will be no more terror.

<sup>28</sup> You, my servant Jacob, do not fear
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—for I am with you,
so I will bring complete destruction against all the nations
where I scattered you.
But I will not destroy you completely.
Yet I will discipline you justly
and will certainly not leave you unpunished."

Chapter 47

See, floods of water are rising in the north.

They will be like an overflowing river!

Then they will overflow the land and everything in it,
its cities and its inhabitants!

So everyone will shout for help,
and all the inhabitants of the land will howl.

<sup>3</sup> At the sound of the stamping of their strong horses' hooves,
at the roar of their chariots and the noise of their wheels, fathers will not help their children
because of the weakness of their own hands.

<sup>4</sup> For the day is coming that will devastate all of the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
every survivor who wants to help them.

For Yahweh is devastating the Philistines,
those who remain from the island of Caphtor.

Ashkelon has been silenced.
You remnant in their valley,
how long will you cut yourself?

<sup>6</sup> Woe, sword of Yahweh!
How long will it be until you become silent?
Go back to your scabbard!
Stop and be silent.

<sup>7</sup> How can it rest when Yahweh has commanded it, when he has appointed it to attack Ashkelon and the coastlands along the sea?"

Chapter 48

- <sup>1</sup>To Moab, Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this,
- "Woe to Nebo, for it has been devastated.
Kiriathaim has been humiliated and captured.
Her fortress has been disgraced and crushed.
- <sup>2</sup> The honor of Moab is no more.
Their enemies in Heshbon plotted disaster against her.
They said, 'Come and let us destroy her as a nation.
Madmen will also perish
—a sword will go after you.'
- <sup>3</sup> Listen! A sound of an outcry is coming from Horonaim, where there is ruin and great destruction.
- <sup>4</sup> Moab has been destroyed.
Her children have made their cries heard.
- <sup>5</sup> They go up the hill of Luhith weeping,
for on the way down to Horonaim,
screams are heard because of the destruction.
- <sup>6</sup> Flee! Save your lives and become like a juniper bush in the wilderness.
- <sup>7</sup> For because of your trust in your practices and your wealth
you also will be captured.
Then Chemosh will go away into captivity together with his priests and leaders.
- <sup>8</sup> For the destroyer will come to every city;
no city will escape.
So the valley will perish
and the plain will be devastated,
as Yahweh has said.
- <sup>9</sup> Give wings to Moab,
for she must certainly fly away.
Her cities will become a wasteland,
where there is no one to live in them.
- <sup>10</sup> May anyone who is lazy in doing Yahweh's work be cursed!
May anyone who keeps his sword back from shedding blood
be cursed!
- <sup>11</sup> Moab has rested secure since he was young.
He is like his wine that has never been poured from pot to pot.
He has never gone into captivity.
Therefore he tastes as good as ever;
his flavor remains unchanged.
- <sup>12</sup> So see, the days are coming
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—when I will send him those who will tip him over and pour out all his pots and shatter his jars.
- <sup>13</sup> Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh
just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their object of trust.

- <sup>14</sup> How can you say,
     'We are soldiers, powerful fighting men'?
<sup>15</sup> Moab will be devastated and its cities attacked.
 For its finest young men have gone down to the place of slaughter.
 This is the king's declaration!
     Yahweh of hosts is his name.
- <sup>16</sup> Moab's disaster is soon to happen;
     calamity is hurrying quickly.
- <sup>17</sup> All you who are around Moab, wail;
     and all you who know its fame, shout this,
     'Woe, the strong staff,
     the honored rod, has been broken.'
- <sup>18</sup> Come down from your honored place
     and sit on the dry ground,
     you daughter living in Dibon.
 For the destroyer of Moab will come up against you,
     he will ruin your strongholds.
- <sup>19</sup> Stand on the road and watch,
     you people who live in Aroer.
 Ask the ones who are fleeing and escaping.
     Say, 'What has happened?'
- <sup>20</sup> Moab has been shamed,
     for it has been shattered.
 Howl and lament;
     shout for help.
 Tell it to people by the Arnon River that Moab has been devastated.
- <sup>21</sup> Now punishment has come to the hill country,
     to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,
<sup>22</sup> to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim, <sup>23</sup> to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon, <sup>24</sup> To Kerioth and Bozrah,
     and to all the cities in the land of Moab—
     the farthest and the closest cities.
- <sup>25</sup> The horn of Moab has been hacked off;
     its arm has been broken
     —this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>26</sup> Make him drunk,
     because he acted proudly against Yahweh.
 Let Moab wallow in his vomit,
     and let him be an object of ridicule.
- <sup>27</sup> For did not Israel become an object for laughter to you?
 Was he found among thieves,
     so that you shook your head at him
     as often as you spoke about him?
- <sup>28</sup> Abandon the cities and camp on the cliffs, inhabitants of Moab.
 Become like a dove that is nesting over the mouth of a hole in the rocks.

- <sup>29</sup> We have heard of Moab's pride
     —his arrogance,
     his haughtiness, his pride,
     his self-glory and the conceit in his heart.
- <sup>30</sup> This is Yahweh's declaration
     —I myself know his arrogant speech, which amounts to nothing, like his deeds.
- <sup>31</sup> So I will howl a lament for Moab,
     and I will shout in sorrow for all of Moab.
 I will lament for the people of Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>32</sup> I will weep for you more than I did for Jazer, vine of Sibmah!
 Your branches passed across the Salt Sea and reached as far as Jazer.
 The destroyer has attacked
     your summer fruit and your grapes.
- <sup>33</sup> So celebration and rejoicing have been taken away from the fruit trees and the land of Moab.
 I have put an end to the wine from their winepresses.
 They will not tread with joyful shouts.
 Any shouts will not be shouts of joy.
- <sup>34</sup> From the shouts at Heshbon as far as Elealeh their sound is heard at Jahaz, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, since even the waters of Nimrim have become desolate.
- <sup>35</sup> For I will put an end to anyone in Moab who makes sacrifices on the high places and burns incense to his gods
     —this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>36</sup> So my heart is lamenting for Moab like a flute.
 My heart is lamenting like flutes for the people of Kir Hareseth.
 The riches they gained are gone.
- <sup>37</sup> For every head is bald and every beard shaved.
 Incisions are on every hand,
     and sackcloth is around their waists.
- <sup>38</sup> There is mourning everywhere,
     on every flat roof of Moab and in Moab's plazas.
 For I have destroyed Moab like pots that no one wants
     —this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>39</sup> How it has been shattered!
     How they howl in their lamenting!
 Moab turns its back in shame!
     So Moab will become an object of derision and a terror to all those who are around him."
- <sup>40</sup> For Yahweh says this,
     "See, the enemy will come flying like an eagle,
     spreading out his wings over Moab.
- <sup>41</sup> Kerioth has been captured,
     and its strongholds have been seized.

For in that day the hearts of Moab's soldiers will be like the hearts of women in birth labor.

<sup>42</sup> So Moab will be destroyed and be no longer a people, because he made himself to be great against Yahweh.

<sup>43</sup> Terror, the pit, and a trap are coming on you, inhabitant of Moab
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>44</sup> Anyone who flees because of terror will fall into the pit, and anyone who climbs out of the pit
will be caught in the trap
for I will bring this on them, the people of Moab,
in the year of my vengeance against them
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>45</sup> The ones who flee will stand in the shadow of Heshbon without any strength,
for fire will go out from Heshbon,
flame from the middle of Sihon.
It will devour the forehead of Moab
and the scalps of the boastful people.

Chemosh's people are destroyed,
For your sons are taken as captives and your daughters into captivity.

<sup>47</sup> But I will reverse the captivity of Moab in later days
—this is Yahweh's declaration."

The judgment on Moab ends here.

Chapter 49

<sup>1</sup>About the people of Ammon, Yahweh says this,

"Does Israel have no children?
Is there no one to inherit anything in Israel?
Why does Molech occupy Gad,
and his people live in its cities? <sup>1</sup>

<sup>2</sup> So look, the days are coming
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—when I will cause a trumpet call for battle against Rabbah
to be heard among the people of Ammon, so it will become a deserted heap
and its villages will be set on fire.
For Israel will possess those who possessed him,"
says Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup> "Howl in lament, Heshbon,
for Ai will be devastated!
Shout out, daughters of Rabbah!
Gird yourselves with sackcloth.
Lament and run about in futility,
for Molech is going into captivity,
together with his priests and leaders.
<sup>4</sup> Why do you brag about your valleys,
your valleys that are so fruitful, faithless daughter?
you who trust in your wealth and say,
'Who will come against me?'

<sup>5</sup> See, I am about to bring terror on you
—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts—
this terror will come from all those who surround you.
Each one of you will be scattered before it.
There will be no one to gather those running away.

<sup>6</sup> But after this I will reverse the captivity of the people of Ammon
—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>7</sup>About Edom, Yahweh of hosts says this,

"Is there no longer any wisdom to be found in Teman?
Has good advice disappeared
from those who have understanding?
Has their wisdom become corrupted?

<sup>8</sup> Flee! Turn back!
Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Dedan.
For I am bringing the disaster of Esau on him
at the time that I punish him.

<sup>9</sup> If grape harvesters came to you,
would they not leave a little bit behind?
If thieves came in the night,
would they not spoil only as much as they wanted?

<sup>10</sup> But I have stripped Esau bare.
I have revealed his hiding places.
So he will not be able to hide himself.
His children, his brothers, and his neighbors are destroyed, and he is gone.

- <sup>11</sup> Leave your orphans behind.
I will take care of their lives,
and your widows can trust in me."

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh says this, "See, those who did not deserve it must certainly drink some of the cup. Do you yourself think you will go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for you will certainly drink. <sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by myself—this is Yahweh's declaration—that Bozrah will become a horror, a disgrace, a devastation, and an object for cursing. All of its cities will become ruins forever.

- <sup>14</sup> I have heard news from Yahweh,
and a messenger has been sent out to the nations,
'Gather together and attack her.
Get ready for battle.'

- <sup>15</sup> "For see, I have made you small compared to the other nations, despised by people.

- <sup>16</sup> As for your fearsomeness,
your heart's pride has deceived you,
inhabitants of places on the cliff,
you who have occupied the highest hills
so that you may make your nest high like an eagle.
I will bring you down from there
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

- <sup>17</sup> Edom will become a horror to everyone passing by it.
Every such person will be appalled and hiss because of all of its disasters.

- <sup>18</sup> Like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, says Yahweh,
and no one will live there;
no person will stay there.

- <sup>19</sup> See, he will go up like a lion
from the majesty of the Jordan
to the green pasturelands.
For I will quickly make Edom run from it,
and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.
For who is like me,
and who will summon me?
What shepherd is able to resist me?

- <sup>20</sup> So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Edom, the plans that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman.
They will certainly be dragged away,
even the smallest flock.
Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.

- <sup>21</sup> At the sound of their falling the earth shakes.
The sound of cries of distress is heard at the Sea of Reeds.

- <sup>22</sup> See, someone will attack like an eagle,
and swoop down and spread his wings over Bozrah.
Then on that day, the hearts of Edom's soldiers will become like the heart of a woman in birth labor."

- <sup>23</sup>About Damascus:

"Hamath and Arpad will be ashamed,
for they have heard news of disaster.
They melt away!
Anxiety is in the sea.
It cannot stay calm.

<sup>24</sup> Damascus has become very weak.
It turns away to flee;
terror seizes it.

Distress and pain seize it,
like the pain of a woman giving birth.

<sup>25</sup> How has the city of praise not been abandoned, the town of my joy?

<sup>26</sup> Therefore its young men will fall in its plazas,
and all the fighting men will perish on that day
—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts."

<sup>27</sup> "For I will light a fire on the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the strongholds of Ben-Hadad."

<sup>28</sup> About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, Yahweh says this to Nebuchadnezzar (now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was going to attack these places):

"Arise and attack Kedar and destroy those people of the east.

<sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks will be taken,
along with their tent curtains and all of their equipment;
their camels will be led away from them,
and men will shout to them,
"Terror is on every side!"

<sup>30</sup> Flee! Wander far away!
Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Hazor
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devised a plan against you.
Flee! Turn back!

<sup>31</sup> Arise! Attack the nation at ease, that lives in safety," says Yahweh.
"They have no gates or bars in them,
and its people live by themselves.

<sup>32</sup> For their camels will become plunder, and the abundance of their property
will become war plunder.

Then I will scatter to every wind those who cut the hair on the sides of their heads very short, and I will bring disaster on them from every side
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup> Hazor will become a lair of jackals,
a permanent wasteland.
No one will live there;
no human being will stay there."

<sup>34</sup> This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam. This happened at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, and he said,

<sup>35</sup> "Yahweh of hosts says this:

See, I am about to break the bowmen of Elam,
the main part of their power.

<sup>36</sup>For I will bring the four winds from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter the people of Elam to all of those winds.

There is no nation
to which those scattered from Elam will not go.

<sup>37</sup>So I will shatter Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their lives.
for I will bring disaster against them, the fury of my wrath
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—and I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.

<sup>38</sup>Then I will put my throne in Elam and will destroy its king and leaders from there
—this is Yahweh's declaration

<sup>39</sup>—and it will happen in later days that I will reverse the captivity of Elam
—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 50

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that Yahweh declared about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet,

- <sup>2</sup> "Report to the nations and cause them to listen.
Lift up a signal and cause them to listen.
Do not conceal it.
Say, 'Babylon is taken. Bel is made ashamed.
Marduk is dismayed.
Its idols are put to shame;
its images are dismayed.'
<sup>3</sup> A nation from the north will arise against it,
and make her land a desolation.
No one will live in it;
both men and animals will flee away.
- <sup>4</sup> In those days and at that time
—this is Yahweh's declaration
—the people of Israel and the people of Judah will come together to go with weeping and seek Yahweh their God.
- <sup>5</sup> They will ask the way to Zion and will set off toward it, saying,
We will go and join ourselves to Yahweh
in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten."
- <sup>6</sup> My people have been a lost flock.
Their shepherds have led them astray in the mountains;
they have turned them around from hill to hill.
They went, they have forgotten their resting place.
- <sup>7</sup> Everyone who went out to them devoured them.
Their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty,
because they sinned against Yahweh,
their true home—Yahweh,
the hope of their ancestors.'
- <sup>8</sup> Leave from the midst of Babylon;
go out from the land of the Chaldeans;
be like male goats
that leave before the rest of the flock does.
- <sup>9</sup> For see, I am about to set in motion and raise up a group of great nations from the north against Babylon.
They will arrange themselves against her.
Babylon will be captured from there.
Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.
- <sup>10</sup> Chaldea will become plunder.
All those who plunder it will be satisfied
—this is Yahweh's declaration.

- <sup>11</sup> You rejoice, you celebrate the plundering of my inheritance;
you jump around like a calf stamping in its pasture;
you neigh like a powerful horse.
- <sup>12</sup> So your mother will be greatly ashamed;
the one who bore you will be embarrassed.
See, she will be the least of nations,
a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
- <sup>13</sup> Because of Yahweh's anger, Babylon will not be inhabited,
but will be a complete devastation.
Everyone who passes by will be appalled because of Babylon and will hiss because of all of its wounds.
- <sup>14</sup> Arrange yourselves against Babylon all around her.
Everyone who bends a bow must shoot at her.
Do not spare any of your arrows,
for she has sinned against Yahweh.
- <sup>15</sup> Raise a shout against her all around!
She has surrendered;
her towers have fallen;
her walls are torn down,
for this is Yahweh's vengeance.
Take vengeance on her!
Do to her just as she has done!
- <sup>16</sup> Destroy both the farmer who sows seed and the one who uses a sickle
at the time of harvest in Babylon.
Let each person turn back to his own people
from the oppressor's sword;
let them flee to their own land.
- <sup>17</sup> Israel is a scattered flock driven away by lions.
First the king of Assyria devoured him; then after this,
Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon broke his bones.
- <sup>18</sup> Therefore Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this:
See, I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land,
just as I punished the king of Assyria.
- <sup>19</sup> I will restore Israel to his homeland;
he will graze on Carmel and Bashan.
Then he will be satisfied
in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.
- <sup>20</sup> In those days and at that time, says Yahweh, iniquity will be looked for in Israel,
but none will be found.
I will inquire about the sins of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive the remnant that I spare.

- <sup>21</sup> "Arise against the land of Merathaim, against it and the ones inhabiting Pekod.
 Put them to the sword and completely destroy them
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —do everything that I am commanding you.
- <sup>22</sup> The sounds of battle and enormous destruction are in the land.
- <sup>23</sup> How the hammer of all the lands
 has been cut apart and destroyed.
 How Babylon has become an object of horror
 among the nations.
- <sup>24</sup> I have set a trap for you and you were taken, Babylon,
 and you did not know it!
 You were found and captured,
 because you opposed Yahweh.
- <sup>25</sup> Yahweh has opened his armory and is bringing out the weapons for carrying out his anger.
 There is work for the Lord Yahweh of host in the land of the Chaldeans.
- <sup>26</sup> Attack her from far away.
 Open her granaries
 and pile her up like heaps of grain.
 Set her apart for destruction.
 Leave no remnant of her.
- <sup>27</sup> Kill all her bulls.
 Send them down to the place of slaughter.
 Woe to them, for their day has come
 —the time for their punishment.
- <sup>28</sup> There is the sound of those fleeing,
 of those who are survivors,
 from the land of Babylon.
 These will report the vengeance of Yahweh our God for Zion,
 and vengeance for his temple.
- <sup>29</sup> "Summon the archers against Babylon
 —all those who bend their bows.
 Camp against her,
 and let no one escape.
 Repay her for what she has done.
 Do to her by the measure she has used.
 For she had acted arrogantly against Yahweh
 —against the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>30</sup> So her young men will fall in the city squares, and all her fighting men will be destroyed on that day
 —this is Yahweh's declaration."
- <sup>31</sup> "See, I am against you, proud one
 —this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts
 —for your day has come, proud one,
 the time when I will punish you.
- <sup>32</sup> So the proud ones will stumble and fall.
 No one will raise them up.
 I will set fire to their cities;
 it will devour everything around him.

- <sup>33</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this:
 The people of Israel are oppressed,
 together with the people of Judah.
 All the ones who captured them still hold them;
 they refuse to let them go.
- <sup>34</sup>The one who rescues them is strong.
 Yahweh of hosts is his name.
 He will truly plead their case,
 in order to bring rest to the land,
 and to bring strife to the ones inhabiting Babylon.
- <sup>35</sup> A sword is against the Chaldeans
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —and against the inhabitants of Babylon, her leaders, and her wise men.
- <sup>36</sup> A sword against those who say empty words!
 They will become fools!
 A sword against her soldiers!
 They will be filled with terror.
- <sup>37</sup> A sword is coming against their horse their chariots and all of the people who are in the midst of Babylon, so they will become like women.
 A sword is coming against her storerooms,
 and they will be plundered.
- <sup>38</sup> A drought is coming on her waters,
 so they will become dry.
 For she is a land of worthless idols,
 and they act like people
 made insane by their dreadful idols.
- <sup>39</sup> So desert beasts with the jackals will inhabit there,
 and the young of ostriches will live in her.
 For all time, she will no longer be inhabited.
 From generation to generation, she will not be lived in.
- <sup>40</sup> Just as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —no one will live there;
 no person will stay in her.
- <sup>41</sup> "See, a people is coming from the north;
 a great nation and many kings
 are being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.
- <sup>42</sup> They will pick up bows and spears.
 They are cruel and have no compassion.
 Their sound is like the sea roar,
 and they are riding on horses,
 set out in order as men for battle, against you,
 daughter of Babylon.
- <sup>43</sup> The king of Babylon heard the reports about them and his hands fell limp in distress.
 Anguish seized him
 like a woman giving birth.
- <sup>44</sup> Behold! He goes up like a lion

from the majesty of the Jordan
to the enduring grazing place
For I will quickly cause them to run from it,
and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.
For who is like me,
and who will summon me?
What shepherd is able to resist me?

- <sup>45</sup> So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Babylon, the plans that he has planned against the land of the Chaldeans.
They will certainly be dragged away,
even the smallest flock.
Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.
- <sup>46</sup> At the sound of conquered Babylon the earth shakes, and their shout of distress is heard among the nations."

Chapter 51

<sup>1</sup>"Yahweh says this:

See, I am about to stir up a wind of destruction against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai.

<sup>2</sup> I will send foreigners to Babylon.
They will scatter her and devastate her land, for they will come against her
from all around on the day of disaster.
<sup>3</sup> Do not let the archers bend their bows;
do not let them put on armor.
Do not spare her young men;
set her whole army apart for destruction.
<sup>4</sup> For the wounded people will fall in the land of the Chaldeans;
those who are thrust through will fall in her streets.
<sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah are not abandoned by their God,
by Yahweh of hosts,
although their land is filled with offenses committed against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Flee from the midst of Babylon;
let each man save himself.
Do not perish in her iniquity.
For it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance.
He will repay all of it to her.
<sup>7</sup> Babylon was a golden cup in the hand of Yahweh that made all the world drunk;
nations drank her wine and became insane.
<sup>8</sup> Babylon will fall suddenly and be destroyed.
Wail for her
Give her medicine for her pain;
perhaps she can be healed.

<sup>9</sup> 'We wished to heal Babylon,
but she is not healed.
Let us all leave her and go away,
to our own land.
For her guilt reaches up to the heavens;
it is piled up to the clouds.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh has brought about our vindication.
Come, let us give a full account in Zion
the deeds of Yahweh our God.'

<sup>11</sup> Sharpen the arrows and take up the shields.
Yahweh is stirring up
the spirit of the king of the Medes
in a plan to destroy Babylon.
This is for Yahweh's vengeance,

- vengeance for the destruction of his temple.
- <sup>12</sup> Lift up a signal flag over Babylon's walls;
make the watch strong;
set up watchmen;
prepare the ambushes;
for the LORD will do what he has said concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.
- <sup>13</sup> You people who live by many streams of water,
you people who are rich with treasures,
your end has come.
The thread of your life is now cut short.
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh of hosts has sworn by his own life,
'I will fill you with men, like a swarm of locusts, and they will raise a battle cry against you.'
- <sup>15</sup> He has made the earth by his power;
he set in place the world by his wisdom.
By his understanding he stretched out the heavens.
- <sup>16</sup> When he thunders,
there is the roar of waters in the heavens,
for he brings up the mist from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for rain and sends out wind from his storehouses.
- <sup>17</sup> Every man has become stupid,
without knowledge.
Every metalworker is put to shame
by his idols.
For his cast metal images are frauds,
and there is no life in them.
- <sup>18</sup> They are useless, the work of mockers;
they will perish at the time of their punishment.
- <sup>19</sup> But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these,
for he is the molder of all things.
Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
Yahweh of hosts is his name.
- <sup>20</sup> You are my war hammer,
my weapon for battle.
With you I will smash nations and destroy kingdoms.
- <sup>21</sup> With you I will smash horses and their riders;
with you I will smash chariots and their drivers.
- <sup>22</sup> With you I will smash each man and woman;
with you I will smash the old and the young.
With you I will smash the young men and the virgin girls.
- <sup>23</sup> With you I will smash the shepherds and their flocks;
with you I will smash the plowmen and their teams.
With you I will smash the governors and officials.
- <sup>24</sup> For in your sight I will pay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all of the evil that they did in Zion—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

- <sup>25</sup> See, I am against you, mountain of destruction
     —this is Yahweh's declaration
     —which destroys the whole earth.
 I will stretch out my hand against you,
     and roll you down from the cliffs,
     and make you a burned-out mountain.
- <sup>26</sup> So they will not take from you any stone to construct a building's corner or foundation;
     for you will become an everlasting devastation
     —this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>27</sup> Lift up a signal flag over the earth.
 Blow the ram's horn over the nations.
 Call the nations to attack her:
     the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
 Appoint a commander to attack her;
     bring up horses like swarming locusts.
- <sup>28</sup> Prepare the nations to attack her:
     The kings of the Medes and his governors,
     all of his officials and all the lands under his rule.
- <sup>29</sup> For the land will shake and be in anguish, since Yahweh's plans continue against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a wasteland
     where there is no inhabitant.
- <sup>30</sup> The soldiers in Babylon have stopped fighting;
     they stay in their strongholds.
 Their strength has failed;
     they have become women
     —her homes are on fire,
     the bars of her gates are broken.
- <sup>31</sup> A messenger runs to proclaim to another messenger, and a runner tells another runner to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been taken from end to end.
- <sup>32</sup> So the fords over the river are seized;
     the enemy is burning the reed marshes,
     and Babylon's fighting men are confused.
- <sup>33</sup> For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this:
     The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor.
     It is time to trample her down.
     In a little while the time of harvest will come to her.
- <sup>34</sup> 'Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me,
     he has driven me into confusion
     and has made me an empty pot.
 Like a sea monster he has swallowed me,
     he has filled his stomach with my delicious foods,
     and then he has spit me out.'
- <sup>35</sup> The one who lives in Zion will say,
     'May the violence done to me and my flesh
     be on Babylon.'
 Jerusalem will say,

'May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea.'

See, I am about to plead your case and bring about vengeance for you.

For I will dry up Babylon's water and make her springs run dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become heaps of rubble,
a den of jackals, a horror,
an object of hissing,
where there are no inhabitants.

<sup>38</sup> The Babylonians will roar together like young lions.
They will growl like lion cubs.

<sup>39</sup> When they become hot with greed,
I will make a feast for them;
I will make them drunk so they become joyful and then sleep an unending sleep and not wake up
—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>40</sup> I will send them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

So the praise of all the earth is seized.
How Babylon has become a ruined place among the nations.

<sup>42</sup> The sea has come up over Babylon
She is covered with its roaring waves.

<sup>43</sup> Her cities have become a desolation,
a dry land and a wilderness,
a land that no one inhabits,
and no human being passes through.

<sup>44</sup> So I will punish Bel in Babylon;
I will bring out from his mouth what he swallowed,
and the nations will no longer flow
to him with their offerings.
The walls of Babylon will fall.

<sup>45</sup> Go out from her midst, my people.
Let each of you save his own life
from the fury of my wrath.

<sup>46</sup> Do not let your hearts be timid or fear the news that is heard in the land,
for the news will come one year.
After it in the next year there will be news,
and violence will be in the land.
Ruler will be against ruler.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore, see, days are coming
when I will punish the carved idols of Babylon.
All of her land will be ashamed, and all of her slaughtered ones will fall in her midst.

<sup>48</sup> Then the heavens and the earth,
and all that is in them will rejoice over Babylon.
For destroyers will come for her from the north

—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>49</sup> As Babylon has made the killed of Israel fall, so the killed of all her land will fall in Babylon.
<sup>50</sup> Survivors of the sword, go away!
 Do not stay still.
 Call Yahweh to mind from far away;
 let Jerusalem come to mind.

<sup>51</sup> We are ashamed, for we have been insulted;
 shame has covered our faces,
 for foreigners have entered the holy places
 of the house of Yahweh.

<sup>52</sup> Therefore, see, days are coming
 —this is Yahweh's declaration
 —when I will punish her carved idols, and the wounded people will groan in all of her land.
<sup>53</sup> For even if Babylon went up to the heavens or fortified her highest fortresses, destroyers would come from me to her
 —this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>54</sup> A cry of distress came from Babylon, great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans.
<sup>55</sup> For Yahweh is destroying Babylon.
 He is causing her loud voice to perish.
 Their enemies roar like the waves of many waters;
 their noise becomes very strong.
<sup>56</sup> For the destroyers have come against her —against Babylon!
 —and her warriors have been captured.
 Their bows are shattered,
 for Yahweh is the God of vengeance;
 he will surely carry out this repayment.
<sup>57</sup> For I will make her princes and her wise men drunk,
 as well as her governors, her officials, and her soldiers.
 and they will sleep in an unending sleep and never wake up
 —this is the King's declaration:
 Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>58</sup> Yahweh of hosts says this:
 The thick walls of Babylon will be completely demolished,
 and her high gates will be burned.
 Then the peoples coming to her aid will labor uselessly;
 everything that the nations try to do for her will be burned up."

<sup>59</sup> This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was a chief officer.<sup>60</sup> For Jeremiah had written in a scroll about all the disaster that was going to come on Babylon—all these words that were written about Babylon.

<sup>61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you go to Babylon, then you will see and you will read these words aloud.<sup>62</sup> Then you will say, 'Yahweh, you yourself have declared that you would destroy this place, and that no man or animal will live in it, and it will be desolate forever.'

<sup>63</sup>Then when you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates.

<sup>64</sup>Say, 'Babylon will sink like this. It will not arise because of the disaster that I am sending against it, and they will fall.'" Jeremiah's words end here.

Chapter 52

<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.<sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did everything that Jehoiakim had done.<sup>3</sup>Through Yahweh's anger, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them from before himself. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>It happened that in the ninth year of the reign of King Zedekiah, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with all his army against Jerusalem. They camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it.<sup>5</sup>So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign.

<sup>6</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.<sup>7</sup>Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled and went out of the city at night by the way of the gate that was between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. So they went in the direction of the Arabah.<sup>8</sup>But the army of Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his army was scattered away from him.

<sup>9</sup>They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.<sup>10</sup>The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes, and at Riblah he also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah.<sup>11</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon. The king of Babylon put him in prison until the day of his death.

<sup>12</sup>Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan came to Jerusalem. He was the commander of the king's bodyguards and a servant of the king of Babylon.<sup>13</sup>He burned the house of Yahweh, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; also every important building in the city he burned.<sup>14</sup>As for the walls around Jerusalem, all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the commander of the bodyguards destroyed them.

<sup>17</sup>As for the bronze pillars that belonged to the house of Yahweh, and the stands, and the large bronze basin called "The Sea" that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried all the bronze back to Babylon.<sup>18</sup>The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, bowls, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple—the Chaldeans took them all away.<sup>19</sup>The basins and the incense burners, the bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and basins that were made of gold, and those made of silver—the commander of the king's guard took them away as well.

<sup>20</sup>The two pillars, the large bronze basin known as "The Sea," and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the stands, things that King Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, contained more bronze than could be weighed.<sup>21</sup>The pillars were eighteen cubits high each, and a line around each one measured twelve cubits. Each was four fingers thick and hollow.

<sup>22</sup>A capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was five cubits high, with latticework and pomegranates all around. It was all made of bronze. The other pillar and its pomegranates were the same as the first.<sup>23</sup>So there were ninety-six pomegranates on the capital's sides, and one hundred pomegranates above the surrounding latticework.

<sup>24</sup>The commander of the bodyguards took prisoner Seraiah, the high priest, together with Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three gatekeepers.<sup>25</sup>From the city he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and seven men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's army officer responsible for drafting men into the army, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city.

In the seventh year, 3,023 Jews.

<sup>29</sup>In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar
he took 832 people from Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguards, exiled 745 Jewish people.
All the exiled people totaled 4,600.

<sup>31</sup>It happened later in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Awel-Marduk, king of Babylon released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. This happened in the year that Awel-Marduk began to reign.

<sup>32</sup>He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>Awel-Marduk removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life, <sup>34</sup>and a regular food allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon every day for the rest of his life until his death.

Lamentations

<sup>1</sup> The city that once was full of people
is now sitting all alone.
She has become like a widow,
though she was a mighty nation.
She was a princess among the nations,
but is now forced into slavery.

<sup>2</sup> She weeps bitterly in the night,
and her tears cover her cheeks.
None of her lovers comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her.
They have become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup> Judah has gone into exile
after affliction and great labor.
She lives among the nations
and finds no rest.
All her pursuers overtook her
in her desperation.

<sup>4</sup> The roads of Zion mourn
because none come to the appointed feasts.
All her gates are desolate.
Her priests groan.
Her virgins are afflicted,
and as for her, it is bitter for her.

<sup>5</sup> Her adversaries have become her master;
her enemies prosper.
Yahweh has afflicted her for her many sins.
Her little children go into captivity to her adversary.

<sup>6</sup> Splendor has left the daughter of Zion.
Her princes have become like deer

that cannot find pasture, and they go without strength
before their pursuer.

<sup>7</sup> In the days of her affliction and her homelessness, Jerusalem will call to mind all her precious treasures that she had in former days.
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary,
no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her
and mocked at her destruction.

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem sinned greatly, therefore, she has become scorned
as something that is filthy.
All who honored her now despise her since they have seen her nakedness.
She groans
and tries to turn away.

<sup>9</sup> She has become unclean beneath her skirts.
She did not think about her future.
Her fall was astonishing.
There was no one to comfort her.
She cried out, "Look at my affliction, Yahweh, for the enemy has become too great!"

<sup>10</sup> The adversary has put his hand
on all our precious treasures.
She has seen the nations
enter her sanctuary,
even though you had commanded that they must not enter into your assembly place.

<sup>11</sup> All her people groan
as they search for bread.
They have given their precious treasures for food to restore their lives.
Look, Yahweh, and consider me,
for I have become worthless.

<sup>12</sup> Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see
if there is anyone else's sorrow
like the sorrow that is being inflicted on me, since Yahweh has tormented me
on the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>13</sup> It is from on high that he has sent fire into my bones, and it has conquered them.
He has spread a net for my feet and turned me back.
He has made me constantly desolate and weak.

<sup>14</sup> The yoke of my transgressions is bound together by his hand.

They are knit together and placed upon my neck.
He has made my strength fail.
The Lord has given me over into their hands,
and I am not able to stand.

<sup>15</sup> The Lord has tossed aside
all my mighty men who defended me.
He has called an assembly against me
to crush my vigorous men.
The Lord has trampled the virgin daughter of Judah
in the winepress.

<sup>16</sup> For these things I weep,
my eyes overflow with tears;
for a comforter is far from me,
one who restores my life.
My children are desolate
because the enemy has conquered me.

<sup>17</sup> Zion has spread her hands wide;
there is none to comfort her.
Yahweh has commanded that those around Jacob should be his adversaries.
Jerusalem is something unclean to them.

for I have rebelled against his commandment.
Hear, all you peoples, and see my sorrow.
My virgins and my vigorous men have gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> I called for my lovers,
but they were treacherous toward me.
My priests and my elders perished in the city,
while they sought food to restore their lives.

<sup>20</sup> Look, Yahweh, for I am in distress;
my stomach churns,
my heart is disturbed within me,
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword bereaves;
inside the house there is only death.

<sup>21</sup> They have heard my groaning,
but there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble,
and they are glad that you have done it.
You have brought the day you proclaimed;
now let them become like me.

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before you.
deal with them as you have dealt with me
because of all my transgressions.
My groans are many and my heart is faint.

- <sup>1</sup> The Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
under the cloud of his anger.
He has thrown the splendor of Israel
down from heaven to earth.
He has not remembered his footstool on the day of his anger.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord has swallowed up and has had no compassion on all the towns of Jacob.
In the days of his anger he has thrown down
the fortified cities
of the daughter of Judah;
in dishonor he has brought down to the ground
the kingdom and its rulers.
- <sup>3</sup> With fierce anger he has cut off
every horn of Israel.
He has withdrawn his right hand
from before the enemy.
He has burned up Jacob like a blazing fire that devours everything around it.
- <sup>4</sup> He has bent his bow toward us like an enemy,
he has set his right hand like an adversary.
He has slaughtered all who had been so pleasing to him in the tent of the daughter of Zion;
he has poured out his wrath like fire.
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord has become like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces.
He has destroyed her strongholds.
He has increased mourning and lamentation within the daughter of Judah.
- <sup>6</sup> He has done violence to his tabernacle like a garden.
He has destroyed the place of the solemn assembly.
Yahweh has caused both solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, for he has despised both king and priest
in the indignation of his anger.
- <sup>7</sup> The Lord has rejected his altar and disowned his sanctuary.
He has given over the walls of her palaces
into the hand of the enemy.
They have raised a shout in the house of Yahweh,
as on the day of an appointed feast.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh decided to destroy the city wall of the daughter of Zion.

He has stretched out the measuring line
and has not withheld his hand from destroying the wall.
He has made the ramparts and wall to lament;
together they wasted away.

<sup>9</sup> Her gates have sunk into the ground;
he has destroyed and broken the bars of her gate.
Her king and her princes
are among the nations,
the law is no more
and her prophets find no vision from Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup> The elders of the daughter of Zion
sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dust on their heads and girded themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes have failed from their tears;
my stomach churns;
my inner parts are poured out to the ground
because of the destruction of the daughter of my people;
children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

<sup>12</sup> They say to their mothers,
"Where is grain and wine?"
as they faint like a wounded man
in the streets of the city,
their lives are poured out
on the bosom of their mothers.

<sup>13</sup> What will I testify for you? To what can I compare you, daughter of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you,
virgin daughter of Zion?
Your wound is as great as the sea.
Who can heal you?

<sup>14</sup> Your prophets have seen false and worthless visions for you.
They have not exposed your iniquity to reverse your captivity, but for you they gave utterances that are false and misleading.

<sup>15</sup> All those who pass along the road
clap their hands at you.
They hiss and shake their heads against the daughter of Jerusalem and say,
"Is this the city that they called 'The Perfection of Beauty,'
'The Joy for All of Earth'?"

- <sup>16</sup> All your enemies open their mouths against you.
They sneer and grind their teeth in rage and say,
"We have swallowed her up!
This is the day we have waited for!
We have lived to see it!"
- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh has done
what he planned to do.
He has fulfilled his word,
which he commanded in former days.
He has overthrown you without pity,
for he has permitted the enemy to rejoice over you;
he has lifted up the horn of your enemies.
- <sup>18</sup> Their heart cried out to the Lord,
walls of the daughter of Zion!
Make your tears flow down like a river day and night.
Give yourself no relief, your eyes no relief.
- <sup>19</sup> Arise, cry out in the night,
at the beginning of the night watches!
Pour out your heart like water
before the face of the Lord.
Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children who faint with hunger at the corner of every street."
- <sup>20</sup> See, Yahweh, and consider those you have dealt in this way.
Should women eat the fruit of their wombs,
the children whom they have cared for?
Should priest and prophet be slaughtered
in the sanctuary of the Lord?
- <sup>21</sup> Both the young and the old lie on the dust of the streets.
My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword;
you have slaughtered them in the day of your anger without taking pity on them.
- <sup>22</sup> You have summoned,
as you would call the people to a feast day,
my terrors on every side,
on the day of the anger of Yahweh
no one escaped or survived;
those I cared for and raised,
my enemy has destroyed.

- <sup>1</sup> I am a man who has seen affliction
under the rod of Yahweh's fury.
- <sup>2</sup> He drove me away and caused me to walk in darkness rather than light.
- <sup>3</sup> Surely he turned his hand against me again and again,
the whole day long.
- <sup>4</sup> He made my flesh and my skin waste away;
he broke my bones.
- <sup>5</sup> He built up siege works against me,
and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
- <sup>6</sup> He made me live in dark places,
like those who died long ago.
- <sup>7</sup> He built a wall around me and I cannot escape.
He made my chains heavy
- <sup>8</sup> and though I call out and cry for help,
he shut out my prayer.
- <sup>9</sup> He blocked my path with a wall of hewn stone;
he made my paths crooked.
- <sup>10</sup> He is like a bear waiting to ambush me,
a lion in hiding;
- <sup>11</sup> he turned aside my paths,
he has made me desolate.
- <sup>12</sup> He bent his bow and set me
as a target for his arrow.
- <sup>13</sup> He pierced my kidneys with the arrows of his quiver.
- <sup>14</sup> I became a laughingstock to all my people,
their taunting song all day long.
- <sup>15</sup> He filled me with bitter herbs
and forced me to drink wormwood.
- <sup>16</sup> He has made my teeth grind with gravel,
and he made me cower in the ashes.
- <sup>17</sup> My soul is deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
- <sup>18</sup> So I say, "My endurance has perished and so has my hope in Yahweh."
- <sup>19</sup> Remember my affliction and my wanderings,
the wormwood and bitterness.
- <sup>20</sup> I continually remember it and my soul is bowed down within me.
- <sup>21</sup> But I call this to mind
and therefore I have hope:

- <sup>22</sup> The steadfast love of Yahweh never ceases
and his compassions never end,
- <sup>23</sup> they are new every morning;
your faithfulness is great.
- <sup>24</sup> "Yahweh is my inheritance," says my soul,
therefore I will hope in him.
- <sup>25</sup> Yahweh is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul who seeks him.
- <sup>26</sup> It is good to wait silently for the salvation of Yahweh.
- <sup>27</sup> It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- <sup>28</sup> Let him sit alone in silence,
when it is laid upon him.
- <sup>29</sup> Let him put his mouth in the dust—
there may yet be hope.
- <sup>30</sup> Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him,
and let him be filled to the full with insults.
- <sup>31</sup> For the Lord will not reject us forever,
- <sup>32</sup> but though he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
- <sup>33</sup> For he does not afflict from his heart or torment the children of mankind.
- <sup>34</sup> To crush underfoot
all the prisoners of the earth,
- <sup>35</sup> to deny a man justice in the presence of the Most High,
- <sup>36</sup> to deprive a person of justice in his lawsuit—
the Lord would not approve such things!
- <sup>37</sup> Who has spoken and it came to pass,
unless the Lord decreed it?
- <sup>38</sup> Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both calamities and the good come?
- <sup>39</sup> How can any person alive complain?
How can a person complain about the punishment for his sins?
- <sup>40</sup> Let us examine our ways and test them,
and let us return to Yahweh.
- <sup>41</sup> Let us lift up our hearts and our hands
to God in the heavens:
- <sup>42</sup> "We have transgressed and rebelled,
and you have not forgiven.
- <sup>43</sup> You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us,
you have killed and you have not spared.

<sup>44</sup> You have covered yourself with a cloud
so that no prayer can pass through.

<sup>45</sup> You have made us like filthy scum and refuse among the peoples.

<sup>46</sup> All our enemies
curse us,

<sup>47</sup> panic and pitfall have come upon us, ruin and destruction.

<sup>48</sup> My eyes flow with streams of tears
because of the destruction my people.

<sup>49</sup> My eyes will shed tears without ceasing, without relief,

<sup>50</sup> until Yahweh from heaven looks down and sees.

<sup>51</sup> My eyes cause grief to my soul because of all the daughters of my city.

<sup>52</sup> I have been hunted like a bird
by those who were my enemies;
they hunted me without a reason.

<sup>53</sup> They cut off my life in the pit,
and they threw a stone on me,

<sup>54</sup> and they caused waters to overflow, covering my head.
I said, 'I have been cut off!'

<sup>55</sup> I called on your name, Yahweh, from the depths of the pit.

<sup>56</sup> You heard my voice when I said,
'Do not close your ear to my cry for help.'

<sup>57</sup> You came near on the day I called on you;
you said, 'Do not fear.'

<sup>58</sup> Lord, you defended my soul's case, you redeemed my life!

<sup>59</sup> Yahweh, you have seen
the wrong they have done to me;
judge my case.

<sup>60</sup> You have seen all their vengeance,
all their plots against me.

<sup>61</sup> You have heard their insults, Yahweh,
and all their plots against me.

<sup>62</sup> The lips and the meditations of my enemies come against me all the day.

<sup>63</sup> Look at how they sit and then rise up;
they mock me with their songs.

<sup>64</sup> Pay back to them what they deserve, Yahweh,
according to the deeds of their hands.

- <sup>65</sup> You will let their hearts be shameless!
May your condemnation be upon them!
- <sup>66</sup> You pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens, Yahweh!"

- <sup>1</sup> The gold has become tarnished;
how the purest gold has changed!
The holy stones are scattered at the corner of every street.
- <sup>2</sup> The precious sons of Zion were worth their weight in pure gold,
but now they are considered like clay jars,
the work of the potter's hands!
- <sup>3</sup> Even the jackals offer the breast
to nurse their cubs,
but the daughter of my people has become cruel,
like the ostriches in the desert.
- <sup>4</sup> The tongue of the nursing baby sticks to the roof of his mouth by thirst;
the children ask for food,
but there is none for them.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who used to eat delicacies
are now desolate in the streets.
Those who were brought up wearing scarlet clothing
now lie on piles of ashes.
- <sup>6</sup> The iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment and no hands were wrung for her.
- <sup>7</sup> Her princes were purer than snow,
whiter than milk;
their bodies were more ruddy than coral,
their form was like sapphire.
- <sup>8</sup> Their appearance now is darker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it has become as dry as wood.
- <sup>9</sup> Those killed by the sword are better than those killed by hunger,
who wasted away,
pierced by the lack of any harvest from the field.
- <sup>10</sup> The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children;
they became their food during the time when the daughter of my people was being destroyed.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh showed all his wrath;

he poured out his fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion
that consumed her foundations.

<sup>12</sup> The kings of the earth did not believe,
nor did any of the inhabitants of the world believe,
that adversary or enemy
could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> This happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests who have shed the blood of the righteous
in her midst.

<sup>14</sup> They wandered, blind,
through the streets.
They were so defiled by that blood that no one could touch their clothes.

<sup>15</sup> "Away! Unclean!" people cried at them.
"Away! Away! Do not touch!"
So they wandered about;
people said among the nations,
"They can stay here no longer."

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh himself scattered them;
he does not watch over them anymore.
They did not honor the priests,
and they did not show favor to the elders.

<sup>17</sup> Our eyes failed, looking in vain for help;
from our watchtowers we watched for a nation
that could not rescue us.

<sup>18</sup> They followed our steps,
we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near and our days were numbered,
our end had come.

<sup>19</sup> Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the sky.
They chased us to the mountains and lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup> The breath in our nostrils—Yahweh's anointed one—
he was the one who was captured in their pits;
of whom it was said,
"Under his shadow we will live among the nations."

<sup>21</sup> Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom,
you who live in the land of Uz.
But to you also the cup will be passed;
you will be drunk and strip yourself naked.

<sup>22</sup> Daughter of Zion,
    your punishment will come to an end;
    he will not extend your exile.
But daughter of Edom,
    he will punish your iniquity;
    he will uncover your sins.

---

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> Remember, Yahweh, what has happened to us;
look and see our disgrace.
- <sup>2</sup> Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers;
our houses to foreigners.
- <sup>3</sup> We have become orphans, without a father,
and our mothers are like widows.
- <sup>4</sup> We must pay silver for the water we drink,
and we must pay silver to get our own wood.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who are coming after us are close behind us;
we are weary and we can find no rest.
- <sup>6</sup> We have given ourselves to Egypt and to Assyria to get enough food.
- <sup>7</sup> Our fathers sinned, and they are no more,
and we bear their iniquities.
- <sup>8</sup> Slaves rule over us,
and there is no one to deliver us from their hand.
- <sup>9</sup> We get our bread only by risking our lives,
because of the sword in the wilderness.
- <sup>10</sup> Our skin has grown as hot as an oven because of the burning heat of hunger.
- <sup>11</sup> Women are raped in Zion,
and virgins in the cities of Judah.
- <sup>12</sup> Princes are hung up by their own hands,
and no honor is shown to the elders.
- <sup>13</sup> Young men are forced to grind grain with a millstone, and boys stagger under heavy loads of wood.
- <sup>14</sup> The elders have left the city gate,
and the young men have left their music.
- <sup>15</sup> The joy of our heart has ceased and our dancing has turned into mourning.
- <sup>16</sup> The crown has fallen from our head;
woe to us, for we have sinned!
- <sup>17</sup> For this our heart has become sick,
for these things our eyes grow dim
- <sup>18</sup> for Mount Zion lies desolate, with jackals prowling over it.
- <sup>19</sup> But you, Yahweh, reign forever,
and you will sit upon your throne
from generation to generation.
- <sup>20</sup> Why do you forget us forever?
Why do you abandon us
for the length of your days?
- <sup>21</sup> Restore us to yourself, Yahweh,

and we will be restored.
Renew our days
as they were long ago—

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the thirtieth year, the fourth month, and the fifth day of the month, it came about that I was living among the captives by the Kebar Canal. The heavens opened, and I saw visions of God.<sup>2</sup>On the fifth day of that month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—<sup>3</sup>the word of Yahweh came to Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar Canal, and the hand of Yahweh was upon him there.

<sup>4</sup>Then I looked, and there was a windstorm coming from the north; a great cloud with fire flashing within it and brightness surrounding it and inside of it, and the fire was the color of amber inside the cloud.<sup>5</sup>In the middle was the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man,<sup>6</sup>but they had four faces each, and each of the creatures had four wings.

<sup>8</sup>Yet they had human hands under their wings on all four sides. For all four, their faces and wings were like this:<sup>9</sup>their wings touched each other. They did not turn when they moved; each one went straight ahead.

<sup>13</sup>As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches; bright fire also moved about among the creatures, and there were flashes of lightning.<sup>14</sup>The living creatures were moving swiftly back and forth, and they had the appearance of lightning!

<sup>15</sup>Then I looked at the living creatures; and I saw one wheel on the ground beside each of the living creatures with its four faces.<sup>16</sup>This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: Each wheel was like beryl, and the four had the same likeness; their appearance and workmanship was like a wheel intersecting another wheel.

<sup>17</sup>As they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went.<sup>18</sup>As for their rims, they were high and fearsome, for the rims were full of eyes round about.

<sup>19</sup>Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels also rose up.<sup>20</sup>Wherever the Spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose up beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.<sup>21</sup>Whenever the creatures moved, the wheels also moved; and when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; when the creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels rose up beside them, because the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>27</sup>I saw a figure with the appearance of glowing metal with fire in it from the appearance of his hips up; I saw from the appearance of his hips downward the appearance of fire and brightness all around.<sup>28</sup>Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day was the appearance of the bright light surrounding it. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet; then I will speak to you."<sup>2</sup>Then, as he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.<sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me—both they and their ancestors have sinned against me up to this very day!

<sup>4</sup>Their descendants have stubborn faces and hard hearts. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, "This is what the Lord Yahweh says."<sup>5</sup>Either they will listen or they will not listen. They are a rebellious house, but they will at least know that a prophet has been among them.

<sup>6</sup>You, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, although you are with briers and thorns and although you live with scorpions. Do not fear their words or be dismayed by their faces, since they are a rebellious house.

<sup>7</sup>But you will speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, because they are most rebellious.

<sup>8</sup>But you, son of man, listen to what I am saying to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am about to give to you!"

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked, and a hand was extended out to me; in it was a written scroll.<sup>10</sup>He spread it out before me; it had been written on both its front and back, and written on it were lamentations, mourning, and woe.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, what you have found, eat. Eat this scroll, then go speak to the house of Israel."<sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth, and he fed me that scroll.<sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly and fill your stomach with this scroll that I have given to you!" So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them.<sup>5</sup>For you are not being sent to a people of strange speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel—<sup>6</sup>not to many peoples of strange speech or a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I sent you to them, they would have listened to you.<sup>7</sup>But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me. So all the house of Israel is strong browed and hard hearted.

<sup>8</sup>Behold! I have made your face as hard as their faces and your brow as hard as their brows.<sup>9</sup>I have made your brow like a diamond, harder than flint! Do not fear them or be discouraged by their faces, since they are a rebellious house."

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, all the words that I announce to you—take them into your heart and hear them with your ears!<sup>11</sup>Then go to the captives, to your people, and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' whether they will listen or not."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake: "Blessed be the glory of Yahweh from his place!"<sup>13</sup>It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels that were with them, and the sound of a great earthquake.

<sup>14</sup>The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went with bitterness in the anger of my spirit, and the strong hand of Yahweh was on me.<sup>15</sup>So I went to the captives at Tel Aviv who lived along the Kebar Canal, and I stayed there among them for seven days, overwhelmed in amazement.

<sup>16</sup>Then it happened after seven days that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>17</sup>"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel, so listen to the word from my mouth, and give them my warning.<sup>18</sup>When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die' and you do not warn him or speak a warning to the wicked about his evil deeds so he might live—the wicked one will die for his iniquity, but I will require his blood from your hand.<sup>19</sup>But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked deeds, then he will die for his iniquity, but you will have rescued your own life.

<sup>20</sup>If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, and I set a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and I will not call to mind the righteous deeds that he performed, but I will require his blood from your hand.<sup>21</sup>But if you warn the righteous man to stop sinning so that he no longer sins, he will surely live since he was warned; and you will have rescued your own life."

<sup>22</sup>So the hand of Yahweh was on me there, and he said to me, "Arise! Go out into the plain, and I will speak with you there!"<sup>23</sup>I arose and went out into the plain, and there the glory of Yahweh was staying, like the glory that I had seen beside the Kebar Canal; so I fell on my face.

<sup>24</sup>The Spirit came to me and stood me up on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go and shut yourself up within your house,<sup>25</sup>for now, son of man, they will place ropes upon you and tie you so you cannot go out among them.

<sup>26</sup>I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so you will be mute, and you will not be able to rebuke them, since they are a rebellious house.<sup>27</sup>But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth so you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' The one who will hear will hear; the one who will not listen will not listen, for they are a rebellious house!"

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>"But you, son of man, take a brick for yourself and place it before you. Then carve the city of Jerusalem on it.

<sup>2</sup>Then lay siege against it, and build forts against it. Raise up a siege ramp against it and set camps around it. Place battering rams all around it.<sup>3</sup>Then take for yourself an iron pan and use it as an iron wall between yourself and the city and set your face against it, for it will be under siege, and you are to put the siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Then, lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel on it; you will bear their iniquity for the number of the days that you lie down against the house of Israel.<sup>5</sup>I myself am assigning to you one day to represent each year of their punishment: 390 days! In this way, you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>When you have completed these days, then lie down a second time on your right side, for you will bear the iniquity of the house of Judah for forty days. I am assigning to you one day for each year.<sup>7</sup>Set your face toward Jerusalem that is under siege, and with your arm uncovered prophesy against it.<sup>8</sup>For behold! I am placing bonds on you so you will not turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup>Take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make bread for yourself according to the number of the days that you will lie upon your side. For 390 days you will eat it.<sup>10</sup>The food you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels per day, and you will eat it at set times each day.<sup>11</sup>Then you will drink water, measured out to a sixth of a hin, and you will drink it at set times.

<sup>12</sup>You will eat it as barley cakes, but you will bake it on excrement of human dung within their sight!"<sup>13</sup>For Yahweh says, "This means that the bread that the people of Israel will eat will be unclean, there among the nations where I will banish them."

<sup>14</sup>But I said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh! I have never been unclean! I have never eaten either an animal that died by itself or anything killed by animals, from my youth until now, and foul meat has never entered my mouth!"<sup>15</sup>So he said to me, "Look! I have given you cow manure instead of human dung so you can prepare your bread over that."

<sup>16</sup>He also said to me, "Son of man! Behold! I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread while rationing it in anxiety and drink water while rationing it in horror."<sup>17</sup>Because they will lack bread and water, every man will be appalled at his brother, and they will waste away because of their iniquity."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>"Then you, son of man, take a sharp sword as a barber's razor for yourself, and pass the razor over your head and your beard, then take scales to weigh and divide your hair.<sup>2</sup>Burn a third of it with fire in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are completed, and take a third of the hair and strike it with the sword all around the city. Then scatter a third of it to the wind, and I will draw out a sword to chase after the people.

<sup>3</sup>But take a small number of hairs from them and tie them into the folds of your robe.<sup>4</sup>Then take more of the hair and throw it into the midst of the fire; and burn it in the fire; from there a fire will go out to all the house of Israel."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, "This is Jerusalem in the midst of the nations, where I have placed her, and where I have surrounded her with other lands.<sup>6</sup>But she has rebelled against my ordinances more wickedly than the nations have, and my statutes more than the lands that surround her. The people have rejected my ordinances and have not walked in my statutes."

<sup>7</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Because you are more troublesome than the nations that surround you and have not walked in my statutes or acted according to my decrees, or even acted according to the decrees of the nations that surround you,"<sup>8</sup>therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Behold! I myself will act against you. I will execute judgments within your midst for the nations to see.

<sup>9</sup>I will do to you what I have not done and the like of which I will not do again, because of all your disgusting practices.<sup>10</sup>Therefore fathers will eat the children in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers, since I will execute judgment on you and scatter to every direction all of you who remain.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—it is certainly because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your disgusting practices, that I myself will reduce you in number; my eye will not have pity on you, and I will not spare you.<sup>12</sup>A third of you will die by plague, and they will be consumed by famine in your midst. A third will fall by the sword surrounding you. Then I will scatter a third in every direction, and draw out a sword to chase after them as well.

<sup>13</sup>Then my wrath will be completed, and I will cause my fury toward them to rest. I will be comforted, and they will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my jealousy when I have completed my fury against them.<sup>14</sup>I will make you a ruin and an object of scorn to the nations that surround you and in the sight of everyone who passes by.

<sup>15</sup>So Jerusalem will become something for other people to condemn and to mock, a warning and a horror to the nations that surround you. I will execute judgments against you in wrath and fury, and with furious rebukes—I, Yahweh have declared this!<sup>16</sup>I will send out harsh arrows of famine against you that will become the means with which I will destroy you. For I will increase the famine on you and break your staff of bread.<sup>17</sup>I will send a famine and disasters against you so you will be childless. Plague and blood will pass through you, and I will bring a sword against you—I, Yahweh, have declared this."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds, and to the valleys: Behold! I am bringing a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

<sup>4</sup>Then your altars will become desolate and your pillars will be destroyed, and I will throw down your dead in front of their idols. <sup>5</sup>I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols, and scatter your bones around your altars.

<sup>6</sup>Everywhere you live, cities will be laid waste and the high places ruined, so that your altars will be laid waste and made desolate. Then your idols will be broken and disappear, your pillars will be cut down and your works will be wiped away. <sup>7</sup>The dead will fall down in your midst and you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>8</sup>But I will preserve a remnant among you, and there will be some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered throughout the lands. <sup>9</sup>Then those who escape will think of me among the nations where they will be held captive, that I was grieved by their promiscuous heart that turned away from me, and by their eyes that whored after their idols. Then they will show loathing on their face for the wickedness which they have committed with all their abominations. <sup>10</sup>So they will know that I am Yahweh. It was for a reason that I said I would bring this evil to them.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Clap your hands and stomp your foot! Say, 'Alas!' because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they will fall by sword, famine, and plague. <sup>12</sup>The one far away will die by plague, and the one who is near will fall by the sword. Those who remain and survive will die by famine. In this way I will accomplish my fury against them.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when their dead lie among their idols, around their altars, on every high hill—on all the mountain peaks, and under every flourishing tree and thick oak—the places where they burned incense to all their idols. <sup>14</sup>I will strike with my hand and make the land desolate and a waste, from the wilderness to Diblah, throughout all the places where they live. Then they will know that I am Yahweh." <sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Instead of Diblah, some ancient Hebrew copies and modern translations have Riblah.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"You, son of man—the Lord Yahweh says this to the land of Israel.

'An end! An end has come to the four borders of the land.

<sup>3</sup> Now the end is upon you,
for I am sending out my wrath on you,
and I will judge you according to your ways;
then I will bring all your abominations upon you.

<sup>4</sup> For my eye will not pity you,
and I will not spare you.
Instead, I will bring your ways upon you,
and your abominations will be in your midst.
Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'

<sup>5</sup>"The Lord Yahweh says this:

Disaster! A unique disaster!

Behold, it is coming. <sup>1</sup>

The end has woken up against you.
Behold, it is coming!

<sup>7</sup> Your doom is coming to you who inhabit the land.
The time has come; the day is near—tumult and not joyful shouting on the mountains.

<sup>8</sup> Now before long I will pour out my fury against you and fill up my wrath upon you when I judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.

<sup>9</sup> For my eye will not look compassionately,
and I will not spare you.

As you have done, I will do to you;
and your abominations will be in your midst
so you will know that I am Yahweh, the one punishing you.

<sup>10</sup> Behold, the day!
Behold, it is coming!

Doom has gone out!
The rod has blossomed,
arrogance has budded!

<sup>11</sup> Violence has grown up into a rod of wickedness—none of them, and none of their multitude, none of their wealth, and none of their importance will last!

<sup>12</sup> The time is coming; the day has come close.
Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn,
since my anger is on the entire multitude!

<sup>13</sup> For the seller will not return to the land he sold as long as they both live, because the vision concerning the entire multitude will not be reversed;
and because of their iniquity, none of them will be strengthened!

<sup>14</sup> They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready,
but there is no one marching to battle;
since my anger is on the entire multitude.

- <sup>15</sup> The sword is on the outside,
and plague and famine are inside the building.
Those who are in the field will die by the sword,
while famine and plague will consume those in the city.
- <sup>16</sup> But some survivors will escape from among them,
and they will go to the mountains.
Like doves of the valleys, all of them will moan—
each man for his iniquity.
- <sup>17</sup> Every hand will falter
and every knee will be weak as water,
- <sup>18</sup> and they will gird themselves sackcloth,
and trembling will cover them;
and shame will be on every face,
and baldness on all of their heads.
- <sup>19</sup> They will throw their silver into the streets and their gold will be an impure thing.
Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them in the day of Yahweh's rage.
Their lives will not be saved,
and their hunger will not be satisfied,
because their iniquity has become a stumbling block.
- <sup>20</sup> In their pride they took the beauty of his jeweled ornaments, and with them they made their abominable images and their detestable idols.
Therefore, I am turning these into an unclean thing to them.
- <sup>21</sup> Then I will give those things into the hand of strangers as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile them.
- <sup>22</sup> Then I will turn my face away from them
when they defile my cherished place;
bandits will enter it and defile it.
- <sup>23</sup> Make a chain, because the land is filled with the judgment of blood,
and the city is full of violence.
- <sup>24</sup> So I will bring the most wicked of the nations,
and they will possess their houses,
and I will bring an end to the pride of the mighty,
for their holy places will be defiled!
- <sup>25</sup> Fear will come!
They will seek peace,
but there will be none.
- <sup>26</sup> Disaster upon disaster will come,
and there will be rumor after rumor.
Then they will seek a vision from the prophet,
but the law will perish from the priest
and advice from the elders.
- <sup>27</sup> The king will mourn
and the prince will be clothed in horror, while the hands of the people of the land will tremble in fear.
According to their own ways I will do this to them!
I will judge them with their own standards until they know that I am Yahweh."

---

⌋Instead of Disaster! A unique disaster! some ancient copies have Disaster after disaster!

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>So it came about in the sixth year and the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Yahweh again fell upon me there.<sup>2</sup>So I looked, and behold, there was a likeness with the appearance of a man. From the appearance of his hips downward there was fire. And from his hips upward there was the appearance of something shining, like glowing metal.

<sup>3</sup>Then he reached out the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and in visions from God, he brought me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner northern gate, where the idol that provokes great jealousy was standing.<sup>4</sup>Then behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision I had seen on the plain.

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes to the north." So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and to the north of the gate leading to the altar, there in the entrance, was the idol of jealousy.<sup>6</sup>So he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing? These are great abominations that the house of Israel is doing here to make me go far from my own sanctuary. But you will turn and see even greater abominations."

<sup>7</sup>Then he brought me to the doorway of the courtyard, and I looked, and there was a hole in the wall.<sup>8</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, dig into this wall." So I dug into the wall, and there was a door.<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, "Go and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here."

<sup>10</sup>So I went in and looked, and behold, I saw there portrayed all over the walls every form of creeping things and detestable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel.<sup>11</sup>Seventy elders of the house of Israel were there, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing in their midst. They were standing in front of the images, and each man had his censer in his hand so that the smell of the cloud of incense went up.

<sup>12</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each one does this in the hidden chamber of his idol, for they say, 'Yahweh does not see us! Yahweh has abandoned the land.'"<sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "Turn again and see the other great abominations that they are doing."

<sup>14</sup>Next he brought me to the entrance of the gate of the house of Yahweh that was on the north side, and behold! The women were sitting there mourning for Tammuz.<sup>15</sup>So he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Turn again and see even greater abominations than these."

<sup>16</sup>He brought me into the inner courtyard of the house of Yahweh, and behold! at the entrance of the temple of Yahweh between the portico and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the sun.

<sup>17</sup>He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it a little thing for the house of Judah to do these abominations that they are doing here? For they have filled the land with violence and they have turned again to provoke me to anger, putting the branch to their noses.<sup>18</sup>So I will also act among them; my eye will not have compassion, and I will not spare them. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Then he cried in my hearing with a loud voice, and said, "Let the guards come up to the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand."<sup>2</sup>Then behold! Six men came from the pathway of the upper gate that faces north, each with his weapon of slaughter in his hand. There was a man in their midst dressed in linen with a scribe's equipment at his side. So they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherubim where it had been to the threshold of the house. He called to the man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment at his side.<sup>4</sup>Yahweh said to him, "Pass through the midst of the city—the midst of Jerusalem—and make a mark on the foreheads of those who groan and sigh about all the abominations being performed in the midst of the city."

<sup>5</sup>Then he spoke to the others within my hearing, "Pass through the city after him and kill. Do not let your eyes have compassion, and do not spare anyone.<sup>6</sup>Kill—completely destroy—old man, young man, virgin, little children or women. But do not approach anyone who has the mark on his head. Begin at my sanctuary!" So they began with the elders who were in front of the house.

<sup>7</sup>He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill its courtyards with the dead. Proceed!" So they went out and attacked the city.<sup>8</sup>As they were attacking it, I found myself alone and I fell on my face and cried out and said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh, will you destroy all the remnant of Israel in the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup>He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood and the city full of perversions, since they say, 'Yahweh has forgotten the land,' and 'Yahweh does not see!'"<sup>10</sup>But as for me, my eye will not pity them, and I will not spare them. I will bring their deeds upon their heads."<sup>11</sup>Behold! The man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment by his side came back. He reported and said, "I have done all that you have commanded."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>As I looked toward the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim; something appeared above them like a sapphire with the appearance of the likeness of a throne.<sup>2</sup>Then Yahweh spoke to the man dressed in linen and said, "Go between the wheels underneath the cherubim, and fill both your hands with fiery coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." Then the man went in as I watched.

<sup>3</sup>The cherubim stood on the right side of the house when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner courtyard.

<sup>4</sup>The glory of Yahweh rose up from the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the house. It filled the house with the cloud, and the courtyard was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory.<sup>5</sup>The sound of the cherubim's wings was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup>It came about, when God commanded the man dressed in linen and said, "Take fire from between the wheels that are between the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel.<sup>7</sup>A cherub reached out his hand between the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and lifted it up and placed it into the hands of the one dressed in linen. The man took it and went back out.<sup>8</sup>I saw on the cherubim something like a man's hand under their wings.

<sup>9</sup>So I looked, and behold! Four wheels were beside the cherubim—one wheel beside each cherub—and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.<sup>10</sup>Their appearance was the same likeness for all four of them, like a wheel intersecting another wheel.<sup>11</sup>When they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went; but whatever direction the head faced, they followed after it without turning as they went.

<sup>15</sup>Then the cherubim—these were the living creatures that I had seen by the Kebar Canal—rose up.<sup>16</sup>Whenever the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them, and whenever the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels did not turn. They still stayed beside them.<sup>17</sup>When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they rose up, the wheels rose up with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>18</sup>Then the glory of Yahweh went out from over the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubim.<sup>19</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels did the same beside them. They stood at the eastern entrance to the house of Yahweh, and the glory of the God of Israel came upon them from above.

<sup>20</sup>These were the living creatures that I had seen below the God of Israel by the Kebar Canal, so I knew that they were cherubim!<sup>21</sup>They had four faces each and four wings each, and the likeness of human hands under their wings,<sup>22</sup>and the likeness of their faces was like the faces that I had seen in the vision at the Kebar Canal, and each of them went straight ahead.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the house of Yahweh, facing east, and behold, in the doorway of the gate there were twenty-five men. I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people, among them.

<sup>2</sup>God said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who decide wicked plans in this city.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of Yahweh fell on me and he said for me to say: This is what Yahweh says, "That is what you are saying, house of Israel; for I know what goes through your mind.<sup>6</sup>You have multiplied the people you have killed in this city and filled its streets with them.<sup>7</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: The people you have killed, whose bodies you have laid in the midst of Jerusalem, are the meat, and this city is the pot. But you are going to be brought out from the midst of this city.

<sup>8</sup>You have feared the sword, so I am bringing the sword upon you—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.<sup>9</sup>I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and put you into the hands of foreigners, for I will bring judgments against you.<sup>10</sup>You will fall by the sword. I will judge you within the borders of Israel so you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>11</sup>This city will not be your cooking pot, nor will you be the meat within her midst. I will judge you within the borders of Israel.<sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, whose statutes you have not walked in and whose decrees you have not obeyed. Instead, you have followed the decrees of the nations that surround you."

<sup>13</sup>It came about that as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah, died. So I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh, will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?"

<sup>14</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>15</sup>"Son of man, your brothers! Your brothers! The men of your kindred and all the house of Israel! All of them are those of whom it is said by those living in Jerusalem, 'They are far away from Yahweh! This land was given to us as our possession.'

<sup>19</sup>I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will take out the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh,<sup>20</sup> so that they will walk in my statutes, they will carry out my decrees and do them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God.<sup>21</sup>But to those who walk with affection toward their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their conduct on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>22</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings and the wheels that were beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high up over them.<sup>23</sup>Then the glory of Yahweh went up from within the midst of the city and stood on the mountain to the east of the city.

<sup>24</sup>The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into Chaldea, to the exiles, in the vision from the Spirit of God, and the vision that I had seen went up from upon me.<sup>25</sup>Then I declared to the exiles all the things of Yahweh that I had seen.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, you live in the midst of a rebellious house, where they have eyes to see but they do not see; and where they have ears to hear but do not listen, because they are a rebellious house.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore as for you, son of man, prepare your things for exile, and begin going out by day in their sight, for I will exile you in their sight from your place to another place. Perhaps they will begin to see, though they are a rebellious house.

<sup>7</sup>So I did this, just as I was commanded. I brought out my things of exile in the daytime, and in the evening I dug a hole through the wall by hand. I brought my things out in the dark, and lifted them up on my shoulder in their sight.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me in the morning, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Son of man, is the house of Israel, that rebellious house, not asking, 'What are you doing?' <sup>10</sup>Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: this prophetic action concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel in whose midst they are.'

<sup>11</sup>Say, 'I am a sign to you.' As I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile and into captivity. <sup>12</sup>The prince who is among them will lift up his things upon his shoulder in the dark, and will go out through the wall. They will dig through the wall and bring out their things. He will cover his face, so he will not see the land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup>I will spread out my net over him and he will be caught in my snare; then I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it. He will die there.

<sup>14</sup>I will also scatter in every direction all of those around him who were to assist him and his entire army, and I will send out a sword after them. <sup>15</sup>Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands. <sup>16</sup>But I will spare a few men from among them from the sword, famine, and plague, so they may record all of their abominations in the lands where I take them, so they will know that I am Yahweh."

<sup>19</sup>Then say to the people of the land, 'The Lord Yahweh says this concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel, "They will eat their bread with trembling and drink their water with horror, since the land will be stripped of its fullness because of the violence of all those who dwell there. <sup>20</sup>So the cities that were inhabited will be desolate, and the land will become a wasteland; so you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

<sup>21</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup>"Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel that says, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'? <sup>23</sup>Therefore, say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I will put an end to this proverb, and the people of Israel will no longer use it.' Say to them, 'The days have drawn near when every vision will be fulfilled.

<sup>24</sup>For there will no longer be any false visions or favorable divinations within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup>For I am Yahweh! I speak, and I carry out the words that I speak. The matter will no longer be delayed. For I will speak this word in your days, rebellious house, and I will carry it out!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>26</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup>"Son of man! Behold, the house of Israel has said, 'The vision that he sees is for a time many days from now, and he prophesies of far off times. <sup>28</sup>Therefore say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: My words will not be delayed any longer, but the word that I have spoken will be done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

Chapter 13

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because you have had false visions and have told lies—therefore this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration against you: <sup>9</sup>My hand will be against the prophets who have lying visions and who practice false divination. They will not be in the assembly of my people, or enrolled in the record of the house of Israel; they must not go to the land of Israel. For you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!

<sup>10</sup>Because of this, and because they led my people astray and said, "Peace!" when there is no peace, they are building a wall that they will paint with whitewash. <sup>11</sup>Say to those who are whitewashing the wall, 'It will fall down; there will be a downpour of rain, and I will send hailstones to make it fall down, and a windstorm wind to break it down. <sup>12</sup>See, the wall will fall down. Have others not said to you, "Where is the whitewash that you put on it?"

<sup>13</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I will bring a windstorm in my rage, and there will be floods of rain in my wrath! Hailstones in my rage will completely destroy it. <sup>14</sup>For I will tear down the wall that you have covered with whitewash, and I will demolish it to the ground and lay bare its foundations. So it will fall, and you will be annihilated in the middle of it all. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>For I will annihilate in my fury the wall and those who whitewashed it. I will say to you, "The wall exists no more, nor do the people who whitewashed it—<sup>16</sup>the prophets of Israel who prophesied about Jerusalem and who had visions of peace for her. But there is no peace!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>17</sup>So you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own minds, and prophesy against them. <sup>18</sup>Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the women who sew magic charms onto every part of their hand and make veils for their heads of every size, used to hunt down people. Will you hunt down my people but save your own lives?

<sup>19</sup>You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and crumbs of bread, to kill people who should not die, and to preserve the lives of those who should not continue to live, because of your lies to my people who heard you.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I am against the magic charms that you have used to ensnare the people's lives as if they were birds. Indeed, I will tear them from your arms; and the people whom you have trapped like birds—I will let them go free. <sup>21</sup>I will tear away your veils and rescue my people from your hand, so they will no longer be trapped in your hands. You will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>22</sup>Because you discouraged the heart of the righteous with lies, even though I did not cause him grief, and because you strengthened the hands of the wicked so that he does not turn from his evil ways and save his life, <sup>23</sup>therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will rescue my people out of your hand. You will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me.<sup>2</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>3</sup>"Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their hearts and have put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their own faces. Should I be inquired of at all by them?

<sup>4</sup>Therefore announce this to them and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, or who puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and who then comes to a prophet—I, Yahweh, will answer him according to the number of his idols.<sup>5</sup>I will do this so that I may take back the house of Israel in their hearts that have been driven far from me through their idols.'

<sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Repent and turn away from your idols! Turn back your faces from all your abominations.

<sup>7</sup>For every one from the house of Israel and every one of the foreigners sojourning in Israel who deserts me, who takes his idols into his heart and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his own face, and who then comes to a prophet to seek me—I, Yahweh, will answer him myself.<sup>8</sup>So I will set my face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, for I will cut him off from the midst of my people, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>If a prophet is deceived and speaks a message, then I, Yahweh, will deceive that prophet; I will reach out with my hand against him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.<sup>10</sup>They will carry their own iniquity; the iniquity of the prophet will be the same as the iniquity of the one who inquires from him.<sup>11</sup>Because of this, the house of Israel will no longer wander away from following me nor defile themselves any longer through all their transgressions. They will be my people, and I will be their God—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>15</sup>If I send evil beasts through the land and make it barren so that it becomes a wasteland where no man may pass through because of the beasts,<sup>16</sup>then even if these same three men were in it—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued, but the land would become a wasteland.

<sup>17</sup>Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, 'Sword, go through the land and cut off both men and animals from it',<sup>18</sup>then even if these three men were in the midst of the land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued.

<sup>19</sup>Or if I send a plague against this land and pour out my fury against it through bloodshed, in order to cut off both men and animals,<sup>20</sup>then even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: I will certainly make things worse by sending my four judgments—famine, sword, wild animals, and plague—against Jerusalem to cut off both men and animals from her.

<sup>22</sup>Yet, behold! An escaped remnant will be left in her, survivors who will go out with sons and daughters. Behold! They will go out to you, and you will see their ways and actions and be comforted concerning the punishment that I have sent to Jerusalem, and about everything else that I have sent against the land.<sup>23</sup>The survivors will comfort you when you see their ways and their actions, so you will know all these things I have done against her, that I have not done them in vain!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 15

<sup>5</sup>See! When it was complete, it could not make anything; surely then, when the fire has burned, then it still will not make anything useful. <sup>6</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Unlike the trees in the forests, I have given the vine as fuel for fires; I will act in the same way toward the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>For I will set my face against them. Though they come out from the fire, yet the fire will consume them; so you will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. <sup>8</sup>Then I will make the land into an abandoned wasteland because they have committed faithlessness—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her abominations,<sup>3</sup> and declare, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to Jerusalem: Your beginning and your birth took place in the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup>On the day of your birth, your mother did not cut your navel, nor did she purify you in water or rub you down with salt, or wrap cloth around you.<sup>5</sup>No eye had compassion for you to do any of these things for you, to be compassionate toward you. On the day that you were born, with loathing for your life, you were thrown out into the open field.

<sup>6</sup>But I passed by you, and I saw you writhing in your own blood; so I said to you in your blood, "Live!" I said to you in your blood, "Live!" <sup>7</sup>I made you grow like a plant in a field. You multiplied and became great, and you became the jewel of jewels. Your breasts became firm, and your hair grew thick, though you had been naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup>I passed by you again, and I saw you. See! the time of love came for you, so I spread my robe over you and covered your nakedness. Then I swore to you and brought you into a covenant—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and you became mine.

<sup>9</sup>So I washed you with water and rinsed your blood off you, and I anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup>I dressed you in embroidered clothes and placed leather sandals on your feet. I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup>Next I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain around your neck. <sup>12</sup>I put a nose ring in your nostrils and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

<sup>13</sup>So you were adorned with gold and silver, and you were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes; you ate fine flour, honey, and oil, and you were very beautiful, and you became a queen. <sup>14</sup>Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect in the majesty that I had given to you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup>But you trusted in your own beauty, and you acted like a prostitute because of your fame; you poured out your acts of prostitution on everyone who passed by, so that your beauty became his. <sup>16</sup>Then you took your clothes and with them you made high places for yourself decorated in various colors, and there you acted like a prostitute. This should not have happened. Nor should such a thing exist.

<sup>20</sup>Then you took your sons and daughters whom you bore for me, and you sacrificed them to the images to be devoured as food. Are your acts of prostitution a small matter? <sup>21</sup>You slaughtered my children to the idols and made them pass through the fire. <sup>22</sup>In all your abominations and your acts of prostitution you have not thought about the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare as you thrashed about in your blood.

<sup>23</sup>Woe! Woe to you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—therefore, in addition to all this wickedness, <sup>24</sup>you built yourself a mound and made yourself a high place in every public place.

<sup>25</sup>You built your high place at the head of every road and made your beauty abominable, and you spread your legs to anyone who passed by, and you multiplied your acts of prostitution. <sup>26</sup>You have acted like a prostitute with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and you committed many more acts of prostitution, provoking me to anger.

<sup>27</sup>See! I will strike you with my hand and cut off your food. I will hand your life over to your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your obscene behavior. <sup>28</sup>You have acted like a prostitute with the Assyrians because you could not be satisfied. You acted like a prostitute and still were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup>You performed many more acts of prostitution in the land of the merchants of Chaldea, and even this did not satisfy you.

<sup>30</sup>How weak is your heart—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—that you would do all these things, deeds of a shameless prostitute? <sup>31</sup>You have built your mounds at the head of every street and made your high places in every public square. Yet you were not like a prostitute because you scoffed at taking payment.

<sup>32</sup>You adulterous woman, you accept strangers instead of your husband. <sup>33</sup>People give payment to every prostitute, but you give your wages to all your lovers and bribe them to come to you from all around for your acts of prostitution.<sup>34</sup> So there is a difference between you and other women in your fornication. No one offers payment for you to act like a prostitute. You are the very opposite. You gave them payment and none was given to you.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, you prostitute, listen to the word of Yahweh. <sup>36</sup> The Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have poured out your lust and uncovered your nakedness through your acts of prostitution with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood,<sup>37</sup> therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers that you have met, all those whom you loved and all those whom you hated, and I will gather them against you on every side. I will uncover your nakedness to them so they see all your nakedness.

<sup>38</sup> For I will punish you for adultery and the shedding of blood, and I will bring on you the bloodshed of my anger and jealousy.<sup>39</sup> I will give you into their hands so they will throw down your vaulted chamber and break down your high places and they will strip you of your clothes and take all of your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare.

<sup>40</sup> Then they will bring up a crowd against you and stone you with stones, and they will cut you apart with their swords.<sup>41</sup> They will burn your houses and will perform many judgments on you in the sight of many women, for I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers.<sup>42</sup> Then I will calm my fury against you; my jealousy will leave you, for I will be satisfied, and will no longer be angry.

<sup>43</sup> Because you did not call to mind the days of your youth and have made me shake with anger because of all these things, therefore, behold! I myself will bring down on your own head the punishment for what you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Have you not added prostitution to all your other detestable practices?

<sup>44</sup> Behold! Everyone who speaks proverbs concerning you will say, "As the mother is, so also is her daughter."<sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who detested her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters who detested their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite.

<sup>46</sup> Your older sister was Samaria and her daughters were the ones living in the north, while your younger sister was the one living south of you, that is, Sodom and her daughters.

<sup>47</sup> You not only walked in their ways and committed their disgusting practices, but in all your ways you have acted more corruptly than they.<sup>48</sup> As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—your sister Sodom and her daughters, have not done as much evil as you and your daughters have done.

<sup>51</sup> Samaria did not commit even half of your sins. You have done many more disgusting things than they did, and you have made your sisters appear more righteous than you because of all the disgusting things you have done!

<sup>52</sup> Bear your disgrace, for you have furnished justification for your sisters. Because of your sins, which you committed so abominably, you have made your sisters appear to be more righteous than you. So then, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

<sup>53</sup> For I will reverse their captivity—the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters—and your captivity will be among them.<sup>54</sup> On account of these things you will show your shame; you will be humiliated because of everything that you have done, and in this way you will be a comfort to them.

<sup>55</sup> So your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored to their former condition, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored to their former estate. Then you and your daughters will be restored to your former condition.

<sup>56</sup> Sodom your sister was not even mentioned by your mouth in the days when you were proud,<sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was revealed. Now you are scorned by the daughters of Edom and to all the daughters of the Philistines around her—all those around you despise you.<sup>58</sup> You will show your shame and your disgusting practices!—this is Yahweh's declaration!

<sup>59</sup> The Lord Yahweh says this: I will deal with you as you deserve, you who have despised your oath by breaking the covenant.

<sup>60</sup> But I myself will call to mind my covenant with you made in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.<sup>61</sup> Then you will call to mind your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older sisters and your younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant.

<sup>62</sup>I myself will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>63</sup>Because of these things, you will call everything to mind and be ashamed, so you will no longer open your mouth to speak because of your shame, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 17

<sup>5</sup>He also took some seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil. He placed it beside a large body of water like a willow. <sup>6</sup>Then it sprouted and became a spreading vine low to the ground. Its branches turned toward him, and its roots grew under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and sent out shoots.

<sup>7</sup>But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. Behold! This vine turned its roots toward the eagle, and it spread out its branches toward the eagle from the place it had been planted so it would be watered. <sup>8</sup>It had been planted in good soil beside a large body of water so it would produce branches and sprout fruit, to become a glorious vine.'

<sup>9</sup>Say to the people, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Will it prosper? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers, and all its fresh growth will wither? No strong arm or many people will be needed to pull it out by its roots. <sup>10</sup>So behold! After it has been planted, will it grow? Will it not wither when the eastern wind touches it? It will completely wither away in the garden plot where it sprouted.'"

<sup>11</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>"Speak to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean? Behold! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took her king and her princes and brought them to him in Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>Then he took a royal descendant, made a covenant with him, and brought him under an oath. He took away the mighty men of the land, <sup>14</sup>so the kingdom might become lowly and not lift itself up. By keeping his covenant the land will survive.

<sup>15</sup>But the king of Jerusalem rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt to acquire horses and an army. Will he succeed? Will the one doing these things escape? If he breaks the covenant, will he escape?

<sup>16</sup>As I live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—he will surely die in the land of the king who made him king, the king whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke. He will die in the middle of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, was it not my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke? So I will bring his punishment on his head! <sup>20</sup>I will spread my net out over him, and he will be caught in my hunting net. Then I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for his faithlessness that he committed when he betrayed me! <sup>21</sup>All of his refugees in his armies will fall by the sword, and the ones who remain will be scattered in every direction. Then you will know that I am Yahweh; I have declared this would happen."

<sup>22</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'So I myself will take a twig from the highest part of the cedar tree and I will plant it. I will break off a tender twig, and I myself will plant it on a high mountain. <sup>23</sup>I will plant it on the mountains of Israel so it will bear branches and produce fruit, and it will become a majestic cedar so that every winged bird will live under it. They will nest in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup>Then all the trees of the field will know that I am Yahweh. I bring down the high trees and I raise up the low trees. I wither the watered tree and I cause the dried tree to bloom. I am Yahweh, I have declared that this will happen; and I have done it.'"

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, <sup>2</sup>"What do you mean, you who use this proverb concerning the land of Israel and say, 'Fathers eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are made blunt'?"

<sup>3</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—there will certainly no longer be any occasion for you to use this proverb in Israel. <sup>4</sup>Behold! Every life belongs to me—the life of the father as well as the life of the son, they belong to me! The soul who sins is the one who will die!

<sup>5</sup>What can be said about a man who is righteous and who carries out justice and righteousness—<sup>6</sup>if he does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and he does not defile his neighbor's wife or approach a woman during her impurity, is he a righteous man?

<sup>7</sup>What can be said about a man who does not oppress anyone, who gives back to the debtor his pledge, and who does not commit robbery but gives his food to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing—is he a righteous man?

<sup>8</sup>What can be said about a man who does not loan money for usury or take interest but keeps his hand from injustice? It is said of him that he carries out justice and establishes faithfulness between people. <sup>9</sup>If that man walks in my statutes and keeps my decrees to act faithfully, then the promise for this righteous man is this: He will surely live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>10</sup>But suppose that he has a violent son who sheds blood and does any one of these things that were mentioned, <sup>11</sup>(though his father has not done any of these things). He eats upon the mountains and he defiles his neighbor's wife, what can be said about him?

<sup>12</sup>He oppresses the poor and needy; he commits robbery and does not return a pledge, and he lifts up his eyes to the idols and commits disgusting practices, <sup>13</sup>and he loans money for usury and takes interest, should that man live? Surely he will not live! He will certainly die and his blood will be on him because he has done all these detestable things.

<sup>14</sup>But behold! Suppose there is a man who bears a son, and his son sees all the sins that his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do those things.

<sup>15</sup>That son does not eat upon the mountains, and he does not lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and he does not defile his neighbor's wife, what can be said about him?

<sup>16</sup>That son does not oppress anyone, or require a pledge, or commit robbery, but instead gives his food to the hungry and covers up the naked with clothing. <sup>17</sup>That son does not oppress anyone or loan money for usury or take interest, but he carries out my decrees and walks according to my statutes; that son will not die for his father's iniquity: He will surely live!

<sup>19</sup>But you say, 'Why does the son not bear the iniquity of his father?' Because the son carries out justice and righteousness and keeps all my statutes; he does them. He will surely live! <sup>20</sup>The one who sins, he is the one who will die. A son will not bear his father's iniquity, and a father will not bear his son's iniquity. The righteousness of the one who acts rightly will be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be on himself.

<sup>21</sup>But if the wicked turns away from all his sins that he has done, and obeys all my statutes and performs justice and righteousness, then he will certainly live and not die. <sup>22</sup>All the transgressions that he has committed will not be called to mind against him. He will live by the righteousness that he practices.

<sup>24</sup>But if the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and practices abominations like all the abominations that the wicked person does, then will he live? All the righteousness that he had done will not be called to mind when he betrays me in his treachery. So he will die in the sins that he committed.

<sup>25</sup>But you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' Listen, house of Israel! Are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?<sup>26</sup>When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity and dies because of them, then he will die in the iniquity that he has done.

<sup>27</sup>But when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has done and performs justice and righteousness, then he will preserve his life.<sup>28</sup>For he has seen and turned away from all the transgressions that he had done. He will surely live, and he will not die.

<sup>29</sup>But the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' How is my way not fair, house of Israel? It is your ways that are not fair.<sup>30</sup>Therefore I will judge each man among you according to his ways, house of Israel!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Repent and turn away from all your transgressions so that they will not be stumbling blocks of iniquity against you.

<sup>31</sup>Throw away from yourselves all of the transgressions that you have committed; make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel?<sup>32</sup>For I have no delight in the death of the one who dies—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so repent and live!"

Chapter 19

- <sup>1</sup>"Now you, take up a lamentation against the leaders of Israel<sup>2</sup> and say,
- 'Who was your mother?
A lioness, she lived with a lion's son;
in the midst of young lions, she nurtured her cubs.
- <sup>3</sup> She is the one who raised up one of her cubs to become a young lion,
a lion who learned to tear apart his prey,
and then he devoured men.
- <sup>4</sup> Then the nations heard about him.
He was caught in their trap,
and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
- <sup>5</sup> Then she saw that although she had waited for his return,
her expectation was now gone,
so she took another of her cubs
and raised him to become a young lion.
- <sup>6</sup> This young lion roamed about in the midst of lions.
He was a young lion and learned to tear his victims;
he devoured men.
- <sup>7</sup> He seized their widows
and ruined their cities.
The land and its fullness were made desolate because of the sound of his roaring. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>8</sup> But the nations came against him from the surrounding provinces;
they spread their nets over him.
He was caught in their trap.
- <sup>9</sup> With hooks they put him in a cage
and then they brought him to the king of Babylon.
They brought him to the strongholds
so that his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.
- <sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine planted in your blood beside the water. <sup>2</sup>
It was fruitful and full of branches because of the abundance of water.
- <sup>11</sup> It had strong branches that were used for rulers' scepters, and its size was exalted above the branches,
and its height was seen by the greatness of its foliage.
- <sup>12</sup> But the vine was uprooted in fury
and thrown down to the earth,
and an eastern wind dried out its fruit.
Its strong branches were broken off and withered
and fire consumed them.
- <sup>13</sup> So now it is planted in the wilderness,
in a land of drought and thirst.
- <sup>14</sup> For fire went out from her large branches and consumed its fruit.
There is no strong branch on it,
no scepter to rule.'

This is a lamentation and will be sung as a lamentation."

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>It came about in the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, that elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh and sat before me.

<sup>2</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>"Son of man, declare to the elders of Israel and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, I will not be inquired of by you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>4</sup>'Will you judge them? Will you judge, son of man? Let them know about their fathers' abominations.'<sup>5</sup>Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I chose Israel and raised my hand to swear an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I raised my hand to swear an oath to them. I said, "I am Yahweh your God"—<sup>6</sup>on that day I raised my hand to swear an oath to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had carefully selected for them. It was flowing with milk and honey; it was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands.

<sup>7</sup>I said to them, "Let each man throw away the detestable things from before his eyes and the idols of Egypt. Do not make yourselves unclean; I am Yahweh your God."

<sup>8</sup>But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen to me. Each man did not throw away the detestable things from before his eyes nor abandon the idols of Egypt, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath among them in the middle of the land of Egypt.<sup>9</sup>I acted for my name's sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were staying. I made myself known to them, in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>So I sent them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.<sup>11</sup>Then I gave them my statutes and made my decrees known to them, by which a man will live if he obeys them.<sup>12</sup>I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between myself and them, for them to know that I am Yahweh who makes them holy.

<sup>13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes; instead, they rejected my decrees, by which a man will live if he obeys them, and they greatly profaned my Sabbaths. So, I said I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness in order to end them.<sup>14</sup>But I acted for my name's sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out of Egypt.

<sup>15</sup>So I myself also raised my hand to swear an oath to them in the wilderness not to bring them into the land that I had been going to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands.<sup>16</sup>I swore this because they had rejected my decrees and did not walk in my statutes, and they profaned my Sabbaths, since their hearts walked after their idols.<sup>17</sup>But my eye spared them from their destruction and I did not completely destroy them in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup>I said to their children in the wilderness, "Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, or keep their rules, or defile yourselves with their idols."<sup>19</sup>I am Yahweh your God, walk in my statutes; keep my decrees and obey them.

<sup>20</sup>Keep my Sabbaths holy so that they will be a sign between me and you, so that you will know that I am Yahweh your God."

<sup>21</sup>But their sons and daughters rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes or keep my decrees, by which a man might live if he obeys them. They profaned my Sabbaths, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath against them in the wilderness.<sup>22</sup>But I turned my hand away and acted for my name's sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought out the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup>I myself also lifted up my hand to swear to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands.<sup>24</sup>I decided to do this since they had not obeyed my decrees, and since they had rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths. Their eyes were longing after their fathers' idols.

<sup>25</sup>Then I also gave them statutes that were not good, and decrees by which they could not live.<sup>26</sup>I declared them to be unclean through their gifts—they made a sacrifice of every firstborn of the womb and caused them to pass through the fire—that I might fill them with horror so they will know that I am Yahweh!"

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: In this also your fathers blasphemed me when they were unfaithful to me.'<sup>28</sup>When I brought them into the land that I had sworn to give them, and then whenever they saw any high hill and leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices, they provoked me by their offerings, and there they also burned their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings.

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to them, "What is this high place where you bring offerings there?" So the name is called Bamah to this day.'

<sup>30</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Why do you make yourselves unclean with the ways of your fathers? So why do you act like prostitutes, searching for disgusting things?'<sup>31</sup>When you offer up your gifts—when you cause your sons to pass through the fire—to this day you defile yourselves with all your idols. So why should I let you seek me, house of Israel? As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will not allow you to seek me.<sup>32</sup>The thought that is forming in your mind will never happen. You say, "Let us be like the other nations, like the clans in the other lands who worship wood and stone."

<sup>33</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will certainly reign over you with a mighty hand, a raised arm, and fury that will be poured out on you.<sup>34</sup>I will bring you out from the other peoples and will gather you out of the lands among whom you have been scattered. I will do this with a mighty hand and with fury poured out.

<sup>35</sup>Then I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will judge you face to face.

<sup>36</sup>As I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so also I will judge you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.<sup>37</sup>I will cause you to pass under my rod, and I will make you obey the requirements of the covenant.<sup>38</sup>I will purge from among you the rebels and those who revolt against me. I will send them out from the land where they are staying as foreigners, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>39</sup>So to you, house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Each of you should go to his own idols. Worship them if you will refuse to listen to me, but you must no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and your idols.

<sup>40</sup>For on my holy mountain, on the mountain peak of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—all of the house of Israel will worship me there in the land. I will be pleased to require your contributions there, and also the firstfruits of your tribute with all your holy things.<sup>41</sup>I will accept you like fragrant incense when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the lands where you have been scattered. I will show myself as holy among you for the nations to see.

<sup>42</sup>Then, when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land that I have lifted up my hand to swear to give to your fathers, you will know that I am Yahweh.<sup>43</sup>There you will call to mind your conduct and all of your deeds by which you defiled yourselves, and you will despise yourselves in your own eyes for all your evil deeds that you have done.<sup>44</sup>So you will know that I am Yahweh when I do this to you because of my name's sake, and not because of your evil deeds, and not because of your corrupt deeds, house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>45</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward the southern lands, and speak against the south; prophesy against the forest of the Negev."<sup>47</sup>Say to the forest of the Negev, "This is Yahweh's declaration—the Lord Yahweh says this: See, I will set a fire among you. It will devour every fresh tree and every dried tree among you. The fiery flame will not be quenched; every face from the south to the north will be burned.

<sup>48</sup>Then all flesh will see that I am Yahweh when I light the fire, and it will not be quenched."<sup>49</sup>Then I said, "Alas! Lord Yahweh, they are saying of me, 'Is he not a mere teller of parables?'"

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Say to the land of Israel, 'Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you! I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous person and the wicked person from you!

<sup>4</sup>In order for me to cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you, my sword will go out from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. <sup>5</sup>Then all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword from its sheath. It will no longer hold back!

<sup>6</sup>As for you, son of man, groan as your loins break! In bitterness groan before their eyes! <sup>7</sup>Then it will happen that they will ask you, 'For what reason are you groaning?' Then you will say, 'Because of the news that is coming, for every heart will melt, and every hand will falter! Every spirit will grow faint, and every knee will flow like water. Behold! It is coming and it will be like this!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord says this:

Say: A sword! A sword!

It will be sharpened and polished!

<sup>10</sup> It will be sharpened in order to engage in great slaughter!

It will be polished in order to be like lightning!

Should we rejoice in my son's scepter?

The coming sword hates every such rod!

<sup>11</sup> So the sword will be given to be polished, and then to be grasped by the hand!

The sword is sharpened and it is polished and it is to be given into the hand of the one who kills!"

<sup>12</sup> Call for help and wail, son of man!

For that sword has come against my people!

It is against all the leaders of Israel.

They are thrown against the sword with my people.

Therefore, slap your thigh!

<sup>13</sup> For there is a trial,

but what if the scepter that despises does not last?

—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>14</sup> Now you, son of man, prophesy and hit your two hands together,

for the sword will attack even a third time!

A sword for the ones to be slaughtered!

It is a sword for the many to be slaughtered, piercing them everywhere!

<sup>15</sup> In order to melt their hearts and to multiply their fallen,

I have set the sword for slaughter at all their gates.

Ah! It is made like lightning, it is grasped for slaughter.

<sup>16</sup> Strike sharply to the righthand side!

Strike to the lefthand side!

Go wherever your face is turned.

<sup>17</sup> For I will also hit my two hands together, and then I will bring my fury to rest!

I, Yahweh, declare it!"

<sup>18</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, <sup>19</sup>"Now you, son of man, assign two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. The two roads will start in the same land, and a signpost will mark one of them as leading to a city.<sup>20</sup> Mark one road for the sword to come to Rabbah, the city of the Ammonites. Mark the other to lead the army to Judah and the city of Jerusalem, which is fortified.

<sup>21</sup>For the king of Babylon will stop at the crossroads, at the junction, in order to practice divination. He will shake some arrows and ask direction from some idols and he will examine a liver.<sup>22</sup>In his right hand will be a divination about Jerusalem, to set battering rams against it, to open his mouth to order the slaughter, to sound a war cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp, and to erect siege towers.<sup>23</sup>It will seem to be a false divination in their eye, those who had sworn an oath to the Babylonians! But the king will accuse them of iniquity in order to besiege them!

<sup>24</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your guilt to be remembered, making your transgressions to be revealed, so that in all your actions your sins will be seen—because you have done this you will be taken in hand.

<sup>25</sup>As for you, profane and wicked ruler of Israel, whose day of punishment has come, and whose time of committing iniquity has ended,<sup>26</sup>the Lord Yahweh says this to you: Remove the turban and take off the crown! Things will no longer be the same! Exalt the lowly and humble the exalted!<sup>27</sup>A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! It will not be restored until the one comes who is assigned to execute judgment.

<sup>30</sup>Return the sword to its sheath. In the place of your creation, in the land of your origin, I will judge you!<sup>31</sup>I will pour out my indignation on you! I will fan the fire of my rage against you and put you into the hand of cruel men, craftsmen of destruction!

<sup>32</sup>You will become fuel for the fire! Your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, Yahweh have declared this!"

---

Chapter 22

<sup>2</sup>"Now you, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the city of blood? Make her know all her abominations.<sup>3</sup>You must say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: This is a city that pours out blood in her midst so that her time may come; a city that makes idols to make herself unclean.

<sup>4</sup>You have become guilty by the blood that you have poured out, and you have become unclean by the idols that you have made. You have drawn your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughingstock to all the lands.<sup>5</sup>Both those who are near and those who are far away from you will mock you—you unclean city—with the reputation known everywhere as being full of confusion.

<sup>13</sup>See! With my hand I have struck the dishonest gain that you have made, and the bloodshed that is done in the midst of you.<sup>14</sup>Will your heart stand, will your hands be strong on the days when I myself will deal with you? I, Yahweh, am declaring this, and I will do it.<sup>15</sup>So I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the lands. In this way, I will purge your uncleanness from you.<sup>16</sup>So you will become unclean in the eyes of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'" <sup>1</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Next the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>18</sup>"Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are the leftovers of bronze and tin, and iron and lead in the midst of you. They will be like the dross of silver in your furnace.<sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because all of you have become like dross, therefore, behold! I am about to gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead and tin and put it inside a furnace to melt it, and they blow the fire on it in order to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and my wrath, and I will put you there and melt you.<sup>21</sup>I will gather you and blow on you the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in the midst of it.<sup>22</sup>As silver is melted in a furnace, you will be melted in it, and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you!"

<sup>26</sup>Her priests do violence to my law, and they profane my holy things. They do not distinguish between holy things and profane things, and do not teach the difference between the unclean and the clean. They hide their eyes from my Sabbaths so that I am profaned in their midst.<sup>27</sup>Her princes within her are like wolves tearing apart their victims. They pour out blood and destroy life for unjust gain.<sup>28</sup>Her prophets have painted them over with whitewash—their seers of false visions and diviners of lies. They say "The Lord Yahweh says this" when Yahweh has not spoken.

<sup>29</sup>The people of the land have oppressed through extortion and plundered through robbery, and they mistreat the poor and needy, and oppress the foreigner without justice.

<sup>30</sup>So I searched for a man from them who would build up a wall and who would stand before me in its breach for the land so I would not destroy it, but I found no one.<sup>31</sup>So I will pour out my indignation upon them. I will finish them with the fire of my indignation and set their way on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.

<sup>3</sup>They acted as prostitutes in Egypt in the time of their youth. They acted as prostitutes there. Their breasts were squeezed and their virgin nipples were fondled there. <sup>4</sup>Their names were Oholah—the older sister—and Oholibah—her younger sister. Then they became mine and bore sons and daughters. Their names mean this: Oholah means Samaria, and Oholibah means Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>But Oholah acted as a prostitute even when she was mine; she lusted for her lovers, for the Assyrians who were dominant, <sup>6</sup>for the governor clothed in purple, and for his officials, who were strong and handsome, all of them men riding on horses. <sup>7</sup>So she gave herself as a prostitute to them, to all the best of Assyria's men, and she made herself unclean with everyone she lusted for—and with all their idols.

<sup>12</sup>She lusted for the Assyrians, the governors and the dominating officials who dressed impressively, who were men riding horses. All of them were strong, handsome men. <sup>13</sup>I saw that she had made herself unclean. It was the same for both sisters.

<sup>16</sup>As soon as her eyes saw them, she lusted for them, so she sent out messengers to them in Chaldea. <sup>17</sup>Then the Babylonians came to her and to her bed of lust, and they made her unclean with their fornication. By what she had done she was made unclean, so she turned herself away from them in disgust.

<sup>18</sup>When she displayed her acts of prostitution and uncovered her nakedness, I turned away from her, just as I had turned away in disgust from her sister. <sup>19</sup>Then she increased her prostitution as she remembered the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>So she lusted for her lovers, whose private parts were like those of donkeys and whose reproductive emissions were like those of horses. <sup>21</sup>This is how you committed shameful acts of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your nipples and squeezed your young breasts.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, Oholibah, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will turn your lovers against you. Those from whom you turned away, I will bring them against you from every side: <sup>23</sup>the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, strong, handsome men, governors and officials, all of them are officers and men of reputation, all of them riding on horses.

<sup>24</sup>They will come against you with weapons, and with chariots and wagons, and with a great crowd of people. They will set large shields, small shields, and helmets against you all around. I will give them the opportunity to punish you, and they will judge you according to their judgments. <sup>25</sup>For I will set my jealous anger on you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and your daughters, and your survivors will be devoured by fire.

<sup>26</sup>They will strip you of your clothes and take away all of your beautiful jewelry. <sup>27</sup>So I will remove your shameful behavior from you and your acts of prostitution from the land of Egypt. You will not lift up your eyes toward them with longing, and you will think of Egypt no longer.'

<sup>28</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will give you into the hand of the ones you hate, back into the hand of the ones from whom you had turned away. <sup>29</sup>They will deal with you hatefully; they will take all the products of your labor and abandon you naked and bare. The nakedness of your fornication will be uncovered—and your wicked deeds and your fornications.

<sup>30</sup>These things will be done to you in your acting like a prostitute, lusting after nations by which you became unclean with their idols. <sup>31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister, so I will put her cup of punishment into your hand.'

<sup>32</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this,
 'You will drink your sister's cup that is deep and large.
 You will become a laughingstock and a subject for derision—this cup contains a great amount.
<sup>33</sup>You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
 the cup of horror and devastation;
 the cup of your sister Samaria.
<sup>34</sup>You will drink it and drain it empty;
 then you will shatter it
 and tear your breasts with the pieces.
 For I have declared it—
 this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because you have forgotten me and thrown me away behind your back, so also you will bear the consequences of your shameful behavior and acts of sexual immorality.'"

<sup>36</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? So present to them their disgusting practices,<sup>37</sup> since they have committed adultery, and since there is blood on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and they have even caused their sons to pass through the fire, as food for their idols.

<sup>38</sup>Then they continue to do this to me: They make my sanctuary unclean, and on the same day they defile my Sabbaths.<sup>39</sup> For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, then they came to my sanctuary on the same day to defile it! So behold! This is what they have done in the middle of my house.

<sup>40</sup>You sent out for men who came from far away, to whom messengers had been sent—now behold. They indeed came, those for whom you bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry.<sup>41</sup> There you sat on a beautiful bed and at a table arranged before it where you placed my incense and my oil.

<sup>43</sup>Then I said of her who was worn out by adulteries, 'Now they will fornicate with her, and she with them.'<sup>44</sup> They went to her as men go to a prostitute. In this way they went to Oholah and Oholibah, immoral women.<sup>45</sup> But righteous men will pass judgment and punish them as adulteresses, and they will punish them with the sentence for those who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

<sup>46</sup>So the Lord Yahweh says this: I will raise up a company against them and give them up to be terrorized and plundered.<sup>47</sup> Then that company will stone them with stones and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses.

<sup>48</sup>For I will remove shameful behavior from the land and discipline all the women so they will no longer act like prostitutes.<sup>49</sup> So they will set your shameful behavior against you. You will bear the guilt of your sins with your idols, and in this way you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Son of man, write for yourself the name of this day, this exact day, for this exact day the king of Babylon has besieged Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>So speak a proverb against this rebellious house, a parable. Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Place the cooking pot.

Place it and pour water into it.

<sup>4</sup> Gather pieces of food within it,
every good piece—the thigh and shoulder—
and fill it with the best bones.

<sup>5</sup> Take the best of the flock,
and pile up the bones under it.
Bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood, a cooking pot that has rust in it and that rust will not come out of it. Take piece after piece from it, but do not cast lots for it.

<sup>7</sup>For her blood is in the midst of her. She has set it on the smooth rock; she has not poured it out on the ground to cover it with dust,<sup>8</sup> so it brings fury up to exact vengeance. I placed her blood on the smooth rock so it could not be covered.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood. I will also enlarge the pile of wood.<sup>10</sup> Stack up the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well and mix in the spices and let the bones be charred.

<sup>11</sup>Then set the pot on its coals empty, in order to heat and scorch its bronze, so its uncleanness within it will be melted, its corrosion consumed.<sup>12</sup> She has become weary because of toil, but her corrosion has not gone out of her by the fire.

<sup>13</sup>Your shameful behavior is in your uncleanness. Because I tried to cleanse you but still you would not be cleansed from your uncleanness, you will not be cleansed anymore until I have satisfied my fury upon you.

<sup>14</sup>I, Yahweh, have declared it, and I will do it. I will not relent nor will I rest from it. As your ways were, and as your activities, they will judge you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>15</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>16</sup>"Son of man! Behold, I am taking the delight of your eyes from you with a plague, but you must not mourn nor weep, and your tears must not flow.<sup>17</sup> You must groan silently. Do not conduct a funeral for the dead. Tie your turban on you and place your sandals on your feet, but do not cover your facial hair or eat the bread of men who mourn for having lost their wives."

<sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. In the morning I did what I had been commanded to do.

<sup>19</sup>The people asked me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean, the things that you are doing?"<sup>20</sup> So I said to them, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>21</sup> Say to the house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will desecrate my sanctuary—the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the yearning of your soul, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will fall by the sword.

<sup>23</sup>Instead, your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet; you will not mourn nor weep, for you will rot away in your iniquities, and each man will groan for his brother.<sup>24</sup> So Ezekiel will be a sign for you, as everything that he has done you will do when this comes. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!"

<sup>25</sup>"But you, son of man, on the day that I capture their stronghold, the joy of their splendor, and the delight of their eyes and the burden of their soul, their sons and daughters,<sup>26</sup> on that day, a refugee will come to you to give you the news!<sup>27</sup> On that day your mouth will be opened up to that refugee and you will speak—you will no longer be silent. You will be a sign for them so that they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against the people of Ammon and prophesy against them.

<sup>3</sup>Say to the people of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh. This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because you said, "Aha!" over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup>therefore, behold, I am giving you to a people in the east as their possession. They will set up camp against you and set up their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and they will drink your milk. <sup>5</sup>I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the people of Ammon a field for flocks. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: You have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the contempt within you against the land of Israel. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, behold! I will strike you with my hand and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from among the lands! I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.'

<sup>12</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'Edom has taken vengeance against the house of Judah and has committed wrong in doing so. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I will strike Edom with my hand and destroy all men and animals there. I will make them a ruined, abandoned place, from Teman to Dedan. They will fall by the sword.

<sup>14</sup>I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will do to Edom according to my anger and my fury, and they will know my vengeance—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because the Philistines have acted vengefully and taken vengeance with contempt in their heart as enemies trying to destroy Judah for all time, <sup>16</sup>this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold! I will reach out with my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites and destroy the remnant who are along the seacoast. <sup>17</sup>For I will take great vengeance against them with furious acts of punishment, so they will know that I am Yahweh, when I take my vengeance on them.'

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>So it was in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gates of the people are broken! She has turned to me; I will be filled up because she is ruined.'

<sup>3</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I am against you, Tyre, and I will raise up many nations against you like the sea raises its waves.<sup>4</sup>They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will sweep her dust away and make her like a bare rock.

<sup>5</sup>She will become a place for nets to dry out in the midst of the sea, since I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and she will become plunder for the nations.<sup>6</sup>Her daughters who are in the fields will be slaughtered by the swords, and they will know that I am Yahweh.'

<sup>9</sup>He will place his battering rams to hit against your walls, and with his tools he will tear down your towers.<sup>10</sup>His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake with the sound of horsemen, wagons, and chariots. When he enters your gates, he will enter as men come into a city whose walls have been broken down.<sup>11</sup>The hooves of his horses will trample all of your streets. He will kill your people with the sword and your mighty stone pillars will fall to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your delightful homes. Your stones, your timber, and the rubble they will throw into the waters.<sup>13</sup>I will stop the noise of your songs. The sound of your harps will be heard no more.<sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock, you will become a place where nets are spread out to dry. You will never be built again, for I, Lord Yahweh have spoken—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this to Tyre, 'Will not the islands quake with the sound of your downfall, and with the groans of the wounded when the terrible slaughter is in your midst?'<sup>16</sup>Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones and remove their robes and cast off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling, they will sit on the ground and tremble every moment, and they will be appalled because of you.

<sup>17</sup>They will lift up a lament for you and say to you,
How you, who were inhabited by sailors,
have been destroyed.

The famous city that was so strong—
it is now gone from the sea.

The ones living in her once spread a terror about themselves upon everyone who lived near them.

<sup>18</sup> Now the coasts tremble on the day of your downfall.
The islands in the sea are terrified,
because you are no longer in your place.'

<sup>19</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: When I make you a desolate city, like the other cities that are not inhabited, when I raise up the deeps against you, and when the great waters cover you,<sup>20</sup> then I will bring you down to the people of ancient times, like the others who have gone down into the pit; for I will make you live in the lowest parts of the earth as in ruins of ancient times. Because of this you will not come back and stand in the land of the living.

<sup>21</sup>I will place disaster on you, and you will be no more forever. Then you will be sought, but you will never be found ever again—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>1</sup>The expression and stand in the land of the living follows the ancient Greek translation. The ancient Hebrew copies have I will place glory in the land of the living , which does not seem to fit the context here.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Now you, son of man, begin a lamentation concerning Tyre, <sup>3</sup>and say to Tyre, who lives within the gates of the sea, merchants of peoples to many islands, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to you:

Tyre, you have said, "I am perfect in beauty."

- <sup>4</sup> Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
your builders have perfected your beauty.
- <sup>5</sup> They have made all your planks with cypress from Senir;
they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
- <sup>6</sup> They made your oars from the oaks of Bashan;
they made your decks out of cypress wood from Cyprus,
and they overlaid them with ivory.
- <sup>7</sup> Your sails were made from colorful linen from Egypt that served as your signal flag;
the colors of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah are used for the awning on your boat.
- <sup>8</sup> Those who were living in Sidon and Arvad were your rowers;
the wise men of Tyre were within you;
they were your pilots.
- <sup>9</sup> The elders of Byblos filled your seams;
all the ships of the sea and their sailors among you were carrying your merchandise for trade.
- <sup>10</sup> Persia, Lydia, and Libya were in your army, your men of war.
They hung shield and helmet within you;
they showed your splendor.
- <sup>11</sup> The men of Arvad and Helek in your army were on your walls surrounding you,
and the people of Gammad were in your towers.
They hung up their shields on your walls all around you!
They completed your beauty.

<sup>12</sup>Tarshish was a trading partner with you because of your abundant wealth of goods to sell: Silver, iron, tin, and lead. They bought and sold your wares! <sup>13</sup>Greece, <sup>14</sup>Tubal, and Meshech—they traded slaves and in items made of bronze. They handled your merchandise.

<sup>14</sup>Beth Togarmah provided horses, warhorses, and mules as your merchandise. <sup>15</sup>The men of Rhodes traded with you on many coasts. Merchandise was in your hand; they sent back horn, ivory, and ebony as payment!

<sup>16</sup>Aram was a trading partner for the many products of your labor; they provided emeralds, purple, colored cloth, fine fabric, pearls, and rubies as your merchandise. <sup>17</sup>Judah and the land of Israel were trading with you. They provided wheat from Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balsam as your merchandise. <sup>18</sup>Damascus was a trading partner for the many products of your labor, of all your enormous wealth, and of the wine of Helbon and the wool of Zahar.

<sup>22</sup>The traders of Sheba and Raamah came to sell you the best of every spice and in all kinds of precious gems; they traded gold for your merchandise. <sup>23</sup>Haran, Kanneh, and Eden were your trading partners, along with Sheba, Ashur, and Kilmad.

<sup>24</sup>These were your dealers in ornate robes of violet cloths with woven colors, and in blankets of multicolored, embroidered, and well-woven cloth in your marketplaces.

- <sup>25</sup> The ships of Tarshish were the transporters of your merchandise!
 So you were filled up,
       heavily laden with cargo in the heart of the seas!
- <sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you into vast seas;
       the eastern wind has broken you in the middle of them.
- <sup>27</sup> Your wealth, merchandise, and trade goods;
       your sailors and pilots, and ship builders;
 your traders of merchandise and all the men of war who are in you,
       and all your company—
 they will sink into the depths of the sea on the day of your overthrow.
- <sup>28</sup> Cities at the sea will tremble
       at the sound of your pilots' cry.
- <sup>29</sup> All those who handle oars will come down from their ships;
       mariners and all the pilots on the sea will stand on the land.
- <sup>30</sup> Then they will make their voices heard over you and they will cry aloud bitterly;
 they will cast dust up on their heads.
       They will roll about in ashes.
- <sup>31</sup> They will shave their heads bald for you and bind themselves with sackcloth, and they will weep bitterly over you
       and they will cry out.
- <sup>32</sup> They will lift up their wails of lamentation for you and sing dirges over you,
 Who is like Tyre, who has now been brought to silence
       in the middle of the sea?
- <sup>33</sup> When your merchandise went ashore from the sea,
       it satisfied many peoples;
 you enriched the kings of the earth with your great wealth and merchandise!
- <sup>34</sup> But when you were shattered by the seas, by deep waters, your merchandise and all your company sank!
- <sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the coasts were appalled at you,
       and their kings bristled in horror!
       Their faces trembled!
- <sup>36</sup> The traders among the people hiss at you;
       you have become a horror,
       and you will be no more forever."

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Your heart is arrogant! You have said, "I am a god! I will sit in the seat of the gods in the heart of the seas!" Even though you are a man and not a god, you make your heart like the heart of a god;<sup>3</sup>you think that you are wiser than Daniel, and that no secret amazes you!

<sup>4</sup>You have made yourself wealthy with wisdom and skill, and obtained gold and silver in your treasuries!<sup>5</sup>By great wisdom and by your trading, you have multiplied your wealth, so your heart is arrogant because of your wealth.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your heart like the heart of a god,<sup>7</sup>I will therefore bring foreigners against you, terrifying men from other nations. They will bring their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will profane your splendor.

<sup>8</sup>They will send you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those who die in the heart of the seas.<sup>9</sup>Will you truly say, "I am a god" to the face of one who kills you? You are a man and not God, and you will be in the hand of the one who pierces you.<sup>10</sup>You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners, for I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>14</sup>I placed you on the holy mountain of God as the cherub I anointed to guard mankind. You were in the midst of the fiery stones where you walked about.<sup>15</sup>You had integrity in your ways from the day you were created until injustice was found within you.

<sup>16</sup>Through your great trade you were filled with violence, and so you sinned. So I threw you out of the mountain of God, as a one who was defiled, and I destroyed you, guardian cherub, and drove you from among the fiery stones.<sup>17</sup>Your heart was arrogant with your beauty; you ruined your wisdom because of your splendor. I have sent you down to the earth. I have placed you before kings so they may see you.

<sup>18</sup>Because of your many iniquities and your dishonest trade, you have defiled your holy places. So I have made fire come out from you; it will consume you. I will turn you into ashes on the earth in the sight of all who look at you.<sup>19</sup>All the ones who knew you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have become terrified, and you will be no more forever."

<sup>20</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her.<sup>22</sup>Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Sidon! For I will be glorified in your midst. Then they will know that I am Yahweh when I execute judgments within her. I will be shown to be holy in her.

<sup>23</sup>I will send out a plague in her and blood in her streets, and those who are fatally wounded will fall in the midst of her. When the sword comes against her from all around, then they will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>24</sup>Then there will no longer be pricking briars and painful thorns for the house of Israel from all those around them who despise them, so they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!"

<sup>25</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they were scattered, and when I am set apart among them, so the nations may see, then they will make their homes in the land I will give to my servant Jacob.<sup>26</sup>Then they will live securely within her and build houses, plant vineyards, and live securely when I execute judgments on all the ones who now despise them from all around; so they will know that I am Yahweh their God!'"

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt; prophesy against him and against all of Egypt.

Behold! I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

You, the great sea monster that lurks in the midst of the river, that says, "My river is my own. I have made it for myself."

<sup>4</sup> For I will place hooks in your jaw, and the fish of your Nile will cling to your scales;
I will lift you up from the middle of your river along with all the fish of the river that cling to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will throw you down into the wilderness,
you and all the fish from your river.
You will fall on the open field;
you will not gather together or assemble.
I will give you as food to the living things of the earth and to the birds of the heavens.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh,
because they have been a walking stick
made of a reed to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> When they took hold of you in their hand,
you broke and tore open their shoulder;
and when they leaned on you,
you were broken,
and you caused their legs to be unsteady.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will bring a sword against you. I will cut off both men and animals from you.<sup>9</sup>So the land of Egypt will become desolate and a ruin. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, because the sea monster had said, "The river is mine, for I have made it."<sup>10</sup>Therefore, behold! I am against you and against your river, so I will give the land of Egypt over to desolation and waste, and you will become a wasteland from the Migdol to Syene and the borders of Cush.

<sup>11</sup>No man's foot will pass through it, and no wild animal's foot will pass through it. It will not be inhabited for forty years.<sup>12</sup>For I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of uninhabited lands, and its cities in the midst of wasted cities will become a desolation for forty years; then I will scatter Egypt among the nations, and I will disperse them though the lands.

<sup>13</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: At the end of forty years I will gather Egypt from the peoples among whom they were scattered.<sup>14</sup>I will reverse the captivity of Egypt and bring them back to the region of Pathros, to the land of their origin. Then they will be a lowly kingdom there.

<sup>15</sup>It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms, and it will not be lifted up any more among the nations. I will diminish them so they will no longer rule over nations.<sup>16</sup>Egypt will no longer be a reason for confidence for the house of Israel. Instead, it will be a reminder of the iniquity that Israel committed when they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

<sup>17</sup>Then it came about in the twenty-seventh year on the first of the first month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon stationed his army to do hard work against Tyre. Every head was rubbed until it was made bald, and every shoulder was made raw. Yet he and his army received no payment from Tyre for the hard work that he carried out against it.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I am giving the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and he will capture its loot, steal its plunder, and carry off all he finds there; that will be his army's wages.<sup>20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt as the wages for the work they did for me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>21</sup>On that day I will make a horn sprout up for the house of Israel, and I will make you speak in their midst, so that they will know that I am Yahweh."

---

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Wail, "Woe is the coming day."

The day is near for Yahweh.

It will be a day of clouds

a time of doom for nations.

<sup>4</sup> Then a sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush

when the killed people fall in Egypt—

when they take her wealth, and when her foundations are ruined.

<sup>5</sup>Cush and Put, Lydia and all Arabia, and Libya, together with the people belonging to the covenant—they will all fall by the sword.

So the ones who support Egypt will fall,

and the pride of her strength will go down.

From Migdol to Syene their soldiers will fall by the sword—

this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>7</sup> They will be appalled in the midst of the abandoned lands, and their cities will be among all the ruined cities.

<sup>8</sup> Then they will know that I am Yahweh,

when I set fire in Egypt,

and when all of her helpers are destroyed.

<sup>9</sup>In that day messengers will go out from before me in ships to terrorize a secure Cush, and there will be anguish among them on the day of Egypt's doom. For behold! It is coming.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will make an end of the multitudes of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. <sup>11</sup>He and his army with him, the terror of nations, will be brought to destroy the land; they will draw out their swords against Egypt and fill the land with those who have been killed.

<sup>12</sup>I will make the rivers into dry ground, and I will sell the land into the hand of wicked men. I will make the land and its fullness desolate by the hand of strangers—I, Yahweh, have spoken.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will destroy idols, and I will bring an end to the worthless idols of Memphis. There will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt, and I will put fear on the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>Then I will make Pathros desolate and set fire in Zoan, and I will execute acts of judgment on Thebes.

<sup>15</sup>For I will pour out my fury on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the multitude of Thebes. <sup>16</sup>Then I will set fire in Egypt; Pelusium will be in great agony, Thebes will be broken up, and Memphis will face enemies every day.

<sup>17</sup>The young men in Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and their cities will go into captivity. <sup>18</sup>In Tahpanhes, the day will become dark when I break the yoke of Egypt there, and the pride of her strength will be finished. There will be a cloud covering her, and her daughters will walk into captivity. <sup>19</sup>I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt, so they will know that I am Yahweh."

<sup>20</sup>Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Behold! It has not been bound up for healing or set with a splint so that it can become strong enough to grasp a sword.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. For I will break his arm, both the strong one and the broken one, and I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup>Then I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them among the lands. <sup>24</sup>I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and place my sword in his hand so that I might destroy Pharaoh's arms. He will groan before the king of Babylon with the groans of a dying man.

<sup>25</sup>For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon; for he will attack the land of Egypt with it.

<sup>26</sup>So I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them through the lands. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, say to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his multitudes around him,

'In your greatness, who are you like?

<sup>3</sup> Behold! Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, giving shade to the forest,
and the tallest in height,
and the branches formed its treetop.

<sup>4</sup> Many waters made it tall;
the deep waters made it huge.
Rivers flowed all around the place where it was planted, for their channels stretched out to all the trees in the field.

<sup>5</sup> Its great height was more than any of the other trees in the field, and its branches became very many;
its branches grew long because of many waters as they grew.

<sup>6</sup> Every bird of the heavens nested in its branches,
while every living thing of the field
gave birth to its young under its foliage.
All of the many nations
lived under its shade.

<sup>7</sup> For it was beautiful in its greatness and the length of its branches,
for its roots were in many waters.

<sup>8</sup> Cedars in the garden of God could not equal it.
None among the cypress trees matched its branches,
and the plane tree could not equal its boughs.
There was no other tree in the garden of God
that was like it in its beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful with its many branches and all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God envied it.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because it was tall in height, and it set its treetop between its branches, it lifted up its heart because of its height. <sup>11</sup>I have given it into the hand of a mighty one of the nations, to deal with it according to what its wickedness deserves. I have thrown it out.

<sup>12</sup>Foreigners who were the terror of all the nations cut it off and left it to die. Its branches fell on the mountains and all the valleys, and its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. Then all the nations on earth came out from under its shade and they went away from it.

<sup>13</sup>All the birds of the sky rested on the trunk of the fallen tree and every animal of the field came to its branches.

<sup>14</sup>This happened so that no other trees that grow by the waters will lift up their foliage to the height of the tallest trees, and that no other trees that grow beside the waters will reach up to that height. All of them have been assigned to death, to the earth below, among the children of humanity, with those that go down to the pit.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day when the cedar went down to Sheol I brought mourning to the earth. I covered the deep waters over it, and I held back the ocean waters. I kept back the great waters, and I brought mourning to Lebanon for him. So all the trees of the field mourned because of it.

<sup>16</sup>I brought shuddering to the nations at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol with those who went down into the pit. So I comforted all the trees of Eden in the lowest parts of the earth. These had been the choicest and best trees of Lebanon; the trees that drank the waters.

<sup>17</sup>For they also went down with it to Sheol, to the ones who had been killed by the sword. These were its strong arm, those nations who had lived in its shade. <sup>18</sup>Which of the trees in Eden was your equal in glory and greatness?

For you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth among the uncircumcised; you will lie down with those who were killed by the sword.'

This is Pharaoh and all of his multitudes—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened in the twelfth month of the twelfth year, on the first of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, lift up a lament concerning Pharaoh the king of Egypt; say to him,

'You are like a young lion among the nations, but you are like a monster in the seas;
you churn up the water,
you stir up the waters with your feet and muddy their waters.

So I will spread my net over you in the assembly of many peoples,
and they will lift you up in my net.

<sup>4</sup> I will abandon you in the land.

I will throw you into a field and cause all the birds of the heavens to settle on you;
the hunger of all living animals on earth will be satisfied by you.

<sup>5</sup> For I will put your flesh on the mountains, and I will fill the valleys with your worm-filled corpse.

<sup>6</sup> Then I will pour your blood over the mountains, and the stream beds will be filled with your blood.

<sup>7</sup> Then when I extinguish you,
I will cover the heavens and darken their stars;

I will cover the sun with clouds,
and the moon will not shine its light.

<sup>8</sup> All the shining lights in the heavens
I will darken over you,
and I will put darkness over your land—
this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>9</sup>So I will terrify the heart of many peoples in lands that you do not know, when I bring about your destruction among the nations, among lands that you have not known. <sup>10</sup>I will shock many peoples concerning you; their kings will bristle in horror concerning you when I swing my sword before them. Every moment each one will tremble because of you, on the day of your ruin.

<sup>11</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

<sup>12</sup> I will cause your multitudes to fall by warriors' swords—
each warrior a terror of nations.

These warriors will devastate the pride of Egypt and destroy all of its multitudes.

<sup>13</sup> For I will destroy all the cattle from beside the plentiful waters;
the foot of man will no longer stir the waters up,
neither will the hooves of cattle stir them.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will calm their waters and make their rivers run like oil—
this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup> When I make the land of Egypt a desolation, when the land is made desolate of all its fullness,
when I attack all the inhabitants in her,
they will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>16</sup>There will be a lament; the daughters of the nations will lament over her; they will lament over Egypt, over all her multitudes they will lament—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>17</sup>Then it happened in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man, weep for the multitudes of Egypt and bring them down—her and the daughters of majestic nations—to the lowest earth with those who have gone down to the pit.

Go down and lie down with the uncircumcised.'

<sup>20</sup>They will fall among those who were killed by the sword. The sword has been drawn! She has been given to the sword; they will seize her and her multitudes. <sup>21</sup>The strongest of the warriors in Sheol will declare about Egypt and her allies, 'They have come down here! They will lie down with the uncircumcised, with those who were killed by the sword.'

<sup>22</sup>Assyria is there with all her assembly. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed by the sword. <sup>23</sup>Those whose graves are set in the recesses of the pit are there, with all her assembly. Her graves surround all of those who were killed, who fell by the sword, those who brought terror on the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup>Elam is there with all her multitudes. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed— those who fell by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lowest parts of the earth, who brought their terrors on the land of the living and who carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit. <sup>25</sup>Among those who were killed, they have made a bed for her, with her multitude all around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, pierced by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living. So they carry their shame with those who go down to the pit; they are laid among those who were killed.

<sup>26</sup>Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitudes are there! Their graves surround them. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living. <sup>27</sup>They do not lie down with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised who have gone down to Sheol with all their weapons of war, and with their swords placed under their heads and their iniquities over their bones. For they were the terror of warriors in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup>So you, Egypt, will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised! You will lie alongside those who were pierced by the sword.

<sup>29</sup>Edom is there with her kings and all her leaders. They have been placed in their strength with those killed by the sword. With the uncircumcised they lie, with those who have gone down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup>The princes of the north are there—all of them and all the Sidonians who went down with the ones who had been pierced. They were powerful and terrorized others, but now they lie down there in shame, uncircumcised with those who were pierced by the sword. They carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit.

<sup>18</sup>Instead of when I bring about your destruction among the nations , some ancient translations and some modern translations have when I take you into captivity among the nations .

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, declare this to your people; say to them, 'When I bring a sword against any land, then the people of that land take one man from among themselves and make him a watchman for them.<sup>3</sup>He looks for the sword as it comes on the land, and he blows his horn to warn the people!<sup>4</sup>If the people hear the sound of the horn but do not pay attention, and if the sword comes and kills them, then each one's blood is on his own head.

<sup>5</sup>If someone hears the sound of the horn and pays no attention, his blood is on him; but if he pays attention, he will save his own life.

<sup>6</sup>"However, if the watchman sees the sword as it is coming, but if he does not blow the horn, with the result that the people are not warned, and if the sword comes and takes anyone's life, then that person dies in his own iniquity, but I will require his blood from the watchman.'

<sup>7</sup>"Now you yourself, son of man! I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; you will hear the words from my mouth and warn them on my behalf.<sup>8</sup>If I say to a wicked person, 'Wicked one, you will surely die!' but if you do not announce this so as to warn the wicked about his way, then he who is wicked will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood from your hand!<sup>9</sup>But you, if you warn the wicked about his way, so that he might turn back from it, and if he does not turn back from his way, then he will die in his iniquity, but you yourself will have saved your own life.

<sup>10</sup>"So you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'You are saying this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are rotting away in them! How can we live?"'<sup>11</sup>Say to them, 'As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I do not delight in the death of the wicked, for if the wicked repents from his way, then he will live! Repent! Repent from your wicked ways! For why should you die, house of Israel?'

<sup>12</sup>So now you, son of man, say to your people, 'The righteousness of a righteous person will not save him if he sins! The wickedness of a wicked person will not cause him to perish if he repents from his wickedness! For the righteous person will not be able to live because of his righteousness if he sins.<sup>13</sup>If I say to the righteous, "He will surely live!" and if he trusts in his righteousness and then commits injustice, I will not call to mind any of his righteousness. He will die for the wickedness he committed.

<sup>14</sup>So if I say to the wicked, "You will surely die," but if he then repents from his sins and does what is just and right—<sup>15</sup>if he restores the loan guarantee that he wickedly demanded, or if he makes restitution for what he has stolen, and if he walks in the statutes that give life and no longer commits injustice—then he will surely live. He will not die.<sup>16</sup>None of the sins that he has committed will be called to mind for him. He has done justice and righteousness, and so, he will surely live!

<sup>21</sup>It happened in the twelfth year, on the fifth day of the tenth month of our captivity, that a fugitive came to me from Jerusalem and said, "The city has been captured!"<sup>22</sup>The hand of Yahweh had been on me in the evening before the fugitive came, and my mouth was opened by the time that he came to me in the dawn. So my mouth was open; I was no longer mute!

<sup>23</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man, the ones inhabiting those ruins in the land of Israel are talking and say, 'Abraham was only one person, and he inherited the land, but we are many! The land has been given to us as a possession.'

<sup>25</sup>Therefore say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: You eat blood, and you lift up your eyes towards your idols, then you pour out people's blood. Should you really possess the land?'<sup>26</sup>You have depended on your swords and have done abominations; each man defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you really possess the land?'

<sup>27</sup>You will say this to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, surely the ones in the ruins will fall by the sword, and I will give those in the fields to the living creatures as food, and those in fortresses and in caves will die of plagues.<sup>28</sup> Then I will turn the land into a desolation and a horror, and the pride of its might will end, for the mountains of Israel will be deserted, and there will be no one to pass through them.<sup>29</sup> So they will know that I am Yahweh, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all the abominations that they have done.

<sup>30</sup>"So now you, son of man—your people are saying things about you beside the walls and the gates of the houses, and each says to one another—each man to his brother, 'Let us go and listen to the prophet's word that comes out from Yahweh!'<sup>31</sup> So my people will come to you, as they often do, and will sit in front of you and listen to your words, but they will not obey them. Right words are in their mouths, but their hearts are going after unjust profit.

<sup>32</sup>For you are like a lovely song to them, a beautiful sound that is well played on a stringed instrument, so they will listen to your words, but none of them will obey them.<sup>33</sup> So when all of this happens—behold! it will happen!—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Chapter 34

<sup>4</sup>You have not strengthened those who are weak, nor do you heal the ones who are ill. You do not bind up the ones who are broken, and you do not restore the outcasts or seek the lost. Instead, you rule over them through strength and violence.<sup>5</sup>Then they were scattered without a shepherd, and they became food for all the living beasts in the fields, after they were scattered.<sup>6</sup>My flock strays on all of the mountains and on every high hill, and it is dispersed over the entire surface of the earth. Yet no one is searching for them.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:<sup>8</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—because my flock has become plunder and food for all the beasts in the fields, because there was no shepherd and none of my shepherds sought my flock, but the shepherds guarded themselves and did not shepherd my flock.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh:<sup>10</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock from their hand. Then I will dismiss them from shepherding the flock; neither will the shepherds any longer shepherd themselves since I will take away my flock from their mouths, so that my flock will no longer be food for them.

<sup>14</sup>I will put them in good pastures; the high mountains of Israel will be their grazing places. They will lie down there in good places for grazing, in abundant pastures, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel.<sup>15</sup>I myself will shepherd my flock, and I myself will make them lie down—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—<sup>16</sup>I will seek the lost and restore the outcast. I will bind up the broken sheep and heal the sick sheep, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd with justice.

<sup>17</sup>So now you, my flock—this is what the Lord Yahweh says—behold, I will be a judge between sheep and sheep and between rams and male goats.<sup>18</sup>Is it not enough to feed on the good pasture, that you must trample down with your feet what is left of the pasture; and to drink from clear waters, that you must muddy the rivers with your feet?<sup>19</sup>Must my sheep eat what you have trampled with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

<sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this to them: Behold! I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin ones,<sup>21</sup>for you have pushed them with your sides and shoulders, and you have gored all of the weak ones with your horns until you have scattered them away from the land.

<sup>22</sup>I will save my flock and they will no longer be plunder, and I will judge between one sheep and another!<sup>23</sup>I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will shepherd them, he will feed them, and he will be their shepherd.<sup>24</sup>For I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David will be a prince among them—I, Yahweh, have declared this.

<sup>25</sup>Then I will make a covenant of peace with them and remove the evil wild animals from the land, so that they will live securely in the wilderness and safely sleep in the forests.<sup>26</sup>I will also bring blessings on them and on the places around my hill, for I will send out showers in due season. These will be showers of blessing.<sup>27</sup>Then the trees of the field will produce their fruit, and the earth will yield its produce. My sheep will be secure in their land; then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I break the bars of their yoke, and when I rescue them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

<sup>28</sup>They will no longer be plunder for the nations, and the wild animals on the earth will no longer devour them. For they will live securely, and no one will frighten them.<sup>29</sup>For I will provide them a renowned plantation; so they will not be victims of famine in the land, and they will not bear the insults of the nations.

<sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am with them. They are my people, the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>31</sup>For you are my sheep, the flock of my pasture, and my people, and I am your God—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. <sup>3</sup>Say to it, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will strike you with my hand and make you a desolation and a waste.

<sup>4</sup>I will make your cities ruins, and you yourself will become desolate; then you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>Because you have always been hostile to the people of Israel, and because you poured them out into the hands of the sword at the time of their distress, at the time their punishment was at its greatest. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you! Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.

<sup>7</sup>I will make Mount Seir a complete desolation when I cut off from it anyone who passes through and returns again. <sup>8</sup>I will fill its mountains with those who were killed; on your high hills and valleys and in all your streams those who were killed by the sword will fall. <sup>9</sup>I will make you a perpetual desolation. Your cities will not be inhabited, but you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>You have said, "These two nations and these two lands will become mine, and we will possess them," even when Yahweh was present with them. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so I will do according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you had in your hatred of Israel, and I will show myself to them when I judge you.

<sup>12</sup>So you will know that I am Yahweh. I have heard all the insults you spoke against the mountains of Israel, when you said, "They have been destroyed; they have been given over to us to devour." <sup>13</sup>You exalted yourselves against me with what you said, and you multiplied the words you said against me; and I heard it all.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will make you a desolation, while the entire earth rejoices. <sup>15</sup>As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the people of Israel because of its desolation, I will do the same to you. You will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and all of Edom—all of it! Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 36

<sup>1</sup>"Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of Yahweh.<sup>2</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: The enemy has said about you, "Aha!" and "The ancient high places have become our possession."<sup>3</sup>Therefore prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Because of your desolation and because of the attacks that came on you from all sides, you have become a possession of the other nations; you have been the subject of slanderous lips and tongues, and of people's stories.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh: The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and the high hills, to the streambeds and valleys, to the uninhabited desolations and the abandoned cities that have become plunder and a subject of mocking for the other nations that surround them—<sup>5</sup>therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I have certainly spoken in the fire of my zeal against the other nations, against Edom and all who took my land for themselves as a possession, against all those who had both joy in their heart and contempt in their spirit, as they seized my land that they might claim its pasturelands for themselves.<sup>6</sup>Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the high hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, 'the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! In my zeal and in my anger I am declaring this because you have borne the insults of nations.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I myself will lift up my hand to swear that the nations that surround you will certainly carry their own shame.

<sup>8</sup>But you, mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel, since they will soon come back to you.<sup>9</sup>For behold, I am for you, and I treat you with favor; you will be plowed and sown with seed.

<sup>10</sup>So I will multiply upon you the number of your people, even the whole house of Israel. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.<sup>11</sup>I will multiply men and animals on you mountains so that they will multiply and be fruitful. Then I will cause you to be inhabited as you previously were, and I will do you more good than in the past, for you will know that I am Yahweh.<sup>12</sup>I will bring men, my people Israel, to walk on you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer cause their children to die.

<sup>19</sup>I scattered them among the nations; they were dispersed through the lands. I judged them according to their ways and their deeds.<sup>20</sup>Then they went to the nations, and wherever they went, they profaned my holy name when people said of them, 'Are these really the people of Yahweh? For they have been thrown out of his land.'<sup>21</sup>But I had compassion for my holy name that the house of Israel had defiled among the nations, when they went there.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I am not doing this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations everywhere you have gone.<sup>23</sup>For I will make my great name holy, which you have profaned among the nations—in the midst of the nations, you profaned it. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—when you see that I am holy.

<sup>24</sup>I will take you from the nations and gather you from every land, and I will bring you to your land.<sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle pure water on you so you will be clean; you will be purified from all of your uncleanness, and I will purify you from all of your idols.

<sup>26</sup>I will give you a new heart and a new spirit in your innermost parts, and I will take away the heart of stone from your flesh. For I will give you a heart of flesh.<sup>27</sup>I will set my Spirit in you and enable you to walk in my statutes and keep my decrees, so you will do them.<sup>28</sup>Then you will inhabit the land that I gave to your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>29</sup>For I will save you from all of your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and multiply it. I will no longer put famine upon you.<sup>30</sup>I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field so that you will no longer bear the shame of famine among the nations.<sup>31</sup>Then you will think of your wicked ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will show loathing on your faces because of your own iniquities and your disgusting practices.

<sup>32</sup>I am not doing this for your sake—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—let this be known to you. So be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, house of Israel.<sup>33</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I purify you from all your iniquity, I will cause you to inhabit the cities and to rebuild the ruined places.<sup>34</sup>For you will plow the ruined land until it is no longer a ruin before the eyes of all who pass by.

<sup>35</sup>Then they will say, "This land was desolate, but it has become like the garden of Eden; the desolate cities and the uninhabited ruins that were torn down are now fortified and inhabited."<sup>36</sup>Then the other nations around you will know that I am Yahweh, that I built up the ruins and replanted the deserted places. I am Yahweh. I have declared it and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Again I will be asked by the house of Israel to do this for them, to increase them like a flock of people.<sup>38</sup>Like the flock is set apart for sacrifices, like the flock in Jerusalem at her appointed feasts, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people and they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>The hand of Yahweh was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of Yahweh and set me down in the midst of a valley; it was full of bones.<sup>2</sup>Then he made me pass through them round and round. Behold! A great many of them were in the valley. Behold! They were very dry.<sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live again?" So I said, "Lord Yahweh, you alone know."

<sup>4</sup>Then he said to me, "Prophecy over these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones. Listen to the word of Yahweh.'<sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this to these bones: Behold! I am about to put breath into you, and you will live.<sup>6</sup>I will place sinews over you and bring flesh onto you. I will cover you with skin and put breath within you so you will live. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."

<sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded; as I prophesied, behold, a sound came, that of shaking. Then the bones drew together—bone against bone.<sup>8</sup>I looked and, behold, sinews were now on them, and flesh grew up and skin covered them. But there was still no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Breath, come from the four winds, and breathe on these who have been killed, so they may live.'<sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded; the breath came into them and they lived. Then they stood on their feet, a very great army.

<sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the entire house of Israel. Behold! They are saying, 'Our bones have dried up, and our hope is gone. We have been cut off.'<sup>12</sup>Therefore prophecy and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will open your graves and lift you out from them, my people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when I open your graves and bring you out from them, my people.<sup>14</sup>I will place my Spirit within you so you will live, and I will cause you to rest in your land when you know that I am Yahweh. I declare and will do it—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>15</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>16</sup>"So now you, son of man, take one stick for yourself and write on it, 'For Judah and for the people of Israel, his companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the branch of Ephraim, and for all the people of Israel, their companions.'<sup>17</sup>Bring both of them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup>When your people speak to you and say, 'Will you not tell us what these things of yours mean?'<sup>19</sup>then say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am taking the branch of Joseph that is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel his companions and joining it to the branch of Judah, so that they will make one branch, and they will become one in my hand.'<sup>20</sup>Hold in your hand the branches that you wrote on before their eyes.

<sup>21</sup>Declare to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am about to take the people of Israel from among the nations where they went. I will gather them from the surrounding lands and I will bring them to their land.<sup>22</sup>I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and there will be one king as king over all of them, and they will no longer be two nations. They will no longer be divided into two kingdoms.<sup>23</sup>Then they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, their disgusting things, or any of their other sins. For I will save them from all of their faithless actions with which they have sinned, and I will purify them, so they will be my people and I will be their God. 1

<sup>24</sup>David my servant will be king over them. So there will be one shepherd over them all, and they will walk according to my decrees and they will keep my statutes and obey them.<sup>25</sup>They will live in the land that I have given to my servant Jacob, where your fathers had stayed. They will live in it forever—they, their children, and their grandchildren, for David my servant will be their chief forever.

<sup>26</sup>I will establish a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish them and multiply them and set my holy place in their midst forever.<sup>27</sup>My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people.<sup>28</sup>Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh who sets Israel apart, when my holy place is among them forever."

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient translations of the Hebrew copies and most modern translations read in this way: from all of their faithless actions . However, the Hebrew text, as it is, is difficult to translate. It reads: from their dwelling places , which many think makes little sense in this context.

Chapter 38

<sup>4</sup>So I will turn you around and set hooks in your jaw; I will send you out with all your army, horses, and horsemen, all of them dressed in full armor, a great company with large shields and small shields, all of them holding swords! <sup>5</sup>Persia, Cush, and Libya are with them, all of them with shields and helmets! <sup>6</sup>Gomer and all her troops, and Beth Togarmah, from the far parts of the north, and all its troops! Many peoples are with you!

<sup>7</sup>Get ready! Yes, prepare yourself and your troops assembled with you, and be their commander. <sup>8</sup>You will be called after many days, and after some years you will go to a land that has recovered from the sword and that has been gathered from many peoples, gathered back to the mountains of Israel that had been a continuous ruin. But the land's people will be brought out of the peoples, and they will live in safety, all of them! <sup>9</sup>So you will go up as a storm goes; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, all the many soldiers with you.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: It will happen on that day that plans will form in your heart, and you will devise wicked schemes. <sup>11</sup>Then you will say, 'I will go up to the open land; I will go to the quiet people living in safety, all of them living where there are no walls or bars, and where there are no city gates. <sup>12</sup>I will capture booty and steal plunder, in order to bring my hand against the ruins that are newly inhabited, and against the people gathered from the nations, people who are gaining livestock and property, and who are living at the center of the earth.'

<sup>13</sup>Sheba and Dedan, and the traders of Tarshish along with all its young warriors will say to you, 'Have you come to take booty? Have you assembled your company to take away plunder, to carry off silver and gold, to take their livestock and property and to haul away much plunder?'

<sup>14</sup>Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: On that day, when my people Israel are living securely, will you not learn about them?' <sup>15</sup>You will come from your place far away in the north with a great army, all of them riding on horses, a great company, a large army. <sup>16</sup>You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, so the nations might know me when I show myself through you, Gog, to be holy before their eyes.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Are you not the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in their own time for years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup>So it will come to be in that day when Gog attacks the land of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—my wrath will mount up in my anger.

<sup>19</sup>In my zeal and in the fire of my anger, I declare that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup>They will shake before me—the fish of the sea and the birds of the skies, the beasts of the fields, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth, and every person who is on the surface of the land. The mountains will be thrown down and the cliffs will fall, until every wall falls to the earth.

<sup>21</sup>I will summon a sword against him on all my mountains—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—each man's sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup>With plague and blood I will enter into judgment with him, and I will rain on him and on his troops—and on the many nations with him—a torrential downpour and hailstones, fire and sulfur. <sup>23</sup>For I will show my greatness and my holiness and I will make myself known in the eyes of the many nations, and they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 39

<sup>1</sup>"Now you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief of Meshech and Tubal.<sup>2</sup>I will turn you and lead you on; I will bring you up from the far north and bring you to the mountains of Israel.<sup>3</sup>Then I will knock your bow out of your left hand and make the arrows fall from your right hand.

<sup>4</sup>You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you and all your troops and the soldiers who are with you. I will give you to the birds of prey and the wild beasts of the fields for food.<sup>5</sup>You will fall on the open field, for I myself declare it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.<sup>6</sup>Then I will send out fire on Magog and on those living in safety on the coasts, and they will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>For I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will no longer allow my holy name to be profaned; the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel.<sup>8</sup>Behold! The day is coming, and it will take place—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>11</sup>Then it will happen on that day that I will make a place there for Gog—a grave in Israel, a valley for those who journey to the east of the sea. It will block those who wish to cross over. There they will bury Gog with all his multitudes. They will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.

<sup>12</sup>For seven months the house of Israel will bury them in order to purify the land.<sup>13</sup>For all the people of the land will bury them; it will be a day of renown for them when I am glorified—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>14</sup>Then they will designate men to continually go through the land, to find those who were traveling through, but who died and their bodies remained on the surface of the land, so that they may bury them, in order to cleanse the land. At the end of the seventh month they will begin their search.<sup>15</sup>As these men pass through the land, when they see any human bone, they will put a marker by it, until gravediggers come and bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.<sup>16</sup>There will be a city there by the name of Hamonah. In this way they will purify the land.

<sup>17</sup>Now to you, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: Say to all the winged birds and all the wild beasts in the fields, 'Gather together and come. Gather from all around to the sacrifice that I myself am making for you, a large sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may consume flesh and drink blood.<sup>18</sup>You will consume the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; they will be rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, they were all fattened in Bashan.

<sup>19</sup>Then you will eat fat to your satisfaction; you will drink blood until you become drunk; this will be the sacrifice that I will slaughter for you.<sup>20</sup>You will be satisfied at my table with horse, chariot, warrior, and every man of war—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>21</sup>I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see my judgment that I perform and my hand that I have set against them.<sup>22</sup>The house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God from that day onward.

<sup>23</sup>The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity because of their iniquity by which they betrayed me, so I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries so that all of them fell by the sword.<sup>24</sup>I did to them according to their uncleanness and their sins, when I hid my face from them.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Now I will reverse the captivity of Jacob, and I will have compassion on all the house of Israel, when I act with zeal for my holy name.<sup>26</sup>Then they will bear their shame and all the treachery by which they betrayed me. They will forget all this when they rest in their land in safety, with no one to terrify them.<sup>27</sup>When I restore them from the peoples and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I will show myself to be holy in the sight of many nations.

<sup>28</sup>Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God, for I sent them into captivity among the nations, but then I will gather them back to their land. I will not leave any of them among the nations.<sup>29</sup>I will no longer hide my face from them when I pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 40

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity at the beginning of the year on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured—on that same day, the hand of Yahweh was upon me and he took me there.<sup>2</sup>In visions from God he brought me to the land of Israel. He brought me to rest on a very high mountain; to the south were what appeared to be buildings of a city.

<sup>5</sup>There was a wall surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring stick in the man's hand was six long cubits. Each long cubit was a cubit and a handbreadth in length. So he measured the wall, and it was one measuring stick thick and one measuring stick high.<sup>6</sup>Then he went to the temple gate that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate—one stick in depth.<sup>7</sup>The guard chambers were each one stick in length and one stick in width; there were five cubits between any two of the chambers, and the threshold of the temple gate by the temple portico was one stick deep.

<sup>8</sup>He measured the portico of the gate; it was one stick in length.<sup>9</sup>He measured the portico of the gate. It was one stick deep. The doorposts were two cubits in width. This was the portico of the gate facing the temple.<sup>10</sup>There were three guard chambers on either side of the east gate, and each of them had the same measurement, and the walls that separated them had the same measurement.

<sup>14</sup>Then he measured the wall that went between the guard chambers—sixty cubits in length; he measured as far as the gate's portico.<sup>15</sup>The entrance from the front of the gate to the other end of the gate's portico was fifty cubits.

<sup>16</sup>There were closed windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the gates all around; and it was the same for the porches. There were windows all around the inside, and each jamb was decorated with palm trees.

<sup>17</sup>Then the man brought me to the outer courtyard of the temple. Behold, there were rooms, and there was pavement in the courtyard, with thirty rooms next to the pavement.<sup>18</sup>The pavement went up to the side of the gates, and its width was the same as the gates' length. This was the lower pavement.<sup>19</sup>Then the man measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner gate; it was one hundred cubits on the east side, and the same on the north side.

<sup>20</sup>Then he measured the length and width of the gate that was at the north of the outer court.<sup>21</sup>There were three chambers on either side of that gate, and the gate and its portico measured the same as the main gate—fifty cubits in total length and twenty-five cubits in width.

<sup>22</sup>Its windows, portico, chambers, and its palm trees corresponded to the gate that faced east. Seven steps went up to it and to its portico.<sup>23</sup>There was a gate to the inner courtyard in front of the gate facing north, just as also there was a gate to the east; the man measured from one gate to the other gate—one hundred cubits in distance.

<sup>24</sup>Next the man brought me to the gate of the southern entrance, and its walls and portico measured the same as the other outer gates.<sup>25</sup>There were closed windows in the gateway and its portico just as at that gate. The south gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width.

<sup>26</sup>There were seven steps up to the gate and its portico, and there were carvings of palm trees on the walls on either side.<sup>27</sup>There was a gate to the inner courtyard on the southern side, and the man measured from that gate to the gate of the south entrance—one hundred cubits in distance.

<sup>28</sup>Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by way of its southern gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates.<sup>29</sup>Its chambers, walls, and porticos measured the same as the other gates; there were windows all around in the portico. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width.<sup>30</sup> There were also porticos all around the inner wall; these were twenty-five cubits in length and five cubits in width.<sup>31</sup> This portico faced the outer courtyard with carved palm trees on its walls and eight steps going up to it.

<sup>32</sup>Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by the eastern way and measured the gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates.<sup>33</sup> Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width.<sup>34</sup> Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up to it.

<sup>35</sup>Next the man brought me to the northern gate and measured it; it measured the same as the other gates.<sup>36</sup> Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The gateway and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width.<sup>37</sup> Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up to it.

<sup>39</sup>There were two tables on each side of each portico, on which the burnt offering was slaughtered, and also the sin offering and the guilt offering.

<sup>40</sup>By the wall of the courtyard, going up to the gate to the north, there were two tables. Also on the other side there were two tables at the gate's portico.<sup>41</sup> There were four tables on either side by the gate; they slaughtered animals on the eight tables.

<sup>42</sup>There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offerings, one and a half cubits in length, one and a half cubits in width, and one cubit tall. On them they laid the tools with which they slaughtered the burnt offerings for the sacrifices.<sup>43</sup> Two-pronged hooks a handbreadth in length were fastened in the portico all around, and the flesh of the offerings would be put on the tables.

<sup>44</sup>On the outside of the inner gate, within the inner courtyard, were singers' chambers, one on the north side facing south, and the other on the south side facing north.<sup>45</sup> Then the man said to me, "This room facing south is for the priests who are on duty in the temple.

<sup>46</sup>The room facing north is for the priests on duty at the altar. These are the sons of Zadok who come near to Yahweh to serve him; they are among the sons of Levi."<sup>47</sup> Next he measured the courtyard—one hundred cubits in length and one hundred cubits in width in a square, with the altar in front of the house.

<sup>48</sup>Then the man brought me to the portico of the house and measured its doorposts—they were five cubits thick on either side. The gateway itself was fourteen cubits in width, and the walls on each side of it were three cubits in width.<sup>49</sup> The length of the portico was twenty cubits, and its depth was eleven cubits. There were steps that went up to it and columns that stood on either side of it.<sup>3 4</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Instead of the walls on each side of it were three cubits in width , the copies of the ancient Hebrew text read the entrance was three cubits in width , but this seems to be a mistake, judging from the preceding words in this verse.

<sup>4</sup>Instead of eleven cubits , some ancient translations of the Hebrew copies and many modern translations read twelve cubits .

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>Then the man brought me into the temple's holy place and measured the doorposts—six cubits in width on either side. <sup>2</sup>The width of the doorway was ten cubits; the wall on each side was five cubits in length. Then the man measured the dimensions of the holy place—forty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width.

<sup>3</sup>Then the man went into the very holy place and measured the posts of the doorway—two cubits, and the doorway was six cubits in width. The walls on either side were seven cubits in width. <sup>4</sup>Then he measured the room's length—twenty cubits. Its width—twenty cubits to the front of the temple hall. Then he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

<sup>5</sup>Then the man measured the wall of the house—it was six cubits thick. The width of each side room around the house was four cubits in width. <sup>6</sup>There were side rooms on three levels, one room above another, thirty rooms on each level. There were ledges around the wall of the house, to support all of the side rooms, for there was no support put in the wall of the house. <sup>7</sup>So the side rooms widened and went around going up, for the house went around higher and higher all around; the rooms widened as the house went up, and a stairway went up to the highest level, through the middle level.

<sup>8</sup>Then I saw a raised part all around the house, the foundation for the side chambers; it measured a full stick in height—six cubits. <sup>9</sup>The width of the wall of the side rooms on the outside was five cubits. There was an open space to the outside of these rooms in the sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup>On the other side of this open space were the priests' outer side rooms; this space was twenty cubits in width all around the sanctuary. <sup>11</sup>There were doors into the side rooms from another open space—one doorway was on the north side, and the other on the south side. The width of this open area was five cubits all around.

<sup>12</sup>The building that faced the courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits in width. Its wall measured five cubits thick all around, and it was ninety cubits in length. <sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the sanctuary—one hundred cubits in length. The separated building, its wall, and the courtyard also measured one hundred cubits in length. <sup>14</sup>The width of the front of the courtyard in front of the sanctuary was also one hundred cubits.

<sup>15</sup>Then the man measured the length of the building behind the sanctuary, to its west, and the galleries on either side—one hundred cubits. The holy place and the portico, <sup>16</sup>the inner walls and the windows, including the narrow windows, and the galleries all around on three levels, were all paneled in wood. <sup>17</sup>Above the entryway to the inner sanctuary and spaced along the walls there was a measured pattern.

<sup>21</sup>The gate posts of the holy place were square. Their appearance was like the appearance of <sup>22</sup>the wooden altar in front of the holy place, which was three cubits high and two cubits in length on each side. Its corner posts, base, and frame were made of wood. Then the man said to me, "This is the table that stands before Yahweh." <sup>23</sup>There were double doors for the holy place and the most holy place. <sup>24</sup>These doors had two hinged door panels each, two panels for one door and two panels for the other.

<sup>25</sup>Carved on them—on the doors of the holy place—were cherubim and palm trees just as the walls were decorated, and there was a wooden roof over the portico at the front. <sup>26</sup>There were narrow windows and palm trees on either side of the portico. These were the side rooms of the house, and they also had overhanging roofs.

<sup>2</sup>Instead of Their appearance was like the appearance of the wooden altar in front of the holy place, which was, some modern translations have They all looked like each other. The wooden altar in front of the holy place was.

Chapter 42

<sup>7</sup>The outside wall ran along the rooms toward the outer courtyard, the courtyard that was in front of the rooms. That wall was fifty cubits in length.<sup>8</sup>The length of the rooms of the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and the rooms facing the sanctuary were one hundred cubits in length.<sup>9</sup>There was an entrance to the lowest rooms from the east side, coming from the outer courtyard.

<sup>10</sup>Along the wall of the outer courtyard on the eastern side of the outer courtyard, in front of the sanctuary's inner courtyard, there were also rooms<sup>11</sup> with a walkway in front of them. They were as the appearance of the rooms on the northern side. They had the same length and breadth and the same exits and arrangements and doors.<sup>12</sup>On the south side were doors into rooms that were just the same as on the north side. A passage on the inside had a door at its head, and the passage opened into the various rooms. On the east side there was a doorway into the passage at one end.

<sup>13</sup>Then the man said to me, "The northern rooms and the southern rooms that are in front of the outer courtyard are holy rooms where the priests who work nearest to Yahweh may eat the most holy food. They will put the most holy things there—the food offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for this is a holy place.<sup>14</sup>When the priests enter there, they must not go out of the holy place to the outer court, without laying aside the clothes in which they served, since these are holy. So they must dress in other clothes before going near the people."

<sup>15</sup>The man completed measuring the inner house and then took me out to the gate that faced the east and measured all the surrounding area there.

<sup>20</sup>He measured it on four sides. It had a wall around it that was five hundred cubits in length, and five hundred cubits in width, to separate the holy from the profane.

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient translations of the Hebrew copies and many modern translations read one hundred cubits . Other ancient Hebrew copies some other modern translations read one cubit .

Chapter 43

<sup>1</sup>The man then brought me to the gate that opened to the east.<sup>2</sup>Behold! The glory of the God of Israel came from the east; his voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory.

<sup>3</sup>It was according to the appearance of the vision that I saw, according to the vision that I saw when he had come <sup>1</sup>to destroy the city, and the visions were like the vision that I saw at the Kebar Canal—and I fell to my face.<sup>4</sup>So the glory of Yahweh came to the house by way of the gate that opened to the east.<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court. Behold! The glory of Yahweh was filling the house.

<sup>6</sup>The man was standing beside me, and I heard someone else speaking to me from the house.<sup>7</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live in the midst of the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile my holy name—they or their kings—with their faithlessness or with the corpses of their kings at their high places.<sup>8</sup>They will no longer profane my holy name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their gateposts next to my gateposts, with nothing but a wall between me and them. They defiled my holy name with their disgusting practices, so I consumed them with my anger.

<sup>10</sup>Son of man, you yourself must tell the house of Israel about this house so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. They should think about this description.<sup>11</sup>For if they are ashamed of all that they have done, then reveal to them the design of the house, its details, its exits, its entrances, and all its designs, all its decrees and rules. Then write this down before their eyes so they will keep to all its design and all its rules, so as to obey them.

<sup>13</sup>These will be the measurements of the altar in cubits—that cubit being a regular cubit and a handbreadth in length. So the gutter around the altar will be a cubit deep, and its width will also be a cubit. The border around its surrounding edge will be one span. This will be the base of the altar.<sup>14</sup>From the gutter at the ground level up to the lower ledge of the altar is two cubits, and that ledge itself is one cubit in width. Then from the small ledge up to the large edge of the altar, it is four cubits, and the large edge is a cubit in width.

<sup>18</sup>Next he said to me, "Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: These are the regulations for the altar on the day they make it, for raising the burnt offering onto it, and for sprinkling blood on it.<sup>19</sup>You will give a young bull from the herd as a sin offering for the Levitical priests who are the descendants of Zadok, those who come near to me to serve me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>20</sup>Then you will take some of its blood and place it on the altar's four horns and the four sides of its edge and on the surrounding rim; you will cleanse it and make atonement for it.<sup>21</sup>Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the appointed part of the temple area outside of the sanctuary.

<sup>1</sup>Instead of when he had come which some Hebrew copies and some ancient and many modern translations read, some other copies of the Hebrew text read: when I came .

Chapter 44

<sup>1</sup>Then the man brought me back to the outer sanctuary gate that faced east; it was closed tightly.<sup>2</sup>Yahweh said to me, "This gate has been sealed shut; it will not be opened. No man will go through it, for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has come through it, so it has been closed tightly.<sup>3</sup>The ruler of Israel will sit in it to eat food before Yahweh. He will enter by way of the gate's portico and go out the same way."

<sup>4</sup>Then he brought me by way of the northern gate to the front of the temple, and I looked, and behold, the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh, and I fell to my face.<sup>5</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, set your heart and look with your eyes and listen with your ears to all that I am declaring to you, to all the statutes of the house of Yahweh and all its laws. Think about the house's entrance and the sanctuary's exits.

<sup>6</sup>Then say to the rebellious ones, the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Let all of your disgusting practices be enough for you, house of Israel—<sup>7</sup>that you brought foreigners with uncircumcised hearts and uncircumcised flesh to be in my sanctuary, profaning my house, while you were offering me food, fat and blood—you have broken my covenant by all your disgusting practices.

<sup>8</sup>You have not carried out your duties regarding my holy things, but you appointed others to take up your duties, and you assigned them to care for my holy place.<sup>9</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, from any of those who live among the people of Israel, may enter my holy place.

<sup>10</sup>Yet the Levites went far from me—they wandered away from me, going after their idols—but they will pay for their iniquity.<sup>11</sup>They are servants in my sanctuary, watching the gates of the house and serving in the house and they slaughter the burnt offerings and the people's sacrifices, and they will stand before the people and serve them.<sup>12</sup>But because they performed the sacrifices before their idols, they became stumbling blocks for sin for the house of Israel. Therefore I will lift up my hand to swear an oath against them—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—they will bear their punishment.

<sup>13</sup>They will not come near me to serve me as priests or to come near any of my holy things, to my most holy things. Instead, they will bear their shame and their disgusting practices that they have done.<sup>14</sup>But I will place them as keepers of the work in the house, for all of its duties and everything that is done in it.

<sup>15</sup>Then the Levitical priests and the descendants of Zadok who fulfilled the duties of my sanctuary when the people of Israel were wandering away from me, they will come near to me to minister to me; they will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.<sup>16</sup>They will come to my sanctuary; they will approach my table to worship me and to fulfill their duties to me.

<sup>17</sup>So it will be that when they come to the gates of the inner courtyard, they must be clothed in linen clothes, for they must not come in wool inside the gates of the courtyard and its house.<sup>18</sup>There should be linen turbans on their heads and linen underclothes on their hips. They must not gird themselves in clothes that make them sweat.

<sup>19</sup>When they go out to the outer courtyard, to the outer courtyard in order to go to the people, they must take off the clothes they wore when they served; they must take them off and lay them down in a holy room, so they do not make other people holy by contact with their special clothing.

<sup>23</sup>For they will teach my people the difference between the holy and the profane; they will make them know the unclean from the clean.<sup>24</sup>In a dispute they will stand to judge with my decrees; they must be just. They will keep my law and my statutes in every feast, and they will celebrate my holy Sabbaths.

<sup>25</sup>They must not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then they may defile themselves.<sup>26</sup>After a priest has become unclean, they will count off a period of seven days for him.<sup>27</sup>On the day he enters the holy place, into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must bring a sin offering for himself—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>28</sup>This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance, and you must give them no property in Israel; I will be their property!<sup>29</sup>They will eat the food offerings, the sin offerings, the guilt offerings, and everything devoted to Yahweh in Israel, will be theirs.

<sup>30</sup>The best of the firstfruits of all things and every contribution, anything from all of your contributions will belong to the priests, and you will give the first of your dough to the priests so that blessing may rest on your house.<sup>31</sup>The priests will not eat any carcass or animal torn by a wild animal, whether bird or beast.

Chapter 45

<sup>1</sup>When you cast lots to divide up the land as an inheritance, you must make an offering to Yahweh; this offering will be a holy part of the land, twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and ten thousand cubits in width. It will be holy, all its area round about. <sup>2</sup>From this there will be a five hundred cubits by five hundred cubits square surrounding the holy place, with a surrounding border fifty cubits in width.

<sup>3</sup>From this area you will measure a portion that is twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; it will be the sanctuary, the most holy place. <sup>4</sup>It will be a holy place in the land for the priests who serve Yahweh, who come near Yahweh to serve him. It will be a place for their houses and a holy area for the holy place. <sup>5</sup>So it will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width, and it will be for towns that belong to the Levites who serve in the house.

<sup>6</sup>You will designate an area for the city, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, that will be next to the area reserved for the holy place; this city will belong to all the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>The prince's land will be on both sides of the area reserved for the holy place and the property of the city. It will be to their west and to their east. The length will correspond to the length of one of those portions, from the west to the east.

<sup>8</sup>This land will be property for the prince in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people; instead, they will give the land to the house of Israel, for their tribes.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: It is enough for you, princes of Israel! Remove violence and strife; do justice and righteousness! Quit your evictions of my people!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>10</sup>You must have just scales, just ephahs, and just baths! <sup>11</sup>The ephah and the bath will be the same amount, so that a bath will be a tenth of a homer; the ephah will be a tenth of a homer. Their measure will be corresponding to the homer. <sup>12</sup>The shekel will be twenty gerahs; sixty shekels will make a mina for you.

<sup>13</sup>This is the contribution that you must present: A sixth of an ephah for every homer of wheat, and you will give a sixth of an ephah for every homer of barley. <sup>14</sup>The regulation offering of oil will be a tenth of a bath for every cor (which is ten baths), or for every homer, since a homer is also ten baths. <sup>15</sup>One sheep or goat will be taken from the flock for every two hundred animals from the well-watered land of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the people—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>16</sup>All the people of the land will give this contribution to the prince in Israel. <sup>17</sup>It will be the prince's responsibility to furnish animals for the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings at the festivals and the new moon celebrations, and on the Sabbath days—all the fixed festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide for the sin offerings, the grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings for atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you will take an unblemished bull from the herd and perform a sin offering for the sanctuary. <sup>19</sup>The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and place it on the doorposts of the house and on the four corners of the border of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gate to the inner court. <sup>20</sup>You will do this on the seventh of the month for each person's sin by accident or ignorance; in this way you will atone for the temple.

<sup>21</sup>In the first month on the fourteenth day of the month, there will be for you the Passover, a seven-day festival. You will eat unleavened bread. <sup>22</sup>On that day, the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering.

<sup>23</sup>For the seven days of the festival, the prince will prepare a burnt offering for Yahweh: Seven bulls and seven unblemished rams each day for seven days, and a male goat each day as a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>Then the prince will perform a food offering of an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram with a hin of oil for each ephah.

<sup>25</sup>In the seventh month on the fifteenth day of the month, at the festival, the prince will perform offerings on these seven days: Sin offerings, burnt offerings, food offerings, and offerings of oil.

Chapter 46

<sup>1</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: The gate of the inner courtyard, facing east, will be shut for the six days of work, but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened.<sup>2</sup>The prince will enter the outer courtyard by the way of the gate and its portico from outside, and he will stand before the doorposts of the inner gate while the priests perform his burnt offering and peace offering. Then he will worship at the threshold of the inner gate and go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening.

<sup>3</sup>The people of the land will also worship before Yahweh at the entrance to this gate on the Sabbaths and new moons.<sup>4</sup>The burnt offering that the prince offers to Yahweh on the Sabbath day will be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram.<sup>5</sup>The grain offering with the ram will be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs will be what he wishes to give, and a hin of oil with each ephah of grain.

<sup>6</sup>On the day of the new moon he must offer an unblemished bull from a herd, six lambs, and an unblemished ram.<sup>7</sup>He must make a grain offering of an ephah for the bull and an ephah for the ram, and what he wishes to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah of grain.<sup>8</sup>When the prince enters by the way of the gate and its portico, he must leave by the same way.

<sup>9</sup>But when the people of the land come before Yahweh at the appointed festivals, anyone entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate; and anyone entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. No one may turn back to the gate through which he entered, for he must go out straight ahead.<sup>10</sup>The prince must be in their midst; when they go in, he must go in, and when they leave, he must leave.

<sup>13</sup>In addition, you will give an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering to Yahweh daily; you will do this morning after morning.<sup>14</sup>You will give a grain offering with it morning after morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour of the grain offering for Yahweh, according to a permanent statute.<sup>15</sup>They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil morning after morning, a permanent burnt offering.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: If the prince gives a gift to one of his sons, it is his inheritance. It will also belong to his descendants. It is their property by inheritance.<sup>17</sup>But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it will be that servant's until the year of liberty, and then it will return to the prince. His inheritance will certainly be for his sons.<sup>18</sup>The prince will not take the people's inheritance, oppressing them by taking their own property; he must provide for his sons from his own property so that my people will not be scattered, each man from his own property."

<sup>19</sup>Next the man brought me through the entrance at the gate to the holy rooms for the priests, which faced north and behold! There was a place toward the west.<sup>20</sup>He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and where they must bake the grain offering. They must not bring the offerings into the outer courtyard, for then the people would be consecrated."

<sup>21</sup>Then he brought me to the outer courtyard and he led me past the four corners of that courtyard, and I saw that in every corner of the courtyard there was another court.<sup>22</sup>In the four corners of the outer courtyard there were four small courtyards, forty cubits in length and thirty in width. The four courtyards were the same size. <sup>23</sup>There was a row made of stone all around the four of them, and cooking hearths were under the stone row.<sup>24</sup>The man said to me, "These are the places where the temple servants will boil the people's sacrifices."

Chapter 47

<sup>1</sup>Then the man took me back to the entrance to the temple, and there was water flowing out from under the temple threshold of the house toward the east—for the front of the temple faced east—and the water was flowing down the south side of the temple, to the right of the altar.<sup>2</sup>So he brought me out through the northern gate and led me around to the gate facing east, and there the water was flowing from this gate on its south side.

<sup>3</sup>As the man was going toward the east, there was a measuring line in his hand; he measured off one thousand cubits and brought me through the water to ankle-deep water.<sup>4</sup>Then he measured one thousand cubits again and brought me through the water to knee-deep water; and he measured another thousand cubits and brought me to hip-deep water.<sup>5</sup>Next he measured off another thousand cubits, but it was a river that I could not cross through because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—it was a river that could not be crossed.

<sup>6</sup>The man said to me, "Son of man, do you see this?" and he brought me out and had me walk back along the riverbank.<sup>7</sup>As I walked back, there the riverbank had many trees on this side and also the other side.<sup>8</sup>The man said to me, "This water is going out to the eastern territory and down to the Arabah; this water flows into the Salt Sea and will make it fresh.

<sup>9</sup>It will be that every living creature that swarms will live where the water goes; there will be many fish, for these waters flow there. It will make the salt water fresh. Everything will live wherever the river goes.<sup>10</sup>Then it will happen that fishermen of En Gedi will stand by the water, and there will be a place to dry out the fishing nets by En Eglaim. There will be many kinds of fish in the Salt Sea, like the fish in the Great Sea for their abundance.

<sup>11</sup>But the Salt Sea's swamps and marshes will not be made fresh; they will be for providing salt.<sup>12</sup>Beside this river on its banks, on both sides, all kinds of trees will grow that bear food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will never fail to grow. Each month the trees will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: This will be the way that you divide the land up for the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph will have two portions.<sup>14</sup>You are to divide equally what I lifted up my hand and swore to give to your fathers. This land will come to you as an inheritance.

<sup>15</sup>This will be the boundary of the land on the north side from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon, and then to Zedad.

<sup>16</sup><sup>1</sup>Then the boundary will go to Berothah, to Sibram, which is between Damascus and Hamath, and then to Hazer Hattikon, which is beside the boundary of Hauran.<sup>17</sup>So the boundary will go from the sea to Hazar Enan on the border with Damascus and Hamath to the north. This will be the north side.

<sup>18</sup>On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel. You will measure from the border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern border. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Then on the south side the boundary will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This will be the boundary on the south side.

<sup>20</sup>Then the boundary on the west side will be the Great Sea to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the west side.

<sup>21</sup>In this way you will divide this land for yourselves, for the tribes of Israel.<sup>22</sup>So you will distribute the inheritances for yourselves and for the foreigners in your midst, those who have given birth to children in your midst and who are, with you, like the native born people of Israel. You will cast lots for inheritances among the tribes of Israel.<sup>23</sup>Then it will happen that the foreigner will be with the tribe among whom he is living. You must give him an inheritance—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>2</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text read: You will measure from the border to the eastern sea . However, the ancient Greek translations of the Hebrew copies, and many modern translations read to the eastern sea as far as Tamar .

Chapter 48

<sup>1</sup>These are the names of the tribes. The tribe of Dan will receive one portion of land; its boundary will run along the northern boundary of Israel by way of Hethlon and Lebo Hamath. Its boundary will go on to Hazar Enan and along the border with Damascus to the north and then on to Hamath. Dan's boundary will go from east all the way to the Great Sea.<sup>2</sup>Adjoining the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher will have one portion.

<sup>8</sup>The offering of land that you will make will be along the border with Judah and extend from the east side to the west side; it will be twenty-five thousand cubits in width. Its length will correspond to one tribe's portion from the east side to the west side, and the sanctuary will be in the middle of it.<sup>9</sup>This land that you will offer up to Yahweh will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand cubits in width.

<sup>10</sup>These will be the assignments of this holy portion of land: The priests will have land assigned to them measuring twenty-five thousand cubits in length on the north side; ten thousand cubits in width on the west side; ten thousand cubits in width on the east side; and twenty-five thousand cubits in length on the south side, with the holy place of Yahweh in the middle of it.<sup>11</sup>This will be for the consecration of the priests of the line of Zadok, who have served me faithfully and who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did.<sup>12</sup>The offering for them will be a portion of this most holy land, extending to the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>The Levites' land along the border with the priests' land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand cubits in width. The entire length of the two tracts of land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and twenty thousand cubits in width.<sup>14</sup>They must not sell it or exchange it; none of this firstfruits of the land of Israel must ever be separated from these tracts, for it all is holy to Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>The remaining land, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand cubits in length, will be for the collective use of the city, the houses, and the pastureland; the city will be in its midst.<sup>16</sup>These will be the city's measurements: The north side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the south side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the east side will be 4,500 cubits in length; and the west side will be 4,500 cubits in length.

<sup>17</sup>There will be pasture for the city toward the north, 250 cubits deep; to the south, 250 cubits deep; to the east, 250 cubits deep, and to the west, 250 cubits deep.<sup>18</sup>The remaining area of the holy offering will stretch for ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand cubits to the west. It will stretch along the border of the holy offering, and its produce will be food for those working in the city.

<sup>19</sup>The people who work in the city, from all the tribes of Israel, will farm the land.<sup>20</sup>All the land offering will measure twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits. In this way you will make the holy offering of land, together with the land for the city.

<sup>21</sup>The rest of the land on either side of the holy offering and the city area will be for the prince. The prince's tract of land to the east will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits from boundary of the holy offering to the eastern border—and his tract to the west will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border. In the middle will be the holy offering, and the holy place of the temple will be in its midst.<sup>22</sup>The land extending from the property of the Levites and the area of the city in its midst will be for the prince; it will be between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin—this land will be for the prince.

<sup>27</sup>To the south of Zebulun's boundary, running from the east side to the west side, will be the land of Gad—one portion.<sup>28</sup>The southern boundary of Gad will extend from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, and farther to the brook of Egypt, and then to the Great Sea.<sup>29</sup> This is the land for which you will cast lots; it will be the inheritance of the tribes of Israel. These will be their portions. This is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>30</sup>These will be the exits from the city: On the north side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length,<sup>31</sup> will be three gates, named for tribes of Israel: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi.<sup>32</sup> On the east side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan.

<sup>33</sup>On the south side, which is 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun.<sup>34</sup> On the west side, which will measure 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali.<sup>35</sup> The distance around the city will be eighteen thousand cubits; from that day on, the city's name will be "Yahweh Is There."

Daniel

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem and surrounded the city to cut off all supplies to it.<sup>2</sup> The Lord gave Nebuchadnezzar victory over Jehoiakim king of Judah, and he gave him some of the sacred objects from the house of God. He brought them into the land of Babylonia, to the house of his god, and he placed the sacred objects in his god's treasury.

<sup>3</sup>The king spoke to Ashpenaz, his chief official, to bring in some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility—<sup>4</sup>young men without blemish, attractive in appearance, having insight in all wisdom, filled with knowledge and understanding, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.<sup>5</sup> The king counted out for them a daily portion of his delicacies and some of the wine that he drank. These young men were to be trained for three years, and after that, they would serve the king.

<sup>6</sup>Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, some of the people of Judah.<sup>7</sup> The chief official gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>But Daniel intended in his mind that he would not pollute himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine that he drank. So he asked permission from the chief official that he might not defile himself.<sup>9</sup> Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion through the respect that the chief official had for him.<sup>10</sup> The chief official said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my master the king. He has commanded what food and drink you should have. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your own age? The king might have my head because of you."

<sup>17</sup>As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel could understand all kinds of visions and dreams.<sup>18</sup> At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>19</sup>The king spoke with them, and among the whole group there were none to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. They stood before the king, ready to serve him.<sup>20</sup> In every question of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead, who were in his entire kingdom.<sup>21</sup> Daniel was there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, he had dreams. His mind was troubled, and he could not sleep.<sup>2</sup>Then the king summoned the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead. He also called the sorcerers and educated men. He wanted them to tell him his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

<sup>3</sup>The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my mind is anxious to know what the dream means."<sup>4</sup>Then the educated men spoke to the king in Aramaic, "King, live forever! Tell the dream to us, your servants, and we will reveal the interpretation."

<sup>5</sup>The king replied to the educated men, "This matter has been settled. If you do not reveal to me the dream and its interpretation, your bodies will be torn apart and your houses made into rubbish heaps.<sup>6</sup>But if you will tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive gifts from me, a reward, and great honor. So tell to me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>7</sup>They replied again and said, "Let the king tell us, his servants, the dream and we will tell you its interpretation."<sup>8</sup>The king answered, "I know for certain that you want more time because you see how firm my decision is about this.<sup>9</sup>But if you do not tell me the dream, there is only one sentence for you. You have decided to prepare false and corrupt words that you agreed together to say to me until I change my mind. So then, tell me the dream, and then I will know that you can tell the interpretation."

<sup>10</sup>The educated men replied to the king, "There is not a man on earth able to meet the king's demand. There is no great king or ruler who has demanded such a thing from any magician, or from anyone who claims to speak with the dead, or from an educated man.<sup>11</sup>What the king demands is difficult, and there is no one who can tell it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among humans."

<sup>12</sup>This made the king angry and very furious, and he gave an order to destroy all the wise men in Babylon.<sup>13</sup>So the decree went out to put the wise men to death, and they sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.

<sup>14</sup>Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch the commander of the king's bodyguard, who had come to kill all the wise men in Babylon.<sup>15</sup>Daniel asked the king's commander, "Why is the king's decree so urgent?" So Arioch told Daniel what had happened.<sup>16</sup>Then Daniel went in and requested an appointment with the king so that he could present the interpretation to the king.

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel went to his house and explained to his companions Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah what had happened.<sup>18</sup>He urged them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery so that Daniel and his friends might not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>That night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven<sup>20</sup> and Daniel said,

"Praise the name of God forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to him.

<sup>21</sup> He changes the times and seasons;
he removes kings and places kings on their thrones.
He gives wisdom to wise men
and knowledge to those who have understanding.

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things because he knows what is in the darkness, and the light lives with him.

<sup>23</sup> God of my ancestors, I thank you and praise you for the wisdom and power you gave to me.
Now you have made known to me what we asked of you;
you have made known to us the matter that concerns the king."

<sup>24</sup>Then Daniel went in to see Arioch (the one the king appointed to kill everyone who was wise in Babylon). He went and said to him, "Do not destroy the wise men in Babylon. Take me to the king and I will show the king the interpretation of his dream."

<sup>25</sup>Then Arioch quickly brought in Daniel before the king and said, "I have found among the exiles of Judah a man who will reveal the interpretation of the king's dream."<sup>26</sup>The king said to Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar), "Are you able to tell me the dream that I saw and its interpretation?"

<sup>27</sup>Daniel answered the king and said, "The mystery that the king has asked about cannot be revealed by wise men, nor by those who claim to speak with the dead, nor by magicians, and not by astrologers.<sup>28</sup> Nevertheless, there is a God who lives in the heavens, who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, what will happen in the days to come. These were your dream and the visions of your mind as you lay on your bed.

<sup>29</sup>As for you, king, your thoughts on your bed were about things to come, and the one who reveals mysteries has made known to you what is about to happen.<sup>30</sup> As for me, this mystery was not revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any other living person. This mystery was revealed to me so that you, king, may understand the interpretation, and so that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

<sup>34</sup>You looked up, and a stone was cut out, although not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and it shattered them.<sup>35</sup> Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold at the same time were broken into pieces and became like the chaff of the threshing floors in the summer. The wind carried them away and there was no trace of them left. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup>This was the dream. Now we will tell the king the interpretation.<sup>37</sup> You, king, are king of the kings to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the honor.<sup>38</sup> He has given into your hand the place where the human beings live. He has given over the animals of the field and the birds of the heavens into your hand, and he has made you rule over them all. You are the statue's head of gold.

<sup>39</sup>After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze will rule over all the earth.

<sup>40</sup>There will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks other things into pieces and shatters everything. It will shatter all these things and crush them.

<sup>41</sup>Just as you saw, the feet and toes were partly made of baked clay and partly made of iron, so it will be a divided kingdom; some of the strength of iron will be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay.<sup>42</sup> As the toes of the feet were partly made of iron and partly made of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.<sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so the people will be a mixture; they will not stay together, just as iron does not mix with clay.

<sup>44</sup>In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be conquered by another people. It will break the other kingdoms into pieces and put an end to all of them, and it will remain forever.<sup>45</sup> Just as you saw, a stone was cut out of the mountain, but not by human hands. It broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold into pieces. The great God has made known to you, king, what will happen after this. The dream is true and this interpretation is reliable."

<sup>46</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face before Daniel and honored him; he commanded that an offering be made and that incense be offered up to him.<sup>47</sup> The king said to Daniel, "Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and the one who reveals mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery."

<sup>48</sup>Then the king made Daniel highly honored and gave him many wonderful gifts. He made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon. Daniel became chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon.<sup>49</sup> Daniel made a request of the king, and the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be administrators over the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue that was sixty cubits tall and six cubits wide. He set it up in the Plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.<sup>2</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar sent messages out to gather together the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the statue that the king had set up.

<sup>3</sup>Then the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces gathered together to the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood before it.<sup>4</sup>Then a herald loudly shouted, "You are commanded, peoples, nations, and languages,<sup>5</sup>that at the time you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

<sup>8</sup>Now at this time certain Chaldeans came and brought accusations against the Jews.<sup>9</sup>They said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, "King, live forever!"<sup>10</sup>You, king, have made a decree that every person who hears the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden statue.

<sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar, filled with anger and rage, commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought to him. So they brought these men before the king.<sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Have you made your minds up, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you will not serve my gods or worship to the golden statue that I have set up?

<sup>15</sup>Now if you are ready—when you hear the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music—to fall down and worship the statue that I have made, all will be well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the middle of a furnace of blazing fire. Who is the god who is able to rescue you out of my hands?"

<sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.<sup>17</sup>If there is an answer, it is that our God whom we serve is able to keep us safe from the furnace of blazing fire, and he will rescue us out of your hand, king."<sup>18</sup>But if not, let it be known to you, king, that we will not serve your gods, and we will not worship the golden statue you set up."

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage; the look on his face changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He commanded that the furnace should be heated seven times hotter than it was normally heated.

<sup>20</sup>Then he commanded some very strong men in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>21</sup>They were tied up still wearing their robes, tunics, turbans, and other clothing, and they were thrown into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire.<sup>22</sup>Because the king's command was strictly followed and the furnace was exceedingly hot, the flames of the fire killed the men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.<sup>23</sup>These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire while they were tied up.

<sup>24</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was amazed and stood up quickly. He asked his advisors, "Did we not throw three men tied up into the fire?" They replied to the king, "Certainly, king."<sup>25</sup>He said, "But I see four men who are not tied up walking around in the fire, and they are not hurt. The brilliance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near the door of the furnace of blazing fire and called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of God Most High, come out! Come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire.<sup>27</sup> The provincial governors, regional governors, other governors, and the king's counselors who had gathered together saw these men. The fire had not hurt their bodies; the hair on their heads was not singed; their robes were not harmed; and there was no smell of fire on them.

<sup>28</sup>Nebuchadnezzar said, "Let us praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his messenger and rescued his servants who trusted in him, and set aside the king's command, and they gave up their bodies rather than serve or worship any god except their God.

<sup>29</sup>Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego must be torn apart, and that their houses must be made into rubbish heaps because there is no other god who is able to save like this."<sup>30</sup> Then the king caused Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to prosper in the province of Babylon.

Chapter 4

<sup>2</sup>It has seemed good to me to tell you about the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.

and how mighty are his wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and his dominion lasts from generation to generation."

<sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living happily in my house, and I was enjoying prosperity in my palace.<sup>5</sup>But a dream I had made me afraid. As I lay there, the images I saw and the visions in my mind troubled me.<sup>6</sup>So I gave a decree to bring before me all the wise men of Babylon so they could interpret the dream for me.

<sup>7</sup>Then came the magicians, those who claimed to speak with the dead, the educated men, and the astrologers. I told them the dream, but they could not make known the interpretation to me.<sup>8</sup>But at last Daniel came in—the one who is named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—and I told him the dream.<sup>9</sup>"Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too difficult for you. Tell me the appearance of my dream and its interpretation.

<sup>10</sup>These were the sights that I saw in my mind as I lay upon my bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was very great.<sup>11</sup>The tree grew and became strong. Its top reached to the heavens, and it could be seen to the ends of the whole earth.<sup>12</sup>Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant, and on it was food for all. The animals of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches. All living creatures were fed from it.

<sup>13</sup>I saw in my mind as I lay on my bed, and a watcher, a holy one came down from the heavens.<sup>14</sup>He shouted and said, 'Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds fly away from its branches.

<sup>17</sup>This sentence is by the decree of the watchers, a decision made by the holy ones, so that those who are alive may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and gives them to anyone he wishes to place over them, even to the most humble men."<sup>18</sup>I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you are able to do so, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

<sup>19</sup>Then Daniel, who was also named Belteshazzar, was greatly upset for a brief time, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you." Belteshazzar replied, "My master, may the dream be for those who hate you; may its interpretation be for your enemies.

<sup>20</sup>The tree that you saw—which grew and became strong, and whose top reached up to the heavens, and which could be seen to the ends of the whole earth—<sup>21</sup>whose leaves were beautiful, and whose fruit was abundant, so that in it was food for all, and under it the animals of the field found shade, and in which the birds of the heavens lived—<sup>22</sup>this tree is you, king, you who have grown so strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion reaches to the ends of the earth.

<sup>24</sup>This is the interpretation, king. It is a decree of the Most High that has reached you, my master the king.<sup>25</sup>You will be driven from among men, and you will live with the animals in the field. You will be made to eat grass like cattle, and you will be wet with the dew from the heavens, and seven years will pass by until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and that he gives them to anyone he wishes.

<sup>26</sup>As it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, in this way your kingdom will be returned to you from the time you learn that heaven rules.<sup>27</sup>Therefore, king, let my advice be pleasing to you. Stop sinning and do what is right. Turn away from your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, and it may be that your prosperity will be extended."

<sup>31</sup>While the words were still on the lips of the king, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, it is announced to you that this kingdom has been taken away from you.<sup>32</sup>You will be driven away from people, and your home will be with the animals in the field. You will be made to eat grass like cattle. Seven years will pass until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and he gives them to anyone he wishes."

<sup>33</sup>This decree against Nebuchadnezzar was carried out immediately. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle, and his body was wet with the dew from the heavens. His hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails became like birds' claws.

<sup>34</sup>At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was given back to me.

"I praised the Most High,
and I honored and glorified the one who lives forever.
For his dominion is an everlasting dominion,
and his kingdom endures from all generations to all generations.

<sup>35</sup>All the earth's inhabitants are considered by him to be as nothing;
he does among the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth
whatever suits his will.
No one can stop him or challenge him.
No one can say to him, 'Why have you done this?'"

<sup>36</sup>At the same time that my sanity returned to me, my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my noblemen sought my favor. I was brought back to my throne, and even more greatness was given to me.<sup>37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, extol, and honor the King of heaven, for all his deeds are true, and his ways are just. He can humble those who walk in their own pride.

Chapter 5

<sup>3</sup>The servants brought the gold containers that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God, in Jerusalem. The king, his noblemen, and his wives and concubines drank from them.<sup>4</sup>They drank the wine and praised their idols made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>7</sup>The king shouted a command to bring in those who claimed to speak with the dead, the educated men, and the astrologers. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and makes known its interpretation to me will be clothed with purple and will have a gold chain around his neck. He will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>8</sup>Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or make known its interpretation to the king.<sup>9</sup>Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed and the look on his face changed. His noblemen were perplexed.

<sup>10</sup>Now the queen came into the banquet house because of what the king and his nobles had said. The queen said, "King, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you. Do not let the look on your face change."

<sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods was found in him. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father the king, made him chief of the magicians, as well as chief of those who speak with the dead, of the educated men, and of the astrologers.<sup>12</sup>An excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, explaining of riddles and solving of problems—these qualities were found in this man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now call for Daniel and he will tell you the interpretation."

<sup>13</sup>Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "You are that Daniel, one of the people of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought out of Judah."<sup>14</sup>I have heard about you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

<sup>15</sup>Now the wise men and those who claim to speak with the dead have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not make known to me the interpretation of the message.<sup>16</sup>I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you will be clothed with purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another person. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to you, king, and will tell you the interpretation."<sup>18</sup>As for you, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, greatness, honor, and majesty.<sup>19</sup>Because of the greatness God gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared him. He killed those he wanted to die, and he kept alive those he wished to live. He raised up those he wanted, and he humbled those he wished.

<sup>20</sup>But when his heart was arrogant and his spirit was hardened so that he acted presumptuously, he was brought down from his royal throne, and they took away his glory.<sup>21</sup>He was driven away from humanity, he had the mind of an animal, and he lived with the wild donkeys. He ate grass like cattle. His body was wet with the dew from the heavens until he learned that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of people and that he sets over them anyone he wishes.

<sup>22</sup>You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this.<sup>23</sup>You have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. From his house they brought you the containers that you, your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from, and you praised the idols made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—idols that do not see, hear, or know anything. You have not honored the God who holds your breath in his hand and who knows all your ways.<sup>24</sup>Then God sent out a hand from his presence and this inscription was written.

<sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar gave a command, and they clothed Daniel with purple. A chain of gold was put around his neck, and the king made a proclamation about him that he would have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup>That night Belshazzar, the Babylonian king, was killed, <sup>31</sup>and Darius the Mede received the kingdom when he was about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>It seemed good to Darius to appoint over the kingdom 120 provincial governors who would rule over all the kingdom.<sup>2</sup>Over them there were three chief administrators, and Daniel was one of them. These chief administrators were appointed so that they might supervise the provincial governors, so that the king should suffer no loss.<sup>3</sup>Daniel was distinguished above the other chief administrators and the provincial governors because he had an extraordinary spirit. The king was planning to put him over the whole kingdom.

<sup>4</sup>Then the other chief administrators and the provincial governors looked for mistakes in the work Daniel did for the kingdom, but they could find no corruption or failure in his duty because he was faithful. No mistakes or negligence was found in him.<sup>5</sup>Then these men said, "We cannot find any reason to complain against this Daniel unless we find something against him regarding the law of his God."

<sup>6</sup>Then these administrators and governors brought a plan before the king. They said to him, "King Darius, may you live forever!"<sup>7</sup>All the chief administrators of the kingdom, the regional governors, and the provincial governors, the advisors, and the governors have consulted together and decided that you, the king, should issue a decree and enforce a prohibition, so that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, king, that person must be thrown into the den of lions.

<sup>8</sup>Now, king, issue the prohibition and sign the document so that it may not be changed, as directed by the law of the Medes and Persians, so it cannot be repealed."<sup>9</sup>So king Darius signed the document, the prohibition.

<sup>10</sup>When Daniel learned that the document had been signed into law, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his upper room toward Jerusalem), and he got down on his knees, as he did three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done before.<sup>11</sup>Then these men who had formed the plot together saw Daniel make requests and seek favor from God.

<sup>12</sup>Then they approached the king and spoke with him about his prohibition: "Did you not make a prohibition that everyone who makes a petition to any god or human being during the next thirty days, except to you, king, must be thrown into the den of lions?" The king answered, "The matter is settled, as directed by the law of the Medes and Persians; it cannot be repealed."

<sup>13</sup>Then they replied to the king, "That person Daniel, who is one of the people of the exile from Judah, pays no attention to you, king, or to the prohibition that you have signed. He prays to his God three times a day."<sup>14</sup>When the king heard this, he was terribly distressed, and he applied his mind to rescue Daniel from this ruling. He labored until sunset to try to save Daniel.

<sup>15</sup>Then these men who had formed the plot gathered together with the king and said to him, "Know, king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no prohibition or statute that the king issues can be changed."

<sup>16</sup>Then the king gave an order, and they brought in Daniel, and they threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you."

<sup>17</sup>A stone was brought over the entrance to the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.<sup>18</sup>Then the king went to his palace and he went through the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and sleep fled from him.

<sup>19</sup>Then at daybreak the king got up and he quickly went to the lions' den.<sup>20</sup>As he came near to the den, the king called out to Daniel in a sad voice, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

<sup>21</sup>Then said Daniel to the king, "King, live forever!"<sup>22</sup>My God has sent his messenger and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me. For I was found blameless before him and also before you, king, and I have done you no harm."

<sup>23</sup>Then the king was very happy. He gave an order that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted up out of the den. No harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>The king gave an order, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel and threw them into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives. Before they reached the floor, the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones to pieces.<sup>25</sup>Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that live in all the earth:

"May peace increase for you.

<sup>26</sup> I hereby make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel,
for he is the living God
and lives forever,
and his kingdom will not be destroyed;
his dominion will last to the end.

<sup>27</sup> He makes us safe and rescues us,
and he does signs and wonders
in heaven and in earth;
he has kept Daniel safe
from the strength of the lions."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylonia, Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind while lying on his bed. Then he wrote down what he had seen in the dream. He wrote down the most important events:<sup>2</sup>Daniel explained, "In my vision at night I saw that the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea.<sup>3</sup>Four large animals, each one different from the other, came up out of the sea.

<sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion but had eagle's wings. As I was looking, its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground and made to stand on two feet, like a man. The mind of a man was given to it.<sup>5</sup>Then there was a second animal, like a bear, and it was bending over; it had three ribs between its teeth in its mouth. It was told, 'Get up and devour many people.'

<sup>6</sup>After this I looked again. There was another animal, one that looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like bird wings, and it had four heads. It was given authority to rule.<sup>7</sup>After this I saw in the visions of the night a fourth animal, terrifying, frightening, and very strong. It had large iron teeth; it devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled underfoot what was left. It was different from the other animals, and it had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>While I was considering the horns, I looked and saw another horn grow up among them, a little horn. Three of the first horns were wrenched out by the roots. I saw in this horn eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth that was boasting about great things.

<sup>9</sup>As I looked,
 thrones were set in place,
 and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
 His clothing was as white as snow,
 and the hair of his head was like pure wool.
 His throne was flames of fire,
 and its wheels were burning fire.

<sup>10</sup> A river of fire flowed out from before him;
 millions served him,
 and one hundred million were standing before him.
 The court was in session,
 and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>I continued to look because of the sound of the boastful words spoken by the horn. I watched while the animal was killed, and its body was destroyed, and it was given over to be burned up.<sup>12</sup>As for the rest of the four animals, their authority to rule was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a period of time.

<sup>13</sup>In my visions that night,
 I saw one coming with the clouds of heaven like a son of man;
 he came to the Ancient of Days
 and was presented before him.

<sup>14</sup> Authority to rule and glory and royal power were given to him so that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him.
 His authority to rule is an everlasting authority that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved inside of me, and the visions I saw in my mind troubled me.<sup>16</sup>I approached one of them standing there and asked him to show me the interpretation of these things.

<sup>17</sup>"These large animals, four in number, are four kings that will arise from the earth.<sup>18</sup>But the holy people of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and they will possess it forever and ever.'

<sup>19</sup>Then I wanted to know more about the fourth animal—it was so different from the others and very horrifying with its iron teeth and bronze claws; it devoured, broke into pieces, and trampled on what was left with its feet.<sup>20</sup>I wanted to know about the ten horns on its head, and about the other horn that grew up, and before which the three horns fell down. I wanted to know about the horn that had eyes and about the mouth that boasted about great things and that seemed greater than its companions.

<sup>21</sup>As I looked, this horn waged war against the holy people and was defeating them<sup>22</sup>until the Ancient of Days came, and justice was given to the holy people of the Most High. Then the time came when the holy people took possession of the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>This is what that person said, 'As for the fourth animal,
it will be a fourth kingdom on earth
that will be different from all the other kingdoms.
It will devour the whole earth,
and it will trample it down
and break it into pieces.

<sup>24</sup>As for the ten horns,
out of this kingdom ten kings will arise,
and another will arise after them.
He will be different from the previous ones,
and he will subdue the three kings.

<sup>25</sup>He will speak words against the Most High and will oppress the holy people of the Most High God.
He will try to change the festivals and the law.
These things will be given into his hand
for one year, two years, and half a year.

<sup>26</sup>But the court will be in session, and they will take his royal power away
to be consumed and destroyed at the end.

<sup>27</sup>The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven,
will be given to the people who belong to the holy people of the Most High.
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and all other kingdoms will serve and obey him.'

<sup>28</sup>Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me and my face changed in appearance. But I kept these things to myself."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, I, Daniel, had a vision appear to me (after the one that appeared to me at first).<sup>2</sup>I saw in the vision, as I was looking, that I was in the fortress of Susa in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal.

<sup>3</sup>I looked up and saw before me a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal. One horn was longer than the other, but the longer one grew more slowly than the shorter and was passed up in length by it.<sup>4</sup>I saw the ram pushing west, then north, and then south; no other animal could stand before him. None of them was able to rescue anyone out of his hand. He did whatever he wanted, and he became great.

<sup>5</sup>As I was thinking about this, I saw a male goat come from the west, who went across the surface of the whole earth, running fast, not seeming to touch the ground. The goat had a large horn between his eyes.<sup>6</sup>He came to the ram who had two horns—I had seen the ram standing on the bank of the canal—and the goat rushed toward the ram in a powerful rage.

<sup>7</sup>I saw the goat come close to the ram. He was very angry at the ram, and he hit the ram and broke off its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand before him. The goat knocked him down to the ground and trampled on him. There was no one who could rescue the ram from his power.<sup>8</sup>Then the goat became very large. But when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in its place four other large horns grew up that pointed toward the four winds of the heavens.

<sup>9</sup>Out of one of them grew another horn, little at first, but which grew exceedingly large toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Beautiful Land.<sup>10</sup>It became so large as to engage in war with the army of heaven. Some of that army and some of the stars were thrown down to the earth, and it trampled on them.

<sup>11</sup>It made itself to be as great as the commander of the army. It took away from him the regular burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was polluted.<sup>12</sup>Because of rebellion, the army will be given over to the goat's horn, and the burnt offering will be stopped. The horn will throw truth down to the ground, and it will succeed in what it does.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one answering him, "How long will these things last, this vision about the burnt offering, the sin that brings destruction, the handing over of the sanctuary, and heaven's army being trampled on?"<sup>14</sup>He said to me, "It will last for 2,300 evenings and mornings. After that the sanctuary will be restored."

<sup>18</sup>When he spoke to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and made me stand up.<sup>19</sup>He said, "See, I will make known to you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time for the end."

<sup>20</sup>As for the ram you saw, the one that had two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia.<sup>21</sup>The male goat is the king of Greece. The large horn between his eyes is the first king.

<sup>22</sup>As for the horn that was broken, in the place of which four others arose—four kingdoms will arise from his nation, but not with his great power.<sup>23</sup>At the latter time of those kingdoms, when the transgressors have reached their limit, a grim-faced king, one who is very intelligent, will arise.

<sup>24</sup>His power will be mighty—but not by his own power. He will be amazing in what he destroys; he will act and succeed. He will destroy mighty ones and the holy people.<sup>25</sup>By his craftiness he will make deceit prosper under his hand. He will become great in his own mind. He will unexpectedly destroy many people. He will even rise up against the Prince of princes, and he will be broken, but not by any human hand.

<sup>26</sup>The vision about the evenings and mornings that has been told is true. But seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future."

<sup>27</sup>Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay weak for several days. Then I got up, and went about the king's business. But I was astounded by the vision, and there was no one who understood it.

Chapter 9

<sup>3</sup>I turned my face to the Lord God, to seek him with prayer and humble requests, with fasting, wearing sackcloth, and sitting in ashes.<sup>4</sup>I prayed to Yahweh my God, and I made confession of our sins. I said, "I beg you, Lord—you are the great and awesome God—you are the one who keeps the covenant and is faithful to love those who love you and keep your commandments.

<sup>5</sup>We have sinned and have done what is wrong. We have acted wickedly and we have rebelled, turning aside from your commands and decrees.<sup>6</sup>We have not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup>To you, Lord, belongs righteousness. To us today, however, belongs shame on our faces—for the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, and to all Israel. This includes those who are near and those who are far away in all the lands where you scattered them. This is because of the faithless deeds that we committed against you.<sup>8</sup>To us, Yahweh, belongs shame on our faces—to our kings, to our leaders, and to our ancestors—because we have sinned against you.

<sup>9</sup>To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him.<sup>10</sup>We have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God by walking in his laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.<sup>11</sup>All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. The curse and oath that are written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, for we have sinned against him.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh has confirmed the words that he spoke against us and against our rulers over us, by bringing on us a great disaster. For under the whole of heaven there has not been done anything that could compare with what has been done to Jerusalem.<sup>13</sup>As it is written in the law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not begged for mercy from Yahweh our God by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to your truth.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore Yahweh has kept the disaster ready and has brought it on us, for Yahweh our God is righteous in all the deeds he does, yet we have not obeyed his voice.

<sup>15</sup>Now, Lord our God, you brought out your people from the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and you have made a famous name for yourself, as in this present day. But still we sinned; we have done wicked things.<sup>16</sup>Lord, because of all your righteous deeds, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Because of our sins, and because of the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of mockery to all those around us.

<sup>17</sup>Now, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his humble requests; for your sake, Lord, make your face shine on your sanctuary that is desolate.<sup>18</sup>My God, incline your ears and listen; open your eyes and see. We have been devastated; look at the city that is called by your name. We do not bring our humble requests to you because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy.<sup>19</sup>Lord, listen! Lord, forgive! Lord, pay attention and take action! For your own sake, do not delay, my God, for your city and your people are called by your name."

<sup>20</sup>While I was speaking—praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my humble request before Yahweh my God on behalf of God's holy mountain—<sup>21</sup>while I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, flew down to me in rapid flight, at the time of the evening sacrifice.

<sup>22</sup>He gave me understanding and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come out to give you insight and understanding.

<sup>23</sup>When you began presenting your humble requests, the order was given and I have come to tell you the answer, for you are precious. Therefore consider this word and understand the revelation.

<sup>24</sup>Seventy sevens are decreed for your people and your holy city to end the guilt and put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring everlasting righteousness, to carry out the vision and the prophecy, and to consecrate the most holy place.<sup>25</sup>Know and understand that from the issuing of the order to restore and rebuild Jerusalem to the coming of the anointed one (who will be a leader), there will be seven sevens and sixty-two sevens. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and a moat, despite the times of distress.

<sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two sevens, the anointed one will be destroyed and will have nothing. The army of a coming ruler will destroy the city and the holy place. Its end will come with a flood, and there will be war even to the end. Desolations have been decreed.

<sup>27</sup> He will confirm a covenant with many for one seven. In the middle of the seven he will put an end to the sacrifice and the offering. On the wing of abominations will come someone who makes desolate until the complete destruction that has been decreed is poured out on the one who has made the desolation."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. This message was true. It was about a great conflict. Daniel understood the message when he had insight from the vision.

<sup>2</sup>In those days I, Daniel, was in mourning for three weeks.<sup>3</sup>I ate no delicacies, I ate no meat, I drank no wine, and I did not anoint myself with oil until the completion of three entire weeks.

<sup>7</sup>I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision. However, a great terror came on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.<sup>8</sup>So I was left alone and saw this great vision. No strength remained in me; my bright appearance was turned into a ruined look, and no strength remained in me.<sup>9</sup>Then I heard his words—and as I heard them, I fell on my face in deep sleep with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup>A hand touched me, and it made me tremble in my knees and the palms of my hands.<sup>11</sup>The angel said to me, "Daniel, precious man, understand the words that I am speaking to you. Stand upright, for I have been sent to you." When he had spoken this message to me, I stood up trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you set your mind to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words."<sup>13</sup>The prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me, and I was kept there with the kings of Persia for twenty-one days. But Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days. For the vision is for days yet to come."<sup>15</sup>While he was speaking to me using these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was unable to speak.

<sup>16</sup>One who was like the sons of man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke to him who stood before me: "My master, I am in agony because of the vision; I have no strength left."<sup>17</sup>I am your servant. How can I talk with my master? For I now have no strength, and there is no breath left in me."

<sup>18</sup>Again the one with an appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me.<sup>19</sup>He said, "Do not be afraid, precious man. May peace be to you! Be strong now, be strong!" While he was speaking to me, I was strengthened. I said, "Let my master speak, for you have strengthened me."

<sup>20</sup>He said, "Do you know why I have come to you? I will soon return to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come."<sup>21</sup>But I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. There is no one who shows himself to be strong with me against them, except Michael your prince.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Darius the Mede, I myself came to support and protect Michael.<sup>2</sup>Now I will tell you the truth. Three kings will arise in Persia, and a fourth will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup>A mighty king will rise up who will rule a very great kingdom, and he will act according to his desires.<sup>4</sup>When he has risen up, his kingdom will be broken and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his own descendants, and not with the authority he had when he was ruling. For his kingdom will be uprooted for others besides his descendants.

<sup>5</sup>The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion.<sup>6</sup>After a few years, when the time is right, they will make an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to confirm the agreement. But she will not keep her arm's strength, nor will he stand, or his arm. She will be abandoned—she and those who brought her, and her father, and the one who supported her in those times. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>7</sup>But a branch from her roots will rise up in her place. He will attack the army and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will fight them, and he will conquer them.<sup>8</sup>He will capture their gods, along with their cast metal figures and their precious vessels of silver and of gold, and take them to Egypt. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North.<sup>9</sup>Then the king of the North will invade the kingdom of the king of the South, but he will withdraw to his own land.

<sup>10</sup>His sons will get ready and assemble a great army. It will keep coming and will flood everything; it will pass through all the way to his fortress.

<sup>11</sup>Then the king of the South will become very angry; he will go and fight against him, the king of the North. The king of the North will raise up a great army, but the army will be given into his hand.<sup>12</sup>The army will be carried off, and the heart of the king of the South will be lifted up, and he will make tens of thousands to fall, but he will not be victorious.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king of the North will raise up another army, greater than the first. After some years, the king of the North will surely come with a great army supplied with much equipment.

<sup>14</sup>In those times many will rise against the king of the South. Sons of the violent among your people will set themselves in order to fulfill a vision, but they will stumble.

<sup>17</sup>The king of the North will set his face to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, and with him will be an agreement that he will make with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter of women in marriage to ruin the kingdom of the South. But the plan will not succeed or help him.<sup>18</sup>After this, the king of the North will pay attention to the coastlands and will capture many of them. But a commander will end his contempt and will cause his contempt to turn back upon him.<sup>19</sup>Then he will pay attention to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall; he will not be found.

<sup>20</sup>Then someone will rise up in his place who will make a tax collector pass through for the sake of the splendor of the kingdom. But in the next days he will be broken, but not in anger or in battle.<sup>21</sup>In his place will rise up a despised person to whom the people will not have given the honor of royal power; he will come unexpectedly and will take over the kingdom by trickery.<sup>22</sup>An army will be swept away like a flood from before him. Both that army and the leader of the covenant will be destroyed.

<sup>23</sup>From the time an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; with only a small number of people he will gain power.<sup>24</sup>Without warning he will come into the richest part of the province, and he will do what neither his father nor his father's father did. He will spread among his followers the booty, the plunder, and the wealth. He will plan the overthrow of fortresses, but only for a time.

<sup>25</sup>He will wake up his power and his heart against the king of the South with a great army. The king of the South will wage war with an extremely large and mighty army, but he will not stand because others will make plots against him.<sup>26</sup> Even those who eat his fine food will try to destroy him. His army will be swept away like a flood, and many of them will fall killed.<sup>27</sup> Both these kings, with their hearts set on evil against each other, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but it will be of no use. For the end will come at the time that has been fixed.

<sup>28</sup> Then the king of the North will go back into his land with great riches, with his heart set against the holy covenant. He will act and then will return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup> At the appointed time he will return and come against the South again. But this time it will not be as before.<sup>30</sup> For ships of Kittim will come against him, and he will become afraid. He will return and be furious against the holy covenant, and he will take action. He will return and show favor to those who abandon the holy covenant.

<sup>31</sup> His forces will rise up and profane the fortress sanctuary. They will put an end to the regular burnt offering, and they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.<sup>32</sup> As for those who acted wickedly against the covenant, he will deceive them and corrupt them. But the people who know their God will be strong and will take action.

<sup>38</sup> He will honor the god of fortresses instead of these. It is a god whom his fathers did not know that he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and other precious things.<sup>39</sup> He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. To anyone who acknowledges him, he will give much honor. He will make them rulers over many people, and he will divide up the land as a reward. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>42</sup> He will extend his hand into lands; the land of Egypt will not be rescued.<sup>43</sup> He will have control over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; the Libyans and the Cushites will be in his footsteps.

<sup>44</sup> But news from the east and the north will frighten him, and he will go out with great rage to completely destroy and to set many apart for destruction.<sup>45</sup> He will set up the tent of his royal residence between the seas and the mountain of the beauty of holiness. He will come to his end, and there will be no helper for him.

<sup>2</sup> Instead of He will attack the strongest fortresses , some modern translations have He will defend his fortress .

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>At that time Michael, the great prince who guards your people, will rise up. There will be a time of trouble such as never was since the beginning of any nation until that time. At that time your people will be saved, everyone whose name is found written in the book.<sup>2</sup>Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

<sup>3</sup>Those who have insight will shine like the brightness of the sky above, and those who turn many to righteousness are like the stars forever and ever.<sup>4</sup>But you, Daniel, close up these words; keep the book sealed until the time of the end. Many will run here and there, and knowledge will increase."

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and there were two others standing. One stood on the bank on this side of the river, and one stood on the bank on the other side of the river.<sup>6</sup>One of them said to the man clothed in linen, the one who was upstream along the river, "How long will it be to the end of these amazing events?"

<sup>7</sup>I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upstream along the river—he raised his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by the one who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and half a time. When they finish shattering the power of the holy people, all these things will be completed.

<sup>8</sup>I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, "My master, what will be the outcome of all these things?"<sup>9</sup>He said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.

<sup>10</sup>Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand.<sup>11</sup>From the time that an end is put to the regular burnt offering and the abomination that causes complete desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the one who waits until the end of the 1,335 days.<sup>13</sup>You must go your way until the end, and you will rest. You will rise in the place assigned to you, at the end of days."

Hosea

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboamson of Joash, king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>When Yahweh spoke at first through Hosea, he said to him,
 "Go, take for yourself a wife who is a prostitute.
 She will have children who are the result of her prostitution.
 For the land is committing great prostitution
 by abandoning Yahweh."

<sup>3</sup>So Hosea went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. <sup>4</sup>Yahweh said to Hosea,

"Call his name Jezreel.
 For in a little while
 I will punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> It will happen on the day that I break the bow of Israel
 in the Valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup>Gomer conceived again and bore a daughter. Then Yahweh said to Hosea,
 "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah,
 for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should forgive them at all.

- <sup>7</sup> Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah,
and I will save them by myself, Yahweh their God.
I will not save them
by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."

<sup>8</sup> Now after Gomer had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore another son.

- <sup>9</sup> Then Yahweh said,
"Call his name Lo-Ammi,
for you are not my people,
and I am not your God.

- <sup>10</sup> Yet the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted.
It will be that where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,'
it will be said to them,
'You are people of the living God.'

- <sup>11</sup> The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together.
They will appoint one leader for themselves,
and they will go up from the land,
for great will be the day of Jezreel.

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> Say to your brothers, 'My people!'
and to your sisters, 'You have been shown compassion.'"
- <sup>2</sup> Bring a lawsuit against your mother, bring a lawsuit, for she is not my wife,
and neither am I her husband.
Let her put away her prostitution from before herself,
and her acts of adultery from between her breasts.
- <sup>3</sup> If not, I will strip her naked and show her nakedness as on the day that she was born.
I will make her like the wilderness,
like a parched land,
and I will make her die from thirst.
- <sup>4</sup> I will not have any mercy on her children,
for they are children of prostitution.
- <sup>5</sup> For their mother has been a prostitute,
and she who conceived them has acted shamefully.
She said, "I will go after my lovers,
for they give me my bread and water,
my wool and flax,
my oil and drink."
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore I will build up a hedge to block her way with thorns.
I will build up a wall against her so she cannot find her way.
- <sup>7</sup> She will pursue her lovers,
but she will not overtake them.
She will seek them,
but she will not find them.
Then she will say,
"I will return to my first husband,
for it was better for me then than it is now."
- <sup>8</sup> For she had not known that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold,
which they then used for Baal.
- <sup>9</sup> So I will take back her grain at harvest time,
and my new wine in its season.
I will take back my wool and flax that were used to cover her nakedness.
- <sup>10</sup> Then I will strip her naked in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will rescue her out of my hand.
- <sup>11</sup> I will stop all her rejoicing—
her feasts, her new moon celebrations,
her Sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.
- <sup>12</sup> "I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,
of which she has said,
'These are the wages that my lovers gave me.'
I will make them a forest,
and the animals of the field will eat them.
- <sup>13</sup> I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals,
when she burned incense to them,
when she adorned herself with her rings and jewelry,

and she went after her lovers and forgot me—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

- <sup>14</sup> So I am going to allure her.
I will bring her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her.
- <sup>15</sup> I will give her back her vineyards,
and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope.
She will answer me there as she did in the days of her youth,
as in the days that she came out of the land of Egypt.
- <sup>16</sup> "It will be in that day—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
that you will call me, 'My husband,' and you will no longer call me, 'My Baal.'
- <sup>17</sup> For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth;
their names will not be remembered anymore.
- <sup>18</sup> On that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts in the fields, with the birds in the sky,
and with the crawling things on the ground.
I will drive away the bow, the sword,
and the battle from the land,
and I will make you lie down in safety.
- <sup>19</sup> I will promise to be your husband forever.
I will promise to be your husband in righteousness, justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy.
- <sup>20</sup> I will pledge myself to you in faithfulness,
and you will know Yahweh.
- <sup>21</sup> On that day,
I will answer—this is Yahweh's declaration—
I will answer the heavens,
and they will answer the earth.
- <sup>22</sup> The earth will answer the grain,
the new wine and the oil,
and they will answer Jezreel.
- <sup>23</sup> I will plant her for myself in the land,
and I will have mercy on Lo-Ruhamah.
I will say to Lo-Ammi, 'You are my people,'
and they will say to me, 'You are my God.'"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a woman, loved by her husband, but who is an adulteress. Love her just as I, Yahweh, love the people of Israel, although they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes."

<sup>2</sup>So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a lethek of barley.<sup>3</sup>I said to her, "You must live with me many days. You will not be a prostitute or belong to any other man. In the same way, I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>For the people of Israel will live for many days without a king, prince, sacrifice, stone pillar, ephod or household idols.<sup>5</sup>Afterward the people of Israel will return and seek Yahweh their God and David their king, and in the last days, they will come trembling before Yahweh and his goodness.

Chapter 4

- <sup>1</sup> Hear the word of Yahweh,
you people of Israel.
Yahweh has a lawsuit against the inhabitants of the land,
because there is no truthfulness or covenant faithfulness,
no knowledge of God in the land.
- <sup>2</sup> There is cursing, deception, killing,
stealing and adultery.
The people have broken all bounds,
and bloodshed comes after bloodshed.
- <sup>3</sup> So the land mourns,
and everyone living in it is wasting away;
the beasts in the fields and the birds in the sky,
even the fish in the sea, are being taken away.
- <sup>4</sup> But do not allow anyone to bring a lawsuit;
do not let anyone accuse anyone else.
For it is you, the priests, whom I am accusing.
- <sup>5</sup> You priests will stumble during the day;
the prophets will also stumble with you by night,
and I will destroy your mother.
- <sup>6</sup> My people are being destroyed
because of the lack of knowledge.
Because you priests have rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you as priests to me.
Because you have forgotten my law,
although I am your God,
I also will forget your children.
- <sup>7</sup> The more the priests multiplied,
the more they sinned against me.
They exchanged their honor for shame.
- <sup>8</sup> They feed on the sin of my people;
they are greedy for more of their iniquity.
- <sup>9</sup> It will be the same for the people as for the priests:
I will punish them all for their practices;
I will repay them for their deeds.
- <sup>10</sup> They will eat but not have enough;
they will commit prostitution but not increase,
because they stopped listening to Yahweh.
- <sup>11</sup> Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.
- <sup>12</sup> My people consult their wooden idols,
and their walking sticks give them prophecies.
A spirit of prostitution has led them astray,
and they have acted as prostitutes
instead of being faithful to their God.
- <sup>13</sup> They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills,
under oaks, poplars and terebinths,
because the shade is good.

So your daughters commit sexual immorality,
and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
<sup>14</sup> I will not punish your daughters
when they choose to commit sexual immorality, nor your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery.
For the men also go apart with prostitutes,
and they offer sacrifices
so they can commit immoral acts with sacred prostitutes.
So this people who does not understand will be thrown down.

<sup>15</sup> Though you, Israel, have committed adultery, may Judah not become guilty.
Do not go to Gilgal, you people;
do not go up to Beth Aven,
and do not swear, saying, "As Yahweh lives."

<sup>16</sup> For Israel has behaved stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.
How can Yahweh bring them to pasture
like lambs in a meadow?

<sup>17</sup> Ephraim united himself with idols;
leave him alone.

<sup>18</sup> Even when their strong drink is gone,
they continue to commit adultery;
her rulers dearly love their shame.

<sup>19</sup> The wind will wrap her up in its wings;
and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

---

Chapter 5

- <sup>1</sup> "Hear this, priests!
Pay attention, house of Israel!
Listen, house of the king!
For judgment is coming against you all.
You have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread over Tabor.
- <sup>2</sup> The rebels stand deep in slaughter, but I will punish all of them. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>3</sup> I know Ephraim,
and Israel is not hidden from me.
Ephraim, now you have become like a prostitute;
Israel is defiled.
- <sup>4</sup> Their deeds will not allow them to turn to God,
for the mind of prostitution is in them,
and they do not know Yahweh.
- <sup>5</sup> The pride of Israel testifies against him;
so Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their guilt;
and Judah also will stumble with them.
- <sup>6</sup> They will go with their flocks
and herds to seek Yahweh,
but they will not find him,
for he has withdrawn himself from them.
- <sup>7</sup> They were unfaithful to Yahweh,
for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the new moon festivals
will devour them with their fields.
- <sup>8</sup> Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah,
and the trumpet in Ramah.
Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven:
'We will follow you, Benjamin!'
- <sup>9</sup> Ephraim will become a desolation
on the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel
I have declared what is certain to happen.
- <sup>10</sup> The leaders of Judah are like those who move a boundary stone.
I will pour my wrath on them like water.
- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is oppressed;
he is crushed in judgment,
because he has willingly walked after idols.
- <sup>12</sup> So I will be like a moth to Ephraim,
and like rot to the house of Judah.
- <sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness,
and Judah saw his wound,
then Ephraim went to Assyria,
and Judah sent messengers to the great king.
But he was not able to cure you people or heal your wound.

- <sup>14</sup> So I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear them apart and go away;
I will carry them off,
and there will be no one to rescue them.
- <sup>15</sup> I will go and return to my place,
until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face,
until they earnestly seek me in their distress."

---

<sup>1</sup>Some modern translations have The rebels have dug a deep pit , The rebels have dug deep at Shittim , or, continuing on from the previous verse, a pit dug deep at Shittim .

---

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup> "Come, let us return to Yahweh.
For he has torn us apart, but he will heal us;
he has injured us, but he will bandage our wounds.
- <sup>2</sup> After two days he will revive us;
he will raise us up on the third day,
and we will live before him.
- <sup>3</sup> Let us know Yahweh;
let us press on to know Yahweh.
His coming out is as sure as the dawn;
he will come to us like the showers,
like the spring rains that water the land."
- <sup>4</sup> Ephraim, what will I do with you?
Judah, what will I do with you?
Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the dew that goes away early.
- <sup>5</sup> So I have cut them to pieces by the prophets;
I have killed them with the words of my mouth.
Your judgments are like the light that shines out.
- <sup>6</sup> For I delight in covenant faithfulness and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
- <sup>7</sup> Like Adam they have broken the covenant;
they were unfaithful to me.
- <sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city of those who do evil,
with footprints of blood.
- <sup>9</sup> As gangs of robbers wait for someone,
so the priests band together
to commit murder on the way to Shechem;
they have committed shameful crimes.
- <sup>10</sup> In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim's prostitution is there,
and Israel has become unclean.
- <sup>11</sup> For you also, Judah, a harvest has been appointed,
when I will reverse the captivity of my people.

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> Whenever I want to heal Israel,
the iniquity of Ephraim is exposed,
as well as the evil deeds of Samaria,
for they practice deceit;
a thief comes in,
and a marauding band attacks in the street.
- <sup>2</sup> They do not realize in their hearts
that I remember all their evil deeds.
Now their deeds surround them;
they are before my face.
- <sup>3</sup> With their evil they make the king glad,
and by their lies the officials.
- <sup>4</sup> They are all adulterers,
like an oven heated by the baker,
who ceases to stir the fire from the kneading of the dough
until it is leavened.
- <sup>5</sup> On the day of our king
the officials made themselves sick with the heat of wine.
He reached out with his hand
to those who were mocking.
- <sup>6</sup> For with hearts like an oven,
they devise their deceitful plans.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it burns high like a flaming fire.
- <sup>7</sup> They all are as hot as an oven,
and they devour those who rule over them.
All their kings have fallen;
none of them calls on me.
- <sup>8</sup> Ephraim mixes himself among the peoples.
Ephraim is a flat cake that has not been turned over.
- <sup>9</sup> Foreigners have devoured his strength,
but he does not know it.
Gray hairs are sprinkled on him,
but he does not know it.
- <sup>10</sup> The pride of Israel testifies against him;
however, they have not returned to Yahweh their God,
nor have they sought him, in spite of all this.
- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is like a dove,
gullible and without sense,
calling out to Egypt,
then flying to Assyria.
- <sup>12</sup> When they go,
I will spread my net over them;
I will bring them down
like the birds of the sky.
I will punish them
in their flocking together.
- <sup>13</sup> Woe to them!

For they have strayed from me.
Devastation is coming to them!

They have rebelled against me!

I would have rescued them,
but they spoke lies against me.

<sup>14</sup> They have not cried to me with all their heart, but they wail on their beds.

They gather together for grain and new wine,
and they turn away from me. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Though I trained them and strengthened their arms, they are now plotting evil against me.

but they do not return to me, the Most High.

They are like a slack bow.

Their officials will fall by the sword
because of the insolence of their tongues.

This will become their mockery
in the land of Egypt.

<sup>1</sup>Instead of They gather together , which the copies of the ancient Hebrew text have, some ancient translations of the copies of the Hebrew text, and many modern translations have They cut themselves , an allusion to the pagan custom of idol worshipers wounding themselves in the frenzy of prayer.

---

Chapter 8

- <sup>1</sup> "Place a ram's horn at your lips!
An eagle is coming over the house of Yahweh because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law.
- <sup>2</sup> They cry out to me,
'My God, we in Israel know you.'
- <sup>3</sup> But Israel has rejected what is good,
and the enemy will pursue him.
- <sup>4</sup> They have set up kings,
but not by me.
They have made princes,
but without my knowledge.
With their silver and gold
they have made idols for themselves, but it was only so they might be cut off."
- <sup>5</sup> "Your calf has been rejected, Samaria.
My anger is burning against these people.
For how long will they be incapable of innocence?
- <sup>6</sup> For this idol came from Israel;
a workman made it;
it is not God!
The calf of Samaria
will be broken to pieces.
- <sup>7</sup> For the people sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.
The standing grain has no heads;
it yields no flour.
If it does come to maturity,
foreigners will devour it.
- <sup>8</sup> Israel is swallowed up;
now they lie among the nations
like a useless pot.
- <sup>9</sup> For they went up to Assyria
like a wild donkey all alone.
Ephraim has hired lovers for herself.
- <sup>10</sup> Even though they have hired lovers among the nations,
I will now gather them together.
They will begin to waste away
because of the burden of the king of princes.
- <sup>11</sup> For Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin offerings, but they have become altars for committing sins.
- <sup>12</sup> I could write down my law for them ten thousand times,
but they would view it as something strange to them.
- <sup>13</sup> As for the sacrifices of my offerings,
they sacrifice meat and eat it,
but I, Yahweh, do not accept them.
Now I will think about their iniquity and punish their sins.
They will return to Egypt.

- <sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten me, his Maker,
and has built palaces.
Judah has fortified many cities,
but I will send fire on his cities;
it will destroy his fortresses.

Chapter 9

- <sup>1</sup> Do not rejoice, Israel,
with joy like the other peoples.
For you have been unfaithful,
abandoning your God.
You love to pay the wages a prostitute requires on all the floors for threshing grain.
- <sup>2</sup> But the threshing floor and the winepress
will not feed them;
the new wine will fail them.
- <sup>3</sup> They will not continue to live in Yahweh's land;
instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and one day they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
- <sup>4</sup> They will pour out no wine offerings to Yahweh,
neither will they be pleasing to him.
Their sacrifices will be to them like mourners' food:
all who eat it will be defiled.
For their food will be for themselves only;
it will not come into the house of Yahweh.
- <sup>5</sup> What will you do on the day of an appointed festival, on the day of a festival for Yahweh?
- <sup>6</sup> For, look, if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them,
and Memphis will bury them.
As for their precious things of silver—sharp briars will possess them,
and thorns will fill their tents.
- <sup>7</sup> The days for punishment are coming;
the days for retribution are coming.
Let all Israel know these things.
The prophet is a fool,
and the inspired man is insane,
because of your abundant iniquity and great hostility.
- <sup>8</sup> The prophet is the watchman
for my God over Ephraim.
But a bird snare is on all of his paths,
and hostility toward him is in the house of his God.
- <sup>9</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gibeah.
God will call to mind their iniquity,
and he will punish their sins.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh says, "When I found Israel,
it was like finding grapes in the wilderness.
Like the very first fruit of the season on the fig tree,
I found your fathers.
But they went to Baal Peor,
and they devoted themselves to that shameful idol.
They became as detestable
as the idol they loved.
- <sup>11</sup> As for Ephraim,

- their glory will fly away like a bird.
There will be no birth,
no pregnancy, and no conception.
<sup>12</sup> Though they have brought up children,
I will bereave all of them.
Woe to them
when I turn away from them!
<sup>13</sup> I have seen Ephraim, just like Tyre, planted in a meadow,
but Ephraim will bring out his children
to someone who will slaughter them."
- <sup>14</sup> Give them, Yahweh—
what will you give them?
Give them a miscarrying womb
and breasts that give no milk.
- <sup>15</sup> "Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal, that is where I began to hate them.
Because of their sinful deeds,
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more;
all their officials are rebels.
- <sup>16</sup> Ephraim is diseased,
and their root is dried up;
they bear no fruit.
Even if they have children,
I will put the precious ones of their womb to death."
- <sup>17</sup> My God will reject them because they have not obeyed him.
They will become wanderers
among the nations.

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit.
As his fruit increased,
the more altars he built.
As his land produced more,
he improved his pillars.
- <sup>2</sup> Their heart is deceitful;
now they must bear their guilt.
Yahweh will demolish their altars;
he will destroy their pillars.
- <sup>3</sup> For then they will say,
"We have no king,
for we did not fear Yahweh,
and a king—
what could he do for us?"
- <sup>4</sup> They speak empty words
and make covenants by swearing falsely.
So justice springs up
like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.
- <sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Samaria will be afraid
because of the calves of Beth Aven.
Its people mourned over them,
as did those idolatrous priests who had rejoiced over them and their splendor,
but they are no longer there.
- <sup>6</sup> They will be carried to Assyria
as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will be disgraced,
and Israel will be ashamed of its idol.
- <sup>7</sup> Samaria's king
will be destroyed,
like a chip of wood
on the surface of the water.
- <sup>8</sup> The high places of wickedness
will be destroyed.
This is the sin of Israel!
Thorns and thistles will grow over their altars.
The people will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"
- <sup>9</sup> "Israel, you have sinned since the days of Gibeah;
there you have remained.
Will not war overtake
the sons of wrong in Gibeah?
- <sup>10</sup> When I desire it,
I will discipline them.
The peoples will gather together against them
and put them in bonds for their double iniquity.
- <sup>11</sup> Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh the grain,
so I will put a yoke on her fair neck.
I will put a yoke on Ephraim;

- Judah will plow;
Jacob will pull the harrow by himself.
- <sup>12</sup> Sow righteousness for yourselves,
and reap the fruit of covenant faithfulness.
Break up your unplowed ground,
for it is time to seek Yahweh,
until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- <sup>13</sup> You have plowed wickedness;
you reaped injustice.
You have eaten the fruit of deception
because you trusted in your plans and in your many soldiers.
- <sup>14</sup> So a tumult of war
will rise among your people,
and all your fortified cities will be destroyed.
It will be as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel
on a day of battle,
when mothers were dashed to pieces
with their children.
- <sup>15</sup> So it will happen to you, Bethel,
because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel will be completely cut off."
-

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup> "When Israel was a young man I loved him,
and I called my son out of Egypt.
- <sup>2</sup> The more they were called,
the more they went away from me.
They sacrificed to the Baals and burned incense to idols. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>3</sup> Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk.
It was I who lifted them up by their arms,
but they did not know that I healed them.
- <sup>4</sup> I led them with cords of humanity,
with bands of love.
I was to them like someone who eased the yoke on their jaws,
and I bent down to them and fed them.
- <sup>5</sup> Will they not return to the land of Egypt?
Will Assyria not rule over them
because they refuse to return to me?
- <sup>6</sup> The sword will fall on their cities and destroy the bars of their gates;
it will destroy them
because of their own plans.
- <sup>7</sup> My people are determined to turn away from me.
Though they call to the Most High,
no one will help them.
- <sup>8</sup> How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboyim?
My heart has changed within me;
all my compassions have been stirred up.
- <sup>9</sup> I will not execute my fierce anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God
and not a man;
I am the Holy One among you,
and I will not come in wrath.
- <sup>10</sup> They will follow Yahweh;
and he will roar like a lion.
When he roars,
his children will come trembling from the west.
- <sup>11</sup> They will come trembling
like a bird from Egypt,
like a dove from the land of Assyria.
I will make them live in their homes—
this is the declaration of Yahweh.
- <sup>12</sup> Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood,
and the house of Israel with deceit.
But Judah is still going about with God and is faithful to the Holy One."

<sup>1</sup>Some ancient translations of the Hebrew text and most modern translations have they went away from me . The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have they went away from them .

Chapter 12

- <sup>1</sup> Ephraim feeds on the wind
and follows after the east wind.
He continually multiplies lies and violence.
They make a covenant with Assyria and carry olive oil to Egypt.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh also has a lawsuit against Judah
and will punish Jacob for what he has done;
he will repay him for his deeds.
- <sup>3</sup> In the womb Jacob grasped his brother by the heel,
and in his manhood he struggled with God.
- <sup>4</sup> He struggled with the angel and won.
He wept and begged for his favor.
He met God at Bethel;
there God spoke with him.
- <sup>5</sup> This is Yahweh, the God of hosts;
"Yahweh" is his name to be called on.
- <sup>6</sup> So turn to your God.
Keep covenant faithfulness and justice,
and wait continually for your God.
- <sup>7</sup> The merchants have deceitful scales in their hands;
they love to defraud.
- <sup>8</sup> Ephraim said,
"I have certainly become very rich;
I have found wealth for myself.
In all my labors
they will not find any iniquity in me, anything that would be sin."
- <sup>9</sup> "I am Yahweh your God
from the land of Egypt.
I will again make you live in tents,
as in the days of the appointed festival.
- <sup>10</sup> I spoke to the prophets,
and I gave them many visions for you.
By the hand of the prophets
I gave parables."
- <sup>11</sup> If there is wickedness in Gilead,
surely the people are worthless.
In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls;
their altars will be like heaps of stone
in the furrows of the fields.
- <sup>12</sup> Jacob fled to the land of Aram;
Israel labored in order to get a wife;
and he kept flocks of sheep to get a wife.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh brought Israel out of Egypt by a prophet,
and by a prophet he took care of them.
- <sup>14</sup> Ephraim has bitterly angered Yahweh.
So his Lord will leave his blood on him and will turn back on him his disgrace.

Chapter 13

- <sup>1</sup> "When Ephraim spoke,
there was trembling.
He exalted himself in Israel,
but he became guilty
because of Baal worship, and he died.
- <sup>2</sup> Now they sin more and more.
They make cast metal figures from their silver,
idols as skillfully worked as possible,
all of them the work of the craftsmen.
People say of them,
'These men who sacrifice kiss calves.'
- <sup>3</sup> So they will be like the morning clouds,
like the dew that goes away early,
like the chaff that is driven by the wind
away from a threshing floor,
and like smoke out of a chimney.
- <sup>4</sup> But I am Yahweh your God
from the land of Egypt.
You must acknowledge no God but me;
you must acknowledge that besides me,
there is no other Savior.
- <sup>5</sup> I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of great dryness.
- <sup>6</sup> When you had pasture,
then you became full;
and when you were filled,
your heart became lifted up.
For that reason you forgot me.
- <sup>7</sup> I will become like a lion to them;
like a leopard I will watch along the path.
- <sup>8</sup> I will attack them as a bear that is robbed of her cubs.
I will rip open their chests,
and there I will devour them as a lion,
as a wild beast would tear them to pieces.
- <sup>9</sup> I will destroy you, Israel;
who will be able to help you?
- <sup>10</sup> Where now is your king,
that he may save you in all your cities?
Where are your rulers,
about whom you said to me,
'Give me a king and princes'?
- <sup>11</sup> I gave you a king in my anger,
and I took him away in my wrath.
- <sup>12</sup> Ephraim's iniquity has been bound up;
his sin has been stored up.
- <sup>13</sup> Pains of childbirth will come on him,
but he is not a wise son,
for when it is time to be born,

he does not come out of the womb.

<sup>14</sup> Will I rescue them from the hand of Sheol?
Will I rescue them from death?
Where, death, are your plagues?
Where, Sheol, is your destruction?
Compassion is hidden from my eyes."

<sup>15</sup> Though Ephraim is prosperous among his brothers, an east wind will come;
the wind of Yahweh
will blow in from the wilderness.
Ephraim's spring will dry up,
and his well will have no water.
His enemy will plunder his storehouse of every precious object.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will be guilty,
for she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their young children will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

---

Chapter 14

- <sup>1</sup> Israel, return to Yahweh your God,
for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.
- <sup>2</sup> Take with you words and return to Yahweh.
Say to him, "Take away all our iniquity and accept what is good,
so that we may offer to you the fruit of our lips. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us;
we will not ride on horses to war.
Neither will we say anymore
to the work of our hands,
'You are our gods,'
for in you the orphan finds compassion."
- <sup>4</sup> "I will heal their apostasy;
I will love them freely,
for my anger has turned away from him.
- <sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily
and take root like a cedar in Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup> His branches will spread out;
his beauty will be like the olive trees,
and his fragrance like the cedars in Lebanon.
- <sup>7</sup> The people who live in his shade will return;
they will revive like grain
and blossom like vines.
His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon.
- <sup>8</sup> Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?
I will answer him and care for him.
I am like a cypress
whose leaves are always green;
from me comes your fruit."
- <sup>9</sup> Who is wise
that he may understand these things?
Who understands these things
so that he may know them?
For the ways of Yahweh are right,
and the righteous will walk in them,
but the rebellious will stumble in them.

<sup>1</sup>The phrase so that we may offer to you the fruit of our lips represents the interpretation of some ancient translations of the Hebrew text. The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have so that we may offer bulls, our lips . Some modern translations interpret this to mean, so that we may offer to you bulls, which we have promised to do .

Joel

Chapter 1

- <sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Joel son of Pethuel.

- <sup>2</sup> Hear this, you elders, and listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this happened in your days or in the days of your ancestors?
- <sup>3</sup> Tell your children about it,
and let your children tell their children,
and their children the next generation.
- <sup>4</sup> What the swarming locust has left,
the great locust has eaten;
what the great locust has left,
the grasshopper has eaten;
and what the grasshopper has left,
the caterpillar has eaten.
- <sup>5</sup> Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine,
because the sweet wine has been cut off from you.
- <sup>6</sup> For a nation has come up upon my land, mighty and without number.
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and he has the teeth of a lioness.
- <sup>7</sup> He has made my vineyard into a desolate place and has stripped my fig tree bare.
He has stripped its bark
and thrown it away;
the branches are bare white.
- <sup>8</sup> Mourn like a virgin girded in sackcloth
for the death of her young bridegroom.
- <sup>9</sup> The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the house of Yahweh.
The priests, Yahweh's servants, mourn.
- <sup>10</sup> The fields are ruined;
the ground is mourning
because the grain has been destroyed.
The new wine has dried up;
the oil fails.
- <sup>11</sup> Be ashamed, you farmers,
and wail, you vine growers,
for the wheat and the barley.
For the harvest of the fields has perished.
- <sup>12</sup> The vines have withered and the fig trees have dried up;
the pomegranate trees, also the palm trees, and the apple trees—
all the trees of the field have withered.
For joy has withered away
from the descendants of mankind.
- <sup>13</sup> Gird yourselves with sackcloth and mourn, you priests!
Wail, you servants of the altar.
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
you servants of my God.
For the grain offering and the drink offering have been withheld from the house of your God.

- <sup>14</sup> Call for a holy fast,
and call a holy assembly.
Gather the elders
and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yahweh your God,
and cry to Yahweh.
- <sup>15</sup> Alas for the day!
For the day of Yahweh is almost here.
With it will come destruction from the Almighty.
- <sup>16</sup> Has not food been cut off
from before our eyes,
and joy and gladness
from the house of our God?
- <sup>17</sup> The seeds rot under their clods,
the storehouses are desolate,
and the barns have been torn down,
for the grain has withered.
- <sup>18</sup> How the cattle groan!
Their herds are wandering in confusion
because they have no pasture.
Even the flocks of sheep are suffering.
- <sup>19</sup> Yahweh, I cry to you.
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and flames have burned all the trees of the fields.
- <sup>20</sup> Even the animals of the fields pant for you,
for the water brooks have dried up,
and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> Blow the ram's horn in Zion,
and sound an alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble in fear,
for the day of Yahweh is coming;
indeed, it is near.
- <sup>2</sup> It is a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
Like the dawn that spreads on the mountains,
a large and mighty army is approaching.
There has never been an army like it,
and there never will be again,
even after many generations.
- <sup>3</sup> A fire is consuming everything in front of it,
and behind it a flame is burning.
The land is like the garden of Eden in front of it,
but behind it there is a ruined wilderness.
Indeed, nothing will escape from it.
- <sup>4</sup> The army's appearance is like horses,
and they run like horsemen.
- <sup>5</sup> They jump with a noise like that of chariots on the tops of the mountains,
like the sound of fiery flames that devour the stubble,
like a mighty army ready for battle.
- <sup>6</sup> At their presence people are in anguish and all their faces become pale.
- <sup>7</sup> They run like mighty warriors;
they climb the walls like soldiers;
they march, every one in step,
and do not break their ranks.
- <sup>8</sup> Neither does one thrust another aside;
they march, each in his path;
they break through the defenses
and do not fall out of line.
- <sup>9</sup> They rush on the city,
they run on the wall,
they climb in the houses,
and they go through the windows like thieves.
- <sup>10</sup> The earth shakes in front of them,
the heavens tremble,
the sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars stop shining.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh raises his voice
in front of his army,
for his warriors are very numerous;
for they are strong,
those who carry out his commands.
For the day of Yahweh is great and very terrible.

Who can endure it?

<sup>12</sup> "Yet even now"—this is Yahweh's declaration—
 "Return to me with all your heart.
 Fast, weep, and mourn."

<sup>13</sup> Tear your heart and not only your garments,
 and return to Yahweh your God.
 For he is gracious and merciful,
 slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love
 and relenting from inflicting punishment.

<sup>14</sup> Who knows? Will he perhaps turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him,
 a grain offering and a drink offering for Yahweh your God?

 call for a holy fast,
 and call a holy assembly.

<sup>16</sup> Gather the people;
 call for the holy assembly.
 Assemble the elders;
 gather the children
 and the nursing infants.

Let the bridegrooms come out of their rooms,
 and the brides out of their bridal chambers.

<sup>17</sup> Let the priests, the servants of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar.
 Let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and do not make your inheritance into an object of scorn,
 that the nations mock them.
 Why should they say among the nations,
 'Where is their God?'"

<sup>18</sup> Then Yahweh was zealous for his land and had pity on his people.

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh answered his people,
 "Look, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil.
 You will be satisfied with them,
 and I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> I will remove the northern attackers far from you,
 and will drive them into a dry and desolate land.
 The front of their army will go into the eastern sea,
 and the rear into the western sea.
 Its stench will rise,
 and its bad smell will rise."

Indeed, he has done great things.

<sup>21</sup> Do not fear, land; be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh will do great things.

<sup>22</sup> Do not fear, you wild animals!
 For the pastures of the wilderness will sprout,
 the trees will bear their fruit,

- and the fig trees and the vines will yield their full harvest.
- <sup>23</sup> Be glad, people of Zion,
and rejoice in Yahweh your God.
For he will give you the autumn rain
as vindication
and bring down showers for you,
the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.
- <sup>24</sup> The threshing floors will be full of wheat,
and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
- <sup>25</sup> "I will restore to you the years of crops that the swarming locust has eaten—
the great locust, the devouring locust, and the destroying locust—my mighty army that I sent among you.
- <sup>26</sup> You will eat plentifully and be satisfied,
and praise the name of Yahweh your God,
who has done wonders among you,
and I will never again bring shame on my people.
- <sup>27</sup> You will know that I am among Israel,
and that I am Yahweh your God,
and there is none else,
and I will never bring shame on my people.
- <sup>28</sup> It will come about afterward
that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams;
your young men will see visions.
- <sup>29</sup> Also on servants and female servants,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit.
- <sup>30</sup> I will show wonders in the heavens
and on the earth,
blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.
- <sup>31</sup> The sun will turn into darkness
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.
- <sup>32</sup> It will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved.
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
there will be an escaped remnant,
as Yahweh has said,
and among the survivors,
those whom Yahweh calls.

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> Behold, in those days and at that time,
when I reverse the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
- <sup>2</sup> I will gather all the nations,
and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will judge them there,
because of my people and my inheritance Israel,
whom they scattered among the nations,
and because they divided up my land.
- <sup>3</sup> They cast lots for my people, traded a boy for a prostitute,
and sold a girl for wine so they could drink.
- <sup>4</sup> Now, why are you angry at me,
Tyre, Sidon and all the regions of Philistia?
Will you repay me?
Even if you do repay me,
I will immediately return your repayment on your own head.
- <sup>5</sup> For you took my silver and my gold,
and you brought my precious treasures into your temples.
- <sup>6</sup> You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks,
in order to send them far away from their territory.
- <sup>7</sup> Look, I am about to stir them up,
out of the place where you sold them,
and will return payment on your own head.
- <sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and your daughters,
by the hand of the people of Judah.
They will sell them to the Sabeans,
to a nation far off,
for Yahweh has spoken."
- <sup>9</sup> Proclaim this among the nations:
"Prepare yourselves for war;
rouse the mighty men;
let them come near;
let all the men of battle come up.
- <sup>10</sup> Beat your plowshares into swords
and your pruning knives into spears.
Let the weak say,
'I am mighty.'
- <sup>11</sup> Hurry and come,
all you nearby nations;
gather yourselves together there.
- Yahweh, bring down your mighty warriors.
- <sup>12</sup> Let the nations wake themselves up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
For there will I sit to judge
all the surrounding nations.
- <sup>13</sup> Put in the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.

Come, crush the grapes,
for the winepress is full.
The vats overflow,
for their wickedness is great."

- <sup>14</sup> There is a tumult, a tumult
in the Valley of Judgment.
For the day of Yahweh is near
in the Valley of Judgment.
- <sup>15</sup> The sun and the moon become dark,
the stars keep back their brightness.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh will roar from Zion,
and raise his voice from Jerusalem.
The heavens and earth will shake,
but Yahweh will be a shelter for his people,
and a fortress for the people of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup> "So you will know that I am Yahweh your God who lives in Zion, my holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem will be holy,
and foreigners will not pass through her again.
- <sup>18</sup> It will come about on that day
that the mountains will drip with sweet wine,
the hills will flow with milk,
all the brooks of Judah will flow with water,
and a fountain will come from the house of Yahweh
and water the Valley of Shittim.
- <sup>19</sup> Egypt will become an abandoned devastation, and Edom will become an abandoned wilderness,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah,
because they shed innocent blood in their land.
- <sup>20</sup> But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem will be inhabited from generation to generation.
- <sup>21</sup> I will avenge their blood that I have not yet avenged, for Yahweh lives in Zion."

Amos

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>These are the words of Amos, who was among the shepherds from Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and also in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup>He said,
"Yahweh will roar from Zion;
he will raise his voice from Jerusalem.
The pastures of the shepherds will mourn;
the top of Carmel will wither."

<sup>3</sup>This is what Yahweh says:
"For three sins of Damascus,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,

because they threshed Gilead
with sharp threshing sledges of iron.
<sup>4</sup> I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.
<sup>5</sup> I will break the gate bars of Damascus and cut off the man who rules over the Valley of Aven, and also the man who holds the scepter in Beth Eden.
The people of Aram will go in captivity to Kir,"
says Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>This is what Yahweh says:
"For three sins of Gaza,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because they carried away captive a whole people,
to hand them over to Edom.
<sup>7</sup> I will send fire on the walls of Gaza,
and it will devour her fortresses.
<sup>8</sup> I will cut off the man who lives in Ashdod and the man who holds the scepter from Ashkelon.
I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the rest of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>This is what Yahweh says:
"For three sins of Tyre,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because they had delivered up a whole people to Edom,
and they broke their covenant of brotherhood.
<sup>10</sup> I will send fire on the walls of Tyre,
and it will devour her fortresses."

<sup>11</sup>This is what Yahweh says,
"For three sins of Edom,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword
and cast off all pity.
His anger tore them apart continually,
and his wrath lasted forever.
<sup>12</sup> I will send fire on Teman,
and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

<sup>13</sup>This is what Yahweh says,
"For three sins of the people of Ammon,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,
that they may enlarge their borders.
<sup>14</sup> I will light a fire in the walls of Rabbah,
and it will devour the palaces,
with a shout in the day of battle,
with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.
<sup>15</sup> Their king will go into captivity, he and his officials together,"
says Yahweh.

---

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Moab,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because he burned the bones
of the king of Edom to lime.

<sup>2</sup> I will send fire on Moab,
and it will devour the fortresses of Kerioth.
Moab will die in an uproar,
with shouting and the sound of the ram's horn.

<sup>3</sup> I will destroy the judge in her,
and I will kill all the princes with him,"
says Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Judah,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because they rejected the law of Yahweh
and did not keep his statutes.
Their lies caused them to go astray,
after which their fathers had also walked.

<sup>5</sup> I will send fire on Judah,
and it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem."

<sup>6</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Israel,
even for four, I will not turn away punishment,
because they sold the innocent for silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> They trample on the heads of the poor as people trample on dust on the ground;
they push the oppressed away.

A man and his father go to the same girl
and so profane my holy name.

<sup>8</sup> They lie down beside every altar on clothes taken as pledges, and in the house of their God
they drink the wine of those who have been forced to pay a fine.

<sup>9</sup> Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of cedars;
he was strong as the oaks.

Yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.

<sup>10</sup> Also, I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorites.

<sup>11</sup> I raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from your young men.

Is it not so, people of Israel?—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> But you persuaded the Nazirites to drink wine

- and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.
- <sup>13</sup> Look, I will crush you as a cart that is full of grain can crush someone.
- <sup>14</sup> Escape will perish from the swift;
the strong will not add to his own strength;
neither will the mighty save himself.
- <sup>15</sup> The archer will not stand;
the fast runner will not escape;
the horseman will not save himself.
- <sup>16</sup> Even the bravest warriors will flee naked in that day—
this is Yahweh's declaration."
-

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

<sup>2</sup> "I have chosen only you from all the families of the earth.
Therefore I will punish you
for all your iniquities."
<sup>3</sup> Will two walk together
unless they have made an appointment?
<sup>4</sup> Will a lion roar in the forest
when he has no prey?
Will a young lion growl from his den
if he has caught nothing?
<sup>5</sup> Can a bird fall in a trap on the ground
when no bait is set for him?
Will a trap spring up from the ground
when it has not caught anything?
<sup>6</sup> If a ram's horn sounds in a city,
will the people not tremble?
If disaster overtakes a city,
has Yahweh not sent it?
<sup>7</sup> Surely the Lord Yahweh will do nothing unless he reveals his plan
to his servants the prophets.
<sup>8</sup> The lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord Yahweh has spoken;
who will not prophesy?
<sup>9</sup> Proclaim this in the fortresses at Ashdod,
and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt;
say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria and see what great tumults are in her,
and what oppression is in her."
<sup>10</sup> For they do not know how to do right—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
They store up violence and devastation in their fortresses."

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
"An enemy will surround the land,
and pull down your strongholds
and plunder your fortresses."

<sup>12</sup>This is what Yahweh says:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion
two legs only, or a piece of an ear;
so will the people of Israel who live in Samaria be rescued;
they will be left with only the corner of a couch or a piece of a bed."

<sup>13</sup>Hear and testify against the house of Jacob— this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, the God of hosts:

<sup>14</sup> "For in the day that I punish the sins of Israel,
I will also punish the altars of Bethel.

The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup> I will destroy the winter house with the summer house.

The houses of ivory will perish,
and the large houses will vanish—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 4

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan,
 you who are in the mountain of Samaria,
 you who oppress the poor, you who crush the needy,
 you who say to your husbands, "Bring us drinks."
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord Yahweh has sworn by his holiness,
 "Look, the days will come on you when they will take you away with hooks,
 the last of you with fishhooks.
- <sup>3</sup> You will go out through the breaks in the city wall,
 each one of you going straight through it,
 and you will be thrown out toward Harmon—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>4</sup> "Go to Bethel and sin,
 to Gilgal and multiply transgression,
 bring your sacrifices every morning,
 your tithes every three days.
- <sup>5</sup> Offer a thanksgiving sacrifice with bread;
 proclaim freewill offerings; announce them,
 for this is what you love to do,
 you people of Israel—
 this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.
- <sup>6</sup> I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places.
 Yet you have not returned to me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>7</sup> I also withheld rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest.
 I caused it to rain on one city,
 and caused it not to rain on another city.
 One piece of land was rained on,
 but the piece of land where it did not rain dried up.
- <sup>8</sup> Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water,
 but were not satisfied.
 Yet you have not returned to me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>9</sup> I afflicted you with blight and mildew.
 The multitude of your gardens,
 your vineyards, your fig trees, and your olive trees—
 the locusts devoured them all.
 Yet you have not returned to me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>10</sup> I sent a plague on you
 as on Egypt.
 I killed your young men with the sword,
 along with the captivity of your horses,
 and made the stench of your camp come up to your nostrils.
 Yet you have not returned to me—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>11</sup> I overthrew cities among you,
 as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
 You were like a burning stick snatched out of the fire.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will do something terrible to you, Israel;
and because I will do something terrible to you,
prepare to meet your God, Israel!

<sup>13</sup> For, look, he who forms the mountains
also creates the wind,
reveals his thoughts to mankind,
makes the dawn become darkness,
and treads on the high places of the earth.
Yahweh, God of hosts, is his name."

---

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, house of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The virgin Israel has fallen;
she will rise no more;
she is abandoned on her land;
there is no one to raise her up.

<sup>3</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
"The city that went out with a thousand will have a hundred remaining,
and the one that went out with a hundred will have ten remaining for the house of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>For this is what Yahweh says to the house of Israel:
"Seek me and live!

<sup>5</sup> Do not seek Bethel;
nor enter Gilgal;
do not journey to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into captivity,
and Bethel will become nothing.

<sup>6</sup> Seek Yahweh and live, or he will break out like fire
in the house of Joseph.

It will devour,
and there will be no one to quench it in Bethel.

<sup>7</sup> Those people turn justice into a bitter thing and throw righteousness down to the ground!"

<sup>8</sup> God made the Pleiades and Orion;
he turns deep darkness into the morning;
he makes the day dark with night
and calls for the waters of the sea;
he pours them out on the surface of the earth.
Yahweh is his name!

<sup>9</sup> He brings sudden destruction on the strong
so that destruction comes on the fortresses.

<sup>10</sup> They hate anyone who reproves them in the city gate, and they abhor anyone who speaks with integrity.

<sup>11</sup> Because you trample down the poor and seize a tribute of wheat from him—although you have built houses of worked stone,
you will not live in them.

You have planted delightful vineyards,
but you will not drink their wine.

<sup>12</sup> For I know how many are your offenses and how mighty are your sins.
you who afflict the just, take bribes,
and turn aside the needy in the city gate.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore any prudent person is silent at such a time, for it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup> Seek good and not evil,
so that you may live.

So Yahweh, the God of hosts, will really be with you,

- as you say he is.
- <sup>15</sup> Hate evil, love good,
establish justice in the city gate.
Perhaps Yahweh, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what Yahweh says, the God of hosts, the Lord,
"Wailing will be in all the squares,
and they will say in all the streets,
'Woe! Woe!'
They will call the farmers to mourning and those who know lamentation to wailing.
- <sup>17</sup> In all vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst,"
says Yahweh.
- <sup>18</sup> Woe to you who desire
the day of Yahweh!
Why do you long for the day of Yahweh?
It will be darkness and not light,
- <sup>19</sup> as when a man flees from a lion
and a bear meets him, or he goes in a house and puts his hand on the wall
and a snake bites him.
- <sup>20</sup> Will not the day of Yahweh be darkness and not light?
Gloom and no brightness?
- <sup>21</sup> "I hate, I despise your festivals,
I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.
- <sup>22</sup> Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
neither will I look at the fellowship offerings
of your fattened animals.
- <sup>23</sup> Remove from me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the sound of your lutes.
- <sup>24</sup> Instead, let justice flow like water,
and righteousness like a constantly flowing stream.
- <sup>25</sup> Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings
in the wilderness for forty years, house of Israel?
- <sup>26</sup> You have lifted up the images of Sikkuth, your king,
and Kaiwan, your star god,
which you made for yourselves.
- <sup>27</sup> Therefore I will exile you beyond Damascus," says Yahweh, whose name is the God of hosts.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure in the hill country of Samaria,
 the notable men of the most important of the nations,
 to whom the house of Israel comes for help!

<sup>2</sup> Your leaders say, "Go to Kalneh and look;
 from there go to Hamath, the great city;
 then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
 Are they better than your two kingdoms?
 Is their border larger than your border?"

<sup>3</sup> Woe to those who put off the day of disaster and make the throne of violence come near.

<sup>4</sup> They lie down on beds of ivory and lounge on their couches.
 They eat lambs from the flock and calves from the stall.

<sup>5</sup> They sing foolish songs to the music of the lute;
 they improvise on instruments as David did.

<sup>6</sup> They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
 but they do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

<sup>7</sup> So they will now go into exile with the first exiles,
 and the feasts of those who lounge about will pass away.

<sup>8</sup> "I, the Lord Yahweh, have sworn by myself—
 this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts,
 I detest the pride of Jacob;
 I hate his fortresses.
 Therefore I will deliver up the city
 with all that is in it."

<sup>9</sup>It will come about that if ten men remain in one house, they will all die.<sup>10</sup>When his relative or the one who burns him takes up the bones from the house—when he says to the person in the inner room of the house, "Is there anyone with you?" that person will say, "No one." Then he will say, "Be quiet, for we must not mention Yahweh's name."

<sup>11</sup> For, look, Yahweh will give a command, and the big house will be smashed to pieces,
 and the little house to bits.

<sup>12</sup> Do horses run on the rocky cliffs?
 Does one plow there with oxen?
 Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness—

<sup>13</sup> you who rejoice over Lo Debar, who say, "Have we not taken Karnaim by our own strength?"

<sup>14</sup> "But look, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts.
 They will afflict you from Lebo Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Look, he formed a locust swarm when the spring crop began to come up, and, look, it was the late crop after the king's harvest.<sup>2</sup>When they finished eating the vegetation of the land, then I said, "Lord Yahweh, please forgive; how will Jacob stand? For he is so small."<sup>3</sup>Yahweh relented concerning this. "It will not happen," he said.

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: Look, the Lord Yahweh called on fire to judge. It dried the vast, deep water under the earth and would have devoured the land also.<sup>5</sup>But I said, "Lord Yahweh, please stop; how will Jacob stand? For he is so small."<sup>6</sup>Yahweh relented concerning this, "This also will not happen," said the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>This is what he showed me: Look, the Lord stood beside a wall, with a plumb line in his hand.<sup>8</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Look, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. I will spare them no longer.

<sup>9</sup> The high places of Isaac will be destroyed,
the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel: "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words."<sup>11</sup>For this is what Amos said, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile away from his land.'"

<sup>12</sup>Amaziah said to Amos, "Seer, go, flee back to the land of Judah, and there eat bread and prophesy."<sup>13</sup>But do not prophesy anymore here at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal house."

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos said to Amaziah, "I am not a prophet nor a prophet's son. I am a herdsman, and I take care of sycamore fig trees.<sup>15</sup>But Yahweh took me from tending the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'

<sup>16</sup>Now hear the word of Yahweh. You say,
'Do not prophesy against Israel,
and do not speak against the house of Isaac.'

<sup>17</sup>Therefore this is what Yahweh says,
'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city;
your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword;
your land will be measured and divided up;
you will die in an unclean land,
and Israel will surely go into exile from his land.'"

---

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Look, a basket of summer fruit!<sup>2</sup>He said, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Yahweh said to me,

"The end has come for my people Israel;

I will spare them no longer.

<sup>3</sup> The songs of the temple will become wailings in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
many dead bodies, they are thrown everywhere!
Silence!"

<sup>4</sup> Listen to this, you who trample the needy and remove the poor of the land.

<sup>5</sup>They say,

"When will the new moon be over,
so we can sell grain again?

When will the Sabbath day be over,
so that we can sell wheat?

We will make the measure small and increase the price,
as we cheat with deceitful scales.

<sup>6</sup> This is so we can sell bad wheat, buy the poor with silver,
and the needy for a pair of sandals."

<sup>8</sup> Will not the land quake for this,
and everyone who lives in it mourn?
All of it will rise up like the Nile River,
and it will be tossed about and sink again,
like the river of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> "It will come in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
that I will make the sun set at noon,
and I will darken the earth at daylight.

<sup>10</sup> I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into lamentation.
I put sackcloth on all loins
and have baldness on every head.
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
and a bitter day to its end.

<sup>11</sup> Look, the days are coming—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
when I will send a famine in the land,
not a famine for bread, nor of thirst for water,
but for hearing the words of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup> They will stagger from sea to sea;
they will run from the north to the east to seek the word of Yahweh,
but they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Those who swear by the sin of Samaria 1 and say, 'As your god lives, Dan,'

and, 'As the way to Beersheba exists,'<sup>2</sup> they will fall and never rise again."

---

<sup>2</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have, As the way to Beersheba exists , where this might refer to what people going to worship Beersheba's idols might have said. However, some scholars understand the Hebrew text to read As the loved one of Beersheba lives . Here loved one stands for an idol worshiped in Beersheba.

---

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said,

"Strike the tops of the pillars
so that the thresholds will shake.
Break them in pieces on all of their heads, and I will kill the last of them with the sword.
Not one of them will get away;
not one of them will escape.

<sup>2</sup> Though they dig into Sheol,
there my hand will take them.

Though they climb up to heaven,
there I will bring them down.

<sup>3</sup> Though they hide on the top of Carmel,
there I will search and take them.

Though they are hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea,
there will I command the serpent, and it will bite them.

<sup>4</sup> Though they go into captivity, driven by their enemies before them, there will I give orders to the sword, and it will kill them.

I will keep my eyes on them
for harm and not for good."

<sup>5</sup> The Lord Yahweh of hosts touches the land and it melts;
all who live in it mourn;
all of it will rise up like the River,
and sink again like the river of Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> It is he who builds his steps in the heavens,
and has established his vault over the earth.

He calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
Yahweh is his name.

<sup>7</sup> "Are you not like the people of Cush to me, people of Israel—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
did I not bring up Israel out of the land of Egypt,
the Philistines from Crete,
and the Arameans from Kir?

<sup>8</sup> Look, the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it
from the face of the earth, except that I will not totally destroy
the house of Jacob—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>9</sup> Look, I will give a command, and I will shake the house of Israel
among all the nations,
as one shakes grain in a sieve,
so that not the smallest stone will fall to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> All the sinners of my people will die by the sword,
those who say,
'Disaster will not overtake or meet us.'

- <sup>11</sup> In that day
I will raise up the tent of David that has fallen,
and close up its breaches.
I will raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old,
- <sup>12</sup> That they may possess the remnant of Edom,
and all the nations that are called by my name—
this is Yahweh's declaration—he does this.
- <sup>13</sup> Look, the days will come—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
when the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes will overtake him who plants seed.
The mountains will drip sweet wine,
and all the hills will flow with it.
- <sup>14</sup> I will bring back from captivity my people Israel.
They will build the ruined cities and inhabit them,
they will plant vineyards and drink their wine,
and they will make gardens and eat their fruit.
- <sup>15</sup> I will plant them upon their land,
and they will never again be uprooted from the land that I have given them," says Yahweh your God.

Obadiah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The vision of Obadiah. The Lord Yahweh says this concerning Edom: We have heard a report from Yahweh and an ambassador has been sent among the nations, saying, "Rise up! Let us rise up against her for battle!"

<sup>2</sup>Behold, I will make you small among the nations; you will be greatly despised.

<sup>3</sup>The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty home; who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?"<sup>4</sup>Though you soar high like the eagle and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>5</sup>If thieves came to you, if robbers came by night—how you will be ruined!—would they not steal only as much as they needed? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave the gleanings?<sup>6</sup>How Esau will be ransacked, his hidden treasures looted!

<sup>7</sup>All the men of your alliance will send you on your way to the border. The men who were at peace with you will deceive you and prevail against you. They who eat your bread will set a trap under you. There is no understanding in him.

<sup>8</sup>"Will I not on that day"—this is Yahweh's declaration—"destroy the wise men from Edom and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?<sup>9</sup>Your mighty men will be dismayed, Teman, so that every man may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.

<sup>10</sup>Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame, and you will be cut off forever.<sup>11</sup>On the day you stood aloof, on the day strangers carried away his wealth, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.

<sup>15</sup>For the day of Yahweh is near upon all the nations. As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return on your own head.<sup>16</sup>For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. They will drink and swallow and it will be as though they had never existed.

<sup>17</sup>But in Mount Zion there will be those who escape, and it will be holy, and the house of Jacob will take possession of their possessions.<sup>18</sup>The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will burn them, and consume them. There will be no survivors to the house of Esau, for Yahweh has spoken it."

<sup>19</sup>People from the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau and the people of the lowlands will possess the land of the Philistines. They will possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin will possess Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>The exiles of this army of the people of Israel will possess the land of Canaan as far as Zarephath. The exiles of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.<sup>21</sup>Deliverers will go up to Mount Zion to rule over the hill country of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

Jonah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of Yahweh came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying,<sup>2</sup>"Get up and go to Nineveh, that great city, and speak out against it, because their wickedness has risen up before me."<sup>3</sup>But Jonah got up to run away from the presence of Yahweh and go to Tarshish. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and boarded the ship to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea and it became a mighty storm on the sea. Soon it appeared that the ship was going to be broken up.<sup>5</sup>Then the sailors became very afraid and each man cried out to his own god. They threw the ship's cargo into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was lying there deeply asleep.

<sup>6</sup>So the captain came to him and said to him, "What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Call upon your god! Maybe your god will notice us and we will not perish."

<sup>7</sup>Each man said to his neighbor, "Come, let us cast lots, so that we may know who is the cause of this evil that is happening to us." So they threw lots, and the lot fell to Jonah.

<sup>8</sup>Then they said to Jonah, "Please tell us who is the cause of this evil that is happening to us. What is your occupation, and where did you come from? What is your country, and from which people are you?"<sup>9</sup>Jonah said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."<sup>10</sup>Then the men were even more afraid and said to Jonah, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was running away from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup>Then they said to Jonah, "What should we do to you so that the sea will calm down for us?" For the sea became more and more stormy.<sup>12</sup>Jonah said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you, for I know that it is because of me that this great storm is happening to you."

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get themselves back to the land, but they could not do it because the sea was becoming more and more violent against them.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore they cried out to Yahweh and said, "We beg you, Yahweh, we beg you, do not let us perish on account of this man's life, and do not put innocent blood on us, because you, Yahweh, have done just as it pleased you."<sup>15</sup>So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped raging.<sup>16</sup>Then the men feared Yahweh very much. They offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and made vows.

<sup>17</sup>Now Yahweh had appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

<sup>1</sup>Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh his God from the fish's stomach.<sup>2</sup>He said,

"I called out to Yahweh about my distress
and he answered me;
from the belly of Sheol I cried out for help!
You heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup> You had thrown me into the depths,
into the heart of the seas,
and the currents surrounded me;
all your waves and billows passed over me.

<sup>4</sup> I said, 'I am driven out from before your eyes;
yet I will again look toward your holy temple.'

<sup>5</sup> The waters closed around me up to my neck;
the deep was all around me;
seaweed wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> I went down to the bases of the mountains;
the earth with its bars closed upon me forever.
Yet you brought up my life from the pit,
Yahweh, my God!

<sup>7</sup> When my soul fainted within me,
I called Yahweh to mind;
then my prayer came to you
to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> They give attention to meaningless gods
while they abandon covenant faithfulness.

<sup>9</sup> But as for me, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving;
I will fulfill that which I have vowed.
Salvation comes from Yahweh!"

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah upon the dry land.

---

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jonah a second time, saying,<sup>2</sup>"Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I command you to give."<sup>3</sup>So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh. Now Nineveh was a very large city, one of three days' journey.

<sup>4</sup>Jonah began to enter the city and after a day's journey he called out and said, "In forty days Nineveh will be overthrown."<sup>5</sup>The people of Nineveh believed God and they proclaimed a fast. They all put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them down to the least of them.

<sup>8</sup>But let both man and animal be covered with sackcloth and let them cry out loudly to God. Let each one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.<sup>9</sup>Who knows? God may relent and change his mind and turn away from his fierce anger so that we do not perish.'"

<sup>10</sup>God saw their deeds, that they turned from their evil ways. So then God changed his mind about the punishment that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>But this displeased Jonah and he became very angry.<sup>2</sup>So Jonah prayed to Yahweh and said, "Ah, Yahweh, is this not just what I said when I was back in my own country? That is why I acted first and tried to flee to Tarshish—because I knew that you are a gracious God, compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and you hold back from sending disaster.<sup>3</sup>Therefore now, Yahweh, I beg you, take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh said, "Is it good that you are so angry?"<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made a shelter and sat under it in the shade so that he could see what might become of the city.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh God appointed a plant and made it grow up over Jonah so that it might be a shade over his head to relieve him of his distress. Jonah was very glad because of the plant.<sup>7</sup>But God appointed a worm at sunrise the next morning. It attacked the plant and the plant withered.

<sup>8</sup>It came about that when the sun rose the next morning, God appointed a hot east wind. Also, the sun beat down on Jonah's head and he became faint. Then Jonah wished that he might die. He said to himself, "It is better for me to die than to live."<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Jonah, "Is it good that you are so angry about the plant?" Then Jonah said, "It is good that I am angry, even to death."

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh said, "You have had compassion for the plant, for which you have not labored, nor did you make it grow. It grew up in a night and died in a night."<sup>11</sup>So as for me, should I not have compassion for Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than 120,000 people who do not know the difference between their right hand and their left hand, and also many animals?"

Micah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

- <sup>2</sup> Listen, all you peoples.
     Listen, earth, and all that is in you.
 Let the Lord Yahweh be a witness against you,
     the Lord from his holy temple.
- <sup>3</sup> Look, Yahweh comes out of his place;
     he will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.
- <sup>4</sup> The mountains will melt under him;
     the valleys will break apart,
 like wax before fire,
     like waters that are poured down a steep place.
- <sup>5</sup> All this is because of Jacob's transgression,
     and because of the sins of the house of Israel.
 What is Jacob's transgression?
     Is it not Samaria?
 What is Judah's high place?
     Is it not Jerusalem?
- <sup>6</sup> "I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field,
     a place for planting vineyards,
 and I will pour her stones down into the valley and I will uncover her foundations.
- <sup>7</sup> All her carved figures will be broken to pieces, and all her gifts that she received will be burned with fire,

and I will make all her idols desolate.
Since she gathered her gifts from the wages of prostitutes,
they will become the wages of prostitutes again."

- <sup>8</sup> For this reason I will lament and wail;
I will go barefoot and naked;
I will wail like the jackals and mourn like owls.
- <sup>9</sup> For her wound is incurable,
for it has come to Judah.
It has reached the gate of my people,
to Jerusalem.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not tell about it in Gath;
do not weep at all.
At Beth Leaphrah
I roll myself in the dust.
- <sup>11</sup> Pass by, inhabitants of Shaphir,
in nakedness and shame.
The inhabitants of Zaanan
do not come out.
Beth Ezel mourns,
for their protection is taken away.
- <sup>12</sup> For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good news, because disaster has come down from Yahweh
to the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> Harness the chariot to the team of horses, inhabitants of Lachish.
You, Lachish, were the beginning of sin for the daughter of Zion,
for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
- <sup>14</sup> So you will give parting gifts
to Moresheth Gath;
the houses of Akzib will disappoint
the kings of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup> I will again bring a conqueror to you,
inhabitants of Mareshah;
the splendor of Israel
will come to Adullam.
- <sup>16</sup> Shave your head and cut off your hair
for the children in whom you delight.
Make yourself as bald as eagles,
for your children will go into exile from you.

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to those who plan iniquity,
to those who plan on their beds to do evil.
In the morning light they do it because they have power.
- <sup>2</sup> They desire fields and seize them;
they desire houses and take them.
They oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.
- <sup>3</sup> Therefore Yahweh says this,
"Look, I am planning to bring disaster against this clan,
from which you will not remove your necks.
You will not walk arrogantly,
for it will be an evil time.
- <sup>4</sup> In that day men will sing a taunting song about you,
and lament with a wailing lamentation.
They will sing, 'We Israelites are completely ruined;
Yahweh changes the portion of my people.
How can he remove it from me?
He portions out our fields to traitors!'"
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore, you rich people will have no descendants to divide up the territory by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.
- <sup>6</sup> "Do not prophesy," their prophets say.
"They must not prophesy these things;
disgrace will not overtake us."
- <sup>7</sup> Should it really be said, house of Jacob,
"Is the Spirit of Yahweh impatient?
Are these really his deeds?"
- Do not my words do good to anyone who walks uprightly?
- <sup>8</sup> Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.
You strip the robe, the garment,
from those who pass by unsuspectingly,
as soldiers return from war to what they think is safety.
- <sup>9</sup> You drive the women belonging to my people from their pleasant houses;
you take my splendor
from their young children forever.
- <sup>10</sup> Get up and leave,
for this is not a place where you can rest,
because of its uncleanness;
it is destroyed with complete destruction.
- <sup>11</sup> If someone comes to you in a spirit of falsehood and lies and says,
"I will prophesy to you about wine and strong drink," he would be considered to be a prophet for this people.
- <sup>12</sup> I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob.
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a fold,

like a flock in the midst of their pasture.

There will be a loud noise

because of the multitude of people.

<sup>13</sup> Someone who breaks open their way for them will go ahead of them.

They break through the gate and go out;
their king will pass on before them.

Yahweh will be at their head.

---

<sup>1</sup>I said,

"Now listen, you leaders of Jacob
and rulers of the house of Israel:

Is it not right for you to understand justice?

<sup>2</sup> You who hate good and love evil,
you who tear off their skin,
their flesh from their bones—

<sup>3</sup> you who also eat the flesh of my people,
and tear off their skin,
break their bones,
and chop them in pieces,
just like meat for a pot,
just like meat in a cauldron.

<sup>4</sup> Then you rulers will cry out to Yahweh,
but he will not answer you.
He will hide his face from you at that time,
because you have done evil deeds."

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh says this,

"As for the prophets
who lead my people astray,
if one gives them something to eat,
they proclaim, 'Peace.'
But if he puts nothing in their mouths,
they dedicate themselves to wage war on him.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, it will be night for you with no vision for you;
it will be dark so that you will do no divination.
The sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be dark on them.

<sup>7</sup> The seers will be put to shame,
and the diviners will be embarrassed.
All of them will cover their lips,
for there is no answer from God."

<sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and am full of justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
and to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup> Now listen to this,
you leaders of the house of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of Israel,
you who detest justice,
and pervert everything that is right.

<sup>10</sup> You build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with iniquity.

<sup>11</sup> Your leaders judge for a bribe,
your priests teach for a price,
and your prophets do divination for money.
Yet you rely on Yahweh and say,
"Is not Yahweh with us?"

No evil will come on us."
<sup>12</sup> Therefore, because of you,
Zion will become a plowed field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the hill of the temple
will become high places of a thicket.

---

Chapter 4

- <sup>1</sup> But in the last days it will come about
     that the mountain of the house of Yahweh
     will be established as the chief over the other mountains.
 It will be exalted above the hills,
     and peoples will stream to it.
- <sup>2</sup> Many nations will go and say,
 "Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh,
     to the house of the God of Jacob.
 He will teach us his ways,
     and we will walk in his paths."
 For from Zion the law will go out,
     and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> He will judge among many peoples and will decide concerning numerous nations far away.
 They will beat their swords into plowshares
     and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
     nor will they train for war any longer.
- <sup>4</sup> Instead, they will sit every person under his vine and under his fig tree.
 No one will make them afraid,
     for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken.
- <sup>5</sup> For all the peoples walk,
     each one, in the name of their god.
 But we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God
     forever and ever.
- <sup>6</sup> "On that day"—this is Yahweh's declaration—
     "I will assemble the lame and gather the outcast,
     those whom I have afflicted.
- <sup>7</sup> I will turn the lame into a remnant,
     and the ones driven away into a strong nation,
 and I, Yahweh, will reign over them on Mount Zion,
     now and forever.
- <sup>8</sup> As for you, watchtower for the flock,
     hill of the daughter of Zion—
 to you it will come, your former dominion will be restored, the kingdom that belongs to the daughter of Jerusalem.
- <sup>9</sup> Now, why do you shout so loudly?
     Is there no king among you?
 Has your counselor died?
     Is this why pain like a woman in labor seizes you?
- <sup>10</sup> Be in pain and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion,
     like a woman in labor.
 For now you will go out of the city,
     live in the field,
 and go to Babylon.
     There you will be rescued.
 There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

- <sup>11</sup> Now many nations are assembled against you;
they say, 'Let her be defiled;
let our eyes gloat over Zion.'
- <sup>12</sup> They do not know Yahweh's thoughts, neither do they understand his plans,
for he has gathered them like bundles of grain prepared for the threshing floor.
- <sup>13</sup> Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion,
for I will make your horn to be iron,
and I will make your hooves to be bronze.
You will crush many peoples and you will devote their unjust gain to Yahweh, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup> Now come together in battle ranks, daughter of soldiers!
 A siege has been set up against us!
 With a rod they strike the judge of Israel
 on the cheek. <sup>1</sup>

 even though you are small among the clans of Judah,
 out of you one will come to me
 to rule in Israel,
 whose beginning is from ancient times,
 from everlasting.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore God will give them up, until the time when she who is in labor bears a child,
 and the rest of his brothers return to the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> He will stand and shepherd his flock
 in the strength of Yahweh,
 in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his God.
 They will remain,
 for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> He will give us peace.

When the Assyrians come into our land,
 and when they march against our fortresses,
 then we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight leaders over men.

<sup>6</sup> They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its entrances. <sup>2</sup>
 He will rescue us from the Assyrians,
 when they come into our land,
 when they march inside our borders.

<sup>7</sup> The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples,
 like dew from Yahweh,
 like showers on the grass,
 that do not wait for a man,
 and they do not wait for the children of mankind.

<sup>8</sup> The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
 among many peoples,
 like a lion among the animals of the forest,
 like a young lion among the flocks of sheep.
 When he goes through them,
 he will trample over them and tear them to pieces,
 and there will be no one to save them.

<sup>9</sup> Your hand will be lifted against your enemies,
 and it will destroy them.

<sup>10</sup> "It will happen in that day"—this is Yahweh's declaration—
 "that I will destroy your horses from among you and will demolish your chariots.

<sup>11</sup> I will destroy the cities in your land and throw down all your strongholds.

- <sup>12</sup> I will destroy the witchcraft in your hand,
and you will no longer have any diviners.
- <sup>13</sup> I will destroy your carved figures and your stone pillars from among you.
You will no longer worship
the workmanship of your hands.
- <sup>14</sup> I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you,
and I will destroy your cities.
- <sup>15</sup> I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened."

---

<sup>1</sup>Instead of come together in battle ranks , some modern translations read cut yourselves , referring to the pagan practice of cutting oneself while praying to idols. There are some modern translations that follow an ancient translation of the Hebrew text that reads build up your fortifications .

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now listen to what Yahweh says,

"Arise and state your case before the mountains;
let the hills hear your voice.

<sup>2</sup> Hear, you mountains, Yahweh's accusation,
you enduring foundations of the earth.
For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people,
and he will fight in court against Israel.

<sup>3</sup> My people, what have I done to you?
How have I wearied you? Answer me!
<sup>4</sup> For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and rescued you out of the house of bondage.
I sent Moses, Aaron,
and Miriam to you.

<sup>5</sup> My people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and how Balaam son of Beor answered him
as you went from Shittim to Gilgal,
so you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh."

<sup>6</sup> What should I bring to Yahweh, as I bow down to God on high?
Should I come to him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?

<sup>7</sup> Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams,
or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Should I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

<sup>8</sup> He has told you, man, what is good,
and what Yahweh requires from you:
Act justly, love kindness,
and walk humbly with your God.

<sup>9</sup> The voice of Yahweh is making a proclamation to the city—
even now wisdom fears your name:

"Listen to the rod, and to the one who has put it in place. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup> There is wealth in the houses of the wicked that is dishonest, and false measures that are abominable.

<sup>11</sup> Should I consider a person to be innocent
if he uses fraudulent scales,
with a bag of deceptive weights?

<sup>12</sup> The rich men are full of violence,
the inhabitants have spoken lies,
and their tongue in their mouth is deceitful.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make you sick, striking you down, making you desolate because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup> You will eat but not be satisfied;
your emptiness will remain inside you.

You will store goods away but not save,
and what you do save I will give to the sword. <sup>2</sup>

<sup>15</sup> You will sow but not reap;
you will tread the olives but not anoint yourselves with oil;

you will press grapes but drink no wine.
<sup>16</sup> You have observed the statutes of Omri, and all the works of the house of Ahab.
You have walked in their counsels,
Therefore I will give you over to ruin and your inhabitants to derision, and you will bear the scorn of my people." <sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text which were translated here read, Listen to the rod and to the one who has put it in place , but some modern translations have Listen, tribe, and those assembled together in the city .

<sup>2</sup>Parts of this verse are difficult to understand, because in the copies of the ancient Hebrew text there are two Hebrew words in it whose meanings are not known. As a result, various other readings have been proposed by scholars and some modern translations follow those suggestions.

<sup>3</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have you will bear the reproach of my people , but the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew copies reads: you will bear the scorn of the nations and some modern translations are following that reading.

Chapter 7

- <sup>1</sup> Woe is me!
 I have become like the gathering of summer fruit,
 and like the grapes that have been gleaned;
 there is no grape cluster to eat,
 no ripe early fig that my soul desires.
- <sup>2</sup> The faithful ones have vanished from the land;
 there is no upright person in all mankind.
 They all lie in wait to shed blood;
 each one hunts his own brother with a net.
- <sup>3</sup> Their hands are very good at doing harm:
 the ruler asks for money,
 the judge is ready for bribes,
 and the powerful man is telling others of the desire of his soul.
 Thus they plot together.
- <sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a brier,
 the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.
 It is the day foretold by your watchmen,
 the day of your punishment.
 Now is the time of their confusion.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not trust any neighbor;
 do not put confidence in any friend.
 From even the woman who lies in your embrace guard the entrance to your mouth.
- <sup>6</sup> For a son dishonors his father,
 a daughter rises up against her mother,
 and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
 A man's enemies are the people of his own house.
- <sup>7</sup> But as for me, I will look to Yahweh.
 I will wait for the God of my salvation;
 my God will hear me.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not rejoice over me, my enemy.
 After I fall, I will rise.
 When I sit in darkness,
 Yahweh will be a light for me.
- <sup>9</sup> Because I sinned against Yahweh,
 I will bear his rage
 until he pleads my case
 and executes judgment for me.
 He will bring me to the light,
 and I will see his righteousness.
- <sup>10</sup> Then my enemy will see it,
 and shame will cover the one who said to me,
 "Where is Yahweh your God?"
 My eyes will look at her;
 she will be trampled down like the mud in the streets.
- <sup>11</sup> A day to build your walls will come;
 on that day the boundaries will be extended very far.
- <sup>12</sup> On that day your people will come to you,
 from Assyria and the cities in Egypt,

- from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.
- <sup>13</sup> But the land will be desolate
because of the people who are living there, because of the fruit of their actions.
- <sup>14</sup> Shepherd your people with your rod,
the flock of your inheritance.
They dwell alone in a thicket,
in the midst of a pastureland.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in the old days.
- <sup>15</sup> As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them wonders.
- <sup>16</sup> The nations will see and be ashamed of all their power.
They will put their hands on their mouths;
their ears will be deaf.
- <sup>17</sup> They will lick the dust like a snake,
like creatures that crawl on the earth.
They will come out of their fortresses with fear;
they will come with fear to you, Yahweh our God,
and they will be afraid because of you.
- <sup>18</sup> Who is a God like you—who takes away iniquity, who passes over the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not keep his anger forever
because he delights in his covenant faithfulness.
- <sup>19</sup> You will again have compassion on us;
you will trample our iniquities under your feet.
You will throw all our sins into the depths of the sea.
- <sup>20</sup> You will give truth to Jacob and covenant faithfulness to Abraham,
as you swore to our ancestors in ancient days.

Nahum

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The declaration about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum, the Elkoshite.

- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is a jealous God and avenges;
Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath;
Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries,
and he continues his anger for his enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh is slow to anger and great in power;
he will not acquit the wicked.
Yahweh makes his way in the whirlwind and the storm,
and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
- <sup>4</sup> He rebukes the sea and makes it dry;
he dries up all the rivers.
Bashan is weak, and Carmel also;

- the flowers of Lebanon have become weak.
5 The mountains shake in his presence,
and the hills melt;
the earth collapses in his presence, indeed,
the world and all people who live in it.
6 Who can stand before his rage?
Who can resist the fierceness of his anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and the rocks are broken apart by him.
- 7 Yahweh is good,
a stronghold in the day of trouble;
and he acknowledges those who take refuge in him.
8 But he will make a full end to his enemies with an overwhelming flood;
he will pursue them into darkness.
- 9 What are you people plotting against Yahweh?
He will make a full end to it;
trouble will not rise up a second time.
10 Like tangled thorns
and like the drink of drunkards,
they will be consumed like dry stubble.
11 From you, Nineveh, has come out someone who plotted evil against Yahweh,
a wicked counselor.
- 12 This is what Yahweh says,
"Even if they are at their full strength and full numbers,
they will nevertheless be sheared; their people will pass away.
But you, Judah: Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more.
13 Now will I break that people's yoke from off you;
I will break your chains."
- 14 Yahweh has given a command about you, Nineveh:
"There will be no more descendants bearing your name.
I will cut off the carved images and the cast metal figures from the houses of your gods.
I will prepare your grave,
for you are contemptible."
- 15 Look, on the mountains
there are the feet of someone who is bringing good news,
who is announcing peace!
Celebrate your festivals, Judah,
and fulfill your vows,
for the wicked one will invade you no more;
he is completely cut off.

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> The one who scatters is coming up against you.
Guard the city wall, watch the road,
strengthen your loins, pull together all your strength.
- <sup>2</sup> For Yahweh is restoring the majesty of Jacob like the majesty of Israel,
although the plunderers devastated them
and destroyed their vine branches.
- <sup>3</sup> The shields of his mighty men are red,
and the soldiers are clothed in scarlet;
the chariots flash with their metal on the day that they are made ready,
and the cypress spears are waved in the air.
- <sup>4</sup> The chariots speed through the streets;
they rush back and forth in the wide streets.
They look like torches,
and they run like lightning.
- <sup>5</sup> He remembers his nobles;
they stumble over each other in their march;
they hurry to attack the city wall.
The large shield is made ready to protect these attackers.
- <sup>6</sup> The gates at the rivers are forced open,
and the palace collapses.
- <sup>7</sup> Huzzab is stripped and is taken away;
her female servants moan like doves,
beating on their breasts.
- <sup>8</sup> Nineveh is like a leaking pool of water,
with its people fleeing away like rushing water.
Others shout, "Stop, stop,"
but no one turns back.
- <sup>9</sup> Take the silver plunder, take the gold plunder,
for there is no end to the treasure,
to the splendor of all Nineveh's desirable things.
- <sup>10</sup> Nineveh is empty; empty and devastated.
Everyone's heart melts, everyone's knees strike together,
and anguish is in all loins; their faces are all pale.
- <sup>11</sup> Where now is the lions' den,
the place where the young lion cubs were fed,
the place where the lion and lioness walked,
with the cubs, where they were afraid of nothing?
- <sup>12</sup> The lion tore his victims to pieces for his cubs;
he strangled victims for his lionesses,
and filled his cave with victims,
his dens with torn carcasses.
- <sup>13</sup> "See, I am against you—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.
I will burn your chariots in the smoke,
and the sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut off your prey from your land, and the voices of your messengers will be heard no more."

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the city full of blood!
It is all full of lies and stolen property;
victims are always in her.
- <sup>2</sup> But now there is the noise of whips
and the sound of rattling wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots.
- <sup>3</sup> Horsemen charging,
flashing swords and glittering spears!
Piles of the dead, bodies that could not be counted—
their attackers stumble over the bodies.
- <sup>4</sup> This is happening because of the lustful actions of the beautiful prostitute, the expert in witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution,
and peoples through her acts of witchcraft.
- <sup>5</sup> "See, I am against you—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—
I will raise up your skirt over your face and show your private parts to the nations, your shame to the kingdoms.
- <sup>6</sup> I will throw disgusting filth on you
and make you vile;
I will set you up as a spectacle.
- <sup>7</sup> It will come about that everyone who looks at you will flee from you and say,
'Nineveh is destroyed; who will weep for her?'
Where can I go to find anyone to comfort you?"
- <sup>8</sup> Nineveh, are you better than Thebes, which was located on the Nile River,
which had water around her,
whose rampart was the sea,
and the sea was its wall?
- <sup>9</sup> Cush and Egypt were her strength,
and there was no end to it;
Put and Libya were allies to her.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet Thebes was carried away;
she went into captivity;
her young children were dashed in pieces
at the head of every street;
her enemies threw lots for her honorable men,
and all her great men were bound in chains.
- <sup>11</sup> You also will become drunk; you will try to hide,
and you also will look for a refuge from your enemy.
- <sup>12</sup> All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the earliest ripe figs:
if they are shaken,
they fall into the mouth of the eater.
- <sup>13</sup> See, the people among you are women;
the gates of your land have been opened wide to your enemies;

fire has devoured their bars.

- <sup>14</sup> Go draw water for the siege;
strengthen your fortresses;
go into the clay and tread the mortar;
pick up the molds for the bricks.
- <sup>15</sup> Fire will devour you there, and the sword will destroy you.
It will devour you as young locusts devour everything.

Make yourselves as many as the young locusts,
as many as the full-grown locusts.

- <sup>16</sup> You have multiplied your merchants
more than the stars in the heavens;
but they are like young locusts:
they plunder the land and then fly away.
- <sup>17</sup> Your princes are like locust swarms,
and your commanders are like locusts
that camp in the walls on a cold day.
But when the sun rises they flee,
and the place they go to is not known.

- <sup>18</sup> King of Assyria, your shepherds are asleep;
your nobles are lying down resting.
Your people are scattered on the mountains,
and there is no one to gather them.
- <sup>19</sup> No healing is possible for your wounds.
Your wounds are severe.
Everyone who hears the news about you will clap their hands in joy over you.
On whom has your wickedness
not trodden continually?

Habakkuk

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The prophecy that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

- <sup>2</sup> "Yahweh, how long will I cry for help,
and you will not hear?
I cry out to you, 'Violence!'
but you will not save.
- <sup>3</sup> Why do you make me see iniquity and cause me to look upon wrongdoing?
Destruction and violence are before me;
there is strife, and contention rises up.
- <sup>4</sup> Therefore the law is weakened,
and justice does not last for any time.
For the wicked surround the righteous;
therefore twisted justice goes out."
- <sup>5</sup> "Look at the nations and observe them;
be amazed and astonished!
For I am surely about to do something in your days

- that you will not believe when it is reported to you.
<sup>6</sup> For look! I am about to raise up the Chaldeans—that fierce and impetuous nation—they are marching throughout the breadth of the land to seize homes that were not their own.
<sup>7</sup> They are terrifying and fearsome;
 their judgment and splendor proceed from themselves.
<sup>8</sup> Their horses also are swifter than leopards, quicker than the evening wolves.
 So their horses stamp,
 and their horsemen come from a great distance—
 they fly like an eagle hurrying to eat.
<sup>9</sup> They all come for violence;
 their multitudes go like the desert wind and they gather captives like sand. <sup>1</sup> <sup>10</sup> So they mock kings, and rulers are only a mockery for them.
 They laugh at every stronghold,
 for they heap up earth and seize it.
<sup>11</sup> Then the wind will rush on;
 it will move past—
 guilty men, those whose might is their god." <sup>12</sup> "Are you not from ancient times, Yahweh my God, my Holy One?
 We will not die.
 Yahweh has ordained them for judgment,
 and you, Rock, have established them for correction.
<sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too pure to gaze upon evil,
 and you are not able to look on wrongdoing with favor.
 Why then have you looked favorably on those who betray?
 Why are you silent while the wicked devour
 those more righteous than they are?
<sup>14</sup> You make men like fish in the sea,
 like creeping things without a ruler over them.
<sup>15</sup> He brings all of them up with a fishhook;
 he drags men away in his fishnet;
 he gathers them together in his dragnet;
 so he rejoices and he is glad.
<sup>16</sup> Therefore he sacrifices to his net
 and burns incense to his dragnet, for by his net he lives in luxury,
 and his food is the richest kind.
<sup>17</sup> Will he therefore keep emptying his net,
 and will he continually slaughter the nations without mercy?"

---

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup> I will stand at my guard post
 and station myself on the watchtower, and I will watch carefully to see what he will say to me and how I should turn from my complaint. <sup>1</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh answered me and said,
 "Record this vision,
 and write plainly on the tablets
 so that the one reading them might run.

<sup>3</sup> For the vision is yet for the appointed time
 and will testify and not fail.
 Though it delays, wait for it.
 For it will surely come and will not tarry.

<sup>4</sup> Look! The one whose desires are not right within him is puffed up.
 But the righteous will live by his faith.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, as wine is treacherous,
 even so an arrogant man does not stay at home.
 He has made his throat as wide as Sheol;
 and like death, he is never satisfied.
 He has gathered together all the nations,
 and he has assembled to himself all the people.

<sup>6</sup>Will all these not take up a proverb and mockery, riddles about him, saying,
 'Woe to the one increasing what is not his!

For how long will you increase the weight of the pledges you have taken?'

<sup>7</sup> Will the ones biting at you not rise up suddenly,
 and the ones terrifying you awaken?
 You will become a victim for them.

<sup>8</sup> Because you have plundered many peoples,
 all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you.
 For you have shed human blood and acted with violence against the land,
 the cities, and all who live in them.

<sup>9</sup> 'Woe to the one who gets evil gains for his house, so he can set his nest on high
 to deliver himself from the hand of evil.'

<sup>10</sup> You have devised shame for your house
 by cutting off many people,
 and have sinned against your life.

<sup>11</sup> For the stones will cry out from the wall,
 and the rafters of timber will answer them,

<sup>12</sup> 'Woe to the one who builds a city with blood, and who establishes a town in iniquity.'

<sup>13</sup> Is it not from Yahweh of hosts that peoples labor for fire,

- and nations weary themselves in vain?
- <sup>14</sup> Yet the land will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh
as the waters cover the sea.
- <sup>15</sup> 'Woe to the one who forces his neighbors to drink—you express your anger <sup>2</sup> and you make them drunk in order to look at their nakedness.'
- <sup>16</sup> You will be filled with shame instead of glory.
Now it is your turn!
Drink, and you will expose your uncircumcised foreskin!
The cup in Yahweh's right hand is coming around to you,
and disgrace will cover your glory.
- <sup>17</sup> The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you and the devastation of animals will terrify you.
For you have shed the blood of man and you have acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.
- <sup>18</sup> What profit is there in a carved image?
For a carver has carved it!
Or a cast metal figure, a teacher of lies?
For the maker trusts in what he has made when he makes these worthless idols.
- <sup>19</sup> Woe to the one saying to the wood, 'Wake up!
or to the silent stone, 'Arise!'
Do these things teach?
See, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
but there is no breath at all within it.
- <sup>20</sup> But Yahweh is in his holy temple!
Be silent before him, all the land."

---

<sup>1</sup>Instead of how I should turn from my complaint , which is the reading of the copies of the Hebrew text, some modern translations have how I should answer when he replies to my complaint or how I should answer when he rebukes me .

<sup>2</sup>There is some question about whether the Hebrew should be translated as you express your anger or as you pour from your wineskin .

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>The prayer of Habakkuk the prophet: 1

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh, I have heard your report, and I am afraid.
Yahweh, revive your work in the midst of these times;
in the midst of these years make it known;
remember to have compassion in your wrath.

<sup>3</sup> God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah

His glory covered the heavens,
and the earth was full of his praise.
<sup>4</sup> With brightness like the light,
two-pronged rays flash from his hand;
and there he hid his power.
<sup>5</sup> Deadly disease went before him,
and the plague came out at his feet.
<sup>6</sup> He stood and measured the earth;
he looked and shook the nations.
Even the eternal mountains were shattered,
and the everlasting hills bowed down.
His path is everlasting.
<sup>7</sup> I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the fabric of the tents in the land of Midian trembling.

<sup>8</sup> Was Yahweh angry at the rivers?
Was your wrath against the rivers,
or your fury against the sea,
when you rode upon your horses
and your victorious chariots?
<sup>9</sup> You have brought out your bow without a cover;
you put arrows to your bow!

Selah

You divided the earth with rivers.
<sup>10</sup> The mountains saw you and twisted in pain.
Downpours of water passed over them;
the deep sea raised a shout.
It lifted up its hands.

<sup>11</sup> The sun and moon stood still in their high places at the flash of your arrows as they fly,
at the lightning of your flashing spear.
<sup>12</sup> You have marched over the earth with indignation.
In wrath you have threshed the nations.
<sup>13</sup> You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed one.
You shatter the head of the house of the wicked
to lay bare from the base up to the neck.

Selah

<sup>14</sup> You have pierced the head of his warriors with his own spears since they came

- like a storm to scatter us;
 their gloating was like one
 who devours the poor in a hiding place.
<sup>15</sup> You have trampled on the sea with your horses,
 and heaped up the great waters.
- <sup>16</sup> I heard, and my inner parts trembled!
 My lips quivered at the sound.
 Decay comes into my bones,
 and under myself I tremble
 as I wait quietly for the day of distress to come upon the people who invade us.
- <sup>17</sup> Though the fig tree does not bud and there is no produce from the vines;
 and though the produce of the olive tree disappoints
 and the fields produce no food;
 and though the flock is cut off from the fold
 and there are no cattle in the stalls,
 this is what I will do.
- <sup>18</sup> Still, I will rejoice in Yahweh.
 I will be joyful because of the God of my salvation.
- <sup>19</sup> The Lord Yahweh is my strength and he makes my feet like the deer's.
 He makes me go forward on my high places.
 —To the music director, on my stringed instruments.

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text add the expression on shigionoth , which may refer to musical directions for singers.

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

- <sup>2</sup> "I will utterly destroy everything from off the surface of the earth—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>3</sup> I will destroy men and animals;
 I will destroy the birds of the heavens
 and the fish of the sea,
 the ruins along with the wicked.
- For I will cut off man from the surface of the earth—
 this is Yahweh's declaration.
- <sup>4</sup> I will reach out with my hand over Judah
 and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
 I will cut off every remnant of Baal from this place and the names of the idolatrous people among the priests,
- <sup>5</sup> the people who on the housetops worship the heavenly bodies,

- and the people who worship and swear to Yahweh
but who also swear by their king. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>6</sup> I will also cut off those who have turned away from following Yahweh, those who neither seek Yahweh nor ask for his guidance."
- <sup>7</sup> Be silent before the Lord Yahweh!
For the day of Yahweh is near;
Yahweh has prepared the sacrifice
and set apart his guests.
- <sup>8</sup> "It will come about on the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes
and the king's sons,
and everyone dressed
in foreign clothes.
- <sup>9</sup> On that day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, those who fill their master's house
with violence and deceit.
- <sup>10</sup> So it will be on that day—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
that a cry of distress will come from the Fish Gate, wailing from the Second District,
and a great crashing sound from the hills.
- <sup>11</sup> Wail, inhabitants of the Market District, for all the people of Canaan will be ruined;
all those who weigh out silver will be cut off.
- <sup>12</sup> It will come about at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men who have settled into their wine and say in their heart,
'Yahweh will not do anything,
either good or evil.'
- <sup>13</sup> Their wealth will become plunder,
and their houses will be an abandoned devastation!
They will build houses but not live in them,
and plant vineyards but not drink their wine.
- <sup>14</sup> The great day of Yahweh is near,
near and hurrying quickly!
The sound of the day of Yahweh will be that of a warrior crying bitterly!
- <sup>15</sup> That day will be a day of fury,
a day of distress and anguish,
a day of storm and devastation,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds
and thick darkness.
- <sup>16</sup> It will be a day of rams' horns and alarms against the fortified cities and the high battlements.
- <sup>17</sup> For I will bring distress upon mankind,
so that they will walk about like blind men
since they have sinned against Yahweh.

Their blood will be poured out like dust,
and their inner parts like dung.

<sup>18</sup> Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them on the day of Yahweh's fury.

In the fire of his jealousy
the whole earth will be consumed, for he will bring a complete,
a terrible end of all the inhabitants of the earth."

---

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have by their king , but some modern translations read by Milcom , the name of a pagan god that many people worshiped.

---

Chapter 2

- <sup>1</sup> Rally yourselves together and gather,
unashamed nation—
- <sup>2</sup> before the decree takes effect
and that day passes like the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh's wrath
comes upon you,
before the day of Yahweh's wrath
comes upon you.
- <sup>3</sup> Seek Yahweh, all you humble people on earth who obey his ordinances!
Seek righteousness. Seek humility, and perhaps you will be protected
in the day of Yahweh's wrath.
- <sup>4</sup> For Gaza will be abandoned,
and Ashkelon will turn into a devastation.
They will drive out Ashdod at noon,
and they will uproot Ekron!
- <sup>5</sup> Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
the nation of the Kerethites!
Yahweh has spoken against you,
Canaan, land of the Philistines.
I will destroy you
until no inhabitant remains.
- <sup>6</sup> So the seacoast will become pastures for shepherds
and for sheep pens.
- <sup>7</sup> The coastal region will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah,
who will shepherd their flocks there.
Their people will lie down in the evening
in the houses of Ashkelon, for Yahweh their God will care for them
and reverse their captivity.
- <sup>8</sup> "I have heard the taunts of Moab and the insults of the people of Ammon
when they taunted my people and violated their borders.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore, as I live—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts,
God of Israel—
Moab will become like Sodom,
and the people of Ammon like Gomorrah;
a place of nettles and a salt pit,
deserted forever.
But the remnant of my people will plunder them,
and the remainder of my nation will take possession of them."
- <sup>10</sup> This will happen to Moab and Ammon because of their pride, since they taunted and became arrogant against the people of Yahweh of hosts.

- <sup>11</sup> Then Yahweh will be terrifying to them,
for he will destroy all the gods of the earth.
Everyone will bow down to him,
each from his own place,
from the coastlands of all nations.
- <sup>12</sup> You Cushites also will be pierced by my sword, <sup>13</sup> and God's hand will attack the north and destroy Assyria,
so that Nineveh will become an abandoned devastation,
as dry as the desert.
- <sup>14</sup> Then herds will lie down there,
every animal of the nations;
both the desert owl and the screech owl
will rest in the top of her columns.
A call will sing out from the windows;
rubble will be in the doorways;
her carved cedar beams will be exposed.
- <sup>15</sup> This is the joyful city that lived without fear,
that said in her heart,
"I am, and nothing is my equal."
How she has become a horror,
a place for beasts to lie down in.
Everyone that passes by her will hiss and shake his fist at her.

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the rebellious city!
The violent city is defiled.
- <sup>2</sup> She has not listened to the voice of God,
nor accepted correction from Yahweh.
She does not trust in Yahweh and will not approach her God.
- <sup>3</sup> Her princes are roaring lions
in her midst.
Her judges are evening wolves who leave nothing to be gnawed upon in the morning.
- <sup>4</sup> Her prophets are insolent and treasonous men.
Her priests have profaned what is holy and have done violence to the law.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is righteous in her midst.
He can do no wrong.
Morning by morning he will dispense his justice!
It will not be hidden in the light,
yet the unjust knows no shame.
- <sup>6</sup> "I have destroyed nations;
their fortresses are ruined.
I have made their streets ruins,
so that no one passes over them.
Their cities are destroyed
so that there is no man inhabiting them.
- <sup>7</sup> I said, 'Surely you will fear me.
Accept correction
and do not be cut off from your homes
by all that I have planned to do to you.'
But they were eager to begin each morning
by corrupting all their deeds.
- <sup>8</sup> Therefore wait for me—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
until the day that I rise up to seize the prey.
For my decision is to assemble the nations,
to gather the kingdoms,
to pour out on them my anger—
all of my burning wrath;
for in the fire of my jealousy
all the earth will be consumed. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>9</sup> But then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that all of them may call upon the name of Yahweh
to serve him shoulder to shoulder.
- <sup>10</sup> From beyond the river of Cush
my worshipers—my scattered people—will bring offerings due me.
- <sup>11</sup> In that day you will not be put to shame
for all your deeds by which you rebelled against me, since at that time I will remove from among you
those who boasted in your pride,

- and because you will no longer act arrogantly
on my holy mountain.
- <sup>12</sup> But I will leave among you
a lowly and poor people,
and they will find refuge
in the name of Yahweh.
- <sup>13</sup> The remnant of Israel will no longer commit injustice or speak lies,
and no deceitful tongue
will be found in their mouth;
so they will graze and lie down,
and no one will make them afraid."
- <sup>14</sup> Sing, daughter of Zion!
Shout, Israel.
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
daughter of Jerusalem.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh has taken away your punishment;
he has turned away your enemies!
Yahweh is the king of Israel among you.
You will never again fear evil!
- <sup>16</sup> In that day
they will say to Jerusalem,
"Do not fear, Zion.
Do not let your hands become weak.
- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh your God is among you,
a mighty one to save you.
He will celebrate over you with joy;
he will be silent over you in his love;
he will be glad over you with a shout for joy.
- <sup>18</sup> I will gather those who grieve,
those who cannot attend the appointed feasts,
so you will no longer
bear any shame for it. <sup>2</sup>
- <sup>19</sup> Behold, I am about to deal
with all your oppressors.
At that time, I will rescue the lame
and gather up the outcast.
I will make them as praise,
and I will change their shame into renown
in all the earth.
- <sup>20</sup> At that time I will lead you;
at that time I will gather you together.
I will give you renown and praise
among all the peoples of the earth when I reverse your captivity before your eyes,"
says Yahweh.

---

<sup>1</sup>The copies of the ancient Hebrew text have, until the day that I rise up to seize the prey . However, some of the copies of the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew copies, and modern translations that follow those suggestions, read, until the day that I rise up as a witness .

<sup>2</sup>This verse is very difficult to understand, and modern translations translate it in many different ways.

Haggai

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jozadak, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: These people say, 'It is not time for us to come or to build the house of Yahweh.'"

<sup>3</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your finished houses, while this house lies ruined?" <sup>5</sup>So now Yahweh of hosts says this: Consider your ways!

<sup>6</sup> You have sown much seed, but bring in little;
you eat but do not have enough;
you drink but cannot get drunk.
You wear clothes but cannot warm yourselves,
and the wage earner earns money
only to put it into a bag full of holes!

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: "Consider your ways!" <sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountain, bring timber, and build my house; then I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified!—says Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>"You looked for much, but behold! you have brought little home, for I blew it away! Why?" declares Yahweh of hosts. "Because my house lies in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.

<sup>10</sup>Because of this the heavens withhold the dew from you, and the earth withholds its produce. <sup>11</sup>I have summoned a drought upon the land and upon the mountains, upon the grain and upon the new wine, upon the oil and upon what the earth sends forth, upon men and upon animals, and upon all the labor of your hands!"

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the high priest Joshua son of Jozadak, along with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, because Yahweh their God had sent him and the people feared the face of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, spoke Yahweh's message to the people and said, "I am with you!—this is Yahweh's declaration!"

<sup>14</sup>So Yahweh stirred up the spirit of the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, so that they went and worked on the house of Yahweh of hosts, their God <sup>15</sup>in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>In the seventh month on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jozadak, and to the remnant of the people. Say,

<sup>3</sup>"Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not like nothing in your eyes?" <sup>4</sup>Now, be strong, Zerubbabel!—this is Yahweh's declaration—and be strong, high priest Joshua son of Jozadak; and be strong, all you people in the land!—this is Yahweh's declaration—and work, for I am with you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts. <sup>5</sup>This is the covenant that I established with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit stands among you. Do not fear!

<sup>6</sup>For Yahweh of hosts says this: In a little while I will once again shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land! <sup>7</sup>I will shake every nation, and every nation will bring their precious things to me, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>8</sup>The silver and gold are mine!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts. <sup>9</sup>The glory of this house will be greater in the future than at the beginning, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will give peace in this place!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts."

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: Ask the priests concerning the law, and say, <sup>12</sup>"If a man carries meat that is set apart to Yahweh in the fold of his garment, and the fold touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy?"

The priests answered and said, "No."

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean because of death touches any of these things, do they become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "Yes, they become unclean."

<sup>14</sup>So Haggai answered and said, "So it is with this people and this nation before me!—this is Yahweh's declaration—and so it is with the work of their hands. What they offer to me is unclean!

<sup>15</sup>So now, think in your minds about the past leading up to this very day. Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of Yahweh, <sup>16</sup>how was it then? When you came to a heap of twenty measures of grain, there were only ten; and when you came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there were only twenty. <sup>17</sup>I afflicted you and all the work of your hands with blight and mildew, but you still did not turn to me—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>20</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month and said, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel, and say,

'I will shake the heavens and the earth.

<sup>22</sup>For I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations!
I will overthrow the chariots and their riders;
the horses and their riders will fall down,
each one because of his brother's sword.

<sup>23</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, as my servant—this is Yahweh's declaration. I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts!"

Zechariah

Chapter 1

<sup>4</sup>Do not be like your fathers to whom the prophets cried out previously, saying, "Yahweh of hosts says this: Turn from your evil ways and wicked practices!" But they would not hear and did not pay attention to me—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>5</sup>Your fathers—where are they? And the prophets—do they live forever? <sup>6</sup>But my words and my decrees that I commanded my servants the prophets, have they not overtaken your fathers? So they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of hosts planned to do to us what our ways and actions deserved, so he has dealt with us.'"

<sup>7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius' reign, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah son of Berekiah son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>8</sup>I saw in the night, and, look! A man was riding on a red horse, and he was among the myrtle trees that are in the valley; and behind him there were red, reddish-brown, and white horses. <sup>9</sup>I said, "What are these things, Lord?" Then the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these things are."

<sup>10</sup>Then the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are those Yahweh has sent out to roam throughout the earth." <sup>11</sup>They answered the angel of Yahweh who stood among the myrtle trees; they said to him, "We have been roaming throughout the earth; see, all the earth sits still and is at rest."

<sup>12</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh answered and said, "Yahweh of hosts, how long will you show no compassion to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?" <sup>13</sup>Yahweh answered the angel who had talked with me, with good words, words of comfort.

<sup>14</sup>So the angel who had talked with me said to me, "Call out and say, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy! <sup>15</sup>I am very angry with the nations that are at ease. When I was only a little angry with them, they made the disaster worse.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house will be built within her—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem!" <sup>17</sup>Again call out, saying, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: My cities will once again overflow with goodness, and Yahweh will again comfort Zion, and he will once again choose Jerusalem.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes and saw four horns! <sup>19</sup>I spoke to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" He answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

<sup>20</sup>Then Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup>I said, "What are these people coming to do?" He answered, and said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no man would lift up his head. But the blacksmiths have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations that lifted up a horn against the land of Judah to scatter her."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Next I lifted up my eyes and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.<sup>2</sup>I said, "Where are you going?" So he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to determine its width and length."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who had talked with me went away and another angel went out to meet him.<sup>4</sup>The second angel said to him, "Run and speak to that young man; say, 'Jerusalem will sit in the open country because of the multitudes of men and livestock within her.'

<sup>5</sup>For I—this is Yahweh's declaration—will become for her a wall of fire around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.

<sup>8</sup>For after Yahweh of hosts honored me and sent me against the nations that plundered you—for whoever touches you, touches the apple of God's eye!—after Yahweh did this, he said,<sup>9</sup>"I myself will shake my hand over them, and they will be plunder for their slaves." Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me.

<sup>10</sup>"Sing for joy and be glad, daughter of Zion, for I myself am about to come and dwell among you!—this is Yahweh's declaration."<sup>11</sup>Then great nations will join themselves to Yahweh in that day. He says, "Then you will become my people; for I will dwell in the midst of you," and you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you.

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh will inherit Judah as his rightful possession in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem for himself.<sup>13</sup>Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh, for he has been roused from out of his holy place!

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yahweh and Satan was standing at his right hand to accuse him of sin.<sup>2</sup>The angel of Yahweh said to Satan, "May Yahweh rebuke you, Satan; may Yahweh, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is this not a brand pulled from the fire?"<sup>3</sup>Joshua was dressed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel.

<sup>4</sup>The angel spoke and said to those who stood before him, "Remove the filthy garments from upon him." Then he said to Joshua, "Look! I have caused your iniquity to pass from you and I will dress you in official robes."<sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head!" So they set a clean turban on Joshua's head and clothed him with clean garments, while the angel of Yahweh was standing by.

<sup>6</sup>Next the angel of Yahweh solemnly commanded Joshua and said,<sup>7</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my commandments, then you will govern my house and guard my courts, for I will allow you to go and come among these who stand before me.

<sup>8</sup>Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who live with you! For these men are a sign, for I myself will bring up my servant the Branch.<sup>9</sup>Now look at the stone that I have set before Joshua. There are seven eyes on this single stone, and I will engrave an inscription—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts— and I will remove the iniquity from this land in one day.

<sup>10</sup>In that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—each man will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree."

---

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then the angel who was talking with me turned and roused me like a man roused from his sleep.<sup>2</sup>He said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a lampstand made entirely of gold, with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven lamp wicks at the top of each lamp.<sup>3</sup>Two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left side."

<sup>4</sup>So I spoke again to the angel who was talking with me. I said, "What do these things mean, my master?"<sup>5</sup>The angel who was talking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these things mean?" I said, "No, my master."

<sup>6</sup>So he said to me, "This is the word of Yahweh to Zerubbabel: Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Yahweh of hosts.<sup>7</sup>What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain, and he will bring out the top stone to shouts of 'Grace! Grace to it!'"

<sup>8</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>9</sup>"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house and his hands will bring it to completion. Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you."

<sup>10</sup>Who has despised the day of small things? These people will rejoice and will see the plumb stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven lamps are the eyes of Yahweh that roam over the whole earth."

<sup>12</sup>Once more I asked him, "What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that have golden oil pouring out of them?"<sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my master."

<sup>14</sup>So he said, "These are the sons of fresh olive oil who stand before the Lord of all the earth."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Then I turned and lifted my eyes, and I saw, behold, a flying scroll!<sup>2</sup>The angel said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide."

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land. For every thief will be cut off according to what it says on the one side, and everyone who swears a false oath will be cut off according to what it says on the other side."<sup>4</sup>"I will send it out—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—so it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one that swears falsely by my name. It will remain in his house and consume its timber and stones."

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and said to me, "Raise your eyes and see what is coming!"<sup>6</sup>I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is a basket containing an ephah that is coming. This is their iniquity in the whole land." <sup>7</sup>Then a lead covering was lifted off the basket and there was a woman under it sitting in it!

<sup>8</sup>The angel said, "This is Wickedness!" He threw her back inside the basket, and he threw the lead cover over its opening.<sup>9</sup>I lifted my eyes and saw two women coming toward me, and wind was in their wings—for they had wings like a stork's wings. They lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

<sup>10</sup>So I said to the angel who was talking to me, "Where are they taking the basket?"<sup>11</sup>He said to me, "To build a temple in the land of Shinar for it, so that when the temple is ready, the basket will be set there on its prepared base."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Then I turned and lifted my eyes and I saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the two mountains were made of bronze.<sup>2</sup>The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot had black horses,<sup>3</sup>the third chariot had white horses, and the fourth chariot had spotted gray horses.<sup>4</sup>So I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my master?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel answered and said to me, "These are the four winds of heaven that go out from the place where they were standing before the Lord of all the earth.<sup>6</sup>The one with the black horses is going out to the north country; the white horses are going out to the west country; and the spotted gray horses are going out to the south country."

<sup>7</sup>These strong horses went out and sought to go and roam over the earth, so the angel said, "Go and roam over the earth!" and they left for all the earth.<sup>8</sup>Then he called out to me and spoke to me and said, "Look at the ones that are going out to the north country; they will appease my spirit concerning the north country."

<sup>9</sup>So the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,<sup>10</sup>"Take an offering from the exiles—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah—and go this same day and take it into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who has come from Babylon.<sup>11</sup>Then take the silver and gold, make a crown and set it upon the head of Joshua son of Jozadak, the high priest.

<sup>12</sup>Speak to him and say, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: This man, his name is Branch! He will grow up where he is and will then build the temple of Yahweh!<sup>13</sup>It is he who builds the temple of Yahweh, and he will be clothed with royal splendor, and will sit and rule on his throne. He will be a priest on his throne, and he will bear a counsel of peace between the two.

<sup>14</sup>The crown will given to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and for Hen son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of Yahweh.<sup>15</sup>Then those who are far off will come and build the temple of Yahweh, so you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you; for this will happen if you truly listen to the voice of Yahweh your God!"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>When King Darius had been ruler for four years, on the fourth day of Kislev (which was the ninth month), the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah.<sup>2</sup>The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek and their men to beg before the face of Yahweh.<sup>3</sup>They spoke to the priests who were at the house of Yahweh of hosts and to the prophets; they said, "Should I mourn in the fifth month by means of a fast, as I have done these many years?"

<sup>4</sup>So the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying,<sup>5</sup>"Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests and say, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, were you truly fasting for me?'<sup>6</sup>When you ate and drank, did you not eat and drink for yourselves?'<sup>7</sup>Were these not the same words that Yahweh proclaimed by the hand of the former prophets, when Jerusalem and the surrounding cities were inhabited and prosperous, and the Negev and the lowlands to the west were inhabited?"

<sup>8</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying,<sup>9</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this, 'Judge with true justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy. Let each man do this for his brother.<sup>10</sup>About the widow and orphan, the foreigner, and the poor person—do not oppress them, and let none of you plot any harm against another in your heart.'

<sup>11</sup>But they refused to pay attention and set their shoulders stubbornly. They stopped up their ears so they would not hear.<sup>12</sup>They made their hearts as hard as rock so they would not hear the law or the words of Yahweh of hosts. He had sent these messages to the people by his Spirit in earlier times, by the mouth of the prophets. But the people refused to listen, so Yahweh of hosts was very angry with them.

<sup>13</sup>It happened that when he called, they did not listen. In the same way," said Yahweh of hosts, "they will call out to me, but I will not listen.<sup>14</sup>For I will scatter them with a whirlwind to all the nations that they have not known, and the land will be desolate after them. For no one will pass through the land or return to it since the people have made their delightful land into a wasteland."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am passionate for her with great anger!" <sup>3</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: I will return to Zion and will live in the midst of Jerusalem, for Jerusalem will be called The City of Truth and the mountain of Yahweh of hosts will be called The Holy Mountain!

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: Old men and old women will once again be in the streets of Jerusalem, and every person will need a staff in his hand because he has grown so old. <sup>5</sup>The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in them.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: If something seems impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem impossible in my eyes?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: Behold, I am about to rescue my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting sun! <sup>8</sup>For I will bring them back, and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem, so they will again be my people, and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness!

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: You who now continue to hear the same words that came from the prophets' mouths when the foundation of my house was laid—this house of mine, Yahweh of hosts: Strengthen your hands so that the temple can be built. <sup>10</sup>For before those days no crops were gathered in by anyone, there was no profit for either man or animal, and there was no peace from enemies for anyone going or coming. I had set every person each against his neighbor.

<sup>11</sup>But now it will not be as in former days, I will be with the remnant of this people— this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts. <sup>12</sup>For seeds of peace will be sown; the climbing vine will give its fruit and the earth will give its produce; the skies will give their dew, for I will make the remnant of this people inherit all these things.

<sup>13</sup>You were an example to the other nations of a curse, house of Judah and house of Israel. So I will rescue you and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong!

<sup>14</sup>For Yahweh of hosts says this: Just as I planned to do harm to you when your ancestors provoked my anger— says Yahweh of hosts—and did not relent, <sup>15</sup>so also I will plan in these days to do good again to Jerusalem and the house of Judah! Do not fear!

<sup>16</sup>These are the things that you must do: Speak truth, every person with his neighbor. Judge with truth, justice, and peace in your gates. <sup>17</sup>Do not plan to do evil within your heart against one another, and do not love deceptive oaths—for these are the things I hate!—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>18</sup>Then the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>19</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: The fasts of the fourth month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month will become times of joy, gladness, and happy festivals for the house of Judah! Therefore love truth and peace!

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: People will come again, even those who are living in many different cities. <sup>21</sup>The inhabitants of one city will go to another city and say, 'Let us quickly go to beg before the face of Yahweh and to seek Yahweh of hosts! We ourselves are also going.' <sup>22</sup>Many people and mighty nations will come to seek Yahweh of hosts in Jerusalem and beg for the favor of Yahweh!

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: In those days ten men from every language and nation will grasp the hem of the robe of a Jew and say, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you!'"

Chapter 9

- <sup>1</sup> "This is a declaration of Yahweh's word concerning the land of Hadrak and Damascus, its resting place;
for the eyes of all humanity and all the tribes of Israel are toward Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> This declaration also concerns Hamath, which borders on Damascus, and it concerns Tyre and Sidon, for they are very wise.
- <sup>3</sup> Tyre has built herself a stronghold and heaped up silver like dust and refined gold like mud in the streets.
- <sup>4</sup> Look! The Lord will dispossess her and destroy her strength on the sea,
so she will be devoured by fire.
- <sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see and be afraid!
Gaza also will tremble greatly!
Ekron, her hopes will be disappointed!
The king will perish from Gaza,
and Ashkelon will not remain.
- <sup>6</sup> Strangers will make their homes in Ashdod,
and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
- <sup>7</sup> For I will remove their blood from their mouths and their abominations from between their teeth.
Then they will become a remnant for our God
like a clan in Judah,
and Ekron will become like the Jebusites.
- <sup>8</sup> I will camp around my land against enemy armies, <sup>1</sup>
so no one can pass through or return,
for no oppressor will overrun them,
for now I see with my own eyes!
- <sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!
Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold! Your king is coming to you.
He is righteous and victorious.
He is humble and is riding on a donkey,
on the colt of a donkey.
- <sup>10</sup> Then I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem,
and the bow will be cut off from battle;
for he will speak peace to the nations,
and his dominion will be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth!
- <sup>11</sup> As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will set your prisoners free from the pit where there is no water.
- <sup>12</sup> Return to the stronghold, prisoners of hope!
Even today I am declaring that I will return double to you,
- <sup>13</sup> for I have bent Judah as my bow.
I have filled my quiver with Ephraim.
I have roused your sons, Zion,
against your sons, Greece,
and have made you, Zion, like a warrior's sword!"
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will appear to them,

- and his arrows will shoot out like lightning!
For my Lord Yahweh will blow the ram's horn and will advance with the storms from Teman.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh of hosts will defend them,
and they will devour them and defeat the stones of the slings.
Then they will drink and shout like men drunk on wine,
and they will be filled with wine like bowls,
like the corners of the altar.
- <sup>16</sup> So Yahweh their God will rescue them on that day,
as the flock of his people.
They are the jewels of a crown that will shine on his land.
- <sup>17</sup> How good and how beautiful they will be!
The young men will flourish on grain and the virgins on sweet wine!"

---

<sup>1</sup>Most interpreters translate the Hebrew words as against enemy armies and some translate the Hebrew as a guard, and so translate the phrase, I will surround my temple as a guard .

Chapter 10

- <sup>1</sup> Ask for rain from Yahweh in the season of the spring rain—Yahweh who makes thunderstorms—and he gives rain showers to everyone and vegetation in the field.
- <sup>2</sup> For household idols speak wickedness;
the diviners envision a lie;
they tell deceitful dreams
and give empty comfort,
so they wander like sheep and suffer because there is no shepherd.
- <sup>3</sup> "My wrath burns against the shepherds;
it is the male goats—the leaders—that I will punish.
Yahweh of hosts will also attend to his flock, the house of Judah,
and make them like his warhorse in battle!
- <sup>4</sup> From Judah will come the cornerstone;
from him will come the tent peg;
from him will come the war bow;
from him will come every ruler together. <sup>1</sup>
- <sup>5</sup> They will be like warriors who trample their enemies into the mud of the streets in battle;
they will make war, for Yahweh is with them,
and they will shame those who ride warhorses.
- <sup>6</sup> I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph, for I will restore them
and have mercy on them.
They will be as though
I had not rejected them,
for I am Yahweh their God,
and I will respond to them.
- <sup>7</sup> Then Ephraim will be like a warrior,
and their hearts will rejoice as with wine;
their children will see and rejoice.
Their hearts will rejoice in me!
- <sup>8</sup> I will whistle for them
and gather them,
for I will rescue them,
and they will become as great as they previously were!
- <sup>9</sup> I sowed them among the peoples,
but they will remember me in distant countries,
so they and their children will live and return.
- <sup>10</sup> For I will restore them from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon until there is no more room for them.
- <sup>11</sup> I will pass through the sea of their affliction;
I will strike the waves of that sea and will dry up all the depths of the Nile.
The majesty of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will go away from the Egyptians.
- <sup>12</sup> I will strengthen them in myself,

and they will walk in my name—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup> Open your doors, Lebanon, that fire may devour your cedars!
- <sup>2</sup> Wail, cypress trees, for the cedar trees have fallen!
What was glorious has been devastated!
Wail, you oaks of Bashan,
for the impenetrable forest has gone down.
- <sup>3</sup> There is the sound of the shepherds' howl,
for their glory has been destroyed!
There is the voice of the young lions' roar,
for the pride of the Jordan River has been devastated!

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh my God says, "Like a shepherd, watch over the flock set aside for slaughter!"<sup>5</sup>(Those who buy them slaughter them and are not guilty, and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh! I have become rich!' for the shepherds working for the flocks' owners have no pity on them.)<sup>6</sup>For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land!—this is Yahweh's declaration. See! I myself am about to turn over every person into the hand of his neighbor and into the hand of his king, and they will destroy the land and none of them will I deliver them from their hand."

<sup>7</sup>So I became the shepherd of the flock marked for slaughter for those who dealt in sheep. I took two staffs; one staff I called "Favor" and the other I called "Unity." In this way I shepherded the flock.<sup>8</sup>In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also hated me.<sup>9</sup>Then I said to the owners, "I will not work as a shepherd for you any longer. The sheep that are dying—let them die; the sheep that are being destroyed—let them be destroyed. Let the sheep that remain each eat the flesh of its neighbor."

<sup>10</sup>So I took my staff "Favor" and broke it to break the covenant that I had made with all the peoples.<sup>11</sup>On that day the covenant was broken, and those who dealt in sheep and who were watching me knew that Yahweh had spoken.<sup>12</sup>I said to them, "If it seems good to you, pay me my wages. But if not, do not do it." So they weighed out my wages—thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Deposit the silver in the treasury, the excellent price at which they valued you!" So I took the thirty pieces of silver and deposited them in the treasury in the house of Yahweh.<sup>14</sup>Then I broke my second staff, "Unity," to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Again, take the equipment of a foolish shepherd for yourself,<sup>16</sup>for see, I am about to set in place a shepherd in the land. He will not care for the perishing sheep. He will not seek out the sheep gone missing, nor heal the crippled sheep. He will not feed the sheep that are healthy, but will eat the flesh of the fattened sheep and will tear off their hooves.

- <sup>17</sup> Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!
May the sword come against his arm and his right eye!
May his arm wither away
and may his right eye become blind!"

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>This is a declaration of Yahweh's word concerning Israel—a declaration of Yahweh, who stretched out the skies and laid the foundation of the earth, who fashions the spirit of mankind within man,<sup>2</sup>"See, I am about to make Jerusalem into a cup causing all the peoples surrounding her to stagger about. It will also be like that for Judah during the siege against Jerusalem.<sup>3</sup>On that day, I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. Anyone trying to carry that stone will hurt himself very much, and all the nations of the earth will gather against that city.

<sup>4</sup>On that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. Over the house of Judah I will open my eyes, but every horse of the peoples I will strike with blindness.<sup>5</sup>Then the chiefs of Judah will say in their hearts, "The inhabitants of Jerusalem are our strength because of Yahweh of hosts, their God."

<sup>6</sup>On that day I will make the chiefs of Judah like firepots among wood and like a flaming torch among standing grain, for they will consume all the surrounding peoples on their right and on their left. Jerusalem will again live in her own place.

<sup>7</sup>"Yahweh will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem may not be greater than the rest of Judah.<sup>8</sup>On that day Yahweh will be the defender of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on that day those who are weak among them will be like David, while the house of David will be like God, like the angel of Yahweh in front of them.<sup>9</sup>On that day I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>"But I will pour out a spirit of compassion and pleading on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so they will look on me, the one they have pierced. They will mourn for me, as one mourns for an only son; they will bitterly lament for him like those who lament the death of a firstborn son.<sup>11</sup>On that day the wailing in Jerusalem will be like the wailing at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup>The land will mourn, each clan separate from other clans. The clan of the house of David will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the house of Nathan will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men.<sup>13</sup>The clan of the house of Levi will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the Shimeites will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men.<sup>14</sup>Every clan of the remaining clans—each clan will be separate and the wives will be separate from the men."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>"On that day a spring will be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for their sin and impurity.<sup>2</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will cut off the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered. I will remove the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness from the land.

<sup>3</sup>If any man continues to prophesy, his father and mother who bore him will tell him, 'You will not live, for you speak lies in the name of Yahweh!' Then the father and mother who bore him will pierce him when he prophesies.

<sup>4</sup>On that day each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he is about to prophesy. These prophets will no longer wear a hairy cloak, in order to deceive the people.<sup>5</sup>For each will say, 'I am not a prophet! I am a man who works the soil, for the land became my work while I was still a young man!'<sup>6</sup>But someone will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' and he will answer, 'I was wounded with those in my friends' house.'

the man who stands close to me—
this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

Strike the shepherd,
and the flock will scatter!
For I will turn my hand against the lowly ones.

<sup>8</sup> Then it will come about that throughout all the land—this is Yahweh's declaration—that two-thirds of it will be cut off! Those people will perish;
only one-third will remain there.

<sup>9</sup> I will bring that third through the fire and refine them as silver is refined;
I will test them as gold is tested.

They will call on my name,
and I will answer them and say,

"This is my people!"
and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God!'"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Behold! A day for Yahweh is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst.<sup>2</sup>For I will gather every nation against Jerusalem for battle and the city will be captured. The houses will be plundered and the women raped. Half of the city will go out into captivity, but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city.

<sup>3</sup>But Yahweh will go out and make war against those nations as when he makes war on the day of battle.<sup>4</sup>On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is beside Jerusalem to the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half between the east and the west by a very great valley and half of the mountain will go back toward the north and half toward the south.

<sup>5</sup>Then you will flee down the valley between Yahweh's mountains, for the valley between those mountains will reach to Azel. You will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. Then Yahweh my God will come and all the holy ones will be with him.

<sup>6</sup>On that day there will be no light, but no cold or frost either.<sup>7</sup>On that day, a day known only to Yahweh, there will no longer be day or night, for the evening will be a time of light.<sup>8</sup>On that day living waters will flow out of Jerusalem. Half of them will flow to the eastern sea and half to the western sea, in summer and in winter.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be Yahweh, the one God, and his name alone.<sup>10</sup>All the land will be like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will continue to be raised up and remain in its own place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place where the first gate was, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.<sup>11</sup>The people will live in Jerusalem and there will be no more complete destruction from God against them. Jerusalem will live in safety.

<sup>12</sup>This will be the plague with which Yahweh will attack all the peoples that waged war against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away even as they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues will rot in their mouths.<sup>13</sup>On that day that great panic from Yahweh will come among them. Each one will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will be raised up against the hand of another.

<sup>14</sup>Judah will also make war against Jerusalem. They will gather the wealth of all the surrounding nations—gold, silver, and fine clothes in great abundance.<sup>15</sup>A plague will also be on the horses and the mules, the camels and the donkeys, and on every animal in those camps will also suffer that same plague.

<sup>16</sup>Then it will happen that all who remain in those nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Yahweh of hosts, and to keep the Festival of Shelters.<sup>17</sup>It will happen that if anyone from all the nations of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of hosts, then Yahweh will not bring rain on them.<sup>18</sup>If the nation of Egypt does not go up, then they will not receive rain. A plague from Yahweh will attack the nations that do not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>19</sup>This will be the punishment for Egypt and the punishment for every nation that does not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>20</sup>But on that day, the bells of the horses will say, "Set apart to Yahweh," and the basins in the house of Yahweh will be like the bowls before the altar.<sup>21</sup>For every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be set apart to Yahweh of hosts and everyone who brings a sacrifice will eat from them and boil in them. On that day traders will no longer be in the house of Yahweh of hosts.

Malachi

<sup>2</sup>"I have loved you," says Yahweh. But you say, "How have you loved us?" "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares Yahweh. "Yet I have loved Jacob,<sup>3</sup>but Esau I have hated. I have made his mountains an abandoned devastation, and I have made his inheritance a place for the jackals of the wilderness."

<sup>4</sup>If Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and rebuild the ruins," Yahweh of hosts will say, "They may rebuild, but I will throw down again. Others will call them 'The country of wickedness' and 'The people with whom Yahweh is angry forever.'<sup>5</sup>Your own eyes will see this, and you will say, 'Yahweh is great beyond the borders of Israel.'

<sup>6</sup>"A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a Father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is the reverence for me?" says Yahweh of hosts to you priests, who despise my name. "But you say, 'How have we despised your name?'<sup>7</sup>By offering polluted bread upon my altar. But you say, 'How have we polluted you?' By saying that Yahweh's table is contemptible.

<sup>8</sup>When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor! Will he accept you or will he lift up your face?" says Yahweh of hosts.<sup>9</sup>Now you keep asking the face of God, that he may be gracious to us. But Yahweh of hosts says that with such an offering in your hand, would he lift up any of your faces?

<sup>10</sup>"Oh, if only there were one of you who would shut the temple gates, so that you might not light fires on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of hosts, "and I will not accept any offering from your hand."<sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be great among the nations and in every place incense and pure grain offerings will be offered in my name. For my name will be great among the nations," says Yahweh of hosts.<sup>12</sup>"But you are profaning it when you say the Lord's table is polluted, and that its fruit, its food, is to be despised.

<sup>13</sup>You also say, 'How tiresome this is,' and you snort at it," says Yahweh of hosts. "You bring what has been torn or is lame or sick; and this you bring as your offering. Should I accept this from your hand?" says Yahweh.<sup>14</sup>"May the deceiver be cursed who has a male animal in his flock and vows to give it to me, and yet sacrifices to me, the Lord, what is flawed! For I am a great king," says Yahweh of hosts, "and my name will be honored among the nations."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now you priests, this command is for you.<sup>2</sup>"If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it on your heart to give honor to my name," says Yahweh of hosts, "then I will send a curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them, because you are not laying my command on your heart.

<sup>3</sup>See, I am about to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung from your festivals, and he will take you away with it. <sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup><sup>4</sup>You will know that I have sent this command to you, and that my covenant may continue to be with Levi," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>5</sup>"My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him; I gave him fear, and he feared me, and he stood in awe of my name.<sup>6</sup>True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness and he turned many away from iniquity.<sup>7</sup>For a priest's lips should keep knowledge and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is a messenger of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>8</sup>But you have turned away from the true path. You have caused many to stumble with respect to the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of hosts.<sup>9</sup>"So, I have made you contemptible and lowly before all the people, because you have not kept my ways, but have instead shown partiality in matters of the law."

<sup>10</sup>Is there not one Father for us all? Has not one God created us? Why are we faithless each man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?<sup>11</sup>Judah has been faithless. A disgusting thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holy place of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.<sup>12</sup>May Yahweh cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the one who is awake and the one who answers, even if he is bringing an offering to Yahweh of hosts. <sup>3</sup>

<sup>13</sup>You also do this: You cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping and sighing, because he still does not turn toward the offering or accept it with favor from your hand.

<sup>14</sup>But you say, "Why does he not?" Because Yahweh was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have been faithless, even though she was your companion and your wife by covenant.<sup>15</sup>Did he not make them one, with a portion of his spirit? Then why did he make you one? Because he was seeking an offspring from God. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.<sup>16</sup>"For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and the one who covers his garment with violence," says Yahweh of hosts. "So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not be faithless."

<sup>17</sup>You have wearied Yahweh with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of Yahweh, and he delights in them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

<sup>1</sup>Instead of rebuke your descendants , which is in the copies of the ancient Hebrew text, some ancient translations have cut off your shoulder or throw the arm to you . Some other modern translations have corrupt your descendants .

<sup>2</sup>Instead of he will take you away with it , which is in the ancient copies of the Hebrew text, some ancient translations have I will take you away from beside me , that is, from my presence .

<sup>3</sup>Instead of the one who answers , which follows the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew copies, some scholars have translated the ancient Hebrew copies as the one who studies .

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>"See, I am about to send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, see, he will come," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>2</sup>But who will be able to endure the day of his coming? Who will be able to stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire and like laundry soap.<sup>3</sup>He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi. He will refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings of righteousness to Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.<sup>5</sup>"Then I will approach you for judgment. I will quickly become a witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, those who swear to deception, and against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, those who oppress the widow and the orphan, against those who turn away the foreigner, and against those who do not honor me," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>6</sup>"For I, Yahweh, have not changed; therefore you descendants of Jacob have not been consumed.

<sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of hosts. "But you say, 'How will we return?'

<sup>8</sup>Would a person rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings.<sup>9</sup>You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation.

<sup>10</sup>Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of hosts, "if I do not open to you the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing on you, until there is no more room for it all.<sup>11</sup>I will rebuke those who destroy your crops, so that they do not destroy the harvest of your land. Your vines in the fields will not lose their fruit," says Yahweh of hosts.<sup>12</sup>"All the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>13</sup>"Your words against me have been strong," says Yahweh. "But you say, 'What have we said among ourselves against you?'"<sup>14</sup>You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept his requirements or walked mournfully before Yahweh of hosts?'<sup>15</sup>So now we call those who do evil blessed. Evildoers not only prosper, but they even test God and escape."

<sup>16</sup>Then those who feared Yahweh spoke with one another. Yahweh paid attention and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him about those who feared Yahweh and honored his name.

<sup>17</sup>"They will be mine," says Yahweh of hosts, "my own treasured possession, on the day that I act. I will pity them, as a man pities his own son who serves him.<sup>18</sup>Then once again you will distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who worships God and one who does not worship him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>For see, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and all the evildoers will become stubble. The day that is coming will burn them up," says Yahweh of hosts, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.<sup>2</sup>But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and you will leap like calves from the stall.<sup>3</sup>On that day you will trample down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I act," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>"Remember the law of my servant Moses that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and the rulings.<sup>5</sup>See, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and fearful day of Yahweh.<sup>6</sup>He will turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, so that I do not come and attack the land with complete destruction."

Abimelek

Facts:

Abimelek was a Philistine king over the region of Gerar during the time when Abraham and Isaac were living in the land of Canaan.

- Abraham deceived King Abimelek by telling him that Sarah was his sister rather than his wife.
- Abraham and Abimelek made an agreement regarding ownership of wells at Beersheba.
- Many years later, Isaac also deceived Abimelek and the other men of Gerar by saying that Rebekah was his sister, not his wife.
- King Abimelek rebuked Abraham, and later Isaac, for lying to him.
- Another man by the name of Abimelek was a son of Gideon and a brother of Jotham. Some translations may use a slightly different spelling of his name to make it clear that he is a different person from King Abimelek.

Amalek

Facts:

The Amalekites were a nomadic people group who lived throughout the southern part of Canaan, from the Negev desert to the country of Arabia. This people group was descended from Amalek, the grandson of Esau.

- The Amalekites were bitter enemies of Israel from the time when Israel first came to live in Canaan.
- Sometimes the term "Amalek" is used figuratively to refer to all the Amalekites.
- In one battle against the Amalekites, when Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning. When he got tired and his hands came down, they started losing. So Aaron and Hur helped Moses keep his hands up until the Israelite army had defeated the Amalekites.
- Both King Saul and King David led military expeditions against the Amalekites.
- After one victory over the Amalekites, Saul disobeyed God by keeping some of the plunder and by not killing the Amalekite king as God had commanded him to do.

Babel

Facts:

Babel was a chief city in a region called Shinar in the southern part of Mesopotamia. Shinar was later called Babylonia.

- The city of Babel was founded by Ham's great-grandson, Nimrod, who ruled the region of Shinar.
- The people of Shinar became proud and decided to build a tower high enough to reach heaven. This later became known as the "Tower of Babel."
- Because the people building the tower refused to spread out as God had commanded, he confused their languages so that they could not understand one another. This forced them to move away to live in many different places across the earth.
- The root meaning of the word for "Babel" is "confusion," named for when God confused the people's language.

Babylonia, Babylonian

Facts:

The city of Babylon was the capital of the ancient region of Babylonia, which was also part of the Babylonian Empire.

- Babylon was located along the Euphrates River, in the same region where the Tower of Babel had been built hundreds of years before.
- Sometimes the word "Babylon" refers to the entire Babylonian Empire. For example, the "king of Babylon" ruled the entire empire, not just the city.
- The Babylonians were a powerful people group who attacked the kingdom of Judah and kept the people in exile in Babylonia for 70 years.
- Part of this region was called "Chaldea" and the people living there were the "Chaldeans." As a result, the term "Chaldea" was often used to refer to Babylonia. (See: [\[rc://en/ta/man/jit/figs-synecdoche\]](#))
- In the New Testament, the term "Babylon" is sometimes used as a metaphor to refer to places, people, and thinking patterns that are associated with idol-worship and other sinful behaviors.
- The phrase "Babylon the Great" or "great city of Babylon" refers metaphorically to a city or nation that was large, wealthy, and sinful, just as the ancient city of Babylon was. (See: Metaphor)

Balaam

Facts:

Balaam was a pagan prophet whom King Balek hired to curse Israel while they were camped at the Jordan River in northern Moab, preparing to enter the land of Canaan.

- Balaam was from the city of Pethor, which was located in the region around the Euphrates River, about 400 miles away from the land of Moab.
- The Midianite king, Balek, was afraid of the strength and numbers of the Israelites, so he hired Balaam to curse them.
- As Balaam was traveling toward Israel, an angel of God stood in his path so that Balaam's donkey stopped. God also gave the donkey the ability to speak to Balaam.
- God did not allow Balaam to curse the Israelites and commanded him to bless them instead.
- Later however, Balaam still brought evil on the Israelites when he influenced them to worship the false god Baal-peor.

Bethel

Facts:

Bethel was a city located just north of Jerusalem in the land of Canaan. It was formerly called "Luz."

- After receiving God's promises for the first time, Abram (Abraham) built an altar to God near Bethel. The actual name of the city was not yet Bethel at that time, but it was usually referred to as "Bethel," which was better known.
- When fleeing from his brother Esau, Jacob stayed overnight near this city and slept outdoors on the ground there. While he was sleeping, he had a dream showing angels going up and down a ladder to heaven.
- This city did not have the name "Bethel" until after Jacob named it that. To make this clear, some translations may translate it as "Luz (later called Bethel)" in the passages about Abraham, as well as when Jacob first arrives there (before he changed the name).
- Bethel is mentioned often in the Old Testament and was a place where many important events happened.

Christ

Related Ideas:

Christ Jesus, Jesus Christ, Messiah

Facts:

The terms "Messiah" and "Christ" mean "Anointed One" and refer to Jesus, God's Son.

- Both "Messiah" and "Christ" are used in the New Testament to refer to God's Son, whom God the Father appointed to rule as king over his people, and to save them from sin and death.
- In the Old Testament, the prophets wrote prophecies about the Messiah hundreds of years before he came to earth.
- Often a word meaning "anointed (one)" is used in the Old Testament to refer to the Messiah who would come.
- Jesus fulfilled many of these prophecies and did many miraculous works that proves he is the Messiah; the rest of these prophecies will be fulfilled when he returns.
- The word "Christ" is often used as a title, as in "the Christ" and "Christ Jesus." "Christ" also came to be used as part of his name, as in "Jesus Christ." These names emphasize that God's Son is the Messiah, who will reign forever.
- Jesus the Messiah is the one who was chosen and anointed as a Prophet, High Priest, and King.

Translation Suggestions:

- In many languages "Jesus" and "Christ" are spelled in a way that keeps the sounds or spelling as close to the original as possible. For example, "Jesucristo," "Jezus Christus," "Yesus Kristus", and "Hesukristo" are some of the ways that these names are translated into different languages.
- For the term "Christ," some translators may prefer to use only some form of the term "Messiah" throughout.
- This term could be translated using its meaning, "the Anointed One" or "God's Anointed Savior."
- Many languages use a transliterated word that looks or sounds like "Christ" or "Messiah."
- The transliterated word could be followed by the definition of the term, as in "Christ, the Anointed One."
- Be consistent in how this is translated throughout the Bible so that it is clear that the same term is being referred to.
- Make sure the translations of "Messiah" and "Christ" work well in contexts where both terms occur in the same verse (such as John 1:41).

Christian

Definition:

Some time after Jesus went back to heaven, people made up the name "Christian" which means, "follower of Christ."

- It was in the city of Antioch where Jesus' followers were first called "Christians."
- A Christian is a person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God, and who trusts Jesus to save him from his sins.
- In our modern times, often the term "Christian" is used for someone who identifies with the Christian religion, but who is not really following Jesus. This is not the meaning of "Christian" in the Bible.
- Because the term "Christian" in the Bible always refers to someone who truly believes in Jesus, a Christian is also called a "believer."

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as "Christ-follower" or "follower of Christ" or perhaps something like, "Christ-person."
- Make sure that the translation of this term is translated differently than terms used for disciple or apostle.
- Be careful to translate this term with a word that can refer to everyone who believes in Jesus, not just certain groups.
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

Gentile

Facts:

The term "Gentile" refers to anyone who is not a Jew. Gentiles are people who are not descendants of Jacob.

- In the Bible, the term "uncircumcised" is also used figuratively to refer to Gentiles because many of them did not circumcise their male children as the Israelites did.
- Because God chose the Jews to be his special people, they thought of the Gentiles as outsiders who could never be God's people.
- The Jews were also called "Israelites" or "Hebrews" at different times in history. They referred to anyone else as a "Gentile."
- Gentile could also be translated as "not a Jew" or "non-Jewish" or "not an Israelite" (Old Testament) or "non-Jew."
- Traditionally, Jews would neither eat with nor associate with Gentiles, which at first caused problems within the early church.

God

Related Ideas:

the living God

Facts:

In the Bible, the term "God" refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God's personal name is "Yahweh."

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as "Yahweh," which means "he is" or "I am" or "the One who (always) exists."
- The Bible also teaches about false "gods," which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "God" could include "Deity" or "Creator" or "Supreme Being."
- Other ways to translate "God" could be "Supreme Creator" or "Infinite Sovereign Lord" or "Eternal Supreme Being."
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for "God" in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god.
- Another way to make this distinction would be to use different terms for "God" and "god."
- The phrase "I will be their God and they will be my people" could also be translated as "I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me."

God the Father

Related Ideas:

Father, heavenly Father, my Father

Facts:

The terms "God the Father" and "heavenly Father" refer to Yahweh, the one true God. Another term with the same meaning is "Father," used most often when Jesus was referring to him.

- God exists as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Each one is fully God, and yet they are only one God. This is a mystery that mere humans cannot fully understand.
- God the Father sent God the Son (Jesus) into the world, and he sends the Holy Spirit to his people.
- Anyone who believes in God the Son becomes a child of God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit comes to live in that person. This is another mystery that human beings cannot fully understand.

Translation Suggestions:

- In translating the phrase "God the Father," it is best to translate "Father" with the same word that the language naturally uses to refer to a human father.
- The term "heavenly Father" could be translated by "Father who lives in heaven" or "Father God who lives in heaven" or "God our Father from heaven."
- Usually "Father" is capitalized when it refers to God.

Golgotha

Facts:

"Golgotha" was the name of the place where Jesus was crucified. Its name comes from an Aramaic word that means "Skull" or "Place of the Skull."

- Golgotha was located outside the city walls of Jerusalem, somewhere nearby. It was perhaps located on a slope of the Mount of Olives.
- In some older English versions of the Bible, Golgotha is translated as "Calvary," which comes from the Latin word for "skull."
- Many Bible versions use a word that looks or sounds similar to "Golgotha," since its meaning is already explained in the Bible text.

Hades

Related Ideas:

Sheol

Definition:

The terms "Hades" and "Sheol" are used in the Bible to refer to death and the place where the souls of people go when they die. Their meanings are similar.

- The Hebrew term "Sheol" is often used in the Old Testament to refer generally to the place of death.
- In the New Testament, the Greek term "Hades" refers to a place for the souls of people who rebelled against God. These souls are referred to as going "down" to Hades. This is sometimes contrasted to going "up" to heaven, where the souls of people who believe in Jesus live.
- The term "Hades" is coupled with the term "death" in the book of Revelation. In the end times, both death and Hades will be thrown into the Lake of Fire, which is hell.

Translation Suggestions

- The Old Testament term "Sheol" could be translated as "place of the dead" or "place for dead souls." Some translations translate this as "the pit" or "death," depending on the context.
- The New Testament term "Hades" could also be translated as "place for unbelieving dead souls" or "place of torment for the dead" or "place for the souls of unbelieving dead people."
- Some translations keep the words "Sheol" and "Hades," spelling them to fit the sound patterns of the language of translation.
- A phrase could also be added to each term to explain it, examples of doing this are, "Sheol, place where dead people are" and "Hades, place of death."

Jeroboam

Facts:

Jeroboam son of Nebat was the first king of the northern kingdom of Israel around 900-910 BC. Another Jeroboam, son of King Jehoash, ruled over Israel about 120 years later.

- Yahweh gave Jeroboam son of Nebat a prophecy that he would become king after Solomon and that he would rule ten tribes of Israel.

- When Solomon died, the ten northern tribes of Israel rebelled against Solomon's son Rehoboam and instead made Jeroboam their king, leaving Rehoboam as king of only the southern two tribes, Judah and Benjamin.
- Jeroboam became a wicked king who led the people away from worshiping Yahweh and instead set up idols for them to worship. All the other kings of Israel followed Jeroboam's example and were evil like he was.
- Almost 120 years later, another King Jeroboam began ruling the northern kingdom of Israel. This Jeroboam was the son of King Jehoash and was wicked like all the previous kings of Israel had been.
- In spite of the Israelite's wickedness, God had mercy on them and helped this King Jeroboam to gain land and establish boundaries for their territory.

Facts:

Jerusalem was originally an ancient Canaanite city that later became the most important city in Israel. It is located about 34 kilometers west of the Salt Sea and just north of Bethlehem. It is still the capital city of Israel today.

- The name "Jerusalem" is first mentioned in the book of Joshua. Other Old Testament names for this city include "Salem" "city of Jebus," and "Zion." Both "Jerusalem" and "Salem," have the root meaning of "peace."
- Jerusalem was originally a Jebusite fortress called "Zion" which King David captured and made into his capital city.
- It was in Jerusalem that David's son Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, which was the mountain where Abraham had offered his son Isaac to God. The temple was rebuilt there after it was destroyed by the Babylonians.
- Because the temple was in Jerusalem, the major Jewish festivals were celebrated there.
- People normally referred to going "up" to Jerusalem since it is located in the mountains.

Jethro

Facts:

The names "Jethro" and "Reuel" both refer to the father of Moses' wife, Zipporah. There were also two other men named "Reuel" in the Old Testament.

- When Moses was a shepherd in the land of Midian, he married the daughter of a Midianite man named Reuel.
- Later on Reuel is referred to as "Jethro, the priest of Midian." It could be that "Reuel" was his clan name.
- When God spoke to Moses from a flaming bush, Moses was tending Jethro's sheep
- Some time later, after God had rescued the Israelites from Egypt, Jethro came out to the Israelites in the wilderness and gave Moses good advice about judging the affairs of the people.
- He believed in God when he heard about all the miracles God had done for the Israelites in Egypt.
- One of Esau's sons was named Reuel.
- Another man named Reuel is mentioned in the genealogy of the Israelites who returned to resettle in Judah after their captivity in Babylon had ended.

Job

Facts:

Job was a man who is described in the Bible as blameless and righteous before God. He is best known for persevering in his faith in God through times of terrible suffering.

- Job lived in the land of Uz, which was located somewhere east of the land of Canaan, possibly near the region of the Edomites.
- It is thought that he lived during the time of Esau and Jacob because one of Job's friends was a "Temanite," which was a people group named after Esau's grandson.
- The Old Testament book of Job tells about how Job and others responded to his suffering. It also gives God's viewpoint as the sovereign creator and ruler of the universe.
- After all the disasters, God eventually healed Job and gave him more children and wealth.
- The book of Job says that he was very old when he died.

Judas son of James

Facts:

Judas son of James was one of Jesus' twelve apostles. Note that he was not the same man as Judas Iscariot.

- Often in the Bible, men with the same name were distinguished by mentioning whose son they were. Here, Judas was identified as the "son of James."
- Another man named Judas was Jesus' brother. He was also known as "Jude."
- The New Testament book called "Jude" was probably written by Jesus' brother Judas, since the author identified himself as the "brother of James." James was another brother of Jesus.
- It is also possible that the book of Jude was written by Jesus' disciple, Judas, the son of James.

Judea

Facts:

The term "Judea" refers to an area of land in ancient Israel. It is sometimes used in a narrow sense and other times in a broad sense.

- Sometimes "Judea" is used in a narrow sense to refer only to the province located in the southern part of ancient Israel just west of the Dead Sea. Some translations call this province "Judah."
- Other times "Judea" has a broad sense and refers to all the provinces of ancient Israel, including Galilee, Samaria, Perea, Idumea and Judea (Judah).
- If translators want to make the distinction clear, the broad sense of Judea could be translated as "Judea Country" and the narrow sense could be translated as "Judea Province," or "Judah Province" since this is the part of ancient Israel where the tribe of Judah had originally lived.

Lord Yahweh

Related Ideas:

Yahweh God

Facts:

In the Old Testament, "Lord Yahweh" is frequently used to refer to the one true God.

- The term "Lord" is a divine title and "Yahweh" is God's personal name.
- "Yahweh" is also often combined with the term "God" to form "Yahweh God."

Translation Suggestions:

- If some form of "Yahweh" is used for the translation of God's personal name, the terms "Lord Yahweh" and "Yahweh God" can be translated literally. Also consider how the term "Lord" is translated in other contexts when referring to God.
- Some languages put titles after the name and would translate this as "Yahweh Lord." Consider what is natural in the project language: should the title "Lord" come before or after "Yahweh"?
- "Yahweh God" could also be rendered as "God who is called Yahweh" or "God who is the Living One" or "I am, who is God."
- If the translation follows the tradition of rendering "Yahweh" as "Lord" or "LORD," the term "Lord Yahweh" could be translated as "Lord God" or "God who is the Lord." Other possible translations could be, "Master LORD" or "God the LORD."
- The term "Lord Yahweh" should not be rendered as "Lord LORD" because readers may not notice the difference in letter size that has traditionally been used to distinguish these two words and it would look very strange.

Lord's Supper

Definition:

The term "Lord's Supper" was used by the apostle Paul to refer to the Passover meal that Jesus ate with his disciples on the night he was arrested by the Jewish leaders.

- During this meal, Jesus broke the Passover bread into pieces and called it his body, which would soon be beaten and killed.
- He called the cup of wine his blood, which would soon be spilled out as he died as a sacrifice for sin.
- Jesus commanded that as often as his followers shared this meal together, they should remember his death and resurrection.
- In his letter to the Corinthians, the apostle Paul also further established the Lord's Supper as a regular practice for believers in Jesus.
- Churches today often use the term "communion" to refer to the Lord's Supper. The term "Last Supper" is also sometimes used.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as "the Lord's meal" or "the meal of our Lord Jesus" or "the meal in memory of the Lord Jesus."

Obadiah

Facts:

Obadiah was an Old Testament prophet who prophesied against the people of Edom, who were the descendants of Esau. There were also many other men named Obadiah in the Old Testament.

- The book of Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament and tells a prophecy that Obadiah received through a vision from God.
- It is not clear when Obadiah lived and prophesied. It may have been during the periods that Jehoram, Ahaziah, Joash, and Athaliah, reigned in Judah. The prophets Daniel, Ezekiel, and Jeremiah would also have been prophesying during part of this time.
- Obadiah may also have lived at a later time period, during the reign of King Zedekiah and the Babylonian captivity.
- Other men named Obadiah included a descendant of Saul, a Gadite who became one of David's men, a palace administrator for King Ahab, an official of King Jehoshaphat, a man who helped with repairs to the temple during the time of King Josiah, and a Levite who was also a gatekeeper during the time of Nehemiah.
- It could be that the writer of the book of Obadiah was one of these men.

Passover

Facts:

The "Passover" is the name of a religious festival that the Jews celebrate every year, to remember how God rescued their ancestors, the Israelites, from slavery in Egypt.

- The name of this festival comes from the fact that God "passed over" the houses of the Israelites and did not kill their sons when he killed the firstborn sons of the Egyptians.
- The Passover celebration includes a special meal of a perfect lamb that they have killed and roasted, as well as bread made without yeast. These foods remind them of the meal that the Israelites ate the night before they escaped from Egypt.
- God told the Israelites to eat this meal every year in order to remember and celebrate how God "passed over" their houses and how he set them free from slavery in Egypt.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "Passover" could be translated by combining the words "pass" and "over" or another combination of words that has this meaning.
- It is helpful if the name of this festival has a clear connection to the words used to explain what the angel of the Lord did in passing by the houses of the Israelites and sparing their sons.

Saul

Facts:

Paul was a leader of the early church who was sent by Jesus to take the good news to many other people groups.

- Paul was a Jew who was born in the Roman city of Tarsus, and was therefore also a Roman citizen.
- Paul was originally called by his Jewish name, Saul.
- Saul became a Jewish religious leader and arrested Jews who became Christians because he thought they were dishonoring God by believing in Jesus.
- Jesus revealed himself to Saul in a blinding light and told him to stop hurting Christians.
- Saul believed in Jesus and began teaching his fellow Jews about him.
- Later, God sent Saul to teach non-Jewish people about Jesus and started churches in different cities and provinces of the Roman empire. At this time he started being called by the Roman name "Paul."
- Paul also wrote letters to encourage and teach Christians in the churches in these cities. Several of these letters are in the New Testament.

Ruth

Facts:

Ruth was a Moabite woman who lived during the time when judges were leading Israel. She married an Israelite man in Moab after he had moved there with his family because of a famine during the time when judges were leading Israel.

- Ruth's husband died, and some time after that she left Moab to travel with her mother-in-law Naomi, who was returning to her hometown, Bethlehem in Israel.
- Ruth was loyal to Naomi and worked hard to provide food for her.
- She also committed herself to serving the one true God of Israel.
- Ruth married an Israelite man named Boaz and gave birth to a son who became the grandfather of King David. Because King David was an ancestor of Jesus Christ so was Ruth.

Sabbath

Definition:

The term "Sabbath" refers to the seventh day of the week, which God commanded the Israelites to set apart as a day of rest and doing no work.

- After God finished creating the world in six days, he rested on the seventh day. In the same way, God commanded the Israelites to set aside the seventh day as a special day to rest and worship him.
- The command to "keep the Sabbath holy" is one of the ten commandments that God wrote on the stone tablets that he gave Moses for the Israelites.
- Following the Jewish system of counting days, the Sabbath begins on Friday at sundown and lasts until Saturday at sundown.

- Sometimes in the Bible the Sabbath is called "Sabbath day" rather than only the Sabbath.

Translation Suggestions:

- This could also be translated as "resting day" or "day for resting" or "day of not working" or "God's day of rest."
- Some translations capitalize this term to show that it is a special day, as in "Sabbath Day" or "Resting Day."
- Consider how this term is translated in a local or national language.

Sadducee

Definition:

The Sadducees were a political group of Jewish priests during the time of Jesus Christ. They supported Roman rule and did not believe in the resurrection.

- Many Sadducees were wealthy, upper-class Jews who held powerful leadership positions such as chief priest and high priest.
- The duties of the Sadducees included taking care of the temple complex and priestly tasks such as offering sacrifices.
- The Sadducees and the Pharisees strongly influenced the Roman leaders to crucify Jesus.
- Jesus spoke against these two religious groups because of their selfishness and hypocrisy.

Salt Sea

Facts:

The Salt Sea (also called the Dead Sea) is a lake in the Jordan River Valley. The Jordan River flows into the sea.

- In Bible times, Israel was west of the sea, and Moab was east of the sea.
- Because it is smaller than most seas, it could be called "Salt Lake."
- This sea has such a high concentration of minerals (or "salts") that nothing can live in its waters. Its lack of plants and animals is the cause of the name "Dead Sea."
- In the Old Testament, this sea is also called the "Sea of Arabah" and the "Sea of Negev" because of its location near the regions of Arabah and Negev.

Samaria

Facts:

Samaria was the name of a city and its surrounding region in the northern part of Israel. The Plain of Sharon is west of this region, and the Jordan River is east of this region. The people of Samaria were called Samaritans.

- In the Old Testament, Samaria was the capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel. Later the region surrounding it was also called Samaria.
- When the Assyrians conquered the northern kingdom of Israel, they captured the city of Samaria and forced most of the northern Israelites to leave the region, moving them far away to different cities in Assyria.
- The Assyrians also brought many foreigners into the region of Samaria to replace the Israelites who had been moved.
- Some of the Israelites who remained in that region married the foreigners who had moved there, and their descendants were called Samaritans.
- The Jews despised the Samaritans because they were only partly Jewish and because their ancestors had worshiped pagan gods.

- In New Testament times, the region of Galilee was north of Samaria, and the region of Judea was south of Samaria.

Samuel

Facts:

Samuel was a prophet and the last judge of Israel. He anointed both Saul and David as kings over Israel.

- Samuel was born to Elkanah and Hannah in the town of Ramah.
- Hannah had been barren, so she had prayed earnestly that God would give her a son. Samuel was the answer to that prayer.
- Hannah promised that if, in answer to her desperate prayer that God would give her a male child, her request was granted, she would dedicate her son to Yahweh.
- To fulfill her promise to God, when Samuel was a young boy, Hannah sent him to live with and help Eli the priest in the temple.
- God raised up Samuel to be a great prophet.

Satan

Related Ideas:

devil, evil one

Facts:

Although the devil is a spirit being that God created, he rebelled against God and became God's enemy. The devil is also called "Satan" and "the evil one."

- The devil hates God and all that God created because he wants to take the place of God and be worshiped as God.
- Satan tempts people to rebel against God.
- God sent his Son, Jesus, to rescue people from Satan's control.
- The name "Satan" means "adversary" or "enemy."
- The word "devil" means "accuser."

Translation Suggestions:

- The word "devil" could also be translated as "the accuser" or "the evil one" or "the king of evil spirits" or "the chief evil spirit."
- "Satan" could be translated as "Opponent" or "Adversary" or some other name that shows that he is the devil.
- These terms should be translated differently from demon and evil spirit.

Savior

Definitions:

The term "savior" refers to a person who saves or rescues others from danger. It can also refer to someone who gives strength to others or provides for them.

- In the Old Testament, God is referred to as Israel's Savior because he often rescued them from their enemies, gave them strength, and provided them with what they needed to live.
- In the New Testament, "Savior" is used as a description or title for Jesus Christ because he saves people from being eternally punished for their sin. He also saves them from being controlled by their sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- If possible, "Savior" should be translated with a word that is related to the words "save" and "salvation."
- Ways to translate this term could include "the One who saves" or "God, who saves" or "who delivers from danger" or "who rescues from enemies" or "Jesus, the one who rescues (people) from sin."

Solomon

Facts:

Solomon was one of King David's sons. His mother was Bathsheba.

- When Solomon became king, God told him to ask for anything he wanted. So Solomon asked for wisdom to rule the people justly and well. God was pleased with Solomon's request and gave him both wisdom and much wealth.
- Solomon is also well known for having a magnificent temple built in Jerusalem.
- Although Solomon ruled wisely in the first years of his reign, later on he foolishly married many foreign women and started worshiping their gods.
- Because of Solomon's unfaithfulness, after his death God divided the Israelites into two kingdoms, Israel and Judah. These kingdoms often fought against each other.

Son of God

Related Ideas:

the Son

Facts:

The term "Son of God" refers to Jesus, the Word of God, who came into the world as a human being. He is also often referred to as "the Son."

- Unlike anyone else, God the Father, the Son of God, and the Holy Spirit are all one God.
- God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are all fully and equally God.
- The Son of God has the same character as God the Father.

Because Jesus is God's Son, he loves and obeys his Father, and his Father loves him.

Translation Suggestions:

- For the term "Son of God," it is best to translate "Son" with the same word the language would naturally use to refer to a human son.
- Make sure the word used to translate "son" fits with the word used to translate "father" and that these words are the most natural ones used to express a true father-son relationship in the project language.
- Using a capital letter to begin "Son" may help show that this is talking about God.
- The phrase "the Son" is a shortened form of "the Son of God," especially when it occurs in the same context as "the Father."

Son of Man

Related Ideas:

mankind, son of man

Definition:

The title "Son of Man" was used by Jesus to refer to himself. He often used this term instead of saying "I" or "me."

- In the Bible, "son of man" could be a way of referring to or addressing a man. It could also mean "human being."
- Throughout the Old Testament book of Ezekiel, God frequently addressed Ezekiel as "son of man." For example he said, "You, son of man, must prophesy."
- The prophet Daniel saw a vision of a "son of man" coming with the clouds, which is a reference to the coming Messiah.
- Jesus also said that the Son of Man will be coming back someday on the clouds.
- These references to the Son of Man coming on the clouds reveal that Jesus the Messiah is God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When Jesus uses the term "Son of Man" it could be translated as "the One who became a human being" or "the Man from heaven."
- Some translators occasionally include "I" or "me" with this title (as in "I, the Son of Man") to make it clear that Jesus was talking about himself.
- Check to make sure that the translation of this term does not give a wrong meaning (such as referring to an illegitimate son or giving the wrong impression that Jesus was only a human being).
- When used to refer to a person, "son of man" could also be translated as "you, a human being" or "you, man" or "human being" or "man."

Stephen

Facts:

Stephen is most remembered as the first Christian martyr, that is, the first person to be killed because of his faith in Jesus. The facts about his life and death are recorded in the book of Acts.

- Stephen was appointed by the early Church in Jerusalem to serve the Christians as a deacon by providing food for widows and other Christians in need.
- Certain Jews falsely accused Stephen of speaking against God and against the laws of Moses.
- Stephen boldly spoke the truth about Jesus the Messiah, beginning with the history of God's dealings with the people of Israel.
- The Jewish leaders were furious and executed Stephen by stoning him to death outside the city.
- His execution was witnessed by Saul of Tarsus, who later became the apostle Paul.
- Stephen is also well-known for his last words before he died, "Lord, please do not hold this sin against them," which showed the love he had for others.

Ten Commandments

Definitions:

The "Ten Commandments" were commands that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai while the Israelites were living in the desert on their way to the land of Canaan. God wrote these commands on two large slabs of stone.

- God gave the Israelites many commands to obey, but the Ten Commandments were special commands to help the Israelites love and worship God and love other people.
- These commandments were also part of God's covenant with his people. By obeying what God had commanded them to do, the people of Israel would show that they loved God and belonged to him.
- The stone slabs with the commandments written on them were kept in the Ark of the Covenant, which was located in the most holy place of the tabernacle and later, the temple.

Uzziah

Facts:

Uzziah became king of Judah at the age of 16 and reigned 52 years, which was an unusually long reign. Uzziah was also known as "Azariah."

- King Uzziah was well-known for his organized and skilled military. He had towers built to protect the city and had specially-designed weapons of war mounted on them to hurl arrows and large stones.
- As long as Uzziah served the Lord, he prospered. Toward the end of his reign, however, he became proud and he disobeyed the Lord by burning incense in the temple, which only the priest was permitted to do.
- Because of this sin, Uzziah became sick with leprosy and had to live separately from other people until the end of his reign.

Yahweh

Related Ideas:

Yah

Facts:

The term "Yahweh" is God's personal name that he revealed when he spoke to Moses at the burning bush.

- The name "Yahweh" comes from the word that means to "be" or to "exist."
- The name "Yah" is short for "Yahweh."
- Possible meanings of "Yahweh" include, "he is" or "I am" or "the one who causes to be."
- This name reveals that God has always lived and will continue to live forever. It also means that he is always present.
- Following tradition, many Bible versions use the term "LORD" or "the LORD" to represent "Yahweh." This tradition resulted from the fact that historically, the Jewish people became afraid of mispronouncing Yahweh's name and started saying "Lord" every time the term "Yahweh" appeared in the text. Modern Bibles write "LORD" with all capital letters to show respect for God's personal name and to distinguish it from "Lord" which is a different Hebrew word.
- The ULB and UDB texts always translate this term as, "Yahweh," as it literally occurs in the Hebrew text of the Old Testament.
- The term "Yahweh" does not ever occur in the original text of the New Testament; only the Greek term for "Lord" is used, even in quotes from the Old Testament.
- In the Old Testament, God sometimes referred to himself as "I, Yahweh" and sometimes he referred to himself simply as "Yahweh." When he referred to himself simply as "Yahweh," the ULB and UDB add the pronoun "I" or "me" to show the reader that God was speaking about himself.

Translation Suggestions:

- "Yahweh" could be translated by a word or phrase that means "I am" or "living one" or "the one who is" or "he who is alive."
- This term could also be written in a way that is similar to how "Yahweh" is spelled.
- Some church denominations prefer not to use the term "Yahweh" and instead use the traditional rendering, "LORD." An important consideration is that this may be confusing when read aloud because it will sound the same as the title "Lord." Some languages may have an affix or other grammatical marker that could be added to distinguish "LORD" as a name (Yahweh) from "Lord" as a title.
- It is best if possible to keep the name Yahweh where it literally occurs in the text, but some translations may decide to use only a pronoun in some places, to make the text more natural and clear.
- When Yahweh referred to himself as Yahweh, you can make it clear that Yahweh was speaking by introducing the quote with something like, "This is what Yahweh says."

Yahweh of hosts

Related Ideas:

God of hosts, Lord of hosts, Lord of multitudes

Definition:

The terms "Yahweh of hosts" and "God of hosts" are titles that express God's authority over the thousands of angels who obey him.

- The term "host" or "hosts" is a word that refers to a large number of something, such as an army of people or the massive number of stars. It can also refer to all the many spirit beings, including evil spirits. The context makes it clear what is being referred to.
- Phrases similar to "host of the heavens" refer to all the stars, planets and other heavenly bodies.
- In the New Testament, the phrase, "Lord of hosts" means the same as "Yahweh of hosts" but it cannot be translated that way since the Hebrew word "Yahweh" is not used in the New Testament.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "Yahweh of hosts" could include, "Yahweh, who rules all the angels" or "Yahweh, the ruler over armies of angels" or "Yahweh, the ruler of all creation."
- The phrase "of hosts" in the terms "God of hosts" and "Lord of hosts" would be translated the same way as in the phrase "Yahweh of hosts" above.
- Certain churches do not accept the literal term "Yahweh" and prefer to use the capitalized word, "LORD" instead, following the tradition of many Bible versions. For these churches, a translation of the term "LORD of hosts" would be used in the Old Testament for "Yahweh of hosts."

adultery

Related Ideas:

adulterer, adulteress, adulterous, immoral woman

Definition:

The term "adultery" refers to a sin that occurs when a married person has sexual relations with someone who is not that person's spouse. Both of them are guilty of adultery. The term "adulterous" describes this kind of behavior or any person who commits this sin.

- The term "adulterer" refers generally to any person who commits adultery.
- Sometimes the term "adulteress" is used to specify that it was a woman who committed adultery.
- Adultery breaks the promises that a husband and wife made to each other in their covenant of marriage.
- God commanded the Israelites to not commit adultery.
- The term "adulterous" is often used in a figurative sense to describe the people of Israel as being unfaithful to God, especially when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the target language does not have one word that means "adultery," this term could be translated with a phrase such as "having sexual relations with someone else's wife" or "being intimate with another person's spouse."
- Some languages may have an indirect way of talking about adultery, such as "sleeping with someone else's spouse" or "being unfaithful to one's wife."
- When "adulterous" is used in a figurative sense, it is best to translate it literally in order to communicate God's view of his disobedient people as being compared to an unfaithful spouse. If this does not communicate accurately in the target language, the figurative use of "adulterous" could be translated as "unfaithful" or "immoral" or "like an unfaithful spouse."

amen

Related Ideas:

let it be so

Definition:

The term "amen" is a word used to emphasize or call attention to what a person has said. It is often used at the end of a prayer. Sometimes it is translated as "truly."

- When used at the end of a prayer, "amen" communicates agreement with the prayer or expresses a desire that the prayer be fulfilled.
- In his teaching, Jesus used "amen" to emphasize the truth of what he said. He often followed that by "and I say to you" to introduce another teaching that related to the previous teaching.
- When Jesus uses "amen" this way, some English versions (and the ULB) translate this as "verily" or "truly."

Translation Suggestions:

- Consider whether the target language has a special word or phrase that is used to emphasize something that has been said.
- When used at the end of a prayer or to confirm something, "amen" could be translated as "let it be so" or "may this happen" or "that is true."
- When Jesus says, "truly I tell you," this could also be translated as "Yes, I tell you sincerely" or "That is true, and I also tell you."
- The phrase "truly, truly I tell you" could be translated as "I tell you this very sincerely" or "I tell you this very earnestly" or "what I am telling you is true."

angel

Related Ideas:

archangel

Definition:

An angel is a powerful spirit being whom God created. Angels exist to serve God by doing whatever he tells them to do. The term "archangel" refers to the angel who rules or leads all the other angels.

- The word "angel" literally means "messenger."
- The term "archangel" literally means "chief messenger." The only angel referred to in the Bible as an "archangel" is Michael.
- In the Bible, angels gave messages to people from God. These messages included instructions about what God wanted the people to do.
- Angels also told people about events that were going to happen in the future or events that had already happened.
- Angels have God's authority as his representatives and sometimes in the Bible they spoke as if God himself was speaking.
- Other ways that angels serve God are by protecting and strengthening people.
- A special phrase, "angel of Yahweh," has more than one possible meaning: 1) It may mean "angel who represents Yahweh" or "messenger who serves Yahweh." 2) It may refer to Yahweh himself, who looked like an angel as he talked to a person. Either one of these meanings would explain the angel's use of "I" as if Yahweh himself was talking.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "angel" could include "messenger from God" or "God's heavenly servant" or "God's spirit messenger."
- The term "archangel" could be translated as "chief angel" or "head ruling angel" or "leader of the angels."
- Also consider how these terms are translated in a national language or another local language.
- The phrase "angel of Yahweh" should be translated using the words for "angel" and "Yahweh." This will allow for different interpretations of that phrase. Possible translations could include "angel from Yahweh" or "angel sent by Yahweh" or "Yahweh, who looked like an angel."

antichrist

Definition:

The term "antichrist" refers to a person or teaching that is against Jesus Christ and his work. There are many antichrists in the world.

- The apostle John wrote that a person is the antichrist if he deceives people by saying that Jesus is not the Messiah or if he denies that Jesus is both God and human.
- The Bible also teaches that there is a general spirit of antichrist in the world which opposes Jesus' work.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include a word or phrase that means "Christ-opposer" or "enemy of Christ" or "person who is against Christ."
- The phrase "spirit of the antichrist" could also be translated as "spirit that is against Christ" or "(someone) teaching lies about Christ" or "attitude of believing lies about Christ" or "spirit that teaches lies about Christ."

ark

Related Ideas:

chest

Definition:

The term "ark" literally refers to a rectangular wooden box that is made to hold or protect something. An ark can be large or small, depending on what it is being used for.

- In the English Bible, the word "ark" is first used to refer to the very large, rectangular, wooden boat that Noah built to escape the worldwide flood. The ark had a flat bottom, a roof, and walls.
- Ways to translate this term could include "very large boat" or "barge" or "cargo ship" or "large, box-shaped boat."
- The Hebrew word that is used to refer to this huge boat is the same word used for the basket or box that held baby Moses when his mother put him in the Nile River to hide him. In that case it is usually translated as "basket."
- In the phrase "ark of the covenant," a different Hebrew word is used for "ark." This could be translated as "box" or "chest" or "container."
- When choosing a term to translate "ark," it is important in each context to consider what size it is and what it is being used for.

ark of the covenant

Related Ideas:

ark of Yahweh, ark of the covenant decrees, ark of the covenant of Yahweh

Definition:

These terms refer to a special wooden chest, overlaid with gold, that contained the two stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were written. It also contained Aaron's staff and a jar of manna.

- The term "ark" here could be translated as "box" or "chest" or "container."
- The objects in this chest reminded the Israelites of God's covenant with them.
- The ark of the covenant was located in the "most holy place."
- God's presence was above the ark of the covenant in the most holy place of the tabernacle, where he spoke to Moses on behalf of the Israelites.
- During the time that the ark of the covenant was in the most holy place of the temple, the high priest was the only one who could approach the ark, once a year on the Day of Atonement.
- Many English versions translate the term "covenant decrees" literally as "testimony." This refers to the fact that the Ten Commandments were a testimony or witness to God's covenant with his people. It is also translated as "covenant law."

ash

Related Ideas:

powder

Definitions:

The term "ash" or "ashes" refers to the grey powdery substance that is left behind after wood is burned. It is sometimes used figuratively to refer to something that is worthless or useless.

- In the Bible sometimes the word "dust" is used when speaking about ashes. It can also refer to the fine, loose dirt that can form on dry ground.
- An "ash heap" is a pile of ashes.
- In ancient times, sitting in ashes was a sign of mourning or grieving.
- When grieving, it was the custom to wear rough, scratchy sackcloth and sit in ashes or sprinkle the ashes on the head.
- Putting ashes on the head was also a sign of humiliation or embarrassment.
- Striving for something worthless, is said to be like "feeding on ashes."
- When translating "ashes," use the word in the project language that refers to the burned-up remains after wood has burned.
- Note that an "ash tree" is a completely different term.

asleep

Related Ideas:

sleep, sleeper

Definition:

These terms can have figurative meanings relating to death.

- To "sleep" or "be asleep" can be a metaphor meaning to "be dead."
- The expression "fall asleep" means start sleeping, or, figuratively, die.

- To "sleep with one's fathers" means to die, as one's ancestors have, or to be dead, as one's ancestors are.
- To "lie down" with others who have died means to die, as they have died, or to be dead, as they are dead.
- The word "lie" often appears in connection with the idea of sleep. This "lie" refers to lying down on a bed or other sleeping place, not to saying things that are untrue.

The phrases "lie with" and "sleep with," when referring to what a man and a woman do together, is a euphemism for them having sexual relations.

Translation Suggestions:

- To "fall asleep" could be translated as to "suddenly become asleep" or to "start sleeping" or to "die," depending on its meaning.
- Note: It is especially important to keep the figurative expression in contexts where the audience did not understand the meaning. For example, when Jesus told his disciples that Lazarus had "fallen asleep" they thought he meant that Lazarus was just sleeping naturally. In this context, it would not make sense to translate this as "he died."
- Some project languages may have a different expression for death or dying which could be used if the expressions "sleep" and "asleep" do not make sense.

assembly

Related Ideas:

assemble together, bring together, call together, come together, community, congregation, crowd, gather, gathering, group, meet, meeting

Definition:

The term "assembly" usually refers to a group of people who come together to discuss problems, give advice, and make decisions.

- An assembly can be a group that is organized in an official and somewhat permanent way, or it can be a group of people who come together temporarily for a specific purpose or occasion.
- In the Old Testament there was a special kind of assembly called a "sacred assembly" in which the people of Israel would gather to worship Yahweh.
- Sometimes the term "assembly" referred to the Israelites in general, as a group.
- A large gathering of enemy soldiers was sometimes also referred to as an "assembly." This could be translated as "army."

- In the New Testament, an assembly of 70 Jewish leaders in major cities such as Jerusalem would meet to judge legal matters and to settle disputes between people. This assembly was known as the "Sanhedrin" or the "Council."

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, "assembly" could also be translated as "special gathering" or "congregation" or "council" or "army" or "large group."
- When the term "assembly" refers generally to the Israelites as a whole, it could also be translated as "community" or "people of Israel."

atonement

Related Ideas:

atone

Definition:

The terms "atone" and "atonement" refer to how God provided a sacrifice to pay for people's sins and to appease his wrath for sin.

- In Old Testament times, God allowed temporary atonement to be made for the sins of the Israelites by the offering of a blood sacrifice, which involved killing an animal.
- As recorded in the New Testament, Christ's death on the cross is the only true and permanent atonement for sin.
- When Jesus died, he took the punishment that people deserve because of their sin. He paid the atonement price with his sacrificial death.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "atone" could be translated by a word or phrase that means "pay for" or "provide payment for" or "cause someone's sins to be forgiven" or "make amends for a crime."
- Ways to translate "atonement" could include "payment" or "sacrifice to pay for sin" or "providing the means of forgiveness."
- Make sure the translation of this term does not refer to payment of money.

atonement lid

Definition:

The "atonement lid" was a slab of gold that was used to cover the top of the ark of the covenant. In many English translations, it is also referred to as an "atonement cover."

- The atonement lid was about 115 centimeters in length and 70 centimeters in width.
- Above the atonement lid were two gold cherubim with their wings touching.
- Yahweh said that he would meet with the Israelites above the atonement lid, under the outstretched wings of the cherubim. Only the high priest was permitted to meet with Yahweh in this way, as the representative of the people.
- Sometimes this atonement lid has been referred to as a "mercy seat" because it communicates God's mercy in coming down to redeem sinful human beings.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include "ark covering where God promises to redeem" or "place where God atones" or "lid of ark where God forgives and restores."
- Can also mean "place of propitiation."
- Compare this term with how you translated "atonement," "propitiation," and "redemption."

baptize

Related Ideas:

baptism

Definition:

In the New Testament, the terms "baptize" and "baptism" usually refer to ritually bathing a Christian with water to show that he has been cleansed from sin and has been united with Christ.

- Besides water baptism, the Bible talks about being "baptized with the Holy Spirit" and "baptized with fire."
- The term "baptism" is also used in the Bible to refer to going through great suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Christians have different views about how a person should be baptized with water. It is probably best to translate this term in a general way that allows for different ways of applying the water.
- Depending on the context, the term "baptize" could be translated as "purify," "pour out on," "plunge (or dip) into," "wash," or "spiritually cleanse." For example, "baptize you with water" could be translated as, "plunge you into water."
- The term "baptism" could be translated as "purification," "a pouring out," "a dipping," "a cleansing," or "a spiritual washing."
- When it refers to suffering, "baptism" could also be translated as "a time of terrible suffering" or "a cleansing through severe suffering."

basket

Related Ideas:

basketful, cage

Definition:

The term "basket" refers to a container made of woven material.

- In biblical times, baskets were probably woven with strong plant materials, such as wood from peeled tree branches or twigs.
- A basket could be coated with a waterproof substance so that it could float.
- When Moses was a baby, his mother made a waterproof basket to put him in and floated it among the reeds of the Nile River.
- The word translated as "basket" in that story is the same word that is translated as "ark" referring to the boat that Noah built. The common meaning of its use in these two contexts may be "floating container."

body

Related Ideas:

bodily, body of Christ, carcass, corpse

Definition:

The term "body" literally refers to the physical body of a person or animal. This term is also used figuratively to refer to an object or whole group that has individual members.

- Often the term "body" refers to a dead person. Sometimes this is referred to as a "dead body" or a "corpse." The dead body of an animal is called a "carcass."
- When Jesus said to the disciples at his last Passover meal, "This (bread) is my body," he was referring to his physical body that would be "broken" (killed) to pay for their sins.
- In the Bible, Christians as a group are referred to as the "body of Christ." Just as a physical body has many parts, the "body of Christ" has many individual members. Each individual believer has a special function in the body of Christ to help the whole group work together to serve God and bring him glory.
  - Jesus is also referred to as the "head" (leader) of the "body" of his believers. Just as a person's head tells his body what to do, so Jesus is the one who guides and directs Christians as members of his "body."

Translation Suggestions:

- The best way to translate this term would be with the word that is most commonly used to refer to a physical body in the project language. Make sure that the word used is not an offensive term.
- When referring collectively to believers, for some languages it may be more natural and accurate to say "spiritual body of Christ."
- When Jesus says, "This is my body," it is best to translate this literally, with a note to explain it if needed.
- Some languages may have a separate word when referring to a dead body, such as "corpse" for a person or "carcass" for an animal. Make sure the word used to translate this makes sense in the context and is acceptable.

bold

Related Ideas:

boldly, boldness, emboldened

Definition:

These terms all refer to having courage and confidence to speak the truth and do the right thing even when it is difficult or dangerous.

- A "bold" person is not afraid to say and do what is good and right, including defending people who are being mistreated. This could be translated as "courageous" or "fearless."
- In the New Testament, the disciples continued to "boldly" preach about Christ in public places, in spite of the danger of being put in jail or killed. This could be translated as "confidently" or "with strong courage" or "courageously."
- The "boldness" of these early disciples in speaking the good news of Christ's redeeming death on the cross resulted in the gospel being spread throughout Israel and nearby countries and finally, to the rest of the world. "Boldness" could also be translated as "confident courage."

born again

Related Ideas:

born from God, born from him, new birth

Definition:

The term "born again" was first used by Jesus to describe what it means for God to change a person from being dead spiritually to being alive spiritually. The terms "born of God" and "born of the Spirit" also refer to a person being given new spiritual life.

- All humans are born spiritually dead and are given a "new birth" when they accept Jesus Christ as their Savior.
- At the moment of the spiritual new birth, God's Holy Spirit begins to live in the new believer and empowers him to produce good spiritual fruit in his life.
- It is God's work to cause a person to be born again and become his child.
- Jesus uses the metaphor of being born again to speak of the time when he returns and rules over the earth.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate "born again" could include "born anew" or "born spiritually."
- It is best to translate this term literally and use the normal word in the language that would be used for being born.

- The term "new birth" might be translated as "spiritual birth."
- The phrase "born of God" could be translated as "caused by God to have new life like a newborn baby" or "given new life by God."
- In the same way, "born of the Spirit" could be translated as "given new life by the Holy Spirit" or "empowered by the Holy Spirit to become God's child" or "caused by the Spirit to have new life like a newborn baby."

Definition:

To bow means to bend over to humbly express respect and honor toward someone. To "bow down" means to bend over or kneel down very low, often with face and hands toward the ground.

- Other expressions include "bow the knee" (meaning to kneel) and "bow the head" (meaning to bend the head forward in humble respect or in sorrow).
- Bowing down can also be a sign of distress or mourning. Someone who is "bowed down" has been brought to a low position of humility.
- Often a person will bow in the presence of someone who is of higher status or greater importance, such as kings and other rulers.
- Bowing down before God is an expression of worship to him.
- In the Bible, people bowed down to Jesus when they realized from his miracles and teaching that he had come from God.
- The Bible says that when Jesus comes back someday, everyone will bow the knee to worship him.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, this term could be translated with a word or phrase that means "bend forward" or "bend the head" or "kneel."

- The term "bow down" could be translated as "kneel down" or "prostrate oneself."

bread

Related Ideas:

food, loaf of bread

Definition:

Bread is a food made from flour mixed with water and oil to form a dough. The dough is then shaped into a loaf and baked.

- When the term "loaf" occurs by itself, it means "loaf of bread."
- Bread dough is usually made with something that makes it rise, such as yeast.
- Bread can also be made without yeast so that it does not rise. In the Bible this is called "unleavened bread" and was used for the Jews' passover meal.
- Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, this term is also used in the Bible to refer to food in general.
- The term "bread of the presence" referred to twelve loaves of bread that were placed on a golden table in the tabernacle or temple building as a sacrifice to God. These loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel and were only for the priests to eat. This could be translated as "bread showing that God lived among them."
- The figurative term "bread from heaven" referred to the special white food called "manna" that God provided for the Israelites when they were wandering through the desert.
- Jesus also called himself the "bread that came down from heaven" and the "bread of life."
- When Jesus and his disciples were eating the Passover meal together before his death, he compared the unleavened Passover bread to his body which would be wounded and killed on a cross.
- Many times the term "bread" can be translated more generally as "food."

breastpiece

Definition:

The term "breastplate" refers to a piece of armor covering the front of the chest to protect a soldier during battle. The term "breastpiece" refers to a special piece of clothing that the Israelite high priest wore over the front part of his chest.

- A "breastplate" used by a soldier could be made of wood, metal, or animal skin. It was made to prevent arrows, spears, or swords from piercing the chest of the soldier.
- The "breastpiece" worn by the Israelite high priest was made of cloth and had valuable gems attached to it. The priest wore this when he was performing his duties of service to God in the temple.
- Other ways to translate the term "breastplate" could include "metal protective chest covering" or "armor piece protecting the chest."
- The term "breastpiece" could be translated with a word that means "priestly clothing covering the chest" or "priestly garment piece" or "front piece of priest's clothing."

breath

Related Ideas:

breathe

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms "breathe" and "breath" are often used figuratively to refer to giving life or having life.

- The Bible teaches that God "breathed into" Adam the breath of life. It was at that point that Adam became a living soul.
- When Jesus breathed on the disciples and told them to "receive the Spirit," he was probably literally breathing out air onto them to symbolize the Holy Spirit coming to them.
- Sometimes the terms "breathing" and "breathing out" are used to refer to speaking.
- The figurative expression "breath of God" or "breath of Yahweh" often refers to God's wrath being poured out on rebellious or godless nations. It communicates his power.

Translation Suggestions

- The expression "breathed his last" is a figurative way of saying "he died." It could also be translated as "he took his last breath" or "he stopped breathing and died" or "he breathed in air one last time."
- Describing the Scriptures as "God-breathed" means that God spoke or inspired the words of the Scriptures which human authors then wrote down. It is probably best, if possible, to translate "God-breathed" somewhat literally since it is difficult to communicate the exact meaning of this.
- If a literal translation of "God-breathed" is not acceptable, other ways to translate this could include "inspired by God" or "authored by God" or "spoken by God." It could also be said that "God breathed out the words of Scripture."
- The expressions "put breath in" or "breathe life into" or "gives breath to" could be translated as "cause to breathe" or "make alive again" or "enable them to live and breathe" or "give life to."
- If possible, it is best to translate "breath of God" with the literal word that is used for "breath" in the language. If God cannot be said to have "breath," this could be translated as "God's power" or "God's speech."
- The expression "catch my breath" or "get my breath" could be translated as "relax in order to breathe more slowly" or "stop running in order to breathe normally."
- The expression "is only a breath" means "lasts a very short time."
- Similarly the expression "man is a single breath" means "people live a very short time" or "the lives of human beings are very short, like a single breath" or "compared to God, the life of a person seems as short as the time it takes to breathe in one breath of air."

bronze

Definition:

The term "bronze" refers to a kind of metal that is made from melting together the metals copper and tin. It has a dark brown color, slightly red.

- Bronze resists water corrosion and is a good conductor of heat.
- In ancient times, bronze was used for making tools, weapons, artwork, altars, cooking pots, and soldiers' armor, among other things.
- Many building materials for the tabernacle and temple were made of bronze.
- Idols of false gods were also often made of bronze metal.
- Bronze objects were made by first melting the bronze metal into a liquid and then pouring it into molds. This process was called "casting."

brother

Related Ideas:

brotherhood

Definition:

The term "brother" usually refers to a male person who shares at least one biological parent with another person.

- In the Old Testament, the term "brothers" is also used as a general reference to relatives, such as members of the same tribe, clan, or people group.
- In the New Testament, the apostles often used "brothers" to refer to fellow Christians, including both men and women, since all believers in Christ are members of one spiritual family, with God as their heavenly Father.
- A few times in the New Testament, the apostles used the term "sister" when referring specifically to a fellow Christian who was a woman, or to emphasize that both men and women are being included. For example, James emphasizes that he is talking about all believers when he refers to "a brother or sister who is in need of food or clothing."

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological brother, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- In the Old Testament especially, when "brothers" is used very generally to refer to members of the same family, clan, or people group, possible translations could include "relatives" or "clan members" or "fellow Israelites."
- In the context of referring to a fellow believer in Christ, this term could be translated as "brother in Christ" or "spiritual brother."
- If both males and females are being referred to and "brother" would give a wrong meaning, then a more general kinship term could be used that would include both males and females.
- Other ways to translate this term so that it refers to both male and female believers could be "fellow believers" or "Christian brothers and sisters."
- Make sure to check the context to determine whether only men are being referred to, or whether both men and women are included.

burial

Definition:

The term "bury" usually refers to putting a dead body into a hole or other burial place. The term "burial" is the act of burying something or can be used to describe a place used to bury something.

- Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
- Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin, before burying it.
- In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
- The terms "burial place" or "burial room" or "burial chamber" or "burial cave" are all ways to refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
- Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
- The phrase "buried his face" usually means "covered his face with his hands."
- Sometimes the word "hide" can mean "bury" as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

call

Related Ideas:

appeal to, invite, summon

Definition:

The terms "call to" and "call out" mean to say something loudly to someone who is not nearby. To "call" someone means to summon that person. There are also some other meanings.

- To "call out" to someone means to shout or speak loudly to someone far away. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- Often in the Bible, "call" has a meaning of "summon" or "command to come" or "request to come."
- God calls people to come to him and be his people. This is their "calling."
- When God "calls" people, it means that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.
- This term is also used in the context of naming someone. For example, "His name is called John," means, "He is named John" or "His name is John."
- To be "called by the name of" means that someone is given the name of someone else. God says that he has called his people by his name.
- A different expression, "I have called you by name" means that God has specifically chosen that person.
- To appeal to someone is to ask someone to do something.
- To invite someone is to ask them to do something that they might like to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "call" could be translated by a word that means "summon," which includes the idea of being intentional or purposeful in calling.
- The expression "call out to you" could be translated as "ask you for help" or "pray to you urgently."
- When the Bible says that God has "called" us to be his servants, this could be translated as, "specially chose us" or "appointed us" to be his servants.
- "You must call his name" can also be translated as, "you must name him."
- "His name is called" could also be translated as, "his name is" or "he is named."
- To "call out" could be translated as, "say loudly" or "shout" or "say with a loud voice." Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.
- The expression "your calling" could be translated as "your purpose" or "God's purpose for you" or "God's special work for you."
- To "call on the name of the Lord" could be translated as "seek the Lord and depend on him" or "trust in the Lord and obey him."
- To "call on" an official is to tell him to do what he is supposed to do as part of his job.

- To "call for" something could be translated by "demand" or "ask for" or "command."
- The expression "you are called by my name" could be translated as, "I have given you my name, showing that you belong to me."
- When God says, "I have called you by name," this could be translated as, "I know you and have chosen you."

camel

Definition:

A camel is a large, four legged animal with one or two humps on its back.

- In Bible times, the camel was the largest animal found in Israel and the surrounding regions.
- The camel was used mainly for carrying people and burdens.
- Some people groups also used camels for food but not the Israelites because God said that camels were unclean and were not to be eaten.
- Camels were valuable because they could move swiftly in the sand and could live without food and water for several weeks at a time.

chaff

Related Ideas:

straw

Definition:

Chaff is a dry protective covering of a grain seed. The chaff is not good for food, so people separate it from the seed and throw it away.

- Often, the chaff is separated from the seed by throwing the heads of grain up into the air. The wind blows the chaff away and the seed falls on the ground. This process is called "winnowing."
- In the Bible, this term is also used figuratively to refer to evil people and evil, worthless things.
- "Straw" is the stalk of the grain left after the the seed has been taken away.

cherubim

Related Ideas:

cherub

Definition:

The term "cherub," and its plural form "cherubim," refer to a special type of heavenly being that God created. Cherubim have wings and can fly. Ezekiel also called them "living creatures" and described them as having four faces: the faces of a man, a lion, an ox, and an eagle.

- The cherubim display the glory and power of God and seem to be guardians of sacred things.
- After Adam and Eve sinned, God placed cherubim with flaming swords at the east side of the Garden of Eden so that people could no longer get to the tree of life.
- God commanded the Israelites to carve two cherubim facing each other, with their wings touching, over the atonement lid of the ark of the covenant.
- He also told them to weave pictures of the cherubim into the curtains of the tabernacle.
- Cherubim are sometimes thought of as being angels, but the Bible does not clearly state that.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "cherubim" could be translated as "creatures with wings" or "guardians with wings" or "winged spiritual guardians" or "holy, winged guardians."
- A "cherub" should be translated as the singular of cherubim, as in, "creature with wings" or "winged spiritual guardian," for example.
- Make sure that the translation of this term is different from the translation of "angel."
- Also consider how this term is translated or written in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

chief priests

Definition:

The chief priests were important Jewish religious leaders during the time that Jesus lived on earth.

- The chief priests were responsible for everything needed for the worship services at the temple. They were also in charge of the money that was given to the temple.
- They were higher in rank and power than the ordinary priests. Only the high priest had more authority.
- The chief priests were some of Jesus' main enemies and they strongly influenced the Roman leaders to arrest and kill him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "chief priests" could also be translated as "head priests" or "leading priests" or "ruling priests."
- Make sure this term is translated differently from the term "high priest."

children

Related Ideas:

child, childhood, childless

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "child" is often used to generally refer to someone who is young in age, including an infant.

- The word "childhood" refers to the time that a person is a child.
- The word "childless" describes a person who has no children.
- The word "children" is the plural form of "child."

The words "child" and "children" also have several figurative uses.

- In the Bible, disciples or followers are sometimes called "children."
- Often the term "children" is used to refer to a person's descendants.
- The phrase "children of" can refer to being characterized by something. Some examples of this would be:
  - children of the light
  - children of obedience
  - children of the devil
- This term can also refer to people who are like spiritual children. For example, "children of God" refers to people who belong to God through faith in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "children" could be translated as "descendants" when it is referring to a person's great-grandchildren or great-great-grandchildren, etc.
- Depending on the context, "children of" could be translated as, "people who have the characteristics of" or "people who behave like."
- If possible, the phrase, "children of God" should be translated literally since an important biblical theme is that God is our heavenly Father. A possible translation alternate would be, "people who belong to God" or "God's spiritual children."
- When Jesus calls his disciples "children," this could also be translated as, "dear friends" or "my beloved disciples."
- When Paul and John refer to believers in Jesus as "children," this could also be translated as "dear fellow believers."
- The phrase, "children of the promise" could be translated as, "people who have received what God promised them."

chronicles

Definition:

The term "chronicle" refers to a written record of events over a period of time.

- Two Old Testament books are called "First Book of the Chronicles" and "Second Book of the Chronicles."
- The books called "Chronicles" record part of the history of the Israelite people, beginning with a list of people in every generation since Adam.
- The "First Book of the Chronicles" records the end of King Saul's life and the events of King David's reign.
- The "Second Book of the Chronicles" records the reigns of King Solomon and several other kings, including the building of the temple and the separation of the northern kingdom of Israel from the southern kingdom of Judah.
- The end of 2 Chronicles describes the beginning of the Babylonian exile.

church

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term "church" refers to a local group of believers in Jesus who regularly met together to pray and hear God's word preached. The term "the Church" often refers to all Christians.

- This term literally refers to a "called out" assembly or congregation of people who meet together for a special purpose.
- When this term is used to refer to all believers everywhere in the whole body of Christ, some Bible translations capitalize the first letter ("Church") to distinguish it from the local church.
- Often the believers in a particular city would meet together in someone's home. These local churches were given the name of the city such as the "church at Ephesus."
- In the Bible, "church" does not refer to a building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "church" could be translated as a "gathering together" or "assembly" or "congregation" or "ones who meet together."
- The word or phrase that is used to translate this term should also be able to refer to all believers, not just one small group.
- Make sure that the translation of "church" does not just refer to a building.
- The term used to translate "assembly" in the Old Testament could also be used to translate this term.
- Also consider how it is translated in a local or national Bible translation.

circumcise

Related Ideas:

circumcision, uncircumcision

Definition:

The term "circumcise" means to cut off the foreskin of a man or male child. A circumcision ceremony may be performed in connection with this.

- God commanded Abraham to circumcise every male among his family and servants as a sign of God's covenant with them.
- God also commanded Abraham's descendants to continue to do this for every baby boy born into their households.
- The phrase, "circumcision of the heart" refers figuratively to the "cutting away" or removal of sin from a person.
- In a spiritual sense, "the circumcised" refers to people whom God has purified from sin through the blood of Jesus and who are his people.
- The term "uncircumcised" refers to those who have not been circumcised physically. It can also refer figuratively to those who have not been circumcised spiritually, who do not have a relationship with God.

The terms "uncircumcised" and "uncircumcision" refer to a male who has not been physically circumcised. These terms are also used figuratively.

- Egypt was a nation that also required circumcision. So when God talks about Egypt being defeated by the "uncircumcised," he is referring to people whom the Egyptians despised for not being circumcised.
- The Bible refers to people who have an "uncircumcised heart" or who are "uncircumcised in heart." This is a figurative way of saying that these people are not God's people, and are stubbornly disobedient to him.
- If a word for circumcision is used or known in the language, "uncircumcised" could be translated as "not circumcised."

- The expression "the uncircumcision" could be translated as "people who are not circumcised" or "people who do not belong to God," depending on the context.
- Other ways to translate figurative senses of this term could include "not God's people" or "rebellious like those who don't belong to God" or "people who have no sign of belonging to God."
- The expression "uncircumcised in heart" could be translated as "stubbornly rebellious" or "refusing to believe." However, if possible it is best to keep the expression or a similar one since spiritual circumcision is an important concept.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the culture of the target language performs circumcisions on males, the word used to refer to this should be used for this term.
- Other ways to translate this term would be, "cut around" or "cut in a circle" or "cut off the foreskin."
- In cultures where circumcision is not known, it may be necessary to explain it in a footnote or glossary.
- Make sure the term used to translate this does not refer to females. It may be necessary to translate this with a word or phrase that includes the meaning of "male."

Definition:

The term "clean" literally means to not have any dirt or stain. In the Bible, words like "clean" and "washed" are often used figuratively to mean, "pure," "holy," "free from sin," or "innocent".

- "Cleanse" is the process of making something "clean." It could also be translated as "wash" or "purify."
- In the Old Testament, God told the Israelites which animals he had specified as ritually "clean" and which ones were "unclean." Only the clean animals were permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice. In this context, the term "clean" means that the animal was acceptable to God for use as a sacrifice.
- A person who had certain skin diseases would be unclean until the skin was healed enough to no longer be contagious. Instructions for cleansing the skin had to be obeyed in order for that person to be declared "clean" again.
- Sometimes "clean" is used figuratively to refer to moral purity.

In the Bible, the term "unclean" is used figuratively to refer to things that God declared to be unfit for his people to touch, eat, or sacrifice.

- God gave the Israelites instructions about which animals were "clean" and which ones were "unclean." The unclean animals were not permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice.
- People with certain skin diseases were said to be "unclean" until they were healed.
- If the Israelites touched something "unclean," they themselves would be considered unclean for a certain period of time.
- Obeying God's commands about not touching or eating unclean things kept the Israelites set apart for God's service.
- This physical and ritual uncleanness was also symbolic of moral uncleanness.
- In another figurative sense, "unclean spirit" refers to an evil spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

Translating "clean":

- This term could be translated with the common word for "clean" or "pure" (in the sense of being not dirty).
- Other ways to translate this could include, "ritually clean" or "acceptable to God."
- "Cleanse" could be translated by "wash" or "purify."
- Make sure that the words used for "clean" and "cleanse" can also be understood in a figurative sense.

Translating "unclean":

- The term "unclean" could also be translated as "not clean" or "unfit in God's eyes" or "physically unclean" or "defiled."
- When referring to a demon as an unclean spirit, "unclean" could be translated as "evil" or "defiled."
- The translation of this term should allow for spiritual uncleanness. It should be able to refer to anything that God declared as unfit for touching, eating, or sacrifice.

clothed

Related Ideas:

cloth, clothe, cover, dressed, garment, put on, unclothed, wardrobe, wear

Definition:

When used figuratively in the Bible, "clothed with" means to be endowed or equipped with something. To "clothe" oneself with something means to seek to have a certain character quality.

- In the same way that clothing is outside your body and is visible to all, when you are "clothed" with a certain character quality, others can readily see it. To "clothe yourself with kindness" means to let your actions be so characterized by kindness that it is easily seen by everyone.
- To be "clothed with power from on high" means to have power given to you.
- This term is also used to express negative experiences, such as "clothed with shame" or "clothed with terror."
- All of the clothes a person wears is called his "wardrobe."

Translation Suggestions:

- If possible, it is best to keep the literal figure of speech, "clothe yourselves with." Another way to translate this could be "put on" if this refers to putting on clothes.
- If that does not give the correct meaning, other ways to translate "clothed with" could be "showing" or "manifesting" or "filled with" or "having the quality of."
- The term "clothe yourself with" could also be translated as "cover yourself with" or "behave in a way that shows."

Definition:

The terms "comfort" and "comforter" refer to helping someone who is suffering physical or emotional pain.

- A person who comforts someone is called a "comforter."
- In the Old Testament, the term "comfort" is used to describe how God is kind and loving to his people and helps them when they are suffering.
- In the New Testament, it says that God will comfort his people through the Holy Spirit. Those who receive the comfort are then enabled to give the same comfort to others who are suffering.
- The expression "comforter of Israel" referred to the Messiah who would come to rescue his people.
- Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as the "Comforter" who helps believers in Jesus.
- To "appease" someone is to do something that causes that person to no longer be angry about the wrong that someone else has done to him.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "comfort" could also be translated as, "ease the pain of" or "help (someone) overcome grief" or "encourage" or "console."
- A phrase such as "our comfort" could be translated as "our encouragement" or "our consoling of (someone)" or "our help in times of grieving."
- The term "comforter" could be translated as "person who comforts" or "someone who helps ease pain" or "person who encourages."
- When the Holy Spirit is called "the Comforter" this could also be translated as "the Encourager" or "the Helper" or "the One who helps and guides."
- The phrase "comforter of Israel" could be translated as, "the Messiah, who comforts Israel."

command

Related Ideas:

commandment, forbid, order, requirement, solemn command

Definition:

The term to "command" means to order someone to do something. A "command" or "commandment" is what the person was ordered to do.

- Although these terms have basically the same meaning, "commandment" often refers to certain commands of God which are more formal and permanent, such as the "Ten Commandments."
- A command can be positive ("Honor your parents") or negative ("Do not steal").
- To "take command" means to "take control" or "take charge" of something or someone.
- To "forbid" is to command that someone not do something.

Translation Suggestions

- It is best to translate this term differently from the term "law." Also compare with the definitions of "decree" and "statute."
- Some translators may prefer to translate "command" and "commandment" with the same word in their language.
- Others may prefer to use a special word for commandment that refers to lasting, formal commands that God has made.

contempt

Related Ideas:

contemptible, have no standing, insolence, not worth listening to

Definitions:

The term "contempt" refers to a deep disrespect and dishonor that is shown toward something or someone. Something that is greatly dishonorable is called "contemptible."

- A person or behavior that shows open disrespect for God is also called "contemptible" and could be translated as "greatly disrespectful" or "completely dishonorable" or "deserving scorn."
- To "hold in contempt" means to regard someone as having less value or to judge someone as less worthy than oneself.
- The following expressions have a similar meaning: "have contempt for" or "show contempt for" or "be in contempt of" or "treat with contempt." These all mean to "strongly disrespect" or "strongly dishonor" something or someone by what is said and done.
- When King David sinned by committing adultery and murder, God said that David had "shown contempt for" God. It means he had greatly disrespected and dishonored God by doing that.

cornerstone

Definition:

The term "cornerstone" refers to a large stone that has been specially cut and placed in the corner of the foundation of a building.

- All the other stones of the building are measured and placed in relation to the cornerstone.
- It is very important for the strength and stability of the whole structure.
- In the New Testament, the Assembly of believers is metaphorically compared to a building which has Jesus Christ as its "cornerstone."
- In the same way that the cornerstone of a building supports and determines the position of the whole building, so Jesus Christ is the cornerstone on which the Assembly of believers is founded and supported.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "cornerstone" could also be translated as "main building stone" or "foundation stone."
- Consider whether the target language has a term for a part of a building's foundation that is the main support. If so, this term could be used.
- Another way to translate this would be, "a foundation stone used for the corner of a building."
- It is important to keep the fact that this is a large stone, used as a solid and secure building material. If stones are not used for constructing buildings, there may be another word that could be used that means "large stone" (such as "boulder") but it should also have the idea of being well-formed and made to fit.

council

Definition:

A council is a group of people who meet to discuss, give advice, and make decisions about important matters.

- A council is usually organized in an official and somewhat permanent way for a specific purpose, such as making decisions about legal matters.
- The "Jewish Council" in Jerusalem, also known as the "Sanhedrin," had 70 members, which included Jewish leaders such as chief priests, elders, scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees who met regularly to decide matters of Jewish law. It was this council of religious leaders who put Jesus on trial and decided that he should be killed.
- There were also smaller Jewish councils in other cities.
- The apostle Paul was brought before a Roman council when he was arrested for teaching the gospel.
- Depending on the context, the word "council" could also be translated as "legal assembly" or "political assembly."
- To be "in council" means to be in a special meeting to decide something.
- Note that this is a different word than "counsel," which means, "advice."

court

Related Ideas:

courtyard

Definition:

The terms "courtyard" and "court" refer to an enclosed area that is open to the sky and surrounded by walls. The term "court" also refers to a place where judges decide legal and criminal matters.

- The tabernacle was surrounded by one courtyard which was enclosed by walls made of thick, cloth curtains.

- The temple complex had three inner courtyards: one for the priests, one for Jewish men, and one for Jewish women.
- These inner courtyards were surrounded by a low stone wall that separated them from an outer courtyard where Gentiles were permitted to worship.
- The courtyard of a house was an open area in the middle of the house.
- The phrase "king's court" can refer to his palace or to a place in his palace where he makes judgments.
- The expression, "courts of Yahweh" is a figurative way of referring to Yahweh's dwelling place or to the place where people go to worship Yahweh.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "courtyard" could be translated as "enclosed space" or "walled-in land" or "temple grounds" or "temple enclosure."
- Sometimes the term "temple" may need to be translated as "temple courtyards" or "temple complex" so that it is clear that the courtyards are being referred to, not the temple building.
- The expression, "courts of Yahweh" could be translated as, "place where Yahweh lives" or "place where Yahweh is worshiped."
- The term used for a king's court could also be used to refer to Yahweh's court.

covenant

Related Ideas:

agreed, contract, new covenant, will

Definition:

A covenant is a formal, binding agreement between two parties that one or both parties must fulfill.

- This agreement can be between individuals, between groups of people, or between God and people.
- When people make a covenant with each other, they promise that they will do something, and they must do it.
- Examples of human covenants include marriage covenants, business agreements or contracts, and treaties between countries.
- Throughout the Bible, God made several different covenants with his people.

- In some of the covenants, God promised to fulfill his part without conditions. For example, when God established his covenant with mankind promising to never destroy the earth again with a worldwide flood, this promise had no conditions for people to fulfill.
- In other covenants, God promised to fulfill his part only if the people obeyed him and fulfilled their part of the covenant.

The term "new covenant" refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God's "new covenant" was explained in the part of the Bible called the "New Testament."
- This new covenant is in contrast to the "old" or "former" covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people's sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts of those who become believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and to begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, as it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, "binding agreement" or "formal commitment" or "pledge" or "contract."
- Some languages may have different words for covenant depending on whether one party or both parties have made a promise they must keep. If the covenant is one-sided, it could be translated as "promise" or "pledge."
- Make sure the translation of this term does not sound like people proposed the covenant. In all cases of covenants between God and people, it was God who initiated the covenant.
- The term "new covenant" could be translated as "new formal agreement" or "new pact" or "new contract."
- The word "new" in these expressions has the meaning of "fresh" or "new kind of" or "another."

covenant faithfulness

Related Ideas:

covenant loyalty, loving kindness, steadfast love, unfailing love

Definition:

This term is used to describe God's commitment to fulfill the promises that he made to his people.

- God made promises to the Israelites in formal agreements called "covenants."
- The "covenant faithfulness" or "covenant loyalty" of Yahweh refers to the fact that he keeps his promises to his people.
- God's faithfulness to keep his covenant promises is an expression of his grace toward his people.
- The term "loyalty" is another word that refers to being committed and dependable, to do and say what has been promised, and what will benefit someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- The way this term is translated will also depend on how the terms "covenant" and "faithfulness" are translated.
- Other ways to translate this term could include, "faithful love" or "loyal, committed love" or "loving dependability."

COW

Related Ideas:

bull, calf, cattle, heifer, ox, oxen

Definition:

The terms "cow," "bull," "heifer," "ox," and "cattle" all refer to a kind of large, four-legged bovine animal that eats grass.

- The female of this kind of animal is called a "cow," the male is a "bull," and their offspring is a "calf."
- In the Bible, cattle were among the "clean" animals that the people could eat and use for sacrifice. They were primarily raised for their meat and milk.

A "heifer" is an adult female cow that has not yet given birth to a calf.

An "ox" is a type of cattle that is specifically trained to do agricultural work. The plural of this term is "oxen." Usually oxen are male and have been castrated.

- Throughout the Bible, oxen were depicted as animals tied together by a yoke to pull a cart or a plow.
- Having oxen work together under a yoke was such a common occurrence in the Bible that the phrase to "be under a yoke" became a metaphor for hard work and labor.
- A bull is also a male type of cattle, but it has not been castrated and has not been trained as a work animal.

create

Related Ideas:

creation, creator, workmanship

Definition:

The term "create" means to make something or to cause something to be. Whatever is created is called a "creation." God is called the "Creator" because he caused everything in the entire universe to come into existence.

- When this term is used to refer to God creating the world, it means he made it out of nothing.
- When human beings "create" something, it means they made it out of things that already existed.
- Sometimes "create" is used in a figurative way to describe something abstract, such as creating peace, or creating a pure heart in someone.
- The term "creation" can refer to the very beginning of the world when God first created everything. It can also be used to refer generally to everything that God created. Sometimes the word "creation" refers more specifically to just the people in the world.
- "Workmanship" is anything that a person makes.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may have to directly say that God created the world "out of nothing" to make sure this meaning is clear.
- The phrase, "since the creation of the world" means, "since the time when God created the world."
- A similar phrase, "at the beginning of creation" could be translated as, "when God created the world at the beginning of time," or "when the world was first created."
- To preach the good news to "all creation" means to preach the good news to "all people everywhere on earth."
- The phrase "Let all creation rejoice" means "Let everything that God created rejoice."
- Depending on the context, "create" could be translated as "make" or "cause to be" or "make out of nothing."
- The term "the Creator" could be translated as "the One who created everything" or "God, who made the whole world."
- Phrases like "your Creator" could be translated as "God, who created you."

creature

Definition:

The term "creature" refers to all the living beings that God created, both humans and animals.

- The prophet Ezekiel described seeing "living creatures" in his vision of the glory of God. He did not know what they were, so he gave them this very general label.

- Note that the term "creation" has a different meaning since it includes everything God created, both living and nonliving things (such as land, water, and stars). The term "creature" only includes living things.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, "creature" could be translated as, "being" or "living being" or "created being."
- The plural, "creatures" could be translated as "all living things" or "people and animals" or "animals" or "human beings."

CROSS

Definition:

In Bible times, a cross was an upright wooden post stuck into the ground, with a horizontal wooden beam attached to it near the top.

- During the time of the Roman Empire, the Roman government would execute criminals by tying or nailing them to a cross and leaving them there to die.
- Jesus was falsely accused of crimes he did not commit and the Romans put him to death on a cross.
- Note that this is a completely different word from the verb "cross" that means to go over to the other side of something, such as a river or lake.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using a term in the target language that refers to the shape of a cross.
- Consider describing the cross as something on which people were killed, using phrases such as "execution post" or "tree of death."
- Also consider how this word is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

CROWN

Related Ideas:

crest, garland, wreath

Definition:

A crown is a decorative, circular headpiece worn on the head of rulers such as kings and queens. The term to "crown" means to put a crown on someone's head; figuratively it means to "honor."

- Crowns are usually made of gold or silver, and are embedded with precious gems such as emeralds and rubies.
- A crown is a symbol of a king's power and wealth.
- By contrast, the crown made of thorn branches that the Roman soldiers placed on Jesus' head was meant to mock him and hurt him.
- If a person is "crowned," this means that a crown was put on his head.
- In ancient times, winners of athletic contests would be awarded a crown made out of olive branches. The apostle Paul mentions this crown in his second letter to Timothy.
- A "crest" is a crown or a piece of metal or expensive wood with a design on it or something else that people recognize as a symbol of the king or another official. A person whom the official wants to honor will wear the "crest" or put it on the animal that he rides or that pulls his chariot.
- A "garland" and "a wreath" are a crown or necklace made of flowers or leaves.

Sometimes "crown" is used figuratively.

- The figurative use of to "crown" means to honor someone. We honor God by obeying him and praising him to others. This is like putting a crown on him and acknowledging that he is King.
- Pauls calls fellow believers his "joy and crown." In this expression, "crown" is used figuratively to mean that Paul has been greatly blessed and honored by how these believers have remained faithful in serving God.

Definition:

The term "curse" means to cause negative things to happen to the person or thing that is being cursed.

- A curse can be a statement that harm will happen to someone or something.
- To curse someone can also be an expression of desire that bad things will happen to them.
- It can also refer to the punishment or other negative things that someone causes to happen to someone.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as "cause bad things to happen to" or "declare that something bad will happen to" or "swear to cause evil things to happen to."
- In the context of God sending curses on his disobedient people, it could be translated as, "punish by allowing bad things to happen."
- The term "cursed" when used to describe people could be translated as, "(this person) will experience much trouble."
- The phrase "cursed be" could be translated as, "May (this person) experience great difficulties."
- The phrase, "Cursed is the ground" could be translated as, "The soil will not be very fertile."
- "Cursed be the day I was born" could also be translated as, "I am so miserable it would have been better not to be born."
- However, if the target language has the phrase "cursed be" and it has the same meaning, then it is good to keep the same phrase.

curtain

Related Ideas:

covering, screen

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "curtain" refers to a very thick, heavy piece of material used in the making of the tabernacle and the temple.

- The tabernacle was built using four layers of curtains for the top and sides. These curtain coverings were made of cloth or animal skins.
- Cloth curtains were also used to form a wall surrounding the tabernacle courtyard. These curtains were made out of "linen" which was a kind of cloth made out of the flax plant.
- In both the tabernacle and temple building, a thick cloth curtain hung between the holy place and the most holy place. It was this curtain that was miraculously torn into two parts when Jesus died.
- The "screens" were curtains hung at the entrance to the courtyard of the tabernacle, at the entrance to the tabernacle, and in front of the ark of the covenant.

Translation Suggestions:

- Since modern-day curtains are very different from the curtains used in the Bible, it may be more clear to use a different word or to add words that describe the curtains.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, "curtain covering" or "covering" or "piece of thick cloth" or "animal skin covering" or "hanging piece of cloth."

cut off

Related Ideas:

chop down, cut down, cut in two, pluck out, shear, tear off

Definition:

The expression "cut off" literally means to use a sharp instrument to remove a part of something. This can refer to, for example, removing a limb from a tree or an arm or leg from a person, or to chopping a tree completely down.

The expression "cut off" is also used to refer to God causing a river to stop flowing.

The metaphor "cut off" refers to people or God separating a person from his nation or community either by driving him away or by killing him.

To "shear" is to cut the hair off of an animal.

To "pluck" is to separate a part of something from the rest by pulling it off or out.

- In the Old Testament, disobeying God's commands resulted in being cut off, or separated, from God's people and from his presence.
- God also said he would "cut off" or destroy the non-Israelite nations, because they did not worship or obey him and were enemies of Israel.

cypress

Definition:

The term "cypress" refers to a kind of fir tree that was plentiful in the regions where people lived in Bible times, especially countries bordering the Mediterranean Sea.

- Cyprus and Lebanon are two places that are specifically mentioned in the Bible as having many cypress trees.
- The wood that Noah used to build the ark may have been cypress.
- Because cypress wood is sturdy and long-lasting, it was used by ancient peoples for building boats and other structures.

darkness

Related Ideas:

dark, darken, gloom

Definition:

The terms "darkness" and "gloom" literally means an absence of light. There are also several figurative meanings of these terms:

- As a metaphor, "darkness" means "impurity" or "evil" or "spiritual blindness."
- It also refers to anything related to sin and moral corruption.
- The expression "dominion of darkness" refers to all that is evil and ruled by Satan.
- The term "darkness" can also be used as a metaphor for death.
- People who do not know God are said to be "living in darkness," which means they do not understand or practice righteousness.
- God is light (righteousness) and the darkness (evil) cannot overcome that light.
- The place of punishment for those who reject God is sometimes referred to as "outer darkness."
- The term "gloom" can be used as a metaphor for sadness.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally, with a word in the project language that refers to the absence of light. This could also be a term that refers to the darkness of a room with no light or to the time of day when there is no light.
- For the figurative uses, it is also important to keep the image of darkness in contrast to light, as a way to describe evil and deception in contrast to goodness and truth.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could be, "darkness of night" (as opposed to "light of day") or "not seeing anything, like at night" or "evil, like a dark place".

daughter of Zion

Definition:

"Daughter of Zion" is a figurative way of referring to the people of Israel. It is usually used in prophecies.

- In the Old Testament, "Zion" is often used as another name for the city of Jerusalem.
- Both "Zion" and "Jerusalem" are also used to refer to Israel.
- The term "Daughter" is a term of endearment or affection. It is a metaphor for the patience and care that God has for his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate this could include "my daughter Israel, from Zion" or "people from Zion, who are like a daughter to me" or "Zion, my dear people Israel."
- It is best to keep the term "Zion" in this expression since it is used many times in the Bible. A note could be included in the translation to explain its figurative meaning and prophetic use.
- It is also better to keep the term "Daughter" in the translation of this expression, as long as it is understood correctly.

day of the Lord

Related Ideas:

day of Christ Jesus, day of Jesus Christ, day of Yahweh, day of Yahweh's wrath

Description:

The Old Testament term "day of Yahweh" is used to refer to one or more specific times when God would punish people for their sin.

- The New Testament term "day of the Lord" usually refers to the day or time when the Lord Jesus will come back to judge people at the end of time.
- This final, future time of judgment and resurrection is also sometimes referred to as the "last day." This time will begin when the Lord Jesus comes back to judge sinners and will permanently establish his rule.
- The word "day" in these phrases may sometimes refer to a literal day or it may refer to a "time" or "occasion" that is longer than a day.
- Sometimes the punishment is referred to as a "pouring out of God's wrath" upon those who do not believe.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate "day of Yahweh" could include "time of Yahweh" or "time when Yahweh will punish his enemies" or "time of Yahweh's wrath."

deacon

Definition:

A deacon is a person who serves in the local church, helping fellow believers with practical needs, such as food or money.

- The word "deacon" is taken directly from a Greek word meaning "servant" or "minister."
- From the time of the early Christians, being a deacon has been a well-defined role and ministry in the Church body.
- For example, in the New Testament, deacons would make sure that whatever money or food that the believers shared would be distributed fairly to the widows among them.
- The term "deacon" could also be translated as "church minister" or "church worker" or "church servant," or some other phrase that shows that the person has been formally appointed to do specific tasks that benefit the local Christian community.

death

Related Ideas:

breathed their last, dead, deadly, deadness, deathly, die, lethal, mortal, stop breathing

Definition:

This term is used to refer to both physical and spiritual death. Physically, it refers to when the physical body of a person stops living. Spiritually, it refers to sinners being separated from a holy God because of their sin.

1. Physical death

- To "die" means to stop living. Death is the end of physical life.
- A person's spirit leaves his body when he dies.
- When Adam and Eve sinned, physical death came into the world.
- The expression "put to death" refers to killing or murdering someone, especially when a king or other ruler gives an order for someone to be killed.
- The words "deadly" and "lethal" describe something that causes someone to die.
- Something that is "mortal" can die; it does not live forever.

2. Spiritual death

- Spiritual death is the separation of a person from God.
- Adam died spiritually when he disobeyed God. His relationship with God was broken. He became ashamed and tried to hide from God.
- Every descendant of Adam is a sinner, and is spiritually dead. God makes us spiritually alive again when we have faith in Jesus Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- To translate the words "die," death," and dead," it is usually best to use the everyday, natural word or expression in the target language that refers to death. This is true both when "death" refers to physical death and when it refers to spiritual death.
- In some languages, to "die" may be expressed as to "not live." The term "dead" may be translated as "not alive" or "not having any life" or "not living."
- The expression "the dead" is a nominal adjective that refers to people who have died. Some languages will translate this as "dead people" or "people who have died."
- The expression "put to death" could also be translated as "kill" or "murder" or "execute."

declare

Related Ideas:

announce, declaration, proclaim, proclamation, pronounce

Definition:

The terms "declare" and "declaration" refer to making a formal or public statement, often to emphasize something. To "proclaim" means to announce or declare something publicly and boldly.

- A "declaration" not only emphasizes the importance of what is being proclaimed, but it also calls attention to the one making the declaration.
- For example, in the Old Testament, a message from God is often preceded by "the declaration of Yahweh" or "this is what Yahweh declares." This expression emphasizes that it is Yahweh himself who is saying this. The fact that the message comes from Yahweh shows how important that message is.
- Often in the Bible, "proclaim" means to announce publicly something that God has commanded, or to tell others about God and how great he is.
- In the New Testament, the apostles proclaimed the good news about Jesus to many people in many different cities and regions.
- The term "proclaim" can also be used for decrees made by kings or for denouncing evil in a public way.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "declare" could be translated as "proclaim" or "publicly state" or "strongly say" or "emphatically state."
- The term "declaration" could be translated as "statement" or "proclamation."
- The term "proclaim" could be translated as "announce" or "openly preach" or "publicly declare."
- The term "proclamation" could be translated as "announcement" or "public preaching."

decree

Related Ideas:

prohibition

Definition:

A decree is a proclamation or law that is publicly declared to all the people.

- God's laws are also called decrees, statutes, or commandments.
- Like laws and commands, decrees must be obeyed.
- An example of a decree by a human ruler was the proclamation by Caesar Augustus that everyone living in the Roman Empire must go back to their hometown in order to be counted in a census.
- To decree something, or to "issue a decree," means to give an order that must be obeyed. This could be translated as to "order" or to "command" or to "formally require" or to "publicly make a law."
- Something that is "decreed" to happen means that this "will definitely happen" or "has been decided upon and will not be changed" or "declared absolutely that this will happen."
- A "prohibition" is a decree that tells people that they cannot do something they would otherwise do.

drink offering

Definition:

A drink offering was a sacrifice to God that involved pouring wine on an altar. It was often offered together with a burnt offering and a grain offering.

- Paul refers to his life as being poured out like a drink offering. This means that he was totally dedicated to serving God and telling people about Jesus, even though he knew he would suffer and probably be killed because of that.
- Jesus' death on the cross was the ultimate drink offering, as his blood was poured out on the cross for our sins.

Translation Suggestions:

- Another way to translate this term could be "offering of grape wine."
- When Paul says he is being "poured out like an offering" this could also be translated as "I am completely committed to teaching God's message to people, just like an offering of wine is poured out completely on the altar."

elect

Related Ideas:

Chosen One, choice, choose, election

Definition:

The term "the elect" literally means "chosen ones" or "chosen people" and refers to those whom God has appointed or selected to be his people. "Chosen One" or "Chosen One of God" is a title that refers to Jesus, who is the chosen Messiah.

- The term "choose" means to select something or someone or to decide something. It is often used to refer to God appointing people to belong to him and to serve him.
- To be "chosen" means to be "selected" or "appointed" to be or do something.
- God chose people to be holy, to be set apart by him for the purpose of bearing good spiritual fruit. That is why they are called "the chosen (ones)" or "the elect."
- The term "chosen one" is sometimes used in the Bible to refer to certain people such as Moses and King David whom God had appointed as leaders over his people. It is also used to refer to the nation of Israel as God's chosen people.
- The phrase "the elect" is an older term that literally means "the chosen ones" or "the chosen people." This phrase in the original language is plural when referring to believers in Christ.
- In older English Bible versions, the term "elect" is used in both the Old and New Testaments to translate the word for "chosen one(s)." More modern versions use "elect" only in the New Testament, to refer to people who have been saved by God through faith in Jesus. Elsewhere in the Bible text, they translate this word more literally as "chosen ones."

father

Related Ideas:

ancestor, ancestral, beget, fatherless, forefather, grandfather, orphan

Definition:

When used literally, the term "father" refers to a person's male parent.

- A "grandfather" is someone's father's father or someone's mother's father.
- A "forefather" is one of a person's male ancestors, such as his grandfather's grandfather.
- An "ancestral household" is a social unit of those people who are descended from one ancestor.
- A person who is "fatherless" does not have a father.
- An "orphan" is a person who has no parents. In Bible times widows were often not able to care for their children, so a child with a mother but no father could also be thought of as an orphan.
- To "beget" someone is to become that person's father.

There are also several figurative uses of the term "father."

- The term "fathers" often refers to a person's male ancestors, such as his grandfather's grandfather.
- The term "father" can refer to a person who is the leader a group of related people or the source of something. For example, in Genesis 4 "the father of all who live in tents" could mean, "the first clan leader of the first people who ever lived in tents."
- The apostle Paul called himself the "father" of those he had helped to become Christians through sharing the gospel with them.

Translation Suggestions

- When talking about a father and his literal son, this term should be translated using the usual term to refer to a father in the language.
- "God the Father" should also be translated using the usual, common word for "father."
- When referring to forefathers, this term could be translated as "ancestors" or "ancestral fathers."
- Sometimes the word "father" can be translated as "clan leader."
- When Paul refers to himself figuratively as a father to believers in Christ, this could be translated as "spiritual father" or "father in Christ."
- The phrase "father of all lies" could be translated as "source of all lies" or "the one from whom all lies come."

fellowship offering

Definitions:

In the Old Testament, the "fellowship offering" was a kind of sacrifice that was offered for different reasons, such as to give thanks to God or to fulfill a vow.

- This offering required the sacrifice of an animal that could be male or female. This was different from the burnt offering, which required a male animal.
- After giving a portion of the sacrifice to God, the person who brought the fellowship offering shared the meat with the priests and other Israelites.
- There was a meal associated with this offering which included unleavened bread.
- This is sometimes called the "peace offering."

festival

Definition:

In general, a festival is a celebration held by a community of people.

- The word for "festival" in the Old Testament literally means "appointed time."
- The festivals celebrated by the Israelites were specially appointed times or seasons that God had commanded them to observe.
- In some English translations, the word "feast" is used instead of festival because the celebrations included having a large meal together.
- There were several main festivals that the Israelites celebrated every year:
  - Passover
  - Festival of Unleavened Bread
  - Firstfruits
  - Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)
  - Festival of Trumpets

- Day of Atonement
- Festival of Shelters
- The purpose of these festivals was to thank God and to remember the amazing things he had done to rescue, protect, and provide for his people.
- A person who "celebrates" acts as if he were at a festival.

fig

Definition:

A fig is a small, soft, sweet fruit that grows on trees. When ripe, this fruit can be a variety of colors, including brown, yellow, or purple.

- Fig trees can grow 6 meters in height and their large leaves provide pleasant shade. The fruit is about 3-5 centimeters long.
- Adam and Eve used the leaves from fig trees to make clothing for themselves after they had sinned.
- Figs can be eaten raw, cooked, or dried. People also chop them into small pieces and press them into cakes to eat later.
- In Bible times, figs were important as a source of food and income.
- The presence of fruitful fig trees is frequently mentioned in the Bible as a sign of prosperity.
- Several times Jesus used fig trees as an illustration to teach his disciples spiritual truths.

filled with the Holy Spirit

Related Ideas:

full of the Holy Spirit

Definition:

The term "filled with the Holy Spirit" is a figurative expression that, when used to describe a person means the Holy Spirit is empowering that person to do God's will.

- The expression "filled with" is an expression that often means "controlled by."
- People are "filled with the Holy Spirit" when they follow the Holy Spirit's leading and completely rely on him to help them do what God wants.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as "empowered by the Holy Spirit" or "controlled by the Holy Spirit." But it should not sound as though the Holy Spirit is forcing the person to do something.
- A sentence such as "he was filled with the Holy Spirit" could be translated as "he was living fully by the Spirit's power" or "he was completely guided by the Holy Spirit" or "the Holy Spirit was guiding him completely."
- This term is similar in meaning to the expression "live by the Spirit," but "filled with the Holy Spirit" emphasizes the completeness with which a person allows the Holy Spirit to have control or influence over his life. So these two expressions should be translated differently, if possible.

firstborn

Related Ideas:

first issue

Definition:

The term "firstborn" refers to an offspring of people or animals that is born first, before the other offspring are born.

- In the Bible, "firstborn" usually refers to the first male offspring that is born.
- In Bible times, the firstborn son was given a place of prominence and twice as much of his family inheritance as the other sons.
- Often it was the firstborn male of an animal that was sacrificed to God.
- This concept can also be used figuratively. For example, the nation of Israel is called God's firstborn son because God gave it special privileges over other nations.
- Jesus, the Son of God is called God's firstborn because of his importance and authority over everyone else.
- The phrase "first issue of the womb" is another way of saying "firstborn."

Translation Suggestions:

- When "firstborn" occurs in the text alone, it could also be translated as "firstborn male" or "firstborn son," since that is what is implied.
- Other ways to translate this term could include "the son who was born first" or "the eldest son" or "the number one son."
- When used figuratively to refer to Jesus, this could be translated with a word or phrase that means "the son who has authority over everything" or "the Son who is first in honor."
- Caution: Make sure the translation of this term in reference to Jesus does not imply that he was created.

firstfruit

Definition:

The term "firstfruits" refers to a portion of the first crop of fruits and vegetables that was reaped during each harvest season.

- The Israelites offered these first fruits to God as a sacrificial offering.
- This term is also used figuratively in the Bible to refer to a firstborn son as being the first fruits of the family. That is, because he was the first son to be born into that family, he was the one who carried on the family name and honor.
- Because Jesus rose from the dead, he is called the "firstfruits" of all believers in him, believers who have died but who will some day come back to life.
- Believers in Jesus are also called the "firstfruits" of all creation, indicating the special privilege and position of those whom Jesus redeemed and called to be his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The literal use of this term could be translated as "first portion (of crops)" or "first part of the harvest."
- If possible, the figurative uses should be translated literally, to allow for different meanings in different contexts. This will also show the correlation between the literal meaning and the figurative uses.

flesh

Related Ideas:

fleshly, human, living creatures, meat, physical

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "flesh" literally refers to the soft tissue of the physical body of a human being or animal.

- The Bible also uses the term "flesh" in a figurative way to refer to all human beings or all living creatures.
- In the New Testament, the term "flesh" can be used to talk about something that is associated with being human. For example, to decide something according to the flesh means to decide something according to human standards.
- In the New Testament, the term "flesh" can be used to refer to the sinful nature of human beings. This is often used in contrast to their spiritual nature.
- The expression "own flesh and blood" refers to someone who is biologically related to another person, such as a parent, sibling, child, or grandchild.
- The expression "flesh and blood" can also refer to a person's ancestors or descendants.
- The expression "one flesh" refers to the physical uniting of a man and woman in marriage.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of an animal's body, "flesh" could be translated as "body" or "skin" or "meat."
- When it is used to refer generally to all living creatures, this term could be translated as "living beings" or "everything that is alive."
- When referring in general to all people, this term could be translated as "people" or "human beings" or "everyone who lives."

- The expression "flesh and blood" could also be translated as "relatives" or "family" or "kinfolk" or "family clan." There may be contexts where it could be translated as "ancestors" or "descendants."
- Some languages may have an expression that is similar in meaning to "flesh and blood."
- The expression "become one flesh" could be translated as "unite sexually" or "become as one body" or "become like one person in body and spirit." The translation of this expression should be checked to make sure it is acceptable in the project language and culture. . It should also be understood that this is figurative, and does not mean that a man and a woman who "become one flesh" literally become one person.

footstool

Definition:

The term "footstool" refers to an object which a person puts his feet on, usually to rest them while sitting. This term also has figurative meanings of submission and lower status.

- People in Bible times considered feet to be the least honorable parts of the body. So a "footstool" was of even lower honor because feet were rested on it.

- When God says "I will make my enemies a footstool for my feet" he is declaring power, control, and victory over the people who rebel against him. They will be humbled and conquered to the point of submitting to God's will.
- To "worship at God's footstool" means to bow down in worship before him as he sits on his throne. This again communicates humility and submission to God.
- David refers to the temple as God's "footstool." This could refer to his absolute authority over his people. This could also be picturing God the King on his throne, with his feet resting on his footstool, which represents all that is in submission to him.

fruit

Related Ideas:

bear fruit, crop, fruitful, produce, productive land, unfruitful

Definition:

The term "fruit" literally refers to the part of a plant that can be eaten.

- A "fruitful" plant is one that has a lot of good fruit.
- The expression "fruit of the land" refers generally to everything that the land produces for people to eat. This includes not only fruits such as grapes or dates, but also vegetables, nuts, and grains.
- The term "crop" can refer to what people have planted for food.
- The term "crop" can refer to the food that is harvested at one time.

Sometimes the term "fruit" and ideas related to it are used figuratively.

- In general, the expression "fruit of" refers to anything that comes from or that is produced by something else. For example, the "fruit of wisdom" refers to the good things that come from being wise.
- The expression "fruit of the womb" refers to "what the womb produces"—that is, children.
- The Bible often uses "fruit" to refer to a person's actions. Just as fruit on a tree shows what kind of tree it is, in the same way a person's words and actions reveal what his character is like.
- The expression "fruit of the Spirit" refers to godly qualities that the Holy Spirit produces in the lives of people who obey him.

- The term "fruitful" can be used figuratively to mean "prosperous." This often refers to having many children and descendants, as well as having plenty of food and other wealth.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term using the general word for "fruit" that is commonly used in the project language to refer to the edible fruit of a fruit tree. In many languages it may be more natural to use the plural "fruits" whenever it refers to more than one fruit.
- Depending on the context, the term "fruitful" could be translated as "producing much spiritual fruit" or "having many children" or "prosperous."
- The expression "fruit of the land" could also be translated as "food that the land produces" or "food crops that are growing in that region."
- When God created animals and people, he commanded them to "be fruitful and multiply," which refers to having many offspring. This could also be translated as "have many offspring" or "have many children and descendants" or "have many children so that you will have many descendants."
- The expression "fruit of the womb" could be translated as "what the womb produces" or "children a woman gives birth to" or just "children." When Elizabeth says to Mary "blessed is the fruit of your womb," she means "blessed is the child you will give birth to." The project language may also have a different expression for this.
- Another expression "fruit of the vine," could be translated as "vine fruit" or "grapes."
- Depending on the context, the expression "will be more fruitful" could also be translated as "will produce more fruit" or "will have more children" or "will be prosperous."
- The apostle Paul's expression "fruitful labor" could be translated as "work that brings very good results" or "efforts that result in many people believing in Jesus."
- The "fruit of the Spirit" could also be translated as "works that the Holy Spirit produces" or "words and actions that show that the Holy Spirit is working in someone."

gate

Related Ideas:

doorkeeper, entrance, gate bars, gatekeeper, gateposts, gateway

Definition:

A "gate" is a hinged barrier at an access point in a fence or wall that surrounds a house or city.

- A "gate bar" is a wooden or metal bar that can be moved into place to lock the gate.
- A "gatekeeper" was a person who was responsible to control who could go through the gateway.
- A city gate could be opened to allow people, animals, and cargo to travel in and out of the city.
- To protect the city, its walls and gates were thick and strong. Gates were closed and locked with a metal or wooden bar to prevent enemy soldiers from entering the city.
- A city gate was often the news and social center of a village. It was also where business transactions occurred and judgments were made, because city walls were thick enough to have gateways that produced cool shade from the hot sun. Citizens found it pleasant to sit in the shade to conduct their business and even to judge legal cases.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate "gate" could be "door" or "wall opening" or "barrier" or "entranceway."
- The phrase "bars of the gate" could be translated as "gate bolts" or "wooden beams to lock the gate" or "metal locking rods of the gate."

glory

Related Ideas:

beautiful, beauty, glorify, glorious, take pride

Definition:

In general, the term "glory" means honor, splendor, and extreme greatness. Anything that has glory is said to be "glorious."

- Sometimes "glory" refers to something of great value and importance. In other contexts it communicates splendor, brightness, or judgment.
- For example, the expression "glory of the shepherds" refers to the lush pastures where their sheep had plenty of grass to eat.
- Glory is especially used to describe God, who is more glorious than anyone or anything in the universe. Everything in his character reveals his glory and his splendor.
- The expression to "glory in" means to boast about or take pride in something.

The term "glorify" means to show or tell how great and important something or someone is. It literally means to "give glory to."

- People can glorify God by telling about the wonderful things he has done.
- They can also glorify God by living in a way that honors him and shows how great and magnificent he is.
- When the Bible says that God glorifies himself, it means that he reveals to people his amazing greatness, often through miracles.
- God the Father will glorify God the Son by revealing to people the Son's perfection, splendor, and greatness.
- Everyone who believes in Christ will be glorified with him. When they are raised to life, they will be changed to reflect his glory and to display his grace to all creation.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate "glory" could include "splendor" or "brightness" or "majesty" or "awesome greatness" or "extreme value."
- The term "glorious" could be translated as "full of glory" or "extremely valuable" or "brightly shining" or "awesomely majestic."
- The expression "give glory to God" could be translated as "honor God's greatness" or "praise God because of his splendor" or "tell others how great God is."
- The expression "glory in" could also be translated as "praise" or "take pride in" or "boast about" or "take pleasure in."
- "Glorify" could also be translated as "give glory to" or "bring glory to" or "cause to appear great."
- The phrase "glorify God" could also be translated as "praise God" or "talk about God's greatness" or "show how great God is" or "honor God (by obeying him)."
- The term "be glorified" could also be translated as, "be shown to be very great" or "be praised" or "be exalted."

goat

Related Ideas:

goatskins, kid, scapegoat, young goat

Definition:

A goat is a medium-sized, four-legged animal which is similar to a sheep and is raised primarily for its milk and meat. A baby goat is called a "kid."

- Like sheep, goats were important animals of sacrifice, especially at Passover.
- Although goats and sheep can be very similar, these are some ways that they are different:
- Goats have coarse hair; sheep have wool.
- The tail of a goat stands up; the tail of a sheep hangs down.
- Sheep usually like to stay with their flocks, but goats are more independent and tend to wander away from their herds.
- In Bible times, goats were often the main source of milk in Israel.
- Goat skins were used for tent coverings and to make bags for holding wine.
- In both the Old and New Testaments, the goat was used as a symbol for unrighteous people, perhaps because of its tendency to wander away from the one taking care of it.
- The Israelites also used goats as symbolic sin bearers. When one goat was sacrificed, the priest would lay his hands on a second, live goat, and send it into the desert as a symbol that the animal was bearing the people's sins.

god

Related Ideas:

disgusting figure, false god, goat idols, goddess, idolater, idolatrous, idolatry

Definition:

A false god is something that people worship instead of the one true God. The term "goddess" refers specifically to a female false god.

- These false gods or goddesses do not exist. Yahweh is the only God.
- People sometimes make objects into idols to worship as symbols of their false gods.
- In the Bible, God's people frequently turned away from obeying him in order to worship false gods.
- Demons often deceive people into believing that the false gods and idols they worship have power.
- Baal, Dagon, and Molech were three of the many false gods that were worshiped by people in Bible times.
- Asherah and Artemis (Diana) were two of the goddesses that ancient peoples worshiped.

An idol is an object that people make so they can worship it. Something is described as "idolatrous" if it involves giving honor to something other than the one true God.

- People make idols to represent the false gods that they worship.
- These false gods do not exist; there is no God besides Yahweh.
- Sometimes demons work through an idol to make it seem like it has power, even though it does not.
- Idols are often made of valuable materials like gold, silver, bronze, or expensive wood.
- An "idolatrous kingdom" means a "kingdom of people who worship idols" or a "kingdom of people who worship earthly things."
- The term "idolatrous figure" is another word for a "carved image" or an "idol."

Translation Suggestions:

- There may already be a word for "god" or "false god" in the language or in a nearby language.
- The term "idol" could be used to refer to false gods.
- In English, a lower case "g" is used to refer to false gods, and upper case "G" is used to refer to the one true God. Other languages also do that.
- Another option would be to use a completely different word to refer to the false gods.
- Some languages may add a word to specify whether the false god is described as male or female.

godly

Related Ideas:

godless, godless actions, godlessness, godliness, ungodliness, ungodly

Definition:

The term "godly" is used to describe a person who acts in a way that honors God and shows what God is like. "Godliness" is the character quality of honoring God by doing his will.

- A person who has godly character will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit, such as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and self control.
- The quality of godliness shows that a person has the Holy Spirit and is obeying him.

The terms "ungodly" and "godless" describe people who are in rebellion against God. Living in an evil way, without thought of God, is called "ungodliness" or "godlessness."

- The meanings of these words are very similar. However, "godless" and "godlessness" may describe a more extreme condition in which people or nations do not even acknowledge God or his right to rule them.
- God pronounces judgment and wrath on ungodly people, on everyone who rejects him and his ways.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase "the godly" could be translated as "godly people" or "people who obey God."
- The adjective "godly" could be translated as "obedient to God" or "righteous" or "pleasing to God."
- The phrase "in a godly manner" could be translated as "in a way that obeys God" or "with actions and words that please God."
- Ways to translate "godliness" could include "acting in a way that pleases God" or "obeying God" or "living in a righteous manner."
- Depending on the context, the term "ungodly" could be translated as "displeasing to God" or "immoral" or "disobeying God."
- The terms "godless" and "godlessness" literally mean that the people are "without God" or "having no thought of God" or "acting in a way that does not acknowledge God."
- Other ways to translate "ungodliness" or "godlessness" could be "wickedness" or "evil" or "rebellion against God".

gold

Related Ideas:

golden, goldsmith, purest gold

Definition:

Gold is a yellow, high quality metal that was used for making jewelry and religious objects. It was the most valuable metal in ancient times.

- In Bible times, many different kinds of objects were made out of solid gold or were covered with a thin layer of gold.
- These objects included earrings and other jewelry, and idols, altars, and other objects used in the tabernacle or temple, such as the ark of the covenant.
- In Old Testament times, gold was used as a means of exchange in buying and selling. It was weighed on a scale to determine its value.
- Later on, gold and other metals such as silver were used to make coins to use in buying and selling
- When referring to something that is not solid gold, but only has a thin covering of gold, the term "golden" or "gold-covered" or "gold-overlaid" could also be used.
- Sometimes an object is described as "gold-colored," which means it has the yellow color of gold, but may not actually be made of gold.
- A "goldsmith" is a person who takes gold and makes it into useful things like jewelry.

hail

Related Ideas:

hailstones, hailstorm

Definitions:

This term usually refers to lumps of frozen water that fall from the sky. Although spelled the same way in English, a different word, "hail" is used in greeting someone and can mean, "hello" or "greetings to you."

- Hail that comes down from the sky is in the form of balls or chunks of ice called "hailstones."
- Usually hailstones are small (only a few centimeters wide), but sometimes there are hailstones that are as big as 20 centimeters wide and that weigh over a kilogram.
- The book of Revelation in the New Testament describes enormous hailstones weighing 50 kilograms that God will cause to fall on earth when he judges people for their wickedness in the end times.
- The word "hail" that is a formal greeting in older English literally means "rejoice" and could be translated as "Greetings!" or "Hello!"

hand

Related Ideas:

handbreadth, handful, lay a hand on

Definition:

There are several figurative ways that "hand" is used in the Bible:

- To "hand" something to someone means to put something into that person's hands.
- The term "hand" is often used in reference to God's power and action, such as when God says "Has not my hand made all these things?"
- Expressions such as "hand over to" or "deliver into the hands of" refer to causing someone to be under the control or power of someone else.
- Some other figurative uses of "hand" include:
  - To "lay a hand on" means to "harm."
  - To "save from the hand of" means to stop someone from harming someone else.
  - The position of being "on the right hand" means "on the right side" or "to the right."
  - The expression "by the hand of" someone means "by" or "through" the action of that person. For example, "by the hand of the Lord" means that the Lord is the one who caused something to happen.
  - Placing hands on someone is often done while speaking a blessing over that person.
  - The term "laying on of hands" refers to placing a hand on a person in order to dedicate that person to God's service or to pray for healing.
  - When Paul says "written by my hand," it means that this part of the letter was physically written down by him, rather than spoken to someone else to write down.

Translation Suggestions

- These expressions and other figures of speech could be translated using other figurative expressions that have the same meaning. Or the meaning could be translated using direct, literal language (see examples above).
- The expression "handed him the scroll" could also be translated as "gave him the scroll" or "put the scroll in his hand." It was not given to him permanently, but just for the purpose of using it at that time.
- When "hand" refers to the person, such as in "the hand of God did this," it could be translated as "God did this."
- An expression such as "delivered them into the hands of their enemies" or "handed them over to their enemies," could be translated as, "allowed their enemies to conquer them" or "caused them to be captured by their enemies" or "empowered their enemies to gain control over them."
- To "die by the hand of" could be translated as "be killed by."
- The expression "on the right hand of" could be translated as "on the right side of."
- In regard to Jesus being "seated at the right hand of God," if this does not communicate in the language that it refers to a position of high honor and equal authority, a different expression with that meaning could be used. Or a short explanation could be added: "on the right side of God, in the position of highest authority."

head

Definition:

In the Bible, the word "head" is used with several figurative meanings.

- Often this term is used to refer to a ruler or to someone who has authority over people, as in "you have made me the head over nations."
- Jesus is called the "head of the church." Just as a person's head guides and directs the members of its body, so Jesus guides and directs the members of his "body," the Church.
- The New Testament teaches that a husband is the "head" or authority of his wife. He is given the responsibility of leading and guiding his wife and family.
- The term "head" can also represent the whole person, as in "this gray head," referring to an elderly person, or as in "the head of Joseph," which refers to Joseph.
- The expression "no razor will ever touch his head" means "he will never cut or shave his hair."
- The expression "let their blood be on his own head" means that the man is responsible for their deaths and will receive the punishment for that.
- The expression "heads of grain" refers to the top parts of a wheat or barley plant that contains the seeds.
- The term "head" can also refer to the beginning or source of something, as in the "head of the street."

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term "head" could be translated as "ruler" or "the one who leads and directs" or "the one who is responsible for."
- The expression "head of" can refer to the whole person and so this expression could be translated using just the person's name. For example, "the head of Joseph" could simply be translated as "Joseph."
- The expression "will be on his own head" could be translated as "will be on him" or "he will be punished for" or "he will be held responsible for" or "he will be considered guilty for."
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include "beginning" or "source" or "ruler" or "leader" or "top."

heal

Related Ideas:

cure, healer, health, healthy, make fresh, make well, recover, unhealthy

Definition:

The terms "heal" and "cure" both mean to cause a sick, wounded, or disabled person to be healthy again.

- A person who is "healed" or "cured" has been "made well" or "made healthy."
- Healing can happen naturally since God gave our bodies the ability to recover from many kinds of wounds and diseases. This kind of healing usually happens slowly.
- However, certain conditions, such as being blind or paralyzed, and certain serious diseases, such as leprosy, however do not heal on their own. When people are healed of these things, it is a miracle that usually happens suddenly.
- For example, Jesus healed many people who were blind or lame or diseased, and they became well right away.
- The apostles also healed people miraculously, such as when Peter caused a crippled man to immediately be able to walk.
- A person who is "healthy" has no disease. It may be that he has been healed or that he has simply not been ill for a long time.
- Health can be a metaphor for anything that is good or trustworthy. "Healthy teaching" is teaching that people can depend on to be true and helpful and morally good.

heart

Related Ideas:

kidneys

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "heart" is often used figuratively to refer to a person's thoughts, emotions, desires, or will.

- To have a "hard heart" is a common expression that means a person stubbornly refuses to obey God.
- The expressions "with all my heart" or "with my whole heart" mean to do something with no holding back, with complete commitment and willingness.
- The expression "take it to heart" means to treat something seriously and apply it to one's life.
- The term "brokenhearted" describes a person who is very sad. That person has been deeply hurt emotionally.
- The kidneys are also used as a synecdoche for the physical inner organs and as a metonym for a person's innermost thoughts and emotions.

Translation Suggestions

- Some languages use a different body part such as "stomach" or "liver" to refer to these ideas.
- Other languages may use one word to express some of these concepts and another word to express others.
- If "heart" or other body part does not have this meaning, some languages may need to express this literally with terms such as "thoughts" or "emotions" or "desires" or "inner self".
- Depending on the context, "with all my heart" or "with my whole heart" could be translated as "with all my energy" or "with complete dedication" or "completely" or "with total commitment."
- The expression "take it to heart" could be translated as "treat it seriously" or "carefully think about it."
- The expression "hard-hearted" could also be translated as "stubbornly rebellious" or "refusing to obey" or "continually disobeying God."
- Ways to translate "brokenhearted" could include "very sad" or "feeling deeply hurt."

heaven

Related Ideas:

heavenly, in midair, overhead, sky

Definition:

The term that is translated as "heaven" usually refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean "sky," depending on the context.

- The term "heavens" refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we can't directly see from the earth.
- The term "sky" refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be "up in the sky."
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word "heaven" could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.
- When "heaven" is used figuratively, it is a way of referring to God. For example, when Matthew writes about the "kingdom of heaven" he is referring to the kingdom of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When "heaven" is used figuratively, it could be translated as "God."
- For "kingdom of heaven" in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word "heaven" since this is distinctive to Matthew's gospel.
- The terms "heavens" or "heavenly bodies" could also be translated as, "sun, moon, and stars" or "all the stars in the universe."
- The phrase, "stars of heaven" could be translated as "stars in the sky" or "stars in the galaxy" or "stars in the universe."

heir

Definition:

An "heir" is a person who legally receives property or money that belonged to a person who has died.

- In Bible times, the main heir was the firstborn son, who received most of the property and money of his father.
- The Bible also uses "heir" in a figurative sense to refer to person who as a Christian receives spiritual benefits from God, his spiritual father.
- As God's children, Christians are said to be "joint heirs" with Jesus Christ. This could also be translated as "co-heirs" or "fellow heirs" or "heirs together with."
- The term "heir" could be translated as "person receiving benefits" or whatever expression is used in the language to communicate the meaning of someone who receives property and other things when a parent or other relative dies.

hell

Related Ideas:

delivered to Tartarus, hell, lake of fire

Definition:

Hell is the final place of unending pain and suffering where God will punish everyone who rebels against him and rejects his plan of saving them through Jesus' sacrifice. It is also referred to as the "lake of fire."

- Hell is described as a place of fire and severe suffering.
- Satan and the evil spirits who follow him will be thrown into hell for eternal punishment.
- People who do not believe in Jesus' sacrifice for their sin and do not trust in him to save them will be punished forever in hell.
- "Tartarus" is a name for hell borrowed from Greek religion to refer to the place where evil spirits are punished.

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms should probably be translated differently since they occur in different contexts.
- Some languages cannot use "lake" in the phrase "lake of fire" because it refers to water.
- The term "hell" could be translated as "place of suffering" or "final place of darkness and pain."
- The term "lake of fire" could also be translated as, "sea of fire" or "huge fire (of suffering)" or "field of fire."

high place

Related Ideas:

Definition:

The term "high places" refers to the altars and shrines that were used for worshiping idols. They were usually built on higher ground, such as on a hill or mountainside.

- Many of the kings of Israel sinned against God by building altars to false gods on these high places. This led the people to become deeply involved in worshiping idols.
- It often happened that when a God-fearing king started ruling in Israel or Judah, often he would remove the high places or altars in order to stop the worship of these idols.
- However, some of these good kings were careless and did not remove the high places, which resulted in the entire nation of Israel would continue to worship idols.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include "elevated places for idol worship" or "hilltop idol shrines" or "idol altar mounds."
- Make sure it is clear that this term refers to the idol altars, not just to the high place where those altars were located.

high priest

Related Ideas:

high priesthood

Definition:

The term "high priest" refers to a special priest who was appointed to serve for one year as the leader of all the other Israelite priests.

- The high priest had special responsibilities. He was the only one who was permitted to go into the most holy part of the temple to offer a special sacrifice once a year.
- The Israelites had many priests, but only one high priest at a time.
- When Jesus was being arrested, Caiaphas was the official high priest. Caiaphas' father-in-law Annas is also mentioned sometimes because he was a former high priest who probably still had power and authority over the people.

Translation Suggestions:

- "High priest" could be translated as "supreme priest" or "highest ranking priest."
- Make sure this term is translated differently from the term "chief priest."

holy

Related Ideas:

holiness, sacred, unholy

Definition:

The terms "holy" and "holiness" refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- People cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because he is holy and they are merely human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.
- Believers in Jesus are holy people, not because of what they have done, but rather because of their faith in the saving work of Jesus Christ. He is the one who makes them holy.
- When people of any religion, true or false, consider something "sacred," they consider it holy according to their religion.

Literally, the term "unholy" means "not holy." It describes someone or something that does not honor God.

- This word is used to describe someone who dishonors God by rebelling against him.
- A thing that is called "unholy" could be described as being common, profane or unclean. It does not belong to God.

The term "sacred" describes something that relates to worshiping God or to the pagan worship of false gods.

- In the Old Testament, the term "sacred" was often used to describe the stone pillars and other objects used in the worship of false gods. This could also be translated as "religious."
- "Sacred songs" and "sacred music" refer to music that was sung or played for God's glory. This could be translated as "music for worshiping Yahweh" or "songs that praise God."
- The phrase "sacred duties" referred to the "religious duties" or "rituals" that a priest performed to lead people in worshiping God. It could also refer to the rituals performed by a pagan priest to worship a false god.
- The phrase "sacred gifts" refers to things that someone has set apart for God and then given to God at the temple.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "holy" might include "set apart for God" or "belonging to God" or "completely pure" or "perfectly sinless" or "separated from sin."

- To "make holy" is often translated as "sanctify" in English. It could also be translated as "set apart (someone) for God's glory."
- Ways to translate "unholy" could include "not holy" or "not belonging to God" or "not honoring to God" or "not godly."
- In some contexts, "unholy" could be translated as "unclean."

holy place

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms "the holy place" and "the most holy place" refer to the two parts of the tabernacle or temple building.

- The "holy place" was the first room, and it contained the altar of incense and the table with the special "bread of the presence" on it.
- The "most holy place" was the second, innermost room, and it contained the ark of the covenant.
- A thick, heavy curtain separated the outer room from the inner room.
- The high priest was the only one who was permitted to go into the most holy place.
- Sometimes "holy place" refers to both the building and courtyard areas of either the temple or tabernacle. It could also refer generally to any place that is set apart for God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "holy place" could also be translated as "room set apart for God" or "special room for meeting God" or "place reserved for God."
- The term "most holy place" could be translated as "room that is the most set apart for God" or "most special room for meeting God."
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the general expression "a holy place" could include "a consecrated place" or "a place that God has set apart" or "a place in the temple complex, which is holy" or "a courtyard of God's holy temple."

honey

Related Ideas:

honeycomb

Definition:

"Honey" is the sweet, sticky, edible substance that honeybees make out of flower nectar. Honeycomb is the waxy frame where the bees store honey.

- Depending on the kind, honey can be yellowish or brownish in color.
- Honey can be found in the wild, such as in the hollow of a tree, or wherever bees make a nest. People also raise bees in hives in order to produce honey to eat or sell, but probably the honey mentioned in the Bible was wild honey.
- Three people that the Bible specifically mentions as eating wild honey were Jonathan, Samson, and John the Baptist.
- This term is often used figuratively to describe something that is sweet or very pleasurable. For example, God's words and decrees are said to be "sweeter than honey."
- Sometimes a person's words are described as seeming sweet like honey, but instead result in deceiving and harming others.

honor

Related Ideas:

dignified, esteem, held in honor, highly regarded, honorable, of high standing, places of honor, recognition

Definition:

The terms "honor" and to "honor" refer to giving someone respect, esteem, or reverence.

- Honor is usually given to someone who is of higher status and importance, such as a king or God.
- God instructs Christians to honor others.
- Children are instructed to honor their parents in ways that include respecting them and obeying them.
- The terms "honor" and "glory" are often used together, especially when referring to Jesus. These may be two different ways of referring to the same thing.
- Ways of honoring God include thanking and praising him, and showing him respect by obeying him and living in a way that shows how great he is.
- To "esteem" someone is to consider him worthy of great honor.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate "honor" could include "respect" or "esteem" or "high regard."
- The term to "honor" could be translated as to "show special respect to" or to "cause to be praised" or to "show high regard for" or to "highly value."

horn

Related Ideas:

ram's horn

Definitions:

Horns are permanent, hard, pointed growths on the heads of many types of animals, including cattle, sheep, goats, and deer.

- The horn of a ram (male sheep) was made into a musical instrument called a "ram's horn" or "shofar," which was blown for special events such as religious festivals.
- The term "horn" was sometimes used to refer to a "flask" that was shaped like a horn and was used for holding water or oil. A flask of oil was used for anointing a king, as Samuel did with David.
- This term should be translated with a word that is different from the word that refers to a trumpet.
- The term "horn" is also used figuratively as a symbol of strength, power, authority, and royalty.
- God told the Israelites to make a horn-shaped projection on each of the four corners of the incense and brazen altars. Although these projections were called "horns," they were not actually animal horns.

horseman

Definition:

In Bible times, the term "horsemen" referred to men who rode horses into battle.

- Warriors who rode in horse-pulled chariots may also have been called "horsemen," though this term usually refers to men who were actually riding on horses.
- The Israelites believed that using horses in battle placed too much emphasis on their own strength rather than on Yahweh, so they did not have many horsemen.
- This term could also be translated as "horse riders" or "men on horses."

hour

Definition:

In addition to being used to refer to when or how long something took place, the term "hour" is also used in several figurative ways:

- When the text says that the "hour had come" for Jesus to suffer and be put to death, this means that it was the appointed time for this to happen—the time that God had selected long ago.
- The phrase "that hour" is also used to mean "at that moment" or "right then."
- When the text talks about the "hour" being late, this means that it was late in the day, when the sun would soon be setting.

Translation Suggestions:

- When used figuratively, the term "hour" can be translated as "time" or "moment" or "appointed time."

- The phrase "in that very hour" or "the same hour" could be translated as "at that moment" or "at that time" or "immediately" or "right then."
- The expression "the hour was late" could be translated as "it was late in the day" or "it would soon be getting dark" or "it was late afternoon."
- Referring to Jesus, the expression "his hour had come" could be translated as, "the time had come for him" or "it was the appointed time for him."

hour (biblical time)

Definition:

The term "hour" is often used in the Bible to tell what time of day a certain event took place. It is also used figuratively to mean "moment," "a while" or "time".

- The Jews counted daylight hours starting at sunrise (around 6 a.m.). For example, "the ninth hour" meant "around three in the afternoon."
- Nighttime hours were counted starting at sunset (around 6 p.m.). For example, "the third hour of the night" meant "around nine in the evening" in our present-day system.
- Sometimes "hour" refers to a regular, scheduled time to do something, such as the "hour of prayer."

Translation Suggestions:

- Since references to time in the Bible will not correspond exactly to the present-day time system, phrases such as "around nine" or "about six o'clock" could be used.
- Some translations might add phrases like "in the evening" or "in the morning" or "in the afternoon" to make it clear what time of day is being talked about.
- The phrase, "in that hour" could be translated as, "at that time" or "in that moment."

image of God

Definition:

The term "image" refers to something that looks like something else or that is like someone in character or essence. The phrase "image of God" is used in different ways, depending on the context.

- At the beginning of time, God created human beings "in his image," that is, "in his likeness." This means that people have certain characteristics that reflect the image of God, such as the ability to feel emotion, the ability to reason and communicate, and a spirit that lives eternally.
- The Bible teaches that Jesus, God's Son, is "the image of God," that is, he is God himself. Unlike human beings, Jesus was not created. From all eternity God the Son has had all the divine characteristics because he has had the same essence with God the Father.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to Jesus, "image of God" could be translated as "exact likeness of God" or "same essence as God" or "same being as God."
- When referring to human beings, "God created them in his image" could be translated with a phrase that means "God created them to be like him" or "God created them with characteristics like his own."

is written

Definition:

The phrase "as it is written" or "what is written" occurs frequently in the New Testament and usually refers to commands or prophecies that were written in the Hebrew scriptures.

- Sometimes "as it is written" refers to what was written in the Law of Moses.
- Other times it is a quote from what one of the prophets wrote in the Old Testament.
- This could be translated "as it is written in the Law of Moses" or "as the prophets wrote long ago" or "what it says in God's laws that Moses wrote down long ago".
- Another option is to keep "It is written" and give a footnote that explains what this means.

justice

Related Ideas:

honest, injustice, just, justification, justify, maintain someone's rights, vindicate, vindication

Definition:

"Just" and "justice" refer to treating people fairly according to God's laws. Human laws that reflect God's standard of right behavior toward others are also just.

- To be "just" is to act in a fair and right way toward others. It also implies honesty and integrity to do what is morally right in God's eyes.
- To act "justly" means to treat people in a way that is right, good, and proper according to God's laws.
- To receive "justice" means to be treated fairly under the law, either being protected by the law or being punished for breaking the law.
- Sometimes the term "just" has the broader meaning of "righteous" or "following God's laws."
- To "vindicate" someone whom others have accused of wrongdoing is to show that he has actually done what is right.

The terms "unjust" and "unjustly" refer to treating people in an unfair and often harmful manner.

- An "injustice" is something bad that is done to someone that the person did not deserve. It refers to treating people unfairly.
- Injustice also means that some people are treated badly while others are treated well.
- Someone who is acting in an unjust way is being "partial" or "prejudiced" because he is not treating people equally.

The terms "justify" and "justification" refer to causing a guilty person to be righteous. Only God can truly justify people.

- When God justifies people, he forgives their sins and makes it as though they have no sin. He justifies sinners who repent and trust in Jesus to save them from their sins.
- "Justification" refers to what God does when he forgives a person's sins and declares that person to be righteous in his sight.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate "just" could include "morally right" or "fair."
- The term "justice" could be translated as "fair treatment" or "deserved consequences."

kind

Definition:

The terms "kind" and "kinds" refer to groups or classifications of things that are connected by shared characteristics.

- In the Bible, this term is specifically used to refer to the distinctive kinds of plants and animals that God made when he created the world.
- Often there are many different variations or species within each "kind." For example, horses, zebras, and donkeys are all members of the same "kind," but they are different species.
- The main thing that distinguishes each "kind" as a separate group is that members of that group can reproduce more of their same "kind." Members of different kinds cannot do that with each other.

kingdom

Related Ideas:

power to rule

Definition:

A kingdom is a group of people ruled by a king. It also refers to the realm or political regions over which a king or other ruler has control and authority.

- A kingdom can be of any geographical size. A king might govern a nation or country or only one city.
- The term "kingdom" can also refer to a spiritual reign or authority, as in the term "kingdom of God."
- God is the ruler of all creation, but the term "kingdom of God" especially refers to his reign and authority over the people who have believed in Jesus and who have submitted to his authority.
- The Bible also talks about Satan having a "kingdom" in which he temporarily rules over many things on this earth. His kingdom is evil and is referred to as "darkness."

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a physical region that is ruled over by a king, the term "kingdom" could be translated as "country (ruled by a king)" or "king's territory" or "region ruled by a king."
- In a spiritual sense, "kingdom" could be translated as "ruling" or "reigning" or "controlling" or "governing."
- One way to translate "kingdom of priests" might be "spiritual priests who are ruled by God."
- The phrase "kingdom of light" could be translated as "God's reign that is good like light" or "when God, who is light, rules people" or "the light and goodness of God's kingdom." It is best to keep the word "light" in this expression since that is a very important term in the Bible.
- Note that the term "kingdom" is different from an empire, in which an emperor rules over several countries.

kingdom of God

Related Ideas:

kingdom of Christ and God, kingdom of heaven

Definition:

The terms "kingdom of God" and "kingdom of heaven" both refer to God's rule and authority over his people and over all creation.

- The Jews often used the term "heaven" to refer to God, to avoid saying his name directly.
- In the New Testament book that Matthew wrote, he referred to God's kingdom as "the kingdom of heaven," probably because he was writing primarily for a Jewish audience.
- The kingdom of God refers to God ruling people spiritually as well as ruling over the physical world.
- The Old Testament prophets said that God would send the Messiah to rule with righteousness. Jesus, the Son of God, is the Messiah who will rule over God's kingdom forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "kingdom of God" can be translated as "God's rule (as king)" or "when God reigns as king" or "God's rule over everything."
- The term "kingdom of heaven" could also be translated as "God's rule from heaven as king" or "God in heaven reigning" or "heaven's reign" or "heaven ruling over everything." If it is not possible to translate this simply and clearly, the phrase "kingdom of God" could be translated instead.
- Some translators may prefer to capitalize "Heaven" to show that it refers to God. Others may include a note in the text, such as "kingdom of heaven (that is, 'kingdom of God')."
- A footnote at the bottom of the page of a printed Bible may also be used to explain the meaning of "heaven" in this expression.

kingdom of Israel

Related Words:

House of Israel

Facts:

What had been the northern part of the nation of Israel became the kingdom of Israel when the twelve tribes of Israel were divided into two kingdoms after Solomon died.

- The kingdom of Israel in the north had ten tribes, and the kingdom of Judah in the south had two tribes.
- The capital city of the kingdom of Israel was Samaria. It was about 50 km from Jerusalem, the capital city of the kingdom of Judah.
- The phrase "house of Israel" can refer generally to the entire nation of Israel or more specifically to the tribes of the northern kingdom of Israel.
- All the kings of the kingdom of Israel were evil. They influenced the people to serve idols and false gods.
- God sent the Assyrians to attack the kingdom of Israel. Many Israelites were captured and taken away to live in Assyria.
- The Assyrians brought foreigners to live among the remaining people of the kingdom of Israel. These foreigners intermarried with the Israelites, and their descendants became the Samaritan people.

lamb

Related Ideas:

Lamb of God

Definition:

The term "lamb" refers to a young sheep. Sheep are four-legged animals with thick, woolly hair, used for sacrifices to God. Jesus is called the "Lamb of God" because he was sacrificed to pay for people's sins.

- These animals are easily led astray and need protecting. God compares human beings to sheep.
- God instructed his people to sacrifice physically perfect sheep and lambs to him.
- Jesus is called the "Lamb of God" who was sacrificed to pay for people's sins. He was a perfect, unblemished sacrifice because he was completely without sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- If sheep are known in the language area, the name for their young should be used to translate the terms "lamb" and "Lamb of God."
- "Lamb of God" could be translated as "God's (sacrificial) Lamb," or "Lamb sacrificed to God" or "(sacrificial) Lamb from God."
- If sheep are not known, this term could be translated as "a young sheep" with a footnote that describes what sheep are like. The note could also compare sheep and lambs to an animal from that area that lives in herds, that is timid and defenseless, and that often wanders away.
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation of a nearby local or national language.

lamp

Related Ideas:

torch

Definition:

The term "lamp" generally refers to something that produces light. The lamps used in Bible times were usually oil lamps.

- An ordinary oil lamp usually consisted of a common piece of pottery filled with olive oil, with a wick placed in the oil to burn.
- For some lamps, the pot or jar was oval, with one end pinched close together to hold the wick.
- An oil lamp could be carried or placed on a stand so that its light could fill a room or house.
- In scripture, lamps are used in several figurative ways as symbols of light and life.
- A torch is a light that is meant to be carried around outside. It might be a long piece of wood that burns at the top. It might also be a pole with an oil lamp or a cloth soaked in oil at the top.

lampstand

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "lampstand" generally refers to a structure on which a lamp is placed in order to provide light to a room.

- A simple lampstand usually held one lamp and was made of clay, wood, or metal (such as bronze, silver, or gold.)
- In the Jerusalem temple there was a special gold lampstand which had seven branches for holding seven lamps.

Translation Suggestions

- This term could be also translated as "lamp pedestal" or "structure for holding a lamp" or "lamp holder."
- For the temple lampstand, this could be translated as "seven-lamp lampstand" or "gold pedestal with seven lamps."
- It would also be helpful in a translation to include pictures of a simple lampstand and a seven-branch lampstand in the relevant Bible passages.

law of Moses

Related Ideas:

God's law, book of Moses, book of the law, expert in the law, law of God, law of Yahweh, law of the Lord, the law

Definition:

All these terms refer to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey. The terms "law" and "God's law" are also used more generally to refer to everything God wants his people to obey.

- Depending on the context, the "law" can refer to:
- the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites
- all the laws given to Moses
- the first five books of the Old Testament
- the entire Old Testament (also referred to as "scriptures" in the New Testament).
- all of God's instructions and will
- The phrase "the law and the prophets" is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or "Old Testament")

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms could be translated using the plural, "laws," since they refer to many instructions.
- The "law of Moses" could be translated as "the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites."
- Depending on the context, "the law of Moses" could also be translated as "the law that God told to Moses" or "God's laws that Moses wrote down" or "the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites."
- Ways to translate "the law" or "law of God" or "God's laws" could include "laws from God" or "God's commands" or "laws that God gave" or "everything that God commands" or "all of God's instructions."
- The phrase "law of Yahweh" could also be translated as "Yahweh's laws" or "laws that Yahweh said to obey" or "laws from Yahweh" or "things Yahweh commanded."
- There were people in the Bible who were experts in the Law of Moses, they were called "lawyers."

lawful

Related Ideas:

lawfully, lawless, lawlessness, permitted, unlawful

Definition:

The term "lawful" refers to something that is permitted to be done according to a law or other requirement. The opposite of this is "unlawful," which simply means "not lawful."

- In the Bible, something was "lawful" if it was permitted by God's moral law, or by the Law of Moses and other Jewish laws. Something that was "unlawful" was "not permitted" by those laws.
- To do something "lawfully" means to do it "properly" or "in the right way."
- Many of the things that the Jewish laws considered lawful or not lawful were not in agreement with God's laws about loving others.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate "lawful" could include "permitted" or "according to God's law" or "following our laws" or "proper" or "fitting."
- The phrase "Is it lawful?" could also be translated as "Do our laws allow?" or "Is that something our laws permit?"

The terms "unlawful" and "not lawful" are used to describe actions that break a law.

- In the New Testament, the term "unlawful" is not only used to refer to breaking God's laws, but also often refers to breaking Jewish man-made laws.
- Over the years, the Jews added to the laws that God gave to them. The Jewish leaders would call something "unlawful" if it did not conform to their man-made laws.
- When Jesus and his disciples were picking grain on a Sabbath day, the Pharisees accused them of doing something "unlawful" because it was breaking the Jewish laws about not working on that day.
- When Peter stated that eating unclean foods was "unlawful" for him, he meant that if he ate those foods he would be breaking the laws God had given the Israelites about not eating certain foods.

The term "lawless" describes a person who does not obey laws or rules. When a country or group of people are in a state of "lawlessness," there is widespread disobedience, rebellion, or immorality.

- A lawless person is rebellious and does not obey God's laws.
- The apostle Paul wrote that in the last days there will be a "man of lawlessness," or a "lawless one," who will be influenced by Satan to do evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term "unlawful" should be translated using a word or expression that means "not lawful" or "lawbreaking."
- Other ways to translate "unlawful" could be "not permitted" or "not according to God's law" or "not conforming to our laws."
- The expression "against the law" has the same meaning as "unlawful."
- The term "lawless" could also be translated as "rebellious" or "disobedient" or "law-defying".
- The term "lawlessness" could be translated as "not obeying any laws" or "rebellion (against God's laws)."
- The phrase "man of lawlessness" could be translated as "man who does not obey any laws" or "man who rebels against God's laws."
- It is important to keep the concept of "law" in this term, if possible.
- Note that the term "unlawful" has a different meaning from this term.

learned men

Definition:

"Learned men" or "educated men" were men who were taught by a teacher and knew a lot about one or many topics.

- In Matthew's account of the birth of Christ, "learned men" brought gifts to Jesus in Bethlehem sometime after he was born there.

- These men traveled a long way from a country far to the east of Israel. It is not known exactly where they came from or who they were. But they were obviously scholars who studied the stars.
- They may have been descendants of the wise men who served the Babylonian kings in Daniel's time and who were trained in many things, including studying the stars and interpreting dreams.
- Traditionally people have said that there were three of these men because they brought three gifts to Jesus. However, the Bible does not say how many men there were.

leper

Related Ideas:

leprosy, leprous

Definition:

The term "leprosy" is used in the Bible to refer to several different skin diseases. A "leper" is a person who has leprosy. The term "leprous" describes a person or body part that is infected with leprosy.

- Certain kinds of leprosy cause the skin to become discolored with white patches, as when Miriam and Naaman had leprosy.
- In modern times, leprosy often causes hands, feet, and other body parts to become damaged and deformed.
- According to the instructions that God gave to the Israelites, when a person had leprosy, he was considered "unclean" and had to stay away from other people so that they would not become infected with the disease.
- A leper would often call out "unclean" so that others would be warned not to come near him.
- Jesus healed many lepers, and also people who had other kinds of diseases.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "leprosy" in the Bible can be translated as "skin disease" or "dreaded skin disease."
- Ways to translate "leprous" could include "full of leprosy" or "infected with skin disease" or "covered with skin sores."

epistle

Definition:

A letter is a written message sent to a person or group of persons who are usually a distance away from the writer. An epistle is a special type of letter, often written in a more formal style, for a special purpose, such as teaching.

- In New Testament times, epistles and other types of letters were written on parchment made from animal skins or on papyrus made from plant fibers.
- The New Testament epistles from Paul, John, James, Jude, and Peter were letters of instruction that they wrote to encourage, exhort, and teach the early Christians in various cities throughout the Roman Empire.
- Ways to translate this term could include "written message" or "written down words" or "writing."

life

Related Ideas:

alive, come to life, conduct, exist, fresh, life-giving, lifetime, live, revive, survive, survivor

Definition:

All these terms refer to being physically alive, not dead. They are also used figuratively to refer to being alive spiritually. The following discusses what is meant by "physical life" and "spiritual life."

1. Physical life

- Physical life is the presence of the spirit in the body. God breathed life into Adam's body, and he became a living being.
- A "life" can also refer to an individual person as in "a life was saved".
- Sometimes the word "life" refers to the experience of living as in, "his life was enjoyable."
- It can also refer to a person's lifespan, as in the expression, "the end of his life."
- The term "living" may refer to being physically alive, as in "my mother is still living." It may also refer to dwelling somewhere as in, "they were living in the city."
- In the Bible, the concept of "life" is often contrasted with the concept of "death."
- To "revive" is for someone who is dead or almost dead to live again, or to take something or someone who is dead or almost dead and make him live again.
- A person who "survives" has almost died for some reason but is still alive.
- The same Hebrew words can be translated "fresh" water or "living" water.
- Things that are "lifeless" either have never been alive or were once alive but are now dead.

- The way a person "conducts" himself or his life is the way he lives his life, most importantly the morally good or bad things he does.

2. Spiritual life

- A person has spiritual life when he believes in Jesus. God gives that person a transformed life with the Holy Spirit living in him.
- This life is also called "eternal life" to indicate that it does not end.
- The opposite of spiritual life is spiritual death, which means being separated from God and experiencing eternal punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "life" can be translated as "existence" or "person" or "soul" or "being" or "experience."
- Depending on the context, the term "live" could be translated by "dwell" or "reside" or "exist."
- The expression "end of his life" could be translated as "when he stopped living."
- The expression "spared their lives" could be translated as "allowed them to live" or "did not kill them."
- The expression "they risked their lives" could be translated as "they put themselves in danger" or "they did something that could have killed them."
- Depending on the context, the expression "give life" could also be translated as "cause to live" or "give eternal life" or "cause to live eternally." The word "life-giving" can be translated as "something that causes to live" or "something that gives life."

light

Related Ideas:

bright, brightness, enlighten, shine

Definition:

There are several figurative uses of the term "light" in the Bible. It is often used as a metaphor for righteousness, holiness, and truth.

- Jesus said, "I am the light of the world" to express that he brings God's true message to the world and rescues people from the darkness of their sin.
- Christians are commanded to "walk in the light," which means they should be living the way God wants them to and avoiding evil.
- The apostle John stated that "God is light" and in him there is no darkness at all.
- Light and darkness are complete opposites. Darkness is the absence of all light.
- Jesus said that he was "the light of the world" and that his followers should shine like lights in the world by living in a way that clearly shows how great God is.
- "Walking in the light" represents living in a way that pleases God, doing what is good and right. Walking in darkness represents living in rebellion against God, doing evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- When translating, it is important to keep the literal terms "light" and "darkness" even when they are used figuratively.
- It may be necessary to explain the comparison in the text. For example, "walk as children of light" could be translated as, "live openly righteous lives, like someone who walks in bright sunlight."
- Make sure that the translation of "light" does not refer to an object that gives light, such as a lamp. The translation of this term should refer to the light itself.

like

Related Ideas:

according to, alike, as, as if, compare, in the same way, just as, liken, likeness, likewise, resemble, similar, similarly, unlike

Definition:

The terms "like" and "likeness" refer to something being the same as, or similar to, something else.

- To "compare" two things is to look at how they are the same or how they are different.
- The word "like" is also often used in a figurative expressions called a "simile" in which something is compared to something else, usually highlighting a shared characteristic. For example, "his clothes shined like the sun" and "the voice boomed like thunder."
- To "be like" or "sound like" or "look like" something or someone means to have qualities that are similar to the thing or person being compared to.
- People were created in God's "likeness," that is, in his "image." It means that they have qualities or characteristics that are "like" or "similar to" qualities that God has, such as the ability to think, feel, and communicate.
- To have "the likeness of" something or someone means to have characteristics that look like that thing or person.
- The word "likewise" means "in the same way," referring to something that the speaker has just said.
- The word "unlike" means "not like."

Translation Suggestions

- In some contexts, the expression "the likeness of" could be translated as "what looked like" or "what appeared to be."
- The expression "in the likeness of his death" could be translated as "sharing in the experience of his death" or "as if experiencing his death with him."
- The expression "in the likeness of sinful flesh" could be translated as "being like a sinful human being" or to "be a human being." Make sure the translation of this expression does not sound like Jesus was sinful.
- "In his own likeness" could also be translated as to "be like him" or "having many of the same qualities that he has."
- The expression "the likeness of an image of perishable man, of birds, of four-footed beasts and of creeping things" could be translated as "idols made to look like perishable humans, or animals, such as birds, beasts, and small, crawling things."

loins

Related Ideass:

side, thigh, waist

Definition:

The term "loins" refers to the part of the body of an animal or person that is between the lower ribs and the hip bones, also known as the lower abdomen.

- The expression "gird up the loins" refers to preparing to work hard. It comes from the custom of tucking the bottom of one's robe into a belt around the waist in order to move with ease.
- The term "loins" is often used in the Bible to refer to the lower back part of an animal that was sacrificed.
- In the Bible, the term "loins" often refers figuratively and euphemistically to a man's reproductive organs as the source of his descendants.
- The expression "will come from your loins" could also be translated as, "will be your offspring" or "will be born from your seed" or "God will cause to come from you."
- When referring to a part of the body, this could also be translated as "abdomen" or "hips" or "waist," depending on the context.

lord

Related Ideas:

landowner, Lord, master, master of the house, mistress, owner, owner of a house, sir

Definition:

The term "lord" refers to someone who has ownership or authority over other people.

- This word is sometimes translated as "master" when addressing Jesus or when referring to someone who owns slaves.
- Some English versions translate this as "sir" in contexts where someone is politely addressing someone of higher status.

When "Lord" is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note, however, that when it is used as a form of addressing someone or it occurs at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of "sir" or "master.")

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as "Lord God Almighty" or "Lord Yahweh" or "Yahweh our Lord."
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as "Lord Jesus" and "Lord Jesus Christ," which communicate that Jesus is God.

- The term "Lord" in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has "Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh" and the New Testament text has "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord."
- In the ULB and UDB, the title "Lord" is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean "Lord." It is never used as a translation of God's name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.

Translation Suggestions:

Translating "lord":

- ◦ The term "lord" can be translated with the equivalent of "master" when it refers to a person who owns slaves. It can also be used by a servant to address the person he works for.
- When it refers to Jesus, if the context shows that the speaker sees him as a religious teacher, it can be translated with a respectful address for a religious teacher, such as "master."
- If the person addressing Jesus does not know him, "lord" could be translated with a respectful form of address such as "sir." This translation would also be used for other contexts in which a polite form of address to a man is called for.

Translating "Lord":

- When referring to God the Father or to Jesus, this term is considered a title, written as "Lord" (capitalized) in English.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.
- When "Lord" refers to Jesus Christ (the Son of God), it should be translated with the same word that is used for "Lord" when it refers to God the Father. Or if it is translated with different words, both words should express the same degree of honor.
- Some languages translate "Lord" as "Master" or "Ruler" or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme rule.
- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term "Lord God" could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

lots

Related Ideas:

allotted, allotted portion, cast lots, chosen by lot, divide up by lot

Definition:

A "lot" is a marked object that is chosen from among other similar objects as a way of deciding something. "Casting lots" referred to tossing marked objects onto the ground or other surface.

- Often the lots were small marked stones or pieces of broken pottery.
- Some cultures "draw" or "pull out" lots using a bunch of straws. Someone holds the straws so that no one can see how long they are. Each person pulls out a straw and the one who picks the longest (or shortest) straw is the one who is chosen.
- The practice of casting lots was used by the Israelites to find out what God wanted them to do.
- As in the time of Zechariah and Elizabeth, it was also used to choose which priest would perform a specific duty in the temple at a specific time.
- The soldiers who crucified Jesus cast lots to decide who would get to keep Jesus' robe.
- The phrase "casting lots" can be translated as "tossing lots" or "drawing lots" or "rolling lots." Make sure the translation of "cast" does not sound like the lots were being thrown a long distance.
- Depending on the context, the term "lot" could also be translated as "marked stone" or "pottery piece" or "stick" or "piece of straw."
- If a decision is made "by lot" this could be translated as, "by drawing (or throwing) lots."
- To allot things to people can mean to divide those things and to toss lots to decide who gets each portion.
- To allot something to someone can mean to assign it to him or give it to him. (See also: Elizabeth, priest, Zechariah \(OT\), Zechariah \(NT\))

love

Related Ideas:

brotherly love

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for "love" some languages may express using different words:

1. The kind of love that comes from God is focused on having good things happen to others even when those good things do not happen to the one who loves. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.
  - Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
  - When people love others with this kind of love, they act in ways that show they are thinking of what will cause the others to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
  - In the ULB, the word "love" refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.
1. Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love, or love for a friend or family member.
  - This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
  - The term can also be used in such contexts as, "They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet." This means that they "like very much" or "greatly desire" to do that.
1. The word "love" can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.
2. In the figurative expression "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated," the term "loved" refers to God's choosing of Jacob to be in a covenant relationship with him. This could also be translated as "chosen." Although Esau was also blessed by God, he wasn't given the privilege of being in the covenant. The term "hated" is used figuratively here to mean "rejected" or "not chosen."

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word "love" in the ULB refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, "devoted, faithful caring" or "care for unselfishly" or "love from God." Make sure that the word used to translate God's love can include giving up one's own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word "love" describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means, "like very much" or "care for" or "have strong affection for."
- In contexts where the word "love" is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by "strongly prefer" or "like very much" or "greatly desire."
- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express "love" as an action. So for example, they might translate "love is patient, love is kind" as, "when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him."

lover

Definition:

The term "lover" literally means "person who loves."

- Usually "lover" refers to people who are in a sexual relationship with each other.
- In the Old Testament book Song of Songs, the term "lover" is used in a positive way.
- In other parts of the Bible, it often refers to a person who is involved in a sexual relationship with someone he or she is not married to.
- This wrong sexual relationship is often used in the Bible to refer to Israel's disobedience to God in worshiping idols. So the term "lovers" is also used in a figurative way to refer to the idols that the people of Israel worshiped. In these contexts, this term could possibly be translated by "immoral partners" or "partners in adultery" or "idols."

lute

Definition:

A lute is a small, stringed, musical instrument that the Israelites used when they worshiped God.

- A lute is very similar to a modern-day acoustic guitar, having a wooden sound box and an extended neck on which strings are strung.
- In playing a lute, certain strings are held down with the fingers of one hand while these and other strings are plucked or strummed with the other hand.
- The number of strings varied, but the Old Testament specifically mentions instruments that had ten strings.

mediator

Related Ideas:

intermediary, mediate

Definition:

A mediator is a person who helps two or more people to resolve their disagreements or conflicts with each other. He helps them to become reconciled.

- Because people have sinned, they are God's enemies who deserve his wrath and punishment. Because of sin, the relationship between God and his people is broken.

- Jesus is the mediator between God the Father and his people, restoring that broken relationship through his death as payment for their sin.
- An "intermediary" is a person who represents one person in a discussion or conflict with another person. This is different from a "mediator," who listens to both persons and tries to be neutral.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "mediator" could be "go-between person" or "reconciler" or "person who brings peace."
- Compare this term with how the term "priest" is translated. It is best if the term "mediator" is translated differently.

miracle

Related Ideas:

miraculous

Definition:

A "miracle" is something amazing that is not possible unless God causes it to happen.

- Examples of miracles that Jesus did include calming a storm and healing a blind man.
- Miracles are sometimes called "wonders" because they cause people to be filled with wonder or amazement.
- The term "wonder" can also refer more generally to amazing displays of God's power, such as when he created the heavens and the earth.
- Miracles can also be called "signs" because they are used as indicators or evidence that God is the all-powerful one who has complete authority over the universe.
- Some miracles were God's acts of redemption, such as when he rescued the Israelites from being slaves in Egypt and when he protected Daniel from being hurt by lions.
- Other wonders were God's acts of judgment, such as when he sent a worldwide flood in Noah's time and when he brought terrible plagues on the land of Egypt during the time of Moses.
- Many of God's miracles were the physical healings of sick people or bringing dead people back to life.
- God's power was shown in Jesus when he healed people, calmed storms, walked on water, and raised people from the dead. These were all miracles.
- God also enabled the prophets and the apostles to perform miracles of healing and other things that were only possible through God's power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Possible translations of "miracles" or "wonders" could include "impossible things that God does" or "powerful works of God" or "amazing acts of God."
- The frequent expression "signs and wonders" could be translated as "proofs and miracles" or "miraculous works that prove God's power" or "amazing miracles that show how great God is."
- Note that this meaning of a miraculous sign is different from a sign that gives proof or evidence for something. The two can be related.

mold

Related Ideas:

cast, molder

Definition:

A mold is a hollowed-out piece of wood, metal, or clay that is used to form objects out of gold, silver, or other materials that can be softened and then shaped by the mold. To mold something means to form an object into a certain shape or likeness by using a mold or the hands to form a certain shape.

- Molds were used to make jewelry, dishes, and utensils for eating, among other things.
- In the Bible, molds are mentioned mainly in connection with molding statues to be used as idols.
- Metals have to be heated to a very high temperature so that they can be poured into the mold.

Translation Suggestions

- This term could also be translated as "form" or "shape" or "cast."

month

Related Ideas:

monthly

Definition:

The term "month" refers to a period of time lasting about four weeks. The number of days in each month varies depending on whether a lunar or solar calendar is used.

- In the lunar calendar, the length of each month is based on the amount of time it takes for the moon to go around the earth, about 29 days. In this system there are 12 or 13 months in a year. Despite the year being 12 or 13 months, the first month is always called the same name even though it may be a different season.
- The "new moon," or beginning phase of the moon with its sliver of light, marks the beginning of each month in the lunar calendar.
- All the names of months referred to in the Bible are those of the lunar calendar since this was the system used by the Israelites. Modern Jews still use this calendar for religious purposes.
- The modern-day solar calendar is based on how long it takes the earth to go around the sun (about 365 days). In this system, the year is always divided up into 12 months, with the length of each month ranging from 28 to 31 days.

mourn

Related Ideas:

funeral song, grief, grieve, howl, mourner, mournful, sorrow, sorrowful, tears, wail, weep, with tears

Definitions:

The terms "mourn" and "mourning" refer to expressing deep grief, usually in response to the death of someone.

- In many cultures, mourning includes specific outward behaviors that show this sadness and grief.
- The Israelites and other people groups in ancient times expressed mourning through loud wailing and lamenting. They also wore rough clothing made of sackcloth and put ashes on themselves.
- Hired mourners, usually women, would loudly weep and wail from the time of death until well after the body was put in the tomb.
- The typical period of mourning was seven days, but could last as long as thirty days (as for Moses and Aaron) or seventy days (as for Jacob).
- The Bible also uses the term figuratively to talk about "mourning" because of sin. This refers to feeling deeply grieved because sin hurts God and people.
- A "howl" is the crying sound an animal makes. People who "howl" are hurt, sad, or angry.

name

Related Ideas:

fame, nameless, notorious, reputation

Definition:

In the Bible, the word "name" was used in several figurative ways.

- In some contexts, "name" could refer to a person's reputation, as in "let us make a name for ourselves."
- The term "name" could also refer to the memory of something. For example, "cut off the names of the idols" means to destroy those idols so that they are no longer remembered or worshiped.
- Speaking "in the name of God" meant speaking with his power and authority, or as his representative.
- The "name" of someone could refer to the entire person, as in "there is no other name under heaven by which we must be saved."
- People who are "nameless" are unimportant, so few people know about them or care about them.
- A person who is "notorious" is one who has a reputation for evil or foolishness.

Translation Suggestions:

- An expression like "his good name" could be translated as "his good reputation."
- Doing something "in the name of" could be translated as "with the authority of" or "with the permission of" or "as the representative of" that person.
- The expression "make a name for ourselves" could be translated "cause many people to know about us" or "make people think we are very important."
- The expression "call his name" could be translated as "name him" or "give him the name."
- The expression "those who love your name" could be translated as "those who love you."
- The expression "cut off the names of idols" could be translated as "get rid of pagan idols so that they are not even remembered" or "cause people to stop worshiping false gods" or "completely destroy all idols so that people no longer even think about them."

nation

Definition:

A nation is a large group of people ruled by some form of government. The people of a nation often have the same ancestors and share a common ethnicity.

- A "nation" usually has a well-defined culture and territorial boundaries.
- In the Bible, a "nation" could be a country (like Egypt or Ethiopia), but often it is more general and refers to a people group, especially when used in the plural. It is important to check the context.
- Nations in the Bible included the Israelites, the Philistines, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Canaanites, the Romans, and the Greeks, among many others.
- Sometimes the word "nation" was used figuratively to refer to the ancestor of a certain people group, as when Rebekah was told by God that her unborn sons were "nations" that would fight against each other. This could be translated as "the founders of two nations" or the "ancestors of two people groups."
- The word translated as "nation" was also sometimes used to refer to "Gentiles" or to people who do not worship Yahweh. The context usually makes the meaning clear.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the word "nation" could also be translated as "people group" or "people" or "country."
- If a language has a term for "nation" that is distinct from these other terms, then that term can be used wherever it occurs in the Bible text, as long as it is natural and accurate in each context.
- The plural term "nations" can often be translated as "people groups."
- In certain contexts, this term could also be translated as "Gentiles" or "nonJews."

oath

Related Ideas:

swear, swear by

Definition:

In the Bible, an oath is a formal promise to do something. The person making the oath is required to fulfill that promise. A person who swears an oath commits himself to being faithful and truthful, and by doing so he is saying that God has the right to punish him if he breaks the oath.

- In a court of law, a witness often gives an oath to promise that whatever he says will be true and factual.
- In the Bible, the term "swear" means to speak an oath.
- The term "swear by" means to use the name of something or someone as the basis or power on which the oath is made.
- Sometimes these terms are used together, as in "swear an oath."
- Abraham and Abimelech swore an oath when they made a covenant together concerning the use of a well.
- Abraham told his servant to swear (formally promise) that he would find Isaac a wife from among Abraham's relatives.
- God also made oaths in which he made promises to his people.
- A modern-day meaning of the word "swear" is "use foul language." This is not its meaning in the Bible.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "an oath" could also be translated as "a pledge" or "a solemn promise."
- To "swear" could be translated as to "formally promise" or to "pledge" or to "commit to do something."
- Other ways to translate "swear by my name" could include "make a promise using my name to confirm it."
- To "swear by heaven and earth" could be translated as to, "promise to do something, stating that heaven and earth will confirm it."
- Make sure the translation of "swear" or "oath" does not refer to cursing. In the Bible it does not have that meaning.

priest

Related Ideas:

priesthood, priestly office

Definition:

In the Bible, a priest was someone who was chosen to offer sacrifices to God on behalf of God's people. The "priesthood" was the name for the office or condition of being a priest.

- In the Old Testament, God chose Aaron and his descendants to be his priests for the people of Israel.
- The "priesthood" was a right and a responsibility that was passed down from father to son in the Levite clan.
- The Israelite priests had the responsibility of offering the people's sacrifices to God, along with other duties in the temple.
- Priests also offered regular prayers to God on behalf of his people and performed other religious rites.
- The priests pronounced formal blessings on people and taught them God's laws.
- In Jesus' time, there were different levels of priests, including the chief priests and the high priest.
- Jesus is our "great high priest" who intercedes for us in God's presence. He offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice for sin. This means that the sacrifices made by human priests are no longer needed.
- In the New Testament, every believer in Jesus is called a "priest" who can come directly to God in prayer to intercede for himself and other people.
- In ancient times, there were also pagan priests who presented offerings to false gods such as Baal.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term "priest" could be translated as "sacrifice person" or "God's intermediary" or "sacrificial mediator" or "person God appoints to represent him."
- The translation of "priest" should be different from the translation of "mediator."
- Some translations may prefer to always say something like "Israelite priest" or "Jewish priest" or "Yahweh's priest" or "priest of Baal" to make it clear that this does not refer to a modern-day type of priest.
- The term used to translate "priest" should be different from the terms for "chief priest" and "high priest" and "Levite" and "prophet."

profit

Related Ideas:

profitable, unprofitable

Definition:

In general, the terms "profit" and "profitable" refer to gaining something good through doing certain actions or behaviors.

Something is "profitable" to someone if it brings them good things or if it helps them bring about good things for other people.

- More specifically, the term "profit" often refers to money that is gained from doing business. A business is "profitable" if it gains more money than it spends.
- Actions are profitable if they bring about good things for people.
- 2 Timothy 3:16 says that all Scripture is "profitable" for correcting and training people in righteousness. This means that the Bible's teachings are helpful and useful for teaching people to live according to God's will.

The term "unprofitable" means to not be useful.

- It literally means to not profit anything or to not help someone gain anything.
- Something that is unprofitable is not worth doing because it does not give any benefit.

- This could be translated as "useless" or "worthless" or "not useful" or "unworthy" or "not beneficial" or "giving no benefit."

To "take advantage of" someone is to make extra profit from him because he is weak and unable to demand greater return.

right hand

Related Ideas:

righthand side

Definition:

The figurative expression "right hand" refers to the place of honor or strength on the right side of a ruler or other important individual.

- The right hand is also used as a symbol of power, authority, or strength.
- The Bible describes Jesus as sitting "at the right hand of" God the Father as the head of the body of believers (the Church) and in control as ruler of all creation.
- A person's right hand was used to show special honor when placed on the head of someone being given a blessing (as when the patriarch Jacob blessed Joseph's son Ephraim).
- To "serve at the right hand" of someone means to be the one whose service is especially helpful and important to that person.

Translation Suggestions:

- Sometimes the term "right hand" literally refers to a person's right hand, as when Roman soldiers put a staff into Jesus' right hand to mock him. This should be translated using the term that the language uses to refer to this hand.
- Regarding figurative uses, if an expression that includes the term "right hand" does not have the same meaning in the project language, then consider whether that language has a different expression with the same meaning.
- The expression "at the right hand of" could be translated as "on the right side of" or "in the place of honor beside" or "in the position of strength" or "ready to help."
- Ways to translate "with his right hand" could include "with authority" or "using power" or "with his amazing strength."

- The figurative expression "his right hand and his mighty arm" uses two ways of emphasizing God's power and great strength. One way to translate this expression could be "his amazing strength and mighty power."
- The expression "their right hand is falsehood" could be translated as, "even the most honorable thing about them is corrupted by lies" or "their place of honor is corrupted by deception" or "they use lies to make themselves powerful."

righteous

Related Ideas:

right, rightly, righteousness, rightful, upright

Definition:

The term "righteousness" refers to God's absolute goodness, justice, faithfulness, and love. Having these qualities makes God "righteous." Because God is righteous, he must condemn sin.

- These terms are also often used to describe a person who obeys God and is morally good. However, because all people have sinned, no one except God is completely righteous.
- Examples of people the Bible who were called "righteous" include Noah, Job, Abraham, Zachariah, and Elisabeth.
- When people trust in Jesus to save them, God cleanses them from their sins and declares them to be righteous because of Jesus' righteousness.

run

Related Ideas:

flee, flow, move swiftly, runner

Definition:

Literally the term "run" means "move very quickly on foot," usually at a greater speed than can be accomplished by walking. To "run after" or "pursue" someone or something is to move as quickly as possible to try to catch that person or thing. To run away from someone or something is to "flee."

This main meaning of "run" is also used in figurative expressions such as the following:

- To "run in such a way as to win the prize" refers to persevering in doing God's will with the same perseverance as running a race in order to win.
- To "run in the path of your commands" means to gladly and quickly obey God's commands.
- To "run after other gods" means to persist in worshipping other gods.
- "I run to you to hide me" means to quickly turn to God for refuge and safety when faced with difficult things.

The following figurative uses are about non-living things that are said to run.

- Water and other liquids such as tears, blood, sweat, and rivers are said to "run." This could also be translated as, "flow."
- The border or boundary of a country or region is said to "run along" a river or the border of a different country. This could be translated by saying that the country's border "is next to" the river or other country or by saying that the country "borders" the river or other country."
- Rivers and streams can "run dry," which means that they no longer have water in them. This could be translated as "have dried up" or "have become dry."
- The days of a feast can "run their course," which means they "have passed by" or "are finished" or "are over."

scroll

Related Ideas:

book, certificate, document, literature

Definition:

In ancient times, a scroll was a type of book made of one long, rolled-up sheet of papyrus or leather.

- After writing on a scroll or reading from it, people rolled it up by using the rods attached to its ends.
- Scrolls were used for legal documents and scripture.
- Sometimes scrolls that were delivered by a messenger were sealed with wax. If the wax was still present when the scroll was received, then the receiver knew that no one had opened the scroll to read it or write on it since it had been sealed.
- Scrolls containing the Hebrew Scriptures were read aloud in the synagogues.
- The word "book" in the Bible refers to scrolls or paper that had writing on them.
- A "document" is an official written record.
- A "certificate of divorce" is an official document that a man could give to his wife to end their marriage.
- "Literature" is written things that educated people considered to be great.

seal

Related Ideas:

signet, signet ring, unsealed

Definition:

To seal an object means to keep it closed with something that makes it impossible to open without breaking the seal.

- Often a seal is marked with a design to show who it belongs to.
- Melted wax was used to seal letters or other documents that needed to be protected. When the wax cooled and hardened, the letter could not be opened without breaking the wax seal. The person who received the letter would see the unbroken seal and know that no one had opened it.
- A seal was put on the stone in front of Jesus' grave in order to keep anyone from moving the stone.
- Paul figuratively refers to the Holy Spirit as a "seal" showing that our salvation is secure.
- A "signet" is a small object with letters or designs carved into it. A person could use it to mark a wax seal in order to show that he was the one who closed the seal.
- A "signet ring" is a ring with a signet on it.
- Something that is "unsealed" has not been sealed.

seed

Related Words:

semen

Definition:

A seed is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant. It also has several figurative meanings.

- The term "seed" is used figuratively and euphemistically to refer to the tiny cells inside a man that combine with cells of a woman to cause a baby to grow inside her. A collection of these is called "semen."
- Related to this, "seed" is also used to refer to a person's offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared his seeds to the Word of God, which is planted in people's hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term "seed" to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- For a literal seed, it is best to use the literal term for "seed" that is used in the target language for what a farmer plants in his field.
- The literal term should also be used in contexts where it refers figuratively to God's Word.
- For the figurative use that refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word "descendant" or "descendants" instead of seed. Some languages may have a word that means "children and grandchildren."
- For a man or woman's "seed," consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people.

selah

Definition:

The term "selah" is a Hebrew word that occurs mostly in the book of Psalms. It has several possible meanings.

- It could mean "pause and praise," which would invite the audience to think carefully about what was just said.
- Since many of the Psalms were written as songs, it is thought that "selah" may have been a musical term to instruct the singer to pause in his singing to allow for the musical instruments to play alone or to encourage listeners to think about the words of the song.

servant

Related Ideas:

assistant, attendant, hired worker, maidservant, office, serve, service

Definition:

The word "servant" refers to a person who works for another person, either by choice or by force. Some servants were slaves, and the surrounding text usually makes it clear whether or not a particular servant was a slave. In Bible times, there was less of a difference between a servant and a slave than there is today. Both servants and slaves were an important part of their master's household and many were treated almost like members of the family. Sometimes a servant would choose to become a lifetime servant to his master.

- A slave was a kind of servant who was the property of the person he worked for. The person who bought a slave was called his "owner" or "master." Some masters treated their slaves very cruelly, while other masters treated their slaves very well, as a servant who was a valued member of the household.
- In ancient times, some people became slaves to a person they owed money to in order to pay off their debt to that person.
- In the Bible, the phrase "I am your servant" was used as a sign of respect and service to a person of higher rank, such as a king. It did not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.
- In the Old Testament, God's prophets and other people who worshiped God were often referred to as his "servants."
- In the New Testament, people who obeyed God through faith in Christ were often called his "servants."
- Christians are also called "slaves to righteousness," which is a metaphor that compares the commitment to obey God to a slave's commitment to obey his master.

The word "serve" means to do things to help other people. It can also mean to "worship."

- In the context of a person serving guests, this term means "care for" or "serve food to" or "provide food for." When Jesus told the disciples to "serve" the fish to the people, this could be translated as, "distribute" or "hand out" or "give."
- To "serve God" can be translated as to "worship and obey God" or to "do the work that God has commanded."
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to "serve" the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses. Now they "serve" the new covenant. That is, because of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.

The word "service" refers to the work that a servant does. It may also refer to worship.

The word "office" refers to the position or job that a servant has.

set apart

Related Ideas:

distinct, make a distinction, treat differently

Definition:

The term "set apart" means separated from something to fulfill a certain purpose. Also, to "set apart" people or things means to make them "set apart." This also means to "treat" them "differently." When something is "distinct," it is different from other things.

- The Israelites were set apart for service to God.
- The Holy Spirit commanded the Christians at Antioch to set apart Paul and Barnabas for the work God wanted them to do.
- A believer who is "set apart" for service to God is "dedicated to" fulfilling God's will.
- One meaning of the term "holy" is to be set apart as belonging to God and being separated from the sinful ways of the world.
- To "sanctify" someone means to set apart that person for God's service.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate to "set apart" could include to "specially select" or to "separate from among you" or to "take aside to do a special task."
- To "be set apart" could be translated as "be separated (from)" or "be specially appointed (for)."

sexual immorality

Related Ideas:

fornicate, fornication, immoral

Definition:

The term "sexual immorality" refers to sexual activity that takes place outside the marriage relationship of a man and a woman. This is against God's plan. Older English Bible versions call this "fornication."

- This term can refer to any kind of sexual activity that is against God's will, including homosexual acts and pornography.
- One type of sexual immorality is adultery, which is sexual activity specifically between a married person and someone who is not that person's spouse.
- Another type of sexual immorality is "prostitution," which involves being paid to have sex with someone.
- This term is also used figuratively to refer to Israel's unfaithfulness to God when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "sexual immorality" could be translated as "immorality" as long as the correct meaning of the term is understood.
- Other ways to translate this term could include "wrong sexual acts" or "sex outside of marriage."
- This term should be translated in a different way from the term "adultery."
- The translation of this term's figurative uses should retain the literal term if possible since there is a common comparison in the Bible between unfaithfulness to God and unfaithfulness in the sexual relationship.

Definition:

The word "shadow" literally refers to the darkness that is caused by an object blocking the light. The shadow has a shape similar to the shape of the object that blocks the light.

- The word "overshadow" means to block the light from above and cause a shadow to appear on something.
- The word "shade" means a dark area where the sunlight is blocked, perhaps by a cloud or a trees.

The word "shadow" also has several figurative meanings.

- The "shadow of death" means that death is present or near, just as a shadow indicates the presence of its object.
- Many times in the Bible, the life of a human being is compared to a shadow, which does not last very long and has no substance.
- Sometimes "shadow" is used as another word for "darkness."
- The Bible talks about being hidden or protected in the shadow of God's wings or hands. This is a picture of being protected and hidden from danger. Other ways to translate "shadow" in these contexts could include "shade" or "safety" or "protection."
- It is best to translate "shadow" literally using the local term that is used to refer to an actual shadow.

sheep

Related Ideas:

ewe, ram, sheepfold, sheepshearer, sheepskin

Definition:

A "sheep" is a medium-sized animal with four legs that has wool all over its body. A male sheep is called a "ram." A female sheep is called a "ewe." The plural of "sheep" is also "sheep."

- A baby sheep is called a "lamb."
- The Israelites often used sheep for sacrifices, especially male sheep and young sheep.
- People eat meat from sheep and use their wool to make clothing and other things.
- Sheep are very trusting, weak, and timid. They are easily influenced to wander away. They need a shepherd to lead them, protect them, and provide them with food, water, and shelter.

- In the Bible, people are compared to sheep who have God as their shepherd.
- A "sheepfold" is a place where sheep are kept safe. It has a fence or wall around it to keep the sheep from wandering out and to keep dangerous animals from getting in.
- A "sheepshearer" is a person who cuts the wool of sheep.

shepherd

Definition:

- A shepherd is a person who takes care of sheep. The verb to "shepherd" means to protect the sheep and provide them with food and water.
- Shepherds watch over the sheep, leading them to places with good food and water. Shepherds also keep the sheep from getting lost and protect them from wild animals.
- This term is often used metaphorically in the Bible to refer to taking care of people's spiritual needs. This includes teaching them what God has told them in the Bible and guiding them in the way they should live.
- In the Old Testament, God was called the "shepherd" of his people because he took care of all their needs and protected them. He also led and guided them.
- David was a shepherd who looked after sheep. God made David king over Israel to take care of the people of Israel in some ways like a shepherd takes care of sheep.
- In the New Testament, Jesus called himself the "good shepherd." The apostle Peter also referred to Jesus as "the Chief Shepherd" over the Church.
- Also, in the New Testament, the term "shepherd" was used to refer to a person who was a spiritual leader over other believers. The word translated as "pastor" is the same word that is translated as "shepherd." The elders and overseers were also called shepherds.

Translation Suggestions

- When used literally, the action "shepherd" could be translated as "take care of sheep" or "watch over sheep."
- The person "shepherd" could be translated as "person who takes care of sheep" or "sheep tender" or "sheep caregiver."
- When used as a metaphor, different ways to translate this term could include "spiritual shepherd" or "spiritual leader" or "one who is like a shepherd" or "one who cares for his people like a shepherd cares for his sheep" or "one who leads his people like a shepherd guides his sheep" or "one who takes care of God's sheep."
- In some contexts, "shepherd" could be translated as "leader" or "guide" or "caregiver."
- The spiritual expression to "shepherd" could be translated as to "take care of" or to "spiritually nourish" or to "guide and teach" or to "lead and take care of (like a shepherd cares for sheep)."
- In figurative uses, it is best to use or include the literal word for "shepherd" in the translation of this term.

shield

Related Ideas:

shielded

Definition:

A shield was an object held by a soldier in battle to protect himself from being injured by the enemy's weapons. To "shield" someone means to protect that person from harm.

- Shields were often circular or oval, were made of materials such as leather, wood, or metal, and were sturdy and thick enough to keep a sword or arrow from piercing them.
- Using this term as a metaphor, the Bible refers to God as a protective shield for his people. (See: Metaphor)
- Paul talked about the "shield of faith," which is a figurative way of saying that having faith in Jesus and living out that faith in obedience to God will protect believers from the spiritual attacks of Satan.

siege

Related Ideas:

besiege, besiegers

Definition:

A "siege" occurs when an attacking army surrounds a city and keeps it from receiving any supplies of food and water. To "besiege" a city or to put it "under siege" means to attack it by means of a siege.

- When the Babylonians came to attack Israel, they used the tactic of a siege against Jerusalem to weaken the people inside the city.

- Often during a siege, ramps of dirt are gradually constructed to enable the attacking army to cross over the city walls and invade the city.
- To "besiege" a city can also be expressed as to "lay siege" to it or to "perform a siege" on it.
- The term "besieged" has the same meaning as the expression "under siege." Both these expressions describe a city that an enemy army is surrounding and besieging.

sign

Related Ideas:

demonstration, evidence, mark, marker, omen, proof, remind, reminder, signal

Definition:

A sign is an object, event, or action that communicates a special meaning.

- "Reminders" are signs that "remind" people by helping them remember something, often something that was promised:
- The rainbows God creates in the sky are signs to remind people that he has promised he will never again destroy all life with a worldwide flood.
- God commanded the Israelites to circumcise their sons as a sign of his covenant with them.
- Signs can reveal or point to something:
- An angel gave shepherds a sign that would help them know which baby in Bethlehem was the newborn Messiah.
- Judas kissed Jesus as a sign to the religious leaders that Jesus was the one they should arrest.
- Signs can prove that something is true:
- The miracles performed by the prophets and apostles were signs that proved they were speaking God's message.
- The miracles that Jesus performed were signs that proved he was truly the Messiah.
- A "signal flag" is a flag that a king would raise as a sign so that people could see it and come to him or go into battle.
- An "omen" is an event that people think tells that something else will happen in the future.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on its context, "sign" could also be translated as "signal" or "symbol" or "mark" or "evidence" or "proof" or "gesture."
- To "make signs with the hands" could also be translated as "motion with the hands" or "gesture with the hands" or "make gestures."
- In some languages, there may be one word for a "sign" that proves something and a different word for a "sign" that is a miracle.

sin

Related Ideas:

sinful, sinner

Definition:

The term "sin" refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God's will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people don't know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God's will are called "sinful."
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a "sinful nature," a nature that controls them and causes them to sin.
- A "sinner" is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word "sinners" was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who didn't keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term "sinner" was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "sin" could be translated with a word or phrase that means "disobedience to God" or "going against God's will" or "evil behavior and thoughts" or "wrongdoing."
- To "sin" could also be translated as to "disobey God" or to "do wrong."
- Depending on the context "sinful" could be translated as "full of wrongdoing" or "wicked" or "immoral" or "evil" or "rebellious against God."
- Depending on the context the term "sinner" could be translated with a word or phrase that means, "person who sins" or "person who does wrong things" or "person who disobeys God" or "person who disobeys the law."
- The term "sinners" could be translated by a word or phrase that means "very sinful people" or "people considered to be very sinful" or "immoral people."
- Ways to translate "tax collectors and sinners" could include "people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people" or "very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors."
- In expressions like "slaves to sin" or "ruled by sin," the term "sin" could be translated as "disobedience" or "evil desires and actions."

- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people don't see or know about.
- The term "sin" should be general, and different from the terms for "wickedness" and "evil."

sin offering

Definition:

The "sin offering" was one of several sacrifices that God required the Israelites to offer.

- This offering involved sacrificing a bull, burning its blood and fat on the altar, and taking the rest of the animal's body and burning it on the ground outside the Israelite camp.
- The complete burning up of this animal sacrifice shows how holy God is and how terrible sin is.
- The Bible teaches that in order for there to be a cleansing from sin, blood must be shed to pay the cost for the sin that was committed.
- Animal sacrifices could not permanently bring about forgiveness of sin.
- Jesus' death on the cross paid the penalty for sin, for all time. He was the perfect sin offering.

sister

Definition:

A sister is a female person who shares at least one biological parent with another person. She is said to be that other person's sister or the sister of that other person.

- In the New Testament, "sister" is also used figuratively to refer to a woman who is a fellow believer in Jesus Christ.
- Sometimes the phrase "brothers and sisters" is used to refer to all believers in Christ, both men and women.
- In the Old Testament book Song of Songs, "sister" refers to a female lover or wife.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological sister, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- Other ways to translate this could include "sister in Christ" or "spiritual sister" or "woman who believes in Jesus" or "fellow woman believer."
- If possible, it is best to use a family term.
- If the language has a feminine form for "believer," this may be a possible way to translate this term.
- When referring to a lover or wife, this could be translated using a feminine form of "loved one" or "dear one."

snare

Related Ideas:

ensnare, entrap, noose, trap

Definition:

The terms "snare" and "trap" refer to devices that are used to catch animals and keep them from escaping. To "snare" or "ensnare" is to catch with a snare, and to "trap" or "entrap" is to catch with a trap. In the Bible, these terms were also used figuratively to talk about how sin and temptation are like hidden traps that catch people and harm them.

- A "snare" is a loop of rope or wire that suddenly pulls tight when an animal steps into it, ensnaring its leg.
- A "trap" is usually made of metal or wood and has two parts that suddenly and powerfully close together, catching an animal so it can't get away. Sometimes a trap can be a deep hole that has been made in order to get something to fall into it.
- Usually the snare or trap is hidden so that its prey is taken by surprise.
- The phrase "set a trap" means to get a trap ready to capture something.
- To "fall into a trap" refers to falling into a deep hole or pit that was dug and hidden in order to catch an animal.
- A person who starts sinning and cannot stop can be described as "ensnared by sin" in a figurative reference to the way an animal can be ensnared and cannot escape.
- Just as an animal is endangered and hurt by being in a trap, so a person caught in the trap of sin is being harmed by that sin and needs to be set free.
- A "noose" is a rope or vine designed to catch an animal around the neck.

snow

Definitions:

The term "snow" refers to white flakes of frozen water that can fall from clouds in places where the air temperature is cold.

- Snow falls in places of higher elevation in Israel, but does not always stay on the ground very long before melting. The peaks of mountains tend to have snow that lasts longer. One example of a place mentioned in the Bible as having snow is Mount Lebanon.
- Something that is very white often has its color compared to the color of snow. For example, in the book of Revelation Jesus' clothing and hair were described as being "white as snow."
- The whiteness of snow also symbolizes purity and cleanliness. For example, the statement that our "sins will be as white as snow" means that God will completely cleanse his people from their sins.
- Some languages might refer to snow as "frozen rain" or "flakes of ice" or "frozen flakes."
- "Snow water" refers to the water that comes from melted snow.

son

Definition:

The male offspring of a man and a woman is called their "son" for his entire life. He is also called a son of that man and a son of that woman. An "adopted son" is a male who has been legally placed into the position of being a son.

- "Son" was often used figuratively in the Bible to refer to any male descendant, such as a grandson or great-grandson.
- The term "son" can also be used as a polite form of address to a boy or man who is younger than the speaker.
- Sometimes "sons of God" was used in the New Testament to refer to believers in Christ.
- God called Israel his "firstborn son." This refers to God's choosing of the nation of Israel to be his special people. It is through them that God's message of redemption and salvation came, with the result that many other people have become his spiritual children.
- The phrase "son of" often has the figurative meaning "person having the characteristics of." Examples of this include "sons of the light," "sons of disobedience," "a son of peace," and "sons of thunder."
- The phrase "son of" is also used to tell who a person's father is. This phrase is used in genealogies and many other places.
- Using "son of" to give the name of the father frequently helps distinguish people who have the same name. For example, "Azariah son of Zadok" and "Azariah son of Nathan" in 1 Kings 4, and "Azariah son of Amaziah" in 2 Kings 15 are three different men.

Translation Suggestions:

- In most occurrences of this term, it is best to translate "son" by the literal term in the language that is used to refer to a son.
- When translating the term "Son of God," the project language's common term for "son" should be used.
- When used to refer to a descendant rather than a direct son, the term "descendant" could be used, as in referring to Jesus as the "descendant of David" or in genealogies where sometimes "son" referred to a male descendant who was not an actual son.
- Sometimes "sons" can be translated as "children," when both males and females are being referred to. For example, "sons of God" could be translated as "children of God" since this expression also includes girls and women.
- The figurative expression "son of" could also be translated as "someone who has the characteristics of" or "someone who is like" or "someone who has" or "someone who acts like."

sons of God

Related Ideas:

children of God

Definition:

The term "sons of God" is a figurative expression that has several possible meanings.

- In the New Testament, the term "sons of God" refers to all believers in Jesus and is often translated as "children of God" since it includes both males and females.
- This use of the term speaks of a relationship with God that is like the relationship between a human son and his father, with all the privileges associated with being sons.
- Some people interpret the term "sons of God" that appears in Genesis 6 to mean fallen angels—evil spirits or demons. Others think it may refer to powerful political rulers or to the descendants of Seth.
- The title "Son of God" is a different term: it refers to Jesus, who is God's only Son.

Translation Suggestions:

- When "sons of God" refers to believers in Jesus, it could be translated as "children of God."
- In Genesis 6:2 and 4 ways to translate "sons of God" could include "angels," "spirit beings," "supernatural creatures," or "demons."

sorcery

Related Ideas:

sorcerer, sorceress, witchcraft

Definition:

"Sorcery" or "witchcraft" refers to using magic, which involves doing powerful things through the help of evil spirits. A "sorcerer" is a man who does these powerful, magical things. A "sorceress" is a woman who does these things.

- The use of magic and sorcery can involve both beneficial things (such as healing someone) and harmful things (such as putting a curse on someone). But all kinds of sorcery are wrong, because they use the power of evil spirits.
- In the Bible, God says that the use of sorcery is as evil as other terrible sins (such as adultery, worshipping idols, and child sacrifice).
- The terms "sorcery" and "witchcraft" could also be translated as "evil spirit power" or "casting spells."
- Possible ways to translated "sorcerer" could include "worker of magic" or "person who casts spells" or "person who does miracles using evil spirit power."
- Note that "sorcery" has a different meaning than the term "divination," which refers to attempting to contact the spirit world.

soul

Related Ideas:

person

Definition:

The soul is the inner, invisible part of a person. It refers to the non-physical part of a person. It is the part of a person that continues living after the body dies.

- The terms "soul" and "spirit" may be two different concepts, or they may be two terms that refer to the same concept.
- When a person dies, his soul leaves his body.
- The word "soul" is sometimes used figuratively to refer to the whole person. For example, "the soul who sins" means "the person who sins" and "my soul is tired" means, "I am tired."

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "soul" could also be translated as "inner self" or "inner person."
- In some contexts, "my soul" could be translated as "I" or "me."
- Usually the phrase "the soul" can be translated as "the person" or "he" or "him," depending on the context.

- Some languages might only have one word for the concepts "soul" and "spirit."
- In Hebrews 4:12, the figurative phrase "dividing soul and spirit" could mean "deeply discerning or exposing the inner person."

SOW

Related Ideas:

plant, plantation, transplanted

Definition:

A "plant" is generally something that grows and is attached to the ground. To "plant" something is to put it in the ground so that it can grow. To "sow" is to scatter seeds on the ground so they can go into the ground and grow. A "sower" is a person who sows seeds.

- Sometimes people plant seeds or plants by making holes in the soil and placing seeds or a plant in each hole.
- When someone plants seeds by sowing, he takes handfuls of seeds and scatters them on the ground.
- The term "sow" can be used figuratively, as in "a person will reap what he sows." This means that if a person does something evil, he will receive a negative result, and if a person does good, he will receive a positive result.
- A "plantation" is a large field where people plant crops.
- To "transplant" something is to move it from one place and plant it in another place.

Translations Suggestions

- The term "sow" could be translated as "plant" if that word can include planting seeds by scattering them.
- The term "sower" could be translated as "planter" or "farmer" or "person who scatters seeds."

- The expression "a person reaps what he sows" could be translated as "just as a certain kind of seed produces a certain kind of plant, a person's good actions bring good results and a person's evil actions bring evil results."

spear

Related Ideas:

javelin, spearmen

Definition:

A spear is a weapon with a long wooden handle and sharp metal blade on one end that is thrown a long distance.

- Spears were commonly used for war in biblical times. They are sometimes still used in present-day conflicts between certain people groups.
- A spear was used by a Roman soldier to pierce the side of Jesus while he hung on the cross.
- Sometimes people throw spears to catch fish or other prey to eat.
- Similar weapons are the "javelin" or "lance." A javelin is a light spear that is thrown.
- Make sure that the translation of "spear" is different from the translation of "sword," which is a weapon that is used for thrusting or stabbing, not throwing. Also, a sword has a long blade with a handle, while a spear has a small blade on the end of a long shaft.

stiff-necked

Related Ideas:

stiffen his neck, stubborn, stubbornness

Definition:

The term "stiff-necked" is an idiom used in the Bible to describe people who keep disobeying God and refuse to repent. Such people are very proud and will not submit to God's authority.

- Similarly, the term "stubborn" describes a person who refuses to change his mind or actions even when urged to do so. Stubborn people will not listen to good advice or warnings that other people give them.
- The Old Testament described the Israelites as "stiff-necked" because they did not listen to the many messages from God's prophets who urged them to repent and turn back to Yahweh.
- If a neck is "stiff" it does not bend easily. The project language may have a different idiom that communicates that a person is "unbending" in that he refuses to change his ways.
- Other ways to translate this term could include "pridefully stubborn" or "arrogant and unyielding" or "refusing to change."
- If a person "stiffens his neck," he becomes stubborn.

stronghold

Related Ideas:

battlement, city wall, fortification, fortified, fortress

Definition:

The terms "stronghold" and "fortress" both refer to places that are well protected against an attack by enemy soldiers. The term "fortified" describes a city or other place that has been made safe from attack.

- Often, strongholds and fortresses were manmade structures with defensive walls. They could also have been places with natural protective barriers such as rocky cliffs or high mountains.
- People fortified strongholds by building thick walls or other structures that made it difficult for an enemy to break through.
- "Stronghold" or "fortress" could be translated as "securely strong place" or "strongly protected place."
- The term "fortified city" could be translated as "securely protected city" or "strongly built city."

- These ideas were also used figuratively to refer to God as a stronghold or fortress for those who trust in him.
- Another figurative meaning for the term "stronghold" referred to something that someone wrongly trusted in for security, such as a false god or other thing that was worshiped instead of Yahweh. This could be translated as "false strongholds."
- This term should be translated differently from "refuge," which emphasizes safety more than the concept of being fortified.
- A "city wall" was tall, strong wall around a city that was meant to keep enemies out of the city.
- A "battlement" is a low wall along the top of a city wall that soldiers could hide behind and shoot through at their enemies below.

sweep

Definitions:

To "sweep" usually means to remove dirt by making broad, quick movements with a broom or brush. "Swept" is the past tense of "sweep." These words are also used figuratively.

- The term "sweep" is used figuratively to describe how an army attacks with swift, decisive, wide-reaching movements.
- For example, Isaiah prophesied that the Assyrians would "sweep through" the Kingdom of Judah. This means they would destroy Judah and capture its people.
- The term "sweep" can also be used to describe the manner in which rapidly flowing water pushes things and forces them away.
- When overwhelming, difficult things are happening to a person, it can be said that they are "sweeping over" him.

sword

Related Ideas:

dagger, swordsmen

Definition:

A sword is a flat-bladed metal weapon used to cut or stab. It has a handle and a long, pointed blade with a very sharp cutting edge.

- In ancient times the length of a sword's blade was about 60 to 91 centimeters.
- Some swords have two sharp edges and are called "double-edged" or "two-edged" swords.
- Jesus' disciples had swords for self defense. With his sword, Peter cut off the ear of the high priest's servant.
- Both John the Baptist and the apostle James were beheaded with swords.
- A "dagger" is a short sword used to stab people who are close by.

Translation Suggestions

- A sword is used as a metaphor for God's word. God's teachings in the Bible exposed people's innermost thoughts and convicted them of their sin. In a similar way, a sword cuts deeply, causing pain.

- One way to translate this figurative use would be, "God's word is like a sword, which cuts deeply and exposes sin."
- Another figurative use of this term occurred in the book of Psalms, where the tongue or speech of a person was compared to a sword, which can injure people. This could be translated as "the tongue is like a sword that can badly injure someone."
- If swords are not known in your culture, this word could be translated with the name of another long-bladed weapon that is used to cut or stab.
- A sword could also be described as a "sharp weapon" or "long knife." Some translations could include a picture of a sword.

synagogue

Definition:

A synagogue is a building where Jewish people meet together to worship God.

- Since ancient times, a synagogue's services have included times of prayer, scripture reading, and teaching about the scriptures.
- The Jews originally started building synagogues as places to pray and worship God in their own cities, because many of them lived far away from the temple in Jerusalem.
- Jesus often taught in synagogues and healed people there.
- The word "synagogue" can be used figuratively to refer to the group of people meeting there.

tabernacle

Related Ideas:

dwelling place, habitation

Definition:

The word "tabernacle" means "dwelling place."

The tabernacle was a special tent-like structure where the Israelites worshiped God during the 40 years they traveled around in the desert.

- God had given the Israelites detailed instructions for building this large tent, which had two rooms and was surrounded by an enclosed courtyard.
- Each time the Israelites moved to a different place in the desert to live, the priests would take the tabernacle apart and carry it to their next campsite. Then they would set it up again in the center of their new camp.
- The tabernacle was constructed of wood frames hung with curtains made of cloth, goat hair, and animal skins. The courtyard surrounding it was enclosed with more curtains.
- The two sections of the tabernacle were the Holy Place (where the altar for burning incense was located) and the Most Holy Place (where the ark of the covenant was kept).
- The courtyard of the tabernacle had an altar for burning animal sacrifices and a special washbasin for ritual cleansing.
- The Israelites stopped using the tabernacle when the temple was built in Jerusalem by Solomon.
- Another word for "dwelling place" is "habitation."

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate "tabernacle" could include, "sacred tent" or "tent where God was" or "God's tent."
- Make sure that the translation of this term is different from the translation of "temple."

tax

Related Ideas:

tax collector, taxation, taxpayers, toll

Definition:

The terms "tax" and "taxes" refer to money or goods that people pay to a government that is in authority over them. A "tax collector" was a government worker whose job was to receive money that people were required to pay the government in taxes.

- The amount of money that is paid as a tax is usually based on the value of an item or on how much a person's property is worth.
- In the time of Jesus and the apostles, the Roman government required taxes from everyone living in the Roman empire, including the Jews.
- If taxes are not paid, the government can take legal action against a person to get the money that is owed.
- Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem to be counted in the census held to tax everyone living in the Roman empire.
- The term "tax" could also be translated as, "required payment" or "government money" or "temple money," depending on the context.
- To "pay taxes" could also be translated as to "pay money to the government" or "receive money for the government" or "make the required payment." To "collect taxes" could be translated as to "receive money for the government."
- A "tax collector" is someone who works for the government and receives the money that people are required to pay it.
- The people who collected taxes for the Roman government would often demand more money from the people than the government required. The tax collectors would keep the extra amount for themselves.
- Because tax collectors cheated people in this way, the Jews considered them to be among the worst of sinners.
- The Jews also considered Jewish tax collectors to be traitors to their own people because they worked for the Roman government which was oppressing the Jewish people.
- The phrase, "tax collectors and sinners" was a common expression in the New Testament, showing how much the Jews despised tax collectors.
- A "toll" is a tax for using a road or a tax on things that people buy or sell.

teach

Related Ideas:

educated, teaching, untaught

Definition:

To "teach" someone is to tell him something he doesn't already know. It can also mean to "provide information" in general, with no reference to the person who is learning. Usually the information is given in a formal or systematic way. A person's "teaching" is or his "teachings" are what he has taught.

- A "teacher" is someone who teaches. The past action of "teach" is "taught."
- When Jesus was teaching, he was explaining things about God and his kingdom.
- Jesus' disciples called him "Teacher" as a respectful form of address for someone who taught people about God.
- The information that is being taught can be shown or spoken.
- The phrase "what you have been taught" could also be translated as, "what these people have taught you" or "what God has taught you," depending on the context.
- Other ways to translate "teach" could include "tell" or "explain" or "instruct."
- Often this term can be translated as "teaching people about God."
- A person who is "educated" has been taught formally.
- A person who is "untaught" has not been taught.

temple

Related Ideas:

shrine

Definitions:

A temple is a special building in which people worship their god or gods. The most important temple in the Bible was where the Israelites worshiped the true God with prayers and sacrifices. It was located on Mount Moriah in the city of Jerusalem.

- Often the term "temple" referred to the whole temple complex, including the courtyards that surrounded the main building. Sometimes it referred only to the building.
- The temple building had two rooms, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.
- God referred to the temple as his dwelling place.
- King Solomon built the Temple during his reign. It was supposed to be the permanent place of worship in Jerusalem.
- In the New Testament, the term "temple of the Holy Spirit" is used to refer to believers in Jesus as a group, because the Holy Spirit lives in them.
- A "shrine" is a small place where people worship or an object of worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Usually when the text says that people were "in the temple," it is referring to the courtyards outside the building. This could be translated as "in the temple courtyards" or "in the temple complex."
- Where it refers specifically to the building itself, some translations translate "temple" as "temple building," to make it the reference clear.
- Ways to translate "temple" could include, "God's holy house" or "sacred worship place."
- Often in the Bible, the temple is referred to as "the house of Yahweh" or "the house of God."

tent

Related Ideas:

camp, encamp, tentmaker

Definition:

A tent is a portable shelter made of sturdy fabric that is draped over a structure of poles and attached to them.

- Tents can be small, with just enough space for a few people to sleep in, or they can be very large, with space for an entire family to sleep, cook, and live in.
- For many people, tents are used as permanent dwelling places. For example, during most of the time that Abraham's family lived in the land of Canaan, they dwelled in large tents constructed from sturdy cloth made of goat hair.
- The Israelites also lived in tents during their forty-year wanderings through the desert of Sinai.
- The tabernacle building was a kind of very large tent, with thick walls made of cloth curtains.
- When the apostle Paul traveled to different cities to share the gospel, he supported himself by making tents.
- The term "tents" is sometimes used figuratively to refer generally to where people live. This could also be translated as "homes" or "dwellings" or "houses" or even "bodies."
- To "camp" is to sleep in tents or other temporary shelters.

- To "encamp" is for an army to set up camp near a place they will attack.

tithe

Definition:

The terms "tenth" and "tithe" refer to "ten percent" or "one-out-of-ten portion" of one's money, crops, livestock, or other possessions, which is given to God.

- In the Old Testament, God instructed the Israelites to set aside a tenth of their belongings to give as an offering of thanksgiving to him.
- This offering was used to support the Levite tribe of Israel who served the Israelites as priests and caretakers of the tabernacle and later, the temple.
- In the New Testament, God does not require giving a tithe, but instead he instructs believers to generously and cheerfully help people in need and support the work of Christian ministry.
- This could also be translated as "one-tenth" or "one out of ten."

put to the test

Definition:

The term "test" refers to a difficult or painful experience that reveals a person's strengths and weaknesses.

- God tests people, but he does not tempt them to sin. Satan, however, tempts people to sin.
- God sometimes uses tests to expose people's sin. A test helps a person to turn away from sin and to draw closer to God.
- Gold and other metals are tested with fire to find out how pure and strong they are. This is a picture of how God uses painful circumstances to test his people.
- To "put to the test" can mean, "challenge something or someone to prove its value."
- In the context of putting God to the test, it means to try to make him do a miracle for us, taking advantage of his mercy.
- Jesus told Satan that it is wrong to put God to the test. He is the almighty, holy God who is above everything and everyone.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term to "test" could also be translated as, to "challenge" or to "cause to experience difficulties" or to "prove."
- Ways to translate "a test" could be, "a challenge" or "a difficult experience."

testimony

Related Ideas:

eyewitness, testify, witness

Definition:

When a person gives "testimony" he makes a statement about something he knows, claiming that the statement is true. To "testify" is to give "testimony."

- Often a person "testifies" about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives "false testimony" does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term "testimony" refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term was often used to refer to how Jesus' followers testified about the events of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

The term "witness" refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually a witness is also someone who testifies about what they know is true. The term "eyewitness" emphasizes that the person was actually there and saw what happened.

- To "witness" something means to see it happen.
- At a trial, a witness "gives witness" or "bears witness." This has the same meaning as "testify."
- Witnesses are expected to tell the truth about what they have seen or heard.
- A witness who does not tell the truth about what happened is called a "false witness." He is said to "give false witness" or to "bear false witness."
- The expression "be a witness between" means that something or someone will be evidence that a contract has been made. The witness will make sure each person does what he has promised to do.

Translation Suggestions:

Translating "testify" and "testimony":

- The term "testify" or "give testimony" could also be translated as, "tell the facts" or "tell what was seen or heard" or "tell from personal experience" or "tell what happened."
- Ways to translate "testimony" could include, "report of what happened" or "statement of what is true" or "what has been said."
- The phrase, "as a testimony to them" could be translated as, to "show them what is true" or to "prove to them what is true."

- The phrase, "as a testimony against them" could be translated as, "which will show them their sin" or "exposing their hypocrisy" or "which will prove that they are wrong."
- To "give false testimony" could be translated as "say false things about" or "state things that are not true."

Translating "witness" and "eyewitness":

- The term "witness" or "eyewitness" could be translated with a word or phrase that means "person seeing it" or "the one who saw it happen" or "those who saw and heard (those things)."
- Something that is "a witness" could be translated as "guarantee" or "sign of our promise" or "something that testifies that this is true."
- The phrase "you will be my witnesses" could also be translated as "you will tell other people about me" or "you will teach people the truth that I taught you" or "you will tell people what you have seen me do and heard me teach."
- To "witness to" could be translated as to "tell what was seen" or to "testify" or to "state what happened."
- To "witness" something could be translated as to "see something that happens" or to "experience something that happens."

tetrarch

Definition:

The term "tetrarch" refers to a governing official who ruled over part of the Roman Empire. Each tetrarch was under the authority of the Roman emperor.

- The title "tetrarch" means "one of four joint rulers."
- Starting under the Emperor Diocletian, there were four major divisions of the Roman Empire and each tetrarch ruled one division.
- The kingdom of Herod "the Great," who was king at the time of the birth of Jesus, was divided into four sections after his death, and ruled by his sons as "tetrarchs," or "rulers of a fourth."
- Each division had one or more smaller parts called "provinces," such as Galilee or Samaria.
- "Herod the tetrarch" is mentioned several times in the New Testament. He is also known as "Herod Antipas."
- The term "tetrarch" could also be translated as "regional governor" or "provincial ruler" or "ruler" or "governor."

the sea

Facts:

In the Bible, the "Great Sea" or "western sea" refers to what is now called the "Mediterranean Sea," which was the largest body of water known to the people of Bible times.

- The Mediterranean Sea is bordered by : Israel (east), Europe (north and west), and Africa (south).
- This sea was very important in ancient times for trade and travel since it bordered so many countries. Cities and people groups located on the coast of this sea were very prosperous because of how easy it was to access goods from other countries by boat.
- Since the Great Sea was located to the west of Israel, it was sometimes referred to as the "western sea."

the twelve

Related Ideas:

the eleven

Definition:

The term "the twelve" refers to the twelve men that Jesus chose to be his closest disciples, or apostles. After Judas killed himself, they were called "the eleven."

- Jesus had many other disciples, but the title "the twelve" distinguished those who were apparently closest to Jesus.
- The names of these twelve disciples are listed in Matthew 10, Mark 3, and Luke 6.
- Some time after Jesus had returned to heaven, "the eleven" chose a disciple named Matthias to take Judas' place. Then they were called "the twelve" again.

Translation Suggestions:

- For many languages it may be clearer or more natural to add the noun and say, "the twelve apostles" or "Jesus' twelve closest disciples."
- "The eleven" could also be translated as "Jesus' eleven remaining disciples."
- Some translations may prefer to use a capital letter to show that it was used as a title, as in "the Twelve" and "the Eleven."

thief

Related Ideas:

bandit, booty, loot, marauding band, plunder, raider, revolutionary, rob, robber, robbery, steal

Definitions:

The term "thief" refers to a person who steals money or property from other people. The plural of "thief" is "thieves." The term "robber" often refers to a thief who also physically harms or threatens the people he is stealing from.

- Jesus told a parable about a Samaritan man who took care of a Jewish man who had been attacked by robbers. The robbers had beaten the Jewish man and wounded him before stealing his money and clothing.
- Both thieves and robbers come suddenly to steal, when people are not expecting it. Often they use the cover of darkness to hide what they are doing.
- In a figurative sense, the New Testament describes Satan as a thief who comes to steal, kill, and destroy. This means that Satan's plan is to try to get God's people to stop obeying him. If he succeeded in doing this Satan would be stealing from them the good things that God has planned for them.
- Jesus compared the suddenness of his return to the suddenness of a thief coming to steal from people. Just as a thief comes at a time when people are not expecting it, so Jesus will return at a time when people do not expect it.
- "Marauding bands" and "raiding parties" are large groups people who go from place to place to steal things and cause others harm.
- "Bandits" are thieves who work together.
- "Plunder" and "loot" are words that mean the same thing as "steal." They are used to speak of stealing many things at one time.
- "Raiders" are people who attack others, stealing and destroying property, and often killing and harming the people whose property they are stealing.
- The words "booty," "loot," and "plunder" also refer to the things that are stolen.

thorn

Related Ideas:

thistle, thornbush

Definitions:

Thorn bushes and thistles are plants that have prickly branches or flowers. These plants do not produce fruit or anything else that is useful.

- A "thorn" is a hard, sharp growth on the branch or stem of a plant. A "thornbush" is a type of small tree or shrub that has many thorns on its branches.
- A "thistle" is a plant with prickly stems and leaves. Often the flowers are purple.
- Thorn and thistle plants multiply quickly and can cause nearby plants or crops to not be able to grow. This is a picture of how sin keeps a person from producing good spiritual fruit.
- A crown made of twisted thorn branches was placed on Jesus' head before he was crucified.
- If possible, these terms should be translated by the names of two different plants or bushes that are known in the language area.

thresh

Related Ideas:

beat out

Definition:

The terms "thresh" and "threshing" refer to the first part of the process of separating wheat grain from the rest of the wheat plant.

- Threshing the wheat plant loosens the grain from the straw and the chaff. Afterwards the grain is "winnowed" to completely separate the grain from all unwanted materials, leaving only the part the grain that can be eaten.
- In Bible times, a "threshing floor" was a large flat rock or an area of packed-down dirt, giving a hard, level surface to crush the grain stalks and remove the grain.
- A "threshing cart" or "threshing wheel" was sometimes used to crush the grain and help separate it from the straw and chaff.

- A "threshing sledge" or "threshing board" was also used for separating grain. It was made of wooden boards that had sharp metal spikes on the end.
- To "beat out" is to separate the grain from the straw either by spreading the stalks on the ground and hitting them with a stick or board or by holding the base of a bundle of stalks and hitting the heads on a hard surface.

doorway

Definition:

The term "threshold" refers to the bottom part of a doorway or the part of a building that is just inside the door.

- Sometimes a threshold is a strip of wood or stone that must be stepped over in order to enter a room or building.
- Both a gate and the opening to a tent can also have a threshold.
- This term should be translated with a term in the project language that refers to the place at the very entrance to a home that a person steps across.
- If there is no term for this, "threshold" could also be translated as "doorway" or "opening" or "entranceway," depending on the context.

throne

Related Ideas:

enthroned, seat of authority

Definition:

A throne is a specially-designed chair where a ruler sits when he decides important matters and listens to requests from his people.

- A throne is also a symbol of the authority and power that a ruler has.
- The word "throne" is often used figuratively to refer to the ruler, his reign, or his power.
- In the Bible, God was often portrayed as a king who sits on his throne. Jesus was described as sitting on a throne at the right hand of God the Father.
- Jesus said that heaven is God's throne. One way to translate this could be, "where God reigns as king."
- "Seat of authority" is another way to refer to a throne.
- "Enthroned" means "sitting on a throne." In the Bible, this talks about Yahweh ruling from heaven or his presence being between the cherubim on the ark of the covenant.

time

Definitions:

In the Bible the term "time" was often used to refer to a specific season or period of time when certain events took place. It has a meaning similar to "age" or "epoch" or "season."

- In both Daniel and Revelation speak of a "time" of great trouble or tribulation that will come upon the earth.
- In the phrase "time, times, and half a time" the term "time" means "year." This phrase refers to a three-and-a-half-year period of time during the great tribulation at the end of this present age.
- "Time" can mean "occasion" in a phrase like "third time." The phrase "many times" can mean "on many occasions."
- To be "on time" means to do something when expected or needed, not late.
- Depending on the context, the term "time" could be translated as, "season" or "time period" or "moment" or "event" or "occurrence."

tomb

Related Ideas:

burial place, grave, gravediggers

Definition:

The terms "tomb" and "grave" refer to a place where people put the body of a person who has died. A "burial place" is a more general term that also refers to this.

- The Jews buried bodies in natural caves, in caves that they dug in the side of a hill, or in holes that they dug in the ground.
- In New Testament times, it was common to roll a large, heavy stone in front of the opening of a tomb in order to close it.

- If in the target language the word for a tomb can only refer to a hole in which the body is placed below the ground, other ways to translate this could include "cave" or "hole in the side of a hill."
- A gravedigger is a person who digs a grave to put a dead body in it.
- The phrase "the grave" is often used generally and figuratively to refer to the condition of being dead or a place where the souls of dead people are.

Definition:

There are several figurative meanings of "tongue" in the Bible.

- In the Bible, the most common figurative meaning for this term is "language" or "speech."
- Sometimes "tongue" may refer to a human language spoken by a certain people group.
- Other times it refers to a supernatural language that the Holy Spirit gives believers in Christ as one of the "gifts of the Spirit."
- The expression "tongues" of fire refers to "flames" of fire.
- In the expression "my tongue rejoices," the term "tongue" refers to the whole person.
- The phrase "lying tongue" refers to a person's voice or speech. (See: metonymy)

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term "tongue" can be translated by "language" or "spiritual language." If it is not clear which one it is referring to, it is better to translate it as "language."
- When referring to fire, this term could be translated as "flames."
- The expression "my tongue rejoices" could be translated as "I rejoice and praise God" or "I am joyfully praising God."
- The phrase, "tongue that lies" could be translated as "person who tell lies" or "people who lie."
- Phrases such as "with their tongues" could be translated as "with what they say" or "by their words."

tradition

Definition:

The term "tradition" refers to a custom or practice that has been kept over time and which is passed down to people in later generations.

- Often in the Bible the word "traditions" referred to teachings and practices that people made, not God's laws. The expression "tradition of men" or "human tradition" makes this clear.
- Phrases such as "traditions of the elders" or "traditions of my fathers" referred specifically to Jewish customs and practices that Jewish leaders over time had added to the laws God gave to the Israelites through Moses. Even though these added traditions had not come from God, people thought they had to obey them in order to be righteous.
- The apostle Paul used the term "tradition" in a different way to refer to teachings about Christian practice that came from God and that he and other apostles had taught new believers.
- In modern times, there are many Christian traditions that are not taught in the Bible, but rather are the result of historically accepted customs and practices. These traditions should always be evaluated in light of what God teaches us in the Bible.

transgress

Related Ideas:

offend, offense, transgression, transgressor

Definition:

The term "transgression" refers to the breaking of a command, rule, or moral code. To "transgress" is to commit a "transgression."

- Figuratively, to "transgress" can also be described as to "cross a line," that is, to go beyond a limit or boundary that has been set for the good of the person and others.
- The terms "transgression," "sin," "iniquity," and "trespass" all include the meaning of acting against God's will and disobeying his commands.
- To "offend" someone is to anger him by transgressing against him. He will then be "offended."

Translation Suggestions:

- To "transgress" could be translated as to "sin" or to "disobey" or to "rebel."
- If a verse or passage uses two terms that mean "sin" or "transgress" or "trespass," it is important, if possible, to use different ways to translate these terms. When the Bible uses two or more terms with similar meanings in the same context, usually its purpose is to emphasize what is being said or to show its importance.

trust

Related Ideas:

entrust, trustworthiness, trustworthy

Definition:

To "trust" something or someone is to believe that the thing or person is true or dependable. That belief is also called "trust." A "trustworthy" person is one you can trust to do and say what is right and true, and therefore one who has the quality of "trustworthiness."

- Trust is closely related to faith. If we trust someone, we have faith in that person to do what they promised to do.
- Having trust in someone also means depending on that person.
- To "trust in" Jesus means to believe that he is God, to believe that he died on the cross to pay for our sins, and to rely on him to save us.
- A "trustworthy saying" refers to something that is said that can be counted on to be true.
- For one person to "entrust" something to a second person is for the first person to give that thing to the second person and expect that the second person will do what the first person tells him to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "trust" could include "believe" or "have faith" or "have confidence" or "depend on."
- The phrase "put your trust in" is very similar in meaning to "trust in."
- The term "trustworthy" could be translated as "dependable" or "reliable" or "can always be trusted."

tunic

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "tunic" referred to a garment that was worn next to the skin, under other clothing.

- A tunic reached from the shoulders down to the waist or knees and was usually worn with a belt. Tunics worn by wealthy people sometimes had sleeves and reached down to the ankles.

- Tunics were made of leather, haircloth, wool, or linen, and were worn by both men and women.
- A tunic was normally worn under a longer over-garment, such as a toga or outer robe. In warmer weather a tunic was sometimes worn with no outer garment.
- This term could be translated as "long shirt" or "long undergarment" or "shirt-like garment." It could also be written in a similar way to "tunic," with a note to explain what kind of clothing it was.

twelve tribes of Israel

Related Ideas:

children of Israel, descendants of Israel, people of Israel, twelve tribes, twelve tribes of the children of Israel, twelve tribes of the sons of Israel

Definition:

The term "twelve tribes of Israel" refers to the twelve sons of Jacob and their descendants.

- Jacob was Abraham's grandson. God later changed Jacob's name to Israel.
- These are the names of the tribes: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph and Benjamin.
- The descendants of Levi did not inherit any land in Canaan because they were a tribe of priests who were set apart to serve God and his people.

- Joseph received a double inheritance of land, which was passed on to his two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh.
- There are several places in the Bible where the list of the twelve tribes is slightly different. Sometimes Levi, Joseph, or Dan is left out of the list and sometimes Joseph's two sons Ephraim and Manasseh are included in the list.

unleavened bread

Definition:

The term "unleavened bread" refers to bread that is made without yeast or other leavening. This kind of bread is flat because it has no leaven to make it rise.

- When God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, he told them to flee Egypt quickly without waiting for their bread to rise. So they ate unleavened bread with their meal. Since then unleavened bread is used in their yearly Passover celebrations to remind them of that time.
- Since leaven sometimes is used as a picture of sin, "unleavened bread" represents the removal of sin from a person's life in order to live in a way that honors God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include "bread with no yeast" or "flat bread that did not rise."
- Make sure the translation of this term is consistent with how you translate the term "yeast, leaven."
- In some contexts, the term "unleavened bread" refers to the "Feast of Unleavened Bread" and can be translated that way.

veil

Related Ideas:

unveiled

Definition:

The term "veil" usually refers to a thin piece of cloth that is used as a head covering, to cover the head or face so that it cannot be seen.

- Moses covered his face with a veil after he had been in the presence of Yahweh, so that the brightness of his face would be hidden from the people.
- In the Bible, women wore a veil to cover their head, and often their face as well, when they were in public or in the presence of men.
- The verb to "veil" means to cover something with a veil.
- In some English versions, the word "veil" is used to refer to the thick curtain that covered the entrance into the most holy place. But "curtain" is a better term in that context, since it refers to a heavy, thick piece of cloth.

Translation Suggestions

- The term "veil" could also be translated as "thin cloth covering" or "cloth covering" or "head covering."
- In some cultures, there may already be a term for a veil for women. It may be necessary to find a different word when it is used for Moses.

vision

Definitions:

The term "vision" refers to something that a person sees. It especially refers to something unusual or supernatural that God shows people in order to give them a message.

- Usually, visions are seen while the person is awake. However, sometimes a vision is something a person sees in a dream while asleep.
- God sends visions to tell people something that is very important. For example, Peter was shown a vision to tell him that God wanted him to welcome Gentiles.

Translation Suggestion

- The phrase "saw a vision" could be translated as "saw something unusual from God" or "God showed him something special."
- Some languages may not have separate words for "vision" and "dream." So a sentence such as "Daniel had dreams and visions in his mind" could be translated as something like "Daniel was dreaming while asleep and God caused him to see unusual things."

walk

Definition:

The term "walk" is often used in a figurative sense to mean "live."

- "Enoch walked with God" means that Enoch lived in a close relationship with God.
- To "walk by the Spirit" means to be guided by the Holy Spirit so that we do things that please and honor God.
- To "walk in" God's commands or God's ways means to "live in obedience to" his commands, that is, to "obey his commands" or "do his will."
- When God says he will "walk among" his people, it means that he is living among them or closely interacting with them.
- To "walk contrary to" means to live or behave in a way that is against something or someone.
- To "walk after" means to seek or pursue someone or something. It can also mean to act in the same way as someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate "walk" literally, as long as the correct meaning will be understood.
- Otherwise, figurative uses of "walk" could also be translated by "live" or "act" or "behave."
- The phrase "walk by the Spirit" could be translated by, "live in obedience to the Holy Spirit" or "behave in a way that is pleasing to the Holy Spirit" or "do things that are pleasing to God as the Holy Spirit guides you."
- To "walk in God's commands" could be translated by "live by God's commands" or "obey God's commands."

warrior

Related Ideas:

armed group, army, footmen, garrison, host, soldier, troop

Definitions:

The terms "warrior" and "soldier" both can refer to someone who fights in an army. But there are also some differences.

- Usually the term "warrior" is a general, broad term to refer to a man who is gifted and courageous in battle.
- The term "soldier" more specifically refers to someone who belongs to a certain army or who is fighting in a certain battle.
- Roman soldiers in Jerusalem were there to keep order and to carry out duties such as executing prisoners. They guarded Jesus before crucifying him and some were ordered to stand guard at his tomb.
- The translator should consider whether there are two words in the project language for "warrior" and "soldier" that also differ in meaning and use.
- An army is a large organized group of people who are trained to fight against the armies of other countries or kingdoms.
- The phrase "armed groups" refers to the tribes of Israel which were organized in fighting groups as they left Egypt.
- The term "footmen" refers to soldiers who march. They do not ride on a horse or in a chariot.

- A "garrison" is either a fort in which soldiers are stationed or a group of soldiers who are stationed in the fort.
- The term "host" can refer to an army or any very large group of people.
- A "troop" is a large group of soldiers.

These ideas can also be used in figurative ways.

- Yahweh is figuratively described as a "warrior."
- The "host of heaven" is a metaphor that sees the stars in the sky as an army that rivals the army of Yahweh of hosts.

watch (biblical time)

Definition:

In biblical times, a "watch" was a period of time at night during which a watchman or guard for a city would be on duty looking out for any danger from an enemy.

- In the Old Testament, the Israelites had three watches which were called "beginning" (sunset to 10 p.m.), "middle" (10 p.m. to 2 a.m.), and "morning" (2 a.m. to sunrise) watches.
- In the New Testament, the Jews followed the Roman system and had four watches, named simply "first" (sunset to 9 p.m.), "second" (9 p.m. to 12 midnight), "third" (12 midnight to 3 a.m.), and "fourth" (3 a.m. to sunrise) watches.
- These could also be translated with more general expressions such as "late evening" or "middle of the night" or "very early in the morning," depending on which watch is being referred to.

water

Definition:

In addition to its primary meaning, "water" also often refers to a body of water, such as an ocean, sea, lake, or river.

- The term "waters" refers to bodies of water or many sources of water.
- The term "waters" can also be a general reference to a large amount of water.
- To "water" livestock and other animals means to provide water for them. In Bible times, this usually involved drawing water from a well with a bucket and pouring the water into a trough or other container for the animals to drink from.
- The phrase "draw water" means "pull water up from a well with a bucket."

Translation Suggestions:

- "Streams of living water will flow from them" could be translated as "the power and blessings from the Holy Spirit will flow out of them them like streams of water." Instead of "blessings" the term "gifts" or "fruits" or "godly character" could be used.
- When Jesus is talking to the Samaritan woman at the well, the phrase "living water" could be translated as "water that gives life" or "lifegiving water." In this context, the imagery of water must be kept in the translation.
- Depending on the context, the term "waters" or "many waters" could be translated as "great suffering (that surrounds you like water)" or "overwhelming difficulties (like a flood of water)" or "large amounts of water."

well

Related Ideas:

cistern

Definition:

The terms "well" and "cistern" refer to two different kinds of sources for water in Bible times.

- A well is a deep hole dug into the ground so that underground water can flow into it.
- A cistern is a deep hole dug into rock that was used as a holding tank for collecting rain water.
- Cisterns were usually dug into rock and sealed with plaster to keep the water in. A "broken cistern" happened when the plaster became cracked so that the water leaked out.
- Cisterns were often located in the courtyard area of people's homes to catch the rainwater that would run off the roof.
- Wells were often located where they could be accessed by several families or a whole community.

- Because water was very important for both people and livestock, the right to use a well was often a cause of strife and conflict.
- Both wells and cisterns were usually covered with a large stone to prevent anything falling in it. Often there was a rope with a bucket or pot attached to it to bring the water up to the surface.
- Sometimes a dry cistern was used as a place to imprison someone, such as happened to Joseph and Jeremiah.
- These terms are similar in meaning. The main difference is that a well continually receives water from underground springs, whereas a cistern is a holding tank for water that usually comes from rain.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "well" could include "deep water hole" or "deep hole for spring water" or "deep hole for drawing water."
- The term "cistern" could be translated as "stone water pit" or "deep and narrow pit for water" or "underground tank for holding water."

wheat

Definition:

Wheat is a type of grain that people grow for food. When the Bible mentions "grain" or "seeds," it is often talking about wheat grain or seeds.

- The wheat seeds or grains grow at the top of the wheat plant.
- After harvesting the wheat, the grain is separated from the stalk of the plant by threshing it. The stalk of the wheat plant is also called "straw" and is often placed on the ground for animals to sleep on.
- After threshing, the chaff surrounding the grain seed is separated from the grain by winnowing and is thrown away.
- People grind the wheat grain into flour, and use this for making bread.

wine

Related Ideas:

new wine, wineskin

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "wine" refers to a kind of fermented drink made from the juice of a fruit called grapes. Wine was stored in "wineskins," which were containers made out of animal skin.

- The term "new wine" referred to grape juice that had just been taken from the grape and was not fermented yet. Sometimes the term "wine" also referred to unfermented grape juice.
- To make wine, grapes are crushed in a winepress so that the juice comes out. The juice eventually ferments and alcohol forms in it.
- In Bible times, wine was the normal drink with meals. It did not have as much alcohol as present-day wine has.
- Before wine was served for a meal, it was often mixed with water.
- A wineskin that was old and brittle would get cracks in it, which allowed the wine to leak out. New wineskins were soft and flexible, which meant they did not tear easily and could store the wine safely.

Translation Suggestions:

- If wine is unknown in your culture, it could be translated as "fermented grape juice" or "fermented drink made from a fruit called grapes" or "fermented fruit juice."
- Ways to translate "wineskin" could include "bag for wine" or "animal skin wine bag" or "animal skin container for wine."

winepress

Definition:

During Bible times, a "winepress" was a large container or open place where the juice of grapes was extracted in order to make wine.

- In Israel, winepresses were usually large, wide basins that were dug out of solid rock. Clusters of grapes were put on the flat bottom of the hole and people trampled the grapes with their feet to get the grape juice to flow out.
- Usually a winepress had two levels, with the grapes being trampled in the top level so that the juice would run down into the lower level where it could be collected.

- The term "winepress" is also used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of God's wrath being poured out on wicked people.

sift

Definition:

The terms "winnow" and "sift" mean to separate grain from unwanted materials. In the Bible, both words are also used in a figurative sense to refer to separating or dividing people.

- To "winnow" means to separate grain from the unwanted parts of the plant by tossing both the grain and chaff into the air, allowing the wind to blow the chaff away.
- The word "sift" refers to shaking the winnowed grain in a sieve to get rid of any remaining unwanted materials, such as dirt or stones.
- In the Old Testament, "winnow" and "sift" are used figuratively to describe hardship that separates the righteous people from the unrighteous people.
- Jesus also used the term "sift" in this figurative way when he was telling Simon Peter about how he and the other disciples would be tested in their faith.
- To translate these terms, use the words or phrases in the project language that refer to these activities; possible translations might be "shaking" or "fanning." If winnowing or sifting are not known, then these terms could be translated by a term that refers to a different method of separating grain from chaff or dirt, or by describing this process.

wise men

Related Ideas:

educated men

Definitions:

In the Bible, the phrase "wise men" often refers to men who serve God and act wisely, not foolishly. The term "wise men" or "educated men" is also a special term that refers to men with unusual knowledge and abilities who served as part of a king's court.

- Sometimes the term "wise men" is explained in the text as "prudent men" or "men with understanding." This refers to men who act wisely and righteously because they obey God.
- The "wise men" or "educated men" who served pharaohs and other kings were often scholars who studied the stars, especially looking for special meanings for the patterns that the stars made in their positions in the sky.
- Often the "wise men" or "educated men" were expected to explain the meanings of dreams. For example, King Nebuchadnezzar demanded that his wise men describe his dreams and tell him what they meant, but none of them was able to do this, except Daniel, who received this knowledge from God.
- Sometimes the "wise men" or "educated men" performed magical acts such as divination or miracles that were done through the power of evil spirits.

Translation Suggestions:

- When "wise men" simply refers to men who act wisely, the word "wise" should be translated in the same or similar way to how it is translated elsewhere in the Bible.
- When "wise men" refers to men who have an important job working for a ruler, it could be translated as "wise men" or "educated men" or some other term that refers to such a job, such as "advisor."

wolf

Related Ideas:

wild dogs

Definition:

A wolf is a fierce, meat-eating animal that is similar to a wild dog.

- Wolves usually hunt in groups and stalk their prey in a clever and stealthy manner.
- In the Bible, the term "wolves" is used figuratively to refer to false teachers or false prophets who destroy believers, who are compared to sheep. False teaching causes people to believe wrong things that bring harm to them.
- This comparison is based on the fact that sheep are especially vulnerable to being attacked and eaten by wolves, because they are weak and cannot defend themselves.

Translation Suggestion

- This term could be translated as "wild dog" or "wild animal."
- Other names for wild dogs could be "jackal" or "coyote."
- When used figuratively to refer to people, this could be translated as "evil people who harm people like animals that attack sheep."

word

Definition:

A "word" refers to something that someone has said. In the Bible, it almost always refers to an entire message, not just one word.

- An example of this is when the angel told Zechariah, "You did not believe my words," which means, "You did not believe what I said."
- Sometimes "word" refers to speech in general, such as "powerful in word and deed" which means "powerful in speech and behavior."
- Often in the Bible "the word" refers to everything God has said or commanded, as in "the word of God" or "the word of truth."
- A very special use of this term is when Jesus is called "the Word." For these last two meanings, see word of God

Translation Suggestions:

- Different ways of translating "word" or "words" include "teaching" or "message" or "news" or "a saying" or "what was said."

word of God

Related Ideas:

God's word, his words, my word, scripture, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, word of truth, writings

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "word of God" refers to anything that God has communicated to people. This includes spoken and written messages. Jesus is also called "the Word of God."

- The term "scriptures" means "writings." It is only used in the New Testament and refers to the Hebrew scriptures, which is the Old Testament. These writings were God's message that he had told people to write down so that many years in the future people could still read it.
- The related terms "word of Yahweh" and "word of the Lord" often refer to a specific message from God that was given to a prophet or other person in the Bible.
- Sometimes this term occurs as simply "the word" or "my word" or "your word" (when talking about God's word).
- In the New Testament, Jesus is called "the Word" and "the Word of God." These titles mean that Jesus fully reveals who God is, because he is God himself.

The term "word of truth" is another way of referring to "God's word," which is his message or teaching. It does not refer to just one word.

- God's word of truth includes everything that God has taught people about himself, his creation, and his plan of salvation through Jesus.
- This term emphasizes the fact that what God has told us is true, faithful, and real.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include "the message of Yahweh" or "God's message" or "the teachings from God."
- It may be more natural in some languages to make this term plural and say "God's words" or "the words of Yahweh."
- The expression "the word of Yahweh came" is often used to introduce something that God told his prophets or his people. This could be translated as "Yahweh spoke this message" or "Yahweh spoke these words."
- The term "scripture" or "scriptures" could be translated as "the writings" or "the written message from God." This term should be translated differently from the translation of the term "word."
- When "word" occurs alone and it refers to God's word, it could be translated as "the message" or "God's word" or "the teachings." Also consider the alternate translations suggested above.
- When the Bible refers to Jesus as "the Word," this term could be translated as "the Message" or "the Truth."
- "Word of truth" could be translated as "God's true message" or "God's word, which is true."
- It is important for the translation of this term to include the meaning of being true.

work

Related Ideas:

act, deed, fellow worker

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms "work," "deed," and "act" are used to refer generally to things that God or people do.

- God's "works" and the "work of his hands" are expressions that refer to all the things he does or has done, including creating the world, saving sinners, providing for the needs of all creation and keeping the entire universe in place. The terms "deeds" and "acts" are also used to refer to God's miracles in expressions such as "mighty acts" or "marvelous deeds."
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to do good works, which are also called "good fruit."
- The term "work" can also refer to "service" or "ministry."
- People are not saved by their good works; they are saved through faith in Jesus.
- The term "fellow worker" means someone who does a ministry along with someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate "works" or "deeds" could be "actions" or "things that are done."
- When referring to God's "works" or "deeds" and the "work of his hands," these expressions could also be translated as "miracles" or "mighty acts" or "amazing things he does."
- The expression "the work of God" could be translated as "the things that God is doing" or "the miracles God does" or "the amazing things that God does" or "everything God has accomplished."
- The expression "your work in the Lord" could also be translated as "what you do for the Lord."

year

Definition:

When used literally, the term "year" in the Bible refers to a period of time lasting 354 days. This is according to the lunar calendar system which is based on the time it takes for the moon to go around the earth.

- A year in the modern-day solar calendar lasts 365 days divided into 12 months, based on the amount of time it takes for the earth to travel around the sun.
- In both calendar systems a year has 12 months. But an extra 13th month is sometimes added to the year in the lunar calendar to make up for the fact that a lunar year is 11 days less than a solar year. This helps keep the two calendars more in line with each other.
- In the Bible, the term "year" is also used in a figurative sense to refer to a general time when a special event takes place. Examples of this include, "the year of Yahweh" or "in the year of drought" or "the favorable year of the Lord." In these contexts, "year" could be translated as "time" or "season" or "time period."

yeast

Related Ideas:

leaven, unleavened

Definition:

"Leaven" is a general term for a substance that causes bread dough to expand and rise. "Yeast" is a specific kind of leaven.

- In some English translations, the word for leaven is translated as "yeast," which is a modern leavening agent that fills the bread dough with gas bubbles, making the dough expand before baking it. The yeast is kneaded into the dough so that it spreads throughout the entire lump of dough.
- In Old Testament times, the leavening or rising agent was produced by allowing the dough to sit for awhile. Small amounts of dough from a previous batch of dough were saved as leavening for the next batch.
- When the Israelites escaped from Egypt, they didn't have time to wait for bread dough to rise, so they made bread without leaven to take with them on their journey. As a reminder of this, every year the Jewish people celebrate Passover by eating bread that has no leaven in it.

The ideas of "leaven" and "yeast" can also be used in figurative ways.

- The terms "leaven" and "yeast" are used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of how sin spreads through a person's life or how sin can influence other people.
- They can also refer to false teaching which can spread to many people and influences them.
- They are also used in a positive way to explain how the influence of God's kingdom spreads from person to person.

Translation Suggestions

- This could be translated as "leaven" or "substance that causes dough to rise" or "expanding agent." The word "rise" could be expressed as "expand" or "get bigger" or "puff up."
- If a local leavening agent is used for making bread dough rise, that term can be used. If the language has a well-known, general term that means, "leavening," this would be the best term to use.

yoke

Definition:

A yoke is a piece of wood or metal attached to two or more animals to connect them for the purpose of pulling a plow or a cart. There are also several figurative meanings for this term.

- The term "yoke" is used figuratively to refer to something that joins people for the purpose of working together, such as in serving Jesus.
- Paul used the term "yokefellow" to refer to someone who was serving Christ as he was. This could also be translated as "fellow worker" or "fellow servant" or "coworker."
- The term "yoke" is also often used figuratively to refer to a heavy load that someone has to carry, such as when being oppressed by slavery or persecution.
- In most contexts, it is best to translate this term literally, using the local term for a yoke that is used for farming.
- Other ways to translate the figurative use of this term could be, "oppressive burden" or "heavy load" or "bond," depending on the context.
